NOTE: An (*) after House File number indicates chief authorship.

1. The first part of the document discusses the importance of maintaining accurate records of all transactions. It emphasizes that proper record-keeping is essential for the integrity of the financial system and for the ability to detect and prevent fraud.

2. The second part of the document outlines the various methods used to collect and analyze data. It describes the use of statistical techniques to identify trends and anomalies in the data, and the importance of using reliable sources of information.

3. The third part of the document discusses the role of the auditor in the process. It explains that the auditor's primary responsibility is to provide an independent and objective assessment of the financial statements, and to ensure that they are prepared in accordance with the applicable accounting standards.

4. The fourth part of the document describes the various types of audits that can be performed. It includes a discussion of the differences between internal and external audits, and the specific procedures used in each type of audit.

5. The fifth part of the document discusses the importance of communication in the audit process. It explains that the auditor must maintain clear and open communication with the client throughout the audit, and must be able to provide a clear and concise report of the findings.

6. The final part of the document discusses the importance of ethics in the audit process. It explains that the auditor must always act in the public interest, and must be able to resist any pressure or influence that might compromise the integrity of the audit.

COMPANION NUMBERS FOR BOTH HOUSE AND SENATE BILLS

SEVENTY-FIRST SESSION—1979-1980

DIRECTIONS: The following table lists all companion numbers for both House and Senate Files. To find either a House or a Senate companion number, read down the Bill Number Column to find the number you want, either a House or a Senate number, and the corresponding companion number will be found in the proper column adjoining. Companion bills are identical at time of introduction in each house.

Example: Bill House Senate
 Number Companion Companion
 2 3 23

In the above example, House File No. 2 has Senate File No. 23 as its companion and Senate File No. 2 has House File No. 3 as its companion.
