MOTIONS AND RESOLUTIONS—CONTINUED

Mr. Frederick introduced—

Senate Resolution No. 31: A senate resolution expressing support and concern for Americans missing in action in Southeast Asia.

WHEREAS, there remain 27 Minnesotans officially listed as “missing in action” in Southeast Asia; and

WHEREAS, on Sunday, June 3, 1973, there will be a dedication of the “Freedom Tree” at the west end of the State Veteran’s Service Building, which will present all Minnesotans with an opportunity to show their support and concern for those American servicemen listed as “missing in action”;

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED by the Senate of the State of Minnesota that the Minnesota State Senate express its concern and pledge its support for all American servicemen listed as “missing in action”, and urges all Minnesotans to demonstrate their concern and support by participating in the “Freedom Tree” dedication on June 3, 1973.

Mr. Frederick moved the adoption of the foregoing resolution. Which motion prevailed. So the resolution was adopted.

Mr. Coleman, for the Committee on Rules and Administration, offered the following resolution:

BE IT RESOLVED, by the Senate that for the period between the close of the 1973 regular session and the convening of the 1974 regular session, the Senate Chamber, retiring room, committee rooms, all conference rooms, storage rooms, Secretary of the Senate's office, Rules and Administration office, and any and all other space assigned to the Senate, shall be reserved for use by the Senate and its standing committees only and shall not be released or used for any other purpose except upon authorization of the Secretary of the Senate with the approval of the Committee on Rules and Administration except that the Senate Chamber, Senate retiring room and such committee rooms as are available may be released by the Secretary of the Senate and be available to the Hi-Y Model Legislature and to the Girls' State. Provided, however, that the Senate Chamber and Senate Retiring room shall not be let out for any purpose during the months of November and December prior to a session of the legislature except upon approval of the Committee on Rules and Administration.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that the custodian of the State Capitol shall be instructed to keep the corridors and rotunda, insofar as is possible, clear of all furniture and equipment and that all Senate furniture remain in the committee rooms and offices, except as otherwise directed by the Secretary of the Senate upon approval of the Committee on Rules and Administration.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that the Commissioner of Administration shall be and is hereby instructed to furnish permits through the Secretary of the Senate to members of the Minnesota State Senate and authorized staff for parking facilities on Aurora Avenue for the period between the close of the 1973 regular session and the convening of the 1974 regular session, and other areas as may be required.

Mr. Coleman moved the adoption of the foregoing resolution. Which motion prevailed. So the resolution was adopted.

Mr. Coleman, for the Committee on Rules and Administration, offered the following resolution:

BE IT RESOLVED, by the Senate, that the Secretary of the Senate be and he is hereby authorized to correct and approve the Journal of the Senate for those days which have not been approved by the Senate.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that the Secretary of the Senate be authorized to include in the Senate Journal proceedings of the last day, appointments by the Committee on Committees to interim commissions created by legislative action, permanent commissions or committees established by statute, standing committees, official communications and such other matters of record received on or after the 21st day of May, 1973.

Mr. Coleman moved the adoption of the foregoing resolution. Which motion prevailed. So the resolution was adopted.

Mr. Coleman, for the Committee on Rules and Administration, offered the following resolution:

BE IT RESOLVED, that the Secretary of the Senate, with the approval of the Committee on Rules and Administration, is hereby authorized and directed to draw warrants:

1) In behalf of the several Senate employees for regular, special and overtime services rendered prior to, during and following the 1973 regular session;

2) For postage and other expenses of the Secretary of the Senate's office.

3) For roll call and public address system maintenance, improvement, repair or replacement;

4) For expenses of members in visiting state institutions;

5) For demoting, repairing or replacing the Senate Chamber carpeting;

6) For supplies and office equipment:

7) For maintaining and/or improving the acoustics and ventilation the Senate committee rooms and conference rooms;

8) For furniture and fixtures in committee rooms and conference rooms;

9) For such election and litigation costs as are authorized by the Committee on Rules and Administration;

10) For such other items necessary to the conduct of the Senate, subject to the approval of the Committee on Rules and Administration.

The question being taken on adoption of the resolution,

And the roll being called, there were yeas 55 and nays 0, as follows:

Those who voted in the affirmative were:

Anderson	Davies	Kleinbaum	Novak	Schaaf
Ashbach	Dunn	Knutson	Ogdahl	Schrom
Bang	Fitzsimons	Kowalczyk	Olhoff	Sillers
Bernhagen	Frederick	Krieger	Olson, A. G.	Solon

Chmielewski	Josefson	Milton	Perpich, G.	Ueland
Coleman	Keefe, J.	Nelson	Pillsbury	Wegener
Conzemius	Keefe, S.	North	Renneke	Willet

Which motion prevailed. So the resolution was adopted.

Mr. Coleman, for the Committee on Rules and Administration, offered the following resolution:

BE IT RESOLVED, that in conformity with Joint Rule 23, the following may be undertaken between the adjournment of the 68th legislature, first session and the convening of the 68th legislature, second session:

(1) Bills may be filed in the office of the President of the Senate in such manner as may be directed by the Committee on Rules and Administration.

(2) Bills so filed shall be assigned to the appropriate standing committee for consideration. The Committee on Rules and Administration may also order the printing of such filed bills.

(3) The committee after consideration and study of any measure submitted may report its recommendations in such manner as the Committee on Rules and Administration shall direct for consideration during the 68th legislature, second session.

(4) Bills duly introduced and considered during the 68th legislature, first session, remaining in any standing committee, may receive the same study and consideration and be subject to the same recommendations as previously set forth.

(5) That the items enumerated herein may be supplemented from time to time as the Committee on Rules and Administration may deem appropriate and the committee may issue such instructions as are necessary to the Secretary of the Senate to carry out the implementation of any such items.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that the Committee on Committees may appoint members of the Senate to assist in the work of any committee. Vacancies in each committee shall be filled by the Committee on Committees.

Each committee shall continue to exercise its powers and jurisdiction as provided in its rules.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that all employees needed to carry out the functions of the Senate during the period between the adjournment of the 68th legislature, first session and the convening of the 68th legislature, second session, shall be employed by the Committee on Rules and Administration, or a subcommittee thereof and be under its direction and control. Said employees shall be paid upon the abstract of the Secretary of the Senate at the salary rates fixed by the Committee on Rules and Administration.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that the Committee on Rules and Administration shall allocate the amount of expenses to each of the committees or subcommittees designated for the purpose stated herein; that all monies so allocated shall be paid from the legislative expense fund and the monies appropriated therein for standing committees.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that the Committee on Rules and Administration may authorize members of the Senate and personnel employed by the Senate to travel and to attend courses of instruction or conferences for the purpose of improving and making more efficient Senate operation and may reimburse such persons for the costs thereof out of monies appropriated to the Senate for the standing committees.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that all members of activated standing committees or subcommittees of the Senate, and staff, shall be reimbursed for all expenses actually and necessarily incurred in the performance of their duties between the adjournment of the 68th legislature, first session and the convening of the 68th legislature, second session, in the manner provided by law. Such payment shall be made by the Secretary of the Senate out of monies appropriated to the Senate for the standing committees; that the Committee on Rules and Administration shall determine the amount and manner for reimbursement for living and other expenses of each member of the Senate incurred in the performance of his duties when the legislature is not in regular session.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that the Secretary of the Senate, Senate Director of Research and any and all other personnel employed by the Senate in an executive capacity shall report to the Committee on Rules and Administration monthly regarding matters coming under their jurisdiction.

Mr. Coleman introduced—

Senate Resolution No. 32: A senate resolution relating to the office of the Secretary of the Senate, legislative printing and binding contracts, office supplies, equipment, records and expenses.

BE IT RESOLVED, by the Senate, that the Secretary of the Senate shall continue to perform his duties between the adjournment of the 68th legislature, first session, and the convening of the 68th legislature, second session. He is authorized and directed to maintain the offices of the Secretary of the Senate and to employ for the interval between the close of the 68th legislature, first session and the convening of the 68th legislature, second session, an office secretary and any other personnel required for Senate services as directed by the Committee on Rules and Administration.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that during said interval, but not including time which may be spent in any special session, the Secretary of the Senate shall be paid for services rendered the Senate at the rate established for that position for the 68th legislature, first session, unless otherwise directed by the Committee on Rules and Administration, plus travel and subsistence expense incurred incidental to his Senate duties, including salary and travel expense incurred in attending the annual meeting of the Secretaries and Chief Clerks National Legislative Conference sponsored by the Council of State Governments.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that the Secretary of the Senate, with the approval of the Committee on Rules and Administration, is hereby authorized and directed to secure bids and enter into contracts for the printing of the daily Senate journals, bills, general orders, special orders, calendars, resolutions, printing and binding of the permanent Senate journal, and other printing required by the Senate for the 68th legislature, second session, and/or any special session called prior to the 69th regular sessions of the legislature; that any contracts awarded shall be signed by the chairman of the Committee on Rules and Administration and such other member as the Committee on Rules and Administration shall designate.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that the Secretary of the Senate, with the approval of the Committee on Rules and Administration, is hereby authorized and directed to purchase office supplies and equipment required during the adjournment of the 68th legislature, first session, and to negotiate for essential office supplies and equipment which must be pre-ordered to insure delivery for the Senate at the next session of the Legislature.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that all Senate records, including committee books, after the adjournment of the 68th legislature, first session and prior to the convening of the 68th legislature, second session, shall be subject to the direction of the Committee on Rules and Administration.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that the Secretary of the Senate, as directed by the Committee on Rules and Administration, shall furnish each member of the Senate after the adjournment of the 68th legislature, first session, and prior to the convening of the 68th legislature, second session, with such postage and supplies as it may determine, and further that the Secretary of the Senate, with the approval of the Committee on Rules and Administration, may reimburse members of the Senate, upon proper verification of the expenses incurred, for long distance telephone calls after the adjournment of the 68th legislature, first session, and prior to the convening of the 68th legislature, second session.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that the Secretary of the Senate is hereby authorized and directed to draw warrants from the legislative expense fund in payment of the accounts herein referred to as they apply to such funds.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that the Secretary of the Senate is hereby directed to implement Minnesota Statutes, Section 3.095. The term "permanent" shall mean all employees heretofore certified by the Committee on Rules and Administration and the Secretary of the Senate as permanent employees and those hereinafter certified by the Committee on Rules and Administration and the Secretary of the Senate as permanent.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that should a vacancy occur in the position of Secretary of the Senate, by resignation or other causes, the Committee on Rules and Administration shall appoint an acting Secretary of the Senate who shall serve in such capacity during the remainder of the interval between the adjournment of the 68th legislature, first session and the convening of the 68th legislature, second session, under the provisions herein specified.
