Sec 3. [40.20] [COUNTY EROSION CONTROL.]

The provisions of this act apply in all counties of the state which must adopt them by August 1, 1989. Each county shall adopt an erosion control and sedimentation ordinance as provided in section 4. If the governing body of a county which has adopted the provisions of this act and a local soil and water conservation district board agree, the soil and water conservation district board shall administer and enforce the provisions of the act within its jurisdictional area and the duties of the county as provided in this act shall be performed by the local soil and water conservation district.

Sec. 4. [40.21] [PROMULGATION OF RULES BY THE STATE BOARD; PERIODIC REVIEW.]

The state soil and water conservation board, in consultation with counties, soil and water conservation districts, and other appropriate agencies, shall promulgate rules which shall serve as a guide to enable counties to carry out the provisions of this act. The rules developed by the state soil and water conservation board shall include:

(a) A model ordinance which specifies the technical and administrative procedures required of a county to implement this act. The model ordinance shall be considered to be the minimum regulation to be adopted by each county.

(b) Administrative procedures required of the state soil and water conservation board for carrying out the provisions of this act.

At least once every two years the state soil and water conservation board shall review the rules in cooperation with counties, soil and water conservation districts, and appropriate agencies to ensure their continued applicability and relevance. The rules may be revised if deemed necessary by the state soil and water conservation board.

Sec. 5. [40.22] [ACCELERATED EROSION; SEDIMENTATION.]

Subdivision 1. [PROHIBITED ACTIVITIES.] A person may not cause, conduct, contract for, or authorize an activity which causes accelerated erosion or sedimentation.

Subd. 2 [AGRICULTURAL LAND.] A land occupier of agricultural land is not violating subdivision 1 if he is using farming methods which do not create accelerated erosion or sedimentation of adjoining land or water.

Subd. 3. [WOODLAND.] A land occupier who uses wooded land for pasture must ensure that proper management is used to prevent accelerated erosion or sedimentation of adjoining land or water due to overgrazing or cattle paths.

Sec. 6. [40.23] [EROSION CONTROL PLAN.]

A person engaged in construction activity that will disturb over one acre of land must include a proposed sedimentation control plan that will prevent sedimentation of adjoining land or water to the local soil and water conservation district.

Sec. 7. [40.24] [ENFORCEMENT.]

Subdivision 1. [COMPLAINT.] A land occupier adversely affected by accelerated erosion or sedimentation, or a federal, state, or local government official, may submit a verbal or written complaint against a land occupier alleging that accelerated erosion or sedimentation has occurred or is occurring. The complaint must be made to the county board of the county which contains the majority of the affected land. The complaint shall include the approximate dates and location of the alleged violation and describe the source, nature, and extent of the accelerated erosion or sedimentation alleged to have occurred or which is occurring.

Sec. 8. [40.25] [INSPECTION OF LAND UPON COMPLAINT.]

The commissioners of any county shall inspect or cause to be inspected any land within the county, upon receipt of a complaint that accelerated soil erosion or sedimentation is occurring there in excess of the limits established by the county's soil loss regulations. The burden of proof shall be on the county board to prove that an alleged violation exists. The complainant must be notified of the time of the investigation and will be given the opportunity to be present when the investigation is made. If the commissioners find that accelerated soil erosion or sedimentation is occurring on the land inspected, they shall issue an administrative order to the landowner of record, and to the occupant of the land if possible, describing the land and stating the extent to which soil erosion or sedimentation on the land exceeds the limits established by the county's regulations. The order shall be delivered either by personal service or by certified mail to each of the persons to whom it is directed, and shall state a time, not more than 90 days after service or mailing of the notice of the order, by which work needed to establish specific soil and water conservation practices to stop the accelerated erosion or sedimentation must be commenced, and a time not more than one year after the service or mailing of the notice of the order by which the work must be satisfactorily completed.

Sec. 9. [40.26] [APPLICATION FOR COST-SHARING FUNDS.]

Except in the case of a construction activity, no land occupier shall be required to establish soil and water conservation practices unless state cost-sharing funds have been specifically approved for that land and have been actually made available to the land occupier in an amount equal to at least 75 percent of the cost of the permanent soil and water conservation practices. The state soil and water conservation board shall review these requirements at least once each year, and may authorize districts in any particular case to provide a higher percentage of public cost sharing than is required by this section. To aid in this determination, the state board may consider the location of the affected area in relation to the priority areas as established in the district annual and long-range plans. Evidence that an application for state cost-sharing funds has been submitted to the soil and water conservation district shall constitute commencement of the work within the meaning of section 8. When notified of the approval of the application, the county commissioners shall issue to the same parties who received the original administrative order, or their successors in interest, a supplemental order, to be delivered in the same manner as provided by section 8. The supplemental order shall state a time, not more than 90 days after approval of the application for state cost-sharing funds, by which the work needed to comply with the original administrative order shall actually be commenced, and a time not more than one year thereafter when the work is to be satisfactorily completed.

Sec. 10. [40.27] [PENALTY.]

A violation of this act is a misdemeanor."

H. F. No. 1237, A bill for an act relating to education; establishing a program to require school districts to provide milk to all elementary and secondary pupils in public and nonpublic schools; appropriating money; proposing new law coded in Minnesota Statutes, chapter 124.

Reported the same back with the following amendments:

Delete everything after the enacting clause and insert:

"MILK IN SCHOOLS PROGRAM

Section 1. [17.481] [MILK IN SCHOOLS PROGRAM; CITATION.]

Sections 1 to 7 may be cited as the Minnesota Milk In Schools Act.

Sec. 2. [17.482] [LEGISLATIVE FINDINGS; POLICY STATEMENT.]

The legislature finds that milk is a wholesome, nutritious, natural product that should be included in the diet of all Minnesotans. Milk is especially important for school students to improve learning ability and promote good health. The legislature further finds that substantial cuts in federal programs to provide milk to school students at reduced cost have resulted in greatly decreased per-student milk consumption, and that Minnesota's dairy farmers would benefit from increased milk consumption. It is therefore the policy of the legislature to promote milk consumption in schools through a voluntary program designed to make milk available to students, teachers, and support staff at a reduced cost.

Sec. 3. [17.483] [ESTABLISHMENT OF SCHOOL MILK ACCOUNT.]

The school milk account is created in the state treasury. All voluntary contributions to the milk in schools program shall be deposited in the school milk account. All money accruing and credited to the school milk account is appropriated to the department of agriculture to implement and operate the milk in schools program created by this act. All money in the school milk account shall remain available until expended. Any surplus money in the account may be invested by the state board of investment with all earned interest accruing to the account and any losses borne by the account. No obligation involving expenditure of money shall be entered into unless there is a balance in the account not otherwise encumbered to pay previous obligations.

Sec. 4. [17.4831] [CONTRIBUTIONS TO SCHOOL MILK ACCOUNT.]

A taxpayer or other person may make contributions to the school milk account by direct payment to the state treasurer or to the commissioner of agriculture. Contributions may also be made to an eligible school provided that the eligible school agrees to forward the contribution to the commissioner of agriculture for use in the milk in schools program. An eligible school which accepts contributions to the milk in schools program shall pay any contributions received to the commissioner of agriculture at intervals not exceeding three months.

Sec. 5. [17.484] [MILK IN SCHOOLS PROGRAM.]

Subdivision 1. [ADMINISTRATION.] The milk in schools program created by this act shall be administered by the commissioner of agriculture or his designee in consultation with the commissioner of education. The commissioner of agriculture in consultation with the commissioner of education may adopt rules and temporary rules for operation of the program. No temporary rules promulgated to initiate the program may remain in effect for more than 360 days after the effective date of this act. The state milk in schools program shall be coordinated with federal milk and school lunch programs operated by the department of education.

Subd. 2. [ELIGIBLE SCHOOLS.] "Eligible schools" means public school districts and nonpublic schools which operate educational programs for students in kindergarten through grade 12. "Eligible schools" may also include summer camps or educational programs in Minnesota for children ages five through 17 if the commissioner determines that adequate money is available in the school milk account.

Subd. 3. [ELIGIBLE MILK PRODUCTS.] The milk in schools program may be used to help eligible schools provide the following products to students: whole homogenized milk, "two percent" milk, chocolate flavored milk containing not less than two percent butterfat, and any other products that may be designated by rule. Eligible milk products may be delivered to eligible schools packaged in single serving containers or in larger quantities.

Subd. 4. [VALUE OF MILK IN SCHOOLS VOUCHERS.] The redemption value of each milk in schools voucher shall be established by rule. From the effective date of this act through June 30, 1985, the redemption value shall be 12 cents. Each voucher shall be applied to the purchase price of one eight-ounce serving of an eligible milk product. Vouchers may be issued in denominations deemed appropriate by the commissioner.

Subd. 5. [PROGRAM PROMOTION AND ADMINISTRATIVE COSTS.] Money in the school milk account shall be used only for reimbursement of milk in schools vouchers, program promotion costs, and administrative costs. In no event shall program promotion costs exceed two percent of disbursements from the account. Administrative fees retained by the department shall not exceed five percent of disbursements from the account.

Subd. 6. [APPLICATION FOR MILK IN SCHOOLS VOUCHERS.] Any eligible school may apply to the commissioner or his designee for milk in schools vouchers on forms provided by the commissioner. No eligible school may request more vouchers than the number calculated by multiplying pupil units times 0.25. All applications for milk in schools vouchers must be received by the commissioner or his designee not later than the 15th day of the month preceding the first month for which milk vouchers are requested.

Subd. 7. [DISTRIBUTION OF MILK IN SCHOOLS VOUCHERS.] The commissioner shall distribute vouchers to eligible schools which apply on the basis of money available in the school milk account. If requests for vouchers exceed money available in the school milk account, the commissioner shall distribute to each eligible school a percentage of its request equal to available vouchers divided by the number of voucher requests. Vouchers may be issued to eligible schools monthly or quarterly, as deemed appropriate by the commissioner.

An eligible school may distribute milk purchased in part by milk vouchers in a manner designed to maximize the benefits of the program. Preference may be based on specific age or grade levels, educational programs, or other reasonable factors.

Subd. 8. [REDEMPTION OF MILK IN SCHOOLS VOUCHERS.] Eligible schools may use milk in schools vouchers distributed by the commissioner in payment to milk vendors for eligible milk products. The milk vendor may redeem vouchers or, if the milk bottler agrees, the vendor may use the vouchers in payment to the milk bottler. The vendor or bottler may submit vouchers to the commissioner of agriculture or his designee not more frequently than once each month. Within 30 days of receiving vouchers from a vendor or bottler, the commissioner shall pay from the school milk account the redemption value of the vouchers. The commissioner shall adopt rules to prevent fraud in the handling and redemption of milk in schools vouchers.

Sec. 6. [17.485] [ACCUMULATION OF EXCESS FUNDS.]

If the accumulated balance in the school milk account exceeds the amount disbursed from the fund during the preceding 12-month period, the treasurer shall notify the commissioner of the excess. The commissioner shall thereafter refuse to accept further contributions to the account until the remaining balance has been reduced to a level adequate to cover disbursements for an eight-month period.

Sec. 7. [17.486] [PUBLICITY.]

The commissioner may prepare and distribute public notices and related materials informing the public of opportunities to contribute to the milk in schools program. The commissioner, in cooperation with the commissioner of education, shall also alert eligible schools to the availability of the program.

Sec. 8. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 290.06, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 16. [SCHOOL MILK ACCOUNT CREDIT.] A taxpayer may elect to take as a credit against the tax imposed under this chapter for the taxable year an amount equal to 25 percent of contributions made during the taxable year to an eligible school or to the state of Minnesota for purposes of the milk in schools program. No amounts for which a credit is taken pursuant to this section may be again deducted under section 290.089 or 290.21.

If the amount of the credit for which a taxpayer is eligible under this subdivision exceeds his tax liability for the taxable year under this chapter, the excess is not refundable to the taxpayer but may be carried forward to the succeeding taxable year and added to the credit allowable for that year.

Sec. 9. Minnesota Statutes 1983 Supplement, section 290.089, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [ITEMIZED DEDUCTIONS.] Subject to the provisions of section 290.18, subdivision 1, an amount equal to the amount determined pursuant to section 63(f) of the Internal Revenue Code is allowed with the following adjustments:

(a) Add the amount paid to others not to exceed $500 for each dependent in grades K to 6 and $700 for each dependent in grades 7 to 12, for tuition, textbooks, and transportation of each dependent in attending an elementary or secondary school situated in Minnesota, North Dakota, South Dakota, Iowa, or Wisconsin, wherein a resident of this state may legally fulfill the state's compulsory attendance laws, which is not operated for profit, and which adheres to the provisions of the Civil Rights

Act of 1964 and chapter 363. As used in this clause, "textbooks" includes books and other instructional materials and equipment used in elementary and secondary schools in teaching only those subjects legally and commonly taught in public elementary and secondary schools in this state. "Textbooks" does not include instructional books and materials used in the teaching of religious tenets, doctrines, or worship, the purpose of which is to instill such tenets, doctrines, or worship, nor does it include books or materials for, or transportation to, extracurricular activities including sporting events, musical or dramatic events, speech activities, driver's education, or similar programs;

(b) Add the amount of Minnesota and other states' estate or inheritance taxes which were allowed as a deduction under section 290.077, subdivision 4, on income in respect of a decedent;

(c) Add the amount by which the deduction for the taxable year allowed pursuant to subdivision 4 exceeds the amount determined pursuant to section 222 of the Internal Revenue Code;

(1) the court finds that the evidence is necessary, and that the time, content, and circumstances of the statement provide sufficient indicia of reliability; and

This exception does not apply to a civil action or proceeding by one against the other, nor to a criminal action or proceeding for a crime committed by one against the other or against a child of either, nor to a criminal action or proceeding in which one is charged with homicide or an attempt to commit homicide and the date of the marriage of the defendant is subsequent to the date of the offense, nor to an action or proceeding for non-support, neglect, dependency, or termination of parental rights;

(2) An attorney cannot, without the consent of his client, be examined as to any communication made by the client to him or his advice given thereon in the course of professional duty; nor can any employee of the attorney be examined as to the communication or advice, without the client's consent;

(3) A clergyman or other minister of any religion shall not, without the consent of the party making the confession, be allowed to disclose a confession made to him in his professional character, in the course of discipline enjoined by the rules or practice of the religious body to which he belongs; nor shall a clergyman or other minister of any religion be examined as to any communication made to him by any person seeking religious or spiritual advice, aid, or comfort or his advice given thereon in the course of his professional character, without the consent of the person;

(4) A licensed physician or surgeon, dentist, or chiropractor shall not, without the consent of his patient, be allowed to disclose any information or any opinion based thereon which he acquired in attending the patient in a professional capacity, and which was necessary to enable him to act in that capacity; after the decease of the patient, in an action to recover insurance benefits, where the insurance has been in existence two years or more, the beneficiaries shall be deemed to be the personal representatives of the deceased person for the purpose of waiving this privilege, and no oral or written waiver of the privilege shall have any binding force or effect except when made upon the trial or examination where the evidence is offered or received;

(5) A public officer shall not be allowed to disclose communications made to him in official confidence when the public interest would suffer by the disclosure;

(6) Persons of unsound mind; persons intoxicated at the time of their production for examination, and children under ten years of age, who appear incapable of receiving just impressions of the facts respecting which they are examined, or of relating them truly, are not competent witnesses. This exception does not apply to a child under ten years of age (, IN A CRIMINAL PROCEEDING FOR INTRAFAMILIAL SEXUAL ABUSE AS DEFINED IN SECTION 609.364, SUBDIVISION 10, OR IN A CRIMINAL PROCEEDING UNDER SECTIONS 609.342 CLAUSE (A), 609.343 CLAUSE (A), 609.344 CLAUSE (A), OR 609.345 CLAUSE (A), WHO) describing any act of sexual contact or penetration performed on or with the child by another

if the child is able to describe or relate in language appropriate for a child of that age the events or facts respecting which the child is examined (;). Except as otherwise provided in section 1, an out-of-court statement made by a child under the age of ten years describing any act of sexual contact or penetration performed with or on the child by another, not otherwise admissible by statute or rule of evidence, is admissible in evidence if:

(a) The court finds, in a hearing conducted outside of the presence of the jury, that the evidence is necessary, that the time, content, and circumstances of the statement provide sufficient indicia of reliability; and

(b) The child either:

(1) testifies at the proceedings; or

(2) is unavailable as a witness if there is corroborative evidence of the act; and

(c) The proponent of the statement notifies the adverse party of the proponent's intention to offer the statement and the particulars of the statement, sufficiently in advance of the proceeding at which he intends to offer the statement into evidence, to provide the adverse party with a fair opportunity to prepare to meet the statement.

(7) A registered nurse, psychologist or consulting psychologist shall not, without the consent of his client, be allowed to disclose any information or opinion based thereon which he acquired in attending the client in a professional capacity, and which was necessary to enable him to act in that capacity;

(8) An interpreter for a person handicapped in communication shall not, without the consent of the person, be allowed to disclose any communication if the communication would, if the interpreter were not present, be privileged. For purposes of this section, a "person handicapped in communication" means a person who, because of a hearing, speech or other communication disorder, or because of the inability to speak or comprehend the English language, is unable to understand the proceedings in which he is required to participate. The presence of an interpreter as an aid to communication does not destroy an otherwise existing privilege;

(9) A parent or his minor child may not be examined as to any communication made in confidence by the minor to his parent. A communication is confidential if made out of the presence of persons not members of the child's immediate family living in the same household. This exception may be waived by express consent to disclosure by a parent entitled to claim the privilege or by the child who made the communication, or by failure of the child or parent to object when the contents of a communication are demanded. This exception does not apply to a civil action or proceeding by one spouse against the other or by a parent or child against the other, nor to a proceeding to commit either the child or parent to whom the communication was made or to place the person or property or either under the control of another because of his alleged mental or physical condition, nor to a criminal action or proceeding in which the parent is charged with a crime committed against the person or property of the communicating child, the parent's spouse, or a child of either the parent or the parent's spouse, or in which a child is charged with a crime or act of delinquency committed against the person or property of a parent or a child of a parent, nor to an action or proceeding for termination of parental rights, nor any other action or proceeding on a petition alleging child abuse, child neglect, abandonment or nonsupport by a parent;

(10) Sexual assault counselors may not be compelled to testify about any opinion or information received from or about the victim without the consent of the victim. However, a counselor may be compelled to identify or disclose information in investigations or proceedings related to neglect or termination of parental rights if the court determines good cause exists. In determining whether to compel disclosure, the court shall weigh the public interest and need for disclosure against the effect on the victim, the treatment relationship, and the treatment services if disclosure occurs. Nothing in this clause exempts sexual assault counselors from compliance with the provisions of sections 626.556 and 626.557.

“Sexual assault counselor” for the purpose of this section means a person who has undergone at least 40 hours of crisis counseling training and works under the direction of a supervisor in a crisis center, whose primary purpose is to render advice, counseling or assistance to victims of sexual assault.

52.01 [ORGANIZATION.]

Any seven residents of the state may apply to the commissioner of banks for permission to organize a credit union.

A credit union is a cooperative society, incorporated for the two-fold purpose of promoting thrift among its members and creating a source of credit for them at legitimate rates of interest for provident purposes.

A credit union is organized in the following manner:

(1) The applicants execute, in duplicate, a certificate of organization by the terms of which they agree to be bound, which shall state:

- (a) the name and location of the proposed credit union;
  - (b) the names and addresses of the subscribers to the certificate and the number of shares subscribed by each;
- ((C) THE PAR VALUE OF THE SHARES OF THE CREDIT UNION, WHICH SHALL NOT EXCEED $10 EACH;)
- (2) The applicants submit the following in the form prescribed by the commissioner of banks:
    - (a) a statement of the common bond of the proposed credit union;
    - (b) the number of potential members;
    - (c) the geographic dispersion of the potential members;
    - (d) evidence of interest, including willingness of potential members to assume responsibility for leadership and service;
    - (e) a two-year forecast of probable levels of assets, shares and deposits, and income and expense;
    - (f) the availability of other credit union services to the potential members;
    - (g) other information the commissioner requires;
  - (3) They next prepare and adopt bylaws for the general governance of the credit union consistent with the provisions of this chapter, and execute them in duplicate;
  - (4) The certificate and the bylaws, both executed in duplicate, are forwarded to the commissioner of banks with a $100 application fee;
  - (5) The commissioner of banks shall, within 60 days of the receipt of the certificate, the information required by paragraph (2), the bylaws, and a commitment for insurance of accounts as required by section 52.24, subdivision 2, determine whether they comply with the provisions of this chapter, and whether or not the organization of the credit union in question would benefit its members, be economically feasible, and be consistent with the purposes of this chapter;
  - (6) Thereupon the commissioner of banks shall notify the applicants of his decision. If it is favorable, the commissioner shall issue a certificate of approval, attached to the duplicate certificate of organization, and return them with the duplicate bylaws to the applicants. If it is unfavorable, the applicants may, within 60 days after the decision, appeal for a review in a court of competent jurisdiction;

(7) The applicants shall thereupon file the duplicate of the certificate of organization, with the certificate of approval attached thereto, with the secretary of state, who shall make a record of the certificate and return it, with a certificate of record attached thereto, to the commissioner of banks for permanent records; and

(8) Thereupon the applicants shall be a credit union incorporated in accordance with the provisions of this chapter.

In order to simplify the organization of credit unions, the commissioner of banks shall prepare approved forms of certificate of organization and bylaws, consistent with this chapter, which may be used by credit union incorporators for their guidance, and on written application of seven residents of the state, shall supply them without charge with a blank certificate of organization and a copy of the form of suggested bylaws.

Sec. 2. Minnesota Statutes 1983 Supplement, section 52.04, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. A credit union has the following powers:

(1) To offer its members and other credit unions various classes of shares, share certificates, deposits, or deposit certificates;

(2) To receive the savings of its members either as payment on shares or as deposits, including the right to conduct Christmas clubs, vacation clubs, and other thrift organizations within its membership;

((2)) (3) To make loans to members for provident or productive purposes as provided in section 52.16;

((3)) (4) To make loans to a cooperative society or other organization having membership in the credit union;

((4)) (5) To deposit in state and national banks and trust companies authorized to receive deposits;

((5)) (6) To invest in any investment legal for savings banks or for trust funds in the state and, notwithstanding clause ((2)) (3), to invest in and make loans of unsecured days funds (federal funds or similar unsecured loans) to financial institutions insured by an agency of the federal government and a member of the Federal Reserve System or required to maintain reserves at the Federal Reserve;

(6) (7) To borrow money as hereinafter indicated;

(7) (8) To adopt and use a common seal and alter the same at pleasure;

(8) (9) To make payments on shares of and deposit with any other credit union chartered by this or any other state or operating under the provisions of the federal credit union act, in amounts not exceeding in the aggregate 25 percent of its unimpaired assets. However, payments on shares of and deposit with credit unions chartered by other states are restricted to credit unions insured by the National Credit Union Administration. The restrictions imposed by this clause do not apply to share accounts and deposit accounts of the Minnesota corporate credit union in U.S. central credit union or to share accounts and deposit accounts of credit unions in the Minnesota corporate credit union;

(9) (10) To contract with any licensed insurance company or society to insure the lives of members to the extent of their share accounts, in whole or in part, and to pay all or a portion of the premium therefor;

(10) (11) To indemnify each director, officer, or committee member, or former director, officer, or committee member against all expenses, including attorney's fees but excluding amounts paid pursuant to a judgment or settlement agreement, reasonably incurred by him in connection with or arising out of any action, suit, or proceeding to which he is a party by reason of being or having been a director, officer, or committee member of the credit union, except with respect to matters as to which he is finally adjudged in the action, suit, or proceeding to be liable for negligence or misconduct in the performance of his duties. The indemnification is not exclusive of any other rights to which he may be entitled under any bylaw, agreement, vote of members, or otherwise;

(11) (12) Upon written authorization from a member, retained at the credit union, to make payments to third parties by withdrawals from the member's share or deposit accounts or through proceeds of loans made to such member, or by permitting the credit union to make those payments from the member's funds prior to deposit; to permit draft withdrawals from member accounts; however, this clause does not permit a credit union to establish demand deposits (checking accounts) for its members, but a credit union proposing to permit draft withdrawals shall notify the commissioner of banks, in the form prescribed, of its intent not less than 90 days prior to authorizing draft withdrawals. The board of directors of a credit union may restrict one class of shares to the extent that it may not be redeemed, withdrawn, or transferred except upon termination of membership in the credit union;

((12)) (13) To inform its members as to the availability of various group purchasing plans which are related to the promotion of thrift or the borrowing of money for provident and productive purposes by means of informational materials placed in the credit union's office, through its publications, or by direct mailings to members by the credit union;

((13)) (14) To facilitate its members' voluntary purchase of types of insurance incidental to promotion of thrift or the borrowing of money for provident and productive purposes including, but not limited to the following types of group or individual insurance: Fire, theft, automobile, life and temporary disability; to be the policy holder of a group insurance plan or a sub-group under a master policy plan and to disseminate information to its members concerning the insurance provided thereunder; to remit premiums to an insurer or the holder of a master policy on behalf of a credit union member, if the credit union obtains written authorization from the member for remittance by share or deposit withdrawals or through proceeds of loans made by the members, or by permitting the credit union to make the payments from the member's funds prior to deposit; and to accept from the insurer reimbursement for expenses incurred or in the case of credit life and accident and health insurance within the meaning of chapter 62B commissions for the handling of the insurance. The amount reimbursed or the commissions received may constitute the general income of the credit union. The directors, officers, committee members and employees of a credit union shall not profit on any insurance sale facilitated through the credit unions;

((14)) (15) To contract with another credit union to furnish services which either could otherwise perform. Contracted services under this clause are subject to regulation and examination by the commissioner of banks like other services;

((15)) (16) In furtherance of the twofold purpose of promoting thrift among its members and creating a source of credit for them at legitimate rates of interest for provident purposes, and not in limitation of the specific powers hereinbefore conferred, to have all the powers enumerated, authorized, and permitted by this chapter, and such other rights, privileges and powers incidental to, or necessary for, the accomplishment of the objectives and purposes of the credit union;

((16)) (17) To rent safe deposit boxes to its members if the credit union obtains adequate insurance or bonding coverage for losses which might result from the rental of safe deposit boxes;

((17)) (18) Notwithstanding the provisions of section 52.05, to accept deposits of public funds in an amount secured by insurance or other means pursuant to chapter 118;

((18)) (19) To accept and maintain treasury tax and loan accounts of the United States and to pledge collateral to secure the treasury tax or loan accounts, in accordance with the regulations of the Department of Treasury of the United States;

((19)) (20) To accept deposits pursuant to section 149.12, notwithstanding the provisions of section 52.05, if the deposits represent funding of prepaid funeral plans of members;

((20)) (21) To sell, in whole or in part, real estate secured loans provided that:

(a) The loan is secured by a first lien;

(b) The board of directors approves the sale;

(c) If the sale is partial, the agreement to sell a partial interest shall, at a minimum:

(i) Identify the loan or loans covered by the agreement;

(ii) Provide for the collection, processing, remittance of payments of principal and interest, taxes and insurance premiums and other charges or escrows, if any;

(iii) Define the responsibilities of each party in the event the loan becomes subject to collection, loss or foreclosure;

(iv) Provide that in the event of loss, each owner shall share in the loss in proportion to its interest in the loan or loans;

(v) Provide for the distribution of payments of principal to each owner proportionate to its interest in the loan or loans;

(vi) Provide for loan status reports;

(vii) State the terms and conditions under which the agreement may be terminated or modified; and

(d) The sale is without recourse or repurchase unless the agreement:

(i) Requires repurchase of a loan because of any breach of warranty or misrepresentation;

(ii) Allows the seller to repurchase at its discretion; or

(iii) Allows substitution of one loan for another;

((21)) (22) In addition to the sale of loans secured by a first lien on real estate, to sell, pledge, discount, or otherwise dispose of, in whole or in part, to any source, a loan or group of loans, other than a self-replenishing line of credit; provided, that within a calendar year beginning January 1 the total dollar value of loans sold, other than loans secured by real estate or insured by a state or federal agency, shall not exceed 25 percent of the dollar amount of all loans and participating interests in loans held by the credit union at the beginning of the calendar year, unless otherwise authorized in writing by the commissioner;

(23) To designate the par value of the shares of the credit union by board resolution.

Sec. 3. Minnesota Statutes 1983 Supplement, section 52.05, is amended to read:

52.05 [MEMBERSHIP.]

Credit union membership consists of the incorporators and other persons as may be elected to membership and subscribe to at least one share as designated by the board of directors, pay the initial installment thereon and the entrance fee if any. In addition to a regularly qualified member, the spouse of a member, the blood or adoptive relatives of either of them and their spouses may be members. When an individual member of a credit union leaves the field of membership, the member, and all persons who became members by virtue of his or her membership may continue as members. The surviving spouse of a regularly qualified member, and the blood or adoptive relatives of either of them and their spouses may become members. Organizations, incorporated or otherwise, composed for the most part of the same general group as the credit union membership may be members. Credit unions chartered by this or any other state, or any federal credit union may be members. Credit union organizations shall be limited to groups, of both large and small membership, having a common bond of occupation, or association, or to residents within a well-defined neighborhood, community, or rural district.

Any 25 residents of the state representing a group may apply to the commissioner, advising him of the common bond of the group and its number of potential members, for a determination whether it is feasible for the group to form a credit union. Upon a determination that it is not feasible to organize because the number of potential members is too small, the applicants will be certified by the commissioner as eligible to petition for membership in an existing credit union geographically situated to adequately service the group. If the credit union so petitioned resolves to accept the group into membership, it shall follow the bylaw amendment and approval procedure set forth in section 52.02.

Sec. 4. Minnesota Statutes 1983 Supplement, section 52.09, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [PARTICULAR DUTIES.] The directors shall manage the affairs of the credit union and shall:

(1) act on applications for membership. This power may be delegated to a membership chairman who serves at the pleasure of the board of directors and is subject to its rules. An application must contain a certification signed by the membership chairman or a member of the board showing the basis of membership;

(2) determine interest rates on loans and on deposits. The interest period on deposits may be on a daily, monthly, quarterly, semi-annual or annual basis, and may be paid on all deposits whether or not the deposits have been withdrawn during the interest period. Interest may be computed on a daily basis. At the discretion of the board of directors, interest need not be paid on deposit accounts of less than $10;

(3) fix the amount of the surety bond required of all officers and employees handling money;

(4) declare dividends and transmit to the members recommended amendments to the bylaws;

(5) fill vacancies in the board and in the credit committee until successors are chosen and qualify at the next annual meeting;

(6) limit the number of shares and deposits which may be owned by a member, not to exceed ten percent of the outstanding shares and deposits, or $2,000, whichever is larger, and the maximum individual loan which can be made with and without security, including liability indirectly as a co-maker, guarantor, or endorser to ten percent of outstanding shares and deposits. The ten percent share and deposit limitation is not applicable to the Minnesota corporate credit union, or to credit unions insured by the National Credit Union Administration;

(7) have charge of investments including loans to members, unless a credit committee is established pursuant to section 52.08 or paragraph (13) of this subdivision;

(8) fix the salaries of the treasurer and other employees, which must be on a fixed monthly or annual basis, in dollars (not percentage);

(9) designate the (BANK OR BANKS) depository institution in which the funds of the credit union will be deposited;

(10) authorize the officers of the credit union to borrow money from any source, as provided in section 52.15;

(11) with the permission of the commissioner of banks, suspend any member of the credit committee or supervisory committee if it deems this action necessary to the proper conduct of the credit union, and call the members together to act on the suspension within a reasonable time after the suspension. The members at the meeting may, by majority vote of those present, sustain the suspension and remove the committee members permanently or may reinstate the committee members;

(12) provide financial assistance to the supervisory committee in carrying out its audit responsibilities; (AND)

(13) if the bylaws so provide and no credit committee has been elected pursuant to section 52.08, appoint a credit manager or a credit committee of not less than three members; and

(14) to establish different classes of shares.

Sec. 5. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 52.12, is amended to read:

52.12 [CAPITAL; ENTRANCE FEES; UNION TO HAVE LIEN.]

The capital of a credit union (SHALL CONSIST OF THE PAYMENTS THAT HAVE BEEN MADE TO IT BY THE SEVERAL MEMBERS THEREOF ON) includes shares, share certificates, any special class of shares, undivided earnings, reserves, and any entrance or membership fees. The credit union shall have a lien on the shares and deposits of a member for any sum due to the credit union from the member, or for any loan endorsed by him. A credit union may, at its discretion, charge an entrance or annual membership fee (. ANY ENTRANCE FEE SHALL BE) if authorized by the bylaws.

Sec. 6. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 52.17, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [PROVISION FOR LOSSES.] Every credit union shall maintain a reserve fund, which shall be used as a reserve against (BAD) losses on loans, losses on investments, and other losses, and shall not be used to pay expenses of the credit union or otherwise distributed, except in case of liquidation. At the end of each monthly accounting period the gross income shall be determined. From this amount, there shall be set aside, as a statutory reserve against losses on loans, losses on investments, and against other losses as may be specified in rules prescribed by the commissioner of banks, sums in accordance with the following schedule:

(a) A credit union in operation for more than four years and having assets of $500,000 or more shall set aside (1) ten percent of gross income until the statutory reserve shall equal four percent of the total of outstanding loans and risk assets, then (2) five percent of gross income until the statutory reserve shall equal six percent of the total of outstanding loans and risk assets;

(b) A credit union in operation less than four years or having assets of less than $500,000 shall set aside (1) ten percent of gross income until the statutory reserve shall equal seven percent of the total of outstanding loans and risk assets, then (2) five percent of gross income until the statutory reserve shall equal ten percent of the total outstanding loans and risk assets.

Whenever the statutory reserve falls below the percent of the total of outstanding loans and risk assets required by clause (a) or (b), it shall be replenished in the manner provided by clause (a) or (b) by regular contributions to maintain the stated reserve goals. The commissioner may waive the requirements in paragraph (a), clause (2), and paragraph (b), clause (2), based on applications by credit unions demonstrating need and considering levels of total reserves and other factors bearing on the credit union's safety and soundness. The commissioner may also require special reserves to protect the interests of members either by rule or by an individual credit union in any special case.

The following shall not be included in computing outstanding loans and risk assets pursuant to clauses (a) and (b): loans to other credit unions; loans fully secured by a pledge of savings in the lending credit union equal to and maintained to at least the amount of the loan outstanding; loans which are purchased or acquired from liquidating or merging credit unions and guaranteed by an insurance corporation pursuant to section 52.24; loans insured or guaranteed by the United States or the state of Minnesota, any agency or instrumentality of the United States or the state of Minnesota, to the amount of the insurance or guarantee.

Section 7. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 52.18, is amended to read:

52.18 [DIVIDENDS.]

The directors of a credit union may, on a daily, monthly, quarterly, semi-annual, or annual basis as its board of directors may determine, declare and pay a dividend from net earnings or accumulated net undivided profits remaining after statutory reserve has been set aside, which dividend may be paid on all shares whether or not they have been withdrawn during the dividend period. Dividends may be computed on a daily basis. The board of directors may classify its share accounts according to character, amount and duration and declare dividends which may be at variable rates with due regard to the conditions that pertain to each class of shares, or pay no dividend at all. A dividend shall be uniform within a classification. At the discretion of the board of directors dividends may not be declared or paid on share accounts of less than $10. Shares which become fully paid up during a dividend period shall be entitled to a proportional part of the dividend calculated from the first day of the month following the payment in full. For the purpose of this section, shares which become fully paid up by the fifteenth day of any month may be treated as being paid up from the first day of the month.

Sec. 8. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 52.24, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 3. [EXCLUSION.] Notwithstanding the provisions of subdivisions 1 and 2, any one share of a member, as designated in the bylaws of the credit union, may be excluded from the requirement for insurance. At the time a share so designated as an uninsured, nonwithdrawable membership share is subscribed to, the person subscribing will be provided the following separate notification printed in not less than the equivalent of 8-point type, 0.075 inch computer type, or elite-sized typewriter numerals, or shall be legibly handwritten:

'Membership shares are not insured by any state or federal agency and may be used to pay the expenses and losses of the credit union in the event all other available reserves have been depleted.'"

State law provides special rules for the owners and residents of manufactured home parks.

You may keep your home in the park as long as the park is in operation and you meet your financial obligations, obey state and local laws which apply to the park, obey reasonable park rules, do not substantially annoy or endanger the other residents or substantially endanger park personnel and do not substantially damage the park premises. You may not be evicted or have your rent increased or your services cut for complaining to the park owner or to a governmental official.

If you receive an eviction notice and do not leave the park, the park owner may take you to court. If you lose in court a sheriff may remove you and your home from the park within seven days. Or, the court may require you to leave the park within seven days but give you 60 days to sell the home within the park.

All park rules and policies must be reasonable. Your rent may not be increased more than twice a year. Changes made in park rules after you become a park resident will not apply to you if they substantially change your original agreement.

The park may not charge you an entrance fee.

The park may require a security deposit, but the deposit must not amount to more than two months rent.

You have a right to sell the home in the park. But the sale is not final until the park owner approves the buyer as a new resident, and you must advise in writing anyone who wants to buy your home that the sale is subject to final approval by the park owner. You must also disclose in writing certain safety information about your home to anyone who wants to buy it in the park. You must give this information to the buyer before the sale, in writing, on the form that is attached to this notice. You must completely and accurately fill out the form and you and the buyer should each keep a copy.

Your rental agreement and the park rules contain important information about your rights and duties. Read them carefully and keep a copy.

For further information concerning your rights, consult a private attorney. The state law governing the rental of lots in manufactured home parks may also be enforced by the Minnesota Attorney General."

Subd. 6. [AUTHORITY TO REDUCE AGENCY ALLOTMENT.] The commissioner shall have the authority to reduce the allotment of any state agency by the amount of any vendor obligations that are paid later than 30 days following the receipt of the invoice for completed delivery of the products or services.

Subd. 7. [REPORT TO LEGISLATURE.] The commissioner shall report to the legislature each year summarizing the state's payment record for the preceding year. The report shall include the number and dollar amount of late payments made by each agency, the amount of interest penalties and collection costs paid, and the specific steps being taken to reduce the incidence of late payments in the future.

Subd. 8. [APPLICABILITY.] Subdivisions 1 to 7 apply to all agency purchases, leases, rentals, and contracts for services, including construction and remodeling contracts.

Sec. 2. Minnesota Statutes 1983 Supplement, section 273.13, subdivision 9, is amended to read:

"Section 1. [41A.01] [PURPOSE.]

Sections 1 to 6 provide a framework for an agricultural resource energy loan guaranty program, the purposes of which are to further the development of the state's agricultural resources, improve the market for its agricultural products, and increase the use of chemicals including fuel derived from renewable agricultural sources and having superior qualities for controlling pollution and conserving energy. Public debt is authorized by the constitution to be incurred for developing agricultural resources by extending credit on real estate security. The program contemplates the use of this power not to finance projects of the kind described herein, but to provide financial guaranties for a portion of the cost of viable projects to the extent necessary to enable qualified developers and operators to secure private financing which would not otherwise be available. All credit advanced pursuant to loan guaranty commitments is to be secured by subordination of the state to mortgage security and other security interests granted to the private lender, in proportion to the amount advanced by the state. A loan guaranty board is established to investigate the feasibility of each project, its conformity to the above policies and to environmental standards, the qualifications of the owners, operators, and lenders, and the nature and extent of the security, prior to commitment, and to secure maximum financial participation by private persons, not supported by the guaranty, to assure that in these respects each project satisfies and will continue to satisfy criteria which are adequate in the judgment of the board.

Resolutions of the board are effective when approved by the vote of a majority of its members.*

Sec. 3. [41A.03] [LOAN GUARANTIES.]

Subdivision 1. [AUTHORITY FOR AND LIMITATION OF GUARANTY.] Subject to the provisions of sections 1 to 6 and upon determination that a loan will serve the public purposes and satisfy the conditions set forth in sections 1 to 6, the state may guarantee and commit to guarantee against loss an amount not exceeding 90 percent, with accrued interest, of a loan for the construction of an agricultural resource project (or the refunding or refinancing of a loan). The loan must be secured by a first mortgage lien on and security interest in all real and personal property comprising the project and other collateral as provided in the loan agreement.

Subd. 2. [LIMITATION OF LOAN AMOUNT.] The total principal amount of any guaranteed loan may not exceed 80 percent of the total cost of the related project as estimated by the state at the time the commitment to guarantee is made or, in the case of a refunding or refinancing loan, 80 percent of the aggregate amount of principal and interest refunded or refinanced. If the actual cost exceeds the estimate the state may, upon request of the borrower and the lender, consent to an increase of the loan by a principal amount not greater than 80 percent of the excess cost, and may increase the guaranteed amount by not more than 90 percent of the increase in the principal amount, and accrued interest on that amount.

Subd. 3. [REQUIRED PROVISIONS.] A loan guaranty or loan agreement pertaining to any loan guaranteed by the state must provide that:

(a) Payments of principal and interest made by the borrower under the loan shall be applied by the lender to reduce the guaranteed and nonguaranteed portion of the loan on a proportionate basis, and the nonguaranteed portion shall not in any event receive preferential treatment over the guaranteed portion.

(b) A period of grace shall be allowed of not less than 60 days from a date a principal or interest payment is due, prior to the making of demand for payment pursuant to the loan guaranty, to permit adequate time for a decision on behalf of the state regarding principal and interest assistance in accordance with subdivision 4. Payment as required by the loan guaranty shall be made within 60 days after receipt by the state of written demand complying with the terms and conditions of the guaranty.

(c) The lender may not accelerate repayment of the loan or exercise other remedies available to the lender if the borrower defaults, unless (i) the borrower fails to pay a required payment of principal or interest, or (ii) the state consents in writing, or (iii) as otherwise permitted in the loan guaranty. In the event of a default, the lender may not make demand for payment pursuant to the guaranty unless the state agrees in writing that such default has materially affected the rights or security of the parties, and finds that the lender should be entitled to receive payment pursuant to the loan guaranty.

(d) If a payment of principal or interest is made by the state upon default of the borrower, the state shall be subrogated to the rights of the lender with respect to the payment.

(e) The borrower shall have promptly prepared and delivered to the state annual audited financial statements of the project prepared according to generally accepted accounting principles.

(f) Duly authorized representatives of the state shall have access to the project site at reasonable times during construction and operation of the project.

(g) The borrower shall maintain adequate records and documents concerning the construction and operation of the project in order that representatives of the state may determine its technical and financial conditions and its compliance with environmental requirements. The records shall include the amounts of all sales and use taxes paid on personal property and services purchased for the construction and operation of the project, with tax receipts furnished by the sellers or other supporting documentation determined by the board to be satisfactory. The amounts of those taxes shall be reported to the board in the manner and at the times required by the board.

(h) The borrower shall protect and preserve at all times the project assets and other collateral securing the loan and shall assist in liquidation of collateral to minimize loss in the event of default.

(i) Orderly liquidation of assets of the project shall be provided for in the event of default, with an option on the part of the state to acquire from the lender the lender's interest in the assets pursuant to the nonguaranteed portion of the loan.

(j) The state shall be paid at or prior to the closing of the guaranteed loan a fee or fees for the loan guaranty or the commitment to guarantee the loan. The aggregate fee may not exceed one percent of the total principal amount of the guaranteed portion of the loan.

(k) The lender shall perfect and maintain the mortgage lien on the real estate and the security interest in personal property and collateral granted as security for the loan, and shall cause all other loan servicing functions to be performed which are normally required or performed by a reasonable and prudent lender with respect to a loan without a guaranty.

(l) The state shall be notified in writing without delay of (i) the date and amount of and basis for each disbursement of loan proceeds; (ii) any nonpayment of principal or interest due (within ten days after the due date and with evidence of notification to the borrower); (iii) any failure to honor a commitment by any person of an intended source of capital for the project; and (iv) any significant adverse changes from original cash flow projections as evidenced by reports from the borrower, or any other known evidence that the borrower might be unable to meet a future scheduled payment of principal or interest.

(m) The loan agreement shall require the borrower to establish a reserve, from the proceeds of the loan or otherwise, to be maintained with the lender or with a trustee for the holders of the borrower's obligations in cash or securities of a specified market value not less than the annual amount which would be required to amortize the entire amount of the loan over the term (or at the rate of yield resulting from the interest rates) provided in the loan agreement.

Subd. 4. [PRINCIPAL AND INTEREST ASSISTANCE.]
The state may at any time enter into a written contract with the borrower to pay the lender, on behalf of the borrower, an amount not greater than the amount of principal and interest to become due on one or more subsequent dates, without acceleration, if the state determines that (i) the borrower is not in default in payment of principal or interest due more than 60 days prior to the date of the contract; (ii) the borrower is or may become unable to meet in full principal or interest payments, or both, which are due or to become due within a specified period; (iii) it is in the public interest to permit the borrower to continue to pursue the purposes of the project; (iv) the probable net financial loss to the state will be less than that which would result in the event of a default; (v) the borrower is obligated by the contract to reimburse the state for all principal or interest advanced, with interest on those amounts, upon terms and conditions satisfactory to the state; and (vi) funds are available for allocation to the account established for the project in the guaranty fund, and are continuously allocated to the account in accordance with the provisions of section 4, subdivision 3, in an amount equal to the amount of interest on the advances until actually reimbursed to the state by the borrower. All sums so advanced and interest on those amounts shall be secured by the mortgage lien and security interest granted by the loan agreement, but none of the advances shall thereafter be repaid to the state until and unless all principal and interest currently due on the loan has been fully paid. In the event of subsequent default by the borrower, acceleration by the lender, and payment by the state of the full amount due under the loan guaranty, the state shall be subrogated to the rights of the lender with respect to the principal paid by it under the contract. Upon payment of the loan in full, with accrued interest, the remaining amount of the advances and interest on the advances may be paid to the state.

Sec. 4. [41A.04] [APPLICATION AND APPROVAL.]

Subdivision 1. [REQUIREMENTS.] (a) Any rural development finance authority, or county exercising the powers of such an authority, may file a written application with the state commissioner of finance, to be considered by the agricultural resource energy loan guaranty board, for a guaranty by the state of a portion of a loan for an agricultural resource project. In general, the application must provide information similar to that required by an investment banking or other financial institution considering such a project for debt financing. Specifically, each application must include in brief but precise form the following information, as supplied by the applicant, the borrower, or the lender:

(1) a description of the scope, nature, extent, and location of the proposed project, including the identity of the borrower and a preliminary or conceptual design of the project;

(2) a description of the technology to be used in the project and the prior construction and operating experience of the borrower with such projects;

(3) a detailed estimate of the items comprising the total cost of the project, including escalation and contingencies, with explanation of the assumptions underlying the estimate;

(4) a general description of the financial plan for the project, including the mortgage and security interests to be granted for the security of the guaranteed loan, and all sources of equity, grants, or contributions or of borrowing the repayment of which is not to be secured by the mortgage and security interests, or, if so secured, is expressly subordinated to the guaranteed loan;

(5) an environmental report analyzing potential environmental effects of the project, any necessary or proposed mitigation measures, and other relevant data available to the applicant to enable the board to make an environmental assessment;

(6) a list of applications to be filed and estimated dates of approvals of permits required by federal, state, and local government agencies as conditions for construction and commencement of operation of the project;

(7) an estimated construction schedule;

(8) an analysis of the estimated cost of production of and market for the product, including economic factors justifying the analysis and proposed and actual marketing contracts, letters of intent, and contracts for the supply of feedstock;

(9) a description of the management experience of the borrower in organizing and undertaking similar projects;

(10) pro forma cash flow statements for the first five years of project operation including income statements and balance sheets;

(11) a description of the borrower's organization and, where applicable, a copy of its articles of incorporation or partnership agreement and bylaws;

(12) the estimated amount of the loan and percentage of guaranty requested, the proposed repayment schedule, and other terms and conditions and security provisions of the loan;

(13) an estimate of the amounts and times of receipt of guaranty fees, sales and use taxes, property tax increments, and any other governmental charges which may be available for the support of the state guaranty fund as a result of the construction of the project, with an analysis of the assumptions on which the estimate is based;

(14) a copy of any lending commitment issued by a lender to the borrower;

(15) a statement from the lender, if identified, as to its general experience in financing and servicing debt incurred for projects of the size and general type of the project, and its proposed servicing and monitoring plan; and

(16) additional information required by the board.

(b) The applicant shall pay upon filing of the application a fee equal to .25 percent of the amount of the loan guaranty requested. The fee shall be paid to the commissioner of finance and deposited in the general fund. If the board determines not to issue a commitment for the project, the fee shall be refunded to the applicant, less the board's cost of processing, reviewing, and evaluating the application. If the board issues a commitment for the project and the application fee exceeds the board's cost of processing, reviewing, and evaluating the application, the balance shall be transferred from the general fund to the project account in the guaranty fund and credited against the amount of the commitment fee required in section 3, subdivision 3, clause (j). The county or rural development finance authority may require the proposed borrower under the project to pay the application fee.

Subd. 2. [ENVIRONMENTAL ASSESSMENT.] Notwithstanding any other law or rule, no environmental impact statement or environmental worksheet must be completed prior to the approval of an application and the issuance of a conditional commitment for the guaranty of a loan for an agricultural resource project, or the taking of any other action permitted by sections 1 to 7, including the issuance of bonds, which is considered necessary or desirable by the board to prepare for a final commitment and to make it effective. Environmental review, to the extent required by law, shall be made in conjunction with the issuance by state agencies of environmental permits for the project. Permits may be applied for prior to the issuance of a conditional commitment. Action shall be taken as expeditiously as possible on environmental review and all permits required. Environmental review shall be completed within 180 days after the initial filing of an application to the pollution control agency for the first permit. Final action shall be taken on permits within 90 days after completion of environmental review or, as to any permit requiring a public hearing, within 90 days after the receipt of the hearing examiner's report.

Subd. 3. [COMMITMENT.] The board shall determine as to each project for which an application is submitted whether it appears in the board's judgment to conform to the purposes and policies stated in section 1 to an extent measured by criteria which in the board's judgment are satisfactory. In evaluating applications the board shall consider the extent to which the public subsidies sought by the applicant under the program would provide the project with an unfair advantage in competing with other products produced or processed in Minnesota. It may but need not adopt rules setting forth criteria for evaluating applications for loan guaranties. Upon determination by the board that a project conforms to the purposes and policies in section 1, it may by resolution make on behalf of the state a conditional commitment to guarantee a portion of the proposed loan as it shall determine, not exceeding the limitations set forth in section 3. No action is allowable under section 116B.03, subdivision 1, with respect to acts of any person authorized or required in order to execute the resolution. The commitment is not binding upon the state until and unless the following conditions are satisfied.

(1) the board has created a project account for the project in the guaranty fund and has allocated to the account, from funds previously appropriated by the legislature or from the proceeds of bonds issued or to be issued for purposes of the guaranty fund pursuant to authorization previously enacted by the legislature, and not previously allocated to any other project account, in an aggregate amount sufficient, with any other amount then on hand in the project account, to pay the entire guaranteed principal amount of the proposed loan, plus interest on that amount for one year. The bonds authorized by the legislature need not be issued until and unless the proceeds allocated to a project account must be deposited in the account to comply with clause (2) or (3).

(2) the board has deposited in the project account bond proceeds or other funds in an amount not less than the annual amount which would be required to amortize the guaranteed portion of the principal of the loan over the term and at the interest rate (or at the rate of yield resulting from the interest rates) provided in the loan agreement.

(3) the board has executed on behalf of the state a final loan guaranty instrument in conformity with section 3, which binds the state to offer state bonds for sale at the times and in the amounts required, with amounts on hand in the project account, to pay all amounts to become due and payable under the loan guaranty, within the authorization and allocation referred to in clause (1), and when sold, to issue the bonds and apply the proceeds to make these payments.

Subd. 4. [RULE MAKING AUTHORITY.] In order to effectuate the purposes of sections 1 to 7, the board may adopt rules which are not subject to the provisions of chapter 14.

Sec. 5. [41A.05] [MINNESOTA AGRICULTURAL RESOURCE LOAN GUARANTY FUND AND BONDS.]

Subdivision 1. [ESTABLISHMENT OF FUND.] For the purpose of developing the state's agricultural resources by extending credit on real estate security, the agricultural resource loan guaranty fund is established as a special and dedicated fund to be held and invested separately from all other funds of the state. All proceeds of state bonds authorized and issued for the purposes of the fund, and all guaranty fees, retail sales taxes, property tax increments, and other money from any source which may be credited to the fund pursuant to law or pursuant to the terms of grants, contributions, or contracts are appropriated and shall remain available for the purposes of the fund until those purposes have been fully accomplished. The fund may be used only for paying amounts due under loan guaranties and principal and interest assistance contracts entered into by the state, pursuant to the agricultural resource loan guaranty program.

Subd. 2. [ISSUANCE OF BONDS.] To provide money appropriated to the agricultural resource loan guaranty fund for the purposes of the program, when authorized by law and re-requested by the board, the commissioner of finance shall issue and sell bonds of the state. The state irrevocably pledges the full faith, credit, and taxing powers of the state to the prompt and full payment of these bonds. The proceeds of the bonds when issued, except accrued interest and any premium received upon sale, shall be credited to the guaranty fund. All the bonds shall be sold and issued and shall be secured in the manner, upon the terms, and with the effect prescribed for state building bonds in chapter 16A, and with the security provisions set forth in chapter 16A and in article XI, sections 4 to 7 of the constitution.

Subd. 3. [COVENANT.] In fulfillment of the state's covenant with the beneficiary of each loan guaranty executed by the board on behalf of the state pursuant to the agricultural resource loan guaranty program, in accordance with section 4, subdivision 3, the state will not limit or alter the rights vested in the board to comply with the terms of the loan guaranties. The state agrees not to rescind or cancel any authorization of an amount of bonds, or the appropriation of the proceeds of bonds for the purposes of the program, which, with the sum of the amounts then held in each project account in the guaranty fund, would be required, in the event of an immediate default on each guaranteed loan, to pay the balance of the guaranteed portion of the principal of all guaranteed loans with interest accrued and to accrue thereon for one year.

Subd. 4. [INCOME TAX EXEMPTION.] In the issuance of state bonds and the making of loan guaranties for the purposes of the program, the commissioner of finance and the board may and shall make all provisions and do or cause to be done all acts and things, consistent with sections 1 to 6, which are or may be effective under federal laws and regulations to comply with conditions for the exemption of interest on such bonds from federal income taxation. However, if for any reason, whether existing at the date of issue of any bonds or the date of execution of any loan guaranty or thereafter, the interest on any such bonds shall be or become subject to federal income taxes, this shall not impair or affect the validity of the bonds or of any loan guaranty or the provisions made for the security thereof, and shall not impair or affect the covenant made by the state in subdivision 3. Nothing herein affects the federal or state income tax treatment of interest on obligations of a borrower other than the state, whether or not guaranteed by the state.

Sec. 6. [41A.06] [PROJECT TAXES AND OTHER CHARGES.]

Subdivision 1. [APPROPRIATION.] The payments, taxes, and governmental charges described in this section which are received as a consequence of the undertaking, completion, and operation of each agricultural resource loan project for which a loan guaranty is made by the state are appropriated to the loan guaranty fund. This appropriation shall not lapse at the close of any fiscal year under the provisions of section 16A.28, and the receipts from the appropriation shall remain available as provided in section 5, subdivision 1. The state is not obligated, however, to continue the appropriation with respect to charges not yet collected, except to the extent determined to be necessary for compliance with the covenant contained in section 5, subdivision 3.

Subd. 2. [ALLOCATION TO PROJECT ACCOUNTS.] Receipts of charges related to a particular project shall be deposited and recorded in its project account in the guaranty fund; but the board may reallocate receipts in any project account which cause the amount held in the account to exceed the minimum balance established initially pursuant to section 4, subdivision 3, clause (2). The reallocation may be made to another project account for the purpose of maintaining the minimum balance in the account.

Subd. 3. [PAYMENTS BY BORROWERS.] Guaranty and commitment fees paid by borrowers pursuant to the loan guaranty provision required by section 3, subdivision 3, clause (j), and repayments by borrowers of amounts advanced by the state under contracts referred to in section 3, subdivision 4, shall be deposited in the project account for the borrower's project and shall not be disbursed or transferred for any purpose other than the fulfillment of the state's obligations under the loan guaranty for that project. Funds may be transferred out of the account if the minimum required balance in the project account is maintained and exceeds the aggregate amount of fees and payments previously received from the borrower plus interest received from the investment thereof.

Subd. 4. [SALES AND USE TAXES.] All collections of the excise taxes imposed by chapter 297A upon retail sales, and upon the privilege of use, storage, or consumption in Minnesota, of personal property and services purchased for the construction or operation of any project for which a loan guaranty has been made or conditionally committed, less any refunds required by law and a proportionate share of the cost of administration and enforcement of the assessment and collection of the taxes, are appropriated and shall be deposited from the general fund into the project account in the guaranty fund at least once each year from and after the date of the conditional commitment. The commissioner of finance shall secure from each borrower the amount of taxes so imposed and from the commissioner of revenue the amount of refunds or costs to be deducted from them.

Subd. 5. [PROPERTY TAX INCREMENTS.] The applicant for a loan guaranty for any project, and the county in which the project is situated, shall do all acts and things necessary for the computation and segregation of property tax increments resulting from the construction of the project in accordance with the provisions of section 362A.05, and for the remittance to the commissioner of finance, for deposit in the loan guaranty fund, of all tax increments received from and after the date of the conditional commitment for the loan guaranty. The board may agree to accept a pledge of only a portion of the tax increment. If the project account contains the minimum balance required by section 4, subdivision 3, the board may annually return the excess tax increment to be distributed as provided by section 273.75, subdivision 2, clause (d), until the increment has been discharged under the agreement or section 11.

The members of the commission shall include individuals with expertise in agricultural processing, commercial lending and financing of similar or related projects, agricultural economics, and engineering, chemistry, and other natural sciences related to the projects. The commission shall advise the board on establishing a workable program pursuant to sections 1 to 6 and may provide assistance in evaluating applications for loan guarantees. Subdivision 1. All revenues, including interest and penalties, derived from the excise and use taxes imposed by sections 297A.01 to 297A.44 shall be deposited by the commissioner in the state treasury and credited to the general fund. All excise and use taxes derived from sales and use of property and services purchased for the construction and operation of an agricultural resource project, from and after the date on which a conditional commitment for a loan guaranty for the project is made pursuant to section 4, subdivision 3, shall be deposited in the agricultural resource loan guaranty fund. The commissioner of finance shall certify to the commissioner the date on which the project received the conditional commitment. The amount deposited in the loan guaranty fund shall be reduced by any refunds and by the costs incurred by the department of revenue to administer and enforce the assessment and collection of the taxes.

Sec. 9. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 362A.01, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

*Subdivision 1. chapter, except as otherwise or additionally provided herein. No such authority shall transact any business or exercise any powers until a certified copy of the resolutions of each participating county board has been submitted to the secretary of state and a certificate of incorporation issued pursuant to section 317.10. Alternatively, a county may determine by resolution of the county board (without such filing) to exercise the powers granted in this chapter to a rural development finance authority.

For this purpose it may do all acts and things required of an applicant or of a borrower under the provisions of sections 1 to 6, including but not limited to the computation, segregation, and application of tax increments by deposit in the loan guaranty fund under the terms of the loan guaranty.*

Sec. 11. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 362A.05, is amended to read:

362A.05. [AGREEMENTS FOR RESERVATION OF TAX INCREMENTS.]

The authority may enter into an agreement with any county in which a project is to be situated, or a county exercising the powers of an authority may adopt a resolution, under which the increment of taxable value of property (TO BE CREATED BY THE) constituting an agricultural resource project for which a conditional commitment for a loan guaranty has been made by the state as provided in section 4, subdivision 3, over and above the taxable value of the project site as last finally determined before the project was undertaken, may be excluded from the taxable value of property on which the mill rate of taxes is computed in every subsequent year, for so long as may be (AGREED) provided in the loan guaranty, but the aggregate mill rate of taxes levied by the county and all other taxing districts on other properties in each such year shall be spread also on the incremental taxable value of the project, and the tax resulting therefrom, when collected, shall be remitted to the authority (, AND MAY BE PLEDGED, TOGETHER WITH CHARGES OR SPECIAL ASSESSMENTS, TO PAY OR GUARANTEE THE PAYMENT OF ITS BONDS, OR MAY BE USED BY THE AUTHORITY FOR THE PURPOSES STATED IN SECTION 362A.01, SUBDIVISION 2) or to the county, as the case may be, for deposit and use in the loan guaranty fund of the state as provided in sections 1 to 6. The tax increment for an agricultural resource project shall be discharged when either of the following occurs: (a) the loan obligation has been satisfied; or (b) the amount in the project account equals the amount of the guaranteed portion of the outstanding principal and interest on the guaranteed loan. Every county shall have the power by resolution of the county board to do all acts and things necessary for the computation, segregation, and application of tax increments under (AGREEMENTS MADE WITH THE AUTHORITY) the loan guaranty in accordance with this section. (THIS SECTION SHALL NOT APPLY WITH RESPECT TO ANY PROJECT ESTABLISHED SUBSEQUENT TO AUGUST 1, 1979.)

Sec. 12. [AUTHORIZATION OF BONDS.]

To provide money in the state agricultural resource loan guaranty fund, for the purpose of the program for which this fund is appropriated and dedicated under the provisions of sections 1 to 6, the commissioner of finance may issue bonds of the state in the aggregate amount of $40 million. Before the issuance of any series of the bonds the loan guaranty board shall determine by resolution that the amount to be issued will be needed to make payments due under one or more guaranties executed with respect to outstanding loans in the program, or is needed to maintain within the guaranty fund a balance sufficient in the judgment of the board to assure compliance by the state with its covenant contained in section 5, subdivision 3. The bonds shall be sold and issued in the manner, upon the terms, and with the effect prescribed by sections 1 to 6 and by the constitution, article XI, sections 4 to 7.

INTEREST RATE ON REFUNDS

Section 1. [270.76] [INTEREST ON REFUNDS.]

When any tax payable to the commissioner of revenue or to the department of revenue is overpaid and an amount is due the taxpayer as a refund of the overpayment, the overpayment shall bear interest from the date of payment of the tax until the date the refund is paid or credit is made, unless another period for computing interest is provided by law. The interest rate per annum on overpayments shall be 80 percent of the interest rate contained in section 270.75, the rate shall be adjusted annually and become effective as provided in section 270.75, subdivision 5, and the result of the adjustment in the rate shall be rounded to the nearest full percent. The determination of the commissioner pursuant to this subdivision shall not be considered a "rule" and shall not be subject to the Administrative Procedure Act contained in chapter 14.

Sec. 2. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 270A.07, subdivision 5, is amended to read:

Subd. 5. [INTEREST ON REFUNDS.] Any refund wrongfully or incorrectly applied to a debt and transferred to a claimant agency shall be paid by the agency to the debtor. The sum wrongfully or incorrectly withheld shall bear interest at (SIX PERCENT PER YEAR) the rate specified in section 270.76, computed from the date when the refund would begin to bear interest under section 290.92, subdivision 13, clause (1), regardless of whether the refund is payable under chapter 290 or 290A. If the claimant agency is a state agency, the payment shall be made out of the agency's appropriation.

Sec. 3. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 271.12, is amended to read:

271.12 [WHEN ORDER EFFECTIVE.]

No order for refundment by the commissioner of revenue, the appropriate unit of government, or the tax court shall take effect until the time for appeal therefrom or review thereof by all parties entitled thereto has expired. Otherwise every order of the commissioner, the appropriate unit of government, or the tax court shall take effect immediately upon the filing thereof, and no appeal therefrom or review thereof shall stay the execution thereof or extend the time for payment of any tax or other obligation unless otherwise expressly provided by law; provided, that in case an order which has been acted upon, in whole or in part, shall thereafter be set aside or modified upon appeal, the determination upon appeal or review shall supersede the order appealed from and be binding upon all parties affected thereby, and such adjustments as may be necessary to give effect thereto shall be made accordingly. If it be finally determined upon such appeal or review that any person is entitled to refundment of any amount which has been paid for a tax or other obligation, such amount, unless otherwise provided by law, shall be paid to him by the state treasurer, or other proper officer, out of funds derived from taxes of the same kind, if available for the purpose, or out of other available funds, if any, with interest at (SIX PERCENT) the rate specified in section 270.76 from the date of payment of the tax, unless a different rate of interest is otherwise provided by law, in which case such other rate shall apply, upon certification by the commissioner of revenue, the appropriate unit of government, the tax court or the supreme court. If any tax, assessment, or other obligation be increased upon such appeal or review, the increase shall be added to the original amount, and may be enforced and collected therewith.

Sec. 4. Minnesota Statutes 1983 Supplement, section 290.50, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [PROCEDURE, TIME LIMIT.] (a) A taxpayer who has paid or from whom there has been collected an amount of tax for any year in excess of the amount legally due for that year, may file with the commissioner a claim for a refund of such excess. Except as otherwise provided in this section, no claim or refund shall be allowed or made after three and one-half years from the date prescribed for filing the return (plus any extension of time granted for filing the return, but only if filed within the extended time) or after two years from the date of overpayment, whichever period is longer, unless before the expiration of the period a claim is filed by the taxpayer. For this purpose an income tax return or amended return claiming an overpayment shall constitute a claim for refund.

(b) If no claim was filed, the credit or refund shall not exceed the amount which would be allowable if a claim was filed on the date the credit or refund is allowed.

(c) If a claim relates to an overpayment on account of a failure to deduct a loss due to a bad debt or to a security becoming worthless, the claim shall be allowed if filed within seven years from the date prescribed in section 290.42 for the filing of the return, and the refund or credit shall be limited to the amount of overpayment attributable to the loss.

(d) For purposes of this section, the prepayment of tax made through the withholding of tax at the source, or payment of estimated tax, prior to the due date of the tax are considered as having been paid on the last day prescribed by law for the payment of the tax by the taxpayer. A return filed before the due date shall be considered as filed on the due date.

(e) Except as provided in sections 290.92, subdivision 13, 290.93, subdivision 9, and 290.936, interest on the overpayment refunded or credited to the taxpayer shall be allowed at the rate (OF SIX PERCENT PER ANNUM) specified in section 270.76 computed from the date of payment of the tax until the date the refund is paid or credit is made to the taxpayer. However, to the extent that the basis for the refund is a net operating loss carryback or a capital loss carryback, interest shall be computed only from the end of the taxable year in which the loss occurs.

(f) If a taxpayer reports a change in his federal gross income, items of tax preference, deductions, credits, or a renegotiation, or files a copy of his amended federal return, within 90 days as provided by section 290.56, subdivision 2, a refund may be made of any overpayment within one year after such report or amended return is filed except as provided in subdivision 2.

(g) There is hereby appropriated from the general fund to the commissioner of revenue the amounts necessary to make payments of refunds allowed pursuant to this section.

Sec. 5. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 290.92, subdivision 11, is amended to read:

Subd. 11. [REFUNDS.] Where there has been an overpayment of tax imposed by this section, refund of such overpayment or credit shall be made to the employer in accordance with regulations prescribed by the commissioner, but only to the extent that the amount of such overpayment was not deducted and withheld under subdivision 2a or subdivision 3 by the employer. Any overpayment which is refunded shall bear interest at the rate (OF SIX PERCENT PER ANNUM) spec- ified in section 270.76, computed from the date of payment until the date the refund is paid to the employer. The commissioner of finance shall cause any such refund of tax and interest to be paid out of the general fund in accordance with the provisions of section 290.62 and so much of said fund as may be necessary is hereby appropriated for that purpose. Notwithstanding the provisions of section 290.50, written findings by the commissioner, notice by mail to the taxpayer, and certificate for refundment by the commissioner, shall not be necessary. The provisions of section 270.10, shall not be applicable.

Sec. 6. Minnesota Statutes 1983 Supplement, section 290.92, subdivision 13, is amended to read:

Subd. 13. [REFUNDS.] (1) Where the amount of the tax withheld at the source under subdivision 2a or subdivision 3 exceeds by $1 or more the taxes (and any added penalties and interest) reported in the return of the employee taxpayer or imposed upon him by this chapter, the amount of such excess shall be refunded to the employee taxpayer. If the amount of such excess is less than $1 the commissioner shall not be required to refund that amount. Where any amount of such excess to be refunded exceeds $10, such amount on the original return shall bear interest at the rate (OF SIX PERCENT PER ANNUM) specified in section 270.76, computed from 90 days after (a) the due date of the return of the employee taxpayer or (b) the date on which his return is filed, whichever is later, to the date the refund is paid to the taxpayer. A return shall not be treated as filed until it is in processible form. A return is in processible form when it is filed on a permitted form containing the taxpayer's name, address, social security account number, the required signature, and sufficient required information (whether on the return or on required attachments) to permit the mathematical verification of tax liability shown on the return. Notwithstanding the provisions of section 290.50, written findings by the commissioner, notice by mail to the taxpayer, and certificate for refundment by the commissioner, shall not be necessary. The provisions of section 270.10, shall not be applicable.

(2) Any action of the commissioner in refunding the amount of such excess shall not constitute a determination of the correctness of the return of the employee taxpayer within the purview of section 290.46.

A return is in processible form when the return is filed on a permitted form, and the return contains the taxpayer's name, address, social security account number, the required signature, and sufficient required information (whether on the return or on required attachments) to permit the mathematical verification of tax liability shown on the return. Notwithstanding the provisions of section 290.50, written findings by the commissioner, notice by mail to the taxpayer, and certificate for refundment by the commissioner, shall not be necessary. The provisions of section 270.10, shall not be applicable.

Notwithstanding the provisions of section 290.50, written findings by the commissioner, notice by mail to the taxpayer, and certificate for refundment by the commissioner, shall not be necessary. The provisions of section 270.10, shall not be applicable.

Subdivision 1. [PROCEDURES; TIME LIMIT.] A company, joint stock association, copartnership, corporation, or individual who has paid, voluntarily or otherwise, or from whom there has been collected (other than by proceedings instituted by the attorney general under sections 294.06 and 294.08, subdivision 3) an amount of gross earnings tax for any year in excess of the amount legally due for that year, may file with the commissioner of revenue a claim for a refund of such excess. Except as provided in subdivision 4, no such claim shall be entertained unless filed within two years after such tax was paid or collected, or within three and one-half years from the filing of the return, whichever period is the longer. Upon the filing of a claim the commissioner shall examine the same and shall make and file written findings thereon denying or allowing the claim in whole or in part and shall mail a notice thereof to such company, joint stock association, copartnership, corporation, or individual at the address stated upon the return. If such claim is allowed in whole or in part, the commissioner shall credit the amount of the allowance against any tax due the state from the claimant and for the balance of said allowance, if any, the commissioner shall issue his certificate for the refundment of the excess paid. The commissioner of finance shall cause such refund to be paid out of the proceeds of the gross earnings taxes imposed by Minnesota Statutes 1967, Chapters 294 and 295 as other state moneys are expended. Except as provided in subdivision 4 no such claim shall be entertained unless filed within two years after such tax was paid, or within three years from the filing of the return, whichever period is the longer. The commissioner shall examine the claim and make and file written findings thereon denying or allowing the claim in whole or in part and shall mail a notice thereof to such person at the address stated upon the claim. Any allowance shall include interest on the excess determined at a rate (OF SIX PERCENT PER ANNUM) specified in section 270.76 from the date such excess was paid or collected until the date it is refunded or credited. If such claim is allowed in whole or in part, the commissioner shall credit the amount of the allowance against any taxes under sections 297A.01 to 297A.44 due from the claimant and for the balance of said allowance, if any, the commissioner shall issue his certificate for the refundment of the excess paid, and the commissioner of finance shall cause such refund to be paid out of the proceeds of the taxes imposed by sections 297A.01 to 297A.44, as other state moneys are expended. So much of the proceeds of such taxes as may be necessary are hereby appropriated for that purpose.

Sec. 14. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 298.09, subdivision 4, is amended to read:

Subd. 4. If the amount of tax determined by the commissioner is subsequently found to be erroneous, the commissioner may, at any time within three years from the date the tax is certified as provided in section 298.10, redetermine the amount thereof. No such redetermination shall be made increasing the tax unless the person from whom the additional amount is due is given ten days written notice thereof and an opportunity to be heard thereon. If an order is made increasing the tax, the same proceedings shall be had as provided for occupation taxes originally determined and certified. Any person who has paid an occupation tax may apply to the commissioner within the time herein limited for a redetermination of the tax, and if the commissioner determines that the tax has been overpaid, he shall make and file an order determining the amount of such overpayment, and credit it against occupation taxes otherwise payable by the person who has overpaid the amount as so determined. If the tax is increased, interest at the rate specified in section 270.75 from the date payment should have been made shall be determined and paid; if the tax is reduced, interest at the rate (OF SIX PERCENT PER ANNUM) specified in section 270.76 from the date of overpayment shall be allowed.

Sec. 15. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 299.05, is amended to read:

299.05 [ASSESSMENT BY COMMISSIONER.]

Upon receipt of the report provided for in section 299.03, the commissioner of revenue shall determine, from information as may be possessed, or obtained, whether the report is correct, or incorrect; and, if found correct, the commissioner shall determine the amount of tax due from the person, enter the amount of the tax in department records, make assessment of taxes due from the person, and the amount that has been paid; and, on or before June 30, of each year, demand payment from the person. The commissioner of revenue shall have power, in case he shall deem the report incorrect, or in case the report is not made and filed with the commissioner as provided in section 299.03, to make findings as to the amount of taxes due after hearing upon notice to the person interested, and the findings shall have the same effect as the determination of the amount of such taxes upon a report made as hereinbefore provided.

A person subletting land for the use of which is received royalty shall be required to pay taxes only on the difference between the amount of royalty paid by him or her and the amount received.

If the amount of tax determined by the commissioner is subsequently found to be erroneous, the commissioner may, at any time within three years from the date allowed above for the original assessment, redetermine the amount of the tax. No redetermination shall be made increasing the tax unless the person from whom the additional amount is due is given ten days written notice of the proposed increase and the person's right to a hearing pursuant to chapter 14. Any person who has paid a royalty tax may apply to the commissioner within three years from the date allowed above for the original assessment for a redetermination of the tax and if the commissioner determines that the tax has been overpaid, he or she shall make and file an order determining the amount of the overpayment and credit the overpayment against the royalty taxes otherwise payable by the person who overpaid the tax. If the tax is increased, interest at the rate specified in section 270.75 from the date payment should have been made shall be determined and added to the tax. If the tax is reduced, interest at the rate (OF SIX PERCENT PER ANNUM) specified in section 270.76 from the date of the overpayment shall be allowed.

Loans made under the authority of chapter 56 must be in amounts in compliance with section 53.05, clause (3), or 56.131, subdivision 1, paragraph (a), whichever is less. The right to extend credit or lend money and to collect and receive charges therefor as provided by chapter 334, or in lieu thereof to charge, collect, and receive interest at the rate of 21.75 percent per annum. Nothing in this subdivision is deemed to supersede, repeal, or amend any provision of section 53.05. A licensee making a loan under this chapter secured by a lien on real estate shall comply with the requirements of section 47.20, subdivision 8.

(b) Loans made under this section at a rate of interest not in excess of that provided for in paragraph (a) may be secured by real or personal property, or both. If the proceeds of a loan made after August 1, (1984) 1987 are used in whole or in part to satisfy the balance owed on a contract for deed, the rate of interest charged on the loan must not exceed the rate provided in section 47.20, subdivision 4a. If the proceeds of a loan secured by a first lien on the borrower's primary residence are used to finance the purchase of the borrower's primary residence, the loan must comply with the provisions of section 47.20.

Sec. 6. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 56.12, is amended to read:

56.12 [ADVERTISING; TAKING OF SECURITY; PLACE OF BUSINESS.]

No licensee shall advertise, print, display, publish, distribute, or broadcast, or cause or permit to be advertised, printed, displayed, published, distributed, or broadcast, in any manner any statement or representation with regard to the rates, terms, or conditions for the lending of money, credit, goods, or things in action which is false, misleading, or deceptive. The commissioner may order any licensee to desist from any conduct which he shall find to be a violation of the foregoing provisions.

The commissioner may require that rates of charge, if stated by a licensee, be stated fully and clearly in such manner as he may deem necessary to prevent misunderstanding thereof by prospective borrowers. A statement of rates of charge that meets the requirements of the federal Truth-in-Lending Act and regulations thereunder shall be deemed full compliance with this section.

A licensee may take a lien upon real estate as security for any loan exceeding $2,700 in principal amount made under this chapter. The provisions of sections 47.20 and 47.21 do not apply to loans made under this chapter, except as provided in this section. No loan secured by a first lien on a borrower's primary residence shall be made pursuant to this section if the proceeds of the loan are used to finance the purchase of the borrower's primary residence, unless:

(1) the proceeds of the loan are used to finance the purchase of a manufactured home; or

(2) the proceeds of the loan are used in whole or in part to satisfy the balance owed on a contract for deed. The rate of interest charged on such a loan made after August 1, (1984) 1987, shall not exceed the rate provided in section 47.20, subdivision 4a.

If the proceeds of the loan are used to finance the purchase of the borrower's primary residence, the licensee shall consent to the subsequent transfer of the real estate if the existing borrower continues after transfer to be obligated for repayment of the entire remaining indebtedness. The licensee shall release the existing borrower from all obligations under the loan instruments, if the transferee (1) meets the standards of credit worthiness normally used by persons in the business of making loans, including but not limited to the ability of the transferee to make the loan payments and satisfactorily maintain the property used as collateral, and (2) executes an agreement in writing with the licensee whereby the transferee assumes the obligations of the existing borrower under the loan instruments. Any such agreement shall not affect the priority, validity or enforceability of any loan instrument. A licensee may charge a fee not in excess of one-tenth of one percent of the remaining unpaid principal balance in the event the loan is assumed by the transferee and the existing borrower continues after the transfer to be obligated for repayment of the entire assumed indebtedness. A licensee may charge a fee not in excess of one percent of the remaining unpaid principal balance in the event the remaining indebtedness is assumed by the transferee and the existing borrower is released from all obligations under the loan instruments, but in no event shall the fee exceed $150.

A licensee making a loan under this chapter secured by a lien on real estate shall comply with the requirements of section 47.20, subdivision 8.

No licensee shall conduct the business of making loans under this chapter within any office, room, or place of business in which any other business is solicited or engaged in, or in association or conjunction therewith, if the commissioner finds that the character of the other business is such that it would facilitate evasions of this chapter or of the rules and regulations lawfully made hereunder. The commissioner may promulgate rules dealing with such other businesses.

No licensee shall transact the business or make any loan provided for by this chapter under any other name or at any other place of business than that named in the license. No licensee shall take any confession of judgment or any power of attorney. No licensee shall take any note or promise to pay that does not accurately disclose the principal amount of the loan, the time for which it is made, and the agreed rate or amount of charge, nor any instrument in which blanks are left to be filled in after execution. Nothing herein is deemed to prohibit the making of loans by mail."

(20) Interest earned on capital gains or income recognized on the sale of agricultural land or income received from the rental of agricultural land, as allowed in section 4.

Sec. 4. [290.088] [DEDUCTIONS FOR SALE OR RENTAL OF AGRICULTURAL LAND.]

Subdivision 1. [DEFINITIONS.] (a) "Agricultural land" means land which is or has been devoted for the last five years to agricultural purposes and includes any agricultural buildings or an agricultural homestead located thereon. Wetlands, naturally vegetated lands, and woodlands contiguous to or surrounded by agricultural lands are agricultural lands if under the same ownership or management during the period of agricultural use.

(b) "Agricultural purposes" means the production of vegetables, forage, grains, and other agricultural crops, livestock or livestock products, dairy animals or dairy products, poultry or poultry products, horticultural and nursery stock, fruit, or bees and apiary products.

(c) "Beginning farmer" means any person who is a United States citizen and Minnesota resident; who provides proof of participation in a farm management program; who uses or intends to use the agricultural land purchased or rented exclusively for agricultural purposes; who has with the assistance of the local soil and water conservation office prepared a plan for the farm rented or purchased; and who has, including spouse and dependents, a total net worth valued at less than $150,000, adjusted as provided in subdivision 6.

(d) "Landowner" means a partner, family farm corporation, or an authorized farm corporation as defined in section 500.24, subdivision 2, which owns agricultural land, or an individual who is a United States citizen or permanent resident alien who owns agricultural land, except that any partner, family farm corporation, authorized farm corporation, or individual that acquires agricultural land for the purpose of obtaining the income tax deduction provided for in this section shall not be deemed to be a landowner.

(e) "Seller-sponsored loan" has the meaning given it in section 41.52, subdivision 8.

(f) "Rental income" means income, whether in cash or in crops, from the rental of at least 75 acres of agricultural land pursuant to a written lease of at least three years duration. If the lease provides for rent payment in crops, the amount of rental income is the cash value of the crops at the time they are received by the landowner. Crops are received by the landowner when the landowner has control over them or when the landowner can demand their payment under the lease.

Subd. 2. [CAPITAL GAINS DEDUCTION.] To the extent included in federal adjusted gross income, there shall be allowed as a subtraction from the federal adjusted gross income of any landowner, 50 percent of capital gains or income recognized and otherwise taxable on the sale of agricultural land consisting of 75 acres or more to a beginning farmer for agricultural purposes.

The deduction shall apply only to capital gains recognized in the taxable year during which the sale occurred. The deduction shall not apply to that portion of capital gains recognized and included in federal adjusted gross income which exceeds $50,000.

Subd. 3. [DEDUCTION FOR INTEREST ON SALE WITH SELLER-SPONSORED LOAN.] There shall be allowed as a subtraction from the federal adjusted gross income of any landowner interest income earned on the sale of at least 75 acres of agricultural land with a seller-sponsored loan to a beginning farmer for agricultural purposes.

This subdivision shall apply only if the following conditions are met:

(1) The loan will be completely amortized in 20 years or less with even payments of interest and principal and no balloon payment at the end, or the loan is amortized for 20 years with a balloon payment in ten years or less;

(2) The loan has an annual imputed interest rate equal to the minimum rate allowed by the Internal Revenue Service for transactions between nonrelated parties to meet installment sales requirements; and

(3) The interest is not excludable under section 41.58, subdivision 3.

Subd. 4. [DEDUCTION FOR RENTAL INCOME.] There shall be allowed as a subtraction from federal adjusted gross income 50 percent of the rental income of a landowner from the rental to a beginning farmer of agricultural land used for agricultural purposes, however, no deduction is allowed for rental income exceeding $10,000 per year, and the excess shall be treated as ordinary income.

No landowner may claim this deduction for leases with more than one beginning farmer from rentals on the same tract or parcel of land or from rentals to any member of the landowner's immediate family. The rental stated in the lease must be equal to or less than the prevailing free market gross rental rate for that grade of land as determined for property tax purposes for assessments made on January 2 of the year in which the lease is executed. The lease may provide that the rental rate shall be related to the prevailing free market gross rental rate as determined for each year. The taxpayer must certify on the return that no rental agreement with any other person was cancelled for the purpose of qualifying for the deduction provided in this subdivision.

Subd. 5. [QUALIFICATION.] In order to qualify for any of the deductions provided in this section, the taxpayer shall file with the first income tax return on which the taxpayer claims a deduction under this section with respect to each sale or lease a notarized statement from the beginning farmer who purchased or rented the land. The statement shall contain a list of the assets, debts, and net worth of the beginning farmer together with any other information required by the commissioner of revenue.

Subd. 6. [NET WORTH ADJUSTMENT.] The maximum net worth allowed for qualification as a beginning farmer shall be annually adjusted by the percentage used to adjust the tax brackets as provided in section 290.06, subdivision 2d. The percentage announced by the commissioner in October under section 290.06, subdivision 2d, shall be the percentage by which the maximum net worth amount is increased for sales occurring or leases first occurring during the following calendar year.

Subd. 7. [EARLY TERMINATION OF LEASE.] If a lease is terminated by a land owner prior to expiration of the three-year period, there shall be added to gross income for the taxable year in which the lease was terminated amounts deducted in previous years pursuant to subdivision 4, to the extent that the deduction resulted in a tax benefit.

If the identity or location of the parent or Indian custodian or the tribe cannot be determined, or if the attempt to serve notice to any of these parties is unsuccessful, notice must be served upon the secretary in like manner. No child custody proceeding that could have as a possible outcome either an involuntary foster care placement or a termination of parental rights shall be held until at least ten days after receipt of notice by the parent and Indian custodian and the tribe. If it has been necessary to serve notice upon the secretary, no proceeding shall be held until at least 20 days after receipt of the notice by the secretary. The parent or Indian custodian or the tribe shall, upon request, be granted up to 20 additional days to prepare for the proceeding.

Subd. 2. [INDIGENCY.] When the court determines indigency, the parent, the Indian custodian, and the child have the right to court-appointed counsel in a removal, placement, or termination proceeding. When an Indian custodian is involved, the court shall seek payment for legal counsel from the secretary in the manner described in United States Code, title 25, section 1912(b).

Subd. 3. [ACCESS TO DOCUMENTS.] Each party entitled to notice of a child custody proceeding involving an Indian child that could have as a possible outcome an involuntary foster care placement or termination of parental rights may examine all reports or other documents pertaining to the placement or termination, notwithstanding the provisions of chapter 13.

Subd. 4. [REMEDIAL SERVICES.] When a party initiates a child custody proceeding involving an Indian child that could have as a possible outcome an involuntary foster care placement or termination of parental rights, that party shall satisfy the court that active efforts have been made to provide remedial services and rehabilitative programs designed to prevent the breakup of the Indian family, including notice to the child's tribe, and that these efforts have proved unsuccessful.

Subd. 5. [ADMISSIONS.] Where a parent or Indian custodian voluntarily admits to the allegations of the complaint or petition in a child custody proceeding, the admission is not valid unless executed in writing, recorded before a judge, and accompanied by the presiding judge's certificate that the terms and consequences of the admission were fully explained and fully understood by the parent or Indian custodian. The court shall also certify that either the parent or Indian custodian fully understood the explanation in English or that it was interpreted in a language that the parent or Indian custodian understood.

Subd. 6. [EVIDENCE REQUIRED FOR INVOLUNTARY FOSTER CARE PLACEMENT.] No involuntary foster care placement may be ordered in a proceeding absent a determination supported by clear and convincing evidence, including testimony of qualified expert witnesses, that the continued custody of the child by the parent or Indian custodian is likely to result in serious emotional or physical damage to the child.

Subd. 7. [EVIDENCE REQUIRED FOR TERMINATION OF PARENTAL RIGHTS.] No termination of parental rights may be ordered in a proceeding absent a determination supported by evidence beyond a reasonable doubt, including testimony of qualified expert witnesses, that the continued custody of the child by the parent or Indian custodian is likely to result in serious emotional or physical damage to the child.

Subd. 8. [EFFECT OF PRIOR VOLUNTARY PLACEMENT.] No involuntary foster care placement or termination of parental rights may be ordered where the determination is based solely upon the prior voluntary placement of the child.

Sec. 9. [257.358] [PARENTAL RIGHTS; VOLUNTARY TERMINATION.]

Subdivision 1. [PARENTAL CONSENT WITHDRAWN.] In a voluntary proceeding involving an Indian child for termination of parental rights or adoptive placement, the parent may withdraw consent for any reason at any time before the entry of a final decree of termination or adoption, if the adoption proceeding includes the termination of parental rights of either parent, and the child shall be returned to the parent.

Subd. 2. [WITHDRAWN CONSENT.] After the entry of a final decree of adoption of an Indian child, the parent may withdraw consent on the grounds that consent was obtained through fraud, or duress and may petition the court to vacate the decree. Upon a finding that the consent was obtained through fraud, or duress, the court shall vacate the decree and return the child to the parent.

Subd. 3. [RESTRICTIONS UPON CONSENT.] No consent to a termination of parental rights to or adoptive placement of an Indian child made prior to or within ten days of birth of the Indian child is valid.

Sec. 10. [257.359] [ADOPTIVE OR FOSTER PLACEMENT.]

Subdivision 1. [ADOPTION PLACEMENT PREFERENCE.] In an adoptive placement of an Indian child, a preference shall be given, absent good cause to the contrary, to a placement with:

- (1) a member of the child's extended family;
- (2) other members of the Indian child's tribe; or
- (3) other Indian families.

Subd. 2. [PLACEMENT FOR PREADOPTIVE OR FOSTER CARE.] A child accepted for foster care or preadoptive placement must be placed in the least restrictive setting that most resembles a family and in which his or her special needs, if any, may be met. The child must be placed reasonably close to his or her home, taking into account any special needs of the child. The child shall be placed in an environment that maintains sibling relationships, taking into account any special needs of the child. In a foster care or preadoptive placement, a preference shall be given, in the absence of good cause to the contrary, to a placement with:

- (1) a member of the Indian child's extended family;
- (2) a foster home licensed, approved, or specified by the Indian child's tribe;
- (3) an Indian foster home licensed or approved by an authorized non-Indian licensing authority; or
- (4) an institution for children approved by an Indian tribe or operated by an Indian organization that has a program suitable to meet the Indian child's needs.

Subd. 3. [TRIBAL PREFERENCE FOR PLACEMENT.] In the case of a placement under subdivisions 1 and 2 of this section, if the Indian child's tribe establishes a different order of preference by resolution, the agency or court effecting the placement shall follow the order as long as the placement is the least restrictive setting appropriate to the particular needs of the child, as provided in subdivision 2. If appropriate, the preference of the Indian child or parent shall be considered. If a consenting parent expresses a desire for anonymity, the court or agency shall give weight to that desire in applying the preferences.

Subd. 4. [STANDARDS FOR PREFERENCE.] The standards to be applied in meeting the preference requirements of this section are the prevailing social and cultural standards of the Indian community in which the parent or extended family resides or with which the parent or extended family members maintain social and cultural ties.

Subd. 5. [PLACEMENT RECORDS.] The commissioner shall maintain a record of the number and names of Indian children in placement by county of placement. The record shall identify Indian children in placement in terms of the order of preference described in this section. This information shall be made available to an Indian tribe upon request by the tribe notwithstanding the provisions of chapter 13.

Subd. 6. [LOCATING THE EXTENDED FAMILY.] The agency seeking placement is responsible for making reasonable efforts to identify and locate extended family members.

Subd. 7. [PLACEMENT OUT OF ORDER OF PREFERENCE.] Where good cause exists to make a placement not within the order of preference described in this section, the court must determine that the benefits of the placement outweigh the potential effect of racial or ethnic discrimination against the child.

Sec. 11. [257.360] [STANDING TO INVALIDATE PROCEEDINGS.]

An Indian child who is the subject of an action for involuntary foster care placement or termination of parental rights, a parent or Indian custodian from whose custody the child was removed, and the Indian child's tribe may petition the court to invalidate the action upon a showing that the action was in violation of sections 3 to 10.

Sec. 12. [257.361] [PETITION FOR RETURN OF CUSTODY; REMOVAL FROM FOSTER CARE.]

Subdivision 1. [BIOLOGICAL PARENT PETITION.] When a final decree of adoption of an Indian child has been vacated or set aside, or the adoptive parents voluntarily consent to the termination of their parental rights to the child, a biological parent or prior Indian custodian may petition for return of custody and the court shall grant such petition unless there is a showing, in a proceeding subject to the provisions of section 8, that the return of custody is not in the best interests of the child.

Subd. 2. [NOTICE OF REMOVAL; REVIEW.] Whenever the placement of an Indian child may be changed, advance notice shall be provided to the child's tribe, and to the parents and the Indian custodian whose familial rights have not been terminated. Review of the placement shall be granted upon petition by the tribe or the parents of Indian custodian whose familial rights have not been terminated.

Sec. 13. [257.362] [INFORMATION ON TRIBAL AFFILIATION AND BIOLOGICAL PARENTS.]

Upon application by an adopted Indian adult over the age of 18, the court which entered the final decree shall inform the adopted Indian adult of the tribal affiliation, if any, of the adopted Indian adult's biological parents and provide other information necessary to protect rights flowing from the individual's tribal relationship.

Sec. 14. [257.363] [IMPROPER REMOVAL OF CHILD FROM CUSTODY.]

If any petitioner in an Indian child custody proceeding has improperly removed the child from custody of the parent or Indian custodian, or has improperly retained custody after a visit or other temporary relinquishment of custody, the court shall decline jurisdiction over the petition and shall return the child to his parent or Indian custodian unless returning the child to his parent or custodian would subject the child to a substantial and immediate danger or threat of danger.

Sec. 15. [257.364] [EMERGENCY REMOVAL OF CHILD.]

Nothing in sections 1 to 16 prevents the emergency removal of an Indian child from his parent or Indian custodian or the emergency placement of the child in a foster home or institution in order to prevent imminent physical harm to the child. The local social service agency or private childplacing agency involved shall ensure that the emergency removal or placement terminates immediately when removal or placement is no longer necessary to prevent imminent physical harm to the child, and shall promptly initiate a child custody proceeding subject to the provisions of sections 1 to 16, transfer the child to the jurisdiction of the appropriate Indian tribe, or restore the child to the parent or Indian custodian.

Sec. 16. [257.365] [RECORDS; INFORMATION AVAILABILITY.]

Subdivision 1. [COURT DECREE INFORMATION.] A state court entering a final decree or order in an Indian child adoptive placement shall provide the secretary, the department of public welfare, and the child's tribe with a copy of the decree or order together with other information necessary to show:

- (1) the name and tribal affiliation of the child;*
- (2) the names and addresses of the biological parents;*
- (3) the names and addresses of the adoptive parents; and*
- (4) the identity of any agency having files or information relating to the adoptive placement.*

If the court records contain an affidavit of the biological parent or parents requesting anonymity, the court shall delete the name and address of the biological parents from the information sent to the child's tribe.

Subd. 2. [DISCLOSURE OF RECORDS.] Upon the request of the adopted Indian child over the age of 18, the adoptive or foster parents of an Indian child, or an Indian tribe, the department of public welfare shall disclose information necessary for membership of an Indian child in the tribe in which the child may be eligible for membership, or for determining any rights or benefits associated with that membership. If the documents relating to the child contain an affidavit from the biological parent or parents requesting anonymity, the department of public welfare shall delete the name and address of the biological parents from the information sent to the child's tribe."

The training shall include the information required by the rule for that agent as developed by the commissioner and shall include, if known, names of infectious agents to which the employee is routinely exposed, proper techniques for the employee to avoid self-contamination, and symptoms and effects of contamination. Training shall be provided upon the initial assignment of the employee to a job where that person will be routinely exposed to an infectious agent. Existing inservice, hospital licensure or certification programs which the commissioner determines substantially comply with the rules adopted pursuant to this subdivision may be certified by the commissioner to satisfy all or a part of the rules. "Infectious agent" means a communicable bacterium, rickettsia, parasites, virus, or fungus determined by the commissioner by rule, with approval of the commissioner of health, which according to documented medical or scientific evidence causes substantial acute or chronic illness or permanent disability as a foreseeable and direct result of any routine exposure to the infectious agent. Subd. 11. An employee acting in good faith has the right to refuse to work under conditions which the employee reasonably believes present an imminent danger of death or serious physical harm to the employee.

A reasonable belief of imminent danger of death or serious physical harm includes but is not limited to a reasonable belief of the employee that the employee has been assigned to work with a hazardous substance, harmful physical agent or infectious agent under conditions which are inconsistent with the training or information provided by the employer pursuant to section 182.653, subdivision 4b, clauses (g) or (h), section 182.653, subdivision 4c, clause (f), section 182.653, subdivision 4d, section 182.653, subdivision 4e, section 182.653, subdivision 4f, or section 182.654, subdivision 10.

Sec. 4. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 116J.19, subdivision 13, is amended to read:

Subd. 13. Beginning January 1, (1978) 1985, no new room air conditioner or room air conditioner heat pump shall be sold or installed or transported for resale into Minnesota unless it has an energy efficiency ratio of (7.0) 7.8 or higher. For purposes of this subdivision, "energy efficiency ratio" means the ratio of the cooling capacity of the air conditioner in British thermal units per hour to the electrical input in watts. (TO DETERMINE THE ENERGY EFFICIENCY RATIO, ALL ROOM AIR CONDITIONER MODELS SHALL BE TESTED IN ACCORDANCE WITH THE METHODS AND CONDITIONS SPECIFIED IN AMERICAN NATIONAL STANDARD Z234.1, AND AMERICAN SOCIETY OF HEATING, REFRIGERATING, AND AIR CONDITIONING ENGINEERS STANDARD 16-69) The cooling capacity, electrical input, and energy efficiency ratio of room air conditioners and room air conditioning heat pumps is determined by using the standard for room air conditioners, approved by the American National Standards Institute on April 20, 1972, known as ANSI/AHAM RAC-1, with ASHRAE 58-74 used in lieu of ASHRAE 58-65. The method of sampling of room air conditioners shall be that required by the Department of Energy and found in Federal Register, volume 44, pages 22410-22418 (April 13, 1979). A new room air conditioner having dual voltage ratings shall conform to the energy efficiency ratio requirements at each rating. (THIS SUBDIVISION SHALL NOT APPLY TO AIR CONDITIONERS IN MINNESOTA ON OCTOBER 1, 1977.)

The commissioner shall develop and administer state programs of energy audits of residential and commercial buildings including those required by United States Code, title 42, section 8211, et seq. and section 8281, et seq. (THE ATTORNEY GENERAL MAY RELEASE INFORMATION ON CONSUMER COMPLAINTS ABOUT THE OPERATION OF THE PROGRAM TO THE COMMISSIONER.) The commissioner shall continue to administer the residential energy audit program as originally established under the provisions of United States Code, title 42, section 8211, et seq., through July 1, 1986, irrespective of any prior expiration date provided in United States Code, title 42, section 8216. The commissioner shall have authority to approve temporary programs if they are likely to result in the installation of as many conservation measures as would have been installed had the utility met the requirements of United States Code, title 42, section 8211, et seq. The consumer services division and the attorney general are authorized to release information on consumer comments about the operation of the program to the commissioner.

Sec. 7. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 116J.36, as amended by Laws 1983, chapter 301, section 129, is amended to read:

116J.36 [DISTRICT HEATING AND QUALIFIED ENERGY IMPROVEMENT LOANS.]

Subdivision 1. [POLICIES.] Developing and improving efficient and economical district heating systems and certain public works capital improvements which conserve energy or substitute a lower cost, more plentiful, or indigenous fuel is a public purpose for state and local financing and a proper function of state and local government. Climate and geography make a reliable, economic supply of energy essential for (INDUSTRIAL, COMMERCIAL) industry, commerce, and residential heating. Imported supplies of certain fuels are increasingly costly, unreliable, and environmentally disadvantageous. District heating systems employing cogeneration techniques and innovative technology offer an important means of increasing the efficiency of Minnesota's energy systems and reducing the state's reliance on imported energy supplies. The combination of the large initial capital cost and investors' lack of familiarity with district heating has made the private market reluctant to provide the necessary capital for district heating projects. As a result, public leadership, cooperation, and aid are needed to demonstrate the feasibility of district heating systems by establishing economically viable municipal district heating systems as demonstration projects. Certain other types of improvements offer municipalities substantial opportunities for reducing energy costs or generating revenues from wastes. Municipal district heating systems and other qualified improvements which conserve energy or allow for the substitution of fuels may be financed by loans from the state and from other sources available to municipalities.

Subd. 2. [DEFINITIONS.] In this section:

(a) "Construction costs" means all costs associated with the construction, modification or expansion of a district heating system except for preliminary planning costs and detailed design costs. Construction costs include the cost of debt service from the time a construction loan is made until five years after the beginning of the operation of the district heating system constructed or the part of the system being modified or expanded.

(b) "District heating" means the use of a central energy conversion facility to produce hot water or steam for a district heating system. District heating facilities may also produce electricity in addition to hot water or steam.

(c) "Municipality" means any county, city, town, school district, or a municipal power agency (, OR) formed pursuant to sections 453.53 to 453.62. Municipality also means a public utility, as defined in section 452.01, subdivision 3, owned and operated by a city, however organized (OR). For purposes of a district heating system only, municipality also means a non-profit corporation organized pursuant to the provisions of chapter 317 whose membership is limited to the mayor and governing body of the city in which the district heating system is located.

(d) "District heating system" means any existing or proposed facility for (1) the production, through cogeneration or otherwise, of hot water or steam to be used for district heating, or (2) the transmission and distribution of hot water or steam for district heating either directly to heating consumers or to another facility or facilities for transmission and distribution, or (3) any part or combination of the foregoing facilities.

(e) "Qualified energy improvement" means a capital improvement to public land, buildings, or energy using systems, other than a district heating system, including the purchase or installation of equipment to reduce the usage of conventional energy sources or to use alternative energy resources. Qualified energy improvements also include waste-to-energy facilities which meet the criteria specified in subdivision 8a and any rule adopted thereto.

Subd. 3. [ELIGIBILITY, DISTRICT HEATING.] The commissioner of finance, upon (REQUEST) recommendation of the (GOVERNOR) authority, may make loans to municipalities for the acquisition, construction, expansion, or modification of district heating systems. A loan shall be made only to a municipality that has demonstrated to the authority that:

(a) The municipality has the financial capability to sponsor the project;

(b) The project is technologically feasible;

(c) The district heating project will become a cogeneration facility or the project will utilize hot water or, if the project involves an existing district steam heating system, the project will become integrated with a hot water district heating system, or the project will allow the use of nonpetroleum fuels or will construct an efficient heat transmission system; and

(d) The municipality has made adequate provision to assure proper and efficient operation and maintenance of the project after construction is completed.

Subd. 3a. [ELIGIBILITY, QUALIFIED ENERGY IMPROVEMENTS.] The commissioner of finance, upon recommendation of the authority, may make loans to a municipality for the acquisition, construction, or expansion of a qualified energy improvement. A loan shall be made only to a municipality that has demonstrated that:

(a) the municipality has the financial capability to sponsor the qualified energy improvement;

(b) the improvement is technologically feasible;

(c) the improvement conforms to criteria specified in subdivision 8a and any rule adopted thereto; and

(d) the municipality has made adequate provision to assure proper and efficient operation and maintenance of the improvement after construction is completed.

Subd. 3b. [GRANT ELIGIBILITY, DISTRICT HEATING.] The commissioner of energy (, PLANNING) and economic development may provide planning grants to municipalities for planning related to the development of district heating systems. The municipality must demonstrate that a community heatload survey and map have been successfully completed, that potential district heating load is sufficiently large to justify further consideration, and that sufficient resources are available for the municipality to meet its financial requirements. Eligible planning grant costs include project definition, development of preliminary financing and distribution system plans, and obtaining commitment for detailed planning or design and preparation of a final report. The amount of the grant to a municipality is limited to 90 percent of eligible planning costs and shall not exceed $70,000 as established by rule or temporary rule.

Subd. 3c. [GRANT ELIGIBILITY, QUALIFIED ENERGY IMPROVEMENTS.] The commissioner of energy and economic development may provide planning grants to municipalities for planning related to the development of qualified energy improvements. The municipality must demonstrate that sufficient resources are available for the municipality to meet its financial requirements. Eligible planning grant costs include definition of the improvement, development of preliminary financing plans, and obtaining commitment for detailed planning or design and preparation of a final report. The amount of a grant to a municipality is limited to 90 percent of eligible planning costs and shall not exceed $100,000 as established by rule or temporary rule.

Subd. 4. [PRIORITIES, DISTRICT HEATING.] The (COMMISSIONER OF ENERGY, PLANNING AND DEVELOPMENT) authority shall give higher priority to a project that does more to achieve the following goals:

(a) The district heating conversion facility employs cogeneration techniques;

(b) The facility uses renewable or nonpetroleum sources of energy;

(c) The district heating facility will save petroleum or natural gas;

(d) The operation of the district heating facility will not have an adverse impact on the environment;

(e) The district heating facility may readily be expanded to serve additional customers or to supply additional amounts of energy, and market demand for the energy exists;

(f) The project has obtained additional financing from the federal government, private sources, or other sources of capital; and

(g) Other goals the (COMMISSIONER OF ENERGY, PLANNING AND DEVELOPMENT) authority finds desirable for district heating systems.

Subd. 4a. [PRIORITIES, ENERGY IMPROVEMENTS.] The authority shall give higher priority to qualified energy improvements that come closest to achieving the following goals:

(a) reducing the dependence of a municipality on imported fuels;

(b) providing a cost reduction or revenue source for the municipality;

(c) providing multiple benefits to residents within the municipality;

(d) demonstrating technologies for solid waste treatment.

Subd. 5. [APPLICATION.] Application for a loan to be made pursuant to subdivision 6 or 7 shall be made by a municipality to the (COMMISSIONER OF ENERGY, PLANNING AND DEVELOPMENT) authority on a form prescribed by the (COMMISSIONER OF ENERGY, PLANNING AND ECONOMIC DEVELOPMENT BY RULE) authority. The (COMMISSIONER OF ENERGY, PLANNING AND DEVELOPMENT) authority shall (REVIEW EACH APPLICATION AND) determine:

(a) Whether or not the project or proposed energy improvement is eligible for a loan;

(b) the priority of the project or qualified energy improvement when ranked with (ALL) other eligible projects or improvements for which a loan application has been submitted;

(c) The total estimated cost of the project or improvement;

(d) The amount of the loan for which the project or improvement is eligible;

(e) The terms upon which the loan would be made; and

(f) The means by which the municipality proposes to finance the project or improvement, including:

(1) A loan authorized by state law; or

(2) A grant of money appropriated by state law; or

(3) A grant to the municipality by an agency of the federal government within the amount of money then appropriated to that agency and allocated by it to projects or improvements within the state; or

(4) The appropriation of proceeds of bonds or other money of the municipality to an account for the construction of the project or improvement; or

(5) User charges, franchise fees, special assessments or taxes; or

(6) Any or all of the means referred to in clauses (1) to (5).

Subd. 6. [LOANS, DISTRICT HEATING AND QUALIFIED ENERGY IMPROVEMENTS.] Upon the recommendation of the (GOVERNOR) authority pursuant to subdivision 8, the commissioner of finance shall make loans to municipalities on the following terms:

(a) In the case of loans for design costs, the maximum amount of the loan shall be limited by the provisions of this clause. For cities of the first class and counties containing a city of the first class, individually or through the exercise of joint powers agreements, the amount of the loan shall not exceed 40 percent of the design costs. For cities of the second, third and fourth class, and other municipalities, the amount of the loan shall not exceed 90 percent of the design costs;

(b) In the case for loans for construction costs, a municipality must demonstrate that all design activities have been completed; that the project or improvement is economically and technologically feasible; that the district heating system or qualified energy improvement will be constructed, and that it has made adequate provisions to assure proper and efficient operation and maintenance of the project or improvement. For cities of the first class and counties containing a city of the first class, individually or through the exercise of joint powers agreements, the amount of the loan shall be up to 50 percent of the construction costs. For cities of the second class, the amount of the loan shall be up to 80 percent of the construction costs. For cities of the third or fourth class, and other municipalities, the amount of the loan shall be up to 90 percent of the construction costs.

(c) A loan made pursuant to this section is repayable over a period of not more than 20 years (, WITH INTEREST PAYMENTS BEGINNING THE FIRST YEAR) from the date the loan is made. Interest shall accrue from the date of the loan at a rate of interest assigned at the date of loan commitment, but the first payment of interest shall not be due until one year after the loan was made. Principal payments shall begin in the sixth year after the receipt of the loan on a 25 year level payment schedule with the balance of the principal to be retired with the payment due 20 years after receipt of the loan. Interest attributable to the first year of deferred payment shall be amortized in equal periodic payments over the remainder of the term of the loan. For each loan, the initial deposit to the state bond fund required by section 16A.65, subdivision 1, shall be made by the commissioner of finance, and no loan may be refused solely because the municipality does not provide the initial deposit.

(d) The authority may also pledge a segregated portion of the energy development fund to guarantee or insure bonds and notes, or the interest rate thereon, issued by the commissioner of finance on behalf of the state of Minnesota for purposes of section 116J.36 or 116J.37.

Subd. 7. [MODERN STEAM SYSTEMS.] (a) A municipality which has operating within its boundaries a modern steam district heating system owned by a district heating utility may apply for a loan or grant under this section even though the district heating project for which the loan or grant application is made may be planned, constructed, or owned by a district heating utility. The loan or grant application shall be treated in the same manner as loan or grant applications for district heating projects where the projects are to be planned, constructed, or owned by a municipality.

All or a portion of the proceeds of a loan made to a municipality described in this subdivision may be used to make loans to a district heating utility to provide financial assistance for the planning, modification, expansion or construction of a district heating project. Prior to making the loan to the district heating utility, the municipality shall:

(1) Adopt a district heating plan which identifies the areas of the city to be served by district heating; a time schedule indicating when service would be available in different areas of the city and the type of service to be offered; and

(2) Enter into a written agreement with the district heating utility which includes a requirement that the district heating utility restrict expansion of its existing steam system within its current geographic boundaries as determined by the municipality and develop a hot water system on a specific time schedule.

(b) The powers, authority and obligations granted to a municipality under this subdivision are supplemental to the powers, authority and obligations granted all municipalities under this section.

(c) As used in this subdivision, "modern steam district heating system" means a steam district heating system with condensate return built after 1970 and before May 30, 1981. "District heating utility" means any person, corporation, or other legal entity which owns or operates or plans to own or operate a district heating system. "District heating project" means a new district heating system, or the expansion or modification of the existing modern steam district heating system.

Subd. 8. [LOAN APPROVAL.] The commissioner of energy (, PLANNING) and economic development shall prepare and submit to the (LEGISLATIVE ADVISORY COMMISSION A LIST OF) energy and economic development authority separate lists of loan requests for district heating (LOAN REQUESTS) systems and qualified energy improvements. The list for district heating loans shall contain the supporting information required by subdivisions 3, 4, 5, 6, and 7. The list for qualified energy improvements shall contain the supporting information required by subdivisions 3a, 3c, 4a, 5, and 6. The recommendation of the (LEGISLATIVE ADVISORY COMMISSION) authority shall be transmitted to the (GOVERNOR) commissioner of finance. The (GOVERNOR) commissioner of finance shall (APPROVE OR DISAPPROVE, OR RETURN FOR FURTHER CONSIDERATION, EACH PROJECT RECOMMENDED FOR APPROVAL BY THE LEGISLATIVE ADVISORY COMMISSION. LOANS MAY BE DISBURSED ONLY UPON APPROVAL BY THE GOVERNOR) sell bonds and make loans for district heating projects and qualified energy improvements only upon the recommendation of the authority.

Subd. 8a. [CRITERIA FOR QUALIFIED ENERGY IMPROVEMENTS.] Qualified energy improvements eligible for loans shall meet criteria established in rule by the commissioner of energy and economic development. Rules relating to qualified energy improvements involving a waste-to-energy facility shall be adopted in consultation with the waste management board and the pollution control agency. An improvement involving a waste-to-energy facility must be part of a solid waste management plan approved by the pollution control agency or a plan approved pursuant to section 473.803.

Subd. 9. [PAYMENT; OBLIGATION.] The commissioner of finance shall not pay money to a municipality pursuant to an approved loan until he has determined that:

(a) Financing of the project or improvement as proposed by the municipality is assured by an irrevocable undertaking, by resolution of the governing body of the municipality, to use all money made available by the financing plan exclusively for the eligible costs of the project or improvement, and to pay any additional amount by which the cost of the project or improvement exceeds the estimate by the appropriation to the construction account of additional (MUNICIPAL) money of the municipality or the proceeds of additional bonds to be issued by the municipality; and that

(b) The governing body of the municipality has adopted a resolution obligating the municipality to repay the loan according to the terms in the loan. The obligation may be payable from user charges, franchise fees, special assessments or other money available to the municipality. The resolution shall obligate the municipality to annually impose and collect user charges, franchise fees, special assessments, or to use any other money available to it from any other specified source, in amounts and at times that if collected in full will annually produce at least five percent in excess of the amount needed for all annual costs of the system, including annual repayment on state loans. A municipality may also pledge to levy an ad valorem tax to guarantee the payments under the loan agreement. For the purpose of repaying the loan, the municipality by resolution of its governing body may fix the rates and charges for district heating system or qualified energy improvement service and products, may enter into contracts for the payment by others of costs of construction, maintenance, and use of the project or improvement in accordance with section 444.075 and may pledge the revenues derived therefrom. The commissioner of finance shall condition a loan upon the establishment of rates and charges or the execution of contracts sufficient to produce annually the revenues pledged for repayment of all annual costs of the system, including annual repayment of the state loan.

Subd. 10. [RECEIPTS.] All principal and interest payments received by the commissioner of finance in repayment of the loans authorized by this section shall be deposited in the state treasury and credited to the state bond fund and are appropriated to the commissioner of finance for the purposes of that account.

Subd. 11. [RULES.] The commissioner of energy (, PLANNING) and economic development shall adopt rules necessary to carry out the programs of this section. The commissioner of energy (, PLANNING) and economic development (SHALL) may adopt temporary rules pursuant to sections 14.29 to 14.36, meeting the requirements of this section. The rules shall contain as a minimum:

- (a) Procedures for application by municipalities; and
- (b) Criteria for reviewing grant and loan applications.

Sec. 8. [116J.381] [COMMUNITY ENERGY PROGRAM.]

Subdivision 1. [FINDINGS.] The legislature finds that the cost of energy causes economic and social stress, and that the state has an interest in facilitating solutions to energy related stresses. The legislature also finds that community-based energy programs are an effective means of implementing improved energy practices including conservation, greater efficiency in energy use, and the use of alternative resources. Further, community based energy programs are found to be a public purpose for which public money may be spent.

Subdivision 1. The commissioner shall adopt rules pursuant to chapter 14 regarding quality, information, and product safety specifications for the manufacture, labeling, installation, and thermographing of insulation. The specifications and any amendments to them shall conform as far as is practical to federal standards or other standards generally accepted and in use throughout the United States. The standards, with modifications as may be deemed necessary, may be adopted by reference. The specifications adopted and any amendments shall be based on the application of scientific principles, approved tests, and professional judgment. For purposes of this subdivision, the commissioner, in consultation with the commissioner of energy and economic development, may adopt temporary rules which may remain in effect for 360 days.

The report shall also contain for each alternate, the following information: general alignment and profile, approximate points of access, highway classification, an approximate cost estimate, relation to existing and planned regional and local development and to other transportation routes and facilities, and a statement of the expected general effect on present and future use of the property within the corridor. Sec. 5. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 161.174, is amended to read:

161.174 [SUBMISSION OF LAYOUT PLANS.]

The commissioner shall submit to the governing body of each municipality wherein a highway is proposed to be constructed or improved, a proposed layout plan for the highway construction or improvement containing: the proposed location, elevation, width and geometrics of the construction or improvement, together with a statement of the reasons therefor. Said plan shall also contain: approximate right-of-way limits; a tentative schedule for right-of-way acquisition, if known; proposed access points; frontage roads; separation structures and interchanges; location of utilities, when known; landscaping, illumination, a tentative construction schedule, if known; and the estimated cost of the construction or improvement. The commissioner shall submit more than one layout plan. Each such plan shall also be submitted to the metropolitan council and the (METROPOLITAN TRANSIT COMMISSION) regional transit board if any portion of the proposed highway construction or improvement is located in the metropolitan area. In all areas of the state a copy of the layout plan shall be sent to established regional, county and municipal planning commissions in the area affected by the highway project. Not less than 90 nor more than 120 days after said plan has been submitted, the commissioner shall hold a public hearing on the proposed highway construction or improvement at such time and place within any municipality wherein a portion of the construction or improvement is located, as the commissioner shall determine. The hearing shall be noticed, held and conducted in the manner provided in section 161.173, except that the commissioner shall mail notice of the hearing only to those municipalities and agencies entitled to receive a copy of the layout plan. The hearing shall be transcribed and a record thereof made available to each municipality or agency entitled to receive a copy of said plan. Within 180 days after the hearing is completed, the commissioner shall formally adopt a layout plan. A copy of the layout plan as adopted shall be submitted to each municipality or agency entitled to receive a copy of the proposed plan, together with the reasons for any change in the plan as presented at the hearing. Within 120 days after the receipt of the adopted layout plan, each such municipality or agency shall submit to the commissioner its approval or disapproval of the layout plan and the reasons for such disapproval, and proposed alternatives, which may include a recommendation of no highway. Such alternatives submitted by a municipality located within the metropolitan area shall, upon request of the municipality, be reviewed by the metropolitan council in order to determine whether such alternatives are likely to meet minimum federal requirements. The metropolitan council is authorized to provide whatever assistance it deems advisable to the submitting municipality in order to assist it in arriving at an alternative which meets minimum federal requirements. If said plan or any part thereof is not disapproved within such period, the commissioner may proceed to prepare final construction plans and specifications for the highway construction or improvement consistent with the adopted layout plan, and may acquire the necessary right-of-way. If the layout plan or any part thereof is disapproved by any municipality or agency, and the commissioner determines to proceed with the plan without modifications, he shall proceed in the manner provided in section 161.175. If the commissioner determines to proceed with the plan with modifications, he shall submit the modified layout plan to the municipalities and agencies entitled to receive the original layout plan in the manner described above, for approval or disapproval by each such municipality or agency within 60 days after receipt of the modified layout plan. If the modified layout plan or any part thereof is not disapproved by any municipality or agency within 60 days after its receipt, the commissioner may proceed to prepare final construction plans and specifications consistent with the modified layout plan, and may acquire the necessary right-of-way. If the modified plan is disapproved by any municipality and the commissioner determines to proceed with the plan without additional modification, he shall proceed in the manner provided in section 161.175. If the layout plan is disapproved, either as originally submitted or as modified and the commissioner does not act pursuant to section 161.175, within one year from the date of the completion of the hearing, any objecting municipality entitled to receive a copy of the layout plan by virtue of this section may invoke the appellate procedure pursuant to section 161.175, in the same manner as the same might be invoked by the commissioner. In the event the appellate procedure is invoked by either the commissioner or the municipality, the commissioner shall hold a public hearing prior to the appointment of an appeal board. Such hearing shall be limited to the proposed alternative layout plans.

(c) No action can be maintained to enforce any liability under this section unless the person who is injured by the failure to disclose returns the fine print in original condition to the person violating the provisions of paragraph (a) or (b) and the action is brought within one year after discovery of the violation upon which it is based and in no event more than three years after the fine print was sold."

The governing board of a watershed management organization may petition the water resources board for an order changing the boundaries of a watershed district wholly within the metropolitan area, either by adding new territory to the district or by transferring territory that is within the district to the jurisdiction of another watershed management organization. The petition must:

(a) describe with particularity the change in boundary requested, the territory affected, and the reasons for the change;

(b) show that the change is consistent with the purposes and requirements of sections 473.875 to 473.883; and

(c) identify any property subject to subdivision 3. The petition must be accompanied by a written statement of concurrence in the petition from the governing body of each statutory or home rule charter city and town and each watershed management organization having jurisdiction over the territory proposed to be added or transferred. Upon the filing of a sufficient petition, the water resources board shall give notice of the filing of the petition by publication once each week for two successive weeks in a legal newspaper in each county affected and by mail to the county auditor of each county affected and to the chief official of each statutory or home rule charter city and township affected. The notice must describe the action proposed by the petition and invite written comments on the petition for consideration by the board. The notice must announce that any person who objects to the action proposed in the petition may submit a written request for hearing to the board within 20 days of the last publication of the notice of the filing of the petition and that if no timely request for hearing is received, the board will make a decision on the petition pursuant to this subdivision without conducting the public hearing required under chapter 112. If no timely request for hearing is received, the board shall make a decision on the petition without a hearing within 30 days after the last publication of the notice. If one or more timely requests for hearing are received, the board shall hold a hearing on the petition and shall follow the procedures in chapter 112 regarding notice and conduct of hearings. After completing the procedures required by this subdivision, the board shall, by its findings and order, make the boundary change requested if the board determines that:

(a) the governing body of each statutory or home rule charter city and town and each watershed management organization having jurisdiction over the territory proposed to be added or transferred concurs in the petition,

(b) the change is consistent with the purposes and requirements of sections 473.875 to 473.883, and

(c) the change can be accomplished in conformance with subdivision 3.

The board shall file a certified copy of the findings and order with the secretary of state. The order making the change must conform to subdivision 3. The order making the change may amend the order prescribing the distribution of managers of the district.

Subd. 2. [TERMINATION.] A watershed district wholly within the metropolitan area may be terminated pursuant to this subdivision or chapter 112. Proceedings for termination under this subdivision must be initiated by a petition to the water resources board filed jointly by the governing bodies of all statutory and home rule charter cities and towns having jurisdiction over territory within the watershed. Upon the filing of a sufficient petition, the board shall hold a hearing in accordance with the procedures prescribed in chapter 112, to take testimony on the determinations required to be made by the board. Following the hearing, the board shall, by its findings and order, terminate the district as requested if the board determines:

(c) that the termination can be accomplished in conformance with subdivision 3.

The board shall file a certified copy of the findings and order with the secretary of state. The order terminating the district must transfer the assets of the district to the joint powers organization or its members. The order must conform to subdivision 3.

Subd. 3. [LIMITATION.] The addition or transfer of property or termination of a district pursuant to this section must not affect the benefits or damages for any improvement previously constructed by the district having jurisdiction over the property before the board's order. The property affected is and remains liable for its proper share of any outstanding indebtedness of the watershed district applying to the property before the board's order, and levies and assessments for the indebtedness continue in force until the debt is fully paid. In order to satisfy the requirements of this subdivision, the board may prescribe conditions on the boundary change or termination or may prescribe a later effective date for the termination of specified powers of a watershed district.

62D.04 [ISSUANCE OF CERTIFICATE AUTHORITY.]

Subdivision 1. Upon receipt of an application for a certificate of authority, the commissioner of health shall determine whether the applicant for a certificate of authority has:

(a) Demonstrated the willingness and potential ability to assure that health care services will be provided in such a manner as to enhance and assure both the availability and accessibility of adequate personnel and facilities;

(b) Arrangements for an ongoing evaluation of the quality of health care;

(d) Reasonable provisions for emergency and out of area health care services;

(e) Demonstrated that it is financially responsible and may reasonably be expected to meet its obligations to enrollees and prospective enrollees. In making this determination, the commissioner of health may consider (EITHER THE STANDARDS OF CLAUSES (1) AND (2), OR THE STANDARDS OF CLAUSES (3) AND (4), WHICHEVER THE APPLICANT SHALL ELECT):

(1) the financial soundness of its arrangements for health care services and the proposed schedule of charges used in connection therewith;

(5) any deposit of cash or securities submitted in accordance with section 19.

(f) Demonstrated that it will assume full financial risk on a prospective basis for the provision of comprehensive health maintenance services, including hospital care; provided, however, that the requirement in this paragraph shall not prohibit a health maintenance organization from obtaining insurance or making other arrangements (i) for the cost of providing to any enrollee comprehensive health maintenance services, the aggregate value of which exceeds $5,000 in any year, (ii) for the cost of providing comprehensive health care services to its members on a non-elective emergency basis, or while they are outside the area served by the organization, or (iii) for not more than 95 percent of the amount by which the health maintenance organization's costs for any of its fiscal years exceed 105 percent of its income for such fiscal years; and

(g) Otherwise met the requirements of sections 62D.01 to 62D.29.

Subd. 2. Within 90 days after the receipt of the application for a certificate of authority, the commissioner of health shall determine whether or not the applicant meets the requirements of this section. If the commissioner of health determines that the applicant meets the requirements of sections 62D.01 to 62D.29, he shall issue a certificate of authority to the applicant. If the commissioner of health determines that the applicant is not qualified, he shall so notify the applicant and shall specify the reason or reasons for such disqualification.

Subd. 3. Except as provided in section 62D.03, subdivision 2, no person who has not been issued a certificate of authority shall use the words "health maintenance organization" or the initials "HMO" in its name, contracts or literature. Provided, however, that persons who are operating under a contract with, operating in association with, enrolling enrollees for, or otherwise authorized by a health maintenance organization licensed under sections 62D.01 to 62D.29 to act on its behalf may use the terms "health maintenance organization" or "HMO" for the limited purpose of denoting or explaining their association or relationship with the authorized health maintenance organization. No health maintenance organization which has a minority of consumers as members of its board of directors shall use the words "consumer controlled" in its name or in any way represent to the public that it is controlled by consumers.

Subd. 4. Upon being granted a certificate of authority to operate as a health maintenance organization, the organization must continue to operate in compliance with the standards set forth in subdivision 1. Noncompliance may result in the imposition of a fine or the suspension or revocation of the certificate of authority, in accordance with sections 62D.15 to 62D.17.

Sec. 14. [62D.041] [PROTECTION AGAINST INSOLVENCY.]

Subdivision 1. [DEFINITION.] For the purposes of this section, the term "uncovered expenditures" means the costs of health care services that are covered by a health maintenance organization for which an enrollee would also be liable in the event of the organization's insolvency, including out-of-area services, referral services, and any other expenditures for health care services for which the health maintenance organization is at risk.

Subd. 2. [REQUIRED DEPOSIT.] Unless otherwise provided in this section, each health maintenance organization shall deposit with any organization or trustee acceptable to the commissioner through which a custodial or controlled account is utilized, cash, freely alienable securities, or any combination of these or other measures that is acceptable to the commissioner in the amount set forth in this section. If a health maintenance organization does not have the required reserves or its reserves are not properly computed, operations shall be adjusted to correct the condition, according to a written plan proposed by the health maintenance organization and approved by the commissioner. If a health maintenance organization does not propose measures to correct its reserves or surplus within a reasonable time, if a corporation violates the plan which has been approved, or if there is evidence that an improper reserve or surplus status cannot be corrected within a reasonable time, the commissioner of commerce may take action against the corporation under chapter 60B.

Subd. 3. [AMOUNT FOR BEGINNING ORGANIZATIONS.] The amount for an organization that is beginning operation shall be the greater of: (a) five percent of its estimated expenditures for health care services for its first year of operation; (b) twice its estimated average monthly uncovered expenditures for its first year of operation; or (c) $100,000.

At the beginning of each succeeding year, unless not applicable, the organization shall deposit with the organization or trustee, cash, freely alienable securities, or any combination of these or other measures acceptable to the commissioner in an amount equal to four percent of its estimated annual uncovered expenditures for that year.

Subd. 4. [AMOUNT FOR EXISTING ORGANIZATIONS.] Unless not applicable, an organization that is in operation on the effective date of this section shall make a deposit equal to the larger of:

(a) one percent of the preceding 12 months' uncovered expenditures; or

(b) $100,000 on the first day of the fiscal year beginning six months or more after the effective date of this section.

In the second fiscal year, if applicable, the amount of the additional deposit shall be equal to two percent of its estimated annual uncovered expenditures. In the third year, if applicable, the additional deposit shall be equal to three percent of its estimated annual uncovered expenditures for that year. In the fourth fiscal year and subsequent years, if applicable, the additional deposit shall be equal to four percent of its estimated annual uncovered expenditures for each year. Each year's estimate, after the first year of operation, shall reasonably reflect the prior year's operating experience and delivery arrangements.

Subd. 5. [WAIVER.] The commissioner may waive any of the deposit requirements set forth in subdivisions 2 and 3 whenever satisfied that the organization has sufficient net worth and an adequate history of generating net income to assure its financial viability for the next year, or its performance and obligations are guaranteed by an organization with sufficient net worth and an adequate history of generating net income, or the assets of the organization or its contracts with insurers, hospital, or medical service corporations, governments, or other organizations are reasonably sufficient to assure the performance of its obligations.

Subd. 6. [FINANCIAL EXEMPTIONS.] When an organization has achieved a net worth not including land, buildings, and equipment of at least $1,000,000 or has achieved a net worth including organization-related land, buildings, and equipment of at least $5,000,000, the annual deposit requirement does not apply.

The annual deposit requirement does not apply to an organization if the total amount of the accumulated deposit is equal to 25 percent of its estimated annual uncovered expenditures for the next calendar year, or the capital and surplus requirements for the formation for admittance of an accident and health insurer in this state, whichever is less.

If the organization has a guaranteeing organization which has been in operation for at least five years and has a net worth not including land, buildings, and equipment of at least $1,000,000 or which has been in operation for at least ten years and has a net worth including organization-related land, buildings, and equipment of at least $5,000,000, the annual deposit requirement does not apply. If the guaranteeing organization is sponsoring more than one organization, the net worth requirement shall be increased by $400,000 not including organization-related land, buildings, and equipment, for each additional organization, for guaranteeing organizations that have been in operation for at least five years, and by $2,000,000 including organization-related land, buildings, and equipment, for each additional organization, for guaranteeing organizations that have been in operation for at least ten years. This requirement to maintain a deposit in excess of the deposit required of an accident and health insurer does not apply during any time that the guaranteeing organization maintains for each organization it sponsors a net worth at least equal to the capital and surplus requirements for an accident and health insurer.

Subd. 7. [CONTROL OF OVER DEPOSITS.] All income from deposits shall belong to the depositing organizations and shall be paid to it as it becomes available. A health maintenance organization that has made a securities deposit may withdraw that deposit or any part thereof after making a substitute deposit of cash, freely alienable securities, or any combination of these or other measures of equal amount and value. Any securities shall be approved by the commissioner before being substituted.

Subd. 8. [REDUCTION BY COMMISSIONER.] In any year in which an annual deposit is not required of an organization's request the commissioner shall reduce the required, previously accumulated deposit by $100,000 for each $250,000 of net worth in excess of the amount that allows the organization not to make the annual deposit. If the amount of net worth no longer supports a reduction of its required deposit, the organization shall immediately redeposit $100,000 for each $250,000 of reduction in net worth, provided that its total deposit shall not exceed the maximum required under this section.

"Section 1. Minnesota Statutes 1983 Supplement, section 256D.01, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [POLICY (; STANDARDS OF ASSISTANCE).] The objectives of sections 256D.01 to 256D.21 are to provide a sound administrative structure for public assistance programs; to maximize the use of federal money for public assistance purposes; and to provide an integrated public assistance program for all persons in the state without adequate income or resources to maintain a subsistence reasonably compatible with decency and health.

It is declared to be the policy of this state that persons unable to provide for themselves and not otherwise provided for by law and who meet the eligibility requirements of sections 256D.01 to 256D.21 are entitled to receive grants of general assistance necessary to maintain a subsistence reasonably compatible with decency and health. Providing this assistance is a matter of public concern and a necessity in promoting the public health and welfare.

Subd. 1a. [STANDARDS.] A principal objective in providing general assistance is to provide for persons ineligible for federal programs who are unable to provide for themselves. To achieve these aims, the commissioner shall establish minimum standards of assistance for general assistance. The minimum standard of assistance determines the total amount of the general assistance grant without separate standards for shelter, utilities, or other needs and shall not be less than the combined total of the minimum standards of assistance for shelter and basic needs in effect on February 1, 1983. The standards of assistance shall not be lower for a recipient sharing a residence with another person unless that person is a responsible relative (OF THE RECIPIENT WHO IS ALSO ELIGIBLE FOR GENERAL ASSISTANCE). The standards shall be lowered for recipients who share a residence with a responsible relative who also receives general assistance. For recipients who are not exempt from registration with the department of economic security pursuant to section 256D.111, subdivision 2, clauses (a), (f), (g), and (h), and who share a residence with a responsible relative who is not eligible for general assistance, the standards shall be lowered, subject to these limitations:

(a) The general assistance grant shall be reduced no lower than the point at which the total income of the household, including the general assistance recipient, equals the AFDC standard for a household of like size and composition.

(b) Benefits received by a responsible relative under the supplemental security income program, the social security disability program, a workers' compensation program, the Minnesota supplemental aid program, or on the basis of the relative's disability, must not be included in the household income calculation.

If the responsible relative is receiving AFDC benefits, then the amount payable to the general assistance recipient must not exceed the amount that would be attributable to him if he were included in the AFDC grant.

Subd. 1b. [RULES.] The commissioner shall adopt temporary and permanent rules to set standards of assistance to conform with subdivision 1a. The minimum standards of assistance shall authorize the payment of rates negotiated by local agencies for recipients living in a room and board arrangement. In order to maximize the use of federal funds, the commissioner shall adopt rules, to the extent permitted by federal law for eligibility for the emergency assistance program under aid to families with dependent children, and under the terms of sections 256D.01 to 256D.21 for general assistance, to require use of the emergency program under aid to families with dependent children as the primary financial resource when available. The commissioner shall provide by rule for eligibility for general assistance of persons with seasonal income, and may attribute seasonal income to other periods not in excess of one year from receipt by an applicant or recipient.

Sec. 2. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 256D.02, subdivision 6, is amended to read:

Subd. 8. "Income" means any form of income, including remuneration for services performed as an employee and net earnings from self-employment, reduced by the amount attributable to employment expenses as defined by the commissioner. The amount attributable to employment expenses shall include amounts paid or withheld for federal and state personal income taxes and federal social security taxes.

"Income" includes any payments received as an annuity, retirement, or disability benefit, including veteran's or workers' compensation; old age, survivors, and disability insurance; railroad retirement benefits; unemployment benefits; and benefits under any federally aided categorical assistance program, supplementary security income, or other assistance program; rents, dividends, interest and royalties; and support and maintenance payments (EXCEPT THAT). Such payments may not be considered as available to meet the needs of any person other than the person for whose benefit they are received, unless that person is under a legal duty to support another family member and the income is not excluded under section 256D.01, subdivision 1a. Goods and services provided in lieu of cash payment shall be excluded from the definition of income, except that payments made for room, board, tuition or fees by a parent, on behalf of a child enrolled as a full-time student in a post-secondary institution, shall be included as income.

Sec. 4. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 256D.02, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 15. "Full-time student" means a student at a post-secondary institution who attends training for a minimum of 25 hours per week if the training does not involve shop practice and for a minimum of 30 hours per week if the training involves shop practice, or who registers for and attends a minimum of 12 semester hours per semester or 12 quarter hours per quarter.

(d) a person who resides in a shelter facility described in section 256D.05, subdivision 3;

(e) a person who is or may be eligible for displaced homemaker services, programs, or assistance under section 4.40, but only if that person is enrolled as a full-time student;

(j) an adult member of a household with children in which another adult is employed full time or has registered for employment services with the department of economic security or been accepted in a work training program; or

(k) a person who has been certified as unemployable by the commissioner of economic security.

Sec. 7. Minnesota Statutes 1983 Supplement, section 256D.111, subdivision 5, is amended to read:

Subd. 5. [RULEMAKING.] The commissioner shall adopt rules and is authorized to adopt temporary rules:

(a) providing for a reasonable period of disqualification from the receipt of general assistance for a recipient who is not exempt pursuant to subdivision 2 and who has been finally determined pursuant to the procedure prescribed in subdivision 4 to have failed to comply with the requirements of subdivision 1, provided that the period of disqualification for the first failure to comply shall not exceed one month, unless a recipient is disqualified as unavailable for work due to full-time student status as defined in section 256D.02, subdivision 15;

(b) providing for the use of vouchers or vendor payments with respect to the family of a recipient described in clause (a); and

(d) the notification states that the person giving the notice has or expects to acquire a purchase money security interest in inventory of the debtor, describing such inventory by item or type.

(4) A purchase money security interest in collateral other than inventory has priority over a conflicting security interest in the same collateral or its proceeds if the purchase money security interest is perfected at the time the debtor receives possession of the collateral or within 20 days thereafter.

(5) In all cases not governed by other rules stated in this section (including cases of purchase money security interests which do not qualify for the special priorities set forth in subsections (3) and (4) of this section), priority between conflicting security interests in the same collateral shall be determined according to the following rules:

(a) Conflicting security interests rank according to priority in time of filing or perfection. Priority dates from the time a filing is first made covering the collateral or the time the security interest is first perfected, whichever is earlier, provided that there is no period thereafter when there is neither filing nor perfection.

(b) so long as conflicting security interests are unperfected, the first to attach has priority.

(6) For the purposes of subsection (5) a date of filing or perfection as to collateral is also a date of filing or perfection as to proceeds.

(7) If future advances are made while a security interest is perfected by filing, the taking of possession, or under section 336.8-321 on securities, the security interest has the same priority for the purposes of subsection (5) with respect to the future advances as it does with respect to the first advance. If a commitment is made before or while the security interest is so perfected, the security interest has the same priority with respect to advances made pursuant thereto. In other cases a perfected security interest has priority from the date the advance is made.

A lien-notification statement must be delivered to lender in an envelope that states "IMPORTANT—LEGAL NOTICE."*

Subd. 2. [LIEN-NOTIFICATION STATEMENT.] The lien-notification statement must disclose the following:

(1) the name and business address of any lender designated as a lender providing a line of credit;

An agricultural production input lien is extinguished if an action to enforce the lien is not brought within 18 months after the date the lien-notification statement is filed.*

Sec. 9. [EFFECTIVE DATE.]

This act is effective July 1, 1984, except that an agricultural input lien may not attach to crops planted before December 1, 1984."

[RESIDENTIAL RENTAL PROPERTY WEATHERIZATION COMPLIANCE PROGRAM.] (a) For purposes of this subdivision, "evaluator" means a person certified according to standards prescribed in subdivision 6 or pursuant to section 116J.31, a professional engineer or architect registered pursuant to sections 326.02 to 326.15, or a qualified person approved by the department.*

(b) After January 1, 1985, and on or before January 1, 1986, the owner of a renter-occupied residence shall file with the commissioner a certificate of compliance with all applicable energy efficiency standards prescribed by subdivisions 1 and 3. The certificate shall be obtained from an evaluator following an inspection of the residence conducted after August 31, 1984, and recorded on a form provided by the commissioner. After inspection, if the evaluator determines that the energy efficiency standards prescribed by subdivisions 1 and 3 have been met, he or she shall issue and sign a certificate of compliance. The evaluator may charge a reasonable fee for inspecting the residence and issuing the certificate. No evaluator may inspect a residence and issue the certificate required by this subdivision if the evaluator has an ownership interest in the residence or is employed by any person having an ownership interest in the resi- dence. No evaluator may make energy efficiency improvements or profit directly or indirectly from the provision of energy efficiency improvements to a residence that he or she has inspected. The certificate for low-rent housing owned by a public housing authority or a housing and redevelopment authority as defined in section 462.421, subdivision 2, may be issued by an officer or employee of the authority or by an evaluator after completion of an energy audit as required by the United States department of housing and urban development pursuant to Code of Federal Regulations, title 24, sections 965.301 to 965.310, and completion of improvements necessary to bring the building into compliance with the requirements of subdivisions 1 and 3. The commissioner shall adopt a form for the certificate. The commissioner shall maintain a file by street address of the certificates filed pursuant to this subdivision. The certificates shall be released to the public according to section 13.03. If a certificate is not on file for a residence, upon request of any person, the commissioner shall provide without charge a written statement that a certificate is not on file as of the date of execution of the statement. The statement is prima facie evidence in a court or administrative action of the facts it contains. The commissioner may charge a fee to owners, other than public housing authorities and housing and redevelopment authorities, who file certificates under this subdivision in an amount sufficient to defray the costs of administering the residential rental property weatherization compliance program. The commissioner may review whether a residence continues to meet the energy efficiency standards, and may revoke the certificate if the residence is not in compliance with the standards.

If the renter-occupied residence is not located in a municipality that has been authorized to conduct an enforcement program, or if a municipality takes no enforcement action within 30 days following the date of notification from the commissioner, the commissioner may issue to the owner of the renter-occupied residence or the owner's agent a determination that the certificate has not been filed and may commence a contested case proceeding under sections 14.57 to 14.62. The determination shall state that if the certificate is not filed within 90 days following the date of the determination, a contested case proceeding may be commenced, and the determination shall specify the fine that will be assessed upon the conclusion of the contested case proceeding in the absence of a showing of good cause in that proceeding. Notwithstanding the provisions of sections 14.50 and 14.61, the hearing examiner in the contested case proceeding shall make findings of* fact and conclusions of law and issue a decision, and if the hearing examiner decides that the certificate has not been filed for the residence, the hearing examiner shall enter an order directing the owner to take such affirmative action as in the judgment of the hearing examiner will effectuate the purposes of section 116J.27.

For purposes of this subdivision, the term "owner" has the meaning given in section 566.18, subdivision 3.*

The commissioner shall encourage

Each certified evaluator shall, on request of the owner, inspect any residence and report the degree to which it complies with applicable energy efficiency standards established pursuant to subdivision 1. (7) (THE AMOUNT BY WHICH PROPERTY TAXES OF THE DISTRICT FOR USE IN THAT SCHOOL YEAR ARE REDUCED BY THE CREDIT FOR REDUCED ASSESSMENT PROVISIONS IN SECTION 273.139;)

((8)) The amount by which property taxes of the district for use in that school year are reduced by the state reimbursed disaster or emergency reassessment provisions in section 273.123; and

((9)) (8) The amount by which property taxes of the district for use in that school year are reduced by the metropolitan agricultural preserve provisions in section 473H.10.

Sec. 7. Minnesota Statutes 1983 Supplement, section 124.2138, is amended to read:

124.2138 [REVENUE EQUITY AID SUBTRACTION.]

Subdivision 1. [BASIC MAINTENANCE LEVY EQUITY.]
(1) (IN ANY YEAR WHEN) If the amount of the maximum levy limitation under section 275.125, subdivision 2a, for fiscal year 1985 for any district, or for fiscal year 1986 or after for a nonagricultural district (UNDER SECTION 275.125, SUBDIVISION 2A,) exceeds the district's basic foundation revenue for the corresponding fiscal year, an amount shall be deducted as provided in this subdivision from special state aids of chapter 124 receivable for the same fiscal year, and from state payments on behalf of the district for the same fiscal year authorized in sections 354.43, subdivision 1; 354A.12, subdivision 2; and 355.46, subdivision 3, clause (b). However, the aid authorized in sections 124.2137 and 124.646 shall not be reduced.

(2) The amount of the deduction shall equal the difference between:

(a) the sum of the amount of the district's maximum levy limitation under section 275.125, subdivision 2a, plus the amount of any reductions to that levy limitation pursuant to section 275.125, (SUBDIVISIONS) subdivision 2e, clause (1)(b), and subdivision 9, and

(b) the district's basic foundation revenue.

However, for fiscal year 1985, the amount of the deduction shall be one-sixth of the difference between clauses (a) and (b); for fiscal year 1986, the amount of the deduction shall be one-third of the difference between clauses (a) and (b); for fiscal year 1987, the amount of the deduction shall be one-half of the difference between clauses (a) and (b); for fiscal year 1988, the amount shall be two-thirds of the difference between clauses (a) and (b); and for fiscal year 1989, the amount of the deduction shall be five-sixths of the difference between clauses (a) and (b).

Subd. 2. [TRANSPORTATION LEVY EQUITY.] (1) (IN ANY FISCAL YEAR IN WHICH) If the transportation levy for fiscal year 1985 in any district, or for fiscal year 1986 and thereafter in a nonagricultural district (ATTRIBUTABLE TO THAT FISCAL YEAR), of 1.75 mills times the adjusted assessed valuation of the district exceeds the transportation aid computation under section 124.225, subdivisions 3b, 8i, 8j, and 8k, an amount shall be deducted as provided in this subdivision from special state aids of chapter 124 receivable for the same fiscal year, and from state payments on behalf of the district for the same fiscal year authorized in sections 354.43, subdivision 1; 354A.12, subdivision 2; and 355.46, subdivision 3, clause (b), to the extent that those special state aids and state payments have not been reduced pursuant to subdivision 1 of this section. However, aid authorized in sections 124.2137 and 124.646 shall not be reduced.

(2) The amount of the deduction shall equal the difference between:

(a) 1.75 mills times the adjusted assessed valuation of the district for the levy attributable to that fiscal year, and

(b) the sum of the district's transportation aid computation pursuant to section 124.225, subdivisions 8b, 8i, 8j, and 8k, less the amount of any aid reduction due to an insufficient appropriation as provided in section 124.225, subdivision 8a.

However, for fiscal year 1985, the amount of the deduction shall be one-sixth of the difference between clauses (a) and (b); for fiscal year 1986, the amount of the deduction shall be one-third of the difference between clauses (a) and (b); for fiscal year 1987, the amount of the deduction shall be one-half of the difference between clauses (a) and (b); for fiscal year 1988, the amount of the deduction shall be two-thirds of the difference between clauses (a) and (b); and for fiscal year 1989, the amount of the deduction shall be five-sixths of the difference between clauses (a) and (b).

Subd. 3. In any fiscal year in which the state payments on behalf of a district authorized in sections 354.43, subdivision 1; 354A.12, subdivision 2; and 355.46, subdivision 3, clause (b), are reduced under this section, the commissioner of education shall certify the amounts of the required reductions to the district. The district shall pay employer contributions in the amount of the reduction of these payments to the commissioner, which amount shall be placed in the general fund.

Subd. 4. [NONAGRICULTURAL DISTRICT DEFINED.] For the purposes of this section, nonagricultural district means a district where the assessed valuation of agricultural land identified in section 273.13, subdivisions 4, 6 and 6a, comprises less than 60 percent of the assessed valuation of the district.

Sec. 8. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 124.214, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [OMISSIONS.] No adjustments to any aid payments made pursuant to this chapter, resulting from omissions in school district reports, except those adjustments determined by the legislative auditor, shall be made for any school year after December (15) 30 of the next school year, unless otherwise specifically provided by law.

Sec. 9. Minnesota Statutes 1983 Supplement, section 124A.06, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [COST DIFFERENTIAL TIER ALLOWANCE.] "Cost differential tier allowance" means the amount of revenue per actual pupil unit used to compute the cost differential tier aid for a school year and levy for use in the same school year. A district's cost differential tier allowance shall be the result of the following computation:

(a) Divide the amount of aid the district would have received for the 1980-1981 school year if Minnesota Statutes, 1979 Supplement, section 124.224, as amended by section 124.2124, subdivision 1, had been effective for the 1980-1981 school year by the actual pupil units in the district in the 1980-1981 school year, and multiply the result by two.

(b) Divide the formula allowance for the school year by $1265.

(c) Multiply the result in clause (a) by the result in clause (b).

(d) Subtract 1.25 from the training and experience index, and multiply the difference by ($300) $400.

(e) Select the greater of the result in clause (d) or zero.

(f) Add the results of clauses (c) and (e).

Sec. 10. Minnesota Statutes 1983 Supplement, section 124A.-12, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [FOURTH TIER ALLOWANCE.] "Fourth tier allowance" means the amount of revenue per actual pupil unit used to compute the fourth tier aid for a particular school year and the corresponding levy for that school year. The fourth tier allowance is ($100) the result of the following computation:

(a) Subtract 1.25 from the training and experience index, and multiply the difference by $300.

(b) Add $100 to the result of clause (a).

Sec. 11. Minnesota Statutes 1983 Supplement, section 124A.-14, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [FIFTH TIER ALLOWANCE.] "Fifth tier allowance" means the amount of revenue per actual pupil unit used to compute the fifth tier aid for a particular school year and the corresponding levy for that school year. The fifth tier allowance shall equal the result of the following computation:

(a) Determine the revenue the district would have received for the 1984-1985 school year from grandfather revenue, replacement revenue, and low fund balance revenue, if the provisions of Minnesota Statutes 1982, sections 124.2123, 124.2124, and 124.2128 had been effective for the 1984-1985 school year.

(b) Determine the discretionary revenue the district would have received for the 1984-1985 school year if the provisions of Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 124.2125 had been effective for the 1984-1985 school year. Assume the district had been entitled to and had levied the maximum allowable under section 275.125, subdivision 7a, and no aid or levy reductions were made according to section 275.125, subdivision 7c.

(c) Determine the amount of revenue equal to $25 times the total pupil units in the 1984-1985 school year.

(d) Add the results in clauses (a), (b), and (c).

(e) Determine the estimated revenue the district would receive for the 1984-1985 school year from the first to fourth tier revenue for the 1984-1985 school year if sections 124A.06, subdivision 1, and 124A.12, subdivision 1, had been applied to the 1984-1985 school year as those sections read as amended by this article.

(f) Subtract the result of clause (e) from the result of clause (d).

(g) Divide the amount in clause (f) by the 1984-1985 actual pupil units.

Sec. 12. Minnesota Statutes 1983 Supplement, section 124A.-16, subdivision 4, is amended to read:

Subd. 4. The total revenue per actual pupil unit permitted from the tiers specified in sections 124A.06, 124A.08, 124A.10, 124A.12, and 124A.14 shall equal the sum of the previous formula amount plus the greater of:

(a) the minimum increase; or

(b) 25 percent of the difference between the total tier allowance and the previous formula amount in the 1984-1985 school year, (50)  $66\frac{2}{3}$  percent of the difference in the 1985-1986 school year, 75 percent of the difference in the 1986-1987 school year, or 100 percent of the difference in the 1987-1988 school year and subsequent school years.

Sec. 13. Minnesota Statutes 1983 Supplement, section 275.-125, subdivision 2e, is amended to read:

Subd. 2e. [BASIC MAINTENANCE LEVY; DISTRICTS OFF THE FORMULA.] (1) In any year when the amount of the maximum levy limitation under subdivision 2a for any district, exceeds the product of the district's foundation aid formula allowance for the year in which the levy is recognized as revenue times the estimated number of (ACTUAL AND AFDC) total pupil units for that district for that school year, the levy limitation for that district under subdivision 2a shall be limited to the greater of the dollar amount of the levy the district certified in 1977 under Minnesota Statutes 1978, section 275.125, subdivision 2a, clause (1), or the following difference but not to exceed the levy limitation under subdivision 2a:

(a) the sum of

(i) the product of the district's foundation aid formula allowance for the school year in which the levy is recognized as revenue, times the estimated number of (ACTUAL AND AFDC) total pupil units for that district for that school year, plus

(ii) the amount (OF) by which special state aids of chapter 124 receivable for the same school year, excluding aid authorized in sections 124.2137 and 124.646, are estimated to be reduced pursuant to section 124.2138, subdivision 1, plus

(iii) the amount (OF) by which state payments on behalf of the district for the same school year authorized in sections 354.43, subdivision 1; 354A.12, subdivision 2; and 355.46, subdivision 3, clause (b), are estimated to be reduced pursuant to section 124.2138, subdivision 1, less

(b) the estimated amount of any payments which would reduce the district's foundation aid entitlement as provided in section 124.2132, subdivision 4 in the school year in which the levy is recognized as revenue.

((1) HOWEVER, FOR FISCAL YEAR 1985, THE AMOUNTS IN CLAUSES (A)(II) AND (A)(III) SHALL BE MULTIPLIED BY ONE-SIXTH; FOR FISCAL YEAR 1986, THE AMOUNTS IN CLAUSES (A)(II) AND (A)(III) SHALL BE MULTIPLIED BY ONE-THIRD; FOR FISCAL YEAR 1987, THE AMOUNTS IN CLAUSES (A)(II) AND (A)(III) SHALL BE MULTIPLIED BY ONE-HALF; FOR FISCAL YEAR 1988, THE AMOUNTS IN CLAUSES (A)(II) AND (A)(III) SHALL BE MULTIPLIED BY TWO-THIRDS; AND FOR FISCAL YEAR 1989, THE AMOUNTS IN CLAUSES (A)(II) AND (A)(III) SHALL BE MULTIPLIED BY FIVE-SIXTHS.)

((2)) A levy made by a district pursuant to this subdivision shall be construed to be the levy made by that district pursuant to subdivision 2a, for purposes of statutory cross-reference.

Sec. 14. Minnesota Statutes 1983 Supplement, section 298.28, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [DISTRIBUTION FROM GENERAL FUND.] The proceeds of the taxes collected under section 298.24, except the tax collected under section 298.24, subdivision 2, shall, upon certificate of the commissioner of revenue to the general fund of the state, be paid by the commissioner of revenue as follows:

(1) 2.5 cents per gross ton of merchantable iron ore concentrate, hereinafter referred to as "taxable ton," to the city or town in which the lands from which taconite was mined or quarried were located or within which the concentrate was produced. If the mining, quarrying, and concentration, or different steps in either thereof are carried on in more than one taxing district, the commissioner shall apportion equitably the proceeds of the part of the tax going to cities and towns among such subdivisions upon the basis of attributing 40 percent of the proceeds of the tax to the operation of mining or quarrying the taconite, and the remainder to the concentrating plant and to the processes of concentration, and with respect to each thereof giving due consideration to the relative extent of such operations performed in each such taxing district. His order making such apportionment shall be subject to review by the tax court at the instance of any of the interested taxing districts, in the same manner as other orders of the commissioner.

(2) 12.5 cents per taxable ton, less any amount distributed under clause (8), to the taconite municipal aid account in the apportionment fund of the state treasury, to be distributed as provided in section 298.282.

(3) 29 cents per taxable ton plus the increase provided in paragraph (c) to qualifying school districts to be distributed as follows:

(a) Six cents per taxable ton to the school districts in which the lands from which taconite was mined or quarried were located or within which the concentrate was produced. The commissioner shall follow the apportionment formula prescribed in clause (1).

(b) 23 cents per taxable ton, less any amount distributed under part (d), shall be distributed to a group of school districts comprised of those school districts wherein the taconite was mined or quarried or the concentrate produced or in which there is a qualifying municipality as defined by section 273.134 in direct proportion to school district tax levies as follows: each district shall receive that portion of the total distribution which its certified levy for the prior year, computed pursuant to section 275.125, comprises of the sum of certified levies for the prior year for all qualifying districts, computed pursuant to section 275.125. For purposes of distributions pursuant to this part, certified levies for the prior year computed pursuant to section 275.125 shall not include the amount of any increased levy authorized by referendum pursuant to section 275.125, subdivision 2d.

(c) On July 15, 1982 and on July 15 in subsequent years, an amount equal to the increase derived by increasing the amount determined by clause (3)(b) in the same proportion as the increase in the steel mill products index over the base year of 1977

as provided in section 298.24, subdivision 1, clause (a), shall be distributed to any school district described in clause (3)(b) where a levy increase pursuant to section 275.125, subdivision 2d, is authorized by referendum, according to the following formula. Each district shall receive the product of:

(i) $150 times the pupil units identified in section 124.17, subdivision 1, clauses (1) and (2), enrolled in the second previous school year, less the product of two mills times the district's taxable valuation in the second previous year; times

(ii) the lesser of:

(A) one, or

(B) the ratio of the amount certified pursuant to section 275.125, subdivision 2d, in the previous year, to the product of two mills times the district's taxable valuation in the second previous year.

If the total amount provided by clause (3)(c) is insufficient to make the payments herein required then the entitlement of $150 per pupil unit shall be reduced uniformly so as not to exceed the funds available. Any amounts received by a qualifying school district in any fiscal year pursuant to clause (3)(c) shall not be applied to reduce foundation aids which the district is entitled to receive pursuant to sections 124.2121 to 124.2128 or the permissible levies of the district. Any amount remaining after the payments provided in this paragraph shall be paid to the commissioner of finance who shall deposit the same in the taconite environmental protection fund and the northeast Minnesota economic protection trust fund as provided in section 298.28, subdivision 1, clause 10.

(d) There shall be distributed to any school district the amount which the school district was entitled to receive under section 298.32 in 1975.

(4) 19.5 cents per taxable ton to counties to be distributed as follows:

(a) 15.5 cents per taxable ton shall be distributed to the county in which the taconite is mined or quarried or in which the concentrate is produced, less any amount which is to be distributed pursuant to part (b). The commissioner shall follow the apportionment formula prescribed in clause (1).

(b) If an electric power plant owned by and providing the primary source of power for a taxpayer mining and concentrating taconite is located in a county other than the county in which the mining and the concentrating processes are conducted, one cent per taxable ton of the tax distributed to the counties pursuant to part (a) and imposed on and collected from such taxpayer shall be distributed by the commissioner of revenue to the county in which the power plant is located.

(c) Four cents per taxable ton shall be paid to the county from which the taconite was mined, quarried or concentrated to be deposited in the county road and bridge fund. If the mining, quarrying and concentrating, or separate steps in any of those processes are carried on in more than one county, the commissioner shall follow the apportionment formula prescribed in clause (1).

(5) (a) 25.75 cents per taxable ton, less any amount required to be distributed under part (b), to the taconite property tax relief account in the apportionment fund in the state treasury, to be distributed as provided in sections 273.134 to 273.136.

(b) If an electric power plant owned by and providing the primary source of power for a taxpayer mining and concentrating taconite is located in a county other than the county in which the mining and the concentrating processes are conducted, .75 cent per taxable ton of the tax imposed and collected from such taxpayer shall be distributed by the commissioner of revenue to the county and school district in which the power plant is located as follows: 25 percent to the county and 75 percent to the school district.

(6) One cent per taxable ton to the state for the cost of administering the tax imposed by section 298.24.

(7) Three cents per taxable ton shall be deposited in the state treasury to the credit of the iron range resources and rehabilitation board account in the special revenue fund for the purposes of section 298.22. The amount determined in this clause shall be increased in 1981 and subsequent years in the same proportion as the increase in the steel mill products index as provided in section 298.24, subdivision 1. The amount distributed pursuant to this clause shall be expended within or for the benefit of a tax relief area defined in section 273.134. No part of the fund provided in this clause may be used to provide loans for the operation of private business unless the loan is approved by the governor and the legislative advisory commission.

(8) .20 cent per taxable ton shall be paid in 1979 and each year thereafter, to the range association of municipalities and schools, for the purpose of providing an area wide approach to problems which demand coordinated and cooperative actions and which are common to those areas of northeast Minnesota affected by operations involved in mining iron ore and taconite and producing concentrate therefrom, and for the purpose of promoting the general welfare and economic development of the cities, towns and school districts within the iron range area of northeast Minnesota.

(9) the amounts determined under clauses (4)(a), (4)(c), and (5) shall be increased in 1979 and subsequent years in the same proportion as the increase in the steel mill products index as provided in section 298.24, subdivision 1.

(10) the proceeds of the tax imposed by section 298.24 which remain after the distributions in clauses (1) to (9) and parts (a) and (b) of this clause have been made shall be divided between the taconite environmental protection fund created in section 298.223 and the northeast Minnesota economic protection trust fund created in section 298.292 as follows: In 1981 and each year thereafter, two-thirds to the taconite environmental protection fund and one-third to the northeast Minnesota economic protection trust fund. The proceeds shall be placed in the respective special accounts in the general fund.

(a) In 1978 and each year thereafter, there shall be distributed to each city, town, school district, and county the amount that they received under section 294.26 in calendar year 1977; provided, however, that the amount distributed in 1981 to the unorganized territory number 2 of Lake County and the town of Beaver Bay based on the between-terminal trackage of Erie Mining Company will be distributed in 1982 and subsequent years to the unorganized territory number 2 of Lake County and the towns of Beaver Bay and Stony River based on the miles of track of Erie Mining Company in each taxing district.

(b) In 1978 and each year thereafter, there shall be distributed to the iron range resources and rehabilitation board the amounts it received in 1977 under section 298.22.

On or before October 10 of each calendar year each producer of taconite or iron sulphides subject to taxation under section 298.24 (hereinafter called "taxpayer") shall file with the commissioner of revenue and with the county auditor of each county in which such taxpayer operates, and with the chief clerical officer of each school district, city or town which is entitled to participate in the distribution of the tax, an estimate of the amount of tax which would be payable by such taxpayer under said law for such calendar year; provided such estimate shall be in an amount not less than the amount due on the mining and production of concentrates up to September 30 of said year plus the amount becoming due because of probable production between September 30 and December 31 of said year, less any credit allowable as hereinafter provided. Such estimate shall list the taxing districts entitled to participate in the distribution of such tax, and the amount of the estimated tax which would be distributable to each such district in the next ensuing calendar year on the basis of the last percentage distribution certified by the commissioner of revenue. If there be no such prior certification, the taxpayer shall set forth its estimate of the proper distribution of such tax under the law, which estimate may be corrected by the commissioner if he deems it improper, notice of such correction being given by him to the taxpayer and the public officers receiving such estimate. The officers with whom such report is so filed shall use the amount so indicated as being distributable to each taxing district in computing the permissible tax levy of such county, city or school district in the year in which such estimate is made, and payable in the next ensuing calendar year, except that in 1978 and 1979 two cents per taxable ton, and in 1980 and thereafter, one cent per taxable ton of the amount distributed under clause (4) (c) shall not be deducted in calculating the permissible levy. Such taxpayer shall then pay, at the times payments are required to be made pursuant to section 298.27, as the amount of tax payable under section 298.24, the greater of (a) the amount shown by such estimate, or (b) the amount due under said section as finally determined by the commissioner of revenue pursuant to law. If, as a result of the payment of the amount of such estimate, the taxpayer has paid in any calendar year an amount of tax in excess of the amount due in such year under section 298.24, after application of credits for any excess payments made in previous years, all as determined by the commissioner of revenue, the taxpayer shall be given credit for such excess amount against any taxes which, under said section, may become due from the taxpayer in subsequent years. In any calendar year in which a general property tax levy subject to sections 275.125 or 275.50 to 275.59 has been made, if the taxes distributable to any such county, city or school district are greater than the amount estimated to be paid to any such county, city or school district in such year, the excess of such distribution shall be held in a special fund by the county, city or school district and shall not be expended until the succeeding calendar year, and shall be included in computing the permissible levies under sections 275.125 or 275.50 to 275.59, of such county, city or school district payable in such year. If the amounts distributable to any such county, city or school district, after final determination by the commissioner of revenue under this section are less than the amounts indicated by such estimates, such county, city or school district may issue certificates of indebtedness in the amount of the shortage, and may include in its next tax levy, in excess of the limitations of sections 275.125 or 275.50 to 275.59 an amount sufficient to pay such certificates of indebtedness and interest thereon, or, if no certificates were issued, an amount equal to such shortage.

There is hereby annually appropriated to such taxing districts as are stated herein, to the taconite property tax relief account and to the taconite municipal aid account in the apportionment fund in the state treasury, to the department of revenue, to the iron range resources and rehabilitation board, to the range association of municipalities and schools, to the taconite environmental protection fund, and to the northeast Minnesota economic protection trust fund, from any fund or account in the state treasury to which the money was credited, an amount sufficient to make the payment or transfer. The payment of the amount appropriated to such taxing districts shall be made by the commissioner of revenue on or before May 15 annually.

Sec. 15. [AID SUBTRACTION INCREASE.]

The legislature intends that, as a result of changes in school district levy limitations in this article and article 2, the aid subtraction required by section 124.155 will be increased by an estimated $10,550,000 for fiscal year 1985.

Sec. 16. [EFFECTIVE DATE.]

Subdivision 1. Section 3 is effective the day following final enactment and shall apply to the adjustment made pursuant to section 124.155 in fiscal year 1984.

Subd. 2. Section 14 is effective for the distribution required to be made on July 15, 1984, and for distributions thereafter.

SPECIAL EDUCATION

Section 1. Minnesota Statutes 1983 Supplement, section 120.17, subdivision 3b, is amended to read:

Subd. 3b. [PROCEDURES FOR DECISIONS.] Every district shall utilize at least the following procedures for decisions involving identification, assessment and educational placement of handicapped children:

(a) Parents and guardians shall receive prior written notice of:

(1) any proposed formal educational assessment or proposed denial of a formal educational assessment of their child;

(2) a proposed placement of their child in, transfer from or to, or denial of placement in a special education program; or

(3) the proposed provision, addition, denial or removal of special education services for their child;

(b) The district shall not proceed with the initial formal assessment of a child, the initial placement of a child in a special education program or the initial provision of special education services for a child without the prior written consent of the child's parent or guardian. The refusal of a parent or guardian to consent may be overridden by the decision in a hearing held pursuant to clause (d) at the district's initiative after at least one attempt to obtain this consent through a conciliation conference held pursuant to clause (c);

(c) Parents and guardians shall have an opportunity to meet with appropriate district staff in at least one conciliation conference if they object to any proposal of which they are notified pursuant to clause (a);

(d) Parents, guardians and the district shall have an opportunity to obtain an impartial due process hearing initiated and conducted in the school district where the child resides, if after at least one conciliation conference the parent or guardian continues to object to:

- (1) a proposed formal educational assessment or proposed denial of a formal educational assessment of their child;
- (2) the proposed placement of their child in, or transfer of their child to a special education program;
- (3) the proposed denial of placement of their child in a special education program or the transfer of their child from a special education program;
- (4) the proposed provision or addition of special education services for their child; or
- (5) the proposed denial or removal of special education services for their child.

At least five calendar days before the hearing, the objecting party shall provide the other party with a brief written statement of the objection and the reasons for the objection.

The hearing shall take place before an impartial hearing officer mutually agreed to by the school board and the parent or guardian. If the school board and the parent or guardian are unable to agree on a hearing officer, the school board shall request the commissioner to appoint a hearing officer. The hearing officer shall not be a school board member or employee of the school district where the child resides or of the child's school district of residence, an employee of any other public agency involved in the education or care of the child, or any person with a personal or professional interest which would conflict with his objectivity at the hearing. A person who otherwise qualifies as a hearing officer is not an employee of the district solely because the person is paid by the district to serve as a hearing officer. If the hearing officer requests an independent educational assessment of a child, the cost of the assessment shall be at district expense. The proceedings shall be recorded and preserved, at the expense of the school district, pending ultimate disposition of the action.

(e) The decision of the hearing officer pursuant to clause (d) shall be rendered not more than 45 calendar days from the date of the receipt of the request for the hearing. A hearing officer may grant specific extensions of time beyond the 45-day period at the request of either party. The decision of the hearing officer shall be binding on all parties unless appealed to the (COMMISSIONER) hearing review officer by the parent, guardian, or the school board of the district where the child resides pursuant to clause (f).

The local decision shall:

- (1) be in writing;
  - (2) state the controlling facts upon which the decision is made in sufficient detail to apprise the parties and the (COMMISSIONER) hearing review officer of the basis and reason for the decision;
  - (3) state whether the special education program or special education services appropriate to the child's needs can be reasonably provided within the resources available to the responsible district or districts;
  - (4) state the amount and source of any additional district expenditure necessary to implement the decision; and
  - (5) be based on the standards set forth in subdivision 3a and the rules of the state board.
- (f) Any local decision issued pursuant to clauses (d) and (e) may be appealed to the (COMMISSIONER) hearing review officer within 15 calendar days of receipt of that written decision, by the parent, guardian, or the school board of the district where the child resides.

If the decision is appealed, a written transcript of the hearing shall be made by the school district and shall be accessible to the parties involved within five calendar days of the filing of the appeal. The (COMMISSIONER) hearing review officer shall issue a final decision based on an impartial review of the local decision and the entire record within 30 calendar days after the filing of the appeal. The (COMMISSIONER) hearing review officer shall seek additional evidence if necessary and may afford the parties an opportunity for written or oral argument; provided any hearing held to seek additional evidence shall be an impartial due process hearing but shall be deemed not to be a contested case hearing for purposes of chapter 14. The (COMMISSIONER) hearing review officer may grant specific extensions of time beyond the 30-day period at the request of any party.

The final decision shall:

- (1) be in writing;
- (2) include findings and conclusions; and
- (3) be based upon the standards set forth in subdivision 3a and in the rules of the state board.

(g) The decision of the (COMMISSIONER) hearing review officer shall be final unless appealed by the parent or guardian or school board to the court of appeals. The judicial review shall be in accordance with chapter 14.

(h) The commissioner of education, having delegated general supervision of special education to the appropriate staff, shall be the hearing review officer except for appeals in which:

(1) The commissioner has a personal interest in or specific involvement with the student who is a party to the hearing, or

(2) The commissioner has been employed as an administrator by the district that is a party to the hearing, or

(3) The commissioner has been involved in the selection of the administrators of the district that is a party to the hearing, or

(4) The commissioner has a personal, economic, or professional interest in the outcome of the hearing other than the proper administration of the federal and state laws, rules, and policies, or

(5) The appeal challenges a state or local policy, the development of which the commissioner was substantially involved in, or

(6) The appeal challenges the actions of a department employee or official.

For any appeal to which the above exceptions apply, the state board of education shall name an impartial hearing review officer.

In all appeals, the parent or guardian of the handicapped student or the district that is a party to the hearing may challenge the impartiality of the proposed hearing review officer by applying to the state board of education.

((H)) (i) Pending the completion of proceedings pursuant to this subdivision, unless the district and the parent or guardian of the child agree otherwise, the child shall remain in his current educational placement and shall not be denied initial admission to school.

((I)) (j) The child's school district of residence, if different from the district where the child actually resides, shall receive notice of and may be a party to any hearings or appeals pursuant to this subdivision.

Sec. 2. [REPEALER.]

Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 124.32, subdivisions 1a, 1e, and 2a; and Minnesota Statutes 1983 Supplement, section 124.32, subdivision 5a, are repealed.

(b) the greater of

(i) $7,000, or

(ii) $5 times the population of the district.

For fiscal year 1986 and each fiscal year thereafter, the aid shall be an amount equal to the difference obtained by subtracting

For purposes of computing the aid reduction pursuant to this clause, the amount certified pursuant to section 275.125, subdivision 8, clause ((4)) (1), shall not reflect reductions made pursuant to section 275.125, subdivision 9.

(3) In addition to the amount in clause (1), in fiscal year 1985 and each fiscal year thereafter a district which makes a levy for community education programs pursuant to section 275.125, subdivision 8, shall receive additional aid of 50 cents per capita.

((2) IN 1982 DISTRICTS WHICH RECEIVED TOTAL REVENUE IN FISCAL YEAR 1983 FROM COMMUNITY EDUCATION AID AND LEVY IN EXCESS OF $5 TIMES THE POPULATION OF THE DISTRICT, MAY LEVY THE AMOUNT OF THE FISCAL YEAR 1983 REVENUE LESS $5 TIMES THE POPULATION OF THE DISTRICT IN ADDITION TO THE AMOUNT IN CLAUSE (1).)

(a) ($5) $5.25 times the population of the district, or

(b) $7,000.

((5)) (2) In addition to the levy authorized in clause ((4)) (1), in 1983 a district may levy an additional amount for community education programs equal to the difference obtained by subtracting

(a) the sum in fiscal year 1984 of

(i) the district's estimated maximum permissible revenue for fiscal year 1985 from community education aid under section 124.271, subdivision (2A) (2b), clause (1), and

(ii) the community education levy authorized in clause ((4)) (1) of this subdivision, from

(ii) the maximum community education levy authorized in this subdivision for the district for the levy made in 1981, payable in 1982, before any reduction in the levy pursuant to subdivision 9.

((6)) (3) In 1984 and each year thereafter, in addition to the levy authorized in clause ((4)) (1), a district may levy an amount equal to the amount the district was entitled to levy pursuant to clause ((5)) (2) in 1983.

working days written notice of a meeting and that a meeting has been held to discuss methods of increasing mutual cooperation between such bodies and the school board. The failure of a governing board of a county, municipality or township to attend the meeting shall not affect the authority of the school district to levy pursuant to this subdivision.

((8)) (5) The population of the district for purposes of this subdivision is the population determined as provided in section 275.14 or as certified by the department of education from the most recent federal census.

Subd. 9b. [OPERATING DEBT LEVY.] (1) (IN 1983 AND) Each year (THEREAFTER), a district may make an additional levy to eliminate a deficit in the net unappropriated operating funds of the district, determined as of June 30, 1983, and certified and adjusted by the commissioner. This levy may in each year be an amount not to exceed the amount raised by a levy of 1.5 mills times the adjusted assessed valuation of the district for the preceding year as determined by the equalization aid review committee. However, the total amount of this levy for all years it is made shall not exceed the lesser of (a) the amount of the deficit in the net unappropriated operating funds of the district as of June 30, 1983, or (b) the amount of the aid reduction, according to Laws 1981, Third Special Session

(2) The proceeds of this levy shall be used only for cash flow requirements and shall not be used to supplement district revenues or income for the purposes of increasing the district's expenditures or budgets.

(3) Any district which levies pursuant to this subdivision shall certify the maximum levy allowable under section (271.125) 275.125, subdivision 2a or 2e in that same year.

Sec. 13. Minnesota Statutes 1983 Supplement, section 275.-125, subdivision 11a, is amended to read:

The proceeds of the tax may also be used for capital expenditures to reduce or eliminate barriers to or increase access to school facilities by handicapped individuals. The proceeds of the tax may also be used to make capital improvements to schoolhouses to be leased pursuant to section 123.36, subdivision 10. The proceeds of the tax may also be used to pay fees for capital outlay expenditures assessed and certified to each participating school district by the educational cooperative service unit board of directors. The proceeds of the tax may also be used to pay principal and interest on loans from the state authorized by section 116J.37.

(c) Subject to the commissioner's approval, the tax proceeds may also be used to acquire or construct buildings. The state board shall promulgate rules establishing the criteria to be used by the commissioner in approving and disapproving district applications requesting the use of capital expenditure tax proceeds for the acquisition or construction of buildings. The approval criteria for purposes of building acquisition and construction shall include: the appropriateness of the proposal for the district's long term needs; the availability of adequate existing facilities; and the economic feasibility of bonding because of the proposed building's size or cost.

(d) The board shall establish a fund in which the proceeds of this tax shall be accumulated until expended.

(e) The proceeds of the tax shall not be used for custodial or other maintenance services.

(f) Each year, subject to the seven mill limitation of clause (a) of this subdivision, a school district which operates an approved secondary vocational education program or an approved senior secondary industrial arts program may levy an additional amount equal to $5 per pupil unit for capital expenditures for equipment for these programs.

(g) For purposes of computing allowable levies under this subdivision and subdivisions 11b and 11c, pupil units shall include those units identified in section 124.17, subdivision 1, clauses (1) and (2), and 98.5 percent of the units identified in Minnesota Statutes 1980, section 124.17, subdivision 1, clauses (4) and (5) for 1980-1981.

Sec. 15. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 275.125, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 11d. [REFERENDUM TO ELIMINATE DEFICIT IN CAPITAL EXPENDITURE FUND.] A school district which had a net negative unappropriated fund balance in its capital expenditure fund as of June 30, 1983, may make a levy as provided in this subdivision to eliminate the deficit if the amount levied is approved by the voters of the district at a referendum. The referendum shall be called by the school board and held on a date set by the school board. The amount of the levy shall not exceed the amount of the net negative unappropriated fund balance in the district's capital expenditure fund as of June 30, 1983. If the levy is approved by the voters, the school board may make the levy in one year, or may divide the amount approved by the voters among two or three consecutive years.

The ballot shall state the maximum amount of the increased levy in mills for each year that the levy will be made, the amount that will be raised by that levy in each year, and that the levy will be used to eliminate a deficit in the capital expenditure fund of the district. The ballot may contain text with the information required by this subdivision and a question stating substantially the following:

"Shall the increase in the levy proposed by the board of ..... School District No. .... be approved?"

If approved by the voters, this levy is not subject to revocation or reduction by petition or subsequent referendum, except that the school board may choose to reduce or eliminate the levy for any year.

No more than two elections may be held to approve a levy increase under this subdivision. Notwithstanding any law to the contrary, the approval of 50 percent plus one of those voting on the question is required to pass the referendum authorized by this subdivision. Within 30 days after the district holds a referendum under this subdivision, the district shall notify the commissioner of education of the results of the referendum.

Sec. 16. Minnesota Statutes 1983 Supplement, section 466.06, is amended to read:

466.06 [LIABILITY INSURANCE.]

The governing body of any municipality may procure insurance against liability of the municipality and its officers, employees, and agents for damages resulting from its torts and those of its officers, employees, and agents, including torts specified in section 466.03 for which the municipality is immune from liability. The insurance may provide protection in excess of the limit of liability imposed by section 466.04. If the municipality has the authority to levy taxes, the premium costs for such insurance may be levied in excess of any per capita or millage tax limitation imposed by statute or charter. However, a school district may not levy pursuant to this section for premium costs for motor vehicle insurance protecting against injuries or damages arising out of the operation of district owned, operated, leased, or controlled vehicles for the transportation of pupils for purposes for which state aid is authorized under section 124.223, or for purposes for which the district is authorized to levy under section 275.125, subdivision 5d. Any independent board or commission in the municipality having authority to disburse funds for a particular municipal function without approval of the governing body may similarly procure liability insurance with respect to the field of its operation. The procurement of such insurance constitutes a waiver of the defense of governmental immunity to the extent of the liability stated in the policy but has no effect on the liability of the municipality beyond the coverage so provided.

Sec. 17. Minnesota Statutes 1983 Supplement, section 475.61, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [IRREVOCABILITY.] Tax levies so made and filed shall be irrevocable, except as provided in this subdivision.

In each year when there is on hand any excess amount in the debt service fund of a school district at the time the district makes its property tax levies, the amount of the excess shall be certified by the school board to the county auditor and the auditor shall reduce the tax levy otherwise to be included in the rolls next prepared by the amount certified, unless the school board determines that the excess amount is necessary to ensure the prompt and full payment of the obligations and any call premium on the obligations, or will be used for redemption of the obligations in accordance with their terms. An amount shall be presumed to be excess for a school district in the amount that it, together with the levy required by subdivision 1 and considering the timing of receipt of the portion of that levy paid by the state, will exceed 106 percent of the amount needed to meet when due the principal and interest payments on the obligations due before the second following July 1. This subdivision shall not limit a school board's authority to specify a tax levy in a higher amount if necessary because of anticipated tax delinquency.

If the governing body, including the governing body of a school district, in any year makes an irrevocable appropriation to the debt service fund of moneys actually on hand or if there is on hand any excess amount in the debt service fund, the recording officer may certify to the county auditor the fact and amount thereof and the auditor shall reduce by the amount so certified the amount otherwise to be included in the rolls next thereafter prepared.

However, the total amount of revenue received by a district for fiscal year 1984 pursuant to this subdivision and Minnesota Statutes, section 124.271, subdivision 2a, clause (2) shall not exceed the amount of the district's grant for fiscal year 1983; if any district's aid is reduced because of this limitation, the amount of the reduction shall be prorated among the districts not subject to this limitation.

"Section 1. [LEGISLATIVE INTENT.]

Subdivision 1. [FINDINGS.] The legislature finds that take-overs, particularly hostile take-overs:

(1) exaggerate the tendency of many businesses to focus on short-term performance to the detriment of such long-term societal interests as increased research and development, improved productivity, and the modernization of physical plant and employee capabilities;

(2) are often inconsistent with the economic interests of shareholders;

(3) in many instances threaten the jobs and careers of Minnesota citizens and undermine the ethical foundations of com- panies, as when jobs are eliminated and career commitments to employees are breached or ignored;

(4) often result in plant closings or consolidations that damage communities dependent on the jobs and taxes provided by these plants;

(5) not infrequently wipe out long-standing customer/supplier relationships and the stability and continuity which these relationships provide throughout society;

(6) frequently tie up billions of dollars of scarce capital that could be more effectively applied;

(7) all too often stifle, and ultimately destroy, the entrepreneurial, innovative spirit of creative individuals in independent firms; and

(8) are usually conducted in an atmosphere and pursuant to laws that do not provide a reasonable opportunity for affected parties to make informed decisions.

Subd. 2. [PURPOSES.] The purposes of sections 1 to 18 are to:

(1) assure that the impacts of take-overs on all affected constituencies are identified and disclosed prior to the consummation of these transactions;

(2) provide to shareholders both necessary information and the opportunity to thus cast fully informed votes on any take-over transactions;

(3) encourage reasoned decision-making by assuring equal financial treatment of all shareholders similarly situated at the time any take-over attempt is initiated; and

(4) amend Minnesota Statutes, chapters 80B and 302A to conform with requirements suggested by decisions of the Supreme Court of the United States.

Sec. 2. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 80B.01, is amended to read:

“ARTICLE 1

RIDESHARING

Section 1. [INTENT.]

The legislature finds that certain provisions enacted in 1983 relating to workers' compensation coverage of injuries or damages incurred while participating in ridesharing arrangements have created confusion among employers, employees, insurance carriers, and the public because of their ambiguous nature and their uncertain effect on the underlying premises of employer liability and workers' compensation law. The legislature also finds that the provisions have not had the intended effect of encouraging employers to promote ridesharing arrangements, but that they have had the opposite effect instead. While the provisions that were enacted were not intended to increase the scope of employer liability for travel by employees to and from work, it is feared that that interpretation may someday be given to the provisions. Therefore, the legislature seeks to clarify the meaning of those provisions and, by repealing them, to underscore its intent that the underlying law of employer liability and workers' compensation regarding employee travel to and from work is unaltered by the provisions enacted in 1983.

Sec. 2. Minnesota Statutes 1983 Supplement, section 79.34, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. A nonprofit association known as the workers' compensation reinsurance association is created, which may be incorporated under chapter 317 with all the powers of a corporation formed under that chapter, except that if the provisions of that chapter are inconsistent with sections 79.34 to 79.40 or any amendments thereto, sections 79.34 to 79.40 shall govern. Each insurer as defined by section 79.01, subdivision 2, shall as a condition of its authority to transact workers' compensation insurance in this state, be a member of the reinsurance association and shall be bound by the plan of operation of the reinsurance association; provided, that all affiliated insurers within a holding company system as defined in sections 60D.01 to 60D.13 shall be considered a single entity for purposes of the exercise of all rights and duties of membership in the reinsurance association. Each self-insurer approved pursuant to section 176.181 and each political subdivision which self-insures shall, as a condition of its authority to self-insure workers' compensation liability in this state, be a member of the reinsurance association and shall be bound by its plan of operation; provided, that (a) all affiliated companies within a holding company system, as determined by the commissioner in a manner consistent with the standards and definitions in sections 60D.01 to 60D.13, shall be considered a single entity for purposes of the exercise of all rights and duties of membership in the reinsurance association, and (b) all group self-insurers granted authority to self-insure pursuant to section 176.181 shall be considered a single entity for purposes of the exercise of all the rights and duties of membership in the reinsurance association. As a condition of its authority to self-insure workers' compensation liability, and for losses incurred on or after January 1, 1984, the state shall be a member of the reinsurance association and is bound by its plan of operation. The commissioner of labor and industry represents the state in the exercise of all the rights and duties of membership in the reinsurance association. The state treasurer shall pay the premium to the reinsurance association from the state compensation revolving fund upon warrants of the commissioner of labor and industry. For the purposes of this section "state" means the administrative branch of state government, the legislative branch, the judicial branch, the University of Minnesota, and any other entity whose workers' compensation liability is paid from the state revolving fund. The commissioner of finance may calculate, prorate, and charge a department or agency the portion of premiums paid to the reinsurance association for employees who are paid wholly or in part by federal funds, dedicated funds, or special revenue funds. The reinsurance association is not a state agency. Actions of the reinsurance association and its board of directors and actions of the commissioner of insurance with respect to the reinsurance association are not subject to chapters 13, 14, and 15. The reinsurance association is exempt from taxation under the laws of this state and all property owned by the association is exempt from taxation. The reinsurance association is not obligated to make any payments or pay any assessments to any funds or pools established pursuant to this chapter or chapter 176 or any other law.

Sec. 3. Minnesota Statutes 1983 Supplement, section 176.041, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [EMPLOYMENTS EXCLUDED.] This chapter does not apply to a person employed by a common carrier by railroad engaged in interstate or foreign commerce and who is covered by the Federal Employers' Liability Act, United States Code, title 45, sections 51 to 60, or other comparable federal law; to a person employed by a family farm as defined by section 176.011, subdivision 11a, or the spouse, parent, and child, regardless of age, of a farmer-employer working for the farmer-employer; to a partner engaged in a farm operation or a partner engaged in a business and the spouse, parent, and child, regardless of age, of a partner in the farm operation or business; to an executive officer of a family farm corporation; to an executive officer of a closely held corporation referred to in section 176.012; to a spouse, parent, or child, regardless of age, of an executive officer of a family farm corporation as defined in section 500.24, subdivision 2, and employed by that family farm corporation; to a spouse, parent, or child, regardless of age, of an executive officer of a closely held corporation referred to in section 176.012; to another farmer or to a member of the other farmer's family exchanging work with the farmer-employer or family farm corporation operator in the same community; to a person whose employment at the time of the injury is casual and not in the usual course of the trade, business, profession, or occupation of the employer; persons who are independent contractors as defined by rules adopted by the commissioner pursuant to section 176.83 except that this exclusion does not apply to an employee of an independent contractor; nor does this chapter apply to an officer or a member of a veterans' organization whose employment relationship arises solely by virtue of attending meetings or conventions of the veterans' organization, unless the veterans' organization elects by resolution to provide coverage under this chapter for the officer or member.

Neither does the chapter apply to a person employed as a household worker in, for, or about a private home or household who earns less than $500 in cash in a three-month period from a single private home or household provided that a household worker who has earned $500 or more from the household worker's present employer in a three-month period within the previous year is covered by this chapter regardless of whether or not the household worker has earned $500 in the present quarter.

This chapter does not apply to those persons employed by a corporation if those persons are related by blood or marriage, within the third degree of kindred according to the rules of civil law, to the officers of the corporation, and if the corporation files a written election with the commissioner to have those persons excluded from this chapter except that a written election is not required for a person who is otherwise excluded from this chapter by this section.

This chapter does not apply to a nonprofit association which does not pay more than $500 in salary or wages in a year.

This chapter does not apply to persons covered under the Domestic Volunteer Service Act of 1973, as amended, United States Code, title 42, sections 5011, et seq.

THIS CHAPTER DOES APPLY IF THE EMPLOYER ELECTS TO ASSUME LIABILITY COVERAGE UNDER THIS CHAPTER FOR PERSONS INJURED WHILE PARTICIPATING IN RIDESHARING ARRANGEMENTS AS OUTLINED IN SECTION 176.051, SUBDIVISION 3.)

Sec. 4. [REPEALER.]

Minnesota Statutes 1983 Supplement, section 176.051, subdivisions 2, 3, and 4 are repealed.

Sec. 5. [EFFECTIVE DATE.]

Sections 1 to 4 are effective retroactively to June 10, 1983, except for the provision in section 3 regarding coverage of persons under United States Code, title 42, sections 5011, et seq., which is effective the day following final enactment.

96-100	400,000

For all cases under this subdivision the percentage loss of function of a part of the body is determined according to the rules adopted by the commissioner pursuant to section 176.105, subdivision 4. This subdivision (SHALL APPLY) applies to (A PERMANENT PARTIAL DISABILITY INCURRED) an injury which occurs on or after (THE ADOPTION OF THOSE RULES) January 1, 1984.

Sec. 3. Minnesota Statutes 1983 Supplement, section 176.101, subdivision 3e, is amended to read:

Subd. 3e. [END OF TEMPORARY TOTAL COMPENSATION.] (a) 90 days after an employee has reached maximum medical improvement or 90 days after the end of an approved retraining program, whichever is later, the employee's temporary total compensation shall cease. This cessation shall occur at an earlier date if otherwise provided by this chapter.

(b) If (DURING) at any time prior to the end of the 90-day period described in clause (a) the employee retires or the employer furnishes work to the employee that is consistent with an approved plan of rehabilitation or, if no plan has been approved, that the employee can do in his or her physical condition and that job produces an economic status as close as possible to that the employee would have enjoyed without the disability, or the employer procures this employment with another employer or the employee accepts this job with another employer, temporary total compensation shall cease and the employee shall, if appropriate, receive impairment compensation pursuant to subdivision 3b. This impairment compensation is in lieu of economic recovery compensation under subdivision 3a, and the employee shall not receive both economic recovery compensation and impairment compensation. Temporary total compensation and impairment compensation shall not be paid concurrently. Once temporary total compensation ceases no further temporary total compensation is payable except as specifically provided by this section.

(c) Upon receipt of a written medical report indicating that the employee has reached maximum medical improvement, the employer or insurer shall serve a copy of the report upon the employee and shall file a copy with the division. The beginning of the 90-day period shall commence on the day this report is served on the employee for the purpose of determining whether a job offer consistent with the requirements of this subdivision is made. A job offer may be made before the employee reaches maximum medical improvement.

((C)) (d) The job which is offered or procured by the employer or accepted by the employee under clause (b) does not necessarily have to commence immediately but shall commence within a reasonable period after the end of the 90-day period described in clause (a). Temporary total compensation shall not cease under this subdivision until the job commences.

((D)) (e) If the job offered under clause (a) is not the job the employee had at the time of injury it shall be offered in writing and shall state the nature of the job, the rate of pay, the physical requirements of the job, and any other information necessary to fully and completely inform the employee of the job duties and responsibilities.

The employee has 14 calendar days to accept or reject the job offer. If the employee does not respond within this period it is deemed a refusal of the offer. Where there is an administrative conference to determine suitability under section 176.242, the period begins to run on the date of the commissioner's decision.

((E)) (f) Self-employment may be an appropriate job under this subdivision.

The commissioner shall monitor application of this subdivision and may adopt rules to assure its proper application.

Sec. 4. Minnesota Statutes 1983 Supplement, section 176.101, subdivision 3g, is amended to read:

Subd. 3g. [ACCEPTANCE OF JOB OFFER.] If the employee accepts a job offer described in subdivision 3e and the employee begins work at that job, although not necessarily within the 90-day period specified in that subdivision, the impairment compensation shall be paid in a lump sum 30 calendar days after the employee actually commences work if the employ- ment has not been substantially interrupted by the injury for any part of the 30 days and the employee is still employed at that job at the end of the period.

Sec. 5. Minnesota Statutes 1983 Supplement, section 176.101, subdivision 3i, is amended to read:

Subd. 3i. [LAY OFF BECAUSE OF LACK OF WORK OR RELEASED FOR OTHER THAN SEASONAL CONDITIONS.] (a) If an employee accepts a job under subdivision 3e and begins work at that job and is subsequently unemployed at that job because of economic conditions, other than seasonal conditions, the employee shall receive monitoring period compensation pursuant to clause (b). In addition, the employer who was the employer at the time of the injury shall provide rehabilitation consultation by a qualified rehabilitation consultant if the employee remains unemployed for 45 calendar days. The commissioner may waive this rehabilitation consultation if the commissioner deems it appropriate. Further rehabilitation, if deemed appropriate, is governed by section 176.102.

(b) Upon the employee's initial return to work the monitoring period begins to run. If the employee is unemployed for the reason in clause (a), prior to the end of the monitoring period the employee shall receive monitoring period compensation. This compensation shall be paid for the lesser of (1) the weeks remaining in the monitoring period, or (2) the weeks equal to the monitoring period minus the impairment compensation paid to the employee. For purposes of this clause the impairment compensation shall be converted to weeks by dividing the impairment compensation received by the employee by the employee's compensation rate for temporary total disability at the time of the injury. No monitoring period compensation is payable if the unemployment occurs after the expiration of the monitoring period. Monitoring period compensation is payable at the same intervals and in the same amount as when temporary total compensation ceased.

((C)) (d) If the employee returns to work and is still receiving monitoring period compensation, this compensation shall cease. Any period remaining in the monitoring period upon this return to work shall be used to determine further benefits if the employee is again unemployed under clause (a).

((D)) (e) Upon the employee's return to work pursuant to this section the insurer shall notify the employee of the length of the employee's monitoring period and shall notify the employee of the amount of impairment to be paid and the date of payment.

In addition, the employer who was the employer at the time of the injury shall provide rehabilitation consultation by a qualified rehabilitation consultant. Further rehabilitation, if deemed appropriate, is governed by section 176.102.

(b) Temporary total compensation shall be paid for up to 90 days after the employee has reached maximum medical improvement or 90 days after the end of an approved retraining plan, whichever is later. The temporary total compensation shall cease at any time within the 90-day period that the employee begins work meeting the requirements of subdivision 3e or 3f. If no job is offered to the employee by the end of this 90-day period, the employee shall receive economic recovery compensation pursuant to this section but reduced by the impairment compensation previously received by the employee for the same disability.

Sec. 7. Minnesota Statutes 1983 Supplement, section 176.101, subdivision 31, is amended to read:

Subd. 31. [FAILURE TO ACCEPT JOB OFFER.] If the employee has been offered a job under subdivision 3e and has refused the offer, the impairment compensation shall not be paid in a lump sum but shall be paid in the same interval and amount that temporary total compensation was initially paid. This compensation shall not be escalated pursuant to section 176.645. Temporary total compensation shall cease upon the employee's refusal to accept the job offered and no further or additional temporary total compensation is payable for that injury. The payment of the periodic impairment compensation shall cease when the amount the employee is eligible to receive under subdivision 3b is reached, after which time the employee shall not receive additional impairment compensation or any other compensation under this chapter unless the employee has a greater permanent partial disability than already compensated for.

Subd. 3o. [INABILITY TO RETURN TO WORK.] (a) An employee who is permanently totally disabled pursuant to subdivision 5 shall receive impairment compensation as determined pursuant to subdivision 3b. This compensation is payable in addition to permanent total compensation pursuant to subdivision 4 and is payable concurrently. In this case the impairment compensation shall be paid in the same intervals and amount as the permanent total compensation (IS) was initially paid, and the impairment compensation shall cease when the amount due under subdivision 3b is reached. If this employee returns to work at any job during the period the impairment compensation is being paid, the remaining impairment compensation due shall be paid in a lump sum 30 days after the employee has returned to work and no further temporary total compensation shall be paid.

(b) If an employee is receiving periodic economic recovery compensation and is determined to be permanently totally disabled no offset shall be taken against future permanent total compensation for the compensation paid and no permanent total weekly compensation is payable for any period during which economic recovery compensation has already been paid. No further economic recovery compensation is payable even if the amount due the employee pursuant to subdivision 3a has not yet been reached.

(c) An employee who has received periodic economic recovery compensation and who meets the criteria under clause (b) of this subdivision shall receive impairment compensation pursuant to clause (a) of this subdivision even if the employee has previously received economic recovery compensation for that disability.

If the employee returns to work and the economic recovery compensation is still being paid, the remaining economic recovery compensation due shall be paid in a lump sum 30 days after the employee has returned to work if the employment has not been substantially interrupted by the injury for any part of the 30 days and the employee is still employed at that job at the end of the period.

(a) If the deceased employee leaves a dependent surviving spouse and no dependent children, as defined by section 176.111, subdivision 1, the spouse shall receive the periodic economic recovery or impairment compensation that the deceased was receiving before the death. This compensation shall be paid for a period of up to ten years after the date of death at which time payments and future entitlement to it ceases.

(b) If the deceased employee leaves a dependent spouse and dependent children, as defined in section 176.111, subdivision 1, the periodic economic recovery or impairment compensation shall continue to be paid to the surviving spouse for up to ten years after the last child is no longer dependent after which time payments and future entitlement to the compensation ceases.

(c) If the deceased employee leaves a dependent child, as defined by section 176.111, and no dependent spouse, the periodic economic recovery or impairment compensation shall continue to be paid to the child until the child is no longer dependent or until the amount to which the employee was entitled to receive is exhausted, whichever is later.

(b) Where an employee (WHO) has suffered a personal injury for which temporary total compensation is payable but which produces no permanent partial disability and the employee is unable to return to his former employment for medical reasons attributable to the injury, the employee shall receive 26 weeks of economic recovery compensation (IF NO JOB IS OFFERED WITHIN THE TIME SPECIFIED IN AND MEETING THE CRITERIA OF SUBDIVISION 3E). This paragraph shall not be used to determine monitoring period compensation under subdivision 3i and shall not be a minimum for determining the amount of compensation when an employee has suffered a permanent partial disability.

When conducting a review of the commissioner's determination regarding any rehabilitation issue or plan the panel shall give the parties notice that the appeal will be heard. This notice shall be given at least ten working days prior to the hearing. The notice shall state that parties may be represented by counsel at the hearing. In conducting its review the panel shall permit an interested party to present relevant, competent, oral or written evidence and to cross-examine opposing evidence. Evidence presented is not limited to the evidence previously submitted to the commissioner. A record of the proceeding shall be made by the panel. Upon determination of the issue presented, the panel shall issue to the interested parties a written decision and order. The decision need not contain a recitation of the evidence presented at the hearing, but shall be limited to the panel's basis for the decision. The panel may adopt rules of procedure which may be joint rules with the medical services review board.

(e) Reasonable cost for moving expenses of the employee and family if a job is found in a geographic area beyond reasonable commuting distance after a diligent search within the present community. Relocation shall not be paid more than once during any rehabilitation program, and relocation shall not be required if the new job is located within the same standard metropolitan statistical area as the employee's job at the time of injury. An employee shall not be required to relocate and a refusal to relocate shall not result in a suspension or termination of compensation under this chapter; and

(f) Any other expense agreed to be paid.

Sec. 15. Minnesota Statutes 1983 Supplement, section 176.103, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [MEDICAL SERVICES REVIEW BOARD; SELECTION; POWERS.] (a) There is created a medical services review board composed of the commissioner or the commissioner's designee as an ex officio member, two persons representing chiropractic, one person representing hospital administrators, and six (MEDICAL PRACTITIONERS) physicians representing different specialties which the commissioner determines are the most frequently utilized by injured employees. The board shall also have one person representing employees, one person representing employers or insurers, and one person representing the general public. The members shall be appointed by the commissioner and shall be governed by section 15.0575. Terms of the board's members may be renewed. The board shall appoint from among its clinical members a clinical advisory subcommittee on clinical quality and a clinical advisory subcommittee on clinical cost containment. Each subcommittee shall consist of at least three members one of whom shall be a member who is not a chiropractor or licensed physician.

The clinical quality subcommittee shall review clinical results for adequacy and recommend to the commissioner scales for disabilities and apportionment.

The clinical cost containment subcommittee shall review and recommend to the commissioner rates for individual clinical procedures and aggregate costs. The subcommittees shall make regular reports to the board and the commissioner which shall evaluate the reports for the purpose of determining whether or not a particular health care provider continues to qualify for payment under chapter 176 or is subject to any other sanctions or penalties authorized under this section and to determine whether an employee has been off work longer than necessary.

In evaluating the clinical consequences of the services provided to an employee by a clinical health care provider, the board shall consider the following factors in the priority listed:

- (1) the clinical effectiveness of the treatment;
- (2) the clinical cost of the treatment; and
- (3) the length of time of treatment.

In its consideration of these factors, the board shall utilize the information and recommendations developed by the subcommittees. In addition, the board shall utilize any other data developed by the subcommittees pursuant to the duties assigned to the subcommittees under this section.

After making a determination, the board shall submit its recommendation in writing to the commissioner. The board shall advise the commissioner on the adoption of rules regarding all aspects of medical care and services provided to injured employees.

(b) The board shall appoint three of its members to hear appeals from decisions of the commissioner regarding quality control and supervision of medical care; any other disputes regarding medical, surgical, and hospital care; decisions regarding the eligibility of medical providers to receive payments; or any other determinations of the commissioner pursuant to subdivision 2. The three-member panel shall be composed of one member who does not represent a health care specialty, one member who represents the same specialty as the specialty at issue or, if the same specialty is not available, one member whose specialty is as close as possible considering the board's composition, and one member representing a different specialty. The three-member panel shall conduct a hearing in the same manner, giving the same notice and following other procedures required of the rehabilitation review panel in section 176.102, subdivision 3a. A majority vote of the three-member panel constitutes the decision of the full board. This decision may be appealed to the workers' compensation court of appeals.

(c) In any situation where a conflict of interest prevents the appointment of a full three-member panel or in any other situation where the commissioner deems it necessary to resolve a conflict of interest, the commissioner may appoint a temporary substitute board member to serve until the situation creating the conflict of interest has been resolved.

(d) The board may adopt rules of procedure. The rules may be joint rules with the rehabilitation review panel.

The rate under this subdivision shall (REMAIN CONSTANT) be adjusted as provided under subdivision 4a and applies to injuries occurring after June 1, 1971, (AND PRIOR TO JANUARY 1, 1984,) for payments made on or after January 1, 1984. This payment is to be credited to the special compensation fund and shall be in addition to any compensation payments made by the employer under this chapter. Payment shall be made as soon as the amount is determined and approved by the commissioner.

Notwithstanding any other state laws related to the privacy of medical data or any private agreements to the contrary, the release of medical data related to a current claim for compensation under this chapter to the employee, employer, or insurer who are parties to the claim, or to the department of labor and industry, shall not require prior approval of any party to the claim. Requests for pertinent data shall be made in writing to the person or organization that collected or currently possesses the data. The data shall be provided by the collector or possessor within seven working days of receiving the request. In all cases of a request for the data, except when it is the employee who is making the request, the employee shall be sent written notification of the request by the party requesting the data at the same time the request is made. This data shall be treated as private data by the party who requests or receives the data and the employee or the employee's attorney shall be provided with a copy of all data requested by the requester.

Medical data which is not directly related to a current injury or disability shall not be released without prior authorization of the employee.

The commissioner may impose a penalty of up to $200 payable to the special compensation fund against a party who does not release the data in a timely manner. A party who does not treat this data as private pursuant to this section is guilty of a misdemeanor. This section applies only to written medical data which exists at the time the request is made.

Sec. 26. Minnesota Statutes 1983 Supplement, section 176.183, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. When any employee sustains an injury arising out of and in the course of employment while in the employ of an employer, other than the state or its political subdivisions, not insured or self-insured as provided for in this chapter, the employee or the employee's dependents shall nevertheless receive benefits as provided for in this chapter from the special compensation fund, and the commissioner has a cause of action against the employer for reimbursement for all moneys paid out or to be paid out, and, in the discretion of the court, as punitive damages an additional amount not exceeding 50 percent of all moneys paid out or to be paid out. As used in this subdivision, "employer" includes officers of corporations who have legal control, either individually or jointly with another or others, of the payment of wages. An action to recover the moneys shall be instituted unless the commissioner determines that no recovery is possible. All moneys recovered shall be deposited in the general fund. There shall be no payment from the special compensation fund if there is liability for the injury under the provisions of section 176.215, by an insurer or self-insurer.

Sec. 27. Minnesota Statutes 1983 Supplement, section 176.221, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [COMMENCEMENT OF PAYMENT.] Within 14 days of notice to or knowledge by the employer of an injury compensable under this chapter the payment of temporary total compensation shall commence. Within 14 days of notice to or knowledge by an employer of a new period of temporary total disability which is caused by an old injury compensable under this chapter, the payment of temporary total compensation shall commence; provided that the employer or insurer may file for an extension with the commissioner within this 14-day period, in which case the compensation need not commence within the 14-day period but shall commence no later than 30 days from the date of the notice to or knowledge by the employer of the new period of disability. Commencement of payment by an employer or insurer does not waive any rights to any defense the employer (MAY HAVE) has on any claim or incident either with respect to the compensability of the claim under chapter 176 or the amount of the compensation due. Where there are multiple employers, the first employer shall pay, unless it is shown that the injury has arisen out of employment with the second or subsequent employer. Liability for compensation under this chapter may be denied by the employer or insurer by giving the employee written notice of the denial of liability. If liability is denied for an injury which is required to be reported to the commissioner under section 176.231, subdivision 1, the denial of liability must be filed with the commissioner within 14 days after notice to or knowledge by the employer of an injury which is alleged to be compensable under this chapter. If the employer or insurer has commenced payment of compensation under this subdivision but determines within 30 days of notice to or knowledge by the employer of the injury that the disability is not a result of a personal injury, payment of compensation may be terminated upon the filing of a notice of denial of liability within 30 days of notice or knowledge. After the 30-day period, payment may be terminated only by the filing of a notice as provided under section 176.242. Upon the termination, payments made may be recovered by the employer if the commissioner or compensation judge finds that the employee's claim of work related disability was not made in good faith. A notice of denial of liability must state in detail specific reasons explaining why the claimed injury or occupational disease was determined not to be within the scope and course of employment and shall include the name and telephone number of the person making this determination.

Sec. 28. Minnesota Statutes 1983 Supplement, section 176-221, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [(PAYMENTS TO SPECIAL COMPENSATION FUND) PENALTY.] (WHERE AN) If the employer or insurer (FAILS TO) does not begin payment of compensation (PURSUANT TO SUBDIVISION 1, OR TO FILE A DENIAL OF LIABILITY) within the (14-DAY PERIOD REFERRED TO IN) time limit prescribed under subdivision 1 or 8, (IT SHALL PAY) the commissioner may assess a penalty, payable to the special compensation fund (AN AMOUNT EQUAL TO THE TOTAL), of up to 100 percent of the amount of compensation to which the employee is entitled because of the injury to receive up to the date compensation payment is made to the employee in addition to any other penalty otherwise provided by statute. This penalty may also be imposed on an employer or insurer who violates section 176.242 or 176.243 including, but not limited to, violating the commissioner's decision not to discontinue compensation.

Sec. 29. Minnesota Statutes 1983 Supplement, section 176.221, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 3a. [PENALTY.] In lieu of any other penalty under this section, the commissioner may assess a penalty of up to $1,000 for each instance in which an employer or insurer does not pay benefits or file a notice of denial of liability within the time limits prescribed under this section.

Sec. 30. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 176.231, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [TIME LIMITATION.] Where death or serious injury occurs to an employee during the course of employment, the employer shall report the injury or death to the commissioner (OF LABOR AND INDUSTRY) and insurer within 48 hours after its occurrence. Where any other injury occurs which wholly or partly incapacitates the employee from performing labor or service for more than three calendar days or longer, the employer shall report the injury to the (COMMISSIONER OF LABOR AND INDUSTRY AND) insurer on a form prescribed by the commissioner within (15) ten days from its occurrence. A self-insured employer shall report the injury to the commissioner no later than 14 days from its occurrence. Where an injury has once been reported but subsequently death ensues, the employer shall report the death to the commissioner (OF LABOR AND INDUSTRY) and insurer within 48 hours after (HE) the employer receives notice of this fact.

Sec. 31. Minnesota Statutes 1983 Supplement, section 176.231, subdivision 9, is amended to read:

Subd. 9. [USES WHICH MAY BE MADE OF REPORTS.] Reports filed with the commissioner under this section may be used in hearings held under this chapter, and for the purpose of state investigations and for statistics. These reports are available to the department of revenue for use in enforcing Minnesota income tax and property tax refund laws, and the information shall be protected as provided in section 290.61 or 290A.17.

The division or office of administrative hearings or workers' compensation court of appeals may permit (AN ATTORNEY AT LAW WHO REPRESENTS AN) the examination of its file by the employer, insurer, (OR AN) employee, or (A) dependent (TO EXAMINE ITS FILE IN A COMPENSATION CASE IF THE ATTORNEY) of a deceased employee or any person who furnishes written authorization to do so from the (ATTORNEY'S CLIENT) employer, insurer, employee, or dependent of a deceased employee. Reports filed under this section and other information the commissioner has regarding injuries or deaths shall be made available to the workers' compensation reinsurance association for use by the association in carrying out its responsibilities under chapter 79.

Sec. 32. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 176.241, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [NECESSITY FOR NOTICE AND SHOWING; CONTENTS.] Subject to sections 176.242 and 176.243, where an employee claims that the right to compensation continues, the employer may not discontinue payment of compensation until (HE) the employer provides the employee with notice in writing of his intention to do so, on a form prescribed by the commissioner, together with a statement of facts clearly indicating the reasons for the discontinuance. A copy of the notice shall be provided to the division by the employer.

The notice to the employee and the copy to the division shall state the date of intended discontinuance and the reason for the action. The notice to the employee and the copy to the division shall be accompanied by a statement of facts in support of the discontinuance of compensation payments and whatever medical reports are in the possession of the employer bearing on the physical condition of the employee at the time of the proposed discontinuance.

Sec. 33. Minnesota Statutes 1983 Supplement, section 176.241, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [CONTINUANCE OF EMPLOYER'S LIABILITY; SUSPENSION.] Except when the commissioner orders otherwise, until the copy of the notice and reports have been filed with the division, the liability of the employer to make payments of compensation continues.

When the division has received a copy of the notice of discontinuance, the statement of facts and available medical reports, the duty of the employer to pay compensation is suspended (PENDING AN INVESTIGATION HEARING, AND DETERMINATION OF THE MATTER BY THE DIVISION OR COMPENSATION JUDGE), except as provided in the following subdivisions and in sections 176.242 and 176.243.

Sec. 34. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 176.241, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [COPY OF NOTICE TO EMPLOYEE (, INVESTIGATION, HEARING).] When the employer has reason to believe compensation may be terminated within the requirements of this chapter, notice shall be given to the employee informing the employee of (HIS) the employee's right to object to the discontinuance pursuant to sections 176.242 and 176.243 and providing instructions as to how to contact the employer (OR), insurer, and commissioner regarding the discontinuance and the procedures related to initiation of a claim. (THE COMMISSIONER SHALL MAKE AN INVESTIGATION TO DETERMINE WHETHER THE RIGHT TO COMPENSATION HAS TERMINATED. IF IT APPEARS FROM THE INVESTIGATION THAT THE RIGHT TO COMPENSATION MAY NOT HAVE TERMINATED, THE COMMISSIONER SHALL REFER THE MATTER TO THE CHIEF HEARING EXAMINER IN ORDER THAT A HEARING BEFORE A COMPENSATION JUDGE MAY BE SCHEDULED, TO DETERMINE THE RIGHT OF THE EMPLOYEE, OR HIS DEPENDENT, TO FURTHER COMPENSATION.)

(THE HEARING SHALL BE HELD WITHIN A REASONABLE TIME AFTER THE DIVISION HAS RECEIVED THE NOTICE OF DISCONTINUANCE. THE COMPENSATION JUDGE SHALL GIVE EIGHT DAYS NOTICE OF THE HEARING TO INTERESTED PARTIES.)

Sec. 35. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 176.241, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 3a. [OBJECTION TO DISCONTINUANCE.] If the employee is aggrieved by the commissioner's decision under section 176.242 or 176.243 or the employee has not timely proceeded under either of those sections, or the discontinuance is not governed by those sections, the employee may file an objection to discontinuance with the commissioner. The commissioner shall refer the matter to the chief hearing examiner in order that a hearing before a compensation judge may be scheduled to determine the right of the employee, or the employee's dependent, to further compensation.

The hearing shall be a de novo hearing and shall be held within a reasonable time after the chief hearing examiner has received the notice of the objection to discontinuance.

Sec. 36. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 176.241, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 3b. [PETITION TO DISCONTINUE.] Pursuant to section 176.242, subdivision 5, an employer or insurer may file a petition to discontinue benefits with the commissioner. The commissioner shall refer the matter to the chief hearing examiner in order that a hearing on the petition be held before a compensation judge. This hearing shall be a de novo hearing. The employer or insurer shall continue payment of compensation until the filing of the decision of the compensation judge and thereafter as the compensation judge, court of appeals, or supreme court directs.

Sec. 37. Minnesota Statutes 1983 Supplement, section 176.242, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [NOTICE OF DISCONTINUANCE; GROUNDS.] If an employer or insurer files a notice of intention to discontinue weekly payments of temporary total, temporary partial, or permanent total disability benefits, the employer or insurer shall serve a copy upon the commissioner and the employee including detailed reasons for the intended discontinuance.

Sec. 38. Minnesota Statutes 1983 Supplement, section 176.242, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [CONFERENCE; REQUEST.] (a) The employee has ten calendar days from the date the notice was (SERVED) filed with the commissioner to request that the commissioner schedule an administrative conference to determine the appropriateness of the proposed discontinuance. The employer or insurer may request an administrative conference under this section at any time whether or not a notice of intent to discontinue is filed. If a notice of intent to discontinue has been filed, the commissioner shall schedule an administrative conference (TO BE HELD) within ten calendar days after the commissioner receives timely notice of the (EMPLOYEE'S OR EMPLOYER'S) request for an administrative conference. If no notice of intent to discontinue has been filed and the employer or insurer has requested a conference, the commissioner shall schedule an administrative conference to be held within 30 calendar days after the commissioner receives the employer's or insurer's request for a conference.

(b) If the employee does not, in a timely manner, request that the commissioner schedule an administrative conference, or fails to appear, without good cause, at a scheduled conference, compensation may be discontinued, subject to the employee's right under section 176.241.

(c) An employee, (OR) employer, or insurer may request a continuance of a scheduled administrative conference. If the commissioner determines that good cause exists for granting a continuance, the commissioner may grant the continuance which shall not exceed ten calendar days unless the parties agree to a longer continuance. (NO MORE THAN ONE CONTINUANCE SHALL BE GRANTED.) If the employee is granted a continuance, compensation need not be paid during the period of continuance but shall recommence upon the date of the conference unless the commissioner orders otherwise. If the employer or insurer is granted a continuance, compensation shall continue to be paid during the continuance. There is no limit to the number of continuances the commissioner may grant to a party provided that the payment of compensation is subject to this clause during the continuance.

(d) The purpose of an administrative conference is to determine whether reasonable grounds exist for a discontinuance.

Sec. 39. Minnesota Statutes 1983 Supplement, section 176.242, subdivision 6, is amended to read:

Subd. 6. [EFFECT OF DECISION, (APPEAL) REVIEW, TOLLING.] (a) If an objection or a petition is filed under subdivision 5, the commissioner's administrative decision remains in effect and the parties obligations or rights to pay or receive compensation are governed by the commissioner's administrative decision, pending a determination by a compensation judge pursuant to section 176.241.

(b) If a party seeks a review of the commissioner's determination involving issues of maximum medical improvement or whether a job offer meets the criteria under section 176.101, subdivisions 3(e), 3(f), or 3(p), the 90-day period referred to in those subdivisions are tolled and commence on the date of filing of a final determination on the issue. For purposes of this subdivision, a "final determination" means a decision from which no appeal has been or may be taken.

Sec. 40. Minnesota Statutes 1983 Supplement, section 176.242, subdivision 8, is amended to read:

Subd. 8. [WHEN DISCONTINUANCE ALLOWED.] Compensation shall not be discontinued prior to an administrative conference except as provided under subdivision 2, clause (b), or if the commissioner determines pursuant to subdivision 3 that no administrative conference is necessary. The employer may discontinue compensation immediately without having an administrative conference if the discontinuance is because the employee has returned to work. If the commissioner has denied a requested discontinuance and a compensation judge later rules that the discontinuance was proper, payments made under the commissioner's order as provided under subdivision 4 shall be treated as an overpayment which the employer or insurer may recover from the employee subject to the provisions of section 176.179.

Sec. 41. Minnesota Statutes 1983 Supplement, section 176.243, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [EMPLOYEE REQUEST FOR ADMINISTRATIVE CONFERENCE.] If the employee objects to the action of the insurer regarding payment of compensation upon the cessation of work by the employee or regarding the payment of temporary partial disability benefits, the employee may request an administrative conference with the commissioner to resolve disputed issues. A request for an administrative conference shall be made within ten calendar days after service of the notice on the employee. If the employee requests an administrative conference the commissioner shall schedule a conference to be held within 14 calendar days after the commissioner receives the request.

Sec. 42. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 176.271, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. Before a proceeding is initiated pursuant to subdivision 1 the party contemplating initiation of a proceeding shall notify the party against whom the proceeding will be directed including an employer who has an interest in the matter and shall state the relief that will be sought in the proceeding. If the party to whom the notice is directed does not respond to the satisfaction of the party supplying the notice within 15 days of the receipt of the notice a proceeding may be initiated pursuant to subdivision 1. This notification is not required in cases where compliance with this subdivision would result in the claim being barred by section 176.151 or other sections or a proceeding under section 176.103, 176.242, or 176.243 or other proceeding for which the commissioner determines this notice is not necessary.

Sec. 43. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 176.351, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 2a. [SUBPOENAS NOT PERMITTED.] A member of the rehabilitation review panel or medical services board or an employee of the department who has conducted an administrative conference or hearing under section 176.102, 176.103, 176.135, 176.136, 176.242, or 176.243, shall not be subpoenaed to testify regarding the conference, hearing, or concerning a mediation session. A member of the rehabilitation review panel, medical services board, or an employee of the department may be required to answer written interrogatories limited to the following questions:

(a) Were all statutory and administrative procedural rules adhered to in reaching the decision?

(b) If the answer to question (a) is no, what deviations took place?

(c) Did the person making the decision consider all the information presented to him or her prior to rendering a decision?

(d) Did the person making the decision rely on information outside of the information presented at the conference or hearing in making the decision?

(e) If the answer to question (d) is yes, what other information was relied upon in making the decision?

In addition, for a hearing with a compensation judge and with the consent of the compensation judge, an employee of the department who conducted an administrative conference, hearing, or mediation session, may be requested to answer written interrogatories relating to statements made by a party at the prior proceeding. These interrogatories shall be limited to affirming or denying that specific statements were made by a party.

Sec. 44. Minnesota Statutes 1983 Supplement, section 176.361, is amended to read:

176.361 [INTERVENTION.]

Subdivision 1. [RIGHT TO INTERVENE.] A person who has an interest in any matter before the workers' compensation court of appeals, or commissioner, or compensation judge such that the person may either gain or lose by an order or decision may intervene in the proceeding by filing an application in writing stating the facts which show the interest. The commissioner is considered to have an interest and shall be permitted to intervene at the appellate level when a party relies in its claim or defense upon any statute or rule administered by the commissioner, or upon any rule, order, requirement, or agreement issued or made under the statute or rule.

The commissioner (AND) may adopt rules, not inconsistent with this section to govern intervention. The workers' compensation court of appeals shall adopt rules to govern the procedure for intervention in matters before it.

If the department of public welfare or the department of economic security seeks to intervene in any matter before the division, a compensation judge or the workers' compensation court of appeals, a nonattorney employee of the department, acting at the direction of the staff of the attorney general, may prepare, sign, serve and file motions for intervention and related documents and appear at prehearing conferences. Any other interested party may intervene using a nonattorney. This activity shall not be considered to be the unauthorized practice of law.

Subd. 2. [WRITTEN APPLICATION.] A person desiring to intervene in a workers' compensation case as a party, including but not limited to a health care provider who has rendered services to an employee or an insurer who has paid benefits under section 176.191, shall submit a timely written application to intervene to the compensation or settlement judge to whom the case has been assigned. If the case has not yet been assigned, the application shall be made to the calendar judge if the case has been certified to the office, or to the division if the case has not been certified to the office.

(a) The application must be served on all parties either personally, by first class mail, or registered mail, return receipt requested. An application to intervene must be served and filed within 60 days after a person has received notice that a petition has been filed as provided in this section. An untimely motion is subject to denial under subdivision 7.

(b) In any other situation, timeliness will be determined by the judge in each case based on circumstances at the time of filing. The application must show how the moving party's legal rights, duties, or privileges may be determined or affected by the case; state the grounds and purposes for which intervention is sought; and indicate the moving party's statutory right to intervene. The application must be accompanied by the following, if applicable:

(1) an itemization of disability payments showing the period during which the payments were or are being made; the weekly or monthly rate of the payments; and the amount of reimbursement claimed;

(2) a summary of the medical or treatment payments, or rehabilitation services provided by the division of vocational rehabilitation, broken down by creditor, showing the total bill submitted, the period of treatment or rehabilitation covered by that bill, the amount of payment on that bill, and to whom the payment was made;

(3) copies of all medical or treatment bills on which some payment was made;

(4) copies of the work sheets or other information stating how the payments on medical or treatment bills were calculated;

(5) a copy of the relevant policy or contract provisions upon which the claim for reimbursement is based;

(6) a proposed order allowing intervention with sufficient copies to serve on all parties;

(7) the name and telephone number of the person representing the intervenor who has authority to reach a settlement of the issues in dispute;

(8) proof of service or copy of the registered mail receipt;

(9) at the option of the intervenor, a proposed stipulation which states that all of the payments for which reimbursement is claimed are related to the injury or condition in dispute in the case and that, if the petitioner is successful in proving the compensability of the claim, it is agreed that the sum be reimbursed to the intervenor; and

(10) if represented by an attorney, the name, address, telephone number, and Minnesota supreme court license number of the attorney.

Subd. 3. [STIPULATION.] If the person submitting the application for intervention has included a proposed stipulation, all parties shall either execute and return the signed stipulation to the intervenor who must file it with the division or judge or serve upon the intervenor and all other parties and file with the division specific and detailed objections to any payments made by the intervenor which are not conceded to be correct and related to the injury or condition the petitioner has asserted is compensable. If a party has not returned the signed stipulation or filed objections within 30 days of service of the application, the intervenor's right to reimbursement for the amount sought is deemed established provided that the petitioner's claim is determined to be compensable.

Subd. 4. [ATTENDANCE BY INTERVENOR.] Unless a stipulation has been signed and filed or the intervenor's right to reimbursement has otherwise been established, the intervenor shall attend all settlement or pretrial conferences and shall attend the regular hearing if ordered to do so by the compensation judge.

Subd. 5. [ORDER.] If an objection to intervention remains following settlement or pretrial conferences, the calendar judge shall rule on the intervention and the order is binding on the compensation judge to whom the case is assigned for hearing.

Subd. 6. [PRESENTATION OF EVIDENCE BY INTERVENOR.] Unless a stipulation has been signed and filed or the intervenor's right to reimbursement has otherwise been established, the intervenor shall present evidence in support of the claim at the hearing unless otherwise ordered by the compensation judge.

Subd. 7. [EFFECTS OF NONCOMPLIANCE.] Failure to comply with this section shall not result in a denial of the claim for reimbursement unless the compensation judge, commissioner, medical services review board, or settlement judge determines that the noncompliance has materially prejudiced the interests of the other parties.

Sec. 45. Minnesota Statutes 1983 Supplement, section 176.421, subdivision 7, is amended to read:

Subd. 7. [RECORD OF PROCEEDINGS.] At the division's own expense, the commissioner shall make a complete record of all proceedings before the commissioner and shall provide a stenographer or an audio magnetic recording device to make the record of the proceedings.

The commissioner shall furnish a transcript of these proceedings to any person who requests it and who pays a reasonable charge which shall be set by the commissioner. Upon a showing of cause, the commissioner may direct that a transcript be prepared without expense to the person requesting the transcript, in which case the cost of the transcript shall be paid by the division. Transcript fees received under this subdivision shall be paid to the workers' compensation division account in the state treasury and shall be annually appropriated to the division for the sole purpose of providing a record and transcripts as provided in this subdivision. This subdivision does not apply to any administrative conference or other proceeding before the commissioner which may be heard de novo in another proceeding including but not limited to proceedings under section 176.102, 176.103, 176.242, or 176.243.

Sec. 46. Minnesota Statutes 1983 Supplement, section 176.442, is amended to read:

176.442 [APPEALS FROM DECISIONS OF COMMISSIONER.]

Except for a commissioner's decision which may be heard de novo in another proceeding including a decision from an administrative conference under section 176.102, 176.103, 176.242, or 176.243, any decision or determination of the commissioner affecting a right, privilege, benefit, or duty which is imposed or conferred under this chapter is subject to review by the workers' compensation court of appeals. A person aggrieved by the determination may appeal to the workers' compensation court of appeals by filing a notice of appeal with the commissioner in the same manner and within the same time as if the appeal were from an order or decision of a compensation judge to the workers' compensation court of appeals.

Sec. 47. Minnesota Statutes 1983 Supplement, section 176.66, subdivision 10, is amended to read:

Subd. 10. [MULTIPLE EMPLOYERS OR INSURERS; LIABILITY.] The employer liable for the compensation for a personal injury under this chapter is the employer in whose employment the employee was last exposed in a significant way to the hazard of the occupational disease. In the event that the employer who is liable for the compensation had multiple insurers during the employee's term of employment, the insurer who was on the risk during the employee's last significant exposure to the hazard of the occupational disease is the liable party. If this last employer had coverage for workers' compensation liability from more than one insurer during the employment, the insurer on the risk during the last period during which the employee was last exposed to the hazard of the occupational disease shall pay benefits as provided under section 176.191, subdivision 1, whether or not this insurer was on risk during the last significant exposure. The party making payments under this section shall be reimbursed by the party who is subsequently determined to be liable for the occupational disease, including interest at a rate of 12 percent a year. For purposes of this section, a self-insured employer shall be considered to be an insurer and an employer. Where there is a dispute as to which employer is liable under this section, the employer in whose employment the employee is last exposed to the hazard of the occupational disease shall pay benefits pursuant to section 176.191, subdivision 1.

Sec. 48. Minnesota Statutes 1983 Supplement, section 176.66, subdivision 11, is amended to read:

Subd. 11. [AMOUNT OF COMPENSATION.] The compensation for an occupational disease is  $66\frac{2}{3}$  percent of the employee's weekly wage on the date of injury subject to a maximum compensation equal to the maximum compensation in effect on the date of last exposure. The employee shall be (IMMEDIATELY) eligible for supplementary benefits notwithstanding the provisions of section 176.132, after four years have elapsed since the date of last significant exposure to the hazard of the occupational disease if that employee's weekly compensation rate is less than (65 PERCENT OF THE STATEWIDE AVERAGE WEEKLY WAGE) the current supplementary benefit rate.

Sec. 49. Minnesota Statutes 1983 Supplement, section 176.85, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [APPEAL PROCEDURE.] If the commissioner has assessed a penalty against a party subject to this chapter and the party believes the penalty is not warranted, the party may request that a formal hearing be held on the matter. The request must be filed within 30 days of the date that the penalty assessment is served on the party. Upon receipt of a timely request for a hearing the commissioner shall refer the matter to the chief hearing examiner for assignment to a compensation judge or hearing examiner.

The chief hearing examiner shall keep a record of the proceeding and provide a record pursuant to section 176.421.

The decision of the compensation judge or hearing examiner shall be final and shall be binding and enforceable. The decision may be appealed to the workers' compensation court of appeals.

Sec. 50. [ADMINISTRATIVE CONFERENCE SCHEDULING.]

Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in section 176.242, subdivision 2, clause (a), an administrative conference pursu- ant to section 176.242 shall be scheduled within ten business days after the commissioner receives timely notice of the employee's request for a conference. This section applies to a conference which is requested on or after the effective date of this section and before November 1, 1984, after which time the provisions of section 176.242, subdivision 2, clause (a), apply.

Sec. 51. [STUDY.]

Sec. 52. [REPEALER.]

Minnesota Statutes 1982, sections 79.22, subdivision 2; and Minnesota Statutes 1983 Supplement, sections 147.02, subdivision 4; 176.129, subdivision 5, are repealed.

Sec. 53. [APPLICATION OF LAWS 1983, CHAPTER 290, SECTIONS 84, 106, AND 107.]

Laws 1983, chapter 290, sections 84, 106, and 107 apply to proceedings conducted after September 30, 1983, whether or not the injury occurred prior to that date.

Sec. 54. [EFFECTIVE DATE.]

*The amendments in sections 1 to 12, 14, 17, 18, and 48 are not substantive in nature and are clarifications of legislative intent of Laws 1983, chapter 290, and apply to an injury occurring after December 31, 1983. The amendments in sections 25, 32 to 37, 40, 41, 45, and 46 are procedural in nature and are clarifications of Laws 1983, chapter 290, and apply to proceedings conducted after June 31, 1983, whether or not the injury occurred prior to that date. Failure to cite a specific section in this act as non-substantive or procedural shall not be construed by itself to mean that the section is a substantive change in the law. Section 24 applies to an injury for which a claim is pending or a claim made after the effective date of this act regardless of the date of injury. In the case of property owned by more than one person, the maximum amount of the reduction shall apply to the total of all the owners. For purposes of computing the credit pursuant to this subdivision, the "tax levy" shall be the tax levy reduced by the credits provided by sections 273.115, 273.116, 273.123, 273.42, subdivision 2, and 473H.10.

Sec. 2. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 273.1104, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. On or before October 1 in each year, the commissioner shall send to each person subject to the tax on unmined iron ores and to each taxing district affected, a notice of the assessed valuation of the unmined ores as determined by the commissioner. Said notice shall be sent by mail directed to such person at the address given in the report filed by him and the assessor of such taxing district, but the validity of the tax shall not be affected by the failure of the commissioner of revenue to mail such notice or the failure of the person subject to the tax to receive it.

On the first secular day following the tenth day of October, the commissioner of revenue shall hold a hearing (AT HIS OFFICE IN ST. PAUL) which may be adjourned from day to day. All relevant and material evidence having probative value with respect to the issues shall be submitted at the hearing and such hearing shall not be a "contested case" within the meaning of section 14.02, subdivision 3. Every person subject to such tax may at such hearing present evidence and argument on any matter bearing upon the validity or correctness of the tax determined to be due from him, and the commissioner of revenue shall review his determination of such tax.

Sec. 3. Minnesota Statutes 1983 Supplement, section 273.13, subdivision 7, is amended to read:

Subd. 7. [CLASS 3C, 3CC.] All other real estate and class 2a property, except as provided by classes 1 and 3cc, which is used for the purposes of a homestead, shall constitute class 3c, and shall be valued and assessed as follows: the first $30,000 of market value shall be valued and assessed at 17 percent; the next $30,000 of market value shall be valued and assessed at 19 percent; and the remaining market value shall be valued and assessed at 30 percent. The maximum amounts of the market value of the homestead brackets subject to the 17 percent and 19 percent rates shall be adjusted by the commissioner of revenue as provided in section 273.1311. The property tax to be paid on class 3c property as otherwise determined by law, less any reduction received pursuant to sections 273.123, 273.135, and 473H.10 shall be reduced by 54 percent of the tax imposed on the first $67,000 of market value; provided that the amount of the reduction shall not exceed $650. The first $12,000 market value of each tract of such real estate used for the purposes of a homestead shall be exempt from taxation for state purposes; except as specifically provided otherwise by law.

Class 3cc property shall include real estate or manufactured homes used for the purposes of a homestead by (a) any blind person, if the blind person is the owner thereof or if the blind person and his or her spouse are the sole owners thereof; or (b) any person (hereinafter referred to as veteran) who: (1) served in the active military or naval service of the United States and (2) is entitled to compensation under the laws and regulations of the United States for permanent and total service-connected disability due to the loss, or loss of use, by reason of amputation, ankylosis, progressive muscular dystrophies, or paralysis, of both lower extremities, such as to preclude motion without the aid of braces, crutches, canes, or a wheelchair, and (3) with assistance by the administration of veterans affairs has acquired a special housing unit with special fixtures or movable facilities made necessary by the nature of the veteran's disability, or the surviving spouse of the deceased veteran for as long as the surviving spouse retains the special housing unit as his or her homestead; or (c) any person who: (1) is permanently and totally disabled and (2) receives 90 percent or more of his total income from (i) aid from any state as a result of that disability, or (ii) supplemental security income for the disabled, or (iii) workers' compensation based on a finding of total and permanent disability, or (iv) social security disability, including the amount of a disability insurance benefit which is converted to an old age insurance benefit and any subsequent cost of living increases, or (v) aid under the Federal Railroad Retirement Act of 1937, 45 United States Code Annotated, Section 228b(a)5, or (vi) a pension from any local government retirement fund located in the state of Minnesota as a result of that disability. Property shall be classified and assessed (AS CLASS 3CC) pursuant to clause (a) only if the commissioner of (REVENUE) welfare certifies to the assessor that the owner of the property satisfies the requirements of this subdivision. The commissioner of welfare shall provide a copy of the certification to the commissioner of revenue. Class 3cc property shall be valued and assessed as follows: in the case of agricultural land, including a manufactured home, used for a homestead, the first $30,000 of market value shall be valued and assessed at five percent, the next $30,000 of market value shall be valued and assessed at 14 percent, and the remaining market value shall be valued and assessed at 19 percent; and in the case of all other real estate and manufactured homes, the first $30,000 of market value shall be valued and assessed at five percent, the next $30,000 of market value shall be valued and assessed at 19 percent, and the remaining market value shall be valued and assessed at 30 percent. In the case of agricultural land including a manufactured home used for purposes of a homestead, the commissioner of revenue shall adjust, as provided in section 273.1311, the maximum amount of the market value of the homestead brackets subject to the five percent and 14 percent rates; and for all other real estate and manufactured homes, the commissioner of revenue shall adjust, as provided in section 273.1311, the maximum amount of the market value of the homestead brackets subject to the five percent and 19 percent rates. Permanently and totally disabled for the purpose of this subdivision means a condition which is permanent in nature and totally incapacitates the person from working at an occupation which brings him an income. The property tax to be paid on class 3cc property as otherwise determined by law, less any reduction received pursuant to section 273.135 shall be reduced by 54 percent of the tax imposed on the first $67,000 of market value; provided that the amount of the reduction shall not exceed $650.

For purposes of this subdivision, homestead property which qualifies for the classification ratios and credits provided in this subdivision shall include property which is used for purposes of the homestead but is separated from the homestead by a road, street, lot, waterway, or other similar intervening property. The term "used for purposes of the homestead" shall include but not be limited to uses for gardens, garages, or other outbuildings commonly associated with a homestead, but shall not include vacant land held primarily for future development. In order to receive homestead treatment for the noncontiguous property, the owner shall apply for it to the assessor by July 1 of 1983 or the year when the treatment is initially sought. After initial qualification for the homestead treatment, additional applications for subsequent years are not required.

Sec. 4. Minnesota Statutes 1983 Supplement, section 273.1311, is amended to read:

273.1311 [FLEXIBLE HOMESTEAD BRACKETS.]

The maximum amount of the market value of the homestead brackets shall be adjusted as provided in this section.

For taxes payable in 1985 and subsequent years, the commissioner shall adjust the brackets used in the preceding assessment by the estimated percentage increase in the statewide average assessors' estimated market value, as equalized by the state board of equalization, of a residential home for the current assessment over the previous assessment. The revised bracket shall be rounded to the nearest $500. The commissioner of revenue shall determine and announce the revised bracket on (OCTOBER 1) December 15 of each year preceding the assessment date.

Sec. 5. Minnesota Statutes 1983 Supplement, section 273.1315, is amended to read:

273.1315 [CERTIFICATION OF 3CC PROPERTY.]

Any property owner seeking classification and assessment of his homestead as class 3cc property pursuant to section 273.13, subdivision 7, clause (b) or (c), shall file with the commissioner of revenue for each assessment year a 3cc homestead declaration, on a form prescribed by the commissioner. The declaration shall contain the following information:

(a) the information necessary to verify that the property owner or his spouse satisfies the requirements of section 273.13, subdivision 7, for 3cc classification;

(b) the property owner's household income, as defined in section 290A.03, for the previous calendar year; and

(c) any additional information prescribed by the commissioner.

The declaration and any supplementary information received from the property owner pursuant to this section shall be subject to section 290A.17.

The commissioner shall provide to the assessor on or before April 1 a listing of the parcels of property qualifying for 3cc classification.

Sec. 6. Minnesota Statutes 1983 Supplement, section 275.50, subdivision 5, is amended to read:

Subd. 5. Notwithstanding any other law to the contrary for taxes levied in 1983 payable in 1984 and subsequent years, "special levies" means those portions of ad valorem taxes levied by governmental subdivisions to:

(a) satisfy judgments rendered against the governmental subdivision by a court of competent jurisdiction in any tort action, or to pay the costs of settlements out of court against the governmental subdivision in a tort action when substantiated by a stipulation for the dismissal of the action filed with the court of competent jurisdiction and signed by both the plaintiff and the legal representative of the governmental subdivision, but only to the extent of the increase in levy for such judgments and out of court settlements over levy year 1970, taxes payable in 1971;

(b) pay the costs of complying with any written lawful order initially issued prior to January 1, 1977 by the state of Minnesota, or the United States, or any agency or subdivision thereof, which is authorized by law, statute, special act or ordinance and is enforceable in a court of competent jurisdiction, or any stipulation agreement or permit for treatment works or disposal system for pollution abatement in lieu of a lawful order signed by the governmental subdivision and the state of Minnesota, or the United States, or any agency or subdivision thereof which is enforceable in a court of competent jurisdiction. The commissioner of revenue shall in consultation with other state departments and agencies, develop a suggested form for use by the state of Minnesota, its agencies and subdivisions in issuing orders pursuant to this subdivision;

(c) pay the costs to a governmental subdivision for their minimum required share of any program otherwise authorized by law for which matching funds have been appropriated by the state of Minnesota or the United States, excluding the administrative costs of public assistance programs, to the extent of the increase in levy over the amount levied for the local share of the program for the taxes payable year 1971. This clause shall apply only to those programs or projects for which matching funds have been designated by the state of Minnesota or the United States on or before September 1, of the previous year and only when the receipt of these matching funds is contingent upon the initiation or implementation of the project or program during the year in which the taxes are payable or those programs or projects approved by the commissioner;

(d) pay the costs not reimbursed by the state or federal government, of payments made to or on behalf of recipients of aid under any public assistance program authorized by law, and the costs of purchase or delivery of social services. Except for the costs of general assistance as defined in section 256D.02, subdivision 4, general assistance medical care under section 256D.03 and the costs of hospital care pursuant to section 261.21, the aggregate amounts levied pursuant to this clause are subject to a maximum increase of 18 percent over the amount levied for these purposes in the previous year;

(e) pay the costs of principal and interest on bonded indebtedness or to reimburse for the amount of liquor store revenues used to pay the principal and interest due in the year preceding the year for which the levy limit is calculated on municipal liquor store bonds;

(f) pay the costs of principal and interest on certificates of indebtedness, except tax anticipation or aid anticipation certificates of indebtedness, issued for any corporate purpose except current expenses or funding an insufficiency in receipts from taxes or other sources or funding extraordinary expenditures resulting from a public emergency; and to pay the cost for certificates of indebtedness issued pursuant to sections 298.28 and 298.282;

(g) fund the payments made to the Minnesota state armory building commission pursuant to section 193.145, subdivision 2, to retire the principal and interest on armory construction bonds;

(h) provide for the bonded indebtedness portion of payments made to another political subdivision of the state of Minnesota;

(i) pay the amounts required to compensate for a decrease in manufactured homes property tax receipts to the extent that the governmental subdivision's portion of the total levy in the current levy year, pursuant to section 273.13, subdivision 3, as amended, is less than the distribution of the manufactured homes tax to the governmental subdivision pursuant to section 273.13, subdivision 3, in calendar year 1971;

(j) pay the amounts required, in accordance with section 275.075, to correct for a county auditor's error of omission but only to the extent that when added to the preceding year's levy it is not in excess of an applicable statutory, special law or charter limitation, or the limitation imposed on the governmental subdivision by sections 275.50 to 275.56 in the preceding levy year;

(k) pay amounts required to correct for an error of omission in the levy certified to the appropriate county auditor or auditors by the governing body of a city or town with statutory city powers in a levy year, but only to the extent that when added to the preceding year's levy it is not in excess of an applicable statutory, special law or charter limitation, or the limitation imposed on the governmental subdivision by sections 275.50 to 275.56 in the preceding levy year;

(l) pay the increased cost of municipal services as the result of an annexation or consolidation ordered by the Minnesota municipal board but only to the extent and for the levy years as provided by the board in its order pursuant to section 414.01, subdivision 15. Special levies authorized by the board shall not exceed 50 percent of the levy limit base of the governmental subdivision and may not be in effect for more than three years after the board's order;

(m) pay the increased costs of municipal services provided to new private industrial and nonresidential commercial development, to the extent that the extension of such services are not paid for through bonded indebtedness or special assessments, and not to exceed the amount determined as follows. The governmental subdivision may calculate the aggregate of:

(1) The increased expenditures necessary in preparation for the delivering of municipal services to new private industrial and nonresidential commercial development, but limited to one year's expenditures one time for each such development;

(2) The amount determined by dividing the overall levy limitation established pursuant to sections 275.50 to 275.56, and exclusive of special levies and special assessments, by the total taxable value of the governmental subdivision, and then multiplying this quotient times the total increase in assessed value of private industrial and nonresidential commercial development within the governmental subdivision. For the purpose of this clause, the increase in the assessed value of private industrial and nonresidential commercial development is calculated as the increase in assessed value over the assessed value of the real estate parcels subject to such private development as most recently determined before the building permit was issued. In the fourth levy year subsequent to the levy year in which the building permit was issued, the increase in assessed value of the real estate parcels subject to such private development shall no longer be included in determining the special levy.

The aggregate of the foregoing amounts, less any costs of extending municipal services to new private industrial and nonresidential commercial development which are paid by bonded indebtedness or special assessments, equals the maximum amount that may be levied as a "special levy" for the increased costs of municipal services provided to new private industrial and nonresidential commercial development. In the levy year following the levy year in which the special levy made pursuant to this clause is discontinued, one-half of the amount of that special levy made in the preceding year shall be added to the permanent levy base of the governmental subdivision;

(n) recover a loss or refunds in tax receipts incurred in non-special levy funds resulting from abatements or court action in the previous year pursuant to section 275.48;

(o) pay amounts required by law to be paid to pay the interest on and to reduce the unfunded accrued liability of public pension funds in accordance with the actuarial standards and guidelines specified in sections 356.215 and 356.216 reduced by 106 percent of the amount levied for that purpose in 1976, payable in 1977. For the purpose of this special levy, the estimated receipts expected from the state of Minnesota pursuant to sections 69.011 to 69.031 or any other state aid expressly intended for the support of public pension funds shall be considered as a deduction in determining the required levy for the normal costs of the public pension funds. No amount of these aids shall be considered as a deduction in determining the governmental subdivision's required levy for the reduction of the unfunded accrued liability of public pension funds;

(p) the amounts allowed under section 174.27 to establish and administer a commuter van program;

(q) pay the costs of financial assistance to local governmental units and certain administrative, engineering, and legal expenses pursuant to Laws 1979, chapter 253, section 3;

(r) compensate for revenue lost as a result of abatements or court action pursuant to sections 270.07, 270.17 or 278.01 due to a reassessment ordered by the commissioner of revenue pursuant to section 270.16;

(s) pay the total operating cost of a county jail as authorized in section 641.01. If the county government utilizes this special levy, then any amount levied by the county government in the previous year for operating its county jail and included in its previous year's levy limitation computed pursuant to section 275.51 shall be deducted from the current levy limitation;

(t) pay the cost of implementing section 18.023, including sanitation and reforestation; and

(u) pay the estimated cost for the following calendar year of the county's share of funding the Minnesota cooperative soil survey.

Sec. 7. Minnesota Statutes 1983 Supplement, section 275.51, subdivision 3i, is amended to read:

Subd. 3i. [LEVY LIMITATION.] The levy limitation for a governmental subdivision shall be equal to the adjusted levy limit base determined pursuant to subdivision 3h, reduced by (a) the total amount of local government aid that the governmental subdivision has been certified to receive pursuant to sections 477A.011 to 477A.014; (b) taconite (TAXES AND) aids pursuant to sections 298.28 and 298.282 including any aid received in the levy year which was required to be placed in a special fund for expenditure in the next succeeding year; (c) state reimbursements for wetlands and native prairie property tax exemptions pursuant to sections 273.115, subdivision 3 and 273.116, subdivision 3; and (d) payments in lieu of taxes to a county pursuant to section 477A.12 which are required to be used to provide property tax levy reduction certified to be paid in the calendar year in which property taxes are payable. If the sum of the taconite aids deducted exceeds the adjusted levy limit base, the excess must be used to reduce the amounts levied as special levies pursuant to section 275.50, subdivisions 5 and 7. The commissioner of revenue shall notify a governmental subdivision of any excess taconite aids to be used to reduce special levies.

As provided in section 298.28, subdivision 1, one cent per taxable ton of the amount distributed under section 298.28, subdivision 1, clause (4)(c) shall not be deducted from the levy limit base of the counties that receive that aid. The resulting figure is the amount of property taxes which a governmental subdivision may levy for all purposes other than those for which special levies and special assessments are made.

Sec. 8. Minnesota Statutes 1983 Supplement, section 276.04, is amended to read:

276.04 [NOTICE OF RATES; PROPERTY TAX STATEMENTS.]

On receiving the tax lists from the county auditor, the county treasurer shall, if directed by the county board, give three weeks' published notice in a newspaper specifying the rates of taxation for all general purposes and the amounts raised for each specific purpose. He shall, whether or not directed by the county board, cause to be printed on all tax statements, or on an attachment, a tabulated statement of the dollar amount due to each taxing authority and the amount to be paid to the state of Minnesota from the parcel of real property for which a particular tax statement is prepared. The dollar amounts due the state, county, township or municipality and school district shall be separately stated but the amounts due other taxing districts, if any, may be aggregated. The dollar amounts, including the dollar amount of any special assessments, may be rounded to the nearest even whole dollar. For purposes of this section whole odd-numbered dollars may be adjusted to the next higher even-numbered dollar. The property tax statements for class 2a property shall contain the same information that is required on the tax statements for real property. The county treasurer shall mail to taxpayers statements of their personal property taxes due, such statements to be mailed not later than February 15 (except in the case of Class 2a property), statements of the real property taxes due shall be mailed not later than January 31; provided, that the validity of the tax shall not be affected by failure of the treasurer to mail such statement. The taxpayer is defined as the owner who is responsible for the payment of the tax. Such real and personal property tax statements shall contain the market value, as defined in section 272.03, subdivision 8, used in determining the tax. The statement shall show the amount attributable to section 124.2137 as "state paid agricultural credit" and the amount attributable to section 273.13, subdivisions 6 and 7 as "state paid homestead credit." The statement shall show the reduction attributable to the aid given pursuant to section 273.139 and shall indicate that the reduction is paid by the state of Minnesota. If so directed by the county board, the treasurer shall visit places in the county as he deems expedient for the purpose of receiving taxes and the county board is authorized to pay the expenses of such visits and of preparing duplicate tax lists. Failure to mail the tax statement shall not be deemed a material defect to affect the validity of any judgment and sale for delinquent taxes.

Sec. 9. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 277.03, is amended to read:

277.03 [DISTRESS AND SALE.]

Upon the (TWENTIETH) tenth secular day (OF JULY) next after the filing of such list the clerk of the district court shall issue his warrants to the sheriff of the county as to all the taxes and penalties embraced in the list, except those as to which a petition has been filed, pursuant to section 277.011, directing him to proceed to collect the same. If such taxes are not paid upon demand, the sheriff shall distrain sufficient goods and chattels belonging to the person charged with such taxes, if found within the county, to pay the same, with the said penalty of eight percent and all accruing costs, together with 25 cents from each delinquent, as compensation to the clerk of the district court. Immediately after making distress, the sheriff shall give at least ten days' posted notice in the town or district where the property is taken, stating that the property, or so much thereof as will be sufficient to pay the taxes for which it is distrained, with penalty and costs of distress and sale, will be sold at public vendue at a place and time therein designated, which time shall not be less than ten days after such taking. If such taxes and penalties and accrued costs are not paid before the day designated, the sheriff or his deputy shall proceed to sell the property pursuant to the notice.

Sec. 10. [297.40] [EVASIONS; VIOLATIONS.]

Subdivision 1. [ASSESSMENT, GENERALLY.] Except as otherwise provided in this chapter, the amount of any tax due shall be assessed within 3-1/2 years after a return is filed. The taxes are deemed to have been assessed within the meaning of this section whenever the commissioner of revenue has determined the tax and computed and recorded the amount of tax with respect thereto, and if the amount is found to be in excess of that originally declared on the return, whenever the commissioner has prepared a notice of tax assessment and mailed it to the taxpayer. The notice of tax assessment shall be sent by mail to the post office address given in the return and the record of the mailing shall be presumptive evidence of the giving of such notice, and such records shall be preserved by the commissioner.

Subd. 2. [COMPUTATION OF TIME.] For the purposes of this section, a return filed before the last day prescribed by law for the filing thereof shall be considered as filed on the last day.

Subd. 3. [FALSE OR FRAUDULENT RETURN AND NO RETURN.] When a company, joint stock association, copartnership, corporation, or individual required to file a return under this chapter files a false or fraudulent return or fails to file a return, the tax may be assessed, and the attorney general may begin proceedings at any time.

Subd. 4. [CONSENT TO EXTEND TIME.] Where before the expiration of the time prescribed in subdivision 1 for the assessment of the tax, the commissioner of revenue and the company, joint stock association, copartnership, corporation, or individual filing the return consent in writing to an extension of time for the assessment of the tax, the tax may be assessed at any time prior to the expiration of the period agreed upon. The period so agreed upon may be extended by subsequent agreements in writing made before the expiration of the period previously agreed upon.

Subd. 5. [OMISSION IN EXCESS OF 25 PERCENT.] If the taxpayer omits an amount properly includable therein which is in excess of 25 percent of the amount of tax stated in the return, the tax may be assessed, or a proceeding in court for the collection of such tax, may be begun at any time within six years after the return was filed.

Sec. 11. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 298.09, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. On the first secular day following the fourteenth day of May, the commissioner of revenue shall hold a hearing (AT HIS OFFICE IN ST. PAUL) which may be adjourned from day to day. All relevant and material evidence having probative value with respect to the issues shall be submitted at the hearing and such hearing shall not be a "contested case" within the meaning of section 14.02, subdivision 3. Every person subject to such tax may at such hearing present evidence and argument on any matter bearing upon the validity or correctness of the tax determined to be due from him, and the commissioner of revenue shall review his determination of such tax.

Sec. 12. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 298.27, is amended to read:

298.27 [COLLECTION AND PAYMENT OF TAX.]

The taxes provided by section 298.24 shall be collected and paid in the same manner as provided by law for the payment of the occupation tax, except that the report required by section 298.05 shall be filed on or before February 15 together with a remittance equal to 90 percent of the (ESTIMATED) tax required to be paid hereunder on or before April 15. On or before February 25, the commissioner of revenue shall make distribution of (SUCH ESTIMATED) the payment in the manner provided by section 298.28. The commissioner of revenue shall determine the amount of tax due on or before March 15. The (TAX FOUND TO BE) balance due shall be paid on or before April 15 following the production year. Reports shall be made and hearings held upon the determination of the tax in accordance with procedures established by the commissioner of revenue. The commissioner of revenue shall have authority to make reasonable regulations as to the form and manner of filing reports necessary for the determination of the tax hereunder, and by such regulations may require the production of such information as may be reasonably necessary or convenient for the determination and apportionment of the tax. All the provisions of the occupation tax law with reference to the assessment, determination, and collection of the occupation tax, including all provisions for appeals from or review of the orders of the commissioner of revenue relative thereto, are hereby made applicable to the taxes imposed by section 298.24 except in so far as inconsistent herewith. If any person subject to section 298.24 shall fail to make the report provided for in this section at the time and in the manner herein provided, the commissioner of revenue shall in such case, upon such information as he may possess or obtain, ascertain the kind and amount of ore mined or produced and thereon find and determine the amount of the tax due from such person. There shall be added to the amount of tax due a penalty for failure to report on or before February 15, which penalty shall equal ten percent of the tax imposed and be treated as a part thereof.

If any person (REQUIRED TO MAKE AN ESTIMATED) responsible for making a partial tax payment at the time and in the manner herein provided (, AND) fails to do so, there shall be imposed a penalty equal to ten percent of the amount so due, which penalty shall be treated as part of the tax due.

In the case of any underpayment of the (ESTIMATED) partial tax payment required herein, there may be added and be treated as part of the tax due a penalty equal to ten percent of the amount so underpaid.

If any portion of the taxes provided for in section 298.24 is not paid before the fifteenth day of April of the year in which due and payable, a penalty of ten percent of such unpaid portion shall immediately accrue, and thereafter one percent per month shall be added to such tax and penalty while such tax remains unpaid.

Sec. 13. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 298.282, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. If the amount certified by the commissioner of revenue as distributable to any qualifying municipality is greater than the amount previously estimated to have been distributable to such qualifying municipality in such year, the excess distributed to such municipality shall be held in a separate fund by the qualifying municipality and shall not be expended until the succeeding calendar year (AND SHALL BE DEDUCTED, FIRST, FROM THE PERMISSIBLE GENERAL LEVY AND THEN PROPORTIONATELY FROM PERMISSIBLE EXCESS LEVIES OF THE QUALIFYING MUNICIPALITY IN THE SUCCEEDING CALENDAR YEAR). If the amount distributable to any qualifying municipality, after final determination by the commissioner of revenue is less than the amount estimated to have been distributable to such qualifying municipality, such municipality may issue certificates of indebtedness in the amount of the shortage and may include in its next tax levy in excess of (THEN EXISTING LEVY LIMITATIONS) the limitations under sections 275.50 to 275.56, an amount sufficient to pay such certificates of indebtedness and interest thereon or, if no certificates were issued, an amount equal to such shortage.

Sec. 14. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 340.601, is amended to read:

340.601 [IMPORT; TAX EVASION, MISDEMEANOR.]

have in his possession (ONE GALLON (128 OUNCES)) four liters of intoxicating liquor or ten quarts (320 ounces) of fermented malt beverages without the required payment of the Minnesota excise tax. Any collector of commemorative bottles as defined in section 340.44, clauses (6) and (7), excluding persons of minor age and other disqualified persons as provided by sections 340.73 and 340.78, who enters the state of Minnesota from another state may have in his personal possession 12 or fewer commemorative bottles without the required payment of the Minnesota excise tax. Any person who shall import or have in his possession any such untaxed intoxicating liquor or fermented malt beverages in excess of the quantities provided for in this section is guilty of a misdemeanor. The foregoing provisions do not apply to the consignments of alcoholic beverages shipped into this state by holders of Minnesota import licenses or Minnesota manufacturers and wholesalers of such beverages when duly licensed by the commissioner or to common carriers with licenses to sell intoxicating liquor in more than one state. Any peace officer, the commissioner, or his authorized agents, may seize such untaxed liquor.

Sec. 15. [340.987]

Subdivision 1. [COMMISSIONER TO EXAMINE AND CORRECT RETURN; COLLECTION OF DEFICIENCY.] As soon as practicable after any return is filed as directed by this chapter, the commissioner shall examine the return and correct it, if necessary, according to his best judgment and information. The return, together with the commissioner's corrections, if any, shall be prima facie correct and shall be prima facie evidence of the correctness of the amount of tax due, as shown therein. If the commissioner finds that any amount of tax is due and unpaid, he shall notify the taxpayer of the deficiency, stating that he proposes to assess the amount due together with interest and penalties as hereinafter provided. If a deficiency disclosed by the commissioner's examination cannot be allocated by him to a particular month or months, he shall notify the taxpayer of the deficiency, assessing the amount due for a given period without allocating it to any particular month or months, together with the penalty provided in the case of other corrected returns. If any taxpayer making any return shall die or shall become incompetent at any time before the commissioner issues his notice that he proposes to assess an amount due, that notice shall be issued to the administrator, executor, or other legal representative, as such, of that distributor.

Subd. 2. [MONTHLY TAX PAYMENTS; PENALTY FOR NONPAYMENT.] All taxes shall be due and payable as directed in this chapter, and taxes not paid shall bear interest at the rate specified in section 270.75. The commissioner in issuing his final assessment shall add to the amount of tax found due and unpaid a penalty of ten percent thereof, except that, if he finds that the taxpayer has made a false and fraudulent return with intent to evade the tax imposed by this chapter, the penalty shall be 25 percent of the entire tax as shown by the corrected return. If the tax is not paid within the time herein specified for the payment thereof or within 30 days after final determination of an appeal to the Minnesota tax court relating thereto, there shall be added thereto a specific penalty equal to ten percent of the amount so remaining unpaid, but in no event shall the penalty for failure to pay the tax within the time provided for payment be less than $10. The commissioner is authorized to extend the time for paying the tax without penalty for good cause shown.

Subd. 3. [RECOVERY BY COMMISSIONER.] The commissioner may recover the amount of any tax due and unpaid, interest, and any penalty in a civil action. The collection of a tax, interest, or penalty shall not be a bar to any prosecution under this chapter.

Subd. 4. [PENALTY; MAXIMUM; MINIMUM; EXTENSION.] If any return required to be filed under the provisions of this section is not filed within the time herein specified, a penalty of five percent of the unpaid tax remaining each month up to a maximum of 25 percent is imposed, but in no event shall the penalty for failing to timely file a return be less than $10. The commissioner of revenue is authorized to extend the time for filing a return without penalty for good cause shown.

Sec. 16. [340.988] [EVASIONS; VIOLATIONS.]

Subdivision 1. [ASSESSMENT, GENERALLY.] Except as otherwise provided in this chapter, the amount of any tax due shall be assessed within 3-1/2 years after the return is filed. The taxes are deemed to have been assessed within the meaning of this section whenever the commissioner of revenue has determined the tax and computed and recorded the amount of tax with respect thereto, and if the amount is found to be in excess of that originally declared on the return, whenever the commissioner has prepared a notice of tax assessment and mailed it to the taxpayer. The notice of tax assessment shall be sent by mail to the post office address given in the return and the record of mailing shall be presumptive evidence of the giving of notice, and such records shall be preserved by the commissioner.

Subd. 2. [COMPUTATION OF TIME.] For the purposes of this section, a return filed before the last day prescribed by law for the filing thereof is considered as filed on the last day.

Subd. 3. [FALSE OR FRAUDULENT RETURN AND NO RETURN.] When a company, joint stock association, copartnership, corporation, or individual required to file a return under this chapter files a false or fraudulent return or fails to file a return, the tax may be assessed, and the attorney general may begin proceedings at any time.

Subd. 4. [CONSENT TO EXTEND TIME.] Where, before the expiration of the time prescribed in subdivision 1 for the assessment of the tax, the commissioner of revenue and the company, joint stock association, copartnership, corporation, or individual filing the return consent in writing to an extension of time for the assessment of the tax, the tax may be assessed at any time prior to the expiration of the period agreed upon. The period so agreed upon may be extended by subsequent agreements in writing made before the expiration of the period previously agreed upon.

Subd. 5. [OMISSION IN EXCESS OF 25 PERCENT.] If the taxpayer omits an amount properly includable therein which is in excess of 25 percent of the amount of tax stated in the return, the tax may be assessed, or a proceeding in court for the collection of such tax may be begun at any time within six years after the return was filed.

Sec. 17. [385.42] [IMPOSITION OF PENALTY.]

If authorized by a resolution of the county board, the county treasurer shall impose a charge for all dishonored checks. The amount of the charge shall be established by the county board, not to exceed $15.

Sec. 18. [REPEALER.]

Minnesota Statutes 1982, sections 298.045, 298.046, 298.047, and 298.048, are repealed.

Sec. 19. [EFFECTIVE DATES.]

Sections 1, 4, and 8, are effective for taxes levied in 1984 and thereafter, payable in 1985 and thereafter. Sections 2, 3, 5 to 7, 9 to 11, and 14 to 18, are effective the day following final enactment. Sections 12 and 13 are effective for taxes payable in 1985 and thereafter."

program (IF THE CHILD HAD BEEN BORN AND LIVING WITH THE WOMAN), the Minnesota supplemental aid program; or

(5) Who meets the categorical eligibility requirements of the supplemental security income program and the other eligibility requirements of this section; or

((5)) (6) Who, except for the amount of income or resources, would qualify for supplemental security income for the aged, blind and disabled, or aid to families with dependent children, and (IS IN NEED OF MEDICAL ASSISTANCE) who meets the other eligibility requirements of this section; or

((7)) (8) Who is residing in a hospital for treatment of mental disease or tuberculosis and is 65 years of age or older and without means sufficient to pay the per capita hospital charge; and

((8)) (9) Who resides in Minnesota, or, if absent from the state, is deemed to be a resident of Minnesota in accordance with the regulations of the state agency; and

((9)) (10) Who alone, or together with his spouse, does not own real property other than the homestead. For the purposes of this section, "homestead" means the house owned and occupied by the applicant or recipient as his (DWELLING PLACE) primary place of residence, together with the contiguous land upon which it is situated (AND AN AREA NO GREATER THAN TWO CONTIGUOUS LOTS IN A PLATTED OR LAID OUT CITY OR TOWN OR 80 CONTIGUOUS ACRES IN UNPLATTED LAND. Certification of expected return to the homestead shall be documented in writing by the attending physician. Real estate not used as a home may not be retained unless it produces net income applicable to the family's needs or the family is making a continuing effort to sell it at a fair and reasonable price (OR UNLESS SALE OF THE REAL ESTATE WOULD NET AN INSIGNIFICANT AMOUNT OF INCOME APPLICABLE TO THE FAMILY'S NEEDS,) or unless the commissioner determines that sale of the real estate would cause undue hardship; and ((10)) (11) Who individually does not own more than $3,000 in cash or liquid assets, or if a member of a household with two family members (husband and wife, or parent and child), does not own more than $6,000 in cash or liquid assets, plus $200 for each additional legal dependent. In computing income to determine eligibility of persons who are not residents of long term care facilities, the commissioner shall disregard increases in income due solely to increases in federal retiree, survivor's, and disability insurance benefits, veterans administration benefits, and railroad retirement benefits in the percentage amount established in the biennial appropriations law unless prohibited by federal law or regulation. If prohibited, the commissioner shall first seek a waiver. In excess income cases, eligibility shall be limited to a period of six months beginning with the first of the month in which these medical obligations are first incurred; and

((12)) (13) Who has continuing monthly expenses for medical care that are more than the amount of his excess income, computed on a monthly basis, in which case eligibility may be established before the total income obligation referred to in the preceding paragraph is incurred, and medical assistance payments may be made to cover the monthly unmet medical

In licensed nursing home and state hospital cases, income over and above that required for justified needs, determined pursuant to a schedule of contributions established by the commissioner of public welfare, is to be applied to the cost of institutional care. The commissioner of public welfare may establish a schedule of contributions to be made by the spouse of a nursing home resident to the cost of care (AND SHALL SEEK A WAIVER FROM FEDERAL REGULATIONS WHICH ESTABLISH THE AMOUNT REQUIRED TO BE CONTRIBUTED BY EITHER SPOUSE WHEN ONE SPOUSE IS A NURSING HOME RESIDENT); and

Subd. 2. [PRESUMPTION OF PURPOSE.] Any transaction described in subdivision 1 shall be presumed to have been for the purpose of establishing eligibility for benefits or assistance under this chapter unless the individual or eligible spouse furnishes convincing evidence to establish that the transaction was exclusively for another purpose.

Subd. 3. [RESOURCE VALUE.] For purposes of subdivision 1, the value of the resource or interest shall be the fair market value at the time it was given away, sold, or (GIVEN AWAY) disposed of, less the amount of compensation received.

Subd. 4. [PERIOD OF INELIGIBILITY.] For any uncompensated transfer, the period of ineligibility shall be cal-

(3) a satisfactory showing is made that the individual intended to dispose of the (HOME) homestead at fair market value or for other valuable consideration; or

(4) the local agency determines that denial of eligibility would cause undue hardship for the individual, based on imminent threat to the individual's health and well-being.

Subd. (6) 7. [EXCEPTION FOR ASSET TRANSFERS.] Notwithstanding the provisions of subdivisions 1 to (5) 6, an institutionalized spouse who applies for medical assistance on or after July 1, 1983, may transfer liquid assets to his or her non-institutionalized spouse without loss of eligibility if all of the following conditions apply:

Valan moved that House Resolution No. 16 be now adopted.

HOUSE RESOLUTION NO. 16

A house resolution commemorating the servicemen from Minnesota serving in the United States Marine Corps who served in Lebanon and died there as peacekeepers.

Whereas, the history of Lebanon is that of centuries of warfare and group hatred; and

Whereas, recent history has included the mass slaughter of thousands of defenseless people; and

Whereas, negotiations between some of the parties involved in Lebanon resulted in a fragile temporary agreement to end the bloodshed and stabilize the country and that gave the hope of a durable peace between all the parties in Lebanon; and

Whereas, to implement the agreement, troops of four countries, including a contingent of United States Marines, were sent to Lebanon; and

Whereas, the Marines were there not to seize territory but to protect others' territory, not to cause enslavement but to ensure freedom, not to cause terror but to end terror, and not to make war but to bring peace; and

Whereas, on October 23, 1983, 28 Marines from Minnesota were serving in Lebanon when a bomb-laden truck crashed into and exploded in a building used as a barracks and resulted in the death of 241 Marines including four from Minnesota; and

Whereas, the motives of persons who would kill those involved in this selfless mission is beyond the comprehension of all Minnesotans; and

Whereas, it is necessary for all Minnesotans to express their grief at the loss of their sons and to morally support the families of the men who died; Now, Therefore,

Be it resolved by the House of Representatives of the State of Minnesota that it commends to all Minnesotans the selfless service of all the Minnesotans who served in Lebanon but in particular:

Lance Corporal Kevin Paul Custard of Virginia

Lance Corporal Thomas Lamb of Coon Rapids

Lance Corporal John Olson of Sabin

Lance Corporal John Tishmack of Minneapolis

who died there in the service of their country and in the cause of humanity.

Be it further resolved that it earnestly hopes that the grief of the families of those who died might be lightened by the knowledge that they died in the cause of peace and that their grief is shared by all Minnesotans.

Be it further resolved that the Chief Clerk of the House of Representatives is directed to prepare enrolled copies of this resolution, to be authenticated by his signature and that of the Speaker, and that it be presented to the families of the Minnesota Marines that died in Lebanon.

The motion prevailed and House Resolution No. 16 was adopted.

Eken from the Committee on Rules and Legislative Administration to which was referred:

House Resolution No. 22, A house resolution congratulating Cy Carpenter on his election as President of the National Farmers Union.

Reported the same back with the recommendation that the resolution be adopted.

The report was adopted.

Wenzel moved that House Resolution No. 22 be now adopted.

HOUSE RESOLUTION NO. 22

A house resolution congratulating Cy Carpenter on his election as President of the National Farmers Union.

Whereas, agriculture is Minnesota's principle industry; and

Whereas, agriculture needs effective spokesmen to convey its interests to the government and the public; and

Whereas, the National Farmers Union is composed of over 250,000 farm families and is an effective representative of agricultural needs on the local, state, and national levels; and

Whereas, Cy Carpenter of Minnesota was recently elected President of the National Farmers Union; and

Whereas, Cy Carpenter has been President of the Minnesota Farmers Union since 1972, and is a widely respected spokesman for agriculture; and

Whereas, it is apparent that the National Farmers Union has chosen its president well; Now, Therefore,

Be it resolved by the House of Representatives of the State of Minnesota that it congratulates Cy Carpenter for being elected President of the National Farmers Union and the National Farmers Union for electing Cy Carpenter as president.

Be it further resolved that the Chief Clerk of the House is directed to enroll this resolution, to be authenticated by his signature and that of the Speaker, and present it to Cy Carpenter.

The motion prevailed and House Resolution No. 22 was adopted.

There being no objection the order of business reverted to Reports of Standing Committees.

Reported the same back with the following amendments:

Delete everything after the enacting clause and insert:

"Section 1. [572.31] [MINNESOTA CIVIL MEDIATION ACT, CITATION.]

Sections 1 to 10 may be cited as the "Minnesota Civil Mediation Act."

Sec. 2. [572.32] [PURPOSE.]

The legislature finds that:

(1) cost and delays of resolving disputes through litigation are a matter of social concern and are adversely affecting the attitude of our citizens toward our system of justice;

(2) it is in the interest of improved human relations to promote use of dispute resolution processes where parties in conflict are engaged in a problem solving process rather than an adversarial process, except in situations where there has been violence against persons;

(3) it is important to allow parties in dispute an opportunity to have meaningful participation in resolving the dispute and to exercise responsibility and control over the resolution of their dispute; and

(4) utilization of mediation to resolve disputes can contribute to alleviation of these problems and promote these interests.

It is the purpose of sections 1 to 10 to remove barriers and promote use of mediation to resolve disputes.

Sec. 3. [572.33] [DEFINITIONS.]

Subdivision 1. [SCOPE.] When used in sections 1 to 10 the terms defined in this section have the meanings given them.

Subd. 2. [MEDIATOR.] "Mediator" means a third party with no formal coercive power whose function is to promote and facilitate a voluntary settlement of a controversy identified in an agreement to mediate.

Subd. 3. [AGREEMENT TO MEDIATE.] "Agreement to mediate" means a written agreement which identifies a controversy between the parties to the agreement, states that the parties will seek to resolve the controversy through mediation, provides for termination of mediation upon written notice by either party or the mediator, is signed by the parties and mediator, and is dated.

Subd. 4. [MEDIATED SETTLEMENT AGREEMENT.] "Mediated settlement agreement" means a written agreement setting out the terms of a partial or complete settlement of a controversy identified in an agreement to mediate, signed by the parties, and dated.

Sec. 4. [572.34] [EFFECT OF MEDIATED SETTLEMENT AGREEMENT; CONFIRMATION.]

The effect of a mediated settlement agreement shall be determined under principles of law applicable to a contract. However, a mediated settlement agreement is not binding unless it contains a provision to the contrary and the parties were advised in writing that (a) the mediator has no duty to protect their interests or provide them with information about their legal rights; (b) signing a mediated settlement agreement may affect their legal rights; and (c) they should consider consulting with a lawyer before signing a mediated settlement agreement.

Sec. 5. [572.35] [SETTING ASIDE A MEDIATED SETTLEMENT AGREEMENT.]

Upon application of a party, the court shall set aside a mediated settlement agreement if appropriate under the principles of law applicable to setting aside a contract, or if there was evident partiality, corruption, or misconduct by a mediator prejudicing the rights of a party. The fact that the relief was such that it could not or would not be granted by a court of law or equity is not a ground for setting aside the mediated settlement agreement unless it violates public policy.

Sec. 6. [572.36] [NOT A LIMITATION OF EFFECT.]

Sections 4 and 5 of this act are in addition to and not in limitation of the effect of any settlement agreement resulting from a mediation process.

Sec. 7. [572.37] [STATUS OF MEDIATOR.]

A mediator shall be immune from civil liability for his or her actions within the scope of his or her position as mediator unless there is proof of fraud by the mediator. A mediator has no duty to advise a party concerning law or to encourage or assist a party in preserving or establishing legal rights. This section is in addition to and not in limitation of immunity otherwise accorded to a mediator under law.

Sec. 8. [572.38] [STATUTES OF LIMITATION.]

The running of the limitation of time within which an action may be brought is suspended from the date of the agreement to mediate until termination of the mediation.

Sec. 9. [572.39] [SCOPE.]

Sections 1 to 8 do not apply to proceedings relating to the determination of criminal liability or proceedings brought under sections 518.002 to 518.66, 518A.01 to 518A.25, and 518B.01, or any matter relating to guardianship, conservatorship, or civil commitment.

Sec. 10. [572.40] [SEVERABILITY.]

If any provision of sections 1 to 10 or the application of a provision to any person or circumstances is held invalid, the invalidity shall not affect other provisions or applications of the sections which can be given without the invalid provision or application, and to this end the provisions of sections 1 to 10 are severable.

Sec. 11. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 595.02, is amended to read:

595.02 [COMPETENCY OF WITNESSES.]

Every person of sufficient understanding, including a party, may testify in any action or proceeding, civil or criminal, in court or before any person who has authority to receive evidence, except as follows:

(1) A husband cannot be examined for or against his wife without her consent, nor a wife for or against her husband without his consent, nor can either, during the marriage or afterwards, without the consent of the other, be examined as to any communication made by one to the other during the marriage. This exception does not apply to a civil action or proceeding by one against the other, nor to a criminal action or proceeding for a crime committed by one against the other or against a child of either, nor to a criminal action or proceeding in which one is charged with homicide or an attempt to commit homicide and the date of the marriage of the defendant is subsequent to the date of the offense, nor to an action or proceeding for non-support, neglect, dependency, or termination of parental rights;

(2) An attorney cannot, without the consent of his client, be examined as to any communication made by the client to him or his advice given thereon in the course of professional duty; nor can any employee of the attorney be examined as to the communication or advice, without the client's consent;

(3) A clergyman or other minister of any religion shall not, without the consent of the party making the confession, be allowed to disclose a confession made to him in his professional character, in the course of discipline enjoined by the rules or practice of the religious body to which he belongs; nor shall a clergyman or other minister of any religion be examined as to any communication made to him by any person seeking religious or spiritual advice, aid, or comfort or his advice given thereon in the course of his professional character, without the consent of the person;

(4) A licensed physician or surgeon, dentist, or chiropractor shall not, without the consent of his patient, be allowed to disclose any information or any opinion based thereon which he acquired in attending the patient in a professional capacity, and which was necessary to enable him to act in that capacity; after the decease of the patient, in an action to recover insurance benefits, where the insurance has been in existence two years or more, the beneficiaries shall be deemed to be the personal rep-

representatives of the deceased person for the purpose of waiving this privilege, and no oral or written waiver of the privilege shall have any binding force or effect except when made upon the trial or examination where the evidence is offered or received;

(5) A public officer shall not be allowed to disclose communications made to him in official confidence when the public interest would suffer by the disclosure;

(6) Persons of unsound mind; persons intoxicated at the time of their production for examination, and children under ten years of age, who appear incapable of receiving just impressions of the facts respecting which they are examined, or of relating them truly, are not competent witnesses. This exception does not apply to a child under ten years of age, in a criminal proceeding for intrafamilial sexual abuse as defined in section 609.364, subdivision 10, or in a criminal proceeding under sections 609.342 clause (a), 609.343 clause (a), 609.344 clause (a), or 609.345 clause (a), who is able to describe or relate in language appropriate for a child of that age the events or facts respecting which the child is examined;

(7) A registered nurse, psychologist or consulting psychologist shall not, without the consent of his client, be allowed to disclose any information or opinion based thereon which he acquired in attending the client in a professional capacity, and which was necessary to enable him to act in that capacity;

(8) An interpreter for a person handicapped in communication shall not, without the consent of the person, be allowed to disclose any communication if the communication would, if the interpreter were not present, be privileged. For purposes of this section, a "person handicapped in communication" means a person who, because of a hearing, speech or other communication disorder, or because of the inability to speak or comprehend the English language, is unable to understand the proceedings in which he is required to participate. The presence of an interpreter as an aid to communication does not destroy an otherwise existing privilege;

(9) A parent or his minor child may not be examined as to any communication made in confidence by the minor to his parent. A communication is confidential if made out of the presence of persons not members of the child's immediate family living in the same household. This exception may be waived by express consent to disclosure by a parent entitled to claim the privilege or by the child who made the communication, or by failure of the child or parent to object when the contents of a communication are demanded. This exception does not apply to a civil action or proceeding by one spouse against the other or by a parent or child against the other, nor to a proceeding to commit either the child or parent to whom the communication was made or to place the person or property or either under the control of another because of his alleged mental or physical condition, nor to a criminal action or proceeding in which the parent is charged with a crime committed against the person or property of the communicating child, the parent's spouse, or a child of either the parent or the parent's spouse, or in which a child is charged with a crime or act of delinquency committed against the person or property of a parent or a child of a parent, nor to an action or proceeding for termination of parental rights, nor any other action or proceeding on a petition alleging child abuse, child neglect, abandonment or nonsupport by a parent;

(10) Sexual assault counselors may not be compelled to testify about any opinion or information received from or about the victim without the consent of the victim. However, a counselor may be compelled to identify or disclose information in investigations or proceedings related to neglect or termination of parental rights if the court determines good cause exists. In determining whether to compel disclosure, the court shall weigh the public interest and need for disclosure against the effect on the victim, the treatment relationship, and the treatment services if disclosure occurs. Nothing in this clause exempts sexual assault counselors from compliance with the provisions of sections 626.556 and 626.557.

"Sexual assault counselor" for the purpose of this section means a person who has undergone at least 40 hours of crisis counseling training and works under the direction of a supervisor in a crisis center, whose primary purpose is to render advice, counseling or assistance to victims of sexual assault.

(11) No one can be examined as to any communication or document, including worknotes, made or used in the course of or because of mediation pursuant to an agreement to mediate. This restriction does not apply to the parties to the dispute in an application to a court by a party to have a mediated settlement agreement set aside or reformed. A communication or document otherwise not privileged does not become privileged because used in the course of mediation. "Mediated settlement agreement" shall have the meaning set out in section 3. This paragraph is in addition to and not in limitation of the privilege accorded to communication during mediation by the common law."

This subdivision is complied with if notices posted in compliance with other statutes or ordinances contain the information required by subdivision 2 and this section. In addition, an owner shall distribute one copy of the statement required by section 2 to each tenant within 30 days after the statement becomes available from the attorney general. Thereafter, the owner shall distribute one copy of the statement to each tenant at the time an oral or written lease is entered into."*
