~~(20) Income from the performance of personal or professional services which is subject to the reciprocity exclusion contained in section 290.081, clause (a);~~

~~(21)~~ (20) To the extent included in federal adjusted gross income, in the case of a city manager or city administrator who elects to be excluded from the public employees retirement association and who makes contributions to a deferred compensation program pursuant to section 353.028, the amount of payments from the deferred compensation program equivalent to the amount of contributions taxed under clause (a)(21); ~~and~~

~~(23)~~ (22) Interest earned on a contract for deed entered into for the purchase of property for agricultural use if the rate of interest set in the contract is no more than eight percent per year for the duration of the term of the contract. This exclusion shall be available only if (1) the purchaser is an individual who, together with his spouse and dependents, has a total net worth valued at less than $150,000 and (2) the property purchased under the contract is farm land as defined in section 41.52, subdivision 6 of no more than 1,000 acres that the purchaser intends to use for agricultural purposes. Compliance with these requirements shall be stated in an affidavit to be filed with the first income tax return on which the taxpayer claims the exclusion provided in this clause. Upon request accompanied by the information necessary to make the determination, the commissioner shall determine whether interest to be paid on a proposed transaction will qualify for this exclusion; the determination shall be provided within 30 days of receipt of the request, unless the commissioner finds it necessary to obtain additional information, or verification of the information provided, in which case the determination shall be provided within 30 days of receipt of the final item of information or verification. The exclusion provided in this clause shall apply to interest earned on contracts for deed entered into after December 31, 1981 and before July 1, 1983;

~~(24)~~ (23) For the taxable year beginning after December 31, 1980, but before January 1, 1982, an amount equal to 85 percent of the deduction allowed under section 168 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 as amended through December 31, 1981. For the taxable year beginning after December 31, 1981 but before January 1, 1983, 83 percent of the deduction allowed under section 168 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 as amended through December 31, 1981. The depreciation adjustments made to basis in the case of recovery property within the meaning of section 168 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 as amended through December 31, 1981 shall be the depreciation adjustments made for federal income tax purposes under the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, as amended through December 31, 1981. Adoption of this provision shall not be construed as indicating the intent of the legislature to enact provisions authorizing amortization of the amount of depreciation not excludable under this clause; ~~and~~

January 1, 1983, an amount equal to the deduction allowed under section 179 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 as amended through December 31, 1981; and

(25) Income from the business of mining as defined in section 290.05, subdivision 1, clause (a) which is not subject to the Minnesota income tax.

(c) A modification affecting shareholders of electing small business corporations under section 1372 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 shall be made-

~~In cases~~ where the election under section 1372 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 antedates the election under this chapter and at the close of the taxable year immediately preceding the effective election under this chapter the corporation has a reserve of undistributed taxable income previously taxed to shareholders under the provisions of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, in the event and to the extent that the reserve is distributed to shareholders the distribution shall be taxed as a dividend for purposes of this chapter.

(d) Amounts transferred from a reserve or other account, if in effect transfers to surplus, shall, to the extent that the amounts were accumulated through deductions from gross income or entered into the computation of taxable net income during any taxable year, be treated as gross income for the year in which the transfer occurs, but only to the extent that the amounts resulted in a reduction of the tax imposed by this chapter and amounts received as refunds on account of taxes deducted from gross income during any taxable year shall be treated as gross income for the year in which actually received, but only to the extent that such amounts resulted in a reduction of the tax imposed by this chapter.

(e) Modification in computing taxable income of the estate of a decedent. Amounts allowable under section 291.07, subdivision 1, clause (2) in computing Minnesota inheritance or estate tax liability shall not be allowed as a deduction (or as an offset against the sales price of property in determining gain or loss) in computing the taxable income of the estate or any person unless there is filed within the time and in the manner and form prescribed by the commissioner a statement that the amounts have not been allowed as a deduction under section 291.07 and a waiver of the right to have the amounts allowed at any time as deductions under section 291.07. The provisions of this paragraph shall not apply with respect to deductions allowed under section 290.077 (relating to income in respect of decedents). In the event that the election made for federal tax purposes under section 642(g) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 differs from the election made under this paragraph appropriate modification of the estate's federal taxable income shall be made to implement the election made under this paragraph in accordance with regulations prescribed by the commissioner.

Sec. 2. Minnesota Statutes 1981 Supplement, Section 290.01, Subdivision 27, is amended to read:

Subd. 27. [MINNESOTA EXEMPT-INTEREST DIVIDENDS.] If, at the close of each quarter of its taxable year, at least 50 percent of the value (as defined in section 851(c)(4) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 as amended through December 31, 1979) of the total assets of a regulated investment company (as defined and limited by section 851 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 as amended through December 31, 1979 and to which sections 851 to 855 of the Code apply for the taxable year) consists of obligations of any authority, commission, or instrumentality of the United States as described in subdivision 20, clause (b)(1), or section 290.08, subdivision 8, determined without regard to the last sentence, the company shall be qualified to pay Minnesota exempt-interest dividends, as defined herein, to its shareholders.

(A) A Minnesota exempt-interest dividend means any dividend or part thereof (other than a capital gain dividend as defined in subdivision 21, or an exempt-interest dividend as defined in section 852(b)(5)(A) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, as amended through December 31, 1979) paid by a regulated investment company and designated by it as a Minnesota exempt-interest dividend in a written notice mailed to its shareholders not later than 45 days after the close of its taxable year. If the aggregate amount so designated with respect to a taxable year of the company, including Minnesota exempt-interest dividends paid after the close of the taxable year as described in section 290.21, subdivision 6, is greater than the excess of—

(i) The amount of interest from an obligation of any authority, commission, or instrumentality of the United States that would be excludable from gross income under subdivision 20, clause (b)(1), or section 290.08, subdivision 8 determined without regard to the last sentence, if the company were subject to chapter 290, whether or not the company is subject to chapter 290, over

(ii) The amounts that would be disallowed as deductions under section 290.09, subdivisions 3(b) and 13, if the company were subject to chapter 290, whether or not the company is subject to chapter 290, as a result of the company's ownership of obligations of any authority, commission, or instrumentality of the United States as described in subdivision 20, clause (b)(1), or section 290.08, subdivision 8, determined without regard to the last sentence, the portion of such distribution which shall constitute a Minnesota exempt-interest dividend shall be only that proportion of the amount so designated as the amount of the excess for the taxable year bears to the amount so designated.

(B) A Minnesota exempt-interest dividend shall be treated by the shareholders for all purposes of chapter 290 as an item of interest excludable from gross income under subdivision 20, clause (b)(1), ~~and~~ or section 290.08, subdivision 8. Such purposes include but are not limited to—

(i) The determination of gross income and taxable income,

(ii) The determination of distributable net income under section 290.23,

(iii) The allowance of, or calculation of the amount of, any credit or deduction, and

(iv) The determination of the basis in the hands of any shareholder of any share of stock of the company.

Sec. 3. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 290.012, Subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. "Claimant" means the individual taxpayer whose income, together with that of his spouse, if any, brings him within the provisions of this section and section 290.06, subdivision 3d. No claimant and spouse whose federal adjusted gross income, including the modifications increasing federal adjusted gross income as computed under section 290.01, subdivision 20, clause (a) ~~and section 290.17~~, exceed $20,000 may qualify under this section.

Sec. 4. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 290.02, is amended to read:

290.02 [EXCISE TAX ON CORPORATIONS; IMPOSITION, MEASUREMENT.]

An annual excise tax is hereby imposed upon every domestic corporation~~, except those included within section 290.03,~~ for the privilege of existing as a corporation during any part of its taxable year, and upon every foreign corporation doing business within this state, except those included within section 290.03, including but not limited to railroad companies for the gran' to it of the privilege of transacting or for the actual transaction by it of any local business within this state during any part of its taxable year, in corporate or organized form.

The tax so imposed shall be measured by such corporations' taxable net income for the taxable year for which the tax is imposed, and computed in the manner and at the rates provided in this chapter.

Sec. 5. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 290.03, is amended to read:

290.03 [INCOME TAX; IMPOSITION, CLASSES OF TAXPAYERS.]

An annual tax for each taxable year, computed in the manner and at the rates hereinafter provided, is hereby imposed upon the taxable net income for such year of the following classes of taxpayers:

(1) ~~Domestic and~~ Foreign corporations not taxable under section 290.02 which own property within this state or whose business within this state during the taxable year consists exclusively of foreign commerce, interstate commerce, or both;

Business within the state shall not be deemed to include transportation in interstate or foreign commerce, or both, by means of ships navigating within or through waters which are made international for navigation purposes by any treaty or agreement to which the United States is a party;

(2) Resident and non-resident individuals;

(3) Estates of decedents, dying domiciled within or without this state;

(4) Trusts (except those taxable as corporations) however created by residents or non-residents or by domestic or foreign corporations.

Sec. 6. Minnesota Statutes 1981 Supplement, Section 290.05, Subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. The following corporations, individuals, estates, trusts, and organizations shall be exempted from taxation under this chapter, provided that every such person or corporation claiming exemption under this chapter, in whole or in part, must establish to the satisfaction of the commissioner the taxable status of any income or activity:

(a) Corporations, individuals, estates, and trusts engaged in the business of mining or producing iron ore and other ores the mining or production of which is subject to the occupation tax imposed by section 298.01; but if any such corporation, individual, estate, or trust engages in any other business or activity or has income from any property not used in such business it shall be subject to this tax computed on the net income from such property or such other business or activity. Royalty (as defined in section 299.02) shall not be considered as income from the business of mining or producing iron ore within the meaning of this section;

(b) ~~Farmers' mutual insurance companies organized and existing under the laws of the state and credit unions organized under chapter 52;~~

~~(c) Fraternal beneficiary associations wherever organized, and public department relief associations of public employees of this state or of any of its political subdivisions;~~

~~(d) Cooperative or mutual rural telephone associations; and cooperative associations organized under the provisions of chapter 308, which are engaged in the transmission and distribution of electrical heat, light or power upon a mutual and cooperative plan in areas outside the corporate limits of any city; but if any such cooperative association engages in supplying electrical heat, light or power to consumers within the corporate limits of any city, then such association shall be subject to this tax computed on that portion of its net income which its gross receipts from consumers within such corporate limits bears to its total gross receipts;~~

~~(e)~~ The United States of America, the state of Minnesota or any political subdivision of either agencies or instrumentalities, whether engaged in the discharge of governmental or proprietary functions.

Sec. 7. Minnesota Statutes 1981 Supplement, Section 290.05, Subdivision 4, is amended to read:

Subd. 4. (a) Corporations, individuals, estates, trusts or organizations claiming exemption under the provisions of ~~subdivision 1, clause (c), or~~ subdivision 2 shall furnish information as to their exempt status under the Internal Revenue Code.

(b) Such corporations, individuals, estates, trusts, and organizations shall file with the commissioner of revenue a copy of any annual report that is required to be filed with the Internal Revenue Service, no later than ten days after filing the same with the Internal Revenue Service.

Any person required to file a copy of a federal return pursuant to the preceding paragraph who wilfully fails to file such return shall be guilty of a misdemeanor.

(c) In the event that the Internal Revenue Service revokes, cancels or suspends, in whole or part, the exempt status of any corporation, individual, estate, trust or organization referred to in clause (a), or if the amount of gross income, deductions, credits, items of tax preference or taxable income is changed or corrected by either the taxpayer or the Internal Revenue Service, or if the taxpayer consents to any extension of time for assessment of federal income taxes such corporation, individual, estate, trust or organization shall notify the commissioner in writing of such action within 90 days thereafter.

(d) The periods of limitations contained in section 290.56 shall apply whenever there has been any action referred to in clause (c), notwithstanding any period of limitations to the contrary.

Sec. 8. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 290.06, Subdivision 9, is amended to read:

Subd. 9. [POLLUTION CONTROL EQUIPMENT, CREDIT.] (a) A credit of five percent of the net cost of equipment used primarily to abate or control pollutants to meet or exceed state laws, rules or standards to the extent the property is so used and which is included in section 290.09, subdivision 7, paragraph (A) (a) may be deducted from the tax due under this chapter in the first year for which a depreciation deduction is allowed for the equipment. The credit allowed by this subdivision shall not exceed so much of the liability for tax for the taxable year as does not exceed $75,000. The credit shall apply only if the equipment meets rules prescribed by the Minnesota pollution control agency and is installed or operated in accordance with a permit or order issued by the agency.

(b) If the amount of the credit determined under (a) for any taxable year for which a depreciation deduction is allowed exceeds the limitation provided by (a) for such taxable year (hereinafter in this subdivision referred to as the "unused credit year"), such excess shall be, a credit carryover to each of the four taxable years following the unused credit year.

The entire amount of the unused credit for an unused credit year shall be carried to the earliest of the four taxable years to which such credit may be carried and then to each of the other three taxable years; provided, however, the maximum credit allowable in any one taxable year under this subdivision (including the credit allowable under (a) and the carryforward allowable under this paragraph) shall in no event exceed $75,000.

~~(c) This subdivision shall apply to property acquired in taxable years beginning on or after January 1, 1977.~~

Sec. 9. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 290.06, Subdivision 9a, is amended to read:

Subd. 9a. [FEEDLOT POLLUTION CONTROL EQUIPMENT.] A credit of ten percent of the net cost of pollution control and abatement equipment, including but not limited to, lagoons, concrete storage pits, slurry handling equipment, and other equipment and devices approved by the pollution control agency, purchased, installed and operated within the state by a feedlot operator to prevent pollution of air, land, or water in connection with the operation of a livestock feedlot, poultry lot or other animal lot, may be deducted from the tax due under this chapter in the taxable year in which such equipment is purchased; provided that no deduction shall be taken for any portion of the cost of the same equipment pursuant to subdivision 9.

If the amount of the credit provided by this subdivision exceeds the taxpayer's liability for taxes pursuant to chapter 290 in the taxable year~~, beginning after December 31, 1972,~~ in which the equipment is purchased, the excess amount may be carried forward to the four taxable years following the year of purchase. The entire amount of the credit not used in the year purchased shall be carried to the earliest of the four taxable years to which the credit may be carried and then to each of the three successive taxable years.

Sec. 10. Minnesota Statutes 1981 Supplement, Section 290.075, is amended to read:

290.075 [RENEGOTIATED WAR CONTRACTS.]

Any corporate taxpayer who supplies any goods, wares and merchandise or performs services, or both, under any contract, with the United States of America, or under any subcontract thereunder, or under a cost-plus-a-fixed-fee contract with the United States of America, or any agency thereof and who is subject to renegotiations under the renegotiation laws of the United States of America, or is required to renegotiate with his subcontractor, shall be required to adjust his or its Minnesota income and franchise tax liability in accordance with the following rules:

A return shall be filed and the income and franchise tax computed, on the basis of the Minnesota taxable net income without giving effect to any renegotiations occurring after the close of the taxable year. If after the close of the taxable year there is a final determination under renegotiation, ~~the difference between (1)~~ the amount determined by the renegotiation to be (a) excess profits, (b) excess fees under a fixed fee contract with the United States, or any agency thereof, or (c) the amount of any item for which the taxpayer has been reimbursed but which is disallowed as an item of cost chargeable to a fixed fee contract, ~~and (2) the amount of federal income and excess profits taxes applicable thereto,~~ shall be allowed as a deduction from gross income in the taxable year in which said final determination is made, but only to the extent that such renegotiated profits, fees or amounts were included in the taxable net income in a prior year. If the taxable net income for the taxable year in which said final determination is made is less than said deduction, the taxpayer shall be entitled to a refund of the state income tax which it has paid on the difference between said deduction and said taxable income. The certificate of the agency or instrumentality of the United States conducting such renegotiation proceedings shall be evidence of the amount of the renegotiated profit and of the date thereof.

Sec. 11. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 290.079, Subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [AMOUNT CONSTITUTING INTEREST.] For purposes of this chapter, in the case of any contract for the sale or exchange of property there shall be treated as interest that part of a payment to which ~~this section~~ section 483 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, as amended through December 31, 1981, applies ~~which bears the same ratio to the amount of such payment as the total unstated interest under such contract bears to the total of the payments to which this section applied which are due under such contract~~.

Sec. 12. Minnesota Statutes 1981 Supplement, Section 290.081, is amended to read:

290.081 [INCOME OF NONRESIDENTS, RECIPROCITY.]

(a) The compensation received for the performance of personal or professional services within this state by an individual who resides and has his place of abode and place to which he customarily returns at least once a month in another state, shall be excluded from gross income to the extent such compensation is subject to an income tax imposed by the state of his residence; provided that such state allows a similar exclusion of compensation received by residents of Minnesota for services performed therein, or

(b) Whenever a nonresident taxpayer has become liable for income taxes to the state where he resides upon his net income for the taxable year derived from the performance of personal or professional services within this state and subject to taxation under this chapter, there shall be allowed as a credit against the amount of income tax payable by him under this chapter, such proportion of the tax so paid by him to the state where he resides as his gross income subject to taxation under this chapter bears to his entire gross income upon which the tax so paid to such other state was imposed; provided, that such credit shall be allowed only if the laws of such state grant a substantially similar credit to residents of this state subject to income tax under such laws, or

(c) If any taxpayer who is a resident of this state, or a domestic corporation or corporation commercially domiciled therein, has become liable for taxes on or measured by net income to another state or a province or territory of Canada upon, if the taxpayer is an individual, any income, or if it is a corporation, estate, or trust, upon income derived from the performance of personal or professional services within such other state or province or territory of Canada and subject to taxation under this chapter he or it shall be entitled to a credit against the amount of taxes payable under this chapter, of such proportion thereof, as such gross income subject to taxation in such state or province or territory of Canada bears to his entire gross income subject to taxation under this chapter; provided (1) that such credit shall in no event exceed the amount of tax so paid to such other state or province or territory of Canada on the gross income earned within such other state or province or territory of Canada and subject to taxation under this chapter, and (2) that such credit shall not be allowed if such other state or province or territory of Canada allows residents of this state a credit against the taxes imposed by such state or province or territory of Canada for taxes payable under this chapter substantially similar to the credit provided for by paragraph (b) of this section, and (3) the allowance of such credit shall not operate to reduce the taxes payable under this chapter to an amount less than would have been payable if the gross income earned in such other state or province or territory of Canada had been excluded in computing net income under this chapter.

(d) The commissioner shall by regulation determine with respect to gross income earned in any other state the applicable clause of this section. When it is deemed to be in the best interests of the people of this state, the commissioner may determine that the provisions of clause (a) shall not apply.

(e) "Tax So Paid" as used in this section means taxes on or measured by net income payable to another state or province or territory of Canada on income earned within the taxable year for which the credit is claimed, provided that such tax is actually paid in that taxable year, or subsequent taxable years.

For purposes of clause (c), where a Minnesota resident reported an item of income to Minnesota and is assessed tax in another state or a province or territory of Canada on that same item of income after the Minnesota statute of limitations has expired, the taxpayer shall be allowed to receive a credit for that year based on clause (c), notwithstanding the provisions of sections 290.49, 290.50, and 290.56. For purposes of the preceding sentence, the burden of proof shall be on the taxpayer to show that he is entitled to a credit.

(f) For the purposes of clause (a), whenever the Wisconsin tax on Minnesota residents which would have been paid Wisconsin without clause (a) exceeds the Minnesota tax on Wisconsin residents which would have been paid Minnesota without clause (a), or vice versa, then the state with the net revenue loss resulting from clause (a) shall receive from the other state the amount of such loss. This provision shall be effective for all years beginning after December 31, 1972. The data used for computing the loss to either state shall be determined on or before September 30 of the year following the close of the previous calendar year.

Interest shall be payable on all delinquent balances relating to taxable years beginning after December 31, 1977. The commissioner of revenue is authorized to enter into agreements with the state of Wisconsin specifying the reciprocity payment due date, conditions constituting delinquency, interest rates, and a method for computing interest due on any delinquent amounts.

If an agreement cannot be reached as to the amount of the loss, the commissioner of revenue and the taxing official of the state of Wisconsin shall each appoint a member of a board of arbitration and these members shall appoint the third member of the board. The board shall select one of its members as chairman. Such board may administer oaths, take testimony, subpoena witnesses, and require their attendance, require the production of books, papers and documents, and hold hearings at such places as are deemed necessary. The board shall then make a determination as to the amount to be paid the other state which determination shall be final and conclusive.

Notwithstanding the provisions of section 290.61, the commissioner may furnish copies of returns, reports, or other information to the taxing official of the state of Wisconsin, a member of the board of arbitration, or a consultant under joint contract with the states of Minnesota and Wisconsin for the purpose of making a determination as to the amount to be paid the other state under the provisions of this section. Prior to the release of any information under the provisions of this section, the person to whom the information is to be released shall sign an agreement which provides that he will protect the confidentiality of the returns and information revealed thereby to the extent that it is protected under the laws of the state of Minnesota.

Sec. 13. Minnesota Statutes 1981 Supplement, Section 290.09, Subdivision 4, is amended to read:

Subd. 4. [TAXES.] Taxes paid or accrued within the taxable year, except (a) income or franchise taxes imposed by this chapter and income or franchise taxes paid to any other state or to any province or territory of Canada for which a credit is allowed under section 290.081; (b) taxes assessed against local benefits of a kind deemed in law to increase the value of the property assessed; (c) inheritance, gift and estate taxes except as provided in section 290.077, subdivision 4; (d) cigarette and tobacco products excise tax imposed on the consumer; (e) that part of Minnesota property taxes for which a credit or refund is claimed and allowed under chapter 290A; (f) federal income taxes (including the windfall profit tax on domestic crude oil), by corporations, national and state banks; (g) mortgage registry tax; (h) real estate transfer tax; (i) federal telephone tax; (j) federal transportation tax; and (k) tax paid by any corporation or national or state bank to any foreign country or possession of the United States to the extent that a credit against federal income taxes is allowed under the provisions of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, as amended through December 31, 1980. If the taxpayer's foreign tax credit consists of both foreign taxes deemed paid and foreign taxes actually paid or withheld, it will be conclusively presumed that foreign taxes deemed paid were first used by the taxpayer in its foreign tax credit. Minnesota gross income shall include the amount of foreign tax paid which had been allowed as a deduction in a previous year, provided such foreign tax is later allowed as a credit against federal income tax.

Taxes imposed upon a shareholder's interest in a corporation which are paid by the corporation without reimbursement from the shareholder shall be deductible only by such corporation.

Property taxes shall be allowed as a deduction to the same taxpayer and in the same manner as provided in section 164 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, as amended through December 31, 1981, notwithstanding the provisions of section 272.31.

Sec. 14. Minnesota Statutes 1981 Supplement, Section 290.09, Subdivision 15, is amended to read:

Subd. 15. [STANDARD DEDUCTION.] In lieu of all deductions provided for in this chapter, except for the federal income tax deduction, an individual may claim or be allowed a standard deduction as follows:

(a) Subject to modification pursuant to clause (b), the standard deduction shall be an amount equal to ten percent of the adjusted gross income of the taxpayer, up to a maximum deduction of $2,000.

In the case of a husband and wife, the standard deduction shall not be allowed to either if the net income of one of the spouses is determined without regard to the standard deduction.

(b) For each taxable year beginning after December 31, 1980, the maximum amount of the standard deduction shall be adjusted for inflation in the same manner as provided in section 290.06, subdivision 2d, for the expansion of the taxable net income brackets. ~~If the product exceeds a whole dollar amount, it shall be rounded to the nearest dollar.~~

(c) The commissioner of revenue may establish a standard deduction tax table incorporating the rates set forth in section 290.06, subdivision 2c, and the standard deduction. The tax of any individual taxpayer whose adjusted gross income is less than $20,000 shall, if an election is made not to itemize nonbusiness deductions, be computed in accordance with tables prepared and issued by the commissioner of revenue. The tables shall be prepared to reflect the allowance of the standard deduction and the personal and dependent credits.

Sec. 15. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 290.09, Subdivision 16, is amended to read:

Subd. 16. [CIRCULATION EXPENDITURES.] Notwithstanding the provisions of section 290.10(2), ~~all~~ circulation expenditures ~~(other than expenditures for the purchase of land or depreciable property or for the acquisition of circulation through the purchase of any part of the business or another publisher of a newspaper, magazine, or other periodical) to establish, maintain, or increase the circulation of a newspaper, magazine, or other periodical; except that the deduction shall not be allowed with respect to the portion of such expenditures as, under regulations prescribed by the commissioner, is chargeable to capital account if the taxpayer elects, in accordance with such regulations, to treat such portion as so chargeable. Such election, if made, must be for~~

~~the total amount of such portion of the expenditures which is so chargeable to capital account, and shall be binding for all subsequent taxable years unless, upon application by the taxpayer, the commissioner permits a revocation of such election subject to such conditions as he deems necessary~~ shall be treated in the same manner as the taxpayer has elected under the provisions of section 173 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, as amended through December 31, 1981.

Sec. 16. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 290.09, Subdivision 17, is amended to read:

Subd. 17. [TAXES AND INTEREST PAID TO COOPERATIVE APARTMENT CORPORATION.] In the case of a tenant-stockholder ~~as defined herein~~, there shall be allowed as a deduction amounts~~, not otherwise deductible, paid or accrued to a cooperative apartment corporation within the taxable year, if such amounts represent that proportion of (a) the real estate taxes (allowable as deductions under subdivision 4) paid or incurred by the corporation on the apartment building and the land on which it is situated, and (b) the interest (allowable as a deduction under subdivision 3) paid or incurred by the corporation on its indebtedness contracted in the acquisition, construction, alteration, rehabilitation, or maintenance of such apartment building or in the acquisition of the land on which the building is located, which the stock of the corporation owned by the tenant-stockholder is of the total outstanding stock of the corporation, including that held by the corporation.~~

~~As used in this subdivision the term "cooperative apartment corporation" means a corporation~~

~~(a) having one and only one class of stock outstanding,~~

~~(b) all of the stockholders of which are entitled, solely by reason of their ownership of stock in the corporation, to occupy for dwelling purposes apartments in a building owned or leased by such corporation, and who are not entitled, either conditionally or unconditionally, except upon a complete or partial liquidation of the corporation, to receive any distribution not out of earnings and profits of the corporation, and~~

~~(c) 80 percent or more of the gross income of which for the taxable year in which the taxes and interest described in this subdivision are paid or incurred is derived from tenant-stockholders.~~

~~The term "tenant-stockholders" means an individual who is a stockholder in a cooperative apartment corporation, and whose stock is fully paid up in an amount not less than an amount shown to the satisfaction of the commissioner as bearing a reasonable relationship to the portion of the value of the corporation's equity in the building and the land on which it is situated which is attributable to the apartment which such individual is entitled to occupy. For purposes of this subdivision, if a bank or other lending institution acquires by foreclosure, or by instrument in lieu of foreclosure, the stock of a tenant-stockholder, and a lease or the right to occupy an apartment to which the stock is appurtenant, the bank or other lending institution shall be treated as a tenant-stockholder for a period not to exceed three years from the date of acquisition. The preceding sentence shall apply even though, by agreement with the cooperative apartment corporation, the bank or other lending institution, or its nominee, may not occupy the apartment without the prior approval of the corporation~~ allowed under the provisions of section 216 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, as amended through December 31, 1981.

Sec. 17. Minnesota Statutes 1981 Supplement, Section 290.091, as amended by Laws 1981, Third Special Session Chapter 2, Article III, Section 9, is amended to read:

290.091 [MINIMUM TAX ON PREFERENCE ITEMS.]

In addition to all other taxes imposed by this chapter there is hereby imposed, a tax which, in the case of a resident individual, shall be equal to 40 percent of the amount of the taxpayer's minimum tax liability for tax preference items pursuant to the provisions of sections 55 to 58 and 443(d) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 as amended through December 31, 1980 ~~except that~~. For purposes of the tax imposed by this section, the following modifications shall be made:

(1) Capital gain as defined in section 57(a) of the Internal Revenue Code shall not include that portion of any gain occasioned by sale, transfer or the granting of a perpetual easement pursuant to any eminent domain proceeding or threat thereof as described in section 290.13, subdivision 5. This modification shall apply to the years in which the gain or reduction in loss is actually included in federal adjusted gross income even though amounts received pursuant to the eminent domain proceedings were received in prior years.

(2) In the case of a corporate taxpayer, percentage depletion shall not be a preference item.

(3) In the case of a corporate taxpayer, the capital gain preference item shall not include the timber preference income defined in section 57(e)(1) of the Internal Revenue Code.

(4) The preference item of reserves for losses on bad debts shall not include reserves allowable under section 593 of the Internal Revenue Code, but which are not allowable under section 290.09, subdivision 6, clause (c).

(5) In the case of an individual, the preference item of adjusted itemized deductions does not include any deduction for charitable contributions in excess of the limitations contained in section 290.21, subdivision 3, including any carryover amount allowed for federal purposes.

(6) The capital gain preference item shall be reduced where the gain would be modified because some or all of the assets have a higher basis for Minnesota purposes than for federal purposes.

(7) In the case of a nonresident individual, or an estate or trust, with a net operating loss that is a larger amount for Minnesota than for federal, the capital gain preference item shall be reduced to the extent it was reduced in the allowance of the net operating loss.

In the case of a resident individual, having preference items which could not be taken to reduce income from sources outside the state pursuant to section 290.17, subdivision 1, or any other taxpayer the tax shall equal 40 percent of that federal liability, multiplied by a fraction the numerator of which is the amount of the taxpayer's preference item income allocated to this state pursuant to the provisions of sections 290.17 to 290.20, and the denominator of which is the taxpayer's total preference item income for federal purposes.

The tax benefit rule contained in section 58(h) of the Internal Revenue Code is applied to the Minnesota minimum tax only to the extent that it determines if there is a federal minimum tax. No separate tax benefit rule is allowable for the Minnesota minimum tax.

Sec. 18. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 290.095, Subdivision 4, is amended to read:

Subd. 4. [COMPUTATION AND MODIFICATIONS.] The following modifications shall be made in computing a net operating loss in any taxable year and also in computing the taxable net income for any taxable year before a net operating loss deduction shall be allowed:

(a) ~~Deductions otherwise allowable in computing taxable net income, but which are not attributable to the operation of a trade or business regularly carried on by the taxpayer, shall be allowed only to the extent of the amount of the gross income, not derived from such trade or business, included in computing such taxpayer's taxable net income.~~

~~(b) There shall be included in computing the gross income used in computing taxable net income the amount of the interest, excludable from gross income under section 290.08, that would be treated as assignable to this state, decreased by the amount of interest paid or accrued to purchase or carry the investments earning such interest to the extent that such interest would not have been deductible in computing the taxpayer's taxable net income.~~

~~(c)~~ No deduction shall be allowed for or with respect to losses connected with income producing activities if the income therefrom would not be required to be either assignable to this state or included in computing the taxpayer's taxable net income.

~~(d)~~ (b) A net operating loss deduction shall not be allowed.

~~(e)~~ (c) The amount deductible on account of losses from sales or exchanges of capital assets shall not exceed the amount includible on account of gains from sales or exchanges of capital assets. The deduction for long-term capital gains provided by section 290.16, subdivision 4, shall not be allowed.

~~(f)~~ (d) Renegotiation of profits for a prior taxable year under the renegotiation laws of the United States of America, including renegotiation of the profits with a subcontractor, shall not enter into the computation.

~~(g)~~ (e) Federal income and excess profits taxes shall not be allowed as a deduction.

Sec. 19. Minnesota Statutes 1981 Supplement, Section 290.095, Subdivision 11, is amended to read:

Subd. 11. [CARRYBACK OR CARRYOVER ADJUSTMENTS.] (a) For individuals the amount of a net operating loss that may be carried back or carried over shall be the same dollar amount allowable in the determination of federal adjusted gross income. For estates and trusts the amount of a net operating loss that may be carried back or carried over shall be the same dollar amount allowable in the determination of federal taxable income.

(b) The following adjustments to the amount of the net operating loss that may be carried back or carried over must be made for:

(1) Nonassignable income or losses as required by section 290.17, subdivision 2.

(2) Losses which constitute tax preference items as required in section

290.17, subdivision 1.

(3) Modifications required because of the restrictions on farm losses as provided in section 290.09, subdivision 29.

(4) Adjustments to the determination of federal adjusted gross income that must be made because of changes in the Internal Revenue Code that have not yet been adopted by the legislature by updating the reference to the Internal Revenue Code contained in section 290.01, subdivision 20.

(5) Modifications to income ~~and loss~~ contained in federal adjusted gross income according to the provisions of section 290.01, subdivision 20, clause (c).

(6) Gains or losses which result from the sale or other disposition of property having a higher adjusted basis for Minnesota income tax purposes than for federal income tax purposes subject to the limitations contained in section 290.01, subdivision 20, clause (b) (2) and (4).

(7) Interest, taxes, and other expenses not allowed under section 290.10, ~~clauses~~ clause (9) ~~and (10)~~ or section 290.101.

(c) (1) The net operating loss carryback or carryover applied as a deduction in the taxable year to which the net operating loss is carried back or carried over shall be equal to the net operating loss carryback or carryover applied in the taxable year in arriving at federal adjusted gross income (or federal taxable income for trusts and estates) subject to the modifications contained in clause (b) and to the following modifications:

(A) Increase the amount of carryback or carryover applied in the taxable year by the amount of losses and interest, taxes and other expenses not assignable or allowable to Minnesota incurred in the taxable year.

(B) Decrease the amount of carryback or carryover applied in the taxable year by the amount of income not assignable to Minnesota earned in the taxable year and the amount of federal jobs credit or WIN credit earned in the taxable year.

(C) A taxpayer who is not a resident of Minnesota during any part of the taxable year and who has no income assignable to Minnesota during the taxable year shall apply no net operating loss carryback or carryover in the taxable year.

(2) The provisions of section 172(b) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 as amended through December 31, 1980 (relating to carrybacks and carryovers) shall apply. The net operating loss carryback or carryover to the next consecutive taxable year shall be the net operating loss carryback or carryover as calculated in clause (c) (1) less the amount applied in the earlier taxable year(s). No additional net operating loss carryback or carryover shall be allowed if the entire amount has been used to offset Minnesota income in a year earlier than was possible on the federal return. A net operating loss carryback or carryover that was allowed to offset federal income in a year earlier than was possible on the Minnesota return shall still be allowed to offset Minnesota income but only if the loss was assignable to Minnesota in the year the loss occurred.

(d) A net operating loss shall be allowed to be carried back or carried forward only to the extent that loss was assignable to Minnesota in the year the loss occurred or in the year to which the loss was carried over, whichever would allow more of the loss to be allowed for Minnesota purposes.

(e) If a taxpayer has a net operating loss for federal purposes and the provisions of the farm loss limitation as provided in section 290.09, subdivision 29 apply, the limitations applying to the farm losses that are carried back or carried over are applied first and the net operating loss that is carried back or carried over is limited to the excess, if any, that the net operating loss exceeds the farm loss limitation.

Sec. 20. Minnesota Statutes 1981 Supplement, Section 290.10, is amended to read:

290.10 [NONDEDUCTIBLE ITEMS.]

In computing the net income no deduction shall in any case be allowed for:

(1) Personal, living or family expenses;

(2) Amounts paid out for new buildings or for permanent improvements or betterments made to increase the value of any property or estate, except as otherwise provided in this chapter;

(3) Amounts expended in restoring property or in making good the exhaustion thereof for which an allowance is or has been made;

(4) Premiums paid on any life insurance policy covering the life of the taxpayer or of any other person;

(5) The shrinkage in value, due to the lapse of time, of a life or terminable interest of any kind in property acquired by gift, devise, bequest or inheritance;

(6) Losses from sales or exchanges of property, directly or indirectly, between ~~members of a family, or, except in the case of distributions in liquidation, between an individual and a corporation in which such individual owns, directly or indirectly, more than 50 percent in value of the outstanding stock; or between any person or corporation and a trust created by him or it or of which he or it is a beneficiary, directly or indirectly; for the purpose of this clause, an individual shall be considered as owning the stock owned, directly or indirectly, by his family; and the family of an individual shall include only his brothers and sisters (whether by the whole or half blood), spouse, ancestor, and lineal descendants, but such losses shall be allowed as deductions if the taxpayer shows to the satisfaction of the commissioner that the sale or exchange was bona fide and for a fair and adequate consideration~~ related taxpayers as defined and as provided in section 267 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, as amended through December 31, 1981;

(7) In computing net income, no deduction shall be allowed under section 290.09, subdivision 2, relating to expenses incurred or under section 290.09, subdivision 3, relating to interest accrued as provided in section 267(a)(2) and (e) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, as amended through December 31, 1981;

~~(a) If such expenses or interest not paid within the taxable year or within two and one-half months after the close thereof; and~~

~~(b) If, by reason of the method of accounting of the person to whom the payment is to be made, the amount thereof is not, unless paid, includible in the~~

~~gross income of such person for the taxable year in which or with which the taxable year of the taxpayer ends; and~~

~~(c) If, at the close of the taxable year of the taxpayer or at any time within two and one-half months thereafter, both the taxpayer and the person to whom the payment is to be made are persons between whom losses would be disallowed under clause (6);~~

(8) (a) Contributions by employees under the federal railroad retirement act and the federal social security act. (b) Payments to Minnesota or federal public employee retirement funds. (c) Three-fourths (75 percent) of the amount of taxes imposed on self-employment income under section 1401 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, as amended through December 31, 1979.

(9) Expenses, interest and taxes connected with or allocable against the production or receipt of all income not included in the measure of the tax imposed by this chapter.

(10) In situations where this chapter provides for a subtraction from gross income of a specific dollar amount of an item of income assignable to this state, and within the measure of the tax imposed by this chapter, that portion of the federal income tax liability assessed upon such income subtracted, and any expenses attributable to earning such income, shall not be deductible in computing net income.

(11) Amounts paid or accrued for such taxes and carrying charges as, under regulations prescribed by the commissioner, are chargeable to capital account with respect to property, if the taxpayer elects, in accordance with such regulations, to treat such taxes or charges as so chargeable.

Sec. 21. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 290.13, Subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [TRANSACTIONS IN WHICH NO GAIN OR LOSS IS RECOGNIZED.] ~~No~~ Gain or loss from ~~the following~~ transactions described in section 1031, 1035, or 1036 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, as amended through December 31, 1981, shall be recognized at the time ~~of their occurrence, except as otherwise specified in this section:~~

~~(1) If the property held for productive use in trade or business or for investment (not including stock in trade or other property held primarily for sale, nor stocks, bonds, notes, choses in action, certificates of trust or beneficial interest, or other securities or evidences of indebtedness or interest) is exchanged solely for property of a like kind to be held either for productive use in trade or business or for investment;~~

~~(2) If common stock in a corporation is exchanged solely for common stock in the same corporation, or if preferred stock in a corporation is exchanged solely for preferred stock in the same corporation;~~ and in the manner, including the basis computation, provided in those sections.

Sec. 22. Minnesota Statutes 1981 Supplement, Section 290.131, Subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [DISTRIBUTIONS OF PROPERTY.] ~~(a) Except as otherwise provided in this chapter, a distribution of property (as defined in section 290.133, subdivision 2, clause (a)) made by a corporation to a shareholder~~ with respect to its stock shall be treated in the manner provided in clause (c).

(b) Amount distributed:

(1) For purposes of this subdivision, the amount of any distribution shall be:

(A) If the shareholder is not a corporation, the amount of money received, plus the fair market value of the other property received.

(B) If the shareholder is a corporation, the amount of money received, plus whichever of the following is the lesser:

(i) the fair market value of the other property received; or

(ii) the adjusted basis (in the hands of the distributing corporation immediately before the distribution) of the other property received, increased in the amount of gain to the distributing corporation which is recognized under clause (b) or (c) of section 311 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, as amended through December 31, 1980.

(2) The amount of any distribution determined under paragraph (1) shall be reduced (but not below zero) by:

(A) the amount of any liability of the corporation assumed by the shareholder in connection with the distribution, and

(B) the amount of any liability to which the property received by the shareholder is subject immediately before, and immediately after, the distribution.

(3) For purposes of this subdivision, fair market value shall be determined as of the date of the distribution.

(c) In the case of a distribution to which clause (a) applies:

(1) That portion of the distribution which is a dividend (as defined in section 290.133, subdivision 1) shall be included in gross income.

(2) That portion of the distribution which is not a dividend shall be applied against and reduce the adjusted basis of the stock.

(3) Amount in excess of basis.

(A) Except as provided in subparagraph (B), that portion of the distribution which is not a dividend, to the extent that it exceeds the adjusted basis of the stock, shall be treated as gain from the sale or exchange of property.

(B) That portion of the distribution which is not a dividend, to the extent that it exceeds the adjusted basis of the stock and to the extent that is out of increase in value accrued before January 1, 1933, shall be exempt from tax.

(d) The basis of property received in a distribution to which clause (a) applies shall be:

(1) If the shareholder is not a corporation, the fair market value of such property.

(2) If the shareholder is a corporation, whichever of the following is the lesser:

(A) the fair market value of such property; or

(B) the adjusted basis (in the hands of the distributing corporation immedi~~ately before the distribution) of such property, increased in the amount of gain to the distributing corporation which is recognized under clause (b) or (c) of section 311 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, as amended through December 31, 1980.~~

The effects on recipients of a distribution by a corporation shall be governed by the provisions of sections 301 to 307 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, as amended through December 31, 1981. However, in section 301(c)(3)(B) the date January 1, 1933 shall be substituted for March 1, 1913 when determining the amount of a distribution that is not taxable.

Sec. 23. Minnesota Statutes 1981 Supplement, Section 290.132, Subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [TAXABILITY OF CORPORATION ON DISTRIBUTION.] No gain or loss shall be recognized to a corporation on the distribution, with respect to its stock as provided in section 311 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, as amended through December 31, ~~1980~~ 1981.

The effect on earnings and profits shall be determined according to the provisions of section 312 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, as amended through December 31, 1981. However, when determining earnings and profits in section 312(f) and (g), the date December 31, 1932 shall be substituted for February 28, 1913, and January 1, 1933 shall be substituted for March 1, 1913.

Sec. 24. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 290.133, Subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [DIVIDEND DEFINED.] ~~(a)~~ For purposes of this chapter, the ~~term "dividend" means any distribution of property made by a corporation to its shareholders:~~

~~(1) out of its earnings and profits accumulated after December 31, 1932, or~~

~~(2) out of its earnings and profits of the taxable year (computed as of the close of the taxable year without diminution by reason of any distributions made during the taxable year), without regard to the amount of the earnings and profits at the time the distribution was made. Except as otherwise provided in this chapter, every distribution is made out of earnings and profits to the extent thereof, and from the most recently accumulated earnings and profits. To the extent that any distribution is, under any provision of sections 290.131 through 290.138, treated as a distribution of property to which section 290.131, subdivision 1 applies, such distribution shall be treated as a distribution of property for purposes of this clause~~ definitions provided in sections 316 to 318 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, as amended through December 31, 1981, shall apply. However, in section 316(a)(1), "December 31, 1932" shall be substituted for "February 28, 1913" when determining dividends.

Sec. 25. Minnesota Statutes 1981 Supplement, Section 290.136, Subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [TRANSFER TO CORPORATION CONTROLLED BY TRANSFEROR.] The provisions of sections 351 to ~~361, 367, and~~ 368 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, as amended through December 31, 1980 shall apply to corporate organizations and reorganizations. However, in section 362, the phrase "acquired in a taxable year beginning after December 31, 1956" shall be substituted for "acquired on or after June 22, 1954" when determining the property to which this section applies.

Sec. 26. Minnesota Statutes 1981 Supplement, Section 290.14, is amended to read:

290.14 [GAIN OR LOSS ON DISPOSITION OF PROPERTY, BASIS.]

Except as otherwise provided in this chapter, the basis for determining the gain or loss from the sale or other disposition of property acquired on or after January 1, 1933, shall be the cost to the taxpayer of such property, with the following exceptions:

(1) If the property should have been included in the last inventory, it shall be the last inventory value thereof;

(2) If the property was acquired by gift, it shall be the same as it would be if it were being sold or otherwise disposed of by the last preceding owner not acquiring it by gift; if the facts required for this determination cannot be ascertained, it shall be the fair market value as of the date, or approximate date, of acquisition by the last preceding owner, as nearly as the requisite facts can be ascertained by the commissioner;

(3) If the property was acquired by gift through an inter vivos transfer in trust, it shall be the same as it would be if it were being sold or otherwise disposed of by the grantor;

(4) Except as otherwise provided in this clause, the basis of property in the hands of a person acquiring the property from a decedent or to whom the property passed from a decedent shall, if not sold, exchanged or otherwise disposed of before the decedent's death by the person, be the fair market value of the property at the date of decedent's death or, in the case of an election under section 2032 (relating to alternate valuation) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, as amended through December 31, 1980, its valuation at the applicable valuation date prescribed by that section, or in the case of an election under section 2032A (relating to valuation of farm real property) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, as amended through December 31, 1980, its value determined by that section.

For the purposes of the preceding paragraph, the following property shall be considered to have been acquired from or to have passed from the decedent:

(a) Property acquired by bequest, devise, or inheritance, or by the decedent's estate from the decedent;

(b) Property transferred by the decedent during his lifetime in trust to pay the income for life to or on the order or direction of the decedent, with the right reserved to the decedent at all times before his death to revoke the trust;

(c) Property transferred by the decedent during his lifetime in trust to pay the income for life to or on the order or direction of the decedent with the right reserved to the decedent at all times before his death to make any change in the enjoyment thereof through the exercise of a power to alter, amend, or terminate the trust;

(d) Property passing without full and adequate consideration under a general power of appointment exercised by the decedent by will;

(e) In the case of a decedent's dying after December 31, 1956, property acquired from the decedent by reason of death, form of ownership, or other conditions (including property acquired through the exercise or non-exercise of a power of appointment), if by reason thereof the property is required to be included in determining the value of the decedent's gross estate for Minnesota inheritance or estate tax purposes. In this case, if the property is acquired before the death of the decedent, the basis shall be the amount determined under the first paragraph of this clause reduced by the amount allowed to the taxpayer as deductions in computing taxable net income under this chapter or prior Minnesota income tax laws for exhaustion, wear and tear, obsolescence, amortization, and depletion on the property before the death of the decedent. The basis shall be applicable to the property commencing on the death of the decedent. This paragraph shall not apply to annuities and property described in paragraphs (a), (b), (c) and (d) of this clause.

This clause shall not apply to property which constitutes a right to receive an item of income in respect of a decedent under section 290.077.

(5) ~~If the property was acquired after December 31, 1932, upon an exchange described in section 290.13, subdivision 1, the basis shall be the same as in the case of the property exchanged, decreased in the amount of any money received by the taxpayer and increased in the amount of gain or decreased in the amount of loss to the taxpayer that was recognized upon the exchange under the law applicable to the year in which the exchange was made. If the property so acquired consisted in part of the type of property permitted by section 290.13, subdivision 1, to be received without the recognition of gain or loss, and in part of other property, the basis provided in this clause shall be allocated between the properties, other than money, received, and for the purpose of the allocation there shall be assigned to the other property an amount equivalent to its fair market value at the date of the exchange. This clause shall not apply to property acquired by a corporation by the issuance of its stock or securities as the consideration, in whole or in part, for the transfer of the property to it;~~

~~(6)~~ If substantially identical property was acquired in the place of stocks or securities which were sold or disposed of and in respect of which loss was not allowed as a deduction under section 290.09, subdivision 5, the basis in the case of property so acquired shall be the same as ~~in the case of the stock or securities so sold or disposed of, increased by the excess of the repurchase price of the property over the sale price of the stock or securities, or decreased by the excess of the sale price of the stock or securities over the repurchase price of the property;~~ that provided in section 1091 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, as amended through December 31, 1981.

~~(7)~~ (6) Neither the basis nor the adjusted basis of any portion of real property shall, in the case of a lessor of the property, be increased or diminished on account of income derived by the lessor in respect of the property and excludable from gross income under section 290.08, subdivision 14.

If an amount representing any part of the value of real property attributable to buildings erected or other improvements made by a lessee in respect of the property was included in gross income of the lessor for any taxable year beginning before January 1, 1943, the basis of each portion of the property shall be properly adjusted for the amount included in gross income.

~~(8)~~ (7) If the property was acquired by the taxpayer as a transfer of property in exchange for the release of the taxpayer's marital rights, the basis of the property shall be the same as it would be if it were being sold or otherwise disposed of by the person who transferred the property to the taxpayer.

~~(9)~~ (8) The basis of property subject to the provisions of section 1034 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, as amended through December 31, 1979 (relating to the rollover of gain on sale of principal residence) shall be the same as the basis for federal income tax purposes. The basis shall be increased by the amount of gain realized on the sale of a principal residence outside of Minnesota, while a nonresident of this state, which gain was not recognized because of the provisions of section 1034.

Sec. 27. Minnesota Statutes 1981 Supplement, Section 290.18, Subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [TAXABLE NET INCOME.] The taxable net income shall, except insofar as section 290.19 is applicable, be computed by deducting from the gross income assignable to this state under section 290.17 deductions of the kind permitted by section 290.09 in accordance with the following provisions:

(1) Such deductions shall be allowed to the extent that they are connected with and allocable against the production or receipt of such gross income assignable to this state;

(2) That proportion of such deductions, so far as not connected with and allocable against the production or receipt of such gross income assignable to this state and so far as not connected with and allocable against the production or receipt of gross income assignable to other states or countries and so far as not entering into the computation of the net income assignable to this state under section 290.19, shall be allowed which the taxpayer's gross income from sources within this state, as determined under section 290.17, subdivision 2, clauses (1), (2), (3), (5), and (7), bears to his gross income from all sources, including that entering into the computations provided for by section 290.19; provided that taxes of the kind deductible under section 290.09, subdivision 4, shall, so far as within the description of deductions deductible under this clause, be deductible in their entirety if paid to the state of Minnesota, or any of its subdivisions authorized to impose such taxes, and thereupon be excluded in making the computation of deductions, as in this clause provided.

Sec. 28. Minnesota Statutes 1981 Supplement, Section 290.18, Subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [FEDERAL INCOME TAX PAYMENTS AND REFUNDS.] The adjusted gross income shall be computed by deducting from the gross income assignable to this state under section 290.17, the deduction for allowable federal income taxes determined under the provisions of sections 290.09, subdivision 4, 290.10 (8), (9) or (10), and 290.18.

This deduction shall be allowed to individuals, estates, or trusts (i) for taxable years beginning after December 31, 1980 in the taxable year to which the liability applies. Such liability includes the portion of self-employment tax allowed under section 290.10, clause (8). The self-employment tax must be deducted by the person who is deriving the income. When the federal tax liability is joint and several under the computation of a joint federal return of husband and wife, the federal tax liability must be split between the spouses in the same ratio that the federal adjusted gross income of that spouse bears to the total federal adjusted gross income. For purposes of the preceding sentence, "federal adjusted gross income" includes the ordinary income portion of a lump sum distribution as defined in section 402(e) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, as amended through December 31, 1981.

(ii) taxes paid for a taxable year beginning before January 1, 1981 shall be allowed as follows:

(1) Those taxes paid in a taxable year beginning before January 1, 1981, shall be claimed in the year in which the payment was made.

(2) Those paid in a taxable year beginning after December 31, 1980 shall be divided and deducted in equal installments reflected by the yearly periods beginning with the first day of the taxable year in which the payment was made and ending December 31, 1986.

(iii) In the case of a person who was self employed during all or a portion of the taxable year, the federal income tax liability for purposes of this section shall be increased by the self-employment tax allowed under section 290.10, clause (8).

(iv) If a taxpayer's federal tax liability is eventually not paid by reason of compromise, discharge, or court order, the deduction allowed pursuant to this subdivision shall be disallowed for the taxable year in which the liability was accrued.

(v) In the event a federal tax liability for a taxable year commencing after December 31, 1980 is increased, decreased or modified, and such increase, decrease or modification has resulted in a change in the amount of Minnesota income tax in the year to which such increase, decrease or modification is attributable, the taxpayer's deduction under this section shall be modified for such year.

(vi) If the readjustments required in (iv) or (v) are for taxes reflected in the transition rule described in (ii)(2), the readjustment shall be made equally to the remaining installments and if a reduction to such installments is required under this readjustment which exceeds the total of all remaining installments, the remaining installments will be reduced to zero and the excess included in income as a federal income tax refund.

(vii) Refunds which are not involved with any readjustments under the transition rule shall be included in income under section 290.01, subdivision 20, clause (a)(6) if it is from a year beginning before January 1, 1981.

(viii) Refunds of taxes for years beginning after December 31, 1980, shall be used to adjust the deduction in the taxable year of the liability unless that year is closed by statute and no other adjustments are to be required or allowable in which case such refund shall be reportable in the year received.

Sec. 29. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 290.19, Subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [COMPUTATION, BUSINESS CONDUCTED PARTLY WITHIN STATE; APPORTIONMENT.] The taxable net income from a trade or business carried on partly within and partly without this state shall be computed by deducting from the gross income of such business, wherever derived, deductions of the kind permitted by section 290.09, so far as connected with or allocable against the production or receipt of such income. The remaining net income shall be apportioned to Minnesota as follows:

(1) If the business consists of the mining, producing, smelting, refining, or any combination of these activities of copper and nickel ores, or of the manufacture of personal property and the sale of said property within and without the state, the remainder shall be apportioned to Minnesota on the basis of the percentage obtained by taking the arithmetical average of the following three percentages:

(a) The percentage which the sales made within this state is of the total sales wherever made;

(b) The percentage which the total tangible property, real, personal, and mixed, owned or rented, and used by the taxpayer in this state during the tax period in connection with such trade or business is of the total tangible property, real, personal, or mixed, wherever located, owned or rented and, used by the taxpayer in connection with such trade or business during the tax period; and,

(c) The percentage which the taxpayer's total payrolls paid or incurred in this state or paid in respect to labor performed in this state in connection with such trade or business is of the taxpayer's total payrolls paid or incurred in connection with such entire trade or business;

(d) The percentage of such remainder to be assigned to this state shall not be in excess of the sum of the following percentages: 70 percent of the percentage determined under clause (1) (a), 15 percent of the percentage determined under clause (1) (b), and 15 percent of the percentage determined under clause (1) (c);

(2) (a) In all other cases the remainder shall be apportioned to Minnesota on the basis of the percentage obtained by taking the arithmetical average of the following three percentages:

(1) The percentage which the sales, gross earnings, or receipts from business operations, in whole or in part, within this state bear to the total sales, gross earnings, or receipts from business operations wherever conducted;

(2) The percentage which the total tangible property, real, personal, and mixed, owned or rented, and used by the taxpayer in this state during the tax period in connection with such trade or business is of the total tangible property, real, personal, or mixed, wherever located, owned, or rented, and used by the taxpayer in connection with such trade or business during the tax period; and

(3) The percentage which the taxpayer's total payrolls paid or incurred in this state or paid in respect to labor performed in this state in connection with such trade or business is of the taxpayer's total payrolls paid or incurred in connection with such entire trade or business;

(4) The percentage of such remainder to be assigned to this state shall not be in excess of the sum of the following percentages: 70 percent of the percentage determined under clause (2) (a) (1), 15 percent of the percentage determined under clause (2) (a) (2), and 15 percent of the percentage determined under clause (2) (a) (3);

(b) If the methods prescribed under clause (2) (a) will not properly reflect taxable net income assignable to the state, there may be used, if practicable and if such use will properly and fairly reflect such income, the percentage which the sales, gross earnings, or receipts from business operations, in whole or in part, within this state bear to the total sales, gross earnings, or receipts from business operations wherever conducted; or the separate or segregated accounting method;

(3) The sales, payrolls, earnings, and receipts referred to in this section shall be those for the taxable year in respect of which the tax is being computed. The property referred to in this section shall be the average of the property owned or rented and used by the taxpayer during the taxable year in respect of which the tax is being computed. For purposes of computing the property factor referred to in this section, United States government property which is used by the taxpayer shall be considered as being owned by the taxpayer.

Sec. 30. Minnesota Statutes 1981 Supplement, Section 290.21, Subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. An amount for contribution or gifts made within the taxable year:

(a) to or for the use of the state of Minnesota, or any of its political subdivisions for exclusively public purposes,

(b) to or for the use of any community chest, corporation, organization, trust, fund, association, or foundation located in and carrying on substantially all of its activities within this state, organized and operating exclusively for religious, charitable, public cemetery, scientific, literary, artistic, or educational purposes, or for the prevention of cruelty to children or animals, no part of the net earnings of which inures to the benefit of any private stockholder or individual,

(c) to a fraternal society, order, or association, operating under the lodge system located in and carrying on substantially all of their activities within this state if such contributions or gifts are to be used exclusively for the purposes specified in subdivision 3(b), or for or to posts or organizations of war veterans or auxiliary units or societies of such posts or organizations, if they are within the state and no part of their net income inures to the benefit of any private shareholder or individual,

(d) to or for the use of the United States of America for exclusively public purposes, and to or for the use of any community chest, corporation, trust, fund, association, or foundation, organized and operated exclusively for any of the purposes specified in subdivision 3(b) and (c) no part of the net earnings of which inures to the benefit of any private shareholder or individual, but not carrying on substantially all of their activities within this state, in an amount equal to the ratio of Minnesota taxable net income to total net income, provided, however, that for an individual taxpayer, the deduction shall be allowed in an amount equal to the ratio of the taxpayer's gross income assignable to Minnesota to the taxpayer's gross income from all sources,

(e) to a major political party, as defined in section 200.02, subdivision 7, or a political candidate, as defined in section 210A.01, or a political cause when sponsored by any party or association or committee, as defined in section 210A.01, in a maximum amount not to exceed the following:

(1) contributions made by individual natural persons, $100,

(2) contributions made by a national committeeman, national committeewoman, state chairman, or state chairwoman of a major political party, as defined in section 200.02, subdivision 7, $1,000,

(3) contributions made by a congressional district committeeman or committeewoman of a major political party, as defined in section 200.02, subdivision 7, $350,

(4) contributions made by a county chairman or a county chairwoman of a major political party, as defined in section 200.02, subdivision 7, $150;

(f) in the case of an individual, the total deduction allowable hereunder shall not exceed 30 percent of the taxpayer's Minnesota gross income as follows:

(i) the aggregate of contributions made to organizations specified in (a), (b) and (d) shall not exceed ten percent of the taxpayer's Minnesota gross income,

(ii) the total deduction under this subparagraph for any taxable year shall not exceed 20 percent of the taxpayer's Minnesota gross income. For purposes of this subparagraph, the deduction under this section shall be computed without regard to any deduction allowed under subparagraph (i) but shall take into account any contributions described in subparagraph (i) which are in excess of the amount allowable as a deduction under subparagraph (i). For purposes of paragraph (f) the term Minnesota gross income shall also include the ordinary income portion of a lump sum distribution as defined in section 402(e) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, as amended through December 31, 1980;

(g) in the case of a corporation, the total deduction hereunder shall not exceed 15 percent of the taxpayer's taxable net income less the deductions allowable under this section other than those for contributions or gifts,

(h) in the case of a corporation reporting its taxable income on the accrual basis, if: (A) the board of directors authorizes a charitable contribution during any taxable year, and (B) payment of such contribution is made after the close of such taxable year and on or before the fifteenth day of the third month following the close of such taxable year; then the taxpayer may elect to treat such contribution as paid during such taxable year. The election may be made only at the time of the filing of the return for such taxable year, and shall be signified in such manner as the commissioner shall by regulations prescribe;

(i) in the case of a contribution or property placed in trust as described in section 170(f)(2) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, as amended through December 31, 1979, a deduction shall be allowed under this subdivision to the extent that a deduction is allowable for federal income tax purposes.

(j) amounts paid to maintain certain students as members of the taxpayer's household shall be allowed as a deduction as provided in section 170(g) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, as amended through December 31, 1981. No other deduction shall be allowed under this subdivision for these amounts and the limitations contained in clause (f) shall not apply to these amounts.

Sec. 31. Minnesota Statutes 1981 Supplement, Section 290.23, Subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [UNUSED LOSS CARRYOVERS AND EXCESS DEDUCTIONS ON TERMINATION AVAILABLE TO BENEFICIARIES.] If on the termination of an estate or trust, the estate or trust has

(1) a net operating loss carryover under section 290.095 or a capital loss carryover under section 290.01, subdivision 20; or

(2) for the last taxable year of the estate or trust deductions (other than the ~~deductions allowed under subdivision 2~~ charitable deduction) in excess of gross income for such year, then such carryover or such excess shall be allowed as a deduction, in accordance with regulations prescribed by the commissioner, to the beneficiaries succeeding to the property of the estate or trust.

Sec. 32. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 290.281, Subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [NOT TAXED; DEFINED.] A common trust fund shall not be subject to taxation under this chapter and ~~for this purpose the term "common trust fund" means a fund maintained by a bank (taxable under section 290.361) exclusively for the collective investment and reinvestment of moneys contributed thereto by it or by another bank which is owned or controlled by a corporation which owns or controls such bank in a capacity as a trustee, personal representative or guardian; and in conformity with the rules and regulations prevailing from time to time of the board of governors of the federal reserve system pertaining to the collective investment of trust funds by national banks~~ the definitions provided in and the provisions of section 584 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, as amended through December 31, 1981, shall apply.

Sec. 33. Minnesota Statutes 1981 Supplement, Section 290.31, Subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [PARTNERSHIP COMPUTATIONS.] The taxable net income of a partnership shall be computed in the same manner as in the case of an individual except that

(1) the items described in subdivision 2(1) shall be separately stated, and

(2) the following deductions ~~and credits~~ shall not be allowed to the partnership:

(a) ~~the standard deduction provided in section 290.09, subdivision 15~~ the deduction for taxes provided in section 290.09, subdivision 4 with respect to taxes, described in section 901 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, as amended through December 31, 1981, paid or accrued to foreign countries and to possessions of the United States,

(b) the deduction for charitable contributions provided in section 290.21, subdivision 3,

(c) the net operating loss deduction provided in section 290.095, ~~and~~

(d) the additional itemized deductions for individuals provided in section 290.09, ~~as adapted to the provisions of this subdivision under regulations issued by the commissioner~~ subdivisions 10 and 17, and,

(e) the deduction for depletion under section 290.09, subdivision 8 with respect to oil and gas wells.

Any election affecting the computation of taxable net income derived from a partnership shall be made by the partnership except as provided in section 703(b) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, as amended through December 31, 1980.

Sec. 34. Minnesota Statutes 1981 Supplement, Section 290.31, Subdivision 4, is amended to read:

Subd. 4. [PARTNER'S DISTRIBUTIVE SHARE.] (1) A partner's distributive share of income, gain, loss, deduction, or credit shall, except as otherwise provided in this subdivision, be determined by the partnership agreement.

(2) A partner's distributive share of any item of income, gain, loss, deduction, or credit shall be determined in accordance with the partner's interest in the partnership, determined by taking into account all facts and circumstances, if

(a) the partnership agreement does not provide as to the partner's distributive share of income, gain, loss, deduction or credit, or item thereof, or

(b) the allocation to a partner under the agreement of income, gain, loss, deduction, or credit (or item thereof) does not have substantial economic effect.

(3) (a) In determining a partner's distributive share of items described in subdivision 2(1), depreciation, depletion, or gain or loss with respect to property contributed to the partnership by a partner shall, except to the extent otherwise provided in subparagraph (b) or (c), be allocated among the partners in the same manner as if such property had been purchased by the partnership.

(b) If the partnership agreement so provides, depreciation, depletion, or gain or loss with respect to property contributed to the partnership by a partner shall, under regulations prescribed by the commissioner, be shared among the partners so as to take account of the variation between the basis of the property to the partnership and its fair market value at the time of contribution.

(c) If the partnership agreement does not provide otherwise, depreciation, depletion, or gain or loss with respect to undivided interests in property contributed to a partnership shall be determined as though such undivided interests had not been contributed to the partnership. This subparagraph shall apply only if all the partners had undivided interests in such property prior to contribution and their interests in the capital and profits of the partnership correspond with such undivided interests.

(4) A partner's distributive share of partnership loss (including capital loss) shall be allowed only to the extent of the adjusted basis of such partner's interest in the partnership at the end of the partnership year in which such loss occurred. Any excess of such loss over such basis shall be allowed as a deduction at the end of the partnership year in which such excess is repaid to the partnership.

(5) (a) A person shall be recognized as a partner for purposes of this chapter if he owns a capital interest in a partnership in which capital is a material income-producing factor, whether or not such interest was derived by purchase or gift from any other person.

(b) In the case of any partnership interest created by gift, the distributive share of the donee under the partnership agreement shall be includible in his gross income, except to the extent that such share is determined without allowance of reasonable compensation for services rendered to the partnership by the donor, and except to the extent that the portion of such share attributable to donated capital is proportionately greater than the share of the donor attributable to the donor's capital. The distributive share of a partner in the earnings of the partnership shall not be diminished because of absence due to military service.

(c) For purposes of this subdivision, an interest purchased by one member of ~~a family from another shall be considered to be created by gift from the seller, and the fair market value of the purchased interest shall be considered to be donated capital.~~

~~(d) For the purposes of this section, the "family" of any individual shall include only his spouse, ancestors, and lineal descendants, and any trusts for the primary benefit of such persons.~~ The provisions of sections 704, 706 to 741, and 743 to 761 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, as amended through December 31, 1981, shall apply to partners and partnerships.

Sec. 35. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 290.31, Subdivision 5, is amended to read:

Subd. 5. [DETERMINATION OF BASIS OF PARTNER'S INTEREST.] The adjusted basis of a partner's interest in a partnership shall, except as provided in the last paragraph of this subdivision, be the basis of such interest determined under ~~subdivision 10~~ sections 722 or 742 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, as amended through December 31, 1981, ~~(~~relating to contributions to a partnership~~)~~ or ~~subdivision 19 (relating to~~ transfers of partnership interests~~)~~

(1) increased by the sum of his distributive share for the taxable year and prior taxable years of

(a) net income of the partnership as determined under subdivision 3(1) and (2),

(b) income of the partnership exempt from tax under this chapter, ~~and~~

(c) the excess of the deductions for depletion over the basis of the property subject to depletion, and

(2) decreased (but not below zero) by distributions by the partnership as provided in ~~subdivision 14~~ section 733 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, as amended through December 31, 1981, and by the sum of his distributive share for the taxable year and prior taxable years of

(a) losses of the partnership, and

(b) expenditures of the partnership not deductible in computing its taxable net income and not properly chargeable to capital account, and

(3) decreased, but not below zero, by the amount of the partner's deduction for depletion under section 611 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, as amended through December 31, 1981, with respect to oil and gas wells. For corporate partners, the deduction for depletion with respect to oil and gas wells shall be computed as provided in section 290.09, subdivision 8.

The commissioner shall prescribe by ~~regulations~~ rule the circumstances under which the adjusted basis of a partner's interest in a partnership may be determined by reference to his proportionate share of the adjusted basis of partnership property upon a termination of the partnership.

Sec. 36. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 290.31, Subdivision 19, is amended to read:

Subd. 19. [BASIS OF TRANSFEREE PARTNER'S INTEREST.] The basis of an interest in a partnership acquired other than by contribution shall be determined under ~~sections 290.12, 290.14, 290.15 and 290.16~~ this chapter.

Sec. 37. Minnesota Statutes 1981 Supplement, Section 290.32, is amended to read:

290.32 [TAXES FOR PART OF YEAR, COMPUTATION.]

When under this chapter a taxpayer is permitted or required to make a return for a fractional part of a year, the tax shall be computed in the same manner as if such fractional part of a year were an entire year, except:

(1) When a taxpayer is permitted to change the basis for reporting his income from a fiscal to a calendar year, he shall make a separate return for the period between the close of his last fiscal year and the following December thirty-first; if the change is from a calendar to a fiscal year, a separate return shall be made for the period between the close of his last calendar year and the date designated as the close of the fiscal year; and if the change is from one fiscal year to another fiscal year, a separate return shall be made for the period between the close of the former fiscal year and the date designated as the close of the new fiscal year. The taxable net income, or for corporations the taxable net income as reduced by the deductions contained in section 290.21, for any such period shall be put on an annual basis by multiplying the amount thereof by 12 and dividing by the number of months included in the period for which such separate return is made; and the tax shall be that part of a tax, computed on the taxable net income put on such annual basis~~, less the deduction against that taxable net income under the provisions of section 290.21,~~ which the number of months in such period bears to 12 months.

(2) Where any of the enumerated changes in accounting period referred to in clause (1) involve a 52-53 week fiscal year and any such change results in a short period of less than seven days, such short period shall be added to and deemed a part of the following taxable year. If the change results in a short period of seven or more days, but less than 359 days, the taxable net income, or for corporations the taxable net income as reduced by the deductions contained in section 290.21, for any such period shall be placed on an annual basis by multiplying such income by 365 and dividing the result by the same number of days in the short period; and the tax shall be that part of a tax, computed on the taxable net income placed on such annual basis~~, less the deduction against that taxable net income under the provisions of section 290.21,~~ which the number of days in such short period bears to 365 days. Where the short period is 359 days or more, the tax shall be computed in the same manner as if such short period were an entire year.

Sec. 38. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 290.36, is amended to read:

290.36 [INVESTMENT COMPANIES; REPORT OF NET INCOME; COMPUTATION OF AMOUNT OF INCOME ALLOCABLE TO STATE.]

The taxable net income of investment companies shall be computed and be exclusively as follows:

Each investment company transacting business as such in this state shall report to the commissioner the net income returned by the company for the taxable year to the United States under the provisions of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, as amended through December 31, 1979, less the credits provided therein~~, or the net income that such company would be required to return under such act less such credits, if such act were in effect~~. The commissioner shall compute therefrom the taxable net income of the investment company by assigning to this state that proportion of such net income, less such credits which the aggregate of the gross payments collected by the company during the taxable year from old and new business upon investment contracts issued by the company and held by residents of this state, bears to the total amount of the gross payments collected during such year by the company from such business upon investment contracts issued by the company and held by persons residing within the state and elsewhere.

As used in this section, the term "investment company" means any person, co-partnership, association, or corporation, whether local or foreign, coming within the purview of section 54.26, and who or which is registered under the Investment Company Act of 1940 (15 U.S.C. 80a-1 and following), and who or which solicits or receives payments to be made to himself or itself and which issues therefor, or has issued therefor and has or shall have outstanding so-called bonds, shares, coupons, certificates of membership, or other evidences of obligation or agreement or pretended agreement to return to the holders or owners thereof money or anything of value at some future date; and as to whom the gross payments received during the taxable year in question upon outstanding investment contracts, plus interest and dividends earned on investment contracts determined by prorating the total dividends and interest for the taxable year in question in the same proportion that certificate reserves as defined by the Investment Company Act of 1940 is to total assets, shall be at least 50 percent of the company's gross payments upon investment contracts plus gross income from all other sources except dividends from subsidiaries for the taxable year in question. The term "investment contract" shall mean any such so-called bonds, shares, coupons, certificates of membership, or other evidences of obligation or agreement or pretended agreement issued by an investment company.

Sec. 39. Minnesota Statutes 1981 Supplement, Section 290.37, Subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [PERSONS MAKING RETURNS.] (a) The commissioner of revenue shall annually determine the gross income levels at which individuals and estates shall be required to file a return for each taxable year.

In the case of a decedent who has gross income in excess of the minimum amount at which an individual is required to file a return, the decedent's final income tax return shall be filed by his or her personal representative, if any. If there is no personal representative, the return shall be filed by the successors (as defined in section 524.1-201) who receive any property of the decedent.

The trustee or other fiduciary of property held in trust shall file a return with respect to the taxable net income of such trust if that exceeds an amount on which a tax at the rates herein provided would exceed the specific credits allowed, or if the gross income of such trust exceeds $750, if in either case such trust belongs to the class of taxable persons.

Every corporation shall file a return. The return in this case shall be signed by an officer of the corporation.

The receivers, trustees in bankruptcy, or assignees operating the business or property of a taxpayer shall file a return with respect to the taxable net income of such taxpayer if that exceeds an amount on which a tax at the rates herein provided would exceed the specific credits allowed.

(b) Such return shall ~~(a)~~ (1) be verified or contain a written declaration that it is made under the penalties of criminal liability for wilfully making a false return, and ~~(b)~~ (2) shall contain a confession of judgment for the amount of the tax shown due thereon to the extent not timely paid.

(c) For purposes of this subdivision the term "gross income" shall mean gross income as defined in section 61 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, as amended through December 31, 1979, modified and adjusted in accordance with the provisions of sections 290.01, subdivision 20, clauses (b)(1), (b)(6) and (b) (11), 290.08, and 290.17.

Sec. 40. Minnesota Statutes 1981 Supplement, Section 290.41, Subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [BY PERSONS, CORPORATIONS, COOPERATIVES, GOVERNMENTAL ENTITIES OR SCHOOL DISTRICTS.] Every person, corporation, or cooperative, the state of Minnesota and its political subdivisions, and every city, county and school district in Minnesota, making payments in the regular course of a trade or business during the taxable year to any person or corporation ~~in excess~~ of $600 or more on account of rents or royalties, or of $10 or more on account of interest, or $10 or more on account of dividends or patronage dividends, or $600 or more on account of either wages, salaries, commissions, fees, prizes, awards, pensions, annuities, or any other fixed or determinable gains, profits or income, not otherwise reportable under section 290.92, subdivision 7, or on account of earnings ~~in excess~~ of $10 or more distributed to its members by savings, building and loan associations or credit unions chartered under the laws of this state or the United States, (a) shall make a return (except in cases where a valid agreement to participate in the combined federal and state information reporting system has been entered into, and such return is therefore filed only with the commissioner of internal revenue pursuant to the applicable filing and informational reporting requirements of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 as amended through December 31, 1980) in respect to such payments in excess of the amounts specified, giving the names and addresses of the persons to whom such payments were made, the amounts paid to each, and (b) shall make a return in respect to the total number of such payments and total amount of such payments, for each category of income specified, which were in excess of the amounts specified. This subdivision shall not apply to the payment of interest or dividends to a person who was a nonresident of Minnesota for the entire year.

Sec. 41. Minnesota Statutes 1981 Supplement, Section 290.42, is amended to read:

290.42 [FILING RETURNS, DATE.]

The returns required to be made under sections 290.37 to 290.39 and 290.41, other than those under section 290.41, subdivisions 3 and 4, which shall be made within 30 days after demand therefor by the commissioner, shall be filed at the following times:

(1) Returns made on the basis of the calendar year shall be filed on the fifteenth day of April, following the close of the calendar year, except that returns of corporations shall be filed on the fifteenth day of March following the close of the calendar year;

(2) Returns made on the basis of the fiscal year shall be filed on the fifteenth day of the fourth month following the close of such fiscal year, except that returns of corporations shall be filed on the fifteenth day of the third month following the close of the fiscal year;

(3) Returns made for a fractional part of a year as an incident to a change from one taxable year to another shall be filed on the fifteenth day of the fourth month following the close of the period for which made, except that such returns of corporations shall be filed on the fifteenth day of the third month following the close of the period for which made;

(4) Other returns for a fractional part of a year shall be filed on the fifteenth day of the fourth month following the end of the month in which falls the last day of the period for which the return is made, except that such returns of corporations shall be filed on the fifteenth day of the third month following the end of the month in which falls the last day of the period for which the return is made:

In the case of a final return of a decedent for a fractional part of a year, such return shall be filed on the fifteenth day of the fourth month following the close of the twelve-month period which began with the first day of such fractional part of a year.

(4a) In the case of the return of a cooperative association such returns shall be filed on or before the fifteenth day of the ninth month following the close of the taxable year.

(5) If the due date for any return required under chapter 290 falls upon:

~~(A)~~ A Saturday, Sunday, or a legal holiday such return filed by the ~~following Monday~~ next succeeding day which is not a Saturday, Sunday, or legal holiday shall be considered to be timely filed~~;~~. The term "legal holiday" means any day made a holiday in Minnesota by section 645.44, subdivision 5 or by the laws of the United States.

~~(B) A legal holiday, such return filed on the next succeeding business day shall be considered to be timely filed, except, that for the purpose of this paragraph, Saturday shall not be considered to be a business day.~~

(6) In case of sickness, absence, or other disability, or when, in his judgment, good cause exists, the commissioner may extend the time for filing these returns for not more than six months, except that where the failure is due to absence outside the United States he may extend the period as provided in section ~~290.65~~ 6081 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, as amended through December 31, 1981. He may require each taxpayer in any of such cases to file a tentative return at the time fixed for filing the regularly required return from him, and to pay a tax on the basis of such tentative return at the times required for the payment of taxes on the basis of the regularly required return from such taxpayer. The commissioner may exercise his power under this clause by ~~general regulation~~ rule only.

(7) Every person making a return under section 290.41 (except subdivisions 3 and 4) shall furnish to each person whose name is set forth in the return a written statement showing

(A) the name and address of the person making the return, and

(B) the aggregate amount of payments to the person shown on the return.

This written statement shall be furnished to the person on or before January 31 of the year following the calendar year for which the return was made. A duplicate of this written statement shall be furnished to the commissioner on or before February 28 of the year following the calendar year for which the return was made.

Sec. 42. Minnesota Statutes 1981 Supplement, Section 290.431, is amended to read:

290.431 [NON-GAME WILDLIFE CHECKOFF.]

~~Effective with returns filed for taxable years beginning after December 31, 1979,~~ Every ~~person~~ individual who files an income tax return or property tax refund claim form may designate on their original return that $1 or more shall be added to the tax or deducted from the refund that would otherwise be payable by or to that ~~person~~ individual and paid into an account to be established for the management of non-game wildlife. The commissioner of revenue shall, on the first page of the income tax return and the property tax refund claim form, notify filers of their right to designate that a portion of their tax or refund shall be paid into the non-game wildlife management account. The sum of the amounts so designated to be paid shall be credited to the non-game wildlife management account for use by the non-game section of the division of wildlife in the department of natural resources. The commissioner of natural resources shall submit a work program for each fiscal year and semi-annual progress reports to the legislative commission on Minnesota resources in the form determined by the commission. None of the money provided in this section may be expended unless the commission has approved the work program.

Sec. 43. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 290.45, Subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [DATE DUE, INSTALLMENTS.] The tax imposed by this chapter shall be paid to the commissioner of revenue ~~at St. Paul, Minnesota~~ at the time fixed for filing the return on which the tax is based, except that at the election of the following taxpayers the balance of tax due after applying any tax credit and payment of estimated tax may be paid in two equal installments, as follows:

(a) as to estates and trusts, the first shall be paid at the time fixed for filing the return, and the second on or before six months thereafter.

(b) as to corporations, the first shall be paid at the time fixed for filing the return and the second on or before three months thereafter. If any installment is not paid on or before the date fixed for its payment the whole amount of the tax unpaid shall become due and payable. They shall be paid to the commissioner or to the local officers designated by the commissioner with whom the return is filed as hereinbefore provided.

Sec. 44. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 290.49, Subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [OMISSION IN EXCESS OF 25 PERCENT.] If the taxpayer omits from gross income an amount properly includible therein which is in excess of 25 percent of the amount of gross income stated in the return, the tax may be assessed, or a proceeding in court for the collection of such tax may be begun at any time within six and one-half years after the return was filed.

For purposes of this subdivision, the term "gross income" shall mean gross income as defined in section 290.37, subdivision 1, clause (c).

Sec. 45. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 290.49, Subdivision 7, is amended to read:

Subd. 7. [COURT PROCEEDINGS.] Where the assessment of any tax is hereafter made within the period of limitation properly applicable thereto, including an assessment made under section 290.56, such tax may be collected by a proceeding in court, but only if begun

(1) within eighteen months after the expiration of the period for the assessment of the tax, or

(2) within eighteen months after the expiration of the period agreed upon by the commissioner and the taxpayer, pursuant to the provisions of subdivision 8, or

(3) within eighteen months after final disposition of any appeal from the order of assessment.

Sec. 46. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 290.49, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 11. [SUSPENSION OF TIME; BANKRUPTCY PROCEEDING.] The period of time during which a tax must be assessed or collection proceedings commenced under this chapter shall be suspended during the period from the date of a filing of a petition in bankruptcy until 30 days after notice to the commissioner of revenue that the bankruptcy proceedings have been closed or dismissed or the automatic stay has been terminated or has expired.

The suspension of the statute of limitations under this subdivision shall apply to the person against whom the petition in bankruptcy is filed and all other persons who may also be wholly or partially liable for the tax under this chapter.

Sec. 47. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 290.53, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 7. [INTEREST ON ADDITIONAL TAXES.] Where a taxpayer is liable for additional taxes under this chapter, interest shall be added to the additional amount, at the rate specified in section 270.75, from the due date of the original return.

Sec. 48. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 290.65, Subdivision 9, is amended to read:

Subd. 9. [TIME LIMITS, ADDITIONAL EXTENSION IN CERTAIN CASES.] The limitations of time provided by this chapter relating to income taxes, and ~~sections 271.01 to 271.20, as amended~~ chapter 271 relating to the tax court, for (a) filing returns, (b) paying taxes, (c) claiming refunds, (d) commencing action thereon, (e) appealing to the tax court from orders relating to income taxes, and (f) appealing to the supreme court from decisions of the tax court relating to income taxes, are hereby extended, with respect to each individual, for the period during which such individual is ~~or has been~~ serving in the Armed Forces of the United States, ~~or the United Nations,~~ or serving in support of the Armed Forces and as provided in section 7508 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, as amended through December 31, 1981, is serving in an area designated by the president as a combat zone or is hospitalized outside the United States as a result of injury received while serving in the combat zone during such time, and for a further period of six months ~~after the termination of such service, provided, that the ability of such individual to file the return, pay the tax or any part thereof, or any interest or penalty thereon, or to perform any other act described in this subdivision is materially impaired by reason of such service, but if an extension of time is granted, the fact that such individual's ability to pay was not impaired, shall not prevent the operation of the extensions of time herein provided. The commissioner may by regulation require the filing of a statement or affidavit or other proof, at the time the return or tax is due or other act is required to be done, stating the fact of inability to comply with the requirements of law because of service in the Armed Forces of the United States or the United Nations~~.

Sec. 49. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 290.65, Subdivision 11, is amended to read:

Subd. 11. [TIME LIMIT FOR ASSESSMENT, ADDITIONAL EXTENSION.] The limitations of time provided for the assessment of any tax, penalty or interest, as provided by the laws described in subdivision 9, are hereby extended, with respect to the same individuals, and for the same period, as provided in said subdivision, and for a further period of six months; and the limitations of time for the commencement of action to collect any tax, penalty or interest from such individuals are hereby extended for a period ending six months after the expiration of the time for assessment as herein provided. ~~For the purpose of this subdivision the period of six months after termination of service in the Armed Forces, as provided in subdivision 9, shall not begin to run until written notice of such termination is filed with the commissioner of revenue.~~

Sec. 50. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 290.91, is amended to read:

290.91 [DESTRUCTION OF RETURNS.]

The commissioner of revenue is hereby authorized to destroy all ~~income~~ tax returns, required under this chapter or chapter 290A, including audit reports, orders and correspondence relating thereto, which have been on file in his office for a period ~~of five years or more~~ to be determined by the commissioner. The commissioner may, in his discretion, make copies of such returns, orders or correspondence by microfilm, photostat or other similar means and may immediately destroy the original documents from which such copies have been made. Such copies, when certified to by the commissioner, shall be admissible in evidence in the same manner and be given the same effect as the original documents destroyed.

The commissioner may, in his discretion, destroy correspondence and documents contained in the files of the division which do not relate specifically to any ~~income~~ tax return.

Notwithstanding the above provisions (or the provisions of section 290.61 or 290A.17) the commissioner may, utilizing such safeguards as he in his discretion deems necessary, (1) employ a commercial photographer for the purpose of developing microfilm of returns or other documents, or (2) employ a vendor for the purpose of obtaining the vendor's services an example of which is the preparation of income tax return labels.

Sec. 51. Minnesota Statutes 1981 Supplement, Section 290.92, Subdivision 2a, is amended to read:

Subd. 2a. [COLLECTION AT SOURCE.] (1) [DEDUCTIONS.] Every employer making payment of wages shall deduct and withhold upon such wages a tax as provided in this section.

(2) [WITHHOLDING ON PAYROLL PERIOD.] The employer shall withhold the tax on the basis of each payroll period or as otherwise provided in this section.

(3) [WITHHOLDING TABLES.] Unless the amount of tax to be withheld is determined as provided in subdivision 3, the amount of tax to be withheld for each individual shall be based upon tables to be prepared and distributed by the commissioner. The tables shall be computed for the several permissible withholding periods and shall take account of exemptions allowed under this section; and the amounts computed for withholding shall be such that the amount withheld for any individual during his taxable year shall approximate in the aggregate as closely as possible the tax which is levied and imposed under this chapter for that taxable year, upon his salary, wages, or compensation for personal services of any kind for the employer, and shall take into consideration the allowable deduction for federal income tax and the deduction allowable under section 290.09, subdivision 15, and the personal credits allowed against the tax ~~allowable under the Minnesota income tax act~~.

(4) [MISCELLANEOUS PAYROLL PERIOD.] If wages are paid with respect to a period which is not a payroll period, the amount to be deducted and withheld shall be that applicable in the case of a miscellaneous payroll period containing a number of days, including Sundays and holidays, equal to the number of days in the period with respect to which such wages are paid.

(5) [MISCELLANEOUS PAYROLL PERIOD.] (a) In any case in which wages are paid by an employer without regard to any payroll period or other period, the amount to be deducted and withheld shall be that applicable in the case of a miscellaneous payroll period containing a number of days equal to the number of days, including Sundays and holidays, which have elapsed since the date of the last payment of such wages by such employer during the calendar year, or the date of commencement of employment with such employer during such year, or January 1 of such year, whichever is the later.

(b) In any case in which the period, or the time described in clause (a), in respect of any wages is less than one week, the commissioner, under regulations prescribed by him, may authorize an employer to determine the amount to be deducted and withheld under the tables applicable in the case of a weekly payroll period, in which case the aggregate of the wages paid to the employee during the calendar week shall be considered the weekly wages.

(6) [WAGES COMPUTED TO NEAREST DOLLAR.] If the wages exceed the highest bracket, in determining the amount to be deducted and withheld under this subdivision, the wages may, at the election of the employer, be computed to the nearest dollar.

(7) [REGULATIONS ON WITHHOLDING.] The commissioner may, by regulations, authorize employers:

(a) To estimate the wages which will be paid to any employee in any quarter of the calendar year;

(b) To determine the amount to be deducted and withheld upon each payment of wages to such employee during such quarter as if the appropriate average of the wages so estimated constituted the actual wages paid; and

(c) To deduct and withhold upon any payment of wages to such employee during such quarter such amount as may be necessary to adjust the amount actually deducted and withheld upon wages of such employee during such quarter to the amount required to be deducted and withheld during such quarter without regard to this paragraph (7).

(8) [ADDITIONAL WITHHOLDING.] The commissioner is authorized to provide by ~~regulation, under such conditions and to such extent as he deems proper, for withholding in addition to that otherwise required under this subdivision and subdivision 3 in cases in which the employer and the employee agree to such additional withholding~~ rule for increases or decreases in the amount of withholding otherwise required under this section in cases where the employee requests the changes. Such additional withholding shall for all purposes be considered tax required to be deducted and withheld under this section.

(9) [TIPS.] In the case of tips which constitute wages, this subdivision shall be applicable only to such tips as are included in a written statement furnished to the employer pursuant to section 6053 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, as amended through December 31, 1980, and only to the extent that the tax can be deducted and withheld by the employer, at or after the time such statement is so furnished and before the close of the calendar year in which such statement is furnished, from such wages of the employee (excluding tips, but including funds turned over by the employee to the employer for the purpose of such deduction and withholding) as are under the control of the employer; and an employer who is furnished by an employee a written statement of tips (received in a calendar month) pursuant to section 6053 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 as amended through December 31, 1980 to which subdivision 1 is applicable may deduct and withhold the tax with respect to such tips from any wages of the employee (excluding tips) under his control, even though at the time such statement is furnished the total amount of the tips included in statements furnished to the employer as having been received by the employee in such calendar month in the course of his employment by such employer is less than $20. Such tax shall not at any time be deducted and withheld in an amount which exceeds the aggregate of such wages and funds as are under the control of the employer minus any tax required by other provisions of state or federal law to be collected from such wages and funds.

Sec. 52. Minnesota Statutes 1981 Supplement, Section 290.92, Subdivision 5, is amended to read:

Subd. 5. [EXEMPTIONS.] (1) [ENTITLEMENT.] An employee receiving wages shall on any day be entitled to claim withholding exemptions equal to the same number as the personal credits that he is entitled to claim under the provisions of section 290.06, subdivision 3f, (not including those credits that the taxpayer's spouse may claim).

(2) [WITHHOLDING EXEMPTION CERTIFICATE.] ~~Every employee shall before the date of commencement of employment furnish his employer with a signed withholding exemption certificate relating to the number of withholding exemptions which he claims, which shall in no event exceed the number to which he is entitled.~~

~~(3) [Effective date of exemption certificate.] Withholding exemption certificates shall take effect as of the beginning of the first payroll period ending, or the first payment of wages made without regard to a payroll period, on or after the date on which such certificate is so furnished.~~

~~(4) [NEW EXEMPTION CERTIFICATE.] A withholding exemption certificate which takes effect under this subdivision shall continue in effect with respect to the employer until another such certificate takes effect under this subdivision. If a withholding exemption certificate is furnished to take the place of an existing certificate, the employer, at his option, may continue the old certificate in force with respect to all wages paid on or before the first status determination date, January 1, May 1, July 1, or October 1, which occurs at least 30 days after the date on which such new certificate is furnished.~~

~~(5) [CHANGE OF NUMBER TO REFLECT NEXT TAX YEAR.] If, on any day during the calendar year, the number of withholding exemptions to which the employee may reasonably be expected to be entitled at the beginning of his next taxable year is different from the number to which the employee is entitled on such day, the employee shall in such cases and at such times as the commissioner may prescribe, furnish the employer with a withholding exemption certificate relating to the number of exemptions which he claims with respect to such next taxable year, which shall in no event exceed the number to which he may reasonably be expected to be so entitled. Exemption certificates issued pursuant to this paragraph shall not take effect with respect to any payment of wages made in the calendar year in which the certificate is furnished.~~

~~(6) [CHANGE OF NUMBER.] If, on any day during the calendar year, the number of withholding exemptions to which the employee is entitled is less than the number of withholding exemptions claimed by the employee on the withholding exemption certificate then in effect with respect to him, the employee shall, within ten days thereafter, furnish the employer with a new withholding exemption certificate relating to the number of withholding exemptions which the employee then claims, which shall in no event exceed the number to which he is entitled on such day. If, on any day during the calendar year, the number of withholding exemptions to which the employee is entitled is greater than the number of withholding exemptions claimed, the employee may furnish the employer with a new withholding exemption certificate relating to the number of withholding exemptions which the employee then claims, which shall in no event exceed the number to which he is entitled on such day.~~ The provisions concerning exemption certificates contained in section 3402(f)(2) and (3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, as amended through December 31, 1981, shall apply.

~~(7)~~ (3) [FORM OF CERTIFICATE.] Withholding exemption certificates shall be in such form and contain such information as the commissioner may by regulation prescribe.

~~(8)~~ (4) [NUMBER MAY BE SAME AS THAT FOR FEDERAL PURPOSES.] Notwithstanding the provisions of this subdivision, an employee may elect to claim a number not to exceed the ~~same~~ number of withholding exemptions that the employee claims and which are allowable for federal withholding purposes.

Sec. 53. Minnesota Statutes 1981 Supplement, Section 290.92, Subdivision 5a, is amended to read:

Subd. 5a. [VERIFICATION OF WITHHOLDING EXEMPTIONS; APPEAL.] (1) An employer shall submit to the commissioner a copy of any withholding exemption certificate received from an employee on which the employee claims any of the following:

(a) a total number of withholding exemptions in excess of ~~nine~~ 14 or a number prescribed by the commissioner, or

(b) a status that would exempt the employee from Minnesota withholding, ~~unless~~ including where the employee is a nonresident exempt from withholding under subdivision 4a, clause (3), or the employer reasonably expects, at the time that the certificate is received, that the employee's wages under subdivision 1 from the employer will not then usually exceed $200 per week, or

(c) any number of withholding exemptions which the employer has reason to believe is in excess of the number to which the employee is entitled.

(2) Copies of exemption certificates required to be submitted by clause (1) shall be submitted to the commissioner within 30 days after receipt by the employer unless the employer is also required by federal law to submit copies to the Internal Revenue Service, in which case the employer may elect to submit the copies to the commissioner at the same time that he is required to submit them to the Internal Revenue Service.

(3) An employer who submits a copy of a withholding exemption certificate in accordance with clause (1) shall honor the certificate until notified by the commissioner that the certificate is invalid. The commissioner shall mail a copy of any such notice to the employee. Upon notification that a particular certificate is invalid, the employer shall not honor that certificate or any subsequent certificate unless instructed to do so by the commissioner. The employer shall allow the employee the number of exemptions and compute the withholding tax as instructed by the commissioner in accordance with clause (4).

(4) The commissioner may require an employee to verify that he or she is entitled to the number of exemptions or to the exempt status claimed on the withholding exemption certificate or, that he or she is a nonresident. The employee shall be allowed at least 30 days to submit the verification, after which time the commissioner shall, on the basis of the best information available to him, determine the employee's status and allow the employee the maximum number of withholding exemptions allowable under this chapter. The commissioner shall mail a notice of this determination to the employee at the address listed on the exemption certificate in question. Notwithstanding the provisions of section 290.61, the commissioner may notify the employer of this determination and instruct the employer to withhold tax in accordance with the determination.

(5) The commissioner's determination under clause (4) shall be appealable to tax court in accordance with section 271.06, and shall remain in effect for withholding tax purposes pending disposition of any appeal.

Sec. 54. Minnesota Statutes 1981 Supplement, Section 290.92, Subdivision

6, is amended to read:

Subd. 6. [RETURNS, DEPOSITS.] (1) (a) [RETURNS.] Every employer who is required to deduct and withhold tax under subdivision 2a or 3 shall file a return with the commissioner for each quarterly period, on or before the last day of the month following the close of each quarterly period, unless otherwise prescribed by the commissioner. Any tax required to be deducted and withheld during the quarterly period shall be paid with the return unless an earlier time for payment is provided herein. However, any such return may be filed on or before the tenth day of the second calendar month following such period if such return shows timely deposits in full payment of such taxes due for such period. For the purpose of the preceding sentence, a deposit which is not required to be made within such return period, may be made on or before the last day of the first calendar month following the close of such period. Every employer, in preparing said quarterly return, shall take credit for monthly deposits previously made in accordance with this subdivision.

The return shall be in the form and contain the information prescribed by the commissioner. The commissioner may grant a reasonable extension of time for filing the return and paying the tax, but no extension shall be granted for more than six months.

(b) [ADVANCE DEPOSITS REQUIRED IN CERTAIN CASES.] (i) Unless clause (ii) is applicable, if during any calendar month, other than the last month of the calendar quarter, the aggregate amount of the tax withheld during that quarter under subdivision 2a or 3 exceeds $200, or beginning January 1, 1982, $500, the employer shall deposit the aggregate amount with the commissioner within 15 days after the close of the calendar month. (ii) If at the close of any eighth-monthly period the aggregate amount of undeposited taxes is $3,000 or more, the employer shall deposit the undeposited taxes with the commissioner within three banking days after the close of the eighth-monthly period. For purposes of this subparagraph, the term "eighth-monthly period" means the first three days of a calendar month, the fourth day through the seventh day of a calendar month, the eighth day through the 11th day of a calendar month, the 12th day through the 15th day of a calendar month, the 16th day through the 19th day of a calendar month, the 20th day through the 22nd day of a calendar month, the 23rd day through the 25th day of a calendar month, or the portion of a calendar month following the 25th day of such month.

(c) [OTHER METHODS.] The commissioner shall have the power by rule to prescribe other return periods or deposit requirements. In prescribing the reporting period, the commissioner may classify employers according to the amount of their tax liability and may adopt an appropriate reporting period for each class which he deems to be consistent with efficient tax collection. In no event shall the duration of the reporting period be more than one year, provided that for employers with annual withholding tax liabilities of less than $1,200 the reporting period shall be no more frequent than quarterly.

(2) If less than the correct amount of such tax is paid to the commissioner, proper adjustments, with respect to both the tax and the amount to be deducted, shall be made, without interest, in such manner and at such times as the commissioner may prescribe. If such underpayment cannot be so adjusted the amount of the underpayment shall be assessed and collected in such manner and at such times as the commissioner may prescribe.

(3) If any employer fails to make and file any return required by paragraph (1) at the time prescribed therefor, or makes and files a false or fraudulent return, the commissioner shall make for him a return from his own knowledge and from such information as he can obtain through testimony, or otherwise, and assess a tax on the basis thereof. The amount of tax shown thereon shall be paid to the commissioner at such times as the commissioner may prescribe. Any such return or assessment so made by the commissioner shall be prima facie correct and valid, and the employer shall have the burden of establishing its incorrectness or invalidity in any action or proceeding in respect thereto.

(4) If the commissioner, in any case, has reason to believe that the collection of the tax provided for in paragraph (1) of this subdivision, and any added penalties and interest, if any, will be jeopardized by delay, he may immediately assess such tax, whether or not the time otherwise prescribed by law for making and filing the return and paying such tax has expired.

(5) Any assessment under this subdivision shall be made by recording the liability of the employer in the office of the commissioner in accordance with regulations prescribed by the commissioner. Upon request of the employer, the commissioner shall furnish the employer a copy of the record of assessment.

(6) Any assessment of tax under this subdivision shall be made within three and one-half years after the due date of the return required by paragraph (1), or the date the return was filed, whichever is later; except that in the case of a false or fraudulent return or failure to file a return, the tax may be assessed at any time.

(7) (a) Except as provided in (b) of this paragraph, every employer who fails to pay to or deposit with the commissioner any sum or sums required by this section to be deducted, withheld and paid, shall be personally and individually liable to the state of Minnesota for such sum or sums (and any added penalties and interest); and any sum or sums deducted and withheld in accordance with the provisions of subdivision 2a or subdivision 3 shall be held to be a special fund in trust for the state of Minnesota.

(b) If the employer, in violation of the provision of this section, fails to deduct and withhold the tax under this section, and thereafter the taxes against which such tax may be credited are paid, the tax so required to be deducted and withheld shall not be collected from the employer; but this shall in no case relieve the employer from liability for any penalties and interest otherwise applicable in respect of such failure to deduct and withhold.

(8) Upon the failure of any employer to pay to or deposit with the commissioner within the time provided by paragraphs (1), (2) or (3) of this subdivision any tax required to be withheld in accordance with the provisions of subdivision 2a or subdivision 3, or if the commissioner has assessed a tax pursuant to paragraph (4), such tax shall become immediately due and payable, and the commissioner may deliver to the attorney general a certified statement of the tax, penalties and interest due from such employer. The statement shall also give the address of the employer owing such tax, the period for which the tax is due, the date of the delinquency, and such other information as may be required by the attorney general. It shall be the duty of the attorney general to institute legal action in the name of the state to recover the amount of such tax, penalties, interest and costs. The commissioner's certified statement to the attorney general shall for all purposes and in all courts be prima facie evidence of the facts therein stated and that the amount shown therein is due from the employer named in the statement. In event action is instituted as herein provided, the court shall, upon application of the attorney general, appoint a receiver of the property and business of the delinquent employer for the purpose of impounding the same as security for any judgment which has been or may be recovered. Any such action shall be brought within four years and three months after the due date of the return or deposit required by paragraph (1), or the date the return was filed, or deposit made whichever is later; except that in the case of failure to make and file such return or if such return is false or fraudulent, or such deposit is not made such action may be brought at any time.

(8a) The period of time during which a tax must be assessed or collection proceedings commenced under this subdivision shall be suspended during the period from the date of filing of a petition in bankruptcy until 30 days after the commissioner of revenue receives notice that the bankruptcy proceedings have been closed or dismissed or the automatic stay has been terminated or has expired.

The suspension of the statute of limitations under this subdivision shall apply to the person against whom the petition in bankruptcy is filed and all other persons who may also be wholly or partially libable for the tax under this chapter.

(9) The tax required to be withheld under subdivision 2a or subdivision 3 or paid to, or deposited with the commissioner under this subdivision, together with penalties, interest and costs, shall become a lien upon all of the real property of the employer within this state, except his homestead, from and after the filing by the commissioner of a notice of such lien in the offices of the county recorder of the county in which such real property is situated.

(10) Either party to an action for the recovery of any tax, interest or penalties under this subdivision may remove the judgment to the supreme court by appeal, as provided for appeals in civil cases.

(11) No suit shall lie to enjoin the assessment or collection of any tax imposed by this section, or the interest and penalties added thereto.

(12) When any tax is due and payable as provided in paragraph (8) the commissioner may issue his warrant to the sheriff of any county of the state commanding him to levy upon and sell the real and personal property of the employer and to levy upon the rights to property of the employer within the county and to return such warrant to the commissioner and pay to him the money collected by virtue thereof by a time to be therein specified, not less than 60 days from the date of the warrant. The sheriff shall proceed thereunder to levy upon and seize any property of the employer and to levy upon the rights to property of the employer within his county, except the homestead and household goods of the employer and property of the employer not liable to attachment, garnishment, or sale on any final process issued from any court under the provisions of section 550.37, and shall sell so much thereof as is required to satisfy such taxes, interest, and penalties, together with his costs; but such sales shall, as to their manner, be governed by the laws applicable to sales of like property on execution issued against property upon a judgment of a court of record. The proceeds of such sales, less the sheriff's costs, shall be turned over to the commissioner, who shall retain such part thereof as is required to satisfy the tax, interest, penalties and costs, and pay over any balance to the taxpayer. Any action taken by the commissioner pursuant to this subdivision shall not constitute an election by the state to pursue a remedy to the exclusion of any other remedy providing for the collection of taxes required to be withheld by employers.

Sec. 55. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 290.92, Subdivision 13, is amended to read:

Subd. 13. [REFUNDS.] (1) Where the amount of the tax withheld at the source under subdivision 2a or subdivision 3 exceeds by $1 or more the taxes (and any added penalties and interest) reported in the return of the employee taxpayer or imposed upon him by this chapter, the amount of such excess shall be refunded to the employee taxpayer. If the amount of such excess is less than $1 the commissioner shall not be required to refund that amount. Where any amount of such excess to be refunded exceeds $10, such amount on the original return shall bear interest at the rate of six percent per annum, computed from 90 days after (a) the due date of the return of the employee taxpayer or (b) the date on which his return is filed, whichever is later, to the date the refund is paid to the taxpayer. Notwithstanding the provisions of section 290.50, written findings by the commissioner, notice by mail to the taxpayer, and certificate for refundment by the commissioner, shall not be necessary. The provisions of section 270.10, shall not be applicable.

(2) Any action of the commissioner in refunding the amount of such excess shall not constitute a determination of the correctness of the return of the employee taxpayer within the purview of section 290.46.

(3) The commissioner of finance shall cause any such refund of tax and interest, to be paid out of the general fund in accordance with the provisions of section 290.62, and so much of said fund as may be necessary is hereby appropriated for that purpose.

Sec. 56. Minnesota Statutes 1981 Supplement, Section 290.93, Subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [REQUIREMENT OF DECLARATION.] (1) Every individual shall, at the time prescribed in subdivision 5 of this section, make and file with the commissioner a declaration of his estimated tax for the taxable year if

(a) The gross income (for purposes of this subdivision and subdivision 5 as defined in section ~~290.01, subdivision 20~~ 290.37, subdivision 1, clause (c)) for the taxable year can reasonably be expected to exceed the gross income amounts set forth in section 290.37, subdivision 1 pertaining to the requirements for making a return; and

(b) Such gross income can reasonably be expected to include more than $500 from sources other than wages upon which a tax has been deducted and withheld under section 290.92, subdivision 2a or subdivision 3.

(2) If the individual is an infant or incompetent person, the declaration shall be made by his guardian.

(3) Notwithstanding the provisions of this section, no declaration is required if the estimated tax (as defined in subdivision 3) can reasonably be expected to be less than $100.

Sec. 57. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 290.93, Subdivision 9, is amended to read:

Subd. 9. [OVERPAYMENT OF ESTIMATED TAX.] (1) Where the amount of an installment payment of estimated tax exceeds the amount determined to be the correct amount of such installment payment, the overpayment shall be credited against the unpaid installments, if any. Where the total amount of the estimated tax payments plus (a) the total amount of tax withheld at the source under section 290.92, subdivision 2a or subdivision 3 (if any) and (b) and other payments (if any) exceeds by $1 or more the taxes (and any added penalties and interest) reported in the return of the taxpayer or imposed upon him by this chapter, the amount of such excess shall be refunded to the taxpayer. If the amount of such excess is less than $1 the commissioner shall not be required to refund that amount. Where any amount of such excess to be refunded exceeds $10, such amount on the original return shall bear interest at the rate of six percent per annum, computed from 90 days after (a) the due date of the return of the taxpayer or (b) the date on which his return is filed, whichever is later, until the date the refund is paid to the taxpayer. Notwithstanding the provisions of section 290.50, written findings by the commissioner, notice by mail to the taxpayer, and certificate for refundment by the commissioner, shall not be necessary. The provisions of section 270.10, shall not be applicable.

(2) Any action of the commissioner in refunding the amount of such excess shall not constitute a determination of the correctness of the return of the taxpayer within the purview of section 290.46.

(3) The commissioner of finance shall cause any such refund of tax and interest to be paid out of the general fund in accordance with the provisions of section 290.62, and so much of said fund as may be necessary is hereby appropriated for that purpose.

Sec. 58. Minnesota Statutes 1981 Supplement, Section 290.93, Subdivision 10, is amended to read:

Subd. 10. [UNDERPAYMENT OF ESTIMATED TAX.] (1) In the case of any underpayment of estimated tax by an individual, except as provided in paragraph (4), there may be added to and become a part of the taxes imposed by this chapter, for the taxable year an amount determined at the rate specified in section 270.75 upon the amount of the underpayment for the period of the underpayment.

(2) For purposes of the preceding paragraph, the amount of underpayment shall be the excess of

(a) The amount of the installment which would be required to be paid if the estimated tax were equal to 80 percent (66 2/3 percent in the case of farmers referred to in subdivision 5(2) of this section) of the taxes shown on the return for the taxable year or the taxes for such year if no return was filed, over

(b) The amount, if any, of the installment paid on or before the last day prescribed for such payment.

(3) The period of the underpayment shall run from the date the installment was required to be paid to whichever of the following dates is the earlier

(a) The 15th day of the fourth month following the close of the taxable year.

(b) With respect to any portion of the underpayment, the date on which such portion is paid. For purposes of this sub-paragraph, a payment of estimated tax on any installment date shall be considered a payment of any previous underpayment only to the extent such payment exceeds the amount of the installment determined under paragraph (2) (a) for such installment date.

(4) The addition to the tax with respect to any underpayment of any installment shall not be imposed if the total amount of all payments of estimated tax made on or before the last date prescribed for the payment of such installment equals or exceeds the amount which would have been required to be paid on or before such date if the estimated tax were whichever of the following is the lesser

(a) The total tax liability shown on the return of the individual for the preceding taxable year (if a return showing a liability for such taxes was filed by the individual for the preceding taxable year of 12 months), or

(b) An amount equal to the tax computed, at the rates applicable to the taxable year, on the basis of the taxpayer's status with respect to the personal credits for the taxable year, but otherwise on the basis of the facts shown on his return for, and the law applicable to the preceding taxable year, or

(c) An amount equal to 80 percent (66 2/3 percent in the case of farmers referred to in subdivision 5(2) of this section) of the tax for the taxable year (after deducting personal credits) computed by placing on an annualized basis the taxable income for the months in the taxable year ending before the month in which the installment is required to be paid. For purposes of this sub-paragraph, the taxable income shall be placed on an annualized basis by

(i) Multiplying by 12 (or in the case of a taxable year of less than 12 months, the number of months in the taxable year) the taxable income computed for the months in the taxable year ending before the month in which the installment is required to be paid.

(ii) Dividing the resulting amount by the number of months in the taxable year ending before the month in which such installment date falls, or

(d) An amount equal to 90 percent of the tax computed, at the rates applicable to the taxable year, on the basis of the actual taxable income for the months in the taxable year ending before the month in which the installment is required to be paid.

(5) For the purposes of applying this subdivision, the estimated tax shall be computed without any reduction for the amount which the individual estimates as his credit under section 290.92, subdivision 12 (relating to tax withheld at source on wages), and the refundable credits contained in sections 290.06, subdivision 13, 290.067, 290.501, and chapter 290A which are allowed against income tax liability, and the amount of such ~~credit~~ credits for the taxable year shall be deemed a payment of estimated tax, and an equal part of such ~~amount~~ amounts shall be deemed paid on each installment date (determined under subdivisions 6 and 7 of this section) for such taxable year, unless the taxpayer establishes the dates on which all amounts were actually withheld, in which case the amounts so withheld shall be deemed payments of estimated tax on the dates on which such amounts were actually withheld.

Sec. 59. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 290.936, is amended to read:

290.936 [OVERPAYMENT OF ESTIMATED TAX.]

(1) Where the amount of an installment payment of estimated tax exceeds the amount determined to be the correct amount of such installment payment, the overpayment shall be credited against the unpaid installments, if any. Where the total amount of the estimated tax payments and other payments, if any, exceeds by $1 or more the taxes (and any added penalties and interest) reported in the return of the taxpayer or imposed upon him by this chapter, the amount of such excess shall be refunded to the taxpayer. If the amount of such excess is less than $1, the commissioner shall not be required to refund. Where any amount of such excess to be refunded exceeds $10, such amount o.. the original return shall bear interest at the rate of six percent per annum, computed from 90 days after (a) the due date of the return of the taxpayer or (b) the date on which his return is filed, whichever is later, until the date the refund is paid to the taxpayer. Notwithstanding the provisions of section 290.50, written findings by the commissioner, notice by mail to the taxpayer, and certificate for refundment by the commissioner, shall not be necessary. The provisions of section 270.10, shall not be applicable.

(2) Any action of the commissioner in refunding the amount of such excess shall not constitute a determination of the correctness of the return of the taxpayer within the purview of section 290.46.

(3) The commissioner of finance shall cause any such refund of tax and interest to be paid out of the general fund in accordance with the provisions of section 290.62, and so much of said fund as may be necessary is hereby appropriated for that purpose.

Sec. 60. Minnesota Statutes 1981 Supplement, Section 290.9725, is amended to read:

290.9725 [ELECTION BY SMALL BUSINESS CORPORATION.]

Any corporation having a valid election in effect under section 1372 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, as amended through December 31, ~~1980~~ 1981, shall not be subject to the taxes imposed by this chapter, except the tax imposed under section 290.92.

Sec. 61. [290.9726] [CORPORATION TAXABLE INCOME TAXED TO SHAREHOLDERS.]

Subdivision 1. [GENERAL RULE.] The gross income of the shareholders of corporations described in section 290.9725 shall be computed under the provisions of section 290.01, subdivision 20.

Subd. 2. [CHARACTER OF ITEMS DISTRIBUTED OR CONSIDERED DISTRIBUTED.] The character of any item of income, gain, loss, or deduction included in shareholder's income shall be assignable as provided in section 290.17, subdivision 2, as if the item were realized directly from the source from which it was realized by the corporation or incurred in the same manner as incurred by the corporation.

Subd. 3. [EXCEPTIONS.] No subtraction specified in section 290.01, subdivision 20, clause (b) shall apply to any class of income which would be taxable to the corporation under the provisions of this chapter.

Subd. 4. [TREATMENT OF FAMILY GROUPS.] Any amount taxable to a shareholder may be apportioned or allocated by the commissioner between or among shareholders of the corporation who are members of the shareholder's family, as defined in section 290.10, clause (6), if he determines that the apportionment or allocation is necessary in order to reflect the value of services rendered to the corporation by the shareholders.

Subd. 5. [CREDIT ALLOWANCES.] The credits provided in sections 290.06 and 290.501 to which the corporation is entitled shall be allocated to the shareholders in the same percentage as the undistributed income was apportioned under section 1373(b) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, as amended through December 31, 1981. The limitations set forth in the computation of the credit shall be applied to the shareholders.

Subd. 6. [BASIS.] The adjustments to basis described in section 1376 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, as amended through December 31, 1981, shall not be made for any year beginning before January 1, 1981 for which the corporation did not have a valid election to be taxed as a small business corporation.

Sec. 62. Minnesota Statutes 1981 Supplement, Section 290.974, is amended to read:

290.974 [RETURN OF ELECTING SMALL BUSINESS CORPORATION.]

Every electing small business corporation under section 290.9725 shall make a ~~partnership~~ small business corporation return for each taxable year during which said election is in effect stating specifically the names and addresses of all persons owning stock in the corporation at any time during the taxable year, the number of shares of stock owned by each shareholder at all times during the taxable year, and such other information for the purposes of carrying out the provisions of sections 290.01, subdivision 20 and 290.9725 as the commissioner may by forms and regulations prescribe.

Sec. 63. Minnesota Statutes 1981 Supplement, Section 290A.03, Subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [INCOME.] (1) "Income" means the sum of the following:

(a) federal adjusted gross income as defined in the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 as amended through December 31, 1980; and

(b) the sum of the following amounts to the extent not included in clause (a):

(i) additions to federal adjusted gross income as provided in Minnesota Statutes, Section 290.01, Subdivision 20, Clause (a)(1), (a)(3), (a)(9), (a)(14), and (a)(15);

(ii) all nontaxable income;

(iii) recognized net long term capital gains;

(iv) dividends and interest excluded from federal adjusted gross income under section 116 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954;

(v) cash public assistance and relief;

(vi) any pension or annuity (including railroad retirement benefits, all payments received under the federal social security act, supplemental security income, and veterans benefits), which was not exclusively funded by the claimant or spouse, or which was funded exclusively by the claimant or spouse and which funding payments were excluded from federal adjusted gross income in the years when the payments were made;

(vii) nontaxable interest received from the state or federal government or any instrumentality or political subdivision thereof;

(viii) workers' compensation;

(ix) unemployment benefits;

(x) nontaxable strike benefits; and

(xi) the gross amounts of payments received in the nature of disability income or sick pay as a result of accident, sickness, or other disability, whether funded through insurance or otherwise. In the case of an individual who files an income tax return on a fiscal year basis, the term "federal adjusted gross income" shall mean federal adjusted gross income reflected in the fiscal year ending in the calendar year. Federal adjusted gross income shall not be reduced by the amount of a net operating loss carryback.

(2) "Income" does not include

(a) amounts excluded pursuant to the Internal Revenue Code, Sections 101(a), 102, 117, and 121;

(b) amounts of any pension or annuity which was exclusively funded by the claimant or spouse and which funding payments were not excluded from federal adjusted gross income in the years when the payments were made;

(c) ~~gifts from nongovernmental sources;~~

~~(d)~~ surplus food or other relief in kind supplied by a governmental agency;

~~(e)~~ (d) relief granted under sections 290A.01 to 290A.20;

~~(f)~~ (e) child support payments received under a temporary or final decree of dissolution or legal separation; or ~~(g)~~ (f) federal adjusted gross income shall be reduced by wage or salary expense, or expense of work incentive programs which are not allowed as a deduction under provisions of section 280C of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954.

Sec. 64. Minnesota Statutes 1981 Supplement, Section 290A.03, Subdivision 13, is amended to read:

Subd. 13. [PROPERTY TAXES PAYABLE.] "Property taxes payable" means the property tax exclusive of special assessments, penalties, and interest payable on a claimant's homestead before reductions made pursuant to section 273.13, subdivisions 6, 7 and 14a, but after deductions made pursuant to sections 124.213, 273.115, 273.116, 273.135 ~~and~~, 273.139, and 273.1391 in any calendar year. No apportionment or reduction of the "property taxes payable" shall be required for the use of a portion of the claimant's homestead for a business purpose if the claimant does not deduct any business depreciation expenses for the use of a portion of the homestead in the determination of federal adjusted gross income. For homesteads which are mobile homes as defined in section 168.011, subdivision 8, "property taxes payable" shall also include 23 percent of gross rent paid in the preceding year for the site on which the homestead is located, exclusive of charges for utilities or services. When a homestead is owned by two or more persons as joint tenants or tenants in common, such tenants shall determine between them which tenant may claim the property taxes payable on the homestead. If they are unable to agree, the matter shall be referred to the commissioner of revenue and his decision shall be final. Property taxes are considered payable in the year prescribed by law for payment of the taxes.

In the case of a claim relating to "property taxes payable", the claimant must have owned and occupied the homestead on January 2 of the year in which the tax is payable and (i) the property must have been classified as homestead property pursuant to section 273.13, subdivisions 6, 7, or 14a on or before June 1 of the year in which the "property taxes payable" were levied; or (ii) the claimant must provide documentation from the local assessor that application for homestead classification has been made prior to July 1 of the year in which the "property taxes payable" were payable and that the assessor has approved the application.

For property taxes levied in 1981, payable 1982, "property taxes payable" shall be limited to that portion of the property taxes eligible for the homestead credit as determined pursuant to section 273.13, subdivision 15b.

Sec. 65. Minnesota Statutes 1981 Supplement, Section 290A.07, Subdivision 2a, is amended to read:

Subd. 2a. A claimant not included in subdivision 2 who is a renter shall receive full payment prior to August 15 or 60 days after receipt of the application, whichever is later. Interest shall be added at six percent per annum from August 15 or 60 days after receipt of the application whichever is later.

Sec. 66. Minnesota Statutes 1981 Supplement, Section 290A.11, Subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [AUDIT OF CLAIM.] When on the audit of any claim filed under sections 290A.01 to 290A.20 the department determines the amount thereof to have been incorrectly determined, the department shall redetermine the claim and notify the claimant of the redetermination and the reasons therefor. The redetermination shall be final unless appealed to the Minnesota tax court within 60 days of notice thereof. The redetermination under this subdivision and subdivision 1a shall be recovered by assessment and collection in the manner provided in chapter 290 for collection of income tax. The assessment shall bear interest from the date the claim is paid by the state until the date of repayment by the claimant, at the rate specified in section 270.75.

Sec. 67. Minnesota Statutes 1981 Supplement, Section 270.75, Subdivision 4, as amended by Laws 1981, Third Special Session Chapter 2, Article III, Section 1, is amended to read:

Subd. 4. There shall be added to the amount of any underpayment of estimated income tax, computed pursuant to chapter 290, an amount in lieu of interest determined at the rate of ~~20~~ 12 percent per annum ~~beginning February 1, 1982~~. For taxable years beginning after December 31, 1981, the amount in lieu of interest shall be determined at the rate of 20 percent per annum. For taxable years beginning after December 31, 1982, the amount in lieu of inter- est for that taxable year shall be the amount determined in subdivision 5 for January 1 on which begins the taxable year or precedes the beginning of the taxable year.

Sec. 68. Minnesota Statutes 1981 Supplement, Section 270.75, Subdivision 5, as amended by Laws 1981, Third Special Session Chapter 2, Article III, Section 1, is amended to read:

Subd. 5. The rates of interest or amount in lieu of interest contained in subdivisions 1 to 4 shall be adjusted by the commissioner of revenue not later than October 15 of 1982 and any year thereafter if the adjusted prime rate charged by banks during September of that year, rounded to the nearest full percent, is at least a full percentage point more or less than the interest rate which is then in effect. The adjusted rate of interest or amount in lieu of interest shall be equal to the adjusted prime rate charged by banks, rounded to the nearest full percent, and shall become effective on January 1 of the immediately succeeding year except as provided in subdivision 4. For purposes of this subdivision, the term "adjusted prime rate charged by banks" means the average predominant prime rate quoted by commercial banks to large businesses, as determined by the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System.

Sec. 69. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 290.032, Subdivision 5, is amended to read:

Subd. 5. An amount not to exceed $10,000 which is distributed to an individual as severance pay upon discontinuation of the individual's employment due to termination of business operations by the individual's employer may be treated as a lump sum distribution according to the provisions of this section if it is paid as a lump sum. For the payment to be treated as a lump sum distribution under this subdivision, the termination of the employer's business operation at that site must be reasonably likely to be permanent and to involve the discharge within a period of one year of at least 75 percent of the persons employed by that employer at that site. This subdivision shall not apply when the employer's business operation at that site is terminated because the business is sold to another person or corporation who will continue operations at that site and the individual is employed by the new person or corporation. For the purposes of this subdivision, "severance pay" shall mean an amount received for the cancellation of an employment contract or a collectively bargained termination payment in the nature of a substitute for income which would have been earned for personal services to be rendered in the future.

The minimum distribution allowance provided in sections 402 (e)(1)(C) and (D) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, as amended through December 31, 1979, shall not apply to the computation allowed under this subdivision.

Sec. 70. Laws 1981, Third Special Session Chapter 2, Article III, Section 6, Subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [LIMITATION.] The credit for the taxable year shall not exceed $300,000 or ten percent of the liability for tax, whichever is less. "Liability for tax" for purposes of this section means the tax imposed under this chapter for the taxable year reduced by the sum of the credits allowed under section 290.06, except the credit allowed under section 290.06, subdivision 13.

If the credit determined under subdivision 2 exceeds this limitation, the excess shall be a credit carryback to each of the three preceding taxable years and a credit carryover to each of the seven succeeding taxable years, provided the aggregate of the credit for the taxable year and any carryover and carryback credits shall not exceed $300,000 or ten percent of the liability for tax, whichever is less. The entire amount of the excess unused credit for the taxable year shall be carried first to the earliest of the taxable years to which the credit may be carried and then to each successive year to which the credit may be carried.

For the purposes of sections 290.46 and 290.50, if the claim for refund relates to an overpayment attributable to a research and experimental expenditure credit carryback under this subdivision, in lieu of the period of limitation prescribed in sections 290.46 and 290.50, the period of limitation shall be that period which ends with the expiration of the 15th day of the 46th month, or the 45th month, in the case of a corporation, following the end of the taxable year in which the research and experimental expenditure credit arises which results in the carryback. In any case in which a taxpayer is entitled to a refund in a carryback year due to the carryback of a research and experimental expenditure credit, interest shall be computed only from the end of the taxable year in which the credit arises.

Sec. 71. [INSTRUCTION TO REVISOR.]

In Minnesota Statutes 1982, Section 290.09, Subdivisions 5 and 6, the revisor of statutes shall substitute the phrase "this chapter" for the phrase "sections 290.12, 290.131 to 290.139, 290.14 and 290.15", wherever it is used in those subdivisions. In Minnesota Statutes 1982, Sections 290.12, Subdivision 1, and 290.16, Subdivision 1, the revisor of statutes shall substitute the phrase "this chapter" for the phrase "sections 290.131 to 290.139, 290.14 and 290.15", wherever it is used in those subdivisions.

Sec. 72. [REPEALER.]

Minnesota Statutes 1980, Sections 290.06, Subdivision 3c; 290.0781; 290.079, Subdivisions 2, 3, 4, and 5; 290.08, Subdivision 21; 290.09, Subdivision 24; 290.13, Subdivisions 2, 4, and 10; 290.136, Subdivision 8; 290.26, Subdivision 5; 290.281, Subdivisions 3, 4, and 6; 290.31, Subdivisions 7, 8, 12, 13, 14, 15, 16, 17, 18, 20, 22, 23, 24, 25, and 26; 290.973; and Minnesota Statutes 1981 Supplement, Sections 290.079, Subdivision 6; 290.09, Subdivision 17a; 290.131, Subdivisions 2 and 3; 290.132, Subdivision 2; 290.133, Subdivision 2; 290.21, Subdivision 7; 290.26, Subdivisions 1 and 3; 290.281, Subdivision 2; 290.31, Subdivisions 6, 8a, 9, 10, 11, and 21; and 290.971, Subdivision 7; are repealed.

Sec. 73. [EFFECTIVE DATE.]

Sections 2, 19 and 67 are effective for taxable years beginning after December 31, 1980. Sections 47, 51, 52, 53, 55, 57, and 59 are effective May 1, 1982. Sections 46 and 54 are effective for bankruptcy proceedings filed on or after October 1, 1979. Sections 12, 45, 50, 56, 58, 64, 66, and 68 are effective the day after final enactment. Section 65 is effective for claims based on rent paid in 1982 and subsequent years. The provisions of section 42 requiring that non-game wildlife designations be made on original returns is effective for taxable years beginning after December 31, 1979, and claims based on rent paid in 1980 and subsequent years, and property taxes payable in 1981 and subsequent years. Those provisions of section 63 that relate to net operating loss carrybacks are effective the day after final enactment. The balance of section 63 is effective for claims based on rent paid in 1982 and succeeding years and property taxes payable in 1983 and succeeding years. The change in section 1, clause (b)(2) is effective for the sale or other disposition of property after June 30, 1982. The rest of this article is effective for taxable years beginning after December 31, 1981.

ARTICLE II

Section 1. Minnesota Statutes 1981 Supplement, Section 270.063, is amended to read:

270.063 [COLLECTION OF DELINQUENT TAXES.]

For the purpose of collecting delinquent state tax liabilities from taxpayers who do not reside or are not located in Minnesota, there is appropriated to the commissioner of revenue an amount representing the cost of collection, not to exceed one-third of the amount collected by contract with collection agencies or attorneys to enable the commissioner to reimburse these agencies for this service. The commissioner shall report quarterly on the status of this program to the chairmen of the house tax and appropriation committees and senate tax and finance committees.

Notwithstanding section 16A.15, subdivision 3, the commissioner of revenue may authorize the prepayment of sheriff's fees or court costs to be incurred in connection with the collection out of state of delinquent tax liabilities owed to the commissioner of revenue.

Sec. 2. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 270.06, is amended to read:

270.06 [POWERS AND DUTIES.]

It shall be the duty of the commissioner of revenue and he shall have power and authority:

(1) To have and exercise general supervision over the administration of the assessment and taxation laws of the state, over assessors, town, county, and city boards of review and equalization, and all other assessing officers in the performance of their duties, to the end that all assessments of property be made relatively just and equal in compliance with the laws of the state;

(2) To confer with, advise and give the necessary instructions and directions to local assessors and local boards of review throughout the state as to their duties under the laws of the state;

(3) To direct proceedings, actions, and prosecutions to be instituted to enforce the laws relating to the liability and punishment of public officers and officers and agents of corporations for failure or negligence to comply with the provisions of the laws of this state governing returns of assessment and taxation of property, and to cause complaints to be made against local assessors, members of boards of equalization, members of boards of review, or any other assessing or taxing officer, to the proper authority, for their removal from office for misconduct or negligence of duty;

(4) To require county attorneys to assist in the commencement of prosecutions in actions or proceedings for removal, forfeiture and punishment for violation of the laws of this state in respect to the assessment and taxation of property in their respective districts or counties;

(5) To require town, city, county, and other public officers to report information as to the assessment of property, collection of taxes received from licenses and other sources, and such other information as may be needful in the work of the department of revenue, in such form and upon such blanks as he may prescribe;

(6) To require individuals, copartnerships, companies, associations, and corporations to furnish information concerning their capital, funded or other debt, current assets and liabilities, earnings, operating expenses, taxes, as well as all other statements now required by law for taxation purposes;

(7) To summon witnesses to appear and give testimony, and to produce books, records, papers and documents relating to any tax matter which he may have authority to investigate or determine. Provided, that any summons which does not identify the person or persons with respect to whose tax liability the summons is issued may be served only if (a) the summons relates to the investigation of a particular person or ascertainable group or class of persons, (b) there is a reasonable basis for believing that such person or group or class of persons may fail or may have failed to comply with any tax law administered by the commissioner, (c) the information sought to be obtained from the examination of the records (and the identity of the person or persons with respect to whose liability the summons is issued) is not readily available from other sources, (d) the summons is clear and specific as to the information sought to be obtained, and (e) the information sought to be obtained is limited solely to the scope of the investigation. Provided further that the party served with a summons which does not identify the person or persons with respect to whose tax liability the summons is issued shall have the right, within 20 days after service of the summons, to petition the district court for the judicial district in which lies the county in which the summons is served for a determination as to whether the commissioner of revenue has complied with all the requirements in (a) to (e), and thus, whether the summons is enforceable. If no such petition is made by the party served within the time prescribed, the summons shall have the force and effect of a court order;

(8) To cause the deposition of witnesses residing within or without the state, or absent therefrom, to be taken, upon notice to the interested party, if any, in like manner that depositions of witnesses are taken in civil actions in the district court, in any matter which he may have authority to investigate or determine;

(9) To investigate the tax laws of other states and countries and to formulate and submit to the legislature such legislation as he may deem expedient to prevent evasions of assessment and taxing laws, and to secure just and equal taxation and improvement in the system of assessment and taxation in this state;

(10) To consult and confer with the governor upon the subject of taxation, the administration of the laws in regard thereto, and the progress of the work of the department of revenue, and to furnish the governor, from time to time, such assistance and information as he may require relating to tax matters;

(11) To transmit to the governor, on or before the third Monday in December of each even-numbered year, and to each member of the legislature, on or before November 15 of each even numbered year, the report of the department of revenue for the preceding years, showing all the taxable property in the state and the value of the same, in tabulated form;

(12) To inquire into the methods of assessment and taxation and ascertain whether the assessors faithfully discharge their duties, particularly as to their compliance with the laws requiring the assessment of all property not exempt from taxation;

(13) To exercise and perform such further powers and duties as may be required or imposed upon the commissioner of revenue by law;

(14) The commissioner of revenue may promulgate rules and regulations for the administration and enforcement of the property tax. Such rules and regulations shall have the force and effect of law;

(15) To execute and administer any agreement with the secretary of the treasury of the United States regarding the exchange of information and administration of the tax laws of both the United States and the state of Minnesota;

(16) To administer and enforce the provisions of sections 325.64 to 325.76, the Minnesota unfair cigarette sales act.

Sec. 3. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 270.07, Subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. The commissioner of revenue shall prescribe the form of all blanks and books required under this chapter. He shall hear and determine all matters of grievance relating to taxation. Except as otherwise provided by law, he shall have power to grant such reduction or abatement of assessed valuations or taxes and of any costs, penalties or interest thereon as he may deem just and equitable, and to order the refundment, in whole or in part, of any taxes, costs, penalties or interest thereon which have been erroneously or unjustly paid. Application therefor shall be submitted with a statement of facts in the case and the favorable recommendation of the county board or of the board of abatement of any city where any such board exists, and the county auditor of the county wherein such tax was levied or paid. In the case of gross earnings taxes the application may be made directly to the commissioner without the favorable action of the county board and county auditor, and the commissioner shall direct that any gross earnings taxes which may have been erroneously or unjustly paid shall be applied against unpaid taxes due from the applicant for such refundment. No reduction, abatement, or refundment of any special assessments made or levied by any municipality for local improvements shall be made unless it is also approved by the board of review or similar taxing authority of such municipality. The commissioner may refer any question that may arise in reference to the true construction of this chapter to the attorney general, and his decision thereon shall be in force and effect until annulled by the judgment of a court of competent jurisdiction. The commissioner shall forward to the county auditor a copy of the order by him made in all cases in which the approval of the county board is required. The commissioner may by written order abate, reduce, or refund any penalty or interest imposed by any law relating to taxation, if in his opinion the ~~enforcement of such a penalty or the payment of such interest would be unjust and inequitable~~ failure to timely pay the tax or failure to timely file the return is due to reasonable cause. Such order shall, in the case of real and personal property taxes, be made only on application and approval as provided in this section; in the case of all other taxes, such order shall be made on application of the taxpayer to the commissioner and, if the order is for an abatement, reduction or refund of over ~~$500~~

$5,000, it shall be valid only if approved in writing by the attorney general.

An appeal may not be taken to the tax court from any order of the commissioner of revenue made in the exercise of the discretionary authority granted to him in this subdivision in response to a taxpayer's application for an abatement, reduction or refund of taxes, assessed valuations, costs, penalties or interest.

Sec. 4. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 270.10, Subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [IN WRITING; APPROVAL BY ATTORNEY GENERAL.] All orders and decisions of the commissioner of revenue, or any of his subordinates, respecting any tax, assessment, or other obligation, shall be in writing, filed in the offices of the department. No order or decision increasing or decreasing any tax, assessment, or other obligation by a sum exceeding $500 on real or personal property, or the assessed valuation thereof, or other obligation relating thereto, the result of which is to increase or decrease the total amount payable including penalties and interest, by a sum exceeding $1,000, and no order or decision increasing or decreasing any other tax by a sum exceeding $1,000 exclusive of penalties and interest, shall be made without the written signature or facsimile signature of the commissioner, a deputy commissioner, assistant commissioner, division director, or acting division director in each case. Written notice of every order granting a reduction, abatement, or refundment exceeding ~~$1,000~~ $5,000 of any tax exclusive of penalties and interest, shall be given within five days to the attorney general. The attorney general shall forthwith examine such order, and if he deems the same proper and legal he shall approve the same in writing, and may waive the right of appeal therefrom in behalf of the state; otherwise he shall take an appeal from the order in behalf of the state as herein provided; but written approval of the commissioner or his deputy and written notice to the attorney general, shall not be required with respect to the following orders: (1) orders reducing assessed valuation of property by reason of its classification as a homestead; (2) orders not involving refunds which have the effect only of correcting income and franchise tax assessments to conform to the amounts shown on final returns filed as provided by section 290.42, clause (6); (3) original orders for the refundment of gasoline and special fuel taxes.

Sec. 5. Minnesota Statutes 1981 Supplement, Section 270.66, is amended to read:

270.66 [RIGHT OF SETOFF.]

Subdivision 1. [CERTIFICATION BY COMMISSIONER.] Upon certification by the commissioner of revenue to the commissioner of finance, or to any state agency described in subdivision 3 which disburses its own funds, within five years after the tax should have been paid or the return is filed, whichever is later, that a taxpayer has an uncontested delinquent tax liability owed to the commissioner of revenue, ~~and notice that the state has purchased personal services, supplies, contract service, or purchased property from said taxpayer,~~ the commissioner of finance or the state agency shall apply to such delinquent tax liability funds sufficient to satisfy such unpaid tax liability from funds appropriated for payment of ~~said~~ an obligation of the state or any of its agencies that are due and owing the taxpayer, provided however, that such credit shall not be made against any funds exempt under section 550.37 or those funds owed ~~the~~ an individual taxpayer who receives assistance under the provisions of chapter 256 ~~or 256B~~.

Subd. 2. [SETOFF SATISFIES STATE OBLIGATION.] All funds, whether general or dedicated, shall be subject to setoff in the manner herein provided. Transfer of funds as herein provided is payment of the obligation of the state or any of its agencies to such taxpayer and any actions for said funds, if any, shall be had against the department of revenue on the issue of such tax liability. Nothing in this section shall be construed to limit the previously existing right of the state or any of its agencies to setoff.

Subd. 3. [AGENCIES SHALL MAINTAIN RECORDS.] Notwithstanding any provision to the contrary, every person, organization, or corporation doing business (hereafter called vendor) with the state of Minnesota or any of its departments, agencies, or educational institutions including the University of Minnesota (all hereafter called agency) shall provide that agency with their social security number or Minnesota tax identification number. The agency shall maintain records of this information, and shall make these records available to the commissioner, upon his request, for the sole purpose of identifying people who have not filed state tax returns or who have not paid uncontested state tax liabilities (hereafter called delinquent taxpayer). When an agency is notified by the commissioner that a vendor is a delinquent taxpayer, payments shall not be made by the agency to the vendor until the commissioner notifies the agency that the vendor no longer is a delinquent taxpayer. Furthermore, if the vendor has an uncontested delinquent tax liability, the setoff provided in subdivision 1 may be implemented. The commissioner shall determine that a vendor no longer is a delinquent taxpayer when the vendor has filed all delinquent state tax returns, paid all uncontested state tax liabilities or entered into an agreement with the commissioner which provides for the payment of these liabilities. The commissioner may notify an agency concerning a vendor, notwithstanding the provisions of sections 290.61 or 297A.43.

Sec. 6. [270.67] [AGREEMENTS REGARDING TAX LIABILITY OR EXTENSION OF PAYMENT OF TAX.]

Subdivision 1. [LIABILITY AGREEMENTS.] The commissioner of revenue, or any officer or employee of the department of revenue authorized in writing by the commissioner, is authorized to enter into an agreement in writing with any taxpayer, or duly authorized agent or representative of the taxpayer, relating to the liability of the taxpayer in respect of any state tax administered by the commissioner for any taxable period ending prior to the date of the agreement. If the agreement is approved by the commissioner within the time stated in the agreement, or later agreed to, the agreement shall be final and conclusive; and, except upon a showing of fraud or malfeasance, or misrepresentation of a material fact, the case shall not be reopened as to the matters agreed upon, or the agreement modified, by any officer, employee, or agent of the state; and, in any suit, action, or proceeding, the agreement, or any determination, assessment, collection, payment, abatement, refund, or credit made in accordance with the agreement, shall not be annulled, modified, set aside, or disregarded.

Subd. 2. [EXTENSION AGREEMENTS.] When any portion of any tax payable to the commissioner of revenue together with interest and penalty thereon, if any, has not been paid six months from the date prescribed by law for its payment, the commissioner may extend the time for payment for a further period not to exceed 36 months. When the authority of this section is invoked, the extension shall be evidenced by written agreement signed by the taxpayer and the commissioner, stating the amount of the tax with penalty and interest, if any, and providing for the payment of the amount in regular weekly, semi-monthly or monthly installments. The agreement shall contain a confession of judgment for the amount and for any unpaid portion thereof and shall provide that the commissioner may forthwith enter judgment against the taxpayer in the district court of the county of his residence as shown upon his tax return for the unpaid portion of the amount specified in the extension agreement. The principal sum specified in the agreement shall bear interest at the rate specified in section 270.75 on all unpaid portions thereof until the same has been fully paid or the unpaid portion thereof has been entered as a judgment. The judgment shall bear interest at the rate specified in section 270.75. If it appears to the commissioner that the tax reported by the taxpayer is in excess of the amount actually owing by the taxpayer, the extension agreement or the judgment entered pursuant thereto shall be corrected. If after making the extension agreement or entering judgment with respect thereto, the commissioner determines that the tax as reported by the taxpayer is less than the amount actually due, the commissioner shall assess a further tax in accordance with the provisions of law applicable to the tax. The authority granted to the commissioner by this section is in addition to any other authority granted to the commissioner by law to extend the time of payment or the time for filing a return and shall not be construed in limitation thereof.

Sec. 7. [270.68] [LEGAL ACTION; CONFESSION OF JUDGMENT.]

Subdivision 1. [LEGAL ACTION.] In addition to all other methods authorized by law for the collection of tax, if any tax payable to the commissioner of revenue or to the department of revenue, including penalties and interest thereon, is not paid within 60 days after it is required by law to be paid, the commissioner of revenue may, within five years after the date the tax should have been paid or the return is filed, whichever is later, bring an action at law against the person liable for the payment or collection of the tax, in the name of the state, for the recovery of the tax and interest and penalties due in respect thereof. The action shall be brought in the district court of the judicial district in which lies the county of the residence or principal place of business within this state of the taxpayer, or, in the case of an estate or trust, of the place of its principal administration, and for this purpose the place named as such in the return, if any, made by the taxpayer shall be conclusive against the taxpayer in this matter. If no place is named in the return, the action may be commenced in Ramsey county. The action shall be commenced by filing with the clerk of the court a statement showing the name and address of the taxpayer, if known, an itemized summary of the taxable periods and the type of tax, the tax due and unpaid and the interest and penalties due with respect thereto under the provisions of law applicable to the tax, and shall contain a prayer that the court adjudge the taxpayer to be indebted on account of the taxes, interest, and penalties in the amount specified in the statement; a copy of the statement shall be furnished to the clerk therewith. The clerk shall mail a copy of the statement by certified mail to the taxpayer at the address given in the return, if any; and, if no address is given, then at his last known address, within five days after the same is filed, except that, if the taxpayer's address is not known, notice to him shall be made by posting a copy of the statement for ten days in the place in the courthouse where public notices are regularly posted. The taxpayer shall, if he desires to litigate the claim, or any part thereof, file a verified answer with the clerk setting forth his objections to the claim, or any part thereof; the answer shall be filed on or before the 20th day after the date of mailing the statement; or, if notice has been given by posting, on or before the 20th day after the expiration of the period during which the notice was required to be posted. If no answer is filed within the specified time, the clerk, upon the filing of an affidavit of default, shall enter judgment for the state in the amount prayed for, plus costs of $10. If an answer is filed, the issues raised shall stand for trial as soon as possible after the filing of the answer, and the court shall determine the issues and direct judgment accordingly; and, if the taxes, interest, or penalties are sustained to any extent over the amount rendered by the taxpayer, shall assess $10 costs against the taxpayer. The court shall disregard all technicalities and matters of form not affecting the substantial merits. The commissioner may call upon the county attorney or the attorney general to conduct the proceedings on behalf of the state. Execution shall be issued upon the judgment at the request of the commissioner, and the execution shall, in all other respects, be governed by the laws applicable to executions issued on judgments. Only the homestead and household goods of the judgment debtor shall be exempt from seizure and sale upon the execution.

Subd. 2. [APPEALS.] Either party to an action or a judgment for the recovery of any taxes, interest, or penalties under subdivision 1 may remove the judgment to the supreme court by appeal, as provided for appeals in civil cases.

Subd. 3. [TAX PRESUMED VALID.] The tax, as assessed by the commissioner, with any penalties included therein, shall be presumed to be valid and correctly determined and assessed, and the burden shall be upon the taxpayer to show its incorrectness or invalidity. The statement filed by the commissioner with the clerk of court, as provided in subdivision 1, or any other certificate by the commissioner of the amount of the tax and penalties as determined or assessed by him, shall be admissible in evidence and shall establish prima facie the facts set forth therein.

Subd. 4. [CONFESSION OF JUDGMENT.] (a) The commissioner may, within 3-1/2 years after any return or report is filed, notwithstanding section 541.09, enter judgment on any confession of judgment contained in the return or report after ten days notice served upon the taxpayer by mail at the address shown in his return or report. The judgment shall be entered by the clerk of court of any county upon the filing of a photocopy or similar reproduction of that part of the return or report containing the confession of judgment along with a statement of the commissioner or his agent that the tax has not been paid.

(b) Notwithstanding any other provision of the law to the contrary, the commissioner may, within five years after a written agreement is signed by the taxpayer and the commissioner under the provisions of section 6, subdivision 2, enter judgment on the confession of judgment contained within the agreement after ten days notice served upon the taxpayer at the address shown in the agreement. Such judgment shall be entered by the clerk of court of any county upon the filing of the agreement or a certified copy thereof along with a statement of the commissioner or his agent that the tax has not been paid.

Sec. 8. [270.69] [LIEN FOR TAXES.]

Subdivision 1. [CREATION OF LIEN.] The tax imposed by any chapter administered by the commissioner of revenue, and interest and penalties im- posed with respect thereto, shall become a lien upon all the property within this state, both real and personal, of the person liable for the payment or collection of the tax, except his homestead, from and after the filing by the commissioner of a notice of lien in the office of the county recorder of the county in which the property is situated, or in the case of personal property belonging to an individual who is not a resident of this state, or which is a corporation, partnership, or other organization, in the office of the secretary of state.

Subd. 2. [INDEXING OF LIENS.] The indexing of liens filed pursuant to this section and, notwithstanding section 386.77, the fees charged for such filing and indexing, shall be as prescribed in sections 272.483 and 272.484.

Subd. 3. [EXEMPT PROPERTY.] The lien imposed on personal property by this section, even though properly filed, shall not be valid as against a purchaser with respect to tangible personal property purchased at retail or as against the personal property listed as exempt in sections 550.37, 550.38, and 550.39.

Subd. 4. [PERIOD OF LIMITATIONS.] The lien imposed by this section shall, notwithstanding any other provision of law to the contrary, be valid and enforceable for ten years from the date of filing the notice of lien, which must be filed by the commissioner within five years after the tax should have been paid or the return is filed, whichever is later.

Subd. 5. [PRIORITY OF LIEN.] Only for the purpose of determining the order of priority of the lien imposed by this section and a federal tax lien, the lien imposed by this section shall arise at the time the state tax assessment is made.

Subd. 6. [ENFORCEABILITY OF LIEN.] The lien imposed by this section shall be enforceable by levy as authorized in section 270.70, or by judgment lien foreclosure as authorized in chapter 550.

Subd. 7. [NOTICE OF MORTGAGE FORECLOSURE OR CONTRACT TERMINATION.] If a lien has been filed by the commissioner of revenue against real property pursuant to this section, and, subsequent to the recording of the lien, a mortgage foreclosure upon the real property is commenced under chapter 580, or a termination of contract of sale of the real property is commenced under section 559.21, notice of the mortgage foreclosure or termination of contract of sale shall be mailed to the commissioner not less than 25 days prior to the foreclosure or termination.

Sec. 9. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 270.70, Subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [AUTHORITY OF COMMISSIONER.] If any tax payable to the commissioner of revenue or to the department of revenue is not paid when due, such tax may be collected by the commissioner of revenue within five years after the tax should have been paid or the return is filed, whichever is later, by a levy upon all property and rights to property of the person liable for the payment or collection of such tax~~,~~ *(except that which is exempt from execution pursuant to section 550.37) or property on which there is a lien provided in section 8.* For this purpose, the term "tax" shall include any penalty, interest and costs properly payable. The term "levy" includes the power of distraint and seizure by any means.

Sec. 10. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 270.70, Subdivision 2, is

amended to read:

Subd. 2. [NOTICE AND DEMAND; JEOPARDY COLLECTION.] Before a levy is made, notice and demand for payment of the amount due shall be given to the person liable for the payment or collection of the tax at least ten days prior to the levy. If the commissioner has reason to believe that collection of the tax is in jeopardy, notice and demand for immediate payment of ~~such~~ the tax may be made by the commissioner. If the tax is not paid, the commissioner may proceed to collect by levy without regard to the ten day period provided herein.

Sec. 11. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 270.70, Subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [MANNER OF EXECUTION AND SALE.] In making the execution of the levy and in collecting the taxes due, the commissioner shall have all of the powers provided in chapter 550 and in any other law for purposes of effecting an execution against property in this state. The sale of property levied upon, and the time and manner of redemption therefrom, shall ~~be as~~, to the extent not provided in sections 17 to 25, be governed by chapter 550. The seal of the court, subscribed by the clerk, as provided in section 550.04, shall not be required. The levy for collection of taxes may be made whether or not the commissioner has commenced a legal action for collection of such taxes.

Sec. 12. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 270.70, Subdivision 5, is amended to read:

Subd. 5. [PROBATE COURT JURISDICTION.] Where a levy has been made to collect taxes pursuant to ~~subdivision 1~~ this section and the property seized is properly included in a formal proceeding commenced under sections 524.3-401 to 524.3-505 and maintained under full supervision of the court, such property shall not be sold until the probate proceedings are completed or until the court so orders.

Sec. 13. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 270.70, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 13. [LEVY AND SALE BY SHERIFF.] If any tax payable to the commissioner of revenue or to the department of revenue is not paid as provided in subdivision 2, the commissioner may, within five years after the tax should have been paid or the return is filed, whichever is later, delegate the authority granted to him by subdivision 1, by means of issuing his warrant to the sheriff of any county of the state commanding him, as agent for the commissioner, to levy upon and sell the real and personal property of the person liable for the payment or collection of the tax and to levy upon the rights to property of that person within the county, or to levy upon and seize any property within the county on which there is a lien provided in section 8, and to return the warrant to the commissioner and pay to the commissioner the money collected by virtue thereof by a time to be therein specified not less than 60 days from the date of the warrant. The sheriff shall proceed thereunder to levy upon and seize any property of the person and to levy upon the rights to property of the person within the county (except his homestead or that property which is exempt from execution pursuant to section 550.37), or to levy upon and seize any property within the county on which there is a lien provided in section 8. For purposes of the preceding sentence, the term "tax" shall include any penalty, interest and costs properly payable. The sheriff shall then sell so much of the property levied upon as is required to satisfy the taxes, interest, and penalties, together with his costs; but the sales, and the time and manner of redemption therefrom, shall, to the extent not provided in sections 17 to 25, be governed by chapter 550. The proceeds of the sales, less the sheriff's costs, shall be turned over to the commissioner, who shall then apply the proceeds as provided in section 24.

Sec. 14. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 270.70, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 14. [PRIORITY OF LEVY.] A levy by the commissioner made pursuant to the provisions of this section upon a taxpayer's funds on deposit in a financial institution located in this state, shall have priority over any unexercised right of setoff of the financial institution to apply the levied funds toward the balance of an outstanding loan or loans owed by the taxpayer to the financial institution. A claim by the financial institution that it exercised its right to setoff prior to the levy by the commissioner must be substantiated by evidence of the date of the setoff, and shall be verified by the sworn statement of a responsible corporate officer of the financial institution. Furthermore, for purposes of determining the priority of any levy made under this section, the levy shall be treated as if it were an execution made pursuant to chapter 550.

Sec. 15. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 270.70, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 15. [EFFECT OF HONORING LEVY.] Any person in possession of (or obligated with respect to) property or rights to property subject to levy upon which a levy has been made who, upon demand by the commissioner, surrenders the property or rights to property (or who pays a liability under subdivision 8) shall be discharged from any obligation or liability to the person liable for the payment or collection of the delinquent tax with respect to the property or rights to property so surrendered or paid.

Sec. 16. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 270.70, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 16. [NOTICE OF LEVY.] Notwithstanding any other provision of law to the contrary, the notice of any levy authorized by this section may be served by mail or by delivery by an employee or agent of the department of revenue.

Sec. 17. [270.701] [SALE OF SEIZED PROPERTY.]

Subdivision 1. [NOTICE OF SEIZURE.] As soon as practicable after seizure of property, notice in writing shall be given by the commissioner of revenue to the owner of the property (or, in the case of personal property, the possessor thereof), and shall be served in like manner as a summons in a civil action in the district court. If the owner cannot be readily located, or has no dwelling or place of business within this state, the notice may be mailed to his last known address. The notice shall specify the sum demanded and shall contain, in the case of personal property, an account of the property seized and, in the case of real property, a description with reasonable certainty of the property seized.

Subd. 2. [NOTICE OF SALE.] The commissioner shall as soon as practi- cable after the seizure of the property give notice of sale of the property to the owner, in the manner of service prescribed in subdivision 1. In the case of personal property, the notice shall be served at least 10 days prior to the sale. In the case of real property, the notice shall be served at least four weeks prior to the sale. The commissioner shall also cause public notice of each sale to be made. In the case of personal property, notice shall be posted at least 10 days prior to the sale at the post office nearest the place where the seizure is made, and in not less than two other public places. In the case of real property, six weeks' published notice shall be given prior to the sale, in a newspaper published or generally circulated in the county. The notice of sale provided in this subdivision shall specify the property to be sold, and the time, place, manner and conditions of the sale. Whenever levy is made without regard to the ten-day period provided in section 270.70, subdivision 2, public notice of sale of the property seized shall not be made within the ten-day period unless section 18 (relating to sale of perishable goods) is applicable.

Subd. 3. [SALE OF INDIVISIBLE PROPERTY.] If any property liable to levy is not divisible, so as to enable the commissioner by sale of a part thereof to raise the whole amount of the tax and expenses, the whole of the property shall be sold.

Subd. 4. [TIME AND PLACE OF SALE.] The time of sale shall be after the expiration of the notice periods prescribed in subdivision 2. The place of sale shall be within the county in which the property is seized, except by special order of the commissioner.

Subd. 5. [MANNER AND CONDITIONS OF SALE.] (a) Before the sale the commissioner shall determine a minimum price for which the property shall be sold, and if no person offers for the property at the sale the amount of the minimum price, the property shall be declared to be purchased at the minimum price for the state of Minnesota; otherwise the property shall be declared to be sold to the highest bidder. In determining the minimum price, the commissioner shall take into account the expense of making the levy and sale. The announcement of the minimum price determined by the commissioner may be delayed until the receipt of the highest bid.

(b) The sale shall not be conducted in any manner other than:

(i) by public auction, or

(ii) by public sale under sealed bids.

(c) In the case of seizure of several items of property, the items may be offered separately, in groups, or in the aggregate, and shall be sold under whichever method produces the highest aggregate amount.

(d) Payment in full shall be required at the time of acceptance of a bid, except that a part of the payment may be deferred by the commissioner for a period not to exceed 30 days.

(e) Other methods (including advertising) in addition to those prescribed in subdivision 2 may be used in giving notice of the sale.

(f) The commissioner may adjourn the sale from time to time for a period not to exceed 30 days.

(g) If payment in full is required at the time of acceptance of a bid and is not then and there paid, the commissioner shall forthwith proceed to again sell the property in the manner provided in this section. If the conditions of the sale permit part of the payment to be deferred, and if the part is not paid within the prescribed period, suit may be instituted against the purchaser for the purchase price or that part thereof as has not been paid, together with interest at the rate specified in section 549.09 from the date of the sale; or, in the discretion of the commissioner, the sale may be declared by the commissioner to be null and void for failure to make full payment of the purchase price and the property may again be advertised and sold as provided in this section. In the event of a readvertisement and sale, any new purchaser shall receive the property or rights to property free and clear of any claim or right of the former defaulting purchaser, of any nature whatsoever, and the amount paid upon the bid price by the defaulting purchaser shall be forfeited.

Sec. 18. [270.702] [SALE OF PERISHABLE GOODS.]

If the commissioner determines that any property seized is liable to perish or become greatly reduced in price or value by keeping, or that the property cannot be kept without great expense, he shall appraise the value of the property, and if the owner of the property can be readily found, the commissioner shall give the owner notice of the determination of the appraised value of the property. The property shall be returned to the owner if, within the time specified in the notice, the owner (a) pays to the commissioner an amount equal to the appraised value, or (b) gives bond in the form, with the sureties, and in the amount as the commissioner prescribes to pay the appraised amount at the time the commissioner determines to be appropriate in the circumstances. If the owner does not pay the amount or furnish the bond in accordance with this section, the commissioner shall as soon as practicable make public sale of the property in accordance with section 17.

Sec. 19. [270.703] [REDEMPTION OF PROPERTY.]

Subdivision 1. [BEFORE SALE.] Any person whose property has been levied upon shall have the right to pay the amount due, together with the expenses of the proceeding, if any, to the commissioner at any time prior to the sale thereof, and upon payment the commissioner shall restore the property to him, and all further proceedings in connection with the levy on the property shall cease from the time of payment.

Subd. 2. [REDEMPTION OF REAL ESTATE AFTER SALE.] The owners of any real property sold as provided in this section, their heirs, executors, or administrators, or any person having any interest therein, or a lien thereon, or any person in their behalf, shall be permitted to redeem the property sold, or any particular tract of the property, at any time within 6 months, or in case the real property sold exceeds 10 acres in size, at any time within 12 months, after the sale thereof. The property or tract of property shall be permitted to be redeemed upon payment to the purchaser (or in case he cannot be found in the county in which the property to be redeemed is situated, then to the commissioner, for the use of the purchaser, his heirs, or assigns) of the amount paid by the purchaser together with interest at the rate specified in section 549.09 from the date of the sale.

Subd. 3. [RECORD.] When any lands sold are redeemed as provided in this section, the commissioner shall cause entry of the fact to be made upon the record required by section 22 and the entry shall be evidence of the redemp-

Sec. 20. [270.704] [CERTIFICATE OF SALE.]

In the case of property sold as provided in section 17, the commissioner shall give to the purchaser a certificate of sale upon payment in full of the purchase price. In the case of real property the certificate shall set forth the real property purchased, for whose taxes the property was sold, the name of the purchaser, and the price paid. If real property is declared purchased by the state of Minnesota, the commissioner shall within ten days from the sale cause the certificate of sale to be duly recorded by the county recorder of the county in which the real property is located.

Sec. 21. [270.705] [EFFECT OF CERTIFICATE OF SALE.]

Subdivision 1. [PERSONAL PROPERTY.] (a) In all cases of sale pursuant to section 17 of personal property, the certificate of sale given pursuant to section 20 shall be prima facie evidence of the right of the commissioner to make the sale, and conclusive evidence of the regularity of his proceedings in making the sale. The certificate shall transfer to the purchaser all right, title, and interest of the party delinquent in and to the property sold.

(b) If the property consists of stocks, the certificate of sale shall be notice, when received, to any corporation, company, or association of the transfer, and shall be authority to the corporation, company, or association to record the transfer on its books and records in the same manner as if the stocks were transferred or assigned by the party holding the same, in lieu of any original or prior certificate, which shall be void, whether cancelled or not.

(c) If the subject of sale is securities or other evidences of debt, the certificate of sale shall be a good and valid receipt to the person holding the same, as against any person holding or claiming to hold possession of the securities or other evidences of debt.

(d) If the property consists of a motor vehicle, the certificate of sale shall be notice, when received, to the registrar of motor vehicles of this state of the transfer, and shall be authority to the registrar to record the transfer on his books and records in the same manner as if the certificate of title to the motor vehicle were transferred or assigned by the party holding the same, in lieu of any original or prior certificate, which shall be void, whether cancelled or not.

Subd. 2. [REAL PROPERTY.] In the case of the sale of real property pursuant to section 17, the certificate of sale given pursuant to section 20 shall be prima facie evidence of the facts therein stated, and shall be considered and operate as a conveyance of all the right, title, and interest the party delinquent had in and to the real property thus sold at the time the lien of the state of Minnesota attached thereto.

Subd. 3. [JUNIOR ENCUMBRANCES.] A certificate of sale of personal property or real property given pursuant to section 20 shall discharge the property from all liens, encumbrances, and titles over which the lien of the state of Minnesota with respect to which the levy was made had priority.

Sec. 22. [270.706] [RECORDS OF SALE.]

The commissioner shall, for the department of revenue, keep a record of all sales of property under section 17 and of redemptions of real property. The record shall set forth the tax for which the sale was made, the dates of seizure and sale, the name of the party assessed and all proceedings in making the sale, the amount of expenses, the names of the purchasers, and the date of the certificate of sale. A copy of the record, or any part thereof, certified by the commissioner shall be evidence in any court of the truth of the facts therein stated.

Sec. 23. [270.707] [EXPENSE OF LEVY AND SALE.]

The commissioner shall determine the expenses to be allowed in all cases of levy and sale.

Sec. 24. [270.708] [APPLICATION OF PROCEEDS OF LEVY.]

Subdivision 1. [COLLECTION OF LIABILITY.] Any money realized by proceedings under this chapter, whether by seizure, by surrender under section 270.70 (except pursuant to subdivision 9 thereof), by sale of seized property, or by sale of property redeemed by the state of Minnesota (if the interest of the state of Minnesota in the property was a lien arising under the provisions of section 8), shall be applied as follows:

(a) First, against the expenses of the proceedings; then

(b) If the property seized and sold is subject to a tax administered by the commissioner of revenue which has not been paid, the amount remaining after applying clause (a) shall next be applied against the tax liability (and, if the tax was not previously asssed, it shall then be assessed); and

(c) The amount, if any, remaining after applying clauses (a) and (b) shall be applied against the tax liability in respect of which the levy was made or the sale was conducted.

Subd. 2. [SURPLUS PROCEEDS.] Any surplus proceeds remaining after the application of subdivision 1 shall, upon application and satisfactory proof in support thereof, be credited or refunded by the commissioner to the person or persons legally entitled thereto.

Sec. 25. [270.709] [AUTHORITY TO RELEASE LEVY AND RETURN PROPERTY.]

Subdivision 1. [RELEASE OF LEVY.] It shall be lawful for the commissioner to release the levy upon all or part of the property or rights to property levied upon if the commissioner determines that the release will facilitate the collection of the liability, but the release shall not operate to prevent any subsequent levy.

Subd. 2. [RETURN OF PROPERTY.] If the commissioner determines that property has been wrongfully levied upon, it shall be lawful for the commissioner to return:

(a) The specific property levied upon, at any time;

(b) An amount of money equal to the amount of money levied upon, at any time before the expiration of nine months from the date of the levy; or

(c) An amount of money equal to the amount of money received by the state of Minnesota from a sale of the property, at any time before the expiration of nine months from the date of the sale.

For purposes of clause (c), if property is declared purchased by the state of Minnesota at a sale pursuant to section 17, subdivision 5 (relating to manner and conditions of sale), the state of Minnesota shall be treated as having received an amount of money equal to the minimum price determined pursuant to section 17, subdivision 5 or, if larger, the amount received by the state of Minnesota from the resale of the property.

Sec. 26. [270.71] [ACQUISITION AND RESALE OF SEIZED PROPERTY.]

For the purpose of enabling the commissioner of revenue to purchase or redeem seized property in which the state of Minnesota has an interest arising from a lien for unpaid taxes, there is appropriated to the commissioner an amount representing the cost of such purchases or redemptions. Seized property acquired by the state of Minnesota to satisfy unpaid taxes shall be resold by the commissioner. The commissioner shall preserve the value of seized property while it is under his control, including but not limited to the procurement of insurance. For the purpose of refunding the proceeds from the sale of levied or redeemed property which are in excess of the actual tax liability plus costs of acquiring the property, there is hereby created a levied and redeemed property refund account in the agency fund. All amounts deposited into this account are appropriated to the commissioner of revenue. The commissioner shall report quarterly on the status of this program to the chairmen of the house taxes and appropriations committees and senate taxes and tax laws and finance committees.

Sec. 27. Minnesota Statutes 1981 Supplement, Section 270.75, as amended by Laws 1981, Third Special Session Chapter 2, Article III, Section 1, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 6. Notwithstanding section 549.09, if judgment is entered upon any tax payable to the commissioner of revenue which has not been paid within the time specified by law for payment, the unpaid judgment shall bear interest at the rate specified in this section from the date judgment is entered until the date of payment.

Sec. 28. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 290.45, Subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [EXTENSIONS.] ~~(A)~~ At the request of the taxpayer, and for good cause shown, the commissioner may extend the time for payment of the amount determined as the tax by the taxpayer, or any installment thereof, or any amount determined as a deficiency, for a period not to exceed six months from the date prescribed for the payment of the tax or an installment thereof. In such case the amount in respect of which the extension is granted shall be paid together with interest at the rate specified in section 270.75 on or before the date of the expiration of the period of the extension.

~~(B) When any portion of the tax as reported by the taxpayer together with interest and penalty thereon, if any, has not been paid six months from the date prescribed by law for the payment thereof the commissioner may extend the time for payment thereof for a further period not to exceed 30 months. When the authority of this paragraph (B) is invoked, the extension shall be evidenced by written agreement signed by the taxpayer and the commissioner, stating the amount of such tax with penalty and interest, if any, and providing for the payment of such amount in regular weekly, semi-monthly or monthly install-~~

~~ments, which agreement shall contain a confession of judgment for such amount and for any unpaid portion thereof and providing that the commissioner may forthwith enter judgment against the taxpayer in the district court of the county of his residence as shown upon his tax return for the unpaid portion of the amount specified in said extension agreement. The principal sum specified in said agreement shall bear interest at the rate specified in section 270.75 on all unpaid portions thereof until the same has been fully paid or the unpaid portion thereof has been entered as a judgment, which judgment shall bear interest at the rate specified in section 270.75. If it shall appear to the satisfaction of the commissioner that the tax reported by the taxpayer is in excess of the amount actually owing by the taxpayer, the extension agreement or the judgment entered pursuant thereto shall be so corrected. If after making such extension agreement or entering judgment with respect thereto, the commissioner shall determine that the tax as reported by the taxpayer is less than the amount actually due, the commissioner shall assess such further tax in accordance with the provisions of this chapter. The authority granted to the commissioner by this paragraph (B) is in addition to any other authority granted to the commissioner by law to extend the time of payment or the time for filing a return and shall not be construed in limitation thereof.~~

Sec. 29. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 290.48, Subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [COLLECTION JEOPARDIZED BY DELAY.] The commissioner may ~~also~~ proceed under the provisions of ~~subdivision 2~~ section 270.70 when he has reasonable grounds for believing that the collection of any taxes, interest, or penalties due under this chapter will be jeopardized by delays incident to other methods of collection; and, in such cases, no preliminary notice and demand shall be required.

Sec. 30. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 290.48, Subdivision 4, is amended to read:

Subd. 4. [~~TAXPAYER ABOUT TO REMOVE FROM STATE~~ ASSESSMENT JEOPARDIZED BY DELAY.] If the commissioner has reasonable grounds for believing that a taxpayer is about to remove himself or his property from this state with the purpose of evading the tax imposed by this chapter, or that the collection of the tax will be jeopardized by delays incident to other methods of collection, he may immediately declare the taxpayer's taxable year at an end and assess a tax on the basis of his own knowledge or information available to him, mail the taxpayer written notice of the amount thereof, at his last known address, demand its immediate payment; and, if payment is not immediately made, collect the tax by ~~the~~ any method prescribed in ~~subdivision 2~~ chapter 270, except that it need not await the expiration of the periods of time therein specified.

Sec. 31. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 290.48, Subdivision 6, is amended to read:

Subd. 6. [APPEALS.] Either party to an action or a judgment for the recovery of any taxes, interest, or penalties under ~~subdivision 1 or~~ subdivision 5 may remove the judgment to the supreme court by appeal, as provided for appeals in civil cases.

Sec. 32. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 290.48, Subdivision 8, is amended to read:

Subd. 8. [TAX PRESUMED VALID.] The tax, as assessed by the commissioner, with any penalties included therein, shall be presumed to be valid and correctly determined and assessed, and the burden shall be upon the taxpayer to show its incorrectness or invalidity. ~~The~~ Any statement filed by the commissioner with the clerk of court, ~~as provided herein,~~ or any other certificate by the commissioner of the amount of the tax and penalties as determined or assessed by him, shall be admissible in evidence and shall establish prima facie the facts set forth therein.

Sec. 33. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 290.53, Subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [FAILURE TO MAKE AND FILE RETURN~~, NOT DUE TO WILFUL NEGLECT~~.] In case of any failure to make and file a return as required by this chapter within the time prescribed by law or prescribed by the commissioner in pursuance of law, ~~unless it is shown that such failure is not due to wilful neglect,~~ there shall be added to the tax in lieu of the penalty provided in subdivision 1: ten percent if the failure is for not more than 30 days with an additional five percent for each additional 30 days or fraction thereof during which such failure continues, not exceeding 25 percent in the aggregate. The amount so added to any tax shall be collected at the same time and in the same manner and as a part of the tax, and the amount of said tax together with the amount so added shall bear interest at the rate specified in section 270.75 from the time such tax should have been paid until paid unless the tax has been paid before the discovery of the neglect, in which case the amount so added shall be collected in the same manner as the tax.

For the purposes of this subdivision the amount of any taxes required to be shown on the return shall be reduced by the amount of any part of the tax which is paid on or before the date prescribed for payment of the tax and by the amount of any credit against the tax which may be claimed upon the return.

Sec. 34. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 290.53, Subdivision 5, is amended to read:

Subd. 5. [ALLOCATION OF PAYMENTS.] All payments received may, in the discretion of the commissioner of revenue, be credited first to the oldest liability not secured by a judgment or lien, but in all cases shall be credited first to penalties, next to interest, and then to the tax due.

Sec. 35. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 290.54, is amended to read:

290.54 [TAX A PERSONAL DEBT.]

The tax imposed by this chapter, and interest and penalties imposed with respect thereto, shall become a personal debt of the taxpayer from the time the liability therefor arises, irrespective of when the time for discharging such liability by payment occurs. The debt shall, in the case of the personal representative of the estate of a decedent and in the case of any fiduciary, be that of such person in his official or fiduciary capacity only unless he shall have voluntarily distributed the assets held in such capacity without reserving sufficient assets to pay such tax, interest, and penalties, in which event he shall be personally liable for any deficiency. This provision shall apply only to cases in which this state is legally competent to impose such personal liability.

~~The tax imposed by this chapter, and interest and penalties imposed with respect thereto, shall become a lien upon all of the property, both real and personal, of the taxpayer within this state, except his homestead, from and after the filing by the commissioner of a notice of such lien in the office of the county recorder of the county in which such property is situated, or in the case of personal property belonging to an individual who is not a resident of this state, or which is a corporation, partnership, or other organization, in the office of the secretary of state.~~

~~The lien created under this section shall become effective with respect to personal property from and after the date of filing by the commissioner of a notice of such lien describing the property to which the lien attaches in the office of the county recorder of the county in which the commissioner believes the property is located at the time such lien is filed, and with the secretary of state.~~

~~The lien imposed on personal property by this section, even though properly filed, shall not be valid as against a purchaser with respect to tangible personal property purchased at retail or as against the personal property listed as exempt in sections 550.37, 550.38, and 550.39.~~

Sec. 36. Minnesota Statutes 1981 Supplement, Section 290.92, Subdivision 6, is amended to read:

Subd. 6. [RETURNS, DEPOSITS.] (1) (a) [RETURNS.] Every employer who is required to deduct and withhold tax under subdivision 2a or 3 shall file a return with the commissioner for each quarterly period, on or before the last day of the month following the close of each quarterly period, unless otherwise prescribed by the commissioner. Any tax required to be deducted and withheld during the quarterly period shall be paid with the return unless an earlier time for payment is provided herein. However, any such return may be filed on or before the tenth day of the second calendar month following such period if such return shows timely deposits in full payment of such taxes due for such period. For the purpose of the preceding sentence, a deposit which is not required to be made within such return period, may be made on or before the last day of the first calendar month following the close of such period. Every employer, in preparing said quarterly return, shall take credit for monthly deposits previously made in accordance with this subdivision.

The return shall be in the form and contain the information prescribed by the commissioner. The commissioner may grant a reasonable extension of time for filing the return and paying the tax, but no extension shall be granted for more than six months.

(b) [ADVANCE DEPOSITS REQUIRED IN CERTAIN CASES.] (i) Unless clause (ii) is applicable, if during any calendar month, other than the last month of the calendar quarter, the aggregate amount of the tax withheld during that quarter under subdivision 2a or 3 exceeds $200, or beginning January 1, 1982, $500, the employer shall deposit the aggregate amount with the commissioner within 15 days after the close of the calendar month. (ii) If at the close of any eighth-monthly period the aggregate amount of undeposited taxes is $3,000 or more, the employer shall deposit the undeposited taxes with the commissioner within three banking days after the close of the eighth-monthly period. For purposes of this subparagraph, the term "eighth-monthly period" means the first three days of a calendar month, the fourth day through the seventh day of a calendar month, the eighth day through the 11th day of a calendar month, the 12th day through the 15th day of a calendar month, the 16th day through the 19th day of a calendar month, the 20th day through the 22nd day of a calendar month, the 23rd day through the 25th day of a calendar month, or the portion of a calendar month following the 25th day of such month.

(c) [OTHER METHODS.] The commissioner shall have the power by rule to prescribe other return periods or deposit requirements. In prescribing the reporting period, the commissioner may classify employers according to the amount of their tax liability and may adopt an appropriate reporting period for each class which he deems to be consistent with efficient tax collection. In no event shall the duration of the reporting period be more than one year, provided that for employers with annual withholding tax liabilities of less than $1,200 the reporting period shall be no more frequent than quarterly.

(2) If less than the correct amount of such tax is paid to the commissioner, proper adjustments, with respect to both the tax and the amount to be deducted, shall be made, without interest, in such manner and at such times as the commissioner may prescribe. If such underpayment cannot be so adjusted the amount of the underpayment shall be assessed and collected in such manner and at such times as the commissioner may prescribe.

(3) If any employer fails to make and file any return required by paragraph (1) at the time prescribed therefor, or makes and files a false or fraudulent return, the commissioner shall make for him a return from his own knowledge and from such information as he can obtain through testimony, or otherwise, and assess a tax on the basis thereof. The amount of tax shown thereon shall be paid to the commissioner at such times as the commissioner may prescribe. Any such return or assessment so made by the commissioner shall be prima facie correct and valid, and the employer shall have the burden of establishing its incorrectness or invalidity in any action or proceeding in respect thereto.

(4) If the commissioner, in any case, has reason to believe that the collection of the tax provided for in paragraph (1) of this subdivision, and any added penalties and interest, if any, will be jeopardized by delay, he may immediately assess such tax, whether or not the time otherwise prescribed by law for making and filing the return and paying such tax has expired.

(5) Any assessment under this subdivision shall be made by recording the liability of the employer in the office of the commissioner in accordance with regulations prescribed by the commissioner. Upon request of the employer, the commissioner shall furnish the employer a copy of the record of assessment.

(6) Any assessment of tax under this subdivision shall be made within three and one-half years after the due date of the return required by paragraph (1), or the date the return was filed, whichever is later; except that in the case of a false or fraudulent return or failure to file a return, the tax may be assessed at any time.

(7) (a) Except as provided in (b) of this paragraph, every employer who fails to pay to or deposit with the commissioner any sum or sums required by this section to be deducted, withheld and paid, shall be personally and individually liable to the state of Minnesota for such sum or sums (and any added penalties and interest); and any sum or sums deducted and withheld in accordance with the provisions of subdivision 2a or subdivision 3 shall be held to be a special fund in trust for the state of Minnesota.

(b) If the employer, in violation of the provision of this section, fails to deduct and withhold the tax under this section, and thereafter the taxes against which such tax may be credited are paid, the tax so required to be deducted and withheld shall not be collected from the employer; but this shall in no case relieve the employer from liability for any penalties and interest otherwise applicable in respect of such failure to deduct and withhold.

(8) Upon the failure of any employer to pay to or deposit with the commissioner within the time provided by paragraphs (1), (2) or (3) of this subdivision any tax required to be withheld in accordance with the provisions of subdivision 2a or subdivision 3, or if the commissioner has assessed a tax pursuant to paragraph (4), such tax shall become immediately due and payable, and the commissioner may deliver to the attorney general a certified statement of the tax, penalties and interest due from such employer. The statement shall also give the address of the employer owing such tax, the period for which the tax is due, the date of the delinquency, and such other information as may be required by the attorney general. It shall be the duty of the attorney general to institute legal action in the name of the state to recover the amount of such tax, penalties, interest and costs. The commissioner's certified statement to the attorney general shall for all purposes and in all courts be prima facie evidence of the facts therein stated and that the amount shown therein is due from the employer named in the statement. In event action is instituted as herein provided, the court shall, upon application of the attorney general, appoint a receiver of the property and business of the delinquent employer for the purpose of impounding the same as security for any judgment which has been or may be recovered. Any such action shall be brought within four years and three months after the due date of the return or deposit required by paragraph (1), or the date the return was filed, or deposit made whichever is later; except that in the case of failure to make and file such return or if such return is false or fraudulent, or such deposit is not made such action may be brought at any time.

(9) ~~The tax required to be withheld under subdivision 2a or subdivision 3 or paid to, or deposited with the commissioner under this subdivision, together with penalties, interest and costs, shall become a lien upon all of the real property of the employer within this state, except his homestead, from and after the filing by the commissioner of a notice of such lien in the offices of the county recorder of the county in which such real property is situated.~~

~~(10)~~ Either party to an action for the recovery of any tax, interest or penalties under this subdivision may remove the judgment to the supreme court by appeal, as provided for appeals in civil cases.

~~(12) When any tax is due and payable as provided in paragraph (8) the commissioner may issue his warrant to the sheriff of any county of the state commanding him to levy upon and sell the real and personal property of the employer and to levy upon the rights to property of the employer within the county and to return such warrant to the commissioner and pay to him the money collected by virtue thereof by a time to be therein specified, not less than 60 days from the date of the warrant. The sheriff shall proceed thereunder~~

~~to levy upon and seize any property of the employer and to levy upon the rights to property of the employer within his county, except the homestead and household goods of the employer and property of the employer not liable to attachment, garnishment, or sale on any final process issued from any court under the provisions of section 550.37, and shall sell so much thereof as is required to satisfy such taxes, interest, and penalties, together with his costs; but such sales shall, as to their manner, be governed by the laws applicable to sales of like property on execution issued against property upon a judgment of a court of record. The proceeds of such sales, less the sheriff's costs, shall be turned over to the commissioner, who shall retain such part thereof as is required to satisfy the tax, interest, penalties and costs, and pay over any balance to the taxpayer. Any action taken by the commissioner pursuant to this subdivision shall not constitute an election by the state to pursue a remedy to the exclusion of any other remedy providing for the collection of taxes required to be withheld by employers.~~

Sec. 37. Minnesota Statutes 1981 Supplement, Section 290.92, Subdivision 15, is amended to read:

Subd. 15. [PENALTIES.] (1) If any tax required to be deducted and withheld under subdivision 2a or subdivision 3, or any portion thereof, is not paid to or deposited with the commissioner within the time specified in subdivision 6 for the payment thereof, there shall be added thereto a penalty equal to ten percent of the amount so remaining unpaid. Such penalty shall be collected as part of said tax, and the amount of said tax not timely paid, together with said penalty, shall bear interest at the rate specified in section 270.75 from the time such tax should have been paid or deposited until paid. Where an extension of time for payment has been granted under the provisions of subdivision 6, interest shall be paid at the rate specified in section 270.75 from the date when such payment or deposit should have been made if no extension had been granted, until such tax is paid. If payment is not made at the expiration of the extended period the penalties provided in this subdivision shall apply.

(2) In the case of any failure to withhold a tax on wages, make and file quarterly returns or make payments to or deposits with the commissioner of amounts withheld, as required by this section, within the time prescribed by law, ~~unless it is shown that such failure is not due to wilful neglect,~~ there shall be added to the tax in lieu of the penalty provided in paragraph (1) a penalty equal to ten percent of the amount of tax that should have been properly withheld and paid over to or deposited with the commissioner if the failure is for not more than 30 days with an additional five percent for each additional 30 days or fraction thereof during which such failure continues, not exceeding 25 percent in the aggregate. The amount of the tax together with this amount shall bear interest at the rate specified in section 270.75 from the time the tax should have been paid until paid. The amount so added to the tax shall be collected at the same time and in the same manner and as a part of the tax unless the tax has been paid before the discovery of the negligence, in which case the amount so added shall be collected in the same manner as the tax.

(3) If any employer required to withhold a tax on wages, make deposits, make and file quarterly returns and make payments to the commissioner of amounts withheld, as required by sections 290.92 to 290.97, wilfully fails to withhold such a tax or make such deposits, files a false or fraudulent return, wilfully fails to make such a payment or deposit, or wilfully attempts in any manner to evade or defeat any such tax or the payment or deposit thereof, there shall also be imposed on such employer as a penalty an amount equal to 50 percent of the amount of tax (less any amount paid or deposited by such employer on the basis of such false or fraudulent return or deposit) that should have been properly withheld and paid over or deposited with the commissioner. The amount of the tax together with this amount shall bear interest at the rate specified in section 270.75 from the time the tax should have been paid until paid. The penalty imposed by this paragraph shall be collected as a part of the tax, and shall be in addition to any other penalties civil and criminal, prescribed by this subdivision.

(4) If any person required under the provisions of subdivision 7 to furnish a statement to an employee or payee and a duplicate statement to the commissioner, or to furnish a reconciliation of such statements (and quarterly returns) to the commissioner, wilfully furnishes a false or fraudulent statement to an employee or payee or a false or fraudulent duplicate statement or reconciliation of statements (and quarterly returns) to the commissioner, or wilfully fails to furnish a statement or such reconciliation in the manner, at the time, and showing the information required by the provisions of subdivision 7, or regulations prescribed by the commissioner thereunder, there shall be imposed on such a person a penalty of $10 for each such act or failure to act. The penalty imposed by this paragraph shall become due and payable within ten days after the mailing of a written demand therefor, and may be collected in the manner prescribed in subdivision 6(8).

(5) In addition to the penalties hereinbefore prescribed, any person required to withhold a tax on wages, make and file quarterly returns and make payments or deposits to the commissioner of amounts withheld, as required by this section, who wilfully fails to withhold such a tax or truthfully make and file such a quarterly return or make such a payment or deposit, shall be guilty of a gross misdemeanor.

(6) In lieu of any other penalty provided by law, except the penalty provided by paragraph (4), any person required under the provisions of subdivision 7 to furnish a statement of wages to an employee and a duplicate statement to the commissioner, who wilfully furnishes a false or fraudulent statement of wages to an employee or a false or fraudulent duplicate statement of wages to the commissioner, or who wilfully fails to furnish such a statement in the manner, at the time, and showing the information required by the provisions of subdivision 7, or regulations prescribed by the commissioner thereunder, shall be guilty of a gross misdemeanor.

(7) Any employee required to supply information to his employer under the provisions of subdivision 5, who wilfully fails to supply information thereunder which would require an increase in the tax to be deducted and withheld under subdivision 2a or subdivision 3, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor.

(8) The term "person," as used in this section, includes an officer or employee of a corporation, or a member or employee of a partnership, who as such officer, employee, or member is under a duty to perform the act in respect of which the violation occurs.

(9) All payments received may, in the discretion of the commissioner of revenue, be credited first to the oldest liability not secured by a judgment or lien, but in all cases shall be credited first to penalties, next to interest, and then to the tax due.

(10) In addition to any other penalty provided by law, any employee who furnishes a withholding exemption certificate to his employer which the employee has reason to know contains a materially incorrect statement shall be liable to the commissioner of revenue for a penalty of $100 for each instance. The penalty shall be immediately due and payable and may be collected in the same manner as any delinquent income tax.

(11) In addition to any other penalty provided by law, any employer who fails to submit a copy of a withholding exemption certificate required by section 26, clause (1)(a), (1)(b), or (2) shall be liable to the commissioner of revenue for a penalty of $50 for each instance. The penalty shall be immediately due and payable and may be collected in the manner provided in subdivision 6(8).

Sec. 38. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 290.92, Subdivision 23, is amended to read:

Subd. 23. [WITHHOLDING BY EMPLOYER OF DELINQUENT TAXES.] (1) The commissioner may, within five years after the taxes should have been paid or the return is filed, whichever is later, give notice to any employer deriving income which has a taxable situs in this state regardless of whether the income is exempt from taxation, that an employee of that employer is delinquent in a certain amount with respect to any state taxes, including penalties, interest and costs. The commissioner can proceed under this subdivision only if the tax is uncontested or if the time for appeal of the tax has expired. The commissioner shall not proceed under this subdivision until the expiration of 30 days after mailing to the taxpayer, at his last known address, a written notice of (a) the amount of taxes, interest, and penalties due from the taxpayer and demand for their payment, and (b) the commissioner's intention to require additional withholding by the taxpayer's employer pursuant to this subdivision. The effect of the notice shall expire ~~90~~ 180 days after it has been mailed to the taxpayer provided that the notice may be renewed by mailing a new notice which is in accordance with this subdivision. The renewed notice shall have the effect of reinstating the priority of the original claim. The notice to the taxpayer shall be in substantially the same form as that provided in section 571.41. The notice shall further inform the taxpayer of the wage exemptions contained in section 550.37, subdivision 14. If no statement of exemption is received by the commissioner within 30 days from the mailing of the notice, he may proceed under this subdivision. The notice to the taxpayer's employer may be served by mail or by delivery by an employee of the department of revenue and shall be in substantially the same form as provided in section 571.495. Upon receipt of notice, the employer shall withhold from compensation due or to become due to the employee, the total amount shown by the notice, subject to the provisions of section 571.55. The employer shall continue to withhold each pay period until the total amount shown by the notice is paid in full. Upon receipt of notice by the employer, the claim of the state of Minnesota shall have priority over any subsequent garnishments or wage assignments. The commissioner may arrange between the employer and the employee for withholding a portion of the total amount due the employee each pay period, until the total amount shown by the notice plus accrued interest has been withheld.

The "compensation due" any employee is defined in accordance with the provisions of section 571.55. The maximum withholding allowed under this subdivision for any one pay period shall be decreased by any amounts payable pursuant to a garnishment action with respect to which the employer was served prior to being served with the notice of delinquency and any amounts covered by any irrevocable and previously effective assignment of wages; the employer shall give notice to the department of the amounts and the facts relating to such assignments within ten days after the service of the notice of delinquency on the form provided by the department of revenue as noted in this subdivision. In crediting amounts withheld against delinquent taxes of an employee, the department shall apply amounts withheld in the following order: penalties, interest, tax and costs.

(2) If the employee ceases to be employed by the employer before the full amount set forth in a notice of delinquency plus accrued interest has been withheld, the employer shall immediately notify the commissioner in writing of the termination date of the employee and the total amount withheld. No employer may discharge any employee by reason of the fact that the commissioner has proceeded under this subdivision. If an employer discharges an employee in violation of this provision, the employee shall have the same remedy as provided in section 571.61, subdivision 2.

(3) The employer shall, by the date prescribed in subdivision 6, remit to the commissioner, on a form and in the manner prescribed by the commissioner, the amount withheld during the calendar quarter under this subdivision. Should any employer, after notice, willfully fail to withhold in accordance with the notice and this subdivision, or willfully fail to remit any amount withheld as required by this subdivision, the employer shall be liable for the total amount set forth in the notice together with accrued interest which may be collected by any means provided by law relating to taxation. No amount required to be paid by an employer by reason of his failure to remit under this subdivision, may be deducted from the gross income of the employer, under sections 290.09, subdivision 4 or 290.01, subdivision 20. Any amount collected from the employer for failure to withhold or for failure to remit under this subdivision shall be credited to the employee's account in the following manner: penalties, interest, tax and costs.

(4) Clauses (1), (2) and (3), except provisions imposing a liability on the employer for failure to withhold or remit, shall apply to cases in which the employer is the United States or any instrumentality thereof or this state or any municipality or other subordinate unit thereof.

(5) The commissioner shall refund to the employee excess amounts withheld from him under this subdivision. If any excess results from payments by the employer because of willful failure to withhold or remit as prescribed in clause (3) above, the excess attributable to the employer's payment shall be refunded to the employer.

(6) Employers required to withhold delinquent taxes, penalties, interest and costs under this subdivision shall not be required to compute any additional interest, costs or other charges to be withheld.

(7) The collection remedy provided to the commissioner by this subdivision shall have the same legal effect as if it were a levy made pursuant to section 270.70.

Sec. 39. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 296.01, Subdivision 8, is amended to read:

Subd. 8. [PERSON.] "Person" means any individual, firm, trust, estate, partnership, association, cooperative association, joint stock company or corporation, public or private, or any representative appointed by order of any court*; or an officer or employee of a corporation, or a member or employee of a partnership, who as such officer, employee or member is under a duty to perform any act prescribed by this chapter*.

Sec. 40. Minnesota Statutes 1981 Supplement, Section 296.12, Subdivision 4, is amended to read:

Subd. 4. [MONTHLY REPORTS; SHRINKAGE ALLOWANCE.] On or before the 23rd day of each month, the persons subject to the provisions of this section shall file in the office of the commissioner at St. Paul, Minnesota, a report in the following manner:

(1) Distributors and special fuel dealers shall report the total number of gallons delivered to them during the preceding calendar month and shall pay the special fuel excise tax due thereon to the commissioner. Credit for the excise tax due or previously paid on special fuel used by the distributor or special fuel dealer for heating his place of business, or special fuel sold for any purpose other than use in licensed motor vehicles and evidenced by an invoice issued at time of sale, may be allowed in computing the tax liability. The invoice must show the true and correct name and address of the purchaser, and the purchaser's signature. The report shall contain such other information as the commissioner may require.

(2) Distributors and special fuel dealers who have elected to pay the special fuel excise tax on all special fuel delivered into the supply tank of an aircraft or licensed motor vehicle as provided in section 296.12, subdivision 3, shall report the total number of gallons delivered into the supply tank of an aircraft or licensed motor vehicle during the preceding calendar month and shall pay the special fuel excise tax due thereon to the commissioner.

(3) Bulk purchasers shall report and pay the special fuel excise tax on all special fuel purchased by them for storage, during the preceding calendar month. In such cases as the commissioner may permit, credit for the excise tax due or previously paid on special fuel not used in aircraft or licensed motor vehicles, may be allowed in computing tax liability. The report shall contain such other information as the commissioner may require.

(4) In computing the special fuel excise tax due under clauses (1), (2), and (3), a deduction of one percent of the quantity of special fuel on which tax is due shall be made for evaporation and loss.

(5) Each report shall contain a confession of judgment for the amount of the tax shown due thereon to the extent not timely paid.

Sec. 41. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 296.14, Subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [CONTENTS; PAYMENT OF TAX; SHRINKAGE ALLOWANCE.] On or before the twenty-third day of each month, every person who is required to pay gasoline tax or inspection fee on petroleum products and every distributor shall file in the office of the commissioner at St. Paul, Minnesota, a report in a manner approved by the commissioner showing the number of gallons of petroleum products received by him during the preceding calendar month, and such other information as the commissioner may require. The number of gallons of gasoline shall be reported in U.S. standard liquid gallons (231 cubic inches), except that the commissioner may upon written application therefor and for cause shown permit the distributor to report the number of gallons of such gasoline as corrected to a 60 degree Fahrenheit temperature. If such application is granted, all gasoline covered in such application and as allowed by the commissioner must continue to be reported by the distributor on the adjusted basis for a period of one year from the date of the granting of the application. The number of gallons of petroleum products other than gasoline shall be reported as originally invoiced.

Each report shall show separately the number of gallons of aviation gasoline received by him during such calendar month.

Each report shall be accompanied by remittance covering inspection fees on petroleum products and gasoline tax on gasoline received by him during the preceding month; provided that in computing such tax a deduction of three percent of the quantity of gasoline received by a distributor shall be made for evaporation and loss; provided further that at the time of remittance the distributor shall submit satisfactory evidence that one-third of such three percent deduction shall have been credited or paid to dealers on quantities sold to them. The report and remittance shall be deemed to have been filed as herein required if postmarked on or before the twenty-third day of the month in which payable.

Each report shall contain a confession of judgment for the amount of the tax shown due thereon to the extent not timely paid.

Sec. 42. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 296.17, Subdivision 11, is amended to read:

Subd. 11. [REPORTS.] Every motor carrier subject to the road tax shall, on or before the last day of April, July, October and January, file with the commissioner such reports of his operations during the previous three months as the commissioner may require and such other reports from time to time as the commissioner may deem necessary. The commissioner by regulation may exempt from the reporting requirements of this section those motor carriers all or substantially all of whose mileage is within this state, or states with which Minnesota has reciprocity and require in such instances an annual affidavit attesting to the intrastate or substantially intrastate character of their operations, provided that the enforcement of subdivisions 7 to 22 is not adversely affected thereby and that the commissioner is satisfied that an equitable amount of motor fuel is purchased within this state by such carriers.

Each report shall contain a confession of judgment for the amount of the tax shown due thereon to the extent not timely paid.

Sec. 43. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 297A.33, Subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. If the commissioner has reason to believe that the person required to file the return is about to remove himself or his property from this state with the purpose of evading the tax and penalties imposed by sections 297A.01 to 297A.44, or that the collection of such tax will be jeopardized by delays incident to other methods of collection, he may immediately declare such person's reporting period at an end and assess a tax on the basis of his own knowledge or information available to him, demand its immediate payment; and, if payment is not immediately made, collect the tax by any method prescribed in ~~this~~ chapter 270. It shall not be a defense to any assessment made under this section that the tax period has not terminated, or that the time otherwise allowed by law for filing a return has not expired, or that the notices otherwise required by law for making an assessment have not been given, or that the time otherwise allowed by law for taking or prosecuting an appeal or for paying the tax has not expired.

Sec. 44. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 297A.39, Subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. In case of any failure to make and file a return within the time prescribed by sections 297A.01 to 297A.44 or an extension thereof, ~~unless it is shown that such failure is not due to wilful neglect,~~ there shall be added to the tax in lieu of the ten percent specific penalty provided in subdivision 1 ten percent if the failure is for not more than 30 days with an additional five percent for each additional 30 days or fraction thereof during which such failure continues, not exceeding 25 percent in the aggregate. If the penalty as computed does not exceed $10, a minimum penalty of $10 shall be assessed. The amount so added to any tax shall be collected at the same time and in the same manner and as a part of the tax unless the tax has been paid before the discovery of the negligence, in which case the amount so added shall be collected in the same manner as the tax.

Sec. 45. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 297A.39, Subdivision 5, is amended to read:

Subd. 5. All payments received may, in the discretion of the commissioner of revenue, be credited first to the oldest liability not secured by a judgment or lien, but in all cases shall be credited first to penalties, next to interest, and then to the tax due.

Sec. 46. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 508.25, is amended to read:

508.25 [RIGHTS OF PERSON HOLDING CERTIFICATE OF TITLE.]

Every person receiving a certificate of title pursuant to a decree of registration and every subsequent purchaser of registered land who receives a certificate of title in good faith and for a valuable consideration shall hold the same free from all encumbrances and adverse claims, excepting only such estates, mortgages, liens, charges, and interests as may be noted in the last certificate of title in the office of the registrar, and also excepting any of the following rights or encumbrances subsisting against the same, if any:

(1) Liens, claims, or rights arising or existing under the laws or the constitution of the United States, which this state cannot require to appear of record;

(2) The lien of any tax or special assessment for which the land has not been sold at the date of the certificate of title;

(3) Any lease for a period not exceeding three years when there is actual occupation of the premises thereunder;

(4) All rights in public highways upon the land;

(5) Such right of appeal, or right to appear and contest the application, as is allowed by this chapter;

(6) The rights of any person in possession under deed or contract for deed from the owner of the certificate of title;

(7) Liens or judgments, notwithstanding section 508.63, arising under the laws of this state for the nonpayment of any tax administered by the commissioner of revenue.

Sec. 47. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 559.21, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 5. When required by and in the manner provided in section 8, subdivision 7, the notice required by this section shall be given to the commissioner of revenue.

Sec. 48. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 580.15, is amended to read:

580.15 [PERPETUATING EVIDENCE OF SALE.]

Any party desiring to perpetuate the evidence of any sale made in pursuance of this chapter may procure:

(1) An affidavit of the publication of the notice of sale and of any notice of postponement to be made by the printer of the newspaper in which the same was inserted or by some person in his employ knowing the facts;

(2) An affidavit or return of service of such notice upon the occupant of the mortgaged premises to be made by the officer or person making such service or, in case the premises were vacant or unoccupied at the time the service must be made, an affidavit or return showing that fact, to be made by the officer or person attempting to make such service;

(3) An affidavit by the person foreclosing the mortgage, or his attorney, or someone knowing the facts, setting forth the facts relating to the military service status of the owner of the mortgaged premises at the time of sale.

(4) An affidavit by the person foreclosing the mortgage, or his attorney, or someone having knowledge of the facts, setting forth the fact of service of notice of sale upon the secretary of the treasury of the United States or his delegate in accordance with the provisions of Section 7425 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 as amended by Section 109 of the Federal Tax Lien Act of 1966, and also setting forth the fact of service of notice of sale upon the commissioner of revenue of the state of Minnesota in accordance with the provisions of section 8, subdivision 7. Any such affidavit recorded prior to May 16, 1967 shall be effective as prima facie evidence of the facts therein contained as though recorded subsequent to May 16, 1967.

Such affidavits and returns shall be recorded by the county recorder and they and the records thereof, and certified copies of such records, shall be prima facie evidence of the facts therein contained.

The affidavit provided for in clause (3) hereof may be made and filed for record for the purpose of complying with the provisions of the Soldiers' and Sailors' Civil Relief Act of 1940, passed by the Congress of the United States and approved on October 17, 1940, and may be made and filed for record at any time subsequent to the date of the mortgage foreclosure sale.

Sec. 49. [REPEALER.]

Minnesota Statutes 1980, Sections 290.48, Subdivisions 1 and 9; 290.51; 297A.33, Subdivision 6; 297A.36; 297A.39, Subdivision 6; 297A.40, Subdivision 2; and Minnesota Statutes 1981 Supplement, Section 290.48, Subdivision 2, are repealed.

Sec. 50. [EFFECTIVE DATE.]

This article is effective July 1, 1982, but shall not apply to any tax the collection of which is barred by a statute of limitations on July 1, 1982.

ARTICLE III

Section 1. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 474.06, is amended to read:

474.06 [MANNER OF ISSUANCE OF BONDS; INTEREST RATE.]

Bonds authorized under this chapter shall be issued in accordance with the provisions of chapter 475 relating to bonds payable from income of revenue producing conveniences, except that public sale shall not be required, and the bonds may mature at any time or times in such amount or amounts within 30 years from date of issue and may be sold at a price equal to such percentage of the par value thereof, plus accrued interest, and bearing interest at such rate or rates, ~~not exceeding nine percent per year,~~ as may be agreed by the contracting party, the purchaser, and the municipality or redevelopment agency, notwithstanding any limitation of interest rate or cost or of the amounts of annual maturities contained in any other law. When bonds authorized under this chapter are issued, they shall state whether they are issued for a project defined in section 474.02, subdivisions 1, 1a, 1b, or 1c. The rate of interest payable on bonds issued pursuant to this section after December 31, 1985, shall not exceed nine percent per year.

Sec. 2. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 475.55, is amended to read:

475.55 [EXECUTION; NEGOTIABILITY; INTEREST RATES.]

Subdivision 1. [INTEREST; FORM.] All obligations shall be signed by officers authorized by resolution of the governing body or by persons authorized to sign on behalf of a bank designated by the resolution as authenticating agent, and shall express the amount and the terms of payment. Interest on obligations authorized by resolution before ~~December 31, 1982~~ January 1, 1986 shall not exceed ~~the rate of 12 percent per annum, payable half yearly. Interest on obligations authorized thereafter shall not exceed the rate of nine percent per annum,~~ the greater of (a) the rate determined pursuant to subdivision 4 for the month in which the resolution authorizing the obligations was adopted, or (b) the rate determined pursuant to subdivision 4 for the month in which the bonds are sold, or (c) the rate of ten percent per annum, payable half yearly. Interest on obligations issued after December 31, 1985, shall not exceed nine percent per year. All obligations shall be negotiable investment securities as provided in the uniform commercial code, chapter 336, article 8. The validity of an obligation shall not be impaired by the fact that one or more officers authorized to execute it shall have ceased to be in office before delivery to the purchaser or shall not have been in office on the formal issue date of the obligation. Every obligation shall be signed manually by one officer or authenticating agent. Other signatures and the seal of the issuer may be printed, lithographed, stamped or engraved thereon and on any interest coupons to be attached thereto. The seal need not be used.

Subd. 2. [SUPERSESSION.] The provisions of ~~subdivision 1~~ this section shall supersede any ~~lower maximum~~ interest rate fixed by any other law or a city charter with respect to obligations of the state or any municipality or governmental or public subdivision, district, corporation, commission, board, council, or authority of whatsoever kind, including warrants or orders issued in evidence of allowed claims for property or services furnished to the issuer, but shall not limit the interest on any obligation issued pursuant to a law or charter authorizing the issuer to determine the rate or rates of interest.

Subd. 3. [SPECIAL ASSESSMENTS.] Notwithstanding any contrary provisions of law or charter, special assessments pledged to the payment of obligations may bear interest at the rate the governing body by resolution determines, not exceeding the greater of (a) the maximum interest rate per annum which the obligations may bear under the provisions of ~~subdivisions 1 and 2 plus one percent~~ this section for the month in which the resolution authorizing the special assessment was adopted or (b) the maximum interest rate permitted to be charged against the assessments under the law or city charter pursuant to which the assessments were levied.

Subd. 4. [RATE DETERMINATION.] On or before the 20th day of each month prior to December, 1985, the commissioner of finance shall determine the most recently published yield for the Bond Buyer's Index of 20 Municipals. This rate plus one percent and rounded to the next highest percent per annum shall be the rate for the next succeeding month. The commissioner of finance shall publish the maximum rate in the state register each month.

Subd. 5. [INTEREST.] Obligations which are payable wholly or partly from the proceeds of special assessments or which are not secured by general obligations of the municipality may bear interest at a rate one percent greater than the maximum interest rate permitted pursuant to subdivision 1.

Sec. 3. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 475.60, Subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [REQUIREMENTS WAIVED.] The requirements as to public sale shall not apply to:

(1) Obligations issued under the provisions of a home rule charter or of a law specifically authorizing a different method of sale, or authorizing them to be issued in such manner or on such terms and conditions as the governing body may determine;

(2) Obligations sold by an issuer in an amount not exceeding the total sum of ~~$200,000~~ $300,000 in any three month period;

(3) Obligations issued by a governing body other than a school board in anticipation of the collection of taxes or other revenues appropriated for expenditure in a single year, if sold in accordance with the most favorable of two or more proposals solicited privately; and

(4) Obligations sold to any board, department, or agency of the United States of America or of the state of Minnesota, in accordance with rules or regulations promulgated by such board, department, or agency.

Sec. 4. [EFFECTIVE DATE.]

Sections 1 to 3 are effective the day after final enactment, provided that for obligations authorized by resolution prior to the first month for which a rate is determined pursuant to section 2, subdivision 4, the maximum rate shall be 12 percent per annum.

ARTICLE IV

Section 1. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 290.50, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 6. [WITHHOLDING OF REFUNDS FROM CHILD SUPPORT DEBTORS.] Upon a finding by a court of this state that a person obligated to pay child support is delinquent in making payments, the amount of child support unpaid and owing shall be withheld from a refund due the person under this section. The public agency responsible for child support enforcement or the parent or guardian of a child for whom the support is owed may petition the district or county court for an order providing for the withholding of the amount of child support unpaid and owing as determined by court order. The person from whom the refund may be withheld shall be notified of the petition pursuant to the rules of civil procedure prior to the issuance of an order pursuant to this subdivision. The order may be granted on a showing to the court that required support payments have not been made when they were due.

On order of the court, the support money shall be withheld by the commissioner from the refund due to the person obligated to pay the support and the amount withheld shall be remitted to the public agency responsible for child support enforcement or to the parent or guardian petitioning on behalf of the child, provided that any delinquent tax obligations of the taxpayer owed to the revenue department shall be satisfied first. Any amount received by the responsible public agency or the petitioning parent or guardian in excess of the amount of public assistance expended for the benefit of the child to be supported, or the amount of any support that had been the subject of the claim pursuant to this subdivision which has been paid by the taxpayer prior to the diversion of the refund, shall be remitted to the person entitled to the money. If the refund is based on a joint or combined return, the portion of the refund that shall be remitted to the petitioner shall be the proportion of the total refund that equals the proportion of the total federal adjusted gross income of the spouses that is the federal adjusted gross income of the spouse who is delinquent in making the child support payments. A petition filed pursuant to this subdivision shall be in effect with respect to any refunds due under this section during a period of one year from the date when the petition was filed. If a petition is filed pursuant to this subdivision and a claim is made pursuant to chapter 270A with respect to the same individual's refund and notices of both are received prior to the time when payment of the refund is made on either claim, the commissioner shall transmit the claims to the court that issued the order under this subdivision. The court shall order that the claim relating to the liability that accrued first in time shall be paid first; any amount of the refund remaining shall then be applied to the other claim. The provisions of section 290.61 shall not prohibit the exchange of information among the department, the petitioner, and the court to the extent necessary to accomplish the intent of this subdivision. Not later than five days after the court has notified the department of its withholding order, the department shall send a written notification of the order to the person to whom the refund would otherwise be paid.

Sec. 2. [EFFECTIVE DATE.]

This article is effective the day following final enactment and shall terminate June 30, 1984.

ARTICLE V

Section 1. Minnesota Statutes 1981 Supplement, Section 10A.31, Subdivision 5, is amended to read:

Subd. 5. In each calendar year the moneys in each party account and the general account shall be allocated to candidates as follows:

(1) 21 percent for the offices of governor and lieutenant governor together;

(2) 3.6 percent for the office of attorney general;

(3) 1.8 percent each for the offices of secretary of state, state auditor and state treasurer;

(4) In each calendar year during the period in which state senators serve a four year term, 23-1/3 percent for the office of state senator and 46-2/3 percent for the office of state representative;

(5) In each calendar year during the period in which state senators serve a two year term, 35 percent each for the offices of state senator and state representative;

(6) To assure that moneys will be returned to the counties from which they were collected, and to assure that the distribution of those moneys rationally relates to the support for particular parties or for particular candidates within legislative districts, moneys from the party accounts for legislative candidates shall be distributed as follows:

Each candidate for the state senate and state house of representatives whose name is to appear on the ballot in the general election shall receive moneys from his party account set aside for candidates of the state senate or state house of representatives, whichever applies, according to the following formula;

For each county within his district the candidate's share of the dollars allocated in that county to his party account and set aside for that office shall be:

(a) The sum of the votes cast in the last general election in that part of the county in his district for all candidates of his party (i) whose names appeared on the ballot in each voting precinct of the state and (ii) for the state senate and state house of representatives, divided by

(b) The sum of the votes cast in that county in the last general election for all candidates of his party (i) whose names appeared on the ballot in each voting precinct in the state and (ii) for the state senate and state house of representatives, multiplied by

(c) The amount in his party account allocated in that county and set aside for the candidates for the office for which he is a candidate.

The sum of all the county shares calculated in the formula above is the candidate's share of his party account.

In a year in which an election for the state senate occurs, with respect to votes for candidates for the state senate only, "last general election" means the last general election in which an election for the state senate occurred.

For any party under whose name no candidate's name appeared on the ballot in each voting precinct in the state in the last general election, "last general election" means the last general election in which the name of a candidate of that party appeared on the ballot in each voting precinct in the state.

In a year in which the first election after a legislative reapportionment is held, "his district" means the newly drawn district, and voting data from the last general election will be applied to the area encompassing the newly drawn district notwithstanding that the area was in a different district in the last general election.

If in a district there was no candidate of a party for the state senate or state house of representatives in the last general election, or if a candidate for the state senate or state house of representatives was unopposed, the vote for that office for that party shall be the average vote of all the remaining candidates of that party in each county of that district whose votes are included in the sums in clauses (a) and (b). The average vote shall be added to the sums in clauses (a) and (b) before the calculation is made for all districts in the county.

Money from a party account not distributed to candidates for state senator and representative in any election year shall be returned to the general fund of the state. Money from a party account not distributed to candidates for other offices in an election year shall be returned to the party account for reallocation to candidates as provided in clauses (1) to (6) of this subdivision in the following year. Moneys from the general account refused by any candidate shall be distributed to all other qualifying candidates in proportion to their shares as provided in this subdivision.

Sec. 2. Minnesota Statutes 1981 Supplement, Section 290.09, Subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [TRADE OR BUSINESS EXPENSES; EXPENSES FOR PRODUCTION OF INCOME.] (a) In General. There shall be allowed as a deduction all the ordinary and necessary expenses paid or incurred during the taxable year in carrying on any trade or business, including

(1) A reasonable allowance for salaries or other compensation for personal services actually rendered;

(2) Traveling expenses (including amounts expended for meals and lodging other than amounts which are lavish or extravagant under the circumstances) while away from home in the pursuit of a trade or business; and

(3) Rentals or other payments required to be made as a condition to the continued use or possession, for purposes of the trade or business, of property to which the taxpayer has not taken or is not taking title or in which he has no equity. For purposes of the preceding sentence, the place of residence of a member of congress within the state shall be considered his home, but amounts expended by such members within each taxable year for living expenses shall not be deductible for income tax purposes in excess of $3,000.

(b) Expenses for Production of Income. In the case of an individual, there shall be allowed as a deduction all the ordinary and necessary expenses paid or incurred during the taxable year.

(1) For the production or collection of income;

(2) For the management, conservation, or maintenance of property held for the production of income; or

(3) In connection with the determination, collection, or refund of any tax.

(c) Actual campaign expenditures in an amount not to exceed ~~the limits set out in section 210A.22~~ one-third of the salary of the office sought, for the year the election is held, by the candidate, but no less than $100, not ~~subsequently~~ reimbursed, which have been personally paid by a candidate for public office ~~if the candidate has complied with the expenditure limitations set out in section 210A.22, even though the candidate's expenditures are limited under other state or federal laws~~;

(d) No deduction shall be allowed under this subdivision for any contribution or gift which would be allowable as a deduction under section 290.21 were it not for the percentage limitations set forth in such section;

(e) All expense money paid by the legislature to legislators;

(f) The provisions of section 280A (disallowing certain expenses in connection with the business use of the home and rental of vacation homes) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, as amended through December 31, 1979, shall be applicable in determining the availability of any deduction under this subdivision.

(g) Entertainment, amusement, or recreation expenses shall be allowed under this subdivision only to the extent that they qualify as a deduction under section 274 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, as amended through December 31, 1979.

Sec. 3. [REPEALER.]

Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 210A.22, is repealed.

ARTICLE VI

Section 1. Minnesota Statutes 1981 Supplement, Section 273.13, Subdivision 9, is amended to read:

Subd. 9. [CLASS 4A, 4B ~~AND~~, 4C, AND 4D.] (1) All property not included in the preceding classes shall constitute class 4a and shall be valued and assessed at 43 percent of the market value thereof~~;~~, except ~~that~~ as otherwise provided in this subdivision.

(2) Real property which is not improved with a structure and which is not utilized as part of a commercial or industrial activity shall constitute class 4b and shall be valued and assessed at 40 percent of market value~~; and except that~~.

(3) Commercial and industrial property, except as provided in this subdivision, shall constitute class 4c and shall be valued and assessed at 40 percent of the first $50,000 of market value and 43 percent ~~on~~ of the remainder, provided that in the case of state-assessed commercial or industrial property owned by one person or entity, only one parcel shall qualify for the 40 percent assessment~~.~~, and in the case of other commercial or industrial property~~, other than state-assessed properties,~~ owned by one person or entity, only one parcel in each county shall qualify for the 40 percent assessment.

(4) Industrial employment property defined in section 2, during the period provided in section 2, shall constitute class 4d and shall be valued and assessed at 20 percent of the first $50,000 of market value and 21.5 percent of the remainder.

Sec. 2. [273.1312] [DESIGNATION OF ENTERPRISE ZONES.]

Subdivision 1. [DEFINITIONS.] For purposes of this section:

(1) "Commissioner" means the commissioner of energy, planning and development.

(2) "Enterprise zone" means an area in the state designated as such by the commissioner upon proper application by the governing body of the area in which it is located.

(3) "Governing body" means the county board of a county except with respect to an area in a city, whose governing body is the city council or other body designated by its charter, or an area constituting part or all of an Indian reservation, whose governing body is that tribal or federal agency recognized as such by the United States secretary of the interior.

(4) "HUD" means the United States secretary of housing and urban development or his delegate or successor.

(5) "Indian reservation" means an area determined to be such by the United States secretary of the interior.

(6) "SMSA" means a standard metropolitan statistical area as defined in section 103A(1)(4)(B) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, as amended through December 31, 1981.

Subd. 2. [DESIGNATION.] The commissioner shall designate an area as an enterprise zone if (i) an application is made in the form and manner and containing the information prescribed by the commissioner's rules; (ii) the application is made or approved by the governing body of the area; and (iii) the area is determined by the commissioner to be eligible for designation under subdivision 4.

Subd. 3. [DURATION.] The designation of an area as an enterprise zone shall be effective from the date of designation to 12 years thereafter.

Subd. 4. [ELIGIBILITY REQUIREMENTTS.] An area is eligible for designation if:

(1) Its boundary is continuous and includes, if feasible, proximately located vacant or underutilized lands or buildings conveniently accessible to residents of the area.

(2) Its population as determined under the most recent federal decennial census is at least (i) 4,000 if any of the area is located within an SMSA with a population of 50,000 or more, or (ii) 2,500 in any other case unless the area is an Indian reservation, for which no minimum population is required.

(3) (a) The proposed zone is located within an economic hardship area, as established by meeting three or more of the following criteria:

(1) the percentage of total residential housing units within the zone which was constructed prior to 1950 is 70 percent or greater;

(2) the percentage of households within the zone that fall below the poverty level, as determined by the United States census bureau, is 20 percent or greater;

(3) the total number of persons residing within the zone has declined by ten percent or more over the ten years preceding application;

(4) for the last full year for which data is available, the percentage of the work force of the jurisdiction of the governing body of the area in which the zone is located engaged in manufacturing is less than the percentage of the work force of the state engaged in manufacturing;

(5) the jurisdiction of the governing body of the area in which the zone is located has recently experienced a significant employment reduction at a federal military installation within the SMSA in which it is located; or

(b) The area is so designated under federal legislation providing for federal tax benefits to employers or employees in enterprise zones similar to the state tax benefits set forth in this act; and

(4) The governing body of the area seeking to be designated as an enterprise zone, by resolution, agrees to follow a course of action, during the period for which the designation is effective, designed to promote economic development in the area. The program may be implemented by governmental action, by private entities, or both, and may include but is not limited to:

(a) Reduction or abatement of real property taxes of industrial land and facilities according to section 3;

(b) Issuance of revenue bonds or use of federal funds available to finance loans for private industrial and housing facilities;

(c) Issuance of bonds and use of taxes, tax increments, and available federal funds to finance public facilities in the area;

(d) Increase in the level or efficiency of governmental services;

(e) Commitments from public or private entities in the area to provide jobs, job training, and technical, financial, or other assistance to employees and residents of the area.

Subd. 5. [LIMITATION.] No area shall be designated as an enterprise zone after December 31, 1996.

Sec. 3. [273.1313] [TAX CLASSIFICATION OF INDUSTRIAL EMPLOYMENT PROPERTY.]

Subdivision 1. [DEFINITIONS.] (1) Terms used in this section have the meanings given them in this subdivision.

(2) "Commissioner" means the commissioner of revenue.

(3) "Industrial employment property" means taxable property, excluding land but including buildings, structures, fixtures, and improvements that satisfy each of the following conditions:

(a) The property is located within an enterprise zone designated according to section 2.

(b) The primary purpose and prospective use of the property is (i) the manufacture or processing of goods or materials by physical or chemical change, or (ii) the provision of office, engineering, research and development, warehousing, parts distribution, or other facilities that are related to a manufacturing or processing operation conducted by the user.

(c) The user will own the property or occupy it under a lease requiring the user to pay property taxes on it as if the user were the owner.

(d) The property is classified as industrial employment property by the procedure and subject to the conditions provided in this section, before it is first placed in use.

(4) ''Market value'', as applied to industrial employment property on any particular parcel of land, means the value of all taxable property situated there except the land, as annually determined pursuant to section 273.12, less (i) the market value of all property existing at the time of application for classification, as last assessed prior to the time of application, and (ii) any increase in the market value of the property referred to in clause (i) as assessed in each year after the industrial employment property is first placed in service. In each year, any change in the values of the industrial employment property and the other property on the land shall be deemed to be proportionate unless caused by a capital improvement or loss.

(5) ''Municipality'' means any home rule charter or statutory city or county, but a county may not exercise the powers granted in this section with reference to property situated within a city.

Subd. 2. [PROGRAM.] (1) The governing body of any municipality which contains a designated enterprise zone as provided by section 2 may by resolution establish a program for classification of new industrial property or improvements to existing property as industrial employment property pursuant to the provisions of this section, if it finds that the program is needed to facilitate and encourage the renewal or addition of industrial facilities to provide or preserve employment opportunities for its citizens. Applications for classification under the program shall be filed with the municipal clerk or auditor in a form prescribed by the commissioner, with additions as may be prescribed by the municipal governing body. The application shall contain a legal description of the parcel of land on which the facility is to be situated or improved; a general description of the facility or improvement and its proposed use, the equipment proposed to be used in connection with it (including equipment exempt from taxation under existing law), the probable time schedule for undertaking the construction or improvement, and information regarding the matters referred to in paragraph (4); the market value and the assessed value of the land and of all other taxable property then situated on it, according to the most recent assessment; and an estimate of the probable cost of the new construction or improvement and the market value of the new or improved facility (excluding land) when completed.

(2) Upon receipt of an application the municipal clerk or auditor, subject to any prior approval required by the resolution establishing the program, shall furnish a copy to the assessor for the property and to the governing body of each school district and other public body authorized to levy taxes on the property, and shall publish a notice in the official newspaper of the time and place of a hearing to be held by the governing body on the application, not less than 30 days after the notice is published, stating that the applicant, the assessor, representatives of the affected taxing authorities, and any taxpayer of the municipality may be heard or may present their views in writing at or before the hearing. The hearing may be adjourned from time to time, but the governing body shall take action on the application by resolution within 30 days after the hearing. If disapproved, the reasons shall be set forth in the resolution, and the applicant may appeal to the commissioner within 30 days thereafter, but only on the ground that the determination is arbitrary, in relation to prior determinations as to classification under the program, or based upon a mistake of law. If approved, the resolution shall include determinations as to the matters set forth in paragraph (4), and the clerk or auditor shall transmit it to the commissioner.

(3) Within 60 days after receipt of an approved application or an appeal from the disapproval of an application, the commissioner shall take action on it. The commissioner shall approve each application approved by the governing body if he finds that it complies with the provisions of this section. If he disapproves the application, or finds grounds exist for appeal of a disapproved application, he shall transmit the finding to the governing body and the applicant. When grounds for appeal have been determined to exist, the governing body shall reconsider and take further action on the application within 30 days after receipt of the commissioner's notice and serve written notice of the action upon the applicant. The applicant, within 30 days after receipt of notice of final disapproval by the commissioner or the governing body, may appeal from the disapproval to a court of competent jurisdiction.

(4) An application shall not be approved unless the governing body finds and determines that the construction or improvement of the facility:

(a) Is reasonably likely to create new employment or prevent a loss of employment in the municipality;

(b) Is not likely to have the effect of transferring existing employment from one or more other municipalities within the state;

(c) Is not likely to cause the total market value of industrial employment property within the municipality to exceed five percent of the total market value of all taxable property within the municipality; or if it will, the resulting limitation upon the increase of the assessed value of all taxable property within the municipality, considering the amount of additional municipal services likely to be required for the industrial employment property, is not likely to substantially impede the operation or the financial integrity of the municipality or any other public body levying taxes on property in the municipality; and

(d) Will not result in the reduction of the assessed value of existing property within the municipality owned by the applicant, through abandonment, demolition, or otherwise, without provision for the restoration of the existing property within a reasonable time in a manner sufficient to restore the assessed valuation.

Subd. 3. [CLASSIFICATION.] Property shall be classified as industrial employment property and assessed as provided for class 4d property in section 273.13, subdivision 9, clause (4), for taxes levied in the year in which the classification is approved and in each year thereafter to and including the 12th year after the industrial employment property is completed. If the classification is revoked, the revocation is effective for taxes levied in the next year after revocation.

Subd. 4. [REVOCATION.] The governing body of the municipality may request the commissioner to approve the revocation of a classification pursuant to this section if it finds and determines by resolution, after hearing upon notice mailed to the applicant by certified mail at least 60 days before the hearing, that:

(a) The construction or improvement of the facility has not been completed within two years after the approval of the classification, or any longer period that may have been allowed in the approving resolution or may be necessary due to circumstances not reasonably within the control of the applicant; or

(b) The applicant has not proceeded in good faith with the construction or improvement of the facility, or with its operation, in a manner which is consistent with the purpose of this section and is possible under circumstances reasonably within the control of the applicant.

Subd. 5. [HEARING.] Upon receipt of the request, the commissioner shall notify the applicant and the governing body by certified mail of a time and place, not less than 30 days after receipt, at which the applicant may be heard and the commissioner will determine whether the facts and circumstances are grounds for revocation as recommended by the governing body. If the commissioner revokes the classification, the applicant may appeal from the commissioner's order to a court of competent jurisdiction at any time within 30 days after revocation.

Sec. 4. [EFFECTIVE DATE.]

This article is effective July 1, 1983.

ARTICLE VII

Section 1. Minnesota Statutes 1981 Supplement, Section 290.01, Subdivision 20, as amended by Laws 1981, Third Special Session Chapter 2, Article III, Section 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 20. [GROSS INCOME.] Except as otherwise provided in this chapter, the term ''gross income,'' as applied to corporations includes every kind of compensation for labor or personal services of every kind from any private or public employment, office, position or services; income derived from the ownership or use of property; gains or profits derived from every kind of disposition of, or every kind of dealing in, property; income derived from the transaction of any trade or business; and income derived from any source; except that gross income shall not include ''exempt function income'' of a ''homeowners association'' as those terms are defined in Section 528 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, as amended through December 31, 1980.

The term ''gross income'' in its application to individuals, estates, and trusts shall mean the adjusted gross income as defined in the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, as amended through the date specified herein for the applicable taxable year, with the modifications specified in this subdivision. For estates and trusts the adjusted gross income shall be their federal taxable income as defined in the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, as amended through the date specified herein for the applicable taxable year, with the modifications specified in this subdivision and with the modification that the federal deduction for personal exemptions for trusts and estates shall not be allowed.

(i) The Internal Revenue Code of 1954, as amended through December 31, 1974, shall be in effect for the taxable years beginning after December 31, 1974.

(ii) The Internal Revenue Code of 1954, as amended through December 31, 1976, including the amendments made to section 280A (relating to licensed day care centers) in H.R. 3477 as it passed the Congress on May 16, 1977, shall be in effect for the taxable years beginning after December 31, 1976. The provisions of the Tax Reform Act of 1976, P.L. 94-455, which affect adjusted gross income shall become effective for purposes of this chapter at the same time they become effective for federal income tax purposes. Section 207 (relating to extension of period for nonrecognition of gain on sale or exchange of residence) and section 402 (relating to time for making contributions to pension plans of self employed people) of P.L. 94-12 shall be effective for taxable years beginning after December 31, 1974.

The provisions of section 4 of P.L. 95-458, sections 131, 133, 134, 141, 152, 156, 157, 405, and 543 of P.L. 95-600, and section 2 of P.L. 96-608 (relating to pensions, individual retirement accounts, deferred compensation plans, the sale of a residence and to conservation payments to farmers) including the amendments made to these sections in P.L. 96-222 shall be effective at the same time that these provisions became effective for federal income tax purposes.

(iii) The Internal Revenue Code of 1954, as amended through December 31, 1979, shall be in effect for taxable years beginning after December 31, 1979.

(iv) The Internal Revenue Code of 1954, as amended through December 31, 1980, and as amended by sections 302(b) and 501 to 509 of Public Law Number 97-34, shall be in effect for taxable years beginning after December 31, 1980 including the provisions of section 404 (relating to partial exclusions of dividends and interest received by individuals) of the Crude Oil Windfall Profit Tax Act of 1980, P.L. 96-223. The provisions of P.L. 96-471 (relating to installment sales) and sections 501 to 507, of the Economic Recovery Tax Act of 1981, Public Law Number 97-34 shall be effective at the same time that they become effective for federal income tax purposes.

References to the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 in clauses (a), (b) and (c) following shall mean the code in effect for the purpose of defining gross income for the applicable taxable year.

(a) Modifications increasing federal adjusted gross income. There shall be added to federal adjusted gross income:

(1) Interest income on obligations of any state other than Minnesota or a political subdivision of any other state exempt from federal income taxes under the Internal Revenue Code of 1954;

(2) A business casualty loss if the taxpayer elected to deduct the loss on the current year's federal income tax return but had deducted the loss on the previous year's Minnesota income tax return;

(3) Income taxes imposed by this state or any other taxing jurisdiction, to the extent deductible in determining federal adjusted gross income and not credited against federal income tax;

(4) Interest on indebtedness incurred or continued to purchase or carry securities the income from which is exempt from tax under this chapter, to the extent deductible in determining federal adjusted gross income;

(5) Amounts received as reimbursement for an expense of sickness or injury which was deducted in a prior taxable year to the extent that the deduction for the reimbursed expenditure resulted in a tax benefit;

(6) The amount of any federal income tax overpayment for any previous taxable year, received as refund or credited to another taxable year's income tax liability, proportionate to the percentage of federal income tax that was claimed as a deduction in determining Minnesota income tax for the previous taxable year. The amount of the federal income tax overpayment shall be reported only to the extent that the amount resulted in a reduction of the tax imposed by this chapter.

The overpayment refund or credit, determined with respect to a husband and wife on a joint federal income tax return for a previous taxable year, shall be reported on joint, combined, or separate Minnesota income tax returns. In the case of combined or separate Minnesota returns, the overpayment shall be reported by each spouse proportionately according to the relative amounts of federal income tax claimed as a deduction on his or her combined or separate Minnesota income tax return for such previous taxable year;

(7) In the case of a change of residence from Minnesota to another state or nation, the amount of moving expenses which exceed total reimbursements and which were therefore deducted in arriving at federal adjusted gross income;

(8) The amount of any increase in the taxpayer's federal tax liability under section 47 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 to the extent of the credit under section 38 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 that was previously allowed as a deduction either under section 290.01, subdivision 20 (b)(7);

(9) Expenses and losses arising from a farm which are not allowable under section 290.09, subdivision 29;

(10) Expenses and depreciation attributable to substandard buildings disallowed by section 290.101;

(11) The amount by which the gain determined pursuant to section 41.59, subdivision 2 exceeds the amount of such gain included in federal adjusted gross income;

(12) To the extent deducted in computing the taxpayer's federal adjusted gross income for the taxable year, losses recognized upon a transfer of property to the spouse or former spouse of the taxpayer in exchange for the release of the spouse's marital rights;

(13) Interest income from qualified scholarship funding bonds as defined in section 103(e) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, if the nonprofit corporation is domiciled outside of Minnesota;

(14) Exempt-interest dividends, as defined in section 852(b)(5)(A) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, not included in federal adjusted gross income pursuant to section 852(b)(5)(B) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, except for that portion of exempt-interest dividends derived from interest income on obligations of the state of Minnesota, any of its political or governmental subdivisions, any of its municipalities, or any of its governmental agencies or instrumentalities;

(15) The amount of any excluded gain recognized by a trust on the sale or exchange of property as defined in section 641(c)(1) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954;

(16) For taxable years beginning after December 31, 1980 but before January 1, 1983, in the case of recovery property within the meaning of section 168 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 as amended through December 31, 1981, the amount allowed under section 167 of the Internal Revenue Code;

(17) To the extent not included in the taxpayer's federal adjusted gross income, the amount of any gain, from the sale or other disposition of property having a lower adjusted basis for Minnesota income tax purposes than for federal income tax purposes. This modification shall not exceed the difference in basis. If the gain is considered a long term capital gain for federal income tax purposes, the modification shall be limited to 40 percent of the portion of the gain. This modification is limited to property that qualified for the energy credit contained in section 290.06, subdivision 14, and to property acquired in exchange for the release of the taxpayer's marital rights contained in section 290.14, clause (9);

(18) The amount of any loss from a source outside of Minnesota which is not allowed under section 290.17 including any capital loss or net operating loss carryforwards or carrybacks resulting from the loss;

(19) The amount of a distribution from an individual housing account which is to be included in gross income as required under section 290.08, subdivision 25;

(20) To the extent deducted in computing the taxpayer's federal adjusted gross income, interest, taxes and other expenses which are not allowed under section 290.10, clause (9) or (10);

(21) To the extent excluded from federal adjusted gross income, in the case of a city manager or city administrator who elects to be excluded from the public employees retirement association and who makes contributions to a deferred compensation program pursuant to section 353.028, the amount of contributions made by the city manager or administrator which is equal to the amount which would have been the city manager's or administrator's employee contribution pursuant to section 353.27, subdivision 2, if he were a member of the public employees retirement association; ~~and~~

(22) For taxable years beginning after December 31, 1980 but before January 1, 1983, in the case of section 179 property within the meaning of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, the amount allowed as a deduction under section 179 of the Internal Revenue Code*; and*

(23) Expenses and depreciation attributable to property subject to section 3 which has not been registered.

(b) Modifications reducing federal adjusted gross income. There shall be subtracted from federal adjusted gross income:

(1) Interest income on obligations of any authority, commission or instrumentality of the United States to the extent includible in gross income for federal income tax purposes but exempt from state income tax under the laws of the United States;

(2) The portion of any gain, from the sale or other disposition of property having a higher adjusted basis for Minnesota income tax purposes than for federal income tax purposes, that does not exceed such difference in basis; but if such gain is considered a long-term capital gain for federal income tax purposes, the modification shall be limited to 60 per centum of the portion of the gain. This modification shall not be applicable if the difference in basis is due to disallowance of depreciation pursuant to section 290.101.

(3) Interest or dividend income on securities to the extent exempt from income tax under the laws of this state authorizing the issuance of the securities but includible in gross income for federal income tax purposes;

(4) Losses, not otherwise reducing federal adjusted gross income assignable to Minnesota, arising from events or transactions which are assignable to Minnesota under the provisions of sections 290.17 to 290.20, including any capital loss or net operating loss carryforwards or carrybacks or out of state loss carryforwards resulting from the losses, and including any farm loss carryforwards or carrybacks;

(5) If included in federal adjusted gross income, the amount of any credit received, whether received as a refund or credit to another taxable year's income tax liability, pursuant to chapter 290A, and the amount of any overpayment of income tax to Minnesota, or any other state, for any previous taxable year, whether the amount is received as a refund or credited to another taxable year's income tax liability;

(6) To the extent included in federal adjusted gross income, or the amount reflected as the ordinary income portion of a lump sum distribution under section 402(e) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, notwithstanding any other law to the contrary, the amount received by any person (i) from the United States, its agencies or instrumentalities, the Federal Reserve Bank or from the state of Minnesota or any of its political or governmental subdivisions or from any other state or its political or governmental subdivisions, or a Minnesota volunteer firefighter's relief association, by way of payment as a pension, public employee retirement benefit, or any combination thereof, or (ii) as a retirement or survivor's benefit made from a plan qualifying under section 401, 403, 404, 405, 408, 409 or 409A of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954. The maximum amount of this subtraction shall be $11,000 less the amount by which the individual's federal adjusted gross income, plus the ordinary income portion of a lump sum distribution as defined in section 402(e) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, exceeds $17,000. In the case of a volunteer firefighter who receives an involuntary lump sum distribution of his pension or retirement benefits, the maximum amount of this subtraction shall be $11,000; this subtraction shall not be reduced by the amount of the individual's federal adjusted gross income in excess of $17,000;

(7) The amount of any credit to the taxpayer's federal tax liability under section 38 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 but only to the extent that the credit is connected with or allocable against the production or receipt of income included in the measure of the tax imposed by this chapter;

(8) To the extent included in the taxpayer's federal adjusted gross income for the taxable year, gain recognized upon a transfer of property to the spouse or former spouse of the taxpayer in exchange for the release of the spouse's marital rights;

(9) The amount of any distribution from a qualified pension or profit sharing plan included in federal adjusted gross income in the year of receipt to the extent of any contribution not previously allowed as a deduction by reason of a change in federal law which was not adopted by Minnesota law for a taxable year beginning in 1974 or later;

(10) Interest, including payment adjustment to the extent that it is applied to interest, earned by the seller of the property on a family farm security loan executed before January 1, 1986 that is guaranteed by the commissioner of agriculture as provided in sections 41.51 to 41.60;

(11) The first $3,000 of compensation for personal services in the armed forces of the United States or the United Nations, and the next $2,000 of compensation for personal services in the armed forces of the United States or the United Nations wholly performed outside the state of Minnesota. This modification does not apply to compensation defined in clause (b)(6);

(12) The amount of any income earned for personal services rendered outside of Minnesota prior to the date when the taxpayer became a resident of Minnesota. This modification does not apply to compensation defined in clause (b)(6);

(13) In the case of wages or salaries paid or incurred on or after January 1, 1977, the amount of any credit for employment of certain new employees under sections 44B and 51 to 53 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 which is claimed as a credit against the taxpayer's federal tax liability, but only to the extent that the credit is connected with or allocable against the production or receipt of income included in the measure of the tax imposed by this chapter;

(14) In the case of work incentive program expenses paid or incurred on or after January 1, 1979, the amount of any credit for expenses of work incentive programs under sections 40, 50A and 50B of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 which is claimed as a credit against the taxpayer's federal tax liability, but only to the extent that the credit is connected with or allocable against the production or receipt of income included in the measure of the tax imposed by this chapter;

(15) Unemployment compensation to the extent includible in gross income for federal income tax purposes under section 85 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954;

(16) To the extent included in federal adjusted gross income, severance pay that may be treated as a lump sum distribution under the provisions of section 290.032, subdivision 5;

(17) The amount of any income or gain which is not assignable to Minnesota under the provisions of section 290.17;

(18) Minnesota exempt-interest dividends as provided by subdivision 27;

(19) A business casualty loss which the taxpayer elected to deduct on the current year's Minnesota income tax return but did not deduct on the current year's federal income tax return; and

(20) Income from the performance of personal or professional services which is subject to the reciprocity exclusion contained in section 290.081, clause (a);

(21) To the extent included in federal adjusted gross income, in the case of a city manager or city administrator who elects to be excluded from the public employees retirement association and who makes contributions to a deferred compensation program pursuant to section 353.028, the amount of payments from the deferred compensation program equivalent to the amount of contributions taxed under clause (a)(21);

(22) Contributions to and interest earned on an individual housing account as provided by section 290.08, subdivision 25;

(23) Interest earned on a contract for deed entered into for the purchase of property for agricultural use if the rate of interest set in the contract is no more than eight percent per year for the duration of the term of the contract. This exclusion shall be available only if (1) the purchaser is an individual who, together with his spouse and dependents, has a total net worth valued at less than $150,000 and (2) the property purchased under the contract is farm land as defined in section 41.52, subdivision 6 of no more than 1,000 acres that the purchaser intends to use for agricultural purposes. Compliance with these requirements shall be stated in an affidavit to be filed with the first income tax return on which the taxpayer claims the exclusion provided in this clause. Upon request accompanied by the information necessary to make the determination, the commissioner shall determine whether interest to be paid on a proposed transaction will qualify for this exclusion; the determination shall be provided within 30 days of receipt of the request, unless the commissioner finds it necessary to obtain additional information, or verification of the information provided, in which case the determination shall be provided within 30 days of receipt of the final item of information or verification. The exclusion provided in this clause shall apply to interest earned on contracts for deed entered into after December 31, 1981 and before July 1, 1983;

(24) For the taxable year beginning after December 31, 1980, but before January 1, 1982, an amount equal to 85 percent of the deduction allowed under section 168 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 as amended through December 31, 1981. For the taxable year beginning after December 31, 1981 but before January 1, 1983, 83 percent of the deduction allowed under section 168 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 as amended through December 31, 1981. The depreciation adjustments made to basis in the case of recovery property within the meaning of section 168 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 as amended through December 31, 1981 shall be the depreciation adjustments made for federal income tax purposes under the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, as amended through December 31, 1981. Adoption of this provision shall not be construed as indicating the intent of the legislature to enact provisions authorizing amortization of the amount of depreciation not excludable under this clause; and

(25) For taxable years beginning after December 31, 1980 but before January 1, 1983, an amount equal to the deduction allowed under section 179 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 as amended through December 31, 1981.

(c) A modification affecting shareholders of electing small business corporations under section 1372 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 shall be made.

In cases where the election under section 1372 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 antedates the election under this chapter and at the close of the taxable year immediately preceding the effective election under this chapter the corporation has a reserve of undistributed taxable income previously taxed to shareholders under the provisions of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, in the event and to the extent that the reserve is distributed to shareholders the distribution shall be taxed as a dividend for purposes of this chapter.

(d) Amounts transferred from a reserve or other account, if in effect transfers to surplus, shall, to the extent that the amounts were accumulated through deductions from gross income or entered into the computation of taxable net income during any taxable year, be treated as gross income for the year in which the transfer occurs, but only to the extent that the amounts resulted in a reduction of the tax imposed by this chapter and amounts received as refunds on account of taxes deducted from gross income during any taxable year shall be treated as gross income for the year in which actually received, but only to the extent that such amounts resulted in a reduction of the tax imposed by this chapter.

(e) Modification in computing taxable income of the estate of a decedent. Amounts allowable under section 291.07, subdivision 1, clause (2) in computing Minnesota inheritance or estate tax liability shall not be allowed as a deduction (or as an offset against the sales price of property in determining gain or loss) in computing the taxable income of the estate or any person unless there is filed within the time and in the manner and form prescribed by the commissioner a statement that the amounts have not been allowed as a deduction under section 291.07 and a waiver of the right to have the amounts allowed at any time as deductions under section 291.07. The provisions of this paragraph shall not apply with respect to deductions allowed under section 290.077 (relating to income in respect of decedents). In the event that the election made for federal tax purposes under section 642(g) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 differs from the election made under this paragraph appropriate modification of the estate's federal taxable income shall be made to implement the election made under this paragraph in accordance with regulations prescribed by the commissioner.

Sec. 2. Minnesota Statutes 1981 Supplement, Section 290.09, Subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [LIMITATIONS.] (a) The following deductions from gross income shall be allowed in computing net income, provided that any item which was deducted in arriving at gross income under the provisions of section 290.01, subdivision 20, shall not be again deducted under this section.

(b) Property taxes may not be deducted under this section if

(1) The taxes are attributable to a trade or business carried on by an individual, or

(2) The taxes are expenses for the production of income which are paid or incurred by an individual; and which are not allowed as a deduction under section 164 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, as amended through December 31, 1980.

(c) Interest and depreciation attributable to rental residential property may not be deducted under this section if the property does not comply with the requirements of section 3.

Sec. 3. [CITY OF MINNEAPOLIS; REGISTRATION OF RESIDENTIAL RENTAL PROPERTY.]

Subdivision 1. [MUNICIPAL ORDINANCE; DEDUCTIONS DISAL-

LOWED.] The governing body of the city of Minneapolis may by ordinance require the registration of all rental property used in whole or in part for residential housing and all transfers of that property. If a registration ordinance is adopted, a taxpayer who receives rental income from residential housing property located in Minneapolis may not deduct interest and depreciation pursuant to section 290.01, subdivision 20, or 290.09, on that property until a copy of the certificate provided for in subdivision 3 is filed annually with the taxpayer's Minnesota income tax return. In the case of a partnership, a copy of the certificate shall be filed with the partnership's return. No deduction shall be allowed for any period during which the property is not registered as required by the ordinance. In the event the period of non-compliance does not cover an entire taxable year, the deductions shall be denied at the rate of one-twelfth for each full month the property is not in compliance. The amount of the deduction denied shall not exceed the lesser of $200 for each unregistered rental residential unit or $2,000 for each building for any taxable year; provided that in no event shall the amount of the deduction denied be less than one-twelfth of the sum of the deductions for interest and depreciation with respect to the property. The city must provide the department of revenue with a copy of the ordinance within ten days of the effective date of the ordinance. Deductions shall not be disallowed until the department has received a copy of the ordinance. The department shall include in its instructions to taxpayers a notice of the restriction established in this section. If the deduction has been disallowed because of a negligent failure to file a copy of the certificate by a taxpayer who had filed a copy for a prior year, the taxpayer may file an amended return with a copy of the certificate and the deduction shall be allowed and the tax liability adjusted accordingly. Notice to taxpayers of the requirement for registration of rental housing property shall be included in the property tax statement for property located in a municipality which has enacted an ordinance under this section.

Subd. 2. [REQUIREMENTS FOR ORDINANCE.] An ordinance adopted under subdivision 1 shall require identifying information judged necessary by the city and the department of revenue to administer the ordinance.

The ordinance shall provide that all property must be registered within 60 days of the effective date of the ordinance, except that property transferred or sold within or subsequent to that period, whether the sale is by warranty deed, quit-claim deed, contract for deed or any other method of sale must be registered within 20 days after transfer. Registrations are not assignable. A certificate issued pursuant to subdivision 3 is valid for an owner until the owner's interest in the property changes. The city may provide that violation of the ordinance is a misdemeanor. The city may charge a fee to cover the costs of administering its ordinance.

Subd. 3. [CERTIFICATE.] The city shall provide a certificate of registration to the owner at the time of registration. The certificate shall include at least the following information: (a) name, address, and social security number, or Minnesota tax identification number, of the owner registering the property; (b) the owner's interest in the property; (c) the street address of the property; (d) the date of registration; and (e) the date of the most recent purchase or transfer of the property.

Sec. 4. [APPLICABILITY.]

On its effective date, section 3 applies to the city of Minneapolis.

Sec. 5. [EFFECTIVE DATE.]

This article is effective for taxable years beginning after December 31, 1982.

ARTICLE VIII

Section 1. Minnesota Statutes 1981 Supplement, Section 290A.03, Subdivision 8, is amended to read:

Subd. 8. [CLAIMANT.] "Claimant" means a person, other than a dependent, who filed a claim authorized by sections 290A.01 to 290A.20 and who was domiciled in this state during the calendar year for which the claim for relief was filed. In the case of a claim relating to rent constituting property taxes, the claimant shall have resided in a rented or leased unit on which ad valorem taxes or payments made in lieu of ad valorem taxes, including payments of special assessments imposed in lieu of ad valorem taxes, are payable at some time during the calendar year covered by the claim~~, except that a claimant who is disabled or who has attained the age of 65 on the date specified in section 290A.04, subdivision 1, may file a claim based on residence in a nursing home on which ad valorem taxes were not payable~~. "Claimant" shall not include a resident of a nursing home, intermediate care facility, or long term residential facility whose rent constituting property taxes is paid pursuant to the supplemental security income program under Title XVI of the social security act, the Minnesota supplemental aid program under sections 256D.35 to 256D.41, the medical assistance program pursuant to Title XIX of the social security act, or the general assistance medical care program pursuant to section 256D.03, Subdivision 3. If only a portion of the rent constituting property taxes is paid by these programs, the resident shall be a claimant for purposes of this chapter, but the refund calculated pursuant to section 290A.04 shall be multiplied by a fraction, the numerator of which is income as defined in subdivision 3 reduced by the total amount of income from the above sources other than vendor payments under the medical assistance program or the general assistance medical care program and the denominator of which is income as defined in subdivision 3 plus vendor payments under the medical assistance program or the general assistance medical care program, to determine the allowable refund pursuant to this chapter. In the case of a claim for rent constituting property taxes of a part year resident, the income and rental reflected in this computation shall be for the period of Minnesota residency only. Any rental expenses paid which may be reflected in arriving at federal adjusted gross income cannot be utilized for this computation. When two individuals of a household are able to meet the qualifications for a claimant, they may determine among them as to who the claimant shall be. If they are unable to agree, the matter shall be referred to the commissioner of revenue and his decision shall be final. If a homestead property owner was a part year resident, the income reflected in the computation made pursuant to section 290A.04 shall be for the entire calendar year, including income not assignable to Minnesota.

If a homestead is occupied by two or more renters, who are not husband and wife, the rent shall be deemed to be paid equally by each, and separate claims shall be filed by each. The income of each shall be his household income for purposes of computing the amount of credit to be allowed.

Sec. 2. [EFFECTIVE DATE.]

Section 1 is effective for claims based on rent paid in 1982 and thereafter.

ARTICLE IX

Section 1. Laws 1981, Third Special Session Chapter 2, Article III, Section 6, is amended to read:

Sec. 6. [290.068] [CREDIT FOR RESEARCH AND EXPERIMENTAL EXPENDITURES.]

Subdivision 1. [CREDIT ALLOWED.] In addition to the deduction provided in section 290.09, a credit shall be allowed against the tax imposed by this chapter for the taxable year equal to ~~ten percent of research and experimental expenditures paid or incurred in Minnesota during the taxable year.~~

(a) 12.5 percent of the first $2 million of the excess (if any) of

(1) the qualified research expenses for the taxable year, over

(2) the base period research expenses; and

(b) 6.25 percent on all of such excess expenses over $2 million.

Subd. 2. [~~DEFINITION~~ DEFINITIONS.] For purposes of this section, the following terms have the meanings given.

(a) "Qualified research ~~and experimental expenditures~~ expenses" means ~~expenditures incurred in Minnesota which qualify for the deduction provided in section 290.09, subdivision 18, to the extent the expenditures exceed the average of the three preceding taxable years' qualifying expenditures under section 290.09, subdivision 18, incurred in Minnesota. If the taxpayer has not conducted trade or business in Minnesota for the three preceding taxable years, the average expenditures incurred shall be determined by dividing the expenditures by the lesser number of complete prior taxable years. If there has been less than one prior taxable year of trade or business conducted in Minnesota the average expenditures for the three preceding taxable years shall be zero~~ (i) qualified research expenses as defined in section 44F(b) and (e) of the Internal Revenue Code, except it shall not include expenses incurred for basic research conducted outside the state of Minnesota pursuant to section 44F(e); or (ii) contributions to a nonprofit corporation established and operated pursuant to the provisions of chapter 317 for the purpose of promoting the establishment and expansion of business in this state, provided the contributions are invested by the nonprofit corporation for the purpose of providing funds for small, technologically innovative enterprises in Minnesota during the early stages of their development.

(b) "Qualified research" means qualified research as defined in section 44F(d) of the Internal Revenue Code, except that the term shall not include qualified research conducted outside the state of Minnesota.

(c) "Base period research expenses" means base period research expenses as defined in section 44F(c) of the Internal Revenue Code, except that "December 31, 1981" shall be substituted for "June 30, 1981" in subparagraph (B) of paragraph (2) and the definitions contained in clauses (a) and (b) shall apply.

(d) "Internal Revenue Code" means the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, as amended through December 31, 1981.

Subd. 3. [LIMITATION; CARRYBACK AND CARRYOVER.] (a)(1) The credit for the taxable year shall not exceed ~~$300,000 or ten percent of~~ the liability for tax~~, whichever is less~~. "Liability for tax" for purposes of this section means the tax imposed under this chapter for the taxable year reduced by the sum of the credits allowed under section 290.06, except the credit allowed under section 290.06, subdivision 13.

(2) In the case of an individual who

(A) owns an interest in an unincorporated business,

(B) is a partner in a partnership,

(C) is a beneficiary of an estate or trust, or

(D) is a shareholder in a small business corporation, having a valid election in effect under section 1372 of the Internal Revenue Code, the credit allowed for the taxable year shall not exceed the lesser of the amount determined under clause (1) for the taxable year or an amount (separately computed with respect to such person's interest in the trade or business or entity) equal to the amount of tax attributable to that portion of a person's taxable income which is allocable or apportionable to the person's interest in the trade or business or entity.

(b) If the amount of the credit determined under ~~subdivision 2~~ this section for any taxable year exceeds ~~this~~ the limitation under clause (a), the excess shall be a research credit carryback to each of the three preceding taxable years and a research credit carryover to each of the ~~seven~~ 15 succeeding taxable years~~, provided the aggregate of the credit for the taxable year and any carryover and carryback credits shall not exceed $300,000 or ten percent of the liability for tax, whichever is less~~. The entire amount of the excess unused credit for the taxable year shall be carried first to the earliest of the taxable years to which the credit may be carried and then to each successive year to which the credit may be carried. The amount of the unused credit which may be added under this clause shall not exceed the taxpayer's liability for tax less the research credit for the taxable year.

Subd. 4. [SMALL BUSINESS CORPORATIONS; PARTNERSHIPS.] In the case of small business corporations, having a valid election in effect, under section 1372 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, estates and trusts, and partnerships, the credit shall be allocated in the same manner provided by section 44F(f)(2) of the Internal Revenue Code.

Subd. 5. [ADJUSTMENTS; ACQUISITIONS AND DISPOSITIONS.] If a taxpayer acquires or disposes of the major portion of a trade or business or the major portion of a separate unit of a trade or business in a transaction with another taxpayer, the taxpayer's qualified research expenses and base period shall be adjusted in the same manner provided by section 44F(f)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, except that "December 31, 1980" shall be substituted for "June 30, 1980."

Sec. 2. [EFFECTIVE DATE.]

Section 1 is effective for taxable years beginning after December 31, 1981.

ARTICLE X

Section 1. Minnesota Statutes 1981 Supplement, Section 290.06, Subdivision 14, is amended to read:

Subd. 14. [RESIDENTIAL ENERGY CREDIT.] A credit of 20 percent of the first $10,000 of renewable energy source expenditures, including the expenditures described in clauses (a), (b) and (d) if made by an individual taxpayer on a Minnesota building of six dwelling units or less and expenditures for biomass conversion equipment described in clause (c), may be deducted from the tax due under this chapter for the taxable year in which the expenditures were made. For purposes of this subdivision, the term "building" shall include a condominium or townhouse used by the taxpayer as a residence. In the case of qualifying expenditures incurred in connection with a building under construction by a contractor, the credit shall be deducted from the tax liability of the first individual to purchase the building for use as a principal residence or for residential rental purposes; the contractor shall not be eligible for the credit given pursuant to this subdivision for that expenditure.

A "renewable energy source expenditure" which qualifies shall include:

(a) Expenditures which qualify for the federal renewable energy source credit, pursuant to Section 44C of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, as amended through December 31, ~~1980~~ 1981, and any regulations promulgated pursuant thereto, provided that, after December 31, 1980, any solar collector included in the claimed expenditure is certified by the commissioner of energy, planning and development. A solar collector is a device designed to absorb incident solar radiation, convert it to thermal energy, and transfer the thermal energy to a fluid passing through or in contact with the device. "Solar collector" shall not include passive solar energy systems as defined in clause (d);

(b) Expenditures for earth sheltered dwelling units. For purposes of this credit, an "earth sheltered dwelling unit" shall mean a structure which complies with applicable building standards and which is constructed so that:

(1) 80 percent or more of the roof area is covered with a minimum depth of 12 inches of earth; and

(2) 50 percent or more of the wall area is covered with a minimum depth of 12 inches of earth; and

(3) Those portions of the structure not insulated with a minimum of seven feet of earth shall have additional insulation;

(c) Expenditures for biomass conversion equipment located in Minnesota which produces ethanol, methane or methanol for use as a gaseous or as a liquid fuel which is not offered for sale; and

(d) Expenditures for passive solar energy systems. For purposes of this credit, a "passive solar energy system" is defined to include systems which utilize elements of the building and its operable components to heat or cool a building with the sun's energy by means of conduction, convection, radiation, or evaporation. A passive system shall include:

(1) Collection aperture, including glazing installed in south facing walls and roofs; and

(2) Storage element, including thermal mass in the form of water, masonry, rock, concrete, or other mediums which is designed to store heat collected from solar radiation.

A passive system may include either or both:

(1) Control and distribution element, including fans, louvers, and air ducts; or

(2) Retention element, including movable insulation used to minimize heat loss caused by nocturnal radiation through areas used for direct solar heat gain during daylight hours.

Eligible passive expenditures shall be for equipment, materials or devices that are an integral part of the components listed above and essential to the functioning of a passive design which qualifies pursuant to rules adopted by the commissioner of revenue in cooperation with the commissioner of energy, planning and development. Expenditures for equipment, materials, or devices which are a part of the normal heating, cooling, or insulation system of a building are not eligible for the credit.

If a credit was allowed to a taxpayer under this subdivision for any prior taxable year, the dollar amount of the maximum expenditure for which a taxpayer may qualify for a credit under this subdivision in subsequent years shall be $10,000 reduced by the amount of expenditures which a credit was claimed pursuant to this subdivision in prior years. A taxpayer shall never be allowed to claim more than $10,000 of expenditures during the duration of the renewable energy credit.

The credit provided in this subdivision shall not be allowed in a taxable year if the amount of the credit would be less than $10.

If the credit allowable under this subdivision exceeds the amount of tax due in a taxable year, the excess credit shall not be refunded but may be carried forward to the succeeding taxable year and added to the credit allowable for that year. No amount may be carried forward to a taxable year beginning after December 31, ~~1984~~ 1987.

A shareholder in a family farm corporation and each partner in a partnership operating a family farm shall be eligible for the credit provided by this subdivision in the same manner and to the same extent allowed a joint owner of property under section 44C (d) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, as amended through December 31, ~~1980~~ 1981. "Family farm corporation" and "family farm" have the meanings given in section 500.24.

The credit provided in this subdivision is subject to the provisions of Section 44C, (c) (7) and (10), (d) (1) to (3), and (e), of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, as amended through December 31, ~~1980~~ 1981, and any regulations promulgated pursuant thereto.

The commissioner of revenue in cooperation with the commissioner of energy, planning and development shall adopt rules establishing additional qualifications and definitions for the credits provided in this subdivision.

Notwithstanding section 290.61, the commissioner of revenue may request the commissioner of energy, planning and development to assist in the review and auditing of the information furnished by the taxpayer for purposes of claiming this credit. The provisions of section 290.61 shall apply to employees of the department of energy, planning and development who receive information furnished by a taxpayer for purposes of claiming this credit.

The commissioner of energy, planning and development shall adopt rules establishing the criteria for certification of solar collectors as required by clause (a). The criteria shall:

(1) Specify the testing procedures to be used in the evaluation of solar collectors;

(2) Establish minimum levels of collector quality for safety;

(3) Provide a means to determine the maintainability and structural integrity of solar collectors;

(4) Establish a system for evaluating and rating the thermal performance of solar collectors;

(5) Specify the procedures to follow to obtain certification of a solar collector;

(6) Conform to the maximum extent practicable to the solar collector certification requirements of other states which have adopted certification procedures; and

(7) Allow for individual variation so as not to hamper the development of innovative solar collectors.

The commissioner of energy, planning and development may adopt temporary rules pursuant to section 15.0412, subdivision 5 to establish this certification procedure.

This subdivision is effective for expenditures made during taxable years beginning after December 31, 1978 and before January 1, ~~1983~~ 1986.

ARTICLE XI

Section 1. [DULUTH; BONDS; PURCHASE OF EQUIPMENT.]

The Duluth city council may by ordinance provide for the annual issuance of general obligation bonds in a principal amount not to exceed $2,000,000 annually for three years to provide funds to purchase capital equipment for the city. For purposes of this law, "capital equipment" means any equipment having an estimated useful life of at least five years. The issuance of the bonds shall be subject to Minnesota Statutes, Chapter 475, except that no election shall be required except as provided in section 2, or as required by the Duluth City Charter, Section 52.

Sec. 2. [REVERSE REFERENDUM.]

The city council of Duluth, prior to the issuance of any bonds authorized by section 1, shall adopt a resolution stating the amount, purpose and, in general, the security to be provided for the bonds, and shall publish the resolution once each week for two consecutive weeks in the medium of official and legal publication of the city. The bonds may be issued without the submission of the question of their issuance to the voters of the city unless within 21 days after the second publication of the resolution a petition requesting a referendum signed by at least ten percent of those voting in the last general election is filed with the city clerk. If a petition is filed, no bonds shall be issued unless approved by a majority of the voters of the city voting on the question of their issuance at a regular or special election.

Sec. 3. [LOCAL APPROVAL.]

Sections 1 and 2 are effective the day after compliance with Minnesota Statutes, Section 645.021, Subdivision 3, by the governing body of the city of Duluth but no bonds shall be issued pursuant to this act after April 1, 1985.

ARTICLE XII

Section 1. [BONDS FOR BLOOMINGTON COURT FACILITY.]

The city of Bloomington may issue general obligation bonds for the acquisition, construction or betterment of a court building and court related facilities, and parking for them, under Minnesota Statutes, Chapter 475, except as otherwise provided in this act. Before issuance of bonds, the city shall give three weeks published notice of the issuance. If a number of voters in the city equal 10 percent of those who voted for candidates for governor at the last gubernatorial election present a petition within six weeks of the first published notice to the city clerk requesting that the matter be submitted to popular vote, it shall be submitted at the next general election. If a majority of those voting on the question approve it or if no petition is presented within the prescribed time the city may issue the bonds and levy a tax in accordance with Minnesota Statutes, Section 475.61, to service the debt.

Sec. 2. [HENNEPIN COUNTY; LEASE AUTHORIZATION.]

The county of Hennepin and the city of Bloomington may enter into contracts for terms not to exceed ten years and may enter into leases in connection with court and court related activities. The term of any lease entered into by the county of Hennepin with the city of Bloomington shall not exceed the period required to service the debt on the bonds authorized by section 1. Lease payments shall be irrevocably pledged to the payment of the debt. Upon the retirement of the debt created under section 1, the city may lease space in the court building and related facilities to the county as the county may need for court purposes for periods not to exceed five years. If the city and the county deem it to be in the best interests of the public served by the facilities, the county may purchase them after retirement of the debt, or upon guaranteeing the servicing of the debt, at mutually agreed upon terms.

Sec. 3. [SUITABILITY OF COURT FACILITIES.]

Nothing herein shall be construed to limit or restrict the Chapter 475 but shall not be subject to any interest or debt limits prescribed by that chapter or other law. The interest rate shall not exceed the published yield for the Bond Buyer's Index of 20 municipals for the previous month plus one percent and rounded to the next highest percent per annum. Minnesota Statutes, Section 641.23, shall not be deemed to impose a limitation on the amount of bonds that may be issued pursuant to this section.

Sec. 4. [RELOCATION OF MUNICIPAL COURT.]

Notwithstanding the provisions of Minnesota Statutes, Section 488A.01, Subdivision 9, the county of Hennepin may relocate the municipal court serving the city of Bloomington and thereupon shall provide suitable quarters for the holding of regular terms of court in a southern suburban location within the county as may be designated by a majority of the judges of the court. All functions of the court may be discharged, including both court and jury trials of civil and criminal matters, at the location designated pursuant to this section. Nothing in this section shall be construed to reduce the level of services to the residents of the city of Bloomington.

Sec. 5. [LAKE COUNTY; JAIL BONDS.]

Lake County may issue bonds for a county jail and levy an ad valorem tax for the payment of their principal and interest at whatever rate is necessary notwithstanding any contrary provision of Minnesota Statutes, Section 641.23 or other law. The bonds shall be issued in accordance with Minnesota Statutes, Chapter 475 but shall not be subject to any interest or debt limits prescribed by that chapter or other law. The interest rate shall not exceed the published yield for the Bond Buyer's Index of 20 municipals for the previous month plus one percent and rounded to the next highest percent per annum. Minnesota Statutes, Section 641.23, shall not be deemed to impose a limitation on the amount of bonds that may be issued pursuant to this section.

Sec. 6. [FIRE PROTECTION LEVY: TOWNS OF ERIN, FOREST, WEBSTER, AND WHEATLAND.]

The provisions of Minnesota Statutes, Section 368.85, Subdivision 6, limiting the levy of a town for the support of a fire protection district shall not apply to the levies of the towns of Erin, Forest, Webster, and Wheatland in Rice County for the purposes of providing fire protection.

Sec. 7. [RICE LAKE; EXCESS LEVY.]

Notwithstanding any contrary provision of other law, the town board of Rice Lake may levy for taxes payable in 1982 the sum of $20,000 to meet the cost of construction of a fire hall. The levy shall be in addition to the 1981 levy of $118,000 for taxes payable in 1982 previously authorized for the town. No penalty shall be imposed on this levy pursuant to Minnesota Statutes, Section 275.51, Subdivision 4.

Sec. 8. [CLEARWATER COUNTY LEVY LIMIT INCREASE.]

Any limitation imposed upon the levy of Clearwater County by Minnesota Statutes, Sections 275.50 to 275.56, shall be increased for taxes levied in 1982, payable 1983 and subsequent years by an amount authorized by the county board, not to exceed one mill, to cover the expenses of the agricultural society as authorized by Minnesota Statutes, Section 38.27.

Sec. 9. [EFFECTIVE DATE.]

Sections 1 to 4 are effective the day after compliance with Minnesota Statutes, Section 645.021, Subdivision 3, by the city council of the city of Bloomington and the board of county commissioners of Hennepin county.

Section 5 is effective the day after compliance with Minnesota Statutes, Section 645.021, Subdivision 3, by the governing body of Lake County.

Section 6 is effective the day after compliance with Minnesota Statutes, Section 645.021, Subdivision 3, by the governing bodies of Erin, Forest, Webster, and Wheatland in Rice County.

ARTICLE XIII

Section 1. Minnesota Statutes 1981 Supplement, Section 298.75, is amended to read:

298.75 [~~GRAVEL~~ AGGREGATE MATERIAL REMOVAL; PRODUC-

TION TAX.]

Subdivision 1. [DEFINITIONS.] Except as may otherwise be provided, the following words, when used in this section, shall have the meanings herein ascribed to them.

(1) "Aggregate material" shall mean non-metallic natural mineral aggregate including, but not limited to sand, silica sand, gravel, building stone, crushed rock, limestone, and granite. Aggregate material shall not include dimension stone and dimension granite.

(2) "Person" shall mean any individual, firm, partnership, corporation, organization, trustee, association, or other entity.

(3) "Operator" shall mean any person engaged in the business of removing aggregate material from the surface or subsurface of the soil, for the purpose of sale, either directly or indirectly, through the use of the aggregate material in a marketable product or service.

(4) "Extraction site" shall mean a pit, quarry, or deposit containing aggregate material and any contiguous property to the pit, quarry, or deposit which is used by the operator for stockpiling the aggregate material.

Subd. 2. A county ~~may~~ shall impose upon every ~~person, firm, corporation or association, hereafter referred to as "~~ operator,~~"~~ engaged in the business of removing ~~gravel~~ aggregate material for sale from ~~gravel pits~~ a pit, quarry, or ~~deposits~~ deposit, a production tax ~~in an amount not to exceed~~ equal to ten cents per cubic yard or seven cents per ton of ~~gravel~~ aggregate material removed except that the county board may, in its discretion, decide not to impose this tax if it determines that in the previous year operators removed less than 20,000 tons or 14,000 cubic yards of aggregate material from that county. ~~For purposes of this section, gravel shall include sand and limestone~~ The tax shall be imposed when the aggregate material is transported from the extraction site or sold, when in the case of storage the stockpile is within the state of Minnesota and the highways are not used for transporting the aggregate material.

In the event that the aggregate material is transported directly from the extraction site to a waterway, railway, or another mode of transportation other than a highway, road or street, the tax imposed by this section shall be apportioned equally between the county where the aggregate material is extracted and the county to which the aggregate material is originally transported. If that destination is not located in Minnesota, then the county where the aggregate material was extracted shall receive all of the proceeds of the tax.

Subd. ~~2~~ 3. By the 14th day following the last day of each calendar quarter ~~in each county in which a tax is imposed pursuant to this section or any special law~~, every operator shall make and file with the county auditor of the county in which the ~~gravel~~ aggregate material is removed, a correct report under oath, in such form and containing such information as the auditor shall require relative to the quantity of ~~gravel~~ aggregate material removed during the preceding calendar quarter. The report shall be accompanied by a remittance of the amount of tax due.

If any of the proceeds of the tax is to be apportioned as provided in subdivision 2, the operator shall also include on the report any relevant information concerning the amount of aggregate material transported, the tax and the county of destination. The county auditor shall notify his county treasurer of the amount of such tax and the county to which it is due. The county treasurer shall remit the tax to the appropriate county within 30 days.

Subd. ~~3~~ 4. If any operator fails to make the report required by subdivision ~~2~~ 3 or files an erroneous report, the county auditor shall, by the fifth working day after the date the report became due, determine the amount of tax due and notify the operator by registered mail of the amount of tax so determined. An operator may, within 30 days from the date of mailing the notice, file in the office of the county auditor a written statement of objections to the amount of taxes determined to be due. The statement of objections shall be deemed to be a petition within the meaning of chapter 278, and shall be governed by sections 278.02 to 278.13.

Subd. ~~4~~ 5. Failure to file the report shall result in a penalty of $5 for each of the first 30 days, beginning on the 14th day after the date when the county auditor has sent notice to the ~~taxpayer~~ operator as provided in subdivision ~~3~~ 4, during which the report is overdue and no statement of objection has been filed. For each subsequent day during which the report is overdue and no statement of objection has been filed, a penalty of $10 shall be assessed against the ~~person~~ operator who is required to file the report. The penalties imposed by this subdivision shall be collected as part of the tax. If neither the report nor a statement of objection has been filed after more than 60 days have elapsed from the date when the notice was sent, the ~~person~~ operator who is required to file the report is guilty of a misdemeanor.

Subd. ~~5~~ 6. It is a misdemeanor for any operator to remove ~~gravel~~ aggregate material from a pit, quarry, or deposit unless all taxes due under this section for the previous reporting period have been paid or objections thereto have been filed pursuant to subdivision ~~3~~ 4.

Subd. ~~6~~ 7. All moneys collected as taxes under this section shall be deposited in the county treasury and credited as follows, for expenditure by the county board:

(a) Sixty percent to the county road and bridge fund for expenditure for the maintenance, construction and reconstruction of roads ~~traveled by vehicles hauling gravel~~ , highways and bridges;

(b) Thirty percent to the ~~town~~ road and bridge fund of those towns as determined by the county board and to the general fund or other designated fund of those cities as determined by the county board, ~~for expenditure~~ to be expended for maintenance, construction and reconstruction of roads ~~traveled by vehicles hauling gravel, in a manner determined by the county~~ , highways and bridges; and

(c) Ten percent to a special reserve fund which is hereby established, for expenditure for the restoration of abandoned ~~gravel~~ pits, quarries, or deposits located upon ~~lands to which the county holds title or upon~~ public and tax forfeited lands within the county.

In the event that there are no abandoned pits, quarries or deposits located upon public or tax forfeited lands within the county, this portion of the tax shall be deposited in the county road and bridge fund for expenditure for the maintenance, construction and reconstruction of roads, highways and bridges.

Sec. 2. [VALIDATION OF COLLECTIONS IN CLAY COUNTY.]

All collections of taxes imposed upon gravel removed from a pit or deposit by the county of Clay after the date of the resolution by the Clay county board which increased the rate of tax from five to ten cents per cubic yard are hereby validated.

Sec. 3. [REPEALER.]

Minnesota Statutes, 1981 Supplement, Section 298.76, is repealed.

Sec. 4. [EFFECTIVE DATE.]

This article is effective January 1, 1983.

ARTICLE XIV

Section 1. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 273.13, Subdivision 17d, is amended to read:

Subd. 17d. [NEIGHBORHOOD REAL ESTATE TRUSTS.] When a ~~structure, consisting of one or more dwelling units, is~~ parcel of land, not to exceed one acre, and its improvements or a parcel of unimproved land, not to exceed one acre, are owned by a neighborhood real estate trust and at least 60 percent of the dwelling units, if any, on all land owned by the trust are leased to or occupied by ~~a~~ lower income ~~family as defined by section 8 of the United States Housing Act of 1937, as amended~~ families, the ~~structure~~ land and improvements, if any, shall be assessed at 20 percent of the market value. This subdivision shall not apply to any portion of the ~~structure~~ land or improvements used for nonresidential purposes.

For purposes of this subdivision, a lower income family is a family with an income that does not exceed 65 percent of the median family income for the area as determined by the U.S. Secretary of Housing and Urban Development.

For purposes of this subdivision, neighborhood real estate trust means an entity which is certified by the governing body of the municipality in which it is located to have the following characteristics: (a) it is a nonprofit corporation organized under chapter 317; (b) it has as its principal purpose providing housing for lower income families in a specific geographic community designated in its articles or bylaws; (c) it limits membership with voting rights to residents of the designated community; and (d) it has a board of directors consisting of at least seven directors, 60 percent of whom are ~~voting~~ members with voting rights and, to the extent feasible, 25 percent of whom are elected by resident members of buildings owned by the trust.

Sec. 2. [EFFECTIVE DATE.]

Section 1 is effective for taxes levied in 1982, payable in 1983 and thereafter.

ARTICLE XV

Section 1. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 168.012, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 10. If a vehicle is used for a purpose which would make it exempt pursuant to subdivision 1 but title is held by a seller or a vendor or is assigned to a third party under a lease purchase agreement or installment sale permitted under section 465.71, exemption shall be determined by the use rather than the holder of the title.

Sec. 2. Minnesota Statutes 1981 Supplement, Section 297A.25, Subdivision 1, as amended by Laws 1981, Third Special Session Chapter 2, Article V, Section 2, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. The following are specifically exempted from the taxes imposed by sections 297A.01 to 297A.44:

(a) The gross receipts from the sale of food products including but not limited to cereal and cereal products, butter, cheese, milk and milk products, oleomargarine, meat and meat products, fish and fish products, eggs and egg products, vegetables and vegetable products, fruit and fruit products, spices and salt, sugar and sugar products, coffee and coffee substitutes, tea, cocoa and cocoa products, but not including foods which are prepared or specially sliced, wrapped, arranged or displayed, and sold cold or hot for immediate consumption on or off the premises on which the sale is made, whether sold in individual servings or in larger quantities, except food products which are not taxable pursuant to section 297A.01, subdivision 3, clause (c) and which are sold by a retailer, organized as a nonprofit corporation or association, within a place located on property owned by the state or an agency or instrumentality of the state, the entrance to which is subject to an admission charge;

(b) The gross receipts from the sale of prescribed drugs and medicine intended for use, internal or external, in the cure, mitigation, treatment or prevention of illness or disease in human beings and products consumed by humans for the preservation of health, including prescription glasses, uherapeutic and prosthetic devices, but not including cosmetics or toilet articles notwithstanding the presence of medicinal ingredients therein;

(c) The gross receipts from the sale of and the storage, use or other consumption in Minnesota of tangible personal property, tickets, or admissions, electricity, gas, or local exchange telephone service, which under the Constitution or laws of the United States or under the Constitution of Minnesota, the state of Minnesota is prohibited from taxing;

(d) The gross receipts from the sale of tangible personal property (i) which, without intermediate use, is shipped or transported outside Minnesota and thereafter used in a trade or business or is stored, processed, fabricated or manufactured into, attached to or incorporated into other tangible personal property transported or shipped outside Minnesota and thereafter used in a trade or business outside Minnesota, and which is not thereafter returned to a point within Minnesota, except in the course of interstate commerce (storage shall not constitute intermediate use); or (ii) which the seller delivers to a common carrier for delivery outside Minnesota, places in the United States mail or parcel post directed to the purchaser outside Minnesota, or delivers to the purchaser outside Minnesota by means of the seller's own delivery vehicles, and which is not thereafter returned to a point within Minnesota, except in the course of interstate commerce;

(e) The gross receipts from the sale of packing materials used to pack and ship household goods, the ultimate destination of which is outside the state of Minnesota and which are not thereafter returned to a point within Minnesota, except in the course of interstate commerce;

(f) The gross receipts from the sale of and storage, use or consumption of petroleum products upon which a tax has been imposed under the provisions of chapter 296, whether or not any part of said tax may be subsequently refunded;

(g) The gross receipts from the sale of clothing and wearing apparel except the following:

(i) all articles commonly or commercially known as jewelry, whether real or imitation; pearls, precious and semi-precious stones, and imitations thereof; articles made of, or ornamented, mounted or fitted with precious metals or imitations thereof; watches; clocks; cases and movements for watches and clocks; gold, gold-plated, silver, or sterling flatware or hollow ware and silver-plated hollow ware; opera glasses; lorgnettes; marine glasses; field glasses and binoculars.

(ii) articles made of fur on the hide or pelt, and articles of which such fur is the component material or chief value, but only if such value is more than three times the value of the next most valuable component material.

(iii) perfume, essences, extracts, toilet waters, cosmetics, petroleum jellies, hair oils, pomades, hair dressings, hair restoratives, hair dyes, aromatic cachous and toilet powders. The tax imposed by this act shall not apply to lotion, oil, powder, or other article intended to be used or applied only in the case of babies.

(iv) trunks, valises, traveling bags, suitcases, satchels, overnight bags, hat boxes for use by travelers, beach bags, bathing suit bags, brief cases made of leather or imitation leather, salesmen's sample and display cases, purses, handbags, pocketbooks, wallets, billfolds, card, pass, and key cases and toilet cases.

(h) The gross receipts from the sale of and the storage, use, or consumption of all materials, including chemicals, fuels, petroleum products, lubricants, packaging materials, including returnable containers used in packaging food and beverage products, feeds, seeds, fertilizers, electricity, gas and steam, used or consumed in agricultural or industrial production of personal property intended to be sold ultimately at retail, whether or not the item so used becomes an ingredient or constituent part of the property produced. Such production shall include, but is not limited to, research, development, design or production of any tangible personal property, manufacturing, processing (other than by restaurants and consumers) of agricultural products whether vegetable or animal, commercial fishing, refining, smelting, reducing, brewing, distilling, printing, mining, quarrying, lumbering, generating electricity and the production of road building materials. Such production shall not include painting, cleaning, repairing or similar processing of property except as part of the original manufacturing process. Machinery, equipment, implements, tools, accessories, appliances, contrivances, furniture and fixtures, used in such production and fuel, electricity, gas or steam used for space heating or lighting, are not included within this exemption; however, accessory tools, equipment and other short lived items, which are separate detachable units used in producing a direct effect upon the product, where such items have an ordinary useful life of less than 12 months, are included within the exemption provided herein;

(i) The gross receipts from the sale of and storage, use or other consumption in Minnesota of tangible personal property (except as provided in section 297A.14) which is used or consumed in producing any publication regularly issued at average intervals not exceeding three months, and any such publication. For purposes of this subsection, "publication" as used herein shall include, without limiting the foregoing, a legal newspaper as defined by Minnesota Statutes 1965, Section 331.02, and any supplements or enclosures with or part of said newspaper; and the gross receipts of any advertising contained therein or therewith shall be exempt. For this purpose, advertising in any such publication shall be deemed to be a service and not tangible personal property, and persons or their agents who publish or sell such newspapers shall be deemed to be engaging in a service with respect to gross receipts realized from such newsgathering or publishing activities by them, including the sale of advertising. Machinery, equipment, implements, tools, accessories, appliances, contrivances, furniture and fixtures used in such publication and fuel, electricity, gas or steam used for space heating or lighting, are not exempt;

(j) The gross receipts from all sales, including sales in which title is retained by a seller or a vendor or is assigned to a third party under an installment sale or lease purchase agreement under section 465.71, of tangible personal property to, and all storage, use or consumption of such property by, the United States and its agencies and instrumentalities or a state and its agencies, instrumentalities and political subdivisions;

(k) The gross receipts from the isolated or occasional sale of tangible personal property in Minnesota not made in the normal course of business of selling that kind of property, and the storage, use, or consumption of property acquired as a result of such a sale;

(l) The gross receipts from sales of rolling stock and the storage, use or other consumption of such property by railroads, freight line companies, sleeping car companies and express companies taxed on the gross earnings basis in lieu of ad valorem taxes. For purposes of this clause "rolling stock" is defined as the portable or moving apparatus and machinery of any such company which moves on the road, and includes, but is not limited to, engines, cars, tenders, coaches, sleeping cars and parts necessary for the repair and maintenance of such rolling stock.

(m) The gross receipts from sales of airflight equipment and the storage, use or other consumption of such property by airline companies taxed under the provisions of sections 270.071 to 270.079. For purposes of this clause, "airflight equipment" includes airplanes and parts necessary for the repair and maintenance of such airflight equipment, and flight simulators.

(n) The gross receipts from the sale of telephone central office telephone equipment used in furnishing intrastate and interstate telephone service to the public.

(o) The gross receipts from the sale of and the storage, use or other consumption by persons taxed under the in lieu provisions of chapter 298, of mill liners, grinding rods and grinding balls which are substantially consumed in the production of taconite, the material of which primarily is added to and becomes a part of the material being processed.

(p) The gross receipts from the sale of tangible personal property to, and the storage, use or other consumption of such property by, any corporation, society, association, foundation, or institution organized and operated exclusively for charitable, religious or educational purposes if the property purchased is to be used in the performance of charitable, religious or educational functions, or any senior citizen group or association of groups that in general limits membership to persons age 55 or older and is organized and operated exclusively for pleasure, recreation and other nonprofit purposes, no part of the net earnings of which inures to the benefit of any private shareholders;

(q) The gross receipts from the sale of caskets and burial vaults;

(r) The gross receipts from the sale of an automobile or other conveyance if the purchaser is assisted by a grant from the United States in accordance with 38 United States Code, Section 1901, as amended.

(s) The gross receipts from the sale to the licensed aircraft dealer of an aircraft for which a commercial use permit has been issued pursuant to section 360.654, if the aircraft is resold while the permit is in effect.

(t) The gross receipts from the sale of building materials to be used in the construction or remodeling of a residence when the construction or remodeling is financed in whole or in part by the United States in accordance with 38 United States Code, Sections 801 to 805, as amended. This exemption shall not be effective at time of sale of the materials to contractors, subcontractors, builders or owners, but shall be applicable only upon a claim for refund to the commissioner of revenue filed by recipients of the benefits provided in Title 38 United States Code, Chapter 21, as amended. The commissioner shall provide by regulation for the refund of taxes paid on sales exempt in accordance with this paragraph.

(u) The gross receipts from the sale of textbooks which are prescribed for use in conjunction with a course of study in a public or private school, college, university and business or trade school to students who are regularly enrolled at such institutions. For purposes of this clause a ''public school'' is defined as one that furnishes course of study, enrollment and staff that meets standards of the state board of education and a private school is one which under the standards of the state board of education, provides an education substantially equivalent to that furnished at a public school. Business and trade schools shall mean such schools licensed pursuant to section 141.25.

(v) The gross receipts from the sale of and the storage of material designed to advertise and promote the sale of merchandise or services, which material is purchased and stored for the purpose of subsequently shipping or otherwise transferring outside the state by the purchaser for use thereafter solely outside the state of Minnesota.

(w) The gross receipt from the sale of residential heating fuels in the following manner:

(i) all fuel oil, coal, wood, steam, propane gas, and L.P. gas sold to residential customers for residential use;

(ii) natural gas sold for residential use to customers who are metered and billed as residential users and who use natural gas for their primary source of residential heat, for the billing months of November, December, January, February, March and April;

(iii) electricity sold for residential use to customers who are metered and billed as residential users and who use electricity for their primary source of residential heat, for the billing months of November, December, January, February, March and April.

(x) The gross receipts from the sale or use of tickets or admissions to the premises of or events sponsored by an association, corporation or other group of persons which provides an opportunity for citizens of the state to participate in the creation, performance or appreciation of the arts and which qualifies as a tax-exempt organization within the meaning of section 290.05, subdivision 1, clause (i).

(y) The gross receipts from either the sales to or the storage, use or consumption of tangible personal property by an organization of military service veterans or an auxiliary unit of an organization of military service veterans, provided that:

(i) the organization or auxiliary unit is organized within the state of Minnesota and is exempt from federal taxation pursuant to section 501(c), clause (19), of the Internal Revenue Code as amended through December 31, 1978; and

(ii) the tangible personal property which is sold to or stored, used or consumed by the organization or auxiliary unit is for charitable, civic, educational, or nonprofit uses and not for social, recreational, pleasure or profit uses.

(z) The gross receipts from the sale of sanitary napkins, tampons, or similar items used for feminine hygiene.

Sec. 3. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 297B.03, is amended to read:

297B.03 [EXEMPTIONS.]

There is specifically exempted from the provisions of this chapter and from computation of the amount of tax imposed by it the following:

(1) Purchase or use, including use under a lease purchase agreement or installment sales contract made pursuant to section 465.71, of any motor vehicle by any person described in and subject to the conditions provided in section 297A.25, subdivision 1, clauses (j), (p) and (s).

(2) Purchase or use of any motor vehicle by any person who was a resident of another state at the time of the purchase and who subsequently becomes a resident of Minnesota, provided the purchase occurred more than 60 days prior to the date such person moved his residence to the state of Minnesota.

(3) Purchase or use of any motor vehicle by any person making a valid election to be taxed under the provisions of section 297A.211.

(4) Purchase or use of any motor vehicle previously registered in the state of Minnesota by any corporation or partnership when such transfer constitutes a transfer within the meaning of sections 351 or 721 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, as amended through December 31, 1974.

Sec. 4. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 465.71, is amended to read:

465.71 [INSTALLMENT PURCHASES AND LEASE PURCHASES OF PROPERTY; HOME RULE CHARTER AND STATUTORY CITIES; COUNTIES, SCHOOL DISTRICTS.]

A ~~second, third or fourth class~~ home rule charter city, statutory city, county, or school district may purchase real or personal property under an installment contract, or lease personal property with an option to purchase under a lease purchase agreement, by which contract or agreement title is retained by the seller or vendor or assigned to a third party as security for the purchase price, including interest, if any, but such purchases are subject to statutory and charter provisions applicable to the purchase of real or personal property. For purposes of the bid requirements contained in section 471.345, "the amount of the contract" shall include the total of all lease payments for the entire term of the lease under a lease-purchase agreement. The obligation created by a lease purchase agreement shall not be included in the calculation of net debt for purposes of section 475.53, and shall not constitute debt under any other statutory provision. No election shall be required in connection with the execution of a lease purchase agreement authorized by this section. The city, county, or school district shall have the right to terminate a lease purchase agreement at the end of any fiscal year during its term.

ARTICLE XVI

Section 1. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 273.42, as amended by Laws 1981, First Special Session Chapter 1, Article II, Section 15, is amended to read:

273.42 [RATE OF TAX; ENTRY AND CERTIFICATION; CREDIT ON PAYMENT; PROPERTY TAX CREDIT.]

Subdivision 1. The property set forth in section 273.37, subdivision 2, consisting of transmission lines of less than 69 kv and transmission lines of 69 kv and above located in an unorganized township, and distribution lines not taxed as provided in sections 273.38, 273.40 and 273.41 shall be taxed at the average rate of taxes levied for all purposes throughout the county and shall be entered on the tax lists by the county auditor against the owner thereof and certified to the county treasurer at the same time and in the same manner that other taxes are certified, and, when paid, shall be credited~~, 35~~ as follows: 50 percent to the general revenue fund of the county~~,~~ and 50 percent to the general school fund of the county, ~~and 15 percent to the townships within the county in which the lines are located. The amount available for distribution to the townships shall be divided among the townships in the same proportion that the length of transmission line in each township bears to the total length of transmission line in the county~~ except that if there are high voltage transmission lines as defined in section 116C.52, the construction of which was commenced after July 1, 1974 and which are located in unorganized townships within the county, then the distribution of taxes within this subdivision shall be credited as follows: 50 percent to the general revenue fund of the county, 40 percent to the general school fund of the county and 10 percent to a utility property tax credit fund, which is hereby established.

Subd. 2. Owners of land defined as class 3, 3b, 3c, 3cc, 3d or 3f pursuant to section 273.13 listed on records of the county auditor or county treasurer over which runs a high voltage transmission line as defined in section 116C.52, subdivision 3, except a high voltage transmission line the construction of which was commenced prior to July 1, 1974, shall receive a property tax credit in an amount determined by multiplying a fraction, the numerator of which is the length of high voltage transmission line which runs over that parcel and the denominator of which is the total length of that particular line running over all property within the city~~,~~ or township ~~or unorganized township~~ by ten percent of the transmission line tax revenue derived from the tax on that portion of the line within the city~~,~~ or township ~~or unorganized township~~ pursuant to section 273.36. In the case of property owners in unorganized townships, the property tax credit shall be determined by multiplying a fraction, the numerator of which is the length of the qualifying high voltage transmission line which runs over the parcel and the denominator of which is the total length of the qualifying high voltage transmission line running over all property within all the unorganized townships within the county, by the total utility property tax credit fund amount available within the county for that year pursuant to section 273.42, subdivision 1. Where a right-of-way width is shared by more than one property owner, the numerator shall be adjusted by multiplying the length of line on the parcel by the proportion of the total width on the parcel owned by that property owner. The amount of credit for which the property qualifies shall not exceed 20 percent of the total gross tax on the parcel prior to deduction of the state paid agricultural credit and the state paid homestead credit, provided that, if the property containing the right of way is included in a parcel which exceeds 40 acres, the total gross tax on the parcel shall be multiplied by a fraction, the numerator of which is the sum of the number of acres in each quarter-quarter section or portion thereof which contains a right of way and the denominator of which is the total number of acres in the parcel set forth on the tax statement, and the maximum credit shall be 20 percent of the product of that computation, prior to deduction of those credits. The auditor of the county in which the affected parcel is located shall calculate the amount of the credit due for each parcel and transmit that information to the county treasurer. The county auditor, in computing the credits received pursuant to sections 273.13 and 273.135, shall reduce the gross tax by the amount of the credit received pursuant to this section, unless the amount of the credit would be less than $10.

If, after the county auditor has computed the credit to those qualifying property owners in unorganized townships, there is money remaining in the utility property tax credit fund, then that excess amount in the fund shall be returned to the general school fund of the county.

Sec. 2. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 273.425, is amended to read:

273.425 [ADJUSTMENT OF LEVY.]

When preparing tax lists pursuant to section 275.28 for each levy year for which credits will be payable under section 273.42, the county auditor shall deduct from the assessed valuation of the property within the county an amount equal to ten percent of the assessed valuation of transmission lines with respect to which a credit is to be paid and which are valued pursuant to section 273.36. The mill rate necessary to be applied to this reduced total valuation in order to raise the required amount of tax revenue for the local taxing authorities shall be applied to the value of all taxable property in the county, including the entire valuation of those transmission lines. The proceeds of the tax levied against the excluded ten percent of the value of those transmission lines shall be available for purposes of funding of the credit provided in section 273.42. If the amount of that portion of the levy exceeds the amount necessary to fund the credits, the excess shall be distributed to the taxing districts within which the affected property is located in proportion to their respective mill rates, to be used for general levy purposes.

Sec. 3. [EFFECTIVE DATE.]

This article is effective for taxes levied in 1982 and thereafter, payable in 1983 and thereafter.

ARTICLE XVII

Section 1. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 278.01, is amended to read:

278.01 [DEFENSE OR OBJECTION TO TAX ON LAND; SERVICE AND FILING.]

Subdivision 1. [DETERMINATION OF VALIDITY.] Any person having any estate, right, title, or interest in or lien upon any parcel of land, who claims that such property has been partially, unfairly, or unequally assessed in comparison with other property in the city or county, or that the parcel has been assessed at a valuation greater than its real or actual value, or that the tax levied against the same is illegal, in whole or in part, or has been paid, or that the property is exempt from the tax so levied, may have the validity of his claim, defense, or objection determined by the district court of the county in which the tax is levied or by the tax court by serving two copies of a petition for such determination upon the county auditor and one copy each on the county treasurer and the county attorney and filing the same, with proof of service, in the office of the clerk of the district court before the first day of June of the year in which the tax becomes payable. The county auditor shall immediately forward one copy of the petition to the appropriate governmental authority in a home rule charter or statutory city or town in which the property is located if that city or town employs its own certified assessor. A copy of the petition shall also be sent to the school board of the school district in which the property is located. A petition for determination under this section may be transferred by the district court to the tax court. An appeal may also be taken to the tax court under chapter 271 at any time following receipt of the valuation notice required by section 273.121 but prior to June 1 of the year in which the taxes are payable.

Subd. 2. [HOMESTEADS.] Any person having any estate, right, title or interest in or lien upon any parcel which is classified as homestead under the provisions of section 273.13, subdivisions 6, 6a, 7, 7b, 10 or 12, who claims that said parcel has been assessed at a valuation which exceeds by ten percent or more the valuation which the parcel would have if it were valued at the average assessment/sales ratio for real property in the same class, in that portion of the county in which that parcel is located, for which the commissioner is able to establish and publish a sales ratio study as determined by the applicable real estate assessment/sales ratio study published by the commissioner of revenue, may have the validity of his claim, defense, or objection determined by the district court of the county in which the tax is levied or by the tax court by serving two copies of a petition for such determination upon the county auditor and one copy each on the county treasurer and the county attorney and filing the same, with proof of such service, in the office of the clerk of the district court before the first day of June of the year in which such tax becomes payable. The county auditor shall immediately forward one copy of the petition to the appropriate governmental authority in a home rule charter or statutory city or town in which the property is located if that city or town employs its own certified assessor. A copy of the petition shall also be sent to the school board of the school district in which the property is located. A petition for determination under this section may be transferred by the district court to the tax court.

Subd. 3. [EXCEPTION.] The procedures established by this section ~~shall not be~~ are not available to contest the validity or amount of any special assessment made pursuant to chapters 429, 430, any special law or city charter.

Sec. 2. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 278.05, Subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [RESPONSIBLE ATTORNEY; SCHOOL DISTRICT REPRESENTATIVES.] If the property on which the taxes have been levied is located in a home rule charter or statutory city or town which employs its own certified assessor, the attorney for that governmental unit may, within 20 days after receipt by the governmental unit of the copy of the petition forwarded by the county auditor, give notice to the county attorney and to the petitioner or his attorney that the home rule charter or statutory city or town is taking charge of and prosecuting the proceeding. If the attorney for the home rule charter or statutory city or town does not give notice, the attorney of the county in which these taxes are levied shall take charge of and prosecute the proceedings, but the county board may employ any other attorney to assist him. If the school board has responded within 30 days of receipt to a notice provided pursuant to section 1, indicating that it desires to be notified of further proceedings in the case, a representative of the school district in which the property is located shall be notified of all proceedings and all offers to reduce valuations and shall be given an opportunity to appear and testify on any trial of the issues raised.

ARTICLE XVIII

Section 1. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 274.19, Subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. Not later than July 15 in the year of assessment the county treasurer shall mail to the taxpayer a statement of tax due on class 2a property. The taxes shall be due on the last day of August. Taxes remaining unpaid after the due date shall be deemed delinquent, and a penalty of eight percent shall be assessed and collected as part of the unpaid taxes. On September ~~10~~ 30 the county treasurer shall make a list of taxes remaining unpaid and shall certify the list immediately to the clerk of district court, who shall issue warrants to the sheriff for collection.

Sec. 2. [EFFECTIVE DATE.]

Section 1 is effective for taxes payable in 1982 and thereafter.

ARTICLE XIX

Section 1. Minnesota Statutes 1981 Supplement, Section 272.46, is amended to read:

272.46 [AUDITOR TO FURNISH STATEMENT OF TAX LIENS AND TAX SALES; FEES; APPLICATION.]

Subdivision 1. [CERTIFICATION OF TAX LIENS.] The county auditor, upon written application of any person, shall make search of the records of his office, and ascertain the existence of all tax liens and tax sales as to any lands described in the application, and certify the result of such search under his hand and the seal of his office, giving the description of the land and all tax liens and tax sales shown by such records, and the amount thereof, the year of tax covered by such lien, the date of tax sale, and the name of the purchaser at such tax sale.

For such service the county auditor shall charge a fee not to exceed $5 for each lot or tract of land described in the certificate. The amount of the fee will be established by the county board on or before July 1 of each year. Any number of contiguous tracts of land not exceeding one section, assessed as broad acres, or adjoining lots in the same block, in the city, shall be considered as one lot or parcel within the meaning of this section. The provisions of this section shall not apply to counties having a population of more than 225,000.

Subd. 2. [AUDITOR TO COMBINE LEGAL DESCRIPTIONS.] The county auditor, upon written application of any person, shall for property tax purposes only, combine legal descriptions, as defined in section 272.195, of contiguous parcels to which the applicants hold title.

Sec. 2. Minnesota Statutes 1981 Supplement, Section 273.11, Subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [GENERALLY.] Except as provided in subdivisions 2, 6 and 7 or section 273.17, subdivision 1, all property shall be valued at its market value. The market value as determined pursuant to this section shall be stated such that any amount under $100 is rounded up to $100 and any amount exceeding $100 shall be rounded to the nearest $100. In estimating and determining such value, the assessor shall not adopt a lower or different standard of value because the same is to serve as a basis of taxation, nor shall he adopt as a criterion of value the price for which such property would sell at auction or at a forced sale, or in the aggregate with all the property in the town or district; but he shall value each article or description of property by itself, and at such sum or price as he believes the same to be fairly worth in money. In assessing any tract or lot of real property, the value of the land, exclusive of structures and improvements, shall be determined, and also the value of all structures and improvements thereon, and the aggregate value of the property, including all structures and improvements, excluding the value of crops growing upon cultivated land. In valuing real property upon which there is a mine or quarry, it shall be valued at such price as such property, including the mine or quarry, would sell for a fair, voluntary sale, for cash. In valuing real property which is vacant, the fact that such property is platted shall not be taken into account. An individual lot of such platted property shall not be assessed in excess of the assessment of the land as if it were unplatted until the lot is improved with a permanent improvement all or a portion of which is located upon the lot, or for a period of three years after final approval of said plat whichever is shorter. When a lot is sold or construction begun, the assessed value of that lot or any single contiguous lot fronting on the same street shall be eligible for reassessment. All property, or the use thereof, which is taxable under sections 272.01, subdivision 2, or 273.19, shall be valued at the market value of such property and not at the value of a leasehold estate in such property, or at some lesser value than its market value.

Sec. 3. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 282.014, is amended to read:

282.014 [COMPLETION OF SALE AND CONVEYANCE.]

Upon compliance by the purchaser with the provisions of sections 282.011 to 282.015 and with the terms and conditions of the sale, and upon full payment for the land, plus a $10 fee in addition to the sale price, the sale shall be complete and a conveyance of the land shall be issued to the purchaser as provided by the appropriate statutes according to the status of the land upon forfeiture.

Sec. 4. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 282.09, Subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [MONEYS PLACED IN FUND.] The county auditor and county treasurer shall place all moneys received through the operation of sections 282.01 to 282.13 in a fund to be known as the forfeited tax sale fund and all disbursements and costs shall be charged against that fund, when allowed by the county board. Members of the county board may be paid a per diem pursuant to section 375.055, subdivision 1, and reimbursed for their necessary expenses, and may receive mileage as now or hereafter fixed by law. Compensation of a land commissioner and his assistants, if a land commissioner is appointed, shall be in such amount as shall be determined by the county board. The county auditor shall receive 50 cents for each certificate of sale, each contract for deed and each lease executed by him, and in counties where no land commissioner is appointed such additional annual compensation, not exceeding $300, as shall be fixed by the county board. Compensation of any other clerical help that may be needed by the county auditor or land commissioner shall be in such amount as shall be determined by the county board. All compensation provided for herein shall be in addition to other compensation allowed by law. ~~Out of the gross proceeds in this fund there shall be paid to the state, in addition to any distribution of net proceeds therefrom, a fee of $3 for each and every state deed hereafter issued or reissued by the commissioner of revenue pursuant to the sale of any tax-forfeited lands.~~ Fees so charged in addition to the fee imposed in section 3 shall be included in the annual settlement by the county auditor as hereinafter provided. On or before February 1 in each year, the commissioner of revenue shall certify to the commissioner of finance, by counties, the total number of state deeds issued and reissued during the preceding calendar year for which such fees are charged and the total amount thereof. When disbursements are made from the fund for repairs, refundments, expenses of actions to quiet title, or any other purpose which particularly affects specific parcels of forfeited lands, the amount of such disbursements shall be charged to the account of the taxing districts interested in such parcels. The county auditor shall make an annual settlement of the net proceeds received from sales and rentals by the operation of sections 282.01 to 282.13, at the regular March settlement, for the preceding calendar year.

Sec. 5. [297.041] [SALES TO INDIAN TRIBES.]

Subdivision 1. [WHOLESALERS.] Any wholesaler who furnishes a surety bond in a sum satisfactory to the commissioner shall be permitted to set aside, without affixing the stamps required by this chapter, that part of his stock necessary for the conduct of his business in making sales to the established governing body of any Indian tribe recognized by the United States Department of Interior. The unstamped stock shall be kept separate and apart from stamped stock. Every wholesaler shall, at the time of shipping or delivering any of the unstamped stock to an Indian tribal organization, make a true duplicate invoice which shall show the complete details of the sale or delivery and shall transmit the duplicate to the commissioner not later than the fifteenth day of the following calendar month. Failure to comply with the requirements of this section shall cause the commissioner to revoke the permission granted to the wholesaler to maintain a stock of goods which may be unstamped. The commissioner may also revoke this permission to maintain a stock of unstamped goods for sale to a specific Indian tribal organization when it appears that sales of unstamped cigarettes to persons who are not enrolled members of a recognized Indian tribe are taking place, or have taken place, within the exterior boundaries of the reservation occupied by that tribe.

Subd. 2. [RETAILERS.] Retailers who are Indian tribal organizations may maintain unstamped stock intended for sale to qualified purchasers.

Subd. 3. [QUALIFIED PURCHASERS.] A qualified purchaser of unstamped cigarettes means only an enrolled member of the Indian tribe which is offering the cigarettes for sale.

Subd. 4. [SALES TO NONQUALIFIED BUYERS.] Any retailer who sells or otherwise disposes of any unstamped cigarettes other than to a qualified purchaser shall collect from the buyer or transferee the tax imposed by section 297.02, subdivision 1, and remit the tax to the department of revenue at the same time and manner as required by section 297.07. In the event the retailer fails to collect the tax from the buyer or transferee, or fails to remit the tax, the retailer shall be personally responsible for the tax and the commissioner may seize any cigarettes destined to be delivered to the retailer. The cigarettes so seized shall be considered contraband and be subject to the procedures outlined in section 297.08, subdivision 3. The proceeds of the sale of any such cigarettes may, after deducting all costs and expenses, be applied to any tax liability owed by the retailer.

The provisions of this section shall not relieve the buyer or possessor of unstamped cigarettes from personal liability for the tax.

Sec. 6. [EFFECTIVE DATE.]

Section 5 is effective January 1, 1983.

ARTICLE XX

Section 1. Minnesota Statutes 1981 Supplement, Section 290.61, is amended to read:

290.61 [PUBLICITY OF RETURNS, INFORMATION.]

It shall be unlawful for the commissioner or any other public official or employee to divulge or otherwise make known in any manner any particulars set forth or disclosed in any report or return required by this chapter, or any information concerning, the taxpayer's affairs acquired from his or its records, officers, or employees while examining or auditing any taxpayer's liability for taxes imposed hereunder, except in connection with a proceeding involving taxes due under this chapter from the taxpayer making such return or to comply with the provisions of sections 290.612 and 302A.821. The commissioner may furnish a copy of any taxpayer's return to any official of the United States or of any state having duties to perform in respect to the assessment or collection of any tax imposed upon or measured by income, if such taxpayer is required by the laws of the United States or of such state to make a return therein. Prior to the release of any information to any official of the United States or any other state under the provisions of this section, the person to whom the information is to be released shall sign an agreement which provides that he will protect the confidentiality of the returns and information revealed thereby to the extent that it is protected under the laws of the state of Minnesota. The commissioner and all other public officials and employees shall keep and maintain the same secrecy in respect to any information furnished by any department, commission, or official of the United States or of any other state in respect to the income of any person as is required by this section in respect to information concerning the affairs of taxpayers under this chapter. Nothing herein contained shall be construed to prohibit the commissioner from publishing statistics so classified as not to disclose the identity of particular returns or reports and the items thereof. Upon request of a majority of the members of the senate tax committee or of the house tax committee or the tax study commission, the commissioner shall furnish abstracted financial information to those committees for research purposes from returns or reports filed pursuant to this chapter, provided that he shall not disclose the name, address, social security number, business identification number or any other item of information associated with any return or report which the commissioner believes is likely to identify the taxpayer. The commissioner shall not furnish the actual return, or a portion thereof, or a reproduction or copy of any return or portion thereof. "Abstracted financial information" means only the dollar amounts set forth on each line on the form including the filing status.

Any person violating the provisions of this section shall be guilty of a gross misdemeanor.

In order to locate the named payee on state warrants issued pursuant to this chapter or chapter 290A and undeliverable by the United States postal service, the commissioner may publish in any English language newspaper of general circulation in this state a list of the name and last known address of the payee as shown on the reports or returns filed with the commissioner. The commissioner may exclude the names of payees whose refunds are in an amount which is less than a minimal amount to be determined by the commissioner. The published list shall not contain any particulars set forth on any report or return. The publication shall include instructions on claiming the warrants.

An employee of the department of revenue may, in connection with his official duties relating to any audit, collection activity, or civil or criminal tax investigation or any other offense under this chapter, disclose return information to the extent that such disclosure is necessary in obtaining information, which is not otherwise reasonably available, with respect to the correct determination of tax, liability for tax, or the amount to be collected or with respect to the enforcement of any other provision of this chapter.

In order to facilitate processing of returns and payments of taxes required by this chapter, the commissioner may contract with outside vendors and may disclose private and nonpublic data to the vendor. The data disclosed will be administered by the vendor consistent with this section.

Sec. 2. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 297A.43, is amended to read:

297A.43 [CONFIDENTIAL NATURE OF INFORMATION.]

It shall be unlawful for the commissioner or any other public official or employee to divulge or otherwise make known in any manner any particulars disclosed in any report or return required by sections 297A.01 to 297A.44, or any information concerning the affairs of the person making the return acquired from his records, officers, or employees while examining or auditing under the authority of sections 297A.01 to 297A.44, except in connection with a proceeding involving taxes due under this chapter from the taxpayer making such report or return or to comply with the provisions of section 297A.431 or where a question arises as to the proper tax applicable, that is, sales or use tax. In the latter instance, the commissioner may furnish information to a buyer and a seller with respect to the specific transaction in question. Nothing herein contained shall be construed to prohibit the commissioner from publishing statistics so classified as not to disclose the identity of particular returns or reports and the contents thereof. Any person violating the provisions of this section shall be guilty of a gross misdemeanor.

The commissioner may enter into an agreement with the commissioner or other taxing officials of another state for the interpretation and administration of the acts of their several states providing for the collection of a sales and/or use tax for the purpose of promoting fair and equitable administration of such acts and to eliminate double taxation.

Notwithstanding the above provisions of this section, the commissioner, at his discretion, in order to implement the purposes of this chapter, may furnish information on a reciprocal basis to the taxing officials of another state, or to the taxing officials of any municipality of the state of Minnesota which has a local sales and/or use tax.

In order to facilitate processing of returns and payments of taxes required by this chapter, the commissioner may contract with outside vendors and may disclose private and nonpublic data to the vendor. The data disclosed will be administered by the vendor consistent with this section.

Sec. 3. [EFFECTIVE DATE.]

Sections 1 and 2 are effective the day following final enactment.

ARTICLE XXI

Section 1. Minnesota Statutes 1981 Supplement, Section 273.11, Subdivision 7, is amended to read:

Subd. 7. [AGRICULTURAL LAND.] Tillable agricultural land shall be valued at the lesser of its market value or the value which could be derived from capitalizing its free market gross rental rate ~~capitalized~~ as determined for that grade of land at a rate of ~~5.8~~ 5.6 percent. Each county assessor shall survey the farm rental values of each grade of farmland in each township in the county. ~~This information shall be used in reviews of valuations by the town boards of review~~ and shall determine a farm rental value to be used for the assessment of each grade. The values so determined shall be presented to township boards of review at their annual meetings held pursuant to section 274.01 in the year prior to that in which those values might be used in determining tillable agricultural land values. The boards of review and any property owners may present their comments on the values, including any evidence indicating that the values are inaccurate, by December 1 of the year when the values were presented to the board. The county assessor shall make his final determination of assessed valuations for January 2 of the subsequent year based on his determinations of the farm rental values as modified by any comments of board members or other property owners that he finds persuasive. Nontillable agricultural land and buildings on agricultural land shall be valued in the usual manner.

Sec. 2. [EFFECTIVE DATE.]

Section 1 is effective the day following final enactment for valuations for taxes levied in 1983, payable in 1984 and thereafter.

ARTICLE XXII

Section 1. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 273.111, Subdivision 9, is amended to read:

Subd. 9. When real property which is being, or has been valued and assessed under this section ~~is sold or~~ no longer qualifies under subdivisions 3 and 6, the portion ~~sold~~ no longer qualifying shall be subject to additional taxes, in the amount equal to the difference between the taxes determined in accordance with subdivision 4, and the amount determined under subdivision 5, provided, however, that the amount determined under subdivision 5 shall not be greater than it would have been had the actual bona fide sale price of the real property at an arms length transaction been used in lieu of the market value determined under subdivision 5. Such additional taxes shall be extended against the property on the tax list for the current year, provided, however, that no interest or penalties shall be levied on such additional taxes if timely paid, and provided further, that such additional taxes shall only be levied with respect to the last three years that the said property has been valued and assessed under this section.

Sec. 2. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 273.111, Subdivision 11, is amended to read:

Subd. 11. The payment of special local assessments levied after the date of Extra Session Laws 1967, Chapter 60, for improvements made to any real property described in subdivision 3 together with the interest thereon shall, on timely application as provided in subdivision 8, be deferred as long as such property meets the conditions contained in subdivisions 3 and 6. If special assessments against the property have been deferred pursuant to this subdivision, the governmental unit shall file with the county recorder in the county in which the property is located a certificate containing the legal description of the affected property and of the amount deferred. When such property ~~is sold or~~ no longer qualifies under subdivisions 3 and 6, all deferred special assessments plus interest shall be payable within 90 days. Penalty shall not be levied on any such special assessments if timely paid. If not paid within such 90 days, the county auditor shall include such deferred special assessments plus a ten percent penalty on the tax list for the current year.

Sec. 3. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 273.111, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 11a. When real property qualifying under subdivisions 3 and 6 is sold, no additional taxes or deferred special assessments plus interest shall be extended against the property provided the property continues to qualify pursuant to subdivisions 3 and 6, and provided the new owner files an application for continued deferment within 30 days after the sale.

For purposes of meeting the income requirements of subdivision 6, the property purchased shall be considered in conjunction with other qualifying property owned by the purchaser.

Sec. 4. [EFFECTIVE DATE.]

This article is effective for sales of qualifying property made after the day of final enactment.

ARTICLE XXIII

Section 1. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 273.121, is amended to read:

273.121 [VALUATION OF REAL PROPERTY, NOTICE.]

Any county assessor or city assessor having the powers of a county assessor, valuing or classifying taxable real property shall in each year notify those persons whose property is to be assessed or reclassified that year if the person's address is known to the assessor, otherwise the occupant of the property. In the case of property owned by a married couple in joint tenancy or tenancy in common, the assessor shall not deny the 3b or 3c property classification in whole or in part if only one of the spouses is occupying the property and the other spouse is absent due to divorce or separation, or is a resident of a nursing home or a boarding care facility. The notice shall be in writing and shall be sent by ordinary mail at least ten days before the meeting of the local board of review or equalization. It shall contain the amount of the valuation in terms of market value, the new classification, the assessor's office address, and the dates, places, and times set for the meetings of the local board of review or equalization and the county board of equalization. If the assessment roll is not complete, the notice shall be sent by ordinary mail at least ten days prior to the date on which the board of review has adjourned. The assessor shall attach to the assessment roll a statement that the notices required by this section have been mailed. Any such assessor who is not provided sufficient funds from his governing body to provide such notices, may make application to the commissioner of revenue to finance such notices. The commissioner of revenue shall conduct an investigation and if he is satisfied that the assessor does not have the necessary funds, issue his certification to the commissioner of finance of the amount necessary to provide such notices. The commissioner of finance shall issue a warrant for such amount and shall deduct such amount from any state payment to such county or municipality. The necessary funds to make such payments are hereby appropriated. Failure to receive the notice shall in no way affect the validity of the assessment, the resulting tax, the procedures of any board of review or equalization, or the enforcement of delinquent taxes by statutory means.

Sec. 2. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 273.13, Subdivision 7c, is amended to read:

Subd. 7c. [TOWNHOUSES; COMMON AREAS; CONDOMINIUMS; COOPERATIVES .] (a) Townhouse property shall be classified and valued as is other property under this section except that the value of the townhouse property shall be increased by the value added by the right to use any common areas in connection with the townhouse development. The common areas of the development shall not be separately taxed. The total value of the townhouse property, including the value added as provided herein, shall have the benefit of homestead treatment or other special classification if the townhouse otherwise qualifies.

(b) Condominium property qualifying as a homestead under section 515A.1-105 and property owned by a cooperative association that qualifies as a homestead under section 273.133 shall have the benefit of homestead treatment or other special classification if the condominium or cooperative association property otherwise qualifies. In the event that the condominium or cooperative association property is owned by the occupant and used for the purposes of a homestead but is located upon land which is leased, that leased land shall be valued and assessed as if it were homestead property within the scope of class 3c or 3cc, whichever is applicable, if all of the following criteria are met:

(1) The occupant is using the property as his permanent residence;

(2) The occupant or the cooperative association is paying the ad valorem property taxes and any special assessments levied against the land and structure;

(3) The occupant or the cooperative association has signed a land lease; and

(4) The term of the land lease is at least 50 years, notwithstanding the fact that the amount of the rental payment may be renegotiated at shorter intervals.

Sec. 3. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 278.05, Subdivision 4, is amended to read:

Subd. 4. [SALES RATIO STUDIES AS EVIDENCE.] The sales ratio studies published by the department of revenue, or any part of the studies, or any copy of the studies or records accumulated to prepare the studies which is prepared by the commissioner of revenue for the equalization aid review committee for use in determining school aids shall be admissible in evidence as a public record without the laying of a foundation. Additional evidence relevant to the sales ratio study is also admissible.

Sec. 4. [EFFECTIVE DATE.]

Sections 1 and 2 are effective for property taxes levied in 1982 and thereafter, payable in 1983 and thereafter.

ARTICLE XXIV

Section 1. [OLMSTED COUNTY RECORDER'S FEES.]

The Olmsted County recorder may waive the security deposit requirement of Minnesota Statutes, Section 386.78, and extend credit for the payment of charges to financial institutions and attorneys.

Sec. 2. [SOUTH ST. PAUL; PORT AUTHORITY.]

The governing body of the city of South St. Paul may exercise all the powers of a port authority provided by Minnesota Statutes, Chapter 458, including the powers given to the port authority of the city of St. Paul under that chapter.

Sec. 3. [LOCAL APPROVAL; EFFECTIVE DATE.]

Section 1 is effective the day after compliance with Minnesota Statutes, Section 645.021, Subdivision 3, by the Olmsted County board.

Section 2 is effective the day after compliance with Minnesota Statutes, Section 645.021, Subdivision 3, by the governing body of the city of South St. Paul.

ARTICLE XXV

Section 1. [HOTEL AND MOTEL TAX.]

A tax, supplemental to the general sales tax imposed by Minnesota Statutes, Chapter 297A, is imposed on transient lodging in the city of St. Paul at a rate equal to three percent of the consideration paid for lodging and related services by a hotel, rooming house, tourist court, motel or trailer camp or for the granting of any similar license to use real property. The tax does not apply to a rental or lease for 30 or more days continuously. This tax supersedes any similar tax imposed pursuant to city charter. The tax shall be collected by and its proceeds paid to the city. At least 25 percent of the revenues generated by the tax shall be used for the payment of the bonds and any interest or premium on the bonds authorized by section 2.

Sec. 2. [BONDING AUTHORITY; PLEDGE OF SECURITY.]

The city of Saint Paul may, by resolution, authorize, issue and sell general obligation or special obligation bonds in an amount not to exceed $4,000,000 to finance any expenditure for the repair, remodeling, equipping, construction, reconstruction and betterment of the civic center parking ramp. Except as provided by this section the bonds shall be authorized, issued and sold in the same manner and subject to the conditions provided in Minnesota Statutes, Chapter 475. Any special tax imposed by section 1 in the city of Saint Paul, any tax increment generated by private development in, and net revenues from, the operation of the civic center complex shall be pledged in whole or in part to the payment of the bonds authorized by this article and the interest and any premium on them. When any revenues, tax increment, or any special tax imposed by the city are pledged in whole or part for the repayment of general obligation bonds authorized by this article, including any interest or premium on them, the estimated collections of the revenues or taxes pledged shall be deducted from the general ad valorem taxes otherwise required to be levied before the issuance of the bonds under Minnesota Statutes, Section 475.61, Subdivision 1, or the collections of them may be certified annually to reduce or cancel the initial tax levies in accordance with Minnesota Statutes, Section 475.61, Subdivision 1 or 3. Notwithstanding any contrary provision of Minnesota Statutes, Chapter 475, or any other law or charter provision, the bonds may be authorized, issued and sold without a vote of the electorate and without limit as to interest rate and the issue shall not be included in the net debt or per capita tax limitations of the city. If the bonds are special obligation bonds, the city may exercise any of the powers granted an authority for issuing revenue bonds under Minnesota Statutes, Section 273.77, paragraph (c).

Sec. 3. [STATUTORY EXCEPTION.]

The taxes imposed by this article are effective notwithstanding Minnesota Statutes, Section 477A.016, or other law.

Sec. 4. [LEASE, DISPOSITION AND EXEMPTION OF PROPERTY; TRANSFER OF LIQUOR LICENSE.]

Notwithstanding any contrary provision of law or charter, the civic center authority and the city of St. Paul may license or lease the operation of the civic center complex or any part thereof for any period of time by agreement in which the city retains title to the property and requires operation of the civic center complex for the public purposes contemplated in Laws 1967, Chapter 459, as amended by Laws 1969, Chapter 1138. The use and operation of the property, whether by the civic center authority or its licensee or lessee is declared a use, lease or occupancy for public, governmental, and municipal purposes, and the property shall be exempt from taxation by the state or any political subdivision of the state during such use. The city may lease or sell land, including air rights, and improvements thereon which are a part of the civic center complex no longer required for civic center purposes upon the determination by the authority that private development and usage is compatible with operation of the civic center. The land disposition shall be in the manner provided by Minnesota Statutes, Section 458.196, and the land so disposed of shall be subject to all applicable taxes and assessments as if the property were privately owned. The city may issue or transfer the additional liquor license authorized by Laws 1969, Chapter 783, at the civic center to the operational licensee or lessee in lieu of its food catering contractor.

Sec. 5. [ADMINISTRATION; BOND SECURITY.]

The authority shall be responsible for the repair or betterments to be carried out with the proceeds of bonds authorized in section 2. The authority shall receive all rents or fees from a lease or license of civic center facilities. The authority shall monitor operation by any lease or license of civic center facilities. The provisions of Laws 1969, Chapter 1138, Section 3, are hereby amended to the extent necessary for implementation of any lease or license authorized under section 2.

Sec. 6. [EMPLOYMENT RIGHTS.]

In the event of a lease or license, permanent, full-time civic center employees shall be protected in their rights, including retirement benefits, in accordance with city civil service rules and the terms of their collective bargaining agreement, the city shall provide police protection equal to or greater than that provided in 1981 and the civic center authority shall reserve the right in any such lease or license to disapprove any event sponsored at the civic center complex.

Sec. 7. [EFFECTIVE DATE.]

This article is effective the day after compliance with Minnesota Statutes, Section 645.021, Subdivision 3, by the governing body of the city of St. Paul.

ARTICLE XXVI

Section 1. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 270.75, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 6. The provisions of this section shall not apply to interest payable on timely paid installment payments of estate tax permitted under sections 291.11, subdivision 1, or 291.132, subdivision 2.

Sec. 2. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 291.015, as amended by Laws 1981, Third Special Session Chapter 2, Article VI, Section 2, is amended to read:

291.015 [DETERMINATION OF MINNESOTA TAXABLE ESTATE.]

The Minnesota taxable estate of a decedent shall be the Minnesota gross estate less the sum of:

(1) The exemptions and deductions allowed pursuant to sections 291.05,

291.051, 291.065, 291.07, and 291.08; and

(2) The sum of

$225,000 for decedents dying ~~after June 30,~~ in 1982;
$275,000 for decedents dying in 1983;
$325,000 for decedents dying in 1984;
$400,000 for decedents dying in 1985;
$500,000 for decedents dying in 1986;
$600,000 for decedents dying in 1987 and thereafter, multiplied by a fraction, not greater than one, the numerator of which shall be the value of the Minnesota gross estate and the denominator of which shall be the value of the federal gross estate.

Sec. 3. Minnesota Statutes 1981 Supplement, Section 291.03, Subdivision 3, as amended by Laws 1981, Third Special Session Chapter 2, Article VI, Section 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [1982.] In the case of a decedent dying ~~after June 30,~~ in 1982, subdivision 1, clause (1), shall be applied by substituting for the rates prescribed therein the following rates:

7 percent on the first $75,000,
8 percent on the next $100,000 or part thereof,
9 percent on the next $100,000 or part thereof,
10 percent on the next $200,000 or part thereof,
11 percent on the next $500,000 or part thereof,
12 percent on the excess.

Sec. 4. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 291.051, Subdivision 1, as amended by Laws 1981, Third Special Session Chapter 2, Article VI, Section 4, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. For the purpose of section 291.015, clause (1), the Minnesota taxable estate shall be determined by deducting from the Minnesota gross estate the value of any interest in property other than a terminable interest for which no deduction is allowed under section 2056~~(b)~~ of the Internal Revenue Code, which passes or has passed from the decedent to his surviving spouse, but only to the extent that the interest is included in determining the value of the Minnesota gross estate and is not exempt from estate tax under sections 291.05 or 291.065. An interest in property shall be considered as passing from the decedent to his surviving spouse if it is considered as so passing under Section 2056~~(c)~~ of the Internal Revenue Code.

Sec. 5. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 291.09, Subdivision 1a, as amended by Laws 1981, Third Special Session Chapter 2, Article VI, Section 5, is amended to read:

Subd. 1a. In all instances in which a decedent dies after December 31, 1979 and before January 1, 1981 leaving a federal gross estate in excess of $161,000 and in all instances in which a decedent dies after December 31, 1980 and before ~~July~~ January 1, 1982 leaving a federal gross estate in excess of $175,000, and the decedent has an interest in property with a situs in Minnesota, the personal representative shall submit to the commissioner, on a form prescribed by the commissioner, a Minnesota estate tax return.

In the case of a decedent dying after ~~June 30, 1982~~ December 31, 1981 who has an interest in property with a situs in Minnesota, the personal representative shall submit to the commissioner, on a form prescribed by the commissioner, a Minnesota estate tax return in the following instances:

In the case of a decedent dying in	A Minnesota estate tax return shall be filed if the federal gross estate equals or exceeds

1987 and thereafter	600,000.

The return shall be accompanied by a federal estate tax return and shall contain a computation of the Minnesota estate tax due. The return shall be signed by the personal representative.

Sec. 6. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 291.15, is amended to read:

291.15 [INTEREST.]

~~(1)~~ Subdivision 1. If ~~such~~ the tax is not paid within nine months from the accruing thereof, interest shall be charged and collected thereon at the rate specified in section 270.75 from the due date until the date the tax is paid. In the event a person or corporation upon proper authorization makes a payment to be applied against the tax thereafter, no interest shall accrue on the amount so paid. All payments shall be applied first to penalties, next to interest and then upon principal.

~~(2) In the event that~~ Subd. 2. If the amount applied against the tax exceeds the tax as determined by the commissioner of revenue, the commissioner shall upon proper application order the refundment without interest. The commissioner of finance shall cause ~~such~~ the refund to be paid out of the proceeds of the tax imposed by this chapter, and so much of ~~said~~ the proceeds as are sufficient to make the refund are hereby appropriated.

Subd. 3. Interest shall be paid on installment payments of the tax authorized under section 291.11, subdivision 1, or 291.132, subdivision 2, at the rate of interest in effect pursuant to section 270.75 nine months following the date of death.

Sec. 7.

Any interest paid on installment payments of estate taxes under the provisions of Laws 1981, Third Special Session Chapter 2, Article III, Section 1, at a higher rate than the rate provided in section 6 shall be credited to interest subsequently required to be paid by the taxpayer.

Sec. 8. Laws 1981, Third Special Session Chapter 2, Article VI, Section 8, is amended to read:

Sec. 8. [EFFECTIVE DATE.]

Sections 1 to 7 are effective for estates of decedents dying after ~~June 30, 1982~~ December 31, 1981, provided that the provisions of PL 97-34 that are made retroactive pursuant to section 421(k)(5) shall be effective for estates of decedents dying after December 31, 1979.

Sec. 9. [EFFECTIVE DATE.]

Sections 1 to 8 are effective the day following final enactment.

ARTICLE XXVII

Section 1. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 105.482, Subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [PURPOSE.] The public health, safety, and welfare is promoted by the orderly repair and restoration of dams serving the public interest and by the use of existing dams and potential dam sites for hydroelectric or hydromechanical power generation wherever that use is economically justified and environmentally sound. In furtherance of this objective, it is the purpose of this section to facilitate the repair and restoration of dams owned by the state and local governmental units and to investigate and analyze hydroelectric or hydromechanical generating capability of publicly owned dams and potential dam sites.

Sec. 2. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 105.482, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 8. [HYDROPOWER GENERATION POLICY; LEASING OF DAMS AND DAM SITES.] Consistent with laws relating to dam construction, reconstruction, repair, and maintenance, the legislature finds that the public health, safety, and welfare of the state is also promoted by the use of state waters to produce hydroelectric or hydromechanical power. Further, the legislature finds that the leasing of existing dams and potential dam sites primarily for such power generation is a valid public purpose. A local governmental unit, or the commissioner of natural resources with the approval of the state executive council, may provide pursuant to a lease or development agreement for the development and operation of dams, dam sites, and hydroelectric or hydromechanical power generation plants owned by the respective government by an individual, a corporation, an organization, or other legal entity upon such terms and conditions as the local governmental unit or the commissioner may negotiate for a period not to exceed 50 years. If the dam, dam site or power generation plant is located in or contiguous to a city or town, other than the lessor governmental unit, the lease or agreement shall not be effective unless it is approved by the governing body of such city or town. For purposes of this subdivision, city means a statutory or home rule charter city.

Sec. 3. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 105.482, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 9. [CONTENTS OF DEVELOPMENT AGREEMENT.] An agreement for the development or redevelopment of a hydropower site may contain, but need not be limited to, the following provisions:

(a) Length of the development agreement, subject to negotiations between the parties but not more than 50 years, and conditions for extension, modification, or termination;

(b) Provisions for a performance bond on the developer, or, certification that the equipment and its installation have a design life at least as long as the lease;

(c) Provisions to assure adequate maintenance and safety in the impoundment structures, if any, and to assure access to recreational sites, if any.

Sec. 4. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 272.02, Subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. Except as provided in other subdivisions of this section or in section 272.025 or section 273.13, subdivisions 17, 17b, 17c or 17d, all property described in this section to the extent herein limited shall be exempt from taxation:

(1) All public burying grounds;

(2) All public schoolhouses;

(3) All public hospitals;

(4) All academies, colleges, and universities, and all seminaries of learning;

(5) All churches, church property, and houses of worship;

(6) Institutions of purely public charity except property assessed pursuant to section 273.13, subdivisions 17, 17b, 17c or 17d;

(7) All public property exclusively used for any public purpose;

(8) All natural cheese held in storage for aging by the original Minnesota manufacturer;

(9) (a) Class 2 property of every household of the value of $100, maintained in the principal place of residence of the owner thereof. The county auditor shall deduct such exemption from the total valuation of such property as equalized by the revenue commissioner assessed to such household, and extend the levy of taxes upon the remainder only. The term "household" as used in this section is defined to be a domestic establishment maintained either (1) by two or more persons living together within the same house or place of abode, subsisting in common and constituting a domestic or family relationship, or (2) by one person.

(b) During the period of his active service and for six months after his discharge therefrom, no member of the armed forces of the United States shall lose status of a householder under paragraph (a) which he had immediately prior to becoming a member of the armed forces.

In case there is an assessment against more than one member of a household the $100 exemption shall be divided among the members assessed in the proportion that the assessed value of the Class 2 property of each bears to the total assessed value of the Class 2 property of all the members assessed. The Class 2 property of each household claimed to be exempt shall be limited to property in one taxing district, except in those cases where a single domestic establishment is maintained in two or more adjoining districts.

Bonds and certificates of indebtedness hereafter issued by the state of Minnesota, or by any county or city of the state, or any town, or any common or independent school district of the state, or any governmental board of the state, or any county or city thereof, shall hereafter be exempt from taxation; provided, that nothing herein contained shall be construed as exempting such bonds from the payment of a tax thereon, as provided for by section 291.01, when any of such bonds constitute, in whole or in part, any inheritance or bequest, taken or received by any person or corporation.

(10) Farm machinery manufactured prior to 1930, which is used only for display purposes as a collectors item;

(11) The taxpayer shall be exempted with respect to, all agricultural products, inventories, stocks of merchandise of all sorts, all materials, parts and supplies, furniture and equipment, manufacturers material, manufactured articles including the inventories of manufacturers, wholesalers, retailers and contractors; and the furnishings of a room or apartment in a hotel, rooming house, tourist court, motel or trailer camp, tools and machinery which by law are considered as personal property, and the property described in section 272.03, subdivision 1, clause (c), except personal property which is part of an electric generating, transmission, or distribution system or a pipeline system transporting or distributing water, gas, or petroleum products or mains and pipes used in the distribution of steam or hot or chilled water for heating or cooling buildings and structures. Railroad docks and wharves which are part of the operating property of a railroad company as defined in section 270.80 are not exempt.

(12) Containers of a kind customarily in the possession of the consumer during the consumption of commodities, the sale of which are subject to tax under the provisions of the excise tax imposed by Extra Session Laws 1967, Chapter 32;

(13) All livestock, poultry, all horses, mules and other animals used exclusively for agricultural purposes;

(14) All agricultural tools, implements and machinery used by the owners in any agricultural pursuit.

(15) Real and personal property used primarily for the abatement and control of air, water, or land pollution to the extent that it is so used, other than real property used primarily as a solid waste disposal site.

Any taxpayer requesting exemption of all or a portion of any equipment or device, or part thereof, operated primarily for the control or abatement of air or water pollution shall file an application with the commissioner of revenue. Any such equipment or device shall meet standards, regulations or criteria prescribed by the Minnesota Pollution Control Agency, and must be installed or operated in accordance with a permit or order issued by that agency. The Minnesota Pollution Control Agency shall upon request of the commissioner furnish information or advice to the commissioner. If the commissioner determines that property qualifies for exemption, he shall issue an order exempting such property from taxation. Any such equipment or device shall continue to be exempt from taxation as long as the permit issued by the Minnesota Pollution Control Agency remains in effect.

(16) Wetlands. For purposes of this subdivision, "wetlands" means land which is mostly under water, produces little if any income, and has no use except for wildlife or water conservation purposes. "Wetlands" shall be land preserved in its natural condition, drainage of which would be feasible and practical and would provide land suitable for the production of livestock, dairy animals, poultry, fruit, vegetables, forage and grains, except wild rice. "Wetlands" shall include adjacent land which is not suitable for agricultural purposes due to the presence of the wetlands. Exemption of wetlands from taxation pursuant to this section shall not grant the public any additional or greater right of access to the wetlands or diminish any right of ownership to the wetlands.

(17) Native prairie. The commissioner of the department of natural resources shall determine lands in the state which are native prairie and shall notify the county assessor of each county in which the lands are located. Upon receipt of an application for the exemption and credit provided in this clause and section 273.116 for lands for which the assessor has no determination from the commissioner of natural resources, the assessor shall refer the application to the commissioner of natural resources who shall determine within 30 days whether the land is native prairie and notify the county assessor of his decision. Exemption of native prairie pursuant to this clause shall not grant the public any additional or greater right of access to the native prairie or diminish any right of ownership to it.

(18) To the extent provided by section 5, real and personal property used or to be used primarily for the production of hydroelectric or hydromechanical power on a site owned by the state or a local governmental unit which is developed and operated pursuant to the provisions of sections 1 to 3.

Sec. 5. [295.44] [HYDROPOWER FACILITIES; EXEMPTION; TAXATION IN LIEU OF PROPERTY TAXATION.]

Subdivision 1. [EXEMPTION.] Notwithstanding the provisions of sections 272.01, subdivision 2, 272.02, subdivision 5, and 273.19, subdivision 1, real or personal property used or to be used primarily for the production of hydroelectric or hydromechanical power on a site owned by the state or a local governmental unit and developed and operated pursuant to sections 1 to 3 shall be exempt from property taxation for the five calendar years succeeding the year in which the development agreement is executed.

Subd. 2. [GROSS EARNINGS TAX.] On or before March first of each year, every lessee or operator of a hydropower facility pursuant to sections 1 to 3 shall pay into the treasury of the county where the hydropower facility is principally located ten percent of the gross earnings of the facility for the preceding calendar year. This tax shall be in lieu of all ad valorem taxes upon the real or personal property of the hydropower facility for the calendar year, and the tax shall be imposed for as long as the property is exempt from property taxation under subdivision 1.

Subd. 3. [PROCEEDS; DISTRIBUTION.] The county auditor shall distribute the proceeds of the gross earnings tax to the taxing districts in which the hydropower facility is located. The proceeds shall be apportioned on the basis of the mill rates of the respective taxing districts. If the facility consists of two or more parcels of property which are located in different taxing districts, the proceeds of the tax shall first be apportioned on the basis of the market value of the respective parcels in each of the taxing districts and then apportioned on the basis of the respective taxing districts' mill rates.

Subd. 4. [CALCULATION OF LEVY LIMITS.] In calculating the levy limits pursuant to sections 275.50 to 275.515, the amount of any proceeds of the gross receipts tax distributed to a governmental subdivision shall be deducted from the levy limitation determined under section 275.51, subdivision 3e for the year following the year in which the distribution was received.

Sec. 6. [EFFECTIVE DATE.]

This article is effective the day following final enactment.

ARTICLE XXVIII

Section 1. Minnesota Statutes 1981 Supplement, Section 290.081, is amended to read:

290.081 [INCOME OF NONRESIDENTS, RECIPROCITY.]

(a) The compensation received for the performance of personal or professional services within this state by an individual who resides and has his place of abode and place to which he customarily returns at least once a month in another state, shall be excluded from gross income to the extent such compensation is subject to an income tax imposed by the state of his residence; provided that such state allows a similar exclusion of compensation received by residents of Minnesota for services performed therein, or

(b) Whenever a nonresident taxpayer has become liable for income taxes to the state where he resides upon his net income for the taxable year derived from the performance of personal or professional services within this state and subject to taxation under this chapter, there shall be allowed as a credit against the amount of income tax payable by him under this chapter, such proportion of the tax so paid by him to the state where he resides as his gross income subject to taxation under this chapter bears to his entire gross income upon which the tax so paid to such other state was imposed; provided, that such credit shall be allowed only if the laws of such state grant a substantially similar credit to residents of this state subject to income tax under such laws, or

(c) If any taxpayer who is a resident of this state, or a domestic corporation or corporation commercially domiciled therein, has become liable for taxes on or measured by net income to another state or a province or territory of Canada upon, if the taxpayer is an individual, or if the taxpayer is an athletic team and all of the team's income is apportioned to Minnesota, any income, or if it is a corporation, estate, or trust, upon income derived from the performance of personal or professional services within such other state or province or territory of Canada and subject to taxation under this chapter he or it shall be entitled to a credit against the amount of taxes payable under this chapter, of such proportion thereof, as such gross income subject to taxation in such state or province or territory of Canada bears to his entire gross income subject to taxation under this chapter; provided (1) that such credit shall in no event exceed the amount of tax so paid to such other state or province or territory of Canada on the gross income earned within such other state or province or territory of Canada and subject to taxation under this chapter, and (2) that such credit shall not be allowed if such other state or province or territory of Canada allows residents of this state a credit against the taxes imposed by such state or province or territory of Canada for taxes payable under this chapter substantially similar to the credit provided for by paragraph (b) of this section, and (3) the allowance of such credit shall not operate to reduce the taxes payable under this chapter to an amount less than would have been payable if the gross income earned in such other state or province or territory of Canada had been excluded in computing net income under this chapter.

(d) The commissioner shall by regulation determine with respect to gross income earned in any other state the applicable clause of this section. When it is deemed to be in the best interests of the people of this state, the commissioner may determine that the provisions of clause (a) shall not apply.

(e) "Tax So Paid" as used in this section means taxes on or measured by net income payable to another state or province or territory of Canada on income earned within the taxable year for which the credit is claimed, provided that such tax is actually paid in that taxable year, or subsequent taxable years.

(f) For the purposes of clause (a), whenever the Wisconsin tax on Minnesota residents which would have been paid Wisconsin without clause (a) exceeds the Minnesota tax on Wisconsin residents which would have been paid Minnesota without clause (a), or vice versa, then the state with the net revenue loss resulting from clause (a) shall receive from the other state the amount of such loss. This provision shall be effective for all years beginning after December 31, 1972. The data used for computing the loss to either state shall be determined on or before September 30 of the year following the close of the previous calendar year.

Interest shall be payable on all delinquent balances relating to taxable years beginning after December 31, 1977. The commissioner of revenue is authorized to enter into agreements with the state of Wisconsin specifying the reciprocity payment due date, conditions constituting delinquency, interest rates, and a method for computing interest due on any delinquent amounts.

If an agreement cannot be reached as to the amount of the loss, the commissioner of revenue and the taxing official of the state of Wisconsin shall each appoint a member of a board of arbitration and these members shall appoint the third member of the board. The board shall select one of its members as chairman. Such board may administer oaths, take testimony, subpoena witnesses, and require their attendance, require the production of books, papers and documents, and hold hearings at such places as are deemed necessary. The board shall then make a determination as to the amount to be paid the other state which determination shall be final and conclusive.

Notwithstanding the provisions of section 290.61, the commissioner may furnish copies of returns, reports, or other information to the taxing official of the state of Wisconsin, a member of the board of arbitration, or a consultant under joint contract with the states of Minnesota and Wisconsin for the purpose of making a determination as to the amount to be paid the other state under the provisions of this section. Prior to the release of any information under the provisions of this section, the person to whom the information is to be released shall sign an agreement which provides that he will protect the confidentiality of the returns and information revealed thereby to the extent that it is protected under the laws of the state of Minnesota.

Sec. 2. Minnesota Statutes 1981 Supplement, Section 290.17, Subdivision 2, as amended by Laws 1981, Third Special Session Chapter 2, Article 3, Section 13, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [OTHER TAXPAYERS.] In the case of taxpayers not subject to the provisions of subdivision 1, items of gross income shall be assigned to this state or other states or countries in accordance with the following principles:

(1) (a) The entire income of all resident or domestic taxpayers from compensation for labor or personal services, or from a business consisting principally of the performance of personal or professional services, shall be assigned to this state, and the income of nonresident taxpayers from such sources shall be assigned to this state if, and to the extent that, the labor or services are performed within it; all other income from such sources shall be treated as income from sources without this state;.

(b) In the case of an individual who is a nonresident of Minnesota and who is an athlete or entertainer, income from compensation for labor or personal services performed within this state shall be determined in the following manner.

(i) The amount of income to be assigned to Minnesota for an individual who is a nonresident salaried athletic team employee shall be determined by using a fraction in which the denominator contains the total number of days in which the individual is under a duty to perform for the employer, and the numerator is the total number of those days spent in Minnesota. In order to eliminate the need to file state or provincial income tax returns in several states or provinces, Minnesota will exclude from income any income assigned to Minnesota under the provisions of this clause for a nonresident athlete who is employed by an athletic team whose operations are not based in this state if the state or province in which the athletic team is based provides a similar income exclusion. If the state or province in which the athletic team's operations are based does not have an income tax on an individual's personal service income, it will be deemed that that state or province has a similar income exclusion. As used in the preceding sentence, the term "province" means a province of Canada.

(ii) The amount of income to be assigned to Minnesota for an individual who is a nonresident, and who is an athlete not listed in clause (i), or who is an entertainer, for that person's athletic or entertainment performance in Minnesota shall be determined by assigning to this state all income from performances or athletic contests in this state.

(2) Income from the operation of a farm shall be assigned to this state if the farm is located within this state and to other states only if the farm is not located in this state. Income and gains received from tangible property not employed in the business of the recipient of such income or gains, and from tangible property employed in the business of such recipient if such business consists principally of the holding of such property and the collection of the income and gains therefrom, shall be assigned to this state if such property has a situs within it, and to other states only if it has no situs in this state. Income or gains from intangible personal property not employed in the business of the recipient of such income or gains, and from intangible personal property employed in the business of such recipient if such business consists principally of the holding of such property and the collection of the income and gains therefrom, wherever held, whether in trust, or otherwise, shall be assigned to this state if the recipient thereof is domiciled within this state; income or gains from intangible personal property wherever held, whether in trust or otherwise shall be assigned to this state if the recipient of such income or gains is domiciled within this state, or if the grantor of any trust is domiciled within this state and such income or gains would be taxable to such grantor under section 290.28 or 290.29;

(3) Income derived from carrying on a trade or business, including in the case of a business owned by natural persons the income imputable to the owner for his services and the use of his property therein, shall be assigned to this state if the trade or business is conducted wholly within this state, and to other states if conducted wholly without this state. This provision shall not apply to business income subject to the provisions of clause (1);

(4) When a trade or business is carried on partly within and partly without this state, the entire income derived from such trade or business including income from intangible property employed in such business and including, in the case of a business owned by natural persons, the income imputable to the owner for his services and the use of his property therein, shall be governed, except as otherwise provided in sections 290.35 and 290.36, by the provisions of section 290.19, notwithstanding any provisions of this section to the contrary. This shall not apply to business income subject to the provisions of clause (1), nor shall it apply to income from the operation of a farm which is subject to the provisions of clause (2). For the purposes of this clause, a trade or business located in Minnesota is carried on partly within and partly without this state if tangible personal property is sold by such trade or business and delivered or shipped to a purchaser located outside the state of Minnesota.

If the trade or business carried on wholly or partly in Minnesota is part of a unitary business, the entire income of that unitary business shall be subject to apportionment under section 290.19. The term "unitary business" shall mean a number of business activities or operations which are of mutual benefit, dependent upon, or contributory to one another, individually or as a group. Unity shall be presumed whenever there is unity of ownership, operation, and use, evidenced by centralized management or executive force, centralized purchasing, advertising, accounting, or other controlled interaction. Unity of ownership will not be deemed to exist unless the corporation owns more than 50 percent of the voting stock of the other corporation.

The entire income of a unitary business, including all income from each activity, operation or division, shall be subject to apportionment as provided in section 290.19. None of the income of a unitary business shall be considered as derived from any particular source and none shall be allocated to any particular place except as provided by the applicable apportionment formula.

In determining whether or not intangible property is employed in a unitary business carried on partly within and partly without this state so that income derived therefrom is subject to apportionment under section 290.19 the following rules and guidelines shall apply.

(a) Intangible property is employed in a business if the business entity owning intangible property holds it as a means of furthering the business operation of which a part is located within the territorial confines of this state.

(b) Where a business operation conducted in Minnesota, is owned by a business entity which carries on business activity outside of the state different in kind from that conducted within this state, and such other business is conducted entirely outside the state, it will be presumed that the two business operations are unitary in nature, interrelated, connected and interdependent unless it can be shown to the contrary.

(5) In the case of a nonresident who is liable for payment of a penalty for having withdrawn funds from an individual housing account established pursuant to section 290.08, subdivision 25, the amount so withdrawn and for which a deduction was allowed shall be an item of income assignable to this state, and the penalty tax of ten percent shall remain an additional liability of that taxpayer.

(6) For purposes of this section, amounts received by a non-resident from the United States, its agencies or instrumentalities, the Federal Reserve Bank, the state of Minnesota or any of its political or governmental subdivisions, or a Minnesota volunteer fireman's relief association, by way of payment as a pension, public employee retirement benefit, or any combination thereof, or as a retirement or survivor's benefit made from a plan qualifying under section 401, 403, 404, 405, 408, 409 or 409A of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, as amended through December 31, 1979, are not considered income derived from carrying on a trade or business or from performing personal or professional services in Minnesota, and are not taxable under this chapter.

(7) All other items of gross income shall be assigned to the taxpayer's domicile.

Sec. 3. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 290.19, Subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [COMPUTATION, BUSINESS CONDUCTED PARTLY WITHIN STATE; APPORTIONMENT.] The taxable net income from a trade or business carried on partly within and partly without this state shall be computed by deducting from the gross income of such business, wherever derived, deductions of the kind permitted by section 290.09, so far as connected with or allocable against the production or receipt of such income. The remaining net income shall be apportioned to Minnesota as follows:

(1) If the business consists of the mining, producing, smelting, refining, or any combination of these activities of copper and nickel ores, or of the manufacture of personal property and the sale of said property within and without the state, the remainder shall be apportioned to Minnesota on the basis of the percentage obtained by taking the arithmetical average of the following three percentages:

(a) The percentage which the sales made within this state is of the total sales wherever made;

(b) The percentage which the total tangible property, real, personal, and mixed, owned or rented, and used by the taxpayer in this state during the tax period in connection with such trade or business is of the total tangible property, real, personal, or mixed, wherever located, owned or rented and, used by the taxpayer in connection with such trade or business during the tax period; and,

(c) The percentage which the taxpayer's total payrolls paid or incurred in this state or paid in respect to labor performed in this state in connection with such trade or business is of the taxpayer's total payrolls paid or incurred in connection with such entire trade or business;

(d) The percentage of such remainder to be assigned to this state shall not be in excess of the sum of the following percentages: 70 percent of the percentage determined under clause (1) (a), 15 percent of the percentage determined under clause (1) (b), and 15 percent of the percentage determined under clause (1) (c);

(2) (a) In all other cases the remainder shall be apportioned to Minnesota on the basis of the percentage obtained by taking the arithmetical average of the following three percentages:

(1) The percentage which the sales, gross earnings, or receipts from business operations, in whole or in part, within this state bear to the total sales, gross earnings, or receipts from business operations wherever conducted;

(2) The percentage which the total tangible property, real, personal, and mixed, owned or rented, and used by the taxpayer in this state during the tax period in connection with such trade or business is of the total tangible property, real, personal, or mixed, wherever located, owned, or rented, and used by the taxpayer in connection with such trade or business during the tax period; and

(3) The percentage which the taxpayer's total payrolls paid or incurred in this state or paid in respect to labor performed in this state in connection with such trade or business is of the taxpayer's total payrolls paid or incurred in connection with such entire trade or business;

(4) The percentage of such remainder to be assigned to this state shall not be in excess of the sum of the following percentages: 70 percent of the percentage determined under clause (2) (a) (1), 15 percent of the percentage determined under clause (2) (a) (2), and 15 percent of the percentage determined under clause (2) (a) (3);

(b) If the methods prescribed under clause (2) (a) will not properly reflect taxable net income assignable to the state, there may be used, if practicable and if such use will properly and fairly reflect such income, the percentage which the sales, gross earnings, or receipts from business operations, in whole or in part, within this state bear to the total sales, gross earnings, or receipts from business operations wherever conducted; or the separate or segregated accounting method; however, for athletic teams when the visiting team does not share in the gate receipts, all of the team's income is apportioned to the state in which the team's operation is based;

(3) The sales, payrolls, earnings, and receipts referred to in this section shall be those for the taxable year in respect of which the tax is being computed. The property referred to in this section shall be the average of the property owned or used by the taxpayer during the taxable year in respect of which the tax is being computed.

Sec. 4. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 290.92, Subdivision 4a, is amended to read:

Subd. 4a. [TAX WITHHELD FROM NONRESIDENTS.] (1) ["WAGES" PAID TO NONRESIDENT EMPLOYEES.] For the purposes of this section: The term "wages" means all remuneration taxable under this chapter including all remuneration paid to a nonresident employee for services performed in this state.

(2) ["EMPLOYER", "WAGES" AND "EMPLOYEE" CONCERNING NONRESIDENTS.] Notwithstanding any other provision of this section, under rules and regulations to be prescribed by the commissioner of revenue, for purposes of this section any person having control, receipt, custody, disposal or payment of compensation taxable under this chapter and earned by a nonresident for personal services, shall be deemed an employer, any compensation taxable under this chapter and earned by a nonresident for personal services shall be deemed wages, and a nonresident entitled to compensation taxable under this chapter and earned by him for personal services shall be deemed an employee.

When compensation for personal services is paid to a corporation in which all or substantially all of the shareholders are individual entertainers, performers or athletes who gave an entertainment or athletic performance in this state for which the compensation was paid, the compensation shall be deemed wages of the individual entertainers, performers or athletes and shall be subject to the provisions of this section. Advance payments of compensation for personal services to be performed in Minnesota shall be deemed wages and subject to the provisions of this section. The individual, and not the corporation, shall be subject to the Minnesota income tax as provided in this chapter on the compensation for personal services.

(3) [NONRESIDENTS, EMPLOYER'S DUTY.] The employer of any employee domiciled in a state with which Minnesota has reciprocity under section 290.081 is not required to withhold under this chapter from the wages earned by such employee in this state.

Sec. 5. [EFFECTIVE DATE.]

Section 2 is effective for taxable years ending after the date of final enactment. Sections 1, 3, and 4 are effective the day after final enactment.

ARTICLE XXIX

Section 1. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 290.06, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 15. [CORPORATIONS; CREDIT.] A corporation doing business in Minnesota which:

(1) purchases less than 20 percent of the value of its raw materials from other members of the unitary group;

(2) sells less than 15 percent of the value of its final products to other members of the unitary group;

(3) has total sales in Minnesota of less than 1/10 of one percent of the total sales of the unitary group;

(4) has more than 40 percent of its employees in Minnesota; and

(5) is a separate corporate entity; shall be granted a credit equal to the difference in the amount of tax computed on a combined report under section 290.34, subdivision 2, and the amount of tax computed for that corporation only. This credit is not refundable. This credit applies only to a corporation if the inclusion of the corporation in a combined report would result in that corporation being liable for a state income tax in excess of four percent of its total sales in Minnesota and if the main manufacturing plant of that corporation is located within the city limits of the county seat of a county that, based on the 1980 federal census, contains between 11,500 and 13,000 people.

Sec. 2. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 290.095, Subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [CARRYOVER AND CARRYBACK.] (a) Except as provided in clause (d) or subdivision 8, a net operating loss for any taxable year shall be:

(1) A net operating loss carryback to each of the three taxable years preceding the taxable year of such loss, and

(2) A net operating loss carryover to each of the five taxable years following the taxable year of such loss.

(b) The entire amount of the net operating loss for any taxable year shall be carried to the earliest of the taxable years to which, by reason of subdivision 3, clause (a) or (d), such loss may be carried. The portion of such loss which shall be carried to each of the other taxable years shall be the excess, if any, of the amount of such loss over the sum of the taxable net income, adjusted by the modifications specified in subdivision 4, for each of the prior taxable years to which such loss may be carried.

(c) Where a corporation does business both within and without Minnesota, and apportions its income under the provisions of section 290.19, the net operating loss deduction shall be allowed to the extent of the apportionment ratio of the loss year, or the year to which the loss is carried, whichever is smaller.

(d) Where a corporation files a combined report which reflects the entire unitary business as provided in section 290.34, subdivision 2, the corporation shall not be allowed a net operating loss carryback to a year in which it did not file a combined report. The number of taxable years for which a net operating loss carryover is allowed shall be increased by the number of taxable years for which a net operating loss carryback is not allowed under this clause.

Sec. 3. Minnesota Statutes 1981 Supplement, Section 290.21, Subdivision 4, as amended by Laws 1981, Third Special Session Chapter 2, Article III, Section 14, is amended to read:

Subd. 4. (a) 85 percent of dividends received by a corporation during the taxable year from another corporation, when the corporate stock with respect to which dividends are paid does not constitute the stock in trade of the taxpayer or would not be included in the inventory of the taxpayer, or does not constitute property held by the taxpayer primarily for sale to customers in the ordinary course of his trade or business, or when the trade or business of the taxpayer does not consist principally of the holding of the stocks and the collection of the income and gains therefrom. The remaining 15 percent shall be allowed if the recipient owns 80 percent or more of all the voting stock of such other corporation, and the dividends were paid from income arising out of business done in this state by the corporation paying such dividends; but if the income out of which the dividends are declared was derived from business done within and without this state, then so much of the remainder shall be allowed as a deduction as the amount of the taxable net income of the corporation paying the dividends assignable or allocable to this state bears to the entire net income of the corporation, such rate being determined by the returns under this chapter of the corporation paying such dividends for the taxable year preceding the distribution thereof; the burden shall be on the taxpayer of showing that the amount of remainder claimed as a deduction has been received from income arising out of business done in this state,

(b) if the trade or business of the taxpayer consists principally of the holding of the stocks and the collection of the income and gains therefrom, dividends received by a corporation during the taxable year from another corporation, if the recipient owns 80 percent or more of all the voting stock of such other corporation, from income arising out of business done in this state by the corporation paying such dividends; but, if the income out of which the dividends are declared was derived from business done within and without this state, then so much of the dividends shall be allowed as deduction as the amount of the taxable net income of the corporation paying the dividends assignable or allocable to this state bears to the entire net income of the corporation, such rate being determined by the returns under this chapter of the corporation paying such dividends for the taxable year preceding the distribution thereof. The burden shall be on the taxpayer of showing that the amount of dividends claimed as a deduction has been received from income arising out of business done in this state.

(c) The dividend deduction provided in this subdivision shall be allowed only with respect to dividends that are included in a corporation's Minnesota taxable net income for the taxable year.

(d) ~~In the case of a corporation, which is permitted or required to file a combined report under section 290.34, subdivision 2, dividends shall be excluded from the income of the recipient to the extent the dividends are already included as income on the combined report.~~ If dividends received by a corporation that does not have nexus with Minnesota under the provisions of Public Law 86-272 are included as income on the return of an affiliated corporation permitted or required to file a combined report under section 290.34, subdivision 2, then for purposes of this subdivision the determination as to whether the trade or business of the corporation consists principally of the holding of stocks and the collection of income and gains therefrom shall be made with reference to the trade or business of the affiliated corporation having a nexus with Minnesota.

Sec. 4. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 290.34, Subdivision 2, as amended by Laws 1981, Third Special Session Chapter 2, Article III, Section 15, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [AFFILIATED OR RELATED CORPORATIONS, CONSOLIDATED STATEMENTS.] When a corporation which is required to file an income tax return is affiliated with or related to any other corporation through stock ownership by the same interests or as parent or subsidiary corporations, or has its income regulated through contract or other arrangement, the commissioner of revenue may permit or require such combined report as, in his opinion, ~~are~~ is necessary in order to determine the taxable net income ~~received by~~ of any one of the affiliated or related corporations. For purposes of computing either the arithmetic average or weighted apportionment formulas under section 290.19, subdivision 1 for each corporation involved, the numerator of the fraction shall be that corporation's sales, property, ~~or~~ and payroll in Minnesota and the denominator shall be the total sales, payroll, and property of all the corporations shown on the combined report. The combined report shall reflect the income of the entire unitary business as provided in section 290.17, subdivision 2, clause (4). The combined report shall reflect income only from corporations created or organized in the United States or under the laws of the United States or of any state. ~~Specifically, it is the intent of the legislature to adopt the combined reporting method provided in Butler Brothers v. McColgan, 111 P. 2d 334, and 315 U.S. 501, and Edison California Stores v. McColgan, 183 P. 2d 16 and to treat all income as business income to the maximum extent allowable under Mobil Oil Corporation v. Commissioner of Taxes of Vermont, 445 U.S. 425.~~ All intercompany transactions between companies which are contained on the combined report shall be eliminated. This subdivision shall not apply to insurance companies whose income is determined under section 290.35.

Sec. 5. Laws 1981, Third Special Session Chapter 2, Article III, Section 22, is amended to read:

Sec. 22. [EFFECTIVE DATE.]

Sections 1 and 19 to 21 are effective February 1, 1982. The provision of section 2 relating to commodity tax straddles and section 7 are effective for taxable years beginning after December 31, 1980. The provisions of section 2 relating to the exclusion of dividend and interest income are effective for taxable years beginning after December 31, 1981. Section 2, clauses (a)(22), (b)(24), the portion of clause (a)(16) relating to recovery property, (b)(25), and sections 8, 11, and 12 are effective for property placed in service after December 31, 1980 in taxable years ending after that date. Section 2, clauses (a)(17), (b)(2), the portion of clause (a)(16) relating to gain from the sale or disposition of property and section 9 are effective for the sale or other disposition of property after June 30, 1982. Section 6 is effective for taxable years beginning after December 31, 1981. Section 10 is effective for the sale or other disposition of property after December 31, 1982. For taxpayers subject to tax under Minnesota Statutes, Chapter 290, sections 13, 14, and 15 are effective for ~~income earned after December 31, 1981~~ taxable years beginning after June 30, 1981. Section 16 is effective for taxable years beginning after December 31, 1981. Sections 17 and 18 are effective for petitions filed after January 31, 1982.

Sec. 6. [REPORT TO LEGISLATURE.]

The commissioner shall submit a report to the senate and house tax committees on March 1, 1983 and March 1, 1984 concerning the effect of the amendment to section 290.21, subdivision 4, contained in section 3. Specifically the report shall disclose, notwithstanding section 290.61, the number of corporations affected, what the effect would be without the provision, and the tax dollar amount involved since the effective date of the provision.

Sec. 7. [EFFECTIVE DATE.]

Sections 1, 2, 4, and 5 are effective for taxpayers subject to the tax under Minnesota Statutes, Chapter 290 for taxable years beginning after June 30, 1981. Section 3 is effective for taxable years beginning after December 31, 1982.

ARTICLE XXX

Section. 1. Minnesota Statutes 1981 Supplement, Section 298.225, is amended to read:

298.225 [APPROPRIATION.]

If a taconite producer ceases beneficiation operations, either temporarily or permanently, and if the recipients of the taconite production tax as provided in section 298.28, subdivision 1, clauses (1) to (4) and (5)(b) to (8), would receive decreased distributions as a result thereof, then the distribution to these recipients in each of the two years immediately following the year in which operations ceased shall be equal to the amount they received in the last full year before operations ceased. There is hereby appropriated to the commissioner of revenue from the taconite environmental protection fund and the northeast Minnesota economic protection fund in equal proportions the amount needed to make the above payments.

If a taconite producer~~,~~ ~~which~~ ceases beneficiation operations ~~either temporarily or~~ permanently~~,~~ and is required by a special law to make bond payments for a school district, the northeast Minnesota economic protection fund shall assume the payments of the taconite producer if the producer ceases to make the needed payments. There is hereby appropriated from the northeast Minnesota economic protection fund to the commissioner of revenue the amounts needed to make these school bond payments.

Sec. 2. Minnesota Statutes 1981 Supplement, Section 298.24, Subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. (a) A credit in the amount of ~~three~~ not to exceed four cents per gross ton of ~~merchantable~~ taxable iron ore concentrate produced shall be allowed against the tax imposed by subdivision 1, with respect to the production of iron ore concentrate from taconite plants which, together with the lands upon which they are located and lands used in connection with the mining, quarrying and concentration of taconite and buildings, machinery, equipment and other fixtures used in the production of taconite, and notwithstanding the provisions of section 298.25, have by law been made subject to direct taxes for the payment of principal and interest on bonds issued by a school district or city~~;~~ ~~provided however, that~~.

(b) Notwithstanding clause (a), a credit of not to exceed seven cents shall be allowed a producer for the payment of taxes for bonds, and interest on them, issued by Independent School District 703, for which the producer's property has been made subject to direct taxes.

(c) The credit allowed in this subdivision shall be allowed against taxes payable in the calendar years following the issuance and sale of the bonds until the total credit allowed in all years equals the total liability of the producer for direct taxes for the payment of the bonds and interest. If necessary to equal the total liability of the producer, the credit may be taken in years after the years when the taxes for the bond principal and interest were paid.

The ~~total~~ amount of credit allowable hereunder in any year with respect to production from any plant subjected to ~~such~~ direct taxes shall not exceed the amount of the direct taxes levied in the prior year against ~~such~~ the plant ~~and payable after January 1, 1969, and until said bonds~~ for the bonds and interest and the indebtedness secured thereby ~~have been paid in full~~, except if the credit allowed does not equal the amount levied in the prior year, then the unused credits of prior years may be used for the deficiency.

Sec. 3. [INDEPENDENT SCHOOL DISTRICTS 319 AND 703; BONDS.]

Subdivision 1. Independent School District 319 may issue bonds in an aggregate principal amount not exceeding $850,000 and Independent School District 703 may issue bonds in an aggregate principal amount not exceeding $5,480,000, in addition to any bonds already issued or authorized, to provide funds to construct, equip, furnish, remodel, rehabilitate, and acquire land for school facilities and buildings. They may spend the proceeds of the bond sale for those purposes and any architects', engineers', and legal fees incidental to those purposes or the sale. Except as permitted by this section, the bonds shall be authorized, issued, sold, executed, and delivered in the manner provided by Minnesota Statutes, Chapter 475. A resolution of the board levying taxes for the payment of the bonds and interest on them as authorized by this section and pledging the proceeds of the levies for the payment of the bonds and interest on them shall be deemed to be in compliance with the provisions of chapter 475 with respect to the levying of taxes for their payment.
them shall be deemed to be in compliance with the provisions of chapter 475 with respect to the levying of taxes for their payment.

Subd. 2. Taconite plants, lands containing taconite, and lands where taconite plants are located or which are used in connection with them and the buildings, machinery, equipment, and other fixtures used in the production of taconite, as defined in Minnesota Statutes, Sections 298.23 to 298.28, located in the school district are made subject to taxes for payment of 90 percent of the principal and interest on the bonds issued under authority of this section, notwithstanding any contrary provision of sections 298.23 to 298.28. If the properties are all owned by one person, corporation, partnership or joint venture, it shall not be necessary to make any determination of their value. If the properties are owned by more than one person, corporation, partnership or joint venture, the taxes shall be apportioned annually among them by the county auditor on the basis of their relative values, upon investigation of the facts as the auditor deems necessary. Taxes levied in accordance with subdivisions 2 to 4 shall be collected in the same manner as taxes levied by a school district upon real property subject to taxation but any portion of taxes levied for the payment of installments of principal and interest of bonds may be paid without penalty on or before October 31 of the year in which the taxes become due and payable if the installment of principal and interest is not due until more than 60 days thereafter.

Subd. 3. After the sale and before the delivery of any bonds under authority of this section, the school board shall, by resolution, levy upon all of the property described in subdivision 2 located in the school district a direct, general tax for each year of the term of the bonds in amounts that, if collected in full, will produce 90 percent of the amounts needed to meet when due the principal and interest payments on the bonds. A copy of the resolution shall be filed and the taxes levied shall be collected as nearly as possible as specified in Minnesota Statutes, Section 475.61.

Subd. 4. Bonds issued under authority of this section shall be the general obligations of the school district, for which its full faith and credit and unlimited taxing powers shall be pledged. If there are any deficiencies in the collections of the taxes levied pursuant to subdivision 3, and they are not made good as provided by section 298.225, they shall be made good by general levies, not subject to limit, on all taxable properties in the district in accordance with Minnesota Statutes, Section 475.74. If any deficiency levies are necessary, the school board may effect a temporary loan or loans on certificates of indebtedness issued in anticipation of them to meet payments of principal or interest on the bonds due or about to become due.

Subd. 5. In addition to the levies made in accordance with subdivisions 2 and 3, the school board shall at the same time by resolution levy on all property in the school district subject to the general ad valorem school tax levies, and not subject to taxation under Minnesota Statutes, Sections 298.23 to 298.28, a direct annual, ad valorem tax for each year of the term of the bonds in amounts that, if collected in full, will produce the amounts needed to meet when due ten percent of the principal and interest payments on the bonds. A copy of the resolution shall be filed, and the necessary taxes shall be extended, assessed, collected, and remitted in accordance with Minnesota Statutes, Section 475.61.

Subd. 6. The lien imposed by taxes levied by Independent School District 319 upon the properties described in subdivision 2 shall be subordinate to all mortgages or other eucumbrances of record and on file on the effective date of this section.

Subd. 7. Taxes levied pursuant to this section shall be disregarded in the calculation of any other tax levies or limits on tax levies provided by other law.

Subd. 8. Bonds may be issued under authority of this section notwithstanding any limitations upon the indebtedness of a district, and their amounts shall not be included in computing the indebtedness of a district for any purpose, including the issuance of subsequent bonds and the incurring of subsequent indebtedness.

Subd. 9. This section is effective for Independent School District 319 the day after its governing body complies with Minnesota Statutes, Section 645.021, Subdivision 3 and for Independent School District 703 the day after its governing body complies with Minnesota Statutes, Section 645.021, Subdivision 3.

Sec. 4. [INDEPENDENT SCHOOL DISTRICT 710.]

Subdivision 1. Commencing with taxes payable in 1983, the commissioner of revenue shall deduct and annually pay to Independent School District 710 an amount equal to four cents per gross ton of taxable iron concentrate produced but not less than $240,000 annually from the taxes paid pursuant to sections 298.23 to 298.28 by a person, corporation, partnership, operator, joint venture or other owner of a taconite plant and taconite properties located within the school district. The deduction shall be made from the amount which would otherwise have been distributed to the northeast Minnesota economic protection fund in the apportionment fund in the state treasury under section 298.28, subdivision 1. A sum is annually appropriated to the commissioner from the proceeds of the taxes sufficient to make the payments required by this section.

Subd. 2. If the producer described in subdivision 1 ceases operations or decreases its operations so that the amount of the deduction of four cents per gross ton of concentrate produced is insufficient to raise $240,000 annually, then the difference between the deduction of four cents per gross ton of concentrate produced and $240,000 shall be paid as provided in section 298.225.

Subd. 3. The revenue received pursuant to this section by Independent School District 710 shall be deposited in the bond redemption fund of the district and shall be used only to retire the bonds issued on May 1, 1981 in the amount of $6,000,000.

Subd. 4. The deduction and payment provided in subdivisions 1 and 2 shall terminate upon maturity or payment of the last of those bonds.

Subd. 5. This section is effective the day after compliance with Minnesota Statutes, Section 645.021, Subdivision 3, by the governing body of Independent School District 710.

Sec. 5. [EFFECTIVE DATE.]

The credit provided by section 2 shall be allowed for direct taxes levied in 1982 and thereafter and payable in 1983 and thereafter. Except as otherwise provided in this article, this article is effective the day after final enactment.

ARTICLE XXXI

Section 1. [290.521] [ACTION TO ENJOIN INCOME TAX RETURN PREPARERS.]

Subdivision 1. [AUTHORITY TO SEEK INJUNCTION.] A civil action in the name of the state of Minnesota to enjoin any person who is an income tax return preparer doing business in this state from further engaging in any conduct described in subdivision 2 or from further acting as an income tax return preparer may be commenced at the request of the commissioner of revenue. Any action under this section shall be brought by the attorney general in the district court for the judicial district in which the income tax return preparer resides or has his principal place of business, or in which the taxpayer with respect to whose income tax return the action is brought resides. The court may exercise its jurisdiction over the action separate and apart from any other action brought by the state of Minnesota against the income tax return preparer or any taxpayer.

Subd. 2. [ADJUDICATION AND DECREES.] In any action under subdivision 1, if the court finds:

(a) that an income tax return preparer has:

(1) engaged in any conduct subject to the civil penalty under section 2,

(2) misrepresented his eligibility to practice before the department of revenue, or otherwise misrepresented his experience or education as an income tax return preparer,

(3) guaranteed the payment of any tax refund or the allowance of any tax credit, or

(4) engaged in any other fraudulent or deceptive conduct which substantially interferes with the proper administration of the provisions of this chapter, and

(b) that injunctive relief is appropriate to prevent the recurrence of such conduct, the court may enjoin the person from further engaging in such conduct. If the court finds that an income tax return preparer has continually or repeatedly engaged in any conduct described in clauses (1) through (4) of clause (a) of this subdivision, and that an injuction prohibiting such conduct would not be sufficient to prevent the person's interference with the proper administration of this chapter, the court may enjoin the person from acting as an income tax return preparer. The court may not under this section enjoin the employer of an income tax return preparer for conduct described in clauses (1) through (4) of clause (a) of this subdivision engaged in by one or more of the employer's employees unless the employer was also actively involved in such conduct.

Subd. 3. [INCOME TAX RETURN PREPARER DEFINED.] For purposes of this section and section 2, the term "income tax return preparer" means any person who prepares for compensation, or who employs one or more persons to prepare for compensation, any return of tax imposed by this chapter, or any claim for refund of tax imposed by this chapter. For purposes of the preceding sentence, the preparation of a substantial portion of a return or claim for refund shall be treated as if it were the preparation of the return or claim for refund.

A person shall not be an income tax return preparer merely because the person:

(a) furnishes typing, reproducing, or other mechanical assistance,

(b) prepares a return or claim for refund of the employer, or an officer or employee of the employer, by whom he is regularly and continuously employed,

(c) prepares as a fiduciary a return or claim for refund of any person, or

(d) prepares a claim for refund for a taxpayer in response to any tax order issued to the taxpayer.

Sec. 2. [290.523] [UNDERSTATEMENT OF TAXPAYER'S LIABILITY BY INCOME TAX RETURN PREPARER.]

Subdivision 1. [WILFUL UNDERSTATEMENT OF LIABILITY.] If any part of any understatement of liability with respect to any return or claim for refund is due to a wilful attempt in any manner to understate the liability for a tax by a person who is an income tax return preparer with respect to the return or claim, the person shall pay to the commissioner a penalty of $500 with respect to the return or claim. The penalty under this section may not be assessed against the employer of an income tax preparer unless the employer was actively involved in the wilful attempt to understate the liability for a tax. This penalty shall be considered to be an income tax liability and may be assessed at any time as provided in section 290.49, subdivision 6. In any proceeding involving the issue of whether or not an income tax return preparer has wilfully attempted in any manner to understate the liability for tax, the burden of proof in respect of the issue shall be upon the commissioner, and the return of the taxpayer may be disclosed to the income tax return preparer notwithstanding section 290.61.

Subd. 2. [UNDERSTATEMENT OF LIABILITY DEFINED.] For purposes of this section, the term "understatement of liability" means any understatement of the net amount payable with respect to any tax imposed by this chapter, or any overstatement of the net amount creditable or refundable with respect to any such tax. The determination of whether or not there is an understatement of liability shall be made without regard to any administrative or judicial action involving the taxpayer.

Sec. 3. [290A.111] [ACTION TO ENJOIN PROPERTY TAX REFUND RETURN PREPARERS.]

Subdivision 1. [AUTHORITY TO SEEK INJUNCTION.] A civil action in the name of the state of Minnesota may be commenced in the same manner and pursuant to the same authority as provided in section 1, subdivision 1, to enjoin any person who is a property tax refund return preparer doing business in this state from further engaging in any conduct described in subdivision 2 or from further acting as a property tax refund return preparer.

Subd. 2. [ADJUDICATION AND DECREES.] In any action under subdivision 1, if the court finds:

(a) that a property tax refund return preparer has:

(1) engaged in any conduct subject to the criminal penalty provided by section 290A.11, subdivision 2, or subject to the civil penalty under section 4,

(2) misrepresented his eligibility to practice before the department of revenue, or otherwise misrepresented his experience or education as a property tax refund return preparer,

(3) guaranteed the payment of any property tax refund or the allowance of any property tax refund credit against income tax,

(4) engaged in any other fraudulent or deceptive conduct which substantially interferes with the proper administration of the provisions of this chapter, the court may decree appropriate injunctive relief pursuant to the authority granted in section 1, subdivision 2.

Subd. 3. [PROPERTY TAX REFUND RETURN PREPARER DEFINED.] For purposes of this section and section 4, the term "property tax refund return preparer" shall have the same meaning as the term "income tax return preparer" as defined in section 1, subdivision 3, to the extent that the definition applies to the preparation of a claim for relief under this chapter.

Sec. 4. [290A.112] [OVERSTATEMENT OF TAXPAYER'S CLAIM BY PROPERTY TAX REFUND RETURN PREPARER.]

Subdivision 1. [WILFUL OVERSTATEMENT OF CLAIM.] If any part of an excessive claim with respect to any property tax refund return is due to a wilful attempt in any manner to overstate the claim for relief allowed under this chapter by a person who is a property tax refund return preparer with respect to the return, the person shall pay to the commissioner a penalty of $500 with respect to the return. The penalty under this section may not be assessed against the employer of a property tax refund return preparer unless the employer was actively involved in the wilful attempt to overstate the claim for property tax refund. This penalty shall be considered to be an income tax liability and may be assessed at any time as provided in section 290.49, subdivision 6. In any proceeding involving the issue of whether or not a property tax refund return preparer has wilfully attempted in any manner to overstate the property tax refund claim, the burden of proof in respect of the issue shall be upon the commissioner and the claim of the claimant may be disclosed to the property tax refund return preparer notwithstanding section 290A.17.

Subd. 2. [OVERSTATEMENT OF CLAIM DEFINED.] For purposes of this section, the term "overstatement of claim" means any overstatement of the net amount refundable, or the net amount creditable against income tax, with respect to any claim for property tax relief provided by this chapter. The determination of whether or not there is an overstatement of a claim shall be made without regard to any administrative or judicial action involving the claimant.

Sec. 5. [EFFECTIVE DATE.]

Sections 1 to 4 apply to documents prepared after December 31, 1982.

ARTICLE XXXII

Section 1. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 473H.02, Subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. "Agricultural preserve" or "preserve" means a land area ~~covenanted~~ created and restricted according to section 473H.05 to remain in agricultural use.

Sec. 2. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 473H.02, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 11. "County recorder" means registrar of titles for the purposes of registered property.

Sec. 3. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 473H.04, Subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. ~~On or before January 1, 1981~~ Each authority in the metropolitan area having land classified agricultural pursuant to section 273.13 shall certify by resolution using appropriate maps which lands, if any, are eligible for designation as agricultural preserves. Maps shall be in sufficient detail to identify eligible lands by property boundaries. ~~Notification of the certification shall be published~~ At least two weeks before the resolution is to be adopted, the authority shall publish notice of its intended action in a newspaper having a general circulation within the area of jurisdiction of the authority. No additional lands shall qualify for designation as agricultural preserves until the authority certifies qualification.

Sec. 4. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 473H.04, Subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. Land shall cease to be eligible for designation as an agricultural preserve when the comprehensive plan and zoning for the land have been amended so that the land is no longer planned for long term agricultural use and is no longer zoned for long term agricultural use, evidenced by a maximum residential density permitting more than one unit per 40 acres. When changes have been made, the authority shall certify by resolution and appropriate maps which lands are no longer eligible. ~~Notification of the decertification shall be published~~ At least two weeks before the resolution is to be adopted, the authority shall publish a notice of its intended action in a newspaper having a general circulation within the area of jurisdiction of the authority.

Sec. 5. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 473H.05, Subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. An owner or owners of certified long term agricultural land may apply to the authority with jurisdiction over the land on forms provided by the commissioner of agriculture for the creation of an agricultural preserve at any time. If the land to be placed in a preserve is registered property, the owner shall submit the owner's duplicate certificate of title together with the application. Land for which application is received prior to March 1 of any year shall be assessed pursuant to section 473H.10 for taxes payable in the following year. Land for which application is received on or after March 1 of any year shall be assessed pursuant to section 473H.10 in the following year. The application shall contain at least the following information and such other information as the commissioner deems necessary:

(a) Legal description of the area proposed to be designated ~~or~~ and parcel identification numbers ~~as~~ if so designated by the county auditor;

(b) Name and address of owner;

(c) An affidavit by the authority evidencing that the land is certified long term agricultural land at the date of application;

(d) A witnessed signature of the owner covenanting that the land shall be kept in agricultural use, and shall be used in accordance with the provisions of sections 473H.02 to 473H.17 which exist on the date of application;

(e) A statement that the restrictive covenant shall be binding on the owner or his successor or assignee, and shall ~~be an easement running~~ run with the land~~;~~

~~(f) Date of application and date that designation is effectuated~~.

Sec. 6. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 473H.05, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 3. [REGISTERED PROPERTY.] In the case of registered property, the applicant shall submit the owner's duplicate certificate at the time the application is made to the authority. The county recorder shall memorialize the restrictive covenant upon the certificate of title and owner's duplicate certificate of title. When the property or any portion of it ceases to be an agricultural preserve in accordance with section 473H.08 and the passage of the required time period, section 473H.09 or 473H.15, the county recorder upon presentation of the owner's duplicate certificate of title shall cause the restrictive covenant to be cancelled upon the effective date of the expiration, termination or taking.

Sec. 7. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 473H.06, Subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. Upon receipt of an application, the authority shall determine if all material required in section 473H.05 has been submitted and, if so, shall determine that the application is complete. When used in this chapter, the term "date of application" means the date the application is determined complete by the authority. Within five days of the date of application, the authority shall forward ~~copies of~~ the completed and signed application to the county recorder, together with the owner's duplicate certificate of title in the case of registered property, and copies to the county auditor, the county assessor, the metropolitan council, and the county soil and water conservation district.

Sec. 8. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 473H.06, Subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. The county recorder shall ~~file and~~ record the restrictive covenant and return it to the applicant. If the property is registered property, the recorder shall memorialize the restrictive covenant upon presentation of the owner's duplicate certificate of title. The authority shall be notified by the recorder that the covenant has been recorded or memorialized.

Sec. 9. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 473H.06, Subdivision 5, is amended to read:

Subd. 5. The metropolitan council shall maintain agricultural preserve maps, illustrating (a) certified long term agricultural lands; and (b) lands covenanted as agricultural preserves. The council shall make yearly reports to the state planning agency, the department of agriculture, and such other agencies as the council deems appropriate.

Sec. 10. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 473H.08, Subdivision 4, is amended to read:

Subd. 4. Upon receipt of the notice provided in subdivision 2, or upon notice served by the authority as provided in subdivision 3, the authority shall forward the original notice to the county recorder for recording and shall notify the ~~county recorder,~~ county auditor, county assessor, the metropolitan council, and the county soil and water conservation district of the date of expiration. Designation as an agricultural preserve and all benefits and limitations accruing through sections 473H.02 to 473H.17 for the preserve shall cease on the date of expiration. The restrictive covenant filed with the application shall terminate on the date of expiration.

Sec. 11. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 473H.14, is amended to read:

473H.14 [ANNEXATION PROCEEDINGS.]

Agricultural preserve land within a township shall not be annexed to a municipality pursuant to chapter 414, without a specific finding by the Minnesota municipal board that either (a) the expiration period as provided for in section 473H.08 has begun; (b) the ~~surviving unit of government~~ township due to size, tax base, population or other relevant factors would not be able to provide normal governmental functions and services; or (c) the agricultural preserve would be completely surrounded by lands within a municipality.

This section shall not apply to annexation agreements approved by the Minnesota municipal board prior to creation of the preserve.

Sec. 12. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 473H.15, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 10. The agricultural preserve designation and all benefits and limitations accruing through sections 473H.02 to 473H.17 for the preserve and the restrictive covenant for that portion of the preserve taken, shall cease on the date the final certificate is filed with the clerk of district court in accordance with section 117.205.

Sec. 13. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 473H.16, Subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. Any owner who fails to implement corrective measures to the satisfaction of the authority within one year of notice from the authority shall be subject to a ~~fine~~ civil penalty of not more than $1,000. The authority may recover the penalty by a civil action in a court of competent jurisdiction.

Sec. 14. [473H.18] [TRANSFER FROM AGRICULTURAL PROPERTY TAX LAW TREATMENT.]

When land which has been receiving the special agricultural valuation and tax deferment provided in section 273.111 becomes an agricultural preserve pursuant to sections 473H.02 to 473H.17, the recapture of deferred tax and special assessments, as provided in section 273.111, subdivisions 9 and 11, shall not be made. Special assessments deferred under section 273.111, at the date of commencement of the preserve, shall continue to be deferred for the duration of the preserve. All special assessments so deferred shall be payable within 90 days of the date of expiration unless other terms are mutually agreed upon by the authority and the owner. In the event of early termination of a preserve or a portion of it under section 473H.09, all special assessments accruing to the terminated portion plus interest shall be payable within 90 days of the date of termination unless otherwise deferred or abated by executive order of the governor. In the event of a taking under section 473H.15 all special assessments accruing to the taken portion plus interest shall be payable within 90 days of the date the final certificate is filed with the clerk of district court in accordance with section 117.205.

Sec. 15. [APPLICATION.]

This article applies in the counties of Anoka, Carver, Dakota, Hennepin, Ramsey, Scott and Washington.

Sec. 16. [EFFECTIVE DATE.]

This article is effective the day following final enactment.

ARTICLE XXXIII

Section 1. [273.123] [REASSESSMENT OF HOMESTEAD PROPERTY DAMAGED BY A DISASTER.]

Subdivision 1. [DEFINITIONS.]

For purposes of this section (a) "disaster or emergency" means

(1) a major disaster as determined by the president of the United States;

(2) a natural disaster as determined by the secretary of agriculture;

(3) a disaster as determined by the administrator of the small business administration; or

(4) a tornado, storm, flood, earthquake, landslide, explosion, fire or similar catastrophe, as a result of which a local emergency is declared pursuant to section 12.29.

(b) "disaster or emergency area" means an area

(1) in which the president of the United States, the secretary of agriculture, or the administrator of the small business administration has determined that a disaster exists pursuant to federal law or in which a local emergency has been declared pursuant to section 12.29; and

(2) for which an application by the local unit of government requesting property tax relief under this section has been received by the governor and approved by the executive council.

(c) "homestead property" means homestead dwelling located on property classified pursuant to section 273.13, subdivision 6, 6a, 7, 7b, 7d, or 14a, including mobile homes and sectional homes used as homesteads and taxed pursuant to section 273.13, subdivision 3, clause (b), (c), or (d).

Subd. 2. [REASSESSMENT OF HOMESTEAD PROPERTY.] The county assessor shall reassess all homestead property located within a disaster or emergency area which is physically damaged by the disaster or emergency and shall adjust the valuation for taxes payable the following year to reflect the loss in market value caused by the damage as follows: Subtract the market value of the property as reassessed from the market value of the property as assessed for January 1 of the year in which the disaster or emergency occurred; multiply the remainder by a fraction, the numerator of which is the number of full months remaining in the year on the date the disaster or emergency occurred, and the denominator of which is 12; subtract the product of the calculation from the market value of the property as assessed for January 1 of the year in which the disaster or emergency occurred; the remainder is the estimated market value to be used for taxes payable the following year. The assessor shall report to the county auditor the assessed value based on the assessment of January 1 of the year in which the disaster or emergency occurred and the assessed value based on the reassessment made pursuant to this subdivision.

Subd. 3. [COMPUTATION OF MILL RATES.] When computing mill rates, the county auditor shall use the valuation reported by the assessor for the assessment made on January 1 of the year in which the disaster or emergency occurred.

Subd. 4. [STATE REIMBURSEMENT.] The county auditor shall calculate the tax on the property described in subdivision 2 based on the assessment made on January 1 of the year in which the disaster or emergency occurred. The difference between the tax determined on the January 1 assessed value and the tax actually payable based on the reassessed value determined under subdivision 2 shall be reimbursed to each taxing jurisdiction in which the damaged property is located. The amount shall be certified by the county auditor and reported to the commissioner of revenue. The commissioner shall make the payments to the taxing jurisdictions containing the property at the time distributions are made pursuant to section 273.13, subdivision 15a, in the same proportion that the ad valorem tax is distributed.

Subd. 5. [COMPUTATION OF CREDITS.] The amounts of any homestead, agricultural, or similar credits or tax relief which reduce the gross tax shall be computed upon the reassessed value determined under subdivision 2. For purposes of the property tax refund, property taxes payable, as defined in section 290A.03, subdivision 13, and net property taxes payable, as defined in section 290A.04, subdivision 2d, shall be computed upon the reassessed value determined under subdivision 2.

Subd. 6. [APPROPRIATION.] There is annually appropriated from the general fund to the commissioner of revenue an amount necessary to make the payments required by this section.

Sec. 2. [EFFECTIVE DATE.]

Section 1 is effective for taxes levied in 1982 and thereafter, payable in 1983 and thereafter.

ARTICLE XXXIV

Section 1. Minnesota Statutes 1981 Supplement, Section 297A.01, Subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. A "sale" and a "purchase" includes, but is not limited to, each of the following transactions:

(a) Any transfer of title or possession, or both, of tangible personal property, whether absolutely or conditionally, and the leasing of or the granting of a license to use or consume tangible personal property other than manufactured homes used for residential purposes for a continuous period of 30 days or more, for a consideration in money or by exchange or barter;

(b) The production, fabrication, printing or processing of tangible personal property for a consideration for consumers who furnish either directly or indirectly the materials used in the production, fabrication, printing or processing;

(c) The furnishing, preparing or serving for a consideration of food, meals or drinks, not including hospitals, sanatoriums, nursing homes or senior citizens homes, meals or drinks purchased for and served exclusively to individuals who are 60 years of age or over and their spouses or to the handicapped and their spouses by governmental agencies, nonprofit organizations, agencies, or churches or pursuant to any program funded in whole or part through 42 USCA sections 3001 through 3045, wherever delivered, prepared or served, meals and lunches served at public and private schools, universities or colleges, or the occasional meal thereof by a charitable or church organization; church organization. Notwithstanding section 297A.25, subdivision 1, clause (a), taxable food or meals include, but is not limited to, the following:

(i) heated food or drinks;

(ii) sandwiches prepared by the retailer;

(iii) single sales of prepackaged ice cream or ice milk novelties prepared by the retailer;

(iv) hand-prepared or dispensed ice cream or ice milk products including cones, sundaes, and snow cones;

(v) soft drinks and other beverages prepared or served by the retailer;

(vi) gum;

(vii) ice;

(viii) all food, except candy, sold in vending machines;

(ix) party trays prepared by the retailers; and

(x) all meals and single servings of packaged snack food, single cans or bottles of pop, sold in restaurants and bars;

(d) The granting of the privilege of admission to places of amusement or athletic events and the privilege of use of amusement devices or athletic facilities;

(e) The furnishing for a consideration of lodging and related services by a hotel, rooming house, tourist court, motel or trailer camp and of the granting of any similar license to use real property other than the renting or leasing thereof for a continuous period of 30 days or more;

(f) The furnishing for a consideration of electricity, gas, water, or steam for use or consumption within this state, or local exchange telephone service and intrastate toll service except such service provided by means of coin operated telephones; the tax imposed on amounts paid for telephone services is the liability of and shall be paid by the person paying for the services. Sales by municipal corporations in a proprietary capacity are included in the provisions of this clause. The furnishing of water and sewer services for residential use shall not be considered a sale.

Sec. 2. Minnesota Statutes 1981 Supplement, Section 297A.25, Subdivision 1, as amended by Laws 1981, Third Special Session Chapter 2, Article V, Section 2, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. The following are specifically exempted from the taxes imposed by sections 297A.01 to 297A.44:

(a) The gross receipts from the sale of food products including but not limited to cereal and cereal products, butter, cheese, milk and milk products, oleomargarine, meat and meat products, fish and fish products, eggs and egg products, vegetables and vegetable products, fruit and fruit products, spices and salt, sugar and sugar products, coffee and coffee substitutes, tea, cocoa and cocoa products, ~~but not including foods which are prepared or specially sliced, wrapped, arranged or displayed, and sold cold or hot for immediate consumption on or off the premises on which the sale is made, whether sold in individual servings or in larger quantities, except~~ and food products which are not taxable pursuant to section 297A.01, subdivision 3, clause (c) and which are sold by a retailer, organized as a nonprofit corporation or association, within a place located on property owned by the state or an agency or instrumentality of the state, the entrance to which is subject to an admission charge;

(b) The gross receipts from the sale of prescribed drugs and medicine intended for use, internal or external, in the cure, mitigation, treatment or prevention of illness or disease in human beings and products consumed by humans for the preservation of health, including prescription glasses, uherapeutic and prosthetic devices, but not including cosmetics or toilet articles notwithstanding the presence of medicinal ingredients therein;

(c) The gross receipts from the sale of and the storage, use or other consumption in Minnesota of tangible personal property, tickets, or admissions, electricity, gas, or local exchange telephone service, which under the Constitution or laws of the United States or under the Constitution of Minnesota, the state of Minnesota is prohibited from taxing;

(d) The gross receipts from the sale of tangible personal property (i) which, without intermediate use, is shipped or transported outside Minnesota and thereafter used in a trade or business or is stored, processed, fabricated or manufactured into, attached to or incorporated into other tangible personal property transported or shipped outside Minnesota and thereafter used in a trade or business outside Minnesota, and which is not thereafter returned to a point within Minnesota, except in the course of interstate commerce (storage shall not constitute intermediate use); or (ii) which the seller delivers to a common carrier for delivery outside Minnesota, places in the United States mail or parcel post directed to the purchaser outside Minnesota, or delivers to the purchaser outside Minnesota by means of the seller's own delivery vehicles, and which is not thereafter returned to a point within Minnesota, except in the course of interstate commerce;

(e) The gross receipts from the sale of packing materials used to pack and ship household goods, the ultimate destination of which is outside the state of Minnesota and which are not thereafter returned to a point within Minnesota, except in the course of interstate commerce;

(f) The gross receipts from the sale of and storage, use or consumption of petroleum products upon which a tax has been imposed under the provisions of chapter 296, whether or not any part of said tax may be subsequently refunded;

(g) The gross receipts from the sale of clothing and wearing apparel except the following:

(i) all articles commonly or commercially known as jewelry, whether real or imitation; pearls, precious and semi-precious stones, and imitations thereof; articles made of, or ornamented, mounted or fitted with precious metals or imitations thereof; watches; clocks; cases and movements for watches and clocks; gold, gold-plated, silver, or sterling flatware or hollow ware and silver-plated hollow ware; opera glasses; lorgnettes; marine glasses; field glasses and binoculars.

(ii) articles made of fur on the hide or pelt, and articles of which such fur is the component material or chief value, but only if such value is more than three times the value of the next most valuable component material.

(iii) perfume, essences, extracts, toilet waters, cosmetics, petroleum jellies, hair oils, pomades, hair dressings, hair restoratives, hair dyes, aromatic cachous and toilet powders. The tax imposed by this act shall not apply to lotion, oil, powder, or other article intended to be used or applied only in the case of babies.

(iv) trunks, valises, traveling bags, suitcases, satchels, overnight bags, hat boxes for use by travelers, beach bags, bathing suit bags, brief cases made of leather or imitation leather, salesmen's sample and display cases, purses, handbags, pocketbooks, wallets, billfolds, card, pass, and key cases and toilet cases.

(h) The gross receipts from the sale of and the storage, use, or consumption of all materials, including chemicals, fuels, petroleum products, lubricants, packaging materials, including returnable containers used in packaging food and beverage products, feeds, seeds, fertilizers, electricity, gas and steam, used or consumed in agricultural or industrial production of personal property intended to be sold ultimately at retail, whether or not the item so used becomes an ingredient or constituent part of the property produced. Such production shall include, but is not limited to, research, development, design or production of any tangible personal property, manufacturing, processing (other than by restaurants and consumers) of agricultural products whether vegetable or animal, commercial fishing, refining, smelting, reducing, brewing, distilling, printing, mining, quarrying, lumbering, generating electricity and the production of road building materials. Such production shall not include painting, cleaning, repairing or similar processing of property except as part of the original manufacturing process. Machinery, equipment, implements, tools, accessories, appliances, contrivances, furniture and fixtures, used in such production and fuel, electricity, gas or steam used for space heating or lighting, are not included within this exemption; however, accessory tools, equipment and other short lived items, which are separate detachable units used in producing a direct effect upon the product, where such items have an ordinary useful life of less than 12 months, are included within the exemption provided herein;

(i) The gross receipts from the sale of and storage, use or other consumption in Minnesota of tangible personal property (except as provided in section 297A.14) which is used or consumed in producing any publication regularly issued at average intervals not exceeding three months, and any such publication. For purposes of this subsection, ''publication'' as used herein shall include, without limiting the foregoing, a legal newspaper as defined by Minnesota Statutes 1965, Section 331.02, and any supplements or enclosures with or part of said newspaper; and the gross receipts of any advertising contained therein or therewith shall be exempt. For this purpose, advertising in any such publication shall be deemed to be a service and not tangible personal property, and persons or their agents who publish or sell such newspapers shall be deemed to be engaging in a service with respect to gross receipts realized from such newsgathering or publishing activities by them, including the sale of advertising. Machinery, equipment, implements, tools, accessories, appliances, contrivances, furniture and fixtures used in such publication and fuel, electricity, gas or steam used for space heating or lighting, are not exempt;

(j) The gross receipts from all sales of tangible personal property to, and all storage, use or consumption of such property by, the United States and its agencies and instrumentalities or a state and its agencies, instrumentalities and political subdivisions;

(k) The gross receipts from the isolated or occasional sale of tangible personal property in Minnesota not made in the normal course of business of selling that kind of property, and the storage, use, or consumption of property acquired as a result of such a sale;

(l) The gross receipts from sales of rolling stock and the storage, use or other consumption of such property by railroads, freight line companies, sleeping car companies and express companies taxed on the gross earnings basis in lieu of ad valorem taxes. For purposes of this clause ''rolling stock'' is defined as the portable or moving apparatus and machinery of any such company which moves on the road, and includes, but is not limited to, engines, cars, tenders, coaches, sleeping cars and parts necessary for the repair and maintenance of such rolling stock.

(m) The gross receipts from sales of airflight equipment and the storage, use or other consumption of such property by airline companies taxed under the provisions of sections 270.071 to 270.079. For purposes of this clause, ''airflight equipment'' includes airplanes and parts necessary for the repair and maintenance of such airflight equipment, and flight simulators.

(n) The gross receipts from the sale of telephone central office telephone equipment used in furnishing intrastate and interstate telephone service to the public.

(o) The gross receipts from the sale of and the storage, use or other consumption by persons taxed under the in lieu provisions of chapter 298, of mill liners, grinding rods and grinding balls which are substantially consumed in the production of taconite, the material of which primarily is added to and becomes a part of the material being processed.

(p) The gross receipts from the sale of tangible personal property to, and the storage, use or other consumption of such property by, any corporation, society, association, foundation, or institution organized and operated exclusively for charitable, religious or educational purposes if the property purchased is to be used in the performance of charitable, religious or educational functions, or any senior citizen group or association of groups that in general limits membership to persons age 55 or older and is organized and operated exclusively for pleasure, recreation and other nonprofit purposes, no part of the net earnings of which inures to the benefit of any private shareholders;

(q) The gross receipts from the sale of caskets and burial vaults;

(r) The gross receipts from the sale of an automobile or other conveyance if the purchaser is assisted by a grant from the United States in accordance with 38 United States Code, Section 1901, as amended.

(s) The gross receipts from the sale to the licensed aircraft dealer of an aircraft for which a commercial use permit has been issued pursuant to section 360.654, if the aircraft is resold while the permit is in effect.

(t) The gross receipts from the sale of building materials to be used in the construction or remodeling of a residence when the construction or remodeling is financed in whole or in part by the United States in accordance with 38 United States Code, Sections 801 to 805, as amended. This exemption shall not be effective at time of sale of the materials to contractors, subcontractors, builders or owners, but shall be applicable only upon a claim for refund to the commissioner of revenue filed by recipients of the benefits provided in Title 38 United States Code, Chapter 21, as amended. The commissioner shall provide by regulation for the refund of taxes paid on sales exempt in accordance with this paragraph.

(u) The gross receipts from the sale of textbooks which are prescribed for use in conjunction with a course of study in a public or private school, college, university and business or trade school to students who are regularly enrolled at such institutions. For purposes of this clause a ''public school'' is defined as one that furnishes course of study, enrollment and staff that meets standards of the state board of education and a private school is one which under the standards of the state board of education, provides an education substantially equivalent to that furnished at a public school. Business and trade schools shall mean such schools licensed pursuant to section 141.25.

(v) The gross receipts from the sale of and the storage of material designed to advertise and promote the sale of merchandise or services, which material is purchased and stored for the purpose of subsequently shipping or otherwise transferring outside the state by the purchaser for use thereafter solely outside the state of Minnesota.

(w) The gross receipt from the sale of residential heating fuels in the following manner:

(i) all fuel oil, coal, wood, steam, propane gas, and L.P. gas sold to residential customers for residential use;

(ii) natural gas sold for residential use to customers who are metered and billed as residential users and who use natural gas for their primary source of residential heat, for the billing months of November, December, January, February, March and April;

(iii) electricity sold for residential use to customers who are metered and billed as residential users and who use electricity for their primary source of residential heat, for the billing months of November, December, January, February, March and April.

(x) The gross receipts from the sale or use of tickets or admissions to the premises of or events sponsored by an association, corporation or other group of persons which provides an opportunity for citizens of the state to participate in the creation, performance or appreciation of the arts and which qualifies as a tax-exempt organization within the meaning of section 290.05, subdivision 1, clause (i).

(y) The gross receipts from either the sales to or the storage, use or consumption of tangible personal property by an organization of military service veterans or an auxiliary unit of an organization of military service veterans, provided that:

(i) the organization or auxiliary unit is organized within the state of Minnesota and is exempt from federal taxation pursuant to section 501(c), clause (19), of the Internal Revenue Code as amended through December 31, 1978; and

(ii) the tangible personal property which is sold to or stored, used or consumed by the organization or auxiliary unit is for charitable, civic, educational, or nonprofit uses and not for social, recreational, pleasure or profit uses.

(z) The gross receipts from the sale of sanitary napkins, tampons, or similar items used for feminine hygiene.

Sec. 3. [EFFECTIVE DATE.]

The provisions of section 1 relating to the leasing of manufactured homes are effective retroactive to January 1, 1972; provided, however, that the department of revenue shall not entertain any refund claims to those taxpayers who have paid the sales tax on those rentals. The rest of this article is effective the day after final enactment.

ARTICLE XXXV

Section 1. Minnesota Statutes 1981 Supplement, Section 275.50, Subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [GOVERNMENTAL SUBDIVISION.] "Governmental subdivision" means ~~any~~ a county, home rule charter city, statutory city, or town ~~or special taxing district determined by the department of revenue~~ except a town that has a population of less than 5,000 according to the most recent federal census, provided that the population of an incorporated municipality located within the boundaries of a town is not included in the population of the town. The term does not include school districts or the metropolitan transit commission created pursuant to section 473.404.

Sec. 2. Minnesota Statutes 1981 Supplement, Section 477A.04, Subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. Beginning in calendar year ~~1983~~ 1984 and subsequent years, an assessment district shall be penalized according to the following schedule:

(a) $1 per capita if the coefficient of dispersion in assessments for the preceding year is more than ten percent but less than 12.5 percent;

(b) $3 per capita if the coefficient of dispersion in assessments for the preceding year is at least 12.5 percent but no more than 15 percent;

(c) $5 per capita if the coefficient of dispersion in assessments for the preceding year is greater than 15 percent.

Sec. 3. [EFFECTIVE DATE.]

Sections 1 and 2 are effective for taxes levied in 1982 and thereafter, payable in 1983 and thereafter.

ARTICLE XXXVI

Section 1. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 273.133, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 3. [LEASEHOLD COOPERATIVES.] When one or more dwellings or one or more buildings which each contain several dwelling units is owned by a nonprofit corporation subject to the provisions of chapter 317 or a limited partnership which corporation or partnership operates the property in conjunction with a cooperative association, homestead treatment, as provided under section 273.13, subdivision 7, may be claimed for each dwelling unit occupied by a member of the cooperative. To qualify for the treatment provided by this subdivision, the following conditions shall be met: (a) the cooperative association must be organized under sections 308.05 to 308.18; (b) the cooperative association must have a lease for occupancy of the property for a term of at least 20 years; (c) the cooperative association must have a right under a written agreement with the owner to purchase the property if the owner proposes to sell it; if the cooperative association does not purchase the property when it is offered for sale, the owner may not subsequently sell the property to another purchaser at a price lower than the price at which it was offered for sale to the cooperative association unless the cooperative association approves the sale; and (d) if a limited partnership owns the property, it must include as the managing general partner either the cooperative association or a nonprofit organization operating under the provisions of chapter 317. Homestead treatment shall be afforded to units occupied by members of the cooperative association and the units shall be assessed as provided in subdivision 1, provided that any unit not so occupied shall be classified and assessed pursuant to section 273.13, subdivision 19. No more than three acres of land shall, for assessment purposes, be included with each dwelling unit that qualifies for homestead treatment under this subdivision.

Sec. 2. Minnesota Statutes 1981 Supplement, Section 290A.03, Subdivision 12, is amended to read:

Subd. 12. [GROSS RENT.] "Gross rent" means rental paid solely for the right of occupancy, at arms-length, of a homestead, exclusive of charges for any utilities, services, furniture, or furnishings furnished by the landlord as a part of the rental agreement, whether expressly set out in the rental agreement or not. If the landlord and tenant have not dealt with each other at arms-length and the commissioner determines that the gross rent charged was excessive, he may adjust the gross rent to a reasonable amount for purposes of sections 290A.01 to 290A.20.

If the landlord does not supply the charges for any utilities, furniture, or furnishings furnished by him, or if the charges appear to be incorrect the commissioner may apply a percentage determined from samples of similar gross rents paid solely for the right of occupancy.

Any amount paid by a claimant residing in property assessed pursuant to section 273.133 for occupancy in that property shall be excluded from gross rent for purposes of this chapter. However, property taxes imputed to the homestead of the claimant or the dwelling unit occupied by the claimant that qualifies for homestead treatment pursuant to section 273.133 shall be included within the term "property taxes payable" as defined in subdivision 13, notwithstanding the fact that ownership is not in the name of the claimant.

Sec. 3. [EFFECTIVE DATE.]

Section 1 is effective for taxes levied in 1982 and thereafter, payable in 1983 and thereafter.

ARTICLE XXXVII

Section 1. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 474.02, Subdivision 1b, is amended to read:

Subd. 1b. In furtherance of the purpose specified in sections 301A.02 and 474.01, the term "project" shall include any properties, real or personal, ~~located outside the metropolitan area defined in section 473.122,~~ used or useful for the promotion of tourism in the state. ~~Such~~ Properties may include hotels, motels, lodges, resorts, recreational facilities of the type which may be acquired under section 471.191, and related facilities. ~~The provisions of this subdivision shall not apply to municipalities located in whole or in part in the metropolitan area as defined in section 473.122.~~

Sec. 2. Minnesota Statutes 1981 Supplement, Section 474.03, is amended to read:

474.03 [POWERS.]

Any municipality or redevelopment agency, in addition to the powers prescribed elsewhere by the laws of this state, shall have the power to:

(1) Acquire, construct, and hold any lands, buildings, easements, water and air rights, improvements to lands and buildings, and capital equipment to be located permanently or used exclusively on a designated site and solid waste disposal and pollution control equipment, and alternative energy equipment and inventory, regardless of where located, which are deemed necessary in connection with a project to be situated within the state, whether wholly or partially within or without the municipality or redevelopment agency, and construct, reconstruct, improve, better, and extend such project;

(2) Issue revenue bonds, in anticipation of the collection of revenues of such project, to finance, in whole or in part, the cost of the acquisition, construction, reconstruction, improvement, betterment, or extension thereof and, in the case of an alternative energy project, in addition to the other powers granted by this chapter, to finance the acquisition and leasing or sale of equipment and products to others;

(3) Issue revenue bonds to pay, purchase or discharge all or any part of the outstanding indebtedness of a contracting party engaged primarily in the operation of one or more nonprofit hospitals or nursing homes, theretofore incurred in the acquisition or betterment of its existing hospital or nursing home facilities, including, to the extent deemed necessary by the governing body of the municipality or redevelopment agency, any unpaid interest on such indebtedness accrued or to accrue to the date on which such indebtedness is finally paid; and any premium the governing body of the municipality or redevelopment agency determines to be necessary to be paid to pay, purchase or defease such outstanding indebtedness; if revenue bonds are issued for this purpose, the refinancing and the existing properties of the contracting party shall be deemed to constitute a project under section 474.02, subdivision 1c. Industrial revenue bonds shall only be available under this provision if the commissioner of securities and real estate has been shown that a reduction in debt service charges to patients and third party payors will occur. All reductions in debt service charges pursuant to this program shall be passed on to patients and third party payors. These industrial revenue bonds may not be used for any purpose not consistent with the provisions of sections 145.832 to 145.845 or chapter 256B;

Nothing in this subdivision is intended to prohibit the use of revenue bond proceeds to pay outstanding indebtedness of a contracting party to the extent now permitted by law;

(4) Enter into a revenue agreement with any person, firm, or public or private corporation or federal or state governmental subdivision or agency in such manner that payments required thereby to be made by the contracting party shall be fixed, and revised from time to time as necessary, so as to produce income and revenue sufficient to provide for the prompt payment of principal of and interest on all bonds issued hereunder when due, and the revenue agreement shall also provide that the contracting party shall be required to pay all expenses of the operation and maintenance of the project including, but without limitation, adequate insurance thereon and insurance against all liability for injury to persons or property arising from the operation thereof, and all taxes and special assessments levied upon or with respect to the project and payable during the term of the revenue agreement, during which term a tax shall be imposed and collected pursuant to the provisions of section 272.01, subdivision 2, for the privilege of using and possessing the project, in the same amount and to the same extent as though the contracting party were the owner of all real and personal property comprising the project;

(5) Pledge and assign to the holders of such bonds or a trustee therefor all or any part of the revenues of one or more projects and define and segregate such revenues or provide for the payment thereof to a trustee, whether or not such trustee is in possession of the project under a mortgage or otherwise;

(6) Mortgage or otherwise encumber such projects in favor of the municipality or redevelopment agency, the holders of such bonds, or a trustee therefor, provided that in creating any such mortgages or encumbrances a municipality or redevelopment agency shall not have the power to obligate itself except with respect to the project;

(7) Make all contracts, execute all instruments, and do all things necessary or convenient in the exercise of the powers herein granted, or in the performance of its covenants or duties, or in order to secure the payment of its bonds; including, but without limitation, a contract entered into prior to the construction of the project authorizing the contracting party, subject to such terms and conditions as the municipality or redevelopment agency shall find necessary or desirable and proper, to provide for the construction, acquisition, and installation of the buildings, improvements, and equipment to be included in the project by any means available to the contracting party and in the manner determined by the contracting party and without advertisement for bids as may be required for the construction or acquisition of other municipal facilities;

(8) Enter into and perform such contracts and agreements with other municipalities, political subdivisions, and state agencies, authorities, and institutions as the respective governing bodies of the same may deem proper and feasible for or concerning the planning, construction, lease, purchase, mortgaging or other acquisition, and the financing of a project, and the maintenance thereof, including an agreement whereby one municipality issues its revenue bonds in behalf of one or more other municipalities pursuant to revenue agreements with the same or different contracting parties, which contracts and agreements may establish a board, commission, or such other body as may be deemed proper for the supervision and general management of the facilities of the project; provided, no municipality or redevelopment agency shall enter into or perform any contract or agreement with any school district under which the municipality or redevelopment agency issues its revenue bonds or otherwise provides for the construction of school facilities and the school leases or otherwise acquires these facilities;

(9) Accept from any authorized agency of the federal government loans or grants for the planning, construction, acquisition, leasing, purchase, or other provision of any project, and enter into agreements with such agency respecting such loans or grants;

(10) Sell and convey all properties acquired in connection with such projects, including without limitation the sale and conveyance thereof subject to such mortgage as herein provided, and the sale and conveyance thereof under an option granted to the lessee of the project, for such price, and at such time as the governing body of the municipality or redevelopment agency may determine, provided, however, that no sale or conveyance of such properties shall ever be made in such manner as to impair the rights or interests of the holder, or holders, of any bonds issued under the authority of this chapter;

(11) Issue revenue bonds to refund, in whole or in part, bonds previously issued by such municipality or redevelopment agency under authority of this chapter;

(12) If so provided in the revenue agreement, terminate the agreement and re-enter or repossess the project upon the default of the contracting party, and operate, lease, or sell the project in such manner as may be authorized or required by the provisions of the revenue agreement or of the resolution or indenture securing the bonds issued for the project; any revenue agreement which includes provision for a conveyance of real estate to the contracting party may be terminated in accordance with the revenue agreement, notwithstanding that such revenue agreement may constitute an equitable mortgage provided that no municipality or redevelopment agency shall have power otherwise to operate any project referred to in this chapter as a business or in any manner whatsoever, and nothing herein authorizes any municipality or redevelopment agency to expend any funds on any project herein described, other than the revenues of such projects, or the proceeds of revenue bonds and notes issued hereunder, or other funds granted to the municipality or redevelopment agency for the purposes herein contemplated, except as may be otherwise permitted by law and except to enforce any right or remedy under any revenue agreement or related agreement for the benefit of the bondholders or for the protection of any security given in connection with a revenue agreement, provided that the public cost of redevelopment of land paid by a city or its redevelopment agency shall not be deemed part of the cost of any project situated on such land;

(13) Invest or deposit, or authorize a trustee to invest or deposit, any money on hand in funds or accounts established in connection with a project or payment of bonds issued therefor, to the extent they are not presently needed for the purposes for which such funds or accounts were created, in accordance with section 471.56, as amended; ~~and~~

(14) Waive or require the furnishing of a contractors payment and performance bond of the kind described in section 574.26 and if such bond shall be required, then the provisions of chapter 514 relating to liens for labor and materials, shall not be applicable in respect of any work done or labor or materials supplied for the project, and if such bond be waived then the said provisions of chapter 514 shall apply in respect of work done or labor or materials supplied for the project; and

(15) Exempt from property taxes on a nonresidential building constructed for sale or rent in a project until the building is first sold, occupied or rented, whichever occurs first, up to a maximum of four years, provided that the exemption must be provided before October 10 of the levy year.

Sec. 3. [EFFECTIVE DATE.]

Section 2 is effective for property taxes levied in 1982 and thereafter, payable in 1983 and thereafter.

ARTICLE XXXVIII

Section 1. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 273.73, Subdivision 10, is amended to read:

Subd. 10. [REDEVELOPMENT DISTRICT.] (a) "Redevelopment district" means a type of tax increment financing district consisting of a project, or portions of a project, within which the authority finds by resolution that one of the following conditions, reasonably distributed throughout the district, exists:

(1) 70 percent of the ~~land is predominantly~~ parcels in the district are occupied by buildings, streets, utilities or other improvements and more than 50 percent of the buildings, not including outbuildings, are structurally substandard to a degree requiring substantial renovation or clearance; or

(2) 70 percent of the ~~land is predominantly~~ parcels in the district are occupied by buildings, streets, utilities or other improvements and 20 percent of the buildings are structurally substandard and an additional 30 percent of the buildings are found to require substantial renovation or clearance in order to remove such existing conditions as: inadequate street layout, incompatible uses or land use relationships, overcrowding of buildings on the land, excessive dwelling unit density, obsolete buildings not suitable for improvement or conversion, or other identified hazards to the health, safety and general well being of the community; or

(3) Less than 70 percent of the ~~land is not predominantly~~ parcels in the district are occupied by buildings, streets, utilities or other improvements, but due to unusual terrain or soil deficiencies requiring substantial filling, grading or other physical preparation for use at least 80 percent of the total acreage of such land has a fair market value upon inclusion in the redevelopment district which, when added to the estimated cost of preparing ~~the~~ that land for ~~use, including utilities~~ development, excluding costs directly related to roads as defined in section 160.01 and local improvements as described in section 429.021, subdivision 1, clauses 1 to 7, 11 and 12, and section 430.01, if any, exceeds its anticipated fair market value after completion of said preparation; provided that no parcel shall be included within a redevelopment district pursuant to this paragraph (3) unless the authority has concluded an agreement or agreements for the development of at least 50 percent of the acreage having the unusual soil or terrain deficiencies, which agreement provides recourse for the authority should the development not be completed; or

(4) The property consists of underutilized air rights existing over a public street, highway or right-of-way*; or*

(5) The property consists of vacant, unused, underused, inappropriately used or infrequently used railyards, rail storage facilities or excessive or vacated railroad rights-of-way.

(b) For purposes of this subdivision, "structurally substandard" shall mean containing defects in structural elements or a combination of deficiencies in essential utilities and facilities, light and ventilation, fire protection including adequate egress, layout and condition of interior partitions, or similar factors, which defects or deficiencies are of sufficient total significance to justify substantial renovation or clearance. ~~"Predominantly occupied" shall mean at least 50 percent of the parcels comprising at least 50 percent of the acreage. percent of the parcels comprising at least 50 percent of the acreage.~~ "Parcel" shall mean a tract or plat of land established prior to the certification of the district as a single unit for purposes of assessment.

Sec. 2. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 273.73, Subdivision 13, is amended to read:

Subd. 13. [ADMINISTRATIVE EXPENSES.] "Administrative expenses" means all expenditures of an authority other than amounts paid for the purchase of land or amounts paid to contractors or others providing materials and services, including architectural and engineering services, directly connected with the physical development of the real property in the district, relocation benefits paid to or services provided for persons residing or businesses located in the district, or amounts used to pay interest on, fund a reserve for, or sell at a discount bonds issued pursuant to section 273.77. "Administrative expenses" includes amounts paid for services provided by bond counsel, fiscal consultants, and planning or economic development consultants.

Sec. 3. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 273.74, Subdivision 1, is amended to read:

273.74 [ESTABLISHING, MODIFYING TAX INCREMENT FINANCING PLAN, ANNUAL ACCOUNTS.]

Subdivision 1. [TAX INCREMENT FINANCING PLAN.] A tax increment financing plan shall contain:

(a) A statement of objectives of an authority for the improvement of a ~~district. The plan shall contain~~ project;

(b) A statement as to the development program for the ~~district~~ project, including the property within the ~~district~~ project, if any, which the authority intends to acquire~~. It shall also contain~~;

(c) A list of any development activities which the plan proposes to take place within the project, for which contracts have been entered into at the time of the preparation of the plan, including the names of the parties to the contract, the activity governed by the contract, the cost stated in the contract, and the expected date of completion of that activity;

(d) Identification or description of the type of any other specific development reasonably expected to take place within the project, and the date when the development is likely to occur;

(e) Estimates of the following:

(1) Cost of the ~~district~~ project, including administration expenses;

(2) Amount of bonded indebtedness to be incurred;

(3) Sources of revenue to finance or otherwise pay public costs;

(4) The most recent assessed value of taxable real property within the tax increment financing district;

(5) The estimated captured assessed value of the tax increment financing district at completion; and

(6) The duration of the tax increment financing district's existence~~. The plan shall also contain~~; and

(f) A statement of the authority's estimate of the impact of tax increment financing on the assessed values of all taxing jurisdictions in which the tax increment financing district is located in whole or in part.

Sec. 4. Minnesota Statutes 1981 Supplement, Section 273.74, Subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [CONSULTATIONS; COMMENT AND FILING.] Before formation of a tax increment financing district, the authority shall provide an opportunity to the members of the county boards of commissioners of any county in which any portion of the proposed district is located and the members of the school board of any school district in which any portion of the proposed district is located to meet with the authority. The authority shall present to the members of the county boards of commissioners and the school boards its estimate of the fiscal and economic implications of the proposed tax increment financing district. The members of the county boards of commissioners and the school boards may present their comments at the public hearing on the tax increment financing plan required by subdivision 3. The county auditor shall not certify the original assessed value of a district pursuant to section 273.76, subdivision 1, until the county board of commissioners has presented its written comment on the proposal to the authority, or 30 days has passed from the date of the transmittal by the authority to the board of the information regarding the fiscal and economic implications, whichever occurs first. Upon adoption of the tax increment financing plan, the authority shall file the same with the commissioner of energy, planning and development.

Sec. 5. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 273.74, Subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [MUNICIPALITY APPROVAL.] No county auditor shall certify the original assessed value of a tax increment financing district until the tax increment financing plan proposed for that district has been approved by the municipality in which the district is located. If an authority which proposes to establish a tax increment financing district and the municipality are not the same, the authority shall apply to the municipality in which the district is proposed to be located and shall obtain the approval of its tax increment financing plan by the municipality before the authority may use tax increment financing. The municipality shall approve the tax increment financing plan only after a public hearing thereon after published notice in a newspaper of general circulation in the municipality at least once not less than ten days nor more than 30 days prior to the date of the hearing. This hearing may be held before or after the approval or creation of the project or it may be held in conjunction with a hearing to approve the project. Before or at the time of approval of the tax increment financing plan, the municipality shall make the following findings, and shall set forth in writing the reasons and supporting facts for each determination:

(a) That the proposed tax increment financing district is a redevelopment district, a housing district or an economic development district ~~and the specific bases for such determination~~.

(b) That the proposed development or redevelopment, in the opinion of the municipality, would not reasonably be expected to occur solely through private investment within the reasonably forseeable future and therefore the use of tax increment financing is deemed necessary.

(c) That the tax increment financing plan conforms to the general plan for the development or redevelopment of the municipality as a whole.

(d) That the tax increment financing plan will afford maximum opportunity, consistent with the sound needs of the municipality as a whole, for the development or redevelopment of the ~~district~~ project by private enterprise.

(e) That the municipality elects the method of tax increment computation set forth in section 273.76, subdivision 3, clause (b), if applicable.

When the municipality and the authority are not the same, the municipality shall approve or disapprove the tax increment financing plan within 60 days of submission by the authority, or the plan shall be deemed approved. When the municipality and the authority are not the same, the municipality may not amend or modify a tax increment financing plan except as proposed by the authority pursuant to subdivision 4. Once approved, the determination of the authority to undertake the project through the use of tax increment financing and the resolution of the governing body shall be conclusive of the findings therein and of the public need for such financing.

Sec. 6. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 273.74, Subdivision 4, is amended to read:

Subd. 4. [MODIFICATION OF PLAN.] A tax increment financing plan may be modified by an authority, provided that any reduction or enlargement of geographic area of the project or tax increment financing district, increase in amount of bonded indebtedness to be incurred, including a determination to capitalize interest on the debt if that determination was not a part of the original plan, or to increase or decrease the amount of interest on the debt to be capitalized, increase in the portion of the captured assessed value to be retained by the authority, increase in total estimated tax increment expenditures or designation of additional property to be acquired by the authority shall be approved upon the notice and after the discussion, public hearing and findings required for approval of the original plan*; provided that if an authority changes the type of district from housing, redevelopment or economic development to another type of district, this change shall not be considered a modification but shall require the authority to follow the procedure set forth in sections 273.71 to 273.78 for adoption of a new plan, including certification of the assessed valuation of the district by the county auditor.*

The geographic area of a tax increment financing district may be reduced, but shall not be enlarged after five years following the date of certification of the original assessed value by the county auditor or five years from August 1, 1979, for tax increment financing districts authorized prior to August 1, 1979, except that development districts created pursuant to chapter 472A prior to August 1, 1979 may be reduced but shall not be enlarged after five years following the date of designation of such district.

Sec. 7. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 273.75, Subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [EXCESS TAX INCREMENTS.] In any year in which the tax increment exceeds the amount necessary to pay the costs authorized by the tax increment financing plan, including the amount necessary to cancel any tax levy as provided in section 475.61, subdivision 3, the authority shall use the excess amount to do any of the following, in the order determined by the authority: (a) prepay any outstanding bonds, (b) discharge the pledge of tax increment therefor, (c) pay into an escrow account dedicated to the payment of such bond, or ~~shall~~ (d) return the excess amount to the county auditor who shall distribute the excess amount to the municipality, county and school district in which the tax increment financing district is located in direct proportion to their respective mill rates.

Sec. 8. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 273.75, Subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [LIMITATION ON ADMINISTRATIVE EXPENSES.] No tax increment shall be used to pay any administrative expenses for a ~~district~~ project which exceed ~~five~~ ten percent of the total tax increment expenditures authorized by the tax increment financing plan or the total tax increment expenditures for the ~~district~~ project, whichever is less.

Sec. 9. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 273.75, Subdivision 4, is amended to read:

Subd. 4. [LIMITATION ON USE OF TAX INCREMENT.] All revenues derived from tax increment shall be used in accordance with the tax increment financing plan. The revenues shall be used solely for the following purposes: (a) to pay the principal of and interest on bonds issued to finance a project; (b) by a rural development financing authority for the purposes stated in section 362A.01, subdivision 2, by a port authority or municipality exercising the powers of a port authority to finance or otherwise pay the cost of redevelopment pursuant to chapter 458, by a housing and redevelopment authority to finance or otherwise pay public redevelopment costs pursuant to chapter 462, by a municipality to finance or otherwise pay the capital and administration costs of a development district pursuant to chapter 472A, by a municipality or redevelopment agency to finance or otherwise pay premiums for insurance guaranteeing the payment of net rentals when due under the project lease or to accumulate and maintain a reserve securing the payment when due of the principal of and interest on the bonds pursuant to chapter 474. These revenues shall not be used to circumvent existing levy limit law. No revenues derived from tax increment shall be used for the construction or renovation of a municipally owned building used primarily and regularly for conducting the business of the municipality; this provision shall not prohibit the use of revenues derived from tax increments for the construction or renovation of a parking structure, a commons area used as a public park or a facility used for social, recreational or conference purposes and not primarily for conducting the business of the municipality.

Sec. 10. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 273.75, Subdivision 5, is amended to read:

Subd. 5. [REQUIREMENT FOR AGREEMENTS.] No more than 25 percent, by acreage, of the property to be acquired within a project which contains a redevelopment district, or ten percent, by acreage, of the property to be acquired within a project which contains a housing or economic development district, as set forth in the tax increment financing plan, shall at any time be owned by an authority as a result of acquisition with the proceeds of bonds issued pursuant to section 273.77 without the authority having prior to acquisition in excess of the percentages concluded an agreement for the development or redevelopment of the property acquired and which provides recourse for the authority should the development or redevelopment not be completed.

Sec. 11. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 273.75, Subdivision 6, is amended to read:

Subd. 6. [LIMITATION ON INCREMENT.] If, after ~~five~~ four years from the date of certification of the original assessed value of the tax increment financing district pursuant to section 273.76, no demolition, rehabilitation or renovation of property or other site preparation, including improvement of a street adjacent to a parcel but not installation of utility service including sewer or water systems, has been commenced on a parcel located within a tax increment financing district by the authority or by the owner of the parcel in accordance with the tax increment financing plan, no additional tax increment may be taken from that parcel, and the original assessed value of that parcel shall be excluded from the original assessed value of the tax increment financing district. If the authority or the owner of the parcel subsequently commences demolition, rehabilitation or renovation or other site preparation on that parcel including improvement of a street adjacent to that parcel, in accordance with the tax increment financing plan, the authority shall certify to the county auditor that the activity has commenced, and the county auditor shall certify the assessed value thereof as most recently certified by the commissioner of revenue and add it to the original assessed value of the tax increment financing district. For purposes of this subdivision "parcel" means a tract or plat of land established prior to the certification of the district as a single unit for purposes of assessment.

Sec. 12. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 273.75, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 7. [SUBSEQUENT DISTRICTS.] Except as provided in section

273.75, subdivision 6, for subsequent recertification of parcels eliminated from a district because of lack of development activity, no parcel that has been so eliminated subsequent to two years from the date of the original certification may be included in a tax increment district if, at any time during the 20 years prior to the date when certification of the district is requested pursuant to section 273.76, subdivision 1, that parcel had been included in an economic development district.

Sec. 13. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 273.76, Subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [ORIGINAL ASSESSED VALUE.] Upon or after adoption of a tax increment financing plan, the auditor of any county in which the district is situated shall, upon request of the authority, certify the original assessed value of the tax increment financing district as described in the tax increment financing plan and shall certify in each year thereafter the amount by which the original assessed value has increased or decreased as a result of a change in tax exempt status of property within the district, reduction or enlargement of the district or changes pursuant to subdivision 4. The amount to be added to the original assessed value of the district as a result of previously tax exempt real property within the district becoming taxable shall be equal to the assessed value of the real property as most recently assessed pursuant to section 273.18 or, if that assessment was made more than one year prior to the date of title transfer rendering the property taxable, the value which shall be assessed by the assessor at the time of such transfer. The amount to be added to the original assessed value of the district as a result of enlargements thereof shall be equal to the assessed value of the added real property as most recently certified by the commissioner of revenue as of the date of modification of the tax increment financing plan pursuant to section 273.74, subdivision 4. Each year the auditor shall also add to the original assessed value of each economic development district an amount equal to the original assessed value for the preceding year multiplied by the average percentage increase in the assessed valuation of all property included in the economic development district during the five years prior to certification of the district. The amount to be subtracted from the original assessed value of the district as a result of previously taxable real property within the district becoming tax exempt, or a reduction in the geographic area of the district, shall be the amount of original assessed value initially attributed to the property becoming tax exempt or being removed from the district. If the assessed value of property located within the tax increment financing district is reduced by reason of a court-ordered abatement, stipulation agreement, voluntary abatement made by the assessor or auditor or by order of the commissioner of revenue, the reduction shall be applied to the original assessed value of the district when the property upon which the abatement is made has not been improved since the date of certification of the district and to the captured assessed value of the district in each year thereafter when the abatement relates to improvements made after the date of certification. The county auditor shall have the power to specify reasonable form and content of the request for certification of the authority and any modification thereof pursuant to section 273.74, subdivision 4.

Sec. 14. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 273.76, Subdivision 4, is amended to read:

Subd. 4. [PRIOR PLANNED IMPROVEMENTS.] The authority shall, after due and diligent search, accompany its request for certification to the county auditor pursuant to subdivision 1, or its notice of district enlargement pursuant to section 273.74, subdivision 5, with a listing of all properties within the tax increment financing district or area of enlargement for which building permits have been issued during the 18 months immediately preceding approval of the tax increment financing plan by the municipality pursuant to section 273.74, subdivision 4. ~~For 12 months after completion of the improvements for which a building permit was issued during said 18 month period,~~ The county auditor ~~is authorized, but not required, to~~ shall increase the original assessed value of the district by the assessed valuation of the improvements for which the building permit was issued, excluding the assessed valuation of improvements for which a building permit was issued during the three month period immediately preceding said approval of the tax increment financing plan, as certified by the assessor.

Sec. 15. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 273.77, is amended to read:

273.77 [TAX INCREMENT BONDING.]

Any other law, general or special, notwithstanding, after August 1, 1979 no bonds, payment for which tax increment is pledged, shall be issued in connection with any project for which tax increment financing has been undertaken other than as is authorized hereby and the proceeds therefrom shall be used only in accordance with section 273.75, subdivision 4 as if said proceeds were tax increment, except that a tax increment financing plan need not be adopted for any project for which tax increment financing has been undertaken prior to August 1, 1979, pursuant to statutes not requiring a tax increment financing plan. Such bonds shall not be included for purposes of computing the net debt of any municipality.

(a) A municipality may issue general obligation bonds to finance any expenditure by the municipality or an authority the jurisdiction of which is wholly or partially within that municipality, pursuant to section 273.75, subdivision 4 in the same manner and subject only to the same conditions as those provided in chapter 475 for bonds financing improvement costs reimbursable from special assessments. Any pledge of tax increment, assessments or other revenues for the payment of the principal of and interest on general obligation bonds issued under this subdivision, except when the authority and the municipality are the same, shall be made by written agreement by and between the authority and the municipality and filed with the county auditor. When the authority and the municipality are the same, the municipality may by covenant pledge tax increment, assessments or other revenues for the payment of the principal of and interest on general obligation bonds issued under this subdivision and thereupon shall file the resolution containing such covenant with the county auditor. When tax increment, assessments and other revenues are pledged, the estimated collections of said tax increment, assessments and any other revenues so pledged may be deducted from the taxes otherwise required to be levied before the issuance of the bonds under section 475.61, subdivision 1, or the collections thereof may be certified annually to reduce or cancel the initial tax levies in accordance with section 475.61, subdivision 1 or 3.

(b) When the authority and the municipality are not the same, an authority may, by resolution, authorize, issue and sell its general obligation bonds to finance any expenditure which that authority is authorized to make by section 273.75, subdivision 4. Said bonds of the authority shall be authorized by its resolution, shall mature as determined by resolution of the authority in accordance with Laws 1979, Chapter 322, and may be issued in one or more series and shall bear such date or dates, bear interest at such rate or rates, be in such denomination or denominations, be in such form either coupon or registered, carry such conversion or registration privileges, have such rank or priority, be executed in such manner, be payable in medium of payment at such place or places, and be subject to such terms of redemption, with or without premium, as such resolution, its trust indenture or mortgage may provide. The bonds may be sold at public or private sale at the price or prices as the authority by resolution shall determine, and any provision of any law to the contrary notwithstanding, the bonds shall be fully negotiable. In any suit, actions, or proceedings involving the validity of enforceability of any bonds of the authority or the security therefor, any bond reciting in substance that it has been issued by the authority to aid in financing a ~~district~~ project shall be conclusively deemed to have been issued for such purpose, and the tax increment financing district within the project shall be conclusively deemed to have been planned, located, and carried out in accordance with the purposes and provisions of Laws 1979, Chapter 322. Neither the authority, nor any director, commissioner, council member, board member, officer, employee or agent of the authority nor any person executing the bonds shall be liable personally on the bonds by reason of the issuance thereof. The bonds of the authority, and such bonds shall so state on their face, shall not be a debt of any municipality, the state or any political subdivision thereof, and neither the municipality nor the state or any political subdivision thereof shall be liable thereon, nor in any event shall such bonds be payable out of any funds or properties other than those of the authority and any tax increment and revenues of a tax increment financing district pledged therefor.

(c) Notwithstanding any other law general or special, an authority may, by resolution, authorize, issue and sell revenue bonds payable solely from all or a portion of revenues, including but not limited to tax increment revenues and assessments, derived from a tax increment financing district located wholly or partially within the municipality to finance any expenditure which the authority is authorized to make by section 273.75, subdivision 4. The bonds shall mature as determined by resolution of the authority in accordance with Laws 1979, Chapter 322 and may be issued in one or more series and shall bear such date or dates, bear interest at such rate or rates, be in such denomination or denominations, be in such form either coupon or registered, carry such conversion or registration privileges, have such rank or priority, be executed in such manner, be payable in medium of payment at such place or places, and be subject to such terms of redemption, with or without premium, as such resolution, its trust indenture or mortgage may provide. The bonds may be sold at public or private sale at the price or prices as the authority by resolution shall determine, and any provision of any law to the contrary notwithstanding, shall be fully negotiable. In any suit, action, or proceedings involving the validity or enforceability of any bonds of the authority or the security therefor, any bond reciting in substance that it has been issued by the authority to aid in financing a ~~district~~ project shall be conclusively deemed to have been issued for such purpose, and the tax increment financing district within the project shall be conclusively deemed to have been planned, located, and carried out in accordance with the purposes and provisions of Laws 1979, Chapter 322. Neither the authority, nor any director, commissioner, council member, board member, officer, employee or agent of the authority nor any person executing the bonds shall be liable personally on the bonds by reason of the issuance thereof. The bonds may be further secured by a pledge and mortgage of all or any portion of the district in aid of which the bonds are issued and such convenants as the authority shall deem by such resolution to be necessary and proper to secure payment of the bonds. The bonds, and the bonds shall so state on their face, shall not be payable from nor charged upon any funds other than the revenues and property pledged or mortgaged to the payment thereof, nor shall the issuing authority be subject to any liability thereon or have the powers to obligate itself to pay or pay the bonds from funds other than the revenues and properties pledged and mortgaged and no holder or holders of the bonds shall ever have the right to compel any exercise of any taxing power of the issuing authority or any other public body, other than as is permitted or required under Laws 1979, Chapter 322 and pledged therefor hereunder, to pay the principal of or interest on any such bonds, nor to enforce payment thereof against any property of the authority or other public body other than that expressly pledged or mortgaged for the payment thereof.

(d) (1) In anticipation of the issuance of bonds pursuant to either paragraph (a), (b) or (c) of this section, the authority or municipality may by resolution issue and sell temporary bonds pursuant to paragraph (a), (b) or (c), maturing within not more than three years from their date of issue, to pay any part or all of the cost of a project. To the extent that the principal of and interest on the temporary bonds cannot be paid when due from receipts of tax increment, assessments, or other funds appropriated for the purpose, they shall be paid from the proceeds of long-term bonds or additional temporary bonds which the authority or municipality shall offer for sale in advance of the maturity date of the temporary bonds, but the indebtedness funded by an issue of temporary bonds shall not be extended by the issue of additional temporary bonds for more than six years from the date of the first issue. Long-term bonds may be issued pursuant to paragraph (a), (b) or (c) without regard to whether the temporary bonds were issued pursuant to paragraph (a), (b) or (c). If general obligation temporary bonds are issued pursuant to paragraph (a), proceeds of long-term bonds or additional temporary bonds not yet sold may be treated as pledged revenues, in reduction of the tax otherwise required by section 475.61 to be levied prior to delivery of the obligations. Subject to the six-year maturity limitation contained above, but without regard to the requirement of section 475.58, if any temporary bonds are not paid in full at maturity, in addition to any other remedy authorized or permitted by law, the holders may demand, in which case the authority or municipality shall, issue pursuant to paragraph (a), (b) or (c) as the temporary bonds and in exchange for the temporary bonds, at par, replacement temporary bonds dated as of the date of the replaced temporary bonds, maturing within one year from the date of the replacement temporary bonds and earning interest at the rate set forth in the resolution authorizing the issuance of the replaced temporary bonds, provided that the rate shall not exceed the maximum rate permitted by law at the date of issue of the replaced temporary bonds.

(2) Funds of a municipality may be invested in its temporary bonds in accordance with the provisions of section 471.56, and may be purchased upon their initial issue, but shall be purchased only from funds which the governing body of the municipality determines will not be required for other purposes before the maturity date, and shall be resold before maturity only in case of emergency. If purchased from a debt service fund securing other bonds, the holders of those bonds may enforce the municipality's obligations on the temporary bonds in the same manner as if they held the temporary bonds.

Sec. 16. [EFFECTIVE DATE.]

Sections 1 to 15 are effective with respect to districts for which certification is requested after June 30, 1982, except that the provisions of section 6 relating to changes in the type of an existing district shall apply to any district the type of which is changed subsequent to the date of final enactment of this act.

ARTICLE XXXIX

Section 1. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 278.08, is amended to read:

278.08 [INTEREST.]

Subdivision 1. [TAXES DUE.] ~~If~~ Whether or not the tax is sustained in full as levied and section 278.03 notwithstanding, the judgment shall include any interest which has ~~then~~ accrued ~~thereon~~ on the taxes for failure to pay the ~~same,~~ taxes or any part ~~thereof, at the time required by law~~ of the taxes as provided in sections 279.01 and 279.03. If the tax is reduced, no ~~penalties and interest~~ penalty shall be included in the judgment because of the failure to pay the reduced tax prior to ~~the~~ entry ~~thereof~~ of judgment. After the judgment is entered, it shall be subject to interest ~~or penalties as would under the law attach to the tax embraced therein after the entry thereof~~ and penalty at the rates provided in chapter 279 for delinquent payment of property taxes.

Subd. 2. [REFUND.] If the petitioner has overpaid the tax determined or stipulated to be due, the county auditor shall compute interest on the overpayment from the date of the filing of the petition for review or from the date of payment of the tax, whichever is later, until the date of issuance of the refund warrant. Interest shall be calculated on the overpayment at the rate provided in section 279.03 for delinquent property taxes for the levy year involved.

Sec. 2. Minnesota Statutes 1981 Supplement, Section 279.03, is amended to read:

279.03 [INTEREST ON DELINQUENT ~~REAL ESTATE~~ PROPERTY TAXES.]

Subdivision 1. [RATE.] The rate of interest on delinquent ~~real estate~~ property taxes levied in 1979 and prior years is fixed at six percent per ~~annum~~ year until January 1, 1983. Thereafter interest is payable at the rate determined pursuant to section 549.09. The rate of interest on delinquent ~~real estate~~ property taxes levied in 1980 and subsequent years ~~shall be~~ is the rate determined pursuant to section 549.09. All provisions of law except section 549.09 providing for the calculation of interest at any different rate on delinquent taxes in any notice or proceeding in connection with the payment, collection, sale, or assignment of delinquent taxes, or redemption from such sale or assignment are hereby amended to correspond herewith. Section 549.09 shall continue in force with respect to judgments arising out of petitions for review filed pursuant to chapter 278 irrespective of the levy year.

~~Such interest shall be calculated from the second Monday of May following the year in which the taxes became due, on the full amount of the taxes, penalties and costs accrued.~~

~~The provisions of this section shall not apply to any taxes which have heretofore been bid in by an actual purchaser at a May tax sale or which have heretofore been assigned.~~

For property taxes levied in 1980 and prior years, interest is to be calculated at simple interest from the second Monday in May following the year in which the taxes become due until the time that the taxes and penalties are paid, computed on the amount of unpaid taxes, penalties and costs. For property taxes levied in 1981 and subsequent years, interest shall commence on the first day of January following the year in which the taxes become due, but the county treasurer need not calculate interest on unpaid taxes and penalties on the tax list returned to the county auditor pursuant to section 279.01.

If interest is payable for a portion of a year, the interest is calculated only for the months that the taxes or penalties remain unpaid, and for this purpose a portion of a month is deemed to be a whole month.

Subd. 2. [COMPOSITE JUDGMENT.] Amounts included in composite judgment, as authorized by section 279.37, and confessed on or after July 1, 1982, are subject to interest at the rate determined pursuant to section 549.09. During each calendar year, interest shall accrue on the unpaid balance of the composite judgment from the time it is confessed until it is paid. The rate of interest is subject to change each year in the same manner that section 549.09 provides for rate changes on judgments. Interest on the unpaid contract balance on judgments confessed before July 1, 1982, is payable at the rate applicable to the judgment at the time that it was confessed.

Sec. 3. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 279.37, Subdivision 1, is amended to read:

279.37 [CONFESSION OF JUDGMENT FOR DELINQUENT TAXES.]

Subdivision 1. [COMPOSITION INTO ONE ITEM.] Delinquent taxes upon any parcel of real estate which have been bid in for and are held by the state and not assigned by it, may be composed into one item or amount by confession of judgment at any time prior to the forfeiture of such parcel of land to the state for taxes, for the aggregate amount of all such taxes, costs, penalties, and interest accrued against said parcel, as hereinafter provided; provided that ~~no such taxes upon lands classified for assessment at an assessed value exceeding 40 percent of the market value, shall be composed into any such judgment or be payable in the manner provided by this section~~ only taxes upon property which, for the previous year's assessment, was classified as homestead property pursuant to section 273.13, subdivisions 6, 6a, 7, and 14a shall be eligible to be composed into any confession of judgment pursuant to this section.

Sec. 4. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 279.37, Subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [INSTALLMENT PAYMENTS.] The owner of any such parcel, or any person to whom the right to pay taxes has been given by statute, mortgage, or other agreement, may make and file with the county auditor of the county wherein ~~said~~ the parcel is located a written offer to pay the current taxes each year before they become delinquent, or to contest ~~such~~ the taxes under Minnesota Statutes 1941, Sections 278.01 to 278.13, and agree to confess judgment for the amount hereinbefore provided, as determined by the county auditor, and shall thereby waive all irregularities in connection with the tax proceedings affecting ~~such~~ the parcel and any defense or objection which he may have ~~thereto~~ to the proceedings, and shall thereby waive the requirements of any notice of default in the payment of any instalment or interest to become due pursuant to the composite judgment to be so entered, and shall tender therewith one-tenth of the amount of ~~such~~ the delinquent taxes, costs, penalty, and interest, and agree therein to pay the balance in nine equal instalments, with interest ~~at the rate of eight percent per annum~~ as provided in section 279.03, payable annually on instalments remaining unpaid from time to time, on or before December 31 of each year following the year in which judgment was confessed, which offer shall be substantially as follows:

"To the clerk of the district court of ..... county, I, ..., owner of the following described parcel of real estate situate in ..... county, Minnesota, to-wit: ..... upon which there are delinquent taxes for the year ....., and prior years, as follows: (here insert year of delinquency and the total amount of delinquent taxes, costs, interest, and penalty) do hereby offer to confess judgment in the sum of $..... and hereby waive all irregularities in the tax proceedings affecting such taxes and any defense or objection which I may have thereto, and direct judgment to be entered for the amount hereby confessed, less the sum of $....., hereby tendered, being one-tenth of the amount of said taxes, costs, penalty, and interest; I agree to pay the balance of said judgment in nine equal, annual instalments, with interest ~~at the rate of eight percent per annum~~ as provided in section 279.03, payable annually, on the instalments remaining unpaid from time to time, said instalments and interest to be paid on or before December 31 of each year following the year in which this judgment is confessed and current taxes each year before they become delinquent, or within 30 days after the entry of final judgment in proceedings to contest such taxes under Minnesota Statutes 1941, Sections 278.01 to 278.13.

Dated this ....., 19....."

Sec. 5. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 282.01, Subdivision 4, is amended to read:

Subd. 4. [CONDUCT OF SALE.] ~~Such~~ The sale shall be conducted by the county auditor at the county seat of the county in which ~~such~~ the parcels lie, provided that, in St. Louis and Koochiching counties, the sale may be conducted in any county facility within the county, and ~~such~~ the parcels shall be sold for cash only and at not less than the appraised value, unless the county board of the county shall have adopted a resolution providing for their sale on terms, in which event ~~such~~ the resolution shall control with respect thereto. When the sale is made on terms other than for cash only a payment of at least ten percent of the purchase price must be made at the time of purchase, thereupon the balance shall be paid in ~~not to exceed~~ no more than ten equal annual instalments. No standing timber or timber products shall be removed from these lands until an amount equal to the appraised value of all ~~such~~ standing timber or timber products ~~as may have been standing~~ on ~~such~~ the lands at the time of purchase has been paid by the purchaser; provided, that in case any parcel of land bearing standing timber or timber products is sold at public auction for more than the appraised value, the amount bid in excess of the appraised value shall be allocated between the land and the timber in proportion to the respective appraised values thereof, and no standing timber or timber products shall be removed from ~~such~~ the land until the amount of ~~such~~ the excess bid allocated to timber or timber products ~~shall have~~ has been paid in addition to the appraised value thereof. ~~When sales are made on such terms the interest rate on the unpaid portion shall be eight percent per annum.~~ The purchaser ~~at such sale shall be~~ is entitled to immediate possession, subject to the provisions of any existing valid lease made in behalf of the state.

For sales occurring on or after July 1, 1982, the unpaid balance of the purchase price is subject to interest at the rate determined pursuant to section 549.09. The interest rate is subject to change each year on the unpaid balance in the manner provided in section 549.09 for rate changes on judgments. Interest on the unpaid contract balance on sales occurring before July 1, 1982, is payable at the rate applicable to the sale at the time that the sale occurred.

Sec. 6. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 282.01, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 7a. [ALTERNATE SALE PROCEDURE.] Land located in a home rule charter or statutory city, or in a town described in section 368.01, subdivision 1, which cannot be improved because of noncompliance with local ordinances regarding minimum area, shape, frontage or access may be sold by the county auditor pursuant to this subdivision if the auditor determines that a nonpublic sale will encourage the approval of sale of the land by the city or town and promote its return to the tax rolls. The sale of land pursuant to this subdivision shall be subject to any conditions imposed by the county board pursuant to section 282.03. The governing body of the city or town may recommend to the county board conditions to be imposed on the sale. The county auditor may restrict the sale to owners of lands adjoining the land to be sold. The county auditor shall conduct the sale by sealed bid or may select another means of sale. The land shall be sold to the highest bidder but in no event shall the land be sold for less than its appraised value. All owners of land adjoining the land to be sold shall be given a written notice at least 30 days prior to the sale.

This subdivision shall be liberally construed to encourage the sale and utilization of tax-forfeited land, to eliminate nuisances and dangerous conditions and to increase compliance with land use ordinances.

Sec. 7. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 282.04, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 1a. [LEASING WITHOUT BIDS.] The county auditor may within a period of two years immediately following the date of forfeiture lease tax-forfeited land on which are located structures or buildings without advertising for bids. Notwithstanding subdivision 1, the property may be leased for a period no longer than one year without bids, regardless of the consideration received for the lease. With the approval of the county board, the county auditor may under similar circumstances enter into a management contract without bids when that action is necessary for the operation, use or preservation of the property and the safety of the public.

Sec. 8. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 282.08, is amended to read:

282.08 [APPORTIONMENT OF PROCEEDS.]

The net proceeds from the sale or rental of any parcel of forfeited land, or from the sale of any products therefrom, shall be apportioned by the county auditor to the taxing districts interested therein, as follows:

(1) Such portion as may be required to pay any amounts included in the appraised value under section 282.01, subdivision 3, as representing increased value due to any public improvement made after forfeiture of such parcel to the state, but not exceeding the amount certified by the clerk of the municipality, shall be apportioned to the municipal subdivision entitled thereto;

(2) Such portion of the remainder as may be required to discharge any special assessment chargeable against such parcel for drainage or other purpose whether due or deferred at the time of forfeiture, shall be apportioned to the municipal subdivision entitled thereto; and

(3) ~~Such portion of the remainder as may have been theretofore levied on the parcel of land for any bond issue of the school district, town, city, or county, wherein the parcel of land is situated shall be apportioned to the municipal subdivisions in the proportions of the respective interest; and~~

~~(4)~~ Any balance shall be apportioned as follows:

(a) Any county board may annually by resolution set aside ~~not exceeding~~ no more than 30 percent of the receipts remaining to be used for timber development on tax-forfeited land and dedicated memorial forests, to be expended under the supervision of the county board. It shall be expended only on projects approved by the commissioner of natural resources.

(b) Any county board may annually by resolution set aside ~~not exceeding~~ no more than 20 percent of the receipts remaining to be used for the acquisition and maintenance of county parks or recreational areas as defined in sections 398.31 to 398.36, to be expended under the supervision of the county board.

(c) If the board does not avail itself of the authority under paragraph (a) or (b) any balance remaining shall be apportioned as follows: county, 40 percent; town or city, 20 percent; and school district, 40 percent, and if the board avails itself of the authority under paragraph (a) or (b) the balance remaining shall be apportioned among the county, town or city, in the proportions in this paragraph above stated, provided, however, that in unorganized territory that portion which should have accrued to the township shall be administered by the county board of commissioners.

Sec. 9. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 282.261, is amended to read:

282.261 [~~DOWN PAYMENT~~ TERMS OF REPURCHASE.]

Subdivision 1. [PAYMENTS; TAXES.] A person repurchasing under section 282.241 shall pay at the time of repurchase not less than one-tenth of ~~such~~ the repurchase price and shall pay the balance in ten equal annual instalments, with the privilege of paying the unpaid balance in full at any time, with interest ~~at the rate of eight percent on the balance remaining unpaid each year~~ as provided in subdivision 2, the first instalment of principal and interest to become due and payable on December 31 of the year following the year in which the repurchase was made, the remaining instalments to become due and payable on December 31 of each year thereafter until fully paid. ~~He~~ The person shall pay the current taxes each year thereafter before ~~the same shall~~ they become delinquent up to the time when he ~~shall pay~~ has paid the repurchase price in full.

Subd. 2. [INTEREST RATE.] The unpaid balance on any repurchase contract approved by the county board on or after July 1, 1982, is subject to interest at the rate determined pursuant to section 549.09. The interest rate is subject to change each year on the unpaid balance in the manner provided in section 549.09 for rate changes on judgments. Interest on the unpaid contract balance on repurchases approved before July 1, 1982, is payable at the rate applicable to the repurchase contract at the time that it was approved.

Subd. 3. [ALTERNATIVE TREATMENT OF NONHOMESTEAD PROPERTY.] A county board of commissioners may by resolution provide that the installment arrangement in subdivision 1 is not applicable to nonhomestead property and that this subdivision applies instead. If the resolution is approved, the minimum downpayment shall be 20 percent of the repurchase price and the balance shall be payable in four equal annual installments. A resolution shall remain in force for at least one year after approval and shall be applied uniformly to all nonhomestead property in the county. "Nonhomestead property" means all property except that which is classified for property tax purposes as homestead property at the time that the repurchase application is approved.

Sec. 10. [EFFECTIVE DATE.]

This article is effective the day following final enactment.

ARTICLE XL

Section 1. Minnesota Statutes 1981 Supplement, Section 290.01, Subdivision 20, as amended by Laws 1981, Third Special Session Chapter 2, Article III, Section 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 20. [GROSS INCOME.] Except as otherwise provided in this chapter, the term "gross income," as applied to corporations includes every kind of compensation for labor or personal services of every kind from any private or public employment, office, position or services; income derived from the ownership or use of property; gains or profits derived from every kind of disposition of, or every kind of dealing in, property; income derived from the transaction of any trade or business; and income derived from any source; except that gross income shall not include "exempt function income" of a "homeowners association" as those terms are defined in Section 528 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, as amended through December 31, 1980.

The term "gross income" in its application to individuals, estates, and trusts shall mean the adjusted gross income as defined in the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, as amended through the date specified herein for the applicable taxable year, with the modifications specified in this subdivision. For estates and trusts the adjusted gross income shall be their federal taxable income as defined in the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, as amended through the date specified herein for the applicable taxable year, with the modifications specified in this subdivision and with the modification that the federal deduction for personal exemptions for trusts and estates shall not be allowed.

(i) The Internal Revenue Code of 1954, as amended through December 31, 1974, shall be in effect for the taxable years beginning after December 31, 1974.

(ii) The Internal Revenue Code of 1954, as amended through December 31, 1976, including the amendments made to section 280A (relating to licensed day care centers) in H.R. 3477 as it passed the Congress on May 16, 1977, shall be in effect for the taxable years beginning after December 31, 1976. The provisions of the Tax Reform Act of 1976, P.L. 94-455, which affect adjusted gross income shall become effective for purposes of this chapter at the same time they become effective for federal income tax purposes. Section 207 (relating to extension of period for nonrecognition of gain on sale or exchange of residence) and section 402 (relating to time for making contributions to pension plans of self employed people) of P.L. 94-12 shall be effective for taxable years beginning after December 31, 1974.

The provisions of section 4 of P.L. 95-458, sections 131, 133, 134, 141, 152, 156, 157, 405, and 543 of P.L. 95-600, and section 2 of P.L. 96-608 (relating to pensions, individual retirement accounts, deferred compensation plans, the sale of a residence and to conservation payments to farmers) including the amendments made to these sections in P.L. 96-222 shall be effective at the same time that these provisions became effective for federal income tax purposes.

(iii) The Internal Revenue Code of 1954, as amended through December 31, 1979, shall be in effect for taxable years beginning after December 31, 1979.

(iv) The Internal Revenue Code of 1954, as amended through December 31, 1980, and as amended by sections 302(b) and 501 to 509 of Public Law Number 97-34, shall be in effect for taxable years beginning after December 31, 1980 including the provisions of section 404 (relating to partial exclusions of dividends and interest received by individuals) of the Crude Oil Windfall Profit Tax Act of 1980, P.L. 96-223. The provisions of P.L. 96-471 (relating to installment sales) ~~and~~ sections 122, 123, 126, 201, 202, 203, 204, 211, 213, 214, 251, 261, 264, 265, 311(g)(3), 313, 314(a)(1), 321(a), 501 to 507, 811, and 812 of the Economic Recovery Tax Act of 1981, Public Law Number 97-34 and section 113 of Public Law Number 97-119 shall be effective at the same time that they become effective for federal income tax purposes.

(v) The Internal Revenue Code of 1954, as amended through December 31, 1981, shall be in effect for taxable years beginning after December 31, 1981.

References to the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 in clauses (a), (b) and (c) following shall mean the code in effect for the purpose of defining gross income for the applicable taxable year.

(a) Modifications increasing federal adjusted gross income. There shall be added to federal adjusted gross income:

(1) Interest income on obligations of any state other than Minnesota or a political subdivision of any other state exempt from federal income taxes under the Internal Revenue Code of 1954;

(2) A business casualty loss if the taxpayer elected to deduct the loss on the current year's federal income tax return but had deducted the loss on the previous year's Minnesota income tax return;

(3) Income taxes imposed by this state or any other taxing jurisdiction, to the extent deductible in determining federal adjusted gross income and not credited against federal income tax;

(4) Interest on indebtedness incurred or continued to purchase or carry securities the income from which is exempt from tax under this chapter, to the extent deductible in determining federal adjusted gross income;

(5) Amounts received as reimbursement for an expense of sickness or injury which was deducted in a prior taxable year to the extent that the deduction for the reimbursed expenditure resulted in a tax benefit;

(6) The amount of any federal income tax overpayment for any previous taxable year, received as refund or credited to another taxable year's income tax liability, proportionate to the percentage of federal income tax that was claimed as a deduction in determining Minnesota income tax for the previous taxable year. The amount of the federal income tax overpayment shall be reported only to the extent that the amount resulted in a reduction of the tax imposed by this chapter.

The overpayment refund or credit, determined with respect to a husband and wife on a joint federal income tax return for a previous taxable year, shall be reported on joint, combined, or separate Minnesota income tax returns. In the case of combined or separate Minnesota returns, the overpayment shall be reported by each spouse proportionately according to the relative amounts of federal income tax claimed as a deduction on his or her combined or separate Minnesota income tax return for such previous taxable year;

(7) In the case of a change of residence from Minnesota to another state or nation, the amount of moving expenses which exceed total reimbursements and which were therefore deducted in arriving at federal adjusted gross income;

(8) The amount of any increase in the taxpayer's federal tax liability under section 47 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 to the extent of the credit under section 38 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 that was previously allowed as a deduction either under section 290.01, subdivision 20 (b) (7);

(9) Expenses and losses arising from a farm which are not allowable under section 290.09, subdivision 29;

(10) Expenses and depreciation attributable to substandard buildings disallowed by section 290.101;

(11) The amount by which the gain determined pursuant to section 41.59, subdivision 2 exceeds the amount of such gain included in federal adjusted gross income;

(12) To the extent deducted in computing the taxpayer's federal adjusted gross income for the taxable year, losses recognized upon a transfer of property to the spouse or former spouse of the taxpayer in exchange for the release of the spouse's marital rights;

(13) Interest income from qualified scholarship funding bonds as defined in section 103(e) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, if the nonprofit corporation is domiciled outside of Minnesota;

(14) Exempt-interest dividends, as defined in section 852(b)(5)(A) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, not included in federal adjusted gross income pursuant to section 852(b)(5)(B) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, except for that portion of exempt-interest dividends derived from interest income on obligations of the state of Minnesota, any of its political or governmental subdivisions, any of its municipalities, or any of its governmental agencies or instrumentalities;

(15) The amount of any excluded gain recognized by a trust on the sale or exchange of property as defined in section 641(c)(1) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954;

(16) ~~For taxable years beginning after December 31, 1980 but before January 1, 1983, in the case of recovery property within the meaning of section 168 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 as amended through December 31,~~

~~1981, the amount allowed under section 167 of the Internal Revenue Code;~~

~~(17)~~ To the extent not included in the taxpayer's federal adjusted gross income, the amount of any gain, from the sale or other disposition of property having a lower adjusted basis for Minnesota income tax purposes than for federal income tax purposes. This modification shall not exceed the difference in basis. If the gain is considered a long term capital gain for federal income tax purposes, the modification shall be limited to 40 percent of the portion of the gain. This modification is limited to property that qualified for the energy credit contained in section 290.06, subdivision 14, and to property acquired in exchange for the release of the taxpayer's marital rights contained in section 290.14, clause (9);

~~(18)~~ (17) The amount of any loss from a source outside of Minnesota which is not allowed under section 290.17 including any capital loss or net operating loss carryforwards or carrybacks resulting from the loss;

~~(19)~~ (18) The amount of a distribution from an individual housing account which is to be included in gross income as required under section 290.08, subdivision 25;

~~(20)~~ (19) To the extent deducted in computing the taxpayer's federal adjusted gross income, interest, taxes and other expenses which are not allowed under section 290.10, clause (9) or (10);

~~(21)~~ (20) To the extent excluded from federal adjusted gross income, in the case of a city manager or city administrator who elects to be excluded from the public employees retirement association and who makes contributions to a deferred compensation program pursuant to section 353.028, the amount of contributions made by the city manager or administrator which is equal to the amount which would have been the city manager's or administrator's employee contribution pursuant to section 353.27, subdivision 2, if he were a member of the public employees retirement association;

(21) The deduction for two-earner married couples provided in section 221 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954; ~~and~~

(22) ~~For taxable years beginning after December 31, 1980 but before January 1, 1983, in the case of section 179 property within the meaning of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, the amount allowed as a deduction under section 179 of the Internal Revenue Code~~ Interest on all-savers certificates which is excluded under section 128 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954;

(23) The amount of contributions to an individual retirement account, simplified employee pension plan, or self-employed retirement plan which is allowed under sections 311 and 312 of Public Law Number 97-34 to the extent those contributions were not an allowable deduction prior to the enactment of that law; and

(24) To the extent deducted in computing federal adjusted gross income, living expenses of a member of congress in excess of that allowable under section 290.09, subdivision 2, clause (a)(3).

(b) Modifications reducing federal adjusted gross income. There shall be subtracted from federal adjusted gross income:

(1) Interest income on obligations of any authority, commission or instru-mentality of the United States to the extent includible in gross income for federal income tax purposes but exempt from state income tax under the laws of the United States;

(2) The portion of any gain, from the sale or other disposition of property having a higher adjusted basis for Minnesota income tax purposes than for federal income tax purposes, that does not exceed such difference in basis; but if such gain is considered a long-term capital gain for federal income tax purposes, the modification shall be limited to 60 per centum of the portion of the gain. This modification shall not be applicable if the difference in basis is due to disallowance of depreciation pursuant to section 290.101.

(3) Interest or dividend income on securities to the extent exempt from income tax under the laws of this state authorizing the issuance of the securities but includible in gross income for federal income tax purposes;

(4) Losses, not otherwise reducing federal adjusted gross income assignable to Minnesota, arising from events or transactions which are assignable to Minnesota under the provisions of sections 290.17 to 290.20, including any capital loss or net operating loss carryforwards or carrybacks or out of state loss carryforwards resulting from the losses, and including any farm loss carryforwards or carrybacks;

(5) If included in federal adjusted gross income, the amount of any credit received, whether received as a refund or credit to another taxable year's income tax liability, pursuant to chapter 290A, and the amount of any overpayment of income tax to Minnesota, or any other state, for any previous taxable year, whether the amount is received as a refund or credited to another taxable year's income tax liability;

(6) To the extent included in federal adjusted gross income, or the amount reflected as the ordinary income portion of a lump sum distribution under section 402(e) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, notwithstanding any other law to the contrary, the amount received by any person (i) from the United States, its agencies or instrumentalities, the Federal Reserve Bank or from the state of Minnesota or any of its political or governmental subdivisions or from any other state or its political or governmental subdivisions, or a Minnesota volunteer firefighter's relief association, by way of payment as a pension, public employee retirement benefit, or any combination thereof, or (ii) as a retirement or survivor's benefit made from a plan qualifying under section 401, 403, 404, 405, 408, 409 or 409A of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954. The maximum amount of this subtraction shall be $11,000 less the amount by which the individual's federal adjusted gross income, plus the ordinary income portion of a lump sum distribution as defined in section 402(e) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, exceeds $17,000. In the case of a volunteer firefighter who receives an involuntary lump sum distribution of his pension or retirement benefits, the maximum amount of this subtraction shall be $11,000; this subtraction shall not be reduced by the amount of the individual's federal adjusted gross income in excess of $17,000;

(7) The amount of any credit to the taxpayer's federal tax liability under section 38 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 but only to the extent that the credit is connected with or allocable against the production or receipt of income included in the measure of the tax imposed by this chapter;

(8) To the extent included in the taxpayer's federal adjusted gross income for the taxable year, gain recognized upon a transfer of property to the spouse or former spouse of the taxpayer in exchange for the release of the spouse's marital rights;

(9) The amount of any distribution from a qualified pension or profit sharing plan included in federal adjusted gross income in the year of receipt to the extent of any contribution not previously allowed as a deduction by reason of a change in federal law which was not adopted by Minnesota law for a taxable year beginning in 1974 or later;

(10) Interest, including payment adjustment to the extent that it is applied to interest, earned by the seller of the property on a family farm security loan executed before January 1, 1986 that is guaranteed by the commissioner of agriculture as provided in sections 41.51 to 41.60;

(11) The first $3,000 of compensation for personal services in the armed forces of the United States or the United Nations, and the next $2,000 of compensation for personal services in the armed forces of the United States or the United Nations wholly performed outside the state of Minnesota. This modification does not apply to compensation defined in clause (b)(6);

(12) The amount of any income earned for personal services rendered outside of Minnesota prior to the date when the taxpayer became a resident of Minnesota. This modification does not apply to compensation defined in clause (b)(6);

(13) In the case of wages or salaries paid or incurred on or after January 1, 1977, the amount of any credit for employment of certain new employees under sections 44B and 51 to 53 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 which is claimed as a credit against the taxpayer's federal tax liability, but only to the extent that the credit is connected with or allocable against the production or receipt of income included in the measure of the tax imposed by this chapter;

(14) In the case of work incentive program expenses paid or incurred on or after January 1, 1979, the amount of any credit for expenses of work incentive programs under sections 40, 50A and 50B of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 which is claimed as a credit against the taxpayer's federal tax liability, but only to the extent that the credit is connected with or allocable against the production or receipt of income included in the measure of the tax imposed by this chapter;

(15) Unemployment compensation to the extent includible in gross income for federal income tax purposes under section 85 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954;

(16) To the extent included in federal adjusted gross income, severance pay that may be treated as a lump sum distribution under the provisions of section 290.032, subdivision 5;

(17) The amount of any income or gain which is not assignable to Minnesota under the provisions of section 290.17;

(18) Minnesota exempt-interest dividends as provided by subdivision 27;

(19) A business casualty loss which the taxpayer elected to deduct on the current year's Minnesota income tax return but did not deduct on the current year's federal income tax return; and

(20) Income from the performance of personal or professional services which is subject to the reciprocity exclusion contained in section 290.081, clause (a);

(21) To the extent included in federal adjusted gross income, in the case of a city manager or city administrator who elects to be excluded from the public employees retirement association and who makes contributions to a deferred compensation program pursuant to section 353.028, the amount of payments from the deferred compensation program equivalent to the amount of contributions taxed under clause (a)~~(21)~~ (20);

(22) Contributions to and interest earned on an individual housing account as provided by section 290.08, subdivision 25;

(23) Interest earned on a contract for deed entered into for the ~~purchase~~ sale of property for agricultural use if the rate of interest set in the contract is no more than ~~eight~~ nine percent per year for the duration of the term of the contract. This exclusion shall be available only if (1) the purchaser is an individual who, together with his spouse and dependents, has a total net worth valued at less than $150,000 and (2) the property ~~purchased~~ sold under the contract is farm land as defined in section 41.52, subdivision 6 of no more than 1,000 acres that the purchaser intends to use for agricultural purposes. Compliance with these requirements shall be stated in an affidavit to be filed with the first income tax return on which the taxpayer claims the exclusion provided in this clause. Upon request accompanied by the information necessary to make the determination, the commissioner shall determine whether interest to be paid on a proposed transaction will qualify for this exclusion; the determination shall be provided within 30 days of receipt of the request, unless the commissioner finds it necessary to obtain additional information, or verification of the information provided, in which case the determination shall be provided within 30 days of receipt of the final item of information or verification. The exclusion provided in this clause shall apply to interest earned on contracts for deed entered into after December 31, 1981 and before July 1, 1983; and

(24) ~~For the taxable year beginning after December 31, 1980, but before January 1, 1982, an amount equal to 85 percent of the deduction allowed under section 168 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 as amended through December 31, 1981. For the taxable year beginning after December 31, 1981 but before January 1, 1983, 83 percent of the deduction allowed under section 168 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 as amended through December 31, 1981. The depreciation adjustments made to basis in the case of recovery property within the meaning of section 168 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 as amended through December 31, 1981 shall be the depreciation adjustments made for federal income tax purposes under the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, as amended through December 31, 1981. Adoption of this provision shall not be construed as indicating the intent of the legislature to enact provisions authorizing amortization of the amount of depreciation not excludable under this clause; and~~

~~(25) For taxable years beginning after December 31, 1980 but before January 1, 1983, an amount equal to the deduction allowed under section 179 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 as amended through December 31, 1981~~ The penalty on the early withdrawal of an all-savers certificate as provided in section 128(e) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 to the extent that the interest was included in income under clause (a)(22).

(c) A modification affecting shareholders of electing small business corporations under section 1372 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 shall be made.

In cases where the election under section 1372 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 antedates the election under this chapter and at the close of the taxable year immediately preceding the effective election under this chapter the corporation has a reserve of undistributed taxable income previously taxed to shareholders under the provisions of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, in the event and to the extent that the reserve is distributed to shareholders the distribution shall be taxed as a dividend for purposes of this chapter.

(d) Amounts transferred from a reserve or other account, if in effect transfers to surplus, shall, to the extent that the amounts were accumulated through deductions from gross income or entered into the computation of taxable net income during any taxable year, be treated as gross income for the year in which the transfer occurs, but only to the extent that the amounts resulted in a reduction of the tax imposed by this chapter and amounts received as refunds on account of taxes deducted from gross income during any taxable year shall be treated as gross income for the year in which actually received, but only to the extent that such amounts resulted in a reduction of the tax imposed by this chapter.

(e) Modification in computing taxable income of the estate of a decedent. Amounts allowable under section 291.07, subdivision 1, clause (2) in computing Minnesota inheritance or estate tax liability shall not be allowed as a deduction (or as an offset against the sales price of property in determining gain or loss) in computing the taxable income of the estate or any person unless there is filed within the time and in the manner and form prescribed by the commissioner a statement that the amounts have not been allowed as a deduction under section 291.07 and a waiver of the right to have the amounts allowed at any time as deductions under section 291.07. The provisions of this paragraph shall not apply with respect to deductions allowed under section 290.077 (relating to income in respect of decedents). In the event that the election made for federal tax purposes under section 642(g) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 differs from the election made under this paragraph appropriate modification of the estate's federal taxable income shall be made to implement the election made under this paragraph in accordance with regulations prescribed by the commissioner.

(f) A modification shall be made for the allowable deduction under the accelerated cost recovery system as provided in section 2.

Sec. 2. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 290.01, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 28. The allowable deduction for the accelerated cost recovery system as provided in section 168 of the Internal Revenue Code shall be the same amount as provided in that section for individuals, estates, and trusts with the following modifications:

(1) For property placed in service after December 31, 1980 and for taxable years beginning before January 1, 1982, 15 percent of the allowance provided in section 168 of the Internal Revenue Code shall not be allowed.

(2)(a) For taxable years beginning after December 31, 1981 and before December 31, 1982, for 15 year real property as defined in section 168 of the Internal Revenue Code, 40 percent of the allowance provided in section 168 of the Internal Revenue Code shall not be allowed and for all other property, 17 percent of the allowance shall not be allowed.

(2)(b) For taxable years beginning after December 31, 1982, for 15 year real property as defined in section 168 of the Internal Revenue Code, 40 percent of the allowance provided in section 168 of the Internal Revenue Code shall not be allowed and for all other property 20 percent of the allowance shall not be allowed.

(3) For property placed in service after December 31, 1980 for which the taxpayer elects to use the straight line method provided in section 168(b)(3) or a method provided in section 168(e)(2) of the Internal Revenue Code, the modifications provided in clauses (1) and (2) do not apply.

(4) For property subject to the modifications contained in clause (1) or (2) above, the following modification shall be made after the entire amount of the allowable deduction for that property under the provision of section 168 of the Internal Revenue Code has been obtained. The remaining depreciable basis in those assets for Minnesota purposes shall be a depreciation allowance computed by using the straight line method over the following number of years:

(a) 3 year property - 1 year.

(b) 5 year property - 2 years.

(c) 10 year property - 5 years.

(d) All 15 year property - 7 years.

(5) The basis of property to which section 168 of the Internal Revenue Code applies shall be its basis as provided in this chapter and including the modifications provided in this subdivision. The recapture tax provisions provided in sections 1245 and 1250 of the Internal Revenue Code shall apply but shall be calculated using the basis provided in the preceding sentence. When an asset is exchanged for another asset including an involuntary conversion and under the provision of the Internal Revenue Code gain is not recognized in whole or in part on the exchange of the first asset, the basis of the second asset shall be the same as its federal basis provided that the difference in basis due to clause (1) or (2) can be written off as provided in clause (4).

(6) Wherever used in this subdivision, the term "Internal Revenue Code" shall mean the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, as amended through December 31, 1981.

(7) The modifications provided in this subdivision shall apply before applying any limitation to out of state losses contained in section 290.17 or farm losses contained in section 290.09, subdivision 29.

Sec. 3. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 290.067, Subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [AMOUNT OF CREDIT.] A taxpayer may take as a credit against the tax due from him and his spouse, if any, under this chapter an amount equal to the dependent care credit for which he is eligible pursuant to the provisions of section 44A of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, as amended through December 31, ~~1979~~ 1981, except that the applicable percentage of the employment-related expenses shall be 20 percent and subject to the other limitations provided in subdivision 2.

Sec. 4. Minnesota Statutes 1981 Supplement, Section 290.09, Subdivision 7, as amended by Laws 1981, Third Special Session Chapter 2, Article III, Section 8, is amended to read:

Subd. 7. [DEPRECIATION.] (A) [CUMULATIVE DEPRECIATION.] (a) There shall be allowed as a depreciation deduction a reasonable allowance for the exhaustion, wear and tear (including a reasonable allowance for obsolescence):

(1) of property used in the trade or business, or

(2) of property held for the production of income.

(b) The term "reasonable allowance" as used in clause (a) shall include (but shall not be limited to) an allowance computed in accordance with regulations prescribed by the commissioner, under any of the following methods:

(1) the straight line method.

(2) the declining balance method, using a rate not exceeding twice the rate which would have been used had the annual allowance been computed under the method described in paragraph (1).

(3) the sum of the years-digits method, and

(4) any other consistent method productive of an annual allowance, which, when added to all allowances for the period commencing with the taxpayer's use of the property and including the taxable year, does not, during the first two-thirds of the useful life of the property, exceed the total of such allowances which would have been used had such allowances been computed under the method described in (2). Nothing in this clause (b) shall be construed to limit or reduce an allowance otherwise allowable under clause (a).

(c) For purposes of this subdivision "reasonable allowance" shall ~~not~~ include the accelerated cost recovery system provisions of section 168 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, as amended through December 31, 1981, except as provided in this subdivision ~~unless specifically authorized by legislation enacted after the final enactment of this section~~. In the case of recovery property within the meaning of section 168 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, as amended through December 31, 1981, the term "reasonable allowance" as used in clause (a) shall mean 85 percent of the deduction allowed pursuant to section 168 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 for property placed in service after December 31, 1980 and for taxable years beginning ~~after December 31, 1980 and~~ before January 1, 1982~~; and 83 percent of the deduction allowed pursuant to section 168 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 for taxable years beginning after December 31, 1981 and before January 1, 1983~~.

For taxable years beginning after December 31, 1981 the term reasonable allowance as used in clause (a) shall mean the following percent of the deduction allowed pursuant to section 168 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, as amended through December 31, 1981:

(1) For 3, 5 and 10 year property and for 15 year public utility property the allowable percentage is 83 percent and 80 percent for taxable years beginning after December 31, 1982.

(2) For 15 year real property the allowable percentage is 60 percent.

For property placed in service after December 31, 1980 the term "reasonable allowance" as used in clause (a) shall mean 100 percent of the deduction allowed pursuant to section 168 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 where the taxpayer elects to use the straight line method provided in section 168(b)(3) or a method provided in section 168(e)(2) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, as amended through December 31, 1981. For property placed in service after December 31, 1980 and for which the full amount of the deduction allowed under section 168 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, as amended through December 31, 1981 has been allowed, the remaining depreciable basis in those assets for Minnesota purposes shall be a depreciation allowance computed by using the straight line method over the following number of years:

(1) 3 year property - 1 year.

(2) 5 year property - 2 years.

(3) 10 year property - 5 years.

(4) All 15 year property - 7 years.

When an asset is exchanged for another asset including an involuntary conversion and under the provision of the Internal Revenue Code gain is not recognized in whole or in part on the exchange of the first asset, the basis of the second asset shall be the same as its federal basis provided that the difference in basis due to the limitations provided in this clause can be written off as provided in the preceding sentence.

The modification provided in this clause shall apply before applying a limitation on farm losses as contained in section 290.09, subdivision 29.

(d) Paragraphs (2), (3), and (4) of clause (b) shall apply only in the case of property (other than intangible property) described in clause (a) with a useful life of three years or more.

(1) the construction, reconstruction, or erection of which is completed after December 31, 1958, and then only to that portion of the basis which is properly attributable to such construction, reconstruction, or erection after December 31, 1958, or

(2) acquired after December 31, 1958, if the original use of such property commenced with the taxpayer and commences after such date.

(e) Where, under regulations prescribed by the commissioner, the taxpayer and the commissioner have, after June 30, 1959, entered into an agreement in writing specifically dealing with the useful life and rate of depreciation of any property, the rate so agreed upon shall be binding on both the taxpayer and the commissioner in the absence of facts or circumstances not taken into consideration in the adoption of such agreement. The responsibility of establishing the existence of such facts and circumstances shall rest with the party initiating the modification. Any change in the agreed rate and useful life specified in the agreement shall not be effective for taxable years before the taxable year in which notice in writing by certified mail is served by the party to the agreement initiating such change.

(f) In the absence of an agreement under clause ~~(d)~~ (e) containing a provision to the contrary, a taxpayer may at any time elect in accordance with regulations prescribed by the commissioner to change from the method of depreciation prescribed in clause (b) (2) to the method described in clause (b) (1).

(g) The basis on which exhaustion, wear and tear, and obsolescence are to be allowed in respect of any property shall be the adjusted basis provided in ~~sections 290.131 to 290.139, 290.14 and 290.15~~ this chapter for the purpose of determining the gain on the sale or other disposition of such property ~~except that in the case of recovery property within the meaning of section 168 of the Internal Revenue Code as amended through December 31, 1981, for taxable years beginning after December 31, 1980 but before January 1, 1983, the depreciation adjustment to basis shall be the same as the depreciation adjustments under the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 as amended through December 31, 1981~~.

~~(h) In the case of property held by one person for life with remainder to another person, the deduction shall be computed as if the life tenant were the absolute owner of the property and shall be allowed to the life tenant. In the case of property held in trust the allowable deduction shall be apportioned between the income beneficiary and the trustee in accordance with the pertinent provisions of the instrument creating the trust, or, in the absence of such provisions, on the basis of the trust income allocable to each. In the case of an estate, the allowable deduction shall be apportioned between the estate and the heirs, legatees, and devisees on the basis of the income of the estate allocable to each.~~

~~(i) In the case of buildings or other structures or improvements constructed or made on leased premises by a lessee, and the fixtures and machinery therein installed, the lessee alone shall be entitled to the allowance of this deduction.~~

(B) [FIRST YEAR DEPRECIATION.] ~~(a) In the case of section 1 property,~~ The term "reasonable allowance" as used in this subdivision ~~7,~~ may, at the election of the taxpayer, include an ~~allowance, for the first taxable year for which a deduction is allowable under subdivision 7, to the taxpayer with respect to such property, of 20 percent of the cost of such property. For taxable years beginning after December 31, 1980 and before January 1, 1983, in the case of recovery property within the meaning of section 168 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, as amended through December 31, 1981, the first year depreciation allowance shall be the allowance for federal income tax purposes~~ amount as provided under section 179 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, as amended through December 31, 1981.

~~(b) If in any one taxable year the cost of section 1 property with respect to which the taxpayer may elect an allowance under (a) for such taxable year exceeds $10,000, then (a) shall apply with respect to those items selected by the taxpayer, but only to the extent of an aggregate cost of $10,000. In the case of a husband and wife who file a joint return under section 290.38 for the taxable year, the limitation under the preceding sentence shall be $20,000 in lieu of $10,000.~~

~~(c) (1) The election under this subdivision for any taxable year shall be made within the time prescribed by law (including extensions thereof) for filing the return for such taxable year. The election shall be made in such manner as the commissioner may by regulations prescribe.~~

~~(2) Any election made under this subdivision may not be revoked except~~ with the consent of the commissioner.

(d) (1) For purposes of this subdivision, the term "Section 1 property" means tangible personal property (excluding buildings and structures)

(A) of a character subject to the allowance for depreciation under subdivision 7.

(B) acquired by purchase after December 31, 1958, for use in a trade or business or for holding for production of income, and

(C) with a useful life (determined at the time of such acquisition) of six years or more.

(2) For purposes of paragraph (1), the term "purchase" means any acquisition of property, but only if

(A) the property is not acquired from a person whose relationship to the person acquiring it would result in the disallowance of losses under section 290.10(6),

(B) the property is not acquired by one component member of a controlled group from another component member of the same controlled group, and

(C) the basis of the property in the hands of the person acquiring it is not determined

(i) in whole or in part by reference to the adjusted basis of such property in the hands of the person from whom acquired, or

(ii) under section 290.14(4) (relating to property acquired from a decedent).

(3) For purposes of this subdivision, the cost of property does not include so much of the basis of such property as is determined by reference to the basis of other property held at any time by the person acquiring such property.

(4) This subdivision shall not apply to trusts.

(5) In the case of an estate, any amount apportioned to an heir, legatee, or devisee shall not be taken into account in applying (B) of this subdivision to section 1 property of such heir, legatee, or devisee not held by such estate.

(6) For purposes of (B) of this subdivision

(A) all component members of a controlled group shall be treated as one taxpayer, and

(B) the commissioner shall apportion the dollar limitation contained in such (B) among the component members of such controlled group in such manner as he shall by regulations prescribe.

(7) For purposes of paragraphs (2) and (6), the term "controlled group" has the meaning assigned to it by section 1563(a) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, as amended through December 31, 1979, except that, for such purposes, the phrase "more than 50 percent" shall be substituted for the phrase "at least 80 percent" each place it appears in section 1563(a)(1) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, as amended through December 31, 1979.

Sec. 5. Minnesota Statutes 1981 Supplement, Section 290.09, Subdivision 29, is amended to read:

Subd. 29. [DEDUCTIONS ATTRIBUTABLE TO FARMING.] (a) [DEFI-

NITIONS.] For purposes of this subdivision, income and gains and expenses and losses shall be considered as "arising from a farm" if such items are received or incurred in connection with cultivating the soil, or in connection with raising or harvesting any agricultural or horticultural commodity, including the raising, shearing, feeding, caring for, training, and management of livestock, bees, poultry, and fur-bearing animals and wildlife, and all operations incident thereto, including but not limited to the common use of "hedging".

(b) [DEDUCTIONS LIMITED.] Except as provided in this subdivision, expenses and losses, except for interest and taxes, arising from a farm shall not be allowed as deductions in excess of income and gains arising fro.n a farm.

(c) [DEDUCTIONS ALLOWED; CARRYOVER DEDUCTIONS.] ~~For taxable years beginning on or after January 1, 1974.~~ Expenses and losses arising from a farm or farms shall be allowed as deductions up to the amount of the income and gains arising from a farm or farms in any taxable year, plus the first $15,000 of non-farm gross income, or non-farm taxable net income in the case of a corporation, provided however that in any case where non-farm income exceeds $15,000, the maximum allowable amount of $15,000 shall be reduced by twice the amount by which the non-farm income exceeds the amount of $15,000. For this purpose and for the purpose of applying the limitation in the following paragraph regarding the application of any carryback or carryforward, the term gross income shall include the ordinary income portion of a lump sum distribution as defined in section 402(e) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, as amended through December 31, 1980, and no deduction shall be allowed for two-earner married couples as provided in section 221 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, as amended through December 31, 1981. Any remaining balance of the deductions shall be carried back three years and carried forward five years, in chronological order, provided, however, that in any case in which any individual, estate or trust which elects a net operating loss carryforward under section 172(b)(3)(C) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, as amended through December 31, 1980, such losses shall not be carried back but shall only be carried forward.

Current expenses and losses shall be utilized as deductions in any taxable year, to the extent herein allowable, prior to the application of any carryback or carryover deductions. In any event, the combined amounts of such current expenses and losses and carryback or carryover deductions shall be allowed as deductions up to the amount of the income and gains arising from a farm or farms in any taxable year, plus the first $15,000 of non-farm gross income, or non-farm taxable net income in the case of a corporation, provided however that in any case where non-farm income exceeds $15,000, the maximum allowable amount of $15,000 shall be reduced by twice the amount by which the non-farm income exceeds the amount of $15,000.

(d) [SHAREHOLDERS SEPARATE ENTITIES.] For purposes of this subdivision, individual shareholders of an electing small business corporation shall be considered separate entities.

(e) [SPECIAL PERIOD OF LIMITATION WITH RESPECT TO FARM LOSS LIMITATION CARRYBACKS.] For the purposes of sections 290.46 and 290.50, if the claim for refund relates to an overpayment attributable to a farm loss limitation carryback under this subdivision, in lieu of the period of limitation prescribed in sections 290.46 and 290.50, the period of limitation shall be that period which ends with the expiration of the 15th day of the 46th month (or the 45th month, in the case of a corporation) following the end of the taxable year of the farm loss which results in the carryback. ~~No deduction or refund shall be allowed on 1974 returns for farm losses which have been previously carried back to earlier years and for which a tax refund or reduction has been allowed.~~

(f) [INTEREST ON CLAIMS.] In any case in which a taxpayer is entitled to a refund in a carryback year due to the carryback of a farm loss, interest shall be computed only from the end of the taxable year in which the loss occurs.

(g) [ORDER OF APPLICATION.] The application of this subdivision shall be made after applying any limitation to out of state losses contained in section 290.17.

Sec. 6. Minnesota Statutes 1981 Supplement, Section 290.091, as amended by Laws 1981, Third Special Session Chapter 2, Article III, Section 9, is amended to read:

290.091 [MINIMUM TAX ON PREFERENCE ITEMS.]

In addition to all other taxes imposed by this chapter there is hereby imposed, a tax which, in the case of a resident individual, shall be equal to 40 percent of the amount of the taxpayer's minimum tax liability for tax preference items pursuant to the provisions of sections 55 to 58 and 443(d) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 as amended through December 31, 1980 except that for purposes of the tax imposed by this section, capital gain as defined in section 57(a) of the Internal Revenue Code shall not include that portion of any gain occasioned by sale, transfer or the granting of a perpetual easement pursuant to any eminent domain proceeding or threat thereof as described in section 290.13, subdivision 5. This modification shall apply to the years in which the gain or reduction in loss is actually included in federal adjusted gross income even though amounts received pursuant to the eminent domain proceedings were received in prior years. In the case of a resident individual, having preference items which could not be taken to reduce income from sources outside the state pursuant to section 290.17, subdivision 1, or any other taxpayer the tax shall equal 40 percent of that federal liability, multiplied by a fraction the numerator of which is the amount of the taxpayer's preference item income allocated to this state pursuant to the provisions of sections 290.17 to 290.20, and the denominator of which is the taxpayer's total preference item income for federal purposes.

For property placed in service after December 31, 1980, the preference items contained in section 57 (a)(12) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, as amended through December 31, 1981, shall not apply.

Sec. 7. Minnnsota Statutes 1981 Supplement, Section 290.095, Subdivision 11, is amended to read:

Subd. 11. [CARRYBACK OR CARRYOVER ADJUSTMENTS.] (a) For individuals the amount of a net operating loss that may be carried back or carried over shall be the same dollar amount allowable in the determination of federal adjusted gross income. For estates and trusts the amount of a net operating loss that may be carried back or carried over shall be the same dollar amount allowable in the determination of federal taxable income.

(b) The following adjustments to the amount of the net operating loss that may be carried back or carried over must be made for:

(1) Nonassignable income or losses as required by section 290.17, subdivision 2.

(2) Losses which constitute tax preference items as required in section 290.17, subdivision 1.

(3) Modifications required because of the restrictions on farm losses as provided in section 290.09, subdivision 29.

(4) Adjustments to the determination of federal adjusted gross i come that must be made because of changes in the Internal Revenue Code that have not yet been adopted by the legislature by updating the reference to the Internal Revenue Code contained in section 290.01, subdivision 20.

(5) Modifications to income and loss contained in federal adjusted gross income according to the provisions of section 290.01, subdivision 20, clause (c).

(6) Gains or losses which result from the sale or other disposition of property having a higher adjusted basis for Minnesota income tax purposes than for federal income tax purposes subject to the limitations contained in section 290.01, subdivision 20, clause (b) (2) and (4).

(7) Interest, taxes, and other expenses not allowed under section 290.10, clauses (9) and (10) or section 290.101.

(8) The modification for accelerated cost recovery system depreciation as provided in section 2.

(c) (1) The net operating loss carryback or carryover applied as a deduction in the taxable year to which the net operating loss is carried back or carried over shall be equal to the net operating loss carryback or carryover applied in the taxable year in arriving at federal adjusted gross income (or federal taxable income for trusts and estates) subject to the modifications contained in clause (b) and to the following modifications:

(A) Increase the amount of carryback or carryover applied in the taxable year by the amount of losses and interest, taxes and other expenses not assignable or allowable to Minnesota incurred in the taxable year.

(B) Decrease the amount of carryback or carryover applied in the taxable year by the amount of income not assignable to Minnesota earned in the taxable year and the amount of federal jobs credit or WIN credit earned in the taxable year.

(C) A taxpayer who is not a resident of Minnesota during any part of the taxable year and who has no income assignable to Minnesota during the taxable year shall apply no net operating loss carryback or carryover in the taxable year.

(2) The provisions of section 172(b) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 as amended through December 31, 1980 (relating to carrybacks and carryovers) shall apply. The net operating loss carryback or carryover to the next consecutive taxable year shall be the net operating loss carryback or carryover as calculated in clause (c) (1) less the amount applied in the earlier taxable year(s).

No additional net operating loss carryback or carryover shall be allowed if the entire amount has been used to offset Minnesota income in a year earlier than was possible on the federal return. A net operating loss carryback or carryover that was allowed to offset federal income in a year earlier than was possible on the Minnesota return shall still be allowed to offset Minnesota income but only if the loss was assignable to Minnesota in the year the loss occurred.

(d) A net operating loss shall be allowed to be carried back or carried forward only to the extent that loss was assignable to Minnesota in the year the loss occurred or in the year to which the loss was carried over, whichever would allow more of the loss to be allowed for Minnesota purposes.

(e) If a taxpayer has a net operating loss for federal purposes and the provisions of the farm loss limitation as provided in section 290.09, subdivision 29 apply, the limitations applying to the farm losses that are carried back or carried over are applied first and the net operating loss that is carried back or carried over is limited to the excess, if any, that the net operating loss exceeds the farm loss limitation.

Sec. 8. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 290.16, Subdivision 15, as amended by Laws 1981, Third Special Session Chapter 2, Article III, Section 11, is amended to read:

Subd. 15. [GAIN FROM DISPOSITIONS OF CERTAIN DEPRECIABLE PROPERTY.] For purposes of this subdivision "depreciable property" shall mean "Section 1245 property" as that phrase is defined in Section 1245(a) (3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, as amended through December 31, ~~1979~~ 1981.

In determining net income of any corporate taxpayer, the gain realized from the disposition of "depreciable property" shall be treated in the same manner as is provided by Section 1245 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, as amended through December 31, ~~1979~~ 1981 and regulations adopted pursuant thereto except that the determination shall be made using the basis computed under this chapter.

Sec. 9. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 290.16, Subdivision 16, as amended by Laws 1981, Third Special Session Chapter 2, Article III, Section 12, is amended to read:

Subd. 16. [GAIN FROM DISPOSITION OF CERTAIN DEPRECIABLE REALTY.] For purposes of this subdivision "depreciable realty" shall mean "Section 1250 realty" as that phrase is defined in Section 1250(c) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, as amended through December 31, ~~1979~~ 1981.

In determining net income of any corporate taxpayer, the gain realized from the disposition of "depreciable realty" shall be treated in the same manner as is provided by Section 1250 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, as amended through December 31, ~~1979~~ 1981, and regulations adopted pursuant thereto except that the determination shall be made using the basis computed under this chapter.

Sec. 10. Minnesota Statutes 1981 Supplement, Section 290.92, Subdivision 15, is amended to read:

Subd. 15. [PENALTIES.] (1) If any tax required to be deducted and withheld under subdivision 2a or subdivision 3, or any portion thereof, is not paid to or deposited with the commissioner within the time specified in subdivision 6 for the payment thereof, there shall be added thereto a penalty equal to ten percent of the amount so remaining unpaid. Such penalty shall be collected as part of said tax, and the amount of said tax not timely paid, together with said penalty, shall bear interest at the rate specified in section 270.75 from the time such tax should have been paid or deposited until paid. Where an extension of time for payment has been granted under the provisions of subdivision 6, interest shall be paid at the rate specified in section 270.75 from the date when such payment or deposit should have been made if no extension had been granted, until such tax is paid. If payment is not made at the expiration of the extended period the penalties provided in this subdivision shall apply.

(2) In the case of any failure to withhold a tax on wages, make and file quarterly returns or make payments to or deposits with the commissioner of amounts withheld, as required by this section, within the time prescribed by law, unless it is shown that such failure is not due to wilful neglect, there shall be added to the tax in lieu of the penalty provided in paragraph (1) a penalty equal to ten percent of the amount of tax that should have been properly withheld and paid over to or deposited with the commissioner if the failure is for not more than 30 days with an additional five percent for each additional 30 days or fraction thereof during which such failure continues, not exceeding 25 percent in the aggregate. The amount of the tax together with this amount shall bear interest at the rate specified in section 270.75 from the time the tax should have been paid until paid. The amount so added to the tax shall be collected at the same time and in the same manner and as a part of the tax unless the tax has been paid before the discovery of the negligence, in which case the amount so added shall be collected in the same manner as the tax.

(3) If any employer required to withhold a tax on wages, make deposits, make and file quarterly returns and make payments to the commissioner of amounts withheld, as required by sections 290.92 to 290.97, wilfully fails to withhold such a tax or make such deposits, files a false or fraudulent return, wilfully fails to make such a payment or deposit, or wilfully attempts in any manner to evade or defeat any such tax or the payment or deposit thereof, there shall also be imposed on such employer as a penalty an amount equal to 50 percent of the amount of tax (less any amount paid or deposited by such employer on the basis of such false or fraudulent return or deposit) that should have been properly withheld and paid over or deposited with the commissioner. The amount of the tax together with this amount shall bear interest at the rate specified in section 270.75 from the time the tax should have been paid until paid. The penalty imposed by this paragraph shall be collected as a part of the tax, and shall be in addition to any other penalties civil and criminal, prescribed by this subdivision.

(4) If any person required under the provisions of subdivision 7 to furnish a statement to an employee or payee and a duplicate statement to the commissioner, or to furnish a reconciliation of such statements (and quarterly returns) to the commissioner, wilfully furnishes a false or fraudulent statement to an employee or payee or a false or fraudulent duplicate statement or reconciliation of statements (and quarterly returns) to the commissioner, or wilfully fails to furnish a statement or such reconciliation in the manner, at the time, and showing the information required by the provisions of subdivision 7, or regulations prescribed by the commissioner thereunder, there shall be imposed on such a person a penalty of $10 for each such act or failure to act. The penalty imposed by this paragraph shall become due and payable within ten days after the mailing of a written demand therefor, and may be collected in the manner prescribed in subdivision 6(8).

(5) In addition to the penalties hereinbefore prescribed, any person required to withhold a tax on wages, make and file quarterly returns and make payments or deposits to the commissioner of amounts withheld, as required by this section, who wilfully fails to withhold such a tax or truthfully make and file such a quarterly return or make such a payment or deposit, shall be guilty of a gross misdemeanor.

(6) In lieu of any other penalty provided by law, except the penalty provided by paragraph (4), any person required under the provisions of subdivision 7 to furnish a statement of wages to an employee and a duplicate statement to the commissioner, who wilfully furnishes a false or fraudulent statement of wages to an employee or a false or fraudulent duplicate statement of wages to the commissioner, or who wilfully fails to furnish such a statement in the manner, at the time, and showing the information required by the provisions of subdivision 7, or regulations prescribed by the commissioner thereunder, shall be guilty of a gross misdemeanor.

(7) Any employee required to supply information to his employer under the provisions of subdivision 5, who wilfully fails to supply information thereunder which would require an increase in the tax to be deducted and withheld under subdivision 2a or subdivision 3, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor.

(8) The term "person," as used in this section, includes an officer or employee of a corporation, or a member or employee of a partnership, who as such officer, employee, or member is under a duty to perform the act in respect of which the violation occurs.

(9) All payments received shall be credited first to penalties, next to interest, and then to the tax due.

(10) In addition to any other penalty provided by law, any employee who furnishes a withholding exemption certificate to his employer which the employee has reason to know contains a materially incorrect statement shall be liable to the commissioner of revenue for a penalty of ~~$100~~ $500 for each instance. The penalty shall be immediately due and payable and may be collected in the same manner as any delinquent income tax.

(11) In addition to any other penalty provided by law, any employer who fails to submit a copy of a withholding exemption certificate required by subdivision 5a, clause (1)(a), (1)(b), or (2) shall be liable to the commissioner of revenue for a penalty of $50 for each instance. The penalty shall be immediately due and payable and may be collected in the manner provided in subdivision 6(8).

Sec. 11. Minnesota Statutes 1981 Supplement, Section 290.93, Subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [REQUIREMENT OF DECLARATION.] (1) Every individual shall, at the time prescribed in subdivision 5 of this section, make and file with the commissioner a declaration of his estimated tax for the taxable year if

(a) The gross income (as defined in section 290.01, subdivision 20) for the taxable year can reasonably be expected to exceed the gross income amounts set forth in section 290.37, subdivision 1 pertaining to the requirements for making a return; and

(b) Such gross income can reasonably be expected to include more than $500 from sources other than wages upon which a tax has been deducted and withheld under section 290.92, subdivision 2a or subdivision 3.

(2) If the individual is an infant or incompetent person, the declaration shall be made by his guardian.

(3) Notwithstanding the provisions of this section, no declaration is required if the estimated tax (as defined in subdivision 3) ~~can reasonably be expected to be~~ is less than ~~$100~~ $200 for taxable years beginning after December 31, 1981, $300 for taxable years beginning after December 31, 1982, $400 for taxable years beginning after December 31, 1983, and $500 for taxable years beginning after December 31, 1984.

Sec. 12. Minnesota Statutes 1981 Supplement, Section 290.934, Subdivision 4, is amended to read:

Subd. 4. [EXCEPTION.] (a) Notwithstanding the provisions of the preceding subdivisions, the addition to the tax with respect to any underpayment of any installment shall not be imposed if the total amount of all payments of estimated tax made on or before the last date prescribed for the payment of such installment equals or exceeds the amount which would have been required to be paid on or before such date if the estimated tax were whichever of the following is the lesser

(1) The tax shown on the return of the corporation for the preceding taxable year, if a return showing a liability for tax was filed by the corporation for the preceding taxable year and such preceding year was a taxable year of 12 months.

(2) An amount equal to the tax computed at the rates applicable to the taxable year but otherwise on the basis of the facts shown on the return of the corporation for, and the law applicable to, the preceding taxable year.

(3) (A) An amount equal to the tax for the taxable year computed by placing on an annualized basis the taxable income:

(i) for the first two months of the taxable year, in the case of the installment required to be paid in the third month,

(ii) for the first two months or for the first five months of the taxable year, in the case of the installment required to be paid in the sixth month,

(iii) for the first six months or for the first eight months of the taxable year in the case of the installment required to be paid in the ninth month, and

(iv) for the first nine months or for the first 11 months of the taxable year, in the case of the installment required to be paid in the 12th month of the taxable year.

(B) For purposes of this paragraph, the taxable income shall be placed on an annualized basis by

(i) multiplying by 12 the taxable income referred to in subparagraph (A),

(ii) dividing the resulting amount by the number of months in the taxable year (2, 5, 6, 8, 9, or 11, as the case may be) referred to in subparagraph (A).

(b) Notwithstanding clause (a) (1) and (2), in the case of a large corporation, the addition to the tax with respect to any underpayment of any installment shall be imposed if the total amount of all payments of estimated tax made on or before the last date prescribed for the payment of the installment is less than the amount required to be paid on or before the date. The amount required to be paid as estimated tax for the taxable year shall in no event be less than ~~60 percent~~ the applicable percentage of (A) the tax shown on the return for the taxable year, or (B) if no return was filed, the tax for the year. The term "large corporation" means any corporation (or any predecessor corporation) which had taxable net income of $1,000,000 or more for any taxable year during the testing period. The term "testing period" means the three taxable years immediately preceding the taxable year involved. The term "applicable percentage" means 65 percent for taxable years beginning after April 30, 1982, 75 percent for taxable years beginning after December 31, 1982, and 80 percent for taxable years beginning after December 31, 1983.

Sec. 13. Minnesota Statutes 1981 Supplement, Section 290A.03, Subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [INCOME.] (1) "Income" means the sum of the following:

(a) federal adjusted gross income as defined in the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 as amended through December 31, ~~1980~~ 1981; and

(b) the sum of the following amounts to the extent not included in clause (a):

(i) additions to federal adjusted gross income as provided in Minnesota Statutes, Section 290.01, Subdivision 20, Clause (a)(1), (a)(3), (a)(9), (a)(14), ~~and~~ (a)(15), and (a)(21);

(ii) all nontaxable income;

(iii) recognized net long term capital gains;

(iv) dividends and interest excluded from federal adjusted gross income under ~~section~~ sections 116 or 128 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954;

(v) cash public assistance and relief;

(vi) any pension or annuity (including railroad retirement benefits, all payments received under the federal social security act, supplemental security income, and veterans benefits), which was not exclusively funded by the claimant or spouse, or which was funded exclusively by the claimant or spouse and which funding payments were excluded from federal adjusted gross income in the years when the payments were made;

(vii) nontaxable interest received from the state or federal government or any instrumentality or political subdivision thereof;

(viii) workers' compensation;

(ix) unemployment benefits;

(x) nontaxable strike benefits; and

(xi) the gross amounts of payments received in the nature of disability income or sick pay as a result of accident, sickness, or other disability, whether funded through insurance or otherwise. In the case of an individual who files an income tax return on a fiscal year basis, the term "federal adjusted gross income" shall mean federal adjusted gross income reflected in the fiscal year ending in the calendar year.

(2) "Income" does not include

(a) amounts excluded pursuant to the Internal Revenue Code, Sections 101(a), 102, 117, and 121;

(b) amounts of any pension or annuity which was exclusively funded by the claimant or spouse and which funding payments were not excluded from federal adjusted gross income in the years when the payments were made;

(c) gifts from nongovernmental sources;

(d) surplus food or other relief in kind supplied by a governmental agency;

(e) relief granted under sections 290A.01 to 290A.20;

(f) child support payments received under a temporary or final decree of dissolution or legal separation; ~~or~~

(g) federal adjusted gross income shall be reduced by wage or salary expense, or expense of work incentive programs which are not allowed as a deduction under provisions of section 280C of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954; or

(h) federal adjusted gross income shall be reduced by the amount of the penalty on the early withdrawal of an all-savers certificate as provided in section 128(e) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954.

Sec. 14. [DIRECTION TO REVISOR.]

In the next edition of Minnesota Statutes, the revisor of statutes shall substitute the phrase "Internal Revenue Code of 1954, as amended through December 31, 1981" for the words "Internal Revenue Code of 1954, as amended through December 31, 1980" wherever the phrase occurs in chapter 290, except section 290.01, subdivision 20.

Sec. 15. [REPEALER.]

Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 290.65, Subdivisions 2, 3, 4, 5, 6, and 7 are repealed.

Sec. 16. [EFFECTIVE DATE.]

Section 1 is effective for taxable years beginning after December 31, 1981, except as otherwise provided. In section 1, the repeal of the language concerning depreciation contained in clauses (a)(16), (a)(22), (b)(24), and (b)(25) and the provision of clause (f) is effective for property placed in service after December 31, 1980 in taxable years ending after that date. Sections 2, 4, Part (A), 6, 7, 8, and 9 are effective for property placed in service after December 31, 1980 in taxable years ending after that date, except as otherwise provided. Part (B) of section 4 is effective for taxable years beginning after December 31, 1980. Sections 3, 5, 11, 14, and 15 are effective for taxable years beginning after December 31, 1981. Section 10 is effective on May 1, 1982. Section 12 is effective for taxable years beginning after April 30, 1982. Section 13 is effective for claims based on rent paid in 1981 and subsequent years and property taxes payable in 1982 and subsequent years.

ARTICLE XLI

Section 1. Minnesota Statutes 1981 Supplement, Section 298.28, Subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [DISTRIBUTION FROM GENERAL FUND.] The proceeds of the taxes collected under section 298.24, except the tax collected under section 298.24, subdivision 2, shall, upon certificate of the commissioner of revenue to the general fund of the state, be paid by the commissioner of revenue as follows:

(1) 2.5 cents per gross ton of merchantable iron ore concentrate, hereinafter referred to as "taxable ton", to the city or town in which the lands from which taconite was mined or quarried were located or within which the concentrate was produced. If the mining, quarrying, and concentration, or different steps in either thereof are carried on in more than one taxing district, the commissioner shall apportion equitably the proceeds of the part of the tax going to cities and towns among such subdivisions upon the basis of attributing 40 percent of the proceeds of the tax to the operation of mining or quarrying the taconite, and the remainder to the concentrating plant and to the processes of concentration, and with respect to each thereof giving due consideration to the relative extent of such operations performed in each such taxing district. His order making such apportionment shall be subject to review by the tax court at the instance of any of the interested taxing districts, in the same manner as other orders of the commissioner.

(2) 12.5 cents per taxable ton, less any amount distributed under clause (8), to the taconite municipal aid account in the apportionment fund of the state treasury, to be distributed as provided in section 298.282.

(3) 29 cents per taxable ton plus the increase provided in paragraph (c) to qualifying school districts to be distributed as follows:

(a) Six cents per taxable ton to the school districts in which the lands from which taconite was mined or quarried were located or within which the concentrate was produced. The commissioner shall follow the apportionment formula prescribed in clause (1).

(b) 23 cents per taxable ton, less any amount distributed under part (d), shall be distributed to a group of school districts comprised of those school districts wherein the taconite was mined or quarried or the concentrate produced or in which there is a qualifying municipality as defined by section 273.134 in direct proportion to school district tax levies as follows: each district shall receive that portion of the total distribution which its permitted levy for the prior year, computed pursuant to section 275.125, comprises of the sum of permitted levies for the prior year for all qualifying districts, computed pursuant to section 275.125. For purposes of distributions pursuant to this part, permitted levies for the prior year computed pursuant to section 275.125 shall not include the amount of any increased levy authorized by referendum pursuant to section 275.125, subdivision 2d.

(c) On July 15, 1982 and on July 15 in subsequent years, an amount equal to the increase derived by increasing the amount determined by clause (3)(b) in the same proportion as the increase in the steel mill products index over the base year of 1977 as provided in section 298.24, subdivision 1, clause (a), shall be distributed to any school district described in clause (3)(b) where a levy increase pursuant to section 275.125, subdivision 2d, is authorized by referendum, according to the following formula. Each district shall receive the product of:

(i) $150 times the pupil units identified in section 124.17, subdivision 1, clauses (1) and (2), enrolled in the previous school year, less the product of two mills times the district's taxable valuation in the second previous year; times

(ii) the lesser of:

(A) one, or

(B) the ratio of the amount certified pursuant to section 275.125, subdivision 2d, in the previous year, to the product of two mills times the district's taxable valuation in the second previous year.

If the total amount provided by clause (3)(c) is insufficient to make the payments herein required then the entitlement of $150 per pupil unit shall be reduced uniformly so as not to exceed the funds available. Any amounts received by a qualifying school district in any fiscal year pursuant to clause (3)(c) shall not be applied to reduce foundation aids which the district is entitled to receive pursuant to section 124.212 or the permissible levies of the district. Any amount remaining after the payments provided in this paragraph shall be paid to the commissioner of finance who shall deposit the same in the taconite environmental protection fund and the northeast Minnesota economic protection fund as provided in section 298.28, subdivision 1, clause 10.

(d) There shall be distributed to any school district the amount which the school district was entitled to receive under section 298.32 in 1975.

(4) 19.5 cents per taxable ton to counties to be distributed as follows:

(a) 15.5 cents per taxable ton shall be distributed to the county in which the taconite is mined or quarried or in which the concentrate is produced, less any amount which is to be distributed pursuant to part (b). The commissioner shall follow the apportionment formula prescribed in clause (1).

(b) If an electric power plant owned by and providing the primary source of power for a taxpayer mining and concentrating taconite is located in a county other than the county in which the mining and the concentrating processes are conducted, one cent per taxable ton of the tax distributed to the counties pursuant to part (a) and imposed on and collected from such taxpayer shall be distributed by the commissioner of revenue to the county in which the power plant is located.

(c) Four cents per taxable ton shall be paid to the county from which the taconite was mined, quarried or concentrated to be deposited in the county road and bridge fund. If the mining, quarrying and concentrating, or separate steps in any of those processes are carried on in more than one county, the commissioner shall follow the apportionment formula prescribed in clause (1).

(5) (a) 25.75 cents per taxable ton, less any amount required to be distributed under part (b), to the taconite property tax relief account in the apportionment fund in the state treasury, to be distributed as provided in sections 273.134 to 273.136.

(b) If an electric power plant owned by and providing the primary source of power for a taxpayer mining and concentrating taconite is located in a county other than the county in which the mining and the concentrating processes are conducted, .75 cent per taxable ton of the tax imposed and collected from such taxpayer shall be distributed by the commissioner of revenue to the county and school district in which the power plant is located as follows: 25 percent to the county and 75 percent to the school district.

(6) One cent per taxable ton to the state for the cost of administering the tax imposed by section 298.24.

(7) Three cents per taxable ton shall be deposited in the state treasury to the credit of the iron range resources and rehabilitation board account in the special revenue fund for the purposes of section 298.22. The amount determined in this clause shall be increased in 1981 and subsequent years in the same proportion as the increase in the steel mill products index as provided in section 298.24, subdivision 1. The amount distributed pursuant to this clause shall be expended within or for the benefit of a tax relief area defined in section 273.134. No part of the fund provided in this clause may be used to provide loans for the operation of private business unless the loan is approved by the governor and the legislative advisory commission.

(8) .20 cent per taxable ton shall be paid in 1979 and each year thereafter, to the range association of municipalities and schools, for the purpose of providing an area wide approach to problems which demand coordinated and cooperative actions and which are common to those areas of northeast Minnesota affected by operations involved in mining iron ore and taconite and producing concentrate therefrom, and for the purpose of promoting the general welfare and economic development of the cities, towns and school districts within the iron range area of northeast Minnesota.

(9) the amounts determined under clauses (4)(a), (4)(c), and (5) shall be increased in 1979 and subsequent years in the same proportion as the increase in the steel mill products index as provided in section 298.24, subdivision 1.

(10) the proceeds of the tax imposed by section 298.24 which remain after the distributions in clauses (1) to (9) and parts (a) and (b) of this clause have been made shall be divided between the taconite environmental protection fund created in section 298.223 and the northeast Minnesota economic protection fund created in section 298.292 as follows: In 1981 and each year thereafter, two-thirds to the taconite environmental protection fund and one-third to the northeast Minnesota economic protection fund. The proceeds shall be placed in the respective special accounts in the general fund.

(a) In 1978 and each year thereafter, there shall be distributed to each city, town, school district, and county the amount that they received under section 294.26 in calendar year 1977; provided, however, that the amount distributed in 1981 to the unorganized territory number 2 of Lake County and the town of Beaver Bay based on the between-terminal trackage of Erie Mining Company will be distributed in 1982 and subsequent years to the unorganized territory number 2 of Lake County and the towns of Beaver Bay and Stony River based on the miles of track of Erie Mining Company in each taxing district.

(b) In 1978 and each year thereafter, there shall be distributed to the iron range resources and rehabilitation board the amounts it received in 1977 under section 298.22.

On or before October 10 of each calendar year each producer of taconite or iron sulphides subject to taxation under section 298.24 (hereinafter called "taxpayer") shall file with the commissioner of revenue and with the county auditor of each county in which such taxpayer operates, and with the chief clerical officer of each school district, city or town which is entitled to participate in the distribution of the tax, an estimate of the amount of tax which would be payable by such taxpayer under said law for such calendar year; provided such estimate shall be in an amount not less than the amount due on the mining and production of concentrates up to September 30 of said year plus the amount becoming due because of probable production between September 30 and December 31 of said year, less any credit allowable as hereinafter provided. Such estimate shall list the taxing districts entitled to participate in the distribution of such tax, and the amount of the estimated tax which would be distributable to each such district in the next ensuing calendar year on the basis of the last percentage distribution certified by the commissioner of revenue. If there be no such prior certification, the taxpayer shall set forth its estimate of the proper distribution of such tax under the law, which estimate may be corrected by the commissioner if he deems it improper, notice of such correction being given by him to the taxpayer and the public officers receiving such estimate. The officers with whom such report is so filed shall use the amount so indicated as being distributable to each taxing district in computing the permissible tax levy of such county, city or school district in the year in which such estimate is made, and payable in the next ensuing calendar year, except that in 1978 and 1979 two cents per taxable ton, and in 1980 and thereafter, one cent per taxable ton of the amount distributed under clause (4)(c) shall not be deducted in calculating the permissible levy. Such taxpayer shall then pay, at the times payments are required to be made pursuant to section 298.27, as the amount of tax payable under section 298.24, the greater of (a) the amount shown by such estimate, or (b) the amount due under said section as finally determined by the commissioner of revenue pursuant to law. If, as a result of the payment of the amount of such estimate, the taxpayer has paid in any calendar year an amount of tax in excess of the amount due in such year under section 298.24, after application of credits for any excess payments made in previous years, all as determined by the commissioner of revenue, the taxpayer shall be given credit for such excess amount against any taxes which, under said section, may become due from the taxpayer in subsequent years. In any calendar year in which a general property tax levy subject to sections 275.125 or 275.50 to 275.59 has been made, if the taxes distributable to any such county, city or school district are greater than the amount estimated to be paid to any such county, city or school district in such year, the excess of such distribution shall be held in a special fund by the county, city or school district and shall not be expended until the succeeding calendar year, and shall be included in computing the permissible levies under sections 275.125 or 275.50 to 275.59, of such county, city or school district payable in such year. If the amounts distributable to any such county, city or school district, after final determination by the commissioner of revenue under this section are less than the amounts indicated by such estimates, such county, city or school district may issue certificates of indebtedness in the amount of the shortage, and may include in its next tax levy, in excess of the limitations of sections 275.125 or 275.50 to 275.59 an amount sufficient to pay such certificates of indebtedness and interest thereon, or, if no certificates were issued, an amount equal to such shortage.

There is hereby annually appropriated to such taxing districts as are stated herein, to the taconite property tax relief account and to the taconite municipal aid account in the apportionment fund in the state treasury, to the department of revenue, to the iron range resources and rehabilitation board, to the range association of municipalities and schools, to the taconite environmental protection fund, and to the northeast Minnesota economic protection fund, from any fund or account in the state treasury to which the money was credited, an amount sufficient to make the payment or transfer. The payment of the amount appropriated to such taxing districts shall be made by the commissioner of revenue on or before May 15 annually.

Sec. 2. [APPLICABILITY.]

On its effective date, section 1 applies to the town of Stony River, the town of Beaver Bay, and Lake County.

Sec. 3. [LOCAL APPROVAL.]

Section 1 is effective for the town of Stony River, the town of Beaver Bay, and Lake County upon approval by the governing body of each.

Sec. 4. [EFFECTIVE DATE.]

Section 1 is effective for distributions made in 1982 and subsequent years.

ARTICLE XLII

Section 1. [EQUALIZATION ZONES FOR BORDER COMMUNITIES.]

The department of energy, planning and development shall evaluate the local and regional impact of the economic and fiscal distress on Minnesota communities which have a contiguous border with a city in another state or which are in close proximity to a city in another state. The department shall report its findings to the legislature by January 1, 1983. Also included in this report shall be the designation of equalization zones for communities most severely distressed, and recommendations for measures to be taken by the legislature to reduce the economic and fiscal disparities identified in communities designated as equalization zones.

Sec. 2. [EFFECTIVE DATE.]

Section 1 is effective the day following final enactment.''

No. 1965: A bill for an act relating to the environment; amending various provisions of the waste management act; authorizing the commissioner of administration to acquire certain development rights; defining terms for purposes of the resource recovery program; prohibiting the waste management board from certifying the use of facilities for disposal of radioactive waste; stating various policies and requirements relating to solid and hazardous waste plans and facility permits; prescribing standards, procedures, approvals, and supervision relating to designations of resource recovery facilities; requiring the board to place its highest priority on alternatives to land disposal of hazardous waste; allowing the removal of the moratorium on development at certain sites; directing a study of solid waste utilization in the St. Cloud area; appropriating money; amending Minnesota Statutes 1980, Sections 115A.08, by adding a subdivision; 115A.15, Subdivisions 2, 6, and by adding a subdivision; 115A.42; 115A.46; 115A.62; 115A.69, Subdivision 10; 115A.70, Subdivisions 1, 2, and 3; 116.07, Subdivision 4b; 400.16; 400.162; 473.149, Subdivision 1; 473.153, by adding subdivisions; 473.802; 473.803, Subdivision 1, and by adding a subdivision; 473.811, Subdivision 7, and by adding a subdivision; 473.823, Subdivision 3; 473.827, Subdivision 1, and by adding a subdivision; 473.831, Subdivision 2; Minnesota Statutes 1981 Supplement, Sections 115A.06, Subdivisions 4 and 13; 115A.11, Subdivision 1; 115A.21, Subdivision 3; 115A.24, Subdivision 1, and by adding a subdivision; 473.803, Subdivision 1a; and 473.831, Subdivision 1; proposing new law coded in Minnesota Statutes, Chapter 115A; repealing Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 473.827, Subdivisions 2, 3, 4, 5, and 6.

Senate File No. 1965 is herewith returned to the Senate.

Edward A. Burdick, Chief Clerk, House of Representatives

Returned March 13, 1982

RECESS

Mr. Moe, R.D. moved that the Senate do now recess subject to the call of the President. The motion prevailed.

After a brief recess, the President called the Senate to order.

APPOINTMENTS

Mr. Moe, R.D. from the Subcommittee on Committees recommends that the following Senators be and they hereby are appointed as a Conference Committee on:

H.F. No. 1220: Messrs. Peterson, C.C.; Nelson; Pehler; Chmielewski and Taylor.

H.F. No. 788: Messrs. Frederickson, Merriam and Peterson, R.W.

Mr. Moe, R.D. moved that the foregoing appointments be approved. The motion prevailed.

Mr. President:

I have the honor to announce that the House has adopted the recommendation and report of the Conference Committee on House File No. 1176, and repassed said bill in accordance with the report of the Committee, so adopted.

House File No. 1176 is herewith transmitted to the Senate.

Edward A. Burdick, Chief Clerk, House of Representatives

Transmitted March 13, 1982

CONFERENCE COMMITTEE REPORT ON H.F. NO. 1176

A bill for an act relating to the environment; establishing an environmental response, compensation and compliance fund to pay for removal and remedial action associated with certain hazardous substances released into the environment and for other purposes; providing for liability for cleanup costs, personal injury and economic loss resulting from releases of hazardous substances; authorizing rewards for information on violations; providing for pipeline testing; imposing taxes, fees, and penalties; appropriating money; amending Minnesota Statutes 1980, Sections 116.03, Subdivision 3; 466.01, by adding a subdivision; and 466.04, Subdivision 1; proposing new law coded as Minnesota Statutes, Chapter 115B; proposing new law coded in Minnesota Statutes, Chapter 116.

March 13, 1982

The Honorable Harry A. Sieben, Jr.
Speaker of the House of Representatives

The Honorable Jack Davies
President of the Senate

We, the undersigned conferees for H.F. No. 1176, report that we have agreed upon the items in dispute and recommend as follows:

That the Senate recede from its amendments and that H.F. No. 1176 be further amended as follows:

Delete everything after the enacting clause and insert:

"Section 1. [115B.01] [CITATION.]

Sections 1 to 16 may be cited as the Environmental Response and Liability Act.

Sec. 2. [115B.02] [DEFINITIONS.]

Subdivision 1. [APPLICATION.] For the purposes of sections 1 to 16, the following terms have the meanings given them.

Subd. 2. [ACT OF GOD.] "Act of God" means an unanticipated grave natural disaster or other natural phenomenon of an exceptional, inevitable, and irresistible character, the effects of which could not have been prevented or avoided by the exercise of due care or foresight.

Subd. 3. [AGENCY.] "Agency" means the pollution control agency.

Subd. 4. [DAMAGES.] "Damages" means damages for economic loss or personal injury or disease or the loss of natural resources as specified in section 3.

Subd. 5. [DIRECTOR.] "Director" means the director of the pollution control agency.

Subd. 6. [FACILITY.] "Facility" means:

(a) Any building, structure, installation, equipment, pipe or pipeline (including any pipe into a sewer or publicly owned treatment works), well, pit, pond, lagoon, impoundment, ditch, landfill, storage container, motor vehicle, rolling stock, or aircraft;

(b) Any watercraft of any description, or other artificial contrivance used or capable of being used as a means of transportation on water; or

(c) Any site or area where a hazardous substance has been deposited, stored, disposed of, or placed, or otherwise come to be located.

"Facility" does not include any consumer product in consumer use.

Subd. 7. [FEDERAL SUPERFUND ACT.] "Federal Superfund Act" means the Comprehensive Environmental Response, Compensation and Liability Act of 1980, 42 U.S.C. Section 9601 et seq.

Subd 8. [FUND.] "Fund" means the environmental response, compensation and compliance fund established under section 16.

Subd. 9. [HAZARDOUS SUBSTANCE.] "Hazardous substance" means:

(a) Any commercial chemical designated pursuant to the Federal Water Pollution Control Act, under 33 U.S.C. Section 1321(b)(2)(A);

(b) Any hazardous air pollutant listed pursuant to the Clean Air Act, under 42 U.S.C. Section 7412;

(c) Any hazardous waste; and

(d) Any PCB as defined in section 116.36.

"Hazardous substance" does not include natural gas, natural gas liquids, liquefied natural gas, synthetic gas usable for fuel, or mixtures of such synthetic gas and natural gas.

Subd. 10. [HAZARDOUS WASTE.] "Hazardous waste" means:

(a) Any hazardous waste as defined in section 116.06, subdivision 13, and any substance identified as a hazardous waste pursuant to rules adopted by the agency under section 116.07; and

(b) Any hazardous waste as defined in the Resource Conservation and Recovery Act, under 42 U.S.C. Section 6903, which is listed or has the characteristics identified under 42 U.S.C. Section 6921, not including any hazardous waste the regulation of which has been suspended by act of Congress.

Subd. 11. [NATURAL RESOURCES.] "Natural resources" has the meaning given it in section 116B.02, subdivision 4.

Subd. 12. [RELEASE.] "Release" means any spilling, leaking, pumping, pouring, emitting, emptying, discharging, injecting, escaping, leaching, dumping, or disposing into the environment which occurred at a point in time or which continues to occur.

"Release" does not include:

(a) Emissions from the engine exhaust of a motor vehicle, rolling stock, aircraft, watercraft, or pipeline pumping station engine;

(b) Release of source, byproduct, or special nuclear material from a nuclear incident, as those terms are defined in the Atomic Energy Act of 1954, under 42 U.S.C. Section 2014, if the release is subject to requirements with respect to financial protection established by the federal nuclear regulatory commission under 42 U.S.C. Section 2210;

(c) Release of source, byproduct or special nuclear material from any processing site designated pursuant to the Uranium Mill Tailings Radiation Control Act of 1978, under 42 U.S.C. Section 7912(a)(1) or 7942(a); or

(d) Any release resulting from the application of fertilizer or agricultural or silvicultural chemicals or disposal by a farmer of emptied pesticide containers or residues from a pesticide as defined in section 18A.21, subdivision 25, which was used by the farmer if the containers are triple rinsed and the residues are disposed of on the farm in a manner consistent with instructions on the pesticide label.

Subd. 13. [REMEDY OR REMEDIAL ACTION.] "Remedy" or "remedial action" means those actions consistent with permanent remedy taken instead of or in addition to removal actions in the event of a release or threatened release of a hazardous substance into the environment, to prevent, minimize or eliminate the release of hazardous substances to protect the public health or welfare or the environment.

"Remedy" or "remedial action" includes, but is not limited to:

(a) Actions at the location of the release such as storage, confinement, perimeter protection using dikes, trenches, or ditches, clay cover, neutralization, cleanup of released hazardous substances or contaminated materials, recycling or reuse, diversion, destruction, segregation of reactive wastes, dredging or excavations, repair or replacement of leaking containers, collection of leachate and runoff, onsite treatment or incineration, provision of alternative water supplies, and any monitoring and maintenance reasonably required to assure that these actions protect the public health and welfare and the environment; and

(b) The costs of permanent relocation of residents and businesses and community facilities when the agency determines that, alone or in combination with other measures, relocation is more cost effective than and environmentally preferable to the transportation, storage, treatment, destruction, or secure disposition offsite of hazardous substances, or may otherwise be necessary to protect the public health or welfare.

"Remedy" or "remedial action" does not include offsite transport of hazardous substances, or the storage, treatment, destruction, or secure disposition offsite of hazardous substances or contaminated materials unless the agency determines that these actions:

(1) Are more cost effective than other remedial actions;

(2) Will create new capacity to manage hazardous substances in addition to those located at the affected facility, in compliance with section 116.07 and subtitle C of the Solid Waste Disposal Act, 42 U.S.C. Section 6921 et seq.; or

(3) Are necessary to protect public health or welfare or the environment from a present or potential risk which may be created by further exposure to the continued presence of the substances or materials.

Subd. 14. [REMOVE OR REMOVAL.] "Remove" or "removal" means:

(a) The cleanup or removal of released hazardous substances from the environment;

(b) Necessary actions taken in the event of a threatened release of hazardous substances into the environment;

(c) Actions necessary to monitor, assess, and evaluate a release or threatened release of hazardous substances;

(d) Disposal or processing of removed material; or

(e) Other actions necessary to prevent, minimize, or mitigate damage to the public health or welfare or to the environment, which may otherwise result from a release or threatened release.

"Remove" or "removal" includes, but is not limited to, security fencing or other measures to limit access, provision of alternative water supplies, temporary evacuation and housing of threatened individuals not otherwise provided for, action taken pursuant to the Federal Superfund Act, under 42 U.S.C. Section 9604(b), and any emergency assistance which may be provided under the Disaster Relief Act of 1974, 42 U.S.C. Section 5121 et seq.

Subd. 15. [RESPOND OR RESPONSE.] "Respond" or "response" means remove, removal, remedy, and remedial action.

Subd. 16. [WATER.] "Water" has the meaning given to the term "waters of the state" in section 115.01, subdivision 9.

Sec. 3. [115B.03] [LIABILITY FOR RESPONSE COSTS AND DAMAGES.]

Subdivision 1. [GENERAL RULE.] Except as otherwise provided in subdivisions 3 to 10 and section 4, and notwithstanding any other provision or rule of law, any person who is responsible for a release or threatened release of a hazardous substance from a facility shall be strictly liable, jointly and severally, for the following costs and damages which result from the release or threatened release or to which the release or threatened release significantly contributes:

(a) All reasonable and necessary costs of removal, or remedial action incurred by the state, a political subdivision of the state or the United States;

(b) Any other reasonable and necessary costs or expenses incurred by any person to remove a hazardous substance; and

(c) All damages for actual economic loss or loss of natural resources resulting from such a release including:

(1) Any injury to, destruction of, or loss of any real or personal property, including relocation costs;

(2) Any loss of use of real or personal property;

(3) Any injury to, destruction of, or loss of natural resources, including the reasonable costs of assessing such injury, destruction, or loss;

(4) Any loss of past or future income or profits resulting from personal injury or disease or from injury to or destruction of real or personal property or natural resources without regard to the ownership of the property or resources;

(5) All medical expenses, rehabilitation costs or burial expenses due to personal injury or disease;

(d) Death due to personal injury or disease; and

(e) Physical impairment or loss of earning capacity due to personal injury or disease.

Subd. 2. [RESPONSIBLE PERSON.] For the purpose of subdivision 1, a person is responsible for a release or threatened release of a hazardous substance from a facility if the person:

(a) Owned or operated the facility at the time the hazardous substance was placed or came to be located in or on the facility, during the time of the release or threatened release, or at any time between those occurrences;

(b) Owned or possessed the hazardous substance and arranged, by contract, agreement or otherwise, for the disposal, treatment or transport for disposal or treatment of the hazardous substance; or

(c) Accepted the hazardous substance for transport to a disposal or treatment facility and either selected the facility to which it was transported or disposed of the substance in a manner contrary to law.

Subd. 3. [TRANSPORTATION OF HOUSEHOLD REFUSE.] A person who accepts only household refuse for transport to a treatment or disposal facility is not liable under subdivision 1 for the release or threatened release of any hazardous substance unless he knew or reasonably should have known that the hazardous substance was present in the refuse. For the purpose of this subdivision, household refuse means garbage, trash, or septic tank sanitary wastes generated by single or multiple residences, hotels, motels, restaurants and other similar facilities.

Subd. 4. [DEFENSES AVAILABLE TO RESPONSIBLE PERSONS.] There shall be no liability under subdivision 1 for any person otherwise liable if the person establishes by a preponderance of the evidence that the release or threatened release was caused solely by:

(a) An act of God;

(b) An act of war; or

(c) An act or omission of a third party.

"Third party" for the purposes of clause (c) does not include an employee or agent of the defendant, or a person whose act or omission occurs in connection with a contractual relationship, existing directly or indirectly, with the defendant.

The defense provided in clause (c) applies only if the defendant establishes by a preponderance of the evidence that he exercised due care with respect to the hazardous substance concerned, taking into consideration the characteristics of the hazardous substance in light of all relevant facts and circumstances which he knew or should have known, and that he took precautions against foreseeable acts or omissions of a third party and the consequences that could foreseeably result from those acts or omissions.

Subd. 5. [DEFENSE AVAILABLE TO OWNER OF REAL PROPERTY.] An owner of real property is not liable for damages under subdivision 1, clause (c), if he:

(a) Shows by a preponderance of the evidence that he neither knew nor reasonably should have known that any hazardous substance was present on the property before the release or threatened release; and

(b) Notifies the agency of the release or threatened release as soon as practicable after he knows about it.

Subd. 6. [CERTAIN EMPLOYEE CLAIMS NOT COVERED.] Except for a third party who is subject to liability under section 176.061, subdivision 5, there is no liability under subdivision 1 for personal injury or disease of employees arising out of and in the course of employment which is compensable under chapter 176.

Subd. 7. [NATURAL RESOURCES.] No liability with respect to natural resources shall be imposed when the defendant has demonstrated that:

(a) The damages to natural resources complained of were specifically identified as an irreversible and irretrievable commitment of natural resources in an approved final state or federal environmental impact statement, or other comparable approved final environmental analysis; and

(b) The facility or project was operating within the terms of its permit or license.

Subd. 8. [LIABILITY FOR A THREATENED RELEASE.] Liability for a threatened release of a hazardous substance is limited to the recovery by the agency of reasonable and necessary response costs pursuant to section 14, subdivision 7.

Subd. 9. [LIABILITY OF POLITICAL SUBDIVISIONS.] The liability of a political subdivision under this section is subject to the limits imposed under section 466.04, subdivision 1.

Subd. 10. [ACTS OF EMPLOYEES.] When a person who is responsible for a release or threatened release as provided in subdivision 2 is an employee who is acting in the scope of his employment:

(a) The employee is liable under subdivision 1 only if he failed to exercise due care with respect to the hazardous substance; and

(b) His employer shall be considered a person responsible for the release or threatened release and shall be liable under subdivision 1 regardless of the degree of care exercised by the employee.

Subd. 11. [AWARD OF COSTS.] Upon motion of a party prevailing in an action under section 3 the court may award costs, disbursements and reasonable attorney fees and witness fees to that party.

Sec. 4. [115B.04] [EXEMPTION FROM LIABILITY.]

A person shall not be liable under section 3:

(a) For damages as a result of acts taken or omitted in preparation for, or in the course of rendering care, assistance, or advice to the director or agency pursuant to section 14 or in accordance with the national hazardous substance response plan pursuant to the Federal Superfund Act, under 42 U.S.C. Section 9605, or at the direction of an on-scene coordinator appointed under that plan, with respect to an incident creating a danger to public health or welfare or the environment as a result of any release or threatened release of a hazardous substance;

(b) For damages or response costs as a result of the release or threatened release of a hazardous substance from a hazardous waste facility as defined under section 115A.03, for which a permit has been issued pursuant to section 116.07 or pursuant to subtitle C of the Solid Waste Disposal Act, 42 U.S.C. Section 6921 et seq., if the hazardous substance is specifically identified in the permit and the release is within the limits allowed in the permit for release of that substance;

(c) For damages or response costs as a result of the release of a hazardous substance:

(1) If the hazardous substance is specifically identified in a federal or state permit held by the person and the release is within the limits allowed in the permit;

(2) If the release results from circumstances identified and reviewed and made a part of the public record of a federal or state agency with respect to a permit held by the person, the permit was issued or modified under federal or state law, and the release conformed with the permit;

(3) If the release is any part of an emission or discharge into the air or water which emission or discharge is subject to a federal or state permit held by the person, and the emission or discharge is in compliance with control rules or regulations adopted pursuant to state or federal law; or

(4) If the release is the introduction of any pollutant into a publicly owned treatment works when the pollutant is specified in, and is in compliance with, applicable pretreatment standards under state or federal law; or

(d) If his liability has been transferred to and assumed by the federal post-closure liability fund pursuant to the Federal Superfund Act, under 42 U.S.C. Section 9607(k).

Sec. 5. [115B.05] [PROVING CAUSATION OF PERSONAL INJURY OR DISEASE.]

In adjudicating under sections 1 to 12 the question of whether a plaintiff's personal injury or disease was caused by the release of a hazardous substance, the question shall be submitted to the trier of fact if the plaintiff shows evidence sufficient to enable the trier of fact to find that it is more likely than not that the plaintiff's exposure to the hazardous substance found in the release caused or significantly contributed to the injury or disease suffered by the plaintiff. Evidence to a reasonable medical certainty that a release of a hazardous substance caused or significantly contributed to a plaintiff's injury or disease is not necessary for the question of causation to be submitted to the trier of fact.

Nothing in this subdivision affects the burden of persuasion on the question of whether the release of a hazardous substance caused a personal injury or disease. That burden remains with the plaintiff.

Sec. 6. [115B.06] [APPORTIONMENT OF LIABILITY; LIMITATION;

CONTRIBUTION.]

Subdivision 1. [APPORTIONMENT FACTORS.] For the purposes of subdivisions 2 and 3, any person held jointly and severally liable under section 3 may seek an apportionment of the common liability. Any person has the right at trial to have the trier of fact apportion liability as provided in this section. In apportioning the liability of any party under this section, the trier of fact shall consider the following:

(a) The ability of the party to demonstrate that his contribution to a release of a hazardous substance can be distinguished;

(b) The amount of hazardous substance involved;

(c) The degree of toxicity of the hazardous substance involved;

(d) The degree of involvement and care exercised in manufacturing, treating, transporting, and disposing of the hazardous substance;

(e) The degree of cooperation with federal, state, or local officials to prevent any harm to the public health or the environment; and

(f) Knowledge of the hazardous nature of the substance.

Subd. 2. [LIMITATION OF LIABILITY.] If a person is held jointly and severally liable under section 3 and his share of the common liability can be apportioned, the liability of that person shall be limited to three times his proportionate share of the common liability.

Subd. 3. [CONTRIBUTION.] Any person held jointly and severally liable under section 3 who is required to pay more than that person's proportionate share of the common liability is entitled to seek contribution from any other person liable for the damages to the extent of their proportionate liability.

Sec. 7. [115B.07] [CIVIL PENALTIES; FAILURE TO TAKE REQUESTED ACTIONS.]

Any person responsible for a release or threatened release of a hazardous substance, pollutant, or contaminant from a facility shall forfeit and pay to the state a civil penalty in an amount to be determined by the court of not more than $10,000 per day for each day that the person fails to take response actions or to make reasonable progress in completing response actions requested as provided in this section. A request for emergency removal action shall be made by the director. Other requests for response actions shall be made by the agency. The request shall be in writing, shall state the action requested, the reasons for the action, and a reasonable time by which the action must be begun and completed taking into account the urgency of the action for protection of the public health, welfare, and environment.

The penalty provided under this section may be recovered by an action brought by the attorney general in the name of the state in connection with an action to recover expenses of the agency under section 14, subdivision 7, or by a separate action in the district court of Ramsey County. All penalties recovered under this section shall be deposited in the fund.

Sec. 8. [115B.08] [AGREEMENTS TO TRANSFER LIABILITY; INSURANCE AND SUBROGATION.]

No indemnification, hold harmless, conveyance, or similar agreement shall be effective to transfer the liability imposed under section 3 from the owner or operator of a facility or from any person who may be liable under section 3 to any other person. Nothing in this section shall be construed:

(a) To prohibit any party who may be liable under section 3 from entering an agreement by which that party is insured, held harmless or indemnified for part or all of that liability;

(b) To prohibit the enforcement of any insurance, hold harmless or indemnification agreement; or

(c) To bar any cause of action brought by a party who may be liable under section 3 or by an insurer or guarantor, whether by right of subrogation or otherwise.

Sec. 9. [115B.09] [STATUTE OF LIMITATIONS.]

No person may recover for any injury or loss pursuant to section 3 unless the action is commenced within six years from the date of discovery of the injury or loss.

Sec. 10. [115B.10] [OTHER REMEDIES PRESERVED.]

Nothing in sections 1 to 12 shall affect the right of any person to bring a legal action or use any remedy available under any other provision of state or federal law, including common law, to recover for injury, disease or economic loss resulting from a release of any hazardous substance, or for removal or the costs of removal of that hazardous substance.

Sec. 11. [115B.11] [DOUBLE RECOVERY PROHIBITED.]

A person who recovers response costs or damages pursuant to sections 1 to 12 may not recover the same costs or damages pursuant to any other law. A person who recovers response costs or damages pursuant to any other state or federal law may not recover for the same costs or damages pursuant to sections 1 to 12.

Sec. 12. [115B.12] [APPLICATION OF SECTIONS 1 TO 11.]

Sections 1 to 11 apply to any release or threatened release of a hazardous substance occurring on or after July 1, 1982, including any release which began before July 1, 1982, and continued after that date. Sections 1 to 11 do not apply to a release or threatened release which occurred wholly before July 1, 1982, regardless of the date of discovery of any injury or loss caused by the release or threatened release.

Sec. 13. [115B.13] [DISPOSITION OF FACILITIES.]

Subdivision 1. [CLOSED DISPOSAL FACILITIES; USE OF PROPERTY.] No person shall use any property on or in which hazardous waste remains after closure of a disposal facility as defined in section 115A.03, subdivision 10, in any way that disturbs the integrity of the final cover, liners, or any other components of any containment system, or the function of the disposal facility's monitoring systems, unless the agency finds that the disturbance:

(a) Is necessary to the proposed use of the property, and will not increase the potential hazard to human health or the environment; or

(b) Is necessary to reduce a threat to human health or the environment.

Subd. 2. [RECORDING OF AFFIDAVIT AND NOTATION.] Before any transfer of ownership of any property which the owner knew or should have known was used as the site of a hazardous waste disposal facility as defined in section 115A.03, subdivision 10, or which the owner knew or should have known was subject to extensive contamination by release of a hazardous substance, the owner shall record with the county recorder of the county in which the property is located an affidavit that discloses to any potential transferee:

(a) That the land has been used to dispose of hazardous waste or that the land has been contaminated by a release of a hazardous substance;

(b) The identity, quantity, location, condition and circumstances of the disposal or contamination to the full extent known or ascertainable; and

(c) That the use of the property may be restricted as provided in subdivision 1.

An owner must also file an affidavit within 60 days after any material change in any matter required to be disclosed under clauses (a) to (c) with respect to property for which an affidavit has already been recorded.

When an affidavit is recorded, the owner shall record with the county recorder a notation on the deed to the property which states the existence of a hazardous substance on the property and the place where the recorded affidavit may be found.

If the owner or any subsequent owner of the property removes the hazardous substance, together with any residues, liner, and contaminated underlying and surrounding soil, that owner may record a notation to the deed indicating the removal of the hazardous substance.

Failure to record an affidavit or notation as provided in this subdivision does not affect or prevent any transfer of ownership of the property.

Subd. 3. [DUTY OF COUNTY RECORDER.] The county recorder shall record all affidavits and notations presented to him in accordance with subdivision 2. The affidavits shall be recorded in a manner which will assure their disclosure in the ordinary course of a title search of the subject property.

Subd. 4. [PENALTIES.] (a) Any person who knowingly violates the provisions of subdivision 1 is subject to a civil fine of not more than $100,000, and shall be liable under section 3 for any release or threatened release of any hazardous substance resulting from the violation.

(b) Any person who knowingly fails to record an affidavit or notation as required by subdivision 2 shall be liable under section 3 for any release or threatened release of any hazardous substance from a facility located on that property.

(c) A civil fine may be imposed and recovered by an action brought by a county attorney or by the attorney general in the district court of the county in which the property is located.

(d) Any civil fines recovered under this subdivision shall be deposited in the fund.

Sec. 14. [115B.14] [STATE RESPONSE TO RELEASES.]

Subdivision 1. [REMOVAL AND REMEDIAL ACTION.] Whenever there is a release or substantial threat of release from a facility into the environment of any pollutant or contaminant which presents an imminent and substantial danger to the public health or welfare, or whenever a hazardous substance is released or there is a threatened release of a hazardous substance into the environment from a facility:

(a) The agency may take any removal or remedial action relating to the hazardous substance, pollutant, or contaminant which the agency deems necessary to protect the public health or welfare or the environment. Before taking any action the agency shall:

(1) Request any responsible party known to the agency to take actions which the agency deems reasonable and necessary to protect the public health, welfare or the environment, stating the reasons for the actions, a reasonable time for beginning and completing the actions taking into account the urgency of the actions for protecting the public health, welfare and environment, and the intention of the agency to take action if the requested actions are not taken as requested; and

(2) Determine that the actions requested by the agency will not be taken by any known responsible party in the manner and within the time requested.

(b) The director may take removal action which he deems necessary to protect the public health, welfare or the environment if the director determines that the release or threatened release constitutes an emergency requiring immediate action to prevent, minimize or mitigate damage to the public health, welfare or the environment. Before taking any action the director shall make reasonable efforts in light of the urgency of the action to follow the procedure provided in clause (a), sub-clauses (1) and (2).

No removal action taken by any person shall be construed as an admission of liability for a release or threatened release.

Subd. 2. [POLLUTANT OR CONTAMINANT.] For the purposes of this section and section 7, ''pollutant'' or ''contaminant'' includes, but is not limited to, any element, substance, compound, or mixture, including disease-causing agents, which after release from a facility into the environment and upon exposure, ingestion, inhalation, or assimilation into any organism, either directly from the environment or indirectly by ingestion through food chains, will or may reasonably be anticipated to cause death, disease, behavioral abnormalities, cancer, genetic mutation, physiological malfunctions (including malfunctions in reproduction) or physical deformations, in the organisms or their offspring.

''Pollutant or contaminant'' does not include natural gas, natural gas liquids, liquefied natural gas, synthetic gas usable for fuel, or mixtures of such synthetic gas and natural gas.

Subd. 3. [OTHER ACTIONS.] Whenever the agency or director is authorized to act pursuant to subdivision 1 or whenever the agency or director has reason to believe that a release of a hazardous substance, pollutant or contaminant has occurred or is about to occur, or that illness, disease, or complaints thereof may be attributable to exposure to a hazardous substance, pollutant, or contaminant, the agency or director may undertake investigations, monitoring, surveys, testing, and other information gathering necessary or appropriate to identify the existence and extent of the release or threat thereof, the source and nature of the hazardous substances, pollutants or contaminants involved, and the extent of danger to the public health or welfare or to the environment. In addition, the agency may undertake planning, legal, fiscal, economic, engineering, architectural, and other studies or investigations necessary or appropriate to plan and direct a response action, to recover the costs of the response action, and to enforce the provisions of sections 1 to 14.

Subd. 4. [DUTY TO PROVIDE INFORMATION.] Any person who is responsible for a release or threatened release as provided in section 3, subdivision 2, including a release or threatened release of a pollutant or contaminant, when requested by the agency, or any member, employee or agent thereof who is authorized by the agency, shall furnish to the agency any information which he may have or may reasonably obtain which is relevant to the release or threatened release.

Subd. 5. [ACCESS TO INFORMATION AND PROPERTY.] The agency or any member, employee or agent thereof authorized by the agency, upon presentation of credentials, may:

(a) Examine and copy any books, papers, records, memoranda or data of any person who the agency has reason to believe is responsible for a release or threatened release as provided in section 3, subdivision 2, including a release of a pollutant or contaminant; and

(b) Enter upon any property, public or private, for the purpose of taking any action authorized by this section including obtaining information, examining records, conducting surveys or investigations, and taking removal or remedial action.

Subd. 6. [CLASSIFICATION OF DATA.] Except as otherwise provided in this subdivision, data obtained from any person pursuant to subdivision 4 or 5 is public data as defined in section 15.162. Upon certification by the subject of the data that the data relates to sales figures, processes or methods of production unique to that person, or information which would tend to affect adversely the competitive position of that person, the director shall classify the data as private or nonpublic data as defined in section 15.162. Notwithstanding any other law to the contrary, data classified as private or nonpublic under this subdivision may be disclosed when relevant in any proceeding under sections 1 to 14, or to other public agencies concerned with the implementation of sections 1 to 14.

Subd. 7. [RECOVERY OF EXPENSES.] Any reasonable and necessary expenses incurred by the agency or director pursuant to this section including administrative and legal expenses may be recovered in a civil action brought by the attorney general against any responsible person who may be liable under section 3. The agency's certification of expenses shall be prima facie evidence that the expenses are reasonable and necessary. Any expenses incurred pursuant to this section which are recovered by the attorney general pursuant to section 3 or any other law shall be deposited in the fund and may be appropriated only for additional response actions as provided in section 16, subdivision 2, clause (b) or (c).

Subd. 8. [ACTIONS RELATING TO NATURAL RESOURCES.] For the purpose of this subdivision, the state is the trustee of the air, water and wildlife of the state. An action pursuant to section 3 for damages with respect to air, water or wildlife may be brought by the attorney general in the name of the state as trustee for those natural resources. Any damages recovered by the attorney general pursuant to section 3 or any other law for injury to, or loss of natural resources resulting from the release of a hazardous substance, pollutant or contaminant shall be deposited in the fund and may be appropriated only for the purposes provided in section 16, subdivision 2, clause (e).

Subd. 9. [ACTIONS RELATING TO PESTICIDES OR FERTILIZER OR SOIL OR PLANT AMENDMENTS.] When the commissioner of agriculture has reported an incident involving the release of pesticides under the provisions of section 18A.37 or the release of fertilizers or soil or plant amendments, and the agency determines that the incident constitutes a release of a hazardous substance, pollutant or contaminant, the agency shall authorize the commissioner, subject to the provisions of subdivision 13, to take any action which the agency would be authorized to take under subdivisions 1 to 5. Subject to the provisions of section 16, subdivision 3, the agency shall reimburse the commissioner from the fund for the reasonable and necessary expenses incurred in taking those actions and may recover any amount spent from the fund under subdivision 7.

Subd. 10. [ACTIONS RELATING TO OCCUPATIONAL SAFETY AND HEALTH.] The agency, director and the commissioner of labor and industry shall make reasonable efforts to coordinate any actions taken under this section and under sections 182.65 to 182.674 to avoid duplication or conflict of actions or requirements with respect to a release or threatened release affecting the safety of any conditions or place of employment.

Subd. 11. [ACTIONS RELATING TO HEALTH.] The agency and director shall make reasonable efforts to coordinate and consult with the commissioner of health in planning and directing response actions with respect to a release or threatened release affecting the public health. If the commissioner of health, upon the request of the agency, takes any actions authorized under this section, the agency shall reimburse the commissioner from the fund for the reasonable and necessary expenses incurred in taking those actions and may recover any amount spent from the fund under subdivision 7.

Subd. 12. [LIMIT ON ACTIONS BY POLITICAL SUBDIVISIONS.] When the agency or director has requested a person who is responsible for a release or threatened release to take any response action under subdivision 1, no political subdivision shall request or order that person to take any action which conflicts with the action requested by the agency or director.

Subd. 13. [PRIORITIES; RULES.] By November 1, 1982, the agency shall establish a temporary list of priorities among releases or threatened releases for the purpose of taking remedial action and, to the extent practicable consistent with the urgency of the action, for taking removal action under this section. The temporary list, with any necessary modifications, shall remain in effect until nine months after criteria for determining priorities are published in the national contingency plan pursuant to the Federal Superfund Act, under 42 U.S.C. Section 9605. By that date, the agency shall adopt rules establishing state criteria for determining priorities among releases and threatened releases. After rules are adopted, a permanent priority list shall be established, and may be modified from time to time, according to the criteria set forth in the rules. Before any list is established under this subdivision the agency shall publish the list in the state register and allow 30 days for comments on the list by the public.

The temporary list and the rules required by this subdivision shall be based upon the relative risk or danger to public health or welfare or the environment, taking into account to the extent possible the population at risk, the hazardous potential of the hazardous substances at the facilities, the potential for contamination of drinking water supplies, the potential for direct human contact, the potential for destruction of sensitive ecosystems, the administrative and financial capabilities of the agency, and other appropriate factors.

Sec. 15. [PURPOSES OF FUND, TAXES AND FEES.]

In establishing the environmental response, compensation and compliance fund and imposing the tax in section 18 it is the purpose of the legislature to:

(a) Encourage treatment and disposal of hazardous waste in a manner that adequately protects the public health and welfare and the environment;

(b) Encourage responsible parties to provide the response actions necessary to protect the public and the environment from the effects of the release of hazardous substances;

(c) Encourage the use of alternatives to land disposal of solid and hazardous waste including resource recovery, recycling, neutralization and reduction;

(d) Provide state agencies with the financial resources needed to prepare and implement an effective and timely state response to the release of hazardous substances, including investigation, planning, removal and remedial action;

(e) Compensate for increased governmental expenses and loss of revenue and to provide other appropriate assistance to mitigate any adverse impact on communities in which commercial hazardous waste processing or disposal facilities are located under the siting process provided in chapter 115A;

(f) Recognize the environmental and public health costs of land disposal of solid waste and of the use and disposal of hazardous substances and to place the burden of financing state waste management activities on those whose products and services contribute to waste management problems and increase the risks of harm to the public and the environment.

Sec. 16. [ENVIRONMENTAL RESPONSE, COMPENSATION AND COMPLIANCE FUND.]

Subdivision 1. [ESTABLISHMENT.] The environmental response, compensation and compliance fund is created as an account in the state treasury and may be spent only for the purposes provided in subdivision 2.

Subd. 2. [PURPOSES FOR WHICH MONEY MAY BE SPENT.] Subject to appropriation by the legislature the money in the fund may be spent for any of the following purposes:

(a) Preparation by the agency for taking removal or remedial action under section 14, including investigation, monitoring and testing activities, enforcement and compliance efforts relating to the release of hazardous substances, pollutants or contaminants;

(b) Removal and remedial actions, including related compliance efforts, taken or authorized by the agency or director under section 14 and payment of the state share of the cost of remedial action which may be carried out under a cooperative agreement with the federal government pursuant to the Federal Superfund Act, under 42 U.S.C. Section 9604(c)(3) for actions related to facilities other than commercial hazardous waste facilities located under the siting authority of chapter 115A;

(c) Removal and remedial actions, including related compliance efforts, taken or authorized by the agency or director under section 14 and payment of the state share of the cost of remedial action which may be carried out under a cooperative agreement with the federal government pursuant to the Federal Superfund Act, under 42 U.S.C. Section 9604(c)(3) for actions related to commercial hazardous waste facilities located under the siting authority of chapter 115A;

(d) Compensation as provided by law, after submission by the waste management board of the report required under section 115A.08, subdivision 5, to mitigate any adverse impact of the location of commercial hazardous waste processing or disposal facilities located pursuant to the siting authority of chapter 115A;

(e) Planning and implementation by the commissioner of natural resources of the rehabilitation, restoration or acquisition of natural resources to remedy injuries or losses to natural resources resulting from the release of a hazardous substance;

(f) Inspection, monitoring and compliance efforts by the agency, or by local units of government with agency approval, of commercial hazardous waste facilities located under the siting authority of chapter 115A;

(g) Grants by the agency or the waste management board to demonstrate alternatives to land disposal of solid and hazardous waste including reduction, separation, pretreatment, processing and resource recovery, for education of persons involved in regulating and handling solid and hazardous waste, and to assist counties to develop comprehensive waste management plans; and

(h) Intervention and environmental mediation by the legislative commission on waste management under chapter 115A.

Subd. 3. [LIMIT ON CERTAIN EXPENDITURES.] The director or agency may not spend any money under subdivision 2, clause (b) or (c) for removal or remedial actions to the extent that the costs of those actions may be compensated from any fund established under the Federal Superfund Act, 42 U.S.C. Section 9600 et seq. The director or agency shall determine the extent to which any of the costs of those actions may be compensated under the federal act based on the likelihood that the compensation will be available in a timely fashion taking into account:

(a) The urgency of the removal or remedial actions and the priority assigned under the Federal Superfund Act to the release which necessitates those actions;

(b) The availability of money in the funds established under the Federal Superfund Act; and

(c) The consistency of any compensation for the cost of the proposed actions under the Federal Superfund Act with the national contingency plan, if such a plan has been adopted under that act.

Subd. 4. [REVENUE SOURCES.] Revenue from the following sources shall be deposited in the environmental response, compensation and compliance fund:

(a) The proceeds of the taxes imposed pursuant to section 18, including interest and penalties;

(b) All money recovered by the state under sections 1 to 14 or under any other statute or rule related to the regulation of hazardous waste or hazardous substances, including civil penalties and money paid under any agreement, stipulation or settlement but excluding fees imposed under section 21;

(c) All interest attributable to investment of money deposited in the fund; and

(d) All money received in the form of gifts, grants, reimbursement or appropriation from any source for any of the purposes provided in subdivision 2, except federal grants.

Subd. 5. [RECOMMENDATION BY LCWM.] The legislative commission on waste management shall make recommendations on appropriations from the fund to the standing legislative committees on finance and appropriations.

Subd. 6. [REPORT TO LEGISLATURE.] At the end of each fiscal year, the agency shall submit to the senate finance committee, the house appropriations committee and the legislative commission on waste management a report detailing the activities for which money from the environmental response, compensation and compliance fund has been spent during that year.

Sec. 17. [TAXES; DEFINITIONS.]

Subdivision 1. [APPLICATION.] The definitions provided in this section and section 2 apply to sections 17 to 20.

Subd. 2. [COMMISSIONER.] "Commissioner" means the commissioner of revenue.

Subd. 3. [GENERATOR.] "Generator" means a person who generates hazardous waste and who is required to disclose the generation of hazardous waste under the hazardous waste rules of the agency adopted under section 116.07.

Subd. 4. [LONG TERM CONTAINMENT.] "Long term containment" means land disposal or storage for a period of more than one year.

Subd. 5. [TREATMENT.] "Treatment" means any material, technique or process designed to change the physical, chemical or biological character or composition of a hazardous waste in order to: (a) neutralize it; (b) render it nonhazardous or less hazardous; (c) render it safer to transport, store or dispose of; (d) make it amenable to storage; or (e) reduce its volume.

Subd. 6. [WASTEWATER TREATMENT UNIT.] "Wastewater treatment unit" means a device which is part of a wastewater treatment facility subject to regulation pursuant to the federal Clean Water Act under 33 U.S.C. Section 1317 (b) or 1342.

Sec. 18. [HAZARDOUS WASTE GENERATOR TAX.]

Subdivision 1. [TAX IMPOSED; EXCLUSIONS.] Each generator of hazardous waste shall pay the tax imposed by this section based upon the volume and destination of the hazardous wastes generated. The tax imposed by this section does not apply to hazardous wastes destined for recycling or reuse or to used crankcase oil.

Subd. 2. [LONG TERM CONTAINMENT WITHOUT TREATMENT.] Hazardous waste destined for long term containment without treatment shall be taxed at the rate of 32 cents per gallon of liquid or $32 per cubic yard of solid.

Subd. 3. [LONG TERM CONTAINMENT AFTER TREATMENT.] Hazardous waste destined for long term containment after treatment shall be taxed at the rate of 16 cents per gallon of liquid or $16 per cubic yard of solid.

Subd. 4. [OTHER TREATMENT.] Hazardous waste destined for treatment, other than as provided in subdivision 6, to produce a material which is not hazardous, including treatment permitted by the agency in a sewage treatment works, or hazardous waste which is destined for destructive treatment by incineration shall be taxed at the rate of eight cents per gallon of liquid or $8 per cubic yard of solid.

Subd. 5. [ON-SITE TREATMENT; REDUCED TAX.] Hazardous wastes which are treated in a manner provided in subdivision 3 or 4 before the wastes are transported along any public street or highway as defined in section 169.01, subdivision 29, or are put into any sewer system as permitted by the agency, shall be taxed at one-half the rate at which they would otherwise be taxed.

Subd. 6. [ON-SITE WASTEWATER TREATMENT.] The tax imposed under this section does not apply to hazardous waste which is destined for treatment in a wastewater treatment unit to produce a material which is not hazardous before entering a public sewer system or waters of the state but the tax does apply to any residue of treatment which is a hazardous waste.

Subd. 7. [DISPOSITION OF PROCEEDS.] The proceeds of the tax imposed under this section including any interest and penalties shall be deposited in the fund.

Sec. 19. [SEVERABILITY.]

If any tax imposed under section 18 is found to be invalid because of the purpose for which the proceeds were appropriated or made available under section 16, subdivision 2, the proceeds of that tax shall not be appropriated or available for the objectionable purposes, but the tax shall continue to be imposed and the proceeds shall be appropriated and made available for other purposes provided in section 16, subdivision 2.

Sec. 20. [TAX ADMINISTRATION AND ENFORCEMENT.]

Subdivision 1. [QUARTERLY REPORTS AND PAYMENTS; EXCEPTION.] By the fourteenth day following the last day of each calendar quarter beginning after December 31, 1982, every person liable for payment of a tax under section 18, except as provided in subdivision 4 of this section, shall make and file with the commissioner of revenue a report under oath, in the form and containing the information required by the commissioner. The amount of the tax due shall be remitted together with the form. The commissioner may es- tablish rules under which a generator of a low volume of hazardous wastes may file the report and pay the tax annually.

Subd. 2. [AMENDED RETURNS.] A taxpayer who finds that a return filed under this section as originally filed is in error may correct the error by filing an amended return. If the taxpayer is entitled to a refund due to the correction, the amended return will serve as a claim for the refund provided it is filed no later than three years after the original return is filed.

Subd. 3. [EXCHANGE OF INFORMATION.] Notwithstanding the provisions of sections 116.075 or 290.61 or any other law to the contrary, the commissioner of revenue and the pollution control agency may p: ovide each other with the information necessary for the enforcement of section 18 and this section. Information disclosed in a return filed pursuant to this section or information exchanged between the commissioner and the agency is public unless the information is of the type determined to be for the confidential use of the agency pursuant to section 116.075 or is trade secret information classified pursuant to section 15.1673.

Subd. 4. [PAYMENT BY OUT-OF-STATE GENERATORS.] A generator of any hazardous waste which is generated outside of this state and is transported into this state for long term containment or treatment as described in section 18, subdivisions 2 to 4 shall pay the tax imposed by section 18 at the first point at which the hazardous wastes are received by a person in this state for storage, treatment or long term containment. The tax shall be paid to the person who first receives the wastes in this state at the time the waste is received and shall be remitted by that person to the commissioner of revenue quarterly in the form and manner provided by the commissioner.

Subd. 5. [DUTIES OF THE AGENCY AND METROPOLITAN COUNTIES.] The agency shall provide to the commissioner the names and addresses of all persons known to the agency who are subject to tax under section 18, together with any information which the agency possesses concerning the amount of solid waste accepted or hazardous waste generated and disposed of by those persons. Metropolitan counties required to regulate hazardous wastes under section 473.811, subdivision 5b, shall provide to the agency the data and information necessary to allow the agency to carry out its duties under this subdivision. Upon request by the commissioner, the agency shall examine returns and reports filed with the commissioner and notify the commissioner of any suspected inaccurate or fraudulent declaration or return. The agency may assist in auditing any person subject to tax under section 18 when requested by the commissioner.

Subd. 6. [PENALTIES; ENFORCEMENT.] The audit, penalty and enforcement provisions applicable to taxes imposed under chapter 290 apply to the taxes imposed under section 18 and those provisions shall be administered by the commissioner.

Subd. 7. [RULES.] The commissioner may adopt temporary and permanent rules necessary to implement the provisions of this section and section 18.

Subd. 8. [ADMINISTRATIVE EXPENSES.] Any amount expended by the commissioner or agency from a general fund appropriation to enforce and administer section 18 and this section shall be reimbursed to the general fund and the amount necessary to make the reimbursement is appropriated from the fund to the commissioner of finance for transfer to the general fund.

Sec. 21. [116.12] [HAZARDOUS WASTE ADMINISTRATION FEES.]

Subdivision 1. [FEE SCHEDULES.] The agency shall establish the fees provided in subdivisions 2 and 3 in the manner provided in section 16A.128 in order to raise an amount of fees sufficient to cover the non-federally funded portion of the amount appropriated to the agency for that year for permitting, monitoring, inspection and enforcement expenses of the hazardous waste activities of the agency, excluding any amount appropriated under section 16, subdivision 2, clauses (a) and (f). Fees collected from hazardous waste activities shall approximate the expenses of the agency for regulation of hazardous waste.

The legislature may appropriate additional amounts which need not be raised by fees or may provide that the fees shall cover a proportion of the appropriation for the hazardous waste activities of the agency in order to assure adequate funding for the regulatory and enforcement functions of the agency related to hazardous waste. All fees collected by the agency under this section shall be deposited in the general fund.

Subd. 2. [HAZARDOUS WASTE GENERATOR FEE.] Each generator of hazardous waste shall pay a fee on the hazardous waste which he generates. The agency shall compute the amount of the fee due based on the hazardous waste disclosures submitted by the generators and other information available to the agency. The agency shall annually prepare a statement of the amount of the fee due from each generator. The fee shall be paid annually commencing with the first day of the calendar quarter after the date of the statement.

The agency may exempt generators of small quantities of hazardous wastes otherwise subject to the fee if it finds that the cost of administering a fee on those generators is excessive relative to the proceeds of the fee. The fee shall consist of a minimum fee for each generator not exempted by the agency and an additional fee which generally reflects the quantity of wastes generated by the generator.

If any metropolitan counties recover the costs of administering county hazardous waste regulations by charging fees, the fees charged by the agency outside of those counties shall not exceed the fees charged by those counties. The agency shall not charge a fee in any metropolitan county which charges such a fee. The agency shall impose a surcharge on the fees charged by the metropolitan counties and by the agency to reflect the agency's expenses in carrying out its statewide hazardous waste regulatory responsibilities. The surcharge imposed on the fees charged by the metropolitan counties shall be collected by the metropolitan counties in the manner in which the counties collect their generator fees. Metropolitan counties shall remit the proceeds of the surcharge to the agency by the last day of the month following the month in which they were collected.

Subd. 3. [FACILITY FEES.] The agency shall charge an original permit fee, a reissuance fee and an annual operator's fee for any hazardous waste facility permitted by the agency. The agency may include reasonable and necessary costs of any environmental review required under chapter 116D in the original permit fee for any hazardous waste facility.

Sec. 22. Minnesota Statutes 1981 Supplement, Section 115A.24, Subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [CERTIFICATE.] ~~Except as provided in subdivision 2,~~ By December 15, 1982, on the basis of and consistent with its hazardous waste management plan adopted under section 115A.11, the board shall issue a certificate or certificates of need for disposal facilities for hazardous wastes in the state. The certificate or certificates shall indicate the types and volumes of waste for which disposal facilities are and will be needed through the year 2000 and the number, types, sizes, general design and operating specifications, and function or use of the disposal facilities needed in the state. The board shall certify need only to the extent that the board has determined that there are no feasible and prudent alternatives including waste reduction, separation, pretreatment, processing, and resource recovery which would minimize adverse impact upon natural resources, provided that the board shall require the establishment of at least one commercial disposal facility in the state. Economic considerations alone shall not justify certification nor the rejection of alternatives. Alternatives that are speculative and conjectural shall not be deemed to be feasible and prudent. The certificate or certificates shall not be subject to the provisions of chapter 15 but shall be the final determination required on the matters decided by the certificate or certificates and shall have the force and effect of law. The certificate or certificates shall not be amended for five years. The board and the permitting agencies, in reviewing and selecting sites, completing environmental impact statements, and issuing approvals and permits for waste disposal facilities described in the certificate or certificates of need, shall not reconsider matters determined in the certification. The board and the permitting agencies shall be required to make a final decision approving the establishment of facilities consistent with the certification. The board and the permitting agencies shall be required to make a final decision approving the establishment of at least one commercial disposal facility for hazardous waste in the state.

Sec. 23. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 466.01, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 3. For the purposes of sections 466.01 to 466.15, "release" and "hazardous substance" have the meanings given in section 2.

Sec. 24. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 466.04, Subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [LIMITS; PUNITIVE DAMAGES.] Liability of any municipality on any claim within the scope of sections 466.01 to 466.15 shall not exceed

(a) $100,000 when the claim is one for death by wrongful act or omission and $100,000 to any claimant in any other case;

(b) $300,000 for any number of claims arising out of a single occurrence~~.~~;

(c) Twice the limits provided in clauses (a) and (b) when the claim arises out of the release or threatened release of a hazardous substance, whether the claim is brought under sections 1 to 12 or under any other law.

No award for damages on any such claim shall include punitive damages.

Sec. 25. [APPROPRIATION; COMPLEMENT.]

Subdivision 1. [APPROPRIATION TO FUND.] The sum of $3,200,000 is appropriated from the general fund and transferred to the environmental response, compensation and compliance fund established in section 16.

Subd. 2. [TAX ADMINISTRATION; COMPLEMENT.] The following sums are appropriated from the general fund to be available until June 30, 1983, for costs of administering and enforcing sections 18 and 20.

(a) To the commissioner of revenue $90,500

The approved complement of the department of revenue is increased by two positions.

(b) To the pollution control agency $30,000

The approved complement of the pollution control agency is increased by one position.

Subd. 3. [APPROPRIATION FOR RESPONSE ACTIONS.] For the biennium ending June 30, 1983, and except as provided in subdivision 4, all money in the environmental response, compensation and compliance fund except any money recovered with respect to natural resources under section 14, subdivision 8, is appropriated to the pollution control agency for the purposes described in section 16, subdivision 2, clauses (a) and (b).

Subd. 4. [RULES; PRIORITY LISTS; COMPLEMENT.] The sum of $40,000 is appropriated from the environmental response, compensation and compliance fund to the pollution control agency for the cost of establishing priority lists and adopting rules as required under section 14, subdivision 13, to be available until June 30, 1983.

The approved complement of the pollution control agency is increased by six positions.

Sec. 26. [REPEALER.] Minnesota Statutes 1981 Supplement, Section 115A.24, Subdivision 2, is repealed.

Sec. 27. [EFFECTIVE DATE.]

Sections 17 to 20 are effective the day following final enactment except that the tax imposed by section 18 is effective January 1, 1983. Section 21 is effective July 1, 1983. Section 25 is effective the day following final enactment. The remaining sections of this act are effective July 1, 1982.

Delete the title and insert:

"A bill for an act relating to the environment; establishing an environmental response, compensation and compliance fund to pay for removal and remedial action associated with certain hazardous substances released into the environment and for other purposes; providing for liability for cleanup costs, personal injury and economic loss resulting from releases of hazardous substances; imposing taxes, fees, and penalties; appropriating money; amending Minnesota Statutes 1980, Sections 466.01, by adding a subdivision; and 466.04, Subdivision 1; Minnesota Statutes 1981 Supplement, Section 115A.24, Subdivision 1; proposing new law coded in Minnesota Statutes, Chapter 116; proposing new law coded as Minnesota Statutes, Chapter 115B; repealing Minnesota Statutes 1981 Supplement, Section 115A.24, Subdivision 2."

We request adoption of this report and repassage of the bill.

CALL OF THE SENATE

Mr. Merriam imposed a call of the Senate. The Sergeant at Arms was instructed to bring in the absent members.

Mr. Merriam moved that the foregoing recommendations and Conference Committee Report on H.F. No. 1176 be now adopted, and that the bill be repassed as amended by the Conference Committee. The motion prevailed. So the recommendations and Conference Committee Report were adopted.

Pursuant to Rule 22, Mr. Waldorf moved that he be excused from voting on H.F. No. 1176. The motion prevailed.

H.F. No. 1176 was read the third time, as amended by the Conference Committee, and placed on its repassage.

The question was taken on the repassage of the bill, as amended by the Conference Committee.

The roll was called, and there were yeas 43 and nays 15, as follows:

Those who voted in the affirmative were:

Ashbach	Engler	Luther	Peterson,C.C.	Stokowski
Benson	Frank	Menning	Peterson,R.W.	Stumpf
Berglin	Hanson	Merriam	Petty	Taylor
Chmielewski	Hughes	Moe, D. M.	Purfeerst	Tennessen
Dahl	Johnson	Moe, R. D.	Ramstad	Ulland
Davies	Knoll	Nelson	Setzepfandt	Vega
Davis	Lantry	Olhoft	Sikorski	Willet
Dicklich	Lessard	Pehler	Spear
Dieterich	Lindgren	Penny	Stern

Those who voted in the negative were:

Bang	Bernhagen	Kamrath	Peterson,D.L.	Rued
Belanger	Frederick	Knutson	Pillsbury	Schmitz
Berg	Frederickson	Kronebusch	Renneke	Sieloff

So the bill, as amended by the Conference Committee, was repassed and its title was agreed to.

RECONSIDERATION

Mr. Merriam moved that the vote whereby H.F. No. 1176 was passed by the Senate on March 13, 1982, be now reconsidered. The motion prevailed.

H.F. No. 1176 was read the third time, as amended by the Conference Committee, and placed on its repassage.

The question was taken on the repassage of the bill, as amended by the Conference Committee.

The roll was called, and there were yeas 45 and nays 17, as follows:

Those who voted in the affirmative were:

Ashbach	Dicklich	Lantry	Olhoft	Spear
Benson	Dieterich	Lessard	Pehler	Stern
Berglin	Engler	Lindgren	Penny	Stokowski
Bertram	Frank	Luther	Peterson,C.C.	Stumpf

Belanger	Frederickson	Peterson,D.L.	Rued
Berg	Kamrath	Pillsbury	Schmitz
Bernhagen	Knutson	Purfeerst	Setzepfandt

So the bill, as amended by the Conference Committee, was repassed and its title was agreed to.

Mr. President:

I have the honor to announce that the House has adopted the recommendation and report of the Conference Committee on House File No. 492, and repassed said bill in accordance with the report of the Committee, so adopted.

House File No. 492 is herewith transmitted to the Senate.

Edward A. Burdick, Chief Clerk, House of Representatives

Transmitted March 13, 1982

CONFERENCE COMMITTEE REPORT ON H.F. NO. 492

A bill for an act relating to crimes; authorizing counties to expend money for the purpose of investigating criminal activity relating to selling or receiving stolen property; proposing new law coded in Minnesota Statutes, Chapter 299C.

March 12, 1982

The Honorable Harry A. Sieben, Jr.
Speaker of the House of Representatives

The Honorable Jack Davies
President of the Senate

We, the undersigned conferees for H.F. No. 492, report that we have agreed upon the items in dispute and recommend as follows:

That the Senate recede from its amendments and that H.F. No. 492 be amended as follows:

Delete everything after the enacting clause and insert:

"Section 1. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 244.09, Subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [COMMISSION; ESTABLISHMENT.] There is hereby established the Minnesota sentencing guidelines commission which shall be comprised of ~~nine~~ 10 or 11 members.

Sec. 2. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 244.09, Subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. The sentencing guidelines commission shall consist of the following:

(1) The chief justice of the supreme court or his designee;

(2) Two district court judges appointed by the chief justice of the supreme court;

(3) One public defender appointed by the governor upon recommendation of the state public defender;

(4) One county attorney appointed by the governor upon recommendation of the board of governors of the county attorneys council;

(5) The commissioner of corrections or his designee;

Sec. 7. Minnesota Statutes 1981 Supplement, Section 15A.083, Subdivision 7, is amended to read:

Subd. 7. [WORKERS' COMPENSATION COURT OF APPEALS AND COMPENSATION JUDGES.] Salaries of judges of the workers' compensation court of appeals shall be ~~90 percent of~~ equal to the salary for district judges as provided in subdivision 1. Salaries of compensation judges shall be 75 percent of the salary of district court judges as provided in subdivision 1.

Sec. 8. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 179.66, Subdivision 7, is amended to read:

Subd. 7. The employer shall not meet and negotiate or meet and confer with any employee or group of employees who are at the time designated as a member or part of an appropriate employee unit except through the exclusive representative if one is certified for that unit or as provided for in section 179.69, subdivision 1, provided that this subdivision shall not be deemed to prevent the communication to the employer, other than through the exclusive representative, of advice or recommendations by professional employees, when such communication is a part of the employee's work assignment.

Sec. 9. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 179.72, Subdivision 7, is amended to read:

Subd. 7. The arbitration panel or arbitrator selected by the parties shall resolve the issues in dispute between the parties as submitted by the board, and the panel's decision and order shall be final and binding upon the parties. The panel shall be restricted, if the parties agree in writing to so limit the panel's jurisdiction, except as provided by subdivision 7b to selecting between the final offers on each impasse item submitted by the parties to the panel, or the final offer of one or the other party in its entirety. Provided, however, that no decision of the panel which violates any provision of the laws of Minnesota or rules or regulations promulgated thereunder or municipal charters or ordinances or resolutions enacted pursuant thereto, or which causes a penalty to be incurred thereunder, shall have any force or effect. In considering a dispute and issuing its order the panel shall give due consideration to the statutory rights and obligations of public employers to efficiently manage and conduct its operations within the legal limitations surrounding the financing of such operations. The panel's orders shall be issued by a majority vote of its members considering a given dispute. The panel shall have no jurisdiction over nor authority to entertain any matter or issue not within the definition stated in section 179.63, subdivision 18; provided, however, items not within terms and conditions of employment may be included in an arbitration decision if such items are contained in the employer's final position. Any issue or order or part thereof issued by the panel determining any matter not included under section 179.63, subdivision 18 or the employer's final position shall be void and of no effect. The panel shall render its decision within ten days from the date that all arbitration proceedings have been concluded, but in any event must issue its order by the last date the employer is required by statute, charter, ordinance or resolution to submit its tax levy or budget or certify its taxes voted to the appropriate public officer, agency, public body or office, or by November 1, whichever date is earlier. The panel's order shall be for such period as the panel shall direct, except that orders determining contracts for teacher units shall be effective to the end of the contract period as determined by section 179.70, subdivision 1.

Sec. 10. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 179.72, Subdivision 7b, is amended to read:

Subd. 7b. Notwithstanding the provisions of subdivision 7, for ~~essential employees,~~ supervisory employees, confidential employees, and principals and assistant principals who are not employees of the executive branch of the state of Minnesota, the panel shall be restricted to selecting between the final offers on each impasse item submitted by the parties to the panel.

Sec. 11. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 299D.03, Subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Sec. 18. [REVIEW OF EXECUTIVE POSITIONS.]

The legislative commission on employee relations is directed to review the executive positions contained in section 15A.081, those that have been removed through legislative action, and those that have never been included. This review shall consider managerial and programmatic responsibilities and authority, the skill and effort required by each position, and compensation accorded. The commission may utilize the findings of the 1980 governor's task force on executive and judicial compensation. The commission shall report back to the legislature by February 15, 1983, its recommendations relative to appropriate inclusion in section 15A.081 and equitable compensation for comparable executive positions.

Sec. 19. [REPEALER.]

Minnesota Statutes 1980, Sections 299C.041 and 299D.03, Subdivision 3, are repealed.

Sec. 20. [REPEALER.]

Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 179.72, Subdivision 7a is repealed.

Sec. 21. [APPROPRIATION; GENERAL FUND.]

Subdivision 1. The sums contained in this section are appropriated from the general fund to be available for the fiscal year ending June 30 of the years indicated.

Subd. 2. There is appropriated to the commissioner of finance for the purpose of paying compensation increases as authorized by sections 1 and 3 to 7.

Sec. 22. [APPROPRIATIONS; OTHER FUNDS.]

The amounts necessary to pay compensation and economic benefit increases authorized by this act are appropriated to the commissioner of finance for the fiscal years ending June 30, 1982, and June 30, 1983, from the funds in the state treasury, other than the general fund, from which salaries are paid.

Sec. 23. [EFFECTIVE DATE.]

Sections 1, 3 to 6, and 20 are effective July 1, 1982. Section 7 is effective July 1, 1983. The remaining sections are effective the day following final enactment.''

House Conferees: (Signed) Wayne A. Simoneau, Michael R. Sieben, John T. Rose, Charles C. Halberg, Fred C. Norton

Mr. Knoll moved that the foregoing recommendations and Conference Committee Report on S.F. No. 1964 be now adopted, and that the bill be repassed as amended by the Conference Committee.

Mr. Johnson moved that the Conference Committee Report be rejected and that the bill be returned to the Conference Committee as formerly constituted.

CALL OF THE SENATE

Mr. Menning imposed a call of the Senate for the proceedings on S.F. No. 1964. The Sergeant at Arms was instructed to bring in the absent members.

Mr. Moe, R.D. moved that S.F. No. 1964 and the Conference Committee Report thereon be laid on the table. The motion prevailed.

Mr. President:

I have the honor to announce that the House refuses to concur in the Senate amendments to House File No. 2000:

H.F. No. 2000: A bill for an act relating to health and welfare; strengthening qualifications for persons controlling, administering, or managing nursing homes; requiring review of reimbursement for substandard care; requiring license revocation in certain situations; clarifying certain provisions of the general assistance program; revising a penalty; amending Minnesota Statutes 1980, Sections 144A.01, Subdivision 7; 144A.04, Subdivisions 4 and 6; 144A.08, Subdivision 3; 144A.10, Subdivision 4; 144A.11, Subdivision 2, and by adding a subdivision; and Minnesota Statutes 1981 Supplement, Section 256D.05, Subdivision 1.

And the House respectfully requests that a Conference Committee of three members be appointed thereon.

Greenfield, Samuelson and Forsythe have been appointed as such committee on the part of the House.

House File No. 2000 is herewith transmitted to the Senate with the request that the Senate appoint a like committee.

Edward A. Burdick, Chief Clerk, House of Representatives

Transmitted March 13, 1982

Mr. Sikorski moved that the Senate accede to the request of the House for a Conference Committee on H.F. No. 2000, and that a Conference Committee of 3 members be appointed by the Subcommittee on Committees on the part of the Senate, to act with a like Conference Committee appointed on the part of the House. The motion prevailed.

Mr. President:

I have the honor to announce the passage by the House of the following Senate File, AS AMENDED by the House, in which amendments the concurrence of the Senate is respectfully requested:

S.F. No. 1962: A bill for an act relating to agriculture; providing for the regulation of grain storage warehouse operators; changing certain fee provisions; providing penalties; appropriating money; amending Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 236.02; Minnesota Statutes 1981 Supplement, Sections 231.16; and 233.08; proposing new law coded in Minnesota Statutes, Chapter 232; repealing Minnesota Statutes 1980, Sections 232.06, Subdivisions 2, 3, 4, 6 and 7; 232.07 to 232.19; Minnesota Statutes 1981 Supplement, Section 232.06, Subdivision 1.

Senate File No. 1962 is herewith returned to the Senate.

Edward A. Burdick, Chief Clerk, House of Representatives

Returned March 13, 1982

Mr. Frederickson moved that the Senate do not concur in the amendments by the House to S.F. No. 1962, and that a Conference Committee of 3 members be appointed by the Subcommittee on Committees on the part of the Senate, to act with a like Conference Committee to be appointed on the part of the House. The motion prevailed.

RECESS

Mr. Moe, R.D. moved that the Senate do now recess subject to the call of the President. The motion prevailed.

After a brief recess, the President called the Senate to order.

APPOINTMENTS

Mr. Moe, R.D. from the Subcommittee on Committees recommends that the following Senators be and they hereby are appointed as a Conference Committee on:

H.F. No. 2000: Messrs. Sikorski, Knoll and Knutson.

S.F. No. 1962: Messrs. Frederickson, Setzepfandt and Renneke.

Mr. Moe, R.D. moved that the foregoing appointments be approved. The motion prevailed.

Sec. 7. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 340.95, is amended to read:

340.95 [INJURIES CAUSED BY INTOXICATION, CIVIL ACTIONS.]

Every husband, wife, child, parent, guardian, employer, or other person who is injured in person or property, or means of support, or incurs other pecuniary loss by any intoxicated person, or by the intoxication of any person, has a right of action, in his own name, against any person who, by illegally selling or bartering intoxicating liquors or non-intoxicating malt liquors, caused the intoxication of ~~such~~ that person, for all damages~~,~~ sustained~~; and~~. All damages recovered by a minor under this section shall be paid either to ~~such~~ the minor or to his parent, guardian, or next friend, as the court directs~~; and~~ . All suits for damages under this section shall be by civil action in any court of this state having jurisdiction ~~thereof~~. Actions for damages based upon liability imposed by this section shall be governed by section 604.01. The provisions of section 604.01, as applied under this section, ~~however shall~~ do not ~~be applicable~~ apply to actions for injury to person, property, or loss of means of support brought by a husband, wife, child, parent, guardian or other dependent of an intoxicated person. ~~No recovery shall be had in any action or actions pursuant to this section in excess of $250,000 for all damages to one person and $500,000 for all damages to two or more persons arising out of a single instance of the illegal sale or barter of intoxicating liquor.~~

Sec. 8. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 340.951, is amended to read:

340.951 [NOTICE OF INJURY.]

Every person who claims damages, and every person or his insurer who claims contribution or indemnity, from any municipality owning and operating a municipal liquor store or from the licensee of any licensed liquor establishment for or on account of any injury within the scope of section 340.95, shall give a written notice to the governing body of the municipality or the licensee of the liquor establishment, as the case may be, stating:

(1) The time and date when, and person to whom ~~such~~ the liquor was sold~~,~~ or bartered~~, or given~~;

(2) The name and address of the person or persons who were injured or whose property was damaged;

(3) The approximate time and date and the place where any injury to person or property occurred. Every municipality or licensee who claims contribution or indemnification from any other licensee or municipality shall give a written notice in the form and manner specified in this section to the other municipality or licensee.

No error or omission in the notice shall void the effect of the notice, if otherwise valid, unless ~~such~~ the error or omission is of a substantially material nature.

In the case of claims for contribution or indemnity this notice shall be served within 120 days after the injury occurs, or within 60 days after receiving written notice of a claim for contribution or indemnity, whichever is applicable, and no action for contribution or indemnity therefor shall be maintained unless ~~such~~ the notice has been given~~, and unless it is commenced within one year after such injury. The time for giving the notice shall not include any period of time next succeeding the occurrence of the injury during which the person injured is incapacitated from giving such notice by reason of the injury sustained~~. In the case of a claim for damages the notice shall be served by the claimant's attorney within 120 days of the date of entering an attorney-client relationship with the person in regard to the claim, and no action for damages shall be maintained unless the notice has been given.

Actual notice of sufficient facts to reasonably put the governing body of the municipality or the licensee of the liquor establishment, as the case may be, or its insurer, on notice of a possible claim, shall be construed to comply with the notice requirements herein.

No action shall be maintained for injury under section 340.95 unless commenced within two years after the injury.''

S.F. No. 1758 and the Conference Committee Report thereon were reported to the Senate.

CONFERENCE COMMITTEE REPORT ON S.F. NO. 1758

A bill for an act relating to crimes; prohibiting conspiracies to violate controlled substances laws; clarifying the crime of escape from jail; prescribing penalties; amending Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 609.485, Subdivision 3; proposing new law coded in Minnesota Statutes 1980, Chapter 152.

March 13, 1982

The Honorable Jack Davies
President of the Senate

The Honorable Harry A. Sieben, Jr.
Speaker of the House of Representatives

We, the undersigned conferees for S.F. No. 1758, report that we have agreed upon the items in dispute and recommend as follows:

That the House recede from its amendments and that S.F. No. 1758 be further amended as follows:

Delete everything after the enacting clause and insert:

"Section 1. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 152.01, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 18. [DRUG PARAPHERNALIA.] "Drug paraphernalia" means all equipment, products, and materials of any kind which are knowingly or intentionally used primarily in (1) manufacturing a controlled substance, (2) injecting, ingesting, inhaling, or otherwise introducing into the human body a controlled substance, (3) testing the strength, effectiveness, or purity of a controlled substance, or (4) enhancing the effect of a controlled substance.

Sec. 2. [152.092] [POSSESSION OF DRUG PARAPHERNALIA PROHIBITED.]

It is unlawful for any person knowingly or intentionally to use or to possess drug paraphernalia. Any violation of this section is a petty misdemeanor.

Sec. 3. [152.093] [MANUFACTURE OR DELIVERY OF DRUG PARAPHERNALIA PROHIBITED.]

It is unlawful for any person knowingly or intentionally to deliver drug paraphernalia or knowingly or intentionally to possess or manufacture drug paraphernalia for delivery. Any violation of this section is a misdemeanor.

Sec. 4. [152.094] [DELIVERY OF DRUG PARAPHERNALIA TO A MINOR PROHIBITED.]

Any person 18 years of age or older who violates section 3 by knowingly or intentionally delivering drug paraphernalia to a person under 18 years of age who is at least three years his junior is guilty of a gross misdemeanor.

Sec. 5. [152.095] [ADVERTISEMENT OF DRUG PARAPHERNALIA PROHIBITED.]

It is unlawful for any person knowingly or intentionally to place in any newspaper, magazine, handbill, or other publication any advertisement or promotion for the sale of drug paraphernalia. A violation of this section is a misdemeanor.

Sec. 6. [152.096] [CONSPIRACIES PROHIBITED.]

Subdivision 1. [PROHIBITED ACTS; PENALTIES.] Any person who conspires to commit any act prohibited by section 152.09, except possession or distribution for no remuneration of a small amount of marijuana as defined in section 152.01, subdivision 16, is guilty of a felony and upon conviction may be imprisoned, fined, or both, up to the maximum amount authorized by law for the act the person conspired to commit.

Subd. 2. [CONVICTION OF CO-CONSPIRATOR NOT REQUIRED.] A person liable under this section may be charged with and convicted of conspiracy although the person or persons with whom he conspired have not been convicted or have been convicted of some other crime based on the same act.

Sec. 7. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 152.19, Subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. The following are subject to forfeiture:

(1) All controlled substances which have been manufactured, distributed, dispensed or acquired in violation of this chapter;

(2) All raw materials, moneys, products and equipment of any kind which are used, or intended for use, in manufacturing, compounding, processing, delivering, importing, or exporting any controlled substance in violation of this chapter;

(3) All property which is used, or intended for use, as a primary container for property described in clauses (1) or (2);

(4) All drug paraphernalia as defined by section 1;

(5) All conveyances, including aircraft, vehicles or vessels, which are used, or intended for use, to transport, or in any manner to facilitate the transportation, for the purpose of sale or receipt of property described in clauses (1) or (2) having a retail value of $100 or more, but:

(a) No conveyance used by any person as a common carrier in the transaction of business as a common carrier is subject to forfeiture under this section unless the owner or other person in charge of the conveyance is a consenting party or privy to a violation of this chapter.

(b) No conveyance is subject to forfeiture under this section unless the owner thereof is privy to a violation of this chapter, or that the use of the conveyance in such violation otherwise occurred with his knowledge or consent.

(c) A forfeiture of a conveyance encumbered by a bona fide security interest is subject to the interest of the secured party unless he had knowledge of or consented to the act or omission upon which the forfeiture is based.

(d) All books, records, and research products and materials, including formulas, microfilm, tapes, and data which are used, or intended for use, in violation of this chapter.

Sec. 8. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 152.19, Subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. In the event of a conviction for a gross misdemeanor or a misdemeanor, any conveyance seized pursuant to subdivision 1, clause ~~(4)~~ (5) of this section or any moneys seized pursuant to subdivision 1, clause (2) of this section, shall be returned to the person legally entitled thereto.

Sec. 9. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 152.19, Subdivision 5, is amended to read:

Subd. 5. Property shall be forfeited after a conviction deemed to be a felony according to the following procedure:

(1) A separate complaint shall be filed against the property describing it, charging its use in the specified violation, and specifying the time and place of its unlawful use.

(2) If the person arrested is acquitted, the court shall dismiss the complaint against any property seized pursuant to the preceding subdivisions and order the property returned to the persons legally entitled to it.

(3) If after conviction the court finds that the property, or any part thereof, was used in any violation as specified in the complaint, it shall order that the property unlawfully used be sold, destroyed, or disposed of by the appropriate state agency in the following manner:

(a) The appropriate agency may retain the property for official use but shall not use any motor vehicle required to be registered pursuant to chapter 168A until title is properly transferred pursuant to chapter 168A;

(b) Sell that which is not required to be destroyed by law and which is not harmful to the public;

~~(b)~~ (c) Require the commissioner of administration to take custody of the property and remove it for disposition in accordance with law; or

~~(c)~~ (d) Forward it to the federal ~~bureau of narcotics and dangerous drugs~~ drug enforcement administration.

Any property retained pursuant to clause (3)(a) of this subdivision shall be used only in the performance of official duties of the appropriate agency, and shall not be used for any other purpose. All proceeds from property retained under clause (3)(a) of this subdivision which is later sold shall be disbursed as provided in clause (4) of this subdivision.

(4) Proceeds from the sale of forfeited property, after payment of seizure, storage, and sale expenses and satisfaction of valid liens against the property, shall be forwarded to the state drug abuse authority for distribution of half of the net proceeds among licensed hospitals and licensed drug treatment facilities of this state for the care and treatment of patients with drug related physical and psychological disorders, and licensed drug analysis centers. The remaining half of net proceeds shall be returned to the appropriate state agency.

Sec. 10. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 609.485, Subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [EXCEPTIONS.] This section does not apply to a person who is free on bail or who is on parole or probation, or subject to a stayed sentence or stayed execution of sentence, unless he (1) has been taken into actual custody upon revocation of the parole, probation, or stay of the sentence or execution of sentence, or (2) is in custody in a county jail or workhouse as a condition of a stayed sentence.

Sec. 11. [LOCAL REGULATIONS.]

Sections 1 to 5, 7, and 8 do not pre-empt enforcement or preclude adoption of municipal or county ordinances prohibiting or otherwise regulating the manufacture, delivery, possession or advertisement of drug paraphernalia.''

Delete the title and insert:

''A bill for an act relating to crimes; prohibiting conspiracies to violate controlled substances laws; allowing use of forfeited property; prohibiting the manufacture, delivery, possession, or advertising of drug paraphernalia; providing for civil forfeiture of drug paraphernalia; clarifying the crime of escape from jail; prescribing penalties; amending Minnesota Statutes 1980, Sections 152.01, by adding a subdivision; 152.19, Subdivisions 1, 3, and 5; and 609.485, Subdivision 3; proposing new law coded in Chapter 152.''

We request adoption of this report and repassage of the bill.

CONFERENCE COMMITTEE REPORT ON S.F. NO. 2000

A bill for an act relating to the city of Brooklyn Center; authorizing the Brooklyn Center housing and redevelopment authority to carry out a housing interest buy-down program.

March 13, 1982

The Honorable Jack Davies
President of the Senate

The Honorable Harry A. Sieben, Jr.
Speaker of the House of Representatives

We, the undersigned conferees for S.F. No. 2000, report that we have agreed upon the items in dispute and recommend as follows:

That the House recede from its amendment and that S.F. No. 2000 be further amended as follows:

Delete everything after the enacting clause and insert:

"Section 1. [CITY OF BROOKLYN CENTER; HOUSING INTEREST ASSISTANCE PROGRAM; FINDINGS AND PURPOSE.]

The legislature of the state of Minnesota finds that preservation of the quality of life in a metropolitan city is dependent upon the maintenance, provision, and preservation of an adequate housing stock; that accomplishing this is a public purpose; that there are housing units in the city of Brooklyn Center that do not meet the applicable housing codes, some of which need to be destroyed, and some of which can be rehabilitated; that there are vacant lots upon which new housing units can be constructed; that a need exists to construct new housing on vacant lots and to replace housing which is destroyed; that a need exists for mortgage credit to be made available at reasonable interest rates for new construction; that many owners, would-be purchasers or providers of housing units are unable to afford mortgage credit at market rates of interest; and that subsidizing interest rates can be an effective means of achieving the above-stated purposes.

Sec. 2. [AUTHORIZATION FOR HOUSING INTEREST BUY-DOWN PROGRAM.]

Subdivision 1. The Brooklyn Center housing and redevelopment authority may develop and administer an interest buy-down program to assist with the financing of housing, located anywhere within the boundaries of the city of Brooklyn Center, for occupancy primarily by persons of low or moderate income to achieve the purposes set forth in section 1. In developing the program the authority shall consider:

(a) the availability and affordability of other governmental programs;

(b) the availability and affordability of private market financing;

(c) the need for more affordable mortgage credit to encourage the construction and enable the purchase of housing units within the city of Brooklyn Center.

Subd. 2. In establishing and operating a housing interest buy-down program the authority may use or pledge to use any revenue of the authority to:

(a) pay any of the interest due on loans made pursuant to Minnesota Statutes, Chapter 462C, to purchasers of housing units;

(b) pay any of the interest due on bonds issued pursuant to Minnesota Statutes, Chapter 462C, the proceeds of which are used primarily to provide loans to the purchasers of housing units; and

(c) pay any of the interest due on loans made by any person to the purchasers of housing units in the city of Brooklyn Center, but the purchaser must intend to occupy the housing unit as a principal place of residence at the time the loan is made.

Subd. 3. The authority shall promulgate regulations for the housing interest buy-down program.

Sec. 3. [LIMITATIONS.]

Housing interest buy-down shall not be provided when the authority determines that financing for the purchase of a housing unit is otherwise available from private lenders upon terms and conditions which are affordable by the applicant, as provided by the authority in it regulations.

At least 80 percent of the aggregate dollar amount of funds appropriated by an authority within any calendar year to provide interest reduction assistance for financing of construction, rehabilitation or purchase of single family housing, as that term is defined in section 462C.02, subdivision 4, when the financing is provided pursuant to chapter 462C, shall be appropriated for housing units which are to be sold or occupied by families or individuals with an adjusted gross income which is equal to or less than 110 percent of median family income. At least 80 percent of the aggregate dollar amount of funds appropriated by an authority within any calendar year to provide interest reduction assistance for financing of construction, rehabilitation or purchase of single family housing as that term is defined in section 462C.02, when the financing is not provided pursuant to chapter 462C, shall be appropriated for housing units which are to be sold or occupied by families or individuals with an adjusted gross income which is equal to or less than 110 percent of median family income. For the purposes of this subdivision, "median family income" means the median family income established by the United States department of housing and urban development for the non-metropolitan county or the standard metropolitan statistical area, as the case may be. The adjusted gross income may be adjusted by the authority for family size.

Sec. 4. [APPLICATION OF OTHER LAW.]

The city of Brooklyn Center may establish an interest buy-down program either under the provisions of sections 1 to 3 or the provisions of Minnesota Statutes, Chapter 462.

Sec. 5. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 273.75, Subdivision 4, is amended to read:

Subd. 4. [LIMITATION ON USE OF TAX INCREMENT.] All revenues derived from tax increment shall be used in accordance with the tax increment financing plan. The revenues shall be used solely for the following purposes: (a) to pay the principal of and interest on bonds issued to finance a project; (b) by a rural development financing authority for the purposes stated in section 362A.01, subdivision 2, by a port authority or municipality exercising the powers of a port authority to finance or otherwise pay the cost of redevelopment pursuant to chapter 458, by a housing and redevelopment authority to finance or otherwise pay public redevelopment costs pursuant to chapter 462, by a municipality to finance or otherwise pay the capital and administration costs of a development district pursuant to chapter 472A, by a municipality or redevelopment agency to finance or otherwise pay premiums for insurance or other security guaranteeing the payment ~~of net rentals~~ when due ~~under the project lease~~ of principal of and interest on the bonds pursuant to chapters 462C, 474, or both chapters, or to accumulate and maintain a reserve securing the payment when due of the principal of and interest on the bonds pursuant to ~~chapter~~ chapters 462C, 474, or both chapters, which revenues in the reserve shall not exceed, subsequent to the fifth anniversary of the date of issue of the first bond issue secured by the reserve, an amount equal to 20 percent of the aggregate principal amount of the outstanding and nondefeased bonds secured by the reserve. These revenues shall not be used to circumvent existing levy limit law.

Sec. 6. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 462.445 is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 11a. [INTEREST REDUCTION PROGRAM, LIMITATIONS.] An authority may provide interest reduction assistance for a rental housing development which is located in a targeted area as defined in section 462C.02 without regard to the limitations imposed upon assisted housing units by subdivision 11.

Sec. 7. [BROOKLYN CENTER HOME ENERGY CONSERVATION PROGRAM.]

Subdivision 1. The city of Brooklyn Center may establish a home energy conservation improvement program to provide means for the cit, to aid all residents of the city to maintain their home energy requirements by reducing overall energy demand, thus tending to assure the continuance of essential public, industrial, and commercial activities. The expenditures of public funds authorized by this section are determined to be necessary governmental actions, particularly under present conditions of uncertain and limited energy supplies, increasing costs for gas and oil, and difficulty and delay in the increase of energy supplies from all sources due to environmental concerns.

Provisions for the operation and financing of the program shall be made by and pursuant to resolutions adopted by the city council. The powers granted by this section are supplemental, and the procedures authorized for exercising them are alternative to those provided in other law.

Subd. 2. "Residential energy conservation improvement" means the following devices, methods, and materials, if recommended by an approved energy audit and having a maximum cost of $3,000, which increase the efficiency of residential use of energy:

(1) Insulation and ventilation;

(2) Storm or thermal doors or windows;

(3) Caulking and weatherstripping;

(4) Furnace efficiency modifications and replacements;

(5) Thermostat or lighting controls; and

(6) Systems to turn off or vary the delivery of energy.

The term "residential energy conservation improvement" does not include any device or method which creates, converts, or actively uses energy from renewable sources such as solar, wind, or biomass.

Subd. 3. To provide for home energy conservation improvements, when requested by the owner of a one to four unit residential building, the city may develop a program which allows:

(a) The city to negotiate and contract with contractors to perform work or furnish materials or both, for one or more projects, in accordance with schedules coordinated and approved by the city;

(b) The homeowner, subject to the approval of the city, to negotiate and contract with contractors to perform work or furnish materials or both, for one or more projects, in accordance with schedules coordinated and approved by the city; or

(c) The city to contract with a homeowner for labor or materials or both, provided that in such cases the city may inspect the work performed and shall not pay the homeowner for his labor.

Subd. 4. [PAYMENTS.] (a) The city may contract with each homeowner for payment of the cost in cash upon completion of the project, with payment secured by deposit in advance of an amount equal to at least 90 percent of the contract price, or by a written commitment by a bank or other approved financial institution to loan the full amount of the contract price to the homeowner. The homeowner, the financial institution and the city, may agree to any convenient method of repayment.

(b) The city may accept payment by a promissory note in a principal amount equal to the contract price, repayable in equal periodic installments, including both principal and interest on the declining principal balance. Provisions may be agreed upon to permit or restrict prepayment.

(c) The city may specially assess the benefited property in the manner provided in Minnesota Statutes, Chapter 429.

Debts for improvements are a first and prior lien on the property improved as provided in Minnesota Statutes, Section 514.67. If not paid when due they shall be entered upon the tax rolls and collected with and as a part of the taxes on the property, with the same interest and penalties.

Subd. 5. In addition to revenue obtained pursuant to any other law, the city may sell revenue bonds on or obligations pursuant to Minnesota Statutes, Chapter 462C to finance the home energy conservation improvement program authorized by this section.

Subd. 6. This section is effective upon approval by the governing body of the city of Brooklyn Center and upon compliance with Minnesota Statutes, Section 645.021, Subdivision 3.

Sec. 8. Laws 1965, Chapter 855, Section 4, Subdivision 1, as amended by Laws 1980, Chapter 573, Section 4, is amended to read:

Sec. 4. [DUTIES OF THE PERSONNEL BOARD.]

Subdivision 1. [BOARD PROCEEDINGS.] When any member of the board is not present at the time a matter is submitted to the board such matter shall be deemed submitted to each member of the board with like effect as though each member of the board had been present at the time of submission of such matter. Whenever during the consideration of a matter which is before the board, there is a change in the personnel of the board, the matter shall be deemed submitted to the new member, or members, as though said new member, or members, had been a member of the board at the time of the submission of the matter.

No meetings of the board shall be held unless at least ~~three~~ four members are present. A majority vote of all members shall constitute the decision of the board. The board shall keep records and minutes of its business and official actions which shall be open to public inspection subject to such reasonable rules as to time and place of inspection as the board may establish.

Sec. 9. Laws 1965, Chapter 855, Section 7, Subdivision 3, as amended by Laws 1980, Chapter 573, Section 7, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [UNCLASSIFIED SERVICE, COMPENSATION.] The director shall establish a compensation plan in accordance with section 6, clause (e) for those employees in the unclassified service identified in subdivision 2, clauses (c), (d), (f), (h), (i), (j), (k), (l), (m), (n), (o), (r) and (s).

Sec. 10. Laws 1965, Chapter 855, Section 7, Subdivision 4, as amended by Laws 1980, Chapter 573, Section 7, is amended to read:

Subd. 4. [UNCLASSIFIED SERVICE, TENURE, BENEFITS.] The positions in the unclassified service enumerated in subdivision 2, clauses (c), (d), (h), (i), (j), (k), (l), (m), (n), (o), (q), (r) and (s) shall not have permanent tenure but shall have all other benefits provided for in this act. The term of office of any position established by another statute shall be as provided in it.

Sec. 11. Laws 1979, Chapter 55, Section 1, is amended to read:

Section 1. [COUNTY BOARD; SELF INSURANCE.]

Notwithstanding any contrary provision of other law, the board of commissioners of Hennepin county may insure the county against any claim of liability or loss using funds of the county, without procuring insurance from any private insurance company when the county board considers it to be in the best interests of the county. This provision shall not be construed as an increase of the liability limitations or as a waiver of defenses allowable in any action pursuant to Minnesota Statutes, Chapter 466. The board may transfer amounts of money from funds of the county to the funds the county may establish for the above purposes in accord with generally accepted accounting principles. The term "liability" shall extend to all liability or loss that may be covered by any form of insurance, including but not limited to malpractice, general liability, or workers' compensation. ~~This act shall not authorize self insurance against risks as defined in Minnesota Statutes, Section 60A.06, Subdivision 1, Clauses (4) and (5)(a).~~ Minnesota Statutes, Section 471.617 applies to Hennepin County.

Sec. 12. Laws 1979, Chapter 198, Article II, Section 7, Subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Sec. 7. [CERTIFICATES OF INDEBTEDNESS.]

Subdivision 1. [TAX ANTICIPATION CERTIFICATES.] At any time after the first day of the year following the making of an annual tax levy, the county board may, by resolution and without public referendum, issue certificates of indebtedness in anticipation of the collection of taxes levied for any fund and not yet collected. The total of all certificates issued against any fund for any year with interest thereon until maturity, together with all orders outstanding against the fund, shall not exceed the total current taxes for the fund uncollected at the time of issuance plus the cash currently in the fund. If certificates are issued against the anticipated tax levy for any fund, any unpaid orders outstanding against the fund shall be redeemed from the proceeds of the certificates. All tax anticipation certificates shall be negotiable and shall be payable to the order of the payee and shall have a definite due date but may be payable on or before that date. No certificate shall be issued to become due and payable later than the first day of April of the year following the year of issuance. Certificates shall be sold for not less than par and accrued interest and shall bear interest at a rate ~~not to exceed seven percent per annum~~ that conforms to Minnesota Statutes, Section 475.55, payable at maturity or at such earlier times as the board may determine. Each certificate shall state upon its face the fund for which the proceeds of the certificate shall be used, the total amount of the certificates so issued against the fund and the total amount embraced in the tax levy for that fund. They shall otherwise be issued on terms and conditions as the board may determine. The proceeds of the taxes assessed on account of the fund against which tax anticipation certificates are issued and the full faith and credit of the county shall be irrevocably pledged for the redemption of the certificate in the order of issuance against the fund.

Sec. 13. Laws 1979, Chapter 198, Article II, Section 7, Subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [EQUIPMENT ACQUISITION; CAPITAL NOTES.] The board may, by resolution and without public referendum, issue ~~certificates of indebtedness~~ capital notes within existing debt limits for the purpose of purchasing ambulance and other medical equipment, road construction or maintenance equipment, public safety equipment and other capital equipment having an expected useful life at least equal to the term of the ~~certificates~~ notes issued. The ~~certificates~~ notes shall be payable in not more than five years and shall be issued on terms and in a manner as the board determines. The total principal amount of the ~~certificates of indebtedness~~ notes issued for any fiscal year shall not exceed one percent of the total annual budget for that year and shall be issued solely for the purchases authorized in this subdivision. A tax levy shall be made for the payment of the principal and interest on such ~~certificates~~ notes as in the case of bonds.

Sec. 14. [COMMISSIONERS COMPENSATION.]

No per diem payment shall be allowed county board members for service on the county board or any other county body. County board members shall pay for parking in county owned parking facilities where payment is required. County board members may be allowed mileage for use of their personal automobile at a rate per mile.

The Hennepin county board may set the salary of board members by resolution limited to that subject. Adjustments in commissioners' salaries shall be adopted by the county board by resolution prior to a general election to take effect January 1 of the succeeding year.

Sec. 15. [REGIONAL RECREATIONAL OPEN SPACE.]

The housing outparcel on Nicollet Island referred to by Laws 1981, Chapter 304, Section 2, is more particularly described as follows:

A parcel bounded on the north by Hennepin Avenue, on the south by Merriam Street, on the west by Wilder Street, and on the east by East Island Avenue, as said streets are presently located;

Together with a parcel bounded on the north by the Burlington Northern Railroad right-of-way, on the south by Hennepin Avenue, on the east by East Island Avenue, and on the west by West Island Avenue;

Together with a parcel bounded on the north by Maple Place, on the south by the Burlington Northern Railroad right-of-way, on the east by Nicollet Street, and on the west by West Island Avenue;

Together with lots 6 and 7, and lots 10 to 16, inclusive, block 3, Nicollet Island.

Sec. 16. [EFFECTIVE DATE.]

Sections 1 to 4 are effective the day after compliance by the governing body of the city of Brooklyn Center with Minnesota Statutes, Section 645.021, Subdivision 3. Sections 5 and 6 are effective the day following final enactment. Sections 8 to 14 are effective the day after compliance with Minnesota Statutes, Section 645.021, Subdivision 3, by the Hennepin County board. Section 15 is effective in the counties of Anoka, Carver, Dakota, Hennepin, Ramsey, Scott and Washington the day after final enactment.''

Delete the title and insert:

Mr. President:

I have the honor to announce that the House has adopted the recommendation and report of the Conference Committee on House File No. 1902, and repassed said bill in accordance with the report of the Committee, so adopted.

House File No. 1902 is herewith transmitted to the Senate.

Edward A. Burdick, Chief Clerk, House of Representatives

Transmitted March 13, 1982

CONFERENCE COMMITTEE REPORT ON H.F. NO. 1902

A bill for an act relating to Ramsey County; permitting the county to establish a small business set-aside program.

March 13, 1982

The Honorable Harry A. Sieben, Jr.
Speaker of the House of Representatives

The Honorable Jack Davies
President of the Senate

We, the undersigned conferees for H.F. No. 1902, report that we have agreed upon the items in dispute and recommend as follows:

That the Senate recede from its amendments and that H.F. No. 1902 be further amended as follows:

Delete everything after the enacting clause and insert:

"Section 1. [DEFINITIONS.]

Subdivision 1. For purposes of this section, the following terms have the meanings given them, unless the language or context clearly indicates that a different meaning is intended.

Subd. 2. "Small business" means a business entity organized for profit, including an individual, partnership, corporation, joint venture, association or cooperative which has its principal place of business in Minnesota, and which

(a) Is not dominant in its field of operation, and

(b) Is not an affiliate or subsidiary of a business dominant in its field of operations.

If a federal or state program prohibits any geographical limitation on the principal place of business of an eligible business in order for the county to be eligible for funds, the federal or state requirement shall prevail.

Subd. 3. "Dominant in its field of operation" means exercising a controlling or major influence in a business activity in which a number of businesses are engaged. In determining whether a business is dominant, the following criteria, among others, shall be considered: number of employees; volume of business; financial resources; competitive status or position; ownership or control of materials, processes, patents, license agreements and facilities; sales territory; and nature of business activity. The following businesses shall be deemed dominant in their field of operation:

(a) Manufacturing businesses which employ more than 100 persons and have in the preceding three fiscal years exceeded a total of $15,000,000 in gross receipts for the three year period;

(b) General construction businesses which in the preceding three fiscal years have exceeded a total of $6,000,000 in gross receipts for the three year period;

(c) Specialty construction businesses which in the preceding three fiscal years have exceeded a total of $3,000,000 in gross receipts for the three year period; and

(d) Nonmanufacturing businesses which employ more than 25 persons and have in the preceding three fiscal years exceeded a total of $3,000,000 in gross receipts for the three year period.

Subd. 4. "Affiliate or subsidiary of a business dominant in its field of operation" means a business which is at least 20 percent owned by a business dominant in that field of operation, or by partners, officers, directors, majority stockholders, or their equivalent, of a business dominant in that field of operation.

Sec. 2. [SMALL BUSINESS SET-ASIDE.]

Nothing in Minnesota Statutes, Section 471.345 shall be construed to prohibit Ramsey County from adopting a resolution, rule, regulation or ordinance which on an annual basis sets aside for awarding to small businesses a percentage of the value of the county's anticipated total procurement of goods and services, including construction, otherwise subject to that section, and which uses either a negotiated price or bid contract procedure to award a procurement contract under a set-aside program allowed in this section. Any award based on a negotiated price shall not exceed by more than five percent the county's estimated price for the goods and services if they were purchased in the open market and not under the set-aside program.

Sec. 3. Minnesota Statutes 1981 Supplement, Section 488A.34, Subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [PROCEDURE FOR REMOVAL OF CAUSE.] No cause shall be so removed unless all the following acts are performed by the aggrieved party within 20 days after the date the administrator mailed to him notice of the order for judgment:

(a) Serve on the opposing party or his attorney a demand for removal of the cause to the municipal court for trial de novo stating whether trial by a jury of six persons or by the court without a jury is demanded. Service shall be made upon a party in accordance with the provisions for personal service of a summons in the municipal court or shall be made upon the party's attorney in accordance with the provisions for service of a notice of motion upon an attorney in the municipal court. The demand shall show the office address of the attorney for each party and the residence address of each party who does not have an attorney.

(b) File with the administrator of conciliation court the original demand for removal and proof of service thereof. If the opposing party or his attorney cannot be found and service of the demand be made within the 20 day period, the aggrieved party may file with the administrator within the 20 day period the original and a copy of the demand, together with an affidavit by himself or his attorney showing that due and diligent search has been made and that the opposing party or his attorney cannot be found and the filing of this affidavit shall serve in lieu of making service and filing proof of service. When such an affidavit is filed, the administrator shall mail the copy of the demand to the opposing party at his last known address.

(c) File with the administrator of conciliation court an affidavit by the aggrieved party or his attorney stating that the removal is made in good faith and not for the purpose of delay.

(d) Pay to the administrator of conciliation court the fee set by the board of Ramsey County commissioners when the demand is for trial by court, ~~plus $6 additional~~ and the fee as set by the Ramsey County commissioners when the demand is for trial by a jury of six. The above fee is not payable by the county.

Sec. 4. [RAMSEY COUNTY MEDICAL FACILITY WATER SYSTEM.]

Subdivision 1. Ramsey County may issue and sell from time to time general obligation bonds of the county in an aggregate principal amount not to exceed $5,000,000 to finance the construction, installation, modification or improvement of heating, cooling and domestic hot water systems serving buildings owned in whole or part, operated or maintained by the county or the Ramsey County medical center commission. The county shall pledge its full faith and credit and taxing powers for the payment of the bonds. Except as provided in this section, the bonds shall be issued in accordance with Minnesota Statutes, Chapter 475. The bonds may be issued and sold without submitting the question of the issuance of the bonds to a vote by the people. The bonds shall be in a form and bear interest at the rate that the county prescribes and shall be sold by the county to the bidder with the most favorable bid, after notice of the time and place for the receiving of the bids has been published according to law. The bonds shall not be included in computing the net debt of the county under any law, and the taxes required for payment of the bonds and interest on them shall not be subject to any limitation provided by other law.

Subd. 2. In substitution of, but not in addition to, powers granted to Ramsey County in subdivision 1, Ramsey County may levy and collect a tax, not to exceed the lesser of $5,000,000 or two mills, upon all taxable property in Ramsey County to finance the construction, installation, modification or improvement of heating, cooling and domestic hot water systems serving buildings owned in whole or part, operated or maintained by the county or Ramsey County medical center commission. A levy made pursuant to this subdivison shall not be subject to any limitation provided by other law.

Subd. 3. The bonds described in subdivision 1 may not be issued and the tax described in subdivision 2 may not be levied until construction is commenced on a district heating system in St. Paul which is designed for heating or cooling or domestic hot water service to one or more buildings owned in whole or part, operated or maintained by the county or the Ramsey county medical center commission.

Sec. 5. [EFFECTIVE DATE.]

Sections 1, 2, and 4 are effective the day after compliance with Minnesota Statutes, Section 645.021, Subdivision 3, by the governing body of Ramsey County.

Sec. 6. [MAPLEWOOD; PROJECT; BONDS.]

Subdivision 1. Notwithstanding Minnesota Statutes, Section 474.02, Subdivision 1b, the city of Maplewood may undertake a project consisting of properties, real or personal, used or useful, in connection with a revenue producing enterprise comprising a hotel or motel and may issue revenue bonds of the city to finance the project pursuant to Minnesota Statutes, Chapter 474, in an aggregate principal amount not to exceed $10,000,000.

Subd. 2. This section is effective on the day after compliance with Minnesota Statutes, Section 645.021, Subdivision 3, by the governing body of the city of Maplewood."

CONFERENCE COMMITTEE REPORT ON S.F. NO. 536

A bill for an act relating to local government; providing for the board membership and powers of the Moose Lake and Windemere area sanitary sewer district; amending Laws 1974, Chapter 400, Section 3, Subdivision 12, as amended; and Section 4, Subdivision 2, as amended; repealing Laws 1974, Chapter 400, Section 8, Subdivision 5, as amended.

March 13, 1982

The Honorable Jack Davies
President of the Senate

The Honorable Harry A. Sieben, Jr.
Speaker of the House of Representatives

We, the undersigned conferees for S.F. No. 536, report that we have agreed upon the items in dispute and recommend as follows:

That the Senate accede to the House amendments and that S.F. No. 536, as it appears in the House unofficial engrossment (UESF0536), be further amended as follows:

Page 4, lines 15 to 17, reinstate the stricken language

"Sec. 8. [LAKE WILSON LEVY LIMIT.]

Subdivision 1. The city of Lake Wilson may in the fiscal year ending June 30, 1983, exceed the levy limits provided by Minnesota Statutes, Chapter 275, by a maximum of $15,000.

Subd. 2. This section is effective the day after compliance with Minnesota Statutes, Section 645.021, Subdivision 3, by the governing body of the city of Lake Wilson.

Sec. 9. [CARVER COUNTY; ELECTRONIC FUNDS TRANSFERS.]

Subdivision 1. Carver County may make electronic funds transfers in the same way as a school district in accordance with the conditions of Minnesota Statutes, Section 471.38, Subdivision 3. The county board may discharge the duties of the school board under that subdivision.

Subd. 2. This section is effective the day after compliance with Minnesota Statutes, Section 645.021, Subdivision 3, by the governing body of Carver County.

Sec. 10. [CITY OF FINLAYSON; INTERPRETATION OF FIRE CODE PROVISION.]

Other law to the contrary notwithstanding, the city of Finlayson may make reasonable interpretations regarding the application of any rule or amendment to the uniform fire code which affects the location of dwelling units or sleeping facilities near service stations.

Sec. 11. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 238.02, Subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. "Cable communications system" ~~shall mean any~~ means a system which operates for hire the service of receiving and amplifying programs broadcast by one or more television or radio stations and ~~any~~ other programs originated by a cable communications company or by another party, and distributing ~~such~~ the programs by wire, cable, microwave or other means, whether ~~such~~ the means are owned or leased, to persons who subscribe to ~~such~~ the service. ~~Such~~ The definition does not include:

(a) ~~any~~ a system which serves fewer than 50 subscribers or a system which serves more than 50 but fewer than 1,000 subscribers if the governing bodies of all political subdivisions served by the system, vote, by resolution, to remove the system from the provisions of chapter 238. Any system which serves more than 50 but fewer than 1,000 subscribers that has been removed from the provisions of chapter 238 shall be returned to the provisions of chapter 238 if the governing bodies of fifty percent or more of the political subdivisions served by the system vote, by resolution in favor of the return;

(b) ~~any~~ a master antenna television system;

(c) ~~any~~ a specialized closed-circuit system which does not use the public rights-of-way for the construction of its physical plant; and

(d) ~~any~~ a translator system which receives and rebroadcasts over-the-air signals.

Sec. 12. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 238.03, is amended to read:

238.03 [APPLICATION.]

~~The provisions of~~ Sections 238.01 to 238.17 ~~shall~~ apply to every cable communications system and every cable communications company as defined in section 238.02, operating within the state, including a cable communications company which constructs, operates and maintains a cable communications system in whole or in part through the facilities of a person franchised to offer common or contract carrier services. Persons possessing ~~franchises~~ franchises for any of the purposes ~~contemplated by the provisions~~ of sections 238.01 to 238.17 ~~shall be deemed to be~~ are subject to ~~the provisions of~~ sections 238.01 to 238.17 although no property ~~may have~~ has been acquired, business transacted or franchises exercised.

Sec. 13. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 238.05, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 18. The board shall adopt rules to ensure that all cable communications systems as defined in section 238.02, subdivision 3, and all systems which would meet that definition but for the number of subscribers served, provide adequate access for educational and governmental programming. In adopting the rules, the board shall give consideration to both the needs of the community and the capability of the system.

Sec. 14. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 238.06, Subdivision 6, is amended to read:

Subd. 6. The board may require from ~~any~~ a cable communications system granted a certificate of confirmation information and supporting documentation in the form ~~and at the times~~ the board ~~may deem~~ deems appropriate on an annual basis, or on sale, transfer or other major activity within a cable communications company. The board shall not release economic data of the cable communications company, including operating revenues and profitability, to the general public or to other cable communication companies except in furtherance of specific duties or obligations of the board.

Sec. 15. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 238.09, Subdivision 6, is amended to read:

Subd. 6. Except as provided in subdivision 3, ~~every~~ a cable communications company shall ~~be required to~~ secure a certificate of confirmation from the board before becoming operational. Except as provided in subdivisions 3, 4, 5 and 9, ~~such~~ the certificate may be granted after full board proceedings and shall be for ~~a period of ten years~~ the same number of years as the initial franchise period. A renewal certificate of confirmation may be issued prior to the expiration of ~~any~~ an existing certificate.

Sec. 16. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 238.09, Subdivision 7, is amended to read:

Subd. 7. ~~Any~~ A renewal of a certificate of confirmation shall be for ~~a period of ten years~~ the same number of years as the renewal franchise period. A renewal certificate of confirmation may be issued prior to the expiration of ~~any~~ an existing certificate.

Sec. 17. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 238.11, Subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. No cable communications company may prohibit or limit ~~any~~ a program or class or type of program presented over a leased channel or ~~any~~ a channel made available for public access, governmental or educational purposes. The cable communications company is not liable for programming content.

Sec. 18. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 238.12, Subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. ~~Except as otherwise provided in this section,~~ The rates charged by a cable communications company ~~shall be those specified in the franchise, which may establish, or provide for the establishment of reasonable classifications of service and categories of subscribers, or specify different rates for differing services or for subscribers in different categories~~ may be established in the franchise by the municipality.

Sec. 19. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 238.12, Subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. ~~Such rates may not be changed except as provided for in the approved franchise~~ Procedures for rate changes may be established in the approved franchise by the municipality.

Sec. 20. [HUMAN RIGHTS; APPROPRIATIONS.]

The commissioner of human rights shall coordinate the provision of human rights services in the city of Duluth with other state agencies. The commissioner shall provide the services, including at least one employee at the Duluth location, in a cost-effective manner during the biennium ending June 30, 1983.

For purposes of this section, there is appropriated from the general fund to the commissioner of human rights the sum of $20,000 to be made available until June 30, 1983.

Sec. 21. [REPEALER.]

Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 35.695, is repealed.''

March 13, 1982

The Honorable Harry A. Sieben, Jr.
Speaker of the House of Representatives

The Honorable Jack Davies
President of the Senate

We, the undersigned conferees for H.F. No. 1817, report that we have agreed upon the items in dispute and recommend as follows:

That the Senate recede from its amendments and that H.F. 1817 be further amended as follows:

Delete everything after the enacting clause and insert:

"Section 1. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 160.283, Subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. For the purposes of sections 160.283 to 160.285 the term "resort" shall be as defined in Minnesota Statutes 1969, Section 157.01 or a golf course.

Sec. 2. [161.115] [TRUNK HIGHWAY SYSTEM; NEW ROUTE IN SUBSTITUTION OF EXISTING ROUTE.]

Subdivision 1. [ADDITIONAL ROUTE.] There is added to the trunk highway system a new route described as follows:

Route No. 129. Beginning at a point on Route No. 3 at or near St. Cloud, thence extending in a southeasterly direction to a point on Route No. 212 as herein established; affording St. Cloud, Clearwater, and Monticello, a reasonable means of communication each with the other and other places within the state.

Subd. 2. [SUBSTITUTION.] The route established in subdivision 1 is substituted for trunk highway route numbered 129 as contained and described in Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 161.115. Route numbered 129 as contained and described in that section is discontinued and removed from the trunk highway system.

Subd. 3. [DIRECTION TO REVISOR.] The revisor of statutes, in compiling the next and subsequent editions of the Minnesota Statutes, shall substitute the route established in subdivision 1 for the route discontinued and removed from the trunk highway system in subdivision 2.

Sec. 3. [161.115] [TRUNK HIGHWAY SYSTEM; REMOVAL OF ROUTE NO. 278.]

Route No. 278 as described in Minnesota Statutes 1981 Supplement, Section 161.115, is discontinued and removed from the trunk highway system. The revisor of statutes, in compiling the next and subsequent editions of Minnesota Statutes shall delete Route No. 278.

Sec. 4. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 161.41, is amended to read:

161.41 [SURPLUS PROPERTY NOT NEEDED FOR TRUNK HIGHWAY PURPOSES.]

Subdivision 1. [COMMISSIONER MAY DECLARE SURPLUS.] The commissioner is authorized to declare as surplus any property acquired by the state for highway purposes, excluding real estate, which ~~he~~ the commissioner determines ~~by order~~ to be no longer needed or necessary for state highway purposes.

Subd. 2. [DETERMINATION OF VALUE OF SURPLUS PROPERTY AND ~~TRANSFERENCE~~ DISPOSITION.] ~~The order shall direct that~~ The commissioner shall administer all aspects of the disposition of property declared to be surplus under this section. The commissioner shall first determine the value of the surplus property ~~shall be determined, subject to the approval of the commissioner, by the district engineer in whose district the property is located, and shall authorize the district engineer to~~. The commissioner may then transfer the possession of the surplus property to any state agency~~,~~ or political subdivision of ~~government~~ this state or to the United States government upon receipt of payment ~~therefor~~ in ~~the~~ an amount ~~so determined~~ equal to the value of the surplus property.

The commissioner may also sell the surplus property under the competitive bidding provisions of chapter 16 if no state agency or political subdivision of this state offers to purchase the surplus property for its determined value.

Subd. 3. [MONEY RECEIVED TO BE CREDITED TO TRUNK HIGHWAY FUND.] The commissioner shall deposit all money received under this section ~~shall be deposited by the district engineer~~ with the state treasurer ~~and~~ to be credited to the trunk highway fund.

Sec. 5. Minnesota Statutes, 1981 Supplement, Section 161.465, is amended to read:

161.465 [REIMBURSEMENT FOR FIRE SERVICES.]

Ordinary expenses incurred by a municipal or volunteer fire department in extinguishing a fire ~~or easing or eliminating the danger of fire or explosion within the right-of-way of any state trunk highway, or~~ outside the right-of-way of any trunk highway if the fire originated within the right-of-way, upon approval of a police officer or an officer or employee of the department of public safety shall, upon certification to the commissioner of public safety by the proper official of the municipality or fire department within 60 days after the completion of the service, be reimbursed to the municipality or fire department from funds in the trunk highway fund. The commissioner of public safety shall take whatever action practicable to secure reimbursement to the trunk highway fund of moneys expended pursuant to this section from the person, firm or corporation responsible for the fire or danger thereof.

The provisions of this section shall not be construed to admit any state liability for damage or destruction to private property or for injury to persons resulting from a fire that originates within a trunk highway right-of-way.

Sec. 6. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 169.09, Subdivision 13, is amended to read:

Subd. 13. [ACCIDENT REPORTS CONFIDENTIAL.] All written reports and supplemental reports required under this section to be provided to the department of public safety ~~by this section~~ shall be without prejudice to the individual so reporting and shall be for the confidential use of the department of public safety~~, the Minnesota department of transportation,~~ and other appropriate state, federal, county and municipal governmental agencies for accident ~~prevention~~ analysis purposes, except that the department of public safety or any law enforcement department of any municipality or county in this state shall, upon written request of any person involved in an accident or upon written request of the representative of his or her estate, ~~his~~ surviving spouse, or one or more ~~of his~~ surviving next of kin, or a trustee appointed pursuant to section 573.02, disclose to the requester, his or her legal counsel or a representative of his or her insurer any information contained therein except the parties' version of the accident as set out in the written report filed by the parties or may disclose identity of a person involved in an accident when the identity is not otherwise known or when the person denies ~~his~~ presence at the accident. No report shall be used as evidence in any trial, civil or criminal, arising out of an accident, except that the department of public safety shall furnish upon the demand of any person who has, or claims to have, made a report, or, upon demand of any court, a certificate showing that a specified accident report has or has not been made to the department of public safety solely to prove a compliance or a failure to comply with the requirements that the report be made to the department of public safety. Disclosing any information contained in any accident report, except as provided herein, is unlawful and a misdemeanor.

Nothing herein shall be construed to prevent any person who has made a report pursuant to this chapter from testifying in any trial, civil or criminal, arising out of an accident, as to facts within ~~his~~ the person's knowledge. It is intended by this subdivision to render privileged the reports required but it is not intended to prohibit proof of the facts to which the reports relate. Legally qualified newspaper publications and licensed radio and television stations shall upon request to a law enforcement agency be given an oral statement covering only the time and place of the accident, the names and addresses of the parties involved, and a general statement as to how the accident happened without attempting to fix liability upon anyone, but said legally qualified newspaper publications and licensed radio and television stations shall not be given access to the hereinbefore mentioned confidential reports, nor shall any such statements or information so orally given be used as evidence in any court proceeding, but shall merely be used for the purpose of a proper publication or broadcast of the news.

This subdivision shall supersede other state law relating to data privacy or confidentiality with regard to accident reports. When these reports are released for accident ~~prevention~~ analysis purposes the identity of any involved person shall not be revealed. Data contained in these reports shall only be used for accident ~~prevention~~ analysis purposes, except as otherwise provided by this subdivision. Accident reports and data contained therein which may be in the possession or control of departments or agencies other than the department of public safety shall not be discoverable under any provision of law or rule of court.

The department may charge authorized persons a $5 fee for a copy of an accident report.

Sec. 7. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 169.80, Subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [LIMITATIONS.] It is a misdemeanor for a person to drive or move, or for the owner to cause or knowingly permit to be driven or moved, on a highway a vehicle or vehicles of a size or weight exceeding the limitations stated in sections 169.80 to 169.88, or otherwise in violation of sections 169.80 to 169.88, and the maximum size and weight of vehicles as prescribed in sections 169.80 to 169.88 shall be lawful throughout this state, and local authorities shall have no power or authority to alter these limitations except as express authority may be granted in sections 169.80 to 169.88.

When all the axles of a vehicle or combination of vehicles are weighed separately the sum of the weights of the axles so weighed shall be evidence of the total gross weight of the vehicle or combination of vehicles so weighed.

When each of the axles of any group that contains two or more consecutive axles of a vehicle or combination of vehicles have been weighed separately the sum of the weights of the axles so weighed shall be evidence of the total gross weight on the group of axles so weighed.

When, in any group of three or more consecutive axles of a vehicle or combination of vehicles any axles have been weighed separately and two or more axles consecutive to each other in the group have been weighed together, the sum of the weights of the axles weighed separately and the axles weighed together shall be evidence of the total gross weight of the group of axles so weighed.

The provisions of sections 169.80 to 169.88 governing size, weight, and load shall not apply to fire apparatus, or to implements of husbandry temporarily moved upon a highway, or to loads of loose hay or corn stalks if transported by a horse-drawn vehicle or drawn by a farm tractor, or to a vehicle operated under the terms of a special permit issued as provided by law. For purposes of sections 169.80 to 169.88, a specialized vehicle resembling a low-slung two wheel trailer having a short bed or platform shall be deemed to be an implement of husbandry when the vehicle is used exclusively to transport implements of husbandry; and the term "temporarily moved upon a highway" shall mean a movement not to exceed 50 miles.

In addition to any other special permits authorized, an annual permit may be issued authorizing movements on interstate highways and movements exceeding 50 miles on non-interstate highways of oversize vehicles and loads when the vehicles or combination of vehicles are used exclusively to transport implements of husbandry. Annual permits are issued in accordance with the applicable provisions of section 169.86, except that the transporting vehicle or combination of vehicles may be moved at the discretion of the permittee without prior route approval from the permit issuing office of the department of transportation if:

(a) The overall width of the transporting vehicle, including load, does not exceed 12 feet;

(b) The transporting vehicle otherwise complies with equipment requirements and length, height and weight limitations prescribed by this chapter;

(c) The movement is made after the hour of sunrise and not later than 30 minutes after sunset;

(d) The movement is not made when visibility is impaired by weather, fog or other conditions rendering persons and vehicles not clearly visible at a distance of 500 feet, or on Sundays after twelve o'clock noon, and holidays;

(e) The transporting vehicle shall display at the front and rear end of the load or vehicle a pair of flashing amber lights, as provided in section 169.59, subdivision 4, whenever the overall width of the vehicle exceeds ten feet, six inches; and

(f) The movement, if made on a trunk highway, is made on a trunk highway with a surfaced roadway width of not less than 24 feet.

The fee for an annual permit is $24.

Sec. 8. [169.762] [PRESSURIZED FLAMMABLE GAS.]

Subdivision 1. [MARKING REQUIRED.] Any vehicle within this state which carries liquefied petroleum gas fuel or natural gas in a tank attached to the vehicle in any concealed area, including but not limited to trunks, compartments, or under the vehicle, shall display on the exterior of the vehicle the words "Pressurized Flammable Gas", or a standard abbreviation or symbol as determined by the department of public safety, in block letters at least two inches high. The letters shall be of contrasting colors and shall be placed as near as possible to the area where the tank is located.

Subd. 2. [DISPENSING PROHIBITION.] No person shall dispense liquefied petroleum gas fuel or natural gas into any tank in a concealed area of a vehicle unless the vehicle is in compliance with the requirements of subdivision 1.

Subd. 3. [PENALTY.] Any owner convicted of violating the provisions of subdivisions 1 or 2 is guilty of a misdemeanor.

Sec. 9. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 169.81, Subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [HEIGHT.] (a) Except as provided in paragraph (b), no vehicle unladen or with load shall exceed a height of 13 feet six inches.

(b) A double-deck bus may not exceed a height of 14 feet three inches. Any carrier operating a double-deck bus exceeding 13 feet six inches shall obtain from the commissioner, with respect to highways under the commissioner's jurisdiction, and from local authorities, with respect to highways under their jurisdiction, an annual permit to operate the bus upon any highway under the jurisdiction of the party granting the permit. Annual permits shall be issued in accordance with applicable provisions of section 169.86. The fee for an annual permit issued by the commissioner is as provided in section 169.86, subdivision 5.

Sec. 10. Minnesota Statutes 1981 Supplement, Section 169.81, Subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [LENGTH OF COMBINATIONS AND SEMITRAILERS AND TRUCK-TRACTORS.] (a) Except as provided in clause (c), no combination of vehicles coupled together ~~unladen or with load~~, including truck-tractor and ~~semitrailers~~ semitrailer, shall consist of more than two units ~~unless the combination consists of a truck-tractor and semitrailer drawing one additional semitrailer equipped with an auxiliary dolly,~~ and no combination of vehicles, unladen or with load, shall exceed a total length of 60 feet. The length limitation shall not apply to the transportation of telegraph poles, telephone poles, electric light and power poles, piling, or pole length pulpwood, and is subject to the following further exceptions: The length limitations shall not apply to vehicles when transporting pipe, or other objects by a public utility when required for emergency or repair of public service facilities or when operated under special permits as provided in this subdivision, but with respect to night transportation a vehicle and the load shall be equipped with a sufficient number of clearance lamps and marker lamps on both sides and upon the extreme ends of a projecting load to clearly mark the dimensions of the load. Mount combinations may be drawn but the combinations may not exceed 65 feet in length. The limitation on the number of units shall not apply to vehicles used for transporting milk from point of production to point of first processing, in which case no combination of vehicles coupled together unladen or with load, including truck-tractor and semitrailers, shall consist of more than three units and no combination of those vehicles shall exceed a total length of 60 feet. For the purpose of registration, trailers coupled with a truck-tractor, semitrailer combination shall be ~~considered the same as~~ deemed semitrailers. The state, as to state trunk highways, and a city or town, as to roads or streets located within the city or town, may issue permits authorizing the transportation of combinations of vehicles exceeding the limitations in this subdivision over highways, roads or streets within their boundaries. Combinations of vehicles authorized by this subdivision may be restricted as to the use of highways by the commissioner, as to state trunk highways, and a road authority, as to highways or streets subject to its jurisdiction. Nothing in this subdivision shall be deemed to alter or change the authority vested in local authorities under the provisions of section 169.04. This subdivision shall not apply to the operation of combinations of vehicles subject to the provisions of section 169.861.

(b) No single semitrailer or trailer shall have an overall length, exclusive of rear protective bumpers which do not increase the overall length by more than six inches and further exclusive of accessory equipment mounted or located on the end of the semitrailer or trailer adjacent to the truck or truck-tractor, in excess of 45 feet, except for those semitrailers governed by subdivisions 3a, 3b and 7. For purposes of determining compliance with the provisions of this subdivision, the length of the semitrailer or trailer shall be determined separate from the overall length of the combination of vehicles.

(c) A combination of vehicles between 55 and 65 feet in length regularly engaged in the transportation of commodities and consisting of a truck and semitrailer or a truck-tractor and semitrailer drawing one additional semitrailer which may be equipped with an auxiliary dolly or a truck-tractor and semitrailer drawing one full trailer may operate only on divided highways having four or more lanes of travel, and on other highways as may be designated by the commissioner of transportation subject to section 169.87, subdivision 1, and subject to the approval of the authority having jurisdiction over the highway, for the purpose of providing access between the divided highways of four or more lanes of travel and truck terminals and marshalling yards or for the purpose of providing continuity of route. All vehicles operated under the provisions of this section shall conform to the standards for those vehicles as prescribed by the United States Department of Transportation, Federal Highway Administration, Bureau of Motor Carrier Safety, and as may be amended. The total length of the combination, unladen or with load, shall not exceed 65 feet. For the purpose of registration, trailers coupled with a truck-tractor semitrailer combination shall be deemed semitrailers.

Sec. 11. Minnesota Statutes 1981 Supplement, Section 169.825, Subdivision 8, is amended to read:

Subd. 8. [PNEUMATIC-TIRED VEHICLES.] No vehicle or combination of vehicles equipped with pneumatic tires shall be operated upon the highways of this state:

(a) Where the gross weight on any wheel exceeds 9,000 pounds, except that on designated routes the gross weight on any single wheel shall not exceed 10,000 pounds;

(b) Where the gross weight on any single axle exceeds 18,000 pounds, except that on designated routes the gross weight on any single axle shall not exceed 20,000 pounds;

(c) Where the maximum wheel load exceeds 600 pounds per inch of tire width or the manufacturer's recommended load, whichever is less;

(d) Where the gross weight on any axle of a tridem exceeds 15,000 pounds, except that for vehicles to which an additional axle has been added prior to June 1, 1981, the maximum gross weight on any axle of a tridem ~~shall not exceed~~ may be up to 16,000 pounds ~~and~~ provided the gross weight of the tridem combination ~~shall~~ does not exceed 37,000 pounds where the first and third axles of the tridem are spaced seven feet apart; 38,500 pounds where the first and third axles of the tridem are spaced eight feet apart; and 39,900 pounds where the first and third axles of the tridem are spaced nine feet apart.

(e) Where the gross weight on any group of axles exceeds the weights permitted under this section with any or all of the interior axles disregarded and their gross weights subtracted from the gross weight of all axles of the ~~vehicle~~ group under consideration.

Sec. 12. Minnesota Statutes 1981 Supplement, Section 169.825, Subdivision 10, is amended to read:

Subd. 10. [GROSS WEIGHT SCHEDULE.] (a) No vehicle or combination of vehicles equipped with pneumatic tires shall be operated upon the highways of this state where the total gross weight on any group of two or more consecutive axles of any vehicle or combination of vehicles exceeds that given in the following table for the distance between the centers of the first and last axles of any group of two or more consecutive axles under consideration; the distance between axles being measured longitudinally to the nearest even foot, and when the measurement is a fraction of exactly one-half foot the next largest whole number in feet shall be used, except that when the distance between axles is more than three feet four inches and less than three feet six inches the distance of four feet shall be used:

The gross weights shown in parentheses in this clause are permitted only on routes designated under section 169.832, subdivision 11.

(b) Notwithstanding any lesser weight in pounds shown in this table but subject to the restrictions on gross vehicle weights in clause (c), two consecutive sets of tandem axles may carry a gross load of 34,000 pounds each and a combined gross load of 68,000 pounds provided the overall distance between the first and last axles of the consecutive sets of tandem axles is 36 feet or more.

(c) Notwithstanding the provisions of section 169.85, the gross vehicle weight of all axles of a vehicle or combination of vehicles shall not exceed the following:

(1) 80,000 pounds for routes designated under section 169.832, subdivision 11; and

(2) 73,280 pounds for any vehicle or combination of vehicles with five axles or less on all routes not designated under section 169.832, subdivision 11; and

(3) 80,000 pounds for any vehicle or combination of vehicles with six or more axles on all routes not designated under section 169.832, subdivision 11;

(d) The maximum weights specified in this subdivision for five ~~and six~~ consecutive axles shall not apply to a combination of vehicles that includes a three axle semi-trailer first registered before ~~the effective date of Laws 1981, Chapter 321, Sections 1 to 12. The gross weight for four or fewer consecutive axles on a combination of vehicles excepted under this clause shall not exceed any maximum weight specified for four or fewer consecutive axles~~ August 1, 1981. All other weight limitations in this section are applicable;

(e) The maximum weights specified in this subdivision for five consecutive axles shall not apply to a four axle ready mix concrete truck which was equipped with a fifth axle prior to June 1, 1981. The maximum gross weight on four or fewer consecutive axles of vehicles excepted by this clause shall not exceed any maximum weight specified for four or fewer consecutive axles in this subdivision.

Sec. 13. Minnesota Statutes 1981 Supplement, Section 169.825 is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 12a. [GROSS WEIGHT REDUCTION ON RESTRICTED ROUTES.] The maximum weight on any single axle, two consecutive axles spaced within eight feet or less, three consecutive axles spaced within nine feet or less, or four consecutive axles spaced within 14 feet or less shall not exceed 18,000 pounds, 34,000 pounds, 43,000 pounds, or 51,500 pounds respectively multiplied by a factor of the axle weight in tons allowed on the restricted route divided by nine. No combination of axle weights shall exceed those weights specified in Minnesota Statutes 1981 Supplement, Section 169.825, Subdivision 10 for non-designated routes.

Sec. 14. Minnesota Statutes 1981 Supplement, Section 169.86, Subdivision 5, is amended to read:

Subd. 5. [FEES.] The commissioner, with respect to highways under his jurisdiction, may charge a fee for each permit issued. All such fees for permits issued by the commissioner of transportation shall be deposited in the state treasury and credited to the trunk highway fund. Except for those annual permits for which the permit fees are specified elsewhere in this chapter, the fees shall be:

(a) $12 for each single trip permit.

(b) $12 for each job permit. A job permit may be issued for like loads carried on a specific route for a period not to exceed two months. "Like loads" means loads of the same product, weight and dimension.

(c) $60 for an annual permit to be issued for a period not to exceed 12 consecutive months. Annual permits may be issued for:

(1) truck cranes;

(2) construction equipment, machinery, and supplies;

(3) mobile homes;

(4) farm equipment when the movement is not made according to the provisions of section 169.80, subdivision 1, clauses (a) to (f).

(5) refuse compactor vehicles that carry a gross weight up to but not in excess of 22,000 pounds on a single rear axle and not in excess of 38,000 pounds on a tandem rear axle;

(6) motor vehicles used to alleviate a temporary crisis adversely affecting the safety or well-being of the public;

(7) motor vehicles which travel on interstate highways and carry loads authorized under subdivision 1a;

(8) double-deck buses.

Sec. 15. Minnesota Statutes 1981 Supplement, Section 169.87, Subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [SEASONAL LOAD RESTRICTIONS.] Except for portland cement concrete roads, from March 20 to May 15 of each year, the weight on any single axle shall not exceed five tons on a county or town road that has not been restricted as provided in subdivision 1. The gross weight on consecutive axles shall not exceed the gross weight allowed in section 169.825 multiplied by a factor of five divided by nine. This reduction shall not apply to the gross vehicle weight.

Sec. 16. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 173.02, Subdivision 2, is

amended to read:

Subd. 2. "Advertising device" means any billboard, sign, notice, poster, display, or other device visible to and primarily intended to advertise and inform or to attract or which does attract the attention of operators and occupants of motor vehicles ~~on the interstate system of highways~~ and shall include any structure erected primarily for use in connection with the display of any such device and all lighting or other attachments used in connection therewith.

Sec. 17. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 174.03, Subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [STATEWIDE TRANSPORTATION PLAN; PRIORITIES; SCHEDULE OF EXPENDITURES.] In order to best meet the present and future transportation needs of the public, to insure a strong state economy, to make most efficient use of public and private funds, and to promote the more efficient use of energy and other resources for transportation purposes, the commissioner shall:

(a) Three months after notification that the department is ready to commence operations and prior to the drafting of the statewide transportation plan the commissioner shall hold public hearings as may be appropriate solely for the purpose of receiving suggestions for future transportation alternatives and priorities for the state. The metropolitan council, regional development commissions and port authorities shall appear at the hearings and submit information concerning transportation related planning undertaken and accomplished by these agencies. Other political subdivisions may appear and submit such information at the hearings. These hearings shall be completed no later than six months from the date of the commissioner's notification;

(b) Develop, adopt, revise and monitor a statewide transportation plan, taking into account the suggestions and information submitted at the public hearings held pursuant to clause (a). The plan shall incorporate all modes of transportation and provide for the interconnection and coordination of different modes of transportation. The commissioner shall evaluate alternative transportation programs and facilities proposed for inclusion in the plan in terms of economic costs and benefits, safety aspects, impact on present and planned land uses, environmental effects, energy efficiency, national transportation policies and priorities and availability of federal and other financial assistance;

(c) Based upon the statewide transportation plan, develop statewide transportation priorities and schedule authorized public capital improvements and other authorized public transportation expenditures pursuant to the priorities;

(d) Complete the plan and priorities required by this subdivision no later than July 1, 1978. ~~Upon completion, the commissioner shall promulgate the plan and priorities as a rule in accordance with chapter 15.~~ Upon ~~promulgation~~ completion of the plan and priorities, the commissioner shall prepare and periodically revise, as necessary, the schedule of authorized public transportation expenditures. ~~The schedule, and revisions thereto, need not be promulgated as a rule but shall not be prepared or revised without public hearings~~ The plan, priorities and schedule are exempt from the provisions of the administrative procedure act.

Sec. 18. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 174.03, Subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [IMPLEMENTATION OF PLAN.] After the adoption of the statewide transportation plan, the commissioner and the transportation regulation board shall take no action inconsistent with that plan. ~~Notwithstanding the~~ ~~foregoing, the commissioner and the board shall have authority to promulgate emergency rules pursuant to section 15.0412, subdivision 5, if necessary to respond to transportation emergencies which may require an immediate temporary response inconsistent with the statewide plan.~~

Sec. 19. Minnesota Statutes 1981 Supplement, Section 221.011, Subdivision 22, is amended to read:

Subd. 22. "Exempt carrier" means any carrier exempt from this chapter~~,~~ or exempted from any other law or rule by the commissioner or board. The following are so exempt except as otherwise specifically provided in ~~clause (c)~~ section 20:

(a) Any person engaged in farming or in transporting agricultural, horticultural, dairy, livestock, or other farm products within an area having a 25 mile radius from the person's home post office. The carrier may transport other commodities within the area if the destination of each haul is a farm within the above described area. The owner of any truck operating under this provision shall imprint the owner's name and address in prominent visible letters on the outside of the cab of the truck.

(b) Any occasional accommodation service beyond the 25 mile radius of the home post office by any person engaged in farming as a primary means of livelihood and actually residing on a farm and whose truck or trucks are licensed under provisions of section 168.013, subdivision 1c. Occasional accommodation service shall mean not in excess of six trips in any calendar year.

(c) Any person engaged in agricultural pursuits, who owns and uses a truck for transporting the products of that person's farm, or any person while engaged exclusively in the transportation of fresh vegetables from farms to canneries or viner stations, or from viner stations to canneries, or from canneries to canneries during the harvesting, canning or packing season, or potatoes, sugar beets, wild rice and rutabagas from the field of production to the first place of delivery or unloading, including but not limited to a processing plant, warehouse or railroad siding. ~~This term shall also apply to a manufacturer, producer, dealer or distributor who, in the pursuit of business, owns and uses trucks for the purpose of transporting that person's own products, and shall apply to any person while engaged exclusively in the transportation of pulpwood, cord wood, mining timber, poles, posts, decorative evergreens, wood chips, sawdust, shavings and bark from the place where the products are produced to the point where they are to be used or shipped; except that these manufacturers, producers, dealers or distributors transporting their own products and these persons engaged exclusively in the transportation of wood or wood products, together with any transporting vehicles licensed and registered for a gross vehicle weight of more than 10,000 pounds, shall be subject to the requirements of section 221.031 insofar as the provisions of that section apply to driver qualifications, maximum hours of service of drivers, and safety of operations and equipment.~~

(d) Any person while exclusively engaged in the transportation of dirt and sod within an area having a 50 mile radius from that person's home post office.

(e) Any person while exclusively engaged in the transportation of sand, gravel, bituminous asphalt mix, concrete ready mix, concrete blocks or tile or crushed rock to or from the point of loading or a place of gathering within an area having a 50 mile radius from that person's home post office or a 50 mile radius from the site of construction or maintenance of public roads and streets.

(f) Any person engaged in the transportation of household goods for the federal government or any agency of the federal government or the transportation of household goods for the state government or any agency of state government, where competitive bids are required by law shall be exempt from the provisions of section 221.161.

(g) Any person engaged in transporting property or freight, excepting household goods and petroleum products in bulk, when the movement is entirely within the corporate limits of a city or between contiguous cities.

(h) Emergency vehicles including ambulances, tow trucks when picking up and transporting disabled or wrecked motor vehicles, and hearses when carrying proper and legal warning devices.

(i) Any person engaged in delivery or spreading of agricultural lime.

(j) Any person engaged in transporting rubbish as defined in section 443.27.

(k) Any person engaged in the transportation of grain samples under terms and conditions as the commissioner or board may prescribe.

(l) A motor vehicle, in this chapter referred to as a ''commuter van,'' having a capacity of seven to 16 persons that is used principally to provide prearranged transportation of persons for a fee to or from their place of employment or to or from a transit stop authorized by a local transit authority which vehicle is to be operated by a person who does not drive the vehicle for that person's principal occupation but is driving it only to or from that person's principal place of employment, to or from a transit stop authorized by a local transit authority, or for personal use at other times by an authorized driver; provided, that commuter vans shall not be exempt from any provision of this chapter which by its terms explicitly applies to these vehicles.

(m) Any manufacturer, producer, dealer or distributor who, in the pursuit of business, owns and uses trucks for the purpose of transporting that person's own products, except as otherwise provided in section 20.

(n) Any person while engaged exclusively in the transportation of pulpwood, cordwood, mining timber, poles, posts, decorator evergreens, wood chips, sawdust, shavings, and bark from the place where the products are produced to the point where they are to be used or shipped, except as otherwise provided in section 20.

Sec. 20. [221.032] [OPERATING REQUIREMENTS.]

The exempt carriers set forth in section 221.011, subdivision 22, clauses (m) and (n), are subject to the requirements of section 221.031 insofar as the provisions of that section apply to driver qualifications, maximum hours of service for drivers, and safety of operations and equipment. This section is applicable only to transporting vehicles licensed and registered for a gross weight of more than 10,000 pounds.

Sec. 21. Minnesota Statutes 1981 Supplement, Section 221.81, is amended to read:

221.81 [BUILDING MOVER REGULATION.]

Subdivision 1. [DEFINITION.] ''Building mover'' means any person, corporation, or other entity engaged in the business of raising, supporting off the foundation, and moving buildings, excluding mobile homes.

Subd. 2. [LICENSE.] All building movers operating in Minnesota shall be licensed by the board.

Subd. 3. [LICENSE APPLICATION.] To obtain a license to operate as a building mover an applicant shall file a petition with the commissioner specifying the name and address of its officers and other information as the board may reasonably require. The board shall issue the license upon compliance by the applicant with bonding and insuring requirements set by rule of the department and payment of ~~a~~ an initial $150 filing fee. A license once granted shall continue in full force and effect, subject to a $100 annual renewal ~~fees~~ fee and compliance with bonding and insuring requirements, unless revoked or suspended.

The commissioner, upon approval of a license for a building mover, shall issue a sufficient number of cab cards to each licensed mover to provide one cab card for each power unit used in moving buildings. The fee is $50 for each cab card issued. The cab card must be carried at all times in a readily available place in the cab of the power unit for which it was issued. The building mover may also purchase up to five floater cab cards for a fee of $200 for each floater card issued. Cab cards shall be effective for a 12-month period and shall continue from year to year thereafter upon payment of the required fee. Cab cards shall only be good for the period for which the license is effective.

Licenses shall be transferable pursuant to the provisions of section 221.151.

Subd. 4. [LICENSE REVOCATION, SUSPENSION, DENIAL.] The board, after notice and a hearing, may revoke, suspend or deny a license for:

(a) failure to pay application or renewal fees;

(b) failure to comply with bonding and insuring requirements;

(c) conduct of the applicant or license holder that impairs usage of public highways, roads, streets, or utilities;

(d) conduct of the applicant or license holders that endangers the health and safety of users of the public highways, roads, streets or utilities; or

(e) a course of conduct of the applicant or license holder that demonstrates unsafe or hazardous operation of the business.

Subd. 5. [SUSPENSION BY COMMISSIONER.] The commissioner may suspend a license without a hearing for the following reasons:

(1) Failure to pay the application or renewal fee; or

(2) Failure to comply with bonding and insurance requirements.

The suspension shall continue until the fees have been paid and the bonding and insurance requirements have been satisfied.

Subd. 6. [APPLICATION OF VIOLATION AND PENALTY PROVISIONS.] The violation and penalty provisions of section 221.291 are applicable to this section.

Subd. ~~5~~ 7. [RULES.] The commissioner shall promulgate rules establishing bonding and insuring requirements.

Subd. ~~6~~ 8. [LOCAL REGULATION.] No license to move buildings, bond or insurance coverage shall be required by a political subdivision of the state other than the license, bond and insurance coverage issued or required by the board or commissioner. A political subdivision or the department may require a permit which reasonably regulates the hours, routing, movement, parking or speed limit for a building mover operating on streets or roads within the jurisdiction of the political subdivision or highways within the jurisdiction of the commissioner. Neither the state nor a political subdivision may regulate rates charged by building movers.

Subd. 9. [FEES DEPOSITED IN GENERAL FUND.] All fees collected pursuant to this section shall be deposited in the general fund.

Sec. 22. Minnesota Statutes 1981 Supplement, Section 299D.03, Subdivision 5, is amended to read:

Subd. 5. [FINES AND FORFEITED BAIL MONEY.] (a) All fines and forfeited bail money, from traffic and motor vehicle law violations, collected from persons apprehended or arrested by such employees, shall be paid by ~~the justice of the peace, or~~ such ~~other~~ person or officer collecting such fines, forfeited bail money or installments thereof, on or before the tenth day after the last day of the month in which such moneys were collected, to the county treasurer of the county where the violation occurred. Three-eighths of such receipts shall be credited to the general revenue fund of the county. The other five-eighths of such receipts shall be transmitted by that officer to the state treasurer and shall be credited to the trunk highway fund. If, however, the violation occurs within a municipality and the city attorney prosecutes the offense, and a plea of not guilty is entered, one-third of the receipts shall be credited to the general revenue fund of the county, one-third of the receipts shall be paid to the municipality prosecuting the offense, and one-third shall be transmitted to the state treasurer as provided in this subdivision. All costs of participation in a nation-wide police communication system chargeable to the state of Minnesota shall be paid from appropriations for that purpose.

(b) Notwithstanding any other provisions of law, all fines and forfeited bail money from violations of statutes governing the maximum weight of motor vehicles, collected from persons apprehended or arrested by employees of the state of Minnesota, by means of stationary or portable scales operated by such employees, shall be paid by the person or officer collecting the fines or forfeited bail money, on or before the tenth day after the last day of the month in which the collections were made, to the county treasurer of the county where the violation occurred. ~~All~~ Five-eighths of such receipts shall be transmitted by that officer to the state treasurer and shall be credited to the ~~trunk highway~~ highway user tax distribution fund. Three-eighths of such receipts shall be credited to the general revenue fund of the county.

Sec. 23. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 360.015, Subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [COOPERATION WITH FEDERAL AND OTHER AGENCIES.] ~~He~~ The commissioner shall cooperate with and assist the federal government, the municipalities of this state, and others engaged in aeronautics or the promotion of aeronautics, and shall seek to coordinate the aeronautical activities of these bodies. To this end, the commissioner is empowered to confer with or to hold joint hearings with any federal aeronautical agency in connection with any matter arising under sections 360.011 to 360.076, or relating to the sound development of aeronautics, and to avail himself of the cooperation, services, records, and facilities of such federal agencies, as fully as may be practicable, in the administration and enforcement of sections 360.011 to 360.076. ~~He~~ The commissioner shall reciprocate by furnishing to the federal agencies his cooperation, services, records, and facilities, in so far as may be practicable. The commissioner may also contract for the presentation of educational and informational programs that promote safety and interest in aeronautics.

~~He~~ The commissioner shall report to the appropriate federal agency all accidents in aeronautics in this state of which ~~he~~ the commissioner is informed ~~and~~. The commissioner shall also preserve, protect, and prevent the removal of the component parts of any aircraft involved in an accident being investigated by ~~him~~ the commissioner until a federal agency institutes an investigation~~, and~~. The commissioner shall report the following to the appropriate federal agency*:*

(1) all refusals by ~~him~~ the commissioner to register federal licenses, certificates, or permits ~~and~~;

(2) all revocations of certificates of registration, and the reasons therefor~~;~~; and

(3) all penalties of which ~~he~~ the commissioner has knowledge imposed upon airmen for violations of the laws of this state relating to aeronautics or for violations of the rules, regulations, or orders of the commissioner.

Sec. 24. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 360.017, Subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [CREATION.] There is hereby created a fund to be known as the state airports fund. ~~Such~~ The fund shall consist of all moneys appropriated to it, or directed to be paid into it, by the legislature. The state airports fund shall be paid out on authorization of the commissioner and shall be used to acquire, construct, improve, maintain, and operate airports and other air navigation facilities and to assist municipalities in the acquisition, construction, improvement, and maintenance of airports and other air navigation facilities. The fund may also be used to promote interest and safety in aeronautics through education and information. Salaries and expenses in the department of transportation related to aeronautic planning, administration and operation shall be paid from the state airports fund. All allotments of money from the state airports fund for salaries and expenses shall be approved by the commissioner of finance.

Sec. 25. Laws 1979, Chapter 280, Section 2, Subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. $50,000,000, or so much thereof as is needed, is available for expenditure at a rate not exceeding $12,500,000 per fiscal year for grants to political subdivisions for construction and reconstruction of key bridges on highways, streets and roads under their jurisdiction. The grants shall not exceed the following aggregate amounts:

(1) To counties.....$8,500,000

(2) To home rule charter and statutory cities.....$1,000,000

(3) To towns.....$21,000,000

Additional grants may be made in an aggregate amount not to exceed $19,500,000 to the political subdivisions to match federal-aid grants for construction and reconstruction of key bridges under their jurisdiction. Appropri- ations made in subdivisions 1, 2, or 3 may also be used for the following purposes:

(1) The costs of abandoning an existing bridge that is deficient and is in need of replacement, but where no replacement will be made.

(2) The costs of constructing a road or street that would facilitate the abandonment of an existing bridge determined to be deficient. The construction of the road or street must be judged to be more cost efficient than the reconstruction or replacement of the existing bridge.

Sec. 26. [PROHIBITION ON ESTABLISHMENT OF NEW DIVISIONS IN DEPARTMENT OF TRANSPORTATION.]

Notwithstanding any other law to the contrary, the commissioner of transportation shall not establish any new divisions in the department of transportation, other than consolidations of existing divisions.

Sec. 27. [REPEALER.]

Minnesota Statutes 1981 Supplement, Sections 169.861 and 169.825, Subdivision 12 are repealed.

Sec. 28. [EFFECTIVE DATE.]

Sections 1 to 7 and 9 to 27 are effective the day after final enactment. Section 8 is effective January 1, 1983.''

Delete the title and insert:

S.F. No. 1948 and the Conference Committee Report thereon were reported to the Senate.

CONFERENCE COMMITTEE REPORT ON S.F. NO. 1948

A bill for an act relating to the Hennepin County park reserve district and the city of Anoka; authorizing the district to participate in hydroelectric power generation with other local government units under certain conditions.

March 13, 1982

The Honorable Jack Davies
President of the Senate

The Honorable Harry A. Sieben, Jr.
Speaker of the House of Representatives

We, the undersigned conferees for S.F. No. 1948, report that we have agreed upon the items in dispute and recommend as follows:

That the House recede from its amendments and that S.F. No. 1948 be further amended as follows:

Delete everything after the enacting clause and insert:

"Section 1. [HENNEPIN PARKS; DAMS.]

Subdivision 1. Subject to the provisions of this act the Hennepin county park reserve district may develop and maintain a hydroelectric generation and transmission facility and use or distribute the power generated by the facility in connection with any dam owned by the district. In all cases, the foregoing authority shall be exercised only with another local government unit.

Subd. 2. Notwithstanding subdivision 1, in connection with the park property known as the Coon Rapids dam regional park and the Coon Rapids dam which is a part of it, the district may exercise the authority granted in section 1, subdivision 1, but it may do so only jointly with the city of Anoka pursuant to Minnesota Statutes, Section 471.59, pursuant to an agreement by the parties under section 471.59 adopted prior to June 7, 1982.

Subd. 3. The agreement shall be limited to the principles stated in this section and in sections 2 and 3 and its effectiveness shall be contingent upon an affirmative determination in the proceedings described in section 2. The agreement shall provide that it shall be amended from time to time in order to interpret and apply these principles, by consent of the parties, or if agreement is not reached, pursuant to section 3, subdivision 4.

Sec. 2. [FEDERAL ORDER.]

Anoka and the district shall jointly apply to the Federal Energy Regulatory Commission for a declaratory order stating that the parties may amend their competing applications as now on file for a hydroelectric preliminary permit so that: (a) the applications may be deemed as a single, joint application for the permit pursuant to the terms of this act; (b) the single, joint application shall retain the same effective filing date as the application of the first of the parties to have filed; (c) the single, joint application and operation of the project pursuant to the terms of section 3 shall be deemed the application of a municipality as provided in section 3(7) of the Federal Power Act and be entitled to the preference provided for in that act; and (d) if Anoka does not exercise its option under section 3, subdivision 3 the permit shall be deemed exclusively the permit of the district and such local government unit as may join with the district.

Sec. 3. [AGREEMENT WITH ANOKA.]

Subdivision 1. The agreement of Anoka and the district under Minnesota Statutes, Section 471.59, shall include the principles set forth in this section and be incorporated in full in the application of the parties to the Federal Energy Regulatory Commission made pursuant to section 2.

Subd. 2. The parties shall both seek the fulfillment of the following coequal goals: (a) the development of the hydroelectric facilities to maximize the use of the public waters in the production of energy; and (b) the preservation and protection of the park as a major regional open space recreational area maximizing the integrity of and the existing public recreational uses of the park, and, to the extent feasible, limiting the exclusive dedication of any park property and facilities to electric generation and distribution purposes.

Subd. 3. The district shall jointly with Anoka contract in a timely manner for a feasibility study on the hydropower potential of the dam. Following completion of the feasibility study, the district shall grant to Anoka the first option for rights in and to the property of the park as may be required to allow Anoka to develop the generating, transmission and distribution facilities of the hydroelectric project, to finance its development, to operate and maintain the facilities and utilize or distribute the energy produced by the facilities, all for a term not to exceed 50 years and subject to renewal provisions as the parties may agree. In consideration of the foregoing, Anoka shall pay to the district an annual fee which shall provide to the district reasonable compensation for the fair value of the rights in and to the property which are contributed by the district for hydroelectric generating or distributing facilities for the full term of the agreement. If Anoka does not declare its intention to exercise its option within 90 days of the completion of the feasibility study, the district may grant such rights to any other local government unit.

Subd. 4. If the parties are unable to agree upon the interpretation or application of the foregoing or any terms of the agreement, they shall submit to arbitration as provided by law and the rules of the American Arbitration Association, except that the arbitrator or arbitration panel shall be composed of the persons appointed in the manner provided by this subdivision and shall handle any and all matters relating to the agreement in a timely and on-going basis. If the parties agree, one person may serve as the arbitrator. If not, a panel of three arbitrators shall be utilized. Anoka shall appoint a person experienced in public utility management or the development of hydroelectric generating projects, or both. The district shall appoint a person experienced in public park management, and those persons shall appoint the third member of the panel.

Sec. 4. [EFFECTIVE DATE.]

The provisions of this act shall be effective the day after compliance with Minnesota Statutes, Section 645.021, Subdivision 3, by the governing body of the Hennepin county park reserve district and the council of the city of Anoka. If compliance with section 645.021, subdivision 3, has not occurred before May 7, 1982, this act is void.''

We request adoption of this report and repassage of the bill.

Mr. Moe, D.M. moved that Senate Resolution No. 83 be taken from the table. The motion prevailed.

Senate Resolution No. 83: A Senate resolution memorializing the life and work of Roy Wilkins.

WHEREAS, Roy Wilkins was born in St. Louis, Missouri, on August 30, 1901; and,

WHEREAS, Roy Wilkins spent most of his early life in St. Paul, Minnesota, and was a graduate of the University of Minnesota; and,

WHEREAS, as a student at the University of Minnesota and as managing editor of a Kansas City newspaper, Roy Wilkins called attention to the plight of black people in America; and,

WHEREAS, Roy Wilkins gave his life to this nation through unparalleled service as a member of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People from 1931 until 1977, serving the last twenty-two of those years as executive director; and,

WHEREAS, Roy Wilkins was a delegate to the first national N.A.A.C.P. convention in Kansas City in 1923, an author of numerous articles regarding racial discrimination, the chairman of the Leadership Conference on Civil Rights, a consultant to the United States Department of State, a member of the President's National Advisory Commission on Civil Disorders, the chairman of the United States delegation to the International Conference on Human Rights, and the recipient of the Freedom Award by Freedom House; and,

WHEREAS, Roy Wilkins' legacy of hard work, commitment, and determination became a hallmark that can be built upon by people who continue his work to improve the lives of all Americans; and,

WHEREAS, Roy Wilkins was one of the outstanding leaders of the civil rights movement in the United States during the 1960's, serving as an inspiration to black America to continue the struggle for equality as citizens; and,

WHEREAS, Roy Wilkins was a key supporter and organizer of the march on Washington on August 28, 1963, which dramatized the responsibility of this country, by virtue of the Constitution, to recognize all American citizens with equal status; and,

WHEREAS, Roy Wilkins was one of the political forces behind the successful passage of the 1964 Civil Rights Act, which made voting rights, equal employment, and equal access to public accommodation a matter of federal law; and,

WHEREAS, Roy Wilkins was administrator for the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People in 1954 when that organization won the historic Brown versus Board of Education decision in which the Supreme Court struck down the "separate but equal" doctrine, that had justified the existence of racially segregated schools; and,

WHEREAS, In 1969, Roy Wilkins was awarded the nation's highest civil honor, the Medal of Freedom, by President Lyndon B. Johnson; and,

WHEREAS, Roy Wilkins stood as a monument of integrity, perseverance, and fidelity to social justice and a belief in the improvability of all mankind; NOW, THEREFORE,

BE IT RESOLVED by the Senate of the State of Minnesota, that it commends to the people of the State of Minnesota the record of Roy Wilkins as a life, work, and spirit worth emulation. It extends its condolences to his wife, Amanda Badeau, to his nieces and nephews, to his other relatives, and to all his friends.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that the Secretary of the Senate of the State of Minnesota is directed to prepare an enrolled copy of this resolution, to be authenticated by his signature and that of the President, and present it to Amanda Badeau Wilkins.

Mr. Moe, D.M. moved the adoption of the foregoing resolution. The motion prevailed. So the resolution was adopted.

S.F. No. 1964 and the Conference Committee Report thereon were reported to the Senate.

CONFERENCE COMMITTEE REPORT ON S.F. NO. 1964

A bill for an act relating to state government; ratifying state employee and University of Minnesota labor agreements and compensation plans; amending Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 299D.03, Subdivision 2; repealing Minnesota Statutes 1980, Sections 299C.041; and 299D.03, Subdivision 3.

March 13, 1982

The Honorable Jack Davies
President of the Senate

The Honorable Harry A. Sieben, Jr.
Speaker of the House of Representatives

We, the undersigned conferees for S.F. No. 1964, report that we have agreed upon the items in dispute and recommend as follows:

That the House recede from its amendment and that S.F. No. 1964 be further amended as follows:

Delete everything after the enacting clause and insert:

"Section 1. [486.055] [COURT REPORTER TRANSCRIPT FEE CHARGES; REPORTING REQUIREMENTS.]

Subdivision 1. [REPORTING REQUIREMENTS.] Each court reporter

who charges a fee for the preparation of transcripts shall by April 15 of each year file with the district administrator of his judicial district and the county commissioners of the district an accounting of gross receipts and net income from these receipts for the prior calendar year. The accounting report shall specify the amount received in payment for the sale of transcripts.

Sec. 2. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 179.66, Subdivision 7, is amended to read:

Subd. 7. The employer shall not meet and negotiate or meet and confer with any employee or group of employees who are at the time designated as a member or part of an appropriate employee unit except through the exclusive representative if one is certified for that unit or as provided for in section 179.69, subdivision 1, provided that this subdivision shall not be deemed to prevent the communication to the employer, other than through the exclusive representative, of advice or recommendations by professional employees, when such communication is a part of the employee's work assignment.

Sec. 3. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 179.72, Subdivision 7, is amended to read:

Subd. 7. The arbitration panel or arbitrator selected by the parties shall resolve the issues in dispute between the parties as submitted by the board, and the panel's decision and order shall be final and binding upon the parties. The panel shall be restricted, if the parties agree in writing to so limit the panel's jurisdiction, except as provided by subdivision 7b to selecting between the final offers on each impasse item submitted by the parties to the panel, or the final offer of one or the other party in its entirety. Provided, however, that no decision of the panel which violates any provision of the laws of Minnesota or rules or regulations promulgated thereunder or municipal charters or ordinances or resolutions enacted pursuant thereto, or which causes a penalty to be incurred thereunder, shall have any force or effect. In considering a dispute and issuing its order the panel shall give due consideration to the statutory rights and obligations of public employers to efficiently manage and conduct its operations within the legal limitations surrounding the financing of such operations. The panel's orders shall be issued by a majority vote of its members considering a given dispute. The panel shall have no jurisdiction over nor authority to entertain any matter or issue not within the definition stated in section 179.63, subdivision 18; provided, however, items not within terms and conditions of employment may be included in an arbitration decision if such items are contained in the employer's final position. Any issue or order or part thereof issued by the panel determining any matter not included under section 179.63, subdivision 18 or the employer's final position shall be void and of no effect. The panel shall render its decision within ten days from the date that all arbitration proceedings have been concluded, but in any event must issue its order by the last date the employer is required by statute, charter, ordinance or resolution to submit its tax levy or budget or certify its taxes voted to the appropriate public officer, agency, public body or office, or by November 1, whichever date is earlier. The panel's order shall be for such period as the panel shall direct, except that orders determining contracts for teacher units shall be effective to the end of the contract period as determined by section 179.70, subdivision 1.

Sec. 4. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 179.72, Subdivision 7b, is amended to read:

Subd. 7b. Notwithstanding the provisions of subdivision 7, for ~~essential employees,~~ supervisory employees, confidential employees, and principals and assistant principals who are not employees of the executive branch of the state of Minnesota, the panel shall be restricted to selecting between the final offers on each impasse item submitted by the parties to the panel.

Sec. 5. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 299D.03, Subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [SALARIES.] (1) Each employee other than the chief supervisor, lieutenant colonel, majors, captains, corporals and sergeants hereinafter designated shall be known as patrol troopers.

(2) There may be appointed one lieutenant colonel; and such majors, captains, corporals, sergeants and troopers as the commissioner deems necessary to carry out the duties and functions of the highway patrol. Persons in above named positions shall be appointed by law and have such duties as the commissioner may direct and, except for troopers, shall be selected from the patrol troopers, corporals, sergeants, captains, and majors who shall have had at least five years' experience as either patrol troopers, corporals, sergeants, or supervisors.

MESSAGES FROM THE HOUSE

Mr. President:

I have the honor to announce that the House has adopted the recommendation and report of the Conference Committee on House File No. 2000 and repassed said bill in accordance with the report of the Committee, so adopted.

House File No. 2000 is herewith transmitted to the Senate.

Edward A. Burdick, Chief Clerk, House of Representatives

Transmitted March 13, 1982

CONFERENCE COMMITTEE REPORT ON H. F. No. 2000

A bill for an act relating to health and welfare; strengthening qualifications for persons controlling, administering, or managing nursing homes; requiring review of reimbursement for substandard care; requiring license revocation in certain situations; clarifying certain provisions of the general assistance program; revising a penalty; amending Minnesota Statutes 1980, Sections 144A.01, Subdivision 7; 144A.04, Subdivisions 4 and 6; 144A.08, Subdivision 3; 144A.10, Subdivision 4; 144A.11, Subdivision 2, and by adding a subdivision; and Minnesota Statutes 1981 Supplement, Section 256D.05, Subdivision 1.

March 13, 1982

The Honorable Harry A. Sieben, Jr.
Speaker of the House of Representatives

The Honorable Jack Davies
President of the Senate

We, the undersigned conferees for H. F. No. 2000, report that we have agreed upon the items in dispute and recommend as follows:

That the Senate recede from its amendments and that H.F. No. 2000 be further amended as follows:

Pages 4 to 6, delete sections 8 and 9 and insert:

"Sec. 8. Minnesota Statutes 1981 Supplement, Section 256D.05, Subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [STANDARDS.] Each person or family whose income and resources are less than the standard of assistance established by the commissioner~~, and who is not eligible for the federally aided assistance programs of emergency assistance or aid to families with dependent children, or any successor to those programs,~~ shall be eligible for and entitled to general assistance ~~if the person or family is:~~

~~(a) A person suffering from an illness, injury, or incapacity which is both medically certified and prevents the individual from engaging in suitable employment, if a plan for rehabilitation approved by the local agency through its director or designated representative is being followed when the situation is certified as temporary;~~

~~(b) A person whose presence in the home on a substantially continuous basis is required because of the certified illness or incapacity of another member of the household;~~

~~(c) A person who has been placed in a licensed or certified facility for purposes of physical or mental health or rehabilitation, if the placement is based on illness or incapacity, and is pursuant to a plan developed or approved by the local agency through its director or designated representative;~~

~~(d) A person who resides in a shelter facility described in subdivision 3;~~

~~(e) A person who is or may be eligible for displaced homemaker services, programs, or assistance under section 4.40. In determining eligibility of the person for general assistance, income received as a stipend shall be disregarded as provided in section 4.40;~~

~~(f) A person who is unable to secure suitable employment due to inability to communicate in the English language, and who, if assigned to a language skills program by the local agency, is participating in that program;~~

~~(g) A person not described in clause (a) or (c) who is diagnosed by a licensed physician or licensed consulting psychologist as mentally ill; or~~

~~(h) A person who is unable to secure suitable employment due to a lack of marketable skills as determined by the local agency, and who, if assigned to a vocational counseling, vocational rehabilitation, or work training program by the local agency, is participating in that program. Eligibility for general assistance under clause (h) of this subdivision is limited to five weeks per calendar year~~; provided that no individual shall be eligible for general assistance if the individual is eligible for any of the following federally aided assistance programs: emergency assistance, aid to families with dependent children, or any successor to the above.

Sec. 9. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 256D.05, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 1a. [TEMPORARY STANDARDS.] Notwithstanding the provisions of subdivision 1, from the day following final enactment of this act until June 30, 1983, each person or family whose income and resources are less than the standard of assistance established by the commissioner, and who is not eligible for the federally aided assistance programs of emergency assistance or aid to families with dependent children, or any successor to those programs, shall be eligible for and entitled to general assistance if the person or family is:

(a) A person who is suffering from a permanent or temporary illness, injury, or incapacity which is both medically certified and prevents the person from engaging in suitable employment, and who, if the medical certification establishes that the illness, injury, or incapacity is temporary and recommends a reasonable plan for rehabilitation, is following the plan;

(b) A person whose presence in the home on a substantially continuous basis is required because of the certified illness or incapacity of another member of the household;

(c) A person who has been placed in a licensed or certified facility for purposes of physical or mental health or rehabilitation, if the placement is based on illness or incapacity, and is pursuant to a plan developed or approved by the local agency through its director or designated representative;

(d) A person who resides in a shelter facility described in subdivision 3;

(e) A person who is or may be eligible for displaced homemaker services, programs, or assistance under section 4.40. In determining eligibility of the person for general assistance, income received as a stipend shall be disregarded as provided in section 4.40;

(f) A person who is unable to secure suitable employment due to inability to communicate in the English language, and who, if assigned to a language skills program by the local agency, is participating in that program;

(g) A person not described in clause (a) or (c) who is diagnosed by a licensed physician or licensed consulting psychologist as mentally ill or mentally retarded;

(h) A person who is unable to secure suitable employment due to a lack of marketable skills and who, if assigned to a vocational counseling, vocational rehabilitation, or work training program by the local agency, is participating in that program. Eligibility for general assistance under clause (h) of this subdivision is limited to five weeks per calendar year;

(i) A person who has an application pending for the program of supplemental security income for the aged, blind and disabled or has been terminated from that program and has an appeal from that termination pending, and who has executed an interim assistance authorization agreement pursuant to the provisions of section 256D.06, subdivision 5; or

(j) A person who is unable to secure suitable employment because his advanced age significantly affects his ability to engage in substantial work. This clause is effective January 1, 1983.

This subdivision is repealed July 1, 1983.

Sec. 10. [APPROPRIATIONS.]

$12,000 is reappropriated from Laws 1981, Chapter 360, Article I, Section 2, to the commissioner of public welfare for the purposes of the statewide hearing impaired program.

Sec. 11. [REVENUE; APPROPRIATION.]

Subdivision 1. [APPROPRIATION.] There is appropriated from the general fund to the department of revenue, for the fiscal year indicated, to implement the administrative and auditing responsibilities of a unitary large scale audit unit.

Fiscal Year 1982	-0-
Fiscal Year 1983	$900,000

The approved complement of the department is increased by three positions in fiscal year 1982 and 23 additional positions in fiscal year 1983.

Subd. 2. [COMPUTER DESIGN.] In the development of the computer system for corporate taxation, the department of revenue shall include a method for identifying funds collected as a result of direct department auditing efforts.

Subd. 3. [AUDIT REQUESTED.] The legislative auditor, as approved by the legislative audit commission, shall conduct audits of the fair share and unitary tax collection programs of the department of revenue.

Subd. 4. [REPORT TO THE LEGISLATURE.] The commissioner of revenue shall report to the chairmen of the house appropriations, house tax, senate finance, and senate tax committees by March 1, 1983. The report shall contain the tax collections realized through the unitary large scale audit program; an estimate of potential tax collections; and recommendations about the level of staffing necessary to maximize collections.''

Page 6, line 22, after ''9'' insert ''and 11''

Page 6, line 23, after the period insert ''Section 10 is effective July 1, 1982.''

Renumber the sections in sequence

Amend the title as follows:

Page 1, line 2, delete ''health and welfare'' and insert ''state government''

Page 1, line 8, after the semicolon, insert ''enhancing the state's ability to fund health and welfare programs by strengthening tax collection efforts; supplementing appropriations for the department of revenue; reappropriating money;''

Page 1, line 13, before the period insert '', and by adding a subdivision''

We request adoption of this report and repassage of the bill.

House Conferees: (Signed) Lee Greenfield, Don Samuelson, Mary M. Forsythe

Senate Conferees: (Signed) Gerry Sikorski, Franklin J. Knoll, Howard A. Knutson

Mr. Sikorski moved that the foregoing recommendations and Conference Committee Report on H.F. No. 2000 be now adopted, and that the bill be repassed as amended by the Conference Committee. The motion prevailed. So the recommendations and Conference Committee Report were adopted.

H.F. No. 2000: A bill for an act relating to state government; strengthening qualifications for persons controlling, administering, or managing nursing homes; requiring review of reimbursement for substandard care; requiring license revocation in certain situations; clarifying certain provisions of the general assistance program; revising a penalty; enhancing the state's ability to fund health and welfare programs by strengthening tax collection efforts; supplementing appropriations for the department of revenue; reappropriating money; amending Minnesota Statutes 1980, Sections 144A.01, Subdivision 7; 144A.04, Subdivisions 4 and 6; 144A.08, Subdivision 3; 144A.10, Subdivision 4; 144A.11, Subdivision 2, and by adding a subdivision; and Minnesota Statutes 1981 Supplement, Section 256D.05, Subdivision 1, and by adding a subdivision.

March 13, 1982

The Honorable Harry A. Sieben, Jr.
Speaker of the House of Representatives

The Honorable Jack Davies
President of the Senate

We, the undersigned conferees for H.F. No. 678, report that we have agreed upon the items in dispute and recommend as follows:

That the Senate recede from its amendments and that H. F. No. 678 be further amended as follows:

Delete everything after the enacting clause and insert:

"Section 1. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 10A.01, Subdivision 7b, is amended to read:

Subd. 7b. "Donation in kind" means anything of value other than money or negotiable instruments given by an individual or association to a political committee, political fund, or principal campaign committee for the purpose of influencing the nomination or election of a candidate or for the purpose of promoting or defeating a ballot question. Donation in kind includes an approved expenditure. Donation in kind does not include the publishing or broadcasting, at any time, of any information, news item or editorial comment by the news media. Any rules or regulations to the contrary have no force or effect and are repealed.

Sec. 2. Minnesota Statute 1980, Section 10A.02, Subdivision 13, is amended to read:

Subd. 13. The provisions of chapter 15 apply to the board~~.~~ except that the board may not promulgate rules ~~to carry out the purposes of sections 10A.01 to 10A.34~~.

Sec. 3. Minnesota Statutes 1981 Supplement, Section 201.071, Subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [FORM.] Registration cards shall be of suitable size and weight for mailing, and shall contain the following information in substantially the following form:

Sec. 4. Minnesota Statutes 1981 Supplement, Section 203B.02, Subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [UNABLE TO GO TO POLLING PLACE.] Any eligible voter who ~~is~~ reasonably anticipates he will be unable to go to the polling place on election day in the precinct where the individual maintains residence because of absence from the precinct, illness, physical disability, religious discipline, observance of a religious holiday or service as an election judge in another precinct may vote by absentee ballot as provided in sections 203B.04 to 203B.15.

Sec. 5. Minnesota Statutes 1981 Supplement, Section 203B.04, Subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [APPLICATION PROCEDURES.] Except as otherwise allowed by subdivision 2, an application for absentee ballots for any election may be submitted at any time not ~~more than 45 days nor~~ less than one day before the day of that election. An application submitted pursuant to this subdivision shall be in writing and shall be submitted to:

(a) The county auditor of the county where the applicant maintains residence; or

(b) The municipal clerk of the municipality where the applicant maintains residence.

An application shall be accepted if it is signed and dated by the applicant, contains the applicant's residence and mailing addresses and states that the applicant is eligible to vote by absentee ballot for one of the reasons specified in section 203B.02.

Sec. 6. Minnesota Statutes 1981 Supplement, Section 204B.12, Subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [BEFORE PRIMARY.] A candidate may withdraw his name from the primary ballot by filing an affidavit of withdrawal with the same official who received the affidavit of candidacy. The affidavit shall request that official to withdraw the candidate's name from the ballot and shall be filed no later than ~~six~~ three days after the last day for filing for the office.

Sec. 7. Minnesota Statutes 1981 Supplement, Section 204B.19, Subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [INDIVIDUALS QUALIFIED TO BE ELECTION JUDGES.] Any individual who is eligible to vote in an election precinct is qualified to be appointed as an election judge for that precinct subject to the provisions of this section. ~~If an insufficient number of eligible voters maintaining residence in any precinct are willing and qualified to be appointed election judges for that precinct, the appointing authority may appoint as an election judge for that precinct any qualified individual who is eligible to vote~~

~~in the territory under the jurisdiction of the authority which established the precinct.~~ If the files of the appointing authority do not contain sufficient voters within a precinct who are qualified and willing to serve as election judges, election judges may be appointed who reside in another precinct in the same municipality. If there are not sufficient voters within the municipality who are qualified and willing to serve as election judges, election judges may be appointed who reside in the county where the precinct is located.

Subd. 2. [INDIVIDUALS NOT QUALIFIED TO BE ELECTION JUDGES.] No individual shall be appointed as an election judge for any precinct if that individual:

(a) Is unable to read, write or speak the English language;

(b) Is the spouse, parent, child or sibling of any election judge serving in the same precinct or of any candidate at that election or of any member of the governing body of the municipality or county which established the precinct; or

(c) Is a candidate at that election~~; or~~

~~(d) Is receiving compensation as an employee or officer of the United States, the state or any municipality or county in the state~~.

~~Subd. 3. [EXCEPTIONS.] Notwithstanding subdivision 2, clause (d), the following individuals may serve as election judges in municipalities with only one election precinct:~~

~~(a) Any town clerk, town treasurer or member of a town board; and~~

~~(b) Any city clerk or member of the city council of any statutory city.~~

Subd. ~~4~~ 3. [ADDITIONAL QUALIFICATIONS PERMITTED; EXAMINATION.] The appointing authority may establish additional qualifications which are not inconsistent with the provisions of this section and which relate to the ability of an individual to perform the duties of an election judge. The appointing authority may examine any individual who seeks appointment as an election judge to determine whether the individual meets any qualification established under this section.

Subd. ~~5~~ 4. [PARTY BALANCE REQUIREMENT.] No more than half of the election judges in a precinct may be members of the same major political party unless the election board consists of an odd number of election judges, in which case the number of election judges who are members of the same major political party may be one more than half the number of election judges in that precinct.

Subd. 5. [TIME OFF FROM WORK TO SERVE AS ELECTION JUDGE.] Every individual who is selected to serve as an election judge pursuant to section 204B.21, subdivision 2 is entitled, after giving his employer at least ten days' written notice, to absent himself from his place of work for the purpose of serving as an election judge. No employer shall penalize an employee for such absence other than a deduction in salary for the time he absented himself from his place of employment.

Sec. 8. Minnesota Statutes 1981 Supplement, Section 204B.21, Subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [APPOINTMENT LISTS; DUTIES OF POLITICAL PAR-

TIES AND COUNTY AUDITOR.] ~~At least 65 days before any~~ On July 1 in a year in which there is an election for a partisan political office, the county or legislative district chairmen of each major political party, whichever is designated by the state party, shall prepare a list of eligible voters to act as election judges in each election precinct in the county or legislative district. The chairmen shall furnish the lists to the county auditor of the county in which the precinct is located.

~~At least 55 days before the date of the election,~~ By July 15 the county auditor shall furnish to the appointing authorities a list of the appropriate names for each election precinct in the jurisdiction of the appointing authority. Separate lists shall be submitted by the county auditor for each major political party.

Sec. 9. Minnesota Statutes 1981 Supplement, Section 204B.27, Subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [BLANK FORMS.] At least ~~15~~ 25 days before every state election the secretary of state shall transmit to each county auditor a sufficient number of blank county abstract forms, affidavits of challenged voters, and any other blank forms that the secretary of state deems necessary for the conduct of the election.

Sec. 10. Minnesota Statutes 1981 Supplement, Section 204B.31, is amended to read:

[204B.31] [COMPENSATION FOR ELECTION SERVICES.]

The compensation for services performed under the Minnesota election law shall be as follows:

(a) To presidential electors from funds appropriated to the secretary of state for this purpose, $35 for each day of attendance at the capitol and mileage for travel to and from the capitol in the amount allowed for state employees in accordance with rules adopted pursuant to Minnesota Statutes, Section ~~471.665~~ 43A.18, Subdivision ~~1~~ 2;

(b) To individuals, other than county, city, or town employees during their normal work day, who are appointed by the county auditor to carry ballots to or from the county auditor's office, a sum not less than the prevailing Minnesota minimum wage for each hour spent in carrying ballots and mileage in ~~the~~ an amount ~~allowed for state employees in accordance with rules adopted~~ set by the county board pursuant to Minnesota Statutes, Section 471.665, Subdivision 1;

(c) To members of county canvassing boards, a sum not less than the prevailing Minnesota minimum wage for each hour necessarily spent and an amount for each mile of necessary travel ~~equal to the amount allowed for state employees~~ set by the county board pursuant to Minnesota Statutes, Section 471.665, Subdivision 1;

(d) To election judges serving in any city, an amount fixed by the governing body of the city, to election judges serving in unorganized territory, an amount fixed by the county board, and to election judges serving in towns, an amount fixed by the town board. Election judges ~~in towns and unorganized territory~~ shall receive at least the prevailing Minnesota minimum wage for each hour spent carrying out their duties at the polling places and in attending training sessions required by section 204B.25, subdivision 1. An election judge who travels to pick up election supplies or to deliver election returns to the county auditor shall receive, in addition to other compensation authorized by this section, a sum not less than the prevailing Minnesota minimum wage for each hour spent performing these duties, plus mileage in ~~the same~~ an amount ~~as allowed for state employees pursuant to section 471.665, subdivision 1~~ to be set by the governing body or town board that sets the compensation of the election judge; and

(e) To sergeants at arms, an amount for each hour of service performed at the direction of the election judges, fixed in the same manner as compensation for election judges.

Sec. 11. Minnesota Statutes 1981 Supplement, Section 204B.34, Subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [STATE ELECTIONS.] At least 15 days before any state primary or state general election the municipal clerk shall post in his office a notice stating the officers to be nominated or elected, the location of each polling place in the municipality, and the hours for voting. An optional provision of the notice may include municipal officers to be nominated or elected. The county auditor shall post a similar notice in his office including information concerning any polling places in unorganized territory in the county. The governing body of a municipality or county may publish this notice in addition to posting it. Failure to give the notice required in this section shall not invalidate a state primary or state general election.

Sec. 12. Minnesota Statutes 1981 Supplement, Section 204B.35, Subdivision 4, is amended to read:

Subd. 4. [ABSENTEE BALLOTS; PREPARATION; DELIVERY.] Ballots necessary to fill applications of absentee voters shall be prepared and delivered at least ~~15~~ 20 days before the election to the officials who administer the provisions of chapter 203B.

Sec. 13. Minnesota Statutes 1981 Supplement, Section 204C.32, Subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [STATE CANVASS.] The state canvassing board shall meet at the secretary of state's office on the second Tuesday after the state primary to canvass the certified copies of the county canvassing board reports received from the county auditors. ~~Upon completion of the canvass~~ Two days after the canvassing board declares the results, the secretary of state shall ~~promptly~~ certify the names of the nominees to the county auditors and shall mail to each nominee a notice of nomination.

Sec. 14. Minnesota Statutes 1981 Supplement, Section 204C.33, Subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [COUNTY CANVASSING BOARD REPORTS; PUBLIC AVAILABILITY.] ~~Upon payment of a $1 fee,~~ The county auditor of each county shall provide a certified copy of the county canvassing board report to anyone who requests it upon payment of costs of reproduction actually incurred by the auditor's office. The auditor shall not take into account the general office expenses or other expenses.

Sec. 15. Minnesota Statutes 1981 Supplement, Section 204D.06, is amended to read:

204D.06 [CERTIFICATION OF NAMES BY SECRETARY OF STATE.]

At least ~~32~~ 42 days before a state primary, the secretary of state shall certify to the county auditors the names of all candidates who have properly filed affidavits of candidacy with the secretary of state and who will be voted for in their respective counties at that primary.

Sec. 16. Minnesota Statutes 1981 Supplement, Section 204D.11, Subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [WHITE BALLOT; RULES; REIMBURSEMENT.] The names of the candidates for all partisan offices voted on at the state general election ~~and candidates for the office of justice and chief justice of the supreme court~~ shall be placed on a single ballot printed on white paper which shall be known as the "white ballot". This ballot shall be prepared by the county auditor subject to the rules of the secretary of state. The state shall reimburse the counties for the cost of preparing the white ballot and the envelopes required for the returns of that ballot. The secretary of state shall adopt rules for preparation and time of delivery of the white ballot and for reimbursement of the counties' costs.

Sec. 17. Minnesota Statutes 1981 Supplement, Section 204D.11, Subdivision 5, is amended to read:

Subd. 5. [BALLOT HEADINGS.] The white, pink and special federal white ballot shall be headed with the words "State General Election Ballot". The canary ballot shall be headed with the words "~~County and Judicial District General Election Ballot~~ Ballot of Nonpartisan Candidates".

Sec. 18. Minnesota Statutes 1981 Supplement, Section 204D.14, is amended to read:

204D.14 [WHITE AND CANARY BALLOTS; NONPARTISAN OFFICES.]

Subdivision 1. [ROTATION OF NAMES.] The names of candidates for nonpartisan offices on the ~~white and~~ canary ~~ballots~~ ballot shall be rotated in the manner provided for rotation of names on state partisan primary ballots by section 204D.08, subdivision 3.

Subd. 2. [UNCONTESTED OFFICES.] Nonpartisan offices for which there is only one candidate shall appear after all contested offices on the ~~appropriate white or~~ canary ballot.

Sec. 19. Minnesota Statutes 1981 Supplement, Section 204D.15, Subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [DISTRIBUTION.] The pink ballot shall be provided in groups of 50. At least ~~15~~ 25 days before the state general election the secretary of state shall forward to the county auditor of each county sufficient ballots to enable the county auditor to comply with the absentee voting provisions of section 204B.28, subdivision 2. The county auditor shall give a receipt to the secretary of state stating the number of pink ballots and the date when they were received.

Sec. 20. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 205.02, is amended to read:

205.02 [~~APPLICATION~~ STATUTES APPLICABLE .]

Subdivision 1. [MINNESOTA ELECTION LAW.] Except as provided in ~~sections 205.01 to 205.17 all of~~ this chapter the provisions of the Minnesota election law ~~are applicable~~ apply to municipal elections, so far as practicable.

Subd. 2. [CITY ELECTIONS.] In all statutory and home rule charter cities, the primary, general and special elections held for choosing city officials and deciding public questions relating to the city shall be held as provided in this chapter, except that sections 205.02; section 2, subdivisions 2 to 7; 205.07 to 205.13 and sections 8 and 9 do not apply to a city whose charter provides the manner of holding its primary, general or special elections.

Sec. 21. Minnesota Statutes 1981 Supplement, Section 205.03, Subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [CITIES.] In all statutory and home rule charter city elections the governing body of the city, by resolution adopted prior to the giving of notice of the election, may designate the time, in no event less than three hours, during which the polling places will remain open for voting at the next succeeding and all subsequent city elections, until the resolution is revoked. Cities referred to in this subdivision shall make certification of election hours to the county auditor upon adoption of the resolution giving notice of election.

Sec. 22. Minnesota Statutes 1981 Supplement, Section 205.03, Subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [OTHER TOWNS.] In any election of town officers in a town other than a town described in subdivision 2, the town board, by resolution adopted prior to the giving of notice of the election, may designate the time, in no event less than three hours, during which the polling places will remain open for voting at the next succeeding and all subsequent town elections. The resolution shall remain in force until revoked by the town board. Towns referred to in this subdivision shall make certification of the election hours to the county auditor in January of each year.

Sec. 23. [205.065] [PRIMARY ELECTIONS.]

Subdivision 1. [CITIES OF FIRST CLASS.] A municipal primary for the purpose of nominating elective officers may be held in any city of the first class on the second or third Tuesday in March of any year in which a municipal general election is to be held for the purpose of electing officers.

If the majority of the governing body of a city of the first class adopted a resolution after June 24, 1957 establishing the second or third Tuesday in March for holding its municipal primary in any year in which its municipal general election is held, and if the city clerk or other officer of the city charged with keeping the minutes and records of the governing body filed a certified copy of the resolution with the secretary of state and another certified copy of the resolution with the county recorder of the county in which the city is located, the time established by the resolution for holding the municipal primary is fixed, and the governing body of the city may not change the time unless the authority to make the change is conferred on the governing body by the legislature, or by an amendment to the charter of the city duly ratified and accepted by the eligible voters of the city, in accordance with the constitution of the state of Minnesota, Article IV, Section 36, and other applicable law.

Subd. 2. [RESOLUTION OR ORDINANCE.] The governing body of a city of the second, third, or fourth class or a town containing a statutory city may, by ordinance or resolution adopted at least six weeks before the next municipal general election, elect to choose nominees for municipal offices by a primary as provided in subdivisions 2 to 7. The resolution or ordinance, when adopted, is effective for all ensuing municipal elections until it is revoked. Subdivisions 2 to 7 do not apply to a city the charter of which specifically prohibits or provides for a municipal primary.

Subd. 3. [DATE.] The municipal primary shall be held two weeks before the municipal general election or at another time designated by the governing body in the ordinance or resolution adopting the primary system. The clerk shall give notice of the primary in the manner provided in section 205.16.

Subd. 4. [CANDIDATES, FILING.] The clerk shall place upon the primary ballot without partisan designation the names of individuals whose candidacies have been filed and for whom the proper filing fee has been paid. When not more than twice the number of individuals to be elected to a municipal office file for nomination for the office, their names shall not be placed upon the primary ballot and shall be placed on the municipal general election ballot as the nominees for that office.

Subd. 5. [RESULTS.] The municipal primary shall be conducted and the returns made in the manner provided for the state primary so far as practicable. Within two days after the primary, the governing body of the municipality shall canvass the returns, and the two candidates for each office who receive the highest number of votes, or a number of candidates equal to twice the number of individuals to be elected to the office, who receive the highest number of votes, shall be the nominees for the office named. Their names shall be certified to the municipal clerk who shall place them on the municipal general election ballot without partisan designation and without payment of an additional fee.

Subd. 6. [RECOUNT.] A losing candidate at the municipal primary may request a recount of the votes for that nomination subject to the requirements of section 204C.36.

Subd. 7. [VACANCY IN NOMINATION.] When a vacancy occurs in a nomination made at a municipal primary, the vacancy shall be filled in the manner provided in section 204B.13.

Sec. 24. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 205.07, Subdivision 1, is amended to read:

205.07 [CITY GENERAL ELECTION.]

Subdivision 1. [DATE.] The ~~regular city~~ municipal general election in each statutory city shall be held ~~biennially~~ on the first Tuesday after the first Monday in November in every even-numbered year; except that the governing body of ~~any~~ a statutory city may, by ordinance passed at a regular meeting held before September 1 of any year, elect to hold the election on the first Tuesday after the first Monday in November in each odd-numbered year. ~~Any~~ A city which ~~is~~ was a village on January 1, 1974 and ~~has~~ before that date provided for a system of biennial elections in the odd-numbered year shall continue to hold its elections in that year until changed in accordance with this section. When a city changes its elections from one year to another, and does not provide ~~otherwise~~ for the expiration of terms by ordinance, the term of ~~any~~ an incumbent expiring at a time when no ~~city~~ municipal election is held in the months immediately prior ~~thereto~~ to expiration is extended until the date for taking office following the next scheduled ~~city~~ municipal election. If ~~such~~ the change results in having three councilmen to be elected at a succeeding election, the two ~~persons~~ individuals receiving the highest vote shall serve for terms of four years and the ~~person~~ individual receiving the third highest number of votes shall serve for a term of two years. To ~~the extent necessary to~~ provide ~~for~~ an orderly transition to the odd or even year election plan, the council may adopt supplementary ordinances regulating initial elections~~,~~ and officers to be chosen at ~~such~~ the elections~~,~~ and shortening or lengthening the terms of incumbents and those ~~so~~ elected at the initial election so as to conform as soon as possible to the regular schedule provided in section 412.02, subdivision 1. Whenever the time ~~for holding~~ of the ~~city~~ municipal election is changed, the city clerk immediately shall notify in writing the county auditor and secretary of state of the change of date~~; and~~ . Thereafter the ~~regular city~~ municipal general election shall be held on the first Tuesday after the first Monday in November in each odd-numbered or even-numbered year until the ordinance is revoked and ~~similar~~ notification of the change is made.

Sec. 25. Minnesota Statutes 1981 Supplement, Section 205.10, is amended to read:

205.10 [~~SPECIAL~~ CITY SPECIAL ELECTIONS.]

Subdivision 1. [QUESTIONS.] Special elections may be held in ~~any~~ a statutory or home rule charter city on ~~any~~ a question on which the voters are authorized by law or charter to pass judgment. A special election may be ordered by the city council on its own motion or, on a question that has not been submitted to the voters in an election within the previous six months ~~previously~~, upon a petition signed by a number of voters equal to 20 percent of the votes cast at the last ~~regular city~~ municipal general election. ~~No~~ A question ~~so submitted shall be deemed~~ is carried ~~without such a~~ only with the majority in its favor ~~as may be~~ required by law or charter ~~in the particular instance~~. The election officials for ~~any~~ a special election shall be the same as for the ~~last preceding regular city~~ most recent municipal general election unless changed according to law. Otherwise special elections shall be conducted and the returns made in the manner provided for the ~~regular~~ municipal general election. ~~This section is not applicable to any city the charter of which specifically prohibits or regulates the holding of special elections.~~

Subd. 2. [VACANCIES IN CITY OFFICES.] Special elections shall be held in statutory cities in conjunction with ~~regular city~~ municipal general elections to fill vacancies in elective city offices as provided in section 412.02, subdivision 2a.

Sec. 26. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 205.13, as amended by Laws 1981, Chapter 29, Article VII, Section 10, is amended to read:

205.13 [~~MUNICIPAL ELECTIONS.~~ CANDIDATES, FILING.]

Subdivision 1. [AFFIDAVIT OF CANDIDACY.] Not more than six nor less than four weeks before the municipal primary, or before the municipal general election if there is no municipal primary, ~~any~~ an individual who is eligible and ~~desiring~~ desires to have his name placed on the official ballot as a candidate for an office to be voted for at the election shall file his affidavit of candidacy with the municipal clerk. The affidavit shall be in substantially the same form as ~~required of candidates for state offices~~ that in section 204B.06, subdivision 1. The municipal clerk shall also accept an application ~~also may be~~ signed by not less than five voters and filed on behalf of ~~any~~ an eligible voter in the municipality whom they desire to be a candidate, if service of a copy of the application ~~is~~ has been made on the candidate and proof of service is endorsed on the application ~~before filing~~ being filed. Upon ~~payment~~ receipt of the proper filing fee ~~to the clerk~~, the clerk shall place the name of the candidate on the official ballot without partisan designation.

Subd. 2. [NOTICE OF FILING DATES.] At least two weeks before the first day to file affidavits of candidacy, the municipal clerk shall publish a notice stating the first and last dates on which affidavits of candidacy may be filed in ~~his~~ the clerk's office and the closing time for filing on the last day for filing~~, and he~~. The clerk shall post a similar notice at least ten days before the first day to file affidavits of candidacy.

Subd. 3. [FILING FEES.] Unless the charter of a city provides the amount of the fee for filing an application or affidavit of candidacy for city office, the filing fee for a municipal office is as follows:

(a) In first class cities, $20;

(b) In second and third class cities, $5; and

(c) In fourth class cities and towns, $2.

Subd. 4. [PETITION IN PLACE OF FEES.] A candidate for municipal office may file a petition in place of the filing fees specified in subdivision 3. The petition shall meet the requirements of section 204B.11, subdivision 2.

Subd. 5. [NOMINATING PETITION; CITIES OF THE FIRST CLASS.] A nominating petition filed on behalf of a candidate for municipal office in a city of the first class shall be signed by eligible voters who reside in the election district from which the candidate is to be elected. The number of signers shall be at least 500, or two percent of the total number of individuals who voted in the municipality, ward, or other election district at the last preceding municipal general election, whichever is greater.

Subd. 6. [WITHDRAWAL.] A candidate for a municipal elective office may withdraw from the election by filing an affidavit of withdrawal with the municipal clerk by 12 o'clock noon of the day after the last day for filing affidavits of candidacy. Thereafter, no candidate may file an affidavit of withdrawal.

Sec. 27. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 205.16, is amended to read:

205.16 [~~MUNICIPAL ELECTIONS,~~ NOTICE.]

Subdivision 1. [PUBLICATION AND POSTING.] In every statutory city and ~~every~~ home rule charter city, the charter of which does not provide the manner ~~in which~~ of giving notice of ~~an~~ a municipal election ~~is given for every election held within the city for municipal purposes~~, the city clerk shall, except as ~~hereinafter~~ otherwise provided in this section, ~~cause~~ give two weeks' published notice, and may also ~~cause~~ give ten days' posted notice, of the election, stating the time ~~and place thereof~~ of the election, the location of each polling place, the offices to be filled, and all propositions or questions to be voted upon at the election. In ~~any~~ a city of the fourth class~~,~~ the council may dispense with publication of the notice of the ~~regular city~~ municipal general election, in which case~~,~~ ten days' posted notice shall be given. The city clerk shall also post a copy of the notice in ~~his~~ the clerk's office for public inspection.

Subd. 2. [SAMPLE BALLOT, PUBLICATION.] In all statutory and home rule charter cities, for every municipal election ~~held within the city for munic-~~ ~~ipal purposes~~, the city clerk shall, at least one week before the election, publish a sample ballot in the official newspaper of the city, except that the council of ~~any~~ a fourth class city may dispense with publication.

Subd. 3. [SAMPLE BALLOT, POSTING.] For every municipal election ~~held within any municipality for municipal purposes,~~ the municipal clerk shall~~,~~ at least four days before the election~~,~~ post a sample ballot in ~~his~~ the clerk's office for public inspection, and ~~a~~ post a sample ballot ~~shall also be posted~~ in each polling place on election day.

Sec. 28. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 205.17, as amended by Laws 1981, Chapter 29, Article VII, Section 13, and Chapter 172, Section 2, is amended to read:

205.17 [~~CITY OR TOWN ELECTION,~~ BALLOTS~~,~~ ~~FORM~~.]

Subdivision 1. [SECOND, THIRD AND FOURTH CLASS CITIES; TOWNS.] In all statutory and home rule charter cities of the second, third and fourth class, and in all towns, for the ~~regular~~ municipal general election, the municipal clerk shall ~~prepare and cause to be~~ have printed on light green paper the official ballot ~~upon which~~ containing the names of all candidates for municipal offices ~~shall be printed~~. The ballot shall be printed in blocks of 50 ~~insofar as practicable~~, shall be headed "City or Town Election Ballot," ~~and~~ shall state the name of the city or town~~,~~ and the date of the election, and ~~otherwise~~ shall conform in other respects to the white ballot used at the general election. The names shall be arranged on city ballots in the manner provided for the state elections. On town ballots names of the candidates for each office shall be arranged alphabetically according to the ~~surname of each candidate~~ candidates' surnames.

Subd. 2. [FIRST CLASS CITIES.] In all cities of the first class, for the ~~regular~~ municipal general election, the city clerk shall ~~prepare and cause to be~~ have printed in blocks of 50 a partisan ballot upon which the names of all candidates for the office of mayor and for the city council are printed, and a nonpartisan ballot upon which the names of all candidates for all other city offices are printed. The partisan ballot shall be printed on light orange paper and shall be headed "~~Partisan~~ City ~~Election~~ Partisan General Ballot". The nonpartisan ballot shall be printed on light green paper and shall be headed "~~Nonpartisan~~ City ~~Election~~ Nonpartisan General Ballot". Both ballots shall state the name of the city~~,~~ and the date of the ~~elections~~ election and ~~otherwise~~ conform in all other respects to the white ballot used at the state general election. The names of the candidates on the nonpartisan ballot shall be rotated in the manner prescribed for the rotation of names on nonpartisan ballots in state general elections.

On the partisan ballot the ~~name~~ names of the candidates for mayor shall be placed first. The order of the names of the candidates shall be in the manner prescribed for state general elections in section 204D.13.

Subd. 3. [PRIMARY ~~ELECTION~~ BALLOTS.] The municipal primary ~~election~~ ballot ~~of~~ in cities of the second, third and fourth class and towns and the nonpartisan primary ballot in cities of the first class shall conform as far as practicable with the ~~regular~~ municipal general election ballot except that it shall be printed on white paper~~, and~~. No blank spaces ~~may not~~ shall be provided for writing in the names of candidates.

~~Subd. 4. The city of the first class nonpartisan primary election ballot shall conform as far as practicable with the regular municipal election ballot except that it shall be printed on white paper. The city of the first class~~ The partisan primary ~~election~~ ballot in cities of the first class shall conform as far as practicable with the state ~~consolidated~~ partisan primary ~~election~~ ballot.

Subd. ~~5~~ 4. [BLUE BALLOTS; QUESTIONS.] All questions relating to the adoption of a city charter or charter amendments ~~thereto,~~ or ~~any~~ a proposition for the issuance of bonds, and all other questions ~~and propositions~~ relating to city affairs submitted at ~~any~~ an election to the ~~electors~~ voters of the municipality, shall be printed on one separate blue ~~colored~~ ballot and shall be prepared, printed and distributed under the direction of the city clerk at the same time and in the same manner as other ~~city~~ municipal ballots. The ballots, when voted, shall be deposited in a separate blue ballot box~~, painted blue, to be procured~~ provided by the local authorities for each voting precinct. The ballots shall be canvassed, counted, and returned in the same manner as other ~~city~~ municipal ballots~~, and the tally books and~~. The returns shall provide appropriate blank spaces for the counting, canvassing and returning of the results of the questions submitted on the blue ballot.

Subd. ~~6~~ 5. [STATUTORY CITIES; VACANCIES.] In statutory cities, the names of candidates to fill vacancies at ~~any~~ a special election held as provided in section 412.02, subdivision 2a, shall be placed on the ~~city~~ municipal primary and ~~regular~~ general election ballots. The names of candidates to fill a vacancy in the office of councilman in a statutory city shall be listed under the separate heading "Special election for councilman to fill vacancy in term expiring .....", with the date of expiration of the term and any other information ~~as may be~~ necessary to distinguish the office. Under the heading for the office of mayor in a special election shall be the words "To fill vacancy in term expiring .....".

Sec. 29. [205.175] [VOTING HOURS.]

Subdivision 1. [CITIES.] In all statutory and home rule charter city elections the governing body of the city, by resolution adopted prior to giving notice of the election, may designate the time, in no event less than three hours, during which the polling places will remain open for voting at the next succeeding and all subsequent municipal elections, until the resolution is revoked.

Subd. 2. [METROPOLITAN AREA TOWNS.] At any election of town officers, in a town which is located within 60 miles of a city of the first class having a population of at least 250,000, the town board, by resolution adopted prior to giving notice of the election, may designate the time during which the polling places will remain open for voting at the next succeeding and all subsequent town elections, provided that the polling places shall open no later than 10:00 a.m. and shall close no earlier than 8:00 p.m. The resolution shall remain in force until it is revoked by the town board.

Subd. 3. [OTHER TOWNS.] In any election of town officers in a town other than a town described in subdivision 2, the town board, by resolution adopted prior to giving notice of the election, may designate the time, in no event less than three hours, during which the polling places will remain open for voting at the next succeeding and all subsequent town elections. The resolution shall remain in force until it is revoked by the town board.

Sec. 30. [205.185] [PROCEDURE.]

Subdivision 1. [MATERIALS, BALLOTS.] The municipal clerk shall prepare and have printed the necessary election materials, including ballots, for a municipal election.

Subd. 2. [ELECTION, CONDUCT.] A municipal election shall be by secret ballot and shall be held and the returns made in the manner provided for the state general election, so far as practicable.

Subd. 3. [CANVASS OF RETURNS, CERTIFICATE OF ELECTION, BALLOTS, DISPOSITION.] Within two days after an election, the governing body shall canvass the returns and declare the results of the election. After the time for contesting elections has passed, the municipal clerk shall issue a certificate of election to each successful candidate. In case of a contest, the certificate shall not be issued until the outcome of the contest has been determined by the proper court. In case of a tie vote, the governing body shall determine the result by lot. The clerk shall certify the results of the election to the county auditor, and the clerk shall be the final custodian of the ballots and the returns of the election.

Subd. 4. [RECOUNT.] A losing candidate at a municipal election may request a recount of the votes for that office subject to the requirements of section 204C.36.

Sec. 31. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 205.20, as amended by Laws 1981, Chapter 29, Article VII, Sections 14 and 15, is amended to read:

205.20 [UNIFORM MUNICIPAL ELECTION DAY.]

Subdivision 1. ~~[DEFINITION.] For the purposes of this section, the term municipality means a home rule charter city.~~

~~Subd. 2.~~ [~~UNIFORM MUNICIPAL ELECTION DAY ESTABLISHED~~ ESTABLISHMENT.] There is hereby established a uniform municipal election day for home rule charter cities. The uniform municipal election day shall be the first Tuesday after the first Monday in November in odd-numbered years. ~~Municipal~~ Officials elected on that date shall take office on the first business day of January next succeeding their election for ~~such~~ the term ~~as~~ which is provided by law ~~or as is hereinafter provided~~. The governing body of a ~~municipality~~ home rule charter city may designate a date for the municipal primary which is not less than 14 days before the uniform municipal election day.

Subd. ~~3~~ 2. [ADOPTION BY CITY.] Notwithstanding any provision of law or municipal charter to the contrary, and subject to the provisions of this section, the governing body of a ~~municipality~~ home rule charter city may adopt by ordinance ~~adopt~~ the uniform municipal election day as its municipal election day.

Subd. ~~4~~ 3. [MODIFICATION OF TERMS OF OFFICE.] If the uniform municipal election day is adopted, the terms of all incumbents who at the time of adoption of the ordinance ~~holding~~ hold offices filled by municipal election and whose terms end at a different date are ~~hereby~~ extended to the first business day in January of the even numbered year first following the date the term would otherwise expire, unless this extension would be longer than 13 months. If the extension would be longer than 13 months, the terms of ~~such~~ those incumbents are ~~hereby~~ shortened so as to end on the first business day in January of the even numbered year first preceding the date the term would otherwise expire.

Notwithstanding any provision of law or municipal charter to the contrary, the governing body of a ~~municipality~~ home rule charter city adopting the uniform municipal election day shall designate in the adopting ordinance ~~designate~~ a new term for each office to be filled where the term for ~~such~~ the office at the time of the ordinance is an odd number of years. ~~Such~~ The new terms shall be for an even number of years and for no more than one year longer than the term in effect at the time of the adoption of the ordinance. At the time of any election, the governing body may also provide that one or more members of ~~any~~ a multi-member body shall be elected for a shorter term than is otherwise provided, if and in the manner necessary to achieve staggered terms on ~~such~~ the multi-member ~~bodies~~ body so that, to the extent ~~mathematically~~ possible, ~~the same~~ an equal number of members is ~~thereafter~~ chosen at each election, exclusive of those chosen to fill vacancies for unexpired terms.

Subd. ~~5~~ 4. [EFFECT OF ORDINANCE; REFERENDUM.] An ordinance adopting the uniform municipal election day ~~shall not become~~ is effective ~~until~~ 90 days after passage and publication or at ~~such~~ a later date ~~as~~ is fixed in the ordinance. Within 60 days after passage and publication of ~~such an~~ the ordinance, a petition requesting a referendum on the ordinance may be filed with the ~~municipal~~ city clerk. The petition shall be signed by eligible voters equal in number to five percent of the total number of votes cast in the ~~municipality~~ city at the last state general election. If the ~~municipality~~ city has a system of permanent registration of voters, only registered voters are eligible to sign the petition. If the requisite petition is filed within the prescribed period, the ordinance shall not become effective until it is approved by ~~a majority of~~ at least 55 percent of the voters voting on the question at a general or special election held at least 60 days after submission of the petition. If the petition is filed, the governing body may reconsider its action in adopting the ordinance.

Sec. 32. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 205.84, is amended to read:

205.84 [WARDS IN CERTAIN CITIES.]

Subdivision 1. [GENERAL PROVISIONS.] In ~~any~~ a statutory city electing councilmen by wards, wards shall be as equal in population as practicable and each ward shall be composed of compact, contiguous territory. Each councilman shall be a resident of the ward for which he is elected, but a change in ward boundaries does not disqualify a councilman from serving for the remainder of his term.

Subd. 2. [REDEFINING WARD BOUNDARIES.] The council may by ordinance redefine ward boundaries after ~~any regular~~ a municipal general election. The council shall hold a public hearing on the proposed ordinance before its adoption. One week's published notice of the hearing shall be given. Within six months after the official certification of each federal decennial or special census, the council shall either confirm the existing ward boundaries as conforming to the standards of subdivision 1 or redefine ward boundaries to conform to those standards. If the council fails to take either action within the time required, no further compensation shall be paid to the mayor or councilmen until the wards of the city are either reconfirmed or redefined as required by this section. An ordinance establishing new ward boundaries shall apply to the first election held at least six months after adoption of the ordinance. ~~No redivision of the city into wards shall be made until the council has held a public hearing on the proposed ordinance after one week's published notice.~~

MOTIONS AND RESOLUTIONS

Mr. Moe, R.D. introduced—

Senate Resolution No. 87: A Senate resolution relating to conduct of Senate business during the interim between Sessions.

BE IT RESOLVED, by the Senate of the State of Minnesota:

The powers, duties, and procedures set forth in this resolution apply during the interim between the adjournment sine die of the 72nd Legislature, 1982 Session, and the convening of the 73rd Legislature, 1983 Session.

The Committee on Rules and Administration may, from time to time, assign to the various committees and subcommittees of the Senate, in the interim, matters brought to its attention by any member of the Senate for study and investigation. The standing committees and subcommittees may study and investigate all subjects that come within their usual jurisdiction, as provided by Minnesota Statutes, Section 3.921. A committee shall carry on its work by subcommittee or by committee action as the committee from time to time determines. Any study undertaken by any of the standing committees, or any subcommittee thereof, shall be coordinated to the greatest extent possible with other standing committees or subcommittees of the Senate and House of Representatives, and may, if the committee or subcommittee so determines, be carried on jointly with another committee or subcommittee of the Senate or House of Representatives.

The Subcommittee on Committees of the Committee on Rules and Administration shall appoint persons as necessary to fill any vacancies that may occur in committees, commissions, and other bodies whose members are to be appointed by the Senate authorized by rule, statute, resolution, or otherwise. The Subcommittee on Committees may appoint members of the Senate to assist in the work of any committee.

The Committee on Rules and Administration shall establish positions, set compensation and benefits, appoint employees, and authorize expense reimbursement as it deems proper to carry out the work of the Senate.

The Committee on Rules and Administration may authorize members of the Senate and personnel employed by the Senate to travel and to attend courses of instruction or conferences for the purpose of improving and making more efficient Senate operation and may reimburse these persons for the costs thereof out of monies appropriated to the Senate for the standing committees.

All members of activated standing committees or subcommittees of the Senate, and staff, shall be reimbursed for all expenses actually and necessarily incurred in the performance of their duties during the interim in the manner provided by law. Payment shall be made by the Secretary of the Senate out of monies appropriated to the Senate for the standing committees. The Committee on Rules and Administration shall determine the amount and manner of reimbursement for living and other expenses of each member of the Senate incurred in the performance of his duties when the Legislature is not in regular session.

The Secretary of the Senate shall continue to perform his duties during the interim. During the interim, but not including time which may be spent in any special session, the Secretary of the Senate shall be paid for services rendered the Senate at the rate established for that position for the 1982 regular session, unless otherwise directed by the Committee on Rules and Administration, plus travel and subsistence expense incurred incidental to his Senate duties, including salary and travel expense incurred in attending meetings of the American Society of Legislative Clerks and Secretaries and the National Conference of State Legislatures.

Should a vacancy occur in the position of Secretary of the Senate, by resignation or other causes, the Committee on Rules and Administration shall appoint an acting Secretary of the Senate who shall serve in such capacity during the remainder of the interim under the provisions herein specified.

The Secretary of the Senate is authorized to employ after the close of the session the employees necessary to finish the business of the Senate at the salaries paid under the rules of the Senate for the 1982 regular session. He is authorized to employ the necessary employees to prepare for the 1983 session at the salaries in effect at that time.

The Secretary of the Senate shall classify as "permanent" for purposes of Minnesota Statutes, Sections 3.095 and 43A.24 those Senate employees heretofore or hereafter certified as "permanent" by the Committee on Rules and Administration.

The Secretary of the Senate, as authorized and directed by the Committee on Rules and Administration, shall furnish each member of the Senate with postage and supplies, and may reimburse each member for long distance telephone calls and answering services upon proper verification of the expenses incurred, and for other expenses authorized from time to time by the Committee on Rules and Administration.

The Secretary of the Senate shall correct and approve the Journal of the Senate for those days that have not been corrected and approved by the Senate, and shall correct printing errors found in the Journal of the Senate for the 72nd Legislature. He may include in the Senate Journal proceedings of the last day, appointments by the Subcommittee on Committees to interim commissions created by legislative action, permanent commissions or committees established by statute, standing committees, official communications and other matters of record received on or after adjournment sine die.

The Secretary of the Senate may pay election and litigation costs as authorized by the Committee on Rules and Administration.

The Secretary of the Senate, with the approval of the Committee on Rules and Administration, shall secure bids and enter into contracts for the printing of the daily Senate journals, bills, general orders, special orders, calendars, resolutions, printing and binding of the permanent Senate Journal, shall secure bids and enter into contracts for remodeling, improvement and furnishing of Senate office space, conference rooms and the Senate Chamber and shall purchase all supplies, equipment and other goods and services necessary to carry out the work of the Senate. Any contracts in excess of $5,000 shall be signed by the Chairman of the Committee on Rules and Administration and another member designated by the Committee on Rules and Administration.

The Secretary of the Senate shall draw warrants from the legislative expense fund in payment of the accounts herein referred to.

All Senate records, including committee books, are subject to the direction of the Committee on Rules and Administration.

The Senate Chamber, retiring room, committee rooms, all conference rooms, storage rooms, Secretary of the Senate's office, Rules and Administration office, and any and all other space assigned to the Senate shall be reserved for use by the Senate and its standing committees only and shall not be released or used for any other purpose except upon authorization of the Secretary of the Senate with the approval of the Committee on Rules and Administration, or the Chairman thereof.

The custodian of the Capitol shall continue to provide parking space through the Secretary of the Senate for members and staff of the Minnesota State Senate on Aurora Avenue and other areas as may be required during the interim. The Secretary of the Senate may deduct from the check of any legislator or legislative employee a sum adequate to cover the exercise of the parking privilege herein defined in conformity with the practice of the department of administration.

EXECUTIVE AND OFFICIAL COMMUNICATIONS

March 18, 1982

The Honorable Jack Davies
President of the Senate

Dear Senator Davies:

Returned to you unsigned please find Senate File 1689.

Section 2, Subdivision 3 of the bill grants to the Legislative Auditor the power to approve, reject or modify any contract entered into by a State agency with a public accountant for the purpose of performing an audit. I believe that this is an unconstitutional intrusion by the legislative branch of government into the administrative decision-making process which is properly and constitutionally the prerogative of the executive branch of government.

Article III, Section 1 of the Constitution of the State of Minnesota provides that the powers of government are to be divided into three distinct departments: the legislative, executive and judicial. That section also provides as follows: "No person or persons belonging to or constituting one of these departments shall exercise any of the powers properly belonging to either of the others except in the instances expressly provided in this Constitution."

The Minnesota Supreme Court in the Matter of Application of Senate, 1865, 10 Minn. 78 (Gil. 56), stated as follows:

> The departments are independent of each other to the extent, at least, that neither can exercise any of the powers of the others not expressly provided for. This not only prevents an assumption by either department of power not properly belonging to it, but also prohibits the imposition, by one, of any duty of either of the others not within the scope of its juridiction; and 'it is the duty of each to abstain from and to oppose encroachment on either.' Any departure from these important principles must be attended with evil. (emphasis added)

I do not question the right of the Legislative Auditor to review the records of all State departments, boards, commissions and agencies, including audits conducted by public accountants of the affairs of those entities. However, the selection of a public accountant is an administrative function which is the constitutional reponsibility of the executive branch.

For the foregoing reasons, Senate File 1689 is hereby vetoed.

Sincerely,

Albert H. Quie, Governor

RECESS

Mr. Moe, R.D. moved that the Senate do now recess subject to the call of the President. The motion prevailed.

After a brief recess, the President called the Senate to order.

SUSPENSION OF RULES

Mr. Moe, R.D. moved that the rules of the Senate be so far suspended that S.F. No. 2169 be made a Special Order for immmediate consideration. The motion prevailed.

SPECIAL ORDER

S.F. No. 2169: A bill for an act relating to legislative enactments; correcting erroneous, ambiguous, omitted and obsolete references and text; correcting miscellaneous oversights, inconsistencies, ambiguities, unintended results and errors of a noncontroversial nature in the 1982 regular session and the third special session of 1981; amending Minnesota Statutes 1981 Supplement, Section 290.09, Subdivision 7, as amended.

Mr. Peterson, R.W. moved to amend S.F. No. 2169, as follows:

Delete everything after the enacting clause and insert:

"Section 1. [REPEALER.]

H.F. No. 1663, Section 1, as enacted at the 1982 regular session, is repealed.

Sec. 2. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 475.61, Subdivision 3, if H.F. No. 1555, Article IV, Section 17, is enacted at the 1982 regular session, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [IRREVOCABILITY.] Tax levies so made and filed shall be irrevocable, except as provided in this subdivision.

In each year when there is on hand any excess amount in the debt service fund of a school district at the time the district makes its property tax levies, the amount of the excess shall be certified by the school board to the county auditor and the auditor shall reduce the ~~amount~~ tax levy otherwise to be included in the rolls next prepared by the amount certified, unless the school board determines that the excess amount is necessary to ensure the prompt and full payment of the obligations and any call premium on the obligations, or will be used for redemption of the obligations in accordance with their terms. An amount shall be presumed to be excess ~~if~~ for a school district in the amount that it, together with the levy required by subdivision 1, will exceed 106 percent in excess of the amount needed to meet when due the principal and interest payments on the obligations due before the second following July 1. This subdivision shall not limit a school board's authority to specify a tax levy in a higher amount if necessary because of anticipated tax delinquency.

If the governing body, including the governing body of a school district, in any year makes an irrevocable appropriation to the debt service fund of moneys actually on hand or if there is on hand any excess amount in the debt service fund, the recording officer may certify to the county auditor the fact and amount thereof and the auditor shall reduce by the amount so certified the amount otherwise to be included in the rolls next thereafter prepared.

Sec. 3. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 244.09, Subdivision 2, if H.F. No. 492, Section 3, is enacted by the 1982 regular session, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. The sentencing guidelines commission shall consist of the following:

(1) The chief justice of the supreme court or his designee;

(2) Two district court judges appointed by the chief justice of the supreme court;

(3) One public defender appointed by the governor upon recommendation of the state public defender;

(4) One county attorney appointed by the governor upon recommendation of the board of governors of the county attorneys council;

(5) The commissioner of corrections or his designee;

(6) The chairman of the Minnesota corrections board or the board of supervised release or his designee;

(7) One peace officer as defined in section 626.84 appointed by the governor;

(8) One probation officer or parole officer appointed by the governor; and

(9) Two public members appointed by the governor.

One of the members shall be designated by the governor as chairman of the commission.

Sec. 4. S.F. No. 1818, if enacted by the 1982 regular session, is amended by adding a section to read:

Sec. 6. [EFFECTIVE DATE.]

Sections 1 to 5 are effective the day following final enactment.

Sec. 5. S.F. No. 1538, Section 13, if enacted by the 1982 regular session is amended to read:

Sec. 13. [EFFECTIVE DATE.]

Sections 1 to ~~9~~ 12 are effective the day after final enactment. The elected law enforcement officers serving in office on the effective date of this act shall serve until the expiration of their terms of office.

Sec. 6. H.F. No. 552, as enacted by the 1982 regular session is repealed.

Sec. 7. [327.131] [FRAUD.]

A person who (1) obtains food, lodging, or other accommodations at a recreational camping area without paying for it, and with intent to defraud the owner or manager of the recreational camping area or (2) obtains credit at a recreational camping area by or through any false pretense, or by or through the aid, assistance, or influence of any baggage or effects in his possession and control, but not actually belonging to him, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor.

Sec. 8. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 327.14, Subdivision 8, is amended to read:

Subd. 8. [RECREATIONAL CAMPING AREA.] ~~The words~~ "Recreational camping area" as used in sections ~~327.07~~, 327.10, 327.11, 7, 327.14 to 327.28 ~~shall mean~~ means any area, whether privately or publicly owned, used on a daily, nightly, weekly, or longer basis for the accommodation of five or more units, consisting of tents, travel trailers, pick-up coaches, motor-homes, or camping trailers and whether use of ~~such~~ the accommodation is granted free of charge or for compensation. Provided, that nothing in this definition shall be ~~constructed~~ construed to include children's camps, industrial camps, migrant labor camps, as defined in Minnesota Statutes and state commissioner of health regulations and also shall not include United States forest service camps, state forest service camps, state wildlife management areas or state owned public access areas which are restricted in use to picnicking and boat landing.

Sec. 9. Minnesota Statutes 1981 Supplement, Section 273.13, Subdivision 9, if H.F. No. 1872 is enacted at the 1982 regular session, is amended to read:

Subd. 9. [CLASS 4A, 4B, 4C, AND 4D.] (1) All property not included in the preceding classes shall constitute class 4a and shall be valued and assessed at 43 percent of the market value thereof, except as otherwise provided in this subdivision.

(2) Real property which is not improved with a structure and which is not utilized as part of a commercial or industrial activity shall constitute class 4b and shall be valued and assessed at 40 percent of market value.

(3) Commercial and industrial property, except as provided in this subdivision, shall constitute class 4c and shall be valued and assessed at 40 percent of the first $50,000 of market value and 43 percent of the remainder, provided that in the case of state-assessed commercial or industrial property owned by one person or entity, only one parcel shall qualify for the 40 percent assessment, and in the case of other commercial or industrial property owned by one person or entity, only one parcel in each county shall qualify for the 40 percent assessment.

(4) Industrial employment property defined in section ~~2~~ 3, during the period provided in section ~~2~~ 3, shall constitute class 4d and shall be valued and assessed at 20 percent of the first $50,000 of market value and 21.5 percent of the remainder.

Sec. 10. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 123.933, Subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. (a) The cost per pupil of the textbooks, individualized instructional materials and standardized tests provided for in this section for each school year shall not exceed the statewide average expenditure per pupil, adjusted pursuant to clause (b), by the Minnesota public elementary and secondary schools for textbooks, individualized instructional materials and standardized tests as computed and established by the department of education by March 1 of the preceding school year from the most recent public school year data then available.

(b) The cost computed in clause (a) shall be increased by an inflation adjustment equal to the percent of increase in the foundation aid formula allowance, pursuant to section ~~124.212~~ 124.2122, subdivision 1, from the second preceding school year to the current school year.

(c) The commissioner shall allot to the school districts or intermediary service areas the total cost for each school year of providing or loaning the textbooks, individualized instructional materials and standardized tests for the pupils in each nonpublic school. The allotment shall not exceed the product of the statewide average expenditure per pupil, adjusted pursuant to clause (b), multiplied by the number of nonpublic school pupils who make requests pursuant to this section and who are enrolled as of September 15 of the current school year.

Sec. 11. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 340.951, if S.F. No. 358, Section 8, is enacted at the 1982 regular session, is amended to read:

340.951 [NOTICE OF INJURY.]

Every person who claims damages, and every person or his insurer who claims contribution or indemnity, from any municipality owning and operating a municipal liquor store or from the licensee of any licensed ~~liquor~~ establishment for the sale of intoxicating liquor or non-intoxicating malt liquor for or on account of any injury within the scope of section 340.95, shall give a written notice to the governing body of the municipality or the licensee ~~of the liquor establishment~~, as the case may be, stating:

(1) The time and date when, and person to whom the liquor was sold or bartered;

(2) The name and address of the person or persons who were injured or whose property was damaged;

(3) The approximate time and date and the place where any injury to person or property occurred. Every municipality or licensee who claims contribution or indemnification from any other licensee or municipality shall give a written notice in the form and manner specified in this section to the other municipality or licensee.

No error or omission in the notice shall void the effect of the notice, if otherwise valid, unless the error or omission is of a substantially material nature.

In the case of claims for contribution or indemnity this notice shall be served within 120 days after the injury occurs, or within 60 days after receiving written notice of a claim for contribution or indemnity, whichever is applicable, and no action for contribution or indemnity therefor shall be maintained unless the notice has been given. In the case of a claim for damages the notice shall be served by the claimant's attorney within 120 days of the date of entering an attorney-client relationship with the person in regard to the claim, and no action for damages shall be maintained unless the notice has been given.

Actual notice of sufficient facts to reasonably put the governing body of the municipality or the licensee ~~of the liquor establishment~~, as the case may be, or its insurer, on notice of a possible claim, shall be construed to comply with the notice requirements herein.

No action shall be maintained for injury under section 340.95 unless commenced within two years after the injury.

Sec. 12. H.F. No. 1025, if enacted by the 1982 regular session, is amended by adding a section to read:

Sec. 4. [EFFECTIVE DATE.]

Section 2 is effective for sales of motorized bicycles occurring after the day following final enactment of sections 1 to 4.

Sec. 13. Minnesota Statutes 1981 Supplement, Section 56.12, if H.F. No. 1576 is enacted at the 1982 regular session, is amended to read:

56.12 [ADVERTISING; TAKING OF SECURITY; PLACE OF BUSINESS.]

No licensee shall advertise, print, display, publish, distribute, or broadcast, or cause or permit to be advertised, printed, displayed, published, distributed, or broadcast, in any manner any statement or representation with regard to the rates, terms, or conditions for the lending of money, credit, goods, or things in action which is false, misleading, or deceptive. The commissioner may order any licensee to desist from any conduct which he shall find to be a violation of the foregoing provisions.

The commissioner may require that rates of charge, if stated by a licensee, be stated fully and clearly in such manner as he may deem necessary to prevent misunderstanding thereof by prospective borrowers. A statement of rates of charge that meets the requirements of the federal Truth-in-Lending Act and regulations thereunder shall be deemed full compliance with this section.

A licensee may take a lien upon real estate as security for any loan exceeding $2,700 in principal amount made under this chapter. The provisions of sections 47.20 and 47.21 do not apply to loans made under this chapter, except as provided in this section. No loan secured by a first lien on a borrower's primary residence shall be made pursuant to this section if the proceeds of the loan are used to finance the purchase of the borrower's primary residence, unless:

(1) the proceeds of the loan are used to finance the purchase of a manufactured home; or

(2) the proceeds of the loan are used in whole or in part to satisfy the balance owed on a contract for deed. The rate of interest charged on such a loan made after August 1, 1984, shall not exceed the rate provided in section 47.20, subdivision 4a.

If the proceeds of the loan are used to finance the purchase of the borrower's primary residence, the licensee shall consent to the subsequent transfer of the real estate if the existing borrower continues after transfer to be obligated for repayment of the entire remaining indebtedness. The licensee shall release the existing borrower from all obligations under the loan instruments, if the transferee (1) meets the standards of credit worthiness normally used by persons in the business of making loans, including but not limited to the ability of the transferee to make the loan payments and satisfactorily maintain the property used as collateral, and (2) executes an agreement in writing with the licensee whereby the transferee assumes the obligations of the existing borrower under the loan instruments. Any such agreement shall not affect the priority, validity or enforceability of any loan instrument. A licensee may charge a fee not in excess of one-tenth of one percent of the remaining unpaid principal balance in the event the loan is assumed by the transferee and the existing borrower continues after the transfer to be obligated for repayment of the entire assumed indebtedness. A licensee may charge a fee not in excess of one percent of the remaining unpaid principal balance in the event the remaining indebtedness is assumed by the transferee and the existing borrower is released from all obligations under the loan instruments, but in no event shall the fee exceed $150.

A licensee making a loan under this chapter secured by a ~~loan~~ lien on real estate shall comply with the requirements of section 47.20, subdivision 8.

No licensee shall conduct the business of making loans under this chapter within any office, room, or place of business in which any other business is solicited or engaged in, or in association or conjunction therewith, if the commissioner finds that the character of the other business is such that it would facilitate evasions of this chapter or of the rules and regulations lawfully made hereunder. The commissioner may promulgate rules dealing with such other businesses.

No licensee shall transact the business or make any loan provided for by this chapter under any other name or at any other place of business than that named in the license. No licensee shall take any confession of judgment or any power of attorney. No licensee shall take any note or promise to pay that does not accurately disclose the principal amount of the loan, the time for which it is made, and the agreed rate or amount of charge, nor any instrument in which blanks are left to be filled in after execution. Nothing herein is deemed to prohibit the making of loans by mail.

Sec. 14. S.F. No. 1451, Section 20, Subdivision 1, if enacted at the 1982 regular session, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [AUTHORITY.] Any agreement under section 471.59 to jointly or cooperatively manage or plan for the management of surface water as required by sections 18 to 25 may provide for a joint board having:

(a) the authority to prepare and adopt a plan meeting the requirements of section 21;

(b) the authority to review and approve local water management plans as provided in section 22;

(c) the authority of a watershed district under chapter 112 to regulate the use and development of land when one or more of the following conditions exists: (1) the local government unit exercising planning and zoning authority over the land under sections 366.10 to 366.19, 394.21 to 394.37, or 462.351 to 462.364, does not have a local water management plan approved and adopted in accordance with the requirements of section ~~11~~ 22 or has not adopted the implementation program described in the plan; (2) an application to the local government unit for a permit for the use and development of land requires an amendment to or variance from the adopted local water management plan or implementation program of the local unit; (3) the local government unit has authorized the organization to require permits for the use and development of land.

(d) other powers necessary to exercise the authority under clauses (a) to (c), including the power to enter into contracts for the performance of functions with governmental units or persons.

Sec. 15. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 62C.142, Subdivision 3, if S.F. No. 1706 is enacted at the 1982 regular session, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [APPLICATION.] Subdivision 1 applies to every subscriber contract which is delivered, issued for delivery, renewed or amended on or after July 19, 1977.

Subdivisions 2 and 2a apply to every subscriber contract which is delivered, issued for delivery, renewed, or amended on or after ~~August 1, 1982~~ March 1, 1983.

Sec. 16. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 62D.101, Subdivision 3, if S.F. No. 1706 is enacted at the 1982 regular session, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [APPLICATION.] Subdivision 1 applies to every health maintenance contract which is delivered, issued for delivery, renewed or amended on or after July 19, 1977.

Subdivisions 2 and 2a apply to every health maintenance contract which is delivered, issued for delivery, renewed, or amended on or after ~~August 1, 1982~~ March 1, 1983.

Sec. 17. Laws 1981, Third Special Session Chapter 2, Article IV, Section 1, if H.F. No. 1555, Article VII, Section 3, is enacted at the 1982 regular session, is amended to read:

Subd. 4a. [LEVY RECOGNITION .]

(a) "School district tax settlement revenue" means the current, delinquent, and mobile home property tax receipts collected by the county and distributed to the school district, including distributions made pursuant to section 279.37, subdivision 7, and excluding the amount levied pursuant to section 275.125, subdivision 9a, and Laws 1976, Chapter 20, Section 4.

(b) In June of each year, the school district shall recognize as revenue, in the fund for which the levy was made, the lesser of:

(1) the June and July school district tax settlement revenue received in that calendar year; or

(2) the sum of the state aids and credits enumerated in section 9 of this article which are for the fiscal year payable in that fiscal year; or

(3) one-sixth of the amount of the spread levy in the current calendar year, not including levy portions that are assumed by the state, which remains after subtracting, by fund, the amounts levied for the following purposes:

(i) reducing or eliminating projected deficits in the appropriated fund balance accounts for unemployment insurance and bus purchases;

(ii) statutory operating debt pursuant to section 275.125, subdivision 9a, and Laws 1976, Chapter 20, Section 4; and

(iii) retirement and severance pay pursuant to section 275.125, subdivision 6a, and Laws 1975, Chapter 261, Section 4;

(iv) amounts levied for bonds issued and interest thereon, amounts levied for debt service loans and capital loans, and amounts levied pursuant to section 275.125, subdivision 14a.

(c) In July of each year, the school district shall recognize as revenue that portion of the school district tax settlement revenue received in that calendar year and not recognized as revenue for the previous fiscal year pursuant to clause (b).

(d) All other school district tax settlement revenue shall be recognized as revenue in the fiscal year of the settlement. Portions of the school district levy assumed by the state, including prior year adjustments and the amount to fund the school portion of the reimbursement made pursuant to section 273.425, shall be recognized as revenue in the fiscal year beginning in the calendar year for which the levy is payable.

Sec. 18. Minnesota Statutes 1981 Supplement, Section 124.73, Subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. The board of any school district may borrow money upon negotiable tax anticipation certificates of indebtedness, in the manner and subject to the limitations set forth in sections 124.71 to 124.76, for the purpose of anticipating general taxes theretofore levied by the district for school purposes, but the aggregate of such borrowing under this subdivision shall never exceed 50 percent of such taxes which are due and payable in the calendar year, and as to which taxes no penalty for nonpayment or delinquency has attached. In determining the amount of taxes due and payable in the calendar year, any amounts paid by the state to replace such taxes, whether paid in that calendar year or not, shall be included.

Sec. 19. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 475.55, Subdivision 2, if H.F. No. 1872, Article III, Section 2, is enacted at the 1982 regular session, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [SUPERSESSION.] The provisions of this section shall supersede any maximum interest rate fixed by any other law or a city charter with respect to obligations of the state or any municipality or governmental or public subdivision, district, corporation, commission, board, council, or authority of whatsoever kind, including warrants or orders issued in evidence of allowed claims for property or services furnished to the issuer, but shall not limit the interest on any obligation issued pursuant to a law or charter authorizing the issuer to determine the rate or rates of interest.

Sec. 20. Minnesota Statutes 1981 Supplement, Section 124.2125, Subdivision 1, as amended by Laws 1981, Third Special Session Chapter 2, Article II, Section 8, if H.F. No. 1555 is enacted at the 1982 regular session, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [DISCRETIONARY ALLOWANCE; DEFINITION.] "Discretionary allowance" means the amount of revenue per pupil unit used to compute discretionary aid for a particular school year and the discretionary levy for use in that school year. The discretionary allowance shall equal the formula allowance for the school year times the ratio of the discretionary mill rate to the basic maintenance mill rate for levies for use in that school year, rounded to the nearest cent. However, the discretionary allowance for the 1982-1983 school year shall be computed as though the formula allowance were $1,416 and the basic maintenance mill rate were .023.

Sec. 21. [EFFECT OF AMENDMENTS ON REPEALS BY THIS ACT.]

Regardless of the order of final enactment of this act and the acts it amends, the amendments or repeals in this act shall be given effect. Notwithstanding Minnesota Statutes, Sections 645.26, Subdivision 3, 645.33, or other law, an amendment in this act shall prevail over any other act amending the same provisions of law in an irreconcilable manner.

Sec. 22. [EFFECTIVE DATE.]

Sections 4, 8, 10, 12, 18, 19 and 21 are effective the day following final enactment. Section 1 is effective on the effective date of H.F. No. 1663, Section 1, as enacted at the 1982 regular session. Section 2 is effective July 1, 1982. Section 3 is effective January 24, 1983. Section 9 is effective July 1, 1983. Section 11 is effective the day following final enactment of S.F. No. 358 enacted at the 1982 regular session. Sections 13 and 14 are effective August 1, 1982. Sections 15 and 16 are effective March 1, 1983. Sections 17 and 20 are effective July 1, 1982.''

Amend the title as follows:

Page 1, delete lines 8 and 9, and insert:

''amending Minnesota Statutes 1980, Sections 62C.142, Subdivision 3; 62D.101, Subdivision 3; 123.933, Subdivision 3; 244.09, Subdivision 2, as amended; 327.14, Subdivision 8; 340.951, as amended; 475.61, Subdivision 3, as amended; Minnesota Statutes 1981 Supplement, Sections 56.12; 124.2125, Subdivision 1, as amended; 124.73, Subdivision 1; 273.13, Subdivision 9, as amended; 475.55, Subdivision 2, as amended; Laws 1981, Third Special Session Chapter 2, Article IV, Section 1, as amended; Laws enacted at the 1982 regular session styled as S.F. Nos. 1451, Section 20, Subdivision 1; 1538, Section 13; 1818, by adding a section; H.F. No. 1025; proposing new law coded in Minnesota Statutes, Chapter 327; repealing laws enacted at the 1982 regular session styled as H.F. Nos. 552 and 1663, Section 1.''

The motion prevailed. So the amendment was adopted.

Mr. Peterson, R.W. then moved to amend the Peterson, R.W. amendment to S.F. No. 2169, adopted by the Senate March 19, 1982, as follows:

''Sec. 22. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 152.01, Subdivision 18, if S.F. No. 1758 is enacted by the 1982 regular session, is amended to read:

Subd. 18. [DRUG PARAPHERNALIA.] ''Drug paraphernalia'' means all equipment, products, and materials of any kind, except those items used in conjunction with permitted uses of controlled substances under this chapter or the Uniform Controlled Substances Act, which are knowingly or intentionally used primarily in (1) manufacturing a controlled substance, (2) injecting, ingesting, inhaling, or otherwise introducing into the human body a controlled substance, (3) testing the strength, effectiveness, or purity of a controlled substance, or (4) enhancing the effect of a controlled substance."

Page 13, line 9, after the period, insert "Section 22 is effective August 1, 1982."

Renumber the sections in sequence

Amend the title amendment as follows:

Page 13, line 12, before "amending" insert "redefining drug paraphernalia to exclude items used in conjunction with permitted uses under the controlled substance law;"

Page 13, line 14, after "3;" insert "152.01, Subdivision 18, as amended;"

The motion prevailed. So the amendment to the amendment was adopted.

S.F. No. 2169: A bill for an act relating to legislative enactments; correcting erroneous, ambiguous, omitted and obsolete references and text; correcting miscellaneous oversights, inconsistencies, ambiguities, unintended results and errors of a noncontroversial nature in the 1982 regular session and the third special session of 1981; redefining drug paraphernalia to exclude items used in conjunction with permitted uses under the controlled substance law; amending Minnesota Statutes 1980, Sections 62C.142, Subdivision 3; 62D.101, Subdivision 3; 123.933, Subdivision 3; 152.01, Subdivision 18, as amended; 244.09, Subdivision 2, as amended; 327.14, Subdivision 8; 340.951, as amended; 475.61, Subdivision 3, as amended; Minnesota Statutes 1981 Supplement, Sections 56.12; 124.2125, Subdivision 1, as amended; 124.73, Subdivision 1; 273.13, Subdivision 9, as amended; 475.55, Subdivision 2, as amended; Laws 1981, Third Special Session Chapter 2, Article IV, Section 1, as amended; Laws enacted at the 1982 regular session styled as S.F. Nos. 1451, Section 20, Subdivision 1; 1538, Section 13; 1818, by adding a section; H.F. No. 1025; proposing new law coded in Minnesota Statutes, Chapter 327; repealing laws enacted at the 1982 regular session styled as H.F. Nos. 552 and 1663, Section 1.

Was read the third time, as amended, and placed on its final passage.

The question was taken on the passage of the bill, as amended.

The roll was called, and there were yeas 54 and nays 0, as follows:

Those who voted in the affirmative were:

Ashbach	Davis	Knoll	Pehler	Sikorski
Bang	Dicklich	Kronebusch	Penny	Solon
Belanger	Dieterich	Langseth	Peterson,D.L.	Spear
Benson	Engler	Lantry	Peterson,R.W.	Stern

A bill for an act relating to education; changing the requirements for membership on the higher education coordinating board; allowing the regional management information centers to be considered governmental units for purposes of the joint powers law; requiring the approval of a plan for spending federal education block grant funds for state administrative purposes; allowing the immigration history research center to use donated services or donated property to meet its matching requirements; broadening the planning process relating to declining enrollments in higher education; repealing mandates; amending Minnesota Statutes 1980, Sections 136A.02, Subdivision 1; 471.59, by adding a subdivision; Laws 1981, Chapter 359, Section 2, Subdivision 8; and Section 9, Subdivision 12; Third Special Session Chapter 2, Article I, Section 6, Subdivision 1; repealing Minnesota Statutes, Sections 120.17, Subdivision 10; and 121.12.

March 18, 1982

The Honorable Harry A. Sieben, Jr.
Speaker of the House of Representatives

The Honorable Jack Davies
President of the Senate

We, the undersigned conferees for H.F. No. 2190, report that we have agreed upon the items in dispute and recommend as follows:

That the Senate recede from its amendments and that House File No. 2190 be further amended as follows:

Delete everything after the enacting clause and insert:

"ARTICLE I

STATE AGENCY APPROPRIATION REDUCTIONS

Section 1. [APPROPRIATION REDUCTIONS: SUMMARY.]

The sums set forth in the columns designated "APPROPRIATION REDUCTIONS" are reduced from the various general fund appropriations to the specified agencies. The figures "1982" or "1983" whenever used in this article, mean that the listed appropriation reductions are from the appropriations for the years ending June 30, 1982 or June 30, 1983, respectively.

SUMMARY OF REDUCTIONS BY FUNCTION

(Including transfers to other funds)

	1982	1983	TOTAL
STATE DEPARTMENTS	($1,500,000)	($15,971,800)	($17,471,800)
TRANSPORTATION AND

OTHER AGENCIES	(348,000)	(1,502,000)	(1,850,000)
EDUCATION	(535,000)	(1,685,000)	(2,220,000)
WELFARE, CORRECTIONS, HEALTH	(-0-)	(8,623,000)	(8,623,000)
TOTAL	($2,383,000)	($27,781,800)	($30,164,800)

APPROPRIATION REDUCTIONS

	1982	1983

Sec. 2. [APPROPRIATION REDUCTIONS.]

Subdivision 1. [STATE DEPARTMENTS.]

The general fund appropriations in Laws 1981, Chapters 306, 346 and 356 as amended by Laws 1981, First Special Session, Chapter 4, Article 4, are reduced by the listed amounts:

(a) Legislature	(-0-)	(2,000,000)

The legislative coordinating commission shall apportion this appropriation reduction among the senate, the house of representatives, and the various legislative commissions, including the legislative commission on Minnesota resources. The reduction applied to the legislative commission on Minnesota resources shall be apportioned by that commission among the several programs and activities in Laws 1981, Chapter 356, Section 31.

(b) Contingent Accounts	(1,000,000)	(800,000)

This is a reduction in the fuel and utilities contingent account.

(c) Executive Council	(500,000)	(-0-)
(d) Administration	(-0-)	(290,000)

The commissioner of administration shall implement this appropriation reduction by a delay in implementation of the 911 telephone emergency system.

(e) Agriculture	(-0-)	(283,000)

The commissioner of agriculture shall implement this appropriation reduction by elimination of the shade tree disease control program.

(f) Natural Resources	(-0-)	(450,000)

This reduction shall include closing the metropolitan region office. The commissioner of natural resources shall submit to the legislature by January 1, 1983 a plan to reduce the number of regional offices to three for the 1983-1985 biennium.

(g) Housing Finance Agency

The sum of $1,600,000 is reappropriated from the general fund appropriation in Laws 1981,

Chapter 306, Section 21, Paragraph (b), for the home ownership assistance fund to the housing development fund created in Minnesota Statutes, Section 462A.20 for the purpose of Laws 1982, Chapter 380.

(h) Salary Supplement	(-0-)	(2,000,000)
(i) Retirements	(-0-)	(7,648,800)

(1) $2,648,800 of this reduction is made in recognition of the reduced employer contributions required by Minnesota Statutes, Sections 352.04 and 352.92, as amended by this act.

Of this amount $450,000 is reduced from the appropriations made to the University of Minnesota in Laws 1981, Chapter 359, Sections 7 to 11, allocated among the various appropriation accounts by the commissioner of finance.

$268,800 is reduced from the public transit appropriation made to the metropolitan transit commission in Laws 1981, Chapter 363, Section 55, Subdivision 1.

It is estimated that the rate changes in Minnesota Statutes, Sections 352.04, Subdivision 3 and 352.92, Subdivision 2, as amended by this article, will produce reductions from employer general fund contributions for state employees to the Minnesota state retirement system of $1,930,000 in fiscal year 1983.

If an actuarial valuation prepared pursuant to Minnesota Statutes, Section 356.20 or 356.215 and filed with the commissioner of finance before June 30, 1983 shows that the reduced employer and employee contributions provided for by this article will not be sufficient to amortize the unfunded accrued liability of the state employees retirement fund by the established date for full funding, the reduced employer and employee contributions provided for by this article shall cease to be effective and the employer and employee contributions shall return to the rates in effect before the enactment of this article, effective the first full pay period beginning more than 30 days following the filing of the actuarial valuation with the commissioner of finance.

(2) $2,500,000 of this reduction shall be applied to the appropriation for teachers retirement association contributions statewide, pursuant to Minnesota Statutes, Section 354.43.

(3) $2,500,000 of this reduction represents a reduction in teachers social security contributions pursuant to Minnesota Statutes, Section 355.46.

(j) Supplies and Expenses ..... (-0-) (2,500,000)

The commissioner of finance shall apportion this reduction against general fund appropriations to all state agencies in the executive branch, other than the state university system, state community college system, and the University of Minnesota. The commissioner of finance shall determine the proportion of supply and expense budgets which shall be reduced for each agency. The proportion may differ by agency if the commissioner determines that an agency has a particular need because of other appropriations reductions. The agencies may propose to accomplish the reduced expenditures in categories other than supply and expenses. The commissioner shall submit his proposed apportionment of the reductions to the chairman of the senate finance committee and the chairman of the house appropriations committee, who shall make their recommendations on the apportionment. The recommendations are advisory only. Failure or refusal to make a recommendation promptly is deemed a negative recommendation.

Subd. 2. [TRANSPORTATION AND OTHER AGENCIES.]

The general fund appropriations in Laws 1979, Special Session, Chapter 1, and Laws 1981, Chapters 346, 357, and 363, as amended by Laws 1981, First Special Session, Chapter 4, Article 4, are reduced by the listed amounts:

(a) Transportation ..... (348,000) (937,000)

$687,000 of this reduction is from metropolitan transit commission operating grants.

$250,000 of this reduction shall be implemented by a reduction in statewide non-metropolitan transit commission operating assistance grants.

The $348,000 reduction in fiscal year 1982 represents the unencumbered balances of the appropriations in Laws 1977, Chapter 454, Section 5, Paragraph (b) for paratransit service demonstration grant programs and for regular route transit demonstration program grants, which are hereby canceled. Any portion of the encumbered balance of these appropriations that becomes unencumbered is also canceled.

(b) Public Safety ..... (-0-) (200,000)

The bureau of criminal apprehension shall bear part of the burden of this appropriation reduction.

(c) Commerce ..... (-0-) (100,000)

A plan for the reorganization of the department shall be developed by the commissioner of administration in coordination and cooperation with all affected state agencies and submitted to the legislature by September 15, 1982. The plan shall provide for the net reduction of at least six positions from upper level management and their attendant clerical support staff. The plan shall include draft legislation to implement the reorganization. The biennial budget submitted by the agency shall be based on this reorganization plan.

(d) Minnesota Historical Society ..... (-0-) (122,000)

The executive director of the Minnesota historical society shall implement this appropriation reduction by reductions in the Minnesota Historical Society Operations program, other than the Minnesota military history museum at Fort Snelling and Camp Ripley.

(e) Arts, Board of the ..... (-0-) (143,000)

The board of the arts shall apply $33,900 of this appropriation reduction to appropriations for regional arts programs.

Subd. 3. [EDUCATION.]

The general fund appropriations in Laws 1973, Chapter 768, Section 14, Subdivision 8, and in Laws 1981, Chapter 359, as amended by Laws 1981, First Special Session, Chapter 2, are reduced by the listed amounts:

(a) Education, Department of ..... (-0-) (420,000)

None of this reduction shall be taken from appropriations for the Indian scholarship program.

$120,000 of this reduction shall be apportioned by the state board of education among the fiscal year 1983 appropriations for the Minnesota curriculum services center, the vocational student organization center, and vocational area agricultural coordinators. The commissioner of education is encouraged to solicit contributions from nonpublic sources to supplement state appropriations for these programs.

(b) Higher Education Coordinating Board ..... (235,000) (1,265,000)

The reduction for fiscal year 1982 is intended to cancel any balance remaining from the appropriation and accrued interest on the appropriation in Laws 1973, Chapter 768, Section 14, Subdivision 8.

(c) State University Board ..... (210,000) (-0-)

This reduction is in the state university board contingent account.

(d) State Community College Board ..... (90,000) (-0-)

This reduction is in the state university college board contingent account.

Subd. 4. [WELFARE, CORRECTIONS, HEALTH.]

The general fund appropriations in Laws 1981, Chapter 360, as amended by Laws 1981, First Special Session, Chapter 2, are reduced by the listed amounts:

(a) Public Welfare ..... (-0-) (7,873,000)

$4,373,000 of this appropriation reduction is attributable to the differential state hospital rates authorized by this act.

Notwithstanding Laws 1981, Third Special Session Chapter 2, Article I, Section 2, Subdivision 4, clause (a), the commissioner of public welfare shall increase grants for aid to families with dependent children and general assistance by seven percent on February 1, 1983, rather than October 1, 1982, unless federal law or regulation requires otherwise. $3,000,000 of the appropriation reduction in the department of public welfare is attributable to this delay.

$500,000 of this appropriation reducton is attributable to elimination of mandates as recommended by the governor's task force on health care and authorized by this act.

The commissioner of public welfare shall apply to the department of health and human services to obtain waivers to: (1) eliminate the requirement that each nursing home must have a medical director; (2) require that each resident be seen by a physician only once every six months or less frequently if the physician determines and documents that this frequency is unnecessary; and (3) eliminate the requirement that each nursing home have consultants in the areas of medical records, diet, social work, activities programs, and physiatric services.

When the commissioner obtains a waiver for any of these purposes, the commissioner shall eliminate any equivalent state requirements and shall reduce rates paid for allowed costs to the extent allowed by the federal waiver or waivers.

(b) Health ..... (-0-) (750,000)

Subd. 5. [APPROPRIATION AVAILABILITY.] If the appropriation from the general fund to an agency listed in this section in either year of the biennium ending June 30, 1983, is insufficient, upon the advance approval of the commissioner of finance the appropriation for the other year is available for it.

Subd. 6. [RELATION TO PRIOR REDUCTIONS.] The appropriation reductions in this section are in addition to the general reductions, general staff reductions, and other reductions made in previous appropriation acts.

Subd. 7. [PROGRESS REPORTS.] Each state agency whose appropriation is reduced by this section shall submit a revised spending plan to the commissioner of finance pursuant to Minnesota Statutes, Section 16A.14. The revised spending plan shall be formulated on a quarterly basis in order to permit the commissioner of finance to monitor the agency's success at meeting its spending and position reduction goals. The commissioner of finance shall notify the committee on finance of the senate and the committee on appropriations of the house of representatives promptly after the end of each quarter of any agency that has failed to meet its spending and position reduction goals for that quarter.

Sec. 3. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 161.20, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 4. [DEBT COLLECTION.] The commissioner shall make reasonable and businesslike efforts to collect money owed to the department arising from damages to state owned property and other causes related to trunk highways. When a debt has been reduced to a money judgment, the commissioner may contract for debt collection services for the purpose of collecting the judgment. Money received as full or partial payment shall be deposited in the trunk highway fund. When money is collected through contracted services, the commissioner may make payment for the service from the money collected. The amount necessary for payment of contractual collection costs is appropriated from the trunk highway fund.

Sec. 4. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 246.50, Subdivision 5, is amended to read:

Subd. 5. "Cost of care" means the commissioner's determination of the anticipated average per capita cost of all maintenance, treatment and expense, including depreciation of buildings and equipment, interest paid on bonds issued for capital improvements to state hospitals, and indirect costs related to the operation other than that paid from the Minnesota state building fund, at all of the state hospitals for the mentally ill or mentally ~~deficient~~ retarded or chemically dependent during the current year for which billing is being made. The commissioner shall determine the anticipated average per capita cost. The commissioner may establish one all inclusive rate or separate rates for each patient disability group, and may establish separate charges for each hospital. "Cost of care" for outpatient or day-care patients shall ~~not exceed 50 percent of the total average per capita cost for resident patients as determined by the commissioner of public welfare~~ be on a cost for service basis under a schedule the commissioner shall establish.

For purposes of this subdivision "resident patient" means a person who occupies a bed while housed in a hospital for observation, care, diagnosis, or treatment.

For purposes of this subdivision "outpatient" or "day-care" patient means a person who makes use of diagnostic ~~or~~, therapeutic, counseling, or other service in a state hospital facility or through state hospital personnel but does not occupy a ~~regular~~ hospital bed overnight.

For the purposes of collecting from the federal government for the care of those patients eligible for medical care under the social security act "cost of care" shall be determined as set forth in the rules and regulations of the Department of Health~~, Education, and Welfare~~ and Human Services or its successor agency.

Sec. 5. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 246.50, Subdivision 6, is amended to read:

Subd. 6. "Relatives" means the spouse, and parents and, in the case of the mentally ill or chemically dependent, children of a patient, in that order of liability for cost of care.

Sec. 6. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 246.51, is amended to read:

246.51 [PAYMENT FOR CARE AND TREATMENT; DETERMINATION.]

Subdivision 1. [PROCEDURES.] The commissioner shall make investigation as necessary to determine, and as circumstances require redetermine, what part of the cost of care, if any, the patient is able to pay. If the patient is unable to pay the full cost of care the commissioner shall make a determination as to the ability of the relatives to pay. The patient or relatives or both shall provide the commissioner documents and proofs necessary to determine their ability to pay. ~~However, in no case shall the relatives, unless they reside outside the state, be ordered to pay more than ten percent of the cost of care for each patient not to exceed $125 per month. Voluntary payments in excess of $125 per month may be accepted by the commissioner. The commissioner may require payment of the full per capita cost of care in state hospitals for children whose parents or guardians do not reside in Minnesota.~~ Failure to provide the commissioner with sufficient information to determine ability to pay may make the patient or relatives, both, liable for the full per capita cost of care until the time when sufficient information is provided. No parent shall be liable for the cost of care given a patient at a state hospital after the patient has reached the age of 18 years. The commissioner's determination shall be conclusive in any action to enforce payment of the cost of care unless appealed from as provided in section 246.55. All money received shall be paid to the state treasurer and placed in the general fund of the state and a separate account kept of it. Responsibility under this section shall not apply to those relatives having gross earnings of less than $11,000 per year.

Subd. 2. [RULES.] The commissioner shall adopt, pursuant to the administrative procedure act, rules establishing uniform standards for determination of patient liability and relative, guardian or conservator responsibility for care provided at state hospitals. These rules shall have the force and effect of law.

Sec. 7. Minnesota Statutes 1981 Supplement, Section 246.511 is amended to read:

246.511 [RELATIVE RESPONSIBILITY.]

~~Notwithstanding the provisions of Laws 1981, Chapter 360, Article 1, Section 2, Subdivision 5, the commissioner of public welfare shall determine what part of the cost of care for state hospital treatment a patient or his relatives are able to pay.~~ In no case, shall a patient's relatives, pursuant to the commissioner's authority under section 246.51, be ordered to pay more than ten percent of the cost of care, unless they reside outside the state. The commissioner may accept voluntary payments in excess of ten percent. The commissioner may require full payment of the full per capita cost of care in state hospitals for patients whose parent, parents, spouse, guardian or conservator do not reside in Minnesota.

Sec. 8. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 246.53, is amended to read:

246.53 [CLAIM AGAINST ESTATE OF DECEASED PATIENT.]

Subdivision 1. [PATIENT'S ESTATE.] Upon the death of a patient, or a former patient, the total cost of care given ~~him~~ the patient, less the amount actually paid toward the cost of ~~such~~ care by the patient and ~~his~~ the patient's relatives, shall be filed by the commissioner as a claim against the estate of ~~such~~ the patient with the court having jurisdiction to probate the estate and all proceeds collected by the state in ~~such~~ the case shall be divided between the state and county in proportion to the cost of care each has borne.

Subd. 2. [PREFERRED STATUS.] An estate claim in subdivision 1 shall be considered an expense of the last illness for purposes of section 524.3-805.

If the commissioner of public welfare ~~shall determine~~ determines that the property or estate of any ~~such~~ patient is not ~~to~~ more than needed to care for and maintain the ~~wife~~ spouse and minor or dependent children of ~~such~~ a deceased patient, ~~he shall have~~ the commissioner has the power to compromise the claim of the state in ~~such~~ a manner ~~as he, in his judgment and upon investigation, may deem~~ deemed just and proper.

Subd. 3. [EXCEPTION FROM STATUTE OF LIMITATIONS.] Any statute of limitations which limits the commissioner in recovering the cost of care obligation incurred by a patient or former patient shall not apply to any claim against an estate made hereunder to recover cost of care.

Sec. 9. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 352.04, Subdivision 2, as amended by Laws 1981, Third Special Session Chapter 2, Article I, Section 64, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [EMPLOYEE CONTRIBUTIONS.] The employee contribution to the fund shall be an amount equal to ~~3.73~~ 3.46 percent of salary, beginning with the first full pay period after December 31, 1981~~; provided, however, that for the period beginning with the first full pay period after December 31, 1981, and ending with the last full pay period before July 1, 1982, the contribution shall be an amount equal to 3.46 percent of salary~~. These contributions shall be made by deduction from salary in the manner provided in subdivision 4.

Sec. 10. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 352.04, Subdivision 3, as amended by Laws 1981, Third Special Session Chapter 2, Article I, Section 65, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [EMPLOYER CONTRIBUTIONS.] The employer contribution to the fund shall be an amount equal to the total amount deducted from the salaries of employees on each payroll abstract, plus an additional ~~1.87~~ 1.58 percent of salary beginning with the first full pay period after ~~December 31, 1981; provided, however, that~~ July 1, 1982. For the period beginning with the first full pay period after December 31, 1981, and ending with the last full pay period before July 1, 1982, the contribution shall be an amount equal to 3.46 percent of salary plus an additional 1.74 percent of salary. The employer contribution shall be made in the manner provided in subdivisions 5 and 6.

Sec. 11. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 352.92, Subdivision 1, as amended by Laws 1981, Third Special Session Chapter 2, Article I, Section 66, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [EMPLOYEE CONTRIBUTIONS.] Beginning with the first full pay period after ~~December 31, 1981~~ July 1, 1982, in lieu of employee contributions payable under section 352.04, subdivision 2, contributions by covered correctional employees shall be in an amount equal to ~~4.89~~ 4.50 percent of salary~~; provided, however, that~~ . For the period beginning with the first full pay period after December 31, 1981, and ending with the last full pay period before July 1, 1982, the contribution shall be in an amount equal to 3.78 percent of salary.

Sec. 12. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 352.92, Subdivision 2, as amended by Laws 1981, Third Special Session Chapter 2, Article I, Section 67, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [EMPLOYER CONTRIBUTIONS.] Beginning with the first full pay period after ~~December 31, 1981~~ July 1, 1982, in lieu of employer contributions payable under section 352.04, subdivision 3, the employer shall contribute for covered correctional employees (1) an amount equal to 1 1/2 times the deduction from salaries of covered correctional employees on each payroll abstract, plus (2) an additional amount of ~~4.08~~ 1.32 percent of salaries of covered correctional employees on each payroll abstract~~; provided, however, that~~ . For the period beginning with the first full pay period after December 31, 1981, and ending with the last full pay period before July 1, 1982, the contribution shall be an amount equal to 5.66 percent of salaries of covered correctional employees on each payroll abstract plus an additional amount equal to 3.16 percent of salaries of covered correctional employees on each payroll abstract.

Sec. 13. [362.43] [CERTIFIED STATE DEVELOPMENT COMPANY.]

Subdivision 1. [PURPOSE; OBJECTIVES.] The commissioner of energy, planning and development may create, promote and assist a state development company, also known as a "503" certified development company, which will qualify as a certified development company for the purposes of 15 United States Code, section 697 and Code of Federal Regulations, title 13, section 108.503.

The commissioner shall utilize the development company program to stimulate the state's economic activity.

The development company and its directors and officers shall comply with the organizational, operational, regulatory and reporting requirements as promulgated by the United States small business administration and the guidelines contained in the bylaws, articles of incorporation, and standard operating procedure prescribed by the small business administration.

Subd.2. [CAPITAL, LOAN LIMITS; MEMBERSHIP REQUIREMENTS.] The capital for a certified state development company shall be derived from corporate holders or members, each of whom shall not have more than ten percent of the voting control of the certified state development company. The company shall have a minimum of ten members. Membership shall be, to the greatest extent practicable, in proportion to the population of each economic development region to the total population of the state. The loan limit of each member shall be established at the time of its acceptance as a member and shall be computed on the basis of the financial information contained in or made a part of its application for membership. All loan limits shall be established at the thousand dollar amount nearest the amount computed in accordance with the provisions of the articles of incorporation and this section.

Subd. 3. [MEMBERS.] Members shall be representatives of local government, community organizations, financial institutions, and businesses in Minnesota and which, upon application, have been accepted for membership by a majority vote of the members of the board of directors present at any regular or special meeting of the board at which there is a quorum. A "financial institution" is a business organization recognized under Minnesota or federal law as a banking institution, trust company, savings and loan association, insurance company, or a corporation, partnership, foundation or other institution licensed to do business in the state of Minnesota and engaged primarily in lending or investing money.

Subd. 4. [MEMBERSHIP APPLICATIONS.] Applications for membership shall be submitted to the board of directors on forms provided by the corporation and accompanied by additional information as the form may require. Application forms shall provide that if the application is approved, and the applicant accepted for membership by the board of directors prior to withdrawal of the application, the applicant agrees to become a member upon the acceptance and to assume all of the rights and obligations of a member as set forth in the corporation's bylaws, the articles of incorporation, and Minnesota Statutes, Chapters 301 and 362. Notice of approval or rejection of an application shall be forwarded, by certified or registered United States mail, to the applicant for the attention of the person signing the application, within 15 days following the date upon which the approval or rejection is made. Approval of the application constitutes acceptance of the applicant as a member of the corporation.

Subd. 5. [OFFICERS.] The executive officers of the corporation shall be a president, one or more vice presidents including the executive vice president, a secretary, and a treasurer. None of the officers, except the president, need be directors. One person may hold the offices and perform the duties of any two or more of the offices. The board of directors by majority vote may leave unfilled for any period it may fix any office except that of president, treasurer, or secretary.

Subd. 6. [DEPARTMENT ASSISTANCE.] The commissioner of energy, planning and development shall make available the professional staff of the department to provide services to the certified state development company including, but not limited to, accounting, legal and business assistance services. The staff shall have the capability to package, process, close and service loans made through the development company.

Subd. 7. [REPORTS.] The development company shall submit to the small business administration annual reports on its operation. When requested by the small business administration, interim reports of a similar nature will be provided. The reports shall be provided in accordance with the instructions and attachments set forth by the small business administration. The development company shall comply with all regulations issued under the small business investment act of 1958, as amended, as well as applicable state and federal laws affecting its operation.

Subd. 8. [REVOLVING FUND.] The certified state development company may charge a one time processing fee up to the maximum allowed by the small business administration on a debenture issued for loan purposes. In addition, a fee for servicing loans may be imposed up to the maximum allowed by the small business administration based on the unpaid balance of each debenture. There is established a program of business services revolving fund in the state treasury. Proceeds from fees collected on loans processed with assistance from department staff shall be deposited in the program of business services revolving fund. Moneys in the fund are appropriated to the commissioner of energy, planning and development for the purposes of this section.

Sec. 14. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 362.51, Subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. A small business finance agency is hereby created and is constituted as an authority to act on behalf of the state within the scope of the powers granted to it in sections 362.132 and 362.50 to 362.53 to implement a loan program by which, in cooperation with cities, towns, counties and private or public lenders, adequate funds may be provided on sufficiently favorable terms to assist and encourage the establishment, maintenance and growth of small business in Minnesota and to reduce to a manageable level the cost of the control of pollution and disposal of waste resulting from the operations of small business.

Because of its ability to pool or combine loans to be funded from one or more issues of bonds, whether or not the interest on the bonds is exempt from federal income taxes, the agency will be able to spread its financing costs among the small businesses to which the agency makes loans, thereby reducing costs incurred by each small business.

Sec. 15. Minnesota Statutes 1981 Supplement, Section 362.52, Subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. The agency may participate with financial institutions in making or purchasing business loans not exceeding $1,000,000 in principal amount, to be serviced by such institutions, provided that:

(a) The agency's share shall not exceed 90 percent of the total principal amount, and shall be payable with interest at the same times but not necessarily at the same interest rate as the share of the financial institution, and both shares shall be equally and ratably secured by a valid mortgage on or security interest in real or personal property or by any other security satisfactory to the agency to secure payment of the loan provided, that the agency's share may equal 100 percent of the total principal amount of the business loan if the financial institution participating in the making or purchasing of the business loan by servicing the loan, purchases 100 percent of the total amount of the bonds issued by the agency in connection with the loan;

(b) The total principal amount shall not exceed 90 percent of the value of the property securing the loan, unless the amount in excess of 90 percent is:

(1) Loaned from available funds which are not proceeds received directly from the sale of the agency's bonds or notes and are not restricted under the terms of any resolution or indenture securing bonds or notes, or

(2) Insured or guaranteed by a federal agency or by a private insurer qualified to write such insurance in the state, insuring a percentage of any claim for loss at least equal to that percentage of the value by which the loan exceeds 90 percent thereof;

(c) The value of the property securing the loan shall be certified by the participating financial institution, on the basis of such appraisals, bids, purchase orders, and engineers' certificates as the agency may require; provided that the value of items purchased and constructed from the proceeds of the loan shall not be deemed to exceed the contract price of purchase or construction;

(d) The agency shall not disburse funds under a commitment to participate in a loan for the construction or substantial improvement of property until the construction or improvement has been completed, unless a financial institution furnishes an irrevocable letter of credit or a qualified corporate surety furnishes payment and performance bonds, satisfactory to the agency and in an aggregate amount equal to the amount payable under the construction contract; and

(e) No other indebtedness may be secured by a mortgage on or security interest in property securing a business loan made or purchased pursuant to this subdivision without the prior express written authorization of the agency.

Sec. 16. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 362.53, Subdivision 13, is amended to read:

Subd. 13. It may sell any of its obligations at public or private sale, at such price or prices as the agency shall determine, notwithstanding the limitation on sale price in the fourth sentence of section 462A.09, and notwithstanding whether or not the interest on any of its obligations is subject to federal income taxes.

Sec. 17. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 487.39, Subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. An aggrieved party may appeal to the district court from a determination of a county court or a county municipal court. The provisions of this section govern all appeals from the county court and the county municipal court; appeal provisions of all other statutes are inapplicable except as stated in section 484.63.

(a) Except as provided in clause (b), the appeal in a civil case shall be taken by filing written notice thereof with the clerk of court of the county in which the action was heard not more than 30 days after written notice of the court's determination has been served upon the aggrieved party or ~~his~~ the party's attorney~~, or in any event within three months after the determination in a civil case~~. Written notice of the court's determination shall be served by the clerk of court upon the aggrieved party or the party's attorney within 45 days after the determination in a civil case.

(b) In the appeal of petty misdemeanor, ordinance or criminal cases the written notice of appeal shall be filed with the clerk of court of the county in which the action was heard within ten days of the conviction or other determination, and sentencing thereon, appealed from.

(c) A written notice of appeal shall be served by the appellant upon all parties to the original proceedings or their attorneys not more than five days after filing a written notice of appeal and proof of ~~such~~ service shall be filed with the clerk of county court or county municipal court in the county in which the action was heard not more than three days after the service of ~~such~~ notice on the opposite party or ~~his~~ the party's attorney. The appeal shall be heard and determined by a district court appellate panel pursuant to section 484.63.

Sec. 18. Minnesota Statutes 1981 Supplement, Section 510.05, is amended to read:

510.05 [LIMITATIONS.]

Such homestead exemption shall not extend to any mortgage lawfully obtained thereon, to any valid lien for taxes or assessments, to a claim filed pursuant to section 256B.15 or section 246.53 or to any charge arising under the laws relating to laborers or materialmen's liens.

Sec. 19. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 524.3-805, is amended to read:

524.3-805 [CLASSIFICATION OF CLAIMS.]

(a) If the applicable assets of the estate are insufficient to pay all claims in full, the personal representative shall make payment in the following order:

(1) costs and expenses of administration;

(2) reasonable funeral expenses;

(3) debts and taxes with preference under federal law;

(4) reasonable and necessary medical and hospital expenses of the last illness of the decedent, including compensation of persons attending him;

(5) debts and taxes with preference under other laws of this state;

(6) all other claims.

(b) No preference shall be given in the payment of any claim over any other claim of the same class, and a claim due and payable shall not be entitled to a preference over claims not due, except that if claims for expenses of the last illness involve only claims filed under section 246.53 for costs of state hospital care and claims filed under section 256B.15, claims filed under section 246.53 have preference over claims filed under section 256B.15.

Sec. 20. Minnesota Statutes 1981 Supplement, Section 525.145, is amended to read:

525.145 [DESCENT OF HOMESTEAD.]

(1) Where there is a surviving spouse the homestead, including a mobile home which is the family residence, shall descend free from any testamentary or other disposition thereof to which the spouse has not consented in writing or by election to take under the will as provided by law, as follows:

(a) If there be no surviving child or issue of any deceased child, to the spouse;

(b) If there be children or issue of deceased children surviving, then to the spouse for the term of the spouse's natural life and the remainder in equal shares to the children and the issue of deceased children by right of representation.

(2) Where there is no surviving spouse and the homestead has not been disposed of by will it shall descend as other real estate.

(3) Where the homestead passes by descent or will to the spouse or children or issue of deceased children, it shall be exempt from all debts which were not valid charges thereon at the time of decedent's death; ~~in all other cases~~ except that the homestead shall be subject to a claim filed pursuant to section 246.53 for state hospital care or 256B.15. If the homestead passes to a person other than a spouse or child or issue of a deceased child, it shall be subject to the payment of the items mentioned in section 525.16. No lien or other charge against any homestead which is so exempted shall be enforced in the probate court, but the claimant may enforce the lien or charge by an appropriate action in the district court.

Sec. 21. [EFFECTIVE DATE.]

This article is effective the day following final enactment.

ARTICLE II

TAXES AND PAYMENT SHIFTS

Section 1. Minnesota Statutes 1981 Supplement, Section 275.50, Subdivision 2, as amended by House File No. 1872, Article XXXV, Section 1, of the 1982 Regular Session, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [GOVERNMENTAL SUBDIVISION.] "Governmental subdivision" means a county, home rule charter city, statutory city, ~~or~~ town or special taxing district determined by the department of revenue, except a town that has a population of less than 5,000 according to the most recent federal census, provided that the population of an incorporated municipality located within the boundaries of a town is not included in the population of the town. The term does not include school districts or the metropolitan transit commission created pursuant to section 473.404.

Sec. 2. Minnesota Statutes 1981 Supplement, Section 290A.07, Subdivision 2a, is amended to read:

Subd. 2a. A claimant ~~not included in subdivision 2~~ who is a renter shall receive full payment prior to August 15 or 60 days after receipt of the application, whichever is later.

(iii) single sales of prepackaged ice cream or ice milk novelties prepared by the retailer;

(iv) hand-prepared or dispensed ice cream or ice milk products including cones, sundaes, and snow cones;

(v) soft drinks and other beverages prepared or served by the retailer;

(vi) gum;

(vii) ice;

(viii) all food~~, except candy,~~ sold in vending machines;

(ix) party trays prepared by the retailers; and

(x) all meals and single servings of packaged snack food, single cans or bottles of pop, sold in restaurants and bars;

(d) The granting of the privilege of admission to places of amusement or athletic events and the privilege of use of amusement devices or athletic facilities;

(e) The furnishing for a consideration of lodging and related services by a hotel, rooming house, tourist court, motel or trailer camp and of the granting of any similar license to use real property other than the renting or leasing thereof for a continuous period of 30 days or more;

(f) The furnishing for a consideration of electricity, gas, water, or steam for use or consumption within this state, or local exchange telephone service and intrastate toll service except such service provided by means of coin operated telephones; the tax imposed on amounts paid for telephone services is the liability of and shall be paid by the person paying for the services. Sales by municipal corporations in a proprietary capacity are included in the provisions of this clause. The furnishing of water and sewer services for residential use shall not be considered a sale;

(g) The furnishing for a consideration of cable television services, including charges for basic monthly service, charges for monthly premium service, and charges for any other similar cable television services.

Sec. 5. Minnesota Statutes 1981 Supplement, Section 297A.25, Subdivision 1, as amended by Laws 1981, Third Special Session Chapter 2, Article V, Section 2, and as amended by House File No. 1872, Article XXXIV, Section 2, of the 1982 Regular Session, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. The following are specifically exempted from the taxes imposed by sections 297A.01 to 297A.44:

(a) The gross receipts from the sale of food products including but not limited to cereal and cereal products, butter, cheese, milk and milk products, oleomargarine, meat and meat products, fish and fish products, eggs and egg products, vegetables and vegetable products, fruit and fruit products, spices and salt, sugar and sugar products, coffee and coffee substitutes, tea, cocoa and cocoa products, and food products which are not taxable pursuant to section 297A.01, subdivision 3, clause (c) and which are sold by a retailer, organized as a nonprofit corporation or association, within a place located on property owned by the state or an agency or instrumentality of the state, the entrance to which is subject to an admission charge. This exemption does not include the following:

(i) candy and candy products;

(ii) carbonated beverages, beverages commonly referred to as soft drinks containing less than 15 percent fruit juice, or bottled water other than non-carbonated and noneffervescent bottled water sold in individual containers of one gallon or more in size;

(b) The gross receipts from the sale of prescribed drugs and medicine intended for use, internal or external, in the cure, mitigation, treatment or prevention of illness or disease in human beings and products consumed by humans for the preservation of health, including prescription glasses, uherapeutic and prosthetic devices, but not including cosmetics or toilet articles notwithstanding the presence of medicinal ingredients therein;

(c) The gross receipts from the sale of and the storage, use or other consumption in Minnesota of tangible personal property, tickets, or admissions, electricity, gas, or local exchange telephone service, which under the Constitution or laws of the United States or under the Constitution of Minnesota, the state of Minnesota is prohibited from taxing;

(d) The gross receipts from the sale of tangible personal property (i) which, without intermediate use, is shipped or transported outside Minnesota by the purchaser and thereafter used in a trade or business or is stored, processed, fabricated or manufactured into, attached to or incorporated into other tangible personal property transported or shipped outside Minnesota and thereafter used in a trade or business outside Minnesota, and which is not thereafter returned to a point within Minnesota, except in the course of interstate commerce (storage shall not constitute intermediate use); provided that the property is not subject to tax in that state or country to which it is transported for storage or use, or, if subject to tax in that other state, that state allows a similar exemption for property purchased therein and transported to Minnesota for use in this state; except that sales of tangible personal property that is shipped or transported for use outside Minnesota shall be taxed at the rate of the use tax imposed by the state to which the property is shipped or transported, unless that state has no use tax, in which case the sale shall be taxed at the rate generally imposed by this state; and provided further that sales of tangible personal property to be used in other states or countries as part of a maintenance contract shall be specifically exempt; or (ii) which the seller delivers to a common carrier for delivery outside Minnesota, places in the United States mail or parcel post directed to the purchaser outside Minnesota, or delivers to the purchaser outside Minnesota by means of the seller's own delivery vehicles, and which is not thereafter returned to a point within Minnesota, except in the course of interstate commerce;

(e) The gross receipts from the sale of packing materials used to pack and ship household goods, the ultimate destination of which is outside the state of Minnesota and which are not thereafter returned to a point within Minnesota, except in the course of interstate commerce;

(f) The gross receipts from the sale of and storage, use or consumption of petroleum products upon which a tax has been imposed under the provisions of chapter 296, whether or not any part of said tax may be subsequently refunded;

(g) The gross receipts from the sale of clothing and wearing apparel except the following:

(i) all articles commonly or commercially known as jewelry, whether real or imitation; pearls, precious and semi-precious stones, and imitations thereof; articles made of, or ornamented, mounted or fitted with precious metals or imitations thereof; watches; clocks; cases and movements for watches and clocks; gold, gold-plated, silver, or sterling flatware or hollow ware and silver-plated hollow ware; opera glasses; lorgnettes; marine glasses; field glasses and binoculars.

(ii) articles made of fur on the hide or pelt, and articles of which such fur is the component material or chief value, but only if such value is more than three times the value of the next most valuable component material.

(iii) perfume, essences, extracts, toilet waters, cosmetics, petroleum jellies, hair oils, pomades, hair dressings, hair restoratives, hair dyes, aromatic cachous and toilet powders. The tax imposed by this act shall not apply to lotion, oil, powder, or other article intended to be used or applied only in the case of babies.

(iv) trunks, valises, traveling bags, suitcases, satchels, overnight bags, hat boxes for use by travelers, beach bags, bathing suit bags, brief cases made of leather or imitation leather, salesmen's sample and display cases, purses, handbags, pocketbooks, wallets, billfolds, card, pass, and key cases and toilet cases.

(h) The gross receipts from the sale of and the storage, use, or consumption of all materials, including chemicals, fuels, petroleum products, lubricants, packaging materials, including returnable containers used in packaging food and beverage products, feeds, seeds, fertilizers, electricity, gas and steam, used or consumed in agricultural or industrial production of personal property intended to be sold ultimately at retail, whether or not the item so used becomes an ingredient or constituent part of the property produced. Such production shall include, but is not limited to, research, development, design or production of any tangible personal property, manufacturing, processing (other than by restaurants and consumers) of agricultural products whether vegetable or animal, commercial fishing, refining, smelting, reducing, brewing, distilling, printing, mining, quarrying, lumbering, generating electricity and the production of road building materials. Such production shall not include painting, cleaning, repairing or similar processing of property except as part of the original manufacturing process. Machinery, equipment, implements, tools, accessories, appliances, contrivances, furniture and fixtures, used in such production and fuel, electricity, gas or steam used for space heating or lighting, are not included within this exemption; however, accessory tools, equipment and other short lived items, which are separate detachable units used in producing a direct effect upon the product, where such items have an ordinary useful life of less than 12 months, are included within the exemption provided herein;

(i) The gross receipts from the sale of and storage, use or other consumption in Minnesota of tangible personal property (except as provided in section 297A.14) which is used or consumed in producing any publication regularly issued at average intervals not exceeding three months, and any such publication. For purposes of this subsection, "publication" as used herein shall include, without limiting the foregoing, a legal newspaper as defined by Minnesota Statutes 1965, Section 331.02, and any supplements or enclosures with or part of said newspaper; and the gross receipts of any advertising contained therein or therewith shall be exempt. For this purpose, advertising in any such publication shall be deemed to be a service and not tangible personal property, and persons or their agents who publish or sell such newspapers shall be deemed to be engaging in a service with respect to gross receipts realized from such newsgathering or publishing activities by them, including the sale of advertising. Machinery, equipment, implements, tools, accessories, appliances, contrivances, furniture and fixtures used in such publication and fuel, electricity, gas or steam used for space heating or lighting, are not exempt;

(j) The gross receipts from all sales of tangible personal property to, and all storage, use or consumption of such property by, the United States and its agencies and instrumentalities or a state and its agencies, instrumentalities and political subdivisions;

(k) The gross receipts from the isolated or occasional sale of tangible personal property in Minnesota not made in the normal course of business of selling that kind of property, and the storage, use, or consumption of property acquired as a result of such a sale;

(l) The gross receipts from sales of rolling stock and the storage, use or other consumption of such property by railroads, freight line companies, sleeping car companies and express companies taxed on the gross earnings basis in lieu of ad valorem taxes. For purposes of this clause "rolling stock" is defined as the portable or moving apparatus and machinery of any such company which moves on the road, and includes, but is not limited to, engines, cars, tenders, coaches, sleeping cars and parts necessary for the repair and maintenance of such rolling stock.

(m) The gross receipts from sales of airflight equipment and the storage, use or other consumption of such property by airline companies taxed under the provisions of sections 270.071 to 270.079. For purposes of this clause, ''airflight equipment'' includes airplanes and parts necessary for the repair and maintenance of such airflight equipment, and flight simulators.

(n) The gross receipts from the sale of telephone central office telephone equipment used in furnishing intrastate and interstate telephone service to the public.

(o) The gross receipts from the sale of and the storage, use or other consumption by persons taxed under the in lieu provisions of chapter 298, of mill liners, grinding rods and grinding balls which are substantially consumed in the production of taconite, the material of which primarily is added to and becomes a part of the material being processed.

(p) The gross receipts from the sale of tangible personal property to, and the storage, use or other consumption of such property by, any corporation, society, association, foundation, or institution organized and operated exclusively for charitable, religious or educational purposes if the property purchased is to be used in the performance of charitable, religious or educational functions, or any senior citizen group or association of groups that in general limits membership to persons age 55 or older and is organized and operated exclusively for pleasure, recreation and other nonprofit purposes, no part of the net earnings of which inures to the benefit of any private shareholders;

(q) The gross receipts from the sale of caskets and burial vaults;

(r) The gross receipts from the sale of an automobile or other conveyance if the purchaser is assisted by a grant from the United States in accordance with 38 United States Code, Section 1901, as amended.

(s) The gross receipts from the sale to the licensed aircraft dealer of an aircraft for which a commercial use permit has been issued pursuant to section 360.654, if the aircraft is resold while the permit is in effect.

(t) The gross receipts from the sale of building materials to be used in the construction or remodeling of a residence when the construction or remodeling is financed in whole or in part by the United States in accordance with 38 United States Code, Sections 801 to 805, as amended. This exemption shall not be effective at time of sale of the materials to contractors, subcontractors, builders or owners, but shall be applicable only upon a claim for refund to the commissioner of revenue filed by recipients of the benefits provided in Title 38 United States Code, Chapter 21, as amended. The commissioner shall provide by regulation for the refund of taxes paid on sales exempt in accordance with this paragraph.

(u) The gross receipts from the sale of textbooks which are prescribed for use in conjunction with a course of study in a public or private school, college, university and business or trade school to students who are regularly enrolled at such institutions. For purposes of this clause a ''public school'' is defined as one that furnishes course of study, enrollment and staff that meets standards of the state board of education and a private school is one which under the standards of the state board of education, provides an education substantially equivalent to that furnished at a public school. Business and trade schools shall mean such schools licensed pursuant to section 141.25.

(v) The gross receipts from the sale of and the storage of material designed to advertise and promote the sale of merchandise or services, which material is purchased and stored for the purpose of subsequently shipping or otherwise transferring outside the state by the purchaser for use thereafter solely outside the state of Minnesota.

(w) The gross receipt from the sale of residential heating fuels in the following manner:

(i) all fuel oil, coal, wood, steam, propane gas, and L.P. gas sold to residential customers for residential use;

(ii) natural gas sold for residential use to customers who are metered and billed as residential users and who use natural gas for their primary source of residential heat, for the billing months of November, December, January, February, March and April;

(iii) electricity sold for residential use to customers who are metered and billed as residential users and who use electricity for their primary source of residential heat, for the billing months of November, December, January, February, March and April.

(x) The gross receipts from the sale or use of tickets or admissions to the premises of or events sponsored by an association, corporation or other group of persons which provides an opportunity for citizens of the state to participate in the creation, performance or appreciation of the arts and which qualifies as a tax-exempt organization within the meaning of section 290.05, subdivision 1, clause (i).

(y) The gross receipts from either the sales to or the storage, use or consumption of tangible personal property by an organization of military service veterans or an auxiliary unit of an organization of military service veterans, provided that:

(i) the organization or auxiliary unit is organized within the state of Minnesota and is exempt from federal taxation pursuant to section 501(c), clause (19), of the Internal Revenue Code as amended through December 31, 1978; and

(ii) the tangible personal property which is sold to or stored, used or consumed by the organization or auxiliary unit is for charitable, civic, educational, or nonprofit uses and not for social, recreational, pleasure or profit uses.

(z) The gross receipts from the sale of sanitary napkins, tampons, or similar items used for feminine hygiene.

Sec. 6. [340.986] [ON-SALE LIQUOR TAX.]

In addition to the taxes imposed by section 297A.02 and chapter 340, a tax is imposed in the amount of five percent on the gross receipts from all retail on-sales of intoxicating liquor and fermented malt beverages when sold at a licensed on-sale liquor establishment or municipal liquor store within the state. The tax shall be reported and paid to the commissioner of revenue with and as part of the state sales and use taxes, and shall be subject to the same penalties, interest, and enforcement provisions. The tax collected pursuant to this section shall be deposited in the general fund.

Sec. 7. Laws 1981, Third Special Session Chapter 2, Article III, Section 22, is amended to read:

Sec. 22. [EFFECTIVE DATE.]

Sections 1 and 19 to 21 are effective February 1, 1982. The provision of section 2 relating to commodity tax straddles and section 7 are effective for taxable years beginning after December 31, 1980. The provisions of section 2 relating to the exclusion of dividend and interest income are effective for taxable years beginning after December 31, 1981. Section 2, clauses (a)(22), (b)(24), the portion of clause (a)(16) relating to recovery property, (b)(25), and sections 8, 11, and 12 are effective for property placed in service after December 31, 1980 in taxable years ending after that date. Section 2, clauses (a)(17), (b)(2), the portion of clause (a)(16) relating to gain from the sale or disposition of property and section 9 are effective for ~~the sale or other disposition of property after June 30, 1982~~ taxable years beginning after December 31, 1982. Section 6 is effective for taxable years beginning after December 31, 1981. Section 10 is effective for the sale or other disposition of property after December 31, 1982. Sections 13, 14, and 15 are effective for income earned after December 31, 1981. Section 16 is effective for taxable years beginning after December 31, 1981. Sections 17 and 18 are effective for petitions filed after January 31, 1982.

Sec. 8. House File No. 1872, Article I, Section 73, as enacted by the 1982 Regular Session, is amended to read:

Sec. 73. [EFFECTIVE DATE.]

Sections 2, 19 and 67 are effective for taxable years beginning after December 31, 1980. Sections 47, 51, 52, 53, 55, 57, and 59 are effective May 1, 1982. Sections 46 and 54 are effective for bankruptcy proceedings filed on or after October 1, 1979. Sections 12, 45, 50, 56, 58, 64, 66, and 68 are effective the day after final enactment. Section 65 is effective for claims based on rent paid in 1982 and subsequent years. The provisions of section 42 requiring that non-game wildlife designations be made on original returns is effective for taxable years beginning after December 31, 1979, and claims based on rent paid in 1980 and subsequent years, and property taxes payable in 1981 and subsequent years. Those provisions of section 63 that relate to net operating loss carrybacks are effective the day after final enactment. The balance of section 63 is effective for claims based on rent paid in 1982 and succeeding years and property taxes payable in 1983 and succeeding years. The change in section 1, clause (b)(2) is effective for ~~the sale or other disposition of property after June 30, 1982~~ taxable years beginning after December 31, 1982. The rest of this article is effective for taxable years beginning after December 31, 1981.

Sec. 9. [HOMESTEAD CREDIT; REDUCTIONS.]

The certification of homestead credit for taxes payable 1982 as shown on the abstract of tax lists shall be reduced by $30,000,000 by the commissioner of revenue as follows:

(a) $20,500,000 shall be subtracted from the total certifications relating to the county levies;

(b) $5,500,000 shall be subtracted from the total certifications relating to the city levies;

(c) $2,000,000 shall be subtracted from the total certification relating to the town levies; and

(d) $2,000,000 shall be subtracted from the total certification relating to special taxing district levies.

Each county, each city, each town, and each special taxing district will receive a proportionate reduction from its original certification after the reduction pursuant to section 10.

Sec. 10. [ADDITIONAL REDUCTION FOR COUNTIES CONTAINING A FIRST CLASS CITY.]

Before reducing the original certifications pursuant to section 9, the commissioner shall reduce the certification for Hennepin, Ramsey, and St. Louis counties. Hennepin county shall be reduced by $1,160,900; Ramsey county shall be reduced by $565,200; and St. Louis county shall be reduced by $273,900. These counties shall apply at least one-half of this aid reduction to reduce county administrative costs rather than to reduce services provided directly to the public.

Sec. 11. [HOMESTEAD CREDIT; PAYMENT.]

The total amount of the appropriation from the general fund to the commissioner of revenue for homestead credit payments for taxes payable in 1982, including the amount appropriated to the commissioner of education pursuant to section 12, shall not exceed $451,600,000. If the amount of homestead credit payable in 1982, following the reductions in sections 9 and 10 exceeds $451,600,000, the amount in excess of $451,600,000 shall be proportionately reduced from the amounts due to each county, special taxing district, city, town and school district.

The proportionate distribution will be made using the certifications after the reductions made pursuant to sections 9 and 10.

Sec. 12. [273.1392] [PAYMENT; AIDS TO SCHOOL DISTRICTS.]

The amounts of homestead credit under section 273.13, subdivisions 6, 7, and 14a; wetlands credit and reimbursement under section 273.115; native prairie credit and reimbursement under section 273.116; attached machinery aid under section 273.138; reimbursement under section 273.139; and agricultural preserve credit under section 473H.10, shall be certified to the department of education by the department of revenue. The amounts so certified shall be paid according to the schedule for payment of foundation aids pursuant to section 124.11. The sum sufficient to make the payments required by this section is appropriated from the general fund to the commissioner of education.

Sec. 13. [REPEALER.]

(a) Minnesota Statutes 1981 Supplement, Section 290A.07, Subdivision 2, is repealed.

(b) Laws 1981, First Special Session, Chapter 1, Article III, Section 3, Subdivision 6, as amended by Laws 1981, Third Special Session Chapter 2, Article IV, Section 15, is repealed.

Sec. 14. [EFFECTIVE DATE.]

Section 1 is effective for taxes levied in 1982 and thereafter, payable in 1983, and thereafter. Sections 2, 3, and 13, clause (a), are effective for claims based on rent paid in 1982 and thereafter, and property taxes payable in 1983 and thereafter. Sections 4, 5, and 6 are effective for sales occurring on or after May 1, 1982. Sections 7, 8, 9, 10, 11, 12, and 13, clause (b), are effective the day after final enactment.''

MESSAGES FROM THE HOUSE - CONTINUED

Mr. President:

I have the honor to inform you that the House has repassed House File No. 1234, notwithstanding the veto of the Honorable Albert H. Quie, Governor of the State.

There is herewith transmitted to the Senate:

1. House File No. 1234: A bill for an act relating to employees and officials of the state; clarifying certain hospital and medical benefits for retired or disabled state officials and employees; amending Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 471.61, Subdivision 2a.

2. Veto Message of the Governor, dated March 18, 1982.

3. The enrolled copy of House File No. 1234 with all of the signatures of the officers of the Senate and the House but minus the signature of the Governor.

Edward A. Burdick, Chief Clerk, House of Representatives

Transmitted March 19, 1982

March 18, 1982

The Honorable Harry Sieben
Speaker
Minnesota House of Representatives

Dear Mr. Speaker:

Attached, herewith, please find House File No. 1234, which I am returning to you, unsigned.

It appears that the intent of the proposal is to make it possible for the State of Minnesota to grant certain paid medical insurance benefits to its retired employees. However, the bill does not specify a program or procedure on how this is to be accomplished.

Sincerely,

Albert H. Quie, Governor

Mr. Spear moved that H.F. No. 1234 be now reconsidered and repassed, the objections of the Governor notwithstanding, pursuant to Article IV, Section 23, of the Constitution of the State of Minnesota.

The question was taken on the adoption of the motion of Mr. Spear.

The roll was called, and there were yeas 59 and nays 2, as follows:

Those who voted in the affirmative were:

Ashbach	Dicklich	Kronebusch	Penny	Sikorski
Bang	Dieterich	Langseth	Peterson,C.C.	Solon
Belanger	Engler	Lantry	Peterson,D.L.	Spear
Benson	Frank	Lindgren	Peterson,R.W.	Stern
Berg	Frederick	Luther	Petty	Stokowski
Berglin	Frederickson	Menning	Purfeerst	Stumpf
Bernhagen	Hanson	Merriam	Ramstad	Taylor
Bertram	Hughes	Moe, D. M.	Renneke	Ulland

Dahl	Johnson	Nelson	Schmitz	Wegener
Davies	Kamrath	Olhoft	Setzepfandt	Willet
Davis	Knoll	Pehler	Sieloff

Messrs. Knutson and Pillsbury voted in the negative.

The motion prevailed. So the bill was repassed and its title agreed to, the objections of the Governor to the contrary notwithstanding.

MESSAGES FROM THE HOUSE - CONTINUED

Mr. President:

I have the honor to inform you that the House has repassed House File No. 1726, notwithstanding the veto of the Honorable Albert H. Quie, Governor of the State.

There is herewith transmitted to the Senate:

1. House File No. 1726: A bill for an act relating to education; removing the commissioner of education from the state university board and as secretary of the board; allowing teachers at a community college or state university to accrue seniority during a leave of absence; amending Minnesota Statutes 1980, Sections 136.12, Subdivision 1; 136.13; and 136.88, Subdivision 5.

2. Veto Message of the Governor, dated March 18, 1982.

3. The enrolled copy of House File No. 1726 with all of the signatures of the officers of the Senate and the House but minus the signature of the Governor.

Edward A. Burdick, Chief Clerk, House of Representatives

Transmitted March 19, 1982

March 18, 1982

The Honorable Harry A. Sieben
Speaker of the House of Representatives

Dear Mr. Speaker:

Returned to you herewith please find House File No. 1726. I strongly believe that the Commissioner of Education should remain as a member of the State University Board, and am therefore vetoing this piece of legislation.

The Commissioner, as the spokesman for elementary and secondary education in Minnesota, provides direct communication of behalf of that segment of our educational system to the Board during its deliberations and decision-making processes. The input which the Commissioner is able to provide by his presence on the State University Board can be important in developing educational policy for the State.

I recognize that the number of elementary and secondary teachers which is currently being trained at our State universities is declining. However, I also believe that there will be a time in the future when the need for teachers in our schools will increase.

I have no objection to the provisions contained in Section 3 of the bill. However, I feel so strongly that the Commissioner of Education should remain on the State University Board that I feel compelled to veto this legislation.

Sincerely,

Albert H. Quie, Governor

Mr. Taylor moved that H.F. No. 1726 be now reconsidered and repassed, the objections of the Governor notwithstanding, pursuant to Article IV, Section 23, of the Constitution of the State of Minnesota.

The question was taken on the motion of Mr. Taylor.

The roll was called, and there were yeas 54 and nays 3, as follows:

Those who voted in the affirmative were:

Ashbach	Dicklich	Langseth	Peterson,C.C.	Sikorski
Bang	Engler	Lantry	Peterson,D.L.	Spear
Belanger	Frank	Lindgren	Peterson,R.W.	Stern
Benson	Frederickson	Luther	Petty	Stokowski
Berg	Hanson	Menning	Pillsbury	Stumpf
Berglin	Hughes	Moe, D. M.	Purfeerst	Taylor
Bernhagen	Humphrey	Moe, R. D.	Ramstad	Ulland
Bertram	Johnson	Nelson	Renneke	Waldorf
Dahl	Kamrath	Olhoft	Schmitz	Wegener
Davies	Knoll	Pehler	Setzepfandt	Willet
Davis	Knutson	Penny	Sieloff

Mr. Dieterich, Mrs. Kronebusch and Mr. Rued voted in the negative.

The motion prevailed. So the bill was repassed and its title agreed to, the objections of the Governor to the contrary notwithstanding.

MESSAGES FROM THE HOUSE - CONTINUED

Mr. President:

I have the honor to announce the passage by the House of the following Senate File, herewith returned: S.F. No. 2169.

Edward A. Burdick, Chief Clerk, House of Representatives

The Honorable Harry A. Sieben, Jr.
Speaker of the House of Representatives

The Honorable Jack Davies
President of the Senate

We, the undersigned conferees for H.F. No. 1220, report that we have agreed upon the items in dispute and recommend as follows:

That the House accede to the Senate amendments and that H.F. No. 1220 be further amended as follows:

Amend the amendment placed on H.F. No. 1220 by the Committee on Rules and Administration, adopted by the Senate March 12, 1982, as follows:

Page 1, after line 8, insert:

"Section 1. [176A.01] [DEFINITIONS.]

Subdivision 1. [APPLICATION.] For the purpose of sections 1 to 14 the terms defined in this section have the meanings given them.

Subd. 2. [BOARD.] "Board" means the board of directors of the Minnesota workers' compensation insurance corporation.

Subd. 3. [CORPORATION.] "Corporation" means the Minnesota workers' compensation insurance corporation.

Subd. 4. [FUND.] "Fund" means the workers' compensation insurance fund established pursuant to section 11.

Subd. 5. [MANAGER.] "Manager" means the chief executive officer of the Minnesota workers' compensation insurance corporation.

Sec. 2. [176A.02] [CREATION OF CORPORATION; BOARD OF DIRECTORS.]

Subdivision 1. [CREATION.] The Minnesota workers' compensation insurance corporation is created as a nonprofit, public corporation.

Subd. 2. [BOARD OF DIRECTORS.] The corporation shall be administered and controlled by a board of directors consisting of six members appointed by the governor with the advice and consent of the senate. Each board member shall serve for a term of six years and shall hold office until a successor is appointed and qualifies.

The first members appointed shall serve terms which shall expire as follows: two on January 7, 1985; two on January 5, 1987; and two on January 3, 1989.

The board shall annually elect a chairman from among its members and may elect other officers as it deems necessary.

Compensation of board members, removal of members and filling of vacancies shall be as provided for state boards in section 15.0575.

Neither the board, any of its members, nor any officer or employee of the fund shall be held liable in a personal capacity for any act performed or obligation incurred in connection with the administration, management or operation of the corporation.

Sec. 3. [176A.03] [GENERAL POWERS.]

For the purpose of carrying out the specific powers granted to the board pursuant to sections 1 to 14 the board may exercise the following powers:

(a) It may sue and be sued;

(b) It may have a seal and alter it at will;

(c) It may adopt, amend and repeal bylaws, rules and procedures relating to its operation;

(d) It may enter into contracts;

(e) It may in its own name rent, lease, buy or sell property or construct or repair buildings necessary to provide space for its operations; and

(f) It may hire employees and set their compensation.

Sec. 4. [176A.04] [MEMBER OF RATING AND REINSURANCE ASSOCIATIONS.]

Effective January 1, 1985, the board shall be a member of a data service organization and the workers' compensation reinsurance association.

Sec. 5. [176A.05] [TREATMENT AS STATE AGENCY.]

Subdivision 1. [EXEMPTIONS.] The corporation and the board are exempt from the following provisions applicable to other state agencies and boards:

(a) Rulemaking and contested case procedures pursuant to sections 15.041 to 15.051;

(b) Civil service and public employee bargaining provisions of chapters 43A and 179; and

(c) All provisions of chapters 16 and 16A.

Subd. 2. [ECONOMIC INTEREST DISCLOSURE.] Members of the board and the manager shall file statements of economic interest with the ethical practices board as provided in section 10A.09.

Sec. 6. [176A.06] [MANAGER.]

Subdivision 1. [APPOINTMENT.] The board shall appoint a manager who shall be responsible for the day-to-day operation of the corporation. The manager shall have proven successful experience as an executive at the general management level. The compensation of the manager shall be set by the board. The manager may be removed at the pleasure of the board.

Subd. 2. [BOND.] The manager shall be bonded in an amount and with sureties as approved by the board. The manager shall file the bond with the secretary of state. The premium for the bond shall be paid out of the fund.

Subd. 3. [POWERS.] The board may delegate any of its general or specific powers to the manager subject to the direction and approval of the board.

Sec. 7. [176A.07] [ADMINISTRATION OF STATE CLAIMS.]

Subdivision 1. [PAYMENT BY BOARD.] Beginning July 1, 1983, the board shall administer all claims for compensation of state employees under chapter 176, including claims in which the loss was incurred or reported before July 1, 1983. The provisions of chapter 176 apply to claims administered under this subdivision. For the purpose of chapter 176 the board shall be treated as the insurer of state employees and the state agency or department employing a claimant shall be considered the employer. Compensation due on state claims administered pursuant to this subdivision shall be paid from the state compensation revolving account upon warrants prepared by the board and submitted to the state treasurer.

Subd. 2. [REIMBURSEMENT BY AGENCIES.] The agencies and departments of the state shall reimburse the board for all claims paid to their employees pursuant to subdivision 1. At the end of each calendar quarter, the board shall notify each agency and department of the total amount due under this subdivision. The agency or department shall pay the amount due within 14 days of receipt of this notice. All amounts paid to the board shall be deposited in the state compensation revolving account.

Sec. 8. [176A.08] [INSURANCE OF STATE LIABILITY.]

Subdivision 1. [POWERS AND DUTIES.] Beginning January 1, 1985, the board shall insure the liability of the state to pay workers' compensation claims under chapter 176 for all losses incurred on and after January 1, 1985. The board may exercise all powers necessary and convenient to carry out the duties of an insurer under chapter 176 with respect to state claims. Not later than July 1, 1984, the board shall adopt bylaws and procedures for its operation including the form of policies of insurance which will be issued to state agencies and departments.

Subd. 2. [PREMIUMS; DETERMINATION AND PAYMENT.] Not later than July 1 of each year, beginning on July 1, 1984, the board shall determine an annual insurance premium for all state departments and agencies which is adequate to insure the workers' compensation losses incurred by the agencies and departments during the next fiscal year. The premium shall be calculated in accordance with workers' compensation insurance rates allowed under chapter 79 or rates otherwise established according to law. The premium shall be sufficient to pay the operating expenses of the board during the fiscal year and to establish adequate reserves for the full payment of losses incurred during the fiscal year as payment becomes due in the future. The premiums shall include an experience rating or retrospective rating plan which is approved by the workers' compensation rating association for use by its members and which is approved by the board and the commissioner of administration.

The premium for each department or agency shall be separately calculated if the premium is credible. In order to provide for continuous accountability of claims experience for each agency and department, the board shall, for those agencies and departments without a separately calculated premium, devise a method for allocating the cost of the annual premium among those agencies and departments. Each state agency and department shall pay its annual premium or allocation of premium in advance to the board within 14 days after the beginning of the fiscal year to which the premium applies. Premiums paid pursuant to this subdivision shall be deposited in a separate state claims account in the workers' compensation insurance fund.

Subd. 3. [PAYMENT OF INSURED CLAIMS.] All claims insured under this section which the board determines to be due under chapter 176 or which it agrees or is ordered to pay pursuant to any proceeding under that chapter shall be paid from the separate state claims account in the workers' compensation insurance fund and may not be paid from any other assets of the fund.

Subd. 4. [PAYMENT OF OUTSTANDING STATE CLAIMS.] The board shall continue payment of state workers' compensation losses incurred before January 1, 1985, pursuant to the provisions of section 7.

Subd. 5. [LIABILITY OF STATE.] In the event that funds are insufficient to pay any workers' compensation claim which is due to a state employee as provided in sections 7 and 8 the board shall prepare a warrant for the amount due and present it to the commissioner of finance who shall pay the amount from any unencumbered balance in the general fund.

Sec. 9. [176A.09] [STUDY OF STATE CLAIMS EXPERIENCE.]

The board shall analyze the workers' compensation claims experience of state agencies and departments during the five calendar years ending December 31, 1983 in order to determine actuarially sound premiums for insurance policies issued to state agencies and departments pursuant to section 8, subdivisions 1 to 3.

The board shall also determine the total estimated incurred workers' compensation losses of the state that are outstanding as of January 1, 1985, and shall formulate a plan for the full funding of reserves necessary to pay those losses. Not later than November 1, 1984, the board shall submit this plan to the legislature for its consideration.

This section is repealed January 1, 1985.

Sec. 10. [176A.10] [AUTHORITY TO INSURE OTHER EMPLOYERS.]

Subdivision 1. [POWERS.] Beginning January 1, 1985, the board may insure any public or private employer against liability for workers' compensation claims of their employees under chapter 176. The board may exercise all powers necessary and convenient to conduct a workers' compensation insurance operation. The board shall adopt bylaws and operating procedures for the conduct of its insurance operation.

Subd. 2. [SUBJECT TO LICENSING AND REGULATION.] The board shall not begin operations as an insurer under this section until it has met the requirements of chapter 60A for licensing of a stock company writing workers' compensation insurance. Sections 1 to 14 shall be considered the certificate of incorporation of the board. Except as provided in section 12, subdivision 1, the insurance operations of the board are subject to all of the provisions of chapters 60A and 60B. The commissioner of insurance has the same powers with respect to the board as he has with respect to a private workers' compensation insurer under chapters 60A and 60B. The board shall be considered an insurer for the purposes of chapters 79 and 176. With respect to the operation and procedures relating to state claims pursuant to sections 7 and 8, the regulatory provisions of chapters 60A and 60B, and sections 79.28 to 79.32 shall not apply.

Subd. 3. [PREMIUMS.] The board shall charge the lowest insurance premiums possible, including any dividend plans, which are consistent with the maintenance of adequate reserves, the solvency of the fund and the ability of the fund to meet the anticipated demand from employers for insurance coverage.

Subd. 4. [STATE LIABILITY.] The insurance operation of the board shall be supported entirely out of the assets of the fund. Except as otherwise provided for state claims pursuant to section 8, subdivision 5, the state is not liable for any obligations of the board.

Sec. 11. [176A.11] [WORKERS' COMPENSATION INSURANCE FUND.]

Subdivision 1. [CONTENTS OF FUND; EXPENDITURES.] The workers' compensation insurance fund consists of all insurance premiums paid to the board, all money, securities and property owned by the board and all interest and investment income earned on money, securities and property owned by the board. All claims paid pursuant to policies of insurance written by the board shall be paid from the fund. All expenses of administration related to the insurance operations of the board, including taxes and fees payable by the board and the expense of audits, surveys and reports required by law, shall be paid from the fund. Except as provided in this subdivision, no other expenditures shall be made from the fund.

Subd. 2. [CUSTODIAN.] The board shall be the custodian of the fund. No assets belonging to the fund shall be required to be deposited in any fund in the state treasury.

Subd. 3. [INVESTMENT.] The board may invest and reinvest the assets of the fund which are in excess of current operating requirements in the same manner and to the same extent as provided in chapter 60A for a stock company writing workers' compensation insurance.

Subd. 4. [DEPOSITS.] Any money in the fund which is in excess of current operating requirements and not otherwise invested, may be deposited by the board from time to time in financial institutions authorized by law to accept deposit of public money.

Sec. 12. [176A.12] [FEES AND TAXES.]

Subdivision 1. [FEE IN LIEU OF PREMIUM TAX.] The board shall pay a fee in the amount that would have been due if the board were subject to the tax imposed in section 60A.15. The fee shall be paid in the same manner as the tax imposed in section 60A.15 is paid by a domestic stock insurance company.

Subd. 2. [PROPERTY TAX.] The board shall not rent, lease or otherwise locate in any property which is not subject to local property taxation. Any real property owned by the board is subject to local property taxation.

Subd. 3. [TAX EXEMPTION.] Except as provided in subdivision 2, the board and the corporation are exempt from all state and local taxes.

Subd. 4. [FEDERAL TAXES.] The board shall take all steps necessary and proper to qualify the corporation for exemption from federal taxation.

Sec. 13. [176A.13] [REPAYMENT TO GENERAL FUND.]

The board shall repay, over a period of five years beginning January 1, 1986, to the general fund in equal installments, any amount appropriated to it. The first payment shall be due on January 1, 1987. The amount to be repaid shall include interest at the average rate as is earned by the state board of investment for all investments.

Sec. 14. [176A.14] [AUDIT, SURVEY AND REPORTS.]

Subdivision 1. [AUDIT AND SURVEY.] The financial affairs of the corporation shall be audited annually by an independent auditor selected by the commissioner of insurance. An actuarial survey shall be conducted annually on the insurance operations of the corporation by an independent actuary selected by the commissioner of insurance.

Subd. 2. [REPORTS.] The board shall prepare and submit an annual report to the governor and the legislature not later than November 15 of each year, beginning November 15, 1983, concerning the financial status of the corporation, progress in implementing the legal powers and duties of the board and recommendations for legislative action.

Sec. 15. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 176.591, Subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [ESTABLISHMENT.] To facilitate the discharge by the state of its obligations under this chapter, there is established a revolving fund to be known as the state compensation revolving fund.

This fund is comprised of the unexpended balance in the fund on ~~July 1, 1935~~ July 1, 1984, and the sums which the ~~several~~ departments of the state pay to the fund.

Sec. 16. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 176.591, Subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [COMPENSATION PAYMENTS UPON WARRANTS.] The state treasurer shall make compensation payments from the fund only as authorized by this chapter upon warrants of the ~~commissioner of the department of labor and industry~~ workers' compensation insurance board.

Sec. 17. [IMPLEMENTATION.]

The first members of the board of directors of the workers' compensation insurance corporation shall be appointed not later than February 1, 1983. The board shall act promptly to select a manager, hire necessary employees and acquire necessary facilities and supplies to begin operation as required by section 7 on July 1, 1983. The board shall begin the study required under section 9 not later than July 1, 1983.

Sec. 18. Minnesota Statutes 1981 Supplement, Section 15.052, Subdivision 5, as amended by Laws 1981, Third Special Session Chapter 2, Article I, Section 10, is amended to read:

Subd. 5. [COURT REPORTERS; AUDIO RECORDINGS.] The office of administrative hearings may maintain a court reporter system and in addition to or in lieu thereof may contract with nongovernmental sources for court reporter services. The court reporters may additionally be utilized as the chief hearing examiner directs. Unless the chief hearing examiner determines that the use of a court reporter is more appropriate, an audio magnetic recording device shall be used to keep a record at any hearing which takes place under this chapter. In cases arising under chapter 176, the chief hearing examiner shall use audio magentic recording devices to keep the record of hearings except when there are more than two primary parties in a case and the chief hearing examiner determines that the use of a court reporter is more appropriate. If the chief hearing examiner determines that the use of a court reporter is more appropriate, the cost of the court reporter shall be paid by the state. If the chief hearing examiner determines that the use of an audio magnetic recording device is more appropriate in a hearing under chapter 176, any party to that hearing may provide a court reporter at the party's expense. Court reporters provided by a party shall be selected from court reporters employed by the office of administrative hearings or, if not available, from the chief hearing examiner's list of non-governmental sources.

The fee charged by a non-governmental court reporter to a party shall not exceed the fee which would be charged to the state pursuant to the court reporter's contract with the state. Fees charged for the services of a court reporter employed by the office of administrative hearings shall be determined by the chief hearing examiner with the approval of the commissioner of finance.

Court reporters serving in the court reporter system of the office of administrative hearings shall be in the classified service. Notwithstanding the provisions of section 15.17, subdivision 4, copies of transcriptions of hearings conducted pursuant to this section may be obtained only through the office of administrative hearings."

as to ensure that the maximum number of weeks payable for all functional disability combined shall not exceed 500 weeks:

A + [1.0 - (A/500)]B

where:

A = the number of weeks awardable for the permanent partial disability to the first body part, and

B = the number of weeks otherwise awardable for the second body part.

For permanent partial disabilities to three body parts due to personal injury incurred in a single occurrence or as the result of an occupational disease, the above formula shall be applied, providing that A will equal the result obtained from application of the formula to the first two body parts and B will equal the number of weeks awardable for the third body part. For permanent partial disabilities to four or more body parts incurred as described above, A will equal the result obtained from the prior application of the formula, and B will equal the number of weeks awardable for the fourth body part or more in arithmetic progressions.''

The Honorable Jack Davies
President of the Senate

Dear Senator Davies:

After careful consideration, and following consultation with a number of concerned groups and individuals, I feel it is necessary, both in my capacity as Governor of the State of Minnesota and as Chairman of the State Board of Investment, to veto Senate File 1637. I have not signed this bill nor filed it with the Secretary of State.

I deplore discrimination anywhere on the basis of race, religion, color, creed or sex as much as any member of the Legislature. The system of apartheid, which is institutionalized in South Africa is a morally repugnant and unacceptable practice. However, it is my belief that S.F. 1637 would have no impact on the policies of the government of South Africa, but, rather, would simply have an impact on the ability of the State of Minnesota to maximize its investment returns for the retirement and State funds managed by the State Board of Investment.

My decision to veto this bill is based on two factors:

1. A number of individuals from the investment community have expressed concern about any legislation which would reduce the Board's investment flexibility. In addition, the applicability standard established in Section 2 of the bill is unclear and may broaden the scope and impact of the legislation to make it more far-reaching than intended by the Legislature. The State would likely be involved in expensive and lengthy litigation.

2. The State Board of Investment has demonstrated its commitment to promoting corporate social responsibility by actively voting its proxies to effect social and economic change. By prohibiting future investments in certain financial institutions, S.F. 1637 would deprive the Board of its ability to influence through positive actions the loan policies of these institutions. I believe that the State of Minnesota can have a greater impact on these companies by owning their stock and by voting the State's proxies. There is little evidence that prohibiting the State's investment in these institutions will result in any outcome other than having those securities purchased by other investors.

For the foregoing reasons, I believe this bill must be vetoed.

Sincerely,
Albert H. Quie, Governor

March 22, 1982

The Honorable Jack Davies
President of the Senate

Dear Mr. President:

By not signing and not filing with the Secretary of State, I am vetoing Senate File 1988, a bill that relates to the Small Business Community Development Block Grant (CDBG) program.

The Community Development Block Grant program was authorized by Congress in 1974 and is one of a number of federal programs being transferred to the states. The Department of Energy, Planning and Development is charged with the administration of the Small Cities Community Development Block Grant program.

Because states are allowed considerable flexibility in administration of the Community Development Block Grant program, the Department of Energy, Planning and Development has devoted much time and effort during the past eight months to develop a program design which addresses the community development needs of Minnesota's communities while remaining within the intent of federal legislation. The Department of Energy, Planning and Development has been very conscientious in its efforts to solicit and utilize recommendations from concerned organizations, elected oficials and other interested parties throughout the program design process.

The Community Development Block Grant program was designed to give local governments greater flexibility in determining how CDBG funds could best be utilized to meet their local community development needs. Communities could undertake a wide variety of eligible activities set out in the 1974 act: 1) principally benefitting persons of low and moderate income; 2) aiding in the prevention or elimination of slums or blight; 3) meeting other community development needs having a particular urgency.

Senate File 1988 contains no reference to the three objectives of the Community Development Block Grant program and instead emphasizes the requirement of direct benefit to low and moderate income persons.

Therefore, I am vetoing Senate File 1988 for two main reasons: 1) it imposes additional strings on small cities which are not imposed on large cities, and 2) it limits flexibility in identifying projects at a time when emphasis in state programs is on insuring such flexibility.

Sincerely,
Albert H. Quie, Governor

March 22, 1982

The Honorable Jack Davies
President of the Senate

Dear Mr. President:

By not signing and not filing with the Secretary of State, I am vetoing Senate File 1207, a bill that relates to liquor store licensing.

S.F. 1207 purports to exempt certain off-sale liquor licensees and others having an interest in those licenses from the single license limitation of Minnesota Statutes, Section 340.13, Subdivision 3 (1980). The exception created by S.F. 1207 appears to violate Article XII, Section 1, Minnesota Constitution and Amendment XIV, United States Constitution, to the extent that it amounts to special legislation in denial of equal protection of the law to all persons similarly situated.

Although this legislation might very well resolve one pending lawsuit against the State of Minnesota, further litigation may be invited were it to become law.

Sincerely,
Albert H. Quie, Governor

March 22, 1982

The Honorable Jack Davies
President of the Senate

Dear Mr. President:

I am vetoing Senate File 1588, a bill that creates an advisory council on local government. It seems apparent to me that during a time of drastic budget cuts in state and local government, coupled with reductions by federal and state governments in their assistance to local units of government, it is unwise to create another governmental agency to siphon money and manpower from already overstressed budgets. The idea of an advisory council on local government has some merit as does any exchange of ideas and information between levels of government.

While there are some good points to Senate File 1588, I am vetoing it because of the inappropriateness of instituting this council during a time of governmental reductions.

Sincerely,
Albert H. Quie, Governor
