Reports the same back with the recommendation that the bill be amended as follows:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert:

“Section 1. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 15.375, Subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [COMMISSIONER OF FINANCE; DUTIES.] The commissioner of finance, upon the written request of a state officer or employee, may deduct each payroll period from the salary or wages of the officer or employee the amount specified ~~therein in the written request~~ for payment to ~~the United Fund~~ an approved combined charitable organization defined in section 2, and issue his warrant ~~therefor in that amount to the United Fund~~ that approved combined charitable organization.

Sec. 2. [309.501] [APPROVED COMBINED CHARITABLE ORGANIZATIONS.]

Subdivision 1. [DEFINITIONS.] As used in this section, the following terms have the meanings given them.

“Approved combined charitable organization” means an organization (1) which is tax exempt under section 501(c)3 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, as amended through December 31, 1980 (hereinafter “Internal Revenue Code”), and to which contributions are deductible under section 170 of the Internal Revenue Code; (2) which secures funds for distribution to ten or more charitable agencies in a single, annual consolidated effort; (3) which is in compliance with the provisions of this chapter; and (4) which has been approved by the commissioner of securities and real estate in the department of commerce in accordance with this section.

“Charitable agency” means a governmental agency or an organization (1) which is tax exempt under section 501(c)3 of the Internal Revenue Code; (2) to which contributions are deductible under section 170 of the Internal Revenue Code; and (3) which is in compliance with the provisions of this chapter.

Subd. 2. [DESIGNATED CONTRIBUTIONS.] An approved combined charitable organization may offer a state officer or employee the option of designating in writing that the amount deducted in section 1 be designated to any charitable agency, whether or not the charitable agency receives funds from the single, annual consolidated effort. An approved charitable organization which offers this option shall provide a list of charitable agencies receiving funds and the amount each charitable agency receives in the annual report required pursuant to section 309.53.

Subd. 3. [APPROVAL PROCESS.] An organization may apply to the commissioner of securities and real estate in the department of commerce on forms provided by the commissioner as an approved combined charitable organization on January 1, 1982, or thereafter. An organization which applies to the commissioner shall provide the commissioner with all information the commissioner deems necessary to determine the charitable and tax exempt status of the organization and its compliance with the provisions of this chapter. The organization shall also provide the commissioner with a list of the charitable agencies that the organization secures funds for and all information the commissioner deems necessary to determine the charitable and tax exempt status of these agencies and their compliance with the provisions of this chapter. Notwithstanding section 309.53, subdivision 1a, each charitable agency shall file the report required in section 309.53. The commissioner shall approve or disapprove the application of an organization within 60 days. The decision of the commissioner shall be in writing and shall be based on the provisions of this section. No organization may apply to the commissioner more than once in a 12 month period. Approved combined charitable organizations shall file the report required in section 309.53. The commissioner shall notify the commissioner of finance in writing of his decision to grant approval to an organization under this section.

GENERAL ORDERS

The Senate resolved itself into a Committee of the Whole, with Mr. Bang in the chair.

After some time spent therein, the committee arose, and Mr. Bang reported that the committee had considered the following:

S. F. No. 346, which the committee recommends to pass, subject to the following motions:

Mr. Humphrey moved to amend S.F. No. 346 as follows:

Page 1, line 16, after the comma, insert "the rating association shall also provide data on Minnesota experience with respect to the information required in this section."

Page 1, line 25, after "rates" insert "and shall apply the formulas and other methods of rate calculation presented at the rate hearing to the information received in evidence at the rate hearing"

Page 1, line 27, delete the comma and strike "and" and insert ". After consideration of the information in accordance with this section, the commissioner shall adopt the lowest rate obtainable consistent with the standards established in section 79.071. The commissioner"

Page 2, line 5, after "commissioner" insert "to apply the formulas and other methods of rate calculation to the information received in evidence at the rate hearing and"

The motion prevailed. So the amendment was adopted.

Mr. Frederick moved to amend S.F. No. 346 as follows:

Page 2, after line 19, insert:

"Sec. 3. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 176.021, Subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [COMPENSATION, COMMENCEMENT OF PAYMENT.] All employers shall commence payment of the compensation at the time and in the manner prescribed by this chapter without the necessity of any agreement or any order of the division. Except those of medical, burial, and other non-periodic benefits, payments shall be made as nearly as may be at the intervals when the wage was payable; provided, however, that payments for permanent partial disability in cases in which return to work occurs prior to four weeks from the date of injury shall be made by lump sum payment, and the provisions of section 176.165 shall not apply, without the necessity of any agreement, or order of the division, upon cessation of payments for temporary total disability and upon the employee's return to work. In cases in which return to work does not occur prior to four weeks after injury, payments for permanent partial disability shall be made according to the following schedule: 25 percent of the amount due after four weeks from the date of injury, 25 percent after eight weeks, 25 percent after 12 weeks and 25 percent after 16 weeks, provided that any and all payments remaining shall be paid upon the cessation of payments for temporary total disability and upon the employee's return to work or as soon thereafter as such permanent partial disability can be ascertained, unless, upon good cause shown, it is otherwise ordered by the division. If doubt exists at that time as to the eventual permanent partial disability, payment shall be then made for the minimum permanent partial disability ascertainable in lump sum, and further lump sum payment shall be made upon any later ascertainment of greater permanent partial disability. At the time of the tender of the lump sum payment, the employee and employer shall be furnished with a copy of the medical report upon which the payment is based, together with a statement by the insurer as to whether the tendered payment is for minimum permanent partial disability or final and eventual disability. Compensation for permanent partial disability is payable concurrently and in addition to compensation for temporary total disability and temporary partial disability as set forth in section 176.101, subdivisions 1 and 2, and for permanent total disability as defined in section 176.101, subdivision 5; and such compensation for permanent partial disability shall not be deferred pending completion of payment for temporary disability or permanent total disability, and no credit shall be taken for payment of permanent partial disability against liability for permanent total disability. Liability on the part of an employer or his insurer for disability of a temporary total, temporary partial, and permanent total nature shall be considered as a continuing product and part of the employee's inability to earn or reduction in earning capacity due to injury or occupational disease and shall be payable accordingly. Permanent partial disability is payable for functional loss of use or impairment of function, permanent in nature, and payment therefore shall be separate, distinct, and in addition to payment for any other compensation. The right to receive temporary total, temporary partial, permanent partial or permanent total disability payments shall vest in the injured employee or his dependents under this chapter or, if none, in his legal heirs at the time the disability can be ascertained and the right shall not be abrogated by the employee's death prior to the making of the payment."

Renumber the sections in sequence

Amend the title as follows:

Page 1, line 8, delete "Section" and insert "Sections" and after the semicolon, insert "and 176.021, Subdivision 3;"
