Subdivision 1. Medical assistance may be paid for any person:

(1) Who is eligible for or receiving public assistance under the aid to families with dependent children program; or

(2) Who is pregnant, and such pregnancy has been medically verified, and who would be eligible for assistance under the program of aid to families with dependent children, if the child had been born and were living with her; or

(3) Who is eligible for or receiving supplemental security income for the aged, blind and disabled; or

((3)) (4) Who except for the amount of income or resources would qualify for supplemental security income for the aged, blind and disabled, or aid to families with dependent children and is in need of medical assistance; or

((4)) (5) Who is under 21 years of age and in need of medical care that neither he nor his relatives responsible under sections 256B.01 to 256B.26 are financially able to provide; or

((5)) (6) Who is residing in a hospital for treatment of mental disease or tuberculosis and is 65 years of age or older and without means sufficient to pay the per capita hospital charge; and

((6)) (7) Who resides in Minnesota, or, if absent from the state, is deemed to be a resident of Minnesota in accordance with the regulations of the state agency; and

((7)) (8) Who alone, or together with his spouse, does not own real property other than the homestead. For the purposes of this section, "homestead" means the house owned and occupied by the applicant as his dwelling place, together with the land upon which it is situated and an area no greater than two contiguous lots in a platted or laid out city or town or the smallest parcel allowed under applicable zoning regulations in unplatted land. Real estate not used as a home may not be retained unless it produces net income applicable to the family's needs or the family is making a continuing effort to sell it at a fair and reasonable price or unless sale of the real estate would net an insignificant amount of income applicable to the family's needs, or unless the commissioner determines that sale of the real estate would cause undue hardship; and

((8)) (9) Who individually does not own more than $2,000 in cash or liquid assets, or if a member of a household with two family members (husband and wife, or parent and child), does not own more than $4,000 in cash or liquid assets, plus $200 for each additional legal dependent. When only one spouse resides, or will reside after applying for medical assistance, in a nursing home, or is receiving or will receive alternative care under the alternative care grants program in a county with pre-admission screening under section 256B.091, the cash or liquid asset amount for two family members is $10,000. The value of the following shall not be included:

(a) the homestead, and (b) one motor vehicle licensed pursuant to chapter 168 and defined as: (1) passenger automobile, (2) station wagon, (3) motorcycle, (4) motorized bicycle or (5) truck of the weight found in categories A to E, of section 168.013, subdivision 1e; and

((9)) (10) Who has or anticipates receiving an annual income not in excess of $2,600 for a single person, or $3,250 for two family members (husband and wife, parent and child, or two siblings), plus $625 for each additional legal dependent, or who has income in excess of these maxima and in the month of application, or during the three months prior to the month of application, incurs expenses for medical care that total more than one-half of the annual excess income in accordance with the regulations of the state agency. In computing income to determine eligibility of persons who are not residents of long term care facilities, the commissioner shall disregard increases in income of social security or supplementary security income recipients due solely to increases required by sections 215(i) and 1617 of the social security act, and shall disregard income of disabled persons that is also disregarded in determining eligibility for supplemental aid under section 256D.37, subdivision 1, unless prohibited by federal law or regulation. If prohibited, the commissioner shall first seek a waiver. In excess income cases, eligibility shall be limited to a period of six months beginning with the first of the month in which these medical obligations are first incurred; and

((10)) (11) Who has continuing monthly expenses for medical care that are more than the amount of his excess income, computed on a monthly basis, in which case eligibility may be established before the total income obligation referred to in the preceding paragraph is incurred, and medical assistance payments may be made to cover the monthly unmet medical need. In licensed nursing home and state hospital cases, income over and above that required for justified needs, determined pursuant to a schedule of contributions established by the commissioner of public welfare, is to be applied to the cost of institutional care. The commissioner of public welfare may establish a schedule of contributions to be made by the spouse of a nursing home resident to the cost of care and shall seek a waiver from federal regulations which establish the amount required to be contributed by either spouse when one spouse is a nursing home resident; and

((11)) (12) Who has applied or agrees to apply all proceeds received or receivable by him or his spouse from automobile accident coverage and private health care coverage to the costs of medical care for himself, his spouse, and children. The state agency may require from any applicant or recipient of medical assistance the assignment of any rights accruing under private health care coverage. Any rights or amounts so assigned shall be applied against the cost of medical care paid for under this chapter. Any assignment shall not be effective as to benefits paid or provided under automobile accident coverage and private health care coverage prior to receipt of the assignment by the person or organization providing the benefits."

Sec. 5. [PLANS FOR DECLINING ENROLLMENT.]

Subdivision 1. [UNIVERSITY OF MINNESOTA; STATE UNIVERSITIES; COMMUNITY COLLEGES; AREA VOCATIONAL-TECHNICAL INSTITUTES.] The board of regents of the University of Minnesota, the state university board, the community college board, and the state board for vocational education shall each develop a plan for providing post secondary education services under conditions of declining or reduced enrollments. Each plan shall specify the fiscal implications of declining enrollments and a proposed strategy for potential campus mergers, reorganizations, changes in system governance or other methods of adjusting the present level of facilities and services to the projected level of reduced demand even to the point of campus closures, if deemed necessary. The purpose of the plan is to reduce the cost of present facilities and services in proportion to the reduction in enrollment. Each plan shall be submitted to the legislature by January 1, 1983.

Subd. 2. [FACTORS.] In determining strategies for the adjustment of present facilities and services to reduced levels of demand, the boards shall consider such factors as the system's mission, the impact of such adjustments on students, short-term and long-term enrollment trends, accessibility for the handicapped, fiscal implications, geographic accessibility to comparable institutions, availability of alternative programs, legal implications and feasibility of employee transfers.

Subd. 3. [STUDENT TRANSFERS.] In planning for reorganization, merger, or closing of campuses the boards shall, insofar as possible, plan to provide students with the opportunity to complete programs in their major course of study and to complete graduation requirements by transferring to other institutions. The plans should provide for full transfer of earned credits and flexibility in meeting graduation requirements to the extent possible.

Subd. 4. [PROCESS.] The central administration of each post secondary system shall develop and submit a plan to its state board. In the process of developing the plan the central administration of each system shall consult with the central administrations of the other systems. The plans shall provide for the maintenance of seniority, salary, fringe benefits and other employment terms insofar as possible consistent with the pertinent bargaining agreements, if any.

Sec. 6. Minnesota Statutes 1981 Supplement, Section 15.052, Subdivision 5, is amended to read:

Subd. 5. [COURT REPORTERS; AUDIO RECORDINGS.] The office of administrative hearings may maintain a court reporter system and in addition to or in lieu thereof may contract with nongovernmental sources for court reporter services. The court reporters may additionally be utilized as the chief hearing examiner directs. Unless the chief hearing examiner determines that the use of a court reporter is more appropriate, an audio magnetic recording device shall be used to keep a record at any hearing which takes place under this chapter or under chapter 176. (IN CASES ARISING UNDER CHAPTER 176, THE CHIEF HEARING EXAMINER, IN CONSULTATION WITH THE COMPENSATION JUDGE, SHALL DECIDE THE METHOD OF RECORDING.) If the chief hearing examiner determines that the use of an audio magnetic recording device is more appropriate, any party to a hearing under this chapter or chapter 176 may secure the services of a court reporter from the office of administrative hearings or from the chief hearing examiner's list of non-governmental sources to keep the record at the hearing. The person requesting the services of a court reporter shall be responsible for securing such services, notifying the court reporter in the event of a cancellation of the hearing and for the cost of the appearance of the court reporter at the hearing. The cost of a court reporter from the list of non-governmental sources shall be paid directly to the court reporter.

Court reporters serving in the court reporter system of the office of administrative hearings shall be in the classified service. Notwithstanding the provisions of section 15.17, subdivision 4, copies of transcriptions of hearings conducted pursuant to this section may be obtained only through the office of administrative hearings or the non-governmental source court reporter if used to record the hearing.

Sec. 7. Minnesota Statutes 1981 Supplement, Section 16A.128, is amended to read:

16A.128 [FEE ADJUSTMENTS.]

The fees fixed for the various accounts for which appropriations are made by law, shall be neither increased nor decreased except with the approval of the commissioner of finance. All these fees shall be reviewed at least once each six months, and, except in special fee situations as determined by the commissioner, adjustments shall be made to the end that the total fees received shall approximate the amount appropriated for the several accounts, plus the portion of the general support costs and statewide indirect costs of the agency that is attributable to the function for which the fee is charged. Fee adjustments authorized under this section may be made without a public hearing when the total fees estimated to be received during the fiscal biennium will not exceed (110 PERCENT OF) the sum of all direct appropriations, indirect costs, transfers in, and salary supplements for that purpose for the biennium.

Sec. 8. Minnesota Statutes 1981 Supplement, Section 176.081, Subdivision 7a, is amended to read:

Subd. 7a. At any time prior to one day before a matter is to be heard, a party litigating a claim made pursuant to this chapter may serve upon the adverse party a reasonable offer of settlement of the claim, with provision for costs and disbursements then accrued. If before the hearing the adverse party serves written notice that the offer is accepted, either party may then file the offer and notice of acceptance, together with the proof of service thereof, and thereupon judgment shall be entered.

If an offer by an employer or insurer is not accepted by the employee, it shall be deemed withdrawn and evidence thereof is not admissible, except in a proceeding to determine attorney's fees. Notwithstanding the provisions of subdivision 7, if the judgment finally obtained by the employee is less favorable than the offer, the employer shall not be liable for any part of the attorney's fees awarded pursuant to this section.

If an offer by an employee is not accepted by the employer or insurer, it shall be deemed withdrawn and evidence thereof is not admissible, except in a proceeding to determine attorney's fees. Notwithstanding the provisions of subdivision 7, if the judgment finally obtained by the employee is at least as favorable as the offer, the employer shall pay an additional 25 percent, over the amount provided in subdivision 7, of that portion of the attorney's fee which has been awarded pursuant to this section that is in excess of $250.

The fact that an offer is made but not accepted does not preclude a subsequent offer.

Cases settled under this section shall be conclusively presumed to be fair and reasonable and shall not be subject to approval by the commissioner or a compensation judge if all parties are represented by attorneys. Attorney's fees which are part of the settlement are subject to review by the commissioner who may reduce the fees included in the settlement. Failure of the commissioner to reduce the fees within 14 days after receiving the settlement shall be deemed approval. The commissioner may correct clerical or mathematical errors in these cases at any time.

Sec. 9. Minnesota Statutes 1981 Supplement, Section 176.371, is amended to read:

176.371 [AWARD OR DISALLOWANCE OF COMPENSATION.]

The compensation judge to whom a petition has been assigned for hearing, shall hear all relevant and competent evidence produced at the hearing (,). Unless all parties agree otherwise, the compensation judge shall insure that all testimony, motions, objections, arguments and comments of the parties or the compensation judge are recorded and, as soon after the hearing as possible, within 60 days after a matter has been finally submitted to the compensation judge, he shall make findings of fact, conclusions of law, and (AWARD OR DISALLOWANCE OF) an order allowing or disallowing compensation or other order as the pleadings, evidence, this chapter and rule require.

The findings of fact shall contain the facts as found by the compensation judge delineating the relevant employment history of the petitioner; the nature and extent of the injury or disability; the medical history, treatment and expenses directly related to the injury or disability; the nature and extent of the disability and duration thereof; the petitioner's wage rate during the dates of the disability; facts necessary to determine attorney's fees and costs to be awarded; and such other matters as may be necessary to a full determination of the issues in controversy.

The conclusions shall refer to the legal requirements of this chapter.

The order shall state whether the petitioner is entitled to benefits and the time periods for which the benefits are to be paid. The order shall include an award of attorney's fees and costs, if appropriate. If benefits are ordered to be paid, the compensation judge shall not calculate the actual benefit amounts. The actual calculations of benefit amounts shall be the responsibility of the employer or insurer subject to the authority of the commissioner to correct any mathematical errors.

A compensation judge shall attach a memorandum to the order only if necessary to delineate the resources for the decision or to discuss the credibility of witnesses. A memorandum shall not contain a recitation of the evidence presented at the hearing but shall be limited to the compensation judge's basis for the decision.

Sec. 10. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 176.421, Subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [NOTICE OF APPEAL.] The appellant or his attorney shall prepare and sign a written notice of appeal specifying:

- (1) the order appealed from;
- (2) that appellant appeals from the order to the workers' compensation court of appeals;
- (3) the particular finding of fact or conclusion of law which he claims was unwarranted by the evidence or procured by fraud, coercion, or other improper conduct; (AND,)
- (4) the testimony or other part of the record of the hearing necessary to be transcribed in order for the court of appeals to consider the appeal; and,
- (5) any other ground upon which the appeal is taken.

Sec. 11. Minnesota Statutes 1981 Supplement, Section 176.421, Subdivision 4, is amended to read:

Subd. 4. [SERVICE AND FILING OF NOTICE; COST OF TRANSCRIPT.] Within the 30 day period for taking an appeal, the appellant shall:

- (1) Serve a copy of the notice of appeal on each adverse party;
- (2) File the original notice, with proof of service by admission or affidavit, with the chief hearing examiner and file a copy with the commissioner;
- (3) In order to defray the cost of the (TRANSCRIPT) preparation of the record of the proceedings appealed from, pay to the (CHIEF HEARING EXAMINER) state treasurer, the sum of ($10 OR SO MUCH OF THAT SUM AS IS NECESSARY TO PRESENT THE QUESTION RAISED ON THE APPEAL) $25.

(THE APPELLANT IS LIABLE FOR THE COST OF THE TRANSCRIPT IN EXCESS OF $10, BUT IS ENTITLED TO A REFUND OF ANY PART OF THAT SUM NOT USED TO PAY THE COST OF THE TRANSCRIPT.)

- (4) Submit a request that the chief hearing examiner order the preparation of a transcription of that part of the hearing delineated in the notice of appeal if the record of the hearing was kept by an audio magnetic recording device or a court reporter who is an employee of the office of administrative hearings.

If the hearing was recorded by a court reporter who is not an employee of the office of administrative hearings, the appellant shall, on the same date the notice of appeal is filed, request the court reporter to prepare a transcription of that part of the hearing delineated in the notice of appeal.

If any party desires a transcription of more of the hearing than has been requested by the appellant, that party shall, within five working days of service of the notice of appeal, make that request of the chief hearing examiner or the non-employee court reporter, whichever is appropriate.

The party requesting the preparation of the transcript or any part thereof is liable for the cost of preparation.

Upon a showing of cause, the chief hearing examiner may direct that a transcript be prepared without expense to the (APPELLANT) party requesting its preparation, in which case the cost of the transcript shall be paid by the office of administrative hearings.

Sec. 12. Minnesota Statutes 1981 Supplement, Section 176.421, Subdivision 5, is amended to read:

Subd. 5. [TRANSCRIPT; CERTIFICATION OF THE RECORD.] When the notice of appeal has been filed with the chief hearing examiner and the (TRANSCRIPTION) preparation of the record fee has been paid, the chief hearing examiner shall immediately (PREPARE) insure that a typewritten transcript of the proceedings is prepared. The official reporter or other person designated by the chief hearing examiner who transcribes the proceedings shall certify to their correctness.

If the transcript is prepared by a person who is not an employee of the office of administrative hearings, upon completion of the transcript, the original shall be filed with the chief hearing examiner.

When the transcript has been completed and is on file with the chief hearing examiner, he shall certify the record to the workers' compensation court of appeals and notify the commissioner of the certification.

Sec. 13. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 176.521, as amended by Laws 1981, Chapter 346, Sections 134 and 135, is amended to read:

176.521 [SETTLEMENT OF CLAIMS.]

Subdivision 1. [VALIDITY.] An agreement between an employee or his dependent and the employer or insurer to settle any claim, which is not upon appeal before the workers' compensation court of appeals, for compensation under this chapter is valid where it has been executed in writing and signed by the parties (,) and intervenors in the matter, and, where one or more of the parties is not represented by an attorney, the division or a compensation judge has approved the settlement and made an award thereon. If the matter is upon appeal before the workers' compensation court of appeals or district court, the workers' compensation court of appeals or district court is the approving body.

Subd. 2. [APPROVAL.] Settlements shall be approved only where the terms conform with this chapter.

The division, a compensation judge, (AND) the workers' compensation court of appeals and the district court shall exercise discretion in approving or disapproving a proposed settlement.

The parties to the agreement of settlement have the burden of proving that the settlement is reasonable, fair, and in conformity with this chapter. A settlement agreement where both the employee or his dependent and the employer or insurer and intervenors in the matter are represented by an attorney shall be conclusively presumed to be reasonable, fair, and in conformity with this chapter.

Subd. 3. [COMMISSIONER.] When a settled case is not subject to approval, upon receipt of the stipulation for settlement, a compensation judge shall refer the matter to the chief hearing examiner who shall immediately refer the file to the commissioner. Attorney's fees which are part of the settlement are subject to review by the commissioner who may reduce the fees included in the settlement. Failure of the commissioner to reduce the fees within 14 days after receiving the settlement shall be deemed approval. The commissioner may correct mathematical or clerical errors at any time.

Subd. (3) 4. [SETTING ASIDE AWARD UPON SETTLEMENT.] Notwithstanding any provision in the agreement of settlement to the contrary, upon the filing of a petition by any party to the settlement and after hearing agreement thereon, the workers' compensation court of appeals may set aside an award made upon a settlement, pursuant to this chapter. In such cases, the workers' compensation court of appeals shall refer the matter to the chief hearing examiner for assignment to a compensation judge for hearing on those issues it deems necessary to a final determination.

A life insurance policy not matured by actual proof of the death of the insured is deemed to be matured and the proceeds thereof are deemed to be due and payable if such policy was in force when the insured attained the limiting age under the mortality table on which the reserve is based, unless the person appearing entitled thereto has within the preceding (SEVEN) five years, (1) assigned, readjusted or paid premiums on the policy, or subjected the policy to loan, or (2) corresponded in writing with the life insurance corporation concerning the policy. Reported the same back with the following amendments:

Delete everything after the enacting clause and insert:

"Section 1. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 121.904, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 4a. [LEVY RECOGNITION.] Beginning with taxes assessed in 1982, payable in 1983, and thereafter, all current levies of local taxes, including portions assumed by the state, shall be recognized as receivable in the same fiscal year during which collection normally takes place. These receivables shall be for use in the current fiscal year. Settlements of current taxes received by a school district on or before June 30 shall be recorded as revenue in the fiscal year ending on that June 30.

Sec. 2. [124.115] [AID REDUCTIONS DUE TO TAX LEVY REVENUE RECOGNITION CHANGE.]

Subdivision 1. [AUTHORIZATION.] Notwithstanding any law to the contrary, state aid due school districts in fiscal year 1983 shall be reduced as provided in this section.

Subd. 2. [AMOUNT OF REDUCTION.] State aid due any school district in fiscal year 1983 under the provisions enumerated in subdivision 3 shall be reduced by 93 percent of the amount the district levied for taxes assessed in 1982, payable in 1983, which is to be recognized as revenue in fiscal year 1983 pursuant to section 1, exclusive of any levy portions that are assumed by the state. For purposes of computing this state aid reduction, the amount levied by the district shall not include the amounts levied to make payments for bonds issued and for interest thereon; the amounts necessary for repayment of debt service loans and capital loans; the amounts necessary to pay the district's obligations under section 268.06, subdivision 25; and amounts levied pursuant to section 275.125, subdivisions 6a, 9a, 14a and 20.

Subd. 3. [SUBTRACTION FROM AIDS.] The amount specified in subdivision 2 shall be subtracted from the following state aid payments in the order listed in fiscal year 1983:

(a) Foundation aid as defined in section 124.212, subdivision 1;

(b) Secondary vocational aid as defined in section 124.573;

- (k) Community education programs aid authorized in section 124.271;
- (l) Adult education aid authorized in section 124.26;
- (m) Capital expenditure equalization aid authorized in section 124.245;
- (n) Homestead credit payments authorized in section 273.13, subdivisions 6, 7, and 14a;
- (o) Taconite homestead credit payments authorized in section 273.135;
- (p) Wetlands credit authorized in section 273.115;
- (q) Native prairie credit authorized in section 273.116; and
- (r) Attached machinery aid authorized in section 273.138, subdivision 3.

If necessary, state aid payments in fiscal year 1984 and subsequent years may be reduced until the entire amount specified in subdivision 2 has been subtracted.

Subd. 4. [ACCOUNTING.] Notwithstanding any law to the contrary, the amount of the levy subtracted from state aid payments shall be recognized and reported on the school district books of account in the same way that the state aid payments would have been recognized and reported. Seven percent of the amount the district levied for taxes in 1982, payable in 1983, which is to be recognized as revenue in fiscal year 1983, excluding levy portions assumed by the state, and excluding amounts levied to make payments for bonds issued and for interest thereon, amounts necessary for repayment of debt service loans and capital loans, amounts necessary to pay the district's obligations under section 268.06, subdivision 25, and amounts levied pursuant to section 275.125, subdivisions 6a, 9a, 14a, and 20, shall be placed in the general fund of the district, and may be expended for any lawful purpose.

Sec. 3. Minnesota Statutes 1981 Supplement, Section 124.2121, Subdivision 5, is amended to read:

Subd. 5. [LEVY USE.] A levy "for use in a particular school year," "attributable to a particular school year," or "recognized as revenue in a particular school year," means the (LEVY CERTIFIED IN THE CALENDAR YEAR ENDING IN THE) portion of the levy payable during that school year (PRECEDING THAT PARTICULAR SCHOOL YEAR, AND PAYABLE IN THE CALENDAR YEAR IN WHICH THAT SCHOOL YEAR BEGINS).

Sec. 4. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 276.11, is amended to read:

276.11 [WHEN TREASURER SHALL PAY FUNDS.]

As soon as practical after each settlement in March, June, and November the county treasurer shall pay over to the state treasurer or the treasurer of any town, city, school district, or special district, on the warrant of the county auditor, all receipts arising from taxes levied by and belonging to the state, or to such municipal corporation, or other body, and deliver up all orders and other evidences of indebtedness of such municipal corporation or other body, taking triplicate receipts therefor. He shall file one of the receipts with the county auditor, and shall return one by mail on the day of its reception to the clerk of the town, city, school district, or special district to which payment was made. The clerk shall preserve the receipt in his office. Upon written request of the state, a municipal corporation or other public body, the county treasurer shall, to the extent practicable, make partial payments of amounts collected periodically in advance of the next settlement and distribution. Accompanying each payment shall be a statement prepared by the county treasurer designating the years for which taxes included in the payment were collected and, for each year, the amount of the taxes and any penalties thereon. The county treasurer shall pay, upon written request of the state, a municipal corporation or other public body (PAY) except school districts, at least 70 percent of the estimated collection within 30 days after the settlement date. Within 15 days after the settlement date, the county treasurer shall pay to the treasurer of the school districts at least 70 percent of the estimated collections arising from taxes levied by and belonging to the school district. He shall pay the balance of the amounts collected to the state or to a municipal corporation or other body within 60 days after the settlement date, provided, however, that after 45 days interest shall accrue at a rate of eight percent per annum to the credit of and shall be paid to the state, municipal corporation or other body. Interest shall be payable upon appropriation from the general revenue fund of the county and, if not paid, may be recovered by the state, municipal corporation, or other body, in a civil action.

Sec. 5. [CASH FLOW LOAN FUND.]

Subdivision 1. There shall be maintained in the state treasury a "cash flow loan fund" for administration of moneys to be received and disbursed as authorized in this section. The purpose of this fund is to alleviate the impact of altering the recognition of tax revenue pursuant to sections 1 to 6 on the cash flow needs of the school districts. Notwithstanding Minnesota Statutes, Section 11A.20, Subdivision 3, the investment income on funds credited to the cash flow loan fund shall be accrued and credited to the cash flow loan fund.

Subd. 2. [LOAN APPLICATIONS; REPAYMENTS.] The commissioner of education shall establish procedures for loan applications and criteria for determining increased cash flow needs of school districts caused by the altering of recognition of tax revenue. The commissioner shall approve or disapprove loan applications on the basis of need. Any loan made pursuant to this section shall constitute an advance to the district without interest. For loans made in the 1982-1983 and 1983-1984 school years, the school district shall repay the full amount of the loan by July 25 of the next fiscal year or within five days of receiving final payment of the May tax settlement attributable to that particular school year, whichever is earlier. For loans made in the 1984-1985 school year, the school district shall repay the full amount of the loan by June 25, 1985.

Subd. 3. [REPEALER; CANCELLATION.] This section is repealed on June 30, 1985 and any unexpended moneys in the cash flow loan fund as of June 29, 1985 shall be cancelled into the general fund.

Subd. 4. [APPROPRIATION.] There is appropriated from the general fund to the department of education for the cash flow loan fund the sum of $40,000,000. This sum shall be transferred to the cash flow loan fund as needed but the balance of the untransferred funds shall be transferred no later than June 29, 1983. Any unexpended balances in the cash flow loan fund on June 30, 1983 shall not cancel and shall be available for loans to be made in fiscal years 1984 and 1985.

Sec. 6. [LEGISLATURE TO EVALUATE CASH FLOW.]

Before July 1, 1982, the legislature intends to evaluate the effect of sections 1 to 8 on the cash flow needs of school districts, and to reschedule the timing of payment of state aids and credits to school districts to the extent needed to ensure that the cash position of school districts is sufficiently favorable to ensure efficient operation.

Sec. 7. [EDUCATION AIDS; APPROPRIATION REDUCTION.]

The total general fund appropriation to the department of education for education aids for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1983 is reduced by $88,700,000. The commissioner of education shall apportion this reduction among school districts, public library systems, multi-type library systems, educational cooperative service units, and regional management information systems.

Sec. 8. [REPEALER.]

Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 121.904, Subdivision 4, is repealed, effective January 1, 1983.

Sec. 9. [EFFECTIVE DATE.]

Sections 1 to 7 are effective July 1, 1982."

Sec. 6. Minnesota Statutes 1981 Supplement, Section 15-052, Subdivision 5, is amended to read:

Subd. 5. [COURT REPORTERS; AUDIO RECORDINGS.] The office of administrative hearings may maintain a court reporter system and in addition to or in lieu thereof may contract with nongovernmental sources for court reporter services. The court reporters may additionally be utilized as the chief hearing examiner directs. Unless the chief hearing examiner determines that the use of a court reporter is more appropriate, an audio magnetic recording device shall be used to keep a record at any hearing which takes place under this chapter or under chapter 176. (IN CASES ARISING UNDER CHAPTER 176, THE CHIEF HEARING EXAMINER, IN CONSULTATION WITH THE COMPENSATION JUDGE, SHALL DECIDE THE METHOD OF RECORDING.) If the chief hearing examiner determines that the use of an audio magnetic recording device is more appropriate, any party to a hearing under this chapter or chapter 176 may secure the services of a court reporter from the office of administrative hearings or from the chief hearing examiner's list of non-governmental sources to keep the record at the hearing. The person requesting the services of a court reporter shall be responsible for securing such services, notifying the court reporter in the event of a cancellation of the hearing and for the cost of the appearance of the court reporter at the hearing. The cost of a court reporter from the list of non-governmental sources shall be paid directly to the court reporter.

Court reporters serving in the court reporter system of the office of administrative hearings shall be in the classified service. Notwithstanding the provisions of section 15.17, subdivision 4, copies of transcriptions of hearings conducted pursuant to this section may be obtained only through the office of administrative hearings or the non-governmental source court reporter if used to record the hearing.

16A.128 [FEE ADJUSTMENTS.]

The fees fixed for the various accounts for which appropriations are made by law, shall be neither increased nor decreased except with the approval of the commissioner of finance. All these fees shall be reviewed at least once each six months, and except in special fee situations as determined by the commissioner, adjustments shall be made to the end that the total fees received shall approximate the amount appropriated for the several accounts, plus the portion of the general support costs and statewide indirect costs of the agency that is attributable to the function for which the fee is charged. Fee adjustments authorized under this section may be made without a public hearing when the total fees estimated to be received during the fiscal biennium will not exceed (110 PERCENT OF) the sum of all direct appropriations, indirect costs, transfers in, and salary supplements for that purpose for the biennium.

Sec. 8. Minnesota Statutes 1981 Supplement, Section 176.081, Subdivision 7a, is amended to read:

Subd. 7a. At any time prior to one day before a matter is to be heard, a party litigating a claim made pursuant to this chapter may serve upon the adverse party a reasonable offer of settlement of the claim, with provision for costs and disbursements then accrued. If before the hearing the adverse party serves written notice that the offer is accepted, either party may then file the offer and notice of acceptance, together with the proof of service thereof, and thereupon judgment shall be entered.

If an offer by an employer or insurer is not accepted by the employee, it shall be deemed withdrawn and evidence thereof is not admissible, except in a proceeding to determine attorney's fees. Notwithstanding the provisions of subdivision 7, if the judgment finally obtained by the employee is less favorable than the offer, the employer shall not be liable for any part of the attorney's fees awarded pursuant to this section.

If an offer by an employee is not accepted by the employer or insurer, it shall be deemed withdrawn and evidence thereof is not admissible, except in a proceeding to determine attorney's fees. Notwithstanding the provisions of subdivision 7, if the judgment finally obtained by the employee is at least as favorable as the offer, the employer shall pay an additional 25 percent, over the amount provided in subdivision 7, of that portion of the attorney's fee which has been awarded pursuant to this section that is in excess of $250.

The fact that an offer is made but not accepted does not preclude a subsequent offer.

Cases settled under this section shall be conclusively presumed to be fair and reasonable and shall not be subject to approval by the commissioner or a compensation judge if all parties are represented by attorneys. Attorney's fees which are part of the settlement are subject to review by the commissioner who may reduce the fees included in the settlement. Failure of the commissioner to reduce the fees within 14 days after receiving the settlement shall be deemed approval. The commissioner may correct clerical or mathematical errors in these cases at any time.

Sec. 9. Minnesota Statutes 1981 Supplement, Section 176.371, is amended to read:

176.371 [AWARD OR DISALLOWANCE OF COMPENSATION.]

The compensation judge to whom a petition has been assigned for hearing, shall hear all relevant and competent evidence produced at the hearing (.). Unless all parties agree otherwise, the compensation judge shall insure that all testimony, motions, objections, arguments and comments of the par- ties or the compensation judge are recorded and, as soon after the hearing as possible, within 60 days after a matter has been finally submitted to the compensation judge, he shall make findings of fact, conclusions of law, and (AWARD OR DISALLOWANCE OF) an order allowing or disallowing compensation or other order as the pleadings, evidence, this chapter and rule require.

The findings of fact shall contain the facts as found by the compensation judge delineating the relevant employment history of the petitioner; the nature and extent of the injury or disability; the medical history, treatment and expenses directly related to the injury or disability; the nature and extent of the disability and duration thereof; the petitioner's wage rate during the dates of the disability; facts necessary to determine attorney's fees and costs to be awarded; and such other matters as may be necessary to a full determination of the issues in controversy.

The conclusions shall refer to the legal requirements of this chapter.

The order shall state whether the petitioner is entitled to benefits and the time periods for which the benefits are to be paid. The order shall include an award of attorney's fees and costs, if appropriate. If benefits are ordered to be paid, the compensation judge shall not calculate the actual benefit amounts. The actual calculations of benefit amounts shall be the responsibility of the employer or insurer subject to the authority of the commissioner to correct any mathematical errors.

A compensation judge shall attach a memorandum to the order only if necessary to delineate the resources for the decision or to discuss the credibility of witnesses. A memorandum shall not contain a recitation of the evidence presented at the hearing but shall be limited to the compensation judge's basis for the decision.

Sec. 10. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 176.421, Subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [NOTICE OF APPEAL.] The appellant or his attorney shall prepare and sign a written notice of appeal specifying:

(THE APPELLANT IS LIABLE FOR THE COST OF THE TRANSCRIPT IN EXCESS OF $10, BUT IS ENTITLED TO A REFUND OF ANY PART OF THAT SUM NOT USED TO PAY THE COST OF THE TRANSCRIPT.)

(4) Submit a request that the chief hearing examiner order the preparation of a transcription of that part of the hearing delineated in the notice of appeal if the record of the hearing was kept by an audio magnetic recording device or a court reporter who is an employee of the office of administrative hearings.

If the hearing was recorded by a court reporter who is not an employee of the office of administrative hearings, the appellant shall, on the same date the notice of appeal is filed, request the court reporter to prepare a transcription of that part of the hearing delineated in the notice of appeal.

If any party desires a transcription of more of the hearing than has been requested by the appellant, that party shall, within five working days of service of the notice of appeal, make that request of the chief hearing examiner or the non-employee court reporter, whichever is appropriate.

The party requesting the preparation of the transcript or any part thereof is liable for the cost of preparation.

Upon a showing of cause, the chief hearing examiner may direct that a transcript be prepared without expense to the (APPELLANT) party requesting its preparation, in which case the cost of the transcript shall be paid by the office of administrative hearings.

Sec. 12. Minnesota Statutes 1981 Supplement, Section 176.421, Subdivision 5, is amended to read:

Subd. 5. [TRANSCRIPT; CERTIFICATION OF THE RECORD.] When the notice of appeal has been filed with the chief hearing examiner and the (TRANSCRIPTION) preparation of the record fee has been paid, the chief hearing examiner shall immediately (PREPARE) insure that a type-written transcript of the proceedings is prepared. The official reporter or other person designated by the chief hearing examiner who transcribes the proceedings shall certify to their correctness.

If the transcript is prepared by a person who is not an employee of the office of administrative hearings, upon completion of the transcript, the original shall be filed with the chief hearing examiner.

When the transcript has been completed and is on file with the chief hearing examiner, he shall certify the record to the workers' compensation court of appeals and notify the commissioner of the certification.

The division, a compensation judge, (AND) the workers' compensation court of appeals and the district court shall exercise discretion in approving or disapproving a proposed settlement.

The parties to the agreement of settlement have the burden of proving that the settlement is reasonable, fair, and in conformity with this chapter. A settlement agreement where both the employee or his dependent and the employer or insurer and intervenors in the matter are represented by an attorney shall be conclusively presumed to be reasonable, fair, and in conformity with this chapter.

Subd. 3. [COMMISSIONER.] When a settled case is not subject to approval, upon receipt of the stipulation for settlement, a compensation judge shall refer the matter to the chief hearing examiner who shall immediately refer the file to the commissioner. Attorney's fees which are part of the settlement are subject to review by the commissioner who may reduce the fees included in the settlement. Failure of the commissioner to reduce the fees within 14 days after receiving the settlement shall be deemed approval. The commissioner may correct mathematical or clerical errors at any time.

Subd. (3) 4. [SETTING ASIDE AWARD UPON SETTLEMENT.] Notwithstanding any provision in the agreement of settlement to the contrary, upon the filing of a petition by any party to the settlement and after hearing agreement thereon, the workers' compensation court of appeals may set aside an award made upon a settlement, pursuant to this chapter. In such cases, the workers' compensation court of appeals shall refer the matter to the chief hearing examiner for assignment to a compensation judge for hearing on those issues it deems necessary to a final determination.

Subd. 4a. [LEVY RECOGNITION.] Beginning with taxes assessed in 1982, payable in 1983, and thereafter, all current levies of local taxes, including portions assumed by the state, shall be recognized as receivable in the same fiscal year during which collection normally takes place. These receivables shall be for use in the current fiscal year. Settlements of current taxes received by a school district on or before June 30 shall be recorded as revenue in the fiscal year ending on that June 30.

Sec. 2. [124.115] [AID REDUCTIONS DUE TO TAX LEVY REVENUE RECOGNITION CHANGE.]

Subdivision 1. [AUTHORIZATION.] Notwithstanding any law to the contrary, state aid due school districts in fiscal year 1983 shall be reduced as provided in this section.

Subd. 2. [AMOUNT OF REDUCTION.] State aid due any school district in fiscal year 1983 under the provisions enumerated in subdivision 3 shall be reduced by 93 percent of the amount the district levied for taxes assessed in 1982, payable in 1983, which is to be recognized as revenue in fiscal year 1983 pursuant to section 1, exclusive of any levy portions that are assumed by the state. For purposes of computing this state aid reduction, the amount levied by the district shall not include the amounts levied to make payments for bonds issued and for interest thereon; the amounts necessary for repayment of debt service loans and capital loans; the amounts necessary to pay the district's obligations under section 268.06, subdivision 25; and amounts levied pursuant to section 275.125, subdivisions 6a, 9a, 14a, and 20.

Subd. 3. [SUBTRACTION FROM AIDS.] The amount specified in subdivision 2 shall be subtracted from the following state aid payments in the order listed in fiscal year 1983:

- (a) Foundation aid as defined in section 124.212, subdivision 1;*
- (b) Secondary vocational aid as defined in section 124.573;*
- (c) Special education aid authorized in section 124.32;*

(h) Aid for chemical use programs authorized in section 124.246;

(i) Transportation aid authorized in section 124.225;

(l) Adult education aid authorized in section 124.26;

(m) Capital expenditure equalization aid authorized in section 124.245;

(n) Homestead credit payments authorized in section 273.13, subdivisions 6, 7, and 14a;

(o) Taconite homestead credit payments authorized in section 273.135;

(p) Wetlands credit authorized in section 273.115;

(q) Native prairie credit authorized in section 273.116; and

(r) Attached machinery aid authorized in section 273.138, subdivision 3.

If necessary, state aid payments in fiscal year 1984 and subsequent years may be reduced until the entire amount specified in subdivision 2 has been subtracted.

Subd. 4. [ACCOUNTING.] Notwithstanding any law to the contrary, the amount of the levy subtracted from state aid payments shall be recognized and reported on the school district books of account in the same way that the state aid payments would have been recognized and reported. Seven percent of the amount the district levied for taxes in 1982, payable in 1983, which is to be recognized as revenue in fiscal year 1983, excluding levy portions assumed by the state, and excluding amounts levied to make payments for bonds issued and for interest thereon, amounts necessary for repayment of debt service loans and capital loans, amounts necessary to pay the district's obligations under section 268.06, subdivision 25, and amounts levied pursuant to section 275.125, subdivisions 6a, 9a, 14a, and 20, shall be placed in the general fund of the district, and may be expended for any lawful purpose.

Sec. 3. Minnesota Statutes 1981 Supplement, Section 124.-2121, Subdivision 5, is amended to read:

Subd. 5. [LEVY USE.] A levy "for use in a particular school year," "attributable to a particular school year," or "recognized as revenue in a particular school year," means the (LEVY CERTIFIED IN THE CALENDAR YEAR ENDING IN THE) portion of the levy payable during that school year (PRECEDING THAT PARTICULAR SCHOOL YEAR, AND PAYABLE IN THE CALENDAR YEAR IN WHICH THAT SCHOOL YEAR BEGINS).

276.11 [WHEN TREASURER SHALL PAY FUNDS.]

As soon as practical after each settlement in March, June, and November the county treasurer shall pay over to the state treasurer or the treasurer of any town, city, school district, or special district, on the warrant of the county auditor, all receipts arising from taxes levied by and belonging to the state, or to such municipal corporation, or other body, and deliver up all orders and other evidences of indebtedness of such municipal corporation or other body, taking triplicate receipts therefor. He shall file one of the receipts with the county auditor, and shall return one by mail on the day of its reception to the clerk of the town, city, school district, or special district to which payment was made. The clerk shall preserve the receipt in his office. Upon written request of the state, a municipal corporation or other public body, the county treasurer shall, to the extent practicable, make partial payments of amounts collected periodically in advance of the next settlement and distribution. Accompanying each payment shall be a statement prepared by the county treasurer designating the years for which taxes included in the payment were collected and, for each year, the amount of the taxes and any penalties thereon. The county treasurer shall pay, upon written request of the state, a municipal corporation or other public body (PAY) except school districts, at least 70 percent of the estimated collection within 30 days after the settlement date. Within 15 days after the settlement date, the county treasurer shall pay to the treasurer of the school districts at least 70 percent of the estimated collections arising from taxes levied by and belonging to the school district. He shall pay the balance of the amounts collected to the state or to a municipal corporation or other body within 60 days after the settlement date, provided, however, that after 45 days interest shall accrue at a rate of eight percent per annum to the credit of and shall be paid to the state, municipal corporation or other body. Interest shall be payable upon appropriation from the general revenue fund of the county and, if not paid, may be recovered by the state, municipal corporation, or other body, in a civil action.

Sec. 5. [CASH FLOW LOAN FUND.]

Subdivision 1. There shall be maintained in the state treasury a "cash flow loan fund" for administration of moneys to be received and disbursed as authorized in this section. The purpose of this fund is to alleviate the impact of altering the recognition of tax revenue pursuant to sections 1 to 6 on the cash flow needs of the school districts. Notwithstanding Minnesota Statutes, Section 11A.20, Subdivision 3, the investment income on funds credited to the cash flow loan fund shall be accrued and credited to the cash flow loan fund.

Subd. 2. [LOAN APPLICATIONS; REPAYMENTS.] The commissioner of education shall establish procedures for loan applications and criteria for determining increased cash flow needs of school districts caused by the altering of recognition of tax revenue. The commissioner shall approve or disapprove loan applications on the basis of need. Any loan made pursuant to this section shall constitute an advance to the district without interest. For loans made in the 1982-1983 and 1983-1984 school years, the school district shall repay the full amount of the loan by July 25 of the next fiscal year or within five days of receiving final payment of the May tax settlement attributable to that particular school year, whichever is earlier. For loans made in the 1984-1985 school year, the school district shall repay the full amount of the loan by June 25, 1985.

Subd. 3. [REPEALER; CANCELLATION.] This section is repealed on June 30, 1985 and any unexpended moneys in the cash flow loan fund as of June 29, 1985 shall be cancelled into the general fund.

Subd. 4. [APPROPRIATION.] There is appropriated from the general fund to the department of education for the cash flow loan fund the sum of $40,000,000. This sum shall be transferred to the cash flow loan fund as needed but the balance of the untransferred funds shall be transferred no later than June 29, 1983. Any unexpended balances in the cash flow loan fund on June 30, 1983 shall not cancel and shall be available for loans to be made in fiscal years 1984 and 1985.

Sec. 6. [LEGISLATURE TO EVALUATE CASH FLOW.]

Before July 1, 1982, the legislature intends to evaluate the effect of sections 1 to 8 on the cash flow needs of school districts, and to reschedule the timing of payment of state aids and credits to school districts to the extent needed to ensure that the cash position of school districts is sufficiently favorable to ensure efficient operation.

Sec. 7. [EDUCATION AIDS; APPROPRIATION REDUCTION.]

The total general fund appropriation to the department of education for education aids for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1983 is reduced by $88,700,000. The commissioner of education shall apportion this reduction among school districts, public library systems, multi-type library systems, educational cooperative service units, and regional management information systems.

Sec. 8. [REPEALER.]

Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 121.904, Subdivision 4, is repealed, effective January 1, 1983.

Sec. 9. [EFFECTIVE DATE.]

Sections 1 to 7 are effective July 1, 1982.

Sec. 3. [AUTHORITY TO BORROW MONEY.]

Subdivision 1. [BORROWING IN ANTICIPATION OF AIDS.] The governing body of the municipality may borrow money in anticipation of the receipt of state aids, payments, reimbursements or fund transfers scheduled to be made on or before February 26, 1982, and may issue certificates of indebtedness upon passage of a resolution specifying the amount and purposes for which it deems the borrowing is necessary. An assignment is effective only upon registration of the assignment with the commissioner. The commissioner shall pay any funds due under an assigned certificate to the assignee.

Subd. 3. [INTEREST RATE.] Certificates of indebtedness may be sold at a price equal to such percentage of the par value of the certificates, plus accrued interest, and bearing interest at a rate or rates agreed upon by the governing body of the municipality and the purchaser or underwriter of the certificates or as determined at public sale, notwithstanding any limitation of interest rate or cost contained in any other law.

Sec. 4. [APPROPRIATION.]

An amount sufficient to pay the interest payable under section 2, subdivision 3 is appropriated from the general fund to the commissioner of revenue.

Sec. 5. [EFFECTIVE DATE.]

Sections 1 to 4 are effective the day following final enactment.

Section 1. [DECEMBER, 1981 AND JANUARY, 1982 EDUCATION AID PAYMENTS SUSPENDED.]

Notwithstanding the provisions of Minnesota Statutes, Sections 16A.15 and 124.11, or any other law to the contrary, the commissioner of education may suspend payment of some or all state aids, payments, reimbursements and fund transfers from some or all school districts, public library systems, educational cooperative service units or regional management information systems in the months of December, 1981 and January, 1982. The commissioner may consider the cash flow requirements of each individual recipient when determining whether to suspend payments of any aid, payments, reimbursements or fund transfers.

Sec. 2. [CERTIFICATION.]

On or before December 31, 1981 and January 31, 1982, the commissioner shall certify to each recipient the amount of aids, payments, reimbursements, or fund transfers suspended pursuant to section 1. The commissioner shall issue a certificate of unpaid aids for the certified amount to be paid by February 26, 1982.

Sec. 3. [REPAYMENT BY FEBRUARY 26, 1982.]

Notwithstanding any law to the contrary, by February 26, 1982, the commissioner of finance shall draw warrants in favor of school districts, public library systems, educational cooperative service units or regional management information systems for any of the state aids, payments, reimbursements and fund transfers that were suspended by the commissioner of education pursuant to section 1, plus interest as provided in section 4.

Sec. 4. [PAYMENT OF INTEREST.]

The state shall pay interest on any state aids, payments, reimbursements or fund transfers deferred or withheld pursuant to section 1. Interest shall be calculated as simple interest at a rate equal to the average yield for the Bond Buyer's Index of 20 Municipals, published for the week in which the deferred payment was scheduled to be made to the school district, public library system, educational cooperative service unit, or regional management information system pursuant to the appropriate statutory provision.

Sec. 5. [EFFECTIVE DATE.]

Sections 1 to 4 are effective the day following final enactment.

ARTICLE V

Section 1. Minnesota Statutes 1981 Supplement, Section 290.06, Subdivision 2d, is amended to read:

Subd. 2d. [INFLATION ADJUSTMENT OF BRACKETS.] For taxable years beginning after December 31, (1980) 1982, the taxable net income brackets in subdivision 2c shall be adjusted for inflation. For the purpose of making the adjustment as provided in this subdivision all of the brackets provided in subdivision 2c shall be the adjusted brackets as (THEY EXISTED FOR TAXABLE YEARS BEGINNING AFTER DECEMBER 31, 1979 AND BEFORE JANUARY 1, 1981) determined pursuant to section 5. The commissioner shall determine: (a) the percentage increase in the revised consumer price index for all urban consumers for the Minneapolis-St. Paul metropolitan area prepared by the United States department of labor. He shall then determine the percent change from August, (1980) 1982, to, in (1981) 1983, August, (1981) 1983, and in each subsequent year, from August of the preceding year to August of the current year; and (b) the percentage increase in average Minnesota gross income from tax year (1980) 1982 to, in (1981) 1983, tax year (1981) 1983, and in each subsequent tax year between the previous tax year and the current tax year. The percent increases in Minnesota gross income shall be estimated using the best available data sources and reasonable forecasting procedures. The determination of the commissioner pursuant to this section shall not be considered a "rule" and shall not be subject to the administrative procedures act contained in chapter 15.

The dollar amount in each taxable net income bracket for the prior year in subdivision 2c shall be multiplied by a figure calculated as one plus 100 percent of the consumer price index increase or 100 percent of the Minnesota gross income increase, whichever is smaller. The product of the calculation shall yield the inflation adjusted tax brackets for each succeeding year. If the product exceeds a whole dollar amount, it shall be rounded to the nearest whole dollar.

No later than October 1 of each year, the commissioner shall announce both percentage increases and the specific percentage that will be used to adjust the tax brackets, the maximum standard deduction amount, and the personal credit amounts.

Sec. 2. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 290.06, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 2e. [LIMITATION ON INFLATION ADJUSTMENTS.] By September 15 of each year the commissioner of finance shall certify to the commissioner the unobligated balance, according to generally accepted accounting principles, or his best estimate of the unobligated balance in the state general fund at the close of the preceding fiscal year. If the certified unobligated general fund balance at the close of the fiscal year is less than two percent of the total amount of general fund appropriations for the succeeding fiscal year, the following shall apply for the calendar year and taxable years beginning during the calendar year:

(a) No inflation adjustment of (i) the net income tax brackets pursuant to subdivision 2d, (ii) the credits pursuant to subdivision 3g, and (iii) the maximum amount of the standard deduction pursuant to section 290.09, subdivision 15, shall be made; and

(b) The taxable net income adjustment factor computed pursuant to section 290.18, subdivisions 4 and 5 shall be the factor applicable to taxable years beginning with or during the preceding calendar year.

If no adjustments are made to the brackets, credits, and maximum standard deduction pursuant to this subdivision, the inflation adjustments pursuant to subdivision 2d in the succeeding year shall be made to the dollar amounts of the brackets, credits, and maximum standard deduction in effect during the previous year. No adjustment shall be made in any subsequent year for the increase in the consumer price index or the increase in Minnesota gross income for a year in which no adjustment is made pursuant to this subdivision.

This subdivision is repealed effective for taxable years beginning after December 31, 1985.

Sec. 3. Minnesota Statutes 1981 Supplement, Section 290.09, Subdivision 7, is amended to read:

Subd. 7. [DEPRECIATION.] (A) [CUMULATIVE DEPRECIATION.] (a) There shall be allowed as a depreciation deduction a reasonable allowance for the exhaustion, wear and tear (including a reasonable allowance for obsolescence):

- (1) of property used in the trade or business, or
- (2) of property held for the production of income.

(b) The term "reasonable allowance" as used in clause (a) shall include (but shall not be limited to) an allowance computed in accordance with regulations prescribed by the commissioner, under any of the following methods:

- (1) the straight line method.

(2) the declining balance method, using a rate not exceeding twice the rate which would have been used had the annual allowance been computed under the method described in paragraph (1).

- (3) the sum of the years-digits method, and

(4) any other consistent method productive of an annual allowance, which, when added to all allowances for the period commencing with the taxpayer's use of the property and including the taxable year, does not, during the first two-thirds of the useful life of the property, exceed the total of such allowances which would have been used had such allowances been computed under the method described in (2). Nothing in this clause (b) shall be construed to limit or reduce an allowance otherwise allowable under clause (a).

For purposes of this subdivision "reasonable allowance" shall not include the accelerated cost recovery system provisions of section 168 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, as amended through October 2, 1981, unless specifically authorized by legislation enacted after the final enactment of this section.

(c) Paragraphs (2), (3), and (4) of clause (b) shall apply only in the case of property (other than intangible property) described in clause (a) with a useful life of three years or more.

(1) the construction, reconstruction, or erection of which is completed after December 31, 1958, and then only to that portion of the basis which is properly attributable to such construction, reconstruction, or erection after December 31, 1958, or

(2) acquired after December 31, 1958, if the original use of such property commenced with the taxpayer and commences after such date.

(d) Where, under regulations prescribed by the commissioner, the taxpayer and the commissioner have, after June 30, 1959, entered into an agreement in writing specifically dealing with the useful life and rate of depreciation of any property, the rate so agreed upon shall be binding on both the taxpayer and the commissioner in the absence of facts or circumstances not taken into consideration in the adoption of such agreement. The responsibility of establishing the existence of such facts and circumstances shall rest with the party initiating the modification. Any change in the agreed rate and useful life specified in the agreement shall not be effective for taxable years before the taxable year in which notice in writing by certified mail is served by the party to the agreement initiating such change.

(e) In the absence of an agreement under clause (d) containing a provision to the contrary, a taxpayer may at any time elect in accordance with regulations prescribed by the commissioner to change from the method of depreciation prescribed in clause (b) (2) to the method described in clause (b) (1).

(f) The basis on which exhaustion, wear and tear, and obsolescence are to be allowed in respect of any property shall be the adjusted basis provided in sections 290.131 to 290.139, 290.14 and 290.15 for the purpose of determining the gain on the sale or other disposition of such property.

(g) In the case of property held by one person for life with remainder to another person, the deduction shall be computed as if the life tenant were the absolute owner of the property and shall be allowed to the life tenant. In the case of property held in trust the allowable deduction shall be apportioned between the income beneficiary and the trustee in accordance with the pertinent provisions of the instrument creating the trust, or, in the absence of such provisions, on the basis of the trust income allocable to each. In the case of an estate, the allowable deduction shall be apportioned between the estate and the heirs, legatees, and devisees on the basis of the income of the estate allocable to each.

(h) In the case of buildings or other structures or improvements constructed or made on leased premises by a lessee, and the fixtures and machinery therein installed, the lessee alone shall be entitled to the allowance of this deduction.

(B) [FIRST YEAR DEPRECIATION.] (a) In the case of section 1 property, the term "reasonable allowance" as used in subdivision 7, may, at the election of the taxpayer, include an allowance, for the first taxable year for which a deduction is allowable under subdivision 7, to the taxpayer with respect to such property, of 20 percent of the cost of such property.

(b) If in any one taxable year the cost of section 1 property with respect to which the taxpayer may elect an allowance under (a) for such taxable year exceeds $10,000, then (a) shall apply with respect to those items selected by the taxpayer, but only to the extent of an aggregate cost of $10,000. In the case of a husband and wife who file a joint return under section 290.38 for the taxable year, the limitation under the preceding sentence shall be $20,000 in lieu of $10,000.

(c) (1) The election under this subdivision for any taxable year shall be made within the time prescribed by law (including extensions thereof) for filing the return for such taxable year. The election shall be made in such manner as the commissioner may by regulations prescribe.

(2) Any election made under this subdivision may not be revoked except with the consent of the commissioner.

(d) (1) For purposes of this subdivision, the term "Section 1 property" means tangible personal property (excluding buildings and structures)

(A) of a character subject to the allowance for depreciation under subdivision 7.

(B) acquired by purchase after December 31, 1958, for use in a trade or business or for holding for production of income, and

(C) with a useful life (determined at the time of such acquisition) of six years or more.

(2) For purposes of paragraph (1), the term "purchase" means any acquisition of property, but only if

(A) the property is not acquired from a person whose relationship to the person acquiring it would result in the disallowance of losses under section 290.10(6),

(B) the property is not acquired by one component member of a controlled group from another component member of the same controlled group, and

(C) the basis of the property in the hands of the person acquiring it is not determined

(i) in whole or in part by reference to the adjusted basis of such property in the hands of the person from whom acquired, or

(ii) under section 290.14(4) (relating to property acquired from a decedent).

(3) For purposes of this subdivision, the cost of property does not include so much of the basis of such property as is determined by reference to the basis of other property held at any time by the person acquiring such property.

(4) This subdivision shall not apply to trusts.

(5) In the case of an estate, any amount apportioned to an heir, legatee, or devisee shall not be taken into account in applying (B) of this subdivision to section 1 property of such heir, legatee, or devisee not held by such estate.

(6) For purposes of (B) of this subdivision

(A) all component members of a controlled group shall be treated as one taxpayer, and

(B) the commissioner shall apportion the dollar limitation contained in such (B) among the component members of such controlled group in such manner as he shall by regulations prescribe.

(7) For purposes of paragraphs (2) and (6), the term "controlled group" has the meaning assigned to it by section 1563(a) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, as amended through December 31, 1979, except that, for such purposes, the phrase "more than 50 percent" shall be substituted for the phrase "at least 80 percent" each place it appears in section 1563(a)(1) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, as amended through December 31, 1979.

Sec. 4. Minnesota Statutes 1981 Supplement, Section 290.18, Subdivision 4, is amended to read:

Subd. 4. [TAXABLE NET INCOME ADJUSTMENT FACTOR.] For the taxable year beginning after December 31, 1980 and (ENDING) before January 1, 1982, the commissioner of revenue shall adjust taxable net income by multiplying the taxable net income of each individual, estate and trust by a fraction, the numerator of which is one plus the predicted rate of growth in average Minnesota gross income between tax year 1980 and tax year 1981. The denominator of the adjustment fraction shall be one plus the product of (a) the predicted rate of growth in average Minnesota gross income as determined above, and (b) the difference between the ratio of Minnesota gross income to Minnesota adjusted gross income and the product of the ratio of federal taxes paid to Minnesota adjusted gross income and an estimate of average federal income tax elasticity relating percent changes in federal adjusted gross income to percent changes in net federal income tax liabilities.

For each taxable year beginning after December 31, 1981, the commissioner of revenue shall adjust taxable net income by multiplying the taxable net income of each individual, estate, and trust by an adjustment factor determined by multiplying the previous year's adjustment factor by the current year adjustment factor as defined above using data appropriate to the current year.

The data used shall reflect the most current aggregate tax statistics collected and tabulated by the department of revenue. The estimate of the percentage increase in Minnesota gross income shall be based on the best available data sources and reasonable forecasting procedures. The estimate of federal income tax elasticity shall reflect the best available sources of information, including the judgment of the United States Internal Revenue Service and the United States Treasury, Office of Tax Analysis. The determination of the commissioner pursuant to this section shall not be considered a "rule" and shall not be subject to the administrative procedures act contained in chapter 15.

No later than October 1 of each tax year, the commissioner shall announce the adjustment factor to be applied to taxable net income, including its separate components, and the estimate of federal elasticity.

Sec. 5. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 290.18, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 5. [ADJUSTMENT OF TAXABLE NET INCOME BRACKETS AND ADJUSTMENT FACTOR.] (a) For taxable years beginning after December 31, 1981 and before January 1, 1983, the commissioner of revenue shall adjust the taxable net income brackets in Minnesota Statutes, Section 290.06, Subdivision 2c, as follows. For purposes of determining the brackets to be adjusted pursuant to Minnesota Statutes, Section 290.06, Subdivision 2d, the commissioner shall determine: (a) the percentage increase in the revised consumer price index for all urban consumers for the Minneapolis-St. Paul metropolitan area from August, 1978, to August, 1981; and (b) the percentage increase in average Minnesota gross income from tax year 1979 to tax year 1981. The percentage increase in Minnesota gross income shall be estimated using the best available data sources and reasonable forecasting procedures. The determination of the commissioner pursuant to this section shall not be considered a "rule" and shall not be subject to the administrative procedures act contained in chapter 15.

The dollar amount in each taxable net income bracket in Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 290.06, Subdivision 2c shall be multiplied by a figure calculated as one plus 100 percent of the consumer price index increase or 100 percent of the Minnesota gross income increase, whichever is smaller. The product of the calculation shall yield the inflation adjusted tax brackets. If the product exceeds a whole dollar amount, it shall be rounded to the nearest whole dollar. Provided in no event shall the brackets be narrower than those in effect for taxable years beginning in 1981.

(b) For taxable years beginning after December 31, 1981, the taxable net income adjustment factor pursuant to Minnesota Statutes, Section 290.18, Subdivision 4, shall be computed as if Laws of Minnesota 1981, First Special Session, Chapter 1, Article 1, Section 4 was in effect for taxable years beginning during calendar years 1979, 1980 and 1981, notwithstanding the provisions of Laws of Minnesota 1981, First Special Session, Chapter 1, Article 1, Section 5.

Sec. 6. Laws 1981, First Special Session, Chapter 1, Article I, Section 5, is amended to read:

Sec. 5. [TRANSITIONAL PROVISION.]

Notwithstanding the provisions of sections 1, 2, and 3, for taxable years beginning after December 31, 1980 and before January 1, 1982 the inflation adjustment of the income tax brackets, credits, and maximum standard deduction shall be the arithmetic average of (1) the percentage computed pursuant to Minnesota Statutes 1980, Sections 290.06, Subdivisions 2d and 3g, and 290.09, Subdivision 15, as applicable and (2) the percentage computed pursuant to section 1 of this article. The taxable net income adjustment factor for taxable years beginning after December 31, 1980 and before January 1, 1982 shall be (ONE-HALF OF THE AMOUNT COMPUTED PURSUANT TO SECTION 4) computed as follows: the taxable net income adjustment factor calculated pursuant to Laws of Minnesota 1981, First Special Session, Chapter 1, Article 1, Section 4 minus one shall be divided by two and the resulting quotient added to one.

Sec. 7. [EFFECTIVE DATE.]

ARTICLE VI

Section 1. [STATEMENT OF LEGISLATIVE INTENT.]

The legislature finds that certain provisions of the state income tax law generally applied to corporations produce an inequitable result when applied to major oil companies, allowing those companies to escape taxation on a great proportion of their profits. The legislature further finds that there are at least two causes of this inequity: First, during the last several years, major oil companies have increased both the prices charged for their products and the profits realized from their enterprises by extraordinary amounts, greatly in excess of the price and profit increases of other businesses in this state, resulting in an enormous outflow of public and private capital from the state. Second, the complexity of structure of most major oil companies, together with certain tax shelter provisions currently used on a grand scale by the companies, allows major oil companies to be taxed on only a very small proportion of their profits. Because the primary objective of the income tax law is to raise essential government revenues by fairly distributing the tax burden among taxpayers, it is declared that certain changes in the income tax law, as they apply to major oil companies, must be effected in order that those companies will bear a fair and equitable share of the statewide tax burden.

Sec. 2. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 290.01, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 28. [MAJOR OIL COMPANY.] The term "major oil company" means a corporation which is engaged in all of the following activities: (1) the extraction or production of crude oil; (2) the refining of crude oil; and (3) the marketing or distribution for marketing in this state of gasoline, motor fuel, fuel oil, and similar products from the refining or manufacture of crude oil. A major oil company includes a parent corporation and the subsidiaries of a company engaging in a unitary business if the parent itself or through one or more of its subsidiaries markets or distributes petroleum or petroleum products in Minnesota. In the case of a major oil company that includes a subsidiary or parent as described in the preceding sentence in its unitary business operation, the company shall be required to file a combined or consolidated report showing the combined net income of those companies and other information deemed necessary. The tax on those corporations shall be assessed against either of the corporations whose net income is involved in the report upon the basis of the combined entire net income and other information received in order to accurately reflect the net income earned by the corporation or corporations from business done in this state. For purposes of this subdivision, a subsidiary is a corporation in which the parent owns not less than 25 percent of its voting stock, and whose business activities include the production, refining or marketing of crude petroleum or petroleum products; and a company engaging in a unitary business is a group of two or more corporations having some degree of common ownership, each of which is engaged in related business activities.

Sec. 3. Minnesota Statutes 1981 Supplement, Section 290.09, Subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [LIMITATIONS.] (a) Except as provided in clauses (b) and (c), the following deductions from gross income shall be allowed in computing net income, provided that any item which was deducted in arriving at gross income under the provisions of section 290.01, subdivision 20, shall not be again deducted under this section.

(b) A major oil company shall not deduct amounts otherwise deductible for depletion or intangible drilling costs, including ordinary loss deductions taken for nonproductive wells, with respect to the production of petroleum, not including the production of natural gas.

(c) Property taxes may not be deducted under this section if

(1) The taxes are attributable to a trade or business carried on by an individual, or

(2) The taxes are expenses for the production of income which are paid or incurred by an individual; and which are not allowed as a deduction under section 164 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, as amended through December 31, 1980.

Sec. 4. Minnesota Statutes 1981 Supplement, Section 290.091, is amended to read:

290.091 [MINIMUM TAX ON PREFERENCE ITEMS.]

In addition to all other taxes imposed by this chapter there is hereby imposed, a tax which, in the case of a resident individual, shall be equal to 40 percent of the amount of the taxpayer's minimum tax liability for tax preference items pursuant to the provisions of sections 55 to 58 and 443(d) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 as amended through December 31, 1980 except that for purposes of the tax imposed by this section, capital gain as defined in section 57(a) of the Internal Revenue Code shall not include that portion of any gain occasioned by sale, transfer or the granting of a perpetual easement pursuant to any eminent domain proceeding or threat thereof as described in section 290.13, subdivision 5. This modification shall apply to the years in which the gain or reduction in loss is actually included in federal adjusted gross income even though amounts received pursuant to the eminent domain proceedings were received in prior years. In the case of a taxpayer other than a corporation, an amount equal to one-half of the net capital gain for the taxable year shall be used as the definition of capital gain in place of the deduction determined under section 1202 of the Internal Revenue Code. In the case of a resident individual, having preference items which could not be taken to reduce income from sources outside the state pursuant to section 290.17, subdivision 1, or any other taxpayer the tax shall equal 40 percent of that federal liability, multiplied by a fraction the numerator of which is the amount of the taxpayer's preference item income allocated to this state pursuant to the provisions of sections 290.17 to 290.20, and the denominator of which is the taxpayer's total preference item income for federal purposes. In the case of a major oil company, any amount deducted for depletion for federal tax purposes but not deductible for state tax purposes pursuant to section 290.09, subdivision 1, clause (b) shall not be considered a tax preference item.

Sec. 5. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 290.19, Subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [COMPUTATION, BUSINESS CONDUCTED PARTLY WITHIN STATE; APPORTIONMENT.] The taxable net income from a trade or business carried on partly within and partly without this state shall be computed by deducting from the gross income of such business, wherever derived, deductions of the kind permitted by section 290.09, so far as connected with or allocable against the production or receipt of such income. The remaining net income shall be apportioned to Minnesota as follows:

(1) If the business consists of the mining, producing, smelting, refining, or any combination of these activities of copper and nickel ores, or of the manufacture of personal property and the sale of said property within and without the state, the remainder shall be apportioned to Minnesota on the basis of the percentage obtained by taking the arithmetical average of the following three percentages:

(a) The percentage which the sales made within this state is of the total sales wherever made;

(b) The percentage which the total tangible property, real, personal, and mixed, owned or rented, and used by the taxpayer in this state during the tax period in connection with such trade or business is of the total tangible property, real, personal, or mixed, wherever located, owned or rented and, used by the taxpayer in connection with such trade or business during the tax period; and,

(c) The percentage which the taxpayer's total payrolls paid or incurred in this state or paid in respect to labor performed in this state in connection with such trade or business is of the taxpayer's total payrolls paid or incurred in connection with such entire trade or business;

(d) The percentage of such remainder to be assigned to this state shall not be in excess of the sum of the following percentages: 70 percent of the percentage determined under clause (1) (a), 15 percent of the percentage determined under clause (1) (b), and 15 percent of the percentage determined under clause (1) (c);

(2) If the business is a major oil company, the remainder shall be apportioned to Minnesota on the basis of the sum of the percentages set forth in clause (1)(d); the arithmetical average shall not be used by a major oil company;

((2)) (3) (a) In all other cases the remainder shall be apportioned to Minnesota on the basis of the percentage obtained by taking the arithmetical average of the following three percentages:

(1) The percentage which the sales, gross earnings, or receipts from business operations, in whole or in part, within this state bear to the total sales, gross earnings, or receipts from business operations wherever conducted;

(2) The percentage which the total tangible property, real, personal, and mixed, owned or rented, and used by the taxpayer in this state during the tax period in connection with such trade or business is of the total tangible property, real, personal, or mixed, wherever located, owned, or rented, and used by the taxpayer in connection with such trade or business during the tax period; and

(3) The percentage which the taxpayer's total payrolls paid or incurred in this state or paid in respect to labor performed in this state in connection with such trade or business is of the taxpayer's total payrolls paid or incurred in connection with such entire trade or business;

(4) The percentage of such remainder to be assigned to this state shall not be in excess of the sum of the following percentages: 70 percent of the percentage determined under clause ((2)) (3) (a) (1), 15 percent of the percentage determined under clause ((2)) (3) (a) (2), and 15 percent of the percentage determined under clause ((2)) (3) (a) (3);

(b) If the methods prescribed under clause ((2)) (3) (a) will not properly reflect taxable net income assignable to the state, there may be used, if practicable and if such use will properly and fairly reflect such income, the percentage which the sales, gross earnings, or receipts from business operations, in whole or in part, within this state bear to the total sales, gross earnings, or receipts from business operations wherever conducted; or the separate or segregated accounting method. If the commissioner determines that the methods prescribed in clause (2) will not properly reflect the taxable net income of a major oil company assignable to the state he shall use only the sales factor to determine the amount so assignable;

((3)) (4) The sales, payrolls, earnings, and receipts referred to in this section shall be those for the taxable year in respect of which the tax is being computed. The property referred to in this section shall be the average of the property owned or used by the taxpayer during the taxable year in respect of which the tax is being computed. For purposes of major oil companies filing combined or consolidated reports pursuant to section 290.01, subdivision 28, the sales, payrolls, earnings, and receipts referred to in this section shall be those of the parent and subsidiary corporations engaged in a unitary business.

Sec. 6. Minnesota Statutes 1981 Supplement, Section 290.21, Subdivision 4, is amended to read:

Subd. 4. (a) 85 percent of dividends received by a corporation during the taxable year from another corporation, when the corporate stock with respect to which dividends are paid does not constitute the stock in trade of the taxpayer or would not be included in the inventory of the taxpayer, or does not constitute property held by the taxpayer primarily for sale to customers in the ordinary course of his trade or business, or when the trade or business of the taxpayer does not consist principally of the holding of the stocks and the collection of the income and gains therefrom. The remaining 15 percent shall be allowed if the recipient owns 80 percent or more of all the voting stock of such other corporation, and the dividends were paid from income arising out of business done in this state by the corporation paying such dividends; but if the income out of which the dividends are declared was derived from business done within and without this state, then so much of the remainder shall be allowed as a deduction as the amount of the taxable net income of the corporation paying the dividends assignable or allocable to this state bears to the entire net income of the corporation, such rate being determined by the returns under this chapter of the corporation paying such dividends for the taxable year preceding the distribution thereof; the burden shall be on the taxpayer of showing that the amount of remainder claimed as a deduction has been received from income arising out of business done in this state, such rate being determined by the returns under this chapter of the corporation paying such dividends for the taxable year preceding the distribution thereof. The burden shall be on the taxpayer of showing that the amount of dividends claimed as a deduction has been received from income arising out of business done in this state.

(b) if the trade or business of the taxpayer consists principally of the holding of the stocks and the collection of the income and gains therefrom, dividends received by a corporation during the taxable year from another corporation, if the recipient owns 80 percent or more of all the voting stock of such other corporation, from income arising out of business done in this state by the corporation paying such dividends; but, if the income out of which the dividends are declared was derived from business done within and without this state, then so much of the dividends shall be allowed as deduction as the amount of the taxable net income of the corporation paying the dividends assignable or allocable to this state bears to the entire net income of the corporation,

(c) The dividend deduction provided in this subdivision shall be allowed only with respect to dividends that are included in a corporation's Minnesota taxable net income for the taxable year.

(d) In the case of a major oil company, no deduction shall be allowed for dividends received (i) unless the dividends are received from a subsidiary whose income is combined with that of the parent company receiving the dividend pursuant to section 290.01, subdivision 28, or (ii) unless the dividends are received from a corporation which is not engaged in a unitary business with the taxpayer corporation.

Sec. 7. [EFFECTIVE DATE.]

Sections 1 to 6 are effective for taxable years beginning after December 31, 1981.

ARTICLE VII

Section 1. Minnesota Statutes 1981 Supplement, Section 477A.03, Subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [LIMITATION ON APPROPRIATION; PROPORTIONATE REDUCTION.] The amount appropriated under subdivision 1 shall not exceed ($270,725,464) $247,925,464 for calendar year 1982 and shall not exceed $293,561,978 for calendar year 1983. If the limitations contained in this subdivision result in a reduction in the amounts determined pursuant to sections 477A.012 and 477A.013, each governmental unit receiving local government aid shall have its distribution proportionally reduced, but no local government unit shall receive less aid than 91.6 percent of its previous year aid.

Sec. 2. [EFFECTIVE DATE.]

Section 1 is effective the day following final enactment.

ARTICLE VIII

Section 1. Minnesota Statutes 1981 Supplement, Section 290.17, Subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [OTHER TAXPAYERS.] In the case of taxpayers not subject to the provisions of subdivision 1, items of gross income shall be assigned to this state or other states or countries in accordance with the following principles:

(1) The entire income of all resident or domestic taxpayers from compensation for labor or personal services, or from a business consisting principally of the performance of personal or professional services, shall be assigned to this state, and the income of nonresident taxpayers from such sources shall be assigned to this state if, and to the extent that, the labor or services are performed within it; all other income from such sources shall be treated as income from sources without this state;

(2) Income from the operation of a farm shall be assigned to this state if the farm is located within this state and to other states only if the farm is not located in this state. Income and gains received from tangible property not employed in the business of the recipient of such income or gains, and from tangible property employed in the business of such recipient if such business consists principally of the holding of such property and the collection of the income and gains therefrom, shall be assigned to this state if such property has a situs within it, and to other states only if it has no situs in this state. Income or gains from intangible personal property not employed in the business of the recipient of such income or gains, and from intangible personal property employed in the business of such recipient if such business consists principally of the holding of such property and the collection of the income and gains therefrom, wherever held, whether in trust, or otherwise, shall be assigned to this state if the recipient thereof is domiciled within this state; income or gains from intangible personal property wherever held, whether in trust or otherwise shall be assigned to this state if the recipient of such income or gains is domiciled within this state, or if the grantor of any trust is domiciled within this state and such income or gains would be taxable to such grantor under section 290.25 or 290.29;

(3) Income derived from carrying on a trade or business, including in the case of a business owned by natural persons the income imputable to the owner for his services and the use of his property therein, shall be assigned to this state if the trade or business is conducted wholly within this state, and to other states if conducted wholly without this state. This provision shall not apply to business income subject to the provisions of clause (1);

(4) When a trade or business is carried on partly within and partly without this state, the entire income derived from such trade or business, including income from intangible property employed in such business and including, in the case of a business owned by natural persons, the income imputable to the owner for his services and the use of his property therein, shall be governed, except as otherwise provided in sections 290.35 and 290.36, by the provisions of section 290.19, notwithstanding any provisions of this section to the contrary. This shall not apply to business income subject to the provisions of clause (1), nor shall it apply to income from the operation of a farm which is subject to the provisions of clause (2). For the purposes of this clause, a trade or business located in Minnesota is carried on partly within and partly without this state if tangible personal property is sold by such trade or business and delivered or shipped to a purchaser located outside the state of Minnesota.

In determining whether or not intangible property is employed in a unitary business carried on partly within and partly without this state so that income derived therefrom is subject to apportionment under section 290.19 the following rules and guidelines shall apply.

(a) Intangible property is employed in a business if the business entity owning intangible property holds it as a means of furthering the business operation of which a part is located within the territorial confines of this state.

(b) Where a business operation conducted in Minnesota, is owned by a business entity which carries on business activity outside of the state different in kind from that conducted within this state, and such other business is conducted entirely outside the state, it will be presumed that the two business operations are unitary in nature, interrelated, connected and interdependent unless it can be shown to the contrary.

(5) In the case of a nonresident who is liable for payment of a penalty for having withdrawn funds from an individual housing account established pursuant to section 290.08, subdivision 25, the amount so withdrawn and for which a deduction was allowed shall be an item of income assignable to this state, and the penalty tax of ten percent shall remain an additional liability of that taxpayer.

(6) For purposes of this section, amounts received by a non-resident from the United States, its agencies or instrumentalities, the Federal Reserve Bank, the state of Minnesota or any of its political or governmental subdivisions, or a Minnesota volunteer fireman's relief association, by way of payment as a pension, public employee retirement benefit, or any combination thereof, or as a retirement or survivor's benefit made from a plan qualifying under section 401, 403, 404, 405, 408, 409 or 409A of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, as amended through December 31, 1979, are not considered income derived from carrying on a trade or business or from performing personal or professional services in Minnesota, and are not taxable under this chapter.

(7) All other items of gross income shall be assigned to the taxpayer's domicile.

((3) REAL ESTATE NOT USED AS A HOME WHICH PRODUCES NET INCOME APPLICABLE TO THE FAMILY'S NEEDS, WHICH THE FAMILY IS MAKING A CONTINUING EFFORT TO SELL AT A FAIR AND REASONABLE PRICE, OR THE SALE OF WHICH WOULD NET AN INSIGNIFICANT AMOUNT OF INCOME APPLICABLE TO THE FAMILY'S NEEDS OR WOULD CAUSE UNDUE HARDSHIP, AS DETERMINED BY THE COMMISSIONER, SHALL NOT BE A BAR TO AN ALLOWANCE UNDER SECTIONS 256.72 TO 256.87. NET INCOME SHALL BE THE RESIDUE AFTER PAYMENT FROM GROSS INCOME OF TAXES, INSURANCE, MAINTENANCE, AND INTEREST ON ENCUMBRANCES, IF ANY, ON THE PROPERTY, PROVIDED THAT IN COMPUTING NET INCOME THE GROSS INCOME SHALL NOT BE CHARGED WITH ANY EXPENSES TOWARD BETTERMENT OF THE PROPERTY AS IMPROVEMENTS OR BY PAYMENT ON THE PRINCIPAL OF A MORTGAGE; PROVIDED, THAT THE NET INCOME THUS DERIVED SHALL BE APPLIED ON THE FAMILY BUDGET).

Sec. 36. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 256.73, Subdivision 3a, is amended to read:

(3) To any assistance unit for any month in which any caretaker relative with whom the child is living is, on the last day of that month, participating in a strike;

(4) On behalf of any other individual in the assistance unit, nor shall the individual's needs be taken into account, for any month in which, on the last day of the month, the individual is participating in a strike;

(5) To an assistance unit if its eligibility is based on a parent's unemployment and the parent who is the principal earner, without good cause, fails or refuses to participate in the work incentive program under section 256.736, to accept employment, or to register with a public employment office, unless the principal earner is exempt from these work requirements.

Sec. 37. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 256.73, Subdivision 5, is amended to read:

Subd. 5. Payment for special needs occasioned by or resulting from pregnancy shall be provided as needed to pregnant women eligible under the previous sentence or otherwise eligible under sections 256.72 to 256.87, according to rules promulgated by the commissioner. The commissioner of public welfare shall promulgate, pursuant to the administrative procedures act, (REGULATIONS) rules to implement this subdivision.

Sec. 38. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 256.73, Subdivision 6, is amended to read:

Subd. 6. [REPORTS BY RECIPIENT.] Each recipient shall complete reports as requested by the local or state agency. All (NET EARNED OR UNEARNED) income not specifically disregarded by the social security act, the code of federal regulations, or state law (,) and rules (AND REGULATIONS, SHALL BE) is income applicable to the budgetary needs of the family. If any amount of aid to families with dependent children assistance is paid to a recipient (THEREOF) in excess of the payment due (IT SHALL BE RECOVERABLE BY), the local agency shall recover the overpayment in accordance with Public Law No. 97-35, Section 2318, 42 U.S.C. 602, as amended. (IF THE AGENCY NOTIFIES THE RECIPIENT IN WRITING OF AN OVERPAYMENT DUE SOLELY TO LOCAL AGENCY ERROR WITHIN THREE MONTHS AFTER THE OVERPAYMENT,) The local agency (MAY COMMENCE RECOVERY OF THE OVERPAYMENT DURING THE YEAR AFTER THE NOTIFICATION IS RECEIVED BY THE RECIPIENT THE WRITTEN NOTICE SHALL INFORM THE RECIPIENT) shall give the recipient written notice of any overpayment and of (THE AGENCY'S) its intention to recover the overpayment. If the recipient does not pay the amount of the overpayment in part or fully to the local agency, the agency may recover the overpayment by reducing the amount of aid as follows:

(a) If the overpayment was caused by the recipient's wilful withholding of required information or wilful false statement, the aid amount may be reduced only to the extent that the reduced aid amount plus the assistance unit's liquid assets and gross income, before applying any disregards, equals not less than 90 percent of the amount payable to an assistance unit of the same composition with no income;

(b) If the overpayment was due solely to agency error, the aid amount may be reduced only to the extent that the reduced aid amount plus the assistance unit's liquid assets and income after deducting actual work expenses equals not less than 99 percent of the amount payable to an assistance unit of the same composition with no income;

(c) In all other cases, the aid amount may be reduced only to the extent that the reduced aid amount plus the assistance unit's liquid assets and income after deducting actual work expenses equals not less than 96 percent of the amount payable to an assistance unit of the same composition with no income.

Under clauses (a), (b), and (c) the amounts and standard of need shall be based on income, resources and circumstances in the month for which aid is being reduced. The recipient may appeal the agency's determination that an overpayment has occurred in accordance with section 256.045. If the amount of assistance paid to a recipient is less than the amount due, the agency shall pay the recipient a corrective payment and disregard that payment when determining the family's income and resources in the month when the payment is made and the following month. In cases where both an overpayment and an underpayment have occurred, one shall be offset against the other to correct the payment.

Sec. 39. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 256.736, Subdivision 3, is amended to read:

[OPERATION OF PROGRAM.] To determine who shall be designated as an appropriate individual for certification to the commissioner of economic security, the commissioner of public welfare shall provide standards for county welfare agencies and human services boards consistent with the standards promulgated by the secretary of health (, EDUCATION,) and (WELFARE) human services. County welfare agencies shall certify appropriate individuals to the commissioner of economic security and shall require that every individual, as a condition of receiving aid to families with dependent children, register for employment services, training, and employment, unless such individual is:

(1) a child who is under age 16 (OR), a child age 16 or 17 who is attending elementary or secondary school or a secondary level vocational or technical school full time, or a full-time student age 18 who is attending a secondary school or a secondary level vocational or technical program and who is expected to complete the school or program before reaching age 19;

(5) a (MOTHER) parent or other caretaker relative of a child under the age of six who (IS CARING) personally provides full-time care for the child; (OR)

(6) (THE MOTHER OR OTHER FEMALE CARETAKER OF A CHILD IF THE FATHER OR ANOTHER ADULT MALE RELATIVE IS IN THE HOME AND NOT EXCLUDED BY CLAUSE (1), (2), (3), OR (4), UNLESS HE HAS FAILED TO REGISTER AS REQUIRED BY THIS SUBDIVISION OR HAS BEEN FOUND BY THE COMMISSIONER OF ECONOMIC SECURITY TO HAVE REFUSED WITHOUT GOOD CAUSE TO PARTICIPATE UNDER A WORK INCENTIVE PROGRAM OR ACCEPT EMPLOYMENT) a parent or other caretaker if another adult relative in the house is registered and has not, without good cause, failed or refused to participate or accept employment; or

(7) a parent who is not the principal earner if the parent who is the principal earner is not exempt under clauses (1) to (6).

Any individual referred to in clause (5) shall be advised of (HER) the option to register for employment services, training, and employment if (SHE) the individual so desires, and shall be informed of the child care services, if any, which will be available (TO HER IN THE EVENT SHE SHOULD DECIDE) if the individual decides to register.

If, after planning with a recipient, a decision is made that (HE) the recipient must register for employment services, training, and employment, the county welfare department shall give notice in writing to the (INDIVIDUAL) recipient stating that he or she must register with the commissioner of economic security for participation in a work incentive program and that (HE) the recipient has a right to a fair hearing under section 256.045 with respect to the appropriateness of (HIS) the registration.

Sec. 40. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 256.736, Subdivision 4, is amended to read:

Subd. 4. [CONDITIONS OF CERTIFICATION.] The commissioner of public welfare shall:

(1) Arrange for or provide any relative or child certified to the commissioner of economic security pursuant to this section with child-care services and other necessary family services;

(2) Pay ten percent of the cost of programs of training and employment established by the commissioner of economic security for persons certified hereunder;

(3) Provide that in determining a recipient's needs any monthly incentive training payment made to the recipient by the department of economic security is disregarded and the additional expenses attributable to his participation in a program are taken into account in grant determination; and

(4) Provide that when it has been certified by the commissioner of economic security, certification to be binding upon the commissioner of public welfare, that a relative or child certified under the work incentive program to the commissioner of economic security has been found by the commissioner, after a hearing conducted in the manner prescribed by section 268.10, subdivision 3, with the right of review in accordance with the provisions of section 268.10, subdivision 8, to have refused without good cause to participate under a work incentive program or to have refused without good cause to accept a bona fide offer of public or other employment, the county welfare departments shall provide that:

(a) If the relative makes the refusal, the relative's needs shall not be taken into account in making the grant determination, and aid for any dependent child in the family will be made in the form of vendor payments.

(b) Aid with respect to a dependent child will be denied if a child who makes the refusal is the only child receiving aid in the family.

(c) If there is more than one child receiving aid in the family, aid for the child who makes the refusal will be denied and his needs will not be taken into account in making the grant determination (; AND)

((D) NOTWITHSTANDING THE OTHER PROVISIONS OF THIS SUBDIVISION, THE COUNTY WELFARE DEPARTMENT SHALL, FOR A PERIOD OF 60 DAYS AFTER NOTIFICATION OF THE COMMISSIONER OF ECONOMIC SECURITY DETERMINATION OF REFUSAL WITHOUT CAUSE TO PARTICIPATE IN A PROGRAM OF TRAINING OR EMPLOYMENT, MAKE VENDOR PAYMENTS ON BEHALF OF THE RELATIVE SPECIFIED OR CONTINUE AID IN THE CASE OF A CHILD SPECIFIED, IF DURING THE 60 DAY PERIOD THE CHILD OR RELATIVE ACCEPTS COUNSELING OR OTHER SERVICES WHICH THE COUNTY WELFARE DEPARTMENT SHALL MAKE AVAILABLE FOR THE PURPOSE OF ASSISTING THE CHILD OR RELATIVE TO PARTICIPATE IN A PROGRAM IN ACCORDANCE WITH THE DETERMINATION OF THE COMMISSIONER OF ECONOMIC SECURITY). If the assistance unit's eligibility is based on the principal earner's unemployment and the principal earner fails or refuses without good cause to participate or to accept employment, the entire assistance unit is ineligible for benefits under sections 256.72 to 256.87.

Sec. 41. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 256.74, Subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [AMOUNT.] The amount of assistance which shall be granted to or on behalf of any dependent child and mother or other needy eligible relative caring for (SUCH) the dependent child shall be determined by the county agency (WITH DUE REGARD TO THE RESOURCES AND NECESSARY EXPENDITURES OF THE FAMILY AND THE CONDITIONS EXISTING IN EACH CASE AND) in accordance with (THE) rules (AND REGULATIONS MADE) promulgated by the (STATE AGENCY) commissioner and shall be sufficient, when added to all other income and support available to the child, to provide (SUCH) the child with a reasonable subsistence compatible with decency and health. The amount shall be based on the method of budgeting required in Public Law No. 97-35, Section 2315, 42 U.S.C. 602, as amended and federal regulations at 45 CFR Section 233. In making its determination the county agency shall (EXCLUDE) disregard the following from family income:

(1) All of the earned income of each dependent child receiving aid to families with dependent children who is a full-time student or part-time student, and not a full-time employee, attending a school, college, or university, or a course of vocational or technical training designed to fit him for gainful employment;

(2) All educational grants and loans awarded pursuant to a federal law when public assistance was considered in making the award and the award was made on the basis of financial need; and that part of any other educational grant or loan which is used for educational purposes, such as tuition, fees, equipment, transportation and child care expenses necessary for school attendance; (AND)

(3) The first $75 of each individual's earned income. In the case of an individual not engaged in full-time employment or not employed throughout the month the commissioner shall prescribe by rule a lesser amount to be disregarded. For self-employed persons, the expenses directly related to producing goods and services and without which the goods and services could not be produced shall be disregarded pursuant to rules promulgated by the commissioner;

(4) An amount equal to the actual expenditures but not to exceed $160 for the care of each dependent child or incapacitated individual living in the same home and receiving aid. In the case of a person not engaged in full-time employment or not employed throughout the month, the commissioner shall prescribe by rule a lesser amount to be disregarded; and

(5) (THE FIRST $30) Thirty dollars plus one-third of the remainder of (THE COMBINED MONTHLY EARNINGS OF ANY DEPENDENT CHILD NOT INCLUDED UNDER CLAUSE (1), AND ANY ADULT WHO IS A RECIPIENT OF AID FOR FAMILIES WITH DEPENDENT CHILDREN) each individual's earned income not already disregarded for individuals found otherwise eligible to receive aid or who have received aid in one of the four months before the month of application. With respect to any month, the county welfare agency shall not disregard under this clause ((2)) any earned income of any person who has:

(a) Reduced his earned income without good cause within 30 days preceding any month in which an assistance payment is made; or

(b) Refused without good cause to accept an offer of suitable employment; or

(c) Left employment or reduced his earnings without good cause and applied for assistance so that he might later return to employment with the advantage of the income disregard; or

(d) Failed without good cause to make a timely report of earned income in accordance with rules promulgated by the commissioner of public welfare.

Persons who are already employed and who apply for assistance shall have their needs computed with full account taken of their earned and other income. If earned and other income of the family is less than need, as determined on the basis of public assistance standards, the county agency shall determine the amount of the grant by applying the disregard of income provisions. The county agency shall not disregard earned income for persons in a family if the total monthly earned and other income exceeds their needs, unless for any one of the four preceding months their needs were met in whole or in part by a grant payment. (IF AN INDIVIDUAL WITHOUT GOOD CAUSE LEAVES EMPLOYMENT OR REDUCES HIS EARNINGS AND APPLIES FOR ASSISTANCE SO THAT HE MIGHT LATER RETURN TO EMPLOYMENT WITH ADVANTAGES OF INCOME DISREGARD, HE SHALL NOT HAVE THE BENEFIT OF THE DISREGARD OF INCOME PROVISIONS.)

The disregard of $30 and one-third of the remainder of earned income described in clause (5) shall be applied to the individual's income for a period not to exceed four consecutive months. Any month in which the individual loses this disregard because of the provisions of clause (5)(a) to (5)(d) shall be considered as one of the four months. To again qualify for this earned income disregard, the individual must not be a recipient of aid for a period of 12 consecutive months. If an individual becomes ineligible for aid because this earned income disregard has been applied to income for four consecutive months and will no longer be applied to income, the local agency shall inform the individual of the medical assistance program, its standards of eligibility, and the circumstances under which the individual would be eligible for medical assistance.

(6) The commissioner shall increase the standard of need in effect on January 1, 1982 by 45 percent for each assistance unit. The maximum amount paid to an assistance unit shall be no more than 69 percent of the increased standard of need. Whenever the commissioner increases the maximum payment amount for all assistance units, the commissioner shall increase the maximum standard of need by an equal percentage.

To determine the amount of assistance to be paid to an assistance unit, net income shall be determined in a manner consistent with this chapter and applicable federal law. Net earned income shall be subtracted from the standard of need for an assistance unit of the appropriate size and composition to determine the grant amount, except that the grant shall not exceed the maximum payment amount for an assistance unit of the same size and composition.

Medical assistance eligibility for medically needy persons shall be determined according to payment standards in effect for assistance under sections 256.72 to 256.87.

If implementation of this clause, subdivision 1 (6), is challenged and a court of competent jurisdiction rules on the merits that it conflicts with provisions of the Social Security Act or the United States Constitution, then subdivision 1 (6) ceases to have effect and shall no longer be implemented.

Sec. 42. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 256.74, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 1a. [STEPARENT'S INCOME.] In determining income available, the county agency shall take into account the remaining income of the dependent child's stepparent who lives in the same household after disregarding:

(1) The first $75 of the stepparent's gross earned income. The commissioner shall prescribe by rule lesser amounts to be disregarded for stepparents who are not engaged in full-time employment or not employed throughout the month;

(2) An amount for support of the stepparent and any other individuals whom the stepparent claims as dependents for tax purposes and who live in the same household but whose needs are not considered in determining eligibility for assistance under sections 256.72 to 256.87. The amount equals the standard of need for a family of the same composition as the stepparent and these other individuals;

(3) Amounts the stepparent actually paid to individuals not living in the same household but whom the stepparent claims as dependents for tax purposes; and

(4) Alimony or child support, or both, paid by the stepparent for individuals not living in the same household.

Sec. 43. [256.851] [RULES.]

The commissioner of public welfare shall promulgate temporary and permanent rules necessary to implement sections 31 to 48, 84, and 88.

Sec. 44. Minnesota Statutes 1981 Supplement, Section 256.-872, Subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [WITHHOLDING ORDER.] Whenever an obligation for support of a dependent child or maintenance of a spouse, or both, has been determined and ordered by a court of this state, the public agency responsible for child support enforcement may move and the district or county court shall grant an order providing for the withholding of the amount of child support or maintenance as determined by court order, from the income, regardless of source of the person obligated to pay the support or maintenance. If the public agency responsible for child support enforcement determines that the obligor's arrearages have accumulated for more than one month, and if the agency is not pursuing another appropriate remedy, the agency shall move the district or county court for an order for withholding under this section or shall document a reason or reasons why withholding would not result in payment being made. "Income" means any form of periodic payments to an individual, including, but not limited to, wages, salary, income as an independent contractor, workers' compensation, unemployment compensation, annuity, military and naval retirement, pension and disability payments.

Sec. 45. Minnesota Statutes 1981 Supplement, Section 256.872, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 4. [PENALTY FOR NONCOMPLIANCE.] If the public agency responsible for child support enforcement fails to make reasonable efforts to comply with this section and sections 518.54 to 518.66 or to show why it cannot comply within four months after receiving notice that the commissioner of public welfare has determined that the agency is not in substantial compliance with this section and sections 518.54 to 518.66, the commissioner may withhold ten percent of the state's share of the difference between the total estimated cost and the federal funds available for payment of aid under sections 256.72 to 256.87 to all persons for which the county is the county of financial responsibility and the county shall pay the ten percent in addition to its usual share of payments, until the public agency complies.

256.99 [REVERSE MORTGAGE PROCEEDS DISREGARDED.]

All reverse mortgage loan proceeds received pursuant to section 47.58, including interest or earnings thereon, shall be disregarded and shall not be considered available to the borrower for purposes of determining initial or continuing eligibility for, or amount of, medical assistance (OR ANY OTHER PUBLIC ASSISTANCE PROGRAM), Minnesota supplemental assistance, general assistance, general assistance medical care, or a federal or state low interest loan or grant. This section applies regardless of the time elapsed since the loan was made or the disposition of the proceeds.

Sec. 47. Minnesota Statutes 1981 Supplement, Section 256B.-06, Subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. Medical assistance may be paid for any person:

(1) Who is eligible for or receiving public assistance, or a woman who is pregnant, as medically verified, and who would be eligible for public assistance if the child had been born and living with the woman, under the aid to families with dependent children program; or

(2) Who is eligible for or receiving supplemental security income for the aged, blind and disabled; or

(3) Who except for the amount of income or resources would qualify for supplemental security income for the aged, blind and disabled, or aid to families with dependent children and is in need of medical assistance; or

(4) Who is under 21 years of age and in need of medical care that neither he nor his relatives responsible under sections 256B.01 to 256B.26 are financially able to provide; or

(5) Who is residing in a hospital for treatment of mental disease or tuberculosis and is 65 years of age or older and without means sufficient to pay the per capita hospital charge; and

(6) Who resides in Minnesota, or, if absent from the state, is deemed to be a resident of Minnesota in accordance with the regulations of the state agency; and

(7) Who alone, or together with his spouse, does not own real property other than the homestead. For the purposes of this section, "homestead" means the house owned and occupied by the applicant as his dwelling place, together with the land upon which it is situated and an area no greater than two contiguous lots in a platted or laid out city or town or (THE SMALLEST PARCEL ALLOWED UNDER APPLICABLE ZONING REGULATIONS) 80 contiguous acres in unplatted land. Occupancy or exemption shall be determined as provided in chapter 510 and applicable law, including continuing exemption by filing notice under section 510.07. Real estate not used as a home may not be retained unless it produces net income applicable to the family's needs or the family is making a continuing effort to sell it at a fair and reasonable price or unless sale of the real estate would net an insignificant amount of income applicable to the family's needs, or unless the commissioner determines that sale of the real estate would cause undue hardship; and

(8) Who individually does not own more than $2,000 in cash or liquid assets, or if a member of a household with two family members (husband and wife, or parent and child), does not own more than $4,000 in cash or liquid assets, plus $200 for each additional legal dependent. When only one spouse resides, or will reside after applying for medical assistance, in a nursing home, or is receiving or will receive alternative care under the alternative care grants program in a county with preadmission screening under section 256B.091, the cash or liquid asset amount for two family members is $10,000. The value of the following shall not be included:

(a) the homestead, and (b) one motor vehicle licensed pursuant to chapter 168 and defined as: (1) passenger automobile, (2) station wagon, (3) motorcycle, (4) motorized bicycle or (5) truck of the weight found in categories A to E, of section 168.013, subdivision 1e; and

(9) Who has or anticipates receiving an annual income not in excess of $2,600 for a single person, or $3,250 for two family members (husband and wife, parent and child, or two siblings), plus $625 for each additional legal dependent, or who has income in excess of these maxima and in the month of application, or during the three months prior to the month of application, incurs expenses for medical care that total more than one-half of the annual excess income in accordance with the regulations of the state agency. In computing income to determine eligibility of persons who are not residents of long term care facilities, the commissioner shall disregard increases in income of social security or supplementary security income recipients due solely to increases required by sections 215(i) and 1617 of the social security act, and shall disregard income of disabled persons that is also disregarded in determining eligibility for supplemental aid under section 256D.37, subdivision 1, unless prohibited by federal law or regulation. If prohibited, the commissioner shall first seek a waiver. In excess income cases, eligibility shall be limited to a period of six months beginning with the first of the month in which these medical obligations are first incurred; and

(10) Who has continuing monthly expenses for medical care that are more than the amount of his excess income, computed on a monthly basis, in which case eligibility may be established before the total income obligation referred to in the preceding paragraph is incurred, and medical assistance payments may be made to cover the monthly unmet medical need. In licensed nursing home and state hospital cases, income over and above that required for justified needs, determined pursuant to a schedule of contributions established by the commissioner of public welfare, is to be applied to the cost of institutional care. The commissioner of public welfare may establish a schedule of contributions to be made by the spouse of a nursing home resident to the cost of care and shall seek a waiver from federal regulations which establish the amount required to be contributed by either spouse when one spouse is a nursing home resident; and

(11) Who has applied or agrees to apply all proceeds received or receivable by him or his spouse from automobile accident coverage and private health care coverage to the costs of medical care for himself, his spouse, and children. The state agency may require from any applicant or recipient of medical assistance the assignment of any rights accruing under private health care coverage. Any rights or amounts so assigned shall be applied against the cost of medical care paid for under this chapter. Any assignment shall not be effective as to benefits paid or provided under automobile accident coverage and private health care coverage prior to receipt of the assignment by the person or organization providing the benefits.

Sec. 48. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 256B.07, is amended to read:

256B.07 [EXCEPTIONS IN DETERMINING RESOURCES.]

A local agency may, within the scope of regulations set by the commissioner of public welfare, waive the requirement of liquidation of excess assets when the liquidation would cause undue hardship. Household goods and furniture in use in the home, wearing apparel, insurance policies with cash surrender value not in excess of $1,500 per insured person, personal property used as a regular abode by the applicant or recipient, a prepaid funeral contract not in excess of $750 per person plus accrued interest of not more than $200, and a lot in a burial plot shall not be considered as resources available to meet medical needs.

Sec. 49. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 268.16, Subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [COLLECTION.] (1) If, after due notice, any employer defaults in any payment of contributions or interest due thereon or penalties for failure to file returns and other reports as and when required by the provisions of sections 268.03 to 268.24 or by any rule (OR REGULATION) of the commissioner, the amount due shall be collected by civil action in the name of the state of Minnesota, and any money recovered (ON ACCOUNT THEREOF) shall be credited to the funds provided for under the provisions of these sections. This remedy shall be in addition to (SUCH) other remedies (AS MAY BE HEREIN PROVIDED OR OTHERWISE) provided by law, and the employer adjudged in default shall pay the costs of (SUCH) the action. Civil actions brought under this section to collect contributions, interest due thereon, or penalties from an employer shall be heard by the court at the earliest possible date.

No action for the collection of contributions or interest thereon shall be commenced more than four years after the contributions have been reported by the employer or determined by the commissioner to be due and payable. In any action herein provided for, judgment shall be entered against any defendant in default for want of answer or demurrer, for the relief demanded in the complaint without proof, together with costs and disbursements, upon the filing of an affidavit of default.

No action shall be commenced for the collection of contributions with respect to wages paid for services performed prior to the effective date of a subsequent provision of law enacted prior to July 1, 1941, excluding (SUCH) the service from coverage under sections 268.03 to 268.24.

(2) Any employing unit which is not a resident of this state and which exercises the privilege of having one or more individuals perform service for it within this state, and any resident employing unit which exercises that privilege and thereafter removes from this state, shall be deemed thereby to appoint the secretary of state as its agent and attorney for the acceptance of process in any civil action under this subdivision. In instituting (SUCH) an action against (ANY SUCH) the employing unit the commissioner shall cause (SUCH) any process or notice to be filed with the secretary of state, together with payment of a fee of $15, and (SUCH) the service shall be sufficient service upon (SUCH) the employing unit, and shall be of the same force and validity as if served upon it personally within this state: Provided, that the commissioner shall forthwith send notice of the service of (SUCH) the process or notice, together with a copy thereof, by certified mail, return receipt requested, to (SUCH) the employing unit at its last known address and (SUCH) the return receipt, the commissioner's affidavit of compliance with the provisions of this section, and a copy of the notice of service, shall be appended to the original of the process filed in the court in which (SUCH) the civil action is pending.

278.03 [PAYMENT OF (PORTION OF) TAX.]

If the proceedings instituted by the filing of the petition have not been completed before the first day of June next following the filing, the petitioner shall pay to the county treasurer 50 percent of the tax levied for such year against the property involved, unless permission to continue prosecution of the petition without such payment is obtained as herein provided. If the proceedings instituted by the filing of the petition have not been completed by the next November 1, the petitioner shall pay to the county treasurer 50 percent of the unpaid balance of the taxes levied for the year against the property involved if the un- paid balance is $2,000 or less and 80 percent of the unpaid balance if the unpaid balance is over $2,000, unless permission to continue prosecution of the petition without payment is obtained as herein provided. The petitioner, upon ten days notice to the county attorney and to the county auditor, given at least ten days prior to the first day of June or the first day of November, may apply to the court for permission to continue prosecution of the petition without payment; and, if it is made to appear

(1) That the proposed review is to be taken in good faith;

(2) That there is probable cause to believe that the property may be held exempt from the tax levied or that the tax may be determined to be less than 50 percent of the amount levied; and

(3) That it would work a hardship upon petitioner to pay (50 PERCENT OF SUCH) the taxes due,

The secretary of state shall immediately forward, by (REGISTERED) certified mail, addressed to the corporation at its registered office, a copy of the process, notice, or demand. The making of the contract or the committing of the tort shall be deemed to be the agreement of the foreign corporation that any process against it which is so served upon the secretary of state shall be of the same legal force and effect as if served personally on it within the state of Minnesota.

These receivables shall be for use in the current fiscal year. All school district tax receipts from the March and June settlements shall be recorded as revenue in the fiscal year ending on that June 30.

Sec. 2. [124.115] [AID REDUCTIONS DUE TO TAX LEVY REVENUE RECOGNITION CHANGE.]

The district levy against which the reduction is applied shall not include any levy portions that are assumed by the state. For purposes of computing this state aid reduction, the amount levied by the district shall not include the amounts levied to make payments for bonds issued and for interest thereon; the amounts levied for repayment of debt service loans and capital loans; the amounts levied to pay the district's obligations under section 268.06, subdivision 25; and amounts levied pursuant to section 275.125, subdivisions 2d, 6a, 9a, 14a, and 20.

Subd. 4. [ACCOUNTING.] Notwithstanding any law to the contrary, the amount of the levy subtracted from state aid payments shall be recognized and reported on the school district books of account in the same way that the state aid payments would have been recognized and reported. Seven percent of the amount the district levied for taxes in 1982, payable in 1983,

Sec. 4. [124.116] [CASH FLOW LOAN FUND.]

Subdivision 1. There shall be maintained in the state treasury a cash flow loan fund for administration of moneys to be received and disbursed as authorized in this section. The purpose of this fund is to alleviate the impact of altering the recognition of tax revenue pursuant to sections 1 and 2 on the cash flow needs of the school districts. Notwithstanding the provisions of section 11A.20, subdivision 3, the investment income on funds credited to the cash flow loan fund shall accrue and be credited to the cash flow loan fund.

Subd. 2. [LOAN APPLICATIONS; REPAYMENTS.] *The commissioner of education shall establish procedures for loan applications and criteria for determining increased cash flow needs of school districts caused by the altering of recognition of tax revenue. The commissioner shall approve or disapprove loan applications on the basis of need. Any loan made pursuant to this section shall constitute an advance to the district without interest. For loans made in the 1982-1983 and 1983-1984 school years, the school district shall repay 70 percent of the loan amount by June 25 of that particular school year and the remaining 30 percent of the loan by July 25 of the next fiscal year or within five days of receiving final payment of the May tax settlement attributable to that particular school year, whichever is earlier. On June 30, 1983, $53,000,000 of the balance in the cash flow loan fund shall cancel into the general fund. Any balance in excess of that amount shall not cancel and shall be available for loans to be made in fiscal years 1984 and 1985. Loan payments made after June 30, 1983 are also appropriated for loans to be made in fiscal years 1984 and 1985.

Sec. 5. [LEGISLATURE TO EVALUATE CASH FLOW.]

Before July 1, 1982, the legislature intends to evaluate the effect of this article on the cash flow needs of school districts, and to reschedule the timing of payment of state aids and credits to school districts to the extent needed to ensure that the cash position of school districts is sufficiently favorable to ensure efficient operation.

Sec. 6. Minnesota Statutes 1981 Supplement, Section 273.13, Subdivision 15b, is amended to read:

Subd. 15b. [PROPERTY TAX CREDITS LIMITATION.] The property tax subject to the 58 percent homestead credit provided by subdivisions 6, 7 and 14a, to the homestead property tax relief provided by section 273.135 and to the supplementary homestead property tax relief provided by section 273.1391, shall be based on the total mill rate of all taxing districts levying a tax on the homestead property unless the payable 1982 total levy excluding any amount levied pursuant to section 275.50, subdivision 5, clause (k), of a taxing district other than a school district or the metropolitan transit commission is more than 108 percent of its payable 1981 total levy. If the payable 1982 total levy excluding any amount levied pursuant to section 275.50, subdivision 5, clause (k), of such taxing district is more than 108 percent of its payable 1981 total levy, then that total mill rate shall be based on 108 percent of the taxing district's payable 1981 total levy, plus any amount levied pursuant to section 275.50, subdivision 5, clause (k), for taxes payable in 1982. The commissioner of revenue shall determine and certify to all county auditors the product of each taxing district's payable 1981 total levy multiplied by 108 percent, plus any amount levied pursuant to section 275.50, subdivision 5, clause (k), for taxes payable in 1982. In the event that the sum of the county auditors' certifications exceeds the amounts appropriated, the commissioner of revenue shall proportionally reduce the certification amounts so that their sum equals the appropriation.

Sec. 7. [RECERTIFICATION.]

The county auditor of any county in which an amount was levied for taxes payable in 1982 pursuant to section 275.50, subdivision 5, clause (k), shall notify the commissioner of revenue. The commissioner of revenue shall recertify to the county auditor the property tax credits limitation amounts for taxes payable in 1982.

(HE) The treasurer shall file one of the receipts with the county auditor, and shall return one by mail on the day of its reception to the clerk of the town, city, school district, or special district to which payment was made. The clerk shall preserve the receipt in (HIS) the clerk's office. Upon written request of the state, a municipal corporation or other public body, the county treasurer shall, to the extent practicable, make partial payments of amounts collected periodically in advance of the next settlement and distribution. Accompanying each payment shall be a statement prepared by the county treasurer designating the years for which taxes included in the payment were collected and, for each year, the amount of the taxes and any penalties thereon. The county treasurer shall pay, upon written request of the state, a municipal corporation or other public body (PAY) except school districts, at least 70 percent of the estimated collection within 30 days after the settlement date. Within 15 days after the settlement date, the county treasurer shall pay to the treasurer of the school districts at least 70 percent of the estimated collections arising from taxes levied by and belonging to the school district. (HE) The treasurer shall pay the balance of the amounts collected to the state or to a municipal corporation or other body within 60 days after the settlement date, provided, however, that after 45 days interest shall accrue at a rate of eight percent per annum to the credit of and shall be paid to the state, municipal corporation or other body. Interest shall be payable upon appropriation from the general revenue fund of the county and, if not paid, may be recovered by the state, municipal corporation, or other body, in a civil action.

(e) Modification in computing taxable income of the estate of a decedent. Amounts allowable under section 291.07, subdivision 1, clause (2) in computing Minnesota inheritance or estate tax liability shall not be allowed as a deduction (or as an offset against the sales price of property in determining gain or loss) in computing the taxable income of the estate or any person unless there is filed within the time and in the manner and form prescribed by the commissioner a statement that the amounts have not been allowed as a deduction under section 291.07 and a waiver of the right to have the amounts allowed at any time as deductions under section 291.07. The provisions of this paragraph shall not apply with respect to deductions allowed under section 290.077 (relating to income in respect of decedents). In the event that the election made for federal tax purposes under section 642(g) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 differs from the election made under this paragraph appropriate modification of the estate's federal taxable income shall be made to implement the election made under this paragraph in accordance with regulations prescribed by the commissioner.

(c) If personal property or educational services are purchased under a contract the provisions of section 163(b) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, as amended through December 31, 1980 shall apply.

(d) A cash basis taxpayer may elect to deduct interest as it accrues on a reverse mortgage loan as defined in section 47.58, subdivision 1, rather than when it is actually paid. This election must be made, if at all, in the first taxable year in which it is available to the cash basis taxpayer and, if made, shall be binding on the taxpayer for each subsequent taxable year until maturity of the loan.

(e) In the case of a taxpayer other than a corporation, the amount of interest on investment indebtedness allowable as a deduction shall be allowed and limited as set forth in section 163(d) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, as amended through December 31, 1980. The limitation prescribed in section 163(d)(1)(A) for married individuals who file separate returns shall also apply to married individuals who file separately on one return.

(f) A taxpayer may not deduct interest on indebtedness incurred or continued to purchase or carry obligations or shares, or to make deposits or other investments, the interest on which is described in section 116(c) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, as amended through December 31, 1980 to the extent such interest is excludable from gross income under section 116 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 as amended through December 31, 1980. Interest and carrying costs in the case of straddles shall be treated as provided in section 263(g) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, as amended through October 2, 1981.

Sec. 11. Minnesota Statutes 1981 Supplement, Section 290.06, Subdivision 2d, is amended to read:

Subd. 2d. [INFLATION ADJUSTMENT OF BRACKETS.]

(a) Subject to the provisions of clause (b), for taxable years beginning after December 31, 1980, the taxable net income brackets in subdivision 2c shall be adjusted for inflation. For the purpose of making the adjustment as provided in this subdivision all of the brackets provided in subdivision 2c shall be the adjusted brackets as they existed for taxable years beginning after December 31, 1979 and before January 1, 1981. The commissioner shall determine: (a) the percentage increase in the revised consumer price index for all urban consumers for the Minneapolis-St. Paul metropolitan area prepared by the United States department of labor. He shall then determine the percent change from August, 1980, to, in 1981, August, 1981, and in each subsequent year, from August of the preceding year to August of the current year; and (b) the percentage increase in average Minnesota gross income from tax year 1980 to, in 1981, tax year 1981, and in each subsequent tax year between the previous tax year and the current tax year. The percent increases in Minnesota gross income shall be estimated using the best available data sources and reasonable forecasting procedures. The determination of the commissioner pursuant to this section shall not be considered a "rule" and shall not be subject to the administrative procedures act contained in chapter 15.

The dollar amount in each taxable net income bracket for the prior year in subdivision 2c shall be multiplied by a figure calculated as one plus 100 percent of the consumer price index increase or 100 percent of the Minnesota gross income increase, whichever is smaller. The product of the calculation shall yield the inflation adjusted tax brackets for each succeeding year. If the product exceeds a whole dollar amount, it shall be rounded to the nearest whole dollar.

No later than October 1 of each year, the commissioner shall announce both percentage increases and the specific percentage that will be used to adjust the tax brackets, the maximum standard deduction amount, and the personal credit amounts.

(b) For the first taxable year of each taxpayer beginning after December 31, 1981, the taxable net income brackets adjusted according to the percentages determined by October 1, 1982 shall be further adjusted by reducing the dollar amount in each bracket by 12.3 percent. The bracket amounts resulting from this adjustment shall be those subject to subsequent adjustments pursuant to clause (a) for taxable years beginning after December 31, 1982. The 12.3 percent adjustment provided in this clause does not apply to the adjustment of the personal credit amounts or the maximum standard deduction amount pursuant to clause (a).

Sec. 12. Minnesota Statutes 1981 Supplement, Section 290.09, Subdivision 7, is amended to read:

Subd. 7. [DEPRECIATION.] (A) [CUMULATIVE DEPRECIATION.] (a) There shall be allowed as a depreciation deduction a reasonable allowance for the exhaustion, wear and tear (including a reasonable allowance for obsolescence):

- (1) of property used in the trade or business, or
- (2) of property held for the production of income.

(b) The term "reasonable allowance" as used in clause (a) shall include (but shall not be limited to) an allowance computed in accordance with regulations prescribed by the commissioner, under any of the following methods:

- (1) the straight line method.
- (2) the declining balance method, using a rate not exceeding twice the rate which would have been used had the annual allowance been computed under the method described in paragraph (1).

(3) the sum of the years-digits method, and

(4) any other consistent method productive of an annual allowance, which, when added to all allowances for the period commencing with the taxpayer's use of the property and including the taxable year, does not, during the first two-thirds of the useful life of the property, exceed the total of such allowances which would have been used had such allowances been computed under the method described in (2). Nothing in this clause (b) shall be construed to limit or reduce an allowance otherwise allowable under clause (a).

For purposes of this subdivision "reasonable allowance" shall not include the accelerated cost recovery system provisions of section 168 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, as amended through October 2, 1981, unless specifically authorized by legislation enacted after the final enactment of this section.

(c) Paragraphs (2), (3), and (4) of clause (b) shall apply only in the case of property (other than intangible property) described in clause (a) with a useful life of three years or more.

(1) the construction, reconstruction, or erection of which is completed after December 31, 1958, and then only to that portion of the basis which is properly attributable to such construction, reconstruction, or erection after December 31, 1958, or

(2) acquired after December 31, 1958, if the original use of such property commenced with the taxpayer and commences after such date.

(d) Where, under regulations prescribed by the commissioner, the taxpayer and the commissioner have, after June 30, 1959, entered into an agreement in writing specifically dealing with the useful life and rate of depreciation of any property, the rate so agreed upon shall be binding on both the taxpayer and the commissioner in the absence of facts or circumstances not taken into consideration in the adoption of such agreement. The responsibility of establishing the existence of such facts and circumstances shall rest with the party initiating the modification. Any change in the agreed rate and useful life specified in the agreement shall not be effective for taxable years before the taxable year in which notice in writing by certified mail is served by the party to the agreement initiating such change.

(e) In the absence of an agreement under clause (d) containing a provision to the contrary, a taxpayer may at any time elect in accordance with regulations prescribed by the commissioner to change from the method of depreciation prescribed in clause (b) (2) to the method described in clause (b) (1).

(f) The basis on which exhaustion, wear and tear, and obsolescence are to be allowed in respect of any property shall be the adjusted basis provided in sections 290.131 to 290.139, 290.14 and 290.15 for the purpose of determining the gain on the sale or other disposition of such property.

(g) In the case of property held by one person for life with remainder to another person, the deduction shall be computed as if the life tenant were the absolute owner of the property and shall be allowed to the life tenant. In the case of property held in trust the allowable deduction shall be apportioned between the income beneficiary and the trustee in accordance with the pertinent provisions of the instrument creating the trust, or, in the absence of such provisions, on the basis of the trust income allocable to each. In the case of an estate, the allowable deduction shall be apportioned between the estate and the heirs, legatees, and devisees on the basis of the income of the state allocable to each.

(h) In the case of buildings or other structures or improvements constructed or made on leased premises by a lessee, and the fixtures and machinery therein installed, the lessee alone shall be entitled to the allowance of this deduction.

(B) [FIRST YEAR DEPRECIATION.] (a) In the case of section 1 property, the term "reasonable allowance" as used in subdivision 7, may, at the election of the taxpayer, include an allowance, for the first taxable year for which a deduction is allowable under subdivision 7, to the taxpayer with respect to such property, of 20 percent of the cost of such property.

(b) If in any one taxable year the cost of section 1 property with respect to which the taxpayer may elect an allowance under (a) for such taxable year exceeds $10,000, then (a) shall apply with respect to those items selected by the taxpayer, but only to the extent of an aggregate cost of $10,000. In the case of a husband and wife who file a joint return under section 290.38 for the taxable year, the limitation under the preceding sentence shall be $20,000 in lieu of $10,000.

(c) (1) The election under this subdivision for any taxable year shall be made within the time prescribed by law (including extensions thereof) for filing the return for such taxable year. The election shall be made in such manner as the commissioner may by regulations prescribe.

(2) Any election made under this subdivision may not be revoked except with the consent of the commissioner.

(d) (1) For purposes of this subdivision, the term "Section 1 property" means tangible personal property (excluding buildings and structures)

(A) of a character subject to the allowance for depreciation under subdivision 7.

(B) acquired by purchase after December 31, 1958, for use in a trade or business or for holding for production of income, and

(C) with a useful life (determined at the time of such acquisition) of six years or more.

(2) For purposes of paragraph (1), the term "purchase" means any acquisition of property, but only if

(A) the property is not acquired from a person whose relationship to the person acquiring it would result in the disallowance of losses under section 290.10(6),

(B) the property is not acquired by one component member of a controlled group from another component member of the same controlled group, and

(C) the basis of the property in the hands of the person acquiring it is not determined

(i) in whole or in part by reference to the adjusted basis of such property in the hands of the person from whom acquired, or

(ii) under section 290.14(4) (relating to property acquired from a decedent).

(3) For purposes of this subdivision, the cost of property does not include so much of the basis of such property as is determined by reference to the basis of other property held at any time by the person acquiring such property.

(4) This subdivision shall not apply to trusts.

(5) In the case of an estate, any amount apportioned to an heir, legatee, or devisee shall not be taken into account in applying (B) of this subdivision to section 1 property of such heir, legatee, or devisee not held by such estate.

(6) For purposes of (B) of this subdivision

(A) all component members of a controlled group shall be treated as one taxpayer, and

(B) the commissioner shall apportion the dollar limitation contained in such (B) among the component members of such controlled group in such manner as he shall by regulations prescribe.

(7) For purposes of paragraphs (2) and (6), the term "controlled group" has the meaning assigned to it by section 1563(a) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, as amended through December 31, 1979, except that, for such purposes, the phrase "more than 50 percent" shall be substituted for the phrase "at least 80 percent" each place it appears in section 1563(a)(1) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, as amended through December 31, 1979.

Sec. 13. Minnesota Statutes 1981 Supplement, Section 290.18, Subdivision 4, is amended to read:

Subd. 4. [TAXABLE NET INCOME ADJUSTMENT FACTOR.] For the taxable year beginning after December 31, 1980 and (ENDING) before January 1, 1982, the commissioner of revenue shall adjust taxable net income by multiplying the taxable net income of each individual, estate and trust by a fraction, the numerator of which is one plus the predicted rate of growth in average Minnesota gross income between tax year 1980 and tax year 1981. The denominator of the adjustment fraction shall be one plus the product of (a) the predicted rate of growth in average Minnesota gross income as determined above, and (b) the difference between the ratio of Minnesota gross income to Minnesota adjusted gross income and the product of the ratio of federal taxes paid to Minnesota adjusted gross income and an estimate of average federal income tax elasticity relating percent changes in federal adjusted gross income to percent changes in net federal income tax liabilities.

For each taxable year beginning after December 31, 1981, the commissioner of revenue shall adjust taxable net income by multiplying the taxable net income of each individual, estate, and trust by an adjustment factor determined by multiplying the previous year's adjustment factor by the current year adjustment factor as defined above using data appropriate to the current year.

The data used shall reflect the most current aggregate tax statistics collected and tabulated by the department of revenue. The estimate of the percentage increase in Minnesota gross income shall be based on the best available data sources and reasonable forecasting procedures. The estimate of federal income tax elasticity shall reflect the best available sources of information, including the judgment of the United States Internal Revenue Service and the United States Treasury, Office of Tax Analysis. The determination of the commissioner pursuant to this section shall not be considered a "rule" and shall not be subject to the administrative procedures act contained in chapter 15.

No later than October 1 of each tax year, the commissioner shall announce the adjustment factor to be applied to taxable net income, including its separate components, and the estimate of federal elasticity.

Sec. 14. Minnesota Statutes 1981 Supplement, Section 290.53, Subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [FAILURE TO PAY TAX.] If any tax imposed by this chapter is not paid within the time herein specified for the payment thereof, or within 30 days after final determination of an appeal to the tax court relating thereto if the taxpayer is not required to pay the amount in dispute pending appeal under section 15, there shall be added thereto a specific penalty equal to ten percent of the amount so remaining unpaid. Such penalty shall be collected as part of said tax, and the amount of said tax not timely paid, together with said penalty shall bear interest at the rate specified in section 270.75 from the time such tax should have been paid until paid. Interest accruing upon the tax due as disclosed by the return or upon the amount determined as a deficiency from the date prescribed for the payment of the tax (if the tax is payable in installments, from the date the installment or installments become due and payable under the provisions of section 290.45, subdivision 1) shall be added to the tax and be collected as a part thereof. Where an extension of time for payment has been granted under section 290.45, subdivision 2, interest shall be paid at the rate specified in section 270.75 from the date when such payment should have been made if no extension had been granted; until such tax is paid. If payment is not made at the expiration of the extended period the penalties provided in this section shall apply.

Sec. 15. [290.531] [PAYMENT OF TAX PENDING APPEAL.]

When a taxpayer appeals his tax liability under chapter 290 to the tax court, and the amount in dispute is more than $4,000, the entire amount of the tax shall be paid at the time it is due unless permission to continue prosecution of the petition without payment is obtained as provided herein. The petitioner, upon ten days notice to the commissioner, may apply to the court for permission to continue prosecution of the petition without payment; and, if it is made to appear

- (1) That the proposed review is to be taken in good faith;
- (2) That there is probable cause to believe that the taxpayer may be held exempt from the tax or that the tax may be determined to be less than 50 percent of the amount due; and
- (3) That it would work a substantial hardship upon petitioner to pay the tax,

the court may permit the petitioner to continue prosecution of the petition without payment, or may fix a lesser amount to be paid as a condition of continuing the prosecution of the petition.

Failure to make payment of the amount required when due shall operate automatically to dismiss the petition and all proceedings thereunder unless the payment is waived by an order of the court permitting the petitioner to continue prosecution of the petition without payment.

Sec. 16. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 297.02, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 1a. [ADDITIONAL TAX.] In addition to the tax imposed pursuant to subdivision 1, there is imposed a tax upon the sale of cigarettes in this state or having cigarettes in possession in this state with intent to sell and upon any person engaged in business as a distributor thereof, at the following rates, subject to the discount provided in section 297.03:

(1) On cigarettes weighing not more than three pounds per thousand, 2.5 mills on each cigarette;

(2) On cigarettes weighing more than three pounds per thousand, 2.5 mills on each cigarette.

Sec. 17. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 297.13, Subdivision 1, is amended to read:

[CIGARETTE TAX APPORTIONMENT ACCOUNT.] Notwithstanding any other provisions of law, five and one-half percent of the revenues received from taxes, penalties and interest under sections 297.01 to 297.13 except for that which is paid under section 297.02, subdivision 1a, shall be deposited by the commissioner of revenue in the general fund and credited to a special account to be known as the "natural resources account," which is hereby created. Expenditures shall be made from said account only as may be authorized by law to carry out the provisions of this act and in conformance with the provisions of chapter 16. Five and one-half percent except for that which is paid under section 297.02, subdivision 1a, shall be deposited in the general fund and credited to the "natural resources acceleration" account for the purposes provided in Laws 1969, Chapter 879, Section 4. The balance of the revenues derived from taxes, penalties, and interest under sections 297.01 to 297.13 and from license fees and miscellaneous sources of revenue shall be deposited by the commissioner in the general fund and credited to the general fund.

Sec. 18. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 297.22, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 1a. [ADDITIONAL TAX.] In addition to the tax imposed pursuant to subdivision 1, there is imposed a tax upon the use or storage by consumers of cigarettes in this state, and upon such consumers, at the following rates:

(1) On cigarettes weighing not more than three pounds per thousand, 2.5 mills on each cigarette;

(2) On cigarettes weighing more than three pounds per thousand, 2.5 mills on each cigarette.

Sec. 19. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 297.26, is amended to read:

297.26 [REVENUE DISTRIBUTION.]

All revenues derived from taxes, penalties and interest under sections 297.21 to 297.26 shall be deposited by the commissioner in the general fund and disposed of in the same manner as provided by section 297.13 for revenues received under sections 297.01 to 297.13 except that no amount of the revenue from the additional tax imposed pursuant to section 297.22, subdivision 1a, shall be credited to the natural resources account or to the natural resources acceleration account.

Sec. 20. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 297A.39, Subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. If any tax imposed by sections 297A.01 to 297A.44, or any portion thereof, is not paid within the time herein specified for the payment, or an extension thereof, or within 30 days after final determination of an appeal to the tax court relating thereto if the taxpayer is not required to pay the amount in dispute pending appeal under section 21, there shall be added thereto a specific penalty equal to ten percent of the amount remaining unpaid.

Sec. 21. [297A.391] [PAYMENT OF TAX PENDING APPEAL.]

When a taxpayer appeals his tax liability under chapter 297A to the tax court, and the amount in dispute is more than $4,000, the entire amount of the tax shall be paid at the time it is due unless permission to continue prosecution of the petition without payment is obtained as provided herein. The petitioner, upon ten days notice to the commissioner, may apply to the court for permission to continue prosecution of the petition without payment; and, if it is made to appear

(1) That the proposed review is to be taken in good faith;

(2) That there is probable cause to believe that the taxpayer may be held exempt from payment of the tax or that the tax may be determined to be less than 50 percent of the amount due; and the court may permit the petitioner to continue prosecution of the petition without payment, or may fix a lesser amount to be paid as a condition of continuing the prosecution of the petition.

(3) That it would work a substantial hardship upon petitioner to pay the tax,

Failure to make payment of the amount required when due shall operate automatically to dismiss the petition and all proceedings thereunder unless the payment is waived by an order of the court permitting the petitioner to continue prosecution of the petition without payment.

Sec. 22. Minnesota Statutes 1981 Supplement, Section 477A.03, Subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [LIMITATION ON APPROPRIATION; PROPORTIONATE REDUCTION.] The amount appropriated under subdivision 1 shall not exceed ($270,725,464) $250,725,464 for calendar year 1982 and shall not exceed $293,561,978 for calendar year 1983. If the limitations contained in this subdivision result in a reduction in the amounts determined pursuant to sections 477A.012 and 477A.013, each governmental unit receiving local government aid shall have its distribution proportionally reduced, but no local government unit shall receive less aid than its previous year aid.

Sec. 23. [PRORATION OF 1982 AID PAYMENTS.]

Notwithstanding the provisions of Minnesota Statutes, Chapter 477A or any other law to the contrary, the reduction in state aids payable to local governments required under section 22 shall be effected by providing a pro rata reduction of the aids that would have been paid to each county and municipality under the provisions of Minnesota Statutes 1981 Supplement, Sections 477A.011 to 477A.014 if there had been no such reduction.

Sec. 24. Laws 1981, First Special Session, Chapter 1, Article I, Section 5, is amended to read:

The

taxable net income adjustment factor for taxable years beginning after December 31, 1980 and before January 1, 1982 shall be (ONE-HALF OF THE AMOUNT COMPUTED PURSUANT TO SECTION 4) computed as follows: the taxable net income adjustment factor calculated pursuant to Laws 1981, First Special Session, Chapter 1, Article I, Section 4 minus one shall be divided by two and the resulting quotient added to one.

Sec. 25. [REPEALER.]

Sections 14, 15, 20, and 21 are effective for petitions filed after January 1, 1982. Sections 16, 17, 18, and 19 are effective January 1, 1982. Section 25 is effective January 1, 1983.

ARTICLE IV

BUSINESS TAX

Section 1. [STATEMENT OF LEGISLATIVE INTENT.]

The legislature finds that certain provisions of the state income tax law generally applied to corporations produce an inequitable result when applied to major oil companies, allowing those companies to escape taxation on a great proportion of their profits. The legislature further finds that there are at least two causes of this inequity: First, during the last several years, major oil companies have increased both the prices charged for their products and the profits realized from their enterprises by extraordinary amounts, greatly in excess of the price and profit increases of other businesses in this state, resulting in an enormous outflow of public and private capital from the state. Second, the complexity of structure of most major oil companies, together with certain tax shelter provisions currently used on a grand scale by the companies, allows major oil companies to be taxed on only a very small proportion of their profits. Because the primary objective of the income tax law is to raise essential government revenues by fairly distributing the tax burden among taxpayers, it is declared that certain changes in the income tax law, as they apply to major oil companies, must be effected in order that those companies will bear a fair and equitable share of the statewide tax burden.

Sec. 2. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 290.01, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 28. [MAJOR OIL COMPANY.] The term "major oil company" means a corporation which is engaged in all of the following activities: (1) the extraction or production of crude oil in excess of an average of 100,000 barrels of crude oil per day; (2) the refining of crude oil in excess of an average of 100,000 barrels of crude oil per day; and (3) the marketing or distribution for marketing in this state of gasoline, motor fuel, fuel oil, and similar products from the refining or manufacture of crude oil. A major oil company includes a parent corporation and the subsidiaries of a company engaging in a unitary business if the parent itself or through one or more of its subsidiaries individually or collectively comes within the definition of a major oil company and markets or distributes petroleum or petroleum products in Minnesota.

Sec. 3. Minnesota Statutes 1981 Supplement, Section 290.09, Subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [LIMITATIONS.] (a) Except as provided in clause (b), the following deductions from gross income shall be allowed in computing net income, provided that any item which was deducted in arriving at gross income under the provisions of section 290.01, subdivision 20, shall not be again deducted under this section.

Property taxes may not be deducted under this section if

(1) The taxes are attributable to a trade or business carried on by an individual, or

(2) The taxes are expenses for the production of income which are paid or incurred by an individual; and which are not allowed as a deduction under section 164 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, as amended through December 31, 1980.

(b) A major oil company shall not deduct amounts otherwise deductible for depletion or intangible drilling costs, including ordinary loss deductions taken for nonproductive wells, with respect to the production of petroleum, not including the production of natural gas.

Sec. 4. Minnesota Statutes 1981 Supplement, Section 290.091, is amended to read:

290.091 [MINIMUM TAX ON PREFERENCE ITEMS.]

In addition to all other taxes imposed by this chapter there is hereby imposed, a tax which, in the case of a resident individual, shall be equal to 40 percent of the amount of the taxpayer's minimum tax liability for tax preference items pursuant to the provisions of sections 55 to 58 and 443(d) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 as amended through December 31, 1980 except that for purposes of the tax imposed by this section, capital gain as defined in section 57(a) of the Internal Revenue Code shall not include that portion of any gain occasioned by sale, transfer or the granting of a perpetual easement pursuant to any eminent domain proceeding or threat thereof as described in section 290.13, subdivision 5. This modification shall apply to the years in which the gain or reduction in loss is actually included in federal adjusted gross income even though amounts received pursuant to the eminent domain proceedings were received in prior years. In the case of a taxpayer other than a corporation, an amount equal to one-half of the net capital gain for the taxable year shall be used as the definition of capital gain in place of the deduction determined under section 1202 of the Internal Revenue Code. In the case of a resident individual, having preference items which could not be taken to reduce income from sources outside the state pursuant to section 290.17, subdivision 1, or any other taxpayer the tax shall equal 40 percent of that federal liability, multiplied by a fraction the numerator of which is the amount of the taxpayer's preference item income allocated to this state pursuant to the provisions of sections 290.17 to 290.20, and the denominator of which is the taxpayer's total preference item income for federal purposes. In the case of a major oil company, any amount deducted for depletion for federal tax purposes but not deductible for state tax purposes pursuant to section 290.09, subdivision 1, clause (b) shall not be considered a tax preference item.

Sec. 5. Minnesota Statutes 1981 Supplement, Section 290.17, Subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [OTHER TAXPAYERS.] In the case of taxpayers not subject to the provisions of subdivision 1, items of gross income shall be assigned to this state or other states or countries in accordance with the following principles:

(1) The entire income of all resident or domestic taxpayers from compensation for labor or personal services, or from a business consisting principally of the performance of personal or professional services, shall be assigned to this state, and the income of nonresident taxpayers from such sources shall be assigned to this state if, and to the extent that, the labor or services are performed within it; all other income from such sources shall be treated as income from sources without this state;

(2) Income from the operation of a farm shall be assigned to this state if the farm is located within this state and to other states only if the farm is not located in this state. Income and gains received from tangible property not employed in the business of the recipient of such income or gains, and from tangible property employed in the business of such recipient if such business consists principally of the holding of such property and the collection of the income and gains therefrom, shall be assigned to this state if such property has a situs within it, and to other states only if it has no situs in this state. Income or gains from intangible personal property not employed in the business of the recipient of such income or gains, and from intangible personal property employed in the business of such recipient if such business consists principally of the holding of such property and the collection of the income and gains therefrom, wherever held, whether in trust, or otherwise, shall be assigned to this state if the recipient thereof is domiciled within this state; income or gains from intangible personal property wherever held, whether in trust or otherwise shall be assigned to this state if the recipient of such income or gains is domiciled within this state, or if the grantor of any trust is domiciled within this state and such income or gains would be taxable to such grantor under section 290.25 or 290.29;

(3) Income derived from carrying on a trade or business, including in the case of a business owned by natural persons the income imputable to the owner for his services and the use of his property therein, shall be assigned to this state if the trade or business is conducted wholly within this state, and to other states if conducted wholly without this state. This provision shall not apply to business income subject to the provisions of clause (1);

(4) When a trade or business is carried on partly within and partly without this state, the entire income derived from such trade or business, including income from intangible property employed in such business and including, in the case of a business owned by natural persons, the income imputable to the owner for his services and the use of his property therein, shall be governed, except as otherwise provided in sections 290.35 and 290.36, by the provisions of section 290.19, notwithstanding any provisions of this section to the contrary. This shall not apply to business income subject to the provisions of clause (1), nor shall it apply to income from the operation of a farm which is subject to the provisions of clause (2). For the purposes of this clause, a trade or business located in Minnesota is carried on partly within and partly without this state if tangible personal property is sold by such trade or business and delivered or shipped to a purchaser located outside the state of Minnesota.

If the trade or business carried on wholly or partly in Minnesota is part of a unitary business, the entire income of that unitary business shall be subject to apportionment under section 290.19. The term "unitary business" means a number of business activities or operations which are of mutual benefit, dependent upon, or contributory to one another, individually or as a group. Unity is presumed whenever there is unity of ownership, operation, and use, evidenced by centralized management or executive force, centralized purchasing, advertising, accounting, or other controlled interaction. Unity is also presumed whenever the activities or operations of one unit are similar or related to the group's principal activities and not an unrelated discrete business enterprise.

The entire income of a unitary business, including all income from each activity, operation, or division, shall be subject to apportionment as provided in section 290.19. None of the income of a unitary business shall be considered as derived from any particular source, and none shall be allocated to any particular place except as provided by the applicable apportionment formula.

In determining whether or not intangible property is employed in a unitary business carried on partly within and partly without this state so that income derived therefrom is subject to apportionment under section 290.19 the following rules and guidelines shall apply.

(a) Intangible property is employed in a business if the business entity owning intangible property holds it as a means of furthering the business operation of which a part is located within the territorial confines of this state.

(b) Where a business operation conducted in Minnesota, is owned by a business entity which carries on business activity outside of the state different in kind from that conducted within this state, and such other business is conducted entirely outside the state, it will be presumed that the two business operations are unitary in nature, interrelated, connected and interdependent unless it can be shown to the contrary.

(5) In the case of a nonresident who is liable for payment of a penalty for having withdrawn funds from an individual housing account established pursuant to section 290.08, subdivision 25, the amount so withdrawn and for which a deduction was allowed shall be an item of income assignable to this state, and the penalty tax of ten percent shall remain an additional liability of that taxpayer.

(6) For purposes of this section, amounts received by a nonresident from the United States, its agencies or instrumentalities, the Federal Reserve Bank, the state of Minnesota or any of its political or governmental subdivisions, or a Minnesota volunteer fireman's relief association, by way of payment as a pension, public employee retirement benefit, or any combination thereof, or as a retirement or survivor's benefit made from a plan qualifying under section 401, 403, 404, 405, 408, 409 or 409A of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, as amended through December 31, 1979, are not considered income derived from carrying on a trade or business or from performing personal or professional services in Minnesota, and are not taxable under this chapter.

(7) All other items of gross income shall be assigned to the taxpayer's domicile.

Sec. 6. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 290.19, Subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [COMPUTATION, BUSINESS CONDUCTED PARTLY WITHIN STATE; APPORTIONMENT.] The taxable net income from a trade or business carried on partly within and partly without this state shall be computed by deducting from the gross income of such business, wherever derived, deductions of the kind permitted by section 290.09, so far as connected with or allocable against the production or receipt of such income. The remaining net income shall be apportioned to Minnesota as follows:

(1) If the business consists of the mining, producing, smelting, refining, or any combination of these activities of copper and nickel ores, or of the manufacture of personal property and the sale of said property within and without the state, the remainder shall be apportioned to Minnesota on the basis of the percentage obtained by taking the arithmetical average of the following three percentages:

(a) The percentage which the sales made within this state is of the total sales wherever made;

(b) The percentage which the total tangible property, real, personal, and mixed, owned or rented, and used by the taxpayer in this state during the tax period in connection with such trade or business is of the total tangible property, real, personal, or mixed, wherever located, owned or rented and, used by the taxpayer in connection with such trade or business during the tax period; and,

(c) The percentage which the taxpayer's total payrolls paid or incurred in this state or paid in respect to labor performed in this state in connection with such trade or business is of the taxpayer's total payrolls paid or incurred in connection with such entire trade or business;

(d) The percentage of such remainder to be assigned to this state shall not be in excess of the sum of the following percentages: 70 percent of the percentage determined under clause (1) (a), 15 percent of the percentage determined under clause (1) (b), and 15 percent of the percentage determined under clause (1) (c);

(2) If the business is a major oil company, the remainder shall be apportioned to Minnesota on the basis of the sum of the percentages set forth in clause (1)(d); the arithmetical average shall not be used by a major oil company;

((2)) (3) (a) In all other cases the remainder shall be apportioned to Minnesota on the basis of the percentage obtained by taking the arithmetical average of the following three percentages:

(1) The percentage which the sales, gross earnings, or receipts from business operations, in whole or in part, within this state bear to the total sales, gross earnings, or receipts from business operations wherever conducted;

(2) The percentage which the total tangible property, real, personal, and mixed, owned or rented, and used by the taxpayer in this state during the tax period in connection with such trade or business is of the total tangible property, real, personal, or mixed, wherever located, owned, or rented, and used by the taxpayer in connection with such trade or business during the tax period; and

(3) The percentage which the taxpayer's total payrolls paid or incurred in this state or paid in respect to labor performed in this state in connection with such trade or business is of the taxpayer's total payrolls paid or incurred in connection with such entire trade or business;

(4) The percentage of such remainder to be assigned to this state shall not be in excess of the sum of the following percentages: 70 percent of the percentage determined under clause ((2)) (3) (a) (1), 15 percent of the percentage determined under clause ((2)) (3) (a) (2), and 15 percent of the percentage determined under clause ((2)) (3) (a) (3);

(b) If the methods prescribed under clause ((2)) (3) (a) will not properly reflect taxable net income assignable to the state, there may be used, if practicable and if such use will properly and fairly reflect such income, the percentage which the sales, gross earnings, or receipts from business operations, in whole or in part, within this state bear to the total sales, gross earnings, or receipts from business operations wherever conducted; or the separate or segregated accounting method. If the commissioner determines that the methods prescribed in clause (3) will not properly reflect the taxable net income of a major oil company assignable to the state he shall use only the sales factor to determine the amount so assignable;

((3)) (4) The sales, payrolls, earnings, and receipts referred to in this section shall be those for the taxable year in respect of which the tax is being computed. The property referred to in this section shall be the average of the property owned or used by the taxpayer during the taxable year in respect of which the tax is being computed.

Sec. 7. Minnesota Statutes 1981 Supplement, Section 290.21, Subdivision 4, is amended to read:

Subd. 4. (a) 85 percent of dividends received by a corporation during the taxable year from another corporation, when the corporate stock with respect to which dividends are paid does not constitute the stock in trade of the taxpayer or would not be included in the inventory of the taxpayer, or does not constitute property held by the taxpayer primarily for sale to customers in the ordinary course of his trade or business, or when the trade or business of the taxpayer does not consist principally of the holding of the stocks and the collection of the income and gains therefrom. The remaining 15 percent shall be allowed if the recipient owns 80 percent or more of all the voting stock of such other corporation, and the dividends were paid from income arising out of business done in this state by the corporation paying such dividends; but if the income out of which the dividends are declared was derived from business done within and without this state, then so much of the remainder shall be allowed as a deduction as the amount of the taxable net income of the corporation paying the dividends assignable or allocable to this state bears to the entire net income of the corporation, such rate being determined by the returns under this chapter of the corporation paying such dividends for the taxable year preceding the distribution thereof; the burden shall be on the taxpayer of showing that the amount of remainder claimed as a deduction has been received from income arising out of business done in this state,

(b) if the trade or business of the taxpayer consists principally of the holding of the stocks and the collection of the income and gains therefrom, dividends received by a corporation during the taxable year from another corporation, if the recipient owns 80 percent or more of all the voting stock of such other corporation, from income arising out of business done in this state by the corporation paying such dividends; but, if the income out of which the dividends are declared was derived from business done within and without this state, then so much of the dividends shall be allowed as deduction as the amount of the taxable net income of the corporation paying the dividends assignable or allocable to this state bears to the entire net income of the corporation, such rate being determined by the returns under this chapter of the corporation paying such dividends for the taxable year preceding the distribution thereof. The burden shall be on the taxpayer of showing that the amount of dividends claimed as a deduction has been received from income arising out of business done in this state.

(c) The dividend deduction provided in this subdivision shall be allowed only with respect to dividends that are included in a corporation's Minnesota taxable net income for the taxable year.

(d) In the case of a major oil company, no credit shall be allowed for dividends received from a foreign corporation, unless the dividends are received from a subsidiary whose income is combined with that of the parent company receiving the dividend pursuant to section 290.01, subdivision 28.

(e) In the case of a corporation which is permitted or required to file a combined report under section 290.34, subdivision 2, dividends shall be excluded from the income of the recipient to the extent the dividends are already included as income on the combined report.

Sec. 8. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 290.34, Subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [AFFILIATED OR RELATED CORPORATIONS, CONSOLIDATED STATEMENTS.] When a corporation which is required to file an income tax return is affiliated with or related to any other corporation through stock ownership by the same interests or as parent or subsidiary corporations, or has its income regulated through contract or other arrangement, the commissioner of revenue may permit or require (SUCH CONSOLIDATED STATEMENTS AS) a combined report if, in his opinion, (ARE) it is necessary in order to determine the taxable net income received by any one of the affiliated or related corporations. For purposes of computing the apportionment formula under section 290.19, subdivision 1, for each corporation involved, the numerator of the fraction shall be that corporation's sales, property, or payroll in Minnesota and the denominator shall be the total sales, payroll, and property of all of the corporations shown on the combined report. The combined report shall reflect the income of the entire unitary business as provided in section 290.17, subdivision 2, clause (4). The combined report shall reflect income from corporations wherever created or organized. It is the intent of the legislature to adopt the combined reporting method provided in Butler Brothers v. McColgan, 111 P.2d 334, and 315 U.S. 501, and Edison California Stores v. McColgan, 183 P.2d 16, and to treat all income as business income to the maximum extent allowable under Mobile Oil Corporation v. Commissioner of Taxes of Vermont, 445 U.S. 425.

Sec. 9. [EFFECTIVE DATE.]

Sections 1 to 4, 5, as amended in clause (4) the first paragraph, 6, and 7, clause (d) are effective for taxable years beginning after December 31, 1981. The remainder of section 5, section 7, clause (e), and section 8 are effective for taxable years beginning after June 30, 1981.

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

"Section 1. [STATEMENT OF PURPOSE.]

Stagnant national and local economic conditions have resulted in reduced state budgetary resources and consequently have caused similar reductions in the budgets of local governments with the prospect of additional reductions in 1982 due to the interrelation of the state's tax and aid systems. In order to support and stabilize local budget conditions, maintain public confidence in the state's system of intergovernmental finance, and minimize precipitous increases in property tax rates, the state finds it necessary to assure local governments that state obligations to them will be met, and to grant additional powers to local governments so that they can most efficiently and effectively deal with local problems resulting from temporary state measures designed to alleviate the budget crisis.

Sec. 2. [DEFINITIONS.]

For purposes of sections 2 to 4 the following terms have the meanings given:

(a) "Municipality" means a county, statutory or home rule charter city, town, or other taxing district within the meaning of section 273.13, subdivision 15a, other than a school district; and

(b) "Commissioner" means the commissioner of revenue.

Sec. 3. [FULL PAYMENT OF AIDS TO MUNICIPALITIES.]

Subdivision 1. [PAYMENTS REQUIRED.] Notwithstanding the provisions of sections 16A.14 and 16A.15, by February 28, 1982, the commissioner of finance shall draw warrants for the amounts appropriated to the commissioner of revenue for the following state aids, payments, reimbursements, or fund transfers to or on behalf of municipalities, to the extent that they were deferred or withheld pursuant to sections 16A.14 or 16A.15:

(a) Payments of local government aid to be made during November and December, 1981 pursuant to section 477A.015,

(b) Payments of attached machinery aids to be made during November and December, 1981 pursuant to section 273.138, subdivisions 2 and 5,

(c) Subject to the limits contained in Laws 1981, First Special Session, Chapter 1, Article 3, Section 3, payments to be made during November and December, 1981 pursuant to section 273.139, and section 273.13, subdivision 15a to replace revenue lost as a result of sections 273.115, 273.116, and 273.13, subdivisions 6, 7, or 14a, and

(d) Any state aids, payments, reimbursements or fund transfers to be made during November and December, 1981 pursuant to any law other than those specified in clauses (a) to (c).

Subd. 2. [CERTIFICATION OF AMOUNT.] The commissioner shall, on or before January 15, 1982, certify to each municipality the amount of aids, payments, reimbursements or fund transfers deferred or withheld pursuant to section 16A.14 or 16A.15 and subject to subdivision 1. In connection with certifying the amount to the municipality the commissioner shall issue to and transmit to the municipality a certificate of aids to be paid by March 1, 1982.

Sec. 4. [AUTHORITY TO BORROW MONEY.]

Subdivision 1. [BORROWING IN ANTICIPATION OF AIDS.] The governing body of the municipality may borrow money in anticipation of the receipt of state aids, payments, reimbursements or fund transfers scheduled to be made on or before February 28, 1982, and may issue certificates of indebtedness upon passage of a resolution specifying the amount and purposes for which it deems the borrowing is necessary. The resolution shall fix the amount, date, maturity, denomination, and other terms of the certificates and shall fix the terms of the sale of the certificates.

Subd. 2. [REPAYMENT; SECURITY.] The governing body of the municipality may pledge the full faith and credit of the municipality, and the proceeds of any tax levies, future state aid receipts, or other municipal funds which may become available to repay certificates issued pursuant to this section. The governing body may provide in the resolution that it will assign a certificate received pursuant to section 3, subdivision 2, and the moneys due thereunder as collateral for repayment of the certificates of indebtedness. An assignment is effective only upon registration of the assignment with the commissioner. The commissioner shall pay any funds due under an assigned certificate to the assignee.

Subd. 3. [INTEREST RATE.] Certificates of indebtedness may be sold at a price equal to such percentage of the par value of the certificates, plus accrued interest, and bearing interest at a rate or rates agreed upon by the governing body of the municipality and the purchaser or underwriter of the certificates or as determined at public sale, notwithstanding any limitation of interest rate or cost contained in any other law.

Sec. 5. [DECEMBER, 1981 AND JANUARY, 1982 EDUCATION AID PAYMENTS SUSPENDED.]

Notwithstanding the provisions of Minnesota Statutes, Sections 16A.15 and 124.11, or any other law to the contrary, the commissioner of education may suspend payment of some or all state aids, payments, reimbursements and fund transfers from some or all school districts, public library systems, educational cooperative service units or regional management information systems in the months of December, 1981 and January, 1982. The commissioner may consider the cash flow requirements of each individual recipient when determining whether to suspend payments of any aid, payments, reimbursements or fund transfers.

Sec. 6. [CERTIFICATION.]

On or before January 15, 1982 and January 31, 1982, the commissioner shall certify to each recipient the amount of aids, payments, reimbursements, or fund transfers suspended pursuant to section 5. The commissioner shall issue a certificate of unpaid aids for the certified amount to be paid by February 26, 1982.

Sec. 7. [REPAYMENT BY FEBRUARY 26, 1982.]

Notwithstanding any law to the contrary, by February 26, 1982, the commissioner of finance shall draw warrants in favor of school districts, public library systems, educational cooperative service units or regional management information systems for any of the state aids, payments, reimbursements and fund transfers that were suspended by the commissioner of education pursuant to section 1.

Sec. 8. [EFFECTIVE DATE.]

Sec. 2. Minnesota Statutes 1981 Supplement, Section 273.13, Subdivision 15b, is amended to read:

Subd. 15b. [PROPERTY TAX CREDITS LIMITATION.] The property tax subject to the 58 percent homestead credit provided by subdivisions 6, 7 and 14a, to the homestead property tax relief provided by section 273.135 and to the supplementary homestead property tax relief provided by section 273.1391, shall be based on the total mill rate of all taxing districts levying a tax on the homestead property unless the payable 1982 total levy excluding any amount levied pursuant to section 275.50, subdivision 5, clause (k), of a taxing district other than a school district or the metropolitan transit commission is more than 108 percent of its payable 1981 total levy. Sec. 3. [RECERTIFICATION.]

The county auditor of any county in which an amount was levied for taxes payable in 1982 pursuant to section 275.50, subdivision 5, clause (k), shall notify the commissioner of revenue. The commissioner of revenue shall recertify to the county auditor the property tax credits limitation amounts for taxes payable in 1982.

Sec. 4. Minnesota Statutes 1981 Supplement, Section 290.18, Subdivision 4, is amended to read:

Subd. 4. [TAXABLE NET INCOME ADJUSTMENT FACTOR.] For the taxable year beginning after December 31, 1980 and (ENDING) before January 1, 1982, the commissioner of revenue shall adjust taxable net income by multiplying the taxable net income of each individual, estate and trust by a fraction, the numerator of which is one plus the predicted rate of growth in average Minnesota gross income between tax year 1980 and tax year 1981. The denominator of the adjustment fraction shall be one plus the product of (a) the predicted rate of growth in average Minnesota gross income as determined above, and (b) the difference between the ratio of Minnesota gross income to Minnesota adjusted gross income and the product of the ratio of federal taxes paid to Minnesota adjusted gross income and an estimate of average federal income tax elasticity relating percent changes in federal adjusted gross income to percent changes in net federal income tax liabilities.

For each taxable year beginning after December 31, 1981, the commissioner of revenue shall adjust taxable net income by multiplying the taxable net income of each individual, estate, and trust by an adjustment factor determined by multiplying the previous year's adjustment factor by the current year adjustment factor as defined above using data appropriate to the current year.

The data used shall reflect the most current aggregate tax statistics collected and tabulated by the department of revenue. The estimate of the percentage increase in Minnesota gross income shall be based on the best available data sources and reasonable forecasting procedures. The estimate of federal income tax elasticity shall reflect the best available sources of information, including the judgment of the United States Internal Revenue Service and the United States Treasury, Office of Tax Analysis. The determination of the commissioner pursuant to this section shall not be considered a "rule" and shall not be subject to the administrative procedures act contained in chapter 15.

For purposes of this subdivision, "urban trucks" include only all trucks and all truck-tractors and semi-trailer combinations used exclusively in transporting property within the metropolitan area consisting of Hennepin, Ramsey, Scott, Dakota, Anoka, Washington and Carver counties or within the corporate limits of any city or contiguous cities or within one mile of cities of the first and second class. For the purposes of this clause a land area ceded to the United States of America under general laws 1889, chapter 57, is a statutory city. The vehicle shall not be operated outside the metropolitan area or corporate limits of any such city or contiguous cities, or beyond one mile of cities of the first and second class; except that the commissioner of public safety may by special permit authorize the permanent removal of the vehicle from any registration area to another.

The owner must also prove that he or she also has one or more vehicles with regular license plates. If the registrar is satisfied that the affidavit is true and correct and the owner pays a $20 tax, the registrar shall list (SUCH) the vehicle for taxation and registration and shall issue number plates.

The number plates (SO) issued shall bear the inscription "Collector," "Minnesota" and the registration number, but no date. The number plates are valid without renewal as long as the vehicle is in existence and shall be issued for the applicant's use only for (SUCH) the vehicle. The registrar has the power to revoke (SUCH) the plates for failure to comply with this subdivision.

In the event of the defacement, loss or destruction of (SUCH) the number plates, the registrar, upon receiving and filing a sworn statement of the vehicle owner, setting forth the circumstances, together with any defaced plates and the payment of a $2 fee, shall issue duplicate plates specially designed for that purpose. The registrar shall then note on his records the issue of (SUCH) the new number plates and shall proceed in (SUCH A) the manner as he may deem advisable to cancel and call in the original plates.

The commissioner of public welfare shall study the fiscal and programmatic impact, the number of persons who would be affected, problems and benefits to persons who would be affected, and any other effects, if the costs of providing developmental achievement services and semi-independent living services were paid through Title 19 of the Social Security Act and Minnesota Statutes, Chapter 256B. The studies shall be completed and submitted to the legislature not later than two months following final enactment of federal appropriation amounts.

The provisions of Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 256D.22 are suspended during the fiscal year ending June 30, 1983.

(c) Corrections (699,500) (1,627,500)

Notwithstanding the provisions of any other law to the contrary, the commissioner of corrections may for the purpose of maximizing the benefits of the subsidy paid to counties under Minnesota Statutes 1980, Sections 401.14 and 401.15, waive the requirements of 11 MCAR, Sections 2.006(c) and 2.007(b) that specify the percentages of the total subsidy received by each participating county that must be expended only for information systems, program evaluation, training, and education. This provision expires June 30, 1983.

The commissioner of health may charge fees for environmental laboratory services in amounts approximately equal to the costs of providing the services. The fees may be established without complying with Minnesota Statutes, Sections 15.041 to 15.052. This provision expires June 30, 1983.

Notwithstanding Laws 1981, Chapter 360, Article I, Section 14, the commissioner of health shall establish fees for licensure of health care facilities in accordance with Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 16A.128. These fees may include increases for any licenses already issued or to be issued for the 1982 calendar year. The statutory percentage limitation for long term care may be exceeded by the amounts of the increased license fees authorized by this provision and charged by the commissioner of health, and the increased fee amount shall be an allowed cost to the extent that the increase when added to other allowed costs exceeds the statutory limitation.

Subd. 5. [APPROPRIATION AVAILABILITY.] If the appropriation from the general fund to an agency listed in this section in either year of the biennium ending June 30, 1983, is insufficient, upon the advance approval of the commissioner of finance the appropriation for the other year is available for it.

Subd. 6. [RELATION TO PRIOR REDUCTIONS.] The appropriation reductions in this section are in addition to the general reductions, general staff reductions, and other reductions made in previous appropriation acts.

Subd. 7. [PROGRESS REPORTS.] Each state agency whose appropriation is reduced by this section shall submit a revised spending plan to the commissioner of finance pursuant to Minnesota Statutes, Section 16A.14. The appropriations in this act for the operation of each state department or agency, except the game and fish fund appropriations to the department of natural resources, in fiscal 1982 and 1983 include amounts needed to pay workers' compensation obligations to the state compensation revolving fund. It is the intent of the legislature not to appropriate additional money at any future time to pay workers' compensation obligations for fiscal 1982 and 1983, except for game and fish fund appropriations to the department of natural resources or as may be required by an increase in the statutory level of workers' compensation benefits.

Sec. 4. Laws 1981, Chapter 356, Section 46, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. State Scholarship, Nurses Scholarship and State Grant-In-Aid

$27,720,000 $27,720,000

The general goal of this program is that the proportion of funds flowing to students attending private institutions not exceed a figure which is approximately 50 percent of the total amount of money available. It is expected that approximately $3,000,000 of this appropriation will (REVERT TO THE GENERAL FUND AT THE END OF FISCAL YEAR 1983) not be needed and any balance may be transferred to subdivision 6 of this section to the extent a deficiency occurs in the interstate tuition reciprocity appropriation.

Sec. 6. [PLANS FOR DECLINING ENROLLMENT.]

Subdivision 1. [UNIVERSITY OF MINNESOTA; STATE UNIVERSITIES.] The board of regents of the University of Minnesota, and the state university board, shall each develop a plan for providing post-secondary education services under conditions of declining or reduced enrollments. Each plan shall specify the fiscal implications of declining enrollments. Each plan shall propose a strategy for adjusting the present level of facilities and services to the projected level of reduced demand. The strategies may include such methods as campus mergers, reorganizations, discontinuance of campuses or colleges, changes in system governance, and other such methods. The purpose of the plan is to reduce the cost of present facilities and services in proportion to the reduction in enrollment. Each plan shall be submitted to the legislature by January 1, 1983.

Subd. 2. [COMMUNITY COLLEGES; AREA VOCATIONAL-TECHNICAL INSTITUTES.] The community college board and the state board for vocational education shall continue the planning process which is currently ongoing and under discussion with legislative committees with regard to community colleges and area vocational technical institutes. One of the purposes of the planning process is to develop strategies to adjust the present cost of facilities and services to the projected level of reduced demand.

Subd. 3. [REVIEW AND COMMENT.] The higher education coordinating board shall review and comment on the strategies developed pursuant to subdivisions 1 and 2.

Subd. 4. [FACTORS.] In developing strategies for the adjustment of present facilities and services to reduced levels of demand, the boards shall consider such factors as the system's mission, the impact of such adjustments on students, short-term and long-term enrollment trends, fiscal implications, geographic accessibility to comparable public institutions, accessibility for the handicapped, availability of alternative programs, legal implications and feasibility of employee transfers.

Subd. 5. [STUDENT TRANSFERS.] In developing strategies for the adjustment of facilities and services to reduced levels of demand the boards shall, insofar as possible, plan to provide students with the opportunity to complete programs in their major course of study and to complete graduation requirements by transferring to other institutions. The plans should provide for full transfer of earned credits and flexibility in meeting graduation requirements to the extent possible.

Subd. 6. [CONSULTATION.] In the process of developing strategies for the adjustment of facilities and services to reduced levels of demand each system shall consult with the other systems and with the higher education coordinating board.

Subd. 7. [EMPLOYEE TRANSFER.] To the extent possible, the strategies shall provide that employees whose positions will be eliminated by the adjustments will be allowed to transfer to positions in other post-secondary institutions within each system and will be given preference in new hirings. To the extent possible, the strategies shall provide for the maintenance of terms and conditions of employment provided for in any existing labor agreement and shall be implemented, to the extent possible, in a manner consistent with such labor agreements.

Sec. 7. Minnesota Statutes 1981 Supplement, Section 3.9222, Subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. The council shall consist of five members of the house of representatives appointed by the speaker, five members of the senate appointed by the committee on committees, and (TWELVE) eight citizens appointed by the governor. At least 50 percent of those appointed by the governor and by the speaker of the house shall be women. Members shall serve for two years or until the expiration of their legislative terms; except, in order to establish staggered membership terms for the citizen members, the governor shall appoint (SIX) four citizens for three-year terms and (SIX) four citizens for two-year terms starting July 1, 1981. The compensation of non-legislator members, their removal from office and the filling of vacancies shall be as provided in section 15.059. The persons appointed by the governor shall be representative of a range of economic interests and vocations and shall include persons who are not regularly employed on a full-time or part-time basis outside their homes.

Sec. 8. [GOVERNOR TO DESIGNATE MEMBERS.]

The governor shall designate the four citizens whose membership on the advisory council for the economic status of women will terminate because of the reduction in size of the council required by section 7. The terminations are effective the day following final enactment.

Sec. 9. [5.12] [CERTIFICATE; CERTIFIED COPY OF DOCUMENT; FEE.]

The secretary of state shall charge a fee of $5 for each certificate or certification of a copy of any document filed in the office of the secretary of state.

Sec. 10. Minnesota Statutes 1981 Supplement, Section 15.052, Subdivision 5, is amended to read:

Subd. 5. [COURT REPORTERS; AUDIO RECORDINGS.] The office of administrative hearings may maintain a court reporter system and in addition to or in lieu thereof may contract with nongovernmental sources for court reporter services. The court reporters may additionally be utilized as the chief hearing examiner directs. Unless the chief hearing examiner determines that the use of a court reporter is more appropriate, an audio magnetic recording device shall be used to keep a record at any hearing which takes place under this chapter (OR UNDER CHAPTER 176). In cases arising under chapter 176, the chief hearing examiner (, IN CONSULTATION WITH THE COM-PENSATION JUDGE,) shall (DECIDE THE METHOD OF RECORDING) use audio magnetic recording devices to keep the record of hearings except when there are more than two primary parties in a case and the chief hearing examiner determines that the use of a court reporter is more appropriate. If the chief hearing examiner determines that the use of a court reporter is more appropriate, the cost of the court reporter shall be paid by the state. If the chief hearing examiner determines that the use of an audio magnetic recording device is more appropriate in a hearing under chapter 176, any party to that hearing may provide a court reporter at the party's expense. Court reporters provided by a party shall be selected from the chief hearing examiner's list of non-governmental sources.

The fee charged by a court reporter to a party shall not exceed the fee which would be charged to the state pursuant to the court reporter's contract with the state.

Court reporters serving in the court reporter system of the office of administrative hearings shall be in the classified service. Notwithstanding the provisions of section 15.17, subdivision 4, copies of transcriptions of hearings conducted pursuant to this section may be obtained only through the office of administrative hearings.

All these fees shall be reviewed at least once each six months, and, except in special fee situations as determined by the commissioner, adjustments shall be made to the end that the total fees received shall approximate the amount appropriated for the several accounts, plus the portion of the general support costs and statewide indirect costs of the agency that is attributable to the function for which the fee is charged. Fee adjustments authorized under this section may be made without a public hearing when the total fees estimated to be received during the fiscal biennium will not exceed (110 PERCENT OF) the sum of all direct appropriations, indirect costs, transfers in, and salary supplements for that purpose for the biennium.

The administrative officer is (RESPONSIBLE TO THE STATE BOARD AND MAY BE DISMISSED BY THE COMMISSIONER OF NATURAL RESOURCES ONLY UPON THE ADVICE AND RECOMMENDATION OF THE STATE BOARD) in the unclassified service. All permanent personnel of the state board are employees of the department of natural resources and are in the classified service of the state, except for the administrative officer or as otherwise required by statute. (ALL RIGHTS, DUTIES AND RESPONSIBILITIES OF THE EXISTING STAFF OF THE STATE BOARD ON NOVEMBER 12, 1971 SHALL REMAIN UNCHANGED EXCEPT AS MAY BE AGREED UPON BY THE STATE BOARD AND THE COMMISSIONER.) In order to perform its duties, the state board may request information from the supervising officer of any state agency or state institution of higher education, including the state universities, the community colleges, and the post-secondary vocational technical schools. The supervising officer shall comply with the state board's request to the extent possible considering available appropriations and may assign agency or institution employees to compile existing information and to complete special reports, surveys, or studies concerning the problems specified in section 40.02.

benefit of the special compensation fund a lump sum without interest deduction equal to a percent of the total compensation determined as provided in this subdivision as soon as the amount payable for the particular injury is determined, or arrived at by agreement of the parties, and the amount is approved by the commissioner.

All money heretofore arising from the provisions of this section or similar law shall be transferred to this special compensation fund. Sec. 31. Minnesota Statutes 1981 Supplement, Section 256B.-02, Subdivision 8, is amended to read:

Subd. 8. "Medical assistance" or "medical care" means payment of part or all of the cost of the following care and services for eligible individuals whose income and resources are insufficient to meet all of such cost:

- (1) Inpatient hospital services.
- (2) Skilled nursing home services and services of intermediate care facilities.
- (3) Physicians' services.
- (4) Outpatient hospital or clinic services.
- (5) Home health care services.
- (6) Private duty nursing services.
- (7) Physical therapy and related services.
- (8) Dental services, excluding cast metal restorations.
- (9) Laboratory and x-ray services.

(10) The following if prescribed by a licensed practitioner: drugs, eyeglasses, dentures, and prosthetic devices. The commissioner shall designate a formulary committee which shall advise the commissioner on the names of drugs for which payment shall (NOT) be made, recommend a system for reimbursing providers on a set fee or charge basis rather than the present system, and develop methods encouraging use of generic drugs when they are less expensive and equally effective as trademark drugs. The commissioner shall appoint the formulary committee members no later than 30 days following July 1, 1981. The formulary committee shall consist of nine members, four of whom shall be physicians who are not employed by the department of public welfare, and a majority of whose practice is for persons paying privately or through health insurance, three of whom shall be pharmacists who are not employed by the department of public welfare, and a majority of whose practice is for persons paying privately or through health insurance, a consumer representative, and a nursing home representative. Committee members shall serve two year terms and shall serve without compensation. (PROMULGATION OF THE FORMULARY SHALL BE CONSISTENT WITH THE REQUIREMENTS OF SECTION 15.0412, SUBDIVISION 5.) The commissioner may establish a drug formulary. Its establishment and publication shall not be subject to the requirements of the administrative procedure act. The formulary shall not include: drugs for which there is no federal funding; over the counter drugs, except for antacids, acetaminophen, family planning products, aspirin, insulin, prenatal vitamins, and vitamins for children under the age of seven; nutritional products; anorectics; and drugs for which medical value has not been established. Payment to drug vendors shall not be modified before the formulary is (PROMULGATED) established. The commissioner may promulgate conditions for prohibiting payment for specific drugs after considering the formulary committee's recommendations.

The basis for determining the amount of payment shall be the actual acquisition cost of the drug plus a fixed dispensing fee established by the commissioner. Actual acquisition cost includes quantity and other special discounts except time and cash discounts. Establishment of this fee shall not be subject to the requirements of the administrative procedure act. Whenever a generically equivalent product is available, payment shall be on the basis of the actual acquisition cost of the generic drug, unless the prescriber specifically indicates "dispense as written" on the prescription as required by section 151.21, subdivision 2.

(11) Diagnostic, screening, and preventive services.

(12) Health care pre-payment plan premiums and insurance premiums if paid directly to a vendor and supplementary medical insurance benefits under Title XVIII of the Social Security Act.

(13) Abortion services, but only if one of the following conditions is met:

(a) The abortion is a medical necessity. "Medical necessity" means (1) the signed written statement of two physicians indicating the abortion is medically necessary to prevent the death of the mother, and (2) the patient has given her consent to the abortion in writing unless the patient is physically or legally incapable of providing informed consent to the procedure, in which case consent will be given as otherwise provided by law;

(b) The pregnancy is the result of criminal sexual conduct as defined in section 609.342, clauses (c), (d), (e)(i), and (f), and the incident is reported within 48 hours after the incident occurs to a valid law enforcement agency for investigation, unless the victim is physically unable to report the criminal sexual conduct, in which case the report shall be made within 48 hours after the victim becomes physically able to report the criminal sexual conduct; or

(c) The pregnancy is the result of incest, but only if the incident and relative are reported to a valid law enforcement agency for investigation prior to the abortion.

(14) Transportation costs incurred solely for obtaining emergency medical care or transportation costs incurred by non-ambulatory persons in obtaining emergency or non-emergency medical care when paid directly to an ambulance company, common carrier, or other recognized providers of transportation services. For the purpose of this clause, a person who is incapable of transport by taxicab or bus shall be considered to be non-ambulatory.

(15) To the extent authorized by rule of the state agency, costs of bus or taxicab transportation incurred by any ambulatory eligible person for obtaining non-emergency medical care.

(16) Any other medical or remedial care licensed and recognized under state law unless otherwise prohibited by law.

Sec. 32. Minnesota Statutes 1981 Supplement, Section 256B.06, Subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. Medical assistance may be paid for any person:

(1) Who is eligible for or receiving public assistance under the aid to families with dependent children program; or

(2) Who is eligible for or receiving supplemental security income for the aged, blind and disabled; or

(3) Who except for the amount of income or resources would qualify for supplemental security income for the aged, blind and disabled, or aid to families with dependent children and is in need of medical assistance; or

(4) Who is under 21 years of age and in need of medical care that neither he nor his relatives responsible under sections 256B.01 to 256B.26 are financially able to provide; or

(5) Who is residing in a hospital for treatment of mental disease or tuberculosis and is 65 years of age or older and without means sufficient to pay the per capita hospital charge; and

(6) Who resides in Minnesota, or, if absent from the state, is deemed to be a resident of Minnesota in accordance with the regulations of the state agency; and

(7) Who alone, or together with his spouse, does not own real property other than the homestead. For the purposes of this section, "homestead" means the house owned and occupied by the applicant as his dwelling place, together with the land upon which it is situated and an area no greater than two contiguous lots in a platted or laid out city or town or the smallest parcel allowed under applicable zoning regulations in unplatted land. Real estate not used as a home may not be retained unless it produces net income applicable to the family's needs or the family is making a continuing effort to sell it at a fair and reasonable price or unless sale of the real estate would net an insignificant amount of income applicable to the family's needs, or unless the commissioner determines that sale of the real estate would cause undue hardship; and

(8) Who individually does not own more than $2,000 in cash or liquid assets, or if a member of a household with two family members (husband and wife, or parent and child), does not own more than $4,000 in cash or liquid assets, plus $200 for each additional legal dependent. (WHEN ONLY ONE SPOUSE RESIDES, OR WILL RESIDE AFTER APPLYING FOR MEDICAL ASSISTANCE, IN A NURSING HOME, OR IS RECEIVING OR WILL RECEIVE ALTERNATIVE CARE UNDER THE ALTERNATIVE CARE GRANTS PROGRAM IN A COUNTY WITH PREADMISSION SCREENING UNDER SECTION 256B.091, THE CASH OR LIQUID ASSET AMOUNT FOR TWO FAMILY MEMBERS IS $10,000). The value of the following shall not be included:

(a) the homestead, and (b) one motor vehicle licensed pursuant to chapter 168 and defined as: (1) passenger automobile, (2) station wagon, (3) motorcycle, (4) motorized bicycle or (5) truck of the weight found in categories A to E, of section 168.013, subdivision 1e; and

(9) Who has or anticipates receiving an annual income not in excess of $2,600 for a single person, or $3,250 for two family members (husband and wife, parent and child, or two siblings), plus $625 for each additional legal dependent, or who has income in excess of these maxima and in the month of application, or during the three months prior to the month of application, incurs expenses for medical care that total more than one-half of the annual excess income in accordance with the regulations of the state agency. In computing income to determine eligibility of persons who are not residents of long term care facilities, the commissioner shall disregard increases in income of social security or supplementary security income recipients due solely to increases required by sections 215(i) and 1617 of the social security act, and shall disregard income of disabled persons that is also disregarded in determining eligibility for supplemental aid under section 256D.37, subdivision 1, unless prohibited by federal law or regulation. If prohibited, the commissioner shall first seek a waiver. In excess income cases, eligibility shall be limited to a period of six months beginning with the first of the month in which these medical obligations are first incurred; and

(10) Who has continuing monthly expenses for medical care that are more than the amount of his excess income, computed on a monthly basis, in which case eligibility may be established before the total income obligation referred to in the preceding paragraph is incurred, and medical assistance payments may be made to cover the monthly unmet medical need. In licensed nursing home and state hospital cases, income over and above that required for justified needs, determined pursuant to a schedule of contributions established by the commissioner of public welfare, is to be applied to the cost of institutional care. The commissioner of public welfare may establish a schedule of contributions to be made by the spouse of a nursing home resident to the cost of care and shall seek a waiver from federal regulations which establish the amount required to be contributed by either spouse when one spouse is a nursing home resident; and

(11) Who has applied or agrees to apply all proceeds received or receivable by him or his spouse from automobile accident coverage and private health care coverage to the costs of medical care for himself, his spouse, and children. The state agency may require from any applicant or recipient of medical assistance the assignment of any rights accruing under private health care coverage. Any rights or amounts so assigned shall be applied against the cost of medical care paid for under this chapter. Any assignment shall not be effective as to benefits paid or provided under automobile accident coverage and private health care coverage prior to receipt of the assignment by the person or organization providing the benefits.

Sec. 33. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 268.16, Subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [COLLECTION.] (1) If, after due notice, any employer defaults in any payment of contributions or interest due thereon or penalties for failure to file returns and other reports as and when required by the provisions of sections 268.03 to 268.24 or by any rule (OR REGULATION) of the commissioner, the amount due shall be collected by civil action in the name of the state of Minnesota, and any money recovered (ON ACCOUNT THEREOF) shall be credited to the funds provided for under the provisions of these sections. This remedy shall be in addition to (SUCH) other remedies (AS MAY BE HEREIN PROVIDED OR OTHERWISE) provided by law, and the employer adjudged in default shall pay the costs of (SUCH) the action. Civil actions brought under this section to collect contributions, interest due thereon, or penalties from an employer shall be heard by the court at the earliest possible date. No action for the collection of contributions or interest thereon shall be commenced more than four years after the contributions have been reported by the employer or determined by the commissioner to be due and payable. In any action herein provided for, judgment shall be entered against any defendant in default for want of answer or demurrer, for the relief demanded in the complaint without proof, together with costs and disbursements, upon the filing of an affidavit of default.

No action shall be commenced for the collection of contributions with respect to wages paid for services performed prior to the effective date of a subsequent provision of law enacted prior to July 1, 1941, excluding (SUCH) the service from coverage under sections 268.03 to 268.24.

(2) Any employing unit which is not a resident of this state and which exercises the privilege of having one or more individuals perform service for it within this state, and any resident employing unit which exercises that privilege and thereafter removes from this state, shall be deemed thereby to appoint the secretary of state as its agent and attorney for the acceptance of process in any civil action under this subdivision. In instituting (SUCH) an action against (ANY SUCH) the employing unit the commissioner shall cause (SUCH) any process or notice to be filed with the secretary of state, together with payment of a fee of $15, and (SUCH) the service shall be sufficient service upon (SUCH) the employing unit, and shall be of the same force and validity as if served upon it personally within this state: Provided, that the commissioner shall forthwith send notice of the service of (SUCH) the process or notice, together with a copy thereof, by certified mail, return receipt requested, to (SUCH) the employing unit at its last known address and (SUCH) the return receipt, the commissioner's affidavit of compliance with the provisions of this section, and a copy of the notice of service, shall be appended to the original of the process filed in the court in which (SUCH) the civil action is pending.

278.03 [PAYMENT OF (PORTION OF) TAX.]

If the proceedings instituted by the filing of the petition have not been completed before the first day of June next following the filing, the petitioner shall pay to the county treasurer 50 percent of the tax levied for such year against the property involved, unless permission to continue prosecution of the petition without such payment is obtained as herein provided. If the proceedings instituted by the filing of the petition have not been completed by the next November 1, the petitioner shall pay to the county treasurer 50 percent of the unpaid balance of the taxes levied for the year against the property involved if the unpaid balance is $2,000 or less and 80 percent of the unpaid balance if the unpaid balance is over $2,000, unless permission to continue prosecution of the petition without payment is obtained as herein provided. The petitioner, upon ten days notice to the county attorney and to the county auditor, given at least ten days prior to the first day of June or the first day of November, may apply to the court for permission to continue prosecution of the petition without payment; and, if it is made to appear

(1) That the proposed review is to be taken in good faith;

(2) That there is probable cause to believe that the property may be held exempt from the tax levied or that the tax may be determined to be less than 50 percent of the amount levied; and

(3) That it would work a hardship upon petitioner to pay (50 PERCENT OF SUCH) the taxes due,

the court may permit the petitioner to continue prosecution of the petition without payment, or may fix a lesser amount to be paid as a condition of continuing the prosecution of the petition.

Failure to make payment of the amount required when due shall operate automatically to dismiss the petition and all proceedings thereunder unless the payment is waived by an order of the court permitting the petitioner to continue prosecution of the petition without payment. The county treasurer shall, upon request of the petitioner, issue duplicate receipts for the tax payment, one of which shall be filed by the petitioner in the proceeding.

Sec. 35. Minnesota Statutes 1981 Supplement, Section 302A.901, Subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [SERVICE ON SECRETARY OF STATE; WHEN PERMITTED.] If a corporation has appointed and maintained a registered agent in this state but neither its registered agent nor an officer of the corporation can be found at the registered office, or if a corporation fails to appoint or maintain a registered agent in this state and an officer of the corporation cannot be found at the registered office, then the secretary of state is the agent of the corporation upon whom the process, notice, or demand may be served. The return of the sheriff, or the affidavit of a person not a party, that no registered agent or officer can be found at the registered office in a county is conclusive evidence that the corporation has no registered agent or officer at its registered office. Service on the secretary of state of any process, notice, or demand is deemed personal service upon the corporation and shall be made by filing with the secretary of state duplicate copies of the process, notice, or demand. The secretary of state shall immediately forward, by (REGISTERED) certified mail, addressed to the corporation at its registered office, a copy of the process, notice, or demand. Service on the secretary of state is returnable in not less than 30 days notwithstanding a shorter period specified in the process, notice, or demand.

Sec. 36. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 303.07, is amended to read:

303.07 [(INITIAL) LICENSE (FEE) FEES.]

Subdivision 1. [INITIAL FEE.] At the time of making application for a certificate of authority the foreign corporation making (SUCH) the application shall pay to the state treasurer the sum of ($125) $150 as an initial license fee.

Subd. 2. [ANNUAL FEE.] The secretary of state shall collect an annual license fee from each foreign corporation holding a certificate of authority to transact business in this state. A foreign corporation shall pay $15 per $100,000 or fraction thereof of its Minnesota taxable net income for the last taxable year ending prior to the payment of the fee. If the taxable year ended less than 75 days before the date the fee is received by the secretary of state, the taxable net income from the preceding taxable year shall determine the fee. In no event shall the annual license fee be less than $30. The corporation shall pay this fee by April 1 of each year.

Sec. 37. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 303.13, Subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [FOREIGN CORPORATION.] A foreign corporation shall be subject to service of process, as follows:

- (1) By service thereof on its registered agent;
- (2) When any foreign corporation authorized to transact business in this state fails to appoint or maintain in this state a registered agent upon whom service of process may be had, or whenever any registered agent cannot be found at its registered office in this state, as shown by the return of the sheriff of the county in which the registered office is situated, or whenever any corporation withdraws from the state, or whenever the certificate of authority of any foreign corporation is revoked or canceled, service may be made by delivering to and leaving with the secretary of state, or with any deputy or clerk in the corporation department of his office, three copies thereof and a fee of ($10) $15; provided, that after a foreign corporation withdraws from the state, pursuant to section 303.16, service upon the corporation may be made pursuant to the provisions of this section only when based upon a liability or obligation of the corporation incurred within this state or arising out of any business done in this state by the corporation prior to the issuance of a certificate of withdrawal.
- (3) If a foreign corporation makes a contract with a resident of Minnesota to be performed in whole or in part by either party in Minnesota, or if a foreign corporation commits a tort in whole or in part in Minnesota against a resident of Minnesota, such acts shall be deemed to be doing business in Minnesota by the foreign corporation and shall be deemed equivalent to the appointment by the foreign corporation of the secretary of the state of Minnesota and his successors to be its true and lawful attorney upon whom may be served all lawful process in any actions or proceedings against the foreign corporation arising from or growing out of the contract or tort. Process shall be served in duplicate upon the secretary of state, together with a fee of ($10) $15 and the secretary of state shall mail one copy thereof to the corporation at its last known address, and the corporation shall have 20 days within which to answer from the date of the mailing, notwithstanding any other provision of the law. The making of the contract or the committing of the tort shall be deemed to be the agreement of the foreign corporation that any process against it which is so served upon the secretary of state shall be of the same legal force and effect as if served personally on it within the state of Minnesota.

Sec. 38. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 303.14, Subdivision 1, is amended to read:

tioned the education aid reductions made in fiscal year 1981 pursuant to Minnesota Statutes 1980, Sections 16A.15, Subdivision 1, and 124.77, because funds in the state treasury were insufficient.

Sec. 3. Minnesota Statutes 1981 Supplement, Section 16A.15, Subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [REDUCTION.] In case the commissioner of finance shall discover at any time that the probable receipts from taxes or other sources for any appropriation, fund, or item will be less than was anticipated, and that consequently the amount available for the remainder of the biennium will be less than the amount estimated or allotted therefor, he shall, with the approval of the governor, and after notice to the agency concerned, either:

Sec. 4. Minnesota Statutes 1981 Supplement, Section 124.2121, Subdivision 4, is amended to read:

Subd. 4. [EQUALIZING FACTOR.] "Equalizing factor" means a number equal to the minimum EARC valuation per actual and AFDC pupil unit which disqualifies a district from earning any basic foundation aid. The equalizing factor for each school year and for levies for use in that school year equals the ratio, rounded to the nearest dollar, of the foundation aid formula allowance for that school year to the basic maintenance mill rate for that school year. However, the equalizing factor for discretionary and replacement aids for the 1982-1983 school year shall be $61,565.

Sec. 5. Minnesota Statutes 1981 Supplement, Section 124.-2122, Subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [FORMULA ALLOWANCE.] "Foundation aid formula allowance" or "formula allowance" means the amount of revenue per pupil unit used in the computation of foundation aid for a particular school year and in the computation of permissible levies for use in that school year. The formula allowance shall be $1,333 for foundation aid for the 1981-1982 school year. The formula allowance shall be ($1,416) $1,346 for 1981 payable 1982 levies and for foundation aid for the 1982-1983 school year.

The basic maintenance mill rate shall be .021 for the 1980 payable 1981 levy and for foundation aid for the 1981-1982 school year. The basic maintenance mill rate shall be (.023) .024 for 1981 payable 1982 levies and for foundation aid for the 1982-1983 school year.

Sec. 7. Minnesota Statutes 1981 Supplement, Section 124.-2124, Subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [REPLACEMENT COMPONENTS.] (a) A district's "fluctuating enrollment replacement component" shall equal the amount of additional foundation aid or basic maintenance levy revenue the district would have received for the 1980-1981 school year if declining or growing enrollment pupil units had been used in the computation of basic foundation aid for 1980-1981 pursuant to Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 124.212, Subdivision 7c, Clause (1) or of the 1979 basic maintenance levy limitation pursuant to Minnesota Statutes, 1979 Supplement, Section 275.125, Subdivision 2b or 2c.

(b) A district's "sparsity replacement component" shall equal the amount of additional aid the district would have received for the 1980-1981 school year if Minnesota Statutes, 1979 Supplement, Section 124.224 had been effective for 1980-1981.

(c) A district's "basic replacement entitlement" shall equal the sum of its fluctuating enrollment replacement component and its sparsity replacement component, divided by its total pupil units in 1980-1981.

(d) "Replacement inflator" for any school year means the ratio of the foundation aid formula allowance for that school year to $1,265. However, for the 1981-1982 school year (, HOWEVER,) the replacement inflator shall equal 107 percent, and for the 1982-1983 school year the replacement inflator shall equal 112 percent.

(e) A district's "replacement allowance" for each school year shall equal its basic replacement entitlement times the replacement inflator for that school year.

(f) A district's "replacement levy limitation" means its levy limitation computed pursuant to section 275.125, subdivision 6c.

Sec. 8. Minnesota Statutes 1981 Supplement, Section 124.2125, Subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [DISCRETIONARY ALLOWANCE; DEFINITION.] "Discretionary allowance" means the amount of revenue per pupil unit used to compute discretionary aid for a particular school year and the discretionary levy for use in that school year. The discretionary allowance shall equal the formula allowance for the school year times the ratio of the discretionary mill rate to the basic maintenance mill rate for levies for use in that school year, rounded to the nearest cent. However, the discretionary allowance for the 1981-1982 (, HOWEVER,) school year shall equal $64.48, and the discretionary allowance for the 1982-83 school year shall equal $138.52.

Subd. 8a. [AID COMPUTATION.] Beginning with the 1982-1983 school year a district's aid pursuant to this section for each school year shall equal the district's aid entitlement per weighted FTE determined according to subdivision 7a times the total number of authorized weighted FTE's transported in the district in that school year, minus the amount raised by (ONE MILL) two mills times the adjusted assessed valuation which is used to compute the transportation levy limitation for the levy attributable to that school year.

Sec. 10. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 275.125, Subdivision 5, is amended to read:

Subd. 5. For school transportation services, a school district may levy an amount not to exceed the amount raised by a levy of (ONE MILL) two mills times the adjusted assessed valuation of the taxable property of the district for the preceding year. A district may levy under this subdivision for the amount necessary to eliminate any projected deficit in the appropriated fund balance account for bus purchases in its transportation fund as of June 30 in the school year when the levy is recognized as revenue. A district may also levy for transportation costs or other related services which are approved by the commissioner as necessary because of extraordinary traffic hazards for the current fiscal year.

Sec. 11. [1981-1982 TRANSPORTATION AID.]

For the 1981-1982 school year, a district's aid pursuant to Minnesota Statutes 1981 Supplement, Section 124.225, shall equal the district's aid entitlement per weighted FTE determined according to the provisions of Minnesota Statutes 1981 Supplement, Section 124.225, Subdivision 7a, times the total number of authorized weighted FTE's transported in the district in the school year, minus the amount raised by one mill times the adjusted assessed valuation which is used to compute the transportation levy limitation for the levy attributable to the 1981-1982 school year.

Sec. 12. [RECERTIFICATION OF BASIC MAINTENANCE AND TRANSPORTATION LEVIES.]

Subdivision 1. [RECERTIFICATION PERMITTED.] Notwithstanding the provisions of Minnesota Statutes, Chapters 124 and 275 or any other law to the contrary, by January 22, 1982, a school district may recertify the basic maintenance levy authorized in Minnesota Statutes, Section 275.125, Subdivision 2a, and the transportation levy authorized in Minnesota Statutes, Section 275.125, Subdivision 5, for taxes assessed in 1981, payable in 1982, as provided in this section.

Subd. 2. [ADDITIONAL AMOUNT OF BASIC MAINTENANCE LEVY.] The school district may add an amount to the basic maintenance levy up to the lesser of:

(a) the difference between

(1) the product of

(A) the estimated number of actual pupil units, as defined in Minnesota Statutes, Section 124.2121, Subdivision 3, Clause (a), in the district in the 1982-1983 school year, times

(B) $1,346, and

(2) the amount already certified in 1981 by the district for basic maintenance purposes; or

(b) one mill times the 1980 adjusted assessed valuation of the district.

A district in which the basic maintenance levy was computed under the provisions of Minnesota Statutes, Section 275.125, Subdivision 2e, shall not recertify its basic maintenance levy.

Subd. 3. [ADDITIONAL AMOUNT OF TRANSPORTATION LEVY.] The school district may add an amount to the transportation levy up to one mill times the 1980 adjusted assessed valuation of the district.

Sec. 13. [DECEMBER, 1981 AND JANUARY, 1982 EDUCATION AID PAYMENTS SUSPENDED.]

Notwithstanding the provisions of Minnesota Statutes, Sections 16A.15 and 124.11, or any other law to the contrary, the commissioner of education may suspend payment of some or all state aids, payments, reimbursements and fund transfers from some or all school districts, public library systems, multi-type library systems, educational cooperative service units or regional management information systems in the months of December, 1981 and January, 1982. The commissioner may consider the cash flow requirements of each individual recipient when determining whether to suspend payments of any aid, payments, reimbursements or fund transfers.

Sec. 14. [CERTIFICATION.]

Within ten days of final enactment of this act, with respect to December, 1981 payments, and within ten days of the suspension of January, 1982 payments, the commissioner of education shall certify to each recipient the amount of aids, payments, reimbursements, or fund transfers suspended pursuant to section 13, and shall announce the date by which payment of the suspended amount shall be made. The commissioner shall issue a certificate of unpaid aids for the certified amount to be paid no later than June 30, 1982.

Sec. 15. [REPAYMENT BY END OF FISCAL YEAR.]

Notwithstanding any law to the contrary, by June 30, 1982, the commissioner of finance shall draw warrants in favor of school districts, public library systems, multi-type library systems, educational cooperative service units or regional management information systems for any of the state aids, payments, reimbursements and fund transfers that were suspended by the commissioner of education pursuant to section 13.

Sec. 16. [FOUNDATION AID APPROPRIATION FOR FISCAL YEARS 1984 AND 1985.]

The total amount appropriated for foundation aid for the biennium ending June 30, 1985 shall not exceed the total amount appropriated for foundation aid for the biennium ending June 30, 1983.

Sec. 17. [MINIMUM AID LIMITATION.]

Notwithstanding any law to the contrary, for the purpose of computing the minimum aid guarantee pursuant to Minnesota Statutes 1981 Supplement, Section 124.2126, Subdivision 2, for the 1982-1983 school year, a qualifying district's basic foundation aid shall be computed using a foundation aid formula allowance of $1346 and a basic maintenance mill rate of .023.

Sec. 18. [REVIEW OF MANDATES.]

During the 1982 regular session, the education committees of the legislature shall review mandates to school districts established by the legislature and the state board of education. It is the intention of the legislature to revise these statutes and rules to provide more flexibility to school districts because of increasing fiscal constraints resulting from reductions in revenue. The mandates which the legislature shall review shall include at least the following: eligibility requirements for receiving certain categorical aids; restrictions on the school district's use of particular funds, including transfers from the capital outlay fund; restrictions on the school district's authority to raise revenue; and restrictions on the school district's authority to reduce expenditures in certain areas.

Sec. 19. [REPEALER.]

Minnesota Statutes 1981 Supplement, Sections 124.20, Subdivision 3; and 275.125, Subdivision 2f, are repealed.

Sec. 20. [EFFECTIVE DATE.]

Sections 1 to 9 and 11 to 19 are effective the day following final enactment. Section 10 is effective for levies certified in 1982 payable 1983.

The overpayment refund or credit, determined with respect to a husband and wife on a joint federal income tax return for a previous taxable year, shall be reported on joint, combined, or separate Minnesota income tax returns. In the case of combined or separate Minnesota returns, the overpayment shall be reported by each spouse proportionately according to the relative amounts of federal income tax claimed as a deduction on his or

(d) Amounts transferred from a reserve or other account, if in effect transfers to surplus, shall, to the extent that the amounts were accumulated through deductions from gross income or entered into the computation of taxable net income during any taxable year, be treated as gross income for the year in which the transfer occurs, but only to the extent that the amounts resulted in a reduction of the tax imposed by this chapter and amounts received as refunds on account of taxes deducted from gross income during any taxable year shall be treated as gross income for the year in which actually received, but only to the extent that such amounts resulted in a reduction of the tax imposed by this chapter.

(e) Modification in computing taxable income of the estate of a decedent. Amounts allowable under section 291.07, subdivision 1, clause (2) in computing Minnesota inheritance or estate tax liability shall not be allowed as a deduction (or as an offset against the sales price of property in determining gain or loss) in computing the taxable income of the estate or any person unless there is filed within the time and in the manner and form prescribed by the commissioner a statement that the amounts have not been allowed as a deduction under section 291.07 and a waiver of the right to have the amounts allowed at any time as deductions under section 291.07. The provisions of this paragraph shall not apply with respect to deductions allowed under section 290.077 (relating to income in respect of decedents). rate shall be that proportion of $25,000 which its income allocable to this state bears to its total taxable net income; and

(2) On the remainder, 12 percent.

Sec. 4. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 290.06, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 2e. [ADDITIONAL INCOME TAX.] In addition to the tax computed pursuant to subdivisions 2c and 2d or subdivision 3d, there is hereby imposed an additional income tax on individuals, estates, and trusts, other than those taxable as corporations. The additional tax shall be computed by applying the following rates to the tax computed pursuant to subdivision 3d or, in the case of an individual who does not qualify for the low income alternative tax and estates and trusts, the tax computed pursuant to subdivisions 2c and 2d and sections 290.032 and 290.091 less the credits allowed by sections 290.06, subdivisions 3e, 3f, 9, 9a, 11 and 14; and 290.081.

(1) For taxable years beginning after December 31, 1981, but before January 1, 1983, seven percent;

(2) For taxable years beginning after December 31, 1982, but before January 1, 1984, 3.5 percent:

On October 1, 1983 the commissioner of finance shall determine the amount of the state's unrestricted general fund balance at the close of the 1982-1983 biennium. If this amount is more than $150,000,000, the commissioner shall reduce the rate of the surtax in effect for taxable years beginning after December 31, 1982 and before January 1, 1984, so that the amount of revenue raised by the surtax results in a fund balance of no more than $150,000,000, provided that the rate so determined shall be rounded upward to the next one-tenth of one percent and no adjustment shall be required if the change in the rate of the surtax would be less than one-tenth of one percent.

Sec. 5. [ADJUSTMENT TO WITHHOLDING AND DECLARATIONS.]

For taxable years beginning after December 31, 1982, but before January 1, 1984, the commissioner of revenue shall adjust the withholding tables, notwithstanding section 290.92, subdivision 2a, so that the entire amount of the additional tax imposed by section 4 for the year, is withheld and remitted by employers during the first six months of the taxable year.

For the same period, the commissioner shall require that declarations filed during the first six months of the taxable year by individuals, estates, and trusts shall include the additional tax imposed by section 4.

Sec. 6. [290.068] [CREDIT FOR RESEARCH AND EXPERIMENTAL EXPENDITURES.]

Subdivision 1. [CREDIT ALLOWED.] In addition to the deduction provided in section 290.09, a credit shall be allowed equal to ten percent of research and experimental expenditures paid or incurred in Minnesota during the taxable year.

Subd. 2. [DEFINITION.] For purposes of this section "research and experimental expenditures" means expenditures incurred in Minnesota which qualify for the deduction provided in section 290.09, subdivision 18, to the extent the expenditures exceed the average of the three preceding taxable years' qualifying expenditures under section 290.09, subdivision 18, incurred in Minnesota. If the taxpayer has not conducted trade or business in Minnesota for the three preceding taxable years, the average expenditures incurred shall be determined by dividing the expenditures by the lesser number of complete prior taxable years. If there has been less than one prior taxable year of trade or business conducted in Minnesota the average expenditures for the three preceding taxable years shall be zero.

Subd. 3. [LIMITATION.] The credit for the taxable year shall not exceed $300,000 or ten percent of the liability for tax, whichever is less. "Liability for tax" for purposes of this section means the tax imposed under this chapter for the taxable year reduced by the sum of the credits allowed under section 290.06, except the credit allowed under section 290.06, subdivision 13.

If the credit determined under subdivision 2 exceeds this limitation, the excess shall be a credit carryback to each of the three preceding taxable years and a credit carryover to each of the seven succeeding taxable years, provided the aggregate of the credit for the taxable year and any carryover and carryback credits shall not exceed $300,000 or ten percent of the liability for tax, whichever is less. The entire amount of the excess unused credit for the taxable year shall be carried first to the earliest of the taxable years to which the credit may be carried and then to each successive year to which the credit may be carried.

Sec. 7. Minnesota Statutes 1981 Supplement, Section 290.09, Subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [INTEREST.] (a) All interest paid or accrued within the taxable year on indebtedness, except as hereinafter provided.

(b) Interest paid or accrued within the taxable year on indebtedness incurred or continued to purchase or carry obligations or securities the income from which is excludable from gross income under sections 290.01, subdivision 20 or 290.08, or shares of a regulated investment company which during the taxable year of the holder thereof distributes Minnesota exempt-interest dividends as defined in section 290.01, subdivision 27, or on indebtedness described in section 264(a)(2) and (3), (b) and (c) (relating to life insurance) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, as amended through December 31, 1980 shall not be allowed as a deduction.

(c) If personal property or educational services are purchased under a contract the provisions of section 163(b) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, as amended through December 31, 1980 shall apply.

(d) A cash basis taxpayer may elect to deduct interest as it accrues on a reverse mortgage loan as defined in section 47.58, subdivision 1, rather than when it is actually paid. This election must be made, if at all, in the first taxable year in which it is available to the cash basis taxpayer and, if made, shall be binding on the taxpayer for each subsequent taxable year until maturity of the loan.

(e) In the case of a taxpayer other than a corporation, the amount of interest on investment indebtedness allowable as a deduction shall be allowed and limited as set forth in section 163(d) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, as amended through December 31, 1980. The limitation prescribed in section 163(d)(1)(A) for married individuals who file separate returns shall also apply to married individuals who file separately on one return.

(f) A taxpayer may not deduct interest on indebtedness incurred or continued to purchase or carry obligations or shares, or to make deposits or other investments, the interest on which is described in section 116(c) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, as amended through December 31, 1980 to the extent such interest is excludable from gross income under section 116 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 as amended through December 31, 1980. Interest and carrying costs in the case of straddles shall be treated as provided in section 263(g) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, as amended through December 31, 1981.

Sec. 8. Minnesota Statutes 1981 Supplement, Section 290.09, Subdivision 7, is amended to read:

Subd. 7. [DEPRECIATION.] (A) [CUMULATIVE DEPRECIATION.] (a) There shall be allowed as a depreciation deduction a reasonable allowance for the exhaustion, wear and tear (including a reasonable allowance for obsolescence):

- (1) of property used in the trade or business, or
- (2) of property held for the production of income.

(b) The term "reasonable allowance" as used in clause (a) shall include (but shall not be limited to) an allowance computed in accordance with regulations prescribed by the commissioner, under any of the following methods:

(1) the straight line method.

(2) the declining balance method, using a rate not exceeding twice the rate which would have been used had the annual allowance been computed under the method described in paragraph (1).

(3) the sum of the years-digits method, and

(4) any other consistent method productive of an annual allowance, which, when added to all allowances for the period commencing with the taxpayer's use of the property and including the taxable year, does not, during the first two-thirds of the useful life of the property, exceed the total of such allowances which would have been used had such allowances been computed under the method described in (2). Nothing in this clause (b) shall be construed to limit or reduce an allowance otherwise allowable under clause (a).

(c) For purposes of this subdivision "reasonable allowance" shall not include the accelerated cost recovery system provisions of section 168 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, as amended through December 31, 1981, except as provided in this subdivision unless specifically authorized by legislation enacted after the final enactment of this section. In the case of recovery property within the meaning of section 168 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, as amended through December 31, 1981, the term "reasonable allowance" as used in clause (a) shall mean 85 percent of the deduction allowed pursuant to section 168 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 for taxable years beginning after December 31, 1980 and before January 1, 1982; and 83 percent of the deduction allowed pursuant to section 168 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 for taxable years beginning after December 31, 1981 and before January 1, 1983.

(d) Paragraphs (2), (3), and (4) of clause (b) shall apply only in the case of property (other than intangible property) described in clause (a) with a useful life of three years or more.

(1) the construction, reconstruction, or erection of which is completed after December 31, 1958, and then only to that portion of the basis which is properly attributable to such construction, reconstruction, or erection after December 31, 1958, or

(2) acquired after December 31, 1958, if the original use of such property commenced with the taxpayer and commences after such date.

((D)) (e) Where, under regulations prescribed by the commissioner, the taxpayer and the commissioner have, after June 30, 1959, entered into an agreement in writing specifically dealing with the useful life and rate of depreciation of any property, the rate so agreed upon shall be binding on both the taxpayer and the commissioner in the absence of facts or circumstances not taken into consideration in the adoption of such agreement. The responsibility of establishing the existence of such facts and circumstances shall rest with the party initiating the modification. Any change in the agreed rate and useful life specified in the agreement shall not be effective for taxable years before the taxable year in which notice in writing by certified mail is served by the party to the agreement initiating such change.

((E)) (f) In the absence of an agreement under clause (d) containing a provision to the contrary, a taxpayer may at any time elect in accordance with regulations prescribed by the commissioner to change from the method of depreciation prescribed in clause (b) (2) to the method described in clause (b) (1).

((F)) (g) The basis on which exhaustion, wear and tear, and obsolescence are to be allowed in respect of any property shall be the adjusted basis provided in sections 290.131 to 290.139, 290.14 and 290.15 for the purpose of determining the gain on the sale or other disposition of such property except that in the case of recovery property within the meaning of section 168 of the Internal Revenue Code as amended through December 31, 1981, for taxable years beginning after December 31, 1980 but before January 1, 1983, the depreciation adjustment to basis shall be the same as the depreciation adjustments under the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 as amended through December 31, 1981.

((G)) (h) In the case of property held by one person for life with remainder to another person, the deduction shall be computed as if the life tenant were the absolute owner of the property and shall be allowed to the life tenant. In the case of property held in trust the allowable deduction shall be apportioned between the income beneficiary and the trustee in accordance with the pertinent provisions of the instrument creating the trust, or, in the absence of such provisions, on the basis of the trust income allocable to each. In the case of an estate, the allowable deduction shall be apportioned between the estate and the heirs, legatees, and devisees on the basis of the income of the estate allocable to each.

((H)) (i) In the case of buildings or other structures or improvements constructed or made on leased premises by a lessee, and the fixtures and machinery therein installed, the lessee alone shall be entitled to the allowance of this deduction.

(B) [FIRST YEAR DEPRECIATION.] (a) In the case of section 1 property, the term "reasonable allowance" as used in subdivision 7, may, at the election of the taxpayer, include an allowance, for the first taxable year for which a deduction is allowable under subdivision 7, to the taxpayer with respect to such property, of 20 percent of the cost of such property. For taxable years beginning after December 31, 1980 and before January 1, 1983, in the case of recovery property within the meaning of section 168 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, as amended through December 31, 1981, the first year depreciation allowance shall be the allowance for federal income tax purposes under section 179 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, as amended through December 31, 1981.

(b) If in any one taxable year the cost of section 1 property with respect to which the taxpayer may elect an allowance under (a) for such taxable year exceeds $10,000, then (a) shall apply with respect to those items selected by the taxpayer, but only to the extent of an aggregate cost of $10,000. In the case of a husband and wife who file a joint return under section 290.38 for the taxable year, the limitation under the preceding sentence shall be $20,000 in lieu of $10,000.

(c) (1) The election under this subdivision for any taxable year shall be made within the time prescribed by law (including extensions thereof) for filing the return for such taxable year. The election shall be made in such manner as the commissioner may by regulations prescribe.

(2) Any election made under this subdivision may not be revoked except with the consent of the commissioner.

(d) (1) For purposes of this subdivision, the term "Section 1 property" means tangible personal property (excluding buildings and structures)

(A) of a character subject to the allowance for depreciation under subdivision 7.

(B) acquired by purchase after December 31, 1958, for use in a trade or business or for holding for production of income, and

(C) with a useful life (determined at the time of such acquisition) of six years or more.

(2) For purposes of paragraph (1), the term "purchase" means any acquisition of property, but only if

(A) the property is not acquired from a person whose relationship to the person acquiring it would result in the disallowance of losses under section 290.10(6),

(B) the property is not acquired by one component member of a controlled group from another component member of the same controlled group, and

(C) the basis of the property in the hands of the person acquiring it is not determined

(i) in whole or in part by reference to the adjusted basis of such property in the hands of the person from whom acquired, or

(ii) under section 290.14(4) (relating to property acquired from a decedent).

(3) For purposes of this subdivision, the cost of property does not include so much of the basis of such property as is determined by reference to the basis of other property held at any time by the person acquiring such property.

(4) This subdivision shall not apply to trusts.

(5) In the case of an estate, any amount apportioned to an heir, legatee, or devisee shall not be taken into account in applying (B) of this subdivision to section 1 property of such heir, legatee, or devisee not held by such estate.

(6) For purposes of (B) of this subdivision

(A) all component members of a controlled group shall be treated as one taxpayer, and

(B) the commissioner shall apportion the dollar limitation contained in such (B) among the component members of such controlled group in such manner as he shall by regulations prescribe.

(7) For purposes of paragraphs (2) and (6), the term "controlled group" has the meaning assigned to it by section 1563(a) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, as amended through December 31, 1979, except that, for such purposes, the phrase "more than 50 percent" shall be substituted for the phrase "at least 80 percent" each place it appears in section 1563(a)(1) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, as amended through December 31, 1979.

In addition to all other taxes imposed by this chapter there is hereby imposed, a tax which, in the case of a resident individual, shall be equal to 40 percent of the amount of the taxpayer's minimum tax liability for tax preference items pursuant to the provisions of sections 55 to 58 and 443(d) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 as amended through December 31, 1980 except that for purposes of the tax imposed by this section, capital gain as defined in section 57(a) of the Internal Revenue Code shall not include that portion of any gain occasioned by sale, transfer or the granting of a perpetual easement pursuant to any eminent domain proceeding or threat thereof as described in section 290.13, subdivision 5. This modification shall apply to the years in which the gain or reduction in loss is actually included in federal adjusted gross income even though amounts received pursuant to the eminent domain proceedings were received in prior years. (IN THE CASE OF A TAXPAYER OTHER THAN A CORPORATION, AN AMOUNT EQUAL TO ONE-HALF OF THE NET CAPITAL GAIN FOR THE TAXABLE YEAR SHALL BE USED AS THE DEFINITION OF CAPITAL GAIN IN PLACE OF THE DEDUCTION DETERMINED UNDER SECTION 1202 OF THE INTERNAL REVENUE CODE.) In the case of a resident individual, having preference items which could not be taken to reduce income from sources outside the state pursuant to section 290.17, subdivision 1, or any other taxpayer the tax shall equal 40 percent of that federal liability, multiplied by a fraction the numerator of which is the amount of the taxpayer's preference item income allocated to this state pursuant to the provisions of sections 290.17 to 290.20, and the denominator of which is the taxpayer's total preference item income for federal purposes.

Sec. 10. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 290.16, Subdivision 4, is amended to read:

Subd. 4. [DEDUCTIONS FOR CAPITAL GAINS.] If for any taxable year the net long-term capital gain exceeds the net short-term capital loss, (50) 60 percent of the amount of such excess shall be a deduction from gross income.

Sec. 11. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 290.16, Subdivision 15, is amended to read:

Subd. 15. [GAIN FROM DISPOSITIONS OF CERTAIN DEPRECIABLE PROPERTY.] For purposes of this subdivision "depreciable property" shall mean "Section 1245 property" as that phrase is defined in Section 1245(a) (3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, as amended through December 31, 1979.

In determining net income of any corporate taxpayer, the gain realized from the disposition of "depreciable property" shall be treated in the same manner as is provided by Section 1245 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, as amended through December 31, 1979 and regulations adopted pursuant thereto except that the determination shall be made using the basis computed under this chapter.

Sec. 12. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 290.16, Subdivision 16, is amended to read:

Subd. 16. [GAIN FROM DISPOSITION OF CERTAIN DEPRECIABLE REALTY.] For purposes of this subdivision "depreciable realty" shall mean "Section 1250 realty" as that phrase is defined in Section 1250(c) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, as amended through December 31, 1979.

In determining net income of any corporate taxpayer, the gain realized from the disposition of "depreciable realty" shall be treated in the same manner as is provided by Section 1250 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, as amended through December 31, 1979, and regulations adopted pursuant thereto except that the determination shall be made using the basis computed under this chapter.

Sec. 13. Minnesota Statutes 1981 Supplement, Section 290.17, Subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [OTHER TAXPAYERS.] In the case of taxpayers not subject to the provisions of subdivision 1, items of gross income shall be assigned to this state or other states or countries in accordance with the following principles:

(1) The entire income of all resident or domestic taxpayers from compensation for labor or personal services, or from a business consisting principally of the performance of personal or professional services, shall be assigned to this state, and the income of nonresident taxpayers from such sources shall be assigned to this state if, and to the extent that, the labor or services are performed within it; all other income from such sources shall be treated as income from sources without this state;

(2) Income from the operation of a farm shall be assigned to this state if the farm is located within this state and to other states only if the farm is not located in this state. Income and gains received from tangible property not employed in the business of the recipient of such income or gains, and from tangible property employed in the business of such recipient if such business consists principally of the holding of such property and the collection of the income and gains therefrom, shall be assigned to this state if such property has a situs within it, and to other states only if it has no situs in this state. Income or gains from intangible personal property not employed in the business of the recipient of such income or gains, and from intangible personal property employed in the business of such recipient if such business consists principally of the holding of such property and the collection of the income and gains therefrom, wherever held, whether in trust, or otherwise, shall be assigned to this state if the recipient thereof is domiciled within this state; income or gains from intangible personal property wherever held, whether in trust or otherwise shall be assigned to this state if the recipient of such income or gains is domiciled within this state, or if the grantor of any trust is domiciled within this state and such income or gains would be taxable to such grantor under section 290.25 or 290.29 ;

(3) Income derived from carrying on a trade or business, including in the case of a business owned by natural persons the income imputable to the owner for his services and the use of his property therein, shall be assigned to this state if the trade or business is conducted wholly within this state, and to other states if conducted wholly without this state. This provision shall not apply to business income subject to the provisions of clause (1) ;

(4) When a trade or business is carried on partly within and partly without this state, the entire income derived from such trade or business, including income from intangible property employed in such business and including, in the case of a business owned by natural persons, the income imputable to the owner for his services and the use of his property therein, shall be governed, except as otherwise provided in sections 290.35 and 290.36, by the provisions of section 290.19, notwithstanding any provisions of this section to the contrary. This shall not apply to business income subject to the provisions of clause (1), nor shall it apply to income from the operation of a farm which is subject to the provisions of clause (2). For the purposes of this clause, a trade or business located in Minnesota is carried on partly within and partly without this state if tangible personal property is sold by such trade or business and delivered or shipped to a purchaser located outside the state of Minnesota.

If the trade or business carried on wholly or partly in Minnesota is part of a unitary business, the entire income of that unitary business shall be subject to apportionment under section 290.19. The term "unitary business" shall mean a number of business activities or operations which are of mutual benefit, dependent upon, or contributory to one another, individually or as a group. Unity shall be presumed whenever there is unity of ownership, operation, and use, evidenced by centralized management or executive force, centralized purchasing, advertising, accounting, or other controlled interaction. Unity of ownership will not be deemed to exist unless the corporation owns more than 50 percent of the voting stock of the other corporation.

The entire income of a unitary business, including all income from each activity, operation or division, shall be subject to apportionment as provided in section 290.19. None of the income of a unitary business shall be considered as derived from any particular source and none shall be allocated to any particular place except as provided by the applicable apportionment formula.

In determining whether or not intangible property is employed in a unitary business carried on partly within and partly without this state so that income derived therefrom is subject to apportionment under section 290.19 the following rules and guidelines shall apply.

(a) Intangible property is employed in a business if the business entity owning intangible property holds it as a means of furthering the business operation of which a part is located within the territorial confines of this state.

(b) Where a business operation conducted in Minnesota, is owned by a business entity which carries on business activity outside of the state different in kind from that conducted within this state, and such other business is conducted entirely outside the state, it will be presumed that the two business operations are unitary in nature, interrelated, connected and interdependent unless it can be shown to the contrary.

(5) In the case of a nonresident who is liable for payment of a penalty for having withdrawn funds from an individual housing account established pursuant to section 290.08, subdivision 25, the amount so withdrawn and for which a deduction was allowed shall be an item of income assignable to this state, and the penalty tax of ten percent shall remain an additional liability of that taxpayer.

(6) For purposes of this section, amounts received by a non-resident from the United States, its agencies or instrumentalities, the Federal Reserve Bank, the state of Minnesota or any of its political or governmental subdivisions, or a Minnesota volunteer fireman's relief association, by way of payment as a pension, public employee retirement benefit, or any combination thereof, or as a retirement or survivor's benefit made from a plan qualifying under section 401, 403, 404, 405, 408, 409 or 409A of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, as amended through December 31, 1979, are not considered income derived from carrying on a trade or business or from performing personal or professional services in Minnesota, and are not taxable under this chapter.

(7) All other items of gross income shall be assigned to the taxpayer's domicile.

Sec. 14. Minnesota Statutes 1981 Supplement, Section 290.21, Subdivision 4, is amended to read:

Subd. 4. (a) 85 percent of dividends received by a corporation during the taxable year from another corporation, when the corporate stock with respect to which dividends are paid does not constitute the stock in trade of the taxpayer or would not be included in the inventory of the taxpayer, or does not constitute property held by the taxpayer primarily for sale to customers in the ordinary course of his trade or business, or when the trade or business of the taxpayer does not consist principally of the holding of the stocks and the collection of the income and gains therefrom. The remaining 15 percent shall be allowed if the recipient owns 80 percent or more of all the voting stock of such other corporation, and the dividends were paid from income arising out of business done in this state by the corporation paying such dividends; but if the income out of which the dividends are declared was derived from business done within and without this state, then so much of the remainder shall be allowed as a deduction as the amount of the taxable net income of the corporation paying the dividends assignable or allocable to this state bears to the entire net income of the corporation, such rate being determined by the returns under this chapter of the corporation paying such dividends for the taxable year preceding the distribution thereof; the burden shall be on the taxpayer of showing that the amount of remainder claimed as a deduction has been received from income arising out of business done in this state,

(b) if the trade or business of the taxpayer consists principally of the holding of the stocks and the collection of the income and gains therefrom, dividends received by a corporation during the taxable year from another corporation, if the recipient owns 80 percent or more of all the voting stock of such other corporation, from income arising out of business done in this state by the corporation paying such dividends; but, if the income out of which the dividends are declared was derived from business done within and without this state, then so much of the dividends shall be allowed as deduction as the amount of the taxable net income of the corporation paying the dividends assignable or allocable to this state bears to the entire net income of the corporation, such rate being determined by the returns under this chapter of the corporation paying such dividends for the taxable year preceding the distribution thereof. The burden shall be on the taxpayer of showing that the amount of dividends claimed as a deduction has been received from income arising out of business done in this state.

(c) The dividend deduction provided in this subdivision shall be allowed only with respect to dividends that are included in a corporation's Minnesota taxable net income for the taxable year.

(d) In the case of a corporation, which is permitted or required to file a combined report under section 290.34, subdivision 2, dividends shall be excluded from the income of the recipient to the extent the dividends are already included as income on the combined report.

Sec. 15. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 290.34, Subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [AFFILIATED OR RELATED CORPORATIONS, CONSOLIDATED STATEMENTS.] When a corporation which is required to file an income tax return is affiliated with or related to any other corporation through stock ownership by the same interests or as parent or subsidiary corporations, or has its income regulated through contract or other arrangement, the commissioner of revenue may permit or require such (CONSOLIDATED STATEMENTS) combined report as, in his opinion, are necessary in order to determine the taxable net income received by any one of the affiliated or related corporations. For purposes of computing either the arithmetic average or weighted apportionment formulas under section 290.19, subdivision 1 for each corporation involved, the numerator of the fraction shall be that corporation's sales, property, or payroll in Minnesota and the denominator shall be the total sales, payroll, and property of all the corporations shown on the combined report. The combined report shall reflect the income of the entire unitary business as provided in section 290.17, subdivision 2, clause (4). The combined report shall reflect income only from corporations created or organized in the United States or under the laws of the United States or of any state. Specifically, it is the intent of the legislature to adopt the combined reporting method provided in Butler Brothers v. McColgan, 111 P. 2d 334, and 315 U.S. 501, and Edison California Stores v. McColgan, 183 P. 2d 16 and to treat all income as business income to the maximum extent allowable under Mobil Oil Corporation v. Commissioner of Taxes of Vermont, 445 U.S. 425. This subdivision shall not apply to insurance companies whose income is determined under section 290.35.

Sec. 16. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 290.361, Subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [COMPUTATION OF TAXABLE NET INCOME.] The taxable net income shall be computed in the manner provided by this chapter except that in the case of national and state banks: (a) the (RATE) rates shall be (12 PERCENT) as established in section 290.06, subdivision 1; (b) the basic date for the purpose of computing gain or loss and depreciation shall be January 1, 1940, instead of January 1, 1933; (c) property consisting of investments in bonds, stocks, notes, debentures, mortgages, certificates, or any evidence of indebtedness, and any property acquired in liquidation thereof when such property is held for investment or for sale, shall not be deemed to be capital assets; and (d) in computing net income there shall be allowable as a deduction from gross income, in addition to deductions otherwise provided for in this chapter, any dividend (not including any distribution in liquidation) paid, within the taxable year, to the United States or to any instrumentality thereof exempt from federal income taxes, on the preferred stock of the bank owned by the United States or such instrumentality.

Sec. 17. Minnesota Statutes 1981 Supplement, Section 290.53, Subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [FAILURE TO PAY TAX.] If any tax imposed by this chapter is not paid within the time herein specified for the payment thereof, or within 30 days after final determination of an appeal to the tax court relating thereto if the taxpayer is not required to pay the amount in dispute pending appeal under section 18, there shall be added thereto a specific penalty equal to ten percent of the amount so remaining unpaid. Such penalty shall be collected as part of said tax, and the amount of said tax not timely paid, together with said penalty shall bear interest at the rate specified in section 270.75 from the time such tax should have been paid until paid. Interest accruing upon the tax due as disclosed by the return or upon the amount determined as a deficiency from the date prescribed for the payment of the tax (if the tax is payable in installments, from the date the installment or installments become due and payable under the provisions of section 290.45, subdivision 1) shall be added to the tax and be collected as a part thereof. Where an extension of time for payment has been granted under section 290.45, subdivision 2, interest shall be paid at the rate specified in section 270.75 from the date when such payment should have been made if no extension had been granted, until such tax is paid. If payment is not made at the expiration of the extended period the penalties provided in this section shall apply.

Sec. 18. [290.531] [PAYMENT OF TAX PENDING APPEAL.]

When a taxpayer appeals his tax liability under chapter 290 to the tax court, and the amount in dispute is more than $4,000, the entire amount of the tax shall be paid at the time it is due unless permission to continue prosecution of the petition without payment is obtained as provided herein. The petitioner, upon ten days notice to the commissioner, may apply to the court for permission to continue prosecution of the petition without payment; and, if it is made to appear

- (1) That the proposed review is to be taken in good faith;
- (2) That there is probable cause to believe the taxpayer may be held exempt from the tax or that the tax may be determined to be less than 50 percent of the amount due; and
- (3) That it would work a substantial hardship upon petitioner to pay the tax,

the court may permit the petitioner to continue prosecution of the petition without payment, or may fix a lesser amount to be paid as a condition of continuing the prosecution of the petition.

Failure to make payment of the amount required when due shall operate automatically to dismiss the petition and all proceedings thereunder unless the payment is waived by an order of the court permitting the petitioner to continue prosecution of the petition without payment.

299.08 [LIEN; PAYMENT OF TAX.]

The situs of royalty, for all purposes of this chapter, shall be in this state; and the tax herein provided for shall be a specific lien from the time the royalty accrues upon all and singular the right, title, and interest of the person to whom such royalty is payable, in and to the land, for permission to explore, mine, take out, and remove ore on which the royalty is paid, and shall be a specific lien upon such royalties as they accrue. Every person paying royalty to another which is subject to tax hereunder, upon which the royalty tax has not been paid, shall withhold the amount of the tax upon such royalty and remit the same to the commissioner of revenue at the time the royalty is paid. Such payment shall operate to discharge to that extent the liability of the person paying such royalty to the royalty recipient. In addition thereto, he shall withhold any additional amounts certified pursuant to section 299.012, subdivision 3. At the time of such payment he shall file with the commissioner of revenue a report thereof on forms to be prescribed by the commissioner of revenue. If any person paying royalty to another shall fail to withhold the tax thereon or the penalty imposed by section 299.06, after notice thereof as therein provided, and pay the same to the commissioner of revenue, he shall be liable for the amount of such tax and penalty, with interest at the rate of (12) 20 percent per annum, adjusted as provided in section 1, from the time the same should have been paid, to be recovered in an action by the attorney general for and on behalf of the state. The commissioner of revenue, may, upon petition of any royalty payor or recipient, upon such conditions as he may impose, permit the paying of the tax in one annual payment instead of as such royalty accrues, in which case such annual payment shall be made at such times as the commissioner of revenue directs, not later than June 30 of the year following the accrual of the royalty. No such extension of time shall be granted unless, as one of the conditions thereof, the royalty payor shall guarantee the payment of the tax.

In the event the royalty is paid in ore instead of in cash the tax provided for herein shall be a specific lien upon the ore apportioned to the royalty recipient; or, if such ore be not apportioned, upon the royalty recipient's interest in the ore mined, and such ore shall not be shipped from this state unless:

- (1) The royalty tax be paid; or

(2) A bond be given to secure such payment, upon a form and with sureties approved by the commissioner of revenue, in an amount 25 percent in excess of his estimate of the tax; or

(3) The estimated amount of the tax, such estimate to be made by the commissioner of revenue, be deposited with the state treasurer as security for such payment; or

(4) The payment of the tax be guaranteed or secured in some other manner satisfactory to the commissioner of revenue.

Sec. 20. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 299.10, is amended to read:

299.10 [PENALTY FOR NON-PAYMENT; COLLECTION OF DELINQUENT TAX.]

If the tax herein provided for is not paid by July 15 of the year when due and payable a penalty of ten percent thereof shall immediately accrue and thereafter (ONE PERCENT PER MONTH) 20 percent per annum, adjusted as provided in section 1, shall be added to such tax while it remains unpaid. On July 16, of each year, the commissioner of revenue shall deliver a certification of unpaid liability to the attorney general, whose duty it shall be to bring an action in the district court of Ramsey county for the amount of such tax, together with penalties, interest, and costs of the proceedings; and the judgment of the court, when so obtained and properly docketed, shall be a lien upon all right, title, and interest of the taxpayer to the land upon which such tax is a lien from the time the same is docketed; and the lien shall continue without limitation, with interest at the rate of one percent per month, and the property may be sold in satisfaction of the judgment in the same manner as provided by law for the sale of property upon execution.

Sec. 21. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 340.492, is amended to read:

340.492 [MANNER AND TIME OF PAYMENT; PENALTIES; DEPOSIT OF TAX PROCEEDS.]

The commissioner of revenue shall issue rules adopting the reporting method for paying and collecting the excise tax on fermented malt beverages. The rules shall require reports to be filed with and the excise tax to be paid to the commissioner on or before the fifteenth day of the month following the month in which the importation into or the first sale is made in this state, whichever first occurs. If the excise tax is not paid when due, there shall be added to the amount of the tax as penalty a sum equivalent to ten percent thereof, and in addition thereto interest on the tax and penalty at the rate of (ONE PERCENT A MONTH OR MAJOR PORTION THEREOF) 20 percent per annum, adjusted as provided in section 1, from the date the tax became due until paid. The commissioner shall deposit all moneys received in the funds as provided by section 340.47, subdivision 2.

Sec. 22. [EFFECTIVE DATE.] *Sections 1 and 19 to 21 are effective February 1, 1982. The provision of section 2 relating to commodity tax straddles and section 7 are effective for taxable years beginning after December 31, 1980. (4) All of the October property tax settlements shall be recognized as receivable and recorded as revenue in the same fiscal year during which collection normally takes place. These receivables shall be for use in the current fiscal year.

Sec. 2. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 121.904, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 4b. [LEVY RECOGNITION; PAYABLE 1984 AND THEREAFTER.] (1) Beginning with taxes assessed in 1983 payable in 1984, all current levies of local taxes, including portions assumed by the state, shall be recognized as provided in this subdivision.

Subd. 2. [AMOUNT OF REDUCTION.] State aid due any school district in fiscal year 1983 for the 1982-1983 school year under the provisions enumerated in subdivision 3 shall be reduced by the amount the district levied for taxes assessed in 1982, payable in 1983, which is to be recognized as revenue in fiscal year 1983 pursuant to section 1. The district levy against which the reduction is applied shall not include any levy portions that are assumed by the state. For purposes of computing this state aid reduction, the amount levied by the district shall not include the amounts levied to make payments for bonds issued and for interest thereon; the amounts levied for repayment of debt service loans and capital loans; the amounts levied to pay the district's obligations under section 268.06, subdivision 25; and amounts levied pursuant to section 275.125, subdivisions 2d, 6a, 9a, 14a, and 20.

Before July 1, 1982, the legislature intends to evaluate the effect of this article on the cash flow needs of school districts, and to reschedule the timing of payment of state aids and credits to school districts to the extent needed to ensure that the cash position of school districts is sufficiently favorable to ensure efficient operation.

Sec. 7. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 275.125, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subdivision 1a. [CERTIFIED LEVY.] Beginning with taxes assessed in 1983, payable in 1984, the certified levy for each calendar year shall equal one-sixth of the local revenue to be collected for the current fiscal year plus five-sixths of the local revenue to be collected for the following fiscal year. (HE) The treasurer shall pay the balance of the amounts collected to the state or to a municipal corporation or other body within 60 days after the settlement date, provided, however, that after 45 days interest shall accrue at a rate of eight percent per annum to the credit of and shall be paid to the state, municipal corporation or other body. Sec. 9. Minnesota Statutes 1981 Supplement, Section 275.50, Subdivision 5, is amended to read:

Subd. 5. Notwithstanding any other law to the contrary for taxes levied in (1981) 1982 payable in (1982) 1983 and subsequent years, "special levies" means those portions of ad valorem taxes levied by governmental subdivisions to:

(a) satisfy judgments rendered against the governmental subdivision by a court of competent jurisdiction in any tort action, or to pay the costs of settlements out of court against the governmental subdivision in a tort action when substantiated by a stipulation for the dismissal of the action filed with the court of competent jurisdiction and signed by both the plaintiff and the legal representative of the governmental subdivision, but only to the extent of the increase in levy for such judgments and out of court settlements over levy year 1970, taxes payable in 1971;

(b) pay the costs of complying with any written lawful order initially issued prior to January 1, 1977 by the state of Minnesota, or the United States, or any agency or subdivision thereof, which is authorized by law, statute, special act or ordinance and is enforceable in a court of competent jurisdiction, or any stipulation agreement or permit for treatment works or disposal system for pollution abatement in lieu of a lawful order signed by the governmental subdivision and the state of Minnesota, or the United States, or any agency or subdivision thereof which is enforceable in a court of competent jurisdiction. The commissioner of revenue shall in consultation with other state departments and agencies, develop a suggested form for use by the state of Minnesota, its agencies and subdivisions in issuing orders pursuant to this subdivision;

(c) pay the costs to a governmental subdivision for their minimum required share of any program otherwise authorized by law for which matching funds have been appropriated by the state of Minnesota or the United States, excluding the administrative costs of public assistance programs, to the extent of the increase in levy for the taxes payable year (1982) 1983 and subsequent years over the amount levied for the local share of the program for the taxes payable year 1971. This clause shall apply only to those programs or projects for which matching funds have been designated by the state of Minnesota or the United States on or before September 1, (1981) of the previous year and only when the receipt of these matching funds is contingent upon the initiation or implementation of the project or program during (1982) the year in which the taxes are payable or those programs or projects approved by the commissioner;

(d) pay the costs not reimbursed by the state or federal government, of payments made to or on behalf of recipients of aid under any public assistance program authorized by law, and the costs of purchase or delivery of social services. Except for the costs of general assistance medical care under section 256D.03 and the costs of hospital care pursuant to section 261.21, the aggregate amounts levied pursuant to this clause are subject to a maximum increase of 18 percent over the amount levied for these purposes (FOR THE TAXES PAYABLE YEAR 1981) in the previous year;

(e) pay the costs of principal and interest on bonded indebtedness, or, effective for taxes levied in 1973 and years thereafter, to reimburse for the amount of liquor store revenues used to pay the principal and interest due in the year preceding the year for which the levy limit is calculated on municipal liquor store bonds;

(f) pay the costs of principal and interest on certificates of indebtedness, except tax anticipation or aid anticipation certificates of indebtedness, issued for any corporate purpose except current expenses or funding an insufficiency in receipts from taxes or other sources or funding extraordinary expenditures resulting from a public emergency;

(g) fund the payments made to the Minnesota state armory building commission pursuant to section 193.145, subdivision 2, to retire the principal and interest on armory construction bonds;

(h) provide for the bonded indebtedness portion of payments made to another political subdivision of the state of Minnesota;

(i) pay the amounts required to compensate for a decrease in mobile homes property tax receipts to the extent that the governmental subdivision's portion of the total levy in the current levy year, pursuant to section 273.13, subdivision 3, as amended, is less than the distribution of the mobile homes tax to the governmental subdivision pursuant to section 273.13, subdivision 3, in calendar year 1971;

(j) pay the amounts required, in accordance with section 275.075, to correct for a county auditor's error of omission in levy year 1971 or a subsequent levy year, but only to the extent that when added to the preceding year's levy it is not in excess of an applicable statutory, special law or charter limitation, or the limitation imposed on the governmental subdivision by sections 275.50 to 275.56 in the preceding levy year;

(k) pay amounts required to correct for an error of omission in the levy certified to the appropriate county auditor or auditors by the governing body of a city or town with statutory city powers in a levy year, but only to the extent that when added to the preceding year's levy it is not in excess of an applicable statutory, special law or charter limitation, or the limitation imposed on the governmental subdivision by sections 275.50 to 275.56 in the preceding levy year;

(l) pay the increased cost of municipal services as the result of an annexation or consolidation ordered by the Minnesota municipal board in levy year 1971 or a subsequent levy year, but only to the extent and for the levy years as provided by the board in its order pursuant to section 414.01, subdivision 15. Special levies authorized by the board shall not exceed 50 percent of the levy limit base of the governmental subdivision and may not be in effect for more than three years after the board's order;

(m) pay the increased costs of municipal services provided to new private industrial and nonresidential commercial development, to the extent that the extension of such services are not paid for through bonded indebtedness or special assessments, and not to exceed the amount determined as follows. The governmental subdivision may calculate the aggregate of:

(1) The increased expenditures necessary in preparation for the delivering of municipal services to new private industrial and nonresidential commercial development, but limited to one year's expenditures one time for each such development;

(2) The amount determined by dividing the overall levy limitation established pursuant to sections 275.50 to 275.56, and exclusive of special levies and special assessments, by the total taxable value of the governmental subdivision, and then multiplying this quotient times the total increase in assessed value of private industrial and nonresidential commercial development within the governmental subdivision. For the purpose of this clause, the increase in the assessed value of private industrial and nonresidential commercial development is calculated as the increase in assessed value over the assessed value of the real estate parcels subject to such private development as most recently determined before the building permit was issued. In the fourth levy year subsequent to the levy year in which the building permit was issued, the increase in assessed value of the real estate parcels subject to such private development shall no longer be included in determining the special levy.

The aggregate of the foregoing amounts, less any costs of extending municipal services to new private industrial and nonresidential commercial development which are paid by bonded indebtedness or special assessments, equals the maximum amount that may be levied as a "special levy" for the increased costs of municipal services provided to new private industrial and nonresidential commercial development. In the levy year following the levy year in which the special levy made pursuant to this clause is discontinued, one-half of the amount of that special levy made in the preceding year shall be added to the permanent levy base of the governmental subdivision;

(n) recover a loss or refunds in tax receipts incurred in non-special levy funds resulting from abatements or court action in the previous year pursuant to section 275.48;

(o) pay amounts required by law to be paid to pay the interest on and to reduce the unfunded accrued liability of public pension funds in accordance with the actuarial standards and guidelines specified in sections 356.215 and 326.216 reduced for levy year 1977 and subsequent years by 106 percent of the amount levied for that purpose in 1976, payable in 1977. For the purpose of this special levy, the estimated receipts expected from the state of Minnesota pursuant to sections 69.011 to 69.031 or any other state aid expressly intended for the support of public pension funds shall be considered as a deduction in determining the required levy for the normal costs of the public pension funds. No amount of these aids shall be considered as a deduction in determining the governmental subdivision's required levy for the reduction of the unfunded accrued liability of public pension funds;

(p) the amounts allowed under section 174.27 to establish and administer a commuter van program;

(q) pay the costs of financial assistance to local governmental units and certain administrative, engineering, and legal expenses pursuant to Laws 1979, Chapter 253, Section 3;

(r) compensate for revenue lost as a result of abatements or court action pursuant to sections 270.07, 270.17 or 278.01 due to a reassessment ordered by the commissioner of revenue pursuant to section 270.16.

Sec. 10. Minnesota Statutes 1981 Supplement, Section 275.51, Subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. Notwithstanding any provisions of law or municipal charter to the contrary which authorize ad valorem levies in excess of the limitations established by sections 275.50 to 275.56, but subject to section 275.56, the provisions of this section shall apply to the levies by governmental subdivisions for the taxes payable year (1982) 1983 and subsequent years for all purposes other than those for which special levies and special assessments are made. (ANY LAW OR SPECIAL ACT ENACTED IN 1981 WHICH AUTHORIZES A PROPERTY TAX LEVY IN EXCESS OF THE LIMITATION IMPOSED BY THIS SECTION IS EXEMPT FROM THE PROVISIONS OF THIS SECTION.)

Sec. 11. Minnesota Statutes 1981 Supplement, Section 275.51, Subdivision 3e, is amended to read:

Subd. 3e. The property tax levy limitation for any governmental subdivision for the taxes payable year (1982) 1983 and subsequent years shall be calculated as follows:

(a) (IF THE GOVERNMENTAL SUBDIVISION WAS SUBJECT TO THE PROVISIONS OF MINNESOTA STAT-UTES 1980, SECTIONS 275.50 TO 275.56, THE AMOUNTS LEVIED BY THE GOVERNMENTAL SUBDIVISION FOR THE TAXES PAYABLE YEAR 1981 PURSUANT TO MINNESOTA STATUTES 1980, SECTION 275.50, SUBDIVISION 5, CLAUSE (I) AND SUBDIVISION 6 ARE ADDED TO) The amount (ACTUALLY) levied by the governmental subdivision for the taxes payable in the previous year (1981) pursuant to the levy limitation calculated under Minnesota Statutes (1980), Section 275.51 is determined.

For taxes payable in 1983 and subsequent years, (i) any amount levied pursuant to any law or special act enacted in 1981 which authorized a property tax levy in excess of the limitation imposed by this section shall be added to the amount levied, and (ii) any amount levied for indebtedness which the governmental subdivision elected to levy for taxes payable in 1982 within its levy limitation in lieu of the special levy provisions pursuant to Minnesota Statutes 1981, Section 275.51, Subdivision 3e, Clause (g) shall be subtracted from the amount levied.

((B) IF THE GOVERNMENTAL SUBDIVISION WAS NOT SUBJECT TO THE PROVISIONS OF MINNESOTA STATUTES 1980, SECTIONS 275.50 TO 275.56, THE TOTAL AMOUNT ACTUALLY LEVIED BY THE GOVERNMENTAL SUBDIVISION FOR THE TAXES PAYABLE YEAR 1981 IS REDUCED BY THE AMOUNTS LEVIED FOR THESE PURPOSES DESCRIBED IN MINNESOTA STATUTES 1980, SECTION 275.50, SUBDIVISION 5, CLAUSES (E), (F), (G), AND (H).)

((C) THE TOTAL PROPERTY TAX LEVY OF A GOVERNMENTAL SUBDIVISION FOR THE TAXES PAYABLE YEAR 1981 DESCRIBED IN CLAUSE (B) SHALL BE THE AMOUNT CERTIFIED ON THE ABSTRACTS OF TAX LISTS SUBMITTED PURSUANT TO SECTION 275.29. FOR A GOVERNMENTAL SUBDIVISION WITHIN THE METROPOLITAN AREA DEFINED BY SECTION 473F.02, SUBDIVISION 2, THE PROPERTY TAX LEVY FOR PAYABLE 1981 INCLUDES THE TAX ON DISTRIBUTION VALUE FOR THE TAXES PAYABLE YEAR 1981 PURSUANT TO SECTION 473F.12.)

((D) (b) The amount determined in clause (a) (OR (B)) is divided by the total number of homesteads within the governmental subdivision reported on the (1980) abstracts of tax lists for the year prior to the year in which the taxes were levied and multiplied by the total number of homesteads within the governmental subdivision reported on the (1981) abstracts of tax lists for the year in which the taxes are levied, both of which are submitted pursuant to section 275.29. If the resulting figure is less than the amount determined in clause (a) (OR (B)), the resulting figure is increased to the amount calculated in clause (a) (OR (B)) and shall be used to make the calculation required by clause ((E)) (c). If the resulting figure is equal to or greater than the amount determined in clause (a) (OR (B)), the resulting figure shall be used to make the calculation required by clause ((E)) (c).

((E)) (c) The result of the calculation in clause ((D)) (b) is multiplied by 108 percent. The resulting figure is the maximum amount that the governmental subdivision may levy for the taxes payable year (1982) 1983 and subsequent years for all purposes except special levies and special assessments.

((F) TO THE EXTENT THE LEVY OF THE METROPOLITAN COUNCIL OR A REGIONAL DEVELOPMENT COMMISSION FOR TAXES PAYABLE IN 1981 WAS LESS THAN ITS LEVY LIMITATION FOR THAT YEAR, IT MAY APPLY TO THE COMMISSIONER TO HAVE ITS LEVY LIMITATION INCREASED BY THE AMOUNT BY WHICH THE 1981 LEVY LIMITATION EXCEEDED THE 1981 LEVY. THE ADJUSTMENT SHALL BE ADDED TO THE AMOUNT CALCULATED IN CLAUSE (A).)

((G) IF THE SUM OF A GOVERNMENTAL SUBDIVISION'S LEVIES FOR THE PRINCIPAL AND INTEREST ON BONDED INDEBTEDNESS OR CERTIFICATES OF INDEBTEDNESS PURSUANT TO SECTION 275.50, SUBDIVISION 5, CLAUSES (E), (F), (G) AND (H) FOR THE TAXES PAYABLE YEAR 1982 IS LESS THAN 108 PERCENT OF THE TOTAL AMOUNT THAT IT LEVIED FOR THOSE PURPOSES FOR THE TAXES PAYABLE YEAR 1981, THE GOVERNMENTAL SUBDIVISION MAY CHOOSE TO LEVY FOR THESE PURPOSES WITHIN ITS LEVY LIMITATION IN LIEU OF THE SPECIAL LEVY PROVISIONS OF SECTION 275.50, SUBDIVISION 5, CLAUSES (E), (F), (G) AND (H). IF THE GOVERNMENTAL SUBDIVISION CHOOSES TO LEVY FOR THESE PURPOSES WITHIN ITS LEVY LIMITATION, IT SHALL NOTIFY THE COMMISSIONER OF REVENUE OF ITS INTENT BY OCTOBER 1, 1981. THE AMOUNT LEVIED BY THE GOVERNMENTAL SUBDIVISION FOR THE TAXES PAYABLE YEAR 1981 FOR THE PURPOSES DESCRIBED IN SECTION 275.50, SUBDIVISION 5, CLAUSES (E), (F), (G) AND (H) WILL THEN BE ADDED TO THE AMOUNT CALCULATED IN CLAUSE (A) OR (B).)

Sec. 12. Minnesota Statutes 1981 Supplement, Section 477A.-03, Subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [LIMITATION ON APPROPRIATION; PROPORTIONATE REDUCTION.] The amount appropriated under subdivision 1 shall not exceed ($270,725,464) $240,725,464 for calendar year 1982 and shall not exceed ($293,561,978) $270,561,978 for calendar year 1983. If the limitations contained in this subdivision result in a reduction in the amounts de-terminated pursuant to sections 477A.012 and 477A.013, each governmental unit receiving local government aid shall have its distribution proportionally reduced, but no local government unit shall receive less aid than its previous year aid.

Sec. 13. [PRORATION OF 1982 AID PAYMENTS.]

Notwithstanding the provisions of Minnesota Statutes, Chapter 477A or any other law to the contrary, the reduction in state aids payable to local governments required under section 12 shall be effected by providing a pro rata reduction of the aids that would have been paid to each county and municipality under the provisions of Minnesota Statutes 1981 Supplement, Sections 477A.011 to 477A.014 if there had been no such reduction.

Sec. 14. [PROPERTY TAX REFUND REDUCTION.]

For claims filed in 1982 based upon rent paid in 1981, the commissioner of revenue shall pay 92 percent of the credits allowable under section 290A.04, subdivisions 1, 2, and 2a. For purposes of this section, the commissioner shall not reduce the property tax refund of a claimant who is disabled or who had attained the age of 65 by June 1 of the year in which the property taxes were payable. The commissioner shall include with each refund a statement that the reduction is made pursuant to this section.

Sec. 15. Laws 1981, First Special Session, Chapter 1, Article III, Section 3, Subdivision 6, is amended to read:

Subd. 6. [HOMESTEAD CREDIT.] The appropriation from the general fund to the commissioner of revenue for the purpose of making the payments provided in Minnesota Statutes, Section 273.13, Subdivisions 6, 7, and 14a shall be limited as follows: in fiscal year 1982, the appropriation shall not exceed $436,800,000; and in fiscal year 1983, the appropriation shall not exceed ($469,600,000) $481,600,000. In the event that the sum of the county auditors' certifications exceeds (THE APPROPRIATION) $483,600,000, the certification amounts shall be proportionally reduced so that their sum equals (THE APPROPRIATION) $483,600,000. In any event, the sum of $2,000,000 shall be subtracted from the amounts otherwise due to be paid from the appropriation for fiscal year 1983 to Hennepin, Ramsey, and St. Louis counties, allocated as follows: Hennepin county $1,160,900, Ramsey county $565,200, St. Louis county $273,900. The reductions shall be applied one-sixth to each monthly payment July to December, 1982. The named counties shall apply at least one-half of this aid reduction to reduce county administrative costs rather than to reduce services provided directly to the public.

Minnesota Statutes 1981 Supplement, Section 275.515, is repealed.

Sec. 17. [EFFECTIVE DATE.]

Sections 9 to 11 are effective for property taxes levied in 1982 and thereafter, payable in 1983 and thereafter. Section 14 is effective the day following final enactment.

16A.63 [MINNESOTA STATE BUILDING FUND.]

Subdivision 1. [CREATION; USE.] For the purpose of providing money to state agencies for the acquisition and betterment of public lands and other public improvements of a capital nature, the Minnesota state building fund is created as a separate bookkeeping account in the general books of account of the state. Proceeds of state bonds credited to this fund are appropriated for construction and other permanent improvement and shall be available until the purposes for which the appropriation was made have been accomplished or abandoned. None of such moneys shall be canceled. When the purpose of any such appropriation has been accomplished or abandoned, the authority to whom the appropriation was made shall so certify to the commissioner of finance. Thereupon the unexpended balance of such appropriation, unless transferred under authority of the appropriation act to another purpose therein designated, shall be transferred and credited to the state bond fund. Amounts so transferred and credited are appropriated for the purpose of reducing the amount of tax otherwise required to be levied for the state bond fund by Article XI, Section 7 of the Constitution.

Subd. 2. [TEMPORARY FINANCING.] In anticipation of the receipt of proceeds of state bonds to be credited to the Minnesota state building fund, the commissioner of finance may transfer amounts not in excess of the anticipated proceeds from the general fund to the Minnesota state building fund. Upon receipt of the state bond proceeds in anticipation of which a general fund transfer has been made, the commissioner of finance shall transfer from the Minnesota state building fund to the general fund an amount equal to the sum originally transferred from the general fund. There is annually appropriated to the commissioner of finance from the general fund and the Minnesota state building fund sums sufficient to effect the transfers authorized by this subdivision.

Before certificates of indebtedness are sold and issued pursuant to any authorization, except for the purpose of refunding, the governor shall secure the recommendation of the legislative advisory commission as to the necessity thereof, the terms and conditions of the sale and issuance, and the maximum amount to be issued and outstanding under the authorization. When certificates of indebtedness are to be sold and issued pursuant to subdivision 5, clause (b) or (c), the governor shall secure a recommendation before the line of credit is established or the underwriting or placement agreement is entered into, but need not secure an additional recommendation for each issuance of certificates of indebtedness pursuant to that line of credit or agreement. The recommendation of the commission shall be advisory only. The failure of the commission to make a recommendation promptly is a negative recommendation. (b) (AN AMOUNT WHICH, WITH THE PRINCIPAL AMOUNT OF ANY OUTSTANDING CERTIFICATES EQUALS $360,000,000, OR)

((C)) The maximum current cash flow requirement.

(b) The commissioner may negotiate with a suitable bank or banks within or outside the state for a line of credit whereby, for an agreed compensation, certificates of indebtedness may be issued from time to time within an agreed period, at a fixed or variable interest rate and subject to redemption at par plus accrued interest at any time at the option of the commissioner; or

(c) The commissioner may negotiate with a firm or firms of underwriters for the purchase of certificates of indebtedness or to act as an agent in the placement of certificates of indebtedness (MATURING ON A DATE FOUR MONTHS OR LESS FROM THE DATE OF ISSUE), which may be sold to investors at a specified discount representing the interest included in the face amount payable at maturity, or at a stated interest rate on a stated principal amount, payable at maturity. For the further security of the certificates of indebtedness the commissioner may negotiate a credit agreement pursuant to paragraph (b), providing for the payment thereof with interest at maturity, if necessary, by the issuance of new certificates of indebtedness to the bank or banks extending the credit.

Overpayments to a current assistance unit shall be recovered either through repayment by the individual in part or in full or by reducing the amount of aid payable to the assistance unit of which the individual is a member. For any month in which an overpayment must be recovered, recoupment may be made by reducing the grant but only if the reduced assistance payment, together with the assistance unit's liquid assets and total income after deducting actual work expenses equals at least 95 percent of the standard of need for the assistance unit, except that if the overpayment is due solely to agency error, this total after deducting actual work expenses shall equal at least 99 percent of the standard of need. In cases when there is both an overpayment and underpayment the local agency shall offset one against the other in correcting the payment. The recipient may appeal the agency's determination that an overpayment has occurred in accordance with section 256.045. The county agency shall promptly repay the recipient for any underpayment and shall disregard that payment when determining the assistance unit's income and resources in the month when the payment is made and the following month.*

If, after planning with a recipient, a decision is made that (HE) the recipient must register for employment services, training, and employment, the county welfare department shall give notice in writing to the (INDIVIDUAL) recipient stating that he or she must register with the commissioner of economic security for participation in a work incentive program and that (HE) the recipient has a right to a fair hearing under section 256.045 with respect to the appropriateness of (HIS) the registration.

Sec. 10. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 256.736, Subdivision 4, is amended to read:

Subd. 4. [CONDITIONS OF CERTIFICATION.] The commissioner of public welfare shall:

(1) Arrange for or provide any relative or child certified to the commissioner of economic security pursuant to this section with child-care services and other necessary family services;

(2) Pay ten percent of the cost of programs of training and employment established by the commissioner of economic security for persons certified hereunder;

(3) Provide that in determining a recipient's needs any monthly incentive training payment made to the recipient by the department of economic security is disregarded and the additional expenses attributable to his participation in a program are taken into account in grant determination; and

(4) Provide that when it has been certified by the commissioner of economic security, certification to be binding upon the commissioner of public welfare, that a relative or child certified under the work incentive program to the commissioner of economic security has been found by the commissioner, after a hearing conducted in the manner prescribed by section 268.10, subdivision 3, with the right of review in accordance with the provisions of section 268.10, subdivision 8, to have refused without good cause to participate under a work incentive program or to have refused without good cause to accept a bona fide offer of public or other employment, the county welfare departments shall provide that:

(a) If the relative makes the refusal, the relative's needs shall not be taken into account in making the grant determination, and aid for any dependent child in the family will be made in the form of vendor payments.

(b) Aid with respect to a dependent child will be denied if a child who makes the refusal is the only child receiving aid in the family.

(c) If there is more than one child receiving aid in the family, aid for the child who makes the refusal will be denied and his needs will not be taken into account in making the grant determination (; AND)

((D) NOTWITHSTANDING THE OTHER PROVISIONS OF THIS SUBDIVISION, THE COUNTY WELFARE DEPARTMENT SHALL, FOR A PERIOD OF 60 DAYS AFTER NOTIFICATION OF THE COMMISSIONER OF ECONOMIC SECURITY DETERMINATION OF REFUSAL WITHOUT CAUSE TO PARTICIPATE IN A PROGRAM OF TRAINING OR EMPLOYMENT, MAKE VENDOR PAYMENTS ON BEHALF OF THE RELATIVE SPECIFIED OR CONTINUE AID IN THE CASE OF A CHILD SPECIFIED, IF DURING THE 60 DAY PERIOD THE CHILD OR RELATIVE ACCEPTS COUNSELING OR OTHER SERVICES WHICH THE COUNTY WELFARE DEPARTMENT SHALL MAKE AVAILABLE FOR THE PURPOSE OF ASSISTING THE CHILD OR RELATIVE TO PARTICIPATE IN A PROGRAM IN ACCORDANCE WITH THE DETERMINATION OF THE COMMISSIONER OF ECONOMIC SECURITY). If the assistance unit's eligibility is based on the principal earner's unemployment and the principal earner fails or refuses without good cause to participate or to accept employment, the entire assistance unit is ineligible for benefits under sections 256.72 to 256.87.

Sec. 11. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 256.74, Subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [AMOUNT.] The amount of assistance which shall be granted to or on behalf of any dependent child and mother or other needy eligible relative caring for (SUCH) the dependent child shall be determined by the county agency (WITH DUE REGARD TO THE RESOURCES AND NECESSARY EXPENDITURES OF THE FAMILY AND THE CONDITIONS EXISTING IN EACH CASE AND) in accordance with (THE) rules (AND REGULATIONS MADE) promulgated by the (STATE AGENCY) commissioner and shall be sufficient, when added to all other income and support available to the child, to provide (SUCH) the child with a reasonable subsistence compatible with decency and health. The amount shall be based on the method of budgeting required in Public Law No. 97-35, Section 2315, 42 U.S.C. 602, as amended and federal regulations at 45 C.F.R. Section 233. In making its determination the county agency shall (EXCLUDE) disregard the following from family income:

(1) All of the earned income of each dependent child receiving aid to families with dependent children who is a full-time student or part-time student, and not a full-time employee, attending a school, college, or university, or a course of vocational or technical training designed to fit him for gainful employment;

(2) All educational grants and loans awarded pursuant to a federal law when public assistance was considered in making the award and the award was made on the basis of financial need; and that part of any other educational grant or loan which is used for educational purposes, such as tuition, fees, equipment, transportation and child care expenses necessary for school attendance; (AND)

(3) The first $75 of each individual's earned income. In the case of an individual not engaged in full-time employment or not employed throughout the month the commissioner shall prescribe by rule a lesser amount to be disregarded. For self-employed persons, the expenses directly related to producing goods and services and without which the goods and services could not be produced shall be disregarded pursuant to rules promulgated by the commissioner;

(4) An amount equal to the actual expenditures but not to exceed $160 for the care of each dependent child or incapacitated individual living in the same home and receiving aid. In the case of a person not engaged in full-time employment or not employed throughout the month, the commissioner shall prescribe by rule a lesser amount to be disregarded; and

(5) (THE FIRST $30) Thirty dollars plus one-third of the remainder of (THE COMBINED MONTHLY EARNINGS OF ANY DEPENDENT CHILD NOT INCLUDED UNDER CLAUSE (1), AND ANY ADULT WHO IS A RECIPIENT OF AID FOR FAMILIES WITH DEPENDENT CHILDREN) each individual's earned income not already disregarded for individuals found otherwise eligible to receive aid or who have received aid in one of the four months before the month of application. With respect to any month, the county welfare agency shall not disregard under this clause ((2)) any earned income of any person who has:

(a) Reduced his earned income without good cause within 30 days preceding any month in which an assistance payment is made; or

(b) Refused without good cause to accept an offer of suitable employment; or

(c) Left employment or reduced his earnings without good cause and applied for assistance so that he might later return to employment with the advantage of the income disregarded; or

(d) Failed without good cause to make a timely report of earned income in accordance with rules promulgated by the commissioner of public welfare.

Persons who are already employed and who apply for assistance shall have their needs computed with full account taken of their earned and other income. If earned and other income of the family is less than need, as determined on the basis of public assistance standards, the county agency shall determine the amount of the grant by applying the disregard of income provisions. The county agency shall not disregard earned income for persons in a family if the total monthly earned and other income exceeds their needs, unless for any one of the four preceding months their needs were met in whole or in part by a grant payment. (IF AN INDIVIDUAL WITHOUT GOOD CAUSE LEAVES EMPLOYMENT OR REDUCES HIS EARNINGS AND APPLIES FOR ASSISTANCE SO THAT HE MIGHT LATER RETURN TO EMPLOYMENT WITH ADVANTAGES OF INCOME DISREGARD, HE SHALL NOT HAVE THE BENEFIT OF THE DISREGARD OF INCOME PROVISIONS.)

The disregard of $30 and one-third of the remainder of earned income described in clause (5) shall be applied to the individual's income for a period not to exceed four consecutive months. Any month in which the individual loses this disregard because of the provisions of clause (5)(a) to (5)(d) shall be considered as one of the four months. To again qualify for this earned income disregard, the individual must not be a recipient of aid for a period of 12 consecutive months. If an individual becomes ineligible for aid because this earned income disregard has been applied to income for four consecutive months and will no longer be applied to income, the local agency shall inform the individual of the medical assistance program, its standards of eligibility, and the circumstances under which the individual would be eligible for medical assistance.

Sec. 12. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 256.74, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 1a. [STEPARENT'S INCOME.] In determining income available, the county agency shall take into account the remaining income of the dependent child's stepparent who lives in the same household after disregarding:

(1) The first $75 of the stepparent's gross earned income. The commissioner shall prescribe by rule lesser amounts to be disregarded for stepparents who are not engaged in full-time employment or not employed throughout the month;

(2) An amount for support of the stepparent and any other individuals whom the stepparent claims as dependents for tax purposes and who live in the same household but whose needs are not considered in determining eligibility for assistance under sections 256.72 to 256.87. The amount equals the standard of need for a family of the same composition as the stepparent and these other individuals;

(3) Amounts the stepparent actually paid to individuals not living in the same household but whom the stepparent claims as dependents for tax purposes; and

(4) Alimony or child support, or both, paid by the step-parent for individuals not living in the same household.

Sec. 13. [256.851] [RULES.]

The commissioner of public welfare shall promulgate temporary and permanent rules necessary to implement sections 1 to 19.

Sec. 14. Minnesota Statutes 1981 Supplement, Section 256.872, Subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [WITHHOLDING ORDER.] Whenever an obligation for support of a dependent child or maintenance of a spouse, or both, has been determined and ordered by a court of this state, the public agency responsible for child support enforcement may move and the district or county court shall grant an order providing for the withholding of the amount of child support or maintenance as determined by court order, from the income, regardless of source of the person obligated to pay the support or maintenance. If the public agency responsible for child support enforcement determines that the obligor's arrearages have accumulated for more than one month, and if the agency is not pursuing another appropriate remedy, the agency shall move the district or county court for an order for withholding under this section or shall document a reason or reasons why withholding would not result in payment being made. "Income" means any form of periodic payments to an individual, including, but not limited to, wages, salary, income as an independent contractor, workers' compensation, unemployment compensation, annuity, military and naval retirement, pension and disability payments.

Sec. 15. Minnesota Statutes 1981 Supplement, Section 256.872, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 4. [REPORT.] The commissioner shall report to the appropriate legislative committees by January 15, 1983, on the extent to which the local public agencies responsible for child support enforcement comply with this section and with sections 518.54 to 518.66.

256.99 [REVERSE MORTGAGE PROCEEDS DISREGARDED.]

All reverse mortgage loan proceeds received pursuant to section 47.58, including interest or earnings thereon, shall be disregarded and shall not be considered available to the borrower for purposes of determining initial or continuing eligibility for, or amount of, medical assistance (OR ANY OTHER PUBLIC ASSISTANCE PROGRAM), Minnesota supplemental assistance, general assistance, general assistance medical care, or a federal or state low interest loan or grant. This section applies regardless of the time elapsed since the loan was made or the disposition of the proceeds.

Sec. 17. Minnesota Statutes 1981 Supplement, Section 256B.06, Subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. Medical assistance may be paid for any person:

(1) Who is eligible for or receiving public assistance, or a woman who is pregnant, as medically verified, and who would be eligible for assistance under the aid to families with dependent children program if the child had been born and living with the woman; or

(2) Who is eligible for or receiving supplemental security income for the aged, blind and disabled; or

(3) Who except for the amount of income or resources would qualify for supplemental security income for the aged, blind and disabled, or aid to families with dependent children and is in need of medical assistance; or

(4) Who is under 21 years of age and in need of medical care that neither he nor his relatives responsible under sections 256B.01 to 256B.26 are financially able to provide; or

(5) Who is residing in a hospital for treatment of mental disease or tuberculosis and is 65 years of age or older and without means sufficient to pay the per capita hospital charge; and

(6) Who resides in Minnesota, or, if absent from the state, is deemed to be a resident of Minnesota in accordance with the regulations of the state agency; and

(7) Who alone, or together with his spouse, does not own real property other than the homestead. For the purposes of this section, "homestead" means the house owned and occupied by the applicant as his dwelling place, together with the land upon which it is situated and an area no greater than two contiguous lots in a platted or laid out city or town or (THE SMALLEST PARCEL ALLOWED UNDER APPLICABLE ZONING REGULATIONS) 80 contiguous acres in unplatted land. Occupancy or exemption shall be determined as provided in chapter 510 and applicable law, including continuing exemption by filing notice under section 510.07. Real estate not used as a home may not be retained unless it produces net income applicable to the family's needs or the family is making a continuing effort to sell it at a fair and reasonable price or unless sale of the real estate would net an insignificant amount of income applicable to the family's needs, or unless the commissioner determines that sale of the real estate would cause undue hardship; and

(8) Who individually does not own more than $2,000 in cash or liquid assets, or if a member of a household with two family members (husband and wife, or parent and child), does not own more than $4,000 in cash or liquid assets, plus $200 for each additional legal dependent. When only one spouse resides, or will reside after applying for medical assistance, in a nursing home, or is receiving or will receive alternative care under the alternative care grants program in a county with preadmission screening under section 256B.091, the cash or liquid asset amount for two family members is $10,000. The value of the following shall not be included:

(a) the homestead, and (b) one motor vehicle licensed pursuant to chapter 168 and defined as: (1) passenger automobile, (2) station wagon, (3) motorcycle, (4) motorized bicycle or (5) truck of the weight found in categories A to E, of section 168.013, subdivision 1e; and

(9) Who has or anticipates receiving an annual income not in excess of $2,600 for a single person, or $3,250 for two family members (husband and wife, parent and child, or two siblings), plus $625 for each additional legal dependent, or who has income in excess of these maxima and in the month of application, or during the three months prior to the month of application, incurs expenses for medical care that total more than one-half of the annual excess income in accordance with the regulations of the state agency. In computing income to determine eligibility of persons who are not residents of long term care facilities, the commissioner shall disregard increases in income of social security or supplementary security income recipients due solely to increases required by sections 215(i) and 1617 of the social security act, and shall disregard income of disabled persons that is also disregarded in determining eligibility for supplemental aid under section 256D.37, subdivision 1, unless prohibited by federal law or regulation. If prohibited, the commissioner shall first seek a waiver. In excess income cases, eligibility shall be limited to a period of six months beginning with the first of the month in which these medical obligations are first incurred; and

(10) Who has continuing monthly expenses for medical care that are more than the amount of his excess income, computed on a monthly basis, in which case eligibility may be established before the total income obligation referred to in the preceding paragraph is incurred, and medical assistance payments may be made to cover the monthly unmet medical need. In licensed nursing home and state hospital cases, income over and above that required for justified needs, determined pursuant to a schedule of contributions established by the commissioner of public welfare, is to be applied to the cost of institutional care. The commissioner of public welfare may establish a schedule of contributions to be made by the spouse of a nursing home resident to the cost of care and shall seek a waiver from federal regulations which establish the amount required to be contributed by either spouse when one spouse is a nursing home resident; and

(11) Who has applied or agrees to apply all proceeds received or receivable by him or his spouse from automobile accident coverage and private health care coverage to the costs of medical care for himself, his spouse, and children. The state agency may require from any applicant or recipient of medical assistance the assignment of any rights accruing under private health care coverage. Any rights or amounts so assigned shall be applied against the cost of medical care paid for under this chapter. Any assignment shall not be effective as to benefits paid or provided under automobile accident coverage and private health care coverage prior to receipt of the assignment by the person or organization providing the benefits.

Sec. 18. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 256B.07, is amended to read:

256B.07 [EXCEPTIONS IN DETERMINING RESOURCES.]

A local agency may, within the scope of regulations set by the commissioner of public welfare, waive the requirement of liquidation of excess assets when the liquidation would cause undue hardship. Household goods and furniture in use in the home, wearing apparel, insurance policies with cash surrender value not in excess of $1,500 per insured person, personal property used as a regular abode by the applicant or recipient, a prepaid funeral contract not in excess of $750 per person plus accrued interest of not more than $200, and a lot in a burial plot shall not be considered as resources available to meet medical needs.

Sec. 19. Minnesota Statutes 1981 Supplement, Section 518.-551, Subdivision 7, is amended to read:

Subd. 7. [SERVICE FEE.] When the public agency responsible for child support enforcement provides child support collection services either to a public assistance recipient or to a party who does not receive public assistance, the public agency may upon written notice to the obligor charge a monthly collection fee equivalent to the full monthly cost to the county of providing collection services, in addition to the amount of the child support which was ordered by the court. The fee shall be deposited in the county general fund. The service fee assessed is limited to ten percent of the monthly court ordered child support and shall not be assessed to obligors who are current in payment of the monthly court ordered child support. No fee shall be imposed on the party who requests child support collection services.

However, the limitations of this subdivision on the assessment of fees shall not apply to the extent inconsistent with the requirements of federal law for receiving funds for the programs under Title IV-A and Title IV-D of the Social Security Act, 42 U.S.C. 601 to 613 and 42 U.S.C. 651 to 662.

Sec. 20. [REPEALER.]

Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 256.935, Subdivision 2; and Minnesota Statutes 1981 Supplement, Section 257.021, are repealed.

Sec. 21. [EFFECTIVE DATE.]

Sections 1 to 20 are effective February 1, 1982."

Amend the title as follows :

REPORTS OF STANDING COMMITTEES

Nelson from the Committee on Energy to which was referred:

H. F. No. 1208, A bill for an act relating to energy; providing for the lease of potential hydropower sites by the state or political subdivisions; amending Minnesota Statutes 1980, Sections 272.02, Subdivision 1, and by adding a subdivision; 273.19, by adding a subdivision; and proposing new law coded in Minnesota Statutes, Chapter 116H.

Reported the same back with the following amendments:

Delete everything after the enacting clause and insert:

"Section 1. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 105.482, Subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [PURPOSE.] The public health, safety, and welfare is promoted by the orderly repair and restoration of dams serving the public interest and by the use of existing dams and potential dam sites for hydroelectric or hydromechanical power generation wherever that use is economically justified and environmentally sound. In furtherance of this objective, it is the purpose of this section to facilitate the repair and restoration of dams owned by the state and local governmental units and to investigate and analyze hydroelectric or hydromechanical generating capability of publicly owned dams and potential dam sites.

Sec. 2. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 105.482, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 8. [HYDROPOWER GENERATION POLICY; LEASING OF DAMS AND DAM SITES.] Consistent with laws relating to dam construction, reconstruction, repair, and maintenance, the legislature finds that the public health, safety, and welfare of the state is also promoted by the use of state waters to produce hydroelectric or hydromechanical power. Further, the legislature finds that the leasing of existing dams and potential dam sites primarily for such power generation is a valid public purpose. A local governmental unit, or the commissioner of natural resources with the approval of the state executive council, may lease dams, dam sites, and hydro-electric or hydromechanical power generation plants owned by the respective government to an individual, a corporation, an organization, or other legal entity upon such terms and conditions as the local governmental unit or the commissioner may negotiate for a period not to exceed 50 years.

Sec. 3. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 105.482, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 9. [CONTENTS OF LEASE.] A lease for the development or redevelopment of a hydropower site may contain, but need not be limited to, the following provisions:

(a) Length of the lease, subject to negotiations between the parties but generally not more than 50 years, and conditions for extension, modification, or termination;

(b) Provisions for a performance bond on the developer, or, certification that the equipment and its installation have a design life at least as long as the lease;

(c) Provisions to assure adequate maintenance and safety in the impoundment structures, if any;

(d) Provisions for quarterly or annual payment by the developer, as negotiated by the parties, including the option of in-kind payment through the provision of electricity to the leasing entity.

Sec. 4. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 272.02, Subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. Except as provided in other subdivisions of this section or in section 272.025 or section 273.13, subdivisions 17, 17b, 17c or 17d, all property described in this section to the extent herein limited shall be exempt from taxation:

- (3) All public hospitals;
- (4) All academies, colleges, and universities, and all seminaries of learning;

(9) (a) Class 2 property of every household of the value of $100, maintained in the principal place of residence of the owner thereof. The county auditor shall deduct such exemption from the total valuation of such property as equalized by the revenue commissioner assessed to such household, and extend the levy of taxes upon the remainder only. The term "household" as used in this section is defined to be a domestic establishment maintained either (1) by two or more persons living together within the same house or place of abode, subsisting in common and constituting a domestic or family relationship, or (2) by one person.

(b) During the period of his active service and for six months after his discharge therefrom, no member of the armed forces of the United States shall lose status of a householder under paragraph (a) which he had immediately prior to becoming a member of the armed forces.

In case there is an assessment against more than one member of a household the $100 exemption shall be divided among the members assessed in the proportion that the assessed value of the Class 2 property of each bears to the total assessed value of the Class 2 property of all the members assessed. The Class 2 property of each household claimed to be exempt shall be limited to property in one taxing district, except in those cases where a single domestic establishment is maintained in two or more adjoining districts.

Bonds and certificates of indebtedness hereafter issued by the state of Minnesota, or by any county or city of the state, or any town, or any common or independent school district of the state, or any governmental board of the state, or any county or city thereof, shall hereafter be exempt from taxation; provided, that nothing herein contained shall be construed as exempting such bonds from the payment of a tax thereon, as provided for by section 291.01, when any of such bonds constitute, in whole or in part, any inheritance or bequest, taken or received by any person or corporation.

(10) Farm machinery manufactured prior to 1930, which is used only for display purposes as a collectors item;

Any taxpayer requesting exemption of all or a portion of any equipment or device, or part thereof, operated primarily for the control or abatement of air or water pollution shall file an application with the commissioner of revenue. Any such equipment or device shall meet standards, regulations or criteria prescribed by the Minnesota Pollution Control Agency, and must be installed or operated in accordance with a permit or order issued by that agency. The Minnesota Pollution Control Agency shall upon request of the commissioner furnish information or advice to the commissioner. If the commissioner determines that property qualifies for exemption, he shall issue an order exempting such property from taxation. Any such equipment or device shall continue to be exempt from taxation as long as the permit issued by the Minnesota Pollution Control Agency remains in effect.

animals, poultry, fruit, vegetables, forage and grains, except wild rice. "Wetlands" shall include adjacent land which is not suitable for agricultural purposes due to the presence of the wetlands. Exemption of wetlands from taxation pursuant to this section shall not grant the public any additional or greater right of access to the wetlands or diminish any right of ownership to the wetlands.

(17) Native prairie. The commissioner of the department of natural resources shall determine lands in the state which are native prairie and shall notify the county assessor of each county in which the lands are located. Upon receipt of an application for the exemption and credit provided in this clause and section 273.116 for lands for which the assessor has no determination from the commissioner of natural resources, the assessor shall refer the application to the commissioner of natural resources who shall determine within 30 days whether the land is native prairie and notify the county assessor of his decision. Exemption of native prairie pursuant to this clause shall not grant the public any additional or greater right of access to the native prairie or diminish any right of ownership to it.

Each use of a restraint and reason therefor shall be made part of the clinical record of the patient under the signature of the head of the treatment facility.

Subd. 2. [CORRESPONDENCE.] Any patient may correspond by sealed mail or otherwise, freely without censorship. Any limitation imposed by the head of the treatment facility on the exercise of a patient's correspondence rights and the reason for such limitation shall be made a part of the clinical record of the patient.

Subd. 3. [VISITORS AND PHONE CALLS.] Subject to the general rules of the treatment facility and subject to the determination by the head of the treatment facility that it is necessary for the medical welfare of the patient to impose restrictions, every patient shall be entitled to receive visitors and make phone calls except that the head of the treatment facility may impose restrictions on the visits and phone calls only if he finds restrictions are necessary for the medical welfare of the patient. phone call rights and the reason for the limitation shall be made a part of the clinical record of the patient. The patient's personal physician, spiritual advisor and attorney shall be permitted to visit or call the patient at all reasonable times, and the patient shall not be denied the right to continue the practice of his religion in accordance with its tenets during his confinement.

(b) The consent of an adult patient for such procedure shall be obtained and shall be sufficient, unless the patient has been adjudicated legally incompetent or unless the head of the treatment facility determines that the patient is not competent to give a knowing and informed consent.

(c) If the patient is subject to guardianship or conservatorship and the authority of the guardian or conservator includes the provision of medical care, the consent of the guardian or conservator for such procedure shall be obtained and is sufficient.

(d) If the head of the treatment facility determines that the patient is not competent to consent to the procedure and the patient has not been adjudicated incompetent, the determination, with reasons for the determination, shall be documented in the patient's chart. In such a case, consent for the surgery shall be obtained from the nearest proper relative. For this purpose, the following persons are considered proper relatives, in the order listed: the patient's spouse, parent, adult child, or sibling. If the nearest proper relatives cannot be located or refuse to consent to the procedure, the head of the treatment facility or another interested person may petition the committing court for approval for the surgical procedure or may petition an appropriate court for the appointment of a guardian or conservator. In the case of an emergency, when the nearest relatives cannot be located, the head of the treatment facility may give consent.

(e) Consent for a medical procedure upon a minor shall be governed by other provisions of law relating to the provision of medical services to minors. In the case of an emergency and when the persons ordinarily qualified to give consent cannot be located, the head of the treatment facility may give consent.

(f) No person who consents to the performance of a surgical operation pursuant to the provisions of this subdivision shall be civilly or criminally liable for the performance or the manner of performing the operation. No person who acts within the scope of the authority conferred by the consent in the course of discharging his official duties shall be civilly or criminally liable for the performance of the operation, but this provision shall not affect any liability which he may incur as a consequence of the manner in which the operation is performed.

Subd. 6. [PROGRAM PLAN.] Every person committed or otherwise receiving services under sections 1 to 27 shall be entitled to receive proper care and treatment, best adapted, according to contemporary professional standards, to rendering further custody, institutionalization, or other services unnecessary. To this end the head of the treatment facility shall devise or cause to be devised for each person a written program plan which shall describe in behavioral terms the case problems, and the precise goals, including the expected period of time for treatment, and the specific measures to be employed. Each plan shall be reviewed at not less than quarterly intervals to determine progress toward the goals, and to modify the program plan as necessary. The program plan shall be devised and reviewed in each instance with the designated agency and with the patient. The facility medical record shall attest to the program plan review. If the designated agency or the patient does not so participate in the planning and review, the facility medical record shall include reasons for non-participation and the plans for future involvement.

For regional centers, the department of public welfare shall monitor the aforementioned program plan and review process to insure compliance with the provisions of this subdivision.

[MEDICAL RECORDS.] Every person admitted under sections 1 to 27 and every person with respect to whom a petition for commitment has been filed under this chapter, shall, notwithstanding the provisions of Minnesota Statutes, Section 144.335, Subdivision 2, have complete access to all medical records relevant to commitment proceedings.

Sec. 4. [253A.50] [INFORMAL ADMISSION PROCEDURES FOR MENTALLY ILL, MENTALLY RETARDED, AND CHEMICALLY DEPENDENT PERSONS.]

Subdivision 1. [MENTAL ILLNESS; RETARDATION.] Informal admission by consent is preferred over involuntary commitment. Any person, if he so requests and the head of the treatment facility consents, may be admitted to a treatment facility as an informal patient for observation, evaluation, diagnosis, care and treatment for mental illness or mental retardation, without making formal written application. Consent for such admission shall not be arbitrarily withheld. Each patient admitted under this section shall be informed in writing at the time of his admission that he has a right to leave the facility within 12 hours of his request, unless held under another provision of sections 1 to 27.

Subd. 2. [CHEMICAL DEPENDENCY.] Any person desiring to receive care and treatment at a treatment facility as a chemcially dependent person may be admitted to the treatment facility upon his application. If the person requests to leave the treatment facility, the request shall be submitted in writing to the head of the treatment facility. If the person in writing demands his release, the head of the treatment facility may detain the person for three days, exclusive of Saturdays, Sundays and legal holidays, after the date of the demand for release. If the head of the treatment facility deems the release not to be for the best interest of the person, his family, or the public, he shall petition for the commitment of the person as provided in section 7.

Subd. 3. [AGE OF CONSENT.] Any person 16 years of age or older shall be of sufficient age to apply for and consent to informal admission under this section, and such a person may not be informally admitted under this section without his consent.

Sec. 5. [253A.51] [EMERGENCY HOSPITALIZATION OF MENTALLY ILL, MENTALLY RETARDED AND CHEMICALLY DEPENDENT.]

Subdivision 1. [EMERGENCY HOLD; STATEMENT.] Any person may be admitted or held for emergency care and treatment in a treatment facility with the consent of the head of the treatment facility upon a written statement by an examiner that he has examined the person not more than 15 days prior to the person's admission, that he is of the opinion, for stated reasons, that the person is mentally ill, mentally retarded or chemically dependent, and is in imminent danger of causing injury to himself or others if not immediately restrained, and that an order of the court cannot be obtained in time to prevent such anticipated injury.

The statement shall be sufficient authority for a peace or health officer to transport a patient to a treatment facility. The examiner's reasons for the emergency hold shall be stated in behavioral terms and not in conclusory language. The stated reasons must be of sufficient specificity to provide an adequate record for review. A copy of the statement shall be personally served on the patient immediately upon hospitalization and inception of the 72 hour hold period. A copy of the statement shall be maintained by the treatment facility holding the patient.

Subd. 2. [PEACE OR HEALTH OFFICER HOLD.] (a) A peace or health officer may take a person into custody and transport him to a licensed physician or treatment facility if the officer has reason to believe that the person is mentally ill, mentally retarded or chemically dependent and in imminent danger of injuring himself or others if not immediately restrained. Application for admission of the person to a treatment facility shall be made by the peace or health officer and the application shall contain a statement given by the peace or health officer stating the circumstances under which the person was taken into custody and the reasons therefor. A copy of the statement shall be made available to the person taken into custody. The person may be admitted to a treatment facility for emergency care and treatment pursuant to this subdivision with the consent of the head of the facility if a written statement is made by the medical officer on duty at the facility that after preliminary examination the person has symptoms of mental illness, mental retardation or chemical dependency and appears to be in imminent danger of harming himself or others.

(b) A peace or health officer or a person working under the officer's supervision, may take a person who is intoxicated in public into custody and transport him to a licensed hospital, mental health center facility or a person on the staff of a state licensed or approved program equipped to treat drug dependent persons. Provided, if the person is not endangering himself or any other person or property the peace or health officer may transport the person to his home.

Application for admission of an intoxicated person to a hospital, mental health center or other state licensed or approved program equipped to treat chemically dependent persons shall be made by the peace or health officer, or a person working under the officer's supervision taking the person into custody, and the application shall contain a statement given by the peace or health officer stating the circumstances under which the person was taken into custody and the reasons therefor. The person may be admitted to a program or facility specified in this provision for emergency care and treatment with the consent of the institution program director or head of the facility.

Subd. 3. [DURATION OF HOLD.] Any person held pursuant to this section may be held up to 72 hours after admission, exclusive of Saturdays, Sundays, and legal holidays, unless a petition for the commitment of the person has been filed in the probate court of the county of residence or of the county wherein the facility is located and the court issues an order pursuant to section 7, subdivision 6. If the head of the facility believes that commitment is required and no other petition has been filed, he shall file a petition for the commitment of the person. Upon motion of the hospitalized person the venue of the petition shall be changed to the probate court of the county of the person's residence, if he be a resident of the state of Minnesota.

Subd. 4. [CHANGE OF LEGAL STATUS.] Any person admitted pursuant to this section shall be changed to the informal status provided by section 4 upon his request in writing and with the consent of the head of the treatment facility.

Sec. 6. [253A.52] [RIGHTS OF PATIENTS ADMITTED UNDER INFORMAL OR EMERGENCY PROCEDURES.]

Subdivision 1. [PATIENT'S RIGHT TO COMMUNICATION AND NOTICE THEREOF IN CASES OF INFORMAL OR EMERGENCY ADMISSIONS.] (a) From the time of his admission any patient admitted under the provisions of section 4 or 5 may communicate by all reasonable means with a reasonable number of persons at reasonable hours of the day and night, and may consult privately with an attorney, personal physician and at least one member of his family.

(b) Any patient admitted under the provisions of section 4 shall be informed in writing of his right to leave the treatment facility as provided in section 4 subject to other provisions of sections 1 to 27, and of his right to communicate as specified in clause (a).

(c) Any patient admitted under the provisions of section 5, subdivisions 1 and 2, shall be informed of his right to communicate as specified in clause (a), and of his right to discharge and change of venue under section 5, subdivision 3.

(d) The head of the treatment facility shall assist any patient in making and presenting written requests for discharge and change of venue.

Subd. 2. [MEDICAL EXAMINATION OF PERSONS ADMITTED OTHER THAN BY JUDICIAL PROCEDURE.] (a) The head of a treatment facility shall arrange to have every patient hospitalized pursuant to section 4 or 5 examined by a physician forthwith, but in no event more than 48 hours following the date of admission.

(b) At the end of such period any patient admitted pursuant to section 5 shall be discharged if an examination has not been held or if upon examination the examiner fails to notify the head of the treatment facility in writing that in his opinion the patient is apparently in need of care, treatment, and evaluation as a mentally ill, mentally retarded, or chemically dependent person.

Sec. 7. [253A.53] [JUDICIAL COMMITMENT OF MENTALLY ILL, MENTALLY RETARDED OR CHEMICALLY DEPENDENT PERSONS.]

Subdivision 1. [PRE-PETITION SCREENING.] (a) Prior to filing a petition for commitment of a proposed patient

pursuant to subdivision 7, a prospective petitioner shall apply to the designated agency in the county of the proposed patient's settlement or presence for conduct of a preliminary investigation.

(b) Each designated agency shall provide for a pre-petition screening process to include the following:

(i) a personal interview with the proposed patient and other individuals who appear to have knowledge of the condition of the proposed patient. If the proposed patient is not interviewed, reasons for the failure to interview must be documented;

(ii) exploration of all suitable alternatives to commitment available to the proposed patient. Where no suitable alternatives are available, identification of the type of alternative to commitment, if any, which would be suitable;

(iii) identification and listing the reasons for rejecting or recommending each alternative to involuntary placement; and

(iv) identification and investigation of specific alleged conduct which is the basis for application.

(c) In conducting the investigation required by this subdivision, the pre-petition screening team shall, with respect to proposed patients currently in treatment facilities, have access to all relevant medical records. Data collected pursuant to this clause shall be considered private data within the meaning of sections 15.1611 to 15.1699.

(d) Where the pre-petition screening team recommends commitment, a report of the pre-petition investigation shall be transmitted in written form to the county attorney for the county in which the petition is to be filed. When requested to do so, the county attorney shall assist in drafting the petition for commitment.

(e) Upon completion of the investigation, the pre-petition screening team shall refuse to support a petition if the proposed patient is willing to enter treatment voluntarily or if it appears that the clinical evidence does not warrant commitment.

(f) Where an interested person wishes to proceed with a petition contrary to the recommendation of the pre-petition screening team, application may be made directly to the county attorney, who may, in the exercise of his sound discretion, determine whether or not to proceed with the petition. Notice of the county attorney's determination shall be provided to the interested party.

(g) Where the court, in a criminal proceeding, petitions for commitment pursuant to the rules of criminal procedure, the preliminary investigation required by this section need not be completed prior to the filing of the petition. Such investigation must be completed, however, within seven days after the filing of the petition.

Subd. 2. [THE PETITION.] Any interested person may file in the probate court of the county of the proposed patient's settlement or presence a petition for commitment of a proposed patient, setting forth the name and address of the proposed patient, the name and address of his nearest relatives, and the reasons for the petition. The petition must contain factual descriptions of the proposed patient's recent behavior; including a description of the behavior, where it occurred, and over what period of time it occurred. Each factual allegation must be supported by observations of witnesses who are named in the petition. Petitions shall contain factual statements in behavioral terms and shall not contain judgmental or conclusory statements. The petition shall be accompanied by a written statement by a licensed physician or licensed consulting psychologist, either of whom shall be knowledgeable and trained in the diagnosis and treatment of the impairment alleged in the petition, stating that he has examined the proposed patient within the 15 days preceding the filing of the petition and is of the opinion that the proposed patient is suffering a designated mental disorder or impairment and should be committed to a treatment facility. Where a petitioner has been unable to secure a written statement from an examiner, the petition shall be accompanied by documentation that a reasonable effort has been made to secure the supporting statement.

Subd. 3. [EXAMINERS.] After a petition has been filed under subdivision 2, the probate court shall appoint an examiner, knowledgeable and trained in the diagnosis and treatment of the mental impairment alleged in the petition, and shall at the patient's request appoint a second examiner of the patient's choosing to be paid for by the county at a rate of compensation to be fixed by the court.

Subd. 4. [PRE-HEARING EXAMINATION; NOTICE AND SUMMONS PROCEDURE.] A summons to appear for pre-hearing examination and hearing shall be served upon the proposed patient. A plain language notice of the proceedings and notice of the filing of the petition, a copy of the petition, a copy of the physician's supporting statement, and the order for examination and a copy of the pre-petition screening report shall be given to the proposed patient, his counsel, the petitioner, one other interested person, and such other persons as the court directs. All papers shall be served personally on the proposed patient and unless otherwise ordered by the court such notice shall be served on the proposed patient by a non-uniformed person.

Subd. 5. [PRE-HEARING EXAMINATION; REPORT.] The examination shall be held at a treatment facility or such other suitable place as the court shall determine is not likely to have a harmful effect on the health of the proposed patient. No persons other than the proposed patient's counsel shall be present during the examination unless authorized by the examiner. The court shall require the examiner to file with the court, prior to the hearing two copies of his report as to the condition of the proposed patient and his need for commitment for treatment. The examiner's report shall be filed with the probate court no less than 48 hours before the hearing and copies shall be sent to the proposed patient and his attorney.

Subd. 6. [APPREHEND AND HOLD ORDERS.] When there has been either a particularized showing by the petitioner that serious imminent physical harm is likely unless the proposed patient is apprehended or when the proposed patient has not voluntarily appeared for the examination or hearing pursuant to summons issued under subdivision 4, the court may direct a health or peace officer or any other person to take the proposed patient into custody and transport him to a public treatment facility or private treatment facility consenting to receive him, for observation, evaluation, diagnosis, emergency treatment, care, and if necessary, confinement. The order of the court may be executed on any day and at any time thereof, by the use of all necessary means including the imposition of necessary restraint upon the person of the proposed patient. Unless otherwise ordered by the court, a peace officer taking the proposed patient into custody pursuant to this subdivision shall not be in uniform and shall not use a motor vehicle visibly marked as a police vehicle.

Subd. 7. [PROBABLE CAUSE HEARING.] (a) No person may be held pursuant to subdivision 6 for longer than 72 hours exclusive of Saturdays, Sundays, and legal holidays, unless the court holds a preliminary hearing and determines that probable cause exists to continue to hold the person.

(b) The proposed patient, his counsel, the petitioner, the county attorney, one other interested person and such other persons as the court directs shall be given at least 24 hours written notice of the time, date and place of the preliminary hearing. The notice shall inform the proposed patient of the alleged grounds for confinement. The proposed patient shall be represented at the preliminary hearing by counsel, either retained or appointed.

(c) Hearsay evidence, including written reports, may be relied upon at the preliminary hearing, if the court finds the evidence to be reliable. The court may order the continued holding of the proposed patient if it finds, by a preponderance of the evidence, that there is imminent danger that the patient may cause serious physical harm to himself or others if not confined.

Subd. 8. [TIME FOR COMMITMENT HEARING.] The court shall fix a time and place for the hearing on the commitment petition which shall be held within 14 days from the date of the filing of the petition. For good cause shown, the court may extend the time of hearing up to an additional 30 days. When any proposed patient has not had a hearing on a petition filed for his commitment within 14 days from the date of filing of the petition, or within the extended time, the proceedings shall be dismissed. The proposed patient, or the head of the treatment facility in which the patient is held, may demand in writing at any time that the hearing be held immediately. Unless the hearing is thereafter held within five days of the date of such demand, exclusive of Saturdays, Sundays and legal holidays, the petition shall be automatically discharged if the patient is being held in a hospital or other institution pursuant to court order. For good cause shown, the court may extend the time of hearing on demand up to an additional ten days.

Subd. 9. [NOTICE OF HEARING.] The proposed patient, his counsel, the petitioner, one other interested person, and such other persons as the court directs shall be given at least five days' notice by the court that a hearing will be held and at least two days' notice of the time and date of the hearing, except that any person may waive notice. Notice to the proposed patient may be waived by patient's counsel. If the proposed patient has no settlement in this state, the commissioner shall be notified by the court of the proceedings.

Subd. 10. [RIGHT TO ATTEND AND TESTIFY.] All persons to whom notice has been given pursuant to subdivision 9 may attend the hearing and, except for the proposed patient's legal counsel, may testify. The court shall notify all such persons of their right to attend the hearing and to testify.

Subd. 11. [WITNESSES.] The proposed patient and the petitioner may present and cross-examine witnesses, including examiners, at the hearing and the court may in its discretion receive the testimony of any other person. Opinions of court-appointed examiners shall not be admitted into evidence unless the examiner is present to testify, except by agreement of the parties.

Subd. 12. [ABSENCE PERMITTED.] The court in its discretion may permit the proposed patient to waive his right to attend the hearing if the court determines that the waiver is freely given. All waivers shall be on the record. The court may exclude from the hearing any person not necessary for the conduct of the proceedings except those persons to whom notice was given pursuant to subdivision 9 and any other persons requested to be present by the proposed patient. At the time of the hearing the patient shall not be so under the influence or so suffer the effects of drugs, medication, or other treatment as to be hampered in preparing for or participating in the proceedings. When in the opinion of the licensed physician or licensed consulting psychologist attending the patient the discontinuance of drugs, medication, or other treatment is not in the best interest of the patient, the court at the time of the hearing, shall be presented a record of all drugs, medication or other treatment which the patient has received during the 48 hours immediately prior to the hearing.

Subd. 13. [PLACE OF HEARING.] The hearing shall be conducted in a manner consistent with orderly procedure. The hearing shall be held at a court room which may be at a treatment facility.

Subd. 14. [RECORD REQUIRED.] In all proceedings the court shall keep accurate minutes containing, among other appropriate materials, notations of appearances at the hearing, including witnesses, motions made and the disposition thereof, and all waivers of rights made by the parties. The court shall have taken and preserved an accurate stenographic record or tape recording of the proceedings.

Subd. 15. [FINDINGS.] (a) In all cases the court shall find the facts specifically, state separately its conclusions of law thereon, and direct the entry of an appropriate judgment. Where commitment is ordered, the findings of fact and conclusions of law shall specifically include the proposed patient's conduct which is a basis for determining that each of the requisites of section 2 is met.

(b) If commitment is ordered, the findings shall also include a listing of less restrictive alternatives considered and rejected by the court and the reasons for rejecting each alternative.

Subd. 16. [EVIDENCE.] The court shall hear any relevant testimony and shall receive all relevant evidence which may be offered at the hearing. The court shall not be bound by the evidence presented by the examiners but shall make its determination upon the entire record pursuant to the rules of evidence.

Sec. 8. [253A.54] [RIGHT TO COUNSEL.]

In all proceedings the county attorney may appear and represent the petitioner or shall appear and represent the petitioner upon the request of the judge of probate court, subject to the prosecutorial discretion permitted by section 7, subdivision 1, clause (f). The petitioner shall be notified of his right to request that the county attorney appear. The proposed patient shall have the right to be represented by counsel, and if neither the proposed patient nor others provide counsel, the court at the time when the petition is filed shall appoint counsel to represent the proposed patient. Counsel shall consult with the proposed patient prior to the hearing and shall be given adequate time to prepare therefor. Counsel appointed or retained to represent a proposed patient shall continue to represent the patient throughout any proceedings held pursuant to sections 1 to 27, unless and until the court releases counsel pursuant to the request of counsel or the patient or until the patient furnishes his own counsel who makes a formal appearance in the proceeding. In this, as in all proceedings relative to commitment, counsel's role shall be to function as a vigorous advocate on behalf of his client. Counsel shall have the full right of subpoena.

Sec. 9. [253A.55] [COMMITMENT OF MENTALLY ILL, MENTALLY RETARDED AND CHEMICALLY DEPENDENT PERSONS; STANDARD OF PROOF AND DURATION OF INITIAL COMMITMENT.]

(a) If upon completion of the hearing, the court finds by clear and convincing evidence that the proposed patient is a mentally ill, mentally retarded, or chemically dependent person within the meaning of section 2, the court, after careful consideration of all reasonable alternative dispositions appropriate to the proposed patient's disability, shall commit such patient to a public treatment facility or to a private treatment facility consenting to receive him.

(b) For persons committed as mentally ill or mentally retarded, initial commitment shall be for a period of time not to exceed 60 days and there shall be a review of the commitment at the end of 60 days in accord with provisions of section 15.

(c) For persons committed as chemically dependent, the initial commitment shall be for a period of time not to exceed 45 days. Any subsequent commitment, within the 24 month period that begins with the day of a final discharge from commitment, shall be for a period of time not to exceed 60 days. There shall be a review of this second commitment at the end of 60 days in accord with the provisions of section 15. Commitment proceedings initiated two years or more after a previous final discharge may, after a review by the court of all relevant facts concerning the previous commitment and present circumstances, be treated by the committing court as a petition for initial commitment, subject to petitioner's right to present competent evidence as to why the petition should not be treated as a petition for initial commitment.

Sec. 10. [253A.56] [RELEASE BEFORE COMMITMENT.]

(a) After the commitment hearing and before a commitment order has been issued, the court may release a proposed patient to the custody of any individual or agency upon such conditions guaranteeing the care and treatment of such patient; but no person against whom a criminal proceeding is pending shall be so released.

(b) The court, on its own motion or upon the petition of any person, and after a hearing upon the notice as it directs, may revoke any release and commit the proposed patient in such manner as provided in sections 1 to 27.

Sec. 11. [253A.57] [SEALING OF RECORDS.]

Upon petition by a person who has been the subject of a judicial commitment proceeding, the probate court for the county in which the petitioner resides shall consider the sealing of all judicial records of the commitment proceedings initiated against the petitioner. The court may seal the commitment records if it finds that access to the records creates undue hardship for the petitioner. All hearings held in proceedings under this section shall be held in closed court. The files and records of the court in proceedings under this section shall not be open to inspection by any person except the petitioner, or to other persons only upon order by the court.

Sec. 12. [253A.58] [COMMITMENT PROCEDURES.]

Subdivision 1. [ADMINISTRATIVE REQUIREMENTS.]

(a) Whenever a person is committed under sections 1 to 27, the court shall issue a warrant in duplicate, committing the patient to the custody of the head of the treatment facility and the patient shall be transported to the treatment facility as provided in subdivision 2.

(b) Upon delivery of a patient committed under sections 1 to 27, to the designated treatment facility, the head of the facility shall retain the duplicate warrant and endorse his receipt upon the original warrant, which shall be filed in the court of commitment. (c) Whenever a patient being committed under sections 1 to 27 requests a change of venue as provided in sections 1 to 27, or whenever a hearing is to be held for adjudication of a patient's status pursuant to section 22, the transportation of said patient to the hearing shall be provided by the commissioner.

Subd. 3. [PLACES OF TEMPORARY CONFINEMENT.]

(a) Except when ordered by the court pursuant to a finding of necessity to protect the life of the proposed patient or others, no person apprehended, detained, or admitted as mentally ill, mentally retarded, or chemically dependent under any provision of sections 1 to 27 shall be confined in jail or in any penal or correctional institution, except pursuant to chapters 242 or 244.

(b) Each county or a group of counties or other political subdivisions shall maintain or provide by contract a facility for confinement of persons held temporarily for observation, evaluation, diagnosis, treatment, and care, and when the confinement is provided at a regional center the commissioner shall charge the responsible county, and shall be paid, at a rate based on the commissioner's determination of the average per capita cost of all maintenance, treatment and expense, other than that paid from the Minnesota state building fund, for persons hospitalized pursuant to section 5, subdivision 2 and section 7, subdivision 6 at all of the regional centers for the mentally ill during the fiscal year previous to the period for which billing is being made.

(c) A facility for confinement may consist of all or a portion of a hospital, licensed nursing home, licensed foster home, or other facility, but shall not be part of a facility used primarily for the detention of individuals charged with or convicted of penal offenses.

(d) The designated agency shall take reasonable measures, including provision for medical treatment, as may be necessary to assure proper care and treatment of a person temporarily detained pursuant to this section.

Subd. 4. [NOTICE OF ADMISSION TO TREATMENT FACILITY.] Whenever a patient has been admitted to a treatment facility under the provisions of sections 9 and 23, the head of the facility shall notify forthwith the patient's spouse or parent, if the patient was not admitted upon the petition of the spouse or parent, and the county of the patient's legal settlement if the county may bear a portion of the cost of hospitalization. If the patient was admitted upon the petition of a spouse or parent the head of the treatment facility shall notify an interested person other than the petitioner.

Subd. 5. [PRIVATE HOSPITALIZATION.] Patients or other responsible persons are required to pay the necessary hospital charges for patients committed or transferred to private hospitals or institutions.

Sec. 13. [253A.59] [TRANSFER TO INFORMAL STATUS.]

At any time prior to the expiration of the 60-day period a patient who has not been committed as mentally ill and dangerous to the public or as a psychopathic personality may be transferred to informal status upon his application in writing with the consent of the head of the facility. Upon such transfer the head of the treatment facility shall immediately notify the court in writing and upon receipt of the same the court shall terminate the proceedings.

Sec. 14. [253A.60] [SIXTY-DAY REPORT FOR PERSONS COMMITTED AS MENTALLY ILL, MENTALLY RETARDED, OR CHEMICALLY DEPENDENT.]

Whenever a patient is committed to a treatment facility pursuant to section 9, it shall be for not more than 60 days and the patient shall be held at the facility during the period for observation, evaluation, diagnosis, treatment, and care. Every patient admitted to a facility under section 9 shall be examined by at least one examiner as soon as practicable after admission. Within 60 days from the date of the commitment order, the head of the facility shall file a written statement with the court issuing said order, and a copy thereof with the patient and the patient's attorney, setting forth in detailed narrative form at least the following: (1) the diagnosis of the patient with supporting data; (2) the anticipated discharge date; (3) an in-

Sec. 15. [253A.61] [SIXTY-DAY REVIEW; HEARING.]

Subdivision 1. [BASIS FOR DISCHARGE.] If no written statement is filed within 60 days or if the written statement describes the patient as not in need of further institutional care and treatment, the proceedings shall be terminated by the court and the patient shall be discharged from the treatment facility.

Subd. 2. [WEIGHT GIVEN TO REPORT.] If the written statement required by section 14 describes the patient as being in need of further care and treatment in a treatment facility, the court shall consider that finding in making its final determination under this section.

Subd. 3. [HEARING; STANDARD OF PROOF.] The probate court shall not make a final determination of commitment unless a hearing is held and the court finds by clear and convincing evidence that (1) the person continues to be mentally ill, mentally retarded or chemically dependent within the meaning of section 2; (2) involuntary commitment is necessary for the protection of the patient or others; and (3) there is no less restrictive alternative to involuntary commitment.

Subd. 4. [TIME FOR HEARING.] The hearing shall be held within 14 days after receipt by the court of the statement of the head of the treatment facility. The court may continue the hearing for good cause shown.

Subd. 5. [NOTICE.] The patient, his counsel, the petitioner, and such other persons as the court directs shall be given at least five days notice by the court of the time and place of the hearing.

Subd. 6. [WAIVER.] A patient, after consultation with his attorney, may waive the hearing. The waiver must be submitted to the probate court and must be in writing and signed by both the patient and his attorney.

Subd. 7. [EXAMINATION.] The court shall inform the patient that he is entitled to an independent examination by an examiner, who may be chosen by the patient and shall be appointed in accordance with provisions of section 7, subdivision 3.

Subd. 8. [RECORD REQUIRED.] Where commitment is ordered the findings of fact and conclusions of law shall specifically state the conduct of the proposed patient which is the basis for the final determination, that the statutory criteria of section 2 continue to be met, and that less restrictive alternatives have been considered and rejected by the court. Reasons for rejecting each alternative shall be stated. A copy of the final order for commitment shall be forwarded to the head of the treatment facility.

Sec. 16. [253A.62] [DURATION OF COMMITMENT.]

Subdivision 1. [MENTALLY ILL PERSONS.] If at the conclusion of a hearing held pursuant to section 15, it is found that a person continues to be mentally ill within the meaning of section 2, the court shall order commitment of the person for a period not to exceed 16 months. Commitment may be continued only if a new petition is filed in accordance with section 7 and hearing and determination made thereon.

Subd. 2. [MENTALLY RETARDED PERSONS.] If at the conclusion of a hearing held pursuant to section 15, it is found that a person continues to be mentally retarded within the meaning of section 2, the court shall order commitment of the person for a period not to exceed one year from the date on which the order is issued. Annual renewal of that commitment shall be required as follows:

(a) Thirty days prior to the expiration of the annual commitment period the head of the treatment facility shall file a written statement with the court and a copy thereof with the commissioner and the patient's attorney, setting forth findings as to the condition of the patient; a diagnosis of the patient; whether the patient is in need of further care and treatment; whether the care and treatment, if any, must be provided in a treatment facility and if so what type or whether the patient should be moved to some less restrictive setting.

(b) If no written statement is filed within the required time or if the written statement describes the patient as not in need of further institutional care and treatment, the proceedings shall be terminated by the court and the patient shall be discharged from the facility.

(c) If the written statement describes the patient as being in need of further institutional care and treatment, the court shall consider that finding in making its final determination.

(d) In addition, the committing court may examine the patient's records to determine if the patient has a need for further institutional care and treatment. The court may also request the patient to appear and make other pertinent inquiries with respect to the patient's present need for confinement.

(e) If the court finds that the patient is not in need of further institutional care and treatment, the court shall recommend discharge to the head of the treatment facility who shall issue an order for discharge of the patient.

(f) If the court finds that that patient is in need of further institutional care and treatment, the court shall issue an order renewing the patient's commitment for an additional one year period.

Subd. 3. [CHEMICALLY DEPENDENT PERSONS.] If at the conclusion of a hearing held pursuant to section 15, it is found that a person continues to be chemically dependent within the meaning of section 2, the court shall order commitment of the person for a period of time not to exceed one year from the date of order.

Sec. 17. [253A.63] [TRANSFER OF PERSONS COMMITTED AS MENTALLY ILL, MENTALLY RETARDED, OR CHEMICALLY DEPENDENT.]

The commissioner may transfer any patient who is committed by the probate court under section 9 from one regional center or institution to any regional center or other institution under his jurisdiction which is capable of providing the patient proper care and treatment. Whenever a patient is transferred from one treatment facility to another written notice shall be given to the probate court if the patient was committed under sections 1 to 27, and to his parent or spouse or, if none be known, to an interested person, and the designated agency.

Sec. 18. [253A.64] [PROVISIONAL DISCHARGE OF MENTALLY ILL, MENTALLY RETARDED, AND CHEMICALLY DEPENDENT PERSONS.]

Subdivision 1. [PROVISIONAL DISCHARGE.] (a) The head of a treatment facility may provisionally discharge any patient committed under sections 1 to 27, that is, discharge the patient without discharging the commitment, unless the patient was found by the committing court to be mentally ill and dangerous to the public or to have a psychopathic personality.

(b) The patient may be placed on provisional discharge as described in this subdivision during the 60-day examination period, but will be subject to sections 1 to 27 unless the discharge is made absolute during the 60-day period.

(c) Each patient released on provisional discharge shall have an after care plan developed which specifies the expected period of provisional discharge, the precise goals for the granting of a final discharge, and conditions or restrictions on the patient during the period of the provisional discharge.

The aftercare plan shall be reviewed on a quarterly basis by the patient, designated agency and other appropriate persons. The aftercare plan shall contain the grounds upon which a provisional discharge may be revoked. The provisional discharge shall terminate on the date specified in the plan unless specific action is taken to revoke or extend it.

Subd. 2. [REVOCAION OF PROVISIONAL DISCHARGE.] (a) The head of the facility may revoke a provisional discharge if any of the following occur:

(i) The patient has departed from the conditions of the provisional discharge plan, and is in need of confinement.

(ii) The patient is exhibiting forms of behavior which require institutional care.

(iii) The patient is in imminent danger of causing injury to himself or others.

When the possibility of revocation becomes apparent, the supervisory agency shall notify the patient and all participants in the plan, and every effort shall be made to prevent revocation.

(b) Prior to revoking a provisional discharge, in non-emergency situations, the head of the facility shall receive a report from the designated agency documenting the specific facts upon which the revocation recommendation is based. Where possible, the report should include specific facts with respect to witnesses, dates and locations and should also include whether there are reasonable and viable alternatives to re-institutionalization. Within 48 hours of receiving the report, the head of the facility shall decide whether or not to revoke the provisional discharge. If a determination is made that revocation is appropriate, the head of the facility shall notify the court, the patient, the patient's attorney, the designated agency and other appropriate persons.

(c) If the head of the facility determines that an emergency exists, he may revoke the provisional discharge and, either orally or in writing, order that the patient be immediately returned to the hospital. In such cases, a revocation report, which documents the specific facts upon which revocation is based, shall be requested of the designated agency.

(d) Subsequent to any revocation, the patient must be provided a copy of the revocation report and informed in writing of his rights under sections 1 to 27.

(e) Upon revocation of a provisional discharge or if a patient is absent without authorization, the head of a facility may request the patient to return to the treatment facility voluntarily, and, when necessary, the court shall direct a health or peace of- ficer in the county where the patient is located to return the patient to the facility or to such other facility as consents to receive him for further care and treatment in such manner as provided in sections 1 to 27.

The expense of returning the patient to a hospital shall be paid for by the commissioner unless paid for by the patient or his relatives.

(f) During the first 60 days of a provisional discharge, the head of a facility may order re-institutionalization without being subject to the procedures set forth in clauses (a) to (d):

(g) Any patient aggrieved by a revocation decision made under this section may request a review of that revocation by notifying the head of the facility within 48 hours of receiving a copy of the revocation report, excluding Saturday, Sunday and holidays. Upon receipt of such a request, the head of the hospital shall file with the committing court a petition for review of the revocation. The court shall hold a hearing on the petition and may order continued hospitalization or a return to provisional discharge status.

Subd. 3. [VOLUNTARY RETURN.] A patient on provisional discharge under this section may request return to inpatient status as an informal patient. The patient may be transferred to informal inpatient status with the consent of the head of the treatment facility. If the request for readmission as an informal patient is not granted, the patient shall be informed that voluntary readmission will result in automatic revocation of the provisional discharge, without regard to the provisions of subdivision 2.

Subd. 4. [EXTENSION OF PROVISIONAL DISCHARGE.]
(a) A provisional discharge may be extended only in those circumstances where the patient has not achieved the goals set forth in the provisional discharge plan or continues to need the supervision or assistance provided by an extension of the provisional discharge. In determining whether the provisional discharge is to be extended, the head of the facility shall consider the willingness and ability of the patient to voluntarily obtain needed care and treatment.

(b) The designated agency shall recommend extension of a provisional discharge only after a preliminary conference with the patient and other appropriate persons. The patient shall be given the opportunity to object or make suggestions for alternatives to extension.

(c) Any recommendation for extension shall be made in writing to the head of the facility and to the patient at least 30 days prior to the expiration of the provisional discharge. The written recommendation submitted shall include: the specific grounds for recommending the extension, the date of the preliminary conference and results, the anniversary date of the provisional discharge, the termination date of the provisional discharge and the proposed length of extension.

(d) The head of the facility shall issue a written decision regarding extension within five days after receiving the recommendation from the designated agency.

(e) In no event shall any provisional discharge, revocation, or extension extend the term of the commitment beyond the period provided for in the order issued pursuant to section 9 or 16.

Subd. 5. [EXPIRATION OF PROVISIONAL DISCHARGE.] (a) At the end of the period specified in the provisional discharge or any extension of the provisional discharge and, in any event, at the end of the time period designated in the commitment order, the patient's discharge shall become absolute.

(b) If, while on provisional discharge or extended provisional discharge, a patient is discharged as provided in section 20, the discharge shall be absolute.

(c) Notice of the expiration of the provisional discharge shall be given by the head of the treatment facility to the committing court, the commissioner, and the designated agency.

Sec. 19. [253A.65] [PARTIAL HOSPITALIZATION.]

The head of a treatment facility may place any patient committed pursuant to sections 1 to 27 on a status of partial hospitalization. The status shall allow the patient to be absent from the facility for certain fixed periods of time. The head of the facility may terminate the status at any time.

Sec. 20. [253A.66] [DISCHARGE OF PERSONS COMMITTED AS MENTALLY ILL, MENTALLY RETARDED AND CHEMICALLY DEPENDENT.]

The head of a treatment facility shall discharge any patient admitted as mentally ill, mentally retarded or chemically dependent when certified by him to be no longer in need of institutional care and treatment, and in any event, at the conclusion of any period of time specified in the commitment order.

Sec. 21. [253A.67] [NOTIFICATION OF DISCHARGE.]

(a) The head of any facility, prior to the discharge or provisional discharge of any committed person, shall notify the designated agency and the patient's spouse, of it there be no spouse, then an adult child, or if there be none, the next of kin of the patient, of the proposed discharge. The notice shall be sent to the last known address of the patient's next of kin by certified mail with return receipt. The notice shall include the following: (1) the proposed date of discharge or provisional discharge; (2) the date, time and place of the meeting of the staff who have been treating the patient to discuss discharge and discharge planning; (3) that the patient will be present at the meeting; (4) that the next of kin may attend the designated staff meeting and present any information relevant to the discharge of the patient. The notice shall be sent to the next of kin at least one week prior to the date designated for the meeting.

Sec. 22. [253A.68] [JUDICIAL DETERMINATION OF NEED FOR INSTITUTIONALIZATION.]

Subdivision 1. [PETITION.] Any interested person including the patient himself may petition the court of commitment or the court to which venue has been transferred for an order adjudicating that any patient, except one committed as a psychopathic personality or mentally ill and dangerous under section 23, is not now in need of continued institutionalization or for an order adjudicating that an individual is not now mentally ill, mentally retarded, or chemically dependent, or for such other order as the court may deem just and equitable.

Subd. 2. [NOTICE OF HEARING.] Upon the filing of the petition the court shall fix the time and place for the hearing thereof, ten days' notice of which shall be given to the county attorney, the patient, his legal counsel, the head of the facility in which the patient resides, and such other persons and in a manner as the court directs. Any person may oppose the petition.

Subd. 3. [EXAMINERS.] The court may appoint an examiner knowledgeable and trained in the diagnosis and treatment of mental impairments and, at the patient's request, shall appoint a second examiner of the patient's choosing to be paid for by the county at a rate of compensation to be fixed by the court.

Subd. 4. [EVIDENCE.] The patient, the petitioner and the county attorney shall be entitled to be present and cross-examine witnesses including any examiners. The court shall hear any relevant testimony and shall receive all relevant evidence which may be offered at the hearing.

Subd. 5. [ORDER.] Upon proof of the allegations of the petition, the court shall enter an order adjudicating that the patient is not now in need of continued institutionalization and upon proper proof thereof shall order that an individual is not now mentally ill, mentally retarded, or chemically dependent, or may enter any other order as the court may deem equitable and just.

Subd. 6. [COUNTY ATTORNEY.] The county attorney shall attend the hearing and shall oppose the restoration of the patient in the probate court and in the appellate courts, if he deems it for the best interest of the public.

Subd. 7. [COPY.] A copy of said order shall be mailed to the head of the facility where the patient was last confined. The head of the facility, upon receipt thereof, shall then comply with such order.

Subd. 8. [ATTORNEY GENERAL.] The attorney general shall represent the commissioner in the proceedings.

Subd. 9. [RIGHT TO COUNSEL.] In all proceedings the patient shall be afforded an opportunity to be represented by counsel, and if neither the patient nor others provide counsel the court shall appoint counsel to represent the patient.

Sec. 23. [253A.69] [ADMISSION, TRANSFER, AND DISCHARGE PROCEDURES FOR PERSONS MENTALLY ILL AND DANGEROUS TO THE PUBLIC.]

Subdivision 1. [JUDICIAL COMMITMENT OF PERSONS MENTALLY ILL AND DANGEROUS TO THE PUBLIC.] A person may be committed as mentally ill and dangerous to a treatment facility upon court order in accord with the procedures outlined in sections 7 and 8. If upon completion of the hearing, the court finds by clear and convincing evidence that the proposed patient is mentally ill and dangerous to the public within the meaning of section 2, subdivision 4, it shall commit such person to the Minnesota Security Hospital, or to a regional center designated by the commissioner or to a private treatment facility consenting to receive him.

Subd. 2. [PROCEDURE.] Commitment under this section shall be carried out in accord with the provisions of section 12.

Subd. 3. [REVIEW.] There shall be a review of commitment at the end of 60 days. If no written statement is filed within 60 days or if the written statement describes the patient as not in need of further institutional care and treatment, the person shall not be automatically discharged, but a further hearing shall be held by the committing court within 14 days after the court's receipt of such statement. The committing court shall then make the final determination.

Subd. 4. [INDETERMINATE COMMITMENT.] At the hearing held pursuant to subdivision 3, the court may order commitment of the proposed patient for an indeterminate period of time. Subsequent to this final determination that a patient is mentally ill and dangerous or a psychopathic personality, the patient shall be transferred, provisionally discharged, discharged, or have his commitment status altered only as provided in this section.

Subd. 5. [SPECIAL REVIEW BOARD.] (a) There shall be established by the commissioner one special review board for persons committed as mentally ill and dangerous or psychopathic personalities. The board shall consist of three members, each of whom shall be experienced in the field of mental illness. One member of the special review board shall be a physician qualified in the diagnosis of mental illness and one member shall be an attorney. No member shall be affiliated with the department of public welfare. The special review board shall meet at least every six months and be otherwise on call of the commissioner and shall hear and consider all petitions for transfer out of the Minnesota Security Hospital, all petitions relative to discharge, provisional discharge and revocation of provisional discharge and make recommendations to the commissioner concerning the same.

(b) Each member of the special review board shall receive compensation as established by the commissioner of public welfare for time spent in discharge of his official duties. In addition to the compensation so provided, each member of the special review board shall be reimbursed for all expenses paid or incurred by him in the performance of his official duties.

Subd. 6. [FILING OF PETITION; NOTICE OF HEARING; ATTENDANCE; ENTRY OF ORDER.] A petition for an order of transfer, discharge, provisional discharge, or revocation of provisional discharge shall be filed with the commissioner and may be filed by the patient or by the head of the hospital. The special review board shall be convened by the commissioner at reasonable intervals and shall hold a hearing on each petition prior to making any recommendation. Within 30 days of the filing of the petition, the probate court, the county attorney of the county of commitment, an interested person, the petitioner and his attorney, if any, shall each be given written notice by the commissioner of the time and place of the hearing before the special review board. Special review board hearings shall be considered private. Only those entitled to statutory notice of the hearing or those administratively required to attend may be present. Such persons shall also be given written notice of the making of any order by the commissioner and a copy of the order within five days after the making and entry of such order, the notice and copy thereof to be furnished by certified mail with return receipt. The commissioner shall issue orders no later than 14 days after receiving the recommendation of the special review board and no order by the commissioner shall be made effective sooner than 15 days after the making and entry of the order.

Subd. 7. [TRANSFER.] (a) Persons who have been found by the committing court to be dangerous to the public or a psychopathic personality shall not be transferred out of the Minnesota Security Hospital unless it appears to the satisfaction of the commissioner, after a hearing before and a recommendation by a majority of the special review board appointed and acting under and pursuant to this section, that such transfer is appropriate. Transfer may be to other regional centers under the commissioner's control. In those instances where a commitment also exists to the department of corrections, transfer may be to a facility designated by the commissioner of corrections.

(b) The following factors are to be considered in determining whether a transfer is appropriate:

(i) the person's clinical progress and present treatment needs;

(ii) the need for security to accomplish continuing treatment;

(iii) the need for continued hospitalization;

(iv) which facility can best meet the person's needs; and

(v) whether transfer can be accomplished with a reasonable degree of safety for the public.

Subd. 8. [PROVISIONAL DISCHARGE; REVOCATION OF PROVISIONAL DISCHARGE.] (a) Persons who have been found by the committing court to be mentally ill and dangerous or a psychopathic personality shall not be provisionally discharged unless it appears to the satisfaction of the commissioner of public welfare, after a hearing before and a recommendation by a majority of the special review board appointed and acting under and pursuant to this section, that the patient is capable of making an acceptable adjustment to open society.

(b) The following factors are to be considered in determining whether a provisional discharge shall be recommended: whether conditions are such as to provide a reasonable degree of protection to the public and to assist the patient in adjusting to the community; and whether the patient's course of hospitalization and present mental status indicate there is no longer a need for in-hospital treatment and supervision.

(c) The provisional discharge plan shall be developed, implemented and monitored by the designated agency in conjunction with the patient, the treatment facility and other appropriate persons. The designated agency shall, at least quarterly, review the plan with the patient and submit a written report to the commissioner and the treatment facility concerning the patient's status and compliance with each term of the plan.

(d) Provisional discharge pursuant to this section shall not automatically terminate. A full discharge shall occur only as provided in subdivision 9. The commissioner shall annually review the facts relating to the activity of a patient on provisional discharge and notify the patient that the terms of the provisional discharge shall continue unless the patient requests a change in the conditions of provisional discharge or unless the patient acts to petition the special review board for a full discharge and such discharge is granted.

(e) The head of the facility may revoke a provisional discharge if any of the following grounds exist:

(i) the patient has departed from the conditions of the provisional discharge plan;

(ii) the patient is exhibiting signs of a mental illness which may require in-hospital evaluation or treatment; or

(iii) the patient is exhibiting behavior which may be dangerous to self or others.

(f) In all non-emergency situations, prior to revoking a provisional discharge, the head of the facility shall receive a report from the designated agency outlining the specific reasons for recommending the revocation, including but not limited to the specific facts upon which the revocation recommendation is based. If the head of the facility determines that an emergency exists, he may revoke the provisional discharge and, either orally or in writing, order that the patient be immediately returned to the hospital. In such cases, a report documenting reasons for revocation shall be submitted by the designated agency within seven days after the patient is returned to the treatment facility.

(g) The patient must be provided a copy of the revocation report and informed orally and in writing of his rights under this section.

(h) After revocation of a provisional discharge or if the patient is absent without authorization, the head of the facility may request the patient to return to the hospital voluntarily, and when necessary may request public health personnel, welfare personnel, or a peace officer to return the patient to the hospital. The head of the facility shall inform the committing probate court of the revocation or absence and the court shall direct a health or peace officer in the county where the patient is located to return the patient to the hospital or to such other hospital or public health facility as consents to receive him for further care and treatment. The expense of returning the patient to a hospital shall be paid by the commissioner unless paid by the patient or his relatives.

(i) For the purpose of revocation, the medical director may consider the first 60 days of the provisional discharge as an extended visit and during that time may order re-hospitalization without the order being subject to the procedures outlined in clauses (e), (f), and (g).

(j) Any patient aggrieved by a revocation decision may petition the special review board within 48 hours after receipt of the revocation report, excluding Saturdays, Sundays and holidays, for a review of the revocation. The matter shall be scheduled within 30 days. The special review board shall review the circumstances leading to the revocation and shall recommend to the commissioner whether or not the revocation shall be upheld. The special review board shall also have the authority to recommend a new provisional discharge at the time of a revocation hearing.

(k) With the consent of the head of the hospital, a patient may voluntarily return from provisional discharge for a period of up to 30 days and be released from the hospital without a further review by the special review board provided that all the terms and conditions of the provisional discharge order remain unchanged.

Subd. 9. [DISCHARGE.] A person who has been found by the committing court to be mentally ill and dangerous or a psychopathic personality shall not be discharged unless it appears to the satisfaction of the commissioner of public welfare after a hearing before, and a recommendation by a majority of, the special review board appointed and acting under and pursuant to this section that the patient is capable of making an acceptable adjustment to open society.

In determining whether a discharge shall be recommended, the special review board and commissioner shall consider which specific conditions are such as to provide a reasonable degree of protection to the public and to assist the patient in adjusting to the community. If the desired conditions are found not to exist, then the discharge shall not be granted.

Subd. 10. [APPEAL PANEL.] (a) There shall be established by the supreme court an appeal panel composed of three probate judges and two alternate probate judges, all of whom shall be appointed from among the acting probate judges of the state by the chief justice of the supreme court for terms of one year each. Only three judges need hear any case. One of the regular three judges so appointed shall be designated as the chief judge of the appeal panel and that judge is hereby vested with power and authority to fix the time and place of all hearings before the panel, issue all notices, subpoena witnesses, appoint counsel for the patient, if necessary, and generally to supervise and direct the operation of the appeal panel. The chief judge shall designate any other judge or any alternate judge to act as chief judge in any case where the chief judge is unable to act and with the same powers and authority. No judge appointed to the appeal panel shall take part in the consideration of any case in which that judge committed the patient in the probate court. The chief justice of the supreme court shall determine the compensation of the judges serving on the appeal panel, the compensation to be in addition to their ordinary compensation as probate judges, and all compensation and expenses of the appeal panel shall be borne by the department of public welfare.

(b) The patient or the county attorney of the county from which the patient was committed aggrieved by the action of the commissioner with respect to transfer, discharge, provisional discharge, or revocation of provisional discharge may petition for a rehearing and reconsideration of the case before the appeal panel. The petition shall be filed with the supreme court within 30 days after the making and entry of the order of the commissioner. The supreme court shall notify the head of the treatment facility in which the patient is confined and refer the petition to the chief judge of the appeal panel. Written notice by mail shall be given to the patient, the county attorney of the county of commitment, the commissioner, the head of the treatment facility in which the patient is confined, an interested person, and such persons as the chief judge may designate, of the time and place of the hearing on such petition. The notice is to be given not less than 14 days prior to the date of the hearing, which hearing shall be within 45 days of the filing of the petition. Any person may oppose the petition. The appeal panel may appoint examiners, and may adjourn the hearing from time to time. It shall hear and receive all relevant testimony and evidence and make a record of all such proceedings. The patient and the county attorney of the committing county shall be entitled to be present and to cross-examine all witnesses. A majority of the appeal panel shall make and enter the orders as they may deem just and equitable and the orders of the appeal panel shall supersede all orders of the commissioner in the cases. The orders of the appeal panel shall be limited to the relief requested from the special review board. No order of the appeal panel granting a transfer, discharge or provisional discharge shall be made effective sooner than 15 days after the making and entry of the order.

(c) In all proceedings before the appeal panel the patient shall be afforded an opportunity to be represented by counsel, and if neither the patient or others provide counsel the chief judge of the appeal panel shall appoint counsel to represent the patient. The compensation of such appointed counsel shall be determined by the chief judge and the expense thereof shall be borne and paid by the department of public welfare.

(d) The filing with the supreme court of a petition under clause (b) shall immediately suspend the operation of any order for transfer, discharge, provisional discharge or release from custody of the patient and the patient shall not thereafter be discharged or released in any manner except upon order of a majority of the appeal panel.

(e) A party aggrieved by an order of the appeal panel may appeal from the decision to the supreme court in the same manner as other appeals in civil actions. The filing of an appeal shall immediately suspend the operation of any order granting transfer, discharge or provisional discharge, pending the determination of the appeal.

Sec. 24. [253A.70] [COMMITMENT TO AN AGENCY OF THE UNITED STATES.]

Subdivision 1. [ADMINISTRATIVE PROCEDURES.] If the patient is entitled to care by the veterans administration or other agency of the United States in this state, the commitment warrant shall be in triplicate, committing the patient to the joint custody of the head of the treatment facility and the institution of the veterans administration or other federal agency. If the veterans administration or other federal agency is unable or unwilling to receive the patient at the time of commitment, the patient may subsequently be transferred to it upon its request.

Subd. 2. [RULES AND REGULATIONS.] Any person, when admitted to an institution of the veterans administration or other federal agency within or without this state, shall be subject to the rules and regulations of the veterans administration or other federal agency, except that nothing in this section shall deprive any person of rights secured to patients of state mental hospitals by sections 1 to 27.

Subd. 3. [POWERS.] The chief officer of any institution operated by the veterans administration or other agency of the United States to which any person is admitted shall with respect to the person be vested with the same powers as the heads of treatment facilities within this state with respect to admission, retention of custody, transfer, parole, release, or discharge.

Subd. 4. [JUDGMENTS.] The judgment or order of commitment by a court of competent jurisdiction of another state or the District of Columbia, committing a person to the veterans administration or other agency of the United States for care or treatment, shall have the same force and effect as to the committed person while in this state as in the jurisdiction in which is situated the court entering the judgment or making the order. Consent is given to the application of the law of the committing state or district in respect to the authority of the chief officer of any facility of the veterans administration, or of any institution operated in this state by any other agency of the United States, to retain custody of, transfer, parole, release, or discharge the committed person.

Subd. 5. [TRANSFER.] Upon receipt of a certificate of the veterans administration or such other agency of the United States that facilities are available for the care or treatment of any person heretofore committed to any treatment facility and that the person is eligible for care or treatment, the head of the treatment facility may cause the transfer of the person to the veterans administration or other agency of the United States for care or treatment. Upon effecting the transfer, the committing court or proper officer thereof shall be notified thereof by the transferring agency. No person shall be transferred to the veterans administration or other agency of the United States if he be confined pursuant to conviction of any felony or misdemeanor or if he has been acquitted of the charge solely on the ground of insanity, unless prior to transfer the court or other authority originally committing the person shall enter an order for the transfer after appropriate motion and hearing.

Written notice of the transfer shall be given to the patient's spouse or parent, or if none be known, to some other interested person.

Any person transferred as provided in this section shall be deemed to be committed to the veterans administration or other agency of the United States pursuant to the original commitment.

Sec. 25. [253A.71] [GENERAL ADMINISTRATIVE PROCEDURES RELATIVE TO DISCHARGE.]

Subdivision 1. [NOTICE TO COURT.] When a committed patient is discharged, provisionally discharged, transferred to another treatment facility, released, or partially hospitalized, or when he dies, is absent without authorization, or is returned, the treatment facility having custody of the patient shall file notice thereof in the court of commitment.

Subd. 2. [CLOTHING.] The head of the treatment facility shall make such arrangements at the expense of the state as may be necessary to insure that no patient is discharged, provisionally discharged, or released without suitable clothing. The head of a public treatment facility shall, if necessary, provide the patient with a sufficient sum of money to secure transportation home, or to another destination of his choice, if the destination is located within a reasonable distance of the treatment facility, which sum shall be paid out of the current expense fund of the hospital or institution.

Subd. 3. [NOTICE TO DESIGNATED AGENCY.] The head of any treatment facility, upon the provisional discharge, partial hospitalization, or release of any patient confined under sections 1 to 27, shall notify the designated agency before the patient is to leave the facility. Whenever possible the notice shall be given at least one week before the patient is to leave the facility. The commissioner shall provide by rule the procedure and methods whereby the patient shall be helped to receive all public assistance benefits provided by state or federal law to which his residence and circumstances entitle him. The rules shall be uniformly applied in all counties, and all counties shall provide temporary relief whenever necessary to meet the intent of this subdivision.

Subd. 4. [PLAN OF AFTER-CARE SERVICES.] Prior to the date of discharge, provisional discharge, partial hospitalization, or release of any patient confined under sections 1 to 27, the designated agency of the county of such patient's residence, in cooperation with the head of the treatment facility where the patient is confined, and the patient's physician, if notified pursuant to subdivision 6, shall establish a continuing plan of after-care services for the patient including a plan for medical and psychiatric treatment, nursing care, vocational assistance, and other aid as the patient shall need. It shall be the duty of the designated agency to provide case management services, to supervise and assist the patient in finding employment, suitable shelter, and adequate medical and psychiatric treatment, and to aid in his readjustment to the community.

Subd. 5. [CONSULTATION.] In establishing the plan for after-care services the designated agency shall engage in consultation with persons or agencies, including any public health nurse and vocational rehabilitation personnel, as is necessary to insure adequate planning and periodic review for after-care services.

Subd. 6. [NOTICE TO PHYSICIAN.] The head of the treatment facility shall notify the physician of any patient confined pursuant to sections 1 to 27 at the time of the patient's discharge, provisional discharge, partial hospitalization, or release, unless the patient shall object to the notice.

Subd. 7. [SERVICES.] A patient who has been confined under sections 1 to 27 may at any time after discharge, provisional discharge, partial hospitalization, or release, apply to the head of any public treatment facility within whose district he resides for treatment. If the head of the treatment facility determines that the applicant requires service, he may provide, under the medical supervision of a physician in the treatment facility, services related to mental illness, mental retardation or chemical dependency as are required by the applicant. The service shall be provided in regional centers under terms and conditions established by the commissioner.

Sec. 26. [253A.72] [REVIEW BOARDS.]

Subdivision 1. [ESTABLISHMENT.] There shall be established by the commissioner for each regional center a review board of three or more persons to review the admission and re-tion of patients hospitalized under this chapter. One of the persons shall be qualified in the diagnosis of mental illness or mental retardation and one of the persons shall be learned in the law. The commissioner may, upon written request from the appropriate federal authority, establish a review panel for any federal treatment facility within the state to review the admission and retention of patients hospitalized under this chapter. For any review board established for a federal hospital, one of the persons appointed by the commissioner shall be the commissioner of veterans affairs or his designee.

Subd. 2. [RIGHT TO APPEAR.] Each treatment facility shall be visited by the review board at least once every six months. Each patient in the hospital who so requests shall have the right to appear before the review board during such visit. A patient may at any time request the right to appear before the review board.

Subd. 3. [NOTICE.] The head of the treatment facility shall notify each patient at the time of admission by a simple written statement of the patient's right to appear before the review board and the next date when the board will visit the treatment facility. A request to appear before the board does not have to be in writing. Any employee of the treatment facility receiving such a request to appear before the board shall notify the head of the treatment facility of the request.

Subd. 4. [REVIEW.] The board shall review the admission and retention of patients at its respective treatment facility. The board may examine the records of all patients admitted and may examine personally at its own instigation all patients who from the records or otherwise appear to justify reasonable doubt as to continued need of confinement in a treatment facility. The board shall report its findings to the commissioner and to the head of the treatment facility. The board may also receive reports from patients and interested persons, including but not limited to treatment facility employees, on conditions affecting the humane and dignified care of patients and the board may examine the circumstances thereof in the manner described in this subdivision.

Subd. 5. [COMPENSATION.] Each member of the review board shall receive compensation as established by the commissioner of public welfare for time spent in discharge of his official duties. In addition to the compensation so provided, each member of the review board shall be reimbursed for all expenses paid or incurred by him in the performance of his official duties.

Sec. 27. [253A.73] [GENERAL PROVISIONS.]

Subdivision 1. [COSTS OF HEARINGS.] (a) In each proceeding under sections 1 to 27 the court shall allow and order paid to each witness subpoenaed the fees and mileage prescribed by law; to each examiner a reasonable sum for his services and for travel; to persons, including county welfare or public health personnel, conveying the patient to the place of detention, disbursements for the travel, board, and lodging of the patient and of themselves and their authorized assistants; and to the patient's counsel, when appointed by the court, a reasonable sum for travel and for each day or portion thereof actually employed in court or actually consumed in preparing for the hearing. Upon the order the county auditor shall issue a warrant on the county treasurer for payment of the amounts allowed.

(b) When the settlement of the patient is found to be in another county, the court shall transmit to the county auditor a statement of the expenses of the taking into custody, confinement, examination, commitment, conveyance to the place of detention, and rehearing. The auditor shall transmit the statement to the auditor of the county of the patient's settlement and this claim shall be paid as other claims against that county. Sec. 4. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 260.121, Subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. Except where otherwise provided, venue for any proceedings under section 260.111 shall be in the county where the child is found, or the county of his residence. Subd. 2. The judge of the juvenile court may transfer any proceedings brought under section 260.111, except adoptions, to the juvenile court of a county having venue as provided in subdivision 1, at any stage of the proceedings and in the following manner. When it appears that the best interests of the child, society, or the convenience of proceedings will be served by a transfer, the court may transfer the case to the juvenile court of the county of the child's residence. With the consent of the receiving court, the court may also transfer the case to the juvenile court of the county where the child is found or, if delinquency, habitual truancy, running away, a juvenile petty offense, juvenile alcohol or controlled substance offense or a juvenile traffic offense is alleged, to the county where the alleged delinquency, habitual truancy, running away, juvenile petty offense, juvenile alcohol or controlled substance offense or juvenile traffic offense occurred. The court transfers the case by ordering a continuance and by forwarding to the clerk of the appropriate juvenile court a certified copy of all papers filed, together with an order of transfer. The judge of the receiving court may accept the findings of the transferring court or he may direct the filing of a new petition or notice under section 6 or 11 and hear the case anew.

Sec. 6. [260.132] [PROCEDURE; HABITUAL TRUANTS, RUNAWAYS, JUVENILE PETTY OFFENDERS.]

Subdivision 1. [NOTICE.] When a peace officer, or attendance officer in the case of an habitual truant, has probable cause to believe that a child is a runaway, an habitual truant, or a juvenile petty offender, the officer may issue a notice to the child to appear in juvenile court in the county in which the child is found or in the county of his residence or, in the case of a juvenile petty offense, the county in which the offense was committed. The officer shall file a copy of the notice to appear with the juvenile court of the appropriate county. If a child fails to appear in response to the notice provided by this subdivision, the court may issue a summons notifying the child of the nature of the offense alleged and the time and place set for the hearing. If the peace officer finds it necessary to take the child into custody, sections 260.165 and 260.171 shall apply.

Subd. 2. [EFFECT OF NOTICE.] Filing with the court a notice to appear containing the name and address of the child, specifying the offense alleged and the time and place it was committed, shall have the effect of a petition giving the juvenile court jurisdiction. In the case of running away, the place where the offense was committed may be stated in the notice as either the child's custodial parent's or guardian's residence or lawful placement or where the child was found by the officer. In the case of truancy, the place where the offense was committed may be stated as the school or the place where the child was found by the officer.

Subd. 3. [NOTICE TO PARENT.] Whenever a notice to appear or petition is filed alleging that a child is a runaway, an habitual truant, or a juvenile petty offender, the court shall summon and notify the person or persons having custody or control of the child of the nature of the offense alleged and the time and place of hearing. This summons and notice shall be served in the time and manner provided in section 260.135, subdivision 1.

Sec. 7. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 260.151, is amended to read:

260.151 [INVESTIGATION; PHYSICAL AND MENTAL EXAMINATION.]

Subdivision 1. Upon request of the court the county welfare board or probation officer shall investigate the personal and family history and environment of any minor coming within the jurisdiction of the court under section 260.111 and shall report its findings to the court. The court may order any minor coming within its jurisdiction to be examined by a duly qualified physician, psychiatrist, or psychologist appointed by the court. With the consent of the commissioner of corrections and agreement of the county to pay the costs thereof, the court may, by order, place a minor coming within its jurisdiction in an institution maintained by the commissioner for the detention, diagnosis, custody and treatment of persons adjudicated to be delinquent, an habitual truant, a runaway, a juvenile petty offender, or a juvenile alcohol or controlled substance offender in order that the condition of the minor be given due consideration in the disposition of the case. Adoption investigations shall be conducted in accordance with the laws relating to adoptions. Any funds received under the provisions of this subdivision or under the provisions of section 260.175, clause (d) shall not cancel until the end of the fiscal year immediately following the fiscal year in which the funds were received. The funds are available for use by the commissioner of corrections during that period, and are hereby appropriated annually to the commissioner of corrections as reimbursement of the costs of providing these services to the juvenile courts.

Subd. 2. The court may proceed as described in subdivision 1 only after a petition has been filed and, in delinquency, habitual truancy, runaway, juvenile petty offender, or juvenile alcohol or controlled substance offender cases, after the child has appeared before the court or a court appointed referee and has been informed of the allegations contained in the petition. However, when the child denies before the court or court appointed referee that he is delinquent, an habitual truant, a runaway, or a juvenile petty offender, or juvenile alcohol or controlled substance offender, the investigation or examination shall not be conducted before a hearing has been held as provided in section 260.155.

Sec. 8. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 260.155, Subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [GENERAL.] Except for hearings arising under section 260.261, hearings on any matter shall be without a jury and may be conducted in an informal manner. The rules of evidence promulgated pursuant to section 480.0591 and the law of evidence shall apply in adjudicatory proceedings involving a child alleged to be delinquent, an habitual truant, a runaway, a juvenile petty offender, or a juvenile alcohol or controlled substance offender, and hearings conducted pursuant to section 260.125 except to the extent that the rules themselves provide that they do not apply. Hearings may be continued or adjourned from time to time and, in the interim, the court may make such orders as it deems in the best interests of the minor in accordance with the provisions of sections 260.011 to 260.301.

The court shall exclude the general public from these hearings and shall admit only those persons who, in the discretion of the court, have a direct interest in the case or in the work of the court. In all delinquency cases a person named in the charging clause of the petition as a person directly damaged in person or property shall be entitled, upon request, to be notified by the clerk of court in writing, at his last known address, of (1) the date of the reference or adjudicatory hearings, and (2) the disposition of the case. Adoption hearings shall be conducted in accordance with the provisions of laws relating to adoptions.

Sec. 9. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 260.173, Subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. If the child had been taken into custody and detained as one who is alleged to be delinquent, an habitual truant, a runaway, a juvenile petty offender, or a juvenile alcohol or controlled substance offender by reason of:

(a) (BEING UNCONTROLLED BY HIS PARENT, GUARDIAN, OR OTHER CUSTODIAN BECAUSE OF WAYWARDNESS OR HABITUAL DISOBEDIENCE; OR)

((B)) Having committed an offense which would not constitute a violation of a state law or local ordinance if he were an adult; or

((C)) (b) Having been previously adjudicated delinquent, habitually truant, a runaway, a juvenile petty offender, or a juvenile alcohol or controlled substance offender, or conditionally released by the juvenile court without adjudication (OF DELINQUENCY), has violated his probation, parole, or other field supervision under which he had been placed as a result of behavior described in this subdivision; he may be placed only in a shelter care facility.

Sec. 10. [260.192] [DISPOSITIONS; CHILDREN WHO ARE HABITUALLY TRUANT, RUNAWAYS, OR JUVENILE PETTY OFFENDERS.]

Subdivision 1. [DISPOSITIONS PERMITTED.] If the court finds that the child is an habitual truant, a runaway, or a juvenile petty offender, it shall enter an order making any of the following dispositions of the case which it deems necessary to the rehabilitation of the child:

(a) Counsel the child or his parents, guardian, or custodian;

(b) Place the child under the supervision of a probation officer or other suitable person in the child's own home under conditions prescribed by the court, including reasonable rules for the child's conduct and the conduct of his parents, guardian, or custodian, designed for the physical, mental, and moral well-being and behavior of the child; or with consent of the commissioner of corrections, in a group foster care facility which is under the commissioner's management and supervision;

(c) Subject to the supervision of the court, transfer legal custody of the child to one of the following:

(1) A child placing agency; or

(2) The county welfare board; or

(3) A reputable individual of good moral character. No person may receive custody of two or more unrelated children unless he or she is licensed as a residential facility pursuant to sections 245.781 to 245.813; or

(4) A county probation officer for placement in a group foster home established under the direction of the juvenile court and licensed pursuant to section 241.021;

(d) Require the child to pay a fine of up to $100; the court shall order payment of the fine in a manner that will not impose undue financial hardship upon the child, and may impose an installment payment schedule for this purpose;

(e) If the child is in need of special treatment and care for his physical or mental health, the court may order the child's parent, guardian, or custodian to provide it. If the parent, guardian, or custodian fails to provide this treatment or care, the court may order it provided;

(f) Require the child to participate in a community service project;

(g) Order the child to undergo a chemical dependency evaluation and if warranted by the evaluation, order participation by the child in a drug awareness program, or an inpatient or outpatient chemical dependency treatment program;

(h) Require the child to perform any other activities or participate in any other treatment programs deemed appropriate by the court;

(i) If the court believes that it is in the best interests of the child and of public safety that the child's driver's license be cancelled, the court may recommend to the commissioner of public safety that the child's license be cancelled for any period up to the child's 18th birthday, and the commissioner is hereby authorized to cancel the license without a hearing. At any time before the expiration of the period of cancellation, the court may, for good cause, recommend to the commissioner of public safety that the child be authorized to apply for a new license, and the commissioner may so authorize.

Any order for a disposition authorized by this section shall contain written findings of fact to support the disposition ordered, and shall also set forth in writing the following information:

(a) Why the best interests of the child are served by the disposition ordered; and

(b) What alternative dispositions were considered by the court and why those dispositions were not appropriate in the instant case.

Subd. 2. [EXPUNGEMENT.] The court may expunge the adjudication of a child as an habitual truant, a runaway, or juvenile petty offender at any time it deems advisable.

Subd. 3. [CONTINUANCE.] When it is in the best interests of the child to do so and when the child has admitted the allegations contained in the notice before the judge or referee, or when a hearing has been held as provided for in section 260.155 and the allegations contained in the notice have been duly proven but, in either case, before a finding of habitual truancy, running away, or juvenile petty offense has been entered, the court may continue the case for a period not to exceed 90 days, and only after the court has reviewed the case and entered its order for an additional continuance without a finding of habitual truancy, running away, or petty juvenile offense.

Subd. 4. [SUPERVISION; DURATION; RENEWAL.] All orders for supervision under subdivision 1, clause (b) shall be for an indeterminate period unless otherwise specified by order of the court, and shall be reviewed by the court at least annually. All orders under subdivision 1, clause (c) shall be for a specified length of time set by the court. However, before an order has expired and upon the court's own motion or that of any interested party, the court has continuing jurisdiction to renew the order or, after notice to the parties and a hearing, make some other disposition of the case, until the individual is no longer a minor. Any person to whom legal custody is transferred shall report to the court in writing at such periods as the court may direct.

Subd. 5. [TRANSFER OF CUSTODY; REPORT.] When the court transfers legal custody of a juvenile petty offender, an habitual truant, or a runaway child to a licensed child placing agency or county welfare board, it shall transmit with the order transferring legal custody a copy of its findings and a summary of its information concerning the child.

Sec. 11. [260.194] [JUVENILE ALCOHOL OR CONTROLLED SUBSTANCE OFFENDER; PROCEDURES; DISPOSITIONS.]

Subdivision 1. [ADJUDICATION.] A child who violates section 340.035, subdivision 1, clause (4), (5), or (6), section 340.731 with respect to alcohol, section 152.09, subdivision 1, clause (2) with respect to a small amount of marijuana, or local ordinance equivalent therewith, shall be adjudicated a "juvenile alcohol offender or juvenile controlled substance offender," and shall not be adjudicated delinquent, unless, as in the case of any other child alleged to be delinquent, a petition is filed in the manner provided in section 260.131, summons issued, notice given, a hearing held, and the court finds as a further fact that the child is also delinquent within the meaning and purpose of the laws related to juvenile courts.

Subd. 2. [PROCEDURE.] When a peace officer has probable cause to believe that a child has committed a violation of section 340.035, subdivision 1, clause (4), (5), or (6), section 340.731, section 152.09, subdivision 1, clause (2) with respect to a small amount of marijuana, or local ordinance equivalent therewith, the officer may issue a notice to the child to appear in juvenile court in the county in which the alleged violation occurred. The officer shall file a copy of the notice to appear with the juvenile court of the county in which the alleged violation occurred. Any reputable person having knowledge of a child's violation of section 340.035, subdivision 1, clause (4), (5), or (6), section 340.731, section 152.09, subdivision 1, clause (2), with respect to a small amount of marijuana, or local ordinance equivalent therewith, may petition the juvenile court in the manner provided in section 260.131. Whenever a notice to appear or petition is filed alleging that a child has violated section 340.035, subdivision 1, clause (4), (5), or (6), section 340.731, section 152.09, subdivision 1, clause (2), with respect to a small amount of marijuana, or local ordinance equivalent therewith, the court shall summon and notify the person or persons having custody or control of the child of the nature of the offense charged and the time and place of hearing. This summons and notice shall be served in the time and manner provided in section 260.135, subdivision 1. If a child fails to appear in response to the notice provided by this subdivision, the court may issue a summons notifying the child of the nature of the offense alleged and the time and place set for the hearing. If the peace officer finds it necessary to take the child into custody, sections 260.165 and 260.171 shall apply.

Subd. 3. [DISPOSITIONS.] If the juvenile court finds that a child has violated section 340.035, subdivision 1, clause (4), (5), or (6), section 340.731, section 152.09, subdivision 1, clause (2) with respect to a small amount of marijuana, or local ordinance equivalent therewith, the court may require the child to:

None of the dispositional alternatives described in this subdivision shall be imposed by the court in a manner which would cause an undue hardship upon the child.

Subd. 4. [ALTERNATIVE DISPOSITION.] In addition to dispositional alternatives authorized by subdivision 3, in the case of a third or subsequent finding by the court pursuant to an admission in court or after trial that a child has committed an offense in violation of sections 340.035, subdivision 1, clause (4), (5), or (6), section 340.731, with respect to alcohol, section 152.09, subdivision 1, clause (2), with respect to a small amount of marijuana, or local ordinance equivalent therewith, the juvenile court shall order a chemical dependency evaluation of the child and if warranted by the evaluation, the court may order participation by the child in an inpatient or outpatient chemical dependency treatment program, or any other treatment deemed appropriate by the court.

Subd. 5. [FINDINGS REQUIRED.] Any order for disposition authorized by this section shall contain written findings of fact to support the disposition ordered, and shall also set forth in writing the following information:

Subdivision 1. [TRAFFIC OFFENSE; DEFINITION.] For purposes of this section, "traffic offense" means any violation of a state or local traffic law, ordinance, or regulation, or a federal, state, or local water traffic law or ordinance.

Subd. 2. [TRAFFIC VIOLATIONS; JURISDICTION.] A child who commits a traffic offense and at the time of the offense was 15 years old or older shall be subject to the laws and court procedures governing adult traffic violators, except that the court shall not commit a juvenile traffic offender to serve any imprisonment sentence unless the court finds that the child has committed one or more major traffic violations and that the welfare of the child or the public safety would be better served by service of an imprisonment sentence than by other dispositions available to the court, and the juvenile traffic offender shall not be under the jurisdiction of the juvenile court. A child under the age of 15 years who commits a traffic offense shall be under the jurisdiction of the juvenile court.

260.315 [CONTRIBUTING TO NEGLECT OR DELINQUENCY.]

Subdivision 1. [ACTS CONSTITUTING.] Any person who by act, word or omission encourages, causes or contributes to the neglect or delinquency of a child, and (SUCH) the act, word or omission is not by other provisions of law declared to be a felony, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor. A person may be charged and convicted under this section although the child involved is not the subject of a delinquency or neglect proceeding.

Subd. 2. [EVIDENCE.] In determining whether a person has contributed to the neglect or delinquency of a minor, the court may consider evidence, including but not limited to the following:

(a) That the person harbored the child within the person's home for more than 24 hours, with knowledge that the child did not have his parent's, guardian's, or other custodian's consent to be there, without making a reasonable effort to notify the child's parent, guardian, or other custodian of the child's whereabouts;

(b) That the person charged intentionally assisted the child to absent from his or her home or other lawful placement without the consent of the child's parent, guardian, or other custodian by providing the child with transportation, food, shelter, or financial assistance to enable the child to absent.

Clauses (a) and (b) shall not apply to a shelter for runaways licensed by the commissioner of public welfare, which makes a reasonable effort to notify the parent or guardian of a runaway child within 24 hours after the child arrives at the shelter. A licensed shelter for runaways is not required to transport a child to his or her parents or to refuse shelter to a child even if the child's parent refuses to consent to the child's remaining at the shelter, but may permit the parent to remove the child from the shelter.

Subd. 3. [DEFENSE.] If the wrongful conduct alleged as contributing to delinquency is harboring a child without the parent's, guardian's, or custodian's consent, it shall be a defense to a charge of contributing to the delinquency of a child that the person charged harbored the child in the person's home solely because the person reasonably believed that the child had been physically or sexually abused by the child's parent, guardian or other custodian; or by a person known to the parent, guardian, or other custodian and the parent, guardian, or other custodian failed or refused to report the abuse to proper authorities.

Sec. 7. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 540.18, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. The parent or guardian of the person of a minor who is under the age of 18 and who is living with the parent or guardian and who willfully or maliciously causes injury to any person or damage to any property is jointly and severally liable with such minor for such injury or damage to an amount not exceeding ($500) $1,000, if (SUCH) the minor would have been liable for (SUCH) the injury or damage if he had been an adult. Nothing in this subdivision shall be construed to relieve (SUCH) the minor from personal liability for (SUCH) the injury or damage. The liability provided in this subdivision is in addition to and not in lieu of any other liability which may exist at law. Recovery under this section shall be limited to special damages.

Subd. 1a. [TOTAL LIABILITY.] The liability limit of $1,000 in subdivision 1 means that the combined liability of both parents or all guardians in the case where the child is living with two parents or more than one guardian at the time of the injury shall not exceed $1,000.

Subd. 1b. [ACCESS TO JUVENILE COURT RECORDS.] Notwithstanding the provisions of section 260.161, except when an action is brought in conciliation court, a person who brings an action or asserts a counterclaim or cross-claim against a person for civil damages under subdivision 1 may make a motion to the court in which the action was filed for permission to inspect the juvenile court records, if any, relating to the act which caused the injury for which the civil damages are claimed. The juvenile court shall make these records available to the court in which the civil action is pending, or certify to the court that no such record exists. The court in which the civil action is pending shall make an in camera inspection of those records and determine whether or not the interests of justice require that all or a portion of those records be disclosed to the moving party to obtain evidence to prove his or her claim or defense.

If the court decides that all or a portion of the juvenile court records should be disclosed to the moving party, the court may make any protective order it deems necessary to protect the confidentiality of the contents of the records.

Any person who obtains access to a juvenile court record pursuant to this subdivision shall not disclose any portion of its contents to any other person except as the court may authorize. The court shall not authorize disclosure to any person other than the parties to the civil action and their attorneys.

Any person who makes a disclosure not authorized by the court pursuant to this section is guilty of a misdemeanor.

Subd. 2. This section shall not apply to persons having custody or charge of any minor under the authority of the welfare or corrections department of the state.

Subd. 5a. [PEACE OFFICER AGENT FOR NOTICE OF REVOCATION.] On behalf of the commissioner of public safety a peace officer offering a chemical test or directing the administration of a chemical test may serve immediate notice of intention to revoke and of revocation on a person who refuses to permit chemical testing or on a person who submits to a chemical test the results of which indicate an alcohol concentration of 0.10 or more. Within 15 days of receiving the request the commissioner shall report in writing the results of his review.

Sec. 4. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 169.123, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 5c. [PETITION FOR JUDICIAL REVIEW.] Within 30 days following receipt of a notice and order of revocation pursuant to this section, a person may petition the court for review. The petition shall be filed with the clerk of county or municipal court in the county where the alleged offense occurred, together with proof of service of a copy on the commissioner of public safety, and accompanied by the standard filing fee for civil actions. No responsive pleading shall be required of the commissioner of public safety, and no court fees shall be charged for his appearance in the matter.

The petition shall be captioned in the name of the person making the petition as petitioner and the commissioner of public safety as respondent. The petition shall state with specificity the grounds upon which the petitioner seeks rescission of the order of revocation or denial.

Judicial reviews shall be conducted according to the rules of civil procedure.

Sec. 5. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 169.123, Subdivision 6, is amended to read:

The hearing shall be recorded. The commissioner of public safety may appear through his own attorney or, by agreement with the jurisdiction involved, through the prosecuting authority for that jurisdiction.

The hearing shall be held at the earliest practicable date, and in any event no later than 60 days following the filing of the petition for review. The judicial district administrator shall establish procedures to ensure efficient compliance with the provisions of this subdivision. To accomplish this, the administrator shall, whenever possible, consolidate and transfer review hearings among the county courts within the judicial district.

The scope of the hearing shall (COVER) be limited to the issues of:

(1) whether the peace officer had reasonable and probable grounds to believe the person was driving, operating, or in physical control of a motor vehicle while under the influence of alcohol or a controlled substance, and whether the person was lawfully placed under arrest for violation of section 169.121, or the person was involved in a motor vehicle accident or collision resulting in property damage, personal injury or death, or the person refused to take a screening test provided for by section 169.121, subdivision 6, or the screening test was administered and recorded an alcohol concentration of 0.10 or more; and

(2) whether at the time of the request for the test the peace officer informed the person of his rights and the consequences of taking or refusing the test as required by subdivision 2; and

(3) either (a) whether the person refused to permit the test, or (b) whether a test was taken and the test results indicated an alcohol concentration of 0.10 or more at the time of testing, and whether the testing method used was valid and reliable, and whether the test results were accurately evaluated.

It shall be an affirmative defense for the (PERSON) petitioner to prove, that at the time of the refusal, that his refusal to permit the test was based upon reasonable grounds.

Certified or otherwise authenticated copies of laboratory or medical personnel reports, records, documents, licenses and certificates shall be admissible as substantive evidence.

The court shall order either that the revocation be rescinded or sustained and forward the order to the commissioner of public safety. The court shall file its order within 14 days following the hearing. If the revocation is sustained, the court shall also forward the person's driver's license or permit to the commissioner of public safety for his further action if the license or permit is not already in the commissioner's possession.

Sec. 6. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 169.123, Subdivision 7, is amended to read:

THE PETITION SHALL BE FILED WITH THE CLERK OF THE COURT TOGETHER WITH PROOF OF SERVICE OF A COPY THEREOF ON THE COMMISSIONER OF PUBLIC SAFETY. IT IS THE DUTY OF THE COURT TO SET THE MATTER FOR HEARING ON A DAY CERTAIN WITH REASONABLE NOTICE THEREOF TO THE PARTIES. THE HEARING SHALL BE ON THE RECORD AND SHALL BE CONDUCTED IN THE SAME MANNER PROVIDED IN SECTIONS 487.39 AND 484.63 FOR APPEAL OF MISDEMEANOR CONVICTIONS) Any party aggrieved by the decision of the reviewing court may appeal the decision to the district court as provided in sections 484.63 and 487.39.

judgment accordingly. The petition shall be heard by the court without a jury and may be heard in or out of term. The commissioner may appear in person, or by his agents or representatives, and may present his evidence upon the hearing by affidavit by himself, his agents, or representatives. The petitioner may present his evidence by affidavit, except that the petitioner must be present in person at such hearing for the purpose of cross-examination. In the event the department shall be sustained in these proceedings, the petitioner shall have no further right to make further petition to any court for the purpose of obtaining a driver's license until after the expiration of one year after the date of such hearing.

H. F. No. 275, A bill for an act relating to optometrists; requiring advice to patients under certain conditions; proposing new law coded in Minnesota Statutes, Chapter 148.

Reported the same back with the following amendments:

"Section 1. [148.571] [USE OF TOPICAL OCULAR DRUGS.]

Subdivision 1. [AUTHORITY.] Subject to the provisions of sections 1 to 5, a licensed optometrist may administer topical ocular drugs to the anterior segment of the human eye during an eye examination in the course of his or her practice in his or her normal practice setting, solely for the purposes of determining the refractive, muscular, or functional origin of sources of visual discomfort or difficulty, and detecting abnormalities which may be evidence of disease.

Subd. 2. [DRUGS SPECIFIED.] For purposes of sections 1 to 5, "topical ocular drugs" means:

(1) commercially prepared topical anesthetics as follows: proparacaine HC1 0.5 percent, tetracaine HC1 0.5 percent, and benoxinate HC1 0.4 percent;

(2) commercially prepared mydriatics as follows: phenylephrine HC1 in strength not greater than 2.5 percent and hydroxyamphetamine HBr in strength not greater than 1 percent; and

(3) commercially prepared cycloplegics/mydriatics as follows: tropicamide in strength not greater than 1 percent and cyclopentolate in strength not greater than 1 percent.

Sec. 2. [148.572] [ADVICE TO SEEK DIAGNOSIS AND TREATMENT.]

Whether or not topical ocular drugs have been used, if any licensed optometrist is informed by a patient or determines from examining a patient, using judgment and that degree of skill, care, knowledge and attention ordinarily possessed and exercised by optometrists in good standing under like circumstances, that there is present in that patient signs or symptoms which may be evidence of disease, then the licensed optometrist shall (1) promptly advise that patient to seek evaluation by an appropriate licensed physician for diagnosis and possible treatment and (2) not attempt to treat such condition by the use of drugs or any other means.

Sec. 3. [148.573] [PREREQUISITES TO DRUG USE.]

Subdivision 1. [CERTIFICATE REQUIRED.] A licensed optometrist shall not purchase, possess or administer any topical ocular drugs unless, after the effective date of this section the optometrist has obtained a certificate from the board of optometry certifying that the optometrist has complied with the following requirements:

(a) Successful completion of 60 classroom hours of study in general and clinical pharmacology as it relates to the practice of optometry, with particular emphasis on the use of topical ocular drugs for examination purposes. At least 30 of the 60 classroom hours shall be in ocular pharmacology and shall emphasize the systemic effects of and reactions to topical ocular drugs, including the emergency management and referral of any adverse reactions that may occur. The course of study shall be approved by the board of optometry, and shall be offered by an institution which is accredited by a regional or professional accreditation organization recognized or approved by the Council on Post-secondary Education or the United States Department of Education or their successors. The course shall be completed prior to entering the examination required by this section;

The plan must be approved by the board of optometry and shall, at least, require the optometrist to:

(1) Refer patients who notify the optometrist of an adverse drug reaction to appropriate medical specialists or facilities;

(2) Routinely advise the patient to immediately contact the optometrist if the patient experiences an adverse reaction;

(3) Place in the patient's permanent record information describing any adverse drug reaction experienced by the patient, and the date and time that any referral was made; and

(4) Include in the plan the names of at least three physicians, physician clinics, or hospitals to whom the optometrist will refer patients who experience an adverse drug reaction. At least one of these physicians shall be skilled in the diagnosis and treatment of diseases of the eye.

Subd. 2. [EXCEPTION.] The course and examination required by clauses (a) and (b) of subdivision 1 shall be completed after the effective date of this section except that the board of optometry may certify applicants who have graduated from an accredited school of optometry within two years prior to the effective date of sections 1 to 5 if the school's curriculum includes a course and examination meeting the requirements of clauses (a) and (b) of subdivision 1.

Subdivision 3. [CONSULTATION REQUIRED.] Approvals of the course, examination and emergency plan required by clauses (a), (b) and (d) of subdivision 1 shall be given by the board of optometry only after consultation with the board of

(c) The facility or project was operating within the terms of its permit or license.

(a) For damages as a result of acts taken or omitted in preparation for, or in the course of rendering care, assistance, or advice to the director or agency pursuant to section 14 or in accordance with the national hazardous substance response plan pursuant to the Federal Superfund Act, under 42 U.S.C. Section 9605, or at the direction of an on-scene coordinator appointed under that plan, with respect to an incident creating a danger to public health or welfare or the environment as a result of any release or threatened release of a hazardous substance;

(b) For damages or response costs as a result of the release or threatened release of a hazardous substance from a hazardous waste facility as defined under section 115A.03, for which a permit has been issued pursuant to section 116.07 or pursuant to subtitle C of the Solid Waste Disposal Act, 42 U.S.C. Section 6921 et seq., if the hazardous substance is specifically identified in the permit and the release is within the limits allowed in the permit for release of that substance;

(c) For damages or response costs as a result of a release or threatened release of a hazardous substance if the substance is specifically identified in a federal or state permit and the release is within the limits allowed in the permit for release of that substance; or

(d) If his liability has been transferred to and assumed by the federal post-closure liability fund pursuant to the Federal Superfund Act, under 42 U.S.C. Section 9607(k).

Sec. 5. [115B.05] [PROVING CAUSATION OF PERSONAL INJURY OR DISEASE.]

Subdivision 1. [RELEVANT EVIDENCE.] In adjudicating under sections 1 to 12 the question of whether a plaintiff's personal injury or disease was caused by the release of a hazardous substance, any evidence tending to establish that the hazardous substance causes, contributes to or increases the risk of injury or disease of the sort suffered by the plaintiff is relevant evidence on the issue of causation including:

(a) Evidence indicating an increase of incidence of that sort or injury or disease in the population exposed to the release of that substance above that which is otherwise probable;

(b) Results of epidemiological studies;

(c) Results of animal studies;

(d) Results of tissue culture studies; and

(e) Results of laboratory or toxicologic studies.

Subd. 2. [BURDEN OF PRODUCING EVIDENCE.] In adjudicating under sections 1 to 12 the question of whether a plaintiff's personal injury or disease was caused by the release of a hazardous substance, the burden of producing evidence related to causation shifts to the defendant and the question shall be submitted to the trier of fact if the plaintiff shows evidence sufficient to enable the trier of fact to find that:

(a) There is a reasonable likelihood that the plaintiff was exposed to the hazardous substance found in the release;

(b) There is a reasonable likelihood that exposure to the hazardous substance causes or significantly contributes to injury or disease of the sort suffered by the plaintiff; and

(c) There is a reasonable likelihood that the quantity or duration of the plaintiff's exposure to the hazardous substance is sufficient to cause or significantly contribute to injury or disease of the sort suffered by the plaintiff.

Nothing in this subdivision affects the burden of persuasion on the question of whether the release of a hazardous substance caused a personal injury or disease. That burden remains with the plaintiff.

Sec. 6. [115B.06] [APPORTIONMENT OF LIABILITY; LIMITATION; CONTRIBUTION.]

Subdivision 1. [APPORTIONMENT FACTORS.] For the purposes of subdivisions 2 and 3, any person held jointly and severally liable under section 3 may seek an apportionment of the common liability. In apportioning the liability of any party under this section, the trier of fact shall consider the following:

(a) The ability of the party to demonstrate that his contribution to a release of a hazardous substance can be distinguished;

(b) The amount of hazardous substance involved;

(c) The degree of toxicity of the hazardous substance involved;

(d) The degree of involvement and care exercised in manufacturing, treating, transporting, and disposing of the hazardous substance;

(e) The degree of cooperation with federal, state, or local officials to prevent any harm to the public health or the environment; and

(f) Knowledge of the hazardous nature of the substance.

Subd. 2. [LIMITATION OF LIABILITY.] If a person who is held jointly and severally liable under section 3 is able to demonstrate by a preponderance of evidence that his share of the common liability can be apportioned and that his actions were not a significant factor in causing or contributing to the release or the damages resulting from it, then the liability of that person shall be limited to his proportionate share of the common liability.

Subd. 3. [CONTRIBUTION.] Any person held jointly and severally liable under section 3 who is required to pay more than that person's proportionate share of the common liability is entitled to seek contribution from any other person liable for the damages to the extent of their proportionate liability.

Sec. 7. [115B.07] [CIVIL PENALTIES; FAILURE TO TAKE REQUESTED ACTIONS.]

The agency may impose a civil penalty of up to $10,000 per day on any person responsible for a release or threatened release of a hazardous substance, pollutant, or contaminant for each day that the person fails to take response actions or to make reasonable progress in completing response actions requested as provided in this section. A request for emergency removal action shall be made by the director. Other requests for response actions shall be made by the agency. The request shall be in writing, shall state the action requested, the reasons for the action, and a reasonable time by which the action must be begun and completed taking into account the urgency of the action for protection of the public health, welfare, and environment.

Any penalty imposed under this section may be recovered by an action brought by the attorney general in the name of the state in connection with an action to recover expenses of the agency under section 14, subdivision 6, or by a separate action in the district court of Ramsey County. All penalties recovered under this section shall be deposited in the fund.

Sec. 8. [115B.08] [AGREEMENTS TO TRANSFER LIABILITY; INSURANCE AND SUBROGATION.]

No indemnification, hold harmless, conveyance, or similar agreement shall be effective to transfer the liability imposed under section 3 from the owner or operator of a facility or from any person who may be liable under section 3 to any other person. Nothing in this section shall be construed:

(a) To prohibit any party who may be liable under section 3 from entering an agreement by which that party is insured, held harmless or indemnified for part or all of that liability;

(b) To prohibit the enforcement of any insurance, hold harmless or indemnification agreement; or

(c) To bar any cause of action brought by a party who may be liable under section 3 or by an insurer or guarantor, whether by right of subrogation or otherwise.

Sec. 9. [115B.09] [STATUTE OF LIMITATIONS.]

No person may recover for any injury or loss pursuant to sections 3 to 11 unless the action is commenced within six years from the date of discovery of the injury or loss.

Sec. 10. [115B.10] [OTHER REMEDIES PRESERVED.]

Nothing in sections 1 to 12 shall affect the right of any person to bring a legal action or use any remedy available under any other provision of state or federal law, including common law, to recover for injury, disease or economic loss resulting from a release of any hazardous substance, or for removal or the costs of removal of that hazardous substance.

Sec. 11. [115B.11] [DOUBLE RECOVERY PROHIBITED.]

A person who recovers response costs or damages pursuant to sections 1 to 12 may not recover the same costs or damages pursuant to any other law. A person who recovers response costs or damages pursuant to any other state or federal law may not recover for the same costs or damages pursuant to sections 1 to 12.

Sec. 12. [115B.12] [APPLICATION OF SECTIONS 1 TO 11.]

Sections 1 to 11 apply to any release or threatened release of a hazardous substance occurring on or after July 1, 1982, including any release which began before July 1, 1982 and continued after that date. Sections 1 to 11 do not apply to a release or threatened release which occurred wholly before July 1, 1982, regardless of the date of discovery of any injury or loss caused by the release or threatened release.

Sec. 13. [115B.13] [DISPOSITION OF FACILITIES.]

Subdivision 1. [CLOSED DISPOSAL FACILITIES; USE OF PROPERTY.] No person shall use any property on or in which hazardous waste remains after closure of a disposal facility as defined in section 115A.03, subdivision 10, in any way that disturbs the integrity of the final cover, liners, or any other components of any containment system, or the function of the disposal facility's monitoring systems, unless the agency finds that the disturbance:

(a) Is necessary to the proposed use of the property, and will not increase the potential hazard to human health or the environment; or

(b) Is necessary to reduce a threat to human health or the environment.

Subd. 2. [RECORDING OF AFFIDAVIT AND NOTATION.] Before any transfer of ownership of any property on which a hazardous substance has been disposed of or which has been contaminated by release of a hazardous substance the owner shall record with the county recorder of the county in which the property is located an affidavit that discloses to any potential transferee:

(a) That the land has been used to dispose of hazardous waste or that the land has been contaminated by a release of a hazardous substance;

(b) The identity, quantity, location, condition and circumstances of the disposal or contamination to the full extent known or ascertainable; and

(c) That the use of the property may be restricted as provided in subdivision 1.

An owner must also file an affidavit within 60 days after any material change in any matter required to be disclosed under clauses (a) to (c) with respect to property for which an affidavit has already been recorded.

When an affidavit is recorded, the owner shall record with the county recorder a notation on the deed to the property which states the existence of a hazardous substance on the property and the place where the recorded affidavit may be found.

If the owner or any subsequent owner of the property removes the hazardous substance, together with any residues, liner, and contaminated underlying and surrounding soil, that owner may record a notation to the deed indicating the removal of the hazardous substance.

Failure to record an affidavit or notation as provided in this subdivision does not affect or prevent any transfer of ownership of the property.

Subd. 3. [DUTY OF COUNTY RECORDER.] The county recorder shall record all affidavits and notations presented to him in accordance with subdivision 2. The affidavits shall be recorded in a manner which will assure their disclosure in the ordinary course of a title search of the subject property.

Subd. 4. [PENALTIES.] (a) Any person who knowingly violates the provisions of subdivision 1 is subject to a civil fine of not more than $100,000, and shall be liable under section 3 for any release or threatened release of any hazardous substance resulting from the violation.

(b) Any person who knowingly fails to record an affidavit or notation as required by subdivision 2 shall be liable under section 3 for any release or threatened release of any hazardous substance from a facility located on that property.

(c) A civil fine may be imposed and recovered by an action brought by a county attorney or by the attorney general in the district court of the county in which the property is located.

(d) Any civil fines recovered under this subdivision shall be deposited in the fund.

Sec. 14. [115B.14] [STATE RESPONSE TO RELEASES OF HAZARDOUS SUBSTANCES.]

Subdivision 1. [REMOVAL AND REMEDIAL ACTION.] Whenever there is a release or substantial threat of release into the environment of any pollutant or contaminant which presents an imminent and substantial danger to the public health or welfare, or whenever a hazardous substance is released or there is a threatened release of a hazardous substance into the environment:

(a) The agency may take any removal or remedial action relating to the hazardous substance, pollutant, or contaminant which the agency deems necessary to protect the public health or welfare or the environment. Before taking any action the agency shall:

(1) Request any responsible party known to the agency to take actions which the agency deems reasonable and necessary to protect the public health, welfare or the environment, stating the reasons for the actions, a reasonable time for beginning and completing the actions taking into account the urgency of the actions for protecting the public health, welfare and environment, and the intention of the agency to take action if the requested actions are not taken as requested; and

(2) Determine that the actions requested by the agency will not be taken by any known responsible party in the manner and within the time requested.

(b) The director may take removal action which he deems necessary to protect the public health, welfare or the environment if the director determines that the release or threatened release constitutes an emergency requiring immediate action to prevent, minimize or mitigate damage to the public health, welfare or the environment. Before taking any action the director shall make reasonable efforts in light of the urgency of the action to follow the procedure provided in clause (a).

No removal action taken by any person shall be construed as an admission of liability for a release or threatened release.

Subd. 2. [POLLUTANT OR CONTAMINANT.] For the purposes of this section, "pollutant" or "contaminant" includes, but is not limited to, any element, substance, compound, or mixture, including disease-causing agents, which after release into the environment and upon exposure, ingestion, inhalation, or assimilation into any organism, either directly from the environment or indirectly by ingestion through food chains, will or may reasonably be anticipated to cause death, disease, behavioral abnormalities, cancer, genetic mutation, physiological malfunctions (including malfunctions in reproduction) or physical deformations, in the organisms or their offspring.

Subd. 3. [OTHER ACTIONS.] Whenever the agency or director is authorized to act pursuant to subdivision 1 or whenever the agency or director has reason to believe that a release of a hazardous substance, pollutant or contaminant has occurred or is about to occur, or that illness, disease, or complaints thereof may be attributable to exposure to a hazardous substance, pollutant, or contaminant, the agency or director may undertake investigations, monitoring, surveys, testing, and other information gathering necessary or appropriate to identify the existence and extent of the release or threat thereof, the source and nature of the hazardous substances, pollutants or contaminants involved, and the extent of danger to the public health or welfare or to the environment. In addition, the agency may undertake planning, legal, fiscal, economic, engineering, architectural, and other studies or investigations necessary or appropriate to plan and direct a response action, to recover the costs thereof, and to enforce the provisions of sections 1 to 14.

Subd. 4. [DUTY TO PROVIDE INFORMATION.] Any person who is responsible for a release or threatened release as provided in section 3, subdivision 2, including a release or threatened release of a pollutant or contaminant, when requested by the agency, or any member, employee or agent thereof who is authorized by the agency, shall furnish to the agency any information which he may have or may reasonably obtain which is relevant to the release or threatened release.

Subd. 5. [ACCESS TO INFORMATION AND PROPERTY.] The agency or any member, employee or agent thereof authorized by the agency, upon presentation of credentials, may:

(a) Examine and copy any books, papers, records, memoranda or data of any person who the agency has reason to believe is responsible for a release or threatened release as provided in section 3, subdivision 2, including a release of a pollutant or contaminant; and

(b) Enter upon any property, public or private, for the purpose of taking any action authorized by this section including obtaining information, examining records, conducting surveys or investigations, and taking removal or remedial action.

Subd. 6. [RECOVERY OF EXPENSES.] Any reasonable and necessary expenses incurred by the agency or director pursuant to this section including administrative and legal expenses may be recovered in a civil action brought by the attorney general under sections 1 to 12 or under any other law. The agency's certification of expenses shall be prima facie evidence that the expenses are reasonable and necessary. Any expenses incurred pursuant to this section which are recovered by the attorney general pursuant to sections 3 to 11 or any other law shall be deposited in the fund and may be appropriated only for additional response actions as provided in section 16, subdivision 2, clause (b) or (c).

Subd. 7. [ACTIONS RELATING TO NATURAL RESOURCES.] For the purpose of this subdivision, the state is the trustee of the air, water and wildlife of the state. An action pursuant to sections 1 to 12 for damages with respect to air, water or wildlife may be brought by the attorney general in the name of the state as trustee for those natural resources. Any damages recovered by the attorney general pursuant to sections 1 to 12 or any other law for injury to, or loss or loss of use of natural resources resulting from the release of a hazardous substance shall be deposited in the fund and may be appropriated only for rehabilitation or restoration of natural resources as provided in section 16, subdivision 2, clause (c).

Subd. 8. [ACTIONS RELATING TO PESTICIDES.] When the commissioner of agriculture has reported an incident involving the release of pesticides under the provisions of section 18A.37, and the agency determines that the incident constitutes a release of a hazardous substance, pollutant or contaminant, the agency shall authorize the commissioner, subject to the provisions of subdivision 11, to take any action which the agency would be authorized to take under subdivisions 1 to 5. Subject to the provisions of section 16, subdivision 3, the agency shall reimburse the commissioner from the fund for the reasonable and necessary expenses incurred in taking those actions and may recover any amount spent from the fund under subdivision 6.

Subd. 9. [ACTIONS RELATING TO OCCUPATIONAL SAFETY AND HEALTH.] The agency, director and the commissioner of labor and industry shall make reasonable efforts to coordinate any actions taken under this section and under sections 182.65 to 182.674 to avoid duplication or conflict of actions or requirements with respect to a release or threatened release affecting the safety of any conditions or place of employment.

Subd. 10. [LIMIT ON ACTIONS BY POLITICAL SUBDIVISIONS.] When the agency or director has requested a person who is responsible for a release or threatened release to take any response action under subdivision 1, no political subdivision shall request or order that person to take any action which conflicts with the action requested by the agency or director.

Subd. 11. [PRIORITIES; RULES.] By August 1, 1982, the agency shall adopt a temporary list of priorities among releases or threatened releases for the purpose of taking remedial action and, to the extent practicable consistent with the urgency of the action, for taking removal action under this section. The temporary list, with any necessary modifications, shall remain in effect until nine months after criteria for determining priorities are published in the national contingency plan pursuant to the Federal Superfund Act, under 42 U.S.C. Section 9605. By that date, the agency shall adopt rules establishing state criteria for determining priorities among releases and threatened releases. After rules are adopted, a permanent priority list shall be established, and may be modified from time to time, according to the criteria set forth in the rules.

The temporary list and the rules required by this subdivision shall be based upon the relative risk or danger to public health or welfare or the environment, taking into account to the extent possible the population at risk, the hazardous potential of the hazardous substances at the facilities, the potential for contamination of drinking water supplies, the potential for direct human contact, the potential for destruction of sensitive ecosystems, the administrative and financial capabilities of the agency, and other appropriate factors.

Sec. 15. [PURPOSES OF FUND, TAXES AND FEES.]

In establishing the environmental response, compensation and compliance fund and imposing the taxes in sections 18 and 19, it is the purpose of the legislature to:

(a) Encourage treatment and disposal of hazardous waste in a manner that adequately protects the public health and welfare and the environment;

(b) Encourage responsible parties to provide the response actions necessary to protect the public and the environment from the effects of the release of hazardous substances;

(c) Encourage the use of alternatives to land disposal of solid and hazardous waste including resource recovery, recycling, neutralization and reduction;

(d) Provide state agencies with the financial resources needed to prepare and implement an effective and timely state response to the release of hazardous substances, including investigation, planning, removal and remedial action;

(e) Compensate local units of government for increased governmental expenses and loss of revenue and to provide other appropriate assistance to mitigate any adverse impact on communities in which commercial hazardous waste processing or disposal facilities are located under the siting process provided in chapter 115A; and

(f) Recognize the environmental and public health costs of land disposal of solid waste and of the use and disposal of hazardous substances and to place the burden of financing state waste management activities on those whose products and services contribute to waste management problems and increase the risks of harm to the public and the environment.

Sec. 16. [ENVIRONMENTAL RESPONSE, COMPENSATION AND COMPLIANCE FUND.]

Subdivision 1. [ESTABLISHMENT.] The environmental response, compensation and compliance fund is created as an account in the state treasury and may be spent only for the purposes provided in subdivision 2.

Subd. 2. [PURPOSES FOR WHICH MONEY MAY BE SPENT.] Subject to appropriation by the legislature the money in the fund may be spent for any of the following purposes:

(a) Preparation by the agency for taking removal or remedial action under section 14, including investigation, monitoring and testing activities, enforcement and compliance efforts relating to the release of hazardous substances;

(b) Removal and remedial actions taken or authorized by the agency or director under section 14 and payment of the state share of the cost of remedial action which may be carried out under a cooperative agreement with the federal government pursuant to the Federal Superfund Act, under 42 U.S.C. Section 9604(c)(3) for actions related to facilities other than those located under the siting authority of chapter 115A;

(c) Removal and remedial actions taken or authorized by the agency or director under section 14 and payment of the state share of the cost of remedial action which may be carried out under a cooperative agreement with the federal government pursuant to the Federal Superfund Act, under 42 U.S.C. Section 9604(c)(3) for actions related to commercial hazardous waste facilities located under the siting authority of chapter 115A;

(d) Compensation to local units of government as provided by law after submission by the waste management board of the report required under section 115A.08, subdivision 5 to mitigate any adverse impact of the location of commercial hazardous waste processing or disposal facilities located pursuant to the siting authority of chapter 115A;

(e) Planning and implementation by the commissioner of natural resources of the rehabilitation, restoration or acquisition of natural resources to remedy injuries or losses to natural resources resulting from the release of a hazardous substance;

(f) Inspection and monitoring by the agency of commercial hazardous waste facilities located under the siting authority of chapter 115A;

(g) Grants by the agency or the waste management board to demonstrate alternatives to land disposal of solid and hazardous waste, for education of persons involved in regulating and handling solid and hazardous waste, and to assist counties to develop comprehensive waste management plans; and

(h) Intervention and environmental mediation by the legislative commission on waste management under chapter 115A.

Subd. 3. [LIMIT ON CERTAIN EXPENDITURES.] The director or agency may not spend any money under subdivision 2, clause (b) or (c) for removal or remedial actions to the extent that the costs of those actions may be compensated from any fund established under the Federal Superfund Act, 42 U.S.C. Section 9600 et seq. The director or agency shall determine the extent to which any of the costs of those actions may be compensated under the federal act based on the likelihood that the compensation will be available in a timely fashion taking into account:

(a) The urgency of the removal or remedial actions and the priority assigned under the Federal Superfund Act to the release which necessitates those actions;

(b) The availability of money in the funds established under the Federal Superfund Act; and

(c) The consistency of any compensation for the cost of the proposed actions under the Federal Superfund Act with the national contingency plan, if such a plan has been adopted under that act.

Subd. 4. [REVENUE SOURCES.] Revenue from the following sources shall be deposited in the environmental response, compensation and compliance fund:

(a) The proceeds of the taxes imposed pursuant to sections 18 and 19, including interest and penalties;

(b) All money recovered by the state under section 14, subdivisions 6 and 7;

(c) All money paid to the agency in matters relating to the enforcement of sections 1 to 13 or any other statute or rule related to the regulation of hazardous waste or hazardous substances, including civil penalties and money paid under any agreement, stipulation or settlement;

(d) All interest attributable to investment of money deposited in the fund; and

(e) All money received in the form of gifts, grants, reimbursement or appropriation from any source for any of the purposes provided in subdivision 2, except federal grants.

Subd. 5. [RECOMMENDATION BY LCWM.] The legislative commission on waste management shall make recommendations on appropriations from the fund to the standing legislative committees on finance and appropriations.

Subd. 6. [REPORT TO LEGISLATURE.] At the end of each fiscal year, the agency shall submit to the senate finance committee, the house appropriations committee and the legislative commission on waste management a report detailing the activities for which money from the environmental response, compensation and compliance fund has been spent during that year.

Sec. 17. [TAXES AND FEES; DEFINITIONS.]

Subdivision 1. [APPLICATION.] The definitions provided in this section apply to sections 17 to 22.

Subd. 2. [COMMISSIONER.] "Commissioner" means the commissioner of revenue.

Subd. 3. [MIXED MUNICIPAL SOLID WASTE.] "Mixed municipal solid waste" means the waste defined in section 115A.02, subdivision 21.

Subd. 4. [SOLID WASTE DISPOSAL FACILITY.] "Solid waste disposal facility" means real or personal property which is primarily used for the land disposal of mixed municipal solid waste.

Subd. 5. [GENERATOR.] "Generator" means a person who generates hazardous waste in this state and who is required to disclose the generation of hazardous waste under the hazardous waste rules of the agency adopted under section 116.07.

Subd. 6. [OPERATOR.] "Operator" means the permittee, owner, or other person in control of the facility under a lease, contract, or other arrangement.

Sec. 18. [SOLID WASTE DISPOSAL TAX.]

Subdivision 1. [AMOUNT OF TAX; APPLICATION.] The operator of any solid waste disposal facility shall pay a tax on solid waste accepted at the facility as follows:

(a) A solid waste disposal facility that weighs the waste which it accepts shall pay a tax of $2 per ton of solid waste accepted;

(b) A solid waste disposal facility which does not weigh the waste which it accepts but which measures the volume of the waste shall pay a tax of 80 cents per cubic yard of waste accepted;

(c) A solid waste disposal facility which does not measure the weight or volume of waste accepted shall pay an annual tax of $1.80 per capita based on the population served by the facility.

The tax imposed under clause (a), (b), or (c) may be reduced by the amount of tax which is attributable to waste accepted by the facility which is separated for recycling or re-use and is not land disposed.

The tax imposed under clause (a), (b), or (c) applies to a solid waste disposal facility operated by a political subdivision only if the political subdivision imposes a charge for the use of the facility on or after January 1, 1982.

Subd. 2. [CONSOLIDATED HEARING ON POPULATION OF SERVICE AREAS.] The tax imposed under subdivision 1, clause (c) shall be based on the population of the area served by a solid waste facility as determined by the agency under this subdivision. By July 1, 1982, the agency shall publish in the state register a list showing each facility subject to tax under subdivision 1, clause (c) and the population of its service area as determined by the agency. By July 1 in each succeeding even-numbered year the agency shall publish a list of those facilities subject to tax under subdivision 1, clause (c) for which the agency has determined a new population figure. For a facility which receives a modified landfill permit under the rules of the agency adopted pursuant to section 116.07, the population shall not be less than the number determined in the permitting process.

The list shall be published with a notice of the right of any operator of a facility subject to tax under subdivision 1, clause (c) to challenge the population determination upon which its tax will be based. A copy of the list and notice shall be sent to each operator subject to tax under subdivision 1, clause (c).

An operator who wishes to challenge the determination of the agency shall notify the agency of his intention and shall provide written evidence to the agency to support his challenge within 30 days of receipt of notice. The agency shall hold a single contested case hearing as necessary to determine any and all challenges to its determination under this subdivision. The hearing shall be completed and the decision of the agency shall be rendered not later than December 1 after the list and notice are published.

The population of a service area as determined under this subdivision shall be conclusive for the purpose of the tax imposed under subdivision 1, clause (c).

Subd. 3. [DISPOSITION OF PROCEEDS.] The proceeds of the tax imposed under this section including any interest and penalties, less the commissioner's costs of administration, shall be deposited in the fund.

Sec. 19. [HAZARDOUS WASTE GENERATOR TAX.]

Subdivision 1. [TAX IMPOSED; EXCLUSIONS.] Each generator of hazardous waste shall pay the tax imposed by this section based upon the volume and destination of the hazardous wastes generated. The generator disclosure forms, annual reports, and hazardous waste management plans required under rules of the agency adopted pursuant to section 116.07 shall be prima facie evidence of the volume and destination of hazardous wastes generated. The tax imposed by this section does not apply to hazardous wastes destined for recycling and reuse or to waste oil.

Subd. 2. [LONG TERM CONTAINMENT WITHOUT TREATMENT.] Hazardous waste destined for long term containment without treatment, including land disposal and long term storage, shall be taxed at the rate of five cents per gallon of liquid or $5 per cubic yard of solid.

Subd. 3. [LONG TERM CONTAINMENT AFTER TREATMENT.] Hazardous waste destined for long term containment after treatment shall be taxed at the rate of four cents per gallon of liquid or $4 per cubic yard of solid.

Subd. 4. [OTHER TREATMENT.] Hazardous waste destined for chemical treatment to produce a material which is not hazardous or which is destined for destructive treatment by incineration or other means shall be taxed at the rate of two cents per gallon of liquid or $2 per cubic yard of solid.

Subd. 5. [ON-SITE TREATMENT; REDUCED TAX.] Hazardous wastes which are treated in a manner provided in subdivision 3 or 4 before the wastes are transported along any public street or highway as defined in section 169.01, subdivision 29, shall be taxed at one-half the rate at which they would otherwise be taxed.

Subd. 6. [DISPOSITION OF PROCEEDS.] The proceeds of the tax imposed under this section including any interest and penalties, less the commissioner's costs of administration, shall be deposited in the fund and may be appropriated for any purpose provided in section 16, subdivision 2, except the purposes provided in clauses (b) and (c) of that subdivision.

Sec. 20. [SEVERABILITY.]

If any tax imposed under section 18 or 19 is found to be invalid because of the purpose for which the proceeds were appropriated or made available under section 16, subdivision 2, the proceeds of that tax shall not be appropriated or available for the objectionable purposes, but the tax shall continue to be imposed and the proceeds shall be appropriated and made available for other purposes provided in section 16, subdivision 2.

Sec. 21. [TAX ADMINISTRATION AND ENFORCEMENT.]

Subdivision 1. [DECLARATION, RETURN AND PAYMENT OF TAX.] Any person required to pay a tax under section 18 or 19 shall file declarations of estimated tax and tax returns, and shall pay estimated and actual taxes due under section 18 or 19 in the manner and at the times provided for payment of corporate income taxes under sections 290.931 to 290.936, as far as practicable. The taxpayer shall file all declarations, returns, taxes, penalties and interest with the commissioner and shall file a copy of the declarations and returns with the agency. The commissioner shall prescribe forms and instructions necessary to implement this subdivision.

Subd. 2. [DUTIES OF THE AGENCY.] The agency shall provide to the commissioner the names and addresses of all persons known to the agency who are subject to tax under section 18 or 19, together with any information which the agency possesses concerning the amount of solid waste accepted or hazardous waste generated and disposed of by those persons. The agency shall notify the commissioner of any suspected inaccurate or fraudulent declaration or return and may audit any person subject to tax under section 18 or 19 when requested by the commissioner.

Subd. 3. [PENALTIES; ENFORCEMENT.] The audit, penalty and enforcement provisions applicable to taxes imposed under chapter 290 apply to the taxes imposed under sections 18 and 19 and those provisions shall be administered by the commissioner.

Subd. 4. [RULES.] The commissioner may adopt temporary and permanent rules necessary to implement the provisions of this section. The agency may adopt temporary and permanent rules necessary to implement the provisions of sections 18 and 19.

Sec. 22. [SOLID AND HAZARDOUS WASTE ADMINISTRATION FEES.]

Subdivision 1. [FEE SCHEDULES.] The agency shall establish fee schedules pursuant to subdivisions 2 and 3 at the beginning of each fiscal year which will raise an amount of fees sufficient to cover the non-federally funded portion of the amount appropriated to the agency for that year for administrative expenses of the solid and hazardous waste division of the agency, excluding any portion of the appropriation for which the legislature provides that fees need not be collected and any amount appropriated under section 16, subdivision 2, clauses (a) and (f). Fees collected from solid waste and hazardous waste activities shall approximate the expenses of the agency for regulation of solid waste and hazardous waste respectively. All fees collected by the agency under this section shall be deposited in the general fund.

Subd. 2. [HAZARDOUS WASTE GENERATOR FEE.] Each generator of hazardous waste shall pay a fee on the hazardous waste which he generates. The agency shall compute the amount of the fee due based on the hazardous waste disclosures submitted by the generators and other information available to the agency. The agency shall annually prepare a statement of the amount of the fee due from each generator. The fee shall be paid quarterly commencing with the first day of the calendar quarter after the date of the statement.

The agency may exempt generators of small quantities of hazardous wastes otherwise subject to the fee if it finds that the cost of administering a fee on those generators is excessive relative to the proceeds of the fee. The fee shall consist of a minimum fee for each generator not exempted by the agency and an additional fee which generally reflects the quantity of wastes generated by the generator.

If any metropolitan counties recover the costs of administering county hazardous waste regulations by charging fees, the fees charged by the agency shall not exceed the fees charged by those counties and the agency shall impose a surcharge on the fees charged by the metropolitan counties and by the agency to reflect the agency's expenses in carrying out its statewide hazardous waste regulatory responsibilities. Metropolitan counties shall remit the proceeds of the surcharge to the agency.

Subd. 3. [FACILITY FEES.] The agency shall charge an original permit fee, a reissuance fee and an annual operator's fee for any solid waste or hazardous waste facility permitted by the agency. The agency may include reasonable and necessary costs of any environmental review required under chapter 116D in the original permit fee for any solid waste or hazardous waste facility.

Sec. 23. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 466.01, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 3. For the purposes of sections 466.01 to 466.15, "release" and "hazardous substance" have the meanings given in section 2.

Sec. 24. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 466.04, Subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [LIMITS; PUNITIVE DAMAGES.] Liability of any municipality on any claim within the scope of sections 466.01 to 466.15 shall not exceed:

(a) $100,000 when the claim is one for death by wrongful act or omission and $100,000 to any claimant in any other case;

(b) $300,000 for any number of claims arising out of a single occurrence;

(c) Twice the limits provided in clauses (a) and (b) when the claim arises out of the release or threatened release of a hazardous substance, whether the claim is brought under sections 1 to 12 or under any other law.

No award for damages on any such claim shall include punitive damages.

Sec. 25. [APPROPRIATION.]

Subdivision 1. [FUND.] The appropriations in this section are from the environmental response, compensation and compliance fund, and are available until July 1, 1983.

Subd. 2. [RESPONSE ACTIONS.] All revenues deposited in the fund before July 1, 1983, except the proceeds of the tax imposed under section 19, and any money recovered under section 14, subdivision 7, are appropriated to the agency for actions under section 16, subdivision 2, clause (b).

Subd. 3. [PREPARATION FOR RESPONSE.] All revenues deposited in the fund before July 1, 1983 as proceeds of the tax imposed under section 19 are appropriated to the agency for the purposes of section 16, subdivision 2, clause (a).

Sections 18 to 21 are effective the day following final enactment except that the taxes imposed by sections 18 and 19 are effective January 1, 1983. Section 22 is effective July 1, 1983. The remaining sections of this act are effective July 1, 1982."

((3)) (5) Who except for the amount of income or resources would qualify for supplemental security income for the aged, blind and disabled, or aid to families with dependent children and is in need of medical assistance; or

((4)) (6) Who is under 21 years of age and in need of medical care that neither he nor his relatives responsible under sections 256B.01 to 256B.26 are financially able to provide; or

((5)) (7) Who is residing in a hospital for treatment of mental disease or tuberculosis and is 65 years of age or older and without means sufficient to pay the per capita hospital charge; and

((6)) (8) Who resides in Minnesota, or, if absent from the state, is deemed to be a resident of Minnesota in accordance with the regulations of the state agency; and

((7)) (9) Who alone, or together with his spouse, does not own real property other than the homestead. For the purposes of this section, "homestead" means the house owned and occupied by the applicant as his dwelling place, together with the land upon which it is situated and an area no greater than two contiguous lots in a platted or laid out city or town or 80 contiguous acres in unplatted land. Occupancy or exemption shall be determined as provided in chapter 510 and applicable law, including continuing exemption by filing notice under section 510.07. Real estate not used as a home may not be retained unless it produces net income applicable to the family's needs or the family is making a continuing effort to sell it at a fair and reasonable price or unless sale of the real estate would net an insignificant amount of income applicable to the family's needs, or unless the commissioner determines that sale of the real estate would cause undue hardship; and

((8)) (10) Who individually does not own more than $2,000 in cash or liquid assets, or if a member of a household with two family members (husband and wife, or parent and child), does not own more than $4,000 in cash or liquid assets, plus $200 for each additional legal dependent. The value of the following shall not be included:

(a) the homestead, and (b) one motor vehicle licensed pursuant to chapter 168 and defined as: (1) passenger automobile, (2) station wagon, (3) motorcycle, (4) motorized bicycle or (5) truck of the weight found in categories A to E, of section 168.013, subdivision 1e; and

(9) (11) Who has or anticipates receiving an annual income not in excess of $2,600 for a single person, or $3,250 for two family members (husband and wife, parent and child, or two siblings), plus $625 for each additional legal dependent, or who has income in excess of these maxima and in the month of application, or during the three months prior to the month of application, incurs expenses for medical care that total more than one-half of the annual excess income in accordance with the regulations of the state agency. In computing income to determine eligibility of persons who are not residents of long term care facilities, the commissioner shall disregard increases in income of social security or supplementary security income recipients due solely to increases required by sections 215(i) and 1617 of the social security act, and shall disregard income of disabled persons that is also disregarded in determining eligibility for supplemental aid under section 256D.37, subdivision 1, unless prohibited by federal law or regulation. If prohibited, the commissioner shall first seek a waiver. In excess income cases, eligibility shall be limited to a period of six months beginning with the first of the month in which these medical obligations are first incurred; and

(10) (12) Who has continuing monthly expenses for medical care that are more than the amount of his excess income, computed on a monthly basis, in which case eligibility may be established before the total income obligation referred to in the preceding paragraph is incurred, and medical assistance payments may be made to cover the monthly unmet medical need. In licensed nursing home and state hospital cases, income over and above that required for justified needs, determined pursuant to a schedule of contributions established by the commissioner of public welfare, is to be applied to the cost of institutional care. The commissioner of public welfare may establish a schedule of contributions to be made by the spouse of a nursing home resident to the cost of care and shall seek a waiver from federal regulations which establish the amount required to be contributed by either spouse when one spouse is a nursing home resident; and

(11) (13) Who has applied or agrees to apply all proceeds received or receivable by him or his spouse from automobile accident coverage and private health care coverage to the costs of medical care for himself, his spouse, and children. The state agency may require from any applicant or recipient of medical assistance the assignment of any rights accruing under private health care coverage. Any rights or amounts so assigned shall by applied against the cost of medical care paid for under this chapter. Any assignment shall not be effective as to benefits paid or provided under automobile accident coverage and private health care coverage prior to receipt of the assignment by the person or organization providing the benefits."

Sec. 3. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 136A.08, is amended to read:

136A.08 [RECIPROCAL AGREEMENTS RELATING TO NONRESIDENT TUITION WITH OTHER STATES.]

Subdivision 1. [AUTHORIZATION FOR AGREEMENTS.] The Minnesota higher education coordinating board (HEREIN REFERRED TO AS THE BOARD), in addition to its general responsibility for cooperatively engaging in planning higher education needs with neighboring states pursuant to section 136A.04, may enter into agreements or understandings which include remission of nonresident tuition for designated categories of students at state institutions of higher education and public area vocational-technical institutes with appropriate state agencies and institutions of higher education in other states to facilitate utilization of public higher education institutions in this state and other states. (SUCH) These agreements shall have as their purpose the mutual improvement of educational advantages for residents of this state and (SUCH) other states or institutions of other states with whom agreements are made.

Subd. 2. [APPROPRIATION LIMITATION.] It is the intention of the legislature to discontinue appropriating money in biennia beginning after June 30, 1985 for nonresident tuition remission agreements except in accordance with the provisions of this section. Agreements and understandings shall be subject to actions of the legislature and legislative appropriation.

Subd. 3. [CONTINUING STUDENTS.] A student who is eligible for remission of nonresident tuition shall continue to remain eligible as long as the student remains in good standing and is a full-time student.

Subd. 4. [DESIGNATED CATEGORIES.] The board may determine students eligible for remission of nonresident tuition to meet the limitation in subdivision 2 by designation of categories of students according to a method selected by the board.

The board may give priority to a student whose residence in Minnesota is within 30 miles of the school the student wishes to attend.

The board may give priority to a student who is admitted to a course of study leading to a degree, associate degree, or certificate in another state when that course of study is not available at an educational institution in this state. The eligibility shall cease when the student changes that course of study or when the student completes the degree in that course of study.

The board may terminate the eligibility of a student who is not in good standing at the school attended.

If necessary to prevent burdensome enrollments in Minnesota post-secondary schools, the total number of students eligible for any school year may decline according to the previous year's decline in enrollment in Minnesota post-secondary schools.

Subd. 5. [AGREEMENT WITH WISCONSIN.] At the discretion of the board, a higher education reciprocity agreement with the state of Wisconsin may include provision for the transfer of funds between Minnesota and Wisconsin provided that an income tax reciprocity agreement between Minnesota and Wisconsin is in effect for the period of time included under the higher education reciprocity agreement. If provision for transfer of funds between the two states is included in a collegiate education reciprocity agreement, the amount of funds to be transferred shall be determined according to a formula which is mutually acceptable to the board and a duly designated agency representing Wisconsin. (SUCH) The formula shall recognize differences in tuition rates between the two states and the number of students attending institutions in each state under the agreement. Any payments to Minnesota by Wisconsin shall be deposited by the board in the general fund of the state treasury. The amount required for the payments shall be certified by the executive director of the higher education coordinating board to the commissioner of finance annually.

Subd. (2) 6. [AGREEMENTS WITH NORTH DAKOTA AND SOUTH DAKOTA.] At the discretion of the board, a reciprocity agreement with North Dakota may include provision for the transfer of funds between Minnesota and North Dakota. If provision for transfer of funds between the two states is included in an agreement, the amount of funds to be transferred shall be determined according to a formula which is mutually acceptable to the board and a duly designated agency representing North Dakota. In adopting a formula, the board shall consider tuition rates in the two states and the number of students attending institutions in each state under the agreement. Any payment to Minnesota by North Dakota shall be deposited by the board in the general fund. The amount required for the payments shall be certified by the executive director of the higher education coordinating board to the commissioner of finance annually. All provisions in this subdivision pertaining to North Dakota shall also be applied to South Dakota and all authority and conditions granted for higher education reciprocity with North Dakota are also granted for higher education reciprocity with South Dakota.

Subd. (3) 7. [STUDENT AID.] The board may enter into an agreement, with a state with which it has negotiated a reciprocity agreement for tuition, to permit students from both states to receive student aid awards from the student's state of residence for attending an eligible institution in the other state.

Subd. (4) 8. [APPROVAL BY VARIOUS BOARDS.] No agreement made by the board pursuant to this section shall be valid as to an area vocational-technical institute without the approval of the state board for vocational education, as to a state university without the approval of the state university board, as to a community college without the approval of the state board for community colleges, and as to the university of Minnesota without the approval of the board of regents of the university of Minnesota.

Subd. 9. [BALANCE IN EACH BIENNIUM.] The board shall administer approval of students for remission of nonresident tuition so that at the end of each biennium beginning after June 30, 1985, no deficit exists between this state and any state with which there is an agreement."

(c) the need for additional affordable mortgage credit to encourage the construction and enable the purchase of housing units within the jurisdiction of the authority.

The authority shall promulgate regulations for the interest reduction program. Interest reduction assistance shall not be provided when the authority determines that financing for the purchase of a housing unit or for the construction or rehabilitation of housing units is otherwise available from private lenders upon terms and conditions which are affordable by the applicant, as provided by the authority in its regulations.

At least 20 percent of the aggregate dollar amount of funds appropriated for interest reduction assistance for housing units within any calendar year by an authority shall be appropriated either (1) for housing units which are held available for rental to families or individuals with an adjusted gross income which is less than 80 percent of the median family income as established by the United States department of housing and urban development for the nonmetropolitan county or standard metropolitan statistical area, as the case may be or (2) for housing units which are to be sold to families or individuals with an adjusted gross income which is less than 100 percent of the median family income as established by the United States department of housing and urban development for the nonmetropolitan county or standard metropolitan statistical area, as the case may be. For* the purpose of carrying out the provisions of sections 462.515 to 462.545, including the defrayment of the (DIFFERENCES BETWEEN THE) public redevelopment cost (AND) minus the capital proceeds if any, which includes the difference between any annual debt service and the annual administrative expenses of the authority allocable to the project and any annual capital proceeds, an authority may, in its discretion, finance such projects in any one, by any combination of, the following methods, which are also dealt with in sections 462.415 to (462.711) 462.705.

Sec. 7. [473.875] [PURPOSES.]

The purpose of the surface water management programs required by sections 7 to 14 is to preserve and use natural water storage and retention systems in order to (a) reduce to the greatest practical extent the public capital expenditures necessary to control excessive volumes and rates of runoff, (b) improve water quality, (c) prevent flooding and erosion from surface flows, (d) promote ground water recharge, (e) protect and enhance fish and wildlife habitat and water recreational facilities, and (f) secure the other benefits associated with the proper management of surface water.

Subd. 2. [CAPITAL IMPROVEMENT PROGRAM.] "Capital improvement program" means an itemized program for at least a five year prospective period, and any amendments to it, subject to at least biennial review, setting forth the schedule, timing, and details of specific contemplated capital improvements by year, together with their estimated cost, the need for each improvement, financial sources, and the financial effect that the improvements will have on the local government unit or watershed management organization.

Subd. 3. [LOCAL COMPREHENSIVE PLAN.] "Local comprehensive plan" has the meaning given it in section 473.852, subdivision 5.

Subd. 4. [LOCAL GOVERNMENT UNIT.] "Local government unit" or "local unit" has the meaning given it in section 473.852.

Subd. 8. [WATERSHED MANAGEMENT ORGANIZATION.] "Watershed management organization" or "organization" means a watershed district wholly within the metropolitan area or an entity established under special law or a joint powers agreement wholly within the metropolitan area which performs some or all of the functions of a watershed district for a watershed and which has the characteristics and the authority specified under section 9.

Sec. 9. [473.877] [WATERSHED MANAGEMENT ORGANIZATION; AUTHORITY.]

Any agreement under section 471.59 to jointly or cooperatively manage or plan for the management of surface water in a watershed wholly within the metropolitan area may provide for a joint board having:

Sec. 10. [473.878] [WATERSHED PLANS.]

Subdivision 1. [REQUIREMENT.] A watershed management plan shall be prepared and adopted for each watershed wholly within the metropolitan area in accordance with the requirements of this section.

Subd. 2. [RESPONSIBLE UNITS.] Where a watershed management organization exists, the plan for the watershed shall be prepared and adopted by the organization. If a watershed management organization is not established by December 31, 1983, for any watershed located wholly outside of Hennepin and Ramsey counties, the county or counties containing the watershed shall prepare and adopt the watershed plan and shall have the planning, review, and permitting authority of a watershed management organization specified in section 9. If a watershed management organization is not established by December 31, 1983, for any watershed wholly or partly within Hennepin or Ramsey counties, the county or counties containing the watershed shall petition for the establishment of a watershed district under chapter 112, provided, however, that a district established pursuant to such a petition shall not have authority to plan or construct storm sewer separation projects without the agreement of all local governments having territory within the district. A watershed management organization may request a county to prepare all or part of a plan. A county may delegate the preparation of all or part of a plan to the county soil and water conservation district. Upon request of a statutory or home rule charter city or town, a county may delegate the preparation of all or part of a plan to the city or town.

Subd. 3. [GENERAL STANDARDS.] The watershed management plan shall extend through the year 1990 or any year thereafter which is evenly divisible by five. The plan shall contain the elements required by subdivision 4. Each element shall be set out in the degree of detail and prescription necessary to accomplish the purposes of sections 7 to 14, considering the character of existing and anticipated physical and hydrogeologic conditions, land use, and development and the severity of existing and anticipated water management problems in the watershed. The plan shall be prepared and submitted for review under subdivision 5 by December 31, 1985. Existing plans of a watershed management organization shall remain in force and effect until amended or superseded by plans adopted under sections 7 to 14. Existing or amended plans of a watershed management organization which meet the requirements of sections 7 to 14 may be submitted for review under subdivision 5.

Subd. 4. [CONTENTS.] The plan shall:

(a) Describe the existing physical environment, land use, and development in the area and the environment, land use, and development proposed in existing local and metropolitan comprehensive plans;

(b) Present information on the hydrologic system and its components and existing and potential problems related thereto;

(c) State objectives and policies, including management principles, alternatives and modifications, water quality, and protection of natural characteristics;

(d) Set forth a management plan, including the hydrologic and water quality conditions that will be sought and significant opportunities for improvement;

(e) Describe conflicts between the watershed plan and existing plans of local government units;

(f) Set forth an implementation program consistent with the management plan, which includes a capital improvement program and standards and schedules for amending the comprehensive plans and official controls of local government units in the watershed to bring about conformance with the watershed plan; and

(g) Set out a procedure for amending the plan.

Subd. 5. [REVIEW.] Upon completion of the plan but before final adoption by the organization, the organization shall submit the plan for review and comment to all counties, towns, and statutory and home rule charter cities having territory within the watershed. Any local government unit which expects that substantial amendment of its local comprehensive plan will be necessary in order to bring local water management into conformance with the watershed plan shall describe as specifically as possible, within its comments, the amendments to the local plan which it expects will be necessary. Sixty days after the submission to local government units for comment, the organization shall submit the plan, any comments received, and any appropriate amendments to the plan, to the board of the county or counties having territory within the watershed. The county shall approve or disapprove projects in the capital improvement program which may require the provision of county funds pursuant to section 112.60, subdivision 2, or section 14. The county shall have 60 days to complete its review of the capital improvement program. If the county fails to complete its review within the prescribed period, unless an extension is agreed to by the organization the program shall be deemed approved. If the watershed extends into more than one county and one or more counties disapprove of all or part of a capital improvement program while the other county or counties approve, the program shall be submitted to the water resources board for review pursuant to subdivision 7.

Subd. 6. [REVIEW BY METROPOLITAN COUNCIL.] After completion of the review under subdivision 5, the plan shall be submitted to the metropolitan council for review. Notwithstanding any provision to the contrary in sections 112.46 and 473.165, the council shall review the plan in the same manner and with the same authority and effect as provided for the council's review of the comprehensive plans of local government units under section 473.175. The council shall comment on the apparent conformity with metropolitan system plans of any anticipated amendments to local comprehensive plans.

Subd. 7. [REVIEW BY STATE AGENCIES.] After completion of the review under subdivision 6, the plan shall be submitted to the commissioner of natural resources and the pollution control agency for review and comment on the consistency of the plan with state laws and rules relating to water and related land resources, and to the water resources board for review under section 112.46. Except as otherwise provided in this subdivision, the water resources board shall review the plan as provided in section 112.46. The board shall review the plan for conformance with the requirements of chapter 112 and sections 7 to 14. The board shall not prescribe a plan, but may disapprove all or parts of a plan which it determines is not in conformance with the requirements of chapter 112 and sections 7 to 14. If the capital improvement program is the subject of a dispute between counties, the water resources board shall make a final decision on the issue. The decision shall be binding on the organization and the counties involved.

Subd. 8. [ADOPTION; IMPLEMENTATION.] The organization shall adopt and implement its plan within 120 days after compliance with the provisions of subdivision 7 and approval of the plan by the water resources board. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in chapter 112, a watershed district may implement its plan and capital improvement program by resolution without petition or further review by the water resources board.

Subd. 9. [AMENDMENTS.] To the extent and in the manner required by the adopted plan, all amendments to the adopted plan shall be submitted to the towns, cities, county, and other agencies for review in accordance with the provisions of subdivisions 5 and 6.

Sec. 11. [473.879] [LOCAL WATER MANAGEMENT PLANS.]

Subdivision 1. [REQUIREMENT.] After the watershed plan is approved and adopted, or amended, pursuant to section 10, each local government unit having territory within the watershed shall prepare or cause to be prepared a local water management plan, capital improvement program, and official controls as necessary to bring local water management into conformance with the watershed plan within the time period prescribed in the implementation program of the watershed plan and, as necessary, shall prepare or cause to be prepared amendments to the local comprehensive plan.

Subd. 2. [STANDARDS; CONTENTS.] Each local plan, in the degree of detail required in the watershed plan, shall:

(a) Describe existing and proposed physical environment and land use;

(b) Define drainage areas and the volumes, rates, and paths of stormwater runoff;

(c) Identify areas and elevations for stormwater storage adequate to meet performance standards established in the watershed plan;

(d) Define water quality and water quality protection methods adequate to performance standards established in the watershed plan;

(e) Identify regulated areas; and

(f) Set forth an implementation program, including a description of official controls and, as appropriate, a capital improvement program.

Subd. 3. [REVIEW.] After consideration but before adoption by the governing body, each local unit shall submit its water management plan to the watershed management organization for review for consistency with the watershed plan adopted pursuant to section 10. The organization shall approve or disapprove the local plan or parts thereof. The organization shall have 60 days to complete its review. If the organization fails to complete its review within the prescribed period, unless an extension is agreed to by the local unit the local plan shall be deemed approved.

Subd. 4. [ADOPTION; IMPLEMENTATION.] After approval of the local plan by the organization, the local government unit shall adopt and implement its plan within 120 days and shall amend its official controls accordingly within 180 days.

Subd. 5. [AMENDMENTS.] To the extent and in the manner required by the organization, all amendments to local water management plans shall be submitted to the organization for review and approval in accordance with the provisions of subdivision 3 for the review of plans.

Sec. 12. [473.880] [EXEMPTION FROM LEVY LIMIT.]

Any levy to pay the increased costs to a local government unit or water shed management organization of implementing sections 10 and 11 or to pay costs of improvements and maintenance of improvements identified in an approved and adopted plan shall be in addition to any other taxes authorized by law and shall be disregarded in the calculation of limits on taxes imposed by chapter 275. Notwithstanding any provision to the contrary in chapter 112, a watershed district may levy a tax sufficient to pay the increased costs to the district of implementing sections 10 and 11. The proceeds of any tax levied under this section shall be deposited in a separate fund and expended only for the purposes authorized by this section.

Sec. 13. [473.881] [SPECIAL TAX DISTRICT.]

Subdivision 1. [WATERSHED MANAGEMENT TAX DISTRICT.] Any local government unit planning for water management under sections 10 and 11 may establish a watershed management tax district in the territory within the watershed, for the purpose of paying the costs of the planning required under sections 10 and 11. Any local government unit which has part of its territory within a watershed for which a plan has been adopted in accordance with section 10 and which has a local water management plan adopted in accordance with section 11 may establish a watershed management tax district in the territory within the watershed, for the purpose of paying capital costs of the water management facilities described in the capital improvement program of the plans and for the purpose of paying for normal and routine maintenance of the facilities.

Subd. 2. [PROCEDURE.] The district shall be established by ordinance adopted after a hearing. Notice of the time, place, and purpose of the hearing shall be published for two successive weeks in the official newspaper of the local government unit, ending at least seven days before the day of the hearing. The ordinance shall describe with particularity the territory or area to be included in the district. After adoption, the ordinance shall be filed with the county auditor and county recorder. The district may be dissolved by following the procedures prescribed for the establishment of the district.

Subd. 3. [TAX.] After adoption of the ordinance under subdivision 2, a local government unit may annually levy a tax on all taxable property in the district for the purposes for which the tax district is established. The proceeds of the tax shall be paid into a fund reserved for these purposes. Any proceeds remaining in the reserve fund at the time the tax is terminated or the district is dissolved shall be transferred and irrevocably pledged to the debt service fund of the local unit to be used solely to reduce tax levies for bonded indebtedness of taxable property in the district. A tax levied in accordance with this subdivision for paying capital costs is a levy for the payment of principal and interest on bonded indebtedness within the meaning of section 275.50, subdivision 5, clause (e).

Subd. 4. [BONDS.] After adoption of the ordinance under subdivision 2, and after a contract for the construction of all or part of an improvement has been entered into or the work has been ordered done by day labor, the local government unit may issue obligations in the amount it deems necessary to pay in whole or in part the capital cost incurred and estimated to be incurred in making the improvement. The obligations shall be payable out of the proceeds of the tax levied pursuant to subdivision 3. The local unit may by resolution of its governing body adopted prior to the sale of obligations pledge the full faith, credit and taxing power of the local unit to assure payment of the principal and interest in the event the proceeds of the tax levy in the district are insufficient to pay principal and interest. The amount of any taxes which are required to be levied outside of the territory of the tax district or taken from the general funds of the local unit to pay principal and interest on the obligations shall be reimbursed to the local unit from taxes levied within the territory of the tax district. Obligations shall be issued in accordance with chapter 475, except that an election is not required and the amount of any obligations shall not be included in determining the net indebtedness of the local unit under the provisions of any law or charter limiting indebtedness.

Sec. 14. [473.882] [WATERSHED MANAGEMENT ORGANIZATION; CAPITAL IMPROVEMENTS; PAYMENT BY COUNTY.]

Subdivision 1. [GENERAL AUTHORITY.] The authority provided to watershed districts in this section is in addition to the authority provided in chapter 112. A watershed management organization which has adopted a watershed plan in accordance with section 10 may certify for payment by the county as provided in this section all or any part of the cost of a capital improvement contained in the capital improvement program of the plan.

Subd. 2. [PROCEDURE.] A copy of the plan for the improvement shall be forwarded to the county board. The organization shall then hold a public hearing on the proposed improvement, following publication once each week for two successive weeks before the date of the hearing in a legal newspaper published in the county or counties in which a part or all of the affected waters and lands are located. The last publication shall occur not more than 30 days nor less than ten days before the hearing. The notice shall state the time and place of hearing, the general nature of the proposed improvement, the estimated cost, and the method by which the cost of the improvement is to be paid, including the cost to be allocated to each county under subdivision 3. Not less than ten days before the hearing, notice by mail shall be given to the counties and to each home rule charter or statutory city or town located wholly or partly within the territory of the watershed management organization. Failure to give mailed notice or defects in the notice shall not invalidate the proceedings. At the time and place specified in the notice the organization shall hear all parties interested in the proposed improvement. If upon full hearing the organization finds that the improvement will be conducive to public health and promote the general welfare, and is in compliance with sections 7 to 14 and the plan adopted pursuant to section 10, it shall make findings accordingly, determine the cost of the improvement, and certify the cost to the county or counties for payment.

Subd. 3. [APPORTIONMENT OF COSTS.] If the territory of the watershed management organization extends into more than one county, the cost of the improvement shall be certified to the county boards in an amount bearing the same proportion to the cost of the improvement as the assessed value of all taxable property in the part of the territory of the organization located within each county bears to the assessed value of all taxable property in the territory of the organization.

Subd. 4. [COUNTY PAYMENT.] Each county receiving a certification for payment from a watershed management organization pursuant to this section shall provide funds to meet its proportionate share of the cost of the improvement as shown in the certification by the organization.

Subd. 5. [BONDS.] In order to make the payment required by subdivision 4, the county board of each county may issue general obligation bonds of the county in the amount necessary to pay all or part of the cost of improvements certified to the county board or to refund general obligation bonds issued for this purpose. The bonds shall be sold, issued, and secured in accordance with the provisions of chapter 475 for general obligation bonds, except as otherwise provided in this subdivision. No election shall be required.

Subd. 6. [TAX.] For the payment of principal and interest on the bonds issued under subdivision 5 and the payment required under subdivision 4, the county shall irrevocably pledge and appropriate the proceeds of an ad valorem tax levied on all taxable property located within the territory of the watershed management organization for which the bonds are issued. Each year until the reserve for payment of the bonds is sufficient to retire the bonds, the county shall levy on all taxable property in the territory of the organization, without respect to any statutory or other limitation on taxes, an amount of taxes sufficient to pay principal and interest on the bonds and to restore any deficiencies in reserves required to be maintained for payment of the bonds. If at any time the amounts available from the levy on property in the territory of the organization are insufficient to pay principal and interest on the bonds when due, the county shall make payment from any available funds in the county treasury. The amount of any taxes which are required to be levied outside of the territory of the watershed management organization or taken from the general funds of the county to pay principal or interest on the bonds shall be reimbursed to the county from taxes levied within the territory of the watershed management organization.

Subd. 7. [MAINTENANCE LEVY.] For the purpose of creating a maintenance fund to be used for normal and routine maintenance of a work of improvement constructed in whole or part with money provided by the county pursuant to subdivision 4, the board of managers of a watershed district, with the approval of the county, may impose an ad valorem levy on all property located within the territory of the watershed district. The levy shall be certified, levied, collected, and distributed as provided in section 112.611, and shall be in addition to any other moneys levied and distributed to the district thereunder. The proceeds of the levy shall be deposited in a separate maintenance and repair account to be used only for the purpose for which the levy was made.

Subd. 2. [EVIDENCE.] Upon the trial of any prosecution arising out of acts alleged to have been committed by any person arrested for driving, operating, or being in physical control of a motor vehicle in violation of subdivision 1, the court may admit evidence of the amount of alcohol or a controlled substance in the person's blood, breath, or urine as shown by a medical or chemical analysis thereof, if the test is taken voluntarily or pursuant to section 169.123.

(b) evidence that there was at the time an alcohol concentration of more than 0.05 (AND LESS THAN 0.10 IS RELEVANT EVIDENCE IN INDICATING WHETHER OR NOT THE PERSON WAS UNDER THE INFLUENCE OF ALCOHOL) but not more than 0.07 is prima facie evidence that the person was not under the influence of alcohol, but the evidence is relevant evidence but shall not be given prima facie effect, in determining whether the ability of the person to operate a motor vehicle was impaired by the consumption of alcohol;

(c) evidence that there was at the time an alcohol concentration of more than 0.07 but less than 0.10 is prima facie evidence that the person was not under the influence of alcohol, but the evidence shall be given prima facie effect in determining whether the ability of the person to operate a motor vehicle was impaired by the consumption of alcohol.

The foregoing provisions do not limit the introduction of any other competent evidence bearing upon the question whether or not the person was under the influence of alcohol or a controlled substance.

Sec. 3. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 169.121, Subdivision 3, is amended to read:

(b) Any person convicted of a second or subsequent violation of subdivision 1, clause (e) or an ordinance in conformity therewith within three years of a previous conviction is punishable by imprisonment for not more than 90 days, or by a fine of not more than $500.

Sec. 5. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 169.123, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 2b. [DEATH OR INJURY; TESTS.] Notwithstanding a refusal to submit to testing under subdivision 2, a blood, breath, or urine test shall be required of all surviving drivers involved in accidents resulting in death and may be required by the officer of all surviving drivers involved in accidents resulting in injury.

Sec. 6. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 169.123, Subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [MANNER OF MAKING TEST; ADDITIONAL TESTS.] Only a physician, medical technician, physician's trained mobile intensive care paramedic, registered nurse, medical technologist (OR), laboratory assistant, or other person trained in blood withdrawal techniques, acting at the request of a peace officer may withdraw blood for the purpose of determining the presence of alcohol or controlled substance. This limitation does not apply to the taking of a breath or urine specimen. The person tested has the right to have a person of his own choosing administer a chemical test or tests in addition to any administered at the direction of a peace officer; provided, that the additional test specimen on behalf of the person is obtained at the place where the person is in custody, after the test administered at the direction of a peace officer, and at no expense to the state.

The failure or inability to obtain an additional test or tests by a person shall not preclude the admission in evidence of the test taken at the direction of a peace officer unless the additional test was prevented or denied by the peace officer. Upon the request of the person who is tested, (FULL INFORMATION CONCERNING) the results of the test or tests taken at the direction of the peace officer shall be made available to him. The (PHYSICIAN, MEDICAL TECHNICIAN, PHYSICIAN'S TRAINED MOBILE INTENSIVE CARE PARAMEDIC, MEDICAL TECHNOLOGIST, LABORATORY ASSISTANT OR REGISTERED NURSE) qualified person drawing blood at the request of a peace officer (FOR THE PURPOSE OF DETERMINING ALCOHOL CONCENTRATION) pursuant to this section, and institutions whose facilities are used, shall in no manner be liable in any civil or criminal action except for negligence in drawing the blood. The person administering a test at the request and direction of a peace officer shall (BE FULLY TRAINED IN THE ADMINISTRATION OF THE TESTS) administer the test pursuant to standards promulgated by rule by the commissioner of public safety.

A report of the facts of a test administration signed by the person drawing a blood sample, or administering a breath or urine test, shall be admissible as evidence at the trial of any prosecution under section 169.121 or any hearing under this section without proof of the seal, signature, or official character of the person whose name is signed to it, in any proceeding. The person tested or his attorney may request, by notifying the prosecuting attorney in writing at least ten days before the trial, that the person who administered the test be present to testify in person at the trial.

Sec. 7. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 169.123, Subdivision 6, is amended to read:

Subd. 6. [HEARING.] A hearing under this section shall be before a municipal or county judge, in the county where the alleged offense occurred, unless there is agreement that the hearing may be held in some other county. The hearing shall be to the court and may be conducted at the same time and in the same manner as hearings upon pre-trial motions in the criminal prosecution under section 169.121, if any. The hearing shall be recorded. The commissioner of public safety may appear through his own attorney or, by agreement with the jurisdiction involved, through the prosecuting authority for that jurisdiction.

The scope of the hearing shall cover the issues of: (1) whether the peace officer had reasonable and probable grounds to believe the person was driving, operating, or in physical control of a motor vehicle while impaired by the influence of alcohol or under the influence of alcohol or a controlled substance, and whether the person was lawfully placed under arrest for violation of section 169.121, or the person was involved in a motor vehicle accident or collision resulting in property damage, personal injury or death, or the person refused to take a screening test provided for by section 169.121, subdivision 6, or the screening test was administered and recorded an alcohol concentration of 0.10 or more; and (2) whether at the time of the request for the test the peace officer informed the person of his rights and the consequences of taking or refusing the test as required by subdivision 2; and (3) either (a) whether the person refused to permit the test, or (b) whether a test was taken and the test results indicated an alcohol concentration of 0.10 or more, and whether the testing method used was valid and reliable, and whether the test results were accurately evaluated.

It shall be an affirmative defense for the person to prove that his refusal to permit the test was based upon reasonable grounds.

The court shall order either that the revocation be rescinded or sustained and forward the order to the commissioner of public safety. If the revocation is sustained, the court shall also forward the person's driver's license to the commissioner of public safety for his further action if the license is not already in the commissioner's possession.

Sec. 8. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 169.123, Subdivision 9, is amended to read:

Subd. 9. [LIMITED LICENSE.] In any case in which a license has been revoked under this section, the commissioner may issue a limited license to the driver. The commissioner in issuing a limited license may impose the conditions and limitations which in his judgment are necessary to the interests of the public safety and welfare, including re-examination of the driver's qualifications, attendance at a driver improvement clinic, or attendance at counseling sessions. The license may be limited to the operation of particular vehicles and to particular classes and time of operation. The limited license issued by the commissioner shall clearly indicate the limitations imposed and the driver operating under a limited license shall have the license in his possession at all times when operating as a driver. In determining whether to issue a limited license, the commissioner shall consider the number and the seriousness of prior convictions and the entire driving record of the driver.

When the revocation under this section is the second such revocation within a three-year period, no limited license shall be issued until one-half of the revocation period has expired. When the revocation is the third such revocation within a three-year period, no limited license shall be issued during the term of the revocation.

Sec. 9. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 169.123, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 5c. [IMMUNITY FROM LIABILITY.] (a) Any peace officer acting in good faith and exercising due care in making an arrest for violation of section 169.121 and the state of political subdivision for which the peace officer is employed shall have immunity from any liability, civil or criminal, for the care or custody of the motor vehicle being driven by, operated by, or in the physical control of the person arrested.

(b) For purposes of this subdivision, "political subdivision" means a county, statutory or home rule charter city or town.

HOUSE RESOLUTION NO. 25

A house resolution commemorating the life and work of Susan B. Anthony.

Whereas, February 15, 1982 is the 162nd anniversary of the birth of Susan B. Anthony, born in 1820 and died in 1906, pioneer of woman's right to vote; and,

Whereas, Susan B. Anthony's contributions to the history of this nation cannot be underestimated but have often been overlooked; and,

Whereas, Susan B. Anthony was a self-supporting school teacher beginning at age 15, earning $2 per week and her board, at a time when female teachers were paid 30 percent of the wages paid to male teachers; and,

Whereas, Susan B. Anthony obtained 4,000 signatures on a petition in favor of women's suffrage in the State of New York in 1852, at a time when the law required employers to pay a woman's wages to her husband and when women had no right of legal guardianship of their own children; and,

Whereas, Susan B. Anthony lectured across the country in defense of women's suffrage over a period of 53 years, though she was often ridiculed, though she noted that, "It is a terrible martyrdom for me to speak publicly," and though she was often required to travel by uncovered wagon in the winter in order to do so; and,

Whereas, Susan B. Anthony organized the National Woman Suffrage Association in 1869 and its successor, the National American Woman Suffrage Association in 1890, as well as serving as President of the latter at age 72; and,

Whereas, Susan B. Anthony voted in Rochester, New York in 1872, 48 years before women achieved the right to vote, and for this offense was arrested and tried, but not allowed to speak in her own defense; and,

Whereas, Susan B. Anthony also worked for the abolition of slavery before and during her efforts on behalf of women's suffrage, and defended the right of workers to bargain collectively; and,

Whereas, Susan B. Anthony is owed a debt of honor on the part of all citizens for her example in the tireless pursuit of justice, stating at age 85, one year before her death and 14 years before passage of the Nineteenth Amendment to the United States Constitution, that, "I have never lost my faith, not for a moment; failure is impossible"; Now, Therefore,

Be It Resolved by the House of Representatives of the State of Minnesota that it commemorates the life and work of Susan B. Anthony and urges all Minnesotans to hold ceremonies and celebrations to commemorate her birthday.

Kahn moved that House Resolution No. 25 be now adopted. The motion prevailed and House Resolution No. 25 was adopted.

There being no objection the order of business reverted to Introduction and First Reading of House Bills.
