Harmful physical agent does not include an agent being developed or handled by a technically qualified individual in a research, medical research, medical diagnostic or medical educational laboratory or in a health care facility or in a clinic associated with the laboratory or health care clinic. The exemption in this clause does not include a physical agent handled in a laboratory that primarily provides a quality control analysis for a manufacturing process.

Sec. 4. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 182.651, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 16. "Technically qualified individual" means a person who, because of education, training, or experience, understands the health risks associated with the hazardous substance or harmful physical agent or mixture handled by the person or under his or her supervision.

Sec. 5. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 182.651, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 17. For the purposes of chapter 182, the determination of what is a hazardous substance or harmful physical agent is part of the occupational safety and health standard concerning that substance or agent adopted under section 182.655, subject only to the rulemaking procedure which the whole standard is subject to under section 182.655.

Sec. 6. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 182.651, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 18. The following substances or mixtures are not hazardous substances if they are:

(a) products intended for personal consumption by employees in the workplace;

(b) consumer products packaged for distribution to, and used by, the general public, including any product used by an employer or the employer's employees in the same form, concentration, and manner as it is sold to consumers, and to the employer's knowledge, employee exposure is not significantly greater than the consumer exposure occurring during principal consumer use of the product;

(c) any article, including but not limited to, an item of equipment or hardware, which contains a hazardous substance, if the substance is present in a solid form which does not create a health hazard as a result of being handled by an employee;

(d) any hazardous substance that is bound and not released under normal conditions of work or in a reasonably foreseeable occurrence resulting from workplace operations;

(e) products sold or used in retail food sale establishments and all other retail trade establishments, exclusive of processing and repair work areas; or

(f) any waste material regulated pursuant to the federal Resource Conservation and Recovery Act, P.L. 94-580, but only with respect to any employer in a business which provides a service of collection, processing, or disposal of such waste.

The commissioner may, by inclusion in the standards adopted pursuant to section 182.655, determine whether any of the following may be excluded from the definitions of hazardous substance or harmful physical agent:

(a) products labeled pursuant to the Federal Insecticide, Fungicide and Rodenticide Act, as amended, and the Federal Food, Drug, and Cosmetic Act, as amended;

(b) waste products labeled pursuant to the Resource Conservation and Recovery Act;

(c) any substance received by an employee in a sealed package and subsequently sold or transferred in that package, if the seal remains intact while the substance is in the employer's workplace;

(d) any substance, mixture, or product if present in a physical state, volume, or concentration for which there is no valid and substantial evidence that a significant risk to human health may occur from exposure; or

(e) products labeled pursuant to 6MCAR sections 4.9214 and 4.9216.

Sec. 7. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 182.651, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 19. "Manufacturer" means anyone who produces, synthesizes, extracts, or otherwise makes, processes, blends, packages or repackages a hazardous substance or harmful physical agent. The term manufacturer also includes anyone who imports into this state or distributes within this state a hazardous substance or harmful physical agent. Manufacturer does not include anyone whose primary business concerning the hazardous substance or harmful physical agent is in retail sales to the public.

Sec. 8. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 182.653, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 4a. An employer who is a manufacturer of a hazardous substance or a harmful physical agent or a mixture of substances or agents shall provide an employer who purchases the substance or agent with the information necessary for the purchasing employer to comply with section 9. The information shall be provided at the time of purchase and shall be current, accurate, and complete for each substance, agent or mixture.

For a mixture of hazardous substances, the manufacturer may provide the information required by this section on the entire product mixture, instead of on each hazardous substance in it, if all of the following conditions are met: hazard test information exists on the mixture itself or adequate information exists to form a valid judgment of the hazardous proportions of the mixture itself and the manufacturer indicates that the conclusions drawn are from some source other than direct testing on the mixture; information on the mixture will be as effective in protecting employee health as information on the ingredients; and the hazardous substances in the mixture are identified together, with the information on the mixture.

Sec. 9. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 182.653, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 4b. Prior to an employee's initial assignment to a workplace where the employee may be routinely exposed to a hazardous substance or harmful physical agent, the employer shall provide training concerning the hazardous substance or harmful physical agent. The employer shall provide additional instruction whenever the employee may be routinely exposed to any additional hazardous substance or harmful physical agent. For each hazardous substance or harmful physical agent to which the employee may be routinely exposed, the employer's training program shall include:

(a) the name or names of the substance or physical agent including any generic or chemical name, trade name, and commonly used name;

(b) the level, if any and if known, at which exposure to the substance or physical agent has been determined to be hazardous according to standards adopted by the commissioner, or, if no standard has been adopted, according to guidelines established by competent professional groups including but not limited to the American Industrial Hygiene Association, the American Conference of Governmental Industrial Hygienists, the Center for Disease Control, the Bureau of Radiological Health, and the American National Standards Institute;

(c) the acute and chronic effects of exposure at hazardous levels;

(d) the symptoms of the effects;

(e) any potential for flammability, explosion, or reactivity of the substance or physical agent;

(f) appropriate emergency treatment;

(g) proper conditions for safe use of and exposure to the substance or physical agent;

(h) procedures for cleanup of leaks and spills;

(i) the name, phone number and address of the manufacturer of the hazardous substance or harmful physical agent; and

(j) a written copy of all of the above information.

Every employer shall maintain current information for training under this subdivision or for information requests by employees under section 13.

Sec. 10. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 182.653, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 4c. For each harmful physical agent to which an employee may be exposed, the employer's training program shall include the information required by the standard for that physical agent as determined by the commissioner.

Sec. 11. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 182.653, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 4d. Each employer who is in the business of providing a service of collection, processing, or disposal of waste regulated pursuant to the federal Resource Conservation and Recovery Act, P.L. 94-580, shall provide employees who are routinely exposed to this waste a general safety training program approved by the commissioner. This training program shall be appropriate for the seriousness of the safety hazards commonly encountered by the employees and shall include: training concerning the general safety hazards involved in the collection, processing, or disposal of the waste; proper safety procedures to avoid the deleterious effects of these hazards; and common symptoms of the deleterious effects. Training shall be provided to employees within sixty days of the commissioner's approval of the training program, or, if the employee is employed after this sixty-day period, prior to the employees' initial assignment where they will be routinely exposed to waste. The employer's safety training program shall be submitted to the commissioner for approval within two months of the effective date of this act.

Sec. 12. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 182.654, subdivision 7, is amended to read:

Subd. 7. ~~Any~~ An employee who has been exposed or is being exposed to ~~toxic materials hazardous substances~~ or harmful physical agents in concentrations or at levels in excess of that provided for by ~~any~~ an applicable standard shall be provided by ~~his~~ the employer with the opportunities provided in section 182.655, subdivision ~~40~~ 10a.

Sec. 13. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 182.654, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 10. An employee and an association, union, or the designated representative of the employee has the right to request and receive from the employer, within a reasonable period of time, access to information the employer is required to provide the employee under section 9.

Sec. 14. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 182.654, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 11. An employee acting in good faith has the right to refuse to work under conditions which the employee reasonably believes constitute a violation of chapter 182 because they present an imminent danger of death or serious physical harm to the employee.

A reasonable belief of imminent danger of death or serious physical harm includes but is not limited to a reasonable belief of the employee that the employee has been assigned to work with a hazardous substance or harmful physical agent under conditions which are inconsistent with the training or information provided by the employer pursuant to section 9, clauses (g) or (h), or section 13.

An employer may not discriminate against an employee for a good faith refusal to perform assigned tasks if the employee has requested or attempted to request that the employer correct the hazardous conditions but the conditions remain uncorrected.

An employee who has refused in good faith to perform assigned tasks and who has not been reassigned to other tasks by the employer shall, in addition to retaining a right to continued employment, receive pay for the tasks which would have been performed if (1) the employee requests the commissioner to inspect and determine the nature of the hazardous condition, and (2) the commissioner determines that the employee, by performing the assigned tasks, would have been placed in imminent danger of death or serious physical harm; or (3) the employee requests the commissioner to inspect and determine if a hazardous condition exists; and (4) the employer has failed to provide the training required under section 9 prior to the employee's initial assignment to a workplace where the employee may be routinely exposed to a hazardous substance or harmful physical agent and the employer has failed to provide the information required under section 9 after a request pursuant to section 13 within a reasonable period of time, but not to exceed 24 hours, of the request.

Sec. 15. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 182.655, subdivision 4, is amended to read:

Subd. 4. The commissioner, in ~~promulgating~~ adopting standards dealing with ~~toxic materials~~ hazardous substances or harmful physical agents under this section, shall set the standard which most adequately assures, to the extent feasible, on the basis of the best available evidence, that no employee will suffer material impairment of health or functional capacity even if ~~such~~ the employee has regular exposure to the hazard dealt with by ~~such~~ the standard for the period of ~~his~~ the employee's working life. Development of standards under this subdivision shall be based upon research, demonstrations, experiments, and ~~such~~ other information as may be appropriate. In addition to the attainment of the highest degree of health and safety protection for the employee, other considerations shall be the latest available scientific data in the field, the feasibility of the standards, and experience gained under this and other health and safety laws. Whenever practicable, the standard ~~promulgated~~ adopted shall be expressed in the terms of objective criteria and of the performance desired.

Sec. 16. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 182.655, subdivision 10, is amended to read:

Subd. 10. Any standard ~~promulgated~~ adopted under this section shall prescribe the use of labels or other appropriate forms of warning as are necessary to insure that employees are apprised of all hazards to which they are exposed, relevant symptoms and appropriate emergency treatment, and proper conditions and precautions of safe use or exposure. ~~Where appropriate, such standards shall also prescribe suitable protective equipment, if feasible engineering and administrative methods of protection alone do not provide adequate protection, and this equipment shall be made available by or at the cost of the employer. Such standards shall provide for monitoring or measuring employee exposure at such locations and intervals and in such manner as may be necessary and appropriate for the protection of employees. In addition, where appropriate, any such standard shall prescribe the type and frequency of medical examinations or other tests which shall be made available by the employer, or at his cost, to employees exposed to such hazards in order to most effectively determine whether the health of such employees is adversely affected by such exposure. The results of such examinations or tests shall be furnished only to the commissioner and, at the request of the employee, to his physician. In the case of hazardous substances or harmful physical agents, it shall be presumed by the commissioner that the labeling of containers containing hazardous substances or harmful physical agents or posting notices in areas where hazardous substances or harmful physical agents are present is necessary to properly apprise employees. This presumption can be rebutted only by a finding by the commissioner that labeling or posting~~ required under other federal or state law is adequate to fulfill the purposes of this subdivision.

Sec. 17. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 182.655, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 10a. Where appropriate, standards shall prescribe suitable protective equipment, if feasible engineering and administrative methods of protection alone do not provide adequate protection, and this equipment shall be made available by or at the cost of the employer. The standards shall also provide for monitoring or measuring employee exposure at the locations and intervals and in the manner as may be necessary and appropriate for the protection of employees. Where appropriate, a standard shall prescribe the type and frequency of medical examinations or other tests which shall be made available by the employer, or at the employer's cost, to employees exposed to hazards in order to most effectively determine whether the health of those employees is adversely affected by the exposure. The results of these examinations or tests shall be furnished only to the commissioner, the employee's physician, at the request of the employee, and the employer on request of the employer to the commissioner and with notice to the employee.

Sec. 18. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 182.655, subdivision 11, is amended to read:

Subd. 11. The commissioner shall ~~provide for~~ adopt an emergency temporary standard to take immediate effect upon publication if ~~he the commissioner~~ determines:

(a) That employees are exposed to grave or imminent danger from exposure to ~~hazardous~~ substances or harmful physical agents determined to be toxic or physically harmful or from new or other hazards; and

(b) That ~~such the~~ emergency standard is necessary to protect employees from such the danger. Such The standard shall be effective until superseded by a standard ~~promulgated~~ adopted in accordance with the procedures prescribed in subdivision 2.

Upon publication of ~~such the~~ standard or standards, which interested persons may receive upon request and payment of fees, the commissioner shall commence a proceeding in accordance with subdivision 2 and the standard as published shall also serve as a proposed rule for the proceeding; the commissioner shall ~~promulgate~~ adopt a standard under this section no later than six months after the publication of the emergency standard.

Sec. 19. [182.6575] [WAIVER PROHIBITED.]

No employer may request or require any employee to waive any rights under section 182.654 or occupational safety and health standards adopted pursuant to this chapter.

Sec. 20. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 182.658, is amended to read:

182.658 [POSTING REQUIREMENTS.]

The commissioner shall issue regulations requiring that employers, through posting of notices or other appropriate means, keep their employees informed of their protections and obligations under ~~Laws 1973, Chapter 732~~ chapter 182 including the provisions of applicable standards.

Sec. 21. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 182.66, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. ~~If, upon~~ After an inspection or investigation, if the commissioner believes that an employer has violated a requirement of section 182.653, subdivisions 2 to 4, or any standard, rule, regulation or order prescribed adopted pursuant to Laws 1973, Chapter 732, he this chapter, the commissioner shall, with reasonable promptness and in no event later than six months following the inspection, issue a written citation to the employer by certified mail a written citation. The citation shall be in writing and shall describe with particularity the nature of the violation, including a reference to the provision of the act, standard, rule, regulation or order alleged to have been violated. In addition, the citation shall fix a reasonable time for the abatement of the violation.

Sec. 22. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 182.663, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. The commissioner shall ~~issue regulations adopt rules~~ requiring employers to maintain accurate records of employee exposures to ~~potentially toxic materials hazardous substances~~ or harmful physical agents which are required to be monitored under ~~Laws 1973, Chapter 732 this chapter. Such regulations~~ The rules shall provide employees or their representatives with an opportunity to have access to the records thereof. Such regulations The rules shall provide employees or their representatives with an opportunity to observe such the monitoring or measuring and to have access to the records thereto and reports of the monitoring and measuring. In order to carry out the provisions of this section, ~~such regulations the rules~~ may include provisions requiring employers to conduct periodic inspections. ~~Each~~ An employer shall promptly notify any an employee who has been or is being exposed to toxic materials hazardous substances or harmful physical agents in concentrations or at levels which exceed those prescribed by an applicable occupational safety and health standard promulgated adopted under Laws 1973, Chapter 732 chapter 182, and shall inform any employee who is being thus exposed of the corrective action being taken.

Sec. 23. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 182.666, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 5a. Any employer who knowingly violates section 11 shall be assessed a fine of up to $1,000 for each violation. The employer shall also be liable to each aggrieved employee for civil punitive damages of $200.

Sec. 24. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 182.668, is amended to read:

182.668 [TRADE SECRETS.]

Subdivision 1. [EMPLOYER CLAIM AS TRADE SECRET.] (a) If an employer or manufacturer receives a request for information that is a trade secret, the employer or manufacturer shall inform the requester that all or part of the requested information is a trade secret but shall provide any part of the requested information that is not a trade secret.

The claim of an employer or manufacturer that information is a trade secret is presumed to be valid. If the claim is challenged by the commissioner on his or her own initiative, or upon receipt of a request by an employer who is a purchaser of the hazardous substance which is the subject of the trade secret designation, the commissioner shall notify the manufacturer or employer of the challenge by certified mail.

(b) The employer or manufacturer of the hazardous substance shall have 15 days, which time period can be extended by the commissioner for just cause, after receipt of notification to provide the commissioner with a complete justification and statement of the grounds on which the trade secret is being claimed. A claim by the employer or manufacturer that the justification and statement containing the trade secret information is a trade secret shall likewise be presumed to be valid. This justification and statement shall be submitted by certified mail.

(c) The commissioner shall determine whether the requested information is protected as a trade secret within 15 days, after receipt of the justification and statement, or if no justification and statement is filed, within 30 days, exclusive of weekends and legal holidays, of the original notice, and shall notify the employer or manufacturer and any party who has requested the data of that determination by certified mail. If the commissioner determines that the requested information is not protected as a trade secret, the final notice shall also specify a date, not sooner than 15 days, after the date of mailing of the final notice, when the information shall be available upon request.

(d) Prior to the date specified on the final notice, an employer or manufacturer of the hazardous substance may institute an action in an appropriate court for a declaratory judgment as to whether the requested information is subject to protection under this act.

Subd. 2. [TRADE SECRET DISCLOSURE.] All information reported to or otherwise obtained by the commissioner or his representative in connection with any inspection or proceeding under ~~Laws 1973~~, chapter ~~732~~ 182 which contains or which might reveal a trade secret shall be considered confidential except that ~~such~~ the information may be disclosed to other officers or employees concerned with carrying out ~~Laws 1973~~, this chapter ~~732~~ or when relevant in any proceeding under ~~Laws 1973~~, this chapter ~~732~~.

Subd. 3. [PROTECTIVE ORDERS.] The commissioner shall issue ~~such~~ orders as may be appropriate to protect the confidentiality of trade secrets by allowing, upon the request of an employer or manufacturer, any authorized representative of employees in inspections of trade secrets areas or discussions involving trade secrets to be replaced by an employee authorized by the employer; by permitting the employer to screen out trade secret details where photographs are deemed essential to the investigation; and by allowing the employer to restrict samples to be taken where trade secrets might be exposed.

Subd. 4. [PENALTY.] Information provided to an employer, employee, or designated representative pursuant to section 9 which has been determined to be a trade secret pursuant to subdivision 1, shall not be disclosed to anyone except (1) to the employee's authorized physician for medical treatment, or as required (2) for compliance with the federal Resource Conservation and Recovery Act, Public Law 94-580, or (3) in the course of an investigation or proceeding under this chapter. An employer, employee, or designated representative who discloses information in violation of this subdivision and any person receiving such information, whether directly or indirectly, is guilty of a gross misdemeanor, and shall be liable for damages to the employer or manufacturer, including consequential damages.

Sec. 25. [182.675] [RELATIONSHIP TO COLLECTIVE BARGAINING.]

Although not required, an employee or employer may seek to resolve any dispute arising under this chapter through resolution procedures provided by any applicable labor agreement or, if there is no applicable provision of a labor agreement, through a dispute resolution procedure to be developed by the commissioner. The employee is not deemed to have waived or lost any substantive or procedural rights under this chapter due to resort to the resolution methods and may, absent a provision in a labor agreement to the contrary, pursue all legal remedies under this chapter without any prejudice due to the results of these resolution methods. The commissioner may adopt temporary rules to develop a dispute resolution procedure. Nothing in this chapter is deemed to prevent the creation of additional rights or remedies for employees pursuant to a labor agreement or personnel rule.

Sec. 26. [INSTRUCTION TO REVISOR.]

Whenever the phrase "Laws 1973, Chapter 732" or a like phrase appears in Minnesota Statutes, chapter 182, the revisor of statutes shall substitute the phrase "this chapter" or "chapter 182."

Sec. 27. [EFFECTIVE DATE.]

Sections 1, 2, 3, 4, 5, 6, 7, 8, 9, 10, 11, 12, 13, 15, 16, 17, 18, 19, 20, 21, 22, 23, 24 and 25 are effective January 1, 1984. Section 14 is effective July 1, 1984. Section 26 is effective on the day following final enactment."

Sec. 3. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 43A.08, subdivision 1a, is amended to read:

Subd. 1a. [ADDITIONAL UNCLASSIFIED POSITIONS.] Appointing authorities for the following agencies may designate additional unclassified positions pursuant to this subdivision: the departments of administration; agriculture; corrections; economic security; education; employee relations; energy, planning and development; finance; health; human rights; labor and industry; natural resources; public safety; public service; public welfare; revenue; transportation; and veterans affairs; the banking, securities and real estate, insurance and consumer services divisions of the department of commerce; the housing finance and pollution control agencies; the state board of investment; ~~and~~ the offices of the secretary of state, state auditor and state treasurer; and the state board of vocational-technical education.

A position designated by an appointing authority pursuant to this subdivision must meet the following standards and criteria:

(a) The designation of the position would not be contrary to the provisions of other law relating specifically to that agency;

(b) The person occupying the position would report directly to the agency head or deputy agency head and would be designated as part of the agency head's management team;

(c) The duties of the position would involve significant discretion and substantial involvement in the development, interpretation and implementation of agency policy;

(d) The duties of the position would not require primarily personnel, accounting, or other technical expertise where continuity in the position would be important;

(e) There would be a need for the person occupying the position to be accountable to, loyal to, and compatible with the governor and the agency head, or the employing constitutional officer;

(f) The position would be at the level of division or bureau director or assistant to the agency head; and

(g) The commissioner has approved the designation as being consistent with the standards and criteria in this subdivision."

MOTIONS AND RESOLUTIONS - CONTINUED

Messrs. Merriam; Moe, R.D. and Bernhagen introduced—

Senate Resolution No. 54: A Senate resolution proclaiming Minnesota Environmental Awareness Day.

WHEREAS, Minnesota is one of the most aesthetically beautiful states in the country; and

WHEREAS, Minnesota has clean air and clear water to sustain its healthy and hardy people; and

WHEREAS, Minnesota sustains abundant fish and wildlife; and

WHEREAS, Minnesota is famous for its natural diversity including prairies, hardwood and coniferous forests, lakes, streams, and rivers; and

WHEREAS, Minnesota affords an abundance of recreational opportunities including biking, canoeing, boating, hiking, snowmobiling, bird-watching, hunting, and fishing; and

WHEREAS, Minnesota has two nationally significant water resources of Lake Superior and the Mississippi River; and

WHEREAS, Minnesota is noted for its excellent state, county, and local parks and trails; and

WHEREAS, it has been 13 years since the original earth day and recognizable improvement of the environment has ensued; and

WHEREAS, all of the above important attributes of this state are due to the fact that Minnesota's environment is clean, and the State of Minnesota has been a leader among the states in environmental protection and maintaining a high quality of life for its citizens; NOW, THEREFORE,

BE IT RESOLVED by the Senate of the State of Minnesota that Saturday, April 23, 1983, is Environmental Awareness Day in Minnesota. We, the people of Minnesota, recognize that our natural environment is one of our greatest resources for the health, well being, and prosperity of our populace. On Environmental Awareness Day all people of Minnesota should take note of the benefits a clean environment and a bountiful natural heritage bring to our state and our people.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that the Secretary of the Senate is directed to enroll a copy of this resolution, to be authenticated by his signature and that of the Chairman of the Rules and Administration Committee of the Senate, and that it be presented to representatives of the environmental movement.

Mr. Moe, R.D., for Mr. Merriam, moved the adoption of the foregoing resolution. The motion prevailed. So the resolution was adopted.

Remaining on the Order of Business of Motions and Resolutions, Mr. Moe, R.D. moved that the Senate take up the General Orders Calendar. The motion prevailed.

GENERAL ORDERS

The Senate resolved itself into a Committee of the Whole, with Mr. Hughes in the chair.

After some time spent therein, the committee arose, and Mr. Hughes reported that the committee had considered the following:

S.F. Nos. 170, 889 and 679, which the committee recommends to pass.

S.F. No. 634, which the committee recommends to pass with the following amendments offered by Messrs. Peterson, C.C.; Johnson, D.J. and Willet:

Mr. Peterson, C.C. moved to amend S.F. No. 634 as follows:

Page 3, line 21, after "compensation" insert "for more than 20 hours in any year"

The motion prevailed. So the amendment was adopted.

Mr. Johnson, D.J. moved to amend S.F. No. 634 as follows:

Page 8, line 12, after the period, insert "This section does not apply to the Lake Superior fishery."

The motion prevailed. So the amendment was adopted.

Mr. Willet moved to amend S.F. No. 634 as follows:

Page 5, line 2, before the period, insert ", and purchase of fish from private hatcheries for stocking purposes"

The motion prevailed. So the amendment was adopted.

S.F. No. 887, which the committee recommends to pass, after the following motion:

Mr. Laidig moved to amend S.F. No. 887 as follows:

"Sec. 3. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 174.03, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 1a. Only the criteria outlined by the statewide transportation plan, as prepared pursuant to section 174.03 and adopted by the Minnesota department of transportation in July, 1978, shall be used in the prioritization of highway projects on which highway funds shall be expended."

Page 2, line 18, delete "Section 1 is" and insert "Sections 1 and 3 are"

Renumber the sections in sequence

Amend the title as follows:

Page 1, line 4, after the semicolon, insert "requiring certain criteria in the expending of highway funds for highway projects;"

Page 1, line 6, after "subdivision" insert "; and 174.03, by adding a subdivision"

The question was taken on the adoption of the amendment.

The roll was called, and there were yeas 22 and nays 34, as follows:

Those who voted in the affirmative were:

Anderson	Frederick	Kronebusch	Peterson, D.L.	Taylor
Belanger	Frederickson	Laidig	Ramstad	Ulland
Benson	Isackson	McQuaid	Renneke
Berg	Johnson, D.E.	Mehrkens	Sieloff

Bertram	Dieterich	Luther	Pogemiller	Vega
Chmielewski	Frank	Nelson	Purfeerst	Waldorf
Dahl	Hughes	Novak	Reichgott	Wegscheid
Davis	Johnson, D.J.	Pehler	Schmitz	Willet
DeCramer	Jude	Peterson, C.C.	Solon

The motion did not prevail. So the amendment was not adopted.

On motion of Mr. Luther, the report of the Committee of the Whole, as kept by the Secretary, was adopted.

Mr. Willet moved that S.F. No. 183, No. 141 on General Orders, be stricken and re-referred to the Committee on Finance. The motion prevailed.

Mr. Frank moved that S.F. No. 393, No. 85 on General Orders, be stricken and returned to the author. The motion prevailed.

Without objection, the Senate proceeded to the Order of Business of Introduction and First Reading of Senate Bills.

INTRODUCTION AND FIRST READING OF SENATE BILLS

The following bill was read the first time.

Mr. Willet, for the Committee on Finance, introduced—

S.F. No. 1198: A bill for an act relating to state government; providing for deficiencies in appropriations for the expenses of state government with certain conditions; appropriating money.

Under the rules of the Senate, laid over one day.

MEMBERS EXCUSED

Mr. Merriam was excused from the Session of today. Mr. Samuelson was excused from the Session of today until 10:45 a.m.

ADJOURNMENT

Mr. Luther moved that the Senate do now adjourn until 10:00 a.m., Monday, April 25, 1983. The motion prevailed.

Patrick E. Flahaven, Secretary of the Senate

H.F. No. 558: A bill for an act relating to commerce; altering certain interest rate provisions on renegotiations of conventional and cooperative apartment loans and contracts for deed; amending Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 47.20, subdivision 4a.

Reports the same back with the recommendation that the bill be amended as follows:

"Section 1. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 47.20, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [DEFINITIONS.] For the purposes of this section the terms defined in this subdivision have the meanings given them:

(1) "Actual closing costs" mean reasonable charges for or sums paid for the following, whether or not retained by the mortgagee or lender:

(a) Any insurance premiums including but not limited to premiums for title insurance, fire and extended coverage insurance, flood insurance, and private mortgage insurance, but excluding any charges or sums retained by the mortgagee or lender as self-insured retention.

(b) Abstracting, title examination and search, and examination of public records.

(c) The preparation and recording of any or all documents required by law or custom for closing a conventional or cooperative apartment loan.

(d) Appraisal and survey of real property securing a conventional loan or real property owned by a cooperative apartment corporation of which a share or shares of stock or a membership certificate or certificates are to secure a cooperative apartment loan.

(e) A single service charge, which includes any consideration, not otherwise specified herein as an "actual closing cost" paid by the borrower and received and retained by the lender for or related to the acquisition, making, refinancing or modification of a conventional or cooperative apartment loan, and also includes any consideration received by the lender for making a borrower's interest rate commitment or for making a borrower's loan commitment, whether or not an actual loan follows the commitment. The term service charge does not include forward commitment fees. The service charge shall not exceed one percent of the original bona fide principal amount of the conventional or cooperative apartment loan, except that in the case of a construction loan, the service charge shall not exceed two percent of the original bona fide principal amount of the loan. That portion of the service charge imposed because the loan is a construction loan shall be itemized and a copy of the itemization furnished the borrower. A lender shall not collect from a borrower the additional one percent service charge permitted for a construction loan if it does not perform the service for which the charge is imposed or if third parties perform and charge the borrower for the service for which the lender has imposed the charge.

(f) Charges and fees necessary for or related to the transfer of real or personal property securing a conventional or cooperative apartment loan or the closing of a conventional or cooperative apartment loan paid by the borrower and received by any party other than the lender.

(2) "Contract for deed" means an executory contract for the conveyance of real estate, the original principal amount of which is less than $100,000. A commitment for a contract for deed shall include an executed purchase agreement or earnest money contract wherein the seller agrees to finance any part or all of the purchase price by a contract for deed.

(3) "Conventional loan" means a loan or advance of credit, other than a loan or advance of credit made by a credit union or made pursuant to section 334.011, to a noncorporate borrower in an original principal amount of less than $100,000, secured by a mortgage upon real property containing one or more residential units or upon which at the time the loan is made it is intended that one or more residential units are to be constructed, and which is not insured or guaranteed by the secretary of housing and urban development, by the administrator of veterans affairs, or by the administrator of the farmers home administration, and which is not made pursuant to the authority granted in subdivision 1, clause (3) or (4). The term mortgage does not include contracts for deed or installment land contracts.

(4) "Cooperative apartment loan" means a loan or advance of credit, other than a loan or advance of credit made by a credit union or made pursuant to section 334.011, to a noncorporate borrower in an original principal amount of less than $100,000, secured by a security interest on a share or shares of stock or a membership certificate or certificates issued to a stockholder or member by a cooperative apartment corporation, which may be accompanied by an assignment by way of security of the borrower's interest in the proprietary lease or occupancy agreement in property issued by the cooperative apartment corporation and which is not insured or guaranteed by the secretary of housing and urban development, by the administrator of veterans affairs, or by the administrator of the farmers home administration.

(5) "Cooperative apartment corporation" means a corporation or association organized under sections 308.05 to 308.18 or chapter 317, the shareholders or members of which are entitled, solely by reason of their ownership of stock or membership certificates in the corporation or association, to occupy one or more residential units in a building owned or leased by the corporation or association.

(6) "Forward commitment fee" means a fee or other consideration paid to a lender for the purpose of securing a binding forward commitment by or through the lender to make conventional loans to two or more credit worthy purchasers, including future purchasers, of residential units, or a fee or other consideration paid to a lender for the purpose of securing a binding forward commitment by or through the lender to make conventional loans to two or more credit worthy purchasers, including future purchasers, of apartments as defined in section 515.02 to be created out of existing structures pursuant to the Minnesota condominium act, or a fee or other consideration paid to a lender for the purpose of securing a binding forward commitment by or through the lender to make cooperative apartment loans to two or more credit worthy purchasers, including future purchasers, of a share or shares of stock or a membership certificate or certificates in a cooperative apartment corporation; provided, that the forward commitment rate of interest does not exceed the maximum lawful rate of interest effective as of the date the forward commitment is issued by the lender.

(7) "Borrower's interest rate commitment" means a binding commitment made by a lender to a borrower wherein the lender agrees that, if a conventional or cooperative apartment loan is made following issuance of and pursuant to the commitment, the conventional or cooperative apartment loan shall be made at a rate of interest not in excess of the rate of interest agreed to in the commitment, provided that the rate of interest agreed to in the commitment is not in excess of the maximum lawful rate of interest effective as of the date the commitment is issued by the lender to the borrower.

(8) "Borrower's loan commitment" means a binding commitment made by a lender to a borrower wherein the lender agrees to make a conventional or cooperative apartment loan pursuant to the provisions, including the interest rate, of the commitment, provided that the commitment rate of interest does not exceed the maximum lawful rate of interest effective as of the date the commitment is issued and the commitment when issued and agreed to shall constitute a legally binding obligation on the part of the mortgagee or lender to make a conventional or cooperative apartment loan within a specified time period in the future at a rate of interest not exceeding the maximum lawful rate of interest effective as of the date the commitment is issued by the lender to the borrower; provided that a lender who issues a borrower's loan commitment pursuant to the provisions of a forward commitment is authorized to issue the borrower's loan commitment at a rate of interest not to exceed the maximum lawful rate of interest effective as of the date the forward commitment is issued by the lender.

(9) "Finance charge" means the total cost of a conventional or cooperative apartment loan including extensions or grant of credit regardless of the characterization of the same and includes interest, finders fees, and other charges levied by a lender directly or indirectly against the person obtaining the conventional or cooperative apartment loan or against a seller of real property securing a conventional loan or a seller of a share or shares of stock or a membership certificate or certificates in a cooperative apartment corporation securing a cooperative apartment loan, or any other party to the transaction except any actual closing costs and any forward commitment fee. The finance charges plus the actual closing costs and any forward commitment fee, charged by a lender shall include all charges made by a lender other than the principal of the conventional or cooperative apartment loan. The finance charge, with respect to wraparound mortgages, shall be computed based upon the face amount of the wraparound mortgage note, which face amount shall consist of the aggregate of those funds actually advanced by the wraparound lender and the total outstanding principal balances of the prior note or notes which have been made a part of the wraparound mortgage note.

(10) "Lender" means any person making a conventional or cooperative apartment loan, or any person arranging financing for a conventional or cooperative apartment loan. The term also includes the holder or assignee at any time of a conventional or cooperative apartment loan.

(11) "Loan yield" means the annual rate of return obtained by a lender over the term of a conventional or cooperative apartment loan and shall be computed as the annual percentage rate as computed in accordance with sections 226.5 (b), (c) and (d) of Regulation Z, 12 C.F.R. section 226, but using the definition of finance charge provided for in this subdivision. For purposes of this section, with respect to wraparound mortgages, the rate of interest or loan yield shall be based upon the principal balance set forth in the wraparound note and mortgage and shall not include any interest differential or yield differential between the stated interest rate on the wraparound mortgage and the stated interest rate on the one or more prior mortgages included in the stated loan amount on a wraparound note and mortgage.

(12) "Monthly index of the federal ~~national~~ home loan mortgage association corporation auction yields" means the ~~gross~~ net weighted average yield of accepted offers in the ~~second free market system conventional home mortgage auction held by eight month forward commitment program of the federal national home loan mortgage association corporation~~ in a month.

(13) "Person" means an individual, corporation, business trust, partnership or association or any other legal entity.

(14) "Residential unit" means any structure used principally for residential purposes or any portion thereof, and includes a unit in a townhouse or planned unit development, a condominium apartment, a non-owner occupied residence, and any other type of residence regardless of whether the unit is used as a principal residence, secondary residence, vacation residence or residence of some other denomination.

(15) "Vendor" means any person or persons who agree to sell real estate and finance any part or all of the purchase price by a contract for deed. The term also includes the holder or assignee at any time of the vendor's interest in a contract for deed."

"Sec. 2. [16.0721] [PREFERENCE FOR MINNESOTA AND AMERICAN MADE MATERIALS.]

Subdivision 1. [DEFINITIONS.] As used in this section, the following terms have the meanings given them:

(a) "Public agency" has the meaning assigned to it in section 1, subdivision 1, clause (b), and includes any contractor acting pursuant to a contract with a public agency;

(b) "Materials" means any goods, supplies, equipment or any other tangible products or materials, including foods;

(c) "Manufactured" means mined, grown, produced, manufactured, fabricated or assembled;

(d) "Manufactured in Minnesota" means manufactured in whole or in substantial part within Minnesota or that the majority of its components were manufactured in whole or in substantial part in Minnesota;

(e) "Manufactured in the United States" means manufactured in whole or in substantial part within the United States or that the majority of the component parts thereof were manufactured in whole or in substantial part in the United States;

(f) "Purchase" means acquire by purchase or lease.

Subd. 2. [PURCHASE PREFERENCE.] Notwithstanding the provisions of any other law to the contrary, no materials may be purchased by a public agency for use for governmental purposes which are not manufactured in Minnesota or the United States, except as may be provided in this section. When all other factors are substantially equal, preference must be given first to those products which are manufactured to the greatest extent in Minnesota, and second to those products which are manufactured to the greatest extent in the United States. To the extent possible, specifications must be written so as to permit the public agency to purchase materials manufactured in Minnesota.

Subd. 3. [EXEMPTIONS.] Subdivision 2 does not apply if the person having contracting authority in respect to the purchase determines that (1) the materials are not manufactured in Minnesota or the United States in sufficient or reasonably available quantities, (2) the price or bid of the materials exceeds by more than ten percent the price or bid of available and comparable materials manufactured outside of Minnesota or the United States, (3) the quality of the materials is substantially less than the quality of comparably priced available materials manufactured outside of Minnesota or the United States, or (4) the purchase of the materials manufactured in Minnesota or the United States is otherwise not in the public interest. Subdivision 2 also does not apply if the materials are purchased with a view to commercial resale or with a view to use in the production of goods for commercial sale.

Subd. 4. [OTHER LAW SUPERSEDED.] The provisions of this section supersede Minnesota Statutes, section 16.073.

Sec. 3. [REPEALER.]

Sections 1 and 2 are repealed June 30, 1985."

S.F. No. 1168: A bill for an act relating to insurance; automobile; authorizing the commissioner to adopt rules on nonrenewals of policies; amending Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 65B.17.

Reports the same back with the recommendation that the bill be amended as follows:

Delete everything after the enacting clause and insert:

“Section 1. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 60C.09, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [DEFINITION.] A covered claim is any unpaid claim, including one for unearned premium, which:

(a) Arises out of and is within the coverage of an insurance policy issued by a member insurer if the insurer becomes an insolvent insurer after April 30, 1979;

(b) Arises out of a class of business which is not excepted from the scope of Laws 1971, Chapter 145 by section 60C.02; and

(c) Is made by:

(i) A policyholder, or an insured beneficiary under a policy, who, at the time of the insured event, was a resident of this state; or

(ii) A person designated in the policy as having an insurable interest in or related to property situated in this state at the time of the insured event; or

(iii) An obligee or creditor under any surety bond, who, at the time of default by the principal debtor or obligor, was a resident of this state; or

(iv) A third party claimant under a liability policy or surety bond, if: (a) the insured or the third party claimant was a resident of this state at the time of the insured event; (b) the claim is for bodily or personal injuries suffered in this state by a person who when he suffered the injuries was a resident of this state; or (c) the claim is for damages to real property situated in this state at the time of damage; or

(v) A direct or indirect assignee of a person who except for the assignment might have claimed under (i), (ii) or (iii).

A covered claim also includes any unpaid claim which arises or exists within 30 days after the time of entry of an order of liquidation with a finding of insolvency by a court of competent jurisdiction unless prior thereto the insured replaces the policy or causes its cancellation or the policy expires on its expiration date.

Sec. 2. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 65B.17, is amended to read:

65B.17 [RENEWAL; NOTICE NOT TO RENEW.]

*Subdivision 1. [GENERAL REGULATIONS.] No insurer shall fail to renew an automobile insurance policy unless it shall mail or deliver to the named insured, at the address shown in the policy, at least 60 days advance notice of its intention not to renew. ~~Said~~ The notice ~~shall~~ must contain the specific underwriting or other reason or reasons for ~~such~~ the nonrenewal. When the failure to renew is based upon a termination of the agency contract, the notice ~~shall~~ must so state. This section ~~shall~~ does not apply:*

- (a) If the insurer has manifested its willingness to renew; or
- (b) In case of nonpayment of the renewal premium;

*Provided that, notwithstanding the failure of an insurer to comply with this section, the policy ~~shall terminate~~ terminates on the effective date of any other automobile insurance policy procured by the insured, with respect to any automobile designated in both policies. Renewal of a policy ~~shall~~ does not constitute a waiver or estoppel with respect to grounds for cancellation which existed before the effective date of ~~such~~ the renewal. No insurer shall fail to renew an automobile policy solely because of the age of the insured. No insurer shall refuse to renew an automobile insurance policy for reasons which are arbitrary or capricious. No insurer shall refuse to renew an automobile insurance policy in violation of rules adopted pursuant to subdivision 2. An insurer may refuse to renew an automobile insurance policy in case of nonpayment of dues to an association or organization, other than an insurance association or organization, where payment of dues is a prerequisite to obtaining or continuing such insurance; provided, however, that this provision for nonrenewal for failure to pay dues shall not be applicable to persons who are retired at age 62 years of age or older or who are disabled, according to social security standards.*

No insurer shall take any action in regard to an automobile insurance policy on the statements or charges of any person made to the insurer concerning alleged unsafe driving habits of an insured unless the insurer shall concurrently disclose to the insured the name and address of the person from which the insurer received the information.

Subd. 2. [RULEMAKING.] The commissioner may adopt rules pursuant to chapter 14, including temporary rules, to specify the grounds for nonrenewal of an automobile policy. The rules must limit the basis for nonrenewal to the following factors:

- (a) the reasons stated for cancellation in section 65B.15;
- (b) payments made for collision, bodily injury liability, or property damage liability coverage;
- (c) moving violations of a driver; and

(d) other factors deemed reasonable by the commissioner.

The rules must specify the manner in which these factors will be considered and may reflect the severity or reoccurrence of any moving violation, the amount of any payment made, and the number of vehicles insured.

Subd. 3. [ADMINISTRATIVE PENALTY.] The rules adopted under this section may provide for imposition of a monetary penalty not greater than $500 per occurrence upon insurers who are found to be in violation of any rule provision.

Sec. 3. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 65B.48, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. Self-insurance, subject to approval of the commissioner, is effected by filing with the commissioner in satisfactory form:

(1) a continuing undertaking by the owner or other appropriate person to pay tort liabilities or basic economic loss benefits, or both, and to perform all other obligations imposed by sections 65B.41 to 65B.71;

(2) evidence that appropriate provision exists for prompt administration of all claims, benefits, and obligations provided by sections 65B.41 to 65B.71; ~~and~~

(3) evidence that reliable financial arrangements, deposits, or commitments exist providing assurance, substantially equivalent to that afforded by a policy of insurance complying with sections 65B.41 to 65B.71, for payment of tort liabilities, basic economic loss benefits, and all other obligations imposed by sections 65B.41 to 65B.71-; and

(4) a nonrefundable application fee of $500.

Sec. 4. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 65B.48, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 3a. To carry out the purposes of subdivision 3, the commissioner may adopt rules pursuant to chapter 14, including temporary rules. These rules may:

(a) establish reporting requirements;

(b) establish standards or guidelines to assure the adequacy of the financing and administration of self-insurance plans;

(c) establish bonding requirements or other provisions assuring the financial integrity of entities that self-insure; and

(d) establish other reasonable requirements to further the purposes of this section.

Sec. 5. [EFFECTIVE DATE.]

Sections 1 to 4 are effective the date after final enactment."

Subdivision 1. [IN GENERAL.] For the biennium ending June 30, ~~1983~~ 1985, the annual increase in the cost per service unit paid to any vendor under medical assistance and general assistance medical care shall not exceed eight percent. The period for measuring growth shall be the state fiscal year. The actual acquisition cost of prescription drug ingredients is not subject to the eight percent increase limit or any other cost limitation and shall be fully reimbursed. For vendors enrolled in the general assistance medical care program, the annual increase in cost per service unit allowable during state fiscal year 1984 shall not exceed eight percent. The basis for measuring growth shall be the cost per service unit that would have been reimbursable in state fiscal year 1983 if payments had not been rateably reduced and if payments had been based on the 50th percentile of usual and customary billings for medical assistance in 1979. The increase in cost per service unit allowable for vendors in the general assistance medical care program during state fiscal year 1985 shall not exceed eight percent. The basis for measuring growth shall be state fiscal year 1984.

Sec. 5. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 256.967, is amended to read:

256.967 [MEDICAL CARE PAYMENTS; LIMITATIONS ON FEES.]

All payments for vendors of medical care under general assistance medical care shall be based upon this standard: the 50th percentile of usual and customary fees based upon medical assistance billings during calendar year ~~1978~~ 1979. All payments for vendors of medical care under medical assistance shall be limited to the 50th percentile of usual and customary fees based upon billings during calendar year 1979 for physician services, dental care, vision care, podiatric services, chiropractic care, physical therapy, occupational therapy, speech pathologists, audiologists, mental health centers, psychologists, public health clinics, and independent laboratory and x-ray services.

Sec. 6. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 256.968, is amended to read:

256.968 [LIMITATION ON INPATIENT CHEMICAL DEPENDENCY

TREATMENT.]

The commissioner of public welfare shall limit medical assistance and general assistance medical care reimbursement for treatment of alcoholism, chemical dependency or drug addiction which is rendered in a licensed hospital or certified nursing home to ~~40~~ 30 days unless need for extended care is certified by the attending physician and has received prior approval from the commissioner.

Sec. 7. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 256B.02, subdivision 8, is amended to read:

Subd. 8. "Medical assistance" or "medical care" means payment of part or all of the cost of the following care and services for eligible individuals whose income and resources are insufficient to meet all of such cost:

(1) Inpatient hospital services. A second medical opinion is required prior to reimbursement for elective surgeries. The commissioner shall publish a proposed list of elective surgeries that require a second medical opinion prior to reimbursement in the State Register. The list is not subject to the requirements of sections 14.01 to 14.70. The commissioner's decision whether a second medical opinion is required, made in accordance with rules governing that decision, is not subject to administrative appeal.

(2) Skilled nursing home services and services of intermediate care facilities.

(3) Physicians' services.

(4) Outpatient hospital or physician-directed clinic services. The physician-directed clinic staff shall include at least two physicians, one of whom is on the premises whenever the clinic is open, and all services shall be provided under the direct supervision of the physician who is on the premises.

(5) Community mental health center services, as defined in rules adopted by the commissioner pursuant to section 256B.04, subdivision 2, and provided by a community mental health center as defined in section 245.62, subdivision 2.

~~(5)~~ (6) Home health care services.

~~(6)~~ (7) Private duty nursing services.

~~(7)~~ (8) Physical therapy and related services.

~~(8)~~ (9) Dental services, excluding cast metal restorations.

~~(9)~~ (10) Laboratory and x-ray services.

~~(10)~~ (11) The following if prescribed by a licensed practitioner: drugs, eyeglasses, dentures, and prosthetic devices. The commissioner shall designate a formulary committee which shall advise the commissioner on the names of drugs for which payment shall be made, recommend a system for reimbursing providers on a set fee or charge basis rather than the present system, and develop methods encouraging use of generic drugs when they are less expensive and equally effective as trademark drugs. The commissioner shall appoint the formulary committee members no later than 30 days following July 1, 1981. The formulary committee shall consist of nine members, four of whom shall be physicians who are not employed by the department of public welfare, and a majority of whose practice is for persons paying privately or through health insurance, three of whom shall be pharmacists who are not employed by the department of public welfare, and a majority of whose practice is for persons paying privately or through health insurance, a consumer representative, and a nursing home representative. Committee members shall serve two year terms and shall serve without compensation. The commissioner may establish a drug formulary. Its establishment and publication shall not be subject to the requirements of the administrative procedure act, but the formulary committee shall review and comment on the formulary contents. The formulary shall not include: drugs for which there is no federal funding; over the counter drugs, except for antacids, acetaminophen, family planning products, aspirin, insulin, prenatal vitamins, and vitamins for children under the age of seven; nutritional products; anorectics; and drugs for which medical value has not been established. Payment to drug vendors shall not be modified before the formulary is established. The commissioner may promulgate conditions for prohibiting payment for specific drugs after considering the formulary committee's recommendations.

The basis for determining the amount of payment shall be the actual acquisition costs of the drugs plus a fixed dispensing fee established by the commissioner. Actual acquisition cost includes quantity and other special discounts except time and cash discounts. Establishment of this fee shall not be subject to the requirements of the administrative procedure act. Whenever a generically equivalent product is available, payment shall be on the basis of the actual acquisition cost of the generic drug, unless the prescriber specifically indicates "dispense as written" on the prescription as required by section 151.21, subdivision 2.

Notwithstanding the above provisions, implementation of any change in the fixed dispensing fee which has not been subject to the administrative procedure act shall be limited to not more than 180 days, unless, during that time, the commissioner shall have initiated rulemaking through the administrative procedure act.

~~(11)~~ (12) Diagnostic, screening, and preventive services.

~~(12)~~ (13) Health care pre-payment plan premiums and insurance premiums if paid directly to a vendor and supplementary medical insurance benefits under Title XVIII of the Social Security Act.

~~(13)~~ (14) Abortion services, but only if one of the following conditions is met:

(a) The abortion is a medical necessity. "Medical necessity" means (1) the signed written statement of two physicians indicating the abortion is medically necessary to prevent the death of the mother, and (2) the patient has given her consent to the abortion in writing unless the patient is physically or legally incapable of providing informed consent to the procedure, in which case consent will be given as otherwise provided by law;

(b) The pregnancy is the result of criminal sexual conduct as defined in section 609.342, clauses (c), (d), (e)(i), and (f), and the incident is reported within 48 hours after the incident occurs to a valid law enforcement agency for investigation, unless the victim is physically unable to report the criminal sexual conduct, in which case the report shall be made within 48 hours after the victim becomes physically able to report the criminal sexual conduct; or

(c) The pregnancy is the result of incest, but only if the incident and relative are reported to a valid law enforcement agency for investigation prior to the abortion.

~~(14)~~ (15) Transportation costs incurred solely for obtaining emergency medical care or transportation costs incurred by non-ambulatory persons in obtaining emergency or non-emergency medical care when paid directly to an ambulance company, common carrier, or other recognized providers of transportation services. For the purpose of this clause, a person who is incapable of transport by taxicab or bus shall be considered to be non-ambulatory.

~~(15)~~ (16) To the extent authorized by rule of the state agency, costs of bus or taxicab transportation incurred by any ambulatory eligible person for obtaining non-emergency medical care.

~~(16)~~ (17) Any other medical or remedial care licensed and recognized under state law unless otherwise prohibited by law.

Sec. 8. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 256B.04, subdivision 14, is amended to read:

Subd. 14. [COMPETITIVE BIDDING.] The commissioner shall utilize volume purchase through competitive bidding under the provisions of chapter 16, to provide the following items:

(1) Eyeglasses;

(2) Oxygen. The commissioner shall provide for oxygen needed in an emergency situation on a short-term basis, until the vendor can obtain the necessary supply from the contract dealer;

~~(2)~~ (3) Hearing aids and supplies; and

~~(3)~~ (4) Durable medical equipment, including but not limited to:

(a) hospital beds;

(b) commodes;

(c) glide-about chairs;

(d) patient lift apparatus;

(e) wheelchairs and accessories;

(f) oxygen administration equipment;

(g) respiratory therapy equipment; and

(h) electronic diagnostic, therapeutic and life support systems.

Counties that are able to negotiate a volume purchase for any of the above items through their own competitive bidding process shall seek an exemption from the provisions of this subdivision from the commissioner when the price negotiated by the county is lower than the price available to the commis-

Sec. 9. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 256B.04, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 16. [UTILIZATION REVIEW.] Establish on a statewide basis a new program to safeguard against unnecessary or inappropriate use of medical assistance services, against excess payments, against unnecessary or inappropriate hospital admissions or lengths of stay, and against underutilization of services in pre-paid health plans, long term care facilities or any health care delivery system subject to fixed rate reimbursement. In implementing the program, the state agency shall utilize both pre-payment and post-payment review systems to determine if utilization is reasonable and necessary. The determination of whether services are reasonable and necessary shall be made by the commissioner in consultation with a professional services advisory group appointed by the commissioner. An aggrieved party may appeal the commissioner's determination pursuant to the contested case procedures of chapter 14.

Sec. 10. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 256B.06, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. Medical assistance may be paid for any person:

(1) Who is a child eligible for or receiving adoption assistance payments under Title IV-E of the Social Security Act, 42 U.S.C. Sections 670 to 676; or

(2) Who is a child eligible for or receiving foster care maintenance payments under Title IV-E of the Social Security Act, 42 U.S.C. Sections 670 to 676; or

(3) Who is eligible for or receiving public assistance, or a woman who is pregnant, as medically verified, and who would be eligible for assistance under the aid to families with dependent children program if the child had been born and living with the woman; or

(4) Who is ~~eligible for or receiving~~ meets the categorical eligibility requirements of the supplemental security income for the aged, blind and disabled program and the other eligibility requirements of this section; or

(5) Who except for the amount of income or resources would qualify for supplemental security income for the aged, blind and disabled, or aid to families with dependent children and is in need of medical assistance; or

(6) Who is under 21 years of age and in need of medical care that neither he nor his relatives responsible under sections 256B.01 to 256B.26 are financially able to provide; or

(7) Who is residing in a hospital for treatment of mental disease or tuberculosis and is 65 years of age or older and without means sufficient to pay the per capita hospital charge; and

(8) Who resides in Minnesota, or, if absent from the state, is deemed to be a resident of Minnesota in accordance with the regulations of the state agency; and

(9) Who alone, or together with his spouse, does not own real property other than the homestead. For the purposes of this section, "homestead" means the house owned and occupied by the applicant as his dwelling place, together with the land upon which it is situated and an area no greater than two contiguous lots in a platted or laid out city or town or 80 contiguous acres in unplatted land. Occupancy or exemption shall be determined as provided in chapter 510 and applicable law, including continuing exemption by filing notice under section 510.07. Real estate not used as a home may not be retained unless it produces net income applicable to the family's needs or the family is making a continuing effort to sell it at a fair and reasonable price or unless sale of the real estate would net an insignificant amount of income applicable to the family's needs, or unless the commissioner determines that sale of the real estate would cause undue hardship; and

(10) Who individually does not own more than ~~$2,000~~ $2,700 in cash or liquid assets, or if a member of a household with two family members (husband and wife, or parent and child), does not own more than ~~$4,000~~ $5,400 in cash or liquid assets, plus $200 for each additional legal dependent. The value of the following shall not be included:

(a) the homestead, and (b) one motor vehicle licensed pursuant to chapter 168 and defined as: (1) passenger automobile, (2) station wagon, (3) motorcycle, (4) motorized bicycle or (5) truck of the weight found in categories A to E, of section 168.013, subdivision 1e; and

(11) Who has or anticipates receiving an annual income not in excess of $2,600 for a single person, or $3,250 for two family members (husband and wife, parent and child, or two siblings), plus $625 for each additional legal dependent, or who has income in excess of these maxima and in the month of application, or during the three months prior to the month of application, incurs expenses for medical care that total more than one-half of the annual excess income in accordance with the regulations of the state agency. In computing income to determine eligibility of persons who are not residents of long term care facilities, the commissioner shall disregard increases in income of social security or supplementary security income recipients due solely to increases required by sections 215(i) and 1617 of the social security act, and shall disregard income of disabled persons that is also disregarded in determining eligibility for supplemental aid under section 256D.37, subdivision 1, unless prohibited by federal law or regulation. If prohibited, the commissioner shall first seek a waiver. In excess income cases, eligibility shall be limited to a period of six months beginning with the first of the month in which these medical obligations are first incurred; and

(12) Who has continuing monthly expenses for medical care that are more than the amount of his excess income, computed on a monthly basis, in which case eligibility may be established before the total income obligation referred to in the preceding paragraph is incurred, and medical assistance payments may be made to cover the monthly unmet medical need. In licensed nursing home and state hospital cases, income over and above that required for justified needs, determined pursuant to a schedule of contributions established by the commissioner of public welfare, is to be applied to the cost of institutional care. The commissioner of public welfare may establish a schedule of contributions to be made by the spouse of a nursing home resident to the cost of care and shall seek a waiver from federal regulations which establish the amount required to be contributed by either spouse when one spouse is a nursing home resident; and

(13) Who has applied or agrees to apply all proceeds received or receivable by him or his spouse from automobile accident coverage and private health care coverage to the costs of medical care for himself, his spouse, and children. The state agency may require from any applicant or recipient of medical assistance the assignment of any rights accruing under private health care coverage. Any rights or amounts so assigned shall be applied against the cost of medical care paid for under this chapter. Any assignment shall not be effective as to benefits paid or provided under automobile accident coverage and private health care coverage prior to receipt of the assignment by the person or organization providing the benefits.

Sec. 11. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 256B.07, is amended to read:

256B.07 [EXCEPTIONS IN DETERMINING RESOURCES.]

A local agency may, within the scope of regulations set by the commissioner of public welfare, waive the requirement of liquidation of excess assets when the liquidation would cause undue hardship. Household goods and furniture in use in the home, wearing apparel, ~~insurance policies with cash surrender value not in excess of $1,500 per insured person, and~~ personal property used as a regular abode by the applicant or recipient, ~~a prepaid funeral contract not in excess of $750 per person plus accrued interest of not more than $200, and a lot in a burial plot~~ shall not be considered as resources available to meet medical needs.

Sec. 12. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 256B.14, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [ACTIONS TO OBTAIN PAYMENT.] The state agency shall promulgate rules to determine the ability of responsible relatives to contribute partial or complete repayment of medical assistance furnished to recipients for whom they are responsible. In determining the income contribution for parents of children in out of home placement, the state agency shall use the standard set forth in 12 MCAR S 2.027 until the promulgation of the rule required under this subdivision. These rules shall not require repayment when payment would cause undue hardship to the responsible relative or his or her immediate family. The county agency shall give the responsible relative notice of the amount of the repayment. If the state agency or county agency finds that notice of the payment obligation was given to the responsible relative, but that the relative failed or refused to pay, a cause of action exists against the responsible relative for that portion of medical assistance granted after notice was given to the responsible relative, which the relative was determined to be able to pay.

The action may be brought by the state agency or the county agency in the county where assistance was granted, for the assistance, together with the costs of disbursements incurred due to the action.

In addition to granting the county or state agency a money judgment, the court may, upon a motion or order to show cause, order continuing contributions by a responsible relative found able to repay the county or state agency. The order shall be effective only for the period of time during which the recipient receives medical assistance from the county or state agency.

Sec. 13. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 256B.17, subdivision 4, is amended to read:

Subd. 4. [PERIOD OF INELIGIBILITY.] In any case where the uncompensated value of transferred resources exceeds $12,000, the commissioner shall require a period of ineligibility which exceeds 24 months, provided that the period of ineligibility bears a reasonable relationship to the excess uncompensated value of the transferred asset. For any uncompensated transfer, the period of ineligibility shall be calculated by dividing the transferred amount by the statewide average monthly skilled nursing facility per diem for the previous calendar year to determine the number of months of ineligibility. The individual shall remain ineligible until this fixed ineligibility period has expired, subject to the exclusions contained in section 14.

Sec. 14. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 256B.17, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 5. [EXCLUSIONS FOR HOMESTEAD TRANSFERS.] Notwithstanding subdivision 4, an individual shall not be ineligible if the transferred property is a homestead as defined by section 256B.06, subdivision 1, and one of the following conditions applies:

(1) a satisfactory showing is made that the individual can reasonably be expected to return to the homestead as a permanent residence;

(2) title to the home was transferred to the individual's spouse, child who is under age 21, or blind or permanently and totally disabled child as defined in the supplemental security income program;

(3) a satisfactory showing is made that the individual intended to dispose of the home at fair market value or for other valuable consideration;

(4) the local agency determines that denial of eligibility would cause undue hardship for the individual, based on imminent threat to the individual's health and well-being.

Sec. 15. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 256B.17, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 6. [CONFORMANCE WITH FEDERAL LAW.] Notwithstanding the other provisions of this section, uncompensated property transfers shall be treated no more restrictively than allowed by federal law.

Sec. 16. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 256B.27, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. The commissioner of public welfare, with the written consent of the recipient, shall be allowed access to all personal medical records of medical assistance recipients solely for the purposes of investigating whether or not: (a) a vendor of medical care has submitted a claim for reimbursement, a cost report or a rate application which the vendor knows to be false in whole or in part; or (b) the medical care was medically necessary. The vendor of medical care shall receive notification from the commissioner at least 24 hours before the commissioner gains access to such records. The determination of abuse or provision of services not medically necessary shall be made by the commissioner in consultation with a review organization as defined in section 145.61 or other an advisory committees committee of vendors as appointed by the commissioner on the recommendation of appropriate professional organizations. Notwithstanding any other law to the contrary, a vendor of medical care shall not be subject to any civil or criminal liability for providing access to medical records to the commissioner of public welfare pursuant to this section.

Sec. 17. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 256B.48, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 4. [MEDICARE CERTIFICATION REQUIRED.] A nursing home that offers skilled nursing facility care is not eligible to receive medical assistance payments unless it is certified by the commissioner of health for both medicare and medical assistance under United States Code, Title 42, sections 1395 et seq. and 1396 et seq.

Sec. 18. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 256D.03, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [GENERAL ASSISTANCE MEDICAL CARE; ELIGIBILITY.] State aid shall be paid to local agencies or counties for 90 percent of the cost of general assistance medical care paid by the local agency or county pursuant to section 256D.02, subdivision 4a on behalf of persons eligible according to standards established by the commissioner of public welfare in accordance with the rates established by rule of the commissioner. Persons eligible for benefits under sections 256D.01 to 256D.21 and persons not eligible for federal health care benefits whose nonexempt property, as determined according to medical assistance standards, has an equity value no greater than $1,000 and whose income is not in excess of the medical assistance standards shall be eligible for general assistance medical care and have free choice in the selection of a vendor of the medical care. Any local agency or county may, from its own resources, make payments for medical care for persons not otherwise eligible for the care pursuant to standards established by the commissioner. Persons with excess income and resources may qualify for benefits under this subdivision by spending down. Treatment of income and resources in calculation of the spenddown shall be the same as in the medical assistance program pursuant to chapter 256B.

The commissioner of public welfare shall promulgate rules to establish administrative and fiscal procedures for payment of the state share of the medical costs incurred by the counties under section 256D.02, subdivision 4a. The rules may include:

(a) procedures by which state liability for the costs of medical care incurred pursuant to section 256D.02, subdivision 4a may be deducted from county liability to the state under any other public assistance program authorized by law;

(b) procedures for processing claims of counties for reimbursement by the state for expenditures for medical care made by the counties pursuant to section 256D.02, subdivision 4a;

(c) procedures by which the local agencies may contract with the commissioner of public welfare for state administration of general assistance medical care payments;

(d) standards of eligibility, utilization of services and payment levels which shall conform to those of medical assistance pursuant to chapter 256B; and

(e) general criteria and procedures for the identification and prompt investigation of suspected fraud, theft, abuse, presentment of false or duplicate claims, presentment of claims for services not medically necessary, or false statements or representations of material facts by a vendor of general assistance medical care, and for the imposition of sanctions against such vendor of medical care. The rules relating to sanctions shall be consistent with the provisions of section 256B.064, subdivisions 1a to 2.

Sec. 19. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 256D.03, subdivision 4, is amended to read:

Subd. 4. [GENERAL ASSISTANCE MEDICAL CARE: SERVICES.] (a) Notwithstanding the provisions of sections 256D.01 to 256D.21 and 261.23, or any other law to the contrary, for the biennium ending June 30, 1983, state aid shall be paid to local agencies or counties for 90 percent of general assistance medical care paid by the local agency or county on behalf of persons eligible for general assistance or persons meeting the income and resource criteria established in the program for aid to families with dependent children. Nothing in this provision shall be construed to modify the spenddown required in appropriate cases for general assistance medical care. Reimbursement for medical care provided under sections 256D.01 to 256D.21 or 261.23 under the general assistance medical care program shall be limited to the following categories of service only: inpatient hospital care, outpatient hospital care, services provided by medicare certified rehabilitation agencies, prescription drugs, eyeglasses, physician's services, medical transportation, and dental care. In addition, payments of state aid shall be made for day treatment services provided by a mental health center established under sections 245.61 to 245.69, subdivision 1, and funded through chapter 256E and for prescribed medications for persons who have been diagnosed as mentally ill as necessary to prevent more restrictive institutionalization.

(b) ~~At the option of~~ In order to contain costs, the county board and shall, with the approval of the commissioner of public welfare, reimbursement for inpatient hospital care, outpatient hospital care, and prescription drugs may be limited to designated select vendors of medical care providers who can provide the most economical care consistent with high medical standards and may contract with organizations on a prepaid capitation basis to provide these services. The commissioner shall encourage county boards to submit proposals for demonstration projects designed to provide services in an economical manner or to control utilization, with safeguards to ensure that necessary services are provided. Payment for services provided pursuant to this subdivision shall be as provided to medical assistance vendors of these services under section 256B.02, subdivision 8, except that where counties enter into prepaid capitation agreements, payments shall be as provided in section 256.966, subdivision 2.

(c) ~~The commissioner of public welfare may reduce payments provided under sections 256D.01 to 256D.21 and 261.23 in order to remain within the amount appropriated for general assistance medical care, within the following restrictions. Reductions below the cost per service unit allowable under section 256.966, shall be permitted only as follows: payments for inpatient and outpatient hospital care provided in response to a primary diagnosis of chemical~~ dependency or mental illness may be reduced no more than 45 percent; payments for all other inpatient hospital care may be reduced no more than 35 percent. Reductions below the payments allowable under section 256.067 for the remaining general assistance medical care services allowable under this provision may be reduced no more than 25 percent. There shall be no copayment required of any recipient of benefits for any services provided under this subdivision.

(d) If the commissioner or county refuses to pay all or part of the charge for a health service, they shall not be liable for the unpaid portion of the charge. Any county may, from its own resources, provide medical payments for which state payments are not made.

Sec. 20. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 256D.03, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 5. [DIVISION OF COSTS.] The state shall pay 90 percent of the cost of general assistance medical care paid by the local agency or county pursuant to this section. However, for counties who contract with health maintenance organizations or other providers to deliver services under a prepaid capitation agreement, the state shall pay 95 percent of the cost per person enrolled.

Sec. 21. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 256D.03, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 6. [DUTIES OF THE COMMISSIONER.] The commissioner shall promulgate temporary and permanent rules as necessary to establish:

(a) standards of eligibility, utilization of services, and payment levels;

(b) standards for quality assurance, surveillance, and utilization review procedures that conform to those established for the medical assistance program pursuant to chapter 256B, including general criteria and procedures for the identification and prompt investigation of suspected fraud, theft, abuse, presentment of false or duplicate claims, presentment of claims for services not medically necessary, or false statements or representations of material facts by a vendor of general assistance medical care, and for the imposition of sanctions against such vendor of medical care. The rules relating to sanctions shall be consistent with the provisions of section 256B.064, subdivisions 1a and 2;

(c) administrative and fiscal procedures for payment of the state share of the medical costs incurred by the counties under section 256D.02, subdivision 4a. Rules promulgated pursuant to this clause may include: (1) procedures by which state liability for the costs of medical care incurred pursuant to section 256D.02, subdivision 4a may be deducted from county liability to the state under any other public assistance program authorized by law; (2) procedures for processing claims of counties for reimbursement by the state for expenditures for medical care made by the counties pursuant to section 256D.02, subdivision 4a; and (3) procedures by which the local agencies may contract with the commissioner of public welfare for state administration of general assistance medical care payments.

Sec. 22. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 260.191, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. All orders under this section shall be for a specified length of time set by the court not to exceed one year. However, before the order has expired and upon its own motion or that of any interested party, the court has ~~continuing jurisdiction to renew the order or shall~~, after notice to the parties and a hearing, renew the order for another year or make some other disposition of the case, until the individual is no longer a minor. Any person to whom legal custody is transferred shall report to the court in writing at such periods as the court may direct.

Sec. 23. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 260.242, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. (a) A guardian appointed under the provisions of subdivision 1 has legal custody of his ward unless the court which appoints him gives legal custody to some other person. If the court awards custody to a person other than the guardian, the guardian nonetheless has the right and responsibility of reasonable visitation, except as limited by court order.

(b) The guardian may make major decisions affecting the person of his ward, including but not limited to giving consent (when consent is legally required) to the marriage, enlistment in the armed forces, medical, surgical, or psychiatric treatment, or adoption of the ward. When, pursuant to subdivision 1, clause (a), the commissioner of public welfare is appointed guardian, he may delegate to the welfare board of the county in which, after the appointment, the ward resides, the authority to act for him in decisions affecting the person of his ward, including but not limited to giving consent to the marriage, enlistment in the armed forces, medical, surgical, or psychiatric treatment of the ward.

(c) A guardianship created under the provisions of subdivision 1 shall not of itself include the guardianship of the estate of the ward.

(d) If the ward is in foster care, the court shall, upon its own motion or that of the guardian, conduct a dispositional hearing within 18 months of the foster care placement and once every two years thereafter to determine the future status of the ward including, but not limited to, whether the child should be continued in foster care for a specified period, should be placed for adoption, or should, because of the child's special need or circumstances, be continued in foster care on a permanent or long-term basis. When the court has determined that the special needs of the ward are met through a permanent or long-term foster care placement, no subsequent dispositional hearings are required.

Sec. 24. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 261.23, is amended to read:

261.23 [COSTS OF HOSPITALIZATION.]

The costs of hospitalization of such indigent persons exclusive of medical and surgical care and treatment shall not exceed in amount the full rates fixed and charged by the Minnesota general hospital under the provisions of sections 158.01 to 158.11 for the hospitalization of such indigent patients. For indigent persons hospitalized pursuant to sections 261.21 to 261.232, the state shall pay ninety percent of the cost of the hospitalization of indigent persons under the provisions of sections 261.21 to 261.232 shall be paid by the state and ten percent allowable under the general assistance medical care program and ten percent of the allowable cost of hospitalization shall be paid by the county of the residence of ~~such~~ the indigent persons at ~~such~~ the times as ~~may be~~ provided for in ~~such~~ the contract; and in case of an injury or emergency requiring immediate surgical or medical treatment, for a period not to exceed 72 hours, 90 percent of the cost allowable under the general assistance medical care program shall be paid by the state and ten percent of the cost shall be paid by the county from which ~~such~~ the patient, if indigent, is certified. If the county of residence of the patient is not the county in which the patient has legal settlement for the purposes of poor relief, then the county of residence may seek reimbursement from the county in which the patient has settlement for the purposes of poor relief for all costs it has necessarily incurred and paid in connection with the hospitalization of said patient.

Sec. 25. [LEGISLATIVE AUDIT COMMISSION STUDY.]

The legislative audit commission shall investigate the feasibility, costs, benefits, and related issues associated with the state assuming the powers, duties and responsibilities of the fiscal intermediary for the medicare program under United States Code, Title 42, sections 1395 et seq. The commission shall make any recommendations it deems appropriate to the legislature and the governor no later than January 15, 1984.

Sec. 26. [RULES.]

The commissioner of public welfare may promulgate temporary and permanent rules as necessary to implement sections 4, 5, 18 to 21, and 24. The commissioner shall promulgate temporary and permanent rules to establish standards and criteria for deciding which medical assistance services require prior authorization and for deciding whether a second medical opinion is required for an elective surgery. The commissioner shall promulgate permanent rules to establish the methods and standards for determining inappropriate utilization of medical assistance services.

Sec. 27. [APPROPRIATION.]

$329,800 is appropriated from the general fund to the commissioner of public welfare for the biennium ending June 30, 1985 for the purposes of implementing the statewide program to review utilization under section 256B.04, subdivision 14. The approved complement of the department of public welfare is increased by 15 full-time positions for this purpose.

Sec. 28. [EFFECTIVE DATE.]

Sections 1 to 9 and 13 to 27 are effective the day following final enactment. Sections 10 and 11 are effective July 1, 1983. Sections 13 to 15 apply to transfers made on or after the effective date of those sections, regardless of the individual's status in relation to eligibility for medical assistance."

S.F. No. 999: A bill for an act relating to public welfare; establishing a medical assistance prepayment demonstration project; appropriating money; proposing new law coded in Minnesota Statutes, chapter 256B.

Reports the same back with the recommendation that the bill be amended as follows:

Delete everything after the enacting clause and insert:

"Section 1. [256B.70] [PREPAYMENT DEMONSTRATION PROJECT.]

Subdivision 1. [PURPOSE.] The commissioner of public welfare shall establish a medical assistance demonstration project to determine whether prepayment combined with better management of health care services is an effective mechanism to ensure that all eligible individuals receive necessary health care in a coordinated fashion while containing costs. For the purposes of this project, waiver of certain statutory provisions is necessary in accordance with this section.

Subd. 2. [DEFINITIONS.] For the purposes of this section, the following terms have the meanings given.

(a) "Commissioner" means the commissioner of public welfare. For the remainder of this section, the commissioner's responsibilities for methods and policies for implementing the project will be proposed by the project advisory committees and approved by the commissioner.

(b) "Demonstration provider" means an individual, agency, organization, or group of the aforementioned entities that participates in the demonstration project according to criteria, standards, methods, and other requirements established for the project and approved by the commissioner.

(c) "Eligible individuals" means those persons eligible for medical assistance benefits as defined in section 256B.06.

(d) "Limitation of choice" means suspending freedom of choice while allowing eligible individuals to choose among the demonstration providers.

Subd. 3. [GEOGRAPHIC AREA.] The commissioner shall designate the geographic areas in which eligible individuals may be included in the demonstration project. The geographic areas shall include one urban, one suburban, and at least one rural county. In order to encourage the participation of long-term care providers, the project area may be expanded beyond the designated counties for eligible individuals over age 65.

Subd. 4. [LIMITATION OF CHOICE.] The commissioner shall develop criteria to determine when limitation of choice may be implemented in the experimental counties. The criteria shall ensure that all eligible individuals in the county have continuing access to the full range of medical assistance services as specified in subdivision 6. Before limitation of choice is implemented, eligible individuals shall be notified and after notification, shall be allowed to choose only among demonstration providers. After initially choosing a provider, the recipient is allowed to change that choice only at specified times as allowed by the commissioner.

Subd. 5. [PROSPECTIVE PER CAPITA PAYMENT.] The project advisory committees with the commissioner shall establish the method and amount of payments for services. The commissioner shall annually contract with demonstration providers to provide services consistent with these established methods and amounts for payment. Notwithstanding section 62D.02, subdivision 1, payments for services rendered as part of the project may be made to providers that are not licensed health maintenance organizations on a risk-based, prepaid capitation basis.

If allowed by the commissioner, a demonstration provider may contract with an insurer, health care provider, nonprofit health service plan corporation, or the commissioner, to provide insurance or similar protection against the cost of care provided by the demonstration provider or to provide coverage against the risks incurred by demonstration providers under this section. The recipients enrolled with a demonstration provider are a permissible group under group insurance laws and the Nonprofit Health Service Plan Corporations Act. Under this type of contract, the insurer or corporation may make benefit payments to a demonstration provider for services rendered or to be rendered to a recipient. Any insurer or nonprofit health service plan corporation licensed to do business in this state is authorized to provide this insurance or similar protection.

Payments to providers participating in the project are exempt from the requirements of sections 256.966 and 256B.03, subdivision 2. The commissioner shall complete development of capitation rates for payments before delivery of services under this section is begun.

Subd. 6. [SERVICE DELIVERY.] Each demonstration provider shall be responsible for the health care coordination for eligible individuals. Demonstration providers:

(1) Shall authorize and arrange for the provision of all needed health services including but not limited to the full range of services listed in section 256B.02, subdivision 8, in order to ensure appropriate health care is delivered to enrollees.

(2) Shall accept the prospective, per capita payment from the commissioner in return for the provision of comprehensive and coordinated health care services for eligible individuals enrolled in the program.

(3) May contract with other health care and social service practitioners to provide services to enrollees.

(4) Shall institute recipient grievance procedures according to the method established by the project, utilizing applicable requirements of chapter 62D. Disputes not resolved through this process shall be appealable to the commissioner as provided in subdivision 11.

Subd. 7. [ENROLLEE BENEFITS.] All eligible individuals enrolled by demonstration providers shall receive all needed health care services as defined in subdivision 6.

All enrolled individuals have the right to appeal if necessary services are not being authorized as defined in subdivision 11.

Subd. 8. [PREADMISSION SCREENING WAIVER.] Except as applicable to the project's operation, the provisions of section 256B.091 are waived for the purposes of this section for recipients enrolled with demonstration providers.

Subd. 9. [REPORTING.] Each demonstration provider shall submit information as required by the commissioner, including data required for assessing client satisfaction, quality of care, cost, and utilization of services for purposes of project evaluation. Required information shall be specified before the commissioner contracts with a demonstration provider.

Subd. 10. [INFORMATION.] Notwithstanding any law or rule to the contrary, the commissioner may allow disclosure of the recipient's identity solely for the purposes of (a) allowing demonstration providers to provide the information to the recipient regarding services, access to services, and other provider characteristics, and (b) facilitating monitoring of recipient satisfaction and quality of care. The commissioner shall develop and implement measures to protect recipients from invasions of privacy and from harassment.

Subd. 11. [APPEALS.] A recipient may appeal to the commissioner a demonstration provider's delay or refusal to provide services. The commissioner shall appoint a panel of health practitioners, including social service practitioners, as necessary to determine the necessity of services provided or refused to a recipient. The deliberations and decisions of the panel replace the administrative review process otherwise available under chapter 256B. The panel shall follow the time requirements and other provisions of the Code of Federal Regulations, title 42, sections 431.200 to 431.246. The time requirements shall be expedited based on request by the individual who is appealing for emergency services. If a service is determined to be necessary and is included among the benefits for which a recipient is enrolled, the service must be provided by the demonstration provider as specified in subdivision 5.

Sec. 2. [TEMPORARY RULES.]

The commissioner of public welfare shall adopt temporary rules which meet the requirements of sections 14.29 to 14.36. Notwithstanding the provisions of section 14.35, the temporary rules promulgated to implement sections 1 to 3 shall be effective for 360 days and may be continued in effect for an additional 900 days if the commissioner gives notice by publishing a notice in the state register and mailing notice to all persons registered with the commissioner to receive notice of rulemaking proceedings in connection with sections 1 to 3. The temporary rules shall not be effective beyond December 31, 1986, without meeting the requirements of sections 14.13 to 14.20.

Sec. 3. [APPROPRIATION.]

There is appropriated from the general fund to the commissioner of public welfare the sum of $..... for the purposes of sections 1 and 2. This appropriation is available for the biennium ending June 30, 1985.

Sec. 4. [EFFECTIVE DATE.]

Sections 1 to 3 are effective the day following final enactment. If the project implementation phase has not begun by June 30, 1985, sections 1 to 3 are repealed on that date.'

And when so amended the bill do pass and be re-referred to the Committee on Finance. Amendments adopted. Report adopted.

Mr. Willet from the Committee on Finance, to which was referred

H.F. No. 76: A bill for an act relating to the environment; establishing an environmental response, compensation and compliance fund to pay for removal and remedial action associated with certain hazardous substances released into the environment and for other purposes; providing for liability for cleanup costs, personal injury, economic loss, and damage to natural resources resulting from releases of hazardous substances; imposing taxes, fees, and penalties; providing for injunctive relief; appropriating money; amending Minnesota Statutes 1982, sections 115A.24, subdivision 1; 466.01, by adding a subdivision; and 466.04, subdivision 1; proposing new law coded in Minnesota Statutes, chapter 116; proposing new law coded as Minnesota Statutes, chapter 115B; repealing Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 115A.24, subdivision 2.

Reports the same back with the recommendation that the bill be amended as follows:

Delete everything after the enacting clause and insert:

“Section 1. [115B.01] [CITATION.]

Sections 1 to 20 may be cited as the Environmental Response and Liability Act.

Sec. 2. [115B.02] [DEFINITIONS.]

Subdivision 1. [APPLICATION.] For the purposes of sections 1 to 20, the following terms have the meanings given them.

Subd. 2. [ACT OF GOD.] “Act of God” means an unanticipated grave natural disaster or other natural phenomenon of an exceptional, inevitable, and irresistible character, the effects of which could not have been prevented or avoided by the exercise of due care or foresight.

Subd. 3. [AGENCY.] “Agency” means the pollution control agency.

Subd. 4. [DIRECTOR.] “Director” means the director of the pollution control agency.

Subd. 5. [FACILITY.] “Facility” means:

(a) Any building, structure, installation, equipment, pipe or pipeline (including any pipe into a sewer or publicly owned treatment works), well, pit, pond, lagoon, impoundment, ditch, landfill, storage container, motor vehicle, rolling stock, or aircraft;

(b) Any watercraft of any description, or other artificial contrivance used or capable of being used as a means of transportation on water; or

(c) Any site or area where a hazardous substance, or a pollutant or contaminant, has been deposited, stored, disposed of, or placed, or otherwise come to be located.

“Facility” does not include any consumer product in consumer use.

Subd. 6. [FEDERAL SUPERFUND ACT.] “Federal Superfund Act” means the Comprehensive Environmental Response, Compensation and Liability Act of 1980, 42 U.S.C. Section 9601 et seq.

Subd. 7. [FUND.] “Fund” means the environmental response, compensation and compliance fund established under section 20.

Subd. 8. [HAZARDOUS SUBSTANCE.] “Hazardous substance” means:

(a) Any commercial chemical designated pursuant to the Federal Water Pollution Control Act, under 33 U.S.C. Section 1321(b)(2)(A);

(b) Any hazardous air pollutant listed pursuant to the Clean Air Act, under 42 U.S.C. Section 7412; and

(c) Any hazardous waste.

“Hazardous substance” does not include natural gas, natural gas liquids, liquefied natural gas, synthetic gas usable for fuel, or mixtures of such synthetic gas and natural gas, nor does it include petroleum, including crude oil or any fraction thereof which is not otherwise a hazardous waste.

Subd. 9. [HAZARDOUS WASTE.] “Hazardous waste” means:

(a) Any hazardous waste as defined in section 116.06, subdivision 13, and any substance identified as a hazardous waste pursuant to rules adopted by the agency under section 116.07; and

(b) Any hazardous waste as defined in the Resource Conservation and Recovery Act, under 42 U.S.C. Section 6903, which is listed or has the characteristics identified under 42 U.S.C. Section 6921, not including any hazardous waste the regulation of which has been suspended by act of Congress.

Subd. 10. [NATURAL RESOURCES.] "Natural resources" has the meaning given it in section 116B.02, subdivision 4.

Subd. 11. [OWNER OF REAL PROPERTY.] "Owner of real property" means a person who is in possession of, has the right of control, or controls the use of real property, including without limitation a person who may be a fee owner, lessee, renter, tenant, lessor, contract for deed vendee, licensor, licensee, or occupant.

Any person owning or holding a remainder or other nonpossessory interest or estate in real property shall become an owner of real property only from and after the time that person's interest or estate in the real property vests in actual possession or after that person obtains the unconditioned right to possession or control of the real property.

Subd. 12. [PERSON.] "Person" means any individual, partnership, association, public or private corporation, or other entity, including the United States government, any interstate body, and the state and any agency, department or political subdivision of the state.

Subd. 13. [POLLUTANT OR CONTAMINANT.] "Pollutant or contaminant" means any element, substance, compound, mixture, or agent, other than a hazardous substance, which after release from a facility and upon exposure of, ingestion, inhalation, or assimilation into any organism, either directly from the environment or indirectly by ingestion through food chains, will or may reasonably be anticipated to cause death, disease, behavioral abnormalities, cancer, genetic mutation, physiological malfunctions, (including malfunctions in reproduction) or physical deformations, in the organisms or their offspring.

"Pollutant or contaminant" does not include natural gas, natural gas liquids, liquefied natural gas, synthetic gas usable for fuel, or mixtures of such synthetic gas and natural gas.

Subd. 14. [RELEASE.] "Release" means any spilling, leaking, pumping, pouring, emitting, emptying, discharging, injecting, escaping, leaching, dumping, or disposing into the environment which occurred at a point in time or which continues to occur.

"Release" does not include:

by (a) Emissions from the engine exhaust of a motor vehicle, rolling stock, aircraft, watercraft, or pipeline pumping station engine;

(b) Release of source, byproduct, or special nuclear material from a nuclear incident, as those terms are defined in the Atomic Energy Act of 1954, under 42 U.S.C. Section 2014, if the release is subject to requirements with respect to financial protection established by the federal nuclear regulatory commission under 42 U.S.C. Section 2210;

(c) Release of source, byproduct or special nuclear material from any processing site designated pursuant to the Uranium Mill Tailings Radiation Control Act of 1978, under 42 U.S.C. Section 7912(a)(1) or 7942(a); or

(d) Any release resulting from the application of fertilizer or agricultural or silvicultural chemicals, or disposal of emptied pesticide containers or residues from a pesticide as defined in section 18A.21, subdivision 25.

Subd. 15. [REMEDY OR REMEDIAL ACTION.] "Remedy" or "remedial action" means those actions consistent with permanent remedy taken instead of or in addition to removal actions in the event of a release or threatened release of a hazardous substance, or a pollutant or contaminant, into the environment, to prevent, minimize or eliminate the release in order to protect the public health or welfare or the environment.

"Remedy" or "remedial action" includes, but is not limited to:

(a) Actions at the location of the release such as storage, confinement, perimeter protection using dikes, trenches, or ditches, clay cover, neutralization, cleanup of released hazardous substances, pollutants or contaminants, or contaminated materials, recycling or reuse, diversion, destruction, segregation of reactive wastes, dredging or excavations, repair or replacement of leaking containers, collection of leachate and runoff, onsite treatment or incineration, provision of alternative water supplies, and any monitoring and maintenance reasonably required to assure that these actions protect the public health and welfare and the environment; and

(b) The costs of permanent relocation of residents and businesses and community facilities when the agency determines that, alone or in combination with other measures, relocation is more cost effective than and environmentally preferable to the transportation, storage, treatment, destruction, or secure disposition offsite of hazardous substances, or pollutants or contaminants, or may otherwise be necessary to protect the public health or welfare.

"Remedy" or "remedial action" does not include offsite transport of hazardous substances, pollutants or contaminants, or contaminated materials or their storage, treatment, destruction, or secure disposition offsite unless the agency determines that these actions:

(1) Are more cost effective than other remedial actions;

(2) Will create new capacity to manage hazardous substances in addition to those located at the affected facility, in compliance with section 116.07 and subtitle C of the Solid Waste Disposal Act, 42 U.S.C. Section 6921 et seq.; or

(3) Are necessary to protect public health or welfare or the environment from a present or potential risk which may be created by further exposure to the continued presence of the hazardous substances, pollutants or contaminants, or contaminated materials.

Subd. 16. [REMOVE OR REMOVAL.] "Remove" or "removal" means:

(a) The cleanup or removal of a released hazardous substance, or a pollutant or contaminant, from the environment;

(b) Necessary actions taken in the event of a threatened release of a hazardous substance, or a pollutant or contaminant, into the environment;

(c) Actions necessary to monitor, assess, and evaluate a release or threatened release of a hazardous substance, or a pollutant or contaminant;

(d) Disposal or processing of removed material; or

(e) Other actions necessary to prevent, minimize, or mitigate damage to the public health or welfare or to the environment, which may otherwise result from a release or threatened release.

“Remove” or “removal” includes, but is not limited to, security fencing or other measures to limit access, provision of alternative water supplies, temporary evacuation and housing of threatened individuals not otherwise provided for, action taken pursuant to the Federal Superfund Act, under 42 U.S.C. Section 9604(b), and any emergency assistance which may be provided under the Disaster Relief Act of 1974, 42 U.S.C. Section 5121 et seq.

Subd. 17. [RESPOND OR RESPONSE.] “Respond” or “response” means remove, removal, remedy, and remedial action.

Subd. 18. [WATER.] “Water” has the meaning given to the term “waters of the state” in section 115.01, subdivision 9.

Sec. 3. [115B.03] [RESPONSIBLE PERSON.]

Subdivision 1. [GENERAL RULE.] For the purposes of sections 1 to 20, and except as provided in subdivisions 2 and 3, a person is responsible for a release or threatened release of a hazardous substance, or a pollutant or contaminant, from a facility if the person:

(a) Possessed with the right of control, controlled the use of, or operated the facility: (1) when the hazardous substance, or pollutant or contaminant, was placed or came to be located in or on the facility; (2) when the hazardous substance, or pollutant or contaminant, was located in or on the facility but before the release; or (3) during the time of the release or threatened release;

(b) Owned or possessed the hazardous substance, or pollutant or contaminant, and arranged, by contract, agreement or otherwise, for the disposal, treatment or transport for disposal or treatment of the hazardous substance, or pollutant or contaminant; or

(c) Knew or reasonably should have known that the waste he accepted for transport to a disposal or treatment facility contained a hazardous substance, or pollutant or contaminant, and either selected the facility to which it was transported or disposed of it in a manner contrary to law.

Subd. 2. [EMPLOYEES AND EMPLOYERS.] When a person who is responsible for a release or threatened release as provided in subdivision 1 is an employee who is acting in the scope of his employment:

(a) The employee is subject to liability under section 4 or section 5 only if his conduct with respect to the hazardous substance was negligent under circumstances in which he knew that the substance was hazardous and that his conduct, if negligent, could result in serious harm; and regardless of the degree of care exercised by the employee.

(b) His employer shall be considered a person responsible for the release or threatened release and is subject to liability under section 4 or section 5

Subd. 3. [OWNER OF REAL PROPERTY.] An owner of real property is not a person responsible for the release or threatened release of a hazardous substance from a facility in or on the property unless that person:

(a) Was engaged in the business of generating, transporting, storing, treating, or disposing of a hazardous substance at the facility or disposing of waste at the facility, or knowingly permitted others to engage in such a business at the facility;

(b) Knowingly permitted any person to make regular use of the facility for disposal of waste;

(c) Knowingly permitted any person to use the facility for disposal of a hazardous substance;

(d) Knew or reasonably should have known that a hazardous substance was located in or on the facility at the time right, title, or interest in the property was first acquired by the person and engaged in conduct by which he associated himself with the release; or

(e) Took action which significantly contributed to the release after he knew or reasonably should have known that a hazardous substance was located in or on the property.

In determining whether any person acquiring any right, title, or interest in the real property or the owner of real property knew or reasonably should have known that a hazardous substance was located in or on the facility at the time he either acquired his interest in the property or became an owner of real property, he may rely upon a written warranty, representation, or undertaking set forth in any instrument conveying any right, title, or interest in the real property executed by the person conveying the right, title, or interest, or set forth in any memorandum of any such instrument executed for the purpose of recording. The written warranty, representation, or undertaking is admissible as evidence in any action involving the acquiring person's knowledge or duty to know of the location of a hazardous substance on or in the property and is prima facie evidence of the facts set forth in it and of the acquiring person's knowledge or duty to investigate; or Any liabilities or causes of action accruing hereunder during the time the owner of real property is in possession with the right of control or has control of the real property shall not accrue against such other persons holding any right, title, or interest in the real property.

Sec. 4. [115B.04] [LIABILITY FOR RESPONSE COSTS AND NATURAL RESOURCES; LIMITATIONS AND DEFENSES.]

Subdivision 1. [LIABILITY.] Except as otherwise provided in subdivisions 2 to 10, and notwithstanding any other provision or rule of law, any person who is responsible for a release or threatened release of a hazardous substance from a facility is strictly liable, jointly and severally, for the following response costs and damages which result from the release or threatened release or to which the release or threatened release significantly contributes:

(a) All reasonable and necessary costs of removal, or remedial action incurred by the state, a political subdivision of the state or the United States;

(b) Any other reasonable and necessary costs or expenses incurred by any person to remove a hazardous substance; and

(c) All damages for any injury to, destruction of, or loss of natural resources, including the reasonable costs of assessing such injury, destruction, or loss.

Subd. 2. [LIABILITY FOR POLLUTANT OR CONTAMINANT EXCLUDED.] There is no liability under this section for response costs or damages which result from the release of a pollutant or contaminant.

Subd. 3. [LIABILITY FOR A THREATENED RELEASE.] Liability under this section for a threatened release of a hazardous substance is limited to the recovery by the agency of reasonable and necessary response costs as provided in section 17, subdivision 6.

Subd. 4. [TRANSPORTATION OF HOUSEHOLD REFUSE.] A person who accepts only household refuse for transport to a treatment or disposal facility is not liable under this section for the release or threatened release of any hazardous substance unless he knew or reasonably should have known that the hazardous substance was present in the refuse. For the purpose of this subdivision, household refuse means garbage, trash, or septic tank sanitary wastes generated by single or multiple residences, hotels, motels, restaurants and other similar facilities.

Subd. 5. [DEFENSE TO CERTAIN CLAIMS BY POLITICAL SUBDIVISIONS AND PRIVATE PERSONS.] It is a defense to a claim by a political subdivision or private person for recovery of the costs of its response actions under this section that the hazardous substance released from the facility was placed or came to be located in the facility before April 1, 1982, and that the response actions of the political subdivision or private person were not authorized by the agency as provided in section 17, subdivision 12. This defense applies only to response costs incurred on or after July 1, 1983.

Subd. 6. [DEFENSE FOR INTERVENING ACTS.] It is a defense to liability under this section that the release or threatened release was caused solely by:

(a) An act of God;

(b) An act of war;

(c) An act of vandalism or sabotage; or

(d) An act or omission of a third party or the plaintiff.

“Third party” for the purposes of clause (d) does not include an employee or agent of the defendant, or a person in the chain of responsibility for the generation, transportation, storage, treatment, or disposal of the hazardous substance.

The defense provided in clause (d) applies only if the defendant establishes that he exercised due care with respect to the hazardous substance concerned, taking into consideration the characteristics of the hazardous substance in light of all relevant facts and circumstances which he knew or should have known, and that he took precautions against foreseeable acts or omissions of a third party and the consequences that could foreseeably result from those acts or omissions.

Subd. 7. [RELEASES SUBJECT TO CERTAIN PERMITS OR STANDARDS; FEDERAL POST-CLOSURE FUND.] It is a defense to liability under this section that:

(a) The release or threatened release was from a hazardous waste facility as defined under section 115A.03, for which a permit had been issued pursuant to section 116.07 or pursuant to subtitle C of the Solid Waste Disposal Act, 42 U.S.C. Section 6921 et seq., and if the hazardous substance was specifically identified in the permit and the release was within the limits allowed in the permit for release of that substance;

(b) The hazardous substance released was specifically identified in a federal or state permit and the release is within the limits allowed in the permit;

(c) The release resulted from circumstances identified and reviewed and made a part of the public record of a federal or state agency with respect to a permit issued or modified under federal or state law, and the release conformed with the permit;

(d) The release was any part of an emission or discharge into the air or water and the emission or discharge was subject to a federal or state permit and was in compliance with control rules or regulations adopted pursuant to state or federal law;

(e) The release was the introduction of any hazardous substance into a publicly owned treatment works and the substance was specified in, and is in compliance with, applicable pretreatment standards specified for that substance under state and federal law; or

(f) Liability has been assumed by the federal post-closure liability fund under 42 U.S.C. Section 9607(k).

Subd. 8. [NATURAL RESOURCES.] It is a defense to liability under this section, for the loss of, destruction of, or injury to natural resources that:

(a) The natural resources were specifically identified as an irreversible and irretrievable commitment of natural resources in an approved final state or federal environmental impact statement, or other comparable approved final environmental analysis for a project or facility which was the subject of a governmental permit or license; and

(b) The project or facility was being operated within the terms of its permit or license.

Subd. 9. [RENDERING ASSISTANCE IN RESPONSE ACTIONS.] It is a defense to liability under this section that the response costs or damages resulted from acts taken or omitted in preparation for, or in the course of rendering care, assistance, or advice to the director or agency pursuant to section 17 or in accordance with the national hazardous substance response plan pursuant to the Federal Superfund Act, under 42 U.S.C. Section 9605, or at the direction of an on-scene coordinator appointed under that plan, with respect to any release or threatened release of a hazardous substance.

Subd. 10. [BURDEN OF PROOF FOR DEFENSES.] Any person claiming a defense provided in subdivisions 5 to 9 has the burden to prove all elements of the defense by a preponderance of the evidence.

Sec. 5. [115B.05] [LIABILITY FOR ECONOMIC LOSS, DEATH, PERSONAL INJURY AND DISEASE; LIMITATIONS AND DEFENSES.]

Subdivision 1. [LIABILITY.] Except as otherwise provided in subdivisions 2 to 8, and notwithstanding any other provision or rule of law, any person who is responsible for the release of a hazardous substance from a facility is strictly liable, jointly and severally, for the following damages which result from the release or to which the release significantly contributes:

(a) All damages for actual economic loss resulting from such a release including:

(1) Any injury to, destruction of, or loss of any real or personal property, including relocation costs;

(2) Any loss of use of real or personal property;

(3) Any loss of past or future income or profits resulting from injury to or destruction of real or personal property without regard to the ownership of the property; and

(b) All damages for death or personal injury or disease including:

(1) Any medical expenses, rehabilitation costs or burial expenses;

(2) Any loss of past or future income, or loss of earning capacity, resulting from personal injury or disease; and

(3) Damages for physical impairment or other pain and suffering.

Subd. 2. [LIABILITY FOR POLLUTANT OR CONTAMINANT EXCLUDED.] There is no liability under this section for damages which result from the release of a pollutant or contaminant.

Subd. 3. [CERTAIN EMPLOYEE CLAIMS NOT COVERED.] Except for a third party who is subject to liability under section 176.061, subdivision 5, there is no liability under this section for the death, personal injury or disease of an employee which is compensable under chapter 176 as an injury or disease arising out of and in the course of employment.

Subd. 4. [TRANSPORTATION OF HOUSEHOLD REFUSE.] A person who accepts only household refuse for transport to a treatment or disposal facility is not liable under this section for the release or threatened release of any hazardous substance unless he knew or reasonably should have known that the hazardous substance was present in the refuse. For the purpose of this subdivision, household refuse means garbage, trash, or septic tank sanitary wastes generated by single or multiple residences, hotels, motels, restaurants and other similar facilities.

Subd. 5. [DEFENSE FOR INTERVENING ACTS.] It is a defense to liability under this section that the release or threatened release was caused solely by:

(a) An act of God;

(b) An act of war;

(c) An act of vandalism or sabotage; or

(d) An act or omission of a third party or the plaintiff.

“Third party” for the purposes of clause (d) does not include an employee or agent of the defendant, or a person in the chain of responsibility for the generation, transportation, storage, treatment, or disposal of the hazardous substance.

The defense provided in clause (d) applies only if the defendant establishes that he exercised due care with respect to the hazardous substance concerned, taking into consideration the characteristics of the hazardous substance in light of all relevant facts and circumstances which he knew or should have known, and that he took precautions against foreseeable acts or omissions of a third party and the consequences that could foreseeably result from those acts or omissions.

Subd. 6. [RELEASES SUBJECT TO CERTAIN PERMITS OR STANDARDS; FEDERAL POST-CLOSURE FUND.] It is a defense to liability under this section that:

(a) The release or threatened release was from a hazardous waste facility as defined under section 115A.03, for which a permit had been issued pursuant to section 116.07 or pursuant to subtitle C of the Solid Waste Disposal Act, 42 U.S.C. Section 6921 et seq., and if the hazardous substance was specifically identified in the permit and the release was within the limits allowed in the permit for release of that substance;

(b) The hazardous substance released was specifically identified in a federal or state permit and the release is within the limits allowed in the permit;

(c) The release resulted from circumstances identified and reviewed and made a part of the public record of a federal or state agency with respect to a permit issued or modified under federal or state law, and the release conformed with the permit;

(d) The release was any part of an emission or discharge into the air or water and the emission or discharge was subject to a federal or state permit and was in compliance with control rules or regulations adopted pursuant to state or federal law;

(e) The release was the introduction of any hazardous substance into a publicly owned treatment works and the substance was specified in, and is in compliance with, applicable pretreatment standards specified for that substance under state and federal law; or

(f) Liability has been assumed by the federal post-closure liability fund under 42 U.S.C. Section 9607(k).

Subd. 7. [RENDERING ASSISTANCE IN RESPONSE ACTIONS.] It is a defense to liability under this section that the damages resulted from acts taken or omitted in preparation for, or in the course of rendering care, assistance, or advice to the director or agency pursuant to section 17 or in accordance with the national hazardous substance response plan pursuant to the Federal Superfund Act, under 42 U.S.C. Section 9605, or at the direction of an on-scene coordinator appointed under that plan, with respect to any release or threatened release of a hazardous substance.

Subd. 8. [BURDEN OF PROOF FOR DEFENSES.] Any person claiming a defense provided in subdivisions 5 to 7 has the burden to prove all elements of the defense by a preponderance of the evidence.

Sec. 6. [115B.06] [RETROACTIVE APPLICATION.]

Notwithstanding any provision or rule of law, if a defendant shows that his hazardous substance was placed or came to be located in or on the facility on or before April 1, 1963, sections 5, 7, 8, 10, and 13 do not apply to any claim or proceeding for personal injury, death, disease, or economic loss or other harm or loss subject to section 5.

Sec. 7. [115B.07] [CAUSATION.]

In any action brought under section 5 or any other law to recover damages for death, personal injury, or disease arising out of the release of a hazardous substance, if the plaintiff produces evidence sufficient to enable a reasonable person to find that:

(a) There was a release of a hazardous substance;

(b) Defendant was a responsible person with respect to the release;

(c) The plaintiff was exposed to the hazardous substance;

(d) The hazardous substance to which the plaintiff was exposed was the same kind of substance as that which was released from the facility;

(e) The death, injury or disease suffered by the plaintiff is caused or significantly contributed to by exposure to the hazardous substance in an amount and duration experienced by the plaintiff;

then the court may not direct a verdict against the plaintiff on the issue of causation.

Evidence to a reasonable medical certainty that exposure to the hazardous substance caused or significantly contributed to the death, injury or disease is not required for the question of causation to be submitted to the trier of fact.

Nothing in this section shall be construed to relieve the plaintiff of the burden of proving the causal connection between the release of the hazardous substance and the plaintiff's death, injury or disease, or that a defendant is a person responsible for the release of the hazardous substance from the facility.

Sec. 8. [115B.08] [COMPARATIVE FAULT OF PLAINTIFF AND DEFENDANT; LIABILITY LIMITED; CONTRIBUTION.]

Subdivision 1. [COMPARATIVE FAULT.] In an action under section 5, the court may, and when requested by any party shall, direct the jury to find separate special verdicts determining the amount of damages that are recoverable in the action, and the percentage of fault attributable to each party. The court shall then reduce the amount of damages that are recoverable by the percentage of fault attributable to the plaintiff.

Subd. 2. [FAULT ATTRIBUTABLE TO PLAINTIFF.] For the purpose of subdivision 1, fault attributable to a plaintiff is limited to:

(a) Voluntary assumption of a known risk; or

(b) Knowingly and unreasonably subjecting himself to a risk which results from the special or unusual character of the hazardous substance.

A plaintiff does not assume a risk for purposes of clause (a) if, in order to avoid assuming the risk, the plaintiff would be required to forego the exercise of a valuable right or privilege.

Subd. 3. [FAULT ATTRIBUTABLE TO DEFENDANT.] For the purpose of subdivision 1, the following factors shall be considered in determining the percentage of fault attributable to a defendant:

(a) The extent to which the defendant's contribution to the release of a hazardous substance can be distinguished;

(b) The amount of hazardous substance involved;

(c) The degree of toxicity of the hazardous substance involved;

(d) The degree of involvement of and care exercised by the defendant in manufacturing, treating, transporting, and disposing of the hazardous substance;

(e) The degree of cooperation by the defendant with federal, state, or local officials to prevent any harm to the public health or the environment; and

(f) Knowledge of the defendant of the hazardous nature of the substance.

The burden is on a defendant to show the percentage of fault which is attributable to him or to other defendants.

Subd. 4. [LIMITATION OF LIABILITY.] If the percentage of fault attributable to a defendant is determined as provided in this section, the defendant shall be liable for that percentage of the damages recoverable in the action.

Subd. 5. [CONTRIBUTION.] Any defendant held liable for damages which exceed that proportion of the damages recoverable in the action which is attributable to the fault of the defendant is entitled to seek contribution from any other defendant to the extent of that other defendant's proportionate share of the damages.

Sec. 9. [115B.09] [AGREEMENTS TO TRANSFER LIABILITY; INSURANCE AND SUBROGATION.]

No conveyance, indemnification, hold harmless agreement, or similar agreement shall be effective to transfer the liability imposed under sections 1 to 15 from the owner or operator of a facility or from any person who may be liable under those sections to any other person. Nothing in this section shall be construed:

(a) To prohibit any party who may be liable under sections 1 to 15 from entering an agreement by which that party is insured, held harmless or indemnified for part or all of that liability;

(b) To prohibit the enforcement of any insurance, hold harmless or indemnification agreement; or

(c) To bar any cause of action brought by a party who may be liable under sections 1 to 15 or by an insurer or guarantor, whether by right of subrogation or otherwise.

Sec. 10. [115B.10] [STATUTE OF LIMITATIONS.]

No person may recover pursuant to sections 1 to 15 unless the action is commenced within six years from the date when the cause of action accrues. In determining when the cause of action accrues for an action to recover damages for death, personal injury or disease, the court may consider factors including the following:

(a) When the plaintiff discovered the injury or loss;

(b) Whether a personal injury or disease had sufficiently manifested itself; and

(c) When the plaintiff discovered, or using due diligence should have discovered, a causal connection between the injury, disease, or loss and the release of a hazardous substance.

Sec. 11. [115B.11] [OTHER REMEDIES PRESERVED.]

Nothing in sections 1 to 15 shall be construed to abolish or diminish any remedy or affect the right of any person to bring a legal action or use any remedy available under any other provision of state or federal law, including common law, to recover for personal injury, disease, economic loss or response costs arising out of a release of any hazardous substance, or for removal or the costs of removal of that hazardous substance. Nothing in sections 1 to 15 shall be construed to limit or restrict in any way the liability of any person under any other state or federal law, including common law, for loss due to personal injury or disease, for economic loss, or for response costs arising out of any release or threatened release of a hazardous substance from a facility regardless of the time at which a hazardous substance was placed or came to be located in the facility. The provisions of sections 1 to 15 shall not be considered, interpreted, or construed in any way as reflecting a determination, in whole or in part, of policy regarding the inapplicability of strict liability, or strict liability doctrines under any other state or federal law, including common law, to activities past, present or future, relating to hazardous substances, or pollutants or contaminants, or other similar activities.

Sec. 12. [115B.12] [DOUBLE RECOVERY PROHIBITED.]

A person who recovers response costs or damages pursuant to sections 1 to 15 may not recover the same costs or damages pursuant to any other law. A person who recovers response costs or damages pursuant to any other state or federal law may not recover for the same costs or damages pursuant to sections 1 to 15.

Sec. 13. [115B.13] [AWARD OF COSTS.]

Upon motion of a party prevailing in an action under sections 1 to 15 the court may award costs, disbursements and reasonable attorney fees and witness fees to that party.

Sec. 14. [115B.14] [STATE AND POLITICAL SUBDIVISION LIABILITY.]

Notwithstanding any other provision or rule of law, including sections 3.732 to 3.84 and chapter 466, the state and political subdivisions shall be subject to the same liability, responsibility, and proceedings as a private individual for claims arising out of the release or threatened release of hazardous substances or pollutants and contaminants.

Sec. 15. [115B.15] [APPLICATION OF SECTIONS 1 TO 15.]

Sections 1 to 15 apply to any release or threatened release of a hazardous substance occurring on or after July 1, 1983, including any release which began before July 1, 1983, and continued after that date. Sections 1 to 15 do not apply to a release or threatened release which occurred wholly before July 1, 1983, regardless of the date of discovery of any injury or loss caused by the release or threatened release.

Sec. 16. [115B.16] [DISPOSITION OF FACILITIES.]

Subdivision 1. [CLOSED DISPOSAL FACILITIES; USE OF PROPERTY.] No person shall use any property on or in which hazardous waste remains after closure of a disposal facility as defined in section 115A.03, subdivision 10, in any way that disturbs the integrity of the final cover, liners, or any other components of any containment system, or the function of the disposal facility's monitoring systems, unless the agency finds that the disturbance:

(a) Is necessary to the proposed use of the property, and will not increase the potential hazard to human health or the environment; or

(b) Is necessary to reduce a threat to human health or the environment.

Subd. 2. [RECORDING OF AFFIDAVIT.] Before any transfer of ownership of any property which a person having any right, title, or interest in real property knew or should have known was used as the site of a hazardous waste disposal facility as defined in section 115A.03, subdivision 10, or which the owner knew or should have known is subject to extensive contamination by release of a hazardous substance, the owner shall record with the county recorder of the county in which the property is located an affidavit containing a legal description of the property that discloses to any potential transferee:

(a) That the land has been used to dispose of hazardous waste or that the land is contaminated by a release of a hazardous substance;

(b) The identity, quantity, location, condition and circumstances of the disposal or contamination to the full extent known; and

(c) That the use of the property or some portion of it may be restricted as provided in subdivision 1.

An owner must also file an affidavit within 60 days after any material change in any matter required to be disclosed under clauses (a) to (c) with respect to property for which an affidavit has already been recorded.

If the owner or any subsequent owner of the property removes the hazardous substance, together with any residues, liner, and contaminated underlying and surrounding soil, that owner may record an affidavit indicating the removal of the hazardous substance.

Failure to record an affidavit as provided in this subdivision does not affect or prevent any transfer of ownership of the property.

Subd. 3. [DUTY OF COUNTY RECORDER.] The county recorder shall record all affidavits presented to him in accordance with subdivision 2. The affidavits shall be recorded in a manner which will assure their disclosure in the ordinary course of a title search of the subject property.

Subd. 4. [PENALTIES.] (a) Any person who knowingly violates the provisions of subdivision 1 is subject to a civil penalty in an amount determined by the court of not more than $100,000, and shall be liable under sections 4 and 5 for any release or threatened release of any hazardous substance resulting from the violation.

(b) Any person who knowingly fails to record an affidavit as required by subdivision 2 shall be liable under sections 4 and 5 for any release or threatened release of any hazardous substance from a facility located on that property.

(c) A civil penalty may be imposed and recovered by an action brought by a county attorney or by the attorney general in the district court of the county in which the property is located.

(d) Any civil fines recovered under this subdivision shall be deposited in the fund.

Sec. 17. [115B.17] [STATE RESPONSE TO RELEASES.]

Subdivision 1. [REMOVAL AND REMEDIAL ACTION.] Whenever there is a release or substantial threat of release from a facility of any pollutant or contaminant which presents an imminent and substantial danger to the public health or welfare, or whenever a hazardous substance is released or there is a threatened release of a hazardous substance from a facility:

(a) The agency may take any removal or remedial action relating to the hazardous substance, or pollutant or contaminant, which the agency deems necessary to protect the public health or welfare or the environment. Before taking any action the agency shall:

(1) Request any responsible party known to the agency to take actions which the agency deems reasonable and necessary to protect the public health, welfare or the environment, stating the reasons for the actions, a reasonable time for beginning and completing the actions taking into account the urgency of the actions for protecting the public health, welfare and environment, and the intention of the agency to take action if the requested actions are not taken as requested;

(2) Notify any person having any right, title, or interest in the real property where the facility is located or where response actions are proposed to be taken, if the person is not a responsible party, that responsible parties have been requested to take response actions and that the owner's cooperation will be required in order for responsible parties or the agency to take those actions; and

(3) Determine that the actions requested by the agency will not be taken by any known responsible party in the manner and within the time requested.

(b) The director may take removal action which he deems necessary to protect the public health, welfare or the environment if the director determines that the release or threatened release constitutes an emergency requiring immediate action to prevent, minimize or mitigate damage to the public health, welfare or the environment. Before taking any action the director shall make reasonable efforts in light of the urgency of the action to follow the procedure provided in clause (a).

No removal action taken by any person shall be construed as an admission of liability for a release or threatened release.

Subd. 2. [OTHER ACTIONS.] Whenever the agency or director is authorized to act pursuant to subdivision 1 or whenever the agency or director has reason to believe that a release of a hazardous substance, or a pollutant or contaminant, has occurred or is about to occur, or that illness, disease, or complaints thereof may be attributable to exposure to a hazardous substance, or a pollutant or contaminant, the agency or director may undertake investigations, monitoring, surveys, testing, and other similar activities necessary or appropriate to identify the existence and extent of the release or threat thereof, the source and nature of the hazardous substances, or pollutants or contaminants, and the extent of danger to the public health or welfare or to the environment. In addition, the agency may undertake planning, legal, fiscal, economic, engineering, architectural, and other studies or investigations necessary or appropriate to plan and direct a response action, to recover the costs of the response action, and to enforce the provisions of sections 1 to 18.

Subd. 3. [DUTY TO PROVIDE INFORMATION.] Any person who the agency has reason to believe is responsible for a release or threatened release as provided in section 3, or who is a person having any right, title, or interest in the real property where the release or threatened release is located or where response actions are proposed to be taken, when requested by the agency, or any member, employee or agent thereof who is authorized by the agency, shall furnish to the agency any information which he may have or may reasonably obtain which is relevant to the release or threatened release.

Subd. 4. [ACCESS TO INFORMATION AND PROPERTY.] The agency or any member, employee or agent thereof authorized by the agency, upon presentation of credentials, may:

(a) Examine and copy any books, papers, records, memoranda or data of any person who has a duty to provide information to the agency under subdivision 3; and

(b) Enter upon any property, public or private, for the purpose of taking any action authorized by this section including obtaining information from any person who has a duty to provide the information under subdivision 3, conducting surveys or investigations, and taking removal or remedial action.

Subd. 5. [CLASSIFICATION OF DATA.] Except as otherwise provided in this subdivision, data obtained from any person pursuant to subdivision 3 or 4 is public data as defined in section 13.02. Upon certification by the subject of the data that the data relates to sales figures, processes or methods of production unique to that person, or information which would tend to affect adversely the competitive position of that person, the director shall classify the data as private or nonpublic data as defined in section 13.02. Notwithstanding any other law to the contrary, data classified as private or nonpublic under this subdivision may be disclosed when relevant in any proceeding under sections 1 to 18, or to other public agencies concerned with the implementation of sections 1 to 18.

Subd. 6. [RECOVERY OF EXPENSES.] Any reasonable and necessary expenses incurred by the agency or director pursuant to this section, including all response costs, and administrative and legal expenses, may be recovered in a civil action brought by the attorney general against any person who may be liable under section 4 or any other law. The agency's certification of expenses shall be prima facie evidence that the expenses are reasonable and necessary. Any expenses incurred pursuant to this section which are recovered by the attorney general pursuant to section 4 or any other law, including any award of attorneys fees, shall be deposited in the fund and credited to a special account for additional response actions as provided in section 20, subdivision 2, clause (b) or (d).

Subd. 7. [ACTIONS RELATING TO NATURAL RESOURCES.] For the purpose of this subdivision, the state is the trustee of the air, water and wildlife of the state. An action pursuant to section 4 for damages with respect to air, water or wildlife may be brought by the attorney general in the name of the state as trustee for those natural resources. Any damages recovered by the attorney general pursuant to section 4 or any other law for injury to, or loss of natural resources resulting from the release of a hazardous substance, or a pollutant or contaminant, shall be deposited in the fund and credited to a special account for the purposes provided in section 20, subdivision 2, clause (f).

Subd. 8. [ACTIONS RELATING TO PESTICIDES OR FERTILIZER OR SOIL OR PLANT AMENDMENTS.] When the commissioner of agriculture has reported an incident involving the release of pesticides under the provisions of section 18A.37 or the release of fertilizers or soil or plant amendments, and the agency determines that the incident constitutes a release of a hazardous substance, or a pollutant or contaminant, the agency shall authorize the commissioner, subject to the provisions of subdivision 13, to take any action which the agency would be authorized to take under subdivisions 1 to 4. Subject to the provisions of section 20, subdivision 3, the agency shall reimburse the commissioner from the fund for the reasonable and necessary expenses incurred in taking those actions and may recover any amount spent from the fund under subdivision 6.

Subd. 9. [ACTIONS RELATING TO OCCUPATIONAL SAFETY AND HEALTH.] The agency, director and the commissioner of labor and industry shall make reasonable efforts to coordinate any actions taken under this section and under sections 182.65 to 182.674 to avoid duplication or conflict of actions or requirements with respect to a release or threatened release affecting the safety of any conditions or place of employment.

Subd. 10. [ACTIONS RELATING TO HEALTH.] The agency and director shall make reasonable efforts to coordinate and consult with the commissioner of health in planning and directing response actions with respect to a release or threatened release affecting the public health. If the commissioner of health, upon the request of the agency, takes any actions authorized under this section, the agency shall reimburse the commissioner from the fund for the reasonable and necessary expenses incurred in taking those actions and may recover any amount spent from the fund under subdivision 6.

Subd. 11. [LIMIT ON ACTIONS BY POLITICAL SUBDIVISIONS.]

When the agency or director has requested a person who is responsible for a release or threatened release to take any response action under subdivision 1, no political subdivision shall request or order that person to take any action which conflicts with the action requested by the agency or director.

Subd. 12. [AUTHORIZATION OF CERTAIN RESPONSE ACTIONS.] For the purpose of permitting a political subdivision or private person to recover response costs as provided in section 4, subdivision 5, the agency may authorize the political subdivision to take removal or remedial actions or may authorize the private person to take removal actions with respect to any release of a hazardous substance which was placed or came to be located in the facility before April 1, 1982. The authorization shall be based on application of the criteria in the rules of the agency adopted under subdivision 13 or, if the rules have not been adopted, under the criteria set forth in subdivision 13 on which the rules are required to be based. The authorization shall not be inconsistent with the criteria. This subdivision shall not be construed to prohibit a political subdivision or private person from taking removal or remedial actions without the authorization of the agency.

Subd. 13. [PRIORITIES; RULES.] By November 1, 1983, the agency shall establish a temporary list of priorities among releases or threatened releases for the purpose of taking remedial action and, to the extent practicable consistent with the urgency of the action, for taking removal action under this section. The temporary list, with any necessary modifications, shall remain in effect until the agency adopts rules establishing state criteria for determining priorities among releases and threatened releases. The agency shall adopt the rules by July 1, 1984. After rules are adopted, a permanent priority list shall be established, and may be modified from time to time, according to the criteria set forth in the rules. Before any list is established under this subdivision the agency shall publish the list in the state register and allow 30 days for comments on the list by the public.

The temporary list and the rules required by this subdivision shall be based upon the relative risk or danger to public health or welfare or the environment, taking into account to the extent possible the population at risk, the hazardous potential of the hazardous substances at the facilities, the potential for contamination of drinking water supplies, the potential for direct human contact, the potential for destruction of sensitive ecosystems, the administrative and financial capabilities of the agency, and other appropriate factors.

Sec. 18. [115B.18] [FAILURE TO TAKE REQUESTED ACTIONS; CIVIL PENALTIES; ACTION TO COMPEL PERFORMANCE; INJUNCTIVE RELIEF.]

Subdivision 1. [CIVIL PENALTIES.] Any person responsible for a release or threatened release from a facility of a pollutant or contaminant which presents an imminent and substantial danger to the public health or welfare, or for a release or threatened release of a hazardous substance from a facility shall forfeit and pay to the state a civil penalty in an amount to be determined by the court of not more than $10,000 per day for each day that the person fails to take reasonable and necessary response actions or to make reasonable progress in completing response actions requested as provided in subdivision 3.

The penalty provided under this subdivision may be recovered by an action brought by the attorney general in the name of the state in connection with an action to recover expenses of the agency under section 17, subdivision 6, or by a separate action in the district court of Ramsey County. All penalties recovered under this subdivision shall be deposited in the fund.

Subd. 2. [ACTION TO COMPEL PERFORMANCE.] When any person who is responsible for a release or threatened release from a facility of a pollutant or contaminant which presents an imminent and substantial danger to the public health or welfare, or for a release or threatened release of a hazardous substance from a facility, fails to take response actions or to make reasonable progress in completing response actions requested as provided in subdivision 3, the attorney general may bring an action in the name of the state to compel performance of the requested response actions. If any person having any right, title, or interest in and to the real property where the facility is located or where response costs are proposed to be taken is not a person responsible for the release or threatened release, the person may be joined as an indispensable party in an action to compel performance in order to assure that the requested response actions can be taken on that property by the responsible parties.

Subd. 3. [REQUESTS FOR RESPONSE ACTIONS.] A request for emergency removal action shall be made by the director. Other requests for response actions shall be made by the agency. A request shall be in writing, shall state the action requested, the reasons for the action, and a reasonable time by which the action must be begun and completed taking into account the urgency of the action for protection of the public health, welfare, and environment.

Subd. 4. [INJUNCTIVE RELIEF.] The release or threatened release of a hazardous substance, or a pollutant or contaminant, shall constitute a public nuisance and may be enjoined in an action, in the name of the state, brought by the attorney general.

Sec. 19. [115B.19] [PURPOSES OF FUND AND TAXES.]

In establishing the environmental response, compensation and compliance fund in section 20 and imposing taxes in section 22 it is the purpose of the legislature to:

(a) Encourage treatment and disposal of hazardous waste in a manner that adequately protects the public health and welfare and the environment;

(b) Encourage responsible parties to provide the response actions necessary to protect the public and the environment from the effects of the release of hazardous substances;

(c) Encourage the use of alternatives to land disposal of hazardous waste including resource recovery, recycling, neutralization and reduction;

(d) Provide state agencies with the financial resources needed to prepare and implement an effective and timely state response to the release of hazardous substances, including investigation, planning, removal and remedial action;

(e) Compensate for increased governmental expenses and loss of revenue and to provide other appropriate assistance to mitigate any adverse impact on communities in which commercial hazardous waste processing or disposal facilities are located under the siting process provided in chapter 115A;

(f) Recognize the environmental and public health costs of land disposal of solid waste and of the use and disposal of hazardous substances and to place the burden of financing state hazardous waste management activities on those whose products and services contribute to hazardous waste management problems and increase the risks of harm to the public and the environment.

Sec. 20. [115B.20] [ENVIRONMENTAL RESPONSE, COMPENSATION AND COMPLIANCE FUND.]

Subdivision 1. [ESTABLISHMENT.] The environmental response, compensation and compliance fund is created as an account in the state treasury and may be spent only for the purposes provided in subdivision 2.

Subd. 2. [PURPOSES FOR WHICH MONEY MAY BE SPENT.] Subject to appropriation by the legislature the money in the fund may be spent for any of the following purposes:

(a) Preparation by the agency for taking removal or remedial action under section 17, including investigation, monitoring and testing activities, enforcement and compliance efforts relating to the release of hazardous substances, pollutants or contaminants under section 17 or 18;

(b) Removal and remedial actions taken or authorized by the agency or director under section 17, including related enforcement and compliance efforts under section 17 or 18, and payment of the state share of the cost of remedial action which may be carried out under a cooperative agreement with the federal government pursuant to the Federal Superfund Act, under 42 U.S.C. Section 9604(c)(3) for actions related to facilities other than commercial hazardous waste facilities located under the siting authority of chapter 115A;

(c) Reimbursement to any private person for expenditures made to provide alternative water supplies deemed necessary by the agency and the department of health to protect the public health from contamination resulting from the release of a hazardous substance;

(d) Removal and remedial actions taken or authorized by the agency or director under section 17, including related enforcement and compliance efforts under section 17 or 18, and payment of the state share of the cost of remedial action which may be carried out under a cooperative agreement with the federal government pursuant to the Federal Superfund Act, under 42 U.S.C. Section 9604(c)(3) for actions related to commercial hazardous waste facilities located under the siting authority of chapter 115A;

(e) Compensation as provided by law, after submission by the waste management board of the report required under section 115A.08, subdivision 5, to mitigate any adverse impact of the location of commercial hazardous waste processing or disposal facilities located pursuant to the siting authority of chapter 115A;

(f) Planning and implementation by the commissioner of natural resources of the rehabilitation, restoration or acquisition of natural resources to remedy injuries or losses to natural resources resulting from the release of a hazardous substance;

(g) Inspection, monitoring and compliance efforts by the agency, or by political subdivisions with agency approval, of commercial hazardous waste facilities located under the siting authority of chapter 115A;

(h) Grants by the agency or the waste management board to demonstrate alternatives to land disposal of hazardous waste including reduction, separation, pretreatment, processing and resource recovery, for education of persons involved in regulating and handling hazardous waste; and

(i) Intervention and environmental mediation by the legislative commission on waste management under chapter 115A.

Subd. 3. [LIMIT ON CERTAIN EXPENDITURES.] The director or agency may not spend any money under subdivision 2, clause (b), (c) or (d) for removal or remedial actions to the extent that the costs of those actions may be compensated from any fund established under the Federal Superfund Act, 42 U.S.C. Section 9600 et seq. The director or agency shall determine the extent to which any of the costs of those actions may be compensated under the federal act based on the likelihood that the compensation will be available in a timely fashion. In making this determination the director or agency shall take into account:

(a) The urgency of the removal or remedial actions and the priority assigned under the Federal Superfund Act to the release which necessitates those actions;

(b) The availability of money in the funds established under the Federal Superfund Act; and

(c) The consistency of any compensation for the cost of the proposed actions under the Federal Superfund Act with the national contingency plan, if such a plan has been adopted under that act.

Subd. 4. [REVENUE SOURCES.] Revenue from the following sources shall be deposited in the environmental response, compensation and compliance fund:

(a) The proceeds of the taxes imposed pursuant to section 22, including interest and penalties;

(b) All money recovered by the state under sections 1 to 18 or under any other statute or rule related to the regulation of hazardous waste or hazardous substances, including civil penalties and money paid under any agreement, stipulation or settlement but excluding fees imposed under section 25;

(c) All interest attributable to investment of money deposited in the fund; and

(d) All money received in the form of gifts, grants, reimbursement or appropriation from any source for any of the purposes provided in subdivision 2, except federal grants.

Subd. 5. [RECOMMENDATION BY LCWM.] The legislative commission on waste management shall make recommendations to the standing legislative committees on finance and appropriations regarding appropriations from the fund.

Subd. 6. [REPORT TO LEGISLATURE.] By November 1, 1984, and each year thereafter, the agency shall submit to the senate finance committee, the house appropriations committee and the legislative commission on waste management a report detailing the activities for which money from the environmental response, compensation and compliance fund has been spent during the previous fiscal year.

Sec. 21. [TAXES; DEFINITIONS.]

Subdivision 1. [APPLICATION.] The definitions provided in this section and section 2 apply to sections 21 to 24.

Subd. 2. [COMMISSIONER.] "Commissioner" means the commissioner of revenue.

Subd. 3. [GENERATOR.] "Generator" means a person who generates hazardous waste and who is required to disclose the generation of hazardous waste under the hazardous waste rules of the agency adopted under section 116.07.

Subd. 4. [LONG TERM CONTAINMENT.] "Long term containment" means land disposal or storage for a period of more than one year.

Subd. 5. [TREATMENT.] "Treatment" means any material, technique or process designed to change the physical, chemical or biological character or composition of a hazardous waste in order to: (a) neutralize it; (b) render it nonhazardous or less hazardous; (c) render it safer to transport, store or dispose of; (d) make it amenable to storage; or (e) reduce its volume.

Subd. 6. [WASTEWATER TREATMENT UNIT.] "Wastewater treatment unit" means a device which is part of a wastewater treatment facility subject to regulation pursuant to the federal Clean Water Act under 33 U.S.C. Section 1317 (b) or 1342.

Sec. 22. [HAZARDOUS WASTE GENERATOR TAX.]

Subdivision 1. [TAXES IMPOSED; EXCLUSIONS.] Each generator of hazardous waste shall pay the taxes imposed by this section based upon the volume and destination of the hazardous wastes generated. The taxes imposed by this section do not apply to hazardous wastes destined for recycling or reuse, to used crankcase oil, to hazardous waste which is generated as a result of any response action, or to hazardous waste which meets applicable pretreatment standards or compliance schedules and is discharged to a public sewage treatment works.

Subd. 2. [LONG TERM CONTAINMENT WITHOUT TREATMENT.] Hazardous waste destined for long term containment without treatment shall be taxed at the rate of 32 cents per gallon of liquid or $32 per cubic yard of solid.

Subd. 3. [LONG TERM CONTAINMENT AFTER TREATMENT.] Hazardous waste destined for long term containment after treatment shall be taxed at the rate of 16 cents per gallon of liquid or $16 per cubic yard of solid.

Subd. 4. [OTHER TREATMENT.] Hazardous waste destined for treatment, other than as provided in subdivision 5, to produce a material which is not hazardous, including treatment permitted by the agency in a sewage treatment works, or hazardous waste which is destined for destructive treatment by incineration shall be taxed at the rate of eight cents per gallon of liquid or $8 per cubic yard of solid.

Subd. 5. [ON-SITE WASTEWATER TREATMENT.] The tax imposed under this section does not apply to hazardous waste which is destined for treatment in an on-site wastewater treatment unit to produce a material which is not hazardous before entering a public sewer system or waters of the state but the tax does apply to any residue of treatment which is a hazardous waste.

Subd. 6. [DISPOSITION OF PROCEEDS.] The proceeds of the taxes imposed under this section including any interest and penalties shall be deposited in the fund.

Subd. 7. [REVIEW OF TAX BY LCWM.] Within 60 days after the waste management board submits the plan required under section 115A.11 to the legislative commission on waste management, the commission shall review the taxes and tax rates imposed under this section in light of the objectives and recommendations of the plan, and shall recommend to the standing tax committees of both houses of the legislature any changes in the taxes or tax rates which are needed to assist or encourage implementation of the strategies adopted by the state for management of hazardous waste.

Sec. 23. [SEVERABILITY.]

If any tax imposed under section 22 is found to be invalid because of the purpose for which the proceeds were appropriated or made available under section 20, subdivision 2, the proceeds of that tax shall not be appropriated or available for the objectionable purposes, but the tax shall continue to be imposed and the proceeds shall be appropriated and made available for other purposes provided in section 20, subdivision 2.

Sec. 24. [TAX ADMINISTRATION AND ENFORCEMENT.]

Subdivision 1. [ANNUAL RETURNS.] Every generator of hazardous waste subject to taxation pursuant to section 22 shall file a return relating to the tax due for the preceding calendar year with the commissioner of revenue by April 15 each year, in the form prescribed by the commissioner. Payment of the tax, to the extent not paid in full pursuant to subdivisions 2 and 3, shall be submitted with the return.

Subd. 2. [DECLARATIONS OF ESTIMATED TAX.] For 1983, every generator of hazardous waste required to pay a tax pursuant to section 22 shall make a declaration of estimated hazardous waste generated for the last six months of calendar 1983 if the tax can reasonably be estimated to exceed $500. The declaration of the estimated tax shall be filed by October 15, 1983. The amount of estimated tax with respect to which a declaration is required shall be paid in two equal installments by October 15, 1983 and January 15, 1984. For 1984 and subsequent years, every generator of hazardous waste required to pay a tax pursuant to section 22 shall make a declaration of estimated hazardous waste generated for the calendar year if the tax can reasonably be expected to be in excess of $1,000. The declaration of estimated tax shall be filed by March 15. The amount of estimated tax with respect to which a declaration is required shall be paid in four equal installments on or before the 15th day of March, June, September, and December.

An amendment of a declaration may be filed in any interval between installment dates prescribed above but only one amendment may be filed in each interval. If an amendment of a declaration is filed, the amount of each remaining installment shall be the amount which would have been payable if the new estimate had been made when the first estimate for the calendar year was made, increased or decreased, as the case may be, by the amount computed by dividing

(1) the difference between (A) the amount of estimated tax required to be paid before the date on which the amendment was made, and (B) the amount of estimated tax which would have been required to be paid before that date if the new estimate had been made when the first estimate was made, by

(2) the number of installments remaining to be paid on or after the date on which the amendment is made.

The commissioner of revenue may grant a reasonable extension of time for filing any declaration but the extension shall not be for more than six months.

Subd. 3. [FAILURE TO PAY ESTIMATED TAX.] (a) In case of any underpayment of estimated tax required by this section, except as provided in clause (b), there shall be added to the tax for the taxable year an amount determined at the rate specified in section 270.75, subdivision 4, upon the amount of the underpayment for the period of the underpayment.

For purposes of this subdivision, the amount of the underpayment shall be the excess of

(1) the amount of the installment, over

(2) the amount, if any, of the installment paid on or before the last date prescribed for payment.

The period of the underpayment shall run from the date the installment was required to be paid to whichever of the following dates is the earlier:

(1) April 15 or

(2) With respect to any portion of the underpayment, the date on which the portion is paid. For purposes of this paragraph, a payment of estimated tax on any installment date shall be considered a payment of any previous underpayment only to the extent the payment exceeds the amount of the installment determined under this subdivision for the installment date.

(b) Notwithstanding the provisions of clause (a), the addition to the tax with respect to any underpayment of any installment shall not be imposed if the total amount of all payments of estimated tax made on or before the last date prescribed for the payment of the installment equals or exceeds the amount which would have been required to be paid on or before that date if the estimated tax were the lesser of

(1) For 1985 and thereafter, the tax shown on the return of the taxpayer for the preceding year or, for 1984, twice the amount of the tax shown for 1983; or

(2) Eighty percent of the actual liability for the year.

Subd. 4. [REFUNDS OF OVERPAYMENTS OF ESTIMATED TAX.] Refunds of overpayments of estimated tax shall be made as provided in section 290.936.

Subd. 5. [EXCHANGE OF INFORMATION.] Notwithstanding the provisions of section 116.075, the pollution control agency may provide the commissioner of revenue with the information necessary for the enforcement of section 22 and this section. Information disclosed in a return filed pursuant to this section is public. Information exchanged between the commissioner and the agency is public unless the information is of the type determined to be for the confidential use of the agency pursuant to section 116.075 or is trade secret information classified pursuant to section 13.37. Information obtained in the course of an audit of the taxpayer by the department of revenue shall be private or nonpublic data to the extent that it is not directly divulged in a return of the tax.

Subd. 6. [PAYMENT BY OUT-OF-STATE GENERATORS.] A generator of any hazardous waste which is generated outside of this state and is transported into this state for long term containment or treatment as described in section 22, subdivisions 2 to 4 shall pay the tax imposed by section 22 at the first point at which the hazardous wastes are received by a person in this state for storage, treatment or long term containment. The tax shall be paid to the person who first receives the wastes in this state at the time the waste is received and shall be remitted by that person to the commissioner of revenue quarterly in the form and manner provided by the commissioner.

Subd. 7. [DUTIES OF THE AGENCY AND METROPOLITAN COUNTIES.] The agency shall provide to the commissioner the names and addresses of all persons known to the agency who are subject to tax under section 22, together with any information which the agency possesses concerning the amount of hazardous waste generated and disposed of by those persons. Metropolitan counties required to regulate hazardous wastes under section 473.811, subdivision 5b, shall provide to the agency the data and information necessary to allow the agency to carry out its duties under this subdivision. Upon request by the commissioner, the agency shall examine returns and reports filed with the commissioner and notify the commissioner of any suspected inaccurate or fraudulent declaration or return. The agency may assist in auditing any person subject to tax under section 21 when requested by the commissioner.

Subd. 8. [PENALTIES; ENFORCEMENT.] The audit, penalty and enforcement provisions applicable to taxes imposed under chapter 290 apply to the taxes imposed under section 22 and those provisions shall be administered by the commissioner.

Subd. 9. [RULES.] The commissioner may adopt temporary and permanent rules necessary to implement the provisions of this section and section 22.

Subd. 10. [ADMINISTRATIVE EXPENSES.] Any amount expended by the commissioner from a general fund appropriation to enforce and administer section 22 and this section shall be reimbursed to the general fund and the amount necessary to make the reimbursement is appropriated from the fund to the commissioner of finance for transfer to the general fund.

Sec. 25. [116.12] [HAZARDOUS WASTE ADMINISTRATION FEES.]

Subdivision 1. [FEE SCHEDULES.] The agency shall establish the fees provided in subdivisions 2 and 3 in the manner provided in section 16A.128 to cover the amount appropriated from the general fund to the agency for that year for permitting, monitoring, inspection and enforcement expenses of the hazardous waste activities of the agency.

The legislature may appropriate additional amounts that need not be covered by fees or may provide that the fees shall cover only a portion of the general fund appropriation for the hazardous waste activities of the agency, in order to assure adequate funding for the regulatory and enforcement functions of the agency related to hazardous waste. All fees collected by the agency under this section shall be deposited in the general fund.

Subd. 2. [HAZARDOUS WASTE GENERATOR FEE.] Each generator of hazardous waste shall pay a fee on the hazardous waste which he generates. The agency shall compute the amount of the fee due based on the hazardous waste disclosures submitted by the generators and other information available to the agency. The agency shall annually prepare a statement of the amount of the fee due from each generator. The fee shall be paid annually commencing with the first day of the calendar quarter after the date of the statement.

The agency may exempt generators of small quantities of hazardous wastes otherwise subject to the fee if it finds that the cost of administering a fee on those generators is excessive relative to the proceeds of the fee. The fee shall consist of a minimum fee for each generator not exempted by the agency and an additional fee based on the quantity of wastes generated by the generator.

If any metropolitan counties recover the costs of administering county hazardous waste regulations by charging fees, the fees charged by the agency outside of those counties shall not exceed the fees charged by those counties. The agency shall not charge a fee in any metropolitan county which charges such a fee. The agency shall impose a surcharge on the fees charged by the metropolitan counties and by the agency to reflect the agency's expenses in carrying out its statewide hazardous waste regulatory responsibilities. The surcharge imposed on the fees charged by the metropolitan counties shall be collected by the metropolitan counties in the manner in which the counties collect their generator fees. Metropolitan counties shall remit the proceeds of the surcharge to the agency by the last day of the month following the month in which they were collected.

Subd. 3. [FACILITY FEES.] The agency shall charge an original permit fee, a reissuance fee and an annual operator's fee for any hazardous waste facility permitted by the agency. The agency may include reasonable and necessary costs of any environmental review required under chapter 116D in the original permit fee for any hazardous waste facility.

Sec. 26. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 115A.24, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [CERTIFICATE.] Except as provided in subdivision 2, By December 15, 1982, on the basis of and consistent with its hazardous waste management plan adopted under section 115A.11, the board shall issue a certificate or certificates of need for disposal facilities for hazardous wastes in the state. The certificate or certificates shall indicate the types and volumes of waste for which disposal facilities are and will be needed through the year 2000 and the number, types, sizes, general design and operating specifications, and function or use of the disposal facilities needed in the state. The board shall certify need only to the extent that the board has determined that there are no feasible and prudent alternatives including waste reduction, separation, pretreatment, processing, and resource recovery which would minimize adverse impact upon natural resources, provided that the board shall require the establishment of at least one commercial disposal facility in the state. Economic considerations alone shall not justify certification nor the rejection of alternatives. Alternatives that are speculative and conjectural shall not be deemed to be feasible and prudent. The board shall consider all technologies being developed in other countries as well as in the United States when it considers the alternatives to hazardous waste disposal. The certificate or certificates shall not be subject to the provisions of chapter 14 but shall be the final determination required on the matters decided by the certificate or certificates and shall have the force and effect of law. The certificate or certificates shall not be amended for five years. The board and the permitting agencies, in reviewing and selecting sites, completing environmental impact statements, and issuing approvals and permits for waste disposal facilities described in the certificate or certificates of need, shall not reconsider matters determined in the certification. The board and the permitting agencies shall be required to make a final decision approving the establishment of facilities consistent with the certification. The board and the permitting agencies shall be required to make a final decision approving the establishment of at least one commercial disposal facility for hazardous waste in the state.

Sec. 27. [APPROPRIATION; COMPLEMENT.]

Subdivision 1. [APPROPRIATION TO FUND.] The sum of $5,000,000 is appropriated from the general fund and transferred to the environmental response, compensation, and compliance fund established in section 20. This appropriation is available until expended.

Subd. 2. [TAX ADMINISTRATION; COMPLEMENT.] The sum of $50,000 in fiscal year 1984 and $40,000 in fiscal year 1985 is appropriated from the general fund to the commissioner of revenue for the purposes of administering and enforcing sections 21 to 24. This appropriation shall be reimbursed to the general fund under the provisions of section 24, subdivision 10.

The complement of the department of revenue is increased by two positions.

Subd. 3. [APPROPRIATION FOR RESPONSE ACTIONS; COMPLEMENT.] The sum of $483,700 in fiscal year 1984 and $400,700 in fiscal year 1985 is appropriated from the environmental response, compensation, and compliance fund to the pollution control agency for administrative costs.

The complement of the pollution control agency is increased by ten positions.

All money in the environmental response, compensation, and compliance fund not otherwise appropriated is appropriated to the pollution control agency for the purposes described in section 20, subdivision 2, clauses (a),

(b), and (c). This appropriation is available until June 30, 1985.

Subd. 4. [APPROPRIATION FOR COMPLIANCE ACTIONS; COMPLEMENT.] The sum of $45,600 in fiscal year 1984 and $56,400 in fiscal year 1985 is appropriated from the general fund to the attorney general for the purposes of enforcing this act. This appropriation shall be reimbursed to the general fund from the environmental response, compensation, and compliance fund, and the amount necessary to make the reimbursement is appropriated to the commissioner of finance for transfer to the general fund.

The complement of the office of the attorney general is increased by two positions.

Sec. 28. [STUDY.]

The commissioner of insurance shall conduct a study to determine (1) whether adequate private insurance is available on reasonable terms and conditions to the persons subject to liability under section 5 of this act, and (2) whether the market for this insurance is sufficiently competitive to insure purchasers of features such as a reasonable range of deductibles, coinurance provisions, and exclusions. The commissioner shall submit the results of the study, together with his recommendations, to the legislature by January 1, 1985. The director of the pollution control agency shall cooperate with and provide assistance to the commissioner during the course of the study.

Sec. 29. [REPEALER.]

Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 115A.24, subdivision 2, is repealed.

Sec. 30. [EFFECTIVE DATE.]

Sections 16 to 24 are effective the day following final enactment. The taxes imposed by section 22 are effective July 1, 1983. The remaining sections of this act are effective July 1, 1983."

Delete everything after the enacting clause and insert:

"Section 1. [477A.018] [CITY LODGING TAX.]

Subdivision 1. [AUTHORIZATION.] Notwithstanding section 477A.016 or any other law, a statutory or home rule charter city may by ordinance impose a tax of up to three percent on the gross receipts from the furnishing for consideration of lodging at a hotel, motel, rooming house, tourist court, or other use of space by a transient, other than the renting or leasing of it for a continuous period of 30 days or more.

Subd. 2. [EXISTING TAXES.] No statutory or home rule charter city may impose a tax under this section upon transient lodging that, when combined with any tax authorized by special law or enacted prior to 1972, exceeds a rate of three percent.

Subd. 3. [DISPOSITION OF PROCEEDS.] Ninety-five percent of the gross proceeds from any tax imposed under subdivision 1 shall be used by the statutory or home rule charter city to fund a local convention or tourism bureau for the purpose of marketing and promoting the city as a tourist or convention center. This subdivision shall not apply to any statutory or home rule charter city that has a lodging tax authorized by special law or enacted prior to 1972 at the time of enactment of this section.

Sec. 2. [COLLECTION.]

The statutory or home rule charter city may agree with the commissioner of revenue that a tax imposed pursuant to section 1 shall be collected by the commissioner together with the tax imposed by Minnesota Statutes, chapter 297A, and subject to the same interest, penalties and other rules and that its proceeds, less the cost of collection, shall be remitted to the city.

Remaining on the Order of Business of Motions and Resolutions, Mr. Moe, R.D. moved that the Senate take up the General Orders Calendar. The motion prevailed.

GENERAL ORDERS

The Senate resolved itself into a Committee of the Whole, with Mr. Hughes in the chair.

After some time spent therein, the committee arose, and Mr. Luther reported that the committee had considered the following:

S.F. Nos. 462, 525, 856, 661, 987, 954, 378, 756, 601, 301, 799 and H.F. Nos. 656 and 697, which the committee recommends to pass.

S.F. No. 1012, which the committee recommends to pass with the following amendment offered by Mr. Laidig:

“Sec. 58. [COUNTY FINANCING OF FACILITIES.]

The counties of Washington and Ramsey, separately or jointly, may, by resolution, authorize the issuance of bonds or other obligations, including initial obligations issued to finance solely preliminary costs such as site acquisition and preparations and legal, engineering, financial, and planning services, to provide funds to acquire or better solid waste and related facilities, including transmission facilities and property or property rights for a solid waste or related facility, or to refund any outstanding obligations issued for that purpose.

Any later formation of a solid waste management district under Minnesota Statutes, chapter 115A, or contemplated sale or lease of any of the facilities or their work product to a private person, after the county or solid waste management district has incurred the costs of the facilities or work product, shall not restrict or limit the use of the proceeds of the bonds or other obligations.

The county may pledge to the payment of the obligations and the interest on them,

- (a) its full faith, credit, and taxing powers;*
- (b) the proceeds of any designated tax levies;*
- (c) the gross or net revenues or charges to be derived from any facility operated by or for the county;*
- (d) the proceeds of any anticipating refunding obligations, state or federal loan or grant, or any sale of the facilities or their work product;*
- (e) any other funds of the county; or*
- (f) any combination of the foregoing.*

Taxes levied for the payment of the obligations and interest shall not reduce the amounts of other taxes which the county is authorized by law to levy.

The proceeds of the bonds may be used in part to establish a reserve as further security for the payment of the principal and interest when due and to pay the cost of interest accruing on the obligations before six months after the date the facilities are first placed in service.

Revenue bonds issued pursuant to this section may be sold at public or private sale upon the conditions the county board shall determine, but any bonds to which the full faith and credit and taxing powers of the county are pledged shall be sold in accordance with Minnesota Statutes, chapter 475. No election shall be required to authorize the issuance of the obligations, and the debt limitations of chapter 475 or other law shall not apply to the obligations. The obligations may mature at a time or times, and in amounts, as the county board determines.

The county may covenant to refund, to the extent necessary, any temporary obligations with a term of no more than four years, in which event the tax which would otherwise be required by section 475.61, subdivision 1, need not be required. The interest rate on temporary obligations may be fixed at the time of sale or be adjusted from time to time based on an index related to the cost of borrowing, and the price at which the temporary obligations may be sold may be at any amount determined most favorable by the county board, but the resulting composite interest rate may not exceed the rate permitted under section 475.55.

Except as provided in this section, the obligations shall be issued and sold in accordance with chapter 475.

Sec. 59. [DISTRICT FORMATION.]

Notwithstanding any contrary provisions of Minnesota Statutes, section 115A.63, subdivision 3, or other law, Ramsey and Washington counties, before establishing a waste management district solely within their boundaries, need not demonstrate that they are unable to fulfill the purposes of a district through joint action under Minnesota Statutes, section 471.59.

Sec. 60. [POWERS ADDITIONAL AND SUPPLEMENTAL.]

The powers conferred by sections 58 and 59 are in addition and supplemental to the powers conferred by any other law or charter. Insofar as any other law or charter is inconsistent with sections 58 and 59, the provisions of sections 58 and 59 control as to facilities authorized under those sections.

Sec. 61. [EFFECTIVE DATE.]

Sections 58 to 60 are effective the day after compliance with Minnesota Statutes, section 645.021, subdivision 3, by the governing bodies of both Ramsey and Washington counties."

Page 50, line 20, delete "59" and insert "57, 62 and 63"

Renumber the sections in sequence

Amend the title as follows:

Page 1, line 15, after the semicolon, insert "authorizing issuance of bonds by Washington and Ramsey Counties for a solid waste facility;"

The motion prevailed. So the amendment was adopted.

S.F. No. 1105, which the committee recommends to pass with the following amendment offered by Mr. Frederickson:

Page 1, line 22, before the period, insert " , subject to an easement for Trunk Highway No. 99 as set forth in Commissioner's Width Order No. 15913, and further subject to Trunk Highway No. 295 as set forth in Commissioner's Order No. 21188"

The motion prevailed. So the amendment was adopted.

On motion of Mr. Moe, R.D., the report of the Committee of the Whole, as kept by the Secretary, was adopted.

RECESS

Mr. Moe, R.D. moved that the Senate do now recess subject to the call of the President. The motion prevailed.

After a brief recess, the President called the Senate to order.

HEAT TAPE

It is also recommended that the buyer check the home's heat tape. Old and worn heat tape, and improper installation of heat tape, can cause a fire hazard.

FURNACE AND HOT WATER HEATER

It is recommended that the buyer have a qualified utility representative check the furnace and hot water heater to see that they are both in good working order. If this home was converted from oil to natural gas heat, there could be safety problems if the conversion was not done correctly. A utility representative or building inspector can inspect the condition and installation of this equipment. They may charge a reasonable fee to do so.

ENERGY AUDIT

It is also recommended that the buyer have a utility approved energy audit of the home.

I, _____, the undersigned, hereby declare that the above information is true and correct to the best of my knowledge.

COMPLIANCE WITH SAFETY FEATURES

If you purchase the home, you will be required to install egress windows and smoke detectors and fire extinguishers within one year. You will be required to comply with all of the safety features contained in this form within three years.

Reports the same back with the recommendation that the bill be amended as follows:

Delete everything after the enacting clause and insert:

“Section 1. [45.011] [DEPARTMENT ESTABLISHED; FUNCTIONS.]

A department of commerce is created as the principal agency of the state for the regulation of commerce in Minnesota.

Sec. 2. [45.012] [COMMISSIONER.]

The department of commerce is under the supervision and control of the commissioner of commerce. The commissioner is appointed by the governor in the manner provided by section 15.06.

Sec. 3. [45.013] [DEPUTY COMMISSIONERS; ASSISTANT COMMISSIONERS; ASSISTANT TO THE COMMISSIONER.]

The commissioner of commerce may appoint five deputy commissioners, four assistant commissioners, and an assistant to the commissioner. Those positions, as well as that of a confidential secretary, are unclassified. The commissioner may appoint other employees in the classified service necessary to carry out the duties and responsibilities entrusted to the commissioner.

Sec. 4. [POWERS AND DUTIES, TRANSFER; COMMERCE COMMISSION; COMMERCE DEPARTMENT; COMMISSIONERS OF BANKS, INSURANCE, SECURITIES, AND REAL ESTATE.] The commissioner of commerce is the successor to the commerce commission, the commissioners of banks, insurance, and securities and real estate, the banking, insurance, and securities and real estate divisions, and the department of commerce as previously constituted. All powers, duties, and functions previously vested in or imposed on those individuals, divisions, or department of state government are transferred to, vested in, and imposed on the commissioner of commerce. The commerce commission, the positions of commissioner of banks, commissioner of insurance, and commissioner of securities and real estate, the banking, insurance, and securities and real estate divisions, and the department of commerce, as previously constituted, are abolished.

Sec. 5. [45.023] [RULES.]

The commissioner of commerce may adopt, amend, suspend, or repeal rules, including temporary rules, in accordance with chapter 14, and as otherwise provided by law, whenever necessary or proper in discharging the commissioner's official responsibilities.

Sec. 6. [45.024] [HEARINGS.]

Subdivision 1. [GENERAL.] In any case in which the commissioner of commerce is required by law to conduct a hearing, the hearing must be conducted in accordance with chapter 14 and other applicable laws, if any.

Subd. 2. [DELEGATION OF INSURANCE REGULATORY AUTHORITY.] The commissioner of commerce shall delegate to one of his deputy commissioners the exercise of his statutory powers and duties relating to insurance as set forth in chapters 60A to 79, except for budget, personnel, and general administration. The delegation of authority includes the authority to decide and issue orders in contested cases, rulemaking proceedings, and other hearings held under chapter 14.

Subd. 3. [DELEGATION OF FINANCIAL INSTITUTIONS REGULATORY AUTHORITY.] The commissioner of commerce shall delegate to one of his deputy commissioners the exercise of his statutory powers and duties relating to financial institutions as set forth in chapters 46 to 59A, except for budget, personnel, and general administration. The delegation of authority includes the authority to decide and issue orders in contested cases, rulemaking proceedings, and other hearings held under chapter 14.

Subd. 4. [DELEGATION OF SECURITIES REGULATORY AUTHORITY.] The commissioner of commerce shall delegate to one of his deputy commissioners the exercise of his statutory powers and duties relating to securities as set forth in chapters 80A, 80B, and 80C, except for budget, personnel, and general administration. The delegation of authority includes the authority to decide and issue orders in contested cases, rulemaking proceedings, and other hearings held under chapter 14.

Subd. 5. [DELEGATION OF REAL ESTATE REGULATORY AUTHORITY.] The commissioner of commerce shall delegate to one of his deputy commissioners the exercise of his statutory powers and duties relating to real estate as set forth in chapters 82 and 83, except for budget, personnel, and general administration. The delegation of authority includes the authority to decide and issue orders in contested cases, rulemaking proceedings, and other hearings held under chapter 14.

Subd. 6. [REVIEW BY COMMISSIONER.] Notwithstanding any other law to the contrary, an order issued by a deputy commissioner under subdivisions 2 to 5 may be appealed to the commissioner or reviewed by the commissioner at his discretion within 15 days after receipt of the order. If no appeal is filed and no discretionary review is made, the deputy commissioner's order is the final order. Review of the appeal shall be on the record and shall be subject to the procedures prescribed by rule by the commissioner. Appeal of the commissioner's order, or the order of the deputy commissioner if no appeal is made to the commissioner, shall be as provided under the provisions of the administrative procedure act of chapter 14, unless otherwise provided by law.

Sec. 7. [TRANSFER OF POWERS FROM THE DEPARTMENT OF COMMERCE AND COMMERCE COMMISSION TO THE COMMISSIONER OF COMMERCE.]

Subdivision 1. [AUTHORIZATION.] The commissioner of commerce, as successor to the commerce commission, and the commissioners of banks, insurance, and securities and real estate divisions, and the department of commerce as previously constituted is a continuation of the former authorities and not a new authority for the purpose of succession to all the rights, powers, duties, and obligations of those agencies as they were constituted immediately prior to the effective date of this act.

Subd. 2. [EFFECT OF RULES TRANSFERRED.] All rules previously adopted under the authority of a power, duty, or responsibility transferred by this act to the commissioner of commerce remain in full force until modified or repealed in accordance with law by the commissioner.

Subd. 3. [EFFECT OF PENDING PROCEEDINGS.] Any proceeding, court action, prosecution, or other business or matter pending on the effective date of this act and undertaken or commenced by any of the agencies referred to in subdivision 1 under the authority of any power, duty, or responsibility transferred by this act to the commissioner of commerce may be conducted and completed by the commissioner in the same manner, under the same terms and conditions, and with the same effect as though no transfer was made.

Subd. 4. [TRANSFER OF CUSTODY OF DOCUMENTS.] Every individual responsible under law for administration of any function transferred by this act to the commissioner of commerce shall, upon request by the commissioner or by any of his designated employees, transfer custody of all books, maps, plans, papers, records, contracts, and other documents relating to the transferred function and necessary or convenient for the proper discharge of the commissioner's new duties. The transfer must be made in accordance with the directions of the commissioner or his designated employee.

Subd. 5. [APPROPRIATIONS.] All unexpended and unencumbered funds appropriated to any of the agencies referred to in subdivision 1 for the purpose of performing any of the functions, powers, or duties which are transferred by this act to the commissioner of commerce are transferred to the commissioner.

Subd. 6. [TRANSFER OF POSITIONS.] All classified and unclassified positions in the commerce commission and the department of commerce are transferred to the department of commerce. Personnel changes are effective on the effective date of this act. Nothing in this subdivision shall be construed as abrogating or modifying any rights now enjoyed by affected employees under the managerial or commissioner's plan or the terms of an agreement between an exclusive representative of public employees and the state or one of its appointing authorities.

Sec. 8. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 45.034, is amended to read:

45.034 [PREPARATION OF DEPARTMENTAL BUDGET.]

The budget estimates prescribed by section 16A.10, subdivisions 1 and 2, shall be prepared and submitted by the ~~commission~~ commissioner of commerce in respect of the department of commerce ~~and all of its constituent divisions~~.

Subd. 4. [TRANSFER OF CUSTODY OF DOCUMENTS.] Every individual responsible under law for administration of any function transferred by this act to the attorney general shall, upon request by the attorney general or by any of his designated employees, transfer custody of all books, maps, plans, papers, records, contracts, and other documents relating to the transferred function and necessary or convenient for the proper discharge of the attorney general's new duties. The transfer must be made in accordance with the directions of the attorney general or his designated employee.

Subd. 5. [APPROPRIATIONS.] All unexpended and unencumbered funds appropriated to the consumer services section for the purpose of performing any of the functions, powers, or duties which are transferred by this act to the attorney general are transferred to the attorney general.

Subd. 6. [TRANSFER OF POSITIONS.] All classified positions in the consumer services section not covered by section 30, subdivision 6, are transferred to the attorney general. Personnel changes are effective on the effective date of this act. Nothing in this subdivision shall be construed as abrogating or modifying any rights now enjoyed by affected employees under the managerial or commissioner's plan or the terms of an agreement between an exclusive representative of public employees and the state or one of its appointing authorities.

Sec. 24. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 15.06, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [APPLICABILITY.] This section applies to the following departments or agencies: the departments of administration, agriculture, commerce, corrections, economic development, economic security, education, finance, health, human rights, labor and industry, natural resources, personnel, public safety, public welfare, revenue, transportation, and veterans affairs; ~~the banking, insurance and securities divisions and the consumer services section of the department of commerce;~~ the energy, housing finance and pollution control agencies; the office of commissioner of iron range resources and rehabilitation; the bureau of mediation services; and their successor departments and agencies. The heads of the foregoing departments or agencies are referred to in this section as "commissioners."

Sec. 25. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 43A.08, subdivision 1a, is amended to read:

Subd. 1a. [ADDITIONAL UNCLASSIFIED POSITIONS.] Appointing authorities for the following agencies may designate additional unclassified positions pursuant according to this subdivision: the departments of administration; agriculture; commerce; corrections; economic security; education; employee relations; energy, planning and development; finance; health; human rights; labor and industry; natural resources; public safety; public service; public welfare; revenue; transportation; and veterans affairs; ~~the banking, securities and real estate, insurance and consumer services divisions of the department of commerce~~; the housing finance and pollution control agencies; the state board of investment; and the offices of the secretary of state, state auditor, and state treasurer.

A position designated by an appointing authority pursuant according to this subdivision must meet the following standards and criteria:

(a) the designation of the position would not be contrary to ~~the provisions of other law relating specifically to that agency~~;

(b) the person occupying the position would report directly to the agency head or deputy agency head and would be designated as part of the agency head's management team;

(c) the duties of the position would involve significant discretion and substantial involvement in the development, interpretation, and implementation of agency policy;

(d) the duties of the position would not require primarily personnel, accounting, or other technical expertise where continuity in the position would be important;

(e) there would be a need for the person occupying the position to be accountable to, loyal to, and compatible with the governor and the agency head, or the employing constitutional officer;

(f) the position would be at the level of division or bureau director or assistant to the agency head; and

(g) the commissioner has approved the designation as being consistent with the standards and criteria in this subdivision.

Sec. 26. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 116J.31, is amended to read:

116J.31 [ENERGY AUDITS.]

The commissioner, ~~in cooperation with the director of consumer services,~~ shall develop the state plan for the program of energy audits of residential and commercial buildings required by 42 United States Code, ~~Section title 42, section 8211, et seq.~~ The ~~consumer services division and the attorney general are authorized to~~ may release information on consumer complaints about the operation of the program to the commissioner.

Sec. 27. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 144A.53, subdivision 4, is amended to read:

Subd. 4. [REFERRAL OF COMPLAINTS.] If a complaint received by the director relates to a matter more properly within the jurisdiction of an occupational licensing board, the office of consumer services or any other governmental agency, the director shall forward the complaint to that agency and shall inform the complaining party of the forwarding. The agency shall promptly act in respect to the complaint, and shall inform the complaining party and the director of its disposition. If a governmental agency receives a complaint which is more properly within the jurisdiction of the director, it shall promptly forward the complaint to the director, and shall inform the complaining party of the forwarding. If the director has reason to believe that any official or employee of an administrative agency or health facility has acted in a manner warranting criminal or disciplinary proceedings, he shall refer the matter to the state commissioner of health, the commissioner of public welfare, an appropriate prosecuting authority, or any other appropriate agency.

Sec. 28. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 155A.03, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 13. [COMMISSIONER.] "Commissioner" means the commissioner of commerce.

Sec. 29. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 155A.05, is amended to read:

155A.05 [RULES.]

The ~~director~~ commissioner shall develop and adopt rules to carry out the provisions of sections 155A.01 to 155A.18 by December 31, 1982, pursuant according to chapter 14. For purposes of sections 155A.01 to 155A.18, the ~~director~~ commissioner may adopt temporary rules, pursuant according to sections 14.29 to 14.36. These rules may be reissued as temporary rules until permanent rules are adopted or until December 31, 1982, whichever is earlier. These temporary rules may provide that for any a renewal license issued by the ~~director~~ commissioner within one year after July 1, 1981, the term of renewal shall be either one, two, or three years. The fee for a one-year renewal license shall be one-third of the fee for a three-year renewal license, and the fee for a two-year renewal shall be two-thirds of the three-year fee.

Sec. 30. [TRANSFER OF POWERS RELATING TO THE REGULATION OF THE PRACTICE OF COSMETOLOGY FROM THE OFFICE OF CONSUMER SERVICES TO THE COMMISSIONER OF COMMERCE.]

Subdivision 1. [AUTHORIZATION.] The commissioner of commerce, as successor to the director of the consumer services section of the department of commerce in the administration of chapter 155A, is a continuation of the former authority and not a new authority for the purpose of succession to all the rights, powers, duties, and obligations of the consumer services director as they were constituted immediately prior to the effective date of this act.

Subd. 2. [EFFECT OF RULES TRANSFERRED.] All rules previously adopted under the authority of a power, duty, or responsibility transferred by this act to the commissioner of commerce shall remain in full force until modified or repealed in accordance with law by the commissioner.

Subd. 3. [EFFECT OF PENDING PROCEEDINGS.] Any proceeding, court action, prosecution, or other business or matter pending on the effective date of this act and undertaken or commenced by the consumer services director under the authority of any power, duty, or responsibility transferred by this act to the commissioner of commerce may be conducted and completed by the commissioner in the same manner, under the same terms and conditions, and with the same effect as though no transfer was made.

Subd. 4. [TRANSFER OF CUSTODY OF DOCUMENTS.] Every individual responsible under law for administration of any function transferred by this act to the commissioner of commerce shall, upon request by the commissioner or by any of his designated employees, transfer custody of all books, maps, plans, papers, records, contracts, and other documents relating to the transferred function and necessary or convenient for the proper discharge of the commissioner's new duties. The transfer must be made in accordance with the directions of the commissioner or his designated employee.

Subd. 5. [APPROPRIATIONS.] All unexpended and unencumbered funds appropriated to the consumer services section for the purpose of performing any of the functions, powers, or duties which are transferred by this act to the commissioner of commerce are transferred to the commissioner.

Subd. 6. [TRANSFER OF POSITIONS.] All classified and unclassified positions in the cosmetology unit of the office of consumer services are transferred to the department of commerce. Personnel changes are effective on the effective date of this act. Nothing in this subdivision shall be construed as abrogating or modifying any rights now enjoyed by affected employees under the managerial or commissioner's plan or the terms of an agreement between an exclusive representative of public employees and the state or one of its appointing authorities.

Sec. 31. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 155A.18, is amended to read:

155A.18 [PRIOR LICENSES.]

All licenses which were issued by the ~~board of cosmetology~~ director of the office of consumer services under chapter ~~155~~ 155A, shall continue in effect under the ~~office of consumer services~~ commissioner until the licenses expire.

For the purpose of clause (d), a written warranty, representation, or undertaking, which is set forth in an instrument conveying any right, title or interest in the real property and which is executed by the person conveying the right, title or interest, or which is set forth in any memorandum of any such instrument executed for the purpose of recording, is admissible as evidence of whether the person acquiring any right, title, or interest in the real property knew or reasonably should have known that a hazardous substance was located in or on the facility, and is prima facie evidence of the facts set forth in it.

Any liability which accrues to an owner of real property under sections 1 to 15 does not accrue to any other person who is not an owner of the real property merely because the other person holds some right, title, or interest in the real property.

An owner of real property on which a public utility easement is located is not a responsible person with respect to any release caused by any act or omission of the public utility which holds the easement in carrying out the specific use for which the easement was granted."

"Sec. 26. [116.50] [OFFICE OF OMBUDSMAN.]

Subdivision 1. [CREATION; QUALIFICATIONS; FUNCTION.] The office of environmental ombudsman for the pollution control agency is hereby created. The ombudsman shall serve at the pleasure of the governor in the unclassified service, shall be selected without regard to political affiliation, and shall be a person highly competent and qualified to analyze questions of law, administration and public policy. No person may serve as ombudsman while holding any other public office. The ombudsman for the agency shall report to the governor and shall have the authority to investigate decisions, acts and other matters of the agency so as to promote the highest attainable standards of competence, efficiency, and justice in the administration of environmental policy. All costs and expenses incurred by the ombudsman shall be paid from the environmental response, compensation and compliance fund.

Subd. 2. [MATTERS APPROPRIATE FOR INVESTIGATION.] (a) The ombudsman shall address himself particularly to actions of the agency which might be (1) contrary to law or regulation; (2) unreasonable, unfair, oppressive, or inconsistent with any policy or judgment of the agency; (3) mistakes in law or arbitrary in the ascertainment of facts; (4) unclear or inadequately explained when reasons should have been revealed; or (5) inefficiently performed.

(b) The ombudsman may also concern himself with strengthening procedures and practices which lessen the risk that objectionable actions of the agency will occur.

Subd. 3. [COMPLAINTS; RECOMMENDATIONS.] The ombudsman may receive a complaint from any source concerning an action of the agency and may investigate any action of the agency. The ombudsman, after duly considering a complaint, may recommend that the agency (1) consider the matter further; (2) modify or cancel its action; (3) alter a regulation or ruling; (4) explain more fully the action in question; or (5) take any other step which the ombudsman states as a recommendation to the agency. If the ombudsman so requests, the agency shall within a time specified inform the ombudsman about the action taken on his recommendation or the reasons for not complying with it.

Subd. 4. [REPORTING.] The ombudsman shall report to the governor concerning the exercise of his functions.

Subd. 5. [POWERS.] The ombudsman shall have the following powers: (1) to prescribe the methods by which complaints are to be made; (2) to determine the scope and manner of investigation; (3) to request access to information in possession of the agency; (4) to examine records and documents of the agency; (5) to subpoena any person to appear, give testimony or produce records and may petition the appropriate state court to seek enforcement of a subpoena; provided, however, that any witness at a hearing shall have the same privileges reserved to such witness in the courts or under the laws of this state; and (6) may bring an action in an appropriate state court to provide the operation of the powers provided in this subdivision.

Subd. 6. [TENURE OF OFFICE; SALARY.] The office of environmental ombudsman shall expire on June 30, 1987. The salary of the environmental ombudsman shall be established in accordance with the provisions of Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 43A.08, subdivision 3."

REPORTS OF COMMITTEES

Mr. Moe, R.D. moved that the Committee Reports at the Desk be now adopted, with the exception of reports pertaining to appointments. The motion prevailed.

Mr. Dieterich from the Committee on Public Utilities and State Regulated Industries, to which was referred

S.F. No. 911: A bill for an act relating to utilities; specifying the commission's authority over the availability of submetering; proposing new law coded in Minnesota Statutes, chapter 216B.

Reports the same back with the recommendation that the bill be amended as follows:

Delete everything after the enacting clause and insert:

“Section 1. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 216B.02, subdivision 4, is amended to read:

Subd. 4. “Public utility” means persons, corporations or other legal entities, their lessees, trustees, and receivers, now or hereafter operating, maintaining, or controlling in this state equipment or facilities for furnishing at retail natural, manufactured or mixed gas or electric service to or for the public or engaged in the production and retail sale thereof but does not include a municipality or a cooperative electric association, organized under the provisions of chapter 308 producing or furnishing natural, manufactured or mixed gas or electric service. Except as otherwise provided, the provisions of this chapter shall not be applicable to any sale of natural, manufactured or mixed gas or electricity by a public utility to another public utility for resale. In addition, the provisions of this chapter shall not apply to a public utility whose total natural gas business consists of supplying natural, manufactured or mixed gas to not more than 650 customers within a city pursuant to a franchise granted by the city, provided a resolution of the city council requesting exemption from regulation is filed with the commission. The city council may rescind the resolution requesting exemption at any time, and, upon the filing of the rescinding resolution with the commission, the provisions of this chapter shall apply to the public utility. No person shall be deemed to be a public utility if it ~~presently~~ furnishes its services only to tenants or cooperative or condominium owners in buildings owned, leased or operated by such person. No person shall be deemed to be a public utility if it ~~presently~~ furnishes service to occupants of a manufactured home or trailer park owned, leased, or operated by such person. No person shall be deemed to be a public utility if it ~~presently~~ produces or furnishes service to less than 25 persons.

Sec. 2. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 216B.02, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 6a. “Submetering” means measuring, by a building’s owner, through mechanical or electronic devices, the use of electricity by occupants in multiple-unit residential or commercial buildings to fairly apportion the entire electrical costs for the building among its occupants.

Sec. 3. [216B.022] [SUBMETERING.]

Nothing in this chapter grants the commission or a public utility the authority to limit the availability of submetering to a building occupant when the building is served by a public utility’s master meter which measures the total electric energy delivered to the building.”

Amend the title as follows:

Page 1, line 3, after the semicolon, insert “amending Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 216B.02, subdivision 4, and by adding a subdivision;”

And when so amended the bill do pass. Amendments adopted. Report adopted.

H.F. No. 166: A bill for an act relating to local government; providing for prosecution of certain gross misdemeanors; authorizing agreements between cities and counties for the prosecution of certain offenses by county attorneys; authorizing counties pursuant to agreement with cities to engage attorneys for prosecution of misdemeanors, petty misdemeanors, and violations of municipal ordinances, charters, and regulations; establishing a formula for disposition of fine proceeds; authorizing cities to pay certain witness expenses; amending Minnesota Statutes 1982, sections 169.129; 299D.03, subdivision 5; 357.13, subdivision 1; 357.23; 388.051; 388.09; 388.18, subdivision 5; 487.25, subdivision 10; 487.33, subdivisions 1 and 5; 574.34; and 609.487, by adding a subdivision; proposing new law coded in Minnesota Statutes, chapter 487.

Reports the same back with the recommendation that the bill be amended as follows:

Delete everything after the enacting clause and insert:

"Section 1. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 169.121, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [CRIMINAL PENALTIES.] A person who violates this section or an ordinance in conformity ~~therewith~~ with it is guilty of a misdemeanor.

The following persons are guilty of a gross misdemeanor:

(a) A person who violates this section or an ordinance in conformity ~~therewith~~ with it within five years of a prior conviction under this section or an ordinance in conformity ~~therewith~~ with it; and

(b) A person who violates this section or an ordinance in conformity ~~therewith~~ with it within ten years of two or more prior convictions under this section or an ordinance in conformity ~~therewith~~ with it.

The attorney in the jurisdiction in which the violation occurred who is responsible for prosecution of misdemeanor violations of this section shall also be responsible for prosecution of gross misdemeanor violations of this section.

Sec. 2. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 169.129, is amended to read:

169.129 [AGGRAVATED VIOLATIONS; PENALTY.]

Any person who drives, operates, or is in physical control of a motor vehicle, the operation of which requires a driver's license, within this state in violation of section 169.121 or an ordinance in conformity ~~therewith~~ with it before his driver's license or driver's privilege has been reinstated following its cancellation, suspension or revocation (1) because he drove, operated, or was in physical control of a motor vehicle while under the influence of alcohol or a controlled substance or while he had an alcohol concentration of 0.10 or more or (2) because he refused to take a test which determines the presence of alcohol or a controlled substance when requested to do so by a proper authority, is guilty of a gross misdemeanor. Jurisdiction over prosecutions under this section is in the ~~district~~ county court.

Sec. 3. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 299D.03, subdivision 5, is amended to read:

Subd. 5. [FINES AND FORFEITED BAIL MONEY.] (a) All fines and forfeited bail money, from traffic and motor vehicle law violations, collected from persons apprehended or arrested by ~~such employees~~ officers of the state patrol, shall be paid by ~~such the~~ person or officer collecting ~~such the~~ fines, forfeited bail money or installments thereof, on or before the tenth day after the last day of the month in which ~~such these~~ moneys were collected, to the county treasurer of the county where the violation occurred. Three-eighths of ~~such these~~ receipts shall be credited to the general revenue fund of the county. The other five-eighths of ~~such these~~ receipts shall be transmitted by that officer to the state treasurer and shall be credited to the trunk highway fund. If, however, the violation occurs within a municipality and the city attorney prosecutes the offense, and a plea of not guilty is entered, one-third of the receipts shall be credited to the general revenue fund of the county, one-third of the receipts shall be paid to the municipality prosecuting the offense, and one-third shall be transmitted to the state treasurer as provided in this subdivision. All costs of participation in a nation-wide police communication system chargeable to the state of Minnesota shall be paid from appropriations for that purpose.

(b) Notwithstanding any other provisions of law, all fines and forfeited bail money from violations of statutes governing the maximum weight of motor vehicles, collected from persons apprehended or arrested by employees of the state of Minnesota, by means of stationary or portable scales operated by ~~such these~~ employees, shall be paid by the person or officer collecting the fines or forfeited bail money, on or before the tenth day after the last day of the month in which the collections were made, to the county treasurer of the county where the violation occurred. Five-eighths of ~~such these~~ receipts shall be transmitted by that officer to the state treasurer and shall be credited to the highway user tax distribution fund. Three-eighths of ~~such these~~ receipts shall be credited to the general revenue fund of the county.

Sec. 4. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 357.13, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [CITY POLICE; WITNESS FEES.] No police officer of any city shall receive any witness fee in a suit or prosecution brought in the name of the state, but any county or city may reimburse him for expenses actually incurred ~~therein~~.

Sec. 5. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 388.051, is amended to read:

388.051 [DUTIES.]

~~It is the duty of~~ The county attorney ~~to~~ shall:

- (a) Appear in all cases in which the county is a party;
- (b) Give opinions and advice, upon the request of the county board or any county officer, upon all matters in which the county is or may be interested, or in relation to the official duties of the board or officer;

(c) Prosecute felonies, including the drawing of indictments found by the grand jury, ~~gross misdemeanors~~ and, to the extent prescribed by law, ~~violations of gross misdemeanors~~, misdemeanors, petty misdemeanors, and violations of municipal ordinances, charter provisions and rules or regulations;

(d) Attend before the grand jury, give them legal advice and examine witnesses in their presence;

(e) Request the clerk of court to issue subpoenas to bring witnesses before the grand jury or any judge or judicial officer before whom he is conducting a criminal hearing;

(f) Attend any inquest at the request of the coroner; and

(g) Appear, when requested by the attorney general, for the state in any case instituted by the attorney general in his county or before the United States land office in case of application to preempt or locate any public lands claimed by the state and assist in the preparation and trial.

Sec. 6. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 388.09, is amended to read:

388.09 [OTHER ATTORNEY EMPLOYED.]

Subdivision 1. [GENERAL PROVISIONS.] When there is no county attorney, the county board may employ any competent attorney to perform ~~such~~ legal services for the county as ~~may be necessary~~. The board may employ an attorney other than the county attorney ~~either~~ to assist him ~~or~~, to appear for the county or any county officer ~~thereof~~ in any action in which ~~such~~ the county or officer in his official capacity is a party, ~~or~~ to advise the board or its members in relation ~~thereto~~ to the action, or in relation to any other matter affecting the interests of the county; ~~and~~. The county may pay such the attorney out of the funds of the county.

Subd. 2. [MISDEMEANORS; OTHER PROSECUTIONS.] Except in the counties of Ramsey and Hennepin, the county board with concurrence of the county attorney may enter into agreements with attorneys or firms of attorneys for the prosecution of gross misdemeanors, misdemeanors or petty misdemeanors, without making these attorneys or members of the firms assistant county attorneys or employees of the county where the county attorney has responsibility for the prosecution of these charges. If there is a contract between the county and any city within it which provides that the county attorney shall also prosecute municipal ordinance, municipal rule or regulation, and charter provision violations for that city, an attorney or firm engaged pursuant to this subdivision may also prosecute these violations.

Sec. 7. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 388.18, subdivision 5, is amended to read:

Subd. 5. [BUDGET FOR OFFICE.] The county board by resolution shall provide the budget for (1) the salary of the county attorney, any assistant county attorneys and employees in the county attorney's office; (2) the salary or other fees of any attorneys or firms of attorneys employed or engaged to prosecute misdemeanors, petty misdemeanors, municipal ordinance violations, or municipal charter, rule or regulation violations, if any; (3) other expenses necessary in the performance of the duties of ~~said~~ the office; and (3) (4) the payment of premiums of any bonds required of the county attorney and any assistant county attorney or employee in the county attorney's office ~~and~~. The board is authorized to appropriate funds ~~therefor~~ for those purposes.

Sec. 8. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 481.17, is amended to read:

481.17 [COUNTY, CITY, AND SCHOOL DISTRICT ATTORNEYS.]

In all counties in this state having a population of not more than 12,000, the offices of county attorney, city attorney, and school district attorney shall not be deemed incompatible and may be held by the same person. For the purposes of prosecution of violations of state laws, municipal ordinances, charter provisions, or municipal regulations, the offices of county attorney and city attorney shall not be deemed incompatible and may be held by the same person, regardless of the population of the county.

Sec. 9. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 487.25, subdivision 10, is amended to read:

Subd. 10. [PROSECUTING ATTORNEYS.] Except as otherwise provided by law, violations of state law which are petty misdemeanors, misdemeanors, or violations of a municipal ordinance, charter provision, rule or regulation shall be prosecuted by the attorney of the municipality where the violation is alleged to have occurred if that municipality has an attorney. The municipality may enter into an agreement with the county board and the county attorney to provide prosecution services for any criminal offense. All other offenses shall be prosecuted by the county attorney of the county in which the alleged violation occurred.

In the counties of Anoka, Carver, Dakota, Scott, and Washington, violations of state law which are petty misdemeanors, misdemeanors, or gross misdemeanors, or violations of a municipal ordinance, charter provision, rule, or regulation shall be prosecuted by the attorney of the municipality where the violation is alleged to have occurred. The municipality may enter into an agreement with the county board and the county attorney to provide prosecution services for any criminal offense. All other offenses shall be prosecuted by the county attorney of the county in which the alleged violation occurred.

Sec. 10. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 487.33, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [DISPOSITION.] Except as otherwise provided by sections 487.01 to 487.39 or 574.34, the clerk of county court shall pay to the county treasurer all fines, penalties and fees collected by him, all sums forfeited to the court and all other moneys received by him.

Sec. 11. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 487.33, subdivision 5, is amended to read:

Subd. 5. [ALLOCATION.] The clerk shall provide the county treasurer with the name of the municipality or other subdivision of government where the offense was committed which employed or provided by contract the arresting or apprehending officer and the name of the municipality or other subdivision of government which employed the prosecuting attorney or oth- erwise provided for prosecution of the offense for each fine or penalty and the total amount of fines or penalties collected for each ~~such~~ municipality or other subdivision of government. On or before the last day of each month, the county treasurer shall pay over to the treasurer of each municipality or subdivision of government within the county all fines or penalties for parking violations for which complaints and warrants have not been issued and ~~one-half~~ one-third of all fines or penalties collected during the previous month for offenses committed within ~~such~~ the municipality or subdivision of government from persons arrested or issued citations by officers employed by the municipality or subdivision or provided by the municipality or subdivision by contract. An additional one-third of all fines or penalties shall be paid to the municipality or subdivision of government providing prosecution of offenses of the type for which the fine or penalty is collected occurring within the municipality or subdivision, imposed for violations of state statute or of an ordinance, charter provision, rule or regulation of a city whether or not a guilty plea is entered or bail is forfeited. Except as provided in section 299D.03, subdivision 5, or as otherwise provided by law-, all other fines and forfeitures and all fees and costs collected by the clerk of court shall be paid to the county treasurer of the county in which the funds were collected who shall dispense ~~the same~~ them as provided by law.

Sec. 12. [487.331] [CHISAGO COUNTY; EXCEPTION.]

Sections 5 to 11 do not apply to Chisago County and cities within it. Laws 1975, chapter 392, sections 1 and 2 shall continue to govern prosecutions for offenses alleged to have occurred within Chisago County. The county attorney of Chisago County shall also prosecute petty misdemeanor violations of state law alleged to have occurred within the county, and may also prosecute alleged violations of municipal charter provisions or municipal rules or regulations when requested to do so by the municipality, in addition to the offenses he is authorized to prosecute under Laws 1975, chapter 392, sections 1 and 2.

Sec. 13. [487.332] [JOINT POWERS.]

Nothing contained in this act shall supersede any powers any governmental unit has under section 471.59.

Sec. 14. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 488A.03, subdivision 10, is amended to read:

Subd. 10. [ORDER FOR PRISONER RELEASE.] When a person is confined to the Minneapolis workhouse and a fine is remitted, a sentence stayed or suspended, the person released on parole, or the release of the person secured by payment of the fine in default of which he was committed, the prisoner shall not be released except upon order of the court. A written transcript of such order signed by the clerk and under the court's seal shall be furnished to the superintendent of the Minneapolis workhouse. All costs of confinement or imprisonment in any jail or workhouse shall be paid by the municipality or subdivision of government in Hennepin county in which the violation occurred, except that the county shall pay all costs of confinement or imprisonment incurred as a result of a prosecution of a gross misdemeanor.

Sec. 14. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 488A.10, subdivision 11, is amended to read:

Subd. 11. [PROSECUTING ATTORNEYS.] Except as otherwise provided in this subdivision, the attorney of the municipality in which the violation is alleged to have occurred ~~shall have~~ has charge of the prosecution of all violations of the state laws, including violations which are gross misdemeanors, and municipal charter provisions, ordinances, rules and regulations triable in the municipal court and shall prepare complaints for ~~said the~~ violations. The county attorney ~~shall have~~ has charge of the prosecution of a violation triable in municipal court and shall prepare a complaint for ~~said the~~ violation:

(a) if he is specifically designated by law as the prosecutor for the particular violation charged; or

(b) if the alleged violation is of state law and is alleged to have occurred in a municipality or other subdivision of government whose population according to the most recent federal census is less than 2500 and whose governing body ~~(, or the town board~~ in the case of a town, ~~the town board~~) has accepted this paragraph by majority vote, and if the defendant is cited or arrested by a member of the staff of the sheriff of Hennepin county or by a member of the state patrol.

Paragraph (b) shall not apply to a municipality or other subdivision of government whose population according to the most recent federal decennial census is 2500 or more, regardless of whether or not it has previously accepted the paragraph.

Sec. 15. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 574.34, is amended to read:

574.34 [FINES, HOW DISPOSED OF.]

Subdivision 1. [GENERAL.] Fines and forfeitures not specially granted or appropriated by law shall be paid into the treasury of the county where ~~the same~~ they are incurred.

Subd. 2. [MUNICIPAL PROSECUTION; GROSS MISDEMEANORS.] If a city or municipal attorney prosecutes a gross misdemeanor offense, the proceeds of any fine collected by the court shall be disbursed in the same manner as though the offense was a misdemeanor prosecuted by the city or municipal attorney in county or municipal court. The county shall pay for any costs associated with incarceration.

weapons, illegal drugs, or alcohol, if possession is prohibited by the commissioner, and is subject to the following:

(a) Prior to conducting a search of a resident's room or property, the administrator shall provide written authorization to conduct the search. This authorization must identify the resident whose room or property is to be searched, state the nature of the risk to the health or safety of that resident or to other individuals in the home, set forth the facts which establish that the risk exists and the source of those facts, and particularly describe the area to be searched and the property to be seized. A separate authorization must be completed for each resident whose room or property is to be searched.

(b) The resident shall be informed of the reasons necessitating a search of his room or property and shall be present during the conduct of the search if the resident requests to be present. A copy of the administrator's authorization must be given to the resident.

(c) If property or other items are taken, a written receipt describing the property or items taken must be given to the resident.

(d) The provisions of this section do not restrict the entry by employees of the home into a resident's room or into areas where the personal possessions of residents are stored for the purpose of providing care or services to the resident or for housekeeping and maintenance purposes. The provisions of this section do not apply to inspections conducted by governmental agencies for the purpose of assessing compliance with state or federal laws and regulations.

“Sec. 5. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 253B.03, subdivision 6, is amended to read:

Subd. 6. [CONSENT FOR MEDICAL PROCEDURE.] A patient has the right to prior consent to any medical or surgical treatment, other than the treatment of mental illness, mental retardation or chemical dependency. The following procedures shall be used to obtain consent for any treatment necessary to preserve the life or health of any committed patient:

- (1) The consent of a competent adult patient for the treatment is sufficient.
- (2) If the patient is subject to guardianship or conservatorship which includes the provision of medical care, the consent of the guardian or conservator for the treatment is sufficient.
- (3) If the head of the treatment facility determines that the patient is not competent to consent to the treatment and the patient has not been adjudicated incompetent, consent for the surgery shall be obtained from the nearest proper relative. For this purpose, the following persons are proper relatives, in the order listed: the patient's spouse, parent, adult child, or adult sibling. If the nearest proper relatives cannot be located or refuse to consent to the procedure, the head of the treatment facility or an interested person may petition the committing court for approval for the treatment or may petition an appropriate court for the appointment of a guardian or conservator. The determination that the patient is not competent, and the reasons for the determination, shall be documented in the patient's clinical record.
- (4) ~~Consent for a medical procedure upon a minor shall be governed by other provisions of law relating to the provision of treatment to minors to treatment of any minor patient shall be secured in accordance with sections 144.341 to 144.346, except that a minor 16 years of age or older may give valid consent for hospitalization, routine diagnostic evaluation, and emergency or short term acute care.~~
- (5) In the case of an emergency and when the persons ordinarily qualified to give consent cannot be located, the head of the treatment facility may give consent.

No person who consents to treatment pursuant to the provisions of this subdivision shall be civilly or criminally liable for the performance or the manner of performing the treatment. No person shall be liable for performing treatment without consent if consent was given pursuant to this subdivision. This provision shall not affect any other liability which may result from the manner in which the treatment is performed.”

care and treatment of mental illness, mental retardation, or chemical dependency. The contract shall provide that the Indian Health Service may not transfer any person for admission to a regional center unless the commitment procedure utilized by the tribal court provided due process protections similar to those afforded by sections 253B.05 to 253B.10.

Subd. 2. [EFFECT GIVEN TO TRIBAL COMMITMENT ORDER.] When, under an agreement entered into pursuant to subdivision 1, the Indian Health Service applies to a regional center for admission of a person committed to the jurisdiction of the health service by the tribal court as mentally ill, mentally retarded, or chemically dependent, the commissioner may treat the patient with the consent of the Indian Health Service.

A person admitted to a regional center pursuant to this section has all the rights accorded by section 253B.03. In addition, treatment reports, prepared in accordance with the requirements of section 253B.12, subdivision 1, shall be filed with the Indian Health Service within 60 days of commencement of the patient's stay at the facility. A subsequent treatment report shall be filed with the Indian Health Service within six months of the patient's admission to the facility or prior to discharge, whichever comes first. Provisional discharge or transfer of the patient may be authorized by the head of the treatment facility only with the consent of the Indian Health Service. Discharge from the facility to the Indian Health Service may be authorized by the head of the treatment facility after notice to and consultation with the Indian Health Service."

(f) At the time of purchase the manufacturer, either directly or through its agent or its authorized dealer, must provide the consumer a written statement on a separate piece of paper, in ten point all capital type, in substantially the following form: “IMPORTANT: IF THIS VEHICLE IS DEFECTIVE, YOU MAY BE ENTITLED UNDER STATE LAW TO REPLACEMENT OF IT OR A REFUND OF ITS PURCHASE PRICE. HOWEVER, TO BE ENTITLED TO REFUND OR REPLACEMENT, YOU MUST FIRST NOTIFY THE MANUFACTURER, ITS AGENT, OR ITS AUTHORIZED DEALER OF THE PROBLEM IN WRITING AND GIVE THEM AN OPPORTUNITY TO REPAIR THE VEHICLE.”

Subd. 4. [RESALE OF RETURNED MOTOR VEHICLE.] (a) If a motor vehicle has been returned under the provisions of subdivision 3 or a similar statute of another state, it may not be resold in this state unless:

(1) the manufacturer provides the same express warranty it provided to the original purchaser, except that the term of the warranty need only last for 12,000 miles or 12 months after the date of resale, whichever is earlier; and

(2) the manufacturer provides the consumer with a written statement on a separate piece of paper, in ten point all capital type, in substantially the following form: "IMPORTANT: THIS VEHICLE WAS RETURNED TO THE MANUFACTURER BECAUSE IT DID NOT CONFORM TO THE MANUFACTURER'S EXPRESS WARRANTY AND THE NONCONFORMITY WAS NOT CURED WITHIN A REASONABLE TIME AS PROVIDED BY MINNESOTA LAW."

The provisions of this section apply to the resold motor vehicle for full term of the warranty required under this subdivision.

(b) Notwithstanding the provisions of paragraph (a), if a new motor vehicle has been returned under the provisions of subdivision 3 or a similar statute of another state because of a nonconformity resulting in a complete failure of the braking or steering system of the motor vehicle likely to cause death or serious bodily injury if the vehicle was driven, the motor vehicle may not be resold in this state."

Renumber the subdivisions in sequence

Sec. 6. [15A.082] [COMPENSATION COUNCIL.]

Subdivision 1. [CREATION.] A compensation council is created to assist the legislature in establishing the compensation of justices of the supreme court, and judges of the court of appeals, district court, county court, county municipal court, constitutional officers and members of the Minnesota legislature.

Subd. 2. [MEMBERSHIP.] The compensation council consists of twelve members: two members of the House of Representatives appointed by the speaker of the House of Representatives; two members of the Senate appointed by the majority leader of the Senate; one member of the House of Representatives appointed by the minority leader of the House of Representatives; one member of the Senate appointed by the minority leader of the Senate; and six members appointed by and serving at the pleasure of the governor, of whom no more than four may belong to the same political party. The members appointed by the governor shall be compensated as provided in section 15.059, subdivision 3. The legislative coordinating commission shall provide the council with administrative and support services.

Subd. 3. [SUBMISSION OF PLAN.] By January 1, 1984, the compensation council shall submit to the speaker of the House of Representatives and the president of the Senate a recommended compensation plan for justices of the supreme court, and judges of the court of appeals, district court, county court, county municipal court, constitutional officers, and legislators. The salary portion of a plan shall take effect January 1, 1985, unless the plan is modified or rejected in a bill passed by the legislature prior to January 1, 1985. If the legislature does not modify or reject the plan, the legislature shall be deemed to have prescribed compensation for members of the judiciary, constitutional officers, and members of the legislature.

Subd. 4. [EXPIRATION.] The compensation council shall expire on June 30, 1984.

Sec. 7. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 15A.083, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [ELECTIVE JUDICIAL OFFICERS.] The following salaries shall be paid annually to the enumerated elective judicial officers of the state:

	Effective July 1, 1979 1983	Effective July 1, 1980 1984
(1) Chief justice of the supreme court	$56,000 $65,000	$59,000 $73,000
(2) Associate justice of the supreme court	$2,500 61,000	56,000 68,000

(3) (5) District judge, judge of county court (learned in the law), probate court, and county municipal court	45,000 53,000	48,000 58,000
(4) (6) Judge of a county court (not learned in the law)	29,500 40,000	31,500

Sec. 8. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 15A.083, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [COUNTY COURT AND COUNTY MUNICIPAL JUDGES.] (4) ~~Notwithstanding any other law to the contrary, the salary paid to a judge of a county court shall also be paid to judges of the probate court of St. Louis county and to judges of the Duluth municipal court.~~

(2) ~~Judges of the county municipal courts, and county courts in the counties of Hennepin, Ramsey, Washington, Anoka, Scott, St. Louis, Carver and Dakota shall receive a salary of $45,000, effective July 1, 1979, and $48,000, effective July 1, 1980.~~

(3) ~~If any judge enumerated in this subdivision of the county municipal courts, and county courts in the counties of Hennepin, Ramsey, Washington, Anoka, Scott, St. Louis, Carver, and Dakota or the county or probate court in St. Louis County dies while in office, the amount of his salary remaining unpaid for the month in which his death occurs, shall be paid to his estate.~~

Sec. 9. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 15A.083, subdivision 4, is amended to read:

Subd. 4. [RANGES FOR OTHER JUDICIAL POSITIONS.] Salaries or salary ranges are provided for the following positions in the judicial branch of government. The appointing authority of any position for which a salary range has been provided shall fix the individual salary within the prescribed range, considering the qualifications and overall performance of the employee. Appointments to fill vacancies shall not be made above the midpoint of the salary range prescribed for the position unless the state court administrator has been consulted in advance and his approval obtained. Any salary increase that would adjust an employee's rate of pay beyond the midpoint of the range prescribed for the position must be approved in advance by the state court administrator. The salaries of the district administrators of the second and fourth judicial districts may be supplemented by the appropriate county board in an amount not to exceed $10,000 per year.

	Salary or Range
	Effective July 1, 1979	Effective July 1, 1980	Effective July 1, 1983
Public defender District court administrator	$37,500	$40,000	$52,200
	27,000-37,500	28,500-40,000	36,000-48,000

Board on judicial standards executive director	36,000	38,000	32,000-44,000
State court administrator	44,500	47,000	45,500-58,000

Sec. 10. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 43A.17, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 8. [ACCUMULATED VACATION LEAVE.] The commissioner of employee relations shall not adopt or approve a compensation plan pursuant to section 43A.18, subdivisions 2, 3, and 4, for payroll periods that begin after July 1, 1983, if the compensation plan permits an employee to be paid cash for accumulated vacation leave before separation from state service.

Sec. 11. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 43A.18, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

*Subd. 3. [MANAGERIAL PLAN.] The commissioner shall identify individual positions or groups of positions in the classified and unclassified service, ~~except those listed in subdivision 4,~~ in the executive branch as being managerial. The list shall not include positions listed in subdivision 4. The commissioner shall annually submit the listing of positions to the chairperson of the legislative commission on employee relations for the commission's review and comment, and shall note on each listing the changes from the prior year.*

(a) The commissioner shall periodically prepare a plan for ~~training and development, mobility,~~ total compensation and terms and conditions of employment for employees of those positions identified as being managerial and whose salaries and benefits are not otherwise provided for in law or other plans established under chapter 43A. ~~The plan shall include a career executive service to provide a system for identifying, developing and recognizing key individuals who occupy managerial positions in the classified service.~~ Before becoming effective those portions of the plan establishing compensation and terms and conditions of employment shall be reviewed and approved or modified by the legislative commission on employee relations and the legislature in the same manner as provided for the commissioner's plan in subdivision 2.

(b) Incumbents of managerial positions as identified under this subdivision shall be excluded from any bargaining units under the provisions of chapter 179.

(c) The management compensation plan shall provide methods and levels of compensation for managers that will be generally comparable to those applicable to managers in other public and private employment. Provisions of the plan shall ensure that compensation within assigned salary ranges is related to level of performance. The plan shall also provide a procedure for establishment of a salary rate for a newly created position and a new appointee to an existing position and for progression through assigned salary ranges. The employee benefits established under the provisions of the managerial plan may be extended to agency heads whose salaries are established in section 15A.081, subdivision 1, and to constitutional officers, judges of the workers' compensation court of appeals, and tax court judges.

(d) ~~The management plan shall include total compensation for individuals appointed to the career executive service. Salaries established under this plan shall be limited to 120 percent of the maximum of the salary range for the employee's job classification in the classified service.~~

~~(e) No rights or tenure shall attach to a career executive service assignment. An incumbent in the career executive service may be removed from the career executive service by the appointing authority, provided the action is made without regard to sex, race, religion, color, creed, marital status, age, national origin, disability, status with regard to public assistance or political affiliation. An employee removed from the career executive service shall receive compensation at the level formerly received plus any increases the employee would have received had the employee not been appointed to the career executive service.~~

An employee who is in the career executive service on July 1, 1981 and whose position, as a result of Laws 1981, Chapter 210, is no longer eligible for inclusion in the career executive service is nonetheless eligible to remain a member of the career executive service in accordance with the provisions of this section so long as the employee remains in that position.

Sec. 12. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 43A.18, subdivision 4, is amended to read:

Subd. 4. [PLANS NOT ESTABLISHED BUT APPROVED BY COMMISSIONER.] Notwithstanding any other law to the contrary, total compensation for employees listed in this subdivision shall be set by appointing authorities subject to the following limitations:

(a) Total compensation paid pursuant to this subdivision shall be within the limits of compensation plans which shall have been approved by the commissioner before becoming effective;

(b) Total compensation for employees who are not covered by a collective bargaining agreement in the offices of the governor, attorney general, secretary of state, state auditor and state treasurer shall be determined by the governor, attorney general, secretary of state, state auditor and state treasurer, respectively;

(c) Total compensation for unclassified employees of the state board of investment shall be determined by the state board of investment;

(d) (c) Total compensation for unclassified positions pursuant to section

43A.08, subdivision 1, clause (h) and in the higher education coordinating board shall be determined by the state university board, the state board for community colleges, and the higher education coordinating board, respectively; and

(e) (d) Total compensation for classified hearing examiners in the office of administrative hearings shall be determined by the chief hearing examiner.

Sec. 13. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 43A.18, subdivision 5, is amended to read:

Subd. 5. [GOVERNOR TO SET RECOMMEND CERTAIN SALARIES.] ~~SET~~ The governor shall, on or before ~~January 31~~ July 1 of each odd numbered year, submit to the legislative commission on employee relations recommendations for salaries within the salary range for the positions listed in ~~sections section 15A.081 and 15A.083.~~ The governor may also propose additions or deletions of positions from those listed.

(a) Before submitting the recommendations, the governor shall consult with the commissioner of administration, the commissioner of finance, and the commissioner of employee relations concerning the recommendations. Before submitting recommendations for an employee in the office of a constitutional officer, the governor shall consult with the constitutional officer concerning the recommendations and shall give due consideration to the advice of the officer;

(b) ~~Except for positions for which salary ranges have been established, the recommendations shall contain a specific salary for each position listed in sections 15A.081 and 15A.083. The governor shall determine only a fixed salary for the positions of the constitutional officers, the judges of the workers' compensation court of appeals and the commissioner of public service;~~

(e) (b) In making recommendations, the governor shall consider only those criteria established in subdivision 7 8 and shall not take into account performance of individual incumbents. The governor shall establish an objective system for quantifying knowledge, abilities, duties, responsibilities and accountabilities and in determining recommendations rate each position by this system; ~~and~~

(c) Before the governor's recommended salaries shall take effect, the recommendations shall be reviewed and approved, rejected or modified by the legislative commission on employee relations and the legislature in the same manner as provided for the commissioner's plan in subdivision 2. The governor may also at any time propose changes in the salary rate of any positions covered by this subdivision, which shall be submitted and approved in the same manner as provided in this subdivision; and

(d) The initial salary of a head of an agency hereafter established whose salary is not specifically prescribed by law shall be fixed by the governor, after consultation with the commissioner, whose recommendation shall be advisory only, in an amount comparable to the salary of an agency head having similar duties and responsibilities.

Sec. 14. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 43A.21, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 5. [CAREER EXECUTIVE SERVICE.] (a) The commissioner shall designate persons in the classified service as eligible for inclusion in the career executive service. The positions shall include those which carry basic responsibilities for high level professional or scientific competence, policy determination, leadership, or the internal management and administration of a department or other major unit.

(b) The commissioner shall prepare a plan for training and development, and mobility of career executive service members consistent with applicable provisions of collective bargaining agreements. The plan need not be adopted in accordance with the rulemaking provisions of chapter 14. The career executive service plan shall not contain additional compensation for members.

(c) No rights or tenure shall attach to a career executive service assignment. An incumbent in the career executive service may be removed from the service by the appointing authority, provided the action is made without regard to sex, race, religion, color, creed, marital status, age, national origin, disability, or political affiliation.

(d) An employee in career executive service on July 1, 1983, who is receiving compensation at a level beyond the maximum of the assigned salary range shall continue to receive that rate of pay until the rate is within the assigned salary range.

Sec. 15. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 105.71, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. The state board may employ such technical and professional personnel and such other agents and employees, permanent or temporary, as it may require, and shall determine their qualifications, and duties, and Compensation of employees shall be determined pursuant to chapter 43A. It shall have authority to prescribe the powers and duties of its officers and employees.

Upon request of the board for the purpose of carrying out any of its functions, the supervising officer of any state agency, or any state institution of learning, shall, insofar as it may be possible under available appropriations, and having due regard to the needs of the agency to which the request is directed, assign or detail to the state board from the staff or personnel of the agency or institution of learning, and make such special reports, surveys or studies as the state board may request.

Sec. 16. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 136.034, is amended to read:

136.034 [STATE UNIVERSITY SYSTEM; EXECUTIVE SALARIES.]

Notwithstanding the provisions of ~~chapters 15A and 43~~ chapter 43A, the state university board may establish executive salaries within the state university system, except for the salary of the chancellor, in accordance with a management compensation plan based on the level of responsibility and authority of various positions as well as appropriate market comparisons with similar positions in comparable public colleges and universities in the midwest.

The salary of the chancellor, which shall be established pursuant to section 15A.081, subdivision 1, is the upper limit of compensation for all other positions in the state university system.

The state university board shall survey compensation levels in comparable public colleges and universities in the midwest during the 1979-81 biennium and report necessary adjustments in the above level of compensation to the governor and legislature as part of its 1981-83 biennial budget request.

Sec. 17. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 136A.03, is amended to read:

136A.03 [EXECUTIVE OFFICERS; EMPLOYEES.]

The higher education coordinating board may appoint an executive secretary or director as its principal executive officer, and such other officers and employees as it may deem necessary to carry out its duties. The executive secretary or director shall possess such powers and perform such duties as are delegated to him and shall serve in the unclassified service of the state civil service. The salary of the executive director shall be established pursuant to section 15A.081, subdivision 1. He shall be a person qualified by training and ability in the field of higher education or in educational administration. The board may also appoint other officers and professional employees who shall serve in the unclassified service of the state civil service and fix the salaries thereof which shall be commensurate with salaries in the classified service; ~~and shall also fix the salary of its principal executive officer.~~ All other employees shall be in the classified civil service.

An officer or professional employee in the unclassified service as provided in this section is a person who has studied higher education or a related field at the graduate level or has similar experience and who is qualified for a career in some aspect of higher education and for activities in keeping with the planning and administrative responsibilities of the board and who is appointed to assume responsibility for administration of educational programs or research in matters of higher education.

617.241 [OBSCENE MATERIALS; DISTRIBUTION PROHIBITED; PENALTY.]

Subdivision 1. [DEFINITIONS.] For purposes of this section, the following terms have the meanings given them:

(a) “Obscene” means that the work, taken as a whole, appeals to the prurient interest in sex of the average person, which portrays patently offensive sexual conduct and which, taken as a whole, does not have serious literary, artistic, political, or scientific value. In order to determine that a work is obscene, the trier of fact must find: (i) that the average person, applying contemporary community standards would find that the work, taken as a whole, appeals to the prurient interest in sex of the average person; (ii) that the work depicts patently offensive sexual conduct specifically defined by clause (b); and (iii) that the work, taken as a whole, lacks serious literary, artistic, political, or scientific value.

(b) “Patently offensive sexual conduct” includes any of the following depicted sexual conduct:

(i) An act of sexual intercourse, normal or perverted, actual or simulated, including genital-genital, anal-genital, or oral-genital intercourse, whether between human beings or between a human being and an animal.

(ii) Sadoomasochistic abuse, meaning flagellation or torture by or upon a person who is nude or clad in undergarments or in a revealing costume or the condition of being fettered, bound, or otherwise physically restricted on the part of one so clothed.

(iii) Masturbation or lewd exhibitions of the genitals including any explicit, close-up representation of a human genital organ.

(iv) Physical contact or simulated physical contact with the clothed or unclothed pubic areas or buttocks of a human male or female, or the breasts of the female, whether alone or between members of the same or opposite sex or between humans and animals in an act of apparent sexual stimulation or gratification.

(c) “Community” means the political subdivision from which persons properly qualified to serve as jurors in a civil proceeding are chosen.

Subd. 2. [CRIME.] It is unlawful for any person knowingly to exhibit, sell, print, offer to sell, give away, circulate, publish, distribute, or attempt to distribute any obscene book, magazine, pamphlet, paper, writing, card, advertisement, circular, print, picture, photograph, motion picture film, play, image, instrument, statue, drawing, or other article which is obscene. ~~“Obscene” for the purpose of this section, is defined as follows: Whether to the average person, applying contemporary community standards, the dominant theme of the material taken as a whole appeals to prurient interests.~~

Subd. 3. [PENALTY.] Any person violating any provision of this section shall be fined up to $5,000 for the first offense and up to $10,000 for the second or a subsequent offense.

Sec. 10. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 617.243, is amended to read:

617.243 [INDECENT LITERATURE, DISTRIBUTION.]

Subdivision 1. [PROHIBITED ACTIVITY.] ~~Any~~ No person, copartnership or corporation shall ~~not~~, as a condition to a sale or delivery for resale of any paper, magazine, book, comic, periodical or publication, require that the purchaser or consignee receive for resale any other article, book, comic or other publication reasonably believed by the purchaser or consignee to be obscene as defined in section 617.241.

Subd. 2. [PENALTY.] ~~The~~ A violation of ~~the provisions~~ of subdivision 1 is a gross misdemeanor.

Sec. 11. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 617.246, is amended to read:

617.246 [PROHIBITING PROMOTION USE OF MINORS TO ENGAGE IN OBSCENE WORKS SEXUAL PERFORMANCE PROHIBITED.]

Subdivision 1. [DEFINITIONS.] (a) For the purpose of this section, the terms defined in this subdivision ~~shall~~ have the meanings given them.

(b) “Minor” means any person ~~who has not attained his or her 18th birthday~~ under the age of 18.

(c) “Promote” means to produce, direct, publish, manufacture, issue, or advertise.

(d) “Sexual performance” means any play, dance or other exhibition presented before an audience or for purposes of visual or mechanical reproduction which depicts ~~patently offensive~~ sexual conduct as defined by clause (f) (e).

(e) ~~“An obscene work” is a picture, a film, photograph, negative, slide, drawing or similar visual representation depicting a minor, which taken as a whole appeals to pedophiles or to the prurient interest in sex of the average person, which portrays patently offensive sexual conduct and which, taken as a whole, does not have serious literary, artistic, political or scientific value. In determining whether or not a work is an obscene work the trier of the fact must find: (i) that the average person, applying contemporary community standards would find that the work, taken as a whole appeals to pedophiles or to the prurient interest in sex of the average person; and (ii) that the work depicts patently offensive sexual conduct specifically defined by clause (f); and (iii) that the work, taken as a whole, lacks serious literary, artistic, political or scientific value.~~

(f) “Patently offensive Sexual conduct” ~~includes~~ means any of the following ~~depicted sexual conduct~~ if the depiction involves a minor:

(i) An act of sexual intercourse, normal or perverted, actual or simulated, including genital-genital, anal-genital, or oral-genital intercourse, whether between human beings or between a human being and an animal.

(ii) Sadoomasochistic abuse, meaning flagellation ~~or~~, torture, or similar demeaning acts inflicted by or upon a person who is nude or clad in undergarments or in a revealing costume, or the condition of being fettered, bound or otherwise physically restrained on the part of one so clothed.

(iii) Masturbation or lewd exhibitions of the genitals ~~including any explicit, close up representation of a human genital organ.~~

(iv) Physical contact or simulated physical contact with the clothed or unclothed pubic areas or buttocks of a human male or female, or the breasts of the female, whether alone or between members of the same or opposite sex or between humans and animals in an act of apparent sexual stimulation or gratification.

(f) "Work" means an original or reproduction of a picture, film, photograph, negative, slide, videotape, videodisc, or drawing.

Subd. 2. [USE OF MINOR.] It is unlawful for a person to promote, employ, use or permit a minor to engage in or assist others to engage in posing or modeling alone or with others in any sexual performance ~~for purposes of preparing an obscene work if the person knows or has reason to know that the conduct intended is a sexual performance.~~

~~A violation of this subdivision is a felony. Any person who violates this subdivision is guilty of a felony and may be sentenced to imprisonment for not more than five years or to payment of a fine of not more than $5,000 for the first offense and $10,000 for a second or subsequent offense, or both.~~

Subd. 3. [OPERATION OR OWNERSHIP OF BUSINESS.] A person who owns or operates a business in which ~~an obscene~~ a work depicting a minor in a sexual performance, as defined in this section, is disseminated, and who knows the content and character of the ~~obscene~~ work disseminated, is guilty of a felony and may be sentenced to imprisonment for not more than five years, or to payment of a fine of not more than $5,000 for the first offense and $10,000 for a second or subsequent offense, or both.

Subd. 4. [DISSEMINATION.] A person who, knowing or with reason to know its content and character, disseminates for profit ~~an obscene~~ a work depicting a minor in sexual performance, as defined in this section, is guilty of a felony and may be sentenced to imprisonment for not more than five years, or to payment of a fine of not more than $5,000 for the first offense and $10,000 for a second or subsequent offense, or both.

Subd. 5. [CONSENT; MISTAKE.] Neither consent to sexual performance by a minor or his parent, guardian, or custodian nor mistake as to the minor's age is a defense to a charge of violation of this section.

Sec. 12. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 617.247, is amended to read:

617.247 [POSSESSION OF ~~OBSCENE~~ PICTORIAL REPRESENTATIONS OF MINORS.]

Subdivision 1. [POLICY; PURPOSE.] It is the policy of the legislature in enacting this section to protect minors from the physical and psychological damage caused by their being used in ~~obscene~~ photographic representations of sexual conduct which involves minors. It is therefore the intent of the legislature to penalize possession of ~~obscene~~ photographic representations of sexual conduct which involve minors in order to protect the identity of minors who are victimized by involvement in ~~obscene~~ the photographic representations, and to protect minors from future involvement in ~~obscene~~ photographic representations of sexual conduct.

Subd. 2. [DEFINITIONS.] For purposes of this section, the following terms have the meanings given them:

(a) "Photographic representation" means an original or reproduction of a film, videotape, videodisc, photograph, negative, or slide.

(b) "Obscene" means that the work, taken as a whole, appeals to pedophiles or to the prurient interest in sex of the average person, which portrays patently offensive sexual conduct and which, taken as a whole, does not have serious literary, artistic, political, or scientific value. In order to determine that a work is obscene, the trier of fact must find: (i) that the average person, applying contemporary community standards would find that the work, taken as a whole, appeals to pedophiles or to the prurient interest in sex of the average person; and (ii) that the work depicts patently offensive sexual conduct specifically defined by clause (c); and (iii) that the work, taken as a whole, lacks serious literary, artistic, political, or scientific value.

(c) "Patently offensive Sexual conduct" includes any of has the following depicted sexual conduct if the depiction involves a minor:

(i) An act of sexual intercourse, normal or perverted, actual or simulated, including genital-genital, anal-genital, or oral-genital intercourse, whether between human beings or between a human being and an animal meaning given to it in section 617.246.

(ii) Sadoomasochistic abuse, meaning flagellation or torture by or upon a person who is nude or clad in undergarments or in a revealing costume or the condition of being fettered, bound, or otherwise physically restricted on the part of one so clothed.

(iii) Masturbation or lewd exhibitions of the genitals including any explicit, close-up representation of a human genital organ.

(iv) Physical contact or simulated physical contact with the clothed or unclothed pubic areas or buttocks of a human male or female, or the breasts of the female, whether alone or between members of the same or opposite sex or between humans and animals in an act of apparent sexual stimulation or gratification.

Subd. 3. [DISSEMINATION PROHIBITED.] A person who disseminates an ~~obscene~~ a photographic representation of sexual conduct which involves a minor, knowing or with reason to know its content and character and that an actual minor is an actor or photographic subject in it, is guilty of a gross misdemeanor.

Subd. 4. [POSSESSION PROHIBITED.] A person who has in possession an ~~obscene~~ a photographic representation of sexual conduct which involves a minor, knowing or with reason to know its content and character and that an actual minor is an actor or photographic subject in it, is guilty of a gross misdemeanor.

Subd. 5. [EXCEPTION.] This section does not apply to law enforcement officers, court personnel, licensed physicians and psychologists, and attorneys in the performance of their official duties the performance of official duties by peace officers, court personnel, or attorneys, nor to licensed physicians, psychologists, or social workers or persons acting at the direction of a licensed physician, psychologist, or social worker in the course of a bona fide treatment or professional education program.

Subd. 6. [CONSENT.] Consent to sexual performance by a minor or his parent, guardian, or custodian is not a defense to a charge of violation of this section.

Subd. 7. [SECOND OFFENSE.] If a person is convicted of a second or subsequent violation of this section within 15 years of the prior conviction, the court shall order a mental examination of the person. The examiner shall report to the court whether treatment of the person is necessary.

Sec. 13. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 617.298, is amended to read:

617.298 [OBSCENE MOTION PICTURES AT DRIVE-IN THEATRES; DEFINITIONS.]

Subdivision 1. [DEFINITIONS.] For the purposes of this section and section 617.299, the terms defined in this section have the meanings given them.

Subd. 2. [OBSCENE.] A motion picture is "Obscene" if:

(a) Considered as a whole, by an average person applying contemporary community standards, it is found to appeal predominantly to the prurient interest, that is, a shameful or morbid interest in nudity, sex or excretion; and

(b) Taken as a whole, it lacks serious literary, artistic, political, or scientific value; and

(c) It depicts or describes in a patently offensive way sexual conduct.

For the purpose of this subdivision, "community" means the political subdivision from which persons properly qualified to serve as jurors in a civil proceeding are chosen has the meaning given to it in section 617.241.

Subd. 3. [NUDITY.] "Nudity" means the showing of the human male or female genitals, pubic areas, or buttocks with less than a fully opaque covering, or the showing of an uncovered, or less than opaquely covered, female breast below a point immediately above the top of the nipple (, or the breast with the nipple and immediately adjacent area only covered).

Subd. 4. "Sexual conduct" means any of the following depicted sexual conduct:

(a) Sadomasochistic abuse, meaning flagellation or torture by or upon a person who is nude, or clad in undergarments, a mask or bizarre costume, or the condition of being bound, fettered, or otherwise physically restrained on the part of one who is so clothed as an act of sexual stimulation or gratification;

(b) Human defecation or urination;

~~(c) The condition of human male or female genitals, or the breasts of the female when in a state of sexual stimulation, or the sensual experience of humans in engaging in or witnessing sexual conduct or nudity; or~~

~~(d) Human masturbation, sexual intercourse or sodomy, actual or simulated, or any touching of the genitals, pubic areas or buttocks of a human being, whether alone or between members of the same or opposite sex or between humans or animals in an act of apparent sexual stimulation or gratification.~~

Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 617.298, subdivision 4, is repealed.

"Section 1. [14.625] [AWARD OF COSTS.]

Except in a case for the purpose of establishing or fixing a rate or for granting, renewing, suspending, or revoking a license, hearing examiners in contested cases, and courts in subsequent judicial review, may award costs, attorney fees, and witness fees under the circumstances set forth in section 549.21.

Sec. 2. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 549.21, is amended to read:

549.21 [REIMBURSEMENT FOR CERTAIN COSTS IN CIVIL ACTIONS.]

Upon motion of a party, the court in its discretion may award to that party costs, disbursements, reasonable attorney fees, and witness fees if the party or attorney against whom costs, disbursements, reasonable attorney and witness fees are charged acted in bad faith; asserted a claim or defense ~~knowing it to be that is frivolous and that is costly to the other party~~; asserted an unfounded position solely to delay the ordinary course of the proceedings or to harass; or committed a fraud upon the court. ~~To qualify for an award under this section, a party shall give timely notice of intent to claim an award.~~ An award under this section shall be without prejudice and as an alternative to any claim for sanctions that may be asserted under the rules of civil procedure. Nothing herein shall authorize the award of costs, disbursements, or fees against a party or attorney advancing a claim or defense unwarranted under existing law, if it is supported by a good faith argument for an extension, modification, or reversal of the existing law.

A party under this section includes the state and its political subdivisions.

SECOND READING OF HOUSE BILLS

H.F. Nos. 114, 1092, 455 and 1147 were read the second time.

MOTIONS AND RESOLUTIONS

Mr. Merriam moved that the name of Mrs. Lantry be added as a co-author to S.F. No. 280. The motion prevailed.

SUSPENSION OF RULES

Remaining on the Order of Business of Motions and Resolutions, Mr. Moe, R.D. moved that the Senate take up the Consent Calendar and that the rules of the Senate be so far suspended as to waive the lie-over requirement. The motion prevailed.

CONSENT CALENDAR

H.F. No. 462: A bill for an act relating to St. Louis County; limiting compensation of elected county officers.

Mr. Dicklich moved to amend H. F. No. 462 as follows:

“Sec. 2. Laws 1955, chapter 633, section 1, subdivision 2, as amended by Laws 1978, chapter 468, section 1, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [FEES.] For such certificate the county shall receive a compensation of ~~$2~~ not to exceed the fee established by Minnesota Statutes, section 272.46, for each lot or parcel of land described in the certificate, ~~which~~. The fee shall be prescribed by the county board and collected by the county auditor. Any number of contiguous tracts of land not exceeding one section, assessed as broad acres, or adjoining lots in the same block, in the city or village, shall be considered as one parcel of land or lot within the meaning of this section. All moneys received by the county auditor under this section shall immediately be paid by him to the county treasurer as hereinafter provided.

Sec. 3. Laws 1951, chapter 391, section 2. is amended to read:

Sec. 2. Each of the county commissioners shall be allowed and paid in addition to said salary, his actual and necessary traveling expenses incurred and paid by him in the discharge of his official duties, ~~not exceeding in any one calendar year the sum of $900 for each commissioner.~~ Such traveling expenses shall be allowed by the county board upon duly verified and itemized bills in the same manner as other claims against the county.

Sec. 4. Laws 1959, chapter 301, section 1, as amended by Laws 1977, chapter 60, section 1, is amended to read:

Section 1. [ST. LOUIS COUNTY; AUTOMOBILE EXPENSE OF COMMISSIONERS.] County commissioners of St. Louis County are hereby authorized to pay themselves when they submit a certified claim to the board, for the use of their privately owned cars used in county business at the rate permitted by law, from the road and bridge fund of their respective districts, and said payments shall be over and above their general expenses for county business authorized by Laws 1951, chapter 391, section 2, ~~but not to exceed in any one calendar year the sum of $1,800 for each commissioner.~~

Sec. 5. [CLERK OF ST. LOUIS COUNTY BOARD.]

Notwithstanding the provisions of Minnesota Statutes, section 384.09, or any other law to the contrary, the St. Louis county board may designate a person other than the county auditor to be clerk of the county board."

Page 1, line 14, delete "this act" and insert "section 1" .

Page 1, line 15, after the period, insert "Sections 2 to 5 are effective the day after compliance with Minnesota Statutes, section 645.021, subdivision 3, by the St. Louis county board."

Renumber the sections in sequence

Amend the title as follows:

SPECIAL ORDER

S.F. No. 473: A bill for an act relating to traffic regulations; removing restrictions on use at trial of an accused's refusal to take a chemical test; providing that a suspect be informed that refusal to take a chemical test will be used against him at trial; providing penalties; amending Minnesota Statutes 1982, sections 169.121, subdivisions 2, 3, and 4; and 169.123, subdivisions 2, 3, and 4.

Mr. Ramstad moved to amend S.F. No. 473 as follows:

"Sec. 4. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 169.121, subdivision 8, is amended to read:

Subd. 8. [ALCOHOL ASSESSMENT.] When the evidentiary test shows an alcohol concentration of 0.07 or more, that result ~~shall~~ must be reported to the commissioner of public safety. The commissioner shall record that fact on the driver's record. ~~When the driver's record shows a second or subsequent report of an alcohol concentration of 0.07 or more within two years of a recorded report, the commissioner may require that the driver have an alcohol problem assessment meeting the commissioner's requirements. The commissioner shall require that the driver have an alcohol problem assessment at a facility licensed by the commissioner of public welfare or at an assessment program approved by a county board within seven days after the occurrence of any of the following:~~

(a) The chemical test shows an alcohol concentration of 0.10 or more;

(b) The driver's record shows a second or subsequent report of an alcohol concentration of 0.07 or more within two years of a recorded report;

(c) When no test is administered for whatever reason and a peace officer who stops the driver has reasonable cause to believe the person is driving, operating, or in physical control of a motor vehicle while under the influence of alcohol and has a prior alcohol-related driving offense or a prior license revocation pursuant to section 169.123. The court may use the assessment in lieu of a presentence investigation pursuant to a conviction under section 169.121 or when a violation of that section is charged and a conviction for a lesser offense results.

The assessment ~~shall~~ must be at the driver's expense. If the assessment so indicates, an appropriate referral for treatment must be made. In no event shall The commissioner ~~deny~~ shall revoke the license of a person who refuses to take the assessment or to undertake treatment, if treatment is indicated by the assessment, for ~~longer than 90 days~~ six months after appropriate notice and hearing. If an assessment is made ~~pursuant to~~ under this section, the commissioner may waive the assessment required by section 169.126."

Re-number the sections in sequence

Amend the title as follows:

Page 1, line 8, delete the first "and" and after "4" insert ", and 8"

Mr. Merriam moved to amend the Ramstad amendment to S.F. No. 473 as follows:

After the Ramstad amendment, insert:

“Sec. 8. [REPEALER.]

Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 169.1231, is repealed.”

ReNUMBER the sections in sequence

Amend the title as follows:

Page 1, line 6, after the first semicolon, insert “removing requirements for mandatory detoxification in certain instances;”

Page 1, line 9, before the period, insert “; repealing Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 169.1231”

H.F. No. 218: A bill for an act relating to crimes; expanding the rights of victims of crime; affirming the right of victims to bring civil actions against offenders; establishing the right of a victim to request restitution; providing for implementation of victim and witness rights by law; providing penal sanctions and judicial mechanisms to deter intimidation of witnesses; requiring development of a plan for notifying crime victims about available financial assistance and social services; providing for victim participation in the criminal process; providing penalties; amending Minnesota Statutes 1982, sections 241.26, subdivisions 5 and 6; 243.23, subdivision 3; 571.55, by adding a subdivision; 609.115, subdivision 1; 609.498; and 631.425, subdivision 5; proposing new law coded as Minnesota Statutes, chapter 611A.

Reports the same back with the recommendation that the bill be amended as follows:

Delete everything after the enacting clause and insert:

“ARTICLE 1

RIGHTS OF VICTIMS OF CRIMES

“Section 1. [611A.01] [DEFINITIONS.]

For the purposes of sections 1 to 5:

(a) “Crime” means conduct that is included within the definition of “crime” in section 609.02, subdivision 1, or would be included within that definition but for the fact that (i) the person engaging in the conduct lacked capacity to commit the crime under the laws of this state, or (ii) the act was alleged or found to have been committed by a juvenile; and

(b) “Victim” means a person who incurs loss or harm as a result of a crime. If the victim has died as a result of a crime, “victim” includes the deceased’s surviving spouse or next of kin.

Sec. 2. [611A.02] [VICTIM SERVICE NOTIFICATION.]

The executive director of the crime victims reparations board shall develop a plan to provide victims with information concerning victim services in the geographic area where the crime occurred. This information shall include, but need not be limited to, information about available victim crisis centers, programs for victims of sexual assault, victim witness programs, elderly victims projects, victim assistance hotlines, incest abuse programs, and domestic violence shelters and programs.

The plan shall take into account the fact that some counties currently have informational service systems and victim or witness services or programs.

This plan shall be presented to the appropriate standing committees of the legislature no later than February 1, 1984.

Sec. 3. [611A.03] [VICTIM’S RIGHT TO RECEIVE INFORMATION.]

Upon request, the probation officer shall provide the victim with information about the court's options for sentencing and other dispositions.

Sec. 4. [611A.04] [VICTIM'S RIGHT TO REQUEST RESTITUTION.]

Subdivision 1. [REQUEST; DECISION.] A victim has the right to request that restitution be considered as part of the disposition of a criminal charge or juvenile delinquency proceeding against the offender.

The court shall grant or deny restitution, and shall state on the record its reasons for its decision on restitution if a request for restitution has been made.

Subd. 2. [PROCEDURES.] The offender shall make restitution payments to the clerk of the county, municipal, or district court of the county in which the restitution is to be paid. The court shall retain jurisdiction to modify the restitution order.

Subd. 3. [EFFECT OF ORDER FOR RESTITUTION.] A decision for or against restitution in any criminal or juvenile proceeding is not a bar to any civil action by the victim or by the state pursuant to section 299B.10 against the offender. The offender shall be given credit, in any order for judgment in favor of a victim in a civil action, for any restitution paid to the victim for the same injuries for which the judgment is awarded.

Sec. 5. [611A.05] [RIGHT TO NOTICE OF RELEASE.]

The commissioner of corrections or other custodial authority shall make a good faith effort to notify the victim that the offender is to be released from imprisonment or incarceration, other than for work release, prior to the release if the victim has mailed to the commissioner of corrections or to the head of the facility in which the offender is confined a written request for this notice. The commissioner or other custodial authority complies with this section if he mails the notice of impending release to the victim at the address which the victim has most recently provided to him in writing.

Section 1. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 241.26, subdivision 5, is amended to read:

Subd. 5. [EARNINGS; WORK RELEASE ACCOUNT.] The net earnings of each inmate participating in a work release program provided by this section shall be collected by or forwarded to the commissioner of corrections under rules established by him and deposited by the commissioner in the state treasury and, to be credited to the "work release account", which account is hereby established, to the account of such the inmate. Such The moneys shall be and remain under the control of the commissioner for the sole benefit of such the inmate, subject to disbursement by the commissioner for the following purpose purposes and in the following order:

(1) The cost of such the inmate's keep as determined by the provision of subdivision 7, which moneys shall be deposited in the general fund of the state treasury if such the inmate is housed in a state correctional institution, or shall be paid to the appropriate city or county treasurer if such the inmate is housed in a city or county facility;

(2) Necessary travel expense to and from work and other incidental expenses of the inmate;

(3) Support of inmate's dependents, if any;

(4) Court-ordered restitution;

(5) After the above expenditures, the inmate shall have discretion to direct payment of the balance, if any, upon proper proof of personal legal debts;

~~(5)~~ (6) The balance, if any, shall be disbursed to the inmate as provided in section 243.24, subdivision 1.

All moneys in the "work release account" ~~established by this subdivision~~ are appropriated annually to the commissioner of corrections for the purposes of the work release program.

Sec. 2. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 243.23, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [EXCEPTIONS.] Notwithstanding sections 241.01, subdivision 8, 241.26, subdivision 5, and 243.24, subdivision 1, the commissioner shall promulgate rules for the disbursement of funds earned under subdivision 1 for the support of families and dependent relatives of the respective inmates, for the payment of court-ordered restitution, and for the discharge of any legal obligations arising out of litigation under this subdivision. An inmate of an adult correctional facility under the control of the commissioner is subject to actions for the enforcement of support obligations and reimbursement of any public assistance rendered the dependent family and relatives. The commissioner may conditionally release an inmate who is a party to an action under this subdivision and provide for his detention in a local detention facility convenient to the place of the hearing when he is not engaged in preparation and defense.

Sec. 3. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 609.115, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [PRESENTENCE INVESTIGATION.] When a defendant has been convicted of a misdemeanor, or gross misdemeanor, or felony, the court may, and when the defendant has been convicted of a felony, the court shall, before sentence is imposed, cause a presentence investigation and written report to be made to the court concerning the defendant's individual characteristics, circumstances, needs, potentialities, criminal record and social history, the circumstances of the offense and the harm caused ~~thereby~~ by it to others and to the community. If the court ~~so~~ directs, the report shall include an estimate of the prospects of the defendant's rehabilitation and recommendations as to the sentence which should be imposed. In misdemeanor cases the report may be oral.

When a defendant has been convicted of a felony, and before sentencing, the court shall cause a sentencing worksheet to be completed to facilitate the application of the Minnesota sentencing guidelines. ~~If a presentence investigation is ordered by the court,~~ The worksheet shall be submitted as part of the presentence investigation report. ~~If a presentence investigation is not ordered by the court, the worksheet shall nonetheless be submitted.~~

The investigation shall be made by a probation officer of the court, if there is one, otherwise by the commissioner of corrections.

Pending the presentence investigation and report, the court with the consent of the commissioner may commit the defendant to the custody of the commissioner of corrections who shall return the defendant to the court when the court so orders.

Presentence investigations shall be conducted and summary hearings held upon reports and upon the sentence to be imposed upon the defendant in accordance with this section, ~~Minnesota Statutes, Section section~~ 244.10, ~~upon its effective date,~~ and Rule 27 of the rules of criminal procedure.

Sec. 4. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 609.115, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 1b. [ADDITIONAL CONTENTS.] The presentence investigation report shall also include the following information relating to victims:

(a) A summary of the damages or harm and any other problems generated by the criminal occurrence;

(b) A concise statement of what disposition the victim deems appropriate for the defendant or juvenile court respondent, including reasons given, if any, by the victim in support of his opinion; and

(c) An attachment to the report, consisting of the victim's written objections, if any, to the proposed disposition if the victim provides the officer conducting the presentence investigation with this written material within a reasonable time prior to the disposition.

Sec. 5. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 609.115, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 1c. [NOTICE TO VICTIM.] The officer conducting the presentence or predispositional report shall make reasonable and good faith efforts to contact the victim of that crime and to provide that victim with the following information: (i) the charge or juvenile court petition to which the defendant has been convicted or pleaded guilty, or the juvenile respondent has admitted in court or has been found to have committed by the juvenile court, and of any plea agreement between the prosecution and the defense counsel; (ii) his right to request restitution pursuant to article 1, section 4; (iii) his right to be present at the sentencing or juvenile court disposition; and (iv) his right to object in writing to the court, prior to the time of sentencing or juvenile court disposition, to the proposed sentence or juvenile dispositional alternative, or to the terms of the proposed plea agreement. To assist the victim in making a recommendation under clause (iv), the officer shall provide the victim with information about the court's options for sentencing and other dispositions. Failure of the officer to comply with this subdivision does not give any rights or grounds for post conviction or post juvenile disposition relief to the defendant or juvenile court respondent, nor does it entitle a defendant or a juvenile court respondent to withdraw a plea of guilty.

Sec. 6. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 609.498, is amended to read:

609.498 [TAMPERING WITH A WITNESS.]

Subdivision 1. [TAMPERING WITH A WITNESS IN THE FIRST DEGREE.] Whoever does any of the following is guilty of tampering with a witness in the first degree and may be sentenced as provided in subdivision 1a:

(a) intentionally prevents or dissuades or intentionally attempts to prevent or dissuade by means of force or threats of injury to person, family, or property, a person who is or may become a witness from attending or testifying at any trial, proceeding, or inquiry authorized by law, ~~is guilty of tampering with a witness in the first degree and may be sentenced;~~

(b) intentionally threatens to cause injury to person, family, or property in retaliation against a person who was summoned as a witness at any trial, proceeding, or inquiry authorized by law, within a year following that trial, proceeding, or inquiry;

(c) intentionally prevents or dissuades or attempts to prevent or dissuade, by means of force or threats of injury to person, family, or property, a person from providing information to law enforcement authorities concerning a crime; or

(d) intentionally threatens to cause injury to person, family, or property in retaliation against a person who has provided information to law enforcement authorities concerning a crime within a year of that person providing the information.

Subd. 1a. [PENALTY.] Whoever violates subdivision 1 may be sentenced to imprisonment for not more than five years or to payment of a fine not to exceed $5,000.

Subd. 2. [TAMPERING WITH A WITNESS IN THE SECOND DEGREE.] Whoever does any of the following is guilty of tampering with a witness in the second degree and may be sentenced as provided in subdivision 3:

(a) intentionally prevents or dissuades or intentionally attempts to prevent or dissuade by means of any act described in section 609.27, subdivision 1, ~~clauses clause~~ (3), (4), or (5), a person who is or may become a witness from attending or testifying at any trial, proceeding, or inquiry authorized by law, ~~is guilty of tampering with a witness in the second degree and;~~ or

(b) intentionally prevents or dissuades or attempts to prevent or dissuade by means of any act described in section 609.27, subdivision 1, clause (3), (4), or (5), a person from providing information to law enforcement authorities concerning a crime.

Subd. 3. [SENTENCE.] Whoever violates subdivision 2 may be sentenced to imprisonment for not more than one year or to payment of a fine not to exceed $1,000.

Sec. 7. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 631.425, subdivision 5, is amended to read:

Subd. 5. [EARNINGS.] The earnings of the prisoner may be collected by the sheriff, probation department, welfare board or suitable person or agency designated by the court. From ~~such~~ the earnings, the person or agency designated to collect them may pay the cost of the prisoner's maintenance, both inside and outside the jail, but the charge for maintenance inside the jail shall not exceed the legal daily allowance for board allowed the sheriff for ordinary prisoners, and, to the extent directed by the court, pay the support of his dependents, if any, ~~and~~ court costs and fines, ~~and court-ordered restitution~~, if any. Any balance shall be retained until his discharge when it shall be paid to him.

Sec. 8. [EFFECTIVE DATE.]

Articles 1 and 2 of this act are effective August 1, 1983, and apply to crimes committed on or after that date."

Mr. Dieterich from the Committee on Public Utilities and State Regulated Industries, to which was referred

S.F. No. 789: A bill for an act relating to communications; defining terms; requiring access by cable communications companies; imposing conditions of access; limiting certain actions of property owners; allowing appeal; proposing new law coded in Minnesota Statutes, chapter 238.

Reports the same back with the recommendation that the bill be amended as follows:

Delete everything after the enacting clause and insert:

"Section 1. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 238.02, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. The words and phrases used in ~~sections 238.04 to 238.17~~ this chapter have the following meanings unless a different meaning clearly appears in the text.

Sec. 2. [238.135] [LINES CROSSING OVERHEIGHT MOVING ROUTES.]

After July 1, 1983, any cable communications company needing to construct, extend, or replace cable communications transmission lines which cross a street or highway designated by the state or by the applicable city or county as an overheight moving corridor route shall locate the new or replacement transmission lines either underground or at a height not less than 24 feet above the surface of the roadway.

Sec. 3. [238.22] [DEFINITIONS.]

Subdivision 1. [SCOPE.] The terms used in sections 3 to 21 have the meanings given them in this section.

Subd. 2. [DWELLING UNIT.] "Dwelling unit" means a single unit providing complete, independent, living facilities for one or more persons, including permanent provisions for living, sleeping, eating, cooking, and san- itation.

Subd. 3. [MANUFACTURED HOME PARK.] "Manufactured home park" means a site, lot, field, or tract of land upon which two or more occupied manufactured homes are located.

Subd. 4. [MOBILE HOME PARK.] "Mobile home park" means a manufactured home park.

Subd. 5. [MULTIPLE DWELLING COMPLEX.] "Multiple dwelling complex" means a site, lot, field, or tract of land or water, other than a manufactured home park, or mobile home park, containing more than one occupied dwelling unit. A condominium or condominium complex is not a multiple dwelling unit.

Subd. 6. [PROPERTY OWNER.] "Property owner" means a landlord, organization, or other person controlling access to a manufactured home park, a mobile home park, or a multiple dwelling complex.

Subd. 7. [RESIDENT.] "Resident" means a person or entity paying rent to a property owner.

Sec. 4. [238.23] [ACCESS REQUIRED.]

A property owner shall provide access by a franchised cable communications company to the property owner's manufactured home park, mobile home park, or multiple dwelling complex. The access provided must be perpetual and freely transferable by one cable communications company to another. A cable communications company granted access, and its successors in interest, must fully comply with sections 3 to 21. Access must include entrance onto the premises of the property owner and an easement for purposes of surveying, designing, installing, inspecting, maintaining, operating, repairing, replacing, or removing equipment used in the construction and operation of a cable communications system.

Sec. 5. [238.24] [CONDITIONS FOR ACCESS.]

Subdivision 1. [IN GENERAL.] An installation of cable communications facilities under sections 3 to 21 must conform to reasonable conditions necessary to protect the safety, functioning, and aesthetic appearance of the premises, and the convenience and well-being of the property owner and residents or association members.

Subd. 2. [OWNER APPROVAL.] A property owner may require from a cable communications company before installation or modification of cable communications facilities, diagrams showing plans for the placement and securing of the facilities. A property owner may approve or disapprove installation plans. Approval of plans may not be unreasonably withheld.

Subd. 3. [INSTALLATION; BOND.] The facilities must be installed in an expeditious and workmanlike manner, must comply with applicable codes, and, when economical and feasible, must be installed parallel to utilities. A property owner may require a cable communications company to post a bond or equivalent security in an amount not exceeding the estimated cost of installation of the cable communications facilities on the premises. Any bond filed by a cable communications company with a municipality which would provide coverage to the property owner as provided under this subdivision shall be considered to fulfill the requirements of this subdivision.

Subd. 4. [INDEMNIFY FOR DAMAGE.] A cable communications company shall indemnify a property owner for damage caused by the installation, operation, maintenance, or removal of the facilities.

Subd. 5. [RELOCATION.] A property owner may require a cable communications company, after reasonable written notice, to promptly relocate cable communications facilities on or within the premises of the property owner for the purpose of rehabilitation, redecoration, or necessary maintenance of the premises by the property owner.

Subd. 6. [MASTER ANTENNA TELEVISION SYSTEM.] Nothing in sections 3 to 21 precludes a property owner from entering into an agreement for use of a master antenna television system by a cable communications company.

Subd. 7. [NOT RETROACTIVE.] Nothing in sections 3 to 21 affects the validity of an agreement effective before the effective date of this act between a property owner, a cable communications company, or any other person providing telecommunications services on or within the premises of the property owner.

Subd. 8. [COST ALLOCATED.] A cable communications company shall bear the entire cost of the installation, operation, maintenance, and removal of a cable communications facility within the initial franchise service area.

Subd. 9. [COMPENSATION FOR ACCESS.] (a) In exchange for obtaining access to a property owner's premises and within 30 days after installation of a cable communications system, a cable communications company shall:

(1) compensate the property owner for the difference in fair market value of the premises resulting directly from the installation of the cable communications facilities; and

(2) reimburse the property owner in an amount not more than $100 for premises containing less than ten dwelling units, and $200 for other premises, for actual costs incurred by the property owner with respect to the professional review of the plans and drawings regarding installation or modification of the cable communications system, associated contractual materials, and other documentation.

(b) With respect to paragraph (a), clause (1), payment by the cable communications company of a one-time charge of $1 for each dwelling unit on the owner's premises is presumed to compensate the property owner for the taking of the easement resulting from the installation of the cable communications facilities. The property owner may appeal any presumptive one-time award of $1 for each dwelling unit or any other compensation paid to a property owner under paragraph (a), clause (1). The appeal procedure is as provided under sections 6 to 20.

(c) Because access provided under sections 3 to 21 only allows a cable communications system to provide its service to residents or association members and does not preclude a property owner from providing any alternative communication service, proof of a difference in fair market value for purposes of compensating a property owner under paragraph (a), clause (1), may not include any alleged loss of an exclusive right to provide communication services.

Subd. 10. [ADDITION OF DWELLING UNITS.] If, at any time after installation of a cable communications system, a property owner constructs or places additional dwelling units on the owner's premises, the cable communications company, within 30 days after completion of the construction or placement, shall pay the property owner a one-time charge not exceeding $1 for each additional dwelling unit.

Subd. 11. [CHANNEL CAPACITY.] (a) A property owner must provide access by a franchised cable communications company, as required under section 4, only if that cable company installs equipment with channel capacity sufficient to provide access to other providers of television programming or telecommunications services so that residents or association members have a choice of alternative providers of those services. If the equipment is installed, the cable communications company shall allow alternative providers to use the equipment. If some of the residents or association members choose to subscribe to the services of an alternative provider, the cable company that installed the equipment shall be reimbursed by the other providers for the cost of equipment and installation on the property on a pro rata basis which reflects the number of subscribers of each provider on that property to the total number of subscribers on that property. In determining the pro rata amount of reimbursement by any alternative provider, the cost of equipment and installation shall be reduced to the extent of cumulative depreciation of that equipment at the time the alternative provider begins providing service.

(b) If equipment is already installed as of the effective date of this section with channel capacity sufficient to allow access to alternative providers, the access and pro rata reimbursement provisions of paragraph (a) apply.

(c) The board shall promulgate rules to implement the provisions of this section.

Sec. 6. [238.25] [PROCEDURE; DISPUTED COMPENSATION.]

Subdivision 1. [INITIATION; PETITION.] If a property owner grants access to a cable communications company, as required under section 4, but disputes the sufficiency of the compensation tendered by the company under section 5, subdivisions 9 or 10, the property owner may petition the board to resolve the dispute. The petition must be filed by the property owner within 45 days after the date of mailing of the tendered compensation by the cable communications company.

Subd. 2. [NOTICE.] Notice of the petition must be served upon the cable communications company in the same manner as a summons in a civil action.

Sec. 7. [238.26] [PROCEDURE; ACCESS REFUSED.]

Subdivision 1. [INITIATION.] If a property owner refuses to provide access to a cable communications company, as required under section 4, the company may request in writing any municipality in which it has a franchise to initiate proceedings under the provisions of sections 7 to 20 to obtain access. Upon receipt of such a request, the municipality shall initiate proceedings as provided under sections 7 to 20. The cable communications company shall represent the municipality in the petition process and in any appeal therefrom and shall pay all costs and fees including compensation to the property owner and appraisal fees incurred by the municipality in obtaining access.

Subd. 2. [PETITION.] To obtain access to a property owner's property, the cable communications company must file a petition with the board describing the land to which access is desired, stating by whom and for what purposes access is desired, giving the names of all property owners, and requesting the initiation of a contested case proceeding and the appointment of a hearing examiner to appraise the damages which may be occasioned by the access.

Subd. 3. [NOTICE.] (a) Notice of the objects of the petition must be served upon all persons named in the petition as property owners in the same manner as a summons in a civil action.

(b) Service may be made upon a property owner by three weeks' published notice if:

(1) the property owner is not a resident of the state; or

(2) the property owner's place of residence is unknown to the petitioner and the petitioner, his agent, or attorney files an affidavit stating that he believes that the property owner is not a resident of the state, and that he has mailed a copy of the notice to him at his place of residence, or that after diligent inquiry his place of residence cannot be ascertained by the affiant.

(c) If the state is a property owner, the notice must be served upon the attorney general.

(d) Any property owner not served as provided under this subdivision is not bound by the proceeding unless the owner voluntarily appears as a party to the proceeding.

Sec. 8. [238.27] [INSTALLATION PLANS FURNISHED.]

After receiving notice of a petition for obtaining access, as provided under section 7, and upon request, any property owner must be furnished installation plans as provided in section 5, subdivision 2.

Sec. 9. [238.28] [ENTRY FOR SURVEYS.]

For the purpose of making surveys and examinations to accomplish all necessary preliminary purposes or for other purposes relative to any proceedings to obtain access under sections 7 to 20, the petitioner or designated representatives may lawfully enter upon any parcel of land upon where access is sought, doing no unnecessary damage and being liable only for actual damage done. Any property owner preventing entrance for the purposes of this section is guilty of a misdemeanor.

Sec. 10. [238.29] [NOTICE OF PENDENCY.]

At the time of filing a petition under section 7, the petitioner/cable communications company may file for record with the county recorder a notice of the pendency of the proceeding, describing with reasonable certainty the lands affected. If the proceeding is abandoned in whole or in part, the petitioner shall within ten days after the date of abandonment file for record with the county recorder a notice to that effect, describing with reasonable certainty the lands abandoned.

Sec. 11. [238.30] [BOARD TO COMMENCE CONTESTED CASE PROCEEDINGS.]

Upon proof being filed with the board of service of the notice of petition, as provided under section 6 or 7, the board shall request in writing the office of administrative hearings to designate a hearing examiner to perform the duties established under section 12, and shall take all necessary steps to commence a contested case proceeding as provided under chapter 14.

Sec. 12. [238.31] [HEARING EXAMINER, POWERS, DUTIES.]

Upon receipt of the written request of the board, as provided under section 11, the office of administrative hearings shall appoint a hearing examiner to determine the difference in fair market value of the premises, as required by section 5, subdivision 9. In making this determination, the hearing examiner shall consider the amount of benefits, if any, and the damages, if any, resulting directly from the installation of the cable communications facilities. If the hearing examiner finds a diminution of fair market value, the hearing examiner shall recommend that the amount of diminution be awarded as damages. The hearing examiner shall conduct hearings, regulate the admission of proof, make recommendations to the board, and take all other actions in conformance with the requirements of chapter 14.

Sec. 13. [238.32] [FINAL ORDER.]

Upon receiving the recommendations of the hearing examiner, the board shall make its decision as provided under the requirements of chapter 14.

Sec. 14. [238.33] [REPORT; NOTICE.]

In the case of a petition filed under section 6, the board shall notify the petitioner/property owner and the respondent/cable communications company of its final decision or order.

In the case of a petition filed under section 7, the board shall notify the petitioner/cable communications company of its final decision or order. Within ten days after the date petitioner receives the notification, the petitioner shall notify each respondent/property owner and any attorney of record by mail of the final decision or order, setting forth the date of the final decision or order, the amount of the damages fund, if any, and all the terms and conditions pertaining to that respondent. The notification must be addressed to the last known post office address of each respondent and any attorney of record.

Sec. 15. [238.34] [PAYMENTS; DEPOSIT WITH BOARD.]

The cable communications company shall pay to the property owner as provided under the board's final decision or order any award of damages pursuant to a petition filed under section 6 or 7; except that, where the residence of a party/property owner is unknown, or the party/property owner is an infant or other person under legal disability, or being legally capable, refuses to accept payment, or if for any reason it is doubtful to whom any payment should be paid, the cable communications company may make the payment to the board, to be paid out under the direction of the board. Unless an appeal is taken, as provided under section 18, the deposit with the board is considered a payment of the amount specified in the final decision or order. The payment when deposited may not draw interest from the date of deposit.

Sec. 16. [238.35] [POSSESSION.]

Subdivision 1. [BEFORE FINAL ORDER.] Whenever the petitioner/cable communications company requires access to all or part of the property owner's property prior to the filing of the final decision or order of the board pursuant to a petition filed under section 7, the petitioner shall, at least 45 days prior to the date on which access is required, notify the property owner of the intent to exercise the right of access by notice served by certified mail. Before exercising the right of access, the petitioner shall pay to the property owner, or deposit with the board, an amount equal to petitioner's appraisal of damages. If it is necessary to deposit the above amount with the board, the petitioner may apply to the board for an order granting the petitioner access to the property or properties described in the petition.

Subd. 2. [AFTER FINAL ORDER.] (a) The petitioner/cable communications company has the right of access after the filing of the final decision or order by the board:

(1) upon payment of the amount specified in the final decision or order if the appeal is waived by the parties; or

(2) upon payment or deposit with the board of three-fourths of the amount specified in the final decision or order if the appeal is not waived by the parties.

(b) Any amount deposited under paragraph (a), clause (2), must be deposited by the board in an interest bearing account no later than the business day next following the day on which the amount was deposited with the board. All interest credited to the amount deposited from the date of deposit must be paid to the ultimate recipient of the amount deposited.

Sec. 17. [238.36] [DISMISSAL.]

In the case of a petition filed under section 7, the petitioner/cable communications company may at any time dismiss the proceeding against any parcel of land by notifying the property owners and the board. When the proceeding is dismissed the property owner may recover from the petitioner reasonable costs and expenses and temporary damages, if any.

Sec. 18. [238.37] [APPEAL.]

An appeal of the final decision or order of the board may be taken in accordance with the provisions of chapter 14, except that in addition to the requirements of chapter 14, notice must be served upon all property owners.

Sec. 19. [238.38] [FINAL CERTIFICATE.]

Upon completion of the proceedings, the attorney for the cable communications company shall make a certificate describing the easement taken and the purpose or purposes for which taken, and reciting the fact of final payment of all awards or judgments in relation thereto. The certificate must be filed with the board if no appeal is taken or with the clerk of court if an appeal has been taken. A certified copy of the certificate must be filed for record with the county recorder. The record is notice to all parties of the easement of the petitioner on the lands therein described.

Sec. 20. [238.39] [NO RELOCATION BENEFITS.]

Neither sections 117.50 to 117.56 nor the uniform relocation assistance and real property acquisition policies act of 1970 shall be construed as applying to any persons affected by the proceedings under sections 6 to 20.

Sec. 21. [238.40] [PROHIBITIONS.]

Subdivision 1. [INTERFERENCE WITH FACILITIES.] A property owner may not interfere with the installation, operation, inspection, maintenance, or removal of cable communications facilities.

Subd. 2. [DISCRIMINATION.] A property owner may not discriminate in rental charges or in granting of property rights, or otherwise, between residents or association members who receive cable communications service and those who do not.

Subd. 3. [AGREEMENTS INTERFERING WITH RIGHTS TO ANTENNA EQUIPMENT.] A cable communications company may not enter into an agreement with a property owner to do or permit an act that would have the effect, directly or indirectly, of diminishing or interfering with existing rights of a resident or an association member to use or obtain master or individual antenna equipment."

Sec. 8. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 223.17, is amended to read:

223.17 [LICENSES; BONDING; CLAIMS; DISBURSEMENTS.]

Subdivision 1. [LICENSES.] An application for a grain buyer's license must be filed with the commissioner and the license issued before any grain may be purchased. The fee for any license is $150. The types of grain buyers' licenses are:

- (a) private grain warehouse operator's license;
- (b) public grain warehouse operator's license;
- (c) nonwarehouse grain buyer's license; and
- (d) ~~itinerant~~ independent grain buyer's license.

~~Public grain warehouse operators' licenses cover both grain buying and grain storage.~~ The applicant for a grain buyer's license shall identify all grain buying locations owned or controlled by the grain buyer and all vehicles owned or controlled by the grain buyer used to transport purchased grain. Every applicant for a grain buyer's license shall have a permanent established place of business at each licensed location. An "established place of business" means any permanent enclosed building either owned by the applicant or leased by the applicant for a period of at least one year, and where the books, records, and files necessary to conduct the business are kept and maintained.

Subd. 2. [LICENSE RENEWAL.] A license must be renewed annually. If a person receives more than one license from the commissioner, the licenses shall be issued at the same time, but only after all conditions for each license are met. Multiple licenses should be combined into one license if possible.

Subd. 3. [GRAIN BUYERS AND STORAGE FUND; FEES.] The commissioner shall set the fees for inspections ~~and licenses~~ under sections 223.15 to 223.19 at levels necessary to pay the expenses of administering and enforcing sections 223.15 to 223.19 and section 13. These fees may be adjusted pursuant to the provisions of section 16A.128.

There is created in the state treasury the grain buyers and storage fund. Money collected pursuant to sections 223.15 to 223.19 shall be paid into the state treasury and credited to the grain buyers and storage fund and is appropriated to the commissioner for the administration and enforcement of sections 223.15 to 223.19 and section 13.

Subd. 4. [BOND.] Before a grain buyer's license is issued, the applicant for a ~~grain buyers~~ the license ~~shall~~ must file with the commissioner a bond in a penal sum prescribed by the commissioner but not ~~more~~ less than the following amounts:

- (a) $10,000 for each ~~private or public grain warehouse up to a maximum of five grain warehouses;~~
- (b) $10,000 for each semitrailer used by an itinerant grain buyer up to a maximum of five semitrailers;

(c) $5,000 for each truck used by an itinerant grain buyer up to a maximum of five trucks;

(d) $5,000 for each trailer used by an itinerant grain buyer up to a maximum of five trailers; and

(e) $50,000 for each nonwarehouse grain buyer $10,000 for grain buyers whose gross annual purchases are $100,000 or less;

(b) $20,000 for grain buyers whose gross annual purchases are more than $100,000 but not more than $750,000;

(c) $30,000 for grain buyers whose gross annual purchases are more than $750,000 but not more than $1,500,000;

(d) $40,000 for grain buyers whose gross annual purchases are more than $1,500,000 but not more than $3,000,000; and

(e) $50,000 for grain buyers whose gross annual purchases exceed $3,000,000. A grain buyer who has filed a bond with the commissioner prior to July 1, 1983, is not required to increase the amount of the bond to comply with this section until July 1, 1984. The amount of the bond shall be based on the most recent financial statement of the grain buyer filed under subdivision 6.

A first-time applicant for a grain buyer's license after July 1, 1983, shall file a $20,000 bond with the commissioner. This bond shall remain in effect for the first year of his license. Thereafter, the licensee shall comply with the applicable bonding requirements contained in clauses (a) to (e) of this section.

In lieu of the bond required by this subdivision the applicant may deposit with the state treasurer cash, a certified check, a cashier's check, a postal, bank, or express money order, assignable bonds or notes of the United States, or an assignment of a bank savings account or investment certificate or an irrevocable bank letter of credit as defined in section 336.5-103, in the same amount as would be required for a bond.

Subd. 5. ~~[VOLUNTARY EXTENSION OF CREDIT CASH SALES; MANNER OF PAYMENT.]~~ Upon demand by a seller of grain, a grain buyer shall pay 90 percent of the estimated or actual value of grain purchased at the time the physical possession of the grain is conveyed from the seller to the grain buyer. For a cash sale of a shipment of grain which is part of a multi-shipment sale, the grain buyer shall tender payment to the seller not later than ten days after the sale of that shipment or 48 hours after completion of the entire sale. For other cash sales the grain buyer, before the close of business the day after the sale and transfer of possession of grain, shall tender payment to the seller or his duly authorized representative, or shall wire or mail transfer funds to the seller's account amounting to at least 80 percent of the grain's value at the time of delivery. The grain buyer shall complete final settlement as rapidly as possible through ordinary diligence. Any transaction wherein this demand is not exercised which is not a cash sale in compliance with the provisions of this subdivision constitutes a voluntary extension of credit and which is not afforded protection under the grain buyer's bond, and which must comply with sections 9 and 10.

Subd. 5a. [GRAIN PURCHASES FROM UNLICENSED PRODUCERS.]

No grain buyer may refuse to purchase grain from a producer solely because the producer is not bonded or is not licensed by the commissioner; provided, that any producer who buys grain from other producers shall be licensed and bonded as required by this chapter.

Subd. 6. [~~CONFIDENTIAL STATEMENTS REQUIRED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS.~~] For the purpose of fixing or changing the amount of a required bond or for any other proper reason, the commissioner shall require an annual financial ~~statements~~ statement from a licensee which has been prepared in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles and which meets the following requirements:

(a) The financial statement shall include, but not be limited to the following: (1) a balance sheet; (2) a statement of income (profit and loss); (3) a statement of retained earnings; (4) a statement of changes in financial position; and (5) a statement of the dollar amount of grain purchased in the previous fiscal year of the grain buyer.

(b) The financial statement shall be accompanied by a compilation report of the financial statement which is prepared by a grain commission firm or a management firm approved by the commissioner or by an independent public accountant, in accordance with standards established by the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants.

(c) The financial statement shall be accompanied by a certification by the chief executive officer or his designee of the licensee, under penalty of perjury, that the financial statement accurately reflects the financial condition of the licensee for the period specified in the statement.

Only one financial statement must be filed for a chain of warehouses owned or operated as a single business entity, unless otherwise required by the commissioner. All financial statements filed with the commissioner are private or nonpublic data as provided in section 13.02.

Subd. 6a. [~~SUSPENSION, REVOCATION, OR REFUSAL TO ISSUE LICENSE.~~] (a) If ~~the~~ a license applicant or a licensee fails to furnish financial statements or to furnish any new bond required, the commissioner may immediately refuse to issue or renew the license or may suspend the license and the licensee shall surrender the license to the commissioner. Within 15 days the .

(b) The commissioner may refuse to issue or renew a license or may suspend a license if he determines, based upon the financial statement filed under this section or other financial information obtained by him, that the applicant or licensee is not financially able to properly perform the services and operate the business for which the license is issued.

(c) When a license is suspended the licensee shall surrender the license to the commissioner. An applicant or licensee may request an administrative hearing subject to chapter 14 within 15 days after the commissioner suspends a license or refuses to issue or renew a license under clause (b) to determine whether the license should be issued, renewed, or revoked. If no request is made within 15 days after suspension, the commissioner shall revoke the license. All financial statements submitted to the commissioner are confidential.

Subd. 7. [~~PRODUCER BOND AND CONTRACT CLAIMS.~~] A producer claiming to be damaged by a breach of the conditions of a bond of a contract for the purchase of grain by a licensed grain buyer may file a written claim with the commissioner. The claim must state the facts constituting the claim. The claim must be filed with the commissioner within 180 days of the breach of the conditions of the bond contract. If the commissioner believes that a claim is valid, the commissioner may immediately suspend the license, in which case the licensee shall surrender the license to the commissioner. Within 15 days the licensee may request an administrative hearing subject to chapter 14 to determine whether the license should be revoked. If no request is made within 15 days, the commissioner shall revoke the license.

Subd. 8. [BOND DISBURSEMENT.] (a) The bond required under subdivision 4 shall provide for payment of loss caused by the grain buyer's failure to pay, upon the owner's demand, the purchase price of grain sold to the grain buyer in the manner provided by section 223.17, subdivision 5, including loss caused by failure to pay within the time required. The bond shall be conditioned upon the grain buyer being duly licensed as provided herein. ~~The bond shall not cover any transaction which constitutes a voluntary extension of credit.~~

(b) ~~Upon notification of default,~~ The commissioner shall promptly determine the validity of all claims filed with him and notify all parties having filed ~~claims~~ the claimants of the determination. An aggrieved party may appeal the commissioner's determination by requesting, within 15 days, that the commissioner initiate a contested case proceeding. In the absence of such a request, or following the issuance of a final order in a contested case, the surety company shall issue payment promptly to those claimants entitled to payment. ~~When the commissioner determines it necessary,~~ The commissioner may apply to the district court for an order appointing a trustee or receiver to manage and supervise the operations of the grain buyer in default. The commissioner may participate in any resulting court proceeding as an interested party.

(c) If a grain buyer has become liable to more than one producer by reason of breaches of the conditions of the bond and the amount of the bond is insufficient to pay the entire liability to all producers entitled to the protection of the bond, the proceeds of the bond shall be apportioned among the bona fide claimants.

(d) The bond shall not be cumulative from one licensing period to the next. The maximum liability of the bond shall be its face value for the licensing period.

Subd. 9. [DEFAULTS; VIOLATIONS.] If the commissioner finds, after an investigation is conducted, that a complaint is valid or that a licensee is in violation of the provisions of this chapter, the commissioner may immediately suspend the license, in which case the licensee shall surrender the license to the commissioner. Within 15 days, the licensee may request an administrative hearing subject to chapter 14 to determine whether the license should be revoked. If no request is made within 15 days, the commissioner shall revoke the license.

Sec. 9. [223.175] [VOLUNTARY EXTENSION OF CREDIT CONTRACTS; FORM.]

Grain buyers using voluntary extension of credit contracts must include in the contracts those items prescribed by the commissioner by rule. The contract shall include a statement of the legal and financial responsibilities of grain buyers and sellers established in this chapter. The contract shall also include the following statement in not less than ten point capital type, framed in a box with space provided for the seller's signature: "THIS CONTRACT CONSTITUTES A VOLUNTARY EXTENSION OF CREDIT. THIS CONTRACT IS NOT COVERED BY ANY GRAIN BUYER'S BOND." The seller shall sign the contract in the space provided beneath the statement.

Sec. 10. [223.177] [PURCHASE BY VOLUNTARY EXTENSION OF CREDIT CONTRACTS.]

Subdivision 1. [INDICATION OF INTENTION.] Every grain buyer who intends to purchase grain by voluntary extension of credit contracts shall indicate his intention to do so annually to the commissioner on a form provided by the commissioner.

Subd. 2. [ORAL CONTRACTS.] Any grain buyer entering into a voluntary extension of credit contract orally or by phone shall give or mail to the seller a written confirmation conforming to the requirements of section 9 before the close of the next business day.

Subd. 3. [EXECUTION OF CONTRACTS.] A voluntary extension of credit contract shall be executed before the close of the next business day after the contract is entered into or, in the case of an oral or phone contract, after the written confirmation is received by the seller. Provided, however, that if a scale ticket has been received by the seller prior to the completion of the grain shipment, the contract must be executed within ten days after the sale.

Subd. 4. [GRAIN, RIGHTS, OR PROCEEDS HELD.] A licensed grain buyer purchasing grain by voluntary extension of credit contracts shall at all times maintain grain, rights in grain, or proceeds from the sale of grain totaling 90 percent of the grain buyer's obligations for grain purchased by voluntary extension of credit contracts. That amount must be evidenced or represented by one or more of the following:

(a) grain owned and actually held by the grain buyer in a grain warehouse owned or controlled by the grain buyer;

(b) rights in grain evidenced or represented by warehouse receipts issued by a state or federally licensed grain warehouse;

(c) cash on hand or cash held on account in federally or state licensed institutions;

(d) short-term investments held in time accounts with federally or state licensed institutions;

(e) balances on grain margin accounts;

(f) voluntary extension of credit contracts for grain shipped to a processor or terminal as purchaser, less any payment or advance that has been received; or

(g) an irrevocable letter of credit, as defined in section 336.5-103, or other evidence of proceeds from the sale of grain acceptable to the commissioner.

Subd. 5. [VALUE OF GRAIN.] For the purpose of computing the dollar value of inventories of voluntary extension of credit obligations, the value of grain is determined by the current market price on the day of delivery.

Subd. 6. [TRANSFER OF TITLE.] The title to grain delivered on a voluntary extension of credit contract transfers to the grain buyer on the day of delivery.

Subd. 7. [STORAGE CHARGES PROHIBITED.] No storage charges may be charged with respect to grain purchased on voluntary extension of credit contracts.

Subd. 8. [RECORDS.] A grain buyer shall keep sufficiently detailed books and records of voluntary extension of credit contracts and evidences of grain, rights in grain, and the proceeds from the sale of grain so as to clearly show compliance with this section. The commissioner or his authorized agent may inspect these books and records at such time and place and as he may deem necessary to determine whether grain buyers are complying with the provisions of this chapter.

Sec. 11. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 223.18, is amended to read:

223.18 [PENALTY.]

A person buying grain without first obtaining a grain buyer's license is guilty of a misdemeanor. Each day of operation without a grain buyer's license constitutes a separate offense. In case of license revocation, no new license shall be granted to the person whose license was revoked nor to anyone either directly or indirectly engaged with him in the licensed business for two years. A grain dealer who withholds records from the commissioner, keeps or files records which he knows to be false, alters records fraudulently, or presents to the commissioner any records which he knows to be false is guilty of a gross misdemeanor.

Sec. 12. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 223.19, is amended to read:

223.19 [RULES.]

The commissioner may ~~promulgate~~ adopt temporary or permanent rules pursuant to chapter 14 to carry out the provisions of sections 223.15 to 223.19 and section 13.

Sec. 13. [223.20] [ATTORNEY GENERAL; ENFORCEMENT.]

The attorney general, upon request of the commissioner, shall assist the commissioner in enforcing this chapter.

Sec. 14. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 336.9-401, is amended to read:

336.9-401 [PLACE OF FILING; ERRONEOUS FILING; REMOVAL OF COLLATERAL.]

(1) The proper place to file in order to perfect a security interest is as follows:

(a) When the collateral is ~~equipment used in farming operations, or farm products, or accounts or general intangibles arising from or relating to the sale of farm products by a farmer, or consumer goods, or motor vehicles which are not inventory~~, then in the office of the county recorder in the county of the debtor's residence if the debtor is an individual who is a resident of this state but if the debtor is an individual who is not a resident of this state or is a corporation, partnership or other organization then in the office of the secretary of state; ~~and in addition when the collateral is crops growing or to be grown in the office of the county recorder in the county where the land is located;~~

(b) When the collateral is equipment to be used in farming operations, or farm products, or accounts or general intangibles arising from or relating to the sale of farm products by a farmer, or crops growing or to be grown, then in the office of the county recorder in the county of the debtor's residence if the debtor is an individual or organization with residence in this state, but if the debtor is not a resident of this state, then in the office of the secretary of state;

(c) When the collateral is timber to be cut or is minerals or the like (including oil and gas) or accounts subject to subsection (5) of section 336.9-103, or when the financing statement is filed as a fixture filing (section 336.9-313) and the collateral is goods which are or are to become fixtures, then in the office where a mortgage on the real estate would be filed or recorded;

(e) (d) In all other cases, in the office of the secretary of state.

(2) A filing which is made in good faith in an improper place or not in all of the places required by this section is nevertheless effective with regard to any collateral as to which the filing complied with the requirements of this article and is also effective with regard to collateral covered by the financing statement against any person who has knowledge of the contents of such financing statement.

(3) A filing which is made in the proper place in this state continues effective even though the debtor's residence in this state or the use of the collateral, whichever controlled the original filing, is thereafter changed.

(4) The rules stated in section 336.9-103 determine whether filing is necessary in this state.

(5) Notwithstanding the preceding subsections, the proper place to file in order to perfect a security interest in collateral, including fixtures, of a transmitting utility is the office of the secretary of state. Such a filing shall not be deemed a separate filing from the filings required by other laws, if applicable, set forth in subsection (3) of section 336.9-302. This filing constitutes a fixture filing (section 336.9-313) as to the collateral described therein which is or is to become fixtures.

(6) For the purposes of this section, the residence of an organization is its place of business if it has one or its chief executive office if it has more than one place of business.

(7) "Motor vehicle" means any device propelled or drawn by any power other than muscular power in, upon, or by which any person or property is or may be transported or drawn upon a highway, excepting building and road construction equipment.

Sec. 15. Laws 1982, chapter 635, section 9, is amended to read:

Sec. 9. [REPEALER.]

Minnesota Statutes 1980, sections 223.04; 223.07; 223.08; 223.09; 223.10; 223.11; 232.01; 232.02, subdivisions 4, 5, 6, 7, 8 and 9; 232.03; 232.04; and 232.06, subdivision 5; Minnesota Statutes 1981 Supplement, sections 223.01; 223.02; 223.03; 223.05; and 232.02, subdivisions 1, 2 and 3, are repealed. Sections 4 to 6 are repealed July 1, 1983. Any claims under sections 4 to 6 which are not settled before July 1, 1983, may be settled under the provisions of section 4, subdivisions 7 and 8, as they existed prior to July 1, 1983.

Sec. 16. [STATUTES REMAIN IN EFFECT.]

Notwithstanding Minnesota Statutes, section 645.36, Minnesota Statutes, sections 223.15 to 223.19 remain in effect without interruption.

Sec. 17. [EFFECTIVE DATE.]

This act is effective July 1, 1983.

Delete the title and insert:

“A bill for an act relating to agriculture; making certain changes in the grain buyers act; changing the place of filing of farm product liens; imposing a penalty; amending Minnesota Statutes 1982, sections 223.16, subdivisions 1, 7, 8, 11, and by adding subdivisions; 223.17; 223.18; 223.19; and 336.9-401; Laws 1982, chapter 635, section 9; proposing new law coded in Minnesota Statutes, chapter 223.”

548.15 [DISCHARGE OF RECORD.]

Upon the satisfaction of a judgment, whether wholly or in part, or as to all or any of several defendants, the clerk shall enter the satisfaction in the judgment roll, and note ~~the same~~ it, with ~~the its~~ its date ~~thereof~~, on the docket. If the docketing is upon a transcript from another county, the entry on the docket shall be sufficient. A judgment shall be deemed satisfied when there is filed with the clerk:

(1) An execution satisfied, to the extent stated in the sheriff's return ~~thereon~~ on it;

(2) A certificate of satisfaction signed and acknowledged by the judgment creditor;

(3) A like certificate signed and acknowledged by the attorney of the creditor, unless his authority as attorney has previously been revoked and an entry of the revocation made upon the register; ~~but~~ the authority of an attorney to satisfy a judgment ~~shall cease~~ ceases at the end of six years from its entry;

(4) An order of the court, made on motion, requiring the execution of a certificate of satisfaction, or directing satisfaction to be entered without it;

(5) Where a judgment is docketed on transcript, a copy of either of the foregoing documents, certified by the clerk of the court in which the judgment was originally entered and in which the originals were filed.

A satisfaction made in the name of a partnership ~~shall be~~ is valid if executed by a member ~~thereof~~ of it while the partnership continues. The judgment creditor, or his attorney while his authority continues, may also satisfy a judgment of record by a brief entry on the register, signed by him and dated and witnessed by the clerk, who shall note the satisfaction on the margin of the docket. When a judgment is satisfied otherwise than by return of execution, the judgment creditor or his attorney shall give a certificate ~~thereof~~ of it within ten days after the satisfaction."

SPECIAL ORDER

H.F. No. 441: A bill for an act relating to housing; increasing the maximum permissible return to certain mortgagors; increasing the maximum amount of housing finance agency rehabilitation loans; combining certain bonding categories; clarifying other housing finance agency duties and powers; modifying certain duties and powers of issuers of local housing revenue bonds; amending Minnesota Statutes 1982, sections 462A.03, subdivision 13; 462A.05, subdivisions 4, 9, 14a, 18, and by adding a subdivision; 462A.06, subdivision 8; 462A.09; 462A.21, subdivision 4b, and by adding a subdivision; 462A.22, subdivisions 1 and 5; and 462C.07, subdivision 1; repealing Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 462A.22, subdivision 1a.

Mr. Kroening moved to amend H.F. No. 441, as amended pursuant to Rule 49, adopted by the Senate April 6, 1983, as follows:

“(i) the aggregate price at which an issue of notes or bonds is initially offered by underwriters to investors, as set forth in the agency’s official statement with respect to the offering, shall not exceed by more than three percent the aggregate price paid by the underwriters to the agency at the time of delivery; (ii) the commission paid by the agency to an underwriter or agent for placing an issue of notes or bonds with investors shall not exceed three percent of the aggregate price at which the issue is offered to investors as set forth in the agency’s offering statement; and (iii) the spread or commission shall be an amount determined by the agency to be reasonable in the light of the risk assumed and the expenses of issuance, if any, required to be paid by the underwriters or agent”

“Sec. 13. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 462C.05, subdivision 7, is amended to read:

Subd. 7. A development may consist of a combination of a multifamily housing development and a new or existing health care facility, as defined by section 474.02, if the following conditions are satisfied:

(a) The multifamily housing development is designed and intended to be used for rental occupancy;

(b) The multifamily housing development is designed and intended to be used primarily by elderly or physically handicapped persons; and

(c) Nursing, medical, personal care, and other health related assisted living services are available on a 24 hour basis in the development to the residents.

The limitations of section 462C.04, subdivision 2, clause (c), shall not apply to projects defined in this subdivision and approved by the Minnesota housing finance agency before ~~July~~ October 1, 1983. ~~The limitations of section 462C.07, subdivision 2, shall not apply to bonds issued for projects defined in this subdivision.~~

The Minnesota housing finance agency shall provide, in the annual report required by section 462C.04, subdivision 2, information on the costs incurred for the issuance of bonds for projects defined in this subdivision. The report shall also include the Minnesota housing finance agency's recommendations for the regulation of costs of issuance for future issues.

Sec. 14. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 462C.07, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. To finance programs or developments described in any plan the city may, upon approval of the program as provided in section 462C.04, subdivision 2, issue and sell revenue bonds or obligations which shall be payable exclusively from the revenues of the programs or developments. In the purchase or making of single family housing loans and the purchase or making of multifamily housing loans and the issuance of revenue bonds or other obligations the city may exercise within its corporate limits, any of the powers the Minnesota housing finance agency may exercise under chapter 462A, without limitation under the provisions of chapter 475; ~~and the revenue bonds or other obligations may be sold at 97 percent or more of their principal amount, notwithstanding the provisions of section 462A.09.~~

REPORTS OF COMMITTEES

Mr. Luther moved that the Committee Reports at the Desk be now adopted. The motion prevailed.

Mr. Chmielewski from the Committee on Employment, to which was referred

S.F. No. 862: A bill for an act relating to public employment; providing rights for certain part-time employees; amending the definition of supervisory employee; authorizing recognition of legal strikes by non-members of bargaining units; specifying the relationship between collective bargaining agreements and arbitration awards and municipal charters and ordinances; amending Minnesota Statutes 1982, sections 179.63, subdivisions 7 and 9; 179.64, by adding a subdivision; 179.66, subdivision 5; 179.71, subdivision 3; and 179.72, subdivision 7.

Reports the same back with the recommendation that the bill be amended as follows:

Delete everything after the enacting clause and insert:

“Section 1. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 179.63, subdivision 7, is amended to read:

Subd. 7. “Public employee” or “employee” means any person appointed or employed by a public employer except:

- (a) elected public officials;
- (b) election officers;
- (c) commissioned or enlisted personnel of the Minnesota national guard;
- (d) emergency employees who are employed for emergency work caused by natural disaster;
- (e) part time employees whose service does not exceed the lesser of 14 hours per week or 35 percent of the normal work week in the employee’s bargaining unit;
- (f) employees who hold positions of a basically temporary or seasonal character for a period not in excess of ~~100~~ 67 working days in any calendar year;

(g) temporary or part time employees who are under the age of 22, are full time students enrolled in a nonprofit or public educational institution prior to their being hired by an employer and who have indicated, either in their application for employment or by being enrolled at an educational institution for the next academic year or term, an intention to continue as students during or after their temporary or part time employment.

The exclusions of clauses (e) and (f) shall not apply to:

(1) an employee hired by a school district to replace an absent teacher who at the time of his absence is a "public employee" not within the other exclusions of this subdivision where the replacement employee is employed more than 30 working days as a replacement for that teacher; and

(2) an employee hired by a school district for a teaching position created by increased enrollment, curriculum expansion, courses which are a part of the curriculum whether offered annually or not, or other appropriate reasons.

Employees included as "public employees" pursuant to clauses (1) and (2) shall not be included under master contracts expiring June 30, 1981, for purposes of salary or fringe benefits;

(g) employees of charitable hospitals as defined by section 179.35, subdivision 3;

(h) full time undergraduate students employed by the school which they attend under a work study program or in connection with the receipt of any financial aid, irrespective of number of hours of service per week;

(i) an individual who renders part time teaching service for less than 300 hours in a fiscal year as an instructor in an adult vocational education program.

Sec. 2. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 179.63, subdivision 9, is amended to read:

Subd. 9. "Supervisory employee", when the reference is to other than essential employees as defined in subdivision 11, means ~~any~~ a person ~~having~~ who has authority in the interests of the employer to hire, transfer, suspend, promote, discharge, assign, reward or discipline other employees or responsibly to direct them or adjust their grievances on behalf of the employer, or to effectively recommend any of the aforesaid actions, if in connection with the foregoing the exercise of ~~such~~ the authority is not merely routine or clerical in nature but requires the use of independent judgment. ~~Any~~ A determination of "supervisory employee" may be appealed to the public employment relations board.

Effective May 2, 1983, the removal of employees by the employer from non-supervisory bargaining units for the purpose of designating the employees as "supervisory employees" shall require the prior written agreement of the exclusive representative or the written approval of the director before the redesignation is effective.

Sec. 3. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 179.66, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. A public employer has an obligation to meet and negotiate in good faith with the exclusive representative of the public employees in an appropriate unit regarding grievance procedures and the terms and conditions of employment, but ~~such~~ the obligation does not compel the public employer or its representative to agree to a proposal or require the making of a concession.

The public employer's duty under this subdivision exists notwithstanding contrary provisions in a municipal charter, ordinance, or resolution. A provision of a municipal charter, ordinance, or resolution which limits or restricts a public employer from negotiating or from entering into binding contracts with exclusive representatives is superseded by this subdivision.

Sec. 4. [EFFECTIVE DATE.]

Sections 1 to 3 are effective the day following their final enactment."

Delete the title and insert:

"A bill for an act relating to public employment; providing rights for certain part-time employees; amending the definition of supervisory employee; authorizing recognition of legal strikes by non-members of bargaining units; providing that the public employer's duty to bargain supersedes all municipal charters, ordinances or resolutions; amending Minnesota Statutes 1982, sections 179.63, subdivisions 7 and 9; and 179.66, subdivision 2."

And when so amended the bill do pass. Amendments adopted. Report adopted.

Mr. Chmielewski from the Committee on Employment, to which was referred

S.F. No. 206: A bill for an act relating to employment; providing assistance to employees who lose their jobs, affected communities and businesses which may suffer due to business closings, plant relocations, and reductions in operations; requiring advance notification to affected employees, employee organizations, municipalities, and the state, of business closings, plant relocations, and reductions of operations; prescribing duties of certain departments, governmental bodies, and officers with respect to business closings, plant relocations, and reductions of operations; creating the Minnesota community, business, and job preservation board; providing penalties; appropriating money; proposing new law coded as Minnesota Statutes, chapter 268A.

Reports the same back with the recommendation that the bill be amended as follows:

Page 2, line 23, after "facility" insert ", including the state and political subdivisions of the state,"

Page 3, line 6, delete "through December 31, 1982"

Page 3, line 16, delete "the state" and delete the comma

"Sec. 7. [48.90] [DISPOSITION OF CREDIT INSURANCE INCOME.]

Subdivision 1. [DEFINITIONS.] (a) For the purpose of this section, the following terms have the meanings given them.

(b) "Credit insurance" means credit life and accident and health insurance as defined in section 62B.02.

(c) "Officer", "director", "employee", and "shareholder" include the spouse and minor children of the officer, director, employee, or shareholder.

(d) "Interest" includes ownership through a spouse or minor children; ownership through a broker, nominee, or agent; and ownership through a corporation, partnership, association, joint venture, or proprietorship.

Subd. 2. [SCOPE AND PURPOSE.] This section applies to sales of credit insurance by employees, officers, directors, and shareholders of a banking institution and by corporations, partnerships, associations, and other entities in which these persons have an interest. The purposes of this section are (1) to prohibit employees, officers, directors, and shareholders of banking institutions from benefiting personally on the sale of credit insurance to loan customers and (2) to encourage marketing of credit insurance through the use of banking facilities only under arrangements which assure that employees, officers, directors, and shareholders do not receive benefits not shared with all stockholders of the banking institution.

Subd. 3. [DISTRIBUTION OF CREDIT INSURANCE INCOME.] No employee, officer, director, or shareholder of a banking institution, nor a corporation, partnership, association, or other entity in which these persons have an interest, may retain commissions or other income from the sale of credit insurance in connection with a loan made by the banking institution. All such income received by these persons or by a corporation, partnership, association, or other entity in which these persons have an interest, must be turned over to the banking institution. Nothing in this section prohibits a banking institution from receiving the income directly in the form of commissions or as compensation for use of its premises, personnel, and good will.”

S.F. No. 810: A bill for an act relating to energy; providing for omnibus energy measures; creating a department of energy; transferring energy related duties; creating an energy coordination board; creating an intervention office; creating an energy authority; authorizing the Minnesota housing finance agency to participate in energy projects; amending Minnesota Statutes 1982, sections 116C.03, subdivision 2; 116J.09; 116J.10; 462A.02, subdivision 10; 462A.05, by adding subdivisions; and 462A.21, by adding a subdivision; proposing new law coded in Minnesota Statutes, chapters 116H; 216A; 216B; and 462A; repealing Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 116J.28.

Reports the same back with the recommendation that the bill be amended as follows:

Delete everything after the enacting clause and insert:

“ARTICLE I

TRANSFER OF POWERS AND

CREATION OF DEPARTMENT OF

ENERGY AND ECONOMIC DEVELOPMENT

Section 1. [TRANSFER OF POWERS.]

Subdivision 1. [AUTHORIZATION.] All powers, duties, and functions vested in or imposed on the department of energy, planning and development or the commissioner of energy, planning and development by sections 116J.04 to 116J.36, 116J.58 to 116J.91 and other laws are transferred to, vested in, and imposed on the commissioner of the department of energy and economic development created in section 6, including the following specific powers:

- (a) community development corporation grants, as provided in 116J.65;*
- (b) the “503” certified state development company, as provided in section 116J.67;*
- (c) the issuance of industrial revenue bonds, as provided in chapter 474;*
- (d) the administration of the area redevelopment act and the federal revolving loan program as provided in chapter 472; and*
- (e) the authority to pass through appropriations to the Duluth port authority, as provided by chapter 116J.*

The responsibilities of the commissioner of energy, planning, and development that relate to clauses (a) to (e) are transferred to, vested in, and imposed on the economic development division and the Minnesota energy and economic development fund. The division and the fund are deemed to be the successors to these responsibilities as they were constituted immediately prior to the effective date of this article.

Subd. 2. [POSITIONS TRANSFERRED.] Personnel positions in the department of energy, planning and development in the classified civil service and temporary positions in the unclassified service established pursuant to section 43A.08, and the small business finance agency formerly assigned to functions that are transferred by this section to the department of energy and economic development are continued and transferred with their incumbents to the department of energy and economic development along with the functions transferred. Nothing in this subdivision shall be construed as abrogating or modifying any rights now enjoyed by affected employees under the managerial or commissioner's plans or under the terms of an agreement between an exclusive representative of public employees and the state or one of its appointing authorities.

Subd. 3. [BALANCES TRANSFERRED.] The unexpended balance of any appropriation to the department of energy, planning and development which was assigned to the energy and development divisions of the department or to any office within the energy and development divisions is transferred to the commissioner of energy and economic development who shall pay all valid claims presented against those appropriations.

Subd. 4. [RECORDS TRANSFERRED.] The commissioner of energy, planning and development, the assistant commissioners for the economic development and energy divisions, and office directors within the economic development and energy divisions shall transfer to the commissioner of the department of energy and economic development all contracts, books, maps, plans, papers, records, and property of every description within their jurisdiction or control which are relevant to the activities and functions transferred by this section to the commissioner of the department of energy and economic development.

Subd. 5. [PROCEEDINGS CONTINUED.] Any proceeding, court action, prosecution, or other business or matter that is pending on the effective date of this section and that involved or was commenced by the commissioner of energy, planning and development and which involved personnel or functions transferred to the department of energy and economic development by this section may be conducted and completed by the commissioner of the department of energy and economic development in the same manner, under the same terms and conditions, and with the same effect as though it involved or was commenced and conducted or completed by the officer who began it.

Subd. 6. [AUTHORITY CONTINUED.] The authority of the commissioner of the department of energy and economic development regarding functions transferred to the commissioner by this section is a continuation of the authority of the officer from which it was transferred regarding those functions, with the same force and effect as though the functions, powers, or duties of the officer had not been assigned or transferred, and does not constitute a new authority for the purposes of succession to all rights, powers, duties, and obligations of the officer, as constituted at the time of the assignment or transfer. All rules adopted under authority of power, duty, or responsibility transferred by this section to the commissioner of the department of energy and economic development shall remain in full force and effect until amended or repealed.

Sec. 2. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 116C.03, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. The board shall include as permanent members ~~the commissioner of the department of energy, planning and development,~~ the director of the pollution control agency, the commissioner of natural resources, the commissioner of agriculture, ~~the commissioner of energy and economic development,~~ the commissioner of health, the commissioner of transportation, and a representative of the governor's office designated by the governor.

The governor shall appoint five members from the general public to the board, subject to the advice and consent of the senate.

Sec. 3. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 116J.03, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [SCOPE.] As used in sections ~~116J.05 to 116J.35~~; 116J.41 to 116J.54; ~~116J.58 to 116J.91~~; ~~299A.03~~; and ~~299A.04~~, the terms defined in this section have the meaning given them.

Sec. 4. [216A.096] [INTERVENTION OFFICE.]

There is created in the department of public service an intervention office to carry out intervention activities before federal and other energy regulatory agencies outside of the state. The office shall be staffed by one full-time staff member appointed by the director of the department of public service to serve in the unclassified service, and as the need arises by appropriate employees of the departments and agencies represented on the energy coordination board. Policies and functions of the intervention office shall be carried out under the direction of the director of the department of public service. The director shall keep the energy coordination board apprised of all intervention activities.

Sec. 5. [116J.281] [CERTIFICATE OF NEED.]

Subdivision 1. [ASSESSMENT OF NEED CRITERIA.] The commissioner of energy and economic development shall, pursuant to chapter 14 and sections 116J.05 to 116J.30, adopt assessment of need criteria to be used in the determination of need for large energy facilities pursuant to this section.

Subd. 2. [TRANSFER OF CERTIFICATE OF NEED PROGRAM.] All powers, responsibilities, and authorities for the issuance of certificates of need for large energy facilities are transferred from the department of energy, planning and development or its successor agency to the department of energy and economic development.

Sec. 6. [116L.01] [DEPARTMENT OF ENERGY AND ECONOMIC DEVELOPMENT.]

Subdivision 1. [CREATION.] A department of energy and economic development is created as the principal agency of the state for the administration of laws, including this chapter, relating to energy and economic development. The department of energy and economic development is the successor to the department of energy, planning and development in the administration of those laws.

Subd. 2. [COMMISSIONER.] A commissioner of the department of energy and economic development shall be appointed by the governor in accordance with section 15.06, and shall be compensated in accordance with section 15A.081. The commissioner shall be knowledgeable in issues relating to energy and economic development.

Subd. 3. [ORGANIZATION.] The department shall be organized into three divisions which shall be designated the energy division, the economic development division, and the financial management division. Each division shall be responsible for administering the duties and functions assigned to it by law. When the duties of the divisions are not allocated by law, the commissioner may establish and revise the assignments of each division. Each division shall be under the direction of a deputy commissioner.

Subd. 4. [DEPUTY COMMISSIONERS.] The deputy commissioners of the energy, economic development, and financial management divisions shall be in the unclassified service and shall be appointed by and serve at the pleasure of the commissioner.

Subd. 5. [CONFIDENTIAL SECRETARY.] The commissioner may appoint a confidential secretary, who shall serve at the pleasure of the commissioner in the unclassified service.

Sec. 7. [INSTRUCTIONS TO THE REVISOR.]

Subdivision 1. [TERMS.] (a) The revisor of statutes shall substitute the terms "commissioner of the department of energy and economic development" or "commissioner" for the terms meaning the commissioner or department of energy, planning and development, where those terms appear in sections 116J.04 to 116J.36 and 116J.58 to 116J.91, and other laws relating to the energy and development functions of the department of energy, planning and development.

(b) The revisor of statutes shall remove the terms "energy and development" wherever it appears in Minnesota Statutes in reference to the department of energy, planning and development, the commissioner of energy, planning and development or similar terms to reflect the removal of the energy and development functions from that department.

Subd. 2. [SUBSTITUTION OF TERMS.] The revisor of statutes is directed to change the words "commissioner," "commissioner of energy, planning and development," "agency," "state agency," or similar terms to "the economic development division" wherever it appears in sections 116J.65 and 116J.67; and in chapters 472 and 474.

The revisor of statutes is directed to change "development revolving fund" or similar terms to "Minnesota economic development fund" wherever it appears in section 472.13.

The revisor of statutes is directed to change the words "agency" or "small business finance agency" or similar terms to "energy and economic development authority" wherever it appears in chapter 116J and other laws to reflect the transfer of that authority to the energy and economic development authority.

Subd. 3. [RENUMBERING.] The revisor of statutes shall in Minnesota Statutes renumber each section specified in column A with the numbers set forth in column B. The revisor shall also make necessary cross-reference changes consistent with the renumbering.

POWERS AND DUTIES OF THE DEPARTMENT OF ENERGY AND ECONOMIC DEVELOPMENT

Section 1. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 116J.09, is amended to read:

116J.09 [DUTIES.]

The commissioner shall:

(a) Manage the department as the central repository within the state government for the collection of data on energy;

(b) Prepare and adopt an emergency allocation plan specifying actions to be taken in the event of an impending serious shortage of energy, or a threat to public health, safety, or welfare;

(c) Undertake a continuing assessment of trends in the consumption of all forms of energy and analyze the social, economic, and environmental consequences of these trends;

(d) Carry out energy conservation measures as specified by the legislature and recommend to the governor and the legislature additional energy policies and conservation measures as required to meet the objectives of sections 116J.05 to 116J.30;

(e) Collect and analyze data relating to present and future demands and resources for all sources of energy, and specify energy needs for the state and various service areas as a basis for planning large energy facilities;

(f) Require certificate of need for construction of large energy facilities;

(g) Evaluate policies governing the establishment of rates and prices for energy as related to energy conservation, and other goals and policies of sections 116J.05 to 116J.30, and make recommendations for changes in energy pricing policies and rate schedules;

(h) Study the impact and relationship of the state energy policies to international, national, and regional energy policies;

(i) Design and implement a state program for the conservation of energy; this program shall include but not be limited to, general commercial, industrial, and residential, and transportation areas; such program shall also provide for the evaluation of energy systems as they relate to lighting, heating, refrigeration, air conditioning, building design and operation, and appliance manufacturing and operation;

(j) Inform and educate the public about the sources and uses of energy and the ways in which persons can conserve energy;

(k) Dispense funds made available for the purpose of research studies and projects of professional and civic orientation, which are related to either energy conservation, resource recovery, or the development of alternative energy technologies which conserve nonrenewable energy resources while creating minimum environmental impact;

(l) Charge other governmental departments and agencies involved in energy related activities with specific information gathering goals and require that those goals be met;

(m) Serve as a member of the environmental quality board.

Sec. 2. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 116J.10, is amended to read:

116J.10 [POWERS.]

The commissioner may:

(a) Adopt rules pursuant to chapter 14 as necessary to carry out the purposes of sections 116J.05 to 116J.30 and, when necessary for the purposes of section 116J.15, adopt temporary rules pursuant to sections 14.29 to 14.36;

(b) Make all contracts pursuant to sections 116J.05 to 116J.30 and do all things necessary to cooperate with the United States government, and to qualify for, accept and disburse any grant intended for the administration of sections 116J.05 to 116J.30. Notwithstanding any other law the commissioner is designated the state agent to apply for, receive and accept federal or other funds made available to the state for the purposes of sections 116J.05 to 116J.30.

(c) Contract for professional services if such work or services cannot be satisfactorily performed by employees of the department or by any other state agency;

(d) Enter into interstate compacts to jointly carry out such research and planning with other states or the federal government where appropriate;

(e) Distribute informational material at no cost to the public upon reasonable request;

(f) Provide on-site technical assistance to units of local government in order to enhance local capabilities for dealing with energy problems;

(g) Administer for the state, energy programs pursuant to federal law, regulations or guidelines, except for the crisis fuel assistance and low income weatherization programs administered by the department of economic security, and coordinate the programs and activities with other state agencies, units of local government and educational institutions;

(h) Intervene in certificate of need proceedings;

(i) Design and administer a statewide program and actively involve major organizations and community leaders in its work and shall solicit funds from all sources;

(j) Develop a state energy investment plan with yearly energy conservation and alternative energy development goals, investment targets, and marketing strategies;

(k) Perform market analysis studies relating to conservation, alternative and renewable energy resources, and energy recovery;

(l) Provide general technical assistance to project applicants to assure the preparation of complete, fully descriptive proposals for projects;

(m) Assist with the preparation of proposals for innovative conservation, renewable, alternative, or energy recovery projects;

(n) Manage and disburse funds made available for the purpose of research studies or demonstration projects related to energy conservation or other activities deemed appropriate by the commissioner.

ARTICLE 3

ENERGY AND ECONOMIC DEVELOPMENT AUTHORITY

Section 1. [116L.35] [CITATION.]

Sections 1 to 34 may be cited as the Minnesota energy and economic development authority law of 1983.

Sec. 2. [POLICIES.]

Subdivision 1. [FINDINGS.] A reliable, economic supply of energy is essential for the state's households and local governments. Imported supplies are increasingly costly, unreliable, and environmentally disadvantageous. As a result, a partnership of the private and public sectors is needed to provide leadership, cooperation, and aid for the purposes of planning, developing, and managing economically viable energy conservation programs.

Subd. 2. [FUNDING POLICY.] It is further declared that adequate funds and assistance must be provided to assist and to encourage the establishment, maintenance, and growth of energy conservation and indigenous energy resources in the state and to reduce to a manageable level the cost of energy to households and local governments, including, without limitation, the provision of loans to assist households and municipalities in the design, distribution, promotion, maintenance, installation, or acquisition of energy conservation and alternative energy resource materials and devices.

Subd. 3. [PARTNERSHIP POLICY.] It is further declared that a partnership of the private and public sectors, established through the creation of an energy and economic development authority, will promote the purpose of reducing energy costs, increasing energy efficiency, and developing Minnesota's indigenous energy resources. By providing an arrangement where monies, personnel, information, material, and technologies can be pooled and costs shared, the partnership between the public and private sectors will promote the policies declared in this section more effectively than would be the case if these sectors acted independently.

Subd. 4. [HEALTH AND WELFARE PROMOTED.] It is further declared that a partnership of the private and public sectors and the creation of an energy and economic development authority will promote the welfare and prosperity of the state by maintaining and increasing the career and job opportunities of the citizens of the state, by reducing waste of resources, and by protecting and enhancing the tax base on which state and local governments depend for the financing of public services.

Sec. 3. [116L.36] [DEFINITIONS.]

Subdivision 1. [GENERAL.] For purposes of sections 3 to 10, the terms defined in this section have the meanings ascribed to them unless the context in which they are used clearly indicates otherwise or another meaning is specifically provided.

Subd. 2. [COMMISSIONER.] "Commissioner" means the commissioner of the department of energy and economic development.

Subd. 3. [DEPARTMENT.] "Department" means the department of energy and economic development.

Subd. 4. [AUTHORITY.] "Authority" means the Minnesota energy and economic development authority created in section 4.

Subd. 5. [PERSON.] "Person" includes an individual, firm, partnership, corporation, or association.

Subd. 6. [CONSERVATION.] "Conservation" means a capital investment designed to reduce the use of energy so that the resulting fuel savings amortize the cost of the investment over a period of ten years or less.

Subd. 7. [MUNICIPALITY.] "Municipality" means a city, town, county, school district, special taxing district, or a municipal power agency governed by chapter 453, or a group or combination of those units operating under an agreement to jointly undertake projects authorized by this article.

Subd. 8. [ALTERNATIVE ENERGY RESOURCE.] "Alternative energy resource" means a source of energy available from indigenous Minnesota resources including but not limited to peat, biomass, solar energy, wind, municipal wastes, agricultural or forestry wastes, hydro-power, and agricultural crops suitable for conversion to an energy fuel.

Subd. 9. [RENEWABLE ENERGY RESOURCE.] "Renewable energy resource" means a source of energy occurring in Minnesota which, when consumed for energy purposes, is replaced within a matter of days, months, or years by new or additional supplies of the energy source. Renewable energy resources include, but are not limited to, forestry products and forest harvest residues, solar energy, wind energy, water-power, and agricultural wastes.

Subd. 10. [ENERGY RECOVERY.] "Energy recovery" means the extraction of energy from materials, components, or processes which would normally represent wasted energy resources. Municipal solid wastes, volatile sewer gases, and power plant waste heat, among others, offer the potential for energy recovery.

Subd. 11. [FINANCIAL INSTITUTION.] "Financial institution" means a bank or other financial corporation described in chapter 47, an insurance company licensed to do business under chapter 60A, a securities broker-dealer licensed under chapter 80A, or a credit union.

Sec. 4. [116L.37] [CREATION OF AUTHORITY; MEMBERS.]

Subdivision 1. [MEMBERS.] There is created an authority of the state to be known as the "Minnesota energy and economic development authority," which shall perform the functions and exercise the powers given to it by law. The authority shall have nine members, including the commissioner, and eight members appointed by the governor with the advice and consent of the senate.

Subd. 2. [TERMS; COMPENSATION; REMOVAL; VACANCIES.] Compensation, removal of members, and filling of vacancies of the members of the authority appointed by the governor shall be as provided in section 15.0575. The commissioner of energy and economic development shall be the chair of the authority.

Subd. 3. [STAFF.] The authority shall be under the administrative control of the commissioner. The financial management division shall provide administrative and technical support to the authority and the commissioner may enter into agreements under which staff from private corporations, agencies, or other organizations are loaned to the authority for the purpose of fulfilling its prescribed duties.

Subd. 4. [SERVICES.] The authority shall identify general consultative and technical services to assist in financing and marketing household and municipal energy conservation or alternative energy development. It may enter into agreements or other transactions concerning the receipt or provisions of those services.

Subd. 5. [LIABILITY OF MEMBERS.] The members of the authority shall not be liable personally, either jointly or severally, for any debt or obligation created or incurred by the authority.

Sec. 5. [116L.43] [GENERAL POWERS OF THE AUTHORITY.]

Subdivision 1. For the purpose of exercising the specific powers granted to the authority, it shall have the general powers granted in this section.

Subd. 2. It may sue and be sued.

Subd. 3. It may have a seal and alter the same at will.

Subd. 4. It may make, and from time to time, amend and repeal rules and temporary rules not inconsistent with this article.

Subd. 5. It may acquire, hold and dispose of personal property for its corporate purposes.

Subd. 6. It may enter into agreements or other transactions with any federal or state agency, any person and any domestic or foreign partnership, corporation, association or organization.

Subd. 7. It may acquire real property, or an interest therein, in its own name, by purchase or foreclosure, where the acquisition is necessary or appropriate to protect any loan in which the authority has an interest and may sell, transfer and convey any such property to a buyer and, in the event such sale, transfer or conveyance cannot be effected with reasonable promptness or at a reasonable price, may lease such property to a tenant.

Subd. 8. It may sell, at public or private sale, any note, mortgage or other instrument or obligation evidencing or securing a loan.

Subd. 9. It may procure insurance against any loss in connection with its property in such amounts, and from such insurers, as may be necessary or desirable.

Subd. 10. It may consent, whenever it deems it necessary or desirable in the fulfillment of its corporate purpose, to the modification of the rate of interest, time of payment or any installment of principal or interest, or any other term, of any loan, loan commitment, contract or agreement of any kind to which the authority is a party.

Subd. 11. It may borrow money to carry out and effectuate its corporate purpose and may issue its negotiable bonds or notes as evidence of any such borrowing in accordance with sections 3 to 10.

Sec. 6. [116L.431] [DATA PRIVACY.]

Financial information, including but not limited to credit reports, financial statements and net worth calculations, received or prepared by the agency regarding any loan or loan guarantee issued by the authority is private data on individuals, pursuant to section 13.02, subdivision 12.

Sec. 7. [116L.39] [POWERS AND DUTIES OF THE AUTHORITY RELATING TO ENERGY.]

Subdivision 1. [BROAD INTERPRETATION.] The authority through the commissioner shall perform, direct, or closely oversee the functions and programs delegated to it.

The powers granted to the authority shall be broadly interpreted to facilitate innovative leadership in all areas of energy including policy setting, goal definition, strategy planning, conservation, development of renewable and alternative energy resources, energy recovery, and monitoring.

Subd. 2. [CAMPAIGN FOR ENERGY EFFICIENCY.] The authority shall promote a campaign for energy efficiency. The authority shall actively promote public awareness of the potentials and benefits of energy efficiency.

Subd. 3. [JOB CREATION, LOW INCOME.] The authority shall assure that programs under its control and direction make accommodation wherever possible for job creation and the needs of low income families and persons.

Subd. 4. [LOAN GUARANTEES.] The authority shall operate a program of loan guarantees for commercial projects as specified in section 8.

Subd. 5. [REVENUE BONDS.] The authority shall operate a revenue bonding program for commercial projects as specified in section 9.

Subd. 6. [BONDS IN OWN NAME.] The authority shall issue revenue bonds in its own name for purposes of the program authorized in subdivision 5 and section 9.

Subd. 7. [LOANS TO MUNICIPALITIES.] The authority shall operate a program of loans to municipalities for capital expenses relating to energy conservation, recovery, or development as specified in section 10.

Subd. 8. [GENERAL OBLIGATION BOND LOANS.] The authority shall determine the use of and allocate the proceeds of the general obligation bonds issued by the commissioner of finance for purposes of the program established in section 10. Financial and technical support for this program shall be provided to the authority through the commissioner by the financial management division.

Subd. 9. [DISTRICT HEATING LOAN PROGRAM.] The authority shall administer the district heating loan program established in section 116J.36 on behalf of the commissioner.

Subd. 10. [RULES.] The authority may adopt temporary or permanent rules necessary to operate the programs authorized in subdivisions 4 to 8. The rules authorized under this section may be adopted without complying with the administrative procedure act contained in chapter 14.

Subd. 11. [PROGRAMS.] (a) The authority may assist energy efficiency improvements in low income housing and municipal facilities through (1) loans, (2) loan guarantees, (3) interest subsidies, (4) grants, and (5) other forms of assistance.

(b) The authority shall adopt a plan to use as the basis for its investment decisions.

(c) By the start of the 1984 legislative session, (1) the authority shall have identified various nongovernmental funding sources; (2) provided for the efficient administration of its affairs; (3) solicited public comment on its plans; and (4) prepared recommendations as to appropriate reserve and guarantee fund levels required by this article.

(d) The authority shall annually report not later than February 1 to the legislature. The report should contain recommendations for legislation as necessary to better coordinate its activities and the energy activities of state government.

Subd. 12. [CONSERVATION EQUIPMENT.] The authority may assist in the financing of the development and operation of conservation or alternative or renewable energy system equipment if the federal government or another funding source provides assistance in connection with the development and operation.

Subd. 13. [GIFTS, GRANTS.] The authority may accept appropriations, gifts, grants, bequests, and devise and utilize or dispose of the same to carry out any provision of this article. All gifts, grants, bequests, and revenues from those sources are appropriated to the authority for the purposes of this act. The funding may include, but is not limited to, public utility investments and expenditures ordered by the public utilities commission pursuant to the provisions of section 216B.241.

Sec. 8. [116L.40] [ENERGY LOAN GUARANTY PROGRAM.]

Subdivision 1. [DEFINITIONS.] For purposes of this section, the following terms have the meanings given:

(a) "Fund" means the energy loan guaranty fund created by subdivision 2.

(b) "Lender" means any state or federally chartered bank, credit union, savings bank, savings and loan association, savings association, trust company or a lender certified by the secretary of housing and urban development or the administrator of veterans affairs or approved or certified by the administrator of the farmers home administration.

(c) "Loan" means a loan or advance of credit, secured by a mortgage, to a borrower for purposes specified by authority rule.

(d) "Mortgage" means (1) a second mortgage on the real property on which equipment is to be installed or a first mortgage on the property, if there is no outstanding mortgage on the property at the time the loan is made, and (2) any security interest, under sections 336.9-101 to 336.9-508, in personal property or fixtures acquired with the proceeds of an insured loan, which the authority may require by rule.

(e) "Qualified energy project" means acquiring, installing or constructing any conservation, renewable energy, alternative energy or other capital improvements for use in a trade or business and other projects described by rule of the authority.

Subd. 2. [ENERGY LOAN GUARANTY FUND.] An energy loan guaranty fund is created. The fund shall be used by the authority as a revolving fund for carrying out the provisions of this section with respect to loans insured under subdivision 3.

Subd. 3. [INSURANCE OF LOANS.] (a) [AUTHORIZATION.] The authority is authorized, upon application by a lender, to insure any eligible loan as provided in this section; and under terms as the authority may prescribe by rule, to make commitments for the insuring of loans prior to the date of their execution or disbursement.

(b) [ELIGIBILITY REQUIREMENTS.] To be eligible for insurance under this section:

(1) A loan shall be in an original principal amount not to exceed $.....

(2) The proceeds of the loan shall be used solely for the purpose of financing a qualified energy project.

(3) The loan agreement shall have a maturity satisfactory to the authority, but not to exceed ——— years unless the loan is made in connection with financing for the purchase or construction of the building, in which case the maturity shall not exceed the maturity of the loan financing or 30 years, whichever is less.

(4) The loan agreement shall contain complete amortization provisions satisfactory to the authority requiring periodic payments by the borrower not in excess of his reasonable ability to pay as determined by the authority.

(5) The loan agreement shall contain terms and provisions with respect to insurance, repairs, alterations, payment of taxes, foreclosure proceedings, acceleration of maturity, delinquency charges and any other matters as the authority may prescribe.

(6) The loan shall be secured by a mortgage which has priority over any other liens against the property, except a contract for deed or first mortgage securing a loan, the proceeds of which were used to acquire or construct the property.

(c) [CONCLUSIVE EVIDENCE OF INSURABILITY.] Any contract of insurance executed by the authority under this section shall be conclusive evidence of the eligibility of the loan for insurance, and the validity of any contract of insurance properly executed and in the hands of any approved lender shall not be contestable, except for fraud or misrepresentation on the part of the lender.

(d) [PREMIUMS.] The authority is authorized by rule to fix premium charges for the insurance of loans under this section.

(e) [PROCEDURES UPON DEFAULT.] The failure of the borrower to make any payment as provided by any loan agreement insured under this section shall be considered a default under the loan. If the default continues for a period of 30 days, the lender shall be entitled to receive the benefits of the insurance upon assignment, transfer, and delivery to the authority, within 120 days of the default, of the following:

(1) all rights and interests arising under the loan, mortgage, and any other security interests securing the loan;

(2) all claims of the lender against the borrower or others, arising out of the mortgage transactions;

(3) all policies of insurance, surety bonds or other guarantees and any claims thereunder;

(4) any balance of the loan not advanced to the borrower;

(5) any cash or property held by the lender, or to which it is entitled, including deposits made to the account of the borrower which have not been applied in reduction of the principal of the loan indebtedness; and

(6) all records, documents, books, papers, and accounts relating to the loan transaction.

Alternatively, the lender may in the event of default under the loan, in accordance with rules of and within a period to be determined by the authority, obtain possession of the property, through foreclosure or otherwise, and receive the benefits of the insurance as provided in paragraph (f) upon:

(1) prompt conveyance to the authority of title to the property, as provided in rules promulgated by the authority, and

(2) assignment to the authority of all claims of the lender against the borrower or others, arising out of the loan transaction or foreclosure, except claims which have been released with the consent of the authority.

(f) [PAYMENT OF INSURANCE.] Upon the lender's compliance with the requirements provided in or established under paragraph (e) the authority shall pay to the lender an amount equal to the outstanding unpaid principal indebtedness at the time of default less ——— percent, plus interest at ——— percent per annum from the date of default.

Subd. 4. [INVESTMENT INTEREST.] All interest and profits accruing from investment of the fund's money shall be credited to and be a part of the fund, and any loss incurred in the principal of the investments of the fund shall be borne by the fund.

Subd. 5. [MAXIMUM AUTHORIZED INSURANCE.] The authority may not at any time issue insurance under this section aggregating in excess of an amount equal to the current balance contained in the fund multiplied by ten.

Sec. 9. [116L.41] [ENERGY LOAN PROGRAM.]

Subdivision 1. [AUTHORITY TO MAKE LOANS.] The authority may make loans to individuals, partnerships, corporations, or other entities for the financing of capital improvements to be used in connection with a trade or business if the principal purpose of improvement is energy conservation, to reduce the usage of conventional fuels as a source of energy, or to develop Minnesota's alternative energy resources as provided by the authority's rules.

Subd. 2. [BONDING AUTHORITY.] The authority may borrow money and may issue bonds, notes, or other obligations as evidence of the borrowing in accordance with sections 462A.08 to 462A.17, all with the force and effect stated and the incidental powers granted and duties imposed in those sections. The authority may sell any of its obligations at public or private sale, at the price or prices as the authority determines are appropriate, notwithstanding the limitations on sale price in section 462A.09.

Subd. 3. [LIMITATIONS ON OBLIGATIONS.] Neither the state nor any agency or political subdivision of the state shall be liable on bonds, notes, or other obligations issued by the authority. No bond, note, or other obligation of the authority shall constitute a debt or loan of the credit of the state or any political subdivision or any individual member of the authority.

Subd. 4. [ENERGY DEVELOPMENT FUND.] An energy development fund is created and is eligible to receive appropriations. The authority may irrevocably pledge and appropriate all or a segregated portion of the energy development fund to make principal and interest payments when due on all or one or more series of its obligations for which other funds are not available, pursuant to the terms and conditions the authority shall prescribe. Unless the energy development fund has been pledged and appropriated to secure the obligations, the energy development fund shall not be available to make principal or interest payments on the obligations.

Subd. 5. [LOAN PAYMENTS; FEES.] The authority may impose and collect interest and amortization payments on loans, may authorize the collection of fees and charges, and may require funds to be placed in escrow. The payments, fees, charges and amounts placed in escrow shall be sufficient to provide for the payment and security of the obligations issued and for their servicing, to provide for insurance against losses, and to cover the cost of issuance of the obligations and technical, consultative and other assistance services.

Subd. 6. [INVESTMENT INCOME.] All interest and profits accruing from investment of the reserve fund's moneys shall be credited to and be part of the reserve fund, and any loss incurred in the principal of the investment of the reserve fund shall be borne by the fund. The assets of the reserve fund shall be invested only in direct obligations or agencies of the United States or in insured depository accounts up to the amount of the insurance, in any institution insured by an agency of the United States government.

Subd. 7. [ADDITIONAL POWERS.] In addition to the powers specifically enumerated, the authority shall have any corporate powers necessary to effectuate or appropriate to the efficient implementation and operation of the revenue bond loan program authorized by this section, except to the extent explicitly limited by this section.

Subd. 8. [INVESTMENTS.] The authority may invest any funds not required for immediate disbursement in direct obligations of or obligations guaranteed as to principal and interest by the United States, or in insured savings accounts, up to the amount of the insurance, in any institution the accounts of which are insured by the federal savings and loan insurance corporation or in a savings or other account in a bank insured by the federal deposit insurance corporation or in time certificates of deposit issued by a bank insured by the federal deposit insurance corporation and maturing within one year or less. It may deposit funds in excess of the amount insured with security as provided in chapter 118. Notwithstanding the foregoing, it may invest and deposit funds in accounts established pursuant to resolutions or indentures securing its bonds or notes in the investments and deposit accounts or certificates, and with the security, as may be agreed to with the holders or a trustee for the holders.

Subd. 9. [FUNDING.] All proceeds of the authority's bonds, notes and other obligations, any amounts granted or appropriated to the authority to make, purchase, insure, or guarantee loans or for bond reserves, all income from the investment thereof and all revenues from loans, fees, and charges of the authority are annually appropriated to the authority to accomplish its corporate purposes and shall be expended, administered, and accounted for in accordance with the applicable provisions of all bond and note resolutions, indentures, and other instruments, contracts, and agreements of the authority.

Subd. 10. [LIABILITY.] Neither the state nor any other agency or political subdivision of the state shall be liable on any bond, note, or other obligation of the authority, and no bond, note, or other obligation of the authority shall constitute a debt or loan of credit of the state or any political subdivision.

Subd. 11. [LIMIT OF STATE ACTION.] The state pledges and agrees with all holders of obligations of the authority that it will not limit or alter the rights vested in the authority to fulfill their terms, and it will not in any way impair the rights or remedies of the holders, until all of the obligations and interest on them, with interest on any unpaid installments of interest and all costs and expenses in connection with any action or proceeding by or on behalf of the holders to enforce the payment and other provisions of the obligations, are fully met and discharged. The authority may include and recite this pledge and agreement of the state in any obligation or related document. This section does not affect the power of the state to supervise and control the authority or to discontinue its operation or alter its organization, programs, or activities or transfer its powers to a successor agency, but the action of the state must be consistent with this article and title to all property owned by the authority at the time of the state's action must remain or vest in the authority, its successor, or the state, as the case may be.

Subd. 12. [TAXES.] The property of the authority and its income and operation shall be exempt from all taxation by the state or any of its political subdivisions and all bonds and notes of the authority shall be exempt from all taxation by the state or any of its political subdivisions.

Subd. 13. [BONDS; TAX STATUS.] The state covenants with the purchasers and all subsequent holders and transferees of notes and bonds issued by the authority, in consideration of the acceptance of and payment for the notes and bonds, that the notes and bonds of the authority issued pursuant to this article and the income from them and all the authority's fees, charges, gifts, grants, revenues, receipts, and other moneys received or to be received pledged to pay or secure the payment of the notes or bonds shall at all times be free and exempt from all state, city, county, or other taxation provided by the laws of the state, except for estate and gift taxes, taxes on transfers, and the Minnesota corporate franchise tax measured by income so long as the interest on federal bonds is included in the income by which the corporate franchise tax is measured.

Sec. 10. [116L.42] [LOANS TO MUNICIPALITIES.]

Subdivision 1. [DEFINITIONS.] For purposes of this section, the following terms have the meanings given:

(a) "Municipality" means a statutory or home rule charter city, county, township, school district, or other political subdivision with ad valorem taxing authority.

(b) "Qualified improvements" means improvements to public land, buildings or other improvements undertaken by a municipality for the principal purpose of energy conservation or to reduce usage of conventional energy sources, as provided by rules adopted by the authority.

Subd. 2. [AUTHORITY TO MAKE LOANS.] The authority may make loans to municipalities to finance the acquisition or construction of qualified improvements, including interest costs incurred during the first three years after the loans are made.

Subd. 3. [APPLICATIONS.] Application for a loan to be made pursuant to this section shall be made by the municipality to the authority. The authority shall establish procedures, form, and the required contents of the applications.

Subd. 4. [MUNICIPAL OBLIGATION.] The authority shall not make a loan until it has entered into an agreement with the municipality providing that the municipality shall make payments equal to the principal and interest payments on the state bonds at the times transfers are required to be made pursuant to sections 16A.64 and 16A.65. The agreement shall obligate the municipality to levy an ad valorem property tax equal to the amounts necessary to make the payments. The amount required to be levied may be reduced by any other available amounts contained in a special fund dedicated to payment of the loan obligation.

Subd. 5. [RECEIPTS.] The principal and interest in repayment of the loans authorized by this section shall be deposited in the state treasury and credited to the state bond fund and are appropriated to the commissioner of finance for the purpose of that fund.

Subd. 8. [POLLUTION CONTROL LOAN.] "Pollution control loan" means a loan to ~~the owner of a~~ an eligible small business for the acquisition, construction, or improvement of pollution control facilities or operations. Pollution control facilities or operations may include real and personal property likely to help prevent, reduce, abate, or control noise, air, or water pollution or contamination by removing, altering, disposing, or storing pollutants, contaminants, wastes, or heat, and real and personal property to be used for the collection, storage, treatment, utilization, processing, or final disposal of solid or liquid waste.

Sec. 16. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 116J.88, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 9. [FUND.] "Fund" means the Minnesota economic development fund.

Sec. 17. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 116J.89, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [~~CREATION ENERGY AND ECONOMIC DEVELOPMENT AUTHORITY; PURPOSES.~~] ~~A small business finance agency~~ The energy and economic development authority is hereby created and is constituted as an the authority to act on behalf of the state within the scope of the powers granted to it in sections ~~116J.63~~ 116J.62 and 116J.88 to 116J.91 to implement a ~~loan program~~ financing programs by which, in cooperation with cities, towns, counties, and private or public lenders, adequate funds may be provided on sufficiently favorable terms to assist and encourage the establishment, maintenance, and growth of eligible small ~~business~~ businesses in Minnesota and to reduce to a manageable level the cost of the control of pollution and disposal of waste resulting from the operations of small ~~business~~ businesses.

Because of its ability to pool or combine loans to be funded from one or more issues of bonds, ~~whether or not the interest on the bonds is exempt from federal income taxes,~~ the agency will be able to spread its financing costs among the eligible small businesses to which the agency makes loans, thereby reducing costs incurred by each eligible small business.

Sec. 18. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 116J.89, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [PUBLIC PURPOSES.] Sections ~~116J.63~~ 116J.62 and 116J.88 to 116J.91 are enacted to promote the welfare and prosperity of the state by maintaining and increasing the career and job opportunities of its citizens; by reducing, controlling, and preventing environmental pollution and waste of resources; and by protecting and enhancing the tax base on which state and local governments depend for the financing of public services.

Sec. 19. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 116J.89, subdivision 7, is amended to read:

Subd. 7. [TAXATION OF AGENCY NOTES AND BONDS.] The state covenants with the purchasers and all subsequent holders and transferees of notes and bonds issued by the agency in consideration of the acceptance of and payment for the notes and bonds, that the notes and bonds of the agency issued pursuant to sections 116J.88 to 116J.91 and the income therefrom and all its fees, charges, gifts, grants, revenues, receipts, and other moneys received or to be received, pledges to pay or secure the payment of such notes or bonds shall at all times be free and exempt from all state, city, county or other taxation provided by the laws of the state, except for estate and gift taxes and taxes on transfers, and except for the Minnesota corporate franchise tax measured by income, so long as the interest on federal bonds is included in the income by which such tax is measured.

Sec. 20. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 116J.89, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 1a. In addition, the energy and economic development authority may use the Minnesota economic development fund to provide financial assistance to eligible small businesses as follows:

- (a) to provide loan guarantees to eligible small businesses;*
- (b) to invest directly and indirectly in eligible small businesses or to participate with other financial resources;*
- (c) to provide direct loans to eligible small businesses;*
- (d) to participate in other investment programs as appropriate under the terms of sections 1 to 34;*
- (e) to purchase loan packages made to eligible small businesses by financial institutions in the state;*
- (f) to enter into or to pay fees on insurance contracts, letters of credit, municipal bond insurance, surety bonds, or other agreements or contracts with financial institutions;*
- (g) to guarantee bonds and notes of the agency, the proceeds of which are used to make business loans;*
- (h) to create accounts within the fund for the separate purposes listed in this section and in section 2, and including without limitation the payment of the cost of issuing authority bonds and notes;*
- (i) to enter into contract with note and bond holders or other persons interested in the disposition of the fund; and*
- (j) for any legal purpose or program of the authority.*

Sec. 21. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 116J.89, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 1b. (a) The following eligible small businesses have preference among business applicants:

- (1) businesses located in areas of the state that are experiencing the most severe unemployment rates in the state;*
- (2) eligible small businesses that are likely to expand and provide additional permanent employment;*

(3) businesses located in border communities that experience a competitive disadvantage due to location;

(4) businesses that have been unable to obtain traditional financial assistance due to a disadvantageous location, minority ownership, or other factors rather than due to the business having been considered a poor financial risk;

(5) businesses that utilize state resources, thereby reducing state dependence on outside resources, and that produce products or services consistent with the long-term social and economic needs of the state; and

(6) businesses located in designated enterprise zones, as described in section 273.1312, subdivision 4.

(b) Direct equity or loan investments in particular businesses are not prohibited, but the division shall prefer indirect investment such as loan guarantees or the purchase of loan packages. Except in the issuance of authority bonds or notes, the authority may not invest the fund in a program that does not have financial participation from the private sector, as determined by the division.

Sec. 22. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 116J.89, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 1c. [MINNESOTA ECONOMIC DEVELOPMENT FUND.] There is created the Minnesota economic development fund to be administered by the energy and economic development authority created in section 4. The fund consists of appropriations to the authority to effectuate the authority's purposes.

Sec. 23. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 116J.90, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. The ~~agency~~ authority may make or purchase or participate with financial institutions in making or purchasing business loans not exceeding $1,000,000 in principal amount; ~~to be serviced by such institutions; provided that:~~

(a) ~~The agency's share shall not exceed 90 percent of the total principal amount, and shall be payable with interest at the same times but not necessarily at the same interest rate as the share of the financial institution, and both shares shall be equally and ratably secured by a valid mortgage on or security interest in real or personal property or by any other security satisfactory to the agency to secure payment of the loan provided; that the agency's share may equal 100 percent of the total principal amount of the business loan if the financial institution participating in the making or purchasing of the business loan by servicing the loan, purchases 100 percent of the total amount of the bonds issued by the agency in connection with the loan;~~

(b) ~~The total principal amount shall not exceed 90 percent of the value of the property securing the loan, unless the amount in excess of 90 percent is:~~

(1) ~~Loaned from available funds which are not proceeds received directly from the sale of the agency's bonds or notes and are not restricted under the terms of any resolution or indenture securing bonds or notes; or~~

(2) ~~Insured or guaranteed by a federal agency or by a private insurer qualified~~ to write such insurance in the state, insuring a percentage of any claim for loss at least equal to that percentage of the value by which the loan exceeds 90 percent thereof;

(c) The value of the property securing the loan shall be certified by the participating financial institution, on the basis of such appraisals, bids, purchase orders, and engineers' certificates as the agency may require; provided that the value of items purchased and constructed from the proceeds of the loan shall not be deemed to exceed the contract price of purchase or construction;

(d) The agency shall not disburse funds under a commitment to participate in a loan for the construction or substantial improvement of property until the construction or improvement has been completed, unless a financial institution furnishes an irrevocable letter of credit or a qualified corporate surety furnishes payment and performance bonds, satisfactory to the agency and in an aggregate amount equal to the amount payable under the construction contract; and

(e) No other indebtedness may be secured by a mortgage on or security interest in property securing a business loan made or purchased pursuant to this subdivision without the prior express written authorization of the agency.

Sec. 24. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 116J.90, subdivision 4, is amended to read:

Subd. 4. The agency authority may make pollution control loans which are fully secured by the guarantee or insurance of any agency or instrumentality of the United States or by a private insurer qualified to write the insurance in the state, or by reserves provided by the agency or any combination of the foregoing.

Sec. 25. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 116J.90, subdivision 5, is amended to read:

Subd. 5. The agency authority shall make every effort to assure that at least 50 percent of the principal amount of the loans made or purchased by the agency authority in each fiscal year consists of loans with a principal amount of $100,000 or less to eligible targeted small businesses as defined in section 116J.88, subdivision 4 5, and the financial management division shall provide technical assistance needed by eligible targeted small business owners businesses to complete applications and meet other requirements for those loans. The agency authority shall report to the legislature annually on or before ~~October~~ February 1 as to its compliance with the requirements of this subdivision during the preceding fiscal year. The inability of the authority to comply with this subdivision does not affect the validity of bonds and notes heretofore or hereafter issued.

Sec. 26. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 116J.91, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. In implementing ~~its corporate~~ the purposes and the programs described in sections ~~116J.63~~ 116J.62 and 116J.88 to 116J.91, the agency authority shall have the powers and duties set forth in this section.

Sec. 27. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 116J.91, subdivision 4, is amended to read:

Subd. 4. It may adopt, amend and repeal rules not inconsistent with the provisions of sections ~~116J.63~~ 116J.62 and 116J.88 to 116J.91 as necessary to effectuate its ~~corporate~~ purposes.

Sec. 28. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 116J.91, subdivision 10, is amended to read:

Subd. 10. It may consent, whenever it deems it necessary or desirable in the fulfillment of its corporate purpose, to the modification of the rate of interest, time of payment, or any installment of principal or interest, or any other term, of ~~any mortgage loan, mortgage loan commitment, construction loan, temporary loan,~~ a contract or agreement of any kind to which the agency is a party.

Sec. 29. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 116J.91, subdivision 11, is amended to read:

Subd. 11. It may borrow money to carry out and effectuate its ~~corporate purpose purposes~~ and may issue its negotiable bonds or notes as evidence of any such borrowing in accordance with sections 462A.08 to 462A.13, 462A.16 and 462A.17, all with the force and effect stated and the incidental powers granted and duties imposed in those sections. The authority may refund bonds and notes and may guarantee its bonds and notes with money from the economic development fund. The aggregate principal amount of the agency's bonds and notes outstanding at any one time, excluding the amount satisfied and discharged by payment or provision for payment in accordance with their terms, and deducting amounts held in debt service reserve funds therefor and amounts used to make loans guaranteed or insured by an agency or instrumentality of the federal government or by a private insurer or guarantor authorized to do business in the state of Minnesota and acceptable to the authority, shall not exceed $30,000,000 unless authorized by another law.

Sec. 30. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 116J.91, subdivision 12, is amended to read:

Subd. 12. It may issue and sell bonds, notes, and other obligations payable solely from particular moneys, assets, or revenues derived from its programs notwithstanding section 462A.08, subdivision 3. Obligations issued to participate in making or purchasing business loans ~~pursuant to section 116J.90, subdivision 2,~~ shall be payable solely from revenues derived by the agency from repayments of such loans and from enforcement of the security therefor, or from a debt service reserve fund or funds, or from a general reserve fund or from a segregated portion thereof, irrevocably pledged and appropriated to pay principal and interest due, for which other funds are not available. A general reserve fund is hereby created and is eligible to receive direct appropriations from the state treasury or a transfer from the economic development fund as the authority may provide by resolution. The agency may irrevocably pledge and appropriate all or a segregated portion of the general reserve fund to pay principal and interest due on all or one or more series of its obligations for which other funds are not available, pursuant to the terms and conditions that the agency shall determine. Until so pledged and appropriated by the agency the general reserve fund shall not be available to pay principal and interest on the agency's obligations. ~~No obligations shall be issued to participate in making or purchasing business loans pursuant to section 116J.90, subdivision 2, unless the obligations are~~ secured at the time of issuance by a debt service reserve fund, a portion of the general reserve fund segregated to secure one or more series of bonds, or the portion of the general reserve fund not segregated to secure one or more series of bonds, and unless the amount then held or then deposited in the fund or segregated portion is at least equal to ten percent of the aggregate principal amount of all obligations secured by the fund or segregated portion thereof. The authority may at its option provide by resolution that obligations issued to participate in making or purchasing business loans be secured at the time of issuance in whole or in part by a debt service reserve fund or funds, a portion of the general reserve fund segregated to secure one or more series of bonds, or the portion of the general reserve fund not segregated to secure one or more series of bonds. The operation of the debt service reserve fund or funds and other relevant terms or provisions shall be determined by resolution of the authority.

Sec. 31. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 116J.91, subdivision 14, is amended to read:

Subd. 14. It may establish and collect reasonable interest and amortization payments on loans, and in connection therewith may establish and collect or authorize the collection of reasonable fees and charges or require funds to be placed in escrow, sufficient to provide for the payment and security of its bonds, notes, commitments and other obligations and for the servicing thereof, to provide reasonable allowances for or insurance against losses which may be incurred and to cover the cost of issuance of obligations and technical, consultative, and project assistance services. ~~It shall require the payment of all processing, administrative and guarantee fees and the deposit in escrow of all funds required by the small business administration or other federal agency or instrumentality guaranteeing any loan and shall comply and enforce compliance with all terms and conditions of each guarantee, and the prompt filing of all claims which may arise thereunder.~~

Sec. 32. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 116J.91, subdivision 16, is amended to read:

Subd. 16. It may provide general consultative and technical services to assist in financing small business facilities for which loans may be made pursuant to section 116J.90. It may enter into agreements or other transactions concerning the receipt or provision of those services.

Sec. 33. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 116J.91, subdivision 19, is amended to read:

Subd. 19. ~~All Proceeds of the agency's authority's bonds, notes, and other obligations, any; amounts granted or appropriated to the agency for the making or purchase or the insurance or guaranty of loans or for bond reserves, all; income from their investment; money in the economic development fund; and all revenues from loans, fees, and charges of the agency division are annually appropriated to the agency for the accomplishment of its corporate purposes and shall be expended, administered, and accounted for in accordance with the applicable provisions of all bond and note resolutions, indentures, and other instruments, contracts, and agreements of the agency. Notwithstanding section 16A.28, these appropriations are available until expended.~~

Sec. 34. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 116J.91, is amended by adding

a subdivision to read:

Subd. 20. The authority may do all things necessary and proper to fulfill its purpose and the purposes of the economic development fund as provided in sections 22 to 35.

Sec. 35. [APPROPRIATIONS.]

There is appropriated from the general fund to the Minnesota economic development fund the total sum of $30,000,000 for the biennium ending June 30, 1985, to hire staff, consultants, and other necessities of administration of the division and for the purposes provided in sections 1 to 33. The appropriation is deemed expended upon deposit in the Minnesota economic fund. Reports the same back with the recommendation that the bill be amended as follows:

Delete everything after the enacting clause and insert:

"ARTICLE 1

Section 1. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 79.071, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. The commissioner shall adopt a schedule of workers' compensation insurance rates for use in this state for each classification under which business is written until January 1, ~~1986~~ 1984. The schedule of rates shall not be excessive, inadequate, or unfairly discriminatory. In adopting a schedule of rates, the commissioner may act on the written petition of the association or any other interested party requesting that a hearing be held for modification of the schedule of rates. The commissioner may include the expense of a reasonable charge for the services of an agent of record, for the service of rejected risks as set forth in sections 79.24 to 79.27.

Sec. 2. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 79.211, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [CERTAIN WAGES EXCLUDED FOR RATE MAKING.] The rating association or an insurer shall not include wages paid for a vacation, holiday, or sick leave in the determination of a workers' compensation insurance premium. An insurer shall not include that portion of an employee's wages which exceeds 1-1/2 times the maximum temporary total compensation allowed pursuant to section 176.101, subdivision 1, in the determination of a workers' compensation insurance premium provided that this limitation does not apply to merit rated plans.

Sec. 3. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 79.34, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. A nonprofit association known as the workers' compensation reinsurance association is created, which may be incorporated under chapter 317 with all the powers of a corporation formed under that chapter, except that if the provisions of that chapter are inconsistent with sections 79.34 to 79.40 or any amendments thereto, sections 79.34 to 79.40 shall govern. Each insurer as defined by section 79.01, subdivision 2, shall as a condition of its authority to transact workers' compensation insurance in this state, be a member of the reinsurance association and shall be bound by the plan of operation of the reinsurance association; provided, that all affiliated insurers within a holding company system as defined in sections 60D.01 to 60D.13 shall be considered a single entity for purposes of the exercise of all rights and duties of membership in the reinsurance association. Each self-insurer approved pursuant to section 176.181 and each political subdivision which self-insures shall, as a condition of its authority to self-insure workers' compensation liability in this state, be a member of the reinsurance association and shall be bound by its plan of operation; provided, that (a) all affiliated companies within a holding company system, as determined by the commissioner in a manner consistent with the standards and definitions in sections 60D.01 to 60D.13, shall be considered a single entity for purposes of the exercise of all rights and duties of membership in the reinsurance association, and (b) all group self-insurers granted authority to self-insure pursuant to section 176.181 shall be considered a single entity for purposes of the exercise of all the rights and duties of membership in the reinsurance association. As a condition of its authority to self-insure workers' compensation liability, and for losses incurred on or after January 1, 1984, the state shall be a member of the reinsurance association and is bound by its plan of operation. The commissioner of labor and industry represents the state in the exercise of all the rights and duties of membership in the reinsurance association. The state treasurer shall pay the premium to the reinsurance association from the state compensation revolving fund upon warrants of the commissioner of labor and industry. For the purposes of this section "state" means the administrative branch of state government, the legislative branch, the judicial branch, the University of Minnesota, and any other entity whose workers' compensation liability is paid from the state revolving fund. The reinsurance association shall is not be deemed a state agency. Actions of the reinsurance association and its board of directors and actions of the commissioner of insurance with respect to the reinsurance association shall are not be subject to chapter chapters 13, 14, and 15. The reinsurance association shall be is exempt from taxation under the laws of this state and all property owned by the association shall be is exempt from taxation. The reinsurance association shall is not be obligated to make any payments or pay any assessments to any funds or pools established pursuant to this chapter or chapter 176 or any other law.

Sec. 4. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 79.34, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. The reinsurance association shall provide and each member shall accept indemnification for 100 percent of the amount of ultimate loss sustained in each loss occurrence relating to one or more claims arising out of a single compensable event, including aggregate losses related to a single event or occurrence which constitutes a single loss occurrence, under chapter 176 on and after October 1, 1979, in excess of $300,000 or $100,000 retention limit, at the option of the member. In case of occupational disease causing disablement on and after October 1, 1979, each person suffering such disablement shall be considered to be involved in a separate loss occurrence. The ~~lesser~~ lower retention limit shall be increased to the nearest $10,000, on January 1, 1982 and on each January 1 thereafter by the percentage increase in the statewide average weekly wage, as determined in accordance with section 176.011, subdivision 20. On January 1, 1982 and on each January 1 thereafter, the ~~greater~~ higher retention limit shall be increased by the amount necessary to retain a $200,000 difference between the two retention limits. Ultimate loss as used in this section means the actual loss amount which a member is obligated to pay and which is paid by the member for workers' compensation benefits payable under chapter 176 and shall not include claim expenses, assessments, damages or penalties. Any amounts paid by a member pursuant to sections 176.183, 176.221, 176.225, and 176.82 shall not be included in ultimate loss and shall not be indemnified by the reinsurance association. A loss is incurred by the reinsurance association on the date on which the accident or other compensable event giving rise to the loss occurs, and a member is liable for a loss up to its retention limit in effect at the time that the loss was incurred, except that members which are determined by the reinsurance association to be controlled by or under common control with another member, and which are liable for claims from one or more employees entitled to compensation for a single compensable event, including aggregate losses relating to a single loss occurrence, may aggregate their losses and obtain indemnification from the reinsurance association for the aggregate losses in excess of the higher retention limit in effect at the time the loss was incurred. Each member is liable for payment of its ultimate loss and shall be entitled to indemnification from the reinsurance association for the ultimate loss in excess of the member's retention limit in effect at the time of the loss occurrence.

A member that chooses the higher retention limit shall retain the liability for all losses below the higher retention limit itself and shall not transfer the liability to any other entity or reinsure or otherwise contract for reimbursement or indemnification for losses below its retention limit, except in the following cases: (a) when the reinsurance or contract is with another member which, directly or indirectly, through one or more intermediaries, control or are controlled by or are under common control with the member; (b) when the reinsurance or contract provides for reimbursement or indemnification of a member if and only if the total of all claims which the member pays or incurs, but which are not reimbursable or subject to indemnification by the reinsurance association for a given period of time, exceeds a dollar value or percentage of premium written or earned and stated in the reinsurance agreement or contract; (c) when the reinsurance or contract is a pooling arrangement with other insurers where liability of the member to pay claims pursuant to chapter 176 is incidental to participation in the pool and not as a result of providing workers' compensation insurance to employers on a direct basis under chapter 176; (d) when the reinsurance or contract is limited to all the claims of a specific insured of a member which are reimbursed or indemnified by a reinsurer which, directly or indirectly, through one or more intermediaries, controls or is controlled by or is under common control with the insured of the member so long as any subsequent contract or reinsurance of the reinsurer relating to the claims of the insured of a member is not inconsistent with the bases of exception provided under clauses (a), (b) and (c) above; or (e) when the reinsurance or contract is limited to all claims of a specific self-insurer member which are reimbursed or indemnified by a reinsurer which, directly or indirectly, through one or more intermediaries, controls or is controlled by or is under common control with the self-insurer member so long as any subsequent contract or reinsurance of the reinsurer relating to the claims of the self-insurer member are not inconsistent with the bases for exception provided under clauses (a), (b) and (c) above.

Whenever it appears to the commissioner that any member that chooses the higher retention limit has participated in the transfer of liability to any other entity or reinsured or otherwise contracted for reimbursement or indemnification of losses below its retention limit in a manner inconsistent with the bases for exception provided under clauses (a), (b), (c), (d), and (e), the commissioner may, after giving notice and an opportunity to be heard, order the member to pay to the state of Minnesota an amount not to exceed twice the difference between the reinsurance premium for the higher and lower retention limit applicable to the member for each year in which the prohibited reinsurance or contract was in effect. Any member subject to this penalty provision shall continue to be bound by its selection of the higher retention limit for purposes of membership in the reinsurance association.

Sec. 5. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 79.34, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 7. For losses incurred on or after January 1, 1984, the reinsurance association shall indemnify the member for the ultimate loss, in excess of the retention limit in effect at the time of the loss occurrence, sustained in each loss occurrence relating to one or more claims arising out of a single compensable event in another state provided that:

(a) the injured worker is eligible for benefits under section 176.041, subdivision 2 or 3, but elects to receive benefits under the workers' compensation statute of another state in lieu of benefits under chapter 176; and

(b) the ultimate loss indemnified by the reinsurance association shall be determined as provided in this chapter, except that the benefits shall be equal to those required to be paid under the workers' compensation statute of the state elected.

Sec. 6. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 79.35, is amended to read:

79.35 [DUTIES; RESPONSIBILITIES; POWERS.]

The reinsurance association shall do the following on behalf of its members:

(a) Assume 100 percent of the liability as provided in section 79.34;

(b) Establish procedures by which members shall promptly report to the reinsurance association each claim which, on the basis of the injury sustained, may reasonably be anticipated to involve liability to the reinsurance association if the member is held liable under chapter 176. Solely for the purpose of reporting claims, the member shall in all instances consider itself legally liable for the injury. The member shall advise the reinsurance association of subsequent developments likely to materially affect the interest of the reinsurance association in the claim;

(c) Maintain relevant loss and expense data relative to all liabilities of the reinsurance association and require each member to furnish statistics in connection with liabilities of the reinsurance association at the times and in the form and detail as may be required by the plan of operation;

(d) Calculate and charge to members a total premium sufficient to cover the expected liability which the reinsurance association will incur in excess of the higher retention limit but less than the prefunded limit, together with incurred or estimated to be incurred operating and administrative expenses for the period to which this premium applies and actual claim payments to be made by members, during the period to which this premium applies, for claims in excess of the prefunded limit in effect at the time the loss was incurred. The prefunded limit shall be $2,500,000 on and after October 1, 1979, provided that the prefunded limit shall be increased on January 1, 1983 and on each January 1 thereafter by the percentage increase in the statewide average weekly wage, to the nearest $100,000, as determined in accordance with section 176.011, subdivision 20. Each member shall be charged a proportion of the total premium in an amount equal to its proportion of the ~~total standard earned premium~~ exposure base of all members during the period to which the reinsurance association premium will apply, ~~as determined by the commissioner.~~ The exposure base shall be determined by the board and is subject to the approval of the commissioner. In determining the exposure base, the board shall consider, among other things, equity, administrative convenience, records maintained by members, amenability to audit, and degree of risk refinement. Each member exercising the lower retention option shall also be charged a premium established by the board as sufficient to cover incurred or estimated to be incurred claims for the liability the reinsurance association is likely to incur between the lower and higher retention limits for the period to which the premium applies. Each member shall also be charged a premium determined by the board to equitably distribute excess or deficient premiums from previous periods including any excess or deficient premiums resulting from a retroactive change in the prefunded limit. ~~An equitable basis for determining standard earned premium for self-insurers shall be established by the commissioner.~~ The premiums charged to members shall not be unfairly discriminatory as defined in section 79.074. All premiums shall be approved by the commissioner;

(e) Require and accept the payment of premiums from members of the reinsurance association;

(f) Receive and distribute all sums required by the operation of the reinsurance association;

(g) Establish procedures for reviewing claims procedures and practices of members of the reinsurance association. If the claims procedures or practices of a member are considered inadequate to properly service the liabilities of the reinsurance association, the reinsurance association may undertake, or may contract with another person, including another member, to adjust or assist in the adjustment of claims which create a potential liability to the association ~~and~~. The reinsurance association may charge the cost of the adjustment under this paragraph to the member, except that any penalties or interest incurred under sections 176.183, 176.221, 176.225, and 176.82 as a result of actions by the reinsurance association after it has undertaken adjustment of the claim shall not be charged to the member but shall be included in the ultimate loss and listed as a separate item; and

(h) Provide each member of the reinsurance association with an annual report of the operations of the reinsurance association in a form the board of directors may specify.

Sec. 7. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 79.37, is amended to read:

79.37 [BOARD OF DIRECTORS.]

A board of directors of the reinsurance association is created and ~~shall be is~~ responsible for the operation of the reinsurance association consistent with the plan of operation and sections 79.34 to 79.42. 176.012 [ELECTION OF COVERAGE.]

The persons, partnerships and corporations described in this section may elect to provide the insurance coverage required by this chapter.

(a) An owner or owners of a business or farm may elect coverage for themselves.

(b) A partnership owning a business or farm may elect coverage for any partner.

(c) A family farm corporation as defined in section 500.24, subdivision 2, clause (c) may elect coverage for any executive officer.

(d) A closely held corporation which had less than 22,880 hours of payroll in the previous calendar year may elect coverage for any executive officer if that executive officer is also an owner of at least 25 percent of the stock of the corporation.

(e) Persons who are independent contractors as defined by rules adopted by the commissioner.

The persons, partnerships and corporations described in this section may also elect coverage for an employee who is a spouse, parent or child, regardless of age, of an owner, partner, or executive officer, who is eligible for coverage under this section. Coverage may be elected for a spouse, parent or child whether or not coverage is elected for the related owner, partner or executive director and whether or not the person, partnership or corporation employs any other person to perform a service for hire. Any person for whom coverage is elected pursuant to this section shall be included within the meaning of the term employee for the purposes of this chapter.

Notice of election of coverage or of termination of election under this section shall be provided in writing to the insurer. Coverage or termination of coverage is effective the day following receipt of notice by the insurer or at a subsequent date if so indicated in the notice. The insurance policy shall be endorsed to indicate the names of those persons for whom coverage has been elected or terminated under this section. An election of coverage under this section shall continue in effect as long as a policy or renewal policy of the same insurer is in effect.

Nothing in this section shall be construed to limit the responsibilities of owners, partnerships or corporations to provide coverage for their employees, if any, as required under this chapter.

Sec. 23. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 176.021, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [COMPENSATION, COMMENCEMENT OF PAYMENT.] All employers shall commence payment of compensation at the time and in the manner prescribed by this chapter without the necessity of any agreement or any order of the division. Except for medical, burial, and other non-periodic benefits, payments shall be made as nearly as possible at the intervals when the wage was payable, provided, however, that payments for permanent partial disability shall be governed by ~~subdivision 3a~~ section 176.101. If doubt exists as to the eventual permanent partial disability, payment for the economic recovery compensation or impairment compensation, whichever is due, pursuant to ~~subdivision 3a~~ section 176.101, shall be then made when due for the minimum permanent partial disability ascertainable, and further payment shall be made upon any later ascertainment of greater permanent partial disability. Prior to or at the time of any tender commencement of the lump sum payment of economic recovery compensation or impairment compensation, the employee and employer shall be furnished with a copy of the medical report upon which the payment is based and all other medical reports which the insurer has that indicate a permanent partial disability rating, together with a statement by the insurer as to whether the tendered payment is for minimum permanent partial disability or final and eventual disability. ~~Compensation for permanent partial disability~~ After receipt of all reports available to the insurer that indicate a permanent partial disability rating, the employee shall make available or permit the insurer to obtain any medical report that the employee has or has knowledge of that contains a permanent partial disability rating which the insurer does not already have. Economic recovery compensation or impairment compensation pursuant to section 176.101 is payable in addition to compensation for temporary total disability and temporary partial disability pursuant to section 176.101, subdivisions 1 and 2, as provided in subdivision 3a. Compensation for permanent partial disability ~~Impairment compensation is payable concurrently and in addition to compensation for permanent total disability pursuant to section 176.101, subdivision 5, as provided in subdivision 3a. Compensation for permanent partial disability~~ Economic recovery compensation or impairment compensation pursuant to section 176.101 shall be withheld pending completion of payment for temporary total and temporary partial disability but shall not be withheld pending payment of compensation for permanent total disability, and no credit shall be taken for payment of permanent partial disability economic recovery compensation or impairment compensation against liability for temporary total or permanent total disability. Liability on the part of an employer or his the insurer for disability of a temporary total, temporary partial, and permanent total nature shall be considered as a continuing product and part of the employee's inability to earn or reduction in earning capacity due to injury or occupational disease and shall be compensation is payable accordingly, subject to subdivision 3a section 176.101. Permanent partial disability ~~Economic recovery compensation or impairment compensation is payable for functional loss of use or impairment of function, permanent in nature, and payment therefore shall be separate, distinct, and in addition to payment for any other compensation, subject to subdivision 3a section 176.101. The right to receive temporary total, temporary partial, permanent partial or permanent total disability payments shall vest vests in the injured employee or his the employee's dependents under this chapter or, if none, in his the employee's legal heirs at the time the disability can be ascertained and the right shall is not be abrogated by the employee's death prior to the making of the payment.~~

The right to receive economic recovery compensation or impairment compensation vests in an injured employee at the time the disability is ascertained provided that the employee lives for at least 30 days beyond the date of the injury. Upon the death of an employee who is receiving economic recovery compensation or impairment compensation, further compensation is payable pursuant to section 176.101.

Sec. 24. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 176.041, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [EMPLOYMENTS EXCLUDED.] This chapter does not apply to persons employed by any common carrier by railroad engaged in interstate or foreign commerce, which persons are covered by the Federal Employers' Liability Act (45 U.S.C. 51-60) or other comparable federal law; persons employed by family farms as defined by section 176.011, subdivision 11a, the spouse, parent and child, regardless of age, of a farmer employer working for him; partners engaged in any farm operation or partners engaged in a business and the spouse, parent, and child, regardless of age, of any of the partners of the farm operation or business; an executive officer of a family farm corporation; an executive officer of a closely held corporation referred to in section 176.012; any spouse, parent, or child, regardless of age, of an executive officer of a family farm corporation as defined in section 500.24, subdivision 2, employed by that family farm corporation; any spouse, parent, or child, regardless of age, of an executive officer of a closely held corporation referred to in section 176.012; or other farmers or members of their families exchanging work with the farmer employer or family farm corporation operator in the same community, or persons whose employment at the time of the injury is casual, and not in the usual course of the trade, business, profession, or occupation of his employer; persons who are independent contractors as defined by rules adopted by the commissioner pursuant to section 176.83; nor does it apply to officers or members of veteran's organizations whose employment relationship arises solely by virtue of attending meetings or conventions of their organization, unless the veteran's organizations elect by resolution to provide coverage under this chapter for the officers or members. Neither shall the chapter apply to any person employed as a household worker in, for, or about, a private home or household who earns less than $500 in cash in any three month period from a single private home or household provided that any household worker who has earned $500 or more from his present employer in any three month period within the previous year shall be covered by this chapter regardless of whether or not he has in the present quarter earned $500. This chapter does not apply to those persons employed by a corporation where those persons are related by blood or marriage, within the third degree of kindred according to the rules of civil law, to all of the officers of the corporation, and if the corporation files a written election with the commissioner of labor and industry to have those persons excluded from this chapter except that a written election is not required for a person who is otherwise excluded from this chapter by this section. This chapter does not apply to a nonprofit association which does not pay more than $500 in salary or wages in a year.

Sec. 25. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 176.061, is amended to read:

176.061 [THIRD PARTY LIABILITY.]

Subdivision 1. [ELECTION OF REMEDIES.] Where an injury or death for which benefits are payable occurs under circumstances which create a legal liability for damages on the part of a party other than the employer and at the time of ~~such~~ the injury or death that party was insured or self-insured in accordance with this chapter, the employee, in case of injury, or ~~his~~ the employee's dependents, in case of death, may proceed either at law against that party to recover damages or against the employer for benefits, but not against both.

Subd. 2. [ACTION FOR RECOVERY OF DAMAGES.] If the employee, in case of injury, or ~~his~~ the employee's dependents, in case of death, brings an action for the recovery of damages, the amount thereof, the manner in which, and the persons to whom the same are payable, shall be as provided in this chapter. In no case shall ~~such~~ the party be liable to any person other than the employee or ~~his~~ the employee's dependents for any damages resulting from ~~such~~ the injury or death.

Subd. 3. [ELECTION TO RECEIVE BENEFITS FROM EMPLOYER; SUBROGATION.] If the employee or ~~his~~ the employee's dependents elect to receive benefits from the employer, or the special compensation fund, the employer, or the special compensation fund, has a right of indemnity or is subrogated to the right of the employee or his the employee's dependents to recover damages against the other party. The employer, or the attorney general on behalf of the special compensation fund, may bring legal proceedings against ~~such~~ the party and recover the aggregate amount of benefits payable to or on behalf of the employee or ~~his~~ the employee's dependents, together with costs, disbursements, and reasonable attorney's fees of the action.

If an action as provided in this chapter prosecuted by the employee, the employer, or the attorney general on behalf of the special compensation fund, against the third person, results in judgment against the third person, or settlement by the third person, the employer ~~shall have~~ has no liability to reimburse or hold the third person harmless on the judgment or settlement in absence of a written agreement to do so executed prior to the injury.

Subd. 4. [APPLICATION OF SUBDIVISIONS 1, 2, AND 3.] The provisions of subdivisions 1, 2, and 3 apply only where the employer liable for benefits and the other party legally liable for damages are insured or self-insured and engaged, in the due course of business in, (a) furtherance of a common enterprise, or (b) in the accomplishment of the same or related purposes in operations on the premises where the injury was received at the time ~~thereof~~ of the injury.

Subd. 5. [CUMULATIVE REMEDIES.] Where an injury or death for which benefits are payable is caused under circumstances which created a legal liability for damages on the part of a party other than the employer, that party being then insured or self-insured in accordance with this chapter, and the provisions of subdivisions 1, 2, 3, and 4 do not apply, or the party other than the employer is not then insured or self-insured as provided by this chapter, legal proceedings may be taken by the employee or ~~his~~ the employee's dependents in accordance with clause (a), or by his employer, or by the attorney general on behalf of the special compensation fund, in accordance with clause (b), against the other party to recover damages, notwithstanding the payment by the employer, or the special compensation fund or their liability to pay benefits.

(a) If an action against the other party is brought by the injured employee or ~~his~~ the employee's dependents and a judgment is obtained and paid or settlement is made with the other party, the employer or the special compensation fund may deduct from the benefits payable the amount actually received by the employee or dependents or paid on their behalf in accordance with subdivision 6. If the action is not diligently prosecuted or if the court deems it advisable in order to protect the interests of the employer, or the special compensation fund, upon application the court may grant the employer, or the special compensation fund, the right to intervene in ~~any such~~ the action for the prosecution ~~thereof~~ of the action. If the injured employee or ~~his~~ the employee's dependents or any party on their behalf receives benefits from the employer, or the special compensation fund, or institute proceedings to recover ~~the same~~ benefits or accept from the employer, or the special compensation fund, any payment on account of the benefits, the employer, or the special compensation fund, is subrogated to the rights of the employee or ~~his~~ the employee's dependents or has a right of indemnity against a third party. This employer, or the attorney general on behalf of the special compensation fund, may maintain ~~an~~ a separate action or continue an action already instituted. This action may be maintained in the name of the employee or the names of the employee's dependents, or in the name of the employer or in the name of the attorney general on behalf of the special compensation fund against ~~such~~ the other party for the recovery of damages. If the action is not diligently prosecuted by the employer, or the attorney general on behalf of the special compensation fund, or the court deems it advisable in order to protect the interest of the employee, the court, upon application, may grant to the employee or ~~his~~ the employee's dependents the right to intervene in the action for the prosecution ~~thereof~~ of the action. The proceeds of ~~such~~ the action or settlement ~~thereof~~ of the action shall be paid in accordance with subdivision 6.

(b) If an employer, being then insured, sustains damages due to a change in workers' compensation insurance premiums, whether by a failure to achieve a decrease or by a retroactive or prospective increase, as a result of the injury or death of ~~his~~ an employee which was caused under circumstances which created a legal liability for damages on the part of a party other than the employer, the employer, notwithstanding other remedies provided, may maintain an action against the other party for recovery of ~~such~~ the premiums. This cause of action may be brought either by joining in an action described in clause (a) or by a separate action. Damages recovered under this clause ~~shall be~~ are for the benefit of the employer and the provisions of subdivision 6 ~~shall be~~ are not ~~be~~ applicable to ~~such~~ the damages.

(c) The third party is not liable to any person other than the employee or ~~his~~ the employee's dependents, or ~~his~~ the employer, or the special compensation fund, for any damages resulting from the injury or death.

A co-employee working for the same employer is not liable for a personal injury incurred by another employee unless the injury resulted from the gross negligence of the co-employee or was intentionally inflicted by the co-employee.

Subd. 6. [COSTS, ATTORNEY FEES, EXPENSES.] The proceeds of all actions for damages or settlement ~~thereof~~ of an action under this section, except for damages received under subdivision 5, clause (b) received by the injured employee or ~~his~~ the employee's dependents or by the employer, or the special compensation fund, as provided by subdivision 5, shall be divided as follows:

(a) After deducting the reasonable cost of collection, including but not limited to attorneys fees and burial expense in excess of the statutory liability, then

(b) One-third of the remainder shall in any event be paid to the injured employee or ~~his~~ the employee's dependents, without being subject to any right of subrogation.

(c) Out of the balance remaining, the employer, or the special compensation fund, shall be reimbursed in an amount equal to all benefits paid under this chapter to or on behalf of the employee or ~~his~~ the employee's dependents by the employer, or special compensation fund, less the product of the costs deducted under clause (a) divided by the total proceeds received by the employee or his dependents from the other party multiplied by all benefits paid by the employer, or the special compensation fund, to the employee or ~~his~~ the employee's dependents.

(d) Any balance remaining shall be paid to the employee or ~~his~~ the employee's dependents, and shall be a credit to employer, and the special compensation fund, for any benefits which employer is obligated to pay, but has not paid, and for any benefits that ~~such~~ the employer ~~shall be~~ is obligated to make in the future.

There shall be no reimbursement or credit to the employer, or the special compensation fund, for interest or penalties.

Subd. 7. [MEDICAL TREATMENT.] The liability of an employer, or the special compensation fund, for medical treatment or payment of any other compensation under this chapter ~~shall is~~ not be affected by the fact that ~~his~~ the employee was injured through the fault or negligence of a third party, against whom the employee may have a cause of action which may be sued under this chapter, but the employer, or the attorney general on behalf of the special compensation fund, ~~shall have~~ has a separate additional cause of action against ~~such~~ the third party to recover any amounts paid for medical treatment or for other compensation payable under this section resulting from the negligence of ~~such~~ the third party. This separate cause of action of the employer, or the attorney general on behalf of the special compensation fund, may be asserted in a separate action brought by the employer, or the attorney general on behalf of the special compensation fund, against ~~such~~ the third party or in the action commenced by the employee or the employer, or the attorney general on behalf of the special compensation fund, under this chapter, but in the latter case the cause of action shall be separately stated, the amount awarded thereon shall be separately set out in the verdict, and the amount recovered by suit or otherwise as reimbursement for medical expenses or other compensation shall be for the benefit of the employer, or the special compensation fund, to the extent that the employer, or the special compensation fund, has paid or will be required to pay compensation or for medical treatment of the injured employee and ~~shall does~~ not affect the amount of periodic compensation to be paid.

Subd. 8. [STATE AS EMPLOYER.] ~~In every case arising under subdivision 5 when the state is the employer and a settlement between the third party and the employee is made it is not valid unless prior notice thereof is given to the state within a reasonable time. If the state pays compensation to the employee under the provisions of this chapter and becomes subrogated to the rights of the employee or his dependents any settlement between the employee or his dependents and the third party is void as against the state's right of subrogation. When an action at law is instituted by an employee or his dependents against a third party for recovery of damages a copy of the complaint and notice of trial or note of issue in such action shall be served on the state. Any judgment rendered therein is subject to a lien of the state for the amount to which it is entitled to be subrogated under the provisions of subdivision 5.~~

Subd. 8a. [NOTICE TO EMPLOYER.] In every case arising under subdivision 5, a settlement between the third party and the employee is not valid unless prior notice of the intention to settle is given to the employer within a reasonable time. If the employer or insurer pays compensation to the employee under the provisions of this chapter and becomes subrogated to the right of the employee or the employee's dependents or has a right of indemnity, any settlement between the employee or the employee's dependents and the third party is void as against the employer's right of subrogation or indemnity. When an action at law is instituted by an employee or the employee's dependents against a third party for recovery of damages, a copy of the complaint and notice of trial or note of issue in the action shall be served on the employer or insurer. Any judgment rendered in the action is subject to a lien of the employer for the amount to which it is entitled to be subrogated or indemnified under the provisions of subdivision 5.

Subd. 9. [SERVICE OF NOTICE ON ATTORNEY GENERAL.] In every case in which the state is liable to pay compensation or is subrogated to the rights of the employee or ~~his~~ the employee's dependents or has a right of indemnity, all notices required to be given the state shall be served on the attorney general and the commissioner of the ~~department of labor and industry~~.

Subd. 10. [INDEMNITY.] Notwithstanding the provisions of chapter 65B or any other law to the contrary, an employer has a right of indemnity for any compensation paid or payable pursuant to this chapter, including temporary total compensation, temporary partial compensation, permanent partial disability, economic recovery compensation, impairment compensation, medical compensation, rehabilitation, death, and permanent total compensation.

Sec. 26. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 176.101, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [TEMPORARY PARTIAL DISABILITY.] In all cases of temporary partial disability the compensation shall be 66 2/3 percent of the difference between the ~~daily weekly~~ wage of the ~~worker~~ employee at the time of injury and the wage ~~he~~ the employee is able to earn in ~~his~~ the employee's partially disabled condition. This compensation shall be paid during the period of disability except as provided in section 176.101, payment to be made at the intervals when the wage was payable, as nearly as may be, and subject to a maximum compensation equal to the statewide average weekly wage. ~~If the employer does not furnish the worker with work which he can do in his temporary partially disabled condition and he is unable to procure such work with another employer, after reasonably diligent effort, the employee shall be paid at the full compensation rate for his or her temporary total disability.~~

Sec. 27. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 176.101, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [PERMANENT PARTIAL DISABILITY.] For permanent partial disability compensation shall be that named in the following schedule, subject to a maximum compensation equal to the statewide weekly wage:

(1) For the loss of a thumb, 66 2/3 percent of the daily wage at the time of injury during 65 weeks;

(2) For the loss of a first finger, commonly called index finger, 66 2/3 percent of the daily wage at the time of injury during 40 weeks;

(3) For the loss of a second finger, 66 2/3 percent of the daily wage at the time of injury during 35 weeks;

(4) For the loss of a third finger, $66 \frac{2}{3}$ percent of the daily wage at the time of injury during 25 weeks;

(5) For the loss of a fourth finger, commonly called the little finger, $66 \frac{2}{3}$ percent of the daily wage at the time of injury during 20 weeks;

(6) The loss of the first phalange of the thumb or of any finger, is considered equal to the loss of one-half of the thumb or finger and compensation shall be paid at the prescribed rate during one-half the time specified for the loss of the thumb or finger;

(7) The loss of one and one-half or more phalanges is considered equal to the loss of the entire finger or thumb; but in no case shall the amount received for more than one finger exceed the amount provided in this schedule for the loss of a hand;

(8) For the loss of a great toe, $66 \frac{2}{3}$ percent of the daily wage at the time of injury during 35 weeks;

(9) For the loss of a toe other than a great toe, $66 \frac{2}{3}$ percent of the daily wage at the time of injury during 15 weeks;

(10) The loss of the first phalange of any toe is considered equal to the loss of one-half of the toe, and compensation shall be paid at the prescribed rate during one-half the time specified for the loss of the toe;

(11) The loss of one and one-half or more phalanges is considered equal to the loss of the entire toe;

(12) For the loss of a hand, not including the wrist movement, $66 \frac{2}{3}$ percent of the daily wage at the time of injury during 195 weeks;

(13) For the loss of a hand, including wrist movement, $66 \frac{2}{3}$ percent of the daily wage at the time of injury during 220 weeks;

(14) For the loss of an arm, $66 \frac{2}{3}$ percent of the daily wage at the time of injury during 270 weeks;

(15) Amputation of the arm below the elbow is considered the loss of a hand, including wrist movement, if enough of the forearm remains to permit the use of an effective artificial member, otherwise it is considered the loss of an arm;

(16) For the loss of a foot, not including ankle movement, $66 \frac{2}{3}$ percent of the daily wage at the time of injury during 140 weeks;

(17) For the loss of a foot, including ankle movement, $66 \frac{2}{3}$ percent of the daily wage at the time of injury during 165 weeks;

(18) For the loss of a leg, if enough of the leg remains to permit the use of an effective artificial member, $66 \frac{2}{3}$ percent of the daily wage at the time of injury during 195 weeks;

(19) For the loss of a leg so close to the hip that no effective artificial member can be used, $66 \frac{2}{3}$ percent of the daily wage at the time of injury during 220 weeks;

(20) Amputation of a leg below the knee is considered as equal to the loss of a foot, including ankle movement, if enough of the lower leg remains to permit the use of an effective artificial member, otherwise it is considered as equal to the loss of a leg;

(21) For the loss of an eye, 66 $\frac{2}{3}$ percent of the daily wage at the time of injury during 160 weeks;

(22) For the complete permanent loss of hearing in one ear, 66 $\frac{2}{3}$ percent of the daily wage at the time of injury during 85 weeks;

(23) For the complete permanent loss of hearing in both ears, 66 $\frac{2}{3}$ percent of the daily wage at the time of injury during 170 weeks;

(24) For the loss of an eye and a leg, 66 $\frac{2}{3}$ percent of the daily wage at the time of injury during 475 weeks;

(25) For the loss of an eye and an arm, 66 $\frac{2}{3}$ percent of the daily wage at the time of injury during 475 weeks;

(26) For the loss of an eye and a hand, 66 $\frac{2}{3}$ percent of the daily wage at the time of injury during 450 weeks;

(27) For the loss of an eye and a foot, 66 $\frac{2}{3}$ percent of the daily wage at the time of injury during 400 weeks;

(28) For the loss of two arms, other than at the shoulder, 66 $\frac{2}{3}$ percent of the daily wage at the time of injury during 500 weeks;

(29) For the loss of two hands, 66 $\frac{2}{3}$ percent of the daily wage at the time of injury during 500 weeks;

(30) For the loss of two legs, other than so close to the hips that no effective artificial member can be used, 66 $\frac{2}{3}$ percent of the daily wage at the time of injury during 500 weeks;

(31) For the loss of two feet, 66 $\frac{2}{3}$ percent of the daily wage at the time of injury during 500 weeks;

(32) For the loss of one arm and the other hand, 66 $\frac{2}{3}$ percent of the daily wage at the time of injury during 500 weeks;

(33) For the loss of one hand and one foot, 66 $\frac{2}{3}$ percent of the daily wage at the time of injury during 500 weeks;

(34) For the loss of one leg and the other foot, 66 $\frac{2}{3}$ percent of the daily wage at the time of injury during 500 weeks;

(35) For the loss of one leg and one hand, 66 $\frac{2}{3}$ percent of the daily wage at the time of injury during 500 weeks;

(36) For the loss of one arm and one foot, 66 $\frac{2}{3}$ percent of the daily wage at the time of injury during 500 weeks;

(37) For the loss of one arm and one leg, 66 $\frac{2}{3}$ percent of the daily wage at the time of injury during 500 weeks;

(38) For loss of the voice mechanism, 66 $\frac{2}{3}$ percent of the daily wage at the time of injury during 500 weeks;

(39) For head injuries, 66 $\frac{2}{3}$ percent of the daily wage at the time of injury for that proportion of 500 weeks which is represented by its percentage of the permanent partial disability to the entire body as is determined from competent testimony at a hearing before a compensation judge or as determined by the workers' compensation court of appeals in cases on appeal;

(40) For permanent partial disability resulting from injury to any internal organ until such time as the commissioner of labor and industry shall promulgate a schedule of internal organs and thereafter for internal organs covered by the schedule of internal organs established by the commissioner, 66 2/3 percent of the daily wage at time of injury for that proportion of 500 weeks, not to exceed 500 weeks, as determined by the commissioner, which is the proportionate amount of permanent partial disability caused to the entire body by the injury as is determined from competent testimony at a hearing before a compensation judge or the workers' compensation court of appeals;

(41) For disfigurement or scarring not resulting from the loss of a member or other injury specifically compensated, affecting the employability or advancement opportunity of the injured person in the employment in which he was injured or other employment for which the employee is then qualified or for which the employee has become qualified, 66 2/3 percent of the daily wage at the time of injury during the period the parties agree to or the compensation judge or the workers' compensation court of appeals in cases on appeal determines, not exceeding 90 weeks;

(42) For permanent partial disability resulting from injury to the back, 66 2/3 percent of the daily wage at the time of injury for that proportion of 350 weeks which is represented by the percentage of the permanent partial disability as is determined from competent testimony at a hearing before a compensation judge, the commissioner, or the workers' compensation court of appeals;

(43) When an employee sustains concurrent injuries resulting in concurrent disabilities he shall receive compensation only for the injury which entitled him to the largest amount of compensation, but this does not affect liability for disfigurement affecting the employability of the injured person or liability for the concurrent loss of more than one member, for which members compensations are provided in the specific schedule and in subdivision 5;

(44) In all cases of permanent partial disability it is considered that the permanent loss of the use of a member is equivalent to and draws the same compensation as the loss of that member, but the compensation in and by this schedule provided shall be in lieu of all other compensation in these cases, except as otherwise provided by this section;

In the event a worker has been awarded or is entitled to receive compensation for loss of use of a member under any workers' compensation law, and thereafter sustains loss of the member under circumstances entitling him to compensation therefor under this subdivision, the amount of compensation awarded, or that he is entitled to receive, for the loss of use, is to be deducted from the compensation due under the schedules of this section for the loss of the member, provided, that the amount of compensation due for the loss of the member caused by the subsequent accident is in no case less than 25 percent of the compensation payable under the schedule of this section for the loss of the member;

(45) In cases of permanent partial disability due to injury to a member, resulting in less than total loss of the member, not otherwise compensated in this schedule, compensation shall be paid at the prescribed rate during that part of the time specified in the schedule for the total loss of the member which the extent of the injury to the member bears to its total loss;

(46) In cases of permanent partial disability caused by simultaneous injury to two or more members, the applicable schedules in this subdivision shall be increased by 15 percent. This clause shall not apply when the injuries are compensated under paragraphs 22 to 37 inclusive, of this subdivision. In cases of partial disability due to injury to both eyes resulting in less than total loss of vision in one or both eyes compensation shall be paid at the prescribed rate during that part of 450 weeks which the extent of the combined injury to both eyes bears to the complete loss of industrial vision;

(47) The commissioner may make or revise rules for the determination of the extent of the impairment of the industrial use of one or both eyes taking into account all primary coordinate factors of vision. These rules shall be made or revised after consultation with experts on industrial vision and after public notice to and hearing of interested parties;

(48) For permanent partial disability resulting from injury to the body as a whole due to burns, 66 $\frac{2}{3}$ percent of the daily wage at the time of injury, for that proportion of 350 weeks which is represented by the percentage of the permanent partial disability as is determined from competent testimony at a hearing before a compensation judge or as determined by the workers' compensation court of appeals in cases on appeal, the compensation to be paid in addition to the compensation as employee would otherwise be entitled to for loss of use of a member in accordance with this section;

(49) In all cases of permanent partial disability not enumerated in this schedule the compensation shall be 66 $\frac{2}{3}$ percent of the difference between the daily wage of the worker at the time of the injury and the daily wage he is able to earn in his partially disabled condition, subject to a maximum equal to the statewide average weekly wage, and continue during disability, not to exceed 350 weeks; and if the employer does not furnish the worker with work which he can do in his permanently partially disabled condition and he is unable to secure such work with another employer after a reasonably diligent effort, the employee shall be paid at his or her maximum rate of compensation for total disability.

This subdivision applies to a permanent partial disability incurred before the effective date of the rules adopted under section 176.105, subdivision 4.

Sec. 28. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 176.101, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 3a. [ECONOMIC RECOVERY COMPENSATION.] If an employee is not eligible for an impairment award pursuant to subdivision 3b, then the employee shall receive economic recovery compensation for a permanent partial disability pursuant to this subdivision. The compensation shall be 66- $\frac{2}{3}$ percent of the weekly wage at the time of injury subject to a maximum equal to the statewide average weekly wage. For permanent partial disability up to the percent of the whole body in the following schedule the compensation shall be paid for the proportion that the loss of function of the disabled part bears to the whole body multiplied by the number of weeks aligned with that percent.

Percent of disability	Weeks of compensation
0-25	600
26-30	640
31-35	680
36-40	720
41-45	760
46-50	800
51-55	880
56-60	960
61-65	1040
71-100	1200

The percentage loss in all cases under this subdivision is determined according to the rules adopted by the commissioner pursuant to section 176.105, subdivision 4. This subdivision shall apply to a permanent partial disability incurred on or after the adoption of those rules.

Sec. 29. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 176.101, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 3b. [IMPAIRMENT COMPENSATION.] An employee who suffers a permanent partial disability due to a personal injury and receives impairment compensation under this section shall receive compensation in an amount as provided by this subdivision. For permanent partial disability up to the percent of the whole body shown in the following schedule the amount shall be equal to the proportion that the loss of function of the disabled part bears to the whole body multiplied by the amount aligned with that percent in the following schedule:

Percent of disability	Amount
0-25	$ 75,000
26-30	80,000
31-35	85,000
36-40	90,000
41-45	95,000
46-50	100,000
51-55	120,000
56-60	140,000
61-65	160,000
66-70	180,000
71-75	200,000
76-80	240,000
81-85	280,000
86-90	320,000
91-95	360,000
96-100	400,000

For all cases under this subdivision the percentage loss of function of a part of the body is determined by the commissioner pursuant to section 176.105, subdivision 4. This subdivision shall apply to a permanent partial disability incurred on or after the adoption of those rules.

Sec. 30. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 176.101, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 3c. [MAXIMUM PAYABLE.] The maximum amount payable under subdivisions 3a and 3b is the maximum compensation payable to an employee who has a disability to the body as a whole and under no conditions shall an employee receive more than those amounts even if the employee sustains a disability to two or more body parts.

Sec. 31. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 176.101, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 3d. [GENERAL.] An employee who has incurred a personal injury resulting in a permanent partial disability shall receive compensation as provided in this section.

Sec. 32. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 176.101, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 3e. [END OF TEMPORARY TOTAL COMPENSATION.] (a) 90 days after an employee has reached maximum medical improvement or 90 days after the end of an approved retraining program, whichever is later, the employee's temporary total compensation shall cease. This cessation shall occur at an earlier date if otherwise provided by this section. If during this 90-day period the employer furnishes work to the employee that the employee can do in his or her physical condition and that job produces an economic status as close as possible to that the employee would have enjoyed without the disability, or the employer procures this employment with another employer, the employee shall receive impairment compensation pursuant to subdivision 3b. This impairment compensation is in lieu of economic recovery compensation under subdivision 3a, and the employee shall not receive both economic recovery compensation and impairment compensation. Temporary total compensation and impairment compensation shall not be paid concurrently.

(b) If the job offered under clause (a) is not the job the employee had at the time of injury it shall be offered in writing on forms prescribed by the commissioner and shall state the nature of the job, the rate of pay, the physical requirements of the job, an agreement to pay temporary partial compensation if there is a wage loss, and any other information necessary to fully and completely inform the employee of the job duties and responsibilities.

If the job offered is the same job that the employee held at the time of injury, the offer shall be in writing but need not recite the details in this clause.

The employee has 14 calendar days to accept or reject the job offer. If the employee does not respond within this period it is deemed a refusal of the offer.

(c) Self employment may be an appropriate job under this subdivision.

Sec. 33. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 176.101, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 3f. [ACCEPTANCE OF JOB OFFER.] If the employee accepts a job offer described in subdivision 3e and begins work at that job, the impairment compensation shall be paid in a lump sum 30 calendar days after the return to work.

Temporary total compensation shall cease upon the employee's return to the job offered under subdivision 3e even if that return occurs prior to the end of the 90-day period specified in subdivision 3e. Once temporary total compensation ceases no further temporary total compensation is payable except as provided in subdivision 3i.

Sec. 34. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 176.101, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 3g. [TEMPORARY PARTIAL COMPENSATION.] An employee who accepts a job under subdivision 3e and begins that job shall receive temporary partial compensation pursuant to subdivision 2, if appropriate.

Sec. 35. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 176.101, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 3h. [LAYOFF BECAUSE OF LACK OF WORK OR RELEASED FOR OTHER THAN SEASONAL CONDITIONS.] (a) If an employee accepts a job under subdivision 3e and begins work at that job and is subsequently unemployed because of economic conditions, other than seasonal conditions, the employee shall receive monitoring period compensation pursuant to clause (b). In addition, the employer who was the employer at the time of the injury shall provide rehabilitation consultation by a qualified rehabilitation consultant if the employee remains unemployed for 45 calendar days. The commissioner may waive this rehabilitation consultation if the commissioner deems it appropriate. Further rehabilitation, if deemed appropriate, is governed by section 176.102.

(b) Upon the employee's initial return to work the monitoring period begins to run. If the employee is unemployed for the reason in clause (a), prior to the end of the monitoring period the employee shall receive monitoring period compensation. This compensation shall be paid for the lesser of (1) the weeks remaining in the monitoring period, or (2) the weeks equal to the monitoring period minus the impairment compensation paid to the employee. For purposes of this clause the impairment compensation shall be converted to weeks by dividing the impairment compensation received by the employee by the employee's compensation rate for temporary total disability at the time of the injury. No monitoring period compensation is payable if the unemployment occurs after the expiration of the monitoring period.

(c) If the employee returns to work and is still receiving monitoring period compensation, this compensation shall cease. Any period remaining in the monitoring period upon this return to work shall be used to determine further benefits if the employee is again unemployed under clause (a).

(d) Upon the employee's return to work pursuant to this section the insurer shall notify the employee of the length of the employee's monitoring period and shall notify the employee of the amount of impairment to be paid and the date of payment.

Sec. 36. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 176.101, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 3i. [MEDICALLY UNABLE TO CONTINUE WORK.] (a) If the employee has started the job offered under subdivision 3e and is medically unable to continue at that job, that employee shall receive temporary total compensation pursuant to clause (b). In addition, the employer who was the employer at the time of the injury shall provide rehabilitation consultation by a qualified rehabilitation consultant. Further rehabilitation, if deemed appropriate, is governed by section 176.102.

(b) Temporary total compensation shall be paid for up to 90 days after the employee has reached maximum medical improvement or 90 days after the end of an approved retraining plan, whichever is later. The temporary total compensation shall cease at any time within the 90-day period that the employee begins work meeting the requirements of subdivision 3e. No further impairment or economic recovery compensation is payable to this employee if that compensation has previously been paid under this section, except as provided in subdivision 3s.

Sec. 37. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 176.101, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 3j. [UNEMPLOYMENT DUE TO SEASONAL CONDITION.] If an employee has started the job offered under subdivision 3e and is subsequently unemployed from that job because of the job's seasonal nature, the employee shall receive any unemployment compensation the employee is eligible for pursuant to chapter 268. The employee shall receive, in addition and concurrently, the amount that the employee was receiving for temporary partial disability at the time of the layoff. No further or additional compensation is payable under this chapter because of the seasonal layoff.

Sec. 38. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 176.101, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 3k. [FAILURE TO ACCEPT JOB OFFER.] If the employee has been offered a job under subdivision 3e and has refused the offer, the impairment compensation shall not be paid in a lump sum but shall be paid in the same interval and amount that temporary total compensation was paid. Temporary total compensation shall cease upon the employee's refusal to accept the job offered and no further or additional temporary total compensation is payable. The payment of the periodic impairment compensation shall cease when the amount the employee is eligible to receive under subdivision 3b is reached, after which time the employee shall not receive additional impairment compensation or any other compensation under this chapter unless the employee has a greater permanent partial disability than already compensated for.

Sec. 39. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 176.101, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 3l. [RETURN TO WORK AFTER REFUSAL OF JOB OFFER.] If the employee has refused the job offer under subdivision 3e and is receiving periodic impairment compensation and returns to work at another job, the employee shall receive the remaining impairment compensation due, in a lump sum, 30 days after return to work.

Sec. 40. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 176.101, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 3m. [NO TEMPORARY PARTIAL COMPENSATION OR REHABILITATION IF JOB OFFER REFUSED.] An employee who has been offerred a job under subdivision 3e and has refused that offer and who subsequently returns to work shall not receive temporary partial compensation pursuant to subdivision 2 if the job the employee returns to provides a wage less than the wage at the time of the injury. No rehabilitation shall be provided to this employee.

Sec. 41. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 176.101, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 3n. [INABILITY TO RETURN TO WORK.] (a) An employee who is permanently totally disabled pursuant to subdivision 5 shall receive impairment compensation pursuant to subdivision 3b. This compensation is payable in addition to permanent total compensation pursuant to subdivision 4 and is payable concurrently. In this case the impairment compensation shall be paid in the same intervals and amount as the permanent total compensation is paid, and the impairment compensation shall cease when the amount due under subdivision 3b is reached. If this employee returns to work at any job during the period the impairment compensation is being paid, the remaining impairment compensation due shall be paid in a lump sum 30 days after the employee has returned to work.

(b) If an employee is receiving or has received economic recovery compensation and is determined to be permanently totally disabled no offset shall be taken against permanent total compensation for the compensation paid. No further economic recovery compensation is payable even if the amount due the employee pursuant to subdivision 3a has not yet been reached.

(c) If the employee has or is receiving impairment compensation and is determined to be permanently totally disabled no credit shall be taken for the compensation received or if any of this compensation remains to be paid, it shall continue to be paid until exhausted, but no additional impairment compensation shall be paid.

(d) Rehabilitation consultation pursuant to section 176.102 shall be provided to an employee who is permanently totally disabled.

Sec. 42. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 176.101, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 3o. [NO JOB OFFER.] Where the employee has a permanent partial disability and has reached maximum medical improvement or upon completion of an approved retraining program, whichever is later, that employee shall receive economic recovery compensation pursuant to subdivision 3a if no job offer meeting the criteria of the job in subdivision 3e is made within 90 days after reaching maximum medical improvement or 90 days after the end of an approved retraining plan, whichever is later.

Temporary total compensation shall cease upon commencement of the payment of economic recovery compensation. Temporary total compensation shall not be paid concurrently with economic recovery compensation.

Sec. 43. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 176.101, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 3p. [METHOD OF PAYMENT OF ECONOMIC RECOVERY COMPENSATION.] (a) Economic recovery compensation is payable at the same intervals and in the same amount as temporary total compensation was paid. If the employee returns to work and the economic recovery compensation is still being paid, the remaining economic recovery compensation due without further adjustments under section 176.645 shall be paid in a lump sum 30 days after the employee has returned to work.

(b) Weekly economic recovery compensation paid to the employee shall be adjusted pursuant to section 176.645.

Sec. 44. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 176.101, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 3q. [PAYMENT OF COMPENSATION AT DEATH.] If an employee receiving economic recovery compensation or impairment compensation in periodic amounts dies during the period from causes unrelated to the injury, the compensation shall be paid in the following manner:

(a) If the deceased employee leaves a dependent surviving spouse and no dependent children, as defined by section 176.111, subdivision 1, the spouse shall receive the weekly economic recovery or impairment compensation that the deceased was receiving before the death. This compensation shall be paid for a period of up to ten years after the date of death at which time payments and future entitlement to it ceases.

(b) If the deceased employee leaves a dependent spouse and dependent children, as defined in section 176.111, subdivision 1, the periodic economic recovery or impairment compensation shall continue to be paid to the surviving spouse for up to ten years after the youngest child is no longer dependent after which time payments and future entitlement to the compensation ceases.

(c) Payment of compensation under this subdivision shall cease prior to the end of the ten-year periods in this subdivision if the amount to which the employee is entitled to receive under subdivision 3, 3a, or 3b, is reached prior to the end of the ten-year period.

(d) If the death results from the injury, the payment of economic recovery compensation or impairment compensation shall cease upon the death and death benefits are payable pursuant to section 176.111.

Sec. 45. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 176.101, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 3r. [ADDITIONAL ECONOMIC RECOVERY COMPENSATION OR IMPAIRMENT COMPENSATION.] No additional economic recovery compensation or impairment compensation is payable to an employee who has received that compensation to which the employee is entitled pursuant to subdivision 3a or 3b unless the employee has a greater permanent partial disability than already compensated.

Sec. 46. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 176.101, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 3s. [MINIMUM ECONOMIC RECOVERY COMPENSATION.] Economic recovery compensation pursuant to this section shall be at least 120 percent of the impairment compensation the employee would receive if that compensation were payable to the employee. The monitoring period shall be at least 120 percent of the weeks during which impairment compensation would be payable if paid weekly.

Sec. 47. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 176.101, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 3t. [MEDICAL BENEFITS.] This section does not in any way limit the medical benefits to which an injured employee is otherwise entitled pursuant to this chapter.

Sec. 48. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 176.101, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 3u. [ADMINISTRATIVE CONFERENCE.] The provisions of article 1, section 122 apply if there exists a dispute regarding maximum medical improvement or whether the job offered meets the criteria under subdivision 3e.

Sec. 49. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 176.101, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 4a. [PREEXISTING CONDITION OR DISABILITY; APPORTIONMENT.] (a) If a personal injury results in a disability which is attributable in part to a preexisting disability that arises from a congenital condition or is the result of a traumatic injury or incident, whether or not compensable under this chapter, the compensation payable for the permanent partial disability pursuant to subdivision 3 shall be reduced by the proportion of the disability which is attributable only to the preexisting disability. An apportionment of a permanent partial disability under this subdivision shall be made only if the preexisting disability is registered under section 176.131, or is clearly evidenced in a medical report or record made prior to the current personal injury. Evidence of registration or a copy of the medical report or record upon which apportionment is based shall be made available to the employee by the employer at the time compensation for the permanent partial disability is begun.

(b) The compensable portion of the permanent partial disability under this section shall be paid at the rate at which the entire disability would be compensated but for the apportionment.

Sec. 50. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 176.101, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 4b. [LEGISLATIVE INTENT.] The legislature reaffirms its intent that the reduction of compensation benefits pursuant to subdivision 4 is applicable after an employee has received a total of $25,000 of weekly compensation including compensation under subdivisions 1, 2, and 4 of this section.

Sec. 51. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 176.101, subdivision 6, is amended to read:

Subd. 6. [MINORS.] If any employee entitled to the benefits of this chapter is a minor or is an apprentice of any age and sustains a personal injury arising out of and in the course of employment resulting in permanent total or a compensable permanent partial disability, for the purpose of computing the compensation to which he the employee is entitled for said the injury the compensation rate for temporary total, temporary partial, ~~retrain-~~

~~ing, a permanent partial or permanent total disability or economic recovery compensation shall be the larger of either the statewide average weekly wage or the employees weekly wage, but in no case shall the compensation exceed the maximum weekly compensation rate payable under this chapter.~~

Sec. 52. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 176.101, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 8. [RETIREMENT PRESUMPTION.] For injuries occurring after the effective date of this subdivision an employee who receives social security old age and survivors insurance retirement benefits is presumed retired from the labor market. This presumption is rebuttable by a preponderance of the evidence.

Sec. 53. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 176.102, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

~~Subdivision 1. [SCOPE.] Vocational Rehabilitation shall train an is intended to restore the injured employee, through physical and vocational rehabilitation, so he the employee may be returned return to a job related to his the employee's former employment or to a job in another work area which produces an economic status as close as possible to that he the employee would have enjoyed without disability. Rehabilitation to a job with a higher economic status than would have occurred without disability is permitted if it can be demonstrated that this rehabilitation is necessary to increase the likelihood of reemployment. Economic status is to be measured not only by opportunity for immediate income but also by opportunity for future income.~~

Sec. 54. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 176.102, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

~~Subd. 2. [ADMINISTRATORS.] The commissioner of labor and industry shall hire a director of medical care and rehabilitation services in the classified service. The commissioner of labor and industry is responsible for supervising shall monitor medical care and supervise rehabilitation services, including, but not limited to, making determinations regarding the selection and delivery of medical care and rehabilitation services and the criteria used to approve qualified rehabilitation consultants and rehabilitation vendors. The commissioner may also make determinations regarding fees for rehabilitation services, the fitness of qualified rehabilitation consultants and vendors to continue to be approved under this section and has authority to discipline, by fine or otherwise, the consultants or vendors who act in violation of this chapter or rules adopted pursuant to this chapter. The commissioner of labor and industry may hire qualified personnel and shall hire a medical consultant to assist in his duties under this section and may delegate his duties and performance.~~

The medical consultant shall be a doctor of medicine licensed under the laws of Minnesota.

The medical consultant shall perform all duties assigned by the commissioner relating to the supervision of the total continuum of care of injured employees and shall also advise the department on matters on which the commissioner requests the consultant's advice or if the consultant deems it appropriate.

Sec. 55. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 176.102, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [REVIEW PANEL.] There is created a rehabilitation review panel composed of the commissioner of labor and industry or his a designee, who shall serve as an ex officio member and two members each from labor, employers, insurers, vocational rehabilitation, and medicine and, one member representing chiropractors, four members representing employers and four members representing labor. The members shall be appointed by the governor commissioner and shall serve four year four-year terms which may be renewed. Compensation for members shall be governed by section 15.0575. The panel shall select a chairman. The panel shall (a) review and make a determination with respect to (a) appeals regarding eligibility for rehabilitation services, rehabilitation plans and rehabilitation benefits under subdivision 9; (b) hold appeals on any other rehabilitation issue the commissioner determines under this section; and (c) appeals regarding fee disputes, penalties, discipline, certification approval or revocation of certification approval hearings; (e) of registration of qualified rehabilitation consultants and approved vendors. The panel shall continuously study rehabilitation; services and delivery and (d) develop and recommend rehabilitation rules as necessary to the commissioner of labor and industry. A majority vote of those attending a panel hearing under subdivision 6 shall constitute the decision of the board.

Sec. 56. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 176.102, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 3a. [REVIEW PANEL APPEALS.] Appeals to the review panel shall be heard before a panel of three members designated by the review panel. Each three-member panel shall consist of one labor member, one employer or insurer member, and one member representing medicine, chiropractic, or rehabilitation. The determination of the three-member panel shall be by a majority vote and the determination shall represent the determination of the rehabilitation review panel. When conducting a review of the commissioner's determination regarding any rehabilitation issue or plan the panel shall give the parties notice that the appeal will be heard. This notice shall be given at least ten working days prior to the hearing. The notice shall state that parties may be represented by counsel at the hearing. In conducting its review the panel shall permit an interested party to present relevant, competent, oral or written evidence and to cross-examine opposing evidence. Evidence presented is not limited to the evidence previously submitted to the commissioner. A record of the proceeding shall be made by the panel. Upon determination of the issue presented, the panel shall issue to the interested parties a written decision and order. The decision need not contain a recitation of the evidence presented at the hearing, but shall be limited to the panel's basis for the decision.

Sec. 57. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 176.102, subdivision 4, is amended to read:

Subd. 4. [REHABILITATION PLAN; DEVELOPMENT.] Within 30 days of the time an employer or his insurer has medical information that an employee is unable due to a personal injury or occupational disease to return to his preinjury occupation the employer shall provide rehabilitation consultation for the employee. The employee, however, has the final decision on which rehabilitation agency is to be utilized pursuant to the provisions of this section. The consultation shall be done by any person or public or private institution approved by the commissioner of labor and industry. If the consultant determines rehabilitation would significantly reduce or eliminate the decrease in employability, the employer or insurer in conjunction with the rehabilitation consultant shall submit a specific plan of rehabilitation to the commissioner. If the employer does not provide rehabilitation consultation, when required by this section, within the time specified by this subdivision, the commissioner of labor and industry shall notify the employer and insurer that should they fail to provide rehabilitation consultation within 15 days from the receipt of the commissioner's notice, the division of vocational rehabilitation shall be authorized to provide the rehabilitation consultation for the employee. If the employee refuses to submit to any reasonable examinations and evaluative procedures to determine the need for and the details of a plan of rehabilitation, the amount of compensation may be reduced or the right to compensation may be suspended by an order of the division or workers' compensation court of appeals in a matter before it. In developing a plan, consideration shall be given to the employee's age, education, previous work history, interests and skills.

(a) An employer or insurer shall provide rehabilitation consultation by a qualified rehabilitation consultant to an injured employee within five days after the employee has 60 days of lost work time due to the personal injury, except as otherwise provided in this subdivision. Where an employee has incurred an injury to the back, the consultation shall be made within five days after the employee has 30 days of lost work time due to the injury. The lost work time in either case may be intermittent lost work time. If an employer or insurer has medical information at any time prior to the time specified in this subdivision that the employee will be unable to return to the job the employee held at the time of the injury rehabilitation consultation shall be made immediately after receipt of this information.

For purposes of this section "lost work time" means only those days during which the employee would actually be working but for the injury. In the case of the construction industry, mining industry, or other industry where the hours and days of work are affected by seasonal conditions, "lost work time" shall be computed by using the normal schedule worked when employees are working full time.

If the employee objects to the employer's selection of a qualified rehabilitation consultant, the employee shall notify the employer and the commissioner in writing of the objection.

Upon receipt of the notice of objection, the commissioner may schedule an administrative conference for the purpose of determining which qualified rehabilitation consultant may be mutually acceptable. The employee has the final decision on which qualified rehabilitation consultant is to be utilized.

The employee and employer shall enter into a program if one is prescribed in a rehabilitation plan. A copy of the plan, including a target date for return to work, shall be submitted to the commissioner.

(b) If the employer does not provide rehabilitation consultation as required by this section, the commissioner shall notify the employer that if the employer fails to appoint a qualified rehabilitation consultant within 15 days to conduct a rehabilitation consultation, the commissioner shall appoint a qualified rehabilitation consultant to provide the consultation at the expense of the employer unless the commissioner determines the consultation is not required.

(c) In developing a rehabilitation plan consideration shall be given to the employee's qualifications, including but not limited to age, education, previous work history, interest, transferable skills, and present and future labor market conditions.

(d) The commissioner may waive rehabilitation consultation under this section if the commissioner is satisfied that the employee will return to work in the near future or that rehabilitation consultation will not be useful in returning an employee to work.

Sec. 58. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 176.102, subdivision 5, is amended to read:

Subd. 5. [ON THE JOB TRAINING.] On the job training is to be given consideration in developing a rehabilitation plan especially where it would produce an economic status similar to that enjoyed prior to disability. When a rehabilitation plan includes on the job training, the employee shall receive compensation while employed in an amount equal to the after tax wage the employee received at the time of the personal injury. This compensation shall be paid in whole or in part by the insurer liable for compensation for the employee's personal injury. The amount of compensation to be paid by this insurer shall be determined in the rehabilitation plan prepared pursuant to this section. Any difference between the amount of compensation the insurer is paying and the after tax wage the employee received at the time of the personal injury shall be paid by the on the job employer, but in no case shall this employer's amount exceed the prevailing wage for the job. After tax wage shall be determined by subtracting federal and state income tax from the employee's gross wage.

A rehabilitation plan which includes on the job training shall attempt to create an incentive for an employer to hire the employee for on the job training. This incentive may be in the form of reducing the on the job training employer's wages paid to the employee to a level which is less than the prevailing wage for the job, provided that the total compensation from the insurer, required by this section, and the wages paid by the on the job training employer is not less than the after tax wage received by the employee at the time of the personal injury. The compensation from the insurer and the on the job training employer paid pursuant to this subdivision is in lieu of temporary total disability payments and the additional compensation provided in subdivision 11.

Sec. 59. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 176.102, subdivision 6, is amended to read:

Subd. 6. [PLAN, ELIGIBILITY FOR REHABILITATION, APPROVAL AND APPEAL.] The commissioner of labor and industry shall determine eligibility for rehabilitation services and shall review, approve, modify or reject rehabilitation plans developed under subdivision 4. The commissioner shall also make determinations regarding rehabilitation issues not necessarily part of a plan including, but not limited to, determinations regarding whether an employee is eligible for further rehabilitation and the benefits under subdivision 9 to which an employee is entitled. Any persons aggrieved by A decision of the commissioner may appeal be appealed to the rehabilitation review panel within 30 days of the commissioner's decision. The decision of the panel may be appealed to the workers' compensation court of appeals in the same manner as other matters appealed to the court. The panel may approve or reject the decision of the commissioner. If it rejects the commissioner's decision it may formulate its own rehabilitation plan.

Sec. 60. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 176.102, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 6a. [ELIGIBILITY DETERMINATION.] The commissioner has the sole authority under this chapter to determine eligibility for rehabilitation services under this section and to review, approve, modify, or reject rehabilitation plans and make other rehabilitation determinations pursuant to this chapter. These determinations shall not be made by a compensation judge but may be appealed to the rehabilitation review panel and workers' compensation court of appeals as provided by subdivision 6.

Sec. 61. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 176.102, subdivision 7, is amended to read:

Subd. 7. [PLAN IMPLEMENTATION; REPORTS.] Upon request by the commissioner, insurer or, employer or employee, medical and rehabilitation reports shall be made by the provider of the medical and rehabilitation service to the commissioner of labor and industry, insurer and, employer or employee of an employee's progress under a plan.

Sec. 62. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 176.102, subdivision 8, is amended to read:

Subd. 8. [PLAN MODIFICATION.] Upon request of to the commissioner by the employer, the insurer, or employee to the commissioner, or upon the commissioner's own request, the plan may be suspended, terminated or altered upon a showing of good cause therefor, including:

(a) a physical impairment that does not allow the employee to pursue the vocation being trained for rehabilitation plan;

(b) the employee's performance level indicates he cannot complete the plan will not be successfully completed; or

(c) an employee does not cooperate with a plan.

An employee may request a change in a rehabilitation plan once because he the employee feels he is not suited ill-suited for the type of work for which training rehabilitation is being provided if the request is made within 90 days of the start of the plan. Any decision of the commissioner regarding a change in a plan may be appealed to the rehabilitation review panel within +5 30 days of the decision.

Sec. 63. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 176.102, subdivision 9, is amended to read:

Subd. 9. [PLAN, COSTS.] An employer is liable for the following rehabilitation expenses under this section:

(a) Cost of vocational rehabilitation diagnosis evaluation and preparation of a plan;

(b) Cost of all rehabilitation services and supplies necessary for implementation of the plan;

(c) Reasonable cost of tuition, books and travel; and, in addition, reasonable costs of board ~~and~~, lodging and custodial daycare when rehabilitation requires residence away from the employee's customary residence; ~~and~~

(d) Reasonable costs of travel and custodial daycare during the job interview process;

(e) Reasonable cost for moving expenses of the employee and family if a job is found in a geographic area beyond reasonable commuting distance after a diligent search within the present community. Relocation shall not be paid more than once during any rehabilitation program, and relocation shall not be required if the new job is located within the same standard metropolitan statistical area as the employee's job at the time of injury; and

~~(f)~~ (f) Any other expense agreed to be paid.

Sec. 64. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 176.102, subdivision 10, is amended to read:

Subd. 10. [REHABILITATION; CONSULTANTS.] The commissioner shall approve rehabilitation consultants who may propose and implement plans if they satisfy rules ~~promulgated~~ adopted by the commissioner for rehabilitation consultants. A consultant may be an individual or public or private entity, but may not be a vendor or the agent of a vendor of rehabilitation services.

Sec. 65. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 176.102, subdivision 11, is amended to read:

Subd. 11. [~~COMPENSATION DURING REHABILITATION RETRAINING.~~] ~~The insurer or employer shall pay up Retraining is limited to 156 weeks of compensation during rehabilitation under a plan in an amount equal to 125 percent of the employee's rate for temporary total disability. This payment is in lieu of payment for temporary total, temporary partial, or permanent total disability to which the employee might otherwise be entitled for this period under this chapter, but shall be considered to be the equivalent of temporary total disability for the purposes of section 176.132. If on the job training is part of the rehabilitation program, the weeks during which the insurer or employer pays compensation pursuant to subdivision 5 shall be subtracted from the 156 weeks of retraining compensation which has been paid, if any, pursuant to this subdivision. This subdivision shall not apply to retraining benefits for which liability has been established prior to July 1, 1979.~~

Sec. 66. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 176.102, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 11a. [APPLICABILITY OF SECTION.] This section is applicable to all employees injured prior to or on and after October 1, 1979, except for those provisions which affect an employee's monetary benefits.

Sec. 67. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 176.102, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 13. [DISCONTINUANCE.] All benefits payable under chapter 176 may, after a determination and order by the commissioner, be discontinued or forfeited for any time during which the employee refuses to submit to any reasonable examinations and evaluative procedures ordered by the commissioner to determine the need for and details of a plan of rehabilitation, or refuses to participate in rehabilitation evaluation as required by this section or does not make a good faith effort to participate in a rehabilitation plan. A discontinuance under this section is governed by article 1, section 122.

Sec. 68. [176.103] [MEDICAL HEALTH CARE REVIEW.]

Subdivision 1. [PURPOSE.] It is the purpose of this section to provide for review of clinical health care providers who render services to injured employees. This review shall be achieved by establishing a quality control system within the department of labor and industry.

Subd. 2. [SCOPE.] The commissioner shall monitor the medical and surgical treatment provided to injured employees, the services of other health care providers and shall also monitor hospital utilization as it relates to the treatment of injured employees. This monitoring shall include determinations concerning the appropriateness of the service, whether the treatment is necessary and effective, the proper cost of services, the quality of the treatment, the right of providers to receive payment under this chapter for services rendered or the right to receive payment under this chapter for future services. The commissioner may penalize, disqualify, or suspend a provider from receiving payment for services rendered under this chapter, if the commissioner determines that the provider has violated any part of this chapter or rule adopted under this chapter. The commissioner's authority under this section also includes the authority to make determinations regarding any other activity involving the questions of utilization of medical services, and any other determination the commissioner deems necessary for the proper administration of this section.

The commissioner has the sole authority to make determinations under this section with a right of appeal to the medical services review board as provided in subdivision 3 and the workers' compensation court of appeals. A compensation judge has no jurisdiction in making determinations under this section.

Subd. 3. [MEDICAL SERVICES REVIEW BOARD; SELECTION; POWERS.] (a) There is created a medical services review board composed of the commissioner or the commissioner's designee, one person representing chiropractic and seven medical practitioners representing different specialties which the commissioner determines are the most frequently utilized by injured employees. The board shall also have one person representing employees, one person representing employers or insurers, and one person representing the general public. The members shall be appointed by the commissioner and shall be governed by section 15.0575. Terms of the board's members may be renewed. The board shall appoint from among its members a clinical advisory subcommittee on clinical quality and a clinical advisory subcommittee on clinical cost containment. Each subcommittee shall consist of at least three members.

The clinical quality subcommittee shall review clinical results for adequacy and recommend to the commissioner scales for disabilities and apportionment.

The clinical cost containment subcommittee shall review and recommend to the commissioner rates for individual clinical procedures and aggregate costs. The subcommittees shall make regular reports to the board and the commissioner which shall evaluate the reports for the purpose of determining whether or not a particular health care provider continues to qualify for payment under chapter 176 or is subject to any other sanctions or penalties authorized under this section and to determine whether an employee has been off work longer than necessary.

In evaluating the clinical consequences of the services provided to an employee by a clinical health care provider, the board shall consider the following factors in the priority listed:

- (1) the clinical effectiveness of the treatment;
- (2) the clinical cost of the treatment; and
- (3) the length of time of treatment.

In its consideration of these factors, the board shall utilize the information and recommendations developed by the subcommittees. In addition, the board shall utilize any other data developed by the subcommittees pursuant to the duties assigned to the subcommittees under this section.

After making a determination, the board shall submit its recommendation in writing to the commissioner. The board shall advise the commissioner on the adoption of rules regarding all aspects of medical care and services provided to injured employees.

(b) The board shall appoint three of its members to hear appeals from decisions of the commissioner regarding quality control and supervision of medical care; any other disputes regarding medical, surgical, and hospital care; decisions regarding the eligibility of medical providers to receive payments; or any other determinations of the commissioner pursuant to subdivision 2. The three-member panel shall be composed of one member who does not represent a health care specialty, one member who represents the same specialty as the specialty at issue or, if the same specialty is not available, one member whose specialty is as close as possible considering the board's composition, and one member representing a different specialty. The three-member panel shall conduct a hearing in the same manner, giving the same notice and following other procedures required of the rehabilitation review panel in section 176.102, subdivision 3a. A majority vote of the three-member panel constitutes the decision of the board. This decision may be appealed to the workers' compensation court of appeals.

(c) In any situation where a conflict of interest prevents the appointment of a full three-member panel or in any other situation where the commissioner deems it necessary to resolve a conflict of interest, the commissioner may appoint a temporary substitute board member to serve until the situation creating the conflict of interest has been resolved.

Sec. 69. [176.104] [REHABILITATION PRIOR TO DETERMINATION OF LIABILITY.]

Subdivision 1. [DISPUTE.] If there exists a dispute regarding whether an injury arose out of and in the course and scope of employment and an employee has been disabled for the requisite time under section 176.102, subdivision 4, prior to determination of liability, the employee shall be referred by the commissioner to the division of vocational rehabilitation which shall provide rehabilitation consultation and other rehabilitation services. The services provided by the division of vocational rehabilitation and the scope and term of the rehabilitation are governed by section 176.102 and rules adopted pursuant to that section. Rehabilitation costs and services under this subdivision shall be approved, rejected, or modified by the commissioner.

Subd. 2. [LIABILITY FOR PAST REHABILITATION.] If liability is determined after the employee has commenced rehabilitation under this section the liable party is responsible for the cost of rehabilitation provided and approved by the commissioner. Future rehabilitation after liability is established is governed by section 176.102.

Sec. 70. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 176.105, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 4. The commissioner shall by rule adopt procedures to determine the percentage of loss of function of a part of the body based on the body as a whole, including internal organs, described in section 176.101, subdivision 3, and any other body part not listed in section 176.101, subdivision 3, which the commissioner deems appropriate.

Temporary rules shall be adopted for this purpose not later than January 1, 1985. Prior to the adoption of these rules, at least two public hearings shall be held by the commissioner, in addition to the requirements of sections 14.29 to 14.36. Notwithstanding sections 14.29 to 14.36, the temporary rules adopted under this subdivision shall be effective until superseded by permanent rules. The rules shall promote objectivity and consistency in the evaluation of permanent functional impairment due to personal injury and in the assignment of a numerical rating to the functional impairment.

Prior to adoption of temporary rules the commissioner of insurance shall conduct an analysis of the current permanent partial disability schedule for the purpose of determining the number and distribution of permanent partial disabilities and the average compensation for various permanent partial disabilities. The commissioner of labor and industry shall consider this analysis in adopting the rules under this subdivision and shall consider establishing a schedule which provides that the average award under the proposed schedule shall be approximately the same as the average award under the current schedule. The commissioner shall consider setting the compensation under the proposed schedule for the most serious conditions higher in comparison to the current schedule and shall consider decreasing awards for minor conditions in comparison to the current schedule.

The commissioner shall consider, among other factors, the following factors in developing rules for the evaluation and rating of functional disability and the schedule for permanent partial disability benefits:

(a) the workability and simplicity of the procedures with respect to the evaluation of functional disability;

(b) the consistency of the procedures with accepted medical standards;

(c) rules, guidelines, and schedules that exist in other states that are related to the evaluation of permanent partial disability or to a schedule of benefits for functional disability;

(d) rules, guidelines, and schedules that have been developed by professional associations or organizations;

(e) the effect the rules may have on reducing litigation;

(f) the treatment of preexisting disabilities with respect to the evaluation of permanent functional disability provided that any preexisting disabilities must be objectively determined by medical evidence; and

(g) the employee's symptomatology and loss of function and use of the injured member.

Sec. 71. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 176.111, subdivision 6, is amended to read:

Subd. 6. [SPOUSE, NO DEPENDENT CHILD.] ~~(a)~~ If the deceased employee leaves a dependent surviving spouse and no dependent child, there shall be paid to the spouse; ~~at the option of the spouse; either:~~

~~(1) A lump sum settlement equal to ten full years of compensation at 50 percent of the daily wage at the time of the injury of the deceased; computed without regard to section 176.645; or~~

~~(2) weekly workers' compensation benefits at 50 percent of the daily wage at the time of the injury for a period of ten years, including adjustments as provided in section 176.645.~~

~~(b) A dependent surviving spouse who has not accepted a lump sum settlement pursuant to clause (a)(1) and who remarries shall receive the lesser of either:~~

~~(1) A lump sum settlement equal to two full years of compensation at 50 percent of the daily wage at the time of the injury of the deceased; computed without regard to section 176.645; or~~

~~(2) The remaining weekly workers' compensation benefits pursuant to clause (a)(2) at 50 percent of the daily wage; including adjustments as provided in section 176.645.~~

Sec. 72. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 176.111, subdivision 7, is amended to read:

Subd. 7. [SPOUSE, ONE DEPENDENT CHILD.] (a) If the deceased employee leaves a surviving spouse and one dependent child, there shall be paid to the surviving spouse for the benefit of the spouse and child 60 percent of the daily wage at the time of the injury of the deceased until the child is no longer a dependent as defined in subdivision 1. At that time there shall be paid to the dependent surviving spouse; ~~at the option of the spouse; either:~~

~~(1) A lump sum settlement equal to ten full years of compensation at a rate which is 16 2/3 percent less than the last weekly workers' compensation benefit payment, as defined in subdivision 8a, while the surviving child was a dependent; computed without regard to section 176.645; or~~

~~(2) weekly benefits at a rate which is 16 2/3 percent less than the last weekly workers' compensation benefit payment, as defined in subdivision 8a, while the surviving child was a dependent, for a period of ten years, including adjustments as provided in section 176.645.~~

~~(b) A surviving spouse who remarries shall receive:~~

(1) Compensation, for the benefit of the dependent child, according to the allocation provided in subdivision 10, until the child is no longer a dependent as defined in subdivision 1; and

(2) A lump sum settlement, for the benefit of the surviving spouse, equal to two full years of weekly benefits in an amount which equals the difference between the benefit otherwise payable under clause (a) and the amount payable to the dependent child pursuant to clause (b)(1).

Sec. 73. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 176.111, subdivision 8, is amended to read:

Subd. 8. [SPOUSE, TWO DEPENDENT CHILDREN.] (a) If the deceased employee leaves a surviving spouse and two dependent children, there shall be paid to the surviving spouse for the benefit of the spouse and children 66 2/3 percent of the daily wage at the time of the injury of the deceased until the youngest dependent child is no longer dependent. At that time the dependent surviving spouse shall be paid, at the option of the spouse, either:

(1) A lump sum settlement equal to ten full years of compensation at a rate which is 25 percent less than the last weekly workers' compensation benefit payment, as defined in subdivision 8a, while the last surviving child was a dependent, computed without regard to section 176.645; or

(2) weekly benefits at a rate which is 25 percent less than the last weekly workers' compensation benefit payment, as defined in subdivision 8a, while the surviving child was a dependent, for a period of ten years, adjusted according to section 176.645.

(b) A surviving spouse who remarries shall receive compensation, for the benefit of the children, allocated according to subdivision 10, until the youngest dependent child is no longer dependent as defined in subdivision 1 and, for the benefit of the surviving spouse, a lump sum settlement equal to two full years of weekly benefits in an amount which equals the difference between the benefit otherwise payable pursuant to clause (a) and the amount payable to the dependent children allocated according to subdivision 10, computed without regard to section 176.645.

Sec. 74. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 176.111, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 9a. [REMARRIAGE OF SPOUSE.] Remarriage of a surviving spouse who is receiving benefits under subdivisions 6, 7, or 8 has no effect on the spouse's right to receive weekly benefits for the remaining period that the spouse is entitled to receive benefits pursuant to this section.

Sec. 75. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 176.111, subdivision 18, is amended to read:

Subd. 18. [BURIAL EXPENSE.] In all cases where death results to an employee from a personal injury arising out of and in the course of employment, the employer shall pay the expense of burial, not exceeding in amount $1,000 $2,500. In case any dispute arises as to the reasonable value of the services rendered in connection with the burial, such its reasonable value shall be determined and approved by the commissioner of the department of labor and industry, a compensation judge, or workers' compensation court of appeals, in cases upon appeal, before payment, after such reasonable notice to interested parties as is required by the commissioner of the ~~department of labor and industry~~. If the deceased leave no dependents, no compensation is payable, except as provided by this chapter.

Sec. 76. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 176.121, is amended to read:

176.121 [COMMENCEMENT OF COMPENSATION.]

In cases of temporary total or temporary partial disability no compensation ~~shall be~~ is allowed for the three calendar days after the disability commenced, except as provided by section 176.135, nor in any case unless the employer has actual knowledge of the injury or is notified thereof within the period specified in section 176.141. If ~~such~~ the disability continues for 10 calendar days or longer, ~~such~~ the compensation ~~shall be~~ is computed from the commencement of the disability. Disability is deemed to commence on the first calendar day or fraction of a calendar day that the employee is unable to work.

Sec. 77. [176.129] [CREATION OF THE SPECIAL COMPENSATION FUND.]

Subdivision 1. [DEPOSIT OF FUNDS.] The special compensation fund is created for the purposes provided for in this chapter. The state treasurer is the custodian of the special compensation fund. Sums paid to the commissioner pursuant to this section shall be deposited with the state treasurer for the benefit of the fund and used to pay the benefits under this chapter. Any interest or profit accruing from investment of these sums shall be credited to the special compensation fund.

Subd. 2. [PAYMENTS TO FUND, DEATH.] In every case of death of an employee resulting from personal injury arising out of and in the course of employment where there are no persons entitled to monetary benefits of dependency compensation, the employer shall pay to the commissioner the sum of $5,000 for the benefit of the special compensation fund. In every case of death of an employee resulting from personal injury arising out of and in the course of employment where there are no persons entitled to at least $5,000 in monetary benefits of dependency compensation, the employer shall pay to the commissioner for the benefit of the special compensation fund the difference between the amounts actually paid for the dependency benefits and $5,000; but in no event shall the employer pay the commissioner less than $1,000.

Subd. 3. [PAYMENTS TO FUND, INJURY.] If an employee suffers a personal injury resulting in permanent partial disability, temporary total disability, temporary partial disability, permanent total disability, or death and the employee or the employee's dependents are entitled to compensation, medical or rehabilitative services under sections 176.101, 176.102, 176.111, or 176.135, the employer shall pay to the commissioner a lump sum amount determined by the commissioner pursuant to subdivision 4 without any interest deduction. This payment is to be credited to the special compensation fund and shall be in addition to any compensation payments made by the employer under this chapter. Payment shall be made as soon as the amount is determined and approved by the commissioner.

Subd. 4. [DETERMINATION OF AMOUNT OF PAYMENT.] The amount payable by the employer to the special compensation fund under subdivision

3 shall be determined by the commissioner pursuant to article 1, section 147.

Subd. 5. [TIME OF INJURY.] Subdivisions 2 and 3 apply to all workers' compensation payments paid under sections 176.101, 176.102, 176.111, or 176.135, for an injury or death occurring on or after the effective date of this section.

Payments made for personal injuries that occurred prior to the effective date of this section shall be assessed at the rate in effect on the date of payment.

Subd. 6. [PAYMENTS OUT OF FUND.] The workers' compensation division, a compensation judge, the workers' compensation court of appeals, or district court in cases before them shall direct the distribution of benefits provided by this chapter. These benefits are payable in the same manner as other payments of compensation.

Subd. 7. [REFUNDS.] In case deposit is or has been made under subdivision 2 and dependency later is shown, or if deposit is or has been made pursuant to subdivision 2 or 3 by mistake or inadvertence, or under circumstances that justice requires a refund, the state treasurer is authorized to refund the deposit under order of the commissioner, a compensation judge, the workers' compensation court of appeals, or a district court. There is appropriated to the commissioner from the fund an amount sufficient to make the refund and payment.

Subd. 8. [COMMISSIONER AS ADMINISTRATOR.] The commissioner is the administrator of the special compensation fund. The commissioner shall be designated a party in an action regarding any right, obligation, and liability of the special fund. The state treasurer, as custodian, does not have standing in an action determining any right, obligation, or liability of the special fund. The attorney general shall represent the special fund in all legal matters in which the special fund has an interest.

Subd. 9. [POWERS OF FUND.] In addition to powers granted to the special compensation fund by this chapter the fund may do the following:

(a) sue and be sued in its own name;

(b) intervene in or commence an action under this chapter or any other law, including, but not limited to, intervention or action as a subrogee to the division's right in a third-party action, any proceeding under this chapter in which liability of the special compensation fund is an issue, or any proceeding which may result in other liability of the fund or to protect the legal right of the fund;

(c) enter into settlements including but not limited to structured, annuity purchase agreements with appropriate parties under this chapter; and

(d) take any other action which an insurer is permitted by law to take in operating within this chapter.

Subd. 10. [PENALTY.] Sums paid to the commissioner pursuant to this section shall be in the manner prescribed by the commissioner. The commissioner may impose a penalty of up to 15 percent of the amount due under this section but not less than $500 in the event payment is not made in the manner prescribed.

Subd. 11. [ADMINISTRATIVE PROVISIONS.] The accounting, investigation, and legal costs necessary for the administration of the programs financed by the special compensation fund shall be paid from the fund during each biennium commencing July 1, 1981. Staffing and expenditures related to the administration of the special compensation fund shall be approved through the regular budget and appropriations process.

Subd. 12. [REPORT OF COMMISSIONER.] The commissioner shall report biennially to the governor and to the legislature as to the financial status of the special compensation fund. The report shall include a statement of the receipts and the disbursements for the period covered.

Subd. 13. [EMPLOYER REPORTS.] All employers shall make reports to the commissioner as required for the proper administration of this section and section 176.131.

Sec. 78. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 176.131, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. If an employee incurs personal injury and suffers disability that is substantially greater, because of a pre-existing physical impairment, than what would have resulted from the personal injury alone, the employer shall pay all compensation provided by this chapter, but ~~he~~ the employer shall be reimbursed from the special compensation fund for all compensation paid in excess of 52 weeks of monetary benefits and $2,000 in medical expenses, subject to the following exceptions:

If the personal injury alone results in permanent partial disability to a scheduled member under ~~section 176.104~~ the schedule adopted by the commissioner pursuant to section 176.105, the monetary and medical expense limitations shall not apply and the employer ~~shall be~~ is liable for ~~such~~ the compensation, medical expense, and ~~retraining~~ rehabilitation attributable to the permanent partial disability, and ~~he~~ may be reimbursed from the special compensation fund only for compensation paid in excess of ~~such~~ the disability.

Sec. 79. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 176.131, subdivision 1a, is amended to read:

Subd. 1a. If an employee is employed in an on the job retraining program pursuant to section 176.102 and the employee incurs a personal injury that aggravates the personal injury for which the employee has been certified to enter the on the job retraining program, the on the job training employer shall pay the medical expenses and compensation required by this chapter, ~~but~~ and shall be reimbursed from the special compensation fund for the compensation and medical expense that is attributable to the aggravated injury. The employer, at the time of the personal injury for which the employee has been certified for retraining, is liable for the portion of the disability that is attributable to that injury.

Sec. 80. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 176.131, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. If the employee's personal injury ~~shall result~~ results in disability or death, and if the injury, death, or disability would not have occurred except for the pre-existing physical impairment registered with the special compensation fund, the employer shall pay all compensation provided by this chapter, ~~but and~~ shall be reimbursed from the special compensation fund for ~~such the~~ compensation ~~only where the permanent physical impairment contributing to the second injury is diabetes, hemophilia or seizures except that this reimbursement shall not be made for cardiac disease or a condition registered pursuant to subdivision 8, clauses (t) or (u) unless the commissioner by rule provides otherwise.~~

Sec. 81. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 176.131, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. To entitle the employer to secure reimbursement from the special compensation fund, the following provisions must be complied with:

(a) Provisions of section 176.181, subdivisions 1 and 2.

(b) The employee with a pre-existing physical impairment must have been registered with the commissioner of ~~labor and industry~~ prior to the employee's personal injury or within 180 days after notice of the employee's personal injury is received by the employer. Registration subsequent to the injury shall be based on a medical report or record made prior to the injury indicating the pre-existing physical impairment.

Sec. 82. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 176.131, subdivision 4, is amended to read:

Subd. 4. Any employer who hires or retains in ~~his~~ its employment any person who has a physical impairment shall file a formal registration for ~~each such the~~ employee with the commissioner of ~~the department of labor and industry in such on~~ a form as prescribed by the commissioner may require.

Sec. 83. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 176.131, subdivision 5, is amended to read:

Subd. 5. Registration under this section may be made by the employee or any employer provided:

(a) Registration ~~shall be~~ is accompanied by satisfactory evidence of ~~such the~~ physical impairment;

(b) Registration ~~shall be~~ is in effect as long as ~~said the~~ impairment exists;

(c) Upon request, a registered employee shall be furnished by the commissioner of ~~the department of labor and industry~~ with a registration card evidencing the ~~fact of~~ registration, and ~~such other~~ facts as the commissioner of ~~the department of labor and industry~~ deems advisable.

Sec. 84. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 176.131, subdivision 6, is amended to read:

Subd. 6. When the employer claims reimbursement from the special compensation fund after paying compensation as prescribed by this section, ~~he the~~ employer shall file with the commissioner of ~~the department of labor and industry~~ written notice of intention to claim reimbursement in accordance with the rules ~~and regulations of~~ adopted by the commissioner of ~~the department of labor and industry~~.

Sec. 85. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 176.131, subdivision 7, is amended to read:

Subd. 7. Under subdivisions 1 and 2, an occupational disease may be deemed to be the personal (second) injury.

If the subsequent disability for which reimbursement is claimed is an occupational disease, and if, subsequent to registration as provided by subdivisions 4 and 5, the employee has been employed by the employer in employment similar to that which initially resulted in such the occupational disease, no reimbursement shall be paid to the employer.

Sec. 86. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 176.131, subdivision 8, is amended to read:

Subd. 8. As used in this section the following terms have the meanings given them:

“Physical impairment” means any physical or mental condition that is permanent in nature, whether congenital or due to injury, disease or surgery and which is or is likely to be a hindrance or obstacle to obtaining employment ~~provided~~ except that; physical impairment ~~as used herein~~ is limited to the following:

- (t) Any other physical impairment for which at least 50 weeks or more of weekly benefits would be payable as permanent partial disability if the physical impairment were evaluated according to standards used in workers’ compensation proceedings, and

(p) (u) Any other physical impairments of a permanent nature which the ~~workers' compensation court of appeals~~ commissioner may by rule prescribe;

"Compensation" has the meaning defined in section 176.011;

"Employer" includes insurer;

"Disability" means, unless otherwise indicated, any condition causing either temporary total, temporary partial, permanent total, permanent partial, death, medical expense, or ~~retraining~~ rehabilitation.

Sec. 87. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 176.132, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [ELIGIBLE RECIPIENTS.] (a) An employee who has suffered personal injury prior to the effective date of clause (b) for which benefits are payable under section 176.101 and who has been totally disabled for more than 104 weeks shall be eligible for supplementary benefits as ~~hereinafter~~ prescribed in this section after 104 weeks have elapsed and for the remainder of ~~his the~~ total disablement. Regardless of the number of weeks of total disability, no totally disabled person ~~shall be~~ is ineligible for supplementary benefits after four years have elapsed since the first date of ~~his the~~ total disability, except as provided by clause (b), provided that all periods of disability are caused by the same injury.

(b) An employee injured after the effective date of this clause is eligible to receive supplementary benefits after the employee has been receiving temporary total or permanent total benefits for 208 weeks. Regardless of the number of weeks of total disability, no totally disabled person shall be ineligible for supplementary benefits after six years have elapsed since the first date of the total disability, provided that all periods of disability are caused by the same injury.

Sec. 88. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 176.132, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 5. [ROUNDING OF PAYMENTS.] A payment made under this section shall be rounded up to the next highest whole dollar.

Sec. 89. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 176.134, subdivision 4, is amended to read:

Subd. 4. [ADMINISTRATION.] The commissioner ~~of labor and industry~~ shall administer the reopened case fund as part of the special compensation fund provided that the reopened case fund is under separate accounting and audit procedures from the special fund.

Sec. 90. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 176.135, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [MEDICAL, CHIROPRACTIC, PODIATRIC, SURGICAL, HOSPITAL.] The employer shall furnish ~~such~~ any medical, chiropractic, podiatric, surgical and hospital treatment, including nursing, medicines, medical, chiropractic, podiatric, and surgical supplies, crutches and apparatus, including artificial members, or, at the option of the employee, if the employer has not filed notice as hereinafter provided, Christian Science treatment in lieu of medical treatment, chiropractic medicine and medical supplies, as may reasonably be required at the time of the injury and any time thereafter to cure and relieve from the effects of the injury. ~~Such~~ This treatment shall include treatments necessary to physical rehabilitation. The employer shall furnish replacement or repair for artificial members, glasses, or spectacles, artificial eyes, podiatric orthotics, dental bridge work, dentures or artificial teeth, hearing aids, canes, crutches or wheel chairs damaged by reason of an injury arising out of and in the course of the employment. In case of his inability or refusal seasonably to do so the employer ~~shall be~~ is liable for the reasonable expense incurred by or on behalf of the employee in providing the same. The employer shall pay for the reasonable value of nursing services by a member of the employee's family in cases of permanent total disability. Orders of a ~~compensation judge~~ the commissioner or medical services review board with respect to this subdivision may be reviewed by the workers' compensation court of appeals on petition of an aggrieved party or by writ of certiorari to the supreme court.

Sec. 91. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 176.135, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [LIMITATION OF LIABILITY.] The pecuniary liability of the employer for the treatment, articles and supplies required by this section shall be limited to ~~such~~ the charges therefor as prevail in the same community for similar treatment, articles and supplies furnished to injured persons of a like standard of living when the same are paid for by the injured persons. On this basis the ~~compensation judge~~ commissioner, medical services review board, or workers' compensation court of appeals on appeal may determine the reasonable value of all such services and supplies and the liability of the employer is limited to the amount so determined.

Sec. 92. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 176.136, is amended to read:

176.136 [MEDICAL FEE REVIEW.]

The commissioner of ~~insurance~~ shall by rule establish procedures for determining whether or not the charge for a health service is excessive. In order to accomplish this purpose, the commissioner of ~~insurance~~ shall consult with insurers, associations and organizations representing the medical and other providers of treatment services and other appropriate groups. The procedures established by the commissioner of ~~insurance~~ shall limit the charges allowable for medical, chiropractic, podiatric, surgical, hospital and other health care provider treatment or services, as defined and compensable under section 176.135, to the 75th percentile of usual and customary fees or charges based upon billings for each class of health care provider during all of the calendar year preceding the year in which the determination is made of the amount to be paid the health care provider for the billing. The procedures established by the commissioner for determining whether or not the charge for a health service is excessive shall be structured to encourage providers to develop and deliver services for rehabilitation of injured workers. The procedures shall incorporate the provisions of sections 144.701, 144.702, and 144.703 to the extent that the commissioner finds that these provisions effectively accomplish the intent of this section or are otherwise necessary to insure that quality hospital care is available to injured employees. If the commissioner of ~~insurance~~, a ~~compensation judge~~, medical services review board, the workers' compensation court of appeals or a district court determines that the charge for a health service or medical service is excessive, no payment in excess of the reasonable charge for that service shall be made under this chapter nor may the provider collect or attempt to collect from the injured employee or any other insurer or government amounts in excess of the amount payable under this chapter; however, the commissioner of insurance shall by rule establish procedures allowing for a provider to appeal such determination. The commissioner of insurance shall contract with a review organization as defined in section 145.61 for the purposes listed in section 145.61, subdivision 5, and report to the legislature by January 15, 1983 and thereafter on January 15 of every odd-numbered year, regarding the delivery of medical and health care services, including rehabilitation services, under the workers' compensation laws of this state.

The commissioner of insurance shall also conduct a study of the qualifications and background of rehabilitation consultants and vendors providing services under section 176.102 for the purpose of determining whether there are adequate professional standards provided, including safeguards to protect against conflicts of interest. If upon the effective date of this section this study has already been conducted by the commissioner of insurance, the commissioner is not required to conduct the study.

The commissioner of insurance shall adopt temporary rules in order to implement the provisions of this subdivision. Notwithstanding the provisions of section 14.14, subdivision 1, and any amendments, the temporary rules adopted by the commissioner of insurance pursuant to this subdivision may be extended for an additional 180 days if the procedures for adoption of a rule pursuant to sections 14.13 to 14.20 or 14.21 to 14.28, and other provisions of the administrative procedure act related to final agency action and rule adoption have not been concluded.

Any rules adopted by the commissioner of insurance pursuant to this section shall be adopted by the commissioner of labor and industry and may be amended, modified, or repealed only by the commissioner of labor and industry.

Sec. 93. [176.138] [MEDICAL DATA; ACCESS.]

Notwithstanding any other laws related to the privacy of medical data, except federal law, or any private agreements to the contrary, the release of medical data related to a current claim for compensation under this chapter to the employee, employer, or insurer who are parties to the claim, or to the department of labor and industry, shall not require prior approval of any party to the claim. Requests for pertinent data shall be made in writing to the person or organization that collected or currently possesses the data. The data shall be provided by the collector or possessor within seven working days of receiving the request. In all cases of a request for the data, except when it is the employee who is making the request, the employee shall be sent written notification of the request by the party requesting the data at the same time the request is made. This data shall be treated as private data by the party who requests or receives the data and the employee or the employee's attorney shall be provided with a copy of all data requested.

The commissioner may impose a penalty of up to $200 payable to the special compensation fund against a party who does not release the data in a timely manner. A party who does not treat this data as private pursuant to this section is guilty of a misdemeanor.

Sec. 94. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 176.155, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [REFUSAL TO BE EXAMINED.] If the injured employee refuses to comply with any reasonable request for examination, ~~his~~ the right to compensation may be suspended by order of the division, a compensation judge or workers' compensation court of appeals in a matter before it, and no compensation shall be paid while ~~he~~ the employee continues in ~~such~~ the refusal.

Sec. 95. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 176.155, subdivision 5, is amended to read:

Subd. 5. [TESTIMONY OF ~~EXAMINING PHYSICIANS HEALTH CARE PROVIDER.~~] Any physician or other health care provider designated by the commissioner of ~~the department of labor and industry,~~ compensation judge, or workers' compensation court of appeals or whose services are furnished or paid for by the employer, who treats ~~or who makes,~~ examines, or is present at any examination, of an injured employee, may be required to testify as to any knowledge acquired by ~~him~~ the physician or health care provider in the course of ~~such~~ the treatment or examination relative to the injury or disability resulting ~~therefrom~~ from the injury only if the commissioner or a compensation judge makes a written finding that the appearance of the physician or health care provider is crucial to the accurate determination of the employee's disability. In all other cases all medical evidence must be submitted by written report as prescribed by the chief hearing examiner. A party may cross-examine by deposition a physician or health care provider who has examined or treated the employee. If a physician or health care provider is not available for cross-examination prior to the hearing and the physician's or health care provider's written report is submitted at the hearing, the compensation judge shall, upon request of the adverse party, require the physician or health care provider to testify at the hearing for the purpose of being cross-examined by the adverse party. All written medical evidence must be submitted prior to or at the time of the hearing and no evidence shall be considered which was submitted after the hearing unless the compensation judge orders otherwise.

Sec. 96. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 176.179, is amended to read:

176.179 [PAYMENTS OF COMPENSATION RECEIVED IN GOOD FAITH.]

Notwithstanding section 176.521, subdivision 3, or any other provision of this chapter to the contrary, except as provided in this section, no lump sum or weekly payment, or settlement, which is voluntarily paid to an injured employee or the survivors of a deceased employee in apparent or seeming accordance with the provisions of this chapter by an employer or insurer, or is paid pursuant to an order of the workers' compensation division, a compensation judge, or court of appeals relative to a claim by an injured employee or ~~his~~ the employee's survivors, and received in good faith by the employee or ~~his~~ the employee's survivors shall be refunded to the paying employer or insurer in the event that it is subsequently determined that the payment was made under a mistake in fact or law by the employer or insurer. When the payments have been made to a person who is entitled to receive further payments of compensation for the same injury, the mistaken compensation may be taken as a credit against future benefit entitlement; provided, however, that the credit applied against further payments of temporary total disability, temporary partial disability, permanent total disability, retraining benefits or death benefits shall not exceed 20 percent of the amount that would otherwise be payable.

Sec. 97. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 176.182, is amended to read:

176.182 [BUSINESS LICENSES OR PERMITS; COVERAGE REQUIRED.]

Every state or local licensing agency shall withhold the issuance of a license or permit to operate a business in Minnesota until the applicant presents acceptable evidence of compliance with the workers' compensation insurance coverage requirement of section 176.181, subdivision 2.

Neither the state nor any governmental subdivision thereof shall enter into any contract for the doing of any public work before receiving from all other contracting parties acceptable evidence of compliance with the workers' compensation insurance coverage requirement of section 176.181, subdivision 2.

This section shall not be construed to create any liability on the part of the state or any governmental subdivision to pay workers' compensation benefits or to indemnify the special compensation fund, an employer, or insurer who pays workers' compensation benefits.

Sec. 98. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 176.183, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. When any employee ~~shall sustain~~ sustains an injury arising out of and in the course of ~~his~~ employment while in the employ of an employer, other than the state or its political subdivisions, not insured or self-insured as provided for in this chapter, the employee or ~~his~~ the employee's dependents shall nevertheless receive benefits as provided for ~~therein in this chapter~~ from the special compensation fund, and the ~~state treasurer as custodian of such fund shall have~~ commissioner has a cause of action against ~~such the~~ employer for reimbursement for all moneys paid out or to be paid out, and, in the discretion of the court, as punitive damages an additional amount not exceeding 50 percent of all moneys paid out or to be paid out. An action to recover ~~such the~~ moneys shall be instituted unless the ~~custodian~~ commissioner determines that no recovery is possible. All moneys recovered shall be deposited in the general fund. There shall be no payment from the special compensation fund if there is liability for the injury under the provisions of section 176.215, by an insurer or self-insurer.

Sec. 99. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 176.183, subdivision 1a, is amended to read:

Subd. 1a. When an employee or ~~his~~ the employee's dependent is entitled to benefits under this chapter from a self-insurer, present or past, other than the state and its municipal subdivisions, but ~~the self-insurer fails to be paid~~ they pay the benefits, the employee or ~~his~~ the employee's dependents, regardless of the date when the accident, personal injury, occupational disease, or death occurred, shall nevertheless receive ~~such the~~ benefits from the special compensation fund; and. The state treasurer as ~~eustodian of such fund~~ shall ~~have~~ ~~commissioner~~ has a cause of action against ~~such the~~ self-insuring employer for reimbursement; for all ~~moneys~~ benefits and other expenditures paid out or to be paid out and, in the discretion of the court, as the self-insurer is liable for punitive damages in an ~~additional~~ amount not to exceed 50 percent of the total of all ~~moneys~~ benefits and other expenditures paid out or to be paid out. The commissioner shall institute an action to recover ~~such moneys~~ shall be ~~instituted~~ the total expenditures from the fund unless the ~~eustodian~~ commissioner determines that no recovery is possible. All ~~moneys~~ proceeds recovered shall be deposited in the general fund.

Sec. 100. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 176.183, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 3. (a) Notwithstanding subdivision 2, the commissioner may direct payment from the special compensation fund for compensation payable pursuant to subdivisions 1 and 1a, including benefits payable under sections 176.102 and 176.135, prior to issuance of an order of a compensation judge or the workers' compensation court of appeals directing payment or awarding compensation.

(b) The commissioner may suspend or terminate an order under clause (a) for good cause as determined by the commissioner.

Sec. 101. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 176.183, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 4. If the commissioner authorizes the special fund to commence payment under this section, the commissioner shall serve by certified mail notice upon the employer and other interested parties of the intention to commence payment. This notice shall be served at least ten calendar days before commencing payment and shall be mailed to the last known address of the parties. The notice shall include a statement that failure of the employer to respond within ten calendar days of the date of service will be deemed acceptance by the employer of the proposed action by the commissioner and will be deemed a waiver of defenses the employer has to a subrogation or indemnity action by the commissioner. At any time prior to final determination of liability, the employer may appear as a party and present defenses the employer has, whether or not an appearance by the employer has previously been made in the matter. The commissioner has a cause of action against the employer to recover compensation paid by the special fund under this section.

Sec. 102. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 176.185, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 10. [DATA COLLECTION CONTRACTS.] The commissioner may contract with other parties regarding the collection of appropriate data to assist in meeting the requirements of this section.

Sec. 103. [176.186] [RECORDS FROM OTHER STATE AGENCIES.] Notwithstanding any other state law to the contrary, the commissioner may obtain from the department of revenue, department of economic security, and office of the secretary of state, or any other state agency, upon request, names or lists of employers doing business in the state. This information shall be treated by the commissioner in the manner provided by chapter 13 and shall be used only for insurance verification by the commissioner.

Sec. 104. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 176.191, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 5. Where a dispute exists between an employer, insurer, the special compensation fund, the reopened case fund, or the workers' compensation reinsurance association, regarding benefits payable under this chapter, the dispute may be submitted with consent of all interested parties to binding arbitration pursuant to the rules of the American arbitration association. The decision of the arbitrator shall be conclusive with respect to all issues presented except as provided in subdivisions 6 and 7. Consent of the employee is not required for submission of a dispute to arbitration pursuant to this section and the employee is not bound by the results of the arbitration. An arbitration award shall not be admissible in any other proceeding under this chapter. Notice of the proceeding shall be given to the employee.

The employee, or any person with material information to the facts to be arbitrated, shall attend the arbitration proceeding if any party to the proceeding deems it necessary. Nothing said by an employee in connection with any arbitration proceeding may be used against the employee in any other proceeding under this chapter. Reasonable expenses of meals, lost wages, and travel of the employee or witnesses in attending shall be reimbursed on a pro rata basis.

Sec. 105. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 176.191, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 6. If the employee commences an action under this chapter for benefits arising out of the same injury which resulted in the dispute arbitrated under subdivision 5, and if the benefits awarded to the employee under the employee's claim are inconsistent with the arbitration decision, any increase in benefits over those paid pursuant to the arbitration proceeding is paid by the party or parties who ordinarily would have been required to pay the increased benefits but for the arbitration. Any reimbursement from the employee of any decrease in benefits from those paid pursuant to the arbitration is paid to the party or parties who previously had paid the increased benefits. The provisions of this subdivision apply regardless of whether more or fewer employers and insurers or the special fund have been added or omitted as parties to the employee's subsequent action after arbitration.

Sec. 106. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 176.191, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 7. If an employee brings an action under the circumstances described in subdivision 6, the parties to the previous arbitration may be represented at the new action by a common or joint attorney.

Sec. 107. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 176.191, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 8. No attorney's fees shall be awarded under either section 176.081, subdivision 8, or 176.191 against any employer or insurer in connection with any arbitration proceeding unless the employee chooses to retain an attorney to represent the employee's interests during arbitration.

Sec. 108. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 176.195, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 1a. [ADDITIONAL GROUNDS.] Where an insurer or agent of an insurer has failed to comply with provisions of this chapter, other than the provisions in subdivision 1, the commissioner of insurance may revoke the license of the insurer to write workers' compensation insurance.

Sec. 109. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 176.195, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [COMMENCEMENT OF PROCEEDINGS.] Such The commissioner of insurance may act under subdivision 1 or subdivision 1a upon his own motion, the recommendation of the commissioner of the department of labor and industry, the chief hearing examiner, or the workers' compensation court of appeals, or the complaint of any interested person.

Sec. 110. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 176.195, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 7. [REPORT TO COMMISSIONER OF INSURANCE.] The commissioner may send reports to the commissioner of insurance regarding compliance with this chapter by insurers writing workers' compensation insurance. A report may include a recommendation for revocation of an insurer's license under this section and may also recommend the imposition of other penalties which may be imposed upon insurers by the commissioner of insurance.

Sec. 111. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 176.221, is amended to read:

176.221 [PAYMENT OF COMPENSATION AND TREATMENT CHARGES, COMMENCEMENT.]

Subdivision 1. [COMMENCEMENT OF PAYMENT.] Within 14 days of notice to or knowledge by the employer of an injury compensable under this chapter the payment of temporary total compensation due pursuant to section 176.101, subdivision 4, shall commence. Commencement of payment by an employer or insurer does not waive any rights to any defense the employer may have on any claim or incident either with respect to the compensability of the claim under chapter 176 or the amount of the compensation due. Where there are multiple employers, the first employer shall pay, unless it is shown that the injury has arisen out of employment with the second or subsequent employer. When If the employer or insurer has commenced payment of compensation under this subdivision but determines within 30 days of notice to or knowledge by the employer of the injury that the disability is not a result of a personal injury, payment of compensation may be discontinued terminated upon notice of discontinuance pursuant to section 176.241 the filing of a notice of denial of liability. Upon the determination termination, payments made may be recovered by the employer if the commissioner or compensation judge finds that the employee's claim of work related disability was not made in good faith. A notice of denial of liability must state in detail specific reasons explaining why the claimed injury or occupational disease was determined not to be within the scope and course of employment and shall include the name and telephone number of the person making this determination.

Subd. 2. [GRANT OF EXTENSION.] Upon application made within 30 days after the date on which the first payment was due of notice to or knowledge by the employer of the injury, the commissioner may grant an extension of time within which to determine liability. The extension shall not exceed 30 days from the date the request for extension is made. The application or grant of extension does not release the employer of the obligation to commence payment under subdivision 1 or to continue payments.

Subd. 3. [PAYMENTS TO SPECIAL COMPENSATION FUND.] Where an employer or insurer fails to begin payment of compensation, charges for treatment under section 176.135 or retraining expenses under 176.102, subdivision 9 pursuant to subdivision 1, or to file a denial of liability within the 14-day period referred to in subdivision 1, or to request an extension of time within 30 days after the date on which the first payment was due, he ~~it~~ shall pay to the special compensation fund an amount equal to the total amount of compensation to which the employee is entitled because of the injury. ~~In addition, each day subsequent to the end of the period and until a to receive up to the date compensation payment is made to the injured employee, the person responsible for payment of compensation shall pay to the special compensation fund an amount equal to the total compensation to which the injured employee is entitled.~~

Subd. 4. [FAILURE TO MAKE PAYMENTS AFTER EXTENSION.] ~~Where an employer or insurer has been granted an extension of time within which to determine liability and fails to begin payment of compensation, charges for treatment under section 176.135 or retraining expenses under 176.102, subdivision 9 or to file a denial of liability within such extended period, he shall make the payments provided in subdivision 3.~~

Subd. 5. [DOUBLE PAYMENTS TO SPECIAL COMPENSATION FUND.] Where an employer or insurer has failed to make the payments required by subdivision 3 or subdivision 4 within 30 days from the end of the period of the extended period, the division may require him to pay to the special compensation fund, each day subsequent to the end of the period and until a compensation payment is made to the injured employee, a sum equal to double the total amount of compensation to which the employee is entitled because of the injury. ~~In addition, the person responsible for compensation, charges for treatment under section 176.135 or retraining expenses under 176.102, subdivision 9 shall pay to the special compensation fund an amount equal to the total amount of compensation to which the employee is entitled.~~

Subd. 6. [ASSESSMENT OF PENALTIES.] The division or compensation judge shall assess the penalty payments provided for by subdivisions subdivision 3 to 5, and any increase in benefit payments provided by section 176.225, subdivision 5, against either the employer or the insurer depending upon to whom the delay is attributable in making payment of compensation, charges for treatment under section 176.135 or retraining expenses under 176.102, subdivision 9. The insurer is not liable for a penalty payment assessed against it even if the delay is attributable to the employer.

An insurer who has paid a penalty under this section may recover from the employer the portion of the penalty attributable to the acts of the employer which resulted in the delay. This recovery may be sought before a compensation judge or hearing examiner, whomever the chief hearing examiner deems appropriate.

Subd. 6a. [MEDICAL, REHABILITATION, ECONOMIC RECOVERY, AND IMPAIRMENT COMPENSATION.] The penalties provided by this section apply in cases where payment for treatment under section 176.135, rehabilitation expenses under section 176.102, subdivision 9, economic recovery compensation or impairment compensation are not made in a timely manner as required by law or by rule adopted by the commissioner.

Subd. 7. [INTEREST.] Any payment of compensation, charges for treatment under section 176.135 or ~~retraining~~ rehabilitation expenses under 176.102, subdivision 9 not made when due shall bear interest at the rate of eight percent ~~per annum~~ a year from the due date to the date the payment is made or the rate set by section 549.09, subdivision 1, whichever is greater.

Subd. 8. [METHOD AND TIMELINESS OF PAYMENT.] Payment of compensation under this chapter shall be by immediately payable negotiable instrument, or if by any other method, arrangements shall be available to provide for the immediate negotiability of the payment instrument.

All payment of compensation shall be made within 14 days of the filing of an appropriate order by the division or a compensation judge, unless the order is to be appealed; or where if a different time period is provided by this chapter.

Sec. 112. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 176.225, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [GROUNDS.] Upon reasonable notice and hearing or opportunity to be heard, the division, a compensation judge, or upon appeal, the workers' compensation court of appeals or the supreme court may award compensation, in addition to the total amount of compensation award, of up to 25 percent of that total amount where an employer or insurer has:

- (a) instituted a proceeding or interposed a defense which does not present a real controversy but which is frivolous or for the purpose of delay; or,
- (b) unreasonably or vexatiously delayed payment; or,
- (c) neglected or refused to pay compensation; or,
- (d) intentionally underpaid compensation.

Sec. 113. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 176.225, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [EXAMINATION OF BOOKS AND RECORDS.] To determine whether an employer or insurer ~~has become subject to~~ is liable for the payment provided by subdivision 1, the division, a compensation judge, or the workers' compensation court of appeals upon appeal may examine the books and records of the ~~person~~ employer or insurer relating to the payment of compensation, and may require ~~him~~ the employer or insurer to furnish any other information relating to the payment of compensation.

Sec. 114. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 176.225, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [DEFIANCE OF DIVISION, COMPENSATION JUDGE, OR WORKERS' COMPENSATION COURT OF APPEALS, COMPLAINT.] ~~Where~~ If an insurer persists in an action or omission listed in subdivision 1, or does not permit the examination of ~~his~~ his books and records, or fails to furnish ~~such~~ such information as required, the commissioner or the chief hearing examiner shall file a written complaint with the insurance commissioner.

The complaint shall specify the facts and recommend the revocation of the license of the insurer to do business in this state. The workers' compensation court of appeals may also file ~~such~~ a written complaint.

Sec. 115. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 176.231, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [~~PHYSICIANS, CHIROPRACTORS, OR SURGEONS OTHER HEALTH CARE PROVIDERS TO REPORT INJURIES.~~] ~~Where~~ A physician ~~or surgeon, chiropractor, or other health care provider who~~ has examined, treated, or has special knowledge of an injury to an employee which may be compensable under this chapter, ~~he~~ shall report to the commissioner of the ~~department of labor and industry~~ all facts relating to the nature and extent of the injury and disability, ~~and the treatment provided for the injury or disability,~~ within ten days after ~~he~~ the health care provider has received a written request for ~~such~~ the information from the commissioner of the ~~department of labor and industry~~ or any member or employee thereof ~~an authorized representative of the commissioner.~~

Sec. 116. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 176.231, subdivision 4, is amended to read:

Subd. 4. [SUPPLEMENTARY REPORTS.] The commissioner of the ~~department of labor and industry,~~ or any member or employee thereof, ~~an authorized representative~~ may require the filing of ~~such~~ supplementary reports of accidents as ~~it deems~~ is deemed necessary to provide information required by law.

Supplementary reports related to the current nature and extent of the employee's injury, disability, or treatment may be requested from a physician, surgeon, chiropractor, or other health care provider by the commissioner or a representative, an employer or insurer, or the employee.

Sec. 117. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 176.231, subdivision 5, is amended to read:

Subd. 5. [FORMS FOR REPORTS.] The commissioner of the ~~department of labor and industry~~ shall by rule prescribe forms for use in making the reports required by this section. The first report of injury form which the employer submits ~~with reference to an accident~~ shall include a declaration by the employer that ~~he will~~ of a promise to pay the compensation the law requires. Forms for reports required by this section shall be as prescribed by the commissioner and shall be the only forms used by an employer, insurer, self-insurer, group self-insurer, and all health care providers.

Sec. 118. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 176.231, subdivision 9, is amended to read:

Subd. 9. [USES WHICH MAY BE MADE OF REPORTS.] Reports filed with the commissioner of the ~~department of labor and industry~~ under this section may be used in hearings held under this chapter, and for the purpose of state investigations and for statistics.

The division or office of administrative hearings or workers' compensation court of appeals may permit an attorney at law who represents an employer, insurer, or an employee or ~~his~~ a dependent to examine its file in a compensation case if the attorney furnishes written authorization to do so from ~~his~~ the attorney's client. Reports filed under this section and other information the commissioner has regarding injuries or deaths shall be made available to the workers' compensation reinsurance association for use by the association in carrying out its responsibilities under chapter 79.

Sec. 119. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 176.231, subdivision 10, is amended to read:

Subd. 10. [FAILURE TO FILE REQUIRED REPORT, PENALTY.] ~~Where~~ If an employer, physician, or surgeon has failed ~~chiropractor, or other health provider fails~~ to file with the commissioner of the department of labor and industry any report required by this section in the manner and within the time limitations prescribed, ~~he shall forfeit to the state $50 or otherwise fails to provide a report required by this section in the manner provided by this section, the commissioner may impose a penalty of up to $200 for each such failure.~~

The attorney general shall sue in a civil action to collect this penalty upon notification of the matter by the commissioner of the department of labor and industry. The commissioner of the department of labor and industry shall certify to the attorney general each failure to report immediately upon its occurrence.

Penalties collected by the state under this subdivision shall be paid into the state treasury.

Sec. 120. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 176.241, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [CONTINUANCE OF EMPLOYER'S LIABILITY; SUSPENSION.] Except ~~where~~ when the commissioner orders otherwise, until the copy of the notice and reports have been filed with the division, the liability of the employer to make payments of compensation continues.

When the division has received a copy of the notice of discontinuance, the statement of facts and available medical reports, the duty of the employer to pay compensation is suspended pending an investigation, hearing, and determination of the matter by the division or compensation judge as provided in the following subdivisions.

Sec. 121. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 176.241, subdivision 4, is amended to read:

Subd. 4. [ORDER.] When the hearing has been held, and ~~he has duly considered~~ the evidence duly considered, the person who held the hearing shall promptly enter an order directing the payment of further compensation or confirming the termination of compensation. ~~Where~~ If the order confirms a termination of compensation, ~~the commissioner of labor and industry shall notify the employer of the action.~~ This notification the service and filing of the order relieves the employer from further liability for compensation subject to the right of review afforded by this chapter, and to the right of the ~~division~~ compensation judge to set aside the order at any time prior to the review and to grant a new hearing pursuant to this chapter. Once an appeal to the workers' compensation court of appeals is filed, a compensation judge may not set aside the order but the court of appeals may remand the matter to a compensation judge for a new hearing.

Sec. 122. [176.242] [ADMINISTRATIVE CONFERENCE PRIOR TO DISCONTINUANCE OF COMPENSATION.]

Subdivision 1. [NOTICE OF DISCONTINUANCE; GROUNDS.] If an employer or insurer files a notice of intention to discontinue, the employer or insurer shall serve a copy upon the commissioner and the employee including detailed reasons for the intended discontinuance.

Subd. 2. [CONFERENCE, REQUEST.] (a) The employee has ten calendar days from the date the notice was served to request that the commissioner schedule an administrative conference to determine the appropriateness of the proposed discontinuance. The employer or insurer may request an administrative conference under this section at any time whether or not a notice of intent to discontinue is filed. The commissioner shall schedule an administrative conference to be held within ten calendar days after the commissioner receives timely notice of the employee's or employer's request for an administrative conference.

(b) If the employee does not, in a timely manner, request that the commissioner schedule an administrative conference, or fails to appear at a scheduled conference unless a continuance is granted under clause (c), compensation may be discontinued, subject to the employee's right under section 176.241. This discontinuance shall occur when the commissioner notifies the employer or insurer of the employee's failure to request a conference or of the employee's failure to appear at a scheduled conference.

(c) An employee or employer may request a continuance of a scheduled administrative conference. If the commissioner determines that a continuance is appropriate the commissioner may grant the continuance which shall not exceed ten calendar days. No more than one continuance shall be granted.

(d) The purpose of an administrative conference is to determine whether reasonable grounds exist for a discontinuance and to clarify issues and resolve disputes regarding the discontinuance.

Subd. 3. [NECESSITY FOR CONFERENCE, COMMISSIONER'S DISCRETION.] The commissioner may determine that no administrative conference is necessary under this section and permit the employer or insurer to discontinue compensation, subject to the employee's right under section 176.241.

The commissioner may permit compensation to be discontinued at any time after a notice pursuant to subdivision 1 is received even if no administrative conference has been held, if the commissioner deems the discontinuance appropriate based on the information the commissioner has, subject to the employee's right under section 176.241.

Subd. 4. [ADMINISTRATIVE DECISION.] After considering the information provided by the parties at the administrative conference, the commissioner shall issue to all interested parties a written administrative decision permitting or denying the employer's or insurer's request to discontinue compensation. The decision shall be issued within five working days from the close of the conference. The commissioner's decision is binding on the parties. The commissioner shall advise all parties of the right to petition to the chief hearing examiner under section 176.241 and of the right to be repre- sented by an attorney at a hearing before a compensation judge.

Subd. 5. [OBJECTION TO DECISION.] If the commissioner grants the employer's or insurer's request to discontinue compensation and the employee objects to the discontinuance, the employee may file an objection to discontinuance under section 176.241. If the commissioner denies the request to discontinue compensation the employer or insurer may file a petition to discontinue under section 176.241.

Subd. 6. [EFFECT OF DECISION, APPEAL.] If an objection or a petition is filed under subdivision 5, the commissioner's administrative decision remains in effect and the parties obligations or rights to pay or receive compensation are governed by the commissioner's administrative decision, pending a determination by a compensation judge.

Subd. 7. [DECISION AS NOTICE.] If a party proceeds under subdivision 5, the commissioner's administrative decision under this section is deemed required notice to interested parties under section 176.241 and the commissioner's obligations under section 176.241 are deemed to be met.

Subd. 8. [WHEN DISCONTINUANCE ALLOWED.] Compensation shall not be discontinued prior to an administrative conference except as provided under subdivision 2, clause (b), or if the commissioner determines pursuant to subdivision 3 that no administrative conference is necessary. The employer may discontinue compensation immediately without having an administrative conference if the discontinuance is because the employee has returned to work.

Subd. 9. [NOTICE, FORMS.] Notice to the employee under subdivision 1 shall be on forms prescribed by the commissioner.

Subd. 10. [FINES, VIOLATIONS.] An employer or insurer who discontinues compensation in violation of this section is subject to a fine of up to $500 for each violation. Fines shall be paid to the special compensation fund.

Subd. 11. [APPLICATION.] This section is applicable to any notice of intent to discontinue which is filed after the effective date of this section, even if the injury occurred prior to the effective date of this section.

Sec. 123. [176.243] [ADMINISTRATIVE CONFERENCE FOLLOWING RETURN TO WORK, SUBSEQUENT INABILITY TO WORK.]

Subdivision 1. [CONFIRMATION OF EMPLOYMENT AND WAGES.] If an insurer has discontinued compensation to an employee because the employee has returned to work, the insurer shall contact the employer by whom the employee is employed 14 calendar days after return to work. The insurer shall determine whether the employee is still employed after 14 days and shall also ascertain the wages being paid to the employee.

Subd. 2. [NOTICE TO COMMISSIONER.] If upon contact the insurer determines that the employee is not working or that the employee is earning a lower wage than at the time of the injury, the insurer shall notify the commissioner in writing of this fact and shall also state the actions that the insurer has taken or intends to take regarding payment of compensation. A copy of this notice shall be served by the insurer by certified mail to the employee.

Subd. 3. [EMPLOYEE REQUEST FOR ADMINISTRATIVE CONFER-

ENCE.] If the employee objects to the action of the insurer regarding payment of compensation upon the cessation of work by the employee, the employee may request an administrative conference with the commissioner to resolve disputed issues. A request for an administrative conference shall be made within ten calendar days after service of the notice on the employee. If the employee requests an administrative conference the commissioner shall schedule a conference to be held within 14 calendar days after the commissioner receives the request.

Subd. 4. [ADMINISTRATIVE DECISION.] After considering the information provided by the parties at the administrative conference the commissioner shall issue to all interested parties a written administrative decision regarding payment of compensation. The commissioner's decision is binding upon the parties and the rights and obligations of the parties are governed by the decision. The commissioner shall advise all parties of the right to petition to the chief hearing examiner under section 176.241 and of the right to be represented by an attorney at a hearing before a compensation judge. A party aggrieved by the commissioner's decision may proceed under section 176.241.

Subd. 5. [DECISION BINDING PENDING COMPENSATION JUDGE DECISION.] If an aggrieved party files a petition under section 176.241, the commissioner's administrative decision remains in effect pending a determination by a compensation judge.

Subd. 6. [DECISION AS NOTICE.] If a party proceeds under section 176.241, the commissioner's administrative decision is deemed to fulfill the division's obligations under section 176.241.

Subd. 7. [OBLIGATIONS PRIOR TO ADMINISTRATIVE DECISION.] If an insurer has not voluntarily recommenced compensation following the employee's cessation of work the insurer is not obligated to do so until an administrative conference is held and unless the commissioner determines that compensation shall be recommenced.

Subd. 8. [NECESSITY OF ADMINISTRATIVE CONFERENCE.] If the commissioner deems it appropriate, based upon information the commissioner has, the commissioner may determine that an administrative conference is not necessary, in which case a party may proceed under section 176.241.

Subd. 9. [APPLICATION OF SECTION.] This section applies only when the employee has received at least 60 days of temporary total or temporary partial compensation prior to return to work.

Subd. 10. [NOTICE FORMS.] A notice under this section shall be on a form prescribed by the commissioner.

Subd. 11. [FINES, VIOLATIONS.] An employer or insurer who violates this section is subject to a fine of up to $500 for each violation which shall be paid to the special compensation fund.

Subd. 12. [APPLICATION.] This section is applicable to all cases in which a return to work has occurred after the effective date of this section even if the injury occurred prior to the effective date.

Sec. 124. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 176.281, is amended to read:

176.281 [ORDERS, DECISIONS, AND AWARDS; FILING; SERVICE.]

When the commissioner or compensation judge or office of administrative hearings or the workers' compensation court of appeals has rendered ~~an~~ a final order, decision, or award, or amendment to an order, decision, or award, it shall be filed immediately with the commissioner. ~~Where~~ If the commissioner, compensation judge, office of administrative hearings, or workers' compensation court of appeals has rendered ~~an~~ a final order, decision, or award, or amendment thereto, the commissioner or the office of administrative hearings or the workers' compensation court of appeals shall immediately serve a copy upon every party in interest, together with a notification of the ~~time date~~ the ~~same~~ order was filed.

Sec. 125. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 176.285, is amended to read:

176.285 [SERVICE OF PAPERS AND NOTICES.]

Service of papers and notices shall be by mail or ~~by such other means otherwise~~ as the commissioner of the department of labor and industry directs or the chief hearing examiner may by rule direct. Where service is by mail, service is effected at the time mailed if properly addressed and stamped. If it is so mailed, it is presumed the paper or notice reached the party to be served. However, a party may show by competent evidence that ~~he~~ that party did not receive it or that it had been delayed in transit for an unusual or unreasonable period of time. In case of ~~such~~ non-receipt or delay, an allowance shall be made for the party's failure to assert a right within the prescribed time.

The commissioner of the department of labor and industry and the chief hearing examiner shall ~~keep a careful record of each service including the time when made~~ ensure that proof of service of all papers and notices served by their respective agencies is placed in the official file of the case.

Sec. 126. [176.312] [AFFIDAVIT OF PREJUDICE.]

An affidavit of prejudice for cause may be filed by a party to the claim against a compensation judge, in the same manner as an affidavit of prejudice is filed pursuant to law or rule of district court. The filing of an affidavit of prejudice against a compensation judge has the same effect and shall be treated in the same manner as in district court.

Sec. 127. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 176.321, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [FILING, SERVICE.] Within ~~twenty~~ 20 days after he has been served with a copy service of the petition, an adverse party ~~may~~ shall serve and file a verified answer to the petition. ~~When he files the answer,~~ The party shall ~~also~~ serve a copy of the answer on the petitioner or his the petitioner's attorney.

~~Within five days after he has been served with a copy of the answer, the petitioner may file a verified reply admitting or denying new matter set forth in the answer.~~

Sec. 128. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 176.331, is amended to read:

176.331 [AWARD BY DEFAULT.]

~~Where~~ If an adverse party has failed fails to file and serve an answer, ~~if and~~ the petitioner presents proof of ~~such~~ this fact, the commissioner or compensation judge ~~shall~~ may enter whatever award or order to which the petitioner is entitled on the basis of the facts alleged in the petition, but the compensation judge may require proof of an alleged fact. If the commissioner requires ~~such~~ proof, ~~he~~ the commissioner shall request the chief hearing examiner to assign the matter to a compensation judge to ~~summarily hear and determine the same for an immediate hearing and to promptly make an prompt~~ award or other order.

Where in ~~such~~ a default case the petition does not state facts sufficient to support an award, the compensation judge shall give the petitioner or ~~his~~ the petitioner's attorney written notice of this deficiency. The petitioner may thereupon serve and file another petition as in the case of an original petition.

Sec. 129. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 176.341, is amended to read:

176.341 [HEARING ON PETITION.]

Subdivision 1. [TIME.] ~~When the reply has been filed or the time has expired in which to file a reply~~ Upon receipt of a matter from the commissioner, the chief hearing examiner shall fix a time and place for hearing the petition. The hearing shall be held as soon as practicable and at a time and place determined by the chief hearing examiner to be the most convenient for the parties, keeping in mind the intent of chapter 176 as expressed in ~~section 176.004 and the requirements of section 176.306.~~

Subd. 2. [PLACE.] Unless otherwise ordered by the ~~commissioner of the department of labor and industry or compensation judge~~ chief hearing examiner, the hearing shall be held in the county where the injury or death occurred.

Subd. 3. [NOTICE MAILED TO EACH PARTY.] At least ~~five~~ 30 days prior to the date of hearing, the ~~workers' compensation division~~ chief hearing examiner shall mail a notice of the time and place of hearing to each interested party. This subdivision does not apply to hearings which have been continued from an earlier date. In those cases, the notice shall be given in a manner deemed appropriate by the chief hearing examiner after considering the particular circumstances in each case.

Sec. 130. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 176.361, is amended to read:

176.361 [INTERVENTION.]

~~Where~~ A person who has an interest in any matter before the workers' compensation court of appeals, or commissioner, or compensation judge ~~of such a character that he~~ the person may either gain or lose by an order or decision; ~~he~~ may intervene in the proceeding by filing an application in writing stating the facts which show ~~such~~ the interest.

The commissioner of the department of labor and industry and workers' compensation court of appeals shall adopt rules to govern the procedure for intervention.

Sec. 131. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 176.371, is amended to read:

176.371 [AWARD OR DISALLOWANCE OF COMPENSATION.]

The compensation judge to whom a petition has been assigned for hearing, shall hear all competent, relevant evidence produced at the hearing, and, as soon after the hearing as possible, make findings of fact, conclusions of law. All questions of fact and law submitted to a compensation judge at the hearing shall be disposed of and the judge's decision shall be filed with the commissioner within 60 days after the submission, unless sickness or casualty prevents a timely filing, or the time is extended by written consent of the parties, or the chief hearing examiner extends the time for good cause. The compensation judge's decision shall include a determination of all contested issues of fact and law and an award or disallowance of compensation or other order as the pleadings, evidence, this chapter and rule require. A compensation judge's decision shall include a memorandum only if necessary to delineate the reasons for the decision or to discuss the credibility of witnesses. A memorandum shall not contain a recitation of the evidence presented at the hearing but shall be limited to the compensation judge's basis for the decision.

No part of the salary of a compensation judge shall be paid unless the chief hearing examiner determines that all decisions of that judge have been issued within the time limit prescribed by this section.

Sec. 132. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 176.421, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [NOTICE OF APPEAL.] The appellant or his the appellant's attorney shall prepare and sign a written notice of appeal specifying:

- (1) the order appealed from;
- (2) that appellant appeals from the order to the workers' compensation court of appeals;
- (3) the particular finding of fact or conclusion of law which he the appellant claims was unwarranted by the evidence or procured by fraud, coercion, or other improper conduct; and
- (4) the testimony or other part of the record of the hearing necessary to be transcribed in order for the court of appeals to consider the appeal; and;
- (5) any other ground upon which the appeal is taken.

Sec. 133. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 176.421, subdivision 4, is amended to read:

Subd. 4. [SERVICE AND FILING OF NOTICE; COST OF TRANSCRIPT.] Within the 30 day period for taking an appeal, the appellant shall:

- (1) Serve a copy of the notice of appeal on each adverse party;
- (2) File the original notice, with proof of service by admission or affidavit, with the chief hearing examiner and file a copy with the commissioner;
- (3) In order to defray the cost of the preparation of the record of the proceedings appealed from, pay to the state treasurer, office of administrative hearings account the sum of $25; and
- (4) Submit a request that the chief hearing examiner order the preparation of a transcript of that part of the hearing delineated in the notice of appeal.

A party who desires a transcript of more of the hearing than has been re~~quested by the appellant shall, within five working days of service of the notice of appeal, make a request of the chief hearing examiner that the additional testimony be transcribed.~~

~~The first party requesting the preparation of the transcript or any part to file an appeal is liable for the original cost of preparation of the transcript. Cross-appellants or any other persons requesting a copy of the transcript are liable for the cost of the copy. The cost of a transcript prepared by a non-governmental source shall be paid directly to that source and shall not exceed the cost that the source would be able to charge the state for the same service.~~

Upon a showing of cause, the chief hearing examiner may direct that a transcript be prepared without expense to the party requesting its preparation, in which case the cost of the transcript shall be paid by the office of administrative hearings.

All fees received by the office of administrative hearings for the preparation of the record for submission to the workers' compensation court of appeals or for the cost of transcripts prepared by the office shall be deposited in the office of administrative hearings account in the state treasury and shall be used solely for the purpose of keeping the record of hearings conducted under this chapter and the preparation of transcripts of those hearings.

Sec. 134. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 176.421, subdivision 6, is amended to read:

Subd. 6. [POWERS OF WORKERS' COMPENSATION COURT OF APPEALS ON APPEAL.] On an appeal taken under this section, the workers' compensation court of ~~appeals~~ appeals' review is limited to the issues raised by the parties in the notice of appeal or by a cross-appeal. In these cases, on those issues raised by the appeal, the workers' compensation court of appeals may:

- (1) disregard the findings of fact which the compensation judge has made;
- (2) examine the record;
- (3) substitute for the findings of fact made by the compensation judge such findings as the total evidence requires; and,
- (4) make an award or disallowance of compensation or other order as the facts and findings require.

Sec. 135. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 176.421, subdivision 7, is amended to read:

Subd. 7. [RECORD OF PROCEEDINGS.] At the division's own expense, the commissioner shall make a complete record of all proceedings before ~~himself~~ the commissioner and shall provide a stenographer or an audio magnetic recording device to make a the record of the proceedings before him.

The commissioner shall furnish a transcript of these proceedings to any person who requests it and who pays a reasonable charge ~~and shall fix the amount of this charge which shall be set by the commissioner.~~ Upon a showing of cause, the commissioner may direct that a transcript be prepared without expense to the person requesting the transcript, in which case the cost of the transcript shall be paid by the division. Transcript fees received under this subdivision shall be paid to the workers' compensation division account in the state treasury and shall be annually appropriated to the division for the sole purpose of providing a record and transcripts as provided in this subdivision.

Sec. 136. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 176.442, is amended to read:

176.442 [APPEALS FROM DECISIONS OF COMMISSIONER OF DEPARTMENT OF LABOR AND INDUSTRY.]

Any decision or determination of the commissioner of ~~the department of labor and industry~~ affecting a right, privilege, benefit, or duty which is imposed or conferred under this chapter is subject to review by the workers' compensation court of appeals. A person aggrieved by ~~such~~ the determination may appeal to the workers' compensation court of appeals by filing a notice of appeal with the commissioner in the same manner and within the same time as if the appeal were from an order or decision of a compensation judge to the workers' compensation court of appeals.

Sec. 137. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 176.461, is amended to read:

176.461 [SETTING ASIDE AWARD.]

Except ~~where~~ when a writ of certiorari has been issued by the supreme court and the matter is still pending in that court or ~~where~~ if as a matter of law the determination of the supreme court cannot be subsequently modified, the workers' compensation court of appeals, for cause, at any time after an award, upon application of either party and not less than five working days after written notice to all interested parties, may set the award aside and grant a new hearing and refer the matter for a determination on its merits to the chief hearing examiner for assignment to a compensation judge, who shall make ~~such~~ findings of fact, conclusions of law, and an order of award or disallowance of compensation or other order as based on the pleadings and the evidence produced and as required by the provisions of this chapter ~~shall require or rules adopted under it.~~

Sec. 138. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 176.521, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [APPROVAL.] Settlements shall be approved only where the terms conform with this chapter.

The division, a compensation judge, the workers' compensation court of appeals, and the district court shall exercise discretion in approving or disapproving a proposed settlement.

The parties to the agreement of settlement have the burden of proving that the settlement is reasonable, fair, and in conformity with this chapter. A settlement agreement where both the employee or his dependent and the employer or insurer and intervenors in the matter are represented by an attorney shall be conclusively presumed to be reasonable, fair, and in conformity with this chapter except when the settlement purports to be a full, final, and complete settlement of an employee's right to medical compensation under this chapter or rehabilitation under section 176.102. A settlement which purports to do so must be approved by the division, a compensation judge, or workers' compensation court of appeals.

The conclusive presumption in this subdivision applies to a settlement agreement entered into on or after January 15, 1982, whether the injury to which the settlement applies occurred prior to or on or after January 15, 1982.

Sec. 139. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 176.521, subdivision 2a, is amended to read:

Subd. 2a. [SETTLEMENTS NOT SUBJECT TO APPROVAL.] When a settled case is not subject to approval, upon receipt of the stipulation for settlement, a compensation judge ~~or~~, a settlement judge, or the workers' compensation court of appeals shall immediately sign the award and file it with the commissioner. Payment pursuant to the award shall be made within 14 days after it is filed with the commissioner. The commissioner may correct mathematical or clerical errors at any time.

Sec. 140. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 176.521, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [SETTING ASIDE AWARD UPON SETTLEMENT.] Notwithstanding the provisions of section 176.521, subdivision 1, 2, or 2a, or any provision in the agreement of settlement to the contrary, upon the filing of a petition by any party to the settlement and after a hearing on the petition, the workers' compensation court of appeals may set aside an award made upon a settlement, pursuant to this chapter. In those cases, the workers' compensation court of appeals shall refer the matter to the chief hearing examiner for assignment to a compensation judge for hearing.

Sec. 141. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 176.561, is amended to read:

176.561 [WORKERS' COMPENSATION COURT OF APPEALS POWERS AND DUTIES AS TO STATE EMPLOYEES; PROCEDURE FOR DETERMINING LIABILITY.]

The division, a compensation judge and the workers' compensation court of appeals have the same powers and duties in matters relating to state employees as they have in relation to other employees.

Except as specifically provided otherwise ~~herein~~ in this chapter, the procedure for determining the liability of the state for compensation is the same as that applicable in other cases.

Sec. 142. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 176.571, subdivision 6, is amended to read:

Subd. 6. [FORMAL HEARING ON OBJECTIONS.] ~~If the commissioner of the department of labor and industry shall hold~~ determines that a formal hearing on the objections which have been filed to the proposed order where the circumstances warrant such is warranted, the commissioner shall refer the matter to the chief hearing examiner for the assignment of a compensation judge who shall hold a hearing. The hearing shall be before a compensation judge.

Sec. 143. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 176.645, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [AMOUNT.] For injuries occurring after October 1, 1975 for which benefits are payable under section 176.101, subdivisions 1, 2, 3a, and 4, and section 176.111, subdivision 5, the total benefits due the employee or any dependents shall be adjusted in accordance with this section. On October 1, 1981, and thereafter on the anniversary of the date of the employee's injury the total benefits due shall be adjusted by multiplying the total benefits due prior to each adjustment by a fraction, the denominator of which is the statewide average weekly wage for December 31, of the year two years previous to the adjustment and the numerator of which is the statewide average weekly wage for December 31, of the year previous to the adjustment. For injuries occurring after October 1, 1975, all adjustments provided for in this section shall be included in computing any benefit due under this section. Any limitations of amounts due for daily or weekly compensation under this chapter shall not apply to adjustments made under this section. No adjustment increase made on October 1, 1977 or thereafter under this section shall exceed six percent a year. In those instances where the adjustment under the formula of this section would exceed this maximum the increase shall be deemed to be six percent.

Sec. 144. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 176.66, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 10. [MULTIPLE EMPLOYERS OR INSURERS; LIABILITY.] The employer liable for the compensation under this chapter is the employer in whose employment the employee was last exposed to the hazard of the occupational disease claimed, if the employment was for six months or more, whether intermittent or consecutive. In the event that the employer who is liable for the compensation had multiple insurers during the employee's term of employment, the insurer who was on the risk during the employee's last exposure to the hazard of the occupational disease claimed is the liable party.

Sec. 145. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 176.66, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 11. [DATE OF INJURY IN OCCUPATIONAL DISEASE CASES.] In the case of a claim for occupational disease, the date of injury is the date a diagnosis is made or the date the employee displays symptoms of the disease and knows or has reason to know the symptoms are related to the hazard of occupational disease, whichever occurs first.

Sec. 146. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 176.66, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 12. [AMOUNT OF COMPENSATION.] The compensation for an occupational disease shall be 66-2/3 percent of the employee's weekly wage on the date of last exposure to the hazard of the occupational disease claimed, subject to a maximum compensation equal to the maximum compensation in effect on the date of injury as determined under subdivision 11.

Sec. 147. [176.83] [RULES.]

In addition to any other section under this chapter giving the commissioner the authority to adopt rules, the commissioner may adopt, amend, or repeal rules to implement the provisions of this chapter. The rules shall have the force and effect of law and are binding on a compensation judge, workers' compensation court of appeals, the rehabilitation review panel, and the medical services advisory board and shall include but not be limited to:

(a) rules necessary to implement and administer section 176.102, including the establishment of qualifications necessary to be a qualified rehabilitation consultant and the requirements to be an approved registered vendor of rehabilitation services including registration fees to be paid by rehabilitation consultants and approved vendors under section 176.102. The rules may also provide for penalties to be imposed by the commissioner against insurers or self-insured employers who fail to provide rehabilitation consultation to employees pursuant to section 176.102. Registration fees set by the commissioner shall be set so that the total fees received approximate the amount appropriated for the function, plus the portion of general support costs and statewide indirect costs of the agency that is attributable to the function for which the fee is charged. Subsequent fee adjustments may be made without a public hearing when the total fees estimated to be received during the fiscal biennium will not exceed the sum of all direct appropriations, indirect costs, transfers in, and salary supplements for that purpose for the biennium;

(b) rules establishing standards for reviewing and evaluating the clinical consequences of services provided by qualified rehabilitation consultants, approved registered vendors of rehabilitation services, and services provided to an employee by health care providers;

(c) rules establishing standards and procedures for determining whether or not charges for health services or rehabilitation services rendered under this chapter are excessive. In this regard, the standards and procedures shall be structured to determine what is necessary to encourage providers of health services and rehabilitation services to develop and deliver services for the rehabilitation of injured employees.

The procedures shall include standards for evaluating hospital care, other health care and rehabilitation services to insure that quality hospital, other health care, and rehabilitation is available and is provided to injured employees;

(d) rules establishing standards and procedures for determining whether a provider of health care services and rehabilitation services, including a provider of medical, chiropractic, podiatric, surgical, hospital or other services, is performing procedures or providing services at a level or with a frequency that is excessive, based upon accepted medical standards for quality health care and accepted rehabilitation standards.

If it is determined by the commissioner that the level, frequency or cost of a procedure or service of a provider is excessive according to the standards established by the rules, the provider shall not be paid for the excessive procedure, service, or cost by an insurer, self-insurer, or group self-insurer. In addition, the provider shall not be reimbursed or attempt to collect reimbursement for the excessive procedure, service, or cost from any other source, including the employee, another insurer, the special compensation fund, or any government program.

A health or rehabilitation provider who is determined by the commissioner to be consistently performing procedures or providing services at an excessive level or cost may be prohibited from receiving any further reimbursement for procedures or services provided under chapter 176. A prohibition imposed on a provider under this clause may be grounds for revocation or suspension of the provider's license or certificate of registration to provide health care or rehabilitation service in Minnesota by the appropriate licensing or certifying body.

The rules adopted under this clause shall require insurers, self-insurers, and group self-insurers to report medical and other data necessary to implement the procedures required by this clause;

(e) rules establishing procedures and standards for the certification of physicians, chiropractors, podiatrists, and other health care providers, including rules related to additional training and continuing education, in order to assure the coordination of treatment, rehabilitation, and other services and requirements of chapter 176 for carrying out the purposes and intent of this chapter;

(f) rules necessary for implementing and administering the provisions of sections 176.001, 176.131, 176.132, 176.134, article 1 of this act, sections 122 and 123; sections 176.251, 176.66 to 176.669, and rules regarding proper allocation of compensation under section 176.111;

(g) procedures required for the implementation and administration of article 1, section 77, including, but not limited to, determining the method by which an employer will be assessed for payments due under article 1, section 77, subdivision 3, and the amount of the assessment. In adopting the rule regarding the assessment, the commissioner shall consider among other things, the expenditures to be made from the fund in the next calendar year, the current fund balance, and future expenditure trends;

(h) rules establishing standards or criteria under which a physician, podiatrist, or chiropractor is selected or under which a change of physician, podiatrist, or chiropractor is allowed under section 176.135, subdivision 2;

(i) rules to govern the procedure for intervention pursuant to section 176.361;

(j) joint rules with either or both the workers' compensation court of appeals and the chief hearing examiner which may be necessary in order to provide for the orderly processing of claims or petitions made or filed pursuant to chapter 176;

(k) rules establishing criteria to be used by the division, compensation judge, and workers' compensation court of appeals to determine "suitable gainful employment" and "independent contractor";

(l) forms and other reporting procedures to be used by an employer, insurer, medical provider, qualified rehabilitation consultant, approved vendor of rehabilitation services, attorney, employee, or other person subject to the provisions of this chapter; or

(m) any other rules necessary to implement, administer, or clarify the intent of a provision of chapter 176 which are not inconsistent with the law.

The chief hearing examiner shall adopt rules relating to procedures in matters pending before a compensation judge in the office of administrative hearings.

The commissioner may adopt rules regarding requirements which must be met by individuals who are employed by insurers or self-insurers or claims servicing or adjusting agencies and who work as claims adjusters in the field of workers' compensation insurance.

The commissioner may adopt temporary rules establishing qualifications necessary to be a qualified rehabilitation consultant and penalties to be imposed against qualified rehabilitation consultants or approved vendors who violate this chapter or rules, including temporary rules, adopted under this chapter. In addition to the provisions of sections 14.29 to 14.36, at least one public hearing shall be held prior to the adoption of these temporary rules.

Sec. 148. [176.84] [SPECIFICITY OF NOTICE OR STATEMENT.]

All notices or statements required by this chapter including, but not limited to, notices or statements pursuant to sections 176.102; article 1, section 68; 176.221; 176.241; article 1, sections 122 and 123, shall be sufficiently specific to convey clearly, without further inquiry, the basis upon which the party issuing the notice or statement is acting. If the commissioner or compensation judge determines that a notice or statement is not sufficiently specific to meet the standard under this section, the notice or statement may be rejected as unacceptable and the party issuing it shall be informed of this. The rejected notice or statement may be amended to meet the requirement of this section or a new one may be filed.

Sec. 149. [176.85] [PENALTIES; APPEALS.]

Subdivision 1. [APPEAL PROCEDURE.] If the commissioner has assessed a penalty against a party subject to this chapter and the party believes the penalty is not warranted, the party may request that a formal hearing be held on the matter. Upon a request for a hearing the commissioner shall refer the matter to the chief hearing examiner for assignment to a compensation judge or hearing examiner.

The chief hearing examiner shall keep a record of the proceeding and provide a record pursuant to section 176.421.

The decision of the compensation judge or hearing examiner shall be final and shall be binding and enforceable. The decision may be appealed to the workers' compensation court of appeals.

Subd. 2. [EXCEPTION.] This section does not apply to penalties for which another appeal procedure is provided, including but not limited to penalties imposed pursuant to section 176.102 or article 1, section 68.

Subd. 3. [HEARING COSTS.] For purposes of this section, a hearing before a hearing examiner shall be treated in the same manner as a hearing before a compensation judge and no costs may be charged to the commissioner for the hearing, regardless of who hears it.

Sec. 150. [176.86] [DISCRIMINATION AGAINST INJURED EMPLOYEE.]

It is unlawful for an employer to refuse to hire or to discharge an employee who has suffered a disability as a result of a personal injury unless the employee is physically or medically unable because of the injury to perform the employee's usual and customary job duties or there exists a reasonable probability that the employee will suffer a greater degree of disability if the employee performs those usual and customary job duties.

This section does not limit any provision in chapter 363.

Sec. 151. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 268.08, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [NOT ELIGIBLE.] An individual shall not be eligible to receive benefits for any week with respect to which he is receiving, has received, or has filed a claim for remuneration in an amount equal to or in excess of his weekly benefit amount in the form of

(1) termination, severance, or dismissal payment or wages in lieu of notice whether legally required or not; provided that if a termination, severance, or dismissal payment is made in a lump sum, the employer may allocate such lump sum payment over a period equal to the lump sum divided by the employee's regular pay while employed by such employer; provided any such payment shall be applied for a period immediately following the last day of work but not to exceed 28 calendar days; or

(2) vacation allowance paid directly by the employer for a period of requested vacation, including vacation periods assigned by the employer under the provisions of a collective bargaining agreement, or uniform vacation shutdown; or

(3) compensation for loss of wages under the workers' compensation law of this state or any other state or under a similar law of the United States, or under other insurance or fund established and paid for by the employer except that this does not apply to an individual who is receiving temporary partial compensation pursuant to section 176.101, subdivision 3j; or

(4) 50 percent of the pension payments from any fund, annuity or insurance maintained or contributed to by a base period employer including the armed forces of the United States if the employee contributed to the fund, annuity or insurance and all of the pension payments if the employee did not contribute to the fund, annuity or insurance; or

(5) 50 percent of a primary insurance benefit under Title II of the social security act as amended, or similar old age benefits under any act of congress or this state or any other state.

Provided, that if such remuneration is less than the benefits which would otherwise be due under sections 268.03 to 268.24, he shall be entitled to receive for such week, if otherwise eligible, benefits reduced by the amount of such remuneration; provided, further, that if the appropriate agency of such other state or the federal government finally determines that he is not entitled to such benefits, this provision shall not apply.

Sec. 152. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 471.982, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. The commissioner of insurance is authorized to ~~promulgate~~ adopt administrative rules, including emergency rules pursuant to sections 14.01 to 14.70. These rules may provide standards or guidelines governing the formation, operation, administration, dissolution of self insurance pools, and other reasonable requirements to further the purpose of this section ~~and~~. In developing the rules under this section, the commissioner shall at a minimum require consider the following:

(a) The requirements for self-insuring pools of political subdivisions shall be no more restrictive and may be less restrictive than the requirements for self-insuring pools of private employers;

(b) All participants in the pool are jointly and severally liable for all claims and expenses of the pool;

~~(b)~~ (c) Each pool shall contract with a service company licensed by the commissioner to provide or contract for all administrative services required by the pool. No vendor of risk management services or entity administering a self insurance plan under this section may transact such business in this state unless it is licensed to do so by the commissioner. An applicant for a license shall state in writing the type of activities it seeks authorization to engage in and the type of services it seeks authorization to provide. The license shall be granted only when the commissioner is satisfied that the entity possesses the necessary organization, background, expertise, and financial integrity to supply the services sought to be offered. The commissioner may issue a license subject to restrictions or limitations upon the authorization, including the type of services which may be supplied or the activities which may be engaged in. The license fee shall be $100. All licenses shall be for a period of two years;

~~(c)~~ (d) The service company has sole responsibility for the settlement of all claims against the pool or its members for which the pool may provide indemnification;

~~(d)~~ (e) A minimum premium volume for each pool shall be established. The minimum premium volume may differ because of the kinds of coverage provided, and the limits of liability for the coverage;

~~(e)~~ (f) All premiums or other assessments due to the pool from members shall be payable prior to the period for which coverage is being provided, or at equal intervals throughout the period;

~~(f)~~ (g) Premiums shall ~~either be established by an actuary approved by the commissioner or shall be premiums filed by a licensed rate service organization with reductions permitted solely for administrative or premium tax savings neither excessive, inadequate, nor unfairly discriminatory;~~

~~(g)~~ (h) The commissioner may require each pool to purchase excess insurance above certain limits and in a particular form. The limits or form of the excess insurance may differ based on the kinds of coverage offered by a pool, the limits of liability of the coverage, and the revenues available to pool members for the payment of premiums or assessments;

~~(h)~~ (i) Each pool shall be audited annually by a certified public accountant;

~~(i)~~ (j) ~~Whether~~ limitations on the payment of dividends to pool members ~~may be established as~~ are necessary to assure the solvency of the pool in view of the taxing and levying authority of political subdivisions;

~~(j)~~ (k) No participant may withdraw from a pool for a period of at least three years after its initial entry into the pool;

~~(k)~~ (l) The amount of any liabilities in excess of assets shall be assessed to members of the pool within 30 days after a deficiency is identified and shall be payable by the member within 90 days;

~~(l)~~ (m) The investment policies of the pool shall be governed by the laws governing investments by cities pursuant to section 475.66;

~~(m)~~ (n) Pools shall be subject to the standards of unfair methods of competition and unfair or deceptive acts or practices established in chapter 72A;

~~(n)~~ (o) Other requirements that are necessary to protect the solvency of the pool, the rights and privileges of claimants against the pool, and citizens of the members of the pool shall be included in the rules.

Sec. 153. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 471.982, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 3. The rules adopted pursuant to subdivision 2 shall not apply to self-insurance pools established and open for enrollment on a statewide basis by the Minnesota league of cities insurance trust, the Minnesota school boards association insurance trust or the Minnesota association of counties insurance trust.

Sec. 154. [CITY OF DULUTH; GROUP WORKER'S COMPENSATION SELF-INSURANCE POOLS.]

Subdivision 1. [FORMATION OF POOLS WITH PRIVATE EMPLOYERS.] Notwithstanding any contrary provision of other law, ordinance, or charter, the city of Duluth may enter into a self-insurance pool with private employers to self-insure worker's compensation liability of pool members. Any pool formed pursuant to this section shall be operated under bylaws established by members of the pool. The initial bylaws and amendments to them shall not be effective unless approved by the city of Duluth and the commissioner of insurance. The bylaws shall address the following subjects:

(a) Qualifications for group self-insurer membership, including underwriting standards.

(b) The method of selecting the board of directors, including the directors' terms of office.

(c) The procedure for amending the bylaws or plan of operation.

(d) Investment of assets of the fund.

(e) Frequency and extent of loss control or safety engineering services provided to members.

(f) A schedule for payment and collection of premiums.

(g) Expulsion procedures, including expulsion for nonpayment of premiums and expulsion for excessive losses.

(h) Delineation of authority granted to the administrator.

(i) Delineation of authority granted to the service company.

(j) Basis for determining premium contributions by members including any experience rating program.

(k) Procedures for resolving disputes between members of the group, which shall not include submitting them to the commissioner.

(l) Basis for determining distribution of any surplus to the members, or assessing the membership to make up any deficit.

(m) Provisions for security to be furnished by private employers to insure assessments are paid in case of private employer insolvency.

The members participating in the pool may establish a joint board with appropriate powers to manage the pool. Each member of the pool shall pay to the pool the amounts assessed against it pursuant to the bylaws. A member may withdraw only after it has reimbursed the pool for the amounts for which it is obligated under the terms of the agreement.

Subd. 2. [APPROVAL OF COMMISSIONER.] A pool formed pursuant to this section shall not be effective or begin operation until it has been approved by the commissioner of insurance in the manner provided in Minnesota Statutes, section 471.982. Section 471.982 and any applicable rules adopted pursuant to it shall apply to any pool formed pursuant to this section. A pool formed pursuant to this section shall be a member of the workers' compensation reinsurance association and shall be bound by its plan of operation.

Sec. 155. [APPROPRIATIONS; COMPLEMENT INCREASE.]

Subdivision 1. [DEPARTMENT OF LABOR AND INDUSTRY.] (a) There is appropriated to the department of labor and industry for the fiscal years ending June 30 of the year indicated from the general fund in the state treasury:

1984	1985
$2,159,901	$2,516,169

The approved complement of the department of labor and industry is increased by 103 of which 3.8 shall be federally funded. The increased complement shall be allocated as follows:

- (9) state employee fund, 6;
- (10) occupational safety and health consultation, 2;
- (11) general support, 9; and
- (12) special compensation fund, 19.

The appropriation provided by this clause (a) is for the purpose of paying for the increased complement and expenses related to their duties.

(b) There is appropriated to the department of labor and industry for the fiscal years ending June 30 of the year indicated from the general fund in the state treasury:

1984	1985
$437,500	$875,000

The appropriation provided by this clause (b) is for the purpose of paying the state's premium to the workers' compensation reinsurance association.

(c) There is appropriated to the department of labor and industry for the fiscal years ending June 30 of the year indicated from the general fund in the state treasury:

1984	1985
$476,985	$449,855

The funds appropriated by this clause (c) are to be deposited in the special compensation fund to pay the expenses of the increased complement provided for the fund by clause (a) and expenses related to their duties.

Subd. 2. [OFFICE OF ADMINISTRATIVE HEARINGS.] There is appropriated to the office of administrative hearings for the fiscal years ending June 30 of the year indicated from the general fund in the state treasury:

$127,400	$130,050

The approved complement of the office of administrative hearings is increased by four. The appropriation provided by this subdivision is for the purpose of paying for the increased complement and expenses related to their duties.

Subd. 3. [INSURANCE DIVISION.] There is appropriated to the department of commerce for its insurance division for the fiscal years ending June 30 of the year indicated from the general fund in the state treasury:

$213,600	$218,650

The approved complement of the insurance division of the department of commerce is increased by seven. The appropriation provided by this subdivision is for the purpose of paying for the increased complement and expense related to their duties.

Subd. 4. [ATTORNEY GENERAL.] There is appropriated to the office of the attorney general for the fiscal years ending June 30 of the year indicated from the general fund in the state treasury:

$204,500	$206,062

The approved complement of the office of attorney general is increased by six. The appropriation provided by this subdivision is for the purpose of providing for the increased complement and expenses related to their duties.

Sec. 156. [REPEALER.]

Minnesota Statutes 1982, sections 175.07; 175.101, subdivision 3; 175.36; 176.102, subdivision 12; 176.131, subdivisions 9, 10, 11, and 12; 176.152; and 176.262 are repealed.

Sec. 157. [SEVERABILITY.]

If any provision of this act is found to be unconstitutional and void, the remaining provisions of the act shall remain valid, unless the court finds the valid provisions of the act are so essentially and inseparably connected with, and so dependent upon, the void provisions that the court cannot presume the legislature would have enacted the remaining valid provisions without the void one; or unless the court finds the remaining valid provisions, standing alone, are incomplete and are incapable of being executed in accordance with the legislative intent.

ARTICLE 2

Section 1. [176A.01] [DEFINITIONS.]

Subdivision 1. [APPLICATION.] For the purposes of sections 1 to 12, the terms defined in this section have the meanings given them.

Subd. 2. "Manager" means the manager of the state compensation insurance fund.

Subd. 3. "Fund" means the state compensation insurance fund.

Subd. 4. "Board" means the board of directors of the state compensation insurance fund.

Subd. 5. "Personal injury" or "injury" has the meaning given to it in section 176.011, subdivision 16.

Sec. 2. [176A.02] [CREATION; PURPOSE; ORGANIZATION OF THE FUND.]

Subdivision 1. [FUND CREATED.] The fund is created as a nonprofit independent public corporation for the purpose of insuring employers against liability for personal injuries for which their employees may be entitled to benefits under chapter 176.

Subd. 2. [BOARD OF DIRECTORS.] The board of directors consists of seven members and the commissioner of labor and industry who shall be an ex officio member. Each director shall hold office until a successor is appointed and qualifies. Each director shall represent a policyholder and may be an employee of a policyholder. A policyholder may designate a person to represent them on the board. The initial board of directors shall be appointed by the governor and shall consist of seven members, and the commissioner of labor and industry. Each member of the initial board shall be either an employer or employee. If the fund is operational and issuing policies upon the expiration of the terms of the initial board and thereafter, the governor shall appoint every other director until the governor has made four appointments. The remaining three directors shall be chosen by the fund's policyholders. In addition to the commissioner, no more than one member of the board shall be a representative of a governmental entity. At least two members of the board shall represent private, for profit, enterprises. No member of the board may represent or be an employee of an insurance company.

The membership terms shall be as provided in section 15.0575. The membership compensation shall be set by the board.

The board shall annually elect a chairman from among its members and other officers it deems necessary for the performance of its duties.

Subd. 3. [FUND MANAGEMENT.] The management and control of the fund is vested solely in the board.

Subd. 4. [POWERS AND DUTIES OF THE BOARD.] The board is vested with full power, authority, and jurisdiction over the fund. The board may perform all acts necessary or convenient in the exercise of any power, authority, or jurisdiction over the fund, either in the administration of the fund or in connection with the insurance business to be carried on by it under the provisions of this chapter, as fully and completely as the governing body of a private insurance carrier to fulfill the objectives and intent of this chapter.

Subd. 5. [MANAGER.] The fund is under the administrative control of the manager appointed by the board pursuant to section 5.

Subd. 6. [PERSONAL LIABILITY, EXCLUDED.] The members of the board and officers or employees of the fund are not liable personally, either jointly or severally, for any debt or obligation created or incurred by the fund.

Sec. 3. [176A.03] [SPECIFIC POWERS OF THE FUND.]

Subdivision 1. [GENERAL.] For the purpose of carrying out its function the fund has the powers specified in this section.

Subd. 2. [INSURE WORKERS' COMPENSATION LIABILITY.] The fund may insure an employer against any workers' compensation claim arising out of and in the course of employment, as fully as any other insurer.

Subd. 3. [SELF-INSURED COVERAGE.] The fund may furnish advice, services, and employer liability insurance to any employer qualified as a self-insured employer.

Sec. 4. [176A.04] [GENERAL POWERS.]

For the purpose of exercising the specific powers granted in this chapter and effectuating the other purposes of this chapter, the fund:

(a) may sue and be sued;

(b) may have a seal and alter it at will;

(c) may make, amend, and repeal rules relating to the conduct of the business of the fund;

(d) may enter into contracts relating to the administration of the fund;

(e) may rent, lease, buy, or sell property in its own name and may construct or repair buildings necessary to provide space for its operations;

(f) may declare a dividend when there is an excess of assets over liabilities, and minimum surplus requirements as consistent with chapter 60A;

(g) may pay medical expenses, rehabilitation expenses, compensation due claimants of insured employers, pay salaries, and pay administrative and other expenses;

(h) may hire personnel and set salaries and compensation; and

(i) may perform all other functions that are necessary or appropriate to administer the fund.

Sec. 5. [176A.05] [MANAGER.]

Subdivision 1. [APPOINTMENT, QUALIFICATIONS.] The board shall appoint a manager of the fund who shall be in charge of the day-to-day operation of the fund. The manager shall have proven successful experience as an executive at the general management level. The manager shall receive compensation as set by the board and shall serve at the pleasure of the board.

Subd. 2. [BOND.] Before entering on the duties of the office, the manager shall qualify by giving an official bond in an amount and with sureties approved by the board. The manager shall file the bond with the secretary of state. The premium for the bond shall be paid by the fund from the account established in section 7.

Sec. 6. [176A.06] [MANAGER'S POWERS.]

Subdivision 1. [GENERAL.] Subject to the authority of the board and the provisions of this chapter the manager has the powers and duties prescribed in this section.

Subd. 2. [SAFETY INSPECTION.] The manager may make safety inspections of risks and furnish advisory services to employers on safety and health measures.

Subd. 3. [DISBURSEMENT OF FUNDS.] The manager may act for the fund in collecting and disbursing money necessary to administer the fund and conduct the business of the fund.

Subd. 4. [ABSTRACT SUMMARY.] The manager shall have an abstract summary of any audit or survey conducted.

Subd. 5. [GENERAL AUTHORITY.] The manager may perform all acts necessary or convenient in the exercise of any power, authority, or jurisdiction over the fund, either in the administration of the fund or in connection with the insurance business to be carried on by the fund under this chapter, including the establishment of premium rates.

Sec. 7. [176A.07] [ACCOUNT.]

Subdivision 1. [STATE COMPENSATION ACCOUNT.] There is created and established under the jurisdiction and control of the fund a revolving account known as the "state compensation account."

The manager shall deliver all money collected or received under this chapter to the account.

The money in the account may be used by the fund in carrying out its purpose under this chapter.

Subd. 2. [PROPERTY OF FUND.] All premiums and other money paid to the fund, all property and securities acquired through the use of money belonging to the fund, and all interest and dividends earned upon money belonging to the fund and deposited or invested by the fund, are the sole property of the fund and shall be used exclusively for the operation and obligations of the fund. The money of the fund is not state money. The property of the fund is not state property.

Subd. 3. [NO STATE APPROPRIATION.] The fund shall not receive any state appropriation at any time other than as provided by section 10.

Sec. 8. [176A.08] [EXEMPTION FROM AND APPLICABILITY OF CERTAIN LAWS.]

The fund shall not be considered a state agency for any purpose including, but not limited to, chapters 13, 14, 15, 15A, and 43A. However, the fund shall be subject to sections 179.61 to 179.76. The insurance operations of the fund are subject to all of the provisions of chapters 60A and 60B. The commissioner of insurance has the same powers with respect to the board as the commissioner has with respect to a private workers' compensation insurer under chapters 60A and 60B. The fund is considered an insurer for the purposes of chapters 60C, 72A, 79, and 176. The fund is subject to the same tax liability as a mutual insurance company in this state pursuant to section 60A.15, subdivision 2. As a condition of its authority to transact business in this state the fund shall be a member of the workers' compensation reinsurance association and is bound by its plan of operation.

Sec. 9. [176A.09] [ANNUAL REPORT.]

The manager shall submit an annual report pursuant to section 3.195 to the governor and legislature indicating the business done by the fund during the previous year and containing a statement of the resources and liabilities of the fund.

Sec. 10. [176A.10] [APPROPRIATION.]

There is appropriated from the general fund to the state compensation insurance fund a sum of $3,000,000 to be available until expended. This amount plus interest at eight percent a year shall be amortized over a ten-year period and shall be repaid by the fund to the general fund in equal installments at the end of each fiscal year.

Sec. 11. [IMPLEMENTATION.]

The members of the board of directors shall be appointed no later than September 1, 1983. The board shall act promptly to hire a manager, hire necessary employees, and acquire necessary facilities and supplies to begin operation. The fund shall begin providing workers' compensation insurance coverage when the board determines that the fund is able to do so and all requirements under state law have been met.

Sec. 12. [REPORT TO THE LEGISLATURE AND GOVERNOR.]

The commissioner of labor and industry shall, no later than March 1, 1986, report to the legislature and governor the operations of the fund up to that date. The report shall include but not be limited to:

(1) the volume of premiums insured through the state fund and its share of the state workers' compensation insurance market;

(2) the percent division of premium dollars among various types of benefit payments and administrative costs for policies and claims under the state fund;

(3) the average rate of return enjoyed by the state fund on its invested assets;

(4) recommendations concerning desirable changes in the state fund to promote its prompt and efficient administration of policies and claims;

(5) a recommendation to the legislature and governor regarding the continued operation of the fund; and

(6) any other information the commissioner deems appropriate.

Subd. 6. [CONSENT FOR MEDICAL PROCEDURE.] A patient has the right to prior consent to any medical or surgical treatment, other than the treatment of mental illness, mental retardation or chemical dependency. The following procedures shall be used to obtain consent for any treatment necessary to preserve the life or health of any committed patient:

- (1) The consent of a competent adult patient for the treatment is sufficient.
- (2) If the patient is subject to guardianship or conservatorship which includes the provision of medical care, the consent of the guardian or conservator for the treatment is sufficient.
- (3) If the head of the treatment facility determines that the patient is not competent to consent to the treatment and the patient has not been adjudicated incompetent, consent for the surgery shall be obtained from the nearest proper relative. For this purpose, the following persons are proper relatives, in the order listed: the patient's spouse, parent, adult child, or adult sibling. If the nearest proper relatives cannot be located or refuse to consent to the procedure, the head of the treatment facility or an interested person may petition the committing court for approval for the treatment or may petition an appropriate court for the appointment of a guardian or conservator. The determination that the patient is not competent, and the reasons for the determination, shall be documented in the patient's clinical record.

(4) ~~Consent for a medical procedure upon a minor shall be governed by other provisions of law relating to the provision of treatment to minors to treatment of any minor patient shall be secured in accordance with sections 144.341 to 144.346, except that a minor 16 years of age or older may give valid consent for hospitalization, routine diagnostic evaluation, and emergency or short term acute care.~~

(5) In the case of an emergency and when the persons ordinarily qualified to give consent cannot be located, the head of the treatment facility may give consent.

No person who consents to treatment pursuant to the provisions of this subdivision shall be civilly or criminally liable for the performance or the manner of performing the treatment. No person shall be liable for performing treatment without consent if consent was given pursuant to this subdivision. This provision shall not affect any other liability which may result from the manner in which the treatment is performed."

Reports the same back with the recommendation that the bill be amended as follows:

Delete everything after the enacting clause and insert:

“Section 1. [TRANSFER OF POWERS.]

Subdivision 1. [AUTHORIZATION.] All powers, duties, and functions vested in or imposed on the department of energy, planning and development or the commissioner of energy, planning and development by chapters 116C, 116D, 116G, sections 116J.40 to 116J.54, and other laws are transferred to, vested in, and imposed on the director of the state planning agency created in section 9.

Subd. 2. [POSITIONS TRANSFERRED.] Personnel positions in the department of energy, planning and development in the classified civil service and temporary positions in the unclassified service established pursuant to section 43A.08, formerly assigned to functions that are transferred by this section to the state planning agency, are continued and transferred with their incumbents to the state planning agency along with the functions transferred. Nothing in this subdivision shall be construed as abrogating or modifying any rights now enjoyed by affected employees under the terms of an agreement between an exclusive representative of public employees and the state or one of its appointing authorities.

Subd. 3. [BALANCES TRANSFERRED.] The unexpended balance of any appropriation to the department of energy, planning and development which was assigned to the planning division of the department or to any office within the planning division is transferred to the director of the state planning agency who shall pay all valid claims presented against those appropriations.

Subd. 4. [RECORDS TRANSFERRED.] The commissioner of energy, planning and development, the assistant commissioner for the planning division, and office directors within the planning division shall transfer to the director of the state planning agency all contracts, books, maps, plans, papers, records, and property of every description within their jurisdiction or control which are relevant to the activities and functions transferred by this section to the director of the state planning agency.

Subd. 5. [PROCEEDINGS CONTINUED.] Any proceeding, court action, prosecution, or other business or matter that is pending on the effective date of this section and that involved or was commenced by the commissioner of energy, planning and development and which involved personnel or functions transferred to the state planning agency by this section may be conducted and completed by the state planning director in the same manner, under the same terms and conditions, and with the same effect as though it involved or was commenced and conducted or completed by the officer who began it.

Subd. 6. [AUTHORITY CONTINUED.] The authority of the state planning director regarding functions transferred to the director by this section is a continuation of the authority of the officer from which it was transferred regarding those functions, with the same force and effect as though the functions, powers, or duties of the officer had not been assigned or transferred, and does not constitute a new authority for the purposes of succession to all rights, powers, duties, and obligations of the officer, as constituted at the time of the assignment or transfer. All rules adopted under authority of power, duty, or responsibility transferred by this section to the director of the state planning agency shall remain in full force and effect until amended or repealed.

Sec. 2. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 116J.03, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [SCOPE.] As used in sections 116J.05 to 116J.35; ~~116J.41 to 116J.54~~; 116J.58 to 116J.91; ~~299A.03~~; and 299A.04, the terms defined in this section have the meaning given them.

Sec. 3. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 116J.42, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [POWERS AND DUTIES.] The ~~commissioner~~ director shall:

(1) Prepare comprehensive, long range recommendations for the orderly and coordinated growth of the state including detailed recommendations ~~for long range plans of operating state departments and agencies on major public investment proposals and programs in the state.~~

(2) ~~The state, in the development of long range planning, shall take into consideration its relationship to local units of government and the planning to be accomplished on such levels.~~ Develop and maintain a statewide long range policy planning process involving local units of government, regional development commissions, the metropolitan council, and state agencies.

(3) Develop and analyze information and forecasts relating to the state's population, economy, natural resources and human services, including but not limited to: (a) collection and analysis of information necessary to enable him to report annually to the governor and the legislature on the status of the state's economy and on forecasts of medium and long term economic prospects for the state; (b) analysis and reporting on the comparability of economic data, assumptions and analyses used by other planning entities, state agencies and levels of government as he deems appropriate; (c) assessment of the implications of demographic, economic and programmatic trends on state and local policies and institutions for providing health, education and other human services; and (d) assessment of the availability and quality of data for long range planning and policy development.

"Sec. 7. [48.90] [DISPOSITION OF CREDIT INSURANCE INCOME.]

Subdivision 1. [DEFINITIONS.] (a) For the purpose of this section, the following terms have the meanings given them.

(b) "Credit insurance" means credit life and accident and health insurance as defined in section 62B.02.

(c) "Officer", "director", "employee", and "shareholder" include the spouse and minor children of the officer, director, employee, or shareholder.

(d) "Interest" includes ownership through a spouse or minor children; ownership through a broker, nominee, or agent; and ownership through a corporation, partnership, association, joint venture, or proprietorship.

Subd. 2. [SCOPE AND PURPOSE.] This section applies to sales of credit insurance by employees, officers, directors, and shareholders of a banking institution and by corporations, partnerships, associations, and other entities in which these persons have an interest. The purposes of this section are (1) to prohibit employees, officers, directors, and shareholders of banking institutions from benefiting personally on the sale of credit insurance to loan customers and (2) to encourage marketing of credit insurance through the use of banking facilities only under arrangements which assure that employees, officers, directors, and shareholders do not receive benefits not shared with all stockholders of the banking institution.

Subd. 3. [DISTRIBUTION OF CREDIT INSURANCE INCOME.] No employee, officer, director, or shareholder of a banking institution, nor a corporation, partnership, association, or other entity in which these persons have an interest, may retain commissions or other income from the sale of credit insurance in connection with a loan made by the banking institution. All such income received by these persons or by a corporation, partnership, association, or other entity in which these persons have an interest, must be turned over to the banking institution. Nothing in this section prohibits a banking institution from receiving the income directly in the form of commissions or as compensation for use of its premises, personnel, and good will."

Mr. Moe, D.M. moved to amend S. F. No. 412 as follows:

"Sec. 6. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 244.04, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [REDUCTION OF SENTENCE.] Notwithstanding the provisions of section 609.11, subdivision 6, and section 609.346, subdivision 1, An inmate's term of imprisonment of any inmate sentenced to a presumptive fixed sentence after May 1, 1980, shall be reduced in duration by one day for each two days during which the inmate violates none of the disciplinary offense rules promulgated by the commissioner. The reduction shall accrue to the period of supervised release to be served by the inmate.

If an inmate violates a disciplinary offense rule promulgated by the commissioner, good time earned prior to the violation may not be taken away, but the inmate may be required to serve an appropriate portion of his term of imprisonment after the violation without earning good time."

Page 9, after line 19, insert:

"Sec. 10. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 244.09, subdivision 11, is amended to read:

Subd. 11. [MODIFICATION; RETROACTIVE EFFECT.] The commission shall meet as necessary for the purpose of modifying and improving the guidelines. Any modification of the guidelines that causes a duration change shall be retroactive for all inmates serving sentences imposed pursuant to the Minnesota sentencing guidelines if the durational change reduces the appropriate term of imprisonment."

Page 10, after line 6, insert:

"Sec. 12. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 383A.28, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. (The text of the amended House File is identical to S. F. No. 368.)

"Sec. 8. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 62A.17, is amended to read:

62A.17 [TERMINATION OF OR LAYOFF FROM EMPLOYMENT.]

Subdivision 1. [CONTINUATION OF COVERAGE.] Every group insurance policy, group subscriber contract, and health care plan included within the provisions of section 62A.16, except policies, contracts, or health care plans covering employees of an agency of the federal government, shall contain a provision which permits every eligible employee ~~whose employment~~ who is terminated or laid off from his employment, if the policy, contract, or health care plan remains in force for active employees of the employer, to elect to continue the coverage for himself and his dependents.

Subd. 2. [RESPONSIBILITY OF EMPLOYEE.] Every eligible employee electing to continue coverage shall pay his former employer, on a monthly basis, the cost of the continued coverage. If the policy, contract, or health care plan is administered by a trust, every eligible employee electing to continue coverage shall pay the trust the cost of continued coverage according to the eligibility rules established by the trust. The employee shall be eligible to continue the coverage until he becomes re-employed and eligible for health care coverage under a group policy, contract, or plan sponsored by the same or another employer, or for a period of ~~six~~ 12 months after the termination of or lay off from employment, whichever is shorter.

Subd. 3. [ELIGIBILITY FOR CONTINUED COVERAGE.] An employee shall be eligible to make the election for himself and his dependents provided for in subdivision 1 if:

(a) In the period preceding the termination of or lay off from his employment, he and his dependents were covered through his employment by a group insurance policy, subscriber's contract, or health care plan included within the provisions of section 62A.16;

(b) The termination of or lay off from employment was for reasons other than the discontinuance of the business, bankruptcy, or the employee's disability or retirement.

Subd. 4. [RESPONSIBILITY OF EMPLOYER.] After timely receipt of the monthly payment from an eligible employee, if the employer, or the trustee, if the policy, contract, or health care plan is administered by a trust, fails to make the payment to the insurer, ~~the~~ nonprofit health service plan corporation, ~~or the~~ health maintenance organization, with the result that the employee's coverage is terminated, the employer or ~~the~~ trust shall become liable for the employee's coverage to the same extent as the insurer, ~~the~~ nonprofit health service plan corporation, ~~or the~~ health maintenance organization, would be if the coverage were still in effect.

Subd. 5. [NOTICE OF OPTIONS.] Upon the termination of or lay off from employment of an eligible employee, the employer shall inform the employee within ten days after termination or lay off of:

(a) his right to elect to continue the coverage;

(b) the amount he must pay monthly to the employer to retain the coverage;

(c) the manner in which and the office of the employer to which the payment to the employer must be made; and

(d) the time by which the payments to the employer must be made to retain coverage.

If the policy, contract, or health care plan is administered by a trust, the ~~terminating~~ employer is relieved of the obligation imposed by clauses (a) to (d). The trust shall inform the employee of the information required by clauses (a) to (d).

Notice may be in writing and sent by first class mail to the employee's last known address which the employee has provided the employer or trust. If the employer or trust fails to so notify the employee who is properly enrolled in the program, the employee shall have the option to retain coverage ~~provided if~~ he makes this election within 60 days of the date ~~his employment~~ he is terminated or laid off by making the proper payment to the employer or trust to provide continuous coverage.

A notice in substantially the following form shall be sufficient. As a terminated or laid off employee, the law authorizes you to maintain your group medical insurance for a period of up to ~~six~~ 12 months. To do so you must notify your former employer within ten days of this notice that you intend to retain ~~such~~ this coverage and must make a monthly payment of $_____ to _____ at _____ by the _____ of each month.

Subd. 6. [CONVERSION TO INDIVIDUAL POLICY.] A group insurance policy that provides post termination or lay off coverage as required by this section shall also include a provision allowing a covered employee ~~or~~ , surviving spouse, or dependent at the expiration of the post termination or lay off coverage provided by subdivision 2 to obtain from the insurer offering the group policy or group subscriber contract, at the employee's, spouse's, or dependent's option and expense, without further evidence of insurability and without interruption of coverage, an individual policy of insurance or an individual subscriber contract providing at least the minimum benefits of a qualified plan as prescribed by section 62E.06 and the option of a number three qualified plan, a number two qualified plan, and a number one qualified plan as provided by section 62E.06, subdivisions 1 to 3. A policy providing reduced benefits at a reduced premium rate may be accepted by the employee, the spouse, or a dependent in lieu of the optional coverage otherwise required by this subdivision.

The individual policy shall be renewable at the option of the individual as long as the individual is not covered under another qualified plan as defined in section 62E.02, subdivision 4, up to age 65 or to the day before the date of eligibility for coverage under Title XVIII of the Social Security Act, as amended. Any revisions in the table of rate for the individual policy shall apply to the covered person's original age at entry ~~7~~ and shall apply equally to all similar policies issued by the insurer."

Renumber the sections in sequence

Amend the title as follows:

Page 1, line 12, after the semicolon, insert "providing for continuation and conversion of health and accident coverage for laid off employees;"

Page 1, line 17, after the first semicolon, insert "62A.17;"

SPECIAL ORDER

S.F. No. 214: A bill for an act relating to traffic regulations; requiring the use of seat belts by motor vehicle passengers; prohibiting a surcharge for failure to use seatbelts; requiring insurers to reduce premium rates if claim amounts are reduced; providing a penalty; amending Minnesota Statutes 1982, sections 65B.133, subdivision 5; and 169.685, by adding subdivisions.

CALL OF THE SENATE

Mr. Frank imposed a call of the Senate for the balance of the proceedings on S.F. No. 214. The Sergeant at Arms was instructed to bring in the absent members.

Mr. Frank moved to amend S. F. No. 214 as follows:

Delete everything after the enacting clause and insert:

“Section 1. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 65B.133, subdivision 5, is amended to read:

Subd. 5. [LIMITATION ON CHARGEABLE TRAFFIC VIOLATIONS.] No traffic violation is chargeable to a driver unless the driver is convicted of, or forfeits bail for, the offense, or the driver's license is revoked pursuant to section 169.123. If a surcharge is applied because bail is forfeited and if the driver is later acquitted of the offense, the insurer shall rebate the surcharge. A violation of section 2 is not chargeable.

Sec. 2. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 169.685, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 3a. Except as provided in subdivisions 3b and 5, no person may drive or ride in the front seat of a motor vehicle on the highways of this state unless wearing a seat belt that is provided for use in the motor vehicle. No penalty may be assessed for a violation of this subdivision. If a law enforcement officer stops a motor vehicle for a traffic violation and a person in the vehicle is not wearing a seat belt as required by this subdivision, the officer shall inform the person of the increased risk to the person due to the failure to wear a seat belt and of the legal requirement to wear a seat belt. A violation of this subdivision does not involve the operation of a motor vehicle.

Sec. 3. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 169.685, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 3b. Subdivision 3a does not apply to:

- (a) a person driving a motor vehicle in a rearward direction;*
- (b) a person riding in a seat of a motor vehicle in which all the seating positions equipped with safety belts are occupied by other persons;*
- (c) a person who has been issued by the department of public safety a* certificate which certifies that, because of medical unfitness or physical disability, it is impracticable, undesirable, or inexpedient that the person wear a seat belt. The commissioner of public safety may adopt rules governing the issuance of certificates; and

(d) a person who is actually engaged in work which requires him to alight from and re-enter a motor vehicle at frequent intervals and who, while engaged in that work, does not drive or travel in the vehicle at a speed exceeding 25 miles per hour.

The commissioner of public safety, by rule promulgated pursuant to the administrative procedure act, may exempt certain additional classes of persons from the provisions of subdivision 3a if he determines the exemptions are necessary by reason of body size or by reason of occupational requirements and will not materially affect the safety of the class of persons exempted.

Sec. 4. [INSURANCE PREMIUM REDUCTIONS.]

All insurers offering motor vehicle insurance coverage in this state shall study the effects of this act on the amount paid on motor vehicle accident claims. If an insurer determines that this act has resulted in a reduction in the amount of claims paid, it shall adjust its premium rates accordingly.

Sec. 5. [EFFECTIVE DATE.]

Sections 1 to 4 are effective July 1, 1983."

Delete the title and insert:

"A bill for an act relating to traffic regulations; requiring the use of seat belts by motor vehicle passengers; prohibiting a surcharge for failure to use seat belts; requiring insurers to reduce premium rates if claim amounts are reduced; amending Minnesota Statutes 1982, sections 65B.133, subdivision 5; and 169.685, by adding subdivisions."

Mr. Berg moved to amend the Frank amendment to S.F. No. 214 as follows:

Page 1, line 33, after the semicolon, insert "and"

The motion prevailed. So the amendment to the Frank amendment was adopted.

The question recurred on the Frank amendment, as amended.

The motion prevailed. So the amendment, as amended, was adopted.

S.F. No. 214 was read the third time, as amended, and placed on its final passage.

SPECIAL ORDER

S.F. No. 824: A bill for an act relating to the city of Minneapolis; abolishing the office of comptroller-treasurer in the city of Minneapolis; authorizing the reorganization, reallocation, consolidation, and delegation of the functions of the office; restructuring the board of estimate and taxation in the city of Minneapolis; changing the membership and terms of members of the retirement board; amending Minnesota Statutes 1982, sections 422A.02; and 422A.03, subdivision 3.

Mr. Moe, D. M. moved to amend S. F. No. 824 as follows:

“Sec. 5. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 422A.10, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 1a. [INCREASED CONTRIBUTION.] Notwithstanding subdivision 1, the retirement board shall increase the survivor's benefits contribution rate in an amount equal to one-half of the rate required for the benefit increase provided by section 10.

Sec. 6. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 422A.101, subdivision 1a, is amended to read:

Subd. 1a. [CITY CONTRIBUTIONS.] Prior to August 31 of each year, the retirement board shall prepare an itemized statement of the financial requirements of the fund payable by the city for the succeeding fiscal year, and a copy of the statement shall be submitted to the board of estimate and taxation and to the city council by September 15. The financial requirements of the fund payable by the city shall be calculated as follows:

(a) a regular employer contribution of an amount equal to the percentage rounded to the nearest two decimal places of the salaries and wages of all employees covered by the retirement fund which equals the difference between the level normal cost plus administrative cost as reported in the annual actuarial valuation and the employee contributions provided for in section 422A.10 less any amounts contributed toward the payment of the balance of the normal cost not paid by employee contributions by any city owned public utility, improvement project, other municipal activities supported in whole or in part by revenues other than real estate taxes, any public corporation, any employing unit of metropolitan government, or by special school district number 1 pursuant to subdivision 2;

(b) an additional employer contribution of an amount equal to the percent specified in section 353.27, subdivision 3a, clause (a), multiplied by the salaries and wages of all employees covered by the retirement fund less any amounts contributed toward amortization of the unfunded accrued liability by the year 2017 attributable to their respective covered employees by any city owned public utility, improvement project, other municipal activities supported in whole or in part by revenues other than real estate taxes, any public corporation, any employing unit of metropolitan government, or by Special School District No. 1 pursuant to subdivision 2; ~~and~~

(c) a proportional share of an additional employer amortization contribution of an amount equal to $3,900,000 annually until the year 2017 based upon the share of the fund's unfunded accrued liability attributed to the city as disclosed in the annual actuarial valuation; and

(d) one-half of the amount of any increase in contributions required for benefit increases granted by section 10.

The city council shall, in addition to all other taxes levied by the city, annually levy a tax equal to the amount of the financial requirements of the fund which are payable by the city. The tax, when levied, shall be extended upon the county lists and shall be collected and enforced in the same manner as other taxes levied by the city. If the city does not levy a tax sufficient to meet the requirements of this subdivision, the retirement board shall submit the tax levy statement directly to the county auditor, who shall levy the tax. The tax, when levied, shall be extended upon the county lists and shall be collected and paid into the city treasury to the credit of the retirement fund. Any amount to the credit of the retirement fund shall constitute a special fund and shall be used only for the payment of obligations authorized pursuant to this chapter.

Sec. 7. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 422A.101, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [STATE CONTRIBUTIONS.] The state shall pay to the Minneapolis employees retirement fund annually an amount equal to the financial requirements of the Minneapolis employees retirement fund reported by the actuary in the actuarial valuation of the fund prepared pursuant to section 356.215 for the most recent year but based on a target date for full amortization of the unfunded liabilities by the year 2017 less the amount of employee contributions required pursuant to section 422A.10, ~~and~~ the amount of employer contributions required pursuant to subdivisions 1a and 2, and the amount of any increase in contributions required for benefit increases granted by section 10. Payments shall be made in four equal installments on March 15, July 15, September 15, and November 15 annually."

"Sec. 10. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 422A.23, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. Upon the death of a contributing member after having been in the city service not less than 18 months but before the effective date of retirement, the board shall in lieu of the settlement hereinbefore provided pay to the surviving ~~dependent~~ spouse and/or ~~dependent~~ children of the member under the age of 18, or under the age of 22 if a full time student at an accredited school, college or university, and single, the following monthly benefit:

(a) Surviving spouse ~~$150~~ $325 per month, except for benefits beginning after July 1, 1983, which shall be 30 percent of member's average salary in effect over the last six months of allowable service preceeding the month in which the death occurred.

(b) Each ~~dependent~~ surviving child ~~$100~~ $150 per month, except for benefits beginning after July 1, 1983, which shall be ten percent of the member's average salary in effect over the last six months of allowable service preceeding the month in which the death occurred. Payments for the benefit of any ~~dependent~~ child under the age of 18 years shall be made to the surviving parent, or if there be none, to the legal guardian of such child. The maximum monthly benefit shall not exceed a total of ~~$450~~ $750."

May 2, 1983

The Honorable Harry A. Sieben, Jr.
Speaker of the House of Representatives

The Honorable Jerome M. Hughes
President of the Senate

We, the undersigned conferees for H.F. No. 76, report that we have agreed upon the items in dispute and recommend as follows:

That the Senate recede from its amendments and that H.F. No. 76 be further amended as follows:

Delete everything after the enacting clause and insert:

“Section 1. [115B.01] [CITATION.]

Sections 1 to 24 may be cited as the Environmental Response and Liability Act.

Sec. 2. [115B.02] [DEFINITIONS.]

Subdivision 1. [APPLICATION.] For the purposes of sections 1 to 20, the following terms have the meanings given them.

Subd. 2. [ACT OF GOD.] "Act of God" means an unanticipated grave natural disaster or other natural phenomenon of an exceptional, inevitable, and irresistible character, the effects of which could not have been prevented or avoided by the exercise of due care or foresight.

Subd. 3. [AGENCY.] "Agency" means the pollution control agency.

Subd. 4. [DIRECTOR.] "Director" means the director of the pollution control agency.

Subd. 5. [FACILITY.] "Facility" means:

(a) Any building, structure, installation, equipment, pipe or pipeline (including any pipe into a sewer or publicly owned treatment works), well, pit, pond, lagoon, impoundment, ditch, landfill, storage container, motor vehicle, rolling stock, or aircraft;

(b) Any watercraft of any description, or other artificial contrivance used or capable of being used as a means of transportation on water; or

(c) Any site or area where a hazardous substance, or a pollutant or contaminant, has been deposited, stored, disposed of, or placed, or otherwise come to be located.

"Facility" does not include any consumer product in consumer use.

Subd. 6. [FEDERAL SUPERFUND ACT.] "Federal Superfund Act" means the Comprehensive Environmental Response, Compensation and Liability Act of 1980, 42 U.S.C. Section 9601 et seq.

Subd. 7. [FUND.] "Fund" means the environmental response, compensation and compliance fund established under section 20.

Subd. 8. [HAZARDOUS SUBSTANCE.] "Hazardous substance" means:

(a) Any commercial chemical designated pursuant to the Federal Water Pollution Control Act, under 33 U.S.C. Section 1321(b)(2)(A);

(b) Any hazardous air pollutant listed pursuant to the Clean Air Act, under 42 U.S.C. Section 7412; and

(c) Any hazardous waste.

"Hazardous substance" does not include natural gas, natural gas liquids, liquefied natural gas, synthetic gas usable for fuel, or mixtures of such synthetic gas and natural gas, nor does it include petroleum, including crude oil or any fraction thereof which is not otherwise a hazardous waste.

Subd. 9. [HAZARDOUS WASTE.] "Hazardous waste" means:

(a) Any hazardous waste as defined in section 116.06, subdivision 13, and any substance identified as a hazardous waste pursuant to rules adopted by the agency under section 116.07; and

(b) Any hazardous waste as defined in the Resource Conservation and Recovery Act, under 42 U.S.C. Section 6903, which is listed or has the characteristics identified under 42 U.S.C. Section 6921, not including any hazardous waste the regulation of which has been suspended by act of Congress.

Subd. 10. [NATURAL RESOURCES.] "Natural resources" has the meaning given it in section 116B.02, subdivision 4.

Subd. 11. [OWNER OF REAL PROPERTY.] "Owner of real property" means a person who is in possession of, has the right of control, or controls the use of real property, including without limitation a person who may be a fee owner, lessee, renter, tenant, lessor, contract for deed vendee, licensor, licensee, or occupant; provided that:

(1) A lessor of real property under a lease which in substance is a financing device and is treated as such under the United States Internal Revenue Code, common law, or statute, is not an owner of the real property;

(2) A public utility holding a public utility easement is an owner of the real property described in the easement only for the purpose of carrying out the specific use for which the easement was granted; and

(3) Any person holding a remainder or other nonpossessory interest or estate in real property is an owner of the real property beginning when that person's interest or estate in the real property vests in possession or that person obtains the unconditioned right to possession, or to control the use of, the real property.

Subd. 12. [PERSON.] "Person" means any individual, partnership, association, public or private corporation or other entity including the United States government, any interstate body, the state and any agency, department or political subdivision of the state.

Subd. 13. [POLLUTANT OR CONTAMINANT.] "Pollutant or contaminant" means any element, substance, compound, mixture, or agent, other than a hazardous substance, which after release from a facility and upon exposure of, ingestion, inhalation, or assimilation into any organism, either directly from the environment or indirectly by ingestion through food chains, will or may reasonably be anticipated to cause death, disease, behavioral abnormalities, cancer, genetic mutation, physiological malfunctions (including malfunctions in reproduction) or physical deformations, in the organisms or their offspring.

"Pollutant or contaminant" does not include natural gas, natural gas liquids, liquefied natural gas, synthetic gas usable for fuel, or mixtures of such synthetic gas and natural gas.

Subd. 14. [PUBLIC UTILITY EASEMENT.] "Public utility easement" means an easement used for the purposes of transmission, distribution, or furnishing, at wholesale or retail, natural or manufactured gas, or electric or telephone service, by a public utility as defined in section 216B.02, subdivision 4, a cooperative electric association organized under the provisions of chapter 308, a telephone company as defined in section 237.01, subdivisions 2 and 3, or a municipality producing or furnishing gas, electric, or telephone service.

Subd. 15. [RELEASE.] "Release" means any spilling, leaking, pumping, pouring, emitting, emptying, discharging, injecting, escaping, leaching, dumping, or disposing into the environment which occurred at a point in time or which continues to occur.

"Release" does not include:

(a) Emissions from the engine exhaust of a motor vehicle, rolling stock, aircraft, watercraft, or pipeline pumping station engine;

(b) Release of source, byproduct, or special nuclear material from a nuclear incident, as those terms are defined in the Atomic Energy Act of 1954, under 42 U.S.C. Section 2014, if the release is subject to requirements with respect to financial protection established by the federal nuclear regulatory commission under 42 U.S.C. Section 2210;

(c) Release of source, byproduct or special nuclear material from any processing site designated pursuant to the Uranium Mill Tailings Radiation Control Act of 1978, under 42 U.S.C. Section 7912(a)(1) or 7942(a); or

(d) Any release resulting from the application of fertilizer or agricultural or silvicultural chemicals, or disposal of emptied pesticide containers or residues from a pesticide as defined in section 18A.21, subdivision 25.

Subd. 16. [REMEDY OR REMEDIAL ACTION.] "Remedy" or "remedial action" means those actions consistent with permanent remedy taken instead of or in addition to removal actions in the event of a release or threatened release of a hazardous substance, or a pollutant or contaminant, into the environment, to prevent, minimize or eliminate the release in order to protect the public health or welfare or the environment.

"Remedy" or "remedial action" includes, but is not limited to:

(a) Actions at the location of the release such as storage, confinement, perimeter protection using dikes, trenches, or ditches, clay cover, neutralization, cleanup of released hazardous substances, pollutants or contaminants, or contaminated materials, recycling or reuse, diversion, destruction, segregation of reactive wastes, dredging or excavations, repair or replacement of leaking containers, collection of leachate and runoff, onsite treatment or incineration, provision of alternative water supplies, and any monitoring and maintenance reasonably required to assure that these actions protect the public health and welfare and the environment; and

(b) The costs of permanent relocation of residents and businesses and community facilities when the agency determines that, alone or in combination with other measures, relocation is more cost effective than and environmentally preferable to the transportation, storage, treatment, destruction, or secure disposition offsite of hazardous substances, or pollutants or contaminants, or may otherwise be necessary to protect the public health or welfare.

"Remedy" or "remedial action" does not include offsite transport of hazardous substances, pollutants or contaminants, or contaminated materials or their storage, treatment, destruction, or secure disposition offsite unless the agency determines that these actions:

(1) Are more cost effective than other remedial actions;

(2) Will create new capacity to manage hazardous substances in addition to those located at the affected facility, in compliance with section 116.07 and subtitle C of the Solid Waste Disposal Act, 42 U.S.C. Section 6921 et seq.; or

(3) Are necessary to protect the public health or welfare or the environment from a present or potential risk which may be created by further exposure to the continued presence of the hazardous substances, pollutants or contaminants, or contaminated materials.

Subd. 17. [REMOVE OR REMOVAL.] "Remove" or "removal" means:

(a) The cleanup or removal of a released hazardous substance, or a pollutant or contaminant, from the environment;

(b) Necessary actions taken in the event of a threatened release of a hazardous substance, or a pollutant or contaminant, into the environment;

(c) Actions necessary to monitor, test, analyze, and evaluate a release or threatened release of a hazardous substance, or a pollutant or contaminant;

(d) Disposal or processing of removed material; or

(e) Other actions necessary to prevent, minimize, or mitigate damage to the public health or welfare or the environment, which may otherwise result from a release or threatened release.

"Remove" or "removal" includes, but is not limited to, security fencing or other measures to limit access, provision of alternative water supplies, temporary evacuation and housing of threatened individuals not otherwise provided for, action taken pursuant to the Federal Superfund Act, under 42 U.S.C. Section 9604(b), and any emergency assistance which may be provided under the Disaster Relief Act of 1974, 42 U.S.C. Section 5121 et seq.

Subd. 18. [RESPOND OR RESPONSE.] "Respond" or "response" means remove, removal, remedy, and remedial action.

Subd. 19. [WATER.] "Water" has the meaning given to the term "waters of the state" in section 115.01, subdivision 9.

Sec. 3. [115B.03] [RESPONSIBLE PERSON.]

Subdivision 1. [GENERAL RULE.] For the purposes of sections 1 to 20, and except as provided in subdivisions 2 and 3, a person is responsible for a release or threatened release of a hazardous substance, or a pollutant or contaminant, from a facility if the person:

(a) Owned or operated the facility: (1) when the hazardous substance, or pollutant or contaminant, was placed or came to be located in or on the facility; (2) when the hazardous substance, or pollutant or contaminant, was located in or on the facility but before the release; or (3) during the time of the release or threatened release;

(b) Owned or possessed the hazardous substance, or pollutant or contaminant, and arranged, by contract, agreement or otherwise, for the disposal, treatment or transport for disposal or treatment of the hazardous substance, or pollutant or contaminant; or

(c) Knew or reasonably should have known that waste he accepted for transport to a disposal or treatment facility contained a hazardous substance, or pollutant or contaminant, and either selected the facility to which it was transported or disposed of it in a manner contrary to law.

Subd. 2. [EMPLOYEES AND EMPLOYERS.] When a person who is responsible for a release or threatened release as provided in subdivision 1 is an employee who is acting in the scope of his employment:

(a) The employee is subject to liability under section 4 or 5 only if his conduct with respect to the hazardous substance was negligent under circumstances in which he knew that the substance was hazardous and that his conduct, if negligent, could result in serious harm.

(b) His employer shall be considered a person responsible for the release or threatened release and is subject to liability under section 4 or 5 regardless of the degree of care exercised by the employee.

Subd. 3. [OWNER OF REAL PROPERTY.] An owner of real property is not a person responsible for the release or threatened release of a hazardous substance from a facility in or on the property unless that person:

(a) was engaged in the business of generating, transporting, storing, treating, or disposing of a hazardous substance at the facility or disposing of waste at the facility, or knowingly permitted others to engage in such a business at the facility;

(b) knowingly permitted any person to make regular use of the facility for disposal of waste;

(c) knowingly permitted any person to use the facility for disposal of a hazardous substance;

(d) knew or reasonably should have known that a hazardous substance was located in or on the facility at the time right, title, or interest in the property was first acquired by the person and engaged in conduct by which he associated himself with the release; or

(e) took action which significantly contributed to the release after he knew or reasonably should have known that a hazardous substance was located in or on the facility.

For the purpose of clause (d), a written warranty, representation, or undertaking, which is set forth in an instrument conveying any right, title or interest in the real property and which is executed by the person conveying the right, title or interest, or which is set forth in any memorandum of any such instrument executed for the purpose of recording, is admissible as evidence of whether the person acquiring any right, title, or interest in the real property knew or reasonably should have known that a hazardous substance was located in or on the facility.

Any liability which accrues to an owner of real property under sections 1 to 15 does not accrue to any other person who is not an owner of the real property merely because the other person holds some right, title, or interest in the real property.

An owner of real property on which a public utility easement is located is not a responsible person with respect to any release caused by any act or omission of the public utility which holds the easement in carrying out the specific use for which the easement was granted.

Sec. 4. [115B.04] [LIABILITY FOR RESPONSE COSTS AND NATURAL RESOURCES; LIMITATIONS AND DEFENSES.]

Subdivision 1. [LIABILITY.] Except as otherwise provided in subdivisions 2 to 12, and notwithstanding any other provision or rule of law, any person who is responsible for a release or threatened release of a hazardous substance from a facility is strictly liable, jointly and severally, for the following response costs and damages which result from the release or threatened release or to which the release or threatened release significantly contributes:

(a) All reasonable and necessary response costs incurred by the state, a political subdivision of the state or the United States;

(b) All reasonable and necessary removal costs incurred by any person; and

(c) All damages for any injury to, destruction of, or loss of natural resources, including the reasonable costs of assessing such injury, destruction, or loss.

Subd. 2. [LIABILITY FOR POLLUTANT OR CONTAMINANT EXCLUDED.] There is no liability under this section for response costs or damages which result from the release of a pollutant or contaminant.

Subd. 3. [LIABILITY FOR A THREATENED RELEASE.] Liability under this section for a threatened release of a hazardous substance is limited to the recovery by the agency of reasonable and necessary response costs as provided in section 17, subdivision 6.

Subd. 4. [LIABILITY OF POLITICAL SUBDIVISIONS.] The liability of a political subdivision under this section is subject to the limits imposed under section 466.04, subdivision 1.

Subd. 5. [TRANSPORTATION OF HOUSEHOLD REFUSE.] A person who accepts only household refuse for transport to a treatment or disposal facility is not liable under this section for the release or threatened release of any hazardous substance unless he knew or reasonably should have known that the hazardous substance was present in the refuse. For the purpose of this subdivision, household refuse means garbage, trash, or septic tank sanitary wastes generated by single or multiple residences, hotels, motels, restaurants and other similar facilities.

Subd. 6. [DEFENSE TO CERTAIN CLAIMS BY POLITICAL SUBDIVISIONS AND PRIVATE PERSONS.] It is a defense to a claim by a political subdivision or private person for recovery of the costs of its response actions under this section that the hazardous substance released from the facility was placed or came to be located in or on the facility before April 1, 1982, and that the response actions of the political subdivision or private person were not authorized by the agency as provided in section 17, subdivision 12. This defense applies only to response costs incurred on or after July 1, 1983.

Subd. 7. [DEFENSE FOR INTERVENING ACTS.] It is a defense to liability under this section that the release or threatened release was caused solely by:

(a) An act of God;

(b) An act of war;

(c) An act of vandalism or sabotage; or

(d) An act or omission of a third party or the plaintiff.

“Third party” for the purposes of clause (d) does not include an employee or agent of the defendant, or a person in the chain of responsibility for the generation, transportation, storage, treatment, or disposal of the hazardous substance.

The defenses provided in clauses (c) and (d) apply only if the defendant establishes that he exercised due care with respect to the hazardous substance concerned, taking into consideration the characteristics of the hazardous substance in light of all relevant facts and circumstances which he knew or should have known, and that he took precautions against foreseeable acts or omissions and the consequences that could foreseeably result from those acts or omissions.

Subd. 8. [INTERVENING ACTS OF PUBLIC AGENCIES.] When the agency or the federal environmental protection agency assumes control over any release or threatened release of a hazardous substance by taking removal actions at the site of the release, the persons responsible for the release are not liable under sections 1 to 15 for any subsequent release of the hazardous substance from another facility to which it has been removed.

Subd. 9. [RELEASES SUBJECT TO CERTAIN PERMITS OR STANDARDS; FEDERAL POST-CLOSURE FUND.] It is a defense to liability under this section that:

(a) The release or threatened release was from a hazardous waste facility as defined under section 115A.03, for which a permit had been issued pursuant to section 116.07 or pursuant to subtitle C of the Solid Waste Disposal Act, 42 U.S.C. Section 6921 et seq., the hazardous substance was specifically identified in the permit, and the release was within the limits allowed in the permit for release of that substance;

(b) The hazardous substance released was specifically identified in a federal or state permit and the release is within the limits allowed in the permit;

(c) The release resulted from circumstances identified and reviewed and made a part of the public record of a federal or state agency with respect to a permit issued or modified under federal or state law, and the release conformed with the permit;

(d) The release was any part of an emission or discharge into the air or water and the emission or discharge was subject to a federal or state permit and was in compliance with control rules or regulations adopted pursuant to state or federal law;

(e) The release was the introduction of any hazardous substance into a publicly owned treatment works and the substance was specified in, and is in compliance with, applicable pretreatment standards specified for that substance under state and federal law; or

(f) Liability has been assumed by the federal post-closure liability fund under 42 U.S.C. Section 9607(k).

Subd. 10. [NATURAL RESOURCES.] It is a defense to liability under this section, for any injury to, destruction of, or loss of natural resources that:

(a) The natural resources were specifically identified as an irreversible and irretrievable commitment of natural resources in an approved final state or federal environmental impact statement, or other comparable approved final environmental analysis for a project or facility which was the subject of a governmental permit or license; and

(b) The project or facility was being operated within the terms of its permit or license.

Subd. 11. [RENDERING ASSISTANCE IN RESPONSE ACTIONS.] It is a defense to liability under this section that the response costs or damages resulted from acts taken or omitted in preparation for, or in the course of rendering care, assistance, or advice to the director or agency pursuant to section 17 or in accordance with the national hazardous substance response plan pursuant to the Federal Superfund Act, under 42 U.S.C. Section 9605, or at the direction of an on-scene coordinator appointed under that plan, with respect to any release or threatened release of a hazardous substance.

Subd. 12. [BURDEN OF PROOF FOR DEFENSES.] Any person claiming a defense provided in subdivisions 6 to 11 has the burden to prove all elements of the defense by a preponderance of the evidence.

Sec. 5. [115B.05] [LIABILITY FOR ECONOMIC LOSS, DEATH, PERSONAL INJURY AND DISEASE; LIMITATIONS AND DEFENSES.]

Subdivision 1. [LIABILITY.] Except as otherwise provided in subdivisions 2 to 10, and notwithstanding any other provision or rule of law, any person who is responsible for the release of a hazardous substance from a facility is strictly liable, jointly and severally, for the following damages which result from the release or to which the release significantly contributes:

(a) All damages for actual economic loss including:

(1) Any injury to, destruction of, or loss of any real or personal property, including relocation costs;

(2) Any loss of use of real or personal property;

(3) Any loss of past or future income or profits resulting from injury to, destruction of, or loss of real or personal property without regard to the ownership of the property; and

(b) All damages for death, personal injury, or disease including:

(1) Any medical expenses, rehabilitation costs or burial expenses;

(2) Any loss of past or future income, or loss of earning capacity; and

(3) Damages for pain and suffering, including physical impairment.

Subd. 2. [LIABILITY FOR POLLUTANT OR CONTAMINANT EXCLUDED.] There is no liability under this section for damages which result from the release of a pollutant or contaminant.

Subd. 3. [CERTAIN EMPLOYEE CLAIMS NOT COVERED.] Except for a third party who is subject to liability under section 176.061, subdivision 5, there is no liability under this section for the death, personal injury or disease of an employee which is compensable under chapter 176 as an injury or disease arising out of and in the course of employment.

Subd. 4. [LIABILITY LIMITATIONS.] The liability of a political subdivision under this section is subject to the limits imposed under section 466.04, subdivision 1.

Subd. 5. [TRANSPORTATION OF HOUSEHOLD REFUSE.] A person who accepts only household refuse for transport to a treatment or disposal facility is not liable under this section for the release or threatened release of any hazardous substance unless he knew or reasonably should have known that the hazardous substance was present in the refuse. For the purpose of this subdivision, household refuse means garbage, trash, or septic tank sanitary wastes generated by single or multiple residences, hotels, motels, restaurants and other similar facilities.

Subd. 6. [DEFENSE FOR INTERVENING ACTS.] It is a defense to liability under this section that the release or threatened release was caused solely by:

- (a) An act of God;*
- (b) An act of war;*
- (c) An act of vandalism or sabotage; or*
- (d) An act or omission of a third party or the plaintiff.*

"Third party" for the purposes of clause (d) does not include an employee or agent of the defendant, or a person in the chain of responsibility for the generation, transportation, storage, treatment, or disposal of the hazardous substance.

The defenses provided in clauses (c) and (d) apply only if the defendant establishes that he exercised due care with respect to the hazardous substance concerned, taking into consideration the characteristics of the hazardous substance in light of all relevant facts and circumstances which he knew or should have known, and that he took precautions against foreseeable acts or omissions and the consequences that could foreseeably result from those acts or omissions.

Subd. 7. [INTERVENING ACTS OF PUBLIC AGENCIES.] When the agency or the federal environmental protection agency assumes control over any release or threatened release of a hazardous substance by taking removal actions at the site of the release, the persons responsible for the release are not liable under sections 1 to 15 for any subsequent release of the hazardous substance from another facility to which it has been removed.

Subd. 8. [RELEASES SUBJECT TO CERTAIN PERMITS OR STANDARDS; FEDERAL POST-CLOSURE FUND.] It is a defense to liability under this section that:

(a) The release or threatened release was from a hazardous waste facility as defined under section 115A.03, for which a permit had been issued pursuant to section 116.07 or pursuant to subtitle C of the Solid Waste Disposal Act, 42 U.S.C. Section 6921 et seq., the hazardous substance was specifically identified in the permit, and the release was within the limits allowed in the permit for release of that substance;

(b) The hazardous substance released was specifically identified in a federal or state permit and the release is within the limits allowed in the permit;

(c) The release resulted from circumstances identified and reviewed and made a part of the public record of a federal or state agency with respect to a permit issued or modified under federal or state law, and the release conformed with the permit;

(d) The release was any part of an emission or discharge into the air or water and the emission or discharge was subject to a federal or state permit and was in compliance with control rules or regulations adopted pursuant to state or federal law;

(e) The release was the introduction of any hazardous substance into a publicly owned treatment works and the substance was specified in, and is in compliance with, applicable pretreatment standards specified for that substance under state and federal law; or

(f) Liability has been assumed by the federal post-closure liability fund under 42 U.S.C. Section 9607(k).

Subd. 9. [RENDERING ASSISTANCE IN RESPONSE ACTIONS.] It is a defense to liability under this section that the damages resulted from acts taken or omitted in preparation for, or in the course of rendering care, assistance, or advice to the director or agency pursuant to section 17 or in accordance with the national hazardous substance response plan pursuant to the Federal Superfund Act, under 42 U.S.C. Section 9605, or at the direction of an on-scene coordinator appointed under that plan, with respect to any release or threatened release of a hazardous substance.

Subd. 10. [BURDEN OF PROOF FOR DEFENSES.] Any person claiming a defense provided in subdivisions 6 to 9 has the burden to prove all elements of the defense by a preponderance of the evidence.

Sec. 6. [115B.06] [APPLICATION TO PAST ACTIONS.]

Subdivision 1. [APPLICATION OF SECTION 5 AND ADDITIONAL DEFENSE.] (a) A defendant in an action under section 5 has the additional defense provided in subdivision 2 for damages caused or significantly contributed to by the release of a hazardous substance from a facility if the defendant shows that the substance was placed or came to be located in or on the facility wholly before January 1, 1973.

(b) Section 5 does not apply to any claim for damages arising out of the release of a hazardous substance which was placed or came to be located in or on the facility wholly before January 1, 1960.

Subd. 2. [ADDITIONAL DEFENSE.] For a defendant who has made the showing required in subdivision 1, clause (a), it is a defense to liability under section 5 that the activity by which the substance was kept, placed, or came to be located in or on the facility was not an abnormally dangerous activity. The determination of whether the activity was an abnormally dangerous activity shall be made by the court.

Sec. 7. [115B.07] [CAUSATION.]

In any action brought under section 5 or any other law to recover damages for death, personal injury, or disease arising out of the release of a hazardous substance, the court may not direct a verdict against the plaintiff on the issue of causation if the plaintiff produces evidence sufficient to enable a reasonable person to find that:

- (a) the defendant is a person who is responsible for the release;
- (b) the plaintiff was exposed to the hazardous substance;
- (c) the release could reasonably have resulted in plaintiff's exposure to the substance in the amount and duration experienced by the plaintiff; and
- (d) the death, injury, or disease suffered by the plaintiff is caused or significantly contributed to by exposure to the hazardous substance in an amount and duration experienced by the plaintiff.

Evidence to a reasonable medical certainty that exposure to the hazardous substance caused or significantly contributed to the death, injury, or disease is not required for the question of causation to be submitted to the trier of fact.

Nothing in this section shall be construed to relieve the plaintiff of the burden of proving that the defendant is a person who is responsible for the release and of proving the causal connection between the release of the hazardous substance for which the defendant is a responsible person and the plaintiff's death, injury, or disease.

Sec. 8. [115B.08] [LIABILITY UNDER SECTION 4; APPORTIONMENT AND CONTRIBUTION.]

Subdivision 1. [RIGHT OF APPORTIONMENT; FACTORS.] Any person held jointly and severally liable under section 4 has the right at trial to have the trier of fact apportion liability among the parties as provided in this section. The burden is on each defendant to show how his liability should be apportioned. The court shall reduce the amount of damages in proportion to any amount of liability apportioned to the party recovering.

In apportioning the liability of any party under this section, the trier of fact shall consider the following:

- (a) The extent to which that party's contribution to the release of a hazardous substance can be distinguished;
- (b) The amount of hazardous substance involved;
- (c) The degree of toxicity of the hazardous substance involved;
- (d) The degree of involvement of and care exercised by the party in manufacturing, treating, transporting, and disposing of the hazardous substance;
- (e) The degree of cooperation by the party with federal, state, or local officials to prevent any harm to the public health or the environment; and
- (f) Knowledge by the party of the hazardous nature of the substance.

Subd. 2. [CONTRIBUTION.] If a person is held jointly and severally liable under section 4 and establishes his proportionate share of the aggregate liability, the provisions of section 604.02, subdivisions 1 and 2, shall apply with respect to contribution and reallocation of any uncollectible amounts.

Sec. 9. [115B.09] [LIABILITY UNDER SECTION 5; COMPARATIVE FAULT AND CONTRIBUTION.]

The provisions of sections 604.01, 604.02, subdivisions 1 and 2, apply to any action for damages under section 5, except that, if the percentage of fault attributable to a defendant is determined under section 604.01, the liability of the defendant shall be limited to two times that percentage of the damages recoverable in the action.

Sec. 10. [115B.10] [NO AVOIDANCE OF LIABILITY; INSURANCE AND SUBROGATION.]

An owner or operator of a facility or any other person who may be liable under sections 1 to 15 may not avoid that liability by means of any conveyance of any right, title, or interest in real property, or by any indemnification, hold harmless agreement, or similar agreement. Nothing in this section shall be construed:

(a) To prohibit any party who may be liable under sections 1 to 15 from entering an agreement by which that party is insured, held harmless or indemnified for part or all of that liability;

(b) To prohibit the enforcement of any insurance, hold harmless or indemnification agreement; or

(c) To bar any cause of action brought by a party who may be liable under sections 1 to 15 or by an insurer or guarantor, whether by right of subrogation or otherwise.

Sec. 11. [115B.11] [STATUTE OF LIMITATIONS.]

No person may recover pursuant to sections 1 to 15 unless the action is commenced within six years from the date when the cause of action accrues. In determining when the cause of action accrues for an action to recover damages for death, personal injury or disease, the court shall consider factors including the following:

(a) When the plaintiff discovered the injury or loss;

(b) Whether a personal injury or disease had sufficiently manifested itself; and

(c) When the plaintiff discovered, or using due diligence should have discovered, a causal connection between the injury, disease, or loss and the release of a hazardous substance.

Sec. 12. [115B.12] [OTHER REMEDIES PRESERVED.]

Nothing in sections 1 to 15 shall be construed to abolish or diminish any remedy or affect the right of any person to bring a legal action or use any remedy available under any other provision of state or federal law, including common law, to recover for personal injury, disease, economic loss or response costs arising out of a release of any hazardous substance, or for removal or the costs of removal of that hazardous substance. Nothing in sections 1 to 15 shall be construed to limit or restrict in any way the liability of any person under any other state or federal law, including common law, for loss due to personal injury or disease, for economic loss, or for response costs arising out of any release or threatened release of a hazardous substance from a facility regardless of the time at which a hazardous substance was placed or came to be located in or on the facility. The provisions of sections 1 to 15 shall not be considered, interpreted, or construed in any way as reflecting a determination, in whole or in part, of policy regarding the inapplicability of strict liability, or strict liability doctrines under any other state or federal law, including common law, to activities past, present or future, relating to hazardous substances, or pollutants or contaminants, or other similar activities.

Sec. 13. [115B.13] [DOUBLE RECOVERY PROHIBITED.]

A person who recovers response costs or damages pursuant to sections 1 to 15 may not recover the same costs or damages pursuant to any other law. A person who recovers response costs or damages pursuant to any other state or federal law may not recover for the same costs or damages pursuant to sections 1 to 15.

Sec. 14. [115B.14] [AWARD OF COSTS.]

Upon motion of a party prevailing in an action under sections 1 to 15 the court may award costs, disbursements and reasonable attorney fees and witness fees to that party.

Sec. 15. [115B.15] [APPLICATION OF SECTIONS 1 TO 14.]

Sections 1 to 14 apply to any release or threatened release of a hazardous substance occurring on or after July 1, 1983, including any release which began before July 1, 1983, and continued after that date. Sections 1 to 14 do not apply to a release or threatened release which occurred wholly before July 1, 1983, regardless of the date of discovery of any injury or loss caused by the release or threatened release.

Sec. 16. [115B.16] [DISPOSITION OF FACILITIES.]

Subdivision 1. [CLOSED DISPOSAL FACILITIES; USE OF PROPERTY.] No person shall use any property on or in which hazardous waste remains after closure of a disposal facility as defined in section 115A.03, subdivision 10, in any way that disturbs the integrity of the final cover, liners, or any other components of any containment system, or the function of the disposal facility's monitoring systems, unless the agency finds that the disturbance:

(a) Is necessary to the proposed use of the property, and will not increase the potential hazard to human health or the environment; or

(b) Is necessary to reduce a threat to human health or the environment.

Subd. 2. [RECORDING OF AFFIDAVIT.] Before any transfer of ownership of any property which the owner knew or should have known was used as the site of a hazardous waste disposal facility as defined in section 115A.03, subdivision 10, or which the owner knew or should have known is subject to extensive contamination by release of a hazardous substance, the owner shall record with the county recorder of the county in which the property is located an affidavit containing a legal description of the property that discloses to any potential transferee:

(a) That the land has been used to dispose of hazardous waste or that the land is contaminated by a release of a hazardous substance;

(b) The identity, quantity, location, condition and circumstances of the disposal or contamination to the full extent known or reasonably ascertainable; and

(c) That the use of the property or some portion of it may be restricted as provided in subdivision 1.

An owner must also file an affidavit within 60 days after any material change in any matter required to be disclosed under clauses (a) to (c) with respect to property for which an affidavit has already been recorded.

If the owner or any subsequent owner of the property removes the hazardous substance, together with any residues, liner, and contaminated underlying and surrounding soil, that owner may record an affidavit indicating the removal of the hazardous substance.

Failure to record an affidavit as provided in this subdivision does not affect or prevent any transfer of ownership of the property.

Subd. 3. [DUTY OF COUNTY RECORDER.] The county recorder shall record all affidavits presented to him in accordance with subdivision 2. The affidavits shall be recorded in a manner which will assure their disclosure in the ordinary course of a title search of the subject property.

Subd. 4. [PENALTIES.] (a) Any person who knowingly violates the provisions of subdivision 1 is subject to a civil penalty in an amount determined by the court of not more than $100,000, and shall be liable under sections 4 and 5 for any release or threatened release of any hazardous substance resulting from the violation.

(b) Any person who knowingly fails to record an affidavit as required by subdivision 2 shall be liable under sections 4 and 5 for any release or threatened release of any hazardous substance from a facility located on that property.

(c) A civil penalty may be imposed and recovered by an action brought by a county attorney or by the attorney general in the district court of the county in which the property is located.

(d) Any civil fines recovered under this subdivision shall be deposited in the fund.

Sec. 17. [115B.17] [STATE RESPONSE TO RELEASES.]

Subdivision 1. [REMOVAL AND REMEDIAL ACTION.] Whenever there is a release or substantial threat of release from a facility of any pollutant or contaminant which presents an imminent and substantial danger to the public health or welfare or the environment or whenever a hazardous substance is released or there is a threatened release of a hazardous substance from a facility:

(a) The agency may take any removal or remedial action relating to the hazardous substance, or pollutant or contaminant, which the agency deems necessary to protect the public health or welfare or the environment. Before taking any action the agency shall:

(1) Request any responsible party known to the agency to take actions which the agency deems reasonable and necessary to protect the public health or welfare or the environment, stating the reasons for the actions, a reasonable time for beginning and completing the actions taking into account the urgency of the actions for protecting the public health or welfare or the environment, and the intention of the agency to take action if the requested actions are not taken as requested;

(2) Notify the owner of real property where the facility is located or where response actions are proposed to be taken, if the owner is not a responsible party, that responsible parties have been requested to take response actions and that the owner's cooperation will be required in order for responsible parties or the agency to take those actions; and

(3) Determine that the actions requested by the agency will not be taken by any known responsible party in the manner and within the time requested.

(b) The director may take removal action which he deems necessary to protect the public health or welfare or the environment if the director determines that the release or threatened release constitutes an emergency requiring immediate action to prevent, minimize or mitigate damage to the public health or welfare or the environment. Before taking any action the director shall make reasonable efforts in light of the urgency of the action to follow the procedure provided in clause (a).

No removal action taken by any person shall be construed as an admission of liability for a release or threatened release.

Subd. 2. [OTHER ACTIONS.] Whenever the agency or director is authorized to act pursuant to subdivision 1 or whenever the agency or director has reason to believe that a release of a hazardous substance, or a pollutant or contaminant, has occurred or is about to occur, or that illness, disease, or complaints thereof may be attributable to exposure to a hazardous substance, or a pollutant or contaminant, the agency or director may undertake investigations, monitoring, surveys, testing, and other similar activities necessary or appropriate to identify the existence and extent of the release or threat thereof, the source and nature of the hazardous substances, or pollutants or contaminants, and the extent of danger to the public health or welfare or the environment. In addition, the agency may undertake planning, legal, fiscal, economic, engineering, architectural, and other studies or investigations necessary or appropriate to plan and direct a response action, to recover the costs of the response action, and to enforce the provisions of sections 1 to 18.

Subd. 3. [DUTY TO PROVIDE INFORMATION.] Any person who the agency has reason to believe is responsible for a release or threatened release as provided in section 3, or who is the owner of real property where the release or threatened release is located or where response actions are proposed to be taken, when requested by the agency, or any member, employee or agent thereof who is authorized by the agency, shall furnish to the agency any information which he may have or may reasonably obtain which is relevant to the release or threatened release.

Subd. 4. [ACCESS TO INFORMATION AND PROPERTY.] The agency or any member, employee or agent thereof authorized by the agency, upon presentation of credentials, may:

(a) Examine and copy any books, papers, records, memoranda or data of any person who has a duty to provide information to the agency under subdivision 3; and

(b) Enter upon any property, public or private, for the purpose of taking any action authorized by this section purpose of taking any action authorized by this section including obtaining information from any person who has a duty to provide the information under subdivision 3, conducting surveys or investigations, and taking removal or remedial action.

Subd. 5. [CLASSIFICATION OF DATA.] Except as otherwise provided in this subdivision, data obtained from any person pursuant to subdivision 3 or 4 is public data as defined in section 13.02. Upon certification by the subject of the data that the data relates to sales figures, processes or methods of production unique to that person, or information which would tend to affect adversely the competitive position of that person, the director shall classify the data as private or nonpublic data as defined in section 13.02. Notwithstanding any other law to the contrary, data classified as private or nonpublic under this subdivision may be disclosed when relevant in any proceeding under sections 1 to 18, or to other public agencies concerned with the implementation of sections 1 to 18.

Subd. 6. [RECOVERY OF EXPENSES.] Any reasonable and necessary expenses incurred by the agency or director pursuant to this section, including all response costs, and administrative and legal expenses, may be recovered in a civil action brought by the attorney general against any person who may be liable under section 4 or any other law. The agency's certification of expenses shall be prima facie evidence that the expenses are reasonable and necessary. Any expenses incurred pursuant to this section which are recovered by the attorney general pursuant to section 4 or any other law, including any award of attorneys fees, shall be deposited in the fund and credited to a special account for additional response actions as provided in section 20, subdivision 2, clause (b) or (d).

Subd. 7. [ACTIONS RELATING TO NATURAL RESOURCES.] For the purpose of this subdivision, the state is the trustee of the air, water and wildlife of the state. An action pursuant to section 4 for damages with respect to air, water or wildlife may be brought by the attorney general in the name of the state as trustee for those natural resources. Any damages recovered by the attorney general pursuant to section 4 or any other law for injury to, destruction of, or loss of natural resources resulting from the release of a hazardous substance, or a pollutant or contaminant, shall be deposited in the fund and credited to a special account for the purposes provided in section 20, subdivision 2, clause (f).

Subd. 8. [ACTIONS RELATING TO PESTICIDES OR FERTILIZER OR SOIL OR PLANT AMENDMENTS.] When the commissioner of agriculture has reported an incident involving the release of pesticides under the provisions of section 18A.37 or the release of fertilizers or soil or plant amendments, and the agency determines that the incident constitutes a release of a hazardous substance, or a pollutant or contaminant, the agency shall authorize the commissioner, subject to the provisions of subdivision 13, to take any action which the agency would be authorized to take under subdivisions 1 to 4. Subject to the provisions of section 20, subdivision 3, the agency shall reimburse the commissioner from the fund for the reasonable and necessary expenses incurred in taking those actions and may recover any amount spent from the fund under subdivision 6.

Subd. 9. [ACTIONS RELATING TO OCCUPATIONAL SAFETY AND

HEALTH.] The agency, director and the commissioner of labor and industry shall make reasonable efforts to coordinate any actions taken under this section and under sections 182.65 to 182.674 to avoid duplication or conflict of actions or requirements with respect to a release or threatened release affecting the safety of any conditions or place of employment.

Subd. 10. [ACTIONS RELATING TO HEALTH.] The agency and director shall make reasonable efforts to coordinate and consult with the commissioner of health in planning and directing response actions with respect to a release or threatened release affecting the public health. If the commissioner of health, upon the request of the agency, takes any actions authorized under this section, the agency shall reimburse the commissioner from the fund for the reasonable and necessary expenses incurred in taking those actions and may recover any amount spent from the fund under subdivision 6.

Subd. 11. [LIMIT ON ACTIONS BY POLITICAL SUBDIVISIONS.] When the agency or director has requested a person who is responsible for a release or threatened release to take any response action under subdivision 1, no political subdivision shall request or order that person to take any action which conflicts with the action requested by the agency or director.

Subd. 12. [AUTHORIZATION OF CERTAIN RESPONSE ACTIONS.] For the purpose of permitting a political subdivision or private person to recover response costs as provided in section 4, subdivision 6, the agency may authorize the political subdivision to take removal or remedial actions or may authorize the private person to take removal actions with respect to any release of a hazardous substance which was placed or came to be located in the facility before April 1, 1982. The authorization shall be based on application of the criteria in the rules of the agency adopted under subdivision 13 or, if the rules have not been adopted, under the criteria set forth in subdivision 13 on which the rules are required to be based. The authorization shall not be inconsistent with the criteria. This subdivision shall not be construed to prohibit a political subdivision or private person from taking removal or remedial actions without the authorization of the agency.

Subd. 13. [PRIORITIES; RULES.] By November 1, 1983, the agency shall establish a temporary list of priorities among releases or threatened releases for the purpose of taking remedial action and, to the extent practicable consistent with the urgency of the action, for taking removal action under this section. The temporary list, with any necessary modifications, shall remain in effect until the agency adopts rules establishing state criteria for determining priorities among releases and threatened releases. The agency shall adopt the rules by July 1, 1984. After rules are adopted, a permanent priority list shall be established, and may be modified from time to time, according to the criteria set forth in the rules. Before any list is established under this subdivision the agency shall publish the list in the state register and allow 30 days for comments on the list by the public.

The temporary list and the rules required by this subdivision shall be based upon the relative risk or danger to public health or welfare or the environment, taking into account to the extent possible the population at risk, the hazardous potential of the hazardous substances at the facilities, the potential for contamination of drinking water supplies, the potential for direct human contact, the potential for destruction of sensitive ecosystems, the administrative and financial capabilities of the agency, and other appropriate factors.

Sec. 18. [115B.18] [FAILURE TO TAKE REQUESTED ACTIONS; CIVIL PENALTIES; ACTION TO COMPEL PERFORMANCE; INJUNCTIVE RELIEF.]

Subdivision 1. [CIVIL PENALTIES.] Any person responsible for a release or threatened release from a facility of a pollutant or contaminant which presents an imminent and substantial danger to the public health or welfare or the environment or for a release or threatened release of a hazardous substance from a facility shall forfeit and pay to the state a civil penalty in an amount to be determined by the court of not more than $20,000 per day for each day that the person fails to take reasonable and necessary response actions or to make reasonable progress in completing response actions requested as provided in subdivision 3.

The penalty provided under this subdivision may be recovered by an action brought by the attorney general in the name of the state in connection with an action to recover expenses of the agency under section 17, subdivision 6, or by a separate action in the district court of Ramsey County. All penalties recovered under this subdivision shall be deposited in the fund.

Subd. 2. [ACTION TO COMPEL PERFORMANCE.] When any person who is responsible for a release or threatened release from a facility of a pollutant or contaminant which presents an imminent and substantial danger to the public health or welfare or the environment or for a release or threatened release of a hazardous substance from a facility, fails to take response actions or to make reasonable progress in completing response actions requested as provided in subdivision 3, the attorney general may bring an action in the name of the state to compel performance of the requested response actions. If any person having any right, title, or interest in and to the real property where the facility is located or where response actions are proposed to be taken is not a person responsible for the release or threatened release, the person may be joined as an indispensable party in an action to compel performance in order to assure that the requested response actions can be taken on that property by the responsible parties.

Subd. 3. [REQUESTS FOR RESPONSE ACTIONS.] A request for emergency removal action shall be made by the director. Other requests for response actions shall be made by the agency. A request shall be in writing, shall state the action requested, the reasons for the action, and a reasonable time by which the action must be begun and completed taking into account the urgency of the action for protection of the public health or welfare or the environment.

Subd. 4. [INJUNCTIVE RELIEF.] The release or threatened release of a hazardous substance, or a pollutant or contaminant, shall constitute a public nuisance and may be enjoined in an action, in the name of the state, brought by the attorney general.

Sec. 19. [115B.19] [PURPOSES OF FUND AND TAXES.]

In establishing the environmental response, compensation and compliance fund in section 20 and imposing taxes in section 22 it is the purpose of the legislature to:

(a) Encourage treatment and disposal of hazardous waste in a manner that adequately protects the public health or welfare or the environment;

(b) Encourage responsible parties to provide the response actions necessary to protect the public and the environment from the effects of the release of hazardous substances;

(c) Encourage the use of alternatives to land disposal of hazardous waste including resource recovery, recycling, neutralization, and reduction;

(d) Provide state agencies with the financial resources needed to prepare and implement an effective and timely state response to the release of hazardous substances, including investigation, planning, removal and remedial action;

(e) Compensate for increased governmental expenses and loss of revenue and to provide other appropriate assistance to mitigate any adverse impact on communities in which commercial hazardous waste processing or disposal facilities are located under the siting process provided in chapter 115A;

(f) Recognize the environmental and public health costs of land disposal of solid waste and of the use and disposal of hazardous substances and to place the burden of financing state hazardous waste management activities on those whose products and services contribute to hazardous waste management problems and increase the risks of harm to the public and the environment.

Sec. 20. [115B.20] [ENVIRONMENTAL RESPONSE, COMPENSATION AND COMPLIANCE FUND.]

Subdivision 1. [ESTABLISHMENT.] The environmental response, compensation and compliance fund is created as an account in the state treasury and may be spent only for the purposes provided in subdivision 2.

Subd. 2. [PURPOSES FOR WHICH MONEY MAY BE SPENT.] Subject to appropriation by the legislature the money in the fund may be spent for any of the following purposes:

(a) Preparation by the agency for taking removal or remedial action under section 17, including investigation, monitoring and testing activities, enforcement and compliance efforts relating to the release of hazardous substances, pollutants or contaminants under section 17 or 18;

(b) Removal and remedial actions taken or authorized by the agency or director under section 17, including related enforcement and compliance efforts under section 17 or 18, and payment of the state share of the cost of remedial action which may be carried out under a cooperative agreement with the federal government pursuant to the Federal Superfund Act, under 42 U.S.C. Section 9604(c)(3) for actions related to facilities other than commercial hazardous waste facilities located under the siting authority of chapter 115A;

(c) Reimbursement to any private person for expenditures made before July 1, 1983 to provide alternative water supplies deemed necessary by the agency and the department of health to protect the public health from contamination resulting from the release of a hazardous substance;

(d) Removal and remedial actions taken or authorized by the agency or director under section 17 including related enforcement and compliance efforts under section 17 or 18, and payment of the state share of the cost of remedial action which may be carried out under a cooperative agreement with the federal government pursuant to the Federal Superfund Act, under 42 U.S.C. Section 9604(c)(3) for actions related to commercial hazardous waste facilities located under the siting authority of chapter 115A;

(e) Compensation as provided by law, after submission by the waste management board of the report required under section 115A.08, subdivision 5, to mitigate any adverse impact of the location of commercial hazardous waste processing or disposal facilities located pursuant to the siting authority of chapter 115A;

(f) Planning and implementation by the commissioner of natural resources of the rehabilitation, restoration or acquisition of natural resources to remedy injuries or losses to natural resources resulting from the release of a hazardous substance;

(g) Inspection, monitoring and compliance efforts by the agency, or by political subdivisions with agency approval, of commercial hazardous waste facilities located under the siting authority of chapter 115A;

(h) Grants by the agency or the waste management board to demonstrate alternatives to land disposal of hazardous waste including reduction, separation, pretreatment, processing and resource recovery, for education of persons involved in regulating and handling hazardous waste;

(i) Intervention and environmental mediation by the legislative commission on waste management under chapter 115A; and

(j) Grants by the agency to study the extent of contamination and feasibility of cleanup of hazardous substances and pollutants or contaminants in major waterways of the state.

Subd. 3. [LIMIT ON CERTAIN EXPENDITURES.] The director or agency may not spend any money under subdivision 2, clause (b) or (d) for removal or remedial actions to the extent that the costs of those actions may be compensated from any fund established under the Federal Superfund Act, 42 U.S.C. Section 9600 et seq. The director or agency shall determine the extent to which any of the costs of those actions may be compensated under the federal act based on the likelihood that the compensation will be available in a timely fashion. In making this determination the director or agency shall take into account:

(a) The urgency of the removal or remedial actions and the priority assigned under the Federal Superfund Act to the release which necessitates those actions;

(b) The availability of money in the funds established under the Federal Superfund Act; and

(c) The consistency of any compensation for the cost of the proposed actions under the Federal Superfund Act with the national contingency plan, if such a plan has been adopted under that act.

Subd. 4. [REVENUE SOURCES.] Revenue from the following sources shall be deposited in the environmental response, compensation and compliance fund:

(a) The proceeds of the taxes imposed pursuant to section 22, including interest and penalties;

(b) All money recovered by the state under sections 1 to 18 or under any other statute or rule related to the regulation of hazardous waste or hazardous substances, including civil penalties and money paid under any agreement, stipulation or settlement but excluding fees imposed under section 25;

(c) All interest attributable to investment of money deposited in the fund; and

(d) All money received in the form of gifts, grants, reimbursement or appropriation from any source for any of the purposes provided in subdivision 2, except federal grants.

Subd. 5. [RECOMMENDATION BY LCWM.] The legislative commission on waste management shall make recommendations to the standing legislative committees on finance and appropriations regarding appropriations from the fund.

Subd. 6. [REPORT TO LEGISLATURE.] By November 1, 1984, and each year thereafter, the agency shall submit to the senate finance committee, the house appropriations committee and the legislative commission on waste management a report detailing the activities for which money from the environmental response, compensation and compliance fund has been spent during the previous fiscal year.

Sec. 21. [115B.21] [TAXES; DEFINITIONS.]

Subdivision 1. [APPLICATION.] The definitions provided in this section and section 2 apply to sections 21 to 24.

Subd. 2. [COMMISSIONER.] "Commissioner" means the commissioner of revenue.

Subd. 3. [GENERATOR.] "Generator" means a person who generates hazardous waste and who is required to disclose the generation of hazardous waste under the hazardous waste rules of the agency adopted under section 116.07.

Subd. 4. [LONG TERM CONTAINMENT.] "Long term containment" means land disposal or storage for a period of more than one year.

Subd. 5. [TREATMENT.] "Treatment" means any material, technique or process designed to change the physical, chemical or biological character or composition of a hazardous waste in order to: (a) neutralize it; (b) render it nonhazardous or less hazardous; (c) render it safer to transport, store or dispose of; (d) make it amenable to storage; or (e) reduce its volume.

Subd. 6. [WASTEWATER TREATMENT UNIT.] "Wastewater treatment unit" means a device which is part of a wastewater treatment facility subject to regulation pursuant to the federal Clean Water Act under 33 U.S.C. Section 1317 (b) or 1342.

Sec. 22. [115B.22] [HAZARDOUS WASTE GENERATOR TAX.]

Subdivision 1. [TAXES IMPOSED; EXCLUSIONS.] Each generator of hazardous waste shall pay the taxes imposed by this section based upon the volume and destination of the hazardous wastes generated. The taxes imposed by this section do not apply to hazardous wastes destined for recycling or reuse including waste accumulated, stored, or physically, chemically, or biologically treated before recycling or reuse, to used crankcase oil, to hazardous waste which is generated as a result of any response action, or to hazardous waste which meets applicable pretreatment standards or compliance schedules and is discharged to a public sewage treatment works.

Subd. 2. [LONG TERM CONTAINMENT WITHOUT TREATMENT.] Hazardous waste destined for long term containment without treatment shall be taxed at the rate of 32 cents per gallon of liquid or $32 per cubic yard of solid.

Subd. 3. [LONG TERM CONTAINMENT AFTER TREATMENT.] Hazardous waste destined for long term containment after treatment shall be taxed at the rate of 16 cents per gallon of liquid or $16 per cubic yard of solid.

Subd. 4. [LAND TREATMENT.] Hazardous waste destined for treatment in or on the land shall be taxed at the rate of $32 per cubic yard.

Subd. 5. [OTHER TREATMENT.] Hazardous waste destined for treatment, other than as provided in subdivision 6, to produce a material which is not hazardous, including treatment permitted by the agency in a sewage treatment works, or hazardous waste which is destined for destructive treatment by incineration shall be taxed at the rate of eight cents per gallon of liquid or $8 per cubic yard of solid.

Subd. 6. [ON-SITE WASTEWATER TREATMENT.] The tax imposed under this section does not apply to hazardous waste which is destined for treatment in an on-site wastewater treatment unit to produce a material which is not hazardous before entering a public sewer system or waters of the state but the tax does apply to any residue of treatment which is a hazardous waste.

Subd. 7. [DISPOSITION OF PROCEEDS.] The proceeds of the taxes imposed under this section including any interest and penalties shall be deposited in the fund.

Subd. 8. [REVIEW OF TAX BY LCWM.] After the waste management board submits the plan required under section 115A.11 to the legislative commission on waste management, the commission shall review the taxes and tax rates imposed under this section in light of the objectives and recommendations of the plan, and shall recommend to the standing tax committees of both houses of the legislature any changes in the taxes or tax rates which are needed to assist or encourage implementation of the strategies adopted by the state for management of hazardous waste.

Sec. 23. [115B.23] [SEVERABILITY.]

If any tax imposed under section 22 is found to be invalid because of the purpose for which the proceeds were appropriated or made available under section 20, subdivision 2, the proceeds of that tax shall not be appropriated or available for the objectionable purposes, but the tax shall continue to be imposed and the proceeds shall be appropriated and made available for other purposes provided in section 20, subdivision 2.

Sec. 24. [115B.24] [TAX ADMINISTRATION AND ENFORCEMENT.]

Subdivision 1. [ANNUAL RETURNS.] Every generator of hazardous waste subject to taxation pursuant to section 22 shall file a return relating to the tax due for the preceding calendar year with the commissioner of revenue by April 15 each year, in the form prescribed by the commissioner. Payment of the tax, to the extent not paid in full pursuant to subdivisions 2 and 3, shall be submitted with the return.

Subd. 2. [DECLARATIONS OF ESTIMATED TAX.] For 1983, every generator of hazardous waste required to pay a tax pursuant to section 22 shall make a declaration of estimated hazardous waste generated for the last six months of calendar 1983 if the tax can reasonably be estimated to exceed $500. The declaration of the estimated tax shall be filed by October 15, 1983. The amount of estimated tax with respect to which a declaration is required shall be paid in two equal installments by October 15, 1983 and January 15, 1984. For 1984 and subsequent years, every generator of hazardous waste required to pay a tax pursuant to section 22 shall make a declaration of estimated hazardous waste generated for the calendar year if the tax can reasonably be expected to be in excess of $1,000. The declaration of estimated tax shall be filed by March 15. The amount of estimated tax with respect to which a declaration is required shall be paid in four equal installments on or before the 15th day of March, June, September, and December.

An amendment of a declaration may be filed in any interval between installment dates prescribed above but only one amendment may be filed in each interval. If an amendment of a declaration is filed, the amount of each remaining installment shall be the amount which would have been payable if the new estimate had been made when the first estimate for the calendar year was made, increased or decreased, as the case may be, by the amount computed by dividing

(1) the difference between (A) the amount of estimated tax required to be paid before the date on which the amendment was made, and (B) the amount of estimated tax which would have been required to be paid before that date if the new estimate had been made when the first estimate was made, by

(2) the number of installments remaining to be paid on or after the date on which the amendment is made.

The commissioner of revenue may grant a reasonable extension of time for filing any declaration but the extension shall not be for more than six months.

Subd. 3. [FAILURE TO PAY ESTIMATED TAX.] (a) In case of any underpayment of estimated tax required by this section, except as provided in clause (b), there shall be added to the tax for the taxable year an amount determined at the rate specified in section 270.75, subdivision 4, upon the amount of the underpayment for the period of the underpayment.

For purposes of this subdivision, the amount of the underpayment shall be the excess of

(1) the amount of the installment, over

(2) the amount, if any, of the installment paid on or before the last date prescribed for payment.

The period of the underpayment shall run from the date the installment was required to be paid to whichever of the following dates is the earlier:

(1) April 15, or

(2) With respect to any portion of the underpayment, the date on which the portion is paid. For purposes of this paragraph, a payment of estimated tax on any installment date shall be considered a payment of any previous underpayment only to the extent the payment exceeds the amount of the installment determined under this subdivision for the installment date.

(b) Notwithstanding the provisions of clause (a), the addition to the tax with respect to any underpayment of any installment shall not be imposed if the total amount of all payments of estimated tax made on or before the last date prescribed for the payment of the installment equals or exceeds the amount which would have been required to be paid on or before that date if the estimated tax were the lesser of:

(1) For 1985 and thereafter, the tax shown on the return of the taxpayer for the preceding year or, for 1984, twice the amount of the tax shown for 1983; or

(2) Eighty percent of the actual liability for the year.

Subd. 4. [REFUNDS OF OVERPAYMENTS OF ESTIMATED TAX.] Refunds of overpayments of estimated tax shall be made as provided in section 290.936.

Subd. 5. [EXCHANGE OF INFORMATION.] Notwithstanding the provisions of section 116.075, the pollution control agency may provide the commissioner of revenue with the information necessary for the enforcement of section 22 and this section. Information disclosed in a return filed pursuant to this section is public. Information exchanged between the commissioner and the agency is public unless the information is of the type determined to be for the confidential use of the agency pursuant to section 116.075 or is trade secret information classified pursuant to section 13.37. Information obtained in the course of an audit of the taxpayer by the department of revenue shall be nonpublic or private data to the extent that it is not directly divulged in a return of the tax.

Subd. 6. [PAYMENT BY OUT-OF-STATE GENERATORS.] A generator of any hazardous waste which is generated outside of this state and is transported into this state for long term containment or treatment as described in section 22, subdivisions 2 to 5 shall pay the tax imposed by section 22 at the first point at which the hazardous wastes are received by a person in this state for storage, treatment or long term containment. The tax shall be paid to the person who first receives the wastes in this state at the time the waste is received and shall be remitted by that person to the commissioner of revenue quarterly in the form and manner provided by the commissioner.

Subd. 7. [DUTIES OF THE AGENCY AND METROPOLITAN COUNTIES.] The agency shall provide to the commissioner the names and addresses of all persons known to the agency who are subject to tax under section 22, together with any information which the agency possesses concerning the amount of hazardous waste generated and disposed of by those persons. Metropolitan counties required to regulate hazardous wastes under section 473.811, subdivision 5b, shall provide to the agency the data and information necessary to allow the agency to carry out its duties under this subdivision. Upon request by the commissioner, the agency shall examine returns and reports filed with the commissioner and notify the commissioner of any suspected inaccurate or fraudulent declaration or return. The agency may assist in auditing any person subject to tax under section 22 when requested by the commissioner.

Subd. 8. [PENALTIES; ENFORCEMENT.] The audit, penalty and enforcement provisions applicable to taxes imposed under chapter 290 apply to the taxes imposed under section 22 and those provisions shall be administered by the commissioner.

Subd. 9. [RULES.] The commissioner may adopt temporary and permanent rules necessary to implement the provisions of this section and section 22.

Subd. 10. [ADMINISTRATIVE EXPENSES.] Any amount expended by the commissioner from a general fund appropriation to enforce and administer section 22 and this section shall be reimbursed to the general fund and the amount necessary to make the reimbursement is appropriated from the fund to the commissioner of finance for transfer to the general fund.

Sec. 25. [116.12] [HAZARDOUS WASTE ADMINISTRATION FEES.]

Subdivision 1. [FEE SCHEDULES.] The agency shall establish the fees provided in subdivisions 2 and 3 in the manner provided in section 16A.128 to cover the amount appropriated from the general fund to the agency for that year for permitting, monitoring, inspection and enforcement expenses of the hazardous waste activities of the agency.

The legislature may appropriate additional amounts that need not be covered by fees or may provide that the fees shall cover only a portion of the general fund appropriation for the hazardous waste activities of the agency, in order to assure adequate funding for the regulatory and enforcement functions of the agency related to hazardous waste. All fees collected by the agency under this section shall be deposited in the general fund.

Subd. 2. [HAZARDOUS WASTE GENERATOR FEE.] Each generator of hazardous waste shall pay a fee on the hazardous waste which he generates. The agency shall compute the amount of the fee due based on the hazardous waste disclosures submitted by the generators and other information available to the agency. The agency shall annually prepare a statement of the amount of the fee due from each generator. The fee shall be paid annually commencing with the first day of the calendar quarter after the date of the statement.

The agency may exempt generators of small quantities of hazardous wastes otherwise subject to the fee if it finds that the cost of administering a fee on those generators is excessive relative to the proceeds of the fee. The fee shall consist of a minimum fee for each generator not exempted by the agency and an additional fee based on the quantity of wastes generated by the generator.

If any metropolitan counties recover the costs of administering county hazardous waste regulations by charging fees, the fees charged by the agency outside of those counties shall not exceed the fees charged by those counties. The agency shall not charge a fee in any metropolitan county which charges such a fee. The agency shall impose a fee calculated as a surcharge on the fees charged by the metropolitan counties and by the agency to reflect the agency's expenses in carrying out its statewide hazardous waste regulatory responsibilities. The surcharge imposed on the fees charged by the metropolitan counties shall be collected by the metropolitan counties in the manner in which the counties collect their generator fees. Metropolitan counties shall remit the proceeds of the surcharge to the agency by the last day of the month following the month in which they were collected.

Subd. 3. [FACILITY FEES.] The agency shall charge an original permit fee, a reissuance fee and an annual operator's fee for any hazardous waste facility regulated by the agency. The agency may include reasonable and necessary costs of any environmental review required under chapter 116D in the original permit fee for any hazardous waste facility.

Sec. 26. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 115A.24, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [CERTIFICATE.] ~~Except as provided in subdivision 2;~~ By December 15, 1982, on the basis of and consistent with its hazardous waste management plan adopted under section 115A.11, the board shall issue a certificate or certificates of need for disposal facilities for hazardous wastes in the state. The certificate or certificates shall indicate the types and volumes of waste for which disposal facilities are and will be needed through the year 2000 and the number, types, sizes, general design and operating specifications, and function or use of the disposal facilities needed in the state. The board shall certify need only to the extent that the board has determined that there are no feasible and prudent alternatives including waste reduction, separation, pretreatment, processing, and resource recovery which would minimize adverse impact upon natural resources, provided that the board shall require the establishment of at least one commercial disposal facility in the state. Economic considerations alone shall not justify certification nor the rejection of alternatives. Alternatives that are speculative and conjectural shall not be deemed to be feasible and prudent. The board shall consider all technologies being developed in other countries as well as in the United States when it considers the alternatives to hazardous waste disposal. The certificate or certificates shall not be subject to the provisions of chapter 14 but shall be the final determination required on the matters decided by the certificate or certificates and shall have the force and effect of law. The certificate or certificates shall not be amended for five years. The board and the permitting agencies, in reviewing and selecting sites, completing environmental impact statements, and issuing approvals and permits for waste disposal facilities described in the certificate or certificates of need, shall not reconsider matters determined in the certification. The board and the permitting agencies shall be required to make a final decision approving the establishment of facilities consistent with the certification. The board and the permitting agencies shall be required to make a final decision approving the establishment of at least one commercial disposal facility for hazardous waste in the state.

Sec. 27. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 466.01, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 3. For the purposes of sections 466.01 to 466.15, "release" and "hazardous substance" have the meanings given in section 2.

Sec. 28. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 466.04, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [LIMITS; PUNITIVE DAMAGES.] Liability of any municipality on any claim within the scope of sections 466.01 to 466.15 shall not exceed

(a) $100,000 when the claim is one for death by wrongful act or omission and $100,000 to any claimant in any other case;

(b) $300,000 for any number of claims arising out of a single occurrence-;

(c) Twice the limits provided in clauses (a) and (b), but not less than $300,000 per claim, when the claim arises out of the release or threatened release of a hazardous substance, whether the claim is brought under sections 1 to 15 or under any other law.

No award for damages on any such claim shall include punitive damages.

Sec. 29. [RECOMMENDATIONS CONCERNING ALLOCATION OF LIABILITY.]

The waste management board shall make recommendations to the legislature by November 1, 1983 regarding the allocation of liability among the owners, operators, and users of a hazardous waste disposal facility established pursuant to sections 115A.18 to 115A.30, including any recommended legislative changes, taking into consideration the need for the facility, the state's involvement in the facility, the need to protect the health, property and environment of the local community from injury and loss, and the need for incentives to encourage the development and use of alternatives to land disposal. The recommendations shall be made after consultation with affected industries, including insurers, generators, transporters, disposers, and treaters of hazardous waste, individuals, including academic, scientific and legal professionals, and groups, including community and environmental groups.

Sec. 30. [VICTIM COMPENSATION STUDY.]

By July 1, 1984, the legislative commission on waste management shall conduct a study and make recommendations to the legislature on the creation of a compensation fund to compensate persons who are injured as the result of a release of a hazardous substance and who would not otherwise be adequately compensated for their injuries. The study shall consider matters including the following:

(a) The appropriate scope of compensation which should be provided by the fund including the extent of any compensation which should be available for medical expenses, disability, loss of income, physical impairment, and death;

(b) Creation of a simple, speedy, and cost efficient claims procedure which provides an effective remedy for injured claimants;

(c) Methods by which compensation can be financed by those who create or contribute to the risk of injury from hazardous substance releases, including the manner by which the state may seek to recover amounts paid from the fund; and

(d) Whether the fund should be established or administered at the federal or state level and the appropriate degree of state and federal cooperation in providing compensation.

Sec. 31. [INSURANCE STUDY.]

The commissioner of insurance shall conduct a study of insurance providing coverage for liability under section 5. The commissioner shall submit the results of the study, together with his recommendations, to the legislature by July 1, 1985. The director of the pollution control agency shall cooperate with and provide assistance to the commissioner during the course of the study.

Sec. 32. [APPROPRIATION; COMPLEMENT.]

Subdivision 1. [APPROPRIATION TO FUND.] $5,000,000 is appropriated from the general fund and transferred to the environmental response, compensation, and compliance fund established in section 20. This appropriation is available until expended.

Subd. 2. [TAX ADMINISTRATION; COMPLEMENT.] $50,000 in fiscal year 1984 and $40,000 in fiscal year 1985 is appropriated from the general fund to the commissioner of revenue for the purposes of administering and enforcing sections 21 to 24. This appropriation shall be reimbursed to the general fund under the provisions of section 24, subdivision 10.

The complement of the department of revenue is increased by two positions.

Subd. 3. [APPROPRIATION FOR RESPONSE ACTIONS; COMPLEMENT.] $483,700 in fiscal year 1984 and $400,700 in fiscal year 1985 is appropriated from the environmental response, compensation, and compliance fund to the pollution control agency for administrative costs.

The complement of the pollution control agency is increased by ten positions.

All money in the environmental response, compensation, and compliance fund not otherwise appropriated is appropriated to the pollution control agency for the purposes described in section 20, subdivision 2, clauses (a), (b), and (c). This appropriation is available until June 30, 1985.

Subd. 4. [APPROPRIATION FOR COMPLIANCE ACTIONS; COMPLEMENT.] $45,600 in fiscal year 1984 and $56,400 in fiscal year 1985 is appropriated from the general fund to the attorney general for the purposes of enforcing this act. This appropriation shall be reimbursed to the general fund from the environmental response, compensation, and compliance fund, and the amount necessary to make the reimbursement is appropriated to the commissioner of finance for transfer to the general fund.

The complement of the office of the attorney general is increased by two positions.

Subd. 5. [APPROPRIATION FOR VICTIM COMPENSATION STUDY.] $20,000 is appropriated from the general fund to the legislative commission on waste management to carry out the study required by section 30.

Subd. 6. [APPROPRIATION FOR INSURANCE STUDY.] There is appropriated from the general fund to the commissioner of insurance $5,000 for fiscal year 1984, to conduct the study described in section 31.

Sec. 33. [REPEALER.]

Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 115A.24, subdivision 2, is repealed.

Sec. 34. [EFFECTIVE DATE.]

Sections 17 to 24 are effective the day following final enactment. The taxes imposed by section 22 are effective July 1, 1983. The remaining sections of this act are effective July 1, 1983."

So the bill, as amended by the Conference Committee, was repassed and its title was agreed to.

Without objection, the Senate reverted to the Order of Business of Messages From the House, Reports of Committees and Second Reading of Senate Bills.

MESSAGES FROM THE HOUSE

Mr. President:

I have the honor to announce that the House refuses to concur in the Senate amendments to House File No. 667.

H.F. No. 667: A bill for an act relating to employment; providing leaves of absence for adoptive parents; proposing new law coded in Minnesota Statutes, chapter 181.

And the House respectfully requests that a Conference Committee of three members be appointed thereon:

Blatz, Price and Krueger have been appointed as such committee on the part of the House.

House File No. 667 is herewith transmitted to the Senate with the request that the Senate appoint a like committee.

Edward A. Burdick, Chief Clerk, House of Representatives

Transmitted May 4, 1983

Mr. Benson moved that the Senate accede to the request of the House for a Conference Committee on H.F. No. 667, and that a Conference Committee of 3 members be appointed by the Subcommittee on Committees on the part of the Senate, to act with a like Conference Committee appointed on the part of the House. The motion prevailed.

$125,000.....1984,

The appropriations are based on 100 percent aid entitlements of $125,000 for fiscal year 1984 and $125,000 for fiscal year 1985.

This appropriation includes funds for the employment of one staff by the commissioner to administer the program in section 19.

The department of education's approved complement is increased by 1.0 with this appropriation.

Subd. 17. [CARDIOPULMONARY RESUSCITATION INSTRUCTION.] There is appropriated from the general fund to the department of education the sum of $35,000 for fiscal year 1984 for educational cooperative service units to purchase equipment needed for instruction in cardiopulmonary resuscitation. The equipment shall be available for use by school districts. Funds from this appropriation shall be transmitted to ECSU boards of directors. The department of education shall issue grants to ECSU's based on the following criteria: the number of school districts in the ECSU, the number of students served by the ECSU, and other resources available to the ECSU. The sums appropriated are available until expended.

Subd. 18. [CAMPUS LABORATORY SCHOOL.] The following sums are appropriated from the general fund to St. Cloud State University for the laboratory school at St. Cloud for the fiscal years ending June 30 in the years indicated:

Subd. 19. [EDUCATION DISTRICTS.] There is appropriated from the general fund to the department of education the sum of $2,000,000 for purposes of the program established under section 13. The state board of education shall approve agreements according to section 15, subdivision 6, within the limits of the appropriation. Approved agreements shall receive full funding. The sum shall be available until June 30, 1985.

Subd. 20. [PINE POINT SCHOOL.] There is appropriated from the general fund to the department of education for Independent School District No. 309, Pine Point School, the sum of $57,000 for payment of obligations. The sum shall be available until June 30, 1985.

Subd. 21. [CANCELLATION AND PRORATION.] Except as provided in subdivisions 5, 6, and 7, any unexpended balance remaining from the appropriations in this section for 1984 shall cancel and shall not be available for the second year of the biennium. Except as provided in subdivisions 5 and 6, none of the amounts appropriated in this section shall be expended for a purpose other than the purpose indicated. If the appropriation amount attributable to either year for the purpose indicated is insufficient, the aid for that year shall be prorated among all qualifying districts and the state shall not be obligated for any amount in excess of the appropriations in this section for these purposes."

"Sec. 4. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 16A.15, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [REDUCTION.] In case the commissioner of finance shall discover at any time that the probable receipts from taxes or other sources for any appropriation, fund, or item will be less than was anticipated, and that consequently the amount available for the remainder of the biennium will be less than the amount estimated or allotted therefor, ~~he~~ the commissioner shall, with the approval of the governor, and after notice to the agency concerned, either:

(a) after consultation with the legislative advisory commission created by section 3.30, transfer from the budget reserve account established in section 16A.153, to the general fund the amount necessary to balance revenue and expenditures;

(b) reduce the amount allotted or to be allotted so as to prevent a deficit; or

(c) make any combination of transfers and reductions as provided by clauses (a) and (b).

Provided, however, no allotment pursuant to an appropriation for state aids, payments, reimbursements or fund transfers to or on behalf of school districts shall be reduced pursuant to this subdivision.

In like manner ~~he~~ the commissioner shall request reduction of the amount allotted or to be allotted to any agency by the amount of any saving which can be effected upon previous spending plans through a reduction in prices or other cause."

So the bill passed and its title was agreed to.

Without objection, the Senate reverted to the Order of Business of Reports of Committees, Second Reading of Senate Bills and Second Reading of House Bills.

REPORTS OF COMMITTEES

Mr. Moe, R.D. moved that the Committee Reports at the Desk be now adopted. The motion prevailed.

Mr. Johnson, D.J. from the Committee on Taxes and Tax Laws, to which was referred

H.F. No. 1171: A bill for an act relating to taxation; clarifying the income tax treatment of certain debt obligations of state and local governments; amending Minnesota Statutes 1982, sections 80A.09, subdivision 1; 115A.69, subdivision 6; 116A.25; 116J.89, subdivision 6; 136.32; 136A.179; 136A.39; 193.146, subdivision 4; 272.02, subdivision 1; 362A.07; 447.35; 447.49; 458.193, subdivision 6; 458A.05, subdivision 6; 458A.09; 462.191, subdivision 3; 462.551; 462A.19, subdivision 1; 472.09, subdivision 4; 473.436, subdivision 6; 473.448; 473.545; and 473.666; repealing Minnesota Statutes 1982, sections 116J.89, subdivision 7; 462A.19, subdivision 2; and 474.12.

Reports the same back with the recommendation that the bill do pass. Report adopted.

Mr. Johnson, D.J. from the Committee on Taxes and Tax Laws, to which was re-referred H.F. No. 1111: A bill for an act relating to local government; regulating town levies in Crow Wing County; repealing Laws 1941, chapter 451.

Reports the same back with the recommendation that the bill do pass. Report adopted.

Mr. Johnson, D.J. from the Committee on Taxes and Tax Laws, to which was referred

S.F. No. 619: A bill for an act relating to taxation; providing for collection of employers' contributions to the unemployment compensation fund by the department of revenue; amending Minnesota Statutes 1982, sections 268.05, subdivision 2; 268.12, subdivision 12; 268.16, subdivisions 1 and 2; 268.161, subdivisions 1, 3, 4, 5, 6, 7, 8, and 9; proposing new law coded in chapter 270.

Reports the same back with the recommendation that the bill be amended as follows:

Delete everything after the enacting clause and insert:

“Section 1. [STUDY.]

The commissioner of revenue and the commissioner of economic security shall prepare a report to be given to the chairmen of the Senate committees on taxes and tax laws, employment, and governmental operations, and the House committees on taxes, labor-management relations, and governmental operations. The report shall contain recommendations from the commissioners on possible functions of each agency which could be combined or performed jointly to achieve economy in the budgets of the agencies and/or reduce paperwork for taxpayers. The report shall include proposed legislation to accomplish the recommendations of the commissioners. The report shall be submitted by January 15, 1984, to the legislative committee chairmen.

Sec. 2. [EFFECTIVE DATE.]

This act shall be effective the day following final enactment."

Amend the title as follows:

Page 1, line 2, delete everything after the semicolon

Page 1, delete lines 3 to 9 and insert "providing for a study by the commissioners of revenue and economic security."

And when so amended the bill do pass. Amendments adopted. Report adopted.

Mr. Johnson, D.J. from the Committee on Taxes and Tax Laws, to which was re-referred

S.F. No. 375: A bill for an act relating to local government; providing authority for cities and counties to establish and maintain district heating systems; proposing new law coded in Minnesota Statutes, chapter 444.

Reports the same back with the recommendation that the bill be amended as follows:

Delete everything after the enacting clause and insert:

"Section 1. [BLOOMINGTON; DISTRICT HEATING SYSTEMS.]

Subdivision 1. [AUTHORIZATION.] The city of Bloomington may build, construct, reconstruct, repair, enlarge, improve, or in any other manner obtain a district heating system as defined in Minnesota Statutes, section 465.74, subdivision 6, and maintain and operate it inside or outside its corporate limits, and acquire by gift, purchase, lease, condemnation, or otherwise the land and other interests in real estate required for the purpose. The authority granted by this section is in addition to other powers relating to district heating systems granted by law or charter.

Subd. 2. [FINANCING.] To pay the cost of building, constructing, reconstructing, repairing, enlarging, or in other manner obtaining a system or part of a system, the city may issue and sell general or special obligations, which may be made payable primarily from taxes or from special assessments to be levied to pay the cost of the system or from net revenues derived from service charges or from any other nontax revenues pledged for their payment under charter or other statutory authority, or from two or more of those sources. Real estate tax revenues may be used to pay general or special obligations when other revenues are insufficient to meet the obligations. Except as provided in sections 1 to 7, obligations shall be issued and sold in accordance with Minnesota Statutes, chapter 475. When special assessments are pledged for the payment of obligations, they shall be authorized and issued in accordance with Minnesota Statutes, chapter 429, or the city charter if the governing body determines to proceed under the charter. When net revenues are pledged to the payment of the obligations, together with or apart from taxes and special assessments, the pledge shall be made in accordance with subdivision 3.

Subd. 3. [CHARGES; NET REVENUES.] To pay for the construction, reconstruction, repair, enlargement, improvement, or other obtainment and the maintenance, operation, and use of the system, the governing body of the city may impose just and equitable charges for the use and for the availability of the system and for connections with it and make contracts for charges. The charges may be imposed for a system made available by an agreement with another municipality, county, private corporation, or individual, as well as for a system owned and operated by the city.

A charge made for service directly rendered shall be proportionate to the cost of furnishing it, or on another equitable basis or combination of bases. Minimum charges for availability may be imposed for premises abutting on a street or other place where a service line is located, whether or not the premises are connected. Charges for connections may, in the discretion of the governing body, be fixed by reference to the portion of the cost of the facilities which has been paid by assessment of the premises to be connected, in comparison with other premises, as well as the cost of making or supervising the connections. The governing body may make connection charges a charge against the owner, lessee, occupant, or all of them and may provide for and covenant to certify unpaid charges to the county auditor with taxes against the property to be collected as other taxes are collected.

The governing body may levy taxes to pay reasonable charges to the municipality itself for the use and availability of the system for public buildings and other public places.

In determining the reasonableness of the charges to be imposed, the governing body may consider all costs of the establishment, operation, maintenance, depreciation, and necessary replacements of the system, and of improvements, enlargements, and extensions necessary for adequate service, including the principal and interest to become due on obligations issued or to be issued for the system.

When net revenues have been appropriated to the payment of the cost of the establishment, or of any specified replacement, improvement, enlargement, or extension of the system, or to pay the principal and interest due on obligations to be issued for that purpose, no charges imposed to produce net revenues adequate for that purpose shall be deemed unreasonable because the project to be financed has not been commenced or completed, if proceedings for it are taken with reasonable dispatch and the project, when completed, may be expected to make service available to the premises charged which will have a value reasonably commensurate with the charges.

Charges, when collected, and all money received from the sale of any facilities, equipment, or by-products of the system shall be placed in a separate fund, and used first to pay the normal, reasonable, and current costs of operating and maintaining the facilities. The net revenues received in excess of the costs may be pledged in whole or part by resolutions of the governing body, or may be used in whole or part though not pledged, to pay principal and interest on obligations issued as provided in subdivision 2. Net revenues derived from any district heating system, whether or not financed by the issuance of obligations, may be pledged or used to pay obligations issued for another facility of that type.

In resolutions authorizing the issuance of either general or special obligations and pledging net revenues, the governing body may make covenants for the protection of holders of the obligations and taxpayers of the municipality as it deems necessary, including, but without limitation, a covenant that the municipality will impose and collect charges of the nature authorized in this subdivision when and in the amounts required to produce, together with any taxes or special assessments designated as a primary source of payment of the obligations, net revenues adequate to pay all principal and interest when due on the obligations and to create and maintain reserves securing the payments as may be provided in the resolutions. When the covenant is made, it shall be enforceable by appropriate action by any holder of the obligations or any taxpayer of the municipality in a court. An election shall not be required to authorize the issuance of the obligations.

Subd. 4. [LEVY ASSESSMENTS.] The city may also levy assessments against property within the city limits benefited by the system under the procedure authorized by law or charter with reference to other assessments for benefits of local improvements, may transfer and use for the purposes of the heating system surplus funds of the city not specifically dedicated to any other purpose, and may levy taxes on property within the city limits for the system. Taxes for the system shall be disregarded in the calculation of levies or limits on levies provided by Minnesota Statutes, sections 275.11 and 275.50 to 275.56, or other law or charter.

A city may contract with any person, company, or corporation for the purposes and under the restrictions set forth in subdivision 5. The contract shall be binding upon the parties for the full term agreed upon but not longer than 30 years, and shall not be changed by either party without the consent of the other.

Subd. 5. [CONNECTION WITH FACILITIES; CHARGES.] The city may permit any person, company, or corporation to connect with the system and use it on terms and payment of fees and charges as prescribed or contracted for by the city. The city may contract with any person, company, or corporation for payment of a part of the cost of construction, maintenance, or use of the system in cash or installments and devote the money to the construction, maintenance, or use of the system. The cost to be paid by the person, company, or corporation may be made payable in installments at not greater than annual intervals for not longer than 30 years. The person, company, or corporation shall then have the right to use the system upon the payment of reasonable charges for the use or the charges contracted for. The city may contract with another city to jointly or cooperatively obtain or use the system for periods not to exceed 30 years.

Sec. 2. [FEES AND CHARGES FOR TAX FORFEITED LANDS RETURNED TO PRIVATE OWNERSHIP.]

When tax forfeited land is returned to private ownership and the land is benefited by a district heating system for which special assessments were canceled because of the forfeiture, the city that made the improvement may impose fees or charges for the use or availability of the improvement or for connection with it in an amount not to exceed the amount remaining unpaid on the canceled assessment. The city may make the fees or charges a charge against the owner, lessee, occupant, or all of them and may certify unpaid fees or charges to the county auditor with taxes against the property to be collected as other taxes are collected.

Sec. 3. [ESTABLISHMENT OF DISTRICT.]

The governing body of the city may by ordinance adopted by a two-thirds vote of all of its members, establish within its territory a district heating improvement tax district. The ordinance shall describe with particularity the territory or area to be included within the district. The ordinance may be adopted only after a public hearing has been held on the matter. A notice of the time, place, and purpose of the hearing shall be published for two successive weeks in the official newspaper of the city and the last notice shall be at least seven days prior to the day of the hearing. The ordinance when adopted shall be filed with the county auditor and recorder.

Sec. 4. [AUTHORITY OF COUNCIL; RECOVERY OF COST; IMPROVEMENT PROCEDURES.]

Following the adoption of an ordinance pursuant to this act, the governing body may acquire, construct, reconstruct, extend, maintain, and otherwise improve district heating systems and related facilities within the district.

The procedures of Minnesota Statutes, sections 429.031 to 429.081 apply when the council of a municipality determines to make an improvement pursuant to this section.

Sec. 5. [BONDS.]

After a contract for the construction of all or part of an improvement has been entered into or the work has been ordered done by day labor, the city may issue obligations in the amount it deems necessary to defray in whole or part the expense incurred and estimated to be incurred in making the improvement, including every item of cost from inception to completion and all fees and expenses incurred in connection with the improvement or its financing. The obligations shall be payable primarily out of the proceeds of the tax levied pursuant to section 6. The city may by resolution adopted prior to the sale of obligations pledge its full faith, credit, and taxing power to assure payment of the principal and interest if the proceeds of the tax levy in the district are insufficient. Obligations shall be issued in accordance with Minnesota Statutes, chapter 475, except that an election is not required.

Sec. 6. [TAXES.]

The governing body may levy on all taxable property within the district the taxes necessary to finance the cost of the improvement, including maintenance, and to pay the principal and interest on obligations issued pursuant to section 5. The taxes shall be collected and paid as other taxes, but shall be spread only upon the property described in the ordinance. The proceeds of the taxes shall be disbursed only for the benefit of the district.

Sec. 7. [DISSOLUTION OF DISTRICT.]

Upon the retirement of all obligations within the district, the district may be dissolved by following the procedures for establishment of a district set forth in section 3.

Sec. 8. [LOCAL APPROVAL.]

This act is effective the day after compliance with Minnesota Statutes, section 645.021, subdivision 3, by the governing body of the city of Bloomington."
