The board shall prepare and adopt subsequent comprehensive plans for the collection, treatment and disposal of waste water in the district for each succeeding designated period the board deems proper. The first plan, as modified by the board, and any subsequent plan, shall provide that no treatment facilities shall be constructed which would allow a discharge above the water intake used to supply drinking water to residents of the district, and shall take into account the preservation and best and most economic use of water and other natural resources in the area; the preservation, uses and potential for use of lands adjoining waters of the state to be used for the disposal of waste water; and the impact the disposal system will have on present and future land use in the area affected. Plans shall include the general location of needed interceptors and treatment works, a description of the area that is to be served by the various interceptors and treatment works, a long range capital improvements program and other details the board deems appropriate. Plans shall specifically identify those interceptors and treatment works which are critical to the integrity of the district. In developing the plans, the board shall consult with persons designated for the purpose by the governing body of any municipal and public corporation or governmental or political subdivision or agency within the district. Each plan, when adopted, shall be followed in the district and may be revised as often as the board deems necessary.

(b) The minor's income is not derived from any activity prohibited by state or federal law; and

(c) The minor is sufficiently mature to assume responsibility for his own care and that it is in the minor's best interest to do so. The parents' or guardian's consent shall not be conclusive on the question of the minor's best interests.

Before granting a petition for emancipation, the court shall determine that the minor has a plan for room, board, health care, and education, vocational training, or employment. The plan shall identify community resources and agencies necessary to assist in the minor's plan and shall demonstrate that the resources and agencies have agreed to provide support.

The court may condition its order on the parents or guardian providing child support to the child or to the public agency in charge of collecting child support or upon the parents or guardian providing medical insurance coverage. If the court grants the petition, it shall issue the minor a declaration of emancipation. A copy of the declaration shall be filed with the clerk of court. Orders granting emancipation are public records and are not subject to the confidentiality requirements of sections 260.161, subdivision 1, and 260.211, subdivision 1.

Sec. 14. [260.473] [RESCISSION OF DECLARATION.]

Subdivision 1. [PROCEDURE.] A minor or the parents or most recent previous guardian of a minor emancipated pursuant to section 13 may petition the court to rescind the declaration if the minor is in circumstances which may not be remedied by revision of the minor's plan. Service shall be made in the manner and on the parties provided by section 6. If the minor files the petition, service also shall be made on the parents or most recent previous guardian, who shall be parties. If the court sustains the petition it shall issue an order rescinding the declaration. A copy of the rescission order shall be filed with the clerk of court. Rescission orders are public records and are not subject to the confidentiality requirements of section 260.161, subdivision 1.

Subd. 2. [CONTRACTS, TORTS; EFFECT OF RESCISSION.] A minor whose emancipation has been rescinded remains liable for contracts made, torts committed, or other liabilities incurred during his emancipation as though the emancipation had not been rescinded. Rescission of emancipation does not render a parent or guardian liable for conduct or contracts of the minor during the period of emancipation.

Sec. 15. Minnesota Statutes 1981 Supplement, Section 525.6192, is amended to read:

525.6192 [TERMINATION OF APPOINTMENT OF GUARDIAN; GENERAL.]

A guardian's authority and responsibility terminates upon the death, resignation or removal of the guardian or upon the minor's death, adoption, marriage ~~or~~, attainment of majority or emancipation pursuant to sections 11 to 14, but termination does not affect his liability for prior acts, nor his obligation to account for funds and assets of his ward. A guardian may be discharged without notice or hearing on petition and acceptance of the guardian's accounts by the ward after the ward marries or attains majority, or, in the case of the ward's death, by the personal representative of the ward's estate. In other cases the court may discharge the guardian upon approval of his accounts after notice and a hearing. Resignation of a guardian does not terminate the guardianship until it has been approved by the court. A testamentary appointment under an informally probated will terminates if the will is later denied probate in a formal proceeding."

Subdivision 1. [CONDITIONS OF FORFEITURE.] A motor vehicle is subject to forfeiture as provided in this section:

(a) if its owner is convicted of a second violation of section 169.121, subdivision 1 or an ordinance in conformity with that section and subdivision; and

(b) if the motor vehicle was used in committing that violation.

Subd. 2. [CONDITIONS OF SEIZURE.] The commissioner may seize the motor vehicle when process is issued by any court that has jurisdiction over the motor vehicle.

Subd. 3. [COMPLAINT AGAINST VEHICLE.] (a) The prosecuting authority shall file a separate complaint against the motor vehicle, describing it, charging its use in the violation, and telling when and where it was unlawfully used.

(b) A copy of the complaint must be served on the person charged with the violation or on the person in charge of the motor vehicle at the time of seizure, if there is any person in charge.

(c) If the person charged with a second violation of section 169.121, subdivision 1 is not convicted of the offense, the court shall dismiss the complaint against the motor vehicle and order the vehicle returned to the person legally entitled to it.

Subd. 4. [FORFEITURE PROCEDURE.] If the person charged with the violation is convicted, the court shall issue an order directed to persons who are known or believed to have a right to, title to, interest in, or lien on the motor vehicle. The order must describe the vehicle. The order must state that the vehicle was seized and that a complaint against the vehicle, charging the violation, has been filed with the court. The order must require the persons to whom it is addressed to file answers to the complaint with the clerk of court. It must tell them that their answers are to set forth their claims to any right to, title to, interest in, or lien on the vehicle and are to be filed within ten days after the order has been served. The order must notify them that if they fail to file answers that set forth those claims within that time, the court will order the commissioner or his agents to sell the vehicle.

The court shall have the order served as a summons in a civil action is served: it must be served in person on persons known or believed to have right, title, interest, or lien, and served on unknown persons by publication.

If no answer is filed according to this subdivision, and if the clerk of court files an affidavit that states that no answer has been filed, the court shall order the commissioner or his agents to sell the vehicle. The commissioner shall deduct from the proceeds of the sale the expense of keeping the vehicle, the fee for seizure, and the costs of sale. The commissioner shall pay the remaining proceeds into the state treasury. They are to be used for chemical dependency programs as provided in subdivision 9.

Subd. 5. [BOND.] At any time after the motor vehicle has been seized and before the hearing provided for in subdivision 6, the seized motor vehicle must be returned to the owner or person who has a legal right to possess it if that person executes a bond, with corporate surety, to the state of Minnesota, and if the bond meets these conditions:

(a) The amount of the bond must be at least $100 and not more than double the value of the vehicle seized.

(b) The bond must be approved by the court in which the case is triable or by a judge of that court.

(c) The bond must state that the person executing it will wait for and obey the court's order and judgement and will pay the full value of the vehicle at the time of seizure.

Subd. 6. [HEARING.] If an answer is filed according to subdivision 4, the court shall fix a time for hearing. The time must not be less than 10 days or more than 30 days after the time for filing answer expires. At the time fixed for hearing, unless the matter is continued for cause, it must be heard and determined by the court without a jury as in other civil actions. If the court finds that the motor vehicle was used in the violation of section 169.121, subdivision 1, it shall order the vehicle sold according to this section, unless the owner shows to the satisfaction of the court that he or she had no notice or knowledge or reason to believe that the vehicle was used or was intended to be used in such a violation.

Subd. 7. [SALE.] When the commissioner sells a vehicle, he or she shall deduct from the proceeds of the sale the expense of keeping the vehicle, the fee for seizure, and the costs of the sale. The commissioner shall also pay all liens according to their priority if it has been established at the hearing that the liens are bona fide and that the lienors had no notice or knowledge that the motor vehicle was used in violation of section 169.121, subdivision 1. The commissioner shall pay the remainder of the proceeds into the state treasury. They are to be used for chemical dependency programs as provided in subdivision 9.

Subd. 8. [APPEAL.] A sale under this section frees the vehicle sold from any liens on it. If a person wants to appeal the district court's order that the vehicle be sold, that person must appeal to the supreme court as in other civil cases.

Subd. 9. [APPROPRIATION OF PROCEEDS.] The commissioner shall deposit all proceeds of forfeiture sales under this section in a special revenue bookkeeping account in the state treasury. Funds deposited are appropriated to the department of public welfare for use in funding chemical dependency programs.''

"Sec. 18. Minnesota Statutes 1981 Supplement, Section 256B.06, Subdivision 1, as amended by Laws 1981, Third Special Session Chapter 2, Article I, Section 32, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. Medical assistance may be paid for any person:

(1) Who is eligible for or receiving public assistance under the aid to families with dependent children program; or

(2) Who is eligible for or receiving supplemental security income for the aged, blind and disabled; or

(3) Who except for the amount of income or resources would qualify for supplemental security income for the aged, blind and disabled, or aid to families with dependent children and is in need of medical assistance; or

(4) Who is under 21 years of age and in need of medical care that neither he nor his relatives responsible under sections 256B.01 to 256B.26 are financially able to provide; or

(5) Who is residing in a hospital for treatment of mental disease or tuberculosis and is 65 years of age or older and without means sufficient to pay the per capita hospital charge; and

(6) Who resides in Minnesota, or, if absent from the state, is deemed to be a resident of Minnesota in accordance with the regulations of the state agency; and

(7) Who alone, or together with his spouse, does not own real property other than the homestead. For the purposes of this section, "homestead" means the house owned and occupied by the applicant as his dwelling place, together with the land upon which it is situated and an area no greater than two contiguous lots in a platted or laid out city or town or the smallest parcel allowed under applicable zoning regulations in unplatted land. Real estate not used as a home may not be retained unless it produces net income applicable to the family's needs or the family is making a continuing effort to sell it at a fair and reasonable price or unless sale of the real estate would net an insignificant amount of income applicable to the family's needs, or unless the commissioner determines that sale of the real estate would cause undue hardship; and program in a county with preadmission screening under section 256B.091, the cash or liquid asset amount for two family members is $10,000; provided that, if a federal court holds that this sentence does not comply with Title XIX of the Social Security Act, 42 United States Code, Sections 1396 to 1396n, this sentence shall cease to be effective. The value of the following shall not be included:

(a) the homestead, and (b) one motor vehicle licensed pursuant to chapter 168 and defined as: (1) passenger automobile, (2) station wagon, (3) motorcycle, (4) motorized bicycle or (5) truck of the weight found in categories A to E, of section 168.013, subdivision 1e; and

(9) Who has or anticipates receiving an annual income not in excess of $2,600 for a single person, or $3,250 for two family members (husband and wife, parent and child, or two siblings), plus $625 for each additional legal dependent, or who has income in excess of these maxima and in the month of application, or during the three months prior to the month of application, incurs expenses for medical care that total more than one-half of the annual excess income in accordance with the regulations of the state agency. In computing income to determine eligibility of persons who are not residents of long term care facilities, the commissioner shall disregard increases in income of social security or supplementary security income recipients due solely to increases required by sections 215(i) and 1617 of the social security act, and shall disregard income of disabled persons that is also disregarded in determining eligibility for supplemental aid under section 256D.37, subdivision 1, unless prohibited by federal law or regulation. If prohibited, the commissioner shall first seek a waiver. In excess income cases, eligibility shall be limited to a period of six months beginning with the first of the month in which these medical obligations are first incurred; and

(10) Who has continuing monthly expenses for medical care that are more than the amount of his excess income, computed on a monthly basis, in which case eligibility may be established before the total income obligation referred to in the preceding paragraph is incurred, and medical assistance payments may be made to cover the monthly unmet medical need. In licensed nursing home and state hospital cases, income over and above that required for justified needs, determined pursuant to a schedule of contributions established by the commissioner of public welfare, is to be applied to the cost of institutional care. The commissioner of public welfare may establish a schedule of contributions to be made by the spouse of a nursing home resident to the cost of care and shall seek a waiver from federal regulations which establish the amount required to be contributed by either spouse when one spouse is a nursing home resident; and

(11) Who has applied or agrees to apply all proceeds received or receivable by him or his spouse from automobile accident coverage and private health care coverage to the costs of medical care for himself, his spouse, and children. The state agency may require from any applicant or recipient of medical assistance the assignment of any rights accruing under private health care coverage. Any rights or amounts so assigned shall be applied against the cost of medical care paid for under this chapter. Any assignment shall not be effective as to benefits paid or provided under automobile accident coverage and private health care coverage prior to receipt of the assignment by the person or organization providing the benefits."

Establishment of this fee shall not be subject to the requirements of the administrative procedure act. Whenever a generically equivalent product is available, payment shall be on the basis of the actual acquisition cost of the generic drug, unless the prescriber specifically indicates "dispense as written" on the prescription as required by section 151.21, subdivision 2.

Upon granting a final discharge the board shall issue to the parolee a certificate of discharge containing the recitals required by section*

609.165, subdivision 1. The board shall also cause a record to be made showing the date of commitment, the date parole was granted, the person's record while imprisoned and on parole, the reasons for granting final discharge, and other facts as the board deems proper.

Nothing in this section shall be construed as impairing the power of the board of pardons to grant a pardon or commutation of sentence.

Subd. 4. [DEPUTATION OF OUT-OF-STATE AGENTS.] The commissioner of corrections, on behalf of the Minnesota board of supervised release, may deputize any person regularly employed by another state to act as an officer and agent of this state in effecting the return of any person who has violated the terms and conditions of parole, supervised release, or probation granted by this state. In any matter relating to the return of the person, any agent so deputized has all of the powers of a peace officer of this state. Any deputization pursuant to this subdivision shall be in writing and carried out by the agent as formal evidence of his deputization and shall be produced upon demand. Subject to the approval of the commissioner of finance, the commissioner of corrections may enter into contracts with similar officials of any other state for the purpose of sharing an equitable portion of the cost of effecting the return of any person who has violated the terms and conditions of release, parole, or probation as granted by this state.

The rules shall also provide standards and procedures for the revocation of supervised release, and shall specify the period of revocation for each violation of supervised release. Procedures for the revocation of supervised release shall provide due process of law for the ~~inmate~~ person.

Pursuant to Rule 49, the Committee on Rules and Administration recommends that H.F. No. 1840 be amended as follows:

"Section 1. Minnesota Statutes 1981 Supplement, Section 256B.06, Subdivision 1, as amended by Laws 1981, Third Special Session Chapter 2, Article I, Section 32, and Laws 1981, Third Special Session Chapter 3, Section 17, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. Medical assistance may be paid for any person:

(1) Who is eligible for or receiving public assistance, or a woman who is pregnant, as medically verified, and who would be eligible for assistance under the aid to families with dependent children program if the child had been born and living with the woman; or

(2) Who is eligible for or receiving supplemental security income for the aged, blind and disabled; or

(3) Who except for the amount of income or resources would qualify for supplemental security income for the aged, blind and disabled, or aid to families with dependent children and is in need of medical assistance; or

(4) Who is under 21 years of age and in need of medical care that neither he nor his relatives responsible under sections 256B.01 to 256B.26 are financially able to provide; or

(5) Who is residing in a hospital for treatment of mental disease or tuberculosis and is 65 years of age or older and without means sufficient to pay the per capita hospital charge; and

(7) Who alone, or together with his spouse, does not own real property other than the homestead. For the purposes of this section, "homestead" means the house owned and occupied by the applicant as his dwelling place, together with the land upon which it is situated and an area no greater than two contiguous lots in a platted or laid out city or town or 80 contiguous acres in unplatted land. ~~Occupancy or exemption shall be determined as provided in chapter 510 and applicable law, including continuing exemption by filing notice under section 510.07.~~

If the owner ceases to occupy the homestead for more than 24 continuous months due to admission into a hospital or nursing home, and no spouse or child who is under age 21 or is blind or disabled occupies the homestead during the owner's absence, the owner shall be deemed to have abandoned the homestead. If the owner or his legal representative files a notice with the county recorder before the 24 month period expires, the owner shall not be deemed to have abandoned the homestead for an additional 24 months from the date of filing. The notice must be executed, witnessed, and acknowledged as in the case of a deed, describe the premises and claim them as his homestead. The local welfare agency shall notify the owner or his legal representative of this option to file notice and shall provide information and any assistance the owner needs to file the notice properly. When the second 24 month period expires, the owner shall be deemed to have abandoned the homestead. Real estate not used as a home may not be retained unless it produces net income applicable to the family's needs or the family is making a continuing effort to sell it at a fair and reasonable price or unless sale of the real estate would net an insignificant amount of income applicable to the family's needs, or unless the commissioner determines that sale of the real estate would cause undue hardship; and

(8) Who individually does not own more than $2,000 in cash or liquid assets, or if a member of a household with two family members (husband and wife, or parent and child), does not own more than $4,000 in cash or liquid assets, plus $200 for each additional legal dependent. The value of the following shall not be included:

(a) the homestead, and (b) one motor vehicle licensed pursuant to chapter 168 and defined as: (1) passenger automobile, (2) station wagon, (3) motorcycle, (4) motorized bicycle or (5) truck of the weight found in categories A to E, of section 168.013, subdivision 1e; and

(9) Who has or anticipates receiving an annual income not in excess of $2,600 for a single person, or $3,250 for two family members (husband and wife, parent and child, or two siblings), plus $625 for each additional legal dependent, or who has income in excess of these maxima and in the month of application, or during the three months prior to the month of application, incurs expenses for medical care that total more than one-half of the annual excess income in accordance with the regulations of the state agency. In computing income to determine eligibility of persons who are not residents of long term care facilities, the commissioner shall disregard increases in income of social security or supplementary security income recipients due solely to increases required by sections 215(i) and 1617 of the social security act, and shall disregard income of disabled persons that is also disregarded in determining eligibility for supplemental aid under section 256D.37, subdivision 1, unless prohibited by federal law or regulation. If prohibited, the commissioner shall first seek a waiver. In excess income cases, eligibility shall be limited to a period of six months beginning with the first of the month in which these medical obligations are first incurred; and

(10) Who has continuing monthly expenses for medical care that are more than the amount of his excess income, computed on a monthly basis, in which case eligibility may be established before the total income obligation referred to in the preceding paragraph is incurred, and medical assistance payments may be made to cover the monthly unmet medical need. In licensed nursing home and state hospital cases, income over and above that required for justified needs, determined pursuant to a schedule of contributions established by the commissioner of public welfare, is to be applied to the cost of institutional care. The commissioner of public welfare may establish a schedule of contributions to be made by the spouse of a nursing home resident to the cost of care and shall seek a waiver from federal regulations which establish the amount required to be contributed by either spouse when one spouse is a nursing home resident; and

(11) Who has applied or agrees to apply all proceeds received or receivable by him or his spouse from automobile accident coverage and private health care coverage to the costs of medical care for himself, his spouse, and children. The state agency may require from any applicant or recipient of medical assistance the assignment of any rights accruing under private health care coverage. Any rights or amounts so assigned shall be applied against the cost of medical care paid for under this chapter. Any assignment shall not be effective as to benefits paid or provided under automobile accident coverage and private health care coverage prior to receipt of the assignment by the person or organization providing the benefits.

Sec. 2. Minnesota Statutes 1981 Supplement, Section 256B.15, is amended to read:

256B.15 [CLAIMS AGAINST ESTATES.]

If a person receives any medical assistance ~~hereunder~~ under this chapter, on his death, ~~if hu is single, or on the death of the person and his surviving spouse, if he is married, and only at a time when he has no~~ unless there is (a) a surviving spouse or (b) a surviving child who is under 21 or is blind or ~~totally~~ disabled, the total amount paid for medical assistance ~~rendered~~ for the person, after age 65, without interest, shall be filed as a claim against the person's estate ~~of the person~~ in the court having jurisdiction to probate the estate. The claim shall be considered an expense of the last illness of the decedent for the purpose of section 524.3-805. Any statute of limitations that purports to limit any county agency or the state agency, or both, to recover for medical assistance ~~granted hereunder~~ shall not apply to any claim made ~~hereunder~~ for reimbursement ~~for any medical assistance granted hereunder~~ under this section. Counties may retain one-half of the nonfederal share of medical assistance collections from estates that are directly attributable to county effort.''

Senate Concurrent Resolution No. 12: A Senate concurrent resolution expressing the importance of clean air and urging the Minnesota Pollution Control Agency to maintain strong air quality standards that will fully provide the necessary protection for the State of Minnesota.

WHEREAS, the Minnesota Pollution Control Agency is currently considering revisions to the State's ambient air quality standards; and,

WHEREAS, clean air is fundamentally important to the health and well-being of the citizens, environment, and economy of Minnesota; and,

WHEREAS, continued exposure to air pollutants at even moderate levels can result in chronic health problems of many types, affecting large numbers of people, especially the very young and very old; and,

WHEREAS, the citizens of Minnesota have a right to a guarantee that the air they breathe does not contain levels of pollutants that will result in actual or potential harm to their health; and,

These policies shall contain a deductible which specifies the amount of benefits payable by the employer on each occurrence which results in personal injury.

These policies shall require the insurer to pay all benefits due under the policy. The employer shall deposit the amount of the deductible with the insurer at the inception of the policy period. The insurer shall pay all losses when due utilizing the amounts deposited as specified by the deductible in the policy. The insurer may require the employer to deposit additional funds if the deposited funds are depleted. Each policy shall clearly state the maximum total liability of the employer under the deductible for the policy period.

The assigned risk plan shall be treated as a group self-insurer member of the reinsurance association for the purposes of sections 79.34 to 79.40 and shall be deemed to have selected the higher retention limit provided in section 79.34, subdivision 2. A qualified ~~member~~ insurer or group self-insurance administrator shall possess sufficient financial, professional, administrative and personnel resources to serve the policies or self-insurance contracts contemplated in the service contract.

Policies and contracts of coverage issued pursuant to this subdivision shall be deemed to meet the mandatory insurance requirements of section 176.181, subdivision 2.

Sec. 7. Minnesota Statutes 1981 Supplement, Section 79.34, Subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. The reinsurance association shall provide and each member shall accept indemnification for 100 percent of the amount of ultimate loss sustained in each loss occurrence relating to one or more claims arising out of a single compensable event, including aggregate losses related to a single event or occurrence which constitutes a single loss occurrence, under chapter 176 on and after October 1, 1979, in excess of $300,000 or $100,000 retention limit, at the option of the member. In case of occupational disease causing disablement on and after October 1, 1979, each person suffering such disablement shall be considered to be involved in a separate loss occurrence. ~~The lesser retention limit shall be increased to the nearest $10,000, on January 1, 1982 and on each January 1 thereafter by the percentage increase in the statewide average weekly wage, as determined in accordance with section 176.011, subdivision 20. On January 1, 1982 and on each January 1 thereafter, the greater retention limit shall be increased by the amount necessary to retain a $200,000 difference between the two retention limits.~~ Any increase in the retention limits which have occurred since October 1, 1979, is hereby revoked. Ultimate loss as used in this section means the actual loss amount which a member is obligated to pay and which is paid by the member for workers' compensation benefits payable under chapter 176 and shall not include claim expenses, assessments, damages or penalties. A loss is incurred by the reinsurance association on the date on which the accident or other compensable event giving rise to the loss occurs, and a member is liable for a loss up to its retention limit in effect at the time that the loss was incurred, except that members which are determined by the reinsurance association to be controlled by or under common control with another member, and which are liable for claims from one or more employees entitled to compensation for a single compensable event, including aggregate losses relating to a single loss occurrence, may aggregate their losses and obtain indemnification from the reinsurance association for the aggregate losses in excess of the higher retention limit in effect at the time the loss was incurred. Each member is liable for payment of its ultimate loss and shall be entitled to indemnification from the reinsurance association for the ultimate loss in excess of the member's retention limit in effect at the time of the loss occurrence.

A member that chooses the higher retention limit shall retain the liability for all losses below the higher retention limit itself and shall not transfer the liability to any other entity or reinsure or otherwise contract for reimbursement or indemnification for losses below its retention limit, except in the following cases: (a) when the reinsurance or contract is with another member which, directly or indirectly, through one or more intermediaries, control or are controlled by or are under common control with the member; (b) when the reinsurance or contract provides for reimbursement or indemnification of a member if and only if the total of all claims which the member pays or incurs, but which are not reimbursable or subject to indemnification by the reinsurance association for a given period of time, exceeds a dollar value or percentage of premium written or earned and stated in the reinsurance agreement or contract; (c) when the reinsurance or contract is a pooling arrangement with other insurers where liability of the member to pay claims pursuant to chapter 176 is incidental to participation in the pool and not as a result of providing workers' compensation insurance to employers on a direct basis under chapter 176; (d) when the reinsurance or contract is limited to all the claims of a specific insured of a member which are reimbursed or indemnified by a reinsurer which, directly or indirectly, through one or more intermediaries, controls or is controlled by or is under common control with the insured of the member so long as any subsequent contract or reinsurance of the reinsurer relating to the claims of the insured of a member is not inconsistent with the bases of exception provided under clauses (a), (b) and (c) above; or (e) when the reinsurance or contract is limited to all claims of a specific self-insurer member which are reimbursed or indemnified by a reinsurer which, directly or indirectly, through one or more intermediaries, controls or is controlled by or is under common control with the self-insurer member so long as any subsequent contract or reinsurance of the reinsurer relating to the claims of the self-insurer member are not inconsistent with the bases for exception provided under clauses (a), (b) and (c) above.

Whenever it appears to the commissioner that any member that chooses the higher retention limit has participated in the transfer of liability to any other entity or reinsured or otherwise contracted for reimbursement or indemnification of losses below its retention limit in a manner inconsistent with the bases for exception provided under clauses (a), (b), (c), (d), and (e), the commissioner may, after giving notice and an opportunity to be heard, order the member to pay to the state of Minnesota an amount not to exceed twice the difference between the reinsurance premium for the higher and lower retention limit applicable to the member for each year in which the prohibited reinsurance or contract was in effect. Any member subject to this penalty provision shall continue to be bound by its selection of the higher retention limit for purposes of membership in the reinsurance association.

Sec. 8. Minnesota Statutes 1981 Supplement, Section 79.63, Subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [ADMINISTRATION.] The commissioner shall ~~appoint~~ contract with a licensed data service organization to ~~administer~~ make assignments, gather data, collect assessments, and perform other services for the assigned risk plan. ~~The appointed data service organization shall submit to the commissioner for approval a plan and rules for administering the assigned risk plan, including a method or formula by which the organization is to be paid for administrative services.~~

Sec. 9. Minnesota Statutes 1981 Supplement, Section 79.63, Subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Sec. 11. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 147.20, is amended to read:

Where board or allowances other than tips and gratuities are made to an employee in addition to wages as a part of the wage contract they are deemed a part of his earnings and computed at their value to the employee. of emergency, then the normal working ~~day~~ week shall be considered and computed as ~~eight hours~~ five days, and in cases where ~~such~~ the services are performed gratis or without fixed compensation the ~~daily~~ weekly wage of the person injured shall, for the purpose of calculating compensation payable under this chapter, be taken to be the usual going wage paid for similar services in municipalities where ~~such~~ the services are performed by paid employees. If, at the time of injury, the employee was regularly employed by two or more employers, the employee's earnings in all such employments shall be included in the computation of ~~daily~~ weekly wage.

The persons, partnerships and corporations described in this section may also elect coverage for an employee who is a spouse, parent or child, regardless of age, of an owner, partner, or executive officer, who is eligible for coverage under this section. Coverage may be elected for a spouse, parent or child whether or not coverage is elected for the related owner, partner or executive director and whether or not the person, partnership or corporation employs any other person to perform a service for hire. Any person for whom coverage is elected pursuant to this section shall be included within the meaning of the term employee for the purposes of this chapter.

Notice of election of coverage or of termination of election under this section shall be provided in writing to the insurer. Coverage or termination of coverage is effective the day following receipt of notice by the insurer or at a subsequent date if so indicated in the notice. The insurance policy shall be endorsed to indicate the names of those persons for whom coverage has been elected or terminated under this section. An election of coverage under this section shall continue in effect as long as a policy or renewal policy of the same insurer is in effect.

(b) A person who is the owner of a commercial vehicle and leases that vehicle to a person, partnership, or corporation and who is hired by that person, partnership, or corporation to drive the vehicle may elect to be deemed an independent contractor, notwithstanding the provisions of section 176.205, subdivision 3, clause (c), and notwithstanding the fact that the owner of the vehicle works under another person's direction.

An election made pursuant to this clause shall be valid only if there is a signed written agreement between the person who elects not to be covered as an employee and the person, partnership, or corporation who hires that person.

For the purposes of this chapter, a person who elects not to be covered shall be deemed to be an independent contractor and shall be deemed not to be an employee, notwithstanding section 176.011, subdivision 9.

Nothing in this clause shall be construed to limit the application of the remainder of section 176.205.

For the purposes of this clause, "owner" and "commercial vehicle" have the meanings as defined in section 65B.43.

(c) Nothing in this section shall be construed to limit the responsibilities of owners, partnerships or corporations to provide coverage for their employees, if any, as required under this chapter.

Sec. 16. Minnesota Statutes 1981 Supplement, Section 176.021, Subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [COMPENSATION, COMMENCEMENT OF PAYMENT.] All employers shall commence payment of compensation at the time and in the manner prescribed by this chapter without the necessity of any agreement or any order of the division. Except for medical, burial, and other non-periodic benefits, payments shall be made as nearly as possible at the intervals when the wage was payable, provided, however, that payments for permanent partial disability shall be governed by subdivision 3a. If doubt exists as to the eventual permanent partial disability, payment, pursuant to subdivision 3a, shall be then made when due for the minimum permanent partial disability ascertainable, and further payment shall be made upon any later ascertainment of greater permanent partial disability. At the time of any tender of the lump sum payment, the employee and employer shall be furnished with a copy of the medical report upon which the payment is based, together with a statement by the insurer as to whether the tendered payment is for minimum permanent partial disability or final and eventual disability. Compensation for permanent partial disability is payable in addition to compensation for ~~temporary~~ total disability, rehabilitation and temporary partial disability pursuant to section 176.101, subdivisions 1 and 2, as provided in subdivision 3a. ~~Compensation for permanent partial disability is payable concurrently and in addition to compensation for permanent total disability pursuant to section 176.101, subdivision 5, as provided in subdivision 3a.~~ Compensation for permanent partial disability shall be withheld pending completion of payment for ~~temporary~~ total and temporary partial disability but shall not be withheld ~~pending payment of compensation for permanent total disability, and~~ when it is determined by a qualified rehabilitation consultant pursuant to section 176.102 that the employee's condition precludes the development of a rehabilitation plan, except that after an employee has received total disability benefits for 104 weeks, not necessarily consecutive, compensation for permanent partial disability shall be paid. No credit shall be taken for payment of permanent partial disability against liability for ~~temporary total or permanent~~ total disability. Liability on the part of an employer or his insurer for disability of a ~~temporary~~ total~~,~~ or temporary partial~~, and permanent total~~ nature shall be considered as a continuing product and part of the employee's inability to earn or reduction in earning capacity due to injury or occupational disease and shall be payable accordingly, subject to subdivision 3a. Permanent partial disability is payable for functional loss of use or impairment of function, permanent in nature, and payment therefore shall be separate, distinct, and in addition to payment for any other compensation, subject to subdivision 3a. The right to receive ~~temporary~~ total, temporary partial, or permanent partial ~~or permanent total~~ disability payments shall vest in the injured employee or his dependents under this chapter or, if none, in his legal heirs at the time the disability can be ascertained and the right shall not be abrogated by the employee's death prior to the making of the payment.

Sec. 17. Minnesota Statutes 1981 Supplement, Section 176.021, Subdivision 3a, is amended to read:

Subd. 3a. [PERMANENT PARTIAL BENEFITS, PAYMENT.] Payments for permanent partial disability as provided in section 176.101, subdivision 3, shall be made in the following manner:

(a) If the employee returns to work, payment shall be made by lump sum;

(b) If ~~temporary~~ total disability payments have ceased, but the employee has not returned to work, payment shall be made at the same intervals as ~~temporary~~ total disability payments were made;

(c) If ~~temporary~~ total disability payments ~~cease because the employee is receiving payments for permanent total disability or because~~ have not ceased and the employee is retiring or has retired from the work force, then payment shall be made by lump sum;

(d) If the employee completes a rehabilitation plan pursuant to section 176.102, but the employer does not furnish the employee with work he can do in his permanently partially disabled condition, and the employee is unable to procure such work with another employer, then payment shall be made by lump sum.

Sec. 18. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 176.021, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 3b. [DISPUTE RESOLUTION.] When the examinations by the employee's physician and the employer's physician produce disability ratings that differ, the employer shall, when it is due, pay the benefit established by the examination conducted by the employer's physician. If there is no settlement and a hearing is held, the compensation judge shall accept one of the two original disability ratings as the appropriate basis for determining permanent partial benefits and shall not accept any other rating. Each dispute shall be resolved by accepting the rating that is closest to the one that would be obtained if an evaluation were conducted in accordance with the standards established in section 37.

Sec. 19. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 176.021, Subdivision 5, is amended to read:

Subd. 5. [ACCUMULATED CREDITS, ADDITIONAL PAYMENTS.] If employees of the state or a county, city or other political subdivision of the state who are entitled to the benefits of the workers' compensation law have, at the time of compensable injury, accumulated credits under a vacation, sick leave or overtime plan or system maintained by the governmental agency by which they are employed, the appointing authority may provide for the payment of additional benefits to such employees from their accumulated vacation, sick leave or overtime credits. Such additional payments to an employee may not exceed the amount of the total sick leave, vacation or overtime credits accumulated by the employee and shall not result in the payment of a total weekly rate of compensation that exceeds the weekly wage of the employee. Such additional payments to any employee shall be charged against the sick leave, vacation and overtime credits accumulated by such employee. Employees of a county, city or other political subdivision entitled to the benefits of the workers' compensation law may receive additional benefits pursuant to a collective bargaining agreement or other plan entered into or in effect on or after January 1, 1980, providing payments by or on behalf of the employer and these additional benefits may be unrelated to any accumulated sick leave, holiday or overtime credits and need not be charged against any accumulation; provided that the additional payments shall not result in the payment of a total weekly rate of compensation that exceeds the weekly wage of the employee. The commissioner of the department of labor and industry for the state or the governing body of any county, city or other political subdivision to which the provisions of this chapter apply, may adopt rules and regulations not inconsistent with this chapter for carrying out the provisions hereof relating to payment of additional benefits to employees from accumulated sick leave, vacation ~~or~~, overtime credits or other sources.

Neither shall the chapter apply to any person employed as a household worker in, for, or about, a private home or household who earns less than $500 in cash in any three month period from a single private home or household provided that any household worker who has earned $500 or more from his present employer in any three month period within the previous year shall be covered by this chapter regardless of whether or not he has in the present quarter earned $500. This chapter does not apply to those persons employed by a corporation where those persons are related by blood or marriage, within the third degree of kindred according to the rules of civil law, to all of the officers of the corporation, and if the corporation files a written election with the commissioner of labor and industry to have those persons excluded from this chapter. For the purposes of this clause "substantially perform the duties of the preinjury job" means that an employee is able to meet the minimum standards of output or productivity established for the preinjury job. The employer shall have the option of altering or reducing these standards to accommodate any temporary or permanent physical limitations of an employee as a means of establishing a job utilizing similar skills. If an employer is unable to offer employment to the employee after the employee has medically recovered and no other employer has offered a job meeting the requirements of this clause, total disability benefits shall be continued until all other workers performing the same job with the employer at the time of injury but who have less seniority than the injured employee have been laid off. If benefits are terminated due to the layoff and the employee is eligible for permanent partial benefits for at least 50 weeks, benefits shall be payable for an additional period of time until either an offer of employment is made to the employee which is consistent with the employee's work experience and which is within the employee's physical capabilities or the time established for the weeks of permanent partial disability shown below has elapsed.

Subd. 2. [TEMPORARY PARTIAL DISABILITY.] In all cases of temporary partial disability the compensation shall be 66 2/3 percent of the difference between the ~~daily~~ weekly wage of the worker at the time of injury and the wage he is able to earn in his partially disabled condition. This compensation shall be paid during the period of disability and upon the employee's return to work, payment to be made at the intervals when the wage was payable, as nearly as may be, and subject to a maximum compensation equal to 100 percent of the statewide average weekly wage. ~~If the employer does not furnish the worker with work which he can do in his temporary partially disabled condition and he is unable to procure such work with another employer, after reasonably diligent effort, the employee shall be paid at the full compensation rate for his or her temporary total disability.~~

Economic status is to be measured not only by opportunity for immediate income but also by opportunity for future income.~~

"Suitable gainful employment" for the purposes of this section is employment that is reasonably obtainable and offers an opportunity to restore the injured employee as soon as possible and as nearly as possible to a job related to his former employment or to a job in another work field in which he could produce earnings as close as possible to those he received at the time of the personal injury.

Rehabilitation for employment which may produce earnings greater than those the employee received at the time of personal injury is permitted if it can be demonstrated that this rehabilitation is necessary for re-employment. Consideration shall be given to the employee's qualifications including but not limited to age, education, previous work history, interest, and transferable skills.

Sec. 27. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 176.102, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

If the employer has indicated that no job will be available for the injured employee, priorities one and two shall not be utilized.*

Priority 1 is modification of the previous job with the same employer, including a transitional return to work.

Priority 2 is a new job with the same employer in keeping with any limitations or restrictions of the employee.

Priority 3 is modification of the previous job with a new employer.

Priority 4 is a new job with a new employer as a result of direct job placement based upon transferable skills.

The members shall be appointed by the governor and shall serve ~~four year~~ four-year terms which may be renewed. Compensation for members shall be governed by section 15.0575. The panel shall select a chairman. The panel shall ~~(a)~~ review and make a determination with respect to (a) appeals regarding rehabilitation plans and benefits; and (b) ~~hold~~ appeals regarding certification approval or revocation ~~of certification approval hearings; (c)~~. The panel shall continuously study medical and rehabilitation services and delivery; and ~~(d)~~ develop and recommend medical and rehabilitation rules ~~as necessary~~ to the commissioner ~~of labor and industry~~. A majority vote

Sec. 30. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 176.102, Subdivision 4, is amended to read:

Subd. 4. [REHABILITATION PLAN; DEVELOPMENT.] (a) Within ~~30~~ 15 days of the time an employer or his insurer has medical information that an employee is unable due to a personal injury or occupational disease to return to his preinjury occupation ~~the employer shall provide rehabilitation consultation for the employee. The employee, however, has the final decision on which rehabilitation agency is to be utilized pursuant to the provisions of this section. The consultation shall be done by any person or public or private institution approved by the commissioner of labor and industry. If the consultant determines rehabilitation would significantly reduce or eliminate the decrease in employability, the employer or insurer in conjunction with the rehabilitation consultant shall submit a specific plan of rehabilitation to the commissioner. If the employer does not provide rehabilitation consultation, when required by this section, within the time specified by this subdivision, the commissioner of labor and industry shall notify the employer and insurer that should they fail to provide rehabilitation consultation within 15 days from the receipt of the commissioner's notice, the division of vocational rehabilitation shall be authorized to provide the rehabilitation consultation for the employee. If the employee refuses to submit to any reasonable examinations and evaluative procedures to determine the need for and the details of a plan of rehabilitation, the amount of compensation may be reduced or the right to compensation may be suspended by an order of the division or workers' compensation court of appeals in a matter before it. In developing a plan, consideration shall be given to the employee's age, education, previous work history, interests and skills.~~ , or in any event, if within 90 days after the personal injury the employee has not returned to work, the employer shall refer the employee to a qualified rehabilitation consultant for a determination of whether rehabilitation is necessary to carry out the purposes of this section. If the employer knows, or in any case as soon as possible, the employer shall inform the employee, the insurer, the qualified rehabilitation consultant, and the division that no job will be available. If rehabilitation is determined to be necessary, the employee and employer shall enter into a program as prescribed in a rehabilitation plan. A copy of the plan, including a target date for return to work, shall be submitted to the department of labor and industry. If, within 30 days of the first consultation with a qualified rehabilitation consultant, the employee objects to the employer's selection of that qualified rehabilitation consultant, the employee must notify the employer and the commissioner in writing of his objection.

Upon receipt of the notice of objection, the commissioner shall schedule an administrative conference for the purpose of determining which qualified rehabilitation counselor may be mutually acceptable. The employee, however, has the final decision on which qualified rehabilitation consultant is to be utilized.

(b) If the employer does not provide rehabilitation evaluation as required by this section within 75 days from the date of injury, the commissioner shall notify the employer that if the employer fails to appoint a qualified rehabilitation consultant within 15 days to conduct a rehabilitation evaluation, the commissioner shall appoint a qualified rehabilitation consultant to provide the evaluation at the expense of the employer unless the commissioner determines the evaluation is not required. The commissioner may assess a penalty of up to $5,000, to be paid to the special compensation fund by any employer if the commissioner has appointed a qualified rehabilitation consultant and return to work has not been accomplished within 180 days, subject to the limitations in clause (c) below.

(c) If the employee's condition does not permit determination of the employee's need for rehabilitation or a rehabilitation plan cannot be developed within 90 days after the injury, a further rehabilitation evaluation by a qualified rehabilitation consultant is required six months following the date of injury. If the employee's condition still precludes development of a rehabilitation plan at this time, a further evaluation by a qualified rehabilitation consultant shall be conducted in six months and then at yearly intervals as long as no rehabilitation plan has been developed. The commissioner may waive further mandatory evaluations after the second evaluation if he determines in a case that evaluations are not likely to accomplish the purposes of this subdivision. If after two years from the date of injury a rehabilitation plan has not been developed, the employer may determine the time of a subsequent evaluation. Those evaluations shall not occur more frequently than once per year and are not mandatory for the employee, unless directed by the commissioner.

Subd. 5. [ON THE JOB TRAINING.] ~~On the job training is to be given consideration in developing a rehabilitation plan especially where it would produce an economic status similar to that enjoyed prior to disability.~~ When a rehabilitation plan includes on the job training, the employee shall receive compensation while employed in an amount equal to the after tax wage the employee received at the time of the personal injury. ~~This compensation shall be paid in whole or in part by the insurer liable for compensation for the employee's personal injury. The amount of compensation to be paid by this insurer shall be determined in the rehabilitation plan prepared pursuant to this section. Any difference between the amount of compensation the insurer is paying and the after tax wage the employee received at the time of the personal injury shall be paid by the on the job employer, but in no case shall this employer's amount exceed the prevailing wage for the job.~~ After tax wage shall be determined by subtracting federal and state income tax from the employee's gross wage.

A rehabilitation plan which includes on the job training shall ~~attempt to~~ create an incentive for an on the job training employer to hire the employee for on the job training. This incentive ~~may~~ shall be in the form of reducing the ~~on the job training employer's~~ wages paid to the employee by the on the job training employer to a level which is 80 percent or less than the prevailing wage for the job, provided that the total compensation from the insurer, required by this section, and the wages paid by the on the job training employer is not less than the after tax wage received by the employee at the time of the personal injury. ~~The compensation from the insurer and the on the job training employer paid pursuant to this subdivision is in lieu of temporary total disability payments and the additional compensation provided in subdivision 11.~~ The difference between the after tax wage from the preinjury job and the wage from the on the job training shall be paid by the employer liable for compensation for the employee's injury but it shall not exceed 100 percent of the statewide average weekly wage at the time of injury. The compensation from the liable employer and the on the job training employer paid according to this subdivision is in lieu of other benefits required to be paid by subdivision 11.

Sec. 32. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 176.102, Subdivision 6, is amended to read:

Subd. 6. [PLAN, APPROVAL AND APPEAL.] The commissioner ~~of labor and industry~~ shall review and approve, modify or reject rehabilitation plans developed under subdivision 4. ~~Any persons aggrieved by~~ A decision of the commissioner may ~~appeal~~ be appealed to the rehabilitation review panel within 30 days of the commissioner's decision. The decision of the panel may be appealed to the workers' compensation court of appeals. ~~The panel may approve or reject the decision of the commissioner. If it rejects the commissioner's decision it may formulate its own rehabilitation plan.~~

Sec. 33. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 176.102, Subdivision 7, is amended to read:

Subd. 7. [PLAN IMPLEMENTATION; REPORTS.] Upon request by the commissioner, ~~insurer or~~ employer, or qualified rehabilitation consultant, medical and rehabilitation reports of an employee's progress under a plan shall be made by the provider of the medical and rehabilitation service to the commissioner ~~of labor and industry~~, insurer and employer ~~of an employee's progress under a plan~~.

Sec. 34. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 176.102, Subdivision 8, is amended to read:

Subd. 8. [PLAN MODIFICATION.] Upon request ~~of~~ to the commissioner by the employer, ~~the insurer, or~~ employee ~~to the commissioner~~, or the qualified rehabilitation consultant, the plan may be suspended, terminated or altered upon a showing of good cause ~~therefor~~, including:

(a) a physical impairment that does not allow the employee to pursue the ~~vocation being trained for~~ rehabilitation plan;

(b) the employee's performance level indicates ~~he cannot complete~~ the plan will not be successfully completed; or

(c) an employee does not cooperate with a plan.

An employee may request a change in a rehabilitation plan once because he or she feels ~~he is not suited~~ ill-suited for the type of work for which ~~training~~ rehabilitation is being provided if the request is made within 90 days of the start of the plan. Any decision of the commissioner regarding a change in a plan may be appealed to the rehabilitation review panel within 15 days of the decision.

Sec. 35. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 176.102, Subdivision 9, is amended to read:

Subd. 9. [PLAN, COSTS.] An employer is liable for the following rehabilitation expenses under this section:

(a) Cost of ~~vocational~~ rehabilitation ~~diagnosis~~ evaluation and preparation of a plan;

(b) Cost of all rehabilitation services and supplies necessary for implementation of the plan;

(c) Reasonable cost of tuition, books and travel; and, in addition, reasonable costs of board ~~and~~, lodging and custodial day care when rehabilitation requires residence away from the employee's customary residence; ~~and~~

(d) Reasonable costs of travel and daycare during the job interview process;

(e) Reasonable cost for moving expenses of the employee and family if a job is found in a geographic area beyond reasonable commuting distance after a diligent search within the present community. Relocation shall not be paid more than once, and relocation shall not be required if the new job is located within the same standard metropolitan statistical area as the employee's job at the time of injury; and

~~(d)~~ (f) Any other expense agreed to be paid.

Sec. 36. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 176.102, Subdivision 10, is amended to read:

Subd. 10. [REHABILITATION; CONSULTANTS.] The commissioner shall approve rehabilitation consultants who may propose and implement plans if they satisfy rules ~~promulgated~~ adopted by the commissioner for rehabilitation consultants. A consultant may be an individual or public or private entity, but may not be a vendor or the agent of a vendor of rehabilitation services except that any public or private nonprofit health care institution, licensed under section 144.50, or its wholly-owned subsidiary, which prior to the enactment of section 176.102 provided rehabilitation services as well as rehabilitation plan development and monitoring, may continue to provide rehabilitation services to injured workers as a qualified rehabilitation consultant and registered rehabilitation vendor simultaneously. The entities shall be known as qualified vendor/consultants and have all the rights and responsibilities of qualified rehabilitation consultants and registered rehabilitation vendors.

Sec. 37. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 176.102, Subdivision 11, is amended to read:

Subd. 11. [COMPENSATION DURING REHABILITATION.] ~~The insurer or employer shall pay up to 156 weeks of compensation during rehabilitation under a plan in an amount equal to 125 percent of the employee's rate for temporary total disability. This payment is in lieu of payment for temporary total, temporary partial, or permanent total disability to which the employee might otherwise be entitled for this period under this chapter, but shall be considered to be the equivalent of temporary total disability for the purposes of section 176.132. If on the job training is part of the rehabilitation program, the weeks during which the insurer or employer pays compensation pursuant to subdivision 5 shall be subtracted from the 156 weeks of retraining compensation which has been paid, if any, pursuant to this subdivision. This subdivision shall not apply to retraining benefits for which liability has been established prior to July 1, 1979.~~ The commissioner shall determine eligibility for rehabilitation services and rehabilitation benefits while the employee is participating in a rehabilitation plan. Rehabilitation benefits shall include payment in an amount equal to the employee's benefit for total or temporary partial disability, whichever is appropriate, and shall be in lieu of the compensation for those disabilities. All rehabilitation benefits payable under chapter 176 shall be discontinued and forfeited for any time during which the employee refuses to submit to any reasonable examinations and evaluative procedures to determine the need for and details of a plan of rehabilitation, or refuses to participate in rehabilitation evaluation as required by this section or does not make a good faith effort to participate in a rehabilitation plan.

Sec. 38. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 176.102, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 11a. [BENEFIT DURATION DURING REHABILITATION.] Unless the employee has returned to work, benefits during rehabilitation shall continue as provided in subdivision 11 until the sooner of the following:

(a) The rehabilitation plan has been completed and after 90 days the employer or another employer has offered the injured employee a job which is consistent with the employee's work experience or the skills developed in the rehabilitation plan and which is within the physical capabilities of the employee, at which time benefits shall cease or temporary partial disability benefits shall begin, whichever is appropriate; or

(b) The rehabilitation plan has been completed and 180 days have elapsed at which time benefits shall cease unless the employee is eligible for permanent partial benefits for at least 50 weeks. If the employee is eligible, benefits shall be payable for an additional period of time until either an offer of employment is made to the employee which is consistent with the employee's work experience or the skills developed in the rehabilitation plan and which is within the employee's physical capabilities or the time established for the weeks of permanent partial disability shown below has elapsed.

Weeks of Permanent Partial Disability After Completion of Rehabilitation Plan	Maximum Benefit Period After Completion of Rehabilitation Plan
50 - 99 weeks	6 months
100 - 199 weeks	12 months
200 - 299 weeks	24 months
300 weeks or more	duration of the disability

Sec. 39. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 176.102, Subdivision 12, is amended to read:

Subd. 12. [RULES.] The commissioner shall ~~promulgate~~ adopt rules necessary to implement this section including rules relating to qualifications necessary to be an approved rehabilitation consultant and rules relating to the requirements to be an approved registered vendor of rehabilitation services.

Sec. 40. [176.1021] [REHABILITATION FUND.]

Subdivision 1. [CREATION.] The workers' compensation rehabilitation fund is created for the purposes provided in section 176.102.

Subd. 2. [PAYMENTS.] On and after July 1, 1983, when an employee is referred to a qualified rehabilitation consultant or to a registered vendor of rehabilitation services, as provided in section 176.102, all fees, costs and expenses for services rendered by a rehabilitation consultant or a vendor shall be paid from the workers' compensation rehabilitation fund.

Subd. 3. [FINANCING.] The commissioner shall assess each insurer, self-insurer and group self-insurer in the manner provided by section 176.131, subdivision 10, and in an amount as the commissioner determines is necessary according to the rules adopted pursuant to subdivision 4.

Sums paid to the commissioner pursuant to this section shall be deposited with the state treasurer for the benefit of the workers' compensation rehabilitation fund and be used to make the payments required in subdivision 2. Any interest or profit accruing from the investment of these sums shall be credited to the workers' compensation rehabilitation fund.

Subd. 4. [RULES.] Prior to July 1, 1983, the commissioner shall by rule adopt a method for determining the amount of assessment to be made to assure that the fund retains a balance sufficient to meet the obligations imposed on it by this section.

The commissioner shall also adopt rules relating to the procedures required of qualified rehabilitation consultants and vendors of rehabilitation for claiming and obtaining reimbursement.

Subd. 5. [STATE TREASURER, CUSTODIAN.] The state treasurer shall be the custodian of the workers' compensation rehabilitation fund and the workers' compensation division, compensation judges, the workers' compensation court of appeals or district court in cases before them shall direct the distribution of the fund, including any refunds of any deposits made by mistake or under circumstances required by justice.

Sec. 41. [176.103] [ADDITIONAL DISABILITY BENEFIT.]

Subdivision 1. Any employee who, as a result of personal injury, has not returned to employment within two years following the date of the personal injury and is totally disabled shall be eligible to apply to the department of labor and industry for additional benefits if each of the following conditions exist:

(a) The employee has been evaluated for rehabilitation as provided by section 176.102 and the determination has been made and approved by the department that, as a result of the injury, it is highly improbable that the employee can be sufficiently rehabilitated to allow a return to work;

(b) The employee's weekly wage at the time of injury was at a level that did not represent the weekly wage that could be reasonably expected by the employee in the future due to substantial evidence supportive of a likelihood that the employee would not have remained in employment which provided a weekly wage similar to the weekly wage at the time of injury because of a demonstrated commitment to enter an occupation different from the one in which the employee was employed at the time of injury. The burden of proof for establishing this shall be with the employee; and

(c) The employee shall demonstrate substantial financial need.

Subd. 2. An application shall be considered by a workers' compensation judge who shall consider the evidence and determine the employee's eligibility for additional benefits based on the evidence. If the workers' compensation judge determines that the employee is eligible for additional benefits, the judge shall order that an amount shall be paid to the employee from the special compensation fund, subject to the following restrictions:

(a) Any additional benefit ordered shall be paid on a periodic basis so as to coincide with the ongoing benefit paid by the employer and shall commence at a date following the order; and

(b) The total workers' compensation benefit paid to the employee shall not exceed the statewide average weekly wage in effect at the time of injury, subject to the adjustment pursuant to section 176.645.

Sec. 42. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 176.105, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 4. The commissioner shall by rule adopt procedures to determine the percentage of a partial loss of function of a part of the body described in section 176.101, subdivision 3.

If permanent rules have not been adopted by January 1, 1984, the American Medical Association's Guides to the Evaluation of Permanent Impairment, published by the American Medical Association and copyrighted in 1977, shall serve as the rules for the percentage of partial loss of function of the scheduled part of the body and shall be effective until permanent rules are adopted.

The rules adopted pursuant to this subdivision shall:

(a) Promote objectivity and consistency in the evaluation of permanent functional impairment due to personal injury and in the assignment of a numerical rating to the functional impairment;

(b) Establish relative values of the various partial disabilities with the maximum number of weeks for the total disability of a body part fixed in section 176.101, subdivision 3.

(c) Establish a procedure such that a discreet number of percentage ratings for a partial disability are possible between zero and one hundred, providing that the number of possible rating values shall not exceed 20.

The commissioner shall consider the following factors in developing rules for the evaluation and rating of functional disability and the schedule for permanent partial disability benefits:

(a) The workability and simplicity of the procedures with respect to the evaluation of functional disability;

(b) The consistency of the procedures with accepted medical standards;

(c) Rules, guidelines, and schedules that exist in other states or that have been developed by professional associations or organizations and are related to the evaluation of permanent partial disability or to a schedule of benefits for functional disability;

(d) The effect the rules may have on reducing litigation;

(e) The treatment of pre-existing conditions with respect to the evaluation of permanent functional disability provided that any pre-existing conditions must be objectively determined by medical evidence.

If an employee suffers permanent functional disability of more than one scheduled body part due to personal injury incurred in a single occurrence, the total number of weeks of benefit to which the employee is entitled shall be determined by the following formula so as to ensure that the maximum number of weeks payable for all functional disability combined shall not exceed 500 weeks:

where:

A = the number of weeks awardable for the permanent partial disability to the first body part, and

B = the number of weeks otherwise awardable for the second body part.

Sec. 43. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 176.111, Subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Column 1 Percent Earned by the Deceased Employee of the Sum of the Average Weekly Wages of the Injured Employee and Spouse at the Time of Injury	Column 2 Percent of Benefits Otherwise Payable

Sec. 44. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 176.111, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 1a. [SURVIVING SPOUSE; REHABILITATION.] Upon the request of a qualified dependent surviving spouse, rehabilitation services shall be provided by the employer. For the purposes of this subdivision a qualified dependent surviving spouse is a dependent surviving spouse who is in need of rehabilitation assistance to become self-supporting. The rehabilitation services shall be limited to those in section 176.102, subdivision 9. Rehabilitation services need not be provided if the request for the service is not received within two years of the employee's death or the youngest dependent child becoming 18 years of age, whichever is later.

Sec. 45. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 176.111, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 9. [BENEFIT PERIOD; COMMENCEMENT.] The ten year periods enumerated in subdivisions 7 and 8 shall begin to be counted upon the 18th birthday of the youngest surviving dependent child.

Sec. 46. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 176.111, Subdivision 18, is amended to read:

Subd. 18. [BURIAL EXPENSE.] In all cases where death results to an employee from a personal injury arising out of and in the course of employment, the employer shall pay the expense of burial, not exceeding in amount ~~$1,000~~ $2,500. In case any dispute arises as to the reasonable value of the services rendered in connection with the burial, such reasonable value shall be determined and approved by the commissioner of the department of labor and industry, a compensation judge, or workers' compensation court of appeals, in cases upon appeal, before payment, after such reasonable notice to interested parties as is required by the commissioner of the department of labor and industry. If the deceased leave no dependents, no compensation is payable, except as provided by this chapter.

Sec. 47. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 176.111, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

176.121 [COMMENCEMENT OF COMPENSATION.]

In cases of temporary total or temporary partial disability no compensation shall be allowed for the three days after the disability commenced, except as provided by section 176.135, nor in any case unless the employer has actual knowledge of the injury or is notified thereof within the period specified in section 176.141. If such disability continues for ~~10~~ seven days or longer, such compensation shall be computed from the commencement of the disability.

Sec. 49. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 176.131, Subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. If an employee incurs personal injury and suffers disability that is substantially greater, because of a pre-existing physical impairment, than what would have resulted from the personal injury alone, the employer shall pay all compensation provided by this chapter, but he shall be reimbursed from the special compensation fund for all compensation paid in excess of 52 weeks of monetary benefits and $2,000 in medical expenses, subject to the following exceptions:

If the personal injury alone results in permanent partial disability to a scheduled member under section 176.101, the monetary and medical expense limitations shall not apply and the employer shall be liable for ~~such~~ compensation, medical expense, and ~~retraining~~ rehabilitation attributable to the permanent partial disability, and he may be reimbursed from the compensation fund only for compensation paid in excess of ~~such~~ the disability.

Subd. 10. The special compensation fund is created for the purposes provided in this chapter in the following manner:

(1) In every case of death of an employee resulting from personal injury arising out of and in the course of employment where there are no persons entitled to monetary benefits of dependency compensation, the employer shall pay to the commissioner the sum of ~~$5,000~~ $25,000 for the benefit of the special compensation fund; in every case of death of an employee resulting from personal injury arising out of and in the course of employment where there are no persons entitled to at least ~~$5,000~~ $25,000 in monetary benefits of dependency compensation, the employer shall pay to the commissioner for the benefit of the special compensation fund the difference between the amounts actually paid for the dependency benefits and ~~$5,000~~ $25,000; but in no event shall the employer pay the commissioner less than $1,000;

~~In determining the actual adjustment, the commissioner shall take into account his estimate of the likely amount of expenditures to be made from the fund in the next calendar year~~ estimate the total claims expected to be made against the special fund for the period beginning July 1 and shall divide that number by the total standard earned premium reported to the commissioner of insurance. The percentage due July 1, 1982, and July 1, 1983, shall be six and one-half percent. The assessment due July 1, 1982, shall be in lieu of any other assessment authorized for 1982 by this section and any other assessment is void and shall be of no effect. The maximum increase in any year shall be two percent.

All money heretofore arising from the provisions of this section or similar law shall be transferred to this special compensation fund. Any interest or profit accruing from investment of these sums shall be credited to the special compensation fund.

The state treasurer shall be the custodian of this special fund and the workers' compensation division, compensation judges, the workers' compensation court of appeals or district court in cases before them shall direct the distribution thereof, the same to be paid as other payments of compensation are paid. In case deposit is or has been made under the provisions of clause (1) and dependency later is shown, or if deposit is or has been made pursuant to either clause (1) or (2) by mistake or inadvertence, or under circumstances that justice requires a refund thereof, the state treasurer is authorized to refund the deposit under order of the workers' compensation division, a compensation judge, the workers' compensation court of appeals or a district court. There is appropriated to the persons entitled to the refunds from the fund an amount sufficient to make the refund and payment.

The attorney general shall be the attorney for the special compensation fund and shall be its legal advisor and shall represent the fund in actions by it or against it before the division, a compensation judge, the workers' compensation court of appeals or district court or the supreme court.

Regardless of the number of weeks of total disability, no totally disabled person shall be ineligible for supplementary benefits after four years have elapsed since the first date of his total disability, provided that all periods of disability are caused by the same injury.

Sec. 54. Minnesota Statutes 1981 Supplement, Section 176.132, Subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [AMOUNT.] (a) The supplementary benefit payable under this section as of January 1, 1983, shall be the difference between the amount the employee receives on or after January 1, 1976, under section 176.101, subdivision 1 or subdivision 4, and ~~65 percent of the statewide average weekly wage as computed annually~~ $184. The figure $184 shall be adjusted pursuant to section 176.645.

(b) In the event an eligible recipient is currently receiving no ~~compensation~~ benefits or is receiving a reduced level of ~~compensation~~ benefits because of a credit being applied as the result of a third party liability or damages, the employer or insurer shall ~~compute the offset credit as if the individual were entitled to the actual benefit or 65 percent of the statewide average weekly wage as computed annually, whichever is greater. If this results in the use of a higher credit than otherwise would have been applied and the employer or insurer becomes liable for compensation benefits which would otherwise not have been paid, the additional benefits resulting shall be handled according to this section~~ pay the difference between the reduced level of benefits and $184. The figure $184 shall be adjusted pursuant to section 176.645.

(c) In the event an eligible recipient is receiving no compensation or is receiving a reduced level of compensation because of a valid agreement in settlement of a claim, no supplementary benefit shall be payable under this section. The figure $184 shall be adjusted pursuant to section 176.645.*

(e) In the event that an eligible recipient is receiving simultaneous benefits from any government disability program, the amount of supplementary benefits payable under this section shall be reduced by five percent. If the individ-

When ~~such~~ attorney fees are allowed an amount equal to 25 percent of that portion of the fee which is in excess of $250 shall be added to the employee's benefit as provided in section 176.081 rather than deducted as a portion ~~thereof~~ of the benefit. If at least one of the opinions affirms that the surgery is reasonably required, the employee may choose to undergo the surgery at the employer's expense. A second surgical opinion is not required in cases of emergency surgery ~~or when the employer and employee agree that the opinion is not necessary~~.

176.136 [MEDICAL FEE REVIEW.]

The commissioner of insurance shall by rule establish procedures for determining whether or not the charge for a health service is excessive. In order to accomplish this purpose, the commissioner of insurance shall consult with insurers, associations and organizations representing the medical and other providers of treatment services and other appropriate groups. The procedures established by the commissioner of insurance shall limit the charges allowable for medical, chiropractic, podiatric, surgical, hospital and other health care provider treatment or services, as defined and compensable under section 176.135, to the ~~75th~~ 60th percentile of usual and customary fees or charges based upon billings for each class of health care provider during all of the calendar year preceding the year in which the determination is made of the amount to be paid the health care provider for the billing. The procedures established by the commissioner for determining whether or not the charge for a health service is excessive shall be structured to encourage providers to develop and deliver services for rehabilitation of injured workers. The procedures shall incorporate the provisions of sections 144.701, 144.702, and 144.703 to the extent that the commissioner finds that these provisions effectively accomplish the intent of this section or are otherwise necessary to insure that quality hospital care is available to injured employees. If the commissioner of insurance, a compensation judge, the workers' compensation court of appeals or a district court determines that the charge for a health service or medical service is excessive, no payment in excess of the reasonable charge for that service shall be made under this chapter nor may the provider collect or attempt to collect from the injured employee or any other insurer or government amounts in excess of the amount payable under this chapter; however, the commissioner of insurance shall by rule establish procedures allowing for a provider to appeal such determination. The commissioner of insurance shall contract with a review organization as defined in section 145.61 for the purposes listed in section 145.61, subdivision 5, and report to the legislature by January 15, 1983 and thereafter on January 15 of every odd-numbered year, regarding the delivery of medical and health care services, including rehabilitation services, under the workers' compensation laws of this state.

The commissioner of insurance shall also establish by rule standards and a procedure for determining whether a provider of health care services, including a provider of medical, chiropractic, podiatric, surgical, hospital or other services, is performing procedures or providing services at a level or with a frequency that is excessive, based upon accepted medical standards for quality health care.

If it is determined by the commissioner of insurance that the level or frequency of procedures or services of a provider is excessive according to the standards established by the rules, the provider shall not be paid for any excessive procedures or services by an insurer, self-insurer or group self-insurer. In addition, the provider shall not be reimbursed or attempt to collect reimbursement for the excessive procedures or services from any other source, including the employee, another insurer, the special compensation fund or any government program.

A provider who is determined by the commissioner of insurance to be consistently performing procedures or providing services at an excessive level shall be prohibited from receiving any further reimbursement for procedures or services provided pursuant to chapter 176. A prohibition imposed on a provider pursuant to this clause shall be grounds for revocation of the provider's license or certificate of registration to provide health care in Minnesota by the commissioner of health or other appropriate licensing body.

The rules adopted pursuant to this section shall require insurers, self-insurers and group self-insurers to report a reasonable amount of medical data necessary to implement the procedures required by this section.

The commissioner of insurance shall also conduct a study of the qualifications and background of rehabilitation consultants and vendors providing services under section 176.102 for the purpose of determining whether there are adequate professional standards provided, including safeguards to protect against conflicts of interest.

The commissioner of insurance shall adopt temporary rules in order to implement the provisions of this ~~subdivision~~ section.Notwithstanding the provisions of section 15.0412, subdivision 4, and any amendments, the temporary rules adopted by the commissioner of insurance pursuant to this subdivision may be extended for an additional 180 days if the procedures for adoption of a rule pursuant to section 15.0412, subdivisions 4 to 4g, or 4h, and other provisions of the administrative procedure act related to final agency action and rule adoption have not been concluded.

Sec. 58. [176.146] [NOTICE TO INSURERS; PENALTY.]

The employer of any employee who suffers a personal injury shall inform the insurer of the occurrence of the injury within three days of notice of the injury. Notice shall be made on forms provided by the insurer. Consistent failure by the employer to provide notice shall entitle the insurer to cancel, upon 15 days notice to the employer, any effective policy insuring the employer's liability under chapter 176, at which time any unearned premium paid by the employer to the insurer shall be returned to the employer.

Sec. 59. Minnesota Statutes 1981 Supplement, Section 176.182, is amended to read:

176.182 [BUSINESS LICENSES OR PERMITS; COVERAGE REQUIRED.]

Every state ~~or local~~ licensing agency shall withhold the issuance of a license or permit to operate a business in Minnesota until the applicant presents acceptable evidence of compliance with the workers' compensation insurance coverage requirement of section 176.181, subdivision 2.

Neither the state nor any governmental subdivision thereof shall enter into any contract for the doing of any public work before receiving from all other contracting parties acceptable evidence of compliance with the workers' compensation insurance coverage requirement of section 176.181, subdivision 2.

This section shall not be construed to create any liability on the part of the state or any governmental subdivision to pay workers' compensation benefits or to indemnify the special compensation fund, an employer, or insurer who pays workers' compensation benefits.

Sec. 60. Minnesota Statutes 1981 Supplement, Section 176.221, Subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [GRANT OF EXTENSION.] Upon application made within 30 days after the date on which the first payment was due, the commissioner may grant an extension of time within which to determine liability. Sec. 61. Minnesota Statutes 1981 Supplement, Section 176.221, Subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. In addition, each day subsequent to the end of the period and until a compensation payment is made to the injured employee, the person responsible for payment of compensation shall pay to the special compensation fund an amount equal to the total compensation to which the injured employee is entitled.

Sec. 62. Minnesota Statutes 1981 Supplement, Section 176.221, Subdivision 7, is amended to read:

Subd. 7. [INTEREST.] Any payment of compensation, charges for treatment under section 176.135 or retraining expenses under 176.102, subdivision 9 not made when due shall bear interest at the greater of the rate of ~~eight~~ 18 percent per annum or the rate set by section 549.09, subdivision 1, from the due date to the date the payment is made.

(b) unreasonably or vexatiously delayed payment; or,

(c) neglected or refused to pay compensation; or,

(d) intentionally underpaid compensation.

In any case of an award made pursuant to this subdivision, there shall be added to the compensation award an amount equal to 18 percent per annum interest computed from the date of injury.

Sec. 64. Minnesota Statutes 1981 Supplement, Section 176.225, Subdivision 5, is amended to read:

Subd. 5. [PENALTY.] Where the employer is guilty of inexcusable delay in making payments, including but not limited to the grounds listed in clauses (a) to (d) of subdivision 1, the payments which are found to be delayed shall be increased by 10 percent. Withholding amounts unquestionably due because the injured employee refuses to execute a release of his right to claim further benefits will be regarded as inexcusable delay in the making of compensation payments. If any sum ordered by the department to be paid is not paid when due, and no appeal of the order is made, the sum shall bear interest at the rate of ~~12~~ 18 percent per annum. Any penalties paid pursuant to this section shall not be considered as a loss or expense item for purposes of a petition for a rate increase made pursuant to chapter 79.

Sec. 65. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 176.231, Subdivision 10, is amended to read:

Subd. 10. [FAILURE TO FILE REQUIRED REPORT, PENALTY.] Where an employer, physician, ~~or~~ surgeon or health provider has failed to file with the commissioner of the department of labor and industry any report required by this section in the manner and within the time limitations prescribed, he shall forfeit to the state ~~$50~~ $200 for each such failure.

The attorney general shall sue in a civil action to collect this penalty upon notification of the matter by the commissioner of the department of labor and industry. The commissioner of the department of labor and industry shall certify to the attorney general each failure to report immediately upon its occurrence.

Penalties collected by the state under this subdivision shall be paid into the state treasury.

Sec. 66. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 176.235, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 3. [NOTICE TO EMPLOYEE OF RIGHTS AND DUTIES.] Upon notice that an employee has suffered a personal injury, the employer shall provide the employee with a brochure or letter, which shall be prepared and provided by the insurer or group self insurer, if any, explaining the rights and obligations of the employee and employer, the assistance available to the employee, and the operation of the workers' compensation system. The brochure shall meet the readability standards of chapter 72C.

In addition, the brochure or letter shall include the names of persons the employee may contact if questions or problems arise regarding the employee's rights or obligations under chapter 176. Any brochure shall be approved by the commissioner of insurance prior to use. The workers' compensation advisory council shall prepare a prototype brochure. The workers' compensation insurance rating association of Minnesota may prepare and submit brochures for approval on behalf of its members.

The employer shall not refuse to offer employment for any reason which is based on the employee's conduct prior to the personal injury.*

Subd. 3. [ASSISTANCE PLAN.] If the employer is unable to provide a job, the employer shall, as soon as possible, but at least four weeks prior to the return to work target date, inform the employee that no job will be available, but if the employee has entered upon a rehabilitation plan, the employer shall, as soon as possible, but no later than four weeks after commencing the plan, inform the employee, insurer, and the division that no job will be available. The employer shall also provide assistance to the employee in finding another job which is consistent with the employee's skills and which is within the physical capabilities of the employee. A plan for assistance shall be filed with the commissioner at the time the employer informs the employee that no offer of employment can be made. A plan for approval filed pursuant to section 176.102 shall be sufficient.

Subd. 4. [PENALTY.] *An employer failing to provide reemployment or to provide assistance as required in subdivision 3 shall be required to pay to the special compensation fund an amount equal to all of the benefits paid as required in section 176.101 for the first year following the date of injury. Subd. 5. [RULES.] The commissioner shall, by rule, establish the minimum provisions of the plan required in subdivision 3.

This notification relieves the employer from further liability for compensation subject to the right of review afforded by this chapter, and to the right of the division to set aside the order at any time prior to the review and grant a new hearing pursuant to this chapter. Where the order directs the payment of further compensation, the order shall provide that the amount of compensation shall bear interest at the rate of 18 percent per annum computed from the date of the termination of benefits.

Sec. 69. Minnesota Statutes 1981 Supplement, Section 176.331, is amended to read:

Where an adverse party has failed to file and serve an answer, if the petitioner presents proof of such fact, the compensation judge shall enter whatever award or order to which petitioner is entitled on the basis of the facts alleged in the petition, but the compensation judge may require proof of an alleged fact. If the commissioner requires such proof, he shall request the chief hearing examiner to assign the matter to a compensation judge to summarily hear and determine the same and to promptly make an award or order.

Where in such a default case the petition does not state facts sufficient to support an award, the compensation judge shall give the petitioner or his attorney written notice of this deficiency. The petitioner may thereupon file another petition as in the case of an original petition.

If an award is made pursuant to this subdivision, the amount of the award shall include interest on the award at the rate of 18 percent per annum computed from the date compensation was due but not paid.

Sec. 73. [RATE REDUCTION.]

Within ten days following final enactment the commissioner of insurance shall order a hearing pursuant to section 79.071, subdivision 1a. Upon completion of this hearing the commissioner shall order a reduction in the schedule of rates of at least 16 percent due to the changes made in this bill. The change shall be effective January 1, 1983. An additional reduction of ten percent shall be applied to the schedule of rates due to the repeal of section 79.211, subdivision 1.

Any percentage reduction in the schedule of rates shall include an equal percentage reduction in the profits and expenses available to insurers.

Any pending requests for a change in the schedule of rates shall result in a rate increase of no more than two and three-tenths percent, as a reflection of the change in the method of assessments for the special compensation fund and because the pending request for a rate increase has shown no consideration in its calculations for the increase in premiums collected as a result of the increase in the wage base upon which the rates are based.

Sec. 74. [STUDY COMMISSION.]

Subdivision 1. [CREATION.] A study commission is hereby created to study and report on:

(a) the organization and operation of the department of labor and industry, workers' compensation division, including but not limited to:

Unless reviewed in the manner hereinafter provided, the rate as determined or as modified by a redetermination, a decision of a referee, or the commissioner shall be final except for fraud and shall be the rate upon which contributions shall be computed for the calendar year for which such rate was determined, and shall not be subject to collateral attack for any errors, clerical or otherwise, whether by way of claim for adjustment or refund, or otherwise. If the legislature changes any of the factors used to determine the contribution rate of any employer for any year subsequent to the original mailing of such notice for the year, the earlier notice shall be void. The notice based on the new factors shall be deemed to be the only notice of rate of contributions for that year and shall be subject to the same finality, redetermination and review procedures as provided above.

Provided, that, for the purposes of this paragraph, an individual shall be deemed to have received all of the regular benefits that were available to him although as a result of a pending appeal with respect to wage credits or credit weeks that were not considered in the original monetary determination in his benefit year, he may subsequently be determined to be entitled to added regular benefits; or

(b) His benefit year having expired prior to such week, has no, or insufficient, wages and/or employment on the basis of which he could establish a new benefit year that would include such week or having established a benefit year that includes such week, he is precluded from receiving regular compensation by reason of: (i) a state law provision which meets the requirements of section 3304 (a) (7) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, or (ii) a disqualification determination which cancelled wage credits or totally reduced his benefit rights, or (iii) benefits are not payable by reason of a seasonal limitation in a state unemployment insurance law; and

Sec. 20. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 268.071, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 9. [ELIGIBILITY REQUIREMENTS.] Notwithstanding the provisions of subdivision 2, an individual shall be ineligible for the payment of extended benefits for any week of unemployment in his eligibility period if the commissioner finds that during that week he failed to accept any offer of suitable work, failed to apply for any suitable work to which he was referred by the commissioner or failed to actively engage in seeking work.

Any individual who has been found ineligible for extended benefits for any week by reason of this subdivision shall also be denied benefits for the week following the week in which the failure occurred and until he has been employed in each of four subsequent weeks, whether or not consecutive, and has earned remuneration of not less than four times his extended weekly benefit amount.

For the purpose of this subdivision "suitable work" means, with respect to any individual, any work which is within that individual's capabilities and which has a gross average weekly remuneration payable which exceeds the sum of the individual's weekly benefit amount as determined under subdivision 4 plus the amount, if any, of supplemental unemployment benefits, as defined in section 501(c) (17) (D) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, as amended, payable to the individual for that week. The work must pay wages not less than the higher of the minimum wage provided by section 6(a) (1) of the Fair Labor Standards Act of 1938, as amended, without regard to any exemption, or the applicable state or local minimum wage.

No individual shall be denied extended benefits for failure to accept an offer of or apply for any suitable work if: (a) the position was not offered to the individual in writing or was not listed with employment service; (b) the failure could not result in a denial of benefits under the definition of suitable work for regular benefit claimants in section 268.09, subdivision 2 to the extent that the criteria of suitability therein are not inconsistent with this subdivision; or (c) the individual furnishes satisfactory evidence to the commissioner that his prospects for obtaining work in his customary occupation within a reasonably short period are good. If the evidence furnished is found to be satisfactory for this purpose, the determination of whether any work is suitable for the individual shall be made in accordance with the definition of suitable work for regular benefit claimants in section 268.09, subdivision 2, clause (a) without regard to the definition or special disqualification specified in this subdivision.

No work shall be found to be suitable work for an individual which does not accord with the labor standard provisions required by section 3304(a) (5) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, as amended, and set forth in section 268.09, subdivision 2, clauses (b) (1) (2) and (3).

The employment service shall refer any claimant entitled to extended benefits under section 268.071 to any work which is suitable work for that individual under this subdivision.

Sec. 25. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 268.09, Subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [DISQUALIFYING CONDITIONS.] An individual separated from employment under clauses (1), (2) and (3) shall be disqualified for waiting week credit and benefits ~~for the duration of his unemployment and~~ until 4 calendar weeks have elapsed following his separation and he has earned four times his weekly benefit amount in insured work ~~if he is separated from employment under any of the following conditions:~~ unless the clause provides otherwise.

(1) [VOLUNTARY LEAVE.] The individual voluntarily and without good cause attributable to the employer discontinued his employment with such employer. For the purpose of this clause, a separation from employment by reason of ~~its temporary nature or~~ the expiration of a written employment agreement providing for the termination of the employment relationship within 15 weeks of its commencement shall be deemed voluntary, provided that the wages earned during the course of the employment relationship do not exceed $2,500, and provided that employment of 15 weeks duration or less has been the norm for most employment by that employer in that facility in the three years previous to the enactment of this section and provided further that separation for this reason shall disqualify the individual from being able to requalify for waiting week credit and benefits until he qualifies under section 268.07. But a separation from employment for inability to pass a test or for inability to meet performance standards necessary for continuation of employment shall not be deemed voluntary.

(2) [DISCHARGE FOR MISCONDUCT.] The individual was discharged for misconduct, not amounting to gross misconduct connected with his work or for misconduct which interferes with and adversely affects his employment.

An individual shall not be disqualified under clauses (1) and (2) of this subdivision under any of the following conditions:

An individual who is separated from his employment due to his illness of chemical dependency which has been professionally diagnosed or for which he has voluntarily submitted to treatment and who fails to make consistent efforts to maintain the treatment he knows or has been professionally advised is necessary to control that illness has not made reasonable efforts to retain his employment.

(c) The individual accepts work from a base period employer which involves a change in his location of work so that said work would not have been deemed to be suitable work under the provisions of subdivision 2 and within a period of 13 weeks from the commencement of said work voluntarily discontinues his employment due to reasons which would have caused the work to be unsuitable under the provision of said subdivision 2;

(d) The individual left employment because he had reached mandatory retirement age and was 65 years of age or older; ~~or~~

(e) The individual is terminated by his employer because he gave notice of intention to terminate employment within 30 days. This exception shall be effective only through the calendar week which includes the date of intended termination, provided that this exception shall not result in the payment of benefits for any week for which he receives his normal wage or salary which is equal to or greater than his weekly benefit amount;

(f) The individual is separated from employment due to the completion of an apprenticeship program, or segment thereof, approved pursuant to chapter 178.

(3) [DISCHARGE FOR GROSS MISCONDUCT.] The individual was discharged for gross misconduct connected with his work or gross misconduct which interferes with and adversely affects his employment and provided further that the commissioner is empowered to impose a total disqualification for the benefit year and to cancel part or all of the wage credits from the last employer from whom he was discharged for gross misconduct connected with his work.

For the purpose of this clause "gross misconduct" shall be defined as misconduct involving assault and battery or the malicious destruction of property or the theft of money or property of a value of $100 or more or arson or sabotage or embezzlement~~. However, no person shall be deemed to have been discharged for gross misconduct for purposes of this chapter unless (1) the person makes an admission to the conduct in writing or under oath, or (2) the person is found to have engaged in such conduct by an appeals tribunal established pursuant to section 268.10, or (3) the person has been convicted by a court of competent jurisdiction of acts constituting gross misconduct~~ or any other act the commission of which amounts to a felony or gross misdemeanor.

Benefits paid subsequent to an individual's failure, without good cause, to accept an offer of suitable re-employment shall not be used as a factor in determining the future contribution rate of the employer whose offer of re-employment he failed to accept or whose offer of re-employment was refused solely due to the distance of the available work from his residence, the individual's own serious illness or his other employment at the time of the offer.

(5) An individual who was employed by an employer shall not be disqualified for benefits under this subdivision for any acts or omissions occurring after his separation from employment with the employer.

(6) [DISCIPLINARY SUSPENSIONS.] *An individual shall be disqualified for waiting week credit and benefits for the duration of any disciplinary suspension of 30 days or less resulting from his own misconduct. Subd. 2. [FAILURE TO APPLY FOR OR ACCEPT SUITABLE WORK

OR RE-EMPLOYMENT.] An individual shall be disqualified for waiting week credit and benefits during the week of occurrence and until 4 calendar weeks have elapsed following his refusal or failure and he has earned four times his weekly benefit amount in insured work if the commissioner finds that he has failed, without good cause, either to apply for available, suitable work of which he was advised by the employment office, or the commissioner or to accept suitable work when offered him, or to return to his customary self-employment (if any) when so directed by the commissioner, or to accept suitable re-employment offered by a base period employer.

(a) In determining whether or not any work is suitable for an individual, the commissioner shall consider the degree of risk involved to his health, safety, and morals, his physical fitness and prior training, his experience, his length of unemployment and prospects of securing local work in his customary occupation, and the distance of the available work from his residence.

(b) Notwithstanding any other provisions of sections 268.03 to 268.24, no work shall be deemed suitable, and benefits shall not be denied thereunder to any otherwise eligible individual for refusing to accept new work under any of the following conditions:

(1) if the position offered is vacant due directly to a strike, lockout, or other labor dispute;

(2) if the wages, hours, or other conditions of the work offered are substantially less favorable to the individual than those prevailing for similar work in the locality;

(3) if as a condition of being employed the individual would be required to join a union or to resign from or refrain from joining any bona fide labor organization;

(4) if the individual is in training with the approval of the commissioner.

Sec. 27. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 268.09, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Such printed statements shall be supplied by the commissioner to each employer without cost to him.

(1) Any employer upon separation of an employee from his employment for any reason which may result in disqualification for benefits under section 268.09, shall furnish to such employee a separation notice which shall provide the employer's name, address, and employer account number as registered with the department, the employee's name and social security account number, the inclusive dates of his employment, and the reason for the separation. A copy of such separation notice shall be filed with the commissioner within ~~three~~ seven days of such separation. The commissioner shall require each individual filing a claim for benefits to establish a benefit year to furnish ~~such separation notices which he has received from all employers from whom such individual earned wage credits in the base period~~ the reason for separation from all employers in his base period.

(2) Upon the filing, by an individual, of a claim for benefits, the commissioner shall give notice to all such base period employers of the filing of such claim and request each such base period employer, within seven days after the mailing of such notice, to furnish the following information:

(a) The total wage credits earned in the base period;

(b) The number of credit weeks which end within the base period;

(c) The week ending dates for each calendar week within the base period in which the individual earned less than the amount required to make a credit week and the amount of earnings in each such week;

(d) The reason for the separation or separations of such individual from the employ of the employer in the base period; and

(e) Such employer's protest, if any, relating to the ineligibility or disqualification of such individual.

(3) If any base period employer, after the notice of filing of a claim and the request for wage and separation information has been duly mailed to his last known address, fails to file information as provided by items (a) through (e) of clause 2 of this subdivision within seven days, the commissioner shall:

(a) Determine the validity of an individual's claim based on the claimant's statements or any other available information. ~~Any~~ An employer shall be liable for a late filing fee of not less than $5 nor more than $25, as the commissioner may determine, to be paid to the department of economic security and credited to the contingent fund if he has failed without good cause to submit the wage and separation information as required in clause 2 of this subdivision within seven days after the request has been duly mailed to his last known address. In the absence of fraud, if a redetermination of validity of claim based on an employer's late report subsequently cancels or reduces the amount of benefits to which a claimant was entitled under the initial determination, the claimant shall not be required to make repayment to the fund of any benefits paid to him prior to such redetermination. ~~The commissioner shall not consider any issue of disqualification raised under clause (1) or (2) unless a protest was filed within the time limits specified in clause (2);~~ and

(b) Determine any issue of disqualification raised by clause (1) of this subdivision or by an employer's late report. If an employer fails to file a separation notice within the time limits prescribed in clause (1), any relief from benefit charges provided by section 268.09, subdivision 1, clause (4), shall apply to weeks of unemployment beginning after the filing of the late report.

Sec. 29. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 268.10, Subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [EXAMINATION OF CLAIMS; DETERMINATION; APPEAL.] (1) An official, designated by the commissioner, shall promptly examine each claim for benefits filed to establish a benefit year pursuant to this section, and, on the basis of the facts found, shall determine whether or not such claims are valid, and if valid, the weekly benefit amount payable, the maximum benefit amount payable during the benefit year, and the date the benefit year terminates, and this determination shall be known as the determination of validity. Notice of the determination of validity or any redetermination as provided for in clause (4) shall be promptly given the claimant and all other interested parties. If within the time limits for filing a protest an interested party notifies the department that an individual's weekly benefit amount as determined under section 268.07 exceeds the individual's weekly wages while employed by the interested party, the weekly benefit amount shall be the lesser of the amount derived by dividing the total base period wages earned in all credit weeks by the number of base period credit weeks computed to the nearest whole dollar or the amount as computed under section 268.07. If within the time specified for the filing of wage and separation information as provided in subdivision 1, clause (2), the employer makes an allegation of disqualification or raises an issue of the chargeability to his account of benefits that may be paid on such claim, if the claim is valid, the issue thereby raised shall be promptly determined by said official and a notification of the determination delivered or mailed to the claimant and the employer. If an initial determination or an appeal tribunal decision or the commissioner's decision awards benefits, the benefits shall be paid promptly regardless of the pendency of any appeal period or any appeal or other proceeding which may thereafter be taken. Except as provided in clause (6), if an appeal tribunal decision modifies or reverses an initial determination awarding benefits, or if a commissioner's decision modifies or reverses an appeal decision awarding benefits, any benefits paid under the award of such initial determination or appeal tribunal decision shall be deemed erroneous payments.

(2) ~~If within the benefit year~~ At any time within 15 months from the date of the filing of a claim for benefits by an individual, an official of the department or any interested party or parties raises an issue of claimant's eligibility for benefits for any week or weeks in accordance with the requirements of the provisions of sections 268.03 to 268.24 or any official of the department or any interested party or parties or benefit year employer raises an issue of disqualification in accordance with the regulations of the commissioner, a determination shall be made thereon and a written notice thereof shall be given to the claimant and such other interested party or parties or benefit year employer.

(3) A determination issued pursuant to clauses (1) and (2) shall be final unless an appeal therefrom is filed by a claimant or employer within 15 days after the mailing of the notice of the determination to his last known address or personal delivery of the notice. Every notice of determination shall contain a prominent statement indicating in clear language the method of appealing the determination, the time within which such an appeal must be made, and the consequences of not appealing the determination. A timely appeal from a determination of validity in which the issue is whether an employing unit is an employer within the meaning of this chapter or whether services performed for an employer constitute employment within the meaning of this chapter shall be subject to the provisions of section 268.12, subdivision 13.

(4) At any time within ~~one year~~ 15 months from the date of the filing of a claim for benefits by an individual, the commissioner on his own motion may reconsider a determination of validity made thereon and make a redetermination thereof if he finds that an error in computation or identity or the crediting of wage credits has occurred in connection therewith or if the determination was made as a result of a nondisclosure or misrepresentation of a material fact.

(5) However, the commissioner may in his discretion refer any disputed claims directly to the appeal tribunal for hearing and determination in accordance with the procedure outlined in subdivision 3 and the effect and status of such determination in such a case shall be the same as though the matter had been determined upon an appeal to the tribunal from an initial determination.

(6) If an appeal tribunal decision affirms an initial determination awarding benefits or the commissioner affirms an appeal tribunal decision awarding benefits, the decision, if finally reversed, shall not result in a disqualification and benefits paid shall neither be deemed overpaid nor shall they be considered in determining any individual employer's future contribution rate under section 268.06.

Sec. 30. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 268.12, Subdivision 12, is amended to read:

Sec. 31. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 268.12, Subdivision 13, is amended to read:

Subd. 13. [DETERMINATIONS.] (1) An official, designated by the commissioner, upon his own motion or upon application of an employing unit shall determine if an employing unit is an employer within the meaning of this chapter or as to whether services performed for it constitute employment within the meaning of this chapter, and shall notify the employing unit of such determination. Such determination shall be final unless the employing unit shall within 30 days after the mailing of notice of the determination to the employing unit's last known address file written appeal therefrom.

(2) The commissioner shall designate one or more representatives, herein referred to as referees, to conduct hearings on appeals. The employing unit and any claimant whose filed claim for benefits may be affected by a determination issued under clause (1) shall be interested parties to an appeal. The referee shall fix a time and place within this state for such hearing and shall give interested parties written notice thereof, by mail, not less than ten days prior to the time of such hearing. In the discharge of the duties imposed by this subdivision, the referee shall have power to administer oaths and affirmations, take depositions, certify to official acts, and issue subpoenas to compel the attendance of witnesses and the production of books, papers, correspondence, memoranda, and other records deemed necessary as evidence in connection with the subject matter of such hearing. The written report of any employee of the department of economic security, made in the regular course of the performance of such employee's duties, shall be competent evidence of the facts therein contained and shall be prima facie correct, unless refuted by other credible evidence.

(3) Upon the conclusion of such hearing, the referee shall serve upon the interested parties by mail findings of fact and decision in respect thereto. The decision of the referee, together with his findings of fact and reasons in support thereof, shall be final unless an interested party shall within 30 days after the mailing of a copy thereof to the interested parties' last known addresses, file an appeal with the commissioner, or unless the commissioner, within 30 days after mailing of such decision, on his own motion orders the matter certified to him for review. Appeal from and review by the commissioner of the decision of the referee shall be had in the manner provided by regulation. The commissioner may without further hearing affirm, modify, or set aside the findings of fact or decision, or both, of the referee on the basis of the evidence previously submitted in the case, or direct the taking of additional evidence. The commissioner may disregard the findings of fact of the referee and examine the testimony taken and make such findings of fact as the evidence taken before the referee may, in the judgment of the commissioner, require, and make such decision as the facts so found by him may require. The commissioner shall notify the employing unit of his findings and decision by mail, mailed to the interested parties' last known addresses, and notice of such decision shall contain a statement setting forth the cost of certification of the record in the matter. The decision of the commissioner shall become final unless judicial review thereof is sought as provided by this subdivision. Any interested party to a proceeding before a referee or the commissioner may obtain a transcript of the testimony taken before the referee upon payment to the commissioner of the cost of such transcript to be computed at the rate of ten cents per 100 words.

(4) The district court of the county wherein the hearing before the referee was held shall, by writ of certiorari to the commissioner, have power to review all questions of law and fact presented by the record. The court shall not accept any new or additional evidence and shall not try the matter de novo. Such action shall be commenced within 30 days of the mailing of notice of the findings and decision of the commissioner to the interested parties affected thereby mailed to their last known addresses. The commissioner shall not be required to certify the record to the district court unless the party commencing such proceedings for review, as provided above, shall pay to the commissioner the cost of certification of the record computed at the rate of ten cents per 100 words less such amount as may have been previously paid by such party for a transcript. It shall be the duty of the commissioner upon receipt of such payment to prepare and certify to the court a true and correct typewritten copy of all matters contained in such record. The costs so collected by the commissioner shall be deposited by him in the employment services administration fund provided for in section 268.15.

The party commencing proceedings for review shall file his brief with the court and serve it upon the commissioner within 60 days of commencing proceedings. The commissioner shall file his brief with the court and serve it upon the party within 45 days of the service of the party's brief upon the commissioner. The party may file a reply brief with the court and serve it upon the commissioner within 15 days of the service of the commissioner's brief upon him. The proceedings shall be given precedence over all other civil cases before the court.

The court may confirm or set aside the decision and determination of the commissioner. If the decision and determination is set aside and the facts found in the proceedings before the referee are sufficient, the court may enter such decision as is justified by law, or may remand the cause to the commissioner for further proceedings and may state the questions requiring further hearing, and give such other instructions as may be proper.

Any decision of the district court may be reviewed on certiorari by the supreme court provided the writ is issued and served upon the adverse party or parties within 30 days after the mailing of the notice of the decision.

(5) A final decision of the commissioner or referee, in the absence of appeal therefrom, shall be conclusive for all the purposes of sections 268.03 to 268.24 except as herein otherwise provided, and, together with the records therein made, shall be admissible in any subsequent judicial proceeding involving liability for contributions. A final decision of the commissioner or referee may be introduced in any proceeding involving a claim for benefits.

(6) In the event a final decision of the commissioner or referee determines the amount of contributions due under sections 268.03 to 268.24, then, if such amount, together with interest and penalties, is not paid within 30 days after such decision, the provisions of section ~~268.16, subdivision 3,~~ 19 shall apply; and the commissioner shall proceed thereunder, substituting a certified copy of the final decision in place of the contribution report therein provided.

Sec. 32. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 268.15, Subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [CONTINGENT ACCOUNT.] There is hereby created in the state treasury a special account, to be known as the employment services contingent account, which shall not lapse nor revert to any other fund. Such account shall consist of all moneys appropriated therefor by the legislature, all moneys in the form of interest and penalties collected pursuant to section 268.16 and all moneys received in the form of voluntary contributions to this account and interest thereon. All moneys in such account shall be supplemental to all federal moneys that would be available to the commissioner but for the existence of this account. Moneys in this account are hereby appropriated to the commissioner and shall be expended in accordance with the provisions of section 3.30, in connection with the administration of sections 268.03 to 268.24. Whenever the commissioner expends moneys from said contingent account for the proper and efficient administration of the Minnesota employment services law for which funds have not yet been made available by the federal government, such moneys so withdrawn from the contingent account shall be replaced as hereinafter provided. Upon the deposit in the employment services administration fund of moneys which are received in reimbursement of payments made as above provided for said contingent account, the commissioner shall certify to the state treasurer the amount of such reimbursement and thereupon the state treasurer shall transfer such amount from the employment services administration fund to said contingent account. All moneys in this account shall be deposited, administered, and disbursed in the same manner and under the same conditions and requirements as is provided by law for the other special accounts in the state treasury. The state treasurer shall be liable on his official bond for the faithful performance of his duties in connection with the employment services contingent account provided for herein. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained herein, on June 30 of each year, except 1982, all amounts in excess of $300,000 in this account shall be paid over to the unemployment compensation fund established under section 268.05 and administered in accordance with the provisions set forth therein.

Sec. 33. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 268.16, Subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [INTEREST ON PAST DUE CONTRIBUTIONS.] If contributions or reimbursements to the unemployment fund are not paid on the date on which they are due the unpaid balance thereof shall bear interest at the rate of one and one-half percent per month or any part thereof. Contributions or reimbursements received by mail postmarked on a day following the date on which the law requires contributions to be paid shall be deemed to have been paid on the due date if there is substantial evidence tending to prove that the contribution was actually deposited in the United States mails properly addressed to the department with postage prepaid thereon on or before the due date. Interest collected pursuant to this subdivision shall be paid into the contingent account. Interest on contributions due under this subdivision may be waived in accordance with rules as the commissioner may adopt.

Sec. 34. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 268.16, Subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [REPORTS; DELINQUENCIES; PENALTIES.] (1) Any employer who knowingly fails to make and submit to the department of economic security any report of wages paid by or due from him for insured work in the manner and at the time such report is required by regulations prescribed by the commissioner shall pay to the department of economic security for the contingent account a penalty in the amount of one and one-half percent of contributions accrued during the period for which such report is required, for each month from and after such date until such report is properly made and submitted to the department of economic security. In no case shall the amount of the penalty imposed hereby be less than $5 per month. The maximum penalty imposed hereby shall be $25 or the amount determined at the rate of one and one-half percent per month, whichever is greater. Any employing unit which fails to make and submit to the commissioner any report, other than one of wages paid or payable for insured work, as and when required by the regulations of the commissioner, shall be subject to a penalty in the sum of $10 payable to the department of economic security for the contingent account. All such penalties shall be in addition to interest and any other penalties provided for by sections 268.03 to 268.24 and shall be collected by civil action as hereinafter provided.

(2) If any employing unit required by sections 268.03 to 268.24 to make and submit contribution reports shall fail to do so within the time prescribed by these sections or by regulations under the authority thereof, or shall make, wilfully or otherwise, an incorrect, false or fraudulent contribution report, he shall, on the written demand of the commissioner, make such contribution report, or corrected report, within ten days after the mailing of such written demand and at the same time pay the whole contribution, or additional contribution, due on the basis thereof. If such employer shall fail within that time to make such report, or corrected report, the commissioner shall make for him a report, or corrected report, from his own knowledge and from such information as he can obtain through testimony, or otherwise, and assess a contribution on the basis thereof, which contribution, plus penalties and interest which thereafter accrued (less any payments theretofore made) shall be paid within ten days after the commissioner has mailed to such employer a written notice of the amount thereof and demand for its payment. Any such contribution report or assessment made by the commissioner on account of the failure of the employer to make a report or corrected report shall be prima facie correct and valid, and the employer shall have the burden of establishing its incorrectness or invalidity in any action or proceeding in respect thereto. Whenever such delinquent employer shall file a report or corrected report, the commissioner may, if he finds it substantially correct, substitute it for the commissioner's report. If an employer has failed to submit any report of wages paid, or has filed an incorrect report, and the commissioner finds that such noncompliance with the terms of sections 268.03 to 268.24 was not wilful and that such employer was free from fraudulent intent, the commissioner shall limit the charge against such employer to the period of the year in which such condition has been found to exist and for the preceding calendar year.

~~(3) Any report required to be made by an employer under this subdivision or a rule or regulation promulgated pursuant thereto shall identify the employer name as it appears on all payroll checks issued by the employer in this state.~~

Sec. 35. [268.161] [CONTRIBUTION AND REIMBURSEMENT LIEN.]

Subdivision 1. [LIEN.] Any contributions or reimbursements due under sections 268.03 to 268.24 and interest and penalties imposed with respect thereto, shall become a lien upon all the property, both real and personal, of the person liable therefor, within this state, except his homestead, from and after the filing by the commissioner of a notice of lien in the office of the county recorder of the county in which the property is situated, or in the case of personal property belonging to an individual who is not a resident of this state, or which is a corporation, partnership, or other organization, in the office of the secretary of state.

The lien created under this section shall become effective with respect to personal property from and after the date of filing by the commissioner of a notice of the lien describing the property to which the lien attaches in the office of the county recorder of the county in which the commissioner believes the property is located at the time the lien is filed, and with the secretary of state.

The lien imposed on personal property by this section, even though properly filed, shall not be valid as against a purchaser with respect to tangible personal property purchased at retail or as against the personal property listed as exempt in sections 550.37, 550.38 and 550.39.

Subd. 2. [INJUNCTION FORBIDDEN.] No suit shall lie to enjoin the assessment or collection of any contribution or reimbursement imposed by this chapter, or the interest and penalties imposed thereby.

Subd. 3. [LEGAL ACTION.] If after due notice any employer defaults in any payment of contributions, reimbursements, and interest due thereon or penalties for failure to file returns and other reports as required by the provisions of sections 268.03 to 268.24 or by any rule of the commissioner, the commissioner shall, unless he proceeds under one of the other subdivisions of this section, bring against the person liable for payment thereof an action at law, in the name of the state, for the recovery of the contribution, reimbursement, interest and penalties due in respect thereof under this chapter. The action shall be brought in the district court of the county of the residence or principal place of business within this state of the employer, or, in the case of an estate or trust, of the place of its principal administration, and for this purpose the place named in the report, if any, made by the employer shall be conclusive against the employer. If no place is named in the report, the action may be commenced in Ramsey county. The action shall be commenced by filing with the clerk of court a statement showing the name and address of the employer, if known, an itemized summary of the taxable wages on the basis of which the contribution has been computed, the contribution due and unpaid thereon, and the interest and penalties due with respect thereto under this chapter, and shall contain a prayer that the court adjudge the employer to be indebted on account of the contribution, interest, and penalties in the amount thereof specified in the statement. The clerk shall mail a copy of the statement by certified mail to the employer at the address given in the report, if any, and, if no address is given, then at his last known address, within five days after the same is filed, except that, if the employer's address is not known, notice to him shall be made by posting a copy of the statement for ten days in the place in the courthouse where public notices are regularly posted. The employer shall, if he desires to litigate the claim, or any part thereof, file a verified answer with the clerk setting forth his objections to the claim, or any part thereof. The answer shall be filed on or before the lapse of the 20th day after the date of mailing the statement. If notice has been given by posting, the answer shall be filed on or before the 20th day after the expiration of the period during which the notice was required to be posted. If no answer is filed within the specified time, the clerk, upon the filing of an affidavit of default, shall enter judgment for the state in the amount prayed for, plus costs of $10. If an answer be filed, the issues raised shall stand for trial as soon as possible after the filing of the answer, and the court shall determine the issues and direct judgment accordingly and, if the contribution, interest, or penalties are sustained to any extent over the amount rendered by the employer, shall assess $10 costs against the employer. The court shall disregard all technicalities and matters of form not affecting the substantial merits. The commissioner may call upon a county attorney or the attorney general to conduct the proceedings on behalf of the state. Execution shall be issued upon the judgment at the request of the commissioner, and the execution shall, in all other respects, be governed by the laws applicable to executions issued on judgments. Only the homestead and household goods of the judgment debtor shall be exempt from seizure and sale upon the execution.

Subd. 4. [COLLECTION BY CIVIL ACTION.] (1) In addition to all other collection methods authorized, if, after due notice, any employer defaults in any payment of contributions or interest due thereon or penalties for failure to file returns and other reports as required by sections 268.03 to 268.24 or by any rule of the commissioner, the amount due shall be collected by civil action in the name of the state of Minnesota, and any money recovered shall be credited to the funds provided for under those sections. Any employer adjudged in default shall pay the costs of the action. Civil actions brought under this section to collect contributions, interest due thereon, or penalties from an employer shall be heard by the court at the earliest possible date. No action for the collection of contributions or interest thereon shall be commenced more than four years after the contributions have been reported by the employer or determined by the commissioner to be due and payable. In any action, judgment shall be entered against any defendant in default for the relief demanded in the complaint without proof, together with costs and disbursements, upon the filing of an affidavit of default.

(2) Any employing unit which is not a resident of this state and which exercises the privilege of having one or more individuals perform service for it within this state, and any resident employing unit which exercises that privilege and thereafter removes from this state, shall be deemed thereby to appoint the secretary of state as its agent and attorney for the acceptance of process in any civil action under this subdivision. In instituting an action against any employing unit, the commissioner shall cause process or notice to be filed with the secretary of state, together with a payment of a fee of $15 and that service shall be sufficient service upon the employing unit, and shall be of the same force and validity as if served upon it personally within this state. The commissioner shall forthwith send notice of the service of process or notice, together with a copy thereof, by certified mail, return receipt requested, to the employing unit at its last known address. The return receipt, the commissioner's affidavit of compliance with the provisions of this section, and a copy of the notice of service shall be appended to the original of the process filed in the court in which the civil action is pending.

Subd. 5. [RIGHT OF SETOFF.] Upon certification by the commissioner to the commissioner of finance that an employer has an uncontested delinquent contribution or reimbursement liability owed to the department, and that the state has purchased personal services, supplies, contract services, or property from said employer, the commissioner of finance shall apply to the delinquent contribution or reimbursement liability funds sufficient to satisfy the unpaid liability from funds appropriated for payment of said obligation of the state or any of its agencies that are due and owing the employer. The credit shall not be made against any funds exempt under section 550.37 or owed the employer under chapter 256 or 256B.

All funds, whether general or dedicated, shall be subject to setoff in the manner provided in this subdivision. Transfer of funds in payment of the obligations of the state or any of its agencies to an employer and any actions for the funds shall be had against the commissioner on the issue of the contribution or reimbursement liability. Nothing in this section shall be construed to limit the previously existing right of the state or any of its agencies to setoff.

Subd. 6. [CONTRIBUTION OR REIMBURSEMENT PRESUMED VALID.] The contribution and reimbursement, as assessed by the commissioner, including any penalties, shall be presumed to be valid and correctly determined and assessed, and the burden shall be upon the employer to show its incorrectness or invalidity. The statement filed by the commissioner with the clerk of court, as provided in subdivision 3, or any other certificate by the commissioner of the amount of the contribution, reimbursement, interest and penalties as determined or assessed by him, shall be admissible in evidence and shall establish prima facie the facts set forth therein.

Subd. 7. [CONFESSION OF JUDGMENT.] (a) Any contribution report or form that is required to be filed with the commissioner concerning contributions or reimbursements due, shall contain a written declaration that it is made under the penalties of section 268.18, subdivision 3 for wilfully making a false report and shall contain a confession of judgment for the amount of the contribution or reimbursement shown due thereon to the extent not timely paid together with any interest and penalty due under chapter 268.

(b) The commissioner may, within four years after a report is filed, notwithstanding section 541.09, enter judgment after 20 days notice served upon the employer by mail at the address shown in the employer's report. The judgment shall be entered by the clerk of court of any county upon the filing of a photocopy or similar reproduction of that part of the contribution report or form containing the confession of judgment along with a statement of the commissioner or his agent that the contribution or reimbursement has not been paid.

Subd. 8. [LEVY.] (a) If any contribution or reimbursement payable to the department is not paid when due, the amount may be collected by the commissioner, his duly authorized representative, or by the sheriff of any county to whom the commissioner has issued his warrant, who may levy upon all property and rights of property of the person liable for the contribution or reimbursement, except that which is exempt from execution pursuant to section 550.37. The terms ''contribution or reimbursement'' shall include any penalty, interest, and costs. The term ''levy'' includes the power of distraint and seizure by any means. Before a levy is made or warrant issued, notice and demand for payment of the amount due shall be given to the person liable for the contribution or reimbursement at least ten days prior to the levy or issuing of a warrant.

(b) Upon the commissioner issuing a warrant, the sheriff shall proceed within 60 days to levy upon the rights to property of the employer within his county, except the homestead and household goods of the employer and property of the employer not liable to attachment, garnishment, or sale on any final process issued from any court under the provisions of section 550.37, and shall sell so much thereof as is required to satisfy the contribution, reimbursement, interest, and penalties, together with his costs. The sales shall, as to their manner, be governed by the law applicable to sales of like property on execution issued against property upon a judgment of a court of record. The proceeds of the sales, less the sheriff's costs, shall be turned over to the commissioner, who shall retain a part thereof as is required to satisfy the contribution, reimbursement, interest, penalties, and costs, and pay over any balance to the employer.

(c) If the commissioner has reason to believe that collection of the contribution or reimbursement is in jeopardy, notice and demand for immediate payment of the amount may be made by the commissioner. If the contribution or reimbursement is not paid, the commissioner may proceed to collect by levy or issue his warrant without regard to the ten day period provided herein.

(d) In making the execution of the levy and in collecting the contribution or reimbursement due, the commissioner shall have all of the powers provided in chapter 550 and in any other law for purposes of effecting an execution against property in this state. The sale of property levied upon and the time and manner of redemption therefrom shall be as provided in chapter 550. The seal of the court, subscribed by the clerk, as provided in section 550.04, shall not be required. The levy for collection of contributions or reimbursements may be made whether or not the commissioner has commenced a legal action for collection of the amount.

(e) Where a jeopardy assessment or any other assessment has been made by the commissioner, the property seized for collection of the contribution or reimbursement shall not be sold until any determination of liability, rate or benefit charges has become final. No sale shall be made unless the contribution or reimbursement remain unpaid for a period of more than 30 days after the determination becomes final. Seized property may be sold at any time if:

(1) the employer consents in writing to the sale; or

(2) the commissioner determines that the property is perishable or may become greatly reduced in price or value by keeping, or that the property cannot be kept without great expense.

(f) Where a levy has been made to collect contributions or reimbursements pursuant to this subdivision and the property seized is properly included in a formal proceeding commenced under sections 524.3-401 to 524.3-505 and maintained under full supervision of the court, the property shall not be sold until the probate proceedings are completed or until the court so orders.

(g) The property seized shall be returned by the commissioner if the owner gives a surety bond equal to the appraised value of his interest in the property, as determined by the commissioner, or deposits with the commissioner security in a form and amount as he deems necessary to insure payment of the liability, but not more than twice the liability.

(h) Notwithstanding any other law to the contrary, if a levy or sale pursuant to this section would irreparably injure rights in property which the court determines to be superior to rights of the state in the property, the district court may grant an injunction to prohibit the enforcement of the levy or to prohibit the sale.

(i) Any person who fails or refuses to surrender without reasonable cause any property or rights to property subject to levy upon demand by the commissioner shall be personally liable to the department in an amount equal to the value of the property or rights not so surrendered, but not exceeding the amount of contribution or reimbursement for the collection of which the levy has been made. Any amount recovered under this subdivision shall be credited against the contribution or reimbursement liability for the collection of which the levy was made. The term ''person'' includes an officer or employee of a corporation or a member or employee of a partnership who, as an officer, employee, or member is under a duty to surrender the property or rights to property or to discharge the obligation.

(j) Any action taken by the commissioner pursuant to this subdivision shall not constitute an election by the department to pursue a remedy to the exclusion of any other remedy.

(k) After the commissioner has seized the property of any person, that person may, upon giving 48 hours notice to the commissioner and to the court, bring a claim for equitable relief before the district court for the release of the property to the employer upon terms and conditions as the court may deem equitable.

Subd. 9. [PERSONAL LIABILITY.] Any officer or any employee having 20 percent ownership interest of a corporation which is an employer under sections 268.03 to 268.24 who has control of or supervision over the filing of and responsibility for filing contribution reports or of making payment of contributions under these sections, and who wilfully fails to file the reports or to make payments as required, shall be personally liable for contributions or reimbursement, including interest, penalties, and costs in the event the corporation does not pay to the department those amounts for which the employer is liable.

Any personal representative of the estate of a decedent or fiduciary who voluntarily distributes the assets filed therein without reserving a sufficient amount to pay the contributions, interest, and penalties due pursuant to chapter 268 shall be personally liable for the deficiency.

The personal liability of any person as provided herein shall survive dissolution, reorganization, bankruptcy, receivership, or assignment for the benefit of creditors.

An official designated by the commissioner shall make an initial determination as to the personal liability under this section. The determination shall be final unless the person found to be personally liable shall within 30 days after mailing of notice of determination to his last known address files a written appeal. Proceedings on the appeal shall be conducted in the same manner as an appeal from a determination of employer liability under section 268.12, subdivision 13.

Sec. 36. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 268.18, Subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [ERRONEOUS PAYMENTS.] Any claimant for benefits who, by reason of his own mistake or through the error of any individual engaged in the administration of sections 268.03 to 268.24, has received any sum as benefits to which he was not entitled under these sections, shall promptly return such benefits in cash to the nearest office of the Minnesota department of economic security. If such claimant fails to return such benefits, the department of economic security shall, as soon as it discovers such erroneous payment, determine the amount thereof and notify said individual to return the same~~, within a period of 20 days from the date of such notification~~. Unless the claimant files a written appeal with the department of economic security within 15 days after the mailing of the notice of determination to his last known address or personal delivery of the notice, the determination shall become final. If the claimant files an appeal with the department in writing within the time aforesaid the matter shall be set for hearing before an appeal tribunal of the department and heard as other benefit matters are heard in accordance with section 268.10 with the same rights of review as outlined for benefit cases in that section. ~~In the event that the claimant fails to return to the department within 20 days after the notification to do so, the benefits he received unlawfully,~~ The commissioner of the department of economic security is hereby authorized to deduct from any future benefits payable to ~~such~~ the claimant under these sections in either the current or any subsequent benefit year an amount equivalent to ~~such erroneous payment~~ the overpayment determined or the overpayment may be collected without interest by civil action in the name of the commissioner. If a claimant has been overpaid benefits under the law of another state and that state certifies to the department the facts involved and that the individual is liable under its law to repay the benefits and requests the department to recover the overpayment, the commissioner is authorized to deduct from future benefits payable to the claimant in either the current or any subsequent benefit year an amount equivalent to the amount of overpayment determined by that state.

Sec. 37. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 268.18, Subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [FRAUD.] Any claimant who files a claim for or receives benefits by knowingly and wilfully misrepresenting or misstating any material fact or by knowingly and wilfully failing to disclose any material fact which would make him ineligible for benefits under sections 268.03 to 268.24 is guilty of fraud. After the discovery of facts by the commissioner indicating fraud in claiming or obtaining benefits under sections 268.03 to 268.24, he is hereby authorized to make a determination that the claimant was ineligible for each week with reference to which benefits were claimed or obtained by fraud for the amount as was in excess of what the claimant would have been entitled to had he not made the fraudulent statements or failed to disclose any material facts. The commissioner also may disqualify an individual from benefits for one to 52 weeks in which the claimant is otherwise eligible for benefits following the week in which the fraud was determined. A disqualification imposed for fraud shall not be removed by subsequent insured work or the expiration of a benefit year but shall not apply to any week more than 104 weeks after the week in which the fraud was determined. Said claimant shall within 20 days from the date of mailing the notice of said determination to him repay in cash to the department of economic security any benefits so fraudulently obtained. Unless the claimant files a written appeal with the department of economic security within 15 days after the mailing of the notice of determination to his last known address or personal delivery of the notice. The determination shall become final. If the claimant shall appeal from such determination within the time above specified said matter shall be referred to an appeal tribunal for a hearing as in other benefit cases and thereafter the procedure for review shall be the same as set forth in section 268.10. ~~If the benefits so fraudulently obtained are not repaid to the department in cash within 20 days from the date of mailing the notice to the claimant of the determination.~~ The commissioner is hereby authorized to deduct from future benefits payable to the claimant in either the current or any subsequent benefit year an amount equivalent to the amount of overpayment determined or the overpayment may be collected without interest by civil action in the name of the commissioner. If a claimant has been overpaid benefits under the law of another state and that state certifies to the department the facts involved and that the individual is liable to repay the benefits and requests the department to recover the overpayment, the commissioner is authorized to deduct from future benefits payable to the claimant in either the current or any subsequent benefit year an amount equivalent to the amount of overpayment determined by that state.

Sec. 38. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 268.18, Subdivision 4, is amended to read:

Subd. 4. [CANCELLATION OF BENEFITS PAID THROUGH ERROR OR FRAUD.] When benefits paid through error or fraud are not repaid or deducted from subsequent benefit amounts as provided for in subdivisions 1 and 2 within six years after the date of the determination that benefits were paid through error or fraud irrespective of subsequent partial recovery dates, the commissioner may, in a manner he prescribes by regulation, cancel as uncollectible the ~~benefit payments~~ overpayment balance, and no administrative or legal proceedings shall be instituted under the Minnesota employment services law to enforce collection of those amounts.

Sec. 39. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 268.18, is amended by adding subdivisions to read:

Subd. 5. [ERRONEOUS PAYMENTS; CHARGING.] The amount of benefits paid and subsequently determined to have been paid: (a) erroneously by the claimant's own mistake; (b) through error by any individual engaged in the administration of sections 268.03 to 268.24; or (c) based upon the claimant's fraudulent statements or his failure to disclose any material facts, shall not be charged to or will be removed from an employer's experience rating account for all subsequent rate computations which have not become final under section 268.06, and shall not be charged to employers electing to reimburse the unemployment fund in accordance with section 268.06, for all benefits paid, based upon wages for services performed with the employer.

Subd. 6. [EMPLOYER MISCONDUCT; PENALTY.] If the commissioner finds that any employing unit or any employee, officer, or agent of any employing unit, is in collusion with any employee for the purpose of assisting the claimant to receive benefits illegally, the employing unit shall be penalized $500 or an amount equal to the amount of benefits determined to be overpaid, whichever is greater.

If the commissioner finds that any part of any employer's contribution deficiency is due to fraud with intent to avoid payment of contributions to the fund, 50 percent of the total amount of the deficiency or $500, whichever is greater, shall be assessed as a penalty against the employer and collected in addition to the deficiency.

Penalties assessed under this section shall be in addition to any other penalties provided for by sections 268.03 to 268.24 and be subject to the same collection procedures that apply to past due contributions under this chapter. Penalties under this section shall be paid to the department and credited to the contingent fund.

The assessment of the penalty shall be final unless the employer files a written appeal with the department within 15 days after the notice of determination to his last known address. If the employer shall appeal from the determination within the time above specified, the matter shall be referred for a hearing as set forth in section 268.10.

Sec. 40. [INTEREST PAYMENTS.]

It is the policy of the state that interest payments due as a result of securing an advance of federal funds under section 268.05, subdivision 6, are a legal obligation of the state.

If the governor finds it necessary to make application to secure an advance of federal funds which result in interest charges due to be paid on October 1, 1982, the governor is authorized to incur the additional interest which will be charged if the initial interest charges cannot be paid in full when due.

It also is the policy of the state to avoid a special assessment on employers or a special appropriation of general funds in calendar year 1982 for payment of interest on advances of federal funds authorized under section 268.05, subdivision 6.

Moneys available in the employment services contingent account established under section 268.15 may be expended, notwithstanding anything to the contrary in that section, for payment of either:

(a) All or part of the interest which may be due and which is payable on October 1, 1982; or

(b) All or part of additional interest which will be charged if the interest payment referred to in clause (a) cannot be paid in full when due.

For purposes of this section, the commissioner of finance shall approve payment of the amounts certified by the commissioner of economic security to be due for the interest charges, notwithstanding anything to the contrary in section 3.30.

Any moneys in excess of $300,000 in the employment services contingent account on June 30, 1982, shall not be paid over to the unemployment compensation fund, notwithstanding the provisions of section 268.15, subdivision 3, but shall remain in the contingent account solely for the purposes of this section until June 30, 1983.

Sec. 41. [REPEALER.]

Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 268.07, Subdivision 4, is repealed. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 268.16, Subdivision 3, as amended by Laws 1981, Third Special Session Chapter 2, Article I, Section 33, is repealed.

Sec. 42. [EFFECTIVE DATE.]

Sections 1, 4, 7, 10, 11, 13, 21, 24, 29 to 32, and 35 to 41 are effective on the day following final enactment. Sections 2, 5, 6, 8, and 9 are effective retroactive to January 1, 1982. Sections 15 and 18, except for those portions of section 15 that amend and renumber existing clauses (4) and (5) of section 268.071, subdivision 1, which are effective September 25, 1982, are effective retroactive to August 13, 1981. Section 16 is effective September 25, 1982. Section 19 is effective retroactive to June 1, 1981. Section 20 is effective retroactive to March 31, 1981. Subdivision 1. [PURPOSE.] Total disability benefits are paid for the purpose of replacing a portion of wages lost due to a personal injury.

Subd. 2. [BENEFIT.] (a) For the first five weeks of total disability the benefit shall be 70 percent of the employee's spendable weekly wage at the time of injury.

(b) After the first five weeks of total disability the benefit shall be 80 percent of the employee's spendable weekly wage at the time of injury.

(c) Notwithstanding any other provisions of chapter 176 or chapter 79, the first five days of disability benefit shall be the liability of the employer and shall not be reimbursed by any insurer or group self insurance program, except where three or more employees are injured in the same incident, in which case, the insurer shall be liable for the first five days of benefits for all workers injured in the incident.

(d) Where total disability is not continuous, benefits shall be paid pursuant to clause (a) until the total number of normal working days not actually worked is equal to the number of days the employee would normally have worked in a five-week period. If the number of days an employee normally works in a week is irregular or difficult to determine, then the total number of days worked in the 26 weeks preceding the personal injury including employer paid vacations, holiday, and sick leave shall be divided by 26 to determine the number of days an employee normally works in a week. If the employee was seasonally employed, then the total number of days worked during the 26 weeks preceding the personal injury shall be divided by the number of weeks that the employee worked to determine the number of days the employee normally works in a week.

(e) Where an employee is totally disabled for part of a week, the benefit shall be equal to the same portion of the weekly benefit as the days of total disability are to the number of days in a normal work week provided that a normal work week shall be determined as in paragraph (d).

(f) Payment shall be made as nearly as possible at the intervals when the wage was payable.

Subd. 3. [MAXIMUM BENEFIT.] The maximum weekly benefit for total disability shall be 150 percent of the statewide average weekly wage at the time of injury.

Subd. 4. [HEALTH INSURANCE COVERAGE.] If at the time of injury the employee or the employee and his dependents are covered under an accident and health insurance policy, or a contract issued pursuant to chapter 62C, 62D, or any plan defined in section 62E.02, subdivision 22, for which the employer paid premiums or contributions, the employee and applicable dependents shall be entitled to coverage under that plan or policy during the period for which disability benefits are paid for up to one year after the time of injury, provided the employee continues to pay any share of the premium which was payable by the employee prior to the injury.

Subd. 5. [OFFSETS.] Benefits from any government disability program, or any old age benefits program for which the employee is eligible shall reduce benefits otherwise payable under this subdivision by the amount of the government benefit. Each dollar received from these programs shall result in a reduction of the total disability benefit payable by one dollar. If an employee may be eligible for these benefits but has not made application, then the employer shall notify the employee of the possible eligibility and if no application has been made within 30 days of the notice, the payment of benefits under this chapter shall be interrupted until application is made. These benefits shall be paid in full after the application has been made. Any retirement or disability benefits from a retirement or pension plan from which the employee is eligible to receive benefits and to which the employer contributed shall serve to reduce the benefits payable under this subdivision in an amount equal to the disability or retirement benefit received multiplied by the fraction represented by the employer's contribution for that employee over the total contribution for that employee to the retirement or pension plan. If more than one offset provided by this subdivision is applicable, the offsets shall each be calculated as if the other offsets did not apply and all offsets totaled to reduce benefits under this section.

Subd. 6. [PERIOD OF PAYMENT.] (a) Total disability benefits shall be payable until the injured employee is:

(1) Able to substantially perform the duties of the preinjury job or a job utilizing similar skills. For the purposes of this clause "substantially perform the duties of the preinjury job" means that an employee is able to meet the minimum standards of output or productivity established for the preinjury job. The employer shall have the option of altering or reducing these standards to accommodate any temporary or permanent physical limitations of an employee as a means of establishing a job utilizing similar skills;

(2) Eligible for partial disability benefits;

(3) Eligible for rehabilitation benefits; or

(4) Medically recovered from his personal injury and would otherwise be ineligible for total disability benefits but does not return to work for reasons other than the personal injury. If an employer is unable to offer employment to the employee after the employee has medically recovered because the employer no longer has a sufficient volume of work for the injured employee and no other employer has offered a job meeting the requirements of clause (1), total disability benefits shall be continued until all other workers performing the same job with the employer at the time of injury but who have less seniority than the injured employee have been laid off. If benefits are terminated due to the layoff the employee shall, notwithstanding any law to the contrary, immediately be eligible for benefits under sections 268.03 to 268.24 provided that the other eligibility criteria of that chapter have been satisfied.

Sec. 2. [176.098] [DEATH BENEFITS.]

Subdivision 1. [PURPOSE.] If an employee dies as a result of a personal injury, death benefits shall be paid pursuant to this section. Death benefits shall be based on the deceased employee's spendable weekly wage at the time of injury.

Subd. 2. [BENEFIT AMOUNT.] (a) Death benefits shall be paid in an amount equal to 70 percent of the deceased employee's spendable weekly wage if no dependents other than the dependent spouse survive or if the deceased employee leaves one or more dependent orphans under the age of 18. The benefits payable to orphans shall cease when all orphans have reached the age of 18. Notwithstanding any other provisions of this section, benefits payable to a child who is mentally or physically incapacitated from earning an income and who is 18 or over shall continue as if the child were an orphan or until the child marries or dies.

(c) If the deceased employee made regular periodic payments to a person who was claimed as a dependent by the deceased employee for purposes of payment of federal income taxes, benefits may be payable to this person, provided that the payment shall be deducted from the benefit payable to the dependent spouse or dependent children. The payment of benefits to persons eligible under this paragraph shall be made only upon an order of the commissioner or a compensation judge. Liability for the payment shall commence from the date of the order. In no event may the amount of benefits payable exceed actual payments made by the deceased employee to the person. The commissioner or a compensation judge may allocate the proportion of total payments to parties entitled to benefits under this paragraph. The benefits shall be allocated at the discretion of the commissioner or a compensation judge based on all of the facts of the case. The judge may deny benefits to persons other than the spouse or children.

Subd. 3. [BENEFIT ALLOCATION.] When a death benefit is payable, the commissioner, compensation judge, workers' compensation court of appeals, or district court in cases upon appeal may determine what portion of the benefit is payable to each beneficiary and may order that any portion is to be paid to a guardian. The allocation shall be at the discretion of the commissioner, compensation judge, or court based on all the facts of the case. This subdivision shall not increase the death benefits over the amount which would otherwise have been payable if no allocation of benefits was made after any deductions under subdivision 11 and if no allocations of benefits have been made.

Subd. 4. [MAXIMUM BENEFIT.] The maximum weekly total death benefit for all dependents shall be 150 percent of the statewide average weekly wage in effect at the time of injury.

Subd. 5. [COMMENCEMENT OF PAYMENT.] Benefit payments shall begin within 30 days of the death of the employee.

Subd. 6. [ALTERNATIVE SETTLEMENTS.] Lump sum settlements or other settlement arrangements for periodic payment of benefits in lieu of all or part of the future benefits payable may be made only if the dependent and the employer agree to the settlement, or if upon the request of either party, a compensation judge determines that payment by settlement is justified by the financial needs of the dependent. Any alternative settlement agreed to where the dependent is not represented by an attorney shall be approved by the commissioner or by a compensation judge. An alternative settlement shall not occur if there are dependent children under the age of 18.

Subd. 7. [MAXIMUM SPOUSAL BENEFIT PERIOD.] Any dependent surviving spouse eligible to receive death benefits shall receive those benefits for not more than the period of time prescribed in the following table.

Age of Spouse at time of Employee's Death	Maximum Benefit Years
Less than 30	5
30-35	7
36-50	10
More than 50	15

The benefit years shall begin to be counted at the time of the first payment, except in the case where there are dependent surviving children, in which case the benefit years shall begin to be counted upon the 18th birthday of the youngest surviving dependent child. Benefits payable to other dependents shall cease when the spouse is no longer eligible for benefits.

Subd. 8. [HEALTH INSURANCE COVERAGE.] In any case where a dependent is eligible to receive benefits under this section and was also covered under an accident and health insurance policy or under a contract issued under chapter 62C or 62D or any plan defined in section 62E.02, subdivision 22, at the time of the employee's death, and where the cost of that coverage was partially or totally paid by the employer, the employer shall continue to pay the same proportion of the cost of maintaining coverage under that contract or plan for a period of one year, provided the dependent pays any proportion of the premium which was payable by the employee.

Subd. 9. [REHABILITATION.] Upon the request of a qualified dependent spouse, rehabilitation services shall be provided by the employer. For the purposes of this subdivision, a "qualified dependent spouse" is a dependent spouse who is in need of rehabilitation services to become self-supporting. The rehabilitation services shall be limited to those in section 4, subdivision 10. Rehabilitation services need not be provided if the request for the service is not received within two years of the employee's death or the youngest dependent child becoming 18 years of age, whichever is later.

Subd. 10. [REMARRIAGE OF SURVIVING SPOUSE.] The remarriage of a surviving dependent spouse shall result in the immediate discontinuance of benefits to the spouse. If there are children, benefits shall continue to be payable under subdivision 2, clause (a), as if the children were orphans.

Subd. 11. [OFFSETS.] Benefits from any governmental old age or survivors benefits program for which the dependent spouse or dependent child are eligible based in part or in full upon the employment experience of the deceased employee shall reduce benefits otherwise payable under this section. Each dollar received from these programs shall result in a reduction of the death benefit payable by one dollar. If a dependent may be eligible for these benefits but has not made application, the payment of benefits under this chapter shall be interrupted until the application is made. These benefits shall be paid in full after the application has been made. Any benefits from a retirement or pension plan for which the dependent spouse or dependent child are eligible and to which the employer contributed shall reduce benefits payable under subdivision 1, by an amount equal to the retirement or pension benefit received multiplied by the fraction of the employer's contribution over the combined contribution for that employee to the retirement or pension plan. If more than one offset provided by this subdivision is applicable, the offsets shall each be calculated as if the other offsets did not apply and all offsets totaled to reduce benefits under this section.

Subd. 12. [BENEFIT REDUCTION.] If the deceased employee's average weekly wage at the time of personal injury was less than 40 percent of the sum of the average weekly wages of the employee and spouse at the time of personal injury, the benefit due under this section shall be reduced by 2-1/2 percent for each 1 percent less than 40 percent the deceased employee's income was of the combined average weekly wage of the employee and the spouse at the time of personal injury.

Subd. 13. [EXTENDED DISABILITY; REDUCTION OF BENEFITS.] Benefits provided under this section which are payable when there are no dependent children or when all dependent children have reached the age of 18 shall be reduced by 50 percent if the deceased employee received total disability benefits for more than five but less than ten years preceding the employees's death. Death benefits which are payable when there are no dependent children or when all dependent children have reached the age of 18 shall not be provided to survivors if the deceased employee received total disability benefits for ten years or more. This subdivision shall not affect benefits provided for burial expenses or rehabilitation.

Sec. 3. [176.099] [IMPAIRMENT BENEFITS.]

Subdivision 1. [PURPOSE.] Impairment benefits are for the purpose of compensating employees whose personal injury results in a permanent impairment and to compensate employees for the non-economic consequences of permanent bodily impairment.

Subd. 2. [ELIGIBILITY.] Any employee with permanent impairment resulting from personal injury is eligible to receive impairment benefits only if total impairment to the whole body is determined to be 10 percent or greater.

Subd. 3. [IMPAIRMENT RATINGS.] An impairment rating shall represent the proportional impairment to the whole body resulting from all bodily impairments due to the personal injury. For the purposes of this section, impairment shall be expressed as a single rating between zero and one hundred percent except that all impairment ratings shall be rounded to the nearest percent which is evenly divisible by five and provided that percents of less than ten shall be zero. No rating of the degree of permanent impairment shall be made until either the employee has returned to work for a period of at least 30 days or a determination has been made according to subdivision 4 that return to work is not a prerequisite to the payment of benefits or the employee has completed a rehabilitation plan.

Subd. 4. [PAYMENT OF BENEFITS.] Impairment benefits shall be payable in a single lump sum amount after a determination of the degree of permanent impairment has been made and after the employee has returned to work for a period of 90 consecutive days during which no claims for total disability are made, except that time off work due to the actual evaluation of the degree of impairment shall not interrupt the 90 consecutive day period. Payment shall occur within five days of completion of the 90 day waiting period or within 30 days of the determination of the degree of permanent impairment, whichever is later. Return to work shall not be a prerequisite to the payment of impairment benefits if the commissioner determines, based on an evaluation by a qualified rehabilitation consultant, that it is highly improbable that the employee can be sufficiently rehabilitated to allow a return to work. Payment of impairment benefits, when the commissioner so determines, shall be made within 30 days after the determination of the degree of permanent impairment has been made.

Subd. 5. [PAYMENT PROCEDURE; NONCONTESTED.] When an injured employee presents a report from the treating physician to the employer showing that the employee's condition qualifies the employee for benefits according to this section, the employer shall:

(a) Pay the employee the benefit due as required by this section; or

(b) Within 15 days refer the employee to another physician of the employer's choice who shall perform an examination and issue a report within a reasonable period of time. If this second report indicates that the permanent impairment is within five percentage points of the permanent impairment reported in the original request for benefits, the employer shall immediately pay the benefits as requested by the employee.

Subd. 6. [DISPUTE RESOLUTION.] When the two examinations produce impairment ratings that differ by more than five percentage points, the employer shall, when it is due, pay the impairment benefit established by the examination conducted pursuant to subdivision 5, clause (b). Upon the request of either party, a compensation judge shall order an evaluation of the employee by a third physician to assist in the resolution of the dispute under the provisions of section 176.155. The third physician shall evaluate the impairment using the American Medical Association guides. Upon receipt of the report of the third physician, or if no third examination is ordered, the compensation judge shall accept one of the two original impairment ratings as the appropriate basis for determining impairment benefits and shall not accept any other rating. Each dispute shall be resolved by accepting the rating that is closest to the one that would be obtained if an evaluation were conducted in accordance with the standards established in the most recent American Medical Association guides.

Subd. 7. [REFINEMENT OF STANDARDS.] If the commissioner determines that the standards and guidelines contained in the American Medical Association guides are inappropriate or insufficient, the commissioner shall by rule supplement the guides with additional standards or replace portions of the guides with more appropriate generally recognized medical standards.

Subd. 8. [SUBSEQUENT DISABILITY; OFFSET FOR IMPAIRMENT BENEFITS.] If an employee who had returned to work prior to the receipt of an impairment benefit receives total disability benefits subsequent to the receipt of impairment benefits, and if the subsequent disability is a result of the same injury or illness or an aggravation of the same injury or illness, then any total disability benefits provided shall be reduced by the impairment benefit received, provided no offset shall exceed 25 percent of a periodic payment.

This offset shall apply to each periodic payment until the total offset equals the impairment benefit received. Upon again returning to work for a period of 90 days, the employee shall be reimbursed for the impairment benefits which were used to offset total disability benefits.

Subd. 9. [ADDITIONAL IMPAIRMENT.] Once an employee has submitted a request for impairment benefits to an employer under subdivision 4, no additional request for impairment benefits shall be made unless further personal injury is caused in another single, identifiable event.

Subd. 10. [DEPENDENTS' RIGHTS TO RECEIVE IMPAIRMENT BENEFITS.] Impairment benefits shall not be paid if the injured employee dies as a result of the personal injury causing the permanent impairment and the death occurs within one year following the date of injury. If the death is not the result of the personal injury, and if an evaluation of permanent impairment had been completed, then the impairment benefit shall be payable to the deceased employee's dependents under chapter 176 or, if none, to the legal heirs at the time of death. If the degree of impairment has not been determined prior to death, the degree of permanent impairment shall be estimated from available medical records and shall be payable as stated above.

Subd. 11. [IMPAIRMENT BENEFIT TABLE.] Impairment benefit amounts shall vary according to the employee's age at the time of injury and the degree of permanent impairment. When impairment is caused by an occupational disease, the employee's age for the purposes of determination of the benefit payable shall be the employee's age on the date the examination resulting in the employee's request for benefits under this section was conducted. No request for additional impairment benefits resulting from the occupational disease shall be made once a payment for impairment benefits from an impairment due to occupational disease has been made. The benefit due shall be determined according to the following table. The benefit shall be the dollar amount in the cell located at the intersection of the appropriate row of impairment percentage and column of age at the date of injury provided that actual age shall be rounded to the nearest age contained in the table:

Sec. 4. [176.085] [REHABILITATION.]

Subdivision 1. [PURPOSE.] Rehabilitation services are intended to restore the injured employee, through physical and vocational rehabilitation, so that he may return to suitable gainful employment.

"Suitable gainful employment" for the purposes of this section is that employment which is reasonably obtainable and which offers an opportunity to restore the injured employee as soon as possible and as nearly as possible to a job related to his former employment or to a job in another work field in which he could produce earnings as close as possible to those he received at the time of the personal injury.

Rehabilitation to a job which may produce earnings greater than those the employee received at the time of personal injury is permitted if it can be demonstrated that this rehabilitation is necessary for re-employment. Consideration shall be given to the employee's qualifications including but not limited to age, education, previous work history, interest, and transferable skills.

Subd. 2. [REHABILITATION PRIORITIES.] The following priorities are established for use in exploring alternative rehabilitation plans. No higher numbered priority shall be utilized unless all lower numbered priorities have been determined by the qualified rehabilitation consultant to be unlikely to result in returning the employee to suitable gainful employment.

Priority 1 is modification of previous job with the same employer, including a transitional return to work.

Priority 2 is a new job with the same employer in keeping with any limitations or restrictions of the employee.

Priority 3 is modification of the previous job with a new employer.

Priority 4 is a new job with a new employer as a result of direct job placement based upon transferable skills.

Priority 5 is a new job with a new employer involving on-the-job training.

Priority 6 is retraining and job placement consistent with the purposes of rehabilitation.

Subd. 3. [ADMINISTRATORS.] The commissioner shall hire a director of medical and rehabilitation services in the classified service. The commissioner is responsible for supervising medical and rehabilitation services, including the selection and delivery of services. The commissioner may hire qualified personnel to assist in these duties and may delegate those duties and performance.

Subd. 4. [REVIEW PANEL.] There is created a rehabilitation review panel composed of the commissioner or a designee, who shall serve as an ex officio member and two members each from labor, employers, insurers, rehabilitation, and medicine and one member representing chiropractors. The members shall be appointed by the governor and shall serve four-year terms which may be renewed. Compensation for members shall be governed by section 15.0575. The panel shall select a chairman. The panel shall review and make a determination with respect to (a) appeals regarding rehabilitation plans and benefits; and (b) appeals regarding certification approval or revocation. The panel shall continuously study medical and rehabilitation services and delivery and develop and recommend medical and rehabilitation rules to the commissioner. A majority vote of those attending a panel hearing shall constitute the decision of the board.

Subd. 5. [REHABILITATION PLAN; DEVELOPMENT.] (a) Within 15 days of the time an employer has medical information that an employee is unable, due to a personal injury, to return to his preinjury occupation, or in any event, if within 90 days after the personal injury the employee has not returned to work, the employer shall refer the employee to a qualified rehabilitation consultant for a determination of whether rehabilitation is necessary to carry out the purposes of this section. If rehabilitation is determined to be necessary, the employee and employer shall enter into a program as prescribed in a rehabilitation plan. A copy of the plan, including a target date for return to work, shall be submitted to the department of labor and industry. If, within 30 days of the first consultation with a qualified rehabilitation consultant, the employee objects to the employer's selection of that qualified rehabilitation consultant, the employee must notify the employer and the commissioner in writing of his objection and request the selection of an alternative qualified rehabilitation consultant. If that qualified rehabilitation consultant is objectionable to the employer, and if a mutually acceptable qualified rehabilitation consultant cannot be found, the commissioner shall be notified by the employer in a timely manner that no mutually acceptable qualified rehabilitation consultant can be found. Upon receipt of this notice and within seven days, the commissioner shall provide the employee and employer with a list of three other qualified rehabilitation consultant's from which the employee and employer shall, within seven days, each disapprove one qualified rehabilitation consultant. The remaining qualified rehabilitation consultant shall be utilized.

(b) If the employer does not provide rehabilitation evaluation as required by this section within 75 days from the date of injury, the commissioner shall notify the employer that if the employer fails to appoint a qualified rehabilitation consultant within 15 days to conduct a rehabilitation evaluation, the commissioner shall appoint a qualified rehabilitation consultant to provide the evaluation at the expense of the employer unless the commissioner determines the evaluation is not required. The commissioner may assess a penalty of up to $5,000, to be paid to the special compensation fund by any employer if the commissioner has appointed a qualified rehabilitation consultant and return to work has not been accomplished within 180 days, subject to the limitations in (c) below.

(c) If the employee's condition does not permit determination of the employee's need for rehabilitation or a rehabilitation plan cannot be developed within 90 days after the injury, a further rehabilitation evaluation by a qualified rehabilitation consultant is required six months following the date of injury. If the employee's condition still precludes development of a rehabilitation plan at this time, a further evaluation by a qualified rehabilitation consultant shall be conducted in six months and then at yearly intervals as long as no rehabilitation plan has been developed. The commissioner may waive further mandatory evaluations after the second evaluation if he determines in a case that evaluations are not likely to accomplish the purposes of this subdivision. If after two years from the date of injury a rehabilitation plan has not been developed, the employer may determine the time of a subsequent evaluation. Those evaluations shall not occur more frequently than once per year and are not mandatory for the employee, unless directed by the commissioner.

Subd. 6. [ON-THE-JOB TRAINING.] When a rehabilitation plan includes on-the-job training, the employee shall receive remuneration while so employed in an amount equal to the spendable weekly wage the employee received at the time of the personal injury. A rehabilitation plan which includes on-the-job training shall create an incentive for the on-the-job training employer to hire the employee for on-the-job training in the form of reducing the wages paid to the employee by the on-the-job training employer to 80 percent or less of the prevailing wage for the job. The difference between the spendable weekly wage from the preinjury job and spendable weekly wage from the on-the-job training shall be paid by the employer liable for compensation for the employee's injury but it shall not exceed 150 percent of the statewide average weekly wage at the time of injury. The compensation from the liable employer and the on-the-job training employer paid according to this subdivision is in lieu of other benefits required to be paid by subdivision 12.

Subd. 7. [PLAN, APPROVAL AND APPEAL.] All completed plans shall be submitted to the commissioner for review and approval. The commissioner may disapprove or modify rehabilitation plans. A decision and order by the commissioner may be appealed to the rehabilitation review panel within 30 days of the commissioner's decision. The decision of the rehabilitation review panel may be appealed to the workers' compensation court of appeals.

Subd. 8. [PLAN IMPLEMENTATION; REPORTS.] Upon request by the commissioner, employer, or qualified rehabilitation consultant, medical and rehabilitation reports of an employee's progress under a plan shall be made by the provider of the medical and rehabilitation service to the commissioner, insurer and employer. The employer shall be notified upon completion of the plan.

Subd. 9. [PLAN MODIFICATION.] Upon request of the employer, the employee, or the qualified rehabilitation consultant to the commissioner, the plan may be suspended, terminated, or altered upon a showing of good cause including:

(a) A physical impairment that does not allow the employee to pursue the rehabilitation plan;

(b) The employee's performance level indicates the plan will not successfully be completed; or

(c) An employee does not cooperate with a plan.

An employee may request a change in a rehabilitation plan once because the employee feels ill-suited for the type of work for which rehabilitation is being provided if the request is made within 90 days of the start of the plan. Any decision of the commissioner regarding a change in a plan may be appealed to the rehabilitation review panel within 15 days of the decision.

Subd. 10. [PLAN; COSTS.] An employer is liable for the following rehabilitation expenses under this section:

(a) Cost of rehabilitation evaluation and preparation of a plan;

(b) Cost of all rehabilitation services and supplies necessary for implementation of the plan;

(c) Reasonable cost of tuition, books, travel and day care; and reasonable costs of board and lodging when rehabilitation requires residence away from the employee's customary residence;

(d) Reasonable costs of travel and daycare during job interview process;

(e) Reasonable cost for moving expenses of the employee and family if a job is found in a geographic area beyond reasonable commuting distance after a diligent search within the present community. Relocation shall not be paid more than once, and relocation shall not be required if the new job is located within the same standard metropolitan statistical area as the employee's job at the time of injury; and

(f) Any other expense agreed to be paid.

Subd. 11. [REHABILITATION; CONSULTANTS.] The commissioner shall approve rehabilitation consultants who may propose and implement plans if they satisfy rules promulgated by the commissioner for rehabilitation consultants. A consultant may be an individual or public or private entity, but may not be a vendor of rehabilitation services.

Subd. 12. [COMPENSATION DURING REHABILITATION.] The commissioner shall determine eligibility for rehabilitation and benefits while the employee is participating in a rehabilitation plan. Rehabilitation benefits shall include payment in an amount equal to the employee's benefit for total or partial disability, whichever is appropriate, and shall be in lieu of compensation. All rehabilitation benefits payable under chapter 176 shall be discontinued and forfeited for any time during which the employee refuses to submit to any reasonable examinations and evaluative procedures to determine the need for and details of a plan of rehabilitation, or refuses to participate in rehabilitation evaluation as required by this section or does not make a good faith effort to participate in a rehabilitation plan.

Subd. 13. [BENEFIT DURATION DURING REHABILITATION.] Unless

the employee has returned to work, benefits during rehabilitation shall continue as provided in subdivision 12 until the sooner of the following:

(a) The rehabilitation plan has been completed and within 90 days the employer or another employer has offered the employee employment consistent with the skills developed in the rehabilitation plan at a job in which the employee is capable of performing, at which time benefits shall cease or partial disability benefits shall begin, whichever is appropriate; or

(b) The rehabilitation plan has been completed and after 90 days the employer or another employer has offered the injured employee any job which is within the physical capabilities of the employee, at which time benefits shall cease or partial disability shall begin, whichever is appropriate; or

(c) The rehabilitation plan has been completed and 180 days have elapsed at which time benefits shall cease unless a permanent impairment exists. If a permanent impairment exists, for which benefits are payable under section 3, benefits shall be payable for an additional period of time until either an offer of employment is made to the employee which is within the employee's physical capabilities or the time established for the impairment percentages shown below has elapsed.

Permanent Impairment Remaining After Completion of Rehabilitation Plan	Maximum Benefit Period After Completion of Rehabilitation Plan
10 - 20 percent	12 months
25 - 40 percent	24 months
45 - 60 percent	36 months
65 - 80 percent	48 months
85 percent and higher	60 months

Subd. 14. [RULES.] The commissioner shall adopt rules necessary to implement this section including rules relating to qualifications necessary to be an approved rehabilitation consultant.

Sec. 5. [176.097] [PARTIAL DISABILITY BENEFITS.]

Subdivision 1. [PURPOSE.] Partial disability benefits are paid for the following purposes:

(a) Facilitating return to work of an employee who suffered a personal injury. The benefits payable according to this section replace a portion of wages lost due to a personal injury after an employee returns to work and when the employee's return to employment is in a reduced capacity, as evidenced by the fact that the employee's current spendable wages are less than the spendable wages of the employee prior to the injury; and

(b) Providing ongoing supplements to the income of injured employees who, because of a permanent impairment are unable to earn income at least equal to their preinjury wage.

Subd. 2. [BENEFIT.] When the employee returns to work, benefits for partial disability shall be payable at the rate of 80 percent of the difference between the employee's current spendable weekly wage and the preinjury spendable weekly wage.

Subd. 3. [MAXIMUM BENEFIT.] The maximum weekly benefit for partial disability shall be 150 percent of the statewide average weekly wage.

Subd. 4. [PERIOD OF PAYMENT.] (a) Partial disability benefits shall be paid for the period beginning on the date the employee returns to work. Payment shall be made as nearly as possible at the intervals when the wage is payable.

(b) Partial disability benefits shall continue for up to 90 days of the first day of return to work unless the personal injury results in a permanent impairment of ten percent or more of the whole body as determined by application of the American Medical Association guides. If no permanent impairment determination has been made but the impairment clearly exists, payment under this section shall continue for a period of time provided by the minimum expected disability. If the duration of payment of the partial disability was longer or shorter than provided by this section, as evidenced by the final determination of the degree of permanent impairment, an adjustment shall be made to the impairment award. Excessive payments shall be subtracted from the impairment benefit. Payments due but not paid shall be paid in addition to the impairment benefit with interest payments of 12 percent per annum.

(c) Workers whose personal injury results in a permanent impairment, for which benefits are payable under section 3, shall be eligible for benefits for a period of time reflecting the severity of their permanent impairment. The maximum duration of partial disability eligibility shall be determined according to the impairment percentages shown below:

10 percent	90 days
15 percent	180 days
20 percent	270 days

For each five percent impairment beyond 20 percent, the duration period shall be extended an additional 180 days.

(d) An employee who becomes unemployed for reasons other than the personal injury while receiving partial disability benefits shall continue to receive benefits under this section, except that current spendable weekly wage shall be assumed to equal spendable weekly wage at the time the unemployment commenced. If the employee is laid off because the employer no longer has adequate work for all current employees, the unemployment shall be deemed to be caused by other than the personal injury if all other workers performing the same job but who have less seniority than the injured employee have been laid off.

Sec. 6. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 62A.10, Subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [REQUIREMENTS.] Group accident and health insurance is hereby declared to be that form of accident and health insurance covering not less than two employees nor less than ten members, and which may include the employee's or member's dependents, consisting of husband, wife, children, and actual dependents residing in the household, written under a master policy issued to any governmental corporation, unit, agency, or department thereof, or to any corporation, copartnership, individual, employer, or to any association having a constitution or bylaws and formed in good faith for purposes other than that of obtaining insurance under the provisions of this chapter, where officers, members, employees, or classes or divisions thereof, may be insured for their individual benefit.

Any insurer authorized to write accident and health insurance in this state shall have power to issue group accident and health policies.

If an employee and his dependents are insured under a group policy, as the result of employment eligibility for insurance, coverage shall not be terminated if the employee ceases to be employed as a result of a personal injury as defined in section 176.011, subdivision 10.

Sec. 7. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 62C.14, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 16. No subscriber's individual contract or any group contract shall terminate an individual's or the individual's dependent's eligibility for coverage because the individual is no longer employed as the result of a personal injury as defined in section 176.011, subdivision 10.

Sec. 8. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 62D.10, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 3. [~~DAILY~~ WEEKLY WAGE.] "~~Daily~~ Weekly wage" means the ~~daily~~ weekly wage of the employee in the employment in which he was engaged at the time of injury but does not include tips and gratuities paid directly to an employee by a customer of the employer and not accounted for by the employee to the employer. Occasional overtime is not to be considered, but if the overtime is regular or frequent throughout the year, it shall be taken into consideration. If the amount of the ~~daily~~ weekly wage received or to be received by the employee in the employment in which he was engaged at the time of injury was irregular or difficult to determine, or if the employment was part time, the ~~daily~~ weekly wage shall be computed by dividing the total amount the employee actually earned in such employment in the last 26 weeks, by the total number of ~~days~~ weeks in which the employee actually performed any of the duties of such employment, provided further, that in the case of the construction industry, mining industry, or other industry where the hours of work are affected by seasonal conditions, ~~the weekly wage shall not be less than five times the daily wage~~ weeks where the employee worked less than the lesser of 40 hours or the normal number of hours worked in a week shall not be included in weeks worked. Where board or allowances other than tips and gratuities are made to an employee in addition to wages as a part of the wage contract they are deemed a part of his earnings and computed at their value to the employee. In the case of persons performing services for municipal corporations in the case of emergency, then the normal working ~~day~~ week shall be considered and computed as ~~eight hours~~ five days, and in cases where ~~such~~ the services are performed gratis or without fixed compensation the ~~daily~~ weekly wage of the person injured shall, for the purpose of calculating compensation payable under this chapter, be taken to be the usual going wage paid for similar services in municipalities where ~~such~~ the services are performed by paid employees. If, at the time of injury, the employee was regularly employed by two or more employers, the employee's earnings in all such employments shall be included in the computation of ~~daily~~ weekly wage.

Sec. 10. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 176.011, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 23. [SPENDABLE WEEKLY WAGE.] "Spendable weekly wage" means weekly wage minus the sum of: (a) the amount which would be withheld according to withholding tables in effect on the January 1 preceding the personal injury, as described in the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, as amended, assuming that the maximum number of exemptions for dependency apply as the worker would be entitled to receive at the time of injury; and (b) the amount which would be withheld according to withholding tables in effect on the January 1 preceding the injury under Minnesota Statutes, Chapter 290, and related rules, assuming that the maximum number of exemptions for dependency apply as the worker would be entitled to receive at the time of injury; and (c) an amount equal to the amount required on the January 1 preceding the injury, by the Social Security Act of 1935 and any related amendments, to be deducted or withheld from the weekly wage of the employee as if the weekly wage were earned at the beginning of the calendar year in which the injury occurred.

Subd. 24. [PERMANENT IMPAIRMENT.] "Permanent impairment" means permanent anatomic or functional abnormality or loss as the result of a personal injury, which exists after maximum medical rehabilitation has been achieved and which is considered stable or nonprogressive.

Sec. 12. Minnesota Statutes 1981 Supplement, Section 176.021, Subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [COMPENSATION, COMMENCEMENT OF PAYMENT.] All employers shall commence payment of compensation at the time and in the manner prescribed by this chapter without the necessity of any agreement or any order of the division. Except for medical, burial, and other non-periodic benefits, payments shall be made as nearly as possible at the intervals when the wage was payable~~, provided, however, that payments for permanent partial disability shall be governed by subdivision 3a. If doubt exists as to the eventual permanent partial disability, payment, pursuant to subdivision 3a, shall be then made when due for the minimum permanent partial disability ascertainable, and further payment shall be made upon any later ascertainment of greater permanent partial disability. At the time of any tender of the lump sum payment, the employee and employer shall be furnished with a copy of the medical report upon which the payment is based, together with a statement by the insurer as to whether the tendered payment is for minimum permanent partial disability or final and eventual disability. Compensation for permanent partial disability is payable in addition to compensation for temporary total disability and temporary partial disability pursuant to section 176.101, subdivisions 1 and 2, as provided in subdivision 3a. Compensation for permanent partial disability is payable concurrently and in addition to compensation for perma-~~ ~~nent total disability pursuant to section 176.101, subdivision 5, as provided in subdivision 3a. Compensation for permanent partial disability shall be withheld pending completion of payment for temporary total and temporary partial disability but shall not be withheld pending payment of compensation for permanent total disability, and no credit shall be taken for payment of permanent partial disability against liability for temporary total or permanent total disability. Liability on the part of an employer or his insurer for disability of a temporary total, temporary partial, and permanent total nature shall be considered as a continuing product and part of the employee's inability to earn or reduction in earning capacity due to injury or occupational disease and shall be payable accordingly, subject to subdivision 3a. Permanent partial disability is payable for functional loss of use or impairment of function, permanent in nature, and payment therefore shall be separate, distinct, and in addition to payment for any other compensation, subject to subdivision 3a. The right to receive temporary total, temporary partial, permanent partial or permanent total disability payments shall vest in the injured employee or his dependents under this chapter or, if none, in his legal heirs at the time the disability can be ascertained and the right shall not be abrogated by the employee's death prior to the making of the payment~~.

Sec. 13. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 176.111, Subdivision 18, is amended to read:

Subd. 18. [BURIAL EXPENSE.] In all cases where death results to an employee from a personal injury arising out of and in the course of employment, the employer shall pay the expense of burial, not exceeding in amount ~~$1,000~~ $2,500. In case any dispute arises as to the reasonable value of the services rendered in connection with the burial, such reasonable value shall be determined and approved by the commissioner of the department of labor and industry, a compensation judge, or workers' compensation court of appeals, in cases upon appeal, before payment, after such reasonable notice to interested parties as is required by the commissioner of the department of labor and industry. If the deceased leave no dependents, no compensation is payable, except as provided by this chapter.

Subdivision 1. If an employee incurs personal injury and suffers disability that is substantially greater, because of a pre-existing physical impairment, than what would have resulted from the personal injury alone, the employer shall pay all compensation provided by this chapter, but he shall be reimbursed from the special compensation fund for all compensation paid in excess of 52 weeks of ~~monetary~~ benefits and $2,000 in medical expenses, subject to the following exceptions:

If the personal injury alone results in permanent ~~partial disability to a scheduled member under section 176.101, the monetary and medical expense limitations shall not apply and~~ impairment for which payment is due pursuant to section 3 the employer shall be liable for ~~such compensation, medical expense,~~ the payment for the permanent impairment and ~~retraining~~ rehabilitation attributable to the ~~permanent partial disability,~~ personal injury and he may be reimbursed from the compensation fund only for compensation ~~paid in excess of such disability~~ for medical expenses and total disability benefits.

Sec. 15. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 176.131, Subdivision 1a, is amended to read:

Subd. 1a. If an employee is employed in an on the job ~~retraining~~ training program pursuant to section 176.102 and the employee incurs a personal injury that aggravates the personal injury for which the employee has been certified to enter the on the job ~~retraining~~ training program, the on the job training employer shall pay the medical expenses and ~~compensation~~ benefits required by this chapter, but shall be reimbursed from the special compensation fund for the ~~compensation~~ benefits and medical expense that ~~is~~ are attributable to the aggravated injury. The provisions of clauses (1) and (2) shall apply to all workers' compensation ~~payments, exclusive of medical costs, paid under sections 176.101 and 176.111 for all injuries or death occurring on or after June 1, 1971~~ benefit payment pursuant to sections 1, 2, 3, and 5.

Regardless of the number of weeks of total disability, no totally disabled person shall be ineligible for supplementary benefits after four years have elapsed since the first date of his total disability, provided that all periods of disability are caused by the same injury.

Sec. 19. Minnesota Statutes 1981 Supplement, Section 176.132, Subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [AMOUNT.] (a) The supplementary benefit payable under this section as of January 1, 1983 shall be the difference between the amount the employee receives on or after January 1, 1976, under section 176.101, subdivision 1 or subdivision 4, and ~~65 percent of the statewide average weekly wage as computed annually~~ $184. The figure $184 shall be adjusted pursuant to section 176.645.

(b) In the event an eligible recipient is currently receiving no ~~compensation~~ benefits or is receiving a reduced level of ~~compensation~~ benefits because of a credit being applied as the result of a third party liability or damages, the employer or insurer shall ~~compute the offset credit as if the individual were entitled to the actual benefit or 65 percent of the statewide average weekly wage as computed annually, whichever is greater. If this results in the use of a higher credit than otherwise would have been applied and the employer or insurer becomes liable for compensation benefits which would otherwise not have been paid, the additional benefits resulting shall be handled according to this section~~ pay the difference between the reduced level of benefits and $184. The figure $184 shall be adjusted pursuant to section 176.645.

Attorney's fees shall be allowed in settlements of claims for supplementary benefits in accordance with this chapter.

(d) In the event an eligible recipient is receiving no compensation or is receiving a reduced level of compensation because of prior limitations in the maximum amount payable for permanent total disability or because of reductions resulting from the simultaneous receipt of old age or disability benefits, the supplementary benefit shall be payable for the difference between the actual amount of compensation currently being paid and ~~65 percent of the statewide average weekly wage as computed annually~~ $184. The figure $184 shall be adjusted pursuant to section 176.645.

(e) In the event that an eligible recipient is receiving simultaneous benefits from any government disability program, the amount of supplementary benefits payable under this section shall be reduced by five percent. If the individual does not receive the maximum benefits for which he is eligible under other governmental disability programs due to the provisions of 42 U.S.C. 424a (d), this reduction shall not apply.

Sec. 20. [176.138] [MEDICAL DATA; RELEASE TO INSURER AND EMPLOYER.]

For the purpose of facilitating the prompt determination and delivery of benefits payable under chapter 176, any data describing the medical condition of an employee which are related to the personal injury shall be made available to the employer. Notwithstanding sections 15.163 and 15.1698 or any other laws related to the privacy of medical data, the release of those data to the employer or insurer shall not require prior approval, written or otherwise, on the part of the employee. Upon receiving written request from the employer, insurer, or any agent of the employer or insurer, the data related to the medical condition of an employee suffering a personal injury shall be provided, by the holder of the data, to the employer. The data shall be provided within five days of receiving the request. The employer or insurer shall inform the employee of the request for these data at the time it is made and shall not release these data to anyone other than the employee.

Sec. 21. [176.146] [NOTICE TO INSURERS; PENALTY.]

The employer of any employee who suffers a personal injury shall inform the insurer of the occurrence of the injury within three days of notice of the injury. Notice shall be made on forms provided by the insurer. Consistent failure by the employer to provide notice shall entitle the insurer to cancel, upon 15 days notice to the employer, any effective policy insuring the employer's liability under chapter 176, at which time any unearned premium paid by the employer to the insurer shall be returned to the employer.

Sec. 22. Minnesota Statutes 1981 Supplement, Section 176.221, Subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [COMMENCEMENT OF PAYMENT.] Within 14 days of notice to or knowledge by the employer of an injury compensable under this chapter the payment of compensation due pursuant to section ~~176.101, subdivision~~ 1, shall commence. Commencement of payment by an employer or insurer does not waive any rights to any defense the employer may have on any claim or incident either with respect to the compensability of the claim under chapter 176 or the amount of the compensation due. Where there are multiple employers, the first employer shall pay, unless it is shown that the injury has arisen out of employment with the second or subsequent employer. When the employer determines that the disability is not a result of a personal injury, payment of compensation may be discontinued upon notice of discontinuance pursuant to section 176.241. Upon the determination, payments made may be recovered by the employer if the commissioner finds that the employee's claim of work related disability was not made in good faith.

Sec. 23. Minnesota Statutes 1981 Supplement, Section 176.221, Subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [GRANT OF EXTENSION.] Upon application made within 30 days after the date on which the first payment was due, the commissioner may grant an extension of time within which to determine liability. total amount of compensation to which the employee is entitled because of the injury. In addition, each day subsequent to the end of the period and until a compensation payment is made to the injured employee, the person responsible for payment of compensation shall pay to the special compensation fund an amount equal to the total compensation to which the injured employee is entitled.

Sec. 25. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 176.235, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 3. [NOTICE TO EMPLOYEE OF RIGHTS AND DUTIES.] Upon notice that an employee has suffered a personal injury, the employer shall provide the employee with a brochure or letter, which shall be prepared and provided by the insurer or group self insurer, if any, explaining the rights and obligations of the employee and employer, the assistance available to the employee, and the operation of the workers' compensation system. The brochure shall meet the readability standards of chapter 72C.

In addition, the brochure or letter shall include the names of persons the employee may contact if questions or problems arise regarding the employee's rights or obligations under chapter 176. This brochure or letter shall be provided to the employee within seven days after the employer becomes aware of the personal injury. After the effective date of this subdivision any obligations previously assigned to the department of labor and industry regarding the mailing of workers' compensation informational brochures shall end. Any brochure shall be approved by the commissioner of insurance prior to use. The workers' compensation advisory council shall prepare a prototype brochure. The workers' compensation insurance rating association of Minnesota may prepare and submit brochures for approval on behalf of its members.

The employer shall, as soon as possible following the personal injury, establish in conjunction with the injured employee a target date upon which the injured worker will return to work.*

Subd. 2. [JOB ASSISTANCE.] The employer shall, if possible, provide a job to the employee on or before the return to work target date which is consistent with any physical limitations of the employee. The employer shall not refuse to offer employment for any reason which is based on the employee's conduct prior to the personal injury.

Subd. 3. [ASSISTANCE PLAN.] If the employer is unable to provide a job, the employer shall as soon as possible, but at least four weeks prior to the return to work target date, inform the employee that no job will be available. The employer shall also provide assistance to the employee in finding another job which is within the physical capabilities of the employee. A plan for assistance shall be filed with the commissioner at the time the employer informs the employee that no offer of employment can be made. A plan for approval filed pursuant to section 4 shall be sufficient.

Subd. 4. [PENALTY.] An employer failing to provide reemployment or to provide assistance as required in subdivision 3 shall be required to pay to the special compensation fund an amount equal to all of the benefits paid as required in section 1 for the first year following the date of injury. This amount shall not be reimbursed by an insurer or group self-insurer.

Sec. 28. Minnesota Statutes 1981 Supplement, Section 176.645, Subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [AMOUNT.] For injuries occurring after October 1, 1975 for which benefits are payable under ~~section 176.101, subdivisions 1, 2 and 4, and section 176.111, subdivision 5~~ sections 1; 2; and 3, subdivision 12, and for benefits payable pursuant to section 176.132, the total benefits due the employee or any dependents shall be adjusted in accordance with this section. On October 1, 1981, and thereafter on the anniversary of the date of the employee's injury the total benefits due shall be adjusted by multiplying the total benefits due prior to each adjustment by a fraction, the denominator of which is the statewide average weekly wage for December 31, of the year two years previous to the adjustment and the numerator of which is the statewide average weekly wage for December 31, of the year previous to the adjustment. For injuries occurring after October 1, 1975, all adjustments provided for in this section shall be included in computing any benefit due under this section. Any limitations of amounts due for daily or weekly compensation under this chapter shall not apply to adjustments made under this section. No adjustment increase made on October 1, 1977 or thereafter under this section shall exceed six percent a year. In those instances where the adjustment under the formula of this section would exceed this maximum the increase shall be deemed to be six percent.

Sec. 29. [176.83] [SPECIAL COMPENSATION FUND; STUDY OF FINANCIAL CONDITION.]

A report containing the findings of the study shall be prepared and presented to the legislature no later than January 15, 1983. The cost of the study and report shall not exceed $30,000 and shall be paid from the assets of the special compensation fund.

Sec. 30. [OCCUPATIONAL DISEASE AND APPORTIONMENT OF IN-

JURIES; STUDY.]

The commissioner of insurance shall study occupational disease, cumulative trauma and the apportionment of liability for benefits payable under chapter 176 when the personal injury does not arise solely out of and in the course of employment as these issues are related to workers' compensation in Minnesota. A report containing the findings of the study shall be prepared and presented to the legislature no later than January 15, 1983.

"Section. 1. [176.096] [TOTAL DISABILITY BENEFITS.]

Subdivision 1. [PURPOSE.] Total disability benefits are paid for the purpose of replacing a portion of wages lost due to a personal injury.

Subd. 2. [BENEFIT.] (a) For total disability the benefit shall be as follows:

(1) For employees whose weekly wage at the time of injury was $150 or less, the benefit shall be equal to 90 percent of the employee's spendable weekly wage;

(2) For employees whose weekly wage at the time of injury was $151 or more, the benefit shall be equal to the greater of the benefit which would have been payable if the employee's weekly wage was $150 or 80 percent of the employee's spendable weekly wage.

(b) Where total disability is not continuous, benefits shall be paid pursuant to clause (a) until the total number of normal working days not actually worked is equal to the number of days the employee would normally have worked in a five-week period. If the number of days an employee normally works in a week is irregular or difficult to determine, then the total number of days worked in the 26 weeks preceding the personal injury including employer paid vacations, holiday, and sick leave shall be divided by 26 to determine the number of days an employee normally works in a week. If the employee was seasonally employed, then the total number of days worked during the 26 weeks preceding the personal injury shall be divided by the number of weeks that the employee worked to determine the number of days the employee normally works in a week.

(c) Where an employee is totally disabled for part of a week, the benefit shall be equal to the same portion of the weekly benefit as the days of total disability are to the number of days in a normal work week provided that a normal work week shall be determined as in paragraph (d).

(d) Payment shall be made as nearly as possible at the intervals when the wage was payable.

Subd. 4. [HEALTH INSURANCE COVERAGE.] If at the time of injury the employee or the employee and his dependents are covered under an accident and health insurance policy, or a contract issued pursuant to chapter 62C, 62D, or any plan defined in section 62E.02, subdivision 22, for which the employer paid premiums or contributions, the employee and applicable dependents shall be entitled to coverage under that plan or policy during the period for which disability benefits are paid for up to one year after the time of injury, provided the employee continues to pay any share of the premium which was payable by the employee prior to the injury.

Subd. 5. [OFFSETS.] Any benefits otherwise payable pursuant to this section shall be reduced by the following:

(a) Benefits from any government disability program, or any old age benefits program for which the employee is eligible;

(b) Any benefit payment from a public or private sector pension or retirement fund or program, whether or not the fund or program is a qualified plan within the meaning of section 401 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, as amended, which is payable at an age prior to the attainment of the normal retirement age specified in the benefit plan of the fund or program, or the age for the receipt of a retirement annuity or pension which is not reduced for early retirement, and which is payable on account of the injury, illness or accident of the person which renders the person incapable of continued employment;

(c) Any benefit payment pursuant to a disability benefit plan or program, whether provided pursuant to a contract with an insurance carrier, self insured by the employer with reserves or self insured by the employer without reserves, which is provided to the person by virtue of employment by that employer and which is financed in whole or in part by the employer.

The benefit payable pursuant to this section shall be reduced by one dollar for each dollar received from these benefit sources. If an employee may be eligible for these benefits but has not made application, then the employer shall notify the employee of the possible eligibility and if no application has been made within 30 days of the notice, the payment of benefits under this chapter shall be interrupted until application is made. These benefits shall be paid in full after the application has been made. If an employee may be eligible for these benefits but has not made application, then the employer shall notify the employee of the possible eligibility and if no application has been made within 30 days of the notice, the payment of benefits under this chapter shall be interrupted until application is made. These benefits shall be paid in full after the application has been made. If the employee was required to make contributions to finance the benefit coverage for which an offset pursuant to this subdivision is required, the amount of the benefit payment which will reduce the total disability benefit pursuant to this section shall be that fraction of the benefit payment which bears the same proportional relationship that the employer contribution bears to the total contribution for the plan, fund or program. If there are benefit payments from more than one of these benefit sources, each shall reduce the benefit otherwise payable pursuant to this section and the remainder after all reductions shall be the reduced benefit payable pursuant to this section.

Subd. 6. [PERIOD OF PAYMENT.] (a) Total disability benefits shall be payable until the injured employee is:

(1) Able to substantially perform the duties of the preinjury job or a job utilizing similar skills. For the purposes of this clause "substantially perform the duties of the preinjury job" means that an employee is able to meet the minimum standards of output or productivity established for the preinjury job. The employer shall have the option of altering or reducing these standards to accommodate any temporary or permanent physical limitations of an employee as a means of establishing a job utilizing similar skills;

(2) Eligible for partial disability benefits;

(3) Eligible for rehabilitation benefits; or

(4) Medically recovered from his personal injury and would otherwise be ineligible for total disability benefits but does not return to work for reasons other than the personal injury. If an employer is unable to offer employment to the employee after the employee has medically recovered because the employer no longer has a sufficient volume of work for the injured employee and no other employer has offered a job meeting the requirements of clause (1), total disability benefits shall be continued until all other workers performing the same job with the employer at the time of injury but who have less seniority than the injured employee have been laid off. If benefits are terminated due to the layoff the employee shall, notwithstanding any law to the contrary, immediately be eligible for benefits under sections 268.03 to 268.24 provided that the other eligibility criteria of that chapter have been satisfied.

Sec. 2. [176.098] [DEATH BENEFITS.]

Subdivision 1. [PURPOSE.] If an employee dies as a result of a personal injury, death benefits shall be paid pursuant to this section. Death benefits shall be based on the deceased employee's spendable weekly wage at the time of injury.

Subd. 2. [BENEFIT AMOUNT.] (a) Death benefits shall be paid in an amount equal to 60 percent of the deceased employee's spendable weekly wage if no dependents other than the dependent spouse survive or if the deceased employee leaves one or more dependent orphans under the age of 18. The benefits payable to orphans shall cease when all orphans have reached the age of 18. Notwithstanding any other provisions of this section, benefits payable to a child who is mentally or physically incapacitated from earning an income and who is 18 or over shall continue as if the child were an orphan or until the child marries or dies.

(b) Death benefits shall be paid to the dependent spouse in an amount equal to 80 percent of the deceased employee's spendable weekly wage if the survivors include dependent children of the employee under 18. This benefit shall be reduced to 60 percent of the deceased employee's spendable weekly wage when all dependent children have reached the age of 18.

(c) If the deceased employee made regular periodic payments to a person who was claimed as a dependent by the deceased employee for purposes of payment of federal income taxes, benefits may be payable to this person, provided that the payment shall be deducted from the benefit payable to the dependent spouse or dependent children. The payment of benefits to persons eligible under this paragraph shall be made only upon an order of the commissioner or a compensation judge. Liability for the payment shall commence from the date of the order. In no event may the amount of benefits payable exceed actual payments made by the deceased employee to the person. The commissioner or a compensation judge may allocate the proportion of total payments to parties entitled to benefits under this paragraph. The benefits shall be allocated at the discretion of the commissioner or a compensation judge based on all of the facts of the case. The judge may deny benefits to persons other than the spouse or children.

Subd. 3. [BENEFIT ALLOCATION.] When a death benefit is payable, the commissioner, compensation judge, workers' compensation court of appeals, or district court in cases upon appeal may determine what portion of the benefit is payable to each beneficiary and may order that any portion is to be paid to a guardian. The allocation shall be at the discretion of the commissioner, compensation judge, or court based on all the facts of the case. This subdivision shall not increase the death benefits over the amount which would otherwise have been payable if no allocation of benefits was made after any deductions under subdivision 11 and if no allocations of benefits have been made.

Subd. 4. [MAXIMUM BENEFIT.] The maximum weekly total death benefit for all dependents shall be 125 percent of the statewide average weekly wage in effect at the time of injury.

Subd. 5. [COMMENCEMENT OF PAYMENT.] Benefit payments shall begin within 30 days of the death of the employee.

Subd. 6. [ALTERNATIVE SETTLEMENTS.] Lump sum settlements or other settlement arrangements for periodic payment of benefits in lieu of all or part of the future benefits payable may be made only if the dependent and the employer agree to the settlement, or if upon the request of either party, a compensation judge determines that payment by settlement is justified by the financial needs of the dependent. Any alternative settlement agreed to where the dependent is not represented by an attorney shall be approved by the commissioner or by a compensation judge. An alternative settlement shall not occur if there are dependent children under the age of 18.

Subd. 7. [MAXIMUM SPOUSAL BENEFIT PERIOD.] Any dependent surviving spouse eligible to receive death benefits shall receive those benefits for not more than the period of time prescribed in the following table.

Age of Spouse at time of Employee's Death	Maximum Benefit Years
Less than 30	5
30-35	7
36-50	10
More than 50	15

The benefit years shall begin to be counted at the time of the first payment, except in the case where there are dependent surviving children, in which case the benefit years shall begin to be counted upon the 18th birthday of the youngest surviving dependent child. Benefits payable to other dependents shall cease when the spouse is no longer eligible for benefits.

Subd. 8. [HEALTH INSURANCE COVERAGE.] In any case where a dependent is eligible to receive benefits under this section and was also covered under an accident and health insurance policy or under a contract issued under chapter 62C or 62D or any plan defined in section 62E.02, subdivision 22, at the time of the employee's death, and where the cost of that coverage was partially or totally paid by the employer, the employer shall continue to pay the same proportion of the cost of maintaining coverage under that contract or plan for a period of one year, provided the dependent pays any proportion of the premium which was payable by the employee.

Subd. 9. [REHABILITATION.] Upon the request of a qualified dependent spouse, rehabilitation services shall be provided by the employer. For the purposes of this subdivision, a "qualified dependent spouse" is a dependent spouse who is in need of rehabilitation services to become self-supporting. The rehabilitation services shall be limited to those in section 4, subdivision 10. Rehabilitation services need not be provided if the request for the service is not received within two years of the employee's death or the youngest dependent child becoming 18 years of age, whichever is later.

Subd. 10. [REMARRIAGE OF SURVIVING SPOUSE.] The remarriage of a surviving dependent spouse shall result in the immediate discontinuance of benefits to the spouse. If there are children, benefits shall continue to be payable under subdivision 2, clause (a), as if the children were orphans.

Subd. 11. [OFFSETS.] Any benefits otherwise payable pursuant to this section shall be reduced by the following:

(a) Benefits from any governmental old age or survivors benefits program for which the dependent spouse or dependent child are eligible based in part or in full upon the employment experience of the deceased employee shall reduce benefits otherwise payable under this section;

(b) Any benefit payment from a public or private sector pension or retirement fund or program, whether or not the fund or program is a qualified plan within the meaning of section 401 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, as amended, which is payable at an age prior to the attainment of the normal retirement age specfied in the benefit plan of the fund or program, or the age for the receipt of a retirement annuity or pension which is not reduced for early retirement, and which is payable on account of the injury, illness or accident of the person which renders the person incapable of continued employment;

(c) Any benefit payment pursuant to a disability benefit plan or program, whether provided pursuant to a contract with an insurance carrier, self insured by the employer with reserves or self insured by the employer without reserves, which is provided to the person by virtue of employment by that employer and which is financed in whole or in part by the employer.

The benefit payable pursuant to this section shall be reduced by one dollar for each dollar received from these benefit sources. If a dependent may be eligible for these benefits but has not made application then the employer shall notify the dependent of the possible eligibility and if no application has been made within 30 days of the notice, the payment of benefits under this chapter shall be interrupted until the application is made. These benefits shall be paid in full after the application has been made. If the employee was required to make contributions to finance the benefit coverage for which an offset pursuant to this subdivision is required, the amount of the benefit payment which will reduce the benefit pursuant to this section shall be that fraction of the benefit payment which bears the same proportional relationship that the employer contribution bears to the total contribution of the plan, fund or program. If there are benefit payments from more than one of these benefit sources, each shall reduce the benefit otherwise payable pursuant to this section and the remainder after all reductions shall be the reduced benefit payable pursuant to this section.

Subd. 12. [BENEFIT REDUCTION.] If the deceased employee's average weekly wage at the time of personal injury was less than 35 percent of the sum of the average weekly wages of the employee and spouse at the time of personal injury, the benefit due under this section shall be the benefit otherwise payable multiplied by the percentage established below in column 2:

Column 1	Column 2
Percent Earned by the Deceased Employee of the Sum of the Average Weekly Wages of the Injured Employee and Spouse at the Time of Injury	Percent of Benefits Otherwise Payable
30-34	95
25-29	90
15-19	70
10-14	50
9 or less	25

Sec. 3. [176.099] [IMPAIRMENT BENEFITS.]

Subdivision 1. [PURPOSE.] Impairment benefits are for the purpose of compensating employees whose personal injury results in a permanent impairment and to compensate employees for the non-economic consequences of permanent bodily impairment.

Subd. 2. [ELIGIBILITY.] Any employee with permanent impairment resulting from personal injury is eligible to receive impairment benefits only if total impairment to the whole body is determined to be 10 percent or greater.

Subd. 3. [IMPAIRMENT RATINGS.] An impairment rating shall represent the proportional impairment to the whole body resulting from all bodily impairments due to the personal injury. For the purposes of this section, impairment shall be expressed as a single rating between zero and one hundred percent except that all impairment ratings shall be rounded to the nearest percent which is evenly divisible by five and provided that percents of less than five shall be zero. No rating of the degree of permanent impairment shall be made until either the employee has returned to work for a period of at least 30 days or a determination has been made according to subdivision 4 that return to work is not a prerequisite to the payment of benefits or the employee has completed a rehabilitation plan.

Subd. 4. [PAYMENT OF BENEFITS.] Impairment benefits shall be payable in a single lump sum amount after a determination of the degree of permanent impairment has been made and after the employee has returned to work for a period of 90 consecutive days during which no claims for total disability are made, except that time off work due to the actual evaluation of the degree of impairment shall not interrupt the 90 consecutive day period. Payment shall occur within five days of completion of the 90 day waiting period or within 30 days of the determination of the degree of permanent impairment, whichever is later. Return to work shall not be a prerequisite to the payment of impairment benefits if the commissioner determines, based on an evaluation by a qualified rehabilitation consultant, that it is highly improbable that the employee can be sufficiently rehabilitated to allow a return to work. Payment of impairment benefits, when the commissioner so determines, shall be made within 30 days after the determination of the degree of permanent impairment has been made.

Subd. 5. [PAYMENT PROCEDURE; NONCONTESTED.] When an injured employee presents a report from the treating physician to the employer showing that the employee's condition qualifies the employee for benefits according to this section, the employer shall:

(a) Pay the employee the benefit due as required by this section; or

(b) Within 15 days refer the employee to another physician of the employer's choice who shall perform an examination and issue a report within a reasonable period of time. If this second report indicates that the permanent impairment is within five percentage points of the permanent impairment reported in the original request for benefits, the employer shall immediately pay the benefits as requested by the employee.

Subd. 6. [DISPUTE RESOLUTION.] When the two examinations produce impairment ratings that differ by more than five percentage points, the employer shall, when it is due, pay the impairment benefit established by the examination conducted pursuant to subdivision 5, clause (b). Upon the request of either party, a compensation judge shall order an evaluation of the employee by a third physician to assist in the resolution of the dispute under the provisions of section 176.155. The third physician shall evaluate the impairment using the American Medical Association guides. Upon receipt of the report of the third physician, or if no third examination is ordered, the compensation judge shall accept one of the two original impairment ratings as the appropriate basis for determining impairment benefits and shall not accept any other rating. Each dispute shall be resolved by accepting the rating that is closest to the one that would be obtained if an evaluation were conducted in accordance with the standards established in the most recent American Medical Association guides.

Subd. 7. [REFINEMENT OF STANDARDS.] If the commissioner determines that the standards and guidelines contained in the American Medical Association guides are inappropriate or insufficient, the commissioner shall by rule supplement the guides with additional standards or replace portions of the guides with more appropriate generally recognized medical standards.

Subd. 8. [SUBSEQUENT DISABILITY; OFFSET FOR IMPAIRMENT BENEFITS.] If an employee who had returned to work prior to the receipt of an impairment benefit receives total disability benefits subsequent to the receipt of impairment benefits, and if the subsequent disability is a result of the same injury or illness or an aggravation of the same injury or illness, then any total disability benefits provided shall be reduced by the impairment benefit received, provided no offset shall exceed 25 percent of a periodic payment. This offset shall apply to each periodic payment until the total offset equals the impairment benefit received. Upon again returning to work for a period of 90 days, the employee shall be reimbursed for the impairment benefits which were used to offset total disability benefits.

Subd. 9. [ADDITIONAL IMPAIRMENT.] Once an employee has submit- ted a request for impairment benefits to an employer under subdivision 4, no additional request for impairment benefits shall be made unless further personal injury is caused in another single, identifiable event.

Subd. 10. [DEPENDENTS' RIGHTS TO RECEIVE IMPAIRMENT BENEFITS.] Impairment benefits shall not be paid if the injured employee dies as a result of the personal injury causing the permanent impairment and the death occurs within one year following the date of injury. If the death is not the result of the personal injury, and if an evaluation of permanent impairment had been completed, then the impairment benefit shall be payable to the deceased employee's dependents under chapter 176 or, if none, to the legal heirs at the time of death. If the degree of impairment has not been determined prior to death, the degree of permanent impairment shall be estimated from available medical records and shall be payable as stated above.

Subd. 11. [IMPAIRMENT BENEFIT TABLE.] Impairment benefit amounts shall vary according to the employee's degree of permanent impairment. No request for additional impairment benefits resulting from an occupational disease shall be made once a payment for impairment benefits from an impairment due to occupational disease has been made. The benefit due shall be determined according to the following table:

IMPAIRMENT BENEFIT SCHEDULE

Benefit Amounts According to Impairment

Percentage Impairment 5 10 15 20 25
Benefit Amount 1,000 2,500 3,000 4,000 5,500

Percentage Impairment 30 35 40 45 50
Benefit Amount 7,500 10,000 12,500 16,000 19,500

Percentage Impairment 55 60 65 70 75
Benefit Amount 30,000 40,800 51,500 62,200 73,900

Percentage Impairment 80 85 90 95/100
Benefit Amount 88,900 100,000 110,000 133,000

Each of the benefit amounts in this table shall be increased by an amount equal to 85 percent of the increase in the statewide average weekly wage which is in effect on January 1 of each year beginning January 1, 1985. The amount of the increase shall be equal to the difference between the amount of the statewide average weekly wage in effect on January 1 of the preceding calendar year and the amount determined by the department of economic security on July 1 of the preceding calendar year.

Sec. 4. [176.085] [REHABILITATION.]

Subdivision 1. [PURPOSE.] Rehabilitation services are intended to restore the injured employee, through physical and vocational rehabilitation, so that he may return to suitable gainful employment.

"Suitable gainful employment" for the purposes of this section is that employment which is reasonably obtainable and which offers an opportunity to restore the injured employee as soon as possible and as nearly as possible to a job related to his former employment or to a job in another work field in which he could produce earnings as close as possible to those he received at the time of the personal injury.

Rehabilitation to a job which may produce earnings greater than those the employee received at the time of personal injury is permitted if it can be demonstrated that this rehabilitation is necessary for re-employment. Consideration shall be given to the employee's qualifications including but not limited to age, education, previous work history, interest, and transferable skills.

Subd. 2. [REHABILITATION PRIORITIES.] The following priorities are established for use in exploring alternative rehabilitation plans. No higher numbered priority shall be utilized unless all lower numbered priorities have been determined by the qualified rehabilitation consultant to be unlikely to result in returning the employee to suitable gainful employment.

Priority 1 is modification of previous job with the same employer, including a transitional return to work.

Priority 2 is a new job with the same employer in keeping with any limitations or restrictions of the employee.

Priority 3 is modification of the previous job with a new employer.

Priority 4 is a new job with a new employer as a result of direct job placement based upon transferable skills.

Priority 5 is a new job with a new employer involving on-the-job training.

Priority 6 is retraining and job placement consistent with the purposes of rehabilitation.

Subd. 3. [ADMINISTRATORS.] The commissioner shall hire a director of medical and rehabilitation services in the classified service. The commissioner is responsible for supervising medical and rehabilitation services, including the selection and delivery of services. The commissioner may hire qualified personnel to assist in these duties and may delegate those duties and performance.

Subd. 4. [REVIEW PANEL.] There is created a rehabilitation review panel composed of the commissioner or a designee, who shall serve as an ex officio member and two members each from labor, employers, insurers, rehabilitation, and medicine and one member representing chiropractors. The members shall be appointed by the governor and shall serve four-year terms which may be renewed. Compensation for members shall be governed by section 15.0575. The panel shall select a chairman. The panel shall review and make a determination with respect to (a) appeals regarding rehabilitation plans and benefits; and (b) appeals regarding certification approval or revocation. The panel shall continuously study medical and rehabilitation services and delivery and develop and recommend medical and rehabilitation rules to the commissioner. A majority vote of those attending a panel hearing shall constitute the decision of the board.

unable, due to a personal injury, to return to his preinjury occupation, or in any event, if within 90 days after the personal injury the employee has not returned to work, the employer shall refer the employee to a qualified rehabilitation consultant for a determination of whether rehabilitation is necessary to carry out the purposes of this section. If rehabilitation is determined to be necessary, the employee and employer shall enter into a program as prescribed in a rehabilitation plan. A copy of the plan, including a target date for return to work, shall be submitted to the department of labor and industry. If, within 30 days of the first consultation with a qualified rehabilitation consultant, the employee objects to the employer's selection of that qualified rehabilitation consultant, the employee must notify the employer and the commissioner in writing of his objection and request the selection of an alternative qualified rehabilitation consultant. If that qualified rehabilitation consultant is objectionable to the employer, and if a mutually acceptable qualified rehabilitation consultant cannot be found, the commissioner shall be notified by the employer in a timely manner that no mutually acceptable qualified rehabilitation consultant can be found. Upon receipt of this notice and within seven days, the commissioner shall provide the employee and employer with a list of three other qualified rehabilitation consultant's from which the employee and employer shall, within seven days, each disapprove one qualified rehabilitation consultant. The remaining qualified rehabilitation consultant shall be utilized.

(b) If the employer does not provide rehabilitation evaluation as required by this section within 75 days from the date of injury, the commissioner shall notify the employer that if the employer fails to appoint a qualified rehabilitation consultant within 15 days to conduct a rehabilitation evaluation, the commissioner shall appoint a qualified rehabilitation consultant to provide the evaluation at the expense of the employer unless the commissioner determines the evaluation is not required. The commissioner may assess a penalty of up to $5,000, to be paid to the special compensation fund by any employer if the commissioner has appointed a qualified rehabilitation consultant and return to work has not been accomplished within 180 days, subject to the limitations in (c) below.

(c) If the employee's condition does not permit determination of the employee's need for rehabilitation or a rehabilitation plan cannot be developed within 90 days after the injury, a further rehabilitation evaluation by a qualified rehabilitation consultant is required six months following the date of injury. If the employee's condition still precludes development of a rehabilitation plan at this time, a further evaluation by a qualified rehabilitation consultant shall be conducted in six months and then at yearly intervals as long as no rehabilitation plan has been developed. The commissioner may waive further mandatory evaluations after the second evaluation if he determines in a case that evaluations are not likely to accomplish the purposes of this subdivision. If after two years from the date of injury a rehabilitation plan has not been developed, the employer may determine the time of a subsequent evaluation. Those evaluations shall not occur more frequently than once per year and are not mandatory for the employee, unless directed by the commissioner.

Subd. 6. [ON-THE-JOB TRAINING.] When a rehabilitation plan includes on-the-job training, the employee shall receive remuneration while so employed in an amount equal to the spendable weekly wage the employee received at the time of the personal injury. A rehabilitation plan which includes on-the- job training shall create an incentive for the on-the-job training employer to hire the employee for on-the-job training in the form of reducing the wages paid to the employee by the on-the-job training employer to 80 percent or less of the prevailing wage for the job. The difference between the spendable weekly wage from the preinjury job and spendable weekly wage from the on-the-job training shall be paid by the employer liable for compensation for the employee's injury but it shall not exceed 125 percent of the statewide average weekly wage at the time of injury. The compensation from the liable employer and the on-the-job training employer paid according to this subdivision is in lieu of other benefits required to be paid by subdivision 12.

Subd. 7. [PLAN, APPROVAL AND APPEAL.] All completed plans shall be submitted to the commissioner for review and approval. The commissioner may disapprove or modify rehabilitation plans. A decision and order by the commissioner may be appealed to the rehabilitation review panel within 30 days of the commissioner's decision. The decision of the rehabilitation review panel may be appealed to the workers' compensation court of appeals.

Subd. 8. [PLAN IMPLEMENTATION; REPORTS.] Upon request by the commissioner, employer, or qualified rehabilitation consultant, medical and rehabilitation reports of an employee's progress under a plan shall be made by the provider of the medical and rehabilitation service to the commissioner, insurer and employer. The employer shall be notified upon completion of the plan.

Subd. 9. [PLAN MODIFICATION.] Upon request of the employer, the employee, or the qualified rehabilitation consultant to the commissioner, the plan may be suspended, terminated, or altered upon a showing of good cause including:

(a) A physical impairment that does not allow the employee to pursue the rehabilitation plan;

(b) The employee's performance level indicates the plan will not successfully be completed; or

(c) An employee does not cooperate with a plan.

An employee may request a change in a rehabilitation plan once because the employee feels ill-suited for the type of work for which rehabilitation is being provided if the request is made within 90 days of the start of the plan. Any decision of the commissioner regarding a change in a plan may be appealed to the rehabilitation review panel within 15 days of the decision.

Subd. 10. [PLAN; COSTS.] An employer is liable for the following rehabilitation expenses under this section:

(a) Cost of rehabilitation evaluation and preparation of a plan;

(b) Cost of all rehabilitation services and supplies necessary for implementation of the plan;

(c) Reasonable cost of tuition, books and travel; and reasonable costs of board and lodging when rehabilitation requires residence away from the employee's customary residence;

(d) Reasonable costs of travel during job interview process;

(e) Reasonable cost for moving expenses of the employee and family if a job is found in a geographic area beyond reasonable commuting distance after a diligent search within the present community. Relocation shall not be paid more than once, and relocation shall not be required if the new job is located within the same standard metropolitan statistical area as the employee's job at the time of injury; and

(f) Any other expense agreed to be paid.

Subd. 11. [REHABILITATION; CONSULTANTS.] The commissioner shall approve rehabilitation consultants who may propose and implement plans if they satisfy rules promulgated by the commissioner for rehabilitation consultants. A consultant may be an individual or public or private entity, but may not be a vendor of rehabilitation services.

Subd. 12. [COMPENSATION DURING REHABILITATION.] The commissioner shall determine eligibility for rehabilitation and benefits while the employee is participating in a rehabilitation plan. Rehabilitation benefits shall include payment in an amount equal to the employee's benefit for total or partial disability, whichever is appropriate, and shall be in lieu of compensation. All rehabilitation benefits payable under chapter 176 shall be discontinued and forfeited for any time during which the employee refuses to submit to any reasonable examinations and evaluative procedures to determine the need for and details of a plan of rehabilitation, or refuses to participate in rehabilitation evaluation as required by this section or does not make a good faith effort to participate in a rehabilitation plan.

Subd. 13. [BENEFIT DURATION DURING REHABILITATION.] Unless the employee has returned to work, benefits during rehabilitation shall continue as provided in subdivision 12 until the sooner of the following:

(a) The rehabilitation plan has been completed and within 90 days the employer or another employer has offered the employee employment consistent with the skills developed in the rehabilitation plan at a job in which the employee is capable of performing, at which time benefits shall cease or partial disability benefits shall begin, whichever is appropriate; or

(b) The rehabilitation plan has been completed and after 90 days the employer or another employer has offered the injured employee any job which is within the physical capabilities of the employee, at which time benefits shall cease or partial disability shall begin, whichever is appropriate; or

(c) The rehabilitation plan has been completed and 180 days have elapsed at which time benefits shall cease unless a permanent impairment exists. If a permanent impairment exists, for which benefits are payable under section 3, benefits shall be payable for an additional period of time until either an offer of employment is made to the employee which is within the employee's physical capabilities or the time established for the impairment percentages shown below has elapsed.

Permanent Impairment Remaining After Completion of Rehabilitation Plan	Maximum Benefit Period After Completion of Rehabilitation Plan
5 - 20 percent	12 months
25 - 40 percent	24 months
45 - 60 percent	36 months

85 percent and higher	60 months

Subd. 14. [RULES.] The commissioner shall adopt rules necessary to implement this section including rules relating to qualifications necessary to be an approved rehabilitation consultant.

Sec. 5. [176.097] [PARTIAL DISABILITY BENEFITS.]

Subdivision 1. [PURPOSE.] Partial disability benefits are paid for the following purposes:

(a) Facilitating return to work of an employee who suffered a personal injury. The benefits payable according to this section replace a portion of wages lost due to a personal injury after an employee returns to work and when the employee's return to employment is in a reduced capacity, as evidenced by the fact that the employee's current spendable wages are less than the spendable wages of the employee prior to the injury; and

(b) Providing ongoing supplements to the income of injured employees who, because of a permanent impairment are unable to earn income at least equal to their preinjury wage.

Subd. 2. [BENEFIT.] When the employee returns to work, benefits for partial disability shall be payable at the rate of 85 percent of the difference between the employee's current spendable weekly wage and the preinjury spendable weekly wage.

Subd. 3. [MAXIMUM BENEFIT.] The maximum weekly benefit for partial disability shall be 125 percent of the statewide average weekly wage.

Subd. 4. [PERIOD OF PAYMENT.] (a) Partial disability benefits shall be paid for the period beginning on the date the employee returns to work. Payment shall be made as nearly as possible at the intervals when the wage is payable.

(b) Partial disability benefits shall continue for up to 90 days of the first day of return to work unless the personal injury results in a permanent impairment of five percent or more of the whole body as determined by application of the American Medical Association guides. If no permanent impairment determination has been made but the impairment clearly exists, payment under this section shall continue for a period of time provided by the minimum expected disability. If the duration of payment of the partial disability was longer or shorter than provided by this section, as evidenced by the final determination of the degree of permanent impairment, an adjustment shall be made to the impairment award. Excessive payments shall be subtracted from the impairment benefit. Payments due but not paid shall be paid in addition to the impairment benefit with interest payments of 18 percent per annum.

(c) Workers whose personal injury results in a permanent impairment, for which benefits are payable under section 3, shall be eligible for benefits for a period of time reflecting the severity of their permanent impairment. The maximum duration of partial disability eligibility shall be determined according to the impairment percentages shown below:

5 to 10 percent	90 days

15 percent	180 days
20 percent	270 days

For each five percent impairment beyond 20 percent, the duration period shall be extended an additional 180 days.

(d) An employee who becomes unemployed for reasons other than the personal injury while receiving partial disability benefits shall continue to receive benefits under this section, except that current spendable weekly wage shall be assumed to equal spendable weekly wage at the time the unemployment commenced. If the employee is laid off because the employer no longer has adequate work for all current employees, the unemployment shall be deemed to be caused by other than the personal injury if all other workers performing the same job but who have less seniority than the injured employee have been laid off.

Sec. 6. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 62A.10, Subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [REQUIREMENTS.] Group accident and health insurance is hereby declared to be that form of accident and health insurance covering not less than two employees nor less than ten members, and which may include the employee's or member's dependents, consisting of husband, wife, children, and actual dependents residing in the household, written under a master policy issued to any governmental corporation, unit, agency, or department thereof, or to any corporation, copartnership, individual, employer, or to any association having a constitution or bylaws and formed in good faith for purposes other than that of obtaining insurance under the provisions of this chapter, where officers, members, employees, or classes or divisions thereof, may be insured for their individual benefit.

Any insurer authorized to write accident and health insurance in this state shall have power to issue group accident and health policies.

If an employee and his dependents are insured under a group policy, as the result of employment eligibility for insurance, eligibility for coverage shall not be terminated if the employee ceases to be employed as a result of a personal injury as defined in section 176.011, subdivision 10.

Sec. 7. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 62C.14, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 16. No subscriber's individual contract or any group contract shall terminate an individual's or the individual's dependent's eligibility for coverage because the individual is no longer employed as the result of a personal injury as defined in section 176.011, subdivision 10.

Sec. 8. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 62D.10, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Sec. 9. [79.212] [INSURERS TO OFFER DEDUCTIBLES.]

Each insurer licensed to transact workers compensation pursuant to 60A.06, subdivision 1, clause (5), paragraph (b), shall offer workers' compensation policies which employers may purchase at a lower premium than the premium which would result from use of the schedule of rates approved by the commissioner. These policies shall contain a deductible which specifies the amount of benefits payable by the employer on each occurrence which results in personal injury.

These policies shall require the insurer to pay all benefits due under the policy. The employer shall deposit the amount of the deductible with the insurer at the inception of the policy period. The insurer shall pay all losses when due utilizing the amounts deposited as specified by the deductible in the policy. The insurer may require the employer to deposit additional funds if the deposited funds are depleted. Each policy shall clearly state the maximum total liability of the employer under the deductible for the policy period.

All interest income earned on the funds deposited with the insurer by the employer shall be credited to the employer. The policy shall provide that funds deposited by the employer, together with the credited interest income, which are not expected to be paid out by the insurer due to claims incurred during the policy period shall be returned to the employer or credited to the next policy period.

The minimum deductible that shall be required is $1,000 per occurrence and $5,000 total liability per year.

Sec. 10. Minnesota Statutes 1981 Supplement, Section 79.25, Subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. When any rejected risk is called to its attention and it appears that the risk is in good faith entitled to coverage the commissioner of insurance shall fix the initial premium therefor and may fix an additional charge to compensate the agent of record for his services and, upon its payment, the commissioner of insurance shall enter into a service contract with one or more qualified ~~members of the association~~ insurance companies, or qualified group self-insurance administrators licensed pursuant to section 176.181, subdivision 2, clause (2)(a), whose duty it shall be to issue a policy, or a group self-insurance administration contract, containing the usual and customary provisions found in such policies or contracts therefor, but for which undertaking all ~~members of the association~~ insurers licensed pursuant to section 60A.06, subdivision 1, clause (5)(b) shall be reinsurers as among themselves in the amount which the compensation insurance written in this state during the preceding calendar year by that ~~member~~ insurer bears to the total compensation insurance written in this state during the preceding year by all the ~~members of the association~~ licensed insurers. The assigned risk plan shall be treated as a group self-insurer member of the reinsurance association for the purposes of sections 79.34 to 79.40 and shall be deemed to have selected the higher retention limit provided in section 79.34, subdivision 2. A qualified ~~member~~ insurer or group self-insurance administrator shall possess sufficient financial, professional, administrative and personnel resources to serve the policies or self-insurance contracts contemplated in the service contract.

Policies and contracts of coverage issued pursuant to this subdivision shall be deemed to meet the mandatory insurance requirements of section 176.181, subdivision 2.

by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 3. [ANNUAL ASSESSMENT.] The commissioner shall annually assess from each insurer licensed pursuant to section 60A.06, subdivision 1, clause (5)(b), an amount sufficient to fully fund the obligations of the assigned risk plan. The assessment of each insurer shall be in an amount that the compensation insurance written in this state by that insurer during the preceding calendar year bears to the total compensation insurance written in this state by all licensed insurers during the preceding calendar year.

Sec. 12. Minnesota Statutes 1981 Supplement, Section 79.63, Subdivision 1, is amended to read:

[ADMINISTRATION.] The commissioner shall ~~appoint~~ contract with a licensed data service organization to ~~administer~~ make assignments, gather data, collect assessments, and perform other services for the assigned risk plan. ~~The appointed data service organization shall submit to the commissioner for approval a plan and rules for administering the assigned risk plan, including a method or formula by which the organization is to be paid for administrative services.~~

Sec. 13. Minnesota Statutes 1981 Supplement, Section 79.63, Subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [REJECTION; NOTICE.] An insurer that refuses to write insurance for an applicant shall furnish the applicant a written notice of refusal and shall file a copy of the notice of refusal with the data service organization ~~appointed~~ contracted with pursuant to subdivision 1. ~~Servicing insurers designated pursuant to subdivision 3 shall accept and insure any applicant for workers' compensation insurance assigned pursuant to subdivision 3.~~

tion industry, mining industry, or other industry where the hours of work are affected by seasonal conditions, ~~the weekly wage shall not be less than five times the daily wage~~ weeks where the employee worked less than the lesser of 40 hours or the normal number of hours worked in a week shall not be included in weeks worked. Where board or allowances other than tips and gratuities are made to an employee in addition to wages as a part of the wage contract they are deemed a part of his earnings and computed at their value to the employee. In the case of persons performing services for municipal corporations in the case of emergency, then the normal working ~~day~~ week shall be considered and computed as ~~eight hours~~ five days, and in cases where ~~such~~ the services are performed gratis or without fixed compensation the ~~daily~~ weekly wage of the person injured shall, for the purpose of calculating compensation payable under this chapter, be taken to be the usual going wage paid for similar services in municipalities where ~~such~~ the services are performed by paid employees. If, at the time of injury, the employee was regularly employed by two or more employers, the employee's earnings in all such employments shall be included in the computation of ~~daily~~ weekly wage.

Sec. 16. Minnesota Statutes 1981 Supplement, Section 176.011, Subdivision 9, is amended to read:

Sec. 17. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 176.011, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 23. [SPENDABLE WEEKLY WAGE.] (a) "Spendable weekly wage" means weekly wage minus the sum of: (1) the amount which would be withheld according to withholding tables in effect on the January 1 preceding the personal injury, as described in the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, as amended, assuming that the maximum number of exemptions for dependency apply as the worker would be entitled to receive at the time of injury; and (2) the amount which would be withheld according to withholding tables in effect on the January 1 preceding the injury under Minnesota Statutes, Chapter 290, and related rules, assuming that the maximum number of exemptions for dependency apply as the worker would be entitled to receive at the time of injury; and (3) an amount equal to the amount required on the January 1 preceding the injury, by the Social Security Act of 1935 and any related amendments, to be deducted or withheld from the weekly wage of the employee as if the weekly wage were earned at the beginning of the calendar year in which the injury occurred.

(b) Where there is a dispute as to the correct number of exemptions for dependency which should apply under clause (a), the spendable weekly wage shall be determined according to the minimum number of exemptions to which the employee would be entitled at the time of injury. Upon a final determination of the correct number of exemptions which apply, any additional benefit payable to the employee shall include interest payable at the rate of 18 percent per annum based on the amount of difference due.

Sec. 18. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 176.011, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 24. [PERMANENT IMPAIRMENT.] "Permanent impairment" means permanent anatomic or functional abnormality or loss as the result of a personal injury, which exists after maximum medical rehabilitation has been achieved and which is considered stable or nonprogressive.

Sec. 19. Minnesota Statutes 1981 Supplement, Section 176.021, Subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [COMPENSATION, COMMENCEMENT OF PAYMENT.] All employers shall commence payment of compensation at the time and in the manner prescribed by this chapter without the necessity of any agreement or any order of the division. Except for medical, burial, and other non-periodic benefits, payments shall be made as nearly as possible at the intervals when the wage was payable~~, provided, however, that payments for permanent partial disability shall be governed by subdivision 3a. If doubt exists as to the eventual permanent partial disability, payment, pursuant to subdivision 3a, shall be then made when due for the minimum permanent partial disability ascertainable, and further payment shall be made upon any later ascertainment of greater permanent partial disability. At the time of any tender of the lump sum payment, the employee and employer shall be furnished with a copy of the medical report upon which the payment is based, together with a statement by the insurer as to whether the tendered payment is for minimum permanent partial disability or final and eventual disability. Compensation for permanent partial disability is payable in addition to compensation for temporary total disability and temporary partial disability pursuant to section 176.101, subdivisions 1 and 2, as provided in subdivision 3a. Compensation for permanent partial disability is payable concurrently and in addition to compensation for permanent total disability pursuant to section 176.101, subdivision 5, as provided in subdivision 3a. Compensation for permanent partial disability shall be withheld pending completion of payment for temporary total and temporary partial disability but shall not be withheld pending payment of compensation for permanent total disability, and no credit shall be taken for payment of permanent partial disability against liability for temporary total or permanent total disability. Liability on the part of an employer or his insurer for disability of a temporary total, temporary partial, and permanent total nature shall be considered as a continuing product and part of the employee's inability to earn or reduction in earning capacity due to injury or occupational disease and shall be payable accordingly, subject to subdivision 3a. Permanent partial disability is payable for functional loss of use or impairment of function, permanent in nature, and payment therefore shall be separate, distinct, and in addition to payment for any other compensation, subject to subdivision 3a. The right to receive temporary total, temporary partial, permanent partial or permanent total disability payments shall vest in the injured employee or his dependents under this chapter or, if none, in his legal heirs at the time the disability can be ascertained and the right shall not be abrogated by the employee's death prior to the making of the payment~~.

Sec. 20. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 176.021, Subdivision 5, is [ACCUMULATED CREDITS, ADDITIONAL PAYMENTS.] If employees of the state or a county, city or other political subdivision of the state who are entitled to the benefits of the workers' compensation law have, at the time of compensable injury, accumulated credits under a vacation, sick leave or overtime plan or system maintained by the governmental agency by which they are employed, the appointing authority may provide for the payment of additional benefits to such employees from their accumulated vacation, sick leave or overtime credits. Such additional payments to an employee may not exceed the amount of the total sick leave, vacation or overtime credits accumulated by the employee and shall not result in the payment of a total weekly rate of compensation that exceeds the weekly wage of the employee. Such additional payments to any employee shall be charged against the sick leave, vacation and overtime credits accumulated by such employee. Employees of a county, city or other political subdivision entitled to the benefits of the workers' compensation law may receive additional benefits pursuant to a collective bargaining agreement or other plan entered into or in effect on or after January 1, 1980, providing payments by or on behalf of the employer and these additional benefits may be unrelated to any accumulated sick leave, holiday or overtime credits and need not be charged against any accumulation; provided that the additional payments shall not result in the payment of a total weekly rate of compensation that exceeds the weekly wage of the employee; and provided further that the authority to make payments not related to leave accumulations shall expire on January 1, 1983, unless affirmatively negotiated by the parties. The commissioner of the department of labor and industry for the state or the governing body of any county, city or other political subdivision to which the provisions of this chapter apply, may adopt rules and regulations not inconsistent with this chapter for carrying out the provisions hereof relating to payment of additional benefits to employees from accumulated sick leave, vacation ~~or~~, overtime credits or other sources.

Sec. 21. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 176.111, Subdivision 18, is amended to read:

Subd. 18. [BURIAL EXPENSE.] In all cases where death results to an employee from a personal injury arising out of and in the course of employment, the employer shall pay the expense of burial, not exceeding in amount ~~$1,000~~ $2,500. In case any dispute arises as to the reasonable value of the services rendered in connection with the burial, such reasonable value shall be determined and approved by the commissioner of the department of labor and industry, a compensation judge, or workers' compensation court of appeals, in cases upon appeal, before payment, after such reasonable notice to interested parties as is required by the commissioner of the department of labor and industry. If the deceased leave no dependents, no compensation is payable, except as provided by this chapter.

Sec. 22. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 176.121, is amended to read:

176.121 [COMMENCEMENT OF COMPENSATION.]

In cases of ~~temporary~~ total or ~~temporary~~ partial disability no compensation shall be allowed for the three days after the disability commenced, except as provided by section 176.135, nor in any case unless the employer has actual knowledge of the injury or is notified thereof within the period specified in section 176.141. If such disability continues for ~~10~~ seven days or longer, such compensation shall be computed from the commencement of the disability.

Sec. 23. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 176.131, Subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. If an employee incurs personal injury and suffers disability that is substantially greater, because of a pre-existing physical impairment, than what would have resulted from the personal injury alone, the employer shall pay all compensation provided by this chapter, but he shall be reimbursed from the special compensation fund for all compensation paid in excess of 52 weeks of ~~monetary~~ benefits and $2,000 in medical expenses, subject to the following exceptions:

Notwithstanding sections 15.163 and 15.1698 or any other laws related to the privacy of medical data, the release of those data to the employer or insurer shall not require prior approval, written or otherwise, on the part of the employee. Upon receiving written request from the employer, insurer, or any agent of the employer or insurer, the data related to the medical condition of an employee suffering a personal injury shall be provided, by the holder of the data, to the employer. The data shall be provided within seven working days of receiving the request. The employer or insurer shall inform the employee of the request for these data at the time it is made and shall not release these data to anyone other than the employee.

The employer of any employee who suffers a personal injury shall inform the insurer of the occurrence of the injury within three days of notice of the injury. Notice shall be made on forms provided by the insurer. Consistent failure by the employer to provide notice shall entitle the insurer to cancel, upon 15 days notice to the employer, any effective policy insuring the employer's liability under chapter 176, at which time any unearned premium paid by the employer to the insurer shall be returned to the employer.

[COMMENCEMENT OF PAYMENT.] Within 14 days of notice to or knowledge by the employer of an injury compensable under this chapter the payment of compensation due pursuant to section ~~176.101, subdivision~~ 1, shall commence. Commencement of payment by an employer or insurer does not waive any rights to any defense the employer may have on any claim or incident either with respect to the compensability of the claim under chapter 176 or the amount of the compensation due. Where there are multiple employers, the first employer shall pay, unless it is shown that the injury has arisen out of employment with the second or subsequent employer. When the employer determines that the disability is not a result of a personal injury, payment of compensation may be discontinued upon notice of discontinuance pursuant to section 176.241. Upon the determination, payments made may be recovered by the employer if the commissioner finds that the employee's claim of work related disability was not made in good faith.

Subd. 5. [PENALTY.] Where the employer is guilty of inexcusable delay in making payments, including but not limited to the grounds listed in clauses (a) to (d) of subdivision 1, the payments which are found to be delayed shall be increased by 10 percent. Withholding amounts unquestionably due because the injured employee refuses to execute a release of his right to claim further benefits will be regarded as inexcusable delay in the making of compensation payments. If any sum ordered by the department to be paid is not paid when due, and no appeal of the order is made, the sum shall bear interest at the rate of ~~12~~ 18 percent per annum. Any penalties paid pursuant to this section shall not be considered as a loss or expense item for purposes of a petition for a rate increase made pursuant to chapter 79.

In addition, the brochure or letter shall include the names of persons the employee may contact if questions or problems arise regarding the employee's rights or obligations under chapter 176. This brochure or letter shall be provided to the employee within seven days after the employer becomes aware of the personal injury. After the effective date of this subdivision any obligations previously assigned to the department of labor and industry regarding the mailing of workers' compensation informational brochures shall end. Any brochure shall be approved by the commissioner of insurance prior to use. The workers' compensation advisory council shall prepare a prototype brochure. Subd. 5. [RULES.] The commissioner shall, by rule, establish the minimum provisions of the plan required in subdivision 3.

If the commissioner requires such proof, he shall request the chief hearing examiner to assign the matter to a compensation judge to summarily hear and determine the same and to promptly make an award or order.

Where in such a default case the petition does not state facts sufficient to support an award, the compensation judge shall give the petitioner or his attorney written notice of this deficiency. The petitioner may thereupon file another petition as in the case of an original petition.

If an award is made pursuant to this subdivision, the amount of the award shall include interest on the award at the rate of 18 percent per annum computed from the date compensation was due but not paid.

(7) The amount by which property taxes of the district for use in that school year are reduced by the credit for reduced assessment provisions in section 273.139.

Sec. 9. [124.21271] [LOW FUND BALANCE FOUNDATION AID.]

Subdivision 1. [LOW FUND BALANCE ALLOWANCE; DEFINITION.] "Low fund balance allowance" means an amount of revenue per actual pupil unit equal to the lesser of

(b) the difference between

(i) $316, and

(ii) the district's net unappropriated fund balance in all operating funds per actual pupil unit as of June 30 in the year the levy is certified.

The low fund balance allowance shall be used to determine the low fund balance aid for a particular school year, and the low fund balance levy for use in that school year.

Subd. 2. [LOW FUND BALANCE REVENUE.] A district's low fund balance revenue for each school shall equal its low fund balance allowance for that school year, times the actual pupil units for the preceding school year.

Subd. 3. [LOW FUND BALANCE AID.] A district's low fund balance aid for each school year shall equal its low fund balance revenue for that year, minus its low fund balance levy limitation for the levy for use in that school year.

Sec. 10. Minnesota Statutes 1981 Supplement, Section 124.2128, Subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [UNDERLEVIES.] A district's basic foundation, grandfather, replacement ~~or~~, discretionary or low fund balance aid, as applicable, for any school year when the actual amount of the corresponding levy for use in that year is less than the permitted amount, shall be reduced by a percentage equal to the difference between the actual amount and the permitted amount, divided by the permitted amount. This provision shall apply to basic foundation aid only for a school year when the actual amount of the basic maintenance levy for use in that year is less than 95 percent of the permitted amount.

Sec. 11. Minnesota Statutes 1981 Supplement, Section 124.2129, Subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. If the district of residence does not receive a notification from the providing district pursuant to this subdivision, it shall not be liable to that district for any tuition billing received after ~~October 1~~ August 1 of the next school year.

Sec. 12. Minnesota Statutes 1981 Supplement, Section 275.125, Subdivision 2d, is amended to read:

Subd. 2d. [REFERENDUM LEVY.] (1) The levy authorized by subdivision 2a may be increased in any amount which is approved by the voters of the district at a referendum called for the purpose. Such a referendum may be called by the school board or shall be called by the school board upon written petition of qualified voters of the district. The referendum shall be held on a date set by the school board. Only one such election may be held to approve a levy increase which will commence in a specific school year. However, more than one referendum may be held to approve a levy increase to commence in the 1983-1984 school year. The question on the ballot shall state the maximum amount of the increased levy in mills, the amount that will be raised by that millage in the first year it is to be levied, and that the millage shall be used to finance school operations. The question may designate a specific number of years for which the referendum authorization shall apply. If approved, the amount provided by the approved millage applied to each year's taxable valuation shall be authorized for certification for the number of years approved, if applicable, or until revoked or reduced by the voters of the district at a subsequent referendum.

(2) A referendum on the question of revoking or reducing the increased levy amount authorized pursuant to clause (1) of this subdivision may be called by the school board and shall be called by the school board upon the written petition of qualified voters of the district. A levy approved by the voters of the district pursuant to clause (1) of this subdivision must be made at least once before it is subject to a referendum on its revocation or reduction for subsequent years. Only one such revocation or reduction election may be held to revoke or reduce a levy for any specific year and for years thereafter.

(3) A petition authorized by ~~clauses~~ clause (1) ~~or (2)~~ shall be effective if signed by a number of qualified voters in excess of 15 percent, or ten percent if the school board election is held in conjunction with a general election, of the average number of voters at the two most recent district wide school elections. A referendum invoked by petition shall be held within three months of submission of the petition to the school board.

(4) A petition authorized by clause (2) shall be effective if signed by a number of qualified voters in excess of five percent of the residents of the school district as determined by the most recent census. A revocation or reduction referendum invoked by petition shall be held within three months of submission of the petition to the school board.

~~(4)~~ (5) Notwithstanding any law to the contrary, the approval of 50 percent plus one of those voting on the question is required to pass a referendum.

~~(5)~~ (6) Within 30 days after the district holds a referendum pursuant to this clause, the district shall notify the commissioner of education of the results of the referendum.

Sec. 13. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 275.125, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 6d. [LOW FUND BALANCE LEVY.] (1) For purposes of this subdivision, the term "low fund balance revenue" shall have the meaning given it in section 9 of this article.

(2) Each year, a district where the net unappropriated fund balance in all operating funds as of June 30 is less than $316 per actual pupil unit may levy an amount equal to

(a) the product obtained by multiplying

(i) the district's low fund balance revenue for the school year to which the levy is attributable, times

(ii) the lesser of

(A) one or

(B) the ratio of the district's adjusted assessed valuation for the preceding year per total pupil unit in the school year to which the levy is attributable, to 75 percent of the equalizing factor for the school year to which the levy is attributable.

Sec. 14. Minnesota Statutes 1981 Supplement, Section 275.125, Subdivision 7a, is amended to read:

Subd. 7a. [DISCRETIONARY LEVY.] (1) For purposes of this subdivision, the terms "discretionary allowance" and "discretionary mill rate" shall have the meanings given them in section 124.2125.

(2) ~~In 1981 and~~ Each year ~~thereafter~~, a district which levies the maximum permissible amount pursuant to subdivision 2a and subdivision 6b may levy an additional amount which shall not exceed the lesser of (a) an amount equal to the discretionary mill rate times the district's adjusted assessed valuation for the preceding year or (b) the product obtained by multiplying the applicable discretionary allowance times the actual and AFDC pupil units in the district in the school year when the levy is certified.

(3) ~~In 1981 and~~ Each year ~~thereafter~~, a district which levies the maximum permissible amount pursuant to subdivision 2a and subdivision 6b, and where the net unappropriated balance in all operating funds as of the preceding June 30 is less than $165 per actual and AFDC pupil unit in the district in the school year when the levy is certified, may levy an amount which shall not exceed the lesser of (a) one mill times the district's adjusted assessed valuation for the preceding year or (b) the product obtained by multiplying the applicable discretionary allowance times the total number of pupil units in the district in the school year when the levy is certified, without holding a public hearing or conducting a referendum pursuant to clause (5).

(4) The board is not required to hold a public hearing or conduct a referendum on the levy authorized by this subdivision in any year when it levies pursuant to clause (3) or when the board proposes to levy an amount not to exceed an amount equal to the preceding year's adjusted assessed valuation times the largest number of EARC mills ~~previously levied by the district~~ the district was previously authorized to levy pursuant to this subdivision.

(5)(a) Except as provided in clause (3), the provisions of clause (5) shall apply to the levy authorization in this subdivision in any year when the board either proposes to levy pursuant to this subdivision for the first time or proposes to increase the number of mills which it levies against its adjusted assessed valuation pursuant to this subdivision to a number of mills greater than the largest number of mills previously levied against its adjusted assessed valuation pursuant to this subdivision.

(b) By July 15 in any year when clause (5) applies, the board of the district shall hold a public hearing on the need for the proposed levy or increase. At least three weeks published notice of the hearing in 10 point type or 5.0 agate type, with a larger headline, shall be given in the legal newspaper with the largest circulation in the district. The notice shall state the amount of the proposed levy or increase in dollars, in EARC mills and in auditor's mills and the estimated net unappropriated fund balance in the district's operating funds as of the June 30 before the levy or increase is certified.

(c) At the hearing, the district shall present its proposed revenue and expenditure budgets for the next two school years, the estimated net unappropriated fund balances in all district funds as of the June 30 before the levy or increase is certified, and the estimated amount in dollars, in EARC mills and in auditor's mills of any reduction of the proposed levy which may be required by subdivision 7c. At the hearing, the board shall also hear all parties requesting to give testimony for and against the proposed levy or increase. Upon receipt of a petition within 30 days after the hearing, the board shall call a referendum on the proposed levy or increase. A petition shall be effective if signed by a number of qualified voters in ~~the district equal to the greater of 50 voters or 15 percent of the number of voters who voted in the district at the most recent regular school board election~~ excess of three percent of the residents of the school district as determined by the most recent census.

(d) The referendum shall be held on a date set by the school board, but no later than the September 20 before the levy is certified.

The ballot shall state substantially the following, as appropriate:

The board of ..... School District No. ..... has proposed (a discretionary levy in a maximum amount of ..... EARC mills which would raise) (to increase a discretionary levy from ..... EARC mills to .... EARC mills. This increase would provide an additional) $..... in the first year levied.

Shall the (increase in the) discretionary levy proposed by the Board of ..... School District No. ..... be approved?

..... Yes
..... No

(e) The approval of a majority of those voting on the question is required to pass the referendum.

(f) If a petition is not received or if the proposed levy or increase is approved at a referendum, the district may levy the amount provided by the number of mills proposed by the school board, in the year when the hearing or referendum is held and in succeeding years. If a proposed first time levy is not approved, except as provided in clause (3), the district may not levy pursuant to this subdivision in the year when the referendum is held and shall be required to comply with the provisions of clause (5) before levying pursuant to this subdivision in a subsequent year. If a proposed increase is not approved, the district may levy an amount not to exceed the amount provided by the largest number of EARC mills the district was previously ~~levied by the district~~ authorized to levy pursuant to this subdivision, applied to the preceding year's adjusted assessed valuation.

Sec. 15. Minnesota Statutes 1981 Supplement, Section 298.28, Subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [DISTRIBUTION.] The proceeds of the taxes collected under section 298.24, except the tax collected under section 298.24, subdivision 2, shall, upon certificate of the commissioner of revenue to the general fund of the state, be paid by the commissioner of revenue as follows:

(1) 2.5 cents per gross ton of merchantable iron ore concentrate, hereinafter referred to as "taxable ton", to the city or town in which the lands from which taconite was mined or quarried were located or within which the concentrate was produced. If the mining, quarrying, and concentration, or different steps in either thereof are carried on in more than one taxing district, the commissioner shall apportion equitably the proceeds of the part of the tax going to cities and towns among such subdivisions upon the basis of attributing 40 percent of the proceeds of the tax to the operation of mining or quarrying the taconite, and the remainder to the concentrating plant and to the processes of concentration, and with respect to each thereof giving due consideration to the relative extent of such operations performed in each such taxing district. His order making such apportionment shall be subject to review by the tax court at the instance of any of the interested taxing districts, in the same manner as other orders of the commissioner.

(2) 12.5 cents per taxable ton, less any amount distributed under clause (8), to the taconite municipal aid account in the apportionment fund of the state treasury, to be distributed as provided in section 298.282.

(3) 29 cents per taxable ton plus the increase provided in paragraph (c) to qualifying school districts to be distributed as follows:

(a) Six cents per taxable ton to the school districts in which the lands from which taconite was mined or quarried were located or within which the concentrate was produced. The commissioner shall follow the apportionment formula prescribed in clause (1).

(b) 23 cents per taxable ton, less any amount distributed under part (d), shall be distributed to a group of school districts comprised of those school districts wherein the taconite was mined or quarried or the concentrate produced or in which there is a qualifying municipality as defined by section 273.134 in direct proportion to school district tax levies as follows: each district shall receive that portion of the total distribution which its ~~permitted~~ certified levy for the prior year, computed pursuant to section 275.125, comprises of the sum of ~~permitted~~ certified levies for the prior year for all qualifying districts, computed pursuant to section 275.125. For purposes of distributions pursuant to this part, ~~permitted~~ certified levies for the prior year computed pursuant to section 275.125 shall not include the amount of any increased levy authorized by referendum pursuant to section 275.125, subdivision 2d.

(c) On July 15, 1982 and on July 15 in subsequent years, an amount equal to the increase derived by increasing the amount determined by clause (3)(b) in the same proportion as the increase in the steel mill products index over the base year of 1977 as provided in section 298.24, subdivision 1, clause (a), shall be distributed to any school district described in clause (3)(b) where a levy increase pursuant to section 275.125, subdivision 2d, is authorized by referendum, according to the following formula. Each district shall receive the product of:

(i) $150 times the pupil units identified in section 124.17, subdivision 1, clauses (1) and (2), enrolled in the previous school year, less the product of two mills times the district's taxable valuation in the second previous year; times

(ii) the lesser of:

(A) one, or

(B) the ratio of the amount certified pursuant to section 275.125, subdivision 2d, in the previous year, to the product of two mills times the district's taxable valuation in the second previous year.

If the total amount provided by clause (3)(c) is insufficient to make the payments herein required then the entitlement of $150 per pupil unit shall be reduced uniformly so as not to exceed the funds available. Any amounts received by a qualifying school district in any fiscal year pursuant to clause (3)(c) shall not be applied to reduce foundation aids which the district is entitled to receive pursuant to section 124.212 or the permissible levies of the district. Any amount remaining after the payments provided in this paragraph shall be paid to the commissioner of finance who shall deposit the same in the taconite environmental protection fund and the northeast Minnesota economic protection fund as provided in section 298.28, subdivision 1, clause 10.

(d) There shall be distributed to any school district the amount which the school district was entitled to receive under section 298.32 in 1975.

(4) 19.5 cents per taxable ton to counties to be distributed as follows:

(a) 15.5 cents per taxable ton shall be distributed to the county in which the taconite is mined or quarried or in which the concentrate is produced, less any amount which is to be distributed pursuant to part (b). The commissioner shall follow the apportionment formula prescribed in clause (1).

(b) If an electric power plant owned by and providing the primary source of power for a taxpayer mining and concentrating taconite is located in a county other than the county in which the mining and the concentrating processes are conducted, one cent per taxable ton of the tax distributed to the counties pursuant to part (a) and imposed on and collected from such taxpayer shall be distributed by the commissioner of revenue to the county in which the power plant is located.

(c) Four cents per taxable ton shall be paid to the county from which the taconite was mined, quarried or concentrated to be deposited in the county road and bridge fund. If the mining, quarrying and concentrating, or separate steps in any of those processes are carried on in more than one county, the commissioner shall follow the apportionment formula prescribed in clause (1).

(5) (a) 25.75 cents per taxable ton, less any amount required to be distributed under part (b), to the taconite property tax relief account in the apportionment fund in the state treasury, to be distributed as provided in sections 273.134 to 273.136.

(b) If an electric power plant owned by and providing the primary source of power for a taxpayer mining and concentrating taconite is located in a county other than the county in which the mining and the concentrating processes are conducted, .75 cent per taxable ton of the tax imposed and collected from such taxpayer shall be distributed by the commissioner of revenue to the county and school district in which the power plant is located as follows: 25 percent to the county and 75 percent to the school district.

(6) One cent per taxable ton to the state for the cost of administering the tax imposed by section 298.24.

(7) Three cents per taxable ton shall be deposited in the state treasury to the credit of the iron range resources and rehabilitation board account in the special revenue fund for the purposes of section 298.22. The amount determined in this clause shall be increased in 1981 and subsequent years in the same proportion as the increase in the steel mill products index as provided in section 298.24, subdivision 1. The amount distributed pursuant to this clause shall be expended within or for the benefit of a tax relief area defined in section 273.134. No part of the fund provided in this clause may be used to provide loans for the operation of private business unless the loan is approved by the governor and the legislative advisory commission.

(8) .20 cent per taxable ton shall be paid in 1979 and each year thereafter, to the range association of municipalities and schools, for the purpose of providing an area wide approach to problems which demand coordinated and cooperative actions and which are common to those areas of northeast Minnesota affected by operations involved in mining iron ore and taconite and producing concentrate therefrom, and for the purpose of promoting the general welfare and economic development of the cities, towns and school districts within the iron range area of northeast Minnesota.

(9) the amounts determined under clauses (4)(a), (4)(c), and (5) shall be increased in 1979 and subsequent years in the same proportion as the increase in the steel mill products index as provided in section 298.24, subdivision 1.

(10) the proceeds of the tax imposed by section 298.24 which remain after the distributions in clauses (1) to (9) and parts (a) and (b) of this clause have been made shall be divided between the taconite environmental protection fund created in section 298.223 and the northeast Minnesota economic protection fund created in section 298.292 as follows: In 1981 and each year thereafter, two-thirds to the taconite environmental protection fund and one-third to the northeast Minnesota economic protection fund. The proceeds shall be placed in the respective special accounts in the general fund.

(a) In 1978 and each year thereafter, there shall be distributed to each city, town, school district, and county the amount that they received under section 294.26 in calendar year 1977.

(b) In 1978 and each year thereafter, there shall be distributed to the iron range resources and rehabilitation board the amounts it received in 1977 under section 298.22.

On or before October 10 of each calendar year each producer of taconite or iron sulphides subject to taxation under section 298.24 (hereinafter called "taxpayer") shall file with the commissioner of revenue and with the county auditor of each county in which such taxpayer operates, and with the chief clerical officer of each school district, city or town which is entitled to participate in the distribution of the tax, an estimate of the amount of tax which would be payable by such taxpayer under said law for such calendar year; provided such estimate shall be in an amount not less than the amount due on the mining and production of concentrates up to September 30 of said year plus the amount becoming due because of probable production between September 30 and December 31 of said year, less any credit allowable as hereinafter provided. Such estimate shall list the taxing districts entitled to participate in the distribution of such tax, and the amount of the estimated tax which would be distributable to each such district in the next ensuing calendar year on the basis of the last percentage distribution certified by the commissioner of revenue. If there be no such prior certification, the taxpayer shall set forth its estimate of the proper distribution of such tax under the law, which estimate may be corrected by the commissioner if he deems it improper, notice of such correction being given by him to the taxpayer and the public officers receiving such estimate. The officers with whom such report is so filed shall use the amount so indicated as being distributable to each taxing district in computing the permissible tax levy of such county, city or school district in the year in which such estimate is made, and payable in the next ensuing calendar year, except that in 1978 and 1979 two cents per taxable ton, and in 1980 and thereafter, one cent per taxable ton of the amount distributed under clause (4)(c) shall not be deducted in calculating the permissible levy. Such taxpayer shall then pay, at the times payments are required to be made pursuant to section 298.27, as the amount of tax payable under section 298.24, the greater of (a) the amount shown by such estimate, or (b) the amount due under said section as finally determined by the commissioner of revenue pursuant to law. If, as a result of the payment of the amount of such estimate, the taxpayer has paid in any calendar year an amount of tax in excess of the amount due in such year under section 298.24, after application of credits for any excess payments made in previous years, all as determined by the commissioner of revenue, the taxpayer shall be given credit for such excess amount against any taxes which, under said section, may become due from the taxpayer in subsequent years. In any calendar year in which a general property tax levy subject to sections 275.125 or 275.50 to 275.59 has been made, if the taxes distributable to any such county, city or school district are greater than the amount estimated to be paid to any such county, city or school district in such year, the excess of such distribution shall be held in a special fund by the county, city or school district and shall not be expended until the succeeding calendar year, and shall be included in computing the permissible levies under sections 275.125 or 275.50 to 275.59, of such county, city or school district payable in such year. If the amounts distributable to any such county, city or school district, after final determination by the commissioner of revenue under this section are less than the amounts indicated by such estimates, such county, city or school district may issue certificates of indebtedness in the amount of the shortage, and may include in its next tax levy, in excess of the limitations of sections 275.125 or 275.50 to 275.59 an amount sufficient to pay such certificates of indebtedness and interest thereon, or, if no certificates were issued, an amount equal to such shortage.

There is hereby annually appropriated to such taxing districts as are stated herein, to the taconite property tax relief account and to the taconite municipal aid account in the apportionment fund in the state treasury, to the department of revenue, to the iron range resources and rehabilitation board, to the range association of municipalities and schools, to the taconite environmental protection fund, and to the northeast Minnesota economic protection fund, from any fund or account in the state treasury to which the money was credited, an amount sufficient to make the payment or transfer. The payment of the amount appropriated to such taxing districts shall be made by the commissioner of revenue on or before May 15 annually.

Sec. 16. [BASIC MAINTENANCE UNDERLEVIES.]

For the 1982-1983 and 1983-1984 school years, the deduction from basic foundation aid pursuant to Minnesota Statutes 1981 Supplement, Section 124.2128, Subdivision 1, shall be computed as though the basic maintenance mill rate for tax levies attributable to each of those school years were .023.

Sec. 17. [STATUTORY OPERATING DEBT EXCEPTION, 1983.]

Notwithstanding Minnesota Statutes 1980, Sections 121.914, Subdivision

2, and 121.917, for the purpose of determining school district expenditure limitations for fiscal year 1983, statutory operating debt shall be defined as operating debt that exceeds five percent of the district's expenditure amount for fiscal year 1983 for the funds considered under Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 121.914, Subdivision 1. A district in which the net negative unappropriated fund balance in the operating funds, exclusive of the statutory operating debt account, as of June 30, 1983 is less than five percent of the district's unappropriated operating fund expenditures for fiscal year 1983 shall not be considered to have exceeded its expenditure limits and shall not be required to submit the special operating plan required by Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 121.917, Subdivision 4. This section shall not be construed as altering statutory operating debt for fiscal years other than fiscal year 1983, or as altering the computation of the levies authorized in Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 275.125, Subdivision 9a, or Laws 1976, Chapter 20, Subdivision 4.

Sec. 18. [EFFECTIVE DATE.]

Sections 1, 11, 12, and 14 are effective the day following final enactment.

The department shall use the statewide pupil weighting factor for any transportation category for which a ~~region~~ district had no experience during the second prior school year.

Subd. 3. [FORMULA.] For each school year, the state shall pay to each school district for all pupil transportation and related services for which the district is authorized by law to receive state aid an amount determined according to this section. ~~A multiple regression formula shall be determined through stepwise~~ The department of education shall conduct multiple regression analysis ~~for each region by the department of education,~~ using the terms specified in subdivision 4a, to ~~maximize the amount of variance accounted for between the total actual authorized cost per weighted FTE for the second preceding school year and the total authorized predicted cost per weighted FTE for the second preceding school year~~ predict the base cost for each district. ~~The~~ A formula ~~determined for each region~~ *shall be derived based upon the regression analysis, but excluding the factors described in subdivision 4a, clauses (8), (9), and (10), except that in the 1982-1983 school year, these clauses shall not be excluded. ~~Subd. 6. [INFLATION FACTORS.] The total authorized predicted cost per weighted FTE determined for a district under subdivision 3 for 1979-1980 shall be increased by 26 percent. The total authorized predicted cost per weighted FTE determined for a district under subdivision 3 for 1980-1981 shall be increased by 22 percent.~~

Subd. 7a. [BASE YEAR SOFTENING FORMULA.] (1) Each district's ~~adjusted total authorized~~ predicted base cost ~~per weighted FTE~~ determined for each school year according to subdivision ~~6~~ 3 shall be ~~compared to~~ averaged with the ~~total actual expenditure per weighted FTE for authorized transportation~~ base cost for that district for that year to determine the district's ~~aid entitlement~~ adjusted authorized predicted cost per ~~weighted~~ FTE for that year.

(2) ~~If the adjusted total authorized predicted cost per weighted FTE is greater than the district's actual authorized expenditure per weighted FTE, its aid entitlement per weighted FTE shall equal the adjusted predicted cost per weighted FTE minus 20 percent of the first $10 of difference between the adjusted total authorized predicted cost per weighted FTE and the actual expenditure per weighted FTE; minus 40 percent of the next $10; 60 percent of the next $10; minus 75 percent of the difference which exceeds $30.~~

~~(3) If the adjusted total authorized predicted cost per weighted FTE is less than the district's actual authorized expenditure per weighted FTE, its aid entitlement per weighted FTE shall equal the adjusted total authorized predicted cost per weighted FTE plus 20 percent of the first $10 of difference between the adjusted predicted cost per weighted FTE and the actual expenditure per weighted FTE; plus 40 percent of the next $10; plus 60 percent of the next $10; plus 75 percent of the difference which exceeds $30.~~ Notwithstanding clause (1), for fiscal year 1983, the predicted base cost shall be adjusted as provided in this clause to determine adjusted authorized predicted cost per FTE for the base school year.

(a) If the predicted base cost exceeds the base cost, the predicted base cost shall be decreased by 50 percent of the first $40 of difference between the base cost and the predicted base cost; 70 percent of the next $40 of difference; and 90 percent of any difference which exceeds $80, to determine the adjusted authorized predicted cost per FTE.

(b) If the predicted base cost is less than the base cost, the predicted base cost shall be increased by 50 percent of the first $40 of difference between the base cost and the predicted base cost; 70 percent of the next $40 of difference; and 90 percent of any difference which exceeds $80, to determine the adjusted authorized predicted cost per FTE.

Subd. 7b. [INFLATION FACTORS.] The adjusted authorized predicted cost per FTE determined for a district under subdivision 7a for the base year shall be increased by 22 percent to determine the district's aid entitlement per FTE for the 1982-1983 school year.

Subd. 8a. [AID.] A district's transportation aid shall be equal to the sum of its basic transportation aid pursuant to subdivision 8b, its excess handicapped transportation aid pursuant to subdivision 8c, its handicapped board and lodging aid pursuant to subdivision 8d, its to and from board and lodging aid pursuant to subdivision 8e, its nonpublic support services transportation aid pursuant to subdivision 8f, its during-day transportation aid pursuant to subdivision 8g, and its closed-school transportation aid pursuant to subdivision 8h, minus the amount raised by two mills times the adjusted assessed valuation which is used to compute the transportation levy limitation for the levy attributable to that school year. A district may levy less than two mills. Transportation aid shall be computed as if the district had levied two mills. If the total appropriation for transportation aid in any fiscal year after 1982 is insufficient to pay all districts the full amount of aid earned, the department of education shall reduce each district's aid in proportion to the number of resident pupils in average daily membership in the district to the state total average daily membership, and shall reduce the aid entitlement of off-formula districts in the same proportion. Aid for the 1982-1983 and 1983-1984 school years shall be reduced by the following amount: the product of

(a) the number of nonhandicapped secondary pupils transported in the base year who live between one and two miles from the public school which they could attend or the nonpublic school actually attended, times

(b) 1.5, divided by the average distance to school for all FTE's transported in the district in the regular transportation category in the base year, times

(c) the district's aid entitlement per FTE determined according to subdivision 7b, times the ratio of average daily membership used in subdivision 8b.

Subd. ~~8a~~ 8b. [BASIC AID COMPUTATION.] ~~Beginning with the 1982-1983 school year~~ For the 1982-1983 and 1983-1984 school years, a district's basic transportation aid pursuant to this section for ~~each~~ the school year shall equal the district's aid entitlement per ~~weighted~~ FTE determined according to subdivision ~~7a~~ 7b times the total number of authorized weighted FTE's transported in the regular and handicapped transportation categories in the district in ~~that school~~ the base year~~, minus the amount raised by two mills times the adjusted assessed valuation which is used to compute the transportation levy limitation for the levy attributable to that school year~~ times the ratio of average daily membership in the district in the current year to the average daily membership in the district in the base year.

For the 1984-1985 school year and thereafter, a district's basic transportation aid pursuant to this section for each school year shall equal the district's aid entitlement per FTE determined according to subdivision 7b times the total number of authorized FTE's transported in the regular and handicapped categories in the district in the current school year.

Subd. ~~8b~~ 8c. [EXCESS HANDICAPPED AID.] (a) ~~In addition to the~~ ~~amount authorized in subdivision 8a,~~ For each school year, the state shall pay aid for the excess costs of providing transportation for handicapped students as provided in this subdivision to a district where~~:~~, in the current school year,

~~(1) the average daily membership in that year is 2,500 or fewer pupils,~~

~~(2) the total actual authorized expenditures exceed the aid entitlement, and~~

~~(3) the actual authorized expenditure per weighted FTE in the handicapped and board and lodging categories exceeds 140 percent of the aid entitlement per weighted handicapped and board and lodging FTE~~ the ratio of FTE's transported in the handicapped category to the total number of FTE's transported in the regular transportation category exceeds the same ratio for the state as a whole.

(b) This aid shall equal ~~80 percent of the difference between~~:

~~(1) the district's actual authorized expenditures for transporting handicapped and board and lodging FTE's and~~

~~(2) 140 percent of the district's aid entitlement for transportation of handicapped and board and lodging FTE's.~~

~~(3) For purposes of the computation of aid pursuant to this subdivision, the amounts of the actual authorized expenditure and the aid entitlement shall exclude amounts attributable to depreciation. Aid pursuant to this subdivision shall not exceed the difference between the district's total actual authorized expenditures and its total aid entitlement.~~

the product of the percent excess handicapped FTE's transported, times the difference between

(1) the district's actual cost for transportation of all pupils in the handicapped category in the current year, and

(2) the product of

(i) the district's aid entitlement per FTE determined according to subdivision 7b, times

(ii) the number of FTE's transported in the handicapped category in the district in the current year.

Provided that for the 1982-1983 and 1983-1984 school years, the number in (2)(ii) above shall be replaced by the following computation: the product of the number of FTE's transported in the handicapped category in the district in the base year, times its pupil weighting factor for the handicapped category, times the ratio of average daily membership in the district in the current year to average daily membership in the district in the base year.

Subd. 8d. [HANDICAPPED BOARD AND LODGING AID.] For board and lodging of handicapped pupils, each district shall receive aid equal to the product of the number of FTE pupils boarded and lodged in the current year in the district in this transportation category, times the average of

(a) the state average board and lodging cost per FTE pupil boarded and lodged in the base year, times the inflation factor for that year prescribed in subdivision 7b; and

(b) the district's actual cost per FTE pupil boarded and lodged in the current year.

Subd. 8e. [TO AND FROM BOARD AND LODGING.] For transportation of handicapped pupils to and from board and lodging facilities, the state shall pay aid to each district for each year equal to the lesser of

(a) the sum of the distance in miles from the home of each pupil transported in this category to the board and lodging facility, times 36, times 24 cents; or

(b) the average of the amount in (a) and the district's actual cost for all transportation in this category in the current year.

Subd. 8f. [NONPUBLIC SUPPORT SERVICES AID.] For the 1982-1983 and 1983-1984 school years, a district's nonpublic support services transportation aid shall equal the district's aid entitlement per FTE determined according to subdivision 7b, times its pupil weighting factor for the nonpublic support services transportation category, times the number of FTE pupils transported in the nonpublic support services category in the district in the base year, times the ratio of average daily membership in the district in the current year to average daily membership in the district in the base year. For the 1984-1985 school year and thereafter, a district's nonpublic support services transportation aid shall equal the district's aid entitlement per FTE determined according to subdivision 7b, times its pupil weighting factor for the nonpublic support services transportation category, times the number of FTE's transported in that category in the current year.

Subd. 8g. [DURING-DAY TRANSPORTATION AID.] For the 1982-1983 and 1983-1984 school years, a district's during-day transportation aid shall equal the district's aid entitlement per FTE determined according to subdivision 7b, times its pupil weighting factor for the during-day transportation category, times the number of FTE's transported in the during-day transportation category in the base year, times the ratio of average daily membership in the district in the current year to average daily membership in the district in the base year. For the 1984-1985 school year and thereafter, a district's during-day transportation aid shall equal the district's aid entitlement per FTE determined according to subdivision 7b, times its pupil weighting factor for the during-day transportation category, times the number of FTE's transported in the during-day transportation category in the current year.

Subd. 8h. [CLOSED-SCHOOL TRANSPORTATION AID.] For the 1982-1983 and 1983-1984 school years, a district's closed-school transportation aid shall equal the district's aid entitlement per FTE determined according to subdivision 7b, times the number of authorized FTE's transported in the regular category in the current school year who were not transported in the base year and would not have been transported in the current year but for school closings or altered school attendance boundaries. The total amount of transportation aid computed pursuant to this subdivision in each year shall not exceed $2,000,000. If this amount is insufficient to pay each qualifying district its full amount of aid pursuant to this subdivision, this amount shall be prorated among all qualifying districts in proportion to each district's number of FTE's for whom aid is claimed under this subdivision.

Subd. 9. [DISTRICT REPORTS.] Each district shall report data to the department ~~before July 1 of each year an estimate for the next school year of the total number of FTE's transported by transportation category and an estimate~~ ~~of the district's total actual authorized transportation expenditure by transportation category~~ as required by the department to implement the transportation aid formula. ~~The district's aid shall be determined for purposes of the first three transportation aid payments for the school year using these estimates. Before August 15 each year, each district shall provide the department with the information for the preceding school year which the department determines is necessary to compute the district's actual authorized expenditure per weighted FTE for purposes of the computation in subdivision 7a and the district's actual total number of weighted FTE's transported for purposes of the aid computation in subdivision 8a. The district's final transportation aid payment for the school year shall be based on these computations.~~ If a district's final transportation aid payment is adjusted after the final aid payment has been made to all districts, the adjustment shall be made by increasing or decreasing the district's aid for the next fiscal year.

Subd. 10. Any school district which owns school buses or mobile units shall transfer annually from the unappropriated fund balance account in its transportation fund to the appropriated fund balance account for bus purchases in its transportation fund at least an amount equal to 12-1/2 percent of the original cost of each type one or type two bus or mobile unit until the original cost of each type one or type two bus or mobile unit is fully amortized, plus 20 percent of the original cost of each type three bus included in the district's authorized cost under the provisions of subdivision 1, clause (b)(4), until the original cost of each type three bus is fully amortized, plus 33-1/3 percent of the cost to the district as of July 1 of each year for school bus reconditioning done by the department of corrections until the cost of the reconditioning is fully amortized*; provided, if the district's transportation aid is reduced pursuant to subdivision 8a because the appropriation for that year is insufficient, this amount shall be reduced in proportion to the reduction pursuant to subdivision 8a as a percentage of the sum of*

(1) the district's total transportation aid without the reduction pursuant to subdivision 8a, plus

(2) an amount equal to two mills times the adjusted assessed valuation of the district. Any school district may transfer any amount from the unappropriated fund balance account in its transportation fund to any other operating fund or to the appropriated fund balance account for bus purchases in its transportation fund.

Subd. 11. [PAYMENT SCHEDULE THROUGH 1982.] Except as may be otherwise authorized by the commissioner to accommodate a flexible school year program, for fiscal years through 1982, the state shall pay to each school district 30 percent of its estimated school transportation aid ~~entitlement~~ for the fiscal year on or before each of the following dates: August 31, December 31, and March 31. The final aid distribution to each district shall be made on or before October 31 of the following fiscal year.

Subd. 12. [PAYMENT SCHEDULE.] Except as may be otherwise authorized by the commissioner to accommodate a flexible school year program, starting in fiscal year 1983, the state shall pay each school district its estimated school transportation aid ~~entitlement~~ for the fiscal year according to the following schedule: 30 percent by August 31; 30 percent by December 31; and 25 percent by March 31. The final aid distribution to each district shall be made by

Sec. 4. Minnesota Statutes 1981 Supplement, Section 275.125, Subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [DEFINITIONS.] Except as may otherwise be provided in this section, the words and phrases defined in sections 124.01, 124.212, 124.20 ~~and~~, 124.2121 to 124.2125, 124.225, and section 7 of Article III when used in this section shall have the meanings ascribed to them in those sections.

Sec. 5. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 275.125, Subdivision 5, as amended by Laws 1981, Third Special Session Chapter 2, Article II, Section 10, is amended to read:

Subd. 5. [TRANSPORTATION LEVY.] For school transportation services, a school district may levy an amount not to exceed the amount raised by a levy of two mills times the adjusted assessed valuation of the taxable property of the district for the preceding year. A district may also levy under this subdivision for the amount necessary to eliminate any projected deficit in the appropriated fund balance account for bus purchases in its transportation fund as of June 30 in the school year when the levy is recognized as revenue. A district which contracts for pupil transportation services may also levy an amount equal to $18 times the number of FTE pupils transported on contracted school buses in the preceding school year in the regular transportation category, which shall be placed in the transportation fund and used for any lawful purpose. A district may levy an amount equal to the estimated cost, in the school year beginning in the year in which the levy is certified, of transporting secondary pupils to and from school who live more than one mile but less than two miles from the public school which they could attend or from a nonpublic school actually attended. A district may also levy for transportation costs or other related services which are ~~approved by the commissioner as~~ necessary because of extraordinary traffic hazards for the ~~current fiscal~~ next school year. Levies authorized by this subdivision shall be computed according to procedures established by the commissioner.

Sec. 6. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 275.125, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 5b. [TRANSPORTATION LEVY OFF-FORMULA ADJUSTMENT.] In any fiscal year in which the transportation levy in a district attributable to that fiscal year of two mills times the adjusted assessed valuation of the district exceeds the transportation aid computation under section 124.225, subdivisions 8b, 8c, 8d, 8e, 8f, 8g, and 8h, the district's transportation levy limitation shall be adjusted as provided in this subdivision. In the year following that fiscal year, the district's transportation levy shall be reduced by an amount equal to the difference between (1) two mills times the adjusted assessed valuation of the district, and (2) the sum of the district's transportation aid computation pursuant to section 124.225, subdivisions 8b, 8c, 8d, 8e, 8f, 8g, and 8h, less the amount of any aid reduction due to an insufficient appropriation as provided in section 124.225, subdivision 8a. For the levies certified in 1983 and 1984, the following additional amount shall be subtracted:

the product of

(a) the number of nonhandicapped secondary pupils transported in the base

year who live between one and two miles from the public school which they could attend or the nonpublic school actually attended, times

(b) 1.5, divided by the average distance to school for all FTE's transported in the district in the regular transportation category in the base year, times

(c) the district's aid entitlement per FTE determined according to section 124.225, subdivision 7b, times the ratio of average daily membership in the district in the current year to average daily membership in the district in the base year.

Sec. 7. [ADDITIONAL TRANSPORTATION LEVY, 1982.]

In 1982 only, a district may levy for transportation costs or other related services which are necessary because of extraordinary traffic hazards for the 1982-1983 school year. Levies authorized by this section shall be computed according to procedures established by the commissioner.

Sec. 8. Laws 1981, Chapter 358, Article II, Section 15, Subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [CANCELLATION.] Any unexpended balance remaining from the appropriation in this section for 1982 shall cancel and shall not be available for the second year of the biennium. None of the amounts appropriated in this section shall be expended for a purpose other than the purpose indicated. If the appropriation amount attributable to ~~either~~ the 1981-1982 school year for any purposes indicated is insufficient, the aid for that year shall be prorated among all qualifying districts in proportion to the sum of aid earned by each district, plus an amount equal to the amount raised by one mill times the 1979 adjusted assessed valuation of the district. The state shall not be obligated for any amounts in excess of the total appropriations in ~~this section~~ Laws 1981, Chapter 358, Article II, Section 15.

Sec. 9. [REPEALER.]

Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 121.96 is repealed.

Pursuant to Rule 49, the Committee on Rules and Administration recommends that H.F. No. 2065 be amended as follows:

DURES; REGULATION.]

Subdivision 1. [DEFINITIONS.] For the purposes of this section, the following terms have the meanings given, unless the specific context indicates otherwise.

(a) "Aversive procedure" means application by a facility staff person of noxious or painful stimuli, conditions, or activities.

(b) "Deprivation procedure" means withdrawal, withholding, or delaying by a facility staff person goods, services, activities, interpersonal contacts, or other rights or benefits to which a consumer is otherwise entitled.

Aversive and deprivation procedures do not include medical procedures or medication prescribed by a physician unless specifically intended to change behavior through imposition of pain or physical discomfort.

(c) "Facility" means a day care or residential facility for mentally retarded persons that is required to be licensed under sections 245.781 to 245.812.

(d) "Consumer" means an individual who resides at or receives services from a facility.

(e) "Substitute consent" means informed consent of a minor's parent or guardian, a guardian of the person of a ward, or a conservator of the person of a conservatee, who has legal authority to make decisions about aversive and deprivation procedures.

(f) "Facility staff person" means an owner, operator, or employee of a facility or volunteer or other person who provides services at a facility, or a person acting under the direction and control of such a person at or for the facility.

(g) "Mechanical restraint" means all forms of restraint used to restrict the movement of an individual or the movement or normal function of a portion of the individual's body, administered as part of a behaviorally contingent program. The term does not include time out from reinforcement.

Subd. 2. [IMMEDIATE HARM PREVENTION.] This section shall not be construed to prohibit facility staff from taking reasonable actions that are not prohibited by subdivision 4, clause (d), to prevent immediate bodily harm to consumers or others or to control severely disruptive behavior. If these reasonable actions are repeated, they are subject to all provisions of this section.

Subd. 3. [RULES.] The commissioner of public welfare shall promulgate rules governing approval, administration, monitoring, and evaluation of aversive and deprivation procedures to consumers in or by facilities in accordance with this section. No provision of these rules shall encourage or require the use of aversive or deprivation procedures. The rules:

(a) May designate public facilities under control of the commissioner as the location of the regional review committees established pursuant to subdivision 4, clause (d)(2);

(b) Shall prohibit the application of any aversive or deprivation procedures listed in subdivision 4, clause (d) in facilities except as authorized and monitored by the designated regional review committees under control of the commissioner;

(c) Shall authorize designated public regional facilities to provide consultation to private facilities regarding the provision of aversive or deprivation procedures;

(d) May specify protection for consumers or facilities in addition to, or more stringent than, required by this section;

(e) Shall specify minimum levels of competency required of individuals who design, administer, supervise, or approve administration of aversive or deprivation procedures. The levels of competency shall be sufficient to ensure safe and proper use of procedures and protection of consumers' rights;

(f) Shall specify or establish a system or systems, as the commissioner deems appropriate, for prior approval and monitoring of aversive and deprivation procedures proposed or administered by facilities. The system or systems shall be sufficient to ensure that consumers' rights are protected in administration of aversive and deprivation procedures and shall address, but not be limited to, issues of consent, denial of consent, and right to treatment. Where the facility has an operative interdisciplinary team, that team shall be involved in the system for monitoring and approval of aversive and deprivation procedures;

(g) Shall specify or establish processes to ensure that aversive and deprivation procedures used with respect to any consumer are monitored to determine their effectiveness in achieving stated behavior goals or treatment objectives, and that known possible side effects either do not occur or, if they are unavoidable, are anticipated, monitored, and minimized; and

(h) Shall include provisions to ensure that aversive and deprivation procedures are used only when necessary and expected to be effective in reaching agreed upon behavior goals and only as part of the consumer's treatment plan. A "behavioral treatment plan" is a plan designed to improve the consumer's behavior and should include treatment measures involving positive reinforcement and other appropriate psychological procedures. Aversive or deprivation procedures may be used only when positive procedures are not effective.

The commissioner may, by rule, classify aversive or deprivation procedures according to intrusiveness, risk involved, or otherwise and may specify different qualifications, systems, and safeguards for procedures in each classification. The commissioner shall ensure that consumers and their advocates are notified and allowed to participate in developing the rules, in accordance with the administrative procedures act, sections 15.041 to 15.052. The commissioner may further define the provisions of subdivision 4 by rule.

Subd. 4. [PROHIBITED PRACTICES.] Any owner, operator, or employee of a facility or volunteer or other person who provides services at a facility shall not subject a consumer to aversive or deprivation procedures:

(a) Except in accordance with any rules promulgated pursuant to subdivision 3;

(b) Unless the consumer or an individual authorized by law to give substitute consent has given informed consent in writing. "Informed consent" means that, at minimum, the nature of the proposed procedure, the risks and anticipated benefits, and the consequences of giving or withholding consent are explained orally and in writing in a manner that is understandable to the consumer or the individual authorized to give substitute consent. Consent may be withdrawn at any time by written revocation. A facility shall not deny services to a consumer solely because the consumer or individual authorized to give substitute consent has refused to consent to aversive or deprivation procedures. Nothing in this paragraph shall be construed to limit a facility's discretion to deny services for reasons, other than failure to consent, permitted by applicable law and rule;

(c) That restrict, or threaten restriction of, the consumer's normal access to a nutritious diet, decent air to breathe, decent water to drink, appropriate sleeping conditions, medical care and satisfaction of medically determined needs, equipment, facilities, and services needed to maintain personal hygiene, available advocates, legal counsel, and next of kin, safety from physical harm, satisfactory shelter, satisfactory environmental temperature, and suitable clothing;

(d) That use or threaten use of noxious food, noxious air, noxious water, mechanical restraint, pain or physical discomfort caused by contact with the consumer's body, or substantial or frequent disruption of the consumer's daily routine of eating, sleeping, or habilitational or rehabilitational activities, unless:

(1) The consumer or an individual authorized to give substitute consent has given informed consent; and

(2) If regional review committees have been established, the proposal to administer the procedure to the consumer has been reviewed and approved by a regional review committee. The commissioner shall appoint all members of the committee and shall appoint two persons qualified to design and administer procedures using the substances or methods described in subdivision 4, clause (e), and one or more of the following: treatment and training staff, a medical director, program director or team member, a consumer advocate, a consumer, an objective observer, and an attorney knowledgeable in protection of consumers' rights. No member of the committee shall participate in proceedings relating to any proposal with which the member has any potential for conflict of interest;

(e) Except for purposes of treatment, behavior management, or protection; and

(f) Except in accordance with a previously written and approved plan for administering the procedures to the consumer that is monitored in accordance with subdivision 4.

Subd. 5. [INJUNCTION.] A consumer has a civil cause of action against any facility or person who violates or permits a violation of subdivision 4 for injunctive relief. The court shall award reasonable attorney's fees and costs to any consumer awarded injunctive relief under this section.

Sec. 2. [RULES.]

The commissioner of public welfare shall promulgate, no later than October 1, 1983, permanent rules to implement the provisions of section 1.

Sec. 3. [EFFECTIVE DATE.]

Sections 1 and 2 are effective on August 1, 1982."

Amend the title as follows:

Page 1, line 4, before the semicolon, insert "in order that the procedures are appropriately selected, planned, and implemented with due regard for human rights and needs"

And when so amended H.F. No. 2065 will be identical to S.F. No. 1928, and further recommends that H.F. No. 2065 be given its second reading and substituted for S.F. No. 1928, and that the Senate File be indefinitely postponed.

CONFERENCE COMMITTEE REPORT ON S.F. NO. 1621

The Honorable Jack Davies
President of the Senate

The Honorable Harry A. Sieben, Jr.
Speaker of the House of Representatives

We, the undersigned conferees for S.F. No. 1621, report that we have agreed upon the items in dispute and recommend as follows:

That the House recede from its amendments and that S.F. No. 1621 be further amended as follows:

Delete everything after the enacting clause and insert:

"Section 1. Minnesota Statutes 1981 Supplement, Section 16.756, Subdivision 1a, is amended to read:

Subd. 1a. State and other public employees and their spouses ~~who live or work outside the metropolitan area~~ and other people who work in buildings owned or leased by the state shall also be eligible for the employee transportation program established through this section; provided, however, that the driver and substitute driver of every van pool are state employees; and provided, further, that state employees constitute a majority of the members of every van pool. Available space in van pools must, whenever possible, be filled by state employees.

Sec. 2. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 394.22, Subdivision 12, is amended to read:

Subd. 12. "Official map" means a map adopted in accordance with section 394.361 which may show existing county roads and county state aid highways, proposed future county roads and highways ~~and~~, the area needed for widening existing county roads and highways, and existing and future state trunk highway rights of way. An official map may also show the location of existing public land and facilities and other land needed for future public purposes, including public facilities such as parks, playgrounds, schools, and other public buildings, civic centers, and travel service facilities. When requested in accordance with section 394.32, subdivision 3, an official map may include existing and planned public land uses within incorporated areas.

Sec. 3. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 462.352, Subdivision 10, is amended to read:

Subd. 10. "Official map" means a map adopted in accordance with section 462.359 ~~showing~~ which may show existing ~~streets,~~ and proposed future streets ~~and~~, roads, and highways of the municipality and county, the area needed for widening of existing streets, roads, and highways of the municipality and county, and existing and future county state aid highways and state trunk highway rights of way. An official map may also show the location of existing and future public land and facilities within the municipality. In counties in the metropolitan area as defined in section ~~473.122~~ 473.121, official maps may for a period of up to five years designate the boundaries of areas reserved for purposes of soil conservation, water supply conservation, flood control and surface water drainage and removal including appropriate regulations protecting such areas against encroachment by buildings, other physical structures or facilities.

Sec. 4. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 473.167, is amended to read:

473.167 [~~APPROVAL OF~~ HIGHWAY PROJECTS.]

Subdivision 1. [CONTROLLED ACCESS HIGHWAYS; COUNCIL APPROVAL.] Before acquiring land for or constructing a controlled access highway in the area, hereinafter a project, the state transportation department or local government unit proposing such acquisition or construction shall submit to the council a statement describing the proposed project. The statement shall be in the form and detail required by the council. Immediately upon receipt of the statement, the council shall transmit a copy to the metropolitan transit commission, which shall review and evaluate the project in relationship to the development program and report its recommendations and comments to the council. The council shall also review the statement to ascertain its consistency with its policy plan and the development guide. No such project may be undertaken unless the council determines that it is consistent with the policy plan and development program. This approval shall be in addition to the requirements of any other statute, ordinance or regulation.

Subd. 2. [LOANS FOR ACQUISITION.] The council may make loans to counties, towns, and statutory and home rule charter cities within the metropolitan area for the purchase of property within the right-of-way of a state trunk highway shown on an official map adopted pursuant to section 394.361 or 462.359 or for the purchase of property within the proposed right-of-way of a principal or intermediate arterial highway designated by the council as a part of the metropolitan highway system plan and approved by the council pursuant to subdivision 1. The loans shall be made by the council, from the fund established pursuant to this subdivision, for purchases approved by the council. The loans shall bear no interest. The council shall make loans only to avert the imminent conversion or the granting of approvals which would allow the conversion of property to uses which would jeopardize its availability for highway construction. The council shall not make loans for the purchase of property at a price which exceeds the fair market value of the property or which includes the costs of relocating or moving persons or property. A private property owner may elect to receive the purchase price either in a lump sum or in not more than four annual installments without interest on the deferred installments. If the purchase agreement provides for installment payments, the council shall make the loan in installments corresponding to those in the purchase agreement. The recipient of an acquisition loan shall convey the property for the construction of the highway at the same price which the recipient paid for the property. Upon notification by the council that the plan to construct the highway has been abandoned or the anticipated location of the highway changed, the recipient shall sell the property at market value in accordance with the procedures required for the disposition of the property. All rents and other money received because of the recipient's ownership of the property and all proceeds from the conveyance or sale of the property shall be paid to the council. The proceeds of the tax authorized by subdivision 3, all money paid to the council by recipients of loans, and all interest on the proceeds and payments shall be maintained as a separate fund. For administration of the loan program the council may expend from the fund each year an amount no greater than three percent of the amount that a metropolitan area tax levy of five one-hundredths of a mill would raise in that year.

Subd. 3. [TAX.] The council may levy a tax on all taxable property in the metropolitan area, as defined in section 473.121, to provide funds for loans made pursuant to subdivision 2. The tax shall be certified by the council, levied, and collected in the manner provided by section 473.08. The tax shall be in addition to that authorized by section 473.249 and any other law and shall not affect the amount or rate of taxes which may be levied by the council or any metropolitan agency or local governmental unit. The amount of the levy shall be as determined and certified by the council, except as otherwise provided in this subdivision. The tax shall not be levied at a rate higher than five one-hundredths of one mill. The tax shall not be levied at a rate higher than that determined by the council to be sufficient, considering the other anticipated revenues of and disbursements from the loan fund, to produce a balance in the loan fund at the end of the next calendar year equal to twice the amount that a tax levy of five one-hundredths of a mill would raise in that year.

Sec. 5. [APPROPRIATION; AMTRAK.]

$200,000 is appropriated from the general fund to the commissioner of transportation to assist the Amtrak North Star Line. This appropriation is available until June 30, 1983. Receipts from gifts, grants, and other contributions from public and private sources for the North Star Line are also appropriated to the commissioner of transportation for that purpose for the period ending June 30, 1983.

Sec. 6. [EFFECTIVE DATE.]

Sections 1 and 5 are effective the day after final enactment. Section 4 is effective in the counties of Anoka, Carver, Dakota, Hennepin, Ramsey, Scott, and Washington.''

Delete the title and insert:

''A bill for an act relating to transportation; changing eligibility for a state transportation program; providing for transportation information on official maps; providing conditions for purchase of land for transportation facilities; appropriating money for the Amtrak North Star Line; amending Minnesota Statutes 1980, Sections 394.22, Subdivision 12; 462.352, Subdivision 10; and 473.167; and Minnesota Statutes 1981 Supplement, Section 16.756, Subdivision 1a.''

We request adoption of this report and repassage of the bill.

Subd. 2. [FINDINGS, REPORT.] *Whenever a placement of a child outside of the state of Minnesota is made pursuant to subdivision 1, the court shall make written findings of fact and conclusions of law on the issue of the necessity for the out-of-state placement. Sec. 17. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 260.315, is amended to read:

260.315 [CONTRIBUTING TO NEGLECT OR DELINQUENCY.]

Subdivision 1. [ACTS CONSTITUTING.] Any person who by act, word or omission encourages, causes or contributes to the neglect or delinquency of a child, and ~~such~~ the act, word or omission is not by other provisions of law declared to be a felony, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor. A person may be charged and convicted under this section although the child involved is not the subject of a delinquency or neglect proceeding.

Subd. 2. [EVIDENCE.] In determining whether a person has contributed to the neglect or delinquency of a minor, the court may consider evidence, including but not limited to the following:

(a) That the person harbored the child within the person's home for more than 24 hours, with knowledge that the child did not have his parent's, guardian's, or other custodian's consent to be there, without making a reasonable effort to notify the child's parent, guardian, or other custodian of the child's whereabouts;

(b) That the person charged intentionally assisted the child to absent from his or her home or other lawful placement without the consent of the child's parent, guardian, or other custodian by providing the child with transportation, food, shelter, or financial assistance to enable the child to absent.

Clauses (a) and (b) shall not apply to a shelter for runaways licensed by the commissioner of public welfare, which makes a reasonable effort to notify the parent or guardian of a runaway child within 24 hours after the child arrives at the shelter. A licensed shelter for runaways is not required to transport a child to his or her parents or to refuse shelter to a child even if the child's parent refuses to consent to the child's remaining at the shelter, but may permit the parent to remove the child from the shelter.

Subd. 3. [DEFENSE.] If the wrongful conduct alleged as contributing to delinquency is harboring a child without the parent's, guardian's, or custodian's consent, it shall be a defense to a charge of contributing to the delinquency of a child that the person charged harbored the child in the person's home solely because the person reasonably believed that the child had been physically or sexually abused by the child's parent, guardian or other custodian; or by a person known to the parent, guardian, or other custodian and the parent, guardian, or other custodian failed or refused to report the abuse to proper authorities.

Sec. 18. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 540.18, is amended to read:

Nothing in this subdivision shall be construed to relieve ~~such~~ the minor from personal liability for ~~such~~ the injury or damage. The liability provided in this subdivision is in addition to and not in lieu of any other liability which may exist at law. Recovery under this section shall be limited to special damages.

Subd. 1a. [TOTAL LIABILITY.] The liability limit of $1,000 in subdivision 1 means that the combined liability of both parents or all guardians in the case where the child is living with two parents or more than one guardian at the time of the injury shall not exceed $1,000.

Subd. 1b. [ACCESS TO JUVENILE COURT RECORDS.] Notwithstanding the provisions of section 260.161, except when an action is brought in conciliation court, a person who brings an action or asserts a counterclaim or cross-claim against a person for civil damages under subdivision 1 may make a motion to the court in which the action was filed for permission to inspect the juvenile court records, if any, relating to the act which caused the injury for which the civil damages are claimed. The juvenile court shall make these records available to the court in which the civil action is pending, or certify to the court that no such record exists. The court in which the civil action is pending shall make an in camera inspection of those records and determine whether or not the interests of justice require that all or a portion of those records be disclosed to the moving party to obtain evidence to prove his or her claim or defense.

If the court decides that all or a portion of the juvenile court records should be disclosed to the moving party, the court may make any protective order it deems necessary to protect the confidentiality of the contents of the records.

"Sec. 8. Minnesota Statutes 1981 Supplement, Section 256B.06, Subdivision 1, as amended by Laws 1981, Third Special Session Chapter 2, Article I, Section 32, and Chapter 3, Section 17, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. Medical assistance may be paid for any person:

(1) Who is eligible for or receiving public assistance, or a woman who is pregnant, as medically verified, and who would be eligible for assistance under the aid to families with dependent children program if the child had been born and living with the woman; or

(2) Who is eligible for or receiving supplemental security income for the aged, blind and disabled; or

(3) Who except for the amount of income or resources would qualify for supplemental security income for the aged, blind and disabled, or aid to families with dependent children and is in need of medical assistance; or

(4) Who is under 21 years of age and in need of medical care that neither he nor his relatives responsible under sections 256B.01 to 256B.26 are financially able to provide; or

(5) Who is residing in a hospital for treatment of mental disease or tuberculosis and is 65 years of age or older and without means sufficient to pay the per capita hospital charge; and

(7) Who alone, or together with his spouse, does not own real property other than the homestead. For the purposes of this section, ''homestead'' means the house owned and occupied by the applicant as his dwelling place, together with the land upon which it is situated and an area no greater than two contiguous lots in a platted or laid out city or town or 80 contiguous acres in unplatted land. Occupancy or exemption shall be determined as provided in chapter 510 and applicable law, including continuing exemption by filing notice under section 510.07. Real estate not used as a home may not be retained unless it produces net income applicable to the family's needs or the family is making a continuing effort to sell it at a fair and reasonable price or unless sale of the real estate would net an insignificant amount of income applicable to the family's needs, or unless the commissioner determines that sale of the real estate would cause undue hardship; and

(8) Who individually does not own more than $2,000 in cash or liquid assets, or if a member of a household with two family members (husband and wife, or parent and child), does not own more than $4,000 in cash or liquid assets, plus $200 for each additional legal dependent. When only one spouse resides, or will reside after applying for medical assistance, in a nursing home, or is receiving or will receive alternative care under the alternative care grants program in a county with preadmission screening under section 256B.091, the cash or liquid asset amount for two family members is $10,000; provided that, if a federal court holds that this sentence does not comply with Title XIX of the Social Security Act, 42 United States Code, Sections 1396 to 1396n, this sentence shall cease to be effective. The value of the following shall not be included:

(a) the homestead, and (b) one motor vehicle licensed pursuant to chapter 168 and defined as: (1) passenger automobile, (2) station wagon, (3) motorcycle, (4) motorized bicycle or (5) truck of the weight found in categories A to E, of section 168.013, subdivision 1e; and

(9) Who has or anticipates receiving an annual income not in excess of $2,600 for a single person, or $3,250 for two family members (husband and wife, parent and child, or two siblings), plus $625 for each additional legal dependent, or who has income in excess of these maxima and in the month of application, or during the three months prior to the month of application, incurs expenses for medical care that total more than one-half of the annual excess income in accordance with the regulations of the state agency. In computing income to determine eligibility of persons who are not residents of long term care facilities, the commissioner shall disregard increases in income of social security or supplementary security income recipients due solely to increases required by sections 215(i) and 1617 of the social security act, and shall disregard income of disabled persons that is also disregarded in determining eligibility for supplemental aid under section 256D.37, subdivision 1, unless prohibited by federal law or regulation. If prohibited, the commissioner shall first seek a waiver. In excess income cases, eligibility shall be limited to a period of six months beginning with the first of the month in which these medical obligations are first incurred; and

be made to cover the monthly unmet medical need. In licensed nursing home and state hospital cases, income over and above that required for justified needs, determined pursuant to a schedule of contributions established by the commissioner of public welfare, is to be applied to the cost of institutional care. The commissioner of public welfare may establish a schedule of contributions to be made by the spouse of a nursing home resident to the cost of care and shall seek a waiver from federal regulations which establish the amount required to be contributed by either spouse when one spouse is a nursing home resident; and

(11) Who has applied or agrees to apply all proceeds received or receivable by him or his spouse from automobile accident coverage and private health care coverage to the costs of medical care for himself, his spouse, and children. The state agency may require from any applicant or recipient of medical assistance the assignment of any rights accruing under private health care coverage. Any rights or amounts so assigned shall be applied against the cost of medical care paid for under this chapter. Any assignment shall not be effective as to benefits paid or provided under automobile accident coverage and private health care coverage prior to receipt of the assignment by the person or organization providing the benefits.''

Sec. 5. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 368.01, Subdivision 30, is amended to read:

Subd. 30. [NOTICE TO COUNTY AUDITOR AND SECRETARY OF STATE.] The town clerk of each town exercising special powers pursuant to this section shall so notify in writing the county auditor of the county ~~wherein such~~ in which the town is located and the secretary of state. The written notice shall be filed by the county auditor and the secretary of state as a public record.

Sec. 6. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 368.01, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 31. [CONTINUING AUTHORITY TO EXERCISE POWERS.] If a town exercises a power pursuant to this section it may continue to exercise the power notwithstanding any subsequent change in population.

Sec. 7. [NOTICE.]

A town exercising a power pursuant to Minnesota Statutes, Section 368.01 on or before the effective date of this act which has not notified the county auditor of the county in which the town is located shall do so and shall notify the secretary of state as provided in Minnesota Statutes, Section 368.01, Subdivision 30.

Sec. 8. [375B.01] [COUNTIES; SUBORDINATE GOVERNMENTAL SERVICE DISTRICTS; PURPOSE.]

It is the purpose of this act to provide a means by which a county as a unit of general local government can effectively provide and finance various governmental services for its residents.

Sec. 9. [375B.02] [DEFINITION.]

"Subordinate service district" means a compact and contiguous district within the county in which one or more governmental services or additions to countywide services are provided by the county and financed from revenues secured from within that district. The boundaries of a single subordinate service district may not embrace an entire county.

Sec. 10. [375B.03] [ESTABLISHMENT OF SERVICE DISTRICTS.]

Notwithstanding any provision of law requiring uniform property tax rates on real or personal property within the county, any county in this state, except a metropolitan county as defined in section 473.121, subdivision 4, and any other county containing a city of the first class, may establish subordinate service districts to provide and finance any governmental service or function which it is otherwise authorized to undertake. A function or service to be provided shall not include a function or service which the county generally provides throughout the county unless an increase in the level of the service is to be supplied in the service district.

Sec. 11. [375B.04] [CREATION BY COUNTY BOARD.]

The county board of commissioners of any county, except a metropolitan county as defined in section 473.121, subdivision 4, and any other county containing a city of the first class, may establish a subordinate service district in a portion of the county by adoption of an appropriate resolution. Before the adoption of the resolution, the county board shall hold a public hearing on the question of whether or not a subordinate service district shall be established. The resolution shall specify the service or services to be provided within the subordinate service district and shall specify the territorial boundaries of the district.

Sec. 12. [375B.05] [CREATION BY PETITION.]

Subdivision 1. [PETITION.] A petition signed by ten percent of the qualified voters within the portion of the county proposed for the subordinate service district may be submitted to the county board requesting the establishment of a subordinate county service district to provide any service or services which the county is otherwise authorized by law to provide. The petition shall include the territorial boundaries of the proposed district and shall specify the types of services to be provided within the district.

Subd. 2. [PUBLIC HEARING.] Upon receipt of the petition, and verification of the signatures by the county auditor, the county board shall, within 30 days following verification, hold a public hearing on the question of whether or not the requested district shall be established.

Subd. 3. [APPROVAL; DISAPPROVAL.] Within 30 days following the holding of a public hearing, the county board, by resolution, shall approve or disapprove the establishment of the requested district. A resolution approving the creation of the district may contain amendments or modifications of the district's boundaries or functions as set forth in the petition.

Sec. 13. [375B.06] [PUBLICATION AND EFFECTIVE DATE.]

Upon passage of a resolution authorizing the creation of a subordinate service district, the county board shall cause the resolution to be published once in the official newspaper. The resolution shall include a general description of the territory to be included within the district, the type of service or services to be undertaken in the district, a statement of the means by which the service or services will be financed, and a designation of the county agency or officer who will be responsible for supervising the provision of the service or services. The district shall be deemed established 30 days after publication or at a later date as may be specified in the resolution.

Sec. 14. [375B.07] [REFERENDUM.]

Subdivision 1. [PETITION.] Upon receipt of a petition signed by five percent of the qualified voters within the territory of the proposed district prior to the effective date of its creation as specified in section 375B.06, the creation shall be held in abeyance pending referendum vote of all qualified electors residing within the boundaries of the proposed district.

Subd. 2. [ELECTION.] The county board shall make arrangements for the holding of a special election not less than 30 nor more than 90 days after receipt of the petition within the boundaries of the proposed district. The question to be submitted and voted upon by the qualified voters within the territory of the proposed district shall be phrased substantially as follows:

''Shall a subordinate service district be established in order to provide (service or services to be provided) financed by (revenue sources)?''

If a majority of those voting on the question favor creation of the proposed district, the district shall be deemed created upon certification of the vote by the county auditor. The county auditor shall administer the election.

Sec. 15. [375B.08] [EXPANSION OF THE BOUNDARIES OF A SUBORDINATE SERVICE DISTRICT.]

The county board, on its own motion or pursuant to petition, may enlarge any existing subordinate service district pursuant to the procedures specified in sections 375B.04 to 375B.07. Only qualified voters residing in the district to be added shall be eligible to participate in the election, but if five percent of the qualified voters residing in the existing service district petition to participate in the election, all qualified voters residing in the proposed service district shall be eligible.

Sec. 16. [375B.09] [FINANCING.]

Upon adoption of the next annual budget following the creation of a subordinate service district the county board shall include in the budget appropriate provisions for the operation of the district including, as appropriate, either a property tax levied only on property within the boundaries of the district or a levy of a service charge against the users of the service within the district, or any combination of a property tax and a service charge. A tax or service charge or a combination thereof shall not be imposed to finance a function or service in the service district which the county generally provides throughout the county unless an increase in the level of the service is to be supplied in the service district in which case, in addition to the countywide tax levy, only an amount necessary to pay for the increased level of service may be imposed.

Sec. 17. [375B.10] [WITHDRAWAL; ELECTION.]

Upon receipt of a petition signed by ten percent of the qualified voters within the territory of the subordinate service district requesting the removal of the district, or pursuant to its own resolution, the county board shall make arrangements for the holding of a special election within the boundaries of the service district not less than 30 nor more than 90 days after the resolution or receipt of the petition. The question to be submitted and voted upon by the qualified voters within the territory of the district shall be phrased substantially as follows:

"Shall the subordinate service district presently established be removed and the service or services of the county as provided for the service district be discontinued?"

If a majority of those voting on the question favor the removal and discontinuance of the services, the service district shall be removed and the services shall be discontinued upon certification of the vote by the county auditor. The county auditor shall administer the election.

Sec. 18. [375B.11] [WITHDRAWAL; BY RESOLUTION OF COUNTY BOARD.]

The county board may by resolution withdraw a subordinate service district from the provisions of this chapter and discontinue the service provided within the service district. The county board shall cause notice of its intention to withdraw the service district to be published at least once in the official newspaper not more than six months or less than three months before the resolution is adopted. If a joint powers agreement is a part of the subordinate service district arrangement no withdrawal shall be effective under this section unless all parties to the joint powers agreement agree to the withdrawal.

Sec. 19. [375B.12] [LOCAL LAWS SUPERSEDED.]

A special law for a single county, except a metropolitan county as defined in section 473.121, subdivision 4, and any other county containing a city of the first class, which authorizes the county to establish subordinate service districts or areas is hereby superseded. Any service being provided pursuant to the special law on or before the effective date of sections 1 to 12 may continue to be provided pursuant to the special law.

Sec. 20. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 275.50, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 7. A tax or service charge levied by the county board within a subordinate service district pursuant to chapter 375B is a "special levy" and is not subject to tax levy limitations including those contained in sections 275.50 to 275.56 or any other law. Subsequent increases in the initial tax or service charge, or additional taxes or service charges imposed at a time later than the adoption of the initial tax or service charge shall be subject to levy limitation.

Sec. 21. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 462.352, Subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. "Municipality" means any city, including a city operating under a home rule charter, and any town ~~having the powers of statutory cities pursuant to section 368.01~~.

Sec. 22. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 462.357, Subdivision 6, is amended to read:

Subd. 6. [APPEALS AND ADJUSTMENTS.] Appeals to the board of appeals and adjustments may be taken by any affected person upon compliance with any reasonable conditions imposed by the zoning ordinance. The board of appeals and adjustments has the following powers with respect to the zoning ordinance:

(1) To hear and decide appeals where it is alleged that there is an error in any order, requirement, decision, or determination made by an administrative officer in the enforcement of the zoning ordinance.

(2) To hear requests for variances from the literal provisions of the ordinance in instances where their strict enforcement would cause undue hardship because of circumstances unique to the individual property under consideration, and to grant such variances only when it is demonstrated that such actions will be in keeping with the spirit and intent of the ordinance. "Undue hardship" as used in connection with the granting of a variance means the property in question cannot be put to a reasonable use if used under conditions allowed by the official controls, the plight of the landowner is due to circumstances unique to his property not created by the landowner, and the variance, if granted, will not alter the essential character of the locality. Economic considerations alone shall not constitute an undue hardship if reasonable use for the property exists under the terms of the ordinance. Undue hardship also includes, but is not limited to, inadequate access to direct sunlight for solar energy systems. Variances shall be granted for earth sheltered construction as defined in section 116H.02, subdivision 3, when in harmony with the ordinance. The board of appeals and adjustments or the governing body as the case may be, may not permit as a variance any use that is not permitted under the ordinance for property in the zone where the affected person's land is located. The board or governing body as the case may be, may permit as a variance the temporary use of a one family dwelling as a two family dwelling. The board or governing body as the case may be may impose conditions in the granting of variances to insure compliance and to protect adjacent properties.

Sec. 23. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 462.358, Subdivision 1a, is amended to read:

Subd. 1a. [AUTHORITY.] To protect and promote the public health, safety, and general welfare, to provide for the orderly, economic, and safe development of land, to preserve agricultural lands, to promote the availability of housing affordable to persons and families of all income levels, and to facilitate adequate provision for transportation, water, sewage, storm drainage, schools, parks, playgrounds, and other public services and facilities, a municipality may by ordinance adopt subdivision regulations establishing standards, requirements, and procedures for the review and approval or disapproval of subdivisions. The regulations may contain varied provisions respecting, and be made applicable only to, certain classes or kinds of subdivisions. The regulations shall be uniform for each class or kind of subdivision.

A municipality may by resolution extend the application of its subdivision regulations to unincorporated territory located within two miles of its limits in any direction but not in a town which has adopted subdivision regulations; provided that where two or more noncontiguous municipalities have boundaries less than four miles apart, each is authorized to control the subdivision of land equal distance from its boundaries within this area. ~~However, if a municipality extends the application of its subdivision or zoning regulations to unincorporated territory, upon the petition of any county board or town board affected by the subdivision or zoning regulations, a joint board shall be established consisting of a three member committee with one member appointed from each of the municipal, town and county governing bodies. This joint board shall adopt zoning and subdivision regulations under sections 462.351 to 462.364 for the entire area within two miles of the city located within a town, and designate one of the governing bodies to serve as the governing body and board of appeals and adjustment for purposes of sections 462.357 and 462.358 within the area. During the time before the joint board adopts subdivision regulations, the subdivision regulations which the municipality has extended shall apply.~~

Sec. 24. [462.3585] [JOINT PLANNING BOARD.]

Upon request of a home rule charter or statutory city council or county or town board by resolution presented to the county auditor of the county of the affected territory a board shall be established to exercise planning and land use control authority in the unincorporated area within two miles of the corporate limits of a city. The board shall have members in a number determined by the city, county, and town. Each governmental unit shall have an equal number of members. The members shall be appointed from the governing bodies of the city, county, and town. Upon request of more than one county or town board with respect to the unincorporated area within two miles of the corporate limits of a single city, the parties may create one board rather than a separate board for each county or town, with equal membership from each affected governmental unit. The board shall serve as the governing body and board of appeals and adjustments for purposes of sections 462.351 to 462.364 within the two-mile area. The board shall have all of the powers contained in sections 462.351 to 462.364 and shall have authority to adopt and enforce the uniform fire code promulgated pursuant to section 299F.011. The city shall provide staff for the preparation and administration of land use controls unless otherwise agreed by the governmental units. If a municipality extends the application of its subdivision regulations to unincorporated territory located within two miles of its limits pursuant to section 462.358, subdivision 1a, before the creation of a joint board, the subdivision regulations which the municipality has extended shall apply until the joint board adopts subdivision regulations.

Sec. 25. [462.3595] [CONDITIONAL USE PERMITS.]

Subdivision 1. [AUTHORITY.] The governing body may by ordinance designate certain types of developments, including planned unit developments, and certain land development activities as conditional uses under zoning regulations. Conditional uses may be approved by the governing body or other designated authority by a showing by the applicant that the standards and criteria stated in the ordinance will be satisfied. The standards and criteria shall include both general requirements for all conditional uses, and insofar as practicable, requirements specific to each designated conditional use.

Subd. 2. [PUBLIC HEARINGS.] Public hearings on the granting of conditional use permits shall be held in the manner provided in section 462.357, subdivision 3.

Subd. 3. [DURATION.] A conditional use permit shall remain in effect as long as the conditions agreed upon are observed, but nothing in this section shall prevent the municipality from enacting or amending official controls to change the status of conditional uses.

Subd. 4. [FILING OF PERMIT.] A certified copy of any conditional use permit shall be filed with the county recorder or registrar of titles of the county or counties in which the municipality is located for record. The conditional use permit shall include the legal description of the property included.

Sec. 26. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 462.36, Subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [REQUIRED DOCUMENTS.] A certified copy of every ordinance, resolution, map, ~~or~~ regulation adopted, or variance granted under the provisions of sections ~~462.358~~ ~~and~~ 462.357 to 462.359 and ~~amendments thereto~~ sections 3 and 4 of this act shall be filed with the county recorder of the county or counties in which the municipality adopting it is located. Ordinances, resolutions, maps or regulations filed with the county recorder pursuant to this subdivision do not constitute encumbrances on real property. The order issued by the governing body or board of appeals and adjustments as the case may be, shall include the legal description of the property involved.

Sec. 27. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 471.59, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 10. [SERVICES PERFORMED BY GOVERNMENTAL UNITS; COMMONALITY OF POWERS.] Notwithstanding the provisions of subdivision 1 requiring commonality of powers between parties to any agreement, the governing body of any governmental unit as defined in subdivision 1 may enter into agreements with any other governmental unit to perform on behalf of that unit any service or function which the governmental unit providing the service or function is authorized to provide for itself.

Sec. 28. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 471.98, Subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. "Political subdivision" includes a statutory or home rule charter city ~~or~~, a county or a town or an instrumentality thereof having independent policy making and appropriating authority. For the purposes of sections 471.98 and 471.981, the governing body of a town is the town board.

Sec. 29. [ST. LOUIS COUNTY HISTORICAL SOCIETIES.]

St. Louis county may provide funds and facilities for more than one historical society of which shall be subject to the provisions of Minnesota Statutes, Sections 138.051, 138.052, and 138.053 and other laws governing the conduct of county historical societies.

Sec. 30. [EFFECTIVE DATE.]

Sections 1 to 7, 23, 24, and 28 are effective the day following final enactment. Sections 22, 25, and 26 are effective January 1, 1983. Section 29 is effective the day after compliance with section 645.021, subdivision 3 by the St. Louis county board."

In no event shall a state agency or department subsequently authorized to adopt rules and regulations involving state building code subject matter proceed to adopt the rules and regulations without prior consultation with the commissioner.

Subdivision 1. [ALLOWABLE SERVICES.] Funds awarded to the state for mental health services by federal block grants shall be used for grants to counties to directly provide, or contract with qualified community mental health centers for the provision of, the following services:

(a) Services for chronically mentally ill individuals, which include identification of chronically mentally ill individuals and assistance to them in gaining access to essential services through the assignment of case managers;

(b) Identification and assessment of severely mentally disturbed children and adolescents and provision of appropriate services to them;

(c) Identification and assessment of mentally ill elderly individuals and provision of appropriate services to them;

(d) Services for identifiable populations which are currently underserved in the state; and

Subd. 2. [PROHIBITED SERVICES.] Funds allocated to the state for mental health services by the federal block grant may not be used to:

(b) Make cash payments to intended recipients of health services;

(c) Purchase or improve land, or to purchase, construct or permanently improve any building or other facility, except for minor remodeling, or to purchase major medical equipment;

(d) Satisfy any requirement for expenditure of nonfederal funds as a condition for receiving federal funds; or

(e) Provide financial assistance to any entity other than a public or nonprofit private entity.

Sec. 5. [245.713] [FORMULA.]

Subdivision 1. [ALLOCATION.] Funds available for grants to qualified community mental health centers shall be allocated to each county according to the formula for the allocation of federal social service funds described in section 256E.07, subdivision 1, clauses (a) and (b).

Subd. 2. [TOTAL FUNDS AVAILABLE; REDUCTIONS.] The amount of funds available for allocation to counties for use by qualified community mental health centers shall be the total amount of funds granted to the state by the federal government under United States Code, Title 42, Sections 300X to 300X-9 each federal fiscal year for mental health services reduced by:

(a) Any amount set aside by the commissioner of public welfare for Indian tribal organizations within the state, which funds shall not duplicate any direct federal funding of Indian tribal organizations and which funds shall not exceed five percent of the total block grant allocation to the state for mental health services; and,

(b) Any amount calculated into the base of the block grant that is made available by the commissioner for qualified community mental health centers that were receiving grants for operations or other continuing grant obligations defined in United States Code, Title 42, Sections 300X to 300X-9 immediately prior to its enactment; and,

[UNUSED FUNDS.] If there are federal funds that have been allocated to the counties for qualified community mental health centers that remain unused at the end of the federal fiscal year in which they were made available, the commissioner shall reduce the allocation for the subsequent federal fiscal year for those counties by the same amount. The unused funds shall remain available to those counties for use during the federal fiscal year that immediately follows the one in which they were originally allocated. Beginning in federal fiscal year 1983, the commissioner shall annually review the use of federal funds for this purpose by each county and shall reallocate any funds that will not be used prior to the end of the second federal fiscal year to those counties needing additional money by using the same formula used under subdivision 1.

Subd. 4. [FUNDS AVAILABLE DUE TO TRANSFER.] Any federal funds available to the commissioner for mental health services prescribed under United States Code, Title 42, Sections 300X to 300X-9 due to transfer of funds between block grants shall be allocated as prescribed in subdivision 1.

Sec. 6. [245.714] [MAINTENANCE OF EFFORT.]

Beginning in federal fiscal year 1983, each county shall annually certify to the commissioner that the county has not reduced funds from state, county, and other nonfederal sources which would in the absence of the federal funds made available by United States Code, Title 42, Sections 300X to 300X-9 have been made available for services to mentally ill persons.

Sec. 7. [245.715] [QUALIFICATIONS AS A COMMUNITY MENTAL HEALTH CENTER.]

In addition to those agencies that have previously qualified as comprehensive community mental health centers under the provisions of the federal Community Mental Health Centers Act, other public or nonprofit private agencies that are able to demonstrate their capacity to provide the following services as defined by the commissioner may qualify as a community mental health center for the purposes of the federal block grant. The federally required services may be provided by separate agencies. These services include:

(a) Outpatient services, including specialized outpatient services for children, the elderly, individuals who are chronically mentally ill and residents of its mental health service area who have been discharged from inpatient treatment at a mental health facility;

(b) 24-hour a day emergency care services;

(c) Day treatment or partial hospitalization services;

(d) Screening for patients being considered for admission to state mental health facilities to determine the appropriateness of the admission; and

Before accepting federal block grant funds for mental health services, counties shall provide the commissioner with all necessary assurances that the qualified community mental health centers which receive these block grant funds meet the minimum service requirements of clauses (a) to (e). At any time at least 30 days prior to the commissioner's allocation of federal funds, any county may notify the commissioner of its decision not to accept the federal funds for qualified community mental health centers.

Sec. 8. [245.716] [REPORTS; DATA COLLECTION.]

Subdivision 1. [PERIODIC REPORTS.] The commissioner shall require collection of data for compliance, monitoring, and evaluation purposes and shall require periodic reports from the counties on the use of funds under the federal block grant by counties for qualified community mental health centers.

Subd. 2. [QUARTERLY FINANCIAL STATEMENTS.] Beginning in calendar year 1982, each county shall include in its quarterly financial accounting report to the commissioner of the county's community social services fund a separate statement identifying the use of funds, including those received under the federal block grant for qualified community mental health centers as specified in section 256E.08, subdivision 8, clauses (a) and (b). The initial quarterly statement shall be submitted not later than 15 days after the end of the first calendar quarter in which funds are allocated to the counties in accordance with section 5, subdivisions 1 and 2.

Subd. 3. [SOCIAL SERVICES REPORT.] Beginning in calendar year 1983, each county shall include in the report required by section 256E.10 a part or subpart which addresses the items specified in section 256E.10, subdivision 1, clauses (a) and (b), as they pertain to the use of funds available

Sec. 9. [245.717] [WITHHOLDING OF FUNDS.]

Beginning in federal fiscal year 1983, the distribution of funds to counties provided in section 5 shall be reduced by an amount equal to the federal block grant funds allotted pursuant to section 5 in the immediately preceding year which have been spent for some purpose other than qualified community mental health centers. If it is determined that the state is legally liable for any repayment of federal block funds which were not properly used by the counties, the repayment liability shall be assessed against the counties which did not properly use the funds. The commissioner may withhold future block grant funds to those counties until the obligation is met. The commissioner shall not award additional block grant funds to those counties until he is assured that no future violations will occur.

Sec. 10. [245.718] [APPEAL.]

At least 30 days prior to certifying any reduction in funds pursuant to section 9, the commissioner shall notify the county of an intention to certify a reduction. The commissioner shall notify the county of the right to a hearing. If the county requests a hearing within 30 days of notification of intention to reduce funds, the commissioner shall not certify any reduction in funds until a hearing is conducted and a decision rendered in accordance with the provisions of chapter 15 for contested cases.''

Delete everything after the enacting clause and insert:

"Section 1. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 3.736, Subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [EXCLUSIONS.] Without intent to preclude the courts from finding additional cases where the state and its employees should not, in equity and good conscience, pay compensation for personal injuries or property losses, the legislature declares that the state and its employees are not liable for the following losses:

(a) Any loss caused by an act or omission of a state employee exercising due care in the execution of a valid or invalid statute or regulation;

(b) Any loss caused by the performance or failure to perform a discretionary duty, whether or not the discretion is abused;

(c) Any loss in connection with the assessment and collection of taxes;

(d) Any loss caused by snow or ice conditions on any highway or other public place, except when the condition is affirmatively caused by the negligent acts of a state employee;

(e) Any loss caused by wild animals in their natural state;

(f) Any loss other than injury to or loss of property or personal injury or death;

(g) Any loss caused by the condition of unimproved real property owned by the state, which means land that the state has not improved, and appurtenances, fixtures and attachments to land that the state has neither affixed nor improved;

(h) Any loss arising from the construction, operation, or maintenance of the outdoor recreation system, as defined in section 86A.04, or from the clearing of land, removal of refuse, and creation of trails or paths without artificial surfaces, except that the state is liable for conduct that would entitle a trespasser to damages against a private person.

(i) Any loss of benefits or compensation due under a program of public assistance or public welfare, except where state compensation for loss is expressly required by federal law in order for the state to receive federal grants-in-aid;

(j) Any loss based on the failure of any person to meet the standards needed for a license, permit, or other authorization issued by the state or its agents;

(k) Any loss based on the usual care and treatment, or lack of care and treatment, of any person at a state hospital or state corrections facility where reasonable use of available appropriations has been made to provide care;

(m) Any loss for which recovery is prohibited by section 8.

Sec. 2. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 169.121, Subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [CRIME.] It is a misdemeanor for any person to drive, operate or be in physical control of any motor vehicle within this state:

(a) When the person is under the influence of alcohol;

(b) When the person is under the influence of a controlled substance;

(c) When the person is under the influence of a combination of any two or more of the elements named in clauses (a) and (b); or

(d) When the person's alcohol concentration is 0.10 or more.

The provisions of this subdivision apply, but are not limited in application, to any person who drives, operates, or is in physical control of any motor vehicle in the manner prohibited by this subdivision upon the ice of any lake, stream, or river, including but not limited to the ice of any boundary water.

When an accident has occurred, a peace officer may lawfully arrest a person for violation of this section without a warrant upon probable cause, without regard to whether the violation was committed in the officer's presence.

Sec. 3. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 169.121, Subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [EVIDENCE.] Upon the trial of any prosecution arising out of acts alleged to have been committed by any person arrested for driving, operating, or being in physical control of a motor vehicle in violation of subdivision 1, the court may admit evidence of the amount of alcohol or a controlled substance in the person's blood, breath, or urine as shown by a medical or chemical analysis thereof, if the test is taken voluntarily or pursuant to section 169.123.

For the purposes of this subdivision:

(a) evidence that there was at the time an alcohol concentration of 0.05 or less is prima facie evidence that the person was not under the influence of alcohol;

(b) evidence that there was at the time an alcohol concentration of more than 0.05 and less than 0.10 is relevant evidence in indicating whether or not the person was under the influence of alcohol.

Evidence of the absence of tests is admissible in a prosecution under this section without any comment and with a jury instruction, where applicable, that there shall be no speculation as to the reason for the absence and that no inference is to be drawn from the absence.

For purposes of this section and section 169.123, the result of an evidentiary test administered within two hours of the alleged violation is deemed to be the alcohol concentration at the time of the violation.

The foregoing provisions do not limit the introduction of any other competent evidence bearing upon the question whether or not the person was under the influence of alcohol or a controlled substance, including tests obtained more than two hours after the alleged violation.

Sec. 4. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 169.121, Subdivision 3, is amended to read:

~~Any person whose license has been revoked pursuant to section 169.123 is not subject to the mandatory revocation provision of this subdivision.~~

The following persons are guilty of a gross misdemeanor:

(b) A person who violates this section or an ordinance in conformity therewith within ten years of two or more prior convictions under this section or an ordinance in conformity therewith.

The attorney in the jurisdiction in which the violation occurred who is responsible for prosecution of misdemeanor violations of section 169.121 shall also be responsible for prosecution of gross misdemeanor violations of section 169.121.

Subd. 4. [PENALTIES.] ~~Every~~ A person ~~who is~~ convicted of ~~a violation of~~ violating this section ~~or an ordinance in conformity therewith within three years of any previous such conviction shall be punished by imprisonment for not more than 90 days, or a fine of not more than $500, or both, and his driver's license shall be revoked for not less than 90 days~~ shall have his driver's license or operating privileges revoked by the commissioner of public safety as follows:

(d) Fourth or subsequent offense on the record: not less than two years, together with denial under section 171.04, clause (8), until rehabilitation is established in accordance with standards established by the commissioner.

Whenever department records show that the violation involved personal injury or death to any person, not less than 90 additional days shall be added to the base periods provided above.

Any person whose license has been revoked pursuant to section 169.123 as the result of the same incident is not subject to the mandatory revocation provisions of clause (a) or (b).

Sec. 6. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 169.121, Subdivision 6, is amended to read:

Subd. 6. [PRELIMINARY SCREENING TEST.] When a peace officer has reason to believe from the manner in which a person is driving, operating, ~~or~~ controlling, or acting upon departure from a motor vehicle, or has driven, operated, or controlled a motor vehicle, that the driver may be violating or has violated subdivision 1, he may require the driver to provide a sample of his breath for a preliminary screening test using a device approved by the commissioner of public safety for this purpose. The results of this preliminary screening test shall be used for the purpose of deciding whether an arrest should be made and whether to require the chemical tests authorized in section 169.123, but shall not be used in any court action except to prove that a chemical test was properly required of a person pursuant to section 169.123, subdivision 2. Following the screening test additional tests may be required of the driver pursuant to the provisions of section 169.123.

The driver ~~of a motor vehicle~~ who refuses to furnish a sample of his breath is subject to the provisions of section 169.123 unless, in compliance with section 169.123, he submits to a blood, breath or urine test to determine the presence of alcohol or a controlled substance.

Sec. 7. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 169.121, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 8. [ALCOHOL ASSESSMENT.] When the evidentiary test shows an alcohol concentration of 0.07 or more, that result shall be reported to the commissioner of public safety. The commissioner shall record that fact on the driver's record. When the driver's record shows a second or subsequent report of an alcohol concentration of 0.07 or more within two years of a recorded report, the commissioner may require that the driver have an alcohol problem assessment meeting the commissioner's requirements. The assessment shall be at the driver's expense. In no event shall the commissioner deny the license of a person who refuses to take the assessment or to undertake treatment, if treatment is indicated by the assessment, for longer than 90 days. If an assessment is made pursuant to this section, the commissioner may waive the assessment required by section 169.126.

Sec. 8. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 169.121, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 9. [IMMUNITY FROM LIABILITY.] (a) The state or political subdivision by which a peace officer making an arrest for violation of section 169.121 is employed shall have immunity from any liability, civil or criminal, for the care or custody of the motor vehicle being driven by, operated by, or in the physical control of the person arrested if the peace officer acts in good faith and exercises due care.

(b) For purposes of this subdivision, "political subdivision" means a county, statutory or home rule charter city, or town.

Sec. 9. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 169.123, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. The test shall be administered at the direction of a peace officer. The test may be required of a person when an officer has reasonable and probable grounds to believe the person was driving, operating, or in physical control of a motor vehicle in violation of section 169.121 and one of the following conditions exist: (1) the person has been lawfully placed under arrest for violation of section 169.121, or an ordinance in conformity therewith; or (2) the person has been involved in a motor vehicle accident or collision resulting in property damage, personal injury, or death; or (3) the person has refused to take the screening test provided for by section 169.121, subdivision 6; or (4) the screening test was administered and recorded an alcohol concentration of 0.10 or more. ~~Any person may decline to take a direct blood test and elect to take either a breath or urine test, whichever is available and offered.~~ No action may be taken against the person for declining to take a direct blood test, if offered, unless ~~either a breath or urine~~ an alternative test was ~~available and~~ offered.

(b) At the time a chemical test specimen is requested, the person shall be informed:

(1) that if testing is refused, the person's right to drive will be revoked for a period of six months; and

(3) that the person has a right to consult with an attorney but that this right is limited to the extent that it cannot unreasonably delay administration of the test or the person will be deemed to have refused the test; and

(4) that after submitting to testing, the person has the right to have additional tests made by a person of his own choosing.

Subd. 2a. [REQUIREMENT OF URINE TEST.] Notwithstanding subdivision 2, if there are reasonable and probable grounds to believe there is impairment by a controlled substance which is not subject to testing by a blood or breath test, a urine test may be required even after a blood or breath test has been administered.

Subd. 3. [MANNER OF MAKING TEST; ADDITIONAL TESTS.] Only a physician, medical technician, physician's trained mobile intensive care paramedic, registered nurse, medical technologist or laboratory assistant acting at the request of a peace officer may withdraw blood for the purpose of determining the presence of alcohol or controlled substance. This limitation does not apply to the taking of a breath or urine specimen. The person tested has the right to have a person of his own choosing administer a chemical test or tests in addition to any administered at the direction of a peace officer; provided, that the additional test specimen on behalf of the person is obtained at the place where the person is in custody, after the test administered at the direction of a peace officer, and at no expense to the state. The failure or inability to obtain an additional test or tests by a person shall not preclude the admission in evidence of the test taken at the direction of a peace officer unless the additional test was prevented or denied by the peace officer. ~~Upon the request of the person who is tested, full information concerning the test or tests taken at the direction of the peace officer shall be made available to him.~~ The physician, medical technician, physician's trained mobile intensive care paramedic, medical technologist, laboratory assistant or registered nurse drawing blood at the request of a peace officer for the purpose of determining alcohol concentration shall in no manner be liable in any civil or criminal action except for negligence in drawing the blood. The person administering a test at the request and direction of a peace officer shall be fully trained in the administration of the tests pursuant to standards promulgated by rule by the commissioner of public safety.

Subd. 4. [REFUSAL, CONSENT TO PERMIT TEST; REVOCATION OF LICENSE.] If a person refuses to permit chemical testing, none shall be given, but the peace officer shall report the refusal to the commissioner of public safety and the authority having responsibility for prosecution of misdemeanor offenses for the jurisdiction in which the acts occurred. If a person submits to chemical testing and the test results indicate an alcohol concentration of 0.10 or more, the results of the test shall be reported to the commissioner of public safety and to the authority having responsibility for prosecution of misdemeanor offenses for the jurisdiction in which the acts occurred.

Upon certification by the peace officer that there existed reasonable and probable grounds to believe the person had been driving, operating, or in physical control of a motor vehicle while under the influence of alcohol or a controlled substance and that the person refused to submit to chemical testing, the commissioner of public safety shall revoke the person's license or permit to drive, or his nonresident operating privilege, for a period of six months. Upon certification by the peace officer that there existed reasonable and probable grounds to believe the person had been driving, operating or in physical control of a motor vehicle while under the influence of alcohol or a controlled substance and that the person submitted to chemical testing and the test results indicate an alcohol concentration of 0.10 or more, the commissioner of public safety shall revoke the person's license or permit to drive, or his nonresident operating privilege, for a period of 90 days.

If the person is a resident without a license or permit to operate a motor vehicle in this state, the commissioner of public safety shall deny to the person the issuance of a license or permit for the same period after the date of the alleged violation as provided herein for revocation, subject to review as hereinafter provided.

Subd. 5. [NOTICE OF REVOCATION OR DETERMINATION TO DENY; REQUEST FOR HEARING.] ~~No~~ A revocation under subdivision 4 ~~is~~ becomes effective ~~until~~ at the time the commissioner of public safety or a peace officer acting on his behalf notifies the person of the intention to revoke and of revocation ~~and allows the person a 30 day period to request of the commissioner of public safety, in writing, a hearing as herein provided. If no request is filed within the 30 day period the order of revocation becomes effective. If a request for hearing is filed, a revocation is not effective until a final judicial determination resulting in a decision adverse to the person~~. The notice shall advise the person of the right to obtain administrative and judicial review as provided in this section. If mailed, the notice and order of revocation is deemed received three days after mailing to the last known address of the person.

Subd. 5a. [PEACE OFFICER AGENT FOR NOTICE OF REVOCATION.] On behalf of the commissioner of public safety a peace officer offering a chemical test or directing the administration of a chemical test ~~may~~ shall serve immediate notice of intention to revoke and of revocation on a person who refuses to permit chemical testing or on a person who submits to a chemical test the results of which indicate an alcohol concentration of 0.10 or more. The officer shall take the license or permit of the driver, if any, and issue a temporary license effective only for ~~30~~ 7 days. The peace officer shall send the person's driver's license to the commissioner of public safety along with the certificate required by subdivision 4.

~~If the person requests a hearing within the 30 day period, the commissioner shall issue additional temporary licenses until the final determination of whether there shall be a revocation under this section.~~

Subd. 5b. [ADMINISTRATIVE REVIEW.] At any time during a period of revocation imposed under this section a person may request in writing a review of the order of revocation by the commissioner of public safety. Upon receiving a request the commissioner or his designee shall review the order, the evidence upon which the order was based, and any other material information brought to the attention of the commissioner, and determine whether sufficient cause exists to sustain the order. Within 15 days of receiving the request the commissioner shall report in writing the results of his review. The review provided in this subdivision is not subject to the contested case provisions of the administrative procedure act in sections 15.041 to 15.052.

The availability of administrative review for an order of revocation shall have no effect upon the availability of judicial review under this section.

Subd. 5c. [PETITION FOR JUDICIAL REVIEW.] Within 30 days following receipt of a notice and order of revocation pursuant to this section, a person may petition the court for review. The petition shall be filed with the clerk of county or municipal court in the county where the alleged offense occurred, together with proof of service of a copy on the commissioner of public safety, and accompanied by the standard filing fee for civil actions. No responsive pleading shall be required of the commissioner of public safety, and no court fees shall be charged for his appearance in the matter.

The petition shall be captioned in the name of the person making the petition as petitioner and the commissioner of public safety as respondent. The petition shall state with specificity the grounds upon which the petitioner seeks rescission of the order of revocation or denial.

The filing of the petition shall not stay the revocation or denial. The reviewing court may order a stay of the balance of the revocation if the hearing has not been conducted within 60 days after filing of the petition upon terms the court deems proper. Judicial reviews shall be conducted according to the rules of civil procedure.

Subd. 6. [HEARING.] A hearing under this section shall be before a municipal or county judge, in ~~the~~ any county in the judicial district where the alleged offense occurred~~, unless there is agreement that the hearing may be held in some other county~~. The hearing shall be to the court and may be conducted at the same time and in the same manner as hearings upon pre-trial motions in the criminal prosecution under section 169.121, if any. The hearing shall be recorded. The commissioner of public safety may appear through his own attorney or, by agreement with the jurisdiction involved, through the prosecuting authority for that jurisdiction.

The hearing shall be held at the earliest practicable date, and in any event no later than 60 days following the filing of the petition for review. The judicial district administrator shall establish procedures to ensure efficient compliance with the provisions of this subdivision. To accomplish this, the administrator may, whenever possible, consolidate and transfer review hearings among the county courts within the judicial district.

The scope of the hearing shall ~~cover~~ be limited to the issues of:

(1) whether the peace officer had reasonable and probable grounds to believe the person was driving, operating, or in physical control of a motor vehicle while under the influence of alcohol or a controlled substance, and whether the person was lawfully placed under arrest for violation of section 169.121, or the person was involved in a motor vehicle accident or collision resulting in property damage, personal injury or death, or the person refused to take a screening test provided for by section 169.121, subdivision 6, or the screening test was administered and recorded an alcohol concentration of 0.10 or more; and

(2) whether at the time of the request for the test the peace officer informed the person of his rights and the consequences of taking or refusing the test as required by subdivision 2; and

(3) either (a) whether the person refused to permit the test, or (b) whether a test was taken and the test results indicated an alcohol concentration of 0.10 or more at the time of testing, and whether the testing method used was valid and reliable, and whether the test results were accurately evaluated.

It shall be an affirmative defense for the ~~person~~ petitioner to prove that, at the time of the refusal, his refusal to permit the test was based upon reasonable grounds.

Certified or otherwise authenticated copies of laboratory or medical personnel reports, records, documents, licenses and certificates shall be admissible as substantive evidence.

The court shall order either that the revocation be rescinded or sustained and forward the order to the commissioner of public safety. The court shall file its order within 14 days following the hearing. If the revocation is sustained, the court shall also forward the person's driver's license or permit to the commissioner of public safety for his further action if the license or permit is not already in the commissioner's possession.

Subd. 7. [REVIEW BY DISTRICT COURT.] ~~If the revocation or denial is sustained, the person whose license or permit to drive, or nonresident operating privilege has been revoked or denied, may within 20 days after notice of the determination by the commissioner of public safety file a petition for a hearing of the matter in the district court in the county where the hearing pursuant to subdivision 6 was held unless there is agreement that the hearing may be held in some other county. The petition shall be filed with the clerk of the court together with proof of service of a copy thereof on the commissioner of public safety. It is the duty of the court to set the matter for hearing on a day certain with reasonable notice thereof to the parties. The hearing shall be on the record and shall be conducted in the same manner provided in sections 487.39 and 484.63 for appeal of misdemeanor convictions~~ Any party aggrieved by the decision of the reviewing court may appeal the decision to the district court as provided in sections 484.63 and 487.39.

Subd. 8. [NOTICE OF ACTION TO OTHER STATES.] When it has been finally determined that a nonresident's privilege to operate a motor vehicle in this state has been revoked or denied, the commissioner of public safety shall give information in writing of the action taken to the official in charge of traffic control or public safety of the state of the person's residence and of any state in which he has a license.

Subd. 9. [LIMITED LICENSE.] In any case in which a license has been revoked under this section, the commissioner may issue a limited license to the driver. The commissioner in issuing a limited license may impose the conditions and limitations which in his judgment are necessary to the interests of the public safety and welfare, including re-examination of the driver's qualifications, attendance at a driver improvement clinic, or attendance at counseling sessions. The license may be limited to the operation of particular vehicles and to particular classes and time of operation. The limited license issued by the commissioner shall clearly indicate the limitations imposed and the driver operating under a limited license shall have the license in his possession at all times when operating as a driver. In determining whether to issue a limited license, the commissioner shall consider the number and the seriousness of prior convictions and the entire driving record of the driver.

Subd. 10. [TERMINATION OF REVOCATION PERIOD.] If the commissioner receives notice of the driver's attendance at a driver improvement clinic, attendance at counseling sessions, or participation in treatment for an alcohol problem the commissioner may, 30 days prior to the time the revocation period would otherwise expire, terminate the revocation period. The commissioner shall not terminate the revocation period under this subdivision for a driver who has had a license revoked under section 169.121 or this section for another incident during the preceding three year period.

Sec. 10. [169.1231] [DRIVING WHILE UNDER THE INFLUENCE; DETOXIFICATION.]

Subdivision 1. [GROUNDS FOR TAKING DRIVER TO DETOXIFICATION CENTER OR ALCOHOL DRUG REHABILITATION CENTER.] Whenever a peace officer administers a preliminary screening test to a person and the test results indicate a blood alcohol content of .10 or more, the peace officer shall either take the person to a detoxification center or alcohol drug rehabilitation center established pursuant to section 254A.08 or arrange for another authorized person to do so. A peace officer shall also take, or arrange for another authorized person to take to a detoxification center or alcohol drug rehabilitation center established pursuant to section 254A.08, any person who refuses to take a preliminary screening test if the officer has reasonable and probable grounds to believe that the person was driving, operating, or in physical control of a motor vehicle in violation of section 169.121 or an ordinance in conformity therewith, and the person reasonably appears to the officer to be too intoxicated to resume driving safely.

Subd. 2. [DETOXIFICATION CENTER OR ALCOHOL DRUG REHABILITATION CENTER; RELEASE PROCEDURE.] The detoxification center or alcohol drug rehabilitation center to which a person is transported pursuant to subdivision 1 shall hold the person until he is completely sober, unless another responsible person appears and requests that the intoxicated person be released for the purpose of taking him home or to a medical facility. The person requesting release of the intoxicated person shall assure that the intoxicated person does not drive until completely sober; an intentional violation of this assurance is a misdemeanor.

Subd. 3. [INTOXICATED PERSON TO PAY COSTS.] A person taken to a detoxification center or alcohol drug rehabilitation center pursuant to this section shall pay the detoxification center or alcohol drug rehabilitation center for the cost of his stay, transportation, treatment, and other expenses in the detoxification center or alcohol drug rehabilitation center, if he does not meet the standards of indigency necessary to qualify for the services of the public defender and does not have health insurance coverage which would pay for this cost.

Sec. 11. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 171.19, is amended to read:

171.19 [PETITION FOR REINSTATEMENT OF LICENSES.]

Any person whose driver's license has been refused, revoked, suspended, or canceled by the commissioner, except where the license is revoked under section 169.123, may file a petition for a hearing in the matter in the district court in the county wherein such person shall reside and, in the case of a non-resident, in the district court in any county, and such court is hereby vested with jurisdiction, and it shall be its duty, to set the matter for hearing upon 15 days' written notice to the commissioner, and thereupon to take testimony and examine into the facts of the case to determine whether the petitioner is entitled to a license or is subject to revocation, suspension, cancelation, or refusal of license, under the provisions of this chapter, and shall render judgment accordingly. The petition shall be heard by the court without a jury and may be heard in or out of term. The commissioner may appear in person, or by his agents or representatives, and may present his evidence upon the hearing by affidavit by himself, his agents, or representatives. The petitioner may present his evidence by affidavit, except that the petitioner must be present in person at such hearing for the purpose of cross-examination. In the event the department shall be sustained in these proceedings, the petitioner shall have no further right to make further petition to any court for the purpose of obtaining a driver's license until after the expiration of one year after the date of such hearing.

Sec. 12. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 171.30, Subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [ISSUANCE.] In any case where a person's license has been suspended under section 171.18 or revoked under sections 169.121 or 171.17, if the driver's livelihood or attendance at a chemical dependency treatment or counseling program depends upon the use of his driver's license, the commissioner may at his own discretion ~~and shall upon recommendation by the court excluding justices of the peace in which the driver was convicted,~~ issue a limited license to the driver. The commissioner in issuing a limited license may impose such conditions and limitations as in his judgment are necessary to the interests of the public safety and welfare including re-examination as to the driver's qualifications. The license may be limited to the operation of particular vehicles, to particular classes and times of operation and to particular conditions of traffic.

The limited license issued by the commissioner shall clearly indicate the limitations imposed and the driver operating under the limited license shall have the license in his possession at all times when operating as a driver.

In determining whether to issue a limited license, the commissioner shall consider the number and the seriousness of prior convictions and the entire driving record of the driver and shall consider the number of miles driven by the driver annually.

Speaker of the House of Representatives

The Honorable Jack Davies
President of the Senate

We, the undersigned conferees for H.F. No. 1799, report that we have agreed upon the items in dispute and recommend as follows:

That the Senate recede from its amendments and that H.F. No. 1799 be further amended as follows:

Page 2, line 4, after the period insert "It is the intent of the legislature that voluntary efforts to disseminate certain price information be encouraged and that mandatory efforts be undertaken only if voluntary efforts do not make satisfactory progress."

Pages 2 to 4, delete Section 2 and insert:

"Sec. 2. [144.705] [COLLECTION, ANALYSIS AND DISSEMINATION OF DIAGNOSTIC AND PRICE INFORMATION.]

Subdivision 1. [PRICE REPORTING.] The commissioner of health shall encourage hospitals and professionals regulated by the health related licensing boards as defined in section 214.01, subdivision 2, or by the commissioner of health pursuant to section 214.13, to publish prices for procedures and services that are representative of the diagnoses and conditions for which citizens of this state seek treatment.

Subd. 2. [HOSPITAL REPORTS.] The commissioner of health may periodically establish a list of illnesses, injuries and medical conditions which is representative of the diagnoses for which the citizens of the state are hospitalized. The commissioner shall select illnesses, injuries, and conditions for inclusion in this list in a manner so as to adequately differentiate among patient characteristics which may influence the consumption of resources during treatment, such as the age of patients, patients' need for surgery, the presence of secondary diagnoses and medical complications. The establishment of this list shall not be subject to the provisions of sections 15.0412 to 15.0417. The commissioner may add to or delete from this list. For each of these illnesses, injuries and medical conditions, every hospital with a licensed capacity equal to or greater than 100 beds shall, within 120 days of the close of its fiscal year, report to the commissioner the following information for that fiscal year:

(a) the number of patients discharged;

(b) the shortest and longest lengths of patient stay in the hospital, the mean length of stay, and the respective lengths of stay at the 25th, 50th and 75th percentiles of the total range of lengths of stay;

(c) the lowest and highest prices for hospital services, the mean price, and the respective prices at the 25th, 50th and 75th percentiles of the total range of prices;

(d) a separation of the mean price into mean component prices, where applicable, for routine room and board, special care unit room and board, nursery services, delivery room use, operating room use, anesthesia services, pharmacy services, laboratory services, radiology services, supplies and other services; and

(e) any additional or alternative information relating to prices that is specified in rules promulgated by the commissioner pursuant to this section. At the time it reports the information required to be reported by this subdivision, each hospital may also report any additional information that it believes to be relevant to the purposes of section 144.705.

Subd. 3. [HEALTH PROVIDER REPORTS.] For each health profession regulated by the health-related licensing boards as defined in section 214.01, subdivision 2, or by the commissioner of health pursuant to section 214.13, the commissioner of health shall periodically establish a list of procedures and services which are representative of the diagnoses and conditions for which citizens of the state seek treatment. The establishment of this list shall not be subject to the provisions of section 15.0412 to 15.0417. For each of these procedures and services, every regulated health care provider engaged in the private practice of his profession within the state shall post in a public area the established prices or provide a notice of the availability of the established prices of the procedures or services. The commissioner may request to receive a copy of these prices.

Subd. 4. [SOURCE OF INFORMATION.] The information described in subdivision 2 may be directly compiled and submitted to the commissioner by the hospital, or in the interests of efficiency and at the hospital's option, the information may be submitted through any entity which collects or compiles all or portions of the information for several hospitals or providers. When information is furnished through such an entity, the commissioner shall pay the entity what he determines to be a reasonable fee for the costs of organizing and providing the information in the form called for by this section.

Subd. 5. [SAMPLES.] The commissioner may, in the interests of efficiency, permit a hospital to submit the information described in subdivision 2 in the form of statistically valid samples of the patients discharged from the hospital during the fiscal year.

Subd. 6. [FOSTERING PRICE COMPETITION.] The commissioner shall analyze the information provided under this section and shall disseminate the information and analyses so as to foster the development of price competition among hospitals required by subdivision 2 to make reports to the commissioner. Prior to initial dissemination of any hospital-specific information, the commissioner shall give the hospital opportunity for review and comment. In the initial dissemination of hospital-specific information the commissioner shall publish a summary of the hospital's comments, together with notice of a means of contacting a person designated by the hospital to provide further information.

Subd. 7. [RULES.] The commissioner may promulgate such rules pursuant to chapter 15 as are necessary to implement the provisions of this section.

Sec. 3. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 144A.04, Subdivision 5, is amended to read:

Subd. 5. Except as otherwise provided by this subdivision, a nursing home must have a full time licensed nursing home administrator serving the facility. In any nursing home of less than 25 beds, the director of nursing services may also serve as the licensed nursing home administrator. Two nursing homes having a total of 100 beds or less and located within 50 miles of each other may share the services of a licensed administrator if the administrator divides his full time work week between the two facilities in proportion to the number of beds in each facility. Every nursing home shall have a person-in-charge on the premises at all times in the absence of the licensed administrator. The name of the person in charge must be posted in a conspicuous place in the facility. The commissioner of health shall by rule promulgate minimum education and experience requirements for persons-in-charge, and may promulgate rules specifying the times of day during which a licensed administrator must be on the nursing home's premises. Sec. 10. [356.61] [LIMITATION ON PUBLIC EMPLOYEE RETIREMENT ANNUITIES.]

Notwithstanding any provision of law, bylaws, articles of incorporation, retirement and disability allowance plan agreements or retirement plan contracts to the contrary, no person who has pension or retirement coverage by a public pension plan shall be entitled to receive a monthly retirement annuity or disability benefit which, at the time of commencement of the retirement annuity or disability benefit, exceeds the amount of the final monthly salary of the person.

A public pension plan is any Minnesota public pension plan or fund which provides pension or retirement coverage for public employees other than volunteer firefighters, including any plan or fund enumerated in sections 356.20, subdivision 2, or 356.30, subdivision 3, any local police or firefighter's relief association to which section 69.77 applies, or any retirement or pension plan or fund, including a supplemental retirement plan or fund, established, maintained or supported by any governmental subdivision or public body whose revenues are derived from taxation, fees, assessments or from other public sources. Final monthly salary is the hourly rate of compensation received by the person on account of the most recent public employment for the final pay period occurring prior to retirement multiplied by 174.

The figure for the monthly retirement annuity or disability benefit to be used for the calculation of this limitation shall not include any reduction or adjustment required for retirement prior to the normal retirement age or required for the election of an optional annuity.

If the figure for the monthly retirement annuity or disability benefit exceeds the limit contained in this section, the annuity or benefit payable shall be reduced appropriately.

The managing board of each public pension plan from which a retirement annuity or disability benefit is payable shall, at the time that the retirement annuity or disability benefit commences, contact all other public pension plans to determine whether or not the recipient of the retirement annuity or disability benefit is also receiving or is entitled to receive a retirement annuity or disability benefit from any other public pension plan. If a person is entitled to receive or is receiving a retirement annuity or disability benefit from more than one public pension plan, all retirement annuities or disability benefits from all public pension plans shall be totalled in determining whether or not the limitation shall apply; provided however, that the limitation shall be based on the highest final monthly salary received by the individual from any plan. Any reduction in the amount of the retirement annuity or disability benefit required pursuant to this section shall be made by the public pension plan which provided retirement coverage for the most recent period of service.

Sec. 11. [423A.10] [POWERS OF CITY OFFICIALS LIMITED.]

When the governing board of a firefighters or police relief association in any city shall determine what is necessary to adequately protect, maintain and administer the firefighters or police relief association, neither the governing body of the city nor any official of the city may thereafter deny adequate representation therefor. Any duties performed by any member of the association pursuant to the determination under this section are deemed to be fire or police duties.

(1) Each member of the relief association pays into the special fund of the association during a year of covered service, a contribution for retirement coverage including survivorship benefits of not less than eight percent of the maximum rate of salary upon which retirement coverage is credited and service pension and retirement benefit amounts are determined. The member contributions shall be made by payroll deduction from the salary of the member by the municipality, and shall be transmitted by the municipality to the relief association as soon as practical. The relief association shall deposit the member contribution to the credit of the special fund of the relief association, provided that to avoid undue increase in the amount of employee contributions in any one year, any increase in the amount of contributions required by this section may be spread over several years with the approval of the municipality, but the increase in rate of contribution in each year shall not be less than one percent until the appropriate levels of required employee contributions have been reached. The member contribution requirement specified in this clause shall not apply to any members who are volunteer firefighters unless the governing body of the municipality did not approve this member contribution exemption following the consideration by the municipal governing body of the first actuarial survey filed with the municipality following January 1, 1970.

(2) The officers of the relief association determine the financial requirements of the relief association and minimum obligation of the municipality for the following calendar year in accordance with the requirements of this clause. The financial requirements of the relief association and the minimum obligation of the municipality shall be determined on or before the submission date established by the municipality pursuant to clause (3).

The financial requirements of the relief association for the following calendar year shall be based on the most recent actuarial valuation or survey prepared in accordance with sections 356.215, subdivision 4 and 356.216, whether or not the actuarial valuation or survey was prepared at a greater frequency than minimally required pursuant to clause (8). In the event that an updated actuarial valuation or an actuarial estimate is prepared by the actuary of the relief association as part of obtaining a modification of the benefit plan of the relief association and the modification is implemented, the updated actuarial valuation or actuarial estimate shall be used in calculating the financial requirements of the relief association.

If the relief association has an unfunded accrued liability as reported in the most recent actuarial valuation or survey, the total of the amounts calculated pursuant to clauses (a) and (b) shall constitute the financial requirements of the relief association for the following year. If the relief association does not have an unfunded accrued liability as reported in the most recent actuarial valuation or survey the amount calculated pursuant to subclause (a) shall constitute the financial requirements of the relief association for the following year.

(a) The normal level cost requirement for the following year, expressed as a dollar amount, which shall be determined by applying the normal level cost of the relief association as reported in the actuarial valuation or survey and expressed as a percentage of covered payroll to the estimated covered payroll of the active membership of the relief association, including any projected increase in the active membership, for the following year.

(b) To the dollar amount of normal cost thus determined shall be added an amount equal to the level annual dollar amount which is sufficient to amortize the unfunded accrued liability by December 31, 2010, as determined from the actuarial valuation or survey of the fund, using an interest assumption set at the rate specified in section 356.215, subdivision 4, clause (4). The amortization date specified in this subclause shall apply to all local police or salaried firefighters relief associations and shall supersede any amortization date specified in any applicable special law.

The minimum obligation of the municipality shall be an amount equal to the financial requirements of the relief association reduced by the estimated amount of member contributions from covered salary anticipated for the following calendar year and the estimated amounts from the applicable state aid program established pursuant to sections 69.011 to 69.051 anticipated as receivable by the relief association after any allocation pursuant to section 69.031, subdivision 5, clause (2), subclause ~~(b)~~ (c) or ~~Laws 1980, Chapter 607, Article XV, Section 4, Subdivision 2~~ 423A.01, subdivision 2, clause (6), and from the local police and salaried firefighters' relief association amortization aid program established pursuant to section 423A.02 anticipated for the following calendar year.

The governing body of the municipality shall ascertain whether or not the determinations were prepared in accordance with law.

(4) The municipality shall provide for and shall pay each year at least the amount of the minimum obligation of the municipality to the relief association. If there is any deficiency in the municipal payment to meet the minimum obligation of the municipality as of the end of any calendar year, the amount of the deficiency shall be added to the minimum obligation of the municipality for the following year calculated pursuant to clause (2) and shall include interest at the rate of six percent per annum compounded from the date that the municipality was required to make payment pursuant to this clause until the date that the municipality actually makes the required payment.

(5) The municipality shall provide in the annual municipal budget for at least the minimum obligation of the municipality calculated pursuant to clause (2). The municipality may levy taxes for the payment of the minimum obligation of the municipality without any limitation as to rate or amount and irrespective of limitations imposed by other provisions of law upon the rate or amount of taxation when the balance of the special fund or any fund of the relief association has attained a specified minimum asset level. In addition, any taxes levied pursuant to this section shall not cause the amount or rate of other taxes levied in that year or to be levied in a subsequent year by the municipality which are subject to a limitation as to rate or amount to be reduced. If the municipality does not include the full amount of the minimum obligation of the municipality in the levy that the municipality certified to the county auditor in any year, the officers of the relief association shall certify the amount of any deficiency to the county auditor. Upon verifying the existence of any deficiency in the levy certified by the municipality, the county auditor shall spread a levy over the taxable property of the municipality in the amount of the deficiency certified to by the officers of the relief association.

(7) The funds of the association shall be invested in securities which are proper investments pursuant to section 11A.24, except that up to $10,000 may be invested in the stock of any one corporation in any account of such small size that the three percent stock limitation specified in section 11A.24, subdivision 5 would necessitate a lesser investment. Securities held by the association before July 1, 1971, which do not meet the requirements of this paragraph may be retained after that date if they were proper investments for the association on April 28, 1969. The governing board of the association may select and appoint investment agencies to act for and in its behalf or may certify funds for investment by the state board under the provisions of section 11A.17, provided that there be no limit to the amount which may be invested in the income share account, in the bond account, or in the fixed-return account, and that up to 20 percent of that portion of the assets of the association invested in the Minnesota supplemental investment fund may be invested in the growth share account.

Subdivision 1. [DEFINITIONS.] As used in this section, the following terms shall have the meanings given.

(1) "Annuity form" means the payment procedure and duration of a retirement annuity or disability benefit available to a member of a public pension fund, based on the period over which a retirement annuity or disability benefit is payable, determined by the number of persons to whom the retirement annuity or disability benefit is payable, and the amount of the retirement annuity or disability benefit which is payable to each person.

(2) "Joint and survivor optional annuity" means an optional annuity form which provides a retirement annuity or disability benefit to a retired member and the spouse of the member on a joint basis during the lifetime of the retired member and all or a portion of the original retirement annuity or disability benefit amount to the surviving spouse in the event of the death of the retired member.

(3) "Optional annuity form" means an annuity form which is elected by a member and is not provided automatically as the standard annuity form of the public pension fund.

(4) "Public pension fund" means a public pension plan as defined pursuant to section 356.60, subdivision 1, clause (a).

(5) "Retirement annuity" means a series of monthly payments to which a former or retired member of a public pension fund is entitled on account of attaining a specified age and acquiring credit for a specified period of service, which shall include a retirement annuity, retirement allowance or service pension.

(6) "Disability benefit" means a series of monthly payments to which a former or disabled member of a public pension fund is entitled on account of a physical or mental inability to engage in specified employment.

Sec. 10. Minnesota Statutes 1981 Supplement, Section 356.371, Subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [PROVISION OF INFORMATION ON ANNUITY FORMS.] Every public pension fund which provides for an annuity form other than a single life retirement annuity as an option which can be elected by ~~the~~ an active, disabled or retiring member shall provide as a part of, or accompanying the annuity application form, a written statement summarizing the optional annuity forms which are available, a general indication of the consequences of selecting one annuity form over another, a calculation of the actuarial reduction in the amount of the retirement annuity which would be required for each optional annuity form and the procedure to be followed to obtain more information from the public pension fund concerning the optional annuity forms provided by the fund.

356.41 [BENEFIT ADJUSTMENTS.]

Disability benefits and survivor benefits payable to a disabilitant or a survivor now or hereafter receiving benefits from any public pension fund which participates in the Minnesota post-retirement investment fund shall be adjusted in the same manner, at the same times and in the same amounts as are benefits payable from the Minnesota post-retirement investment fund to retirees of that public pension fund. If a disability benefit is recomputed as a retirement annuity and the recipient would have been eligible for an adjustment pursuant to this section if the disability benefit was not recomputed, the recipient will continue to be eligible for the adjustment after the recomputation. For the survivor of a deceased annuitant who receives a survivor benefit calculated pursuant to a prior law rather than the second portion of a joint and survivor annuity, any period of receipt of a retirement annuity by the annuitant shall be utilized in determining the period of receipt for eligibility to receive an adjustment. No recipient shall, however, be entitled to more than one adjustment at one time by reason of this section.

Sec. 12. Minnesota Statutes 1981 Supplement, Section 422A.06, Subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [CREATION; DIVISIONS OF FUND.] For the purposes of ~~sections 422A.01 to 422A.25~~ this chapter, there shall be a Minneapolis employees retirement fund, hereafter referred to as the retirement fund. The retirement fund shall be subdivided into (1) a deposit accumulation fund, (2) ~~a participating share in the Minnesota post-retirement investment fund,~~ ~~(3)~~ a survivor benefit fund, ~~(4)~~ (3) a disability benefit fund, and ~~(5)~~ (4) a retirement benefit fund. The expense of the administration of the retirement fund shall be paid from the deposit accumulation fund, less the amount as the retirement board may charge against income of the retirement fund from investments as the cost of handling the investments of the retirement fund.

Sec. 13. Minnesota Statutes 1981 Supplement, Section 422A.06, Subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [DEPOSIT ACCUMULATION FUND.] The deposit accumulation fund shall consist of the assets held in the fund, increased by amounts contributed by or for employees, amounts contributed by the city, amounts contributed by municipal activities supported in whole or in part by revenues other than taxes and amounts contributed by any public corporation, amounts paid by the state and by income from investments. There shall be paid from the fund the amounts required to be transferred to the ~~Minnesota post-retirement investment fund,~~ retirement benefit fund, or the disability benefit fund, refunds of contributions, death benefits payable on death before retirement which are not payable from the survivors' benefit fund, post retirement increases in retirement allowances granted pursuant to Laws 1965, Chapter 688, or Laws 1969, Chapter 859, and expenses of the administration of the retirement fund which were not charged by the retirement board against the income of the retirement fund from investments as the cost of handling the investments of the retirement fund.

Sec. 14. Minnesota Statutes 1981 Supplement, Section 422A.06, Subdivision 4, is amended to read:

Subd. 4. [NO PARTICIPATION IN THE MINNESOTA POST-RETIREMENT INVESTMENT FUND.] The Minneapolis employees retirement fund shall not participate in the Minnesota post-retirement ~~adjustment~~ investment fund. ~~In that fund there shall be deposited the amounts provided in subdivision 5.~~

Sec. 15. Minnesota Statutes 1981 Supplement, Section 422A.06, Subdivision 5, is amended to read:

Subd. 5. [~~VALUATION OF ASSETS~~ TRANSFER OF RESERVES TO RETIREMENT BENEFIT FUND; ADJUSTMENTS OF ANNUITIES AND

BENEFITS.] (a) For those members retiring pursuant to this chapter, assets equal to the required reserves as determined in accordance with a mortality table appropriate to the retirement fund with an interest assumption set at the rate specified in section 356.215, subdivision 4, clause (4), shall be transferred to the ~~Minnesota post-retirement investment fund, the~~ disability benefit fund as provided in subdivision 7, or the retirement benefit fund, except for any amounts payable from the survivor benefit fund, as of date of retirement.

(b) Annuity payments shall be adjusted in accordance with the provisions of ~~sections 422A.09 and 422A.15~~ this chapter, except that no minimum retirement payments therein described shall include any amounts payable from the survivors' benefit fund or disability benefit fund and supplemented benefits specifically financed by statute.

(c) Notwithstanding the provisions of section 356.18, increases in annuity payments pursuant to this section shall be made automatically unless written notice on a form prescribed by the board is filed with the retirement board requesting that the increase not be made.

(d) ~~All annuities payable from the Minnesota post-retirement investment fund which are in effect on June 30, 1973 shall be increased in the same ratio that the actuarially computed reserve for the annuities determined by using an interest assumption of 3-1/2 percent bears to the actuarially computed reserve for the annuities determined by using an interest assumption of five percent. The reserves upon which the increases shall be based shall be the actuarially determined reserves for all Minnesota post-retirement investment fund annuities which were in effect on December 31, 1972, in accordance with the mortality assumptions then in effect and at interest assumptions of 3-1/2 percent and five percent. The ratio of increase computed to the last full 1/100 of one percent shall be applied to all annuities payable from the Minnesota post-retirement investment fund which are in effect on June 30, 1973.~~ Any additional annuity ~~shall begin~~ which began to accrue on July 1, 1973 ~~and~~ or which began to accrue on January 1, 1974, pursuant to Laws 1973, Chapter 770, Section 1, shall be considered as part of the base amount to be used in determining any postretirement adjustments payable pursuant to the provisions of ~~section 11A.18~~ subdivision 8.

~~(e) The municipal employees retirement fund of Minneapolis shall determine the increase if any in accrual of benefits commencing January 1, 1974, determined on the basis of its entire participation in the manner provided in Minnesota Statutes, 1973 Supplement, Section 11.25, Subdivisions 12 and 13.~~

~~(f) The actuary for each participating fund shall calculate the reserve required to support the benefits in effect on June 30, 1973 as increased on July 1, 1973 and herein. As of December 31, 1973, each participating fund shall transfer to or from the Minnesota post-retirement investment fund assets so that its participation equals the total of the required reserves and the reserve for benefits authorized on or after July 1, 1973. The increased benefits accruing as of January 1, 1974 shall be the base for future adjustments.~~

Sec. 16. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 423A.01, Subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [OPERATION OF LOCAL RELIEF ASSOCIATION UPON

MODIFICATION OF RETIREMENT COVERAGE FOR NEWLY HIRED POLICE OFFICERS AND FIREFIGHTERS.] The following provisions shall govern the operation of a local relief association upon the modification of retirement coverage for newly hired police officers or firefighters:

(1) The minimum obligation of a municipality in which the retirement coverage for newly hired police officers or salaried firefighters has been modified pursuant to subdivision 1 with respect to the local relief association shall be determined and governed in accordance with the provisions of sections 69.77, 356.215 and 356.216, except that the normal cost calculation for the relief association shall be computed as a percentage of the compensation paid to the active members of the relief association. The compensation paid to persons with retirement coverage modified pursuant to subdivision 1 shall not be included in any of the computations made in determining the obligation of the municipality with respect to the local relief association.

(2) The contribution rate of members of the local relief association shall be governed by section 69.77, unless a special law establishing a greater member contribution rate is applicable whereupon it shall continue to govern. The member contribution rate of persons with retirement coverage modified pursuant to subdivision 1 shall be governed by section 353.65.

(3) When every active member of the local relief association retires or terminates from active duty, the local relief association shall cease to exist as a legal entity and the assets of the special fund of the relief association shall be transferred to a trust fund to be established by the appropriate municipality for the purpose of paying service pensions and retirement benefits to recipient beneficiaries. If there are at least five recipient beneficiaries, the trust fund shall be managed by a board of trustees composed of five members selected by the recipient beneficiaries of the fund, subject to the approval of the governing body of the municipality. If there are fewer than five recipient beneficiaries, the trust fund shall be managed by the governing body of the municipality. The term of the elected members of the board of trustees shall be indefinite and shall continue until a vacancy occurs in one of the board of trustee member positions. Board of trustee members shall not be compensated for their services, but shall be reimbursed for any expenses actually and necessarily incurred as a result of the performance of their duties in their capacity as board of trustee members. The municipality shall perform whatever services are necessary to administer the trust fund. ~~The balance of assets remaining in the trust fund shall not revert to the municipality until~~ When all obligations of the trust fund are paid, the balance of the assets remaining in the trust fund shall revert to the municipality for expenditure for law enforcement or firefighting purposes, whichever is applicable.

(4) The financial requirements of the trust fund and the minimum obligation of the municipality with respect to the trust fund shall be determined in accordance with sections 69.77, 356.215 and 356.216 until the unfunded accrued liability of the trust fund is fully amortized in accordance with ~~Laws 1980, Chapter 607~~ section 69.77, subdivision 2, clause (2). The municipality shall provide in its annual budget for at least the aggregate amount of service pensions, disability benefits, survivorship benefits and refunds which are projected as payable for the following calendar year, as determined by the board of trustees of the trust fund, less the amount of assets in the trust fund as of the end of the most current calendar year for which figures are available, valued pursuant to section 356.20, subdivision 4, clause (1) (a), if the difference between those two figures is a positive number.

(5) In calculating the amount of service pensions and other retirement benefits payable from the local relief association and in calculating the amount of any automatic post retirement increases in those service pensions and retirement benefits based on the salary paid or payable to active members or escalated in any fashion, the salary for use as the base for the service pension or retirement benefit calculation and the post retirement increase calculation for the local relief association shall be the salary for the applicable position as specified in the articles of incorporation or bylaws of the relief association as of the date immediately prior to the effective date of the modification of retirement coverage for newly hired personnel pursuant to subdivision 1, as the applicable salary is reset by the municipality periodically, irrespective of whether retirement coverage for persons holding the applicable position used in calculations is provided by the relief association or by the public employees police and fire fund.

(6) If the modification of retirement coverage implemented pursuant to subdivision 1 is applicable to a local police relief association, the police state aid received by the municipality shall be disbursed pursuant to section 69.031, subdivision 5, clause (2) (c). If the modification of retirement coverage implemented pursuant to subdivision 1 is applicable to a local firefighters' relief association, the fire state aid received by the applicable municipality shall be disbursed as the municipality at its option may elect. The municipality may elect: ~~(1)~~ (a) to transmit the total fire state aid to the treasurer of the local relief association for immediate deposit in the special fund of the relief association; or ~~(2)~~ (b) to apply the total fire state aid toward the employer contribution of the municipality to the public employees police and fire fund pursuant to section 353.65, subdivision 3; or ~~(3)~~ (c) to allocate the total fire state aid proportionately between the special fund of the local relief association and employer contribution of the municipality to the public employees police and fire fund on the basis of the respective number of active full time salaried firefighters receiving retirement coverage from each.
