Reports the same back with the recommendation that the bill be amended as follows:

“Sec. 3. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 296.12, Subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [COLLECTION, REPORTING AND PAYMENT OF TAX.] ~~All distributors and special fuel dealers selling or delivering special fuel into the supply tank of an aircraft or a licensed motor vehicle shall collect, report and pay the excise tax thereon to the commissioner.~~

~~Distributors may, subject to the approval of the commissioner, elect to shall pay the special fuel excise tax on all combustible gases and liquid petroleum products or substitutes therefor, except gasoline, delivered into storage tanks at retail service stations operated by them. Upon such election, the payment of the special fuel excise tax shall be made in the same manner for the balance of the license period.~~

~~Licensed special fuel dealers may, subject to the approval of the commissioner, elect to pay the special fuel excise tax on all combustible gases and liquid petroleum products or substitutes therefor, except gasoline, delivered to them. Upon such election, the payment of the special fuel excise tax shall be made in the same manner for the balance of the license period.~~

Distributors and special fuel dealers may, subject to the approval of the commissioner, elect to pay to the commissioner the special fuel excise tax on all special fuel delivered or sold into the supply tank of an aircraft or a licensed motor vehicle. Under this option an invoice must be issued at the time of each delivery showing the name and address of the purchaser, date of sale, number of gallons, price per gallon and total amount of sale. A separate sales ticket book shall be maintained for special fuel sales.

Bulk purchasers shall report and pay the excise tax on all special fuel purchased by them for storage, to the commissioner.

Any person delivering special fuel on which the excise tax has not previously been paid, into the supply tank of an aircraft or a licensed motor vehicle shall report such delivery and pay the excise tax on the special fuel so delivered, to the commissioner.

Sec. 4. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 296.12, Subdivision 4, is amended to read:

Subd. 4. [MONTHLY REPORTS; SHRINKAGE ALLOWANCE.] On or before the 23rd day of each month, the persons subject to the provisions of this section shall file in the office of the commissioner at St. Paul, Minnesota, a report in the following manner:

(1) Distributors and special fuel dealers shall report the total number of gallons of special fuel sold or delivered into the supply tank of an aircraft or a licensed motor vehicle by them during the preceding calendar month, and the report shall be accompanied by the special fuel excise tax due thereon and such other information as the commissioner may require.

(2) Distributors and special fuel dealers who have elected to pay the special fuel excise tax on all special fuel delivered to them as provided in subdivision 3 of section 296.12 shall report the total number of gallons delivered to them during the preceding calendar month and shall pay the special fuel excise tax due thereon to the commissioner. Credit for the excise tax due or previously paid on special fuel used by the distributor or special fuel dealer for heating his place of business, or special fuel sold for any purpose other than use in licensed motor vehicles and evidenced by an invoice issued at time of sale, may be allowed in computing the tax liability. The invoice must show the true and correct name and address of the purchaser, and the purchaser's signature. The report shall contain such other information as the commissioner may require. The first report after such election shall also show the total gallons on hand on the first day of the period for which the report is filed and it shall be accompanied by the special fuel excise tax due thereon.

(2) Distributors and special fuel dealers who have elected to pay the special fuel excise tax on all special fuel delivered into the supply tank of an aircraft or licensed motor vehicle as provided in section 296.12, subdivision 3, shall report the total number of gallons delivered into the supply tank of an aircraft or licensed motor vehicle during the preceding calendar month and shall pay the special fuel excise tax due thereon to the commissioner.

(3) Bulk purchasers shall report and pay the special fuel excise tax on all special fuel purchased by them for storage during the preceding calendar month. In such cases as the commissioner may permit, credit for the excise tax due or previously paid on special fuel not used in aircraft or licensed motor vehicles, may be allowed in computing tax liability. The report shall contain such other information as the commissioner may require.

(4) In computing the special fuel excise tax due under clauses (1), (2), and (3), a deduction of one percent of the quantity of special fuel on which tax is due shall be made for evaporation and loss.

Sec. 5. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 296.12, Subdivision 5, is amended to read:

Subd. 5. [SALES TICKETS.] A sales ticket shall be issued for each delivery of special fuel to a bulk purchaser or into the supply tank of an aircraft or a licensed motor vehicle. A sales ticket shall also be issued for each delivery into the supply tank of an aircraft or a licensed motor vehicle, if so requested by the purchaser. The person who delivers the special fuel shall issue and sign the sales ticket and such person shall show thereon the name and address of the purchaser, motor vehicle license number if delivered into the supply tank of a licensed motor vehicle, date of sale, number of gallons, price per gallon, and total amount of sale. ~~On deliveries of special fuel into the supply tank of an aircraft or a licensed motor vehicle the sales ticket shall show the per gallon rate of special fuel excise tax. The words "Special Fuel" shall be written on each sales ticket at the time of sale or delivery. A separate sales ticket book shall be maintained for special fuel sales by a special fuel dealer.~~

Reports the same back with the recommendation that the bill be amended as follows:

Delete everything after the enacting clause and insert:

"Section 1. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 256D.07, is amended to read:

256D.07 [TIME OF PAYMENT OF ASSISTANCE.]

An applicant for general assistance or general assistance medical care authorized by section 256D.03, subdivision 3 shall be deemed ~~presumptively~~ eligible if his application ~~on its face demonstrates~~ and the verification of the statement on that application demonstrate that he is within the eligibility criteria established by sections 256D.01 to 256D.21 and any applicable rules of the commissioner. Any person requesting general assistance or general assistance medical care shall be permitted by the local agency to make an application for assistance as soon as administratively possible and in no event later than the fourth day following the date on which assistance is first requested, and no local agency shall require that a person requesting assistance appear at the offices of the local agency more than once prior to the date on which the person is permitted to make the application. The application shall be in writing in the manner and upon the form prescribed by the commissioner and verified attested to by the oath of the applicant or in lieu thereof shall contain the following declaration which shall be signed by the applicant: "I declare that this application has been examined by me and to the best of my knowledge and belief is a true and correct statement of every material point." On the date that general assistance is first requested, the local agency shall inquire and determine whether the person requesting assistance is in immediate need of food, shelter, clothing, assistance for necessary transportation, or other emergency assistance pursuant to section 256D.06, subdivision 2. A person in need of emergency assistance shall be granted emergency assistance immediately, and necessary emergency assistance shall continue until either the person is determined to be ineligible for general assistance or the first grant of general assistance is paid to the person. A determination of an applicant's eligibility for general assistance shall be made by the local agency as soon as the required verifications are received by the local agency and in no event later than 30 days following the date that the application is made. Any verifications required of the applicant shall be reasonable, and the commissioner shall by rule establish reasonable verifications. General assistance shall be immediately granted to such presumptively an eligible applicant without the necessity of first securing action by the board of the local agency. The amount of the first grant of general assistance awarded to an applicant shall be computed to cover the time period starting with the date that assistance is first requested or if the applicant is not eligible on that date, the date on which the applicant first becomes eligible, and the first grant may be reduced by the amount of emergency general assistance provided to the applicant.

If upon verification and due investigation it appears that the applicant provided false information and the false information materially affected his eligibility for general assistance or general assistance medical care provided pursuant to section 256D.03, subdivision 3 or the amount of his general assistance grant, the local agency may refer the matter to the county attorney. The county attorney may commence a criminal prosecution or a civil action for the recovery of any general assistance wrongfully received, or both.

Sec. 2. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 256D.09, Subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. ~~All~~ Until the local agency has determined the initial eligibility of the applicant in accordance with the provisions of section 256D.07, grants for emergency general assistance shall be in the form of vouchers or vendor payments unless the local agency determines that a cash grant will best resolve the applicant's need for emergency assistance. Thereafter, grants of general assistance shall be paid in cash and subsequent to the initial grant, shall be paid once per month on the first day of the month.

Sec. 3. [EFFECTIVE DATE.]

Sections 1 and 2 are effective the day following final enactment."
