"Section 1. [2.732] [LEGISLATIVE FINDINGS.]

The legislature finds that the state of Minnesota is divided into two main communities of interest: the seven-county metropolitan area consisting of the counties of Hennepin, Ramsey, Dakota, Washington, Anoka, Carver and Scott, and the outstate area, consisting of the eighty other counties. The legislature further finds that the population of the state is generally equally divided between these two main communities of interest, and that to ensure that the residents of the state of Minnesota receive the most effective representation in the Congress of the United States of America, that the congressional district boundaries should reflect these two main communities of interest; that the current congressional district boundaries result in a fragmentation of the representation of these two communities of interest in that seven of the eight current congressional districts encompass all or part of both of the two main communities of interest; that to alleviate this fragmentation of representation the legislature finds that the eight congressional districts should be allocated to each of the two main communities of interest on an equal basis with four congressional districts encompassing the seven-county metropolitan area and the counties of Chisago and Isanti to ensure population equality, and four congressional districts allocated to the remaining seventy-eight-county outstate area."
