"Sec. 38. [290.521] [ACTION TO ENJOIN INCOME TAX RETURN PREPARERS.]

Subdivision 1. [AUTHORITY TO SEEK INJUNCTION.] A civil action in the name of the state of Minnesota to enjoin any person who is an income tax return preparer doing business in this state from further engaging in any conduct described in subdivision 2 or from further acting as an income tax return preparer may be commenced at the request of the commissioner of revenue. Any action under this section shall be brought by the attorney general in the district court for the judicial district in which the income tax return preparer resides or has his principal place of business, or in which the taxpayer with respect to whose income tax return the action is brought resides. The court may exercise its jurisdiction over such action separate and apart from any other action brought by the state of Minnesota against such income tax return preparer or any taxpayer.

Subd. 2. [ADJUDICATION AND DECREES.] In any action under subdivision 1, if the court finds:

(a) that an income tax return preparer has:

(1) engaged in any conduct subject to the criminal penalty provided by section 39, or subject to the civil penalties under section 40,

(2) misrepresented his eligibility to practice before the department of revenue, or otherwise misrepresented his experience or education as an income tax return preparer,

(3) guaranteed the payment of any tax refund or the allowance of any tax credit, or

(4) engaged in any other fraudulent or deceptive conduct which substantially interferes with the proper administration of the provisions of this chapter, and

(b) that injunctive relief is appropriate to prevent the recurrence of such conduct, the court may enjoin such person from further engaging in such conduct. If the court finds that an income tax return preparer has continually or repeatedly engaged in any conduct described in clauses (1) through (4) of clause (a) of this subdivision, and that an injunction prohibiting such conduct would not be sufficient to prevent such person's interference with the proper administration of this chapter, the court may enjoin such person from acting as an income tax return preparer.

Subd. 3. [INCOME TAX RETURN PREPARER DEFINED.] For purposes of this section and section 40, the term "income tax return preparer" means any person who prepares for compensation, or who employs one or more persons to prepare for compensation, any return of tax imposed by this chapter, or any claim for refund of tax imposed by this chapter. For purposes of the preceding sentence, the preparation of a substantial portion of a return or claim for refund shall be treated as if it were the preparation of such return or claim for refund.

A person shall not be an income tax preparer merely because such person:

(a) furnishes typing, reproducing, or other mechanical assistance,

(b) prepares a return or claim for refund of the employer (or an officer or employee of the employer) by whom he is regularly and continuously employed,

(c) prepares as a fiduciary a return or claim for refund of any person, or

(d) prepares a claim for refund for a taxpayer in response to any notice of deficiency issued to such taxpayer, or in response to any waiver of restriction after the commencement of an audit of such taxpayer or another taxpayer, if a determination in such audit of such other taxpayer directly or indirectly affects the tax liability of the first taxpayer.

Sec. 39. [290.522] [PREPARATION OF FALSE OR FRAUDULENT

RETURN.]

Any person (whether or not an income tax return preparer as defined in section 38, subdivision 3) who wilfully aids or assists in, or procures, counsels, or advises the preparation or presentation under, or in connection with any matter arising under the provisions of this chapter, of a return, affidavit, claim, or other document, which he knows to be fraudulent or false as to any material matter, whether or not such falsity or fraud is with the knowledge or consent of the person authorized or required to present such return, affidavit, claim, or document, shall be guilty of a felony, and may be prosecuted in the same manner and within the same period of limitations as provided in section 290.53, subdivision 4.

Sec. 40. [290.523] [UNDERSTATEMENT OF TAXPAYER'S LIABILITY BY INCOME TAX RETURN PREPARER.]

Subdivision 1. [NEGLIGENT OR INTENTIONAL DISREGARD OF STATUTORY PROVISIONS OR RULES.] If any part of any understatement of liability with respect to any return or claim for refund is due to the negligent or intentional disregard of the provisions of this chapter, or the rules prescribed by the commissioner of revenue in connection therewith, by any person who is an income tax return preparer (as defined in section 38, subdivision 3) with respect to such return or claim, such person shall pay to the commissioner a penalty of $100 with respect to such return or claim. This penalty shall be collected in the same manner as any delinquent income tax.

Subd. 2. [WILFUL UNDERSTATEMENT OF LIABILITY.] If any part of any understatement of liability with respect to any return or claim for refund is due to a wilful attempt in any manner to understate the liability for a tax by a person who is an income tax return preparer with respect to such return or claim, such person shall pay to the commissioner a penalty of $500 with respect to such return or claim. This penalty shall be collected in the same manner as any delinquent income tax. With respect to any return or claim, the amount of the penalty payable by any person by reason of this subdivision shall be reduced by the amount of the penalty paid by such person by reason of subdivision 1.

Subd. 3. [UNDERSTATEMENT OF LIABILITY DEFINED.] For purposes of this section, the term "understatement of liability" means any understatement of the net amount payable with respect to any tax imposed by this chapter, or any overstatement of the net amount creditable or refundable with respect to any such tax. The determination of whether or not there is an understatement of liability shall be made without regard to any administrative or judicial action involving the taxpayer.

Subd. 4. [ABATEMENT OF PENALTY.] The commissioner of revenue shall have the power to abate the penalties imposed by subdivisions 1 and 2:

(a) if at any time in regard to the liability of the taxpayer, there is a final determination by the commissioner or a final judicial decision which shows that there was no understatement of liability on the return or claim for refund with respect to which a penalty has been assessed, or

(b) when in his opinion their enforcement would be unjust and inequitable.

Sec. 41. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 290A.03, Subdivision 7, is amended to read:

Subd. 7.
