“Section 1. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 124.212, Subdivision 10, is amended to read:

Subd. 10. (a) The equalization aid review committee, consisting of the commissioner of education, the commissioner of administration, the commissioner of agriculture, and the commissioner of revenue, is hereby continued and permanently established. The duty of this committee shall be to review the assessed valuation of the districts of the state. When such reviews disclose reasonable evidence that the assessed valuation of any district furnished by any county auditor is not based upon the market value of taxable property in such district, then said committee shall call upon the department of revenue to ascertain the market value of such property, and adjust such values as required by law to determine the adjusted assessed valuation. The department of revenue shall take such steps as are necessary in the performance of that duty and may incur such expense as is necessary therefor. The commissioner of revenue is authorized to reimburse any county or governmental official for services performed at his request in ascertaining such adjusted valuation. On or before March 15, annually, the department of revenue shall submit its report on the assessed values established by the previous year's assessment to said committee for approval or rejection and, if approved, such report shall be filed not later than the following July 1 with the commissioner of education and each county auditor for those school districts for which he has the responsibility for determination of mill rates. A copy of the adjusted assessed value so filed shall be forthwith mailed to the clerk of each district involved and to the county assessor or supervisor of assessments of the county or counties in which such district is located.

(b) For purposes of determining the adjusted assessed value of agricultural lands for the calculation of 1977 adjusted assessed values and thereafter, the market value of agricultural lands shall be the arithmetic average of (1) the price for which the property would sell in an arms length transaction, and (2) the income which could be derived from its free market gross rental rate capitalized at a rate of nine percent.

(c) The committee shall include in the adjusted assessed value of each district the captured assessed value as defined in section 273.73, subdivision 4, of all parcels included in each economic development district as defined in section 273.73, subdivision 12, located within the district."

chapter 472A, by a municipality or redevelopment agency to finance or otherwise pay premiums for insurance guaranteeing the payment of net rentals when due under the project lease or to accumulate and maintain a reserve securing the payment when due of the principal of and interest on the bonds pursuant to chapter 474. These revenues shall not be used to circumvent existing levy limit law. No revenues derived from tax increment shall be used for the construction or renovation of a municipally owned building used primarily and regularly for conducting the business of the municipality. This provision shall not prohibit the use of revenues derived from tax increments for the construction or renovation of a parking structure, a commons area used as a public park or a facility used for social or recreational purposes and not primarily for conducting the business of the municipality."

Sec. 3. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 518.09, is amended to read:

518.09 [PROCEEDING; HOW AND WHERE BROUGHT; VENUE.]

A proceeding for dissolution or legal separation may be brought by either or both spouses and shall be commenced by personal service of the summons and petition venued in the county where (THE PETITIONER) either spouse resides (OR, IF THE PETITIONER IS NOT A RESIDENT OF THE STATE, THEN VENUED IN THE COUNTY WHERE THE RESPONDENT RESIDES). If neither party resides in the state and jurisdiction is based on the domicile of (ONE OR BOTH OF THE PARTIES) either spouse, the proceeding may be brought in the county where either party is domiciled. If neither party resides or is domiciled in this state and jurisdiction is premised upon one of the parties being a member of the armed services stationed in this state for not less than 180 days immediately preceding the commencement of the proceeding, the proceeding may be brought in the county where the member is stationed. This venue shall be subject to the power of the court to change the place of hearing by consent of the parties, or when it appears to the court that an impartial hearing cannot be had in the county where the proceedings are pending, or when the convenience of the parties or the ends of justice would be promoted by the change. 518.145 [DECREE.]

A decree of dissolution of marriage or of legal separation is final when entered, subject to the right of appeal. When entered, the findings of fact and conclusions of law may constitute the judgment and decree. An appeal from the decree of dissolution that does not challenge the finding that the marriage is irretrievably broken does not delay the finality of that provision of the decree which dissolves the marriage beyond the time for appealing from that provision. A party may remarry before the time for appeal has run if it is not contested that the marriage is irretrievably broken or if a stipulation that the marriage is irretrievably broken is incorporated in the decree of dissolution.

Sec. 5. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 518.17, is amended to read:

518.17 [CUSTODY AND SUPPORT OF CHILDREN ON JUDGMENT.]

Subdivision 1. [THE BEST INTERESTS OF THE CHILD.] "The best interests of the child" means all relevant factors to be considered and evaluated by the court including:

(a) The wishes of the child's parent or parents as to his custody;

(b) The reasonable preference of the child, if the court deems the child to be of sufficient age to express preference;

(c) The interaction and interrelationship of the child with his parent or parents, his siblings, and any other person who may significantly affect the child's best interests;

(d) The child's adjustment to his home, school, and community;

(e) The length of time the child has lived in a stable, satisfactory environment and the desirability of maintaining continuity;

(f) The permanence, as a family unit, of the existing or proposed custodial home;

(g) The mental and physical health of all individuals involved;

(h) The capacity and disposition of the parties to give the child love, affection, and guidance, and to continue educating and raising the child in his culture and religion or creed, if any; and

(i) The child's cultural background.

The court shall not consider conduct of a proposed custodian that does not affect his relationship to the child.

Subd. 2. [FACTORS WHEN JOINT CUSTODY IS SOUGHT.] In addition to the factors listed in subdivision 1, where either joint legal or joint physical custody is contemplated or sought, the court shall consider the following relevant factors:

(a) The ability of parents to cooperate in the rearing of their children;

(b) Methods for resolving disputes regarding any major decision concerning the life of the child, and the parents' willingness to use those methods; and

(c) Whether it would be detrimental to the child if one parent were to have sole authority over the child's upbringing.

Subd. 3. [CUSTODY ORDER.] Upon adjudging the nullity of a marriage, or a dissolution or separation, or a child custody proceeding, the court (MAY) shall make such further order as it deems just and proper concerning (THE CARE, CUSTODY, AND MAINTENANCE OF THE MINOR CHILDREN OF THE PARTIES AND MAY DETERMINE WITH WHICH OF THE PARENTS THEY, OR ANY OF THEM, SHALL REMAIN): (a) the legal custody of the minor children of the parties which shall be sole or joint; (b) their physical custody and residence; and (c) their support. In determining (THE PARENT WITH WHOM A CHILD SHALL REMAIN) custody, the court shall consider the best interests of the child and shall not prefer one parent over the other solely on the basis of the sex of the parent.

Subd. (3) 4. [CHILD SUPPORT.] The court may order either or both parents owing a duty of support to a child of the marriage to pay an amount reasonable or necessary for his support, without regard to marital misconduct, after considering all relevant factors including:

- (a) The financial resources and needs of the child;
- (b) The financial resources and needs of the custodial parent;
- (c) The standard of living the child would have enjoyed had the marriage not been dissolved;
- (d) The physical and emotional condition of the child, and his educational needs; and
- (e) The financial resources and needs of the noncustodial parent.

Sec. 6. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 518.551, is amended to read:

518.551 [MAINTENANCE AND SUPPORT PAYMENTS MADE TO WELFARE AGENCIES.]

Subdivision 1. [ORDER FOR PAYMENTS.] A court having jurisdiction over proceedings for dissolution or legal separation shall direct that all payments ordered for maintenance and support shall be made to the agency responsible for the welfare payments, when it appears that the party who is to receive the maintenance and support payments will receive public assistance. Amounts received by the agency greater than the amount granted to the party receiving public assistance shall be remitted to that party.

The petitioner shall notify the agency responsible for the welfare payments of all proceedings for dissolution, legal separation or for the custody of a child if either party is receiving aid to families of dependent children or applies for such aid subsequent to the commencement of the proceeding. After receipt of the notice, the agency shall recommend to the court the support that is proper and adequate for the care and support of the child or children before the issuance of the order for judgment and decree in the proceeding.

If the court finds in a dissolution or legal separation proceeding before issuing the order for judgment and decree that notification has not been given to the agency responsible for the welfare payments, the court shall order that notification be made and shall not issue its order for judgment and decree until the agency has made its recommendations. In those proceedings in which no notification has been made pursuant to this section and in which the agency determines that the judgment is not proper and adequate for the care and support of the child or children, it may petition the court for a redetermination of the support payments ordered.

Subd. 2. [SERVICE FEE.] When the public agency responsible for child support enforcement provides child support collection services either to a public assistance recipient or to a party who does not receive public assistance, the public agency may upon written notice to the obligor charge a monthly collection fee equivalent to the full monthly cost to the county of providing collection services, in addition to the amount of the child support which was ordered by the court. The fee shall be deposited in the county general fund. The service fee assessed is limited to ten percent of the monthly court ordered child support and shall not be assessed to obligors who are current in payment of the monthly court ordered child support. No fee shall be imposed on the party who requests child support collection services.

Sec. 7. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 518.58, is amended to read:

518.58 [DISPOSITION OF MARITAL PROPERTY.]

Upon a dissolution of a marriage, an annulment, or in a proceeding for disposition of property following a dissolution of marriage by a court which lacked personal jurisdiction over the absent spouse or lacked jurisdiction to dispose of the property and which has since acquired jurisdiction, the court shall make a just and equitable disposition of the marital property of the parties without regard to marital misconduct, after making findings regarding the disposition of the property. The court shall base its findings on all relevant factors including the length of the marriage, any prior marriage of a party, the age, health, station, occupation, amount and sources of income, voational skills, employability, estate, liabilities, needs, and opportunity for future acquisition of capital assets, the amount of support, maintenance and income of each party, whether the property award is in lieu of or in addition to maintenance or support. The court shall also consider the contribution of each in the acquisition, preservation, depreciation or appreciation in the amount or value of the marital property, as well as the contribution of a spouse as a homemaker. It shall be presumed that each spouse made a substantial contribution to the acquisition of income and property while they were living together as husband and wife. The court may also award to either spouse the household goods and furniture of the parties, whether or not acquired during the marriage.

If the court finds that either spouse's resources or property, including his portion of the marital property as defined in section 518.54, subdivision 5 are so inadequate as to work an unfair hardship, considering all relevant circumstances, the court may, in addition to the marital property, apportion up to one-half of the property otherwise excluded under section 518.54, subdivision 5, clauses (a) to (d) to prevent the unfair hardship. If the court apportions property other than marital property, it shall make findings in support of the apportionment. The findings shall be based on all relevant factors including the length of the marriage, any prior marriage of a party, the age, health, station, occupation, amount and sources of income, vocational skills, employability, estate, liabilities, needs, and opportunity for future acquisition of capital assets and income of each party.

(UNLESS OTHERWISE SPECIFICALLY SET FORTH IN THE DECREE, IF IN A DECREE OF DISSOLUTION ONE PARTY IS AWARDED THE HOMESTEAD AND THE OTHER PARTY IS AWARDED A FIXED DOLLAR AMOUNT BASED ON AN ASSUMED OR APPRAISED MARKET VALUE OF THE HOMESTEAD AND WITHIN 24 MONTHS FOLLOWING THE DECREE THE HOMESTEAD IS SOLD, WITHIN SIX MONTHS OF THE SALE EITHER PARTY MAY PETITION, AND THE COURT MAY GRANT, AN APPOINTMENT OF THE PROCEEDS IN THE PROPORTION AWARDED IN THE DECREE, BASED UPON THE NET SALE PRICE RATHER THAN THE ASSUMED OR APPRAISED MARKET VALUE. THIS PARAGRAPH SHALL NOT APPLY TO A DECREE OF DISSOLUTION ENTERED BEFORE MAY 30, 1979.)

Subdivision 1. [ADULTS SUBJECT TO GUARDIANSHIP AND CONSERVATORSHIP.] Upon petition as provided in this chapter, the court, if satisfied of the need therefor, may appoint one or two persons suitable and competent to discharge the trust as guardians of the person or estate or of both or as conservators of the person or the estate or of both, of any incapacitated person (THE STANDARD OF PROOF IN CONTESTED CASES SHALL BE THAT OF CLEAR AND CONVINCING EVIDENCE.)

"UNABLE TO MEET ESSENTIAL REQUIREMENTS FOR HIS HEALTH OR SAFETY" MEANS UNABLE TO MEET) his needs for medical care, nutrition, clothing, shelter, or safety (SO THAT, IN THE ABSENCE OF GUARDIANSHIP OR CONSERVATORSHIP, INJURY OR ILLNESS IS LIKELY TO OCCUR IN THE NEAR FUTURE).

Subd. 3. [GUARDIANSHIP OR CONSERVATORSHIP OF THE ESTATE.] Appointment of a guardian or conservator may be made in relation to the estate and financial affairs of an adult person: (a) voluntarily, upon the person's (REQUEST) petition or consent in writing if the court is satisfied of the need thereof, or (b) involuntarily, upon the court's determination that (1) (THAT) the person is unable to manage his property and affairs effectively because he is an incapacitated person, and (2) he has property which will be (WASTED OR) dissipated unless proper management is provided, or that funds are needed for the support, care and welfare of the person or those entitled to be supported by him and (3) (NO LESS RESTRICTIVE FORM OF INTERVENTION IS AVAILABLE WHICH WILL) a guardian or conservator is necessary to adequately protect his estate or financial affairs. Subd. 4. [(APPOINTMENT AS EVIDENCE OF CAPACITY) VOTING.] (APPOINTMENT OF A GUARDIAN IS EVIDENCE OF THE INCOMPETENCY OF THE INCAPACITATED PERSON.) The appointment of a conservator shall not deprive the conservatee of the right to vote, unless the right is restricted by court order.

Subd. 5. [COMPETENCY.] (APPOINTMENT OF A CONSERVATOR IS NOT EVIDENCE OF INCOMPETENCY OF THE INCAPACITATED PERSON, AND DOES NOT REMOVE OR MODIFY ANY CIVIL OR LEGAL RIGHT OF THE INCAPACITATED PERSON EXCEPT AS SPECIFICALLY ORDERED BY THE COURT, PURSUANT TO SECTION 525.551. THE APPOINTMENT OF A CONSERVATOR SHALL NOT DEPRIVE THE CONSERVATEE OF THE RIGHT TO VOTE OR TO MARRY IF OTHERWISE COMPETENT.) Appointment of a guardian is evidence of the incompetency of the incapacitated person. Appointment of a conservator is not evidence of incompetency.

Subd. 6. [AUTHORITY TO APPOINT GUARDIAN.] Nothing contained in this section shall diminish the power of the court to appoint a guardian to serve or protect the interest of any person under disability in any proceedings therein.

Subd. 7. [CERTAIN PROTECTIVE ARRANGEMENTS.] If it is established in a proper proceeding under section 525.551 that a basis exists for the appointment of a guardian or conservator, the court, instead of appointing a guardian or conservator, may (a) authorize, direct or ratify any transaction necessary or desirable to achieve any security, service, or care arrangement meeting the foreseeable needs of the protected person. Protective arrangements include, but are not limited to: payment, delivery, deposit or retention of funds or property; sale, mortgage, lease or other transfer of property; entry into an annuity contract, a contract for life care, a deposit contract or a contract for training and education; or addition to or establishment of a suitable trust; or (b) authorize, direct or ratify any contract, trust or other transaction relating to the protected person's financial affairs or involving his estate if the court determines that the transaction is in the best interests of the protected person.

Before approving a protective arrangement or other transaction under this subdivision, the court shall consider the interests of creditors and dependents of the protected person and, in view of his disability, whether the protected person needs the continuing protection of a guardian or conservator. The court may appoint a special conservator with or without bond to assist in the accomplishment of any protective arrangement or other transaction authorized under this subdivision, who shall have the authority conferred by the order and serve until discharged by order after making a report to the court of all matters done pursuant to the order of appointment.

525.55 [NOTICE OF HEARING.]

Subdivision 1. [TIME OF NOTICE; TO WHOM GIVEN.] In all cases, upon the filing of the petition the court shall fix the time and place for the hearing and shall order that notice be given thereof. At least 14 days prior to the hearing, personal service of the notice shall be made upon the proposed ward or conservatee. Notice shall also be served on his spouse, parents, adult children, (SIBLINGS) brothers and sisters, (NEXT OF KIN) and, if none of those are alive or can be located, on his nearest kindred as determined by the court, and on any other persons the court may direct, by mail postmarked at least 14 days prior to the hearing. If he is a patient or resident of any hospital or other institution, notice by mail shall be given to the administrative head thereof and to the patient or resident. If he is a non-resident or if after diligent search he cannot be found in this state, notice shall be given in the manner and to such persons as the court may determine.

Subd. 2. [FORM; SERVICE.] The notice shall be written in language which can be easily understood. Included with the notice shall be a copy of the petition. The notice shall contain information regarding the nature, purpose and legal effects of the guardianship or conservatorship proceedings on the proposed ward or conservatee. The notice shall state that he may be adjudged incapable of caring for his person or property, and by reason thereof, a guardian or conservator may be appointed for him, and that the adjudication may transfer to the appointed guardian or conservator certain rights, including his right to manage and control property, to enter into contracts and to determine his residence. The notice shall further contain information regarding the rights of the proposed ward or conservatee in the proceeding, including his right to attend the hearing, to be represented by an attorney, to oppose the proceeding, and to present evidence. The notice shall state that if the proposed ward or conservatee wishes to exercise the right to be represented by an attorney, he must either obtain counsel of his own choice, or ask the court to appoint an attorney to represent him, and that the county shall pay a reasonable attorney's fee if he is indigent. The procedure for requesting a court appointed attorney shall be described in the notice.

The process server shall inquire whether the proposed ward or conservatee desires the notice and petition to be read to him, and shall read the notice and petition if requested to do so. In place of a process server, the court may appoint a visitor to deliver the notice and petition and explain them to the proposed ward or conservatee.

Subd. 3. [DEFECTIVE NOTICE OR SERVICE.] A defect in the service of notice or process shall not invalidate any guardianship or conservatorship proceedings.

Sec. 7. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 525.551, is amended to read:

525.551 [HEARING; APPOINTMENT; BOND; PROSECUTION; NOTICE.]

Subdivision 1. [ATTENDANCE AT HEARING.] If the proposed ward or conservatee is within the state, he shall be present at the hearing unless in a meeting with a visitor he specifically waives his right to appear in person or he is not able to attend by reason of medical condition as evidenced by a (LETTER) written statement from a licensed physician. The (LETTER) written statement shall be evidence only of the proposed ward's or conservatee's medical inability to attend the hearing, and shall not be considered in determining the issue of his incapacity. In any instance in which a proposed ward or conservatee is absent from the hearing, the court shall specify in its findings of fact the reason for nonattendance.

If a visitor delivered the notice and petition pursuant to section 525.55 and the proposed ward or conservatee has waived the right to attend the hearing, the visitor may testify as to the notice and any waiver of the right to appear in person, and as to other matters which may assist the court in determining the need for a guardian or conservator and the extent of the power to be granted.

Subd. 2. [INTERCHANGEABILITY OF PETITION.] If the circumstances warrant, the court may treat a petition for guardianship as a petition for conservatorship.

Subd. 3. [CONDUCT OF HEARING; (BURDEN OF) PROOF.] The proposed ward or conservatee has the right to summon and cross-examine witnesses. (THE RULES OF EVIDENCE SHALL APPLY, AND NO HEARSAY EVIDENCE WHICH IS NOT OTHERWISE ADMISSIBLE BY EXCEPTION IN A COURT OF LAW SHALL BE ADMITTED INTO EVIDENCE.) In the proceedings, there is a legal presumption of capacity and the burden of proof shall be on the petitioner. The standard of proof shall be that of clear and convincing evidence.

Subd. 4. [RECORD OF PROCEEDINGS.] In all (CONTESTED) proceedings the court shall take and preserve an accurate stenographic record or tape recording of the proceedings.

Subd. 5. [FINDINGS.] In all cases the court shall find the facts specifically, state separately its conclusions of law thereon, and direct the entry of an appropriate judgment or order.

If upon completion of the hearing and consideration of the record the court finds: (a) that the requirements for the voluntary appointment of a conservator or guardian have been met, or (b) (1) that the proposed ward or conservatee is incapacitated as defined in section 525.54; and (2) in need of the supervision and protection of a guardian or conservator; and (3) that no appropriate alternatives to the guardianship or conservatorship exist which are less restrictive of the person's civil rights and liberties, such as those set forth in section 525.54, subdivision 6, it shall enter its order or judgment granting all of the powers set out in section 525.56, subdivision 3, in the case of a guardian of the person, and section 525.56, subdivision 4, in the case of a guardian of the estate, or specifying the powers of the (GUARDIAN OR) conservator pursuant to section 525.56. (BEFORE APPOINTING A GUARDIAN OR CONSERVATOR) Except as provided in section 525.544, the court shall make a finding that the person to be appointed as guardian or conservator is the most suitable and best qualified person among those who have indicated to the court that they are available and willing to discharge the trust before making the appointment.

The court (SHALL) may enumerate in its findings which legal rights the proposed ward or conservatee is incapable of exercising.

Subd. 6. [BOND.] Upon the filing of a bond by the guardian or conservator of an estate in an amount the court may direct and an oath according to law, or upon the filing of an acceptance of the trust pursuant to section 48.79, letters of guardianship or conservatorship shall issue. If there is no personal property, the court may waive the filing of a bond, but if the guardian or conservator receives or becomes entitled to any property of the ward or conservatee he shall immediately file a report thereof and a bond in an amount the court may direct. In case of breach of a condition of the bond an action thereon may be prosecuted by leave of the court by any interested person or by the court on its own motion.

Subd. 7. [NOTIFICATION OF COMMISSIONER OF PUBLIC WELFARE.] If the ward or conservatee is a patient of a state hospital for the mentally ill, or committed to the guardianship or conservatorship of the commissioner of public welfare as mentally retarded or dependent and neglected or is under the temporary custody of the commissioner of public welfare, the court shall notify the commissioner of public welfare of the appointment of a guardian, conservator or successor guardian or conservator of the estate of the ward or conservatee.

Sec. 8. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 525.5515, is amended to read:

525.5515 [LETTERS OF GUARDIANSHIP OR CONSERVATORSHIP.]

Subdivision 1. [COPY OF ORDER TO WARD OR CONSERVATEE.] A copy of the order appointing the guardian or conservator shall be served by mail upon the ward or conservatee and his counsel, if he was represented at the hearing. The order shall be accompanied by a notice which advises the ward or conservatee of his right to appeal the guardianship or conservatorship appointment within 30 days.

Subd. 2. [CONTENTS OF LETTERS.] Letters of guardianship or conservatorship shall contain: (a) the name, address and telephone number of the guardian or conservator; (b) the name, address and telephone number of the ward or conservatee; (c) whether it is of the estate or of the person or both; and (THE NATURE AND SCOPE OF THE GUARDIANSHIP OR CONSERVATORSHIP;) (d) the (SPECIFIC POWERS AND) legal limitations, if any, imposed by the court on the guardian or conservator (; AND (E) A SPECIFIC LISTING OF THE LEGAL RIGHTS THE WARD OR CONSERVATEE IS NOT ABLE TO EXERCISE).

Subd. 3. [ISSUANCE OF LETTERS.] Letters of guardianship or conservatorship shall issue to the guardian or conservator. (COPIES SHALL BE MAILED OR PERSONALLY SERVED ON THE WARD OR CONSERVATEE, HIS COUNSEL, IF HE WAS REPRESENTED AT THE HEARING, THE RELATIVES OF THE WARD OR CONSERVATEE WHOSE NAMES AND ADDRESSES APPEAR ON THE ORIGINAL PETITION, AND ANY OTHER PERSON, INSTITUTION, ORGANIZATION OR AGENCY WHICH THE COURT DEEMS REASONABLE TO NOTIFY UNDER THE CIRCUMSTANCES OF THE GUARDIANSHIP OR CONSERVATORSHIP.)

Sec. 9. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 525.56, Subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [DUTIES OF GUARDIAN OR CONSERVATOR OF THE PERSON.] The court may appoint a guardian of the person if it determines that all (OF) the powers and duties listed in this subdivision are needed to provide for the needs of the incapacitated person. The court may appoint a conservator of the person if it determines that a conservator is needed to provide for the needs of the incapacitated person through the exercise of some, but not all, of the powers and duties listed in this subdivision. The duties and powers of a guardian or those which the court may grant to a (GUARDIAN OR) conservator of the person include, but are not limited to:

(1) The power to have custody of the ward or conservatee and the power to establish his place of abode within or without the state, except as otherwise provided in this clause. The ward or conservatee or any person interested in his welfare may petition the court to prevent or to initiate a change in abode. A ward or conservatee may not be admitted to any state institution by his guardian or conservator except after a hearing pursuant to section 253A.07.

(2) The duty to provide for the ward's or conservatee's care, comfort and maintenance needs, including food, clothing, shelter, health care, social and recreational requirements, and, whenever appropriate, training, education and rehabilitation. The guardian or conservator has no duty to pay for these requirements out of his own funds. Whenever possible and appropriate, the guardian or conservator (HAS THE DUTY TO) should meet these requirements through governmental benefits or services to which the ward or conservatee is entitled, rather than from the ward's or conservatee's estate. Failure to satisfy the needs and requirements of this clause shall be grounds for removal, but the guardian or conservator shall have no personal or monetary liability.

(3) The duty to take reasonable care of the ward's or conservatee's clothing, furniture, vehicles and other personal effects, and, if other property requires protection, the power to seek appointment of a guardian or conservator of the estate. The guardian or conservator must give notice in the manner required and to those persons specified in section 525.55 prior to the disposition of the ward's or conservatee's clothing, furniture, vehicles or other personal effects. The notice must inform the person that he has the right to object to the disposition of the property within ten days and to petition the court for a review of the guardian's or conservator's proposed actions. Notice of the objection (AND OF THE DATE OF THE HEARING) must be (PERSONALLY) served by mail or personal service on the guardian or conservator and the ward or conservatee unless he be the objector. If the guardian or conservator is served with notice of an objection to the disposition of the property he may not dispose of the property unless the court approves the disposition after a hearing.

(4) (a) The power to give any necessary consent to enable the ward or conservatee to receive necessary medical or other professional care, counsel, treatment or service, except that no guardian or conservator may give consent for psychosurgery, electroshock, sterilization or experimental treatment of any kind unless the procedure is first approved by order of the court as provided in this clause. The guardian or conservator shall not consent to any medical care for the ward or conservatee which violates the known conscientious, religious, or moral belief of the ward or conservatee.

(b) A guardian or conservator who believes a procedure described in clause (4)(a) requiring prior court approval to be necessary for the proper care of the ward or conservatee shall petition the court for an order. The court shall fix the time and place for the hearing and shall give notice to the ward or conservatee and to the other persons specified in section 525.55, subdivision 1. The notice shall comply with the requirements of, and be served in the manner provided in section 525.55, subdivision 2. The court shall appoint an attorney to represent the ward or conservatee, unless he has counsel of his own choice. In every case the court shall determine if the procedure is in the best interests of the ward or conservatee. In making its determination the court shall consider a written medical report which specifically considers the medical risks of the procedure and whether alternative, less restrictive methods of treatment could be used to protect the best interests of the ward or conservatee.

(c) In the case of a petition for sterilization of a mentally retarded ward or conservatee, the court shall appoint a licensed physician, a psychologist who is qualified in the diagnosis and treatment of mental retardation, and a social worker who is familiar with the ward's or conservatee's social history and adjustment to examine or evaluate the ward or conservatee and to provide written reports to the court. The reports shall indicate whether sterilization is necessary and whether it is in the best interests of the ward or conservatee. The medical report shall specifically consider the medical risks of sterilization and whether alternative methods of contraception could be used to protect the best interests of the ward or conservatee.

(5) The power to approve or withhold approval of any contract, except for necessities, which the ward or conservatee may make or wish to make.

(6) The duty and power to exercise supervisory authority over the ward or conservatee in a manner which limits his civil rights and restricts his personal freedom only to the extent necessary to provide needed care and services.

Sec. 10. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 525.56, Subdivision 4, is amended to read:

Subd. 4. [DUTIES OF GUARDIAN OR CONSERVATOR OF THE ESTATE.] The court may appoint a guardian of the estate if it determines that all (OF) the powers and duties listed in this subdivision are needed to provide for the needs of the incapacitated person. The court may appoint a conservator of the estate if it determines that a conservator is necessary to provide for the needs of the incapacitated person through the exercise of some, but not all, of the powers and duties listed in this subdivision. The duties and powers of a guardian or those which the court may (ORDER) grant to a conservator include, but are not limited to:

(1) The duty to pay the reasonable charges for the support, maintenance, and education of the ward or conservatee in a manner suitable to his station in life and the value of his estate. Nothing herein contained shall release parents from obligations imposed by law for the support, maintenance, and education of their children. The guardian or conservator has no duty to pay for these requirements out of his own funds. Wherever possible and appropriate, the guardian or conservator (HAS THE DUTY TO) should meet these requirements through governmental benefits or services to which the ward or conservatee is entitled, rather than from the ward's or conservatee's estate. Failure to satisfy the needs and requirements of this clause shall be grounds for removal, but the guardian or conservator shall have no personal or monetary liability;

(2) The duty to pay out of the ward's or conservatee's estate all just and lawful debts of the ward or conservatee and the reasonable charges incurred for the support, maintenance, and education of the ward's or conservatee's spouse and dependent children and, upon order of the court, pay such sum as the court may fix as reasonable for the support of any person unable to earn a livelihood who is legally entitled to support from the ward or conservatee;

(3) The duty to possess and manage the estate, collect all debts and claims in favor of the ward or conservatee, or, with the approval of the court, compromise them, institute suit on behalf of the ward or conservatee and represent the ward or conservatee in any court proceedings, and invest all funds not currently needed for the debts and charges named in clauses (1) and (2) and the management of the estate, in accordance with the provisions of sections 48.84 and 501.125, subdivision 1, or as otherwise ordered by the court. (WHERE A BANK OR TRUST COMPANY IS A GUARDIAN OR CONSERVATOR, WITH OR WITHOUT COGUARDIANS OR COCONSERVATORS, IT MAY INVEST IN SECURITIES WITHOUT APPROVAL OF THE PROBATE COURT, BUT THE INVESTMENTS BY OTHER GUARDIANS OR CONSERVATORS IN SECURITIES SHALL BE SUBJECT TO THE APPROVAL OF THE PROBATE COURT EXCEPT AS OTHERWISE SPECIFICALLY PROVIDED BY LAW.) The standard of a fiduciary shall be applicable to all investments by a guardian or conservator. A guardian or conservator shall also have the power to purchase certain contracts of insurance as provided in section 50.14, subdivision 14, clause (b) ;

(4) Where a ward or conservatee has inherited an undivided interest in real estate, the court, on a showing that it is for the best interest of the ward or conservatee, may authorize an exchange or sale of the ward's or conservatee's interest or a purchase by the ward or conservatee of any interest other heirs may have in the real estate.

Sec. 11. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 525.58, is amended to read:

525.58 [FILING OF ACCOUNTS; FILING OF AFFIDAVIT.]

Subdivision 1. [ANNUAL ACCOUNT.] Except where expressly waived by the court, every guardian or conservator of the estate annually shall file with the court within 30 days of the anniversary date of the guardian's or conservator's appointment a verified account covering the period from the date of appointment or his last account. The guardian or conservator of the estate shall give a copy of the annual account to the ward or conservatee except where expressly waived by the court after a finding that the ward or conservatee is so incapacitated as to be unable to understand the account or there is a serious likelihood of harm to the ward or conservatee. The court or its designee shall annually review the court file to insure that the account has been filed and that the account contains the information required by this section. If an account has not been filed or if the account does not contain the information required by this section the court shall order the guardian or conservator to file an appropriate account. The examination and acceptance shall not constitute an adjudication or determination of the merits of the account filed nor shall it constitute the court's approval of the account. At the termination of the guardianship or conservatorship, or upon the guardian's or conservator's removal or resignation, he or his surety, or in the event of his death or disability, his representative or surety shall file a verified final account with a petition for the settlement and allowance thereof. Every account shall show in detail all property received and disbursed, the property on hand, the present address of the ward or conservatee and of the guardian or conservator, and unless the guardian or conservator be a corporation, the amount of the bond, the names and addresses of all sureties thereon, that each unincorporated surety is a resident of this state, is not under disability, and is worth the amount in which he justified.

Subd. 2. [NOTICE OF RIGHT TO PETITION FOR RESTORATION OF CAPACITY.] Except where expressly waived by the court after a finding that the ward or conservatee is so incapacitated as to be unable to understand any notice, or there is a serious likelihood of harm to the ward or conservatee, every guardian or conservator shall annually give notice to the ward or conservatee of his right to petition for restoration to capacity, discharge of guardian or conservator, or modification of the orders of guardianship or conservatorship. A waiver shall not be effective for more than two years without a redetermination by the court. The notice shall describe the procedure for preparing and filing such a petition. Notice shall also inform the ward or conservatee that after a petition is filed the court will hold a hearing on the matter and that he has the right to be present and to be represented by counsel at the hearing. The form of the notice shall be approved or supplied by the court.

Subd. 3. [AFFIDAVIT.] Except where expressly waived by the court as provided in subdivision 2, every guardian or conservator shall file annually with the court an affidavit stating that he has given (A COPY OF THE ANNUAL ACCOUNT AND) the notice required by subdivision 2 to the ward or conservatee and every guardian or conservator of an estate shall file an affidavit stating that a copy of the annual account has been given to the ward or conservatee.

Sec. 12. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 525.591, Subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [SPECIAL GUARDIAN OR CONSERVATOR.] Upon a clear showing of necessity, the court with notice may appoint a special guardian or conservator of the person or estate or both of any adult person designated in section 525.54, whether a petition for general guardianship or conservatorship has been filed or not. Notice shall be given in language which can be easily understood at least 24 hours prior to the hearing, and shall contain the information required by section 525.55, subdivision 2, regarding the purpose of the hearing and the rights of the proposed ward or conservatee. A copy of the petition shall be served with the notice. The court may waive the 24 hour notice requirement upon a showing that immediate and reasonably foreseeable harm to the person or his estate will result from the 24 hour delay. Notice of the court's order shall be given to the proposed ward or conservatee.

Sec. 15. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 525.6185, is amended to read:

525.6185 [CONSENT TO SERVICE BY ACCEPTANCE OF APPOINTMENT; NOTICE.]

By accepting a testamentary or court appointment as guardian, a guardian submits personally to the jurisdiction of the court in any proceeding relating to the guardianship that may be instituted by any interested person. Notice of any proceeding shall be given by mail or personal service upon the guardian at least 14 days prior to the date of the hearing. (LETTERS OF GUARDIANSHIP MUST INDICATE WHETHER THE GUARDIAN WAS APPOINTED BY WILL OR BY COURT ORDER.)

Sec. 16. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 525.619, is amended to read:

525.619 [POWERS AND DUTIES OF GUARDIAN OF MINOR.]

A guardian of a minor has the powers and responsibilities of a parent who has not been deprived of custody of his minor and unemancipated child, except that a guardian is not legally obligated to provide from his own funds for the ward. In particular, and without qualifying the foregoing, a guardian has the following powers and duties:

(a) He must take reasonable care of his ward's personal effects and commence protective proceedings if necessary to protect other property of the ward.

(b) He may receive money payable for the support of the ward to the ward's parent, guardian or custodian under the terms of any statutory benefit or insurance system, or any private contract, devise, trust, conservatorship or custodianship. He also may receive money or property of the ward paid or delivered by virtue of section 525.6196. Any sums so received shall be applied to the ward's current needs for support, care and education. He must exercise due care to conserve any excess for the ward's future needs unless a conservator has been appointed for the estate of the ward, in which case the excess shall be paid over at least annually to the conservator. Sums so received by the guardian are not to be used for compensation for his services except as approved by order of court or as determined by a duly appointed conservator other than the guardian. A guardian may institute proceedings to compel the performance by any person of a duty to support the ward or to pay sums for the welfare of the ward.

(c) The guardian is empowered to facilitate the ward's education, social, or other activities and to authorize medical or other professional care, treatment or advice. A ward may not be committed to any state institution except pursuant to sections 253A.01 to 253A.21 and no guardian may give consent for psychosurgery, electroshock, sterilization or experimental treatment of any kind unless the procedure is first approved by the order of the court, after a hearing as prescribed by section 525.56, subdivision 2.

A guardian is not liable by reason of his consent for injury to the ward resulting from the negligence or acts of third persons unless it would have been illegal for a parent to have consented, or unless he fails to comply with the requirements of this section which provide that a court order is necessary for commitment and for certain types of medical procedures. A guardian may consent to the marriage or adoption of his ward.

(d) A guardian must report the condition of his ward and of the ward's estate which has been subject to his possession or control, as ordered by the court on its own motion or on petition of any person interested in the minor's welfare and as required by (SECTION 525.58, SUBDIVISION 1) court rule.

525.6192 [TERMINATION OF APPOINTMENT OF GUARDIAN; GENERAL.]

A guardian's authority and responsibility terminates upon the death, resignation or removal of the guardian or upon the minor's death, adoption, marriage or attainment of majority, but termination does not affect his liability for prior acts, nor his obligation to account for funds and assets of his ward. A guardian may be discharged without notice or hearing on petition and acceptance of the guardian's accounts by the ward after the ward marries or attains majority, or, in the case of the ward's death, by the personal representative of the ward's estate. In other cases the court may discharge the guardian upon approval of his accounts after notice and a hearing. Resignation of a guardian does not terminate the guardianship until it has been approved by the court. A testamentary appointment under an informally probated will terminates if the will is later denied probate in a formal proceeding.

525.6196 [FACILITY OF PAYMENT OR DELIVERY.]

Any person under a duty to pay or deliver money or personal property to a minor may perform this duty, in amounts not exceeding $5,000 per annum, by paying or delivering the money or property to, (1) the minor, if he has attained the age of (18) 16 years or is married; (2) any person having the care and custody of the minor with whom the minor resides; (3) a guardian of the minor; or (4) a financial institution incident to a deposit in a federally insured savings account in the sole name of the minor and giving notice of the deposit to the minor. This section does not apply if the person making payment or delivery has actual knowledge that a conservator has been appointed or proceedings for appointment of a conservator of the estate of the minor are pending. The persons, other than the minor or any financial institution under (4) above, receiving money or property for a minor, are obligated to apply the money to the support and education of the minor, but may not pay themselves except by way of reimbursement for out-of-pocket expenses for goods and services necessary for the minor's support. Any excess sums shall be preserved for future support of the minor and any balance not so used and any property received for the minor must be turned over to the minor when he attains majority. Persons who pay or deliver in accordance with provisions of this section are not responsible for the proper application thereof.

Sec. 19. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 525.6198, is amended to read:

525.6198 [PROTECTIVE PROCEEDINGS; APPOINTMENT OF CONSERVATOR OF ESTATE OF MINOR.]

Upon petition and after notice and hearing in accordance with the provisions of section 525.618 the court may appoint a conservator or make other protective order for cause as follows:

(1) Appointment of a conservator or other protective order may be made in relation to the estate and affairs of a minor if the court determines that a minor owns money or property that requires management or protection which cannot otherwise be provided, has or may have business affairs which may be jeopardized or prevented by his minority, or that funds are needed for his support and education and that protection is necessary or desirable to obtain or provide funds.

(2) The court may grant to the conservator of the estate of a minor any or all of the powers and duties enumerated in section 525.56, subdivision 3, and the conservator shall be subject to the requirements of sections 525.58 (TO), subdivision 1, 525.581 and 525.582 regarding an inventory and accounting, except that the court may waive the requirement that the annual account be served on the ward. The conservator shall file a bond with the court in such amount as the court may direct.

525.62 [MORTGAGE AND LEASE.]

Sections 525.62 to 525.702 shall be applicable only to guardianships and conservatorships and not to decedents' estates. As used in sections 525.62 to 525.702, the word "mortgage" includes an extension of an existing mortgage, subject to the provisions of section 525.691, and the word "lease" means a lease for one or more years, unless the context indicates otherwise.

Sec. 21. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 525.67, is amended to read:

525.67 [AGREEMENT AND SALE FOR PUBLIC PURPOSE.]

When any real estate of a ward or conservatee is desired by any person, firm, association, corporation, or governmental agency having the power of eminent domain, the guardian or conservator may agree, in writing, upon the compensation to be made for the taking, injuring, damaging, or destroying thereof, subject to the approval of the court. When the agreement has been made, the guardian or conservator shall file a petition, of which the agreement shall be a part, setting forth the facts relative to the transaction. The court, with notice as provided in section 525.83, except that no publication is required unless it is ordered by the court, shall hear, determine, and act upon the petition. If the court approves the agreement, the guardian or conservator, upon payment of the agreed compensation, shall convey the real estate sought to be acquired and execute any release which may be authorized.

525.69 [CONVEYANCE OF VENDOR'S TITLE.]

When any ward or conservatee is legally bound to make a conveyance or lease, the court, (WITH) without further notice (AS PROVIDED IN SECTION 525.83, EXCEPT THAT NO PUBLICATION IS REQUIRED), may direct the guardian or conservator to make the conveyance or lease to the person entitled thereto. The petition may be made by any person claiming to be entitled to the conveyance or lease, or by the guardian or conservator, or by any person interested in the estate or claiming an interest in the real estate or contract, and shall show the description of the land and the facts upon which the claim for conveyance or lease is based. Upon proof of the petition, the court may order the guardian or conservator to execute and deliver an instrument of conveyance or lease upon performance of the contract.

525.703 [COSTS.]

In proceedings under sections 525.54 to 525.702 (, AND EXCEPT IN CASES IN WHICH THE PETITIONER FILED A PETITION IN BAD FAITH, FEES FOR COUNSEL REPRESENTING THE PROPOSED WARD OR CONSERVATEE SHALL BE BORNE BY THE PROPOSED WARD OR CONSERVATEE. IN CASES IN WHICH THE PETITIONER ACTED IN BAD FAITH, HE SHALL BEAR THE COSTS. EXCEPT AS OTHERWISE PROVIDED IN THIS SECTION, THE FEE OF PETITIONER'S COUNSEL SHALL BE BORNE BY THE PETITIONER. IN UNCONTESTED CASES THE COURT MAY ORDER THE FEE CHARGED TO THE WARD

OR CONSERVATEE IF THE PETITION IS GRANTED. IF THE PROPOSED WARD OR CONSERVATEE IS INDIGENT, THE FEES FOR WHICH THE WARD OR CONSERVATEE IS RESPONSIBLE SHALL BE BORNE BY THE COUNTY HAVING JURISDICTION OVER THE GUARDIANSHIP PROCEEDINGS) a lawyer or health professional rendering necessary services with regard to the appointment of a guardian or conservator, the administration of the ward's or conservatee's estate or personal affairs or the restoration of his capacity, shall be entitled to reasonable compensation from the estate of the ward or conservatee or from the county having jurisdiction over the proceedings if the ward or conservatee is indigent. When the court determines that other necessary services have been provided for the benefit of the ward or conservatee, the court may order reasonable fees to be paid from the estate of the ward or conservatee or from the county having jurisdiction over the proceedings if the ward or conservatee is indigent. If, however, the court determines that a petitioner, guardian or conservator has not acted in good faith, the court shall order some or all of the fees or costs incurred in the proceedings to be borne by those not acting in good faith.

Sec. 24. [525.705.] [PRE-EXISTING GUARDIANSHIPS AND CONSERVATORSHIPS.]

All guardians and conservators serving prior to August 1, 1981, shall have all powers and duties of section 525.56, subdivision 3, as to the person and section 525.56, subdivision 4, as to the estate, unless restricted by any existing court order, until those powers or duties are restricted or changed by court order.

540.08 [INJURY TO CHILD OR WARD; SUIT BY PARENT OR GUARDIAN.]

A father may maintain an action for the injury of his minor child. When such father has deserted his family or is dead the mother of such minor child may maintain the action. When custody of the injured child has been granted to either parent by a court having jurisdiction, that parent may maintain the action. A general guardian may maintain an action for the injury of his ward. A guardian of a dependent, neglected, or delinquent child, appointed by a court having jurisdiction, may maintain an action for the injury of such child. If no such action is brought by the father or mother, an action for the injury may be brought by a guardian ad litem, either before or after the death of such parent. Before any such parent receives any property as a result of any such action, he shall file such bond as the court prescribes and approves as security therefor. In lieu of this bond, upon petition of the parent, the court may order that the property so received shall be invested in securities issued by the United States, which shall be deposited pursuant to the order of the court, or such property shall be invested in a savings account, savings certificate, or certificate of deposit, in a bank, savings and loan association, or trust company, or an annuity or other form of structured settlement, subject to the order of the court. A copy of the court's order and the evidence of such deposit shall be filed with the clerk of such court. No settlement or compromise of any such action is valid unless it is approved by a judge of the court in which the action is pending.

Inactive investigative data is public unless the release of the data would jeopardize another ongoing investigation or would reveal the identity of individuals protected under subdivision 9. An investigation becomes inactive upon the occurrence of any of the following events:*

(a) A conscious decision by the agency or appropriate prosecutorial authority not to pursue the case;

(b) Expiration of the time to bring a charge or file a complaint under the applicable statute of limitations; and

(c) Exhaustion of all rights of appeal by an individual convicted on the basis of the investigative data.

Any investigative data presented as evidence in court shall be public. Data determined to be inactive under clause (a) of this subdivision may become active if the agency of appropriate prosecutorial authority determines to renew the investigation.

During the time when an investigation is active, any person may bring an action in the district court located in the county where the data is being maintained to authorize disclosure of investigative data. The court may order that all or part of the data relating to a particular investigation be released to the public or to the person bringing the action. In making the determination as to whether investigative data shall be disclosed, the court shall consider whether the benefit to the person bringing the action or to the public outweighs any harm to the public, to the agency or to any person identified in the data. The data in dispute shall be examined by the court in camera.

Subd. 6. [WITHHOLDING PUBLIC DATA.] A law enforcement agency may temporarily withhold response or incident data from public access if the agency reasonably believes that public access would be likely to endanger the physical safety of an individual or cause a perpetrator to flee, evade detection or destroy evidence. In such instances, the agency shall, upon the request of any person, provide a statement which explains the necessity for its action. Any person may apply to a district court for an order requiring the agency to release the data being withheld. If the court determines that the agency's action is not reasonable, it shall order the release of the data and may award costs and attorney's fees to the person who sought the order.

Subd. 7. [PUBLIC BENEFIT DATA.] Any law enforcement agency may make any data classified as confidential pursuant to subdivision 5 accessible to any person, agency or the public if the agency determines that the access will aid the law enforcement process, promote public safety or dispel widespread rumor or unrest.

Subd. 8. [PUBLIC ACCESS.] Wherever certain data is referred to as being public in this section, the law enforcement agency shall not be required to make the actual physical data available to the public. However, the agency must make the public data available to the public in a reasonable fashion. At the time when investigative data becomes inactive, as described in subdivision 5, the actual physical data associated with that investigation, including the public data, shall be available for public access.

Subd. 9. [PROTECTION OF IDENTITIES.] A law enforcement agency may withhold public access to data on individuals to protect the identity of individuals in the following circumstances:

(a) When access to the data would reveal the identity of an undercover law enforcement officer;

(b) When access to the data would reveal the identity of a victim of criminal sexual conduct;

(c) When access to the data would reveal the identity of a paid or unpaid informant being used by the agency if the agency reasonably determines that revealing the identity of the informant would threaten the personal safety of the informant; or

(d) When access to the data would reveal the identity of a victim of or witness to a crime if the victim or witness specifically requests that their identity not be revealed and the agency reasonably determines that revealing identity of the victim or witness would threaten the personal safety of the individual.

Except as provided in subdivisions 1 and 3, organizations are exempted from taxation under this chapter if they are exempt from income taxation pursuant to Subchapter F of the Internal Revenue Code.

Subd. 3. (a) An organization exempt from taxation under subdivision 2 shall, nevertheless, be subject to tax under this chapter to the extent provided in the following provisions of the Internal Revenue Code:

(i) Section 527 (dealing with political organizations) and (ii) section 528 (dealing with certain homeowners associations) but notwithstanding this subdivision, shall be considered an organization exempt from income tax for the purposes of any law which refers to organizations exempt from income taxes.

(b) The tax shall be imposed on the taxable income of political organizations or homeowner associations. The tax shall be at the corporate rates. The tax shall only be imposed on income and deductions assignable to this state under sections 290.17 to 290.20. Except for section 290.09, subdivision 29, to the extent deducted in computing federal taxable income, the deductions contained in sections 290.09 and 290.21 shall not be allowed in computing Minnesota taxable net income.

Subd. 4. (a) Corporations, individuals, estates, trusts or organizations claiming exemption under the provisions of subdivision 1, clause (c), or subdivision 2 shall furnish information as to their exempt status under the Internal Revenue Code.

(b) Such corporations, individuals, estates, trusts, and organizations shall file with the commissioner of revenue a copy of any annual report that is required to be filed with the Internal Revenue Service, no later than ten days after filing the same with the Internal Revenue Service.

Any person required to file a copy of a federal return pursuant to the preceding paragraph who wilfully fails to file such return shall be guilty of a misdemeanor.

(c) In the event that the Internal Revenue Service revokes, cancels or suspends, in whole or part, the exempt status of any corporation, individual, estate, trust or organization referred to in clause (a) of this subdivision, or if the amount of gross income, deductions, credits, items of tax preference or taxable income is changed or corrected by either the taxpayer or the Internal Revenue Service, or if the taxpayer consents to any extension of time for assessment of federal income taxes such corporation, individual, estate, trust or organization shall notify the commissioner in writing of such action within 90 days thereafter.

(d) The periods of limitations contained in section 290.56 shall apply whenever there has been any action referred to in clause (c), notwithstanding any period of limitations to the contrary.

Subd. 5. In the case of any failure to furnish annual report information at the time and in the manner prescribed by subdivision 4, clause (b), unless it is shown that such failure is due to reasonable cause, there shall be paid to the commissioner by the exempt organization a penalty of $100 for each such failure. The penalty shall be immediately due and payable upon notice and demand by the commissioner and may be collected in the same manner as any delinquent income tax.

Subd. 6. The Internal Revenue Code referred to in any of the subdivisions of this section means the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, as amended through December 31, 1980.

Subd. 7. Notwithstanding section 290.61, any information required to be furnished to the commissioner of revenue pursuant to subdivisions 1 and 4 shall be open to public inspection at such times and in such places as the commissioner may prescribe. Nothing in this subdivision shall authorize the commissioner to disclose the name or address of any contributor to any organization which is or was so exempt, or which has applied for tax exempt status, or any other information which could not be disclosed under section 6104 of the Internal Revenue Code.

Sec. 5. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 290.06, Subdivision 3d, is amended to read:

Subd. 3d. [LOW INCOME ALTERNATIVE TAX.] A claimant as defined in 290.012 may pay a tax computed under this subdivision in lieu of the tax computed under sections 290.06, subdivisions 2c, 3e, 3f, 9, 9a, 11, 14 and 290.081 without the provisions of section 290.012 and this subdivision:

(1) For taxable years beginning after December 31, 1979, the alternative tax shall be zero for the following claimants:

- (a) An unmarried claimant with an income of $5,800 or less;
- (b) A claimant with one dependent, with an income of $7,400 or less;
- (c) A claimant with two dependents, with an income of $8,800 or less;
- (d) A claimant with three dependents, with an income of $10,000 or less;
- (e) A claimant with four dependents, with an income of $10,500 or less; and
- (f) A claimant with five or more dependents, with an income of $11,000 or less.

(2) In the case of a claimant with an income in excess of that set forth in the appropriate category of clause (1), he may pay a tax equal to 15 percent of that portion of his income that is in excess of the amount set forth in the appropriate category of clause (1), or his tax obligation as it would have been in the absence of section 290.012 and this subdivision, whichever is less.

(3) The total income for the entire calendar year of the claimant and his spouse, if any, including income not assignable to this state, shall be the figure employed for the purposes of this subdivision. No individual dependent upon and receiving his chief support from any other individual may be a claimant under section 290.012 and this subdivision. The commissioner of revenue shall prescribe the additional forms or alterations in existing forms as necessary to comply with the provisions of section 290.012 and this subdivision. All claimants shall submit their returns on these forms.

The commissioner of revenue shall provide alternative tax tables (WHICH WILL INCLUDE THESE CREDITS).

Sec. 6. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 290.067, Subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [LIMITATIONS.] The credit for expenses incurred for the care of each dependent shall not exceed $400 in any taxable year, and the total credit for all dependents of a claimant shall not exceed $800 in a taxable year. The total credit shall be reduced by five percent of the amount by which the combined federal adjusted gross income, plus the ordinary income portion of any lump sum distribution under section 402(e) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, as amended through December 31, 1980, of the claimant and his spouse, if any, exceeds $15,000. A married claimant shall file his income tax return for the year for which he claims the credit either jointly or separately on one form with his spouse. In the case of a married claimant only one spouse may claim the credit. No expense for which a medical expense deduction is claimed pursuant to section 290.09, subdivision 10, shall be claimed as a dependent care expense.

Sec. 7. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 290.09, Subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [INTEREST.] (a) All interest paid or accrued within the taxable year on indebtedness, except as hereinafter provided.

(b) Interest paid or accrued within the taxable year on indebtedness incurred or continued to purchase or carry obligations or securities the income from which is excludable from gross income under (SECTION) sections 290.01, subdivision 20 or 290.08, or shares of a regulated investment company which during the taxable year of the holder thereof distributes Minnesota exempt-interest dividends as defined in section 290.01, subdivision 27, or on indebtedness (INCURRED OR CONTINUED IN CONNECTION WITH THE PURCHASING OR CARRYING OF A SINGLE PREMIUM LIFE INSURANCE, ANNUITY, OR ENDOWMENT CONTRACT, SHALL NOT BE ALLOWED AS A DEDUCTION. (FOR PURPOSES OF THIS PARAGRAPH, A CONTRACT SHALL BE TREATED AS A SINGLE PREMIUM CONTRACT IF SUBSTANTIALLY ALL THE PREMIUMS ON THE CONTRACT ARE PAID WITHIN A PERIOD OF FOUR YEARS FROM THE DATE ON WHICH THE CONTRACT IS PURCHASED, OR IF AN AMOUNT IS DEPOSITED AFTER JANUARY 1, 1955 WITH THE INSURER FOR PAYMENT OF A SUBSTANTIAL NUMBER OF FUTURE PREMIUMS ON THE CONTRACT.)) described in section 264(a)(2) and (3), (b) and (c) (relating to life insurance) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, as amended through December 31, 1980 shall not be allowed as a deduction.

(c) If personal property or educational services are purchased under a contract (WHICH PROVIDES THAT PAYMENT OF PART OR ALL OF THE PURCHASE PRICE IS TO BE MADE IN INSTALLMENTS, AND IN WHICH CARRYING CHARGES ARE SEPARATELY STATED BUT THE INTEREST CHARGE CANNOT BE ASCERTAINED, THEN THE PAYMENTS MADE DURING THE TAXABLE YEAR UNDER THE CONTRACT SHALL BE TREATED FOR PURPOSES OF THIS PARAGRAPH AS IF THEY INCLUDED INTEREST EQUAL TO SIX PERCENT OF THE AVERAGE UNPAID BALANCE UNDER THE CONTRACT DURING THE TAXABLE YEAR, AND SUCH INTEREST SHALL BE ALLOWED AS A DEDUCTION. FOR PURPOSES OF THE PRECEDING SENTENCE, THE AVERAGE UNPAID BALANCE IS THE SUM OF THE UNPAID BALANCE OUTSTANDING ON THE FIRST DAY OF EACH MONTH BEGINNING DURING THE TAXABLE YEAR, DIVIDED BY 12. IN THE CASE OF ANY CONTRACT TO WHICH THIS PARAGRAPH APPLIES, THE AMOUNT TREATED AS INTEREST FOR ANY TAXABLE YEAR SHALL NOT EXCEED THE AGGREGATE CARRYING CHARGES WHICH ARE PROPERLY ATTRIBUTABLE TO SUCH TAXABLE YEAR.)

(FOR PURPOSES OF THIS SUBDIVISION THE TERM "EDUCATIONAL SERVICES" MEANS ANY SERVICE INCLUDING LODGING WHICH IS PURCHASED FROM AN EDUCATIONAL INSTITUTION (AS DEFINED IN SECTION 151(E) (4) OF THE INTERNAL REVENUE CODE OF 1954, AS AMENDED THROUGH DECEMBER 31, 1979) AND WHICH IS PROVIDED FOR A STUDENT OF SUCH INSTITUTION) the provisions of section 163(b) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, as amended through December 31, 1980 shall apply.

(d) A cash basis taxpayer may elect to deduct interest as it accrues on a reverse mortgage loan as defined in section 47.58, subdivision 1, rather than when it is actually paid. This election must be made, if at all, in the first taxable year in which it is available to the cash basis taxpayer and, if made, shall be binding on the taxpayer for each subsequent taxable year until maturity of the loan.

(e) In the case of a taxpayer other than a corporation, the amount of interest on investment indebtedness allowable as a deduction shall be allowed and limited as set forth in section 163(d) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, as amended through December 31, 1980. The limitation prescribed in section 163(d)(1)(a) for married individuals who file separate returns shall also apply to married individuals who file separately on one return.

Sec. 8. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 290.095, Subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [ALLOWANCE OF DEDUCTION.] (a) There shall be allowed as a deduction for the taxable year the amount of any net operating loss deduction as defined in subdivision 2, clause (b); provided, however, that the modifications specified in subdivision 4 shall be made in computing the taxable net income for the taxable year before the net operating loss deduction shall be allowed.

(b) A net operating loss deduction shall be available under this section only to corporate taxpayers except as provided in subdivisions (6,) 7 (AND), 9 and 11 hereof (, AND, WITH RESPECT TO INDIVIDUALS, NO DEDUCTION SHALL BE ALLOWED FOR OR WITH RESPECT TO LOSSES WHICH CONSTITUTE TAX PREFERENCE ITEMS AS SET FORTH IN SECTION 290.17, SUBDIVISION 1).

Sec. 9. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 290.095, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 11. [CARRYBACK OR CARRYOVER ADJUSTMENTS.] (a) For individuals the amount of a net operating loss that may be carried back or carried over shall be the same dollar amount allowable in the determination of federal adjusted gross income. For estates and trusts the amount of a net operating loss that may be carried back or carried over shall be the same dollar amount allowable in the determination of federal taxable income.

(b) The following adjustments to the amount of the net operating loss that may be carried back or carried over must be made for:

(1) Nonassignable income or losses as required by section 290.17, subdivision 2.

(2) Losses which constitute tax preference items as required in section 290.17, subdivision 1.

(3) Modifications required because of the restrictions on farm losses as provided in section 290.09, subdivision 29.

(4) Adjustments to the determination of federal adjusted gross income that must be made because of changes in the Internal Revenue Code that have not yet been adopted by the legislature by updating the reference to the Internal Revenue Code contained in section 290.01, subdivision 20.

(5) Modifications to income and loss contained in federal adjusted gross income according to the provisions of section 290.01, subdivision 20, clause (c).

(6) Gains or losses which result from the sale or other disposition of property having a higher adjusted basis for Minnesota income tax purposes than for federal income tax purposes subject to the limitations contained in section 290.01, subdivision 20, clause (b) (2) and (4).

(7) Interest, taxes, and other expenses not allowed under section 290.10, clauses (9) and (10) or section 290.101.

(c) (1) The net operating loss carryback or carryover applied as a deduction in the taxable year to which the net operating loss is carried back or carried over shall be equal to the net operating loss carryback or carryover applied in the taxable year in arriving at federal adjusted gross income (or federal taxable income for trusts and estates) subject to the modifications contained in clause (b) and to the following modifications:

(A) Increase the amount of carryback or carryover applied in the taxable year by the amount of losses and interest, taxes and other expenses not assignable or allowable to Minnesota incurred in the taxable year.

(B) Decrease the amount of carryback or carryover applied in the taxable year by the amount of income not assignable to Minnesota earned in the taxable year and the amount of federal jobs credit or WIN credit earned in the taxable year.

(C) A taxpayer who is not a resident of Minnesota during any part of the taxable year and who has no income assignable to Minnesota during the taxable year shall apply no net operating loss carryback or carryover in the taxable year.

(2) The provisions of section 172(b) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 as amended through December 31, 1980 (relating to carrybacks and carryovers) shall apply. The net operating loss carryback or carryover to the next consecutive taxable year shall be the net operating loss carryback or carryover as calculated in clause (c) (1) less the amount applied in the earlier taxable year(s). No additional net operating loss carryback or carryover shall be allowed if the entire amount has been used to offset Minnesota income in a year earlier than was possible on the federal return. A net operating loss carryback or carryover that was allowed to offset federal income in a year earlier than was possible on the Minnesota return shall still be allowed to offset Minnesota income but only if the loss was assignable to Minnesota in the year the loss occurred.

(d) A net operating loss shall be allowed to be carried back or carried forward only to the extent that loss was assignable to Minnesota in the year the loss occurred or in the year to which the loss was carried over, whichever would allow more of the loss to be allowed for Minnesota purposes.

(e) If a taxpayer has a net operating loss for federal purposes and the provisions of the farm loss limitation as provided in section 290.09, subdivision 29 apply, the limitations applying to the farm losses that are carried back or carried over are applied first and the net operating loss that is carried back or carried over is limited to the excess, if any, that the net operating loss exceeds the farm loss limitation.

Sec. 10. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 290.095, Subdivision 9, is amended to read:

Subd. 9. [SPECIAL PERIOD OF LIMITATION WITH RESPECT TO NET OPERATING LOSS CARRYBACKS.]

For the purposes of sections 290.46 and 290.50 if the claim for refund relates to an overpayment attributable to a net operating loss carryback under this section or as the result in the case of an individual of an adjustment of "federal adjusted gross income" because of the carryback under section 172 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, as amended through December 31, 1979 in lieu of the period of limitation prescribed in sections 290.46 and 290.50, the period shall be that period which ends with the expiration of the 15th day of the 46th month (or the 45th month, in the case of a corporation) following the end of the taxable year of the net operating loss which results in such carryback or adjustment of "federal adjusted gross income". During this extended period, married individuals who elected to file separate returns or a combined return may change their election and file a joint return.

Sec. 11. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 290.14, is amended to read:

290.14 [GAIN OR LOSS ON DISPOSITION OF PROPERTY, BASIS.]

The basis for determining the gain or loss from the sale or other disposition of property acquired on or after January 1, 1933, shall be the cost to the taxpayer of such property, with the following exceptions:

(1) If the property should have been included in the last inventory, it shall be the last inventory value thereof;

(2) If the property was acquired by gift, it shall be the same as it would be if it were being sold or otherwise disposed of by the last preceding owner not acquiring it by gift; if the facts required for this determination cannot be ascertained, it shall be the fair market value as of the date, or approximate date, of acquisition by the last preceding owner, as nearly as the requisite facts can be ascertained by the commissioner;

(3) If the property was acquired by gift through an inter vivos transfer in trust, it shall be the same as it would be if it were being sold or otherwise disposed of by the grantor;

(4) Except as otherwise provided in this clause, the basis of property in the hands of a person acquiring the property from a decedent or to whom the property passed from a decedent shall, if not sold, exchanged or otherwise disposed of before the decedent's death by the person, be the fair market value of the property at the date of decedent's death or, in the case of an election under section 2032 (relating to alternate valuation) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, as amended through December 31, 1980, its valuation at the applicable valuation date prescribed by that section, or in the case of an election under section 2032A (relating to valuation of farm real property) of the Internal Rev- enue Code of 1954, as amended through December 31, 1980, its value determined by that section.

For the purposes of the preceding paragraph, the following property shall be considered to have been acquired from or to have passed from the decedent:

(a) Property acquired by bequest, devise, or inheritance, or by the decedent's estate from the decedent;

(b) Property transferred by the decedent during his lifetime in trust to pay the income for life to or on the order or direction of the decedent, with the right reserved to the decedent at all times before his death to revoke the trust;

(c) Property transferred by the decedent during his lifetime in trust to pay the income for life to or on the order or direction of the decedent with the right reserved to the decedent at all times before his death to make any change in the enjoyment thereof through the exercise of a power to alter, amend, or terminate the trust;

(d) Property passing without full and adequate consideration under a general power of appointment exercised by the decedent by will;

(e) In the case of a decedent's dying after December 31, 1956, property acquired from the decedent by reason of death, form of ownership, or other conditions (including property acquired through the exercise or non-exercise of a power of appointment), if by reason thereof the property is required to be included in determining the value of the decedent's gross estate for Minnesota inheritance or estate tax purposes. In this case, if the property is acquired before the death of the decedent, the basis shall be the amount determined under the first paragraph of this clause reduced by the amount allowed to the taxpayer as deductions in computing taxable net income under this chapter or prior Minnesota income tax laws for exhaustion, wear and tear, obsolescence, amortization, and depletion on the property before the death of the decedent. The basis shall be applicable to the property commencing on the death of the decedent. This paragraph shall not apply to annuities described in section 290.08; and property described in paragraphs (a), (b), (c) and (d) of this clause.

This clause shall not apply to property which constitutes a right to receive an item of income in respect of a decedent under section 290.077. Nor shall it apply to restricted stock options described in section 290.078 which the employee has not exercised at death.

(5) If the property was acquired after December 31, 1932, upon an exchange described in section 290.13, subdivision 1, the basis shall be the same as in the case of the property exchanged, decreased in the amount of any money received by the taxpayer and increased in the amount of gain or decreased in the amount of loss to the taxpayer that was recognized upon the exchange under the law applicable to the year in which the exchange was made. If the property so acquired consisted in part of the type of property permitted by section 290.13, subdivision 1, to be received without the recognition of gain or loss, and in part of other property, the basis provided in this clause shall be allocated between the properties, other than money, received, and for the purpose of the allocation there shall be assigned to the other property an amount equivalent to its fair market value at the date of the exchange. This clause shall not apply to property acquired by a corporation by the issuance of its stock or securities as the consideration, in whole or in part, for the transfer of the property to it;

(6) If substantially identical property was acquired in the place of stocks or securities which were sold or disposed of and in respect of which loss was not allowed as a deduction under section 290.09, subdivision 5, the basis in the case of property so acquired shall be the same as in the case of the stock or securities so sold or disposed of, increased by the excess of the repurchase price of the property over the sale price of the stock or securities, or decreased by the excess of the sale price of the stock or securities over the repurchase price of the property;

(7) If the property was acquired after December 31, 1932, as the result of a compulsory or involuntary conversion described in section 290.13; subdivision 5, the basis shall be the same as in the case of the property so converted, decreased in the amount of any money received by the taxpayer which was not expended in accordance with the provisions of law applicable to the year in which conversion was made, determining the taxable status of the gain or loss upon conversion, and increased in the amount of gain or decreased in the amount of loss to the taxpayer recognized upon conversion under the law applicable to the year in which conversion was made.

(8) Neither the basis nor the adjusted basis of any portion of real property shall, in the case of a lessor of the property, be increased or diminished on account of income derived by the lessor in respect of the property and excludable from gross income under section 290.08, subdivision 14.

If an amount representing any part of the value of real property attributable to buildings erected or other improvements made by a lessee in respect of the property was included in gross income of the lessor for any taxable year beginning before January 1, 1943, the basis of each portion of the property shall be properly adjusted for the amount included in gross income.

(9) If the property was acquired by the taxpayer as a transfer of property in exchange for the release of the taxpayer's marital rights, the basis of the property shall be the same as it would be if it were being sold or otherwise disposed of by the person who transferred the property to the taxpayer.

(10) The basis of property subject to the provisions of section 1034 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, as amended through December 31, 1979 (relating to the rollover of gain on sale of principal residence) shall be the same as the basis for federal income tax purposes. The basis shall be increased by the amount of gain realized on the sale of a principal residence outside of Minnesota, while a nonresident of this state, which gain was not recognized because of the provisions of section 1034.

Sec. 12. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 290.37, Subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [PERSONS MAKING RETURNS.] The commissioner of revenue shall annually determine the gross income levels at which individuals and estates shall be required to file a return for each taxable year.

In the case of a decedent who has gross income in excess of the minimum amount at which an individual is required to file a return, the decedent's final income tax return shall be filed by his or her personal representative, if any. If there is no personal representative, the return shall be filed by the successors (as defined in section 524.1-201) who receive any property of the decedent.

The trustee or other fiduciary of property held in trust shall file a return with respect to the taxable net income of such trust if that exceeds an amount on which a tax at the rates herein provided would exceed the specific credits allowed, or if the gross income of such trust exceeds $750, if in either case such trust belongs to the class of taxable persons.

Every corporation shall file a return (WITH RESPECT TO ITS TAXABLE NET INCOME IF IN EXCESS OF $500, OR IF ITS GROSS INCOME EXCEEDS $5,000). The return in this case shall be signed by an officer of the corporation.

The receivers, trustees in bankruptcy, or assignees operating the business or property of a taxpayer shall file a return with respect to the taxable net income of such taxpayer if that exceeds an amount on which a tax at the rates herein provided would exceed the specific credits allowed ((OR, IF THE TAXPAYER IS A CORPORATION, IF THE TAXABLE NET INCOME EXCEEDS $500), OR IF SUCH TAXPAYER'S GROSS INCOME EXCEEDS $5,000).

Such return shall (a) be verified or contain a written declaration that it is made under the penalties of criminal liability for wilfully making a false return, and (b) shall contain a confession of judgment for the amount of the tax shown due thereon to the extent not timely paid.

For purposes of this subdivision the term "gross income" shall mean gross income as defined in section 61 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, as amended through December 31, 1979, modified and adjusted in accordance with the provisions of sections 290.01, subdivision 20, clauses (b)(1), (b)(6) and (b)(11), 290.08, and 290.17.

Sec. 13. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 290.39, Subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [IN GENERAL.] Every return shall specifically set forth the items of gross income, deductions, credits against net income, credits against the tax, and any other data necessary for computing the amount of any item required for determining the amount of the net income tax liability. The return shall be in such form as the commissioner of revenue may prescribe. The filing of a return required under this section shall be deemed an assessment subject to revision of the tax shown due on the basis of such return.

In the event a taxpayer files a return which does not contain all the information required by this subdivision, the commissioner may, in addition to any other remedies which may be available, bring an action in equity by the state against the taxpayer for an injunction ordering the taxpayer to file a complete and proper return in accordance with this subdivision. The district courts of this state shall have jurisdiction over the action and disobedience of an injunction issued under this subdivision shall be punished as a contempt of district court.

Sec. 14. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 290.39, Subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [(SINGLE FORM FOR SEPARATE RETURNS) SEPARATE COMPUTATIONS ON A SINGLE RETURN.] Notwithstanding the provisions of section 290.61, a husband and wife may elect to (FILE SEPARATE) compute their Minnesota income tax (RETURNS) separately on a single (FORM) return, in which event:

(a) if the sum of the payments by either spouse, including withheld and estimated taxes, exceeds the amount of tax (FOR WHICH) of such spouse (IS SEPARATELY LIABLE) as computed separately, the excess may be applied by the commissioner to the credit of the other spouse if the sum of the payments by such other spouse, including withheld and estimated taxes, is less than the amount of the tax (FOR WHICH) of such other spouse (IS SEPARATELY LIABLE) as computed separately;

(b) if the sum of the payments made by both spouses with respect to the taxes (FOR WHICH THEY ARE SEPARATELY LIABLE) of both as computed separately, including withheld and estimated taxes, exceeds the total of the taxes due, refund of the excess may be made payable to both spouses or may be credited against any liability in respect of Minnesota income tax on the part of either spouse;

(c) if the sum of the payments made by both spouses with respect to the taxes of both as computed separately, including withheld and estimated taxes, is less than the total of the taxes due, the liability for the unpaid tax shall be joint and several; provided that a spouse may be relieved of liability in those cases contained in section 6013(e) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 as amended through December 31, 1980 (for purposes of computing the 25 percent test contained in that section, the amount of gross income stated in the return shall include the total gross income of both spouses);

(d) if the standard deduction provided for by section 290.09, subdivision 15, is not utilized, then the total of the Minnesota itemized deductions of a husband and wife may be taken by either or divided between them as they elect.

Sec. 15. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 290.39, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 3. The commissioner may, in his discretion, provide for use a short form individual income tax return which shall be in the form and provide for items as the commissioner may prescribe which are consistent with the provisions of this chapter, notwithstanding any other law to the contrary. The political checkoff provided in section 10A.31 shall be included on the short form.

Sec. 18. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 290.41, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 6. [FAILURE TO FILE RETURN.] In the case of each failure to file a return required by this section on the date prescribed therefor (determined with regard to any extension of time for filing), unless it is shown that such failure is due to reasonable cause and not to wilful neglect, the payer failing to file such return shall pay to the commissioner a penalty of $10 for each such failure, but the total amount imposed on the delinquent payer for all such failures during any calendar year shall not exceed $1,000. The penalty shall be collected in the same manner as any delinquent income tax.

Sec. 19. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 290.42, is amended to read:

290.42 [FILING RETURNS, DATE.]

The returns required to be made under sections 290.37 to 290.39 and 290.41, other than those under section 290.41, subdivisions 3 and 4, which shall be made within 30 days after demand therefor by the commissioner, shall be filed at the following times:

(1) Returns made on the basis of the calendar year shall be filed on the fifteenth day of April, following the close of the calendar year, except that returns of corporations shall be filed on the fifteenth day of March following the close of the calendar year;

(2) Returns made on the basis of the fiscal year shall be filed on the fifteenth day of the fourth month following the close of such fiscal year, except that returns of corporations shall be filed on the fifteenth day of the third month following the close of the fiscal year;

(3) Returns made for a fractional part of a year as an incident to a change from one taxable year to another shall be filed on the fifteenth day of the fourth month following the close of the period for which made, except that such returns of corporations shall be filed on the fifteenth day of the third month following the close of the period for which made;

(4) Other returns for a fractional part of a year shall be filed on the fifteenth day of the fourth month following the end of the month in which falls the last day of the period for which the return is made, except that such returns of corporations shall be filed on the fifteenth day of the third month following the end of the month in which falls the last day of the period for which the return is made:

In the case of a final return of a decedent for a fractional part of a year, such return shall be filed on the fifteenth day of the fourth month following the close of the twelve-month period which began with the first day of such fractional part of a year.

(4a) In the case of the return of a cooperative association such returns shall be filed on or before the fifteenth day of the ninth month following the close of the taxable year.

(5) If the due date for any return required under chapter 290 falls upon:

(A) A Saturday, such return filed by the following Monday shall be considered to be timely filed;

(B) A legal holiday, such return filed on the next succeeding business day shall be considered to be timely filed, except, that for the purpose of this paragraph, Saturday shall not be considered to be a business day.

(6) In case of sickness, absence, or other disability, or when, in his judgment, good cause exists, the commissioner may extend the time for filing these returns for not more than six months, except that where the failure is due to absence outside the United States he may extend the period until 30 days after the taxpayer's return to this state. He may require each taxpayer in any of such cases to file a tentative return at the time fixed for filing the regularly required return from him, and to pay a tax on the basis of such tentative return at the times required for the payment of taxes on the basis of the regularly required return from such taxpayer. The commissioner may exercise his power under this clause by general regulation only.

(7) Every person making a return under section 290.41 (except subdivisions 3 and 4) shall furnish to each person whose name is set forth in the return a written statement showing

(A) the name and address of the person making the return, and

(B) the aggregate amount of payments to the person shown on the return.

This written statement shall be furnished to the person on or before January 31 of the year following the calendar year for which the return was made. A duplicate of this written statement shall be furnished to the commissioner on or before February 28 of the year following the calendar year for which the return was made.

Sec. 20. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 290.43, is amended to read:

290.43 [RETURNS, WHERE FILED.]

The returns required to be made under sections 290.37 to 290.39 and 290.41 shall be filed with the commissioner at his office in St. Paul, or such other place as the commissioner may designate.

Sec. 21. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 290.44, is amended to read:

290.44 [PAYMENT OF TAX, WHO MUST PAY.]

The taxes imposed by this chapter, and interest and penalties imposed with respect thereto, shall be paid by the taxpayer upon whom imposed, except in the following cases:

(1) The tax due from a decedent for that part of the taxable year in which he died during which he was alive shall be paid by his personal representative(;), if any. If there is no personal representative, the tax shall be paid by the successors (as defined in section 524.1-201) to the extent they receive property from the decedent.

(2) The tax due from an infant or other incompetent person shall be paid by his guardian or other person authorized or permitted by law to act for him;

(3) The tax due from the estate of a decedent shall be paid by the personal representative thereof;

(4) The tax due from a trust, including those within the definition of corporation, shall be paid by the trustee or trustees;

(5) The tax due from a taxpayer whose business or property is in charge of a receiver, trustee in bankruptcy, assignee, or other conservator, shall be paid by the person in charge of such business or property so far as the tax is due to the income from such business or property.

290.46 [EXAMINATION OF RETURNS; ASSESSMENTS, REFUNDS.]

The commissioner shall, as soon as practicable after the return is filed, examine the same and make any investigation or examination of the taxpayer's records and accounts that he may deem necessary for determining the correctness of the return. The tax computed by him on the basis of such examination and investigation shall be the tax to be paid by such taxpayer. If the tax found due shall be greater than the amount reported as due on the taxpayer's return, the commissioner shall assess a tax in the amount of such excess and the whole amount of such excess shall be paid to the commissioner within 60 days after notice of the amount and demand for its payment shall have been mailed to the taxpayer by the commissioner. If the understatement of the tax on the return was false and fraudulent with intent to evade the tax, the installments of the tax shown by the taxpayer on his return which have not yet been paid shall be paid to the commissioner within 60 days after notice of the amount thereof and demand for payment shall have been mailed to the taxpayer by the commissioner. If the amount of the tax found due by the commissioner shall be less than that reported as due on the taxpayer's return, the excess shall be refunded to the taxpayer in the manner provided by section 290.50 (except that no demand therefor shall be necessary), if he has already paid the whole of such tax, or credited against any unpaid installment thereof; provided, that no refundment shall be made except as provided in section 290.50, after the expiration of three and one-half years after the filing of the return.

If the commissioner examines returns of a taxpayer for more than one year, he may issue one order covering the several years under consideration reflecting the aggregate refund or additional tax due.

The notices and demands provided for by sections 290.46 to 290.48 shall be in such form as the commissioner may determine (including a statement) and shall contain a brief explanation of the computation of the tax and shall be sent by mail to the taxpayer at the address given in his return, or to his last known address.

In cases where there has been an overpayment of a self-assessed liability as shown on the return filed by the taxpayer, the commissioner may refund such overpayment to the taxpayer and no demand therefor shall be necessary; further, written findings by the commissioner, notice by mail to the taxpayer and certificate for refundment by the commissioner shall not be necessary and the provisions of section 270.10, in such case, shall not be applicable.

In the case of an individual, estate or trust, the commissioner may audit and adjust the taxpayer's computation of federal adjusted gross income (or federal taxable income for estates or trusts) to make it properly conform with the provisions of section 290.01, subdivision 20.

Sec. 23. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 290.53, Subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [FAILURE TO FILE; FILING FALSE OR FRAUDULENT RETURN; INTENT TO EVADE TAX; 50 PERCENT PENALTY.] If any person, with intent to evade the tax imposed by this (ACT) chapter, shall fail to file any return required by this (ACT) chapter, or shall with such intent file a false or fraudulent return, there shall also be imposed on him as a penalty an amount equal to 50 percent of any tax (less any amounts paid by him on the basis of such false or fraudulent return) found due from him for the period to which such return related. The penalty imposed by this subdivision shall be collected as part of the tax, and shall be in addition to any other penalties, civil and criminal, provided by this section. The amount of the tax and any other penalties together with this amount shall bear interest at the rate specified in section 270.75 from the time the tax should have been paid until paid. This amount shall be in lieu of any amount determined under subdivision 3a.

Sec. 24. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 290.53, Subdivision 3a, is amended to read:

Subd. 3a. [INTENTIONAL DISREGARD OF RULES AND REGULATIONS.] If any part of any additional assessment (, AS DETERMINED UNDER SECTION 290.46,) is due to negligence or intentional disregard of rules and regulations (but without intent to defraud), there shall be added to the tax an amount equal to five percent of such additional assessment. The amount of the tax together with this amount shall bear interest at the rate specified in section 270.75 from the time the tax should have been paid until paid.

290.61 [PUBLICITY OF RETURNS, INFORMATION.]

It shall be unlawful for the commissioner or any other public official or employee to divulge or otherwise make known in any manner any particulars set forth or disclosed in any report or return required by this chapter, or any information concerning, the taxpayer's affairs acquired from his or its records, officers, or employees while examining or auditing any taxpayer's liability for taxes imposed hereunder, except in connection with a proceeding involving taxes due under this chapter from the taxpayer making such return or to comply with the provisions of section 290.612. The commissioner may furnish a copy of any taxpayer's return to any official of the United States or of any state having duties to perform in respect to the assessment or collection of any tax imposed upon or measured by income, if such taxpayer is required by the laws of the United States or of such state to make a return therein. The commissioner may disclose information concerning the taxpayer to the Minnesota department of economic security for purposes of auditing unemployment tax and benefits. The commissioner may disclose information concerning the taxpayer to the Minnesota department of public welfare for purposes of auditing welfare benefits. Prior to the release of any information to any official of the United States or any other state or the department of economic security or the department of public welfare under the provisions of this section, the person to whom the information is to be released shall sign an agreement which provides that he will protect the confidentiality of the returns and information revealed thereby to the extent that it is protected under the laws of the state of Minnesota. The commissioner and all other public officials and employees shall keep and maintain the same secrecy in respect to any information furnished by any department, commission, or official of the United States or of any other state in respect to the income of any person as is required by this section in respect to information concerning the affairs of taxpayers under this chapter. Nothing herein contained shall be construed to prohibit the commissioner from publishing statistics so classified as not to disclose the identity of particular returns or reports and the items thereof. Upon request of a majority of the members of the senate tax committee or of the house tax committee or the tax study commission, the commissioner shall furnish abstracted financial information to those committees for research purposes from returns or reports filed pursuant to this chapter, provided that he shall not disclose the name, address, social security number, business identification number or any other item of information associated with any return or report which the commissioner believes is likely to identify the taxpayer. The commissioner shall not furnish the actual return, or a portion thereof, or a reproduction or copy of any return or portion thereof. "Abstracted financial information" means only the dollar amounts set forth on each line on the form including the filing status.

Any person violating the provisions of this section shall be guilty of a gross misdemeanor.

In order to locate the named payee on state warrants issued pursuant to this chapter or chapter 290A and undeliverable by the United States postal service, the commissioner may publish in any English language newspaper of general circulation in this state a list of the name and last known address of the payee as shown on the reports or returns filed with the commissioner. The commissioner may exclude the names of payees whose refunds are in an amount which is less than a minimal amount to be determined by the commissioner. The published list shall not contain any particulars set forth on any report or return. The publication shall include instructions on claiming the warrants.

An employee of the department of revenue may, in connection with his official duties relating to any audit, collection activity, or civil or criminal tax investigation or any other offense under this chapter, disclose return information to the extent that such disclosure is necessary in obtaining information, which is not otherwise reasonably available, with respect to the correct determination of tax, liability for tax, or the amount to be collected or with respect to the enforcement of any other provision of this chapter.

(2) [PAYROLL PERIOD.] For purposes of this section the term "payroll period" means a period for which a payment of wages is ordinarily made to the employee by his employer, and the term "miscellaneous payroll period" means a payroll period other than a daily, weekly, bi-weekly, semi-monthly, monthly, quarterly, semi-annual, or annual payroll period.

(3) [EMPLOYEE.] For purposes of this section the term "employee" means any resident individual performing services for an employer, either within or without, or both within and without the state of Minnesota, and every nonresident individual performing services within the state of Minnesota, the performance of which services constitute, establish, and determine the relationship between the parties as that of employer and employee. As used in the preceding sentence, the term "employee" includes an officer of a corporation, and an officer, employee, or elected official of the United States, a state, (TERRITORY,) or any political subdivision thereof, or the District of Columbia, or any agency or instrumentality of any one or more of the foregoing.

(4) [EMPLOYER.] For purposes of this section the term "employer" means any person, including individuals, fiduciaries, estates, trusts, partnerships, and corporations transacting business in or deriving any income from sources within the state of Minnesota for whom an individual performs or performed any service, of whatever nature, as the employee of such person, except that if the person for whom the individual performs or performed the services does not have legal control of the payment of the wages for such services, the term "employer," except for purposes of paragraph (1), means the person having legal control of the payment of such wages. As used in the preceding sentence, the term "employer" includes any corporation, individual, estate, trust, or organization which is exempt from taxation under section 290.05 and further includes, but is not limited to, officers of corporations who have legal control, either individually or jointly with another or others, of the payment of the wages.

(5) [NUMBER OF WITHHOLDING EXEMPTIONS CLAIMED.] For purposes of this section, the term "number of withholding exemptions claimed" means the number of withholding exemptions claimed in a withholding exemption certificate in effect under subdivision 5, except that if no such certificate is in effect, the number of withholding exemptions claimed shall be considered to be zero.

Sec. 27. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 290.92, Subdivision 2a, is amended to read:

Subd. 2a. [COLLECTION AT SOURCE.] (1) [DEDUCTIONS.] Every employer making payment of wages shall deduct and withhold upon such wages a tax as provided in this section.

(2) [WITHHOLDING ON PAYROLL PERIOD.] The employer shall withhold the tax on the basis of each payroll period or as otherwise provided in this section.

(3) [WITHHOLDING TABLES.] Unless the amount of tax to be withheld is determined as provided in subdivision 3, the amount of tax to be withheld for each individual shall be based upon tables to be prepared and distributed by the commissioner. The tables shall be computed for the several permissible withholding periods and shall take account of exemptions allowed under this section; and the amounts computed for withholding shall be such that the amount withheld for any individual during his taxable year shall approximate in the aggregate as closely as possible the tax which is levied and imposed under this chapter for that taxable year, upon his salary, wages, or compensation for personal services of any kind for the employer, and shall take into consideration the allowable deduction for federal income tax and the deduction allowable under section 290.09, subdivision 15, and the credits against the tax allowable under the Minnesota income tax act.

(4) [MISCELLANEOUS PAYROLL PERIOD.] If wages are paid with respect to a period which is not a payroll period, the amount to be deducted and withheld shall be that applicable in the case of a miscellaneous payroll period containing a number of days, including Sundays and holidays, equal to the number of days in the period with respect to which such wages are paid.

(5) [MISCELLANEOUS PAYROLL PERIOD.] (a) In any case in which wages are paid by an employer without regard to any payroll period or other period, the amount to be deducted and withheld shall be that applicable in the case of a miscellaneous payroll period containing a number of days equal to the number of days, including Sundays and holidays, which have elapsed since the date of the last payment of such wages by such employer during the calendar year, or the date of commencement of employment with such employer during such year, or January 1 of such year, whichever is the later.

(b) In any case in which the period, or the time described in clause (a), in respect of any wages is less than one week, the commissioner, under regulations prescribed by him, may authorize an employer to determine the amount to be deducted and withheld under the tables applicable in the case of a weekly payroll period, in which case the aggregate of the wages paid to the employee during the calendar week shall be considered the weekly wages.

(6) [WAGES COMPUTED TO NEAREST DOLLAR.] If the wages exceed the highest bracket, in determining the amount to be deducted and withheld under this subdivision, the wages may, at the election of the employer, be computed to the nearest dollar.

(7) [REGULATIONS ON WITHHOLDING.] The commissioner may, by regulations, authorize employers:

(a) To estimate the wages which will be paid to any employee in any quarter of the calendar year;

(b) To determine the amount to be deducted and withheld upon each payment of wages to such employee during such quarter as if the appropriate average of the wages so estimated constituted the actual wages paid; and

(c) To deduct and withhold upon any payment of wages to such employee during such quarter such amount as may be necessary to adjust the amount actually deducted and withheld upon wages of such employee during such quarter to the amount required to be deducted and withheld during such quarter without regard to this paragraph (7).

(8) [ADDITIONAL WITHHOLDING.] The commissioner is authorized to provide by regulation, under such conditions and to such extent as he deems proper, for withholding in addition to that otherwise required under this subdivision and subdivision 3 in cases in which the employer and the employee agree to such additional withholding. Such additional withholding shall for all purposes be considered tax required to be deducted and withheld under this section.

(9) [TIPS.] In the case of tips which constitute wages, this subdivision shall be applicable only to such tips as are included in a written statement furnished to the employer pursuant to section 6053 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, as amended through December 31, 1980, and only to the extent that the tax can be deducted and withheld by the employer, at or after the time such statement is so furnished and before the close of the calendar year in which such statement is furnished, from such wages of the employee (excluding tips, but including funds turned over by the employee to the employer for the purpose of such deduction and withholding) as are under the control of the employer; and an employer who is furnished by an employee a written statement of tips (received in a calendar month) pursuant to section 6053 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 as amended through December 31, 1980 to which subdivision 1 is applicable may deduct and withhold the tax with respect to such tips from any wages of the employee (excluding tips) under his control, even though at the time such statement is furnished the total amount of the tips included in statements furnished to the employer as having been received by the employee in such calendar month in the course of his employment by such employer is less than $20. Such tax shall not at any time be deducted and withheld in an amount which exceeds the aggregate of such wages and funds as are under the control of the employer minus any tax required by other provisions of state or federal law to be collected from such wages and funds.

Sec. 28. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 290.92, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 5a. [VERIFICATION OF WITHHOLDING EXEMPTIONS; APPEAL.] (1) An employer shall submit to the commissioner a copy of any withholding exemption certificate received from an employee on which the employee claims any of the following:

(a) a total number of withholding exemptions in excess of nine, or

(b) a status that would exempt the employee from Minnesota withholding, unless the employee is a nonresident exempt from withholding under subdivision 4a, clause (3), or the employer reasonably expects, at the time that the certificate is received, that the employee's wages under subdivision 1 from the employer will not then usually exceed $200 per week, or

(c) any number of withholding exemptions which the employer has reason to believe is in excess of the number to which the employee is entitled.

(2) Copies of exemption certificates required to be submitted by clause (1) shall be submitted to the commissioner within 30 days after receipt by the employer unless the employer is also required by federal law to submit copies to the Internal Revenue Service, in which case the employer may elect to submit the copies to the commissioner at the same time that he is required to submit them to the Internal Revenue Service.

(3) An employer who submits a copy of a withholding exemption certificate in accordance with clause (1) shall honor the certificate until notified by the commissioner that the certificate is invalid. The commissioner shall mail a copy of any such notice to the employee. Upon notification that a particular certificate is invalid, the employer shall not honor that certificate or any subsequent certificate unless instructed to do so by the commissioner. The employer shall allow the employee the number of exemptions and compute the withholding tax as instructed by the commissioner in accordance with clause (4).

(4) The commissioner may require an employee to verify that he or she is entitled to the number of exemptions or to the exempt status claimed on the withholding exemption certificate or, that he or she is a nonresident. The employee shall be allowed at least 30 days to submit the verification, after which time the commissioner shall, on the basis of the best information available to him, determine the employee's status and allow the employee the maximum number of withholding exemptions allowable under this chapter. The commissioner shall mail a notice of this determination to the employee at the address listed on the exemption certificate in question. Notwithstanding the provisions of section 290.61, the commissioner may notify the employer of this determination and instruct the employer to withhold tax in accordance with the determination.

(5) The commissioner's determination under clause (4) shall be appealable to tax court in accordance with section 271.06, and shall remain in effect for withholding tax purposes pending disposition of any appeal.

Sec. 29. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 290.92, Subdivision 7, is amended to read:

Subd. 7. [WITHHOLDING STATEMENT TO EMPLOYEE OR PAYEE AND TO COMMISSIONER.] (1) Every person required to deduct and withhold from an employee a tax under subdivision 2a or subdivision 3, or who would have been required to deduct and withhold a tax under subdivision 2a or subdivision 3, determined without regard to subdivision 19, if the employee had claimed no more than one withholding exemption, or who paid wages not subject to withholding under subdivision 2a or 3 to an employee in excess of $600, or who has entered into a voluntary withholding agreement with a payee pursuant to subdivision 20, shall furnish to each such employee in respect to the remuneration paid by such person to such employee during the calendar year, on or before January 31 of the succeeding year, or, if his employment is terminated before the close of such calendar year, (ON THE DAY ON WHICH) at the employee's request within 30 days after the last payment of remuneration is made, a written statement showing the following:

- (a) Name of such person,
- (b) The name of the employee or payee and his social security account number,
- (c) The total amount of wages as that term is defined in subdivision 1(1), and/or the total amount of remuneration subject to withholding pursuant to subdivision 20, and the amount of sick pay as required under section 6051(f) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, as amended through December 31, 1980,
- (d) The total amount deducted and withheld as tax under subdivision 2a or subdivision 3.

(2) The statement required to be furnished by this subdivision in respect of any remuneration shall be furnished at such other times, shall contain such other information, and shall be in such form as the commissioner may prescribe.

(3) The commissioner may prescribe regulations providing for reasonable extensions of time, not in excess of 30 days, to employers or payers required to furnish such statements to their employees or payees under this subdivision.

(4) A duplicate of any statement made pursuant to this subdivision and in accordance with (REGULATIONS) rules prescribed by the commissioner, along with a reconciliation in such form as the commissioner may prescribe of all such statements for the calendar year (including a reconciliation of the quarterly returns required to be filed pursuant to subdivision 6), shall be filed with the commissioner (AT SUCH TIME AS HE MAY BY REGULATIONS PRESCRIBE) on or before February 28 of the year after the payments were made. (SUCH DUPLICATE WHEN SO FILED SHALL CONSTITUTE THE INFORMATION RETURN REQUIRED TO BE MADE IN RESPECT OF WAGES, SALARIES AND COMMISSIONS UNDER SECTION 290.41, SUBDIVISION 2.)

Sec. 30. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 290.92, Subdivision 15, is amended to read:

Subd. 15. [PENALTIES.] (1) If any tax required to be deducted and withheld under subdivision 2a or subdivision 3, or any portion thereof, is not paid to or deposited with the commissioner within the time specified in subdivision 6 for the payment thereof, there shall be added thereto a penalty equal to ten percent of the amount so remaining unpaid. Such penalty shall be collected as part of said tax, and the amount of said tax not timely paid, together with said penalty, shall bear interest at the rate specified in section 270.75 from the time such tax should have been paid or deposited until paid. Where an extension of time for payment has been granted under the provisions of subdivision 6, interest shall be paid at the rate specified in section 270.75 from the date when such payment or deposit should have been made if no extension had been granted, until such tax is paid. If payment is not made at the expiration of the extended period the penalties provided in this subdivision shall apply.

(2) In the case of any failure to withhold a tax on wages, make and file quarterly returns or make payments to or deposits with the commissioner of amounts withheld, as required by this section, within the time prescribed by law, unless it is shown that such failure is not due to wilful neglect, there shall be added to the tax in lieu of the penalty provided in paragraph (1) a penalty equal to ten percent of the amount of tax that should have been properly withheld and paid over to or deposited with the commissioner if the failure is for not more than 30 days with an additional five percent for each additional 30 days or fraction thereof during which such failure continues, not exceeding 25 percent in the aggregate. The amount of the tax together with this amount shall bear interest at the rate specified in section 270.75 from the time the tax should have been paid until paid. The amount so added to the tax shall be collected at the same time and in the same manner and as a part of the tax unless the tax has been paid before the discovery of the negligence, in which case the amount so added shall be collected in the same manner as the tax.

(3) If any employer required to withhold a tax on wages, make deposits, make and file quarterly returns and make payments to the commissioner of amounts withheld, as required by sections 290.92 to 290.97, wilfully fails to withhold such a tax or make such deposits, files a false or fraudulent return, wilfully fails to make such a payment or deposit, or wilfully attempts in any manner to evade or defeat any such tax or the payment or deposit thereof, there shall also be imposed on such employer as a penalty an amount equal to 50 percent of the amount of tax (less any amount paid or deposited by such employer on the basis of such false or fraudulent return or deposit) that should have been properly withheld and paid over or deposited with the commissioner. The amount of the tax together with this amount shall bear interest at the rate specified in section 270.75 from the time the tax should have been paid until paid. The penalty imposed by this paragraph shall be collected as a part of the tax, and shall be in addition to any other penalties civil and criminal, prescribed by this subdivision.

(4) If any person required under the provisions of subdivision 7 to furnish a statement to an employee or payee and a duplicate statement to the commissioner, or to furnish a reconciliation of such statements (and quarterly returns) to the commissioner, wilfully furnishes a false or fraudulent statement to an employee or payee or a false or fraudulent duplicate statement or reconciliation of statements (and quarterly returns) to the commissioner, or wilfully fails to furnish a statement or such reconciliation in the manner, at the time, and showing the information required by the provisions of subdivision 7, or regulations prescribed by the commissioner thereunder, there shall be imposed on such a person a penalty of $10 for each such act or failure to act. The penalty imposed by this paragraph shall become due and payable within ten days after the mailing of a written demand therefor, and may be collected in the manner prescribed in subdivision 6(8).

(5) In addition to the penalties hereinbefore prescribed, any person required to withhold a tax on wages, make and file quarterly returns and make payments or deposits to the commissioner of amounts withheld, as required by this section, who wilfully fails to withhold such a tax or truthfully make and file such a quarterly return or make such a payment or deposit, shall be guilty of a gross misdemeanor.

(6) In lieu of any other penalty provided by law, except the penalty provided by paragraph (4), any person required under the provisions of subdivision 7 to furnish a statement of wages to an employee and a duplicate statement to the commissioner, who wilfully furnishes a false or fraudulent statement of wages to an employee or a false or fraudulent duplicate statement of wages to the commissioner, or who wilfully fails to furnish such a statement in the manner, at the time, and showing the information required by the provisions of subdivision 7, or regulations prescribed by the commissioner thereunder, shall be guilty of a gross misdemeanor.

(7) Any employee required to supply information to his employer under the provisions of subdivision 5, who wilfully fails to supply information thereunder which would require an increase in the tax to be deducted and withheld under subdivision 2a or subdivision 3, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor.

(8) The term "person," as used in this section, includes an officer or employee of a corporation, or a member or employee of a partnership, who as such officer, employee, or member is under a duty to perform the act in respect of which the violation occurs.

(9) All payments received shall be credited first to penalties, next to interest, and then to the tax due.

(10) In addition to any other penalty provided by law, any employee who furnishes a withholding exemption certificate to his employer which the employee has reason to know contains a materially incorrect statement shall be liable to the commissioner of revenue for a penalty of $100 for each instance. The penalty shall be immediately due and payable and may be collected in the same manner as any delinquent income tax.

(11) *In addition to any other penalty provided by law, any employer who fails to submit a copy of a withholding exemption certificate required by section 28, clause (1)(a), (1)(b), or (2) shall be liable to the commissioner of revenue for a penalty of $50 for each instance. [ESTIMATED TAX DEFINED.] For purposes of this section, in the case of an individual, the term "estimated tax" means the amount which the individual estimates as the sum of the taxes imposed by this chapter (other than the tax imposed by section 290.091), for the taxable year, minus the amount which the individual estimates as his allowable credits against income tax under this chapter.

Sec. 34. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 290.93, Subdivision 10, is amended to read:

Subd. 10. [UNDERPAYMENT OF ESTIMATED TAX.] (1) In the case of any underpayment of estimated tax by an individual, except as provided in paragraph (4), there may be added to and become a part of the taxes imposed by this chapter, for the taxable year an amount determined at the rate specified in section 270.75 upon the amount of the underpayment for the period of the underpayment.

(b) The amount, if any, of the installment paid on or before the last day prescribed for such payment.

(3) The period of the underpayment shall run from the date the installment was required to be paid to whichever of the following dates is the earlier

(b) With respect to any portion of the underpayment, the date on which such portion is paid. For purposes of this subparagraph, a payment of estimated tax on any installment date shall be considered a payment of any previous underpayment only to the extent such payment exceeds the amount of the installment determined under paragraph (2) (a) for such installment date.

(4) The addition to the tax with respect to any underpayment of any installment shall not be imposed if the total amount of all payments of estimated tax made on or before the last date prescribed for the payment of such installment equals or exceeds the amount which would have been required to be paid on or before such date if the estimated tax were whichever of the following is the lesser.

(ii) Dividing the resulting amount by the number of months in the taxable year ending before the month in which such installment date falls, or

The assessment shall bear interest from the date the claim is paid by the state until the date of repayment by the claimant, at the rate (OF SIX PER CENT PER ANNUM) specified in section 270.75. The claimant, and any person who assisted in the preparation of filing of the excessive claim or supplied information upon which the excessive claim was prepared, with fraudulent intent, is guilty of a misdemeanor.

Subd. 2. [REFORMATION.] In addition to the remedies provided in section 8.31, if a court reviewing a consumer contract finds that:

- (1) a material provision of the contract violates section 3;*
- (2) the violation caused the consumer to be substantially confused about any of the rights, obligations or remedies of the contract; and*
- (3) the violation has caused or is likely to cause financial detriment to the consumer, the court may reform or limit the application of the provision so as to avoid an unfair result. If the court so reforms or limits the application of a provision of a consumer contract, the court shall also make such orders as may be necessary to avoid conferring any unjust enrichment. Bringing a claim for relief pursuant to this subdivision shall not entitle or authorize a consumer to withhold or suspend performance of any otherwise valid contractual obligation. No relief shall be granted pursuant to this subdivision unless the claim is brought before the obligations of the contract have been fully performed.*

Sec. 6. [325G.34] [LIMITS ON REMEDIES.]

Subdivision 1. [PENALTIES.] In any proceeding in which civil penalties are claimed from a party for a violation of section 3, it shall be an affirmative defense to that claim that the party had made a good faith and reasonable effort to comply with section 3.

Subd. 2. [ATTORNEY'S FEES.] No party who has made a good faith and reasonable effort to comply with section 3 shall be assessed attorney's fees or costs of investigation in any action for violating section 3.

Subd. 3. [CLASS ACTION ATTORNEY'S FEES.] In any class action or series of class actions which arise from the use by a particular individual of a particular consumer contract found to violate section 3, the amount of attorney's fees and costs of investigation assessed against that individual and in favor of the consumer class or classes shall not exceed $10,000.

Subd. 4. [LIMITS ON CONSUMER ACTIONS.] Violation of section 3 shall not constitute a defense to any claim arising from a consumer's breach of a consumer contract or to an action for unlawful detainer. A consumer may recover actual damages caused by a violation of section 3 only if the violation relates to a material provision of a consumer contract and caused the consumer to be substantially confused about any of the rights, obligations or remedies of the contract.

Subd. 5. [STATUTE OF LIMITATIONS.] Any claim that a consumer contract violates section 3 shall be raised within six years of the date the contract is executed by the consumer.

Sec. 7. [325G.35] [REVIEW BY THE ATTORNEY GENERAL.]

Subdivision 1. [PROCESS OF REVIEW.] Any seller, creditor or lessor may submit a consumer contract to the attorney general for a review as to whether the contract complies with the requirements of section 3. After reviewing the contract the attorney general shall: (1) certify that the contract complies with section 3; (2) decline to certify that the contract complies with section 3 and note his objections to the contractual language; (3) decline to review the contract and refer the party submitting the contract to other previously certified contracts of the same type; (4) decline to review the contract because the contract's compliance with section 3 is the subject of pending litigation; or (5) decline to review the contract because the contract is not subject to section 3.

Subd. 2. [PROCESS NOT REVIEWABLE.] Actions of the attorney general pursuant to subdivision 1 shall not be subject to Minnesota Statutes, Chapter 15, and shall not be appealable.

Subd. 3. [LIMITED EFFECT OF CERTIFICATION.] Any consumer contract certified pursuant to subdivision 1 shall be deemed to comply with section 3. Certification of a consumer contract pursuant to subdivision 1 shall not otherwise be deemed an endorsement or approval of the contract's legality, validity or legal effect.

Subd. 4. [REVIEW NOT REQUIRED.] Failure to submit a contract to the attorney general for review pursuant to subdivision 1 shall not be deemed a lack of good faith nor shall it raise a presumption that the contract violates section 3. If pur- suant to subdivision 1 the attorney general refers a party to a previously certified contract and the party chooses not to use that contract, that choice shall not be deemed a lack of good faith nor shall that choice raise a presumption that a contract used by that party violated section 3.

Subd. 5. [FEE FOR REVIEW.] The attorney general may charge a fee, not to exceed $50, for the actual costs of reviewing a consumer contract pursuant to subdivision 1.

Sec. 8. [WAIVERS VOID.]

Any provision of a consumer contract which waives or attempts to waive any provision of sections 1 to 8 is void.

Sec. 9. [EFFECTIVE DATE.]

Sections 1 to 6 and 8 shall take effect on July 1, 1983. Section 7 shall take effect the day following final enactment. Sections 1 to 8 shall not affect any consumer contract executed before July 1, 1983. A previously existing consumer contract renewed after July 1, 1983, shall be subject to sections 1 to 8. No provision for renewal of a consumer contract shall be invalid merely because compliance with sections 1 to 8 changes the form of the renewal agreement. For the purposes of this section periodic tenancies shall be deemed to renew at the commencement of each rental period."

Sec. 13. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 79.071, is amended by adding subdivisions to read:

Subd. 8. When an insurer's estimate of amounts required to be reserved is based in any part on the operation of section 176.645, any assumption as to reserves required due to the operation of section 176.645, shall, for the purposes of determining rates, be offset by an assumption that the amount initially reserved shall be invested and yield a return equal to the annual percentage increase in the statewide average weekly wage. With respect to other reserved amounts, the commissioner shall, in determining rates, cause those rates to fully reflect the investment earnings of insurers which arise from revenues derived from the sale of workers' compensation insurance, either by use of a discount rate of no less than six percent in determining the reserves necessary for all claims, or by the use of an alternative methodology which the commissioner finds is more appropriate. Insurers shall provide the commissioner with any information which he deems necessary to arrive at the determination required by this subdivision.

Subd. 9. In no case shall more than one insurer reserve amounts in anticipation of losses on a single claim, nor shall an insurer reserve amounts in anticipation of losses which are the responsibility of the reinsurance association.

Sec. 14. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 79.34, Subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. A nonprofit association known as the workers' compensation reinsurance association is created, which may be incorporated under chapter 317 with all the powers of a corporation formed under that chapter, except that if the provisions of that chapter are inconsistent with sections 79.34 to 79.42 or any amendments thereto, sections 79.34 to 79.42 shall govern. Each insurer as defined by section 79.01, subdivision 2, shall as a condition of its authority to transact workers' compensation insurance in this state, be a member of the reinsurance association and shall be bound by the plan of operation of the reinsurance association; provided, that all affiliated insurers within a holding company system as defined in sections 60D.01 to 60D.13 shall be considered a single entity for purposes of the exercise of all rights and duties of membership in the reinsurance association. Each self-insurer approved pursuant to section 176.181 and each political subdivision which self-insures shall, as a condition of its authority to self-insure workers' compensation liability in this state, be a member of the reinsurance association and shall be bound by its plan of operation; provided, that (a) all affiliated companies within a holding company system, as determined by the commissioner in a manner consistent with the standards and definitions in sections 60D.01 to 60D.13, shall be considered a single entity for purposes of the exercise of all rights and duties of membership in the reinsurance association, and (b) all group self-insurers granted authority to self-insure pursuant to section 176.181 shall be considered a single entity for purposes of the exercise of all the rights and duties of membership in the reinsurance association. The reinsurance association shall not be deemed a state agency. Actions of the reinsurance association and its board of directors and actions of the commissioner of insurance with respect to the reinsurance association shall not be subject to chapter 15. The reinsurance association shall be exempt from taxation under the laws of this state and all property owned by the association shall be exempt from taxation. The reinsurance association shall not be obligated to make any payments or pay any assessments to any funds or pools established pursuant to this chapter or chapter 176 or any other law.

Sec. 15. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 79.34, Subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. The reinsurance association shall provide and each member shall accept indemnification for 100 percent of the amount of ultimate loss sustained in each loss occurrence relating to one or more claims arising out of a single compensable event, including aggregate losses related to a single event or occurrence which constitutes a single loss occurrence, under chapter 176 on and after October 1, 1979, in excess of $300,000 or $100,000 retention limit, at the option of the member. In case of occupational disease causing disablement on and after October 1, 1979, each person suffering such disablement shall be considered to be involved in a separate loss occurrence. (EACH) The lesser retention limit shall be increased to the nearest $10,000, on January 1, (1981) 1982 and on each January 1 thereafter by the percentage increase in the statewide average weekly wage, as determined in accordance with section 176.011, subdivision 20. On January 1, 1982 and on each January 1 thereafter, the greater retention limit shall be increased by the amount necessary to retain a $200,000 difference between the two retention limits. Ultimate loss as used in this section means the actual loss amount which a member is obligated to pay and which is paid by the member for workers' compensation benefits payable under chapter 176 and shall not include claim expenses, assessments, damages or penalties. A loss is incurred by the reinsurance association on the date on which the accident or other compensable event giving rise to the loss occurs, and a member is liable for a loss up to its retention limit in effect at the time that the loss was incurred, except that members which are determined by the reinsurance association to be controlled by or under common control with another member, and which are liable for claims from one or more employees entitled to compensation for a single compensable event, including aggregate losses relating to a single loss occurrence, may aggregate their losses and obtain indemnification from the reinsurance association for the aggregate losses in excess of the higher retention limit in effect at the time the loss was incurred. Each member is liable for payment of its ultimate loss and shall be entitled to indemnification from the reinsurance association for the ultimate loss in excess of the member's retention limit in effect at the time of the loss occurrence.

A member that chooses the higher retention limit shall retain the liability for all losses below the higher retention limit itself and shall not transfer the liability to any other entity or reinsure or otherwise contract for reimbursement or indemnification for losses below its retention limit, except in the following cases: (a) when the reinsurance or contract is with another member which, directly or indirectly, through one or more intermediaries, control or are controlled by or are under common control with the members; (b) when the reinsurance or contract provides for reimbursement or indemnification of a member if and only if the total of all claims which the member pays or incurs, but which are not reimbursable or subject to indemnification by the reinsurance association for a given period of time, exceeds a dollar value or percentage of premium written or earned and stated in the reinsurance agreement or contract; (c) when the reinsurance or contract is a pooling arrangement with other insurers where liability of the member to pay claims pursuant to chapter 176 is incidental to participation in the pool and not as a result of providing workers' compensation insurance to employers on a direct basis under chapter 176; (OR (D) ANY OTHER REINSURANCE OR CONTRACT APPROVED BY THE COMMISSIONER UPON HIS DETERMINATION THAT THE REINSURANCE OR CONTRACT IS NOT INCONSISTENT WITH THE BASES FOR EXCEPTION PROVIDED UNDER CLAUSES (A), (B) AND (C) ABOVE) (d) when the reinsurance or contract is limited to all the claims of a specific insured of a member which are reimbursed or indemnified by a reinsurer which, directly or indirectly, through one or more intermediaries, controls or is controlled by or is under common control with the insured of the member so long as any subsequent contract or reinsurance of the reinsurer relating to the claims of the insured of a member is not inconsistent with the bases of exception provided under clauses (a), (b) and (c) above; or (e) when the reinsurance or contract is limited to all claims of a specific self-insurer member which are reimbursed or indemnified by a reinsurer which, directly or indirectly, through one or more intermediaries, controls or is controlled by or is under common control with the self-insurer member so long as any sub- sequent contract or reinsurance of the reinsurer relating to the claims of the self-insurer member are not inconsistent with the bases for exception provided under clauses (a), (b) and (c) above.

Whenever it appears to the commissioner that any member that chooses the higher retention limit has participated in the transfer of liability to any other entity or reinsured or otherwise contracted for reimbursement or indemnification of losses below its retention limit in a manner inconsistent with the bases for exception provided under clauses (a), (b), (c), (d), and (e), the commissioner may, after giving notice and an opportunity to be heard, order the member to pay to the state of Minnesota an amount not to exceed twice the difference between the reinsurance premium for the higher and lower retention limit applicable to the member for each year in which the prohibited reinsurance or contract was in effect. Any member subject to this penalty provision shall continue to be bound by its selection of the higher retention limit for purposes of membership in the reinsurance association.

Sec. 16. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 79.35, is amended to read:

79.35 [DUTIES; RESPONSIBILITIES; POWERS.]

The reinsurance association shall do the following on behalf of its members:

(a) Assume 100 percent of the liability as provided in section 79.34;

(b) Establish procedures by which members shall promptly report to the reinsurance association each claim which, on the basis of the injury sustained, may reasonably be anticipated to involve liability to the reinsurance association if the member is held liable under chapter 176. Solely for the purpose of reporting claims, the member shall in all instances consider itself legally liable for the injury. The member shall advise the reinsurance association of subsequent developments likely to materially affect the interest of the reinsurance association in the claim;

(c) Maintain relevant loss and expense data relative to all liabilities of the reinsurance association and require each member to furnish statistics in connection with liabilities of the reinsurance association at the times and in the form and detail as may be required by the plan of operation;

(d) Calculate and charge to members a total premium sufficient to cover the expected liability which the reinsurance association will incur in excess of the higher retention limit but less than ($500,000) the prefunded limit, together with incurred or estimated to be incurred operating and administrative expenses for the period to which this premium applies and actual claim payments to be made by members, during the period to which this premium applies, for claims in excess of ($500,000 FOR THE PERIOD TO WHICH THIS PREMIUM IS APPLICABLE) the prefunded limit in effect at the time the loss was incurred. The prefunded limit shall be $2,500,000 on and after October 1, 1979, provided that the prefunded limit shall be increased on January 1, 1983 and on each January 1 thereafter by the percentage increase in the statewide average weekly wage, to the nearest $100,000, as determined in accordance with section 176.011, subdivision 20. Each member shall be charged a proportion of the total premium in an amount equal to its proportion of the total standard earned premium of all members during the period to which the reinsurance association premium will apply, as determined by the commissioner. Each member exercising the lower retention option shall also be charged a premium established by the board as sufficient to cover incurred or estimated to be incurred claims for the liability the reinsurance association is likely to incur between the lower and higher retention limits for the period to which the premium applies. Each (MEMBER'S PREMIUM) member shall (INCLUDE AN AMOUNT) also be charged a premium determined by the board to equitably distribute excess or deficient premiums from previous periods including any excess or deficient premiums resulting from a retroactive change in the prefunded limit. An equitable basis for determining standard earned premium for self-insurers shall be established by the commissioner. The premiums charged to members shall not be unfairly discriminatory as defined in section 79.074. All premiums shall be approved by the commissioner;

(e) Require and accept the payment of premiums from members of the reinsurance association;

(f) Receive and distribute all sums required by the operation of the reinsurance association;

(g) Establish procedures for reviewing claims procedures and practices of members of the reinsurance association. If the claims procedures or practices of a member are considered inadequate to properly service the liabilities of the reinsurance association, the reinsurance association may undertake, or may contract with another person, including another member, to adjust or assist in the adjustment of claims which create a potential liability to the association and may charge the cost of the adjustment to the member; and

(h) Provide each member of the reinsurance association with an annual report of the operations of the reinsurance association in a form the board of directors may specify.

Sec. 17. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 79.36, is amended to read:

79.36 [ADDITIONAL POWERS.]

In addition to the powers granted in section 79.35, the reinsurance association may do the following:

(a) Sue and be sued. A judgment against the reinsurance association shall not create any direct liability against the individual members of the reinsurance association. The reinsurance association shall provide in the plan of operation for the indemnification, to the extent provided in the plan of operation, of the members, members of the board of directors of the reinsurance association, and officers, employees and other persons lawfully acting on behalf of the reinsurance association;

(b) Reinsure all or any portion of its potential liability, including potential liability in excess of ($500,000) the prefunded limit, with reinsurers licensed to transact insurance in this state or otherwise approved by the commissioner;

(c) Provide for appropriate housing, equipment, and personnel as may be necessary to assure the efficient operation of the reinsurance association;

(d) Contract for goods and services, including but not limited to independent claims management, actuarial, investment, and legal services from others within or without this state to assure the efficient operation of the reinsurance association;

(e) Adopt operating rules, consistent with the plan of operation, for the administration of the reinsurance association, enforce those operating rules, and delegate authority as necessary to assure the proper administration and operation of the reinsurance association;

(f) Intervene in or prosecute at any time, including but not limited to intervention or prosecution as subrogee to the member's rights in a third party action, any proceeding under this chapter or chapter 176 in which liability of the reinsurance association may, in the opinion of the board of directors of the reinsurance association or its designee, be establish, or the reinsurance association affected in any other way;

(g) The net proceeds derived from intervention or prosecution of any subrogation interest, or other recovery, shall first be used to reimburse the reinsurance association for amounts paid or payable pursuant to this chapter, together with any expenses of recovery, including attorney's fees, and any excess shall be paid to the member or other person entitled thereto, as determined by the board of directors of the reinsurance association, unless otherwise ordered by a court.

(h) Hear and determine complaints of a company or other interested party concerning the operation of the reinsurance association; and

(i) Perform other acts not specifically enumerated in this section which are necessary or proper to accomplish the purposes of the reinsurance association and which are not inconsistent with sections 79.34 to 79.42 or the plan of operation.

Sec. 18. [79.50] [PURPOSES.]

The purposes of chapter 79 are to:

(a) Promote public welfare by regulating insurance rates so that premiums are not excessive, inadequate, or unfairly discriminatory;

(b) Promote quality and integrity in the data bases used in workers' compensation insurance ratemaking;

(c) Prohibit price fixing agreements and anticompetitive behavior by insurers;

(d) Promote price competition and provide rates that are responsive to competitive market conditions;

(e) Provide a means of establishment of proper rates if competition is not effective;

(f) Define the function and scope of activities of data service organizations; and

(g) Provide for an orderly transition from regulated rates to competitive market conditions.

Sec. 19. [79.51] [RULES.]

Subdivision 1. [ADOPTION; WHEN.] The commissioner shall adopt rules to implement provisions of chapter 79. The rules shall be finally adopted after May 1, 1982. By January 15, 1982, the commissioner shall provide the legislature a description and explanation of the intent and anticipated effect of the rules on the various factors of the rating system.

Subd. 2. [TRANSITION PERIOD; RULES GOVERN.] Insurance rates from July 1, 1983, to December 31, 1985, shall be determined in accordance with rules adopted by the commissioner. The rules shall require (1) that a hearing be held pursuant to the provisions of section 79.071 to consider any petition requesting modification of rates and (2) that following the hearing the commissioner shall adopt a schedule of rates.

Subd. 3. [RULES; SUBJECT MATTER.] (a) The commissioner in issuing rules shall consider:

(1) Data reporting requirements, including types of data reported, such as loss and expense data;

(2) Experience rating plans;

(3) Retrospective rating plans;

(4) General expenses and related expense provisions;

(5) Minimum premiums;

(6) Classification systems and assignment of risks to classifications;

(7) Loss development and trend factors;

(8) The workers' compensation reinsurance association;

(9) Restrictions, prohibitions, and requirements with respect to the activities of the workers' compensation insurers rating association of Minnesota during the period from July 1, 1983 to January 1, 1986;

(10) Requiring substantial compliance with the rules mandated by this section as a condition of workers' compensation carrier licensure;

(11) Imposing limitations on the functions of workers' compensation data service organizations consistent with the introduction of competition;

(12) The rules contained in the workers' compensation rating manual adopted by the workers' compensation insurers rating association; and

(13) Any other factors that the commissioner deems relevant to achieve the purposes of sections 1 through 18.

(b) The rules shall provide for the following:

(1) Competition in workers' compensation insurance rates in such a way that the advantages of competition are introduced with a minimum of employer hardship during the transition period;

(2) Adequate safeguards against excessive or discriminatory rates in workers' compensation during the transition period;

(3) Encouragement of workers' compensation insurance rates which are as low as reasonably necessary, but shall make provision against inadequate rates, insolvencies and unpaid benefits;

(4) Assurances that employers are not unfairly relegated to the assigned risk pool;

(5) Requiring all appropriate data and other information from insurers for the purpose of issuing rules and making legislative recommendations pursuant to this section; and

(6) Preserving a framework for risk classification, data collection, and other appropriate joint insurer services where these will not impede the introduction of competition in premium rates.

(c) The rules shall expire on January 1, 1986.

Subd. 4. [ADVISORY COMMITTEE.] The commissioner shall appoint an advisory committee which shall offer recommendations regarding rulemaking under this section. The advisory committee shall include representatives of insurers, employers, and employees.

Sec. 20. [79.52] [DEFINITIONS.]

Subdivision 1. [GENERALLY.] The following words or phrases shall have the meanings ascribed to them for the purposes of sections 1 to 14, unless the context clearly indicates that a different meaning is intended.

Subd. 2. [MARKET.] "Market" means any reasonable grouping or classification of employers.

Subd. 3. [DATA SERVICE ORGANIZATION.] "Data service organization" means any entity which has ten or more members or is controlled directly or indirectly by ten or more insurers and is engaged in collecting data for use in insurance ratemaking or other activities permitted by chapter 79. Affiliated members or insurers shall be counted as a single unit for the purpose of this definition. The workers' compensation insurers rating association of Minnesota shall be considered a data service organization.

Subd. 4. [CLASSIFICATION PLAN; CLASSIFICATION.] "Classification plan" or "classification" means the plan, system, or arrangement for rating insurance policyholders.

Subd. 5. [RATES.] “Rates” means the cost of insurance per exposure base unit.

Subd. 6. [BASE PREMIUM.] “Base premium” means the amount of premium which an employer would pay for insurance derived by applying rates to an exposure base prior to the application of any merit rating or discount factors.

Subd. 7. [PREMIUM.] “Premium” means the price charged to an insured for insurance for a specified period of time, regardless of the timing of actual payments.

Subd. 8. [DISCOUNT FACTOR.] “Discount factor” means any factor which is applied to the base premium and which is based upon insurer expenses or other factors not related to the risk of loss.

Subd. 9. [MERIT RATING.] “Merit rating” means a system or form of rating by which base premium is modified on the basis of loss experience or other factors which are reasonably related to loss or risk of loss and which may be reasonably affected by the action or activities of the insured. The sensitivity of a merit rating system to loss experience may vary by the size of risk. Merit rating shall include both prospective and retrospective methods for modifying base premium.

Subd. 10. [LOSS DEVELOPMENT FACTORS.] “Loss development factors” means factors applied to recorded incurred losses to estimate the amount of ultimate loss payments that will have been made for losses during the applicable period when all claims are paid.

Subd. 11. [TREND OR TRENDING.] “Trend” or “trending” means any procedure employing data for the purpose of projecting or forecasting the future value of that data or other data, or the factors resulting from such a procedure.

Subd. 12. [INTERESTED PARTY.] “Interested party” means any person, or association acting on behalf of its members, directly affected by a change in the schedule of rates and includes the staff of the insurance division.

Subd. 13. [INSURER.] “Insurer” means any insurer licensed to transact the business of workers’ compensation insurance in this state.

Subd. 14. [INSURANCE.] “Insurance” means workers’ compensation insurance.

Subd. 15. [RATING PLAN.] “Rating plan” means every manual, and every other rule including discount factors and merit rating necessary for the calculation of an insured’s pre- mium from an insurer's rates. An insurer may choose to adopt for use the rating plan of the data service organization in which it maintains membership.

Sec. 21. [79.53] [PREMIUM CALCULATION.]

Each insurer shall establish premiums to be paid by an employer according to its filed rates and rating plan as follows:

Rates shall be applied to an exposure base to yield a base premium which may be further modified by merit rating, premium discounts, and other appropriate factors contained in the rating plan of an insurer to produce premium. Nothing in this chapter shall be deemed to prohibit the use of any premium, provided the premium is not excessive, inadequate or unfairly discriminatory.

Sec. 22. [79.54] [COMPETITIVE MARKET PRESUMPTION.]

A competitive market is presumed to exist until the commissioner, after a hearing on the record, determines that a reasonable degree of competition does not exist and issues an order to that effect. The order shall include the conditions and procedures under which a determination of insufficient competition shall expire.

Sec. 23. [79.55] [STANDARDS FOR RATES.]

Subdivision 1. [GENERAL STANDARDS.] Premiums shall not be excessive, inadequate, or unfairly discriminatory.

Subd. 2. [EXCESSIVENESS.] No premium is excessive in a competitive market. In the absence of a competitive market, premiums are excessive if the expected underwriting profit, together with expected income from invested reserves for the market in question, that would accrue to an insurer would be unreasonably high in relation to the risk undertaken by the insurer in transacting the business.

Subd. 3. [INADEQUACY.] Premiums are inadequate if, together with the investment income associated with an insurer's Minnesota workers' compensation insurance business, they are clearly insufficient to sustain projected losses and expenses of the insurer and (a) if their continued use could lead to an insolvent situation for the insurer; or (b) if their use destroys or lessens competition or is likely to destroy or lessen competition.

Subd. 4. [UNFAIR DISCRIMINATION.] Premiums are unfairly discriminatory if differentials for insureds fail to reasonably reflect the differences in expected losses and expenses to the insurer attributable to the insureds. Rates are not unfairly discriminatory solely because different premiums result for insureds with like loss exposures but different expense factors, or like expense factors but different loss exposures, provided that rates reflect the differences with reasonable accuracy.

Sec. 24. [79.56] [FILING RATES AND RATING INFORMATION.]

Subdivision 1. [AFTER EFFECTIVE DATE.] Each insurer shall file with the commissioner a complete copy of its rates and rating plan, and all changes and amendments thereto, within 15 days after their effective dates. An insurer need not file a rating plan if it uses a rating plan filed by a data service organization. If an insurer uses a rating plan of a data service organization but deviates from it, then all deviations must be filed by the insurer.

Subd. 2. [BEFORE EFFECTIVE DATE.] The commissioner may order an insurer to file rates at least 30 days before the effective date of the rates (a) if the commissioner determines, based upon reasonable evidence, that an order is appropriate because of the insurer's financial condition or (b) due to a prior finding of unfairly discriminatory rating practices; or (c) due to a prior finding of inadequate rates. The order may require that supplementary rate and supporting information be included in a filing.

Subd. 3. [PENALTIES.] Any insurer using a rate or a rating plan which has not been filed shall be subject to a fine of up to $100 for each day the failure to file continues. The commissioner may, after a hearing on the record, find that the failure is willful. A willful failure to meet filing requirements shall be punishable by a fine of up to $500 for each day during which a willful failure continues. These penalties shall be in addition to any other penalties provided by law.

Subd. 4. [PUBLIC INSPECTION.] All filings shall be open to public inspection during normal business hours at the offices of the insurance division.

Sec. 25. [79.57] [FILING RATES; NONCOMPETITIVE MARKET.]

Upon making a determination that a market is not competitive, the commissioner shall require rates for use in that market to be filed 30 days prior to their effective date. The filing shall include, in a form prescribed by the commissioner, an explanation of the rates and any data supporting the use of the rates which are not on file with a data service organization.

The commissioner may issue an order for a hearing at any time prior to the effective date of the rates and the rates shall not become effective until the commissioner has ruled on the rates following the hearing.

The commissioner may disapprove the rates subsequent to their effective date, except that rates so disapproved shall remain effective until the commissioner issues an order following a hearing.

Sec. 26. [79.58] [DISAPPROVAL OF RATES OR RATING PLANS.]

Subdivision 1. [RATES.] A rate filed by an insurer may be disapproved by the commissioner subsequent to its effective date. Following a disapproval and prior to a refiling the insurer shall use the rates from the schedule of rates currently in effect for the assigned risk plan for all new and renewal business unless otherwise directed by order of the commissioner.

The commissioner shall disapprove a rate if, after a hearing on the record, he finds that:

(a) The premium is inadequate or unfairly discriminatory; or

(b) A competitive market for workers' compensation does not exist and rates are excessive; or

(c) The insurer failed to comply with filing requirements.

A rehearing shall be held within 30 days of any disapproval under this section at the request of the insurer whose rates are disapproved.

Subd. 2. [RATING PLANS.] The commissioner may disapprove a rating plan of a data service organization if, after a hearing, the commissioner finds that it is unfairly discriminatory. Any order of disapproval shall require the data service organization to use an alternative rating plan until approval of a rating plan by the commissioner.

Sec. 27. [79.59.] [INSURERS AND DATA SERVICE ORGANIZATIONS; PROHIBITED ACTIVITIES.]

Subdivision 1. [MONOPOLIZATION.] No insurer or data service organization shall attempt to monopolize or combine or conspire with any other person to monopolize the business of insurance.

Subd. 2. [AGREEMENT PROHIBITED.] No insurer shall agree with any other insurer or with a data service organization to adhere to or to use any rate, rating plan, rating schedule, rating rule, or underwriting rule except as specifically authorized by chapter 79 or for the purpose of creating experience modifications for employers with employees in more than one state.

Subd. 3. [TRADE RESTRAINT.] No insurer or data service organization shall make an agreement with any other insurer, data service organization, or other person which has the purpose or the effect of restraining trade or of substantially lessening competition.

Subd. 4. [EXCEPTIONS.] The fact that two or more insurers use the same rates, rating plans, rating schedules, rating rules, underwriting rules, or similar materials shall not alone constitute a violation of subdivision 1 or 2.

Two or more insurers under common ownership or operating under common management or control may act in concert between or among themselves with respect to matters authorized under chapter 79 as if they constituted a single insurer, provided that the rating plan of such insurers shall be considered to be a single plan for the purposes of determining unfair discrimination.

Subd. 5. [ADDITIONAL PROHIBITION.] In addition to other prohibitions contained in this chapter, no data service organization shall:

(a) Refuse to supply any service for which it is licensed or any data, except for data identifiable to an individual insurer, to any insurer authorized to do business in this state which offers to pay the usual compensation for the service or data;

(b) Require the purchase of any specific service as a condition to obtaining any other services sought;

(c) Participate in the development or distribution of rates, rating plans, or rating rules except as specifically authorized by this chapter or by rules adopted pursuant to this chapter; or

(d) Refuse membership to any licensed insurer.

Sec. 28. [79.60] [INSURERS; REQUIRED AND PERMITTED ACTIVITY.]

Subdivision 1. [REQUIRED ACTIVITY.] Each insurer shall perform the following activities:

(a) Maintain membership in and report loss experience data to a licensed data service organization in accordance with the statistical plan and rules of the organization as approved by the commissioner;

(b) Establish a plan for merit rating which shall be consistently applied to all insureds, provided that members of a data service organization may use merit rating plans developed by that data service organization;

(c) Provide an annual report to the commissioner containing the information and prepared in the form required by the commissioner; and

(d) Keep a record of the premiums and losses paid under each workers' compensation policy written in Minnesota in the form required by the commissioner.

Subd. 2. [PERMITTED ACTIVITY.] In addition to any other activities not prohibited by chapter 79, insurers may:

(a) Through licensed data service organizations, individually, or with insurers commonly owned, managed, or controlled, conduct research and collect statistics to investigate, identify, and classify information relating to causes or prevention of losses;

(b) Develop and use classification plans and rates based upon any reasonable factors; and

(c) Develop rules for the assignment of risks to classifications.

Sec. 29. [79.61] [DATA SERVICE ORGANIZATIONS; REQUIRED AND PERMITTED ACTIVITY.]

Subdivision 1. [REQUIRED ACTIVITY.] Any data service organization shall perform the following activities:

(a) File statistical plans, including classification definitions, amendments to the plans, and definitions, with the commissioner for approval, and assign each compensation risk written by its members to its approved classification for reporting purposes;

(b) Establish requirements for data reporting and monitoring methods to maintain a high quality data base;

(c) Prepare and distribute a periodic report, in a form prescribed by the commissioner, on ratemaking including, but not limited to the following elements:

(i) development factors and alternative derivations;

(ii) trend factors and alternative derivations and applications;

(iii) pure premium relativities for the approved classification system for which data are reported, provided that the relativities for insureds engaged in similar occupations and presenting substantially similar risks shall, if different, differ by at least ten percent; and

(iv) an evaluation of the effects of changes in law on loss data.

The report shall also include explicit discussion and explanation of methodology, alternatives examined, assumptions adopted, and areas of judgment and reasoning supporting judgments entered into, and the effect of various combinations of these elements on indications for modification of an overall pure premium rate level change. The pure premium relativities and rate level indications shall not include a loading for expenses or profit and no expense or profit data or recommendations relating to expense or profit shall be included in the report or collected by a data service organization;

(d) Collect, compile, summarize, and distribute data from members or other sources pursuant to a statistical plan approved by the commissioner;

(e) Prepare merit rating plan and calculate any variable factors necessary for utilization of the plan. Such a plan may be used by any of its members, at the option of the member provided that the application of a plan shall not result in rates that are unfairly discriminatory;

(f) Provide loss data specific to an insured to the insured at a reasonable cost;

(g) Distribute information to an insured or interested party that is filed with the commissioner and is open to public inspection; and

(h) Assess its members for operating expenses on a fair and equitable basis.

Subd. 2. [PERMITTED ACTIVITY.] In addition to any other activities not prohibited by chapter 79, any data service organization may:

(a) Collect and analyze data in order to investigate, identify, and classify information relating to causes or prevention of losses;

(b) Make inspections for the sole purpose of reporting and maintaining data quality;

(c) Contract with another data service organization to fulfill any of the above requirements; and

(d) Prepare and file with the commissioner a rating plan for use by any of its members, provided that no member may be required to use any part of the plan.

Sec. 30. [79.62] [DATA SERVICE ORGANIZATIONS; LICENSING, EXAMINATION.]

Subdivision 1. [LICENSE REQUIRED.] No data service organization shall provide any service and no insurer shall use the services of a data service organization unless the organization is licensed by the commissioner.

Subd. 2. [PROCEDURE; APPLICATION.] A data service organization shall apply for a license in a form and manner prescribed by the commissioner. The application of a data service organization shall include:

(a) A copy of its constitution, articles of incorporation, by-laws, and other rules pertaining to the conduct of its business;

(b) A plan and narrative describing how it will perform the activities required by sections 11 and 14;

(c) A statement showing its technical qualifications; and

(d) Any other information that the commissioner may reasonably require.

Subd. 3. [ISSUANCE.] The commissioner, upon finding that the applicant organization is qualified to provide the services required and proposed, or has contracted with a licensed data service organization to purchase these services which are required by chapter 79 but are not provided directly by the applicant, and that all requirements of law are met, shall issue a license. Licenses shall remain in effect until the licensee withdraws from business or until the license is suspended or revoked.

Subd. 4. [SUSPENSION; REVOCATION.] The commissioner may, after a hearing on the record, revoke or suspend the license of a data service organization if he finds that the organization is not in compliance with the requirements of chapter 79 or rules issued thereunder.

Subd. 5. [LICENSEE EXAMINATION.] The commissioner may examine any licensed data service organization to determine whether its activities and practices comply with law. The cost of the examination shall be paid by the examined organization.

Sec. 31. [79.63] [ASSIGNED RISK PLAN.]

Subdivision 1. [ADMINISTRATION.] The commissioner shall appoint a licensed data service organization to administer the assigned risk plan. The appointed data service organization shall submit to the commissioner for approval a plan and rules for administering the assigned risk plan, including a method or formula by which the organization is to be paid for administrative services.

Subd. 2. [REJECTION; NOTICE.] An insurer that refuses to write insurance for an applicant shall furnish the applicant a written notice of refusal and shall file a copy of the notice of refusal with the data service organization appointed pursuant to subdivision 1. Servicing insurers designated pursuant to subdivision 3 shall accept and insure any applicant for workers' compensation insurance assigned pursuant to subdivision 3.

Subd. 3. [ASSIGNMENT.] An insurer or insurers shall be designated by the data service organization appointed pursuant to subdivision 1 to issue a policy of workers' compensation insurance to an applicant which has been refused insurance. A policy shall contain the usual and customary provisions of workers' compensation insurance policies, but for which undertaking all insurers doing workers' compensation business in this state shall be reinsurers among themselves in the amount which the compensation insurance written in this state during the preceding calendar year by each insurer bears to the total compensation insurance written in this state during that calendar year by all insurers.

An insurer that issues a policy pursuant to this section shall receive an expense allowance which shall be adequate for services rendered, as approved by the commissioner.

Subd. 4. [PENALTY.] The commissioner may revoke the license of an insurer or agent for refusing or failing to provide an applicant with written refusal pursuant to subdivision 2 or for any other violation of this section or of the approved rules of a data service organization.

Subd. 5. [ASSIGNED RISK RATES.] Insureds served by the workers' compensation insurance assigned risk plan shall be charged premiums based upon a rating plan, rates, and a merit rating plan adopted by the commissioner by rule. This rating plan shall include a feature by which rates shall vary in relation to the number or proportion of insureds in the assigned risk plan in the preceding calendar year. This relationship shall be such that assigned risk rates shall vary upward as the number or proportion of insureds in the assigned risk plan decreases and downward as the number or proportion increases. Assigned risk premiums shall not be lower than the rates generally charged by insurers for the business.

Sec. 32. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 60C.04, is amended to read:

60C.04 [CREATION.]

All insurers subject to the provisions of Laws 1971, Chapter 145 shall form an organization to be known as the Minnesota insurance guaranty association. All insurers defined as member insurers in section 60C.03, subdivision 6, are and shall remain members of the association as a condition of their authority to transact insurance business or to execute surety bonds in this state. The association shall perform its functions under a plan of operation established and approved under section 60C.07 and shall exercise its powers through a board of directors established under section 60C.08. For purposes of administration and assessment the association shall be divided into (FOUR) five separate accounts: (1) the automobile insurance account, (2) the township mutuals account, (3) the fidelity and surety bond account (AND), (4) the account for all other insurance to which Laws 1971, Chapter 145 applies, and (5) the workers' compensation insurance account.

Sec. 33. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 60C.09, Subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [LIMITATION OF AMOUNT.] Payment of a covered claim is limited to the amount by which the allowance on any claim exceeds $100 and is less than $300,000. The limitation on the amount of payment for a covered claim does not apply to claims for workers' compensation insurance. In no event is the association obligated to the policyholder or claimant in an amount in excess of the obligation of the insurer under the policy from which the claim arises.

Sec. 34. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 79.071, Subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. If the injury was intentionally self-inflicted or (WHEN) the intoxication of the employee is the proximate cause of the injury, then the employer is not liable for compensation. The burden of proof of (SUCH) these facts is upon the employer.

Sec. 54. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 176.021, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 3. [COMPENSATION, COMMENCEMENT OF PAYMENT.] All employers shall commence payment of (THE) compensation at the time and in the manner prescribed by this chapter without the necessity of any agreement or any order of the division. Except (THOSE OF) for medical, burial, and other non-periodic benefits, payments shall be made as nearly as (MAY BE) possible at the intervals when the wage was payable (;), provided, however, that payments for permanent partial disability (IN CASES IN WHICH RETURN TO WORK OCCURS PRIOR TO FOUR WEEKS FROM THE DATE OF INJURY SHALL BE MADE BY LUMP SUM PAYMENT,) shall be governed by subdivision 3a (AND THE PROVISIONS OF SECTION 176.165 SHALL NOT APPLY, WITHOUT THE NECESSITY OF ANY AGREEMENT, OR ORDER OF THE DIVISION, UPON CESSATION OF PAYMENTS FOR TEMPORARY TOTAL DISABILITY AND UPON THE EMPLOYEE'S RETURN TO WORK. IN CASES IN WHICH RETURN TO WORK DOES NOT OCCUR PRIOR TO FOUR WEEKS AFTER INJURY, PAYMENTS FOR PERMANENT PARTIAL DISABILITY SHALL BE MADE ACCORDING TO THE FOLLOWING SCHEDULE: 25 PERCENT OF THE AMOUNT DUE AFTER FOUR WEEKS FROM THE DATE OF INJURY, 25 PERCENT AFTER EIGHT WEEKS, 25 PERCENT AFTER 12 WEEKS AND 25 PERCENT AFTER 16 WEEKS, PROVIDED THAT ANY AND ALL PAYMENTS REMAINING SHALL BE PAID UPON THE CESSATION OF PAYMENTS FOR TEMPORARY TOTAL DISABILITY AND UPON THE EMPLOYEE'S RETURN TO WORK). If doubt exists (AT THAT TIME) as to the eventual permanent partial disability, payment, pursuant to subdivision 3a, shall be then made when due for the minimum permanent partial disability ascertainable (IN LUMP SUM), and further (LUMP SUM) payment shall be made upon any later ascertainment of greater permanent partial disability. Liability on the part of an employer or his insurer for disability of a temporary total, temporary partial, and permanent total nature shall be considered as a continuing product and part of the employee's inability to earn or reduction in earning capacity due to injury or occupational disease and shall be payable accordingly, subject to subdivision 3a. Permanent partial disability is payable for functional loss of use or impairment of function, permanent in nature, and payment therefore shall be separate, distinct, and in addition to payment for any other compensation, subject to subdivision 3a. The right to receive temporary total, temporary partial, permanent partial or permanent total disability payments shall vest in the injured employee or his dependents under this chapter or, if none, in his legal heirs at the time the disability can be ascertained and the right shall not be abrogated by the employee's death prior to the making of the payment.*

(d) If the employee completes a rehabilitation plan pursuant to section 176.102, but the employer does not furnish the employee with work he can do in his permanently partially disabled condition, and the employee is unable to procure such work with another employer, then payment shall be made by lump sum.

Sec. 57. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 176.021, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 6. [COMMISSIONER OF LABOR AND INDUSTRY; ADDITIONAL POWERS.] Whenever an employee is covered by subdivision 2, 3 or 4, the commissioner may enter into agreements with the appropriate agencies of other states for the purpose of resolving conflicts of jurisdiction or disputes concerning workers' compensation coverage. An agreement entered into pursuant to this subdivision may be appealed in the same manner and within the same time as if the appeal were from an order or decision of a compensation judge to the workers' compensation court of appeals.

Sec. 59. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 176.061, Subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [ELECTION OF REMEDIES.] Where an injury or death for which (COMPENSATION IS) benefits are payable occurs under circumstances which create a legal liability for damages on the part of a party other than the employer and at the time of such injury or death that party was insured or self-insured in accordance with this chapter, the employee, in case of injury, or his dependents, in case of death, may proceed either at law against that party to recover damages or against the employer for (COMPENSATION) benefits, but not against both.

Sec. 60. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 176.061, Subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [ELECTION TO RECEIVE (COMPENSATION) BENEFITS FROM EMPLOYER; SUBROGATION.] If the employee or his dependents elect to receive (COMPENSATION) benefits from the employer, or the special compensation fund, (SUCH) the employer, or the special compensation fund, is subrogated to the right of the employee or his dependents to recover damages against the other party. The employer, or the attorney general on behalf of the special compensation fund, may bring legal proceedings against such party and recover the aggregate amount of (COMPENSATION) benefits payable (BY HIM) to or on behalf of the employee or his dependents, together with (THE) costs, disbursements, and reasonable attorney's fees of the action.

If an action as provided in this chapter prosecuted by the employee, the employer, or (BOTH JOINTLY) the attorney general on behalf of the special compensation fund, against the third person, results in judgment against the third person, or settlement by the third person, the employer shall have no liability to reimburse or hold the third person harmless on the judgment or settlement in absence of a written agreement to do so executed prior to the injury.

Sec. 61. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 176.061, Subdivision 4, is amended to read:

Subd. 4. [APPLICATION OF SUBDIVISIONS 1, 2, AND 3.] The provisions of subdivisions 1, 2, and 3 apply only where the employer liable for (COMPENSATION) benefits and the other party legally liable for damages are insured or self-insured and engaged, in the due course of business in, (a) (IN) furtherance of a common enterprise, or (b) in the accomplishment of the same or related purposes in (OPERATION) operations on the premises where the injury was received at the time thereof.

Sec. 62. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 176.061, Subdivision 5, is amended to read:

Subd. 5. [CUMULATIVE REMEDIES.] Where an injury or death for which (COMPENSATION IS) benefits are payable is caused under circumstances which created a legal liability for damages on the part of a party other than the employer, that party being then insured or self-insured in accordance with this chapter, and the provisions of subdivisions 1, 2, 3, and 4 do not apply, or the party other than the employer is not then insured or self-insured as provided by this chapter, legal proceedings may be taken by the employee or his dependents in accordance with clause (a), or by his employer, or by the attorney general on behalf of the special compensation fund, in accordance with clause (b), against the other party to recover damages, notwithstanding the payment by the employer, or the special compensation fund or (HIS) their liability to pay (COMPENSATION) benefits.

(a) If an action against the other party is brought by the injured employee or his dependents and a judgment is obtained and paid or settlement is made with the other party, the employer or the special compensation fund may deduct from the (COMPENSATION) benefits payable (BY HIM) the amount actually received by the employee or dependents or paid on their behalf in accordance with subdivision 6. If the action is not diligently prosecuted or if the court deems it advisable in order to protect the interests of the employer, or the special compensation fund, upon application the court may grant the employer, or the special compensation fund, the right to intervene in any such action for the prosecution thereof. If the injured employee or his dependents (AGREE TO RECEIVE COMPENSATION) or any party on their behalf receives benefits from the employer, or the special compensation fund, or institute proceedings to recover the same or accept from the employer, or the special compensation fund, any payment on account of the (COMPENSATION) benefits, the employer, or the special compensation fund, is subrogated to the rights of the employee or his dependents. This employer, or the attorney general on behalf of the special compensation fund, may maintain an action or continue an action already instituted. This action may be maintained in the name of the employee or the names of the dependents, or in the name of the employer or in the name of the attorney general on behalf of the special compensation fund against such other party for the recovery of damages. If the action is not diligently prosecuted by the employer, or the attorney general on behalf of the special compensation fund, or the court deems it advisable in order to protect the interest of the employee, the court, upon application, may grant to the employee or his dependents the right to intervene in the action for the prosecution thereof. The proceeds of such action or settlement thereof shall be paid in accordance with subdivision 6.

(b) If an employer, being then insured, sustains damages due to a change in workers' compensation insurance premiums, whether by a failure to achieve a decrease or by a retroactive or prospective increase, as a result of the injury or death of his employee which was caused under circumstances which created a legal liability for damages on the part of a party other than the employer, the employer, notwithstanding other remedies provided, may maintain an action against the other party for recovery of such premiums. This cause of action may be brought either by joining in an action described in clause (a) or by a separate action. Damages recovered under this clause shall be for the benefit of the employer and the provisions of subdivision 6 shall not be applicable to such damages.

(c) The third party is not liable to any person other than the employee or his dependents, or his employer, or the special compensation fund, for any damages resulting from the injury or death.

A co-employee working for the same employer is not liable for a personal injury incurred by another employee unless the injury resulted from the gross negligence of the co-employee or was intentionally inflicted by the co-employee.

Sec. 63. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 176.061, Subdivision 6, is amended to read:

Subd. 6. [COSTS, ATTORNEY FEES, EXPENSES.] The proceeds of all actions for damages or settlement thereof under this section, except for damages received under subdivision 5, clause (b) received by the injured employee or his dependents or by the employer, or the special compensation fund, as provided by subdivision 5, shall be divided as follows:

(a) After deducting the reasonable cost of collection, including but not limited to attorneys fees and burial expense in excess of the statutory liability, then

(b) One-third of the remainder shall in any event be paid to the injured employee or his dependents, without being subject to any right of subrogation.

(c) Out of the balance remaining, the employer, or the special compensation fund, shall be reimbursed in an amount equal to all (COMPENSATION) benefits paid under this chapter to or on behalf of the employee or his dependents by the employer, or special compensation fund, less the product of the costs deducted under clause (a) divided by the total proceeds received by the employee or his dependents from the other party multiplied by all (COMPENSATION) benefits paid by the employer, or the special compensation fund, to the employee or his dependents.

(d) Any balance remaining shall be paid to the employee or his dependents, and shall be a credit to employer, and the special compensation fund, for any (COMPENSATION) benefits which employer is obligated to pay, but has not paid, and for any (COMPENSATION) benefits that such employer shall be obligated to make in the future.

There shall be no reimbursement or credit to the employer, or the special compensation fund, for interest or penalties.

Sec. 64. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 176.061, Subdivision 7, is amended to read:

Subd. 7. [MEDICAL TREATMENT.] The liability of an employer, or the special compensation fund, for medical treatment under this chapter shall not be affected by the fact that his employee was injured through the fault or negligence of a third party, against whom the employee may have a cause of action which may be sued under this chapter, but the employer, or the attorney general on behalf of the special compensation fund, shall have a separate additional cause of action against such third party to recover any amounts paid (BY HIM) for medical treatment under this section resulting from the negligence of such third party. This separate cause of action of the employer, or the attorney general on behalf of the special compensation fund, may be asserted in a separate action brought by the employer, or the attorney general on behalf of the special compensation fund, against such third party or in the action commenced by the employee or the employer, or the attorney general on behalf of the special compensation fund, under this chapter, but in the latter case the cause of action shall be separately stated, the amount awarded thereon shall be separately set out in the verdict, and the amount recovered by suit or otherwise as reimbursement for medical expenses shall be for the benefit of the employer, or the special compensation fund, to the extent that the employer, or the special compensation fund, has paid or will be required to pay for medical treatment of the injured employee and shall not affect the amount of periodic compensation to be paid.

Subdivision 1. No claim for legal services or disbursements pertaining to any demand made or suit or proceeding brought under the provisions of this chapter is an enforceable lien against the compensation or is valid or binding in any other respect unless approved in writing by the division, (COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF LABOR AND INDUSTRY,) a compensation judge, a judge of the district court, or the workers' compensation court of appeals, if the claim arises out of a proceeding for compensation under this chapter, or by the judge presiding at the trial in an action for damages, or by a judge of the district court in a settlement of a claim for damages without trial. The division, a compensation judge, a judge of the district court or the workers' compensation court of appeals shall in matters before (HIM) them, including settlement proceedings, have authority to approve a fee of up to 25 percent of the first $4,000 of compensation awarded to the employee and up to 20 percent of the next ($20,000) $50,000 of compensation awarded to employee. (THE WORKERS' COMPENSATION COURT OF APPEALS JUDGE SHALL HAVE AUTHORITY ONLY TO APPROVE FEES IN SETTLEMENTS UPON APPEAL BEFORE THEM UP TO 25 PERCENT OF THE FIRST $4,000 OF COMPENSATION AWARDED TO THE EMPLOYEE AND UP TO 20 PERCENT OF THE NEXT $20,000 OF COMPENSATION AWARDED TO THE EMPLOYEE.) If the employer or his insurer or the defendant is given written notice of such claims for legal services or disbursements, the same shall be a lien against the amount paid or payable as compensation, subject to determination of the amount and approval provided by this chapter. Provided, however, that in no case shall fees be calculated on the basis of any undisputed portion of compensation awards. Allowable fees under this chapter shall be based solely upon genuinely disputed portions of claims.

Sec. 66. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 176.081, Subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. Any application for attorney fees in excess of the amount (WHICH A COMPENSATION JUDGE OR THE WORKERS' COMPENSATION COURT OF APPEALS MAY AUTHORIZE) authorized in subdivision 1 shall be made to the (COMMISSIONER OF LABOR AND INDUSTRY) workers' compensation court of appeals. The application shall set forth the fee requested and the basis for such request and whether or not a hearing is requested. The application, with affidavit of service upon the employee, shall be filed by the attorney requesting the fee. If a hearing is requested by an interested party, a hearing shall be set with notice of such hearing served upon known interested parties. In all cases the employee shall be served with notice of hearing.

Sec. 67. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 176.081, Subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. An employee who is dissatisfied with his attorney fees, may file an application for review by the (COMMISSIONER OF LABOR AND INDUSTRY) workers' compensation court of appeals. Such application shall state the basis for the need of review and whether or not a hearing is requested. A copy of such application shall be served upon the attorney for the employee by the (COMMISSIONER) court administrator and if a hearing is requested by either party, the matter shall be set for hearing. The notice of hearing shall be served upon known interested parties. The attorney for the employee shall be served with a notice of the hearing. The (COMMISSIONER OF LABOR AND INDUSTRY) workers' compensation court of appeals shall have the authority to raise the question of the issue of the attorney fees at any time upon (HIS) its own motion and shall have continuing jurisdiction over attorney fees.

Sec. 68. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 176.081, Subdivision 4, is amended to read:

Subd. 4. The review of a determination by the commissioner (OF LABOR AND INDUSTRY) or the workers' compensation court of appeals shall be only by supreme court by certiorari upon the ground that it is arbitrary and unwarranted by the evidence. There shall be no review under sections 176.421 and 176.442.

Sec. 69. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 176.081, Subdivision 6, is amended to read:

Subd. 6. The (COMMISSIONER OF LABOR AND INDUSTRY) workers' compensation court of appeals may (PRESCRIBE) adopt reasonable and proper rules (AND REGULATIONS) to effect (HIS AND THE DIVISION'S) its obligations under this section (WITHOUT REGARD TO THE JOINT PRESCRIPTION REQUIRED UNDER SECTION 175.17, SUBDIVISION 3).

Sec. 70. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 176.081, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 7a. At any time prior to one day before a matter is to be heard, a party litigating a claim made pursuant to this chapter may serve upon the adverse party a reasonable offer of settlement of the claim, with provision for costs and disbursements then accrued. If before the hearing the adverse party serves written notice that the offer is accepted, either party may then file the offer and notice of acceptance, together with the proof of service thereof, and thereupon judgment shall be entered.

If an offer by an employer or insurer is not accepted by the employee, it shall be deemed withdrawn and evidence thereof is not admissible, except in a proceeding to determine attorney's fees. Notwithstanding the provisions of subdivision 7, if the judgment finally obtained by the employee is less favorable than the offer, the employer shall not be liable for any part of the attorney's fees awarded pursuant to this section.

If an offer by an employee is not accepted by the employer or insurer, it shall be deemed withdrawn and evidence thereof is not admissible, except in a proceeding to determine attorney's fees. Notwithstanding the provisions of subdivision 7, if the judgment finally obtained by the employee is at least as favorable as the offer, the employer shall pay an additional 25 percent, over the amount provided in subdivision 7, of that portion of the attorney's fee which has been awarded pursuant to this section that is in excess of $250.

The fact that an offer is made but not accepted does not preclude a subsequent offer.

Sec. 71. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 176.081, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 9. An attorney who is hired by an employee to provide legal services with respect to a claim for compensation made pursuant to this chapter shall prepare a retainer agreement in which the provisions of this section are specifically set out and provide a copy of this agreement to the employee. The retainer agreement shall provide a space for the signature of the employee. A signed agreement shall raise a conclusive presumption that the employee has read and understands the statutory fee provisions. No fee shall be awarded pursuant to this section in the absence of a signed retainer agreement.

Sec. 72. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 176.081, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 10. An attorney who knowingly violates any of the provisions of this chapter with respect to authorized fees for legal services in connection with any demand made or suit or proceeding brought under the provisions of this chapter is guilty of a gross misdemeanor.

(THE SEVEN PERCENT OF THE TOTAL COMPENSATION REQUIRED TO BE PAID BY THE EMPLOYER TO THE COMMISSIONER OF LABOR AND INDUSTRY FOR THE BENEFIT OF THE SPECIAL COMPENSATION FUND AS PROVIDED IN CLAUSE (2) OF THIS SUBDIVISION SHALL REMAIN FIXED AT SAID SEVEN PERCENT FOR THE PERIOD FROM JUNE 1, 1971, TO JUNE 1, 1972. EFFECTIVE JUNE 1, 1972, THROUGH JUNE 1, 1975, AND THERE-

AFTER ON JANUARY 1, BEGINNING IN 1976, THE RATE SHALL BE ADJUSTED ON THE FOLLOWING BASIS: IF THE BALANCE IN THE SPECIAL COMPENSATION FUND AS OF APRIL 30 IN ANY YEAR THROUGH 1975 AND AS OF SEPTEMBER 30, 1975, AND EACH SEPTEMBER 30 THEREAFTER, IS BELOW $1,000,000, THE RATE OF PAYMENT SHALL BE INCREASED BY TWO PERCENT OVER THE THEN PREVAILING RATE. IF THE BALANCE IS AT LEAST $1,000,000 BUT BELOW $1,500,000, THE RATE WILL BE INCREASED BY ONE PERCENT. IF THE BALANCE IS AT LEAST $1,500,000 BUT BELOW $2,000,000, THERE SHALL BE NO CHANGE. IF THE BALANCE IS AT LEAST $2,000,000 BUT LESS THAN $2,500,000, THE RATE SHALL BE DECREASED BY ONE PERCENT. IF THE BALANCE IS AT LEAST $2,500,000, THE RATE SHALL BE DECREASED BY TWO PERCENT. IF THE BALANCE IS $3,000,000 OR MORE THE COMMISSIONER OF LABOR AND INDUSTRY SHALL WITHIN 30 DAYS DETERMINE THE PERCENT OF DECREASE, WHICH SHALL BE NOT LESS THAN TWO PERCENT NOR MORE THAN FIVE PERCENT.)

In determining the percentage of the total compensation required to be paid by the employer to the commissioner for the benefit of the special compensation fund as provided in clause (2) beginning September 30, 1981 and each September 30 thereafter, the commissioner shall use the following schedule:

Balance in the Fund	Permissible Range of Rate Adjustment
Less than $2,000,000	+1 percent to +7 percent
At least $2,000,000 but less than $3,000,000	0 percent to +6 percent
At least $3,000,000 but less than $4,000,000	-2 percent to +4 percent
At least $4,000,000 but less than $5,000,000	-5 percent to +3 percent
$6,000,000 or more	-7 percent to +2 percent

In determining the actual adjustment, the commissioner shall take into account his estimate of the likely amount of expenditures to be made from the fund in the next calendar year.

Sums paid to the commissioner (OF LABOR AND INDUSTRY) pursuant to the provisions hereof, shall be deposited with the state treasurer for the benefit of the special compensation fund and be used to pay the benefits provided by this chapter. All money heretofore arising from the provisions of this section or similar law shall be transferred to this special compensation fund. Any interest or profit accruing from investment of these sums shall be credited to the special compensation fund.

The state treasurer shall be the custodian of this special fund and the workers' compensation division (AND), compensation judges, the workers' compensation court of appeals or district court in cases before (IT) them shall direct the distribution thereof, the same to be paid as other payments of compensation are paid. In case deposit is or has been made under the provisions of clause (1) and dependency later is shown, or if deposit is or has been made pursuant to either clause (1) or (2) by mistake or inadvertence, or under circumstances that justice requires a refund thereof, the state treasurer is authorized to refund the deposit under order of the workers' compensation division (OR), a compensation judge, the workers' compensation court of appeals or a district court. There is appropriated to the persons entitled to the refunds from the fund an amount sufficient to make the refund and payment.

Costs within the department (OF LABOR AND INDUSTRY) for the accounting, investigation and legal procedures necessary for the administration of the programs financed by the special compensation fund shall (BE PAID FROM THE MONEYS BIENNIALY APPROPRIATED TO THE DEPARTMENT AND NOT FROM THE SPECIAL COMPENSATION FUND) come from the fund during each biennium commencing July 1, 1981. Staffing and expenditures related to the administration of the fund shall be approved through the regular budget and appropriations process.

Sec. 83. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 176.132, Subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [AMOUNT.] (a) The supplementary benefit payable under this section shall be the difference between the amount the employee receives on or after January 1, 1976, under section 176.101, subdivision 1 or subdivision 4, and 65 percent of the statewide average weekly wage as computed annually.

(b) In the event an eligible recipient is currently receiving no compensation or is receiving a reduced level of compensation because of a credit being applied as the result of a third party liability or damages, the employer or insurer shall compute the offset credit as if the individual were entitled to the actual benefit or 65 percent of the statewide average weekly wage as computed annually, whichever is greater. If this results in the use of a higher credit than otherwise would have been applied and the employer or insurer becomes liable for compensation benefits which would otherwise not have been paid, the additional benefits resulting shall be handled according to this section.

(c) In the event an eligible recipient is receiving no compensation or is receiving a reduced level of compensation because of a valid agreement in settlement of a claim, no supplementary benefit shall be payable under this section. Attorney's fees shall be allowed in settlements of claims for supplementary benefits in accordance with this chapter.

(d) In the event an eligible recipient is receiving no compensation or is receiving a reduced level of compensation because of prior limitations in the maximum amount payable for permanent total disability or because of reductions resulting from the simultaneous receipt of old age or disability benefits, the supplementary benefit shall be payable for the difference between the actual amount of compensation currently being paid and 65 percent of the statewide average weekly wage as computed annually.

(e) In the event that an eligible recipient is receiving simultaneous benefits from any government disability program, the amount of supplementary benefits payable under this section shall be reduced by five percent. If the individual does not receive the maximum benefits for which he is eligible under other governmental disability programs due to the provisions of 42 U.S.C. 424a (d), this reduction shall not apply.

Sec. 84. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 176.133, is amended to read:

176.133 [ATTORNEYS FEES, SUPPLEMENTARY BENEFITS.]

(NO ATTORNEYS) Attorney's fees (SHALL) may be (PERMITTED OR) approved by a compensation judge or by the workers' compensation court of appeals from the supplementary workers' compensation benefits provided by section 176.132 (, OR AMENDMENTS THERETO, UNLESS) if the case (SOLELY) involves the obtaining of supplementary workers' compensation benefits. When such fees are allowed an amount equal to 25 percent of that portion of the fee which is in excess of $250 shall be added to the employee's benefit as provided in section 176.081 rather than deducted as a portion thereof. The fees shall be (SUBJECT) determined according to (THE LIMITATIONS CONTAINED IN) section 176.081.

176.136 [MEDICAL FEE REVIEW.]

The commissioner of (LABOR AND INDUSTRY) insurance shall by rule establish procedures for determining whether or not the charge for a health service is excessive. In order to accomplish this purpose, the commissioner of insurance shall consult with insurers, associations and organizations representing the medical and other providers of treatment services and other appropriate groups. The procedures established by the commissioner of insurance shall limit the charges allowable for medical, chiropractic, podiatric, surgical, hospital and other health care provider treatment or services, as defined and compensable under section 176.135, to the 90th percentile of usual and customary fees or charges based upon billings for each class of health care provider during all of the calendar year preceding the year in which the determination is made of the amount to be paid the health care provider for the billing. The procedures established by the commissioner for determining whether or not the charge for a health service is excessive shall be structured to encourage providers to develop and deliver services for rehabilitation of injured workers. If the commissioner of insurance determines that the charge for a health service or medical service is excessive, (HE MAY LIMIT) no payment (TO) in excess of the reasonable charge for that service shall be made under this chapter nor may the provider collect or attempt to collect from the injured employee or any other insurer or government amounts in excess of the amount payable under this chapter; however, the commissioner shall by rule establish procedures allowing for a provider to appeal such determination. The commissioner (MAY) of insurance shall contract with a review organization as defined in section 145.61 (IN MAKING ANY DETERMINATIONS AS TO WHETHER OR NOT A CHARGE IS EXCESSIVE) for the purposes listed in section 145.61, subdivision 5, and report to the legislature by January 15, 1983 and thereafter on January 15 of every odd-numbered year, regarding the delivery of medical and health care services under the workers' compensation laws of this state.

The commissioner of insurance shall adopt temporary rules in order to implement the provisions of this subdivision. Notwithstanding the provisions of section 15.0412, subdivision 4, and any amendments, the temporary rules adopted by the commissioner of insurance pursuant to this subdivision may be extended for an additional 180 days if the procedures for adoption of a rule pursuant to section 15.0412, subdivisions 4 to 4g, or 4h, and other provisions of the administrative procedure act related to final agency action and rule adoption have not been concluded.

Sec. 86. [176.1361] [TESTIMONY OF PROVIDERS.]

When a compensation judge or the workers' compensation court of appeals has reason to believe that a medical or other provider of treatment services has submitted false testimony or a false report in any proceeding under this chapter, the compensation judge or the workers' compensation court of appeals shall refer the matter to an appropriate licensing body or other professional certifying organization for review and recommendations. Based upon their recommendations, the commissioner may bar the provider from making an appearance, and disallow the admission into evidence of written reports of the provider, in any proceeding under this chapter for a period not to exceed one year in the first instance and three years in the second instance, and may permanently bar the provider from appearance and his reports from admission in evidence thereafter.

Sec. 87. [176.152] [PERMANENT PARTIAL DISABILITY PANEL.]

Subdivision 1. [BINDING OPINION; PERMANENT PARTIAL DISABILITY DISPUTES.] Prior to a hearing before a compensation judge at which a significant issue of the extent of permanent partial disability is to be determined a permanent partial disability panel shall be constituted to render a determination on the dispute subject to the limitation in subdivisions 7 and 8.

Subd. 2. [PANEL LIST.] The administrator of the workers' compensation court of appeals shall compile and maintain a list of names of physicians, podiatrists, chiropractors and other health care providers qualified to determine the extent of permanent partial disability. Names may be added to the list and removed at any time by the administrator of the workers' compensation court of appeals. In maintaining the list the administrator of the workers' compensation court of appeals shall to the maximum extent possible select persons from varying geographical areas of the state.

Subd. 3. [PANEL SELECTION.] When a panel is required to be constituted by subdivision 1 the administrator of the workers' compensation court of appeals shall furnish the employer and employee parties to the dispute a list of seven appropriate health care providers from which the parties shall alternatively strike names until only three remain who shall constitute the panel. If both parties agree, the dispute may be decided by a single health care provider. If the parties are unable to agree on who shall strike the first name, priority shall be decided by a flip of the coin.

Subd. 4. [REPORT; CONCLUSION.] The compensation judge, or the chief hearing examiner in cases in which a compensation judge has not yet been assigned, shall propound specific written questions to the panel at the time they are notified of their selection. The questions shall be framed in such a manner that answers to them shall resolve the dispute as to the extent of permanent partial disability. The panel's report shall be binding upon any compensation judge before whom a hearing may be held subsequent to the panel's report, but may be reviewed by the workers' compensation court of appeals or supreme court, which shall remand the matter to a compensation judge for the seating of a new panel if the first report is found to be arbitrary, capricious, or based on fraud.

Subd. 5. [EXAM; REPORT.] At least one member of the panel shall personally examine the employee within 30 days of the panel's selection. After reviewing the examination report and all other available pertinent information the panel shall report its conclusions to the compensation judge within 45 days after their selection. The compensation judge may extend the time limit for good cause. The report of the panel shall include the examination report and a record of any other evidence or information considered by the panel.

Subd. 6. [COSTS; PAYMENT.] Any physician, podiatrist, chiropractor or other health care provider who agrees to serve on a panel constituted pursuant to this section shall be deemed to agree that any dispute concerning his fees for serving on the panel shall be decided by the compensation judge hearing the case. The judge's decision shall be binding on the health care provider. A consent form to this effect shall be provided for the signature of the health care provider. No fee shall be approved which exceeds the reasonable and customary fee in the area for similar service. The employer shall pay all the panel members' fees, unless the employee has proceeded in bad faith, in which case the employee may be ordered to pay the fees.

Subd. 7. [PILOT PROJECT; REPORT TO LEGISLATURE AND GOVERNOR.] The administrator of the workers' compensation court of appeals shall establish the permanent partial disability panel provided for in this section on a pilot basis in three counties of his choice, including at least one rural county. The administrator of the workers' compensation court of appeals shall report to the legislature and governor by January 1, 1983, on the number of cases reviewed, the number of health care providers participating, the number of cases settled prior to any hearing before a compensation judge, the cost of the program and his recommendations concerning the panel.

Subd. 8. [LIMITATION.] This section shall operate in lieu of section 176.155, subdivision 2, in the counties in which the medical panel is established pursuant to subdivision 7.

Sec. 88. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 176.161, Subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [RESIDING OUTSIDE UNITED STATES.] In case a deceased employee for whose injury or death compensation is payable leaves surviving him an alien dependent residing outside the United States the commissioner (OF THE DEPARTMENT OF LABOR AND INDUSTRY) shall direct the payment of all compensation due the dependent to be made to the duly accredited consular officer of the country of which the beneficiary is a citizen residing within the state, or to his designated representative residing within the state; or, if the commissioner (OF THE DEPARTMENT OF LABOR AND INDUSTRY) believes that the interest of the dependent will be better served and at any time prior to the final settlement the dependent files with the commissioner (OF THE DEPARTMENT OF LABOR AND INDUSTRY) a power of attorney designating any other suitable person residing in this state to act as attorney in fact in such proceedings, the commissioner (OF THE DEPARTMENT OF LABOR AND INDUSTRY) may appoint such person. If it appears necessary to institute proceedings to enforce payment of compensation due the dependent, the commissioner (OF THE DEPARTMENT OF LABOR AND INDUSTRY) may permit the consular officer to institute these proceedings. If during the pendency of these proceedings, such power of attorney is filed by the alien dependent, the commissioner (OF THE DEPARTMENT OF LABOR AND INDUSTRY) shall then determine whether such attorney in fact be substituted to represent such dependent or if the consular officer or his representative continue therein. The person so appointed may carry on proceedings to settle all claims for compensation and receive for distribution to such dependent all compensation arising under this chapter. The settlement and distribution of the funds shall be made only on the written order of the commissioner (OF THE DEPARTMENT OF LABOR AND INDUSTRY). The person so appointed shall furnish a bond satisfactory to the (WORKERS' COMPENSATION COURT OF APPEALS) commissioner, conditioned upon the proper application of the money received by him. Before the bond is discharged, the person so appointed shall file with the commissioner (OF THE DEPARTMENT OF LABOR AND INDUSTRY) a verified account of his receipts and disbursements of such compensation.

Sec. 89. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 176.181, Subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [COMPULSORY INSURANCE; SELF-INSURERS.] (1) Every employer, except the state and its municipal subdivisions, liable under this chapter to pay compensation shall insure payment of compensation with some insurance carrier authorized to insure workers' compensation liability in this state, or obtain a written order from the commissioner of insurance exempting the employer from insuring his liability for compensation and permitting him to self-insure the liability. The terms, conditions and requirements governing self-insurance shall be established by the commissioner pursuant to chapter 15. The commissioner of insurance shall also adopt, pursuant to clause (2) (c), rules permitting two or more employers, whether or not they are in the same industry, to enter into agreements to pool their liabilities under this chapter for the purpose of qualifying as group self-insurers. With the approval of the commissioner of insurance, any employer may exclude medical, chiropractic and hospital benefits as required by this chapter. An employer conducting distinct operations at different locations may either insure or self-insure the other portion of his operations which may be determined by the commissioner of insurance to be a distinct and separate risk. An employer desiring to be exempted from insuring his liability for compensation shall make application to the commissioner of insurance, showing his financial ability to pay the compensation, whereupon by written order the commissioner of insurance may make an exemption as he deems proper. The commissioner of insurance may require further statements of financial ability of the employer to pay compensation. Upon ten days written notice the commissioner of insurance may revoke his order granting an exemption, in which event the employer shall immediately insure his liability. As a condition for the granting of an exemption the commissioner of insurance may require the employer to furnish security the commissioner of insurance considers sufficient to insure payment of all claims under this chapter. If the required security is in the form of currency or negotiable bonds, the commissioner of insurance shall deposit it with the state treasurer. In the event of any default upon the part of a self-insurer to abide by any final order or decision of the commissioner of labor and industry directing and awarding payment of compensation and benefits to any employee or the dependents of any deceased employee, then upon at least ten days notice to the self-insurer, the commissioner of insurance may by written order to the state treasurer require him to sell the pledged and assigned securities or a part thereof necessary to pay the full amount of any such claim or award with interest thereon. This authority to sell may be exercised from time to time to satisfy any order or award of the commissioner of labor and industry or any judgment obtained thereon. When securities are sold the money obtained shall be deposited in the state treasury to the credit of the commissioner of insurance and awards made against any such self-insurer by the commissioner of insurance shall be paid to the persons entitled thereto by the state treasurer upon warrants prepared by the commissioner of insurance and approved by the commissioner of finance out of the proceeds of the sale of securities. Where the security is in the form of a surety bond or personal guaranty the commissioner of insurance, at any time, upon at least ten days notice and opportunity to be heard, may require the surety to pay the amount of the award, the payments to be enforced in like manner as the award may be enforced.

(2) (a) No association, corporation, partnership, sole proprietorship, trust or other business entity shall provide services in the design, establishment or administration of a group-self-insurance plan under rules adopted pursuant to this subdivision unless it is licensed to do so by the commissioner of insurance. An applicant for a license shall state in writing the type of activities it seeks authorization to engage in and the type of services it seeks authorization to provide. The license shall be granted only when the commissioner of insurance is satisfied that the entity possesses the necessary organization, background, expertise, and financial integrity to supply the services sought to be offered. The commissioner of insurance may issue a license subject to restrictions or limitations, including restrictions or limitations on the type of services which may be supplied or the activities which may be engaged in. The license is for a two year period.

(b) To assure that group self-insurance plans are financially solvent, administered in a fair and capable fashion, and able to process claims and pay benefits in a prompt, fair and equitable manner, entities licensed to engage in such business are subject to supervision and examination by the commissioner of insurance.

(c) To carry out the purposes of this subdivision, the commissioner of insurance may promulgate administrative rules, including emergency rules, pursuant to sections 15.0411 to 15.052. These rules may:

(i) establish reporting requirements for administrators of group self-insurance plans;

(ii) establish standards and guidelines to assure the adequacy of the financing and administration of group self-insurance plans;

(iii) establish bonding requirements or other provisions assuring the financial integrity of entities administering group self-insurance plans;

(iv) establish standards, including but not limited to minimum terms of membership in self-insurance plans, as necessary to provide stability for those plans;

(v) establish standards or guidelines governing the formation, operation, administration and dissolution of self-insurance plans; and

(vi) establish other reasonable requirements to further the purposes of this subdivision.

Sec. 90. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 176.181, Subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [FAILURE TO INSURE, PENALTY.] Any employer who fails to comply with the provisions of subdivision 2 to secure payment of compensation is liable to the state of Minnesota for a penalty of ($50) $100, if the number of uninsured employees in his employment is less than five and for a penalty of ($200) $400 if the number of such uninsured employees in his employment is five or more. If the commissioner determines that the failure to comply with the provisions of subdivision 2 was willful and deliberate, the employer shall be liable to the state of Minnesota for a penalty of $500, if the number of uninsured employees in his employment is less than five, and for a penalty of $2,000 if the number of his uninsured employees is five or more. If the employer continues his noncompliance, he is liable for five times the lawful premium for compensation insurance for such employer for the period he fails to comply with such provisions, commencing ten days after notice has been served upon him by the commissioner of the department of labor and industry by certified mail. These penalties may be recovered jointly or separately in a civil action brought in the name of the state by the attorney general in any court having jurisdiction. Whenever any such failure occurs the commissioner of the department of labor and industry shall immediately certify the fact thereof to the attorney general. Upon receipt of such certification the attorney general shall forthwith commence and prosecute such action. All penalties recovered by the state in any such action shall be paid into the state treasury and credited to the special compensation fund. If an employer fails to comply with the provisions of subdivision 2, to secure payment of compensation after having been notified of his duty, the attorney general, upon request of the commissioner (OF THE DEPARTMENT OF LABOR AND INDUSTRY), may proceed against the employer in any court having jurisdiction for an order restraining him from having any person in his employment at any time when he is not complying with the provisions of subdivision 2.

Sec. 91. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 176.181, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 6. No employer shall be required to provide financial statements certified by an "independent certified public accountant" or "certified public accountant" as a condition of approval for group self-insurance.

Sec. 92. [176.182] [BUSINESS LICENSES OR PERMITS; COVERAGE REQUIRED.]

Every state or local licensing agency shall withhold the issuance of a license or permit to operate a business in Minnesota until the applicant presents acceptable evidence of compliance with the workers' compensation insurance coverage requirement of section 176.181, subdivision 2.

Neither the state nor any governmental subdivision thereof shall enter into any contract before receiving from all other contracting parties acceptable evidence of compliance with the workers' compensation insurance coverage requirement of section 176.181, subdivision 2.

Sec. 93. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 176.191, is amended to read:

176.191 [DISPUTE BETWEEN TWO OR MORE EMPLOYERS OR INSURERS REGARDING LIABILITY.]

Subdivision 1. Where compensation benefits are payable under this chapter, and a dispute exists between two or more employers or two or more insurers as to which is liable for payment, the commissioner (OF LABOR AND INDUSTRY), compensation judge, or workers' compensation court of appeals upon appeal (MAY) shall direct, unless action is taken under subdivision 2, that one or more of the employers or insurers make payment of the benefits pending a determination of liability.

When liability has been determined, the party held liable for the benefits shall be ordered to reimburse any other party for payments which the latter has made, including interest at the rate of (FIVE) 12 percent per year. The claimant (MAY) shall also be awarded a reasonable attorney fee, to be paid by the party held liable for the benefits.

An order directing payment of benefits pending a determination of liability may not be used as evidence before a compensation judge, the workers' compensation court of appeals, or court in which the dispute is pending.

Subd. 2. Where compensation benefits are payable under this chapter, and a dispute exists between two or more employers or two or more insurers as to which is liable for payment, the commissioner (OF LABOR AND INDUSTRY MAY) shall authorize, unless action is taken under subdivision 1, the special compensation fund established in section 176.131 to make payment of the benefits pending a determination of liability.

The personal injury for which the commissioner (MAY) shall order compensation from the special fund is not limited by section 176.131, subdivision 8.

When liability has been determined, the party held liable for benefits shall be ordered to reimburse the special compensation fund for payments made, including interest at the rate of 12 percent a year.

Subd. 3. If a dispute exists as to whether an employee's injury is compensable under this chapter and the employee is otherwise covered by an insurer pursuant to chapters 62A, 62C and 62D, that insurer shall pay any medical costs incurred by the employee for the injury and shall make any disability payments otherwise payable by that insurer in the absence of or in addition to workers' compensation liability. If the injury is subsequently determined to be compensable pursuant to this chapter, the workers' compensation insurer shall be ordered to reimburse the insurer that made the payments for all (MEDICAL) payments made under this subdivision by the insurer (FOR THE INJURY), including interest at a rate of 12 percent a year.

If the employee's medical expenses for a personal injury are paid pursuant to any program administered by the commissioner of public welfare and it is subsequently determined that the injury is compensable pursuant to this chapter, the workers' compensation insurer shall reimburse the commissioner of public welfare for the medical expenses paid and attributable to the personal injury, including interest at a rate of 12 percent a year.

Sec. 94. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 176.221, is amended to read:

176.221 [PAYMENT OF COMPENSATION AND TREATMENT CHARGES, COMMENCEMENT.]

Subdivision 1. [(DENIAL OF LIABILITY, REQUEST FOR EXTENSION OF TIME) COMMENCEMENT OF PAYMENT.] (WITHIN 30 DAYS FROM THE DATE OF NOTICE TO OR KNOWLEDGE BY THE EMPLOYER OF AN INJURY COMPENSABLE UNDER THE CHAPTER, AND UNLESS WITHIN THAT 30 DAY PERIOD THE EMPLOYER OR THE INSURER FILES WITH THE COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF LABOR AND INDUSTRY A DENIAL OF LIABILITY OR A REQUEST FOR AN EXTENSION OF TIME WITHIN WHICH TO DETERMINE LIABILITY, THE PERSON RESPONSIBLE FOR PAYMENT OF COMPENSATION, CHARGES FOR TREATMENT UNDER SECTION 176.135 OR RETRAINING EXPENSES UNDER 176.102, SUBDIVISION 9 SHALL BEGIN PAYMENT OF COMPENSATION OR CHARGES FOR TREATMENT.) Within 14 days of notice to or knowledge by the employer of an injury compensable under this chapter the payment of compensation due pursuant to section 176.101, subdivision 1, shall commence. Commencement of payment by an employer or insurer does not waive any rights to any defense the employer may have on any claim or incident either with respect to the compensability of the claim under chapter 176 or the amount of the compensation due. Where there are multiple employers, the first employer shall pay, unless it is shown that the injury has arisen out of employment with the second or subsequent employer. When the employer determines that the disability is not a result of a personal injury, payment of compensation may be discontinued upon notice of discontinuance pursuant to section 176.241. Upon the determination, payments made may be recovered by the employer if the commissioner finds that the employee's claim of work related disability was not made in good faith.

Subd. 2. [GRANT OF EXTENSION.] Upon application made within (THE) 30 (DAY PERIOD REFERRED TO IN SUBDIVISION 1) days after the date on which the first payment was due, the commissioner (OF THE DEPARTMENT OF LABOR AND INDUSTRY) may grant an extension of time within which to determine liability. The extension shall not exceed 30 days.

Subd. 3. [PAYMENTS TO SPECIAL COMPENSATION FUND.] Where an employer or insurer fails to begin payment of compensation, charges for treatment under section 176.135 or retraining expenses under 176.102, subdivision 9, or to file a denial of liability, or to request an extension of time within (THE) 30 (DAY PERIOD REFERRED TO IN SUBDIVISION 1) days after the date on which the first payment was due, he shall pay to the special compensation fund an amount equal to the total amount of compensation to which the employee is entitled because of the injury. In addition, each day subsequent to the end of the (30 DAY) period and until a compensation payment is made to the injured employee, the person responsible for payment of compensation shall pay to the special compensation fund an amount equal to the total compensation to which the injured employee is entitled.

Subd. 4. [FAILURE TO MAKE PAYMENTS AFTER EXTENSION.] Where an employer or insurer has been granted an extension of time within which to determine liability and fails to begin payment of compensation, charges for treatment under section 176.135 or retraining expenses under 176.102, subdivision 9 or to file a denial of liability within such extended period, he shall make the payments provided in subdivision 3.

Subd. 5. [DOUBLE PAYMENTS TO SPECIAL COMPENSATION FUND.] Where an employer or insurer has failed to make the payments required by subdivision 3 or subdivision 4 within (60) 30 days from the end of the (30 DAY) period or the extended period, the division may require him to pay to the special compensation fund, each day subsequent to the end of the period and until a compensation payment is made to the injured employee, a sum equal to double the total amount of compensation to which the employee is entitled because of the injury. In addition, the person responsible for compensation, charges for treatment under section 176.135 or retraining expenses under 176.102, subdivision 9 shall pay to the special compensation fund an amount equal to the total amount of compensation to which the employee is entitled.

Subd. 6. [ASSESSMENT OF PENALTIES.] The division shall assess the penalty payments provided for by subdivisions 3 to 5, and any increase in benefit payments provided by section 176.225, subdivision 5, against either the employer or the insurer depending upon to whom the delay is attributable in making payment of compensation, charges for treatment under section 176.-

135 or retraining expenses under 176.102, subdivision 9. The insurer is not liable for a penalty payment assessed against the employer.

Subd. 7. [INTEREST.] Any payment of compensation, charges for treatment under section 176.135 or retraining expenses under 176.102, subdivision 9 not made when due shall bear interest at the rate of eight percent per annum from the due date to the date the payment is made.

Subd. 8. [METHOD AND TIMELINESS OF PAYMENT.] Payment of compensation under this chapter shall be by immediately payable negotiable instrument, or if by any other method, arrangements shall be available to provide for the immediate payment of the negotiable instrument.

All payment of compensation shall be made within 14 days of an appropriate order by the division, unless the order is to be appealed, or where a different time period is provided by this chapter.

Sec. 95. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 176.225, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 5. [PENALTY.] Where the employer is guilty of inexcusable delay in making payments, the payments which are found to be delayed shall be increased by 10 percent. Withholding amounts unquestionably due because the injured employee refuses to execute a release of his right to claim further benefits will be regarded as inexcusable delay in the making of compensation payments. If any sum ordered by the department to be paid is not paid when due, and no appeal of the order is made, the sum shall bear interest at the rate of 12 percent per annum. Any penalties paid pursuant to this section shall not be considered as a loss or expense item for purposes of a petition for a rate increase made pursuant to chapter 79.

Sec. 96. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 176.231, Subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [INITIAL REPORT, WRITTEN REPORT.] Where subdivision 1 requires an injury to be reported within 48 hours, the employer may make his initial report by telephone, telegraph, or personal notice, and file a written report of the injury within seven days from its occurrence or within such time as the commissioner of labor and industry designates. All written reports of injuries required by subdivision 1 shall include the date of injury, amounts of payments made, if any, and the date of the first payment. The reports shall be in quadruplicate on a form designed by the commissioner, with two copies to the commissioner and one to the insurer.

Sec. 134. [TRANSITION AND VALIDATION; WORKERS' COMPENSATION COURT OF APPEALS.]

Subdivision 1. [PURPOSE.] It is the purpose and intent of the legislature to constitute the workers' compensation court of appeals as an independent agency of the state and this act is not intended to affect any substantive rights beyond the extent necessary to accomplish said purpose. Any rules, decisions or other actions under chapter 175 and chapter 176 prior to the effective date of this section shall continue in full force and effect unless this act expressly provides otherwise. Matters currently before the workers' compensation court of appeals shall not be affected by the provisions of this act.

Subd. 2. [PERSONNEL.] All personnel appointed by the commissioner of labor and industry to perform full time duties for the workers' compensation court of appeals are transferred to the workers' compensation court of appeals. The transfer shall not affect any other term or condition of the transferred employee's employment.

Sec. 135. [TRANSITION; COMPENSATION JUDGES.]

Subdivision 1. [PURPOSE.] It is the purpose and intent of this act to transfer the compensation judges, except for the settlement judge or judges and their support staff, but including other hearing reporters, and other judicial support staff in the workers' compensation division of the department of labor and industry, to the office of administrative hearings as a separate unit in order to provide for a completely objective hearing process with regard to workers' compensation matters. The offices of the transferred compensation judges shall be physically located in a building separate from the offices of the department of labor and industry.

Notwithstanding the provisions of any law to the contrary, the provisions of this act shall not be construed to require that hearings in workers' compensation matters be subject to the contested case procedures of sections 15.041 to 15.052. Any provision of chapter 176 which would conflict with the provisions of this act with regard to the hearing procedures to be followed in workers' compensation matters are subordinate to the provisions of this act.

Subd. 2. [PERSONNEL, EQUIPMENT.] All personnel appointed by the commissioner to perform full time duties as compensation judges, hearing reporters or in support of the functions of the compensation judges, except for the settlement judge or judges, their hearing reporters and support staff, are transferred to the office of administrative hearings. No employee transferred pursuant to this section shall suffer a diminution of total compensation by reason of such transfer.

All equipment and supplies used solely by the transferred personnel in the performance of their duties are transferred to the office of administrative hearings.

Subd. 3. [CHIEF HEARING EXAMINER.] The chief hearing examiner shall schedule workers' compensation hearings on as regular a schedule as may be practicable in no fewer than six widely separated locations throughout the state, including at least four locations outside of the seven county metropolitan area and Duluth, for the purpose of providing a convenient forum for parties to a compensation hearing and shall maintain a permanent office in Duluth staffed by at least one compensation judge.

Subd. 4. [DISTRICT ADMINISTRATORS; CLERKS OF COURT.] The judicial district administrators or the clerks of court of the county or district courts nearest to the locations selected by the chief hearing examiner pursuant to subdivision 3 shall provide suitable hearing rooms at the times and places agreed upon for the purpose of conducting workers' compensation hearings.

Subd. 5. [COOPERATION.] Beginning on the effective date of this act, the commissioner, the commissioner of administration and the chief hearing examiner shall cooperate in assuring a smooth transfer of the compensation judges and related personnel and equipment and supplies as provided in this act.

Subd. 6. [EFFECTIVE DATE.] The transfers required under this section are effective on July 1, 1981. The physical relocation of the offices of the compensation judges shall be accomplished by no later than January 1, 1982.

Sec. 136. [RATE REDUCTION.]

Subdivision 1. [AMOUNT.] Within 15 days following the date of final enactment the commissioner of insurance shall order that an informational hearing be held for the purpose of making a final determination as to the impact of the provisions of this act on the schedule of rates which will be in effect on October 1, 1981. The hearing shall not be subject to the provisions of the administrative procedure act or section 79.076. The commissioner shall then issue an order, pursuant to the authority granted in section 12, reducing the schedule of rates and making other necessary changes to that schedule to reflect the actual savings which will result from this act. The reduction shall be equal to or greater than the sum of the following factors:

(a) a reduction of 20 percent as a reflection of the impact of section 13;

(b) a reduction of eight percent as a reflection of the impact of changes provided by this act in the benefits payable pursuant to chapter 176; and

(c) a reduction of two percent as a reflection of the impact of the changes in administration and operation of Minnesota workers' compensation system required by this act.

Subd. 2. [EXCEPTION.] The commissioner may reduce any of the changes in the schedule of rates required in subdivision 1 if he finds that a previous rate order issued pursuant to section 79.071 has already incorporated the required reductions.

Sec. 137. [OTHER REDUCTIONS.]

The commissioner shall further order, pursuant to authority granted in section 12, that the schedule of rates shall be reduced by an additional two percent on each of four dates, October 1, 1982, October 1, 1983, October 1, 1984, and October 1, 1985, as a reflection of the savings in the administration and operations of the Minnesota workers' compensation system required by this act. These reductions may be altered if the commissioner finds that the savings are greater or less than contemplated by this subdivision.

Sec. 138. [SEVERABILITY.]

If any provision of this act is found to be unconstitutional and void, the remaining provisions of the act shall remain valid, unless the court finds the valid provisions of the act are so essentially and inseparably connected with, and so dependent upon, the void provisions that the court cannot presume the legislature would have enacted the remaining valid provisions without the void one; or unless the court finds the remaining valid provisions, standing alone, are incomplete and are incapable of being executed in accordance with the legislative intent.

Delete everything after the enacting clause and insert:

“Section 1. Laws 1981, Chapter 29, Article III, Section 10, is amended to read:

[203B.10] [DELIVERY OF ABSENTEE BALLOT APPLICATIONS TO ELECTION JUDGES.]

On the day before an election:

(a) The county auditor shall deliver to the town and city clerks within that county the applications for absentee ballots theretofore received and endorsed as provided in Article III, Section 6, Subdivision 5; and

(b) The town and city clerks shall deliver the applications received from the county auditor and the applications for absentee ballots filed with their respective offices and endorsed as provided in Article III, Section 6, Subdivision 5, to the appropriate election judges. Applications received on election day pursuant to Article III, Section 4, Subdivision 2, shall be promptly delivered to the election judges in the precincts or to the judges of an absentee ballot counting board.

Sec. 2. Laws 1981, Chapter 29, Article III, Section 12, is amended to read:

[203B.12] [ELECTION JUDGES TO RECEIVE AND COUNT BALLOTS.]

Subdivision 1. [RECEIPT OF RETURN ENVELOPES.] The election judges in each precinct or the judges of an absentee ballot counting board shall take possession of all return envelopes delivered to them in accordance with Article III, Section 8.

Subd. 2. [EXAMINATION OF RETURN ENVELOPES.] Two or more election judges shall examine each return envelope and shall mark it accepted or rejected in the manner provided in this subdivision. The election judges shall remove the ballot envelope from the return envelope, mark the ballot envelope "Accepted" and initial or sign the ballot envelope below the word "Accepted" if the election judges or a majority of them are satisfied that:

(a) The voter's signature on the return envelope is the genuine signature of the individual who made the application for ballots and the certificate has been completed as prescribed in the directions for casting an absentee ballot;

(b) In precincts with a permanent voter registration system, the voter is registered and eligible to vote in the precinct or has included a properly completed registration card in the return envelope or, in precincts with no permanent voter registration system, the address of the voter lies within the precinct; and

(c) The voter has not already voted at that election, either in person or by absentee ballot.

The return envelope from accepted ballots shall be preserved and returned to the county auditor with the voters' certificates.

If all or a majority of the election judges examining return envelopes find that an absent voter has failed to meet one of the requirements prescribed in clauses (a) to (c), they shall remove the ballot envelope from the return envelope, mark the ballot envelope "Rejected", initial or sign it below the word "Rejected", and place it back in the return envelope for return to the county auditor with the unused ballots.

Subd. 3. [NOTATION ON REGISTRATION CARD OR ELECTION REGISTER.] If the ballot envelope is marked with the word "Accepted", the election judges shall record the fact that the voter has voted by absentee ballot on the voter registration card or in the election register in precincts with no permanent voter registration. This shall be done by placing the letters "A.B." in the appropriate space on the card or register. After a registration card or election register has been marked to record that an individual has voted by absentee ballot, the individual shall not be allowed to vote in person at that election.

Subd. 4. [PLACEMENT IN CONTAINER; OPENING AND COUNTING OF BALLOTS.] The ballot envelopes marked "Accepted" shall be placed by the election judges in a separate absentee ballot container. The container and each ballot envelope may be opened only after the last regular mail delivery by the United States postal service on election day. The ballots shall then be initialed by the election judges in the same manner as ballots delivered by them to voters in person and shall be deposited in the appropriate ballot box.

If more than one ballot of any kind is enclosed in the ballot envelope, none of the ballots of that kind shall be counted but all ballots of that kind shall be returned in the manner provided by Article V, Section 25 for return of spoiled ballots.

Subd. 5. [ELECTRONIC VOTING SYSTEM PRECINCTS.] Paper absentee ballots delivered to the election judges in precincts which use an electronic voting system shall be counted in the manner provided in this section. No duplicate ballot cards shall be prepared. The paper ballot vote totals for each candidate and on each question shall be added to the results obtained from the electronic tabulating equipment in each precinct.

Subd. 6. [EXCEPTION FOR MUNICIPALITIES WITH ABSENTEE BALLOT COUNTING BOARDS.] In municipalities with an absentee ballot counting board, the election judges in each precinct shall receive and process return envelopes and ballot envelopes as provided in this section except that the ballot envelopes marked "Accepted" shall be delivered in an absentee ballot container to the absentee ballot counting board for the counting of ballots as soon as possible after processing. Other law to the contrary notwithstanding, the governing body of a municipality with an absentee ballot precinct may authorize the judges of the absentee ballot precinct to validate ballots in the manner provided in this section. The vote totals provided by the absentee ballot counting board shall be included in the vote totals on the summary statements of the returns for the precinct in which they were received.

Sec. 3. Laws 1981, Chapter 29, Article III, Section 13, is amended to read:

[203B.13] [ABSENTEE BALLOT COUNTING BOARDS.]

Subdivision 1. [ESTABLISHMENT.] The governing body of any municipality may by ordinance authorize an absentee ballot counting board for the purpose of counting all absentee ballots cast in that municipality. The board shall consist of a sufficient number of election judges appointed as provided in Article IV, Sections 19 to 22.

Subd. 2. [DUTIES.] The absentee ballot counting board shall:

(a) Receive from each precinct in the municipality all ballot envelopes marked "Accepted" by the election judges; provided that the governing body of a municipality may authorize the board to examine all return absentee ballot envelopes and receive or reject absentee ballots in the manner provided in section 2;

(b) Open and count the absentee ballots, tabulating the vote in a manner that indicates each vote of the absentee voter and the total absentee vote cast for each candidate or question in each precinct; and

(c) Report the vote totals tabulated for each precinct.

Subd. 3. [COMPENSATION OF MEMBERS.] The city or town clerk shall pay a reasonable compensation to each member of the absentee ballot counting board for services rendered during each election.

Subd. 3a. [DUPLICATE REGISTRATION FILES.] If the election judges of an absentee ballot counting board are authorized to receive, examine, and validate absentee ballots, the county auditor or city clerk shall remove from the duplicate registration files the cards of all persons who have applied for absentee ballots at the election and deliver them to the election judges of the absentee ballot counting board along with the applications for absentee ballots. When a duplicate registration card has been removed from the file for this purpose it shall be replaced with a notification to the election judges that the voter's card has been removed and directing them to contact the election judges of the absentee ballot counting board if that voter should present himself at the polling place for the purpose of casting his vote in person. If contacted by the judges of the precinct, the election judges of the absentee ballot counting board shall examine the duplicate registration card of the voter to determine if his absentee ballot has been cast. They shall notify the precinct election judges of their findings and, if the absentee ballot has not yet been cast, the voter shall be allowed to cast his vote in person. The election judges of the absentee ballot counting board shall make a notation on the duplicate registration card that the voter has voted and no absentee ballot shall be counted for that voter.

Subd. 4. [APPLICABLE LAWS.] Except as otherwise provided by this section, all of the laws applicable to absentee ballots and absentee voters and all other provisions of the Minnesota election law shall apply to an absentee ballot counting board."

H. F. No. 284 which is recommended to pass with the following amendments offered by Elioff:

Delete everything after the enacting clause and insert:

"Section 1. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 144.343, is amended to read:

144.343 [PREGNANCY, VENEREAL DISEASE AND ALCOHOL OR DRUG ABUSE.]

Subdivision 1. [MINOR'S CONSENT VALID.] Any minor may give effective consent for medical, mental and other health services to determine the presence of or to treat pregnancy and conditions associated therewith, venereal disease, alcohol and other drug abuse, and the consent of no other person is required.

Subd. 2. [NOTIFICATION CONCERNING ABORTION.] Notwithstanding the provisions of Minnesota Statutes, Section 15.162, Subdivision 4, no abortion operation shall be performed upon an unemancipated minor or upon a woman for whom a guardian or conservator has been appointed pursuant to sections 525.54 to 525.551 because of a finding of incompetency, until at least 48 hours after written notice of the pending operation has been delivered in the manner specified in subdivisions 2 to 4.

(a) The notice shall be addressed to the parent and either be delivered personally to the parent or be delivered to the parent's usual place of abode and left with a person of suitable age and discretion residing therein other than the pregnant woman.

(b) In lieu of the delivery required by clause (a), notice may be made by certified mail receipted for by the persons specified for delivery in clause (a). Twenty-four hours after the time of mailing by certified mail shall be deemed the time of delivery.

Subd. 3. [PARENT, ABORTION; DEFINITIONS.] For purposes of this section, "parent" means both parents of the pregnant woman if they are both living, one parent of the pregnant woman if only one is living or if the second one cannot be located through reasonably diligent effort, or the guardian or conservator if the pregnant woman has one.

For purposes of this section, "abortion" means the use of any means to terminate the pregnancy of a woman known to be pregnant with knowledge that the termination with those means will, with reasonable likelihood, cause the death of the fetus and "fetus" means any individual human organism from fertilization until birth.

Subd. 4. [LIMITATIONS.] No notice shall be required under this section if:

(a) The attending physician certifies in the pregnant woman's medical record that the abortion is necessary to prevent the woman's death and there is insufficient time to provide the required notice; or

(b) The abortion is authorized in writing by the person or persons who are entitled to notice; or

(c) The pregnant minor woman declares that she is a victim of sexual abuse, neglect, or physical abuse as defined in section 626.556. Notice of that declaration shall be made to the proper authorities as provided in section 626.556, subdivision 3.

Subd. 5. [PENALTY.] Performance of an abortion in violation of this section shall be a misdemeanor and shall be grounds for a civil action by a person wrongfully denied notification. A person shall not be held liable under this section if the person establishes by written evidence that the person relied upon evidence sufficient to convince a careful and prudent person that the representations of the pregnant woman regarding information necessary to comply with this section are bona fide and true, or if the person has attempted with reasonable diligence to deliver notice, but has been unable to do so.

Subd. 6. If subdivision 2 of this law is ever temporarily or permanently restrained or enjoined by judicial order, subdivision 2 shall be enforced as though the following paragraph were incorporated as paragraph (c) of that subdivision; provided, however, that if such temporary or permanent restraining order or injunction is ever stayed or dissolved, or otherwise ceases to have effect, subdivision 2 shall have full force and effect, without being modified by the addition of the following substitute paragraph which shall have no force or effect until or unless an injunction or restraining order is again in effect.

(c) (i) If such a pregnant woman elects not to allow the notification of one or both of her parents or guardian or conservator, any judge of a court of competent jurisdiction shall, upon petition, or motion, and after an appropriate hearing, authorize a physician to perform the abortion if said judge determines that the pregnant woman is mature and capable of giving informed consent to the proposed abortion. If said judge determines that the pregnant woman is not mature, or if the pregnant woman does not claim to be mature, the judge shall determine whether the performance of an abortion upon her without notification of her parents, guardian, or conservator would be in her best interests and shall authorize a physician to perform the abortion without such notification if said judge concludes that the pregnant woman's best interests would be served thereby.

(ii) Such a pregnant woman may participate in proceedings in the court on her own behalf, and the court may appoint a guardian ad litem for her. The court shall, however, advise her that she has a right to court appointed counsel, and shall, upon her request, provide her with such counsel.

(iii) Proceedings in the court under this section shall be confidential and shall be given such precedence over other pending matters so that the court may reach a decision promptly and without delay so as to serve the best interests of the pregnant woman. A judge of the court who conducts proceedings under this section shall make in writing specific factual findings and legal conclusions supporting his decision and shall order a record of the evidence to be maintained including his own findings and conclusions.

(iv) An expedited confidential appeal shall be available to any such pregnant woman for whom the court denies an order authorizing an abortion without notification. An order authorizing an abortion without notification shall not be subject to appeal. No filing fees shall be required of any such pregnant woman at either the trial or the appellate level. Access to the trial court for the purposes of such a petition or motion, and access to the appellate courts for purposes of making an appeal from denial of the same, shall be afforded such a pregnant woman 24 hours a day, seven days a week.

Subd. 7. If any provision, word, phrase or clause of this act or the application thereof to any person or circumstance shall be held invalid, such invalidity shall not affect the provisions, words, phrases, clauses or application of this act which can be given effect without the invalid provision, word, phrase, clause, or application, and to this end the provisions words, phrases, and clauses of this act are declared to be severable."

124.213 [STATE SCHOOL AGRICULTURAL CREDIT.]

The county auditor shall reduce the tax for school purposes on all property receiving the homestead credit pursuant to section 273.13, subdivision 6, by an amount equal to the tax levy that would be produced by applying a rate of (17) 18 mills on up to

The county auditor shall reduce the tax for school purposes on all other agricultural lands and all real estate devoted to temporary and seasonal residential occupancy for recreational purposes, but not devoted to commercial purposes, by an amount that would be produced by applying a rate of ten mills on the property. No state agricultural credit shall be applied on any property in excess of 640 acres. The amounts so computed by the county auditor shall be submitted to the commissioner of revenue as part of the abstracts of tax lists required to be filed with the commissioner under the provisions of section 275.29. Any prior year adjustments shall also be certified in the abstracts of tax lists. The commissioner of revenue shall review such certifications to determine their accuracy. He may make such changes in the certification as he may deem necessary or return a certification to the county auditor for corrections.

In 1977, payment shall be made according to the procedure provided in section 273.13, subdivision 15a, for the purpose of replacing revenue lost as a result of the reduction of property taxes provided in this section. In 1978, payment shall be made pursuant to sections 124.212, subdivision 7b and 124.11, for the purpose of replacing revenue lost as a result of the reduction in property taxes provided in this section. (THERE IS APPROPRIATED FROM THE GENERAL FUND IN THE STATE TREASURY TO THE COMMISSIONER OF REVENUE THE AMOUNT NECESSARY TO MAKE THESE PAYMENTS IN FISCAL YEAR 1978.) There is appropriated from the general fund in the state treasury to the department of education (THE AMOUNT NECESSARY TO MAKE THESE PAYMENTS IN FISCAL YEAR 1979 AND THEREAFTER) *in fiscal year 1982, the amount of $68,400,000; in fiscal year 1983, the amount of $75,400,000. Subd. 4. There is appropriated from the general fund in the state treasury to the commissioner of revenue the amount necessary to make the payments provided in subdivision 3 *provided that in fiscal year 1982, the appropriation shall not exceed $3,200,000 and in fiscal year 1983, the appropriation shall not exceed $3,700,000. The property tax to be paid on class 3b property as otherwise determined by law less any reduction received pursuant to section 273.135 shall be reduced by 58 percent of the tax for taxes payable in 1981 and thereafter; provided that the amount of said reduction shall not exceed $650. Valuation subject to relief shall be limited to (240) 320 acres of land, most contiguous surrounding, bordering, or closest to the house occupied by the owner as his dwelling place, and such other structures as may be included thereon utilized by the owner in an agricultural pursuit, provided that noncontiguous land shall constitute class 3b only if the homestead is classified as class 3b and the detached land is located in the same township or city or not farther than two townships or cities or combination thereof from the homestead. The first $12,000 market value of each tract of real estate which is rural in character and devoted or adaptable to rural but not necessarily agricultural use, used for the purpose of a homestead shall be exempt from taxation for state purposes; except as specifically provided otherwise by law.

The provisions of the Tax Reform Act of 1976, P.L. 94-455, which affect adjusted gross income shall become effective for purposes of this chapter at the same time they become effective for federal income tax purposes. The overpayment refund or credit, determined with respect to a husband and wife on a joint federal income tax return for a previous taxable year, shall be reported on joint or separate Minnesota income tax returns. In the case of separate Minnesota returns, the overpayment shall be reported by each spouse proportionately according to the relative amounts of federal income tax claimed as a deduction on his or her separate Minnesota income tax return for such previous taxable year;

(7) In the case of a change of residence from Minnesota to another state or nation, the amount of moving expenses which exceed total reimbursements and which were therefore deducted in arriving at federal adjusted gross income;

(8) In the case of property disposed of on or after January 1, 1973, the amount of any increase in the taxpayer's federal tax liability under section 47 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 to the extent of the credit under section 38 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 that was previously allowed as a deduction either under section 290.01, subdivision 20 (b) (7) or under section 290.09, subdivision 24;

(13) Interest income from qualified scholarship funding bonds as defined in section 103(e) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, if the nonprofit corporation is domiciled outside of Minnesota;

(14) Exempt-interest dividends, as defined in section 852(b)(5)(A) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, not included in federal adjusted gross income pursuant to section 852(b)(5)(B) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, except for that portion of exempt-interest dividends derived from interest income on obligations of the state of Minnesota, any of its political or governmental subdivisions, any of its municipalities, or any of its governmental agencies or instrumentalities;

(15) The amount of any excluded gain recognized by a trust on the sale or exchange of property as defined in section 641(c)(1) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954;

(16) An amount equal to one-sixth of any gain from the sale or other disposition of property deducted under sections 1202(a) and 1202(c)(1) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954;

(17) To the extent not included in the taxpayer's federal adjusted gross income, the amount of any gain, from the sale or other disposition of property having a lower adjusted basis for Minnesota income tax purposes than for federal income tax purposes. This modification shall not exceed the difference in basis. If the gain is considered a long term capital gain for federal income tax purposes, the modification shall be limited to 50 percent of the portion of the gain. This modification is limited to property that qualified for the energy credit contained in section 290.06, subdivision 14, and to property acquired in exchange for the release of the taxpayer's marital rights contained in section 290.14, clause (9);

(b) Modifications reducing federal adjusted gross income. There shall be subtracted from federal adjusted gross income:

(1) Interest income on obligations of any authority, commission or instrumentality of the United States to the extent includible in gross income for federal income tax purposes but exempt from state income tax under the laws of the United States;

(2) The portion of any gain, from the sale or other disposition of property having a higher adjusted basis for Minnesota income tax purposes than for federal income tax purposes, that does not exceed such difference in basis; but if such gain is considered a long-term capital gain for federal income tax purposes, the modification shall be limited to 50 per centum of the portion of the gain. This modification shall not be applicable if the difference in basis is due to disallowance of depreciation pursuant to section 290.101.

(3) Interest or dividend income on securities to the extent exempt from income tax under the laws of this state authorizing the issuance of the securities but includible in gross income for federal income tax purposes;

(4) Losses, not otherwise reducing federal adjusted gross income assignable to Minnesota, arising from events or transactions which are assignable to Minnesota under the provisions of sections 290.17 to 290.20, including any capital loss or net operating loss carryforwards or carrybacks resulting from the losses;

(5) If included in federal adjusted gross income, the amount of any credit received, whether received as a refund or credit to another taxable year's income tax liability, pursuant to chapter 290A, and the amount of any overpayment of income tax to Minnesota, or any other state, for any previous taxable year, whether the amount is received as a refund or credited to another taxable year's income tax liability;

(6) To the extent included in federal adjusted gross income, or the amount reflected as the ordinary income portion of a lump sum distribution under section 402(e) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, notwithstanding any other law to the contrary, the amount received by any person (i) from the United States, its agencies or instrumentalities, the Federal Reserve Bank or from the state of Minnesota or any of its political or governmental subdivisions or from any other state or its political or governmental subdivisions, or a Minnesota volunteer firefighter's relief association, by way of payment as a pension, public employee retirement benefit, or any combination thereof, or (ii) as a retirement or survivor's benefit made from a plan qualifying under section 401, 403, 404, 405, 408, 409 or 409A of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954. The maximum amount of this subtraction shall be $11,000 less the amount by which the individual's federal adjusted gross income, plus the ordinary income portion of a lump sum distribution as defined in section 402(e) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, exceeds $17,000. In the case of a volunteer firefighter who receives an involuntary lump sum distribution of his pension or retirement benefits, the maximum amount of this subtraction shall be $11,000; this subtraction shall not be reduced by the amount of the individual's federal adjusted gross income in excess of $17,000;

(7) In the case of property acquired on or after January 1, 1973, the amount of any credit to the taxpayer's federal tax liability under section 38 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 but only to the extent that the credit is connected with or allocable against the production or receipt of income included in the measure of the tax imposed by this chapter;

(8) To the extent included in the taxpayer's federal adjusted gross income for the taxable year, gain recognized upon a transfer of property to the spouse or former spouse of the taxpayer in exchange for the release of the spouse's marital rights;

(10) Interest, including payment adjustment to the extent that it is applied to interest, earned by the seller of the property on a family farm security loan executed before January 1, 1982 that is guaranteed by the commissioner of agriculture as provided in sections 41.51 to 41.60;

(11) The first $3,000 of compensation for personal services in the armed forces of the United States or the United Nations, and the next $2,000 of compensation for personal services in the armed forces of the United States or the United Nations wholly performed outside the state of Minnesota. This modification does not apply to compensation defined in clause (b) (6);

(12) The amount of any income earned for personal services rendered outside of Minnesota prior to the date when the taxpayer became a resident of Minnesota. This modification does not apply to compensation defined in clause (b) (6);

(13) In the case of wages or salaries paid or incurred on or after January 1, 1977, the amount of any credit for employment of certain new employees under sections 44B and 51 to 53 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 which is claimed as a credit against the taxpayer's federal tax liability, but only to the extent that the credit is connected with or allocable against the production or receipt of income included in the measure of the tax imposed by this chapter;

(14) In the case of work incentive program expenses paid or incurred on or after January 1, 1979, the amount of any credit for expenses of work incentive programs under sections 40, 50A and 50B of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 which is claimed as a credit against the taxpayer's federal tax liability, but only to the extent that the credit is connected with or allocable against the production or receipt of income included in the measure of the tax imposed by this chapter;

(18) Minnesota exempt-interest dividends as provided by subdivision 27.

(c) Modifications affecting shareholders of electing small business corporations under section 1372 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, or section 290.972 of this chapter.

(1) Shareholders in a small business corporation, which has elected to be so taxed under the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, but has not made an election under section 290.972 of this chapter, shall deduct from federal adjusted gross income the amount of any imputed income from the corporation and shall add to federal adjusted gross income the amount of any loss claimed as a result of stock ownership. Also there shall be added to federal adjusted gross income the amount of any distributions in cash or property made by said corporation to its shareholders during the taxable year.

(2) In cases where the small business corporation has made an election under section 1372 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, but has not elected under section 290.972 of this chapter and the corporation is liquidated or the individual shareholder disposes of the stock and there is no capital loss reflected in federal adjusted gross income because of the fact that corporate losses have exhausted the shareholders basis for federal purposes, the shareholders shall be entitled, nevertheless, to a capital loss commensurate to their Minnesota basis for the stock.

(3) In cases where the election under section 1372 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 antedates the election under section 290.972 of this chapter and at the close of the taxable year immediately preceding the effective election under section 290.972 the corporation has a reserve of undistributed taxable income previously taxed to shareholders under the provisions of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, in the event and to the extent that the reserve is distributed to shareholders the distribution shall be taxed as a dividend for purposes of this act.

Items of gross income includible within these definitions shall be deemed such regardless of the form in which received. Items of gross income shall be included in gross income of the taxable year in which received by a taxpayer unless properly to be accounted for as of a different taxable year under methods of accounting permitted by section 290.07, except that (1) amounts transferred from a reserve or other account, if in effect transfers to surplus, shall, to the extent that the amounts were accumulated through deductions from gross income or entered into the computation of taxable net income during any taxable year, be treated as gross income for the year in which the transfer occurs, but only to the extent that the amounts resulted in a reduction of the tax imposed by this act, and (2) amounts received as refunds on account of taxes deducted from gross income during any taxable year shall be treated as gross income for the year in which actually received, but only to the extent that such amounts resulted in a reduction of the tax imposed by this act.

(d) Modification in computing taxable income of the estate of a decedent. Amounts allowable under section 291.07, subdivision 1, clause (2) in computing Minnesota inheritance or estate tax liability shall not be allowed as a deduction in computing the taxable income of the estate unless there is filed within the time and in the manner and form prescribed by the commissioner a statement that the amounts have not been allowed as a deduction under section 291.07 and a waiver of the right to have the amounts allowed at any time as deductions under section 291.07. The provisions of this paragraph shall not apply with respect to deductions allowed under section 290.077 (relating to income in respect of decedents). In the event that the election made for federal tax purposes under section 642(g) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 differs from the election made under this paragraph appropriate modification of the estate's federal taxable income shall be made to implement the election made under this paragraph in accordance with regulations prescribed by the commissioner.

Sec. 2. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 290.01, Subdivision 23, is amended to read:

Subd. 23. [ADJUSTED GROSS INCOME.] The term "adjusted gross income" means the gross income, as defined in subdivision 20, less the allowable federal income tax deductions provided in sections 290.09, (290.075, 290.077, AND 290.16, SUBDIVISION 6,) subdivision 4 limited by section 290.10, clauses (8), (9), and (10) to the extent allowed by section 290.18.

Sec. 3. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 290.09, Subdivision 4, is amended to read:

Subd. 4. If the taxpayer's foreign tax credit consists of both foreign taxes deemed paid and foreign taxes actually paid or withheld, it will be conclusively presumed that foreign taxes deemed paid were first used by the taxpayer in its foreign tax credit. Minnesota gross income shall include the amount of foreign tax paid which had been allowed as a deduction in a previous year, provided such foreign tax is later allowed as a credit against federal income tax. (INCOME TAXES PERMITTED TO BE DEDUCTED HEREUNDER SHALL, REGARDLESS OF THE METHODS OF ACCOUNTING EMPLOYED, BE DEDUCTIBLE ONLY IN THE TAXABLE YEAR IN WHICH PAID.) Taxes imposed upon a shareholder's interest in a corporation which are paid by the corporation without reimbursement from the shareholder shall be deductible only by such corporation.

(vi) If the readjustments required in (iv) or (v) are for taxes reflected in the transition rule described in (ii)(2), the readjustment shall be made equally to the remaining installments and if a reduction to such installments is required under this readjustment which exceeds the total of all remaining installments, the remaining installments will be reduced to zero and the excess included in income as a federal income tax refund.

176.151 [TIME LIMITATIONS.]

The time within which the following acts shall be performed shall be limited to the following periods, respectively:

(1) Actions or proceedings by an injured employee to determine or recover compensation, three years after the employer has made written report of the injury to the commissioner of the department of labor and industry, but not to exceed six years from the date of the accident.

(2) Actions or proceedings by dependents to determine or recover compensation, three years after the receipt by the commissioner of the department of labor and industry of written notice of death, given by the employer, but not to exceed six years from the date of injury, provided, however, if the employee was paid compensation for the injury from which the death resulted, such actions or proceedings by dependents must be commenced within three years after the receipt by the commissioner of the department of labor and industry of written notice of death, given by the employer, but not to exceed six years from the date of death. In any such case, if a dependent of the deceased, or any one in his behalf, gives written notice of such death to the commissioner of the department of labor and industry, the commissioner shall forthwith give written notice to the employer of the time and place of such death. In case the deceased was a native of a foreign country and leaves no known dependent within the United States, the commissioner of the department of labor and industry shall give written notice of the death to the consul or other representative of the foreign country forthwith.

(3) Once compensation has been paid to the employee, he must bring any action for further compensation within eight years from the date compensation was last paid except in the case of lump sum payments made pursuant to section 176.021, subdivision 3, in which case any action must be commenced within eight years from what would have been the date of expiration of weekly benefits under section 176.101 had not lump sum payments been made.

(4) Clause (3) shall not apply where any existing order or award provides for further payments of compensation for recurrences of the disability from the injury to the employee; or in an injury of a nature where in the opinion of the compensation judge or workers' compensation court of appeals upon appeal there is a possibility of a future disability and the compensation judge or workers' compensation court of appeals upon appeal so finds.

(5) Clause (3) shall not apply where the employee's injury for which he has received compensation is such that as part of his medical care he is entitled to the future replacement or repair of crutches, apparatus, artificial members, glasses, spectacles, artificial eyes, dental bridge work, dentures or artificial teeth, hearing aids, canes, wheel chairs, or other prosthetic devices and his claim relates to items in this paragraph, or to future medical care as it relates to items in this paragraph.

((3)) (6) In case of physical or mental incapacity, other than minority, of the injured person or his dependents to perform or cause to be performed any act required within the time specified in this section, the period of limitation in any such case shall be extended for three years from the date when the incapacity ceases.

((4)) (7) In the case of injury caused by x-rays, radium, radioactive substances or machines, ionizing radiation, or any other occupational disease, the time limitations otherwise prescribed by Minnesota Statutes 1961, Chapter 176, and acts amendatory thereof, shall not apply, but the employee shall give notice to the employer and commence his action within three

Reported the same back with the following amendments:

“Section 1. [116H.31] [DISTRICT HEATING LOANS.]

Subdivision 1. [POLICIES.] Developing and improving efficient and economical district heating systems is a public purpose for state financing and a proper function of state government. Climate and geography make a reliable, economic supply of energy essential for industrial, commercial, and residential heating. Imported supplies are increasingly costly, unreliable, and environmentally disadvantageous. District heating systems employing cogeneration techniques and innovative technology offer an important means of increasing the efficiency of Minnesota's energy systems and reducing the state's reliance on imported energy supplies. The combination of the large initial capital cost and investors' lack of familiarity with district heating has made the private market reluctant to provide the necessary capital for district heating projects. As a result, public leadership, cooperation, and aid are needed to demonstrate the feasibility of district heating systems by establishing economically viable municipal district heating systems as demonstration projects. Municipal district heating systems may be financed by loans from the state and from other sources available to municipalities.

Subd. 2. [DEFINITIONS.] In this section:

(a) “Commissioner” means the commissioner of finance.

(b) “Construction costs” means all costs associated with the construction, modification or expansion of a district heating system except for preliminary planning costs and detailed design costs. Construction costs include the cost of debt service from the time a construction loan is made until five years after the beginning of the operation of the district heating system constructed or the part of the system being modified or expanded.

(c) "Director" means the director of the Minnesota energy agency.

(d) "District heating" means the use of a central energy conversion facility to produce hot water or steam for distribution to homes or businesses. District heating facilities may also produce electricity in addition to hot water or steam.

(e) "Municipality" means any county, city, town, municipal power agency, or public utility, as defined in section 452.01, subdivision 3, owned and operated by a city, however organized or nonprofit corporation organized pursuant to the provisions of chapter 317 whose membership is limited to the mayor and governing body of the city in which the district heating system is located.

Subd. 3. [ELIGIBILITY.] The commissioner of finance, upon request of the governor, may make loans to municipalities for the acquisition, construction, expansion, or modification of district heating systems. A loan shall be made only to a municipality that has demonstrated that:

(a) The municipality has the financial capability to sponsor the project;

(b) The project is technologically feasible;

(c) The district heating project will become a cogeneration facility or the project will utilize hot water or, if the project involves an existing district steam heating system, the project will become integrated with a hot water district heating system, or the project will allow the use of nonpetroleum fuels or will construct an efficient heat transmission system; and

(d) The municipality has made adequate provision to assure proper and efficient operation and maintenance of the project after construction is completed.

Subd. 4. [PRIORITIES.] The director shall give higher priority to a project that does more to achieve the following goals:

(a) The district heating conversion facility employs cogeneration techniques;

(b) The facility uses renewable or nonpetroleum sources of energy;

(c) The district heating facility will save petroleum or natural gas;

(d) The operation of the district heating facility will not have an adverse impact on the environment;

(e) The district heating facility may readily be expanded to serve additional customers or to supply additional amounts of energy, and market demand for the energy exists;

(f) The project has obtained additional financing from the federal government, private sources, or other sources of capital; and

(g) Other goals the director finds desirable for district heating systems.

Subd. 5. [APPLICATION.] Application for a loan to be made pursuant to subdivision 6 shall be made by a municipality to the director on a form prescribed by the director by rule. The director shall review each application and determine:

(a) Whether or not the project is eligible for a loan;

(b) The priority of the project when ranked with all other eligible projects for which a loan application has been submitted;

(c) The total estimated cost of the project;

(d) The amount of the loan for which the project is eligible;

(e) The terms upon which the loan would be made; and

(f) The means by which the municipality proposes to finance the project, including:

(1) A loan authorized by state law; or

(2) A grant of money appropriated by state law; or

(3) A grant to the municipality by an agency of the federal government within the amount of money then appropriated to that agency and allocated by it to projects within the state; or

(4) The appropriation of proceeds of bonds or other money of the municipality to an account for the construction of the project; or

(5) User charges, franchise fees, special assessments or taxes; or

(6) Any or all of the means referred to in clauses (1) to (5).

Subd. 6. [LOANS.] Upon the recommendation of the governor pursuant to subdivision 8, the commissioner shall make loans to municipalities on the following terms:

(a) In the case of loans for design costs, the maximum amount of the loan shall be limited by the provisions of this clause. For cities of the first class, the amount of the loan shall not exceed 40 percent of the design costs. For cities of the second, third and fourth class, the amount of the loan shall not exceed 90 percent of the design costs;

(b) In the case for loans for construction costs, a municipality must demonstrate that all design activities have been completed; that the project is economically and technologically feasible; that the district heating system will be constructed, and that it has made adequate provisions to assure proper and efficient operation and maintenance of the project. For cities of the first class, the amount of the loan shall be up to 50 percent of the construction costs. For cities of the second class, the amount of the loan shall be up to 80 percent of the construction costs. For cities of the third or fourth class, the amount of the loan shall be up to 90 percent of the construction costs.

(c) A loan made pursuant to this section is repayable over a period of 20 years, with interest payments beginning the first year. Interest shall accrue from the date of the loan at a rate of interest assigned at the date of loan commitment. Principal payments shall begin in the sixth year after the receipt of the loan on a 25 year level payment schedule with the balance of the principal to be retired with the payment due 20 years after receipt of the loan.

Subd. 7. [MODERN STEAM SYSTEMS.] (a) A municipality which has operating within its boundaries a modern steam district heating system owned by a district heating utility may apply for a loan or grant under this section even though the district heating project for which the loan or grant application is made may be planned, constructed, or owned by a district heating utility. The loan or grant application shall be treated in the same manner as loan or grant applications for district heating projects where the projects are to be planned, constructed, or owned by a municipality.

All or a portion of the proceeds of a loan made to a municipality described in this subdivision may be used to make loans to a district heating utility to provide financial assistance for the planning, modification, expansion or construction of a district heating project. Prior to making the loan to the district heating utility, the municipality shall:

(1) Adopt a district heating plan which identifies the areas of the city to be served by district heating; a time schedule indicating when service would be available in different areas of the city and the type of service to be offered; and

(2) Enter into a written agreement with the district heating utility which includes a requirement that the district heating utility restrict expansion of its existing steam system within its current geographic boundaries as determined by the municipality and develop a hot water system on a specific time schedule.

(b) The powers, authority and obligations granted to a municipality under this subdivision are supplemental to the powers, authority and obligations granted all municipalities under this section.

(c) As used in this subdivision, "modern steam district heating system" means a steam district heating system with condensate return built after 1970 and before the effective date of this section. "District heating utility" means any person, corporation, or other legal entity which owns or operates or plans to own or operate a district heating system. "District heating project" means a new district heating system, or the expansion or modification of the existing modern steam district heating system.

Subd. 8. [LOAN APPROVAL.] The director shall prepare and submit to the legislative advisory commission a list of district heating loan requests. The list shall contain the supporting information required by subdivisions 3, 4, 5, 6, and 7. The recommendation of the legislative advisory commission shall be transmitted to the governor. The governor shall approve or disapprove, or return for further consideration, each project recommended for approval by the legislative advisory commission. Loans may be disbursed only upon approval by the governor.

Subd. 9. [PAYMENT; OBLIGATION.] The commissioner shall not pay money to a municipality pursuant to an approved loan until he has determined that:

(a) Financing of the project as proposed by the municipality is assured by an irrevocable undertaking, by resolution of the governing body of the municipality, to use all money made available by the financing plan exclusively for the eligible costs of the project, and to pay any additional amount by which the cost of the project exceeds the estimate by the appropriation to the construction account of additional municipal money or the proceeds of additional bonds to be issued by the municipality; and that

(b) The governing body of the municipality has adopted a resolution obligating the municipality to repay the loan according to the terms in the loan. The obligation may be payable from user charges, franchise fees, special assessments or other money available to the municipality. The resolution shall obligate the municipality to annually impose and collect user charges, franchise fees, special assessments, or to use any other money available to it from any other specified source, in amounts and at times that if collected in full will annually produce at least five percent in excess of the amount needed for all annual costs of the system, including annual repayment on state loans. A municipality may also pledge to levy an ad valorem tax to guarantee the payments under the loan agreement. For the purpose of repaying the loan, the municipality by resolution of its governing body may fix the rates and charges for district heating system service and products, may enter into contracts for the payment by others of costs of construction, maintenance, and use of the project in accordance with section 444.075 and may pledge the revenues derived therefrom. The commissioner shall condition a loan upon the establishment of rates and charges or the execution of contracts sufficient to produce annually the revenues pledged for repayment of all annual costs of the system, including annual repayment of the state loan.

Subd. 10. [RECEIPTS.] All principal and interest payments received by the commissioner in repayment of the loans authorized by this section shall be deposited in the state treasury and credited to the state bond fund and are appropriated to the commissioner for the purposes of that account.

Subdivision 1. [AUTHORITY TO OWN AND OPERATE.] Any statutory city may own and operate any waterworks, district heating system, or gas, light, power, or heat plant for supplying its own needs for utility service or for supplying utility service to private consumers or both. It may construct and install all facilities reasonably needed for that purpose and may lease or purchase any existing utility properties so needed. It may, in lieu of providing for the local production of gas, electricity, water, hot water, steam, or heat, purchase the same wholesale and resell it to local consumers. After any such utility has been acquired, the council, except as its powers have been limited through establishment of a public utilities commission in the city, shall make all necessary rules and regulations for the protection, maintenance, operation, extension, and improvement thereof and for the sale of its utility products.

412.351 [COMMISSION, JURISDICTION.]

The council shall in the ordinance establishing the commission, decide which of the following public utilities shall be within the commission's jurisdiction: (1) the city water system; (2) light and power system, including any system then in use or later acquired for the production and distribution of steam heat; (3) gas system; (4) sanitary or storm sewer system or both, including the city sewage disposal plant; (5) public buildings owned or leased by the city; (6) district heating system. As used subsequently in sections 412.351 to 412.391, the term "public utility" means any water, light and power, gas or sewer system, or public buildings thus placed by ordinance under the jurisdiction of the public utilities commission. Any public utility not placed under the jurisdiction of the public utilities commission by the ordinance establishing the commission may be placed under the jurisdiction of the commission by an amendment to the original ordinance.

Sec. 4. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 412.361, Subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. The commission shall have power to buy all fuel and supplies, and it may purchase wholesale electric energy, steam heat, hot water energy, gas or water, as the case may be, for municipal distribution.

Sec. 6. [465.74] [AUTHORIZATION TO OPERATE DISTRICT HEATING SYSTEMS.]

Subdivision 1. [CITIES OF THE FIRST CLASS.] Any city operating or authorized to operate a public utility pursuant to chapter 452 or its charter is authorized to acquire, construct, own, and operate a municipal district heating system pursuant to the provisions of that chapter or its charter. Acquisition or construction of a municipal district heating system shall not be subject to the election requirement of sections 452.11 and 452.12, or city charter provision, but must be approved by a three-fifths vote of the city's council or other governing body. Loans obtained by a municipality pursuant to section 1 are not subject to the limitations on the amount of money which may be borrowed upon a pledge of the city's full faith and credit or the election requirements for general obligation borrowing, contained in section 452.08.

Subd. 2. [CITIES OF THE SECOND, THIRD, AND FOURTH CLASS.] A home rule or statutory city of the second, third, or fourth class may, pursuant to sections 412.331 to 412.391, or chapter 455 or its charter acquire, construct, own, and operate a municipal district heating system.

Subd. 3. [EXTENSION OF SERVICE OUTSIDE CITY.] A municipal district heating system, operating pursuant to this section, may sell energy to customers located outside of the municipality.

Subd. 4. [NET DEBT LIMITS.] The loan obligations or debt incurred by a political subdivision pursuant to section 1 or 7 shall not be considered as a part of its indebtedness under the provisions of its governing charter or of any law of this state fixing a limit of indebtedness.

Subd. 5. [DISTRICT HEATING FACILITIES.] Notwithstanding any other law, general or special, or the provisions of any home rule charter city to the contrary, the governing body of a municipality may by ordinance grant a district heating franchise for a term not to exceed 31 years and by resolution or ordinance secure any obligations issued by the municipality for a district heating system with a mortgage or indenture of trust co-extensive with the term of the obligations.

Sec. 7. [475.525] [MUNICIPAL DISTRICT HEATING BONDS.]

Subdivision 1. [GENERAL OBLIGATION BONDS.] A municipality may, by resolution, authorize, issue and sell general obligation bonds or obligations to finance any expenditure by the municipality for the acquisition, construction, expansion, modification or operation of a district heating system and for the purpose of loaning the proceeds of the bonds or obligations to any person, firm or public or private corporation to acquire, construct, expand or modify a district heating system. Except with regard to the net debt limit as provided in section 465.74, subdivision 4, the general obligation bonds or obligations authorized by this subdivision shall be authorized, issued and sold in the same manner and subject only to the same conditions as those provided in chapter 475. When revenues from the operation of a district heating system are pledged to the repayment of the bonds or obligations, the estimated collections of said revenues so pledged may be deducted from the taxes otherwise required to be levied before the issuance of the bonds or obligations under section 475.61, subdivision 1, or the collections thereof may be certified annually to reduce or cancel the initial tax levies in accordance with section 475.61, subdivision 1 or 3.

Subd. 2. [REVENUE BONDS.] Notwithstanding any other law, general or special, or the provisions of any home rule charter to the contrary, a municipality may, by resolution, authorize, issue and sell revenue bonds or obligations payable solely from all or a portion of revenues derived from a district heating system located wholly or partially within a municipality to finance the acquisition, construction, expansion, modification, or operation of a district heating system and for the purpose of loaning the proceeds of the bonds or obligations to any person, firm or public or private corporation to acquire, construct, expand or modify a district heating system. The bonds or obligations shall mature as determined by resolution of the municipality and may be issued in one or more series and shall bear such date or dates, bear interest at such rate or rates, be in such denomination or denominations, be in such form either coupon or registered, carry such conversion or registration privileges, have such rank or priority, be executed in such manner, be payable in medium of payment at such place or places, and be subject to such terms of redemption, with or without premium, as such resolution, its trust indenture or mortgage may provide. The bonds or obligations may be sold at public or private sale at the price or prices as the municipality by resolution shall determine, and any provision of any law to the contrary notwithstanding, shall be fully negotiable. In any suit, action, or proceedings involving the validity or enforceability of any bonds or obligations of the municipality or the security therefor, any bond or obligation reciting in substance that it has been issued by the municipality to aid in the acquisition, construction, expansion, modification or operation of a district heating system shall be conclusively deemed to have been issued for such purpose. Neither the municipality nor any council member, officer, employee or agent of the municipality nor any person executing the bonds or obligations shall be liable personally on the bonds or obligations by reason of the issuance thereof. The bonds or obligations may be further secured by a pledge and mortgage of all or any portion of the property in aid of which the bonds or obligations are issued and such covenants as the municipality shall deem by such resolution to be necessary and proper to secure payment of the bonds or obligations. The bonds or obligations, and the bonds or obligations shall so state on their face, shall not be payable from nor charged upon any funds other than the revenues and property pledged or mortgaged to the payment thereof, nor shall the issuing municipality be subject to any liability thereon or have the powers to obligate itself to pay or pay the bonds or obligations from funds other than the revenues and properties pledged and mortgaged and no holder or holders of the bonds or obligations shall ever have the right to compel any exercise of any taxing power of the issuing municipality or any other public body to pay the principal of or interest on any such bonds or obligations, nor to enforce payment thereof against any property of the municipality or other public body other than that expressly pledged or mortgaged for the payment thereof.

Subd. 3. [REDEVELOPMENT AGENCY.] A municipality may itself, or by ordinance authorize any redevelopment agency as defined in section 474.03, subdivision 3, acting for the municipality, to exercise any and all of the powers granted to the municipality under subdivision 2 and to the redevelopment agency under any other law for the purpose of financing all or any portion of the district heating system and any conversion facilities for modifying the user's heating or water system to use the heat energy converted from the steam or hot water furnished by the district heating system including, but without limitation, the payment of interest during construction and for a reasonable time thereafter and the establishment of reserves for bond payment and for working capital, in which event if the issuer is a redevelopment agency the sources of revenue that may be pledged to the payment of revenue bonds or obligations shall include any revenues of the redevelopment agency. The proceeds of bonds or obligations issued by the municipality or redevelopment agency may be used to make or purchase loans for facilities which the issuer estimates will require such financing, and, for the purpose of making or purchasing such loans the issuer shall have power to enter into loan agreements and other related agreements, both before and after the issuance of the obligations, with such persons, firms, public or private corporations, federal or state agencies, governmental units, and under such terms and conditions as the issuer shall deem appropriate; and any governmental unit in the state shall have the power to apply, contract for and receive the loans without limitation under any other provisions of chapter 475.

Subdivision 1. The term "project" as used in sections 474.01 to 474.13, unless a different meaning clearly appears from the context, means any properties, real or personal, used or useful in connection with a revenue producing enterprise, or any combination of two or more such enterprises engaged or to be engaged in generating, transmitting, or distributing electricity, assembling, fabricating, manufacturing, mixing, processing, storing, warehousing, or distributing any products of agriculture, forestry, mining, or manufacture, or in research and development activity in this field. The term "project" shall also include any properties, real or personal, used or useful in the abatement or control of noise, air or water pollution, or in the disposal of solid wastes, in connection with a revenue producing enterprise, or any combination of two or more such enterprises engaged or to be engaged in any business or industry. The term “project” shall also mean any properties, real or personal, used or useful in connection with the business of telephonic communications, conducted or to be conducted by a telephone company, including, without limitation, toll lines, poles, cables, switching and other electronic equipment and administrative, data processing, garage and research and development facilities. The term “project” also means any properties, real or personal, used or useful in connection with a district heating system, consisting of the use of one or more energy conversion facilities to produce hot water or steam for distribution to homes and businesses, including cogeneration facilities, distribution lines, service facilities and retrofit facilities for modifying the user’s heating or water system to use the heat energy converted from the steam or hot water.

Sec. 9. [216B.166] [COGENERATING POWER PLANTS.]

Subdivision 1. [FINDING.] The legislature finds and declares that significant public benefits may be derived from the cogeneration of electrical and thermal energy and that co-generated district heating may result in improved utilization and conservation of fuel, the substitution of coal for scarce oil and natural gas, the substitution of domestic fuel for imported fuel, and the establishment of a reliable, competitively priced heat source. Since the cost of cogenerated thermal energy is dependent upon the method used to allocate costs between the production of electric and thermal energy at a power plant, and because the method of cost allocation can be a significant factor in determining investment in district heating, it is necessary to develop cost allocation methods rapidly.

Subd. 2. [DEFINITIONS.] For the purpose of this section, the following terms shall have the meanings given.

(a) “Cogeneration” means a combined process whereby electrical and thermal energy are simultaneously produced by a public utility power plant.

(b) “District heating” means a process whereby thermal energy is distributed within a community for use as a primary heat source.

(c) “District heating utility” means any person, corporation, or other legal entity which owns and operates a facility for district heating.

Subd. 3. [ALLOCATION.] The methods used to allocate or assign costs between electrical and thermal energy produced by cogeneration power plants owned by public utilities shall be consistent with the following principles:

(a) The method used shall result in a cost per unit of electricity which is no greater than the cost per unit which would exist if the power plants owned by the public utility had been normally constructed and operated without cogenerating capability;

(b) Costs which the public utility incurs for the exclusive benefit of the district heating utility, including but not limited to backup and peaking facilities, shall be assigned to thermal energy produced by cogeneration;

(c) The methods and procedures may be different for retrofitted than for new cogeneration power plants; and

(d) The methods should encourage cogeneration while preventing subsidization by electric consumers so that both heating and electricity consumers are treated fairly and equitably with respect to the costs and benefits of cogeneration.

Sec. 10. [16.244] [DISTRICT HEATING CONTRACTS.]

Notwithstanding any other law, general or special, the commissioner of administration is authorized to enter into or approve a written agreement not to exceed 31 years with a district heating utility that will specify, but not be limited to, the appropriate terms and conditions for the interchange of district heating services.

Sec. 11. [APPROPRIATIONS.]

Subdivision 1. The sum of $43,170,000 is appropriated from the state building fund to the commissioner of finance for the purpose of making loans to municipalities for district heating systems pursuant to section 1.

Repayments shall be credited to the state bond fund. The money shall not be loaned until an agreement authorized pursuant to section 471.59 is executed by the boards of the designated districts. The agreement shall include the organization of the consortium, the management, accounting and allocation of money among members of the consortium, and the consortium's plans for fuel conversion, plant retrofitting and energy conservation.

Subd. 5. The sum of $400,000 is appropriated from the state building fund to Vermillion Community College for the purpose of funding a wood fuel conversion facility.

Subd. 6. The appropriations made by subdivisions 1, 2, 3, 4, and 5 are available until expended and shall not cancel pursuant to section 16A.28 or other law.

Sec. 12. [BOND SALE; DEBT SERVICE.]

To provide the money appropriated from the state building fund by section 11, subdivisions 1, 2, 3, 4 and 5, the commissioner of finance upon request of the governor shall sell and issue bonds of the state in an amount up to $50,000,000 in the manner, upon the terms, and with the effect prescribed by Minnesota Statutes, Sections 16A.63 to 16A.67, and by the Constitution, Article XI, Sections 4 to 7.

S. F. No. 939 was reported to the House.

Staten moved to amend S. F. No. 939, as follows:

Delete everything after the enacting clause and insert:

"Section 1. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 363.06, Subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [CHARGE FILING.] Any person aggrieved by a violation of this chapter may bring a civil action as provided in section 5 or may file a verified charge with the commissioner or his designated agent, stating the name and address of the person alleged to have committed an unfair discriminatory practice, setting out the details of the practice complained of and any other information required by the commissioner. The commissioner within five days of such filing shall serve a copy of the charge upon the respondent personally or by registered or certified mail. Periodically after the filing of a charge but at intervals of no more than 60 days, until the charge is no longer in the jurisdiction of the department the commissioner shall in writing inform the charging party of the status of his charge. A copy of the periodic notice shall be mailed to the respondent.

Sec. 2. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 363.06, Subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [TIME FOR FILING CHARGE.] A charge of an unfair discriminatory practice must be brought as a civil action or filed with the commissioner within six months after the occurrence of the practice.

Sec. 3. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 363.06, Subdivision 4, is amended to read:

Subd. 4. [INQUIRY INTO CHARGE.] When a charge has been filed, the commissioner shall promptly inquire into the truth of the allegations of the charge. The commissioner shall make an immediate inquiry when necessary to prevent a charging party from suffering irreparable loss in the absence of immediate action. On each charge the commissioner shall make a determination as to whether or not there is probable cause to credit the allegation of unfair discriminatory practices, and

(1) If the commissioner shall determine after investigation that no probable cause exists to credit the allegations of the unfair discriminatory practice, the commissioner shall, within ten days of the determination, serve upon the charging party and respondent written notice of the determination. Within ten days after receipt of notice, the charging party may request in writing on forms prepared by the department that the commissioner reconsider his determination. The request shall contain a brief statement of the reasons for and new evidence in support of the request for reconsideration. At the time of submission of the request to the commissioner, the charging party shall deliver or mail to the respondent a copy of the request for reconsideration. The commissioner shall either reaffirm or reverse his determination of no probable cause within 20 days after receipt of the request for reconsideration, and he shall within ten days notify in writing the charging party and respondent of his decision to reaffirm or reverse. A decision by the commissioner that no probable cause exists to credit the allegations of an unfair discriminatory practice shall not be appealed to district court pursuant to section 363.072 or section 15.0424.

(2) If the commissioner shall determine after investigation that probable cause exists to credit the allegations of unfair discriminatory practices, the commissioner shall serve on the respondent and his attorney if he is represented by counsel, by first class mail, a notice setting forth a short plain written statement of the alleged facts which support the finding of probable cause and an enumeration of the provisions of law allegedly violated. If the commissioner determines that attempts to eliminate the alleged unfair practices through conciliation pursuant to subdivision 5 have been or would be unsuccessful or unproductive, the commissioner shall issue a complaint and serve on the respondent, by registered or certified mail, a written notice of hearing together with a copy of the complaint, requiring the respondent to answer the allegations of the complaint at a hearing before a hearing examiner at a time and place specified in the notice, not less than ten days after service of said complaint. A copy of the notice shall be furnished to the charging party and the attorney general.

(3) If the commissioner determines that a reprisal in section 363.03, subdivision 7, has occurred or after the commissioner has determined that there is probable cause to believe that a respondent has engaged in (AN) any other unfair discriminatory practice, the commissioner may file a petition in the district court in a county in which the subject of the complaint occurs, or in a county in which a respondent resides or transacts business, seeking appropriate temporary relief against the respondent, pending final determination of proceedings under this chapter, including an order or decree restraining him from doing or procuring an act tending to render ineffectual an order the commissioner may enter with respect to the complaint. The court shall have power to grant temporary relief or a restraining order as it deems just and proper, but no relief or order extending beyond ten days shall be granted except by consent of the respondent or after hearing upon notice to the respondent and a finding by the court that there is reasonable cause to believe that the respondent has engaged in a discriminatory practice. The Minnesota rules of civil procedure shall apply to an application, and the district court shall have authority to grant or deny such relief sought on conditions as it deems just and equitable. All hearings under this section shall be given precedence as nearly as practicable over all other pending civil actions.

(4) If a lessor, after he has engaged in a discriminatory practice defined in section 363.03, subdivision 2, clause (1), (a), shall lease or rent a dwelling unit to a person who has no knowledge of the practice or of the existence of a charge with respect to the practice, the lessor shall be liable for actual damages sustained by a person by reason of a final order as provided in this section requiring the person to be evicted from the dwelling unit.

(5) In any complaint issued under this section, the commissioner may seek relief for a class of individuals affected by an unfair discriminatory practice occurring on or after a date six months prior to the filing of the charge from which the complaint originates.

Sec. 4. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 363.071, Subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [DETERMINATION OF DISCRIMINATORY PRACTICE.] The hearing examiner shall make findings of fact and conclusions of law, and if the hearing examiner finds that the respondent has engaged in an unfair discriminatory practice, the hearing examiner shall issue an order directing the respondent to cease and desist from the unfair discriminatory practice found to exist and to take such affirmative action as in the judgment of the examiner will effectuate the purposes of this chapter. Such order shall be a final decision of the department. In all cases the examiner may order the respondent to pay an aggrieved party, who has suffered discrimination, compensatory damages, (EXCEPT) which may include damages for mental anguish or suffering, and, in all cases, may also order the respondent to pay an aggrieved party, who has suffered discrimination, punitive damages in an amount not more than ($1,000) $10,000. In addition to the aforesaid remedies, in a case involving discrimination in

(a) employment, the examiner may order the hiring, reinstatement or upgrading of an aggrieved party, who has suffered discrimination, with or without back pay, admission or restoration to membership in a labor organization, or his admission to or participation in an apprenticeship training program, on-the-job training program, or other retraining program, or any other relief the examiner deems just and equitable.

(b) housing, the examiner may order the sale, lease, or rental of the housing accommodation or other real property to an aggrieved party, who has suffered discrimination, or the sale, lease or rental of a like accommodation or other real property owned by or under the control of the person against whom the complaint was filed, according to terms as listed with a real estate broker, or if no such listing has been made, as otherwise advertised or offered by the vendor or lessor, or any other relief the examiner deems just and equitable.

The examiner shall cause the findings of fact, conclusions of law, and order to be served on the respondent personally, the charging party by registered or certified mail, and shall furnish copies to the attorney general and the commissioner.

Sec. 5. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 363.14, Subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [COURT ACTIONS, SUITS BY PRIVATE PARTIES, INTERVENTION.] A person may bring a civil action seeking redress for an unfair discriminatory practice (, UPON WITHDRAWAL OF THE COMPLAINT FROM THE DEPARTMENT OF HUMAN RIGHTS, AT THE FOLLOWING TIMES):

(a) Directly to district court; or

(b) Within 45 days after the commissioner has determined that there is no probable cause to credit the allegations contained in a charge filed with the commissioner, or, if the charging party requested a reconsideration, within 45 days after the commissioner has reaffirmed his determination of no probable cause; or

((B)) (c) After 45 days from the filing of a charge pursuant to section 363.06, subdivision 1 if a hearing has not been held pursuant to section 363.071 or if the commissioner has not entered into a conciliation agreement to which the charging party is a signator. The charging party shall notify the commissioner of his intention to bring a civil action, which shall be commenced within 90 days of giving the notice.

A charging party bringing a civil action pursuant to this clause shall mail by registered or certified mail a copy of the summons and complaint to the commissioner, and upon his receipt thereof the commissioner shall cause all proceedings in the department relating to the charge to terminate. No charge shall be filed or reinstated with the commissioner after a civil action relating to the same unfair discriminatory practice has been brought unless the civil action has been dismissed without prejudice.

Upon application by the complaining party to the district court at a special term thereof and in such circumstances as the court may deem just, the court may appoint an attorney for such person and may authorize the commencement of the action without payment of fees, costs, or security.

Upon timely application, the court may, in its discretion, permit the department to intervene in a civil action brought pursuant to this section upon certification that the case is of general public importance.

(UPON REQUEST, THE COURT MAY, IN ITS DISCRETION, STAY FURTHER PROCEEDINGS FOR NOT MORE THAN 60 DAYS PENDING FURTHER EFFORTS OF THE DEPARTMENT TO OBTAIN VOLUNTARY COMPLIANCE.)

When it appears that more than the number of persons to be elected as presidential electors have the highest and an equal number of votes, the secretary of state, in the presence of the board shall decide by lot which of the persons shall be declared elected. The governor shall transmit to each person declared elected a certificate of election, signed by the governor, sealed with the state seal, and countersigned by the secretary of state. (IMMEDIATELY AFTER THE CANVASS IS COMPLETED THE SECRETARY OF STATE SHALL CAUSE A STATEMENT OF THEIR ELECTION TO BE PUBLISHED IN ONE OR MORE OF THE DAILY NEWSPAPERS PUBLISHED IN ST. Sec. 8. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 201.061, is amended to read:

201.061 [REGISTRATION ON OR BEFORE ELECTION DAY.]

Subdivision 1. [PRIOR TO ELECTION DAY.] At any time (BEFORE THE 20th DAY) except during the 20 days immediately preceding any election, an eligible voter or any individual who will be an eligible voter at the time of the next election may register to vote in the precinct in which the voter maintains residence by completing a registration card and submitting it in person or by mail to the county auditor of that county. A registration card that is postmarked no later than (11:59) 5:00 p.m. on the (20TH) 21st day preceding any election (OR RECEIVED ON THE NEXT WORKING DAY) shall be accepted. An improperly addressed or delivered registration card shall be forwarded within two working days after receipt to the county auditor of the county where the voter maintains residence.

Subd. 2. [POLITICAL SUBDIVISION WITHOUT PERMANENT SYSTEM.] Subdivision 1 does not apply to eligible voters in any political subdivision which does not on July 1, 1973 have a permanent system of voter registration unless the governing body of that political subdivision by ordinance or resolution elects to come under the provisions of subdivision 1. The decision to allow preregistration may not be rescinded.

Subd. 3. [ELECTION DAY REGISTRATION.] Any individual who is eligible to vote may register on election day by appearing in person at the polling place for the precinct in which the individual maintains residence, by completing a registration card, making an oath in the form prescribed by the secretary of state and providing proof of residence. An individual may prove residence for purposes of registering by:

(1) Showing his drivers license or Minnesota identification card issued pursuant to section 171.07;

(2) Showing any document approved by the secretary of state as proper identification; or

(3) Having a voter who is registered to vote in the precinct sign an oath in the presence of the election judge stating that he personally knows that the individual is a resident of the precinct. No individual who registers to vote on election day by proving residence as provided in clause (3) shall provide proof of residence for any other individual on that election day.

A county or municipality may require that an election judge responsible for election day registration initial each completed registration card.

Subd. 4. [REGISTRATION BY ELECTION JUDGES; PROCEDURES.] Registration at the polling place on election day shall be conducted by the election judges. The election judge who registers an individual at the polling place on election day shall not handle that voter's ballots at any time prior to the opening of the ballot box after the voting ends. Registration cards and forms for oaths shall be available at each polling place. If an individual who registers on election day proves residence by oath of a registered voter, the form containing the oath shall be attached to the individual's registration card until his address is verified by the county auditor. Registration cards completed on election day shall be forwarded to the county auditor who shall add the name of each voter to the registration system unless the information forwarded is substantially deficient. A county auditor who finds an election day registration substantially deficient shall give written notice to the individual whose registration is found deficient. An election day registration shall not be found deficient solely because the individual who provided proof of residence was ineligible to do so.

Subd. 5. [UNREGISTERED VOTERS; PENALTY.] No election judge in any precinct in which registration is required may receive the vote at any election of any individual whose name is not registered in a manner specified in Article II, Section 6, Subdivision 1 or not recorded under Article III, Section 19. A violation of this subdivision is a felony.

Subd. 6. [PRECINCT MAP.] Except as otherwise provided by this subdivision, the county auditor shall provide each precinct with an accurate precinct map or precinct finder to assist the election judges in determining whether an address is located in that precinct. A county auditor may delegate this responsibility as provided in Article II, Section 24, Subdivision 4, to a municipal clerk who prepares precinct maps as provided in Article IV, Section 14, Subdivision 5.

Subd. 7. [RECORD OF ATTEMPTED REGISTRATIONS.] The election judge responsible for election day registration shall attempt to keep a record of the number of individuals who attempt to register on election day but who cannot provide proof of residence as required by this section. The record shall be forwarded to the county auditor with the election returns for that precinct.

Sec. 4. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 206.20, Subdivision 2, as amended by Laws 1981, Chapter 29, Article VII, Section 20, is amended to read:

Sec. 20. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 206.20, Subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. For the instruction of the voters there shall be, so far as practicable in each polling place, at least one mechanical model being a mechanical reproduction of a portion of the face of the voting machine. The model shall be located during the election in some place which the voter must pass to reach the machine. Every voter before entering the booth shall be instructed regarding its operation. The instruction shall be illustrated on the model and the voter given the opportunity to personally operate the model. The voter's attention shall also be called to the diagram (ON) of the face of the machine so that the voter becomes familiar with the location of the questions and the names of the offices and candidates. At least one election judge shall remain in constant attendance at the instruction model and diagram and occupy himself at all times with the duties of instructing the voters. If any voter after entering the voting machine booth asks for additional instruction in operating the machine the instruction shall be given him by two election judges who are members of different major political parties, if such there be. After giving instruction the election judges shall retire from the voting machine booth and the voter shall thereafter proceed to vote alone and in secrecy. If any voter at a primary after entering the voting machine booth and setting the primary lever of a major political party so as to release the candidates of that party for voting, and turning down levers over the names of candidates, but before recording the votes for any candidates, states to the election judges that he wishes to enter the primary of a different major political party, the entire election board shall go to the machine and shall see that all voting levers have been returned to the unvoted position so that no votes may be cast for any candidates or for or against any questions or other propositions, and the voter shall then be permitted to return the operating lever to its original position and start from the beginning once more. In each such case the entire election board shall sign a certificate stating what was done and the certificate shall be returned with the official returns of the primary.

Sec. 5. Laws 1981, Chapter 29, Article IV, Section 28, is amended to read:

Sec. 28. [204B.28] [CLERKS; ELECTION SUPPLIES; DUTIES.]

Subdivision 1. [TRAINING PROGRAM FOR ELECTION OFFICIALS.] Before each state primary, each county auditor shall conduct a training program for local election officials. The county auditor may require the municipal clerks and the chairmen of the election boards in the county to meet for this training program before the election at a time and place set by the county auditor. The training program shall include instruction in election procedures and the duties of municipal clerks and election judges. The chairmen of the election boards shall be compensated by the municipalities for the incidental expenses incurred by them to attend a training program.

Subd. 2. [ELECTION SUPPLIES; DUTIES OF COUNTY AUDITORS AND CLERKS.] Except as otherwise provided for absentee ballots in Article IV, Section 35, Subdivision 4, the county auditor shall complete the preparation of the election materials for which he is responsible at least one week before every state primary and state general election. At any time after all election materials are available from the county auditor but not later than one week before the election each municipal clerk shall secure from the county auditor:

(a) The forms that are required for the conduct of the election;

(b) Any printed voter instruction materials furnished by the secretary of state;

(c) Any other instructions for election officers; and

(d) A sufficient quantity of the official ballots, ballot boxes, registers, registration files, envelopes for ballot returns, and other supplies and materials required for each precinct in order to comply with the provisions of the Minnesota election law. The county auditor may furnish the election supplies to the municipal clerks in the same manner as the supplies are furnished to precincts in unorganized territory pursuant to Article IV, Section 29, Subdivision 1.

Sec. 6. Laws 1981, Chapter 29, Article V, Section 10, is amended to read:

Sec. 10. [204C.10] [PERMANENT REGISTRATION; COMPLETION OF VOTER CERTIFICATES; VERIFICATION OF REGISTRATION.]

In election precincts with a permanent registration system, an individual seeking to vote shall print his name and address on a certificate which states that the individual is at least 18 years of age, a citizen of the United States, has resided in Minnesota for 20 days immediately preceding the election, certifies that he resides at the address shown, is not under guardianship of the person, has not been adjudicated insane or convicted of a felony without having civil rights restored, is registered and will be voting only in that precinct. The individual shall then sign the certificate.

An election judge shall compare the signature on the voter's certificate with the signature as it appears on the duplicate registration card and the address with the address on the duplicate registration card. If the election judge is satisfied that the signatures are the same, the election judge shall initial the certificate and record the fact of voting on the back of the duplicate registration card. The initialed certificate shall be handed to the voter, who shall deliver it to the election judge in charge of ballots as proof of the right to vote.

Subd. 2. [SEALING IN ENVELOPES.] The election judges shall place a full set of completed summary statements in each of three separate envelopes and seal them so that the envelopes cannot be opened without leaving evidence that they have been opened. The election judges shall then sign each envelope over the sealed part so that no envelope can be opened without disturbing the continuity of the signatures. Each of the envelopes shall show substantially the following information on its face:

PETITIONS AND COMMUNICATIONS

The following communication was received:

OFFICE OF THE GOVERNOR
SAINT PAUL 55155

May 8, 1981

The Honorable Harry A. Sieben, Jr., Speaker
House of Representatives
276 State Office Building
St. Paul, Minnesota

Dear Mr. Speaker :

I am vetoing H. F. 326. This Act, if allowed to become law, would continue the Catastrophic Health Expense Protection Program in an amended form.

When I first recommended elimination of the Catastrophic Health Expense Protection Program, I cited three reasons: first, the rapid growth in cost, projected in January to be $25 Million for the upcoming biennium; second, the lack of a means test; and third, the lack of incentive to purchase catastrophic health insurance.

In regard to my first concern, I have indicated for several months my willingness to have the Legislature reassign priorities within my budget recommendations, while observing my total spending figure of $8.6 Billion. But in order to spend more in certain areas, other programs must be reduced. The Legislature has sent me a bill calling for spending $12 Million more than my budget and has not indicated to date where they intend to reduce $12 Million from my budget.

My second concern with the existing catastrophic health program is the lack of a means test to determine what assets an individual may have. Although the Senate originally had approved a modest means test, the final bill does not include one, and I still maintain that it is a reasonable requirement.

Finally, H. F. No. 326 does not contain any incentive to individuals to purchase insurance. What is provided is a reward after the fact by allowing the premiums paid to apply toward the deductible amount.

Several measures were provided in the bill which indicate a sincere effort on the part of the Legislature to apply controls to the program. These include a time restriction on eligible charges, reinstatement of a $2500 minimum amount payable, and inclusion of language pertaining to utilization of Health Maintenance Organizations. However, my primary concerns have not been fully addressed.

Therefore, I remain concerned with the design and cost of the program and the fact that it exceeds my budget. Since no bill with a corresponding reduction has been given to me, I am choosing to veto the legislation rather than increase the taxes necessary to fund this $12 Million program.

Sincerely,

ALBERT H. QUIE
Governor

Swanson moved that H. F. No. 326 be now reconsidered and repassed, the objections of the Governor notwithstanding, pursuant to Article IV, Section 23, of the Constitution of the State of Minnesota.

The question was taken on the motion to reconsider and re-pass H. F. No. 326, the objections of the Governor notwithstanding, pursuant to Article IV, Section 23, of the Constitution of the State of Minnesota and the roll was called viva voce.

Subd. 1a. [PASSENGER AUTOMOBILES; AMBULANCES; HEARSEs.] On passenger automobiles as defined in section 168.011, subdivision 7, ambulances, and hearses, except as otherwise provided, the tax shall be $10 plus an additional tax equal to (1.25) 1.30 percent of the base value. Subject to the classification provisions herein, "base value" means the manufacturer's suggested retail price of the vehicle including destination charge as reflected on the price listing affixed to the vehicle in conformity with 15 U.S.C. 1231 to 1233 (Public Law 85-506) or otherwise suggested by the manufacturer or determined by the registrar if no suggested retail price exists, and shall not include the cost of each accessory or item of optional equipment separately added to the vehicle and the suggested retail price.

If the registrar is unable to ascertain the base value of any registered vehicle in the foregoing manner, he may use any other available source or method. The tax on all previously registered vehicles shall be computed upon the base value thus determined taking into account the depreciation provisions of Extra Session Laws 1971, Chapter 31.

Any owner at the time of such occurrence, whose vehicle shall be permanently destroyed, (PERMANENTLY REMOVED FROM THE STATE,) or sold to the federal government, the state, or political subdivision thereof, shall upon filing a verified claim be entitled to a refund of the unused portion of the tax paid upon the vehicle, computed as follows:

The commissioner shall adopt rules establishing uniform performance standards for private operators of regular route transit systems in the transit taxing district as defined in section 473.446, subdivision 2. Payments to those private operators shall be based on the uniform performance standards and shall not exceed 100 percent of the operating deficit. (PAYMENTS TO THE METROPOLITAN TRANSIT COMMISSION SHALL BE BASED UPON A PERFORMANCE FUNDING SYSTEM AS PROVIDED IN SECTION 174.28.)

Sec. 28. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 174.24, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 3a. [TRANSIT COMMISSION.] The commissioner shall provide financial assistance by contract to the metropolitan transit commission from appropriations provided for that purpose.

Sec. 29. [174.265] [METROPOLITAN TRANSIT SERVICE DEMONSTRATION PROGRAM.]

Subdivision 1. [DEFINITIONS.] For the purposes of this section, the terms defined in this subdivision have the meanings given them, unless the context requires otherwise.

(a) "Available local transit funds" means an amount equal to 90 percent of the tax proceeds which would accrue to the metropolitan transit commission from a tax levied in the applicant community or communities in accordance with section 473.446, subdivision 1, clauses (a) to (c).

(b) "Off-peak hours" has the meaning given it in section 473.408, subdivision 1.

Subd. 2. [ESTABLISHMENT OF PROGRAM.] A metropolitan transit service demonstration program is established to provide financial assistance for projects designed to test the efficiency and effectiveness of alternative methods of providing public transit service for communities that are within the metropolitan transit taxing district but are not adequately served by the existing regular route transit.

Subd. 3. [ELIGIBILITY.] The commissioner may provide assistance under the program to any statutory or home rule charter city or town, or group of such cities or towns, which: (a) is located within the metropolitan transit taxing district, as defined in section 473.446, subdivision 2; (b) is not served by the metropolitan transit commission or is served only with bus routes which end or begin within the city or town, or group of cities or towns; and (c) has fewer than four scheduled runs of bus service provided by the commission during off-peak hours. Eligible cities or towns may apply on behalf of any operator of public transit with whom they propose to contract for service.

Subd. 4. [ASSISTANCE FOR REPLACEMENT SERVICE.] An application for financial assistance for replacement services shall: describe the existing service provided to the applicant by the metropolitan transit commission, including the estimated number of passengers carried and the routes, schedules, and fares; describe the transit service proposed for funding under the demonstration program, including the anticipated number of passengers and the routes, schedules, and fares; and indicate the total amount of available local transit funds, the portion of the available local transit funds proposed to be used to subsidize replacement services, and the amount of state assistance requested for the replacement services. Financial assistance shall not be granted under this subdivision unless the commissioner determines that the service proposed for funding is intended and designed to replace and substitute for that provided by the metropolitan transit commission at the time of application and that the average subsidy per passenger for the replacement service will not exceed the average subsidy per passenger during the six months preceding the application on the commission's routes which serve the applicant communities. If the applicant communities are not served by the commission at the time of the application, the average subsidy per passenger for the replacement service shall not exceed the average subsidy per passenger during the six months preceding the application on all routes of the commission extending into zone four. After the first year of replacement service, the maximum subsidy shall be escalated at a rate equal to the rate of inflation in the revised consumer price index for all urban consumers in the Minneapolis-St. Paul metropolitan area. The amount of financial assistance provided for replacement service under this subdivision shall not exceed the sum of: (a) the portion of the available local transit funds which the applicant proposes to use to subsidize the service, and (b) an amount of state assistance bearing an identical proportional relationship to the amount under (a) as the total amount of state assistance available to the metropolitan transit commission under section 2 bears to the total amount of taxes collected by the commission under section 473.446, subdivision 1, clauses (a) to (c). The commissioner shall transfer the amounts provided to the recipient from the assistance available to the metropolitan transit commission pursuant to section 174.24, subdivision 3.

Subd. 5. [ASSISTANCE FOR ADDITIONAL SERVICE.] Any city or town or group of cities or towns receiving financial assistance under subdivision 4 may also receive assistance pursuant to section 174.24, subdivision 3, or section 174.25. In addition to the information required of applicants for assistance under those sections, an application shall describe the portion of the available local transit funds which are not obligated to subsidize replacement service, under the assistance contract entered into pursuant to subdivision 4, and which the applicant proposes to use to subsidize additional services. An applicant which has exhausted its available local transit funds may use any other local subsidy funds to complete the required local share. If the commissioner grants financial assistance pursuant to this subdivision, the commissioner shall transfer the portion of the available local transit funds which the applicant proposes to use to subsidize the additional service from the assistance available to the metropolitan transit commission pursuant to section 174.24, subdivision 3.

Sec. 30. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 174.31, is amended to read:

174.31 [(SPECIAL DEMONSTRATION PROJECT;) COORDINATION OF SPECIAL TRANSPORTATION SERVICE IN THE METROPOLITAN AREA.]

Subdivision 1. [ESTABLISHMENT; OBJECTIVES.] A (SPECIAL DEMONSTRATION) project for coordination of special transportation service in the metropolitan area as defined in section 473.121, subdivision 2, shall be established and implemented by the commissioner with the following objectives:

(a) To provide greater access to transportation for the elderly, handicapped and others with special transportation needs in the metropolitan area and particularly to fill all unmet needs for that transportation in the transit taxing district as defined in section 473.446, subdivision 2; (AND)

(b) To develop an integrated system of special transportation service providing transportation tailored to meet special individual needs in the most cost-efficient manner (USING EXISTING PUBLIC AND PRIVATE PROVIDERS OF SERVICE); and

(c) To use existing public and private providers of service wherever possible, to supplement rather than replace existing service, and to increase the productivity of all special transportation vehicles available in the area.

For the purpose of this section "project" means the (DEMONSTRATION) project established under this subdivision.

Subd. 2. [FINANCING; IMPLEMENTATION; MANAGEMENT AND ADVISORY GROUPS.] The project shall be operated pursuant to the rules governing and funded with money available under the paratransit grant program. The commissioner shall not operate the project but shall contract for services necessary for its operation. All transportation service provided through the project shall be provided under a contract between the commissioner and the provider which specifies the service to be provided and the rates for providing it. The commissioner shall establish a committee to set management policies for the project. The management policy committee shall include the commissioner or his designee, representatives of persons contracting to provide services for the project, a representative of the metropolitan council, a representative of the metropolitan transit commission and at least two representatives of the task force established to advise the committee. The meetings of the management policy committee shall be public and minutes of all meetings shall be taken, preserved and made available for public inspection. The commissioner shall establish an advisory task force of individuals representing the elderly, handicapped and other users of service provided by the project to advise the management policy committee.

Subd. 3. [DUTIES OF COMMISSIONER.] In implementing the project the commissioner shall:

(a) Encourage participation in the project by public and private providers of special transportation service currently receiving capital or operating assistance from a public agency;

(b) Contract with public and private providers that have demonstrated their ability to effectively provide service at a reasonable cost;

(c) Encourage individuals using service provided through the project to use the type of service most appropriate to their particular needs;

(d) Insure that all persons providing service through the project receive equitable treatment in the allocation of the ridership;

(e) Encourage shared rides to the greatest extent practicable;

(f) Insure that a full range of service is made available through the project to all parts of the metropolitan transit taxing district;

(g) Encourage public agencies that provide transportation to eligible individuals as a component of human services and educational programs to coordinate with the project and to allow reimbursement for services provided through the project at rates that reflect the public cost of providing those services.

Subd. 4. [COORDINATION REQUIRED.] The commissioner shall not grant any financial assistance under section 174.24 or 174.25 to any recipient that proposes to use any part of the grant to provide special transportation service in the metropolitan area unless the program is coordinated with the project in the manner determined by the commissioner. (A RECIPIENT OF A GRANT MADE BEFORE JUNE 8, 1979 SHALL COORDINATE ITS PROGRAM WITH THE PROJECT AS FAR AS PRACTICABLE BUT SHALL NOT BE DENIED ANY ADDITIONAL GRANT FOR WHICH IT IS OTHERWISE QUALIFIED SOLELY BECAUSE IT IS NOT COORDINATED WITH THE PROJECT.)

Subd. 5. [(COMPLIANCE WITH) OPERATING AND SERVICE STANDARDS.] A vehicle providing special transportation service which is subject to the operating standards adopted pursuant to section 174.30 shall not be allowed to provide service through the project after January 1, 1981, unless a current certificate of compliance has been issued to the vehicle. A person operating or assisting the operation of a vehicle may leave the vehicle to enter premises in order to help a passenger who does not require emergency ambulance service. Operators and assistants shall provide the help necessary for door-through-door service, including help in entering and leaving the vehicle and help through the exterior entrance and over any exterior steps at either departure or destination buildings, provided that both the steps and the wheelchair are in good repair. If an operator or assistant refuses help because of the condition of the steps or the wheelchair, the operator of the service shall send letters to the commissioner of transportation and the person denied service describing the corrective measures necessary to qualify for service.

Subd. 6. [EVALUATION AND REPORTS.] The commissioner shall evaluate the project and submit a report to the legislature in January, 1981, including the following information:

(a) All amounts of money spent or obligated for the project by the commissioner and the persons receiving those amounts;

(b) The types of service provided, number of individuals served and areas covered;

(c) A comparison of the cost of providing different types of service;

(d) A review of the achievements or failures of the project, problems encountered in implementation and conclusions and recommendations concerning future action.

The commissioner shall submit a preliminary report to the legislature in January, 1980, covering the above information to the extent it is available at that time.

Subd. 7. [EXPIRATION OF PROJECT.] The project shall expire June 30, 1981, and the commissioner shall not enter a contract or make any grant the proceeds of which may be expended for the purpose of implementing or continuing the project beyond June 30, 1981.

Sec. 31. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 174.50, Subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. State assistance is needed to supplement local effort and the highway user tax distribution fund in financing capital improvements to preserve and develop a balanced transportation system throughout the state. Such a system is a proper function and concern of state government and necessary to protect the safety and personal and economic welfare of all citizens. It requires capital expenditures for public facilities, improvements, and equipment that are complementary, additional, and alternate to highways and are a proper object for contracting public debt and engaging in works of internal improvement under article XI, section 5, clause (a) of the constitution. These expenditures are needed to harmonize state and local highway systems with the requirements of the federal interstate highway system, to avoid harmful environmental impact of arterial highways on urban, scenic, and recreational areas, to provide auxiliary facilities for the convenience and safety of persons crossing highways and persons living and working adjacent to them, and to reduce the number of private motor vehicles on highways by providing alternate modes of transportation. Capital expenditures of this nature exceed requirements for basic highway systems and should be funded from sources other than the taxes and bonds authorized in article XIV of the constitution. However, the improvements tend to reduce the cost of maintenance of highways to the minimum required for accommodation of traffic, and the cost may and shall continue to be paid from taxes authorized in article XIV of the constitution. Immediate improvement needs are reconstruction and replacement of key bridges and approaches to remove obstructions to the flow of traffic on state and county highways, municipal streets and township roads and expedited completion of the interstate highway system in Minnesota by paying the state and local shares of interstate highway segments, and of interstate highway substitution projects when approved by the United States secretary of transportation, the governor, and the responsible regional councils and local government units.

Sec. 32. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 297B.035, Subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. Motor vehicles which satisfy the definitions of subdivision 1, shall be taxed at a yearly rate of $15 per set of dealer plates. This tax shall be paid when dealer plates are purchased and shall be deposited in the state treasury and credited (TO THE GENERAL FUND) as provided in section 297B.09. This tax shall be in lieu of any other state sales, excise, or use tax.

Sec. 33. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 297B.09, is amended to read:

297B.09 [ALLOCATION OF REVENUE.]

Subdivision 1. [GENERAL FUND SHARE.] All moneys collected and received (UNDER LAWS 1971, CHAPTER 853,) under this chapter shall be (ALLOCATED MONTHLY BY THE MOTOR VEHICLE REGISTRAR TO THE STATE COMMISSIONER OF REVENUE AND BY HIM SHALL BE PAID TO THE STATE TREASURER AND SHALL BE) deposited (AS PROVIDED IN SECTION 297A.44.) in the state treasury and credited as follows:

(a) All of the proceeds collected until June 30, 1983 shall be credited to the general fund;

(b) Three-fourths of the proceeds collected after June 30, 1983 and before July 1, 1984 shall be credited to the general fund;

(c) One-half of the proceeds collected after June 30, 1984 and before July 1, 1985 shall be credited to the general fund;

(d) One-fourth of the proceeds collected after June 30, 1985 and before July 1, 1986 shall be credited to the general fund;

(e) After June 30, 1986, none of the proceeds collected shall be credited to the general fund.

Subd. 2. [HIGHWAY USER TAX DISTRIBUTION FUND SHARE.] The proceeds collected under this chapter and not credited to the general fund shall be deposited in the highway user tax distribution fund for apportionment in the same manner and for the same purposes as other money in that fund.

Sec. 34. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 299D.03, Subdivision 5, is amended to read:

Subd. 5. [FINES AND FORFEITED BAIL MONEY.] (a) All fines and forfeited bail money, from traffic and motor vehicle law violations, collected from persons apprehended or arrested by such employees, shall be paid by the justice of the peace, or such other person or officer collecting such fines, forfeited bail money or installments thereof, on or before the tenth day after the last day of the month in which such moneys were collected, to the county treasurer of the county where the violation occurred. Three-eighths of such receipts shall be credited to the general revenue fund of the county. The other five-eighths of such receipts shall be transmitted by that officer to the state treasurer and shall be credited to the trunk highway fund. If, however, the violation occurs within a municipality and the city attorney prosecutes the offense, and a plea of not guilty is entered, one-third of the receipts shall be credited to the general revenue fund of the county, one-third of the receipts shall be paid to the municipality prosecuting the offense, and one-third shall be transmitted to the state treasurer as provided in this subdivision. All costs of participation in a nation-wide police communication system chargeable to the state of Minnesota shall be paid from appropriations for that purpose.

(b) Notwithstanding any other provisions of law, all fines and forfeited bail money from violations of statutes governing the maximum weight of motor vehicles, collected from persons apprehended or arrested by employees of the state of Minnesota, by means of stationary or portable scales operated by such employees, shall be paid by the person or officer collecting the fines or forfeited bail money, on or before the tenth day after the last day of the month in which the collections were made, to the county treasurer of the county where the violation occurred. All such receipts shall be transmitted by that officer to the state treasurer and shall be credited to the trunk highway fund.

Sec. 35. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 473.408, Subdivision 6, is amended to read:

Subd. 6. [MONTHLY PASSES.] The commission (SHALL) may offer monthly passes for regular route bus service for sale to the general public. (THE PASSES SHALL BE OFFERED AT A DISCOUNT AT LEAST AS GREAT AS THE DISCOUNT PROVIDED ON PASSES SOLD BY THE COMMISSION IN JANUARY, 1979.)

Sec. 36. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 473.408, Subdivision 7, is amended to read:

Subd. 7. [EMPLOYEE PLAN.] The commission (SHALL) may offer monthly passes for regular route bus service for sale to employers at a special discount subject to the provisions of this subdivision. An employer (IS) may be eligible to purchase passes at a special discount if the employer agrees to establish a payroll deduction plan as a means for its employees to purchase the passes at a price at or below the amount charged by the commission. The special discount on passes sold pursuant to this subdivision shall be (TWO DOLLARS ON A SINGLE ZONE PASS AND A PROPORTIONATE AMOUNT ON OTHER PASSES. THE SPECIAL DISCOUNT IS IN ADDITION TO THE DISCOUNT PROVIDED ON PASSES SOLD TO THE GENERAL PUBLIC) determined by the commission.

Sec. 37. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 473.411, Subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [DEVELOPMENT PROGRAM.] The commission shall prepare and submit in the manner provided in and satisfying the requirements of section 473.161, a (TRANSPORTATION) development program, providing for the implementation of the policy plan adopted by the council. In preparing the program, the commission shall consult with counties and municipalities in the metropolitan area, the state transportation department and the state planning agency, and for that purpose may create such advisory committees as may be necessary.

(SUCH) The program shall provide for coordination of routes and operations of all publicly and privately owned (TRANSPORTATION) transit and paratransit facilities within the transit area to the end that combined efficient and rapid (TRANSPORTATION) transit and paratransit may be provided for the use of the public in the entire area. The (TRANSPORTATION) development program shall include the general alignment and profile, approximate points of access, facility classification, approximate cost, relation to other existing and planned (TRANSPORTATION) transit and paratransit routes and facilities, and a statement of the expected general effect on present and future use of the property within the corridor. The program shall be accompanied with a statement of need for the proposed construction or improvement, a description of alternate routes which were considered, and an explanation of the advantages and disadvantages in the selection of any route considered. The (TRANSPORTATION) transit and paratransit development program shall also contain a description of the type of right-of-way or routes required; the type of transit service to be provided in each portion of the system; designation of transit mode; and appropriate general operating criteria. The program shall also contain an operational improvement program which shall at least describe performance objectives and standards which the commission proposes to achieve in satisfying policies, purposes, and goals established by the legislature and the council; identify performance indicators by which to monitor and assess progress in achieving the objectives and standards; and establish a route deficit limit as provided in section 174.28, subdivision 5. The program may include such other information as the council or the commission deems necessary.

Sec. 38. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 473.446, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [(AMOUNT) TAXATION WITHIN TRANSIT TAXING DISTRICT.] For the purposes of sections 473.401 to 473.451 and the metropolitan transit system, except as otherwise provided in this subdivision the metropolitan transit commission shall levy each year upon all taxable property within the metropolitan transit taxing district, defined (HEREIN) in subdivision 2, a transit tax consisting of:

(a) An amount equal to 1.72 mills times the assessed value of all such property, the proceeds of which shall be used for payment of the expenses of operating (REGULAR ROUTE BUS) transit and paratransit service;

In any statutory or home rule charter city or town in the metropolitan transit taxing district which is receiving financial assistance under section 28, the commission shall levy a tax equal to ten percent of the sum of levies provided for in clauses (a) to (c), plus a levy sufficient to yield the amounts of available local transit funds transferred pursuant to section 28 from the state assistance available to the commission, less any amount paid to the commission by the city or town under a contract for service entered into pursuant to subdivision 2 of this section.

Subd. 1a. The amount of the levy made by any municipality to pay for the service shall be disregarded when calculation of levies subject to limitations is made, provided that cities and towns receiving financial assistance under section 28 shall not make a special levy under this subdivision without having first exhausted the available local transit funds as defined in section 28. Subd. 3. H. F. No. 766, A bill for an act relating to the University of Minnesota hospitals; authorizing the sale of state bonds and loan of the proceeds of the sale to the board of regents of the University of Minnesota; appropriating money.

Reported the same back with the following amendments:

"Section 1. [UNIVERSITY HOSPITALS BONDS.]

Subdivision 1. [PURPOSE AND APPROPRIATION.] The commissioner of finance shall sell and issue bonds of the state of Minnesota in an aggregate principal amount not to exceed $190,000,000 for the prompt and full payment of which, with interest, the full faith, credit, and taxing powers of the state are irrevocably pledged, for the purpose of providing money to be loaned to the board of regents of the University of Minnesota to acquire and better public land, buildings, and improvements of a capital nature needed to provide facilities, equipment, and services at the University of Minnesota hospitals, including principal and interest during construction. The proceeds of the bonds are appropriated to the commissioner of finance to be loaned to the board of regents except as otherwise provided by subdivisions 3 and 6. This appropriation is not subject to the limitations in Minnesota Statutes, Section 137.025, Subdivision 2. The proceeds of the bonds shall be available until the purposes for which the bonds were authorized have been accomplished or abandoned, and the appropriation of the money shall not cancel. When the board of regents certifies to the commissioner of finance that the purposes of the bonds have been accomplished or abandoned, any unexpended balance of the proceeds shall be transferred and credited to the state bond fund. The bonds shall not be subject to restrictions or limitations contained in any other law.

Subd. 2. [ISSUANCE OF BONDS.] Upon request by resolution of the board of regents, after execution of a loan agreement as provided by subdivision 4, and after making the determinations as provided in subdivision 8, the commissioner of finance shall sell and issue bonds in the aggregate amount requested. The commissioner shall have the powers and duties and the bonds shall be issued and sold in the manner provided for the issuance and sale of state building bonds by Minnesota Statutes, Section 16A.64, Subdivisions 2 and 3. The provisions of Minnesota Statutes, Section 16A.65, Subdivision 4, shall not apply to the bonds. The commissioner may issue state refunding bonds as provided in Minnesota Statutes, Section 16A.66, without the approval of the executive council, in order to refund any or all of the bonds.

Subd. 3. [EXPENSES.] All costs and expenses, as provided for in Minnesota Statutes, section 16A.64, Subdivision 4, incurred by the commissioner of finance in connection with the sale and issuance of the bonds shall be paid from the proceeds of the bonds and the amounts necessary therefore are appropriated to the commissioner of finance from the University of Minnesota hospitals bond account. Any proceeds expended by the commissioner for costs and expenses are deemed to be loaned to the board of regents to be repaid as provided by subdivision 4 and the loan agreement.

Subd. 4. [LOAN TERMS.] Before issuing any bonds under this section, the commissioner of finance shall obtain the written agreement of the board of regents to use the proceeds of the bonds for the purposes described in subdivision 1 and to repay the loan of the proceeds of the bonds with interest according to the terms of the agreement. This agreement shall also provide that beginning one year after completion of the new facility the operating bed capacity of university hospitals shall be adjusted periodically, at least once each biennium, to comply with appropriate and relevant occupancy guidelines as set by the local health systems agency. The guidelines shall include, at a minimum, occupancy guidelines for general adult medical surgical beds, general pediatric beds, general obstetrical beds, and general psychiatric beds. Before the transfer of the proceeds as a loan to the board of regents, the commissioner shall deduct and withhold from the loan an amount sufficient, when added to the balance on hand in the University of Minnesota hospitals bond account, to pay all principal and interest due and to become due on the bonds through July 1 of the second ensuing year. Payments of principal and interest on the loan shall be made on or before each November 1 in an amount sufficient, when added to the balance on hand in the University of Minnesota hospitals bond account, to pay all principal and interest due and to become due on the bonds through July 1 of the second ensuing year. The board of regents shall be obligated to repay principal and interest under the loan agreement from the proceeds of the bonds or from the operating and nonoperating revenues of the university, excluding restricted gifts and university debt service obligations existing on the effective date of the loan agreement, but including appropriated funds of the University of Minnesota as provided by the loan agreement. If in any year the installment paid is less than the installment due, the deficiency shall be payable with interest based on the average daily rate of investment return on invested treasurer's cash for the period in question. If in any year there is a deficiency in a payment due, the board of regents shall consult with the commissioner of finance and shall take appropriate executive action to eliminate the deficiency and to assure prompt payment of future installments due. When the total amount paid by the board of regents equals the total amount of the principal of an interest on the bonds, including any refunding bonds and interest on deficiency, the loan shall be satisfied and cancelled.

If in any year university hospitals revenues are insufficient to make the required installment payment the university shall report on the amount and source of non-hospital funds used to make the payment. This report shall be submitted to the commissioner of finance and to the chairman of the house appropriations and senate finance committees.

Subd. 5. [UNIVERSITY OF MINNESOTA HOSPITALS BOND ACCOUNT.] The commissioner of finance shall maintain in the state bond fund a separate bookkeeping account designated as the University of Minnesota hospitals bond account to record receipts and disbursements of money transferred to the fund to pay University of Minnesota hospitals bonds and income from the investment of the money in the account. Investment income shall be accrued and credited to the account on October 31 in each fiscal year.

Subd. 6. [APPROPRIATIONS TO THE UNIVERSITY OF MINNESOTA HOSPITALS BOND ACCOUNT.] The premium and accrued interest received on each issue of University of Minnesota hospital bonds, any amounts deducted and withheld pursuant to the provisions of subdivision 4, all loan payments received from the board of regents, and all income from the investment of the proceeds from the issuance of the bonds before the proceeds are loaned to the university shall be credited to the University of Minnesota hospitals bond account and are appropriated to the commissioner of finance for the payment of principal and interest on the bonds. To reduce the amount of taxes otherwise required to be levied, the commissioner of finance shall transfer funds to the University of Minnesota hospitals bond account sums of money in the manner and amounts provided by Minnesota Statutes, Section 16A.64, Subdivision 5 and 16A.65, Subdivision 1.

Subd. 7. [TAX LEVY.] The state auditor shall levy any necessary property taxes in the manner and amounts provided by Minnesota Statutes, Section 16A.64, Subdivision 6.

Subd. 8. [COMMISSIONER OF FINANCE; DETERMINATIONS.] The commissioner of finance shall also make the following determinations before issuing any bonds:

(1) The proceeds of bonds provided for in this section will be sufficient together with other capital funds that may be available to the university to construct and to furnish the new facilities proposed by the university including appropriate professional fees and charges.

(2) The board of regents has executed agreements with appropriate labor organizations and construction contractors which provide that no labor strike or management lockout will halt, delay or impede construction.

(3) The board of regents has executed agreements which will provide for the construction of the new facilities for a certified construction price and completion dates and which include performance bonds in an amount at least equal to 100 percent of the certified price to cover any costs which may be incurred by the university or loss of revenues resulting from incomplete construction on the completion date.

(4) The anticipated revenue from the operation of the hospital facilities plus any additional available revenue of the university will be an amount sufficient to pay when due all debt service plus all administration, operating and maintenance expense.

S. F. No. 452 was reported to the House.

Clark, K., moved to amend S. F. No. 452, as follows:

Delete everything after the enacting clause and insert:

"Section 1. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 11A.09, is amended to read:

11A.09 [(STANDARD OF CARE) INVESTMENT STANDARDS.]

Subdivision 1. [POLICY.] The legislature finds that moneys under the jurisdiction of the state board must be invested so that the total portfolio is designed to earn the highest possible return consistent with the need to preserve the security of the moneys. Further, the legislature finds that the moneys under the board's jurisdiction offer the potential for helping to improve Minnesota's economic condition and thereby directly benefitting the beneficiaries of the moneys and other citizens of the state. Further, the legislature finds that the investment of money solely to benefit the interests of retirement plan participants and beneficiaries represents a highly desirable goal. In recognition of these findings, the legislature adopts the following standards of care to govern the investment of moneys under the jurisdiction of the board.

Subd. 2. [PRUDENT PERSON.] In the discharge of their respective duties, the members of the state board, director, board staff, members of the council and any other person charged with the responsibility of investing money pursuant to the standards set forth in sections 11A.01 to 11A.25 shall act solely in the interest of the beneficiaries of the money and for the exclusive purpose of providing benefits to the beneficiaries, shall act in good faith and shall exercise that degree of judgment and care, under circumstances then prevailing, which persons of prudence, discretion and intelligence exercise in the management of (THEIR OWN AFFAIRS) an enterprise of like character, not for speculation, but for investment, considering the probable safety of their capital as well as the probable income to be derived therefrom.

Subd. 3. [ADDITIONAL STANDARDS.] In selecting among those investment opportunities which meet the prudent person standard defined in subdivision 2 and any other applicable statutory limitations, the board and its staff shall to the extent possible select those investments which have one or more of the following characteristics:

(a) the investment is in a business concern that does business in the state, which employs Minnesota residents, which has the potential for job expansion in the state, and which will contribute to the state's economic well-being;

(b) the investment will tend to improve the economic viability of a small city or urban neighborhood in the state;

(c) the investment will increase the supply of housing in the state, especially housing intended for low and moderate income persons;

(d) the investment will result in the development of alternative energy systems in Minnesota, will encourage energy conservation in the state or will reduce the state's dependence on outside energy sources;

(e) the investment will assist in the preservation and promotion of family farming or small business in the state; and

(f) the investment will serve other goals as identified by the board as being in the economic interests of beneficiaries of moneys invested by the board and the citizens of the state.

In applying the standards contained in this subdivision, the state board and its staff shall take no actions which they construe to be not in the best interests of retirement plan participants and beneficiaries.

Subd. 4. [EXEMPTION.] The standards and prohibitions contained in subdivision 3 shall not apply in respect to the investments of the post-retirement investment fund established in section 11A.18."

The legislature further finds that part-time peace officers are most effectively utilized as a supplement to regular, fully trained and licensed, peace officers and does not encourage the use of part-time peace officers when needs for service would otherwise justify the use of (FULL-TIME) peace officers.

626.8463 [PART-TIME PEACE OFFICERS.]

Any individual appointed or employed as a part-time peace officer to a position which was filled by a part-time officer between January 1, 1978 and May 31, 1979 owing to the death, termination, or failure of the incumbent to comply with the requirements of this section shall provide proof to the board that:

(c) Within 24 months of his appointment he has successfully passed a board part-time peace officer licensing examination.

Subdivision 1. [SUPERVISION OF POWERS AND DUTIES.] No law enforcement agency shall utilize the services of a part-time peace officer unless the part-time peace officer exercises his powers and duties under the supervision, directly or indirectly of a licensed peace officer designated by the chief law enforcement officer. Supervision also may be via radio communications. With the consent of the county sheriff, the designated supervising officer may be a member of the county sheriff's department.

Sec. 15. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 214.10, Subdivision 7, is amended to read:

Subd. 7. [PEACE OFFICERS STANDARDS AND TRAINING BOARD; DEFINITIONS.] For purposes of subdivisions 4 to 6 the term "appropriate law enforcement agency" means the agency (EMPLOYING THE PEACE OFFICER WHO IS A PARTY TO THE COMPLAINT. IN THE EVENT ALL OF THE PEACE OFFICERS EMPLOYED BY THE AGENCY ARE PARTIES TO THE COMPLAINT, THE BOARD SHALL DESIGNATE THE APPROPRIATE LAW ENFORCEMENT AGENCY) designated by the subcommittee of the board.

The reports of the board shall summarize the comments received and the board's response to the comments.

Sec. 10. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 115A.09, is amended to read:

115A.09 [DUTIES OF THE BOARD; INVENTORY OF PREFERRED (SITES) AREAS FOR HAZARDOUS WASTE PROCESSING FACILITIES.]

Subdivision 1. [BOARD RESPONSIBILITY.] By (NOVEMBER) January 1, (1981) 1982, the board shall prepare an inventory of preferred (SITES) areas of up to ten square miles in size for commercial hazardous waste processing facilities. No preferred area may extend into more than one statutory or home rule charter city or town, but the board may propose adjoining preferred areas in adjacent cities and towns. The inventory shall include at least three (SITES) areas for each of the following categories of processing facilities: (a) a commercial chemical processing facility for hazardous waste, (b) a commercial incineration facility for hazardous waste, and (c) a commercial transfer and storage facility for hazardous waste.

Subd. 2. [EVALUATION OF (SITES) AREAS.] The board shall not be required to promulgate rules pursuant to chapter 15 to govern its evaluation and selection of (SITES) areas under this section. The board and the chairperson on behalf of the board shall evaluate the (SITES) areas in consultation with the board's advisory councils, the affected counties and regions, generators of hazardous waste, and prospective facility developers. The evaluation shall consider at least the consistency of (SITES) areas with state and federal regulations, local land use and land use controls, the protection of agriculture and natural resources, existing and future development patterns, transportation and other services appropriate to the hazardous waste facilities, the quality of other potential (SITES) areas, and the location of hazardous waste generators. (NO SITE SHALL BE INCLUDED IN THE INVENTORY UNLESS THE AGENCY CERTIFIES ITS INTRINSIC SUITABILITY FOR THE USE INTENDED. NO LAND SHALL BE EXCLUDED FROM CONSIDERATION FOR INCLUSION IN THE INVENTORY EXCEPT LAND DETERMINED BY THE AGENCY TO BE INTRINSICALLY UNSUITABLE) The agency shall prepare a report on the suitability of each proposed area for the use intended.

Subd. 3. [PROCEDURES.] The board shall propose the inventory of (SITES) areas by (JUNE) August 1, 1981 by publication in the state register and newspapers of general circulation in the state and by mail to each regional development commission, metropolitan council, and local government unit containing a proposed (SITE) area. (ANY) The publications and mailing shall include notice of (PERSON OBJECTING TO THE AGENCY'S CERTIFICATION OR THE BOARD'S PROPOSAL OF A SITE FOR INCLUSION IN THE INVENTORY SHALL HAVE 30 DAYS IN WHICH TO REQUEST A HEARING. IF A HEARING IS REQUESTED, THE HEARING SHALL BE ORDERED BY THE CHAIRPERSON OF THE BOARD AND) hearings on the board's proposal. The hearings shall be conducted by the state office of administrative hearings in a manner determined by the hearing examiner to be consistent with the completion of the proceedings and the examiner's report in the time allowed by this section. At the hearing, any (COUNTY) local government unit in which (A SITE) an area is proposed for inclusion in the inventory may propose an alternative (SITE) area or (SITES) areas within (THE COUNTY) its jurisdiction. The hearing shall afford all interested persons an opportunity to testify and present evidence on the subject of the hearing. The subject of the hearing shall be limited to information submitted by the board and additional information on the proposed area or alternative areas which is relevant to the board's decision on the areas to be included in the inventory. The contested case procedures of chapter 15 shall not apply to this hearing. The hearing examiner may consolidate hearings. The report of the hearing examiner shall contain findings of fact, conclusions, and recommendations on the subject of the hearing. When any (SITE) area in the inventory becomes unavailable as a hazardous waste facility site, the inventory shall be amended, in the manner of its original adoption, provided, however, that during the period when the inventory is being amended any other (SITE) area in the inventory may be reviewed and approved under sections 115A.32 to 115A.39. No action of the board shall be held invalid by reason of the board's failure to notify any of the entities listed in this subdivision.

Subd. 4. [GRANTS; TECHNICAL ASSISTANCE.] To assist counties participating in the inventory required by this section, the board through its chairperson may make grants to the counties to be used to employ staff, pay administrative expenses, or contract with qualified consultants. The board through its chairperson shall ensure the delivery to the counties of technical information and assistance by appropriate state agencies.

Sec. 11. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 115A.11, Subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [CONTENTS.] By (MAY 1) December 15, 1982, the board shall adopt a hazardous waste management plan. The plan shall include at least the following elements:

(a) an estimate of the types and volumes of hazardous waste which will be generated in the state through the year 2000;

(b) specific and quantifiable objectives for reducing to the greatest feasible and prudent extent the need for and practice of disposal, through waste reduction, pretreatment, processing, and resource recovery.

(c) a description of the minimum disposal capacity and capability needed to be developed within the state for use through the year 2000, based on the achievement of the objectives under clause (b).

The plan shall require the establishment of at least one commercial disposal facility in the state.

Sec. 12. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 115A.19, is amended to read:

115A.19 [PROCEDURE NOT EXCLUSIVE.]

Except as provided in Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 115A.21, Subdivision 1, the procedure established by sections 115A.18 to 115A.30 for the permitting of hazardous waste disposal facilities shall not preclude the issuance of permits by the agency pursuant to section 116.07 for disposal facilities at sites not reviewed under sections 115A.18 to 115A.30.

Sec. 13. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 115A.20, is amended to read:

115A.20 [EVALUATION OF SITES.]

The board shall not be required to promulgate rules pursuant to chapter 15 to govern its evaluation and selection of sites for commercial disposal facilities under sections 115A.18 to 115A.30, nor shall the agency be required to promulgate rules pursuant to chapter 15 on criteria and standards to govern its certification of intrinsic suitability of sites for commercial disposal facilities under sections 115A.18 to 115A.30. In evaluating and selecting sites for disposal facilities, the board shall consider at least the following factors:

- (a) economic feasibility, including proximity to concentrations of generators of the types of hazardous wastes likely to be proposed and permitted for disposal;
- (b) intrinsic suitability of the sites;
- (c) federal and state pollution control and environmental protection rules;
- (d) the risk and effect for local residents, units of government, and the local public health, safety, and welfare, including such dangers as an accidental release of wastes during transportation to a facility or at a facility, water, air, and land pollution, and fire or explosion;
- (e) the consistency of a facility with, and its effect on, existing and planned local land use and development; local laws, ordinances, and permits; and local public facilities and services;
- (f) the adverse effects of a facility at the site on agriculture and natural resources and opportunities to mitigate or eliminate such adverse effects by stipulations, conditions, and requirements respecting the design and operation of a disposal facility at the proposed site.

No land shall be excluded from consideration except land determined by the agency to be intrinsically unsuitable for the use intended.

Sec. 14. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 115A.21, Subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [SELECTION.] By (AUGUST 1, 1981) March 15, 1982, the board shall select six locations in the state, no more than one site per county, as candidate sites for commercial disposal facilities for hazardous waste. No location shall be selected as a candidate site unless the agency certifies its intrinsic suitability for the use intended. The board shall consult with the agency and the private waste management industry in selecting candidate sites. Any sites proposed in applications for permits for disposal facilities being reviewed by the agency (ON AUGUST 1, 1981.) may be included by the board as candidate sites, provided the agency certifies the intrinsic suitability of the sites. The agency shall suspend its review of any permit application being reviewed by the board for inclusion as a candidate site until the site is eliminated from consideration as a candidate site.

Sec. 15. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 115A.21, Subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [PROCEDURE.] As soon as practicable, the board through its chairperson shall publish a request soliciting proposals and permit applications for hazardous waste disposal facilities from potential developers and operators of such facilities. Notice of the request shall be published in the state register and newspapers of general circulation in the state and shall be transmitted to all regional development commissions, the metropolitan council, and all counties in the state. The board may select conceptual design and operating specifications for a variety of hazardous waste disposal facilities in sufficient detail and extent in the judgment of the board to assist the evaluation of sites and the selection of candidate sites. By November 1, 1980, the board through its chairperson shall notify each regional development commission, or the metropolitan council, and each local government unit within whose jurisdiction the board intends to search for candidate sites. The notification shall explain the selection of the jurisdiction as a search area; shall summarize any conceptual specifications and the evaluation factors, criteria, standards, and procedures the board intends to use in selecting candidate sites; and shall describe the relationship of the candidate site selection process to the other review procedures under sections 115A.18 to 115A.30 and the hazardous waste reports and plans required under sections 115A.04 to 115A.15. The notification shall request recommendations and suggestions from each such commission, the metropolitan council, and local government unit on the criteria, standards, and procedures the board should use in selecting candidate sites within the time allowed. The board through its chairperson shall make a written response to any recommendations, explaining its disposition of the recommendations. The board shall provide to the agency data relating to the intrinsic suitability of the sites to be proposed as candidate sites as soon as available but no later than November 1, 1981. By (MAY 1) November 15, 1981, the board shall propose at least six locations as candidate sites, the director of the agency shall issue a notice indicating which of those sites the director recommends be certified as intrinsically suitable, and the board through its chairperson and the director shall publish notice of hearings on the board's proposal and the director's recommendations. Notice shall be published in the state register and newspapers of general circulation in the state and shall (NOTIFY) be sent by mail to all regional development commissions, or the metropolitan council, and to local government units containing a proposed candidate site. (ANY PERSON OBJECTING TO THE AGENCY'S CERTIFICATION OR THE BOARD'S PROPOSAL OF A SITE FOR CANDIDACY SHALL HAVE 30 DAYS IN WHICH TO REQUEST A HEARING. IF A HEARING IS REQUESTED, THE HEARING SHALL BE ORDERED BY THE CHAIRPERSON OF THE BOARD AND) The hearings shall be conducted by the state office of administrative hearings in a manner consistent with the completion of the proceedings and the hearing examiner's report to the agency and board in the time allowed by this section. The hearing shall afford all interested persons an opportunity to testify and present evidence on the subject of the hearing. The subject of the hearing shall be limited to information submitted by the board and additional information on the proposed sites which is relevant to the board's decision on candidate sites and the agency's decision on intrinsic suitability. The contested case procedures of chapter 15 shall not apply to this hearing. The hearing examiner may consolidate hearings. The report of the hearing examiner shall contain findings of fact, conclusions, and recommendations on the subject of the hearing. The agency shall make a final determination as to the intrinsic suitability of each proposed site and shall certify sites accordingly by March 1, 1982. No action of the board or agency shall be held invalid by reason of the board's or agency's failure to notify any of the entities listed in this subdivision.

Sec. 16. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 115A.22, Subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [MEMBERSHIP ON LOCAL COMMITTEES.] By (SEPTEMBER 1, 1981) April 15, 1982, the governor shall appoint the chairperson and members of each local project review committee, ensuring a balanced representation of all parties with a legitimate and direct interest in the outcome of the project review. The governor shall consult particularly with affected local units of government before selecting members. Members may be added to the local committee from time to time by the governor.

Sec. 17. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 115A.22, Subdivision 4, is amended to read:

Subd. 4. [APPOINTMENT OF TEMPORARY BOARD MEMBERS.] By (OCTOBER 1, 1981) May 15, 1982, each local committee shall select a temporary board member to be added to the board for the purposes of the reports, certifications, and review conducted under sections 115A.18 to 115A.30. If a local committee fails to appoint a temporary board member within 45 days after the appointment of the committee the governor shall appoint a temporary board member to represent the committee on the board. Temporary board members may be members of the local project review committee, and they shall be residents of the county where the candidate site is located. Temporary board members shall serve for terms lasting until the board has taken final action pursuant to section 115A.28 and, in the case of members representing the site or sites finally chosen for the facility, until the commencement of the operation of the facility at that site.

Sec. 18. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 115A.23, is amended to read:

115A.23 [DISPOSAL FACILITIES; PRELIMINARY DESIGN AND OPERATING SPECIFICATIONS.]

By (JANUARY 1) August 15, 1982, the board shall select, for further study and consideration, design and operating specifications for a variety of disposal facilities for hazardous waste in sufficient detail and extent in the judgment of the agency to allow the agency to begin preparing an environmental impact statement on the alternative facilities at each of the candidate sites pursuant to section 115A.25. The preliminary design and operating specifications shall not be final and shall not preclude the consideration of other specifications nor foreclose the subsequent addition by the board of other disposal facility alternatives.

115A.24 [CERTIFICATION OF NEED.]

Subdivision 1. [CERTIFICATE.] Except as provided in subdivision 2, by (MAY 1) December 15, 1982, on the basis of and consistent with its hazardous waste management plan adopted under section 115A.11, the board shall issue a certificate or certificates of need for disposal facilities for hazardous wastes in the state. The certificate or certificates shall indicate the types and volumes of waste for which disposal facilities are and will be needed through the year 2000 and the number, types, sizes, general design and operating specifications, and function or use of the disposal facilities needed in the state. The board shall certify need only to the extent that the board has determined that there are no feasible and prudent alternatives including waste reduction, separation, pretreatment, processing, and resource recovery which would minimize adverse impact upon natural resources, provided that the board shall require the establishment of at least one commercial disposal facility in the state. Economic considerations alone shall not justify certification nor the rejection of alternatives. Alternatives that are speculative and conjectural shall not be deemed to be feasible and prudent. The certificate or certificates shall not be subject to the provisions of chapter 15 but shall be the final determination required on the matters decided by the certificate or certificates and shall have the force and effect of law. The certificate or certificates shall not be amended for five years. The board and the permitting agencies, in reviewing and selecting sites, completing environmental impact statements, and issuing approvals and permits for waste disposal facilities described in the certificate or certificates of need, shall not reconsider matters determined in the certification. The board and the permitting agencies shall be required to make a final decision approving the establishment of facilities consistent with the certification. The board and the permitting agencies shall be required to make a final decision approving the establishment of at least one commercial disposal facility for hazardous waste in the state.

Subd. 2. [CONDITION.] No certificate or certificates of need for disposal facilities for hazardous waste shall be issued by the board pursuant to subdivision 1 unless legislation is enacted to:

(a) Define the liability of owners and operators of disposal facilities and generators and other persons responsible for the disposal of hazardous waste;

(b) Provide the appropriate units of state or local government with the capability to clean up disposal sites or take other action to mitigate an imminent or substantial danger to public health or welfare or the environment from the disposal of hazardous waste; and

(c) Provide for the payment of the state's share of costs incurred pursuant to the Comprehensive Environmental Response, Compensation, and Liability Act of 1980, Public Law 96-510, as amended, as required by that act as a match to federal moneys.

Sec. 20. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 115A.26, is amended to read:

115A.26 [AGENCIES; PERMIT CONDITIONS.]

Within 60 days following (THE ACCEPTANCE) determination of adequacy of the final environmental impact statement, and after consulting with the board, facility developers, affected local government units, and the local project review committees, each permitting state agency shall issue a notice of intent to issue permits, indicating the terms, conditions, and requirements of agency approval for all permits needed at each candidate site for the establishment of the facilities described in the board's certification of need. The agency decisions shall be consistent with the establishment of facilities in accordance with the certification of need.

Sec. 21. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 115A.28, Subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [BOARD'S DECISION PARAMOUNT.] The board's decision under subdivision 1 shall be final and shall supersede and preempt requirements of state agencies and political subdivisions (, EXCEPTING ONLY) and the requirements of sections 473H.02 to 473H.17; except that a facility established pursuant to the decision shall be subject to those terms, conditions, and requirements of permitting agencies embodied in the board's decision and (EXCEPT AS PROVIDED IN) any requirements imposed pursuant to subdivision 3. The permitting agencies shall issue permits within 60 days following and in accordance with the board's final decision, and all permits shall conform to the terms, conditions, and requirements of the board's decision. No charter provision, ordinance, regulation, permit, or other requirement of any state agency or political subdivision shall prevent or restrict the establishment, operation, expansion, continuance, or closure of a facility in accordance with the final decision of the board and permits issued pursuant thereto.

Sec. 22. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 115A.33, is amended to read:

115A.33 [ELIGIBILITY; REQUEST FOR REVIEW.]

The following persons shall be eligible to request supplementary review by the board pursuant to sections 115A.32 to 115A.-39: (a) a generator of sewage sludge within the state who has been issued permits by the agency for a facility to dispose of sewage sludge or solid waste resulting from sewage treatment; (b) a political subdivision which has been issued permits by the agency, or a political subdivision acting on behalf of a person who has been issued permits by the agency, for a solid waste facility which is no larger than 250 acres, not including any proposed buffer area, and located outside the metropolitan area; (c) a generator of hazardous waste within the state who has been issued permits by the agency for a hazardous waste facility to be owned and operated by the generator, on property owned by the generator, and to be used by the generator for managing the hazardous wastes produced by the generator only; (d) a person who has been issued permits by the agency for a commercial hazardous waste processing facility at a site included in the board's inventory of preferred sites for such facilities adopted pursuant to section 115A.09; (e) a person who has been issued permits by the agency for a disposal facility for the nonhazardous sludge, ash, or other solid waste generated by a permitted hazardous waste processing facility operated by the person. The metropolitan waste control commission shall not be eligible to request review under clause (a) for a sewage sludge disposal facility. The metropolitan waste control commission shall not be eligible to request review under clause (a) for a solid waste facility with a proposed permitted life of longer than four years. The board may require completion of a plan conforming to the requirements of section 115A.46, before granting review under clause (b). A request for supplementary review shall show that the required permits for the facility have been issued by the agency and that a political subdivision has refused to approve the establishment or operation of the facility.

115A.34 [APPOINTMENT OF TEMPORARY BOARD MEMBERS.]

Within 45 days of the submission of a request determined by the board to satisfy the requirements for review under sections 115A.32 to 115A.39, temporary board members shall be added to the board for the purpose of the supplementary review. Three members shall be selected by the governing body of the city or town in which the chairperson of the waste management board determines the facility would be principally located, and three members shall be selected by the governing body of the county in which the chairperson of the waste management board determines the proposed facility would be principally located. If the proposed facility is located in unorganized territory, all six members shall be selected by the governing board of the county. Temporary members shall be residents of the county in which the proposed facility would be located and shall be selected to represent broadly the local interests that would be directly affected by the proposed facility. At least one member appointed by the city or town shall live within one mile of the proposed facility, and at least one member appointed by the county shall be a resident of a city or town in which the proposed facility would be located. If the appointing authority fails to appoint temporary board members in the period allowed, the governor shall appoint the temporary members to represent the local interests in accordance with this section. Temporary board members shall serve for terms lasting until the board has taken final action on the facility.

Sec. 24. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 115A.37, Subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [DECISION PARAMOUNT.] The decision of the board to approve a facility shall be final and shall supersede and preempt requirements of state agencies and political subdivisions (, EXCEPTING ONLY) and the requirements of sections 473H.02 to 473H.17; except that the facility shall be subject to those terms, conditions, and requirements of permitting agencies embodied in the board's approval and (EXCEPT AS PROVIDED IN) any requirements imposed pursuant to subdivision 3. The permitting agencies shall issue or amend the permits for the facility within 60 days following and in accordance with the final decision of the board, and all permits shall conform to the terms, conditions, and requirements of the board's decision. No charter provision, ordinance, regulation, permit, or other requirement of any state agency or political subdivision shall prevent or restrict the establishment, operation, expansion, continuance, or closure of the facility in accordance with the final decision of the board and permits issued pursuant thereto.

Sec. 25. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 115A.54, Subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [OBLIGATIONS OF RECIPIENT.] No grant or loan for any project shall be disbursed until the governing body of the recipient has made an irrevocable undertaking, by resolution, to use all funds made available exclusively for the capital cost of the project and to pay any additional amount by which the cost of the project exceeds the estimate by appropriation to the construction fund of additional funds or proceeds of additional bonds of the recipient. The resolution shall also indicate that any subsequent withdrawal of allocated or additional funds of the recipient will impair the obligation of contract between the state of Minnesota, the recipient, and the bondholders. The resolution shall pledge payment to the debt service account of all revenues of the project to the extent that they exceed costs and shall also obligate the recipient to levy a tax sufficient to make timely payments under the loan agreement, if a deficiency occurs in the amount of user charges, taxes, special assessments, or other moneys pledged for payment under the loan agreement. Each loan made to a recipient shall be secured by resolutions adopted by the board and the governing body of the recipient, obligating the recipient to repay the loan to the state treasurer in annual installments including both principal and interest. Installments shall be in an amount sufficient to pay the principal amount within the period required by the (AGENCY) board. The interest on the loan shall be calculated on the declining balance at a rate not less than the average annual interest rate on the state bonds of the issue from which proceeds of the loan were made. The resolution shall obligate the recipient to provide money for the repayment from user charges, taxes, special assessments or any other funds available to it.

Sec. 26. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 116.07, Subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [ADOPTION OF STANDARDS.] The pollution control agency shall improve air quality by promoting, in the most practicable way possible, the use of energy sources and waste disposal methods which produce or emit the least air contaminants consistent with the agency's overall goal of reducing all forms of pollution. The agency shall also adopt standards of air quality, including maximum allowable standards of emission of air contaminants from motor vehicles, recognizing that due to variable factors, no single standard of purity of air is applicable to all areas of the state. In adopting standards the pollution control agency shall give due recognition to the fact that the quantity or characteristics of air contaminants or the duration of their presence in the atmosphere, which may cause air pollution in one area of the state, may cause less or not cause any air pollution in another area of the state, and it shall take into consideration in this connection such factors, including others which it may deem proper, as existing physical conditions, zoning classifications, topography, prevailing wind directions and velocities, and the fact that a standard of air quality which may be proper as to an essentially residential area of the state, may not be proper as to a highly developed industrial area of the state. Such standards of air quality shall be premised upon scientific knowledge of causes as well as effects based on technically substantiated criteria and commonly accepted practices. No local government unit shall set standards of air quality which are more stringent than those set by the pollution control agency.

The pollution control agency shall promote solid waste disposal control by encouraging the updating of collection systems, elimination of open dumps, and improvements in incinerator practices. The agency shall also adopt standards for the control of the collection, transportation, storage, processing, and disposal of solid waste and (THE DISPOSAL OF) sewage sludge for the prevention and abatement of water, air and land pollution, recognizing that due to variable factors, no single standard of control is applicable to all areas of the state. In adopting standards, the pollution control agency shall give due recognition to the fact that elements of control which may be reasonable and proper in densely populated areas of the state may be unreasonable and improper in sparsely populated or remote areas of the state, and it shall take into consideration in this connection such factors, including others which it may deem proper, as existing physical conditions, topography, soils and geology, climate, transportation, and land use. Such standards of control shall be premised on technical criteria and commonly accepted practices.

The pollution control agency shall also adopt standards describing the maximum levels of noise in terms of sound pressure level which may occur in the outdoor atmosphere, recognizing that due to variable factors no single standard of sound pressure is applicable to all areas of the state. Such standards shall give due consideration to such factors as the intensity of noises, the types of noises, the frequency with which noises recur, the time period for which noises continue, the times of day during which noises occur, and such other factors as could affect the extent to which noises may be injurious to human health or welfare, animal or plant life, or property, or could interfere unreasonably with the enjoyment of life or property. In adopting standards, the pollution control agency shall give due recognition to the fact that the quantity or characteristics of noise or the duration of its presence in the outdoor atmosphere, which may cause noise pollution in one area of the state, may cause less or not cause any noise pollution in another area of the state, and it shall take into consideration in this connection such factors, including others which it may deem proper, as existing physical conditions, zoning classifications, topography, meteorological conditions and the fact that a standard which may be proper in an essentially residential area of the state, may not be proper as to a highly developed industrial area of the state. Such noise standards shall be premised upon scientific knowledge as well as effects based on technically substantiated criteria and commonly accepted practices. No local governing unit shall set standards describing the maximum levels of sound pressure which are more stringent than those set by the pollution control agency.

The pollution control agency shall adopt standards for the identification of hazardous waste and for the management, identification, labeling, classification, storage, collection, transportation, processing, and disposal of hazardous waste, recognizing that due to variable factors, a single standard of hazardous waste control may not be applicable to all areas of the state. In adopting standards, the pollution control agency shall recognize that elements of control which may be reasonable and proper in densely populated areas of the state may be unreasonable and improper in sparsely populated or remote areas of the state. The agency shall consider existing physical conditions, topography, soils, and geology, climate, transportation and land use. Standards of hazardous waste control shall be premised on technical knowledge, and commonly accepted practices. No local government unit shall set standards of hazardous waste control which are in conflict or inconsistent with those set by the pollution control agency.

Sec. 27. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 116.07, Subdivision 4, is amended to read:

Subd. 4. [RULES AND STANDARDS.] Pursuant and subject to the provisions of chapter 15, and the provisions hereof, the pollution control agency may adopt, amend and rescind rules and standards having the force of law relating to any purpose within the provisions of Laws 1969, Chapter 1046, for the prevention, abatement, or control of air pollution. Any such rule or standard may be of general application throughout the state, or may be limited as to times, places, circumstances, or conditions in order to make due allowance for variations therein. Without limitation, rules or standards may relate to sources or emissions of air contamination or air pollution, to the quality or composition of such emissions, or to the quality of or composition of the ambient air or outdoor atmosphere or to any other matter relevant to the prevention, abatement, or control of air pollution.

Pursuant and subject to the provisions of chapter 15, and the provisions hereof, the pollution control agency may adopt, amend, and rescind rules and standards having the force of law relating to any purpose within the provisions of Laws 1969, Chapter 1046, for the collection, transportation, storage, processing, and disposal of solid waste and the prevention, abatement, or control of water, air, and land pollution which may be related thereto, and the deposit in or on land of any other material that may tend to cause pollution. The agency shall adopt such rules and standards for (THE DISPOSAL OF) sewage sludge, addressing the intrinsic suitability of land, the volume and rate of application of sewage sludge of various degrees of intrinsic hazard, design of (DISPOSAL) facilities, and operation of (DISPOSAL) facilities and (DISPOSAL) sites. The agency shall promulgate temporary rules for sewage sludge (DISPOSAL) pursuant to section 15.0412, subdivision 5. Any such rule or standard may be of general application throughout the state or may be limited as to times, places, circumstances, or conditions in order to make due allowance for variations therein. Without limitation, rules or standards may relate to collection, transportation, processing, disposal, equipment, location, procedures, methods, systems or techniques or to any other matter relevant to the prevention, abatement or control of water, air, and land pollution which may be advised through the control of collection, transportation, processing, and disposal of solid waste and (THE DISPOSAL OF) sewage sludge, and the deposit in or on land of any other material that may tend to cause pollution.

Pursuant and subject to the provisions of chapter 15, and the provisions hereof, the pollution control agency may adopt, amend and rescind rules and standards having the force of law relating to any purpose within the provisions of Laws 1971, Chapter 727, for the prevention, abatement, or control of noise pollution. Any such rule or standard may be of general application throughout the state, or may be limited as to times, places, circumstances or conditions in order to make due allowances for variations therein. Without limitation, rules or standards may relate to sources or emissions of noise or noise pollution, to the quality or composition of noises in the natural environment, or to any other matter relevant to the prevention, abatement, or control of noise pollution.

As to any matters subject to this chapter, local units of government may set emission regulations with respect to stationary sources which are more stringent than those set by the pollution control agency.

Pursuant to chapter 15, the pollution control agency may adopt, amend, and rescind rules and standards having the force of law relating to any purpose within the provisions of this chapter for the management, identification, labeling, classification, storage, collection, treatment, transportation, processing, and disposal of hazardous waste and location of hazardous waste facilities. A rule or standard may be of general application throughout the state or may be limited as to time, places, circumstances, or conditions. The public utilities commission, in cooperation with the pollution control agency, shall set standards for the transportation of hazardous waste in accordance with chapter 221. In implementing its hazardous waste rules, the pollution control agency shall give high priority to providing planning and technical assistance to hazardous waste generators. The agency shall assist generators in investigating the availability and feasibility of both interim and long term hazardous waste management methods. The methods shall include waste reduction, waste separation, waste processing, resource recovery, and temporary storage.

The pollution control agency shall give highest priority in the consideration of permits to authorize disposal of diseased shade trees by open burning at designated sites to evidence concerning economic costs of transportation and disposal of diseased shade trees by alternative methods.

Sec. 28. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 116.41, Subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [TRAINING AND CERTIFICATION PROGRAMS.] The agency shall develop standards of competence for persons operating and inspecting various classes of disposal facilities. Sec. 29. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 400.161, is amended to read:

400.161 [HAZARDOUS WASTE REGULATIONS.]

The county may by ordinance establish and revise rules, regulations, and standards relating to (a) identification of hazardous waste, (b) the labeling and classification of hazardous waste, (c) the collection, transportation, processing, disposal, and storage of hazardous waste, (d) other matters as may be determined necessary for the public health, welfare and safety. The county may issue permits or licenses for hazardous waste generation and may require the generators be registered with a county office. The ordinance may require appropriate procedures for the payment by the generator of any costs incurred by the county in completing such procedures. If the generator fails to complete such procedures, the county may recover the costs of completion in a civil action in any court of competent jurisdiction or, in the discretion of the board, the costs may be certified to the county auditor as a special tax against the land as other taxes are collected. The ordinance may be enforced by injunction, action to compel performance, or other action in district court. (ANY ORDINANCE UNDER THIS SECTION SHALL EMBODY STANDARDS AND REQUIREMENTS ESTABLISHED BY RULE OF THE AGENCY.) *County hazardous waste ordinances shall embody and be consistent with agency hazardous waste rules. Counties shall submit adopted ordinances to the agency for review. In the event that agency rules are modified, each county shall modify its ordinances accordingly and shall submit the modification to the agency for review within 120 days. Issuing, denying, modifying, imposing conditions upon, or revoking permits (PURSUANT TO THE PROVISIONS OF THIS SECTION) or licenses and county hazardous waste regulations (PROMULGATED HEREUNDER) and ordinances shall be subject to review, denial, suspension, modification, and reversal by the pollution control agency. The pollution control agency shall after written notification have 15 days in the case of hazardous waste permits and licenses and 30 days in the case of hazardous waste ordinances to review, deny, suspend, modify, or reverse the action of the county. Sec. 30. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 473.149, Subdivision 2b, is amended to read:

Subd. 2b. [INVENTORY OF SOLID WASTE DISPOSAL SITES.] By (OCTOBER 1, 1981) February 1, 1982, the council shall adopt by resolution an inventory of eligible solid waste disposal sites and buffer areas within the metropolitan area. The council's inventory shall be composed of the sites and buffer areas proposed by the counties and reviewed and approved by the council pursuant to section 473.803, subdivision 1a. If a county does not have an approved inventory, the council shall adopt the required inventory for the county, following investigations by the council and public hearings as the council deems appropriate. The council's inventory shall satisfy all requirements and standards described in section 473.803, subdivision 1a, for sites and buffer areas proposed by counties. For sites and buffer areas included in the council's inventory, the moratorium imposed under section 473.803, subdivision 1a, shall extend until October 1, 1983.

Sec. 31. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 473.149, Subdivision 2c, is amended to read:

Subd. 2c. [REPORT ON LOCAL EFFECTS OF SOLID WASTE DISPOSAL FACILITIES; REPORT TO LEGISLATURE.] By (JANUARY 1) August 15, 1982, the council shall report to the legislative commission on methods of mitigating and compensating for the local risks, costs, and other adverse effects of solid waste disposal facilities and on methods of financing mitigation and compensation measures. The methods of mitigating and compensating to be considered shall include but not be limited to the following: payment outside of levy limitations in lieu of taxes for all property taken off the tax rolls; preference for the city or town containing a facility in federal A-95 reviews conducted by the council; payment of all costs to service the facilities including the costs of roads, monitoring, inspection, enforcement, police and fire, and litter clean up costs; payment for buffer zone amenities and improvements; city or town control over buffer zone design; elimination of the tipping charge for solid waste collected in the city or town; a guarantee against any and all liability that may occur; payment for reclamation of closed sites to local design specifications.

Sec. 32. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 473.149, Subdivision 2e, is amended to read:

Subd. 2e. [SOLID WASTE DISPOSAL FACILITIES DEVELOPMENT SCHEDULE.] By January 1, 1983, after requesting and considering recommendations from the counties, cities, and towns, the council as part of its policy plan shall determine the number of sites to be acquired within each metropolitan county for solid waste disposal facilities in accordance with section 473.833. The council shall adopt a schedule for development of disposal facilities by each such county through the year 2000. The schedule shall be based upon the council's reduced estimate of the disposal capacity needed because of the council's land disposal abatement plan. The schedule may include procedures to be used by counties in selecting sites for acquisition pursuant to section 473.833. The schedule shall include standards and procedures for council certification of need pursuant to section 473.823. The schedule shall include a facility closure schedule and plans for post-closure management and disposition, for the use of property after acquisition and before facility development, and for the disposition of property and development rights, as defined in section 473.833, no longer needed for disposal facilities. The schedule shall also include a closure schedule and plans for post-closure management for facilities in existence prior to January 1, 1983.

Sec. 33. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 473.149, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 4a. [RIGHT OF ACCESS.] Whenever the council deems it necessary to the evaluation of a disposal site or buffer area under chapter 473, the council or any member, employee, or agent thereof, when authorized by it, may enter upon any public or private property for the purpose of obtaining information or conducting surveys or investigations if the entrance and activity are undertaken after reasonable notice and during normal business hours. The council shall compensate for any damage to the property caused by the entrance and activity.

Sec. 34. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 473.153, Subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [FACILITIES REQUIRED.] Except as provided in subdivision 7 and section 115A.33, all sewage sludge disposal facilities and facilities for the disposal of solid waste generated by the metropolitan waste control commission shall be established and operated in accordance with this section and section 473.516. The council and the commission shall establish (AT LEAST ONE FACILITY FOR SEWAGE SLUDGE DISPOSAL AND AT LEAST ONE FACILITY FOR SOLID WASTE DISPOSAL) the facilities needed for the disposal of sewage sludge and solid waste generated by the commission. The council and the commission shall establish at least one facility.

Sec. 35. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 473.153, Subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [CANDIDATE SITE SELECTION.] By (JULY) November (1) 15, 1981, the council shall select (THREE) six candidate sites for the disposal of the commission's sewage sludge and (THREE CANDIDATE SITES FOR THE DISPOSAL OF THE COMMISSION'S) solid waste, together with appropriate surrounding buffer areas. The council shall evaluate sites for candidacy on the basis of at least the following factors: local land use and land use controls, the protection of agriculture and natural resources, existing and future development patterns, transportation facilities, distance from the points of generation, and the intrinsic suitability of sites compared with other potential sites. Notwithstanding any plan, charter provision, law, ordinance, regulation, or other requirement of the council, counties, or local units of government, no land shall be excluded from consideration for candidacy except land determined by the agency to be intrinsically unsuitable. No site shall be selected for candidacy unless the agency certifies its (APPARENT) intrinsic suitability for the use intended, based on preliminary environmental analysis and on-site surveys and investigations conducted by the (AGENCY) council. The council shall provide to the agency data relating to the intrinsic suit- ability of the sites to be proposed as candidate sites as soon as available but no later than August 15, 1981. By September 1, 1981, the council shall propose at least six locations as candidate sites and the director of the agency shall issue a notice indicating which of those sites the director recommends be certified as intrinsically suitable. The director shall publish notice of a consolidated hearing on the recommendation. Notice shall be published in the state register and newspapers of general circulation in the metropolitan area and shall be sent by mail to local government units containing a proposed candidate site. The hearing shall be conducted by the state office of administrative hearings in a manner consistent with the completion of the proceedings and the hearing examiner's report to the agency in the time allowed by this section. The hearing shall afford all interested persons an opportunity to testify and present evidence on the subject of the hearing. The subject of the hearing shall be limited to information submitted by the council and additional information on the proposed sites which is relevant to the agency's decision on intrinsic suitability. The contested case procedures of chapter 15 shall not apply to this hearing. The report of the hearing examiner shall contain findings of fact, conclusions, and recommendations on the subject of the hearing. The agency shall make a final determination as to the intrinsic suitability of each proposed site and shall certify them accordingly by November 1, 1981. The agency shall not be required to promulgate rules pursuant to chapter 15 on criteria and standards to govern its certification of intrinsic suitability under this section. No action of the agency shall be held invalid by reason of the agency's failure to notify any of the entities listed in this subdivision. In selecting candidate sites, the council shall prefer land which is capable of being returned to its existing use or the use anticipated in a plan of a metropolitan agency, county, or local unit of government use after closure of a disposal facility.

Sec. 36. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 473.153, Subdivision 6, is amended to read:

Subd. 6. [COUNCIL SITE SELECTION.] Within 90 days following the agency's decision on permit conditions and terms, the council shall select at least one of the candidate sites for acquisition and development by the commission (AS A SEWAGE SLUDGE DISPOSAL FACILITY AND AT LEAST ONE OF THE CANDIDATE SITES FOR ACQUISITION AND DEVELOPMENT BY THE COMMISSION AS A SOLID WASTE DISPOSAL FACILITY). Before its selection the council shall consult with the advisory committee and affected counties, cities, and towns. The requirements of sections 473H.02 to 473H.17 shall not apply to the selection and acquisition of the sites.

Sec. 37. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 473.516, Subdivision 4, is amended to read:

Subd. 4. [TECHNICAL MONITORING; SEWAGE SLUDGE DISPOSAL.] Each sewage sludge disposal facility of the waste control commission, or site used for the disposal of sewage sludge of the commission, shall be required to have an agency permit issued pursuant to agency rules for permitting sewage sludge disposal facilities and sites. Each permit shall require a regular monitoring and testing program to be carried out by the waste control commission. A regular inspection program shall be conducted by the agency or a county under contract to the agency. The commission shall reimburse the agency quarterly for the cost of the program, and the amounts reimbursed are hereby appropriated to the agency for the purposes of the program. The commission shall attempt to the greatest practical extent to provide a sludge quality that permits desired nutrient loadings and minimizes elements not essential for plant growth when sludge is disposed of on private property as a soil conditioner or amendment. The commission shall provide recipients with information on the facility generating the sludge and the content of the sludge taken from its various treatment facilities.

Sec. 38. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 473.801, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 4. Unless otherwise provided the definitions of terms defined in section 115A.03 shall apply to sections 473.801 to 473.823.

Sec. 39. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 473.803, Subdivision 1a, is amended to read:

Subd. 1a. [PROPOSED INVENTORY OF DISPOSAL SITES.] By (JUNE) October (1) 15, 1981, each county shall adopt, by resolution of its governing body, an inventory of four proposed sites in the county suitable for mixed municipal solid waste disposal facilities and one proposed site in the county suitable for the disposal of demolition debris and shall submit the inventory to the council for approval or disapproval. The council shall evaluate and approve or disapprove each proposed site in accordance with the standards set out in this subdivision. Except as otherwise provided in this subdivision, each site shall satisfy the standards and criteria in federal and state regulations and the council's policy plan for solid waste management. In proposing and approving sites for the inventory, the counties and the council shall prefer land which is capable of being returned to its existing use or the use anticipated in a plan of a metropolitan agency, county, or local unit of government use after closure of a disposal facility. Each site shall contain no less than 80 acres and no more than 250 acres. Each proposed site shall be surrounded by a buffer area at least equal to the area of the site. No site shall be (PROPOSED BY THE COUNTY OR APPROVED) adopted by a county or the council as part of an inventory unless the agency certifies its intrinsic suitability for the use intended, based on preliminary environmental analysis and on site surveys and investigations conducted by the county (OR AGENCY). Notwithstanding any plan, charter provision, law, ordinance, regulation, or other requirement of any state agency or political subdivision, no land shall be excluded from consideration for inclusion in the inventory except land determined by the agency to be intrinsically unsuitable. Each county shall provide to the agency data relating to the intrinsic suitability of the sites to be proposed for the inventory as soon as available but no later than June 15, 1981. By July 1, 1981 each county shall propose at least the number of sites required for the inventory, and the director of the agency shall issue a notice indicating which of those sites the director recommends be certified as intrinsically suitable. Notice of hearings on the director's recommendation shall be published in the state register and newspapers of general circulation in the metropolitan area and shall be sent by mail to the metropolitan council and local government units containing a proposed inventory site. A hearing shall be held in each metropolitan county and shall be conducted by the state office of administrative hearings in a manner consistent with the completion of the proceedings and the hearing examiner's report to the agency in the time allowed by this section. The hearing shall afford all interested persons an opportunity to testify and present evidence on the subject of the hearing. The subject of the hearing shall be limited to information submitted by the county and additional information on the proposed sites which is relevant to the agency's decision on intrinsic suitability. The contested case procedures of chapter 15 shall not apply to this hearing. The report of the hearing examiner shall contain findings of fact, conclusions, and recommendations on the subject of the hearing. The agency shall make a final determination as to the intrinsic suitability of each proposed site and shall certify them accordingly by October 1, 1981. The agency shall not be required to promulgate rules pursuant to chapter 15 on criteria and standards to govern its certification of intrinsic suitability under this section. No action of the agency shall be held invalid by reason of the agency's failure to notify any of the entities listed in this subdivision. The council shall evaluate each site with respect to local land use and land use controls, the protection of agriculture and natural resources, existing and future development patterns, transportation facilities and other services and facilities appropriate to land disposal facilities, the quality of other potential sites, and patterns of generation of solid waste. The council shall notify a county of any site proposed by the county which the council disapproves and shall allow the county 60 days to propose an alternative site. If the county fails to propose an alternative acceptable to the council in the time allowed, the council shall propose a site acceptable to it for inclusion in the inventory of sites in that county. If in the council's judgment a county does not contain the requisite number of satisfactory sites, the council may reduce the number of sites required of that county. A moratorium is hereby imposed on development within the area of each site and buffer area proposed by a county, pending the council's adoption of an inventory pursuant to section 473.149, subdivision 2b. For sites and buffer areas included in the council's inventory, the moratorium shall extend until October 1, 1983. No development shall be allowed to occur within the area of a site or buffer area during the period of the moratorium. No county, city, or town land use control shall permit such development, nor shall any county, city, or town sanction or approve any subdivision, permit, license, or other authorization which would allow such development to occur.

Sec. 40. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 473.811, Subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [COUNTY FINANCING OF FACILITIES.] Each metropolitan county may by resolution authorize the issuance of bonds to provide funds for the acquisition or betterment of solid waste facilities or property or property rights for a solid waste facility, or for refunding any outstanding bonds issued for any such purpose, and may pledge to the payment of the bonds and the interest thereon, its full faith, credit and taxing powers, or the proceeds of any designated tax levies, or the gross or net revenues or charges to be derived from any facility operated by or for the county, or any combination thereof. Taxes levied for the payment of the bonds and interest shall not reduce the amounts of other taxes which the county is authorized by law to levy. The proceeds of the bonds may be used in part to establish a reserve as further security for the payment of the principal and interest of the bonds when due. Revenue bonds issued pursuant to this section may be sold at public or private sale upon such conditions as the county board shall determine, but any bonds to which the full faith and credit and taxing powers of the county are pledged shall be sold in accordance with the provisions of chapter 475. No election shall be required to authorize the issuance of the bonds. Except as otherwise provided, the bonds shall be issued and sold in accordance with the provisions of chapter 475.

Sec. 41. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 473.811, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 2a. [COUNTY SOLID WASTE INDUSTRIAL DEVELOPMENT REVENUE BONDS.] A metropolitan county may issue revenue bonds to finance solid waste and related facilities projects located inside or outside the boundaries of cities or towns described in section 368.01 under and pursuant to the provisions of chapter 474.

Sec. 42. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 473.811, Subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [COUNTY OPERATION OF FACILITIES.] Each metropolitan county may operate and maintain solid waste facilities, and for this purpose may employ all necessary personnel, may adopt regulations governing operation, and may establish and collect reasonable, non-discriminatory rates and charges for the use of the facilities by any local government unit or person, estimated to be sufficient, with any other moneys appropriated for the purpose, to pay all costs of acquisition, operation and maintenance. Each metropolitan county may use itself or sell all or any part of materials or energy recovered from solid waste to private interests or public agencies for consumption or reuse by them. Section 471.345 and Laws 1951, Chapter 556, as amended shall not apply to the sale of the materials or energy (PROVIDED THAT THE DEALINGS OF EACH COUNTY SHALL BE ON A COMPETITIVE BASIS SO AS NOT TO CREATE AN UNFAIR OR UNREASONABLE ADVANTAGE OR RESTRAINT OF TRADE ON THE PART OF THE COUNTY).

Sec. 43. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 473.811, Subdivision 4, is amended to read:

Subd. 4. [COUNTY CONTRACTS.] Each metropolitan county may contract for the acquisition or use of existing public or private solid waste facilities or any facilities deemed necessary or useful for resource recovery from solid waste and may contract with any person for the operation (AND) or maintenance, or both, of any solid waste facility owned by the county. The contract shall provide for the operation (AND) or maintenance, or both, of the facility in accordance with any regulations, criteria, and standards of the agency, the metropolitan council and the county relating thereto. Any contract for the operation or maintenance of a solid waste facility may provide for the sale of solid waste, materials, electric energy, steam or other product to the operator or for a fee payable to the operator, which may be a fixed fee, or a fee based on tonnage or a percentage of income or other measure, or any combination thereof. A metropolitan county may warrant to the operator of a solid waste facility or contract purchaser of any solid waste, materials, electric energy, steam or other product the quality, composition and available quantity of the solid waste, materials, electric energy, steam or other product to be sold or delivered.

Sec. 44. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 473.811, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 4b. [CONTRACTS; NEGOTIATION.] Notwithstanding any other law, a metropolitan county may contract for the acquisition, construction, improvement, maintenance or operation of solid waste facilities or property or property rights for solid waste facilities by any means available and in the manner determined by the county board, with or without advertisement for bids. A metropolitan county may select and employ a construction manager for construction and acquisition of solid waste facilities or property or property rights for solid waste facilities and negotiate and enter into a construction manage- ment agreement, which may but need not include a guaranteed maximum price. A construction manager shall give a bond to the county in accordance with section 574.26 if a construction management agreement provides for a guaranteed maximum price, provided that the amount of any bond furnished by any contractor or subcontractor for performance of and payment of labor and materials under a contract or subcontract for solid waste facilities or property or property rights for solid waste facilities included in the guaranteed maximum price may be substituted to the extent of the bond amount for the bond of the construction manager. A construction management agreement for acquisition and construction of solid waste facilities or property or property rights for solid waste facilities may be combined with a contract for maintenance or operation, or both, of the facilities and negotiated with the same person.

Sec. 45. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 473.811, Subdivision 5b, is amended to read:

Subd. 5b. [ORDINANCES; HAZARDOUS WASTE MANAGEMENT.] Each metropolitan county shall by ordinance establish and revise rules, regulations, and standards relating to (a) the identification of hazardous waste, (b) the labeling and classification of hazardous waste, (c) the collection, storage, transportation, processing, and disposal of hazardous waste, and (d) other matters necessary for the public health, welfare and safety. The county shall require permits or licenses for the generation, collection, processing, and disposal of hazardous waste and shall require registration with a county office. County hazardous waste ordinances shall embody and be consistent with agency hazardous waste rules. Counties shall submit adopted ordinances to the agency for review. In the event that agency rules are modified, each county shall modify its ordinances accordingly and shall submit the modification to the agency for review within 120 days. Issuing, denying, suspending, modifying, imposing conditions upon, or revoking hazardous waste permits or licenses, and county hazardous waste regulations and ordinances, shall be subject to review, denial, suspension, modification, and reversal by the agency. The agency shall after written notification have 15 days in the case of hazardous waste permits and licenses and 30 days in the case of hazardous waste ordinances to review, suspend, modify, or reverse the action of the county. After this period, the action of the county board shall be final subject to appeal to the district court in the manner provided in chapter 15.

Sec. 46. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 473.811, Subdivision 8, is amended to read:

Subd. 8. [COUNTY SALE OR LEASE.] Each metropolitan county may sell or lease any facilities or property or property rights previously used or acquired to accomplish the purposes specified by sections 473.149, 473.151, and 473.801 to 473.823 and sections 473.827, 473.831, 473.833, and 473.834. Such property may be sold in the manner provided by section 458.196, or may be sold in such other manner and on such terms and conditions as the county board shall determine. Each metropolitan county may convey to or permit the use of any such property by a local government unit, with or without compensation, without submitting the matter to the voters of the county. No real property or property rights acquired pursuant to this section, may be disposed of in any manner unless and until the county shall have submitted to the agency and the metropolitan council for review and comment the terms on and the use for which the property will be disposed of. The agency and the council shall review and comment on the proposed disposition within 60 days after each has received the data relating thereto from the county.

Sec. 47. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 473.831, Subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [GENERAL OBLIGATION BONDS.] (FOLLOWING THE ADOPTION OF THE REVISIONS TO ITS POLICY PLAN REQUIRED BY SECTION 473.149, SUBDIVISION 2E,) The council may by resolution authorize the issuance of general obligation bonds of the council to provide funds for the acquisition of sites and surrounding buffer areas for development as solid waste disposal facilities pursuant to this section and section 473.833 and to provide funds for refunding obligations issued under this section. The bonds shall be sold, issued, and secured in the manner provided in chapter 475 for general obligation bonds, and the council shall have the same power and duties as a municipality and its governing body in issuing bonds under chapter 475, except as otherwise provided in this chapter. No election shall be required, and the net debt limitations in chapter 475 shall not apply. The council shall have the power to levy ad valorem taxes for debt service of the council's solid waste bonds upon all taxable property within the metropolitan area, without limitation of rate or amount and without affecting the amount or rate of taxes which may be levied by the council for other purposes or by any local government unit in the area. Each of the county auditors shall annually assess and extend upon the tax rolls in his county the portion of the taxes levied by the council in each year which is certified to him by the council. The principal amount of bonds issued pursuant to this section shall not exceed $15,000,000.

Sec. 48. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 473.833, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 2a. [ENVIRONMENTAL ANALYSIS.] By January 1, 1983, each metropolitan county shall complete an analysis comparing the environmental effects of solid waste disposal facilities at the sites in the county which are included in the metropolitan inventory of solid waste disposal sites adopted by the metropolitan council pursuant to section 473.149, subdivision 2b. The analysis shall be in detail sufficient, in the judgment of the county board, to inform adequately the county site selection authority established under subdivision 3 of the environmental effects of facilities at sites within the county and to assure that facilities at the sites can reasonably be expected to qualify for permits in accordance with the rules of the agency.

Sec. 49. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 473.834, Subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [ALLOCATION OF DEBT SERVICE.] The annual debt service on the council's solid waste bonds, issued under section 473.831, shall be annually apportioned and certified by the council to each (CITY AND TOWN) county in the metropolitan area, in the proportion that the assessed value of all taxable property within (SUCH CITY OR TOWN) each county bears to the assessed value of the taxable property in all (SUCH CITIES AND TOWNS, AS LAST FINALLY EQUALIZED BEFORE OCTOBER 1 IN THE YEAR IN WHICH THE ALLOCATION IS MADE) the counties, except that the apportionment to each county shall first be adjusted to reflect exemptions from payment required by subdivision 1 and reductions in payment required by subdivision 3.

Sec. 50. [APPROPRIATIONS.]

Subdivision 1. The appropriation of $1,200,000 made available for certain purposes before June 30, 1981, by Laws 1980, Chapter 564, Article XII, Section 1, Subdivision 3, Clause (b), is available for expenditure for those purposes until expended.

"Governing body" means the city council of the city employing the city manager. "Election" means the election described in subdivision 2.

Subd. 2. [ELECTION.] A city manager may elect to be excluded from membership in the association. The election of exclusion shall be made within 30 days following the commencement of employment or within 30 days following the effective date of this act, whichever occurs later, in writing on a form prescribed by the executive director and shall be approved by a resolution of the governing body of the city. The election of exclusion shall not be effective until it is filed with the executive director. Membership of a city manager in the association shall cease on the date the written election is received by the executive director or upon a later date specified. The election to be excluded from membership shall include a provision agreeing that the person will not at any time in the future seek any authorization to purchase service credit for any period of excluded service and shall be irrevocable.

Subd. 3. [DEFERRED COMPENSATION; CITY CONTRIBUTION.] If an election of exclusion is made, and if the city manager and the governing body of the city agree in writing that the additional compensation is to be deferred and shall be contributed on behalf of the city manager to a deferred compensation program which meets the requirements of section 457 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, as amended through December 31, 1980, the governing body may compensate the city manager, in addition to the salary allowed under any limitation imposed on salaries by law or charter, in an amount equal to the employer contribution which would be required by section 353.27, subdivision 3, if the city manager were a member of the association.

Subd. 4. [REFUNDS; DEFERRED ANNUITY.] A city manager who makes an election to be excluded from membership is entitled to a refund of accumulated deductions or, if otherwise qualified, a deferred annuity in the manner provided by section 353.34, at the option of the manager.

Subd. 5. [ELECTION; OTHER EMPLOYMENT.] If a city manager who has made an election to be excluded accepts employment in another governmental subdivision or accepts employment other than as a city manager in the same city, the election shall be deemed to have been rescinded on the effective date of employment.

(15) The amount of any excluded gain recognized by a trust on the sale or exchange of property as defined in section 641 (c) (1) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954;

(17) To the extent not included in the taxpayer's federal adjusted gross income, the amount of any gain, from the sale or other disposition of property having a lower adjusted basis for Minnesota income tax purposes than for federal income tax purposes. This modification shall not exceed the difference in basis. If the gain is considered a long term capital gain for federal income tax purposes, the modification shall be limited to 50 percent of the portion of the gain. This modification is limited to property that qualified for the energy credit contained in section 290.06, subdivision 14, and to property acquired in exchange for the release of the taxpayer's marital rights contained in section 290.14, clause (9);

(2) The portion of any gain, from the sale or other disposition of property having a higher adjusted basis for Minnesota income tax purposes than for federal income tax purposes, that does not exceed such difference in basis; but if such gain is considered a long-term capital gain for federal income tax purposes, the modification shall be limited to 50 per centum of the portion

(4) Losses, not otherwise reducing federal adjusted gross income assignable to Minnesota, arising from events or transactions which are assignable to Minnesota under the provisions of sections 290.17 to 290.20, including any capital loss or net operating loss carryforwards or carrybacks resulting from the losses;

The maximum amount of this subtraction shall be $11,000 less the amount by which the individual's federal adjusted gross income, plus the ordinary income portion of a lump sum distribution as defined in section 402(e) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, exceeds $17,000. In the case of a volunteer firefighter who receives an involuntary lump sum distribution of his pension or retirement benefits, the maximum amount of this subtraction shall be $11,000; this subtraction shall not be reduced by the amount of the individual's federal adjusted gross income in excess of $17,000;

(c) Modifications affecting shareholders of electing small business corporations under section 1372 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, or section 290.972 of this chapter.

(1) Shareholders in a small business corporation, which has elected to be so taxed under the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, but has not made an election under section 290.972 of this chapter, shall deduct from federal adjusted gross income the amount of any imputed income from the corporation and shall add to federal adjusted gross income the amount of any loss claimed as a result of stock ownership. Also there shall be added to federal adjusted gross income the amount of any distributions in cash or property made by said corporation to its shareholders during the taxable year.

(2) In cases where the small business corporation has made an election under section 1372 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, but has not elected under section 290.972 of this chapter and the corporation is liquidated or the individual shareholder disposes of the stock and there is no capital loss reflected in federal adjusted gross income because of the fact that corporate losses have exhausted the shareholders basis for federal purposes, the shareholders shall be entitled, nevertheless, to a capital loss commensurate to their Minnesota basis for the stock.

(3) In cases where the election under section 1372 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 antedates the election under section 290.972 of this chapter and at the close of the taxable year immediately preceding the effective election under section 290.972 the corporation has a reserve of undistributed taxable income previously taxed to shareholders under the provisions of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, in the event and to the extent that the reserve is distributed to shareholders the distribution shall be taxed as a dividend for purposes of this act.

Items of gross income includible within these definitions shall be deemed such regardless of the form in which received. Items of gross income shall be included in gross income of the taxable year in which received by a taxpayer unless properly to be accounted for as of a different taxable year under methods of accounting permitted by section 290.07, except that (1) amounts transferred from a reserve or other account, if in effect transfers to surplus, shall, to the extent that the amounts were accumulated through deductions from gross income or entered into the computation of taxable net income during any taxable year, be treated as gross income for the year in which the transfer occurs, but only to the extent that the amounts resulted in a reduction of the tax imposed by this act, and (2) amounts received as refunds on account of taxes deducted from gross income during any taxable year shall be treated as gross income for the year in which actually received, but only to the extent that such amounts resulted in a reduction of the tax imposed by this act.
