For matters not covered in the foregoing, Jefferson's Manual shall govern the Senate.

HOOR OF CONVENING

2. The Senate shall convene on days of meeting at 12 o'clock noon unless the Senate directs otherwise.

CALLING SENATE TO ORDER

He shall preserve order and decorum; may speak on points of order in preference to members, and shall also decide all questions of order, subject to an appeal to the Senate by any member but such appeal shall be decided by a majority vote of those present and voting thereon. Upon an appeal from the decision of the Chair, the question shall be "shall the decision of the Chair be the judgment of the Senate?"

PRESIDENT

4. In the absence of the President, the Chairman of the Committee on Rules and Administration, or his designee, shall preside over the Senate, and in his absence a member may be selected by the Senate to perform the duties of the President; but substitutions shall not extend beyond adjournment.

5. No Senator or officer of the Senate shall absent himself from any session of the Senate unless excused by the Senate.

CALENDAR OF ORDINARY MATTERS

9. If a committee determines that a bill it recommends to pass is of a routine nature or otherwise of a nature which likely will not be opposed, it may in its report, recommend that the bill be placed on the Calendar of Ordinary Matters. If such report is adopted, the bill will be printed and placed on the Calendar of Ordinary Matters after its second reading. On the question of adoption of such report the question of accepting the recommendation that the bill be placed on the Calendar of Ordinary Matters may be divided from the question of adopting the report in other respects.

A majority of the whole Senate may order any bill on General Orders to be placed on the Calendar of Ordinary Matters.

The Calendar of Ordinary Matters shall consist of bills so placed on it; Rule 8 will govern it except that such bills will not be first considered in the Committee of the Whole and except as inconsistent with this rule.

If a member objects to consideration of a bill on the Calendar of Ordinary Matters at any time during its consideration in the Senate before the question on final passage is put, and that objec-

QUESTIONS—HOW STATED

Rule 3. Questions shall be distinctly put in this form, to-wit:

"As many as are of the opinion that (as the question may be), say 'Aye,' " and after an affirmative vote is expressed, "As many as are of the contrary opinion, say 'No.' " If the President doubts, or a division be called, the Convention shall decide—those in the affirmative of the question shall first rise and afterwards those in the negative.

PRESIDENT'S RIGHT TO VOTE

Rule 4. The President shall have the right of voting in all cases except on an appeal from the decisions, and on all questions he shall vote last.

ORDER OF DEBATE

Rule 5. When any member is about to speak or deliver any matter to the Convention, he shall rise and respectfully address himself to "Mr. President," and confine himself to the question under debate and avoid personalities.

Rule 6. Whenever any member is called to order, he shall be seated until the point of order is determined; and if called to order for words spoken in debate the exceptional words shall be reduced in writing immediately.

The manner of procedure shall be as follows: The Senate, for instance, passes a bill and it is duly transmitted to the House, which body adopts an amendment to the bill and passes the bill as amended, returning the same with the record of the actions of the House, to the Senate; the Senate refuses to concur in the House amendment, asks for a Conference Committee, appoints such a committee on the part of the Senate, and with a record of the action of the Senate, returns the bill to the House; if the House adheres to its amendment, a like committee is appointed on the part of the House. The joint committee shall, at a convenient hour agreed upon, meet and state to each other, ~~verbally~~ orally or in writing, the reason of their respective houses for or against the disagreement, and confer thereon, and shall report to both houses such agreement as they may arrive at, if any—and if not, the fact of a disagreement. Within seven calendar days after the appointment of such committee and every seven calendar days thereafter until such time as such committee is discharged, the committee shall report its progress to both houses. All Conference Committees shall be open to the public. Meetings of Conference Committees shall be announced as far in advance as practicable. Except on the last Saturday during which a bill may be passed in any year, a copy of a report of a Conference Committee shall be placed on the desk of each member of a house in written form twelve hours in advance of action on the report by that house unless the report has been reprinted in the Journal of either house for a preceding day and is available to the members.

EITHER HOUSE MAY RECEDE, ETC.
