Sec. 17. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 168.10, Subdivision 1c, is amended to read:

Subd. 1c. [COLLECTOR'S VEHICLE, COLLECTOR LICENSE.] Any motor vehicle that is at least 20 model years old and manufactured after 1935, or of a defunct make, defined as any car originally licensed as a separate identifiable make as designated by the division of motor vehicles, and owned and operated solely as a collector's vehicle, shall be listed for taxation and registration as follows: An affidavit shall be executed stating the name and address of the person from whom purchased and of the new owner, the make of the motor vehicle, year and number of the model, the manufacturer's identification number and that the vehicle is owned and operated solely as a collector's item and not for general transportation purposes. The owner must also prove that he or she also has one or more vehicles with regular license plates. If the registrar is satisfied that the affidavit is true and correct and the owner pays a ~~$20~~ $100 tax, the registrar shall list such vehicle for taxation and registration and shall issue number plates.

The number plates so issued shall bear the inscription "Collector," "Minnesota" and the registration number, but no date. The number plates are valid without renewal as long as the vehicle is in existence and shall be issued for the applicant's use only for such vehicle. The registrar has the power to revoke such plates for failure to comply with this subdivision.

In the event of the defacement, loss or destruction of such number plates, the registrar, upon receiving and filing a sworn statement of the vehicle owner, setting forth the circumstances, together with any defaced plates and the payment of a $2 fee, shall issue duplicate plates specially designed for that purpose. The registrar shall then note on his records the issue of such new number plates and shall proceed in such a manner as he may deem advisable to cancel and call in the original plates.

Sec. 18. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 168.10, Subdivision 1d, is amended to read:

Subd. 1d. [COLLECTORS VEHICLES, STREET ROD LICENSE.] Any modernized motor vehicle manufactured prior to the year 1949 or designed and manufactured to resemble such vehicle shall be listed for taxation and registration as follows:

An affidavit shall be executed stating the name and address of the person from whom purchased and of the new owner, the make of the motor vehicle, year number of model, and the manufacturer's identification number. The affidavit shall further state that the vehicle is owned and operated solely as a street rod and not for general transportation purposes. The owner must also prove that he or she has one or more vehicles with regular license plates. If the registrar is satisfied that the affidavit is true and correct and the owner pays a ~~$25~~ $100 tax, the registrar shall list such vehicle for taxation and registration and shall issue number plates.

The number plates issued shall bear the inscription "Street Rod", "Minnesota" and the registration number but no date. The number plates are valid without renewal as long as the vehicle is in existence and shall be issued for the applicant's use only for such vehicle. The registrar has the power to revoke such plates for failure to comply with this subdivision.

In the event of the defacement, loss or destruction of such number plates, the registrar, upon receiving and filing a sworn statement of the vehicle's owner, setting forth the circumstances, together with any defaced plates and the payment of a $5 fee, shall issue duplicate plates specially designed for that purpose. The registrar shall then note on his records the issue of such new number plates and shall proceed in such a manner as he may deem advisable to cancel and call in the original plates.

Sec. 19. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 168.12, Subdivision 2a, is amended to read:

Subd. 2a. [PERSONALIZED LICENSE PLATES.] Personalized license plates shall be issued to any applicant for registration of a passenger automobile, station wagon, van or pickup truck with a gross weight of 9,000 pounds or less, or self-propelled recreational vehicle, upon compliance with all laws of this state relating to registration of the vehicle, and upon payment of a fee of ~~$50~~ $100 in addition to the registration tax required by law for the vehicle. In lieu of the numbers assigned as provided in subdivision 1, such personalized license plates shall have imprinted thereon a series of not to exceed any combination of six numbers and letters. When an applicant has once obtained personalized plates, he shall have a prior claim for similar personalized plates in the next succeeding year that plates are issued if he makes application for them at least 30 days prior to the first date on which his registration can be renewed. The commissioner of public safety shall adopt rules and regulations in the manner provided by chapter 15, regulating the issuance and transfer of such personalized license plates. No words or combination of letters placed on such personalized license plates may be used for commercial advertising or be of an obscene, indecent or immoral nature, or such as would offend public morals or decency. The call signals or letters of a radio or television station shall not be construed as commercial advertising for the purposes of this subdivision.

Notwithstanding the provisions of subdivision 1, personalized license plates issued pursuant to this subdivision may be transferred to another motor vehicle upon the payment of a fee of $5, which fee shall be paid into the state treasury and credited to the highway user tax distribution fund. The registrar may by regulation provide a form for such notification.

The fee prescribed for personalized license plates shall be paid only in those years in which the number plate itself is issued, and shall not be payable in any year in which a year plate, tab or sticker is issued in lieu of a number plate.

All fees from the sale of personalized license plates shall be paid into the state treasury and credited to the highway user tax distribution fund."

The purposes of chapter 79 are to:

(a) Promote public welfare by regulating insurance rates so that premiums are not excessive, inadequate, or unfairly discriminatory;

(b) Promote quality and integrity in the data bases used in workers' compensation insurance ratemaking;

(c) Prohibit price fixing agreements and anticompetitive behavior by insurers;

(d) Promote price competition and provide rates that are responsive to competitive market conditions;

(e) Provide a means of establishment of proper rates if competition is not effective;

(f) Define the function and scope of activities of data service organizations; and

(g) Provide for an orderly transition from regulated rates to competitive market conditions.

Sec. 2. [79.51] [RULES.]

Subdivision 1. [ADOPTION; WHEN.] The commissioner shall adopt rules to implement provisions of chapter 79. The rules shall be finally adopted after May 1, 1982. By January 15, 1982, the commissioner shall provide the legislature a description and explanation of the intent and anticipated effect of the rules on the various factors of the rating system.

Subd. 2. [TRANSITION PERIOD; RULES GOVERN.] Insurance rates from July 1, 1983, to December 31, 1985, shall be determined in accordance with rules adopted by the commissioner. The rules shall require (1) that a hearing be held pursuant to the provisions of section 79.071 to consider any petition requesting modification of rates and (2) that following the hearing the commissioner shall adopt a schedule of rates.

Subd. 3. [RULES; SUBJECT MATTER.] (a) The commissioner in issuing rules shall consider:

(1) Data reporting requirements, including types of data reported, such as loss and expense data;

(2) Experience rating plans;

(3) Retrospective rating plans;

(4) General expenses and related expense provisions;

(5) Minimum premiums;

(6) Classification systems and assignment of risks to classifications;

(7) Loss development and trend factors;

(8) The workers' compensation reinsurance association;

(9) Restrictions, prohibitions, and requirements with respect to the activities of the workers' compensation insurers rating association of Minnesota during the period from July 1, 1983, to January 1, 1986;

(10) Requiring substantial compliance with the rules mandated by this section as a condition of workers' compensation carrier licensure;

(11) Imposing limitations on the functions of workers' compensation data service organizations consistent with the introduction of competition;

(12) The rules contained in the workers' compensation rating manual adopted by the workers' compensation insurers rating association; and

(13) Any other factors that the commissioner deems relevant to achieve the purposes of sections 1 to 14.

(b) The rules shall provide for the following:

(1) Competition in workers' compensation insurance rates in such a way that the advantages of competition are introduced with a minimum of employer hardship during the transition period;

(2) Adequate safeguards against excessive or discriminatory rates in workers' compensation during the transition period;

(3) Encouragement of workers' compensation insurance rates which are as low as reasonably necessary, but shall make provision against inadequate rates, insolvencies and unpaid benefits;

(4) Assurances that employers are not unfairly relegated to the assigned risk pool;

(5) Requiring all appropriate data and other information from insurers for the purpose of issuing rules and making legislative recommendations pursuant to this section; and

(6) Preserving a framework for risk classification, data collection, and other appropriate joint insurer services where these will not impede the introduction of competition in premium rates.

(c) The rules shall expire on January 1, 1986.

Subd. 4. [ADVISORY COMMITTEE.] The commissioner shall appoint an advisory committee which shall offer recommendations regarding rulemaking under this section. The advisory committee shall include representatives of insurers, employers, and employees.

Sec. 3. [79.52] [DEFINITIONS.]

Subdivision 1. [GENERALLY.] The following words or phrases shall have the meanings ascribed to them for the purposes of sections 1 to 14, unless the context clearly indicates that a different meaning is intended.

Subd. 2. [MARKET.] "Market" means any reasonable grouping or classification of employers.

Subd. 3. [DATA SERVICE ORGANIZATION.] "Data service organization" means any entity which has ten or more members or is controlled directly or indirectly by ten or more insurers and is engaged in collecting data for use in insurance ratemaking or other activities permitted by chapter 79. Affiliated members or insurers shall be counted as a single unit for the purpose of this definition. The workers' compensation insurers rating association of Minnesota shall be considered a data service organization.

Subd. 4. [CLASSIFICATION PLAN; CLASSIFICATION.] "Classification plan" or "classification" means the plan, system, or arrangement for rating insurance policyholders.

Subd. 5. [RATES.] "Rates" means the cost of insurance per exposure base unit.

Subd. 6. [BASE PREMIUM.] "Base premium" means the amount of premium which an employer would pay for insurance derived by applying rates to an exposure base prior to the application of any merit rating or discount factors.

Subd. 7. [PREMIUM.] "Premium" means the price charged to an insured for insurance for a specified period of time, regardless of the timing of actual payments.

Subd. 8. [DISCOUNT FACTOR.] "Discount factor" means any factor which is applied to the base premium and which is based upon insurer expenses or other factors not related to the risk of loss.

Subd. 9. [MERIT RATING.] "Merit rating" means a system or form of rating by which base premium is modified on the basis of loss experience or other factors which are reasonably related to loss or risk of loss and which may be reasonably affected by the action or activities of the insured. The sensitivity of a merit rating system to loss experience may vary by the size of risk. Merit rating shall include both prospective and retrospective methods for modifying base premium.

Subd. 10. [LOSS DEVELOPMENT FACTORS.] "Loss development factors" means factors applied to recorded incurred losses to estimate the amount of ultimate loss payments that will have been made for losses during the applicable period when all claims are paid.

Subd. 11. [TREND OR TRENDING.] "Trend" or "trending" means any procedure employing data for the purpose of projecting or forecasting the future value of that data or other data, or the factors resulting from such a procedure.

Subd. 12. [INTERESTED PARTY.] "Interested party" means any person, or association acting on behalf of its members, directly affected by a change in the schedule of rates and includes the staff of the insurance division.

Subd. 13. [INSURER.] "Insurer" means any insurer licensed to transact the business of workers' compensation insurance in this state.

Subd. 14. [INSURANCE.] "Insurance" means workers' compensation insurance.

Subd. 15. [RATING PLAN.] "Rating plan" means every manual, and every other rule including discount factors and merit rating necessary for the calculation of an insured's premium from an insurer's rates. An insurer may choose to adopt for use the rating plan of the data service organization in which it maintains membership.

Sec. 4. [79.53] [PREMIUM CALCULATION.]

Each insurer shall establish premiums to be paid by an employer according to its filed rates and rating plan as follows:

Rates shall be applied to an exposure base to yield a base premium which may be further modified by merit rating, premium discounts, and other appropriate factors contained in the rating plan of an insurer to produce premium. Nothing in this chapter shall be deemed to prohibit the use of any premium, provided the premium is not excessive, inadequate or unfairly discriminatory.

Sec. 5. [79.54] [COMPETITIVE MARKET PRESUMPTION.]

A competitive market is presumed to exist until the commissioner, after a hearing on the record, determines that a reasonable degree of competition does not exist and issues an order to that effect. The order shall include the conditions and procedures under which a determination of insufficient competition shall expire.

Sec. 6. [79.55] [STANDARDS FOR RATES.]

Subdivision 1. [GENERAL STANDARDS.] Premiums shall not be exces- sive, inadequate, or unfairly discriminatory.

Subd. 2. [EXCESSIVENESS.] No premium is excessive in a competitive market. In the absence of a competitive market, premiums are excessive if the expected underwriting profit, together with expected income from invested reserves for the market in question, that would accrue to an insurer would be unreasonably high in relation to the risk undertaken by the insurer in transacting the business.

Subd. 3. [INADEQUACY.] Premiums are inadequate if, together with the investment income associated with an insurer's Minnesota workers' compensation insurance business, they are clearly insufficient to sustain projected losses and expenses of the insurer and (a) if their continued use could lead to an insolvent situation for the insurer; or (b) if their use destroys or lessens competition or is likely to destroy or lessen competition.

Subd. 4. [UNFAIR DISCRIMINATION.] Premiums are unfairly discriminatory if differentials for insureds fail to reasonably reflect the differences in expected losses and expenses to the insurer attributable to the insureds. Rates are not unfairly discriminatory solely because different premiums result for insureds with like loss exposures but different expense factors, or like expense factors but different loss exposures, provided that rates reflect the differences with reasonable accuracy.

Sec. 7. [79.56] [FILING RATES AND RATING INFORMATION.]

Subdivision 1. [AFTER EFFECTIVE DATE.] Each insurer shall file with the commissioner a complete copy of its rates and rating plan, and all changes and amendments thereto, within 15 days after their effective dates. An insurer need not file a rating plan if it uses a rating plan filed by a data service organization. If an insurer uses a rating plan of a data service organization but deviates from it, then all deviations must be filed by the insurer.

Subd. 2. [BEFORE EFFECTIVE DATE.] The commissioner may order an insurer to file rates at least 30 days before the effective date of the rates (a) if the commissioner determines, based upon reasonable evidence, that an order is appropriate because of the insurer's financial condition; or (b) due to a prior finding of unfairly discriminatory rating practices; or (c) due to a prior finding of inadequate rates. The order may require that supplementary rate and supporting information be included in a filing.

Subd. 3. [PENALTIES.] Any insurer using a rate or a rating plan which has not been filed shall be subject to a fine of up to $100 for each day the failure to file continues. The commissioner may, after a hearing on the record, find that the failure is willful. A willful failure to meet filing requirements shall be punishable by a fine of up to $500 for each day during which a willful failure continues. These penalties shall be in addition to any other penalties provided by law.

Subd. 4. [PUBLIC INSPECTION.] All filings shall be open to public inspection during normal business hours at the offices of the insurance division.

Sec. 8. [79.57] [FILING RATES; NONCOMPETITIVE MARKET.]

Upon making a determination that a market is not competitive, the commissioner shall require rates for use in that market to be filed 30 days prior to their effective date. The filing shall include, in a form prescribed by the commissioner, an explanation of the rates and any data supporting the use of the rates which are not on file with a data service organization.

The commissioner may issue an order for a hearing at any time prior to the effective date of the rates and the rates shall not become effective until the commissioner has ruled on the rates following the hearing.

The commissioner may disapprove the rates subsequent to their effective date, except that rates so disapproved shall remain effective until the commissioner issues an order following a hearing.

Sec. 9. [79.58] [DISAPPROVAL OF RATES OR RATING PLANS.]

Subdivision 1. [RATES.] A rate filed by an insurer may be disapproved by the commissioner subsequent to its effective date. Following a disapproval and prior to a refiling the insurer shall use the rates as reasonably established by the commissioner.

The commissioner shall disapprove a rate if, after a hearing on the record, he finds that:

(a) The premium is inadequate or unfairly discriminatory; or

(b) A competitive market for workers' compensation does not exist and rates are excessive; or

(c) The insurer failed to comply with filing requirements.

A rehearing shall be held within 30 days of any disapproval under this section at the request of the insurer whose rates are disapproved.

Subd. 2. [RATING PLANS.] The commissioner may disapprove a rating plan of a data service organization if, after a hearing, the commissioner finds that it is unfairly discriminatory. Any order of disapproval shall require the data service organization to use an alternative rating plan until approval of a rating plan by the commissioner. The commissioner shall not approve any rating plan based upon any data other than Minnesota data.

Sec. 10. [79.59] [INSURERS AND DATA SERVICE ORGANIZATIONS; PROHIBITED ACTIVITIES.]

Subdivision 1. [MONOPOLIZATION.] No insurer or data service organization shall attempt to monopolize or combine or conspire with any other person to monopolize the business of insurance.

Subd. 2. [AGREEMENT PROHIBITED.] No insurer shall agree with any other insurer or with a data service organization to adhere to or to use any rate, rating plan, rating schedule, rating rule, or underwriting rule except as specifically authorized by chapter 79 or for the purpose of creating experience modifications for employers with employees in more than one state.

Subd. 3. [TRADE RESTRAINT.] No insurer or data service organization shall make an agreement with any other insurer, data service organization, or other person which has the purpose or the effect of restraining trade or of substantially lessening competition.

Subd. 4. [EXCEPTIONS.] The fact that insurers writing not more than 25 percent of the workers' compensation premiums in Minnesota use the same rates, rating plans, rating schedules, rating rules, underwriting rules, or similar materials shall not alone constitute a violation of subdivision 1 or 2.

Two or more insurers under common ownership or operating under common management or control may act in concert between or among themselves with respect to matters authorized under chapter 79 as if they constituted a single insurer, provided that the rating plan of such insurers shall be considered to be a single plan for the purposes of determining unfair discrimination.

Subd. 5. [ADDITIONAL PROHIBITION.] In addition to other prohibitions contained in this chapter, no data service organization shall:

(a) Refuse to supply any service for which it is licensed or any data, except for data identifiable to an individual insurer, to any insurer authorized to do business in this state which offers to pay the usual compensation for the service or data;

(b) Require the purchase of any specific service as a condition to obtaining any other services sought;

(c) Participate in the development or distribution of rates, rating plans, or rating rules except as specifically authorized by this chapter or by rules adopted pursuant to this chapter; or

(d) Refuse membership to any licensed insurer.

Sec. 11. [79.60] [INSURERS; REQUIRED AND PERMITTED ACTIVITY.]

Subdivision 1. [REQUIRED ACTIVITY.] Each insurer shall perform the following activities:

(a) Maintain membership in and report loss experience data to a licensed data service organization in accordance with the statistical plan and rules of the organization as approved by the commissioner;

(b) Establish a plan for merit rating which shall be consistently applied to all insureds, provided that members of a data service organization may use merit rating plans developed by that data service organization;

(c) Provide an annual report to the commissioner containing the information and prepared in the form required by the commissioner; and

(d) Keep a record of the premiums and losses paid under each workers' compensation policy written in Minnesota in the form required by the commissioner.

Subd. 2. [PERMITTED ACTIVITY.] In addition to any other activities not prohibited by chapter 79, insurers may:

(a) Through licensed data service organizations, individually, or with insurers commonly owned, managed, or controlled, conduct research and collect statistics to investigate, identify, and classify information relating to causes or prevention of losses;

(b) Develop and use classification plans and rates based upon any reasonable factors; and

(c) Develop rules for the assignment of risks to classifications.

Sec. 12. [79.61] [DATA SERVICE ORGANIZATIONS; REQUIRED

AND PERMITTED ACTIVITY.]

Subdivision 1. [REQUIRED ACTIVITY.] Any data service organization shall perform the following activities:

(a) File statistical plans, including classification definitions, amendments to the plans, and definitions, with the commissioner for approval, and assign each compensation risk written by its members to its approved classification for reporting purposes;

(b) Establish requirements for data reporting and monitoring methods to maintain a high quality data base;

(c) Prepare and distribute a periodic report, in a form prescribed by the commissioner, on ratemaking including, but not limited to the following elements:

(i) development factors and alternative derivations;

(ii) trend factors and alternative derivations and applications;

(iii) pure premium relativities for the approved classification system for which data are reported, provided that the relativities for insureds engaged in similar occupations and presenting substantially similar risks shall, if different, differ by at least ten percent; and

(iv) an evaluation of the effects of changes in law on loss data.

The report shall also include explicit discussion and explanation of methodology, alternatives examined, assumptions adopted, and areas of judgment and reasoning supporting judgments entered into, and the effect of various combinations of these elements on indications for modification of an overall pure premium rate level change. The pure premium relativities and rate level indications shall not include a loading for expenses or profit and no expense or profit data or recommendations relating to expense or profit shall be included in the report or collected by a data service organization;

(d) Collect, compile, summarize, and distribute data from members or other sources pursuant to a statistical plan approved by the commissioner;

(e) Prepare merit rating plan and calculate any variable factors necessary for utilization of the plan. Such a plan may be used by any of its members, at the option of the member provided that the application of a plan shall not result in rates that are unfairly discriminatory;

(f) Provide loss data specific to an insured to the insured at a reasonable cost;

(g) Distribute information to an insured or interested party that is filed with the commissioner and is open to public inspection; and

(h) Assess its members for operating expenses on a fair and equitable basis.

Subd. 2. [PERMITTED ACTIVITY.] In addition to any other activities not prohibited by chapter 79, any data service organization may:

(a) Collect and analyze data in order to investigate, identify, and classify information relating to causes or prevention of losses;

(b) Make inspections for the sole purpose of reporting and maintaining data quality;

(c) Contract with another data service organization to fulfill any of the above requirements; and

(d) Prepare and file with the commissioner a rating plan for use by any of its members, provided that no member may be required to use any part of the plan.

Sec. 13. [79.62] [DATA SERVICE ORGANIZATIONS; LICENSING, EXAMINATION.]

Subdivision 1. [LICENSE REQUIRED.] No data service organization shall provide any service and no insurer shall use the services of a data service organization unless the organization is licensed by the commissioner.

Subd. 2. [PROCEDURE; APPLICATION.] A data service organization shall apply for a license in a form and manner prescribed by the commissioner. The application of a data service organization shall include:

(a) A copy of its constitution, articles of incorporation, bylaws, and other rules pertaining to the conduct of its business;

(b) A plan and narrative describing how it will perform the activities required by sections 11 and 14;

(c) A statement showing its technical qualifications; and

(d) Any other information that the commissioner may reasonably require.

Subd. 3. [ISSUANCE.] The commissioner, upon finding that the applicant organization is qualified to provide the services required and proposed, or has contracted with a licensed data service organization to purchase these services which are required by chapter 79 but are not provided directly by the applicant, and that all requirements of law are met, shall issue a license. Licenses shall remain in effect until the licensee withdraws from business or until the license is suspended or revoked.

Subd. 4. [SUSPENSION; REVOCATION.] The commissioner may, after a hearing on the record, revoke or suspend the license of a data service organization if he finds that the organization is not in compliance with the requirements of chapter 79 or rules issued thereunder.

Subd. 5. [LICENSEE EXAMINATION.] The commissioner may examine any licensed data service organization to determine whether its activities and practices comply with law. The cost of the examination shall be paid by the examined organization.

Sec. 14. [79.63] [ASSIGNED RISK PLAN.]

Subdivision 1. [ADMINISTRATION.] The commissioner shall appoint a licensed data service organization to administer the assigned risk plan. The appointed data service organization shall submit to the commissioner for approval a plan and rules for administering the assigned risk plan, including a method or formula by which the organization is to be paid for administrative services.

Subd. 2. [REJECTION; NOTICE.] An insurer that refuses to write insurance for an applicant shall furnish the applicant a written notice of refusal and shall file a copy of the notice of refusal with the data service organization appointed pursuant to subdivision 1. Servicing insurers designated pursuant to subdivision 3 shall accept and insure any applicant for workers' compensation insurance assigned pursuant to subdivision 3.

Subd. 3. [ASSIGNMENT.] An insurer or insurers shall be designated by the data service organization appointed pursuant to subdivision 1 to issue a policy of workers' compensation insurance to an applicant which has been refused insurance. A policy shall contain the usual and customary provisions of workers' compensation insurance policies, but for which undertaking all insurers doing workers' compensation business in this state shall be reinsurers among themselves in the amount which the compensation insurance written in this state during the preceding calendar year by each insurer bears to the total compensation insurance written in this state during that calendar year by all insurers.

An insurer that issues a policy pursuant to this section shall receive an expense allowance which shall be adequate for services rendered, as approved by the commissioner.

Subd. 4. [PENALTY.] The commissioner may revoke the license of an insurer or agent for refusing or failing to provide an applicant with written refusal pursuant to subdivision 2 or for any other violation of this section or of the approved rules of a data service organization.

Subd. 5. [ASSIGNED RISK RATES.] Insureds served by the workers' compensation insurance assigned risk plan shall be charged premiums based upon a rating plan, rates, and a merit rating plan adopted by the commissioner by rule. This rating plan shall include a feature by which rates shall vary in relation to the number or proportion of insureds in the assigned risk plan in the preceding calendar year. This relationship shall be such that assigned risk rates shall vary upward as the number or proportion of insureds in the assigned risk plan decreases and downward as the number or proportion increases. Assigned risk premiums shall not be lower than the rates generally charged by insurers for the business.

Sec. 15. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 60C.04, is amended to read:

60C.04 [CREATION.]

All insurers subject to the provisions of Laws 1971, Chapter 145 shall form an organization to be known as the Minnesota insurance guaranty association. All insurers defined as member insurers in section 60C.03, subdivision 6, are and shall remain members of the association as a condition of their authority to transact insurance business or to execute surety bonds in this state. The association shall perform its functions under a plan of operation established and approved under section 60C.07 and shall exercise its powers through a board of directors established under section 60C.08. For purposes of administration and assessment the association shall be divided into ~~four~~ five separate accounts: (1) the automobile insurance account, (2) the township mutuals account, (3) the fidelity and surety bond account ~~and~~, (4) the account for all other insurance to which Laws 1971, Chapter 145 applies, and (5) the workers' compensation insurance account.

Sec. 16. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 60C.09, Subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [LIMITATION OF AMOUNT.] Payment of a covered claim is limited to the amount by which the allowance on any claim exceeds $100 and is less than $300,000. The limitation on the amount of payment for a covered claim does not apply to claims for workers' compensation insurance. In no event is the association obligated to the policyholder or claimant in an amount in excess of the obligation of the insurer under the policy from which the claim arises.

Sec. 17. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 79.071, Subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. The commissioner shall adopt a schedule of workers' compensation insurance rates for use in this state for each classification under which business is written until January 1, 1986. The schedule of rates shall not be excessive, inadequate, or unfairly discriminatory. In adopting a schedule of rates, the commissioner may act on the written petition of the association or any other interested party requesting that a hearing be held for modification of the schedule of rates. The commissioner may include the expense of a reasonable charge for the services of an agent of record, for the service of rejected risks as set forth in sections 79.24 to 79.27.

[DOMESTIC AND FOREIGN COMPANIES OTHER THAN TOWN AND FARMERS' MUTUAL AND DOMESTIC MUTUALS OTHER THAN LIFE.] On or before April 15, May 15, June 15, ~~September 15~~ and December 15 of each year following December 31, 1971, every domestic and foreign company, except town and farmers' mutual insurance companies and domestic mutual insurance companies other than life, shall pay to the state treasurer through the commissioner of insurance quarterly installments of the insurer's total estimated tax for the current year based on a sum equal to two percent of the gross premiums less return premiums on all direct business received by it in this state, or by its agents for it, in cash or otherwise, during such year, excepting premiums written for marine insurance as specified in subdivision 6. If unpaid by such dates penalties of ten percent shall accrue thereon, and thereafter such sum and penalties shall draw interest at the rate of one percent per month until paid. Failure of a company to make quarterly payments of at least one-fourth of either (a) the total tax paid during the previous calendar year or (b) 80 percent of the actual tax for the current calendar year shall subject the company to the penalty and interest provided in this subdivision.

Sec. 6. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 79.01, Subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [INSURER.] The word "insurer" means any insurance carrier authorized by license issued by the commissioner of insurance to transact the business of workers' compensation insurance in this state. ~~For purposes of this subdivision "insurer" does not include a political subdivision providing self insurance or establishing a pool under section 471.981, subdivision 3.~~

Sec. 7. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 79.01, Subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [INSURANCE.] The word "insurance" means workers' compensation insurance and insurance covering any part of the liability of an employer exempted from insuring his liability for compensation, as provided in section 176.181. ~~A program of self insurance, self insurance revolving fund or pool established under section 471.981 is not insurance for purposes of this subdivision.~~

Sec. 8. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 79.071, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 1a. Whenever the legislature has enacted amendments to the workers' compensation laws of this state which may require a reduction in the schedule of rates, or the commissioner determines that the loss experience of Minnesota workers' compensation insurers should result in a change in the existing schedule of rates, the commissioner may, on his own initiative, change the schedule of rates or order a hearing to determine whether and by what percentage the schedule of rates should be changed.

Sec. 9. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 79.071, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 8. In any case where an insurer bases its estimate of the amounts required to be reserved in any part on the operation of section 176.645, any assumption as to reserves required due to the operation of section 176.645, shall, for the purposes of determining rates, be offset by an assumption that the amount initially reserved shall be invested and yield a return in a percentage equal to the assumption as to the annual increase in the statewide average weekly wage. In addition, the commissioner shall, in determining rates, fully reflect the investment earnings of insurers which arise from the sale of workers' compensation insurance, either by use of at least a six percent discount rate in determining the reserves necessary for all claims, or by the use of an alternative methodology which the commissioner finds is more appropriate. Insurers shall provide the commissioner with any information he requests so as to arrive at the determination required by this subdivision.

Sec. 10. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 79.34, Subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. A nonprofit association known as the workers' compensation reinsurance association is created, which may be incorporated under chapter 317 with all the powers of a corporation formed under that chapter, except that if the provisions of that chapter are inconsistent with sections 79.34 to 79.42 or any amendments thereto, sections 79.34 to 79.42 shall govern. Each insurer as defined by section 79.01, subdivision 2, shall as a condition of its authority to transact workers' compensation insurance in this state, be a member of the reinsurance association and shall be bound by the plan of operation of the reinsurance association; provided, that all affiliated insurers within a holding company system as defined in sections 60D.01 to 60D.13 shall be considered a single entity for purposes of the exercise of all rights and duties of the mem- bership in the reinsurance association. Each self-insurer approved pursuant to section 176.181 and each political subdivision which self-insures shall, as a condition of its authority to self-insure workers' compensation liability in this state, be a member of the reinsurance association and shall be bound by its plan of operation*; provided, that (a) all affiliated companies within a holding company system as determined by the commissioner in a manner consistent with the standards and definitions in sections 60D.01 to 60D.13 shall be considered a single entity for purposes of the exercise of all rights and duties of membership in the reinsurance association, and (b) all group self-insurers granted authority to self-insure pursuant to section 176.181 shall be considered a single entity for purposes of the exercise of all the rights and duties of membership in the reinsurance association.* The reinsurance association shall not be deemed a state agency. Actions of the reinsurance association and its board of directors and actions of the commissioner of insurance with respect to the reinsurance association shall not be subject to chapter 15. The reinsurance association shall be exempt from taxation under the laws of this state and all property owned by the association shall be exempt from taxation. The reinsurance association shall not be obligated to make any payments or pay any assessments to any funds or pools established pursuant to this chapter or chapter 176 or any other law.

Sec. 11. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 79.34, Subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. The reinsurance association shall provide and each member shall accept indemnification for 100 percent of the amount of ultimate loss sustained in each loss occurrence relating to one or more claims arising out of a single compensable event, including aggregate losses related to a single event or occurrence which constitutes a single loss occurrence, under chapter 176 on and after October 1, 1979, in excess of $300,000 or $100,000 retention limit, at the option of the member. In case of occupational disease causing disablement on and after October 1, 1979, each person suffering such disablement shall be considered to be involved in a separate loss occurrence. Each retention limit shall be increased to the nearest $10,000, on January 1, 1981 and on each January 1 thereafter by the percentage increase in the statewide average weekly wage, as determined in accordance with section 176.011, subdivision 20, except that on and after January 1, 1982, the higher retention limit shall no longer be indexed according to increases in the statewide average weekly wage but shall be an amount $200,000 greater than the lower retention limit in effect on January 1, 1982, and on each January 1, thereafter. Ultimate loss as used in this section means the actual loss amount which a member is obligated to pay and which is paid by the member for workers' compensation benefits payable under chapter 176 and shall not include claim expenses, assessments, damages or penalties. A loss is incurred by the reinsurance association on the date on which the accident or other compensable event giving rise to the loss occurs, and a member is liable for a loss up to its retention limit in effect at the time that the loss was incurred, except that members which are determined by the reinsurance association to be controlled by or under common control with another member, and which are liable for claims from one or more employees entitled to compensation for a single compensable event, including aggregate losses relating to a single loss occurrence, may aggregate their losses and obtain indemnification from the reinsurance association for the aggregate losses in excess of the higher retention limit in effect at the time the loss was incurred.

Each member is liable for payment of its ultimate loss and shall be entitled to indemnification from the reinsurance association for the ultimate loss in excess of the member's retention limit in effect at the time of the loss occurrence.

A member that chooses the higher retention limit shall retain the liability for all losses below the higher retention limit itself and shall not transfer the liability to any other entity or reinsure or otherwise contract for reimbursement or indemnification for losses below its retention limit, except in the following cases: (a) when the reinsurance or contract is with another member which, directly or indirectly, through one or more intermediaries, control or are controlled by or are under common control with the member; (b) when the reinsurance or contract provides for reimbursement or indemnification of a member if and only if the total of all claims which the member pays or incurs, but which are not reimbursable or subject to indemnification by the reinsurance association for a given period of time, exceeds a dollar value or percentage of premium written or earned and stated in the reinsurance agreement or contract; (c) when the reinsurance or contract is a pooling arrangement with other insurers where liability of the member to pay claims pursuant to chapter 176 is incidental to participation in the pool and not as a result of providing workers' compensation insurance to employers on a direct basis under chapter 176; ~~or (d) any other reinsurance or contract approved by the commissioner upon his determination that the reinsurance or contract is not inconsistent with the bases for exception provided under clauses (a), (b) and (c) above~~ (d) when the reinsurance or contract is limited to all the claims of a specific insured of a member which are reimbursed or indemnified by a reinsurer which, directly or indirectly, through one or more intermediaries, control or are controlled by or are under common control with the insured of the member and when any subsequent contract or reinsurance of the reinsurer relating to the claims of the insured of a member are not inconsistent with the bases of exception provided under clauses (a), (b) and (c) above; or (e) when the reinsurance or contract is limited to all claims of a specific self-insurer member which are reimbursed or indemnified by a reinsurer which, directly or indirectly, through one or more intermediaries, control or are controlled by or are under common control with the self-insurer member and when any subsequent contract or reinsurance of the reinsurer relating to the claims of the self-insurer member are not inconsistent with the bases for exception provided under clauses (a), (b) and (c) above.

Whenever it appears to the commissioner that any member that chooses the higher retention limit has participated in the transfer of liability to any other entity or reinsured or otherwise contracted for reimbursement or indemnification of losses below its retention limit in a manner inconsistent with bases for exception provided under clauses (a), (b), (c), (d), and (e), the commissioner may, after giving notice and an opportunity to be heard, order the member to pay to the state of Minnesota an amount not to exceed twice the difference between the reinsurance premium for the higher and lower retention limit applicable to the member for each year in which the prohibited reinsurance or contract was in effect. Any member subject to this penalty provision shall continue to be bound by its selection of the higher retention limit for purposes of membership in the reinsurance association.

Sec. 12. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 79.35, is amended to read:

79.35 [DUTIES; RESPONSIBILITIES; POWERS.]

The reinsurance association shall do the following on behalf of its members:

(a) Assume 100 percent of the liability as provided in section 79.34;

(b) Establish procedures by which members shall promptly report to the reinsurance association each claim which, on the basis of the injury sustained, may reasonably be anticipated to involve liability to the reinsurance association if the member is held liable under chapter 176. Solely for the purpose of reporting claims, the member shall in all instances consider itself legally liable for the injury. The member shall advise the reinsurance association of subsequent developments likely to materially affect the interest of the reinsurance association in the claim;

(c) Maintain relevant loss and expense data relative to all liabilities of the reinsurance association and require each member to furnish statistics in connection with liabilities of the reinsurance association at the times and in the form and detail as may be required by the plan of operation;

(d) Calculate and charge to members a total premium sufficient to cover the expected liability which the reinsurance association will incur in excess of the higher retention limit but less than ~~$500,000~~ the prefunded limit, together with incurred or estimated to be incurred operating and administrative expenses for the period to which this premium applies and actual claim payments to be made by members, during the period to which this premium applies, for claims in excess of ~~$500,000 for the period to which this premium is applicable~~ the prefunded limit in effect at the time the loss was incurred. The prefunded limit shall be $2,500,000 on and after October 1, 1979. The prefunded limit shall be increased to the nearest $100,000 on January 1, 1983, and on each January 1 thereafter by the percentage increase in the statewide average weekly wage, as determined in accordance with section 176.011, subdivision 20. Each member shall be charged a proportion of the total premium in an amount equal to its proportion of the total standard earned premium of all members during the period to which the reinsurance association premium will apply, as determined by the commissioner. Each member exercising the lower retention option shall also be charged a premium established by the board as sufficient to cover incurred or estimated to be incurred claims for the liability the reinsurance association is likely to incur between the lower and higher retention limits for the period to which the premium applies. Each ~~member's premium~~ member shall ~~include an amount~~ also be charged a premium determined by the board to equitably distribute excess or deficient premiums from previous periods including any excess or deficient premiums resulting from a retroactive change in the prefunded limit. An equitable basis for determining standard earned premium for self-insurers shall be established by the commissioner. The premiums charged to members shall not be unfairly discriminatory as defined in section 79.074. All premiums shall be approved by the commissioner;

(e) Require and accept the payment of premiums from members of the reinsurance association;

(f) Receive and distribute all sums required by the operation of the reinsurance association;

(g) Establish procedures for reviewing claims procedures and practices of members of the reinsurance association. If the claims procedures or practices of a member are considered inadequate to properly service the liabilities of the

reinsurance association, the reinsurance association may undertake, or may contract with another person, including another member, to adjust or assist in the adjustment of claims which create a potential liability to the association and may charge the cost of the adjustment to the member; and

(h) Provide each member of the reinsurance association with an annual report of the operations of the reinsurance association in a form the board of directors may specify.

Sec. 13. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 79.36, is amended to read:

79.36 [ADDITIONAL POWERS.]

In addition to the powers granted in section 79.35, the reinsurance association may do the following:

(a) Sue and be sued. A judgment against the reinsurance association shall not create any direct liability against the individual members of the reinsurance association. The reinsurance association shall provide in the plan of operation for the indemnification, to the extent provided in the plan of operation, of the members, members of the board of directors of the reinsurance association, and officers, employees and other persons lawfully acting on behalf of the reinsurance association;

(b) Reinsure all or any portion of its potential liability, including potential liability in excess of ~~$500,000~~ the prefunded limit, with reinsurers licensed to transact insurance in this state or otherwise approved by the commissioner;

(c) Provide for appropriate housing, equipment, and personnel as may be necessary to assure the efficient operation of the reinsurance association;

(d) Contract for goods and services, including but not limited to independent claims management, actuarial, investment, and legal services from others within or without this state to assure the efficient operation of the reinsurance association;

(e) Adopt operating rules, consistent with the plan of operation, for the administration of the reinsurance association, enforce those operating rules, and delegate authority as necessary to assure the proper administration and operation of the reinsurance association;

(f) Intervene in or prosecute at any time, including but not limited to intervention or prosecution as subrogee to the member's rights in a third party action, any proceeding under this chapter or chapter 176 in which liability of the reinsurance association may, in the opinion of the board of directors of the reinsurance association or its designee, be established, or the reinsurance association affected in any other way;

(g) The net proceeds derived from intervention or prosecution of any subrogation interest, or other recovery, shall first be used to reimburse the reinsurance association for amounts paid or payable pursuant to this chapter, together with any expenses of recovery, including attorney's fees, and any excess shall be paid to the member or other person entitled thereto, as determined by the board of directors of the reinsurance association, unless otherwise ordered by a court.

(h) Hear and determine complaints of a company or other interested party concerning the operation of the reinsurance association; and

(i) Perform other acts not specifically enumerated in this section which are necessary or proper to accomplish the purposes of the reinsurance association and which are not inconsistent with sections 79.34 to 79.42 or the plan of operation.

Sec. 22. [175A.04] [OFFICE.]

The workers' compensation court of appeals shall maintain its main office within the Minneapolis-St. Paul metropolitan area and be provided by the commissioner of administration with suitable rooms and necessary furniture. The offices of the workers' compensation court of appeals and the department of labor and industry shall be in separate buildings. They may hold sessions at any other place in the state when their convenience and that of the parties interested so requires.

Sec. 23. [175A.05] [QUORUM.]

A majority of the judges of the workers' compensation court of appeals shall constitute a quorum for the exercise of the powers conferred and the duties imposed on the workers' compensation court of appeals and all appeals shall be heard by at least three of the five judges. A vacancy shall not impair the right of the remaining judges of the workers' compensation court of appeals to exercise all the powers and perform all of the duties of the workers' compensation court of appeals.

Sec. 24. [175A.06] [SESSIONS TO BE PUBLIC.]

The hearings of the workers' compensation court of appeals shall be open to the public and may be adjourned from time to time. All the proceedings of the court shall be shown on its records, which shall be public records.

Sec. 28. [175A.10] [APPEALS AND REVIEWS.]

Unless an appeal is taken to the district court, the right of appeal provided in chapter 176 shall be the exclusive remedy for reviewing the actions of the commissioner of labor and industry, the workers' compensation division or a compensation judge. On any appeal taken by an employee or an employer or insurer, the decision of the workers' compensation court of appeals, or the decision of the supreme court on its review, as the case may be, shall be final and conclusive on all parties to the proceedings as to all matters at issue determined by a decision. In all cases the decision of the workers' compensation court of appeals on appeal, or of the supreme court on review, as the case may be, shall stand in lieu of the order of the commissioner or the division or the compensation judge from whom the appeal was taken.

Sec. 29. [176.001] [INTENT OF THE LEGISLATURE.]

It is the intent of the legislature that this chapter is designed to assure a quick and efficient system for the delivery of indemnity and medical benefits to injured workers. These benefits shall be provided at a reasonable cost to employers who are subject to the provisions of this chapter.

Sec. 30. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 176.021, Subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [LIABILITY FOR COMPENSATION.] Except as excluded by this chapter all employers and employees are subject to the provisions of this chapter.

Every ~~such~~ employer is liable for compensation according to the provisions of this chapter and is liable to pay compensation in every case of personal injury or death of his employee arising out of and in the course of employment without regard to the question of negligence ~~, unless~~ . The burden of proof of these facts is upon the employee.

If the injury was intentionally self-inflicted or when the intoxication of the employee is the proximate cause of the injury , then the employer is not liable for compensation. The burden of proof of ~~such~~ these facts is upon the employer.

Sec. 31. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 176.021, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 1a. [BURDEN OF PROOF.] In all matters under the provisions of this chapter regarding questions of fact, proof of the facts in question shall be by a preponderance of the evidence. Preponderance of the evidence means evidence which, when produced in substantiation of an issue and when weighed against the evidence opposing the issue, has more convincing force and greater probability of truth.

Questions of law shall be determined in accordance with the rules of construction generally applied to all other civil matters.

Sec. 32. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 176.021, Subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [COMPENSATION, COMMENCEMENT OF PAYMENT.] All employers shall commence payment of the compensation at the time and in the manner prescribed by this chapter without the necessity of any agreement or any order of the division. Except those of medical, burial, and other non-periodic benefits, payments shall be made as nearly as may be at the intervals when the wage was payable; provided, however, that payments for permanent partial disability in cases in which return to work occurs prior to four weeks from the date of injury shall be made by lump sum payment, and the provisions of section 176.165 shall not apply, without the necessity of any agreement, or order of the division, upon cessation of payments for temporary total disability and upon the employee's return to work. In cases in which there has been a cessation of payments for temporary total disability but a return to work does not occur prior to four weeks after injury although it has been medically determined that the employee is able to return to work , payments for permanent partial disability shall be made ~~according to~~ at the ~~following schedule: 25 percent of the amount due after four weeks from the date of injury, 25 percent after eight weeks, 25 percent after 12 weeks and 25 percent after 16 weeks,~~ same intervals as temporary total payments were made based on the amount due provided that any and all payments remaining shall be paid ~~upon the cessation of payments for temporary total disability and~~ upon the employee's return to work. If the employer does not furnish the worker with work he can do in his permanently partially disabled condition and he is unable to procure such work with another employer, after closure of a rehabilitation plan by the workers' compensation division's rehabilitation services, the employee shall be paid the full lump sum payment for his or her permanent partial disability. If doubt exists at ~~that~~ the time of any payment for permanent partial disability as to the eventual permanent partial disability, payment shall be then made for the minimum permanent partial disability ascertainable in lump sum, and further lump sum payment shall be made upon any later ascertainment of greater permanent partial disability. At the time of the tender of the lump sum payment, the employee and employer shall be furnished with a copy of the medical report upon which the payment is based, together with a statement by the insurer as to whether the tendered payment is for minimum permanent partial disability or final and eventual disability. Compensation for permanent partial disability is payable concurrently and in addition to compensation for temporary total disability and temporary partial disability as set forth in section 176.101, subdivisions 1 and 2, and for permanent total disability as defined in section 176.101, subdivision 5; and such compensation for permanent partial disability shall not be deferred pending completion of payment for temporary disability or permanent total disability, and no credit shall be taken for payment of permanent partial disability against liability for temporary total or permanent total disability. Liability on the part of an employer or his insurer for disability of a temporary total, temporary partial, and permanent total nature shall be considered as a continuing product and part of the employee's inability to earn or reduction in earning capacity due to injury or occupational disease and shall be payable accordingly. Permanent partial disability is payable for functional loss of use or impairment of function, permanent in nature, and payment therefore shall be separate, distinct, and in addition to payment for any other compensation. The right to receive temporary total, temporary partial, permanent partial or permanent total disability payments shall vest in the injured employee or his dependents under this chapter or, if none, in his legal heirs at the time the disability can be ascertained and the right shall not be abrogated by the employee's death prior to the making of the payment.

Sec. 33. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 176.021, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 8. [AMOUNTS ADJUSTED.] Amounts of compensation payable by an employer or his insurer under this chapter may be adjusted by increasing an amount over 50 cents to the next higher dollar amount and by reducing an amount of 50 cents or less to the next lower dollar amount.

Sec. 34. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 176.041, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 6. [COMMISSIONER OF LABOR AND INDUSTRY; ADDITIONAL POWERS.] Whenever an employee is covered by any one or more of subdivisions 2, 3 and 4, the commissioner of labor and industry may enter into agreements with the appropriate agencies of other states for the purpose of resolving conflicts of jurisdiction or disputes concerning workers' compensation coverage. An agreement entered into pursuant to this subdivision may be appealed in the same manner and within the same time as if the appeal were from an order or decision of a compensation judge to the workers' compensation court of appeals.

Sec. 35. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 176.061, Subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [ELECTION OF REMEDIES.] Where an injury or death for which ~~compensation is~~ benefits are payable occurs under circumstances which create a legal liability for damages on the part of a party other than the employer and at the time of such injury or death that party was insured or self-insured in accordance with this chapter, the employee, in case of injury, or his dependents, in case of death, may proceed either at law against that party to recover damages or against the employer for ~~compensation~~ benefits, but not against both.

Sec. 36. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 176.061, Subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [ELECTION TO RECEIVE ~~COMPENSATION~~ BENEFITS FROM EMPLOYER; SUBROGATION.] If the employee or his dependents elect to receive ~~compensation~~ benefits from the employer, or the special compensation fund, such employer, or special compensation fund, is subrogated to the right of the employee or his dependents to recover damages against the other party. The employer, or the attorney general on behalf of the special compensation fund, may bring legal proceedings against such party and recover the aggregate amount of ~~compensation~~ benefits payable ~~by him~~ to or on behalf of the employee or his dependents, together with ~~the~~ costs, disbursements, and reasonable attorney's fees of the action.

If an action as provided in this chapter prosecuted by the employee, the employer, or ~~both~~ the attorney general on behalf of the special compensation fund, jointly against the third person, results in judgment against the third person, or settlement by the third person, the employer shall have no liability to reimburse or hold the third person harmless on the judgment or settlement in absence of a written agreement to do so executed prior to the injury.

Sec. 37. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 176.061, Subdivision 4, is amended to read:

Subd. 4. [APPLICATION OF SUBDIVISIONS 1, 2, AND 3.] The provisions of subdivisions 1, 2, and 3 apply only where the employer liable for ~~compensation~~ benefits and the other party legally liable for damages are insured or self-insured and engaged in the due course of business, (a) in furtherance of a common enterprise, or (b) the accomplishment of the same or related purposes in operation on the premises where the injury was received at the time thereof.

Sec. 38. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 176.061, Subdivision 5, is amended to read:

Subd. 5. [CUMULATIVE REMEDIES.] Where an injury or death for which ~~compensation is~~ benefits are payable is caused under circumstances which created a legal liability for damages on the part of a party other than the employer, that party being then insured or self-insured in accordance with this chapter, and the provisions of subdivisions 1, 2, 3, and 4 do not apply, or the party other than the employer is not then insured or self-insured as provided by this chapter, legal proceedings may be taken by the employee or his dependents in accordance with clause (a), or by his employer, or by the attorney general on behalf of the special compensation fund, in accordance with clause (b), against the other party to recover damages, notwithstanding the payment by the employer, or the special compensation fund or ~~his~~ their liability to pay ~~compensation~~ benefits.

(a) If an action against the other party is brought by the injured employee or his dependents and a judgment is obtained and paid or settlement is made with the other party, the employer or the special compensation fund may deduct from the ~~compensation~~ benefits payable ~~by him~~ the amount actually received by the employee or dependents or paid on their behalf in accordance with subdivision 6. If the action is not diligently prosecuted or if the court deems it advisable in order to protect the interests of the employer, or the special compensation fund, upon application the court may grant the employer, or the special compensation fund, the right to intervene in any such action for the prosecution thereof. If the injured employee or his dependents ~~agree to receive compensation~~ or any party on their behalf receives benefits from the employer, or the special compensation fund, or institute proceedings to recover the same or accept from the employer, or the special compensation fund, any payment on account of the ~~compensation~~ benefits, the employer, or the special compensation fund, is subrogated to the rights of the employee or his dependents. This employer, or the attorney general on behalf of the special compensation fund, may maintain an action or continue an action already instituted. This action may be maintained in the name of the employee or the names of the dependents or in the name of the employer or in the name of the attorney general on behalf of the special compensation fund against such other party for the recovery of damages. If the action is not diligently prosecuted by the employer, or the attorney general on behalf of the special compensation fund, or the court deems it advisable in order to protect the interest of the employee, the court, upon application, may grant to the employee or his dependents the right to intervene in the action for the prosecution thereof. The proceeds of such action or settlement thereof shall be paid in accordance with subdivision 6.

(b) If an employer, being then insured, sustains damages due to a change in workers' compensation insurance premiums, whether by a failure to achieve a decrease or by a retroactive or prospective increase, as a result of the injury or death of his employee which was caused under circumstances which created a legal liability for damages on the part of a party other than the employer, the employer, notwithstanding other remedies provided, may maintain an action against the other party for recovery of such premiums. This cause of action may be brought either by joining in an action described in clause (a) or by a separate action. Damages recovered under this clause shall be for the benefit of the employer and the provisions of subdivision 6 shall not be applicable to such damages.

(c) The third party is not liable to any person other than the employee or his dependents or his employer for any damages resulting from the injury or death.

A co-employee working for the same employer is not liable for a personal injury incurred by another employee unless the injury resulted from the gross negligence of the co-employee or was intentionally inflicted by the co-employee.

Sec. 39. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 176.061, Subdivision 6, is amended to read:

Subd. 6. [COSTS, ATTORNEY FEES, EXPENSES.] The proceeds of all actions for damages or settlement thereof under this section, except for damages received under subdivision 5, clause (b) received by the injured employee or his dependents or by the employer, or the special compensation fund, as provided by subdivision 5, shall be divided as follows:

(a) After deducting the reasonable cost of collection, including but not limited to attorneys fees and burial expense in excess of the statutory liability, then

(b) One-third of the remainder shall in any event be paid to the injured employee or his dependents, without being subject to any right of subrogation.

(c) Out of the balance remaining, the employer, or the special compensation fund, shall be reimbursed in an amount equal to all ~~compensation~~ benefits paid under this chapter to or on behalf of the employee or his dependents by the employer, or special compensation fund, less the product of the costs deducted under clause (a) divided by the total proceeds received by the employee or his dependents from the other party multiplied by all ~~compensation~~ benefits paid by the employer, or the special compensation fund, to the employee or his dependents.

(d) Any balance remaining shall be paid to the employee or his dependents, and shall be a credit to employer, and the special compensation fund, for any ~~compensation~~ benefits which employer is obligated to pay, but has not paid, and for any ~~compensation~~ benefits that such employer shall be obligated to make in the future.

There shall be no reimbursement or credit to employer, or special compensation fund, for interest or penalties.

Sec. 40. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 176.061, Subdivision 7, is amended to read:

Subd. 7. [MEDICAL TREATMENT.] The liability of an employer , or special compensation fund, for medical treatment under this chapter shall not be affected by the fact that his employee was injured through the fault or negligence of a third party, against whom the employee may have a cause of action which may be sued under this chapter, but the employer, or the attorney general on behalf of the special compensation fund, shall have a separate additional cause of action against such third party to recover any amounts paid by him for medical treatment under this section resulting from the negligence of such third party. This separate cause of action of the employer, or the attorney general on behalf of the special compensation fund, may be asserted in a separate action brought by the employer, or the attorney general on behalf of the special compensation fund, against such third party or in the action commenced by the employee or the employer, or the attorney general on behalf of the special compensation fund, under this chapter, but in the latter case the cause of action shall be separately stated, the amount awarded thereon shall be separately set out in the verdict, and the amount recovered by suit or otherwise as reimbursement for medical expenses shall be for the benefit of the employer, or the special compensation fund, to the extent that the employer, or the special compensation fund, has paid or will be required to pay for medical treatment of the injured employee and shall not affect the amount of periodic compensation to be paid.

Sec. 41. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 176.081, Subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. No claim for legal services or disbursements pertaining to any demand made or suit or proceeding brought under the provisions of this chapter is an enforceable lien against the compensation or is valid or binding in any other respect unless approved in writing by the commissioner of the department of labor and industry, compensation judge, or workers' compensation court of appeals, if the claim arises out of a proceeding for compensation under this chapter, or by the judge presiding at the trial in an action for damages, or by a judge of the district court in a settlement of a claim for damages without trial. A compensation judge shall in matters before him including settlement proceedings have authority to approve a fee of up to 25 percent of the first $4,000 of compensation awarded to the employee and up to 20 percent of the next $20,000 of compensation awarded to employee. The workers' compensation court of appeals judge shall have authority only to approve fees in settlements upon appeal before them up to 25 percent of the first $4,000 of compensation awarded to the employee and up to 20 percent of the next $20,000 of compensation awarded to the employee. If the employer or his insurer or the defendant is given written notice of such claims for legal services or disbursements, the same shall be a lien against the amount paid or payable as compensation, subject to determination of the amount and approval provided by this chapter. Provided, however, that in no case shall fees be calculated on the basis of any undisputed portion of compensation awards. Allowable fees under this chapter shall be based solely upon genuinely disputed portions of claims.

Sec. 42. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 176.081, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 7a. Any time more than one day before a matter is heard, a party litigating a claim made pursuant to this chapter may serve upon the adverse party a reasonable offer of settlement for the amount claimed, or to the effect specified in the offer, with costs and disbursements then accrued. If before the hearing the adverse party serves written notice that the offer is accepted, either party may then file the offer and notice of acceptance, together with the proof of service thereof, and thereupon judgment shall be entered.

If an offer by an employer or insurer is not accepted by the employee, it shall be deemed withdrawn and evidence thereof is not admissible, except in a proceeding to determine attorney fees. Notwithstanding the provisions of subdivision 7, if the judgment finally obtained by the employee is not more favorable than the offer, the employee must pay the attorney's fees awarded pursuant to this section.

If an offer by an employee is not accepted by the employer or insurer, it shall be deemed withdrawn and evidence thereof is not admissible, except in a proceeding to determine attorney fees. Notwithstanding the provisions of subdivision 7, if the judgment finally obtained by the employee is at least as favorable as the offer, the employer shall pay an additional 25 percent, over the amount provided in subdivision 7, of that portion of the attorney's fee which has been awarded pursuant to this section that is in excess of $250.

The fact that an offer is made but not accepted does not preclude a subsequent offer.

Sec. 43. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 176.081, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 9. Whenever an attorney is hired by an employee to provide legal services with respect to a claim for compensation made pursuant to this chapter, the attorney shall prepare a retainer agreement in which the provisions of this section are specifically set out. The retainer agreement shall provide a space for the signature of the employee which when signed shall indicate that the employee has read, had explained and understands the statutory fee provisions.

Sec. 44. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 176.081, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 10. An attorney who violates the provisions of this chapter with respect to fees allowed for legal services in connection with any demand made

(42) For permanent partial disability resulting from injury to the back, 66 2/3 percent of the daily wage at the time of injury for that proportion of 350 weeks which is represented by the percentage of the permanent partial disability as is determined from competent testimony at a hearing before a compensation judge, the commissioner, or the workers' compensation court of appeals;

(43) When an employee sustains concurrent injuries resulting in concurrent disabilities he shall receive compensation only for the injury which entitled him to the largest amount of compensation, but this does not affect liability for disfigurement affecting the employability of the injured person or liability for the concurrent loss of more than one member, for which members compensations are provided in the specific schedule and in subdivision 5;

(44) In all cases of permanent partial disability it is considered that the permanent loss of the use of a member is equivalent to and draws the same compensation as the loss of that member, but the compensation in and by this schedule provided shall be in lieu of all other compensation in these cases, except as otherwise provided by this section;

In the event a worker has been awarded or is entitled to receive compensation for loss of use of a member under any workers' compensation law, and thereafter sustains loss of the member under circumstances entitling him to compensation therefor under this subdivision, the amount of compensation awarded, or that he is entitled to receive, for the loss of use, is to be deducted from the compensation due under the schedules of this section for the loss of the member, provided, that the amount of compensation due for the loss of the member caused by the subsequent accident is in no case less than 25 percent of the compensation payable under the schedule of this section for the loss of the member;

(45) In cases of permanent partial disability due to injury to a member, resulting in less than total loss of the member, not otherwise compensated in this schedule, compensation shall be paid at the prescribed rate during that part of the time specified in the schedule for the total loss of the member which the extent of the injury to the member bears to its total loss;

(46) In cases of permanent partial disability caused by simultaneous injury to two or more members, the applicable schedules in this subdivision shall be increased by 15 percent. This clause shall not apply when the injuries are compensated under paragraphs 22 to 37 inclusive, of this subdivision. In cases of partial disability due to injury to both eyes resulting in less than total loss of vision in one or both eyes compensation shall be paid at the prescribed rate during that part of 450 weeks which the extent of the combined injury to both eyes bears to the complete loss of industrial vision;

(47) The commissioner of labor and industry ~~with the workers' compensation court of appeals~~ may make or revise rules for the determination of the extent of the impairment of the industrial use of one or both eyes taking into account all primary coordinate factors of vision. These rules shall be made or revised after consultation with experts on industrial vision and after public notice to and hearing of interested parties;

(48) For permanent partial disability resulting from injury to the body as a whole due to burns, 66 2/3 percent of the daily wage at the time of injury, for that proportion of 350 weeks which is represented by the percentage of the permanent partial disability as is determined from competent testimony at a hearing before a compensation judge, the commissioner, or the workers' compensation court of appeals, the compensation to be paid in addition to the compensation as employee would otherwise be entitled to for loss of use of a member in accordance with this section;

(49) In all cases of permanent partial disability not enumerated in this schedule the compensation shall be 66 2/3 percent of the difference between the daily wage of the worker at the time of the injury and the daily wage he is able to earn in his partially disabled condition, subject to a maximum equal to the statewide average weekly wage, and continue during disability, not to exceed 350 weeks; and if the employer does not furnish the worker with work which he can do in his permanently partially disabled condition and he is unable to secure such work with another employer after a reasonably diligent effort, the employee shall be paid at his or her maximum rate of compensation for total disability.

Sec. 54. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 176.131, Subdivision 10, is amended to read:

Subd. 10. The special compensation fund is created for the purposes provided in this chapter in the following manner:

(1) In every case of death of an employee resulting from personal injury arising out of and in the course of employment where there are no persons entitled to monetary benefits of dependency compensation, the employer shall pay to the commissioner of labor and industry the sum of $5,000 for the benefit of the special compensation fund; in every case of death of an employee resulting from personal injury arising out of and in the course of employment where there are no persons entitled to at least $5,000 in monetary benefits of dependency compensation, the employer shall pay to the commissioner of labor and industry for the benefit of the special compensation fund the difference between the amounts actually paid for the dependency benefits and $5,000; but in no event shall the employer pay the commissioner of labor and industry less than $1,000;

(2) When an employee suffers a personal injury which results in permanent partial disability, temporary total disability, temporary partial disability, permanent total disability or death and which entitles him or dependents to compensation under sections 176.101 or 176.111, the employer shall in addition to compensation provided therein, pay to the commissioner of labor and industry for the benefit of the special compensation fund a lump sum without interest deduction equal to ~~seven~~ a percent of the total compensation~~,~~ as determined as provided in this subdivision as soon as the amount payable for the particular injury is determined, or arrived at by agreement of the parties and the amount is approved by the commissioner of labor and industry.

The provisions of clauses (1) and (2) shall apply to all workers' compensation payments, exclusive of medical costs, paid under sections 176.101 and 176.111 for all injuries or death occurring on or after June 1, 1971.

Personal injuries that occurred prior to June 1, 1971 shall be assessed at the rate in effect on the date of occurrence.

~~The seven percent of the total compensation required to be paid by the employer to the commissioner of labor and industry for the benefit of the special compensation fund as provided in clause (2) of this subdivision shall remain fixed at said seven percent for the period from June 1, 1971, to June 1, 1972. Effective June 1, 1972, through June 1, 1975, and thereafter on January 1, beginning in 1976, the rate shall be adjusted on the following basis: if the balance in the special compensation fund as of April 30 in any year through 1975 and as of September 30, 1975, and each September 30 thereafter, is below $1,000,000, the rate of payment shall be increased by two percent over the then prevailing rate. If the balance is at least $1,000,000 but below $1,500,000, the rate will be increased by one percent. If the balance is at least $1,500,000 but below $2,000,000, there shall be no change. If the balance is at least $2,000,000 but less than $2,500,000, the rate shall be decreased by one percent. If the balance is at least $2,500,000, the rate shall be decreased by two percent. If the balance is $3,000,000 or more the commissioner of labor and industry shall within 30 days determine the percent of decrease, which shall be not less than two percent nor more than five percent.~~

In determining the percentage of the total compensation required to be paid by the employer to the commissioner of labor and industry for the benefit of the special compensation fund as provided in clause (2) beginning September 30, 1980, and each September 30 thereafter, the commissioner of labor and industry shall use the following schedule:

Balance in the Fund	Permissible Range of Rate Adjustment
Less than $2,000,000	+1 percent to +7 percent
At least $2,000,000 but less than $3,000,000	0 percent to +6 percent
At least $3,000,000 but less than $4,000,000	–2 percent to +4 percent
At least $4,000,000 but less than $5,000,000	–5 percent to +3 percent
At least $5,000,000 but less than $6,000,000	–6 percent to +2 percent
$6,000,000 or more	–7 percent to +2 percent

In determining the actual adjustment, the commissioner shall take into account his estimate of the likely amount of expenditures to be made from the fund in the next calendar year.

Sums paid to the commissioner of labor and industry pursuant to the provisions hereof, shall be deposited with the state treasurer for the benefit of the special compensation fund and be used to pay the benefits provided by this chapter. All money heretofore arising from the provisions of this section or similar law shall be transferred to this special compensation fund. Any interest or profit accruing from investment of these sums shall be credited to the special compensation fund.

The state treasurer shall be the custodian of this special fund and the workers' compensation division ~~and the workers' compensation court of appeals in cases before it~~ on its own order or an order of a court shall direct the distribution thereof, the same to be paid as other payments of compensation are paid. In case deposit is or has been made under the provisions of clause (1) and dependency later is shown, or if deposit is or has been made pursuant to either clause (1) or (2) by mistake or inadvertence, or under circumstances that justice requires a refund thereof, the state treasurer is authorized to refund the deposit under order of the workers' compensation division or ~~the workers' compensation court of appeals~~ a court . There is appropriated to the persons entitled to the refunds from the fund an amount sufficient to make the refund and payment.

Costs within the department of labor and industry for the accounting and legal procedures necessary for administration of the programs financed by the special compensation fund shall be paid from the moneys biennially appropriated to the department and not from the special compensation fund.

Sec. 55. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 176.132, Subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [AMOUNT.] (a) The supplementary benefit payable under this section shall be the difference between the amount the employee receives on or after January 1, 1976, under section 176.101, subdivision 1 or subdivision 4, and 65 percent of the statewide average weekly wage as computed annually.

(b) In the event an eligible recipient is currently receiving no compensation or is receiving a reduced level of compensation because of a credit being applied as the result of a third party liability or damages, the employer or insurer shall compute the offset credit as if the individual were entitled to the actual benefit or 65 percent of the statewide average weekly wage as computed annually, whichever is greater. If this results in the use of a higher credit than otherwise would have been applied and the employer or insurer becomes liable for compensation benefits which would otherwise not have been paid, the additional benefits resulting shall be handled according to this section.

(c) In the event an eligible recipient is receiving no compensation or is receiving a reduced level of compensation because of a valid agreement in settlement of a claim, no supplementary benefit shall be payable under this section. Attorney fees shall be allowed in settlements of claims for supplementary benefits in accordance with this chapter.

(d) In the event an eligible recipient is receiving no compensation or is receiving a reduced level of compensation because of prior limitations in the maximum amount payable for permanent total disability or because of reductions resulting from the simultaneous receipt of old age or disability benefits, the supplementary benefit shall be payable for the difference between the actual amount of compensation currently being paid and 65 percent of the statewide average weekly wage as computed annually.

(e) In the event that an eligible recipient is receiving simultaneous benefits from any government disability program, the amount of supplementary benefits payable under this section shall be reduced by five percent. If the individual does not receive the maximum benefits for which he is eligible under other governmental disability programs due to the provisions of 42 U.S.C. 424a (d), this reduction shall not apply.

Sec. 56. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 176.133, is amended to read:

176.133 [ATTORNEYS FEES, SUPPLEMENTARY BENEFITS.]

~~No~~ Attorneys fees shall be permitted or approved by the workers' compensation court of appeals from the supplementary workers' compensation benefits provided by section 176.132, or amendments thereto, ~~unless~~ if the case ~~solely~~ involves the obtaining of supplementary workers' compensation benefits. When such fees are allowed an amount equal to 25 percent of that portion of the fee which is in excess of $250 shall be added to the employee's benefit as provided in section 176.081 rather than deducted as a portion thereof. The fees shall be ~~subject~~ determined according to ~~the limitations contained in~~ section 176.081.

Sec. 57. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 176.136, is amended to read:

176.136 [MEDICAL FEE REVIEW.]

The commissioner of labor and industry shall ~~by rule establish procedures for determining whether the charge for a health service is excessive. In order to accomplish this purpose, the commissioner shall consult with insurers, associations and organizations representing the medical and other providers of treatment services and other appropriate groups~~ utilize the schedule of medical fees established pursuant to section 256B.04, subdivision 12 . If the commissioner determines that the charge for a health service or medical service is excessive, ~~he may limit~~ no payment ~~to~~ in excess of the reasonable charge for that service shall be made under this chapter nor may the provider collect or attempt to collect from the injured employee or any other insurer or government for amounts in excess of the amount payable under this chapter ; however, the commissioner shall by rule establish procedures allowing for a provider to appeal such determination. The commissioner ~~may~~ shall contract with a review organization as defined in section 145.61 ~~in making any determinations as to whether or not a charge is excessive~~ for the purposes listed in section 145.61, subdivision 5, and report to the legislature by January 15, 1983, and every January 15 of odd-numbered years, regarding the delivery of medical and health care services under the workers' compensation laws of this state .

Sec. 58. [176.1361] [TESTIMONY OF PROVIDERS.]

When the commissioner of labor and industry has reason to question the objectivity with which a medical or other provider of treatment services is giving testimony in any proceeding under this chapter regarding personal injuries, the commissioner shall refer the matter for review to an appropriate licensing body or other professional certifying organization for review and recommendations as to the objectivity of the provider in the matters referred. Based upon their recommendation, the commissioner may bar the provider from making an appearance in any proceeding under this chapter for a period not to exceed one year in the first instance, three years in a second instance, and may permanently bar the provider from appearance thereafter.

Sec. 59. [176.152] [MEDICAL PANEL.]

Subdivision 1. [BINDING OPINION; MEDICAL DISPUTES.] Prior to a hearing before a compensation judge at which the issue of the extent of disability is in dispute a medical panel shall be constituted to render a final and binding opinion on the dispute.

Subd. 2. [PHYSICIAN LIST.] The commissioner shall compile and maintain a list of names of physicians qualified to determine the issues described in subdivision 1. Names on the list may be added and removed at any time by the commissioner. In maintaining the list the commissioner shall to the maximum extent possible select persons from varying geographical areas of the state.

Subd. 3. [PANEL SELECTION.] When a panel is required to be constituted by subdivision 1 the commissioner shall furnish the employer and employee parties to the dispute a list of seven physicians from which the parties shall alternatively strike names until only three remain which shall constitute the panel. If both parties agree, the dispute may be decided by one physician. If the parties are unable to agree on who shall strike the first name, the question shall be decided by a flip of the coin.

Subd. 4. [REPORT; CONCLUSION.] The commissioner shall propound specific written questions to the panel at the time they are notified of their selection. The questions shall be framed in such a manner that answers to them shall resolve the disputes described in subdivision 1. The panel's answers shall be binding upon the compensation judge before whom a hearing may be held subsequent to review by the panel.

Subd. 5. [EXAM; REPORT.] The panel physicians shall, individually or together, personally examine the employee within 30 days of their selection and after reviewing all other available pertinent information report their conclusions to the commissioner within 45 days after their selection. The commissioner may extend the time limit for good cause.

Subd. 6. [COSTS; PAYMENT.] Any physician who agrees to serve on a panel shall sign a consent form agreeing that any dispute concerning his fees for serving on the panel shall be decided by the compensation judge hearing the case and that the judge's decision shall be binding on the physician. A judge shall not approve any fee which exceeds the reasonable and customary fee in the area for similar service. The employer shall pay all the panel fees, except that if the compensation judge decides that the employee has disputed in bad faith an issue referred to the panel the judge may order that the employee pay the fees.

Subd. 7. [PILOT PROJECT; REPORT TO LEGISLATURE.] The commissioner shall establish the medical panel on a pilot basis in three counties, including at least one rural county. The commissioner shall report to the legislature by January 1, 1983, indicating at least the number of cases reviewed, the number of physicians participating, the number of cases settled prior to any hearing before a compensation judge and the cost of the program.

Sec. 60. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 176.161, Subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [RESIDING OUTSIDE UNITED STATES.] In case a deceased employee for whose injury or death compensation is payable leaves surviving him an alien dependent residing outside the United States the commissioner of the department of labor and industry shall direct the payment of all compensation due the dependent to be made to the duly accredited consular officer of the country of which the beneficiary is a citizen residing within the state, or to his designated representative residing within the state; or, if the commissioner of the department of labor and industry believes that the interests of the dependent will be better served and at any time prior to the final settlement the dependent files with the commissioner of the department of labor and industry a power of attorney designating any other suitable person residing in this state to act as attorney in fact in such proceedings, the commissioner of the department of labor and industry may appoint such person. If it appears necessary to institute proceedings to enforce payment of compensation due the dependent, the commissioner of the department of labor and industry may permit the consular officer to institute these proceedings. If during the pendency of these proceedings, such power of attorney is filed by the alien dependent, the commissioner of the department of labor and industry shall then determine whether such attorney in fact be substituted to represent such dependent or if the consular officer or his representative continue therein. The person so appointed may carry on proceedings to settle all claims for compensation and receive for distribution to such dependent all compensation arising under this chapter. The settlement and distribution of the funds shall be made only on the written order of the commissioner of the department of labor and industry. The person so appointed shall furnish a bond satisfactory to the ~~workers' compensation court of appeals~~ commissioner , conditioned upon the proper application of the money received by him. Before the bond is discharged, the person so appointed shall file with the commissioner of the department of labor and industry a verified account of his receipts and disbursements of such compensation.

Sec. 61. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 176.181, Subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [COMPULSORY INSURANCE; SELF-INSURERS.] (1) Every employer, except the state and its municipal subdivisions, liable under this chapter to pay compensation shall insure payment of compensation with some insurance carrier authorized to insure workers' compensation liability in this state, or obtain a written order from the commissioner of insurance exempting the employer from insuring his liability for compensation and permitting him to self-insure the liability. The terms, conditions and requirements governing self-insurance shall be established by the commissioner pursuant to chapter 15. The commissioner shall also adopt, pursuant to clause (2)(c), rules permitting two or more employers, whether or not they are in the same industry to enter into agreements to pool their liabilities under this chapter for the purpose of qualifying as group self-insurers. With the approval of the commissioner of insurance, any employer may exclude medical, chiropractic and hospital benefits as required by this chapter. An employer conducting distinct operations at different locations may either insure or self-insure the other portion of his operations which may be determined by the commissioner of insurance to be a distinct and separate risk. An employer desiring to be exempted from insuring his liability for compensation shall make application to the commissioner of insurance, showing his financial ability to pay the compensation, whereupon by written order the commissioner of insurance may make an exemption as he deems proper. The commissioner of insurance may require further statements of financial ability of the employer to pay compensation. Upon ten days written notice the commissioner of insurance may revoke his order granting an exemption, in which event the employer shall immediately insure his liability. As a condition for the granting of an exemption the commissioner of insurance may require the employer to furnish security the commissioner considers sufficient to insure payment of all claims under this chapter. If the required security is in the form of currency or negotiable bonds, the commissioner of insurance shall deposit it with the state treasurer. In the event of any default upon the part of a self-insurer to abide by any final order or decision of the commissioner of labor and industry directing and awarding payment of compensation and benefits to any employee or the dependents of any deceased employee, then upon at least ten days notice to the self-insurer, the commissioner of insurance may by written order to the state treasurer require him to sell the pledged and assigned securities or a part thereof necessary to pay the full amount of any such claim or award with interest thereon. This authority to sell may be exercised from time to time to satisfy any order or award of the commissioner of labor and industry or any judgment obtained thereon. When securities are sold the money obtained shall be deposited in the state treasury to the credit of the commissioner of insurance and awards made against any such self-insurer by the commissioner of insurance shall be paid to the persons entitled thereto by the state treasurer upon warrants prepared by the commissioner of insurance and approved by the commissioner of finance out of the proceeds of the sale of securities. Where the security is in the form of a surety bond or personal guaranty the commissioner of insurance, at any time, upon at least ten days notice and opportunity to be heard, may require the surety to pay the amount of the award, the payments to be enforced in like manner as the award may be enforced.

(2)(a) No association, corporation, partnership, sole proprietorship, trust or other business entity shall provide services in the design, establishment or administration of a group self-insurance plan under rules adopted pursuant to this subdivision unless it is licensed to do so by the commissioner of insurance. An applicant for a license shall state in writing the type of activities it seeks authorization to engage in and the type of services it seeks authorization to provide. The license shall be granted only when the commissioner of insurance is satisfied that the entity possesses the necessary organization, background, expertise, and financial integrity to supply the services sought to be offered. The commissioner of insurance may issue a license subject to restrictions or limitations, including restrictions or limitations on the type of services which may be supplied or the activities which may be engaged in. The license is for a two year period.

(b) To assure that group self-insurance plans are financially solvent, administered in a fair and capable fashion, and able to process claims and pay benefits in a prompt, fair and equitable manner, entities licensed to engage in such business are subject to supervision and examination by the commissioner of insurance.

(c) To carry out the purposes of this subdivision, the commissioner of insurance may promulgate administrative rules, including emergency rules, pursuant to sections 15.0411 to 15.052. These rules may:

(i) establish reporting requirements for administrators of group self-insurance plans;

(ii) establish standards and guidelines to assure the adequacy of the financing and administration of group self-insurance plans;

(iii) establish bonding requirements or other provisions assuring the financial integrity of entities administering group self-insurance plans;

(iv) establish standards, including but not limited to minimum terms of membership in self-insurance plans, as necessary to provide stability for those plans;

(v) establish standards or guidelines governing the formation, operation, administration and dissolution of self-insurance plans; and

(vi) establish other reasonable requirements to further the purposes of this subdivision.

Sec. 62. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 176.181, Subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [FAILURE TO INSURE, PENALTY.] Any employer who fails to comply with the provisions of subdivision 2 to secure payment of compensation is liable to the state of Minnesota for a penalty of ~~$50~~ $100, if the number of uninsured employees in his employment is less than five and for a penalty of ~~$200~~ $400 if the number of such uninsured employees in his employment is five or more. If the commissioner determines that the failure to comply with the provisions of subdivision 2 was willful and deliberate, the employer shall be liable to the state of Minnesota for a penalty of $500 if the number of uninsured employees in his employment is less than five, and for a penalty of $2,000 if the number of uninsured employees is five or more. If the employer continues his noncompliance, he is liable for five times the lawful premium for compensation insurance for such employer for the period he fails to comply with such provisions, commencing ten days after notice has been served upon him by the commissioner of the department of labor and industry by certified mail. These penalties may be recovered jointly or separately in a civil action brought in the name of the state by the attorney general in any court having jurisdiction. Whenever any such failure occurs the commissioner of the department of labor and industry shall immediately certify the fact thereof to the attorney general. Upon receipt of such certification the attorney general shall forthwith commence and prosecute such action. All penalties recovered by the state in any such action shall be paid into the state treasury and credited to the special compensation fund. If an employer fails to comply with the provisions of subdivision 2, to secure payment of compensation after having been notified of his duty, the attorney general, upon request of the commissioner of the department of labor and industry, may proceed against the employer in any court having jurisdiction for an order restraining him from having any person in his employment at any time when he is not complying with the provisions of subdivision 2.

Sec. 63. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 176.181, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 6. Any rule or portion of a rule made or adopted by the commissioner of insurance which requires the employment of an "independent certified public accountant" or "certified public accountant" is hereby repealed or amended as the case may be. this act shall not be construed to require that hearings in workers' compensation matters be subject to the contested case procedures of the administrative procedure act. Any provision of chapter 176 which would conflict with the provisions of this act with regard to the hearing procedures to be followed in workers' compensation matters are subordinate to the provisions of this act.

Sec. 109. [REDUCED RATES; BENEFITS.]

There shall be no exception to the requirements of this section unless the commissioner of insurance finds that an intervening statutory change has caused the reduced rates to be inadequate or unfairly discriminatory as defined under chapter 79. In that event, the commissioner of insurance may, pursuant to section 8 and chapter 79, order a public hearing to determine an appropriate schedule of rates.

Sec. 110. [REDUCED RATES; IMPROVEMENTS.]

(3) Received no improper personal benefit;

(4) In the case of a criminal proceeding, had no reasonable cause to believe his conduct was unlawful; and

(5) In the case of acts or omissions occurring in the official capacity described in subdivision 1, paragraph (c), clause (1) or (2), reasonably believed that the conduct was in the best interests of the corporation, or in the case of acts or omissions occurring in his official capacity described in subdivision 1, paragraph (c), clause (3), reasonably believed that the conduct was not opposed to the best interests of the corporation. If the person's acts or omissions complained of in the proceeding relate to conduct as a director, officer, trustee, employee, or agent of an employee benefit plan, the conduct is not considered to be opposed to the best interests of the corporation if the person reasonably believed that the conduct was in the best interests of the participants or beneficiaries of the employee benefit plan.

(b) The termination of a proceeding by judgment, order, settlement, conviction, or upon a plea of nolo contendere or its equivalent does not, of itself, establish that the person did not meet the criteria set forth in this subdivision.

Subd. 3. [ADVANCES.] Subject to the provisions of subdivision 4, if a person is made or threatened to be made a party to a proceeding, the person is entitled, upon written request to the corporation, to payment or reimbursement by the corporation of reasonable expenses, including attorneys' fees and disbursements, incurred by the person in advance of the final disposition of the proceeding, (a) upon receipt by the corporation of a written affirmation by the person of a good faith belief that the criteria for indemnification set forth in subdivision 2 has been satisfied and a written undertaking by the person to repay all amounts so paid or reimbursed by the corporation, if it is ultimately determined that the criteria for indemnification have not been satisfied, and (b) after a determination that the facts then known to those making the determination would not preclude indemnification under this section. The written undertaking required by clause (a) is an unlimited general obligation of the person making it, but need not be secured and shall be accepted without reference to financial ability to make the repayment.

Subd. 4. [PROHIBITION OR LIMIT ON INDEMNIFICATION OR ADVANCES.] The articles or bylaws either may prohibit indemnification or advances of expenses otherwise required by this section or may impose conditions on indemnification or advances of expenses in addition to the conditions contained in subdivisions 2 and 3 including, without limitation, monetary limits on indemnification or advances of expenses, if the conditions apply equally to all persons or to all persons within a given class.

Subd. 5. [REIMBURSEMENT TO WITNESSES.] This section does not require, or limit the ability of, a corporation to reimburse expenses, including attorneys' fees and disbursements, incurred by a person in connection with an appearance as a witness in a proceeding at a time when the person has not been made or threatened to be made a party to a proceeding.

Subd. 6. [DETERMINATION OF ELIGIBILITY.] All determinations whether indemnification of a person is required because the criteria set forth in subdivision 2 have been satisfied and whether a person is entitled to payment or reimbursement of expenses in advance of the final disposition of a proceeding as provided in subdivision 3 shall be made:

(a) By the board by a majority of a quorum. Directors who are at the time parties to the proceeding shall not be counted for determining either a majority or the presence of a quorum;

(b) If a quorum under clause (a) cannot be obtained, by a majority of a committee of the board, consisting solely of two or more directors not at the time parties to the proceeding, duly designated to act in the matter by a majority of the full board including directors who are parties;

(c) If a determination is not made under clause (a) or (b), by special legal counsel, selected either by a majority of the board or a committee by vote pursuant to clause (a) or (b) or, if the requisite quorum of the full board cannot be obtained and the committee cannot be established, by a majority of the full board including directors who are parties;

(d) If a determination is not made under clauses (a) to (c), by the shareholders, excluding the votes of shares held by parties to the proceeding; or

(e) If an adverse determination is made under clauses (a) to (d), or if no determination is made under clauses (a) to (d) within 60 days after the termination of a proceeding or after a request for an advance of expenses, as the case may be, by a court in this state, which may be the same court in which the proceeding involving the person's liability took place; upon application of the person and any notice the court requires.

Subd. 7. [INSURANCE.] A corporation may purchase and maintain insurance on behalf of a person who is or was a director, officer, employee, or agent of the corporation, or who, while a director, officer, employee, or agent of the corporation, is or was serving at the request of the corporation as a director, officer, partner, trustee, employee, or agent of another organization or employee benefit plan against any liability asserted against and incurred by the person in or arising from that capacity, whether or not the corporation would have been required to indemnify the person against the liability under the provisions of this section.

Subd. 8. [DISCLOSURE.] A corporation that indemnifies or advances expenses to a person in accordance with this section in connection with a proceeding by or on behalf of the corporation shall report the amount of the indemnification or advance and to whom and on whose behalf it was paid to the shareholders in an annual report covering the period when the indemnification or advance was paid or accrued under the accounting method of the corporation.

Subd. 9. [LIFE INSURANCE COMPANIES.] A domestic life insurance company having a separate account or accounts pursuant to section 61A.14 may indemnify a person who is serving or has served as a member of the managing committee of that separate account, and may purchase and maintain insurance for that purpose, in accordance with this section."

Subd. 13a. "Public waters" means protected waters and wetlands.

Sec. 2. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 105.37, Subdivision 14, is amended to read:

Subd. 14. "~~Public~~ Protected waters" includes and shall be limited to the following waters of the state:

(a) All water basins assigned a shoreland management classification by the commissioner pursuant to section 105.485, except wetlands less than 80 acres in size which are classified as natural environment lakes;

(b) All waters of the state which have been finally determined to be public or protected waters or navigable waters by a court of competent jurisdiction;

(c) All meandered lakes, except for those which have been legally drained;

(d) All waterbasins previously designated by the commissioner for management for a specific purpose such as trout lakes and game lakes pursuant to applicable laws;

(i) All natural and altered natural watercourses with a total drainage area greater than two square miles, except that trout streams officially designated by the commissioner shall be ~~public~~ protected waters regardless of the size of their drainage area. No permit shall be required from the commissioner for work in watercourses having total drainage areas of five square miles or less, but greater than two square miles except when the proposed work involves any diversions of water from the drainage area or any impoundment of waters by damming the watercourse. A permit shall be required for any work which could result in erosion or sedimentation of downstream waters to which the watercourse is tributary unless the involved county and soil and water conservation district approve the work consistent with provisions of chapter 40.

The ~~public~~ protected character of water shall not be determined exclusively by the proprietorship of the underlying, overlying, or surrounding land or by whether it is a body or stream of water which was navigable in fact or susceptible of being used as a highway for commerce at the time this state was admitted to the union.

For the purposes of statutes other than sections 105.37, 105.38 and 105.391, the term "public waters" or the term "protected waters" shall include "wetlands" unless the statute expressly states otherwise.

Sec. 4. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 105.37, Subdivision 16, is amended to read:

Subd. 16. "Ordinary high water level" means the boundary of ~~public~~ protected waters and wetlands, and shall be an elevation delineating the highest water level which has been maintained for a sufficient period of time to leave evidence upon the landscape, commonly that point where the natural vegetation changes from predominantly aquatic to predominantly terrestrial. For watercourses, the ordinary high water level shall be the elevation of the top of the bank of the channel. For reservoirs and flowages the ordinary high water level shall be the operating elevation of the normal summer pool.

Sec. 5. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 105.38, is amended to read:

105.38 [DECLARATION OF POLICY.]

In order to conserve and utilize the water resources of the state in the best interests of the people of the state, and for the purpose of promoting the public health, safety and welfare, it is hereby declared to be the policy of the state:

(1) Subject to existing rights all ~~public~~ protected waters and wetlands are subject to the control of the state.

(2) The state, to the extent provided by law from time to time, shall control the appropriation and use of surface and underground waters of the state.

(3) The state shall control and supervise, so far as practicable, any activity which changes or which will change the course, current, or cross-section of ~~public~~ protected waters or wetlands, including but not limited to the construction, reconstruction, repair, removal, abandonment, the making of any other change, or the transfer of ownership of dams, reservoirs, control structures, and waterway obstructions in any of the ~~public~~ protected waters or wetlands of the state.

Sec. 6. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 105.39, Subdivision 3, is amended to read:

[ALLOCATION AND CONTROL OF WETLANDS AND WATERS.] The commissioner shall have administration over the use, allocation and control of ~~public~~ protected waters and wetlands, the establishment, maintenance and control of lake levels and water storage reservoirs, and the determination of the ordinary high water level of any ~~public~~ protected waters and wetlands.

Sec. 7. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 105.391, Subdivision 1, is amended to read:

105.391 [WATERS INVENTORY AND CLASSIFICATION.]

Subdivision 1. On the basis of all information available to him and the criteria set forth in section 105.37, subdivisions 14 and 15, the commissioner shall inventory the waters of each county and make a preliminary designation as to which constitute ~~public~~ protected waters and wetlands. The commissioner shall send a list and map of the waters which he has preliminarily designated as ~~public~~ protected waters and wetlands in each county to the county board of that county for its review and comment. The county board shall make all reasonable efforts to notify, in writing, the owner of land adjacent to a wetland of the preliminary designation of the wetland as a protected wetland. In so doing the county board may utilize information available in county offices. If requested by a county board, the commissioner shall mail a notice of any designation of a wetland as a protected wetland to each landowner whose name and address, listed together with the affected wetland, has been supplied to the commissioner by the county board. No designation shall be invalidated by reason of any defect or omission in respect to the above required notice, which notice applies only to those protected water designation proceedings in which the public hearing required by subdivision 1b will be noticed as required by subdivision 1b after the effective date of this act. The county board shall conduct at least one public informational meeting within the county regarding the commissioner's preliminary designation. After conducting the meetings and within 90 days after receipt of the list or maps, the county board shall present its recommendation to the commissioner, listing any waters regarding which the board disagrees with the commissioner's preliminary designation and stating with particularity the waters involved and the reasons for disagreement.

Subd. 1a. The commissioner shall review the county board's response and, if he agrees with any of the board's recommendations, he shall revise the list and map to reflect the recommendations. Within 30 days after receiving the county board's recommendations, he shall also notify the county board as to which recommendations he accepts and rejects and the reasons for his decision. After the revision of the map and list, if any, or if no response is received from the county board within the 90 days review period, the commissioner shall file the revised list and map with the recorder of each county and shall cause the list and map to be published in the official newspaper of the county.

Subd. 1b. The published notice shall also state that any person or any county may challenge the designation of specific waters as ~~public~~ protected waters or wetlands or may request the designation of additional waters as ~~public~~ protected waters or wetlands, by filing a petition for a hearing with the commissioner within 90 days following the date of publication. The petition shall state with particularity the waters for which the commissioner's designation is disputed and shall set forth the reasons for disputing the designation. If any designations are disputed by petition, the commissioner shall order a public hearing to be held within the county within 60 days following the 90 day period, notice of which shall be published in the state register and the official newspaper of the county.

Subd. 1c. The hearings shall be conducted by a hearings unit composed of one person appointed by the affected county board, one person appointed by the commissioner and one board member of the local soil and water conservation district or districts within the county who shall be selected by the other two members at least 20 days prior to the hearing date. The expenses of and per diem payments to any member of the hearings unit who is not a state employee shall be paid as provided for in section 15.059, subdivision 3, within the limits of funds available from grants to the county pursuant to Laws 1979, Chapter 199, Section 16. In the event there is a watershed district whose boundaries include the waters involved, the district may provide the hearings unit with its recommendations.

Subd. 1d. Within 60 days following completion of the hearing, the hearings unit shall issue its findings of fact, conclusions and an order, which shall be considered the decision of an agency in a contested case for purposes of judicial review pursuant to sections 15.0424 and 15.0425. The commissioner, the county or any person aggrieved by the decision of the hearings unit may appeal from the hearings unit's order. Upon receipt of the order of the hearings unit and after the appeal period has expired, or upon receipt of the final order of the court in the case of an appeal, the commissioner shall publish a list of the waters determined to be ~~public~~ protected waters and wetlands.

Subd. 1e. The commissioner shall complete the ~~public~~ protected waters and wetlands inventory by December 31, 1982.

Sec. 8. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 105.391, Subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. Except as provided below, no ~~public~~ protected waters or wetlands shall be drained, and no permit authorizing drainage of ~~public~~ protected waters or wetlands shall be issued, unless the ~~public~~ protected waters or wetlands being drained are replaced by ~~public~~ protected waters or wetlands which will have equal or greater public value. However, after a state waterbank program has been established, wetlands which are eligible for inclusion in that program may be drained without a permit and without replacement of wetlands of equal or greater public value if the commissioner does not elect, within 60 days of the receipt of an application for a permit to drain the wetlands, to either (1) place the wetlands in the state waterbank program, or (2) acquire it pursuant to section 97.481, or (3) indemnify the landowner through any other appropriate means, including but not limited to conservation restrictions, easements, leases, or any applicable federal program. If the applicant is not offered his choice of the above alternatives, he is entitled to drain the wetlands involved.

In addition, the owner or owners of lands underlying wetlands situated on privately owned lands may apply to the commissioner for a permit to drain the wetlands at any time after the expiration of ten years following the original designation thereof. Upon receipt of an application, the commissioner shall review the current status and conditions of the wetlands. If he finds that the current status or conditions are such that it appears likely that the economic or other benefits to the owner or owners which would result from drainage would exceed the public benefits of maintaining the wetlands, he shall grant the application and issue a drainage permit. If the application is denied, no additional application shall be made until the expiration of an additional ten years.

Sec. 9. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 105.391, Subdivision 10, is amended to read:

Subd. 10. Nothing in this chapter shall prevent a landowner from utilizing the bed of wetlands or ~~public~~ protected waters for pasture or cropland during periods of drought, provided there is no construction of dikes, ditches, tile lines or buildings, and the agricultural use does not result in the drainage of the wetlands or ~~public~~ protected waters. This chapter shall not prevent a landowner from filling any wetland to accommodate wheeled booms on irrigation devices so long as the fill does not impede normal drainage.

Sec. 10. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 105.391, Subdivision 12, is amended to read:

Subd. 12. The designation of waters as "~~public~~ protected waters" or "wetlands" pursuant to this section shall not grant any additional or greater right of access to the public to those waters, nor is the commissioner required to acquire access to those waters under section 97.48, subdivision 15, nor is any right of ownership or usage of the beds underlying those waters diminished. Notwithstanding the designation of waters or lands as ~~public~~ protected waters or wetlands, all provisions of Minnesota law forbidding trespass upon private lands shall remain in full force and effect.

Sec. 12. [EFFECTIVE DATE.]

This act is effective the day following its final enactment."

The auditor or clerk shall notify the state and each municipality, railroad company, or other corporation to construct any bridge or culvert required upon its road or right-of-way, within a reasonable time named in the notice.

If the work is not done within ~~the~~ that time ~~limited~~ , the ~~county board or district court~~ ditch authority may order the same built as a part of the construction of the system and the cost ~~thereof~~ shall be deducted from the damages allowed the corporation or collected from it as in case of an assessment for benefits ~~, and in all cases where~~ . If the report of the engineer or viewers shows the necessity for the construction of ~~such~~ the bridge, the ~~board or court~~ ditch authority may order a sufficient amount retained from any sum due ~~such~~ to the municipality, railroad, or other corporation to secure the construction of the bridge or culvert.

On public highways, all bridges and culverts required by the construction and improvement of any public open ditch, shall be constructed and maintained by the public authority charged by law with the duty of keeping ~~such~~ the highway in repair, except as ~~hereinafter~~ provided in this section ~~noted~~ .

~~In all cases where~~ If a public road or street ~~,~~ which is not a state trunk highway ~~,~~ is on the line between two public corporations, whether in the same county or not, ~~such~~ the corporations shall bear jointly and in equal shares the cost of constructing any bridge or culvert on ~~such~~ the road or street made necessary by the construction or improvement of any public drainage ditch ~~; and such~~ . The corporations shall bear jointly and in equal shares the cost of ~~thereafter~~ maintaining the ~~same~~ bridge or culvert .

~~In all cases where~~ If a public drainage ditch is constructed along the boundary line between towns or counties, and excavated material ~~therefrom~~ from it is deposited on the boundary line or within two rods ~~thereof~~ of the line , the cost of constructing and maintaining all bridges and culverts constructed across ~~such~~ the ditch ~~along the boundary upon~~ on any town or county roads shall be paid and borne equally by the town or county ~~wherein~~ where the bridge or

"Section 1. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 363.03, Subdivision 7, is amended to read:

Subd. 7. [REPRISALS.] It is an unfair discriminatory practice for any employer, labor organization, employment agency, public accommodation, public service, educational institution, or owner, lessor, lessee, sublessee, assignee or managing agent of any real property, or any real estate broker, real estate salesperson or employee or agent thereof to intentionally engage in any reprisal against any person because that person:

(1) Opposed a practice forbidden under this chapter or has filed a charge, testified, assisted, or participated in any matter in an investigation, proceeding or hearing under this chapter; or

(2) Associated with a person or group of persons of different race, color, creed, religion or national origin.

A reprisal includes, but is not limited to, any form of intimidation, retaliation, or harassment. It is a reprisal for an employer to do any of the following with respect to an individual because that individual has engaged in the activities listed in clause (1) or (2): refuse to hire the individual; depart from any customary employment practice; transfer or assign the individual to a lesser position in terms of wages, hours, job classification, job security, or other employment status; or inform another employer that the individual has engaged in the activities listed in clause (1) or (2).

Sec. 2. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 363.06, Subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [CHARGE FILING.] Any person aggrieved by a violation of this chapter may bring a civil action as provided in section 363.14, subdivision 1, clause (a), or may file a verified charge with the commissioner or his designated agent, stating the name and address of the person alleged to have committed an unfair discriminatory practice, setting out the details of the practice complained of and, if applicable, providing witnesses, documents, and any other information required by the commissioner. The commissioner may dismiss a charge when the charging party fails to provide required information. The commissioner within five days of ~~such~~ the filing shall serve a copy of the charge and a request for a response upon the respondent personally or by registered or certified mail. ~~Periodically~~ After the filing of a charge ~~but at intervals of no more than 60 days, until the charge is no longer in the jurisdiction of the department~~ the commissioner shall in writing inform the charging party of any change in the status of ~~his~~ the charge. A copy of the ~~periodic~~ notice shall be mailed to the respondent.

Sec. 3. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 363.06, Subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [TIME FOR FILING ~~CHARGE~~ CLAIM.] A ~~charge~~ claim of an unfair discriminatory practice must be brought as a civil action pursuant to section 363.14, subdivision 1, clause (a), or filed in a charge with the commissioner within six months after the occurrence of the practice.

Sec. 4. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 363.06, Subdivision 4, is amended to read:

Subd. 4. [INQUIRY INTO CHARGE.] (1) Consistent with clause (7), when a charge has been filed, the commissioner shall promptly inquire into the truth of the allegations of the charge. The commissioner shall make an immediate inquiry when necessary to prevent a charging party from suffering irreparable loss in the absence of immediate action. The commissioner shall also make an immediate inquiry when it appears that a charge is frivolous or without merit and shall dismiss those charges. The charging party shall be notified in writing of intent to dismiss a charge because it is frivolous or without merit ten days prior to dismissal by the commissioner. On ~~each charge~~ all other charges the commissioner shall make a determination as to whether or not there is probable cause to credit the allegation of unfair discriminatory practices, and that no probable cause exists to credit the allegations of the unfair discriminatory practice, the commissioner shall, within ten days of the determination, serve upon the charging party and respondent written notice of the determination. ~~Within ten days after receipt of notice, the charging party may request in writing on forms prepared by the department that the commissioner reconsider his determination. The request shall contain a brief statement of the reasons for and new evidence in support of the request for reconsideration. At the time of submission of the request to the commissioner, the charging party shall deliver or mail to the respondent a copy of the request for reconsideration. The commissioner shall either reaffirm or reverse his determination of no probable cause within 20 days after receipt of the request for reconsideration, and he shall within ten days notify in writing the charging party and respondent of his decision to reaffirm or reverse.~~

~~(1)~~ (2) If the commissioner ~~shall determine~~ determines after investigation

A decision by the commissioner that no probable cause exists to credit the allegations of an unfair discriminatory practice shall not be appealed to district court pursuant to section 363.072 or section 15.0424.

~~(2)~~ (3) If the commissioner ~~shall determine~~ determines after investigation that probable cause exists to credit the allegations of unfair discriminatory practices, the commissioner shall serve on the respondent and his attorney if he is represented by counsel, by first class mail, a notice setting forth a short plain written statement of the alleged facts which support the finding of probable cause and an enumeration of the provisions of law allegedly violated. If the commissioner determines that attempts to eliminate the alleged unfair practices through conciliation pursuant to subdivision 5 have been or would be unsuccessful or unproductive, the commissioner shall issue a complaint and serve on the respondent, by registered or certified mail, a written notice of hearing together with a copy of the complaint, requiring the respondent to answer the allegations of the complaint at a hearing before a hearing examiner at a time and place specified in the notice, not less than ten days after service of said complaint. A copy of the notice shall be furnished to the charging party and the attorney general.

~~(3) After~~ (4) If, at any time after the filing of a charge, the commissioner has ~~determined that there is probable cause~~ reason to believe that a respondent has engaged in ~~an~~ any unfair discriminatory practice, the commissioner may file a petition in the district court in a county in which the subject of the complaint occurs, or in a county in which a respondent resides or transacts business, seeking appropriate temporary relief against the respondent, pending final determination of proceedings under this chapter, including an order or decree restraining him from doing or procuring an act tending to render ineffectual an order the commissioner may enter with respect to the complaint. The court shall have power to grant temporary relief or a restraining order as it deems just and proper, but no relief or order extending beyond ten days shall be granted except by consent of the respondent or after hearing upon notice to the respondent and a finding by the court that there is reasonable cause to believe that the respondent has engaged in a discriminatory practice. Except as modified by this section, the Minnesota rules of civil procedure shall apply to an application, and the district court shall have authority to grant or deny such relief sought on conditions as it deems just and equitable. All hearings under this section shall be given precedence as nearly as practicable over all other pending civil actions.

~~(4)~~ (5) If a lessor, after he has engaged in a discriminatory practice defined in section 363.03, subdivision 2, clause (1), (a), shall lease or rent a dwelling unit to a person who has no knowledge of the practice or of the existence of a charge with respect to the practice, the lessor shall be liable for actual damages sustained by a person by reason of a final order as provided in this section requiring the person to be evicted from the dwelling unit.

~~(5)~~ (6) In any complaint issued under this section, the commissioner may seek relief for a class of individuals affected by an unfair discriminatory practice occurring on or after a date six months prior to the filing of the charge from which the complaint originates.

(7) The commissioner may adopt policies to determine the order in which charges are processed based on their particular social or legal significance, administrative convenience, difficulty of resolution, or other standard consistent with the provisions of this chapter.

Sec. 5. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 363.06, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 8. [ACCESS TO DOCUMENTS.] The charging party or his representative may review the answer of the respondent to the charge submitted pursuant to subdivision 1. The department shall make these documents available to the charging party in a reasonable manner and consistent with any law requiring a state agency to make the answer available to the public.

Sec. 6. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 363.14, Subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [COURT ACTIONS, SUITS BY PRIVATE PARTIES, INTERVENTION.] A person may bring a civil action seeking redress for an unfair discriminatory practice~~, upon withdrawal of the complaint from the department of human rights, at the following times~~:

(a) Directly to district court; or

(b) Notwithstanding the provisions of any law to the contrary, (1) within 45 days after the commissioner has determined that there is no probable cause to credit the allegations contained in a charge filed with the commissioner~~, or, if the charging party requested a reconsideration, within 45 days after the commissioner has reaffirmed his determination of no probable cause~~; or ~~(b)~~ (2) after 45 days from the filing of a charge pursuant to section 363.06, subdivision 1 if a hearing has not been held pursuant to section 363.071 or if the commissioner has not entered into a conciliation agreement to which the charging party is a signator. The charging party shall notify the commissioner of his intention to bring a civil action, which shall be commenced within 90 days of giving the notice;

(c) The commissioner may discharge, without prejudice to the charging party, any case filed with the department on or before June 30, 1978. The commissioner shall notify a charging party by regular mail sent before August 1, 1981, that he has a right to bring a civil action pursuant to this section. Upon giving this notice the commissioner shall end all proceedings in the department relating to the charge. Notwithstanding any statutory period of limitation to the contrary, an individual notified pursuant to this clause may bring a civil action relating to his charge; provided that the action is filed on or before February 1, 1982.

A charging party bringing a civil action shall mail by registered or certified mail a copy of the summons and complaint to the commissioner, and upon his receipt thereof the commissioner shall cause all proceedings in the department relating to the charge to terminate. No charge shall be filed or reinstituted with the commissioner after a civil action relating to the same unfair discriminatory practice has been brought unless the civil action has been dismissed without prejudice.

Upon application by the complaining party to the district court at a special term thereof and in such circumstances as the court may deem just, the court may appoint an attorney for such person and may authorize the commencement of the action without payment of fees, costs, or security.

Upon timely application, the court may, in its discretion, permit the department to intervene in a civil action brought pursuant to this section upon certification that the case is of general public importance.

~~Upon request, the court may, in its discretion, stay further proceedings for not more than 60 days pending further efforts of the department to obtain voluntary compliance.~~

80D.11 [REHABILITATION OR LIQUIDATION.]

Subdivision 1. [REHABILITATION.] An order to rehabilitate a facility shall direct the ~~commissioner or~~ trustee to take possession of the property of the provider and to conduct the business thereof, including the employment of such managers or agents as the ~~commissioner or~~ trustee may deem necessary, and to take steps as the court may direct toward removal of the causes and conditions which have made rehabilitation necessary.

Subd. 3. [TERMINATION OF REHABILITATION; RETURN OF FACILITY TO PROVIDER.] If the court finds, upon petition of the ~~commissioner,~~ trustee or the provider, or on its own motion, that the objectives of an order to rehabilitate a provider have been accomplished and that the facility can be returned to the provider's management without further jeopardy to the residents of the facility, creditors, owners of the facility, or to the public, the court may, upon a full report and accounting of the conduct of the facility's affairs during the rehabilitation and of the facility's current financial condition, terminate the rehabilitation and by order return the facility and its assets and affairs to the provider's management.

Subd. 6. [CONSIDERATION OF WELFARE OF RESIDENTS.] In ~~applying~~ connection with an application for an order to rehabilitate or liquidate a facility, ~~the commissioner~~ a court shall give due consideration to the manner in which the welfare of persons who have previously contracted with the provider for continuing care may be best served. In furtherance of this objective, the proceeds of any lien ~~obtained by the commissioner~~ pursuant to section 80D.08 may be used in full or partial payment of entrance fees, on behalf of residents of a facility being liquidated, to other facilities ~~registered under section 80D.03~~ then in compliance with the provisions of sections 80D.01 to 80D.16.

~~Subd. 7. An order for rehabilitation under this section shall be refused or vacated if the provider posts a bond issued by an insurer authorized to do business in this state. The bond shall be filed with the commissioner, with the state as obligee, conditioned for the prompt payment to persons who are entitled to a refund of entrance fees from the provider or for the prompt payment of other damages, in the event the provider is unable to fulfill its contracts to provide continuing care at the facility. The bond shall be in an amount determined by the court to be equal to the reserve funding which would otherwise be needed to fulfill the obligations.~~

Sec. 11. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 80D.13, Subdivision 1, is amended to read:

"Sec. 4. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 41.56, Subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [DEFAULT, FILING CLAIM.] Within 90 days of a default on a guaranteed family farm security loan, the lender shall send notice to the applicant stating that the commissioner must be notified if the default continues for 180 days, and the consequences of that default. The lender and the applicant may agree to take any steps reasonable to assure the fulfillment of the loan obligation.

After 180 days from the initial default, if the applicant has not made arrangements to meet his obligation, the lender shall file a claim with the commissioner, identifying the loan and the nature of the default, and assigning to the state all of the lender's security and interest in the loan in exchange for payment according to the terms of the family farm security loan guarantee. In the case of a seller-sponsored loan, the seller may elect to pay the commissioner all sums owed the commissioner by the applicant and retain title to the property in lieu of payment by the commissioner under the terms of the loan guarantee. If the commissioner determines that the terms of the family farm security loan guarantee have been met, he shall authorize payment of state funds to the lender, and shall notify the defaulting party. The state of Minnesota shall then ~~become the holder of the mortgage and~~ succeed to the interest of the mortgagee or the vendor of the contract for deed. Taxes shall be levied and paid on the land as though the owner were a natural person and not a political subdivision of the state. The commissioner may, on behalf of the state, commence foreclosure or termination proceedings in the manner provided by law."

(15) The amount of any excluded gain recognized by a trust on the sale or exchange of property as defined in section 641(c)(1) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954;

This modification shall not exceed the difference in basis. If the gain is considered a long term capital gain for federal income tax purposes, the modification shall be limited to 50 percent of the portion of the gain. This modification shall not be applicable if the difference in basis is due to disallowance of depreciation pursuant to section 290.101.

(3) Interest or dividend income on securities to the extent exempt from income tax under the laws of this state authorizing the issuance of the securities but includible in gross income for federal income tax purposes;

The maximum amount of this subtraction shall be $11,000 less the amount by which the individual's federal adjusted gross income, plus the ordinary income portion of a lump sum distribution as defined in section 402(e) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, exceeds $17,000. In the case of a volunteer firefighter who receives an involuntary lump sum distribution of his

This modification does not apply to compensation defined in clause (b)(6);

(12) The amount of any income earned for personal services rendered outside of Minnesota prior to the date when the taxpayer became a resident of Minnesota. This modification does not apply to compensation defined in clause (b)(6);

(13) In the case of wages or salaries paid or incurred on or after January 1, 1977, the amount of any credit for employment of certain new employees under sections 44B and 51 to 53 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 which is claimed as a credit against the taxpayer's federal tax liability, but only to the extent that the credit is connected with or allocable against the production or receipt of income included in the measure of the tax imposed by this chapter;

This clause applies only to contracts for deed made on or after the effective date of this section.

(c) Modifications affecting shareholders of electing small business corporations under section 1372 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, or section 290.972 of this chapter.

(1) Shareholders in a small business corporation, which has elected to be so taxed under the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, but has not made an election under section 290.972 of this chapter, shall deduct from federal adjusted gross income the amount of any imputed income from the corporation and shall add to federal adjusted gross income the amount of any loss claimed as a result of stock ownership. Also there shall be added to federal adjusted gross income the amount of any distributions in cash or property made by said corporation to its shareholders during the taxable year.

(2) In cases where the small business corporation has made an election under section 1372 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, but has not elected under section 290.972 of this chapter and the corporation is liquidated or the individual shareholder disposes of the stock and there is no capital loss reflected in federal adjusted gross income because of the fact that corporate losses have exhausted the shareholders basis for federal purposes, the shareholders shall be entitled, nevertheless, to a capital loss commensurate to their Minnesota basis for the stock.

(3) In cases where the election under section 1372 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 antedates the election under section 290.972 of this chapter and at the close of the taxable year immediately preceding the effective election under section 290.972 the corporation has a reserve of undistributed taxable income previously taxed to shareholders under the provisions of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, in the event and to the extent that the reserve is distributed to shareholders the distribution shall be taxed as a dividend for purposes of this act.

Items of gross income includible within these definitions shall be deemed such regardless of the form in which received. Items of gross income shall be included in gross income of the taxable year in which received by a taxpayer unless properly to be accounted for as of a different taxable year under methods of accounting permitted by section 290.07, except that (1) amounts transferred from a reserve or other account, if in effect transfers to surplus, shall, to the extent that the amounts were accumulated through deductions from gross income or entered into the computation of taxable net income during any taxable year, be treated as gross income for the year in which the transfer occurs, but only to the extent that the amounts resulted in a reduction of the tax imposed by this act, and (2) amounts received as refunds on account of taxes deducted from gross income during any taxable year shall be treated as gross income for the year in which actually received, but only to the extent that such amounts resulted in a reduction of the tax imposed by this act.

(d) Modification in computing taxable income of the estate of a decedent. Amounts allowable under section 291.07, subdivision 1, clause (2) in computing Minnesota inheritance or estate tax liability shall not be allowed as a deduction in computing the taxable income of the estate unless there is filed within the time and in the manner and form prescribed by the commissioner a statement that the amounts have not been allowed as a deduction under section 291.07 and a waiver of the right to have the amounts allowed at any time as deductions under section 291.07. The provisions of this paragraph shall not apply with respect to deductions allowed under section 290.077 (relating to income in respect of decedents). In the event that the election made for federal tax purposes under section 642(g) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 differs from the election made under this paragraph appropriate modification of the estate's federal taxable income shall be made to implement the election made under this paragraph in accordance with regulations prescribed by the commissioner.

EXECUTIVE AND OFFICIAL COMMUNICATIONS

April 14, 1981

The Honorable Jack Davies
President of the Senate

Dear President Davies:

Returned to you herewith and unsigned please find S. F. 52, which amends Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 210A.43, Subdivision 4. I do not believe that this bill is in the best interests of the citizens of Minnesota, and, therefore, I am hereby vetoing it.

Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 210A.43 prohibits persons from denying political candidates and workers who accompany them access to various kinds of multiple dwelling units. Subdivision 3 of that Section provides that any candidate who is denied access to a multiple unit dwelling may seek injunctive relief in the courts to gain access to that dwelling. I believe that this form of injunctive civil relief is a more appropriate remedy for a candidate than the criminal sanction which would be imposed by S. F. 52.

It must be recognized that there is a fine line in such situations between protecting the right of privacy of individuals and ensuring political candidates access to the electorate. I believe that this fine line can better be delineated, and the rights of both parties more equitably protected, in a civil proceeding than by subjecting individual citizens to a petty misdemeanor charge.

Further, in an era where individuals are concerned for their protection against criminal activity, the likelihood that a person might deny access to a stranger who identifies himself or herself as a political candidate is too great to permit that innocent person to be subject to criminal sanctions.

For these reasons, after careful consideration, I have decided to veto S. F. 52.

Sincerely yours,
Albert H. Quie, Governor

Mr. Moe, R. D. moved that the veto message and S. F. No. 52 be laid on the table. The motion prevailed.

"Sec. 7. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 69.77, Subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. Subdivision 1 does not apply to an association enumerated in subdivision 1a under the following circumstances:

(1) Each member of the association pays into the retirement funds of the association during his term of covered employment from and after January 1, 1981, a contribution for retirement and survivorship benefits of not less than eight percent of the maximum rate of salary from which retirement and survivorship credits and amounts of benefits are determined, and that the contributions of a member are deducted from his salary by his governmental employer, transmitted to the association, and deposited to the credit of the proper fund thereof, provided that to avoid undue increase in the amount of employee contributions in any one year, any increase in the amount of contributions required by this section may be spread over several years, but the increase in rate of contribution in each year commencing in 1981 shall not be less than one percent until the appropriate levels of required employee contributions have been reached. This paragraph shall not apply to members who are volunteer firefighters, provided that the local governing body shall have given their approval to the exemption following consideration of the most recent actuarial survey.

(2) The officers of the association determine on or before the date established by the municipality, which shall not be later than September 1 and shall not be earlier than August 1, of each year the financial requirements and minimum obligation of the association for the following calendar year in accordance with the following requirements:

The financial requirements shall be based on the most recent actuarial survey prepared in accordance with sections 356.215, subdivision 4 and 356.216.

The total of the amounts calculated pursuant to clauses (a) and (b) shall constitute the financial requirements of the relief association for the following year.

(a) The normal level cost expressed as a percent of covered payroll determined from the actuarial survey shall be applied to the estimated covered payroll of the membership for the following year to determine the dollar amount of normal cost for said following year.

(b) To the dollar amount of normal cost thus determined shall be added an amount equal to the level annual dollar amount sufficient to amortize the unfunded accrued liability by December 31, 2010, as determined from the actuarial survey of the fund.

Except as otherwise provided in this paragraph, the minimum obligation of the governmental subdivision shall be the financial requirements of the association less the estimated amount of member contributions herein provided from covered salary anticipated for the following calendar year and less one year's estimated receipts expected from the applicable state aid program established pursuant to sections 69.011 to 69.051, and from the local police and salaried firefighters' relief association amortization aid program established pursuant to section 423A.02. The minimum obligation may, by vote of the governing body of the governmental subdivision, be reduced to the amount levied in the preceding year for purposes of the association, plus the following percentage of the difference between that levy and the amount of the minimum obligation determined without benefit of this sentence: for the levy made in 1971, ten percent; in 1972, 20 percent; in 1973, 30 percent; in 1974, 40 percent; in 1975, 50 percent; in 1976, 60 percent; in 1977, 70 percent; in 1978, 80 percent; and in 1979, 90 percent. Commencing with the levy made in 1980, there shall be no reduction in the minimum obligation pursuant to this paragraph.

(3) The foregoing determination of the obligation of a governmental subdivision shall be submitted to its governing body on or before the date established by the municipality which shall not be earlier than August 1 and shall not be later than September 1 of each year so that it may ascertain if it has been prepared in accordance with law.

(4) The governmental subdivision shall provide and pay as promptly as funds are available to the association at least the amount of the minimum obligation each year. Any portion of this amount not paid to the association at the end of any calendar year shall be increased at the rate of six percent per annum until so paid. On September 1 of any year the unpaid amount subject to interest shall be added to the obligation of the governmental subdivision.

(5) The governmental subdivision shall provide in its annual budget at least its minimum obligation and may levy taxes for the payment thereof without limitation as to rate or amount and irrespective of limitations imposed by other provisions of law upon the rate or amount of taxation when the balance of any fund of the association has attained a specified level; the levy of such taxes shall not cause the amount of other taxes levied or to be levied by the governmental subdivision, which are subject to any such limitation, to be reduced in any amount whatsoever. If the governmental subdivision does not include the full amount of the minimum obligation in its levy for any year, the officers of the association shall certify that amount to the county auditor, who shall spread a levy in the amount of the obligation.

(6) Moneys paid by the governmental subdivision to the association in excess of the minimum amount so required shall be applied to the reduction in the unfunded liabilities of the association.

(7) The funds of the association shall be invested in securities which are proper investments pursuant to section 11A.24, except that up to $10,000 may be invested in the stock of any one corporation in any account of such small size that the three percent stock limitation specified in section 11A.24, subdivision 5 would necessitate a lesser investment. Securities held by the association before July 1, 1971, which do not meet the requirements of this paragraph may be retained after that date if they were proper investments for the association on April 28, 1969. The governing board of the association may select and appoint investment agencies to act for and in its behalf or may certify funds for investment by the state board under the provisions of section 11A.17, provided that there be no limit to the amount which may be invested in the income share account, in the bond account, or in the fixed-return account, and that up to 20 percent of that portion of the assets of the association invested in the Minnesota supplemental ~~retirement~~ investment fund may be invested in the growth share account.

(8) The association shall procure an actuarial survey showing the condition of its fund pursuant to section 356.216 as of December 31, 1978, and shall procure an actuarial survey every two years thereafter. The association shall also procure a quadrennial experience study pursuant to section 356.216 as of December 31, 1978, and shall procure a quadrennial experience study every four years thereafter. A copy of the actuarial survey and the quadrennial experience study shall be filed with the director of the legislative reference library, the governing body of the municipality in which the association is organized, the executive secretary of the legislative commission on pensions and retirement, and the commissioner of insurance, not later than June 1 of the following year.

Sec. 8. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 69.775, is amended to read:

69.775 [INVESTMENTS.]

The special fund assets of the relief associations governed by sections 69.771 to 69.776 shall be invested in securities which are proper investments pursuant to section 11A.24, except that up to five percent of the special fund assets, or a minimum of $10,000, may be invested in the stock of any one corporation. Securities held by the associations before January 1, 1972, which do not meet the requirements of this section may be retained after that date if they were proper investments for the association on May 14, 1971. Sec. 5. [362.459] [ASSISTANCE OF OTHER AGENCIES.]

To effect the purposes of sections 1 to 14, and when requested by the commissioner, an agency shall to the extent practicable provide assistance, services, facilities, and data as will enable the bureau to carry out its functions, powers, and duties.

Sec. 6. [362.461] [COMPREHENSIVE LICENSE INFORMATION.]

Subdivision 1. [REPORTS BY AGENCIES.] Not later than 90 days from the effective date of sections 1 to 14, each agency issuing licenses for business undertakings, projects, and activities shall report to the bureau, in a form prescribed by the bureau, on each and every type of license administered or issued by the agency. The reports shall be updated every two years.

Subd. 2. [REPORT SUPPLEMENTATION.] Each agency issuing licenses for business undertakings, projects, and activities shall, subsequent to its report pursuant to subdivision 1, provide the bureau with a report of any new license or modification of any existing license, or licensing procedures, together with applicable forms, rules, and information required under subdivisions 1 and 2 regarding new or modified licenses.

Subd. 3. [PREPARATION OF INFORMATION FILE.] The bureau shall prepare an information file on agency license requirements upon receipt of the agency reports and shall develop methods for its maintenance, revision, updating, and ready access.

Subd. 4. [LICENSE INFORMATION PROVIDED BY BUREAU.] The bureau shall provide comprehensive license information on the basis of information submitted in subdivisions 1 to 3. The bureau may prepare and distribute publications, guides, and other materials based upon the agency reports and the information file. These materials are designed to serve the convenience of license applicants and explain license requirements affecting business, including requirements having multiple license or multiple agency aspects.

Sec. 7. [362.463] [PREAPPLICATION CONFERENCES.]

Subdivision 1. [REQUESTS FOR CONFERENCE.] The bureau, at the request of any person, proceeding in accordance with this section, may conduct a preapplication conference, pending the formal submission of application forms, in which affected agencies shall participate to the extent practicable in order to clarify the nature and scope of their interest, to provide guidance regarding license application and review procedures, and to coordinate agency actions and data collection or submission regarding license application.

Subd. 2. [MULTIPLE LICENSES; AGENCIES TO PROVIDE REVIEW AND OPINION.] If, in the course of a preapplication conference, it becomes clear in the opinion of the director that a proposed business undertaking: (a) may require multiple licenses from the same or different state departments; (b) will take place in phases over an extended period of time; (c) will involve substantial expense for preparation of detailed plans, specifications and license applications; or (d) is of a new or unique nature, then each affected agency shall, at the request of the director to the extent practicable, provide the applicant with a written review and opinion as to all licenses which the agency would require for the proposed undertaking, the standards and conditions which would have to be met in order to obtain the licenses, timetables involved, and any properly related circumstances or findings.

Subd. 3. [WRITTEN OPINIONS; TIME LIMITS; EXTENSIONS.] Each agency participating in the review and opinion process shall render the written opinion within a period not exceeding 60 days from the date fixed by the director. This period may be extended by the director at the request of an interested agency for the further consideration of information provided in accordance with this section. The director shall advise the person having requested the review and opinion of the extension, the reasons for it, and the revised period fixed by the director for rendering the written opinion. The person shall be entitled to confer with the bureau and with any agency having been granted an extension of time to ascertain what further information, if any, is required to facilitate the rendering of the review and opinion.

Subd. 4. [EFFECT OF REVIEW AND OPINION PROCEDURE.] A preapplication review and opinion shall not relieve the person from the responsibility of obtaining any required licenses and shall be contingent upon the submission of all detailed plans, specifications, and information required for license applications. An agency's written opinion as to required licenses shall remain in effect indefinitely for the proposed business undertaking, project, or activity as described in the applicant's submission. However, if new license requirements or related standards over which an agency has no control or discretion in establishing subsequently become effective, the new license requirements or standards shall not be considered to have been part of the preapplication review and opinion. The opinion of the agency may be modified or amended by the agency at any time and shall not prohibit the agency from requiring additional licenses as deemed necessary for the applicant.

Subd. 5. [RULES OF PROCEDURE.] The bureau shall promulgate rules for the procedures to be followed in the conduct of preapplication reviews and opinions.

Sec. 8. [362.465] [MASTER APPLICATION PROCEDURE.]

Subd. 3. [RECEIPT OF APPLICATION; NOTIFICATION TO AGENCIES.] Upon receipt of a master application the bureau shall immediately notify in writing each agency having a possible interest in the proposed business undertaking, project, or activity with respect to licenses which are or may be required.

Subd. 4. [AGENCY RESPONSE.] Each agency so notified shall respond to the bureau within 20 days of receipt of the notice and shall advise the bureau whether one or more licenses under its jurisdiction are or may be required for the business undertaking, project, or activity described in the master application. The response shall specify the licenses which in the opinion of the agency are or may be required, if any, and shall indicate the fees to be charged.

Subd. 5. [CONSEQUENCES OF NEGATIVE OR NONRESPONSES.] Any agency so notified which responds that it does not have an interest in the license requirements of the business undertaking, project, or activity described in the master application, or which does not respond within the time period specified in subdivision 4, shall not require a license for the undertaking, project, or activity described in the master application. Except that where unusual circumstances have prevented an agency from notifying the bureau, and the agency establishes that failure to require a license would result in substantial harm to the public health or welfare, the commissioner may order that the license be required.

Subd. 6. [FAILURE TO PROVIDE ACCURATE OR PERTINENT INFORMATION.] The provisions of subdivision 5 shall not apply if the commissioner of economic development determines that the master application contained false, misleading, or deceptive information, or failed to include pertinent information, the lack of which could reasonably lead an agency to misjudge the applicability of licenses under its jurisdiction, or if new license requirements or related standards subsequently became effective for which an agency had no discretion in establishing the effective date.

Subd. 7. [NOTIFICATION TO APPLICANT.] The bureau, following the 20 day notice and response period, shall promptly provide the person having submitted a master application with application forms and related information for all licenses specified by the interested agencies and shall advise the person:

(a) That all forms are to be completed and submitted to the interested agencies; and

(b) At the option of the applicant, that the bureau will receive all forms as a package with the fees to be charged, if any, and that the bureau will immediately separate and submit the forms and any allocable fees to the appropriate agencies.

Subd. 8. [WITHDRAWAL OF APPLICATION.] An applicant may withdraw a master application at any time without forfeiture of any license approval applied for or obtained under the master application procedures contained in this section.

Sec. 9. [362.467] [LICENSE COORDINATION AND ASSISTANCE TO APPLICANTS.]

Subdivision 1. [AUTHORIZATION.] Any applicant for licenses required for a business undertaking, project, or activity may confer with the bureau to obtain assistance in the prompt and efficient processing and review of applications.

Subd. 2. [DUTIES OF THE BUREAU.] The bureau shall, so far as possible, render assistance; and the director may designate an officer or employee of the bureau to act as an expediter for the purpose of:

Subd. 3. [PREHEARING CONFERENCE.] The office of administrative hearings, with the consent of the agencies having license jurisdiction, may provide for a prehearing conference to assist in the disposition of the type, time, place, and parties of the consolidated hearing, the simplification of the issues, the stipulations as to agreed facts and necessary documents, and other relevant matters.

Sec. 11. [362.471] [LICENSE AUTHORITY RETAINED.]

Each agency having jurisdiction to approve or deny a license shall have the continuing power vested in it to make such determinations. The provisions of sections 1 to 14 shall not lessen or reduce these powers and shall modify the procedures followed in carrying out these powers only to the extent provided in sections 1 to 14.

Sec. 12. [362.473] [SERVICES PROVIDED AT NO CHARGE.]

Services rendered by the bureau shall be made available without charge. Nothing contained in this section shall relieve an applicant of any part of the fees or charges established for the review and approval of license applications or relieve an applicant of any of the apportioned costs of a consolidated hearing conducted under sections 7 and 8.

Sec. 13. [362.475] [FEDERAL AND LOCAL GOVERNMENT PARTICIPATION.]

Subdivision 1. [ENCOURAGEMENT.] Federal and local government license agencies shall be encouraged to participate in the business license information, coordination, and assistance services of the bureau and to make information available to applicants through the bureau with respect to any business undertaking, project, or activity which is referred to the bureau under the provisions of sections 1 to 14.

Subd. 2. [ASSISTANCE TO FEDERAL AND LOCAL AGENCY LICENSE APPLICANTS.] The bureau shall, so far as is practicable, advise applicants of federal and local agency license requirements and shall maintain an information file on licenses for which the state has delegated issuance authority to local government agencies.

Subd. 3. [COORDINATION OF LICENSE REVIEW PROCEDURES.] The director shall consult with local government officials with respect to cooperation in coordinating state and local license application and review procedures and shall recommend to the governor and the legislature any actions which would facilitate this coordination.

Sec. 14. [362.477] [COMPILATION AND MAINTENANCE OF STATISTICAL DATA.]

The bureau shall obtain and keep on an annual basis appropriate statistical data regarding the number of licenses issued by agencies, the amount of time necessary for the licenses to be issued, the cost of obtaining the licenses, the types of projects for which specific licenses are issued, a geographic distribution of licenses issued, and other pertinent data which the director deems appropriate. The bureau shall analyze the data by type of license and by agency responsible and shall make its findings available to the public.

Sec. 15. [REPEALER.]

Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 362.45, is repealed.

Sec. 16. [REVOLVING FUND.]

There is established a business license revolving fund. Any other law notwithstanding, every agency issuing a business license after the effective date of this act shall impose a two percent surcharge or $10, whichever is the lesser amount, for the issuance or renewal of a business license through the period ending June 30, 1982. A surcharge of one percent or $10, whichever is the lesser amount, shall be imposed beginning July 1, 1982. Proceeds from the license surcharge shall be deposited in the business license revolving fund.

Sec. 17. [APPROPRIATION.]

There is appropriated from the general fund to the bureau of business licenses the sum of $450,000 for the purpose of implementing sections 1 to 14. This appropriation is available until June 30, 1983. The complement of the department of economic development is increased by four. The state employer contributions shall be remitted directly to each teachers retirement fund association each month in accordance with the procedures described in section 354.43, subdivisions 1 and 5.

Once each month the executive secretary of each teachers retirement fund association shall determine the amount of money necessary and presently needed to meet the state obligation as provided in this subdivision by applying the percentage of payroll figure to the estimated payroll amounts for the current month and shall certify the amount to the commissioner of finance. The moneys required to meet the amounts certified by each executive secretary of a teachers retirement fund association shall be remitted directly to the applicable teachers retirement fund association from the general fund each month. If subsequent actual experience deviates from the anticipated experience upon which the amount certified was determined, the allocation to the first class city teachers retirement fund association involved next following the discovery of the deviation shall be adjusted. If the state makes an excess employer contribution to a teachers retirement fund association as the result of a false or wrongful certification, the state shall be entitled to recover the excess employer contribution by any appropriate means, including recovery from future state allocations, state aid or other funds payable to the school district in which the association is located. If an employee of that school district is responsible for the false or wrongful certification, any excess employer contribution recovered by the state shall be the obligation of the school district.

From the employer contribution received from the state, the teachers retirement fund association shall subtract and shall pay to the state teachers retirement association an amount equal to the applicable percentage of payroll employer contribution rate applied to that portion of estimated payroll amounts which are paid from sources other than normal school operating funds as certified to the commissioner of finance pursuant to subdivision 3.

All appointments to the classified service shall be based upon merit and ability to perform the duties of the position and the needs of the employing agency, including the need to achieve and maintain a representative work force. For employees in a bargaining unit as defined in section 179.741 appointments shall be subject to applicable provisions of collective bargaining agreements.

Sec. 15. [43A.15] [NONCOMPETITIVE AND QUALIFYING APPOINTMENTS.]

Subdivision 1. [GENERAL.] Positions in the classified service may be filled other than by appointment from eligible lists only as provided in this section or other law, provided that appointments made pursuant to subdivisions 5, 6, 9, 10, 11, and 12 shall be subject to applicable provisions of collective bargaining agreements.

Subd. 2. [EMERGENCY APPOINTMENTS.] An appointing authority may make an emergency appointment for up to 30 working days. No person shall be employed in any one agency on an emergency basis for more than 30 working days in any 12 month period.

Subd. 3. [TEMPORARY APPOINTMENTS.] The commissioner may authorize an appointing authority to make a temporary appointment of up to six months. The commissioner may, in the best interest of the state, grant an extension of a temporary appointment or approve a temporary appointment to fill a vacancy created by an approved leave of absence to a maximum period of one year. When practicable, the commissioner may certify any qualified eligible from an eligible list for the temporary appointment, but may authorize the appointment of any person deemed qualified by the appointing authority.

No person shall be employed on a temporary basis in any one agency for more than 12 months in any 24 month period.

Subd. 4. [PROVISIONAL APPOINTMENTS.] The commissioner may authorize an appointing authority to make a provisional appointment if there is an urgent reason for filling a vacancy and no person on an incomplete certification is suitable or available for appointment.

No person shall be provisionally appointed unless the person has passed an appropriate qualifying examination or is qualified in all respects except for completion of a licensure or certification requirement. To the extent possible, the commissioner shall ensure that provisional appointments are kept to a minimum.

No person shall be employed on a provisional basis for more than six months unless the commissioner grants an extension to a maximum of 12 months in the best interest of the state. No extension may be granted beyond 12 months except for persons provisionally appointed to physician positions or other positions requiring licensure or certification where there is a lack of eligibles.

At the request of an appointing authority, the commissioner may authorize the probationary appointment of a provisional appointee who has performed satisfactorily for at least 60 days.

Subd. 5. [NONCOMPETITIVE PROMOTIONS.] The commissioner may authorize an appointing authority to promote the incumbent with permanent or probationary status to a reallocated classified position.

Subd. 6. [APPOINTMENTS THROUGH TRANSFER OR DEMOTION.] The commissioner may authorize the transfer or demotion of an employee in the classified service within an agency or between agencies. An authorized transfer may result in the movement of an employee between different positions in the same class or between positions in different classes provided that the compensation for the classes is similar.

The commissioner may enter into arrangements with public personnel agencies in other jurisdictions for the purpose of effecting transfers or voluntary demotions of employees between jurisdictions.

Subd. 7. [APPOINTMENTS FOR UNCLASSIFIED INCUMBENTS OF NEWLY CLASSIFIED POSITIONS.] The commissioner may authorize the probationary appointment of an incumbent who has passed a qualifying examination and who has served at least one year in an unclassified position which has been placed in the classified service by proper authority.

Subd. 8. [EXCEPTIONAL APPOINTMENTS.] Where a position requires exceptional qualifications of a scientific, professional or expert character and competition is impracticable, the commissioner may, at the request of an appointing authority, authorize the probationary appointment of a designated person possessing the required exceptional qualifications.

Subd. 9. [LABOR SERVICE APPOINTMENTS.] The commissioner shall designate classes involving unskilled labor as comprising a labor service and shall authorize appointing authorities to make appointments to such classes without prior approval.

Subd. 10. [ROUTINE SERVICE APPOINTMENTS.] The commissioner may authorize the administration of a qualifying selection process where the position to be filled is of a routine, service nature involving unskilled tasks, the performance of which cannot be directly related to qualifications beyond a minimum competency level. Appointing authorities may consider any candidate found so qualified for probationary appointment to such a position.

Subd. 11. [APPOINTMENTS TO POSITIONS IN SHORTAGE OCCUPATIONS.] The commissioner may designate classifications for which qualified applicants are in critically short supply and may develop recruitment, qualifying examination and referral processes as will provide agencies opportunity to make prompt appointments.

Subd. 12. [WORK-TRAINING APPOINTMENTS.] The commissioner may authorize the probationary appointment of persons who successfully complete on-the-job state training programs which have been approved by the commissioner.

Sec. 16. [43A.16] [PROBATIONARY PERIODS.]

Subdivision 1. [GENERAL.] All unlimited appointments to positions in the classified service except as provided in this subdivision shall be for a probationary period the duration of which shall be determined through collective bargaining agreements or plans established pursuant to section 18 but which shall not be less than 30 days of full-time equivalent service nor more than two years of full-time equivalent service. An appointing authority may require a probationary period for transfers, reemployments, reinstatements, voluntary demotions, and appointments from layoff lists of former employees of a different appointing authority. For employees in a bargaining unit as defined in 179.741 the requirement of such a probationary period shall be subject to applicable provisions of collective bargaining agreements.

Subd. 2. [TERMINATION DURING PROBATIONARY PERIOD.] There is no presumption of continued employment during a probationary period. Terminations or demotions may be made at any time during the probationary period subject to the provisions of this section and collective bargaining agreements or plans established pursuant to section 18.

If during the probationary period an employee with permanent status is dismissed for inability to perform the duties of the new position or for other cause not related to misconduct or delinquency, the employee shall be restored to a position in the employee's former class and agency.

Sec. 17. [43A.17] [SALARY LIMITS, RATES, RANGES AND EXCEPTIONS.]

Subdivision 1. [SALARY LIMITS.] As used in this section, "salary" means hourly, monthly, or annual rate of pay including any lump-sum payments and cost-of-living adjustment increases but excluding payments due to overtime worked, shift or equipment differentials, work out of class as required by collective bargaining agreements or plans established pursuant to section 18, and back pay on reallocation or other payments related to the hours or conditions under which work is performed rather than to the salary range or rate to which a class is assigned.

The salary, as established in section 15A.081, of the head of a state agency in the executive branch is the upper limit of compensation in the agency. The salary of the commissioner of labor and industry is the upper limit of compensation of employees in the bureau of mediation services. The commissioner may grant exemptions from these upper limits as provided in subdivisions 3 and 4.

Subd. 2. [GENERAL COMPENSATION.] For classes or positions covered under the provisions of section 18, subdivision 1, the commissioner shall negotiate compensation. For classes or positions covered under the provisions of section 18, subdivisions 2 and 3, the commissioner shall establish compensation. Employees covered under section 18 shall receive salary at the appropriate single rate or within the limits of the salary range to which their class is assigned or their position compared except for any lump sum payments including cost of living lump sum payments. The commissioner may grant further exemptions from this subdivision as provided in subdivisions 3, 5, 6, and 7.

Subd. 3. [UNUSUAL EMPLOYMENT SITUATIONS.] Upon the request of the appointing authority, and when the commissioner determines that changes in employment situations create difficulties in attracting or retaining employees, the commissioner may approve an unusual employment situation increase to advance an employee within the compensation plan. Such action will be consistent with applicable provisions of collective bargaining agreements or plans pursuant to section 18. The commissioner shall review each proposal giving due consideration to salary rates paid to other employees in the same class and agency and may approve any request which in the commissioner's judgment is in the best interest of the state. If the commissioner determines that the position requires special expertise necessitating a higher salary to attract or retain qualified persons, the commissioner may grant an exemption not to exceed 120 percent of the base salary of the head of the agency.

Subd. 4. [MEDICAL SPECIALISTS.] The commissioner may without regard to subdivision 1 establish special salary rates and plans of compensation designed to attract and retain exceptionally qualified doctors of medicine. In establishing salary rates and eligibility for nomination for payment at special rates, the commissioner shall consider the standards of eligibility established by national medical speciality boards where appropriate. The incumbents assigned to these special ranges shall be excluded from the collective bargaining process.

Subd. 5. [SALARY ON DEMOTION; SPECIAL CASES.] The commissioner may, upon request of an appointing authority, approve payment of an employee with permanent status at a salary rate above the maximum of the class to which the employee is demoted. The commissioner shall take such action as required by collective bargaining agreements or plans pursuant to section 18. If the action is justified by the employee's long or outstanding service, exceptional or technical qualifications, age, health, or substantial changes in work assignment beyond the control of the employee, the commissioner may approve a rate up to and including the employee's salary immediately prior to demotion. Thereafter, so long as the employee remains in the same position, the employee shall not be eligible to receive any increase in salary until the employee's salary is within the range of the class to which the employee's position is allocated unless such increases are specifically provided in collective bargaining agreements or plans pursuant to section 18.

Subd. 6. [SALARY ON TRANSFER.] The commissioner may authorize an employee transferring between two classes established as equivalent for purposes of transfer to retain a rate of compensation above the maximum of the range of the class to which the employee is transferring. The commissioner shall take such action as required by a collective bargaining agreement or plans pursuant to section 18. Thereafter, so long as the employee remains in the same class, the employee shall receive an increase in salary only as provided pursuant to applicable collective bargaining agreements or plans pursuant to section 18, until his salary is within the range of the class to which his position is allocated.

Subd. 7. [INJURED ON DUTY PAY.] Notwithstanding section 176.021, subdivision 5, the commissioner may provide for injured on duty pay through collective bargaining agreements or plans pursuant to section 18.

Sec. 18. [43A.18] [TOTAL COMPENSATION; COLLECTIVE BARGAINING AGREEMENTS; PLANS.]

Subdivision 1. [COLLECTIVE BARGAINING AGREEMENTS.] Except as provided in section 1 and to the extent they are covered by a collective bargaining agreement, the compensation, terms and conditions of employment for all employees represented by an exclusive representative certified pursuant to chapter 179 shall be governed solely by the collective bargaining agreement executed by the parties and approved by the legislature.

Subd. 2. [COMMISSIONER'S PLAN.] Except as provided in section 1 of this act, the compensation, terms and conditions of employment for all classified and unclassified employees who are not covered by a collective bargaining agreement and not otherwise provided for in this act or other law shall be governed solely by the commissioner's plan. The legislative commission on employee relations shall review the plan and submit it to the legislature along with any recommendations it deems appropriate. The plan need not be adopted in accordance with the rulemaking provisions of chapter 15.

The plan shall not take effect until approved by the legislature, provided that the legislative commission may give interim approval to effect the plan and subsequently submit it to the entire legislature for ratification in the same manner as provided for negotiated agreements and arbitration awards under section 179.74, subdivision 5. If the legislature modifies or rejects the plan or adjourns without action during the following legislative session, any total compensation increases which were provided pursuant to interim approval by the commission and not ratified by the legislature shall not be affected but shall cease to be provided.

Subd. 3. [MANAGERIAL PLAN.] The commissioner shall identify individual positions or groups of positions in the classified and unclassified service, except those listed in subdivision 4, in the executive branch as being managerial.

(a) The commissioner shall establish appropriate plans for training and development, mobility, total compensation and terms and conditions of employment for employees of those positions identified as being managerial and whose salaries and benefits are not otherwise provided for in law or other plans established under this act. The plans shall include a career executive service to provide a system for identifying, developing and recognizing key individuals who occupy managerial positions in the classified service.

(b) Incumbents of managerial positions as identified under this subdivision shall be excluded from any bargaining units under the provisions of chapter 179.

(c) The management compensation plan shall provide methods and levels of compensation for managers that will be generally comparable to those applicable to managers in other public and private employment. Provisions of the plan shall ensure that compensation within assigned salary ranges is related to level of performance.

The commissioner shall develop a total compensation plan for individuals appointed to the career executive service. Salaries established under this plan shall be limited to 120 percent of the maximum of the salary range for the employee's job classification in the classified service. The total compensation established under the provisions of this clause may be extended to unclassified managers and the employee benefits established under the provisions of this clause may be extended to those heads of agencies whose salaries are established in section 15A.081, subdivision 1.

(d) No rights or tenure shall attach to a career executive service assignment. An incumbent in the career executive service may be removed from the career executive service by the appointing authority, provided the action is made without regard to sex, race, religion, color, creed, marital status, age, national origin, disability, status with regard to public assistance or political affiliation. An employee removed from the career executive service shall receive compensation at the level formerly received plus any increases the employee would have received had the employee not been appointed to the career executive service.

An employee who is in the career executive service on the effective date of this section and whose position, as a result of this act, is no longer eligible for inclusion in the career executive service is nonetheless eligible to remain a member of the career executive service in accordance with the provisions of this section so long as the employee remains in that position.

Subd. 4. [PLANS NOT ESTABLISHED BUT APPROVED BY COMMISSIONER.] Notwithstanding any other law to the contrary, total compensation for employees listed in this subdivision shall be set by appointing authorities subject to the following limitations:

(a) Total compensation paid pursuant to this subdivision and that paid pursuant to section 6.582, shall be within the limits of compensation plans which shall have been approved by the commissioner before becoming effective;

(b) Total compensation for unclassified employees in the office of the governor shall be determined by the governor;

(c) Total compensation for unclassified employees in the office of the attorney general shall be determined by the attorney general;

(d) Total compensation for unclassified employees of the state board of investment shall be determined by the state board of investment;

(e) Total compensation for unclassified positions pursuant to section 8, subdivision 1, clause (g) and in the higher education coordinating board shall be determined by the state university board, the state board for community colleges, and the higher education coordinating board, respectively; and

(f) Total compensation for classified hearing examiners in the office of administrative hearings shall be determined by the chief hearing examiner.

Subd. 5. [GOVERNOR TO SET CERTAIN SALARIES.] The governor shall, on or before January 31 of each odd numbered year, submit to the legislative commission on employee relations recommendations for salaries for the positions listed in sections 15A.081 and 15A.083. The governor may also propose additions or deletions of positions from those listed.

(a) Before submitting the recommendations, the governor shall consult with the commissioner of administration, the commissioner of finance, and the commissioner of employee relations concerning the recommendations. Before submitting recommendations for an employee in the office of a constitutional officer, the governor shall consult with the constitutional officer concerning the recommendations and shall give due consideration to the advice of the officer;

(b) Except for positions for which salary ranges have been established, the recommendations shall contain a specific salary for each position listed in sections 15A.081 and 15A.083. The governor shall determine only a fixed salary for the positions of the constitutional officers, the judges of the workers' compensation court of appeals and the commissioner of public service;

(c) In making recommendations, the governor shall consider only those criteria established in subdivision 7 and shall not take into account performance of individual incumbents. The governor shall establish an objective system for quantifying knowledge, abilities, duties, responsibilities and accountabilities and in determining recommendations rate each position by this system; and

(d) The initial salary of a head of an agency hereafter established whose salary is not specifically prescribed by law shall be fixed by the governor, after consultation with the commissioner, whose recommendation shall be advisory only, in an amount comparable to the salary of an agency head having similar duties and responsibilities.

Subd. 6. [MEMBERS OF MINNESOTA NATIONAL GUARD.] Members of the Minnesota national guard shall receive the pay and allowances pre- scribed by the armed forces of the United States for similar rank and time in service.

Subd. 7. [COMPENSATION RELATIONSHIPS OF POSITIONS.] In establishing, recommending and approving total compensation for any position within the plans covered in subdivisions 2, 3 and 4, the commissioner shall assure that:

(a) Compensation for positions in the classified and the unclassified service compare reasonably to one another;

(b) Compensation for state positions bears reasonable relationship to compensation for similar positions outside state service;

(c) Compensation for management positions bears reasonable relationship to compensation of represented employees managed;

(d) Compensation for positions within the classified service bears reasonable relationships among related job classes and among various levels within the same occupation; and

(e) Compensations bear reasonable relationships to one another within the meaning of this subdivision if compensation for positions which require comparable knowledge, abilities, duties, responsibilities and accountabilities is comparable and if compensation for positions which require differing knowledge, abilities, duties, responsibilities and accountabilities is proportional to the knowledge, abilities, duties and responsibilities required.

Sec. 19. [43A.19] [AFFIRMATIVE ACTION.]

Subdivision 1. [STATEWIDE AFFIRMATIVE ACTION PROGRAM.] To assure that positions in the executive branch of the civil service are equally accessible to all qualified persons, and to eliminate the underutilization of qualified members of protected groups, the commissioner shall adopt and periodically revise, if necessary, a statewide affirmative action program. The statewide affirmative action program shall consist of at least the following:

(a) Objectives, goals and policies;

(b) Procedures, standards and assumptions to be used by agencies in the preparation of agency affirmative action plans, including methods by which goals and timetables shall be established; and

(c) Requirements for the periodic submission of affirmative action progress reports from heads of agencies.

The commissioner shall designate a state director of equal employment opportunity to serve in the unclassified service who may be delegated the preparation, revision, implementation and administration of the program.

Subd. 2. [AGENCY AFFIRMATIVE ACTION PLANS.] The head of each agency in the executive branch shall prepare and implement an agency affirmative action plan consistent with this section and rules promulgated pursuant to section 4, subdivision 3. No agency affirmative action plan may be implemented without the commissioner's approval.

Subd. 3. [EXEMPTIONS.] Implementation of the provisions of this section shall not be deemed a violation of other provisions of this act or chapter 363.

Sec. 20. [43A.20] [PERFORMANCE APPRAISAL AND PAY.]

The commissioner shall design and maintain a performance appraisal system under which each employee in the civil service in the executive branch shall be evaluated and counseled on work performance at least once a year. Individual pay increases for all employees not represented by an exclusive representative certified pursuant to chapter 179 shall be based on the evaluation and other factors the commissioner includes in the plans developed pursuant to section 18. Collective bargaining agreements entered into pursuant to chapter 179 may, and are encouraged to, provide for pay increases based on employee work performance.

Sec. 21. [43A.21] [TRAINING PROGRAMS.]

Subdivision 1. [AUTHORITY; PURPOSE.] The commissioner shall develop and interpret policy and administer and, to the extent possible, conduct programs in training and development for employees to promote individual, group and agency efficiency and effectiveness.

Subd. 2. [RESPONSIBILITIES.] The commissioner is responsible for developing and coordinating consistent training policy which shall be binding on all state agencies. The policies shall include conditions under which employees may receive or be assigned to training; internships and work-training programs; minimum and maximum training standards for employee participation and agency reporting requirements. Career development training is a permissive subject of collective bargaining. Each appointing authority in the executive branch, including the Minnesota state retirement system and the teachers retirement association, is primarily responsible for planning, budgeting, conducting and evaluating training programs.

Subd. 3. [PROGRAMS.] The commissioner shall design and implement a management development program for the state service. The program shall include but not be limited to mandatory training and development requirements for managers and supervisors. No management or supervisory training shall be conducted by any agency without specific approval of the commissioner. No person shall acquire permanent status in a management or supervisory position in the classified service until training and development requirements have been met.

Subd. 4. [FUNDS.] For purposes of training and development, the commissioner is authorized to apply for and accept funds from any source including reimbursement charges from agencies for reasonable program costs. Funds received shall be deposited in the general fund of the state treasury and shall be appropriated annually to the department for the purposes for which they are received.

Sec. 22. [43A.22] [BENEFITS; INTENT.]

It is the intent of the state to provide eligible employees and other eligible persons with life insurance and hospital, medical, and dental benefits coverage through provider organizations, hereafter referred to as "carriers", authorized to do business in the state.

Sec. 23. [43A.23] [CONTRACTING AUTHORITY.]

Subdivision 1. [GENERAL.] The commissioner is authorized to request bids from carriers or to negotiate with carriers and to enter into contracts with carriers which in the judgment of the commissioner are best qualified to un- derwrite and service the benefit plans. The commissioner shall consider the cost of the plans, conversion options relating to the contracts, service capabilities, character, financial position, and reputation of the carriers and any other factors which the commissioner deems appropriate. Each benefit contract shall be for a uniform term of at least one year, but may be made automatically renewable from term to term in the absence of notice of termination by either party. The commissioner shall, to the extent feasible, make hospital and medical benefits available from at least one carrier licensed to do business pursuant to each of chapters 62A, 62C and 62D. The commissioner need not provide health maintenance organization services to an employee who resides in an area which is not served by a licensed health maintenance organization. The commissioner may refuse to allow a health maintenance organization to continue as a carrier if it was selected by less than 200 employees in the preceding benefit year. The commissioner may elect not to offer all three types of carriers if there are no bids or no acceptable bids by that type of carrier or if the offering of additional carriers would result in substantial additional administrative costs. Any carrier licensed pursuant to chapter 62A shall be exempt from the tax imposed by section 60A.15 on premiums paid to it by the state.

Subd. 2. [CONTRACT TO CONTAIN STATEMENT OF BENEFITS.] Each contract under sections 22 to 30 shall contain a detailed statement of benefits offered and shall include any maximums, limitations, exclusions, and other definitions of benefits the commissioner deems necessary or desirable. Each hospital and medical benefits contract shall provide benefits at least equal to those required by section 62E.06, subdivision 2.

Sec. 24. [43A.24] [ELIGIBILITY FOR STATE PAID INSURANCE AND BENEFITS.]

Subdivision 1. [GENERAL.] Employees, including persons on layoff from a civil service position, shall be eligible for state paid life insurance and hospital, medical and dental benefits as provided in collective bargaining agreements or plans established pursuant to section 18.

Subd. 2. [OTHER ELIGIBLE PERSONS.] The following persons are eligible for state paid life insurance and hospital, medical and dental benefits as determined in applicable collective bargaining agreements or by the commissioner or by the Board of Regents for employees of the University of Minnesota not covered by collective bargaining agreements.

(a) A member of the state legislature, provided that changes in benefits resulting in increased costs to the state shall not be effective until expiration of the term of the members of the existing house of representatives. An eligible member of the state legislature may decline to be enrolled for state paid coverages by filing a written waiver with the commissioner, provided that the waiver shall not prohibit the member from enrolling himself or his dependents for optional coverages, without cost to the state, as provided for in section 26. A member of the state legislature who returns from a leave of absence to a position he previously occupied in the civil service shall be eligible to receive the life insurance and hospital, medical and dental benefits to which his position is entitled;

(b) A permanent employee of the legislature or a permanent employee of a permanent study or interim committee or commission or a state employee on leave of absence to work for the legislature, during a regular or special legislative session, provided that his name appears on the state payroll or the legislative payroll for at least one working day each payroll period;

(c) A judge of the supreme court or an officer or employee of a court; a judge of the district court, a judge of county court, a judge of county municipal court, a judge of probate court; a district administrator; and an employee of the office of the district administrator of the fifth or the eighth judicial districts;

(d) A salaried employee of the public employees retirement association;

(e) A full-time military or civilian officer or employee in the unclassified service of the department of military affairs whose salary is paid from state funds;

(f) A salaried employee of the Minnesota historical society, whether paid from state funds or otherwise, who is not a member of the governing board; and

(g) An employee of the regents of the University of Minnesota.

Sec. 25. [43A.25] [INELIGIBILITY FOR STATE PAID INSURANCE AND BENEFITS.]

Except as provided in section 27, subdivision 2, the following persons are excluded from the provisions of sections 22 to 30: emergency employees of the state and interns of the state and unless specifically included in collective bargaining agreements or plans established pursuant to section 18, student workers of the state, temporary employees of the state and intermittent employees of the state.

Sec. 26. [43A.26] [OPTIONAL COVERAGES.]

The commissioner may make available to eligible persons and their dependents certain optional coverages provided by carriers selected by the commissioner. Eligible employees may elect to purchase optional coverages at their own expense.

Sec. 27. [43A.27] [ELIGIBILITY FOR INDIVIDUAL PAID INSURANCE AND BENEFITS.]

Subdivision 1. [GENERAL.] Notwithstanding any other provisions of this act, the persons listed in subdivisions 2 and 3, and their dependents, may elect to enroll at their own expense in the appropriate life insurance, hospital, medical and dental benefits, and optional coverages at the time, in the manner, and under conditions of eligibility the commissioner prescribes and otherwise approves. The commissioner may also provide for payroll deductions to be made in the same manner and under the same conditions as provided in section 30, subdivision 2 authorizing payroll deductions for an eligible employee and his dependents.

Subd. 2. [ELECTIVE ELIGIBILITY.] The following persons, if not otherwise covered by section 24, may elect coverage for themselves or their dependents at their own expense:

(a) A state employee, including persons on layoff from a civil service position as provided in collective bargaining agreements or a plan established pursuant to section 18;

(e) An officer or employee of the state capitol credit union or the highway credit union.

Subd. 3. [RETIRED EMPLOYEES.] A retired employee may elect to purchase coverage for himself or his dependents at his own expense. A retired employee of the state who receives an annuity under a state retirement program may elect to retain coverages to which he was entitled at the time of his retirement and any additional coverages made available through collective bargaining agreements or plans established pursuant to section 18 to employees in positions equivalent to that from which he retired. Coverages shall be coordinated with relevant health insurance benefits provided through the federally sponsored medicare program. Appointing authorities shall provide notice to employees no later than the effective date of their retirement of the right to exercise the option provided in this subdivision. The retired employee must notify the commissioner or his designee within 30 days after the effective date of his retirement of his intention to exercise this option.

Subd. 4. [RETIRED JUDGES; FORMER LEGISLATORS.] A retired judge or a former legislator may elect to purchase coverage for themselves or their dependents at their own expense as provided below:

(a) A retired judge of the state supreme court or district court may elect to purchase coverage provided persons listed in section 24, subdivision 2, clause (c), provided that the retired judge exercises this option with 30 days of the effective date of retirement; or

Sec. 28. [43A.28] [ENROLLMENT.]

The time, manner, and conditions and terms of eligibility for enrollment of persons eligible for state paid or individual paid life insurance, hospital, medical and dental benefits, and optional coverages authorized shall be determined and prescribed by the commissioner according to collective bargaining agreements and plans established pursuant to section 18.

Sec. 29. [43A.29] [CONTRIBUTIONS BY STATE.]

The total contribution by the state for eligible state employees and for dependents of eligible state employees shall be prescribed by collective bargaining agreements or plans established pursuant to section 18.

Sec. 30. [43A.30] [PAYMENT OF PREMIUMS.]

Subdivision 1. [PAYMENTS FROM AGENCY REVENUES.] Each

agency shall pay the amounts due for state paid life insurance and hospital, medical and dental benefits coverage authorized for eligible employees pursuant to this act.

Each agency shall pay the amounts from accounts and funds from which the agency receives its revenues, including appropriations from the general fund and from any other fund, now or hereafter existing for the payment of salaries and in the same proportion as it pays therefrom the amounts of salaries. In order to enable the commissioner of finance to maintain proper records covering the appropriations pursuant to this section, the commissioner of finance may require certifications in connection with payments as the commissioner of finance deems necessary from the Minnesota historical society, the University of Minnesota, or any agency whose employees receive benefits pursuant to this act. The accounts and funds from which agencies receive appropriations under the terms of this section are a source of revenue for the purposes of any other law or statutory enactment.

Subd. 2. [PAYROLL DEDUCTION.] If an eligible person who is on any payroll of the state enrolls himself or his dependents for any of the optional coverages made available by the commissioner pursuant to section 26 the commissioner of finance, upon the person's written order, shall deduct from the salary or wages of the person those amounts required from time to time to maintain the optional coverages in force, and issue his warrant therefor to the appropriate carrier. Legislators may elect not to pay their premiums via payroll deduction.

Subd. 3. [GENERAL APPROPRIATION.] If for any reason there are insufficient funds in the state treasury to provide funds to expend under the appropriations made by subdivision 1 from any account or fund in the state treasury, the necessary additional funds therefor are appropriated from the general fund in the state treasury.

Sec. 31. [43A.31] [ADMINISTRATION.]

Subdivision 1. [GENERAL.] The commissioner shall maintain records, prepare reports, and perform all functions necessary to carry out the intent of sections 22 to 30. Upon request of the commissioner, the commissioner of finance shall perform necessary accounting and disbursement functions.

Subd. 2. [COMMISSIONER REPORTS.] The commissioner shall transmit a report each biennium to the legislative commission on employee relations concerning the operation of sections 22 to 30.

Subd. 3. [AGENCY REPORTS AND RECORDS.] Each agency shall keep the records, make the certifications, and furnish the commissioner or carriers with the information and reports necessary to enable the commissioner or carriers to carry out their functions under sections 22 to 30.

Subd. 4. [INSURANCE ADVISORY COUNCIL.] The commissioner shall appoint and serve as chairman of an insurance advisory council consisting of 11 members. Two members shall be selected from names submitted by exclusive representatives of state employees. One member shall be selected from names submitted by exclusive representatives of employees of the University of Minnesota. One member shall be selected from names submitted by organizations representing retired state employees. One member shall be selected from names submitted by the regents of the University of Minnesota. The commissioners of administration, insurance, health and finance, and the deputy commissioner for labor relations or their designees, shall serve as the other members. Except as provided in this section, the provisions of section 15.059 shall apply to the members of the council. The council shall advise the commissioner in the selection of carriers. Evidence of discussions, recommendations or decisions by the council shall not be submitted to any court or arbitrator in any matter involving state or University of Minnesota employees.

Sec. 32. [43A.32] [POLITICAL ACTIVITIES.]

Subdivision 1. [PROHIBITION.] No employee shall, directly or indirectly, during hours of employment solicit or receive funds for political purposes, or use official authority or influence to compel an employee in the classified service to apply for membership in or become a member of any political organization, to pay or promise to pay any assessment, subscription, or contribution or to take part in any political activity.

Subd. 2. [LEAVES OF ABSENCE FOR ELECTED PUBLIC OFFICIALS, CANDIDATES.] Except as herein provided any officer or employee in the classified service shall:

(a) Take leave of absence upon assuming an elected federal or state public office, including elected state legislative office;

(b) Take leave of absence upon assuming any elected public office other than enumerated in clause (a), if, in the opinion of the commissioner, the holding of the office conflicts with his regular state employment;

(c) Upon his request, be granted leave of absence upon becoming a candidate, or during the course of his candidacy, for any elected public office; and

Sec. 33. [43A.33] [GRIEVANCES.]

Subdivision 1. [DISCHARGE, SUSPENSION, DEMOTION FOR CAUSE, SALARY DECREASE.] No permanent employee in the classified service shall be discharged, suspended without pay, or reduced in pay or position, except for just cause.

Subd. 2. [JUST CAUSE.] For purposes of this section, just cause includes, but is not limited to, consistent failure to perform assigned duties, substandard performance, insubordination, and serious violation of written policies and procedures, provided the policies and procedures are applied in a uniform, nondiscriminatory manner.

Subd. 3. [PROCEDURES.] Procedures for discipline and discharge of employees covered by collective bargaining agreements shall be governed by the agreements. Procedures for employees not covered by a collective bar- gaining agreement shall be governed by this subdivision.

(a) For discharge, suspension for more than 30 days, or reduction in pay or position, no later than the effective date of such action, a permanent employee not covered by a collective bargaining agreement shall be given written notice by the appointing authority. The written notice shall include a statement of the nature of the disciplinary action, the specific reasons for the action, the effective date of the action and a statement informing the employee that he may reply within five days in writing or, upon request, in person, to the appointing authority or his designee. The notice shall also include a statement that the employee may appeal the action to the office of administrative hearings within 30 days of the effective date of the disciplinary action. A copy of the notice and the employee's reply, if any, shall be filed with the commmissioner no later than ten calendar days following the effective date of the disciplinary action. The commissioner shall have final authority to decide whether the appointing authority shall settle the dispute prior to the hearing provided under subdivision 4.

(b) For suspensions of permanent employees for 30 days or less grievance procedures shall be provided in plans established pursuant to section 18.

(c) For discharge, suspension or reduction in pay or position of employees serving an initial probationary period, grievance procedures shall be provided in plan established pursuant to section 18.

Subd. 4. [APPEALS; PUBLIC HEARINGS, FINDINGS.] Any permanent employee who is discharged, suspended without pay or reduced in pay or position may appeal to the chief hearing examiner of the office of administrative hearings within 30 days after the effective date of the discharge, suspension or reduction in pay or position. Any permanent employee who is covered by a collective bargaining agreement may elect to appeal to the chief hearing examiner within 30 days after the effective date of the discharge, suspension or reduction in pay or position if the collective bargaining agreement provides that option. In no event may an employee use both the procedure under this section and the grievance procedure available pursuant to sections 179.61 to 179.76. Within ten days of receipt of the employee's written notice of appeal, the chief hearing examiner shall assign a hearing examiner to hear the appeal.

The hearing shall be conducted pursuant to the contested case provisions of chapter 15 and the procedural rules adopted by the chief hearing examiner. Prior to the hearing, both parties may stipulate on mutually agreed matters relevant to the disciplinary action. The issues and facts on which agreement has not been reached will be decided during the hearing at which technical rules of evidence shall not apply. If the hearing examiner finds, based on the hearing record, that the action appealed was not taken by the appointing authority for just cause, the employee shall be reinstated to his position, or an equal position in another division within the same agency, without loss of pay. If the hearing examiner finds that there exists sufficient grounds for institution of the appointing authority's action but the hearing record establishes extenuating circumstances, he may in his discretion reinstate the employee, with full, partial, or no pay, or may modify the appointing authority's action. The hearing examiner's order shall be the final decision, but it may be appealed according to the provisions of section 15.0424. Settlement of the entire dispute by mutual agreement is encouraged at any stage of the proceedings. Any settlement agreement shall be final and binding when signed by all parties and submitted to the chief hearing examiner of the office of administrative hearings. Except as provided in collective bargaining agreements the appointing authority shall bear the costs of the hearing examiner for hearings provided for in this section.

Upon receiving the request, the appointing authority shall have a medical examination made of the employee. If the results of the medical examination establish the mental and physical ability of the employee to continue the duties of his employment, he shall be continued in his employment for the following year. If the determination of the appointing authority based upon the results of the physical examination is adverse, the disposition of the matter shall be decided by the commissioner of corrections or, for employees of the Minnesota security hospital, the commissioner of public welfare. Based on the information provided, the decision of the applicable commissioner shall be made in writing and shall be final.

Subdivision 1. [PURPOSE.] Employees in the executive branch shall have equal opportunity with all citizens to develop private, economic, and social interests; however, it is necessary to distinguish between those minor and inconsequential conflicts which are unavoidable in a free society and those conflicts which are substantial and material and conflict with the employee's responsibility to the public. This section shall not be interpreted to apply to any activity which is protected by 179.61 to 179.76, collective bargaining agreements and practices thereunder nor to prevent a current or former employee from accepting employment with a labor or employee organization representing employees.

Subd. 2. [DEFINITIONS.] For the purpose of this section the following definitions shall apply:

Dependent medical, hospital and dental benefits coverage shall be available to employees in shared positions of the same type and coverage afforded to comparable full-time employees, except that the employer shall contribute the appropriate shared time percent of the dollar amount contributed for comparable full-time employees electing the same program, the remainder to be paid by payroll deduction by the employee electing such coverage;

(e) Employees in shared positions shall be entitled to the appropriate shared time percent of the holiday pay to which comparable full-time employees are entitled for holidays observed by the full-time employees whenever the employee in a shared position would otherwise be scheduled to work on that day. Subd. 20. [GROSS INCOME.] Except as otherwise provided in this chapter, the term "gross income," as applied to corporations includes every kind of compensation for labor or personal services of every kind from any private or public employment, office, position or services; income derived from the ownership or use of property; gains or profits derived from every kind of disposition of, or every kind of dealing in, property; income derived from the transaction of any trade or business; and income derived from any source; except that gross income shall not include "exempt function income" of a "homeowners association" as those terms are defined in Section 528 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, as amended through December 31, 1979.

The term "gross income" in its application to individuals, estates, and trusts shall mean the adjusted gross income as computed for federal income tax purposes as defined in the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, as amended through the date specified herein for the applicable taxable year, with the modifications specified in this section.

(i) The Internal Revenue Code of 1954, as amended through December 31, 1974, shall be in effect for the taxable years beginning after December 31, 1974.

(ii) The Internal Revenue Code of 1954, as amended through December 31, 1976, including the amendments made to section 280A (relating to licensed day care centers) in H.R. 3477 as it passed the Congress on May 16, 1977, shall be in effect for the taxable years beginning after December 31, 1976. The provisions of the Tax Reform Act of 1976, P.L. 94-455, which affect adjusted gross income shall become effective for purposes of this chapter at the same time they become effective for federal income tax purposes. Section 207 (relating to extension of period for nonrecognition of gain on sale or exchange of residence) and section 402 (relating to time for making contributions to pension plans of self employed people) of P.L. 94-12 shall be effective for taxable years beginning after December 31, 1974.

The provisions of section 4 of P.L. 95-458, and sections 131, 133, 134, 141, 152, 156, 157, and 405 of P.L. 95-600 (relating to pensions, individual retirement accounts, deferred compensation plans, and to the sale of a residence) shall be effective at the same time that these provisions became effective for federal income tax purposes.

(iii) The Internal Revenue Code of 1954, as amended through December 31, 1979, shall be in effect for taxable years beginning after December 31, 1979.

For taxable years beginning after December 31, 1980 and before January 1, 1983, the provisions of section 404 (relating to partial exclusions of dividends and interest received by individuals) of the Crude Oil Windfall Profit Tax Act of 1980, P.L. 96-223, shall apply.

References to the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 in clauses (a), (b) and (c) following shall mean the code in effect for the purpose of defining gross income for the applicable taxable year.

(2) Interest income on obligations of any authority, commission, or instrumentality of the United States, which the laws of the United States exempt from federal income tax, but not from state income taxes;

(3) Income taxes imposed by this state or any other taxing jurisdiction, to the extent deductible in determining federal adjusted gross income and not credited against federal income tax;

(4) Interest on indebtedness incurred or continued to purchase or carry securities the income from which is exempt from tax under this chapter, to the extent deductible in determining federal adjusted gross income;

(6) The amount of any federal income tax overpayment for any previous taxable year, received as refund or credited to another taxable year's income tax liability, proportionate to the percentage of federal income tax that was claimed as a deduction in determining Minnesota income tax for the previous taxable year.

The overpayment refund or credit, determined with respect to a husband and wife on a joint federal income tax return for a previous taxable year, shall be reported on joint or separate Minnesota income tax returns. In the case of separate Minnesota returns, the overpayment shall be reported by each spouse proportionately according to the relative amounts of federal income tax claimed as a deduction on his or her separate Minnesota income tax return for such previous taxable year;

(13) Interest income from qualified scholarship funding bonds as defined in section 103(e) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, if the nonprofit corporation is domiciled outside of Minnesota;

(14) Exempt-interest dividends, as defined in section 852(b)(5)(A) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, not included in federal adjusted gross income pursuant to section 852(b)(5)(B) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, except for that portion of exempt-interest dividends derived from interest income on obligations of the state of Minnesota, any of its political or governmental subdivisions, any of its municipalities, or any of its governmental agencies or instrumentalities;

(15) The amount of any excluded gain recognized by a trust on the sale or exchange of property as defined in section 641(c)(1) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954;

(16) An amount equal to one-sixth of any gain from the sale or other disposition of property deducted under sections 1202(a) and 1202(c)(1) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954;

(17) To the extent not included in the taxpayer's federal adjusted gross income, the amount of any gain, from the sale or other disposition of property having a lower adjusted basis for Minnesota income tax purposes than for federal income tax purposes. This modification shall not exceed the difference in basis. If the gain is considered a long term capital gain for federal income tax purposes, the modification shall be limited to 50 percent of the portion of the gain. This modification is limited to property that qualified for the energy credit contained in section 290.06, subdivision 14, and to property acquired in exchange for the release of the taxpayer's marital rights contained in section 290.14, clause (9);

(20) To the extent excluded from federal adjusted gross income, in the case of a city manager or city administrator who elects to be excluded from the public employees retirement association and who makes contributions to a deferred compensation program pursuant to section 1, the amount of contributions made by the city manager or administrator which is equal to the amount which would have been the city manager's or administrator's employee contribution pursuant to section 353.27, subdivision 2, if he were a member of the public employees retirement association.

(b) Modifications reducing federal adjusted gross income. There shall be subtracted from federal adjusted gross income:

(1) Interest income on obligations of any authority, commission or instrumentality of the United States to the extent includible in gross income for federal income tax purposes but exempt from state income tax under the laws of the United States;

(2) The portion of any gain, from the sale or other disposition of property having a higher adjusted basis for Minnesota income tax purposes than for federal income tax purposes, that does not exceed such difference in basis; but if such gain is considered a long-term capital gain for federal income tax purposes, the modification shall be limited to 50 per centum of the portion of the gain. This modification shall not be applicable if the difference in basis is due to disallowance of depreciation pursuant to section 290.101.

(3) Interest or dividend income on securities to the extent exempt from income tax under the laws of this state authorizing the issuance of the securities but includible in gross income for federal income tax purposes;

(4) Losses, not otherwise reducing federal adjusted gross income assignable to Minnesota, arising from events or transactions which are assignable to Minnesota under the provisions of sections 290.17 to 290.20, including any capital loss or net operating loss carryforwards or carrybacks resulting from the losses;

(6) To the extent included in federal adjusted gross income, or the amount reflected as the ordinary income portion of a lump sum distribution under section 402(e) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, notwithstanding any other law to the contrary, the amount received by any person (i) from the United States, its agencies or instrumentalities, the Federal Reserve Bank or from the state of Minnesota or any of its political or governmental subdivisions or from any other state or its political or governmental subdivisions, or a Minnesota volunteer firefighter's relief association, by way of payment as a pension, public employee retirement benefit, or any combination thereof, or (ii) as a retirement or survivor's benefit made from a plan qualifying under section 401, 403, 404, 405, 408, 409 or 409A of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954. The maximum amount of this subtraction shall be $11,000 less the amount by which the individual's federal adjusted gross income, plus the ordinary income portion of a lump sum distribution as defined in section 402(e) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, exceeds $17,000. In the case of a volunteer firefighter who receives an involuntary lump sum distribution of his pension or retirement benefits, the maximum amount of this subtraction shall be $11,000; this subtraction shall not be reduced by the amount of the individual's federal adjusted gross income in excess of $17,000;

year beginning in 1974 or later;

(10) Interest, including payment adjustment to the extent that it is applied to interest, earned by the seller of the property on a family farm security loan executed before January 1, 1982 that is guaranteed by the commissioner of agriculture as provided in sections 41.51 to 41.60;

(11) The first $3,000 of compensation for personal services in the armed forces of the United States or the United Nations, and the next $2,000 of compensation for personal services in the armed forces of the United States or the United Nations wholly performed outside the state of Minnesota. (13) In the case of wages or salaries paid or incurred on or after January 1, 1977, the amount of any credit for employment of certain new employees under sections 44B and 51 to 53 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 which is claimed as a credit against the taxpayer's federal tax liability, but only to the extent that the credit is connected with or allocable against the production or receipt of income included in the measure of the tax imposed by this chapter;

(18) Minnesota exempt-interest dividends as provided by subdivision 27.

(c) Modifications affecting shareholders of electing small business corporations under section 1372 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, or section 290.972 of this chapter.

(1) Shareholders in a small business corporation, which has elected to be so taxed under the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, but has not made an election under section 290.972 of this chapter, shall deduct from federal adjusted gross income the amount of any imputed income from the corporation and shall add to federal adjusted gross income the amount of any loss claimed as a result of stock ownership. Also there shall be added to federal adjusted gross income the amount of any distributions in cash or property made by said corporation to its shareholders during the taxable year.

(2) In cases where the small business corporation has made an election under section 1372 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, but has not elected under section 290.972 of this chapter and the corporation is liquidated or the individual shareholder disposes of the stock and there is no capital loss reflected in federal adjusted gross income because of the fact that corporate losses have exhausted the shareholders basis for federal purposes, the shareholders shall be entitled, nevertheless, to a capital loss commensurate to their Minnesota basis for the stock.

(3) In cases where the election under section 1372 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 antedates the election under section 290.972 of this chapter and at the close of the taxable year immediately preceding the effective election under section 290.972 the corporation has a reserve of undistributed taxable income previously taxed to shareholders under the provisions of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, in the event and to the extent that the reserve is distributed to shareholders the distribution shall be taxed as a dividend for purposes of this act.

Items of gross income includible within these definitions shall be deemed such regardless of the form in which received. Items of gross income shall be included in gross income of the taxable year in which received by a taxpayer unless properly to be accounted for as of a different taxable year under methods of accounting permitted by section 290.07, except that (1) amounts transferred from a reserve or other account, if in effect transfers to surplus, shall, to the extent that the amounts were accumulated through deductions from gross income or entered into the computation of taxable net income during any taxable year, be treated as gross income for the year in which the transfer occurs, but only to the extent that the amounts resulted in a reduction of the tax imposed by this act, and (2) amounts received as refunds on account of taxes deducted from gross income during any taxable year shall be treated as gross income for the year in which actually received, but only to the extent that such amounts resulted in a reduction of the tax imposed by this act.

(d) Modification in computing taxable income of the estate of a decedent. Amounts allowable under section 291.07, subdivision 1, clause (2) in computing Minnesota inheritance or estate tax liability shall not be allowed as a deduction in computing the taxable income of the estate unless there is filed within the time and in the manner and form prescribed by the commissioner a statement that the amounts have not been allowed as a deduction under section 291.07 and a waiver of the right to have the amounts allowed at any time as deductions under section 291.07. The provisions of this paragraph shall not apply with respect to deductions allowed under section 290.077 (relating to income in respect of decedents). In the event that the election made for federal tax purposes under section 642(g) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 differs from the election made under this paragraph appropriate modification of the estate's federal taxable income shall be made to implement the election made under this paragraph in accordance with regulations prescribed by the commissioner."

In adopting a schedule of rates, the commissioner may act on the written petition of the association or any other interested party requesting that a hearing be held for modification of the schedule of rates. The commissioner may include the expense of a reasonable charge for the services of an agent of record, for the service of rejected risks as set forth in sections 79.24 to 79.27.

Sec. 19. [79.50] [PURPOSES.]

(b) Promote quality and integrity in the data bases used in workers' compensation insurance ratemaking;

(c) Prohibit price fixing agreements and anticompetitive behavior by insurers;

(d) Promote price competition and provide rates that are responsive to competitive market conditions;

(e) Provide a means of establishment of proper rates if competition is not effective;

(f) Define the function and scope of activities of data service organizations; and

(g) Provide for an orderly transition from regulated rates to competitive market conditions.

Sec. 20. [79.51] [RULES.]

Subdivision 1. [ADOPTION; WHEN.] The commissioner shall adopt rules to implement provisions of chapter 79. The rules shall be finally adopted after May 1, 1982. By January 15, 1982, the commissioner shall provide the legislature a description and explanation of the intent and anticipated effect of the rules on the various factors of the rating system.

Subd. 2. [TRANSITION PERIOD; RULES GOVERN.] Insurance rates from July 1, 1983, to December 31, 1985, shall be determined in accordance with rules adopted by the commissioner. The rules shall require (1) that a hearing be held pursuant to the provisions of section 79.071 to consider any petition requesting modification of rates and (2) that following the hearing the commissioner shall adopt a schedule of rates.

Subd. 3. [RULES; SUBJECT MATTER.] (a) The commissioner in issuing rules shall consider:

(2) Experience rating plans;

(3) Retrospective rating plans;

(11) Imposing limitations on the functions of workers' compensation data service organizations consistent with the introduction of competition;

(12) The rules contained in the workers' compensation rating manual adopted by the workers' compensation insurers rating association; and

(13) Any other factors that the commissioner deems relevant to achieve the purposes of sections 1 to 14.

(b) The rules shall provide for the following:

(1) Competition in workers' compensation insurance rates in such a way that the advantages of competition are introduced with a minimum of employer hardship during the transition period;

(2) Adequate safeguards against excessive or discriminatory rates in workers' compensation during the transition period;

(3) Encouragement of workers' compensation insurance rates which are as low as reasonably necessary, but shall make provision against inadequate rates, insolvencies and unpaid benefits;

(4) Assurances that employers are not unfairly relegated to the assigned risk pool;

(5) Requiring all appropriate data and other information from insurers for the purpose of issuing rules and making legislative recommendations pursuant to this section; and

(6) Preserving a framework for risk classification, data collection, and other appropriate joint insurer services where these will not impede the introduction of competition in premium rates.

(c) The rules shall expire on January 1, 1986.

Subd. 4. [ADVISORY COMMITTEE.] The commissioner shall appoint an advisory committee which shall offer recommendations regarding rulemaking under this section. The advisory committee shall include representatives of insurers, employers, and employees.

Sec. 21. [79.52] [DEFINITIONS.]

Subdivision 1. [GENERALLY.] The following words or phrases shall have the meanings ascribed to them for the purposes of sections 19 to 32, unless the context clearly indicates that a different meaning is intended.

Subd. 2. [MARKET.] "Market" means any reasonable grouping or classification of employers.

Subd. 3. [DATA SERVICE ORGANIZATION.] "Data service organization" means any entity which has ten or more members or is controlled directly or indirectly by ten or more insurers and is engaged in collecting data for use in insurance ratemaking or other activities permitted by chapter 79. Affiliated members or insurers shall be counted as a single unit for the purpose of this definition. The workers' compensation insurers rating association of Minnesota shall be considered a data service organization.

Subd. 4. [CLASSIFICATION PLAN; CLASSIFICATION.] "Classification plan" or "classification" means the plan, system, or arrangement for rating insurance policyholders.

Subd. 5. [RATES.] "Rates" means the cost of insurance per exposure base unit.

Subd. 6. [BASE PREMIUM.] "Base premium" means the amount of premium which an employer would pay for insurance derived by applying rates to an exposure base prior to the application of any merit rating or discount factors.

Subd. 7. [PREMIUM.] "Premium" means the price charged to an insured for insurance for a specified period of time, regardless of the timing of actual payments.

Subd. 8. [DISCOUNT FACTOR.] "Discount factor" means any factor which is applied to the base premium and which is based upon insurer expenses or other factors not related to the risk of loss.

Subd. 9. [MERIT RATING.] "Merit rating" means a system or form of rating by which base premium is modified on the basis of loss experience or other factors which are reasonably related to loss or risk of loss and which may be reasonably affected by the action or activities of the insured. The sensitivity of a merit rating system to loss experience may vary by the size of risk. Merit rating shall include both prospective and retrospective methods for modifying base premium.

Subd. 10. [LOSS DEVELOPMENT FACTORS.] "Loss development factors" means factors applied to recorded incurred losses to estimate the amount of ultimate loss payments that will have been made for losses during the applicable period when all claims are paid.

Subd. 11. [TREND OR TRENDING.] "Trend" or "trending" means any procedure employing data for the purpose of projecting or forecasting the future value of that data or other data, or the factors resulting from such a procedure.

Subd. 12. [INTERESTED PARTY.] "Interested party" means any person, or association acting on behalf of its members, directly affected by a change in the schedule of rates and includes the staff of the insurance division.

Subd. 13. [INSURER.] "Insurer" means any insurer licensed to transact the business of workers' compensation insurance in this state.

Subd. 14. [INSURANCE.] "Insurance" means workers' compensation insurance.

Subd. 15. [RATING PLAN.] "Rating plan" means every manual, and every other rule including discount factors and merit rating necessary for the calculation of an insured's premium from an insurer's rates. An insurer may choose to adopt for use the rating plan of the data service organization in which it maintains membership.

Sec. 22. [79.53] [PREMIUM CALCULATION.]

Each insurer shall establish premiums to be paid by an employer according to its filed rates and rating plan as follows:

Rates shall be applied to an exposure base to yield a base premium which may be further modified by merit rating, premium discounts, and other appropriate factors contained in the rating plan of an insurer to produce premium. Nothing in this chapter shall be deemed to prohibit the use of any premium, provided the premium is not excessive, inadequate or unfairly discriminatory.

Sec. 23. [79.54] [COMPETITIVE MARKET PRESUMPTION.]

A competitive market is presumed to exist until the commissioner, after a hearing on the record, determines that a reasonable degree of competition does not exist and issues an order to that effect. The order shall include the conditions and procedures under which a determination of insufficient competition shall expire.

Sec. 24. [79.55] [STANDARDS FOR RATES.]

Subdivision 1. [GENERAL STANDARDS.] Premiums shall not be excessive, inadequate, or unfairly discriminatory.

Subd. 2. [EXCESSIVENESS.] No premium is excessive in a competitive market. In the absence of a competitive market, premiums are excessive if the expected underwriting profit, together with expected income from invested reserves for the market in question, that would accrue to an insurer would be unreasonably high in relation to the risk undertaken by the insurer in transacting the business.

Subd. 3. [INADEQUACY.] Premiums are inadequate if, together with the investment income associated with an insurer's Minnesota workers' compensation insurance business, they are clearly insufficient to sustain projected losses and expenses of the insurer and (a) if their continued use could lead to an insolvent situation for the insurer; or (b) if their use destroys or lessens competition or is likely to destroy or lessen competition.

Subd. 4. [UNFAIR DISCRIMINATION.] Premiums are unfairly discriminatory if differentials for insureds fail to reasonably reflect the differences in expected losses and expenses to the insurer attributable to the insureds. Rates are not unfairly discriminatory solely because different premiums result for insureds with like loss exposures but different expense factors, or like expense factors but different loss exposures, provided that rates reflect the differences with reasonable accuracy.

Sec. 25. [79.56] [FILING RATES AND RATING INFORMATION.]

the commissioner a complete copy of its rates and rating plan, and all changes and amendments thereto, within 15 days after their effective dates. An insurer need not file a rating plan if it uses a rating plan filed by a data service organization. If an insurer uses a rating plan of a data service organization but deviates from it, then all deviations must be filed by the insurer.

Subd. 2. [BEFORE EFFECTIVE DATE.] The commissioner may order an insurer to file rates at least 30 days before the effective date of the rates (a) if the commissioner determines, based upon reasonable evidence, that an order is appropriate because of the insurer's financial condition; or (b) due to a prior finding of unfairly discriminatory rating practices; or (c) due to a prior finding of inadequate rates. The order may require that supplementary rate and supporting information be included in a filing.

Subd. 3. [PENALTIES.] Any insurer using a rate or a rating plan which has not been filed shall be subject to a fine of up to $100 for each day the failure to file continues. The commissioner may, after a hearing on the record, find that the failure is willful. A willful failure to meet filing requirements shall be punishable by a fine of up to $500 for each day during which a willful failure continues. These penalties shall be in addition to any other penalties provided by law.

Subd. 4. [PUBLIC INSPECTION.] All filings shall be open to public inspection during normal business hours at the offices of the insurance division.

Sec. 26. [79.57] [FILING RATES; NONCOMPETITIVE MARKET.]

Upon making a determination that a market is not competitive, the commissioner shall require rates for use in that market to be filed 30 days prior to their effective date. The filing shall include, in a form prescribed by the commissioner, an explanation of the rates and any data supporting the use of the rates which are not on file with a data service organization.

The commissioner may issue an order for a hearing at any time prior to the effective date of the rates and the rates shall not become effective until the commissioner has ruled on the rates following the hearing.

The commissioner may disapprove the rates subsequent to their effective date, except that rates so disapproved shall remain effective until the commissioner issues an order following a hearing.

Sec. 27. [79.58] [DISAPPROVAL OF RATES OR RATING PLANS.]

Subdivision 1. [RATES.] A rate filed by an insurer may be disapproved by the commissioner subsequent to its effective date. Following a disapproval and prior to a refiling the insurer shall use the rates as reasonably established by the commissioner.

The commissioner shall disapprove a rate if, after a hearing on the record, he finds that:

(a) The premium is inadequate or unfairly discriminatory; or

(b) A competitive market for workers' compensation does not exist and rates are excessive; or

(c) The insurer failed to comply with filing requirements.

A rehearing shall be held within 30 days of any disapproval under this section at the request of the insurer whose rates are disapproved.

Subd. 2. [RATING PLANS.] The commissioner may disapprove a rating plan of a data service organization if, after a hearing, the commissioner finds that it is unfairly discriminatory. Any order of disapproval shall require the data service organization to use an alternative rating plan until approval of a rating plan by the commissioner. The commissioner shall not approve any rating plan based upon any data other than Minnesota data.

Sec. 28. [79.59] [INSURERS AND DATA SERVICE ORGANIZATIONS; PROHIBITED ACTIVITIES.]

Subdivision 1. [MONOPOLIZATION.] No insurer or data service organization shall attempt to monopolize or combine or conspire with any other person to monopolize the business of insurance.

Subd. 2. [AGREEMENT PROHIBITED.] No insurer shall agree with any other insurer or with a data service organization to adhere to or to use any rate, rating plan, rating schedule, rating rule, or underwriting rule except as specifically authorized by chapter 79 or for the purpose of creating experience modifications for employers with employees in more than one state.

Subd. 3. [TRADE RESTRAINT.] No insurer or data service organization shall make an agreement with any other insurer, data service organization, or other person which has the purpose or the effect of restraining trade or of substantially lessening competition.

Subd. 4. [EXCEPTIONS.] The fact that insurers writing not more than 25 percent of the workers' compensation premiums in Minnesota use the same rates, rating plans, rating schedules, rating rules, underwriting rules, or similar materials shall not alone constitute a violation of subdivision 1 or 2.

Two or more insurers under common ownership or operating under common management or control may act in concert between or among themselves with respect to matters authorized under chapter 79 as if they constituted a single insurer, provided that the rating plan of such insurers shall be considered to be a single plan for the purposes of determining unfair discrimination.

Subd. 5. [ADDITIONAL PROHIBITION.] In addition to other prohibitions contained in this chapter, no data service organization shall:

(a) Refuse to supply any service for which it is licensed or any data, except for data identifiable to an individual insurer, to any insurer authorized to do business in this state which offers to pay the usual compensation for the service or data;

(b) Require the purchase of any specific service as a condition to obtaining any other services sought;

(c) Participate in the development or distribution of rates, rating plans, or rating rules except as specifically authorized by this chapter or by rules adopted pursuant to this chapter; or

(d) Refuse membership to any licensed insurer.

Sec. 29. [79.60] [INSURERS; REQUIRED AND PERMITTED ACTIVITY.]

Subdivision 1. [REQUIRED ACTIVITY.] Each insurer shall perform the following activities:

(a) Maintain membership in and report loss experience data to a licensed data service organization in accordance with the statistical plan and rules of the organization as approved by the commissioner;

(b) Establish a plan for merit rating which shall be consistently applied to all insureds, provided that members of a data service organization may use merit rating plans developed by that data service organization;

(c) Provide an annual report to the commissioner containing the information and prepared in the form required by the commissioner; and

(d) Keep a record of the premiums and losses paid under each workers' compensation policy written in Minnesota in the form required by the commissioner.

Subd. 2. [PERMITTED ACTIVITY.] In addition to any other activities not prohibited by chapter 79, insurers may:

(a) Through licensed data service organizations, individually, or with insurers commonly owned, managed, or controlled, conduct research and collect statistics to investigate, identify, and classify information relating to causes or prevention of losses;

(b) Develop and use classification plans and rates based upon any reasonable factors; and

(c) Develop rules for the assignment of risks to classifications.

Sec. 30. [79.61] [DATA SERVICE ORGANIZATIONS; REQUIRED AND PERMITTED ACTIVITY.]

Subdivision 1. [REQUIRED ACTIVITY.] Any data service organization shall perform the following activities:

(a) File statistical plans, including classification definitions, amendments to the plans, and definitions, with the commissioner for approval, and assign each compensation risk written by its members to its approved classification for reporting purposes;

(b) Establish requirements for data reporting and monitoring methods to maintain a high quality data base;

(c) Prepare and distribute a periodic report, in a form prescribed by the commissioner, on ratemaking including, but not limited to the following elements:

(i) development factors and alternative derivations;

(ii) trend factors and alternative derivations and applications;

(iii) pure premium relativities for the approved classification system for which data are reported, provided that the relativities for insureds engaged in similar occupations and presenting substantially similar risks shall, if different, differ by at least ten percent; and

(iv) an evaluation of the effects of changes in law on loss data.

The report shall also include explicit discussion and explanation of methodology, alternatives examined, assumptions adopted, and areas of judgment and reasoning supporting judgments entered into, and the effect of various combinations of these elements on indications for modification of an overall pure premium rate level change. The pure premium relativities and rate level indications shall not include a loading for expenses or profit and no expense or profit data or recommendations relating to expense or profit shall be included in the report or collected by a data service organization;

(d) Collect, compile, summarize, and distribute data from members or other sources pursuant to a statistical plan approved by the commissioner;

(e) Prepare merit rating plan and calculate any variable factors necessary for utilization of the plan. Such a plan may be used by any of its members, at the option of the member provided that the application of a plan shall not result in rates that are unfairly discriminatory;

(f) Provide loss data specific to an insured to the insured at a reasonable cost;

(g) Distribute information to an insured or interested party that is filed with the commissioner and is open to public inspection; and

(h) Assess its members for operating expenses on a fair and equitable basis.

Subd. 2. [PERMITTED ACTIVITY.] In addition to any other activities not prohibited by chapter 79, any data service organization may:

(a) Collect and analyze data in order to investigate, identify, and classify information relating to causes or prevention of losses;

(b) Make inspections for the sole purpose of reporting and maintaining data quality;

(c) Contract with another data service organization to fulfill any of the above requirements; and

(d) Prepare and file with the commissioner a rating plan for use by any of its members, provided that no member may be required to use any part of the plan.

Sec. 31. [79.62] [DATA SERVICE ORGANIZATIONS; LICENSING, EXAMINATION.]

Subdivision 1. [LICENSE REQUIRED.] No data service organization shall provide any service and no insurer shall use the services of a data service organization unless the organization is licensed by the commissioner.

Subd. 2. [PROCEDURE; APPLICATION.] A data service organization shall apply for a license in a form and manner prescribed by the commissioner. The application of a data service organization shall include:

(a) A copy of its constitution, articles of incorporation, bylaws, and other rules pertaining to the conduct of its business;

(b) A plan and narrative describing how it will perform the activities required by sections 11 and 14;

(c) A statement showing its technical qualifications; and

(d) Any other information that the commissioner may reasonably require.

Subd. 3. [ISSUANCE.] The commissioner, upon finding that the applicant organization is qualified to provide the services required and proposed, or has contracted with a licensed data service organization to purchase these services which are required by chapter 79 but are not provided directly by the applicant, and that all requirements of law are met, shall issue a license. Licenses shall remain in effect until the licensee withdraws from business or until the license is suspended or revoked.

Subd. 4. [SUSPENSION; REVOCATION.] The commissioner may, after a hearing on the record, revoke or suspend the license of a data service organization if he finds that the organization is not in compliance with the requirements of chapter 79 or rules issued thereunder.

Subd. 5. [LICENSEE EXAMINATION.] The commissioner may examine any licensed data service organization to determine whether its activities and practices comply with law. The cost of the examination shall be paid by the examined organization.

Sec. 32. [79.63] [ASSIGNED RISK PLAN.]

Subdivision 1. [ADMINISTRATION.] The commissioner shall appoint a licensed data service organization to administer the assigned risk plan. The appointed data service organization shall submit to the commissioner for approval a plan and rules for administering the assigned risk plan, including a method or formula by which the organization is to be paid for administrative services.

Subd. 2. [REJECTION; NOTICE.] An insurer that refuses to write insurance for an applicant shall furnish the applicant a written notice of refusal and shall file a copy of the notice of refusal with the data service organization appointed pursuant to subdivision 1. Servicing insurers designated pursuant to subdivision 3 shall accept and insure any applicant for workers' compensation insurance assigned pursuant to subdivision 3.

Subd. 3. [ASSIGNMENT.] An insurer or insurers shall be designated by the data service organization appointed pursuant to subdivision 1 to issue a policy of workers' compensation insurance to an applicant which has been refused insurance. A policy shall contain the usual and customary provisions of workers' compensation insurance policies, but for which undertaking all insurers doing workers' compensation business in this state shall be reinsurers among themselves in the amount which the compensation insurance written in this state during the preceding calendar year by each insurer bears to the total compensation insurance written in this state during that calendar year by all insurers.

An insurer that issues a policy pursuant to this section shall receive an expense allowance which shall be adequate for services rendered, as approved by the commissioner.

Subd. 4. [PENALTY.] The commissioner may revoke the license of an insurer or agent for refusing or failing to provide an applicant with written refusal pursuant to subdivision 2 or for any other violation of this section or of the approved rules of a data service organization.

Subd. 5. [ASSIGNED RISK RATES.] Insureds served by the workers' compensation insurance assigned risk plan shall be charged premiums based upon a rating plan, rates, and a merit rating plan adopted by the commissioner by rule. This rating plan shall include a feature by which rates shall vary in relation to the number or proportion of insureds in the assigned risk plan in the preceding calendar year. This relationship shall be such that assigned risk rates shall vary upward as the number or proportion of insureds in the assigned risk plan decreases and downward as the number or proportion increases. Assigned risk premiums shall not be lower than the rates generally charged by insurers for the business.

Sec. 33. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 60C.04, is amended to read:

60C.04 [CREATION.]

All insurers subject to the provisions of Laws 1971, Chapter 145 shall form an organization to be known as the Minnesota insurance guaranty association. All insurers defined as member insurers in section 60C.03, subdivision 6, are and shall remain members of the association as a condition of their authority to transact insurance business or to execute surety bonds in this state. The association shall perform its functions under a plan of operation established and approved under section 60C.07 and shall exercise its powers through a board of directors established under section 60C.08. For purposes of administration and assessment the association shall be divided into ~~four~~ five separate accounts: (1) the automobile insurance account, (2) the township mutuals account, (3) the fidelity and surety bond account ~~and~~, (4) the account for all other insurance to which Laws 1971, Chapter 145 applies, and (5) the workers' compensation insurance account.

Sec. 34. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 60C.09, Subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [LIMITATION OF AMOUNT.] Payment of a covered claim is limited to the amount by which the allowance on any claim exceeds $100 and is less than $300,000. The limitation on the amount of payment for a covered claim does not apply to claims for workers' compensation insurance. In no event is the association obligated to the policyholder or claimant in an amount in excess of the obligation of the insurer under the policy from which the claim arises."

[COMPENSATION, COMMENCEMENT OF PAYMENT.] All employers shall commence payment of the compensation at the time and in the manner prescribed by this chapter without the necessity of any agreement or any order of the division. Except those of medical, burial, and other non-periodic benefits, payments shall be made as nearly as may be at the intervals when the wage was payable; provided, however, that payments for permanent partial disability in cases in which return to work ~~occurs prior to four weeks from the date of injury shall be made by lump sum payment,~~ has occurred as provided in subdivision 3a and the provisions of section 176.165 shall not apply, without the necessity of any agreement, or order of the division~~, upon cessation of payments for temporary total disability and upon the employee's return to work. In cases in which return to work does not occur prior to four weeks after injury, payments for permanent partial disability shall be made according to the following schedule: 25 percent of the amount due after four weeks from the~~ ~~date of injury, 25 percent after eight weeks, 25 percent after 12 weeks and 25 percent after 16 weeks, provided that any and all payments remaining shall be paid upon the cessation of payments for temporary total disability and upon the employee's return to work~~. If doubt exists at that time as to the eventual permanent partial disability, payment shall be then made when due for the minimum permanent partial disability ascertainable ~~in lump sum~~, and further ~~lump sum~~ payment shall be made upon any later ascertainment of greater permanent partial disability. At the time of the tender of the lump sum payment, the employee and employer shall be furnished with a copy of the medical report upon which the payment is based, together with a statement by the insurer as to whether the tendered payment is for minimum permanent partial disability or final and eventual disability. Compensation for permanent partial disability is payable concurrently and in addition to compensation for temporary total disability and temporary partial disability as set forth in section 176.101, subdivisions 1 and 2, and for permanent total disability as defined in section 176.101, subdivision 5~~;~~ ~~and such~~ the compensation for permanent partial disability shall ~~not~~ be deferred pending completion of payment for temporary total disability but shall not be deferred pending compensation of payment for temporary partial disability or permanent total disability, and no credit shall be taken for payment of permanent partial disability against liability for temporary total or permanent total disability. Liability on the part of an employer or his insurer for disability of a temporary total, temporary partial, and permanent total nature shall be considered as a continuing product and part of the employee's inability to earn or reduction in earning capacity due to injury or occupational disease and shall be payable accordingly. Permanent partial disability is payable for functional loss of use or impairment of function, permanent in nature, and payment therefore shall be separate, distinct, and in addition to payment for any other compensation. The right to receive temporary total, temporary partial, permanent partial or permanent total disability payments shall vest in the injured employee or his dependents under this chapter or, if none, in his legal heirs at the time the disability can be ascertained and the right shall not be abrogated by the employee's death prior to the making of the payment.

Sec. 55. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 176.021, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 3a. [PERMANENT PARTIAL BENEFITS, PAYMENT.] Payments for permanent partial disability shall be made in the following manner:

(a) When the employee returns to work, payment shall be made by lump sum;

(b) When temporary total payments have ceased but the employee has not returned to work, payment shall be made at the same intervals as temporary total payments were made based on the amount due;

(c) If temporary total disability payments cease because the employee is receiving payments for permanent total disability or because the employee is retiring or has retired from the work force, then payment shall be made by lump sum;

(d) If the employee completes a rehabilitation plan pursuant to section 176.302 but the employer does not furnish the employee with work he can do in his permanently partially disabled condition and the employee is unable to procure such work with another employer, then payment shall be made by lump

"Section 1. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 62E.52, Subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. "Eligible person" means any person who is a resident of Minnesota and who, while a resident of Minnesota, has been found by the commissioner to have incurred an obligation to pay:

~~(1)~~ qualified expenses for himself and any dependents in any 12 consecutive months exceeding:

(a) ~~40~~ 30 percent of his household income up to $15,000, plus ~~50~~ 40 percent of his household income between $15,000 and $25,000, plus ~~60~~ 50 percent of his household income in excess of $25,000; or

The term does not include a person who has applied to the commissioner for payment of qualified expenses or qualified nursing home expenses under section 62E.53, subdivision 2, during more than three 12-month periods.

Sec. 2. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 62E.52, Subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. "Qualified expense" means any charge incurred ~~subsequent to July 1, 1977~~ within one year prior to the eligible person's initial application, for a health service which is included in the list of covered services described in section 62E.06, subdivision 1, and for which no third party is liable, except that services of a nursing home, which includes both skilled nursing facilities and intermediate care facilities, for not more than 240 days in a year, are qualified expenses if the service would otherwise qualify as reimbursable ser-

"Qualified expense" does not include a charge incurred by an individual who was a member of a health maintenance organization at the time the expense was incurred if that individual could have received the service at no cost through the health maintenance organization. If that individual could have received the service at reduced cost through the health maintenance organization, but elected instead to pay for the service elsewhere, "qualified expense" includes only the cost which would have been incurred through use of the health maintenance organization.

Sec. 3. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 62E.53, Subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. If the commissioner determines that an applicant is an eligible person, he shall pay

(b) $2,500;

whichever is greater for the 12 month period in which the applicant becomes an eligible person ~~and~~

~~(2) all qualified nursing home expenses of the eligible person and his dependents in excess of 20 percent of his household income. Provided, however, that the payment of qualified nursing home expenses shall not be made until the end of the fiscal year. If the appropriation for the payment of qualified nursing home expenses is inadequate to pay all qualified nursing home expenses, the commissioner shall prorate the payments among all eligible persons in proportion to their share of the total of the qualified nursing home expenses of all eligible persons.~~

Sec. 4. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 62E.54, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 3. [NONTRANSFERABILITY OF FUNDS.] The commissioner shall not transfer funds which are appropriated for the payment of health services under the provisions of sections 62E.51 to 62E.55 to other programs of the department of public welfare."

Subd. 3. [DISBURSEMENTS.] Disbursements from the account shall be made by the state treasurer upon order of the commissioner of finance at the times and in the amounts determined by the board of peace officer standards and training.

Subd. 4. [ALLOCATION OF DISBURSEMENTS.] Disbursements of funds pursuant to subdivision 3 shall be made according to the following method for the purposes of subdivision 2:

(a) Ten percent shall be provided for reimbursement to board approved skills courses in proportion to the number of students successfully completing the board's skills licensing examination.

(b) To each local unit of government an amount in proportion to the number of licensed peace officers and constables employed, at a rate to be determined by the board. The disbursed amount shall be used exclusively for reimbursement of the cost of in-service training required under chapters 214 and 626.

Sec. 2. [626.861] [CRIME VICTIMS ASSISTANCE ACCOUNT.]

Subdivision 1. [CREATION OF ACCOUNT.] The crime victims assistance account is created as a separate account in the general fund of the state treasury.

Subd. 2. [APPROPRIATION; PURPOSE.] All penalty assessments collected pursuant to section 3 for petty misdemeanors or for violations of the criminal laws of this state, except for penalty assessments imposed for viola- tions of Minnesota Statutes, Chapters 168 to 173, or equivalent local traffic ordinances and forwarded to the state treasurer, shall be deposited in the crime victims assistance account. All money in the state treasury credited to the crime victims assistance account is annually appropriated to the crime victims reparations board for the purposes authorized by sections 299B.01 to 299B.17.

Subd. 3. [DISBURSEMENTS.] Disbursements from the crime victims assistance account shall be made by the state treasurer upon order of the commissioner of finance at the times and in the amounts determined by the crime victims reparations board.

Sec. 3. [626.862] [LEVY AND COLLECTION OF PENALTY ASSESSMENTS.]

Subdivision 1. [LEVY OF ASSESSMENT.] On and after the effective date of sections 1, 2, and 3, there is levied a penalty assessment of ten percent on each fine imposed and collected by the courts of this state for petty misdemeanors or for criminal or traffic offenses, other than a fine or forfeiture for a violation of a local ordinance or other law relating to the parking of a vehicle. In cases where the defendant is convicted but a fine is not imposed, or execution of the fine is stayed, the court shall impose a penalty assessment of not less than $5 nor more than $10 when the conviction is for a misdemeanor or petty misdemeanor, and shall impose a penalty assessment of not less than $10 but not more than $50 when the conviction is for a gross misdemeanor or felony. Where multiple offenses are involved, the penalty assessment shall be assessed separately on each offense for which the defendant is sentenced. If imposition or execution of sentence is stayed for all of the multiple offenses, the penalty assessment shall be based upon the most serious offense of which the defendant was convicted. Where the court suspends a portion of a fine, the suspended portion shall not be counted in determining the amount of the penalty assessment unless the offender is ordered to pay the suspended portion of the fine. Suspension of an entire fine shall be treated as a stay of execution for purposes of computing the amount of the penalty assessment.

Subd. 2. [PAYMENT GUIDELINES.] The sentencing court may, upon a showing of indigency or undue hardship upon the convicted person or his immediate family, authorize payment of the penalty assessment in installments. If the convicted person is sentenced and committed to imprisonment, the chief executive officer of the institution in which the person is confined may collect the assessment from any earnings the inmate shall accrue for work performed in the institution or while on conditional release therefrom under the provisions of Minnesota Statutes, Sections 241.26 or 631.425 and forward same to the clerk of the court in which he was sentenced, for transmittal to the state treasurer in the manner provided in section 3, subdivision 3.

The court may decline to impose a penalty assessment or may forgive payment of a penalty assessment previously imposed, in cases where undue hardship cannot otherwise be avoided.

Subd. 3. [COLLECTION BY COURT.] After a determination by the court of the amount of the fine or penalty assessment due, the clerk of court shall collect the appropriate penalty assessment and transmit it to the county treasurer separately but with the same frequency as fines are transmitted. Amounts collected under this subdivision shall then be transmitted to the state treasurer for deposit in the Minnesota law enforcement training account or in the victim assistance account, whichever account is designated by the transmitting court, in the same manner as fines collected for the state by a county.

Sec. 4. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 171.16, Subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [SUSPENSION FOR FAILURE TO PAY FINE.] When any court reports to the commissioner that a person: (1) has been convicted of violating a law of this state or an ordinance of a political subdivision which regulates the operation or parking of motor vehicles, (2) has been sentenced to the payment of a fine ~~only~~ or had a penalty assessment levied against him or her, or sentenced to a fine upon which a penalty assessment was levied, and (3) has refused or failed to comply with that sentence or to pay the penalty assessment, notwithstanding the fact that the court has determined that the person has the ability to pay the fine or penalty assessment, the commissioner shall suspend the driver's license of such person for 30 days for a refusal or failure to pay or until notified by the court that the fine or penalty assessment, or both if a fine and penalty assessment were not paid, has been paid.

"Sec. 11. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 290.14, is amended to read:

290.14 [GAIN OR LOSS ON DISPOSITION OF PROPERTY, BASIS.]

The basis for determining the gain or loss from the sale or other disposition of property acquired on or after January 1, 1933, shall be the cost to the taxpayer of such property, with the following exceptions:

(1) If the property should have been included in the last inventory, it shall be the last inventory value thereof;

(2) If the property was acquired by gift, it shall be the same as it would be if it were being sold or otherwise disposed of by the last preceding owner not acquiring it by gift; if the facts required for this determination cannot be ascertained, it shall be the fair market value as of the date, or approximate date, of acquisition by the last preceding owner, as nearly as the requisite facts can be ascertained by the commissioner;

(3) If the property was acquired by gift through an inter vivos transfer in trust, it shall be the same as it would be if it were being sold or otherwise disposed of by the grantor;

(4) Except as otherwise provided in this clause, the basis of property in the hands of a person acquiring the property from a decedent or to whom the property passed from a decedent shall, if not sold, exchanged or otherwise disposed of before the decedent's death by the person, be the fair market value of the property at the date of decedent's death or, in the case of an election under section 2032 (relating to alternate valuation) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, as amended through December 31, 1980, its valuation at the applicable valuation date prescribed by that section, or in the case of an election under section 2032A (relating to valuation of farm real property) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, as amended through December 31, 1980, its value determined by that section.

For the purposes of the preceding paragraph, the following property shall be considered to have been acquired from or to have passed from the decedent:

(a) Property acquired by bequest, devise, or inheritance, or by the decedent's estate from the decedent;

(b) Property transferred by the decedent during his lifetime in trust to pay the income for life to or on the order or direction of the decedent, with the right reserved to the decedent at all times before his death to revoke the trust;

(c) Property transferred by the decedent during his lifetime in trust to pay the income for life to or on the order or direction of the decedent with the right reserved to the decedent at all times before his death to make any change in the enjoyment thereof through the exercise of a power to alter, amend, or terminate the trust;

(d) Property passing without full and adequate consideration under a general power of appointment exercised by the decedent by will;

(e) In the case of a decedent's dying after December 31, 1956, property acquired from the decedent by reason of death, form of ownership, or other conditions (including property acquired through the exercise or non-exercise of a power of appointment), if by reason thereof the property is required to be included in determining the value of the decedent's gross estate for Minnesota inheritance or estate tax purposes. In this case, if the property is acquired before the death of the decedent, the basis shall be the amount determined under the first paragraph of this clause reduced by the amount allowed to the taxpayer as deductions in computing taxable net income under this chapter or prior Minnesota income tax laws for exhaustion, wear and tear, obsolescence, amortization, and depletion on the property before the death of the decedent. The basis shall be applicable to the property commencing on the death of the decedent. This paragraph shall not apply to annuities described in section 290.08; and property described in paragraphs (a), (b), (c) and (d) of this clause.

This clause shall not apply to property which constitutes a right to receive an item of income in respect of a decedent under section 290.077. Nor shall it apply to restricted stock options described in section 290.078 which the employee has not exercised at death.

(5) If the property was acquired after December 31, 1932, upon an exchange described in section 290.13, subdivision 1, the basis shall be the same as in the case of the property exchanged, decreased in the amount of any money received by the taxpayer and increased in the amount of gain or decreased in the amount of loss to the taxpayer that was recognized upon the exchange under the law applicable to the year in which the exchange was made. If the property so acquired consisted in part of the type of property permitted by section 290.13, subdivision 1, to be received without the recognition of gain or loss, and in part of other property, the basis provided in this clause shall be allocated between the properties, other than money, received, and for the purpose of the allocation there shall be assigned to the other property an amount equivalent to its fair market value at the date of the exchange. This clause shall not apply to property acquired by a corporation by the issuance of its stock or securities as the consideration, in whole or in part, for the transfer of the property to it;

(6) If substantially identical property was acquired in the place of stocks or securities which were sold or disposed of and in respect of which loss was not allowed as a deduction under section 290.09, subdivision 5, the basis in the case of property so acquired shall be the same as in the case of the stock or securities so sold or disposed of, increased by the excess of the repurchase price of the property over the sale price of the stock or securities, or decreased by the excess of the sale price of the stock or securities over the repurchase price of the property;

(7) If the property was acquired after December 31, 1932, as the result of a compulsory or involuntary conversion described in section 290.13, subdivision 5, the basis shall be the same as in the case of the property so converted, decreased in the amount of any money received by the taxpayer which was not expended in accordance with the provisions of law applicable to the year in which conversion was made, determining the taxable status of the gain or loss upon conversion, and increased in the amount of gain or decreased in the amount of loss to the taxpayer recognized upon conversion under the law applicable to the year in which conversion was made.

(8) Neither the basis nor the adjusted basis of any portion of real property shall, in the case of a lessor of the property, be increased or diminished on account of income derived by the lessor in respect of the property and excludable from gross income under section 290.08, subdivision 14.

If an amount representing any part of the value of real property attributable to buildings erected or other improvements made by a lessee in respect of the property was included in gross income of the lessor for any taxable year beginning before January 1, 1943, the basis of each portion of the property shall be properly adjusted for the amount included in gross income.

(9) If the property was acquired by the taxpayer as a transfer of property in exchange for the release of the taxpayer's marital rights, the basis of the property shall be the same as it would be if it were being sold or otherwise disposed of by the person who transferred the property to the taxpayer.

(10) The basis of property subject to the provisions of section 1034 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, as amended through December 31, 1979 (relating to the rollover of gain on sale of principal residence) shall be the same as the basis for federal income tax purposes. The basis shall be increased by the amount of gain realized on the sale of a principal residence outside of Minnesota, while a nonresident of this state, which gain was not recognized because of the provisions of section 1034."

Subd. 2. [ADMINISTRATIVE SEARCH WARRANT.] After the reasonable time prescribed by subdivision 1 for an investigatory search has expired, subsequent entries to the building or premises to investigate and gather evidence may be made only if there is consent from the owner or occupant of the building or premises or pursuant to an administrative search warrant issued by a judge.

In determining whether to issue an administrative search warrant for the purposes of this subdivision, the judge, in conforming his decision to constitutional doctrine governing warrant procedures for administrative searches, shall consider but not be limited to the following factors:

(a) Scope of the proposed search;

(b) Number of prior entries by fire officials;

(c) Time of day when the search is proposed to be made;

(d) Lapse of time since the fire;

The legislature declares that efforts to control crime and improve the criminal justice system in this state must begin with comprehensive planning and improved coordination among federal, state and local criminal justice system agencies. This planning and coordinating effort must be responsive to the unique problems and resources that exist in the different development regions within the state. Only through the creation of a statewide network of local and regional crime control advisory councils can these efforts to control crime and improve the criminal justice system be implemented.

Sec. 6. [299A.21] [CRIME CONTROL PLANNING REGIONS.]

Each of the development regions authorized to be established by Minnesota Statutes, Section 462.385, and the territory defined by Laws 1967, Chapter 896, shall be designated crime control planning regions.

Additionally, regional development commissions may contract with a nonprofit agency for the purpose of performing the functions contained in section 6.*

Metropolitan council members shall serve their terms as defined by Minnesota Statutes, Section 473.123, Subdivision 2. Each county geographically located within a regional development commission jurisdiction shall be represented by at least one member on the regional crime control advisory council appointed by the county board. The regional crime control advisory council shall organize itself and elect a chairperson.*

Subd. 4. [ADMINISTRATIVE SERVICES.] Each regional development commission and the metropolitan council, or contracted agency, shall provide the regional crime control advisory council with office space, staff support, and administrative services.

Sec. 8. [299A.23] [PLANNING FUNCTIONS; REGIONAL AND LOCAL.]

Each regional advisory council shall:

(3) A statement of regional crime control and criminal justice system improvement goals, policies, priorities, and implementation strategies. The implementation strategies shall include proposed legislation, proposed technical assistance projects, proposed coordinating activities, and proposed guidelines for the allocation of federal, state, and local resources within the region.

(b) Serve as the regional clearinghouse for:

(1) Information on crime, crime trends, criminal justice research and evaluation results, methods for preventing and controlling crime and delinquency, technical assistance available from federal, state, and local agencies, crime control and prevention resources, criminal justice and juvenile justice legislation;

(2) Review and comment on federal and state grant applications for criminal justice projects affecting agencies and units of government in the region.

(c) Evaluate and report to the department of planning, energy and development the impact of proposed or existing criminal justice legislation on local governments and agencies and special populations in the region.

(e) Coordinate and integrate where appropriate criminal and juvenile justice activities with the other planning and policy development activities performed by regional development commissions and the metropolitan council.

(f) Develop and implement public information programs to promote voluntary, coordinated crime and delinquency prevention and control activities by public and private agencies and community groups in the region.

(g) Assist local governments and agencies in the development and implementation of coordinated projects and activities that will increase the cost-effectiveness of crime control and justice system improvement efforts in the region.

(h) Administer block grants awarded pursuant to the federal crime control acts or other state or federal acts providing appropriations for crime control and justice system improvement, including federal funds allocated to local units of government.

Sec. 9. [299A.25] [EVALUATION.]

Prior to September 30, 1984, the regional crime control advisory councils, the department of planning, energy and development, and the legislative audit commission shall conduct an evaluation of the effectiveness of the statewide crime control planning process authorized and established by this act and report the results of the evaluation to the governor and the legislature prior to December 15, 1984."

WHEREAS, within the lifetimes of nearly half of the current population of these United States, six million men, women, and children were murdered in the Nazi Holocaust because they happened to be Jews; and,

WHEREAS, millions of other innocent men, women and children were also brutally murdered by the machinery of the state; and,

WHEREAS, April 30, 1981 has been designated pursuant to Act of Congress, Public Law 96-388, as a Day of Remembrance of Victims of the Nazi Holocaust, known internationally as Yom Hashoah, for the six million and other millions; and;

WHEREAS, it is fitting for the legislature to remember them, honor the survivors and their liberators, and to rededicate itself to eternal vigilance against all tyranny and against those who would deny the principle of equal justice for all people; NOW, THEREFORE,

BE IT RESOLVED by the Senate of the State of Minnesota, the House of Representatives concurring, that they join with the Governor of the State of Minnesota in proclaiming the week of April 26 through May 3, 1981 as the Minnesota Days of Holocaust Remembrance. The people of Minnesota are urged to reflect upon these past horrors to better recognize that bigotry gave them birth and is the womb of tyranny. The legislature and the Governor dedicate April 30, 1981, to a Holocaust Commemoration and resolve that the victims shall not die a second death in our reluctance to ponder and meditate upon the deeds done in those dark days.

"Sec. 11. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 282.04, Subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [TIMBER SOLD FOR CASH.] The county auditor may sell ~~dead, down and mature~~ timber upon any tract that may be approved by the natural resources commissioner. Such sale of timber products shall be made for cash at not less than the appraised value determined by the county board to the highest bidder after not less than one week's published notice in an official paper within the county. Any timber offered at such public sale and not sold may thereafter be sold at private sale by the county auditor at not less than the appraised value thereof, until such time as the county board may withdraw such timber from sale. The appraised value of the timber and the forestry practices to be followed in the cutting of said timber shall be approved by the commissioner of natural resources. Payment of the full sale price of all timber sold on tax-forfeited lands shall be made in cash at the time of the timber sale. The county board may require final settlement on the basis of a scale of cut products. Any parcels of land from which timber is to be sold by scale of cut products shall be so designated in the published notice of sale above mentioned, in which case the notice shall contain a description of such parcels, a statement of the estimated quantity of each species of timber thereon and the appraised price of each specie of timber for 1,000 feet, per cord or per piece, as the case may be. In such cases any bids offered over and above the appraised prices shall be by percentage, the percent bid to be added to the appraised price of each of the different species of timber advertised on the land. The purchaser of timber from such parcels shall pay in cash at the time of sale at the rate bid for all of the timber shown in the notice of sale as estimated to be standing on the land, and in addition shall pay at the same rate for any additional amounts which the final scale shows to have been cut or was available for cutting on the land at the time of sale under the terms of such sale. Where the final scale of cut products shows that less timber was cut or was available for cutting under terms of such sale than was originally paid for, the excess payment shall be refunded from the forfeited tax sale fund upon the claim of the purchaser, to be audited and allowed by the county board as in case of other claims against the county. No timber, except hardwood pulpwood, may be removed from such parcels of land or other designated landings until scaled by a person or persons designated by the county board and approved by the commissioner of natural resources. Landings other than the parcel of land from which timber is cut may be designated for scaling by the county board by written agreement with the purchaser of the timber. The county board may, by written agreement with the purchaser and with a consumer designated by him when the timber is sold by the county auditor, and with the approval of the commissioner of natural resources, accept the consumer's scale of cut products delivered at the consumer's landing. No timber shall be removed until fully paid for in cash. Small amounts of ~~green standing, dead, downdying, insect infected or diseased~~ timber not exceeding ~~$1,500~~ $3,000 in appraised valuation may be sold for not less than the full appraised value at private sale to individual persons without first publishing notice of sale or calling for bids, provided that in case of such sale involving a total appraised value of more than $200 the sale shall be made subject to final settlement on the basis of a scale of cut products in the manner above provided and not more than two such sales, directly or indirectly to any individual shall be in effect at one time. As directed by the county board, the county auditor may lease tax-forfeited land to individuals, corporations or organized subdivisions of the state at public or private vendue, and at such prices and under such terms as the county board may prescribe, for use as cottage and camp sites and for agricultural purposes and for the purpose of taking and removing of hay, stumpage, sand, gravel, clay, rock, marl, and black dirt therefrom, and for garden sites and other temporary uses provided that no leases shall be for a period to exceed ten years; provided, further that any leases involving a consideration of more than $300 per year, except to an organized subdivision of the state shall first be offered at public sale in the manner provided herein for sale of timber. Upon the sale of any such leased land, it shall remain subject to the lease for not to exceed one year from the beginning of the term of the lease. Any rent paid by the lessee for the portion of the term cut off by such cancellation shall be refunded from the forfeited tax sale fund upon the claim of the lessee, to be audited and allowed by the county board as in case of other claims against the county. The county auditor, with the approval of the county board is authorized to grant permits, licenses, and leases to tax-forfeited lands for the depositing of stripping, lean ores, tailings, or waste products from mines or ore milling plants, upon such conditions and for such consideration and for such period of time, not exceeding 15 years, as the county board may determine; said permits, licenses, or leases to be subject to approval by the commissioner of natural resources. Any person who removes any timber from tax-forfeited land before said timber has been scaled and fully paid for as provided in this subdivision is guilty of a misdemeanor. The county auditor may, with the approval of the county board and the commissioner of natural resources, and without first offering at public sale, grant leases, for a term not exceeding 25 years, for the removal of peat from tax-forfeited lands upon such terms and conditions as the county board may prescribe.

Provided, however, that no lease for the removal of peat shall be made by the county auditor pursuant to this section without first holding a public hearing on his intention to lease. One printed notice in a legal newspaper in the county at least ten days before the hearing, and posted notice in the courthouse at least 20 days before the hearing shall be given of the hearing.

Sec. 12. [EXTENSION OF CERTAIN PERMITS.]

The commissioner of natural resources may extend, for an additional period of not to exceed one year, any timber permit issued pursuant to Minnesota Statutes, Section 90.191, which expires during 1981. This extension shall be in addition to any extension previously granted pursuant to section 90.191, shall be made without additional charge, and shall otherwise be subject to the requirements of section 90.191.

Reports the same back with the recommendation that the bill be amended as follows:

Delete everything after the enacting clause and insert:

"Section 1. [325G.29] [CITATION.] Sections 1 to 9 may be cited as the "Plain Language Contract Act".

Sec. 2. [325G.30] [DEFINITIONS.]

Subdivision 1. [TERMS.] As used in sections 2 to 9, the terms defined in this section shall have the meanings given them.

Subd. 2. [CONSUMER.] "Consumer" means any individual who, primarily for personal, family or household purposes: (1) leases, contracts for, or otherwise gives consideration for any interest in any goods, services or personal property, including money; (2) grants, transfers or authorizes a security interest or other lien on any goods or personal property; or (3) rents or leases residential premises for a term not exceeding three years.

Subd. 3. [CONSUMER CONTRACT.] "Consumer contract" means any written contract to which an individual is a party as a consumer except: (1) a contract where the amount involved, excluding interest or finance charges, is more than $50,000; (2) a contract through which a consumer obtains money or credit to be used to purchase or refinance an interest in realty; (3) a contract in which the sale of goods or personal property is merely incidental to the sale of an interest in realty.

Sec. 3. [325G.31] [PLAIN LANGUAGE REQUIRED.]

Except as provided in section 4, every consumer contract shall be written in a clear and coherent manner using words with common and everyday meanings and shall be appropriately divided and captioned by its various sections.

Sec. 4. [325G.32] [EXCEPTIONS.]

Subdivision 1. [OTHER STATUTES OR REGULATIONS.] Section 3 shall not apply to any consumer contract for which federal or state statute, rule or regulation prescribe standards of readability applicable to the entire contract. Section 3 shall not apply to particular words, phrases, provisions or forms of agreement whose use is specifically required, recommended or endorsed by state or federal statute, rule or regulation.

Subd. 2. [CUSTOMARILY USED TECHNICAL TERMS.] A consumer contract may include technical terms to describe, define or explain the goods, services, property or premises which are the subject of the contract, if the terms are customarily used by consumers in connection with the goods, services, property or premises.

Sec. 5. [325G.33] [REMEDIES.]

Subdivision 1. [ENFORCEMENT AUTHORITY.] Any violation of section 3 shall be deemed a violation of a law referred to in section 8.31, subdivision 1. The remedies provided in section 8.31, subdivisions 3 and 3a, shall be limited as provided in section 6.

Subd. 2. [REFORMATION.] In addition to the remedies provided in section 8.31, if a court reviewing a consumer contract finds that:

(1) a material provision of the contract violates section 3;

(2) the violation caused the consumer to be substantially confused about any of the rights, obligations or remedies of the contract; and

(3) the violation has caused or is likely to cause financial detriment to the consumer, the court may reform or limit the application of the provision so as to avoid an unfair result. If the court so reforms or limits the application of a provision of a consumer contract, the court shall also make such orders as may be necessary to avoid conferring any unjust enrichment. Bringing a claim for relief pursuant to this subdivision shall not entitle or authorize a consumer to withhold or suspend performance of any otherwise valid contractual obligation. No relief shall be granted pursuant to this subdivision unless the claim is brought before the obligations of the contract have been fully performed.

Sec. 6. [325G.34] [LIMITS ON REMEDIES.]

Subdivision 1. [PENALTIES.] In any proceeding in which civil penalties are claimed from a party for a violation of section 3, it shall be an affirmative defense to that claim that the party had made a good faith and reasonable effort to comply with section 3.

Subd. 2. [ATTORNEY'S FEES.] No party who has made a good faith and reasonable effort to comply with section 3 shall be assessed attorney's fees or costs of investigation in any action for violating section 3.

Subd. 3. [CLASS ACTION ATTORNEY'S FEES.] In any class action or series of class actions which arise from the use by a particular individual of a particular consumer contract found to violate section 3, the amount of attorney's fees and costs of investigation assessed against that individual and in favor of the consumer class or classes shall not exceed $10,000.

Subd. 4. [LIMITS ON CONSUMER ACTIONS.] Violation of section 3 shall not constitute a defense to any claim arising from a consumer's breach of a consumer contract or to an action for unlawful detainer. A consumer may recover actual damages caused by a violation of section 3 only if the violation relates to a material provision of a consumer contract and caused the consumer to be substantially confused about any of the rights, obligations or remedies of the contract.

Subd. 5. [STATUTE OF LIMITATIONS.] Any claim that a consumer contract violates section 3 shall be raised within six years of the date the contract is executed by the consumer.

Sec. 7. [325G.35] [REVIEW BY THE ATTORNEY GENERAL.]

Subdivision 1. [PROCESS OF REVIEW.] Any seller, creditor or lessor may submit a consumer contract to the attorney general for a review as to whether the contract complies with the requirements of section 3. After reviewing the contract the attorney general shall: (1) certify that the contract complies with section 3; (2) decline to certify that the contract complies with section 3 and note his objections to the contractual language; (3) decline to review the contract and refer the party submitting the contract to other previously certified contracts of the same type; (4) decline to review the contract because the contract's compliance with section 3 is the subject of pending litigation; or (5) decline to review the contract because the contract is not subject to section 3.

Subd. 2. [PROCESS NOT REVIEWABLE.] Actions of the attorney general pursuant to subdivision 1 shall not be subject to Minnesota Statutes, Chapter 15, and shall not be appealable.

Subd. 3. [LIMITED EFFECT OF CERTIFICATION.] Any consumer contract certified pursuant to subdivision 1 shall be deemed to comply with section 3. Certification of a consumer contract pursuant to subdivision 1 shall not otherwise be deemed an endorsement or approval of the contract's legality, validity or legal effect.

Subd. 4. [REVIEW NOT REQUIRED.] Failure to submit a contract to the attorney general for review pursuant to subdivision 1 shall not be deemed a lack of good faith nor shall it raise a presumption that the contract violates section 3. If pursuant to subdivision 1 the attorney general refers a party to a previously certified contract and the party chooses not to use that contract, that choice shall not be deemed a lack of good faith nor shall that choice raise a presumption that a contract used by that party violated section 3.

Subd. 5. [FEE FOR REVIEW.] The attorney general may charge a fee, not to exceed $50, for the actual costs of reviewing a consumer contract pursuant to subdivision 1.

Sec. 8. [WAIVERS VOID.]

Any provision of a consumer contract which waives or attempts to waive any provision of sections 1 to 8 is void.

Sec. 9. [EFFECTIVE DATE.]

Sections 1 to 6 and 8 shall take effect on July 1, 1983. Section 7 shall take effect the day following final enactment. Sections 1 to 8 shall not affect any consumer contract executed before July 1, 1983. A previously existing consumer contract renewed after July 1, 1983, shall be subject to sections 1 to 8. No provision for renewal of a consumer contract shall be invalid merely because compliance with sections 1 to 8 changes the form of the renewal agreement.
