Any person who violates any provisions of sections 88.03 to 88.22, in addition to any penalties therein prescribed, or hereinbefore in this section prescribed, for such violation, shall also be liable in full damages to any and every person suffering loss or injury by reason of such violation, including liability to the state, and any of its political subdivisions, for all expenses incurred in fighting or preventing the spread of, or extinguishing, any fire caused by, or resulting from, any violation of these sections. All expenses so collected by the state shall be returned to, and deposited in, the original fund from which the expenses were paid and are available for expenditure for the purposes for which the funds were originally appropriated. When a fire set by any person spreads to and damages or destroys property belonging to another, the person setting the fire shall be prima facie guilty evidence of negligence in setting and allowing the same to spread.

At any time the state, or any political subdivision thereof, either of its own motion, or at the suggestion or request of the director, may bring an action in any court of competent jurisdiction to restrain, enjoin, or otherwise prohibit any violation of sections 88.03 to 88.22, whether therein described as a crime or not, and likewise to restrain, enjoin, or prohibit any person from proceeding further in, with, or at any timber cutting or other operations without complying with the provisions of those sections, or the requirements of the director pursuant thereto; and the court may grant such relief, or any other appropriate relief, whenever it shall appear that the same may prevent loss of life or property by fire, or may otherwise aid in accomplishing the purposes of sections 88.03 to 88.22.

Sec. 97. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 88.76, is amended to read:

88.76 [REWARDS.]

Upon conviction of any person for violating any of the provisions of sections 88.03 to 88.22, the director may pay, from any money placed at the director's disposal under those sections, a reward of not more than ~~$25~~ $100 to the person or persons giving the information leading to such conviction.

Sec. 98. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 88.79, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [~~CHARGE FOR SERVICE; RECEIPTS TO GENERAL FOREST MANAGEMENT FUND.~~] The commissioner of natural resources may charge the owner receiving such services such sums as the commissioner shall determine to be fair and reasonable. The receipts from such services shall be deposited in the general forest management fund.

Sec. 99. [89.016] [FOREST CAMPGROUNDS.]

The commissioner must hold a public meeting before closing a campground in a state forest. The public meeting must be held near the state forest where the campground is to be closed.

Sec. 100. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 89.04, is amended to read:

89.04 [FOREST MANAGEMENT FUND.]

Subdivision 1. [FUND ESTABLISHED; SOURCES.] The forest management fund is created as an account in the state treasury and may be spent only for the purposes provided in subdivision 2. The following revenue shall be deposited in the forest management fund:

(a) Money transferred from the state forest fund as provided in section 89.036;

(b) Money transferred from the state forest suspense account as provided in section 16A.125, subdivision 5, which may be appropriated to implement the state forest resource management policy and plan only on state forest trust fund lands as defined in section 16A.125, subdivision 5;

(c) Money from the sale of tree planting stock as provided in section 89.37, subdivision 4; ~~and~~

(d) Money from forest management services provided under section 88.79; and

~~(d)~~ (e) Interest accruing from investment of the fund.

Subd. 2. [PURPOSES OF FUND.] Subject to appropriation by the legislature, money in the forest management fund may be spent by the department of natural resources in accordance with the forest resource management policy and plan for any of the following purposes:

(a) Reforestation consistent with the state reforestation policy and forest resource management plan;

(b) Forest road improvements consistent with the state forest road policy and forest resource management plan;

(c) Equipment and training needed for the prevention and suppression of forest fires;

(d) Forest pest prevention and treatment;

(e) Forest management services authorized by section 88.79.

Sec. 101. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 92.46, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

92.46 [LANDS AS CAMPGROUNDS.]

Subdivision 1. [PUBLIC CAMPGROUNDS.] (a) The director may designate suitable portions of the state lands withdrawn from sale and not reserved, as provided in section 92.45, as permanent state public campgrounds. The director may have the land surveyed and platted into lots of convenient size, and lease them for cottage and camp purposes under terms and conditions the director prescribes, subject to the provisions of this section.

(b) A lease may not be made for a term more than 20 years. The lease may allow renewal, from time to time, for additional terms of no longer than 20 years each. The lease may be canceled by the commissioner 90 days after giving the person leasing the land written notice of violation of lease conditions. The lease rate shall be based on the appraised value of leased land as determined by the commissioner of natural resources. The appraised value shall be the value of the leased land without any private improvements and must be comparable to similar land without any improvements within the same county.

(c) By July 1, 1986, the commissioner of natural resources shall adopt rules under chapter 14 to establish procedures for leasing land under this section. The rules shall be subject to review and approval by the commissioners of revenue and administration prior to the initial publication pursuant to chapter 14 and prior to their final adoption. The rules must address at least the following:

- (1) method of appraising the property;
  - (2) determination of lease rates; and
  - (3) an appeal procedure for both the appraised values and lease rates.
- (d) All money received from these leases must be credited to the fund to which the proceeds of the land belong.

Notwithstanding section 16A.125 or any other law to the contrary, 50 percent of the money received from the lease of permanent school fund lands leased pursuant to this subdivision shall be deposited into the permanent school trust fund. However, in fiscal years 1986, 1987, 1988, and 1989 up to 50 percent of, and 1990, the money received from the lease of permanent school fund lands that would otherwise be deposited into the permanent school trust fund may be used is hereby appropriated to survey, appraise, and pay associated selling costs of lots as required in section 92.67, subdivision 3. The money appropriated may not be used to pay the cost of surveying lots not scheduled for sale. Any money designated for deposit in the permanent school fund that is not needed to survey, appraise, and pay associated selling costs of lots, as required in section 92.67, shall be deposited in the permanent school trust fund. The commissioner shall add to the appraised value of any lot offered for sale the costs of surveying, appraising, and selling the lot, and shall deposit the costs recovered in the permanent school fund and any other contributing funds in proportion to the contribution from each fund. Notwithstanding section 92.67, subdivision 4, as to requests for sale of lakeshore lots received before January 1, 1987, the commissioner shall hold the sale before October 31, 1987, if possible, and, if not possible, the lots shall be offered for sale at the next sale in the succeeding year.

Sec. 102. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 92.67, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [SALE REQUIREMENT.] Notwithstanding section 92.45 or any other law, at the request of a lessee the commissioner of natural resources shall sell state property bordering public waters that is leased for the purpose of a private cabin under section 92.46 and recommended to be sold under the inventory prepared pursuant to Laws 1985, First Special Session chapter 14, article 17, section 4. Requests for sale must be made prior to July 1, 1991, and the commissioner shall complete all requested sales by July 1, 1992. The lessee making the request may designate the lesser of $500 or the lease payment in the year the request is made to be used as part of the down payment. The sale shall be made in accordance with laws providing for the sale of trust fund land except as modified by the provisions of this section.

Sec. 103. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 92.67, subdivision 4, is amended to read:

Subd. 4. [TIMING OF SALES.] (a) The commissioner shall offer lakeshore cabin site lots for sale pursuant to written request and in accordance with the following schedule:

(1) as to requests received before January 1, 1987, the sale shall be held in June, July, or August 1987;

(2) as to requests received each calendar year after December 31, 1986, the sale shall be held in June, July, or August of the year after the request is received;

(3) notwithstanding clause (2), the commissioner may offer a lot for sale in the year the request is received if the commissioner will offer for sale in that year other lots platted with the late requested lot.

(b) The last sales shall be held in 1992. Lots not sold the first year offered may be reoffered in a succeeding year, following reappraisal if it is determined necessary by the commissioner.

(c) If a person other than the lessee purchases the leased lakeshore cabin site, the purchaser must make payment in full to the lessee at the time of the sale for the appraised value of any improvements. Failure of a successful bidder to comply with this provision voids the sale and the property must be rebid, if possible, at the same sale.

Sec. 104. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 92.67, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 5a. [ADDING LANDS; ZONING CONFORMANCE.] Whenever possible, the commissioner may add trust fund lands to the lots offered for sale to provide conformance with zoning requirements. The added lands must be included in the appraised value of the lot.

Sec. 105. [93.221] [MINERAL LEASE ACCOUNT.]

The mineral lease account is created as an account in the state treasury for disposal of certain mineral lease money. Interest accruing from investment of the account remains with the account. Money in the mineral lease account is appropriated to the commissioner of natural resources for mineral diversification.

Sec. 106. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 93.335, subdivision 4, is amended to read:

Subd. 4. [RENTAL AND ROYALTIES, ANNUAL DISTRIBUTION; APPROPRIATION.] If the lands or minerals and mineral rights covered by any such permit or lease are held by the state in trust for the taxing districts, the rentals and royalties paid under any such permit or lease shall be distributed annually by the commissioner of finance on the first day of September as follows: 20 percent to the general fund of the state mineral lease account established in the state treasury under section 93.221, and 80 percent to the respective counties in which the lands lie, to be apportioned among the taxing districts interested therein as follows: county, three-ninths; town, or city, two-ninths; and school district, four-ninths.

There is hereby appropriated from such moneys in the state treasury not otherwise appropriated to such persons or political subdivisions as are entitled to payment herein, an amount sufficient to make the payment.

Sec. 107. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 97A.061, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [APPLICABILITY; AMOUNT.] (a) The commissioner shall annually make a payment from the general game and fish fund to each county having public hunting areas and game refuges. This section does not apply to state trust fund land and other state land not purchased for game refuge or public hunting purposes. The payment shall be the greatest of:

(1) 35 percent of the gross receipts from all special use permits and leases of land acquired for public hunting and game refuges;

(2) 50 cents per acre on land purchased actually used for public hunting or game refuges; or

(3) three-fourths of one percent of the appraised value of purchased land actually used for public hunting and game refuges.

(b) The payment must be reduced by the amount paid under subdivision 3 for croplands managed for wild geese.

(c) The appraised value is the purchase price for five years after acquisition. The appraised value shall be determined by the county assessor every five years after acquisition.

Sec. 108. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 97A.065, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [FINES AND FORFEITED BAIL.] (a) Fines and forfeited bail collected from prosecutions of violations of the game and fish laws, sections 84.09 to 84.15, and 84.81 to 84.88, chapter 34B, and any other law relating to wild animals, and aquatic vegetation must be paid to the treasurer of the county where the violation is prosecuted. The county treasurer shall submit one-half of the receipts to the commissioner and credit the balance to the county general revenue fund except as provided in paragraph paragraphs (b) and (c).

(b) The commissioner must reimburse a county, from the game and fish fund, for the cost of keeping prisoners prosecuted for violations under this section if the county board, by resolution, directs: (1) the county treasurer to submit all fines and forfeited bail to the commissioner; and (2) the county auditor to certify and submit monthly itemized statements to the commissioner.

(c) The county treasurer shall indicate the amount of the receipts that are assessments or surcharges imposed under section 609.101 and shall submit all of those receipts to the commissioner. The receipts must be credited to the game and fish fund to provide peace officer training for persons employed by the commissioner who are licensed under section 626.84, subdivision 1, clause (c), and who possess peace officer authority for the purpose of enforcing game and fish laws.

Sec. 109. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 97A.105, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [LICENSE REQUIREMENTS.] A person may breed and propagate fur-bearing animals, game birds, bear, moose, elk, caribou, or deer only on privately owned or leased land and after obtaining a license. Any of the permitted animals on a game farm may be sold to other licensed game farms. "Privately owned or leased land" includes waters that are shallow or marshy, are not actually navigable, and are not of substantial beneficial public use. Before an application for a license is considered, the applicant must enclose the area to sufficiently confine the animals to be raised in a manner approved by the commissioner. A license may be granted only if the commissioner finds the application is made in good faith with intention to actually carry on the business described in the application and the commissioner determines that the facilities are adequate for the business.

Sec. 110. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 97A.415, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [ONE LICENSE PER PERSON.] Only one license of each kind may be issued to a person in a license year, except the resident and nonresident short-term angling license licenses, unless authorized by commissioner's order.

Sec. 111. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 97A.445, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [ANGLING; TAKE A KID FISHING WEEKEND.] A resident over age 18 may take fish by angling without a license during ~~the second~~ one Saturday and Sunday of the angling season designated by order of the commissioner if accompanied by a child who is under age 16. The commissioner shall publicize the Saturday and Sunday as "Take a Kid Fishing Weekend."

Sec. 112. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 97A.451, subdivision 4, is amended to read:

Subd. 4. [PERSONS UNDER AGE 16; BIG GAME.] A person under the age of 16 may not obtain a license to take big game unless the person possesses a firearms safety certificate. A person under the age of 14 must be accompanied by a parent or guardian to hunt big game. A person between the ages of 12 and 16 is entitled to receive one free license to hunt deer under conditions prescribed by the commissioners.

Sec. 113. [97A.472] [PLACE OF SALE OF NONRESIDENT LICENSES; RESTRICTION.]

The commissioner shall not sell or issue in any place outside this state a nonresident license to take fish in this state.

Sec. 114. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 97A.475, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [RESIDENT HUNTING.] Fees for the following licenses, to be issued to residents only, are:

- (1) for persons under age 65 to take small game, ~~$7~~ $9;
- (2) for persons age 65 or over, ~~$3.50~~ $4.50;

- (5) to take deer by archery, ~~$15~~ $20;
- (6) to take moose, for a party of not more than four persons, ~~$200~~;
and
- (7) to take bear, ~~$25~~ $30.

Sec. 115. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 97A.475, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [NONRESIDENT HUNTING.] Fees for the following licenses, to be issued to nonresidents, are:

- (1) to take small game, ~~$46~~ $51;
- (2) to take deer with firearms, $100;
- (3) to take deer by archery, $100;
- (4) to take bear, $150;
- (5) to take turkey, $30; and
- (6) to take raccoon, bobcat, fox, coyote, or lynx, ~~$100~~ $125.

Sec. 116. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 97A.475, subdivision 6, is amended to read:

Subd. 6. [RESIDENT FISHING.] Fees for the following licenses, to be issued to residents only, are:

- (1) to take fish by angling, ~~$6.50~~ $8.50;
- (2) to take fish by angling, for a combined license for a married couple, ~~$10.50~~ $13.50; and
- (3) to take fish by spearing from a dark house, ~~$7.50~~ $12; and
- (4) to take fish by angling for a period of 24 hours from the time of issuance, $4.50. No trout stamp is required when angling for trout or salmon under this 24-hour angling license.

Sec. 117. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 97A.475, subdivision 7, is amended to read:

Subd. 7. [NONRESIDENT FISHING.] Fees for the following licenses, to be issued to nonresidents, ~~shall be~~ are:

- (1) to take fish by angling, ~~$16~~ $18;
- (2) to take fish by angling limited to seven consecutive days, ~~$13~~ $15;
- (3) to take fish by angling for three days, ~~$10~~ $12; and
- (4) to take fish by angling for a combined license for a family, ~~$27.50~~ $30.50;
- (5) to take fish by angling for a period of 24 hours from the time of issuance, $4.50. No trout stamp is required when angling for trout or salmon under this 24-hour angling license; and

(6) to take fish by angling for a combined license for a married couple, limited to 14 consecutive days, $22.50.

Sec. 118. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 97A.475, subdivision 8, is amended to read:

Subd. 8. [MINNESOTA SPORTING.] The commissioner shall issue Minnesota sporting licenses to residents only. The licensee may take fish by angling and small game. The fee for the license is:

(1) for an individual, ~~$12~~ $15.50; and

(2) for a combined license for a married couple to take fish and for one spouse to take small game, ~~$16~~ $19.50.

Sec. 119. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 97A.475, subdivision 9, is amended to read:

Subd. 9. [FISHING SURCHARGE.] The fees for the following licenses must be increased by a surcharge of $2.50:

(1) resident angling, under subdivision 6, clauses (1) ~~and~~, (2), ~~and~~ (4);

(2) nonresident angling, under subdivision 7;

(3) Minnesota sporting, under subdivision 8;

(4) nonresident fish houses, under subdivision 12; and

(5) to net fish for domestic use, under subdivision 13.

Sec. 120. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 97A.475, subdivision 11, is amended to read:

Subd. 11. [FISH HOUSES AND DARK HOUSES; RESIDENTS.] Fees for the following licenses are:

(1) for a fish house or dark house that is not rented, ~~$5~~ $8; and

(2) for a fish house or dark house that is rented, ~~$15~~ $18.

Sec. 121. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 97A.475, subdivision 12, is amended to read:

Subd. 12. [FISH HOUSES; NONRESIDENT.] The fee for a fish house license for a nonresident is ~~$15~~ $19.50.

Sec. 122. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 97A.475, subdivision 13, is amended to read:

Subd. 13. [NETTING WHITEFISH AND CISCOES FOR PERSONAL CONSUMPTION.] The fee for a license to net whitefish and ciscoes in inland lakes and international waters for personal consumption is, for each net, ~~$3~~ $5.

Sec. 123. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 97A.475, subdivision 20, is amended to read:

Subd. 20. [TRAPPING LICENSE.] The fee for a license to trap fur-bearing animals is:

- (1) for persons over age 13 and under age 18, ~~$3.50~~ $5; and
- (2) for persons age 18 and older, ~~$13~~ $16.

Sec. 124. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 97A.485, subdivision 6, is amended to read:

Subd. 6. [LICENSES TO BE SOLD AND ISSUING FEES.] (a) Persons authorized to sell licenses under this section must sell the following licenses for the license fee and ~~the following~~ an additional issuing fees:

(b) An issuing fee for a stamp may not be collected when a stamp is issued simultaneously with the related small game, fishing, or sporting license. Only one issuing fee may be collected when selling more than one stamp in the same transaction after the end of the season for which the stamp was issued.

(c) The auditor or subagent shall keep the issuing fee as a commission for selling the licenses.

(d) The commissioner shall collect the issuing fee on licenses sold by the commissioner.

(e) A license, except stamps, must state the amount of the issuing fee and that the issuing fee is kept by the seller as a commission for selling the licenses.

Sec. 125. [97A.502] [DEER KILLED BY MOTOR VEHICLES.]

Notwithstanding section 97A.055, any deer killed by a motor vehicle on a public road must be removed by the road authority, as defined by section 160.02, subdivision 9. The commissioner of natural resources must provide to all road authorities standard forms for statistical purposes and the tracking of wild animals.

Sec. 126. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 97C.211, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 5. [PRICE OF WALLEYE FRY.] The commissioner may not sell walleye fry for less than fair market value, defined as the average price charged by private walleye fry wholesalers located in Minnesota.

Sec. 127. [97C.402] [RAINY RIVER SEASON.] The fishing season on the Minnesota side of the Rainy River ends on March 1 of each year.

Sec. 128. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 115A.15, subdivision 6, is amended to read:

Subd. 6. [RESOURCE RECOVERY REVOLVING ACCOUNT.] Upon the certification of the commissioner of administration, the commissioner of finance shall establish an account in the general services revolving fund, effective June 30, 1980, for the operation of the state government resource recovery program. The revolving account shall consist of all funds appropriated by the state for the program, all revenues resulting from the sale of recyclable and reusable commodities made available for sale as a result of the resource recovery program and all reimbursements to the commissioner of expenses incurred by the commissioner in developing and administering resource recovery systems for state agencies, local governments, and regional agencies. The account may be used for all activities associated with the program including payment of administrative and operating costs, except statewide and agency indirect costs. The commissioner shall determine the waste disposal cost savings associated with recycling and reuse activities, collect those savings from the account responsible for disposing of wastes produced in state buildings, and credit the savings to the resource recovery revolving account.

Sec. 129. [115A.41] [PURPOSE.]

The legislature recognizes the importance of maintaining the regulatory functions of the Minnesota pollution control agency in regard to solid waste management. The legislature also recognizes that in order to achieve the maximum benefit of state funding and funding from other sources that the technical and financial assistance involved in managing solid waste, including programs involving waste tires, including landfills and other methods of recycling, disposing, and storing solid wastes, should properly be transferred to the waste management board.

Sec. 130. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 115A.42, is amended to read:

115A.42 [ESTABLISHMENT AND ADMINISTRATION.]

There is established a planning assistance program to provide technical and financial assistance to political subdivisions of the state for the purposes of encouraging and improving regional and local solid waste management planning activities and efforts and of furthering the state policies and purposes expressed in section 115A.02. The program shall be administered by the agency board pursuant to rules promulgated under chapter 14, except in the metropolitan area where the program shall be administered by the metropolitan council pursuant to chapter 473. The agency board and the metropolitan council shall ensure conformance with federal requirements and programs established pursuant to the Resource Conservation and Recovery Act of 1976 and amendments thereto.

Sec. 131. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 115A.44, is amended to read:

115A.44 [FINANCIAL ASSISTANCE.]

Eligible recipients may receive grants for up to 50 percent of the cost of the planning activity, except that planning by a regional development commission and joint planning by two or more contiguous counties or political subdivisions located in two or more contiguous counties may receive grants for up to 100 percent of the cost of the planning activity. Financial assistance provided under the program may be used to employ staff, contract with other units of government or qualified consultants, and pay such other planning expenses as the agency board or metropolitan council may allow.

Sec. 132. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 115A.45, is amended to read:

115A.45 [TECHNICAL ASSISTANCE.]

The agency board and metropolitan council shall provide for technical assistance for eligible recipients. The agency board and metropolitan council shall provide model plans for regional and local solid waste management. The agency board and metropolitan council may contract for the delivery of technical assistance by a regional development commission, any state or federal agency, or private consultants. The agency board shall prepare and publish an inventory of sources of technical assistance for solid waste planning, including studies, publications, agencies, and persons available.

Sec. 133. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 115A.46, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [GENERAL.] Plans shall address the state policies and purposes expressed in section 115A.02. Plans for the location, establishment, operation, maintenance, and postclosure use of facilities and facility sites, for ordinances, and for licensing, permit, and enforcement activities shall be consistent with the rules adopted by the agency pursuant to chapter 116. Plans shall address the resolution of conflicting, duplicative, or overlapping local management efforts. Plans shall address the establishment of joint powers management programs or waste management districts where appropriate. Plans shall address other matters as the rules of the agency board may require consistent with the purposes of sections 115A.42 to 115A.46. Political subdivisions preparing plans under sections 115A.42 to 115A.46 shall consult with persons presently providing solid waste collection, processing, and disposal services. Plans shall be approved by the agency board, or the metropolitan council pursuant to section 473.803. After initial approval, each plan shall be updated every five years and revised as necessary for further approval.

Sec. 134. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 115A.49, is amended to read:

115A.49 [ESTABLISHMENT; PURPOSES AND PRIORITIES.]

There is established a program to encourage and assist cities, counties, and solid waste management districts in the development and implementation of solid waste management projects and to transfer the knowledge and experience gained from such projects to other communities in the state. The program must be administered to encourage local communities to develop feasible and prudent alternatives to disposal, including waste reduction; waste separation by generators, collectors, and other persons; and waste processing. The program must be administered by the agency and the board in accordance with the requirements of sections 115A.49 to 115A.54 and rules promulgated by the agency and the board pursuant to chapter 14. In administering the program, the agency and the board shall give priority to areas where natural geologic and soil conditions are unsuitable for land disposal of solid waste; areas where the capacity of existing solid waste disposal facilities is determined by the agency or the board to be less than five years; and projects serving more than one local government unit.

Sec. 135. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 115A.51, is amended to read:

115A.51 [APPLICATION REQUIREMENTS.]

Applications for assistance under the program shall demonstrate: (a) that the project is conceptually and technically feasible; (b) that affected political subdivisions are committed to implement the project, to provide necessary local financing, and to accept and exercise the government powers necessary to the project; (c) that operating revenues from the project, considering the availability and security of sources of solid waste and of markets for recovered resources, together with any proposed federal, state, or local financial assistance, will be sufficient to pay all costs over the projected life of the project; (d) that the applicant has evaluated the feasible and prudent alternatives to disposal and has compared and evaluated the costs of the alternatives, including capital and operating costs, and the effects of the alternatives on the cost to generators. The ~~agency or the~~ board may require completion of a comprehensive solid waste management plan conforming to the requirements of section 115A.46, before accepting an application.

Sec. 136. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 115A.52, is amended to read:

115A.52 [TECHNICAL ASSISTANCE FOR PROJECTS.]

The ~~agency and the~~ board shall ensure the delivery of the technical assistance necessary for proper implementation of each project funded under the program. The ~~agency and the~~ board may contract for the delivery of technical assistance by any state or federal agency, a regional development commission, the metropolitan council, or private consultants and may use program funds to reimburse the agency, commission, council, or consultants. The ~~agency and the~~ board shall prepare and publish an inventory of sources of technical assistance, including studies, publications, agencies, and persons available. The ~~agency and the~~ board shall ensure statewide benefit from projects assisted under the program by developing exchange and training programs for local officials and employees and by using the experience gained in projects to provide technical assistance and education for other solid waste management projects in the state.

Sec. 137. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 115A.53, is amended to read:

115A.53 [WASTE REDUCTION AND SEPARATION PROJECTS.]

The ~~agency~~ board shall provide technical assistance and grants to projects which demonstrate waste reduction; waste separation by generators, collectors, and other persons; and collection systems for separated waste. Activities eligible for assistance under this section include legal, financial, economic, educational, marketing, social, governmental, and administrative activities related to the implementation of the project. Preliminary planning and development, feasibility study, and conceptual design costs shall also be eligible activities, but no more than 20 percent of program funds shall be used to fund those activities. The rules of the agency board shall prescribe the level or levels of local funding required for grants under this section.

Sec. 138. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 115A.917, is amended to read:

115A.917 [CERTIFICATE OF NEED.]

No new capacity for disposal of mixed municipal solid waste may be permitted in counties outside the metropolitan area without a certificate of need issued by the agency board indicating the agency's board's determination that the additional disposal capacity is needed in the county. A certificate of need may not be issued until the county has a plan approved under section 115A.46. If the original plan was approved more than five years before, the agency board may require the plan to be revised before a certificate of need is issued under this section. The agency board shall certify need only to the extent that there are no feasible and prudent alternatives to the additional disposal capacity, including waste reduction, source separation, and resource recovery, that would minimize adverse impact upon natural resources. Alternatives that are speculative or conjectural are not feasible and prudent. Economic considerations alone do not justify the certification of need or the rejection of alternatives.

Sec. 139. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 116.41, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [TRAINING AND CERTIFICATION PROGRAMS.] The agency shall develop standards of competence for persons operating and inspecting various classes of disposal facilities. The agency shall conduct training programs for persons operating facilities for the disposal of waste and for inspectors of such facilities, and may charge such fees as are necessary to cover the actual costs of the training programs. All fees received shall be paid into the state treasury and credited to the account created in section 115.03, subdivision 1, clause (j), for training water pollution control personnel, a separate waste disposal training account and are appropriated to the agency to pay expenses relating to the training of disposal facility personnel.

The agency shall require operators and inspectors of such facilities to obtain from the agency a certificate of competence. The agency shall conduct examinations to test the competence of applicants for certification, and shall require that certificates be renewed at reasonable intervals. The agency may charge such fees as are necessary to cover the actual costs of receiving and processing applications, conducting examinations, and issuing and renewing certificates. Certificates shall not be required for a private individual for landspreading and associated interim and temporary storage of sewage sludge on property owned or farmed by that individual.

Sec. 140. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 116J.615, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 3. [REGIONAL TOURISM OFFICES.] Employees in regional tourism offices are in the unclassified civil service.

Sec. 141. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 116M.06, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [USE OF FUNDS.] The authority may use the energy loan insurance account as provided in section 116M.11. The authority may use the economic development fund in connection with small business loans, pollution control loans, and farm loans to provide financial assistance to eligible small businesses; it may use the economic development fund in connection with business loans when the loans are made as a part of the special assistance program under section 116M.07, subdivision 11; and the authority may use the energy development account in connection with energy loans to provide financial assistance to businesses; economic development fund, with the exception of the waste tire recycling account, and the energy fund, as follows:

(a) to provide loan guarantees or insurance, in whole or in part, to businesses in connection with business loans, small business loans, energy loans, farm loans, or pollution control loans;

(b) to provide direct loans to businesses in connection with business loans, small business loans, energy loans, farm loans, or pollution control loans;

(c) to participate in other investment programs as appropriate under the terms of this chapter and chapters 41A, 472, and 474;

(d) to purchase loan packages made to businesses by financial institutions in the state in connection with business loans, small business loans, energy loans, farm loans, or pollution control loans;

(e) to enter into or to pay fees on insurance contracts, letters of credit, municipal bond insurance, surety bonds, or similar obligations and other agreements or contracts with financial institutions or providers of similar services;

(f) to guarantee or insure bonds and notes issued by the authority, in whole or in part;

(g) to make interest subsidy payments on behalf of eligible small businesses to be applied to the payment of interest on bonds or notes of the authority equal to the difference in interest payable on loans and the interest payable on bonds or notes of the authority where the proceeds of these bonds or notes are used to make or participate in making these loans;

(h) for any legal purpose or program of the authority, including without limitation the payment of the cost of issuing authority bonds and notes ~~and authority~~, administrative costs and expenses, ~~but not for of the authority, the agricultural loan guaranty board and the certified state development company, and for personnel costs of positions in the approved complement of the department or the authority for the approved complement of the department that provides services to the authority, the agricultural loan guaranty board, and the certified state development company.~~

(i) to pay tax reimbursements for qualified economic diversification projects under the special assistance program pursuant to section 116M.07, subdivision 11, paragraph (d).

In addition, the authority may use the economic development fund funds to purchase, lease, or license technology-related products for education or training or to participate in programs where technology-related products are purchased, leased, or licensed.

If a fund or an account is or will be depleted in connection with the use of the fund or account as authorized by chapter 116M or any other law, and which has been approved or given preliminary approval by the authority, the authority may request the commissioner to transfer money from other funds or accounts authorized by chapter 116M into the fund or account to be depleted. The commissioner must approve the request for transfer if sufficient money is available and requests must be approved in the order they are received. This transfer authority does not apply to transfers from the waste tire recycling account.

The authority may create separate accounts within any of the funds for use in accordance with the separate purposes listed in this section and may irrevocably pledge and allocate money on deposit in any of the funds to the accounts for the purposes. The authority may make contracts with note and bond holders, trustees for them, financial institutions, or other persons interested in the disposition of money in the funds or their accounts with respect to the conditions upon which money in any fund or its accounts is to be held, invested, applied, and disposed of and the use of the fund and its accounts and the termination of accounts. The authority may determine to leverage amounts in accounts to be used to guarantee or insure bonds and notes of the authority or loans to businesses and may covenant as to the rate of leveraging with holders of the authority's bonds and notes or any trustee for them, financial institutions, or other persons. Money in the funds and their accounts shall, consistent with contracts with holders of the authority's bonds and notes or any trustee for them, financial institutions, or other interested persons, be invested in accordance with section 116M.08, subdivision 15, and the investment income from them, absent contractual provisions to the contrary, shall be added to and retained in the funds or their accounts if provided by the authority. The repayments to the authority of any direct loans made by the authority from money in the funds or their accounts shall be paid by the authority into the particular fund that was used in conjunction with the loan being repaid, or, as provided by the authority, into another account. The authority may collect fees, initially or from time to time, or both, with respect to any direct loan it extends or any insurance or guarantee it grants. The authority may enter into contracts and security instruments with businesses, with bond and note holders or any trustee for them, or financial institutions or other persons to provide for and secure the repayment to the authority of money provided by the authority from the funds or their accounts for direct loans or which have been paid by the authority from a fund or account pursuant to an authority guarantee or insurance.

The state covenants with all holders of the authority's bonds and notes, financial institutions, and other persons interested in the disposition of money in the funds or their accounts, which money the authority has irrevocably pledged and allocated for any authorized purpose described in this subdivision, that the state will not take any action to limit the effect of the pledge and allocation and will not take any action to limit the effect of contracts entered into as authorized in this subdivision with respect to the pledge and allocation and will not limit or alter the rights vested in the authority or the state to administer the application of money pursuant to the pledge and allocation and to perform its obligations under the contracts. The authority may include and recite this covenant of the state in any of its bonds or notes benefiting from the pledge and allocation or contracts or related documents or resolutions.

Sec. 142. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 116M.06, subdivision 4, is amended to read:

Subd. 4. [CREATION OF ECONOMIC DEVELOPMENT FUND.] There is created the economic development fund to be administered by the authority. All money in the fund is appropriated to the authority to accomplish the authority's purposes.

The money in the economic development fund must be used as provided in this chapter and chapters 472 and 474, to provide financial assistance to businesses, eligible small businesses, targeted small businesses, and farm businesses. This financial assistance includes business loans, pollution control loans, small business loans, and farm loans and the purchasing, leasing, or licensing of technology related products or rights to the products.

Sec. 143. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 116M.11, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [INSURANCE OF LOANS.] (a) [AUTHORIZATION.] The authority is authorized, upon application by a financial institution, to insure loans for cost-effective qualified energy projects as provided in this section; and under terms as the authority may prescribe by rule, to make commitments for the insuring of loans prior to the date of their execution or disbursement. ~~In the event the authority shall determine that the energy loan insurance account is or will be depleted in connection with the use of the account as authorized by the act which has been approved or given preliminary approval by the authority, then the authority may by resolution transfer money from the energy development account created pursuant to section 116M.12.~~

(b) [ELIGIBILITY REQUIREMENTS.] The authority may by rule establish requirements for energy loans to be eligible for insurance under this section, relating to:

- (1) maximum principal amount, amortization schedule, interest rate, delinquency charges, and other terms;
- (2) the portion of the loan to be insured;
- (3) acceleration and other remedies;
- (4) covenants regarding insurance, repairs, and maintenance of the project;
- (5) conditions regarding subordination of the loan security, if any, of the project to other liens against the property;
- (6) the aggregate principal amount of loans to be insured in relation to the reserves from time to time on hand in the insurance account, and priorities as to the loans to be insured; and
- (7) any other matters determined by the authority.

The authority shall by rule establish criteria for analyzing the cost-effectiveness of projects.

(c) [CONCLUSIVE EVIDENCE OF INSURABILITY.] Any contract of insurance executed by the authority under this section shall be conclusive evidence of the eligibility of the loan for insurance, and the validity of any contract of insurance properly executed and in the hands of any approved lender shall not be contestable, except for fraud or misrepresentation on the part of the financial institution.

(d) [PREMIUMS.] The authority is authorized to fix premium charges for the insurance of loans under this section at levels which in its judgment, taking into consideration other amounts available in the account, will be sufficient to cover and maintain a reserve for loan losses.

(e) [PROCEDURES UPON DEFAULT.] The authority may establish procedures to be followed by financial institutions and to be taken by the authority in the event of default upon an energy loan, including:

(1) time for filing claims;

(2) rights and interests to be assigned and documents to be furnished by the financial institution;

(3) principal and interest to be included in the claim; and

(4) conditions, if any, upon which the authority will pay the entire principal amount in default, after foreclosure and receipt of marketable title to the property.

Sec. 144. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 161.1419, subdivision 4, is amended to read:

Subd. 4. ~~Members of the commission shall serve without Compensation but shall be allowed and paid their actual traveling and other expenses necessarily incurred in the performance of their duties of legislative members of the commission is as provided in section 3.101. Compensation of the remaining members is as provided in section 15.0575. The commission may purchase supplies, employ part-time or full-time employees, and do all things reasonably necessary and convenient in carrying out the purposes of this section. Reimbursement for expenses incurred shall be made pursuant to the rules governing state employees.~~

Sec. 145. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 175A.07, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [PERSONNEL.] The judges of the workers' compensation court of appeals shall appoint in the manner provided by law all personnel required by the workers' compensation court of appeals. Law clerks are in the unclassified service. The commissioner of administration shall provide the court with necessary additional staff and administrative services, and the court shall reimburse the commissioner for the cost of these services.

Sec. 146. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 176.611, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [STATE DEPARTMENTS.] Every department of the state, including the University of Minnesota, shall reimburse the fund for money paid for the administration of its claims and the costs of administering the revolving fund at such times and in such amounts as the commissioner of the department of labor and industry shall certify has been paid out of the fund on its behalf. The heads of the departments shall anticipate these payments by including them in their budgets. In addition, the commissioner of labor and industry, with the approval of the commissioner of finance, may require an agency to make advance payments to the fund sufficient to cover the agency's estimated obligation for a period of at least 60 days. Reimbursements and other money received by the commissioner of labor and industry under this subdivision must be credited to the state compensation revolving fund.

Sec. 147. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 176.611, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 3a. [LOANS.] To maintain an ongoing balance sufficient to pay sums currently due for benefits and administrative costs, the commissioner of finance, upon request of the commissioner of labor and industry, may transfer money from the general fund to the state compensation revolving fund. Before requesting the transfer, the commissioner of labor and industry must decide there is not enough money in the fund for an immediate, necessary expenditure. The amount necessary to make the transfer is appropriated from the general fund to the commissioner of finance. The commissioner of labor and industry shall make schedules to repay the transferred money to the general fund. The repayment may not extend beyond five years.

Sec. 148. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 176.611, subdivision 6a, is amended to read:

Subd. 6a. [APPROPRIATIONS CONSTITUTING FUND.] There is hereby appropriated from the general fund in the state treasury to the state compensation revolving fund the sum of $967,690 to be used to pay claims of employees of the state. This appropriation together with the sum of $74,013.12 heretofore appropriated from the trunk highway fund and $2,395,986.88 heretofore appropriated from the general fund totals $3,437,690 and constitutes The revolving fund consists of $3,437,690 appropriated from the general fund and other funds.

Sec. 149. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 179A.03, subdivision 17, is amended to read:

Subd. 17. [SUPERVISORY EMPLOYEE.] "Supervisory employee" means a person who has the authority to undertake a majority of the following supervisory functions in the interests of the employer: hiring, transfer, suspension, promotion, discharge, assignment, reward, or discipline of other employees, direction of the work of other employees, or adjustment of other employees' grievances on behalf of the employer. To be included as a supervisory function which the person has authority to undertake, the exercise of the authority by the person may not be merely routine or clerical in nature but must require the use of independent judgment. An employee, other than an essential employee, who has authority to effectively recommend a supervisory function, is deemed to have authority to undertake that supervisory function for the purposes of this subdivision. The administrative head of a municipality, municipal utility, or police or fire department, and the administrative head's assistant, are always considered supervisory employees. A determination that a person is or is not a "supervisory employee" may be appealed to the public employment relations board court of appeals.

The removal of employees by the employer from nonsupervisory bargaining units for the purpose of designating the employees as "supervisory employees" shall require either the prior written agreement of the exclusive representative and the written approval of the director or a separate determination by the director before the redesignation is effective.

Sec. 150. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 179A.04, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [OTHER DUTIES.] The director shall:

(a) provide mediation services as requested by the parties until the parties reach agreement. The director may continue to assist parties after they have submitted their final positions for interest arbitration;

(b) issue notices, subpoenas, and orders required by law to carry out duties under sections 179A.01 to 179A.25;

(c) certify to the board items of dispute between parties subject to action of the board the issues subject to arbitration under section 179A.16;

(d) assist the parties in formulating petitions, notices, and other papers required to be filed with the director ~~or the board~~;

(e) certify the final results of any election or other voting procedure conducted under sections 179A.01 to 179A.25;

(f) adopt rules regulating the forms of petitions, notices, and orders; and the conduct of hearings and elections;

(g) receive, catalogue, and file ~~all orders and decisions of the board~~, all decisions of arbitration panels authorized by sections 179A.01 to 179A.25, all grievance arbitration decisions, and the director's orders and decisions. All orders and decisions catalogued and filed shall be readily available to the public;

(h) adopt, subject to chapter 14, a grievance procedure to fulfill the purposes of section 179A.20, subdivision 4. The grievance procedure shall not provide for the services of the bureau of mediation services. The grievance procedure shall be available to any employee in a unit not covered by a contractual grievance procedure;

(i) conduct elections;

(j) maintain a schedule of state employee classifications or positions assigned to each unit established in section 179A.10, subdivision 2;

(k) collect such fees as are established by rule for empanelment of persons on the labor arbitrator roster maintained by the director or in conjunction with fair share fee challenges;

(l) maintain a list of names of individuals qualified by experience and training in the field of labor relations to serve as arbitrators of interest and grievance disputes, including, to the extent possible, qualified individuals from various geographic areas of the state; and

(m) refer the names of qualified arbitrators to the parties in a labor dispute, upon request or pursuant to section 179A.16, subdivision 4.

Sec. 151. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 179A.13, is amended to read:

179A.13 [UNFAIR LABOR PRACTICES.]

Subdivision 1. [ACTIONS.] The practices specified in this section are unfair labor practices. Any employee, employer, employee or employer organization, exclusive representative, or any other person or organization aggrieved by an unfair labor practice as defined in this section may bring an action for injunctive relief and for damages caused by the unfair labor practice in the district court of the county in which the practice is alleged to have occurred.

Subd. 2. [EMPLOYERS.] Public employers, their agents and representatives are prohibited from:

(1) interfering, restraining, or coercing employees in the exercise of the rights guaranteed in sections 179A.01 to 179A.25;

(2) dominating or interfering with the formation, existence, or administration of any employee organization or contributing other support to it;

(3) discriminating in regard to hire or tenure to encourage or discourage membership in an employee organization;

(4) discharging or otherwise discriminating against an employee because the employee has signed or filed an affidavit, petition, or complaint or given any information or testimony under sections 179A.01 to 179A.25;

(5) refusing to meet and negotiate in good faith with the exclusive representative of its employees in an appropriate unit;

(6) refusing to comply with grievance procedures contained in an agreement;

(7) distributing or circulating any blacklist of individuals exercising any legal right or of members of a labor organization for the purpose of preventing blacklisted individuals from obtaining or retaining employment;

(8) violating rules established by the director regulating the conduct of representation elections;

(9) refusing to comply with a valid decision of a binding arbitration panel or arbitrator;

(10) violating or refusing to comply with any lawful order or decision issued by the director or the board; or

(11) refusing to provide, upon the request of the exclusive representative, all information pertaining to the public employer's budget both present and proposed, revenues and other financing information. In the executive branch of state government, this clause shall not be considered contrary to the budgetary requirements of sections 16A.10 and 16A.11.

Subd. 3. [EMPLOYEES.] Employee organizations, their agents or representatives, and public employees are prohibited from:

(1) restraining or coercing employees in the exercise of rights provided in sections 179A.01 to 179A.25;

(2) restraining or coercing a public employer in the election of representatives to be employed to meet and negotiate or to adjust grievances;

(3) refusing to meet and negotiate in good faith with a public employer, if the employee organization is the exclusive representative of employees in an appropriate unit;

(4) violating rules established by the director regulating the conduct of representation elections;

(5) refusing to comply with a valid decision of an arbitration panel or arbitrator;

(6) calling, instituting, maintaining, or conducting a strike or boycott against any public employer on account of any jurisdictional controversy;

(7) coercing or restraining any person with the effect to:

(a) force or require any public employer to cease dealing or doing business with any other person or;

(b) force or require a public employer to recognize for representation purposes an employee organization not certified by the director;

(c) refuse to handle goods or perform services;

(d) preventing an employee from providing services to the employer;

(8) committing any act designed to damage or actually damaging physical property or endangering the safety of persons while engaging in a strike;

(9) forcing or requiring any employer to assign particular work to employees in a particular employee organization or in a particular trade, craft, or class rather than to employees in another employee organization or in another trade, craft, or class;

(10) causing or attempting to cause a public employer to pay or deliver or agree to pay or deliver any money or other thing of value, in the nature of an exaction, for services which are not performed or not to be performed;

(11) engaging in an unlawful strike;

(12) picketing which has an unlawful purpose such as secondary boycott;

(13) picketing which unreasonably interferes with the ingress and egress to facilities of the public employer;

(14) seizing or occupying or destroying property of the employer;

(15) violating or refusing to comply with any lawful order or decision issued by the director ~~or the board~~.

Sec. 152. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 179A.16, is amended to read:

179A.16 [INTEREST ARBITRATION.]

Subdivision 1. [NONESENTIAL EMPLOYEES.] An exclusive representative or an employer may petition the director for interest arbitration. For all public employees except those specified in subdivision 2, the director shall certify a matter ~~to the board~~ for binding interest arbitration if:

(a) the director has determined that further mediation would serve no purpose and has certified an impasse, or impasse has occurred because the exclusive representative and the employer have participated in mediation for the period required in section 179A.18, subdivisions 1 and 2, and the collective bargaining agreement has expired; and

(b) within 15 days of a request by one party for binding arbitration the other party has accepted the request. A request for arbitration is rejected if the other party has not responded within 15 days of the request.

Subd. 2. [ESSENTIAL EMPLOYEES.] For essential employees the director shall only certify a matter ~~to the board~~ for binding arbitration if either or both parties petition for binding arbitration stating that an impasse has been reached, and the director has determined that further mediation would serve no purpose.

Subd. 3. [PROCEDURE.] Within 15 days from the time the director certifies a matter ~~to the board~~ for binding arbitration the parties shall submit their final positions on matters not agreed upon. The director shall determine the matters not agreed upon based on the positions submitted by the parties and the director's efforts to mediate the dispute. The parties may stipulate items to be excluded from arbitration.

Subd. 4. [CONSTRUCTION SELECTION OF ARBITRATION PANEL.] ~~The board director shall provide the parties to the interest arbitration a list of seven arbitrators. In submitting names of arbitrators to the parties, the board shall try to include names of persons from the, attempting, to the extent reasonable, to include~~ arbitrators who reside in the general geographical area in which the public employer is located. Within 14 calendar days after receipt of the list, the parties shall, under the direction of the chair of the board, alternately strike delete names from the list of arbitrators provided by the director until only three names remain, or if requested by either party, until only a single arbitrator name remains. The arbitrator or arbitrators remaining on the list shall constitute the arbitration panel for the dispute. If the parties are unable to agree on who shall strike delete the first name, the question shall be decided by the flip of a coin. The arbitrator or arbitrators remaining after the striking procedure constitute the arbitration panel.

Subd. 5. [JURISDICTION OF THE PANEL.] The arbitration panel selected by the parties has jurisdiction over the items of dispute certified to ~~and submitted~~ arbitration by the ~~board~~ director. However, the panel has no jurisdiction or authority to entertain any matter or issue that is not a term and condition of employment, unless the matter or issue was included in the employer's final position. Any order or part of an order issued by a panel which determines a matter or issue which is not a term or condition of employment and was not included in the employer's final position is void and of no effect. A decision of the panel which violates, is in conflict with, or causes a penalty to be incurred under: (1) the laws of Minnesota; or (2) rules promulgated under law, or municipal charters, ordinances, or resolutions, provided that the rules, charters, ordinances, and resolutions are consistent with this chapter, has no force or effect and shall be returned to the arbitrator to make it consistent with the laws, rules, charters, ordinances, or resolutions.

Subd. 6. [POWERS OF THE PANEL.] The arbitration panel may issue subpoenas requiring the attendance and testimony of witnesses and the production of evidence which relates to any matter involved in any dispute before it. The panel may administer oaths and affidavits and may examine witnesses. Attendance of witnesses and the production of evidence may be required from any place in the state at any hearing. However, the panel's meeting shall be held in the county where the principal administrative offices of the employer are located, unless another location is selected by agreement of the parties. In case of refusal to obey a subpoena issued under this section, the district court of the state for the county where the proceeding is pending or where the person who refuses to obey is found, or resides, or transacts business shall, on application of the panel, have jurisdiction to issue an order requiring the person to appear before the panel, to produce evidence, or to give testimony. Failure to obey the order may be punished by the court as a contempt.

Subd. 7. [DECISION BY THE PANEL.] The panel's order shall be issued by a majority vote of its members. The order shall resolve the issues in dispute between the parties as submitted by the board as certified to arbitration by the director. For principals and assistant principals, the panel shall be restricted to selecting between the final offers of the parties on each impasse item. For other employees, if the parties agree in writing, the panel shall be restricted to selecting between the final offers of the parties on each impasse item, or the final offer of one or the other parties in its entirety. In considering a dispute and issuing its order, the panel shall consider the statutory rights and obligations of public employers to efficiently manage and conduct their operations within the legal limitations surrounding the financing of these operations. The panel's decision and order shall be final and binding on all parties.

The panel shall render its order within ten days from the date that all arbitration proceedings have concluded. However, the panel must issue its order by the last date the employer is required by statute, charter, ordinance, or resolution to submit its tax levy or budget or certify its taxes voted to the appropriate public officer, agency, public body or office, or by November 1, whichever date is earlier. The panel's order shall be for the period stated in the order, except that orders determining contracts for teacher units shall be effective to the end of the contract period determined by section 179A.20.

The panel shall send its decision and orders to ~~the board, the director, the appropriate representative of the public employer, and the employees.~~ If any issues submitted to arbitration are settled voluntarily before the arbitrator issues a decision, the arbitrator shall report the settlement to ~~the board and the director.~~

The parties may at any time prior to or after issuance of an order of the arbitration panel, agree upon terms and conditions of employment regardless of the terms and conditions of employment determined by the order. The parties shall, if so agreeing, execute a written contract or memorandum of contract.

Subd. 8. [PAYMENT OF THE PANEL.] The members of the panel shall be paid actual and necessary traveling and other expenses incurred in the performance of their duties plus an allowance of $180 for each day or part of a day spent considering a dispute. All costs of the panel shall be shared equally by the parties to the dispute.

Sec. 153. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 179A.21, is amended to read:

179A.21 [GRIEVANCE ARBITRATION.]

Subdivision 1. [DEFINITION.] For purposes of this section, "grievance" means a dispute or disagreement as to the interpretation or application of any term or terms of any contract required by section 179A.20.

Subd. 2. [SELECTION.] If the parties to a contract cannot agree upon an arbitrator or arbitrators as provided by the contract grievance procedures or the procedures established by the director, the parties shall, ~~under direction of the board,~~ alternately ~~strike~~ delete names from a list of five arbitrators ~~selected by the board~~ furnished by the director until only one name remains. This arbitrator shall decide the grievance and the decision is binding upon the parties. The parties shall share equally the costs and fees of the arbitrator.

Subd. 3. [LIMITS.] Arbitration decisions authorized or required by a grievance procedure are subject to the limitations contained in section 179A.16, subdivision 5. The arbitrator shall send the ~~board~~ and the director a copy of each grievance arbitration decision and any written explanation. If any issues submitted to arbitration are settled voluntarily before the arbitrator issues a decision, the arbitrator shall report the settlement to the ~~board and the director.~~

Sec. 154. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 179A.25, is amended to read:

179A.25 [INDEPENDENT REVIEW.]

It is the public policy of the state of Minnesota that every public employee should be provided with the right of independent review, by a disinterested person or agency, of any grievance arising out of the interpretation of or adherence to terms and conditions of employment. When such review is not provided under statutory, charter, or ordinance provisions for a civil service or merit system, the governmental agency may provide for such review consistent with the provisions of law or charter. If no other procedure exists for the independent review of such grievances, the employee may present the grievance to the public employment relations panel director under procedures established by the board director.

Sec. 155. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 197.481, subdivision 5, is amended to read:

Subd. 5. [PERSONNEL.] The commissioner may appoint a hearing officer to act in the commissioner's place and to employ such other personnel as are necessary to investigate facts in cases brought under this section. The affected political subdivision must bear all costs incurred by the commissioner under this section.

Sec. 156. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 204B.11, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [AMOUNT.] Except as provided by subdivision 2, a filing fee shall be paid by each candidate who files an affidavit of candidacy. The fee shall be paid at the time the affidavit is filed. The amount of the filing fee shall vary with the office sought as follows:

(a) for the office of governor, lieutenant governor, attorney general, state auditor, state treasurer, secretary of state, representative in congress, judge of the supreme court, judge of the court of appeals, judge of the district court, or judge of the county municipal court of Hennepin county, ~~$150~~ $175;

(b) for the office of senator in congress, ~~$200~~ $225;

(c) for office of senator or representative in the legislature, ~~$50~~ $75;

(d) for a county office, $50; and

(e) for the office of soil and water conservation district supervisor, $20.

For the office of presidential elector, and for those offices for which no compensation is provided, no filing fee is required.

The filing fees received by the county auditor shall immediately be paid to the county treasurer. The filing fees received by the secretary of state shall immediately be paid to the state treasurer.

When an affidavit of candidacy has been filed with the appropriate filing officer and the requisite filing fee has been paid, the filing fee shall not be refunded.

Sec. 157. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 221.67, is amended to read:

221.67 [SERVICE OF PROCESS.]

The use of any of the public highways of this state for the transportation of persons or property for compensation by a motor carrier in interstate commerce shall be deemed an irrevocable appointment by the carrier of the secretary of state to be the carrier's true and lawful attorney upon whom may be served all legal process in any action or proceeding brought under this chapter against the carrier or the carrier's executor, administrator, personal representative, heirs, successors or assigns. This use is a signification of agreement by the interstate motor carrier that any process in any action against the carrier or the carrier's executor, administrator, personal representative, heirs, successors, or assigns which is so served shall be of the same legal force and validity as if served upon the carrier personally. Service shall be made by serving a copy thereof upon the secretary of state or by filing a copy in the office of the secretary of state, together with payment of a fee of ~~$15~~ $20, and the service shall be sufficient service upon the absent motor carrier if notice of the service and a copy of the process are within ten days thereafter sent by mail by the plaintiff to the defendant at the defendant's last known address and the plaintiff's affidavit of compliance with the provisions of this section and sections 221.60, 221.65, and 221.68 is attached to the summons.

Sec. 158. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 271.01, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 1a. [RETIRED JUDGES.] Upon the retirement of a judge of the tax court or the district court, the chief judge of the tax court may, with the retired judge's consent, assign the retired judge to hear any case properly assignable to a judge of the tax court and to act on it with the full powers of a judge of the tax court. A retired judge performing this service shall receive pay and expenses in the amount and manner provided by law for judges serving on the court, less the amount of retirement pay the judge is receiving under chapter 352 or 490.

Sec. 159. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 273.1314, subdivision 16a, is amended to read:

Subd. 16a. [ZONE BOUNDARY REALIGNMENT.] The commissioner may approve specific applications by a municipality to amend the boundaries of a zone or of an area or areas designated pursuant to subdivision 9, paragraph (e) at any time. Boundaries of a zone may not be amended to create noncontiguous subdivisions. If the commissioner approves the amended boundaries, the change is effective on the date of approval. Notwithstanding the area limitation under section 273.1312, subdivision 4, paragraph (b), the commissioner may approve a specific application to amend the boundaries of an enterprise zone which is located within five municipalities and was designated in 1984, to increase its area to not more than 800 acres, and may approve an additional specific application to amend the boundaries of that enterprise zone to include a sixth municipality or to further increase its area to include all or part of the territory of a town that surrounds one of the five municipalities, or both.

Notwithstanding the area limitation under section 273.1312, subdivision 4, paragraph (b), the commissioner may approve a specific application to amend the boundaries of an enterprise zone that is located within four municipalities to include a fifth municipality. The addition of the fifth municipality may only be approved after the existing municipalities, by adoption of a resolution by each municipality's governing board, agree to the addition of the fifth municipality.

Sec. 160. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 296.16, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [INTENT.] All gasoline received in this state and all gasoline produced in or brought into this state except aviation gasoline and marine gasoline shall be determined to be intended for use in motor vehicles in this state.

Approximately ~~three-fourths~~ of one and one-half percent of all gasoline received in this state and ~~three-fourths of one and one-half~~ percent of all gasoline produced or brought into this state, except gasoline used for aviation purposes, is being used as fuel for the operation of motorboats on the waters of this state and of the total revenue derived from the imposition of the gasoline fuel tax for uses other than for aviation purposes, ~~three-fourths of one and one-half~~ percent of such revenues is the amount of tax on fuel used in motorboats operated on the waters of this state.

Approximately three-fourths of one percent of all gasoline received in and produced or brought into this state, except gasoline used for aviation purposes, is being used as fuel for the operation of snowmobiles in this state, and of the total revenue derived from the imposition of the gasoline fuel tax for uses other than for aviation purposes, three-fourths of one percent of such revenues is the amount of tax on fuel used in snowmobiles operated in this state.

Approximately 0.15 of one percent of all gasoline received in or produced or brought into this state, except gasoline used for aviation purposes, is being used for the operation of all-terrain vehicles in this state, and of the total revenue derived from the imposition of the gasoline fuel tax, 0.15 of one percent is the amount of tax on fuel used in all-terrain vehicles operated in this state.

Sec. 161. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 296.421, subdivision 5, is amended to read:

Subd. 5. [COMPUTATION OF UNREFUNDED TAX.] The amount of unrefunded tax shall be a sum equal to ~~three-fourths of one percent~~ one and one-half percent of all revenues derived from the excise taxes on gasoline, except on gasoline used for aviation purposes, together with interest thereon and penalties for delinquency in payment, paid or collected pursuant to the provisions of sections 296.02 to 296.17. The amount of such tax shall be computed for each six-month period commencing January 1, 1961, and shall be paid into the state treasury on November 1 and June 1 following each six-month period.

Sec. 162. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 302A.011, subdivision 11, is amended to read:

Subd. 11. [FILED WITH THE SECRETARY OF STATE.] "Filed with the secretary of state" means that an original of a document meeting the applicable requirements of this chapter, signed, and acknowledged or verified in the manner provided in chapter 358, and accompanied by a filing fee of $15 $20, has been delivered to the secretary of state of this state. The secretary of state shall endorse on the original the word "Filed" and the month, day, year, and time of filing, record the document in the office of the secretary of state, and return the document to the person who delivered it for filing.

Sec. 163. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 302A.153, is amended to read:

302A.153 [EFFECTIVE DATE OF ARTICLES.]

Articles of incorporation are effective and corporate existence begins when the articles of incorporation are filed with the secretary of state accompanied by a payment of ~~$85~~ $115, which includes a ~~$70~~ $90 incorporation fee in addition to the ~~$15~~ $25 filing fee required by section 302A.011, subdivision 11. Articles of amendment and articles of merger are effective when filed with the secretary of state or at another time within 30 days after filing if the articles of amendment so provide. Articles of merger shall be accompanied by a fee of $50 which includes a $30 merger fee in addition to the $20 filing fee required by section 302A.011, subdivision 11.

Sec. 164. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 303.13, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [FOREIGN CORPORATION.] A foreign corporation shall be subject to service of process, as follows:

(1) By service on its registered agent;

(2) When any foreign corporation authorized to transact business in this state fails to appoint or maintain in this state a registered agent upon whom service of process may be had, or whenever any registered agent cannot be found at its registered office in this state, as shown by the return of the sheriff of the county in which the registered office is situated, or by an affidavit of attempted service by any person not a party, or whenever any corporation withdraws from the state, or whenever the certificate of authority of any foreign corporation is revoked or canceled, service may be made by delivering to and leaving with the secretary of state, or with any deputy or clerk in the corporation department of the secretary of state's office, three copies thereof and a fee of ~~$15~~ $20; provided, that after a foreign corporation withdraws from the state, pursuant to section 303.16, service upon the corporation may be made pursuant to the provisions of this section only when based upon a liability or obligation of the corporation incurred within this state or arising out of any business done in this state by the corporation prior to the issuance of a certificate of withdrawal.

(3) If a foreign corporation makes a contract with a resident of Minnesota to be performed in whole or in part by either party in Minnesota, or if a foreign corporation commits a tort in whole or in part in Minnesota against a resident of Minnesota, such acts shall be deemed to be doing business in Minnesota by the foreign corporation and shall be deemed equivalent to the appointment by the foreign corporation of the secretary of the state of Minnesota and successors to be its true and lawful attorney upon whom may be served all lawful process in any actions or proceedings against the foreign corporation arising from or growing out of the contract or tort. Process shall be served in duplicate upon the secretary of state, together with a fee of ~~$15~~ $20 and the secretary of state shall mail one copy thereof to the corporation at its last known address, and the corporation shall have 30 days within which to answer from the date of the mailing, notwithstanding any other provision of the law. The making of the contract or the committing of the tort shall be deemed to be the agreement of the foreign corporation that any process against it which is so served upon the secretary of state shall be of the same legal force and effect as if served personally on it within the state of Minnesota.

Sec. 165. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 303.21, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [OTHER INSTRUMENTS.] A fee of $20 shall be paid to the secretary of state for filing any instrument other than the annual report required by section 303.14, required or permitted to be filed under the provisions of this chapter. The fee For filing the annual report, a fee of $30 shall be paid to the secretary of state. All fees shall be paid at the time of the filing of the instrument.

Sec. 166. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 317.67, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. The secretary of state shall collect a fee of ~~$15~~ $20 for filing any instrument that is required to be filed under this chapter.

Sec. 167. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 322A.16, is amended to read:

322A.16 [FILING IN OFFICE OF SECRETARY OF STATE.]

(a) A signed copy of the certificate of limited partnership, of any certificates of amendment or cancellation or of any judicial decree of amendment or cancellation shall be delivered to the secretary of state. A person who executes a certificate as an agent or fiduciary need not exhibit evidence of the executor's authority as a prerequisite to filing. Unless the secretary of state finds that any certificate does not conform to law, upon receipt of a ~~$10~~ $20 filing fee and, in the case of a certificate of limited partnership, a $50 initial fee, the secretary shall:

(1) endorse on the original the word "Filed" and the day, month and year of the filing; and

(2) return the original to the person who filed it or a representative.

(b) Upon the filing of a certificate of amendment or judicial decree of amendment in the office of the secretary of state, the certificate of limited partnership shall be amended as set forth in the amendment, and upon the effective date of a certificate of cancellation or a judicial decree of it, the certificate of limited partnership is canceled.

Sec. 168. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 322A.71, is amended to read:

322A.71 [ISSUANCE OF REGISTRATION.]

(a) If the secretary of state finds that an application for registration conforms to law and a ~~$10~~ $20 filing fee and a $50 initial registration fee has been paid, the secretary shall:

(1) endorse on the application the word "Filed," and the month, day and year of the filing thereof;

(2) file a duplicate original of the application; and

(3) issue a certificate of registration to transact business in this state.

(b) The certificate of registration, together with a duplicate original of the application, shall be returned to the person who filed the application or a representative of that person.

Sec. 169. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 330.11, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. Every nonresident applicant shall file an irrevocable consent that suits and actions may be commenced against such applicant in any court of competent jurisdiction in this state by the service on the secretary of state of any summons, process, or pleadings authorized by the laws of the state of Minnesota. This consent shall stipulate that the service of such process or pleadings on the secretary of state shall be taken and held in all courts to be as valid and binding as if due service had been made upon the applicant in the state of Minnesota. In case any summons, process, or pleadings are served upon the secretary of state, it shall be by duplicate copies, one of which shall be retained in the office of the secretary of state, and the other to be forwarded immediately by certified mail to the address of the applicant, as shown by the records of the secretary of state, against whom the summons, process, or pleadings may be divested. A fee of $20 shall be paid to the secretary of state for each service.

Sec. 170. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 333.055, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. The secretary of state shall charge and collect:

(a) For the filing of each certificate or amended certificate of an assumed name - $15

(b) Certificate renewal fee - ~~$6~~ $10.

Sec. 171. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 363.05, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [FORMULATION OF POLICIES.] The ~~commissioner~~ attorney general shall formulate policies to effectuate the purposes of this chapter and shall:

(1) Exercise leadership ~~under the direction of the governor~~ in the development of human rights policies and programs, and make recommendations to the governor and the legislature for their consideration and implementation;

(2) cooperate and consult with appropriate commissioners and agencies in developing plans and programs to most effectively serve the needs of Indians, to assist women and to fulfill the purposes of this chapter;

(3) establish and maintain a ~~principal office in St. Paul, and any other~~ necessary branch offices at any location within the state;

(4) meet and function at any place within the state;

(5) employ such hearing examiners, attorneys, clerks and other employees and agents as the commissioner may deem necessary and prescribe their duties;

(6) to the extent permitted by federal law and regulation, utilize the records of the department of jobs and training of the state when necessary to effectuate the purposes of this chapter;

(7) obtain upon request and utilize the services of all state governmental departments and agencies;

(8) adopt suitable rules for effectuating the purposes of this chapter;

(9) issue complaints, receive and investigate charges alleging unfair discriminatory practices, and determine whether or not probable cause exists for hearing;

(10) subpoena witnesses, administer oaths, take testimony, and require the production for examination of any books or papers relative to any matter under investigation or in question; authorize hearing examiners to exercise the authority conferred by this clause;

(11) attempt, by means of education, conference, conciliation, and persuasion to eliminate unfair discriminatory practices as being contrary to the public policy of the state;

(12) conduct research and study discriminatory practices;

(13) publish and distribute the results of research and study when in the judgment of the ~~commissioner~~ attorney general the purposes of this chapter, will be served thereby;

(14) develop and conduct programs of formal and informal education designed to eliminate discrimination and intergroup conflict by use of educational techniques and programs the ~~commissioner~~ attorney general deems necessary;

(15) make a written report of the activities of the ~~commissioner~~ under this chapter to the governor each year and to the legislature by November 15 of each even-numbered year;

(16) accept gifts, bequests, grants or other payments public and private to help finance the activities of the ~~department~~ this chapter;

(17) create such local and statewide advisory committees as will in the ~~commissioner's~~ attorney general's judgment aid in effectuating the purposes of the ~~department of human rights~~ this chapter;

(18) appoint a hearing examiner to preside at a public hearing on any complaint;

(19) develop such programs as will aid in determining the compliance throughout the state with the provisions of this chapter, and in the furtherance of such duties, conduct research and study discriminatory practices based upon race, color, creed, religion, national origin, sex, age, disability, marital status, status with regard to public assistance, familial status, or other factors and develop accurate data on the nature and extent of discrimination and other matters as they may affect housing, employment, public accommodations, schools, and other areas of public life;

(20) develop and disseminate technical assistance to persons subject to the provisions of this chapter, and to agencies and officers of governmental and private agencies;

(21) provide staff services to ~~such~~ advisory committees as may be created ~~in aid of the functions of the department of human rights~~;

(22) make grants in aid to the extent that appropriations are made available for that purpose in aid of carrying out duties and responsibilities; but no grant in aid shall be made without first obtaining the advice and consent of the board;

(23) develop educational programs, community organization programs, leadership development programs, motivational programs, and business development programs for the benefit of those persons theretofore and hereafter subject to prejudice and discrimination;

(24) provide information for and direction to a program designed to assist Indian citizens to assume all the rights, privileges, and duties of citizenship; and to coordinate and cooperate with local, state and national and private agencies providing services to the Indian people; and

(25) cooperate and consult with the commissioner of labor and industry regarding the investigation of violations of, and resolution of complaints regarding section 363.03, subdivision 9.

Sec. 172. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 363.071, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [DETERMINATION OF DISCRIMINATORY PRACTICE.] The hearing examiner shall make findings of fact and conclusions of law, and if the hearing examiner finds that the respondent has engaged in an unfair discriminatory practice, the hearing examiner shall issue an order directing the respondent to cease and desist from the unfair discriminatory practice found to exist and to take such affirmative action as in the judgment of the examiner will effectuate the purposes of this chapter. Such order shall be a final decision of the department attorney general. The examiner shall order any respondent found to be in violation of any provision of section 363.03 to pay a civil penalty to the state. This penalty is in addition to compensatory and punitive damages to be paid to an aggrieved party. The hearing examiner shall determine the amount of the civil penalty to be paid, taking into account the seriousness and extent of the violation, the public harm occasioned by the violation, whether the violation was intentional, and the financial resources of the respondent. Any penalties imposed under this provision shall be paid into the general fund of the state. In all cases where the examiner finds that the respondent has engaged in an unfair discriminatory practice the examiner shall order the respondent to pay an aggrieved party, who has suffered discrimination, compensatory damages in an amount up to three times the actual damages sustained. In all cases, the examiner may also order the respondent to pay an aggrieved party, who has suffered discrimination, damages for mental anguish or suffering and reasonable attorney's fees, in addition to punitive damages in an amount not more than $6,000. Punitive damages shall be awarded pursuant to section 549.20. In any case where a political subdivision is a respondent the total of punitive damages awarded an aggrieved party may not exceed $6,000 and in that case if there are two or more respondents the punitive damages may be apportioned among them. Punitive damages may only be assessed against a political subdivision in its capacity as a corporate entity and no regular or ex officio member of a governing body of a political subdivision shall be personally liable for payment of punitive damages pursuant to this subdivision. In addition to the aforesaid remedies, in a case involving discrimination in

(a) employment, the examiner may order the hiring, reinstatement or upgrading of an aggrieved party, who has suffered discrimination, with or without back pay, admission or restoration to membership in a labor organization, or admission to or participation in an apprenticeship training program, on-the-job training program, or other retraining program, or any other relief the examiner deems just and equitable.

(b) housing, the examiner may order the sale, lease, or rental of the housing accommodation or other real property to an aggrieved party, who has suffered discrimination, or the sale, lease or rental of a like accommodation or other real property owned by or under the control of the person against whom the complaint was filed, according to terms as listed with a real estate broker, or if no such listing has been made, as otherwise advertised or offered by the vendor or lessor, or any other relief the examiner deems just and equitable.

The examiner shall cause the findings of fact, conclusions of law, and order to be served on the respondent personally, the charging party by registered or certified mail, and shall furnish copies to the attorney general and the commissioner.

Sec. 173. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 363.14, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [COURT ACTIONS, SUITS BY PRIVATE PARTIES, INTERVENTION.] A person may bring a civil action seeking redress for an unfair discriminatory practice:

(a) Directly to district court; or

(b) Notwithstanding the provisions of any law to the contrary, (1) within 45 days after the ~~commissioner~~ attorney general has dismissed a charge because it is frivolous or without merit, because the charging party has failed to provide required information, because the ~~commissioner~~ attorney general has determined that further use of ~~department~~ the attorney general's resources is not warranted, or because the ~~commissioner~~ attorney general has determined that there is no probable cause to credit the allegations contained in a charge filed with the ~~commissioner~~ attorney general; (2) within 45 days after the ~~commissioner~~ attorney general has reaffirmed a determination of no probable cause if the charging party requested a reconsideration of the probable cause determination; or (3) after 45 days from the filing of a charge pursuant to section 363.06, subdivision 1 if a hearing has not been held pursuant to section 363.071 or if the ~~commissioner~~ attorney general has not entered into a conciliation agreement to which the charging party is a signator. The charging party shall notify the ~~commissioner~~ attorney general of an intention to bring a civil action, which shall be commenced within 90 days of giving the notice.

(e) ~~The commissioner may dismiss, without prejudice to the charging party, any case filed with the department on or before June 30, 1978. The commissioner shall notify a charging party by regular mail sent before August 1, 1981, of the right to bring a civil action pursuant to this section. Upon giving this notice the commissioner shall end all proceedings in the department relating to the charge. Notwithstanding any statutory period of limitation to the contrary, an individual notified pursuant to this clause may bring a civil action relating to the charge; provided that the action is filed on or before February 1, 1982.~~

A charging party bringing a civil action shall mail by registered or certified mail a copy of the summons and complaint to the ~~commissioner~~ attorney general, and upon their receipt the ~~commissioner~~ attorney general shall terminate all proceedings in the department relating to the charge. No charge shall be filed or reinstated with the ~~commissioner~~ attorney general after a civil action relating to the same unfair discriminatory practice has been brought unless the civil action has been dismissed without prejudice.

Upon application by the complaining party to the district court at a special term and under circumstances the court deems just, the court may appoint an attorney for the person and may authorize the commencement of the action without payment of fees, costs, or security.

Upon timely application, the court may permit the ~~department~~ attorney general to intervene in a civil action brought pursuant to this section upon certification that the case is of general public importance.

Sec. 174. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 403.11, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [EMERGENCY TELEPHONE SERVICE FEE.] (a) Each customer of a local exchange company is assessed a fee to cover the costs of ongoing maintenance and related improvements for trunking and central office switching equipment for minimum 911 emergency telephone service, plus administrative and staffing costs of the department of administration related to managing the 911 emergency telephone service program.

(b) The fee may not be less than eight cents nor more than 30 cents a month for each customer access line, including trunk equivalents as designated by the public utilities commission for access charge purposes. The fee must be the same for all customers.

(c) The fee must be collected by each utility providing local exchange telephone service. Fees are payable to and must be submitted to the commissioner of administration monthly before the 25th of each month following the month of collection, except that fees may be submitted quarterly if less than $250 a month is due, or annually if less than $25 a month is due. Receipts must be deposited in the state treasury and credited to a 911 emergency telephone service account in the special revenue fund and are appropriated to the commissioner of administration to pay the costs of the program.

(d) The commissioner of administration, with the approval of the commissioner of finance, shall establish the amount of the fee within the limits specified and inform the utilities of the amount to be collected. Utilities must be given a minimum of 45 days notice of fee changes.

Sec. 175. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 462A.05, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 25. [GRANTS FOR HOUSING FOR VERY LOW INCOME PERSONS LIVING ALONE.] The agency may make grants for residential housing to be used by very low income persons living alone whose annual gross income does not exceed 150 percent of the poverty line as updated by the United States Office of Management and Budget. The grants may be made to cities, joint powers boards established by two or more cities, housing and redevelopment authorities created under sections 462.415 to 462.705, or nonprofit entities as defined by the agency. The occupants of the residential housing must be offered a written lease that complies with section 325G.31, offers the occupants the option to renew, and prohibits eviction of an occupant without good cause. Grants under this subdivision shall not exceed 50 percent of the development costs for the residential housing, and shall not be made for any residential housing that requires the occupants to accept board as well as lodging. In making grants, the agency shall determine the circumstances, terms, and conditions under which all or part of the grant will be repaid and the appropriate security if repayment is required.

Sec. 176. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 462A.21, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 4k. [HOUSING DEVELOPMENT FUND.] The agency may make grants for residential housing for very low income persons under section 174 from funds specifically appropriated by the legislature for that purpose and may pay the costs and expenses for the development and operation of the program.

Sec. 177. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 473.351, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 3. [RESTRICTION.] Any metropolitan area regional park receiving grant money for maintenance and operation costs must agree:

(1) to sell licenses, passes, or registrations required to engage in recreational activities appropriate to the park or the site of the park when a building on the park site is staffed and open to the public; and

(2) to provide drinking water supplies adequate for the recreational uses of the park. Each implementing agency must consult with groups representing users of its parks to determine the adequacy of drinking water supplies.

Sec. 178. [480.231] [SOFTWARE SALES.]

Subdivision 1. [AUTHORIZATION.] Notwithstanding any other law, the supreme court may sell or license self-developed or vendor custom-developed computer software products or systems through whatever sales method the supreme court, in its discretion, considers appropriate. Prices for the software products or systems may be based on market considerations. The court is given this authorization to fulfill the public purpose of offsetting its software development costs through the sale of products developed.

Subd. 2. [SOFTWARE SALE FUND.] Proceeds of the sale or licensing of software products or systems by the supreme court shall be deposited in a dedicated supreme court software sale fund. All interest earnings from investment of money in the fund shall be credited to the fund. The money in the fund never cancels and is available until expended.

Sec. 179. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 480.241, is amended to read:

480.241 [FILING FEE SURCHARGE IN CIVIL ACTIONS.]

Subdivision 1. [AMOUNT OF SURCHARGE; COLLECTION BY COURT ADMINISTRATORS.] A plaintiff, petitioner, defendant, respondent, intervenor or moving party in any district, county or municipal court civil action or civil proceeding in which an initial filing fee is payable by that party, except a marriage dissolution or conciliation court action, shall pay to the court administrator of district or county court or court administrator of the municipal courts of Hennepin county or Ramsey county a surcharge of $10 $20 in addition to the initial filing fee otherwise prescribed. A plaintiff, defendant or moving party in any conciliation court action in which an initial filing fee is payable shall pay to the court administrator of conciliation court a surcharge of $1 in addition to the initial filing fee otherwise prescribed. Notwithstanding any other law or rule to the contrary, no surcharge shall be paid by any governmental unit of the state of Minnesota, any local unit of government, or agency thereof, when the governmental unit, local government, or agency thereof is a party to any civil action or civil proceeding in the municipal courts of Hennepin or Ramsey counties, or in any county court.

Subd. 2. [TRANSMITTAL OF SURCHARGE TO SUPREME COURT.] Notwithstanding any other law or rule to the contrary, all surcharges collected pursuant to subdivision 1 shall be transmitted monthly by the district, county and conciliation court court administrators and municipal court administrators to the supreme court for deposit in a legal services account in the special revenue fund as follows:

(a) Between July 1, 1987, and June 30, 1989, one-half of the surcharges shall be deposited in a legal services account in the special revenue fund. Of the other one-half of the surcharges, between July 1, 1987, and June 30, 1989, 60 percent shall be deposited in a family farm legal assistance program account under section 480.250; the remaining surcharges collected between July 1, 1987, and June 30, 1989, shall be deposited in a software sale fund under section 480.235.

(b) After June 30, 1989, two-thirds of the surcharge shall be deposited in a legal services account in the special revenue fund and one-third shall be deposited in a software sale fund under section 480.235.

Sec. 180. [480.245] [JUDICIAL FEE IN CIVIL ACTIONS AND CONCILIATION COURTS.]

Subdivision 1. [AMOUNT OF FEE; COLLECTION BY COURT ADMINISTRATORS.] A plaintiff, petitioner, defendant, respondent, intervenor, or moving party in a civil action or civil proceeding in which an initial filing fee is payable by that party, except a marriage dissolution or conciliation court action, shall pay to the court administrator a judicial fee of $4 in addition to the civil surcharge and the initial filing fee otherwise prescribed under section 480.241. A plaintiff, defendant, or moving party in a conciliation court action in which an initial filing fee is payable shall pay to the court administrator a judicial fee of $1 in addition to the civil surcharge and the initial filing fee otherwise prescribed. The court administrator may waive the judicial fee authorized under this section if the party is indigent, or is a victim of a crime against a person and is seeking to enforce a restitution order against the perpetrator of the crime. Notwithstanding any other law or rule to the contrary, no fee must be paid by any governmental unit of the state of Minnesota, any local unit of government, or agency of those units, when the governmental unit, local government, or agency is a party to any civil action or civil proceeding.

Subd. 2. [TRANSMITTAL OF FUNDS.] All fees collected under subdivision 1 shall be paid to the state treasurer for deposit in the state general fund.

Sec. 181. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 480A.03, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [ADMINISTRATIVE AUTHORITY.] The chief judge, subject to the authority of the chief justice, shall appoint a three-member executive committee that shall exercise general administrative authority over the court. The chief judge executive committee shall make assignments of judges to serve on the panels of the court and shall designate the places at which the panels will hear arguments.

Sec. 182. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 480A.08, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [DECISIONS.] A decision shall be rendered in every case within 90 days after oral argument or after the final submission of briefs or memoranda by the parties, whichever is later. The chief justice or the chief judge may waive the 90-day limitation for any proceeding before the court of appeals for good cause shown. In every case, the decision of the court, including any and a written opinion containing a summary of the case and a statement of the reasons for its decision, shall be indexed and made readily available.

Sec. 183. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 480A.09, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [APPEALS.] Oral argument in appeals from trial courts shall may be heard:

(a) In appeals from trial courts in Hennepin and Ramsey counties, at a session of the court of appeals in Hennepin or Ramsey county.

(b) In appeals from trial courts in other counties, at a session of the court of appeals in the judicial district in which the county is located.

Sec. 184. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 480A.09, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [CERTIORARI.] Oral arguments on writs of certiorari to review decisions of the commissioner of jobs and training shall may be heard as provided in this subdivision.

(1) If the claimant for benefits is a real party in interest in the proceedings and resides in Hennepin or Ramsey county, in one of those counties;

(2) If the claimant for benefits is a real party in interest in the proceedings and resides elsewhere in the state, in the judicial district of the claimant's residence;

(3) Otherwise, at a place as designated by the appellate administrator.

Sec. 185. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 480A.09, subdivision 4, is amended to read:

Subd. 4. [PETITIONS FOR REVIEW.] Oral arguments on petitions to review decisions of administrative agencies in contested cases, pursuant to sections 14.63 to 14.68 shall may be heard:

(a) If the petitioner resides outside of Hennepin and Ramsey counties, but within Minnesota, either at the session of the court of appeals in Hennepin or Ramsey county, or at a session of the court of appeals in the judicial district in which the petitioner resides, as designated by the petitioner in the petition for review.

(b) If the petitioner resides in Hennepin or Ramsey counties, or outside of Minnesota, at a session of the court of appeals in Hennepin or Ramsey county.

Sec. 186. [481.011] [CLIENT SECURITY BOARD.]

Fees that are received under rules or orders adopted or made by the supreme court governing the client security fund shall be paid to the state treasurer and constitute a special fund in the state treasury. The money in the fund is appropriated to the supreme court for the payment of expenses of the client security board and claims approved by it. The money in the fund never cancels and is available until expended. All interest earnings accruing to the fund shall be credited to the account. Payments therefrom shall be made by the state treasurer, upon warrants of the commissioner of finance, issued upon vouchers as authorized by the supreme court.

Sec. 187. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 487.21, subdivision 4, is amended to read:

Subd. 4. Notwithstanding any contrary provisions in the rules of criminal procedure, if a municipality is located in more than one county court district, or in more than one county within a county court district, as those districts existed before merger of the trial courts under section 487.191, the county in which the city hall of the municipality is located determines the county or county court district in which the municipality shall be deemed located for the purposes of matters that were placed within the jurisdiction of the county courts under sections 487.01 to 487.39; provided, however, that the municipality by ordinance enacted may designate, for those purposes, some other county or district in which a part of the municipality is located.

Sec. 188. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 540.152, is amended to read:

540.152 [SERVICE OF PROCESS ON UNIONS, GROUPS OR ASSOCIATIONS.]

The transaction of any acts, business or activities within the state of Minnesota by any officer, agent, representative, employee or member of any union or other groups or associations having officers, agents, members or property without the state on behalf of the union or other groups or associations or any of its members or affiliated local unions shall be deemed an appointment by the union or other groups or associations of the secretary of state of the state of Minnesota to be the true and lawful attorney of the union or other groups or associations, upon whom may be served all legal processes or notices in any action or proceeding against or involving the union or other groups or associations growing out of any acts, business or activities within the state of Minnesota resulting in damage or loss to person or property or giving rise to any cause of action under the laws of the state of Minnesota or to any matters or proceedings arising under the Minnesota Labor Relations Act. Such acts, business or activities shall be a signification of the agreement of the union or other groups or associations and its members that any process or notice in any action, matter or proceeding against or involving it, which is so served, shall be of the same legal force and validity as if served upon the union or other groups or associations and its members personally. Service of process or notice shall be made by filing a copy thereof in the office of the secretary of state, together with payment of a fee of $15 $20 and together with an affidavit stating that no officer or managing agent of the union or other group or association has been found in this state and setting forth an address to which the service shall be forwarded. The service shall be sufficient service upon the union or other groups or associations and its members. Notice of service and a copy of the process or notice shall, within ten days thereafter, be sent by mail by the person who caused it to be served on the union or other groups or associations at its last known address and an affidavit of compliance with the provisions of this chapter shall be filed with the court or other state agency or department before which the action, matter, or proceeding is pending.

Sec. 189. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 543.08, is amended to read:

543.08 [SUMMONS, SERVICE UPON CERTAIN CORPORATIONS.]

If a private domestic corporation has no officer at the registered office of the corporation within the state upon whom service can be made, of which fact the return of the sheriff of the county in which that office is located, or the affidavit of a private person not a party, that none can be found in that county shall be conclusive evidence, service of the summons upon it may be made by depositing two copies, together with a fee of ~~$15~~ $20 with the secretary of state, which shall be deemed personal service upon the corporation. One of the copies shall be filed by the secretary, and the other forthwith mailed by the secretary to the corporation by certified mail, if the place of its main office is known to the secretary or is disclosed by the files in the office.

If the defendant is a foreign insurance corporation, the summons may be served by two copies delivered to the commissioner of commerce, who shall file one in the commissioner's office and forthwith mail the other postage prepaid to the defendant at its home office.

Sec. 190. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 609.101, is amended to read:

609.101 [SURCHARGE ON FINES, ASSESSMENTS; MINIMUM FINES.]

Subdivision 1. [SURCHARGES AND ASSESSMENTS.] When a court sentences a person convicted of a felony, gross misdemeanor, or misdemeanor, other than a petty misdemeanor such as a traffic or parking violation, and if the sentence does not include payment of a fine, the court shall impose an assessment of not less than $25 nor more than $50. If the sentence for the felony, gross misdemeanor, or misdemeanor includes payment of a fine of any amount, including a fine of less than $100, the court shall impose a surcharge on the fine of ten percent of the fine. This section applies whether or not the person is sentenced to imprisonment and when the sentence is suspended. The court may, upon a showing of indigency or undue hardship upon the convicted person or the person's immediate family, not waive payment or authorize payment of the assessment or surcharge in installments unless it makes written findings on the record that the convicted person is indigent or that the assessment or surcharge would create undue hardship for the convicted person or that person's immediate family; however, if the court waives payment or authorizes payment in installments, it shall state in writing on the record the reasons for its action. If the court fails to waive or impose an assessment required by this section, the court administrator shall correct the record to show imposition of an assessment of $25 if the sentence does not include payment of a fine, or if the sentence includes a fine, to show an imposition of a surcharge of 10 percent of the fine.

Except for assessments and surcharges imposed on persons convicted of violations described in section 97A.065, subdivision 2, the court shall collect and forward to the commissioner of finance the total amount of the assessment or surcharge and the commissioner shall credit all money so forwarded to a crime victim and witness account, which is established as a special account in the state treasury.

Money credited to the crime victim and witness account may be appropriated for but is not limited to the following purposes:

(1) use for crime victim reparations under sections 611A.51 to 611A.68;

(2) use by the crime victim and witness advisory council established under section 611A.71; and

(3) to supplement the federally funded activities of the crime victim ombudsman under section 611A.74.

If the convicted person is sentenced to imprisonment, the chief executive officer of the correctional facility in which the convicted person is incarcerated may collect the assessment or surcharge from any earnings the inmate accrues for work performed in the correctional facility and forward the amount to the commissioner of finance, indicating the part that was imposed for violations described in section 97A.065, subdivision 2, which must be credited to the game and fish fund.

Subd. 2. [MINIMUM FINES.] Notwithstanding any other law:

(1) when a court sentences a person convicted of violating section 609.221, 609.267, or 609.342, it must impose a fine of not less than $500 nor more than the maximum fine authorized by law;

(2) when a court sentences a person convicted of violating section 609.222, 609.223, 609.2671, 609.343, 609.344, or 609.345, it must impose a fine of not less than $300 nor more than the maximum fine authorized by law; and

(3) when a court sentences a person convicted of violating section 609.2231, 609.224, or 609.2672, it must impose a fine of not less than $100 nor more than the maximum fine authorized by law.

The court may not waive payment of the fine or authorize payment of it in installments unless the court makes written findings on the record that the convicted person is indigent or that the fine would create undue hardship for the convicted person or that person's immediate family.

The court shall collect the minimum fine mandated by this subdivision and forward 70 percent of it to a local victim assistance program that provides services locally in the county in which the crime was committed. The court shall forward the remaining 30 percent to the commissioner of finance to be credited to the crime victim and witness account established in subdivision 1. If more than one victim assistance program serves the county in which the crime was committed, the court may designate on a case-by-case basis which program will receive the fine proceeds, giving consideration to the nature of the crime committed, the types of victims served by the program, and the funding needs of the program. If no victim assistance program serves that county, the court shall forward 100 percent of the fine proceeds to the commissioner of finance to be credited to the crime victim and witness account. Fine proceeds received by a local victim assistance program must be used to provide direct services to crime victims. Fine proceeds credited to the crime victim and witness account may be appropriated to the crime victim and witness advisory council, and the council may use all or part of the proceeds for the purpose of providing grants to establish new victim assistance programs.

The minimum fine required by this subdivision is in addition to the surcharge or assessment required by subdivision 1, and is in addition to any term of imprisonment or restitution imposed or ordered by the court.

As used in this subdivision, "victim assistance program" means any of the following programs approved by the department of corrections: crime victim crisis centers, victim-witness programs, battered women shelters and nonshelter programs, and sexual assault programs.

Sec. 191. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 626.861, subdivision 4, is amended to read:

Subd. 4. [PEACE OFFICERS TRAINING ACCOUNT.] Receipts from penalty assessments must be credited to a peace officers training account in the special revenue fund. Money credited to the peace officers training account may be appropriated for but not limited to the following purposes, among others:

(a) Up to ten percent may be provided for reimbursement to board approved skills courses in proportion to the number of students successfully completing the board's skills licensing examination.

(b) Assessments related to violations described in section 97.49, subdivision 5, are appropriated to provide peace officer training for persons employed by the commissioner of natural resources who are licensed under section 626.84, subdivision 1, clause (e), and who possess peace officer authority for the purpose of enforcing game and fish laws.

(e) The balance may be used to pay each local unit of government an amount in proportion to the number of licensed peace officers and constables employed, at a rate to be determined by the board. The disbursed amount must be used exclusively for reimbursement of the cost of in-service training required under this chapter and chapter 214.

Sec. 192. [POSTRETIREMENT ADJUSTMENT; LUMP SUM PAYMENTS.]

Subdivision 1. [ENTITLEMENT.] Any recipient receiving a retirement annuity, disability benefit, or surviving spouse's annuity or benefit from a retirement fund named in subdivision 3, clauses (1) to (5), computed under the laws in effect before June 1, 1973, if the recipient is receiving an annuity or benefit from the fund named in subdivision 3, clause (4), or before July 1, 1973, if the recipient is receiving an annuity or benefit from a fund named in subdivision 3, clause (1), (2), (3), or (5), any recipient receiving either an annuity computed under the laws in effect before March 5, 1974, or a "$2 bill and annuity" annuity from the fund named in subdivision 3, clause (6), and any recipient receiving an annuity, disability benefit, or surviving spouse's annuity or benefit from the fund named in subdivision 3, clause (5), that was computed under the metropolitan transit commission-transit operating division employees retirement fund plan document in effect on or before December 31, 1977, is entitled to receive a postretirement adjustment from the appropriate retirement fund in the amount specified in subdivision 2.

Subd. 2. [AMOUNT OF POSTRETIREMENT ADJUSTMENT; PAYMENT.] Any recipient receiving an annuity or benefit on November 30, 1987, or on November 30, 1988, and entitled to a postretirement adjustment under subdivision 1, shall receive an adjustment. The adjustment shall be a lump sum payment in an amount equal to $25 during 1987 and $25 during 1988 for each full year of allowable service credited to the recipient by the appropriate retirement fund. Adjustments shall be payable on December 1, 1987, to recipients receiving an annuity or benefit on November 30, 1987, and on December 1, 1988, to recipients receiving an annuity or benefit on November 30, 1988. Nothing in this section shall authorize the payment of an adjustment to an estate. Notwithstanding Minnesota Statutes, section 356.18, the adjustment provided for in this section shall be paid automatically unless the intended recipient files a written notice with the retirement fund requesting that the adjustment not be paid.

Subd. 3. [COVERED RETIREMENT FUNDS.] The postretirement adjustment provided for in this section shall apply to the following retirement funds:

- (1) public employees retirement fund;
- (2) public employees police and fire fund;
- (3) teachers retirement fund;
- (4) state patrol retirement fund;
- (5) state employees retirement fund of the Minnesota state retirement system; and
- (6) Minneapolis employees retirement fund.

Subd. 4. [AUTHORIZATION FOR EMPLOYER CONTRIBUTION INCREASES.] The governing boards of the Minnesota State Retirement System and the Public Employees Retirement Association may each year require employers to contribute the following amounts in addition to the other contributions specified in statute:

- (1) for employers of members of the MSRS general plan, a percentage, not to exceed .14 percent, which when applied to the covered payroll will raise an amount approximately equal to the cost of the supplemental benefits authorized in subdivisions 1, 2, and 3;
- (2) for employers of members of the MSRS highway patrol plan, a percentage, not to exceed .30 percent, which when applied to the covered payroll will raise an amount approximately equal to the cost of the supplemental benefits authorized in subdivisions 1, 2, and 3;
- (3) for employers of members of the PERA general plan, a percentage, not to exceed .15 percent, which when applied to the covered payroll will raise an amount approximately equal to the cost of the supplemental benefits authorized in subdivisions 1, 2, and 3;
- (4) for employers of members of the PERA police and fire plan, a percentage, not to exceed .06 percent, which when applied to the covered payroll will raise an amount approximately equal to the cost of the supplemental benefits authorized in subdivisions 1, 2, and 3.

Subd. 5. [TERMINAL AUDIT.] Each fund named in subdivision 3 shall, as soon as practical following payment of the December 1, 1988 postretirement adjustment, calculate the amount of any appropriation apportioned to it in excess of the amounts required to pay the adjustments. Calculations shall be reported to and verified by the commissioner of finance, and amounts of any excess appropriation shall be returned to the general fund.

There is appropriated during the 1988-1989 biennium, the amount of $5,716,000 for the purpose of funding the postretirement adjustments provided for in section 191. The appropriation shall be apportioned to the retirement funds paying the adjustment as follows:

	Fiscal Year 1988	Fiscal Year 1989
Teachers retirement fund	1,915,275	1,803,225
Minneapolis employees retirement fund	1,025,000	973,000

Sec. 194. [COVERT INVESTIGATIVE ACTIVITIES.]

A six-member joint legislative committee shall investigate the covert investigative activities of the department of natural resources and the bureau of criminal apprehension. The committee consists of three house members, including one member of the minority caucus, appointed by the speaker of the house, and three senate members, including one member of the minority caucus, appointed pursuant to the rules of the senate. The committee shall review the manner in which the covert investigative activities are carried out and the budget for the activities. The committee shall conclude its work by December 31, 1988.

Sec. 195. [RETURN OF APPLICATION DEPOSIT REQUIRED.]

The department of energy and economic development shall refund to the city of Hastings any remaining application deposit received during calendar year 1984 from the city of Hastings in connection with the Hastings hydroelectric project pursuant to Minnesota Statutes, section 474.19 and retained by the department.

$60,000 is appropriated from the general fund to the department of energy and economic development to refund the industrial development bond allocation application deposit to the city of Hastings.

Sec. 196. [REVISOR'S INSTRUCTION.]

In the next edition of Minnesota Statutes, the revisor of statutes shall substitute the term "attorney general's" for "commissioner's" and "department's" and the term "attorney general" for "commissioner," "commissioner of human rights," "department", and "department of human rights" whenever those terms are used to refer to the commissioner of human rights or the department of human rights.

Sec. 197. [REPEALERS.]

H. F. No. 1026 was reported to the House.

Solberg and Gruenes moved to amend H. F. No. 1026, the first engrossment, as follows:

"Sec. 12. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 179A.03, subdivision 19, is amended to read:

Subd. 19. [TERMS AND CONDITIONS OF EMPLOYMENT.] "Terms and conditions of employment" means the hours of employment, the compensation therefor including fringe benefits, except retirement contributions or benefits of a public pension fund described in section 356.20, subdivision 2, and the employer's personnel policies affecting the working conditions of the employees. In the case of professional employees the term does not mean educational policies of a school district. "Terms and conditions of employment" is subject to section 179A.07."

Subd. 2. [EXCEPTIONS.] The provisions of subdivision 1 requiring that severance pay be paid over a period not to exceed five years from retirement or termination of employment and limiting severance pay to an amount equal to one year of pay do not apply to severance pay constituting compensation for accumulated sick leave in the form of periodic contributions toward premiums for group insurance policies provided for a former employee by a governmental subdivision, if the payments are made to a person who has at least ten years of allowable service with the employer who is making the severance payments. Allowable service for purposes of this subdivision has the same definition of allowable service credit as the public pension plan providing retirement coverage to the employee while employed by the employer.

This subdivision applies only to periodic contributions that have commenced before the effective date of Laws 1986, chapter 455 or that are required under contracts, or, with respect to employees not covered by contracts, personnel policies, formally adopted by the governing body of the governmental subdivision, in existence on the effective date of Laws 1986, chapter 455. After the effective date of Laws 1986, chapter 455, a governmental subdivision may not enter into a contract or adopt a personnel policy providing for a payment in violation of subdivision 1. A personnel policy or portion of a personnel policy in existence on the effective date of Laws 1986, chapter 455 and providing for a payment in violation of subdivision 1 is null and void (i) upon the expiration of a collective bargaining agreement containing a similar provision and covering employees of the governmental subdivision that has adopted the policy, or (ii) two years from the effective date of Laws 1986, chapter 455, whichever is earlier. Any payments by governmental subdivisions in accordance with this subdivision before the effective date of Laws 1986, chapter 455 are validated."

S. F. No. 1152 was reported to the House.

Jacobs moved to amend S. F. No. 1152, as follows:

Delete everything after the enacting clause and insert:

"Section 1. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 297C.09, is amended to read:

297C.09 [IMPORTATION BY INDIVIDUALS.]

A person, other than a person under the age of 19 21 years, entering Minnesota from another state may have in possession one liter of intoxicating liquor or 288 ounces of malt liquor and a person entering Minnesota from a foreign country may have in possession four liters of intoxicating liquor or ten quarts (320 ounces) of malt liquor without the required payment of the Minnesota excise tax. Amounts in excess of these quantities may be imported only by a licensee holding the appropriate license as manufacturer, wholesaler, or importer under section 340A.301 or 340A.302. A collector of commemorative bottles, other than a person under the age of 19 21 years, entering Minnesota from another state may have in possession 12 or fewer commemorative bottles without the required payment of the Minnesota excise tax. A person who imports or has in possession untaxed intoxicating liquor or malt liquor in excess of the quantities provided for in this section is guilty of a misdemeanor. This section does not apply to the consignments of alcoholic beverages shipped into this state by holders of Minnesota import licenses or Minnesota manufacturers and wholesalers when licensed by the commissioner of public safety or to common carriers with licenses to sell intoxicating liquor in more than one state. A peace officer, the commissioner, or their authorized agents, may seize untaxed liquor.

Sec. 2. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 340A.302, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [LICENSES REQUIRED.] Except as provided in section sections 297C.09 and 340A.301, subdivision 1, no retailer or other person may ship or cause to be shipped alcoholic beverages or ethyl alcohol for personal use or to a licensed manufacturer or wholesaler without obtaining an importer's license from the commissioner.

Sec. 3. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 340A.308, is amended to read:

340A.308 [PROHIBITED TRANSACTIONS.]

(a) No brewer or malt liquor wholesaler may directly or indirectly, or through an affiliate or subsidiary company, or through an officer, director, stockholder, or partner:

- (1) give, or lend money, credit, or other thing of value to a retailer;
- (2) give, lend, lease, or sell furnishing or equipment to a retailer;

(3) have an interest in a retail license; or

(4) be bound for the repayment of a loan to a retailer.

(b) This section does not prohibit a manufacturer or wholesaler from:

(1) furnishing, lending, or renting to a retailer outside signs, of a cost of up to $100 excluding installation and repair costs;

(2) furnishing, lending, or renting to a retailer inside signs and other promotional material, of a cost of up to $100 in a year;

(3) furnishing to or maintaining for a retailer equipment for dispensing malt liquor, including tap trailers, cold plates and other dispensing equipment, of a cost of up to $100 per tap in a year;

(4) using or renting property owned continually since November 1, 1933, for the purpose of selling intoxicating or nonintoxicating malt liquor at retail; or

(5) extending customary commercial credit to a retailer in connection with a sale of nonalcoholic beverages only, or engaging in cooperative advertising agreements with a retailer in connection with the sale of nonalcoholic beverages only.

Sec. 4. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 340A.312, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [VOLUME PRICES.] A variable volume price offered by a wholesaler to a licensed retailer on sales of distilled spirits or wine may not be for a quantity of more than ~~300 one-liter or smaller bottles~~ 25 cases.

Sec. 5. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 340A.318, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [REPORTING.] Every distiller, manufacturer or wholesaler selling to retailers shall submit to the commissioner in triplicate not later than Thursday of each calendar week a verified list of the names and addresses of each retail licensee purchasing distilled spirits or wine from that distiller, manufacturer or wholesaler who, on the first day of that calendar week, was delinquent beyond the 30-day period, or a verified statement that no delinquencies exist which are required to be reported. The name and address of each retail licensee who makes payment with a postdated check, or a check that is dishonored on presentment, must also be submitted to the commissioner at that time. If a retail licensee previously reported as delinquent cures the delinquency by payment, the name and address of that licensee shall be submitted in triplicate to the commissioner not later than the close of the second full business day following the day the delinquency was cured.

Sec. 6. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 340A.318, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [POSTING; NOTICE.] Verified list or statements required by subdivision 2 shall be posted by the commissioner in offices of the department in places available for public inspection and mailed to each licensed wholesaler not later than the day following receipt. Documents so posted and mailed shall constitute notice to every distiller, manufacturer or wholesaler of the information posted. Actual notice, however received, also constitutes notice.

Sec. 7. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 340A.318, subdivision 4, is amended to read:

Subd. 4. [MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS.] The 30-day merchandising period allowed by this section shall commence with the day immediately following the date of invoice and shall include all successive days, including Sundays and holidays, to and including the 30th successive day. In addition to other legal methods, payment by check during the period for which merchandising credit may be extended shall be considered payment. All checks received in payment for distilled spirits or wine shall be deposited promptly for collection. A postdated check or a check dishonored on presentation for payment does not constitute payment. A retail licensee shall not be deemed delinquent for any alleged sale in any instance where there exists a bona fide dispute between the licensee and the distiller, manufacturer or wholesaler as to the amount owing as a result of the alleged sale. A delinquent retail licensee who engages in the retail liquor business at two or more locations shall be deemed to be delinquent with respect to each location. A retail licensee who engages in the retail liquor business at two or more locations means "a person or group of persons possessing 50 percent or more ownership in two or more locations."

Sec. 8. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 340A.404, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 6a. [SEASONAL LICENSES; COUNTIES.] A county may issue seasonal on-sale intoxicating liquor licenses of periods specified in the licenses, which may not exceed six months, or in the case of Lake county, nine months. The county board shall determine the fee for such a license. Not more than one seasonal on-sale license may be issued to any one premises in any 12-month period.

Sec. 9. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 340A.405, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [COUNTIES.] (a) A county may issue an off-sale intoxicating license with the approval of the commissioner to exclusive liquor stores located within unorganized territory of the county.

(b) A county board of any county except Ramsey county containing a town exercising powers under section 368.01, subdivision 1, may issue an off-sale license to an exclusive liquor store within that town with the approval of the commissioner. No license may be issued under this paragraph unless the town board adopts a resolution supporting the issuance of the license.

(c) A county board of any county except Ramsey county containing a town that may not exercise powers under section 368.01, subdivision 1, may issue a combination off-sale and on-sale license to restaurants within that town with the approval of the commissioner pursuant to section 340A.404, subdivision 6. No license may be issued under this paragraph unless the town board adopts a resolution supporting the issuance of the license.

(d) No license may be issued under this subdivision unless a public hearing is held on the issuance of the license. Notice must be given to all interested parties and to any city located within three miles of the premises proposed to be licensed. At the hearing the county board shall consider testimony and exhibits presented by interested parties and may base its decision to issue or deny a license upon the nature of the business to be conducted and its impact upon any municipality, the character and reputation of the applicant, and the propriety of the location. Any hearing held under this paragraph is not subject to chapter 14.

(e) A county board may not issue a license under this subdivision to a person for an establishment located less than three miles by the most direct route from the boundary of any statutory or home rule city except cities of the first class or within Pine or, Kanabec, or Red Lake counties within three miles of a statutory or home rule city with a municipal liquor store.

(f) The town board may impose an additional license fee in an amount not to exceed 20 percent of the county license fee.

(g) Notwithstanding any provision of this subdivision or Laws 1973, chapter 566, as amended by Laws 1974, chapter 200, a county board may transfer or renew a license that was issued by a town board under Minnesota Statutes 1984, section 340.11, subdivision 10b prior to January 1, 1985.

Sec. 10. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 340A.405, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 4. [TEMPORARY OFF-SALE LICENSES; WINE AUCTIONS.] (a) The governing body of a city may issue a temporary license for the off-sale of wine at an auction with the approval of the commissioner. A license issued under this subdivision authorizes the sale of only vintage wine of a brand and vintage that is not commonly being offered for sale by any wholesaler in Minnesota. The license may authorize the off-sale of wine for not more than three consecutive days provided not more than 600 cases of wine are sold at any auction. The licenses are subject to the terms, including license fee, imposed by the issuing city. Licenses issued under this subdivision are subject to all laws and ordinances governing the sale of intoxicating liquor except section 340A.409 and those laws and ordinances which by their nature are not applicable.

(b) As used in the subdivision, "vintage wine" means bottled wine which is at least five years old.

Sec. 11. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 340A.412, subdivision 10, is amended to read:

Subd. 10. [EMPLOYMENT OF MINORS.] No person under 18 years of age may be employed in a place where intoxicating liquor is sold for consumption on the premises, except persons under 18 years of age may be employed as musicians or in bussing or washing dishes in a restaurant or hotel that is licensed to sell intoxicating liquor and may be employed as waiters or waitresses at a restaurant, hotel, or motel where only wine is sold; provided that the person under the age of 18 may not serve or sell any wine serve or sell intoxicating liquor in a retail intoxicating liquor establishment.

Sec. 12. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 340A.415, is amended to read:

340A.415 [LICENSE REVOCATION OR SUSPENSION.]

The authority issuing or approving any retail license or permit under this chapter shall either suspend for up to 60 days or revoke the license or permit or impose a civil fine not to exceed $2,000 for each violation on a finding that the license or permit holder has failed to comply with an applicable statute, rule, or ordinance relating to alcoholic beverages. No suspension or revocation takes effect until the license or permit holder has been afforded an opportunity for a hearing under sections 14.57 to 14.70 of the administrative procedure act. The issuing authority or the commissioner may impose the penalties provided in this section on a retail licensee who knowingly sells alcoholic beverages to another retail licensee for the purpose of resale, or on a retail licensee who purchases alcoholic beverages from another retail licensee for the purpose of resale.

Sec. 13. [340A.907] [INSPECTION.]

The commissioner of public safety or any duly authorized employee may, at all reasonable hours, enter in and upon the premises of any licensee or permit holder under this chapter to inspect the premises and examine the books, papers, and records of a manufacturer, wholesaler, importer, or retailer for the purpose of determining whether the provisions of this chapter are being complied with. If the commissioner or any duly authorized employee is denied free access or is hindered or interfered with in making an inspection or examination, the licensee or permit holder is subject to revocation pursuant to section 340A.304 in the case of a wholesaler, manufacturer, or importer, and section 340A.415 in the case of a retailer.

Sec. 14. [REPEALER.]

Minnesota Statutes 1986, sections 34.119; 34.12; 34.13; 34.14; 340A.307, subdivision 3; and 340A.313, are repealed.

S. F. No. 353 was reported to the House.

Nelson, D., moved to amend S. F. No. 353, as follows:

Delete everything after the enacting clause and insert:

"Section 1. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 112.53, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [MAILING.] The managers shall give notice by mail, within one week after the beginning of publication, to the director and to each person, corporation, and public body that owns property benefited or damaged by the proposed improvement as shown by the engineers and appraisers report. The notice shall contain a brief description of the proposed improvement and state: that the engineer's and appraisers' report are on file with the managers and available for public inspection; the time and place of hearing; and that the addressee's name appears as an affected party.

In the case of a metropolitan county defined in section 473.121, subdivision 4, the notice must also include the following:

- (1) the amount to be specially assessed against the property;
- (2) the right of the property owner to prepay the entire assessment and the person to whom prepayment must be made;
- (3) whether partial prepayment of the assessment is authorized;
- (4) the time within which prepayment may be made without the assessment of interest; and
- (5) the rate of interest to be accrued if the assessment is not prepaid within the required time period.

Sec. 2. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 473.875, is amended to read:

473.875 [SURFACE METROPOLITAN WATER MANAGEMENT PROGRAM PROGRAMS; PURPOSES.]

The purpose of the surface water management programs required by sections 473.875 to 473.883 is to protect, preserve and use natural

(a) reduce to the greatest practical extent the public capital expenditures necessary to control excessive volumes and rates of runoff, (b) protect and improve surface and ground water quality, (c) prevent flooding and erosion from surface flows, (d) promote ground water recharge, (e) protect and enhance fish and wildlife habitat and water recreational facilities, and (f) secure the other benefits associated with the proper management of surface and ground water.

Sec. 3. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 473.876, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 2a. [GROUND WATER PLAN.] "Ground water plan" means a county plan adopted under section 473.8785.

Sec. 4. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 473.876, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 2b. [GROUND WATER SYSTEM.] "Ground water system" means one of the 14 principal aquifers of the state as defined by the United States Geological Survey in the Water-Resources Investigations 81-51, entitled "Designation of Principal Water Supply Aquifers in Minnesota" (August 1981), and its revisions.

Sec. 5. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 473.878, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [GENERAL STANDARDS.] The watershed management plan shall extend through the year 1990 or any year thereafter which is evenly divisible by five. The plan must be updated before the expiration of the period covered by the plan. During a period of five years following the effective date of section 10, an adopted watershed plan must be reviewed for consistency with an adopted county ground water plan, and revised as necessary, whenever the watershed plan undergoes substantial revision or updating. Thereafter, the plan must be reviewed for consistency with a county ground water plan, and revised as necessary, within one year following the adoption or amendment of the ground water plan. Upon the request of a watershed management organization, the county shall provide a written statement that: (1) identifies any substantial inconsistencies between the watershed plan and the ground water plan and any substantial adverse effects of the watershed plan on the ground water plan, and (2) evaluates, estimates the cost of, and recommends alternatives for amending the watershed plan to rectify any substantial inconsistencies and adverse effects. The plan shall contain the elements required by subdivision 4. Each element shall be set out in the degree of detail and prescription necessary to accomplish the purposes of sections 473.875 to 473.883, considering the character of existing and anticipated physical and hydrogeologic conditions, land use, and development and the severity of existing and anticipated water management problems in the watershed. The plan shall be prepared and submitted for review under subdivision 5 not later than December 31, 1986. Existing plans of a watershed management organization shall remain in force and effect until amended or superseded by plans adopted under sections 473.875 to 473.883. Existing or amended plans of a watershed management organization which meet the requirements of sections 473.875 to 473.883 may be submitted for review under subdivision 5.

Sec. 6. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 473.878, subdivision 5, is amended to read:

Subd. 5. [LOCAL REVIEW AND COMMENT.] Upon completion of the plan but before final adoption by the organization, the organization shall submit the plan for review and comment to all counties, soil and water conservation districts, towns, and statutory and home rule charter cities having territory within the watershed. Any local government unit which expects that substantial amendment of its local comprehensive plan will be necessary in order to bring local water management into conformance with the watershed plan shall describe as specifically as possible, within its comments, the amendments to the local plan which it expects will be necessary.

Subd. 5a. [COUNTY REVIEW; CAPITAL IMPROVEMENTS PLAN; GROUND WATER PLAN.] (a) Sixty days after the submission to local government units for comment, the organization shall submit the plan, any comments received, and any appropriate amendments to the plan, to the board of the county or counties having territory within the watershed.

(b) The county shall approve or disapprove projects in the capital improvement program which may require the provision of county funds pursuant to section 112.60, subdivision 2, or 473.883.

(c) If the county has a ground water plan, the county shall review the watershed plan for consistency with the county ground water plan. The county may disapprove the watershed plan, or part thereof, only for substantial adverse effect on or substantial departure from the ground water plan. If the county disapproves all or part of the watershed plan, the watershed plan must be submitted for review under subdivision 6 and review and final decision under subdivision 7. The county may delegate its review under this paragraph to a soil and water conservation district.

(d) The county shall have 60 days to complete its review of the capital improvement program. If the county fails to complete its review within the prescribed period, unless an extension is agreed to by the organization the plan and program shall be deemed approved.

(e) If the watershed extends into more than one county and one or more counties disapprove of all or part of a capital improvement plan or program while the other county or counties approve, the plan and program shall be submitted to the water resources board for review pursuant to under subdivision 6 and review and final decision under subdivision 7.

Sec. 7. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 473.878, subdivision 6, is amended to read:

Subd. 6. [REVIEW BY METROPOLITAN COUNCIL.] After completion of the review under subdivision 5, the plan and all comments received shall be submitted to the metropolitan council for review. Notwithstanding any provision to the contrary in sections 112.46 and 473.165, the council shall review the plan in the same manner and with the same authority and effect as provided for the council's review of the comprehensive plans of local government units under section 473.175. The council shall comment on the apparent conformity with metropolitan system plans of any anticipated amendments to local comprehensive plans. The council may mediate and attempt to resolve differences among local governmental agencies regarding the plan.

Sec. 8. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 473.878, subdivision 7, is amended to read:

Subd. 7. [REVIEW BY STATE AGENCIES.] (a) After completion of the review under subdivision 6, the plan and all comments received shall be submitted to the commissioner commissioners of natural resources and health and the director of the pollution control agency for review and comment on the consistency of the plan with state laws and rules relating to water and related land resources, and to the water resources board for review under section 112.46.

(b) Except as otherwise provided in this subdivision, the water resources board shall review the plan as provided in section 112.46. The board shall review the plan for conformance with the requirements of chapter 112 and sections 473.875 to 473.883. The board shall not prescribe a plan, but may disapprove all or parts of a plan which it determines is not in conformance with the requirements of chapter 112 and sections 473.875 to 473.883.

(c) If the plan or part of the plan is disapproved by a county under subdivision 5, paragraph (c), the board shall make a final decision on the issue. If the plan or capital improvement program is the subject of a dispute between counties under subdivision 5, paragraph (e), the water resources board shall make a final decision on the issue. The decision shall be decisions of the board under this paragraph must be made following the hearing procedure specified in section 110B.25, subdivision 4 and are binding on the organization, affected local units of government, and the counties involved. The decision may be appealed as provided in sections 14.63 to 14.69.

Sec. 9. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 473.878, subdivision 9, is amended to read:

Subd. 9. [AMENDMENTS.] To the extent and in the manner required by the adopted plan, all amendments to the adopted plan shall be submitted to the towns, cities, county, and other agencies for review in accordance with the provisions of subdivisions 5, 6, and 7. Amendments necessary to recognize a county ground water plan, as required by subdivision 3, must be submitted for review in accordance with subdivisions 5, 5a, 6, and 7.

Sec. 10. [473.8785] [GROUND WATER PLANS.]

Subdivision 1. [AUTHORITY.] Metropolitan counties may prepare and adopt ground water plans in accordance with this section.

Subd. 2. [RESPONSIBLE UNITS.] The county may prepare and adopt the plan or, upon request of a soil and water conservation district, the county may delegate to the soil and water conservation district the preparation and adoption of all or part of a plan and the performance of other county responsibilities regarding the plan under this section and section 473.878.

Subd. 3. [LOCAL COORDINATION.] To assure the coordination of efforts of all units of government during the preparation and implementation of watershed and ground water plans, the county shall conduct meetings with local units of government and watershed management organizations, and may enter into agreements with local units of government and watershed management organizations establishing the responsibilities during the preparation and implementation of the water plans.

Subd. 4. [ASSISTANCE; ADVISORY COMMITTEE.] The county may contract with the Minnesota geological survey, the United States geological survey, a soil and water conservation district, or other public or private agencies or persons for services in performing the county's responsibilities regarding the plan under this section and section 473.878. Counties may enter into agreements with other counties or local units of government under section 471.59 for the performance of these responsibilities. To assist in the development of the ground water plan, the county shall seek the advice of the Minnesota geological survey, the departments of health and natural resources, the pollution control agency, and other appropriate local, state, and federal agencies, and shall name an advisory committee of 15 members. The committee must include representatives of various interests, like construction, agriculture, hydrogeology, and well drilling. At least four members of the committee must be from the public at large with no direct pecuniary interest in any project involving ground water protection. At least seven members must be appointed from watershed management organizations, statutory and home rule charter cities, and towns, and these local government representatives must be geographically distributed so that at least one is appointed from each county commissioner district. The county shall consult the advisory committee on the development, content, and implementation of the plan, including particularly the relationship of the ground water plan and existing watershed and local water management plans, the effect of the groundwater plan on the other plans, and the allocation of costs and governmental authority and responsibilities during implementation.

Subd. 5. [GENERAL STANDARDS.] The ground water plan must extend through the year 1995 or any year thereafter which is evenly divisible by five. The plan must contain the elements required by subdivision 6. Each element must be set out in the degree of detail and prescription necessary to accomplish the purposes of sections 473.875 to 473.883, considering the character of existing and anticipated physical and hydrogeologic conditions, land use, and development and the severity of existing and anticipated ground water management problems in the county. To the fullest extent possible consistent with groundwater protection, a county shall make maximum use of existing and available data and studies in preparing the ground water plan and incorporate into its ground water plan relevant data from existing plans and studies and the relevant provisions of existing plans adopted by watershed management organizations having jurisdiction wholly or partly within the county.

Subd. 6. [CONTENTS.] A ground water plan must:

- (1) cover the entire area within the county;
- (2) describe existing and expected changes to the physical environment, land use, and development in the county;
- (3) summarize available information about the ground water and related resources in the county, including existing and potential distribution, availability, quality, and use;
- (4) state the goals, objectives, scope, and priorities of ground water protection in the county;
- (5) contain standards, criteria, and guidelines for the protection of ground water from pollution and for various types of land uses in environmentally sensitive areas, critical areas, or previously contaminated areas;
- (6) describe relationships and possible conflicts between the ground water plan and the plans of other counties, local government units, and watershed management organizations in the affected ground water system;

(7) set forth standards and guidelines for implementation of the plan by watershed management organizations and local units of government; and

(8) include a procedure for amending the ground water plan.

Subd. 7. [LOCAL REVIEW AND COMMENT.] Upon completion of the ground water plan but before final adoption by the county, the county shall submit the plan for review and comment to each soil and water conservation district, town, statutory and home rule charter city, and watershed management organization having territory within the county. The county also shall submit the plan to any other county or watershed management organization or district in the affected ground water system that could affect or be affected by implementation of the plan. Any political subdivision or watershed management organization that expects that substantial amendment of its plans would be necessary in order to bring them into conformance with the county ground water plan shall describe as specifically as possible, within its comments, the amendments that it expects would be necessary and the cost of amendment and implementation. Reviewing entities have 60 days to review and comment.

Subd. 8. [REVIEW BY METROPOLITAN COUNCIL.] After completion of the review under subdivision 7, the plan and all comments received must be submitted to the metropolitan council for review. Notwithstanding any provision to the contrary in sections 112.46 and 473.165, the council shall review the plan in the same manner and with the same authority and effect as provided for the council's review of the comprehensive plans of local government units under section 473.175. The council shall comment on the apparent conformity with metropolitan system plans of any anticipated amendments to watershed plans and local comprehensive plans. The council shall summarize and evaluate the cost of rectifying inconsistencies between the groundwater plan and watershed plans. If the council finds that significant funding problems, needs, or inequities will result from the groundwater plan, the council shall report to the legislature on the matter and on appropriate means of allocating and paying costs. The council may mediate and attempt to resolve differences among local governmental agencies regarding the plan.

Subd. 9. [REVIEW BY STATE AGENCIES.] After completion of the review under subdivision 8, the plan and all comments received must be submitted to the commissioners of natural resources and health and the director of the pollution control agency for review and comment on the consistency of the plan with state laws and rules relating to water and related land resources, and to the water resources board for review under section 112.46. Except as otherwise provided in this subdivision, the water resources board shall review the plan as provided in section 112.46. The board shall review the plan for conformance with the requirements of chapter 112 and sections 473.875 to 473.883. The board may not prescribe a plan, but may disapprove all or parts of a plan which it determines is not in conformance with the requirements of chapter 112 and sections 473.875 to 473.883.

Subd. 10. [ADOPTION; IMPLEMENTATION.] The county shall adopt and implement its groundwater plan within 120 days after compliance with the provisions of subdivision 9 and approval of the plan by the water resources board.

Subd. 11. [AMENDMENTS.] To the extent and in the manner required by the adopted plan, all amendments to the adopted plan must be submitted to the towns, cities, counties, and other agencies for review in accordance with the provisions of subdivisions 7 to 9.

Sec. 11. [APPLICATION.]

"Section 1. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 112.60, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 1a. In the case of a metropolitan county defined in section 473.121, subdivision 4, the managers shall give notice by mail, within one week after the filing of the statement as provided in subdivision 1, to each person, corporation, and public body that owns property benefited or damaged by the improvement as shown in the appraisers' report and approved by the managers. The notice shall contain a brief description of the improvement and shall also include:

- (1) the amount to be specially assessed against the property;
- (2) the right of the property owner to prepay the entire assessment and the person to whom prepayment must be made;
- (3) whether partial prepayment of the assessment is authorized;
- (4) the time within which prepayment may be made without the assessment of interest; and
- (5) the rate of interest to be accrued if the assessment is not prepaid within the required time period."

S. F. No. 1114 was reported to the House.

Jacobs moved to amend S. F. No. 1114, as follows:

Delete everything after the enacting clause and insert:

"Section 1. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 299A.02, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [REPORTS; RULES.] The commissioner shall have power to require periodic factual reports from all licensed importers, manufacturers, wholesalers and retailers of intoxicating liquors and to make all reasonable rules to effect the object of Laws 1985, chapter 305, articles 2 to 11. The rules shall include provisions for assuring the purity of intoxicating liquors and the true statement of its contents and proper labeling thereof with regard to all forms of sale. No rule may require the use of new containers in aging whiskey. No rule may require cordials or liqueurs to contain in excess of two and one-half percent by weight of sugar or dextrose or both. No rule may prohibit wine or other commodities from being offered at wholesale on original or assorted cases with distilled spirits or vice-versa.

Sec. 2. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 340A.101, subdivision 10, is amended to read:

Subd. 10. [EXCLUSIVE LIQUOR STORE.] "Exclusive liquor store" is an establishment used exclusively for the sale of intoxicating liquor except for the incidental sale of ice, tobacco, nonintoxicating malt liquor, beverages for mixing with intoxicating liquor, and soft drinks may also be sold, cork extraction devices, and books and videos on the use of alcoholic beverages in the preparation of food, and the establishment may offer recorded or live entertainment and make available coin-operated amusement devices. "Exclusive liquor store" also includes an on-sale or combination on-sale and off-sale intoxicating liquor establishment which sells food for on-premise consumption when authorized by the municipality issuing the license.

Sec. 3. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 340A.410, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 9. [COIN-OPERATED DEVICES.] Coin-operated amusement devices may not be made available in establishments licensed solely for the off-sale of intoxicating liquor or municipal stores which sell only at off-sale. An establishment holding a combination on-sale and off-sale license or a municipal liquor store which sells at on-sale and off-sale which makes coin-operated devices available shall keep such devices to the greatest extent practicable in that area of the establishment where on-sales are made.

Minnesota Statutes 1986, sections 34.119, 34.12, 34.13, and 34.14 are repealed."

Delete the title and insert:

"A bill for an act relating to liquor; limitations on rule-making authority of commissioner; items which may be sold in exclusive liquor stores; locations where coin-operated amusement devices may be kept; amending Minnesota Statutes 1986, sections 299A.02, subdivision 3; 340A.101, subdivision 10; and 340A.410, by adding a subdivision; repealing Minnesota Statutes 1986, sections 34.119, 34.12, 34.13, and 34.14."

Subd. 25. [GAME FISH.] "Game fish" means walleye, sauger, yellow perch, channel catfish, flathead catfish; members of the pike family, Esocidae, including muskellunge and northern pike; members of the sunfish family, Centrarchidae, including largemouth bass, smallmouth bass, sunfish, rock bass, white crappie, black crappie, members of the temperate bass family, Percichthyidae, including white bass and yellow bass; members of the salmon and trout subfamily, Salmoninae, including Atlantic salmon, chinook salmon, coho salmon, pink salmon, kokanee salmon, lake trout, brook trout, brown trout, rainbow (steelhead) trout, and splake; members of the paddlefish family, Polyodontidae; members of the sturgeon family, Acipenseridae, including lake sturgeon, and shovelnose sturgeon. "Game fish" includes hybrids of game fish.

Sec. 4. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 97A.015, subdivision 43, is amended to read:

Subd. 43. [ROUGH FISH.] "Rough fish" means carp, buffalo, sucker, sheepshead, bowfin, burbot, ~~eiseee~~ cisco, gar, goldeye, and bullhead.

Sec. 5. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 97A.015, subdivision 45, is amended to read:

Subd. 45. [SMALL GAME.] "Small game" means game birds, gray squirrel, fox squirrel, cottontail rabbit, snowshoe hare, jack rabbit, raccoon, lynx, bobcat, red fox and gray fox, fisher, pine marten, ~~opossum~~ opossum, badger, cougar, wolverine, muskrat, mink, otter, and beaver.

Sec. 6. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 97A.015, subdivision 51, is amended to read:

Subd. 51. [UNLOADED.] "Unloaded" means, with reference to a firearm, without ammunition in the barrels and magazine, if the magazine is in the firearm. A muzzle loading firearm with a flintlock ignition is unloaded if it does not have priming powder in a pan. A muzzle loading firearm with percussion ignition is unloaded if it does not have a percussion cap on a nipple.

Sec. 7. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 97A.055, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [ESTABLISHMENT; PURPOSES.] The game and fish fund is established as a fund in the state treasury. The money in the fund is annually appropriated to the commissioner for the activities of the division of fish and wildlife and the division of enforcement.

Sec. 8. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 97A.065, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [FINES AND FORFEITED BAIL.] (a) Fines and forfeited bail collected from prosecutions of violations of the game and fish laws, sections 84.09 to 84.15, and 84.81 to 84.88, chapter ~~34B~~ 348, and any other law relating to wild animals, and aquatic vegetation must be paid to the treasurer of the county where the violation is prosecuted. The county treasurer shall submit one-half of the receipts to the commissioner and credit the balance to the county general revenue fund except as provided in paragraph (b).

(b) The commissioner must reimburse a county, from the game and fish fund, for the cost of keeping prisoners prosecuted for violations under this section if the county board, by resolution, directs: (1) the county treasurer to submit all fines and forfeited bail to the commissioner; and (2) the county auditor to certify and submit monthly itemized statements to the commissioner.

Sec. 9. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 97A.075, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [DEER AND BEAR LICENSES.] (a) For purposes of this subdivision, "deer license" means a license issued under section 97A.475, subdivision 2, clauses (4) and (5) and subdivision 3, clauses (2) and (3).

(b) At least $2 from each deer license shall be used for deer habitat improvement.

(c) At least $1 from each resident deer license and each resident bear license shall be used for deer and bear management programs, including a computerized licensing system.

Sec. 10. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 97A.085, subdivision 5, is amended to read:

Subd. 5. [SPECIES GAME REFUGE FOR SPECIFIED GAME.] The commissioner may, by order, designate a species game refuge for only specified species. The game refuge must be posted accordingly.

Sec. 11. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 97A.085, subdivision 7, is amended to read:

Subd. 7. [GAME REFUGE BOUNDARY POSTING.] (a) The designation of a state game refuge is not effective until the boundary has been posted with notices that measure at least 12 inches. The notices posted on state park boundaries must have black letters on a yellow background stating that the area is a state park. The notices on other game refuges must have black letters on a white background stating that the area is a state game refuge.

(b) The notices must be posted at intervals of not more than 500 feet or less along the boundary. The notices must also be posted at all public road entrances to the refuges, except where the boundary is also an international or state boundary in public waters. Where the boundary of a refuge extends more than 500 feet continuously through a body of water, instead of placing notices in the water, notices with the words, "Adjacent Waters Included," may be placed on the shoreline at the intersection of the boundary and the water 20 feet or less above the high water mark and at intervals of 500 feet or less along the shoreline.

(c) A certification by the commissioner or the director, or a certification filed with the commissioner or director by a conservation officer, refuge supervisor, or other authorized officer or employee, stating that the required notices have been posted is prima facie evidence of the posting.

Sec. 12. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 97A.111, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [ISSUANCE OF LICENSE.] (a) The commissioner shall investigate the application filed and may require the applicant to produce evidence of the facts stated. The commissioner shall issue a muskrat farm license to an applicant if the commissioner determines that:

- (1) the applicant is the owner of the land;
- (2) the applicant intends to establish and operate a muskrat farm; and
- (3) the establishment of a muskrat farm in the proposed area will conserve the natural resources.

(b) The license must describe the land and certify that the licensee is entitled to use the land to breed, raise, trap, and trade muskrats. The license expires on December 31 each year but may be renewed annually at the discretion of the commissioner upon payment of the license fee.

Sec. 13. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 97A.111, subdivision 7, is amended to read:

Subd. 7. [ANNUAL REPORT.] By March 1 31 of each year, the licensee must submit a signed report to the commissioner covering the preceding calendar license year. The report must be completed on a form furnished by the commissioner stating the license number, the number and value of muskrats killed, transported, and sold from the muskrat farm, and other information required by the commissioner.

Sec. 14. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 97A.121, subdivision 5, is amended to read:

Subd. 5. [MARKING HARVESTED GAME.] Harvested game, except ducks that are marked in accordance with regulations of the United States Fish and Wildlife Service, must be tagged with a self-sealing tag, identifying the private shooting preserve. The commissioner shall issue the tags at a cost of 15 cents each. The tag must remain attached on the bird until while the bird is actually prepared for consumption transported.

Sec. 15. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 97A.135, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [PUBLIC HUNTING AND WILDLIFE AREAS.] (a) The commissioner or the commissioner of administration shall acquire and improve land for public hunting, game refuges, and food and cover planting. The land may be acquired by a gift, lease, easement, purchase, or condemnation. At least two-thirds of the total area acquired in a county must be open to public hunting. The commissioner may designate land acquired under this subdivision as a wildlife management area for the purposes of the outdoor recreation system.

(b) The commissioner of administration may transfer money to the commissioner for acquiring wetlands wildlife lands to qualify for Pittman-Robertson funds. The transferred money is reappropriated to the commissioner for the wetland wildlife land acquisition.

Sec. 16. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 97A.201, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [ENFORCEMENT BY THE COMMISSIONER.] The commissioner shall execute and enforce the laws relating to wild animals. The commissioner may delegate execution and enforcement of the wild animal laws to the director, game refuge managers, and conservation enforcement officers.

Sec. 17. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 97A.211, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [NOTICE TO APPEAR IN COURT.] (a) A person must be given notice to appear in court for a misdemeanor violation of the game and fish laws, chapter 84, 105, or ~~106~~ 106A, or section 609.68 if:

(1) the person is arrested and is released from custody prior to appearing before a court; or

(2) the person is subject to a lawful arrest and is not arrested because it reasonably appears to the enforcement officer that arrest is unnecessary to prevent further criminal conduct and that there is a substantial likelihood that the person will respond to a notice:

(b) The enforcement officer shall prepare, in quadruplicate, a written notice to appear in court. The notice must be in the form and has the effect of a summons and complaint. The notice must contain the name and address of the person charged, the offense, and the time and the place to appear in court. The court must have jurisdiction within the county where the offense is alleged to have been committed.

Sec. 18. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 97A.211, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [RELEASE AFTER ARREST.] A person arrested for a misdemeanor violation of the game and fish laws, chapter 84, 105, or ~~106~~ 106A or section 609.68 may obtain release by signing the written notice prepared by the arresting officer promising to appear in court. The officer shall deliver a copy marked "SUMMONS" to the person arrested. The officer must then release the person from custody.

Sec. 19. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 97A.221, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [PROPERTY SUBJECT TO CONFISCATION.] (a) An enforcement officer may confiscate:

(1) wild animals, wild rice, and other aquatic vegetation taken, bought, sold, transported, or possessed in violation of the game and fish laws or chapter 84; and

(2) firearms, bows and arrows, nets, boats, lines, poles, fishing rods and tackle, lights, lanterns, snares, traps, spears, dark houses, fish houses, and wild rice harvesting equipment that are used, with the owner's knowledge to unlawfully take or transport wild animals, wild rice, or other aquatic vegetation.

(b) An enforcement officer must confiscate nets and equipment unlawfully possessed within ten miles of Lake of the Woods or Rainy Lake.

(c) Confiscated property may be disposed of, retained for use by the division, or sold at the highest price obtainable as prescribed by the commissioner.

Sec. 20. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 97A.255, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [BURDEN OF PROOF.] In a prosecution that alleges animals have been taken, bought, sold, transported, or possessed in violation of the game and fish laws, the burden of establishing that the animals were domesticated, reared in a private preserve, raised in a private fish hatchery, taken for scientific purposes, or lawfully taken outside of this state, or received as a gift, is on the defendant.

Sec. 21. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 97A.311, subdivision 4, is amended to read:

Subd. 4. [SUSPENSION OF LICENSE AGENT SUSPENSION.] In addition to other penalties, a license agent that violates a law, rule, or order of the commissioner relating to license sales, handling, or accounting forfeits the right to sell and handle licenses for a period of one year.

Sec. 22. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 97A.315, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [LICENSE REVOCATIONS.] (a) If a person is convicted under ~~subdivision 1~~ of trespassing under subdivision 1 while exercising or attempting to exercise an activity licensed under the game and fish laws or requiring snowmobile registration under section 84.82, the applicable license and registration are null and void.

(b) A person convicted of a gross misdemeanor under subdivision 1, paragraph (b), may not be issued a license to take game for two years after the conviction.

Sec. 23. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 97A.325, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [GROSS MISDEMEANOR FOR SALES OF $300 OR MORE.] (a) A person that buys or sells protected wild animals in violation of the game and fish laws where the sales total $300 or more is guilty of a gross misdemeanor. The person is subject to the penalty in section ~~97A.301~~ 97A.301, subdivision 2, except that the fine is may not be less than $3,000 or more than $10,000.

(b) Licenses possessed by a person convicted under this subdivision are null and void and the person may not take wild animals for three years after the conviction.

Sec. 24. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 97A.331, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [~~HUNTING WHILE INTOXICATED OR USING NARCOTIC DRUGS UNDER THE INFLUENCE OF ALCOHOL OR A CONTROLLED SUBSTANCE.~~] A person that violates a the provision of section 97B.065 relating to hunting while ~~visibly intoxicated or under the influence of alcohol or a narcotic drug under section 97B.065, controlled substance~~ is guilty of a gross misdemeanor.

Sec. 25. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 97A.405, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [PERSONAL POSSESSION.] A person to whom a license is issued must have the license in personal possession while acting under the license and while traveling to and from the area where the licensed activity is performed. If possession of a license is required, a person must exhibit the proper license when requested by a conservation officer or peace officer. A receipt for license fees, a copy of a license, or evidence showing the issuance of a license does not entitle a licensee to exercise the rights or privileges conferred by a license.

Sec. 26. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 97A.415, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [ONE LICENSE PER PERSON.] Only one trapping and big game license of each kind may be issued to a person in a license year; ~~except the nonresident short term angling license,~~ unless authorized by commissioner's order.

Sec. 27. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 97A.421, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [GENERAL.] (a) The license of a person convicted of a violation of the game and fish laws relating to the license or wild animals covered by the license is void when:

(1) a second conviction occurs within three years under a license to take small game or to take fish by angling or spearing;

(2) a third conviction occurs within one year under a minnow dealer's license; or

(3) the conviction occurs under a license not described in clause (1) or (2).

(b) Except for big game licenses and as otherwise provided in this section, and for one year after the conviction, the person may not obtain that the kind of license relating to the game and fish law violation.

Sec. 28. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 97A.425, is amended to read:

97A.425 [RECORD AND REPORTING REQUIREMENTS FOR DEALERS, TANNERS, AND TAXIDERMISTS.]

Subdivision 1. [REQUIREMENT.] A person required to have a license under the game and fish laws to buy or sell wild animals, to tan or dress raw furs, or to mount specimens of wild animals, must keep complete records in a book of all transactions and activities covered by the license and submit reports to the commissioner.

Subd. 2. [RECORDS.] (a) The records must show:

(1) the names and addresses of persons from whom wild animals were obtained and to whom they were transferred;

(2) the dates of receipt, shipment, and sale of wild animals;

(3) detailed descriptions of the number and type of wild animals purchased, sold, and shipped;

(4) serial numbers of seals, tags, or permits required to be attached to the wild animals; and

(5) trapping license numbers for protected fur-bearing animals, unless the trapper is exempt from the license requirement, which must be noted.

(b) A licensed fur dealer, buying for one employer at the employer's place of business is not required to keep separate records if the employer notifies the commissioner in writing that the employer will account for the fur dealer.

(c) The records required under this section must be available for inspection by the commissioner, the director, or their agents at all reasonable times. The records must be preserved and available for two years after the expiration of a license that required them.

(d) Records required of persons licensed to buy or sell wild animals, or to tan or dress raw furs, must be kept in a book supplied by the commissioner.

Subd. 3. [REPORTS.] Except for persons licensed to mount specimens of wild animals, an annual notarized report covering the preceding calendar license year must be submitted to the commissioner by January March 15. The commissioner may require other reports for statistical purposes. The reports must be on forms supplied by the commissioner.

Sec. 29. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 97A.445, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [ANGLING AND SPEARING; DISABLED RAILROAD AND POSTAL RETIREES.] A license is not required to take fish by angling or spearing for a resident that is:

(1) receiving aid under the federal Railroad Retirement Act of 1937, United States Code Annotated, title 45, section 228b(a)5; or

Subd. 5. [NONRESIDENTS UNDER AGE 16; FISHING WITH PARENTS.] A nonresident under the age of 16 may take fish by angling without a license if a parent or guardian has a ~~nonresident~~ fishing license. Fish taken by a nonresident under the age of 16 without a license must be included in the limit of the parent or guardian. A nonresident under age 16 may purchase a nonresident fishing license, take fish by angling, and possess a limit of fish.

Sec. 32. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 97A.475, subdivision 7, is amended to read:

Subd. 7. [NONRESIDENT FISHING.] Fees for the following licenses, to be issued to nonresidents, shall be

(1) to take fish by angling, $16;

- (2) to take fish by angling limited to seven consecutive days, $13;
- (3) to take fish by angling for three consecutive days, $10; and
- (4) to take fish by angling for a combined license for a family, $27.50.

Sec. 33. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 97A.481, is amended to read:

97A.481 [LICENSE APPLICATIONS UNDER OATH.]

All information required on a license application form must be furnished. The application must be made in writing and under oath. ~~A person authorized to issue licenses has the authority to administer oaths to applicants, and a license may not be issued without actually administering the oath.~~

Sec. 34. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 97A.505, subdivision 4, is amended to read:

Subd. 4. [STORAGE OF PROTECTED WILD ANIMALS.] A person that stores protected wild animals for others must plainly mark the package, in ink, with the name and address of the owner, the license number of the person taking the animal, and the number and species in the package. A person may not use a commercial cold storage warehouse for protected wild animals, except lawfully taken fish and furs.

Sec. 35. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 97A.505, subdivision 5, is amended to read:

Subd. 5. [LICENSE NOT REQUIRED FOR ANIMALS ACQUIRED BY GIFT.] Lawfully taken protected wild animals may be transferred by gift. A person is not required to have a license to possess and transport protected wild animals acquired by gift if the person has written proof as prescribed by the commissioner. If wild animals are transported out of the county where the recipient resides, the recipient must:

- (1) ~~attach a tag marked in ink, with the name and address of the owner and the license number of the person taking the animals; or~~
- (2) ~~furnish an affidavit showing the name and address of the donor.~~

Sec. 36. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 97A.535, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [TRANSPORTATION PERIOD RESTRICTED.] A person may transport ~~one~~ deer, ~~one~~ bear, or ~~one~~ moose during the open season and the two days following the season, and afterwards as prescribed by the commissioner.

Sec. 37. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 97A.535, subdivision 4, is amended to read:

Subd. 4. [TRANSPORTATION BY PERSON OTHER THAN LICENSEE.] A person other than the licensee may transport deer, bear, or moose that the licensee has registered as prescribed by the commissioner. ~~The person must transport the animal by the most direct route.~~ A tag must be attached to the animal and marked in ink with the address, license number, signature of the licensee, and the locations from which and to which the animal is being transported.

Sec. 38. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 97A.545, subdivision 4, is amended to read:

Subd. 4. [UNDRESSED GAME BIRDS TAKEN IN ADJACENT STATES OUTSIDE OF THIS STATE.] (a) A person may transport into the state ~~dressed~~ undressed game birds that are lawfully taken and possessed ~~in adjacent states~~ outside of this state.

(b) A resident may ship the undressed game birds by common carrier within the state. A nonresident may ship the undressed game birds out of the state by common carrier. Each shipment must be tagged or sealed by a conservation officer as prescribed by the commissioner.

Sec. 39. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 97A.551, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [SHIPPING ~~ONE FISH TO ANY PERSON~~.] A person that has a license to take fish may ~~ship one~~ make three shipments of fish in a license year to any person within or out of the state after obtaining a permit for each shipment from the commissioner. ARTICLE 2

CROSS REFERENCE AMENDMENTS

Section 1. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 84.0894, is amended to read:

84.0894 [ENFORCEMENT OF AQUATIC PLANTS AND ENDANGERED SPECIES.]

An enforcement officer shall enforce a violation of Laws 1986, chapter 386, article 4, sections 9 to 13 84.0895, 84.091, 84.092, 84.093, and 84.152 in the same manner as a violation of the game and fish laws.

Sec. 2. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 84.928, subdivision 7, is amended to read:

Subd. 7. [LIABILITY TO ROAD OR TRAIL AUTHORITY.] When a road, trail, or highway right-of-way is used as provided by sections 84.92 to 84.928, 85.018, ~~100.273, subdivision 9,~~ and 296.16, the authority having jurisdiction and the officers and employees of the authority are exempt from liability for any claim by any person arising from that use. This section shall have no effect on the liability of any party or organization having responsibility for the maintenance of a trail or roadway for all-terrain vehicles.

Sec. 3. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 84.944, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [ACQUISITION CONSIDERATIONS.] In determining what critical natural habitat shall be acquired or improved, the commissioner shall consider:

(1) the significance of the land or water as existing or potential habitat for fish and wildlife and providing fish and wildlife oriented recreation;

(2) the significance of the land, water, or habitat improvement to maintain or enhance native plant, fish, or wildlife species designated as endangered or threatened under section 97.488 84.0895;

(3) the presence of native ecological communities that are now uncommon or diminishing; and

(4) the significance of the land, water or habitat improvement to protect or enhance natural features within or contiguous to natural areas including fish spawning areas, wildlife management areas, scientific and natural areas, riparian habitat and fish and wildlife management projects.

Sec. 4. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 84.944, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [DESIGNATION OF ACQUIRED SITES.] The critical natural habitat acquired by the commissioner under this section shall be designated by the commissioner as: (1) an outdoor recreation unit pursuant to section 86A.07, subdivision 3, or (2) as provided in section 97.48, subdivision 11, 26, or 27, 101.42, subdivision 9, or 101.475 sections 97A.101, 97A.125, 97C.001, 97C.011, and 97C.021.

Sec. 5. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 84.944, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [COUNTY ACQUISITION APPROVAL.] The commissioner must follow the procedures under section 97.481 97A.145, subdivision 2, for critical natural habitat acquired under this section.

Sec. 6. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 85.41, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [LICENSE AGENTS.] County auditors are appointed agents of the commissioner for the sale of annual cross country ski licenses and daily permits. A county auditor may appoint subagents within the county or within adjacent counties to sell licenses and permits. Upon appointment the auditor shall notify the commissioner of the name and address of the subagent. The auditor may revoke the appointment of a subagent at any time. Upon demand of the commissioner, the auditor shall revoke a subagent's appointment. The auditor shall furnish license and permit blanks on consignment to any subagent who furnishes a surety bond in favor of the county in an amount at least equal to the value of the blanks to be consigned to that subagent. The county auditor shall be responsible for all blanks issued to, and user fees received by agents, except in St. Louis county or in a county where the county auditor does not retain fees paid for license purposes. In these counties, the responsibilities imposed upon the county auditor are imposed upon the county. The commissioner may promulgate additional rules pursuant to as provided in section 98.50, subdivision 2 97A.485, subdivision 11.

Any resident desiring to sell annual cross country ski licenses and daily permits may either purchase for cash or obtain on consignment license and permit blanks from a county auditor in groups of not less than ten individual blanks. In selling licenses, the resident shall be deemed a subagent of the county auditor and the commissioner, and shall observe all rules promulgated by the commissioner for the accounting and handling of licenses pursuant to section 98.50, subdivision 10 97A.485.

The county auditor shall promptly deposit all monies received from the sale of licenses and permits with the county treasurer, and shall promptly transmit any reports required by the commissioner, plus 96 percent of the price to each annual licensee, exclusive of the issuing fee, for each annual license sold or consigned by the auditor and subsequently sold to a licensee during the accounting period. The county auditor shall retain as a commission four percent of all annual license fees, excluding the issuing fee for licenses consigned to subagents.

Unsold blanks in the hands of any subagent shall be redeemed by the commissioner if presented for redemption within the time prescribed by the commissioner. Any blanks not presented for redemption within the period prescribed shall be conclusively presumed to have been sold, and the subagent possessing the same or to whom they are charged shall be accountable.

Sec. 7. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 106A.085, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [WARRANTS AND ARRESTS.] ~~The commissioner, director of the fish and game division, game refuge patrol officers, and conservation officers~~ An enforcement officer, as defined in section 97A.015, subdivision 18, may execute and serve warrants, and arrest persons detected in actual violation of sections 106A.005 to 106A.811 as provided in section 97.50, subdivision 1 sections 97A.205 and 97A.211.

Sec. 8. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 106A.401, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [COMMISSIONER MUST RECOGNIZE DRAINAGE OUTLET PROCEEDINGS WHEN PURCHASING WETLANDS.] If the commissioner purchases wetlands under section ~~97.481~~ 97A.145, the commissioner must recognize that when a majority of landowners or owners of a majority of the land in the watershed, petition for a drainage outlet, the state should not interfere with or unnecessarily delay the drainage proceedings if the proceedings are conducted according to this chapter.

Sec. 9. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 106A.615, subdivision 6, is amended to read:

Subd. 6. [ASSESSMENTS ON WILDLIFE LANDS TO BE PAID FROM WILDLIFE ACQUISITION FUND.] An assessment against state land acquired for wildlife habitat shall be paid from the wildlife acquisition fund as provided in section 97.484 97A.071, subdivision 4.

Sec. 10. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 144.95, subdivision 4, is amended to read:

Subd. 4. [RESEARCH TRIALS.] Research trials of mosquito management methods and materials are subject to the following laws and rules unless a specific written exemption, license, or waiver is granted; sections 97.48, 97.488, 98.48 84.0895, 84.092, 97A.045, subdivision 1, 105.38, 105.41, and 105.463; and Minnesota Rules, chapters 1505, 6115, 6120, 6134, and 6140.

Sec. 11. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 626.861, subdivision 4, is amended to read:

Subd. 4. [PEACE OFFICERS TRAINING ACCOUNT.] Receipts from penalty assessments must be credited to a peace officers training account in the special revenue fund. Money credited to the peace officers training account may be appropriated for but not limited to the following purposes, among others:

(a) Up to ten percent may be provided for reimbursement to board approved skills courses in proportion to the number of students successfully completing the board's skills licensing examination.

(b) Assessments related to violations described in section 97.49, subdivision 5 97A.065, subdivision 2, are appropriated to provide peace officer training for persons employed by the commissioner of natural resources who are licensed under section 626.84, subdivision 1, clause (c), and who possess peace officer authority for the purpose of enforcing game and fish laws.

(c) The balance may be used to pay each local unit of government an amount in proportion to the number of licensed peace officers and constables employed, at a rate to be determined by the board. The disbursed amount must be used exclusively for reimbursement of the cost of in-service training required under this chapter and chapter 214."

PROTEST AND DISSENT

Pursuant to Article IV, Section 11, of the Minnesota Constitution, we the undersigned members register our protest and dissent regarding the actions of Speaker of the House Fred Norton who removed two Tax Committee members, Rep. Linda Scheid, DFL-Brooklyn Park, and Rep. Tom Osthoff, DFL-St. Paul, because they did not vote for the DFL Tax Bill on the House floor April 29, 1987.

Speaker Norton cuts at the very heart of Democracy in punishing two veteran Tax Committee members for voting on behalf of their constituents and not supporting the DFL Tax Bill. The people of Districts 66A and 47A, like people in every District, have the right to be represented in the House of Representatives. And in turn, Rep. Osthoff and Rep. Scheid have a sworn duty to uphold in casting votes in the best interest of the people they serve.

Reps. Osthoff and Scheid felt the DFL Tax Bill would hurt their constituents so they upheld their oath of office and voted no. Speaker Norton contends DFL Tax Committee members are obliged to vote for majority party tax bills on the House floor and that obligation is a long-standing committee tradition, therefore Osthoff and Scheid deserve punishment. We the undersigned disagree and suggest Speaker Norton is the guilty party for flagrantly disregarding fundamental provisions of the Minnesota Constitution by attempting to stifle the thoughts and expressions of two representatives who seek to effectively serve the people of their districts.

Furthermore, Speaker Norton clearly did not have the best interest of Minnesotans in mind when he ousted Reps. Osthoff and Scheid from the Tax Committee. The two knowledgeable, veteran panel members served this state well and should be rewarded for their actions instead of disciplined in such an abusive and dictatorial manner.

It truly is a dark day at the Capitol when the wishes and desires of one man can come between what is fair and equitable for the people of this great state. Speaker Norton's actions are unbecoming of the title he holds and he owes Minnesotans an apology.

84.0272 [PROCEDURE IN ACQUIRING LANDS.]

When the commissioner of natural resources is authorized to acquire lands or interests in lands the procedure set forth in this section shall apply. The commissioner of natural resources shall first prepare a fact sheet showing the lands to be acquired, the legal authority for their acquisition, and the qualities of the land that make it a desirable acquisition. The commissioner of natural resources shall cause the lands to be appraised. An appraiser shall before entering upon the duties of office take and subscribe an oath to faithfully and impartially discharge the duties as appraiser according to the best of the appraiser's ability and that the appraiser is not interested, directly or indirectly in any of the lands to be appraised or the timber or improvements thereon or in the sale thereof and has entered into no agreement or combination to purchase the same or any part thereof, which oath shall be attached to the report of the appraisal. The commissioner of natural resources shall not agree to pay more than ~~ten percent~~ ~~above~~ the appraised value. New appraisals may be made at the discretion of the commissioner of natural resources."

Reported the same back with the following amendments:

"Sec. 2. [256.979] [CHILD SUPPORT INCENTIVES.]

Subdivision 1. [INCENTIVE AWARD ACCOUNT.] The state share of AFDC child support collections received by the commissioner of human services during fiscal year 1988 in excess of $13,280,000 must be deposited in an incentive award account for nonpublic assistance collections. In succeeding years the commissioner shall deposit in the account the state share of collections that exceed the sum of the prior year's state share and that year's deposits in the incentive award account.

Subd. 2. [RATIO DETERMINATION.] Using information reported to the commissioner of human services under Title IV-D of the Social Security Act by county agencies responsible for child support enforcement, the commissioner shall determine the cost-benefit ratio for each county on a quarterly basis. The commissioner shall determine the ratio by dividing each county's nonpublic assistance collections by the county child support agency costs. For purposes of this section, collections made on behalf of another county agency in Minnesota shall be identified and counted only by the county agency making the collection.

Subd. 3. [PERCENTAGE DETERMINATION.] The commissioner shall use the following table to determine the percentage for each county that corresponds to the ratio determined in subdivision 2. The commissioner shall multiply each county agency's quarterly nonpublic assistance collections by the applicable percentage to determine the county agency's nonpublic assistance dollar amount for purposes of this subdivision.

Ratio*	Percent
.1 or less	3.0
.2	3.5
.4	4.0
.6	4.5

1.8	7.5
2.0	8.0
2.2	8.5
2.4	9.0
2.6	9.5
2.8 or more	10.0

*A county ratio that falls between two listed ratios must be rounded up to the next listed ratio.

Subd. 4. [DISTRIBUTION FORMULA.] (a) The commissioner shall determine each county child support enforcement agency's share of the state's quarterly incentive award for nonpublic assistance collections according to the formula in paragraph (b). County agencies that do not submit the required report to the commissioner within 30 days after the end of the quarter shall not receive an incentive award under this section and are excluded for purposes of the formula in this subdivision. Within 45 days after the end of the quarter, the commissioner shall inform each county agency of the determinations and pay the determined amount to the county agency. Incentive payments under this section must begin with the quarter ending September 30, 1988.

(b) To determine the county agency's quarterly incentive award, the commissioner shall:

(1) add all county agency quarterly nonpublic assistance dollar amounts as determined in subdivision 2;

(2) divide the state's quarterly nonpublic assistance incentive award by the total obtained in clause (1); and

(3) multiply the quotient obtained in clause (2) by each county agency's quarterly nonpublic assistance dollar amount as determined under subdivision 2."

Subd. 10. [ADMINISTRATIVE PROCESS CHILD SUPPORT PILOT PROJECT.] A pilot project is established to obtain, modify, and enforce child and medical support orders and maintenance through administrative process, to evaluate the efficiency of the administrative process. The pilot project shall begin on July 1, 1988, and end on June 30, 1989.

Except for child and medical support orders and maintenance obtained in conjunction with marriage dissolutions and actions to establish parentage, all proceedings for obtaining, modifying, or enforcing child and medical support orders and maintenance required to be conducted in Dakota county in which Dakota county human services is a party or represents a party to the action from July 1, 1988, to June 30, 1989, must be conducted by an administrative law judge from the office of administrative hearings. For the purpose of this pilot project, all powers, duties, and responsibilities conferred on judges of the county or district court to obtain, modify, and enforce child and medical support and maintenance, except for powers of contempt, are conferred on the administrative law judge conducting the proceedings.

During fiscal year 1988, the chief administrative law judge, the commissioner of human services, the director of Dakota county human services, the Dakota county attorney, and the clerk of the Dakota county court shall jointly establish procedures for the implementation of this pilot project.

A nonattorney employee of Dakota county human services, acting at the direction of the county attorney, may prepare, sign, serve, and file motions for obtaining, modifying, or enforcing child and medical support orders and maintenance and related documents, appear at prehearing conferences, and participate in proceedings before an administrative law judge. This activity shall not be considered to be the unauthorized practice of law.

For the purpose of this pilot project, the hearings shall be conducted pursuant to the conference contested case rules adopted by the chief administrative law judge. Decisions issued by the administrative law judge shall be appealable directly to the court of appeals."

SPECIAL ORDERS

S. F. No. 785 was reported to the House.

Segal moved to amend S. F. No. 785, as follows:

Delete everything after the enacting clause and insert:

"Section 1. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 609.26, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [DEFENSES.] No person violates subdivision 1 if the action:

(1) is taken to protect the child from physical or sexual assault or substantial emotional harm;

(2) is taken to protect the person taking the action from physical or sexual assault;

(3) is consented to by the parent, stepparent, or legal custodian seeking prosecution; or

(4) is otherwise authorized by a court order issued prior to the violation of subdivision 1.

The defenses provided in this subdivision are in addition to and do not limit other defenses available under this chapter or chapter 611.

Consent to custody or specific visitation under clause (3) must not be construed to be consent to failing to return or concealing a minor child.

Sec. 2. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 609.26, subdivision 5, is amended to read:

Subd. 5. [DISMISSAL OF CHARGE.] A felony charge brought under this section shall be dismissed if:

(a) the person voluntarily returns the child within 14 days after taking, detaining, or failing to return the child in violation of this section; or

(b)(1) the person taking the action and the child have not left the state of Minnesota; and (2) within a period of 14 days after taking the action, (i) a motion or proceeding under chapter 518, 518A, 518B, or 518C is commenced by the person taking the action, or (ii) the attorney representing the person taking the action has consented to service of process by the party whose rights are being deprived, for any motion or action pursuant to chapter 518, 518A, 518B, or 518C.

Clause (a) does not apply if the person returns the child as a result of being located by law enforcement authorities. This subdivision does not prohibit the filing of felony charges or an offense report before the expiration of the 14 days.

Sec. 3. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 609.26, subdivision 6, is amended to read:

Subd. 6. [PENALTY.] Except as otherwise provided in subdivision 5, whoever violates this section is guilty of a felony and may be sentenced to imprisonment for not more than one year and one day or to payment of a fine of not more than $3,000, or both."

Delete the title and insert:

"A bill for an act relating to crimes; authorizing filing of felony charges before the 14-day requirement when the crime charged is depriving another of parental rights; amending Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 609.26, subdivisions 2, 5, and 6."

The motion prevailed and the amendment was adopted.

S. F. No. 785, A bill for an act relating to crimes; eliminating consent defense to charge of depriving another of parental rights; allowing filing of felony charges before 14 days have elapsed; increasing penalty for depriving another of parental rights; amending Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 609.26, subdivisions 2, 5, and 6.

The bill was read for the third time, as amended, and placed upon its final passage.

The bill was passed and its title agreed to.

The Speaker called Long to the Chair.

S. F. No. 911 was reported to the House.

Minne and McEachern moved to amend S. F. No. 911, as follows:

Delete everything after the enacting clause and insert:

"Section 1. [126.071] [BRAILLE INSTRUCTION.]

Subdivision 1. [AVAILABILITY.] A school district shall make available, to a visually impaired pupil, instruction in Braille reading and writing if required under subdivisions 2 and 3.

Subd. 2. [ASSESSMENT.] A visual assessment of a child identified as a visually impaired child must be done at least once every three years. The person who performs the assessment must be mutually agreed upon by the school district and the parent. The assessment must be in writing and must be used in developing or modifying the individual education plan for the assessed child.

Subd. 3. [SPECIFICS OF INDIVIDUAL EDUCATION PLAN.] If the individual education plan recommends that Braille instruction should be commenced or continued for the assessed child, the plan must specify:

- (1) a reason for recommending Braille instruction;
- (2) how many Braille sessions per week must be provided by the school district;
- (3) the duration of each session;
- (4) how to integrate Braille instruction into the assessed child's regular classroom activities; and
- (5) the special training, if any, that the classroom instructional personnel must have to provide the integrated Braille instruction.

Subd. 4. [BRAILLE IS A SERVICE.] Instruction in Braille reading and writing is a service included in special instruction and services under section 120.17."

Further, amend the title as follows:

A roll call was requested and properly seconded.

Lasley moved to amend the Minne and McEachern amendment to S. F. No. 911, as follows:

"Subd. 5. [NEW TECHNOLOGY.] Where this section refers to "Braille" new technology for instruction in reading and writing for the blind may be substituted."

The bill was passed, as amended, and its title agreed to.

S. F. No. 915 was reported to the House.

Pappas moved to amend S. F. No. 915, as follows:

Delete everything after the enacting clause and insert:

"Section 1. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 609.02, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 12. [HARASS.] As used in sections 609.605, subdivision 1, clause (13), 609.746, 609.79, and 609.795, "harass" means to interfere with another person by continued or repeated acts so as to persecute or oppress that person.

Sec. 2. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 609.02, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 3. [THREATEN.] As used in sections 609.605, subdivision 1, clause (13), 609.746, 609.79, and 609.795, "threaten" means to express a purpose or intent to injure the person, property, or rights of another by the commission of an unlawful act.

Sec. 3. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 609.605, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [MISDEMEANOR.] Whoever intentionally does any of the following is guilty of a misdemeanor:

(1) smokes in a building, area, or common carrier in which "no smoking" notices have been prominently posted, or when requested not to by the operator of the common carrier; or

(2) trespasses or permits animals under the actor's control to trespass upon a railroad track; or

(3) permits domestic animals or fowls under the actor's control to go upon the lands of another within a city; or

(4) interferes unlawfully with any monument, sign, or pointer erected or marked to designate a point of a boundary, line or a political subdivision, or of a tract of land; or

(5) trespasses upon the premises of another and, without claim of right, refuses to depart therefrom on demand of the lawful possessor thereof; or

(6) occupies or enters the dwelling of another, without claim of right or consent of the owner or the consent of one who has the right to give consent, except in an emergency situation. As used in this clause, "dwelling" means the building or part of the building used by an individual as a place of residence on either a full-time or a part-time basis. The dwelling may be part of a multidwelling or multipurpose building, or a manufactured home as defined in section 168.011, subdivision 8; or

(7) enters the premises of another with intent to take or injure any fruit, fruit trees, or vegetables growing thereon without the permission of the owner or occupant; or

(8) refuses the request of the operator of a public conveyance to either pay the required fare or leave the conveyance; or

(9) takes any animal on a public conveyance without the consent of the operator; or

(10) without the permission of the owner, tampers with or gets into or upon a motor vehicle as defined in section 609.55, subdivision 1, or rides in or upon such motor vehicle knowing it was taken and is being driven by another without the permission of the owner; or

(11) enters or is found upon the premises of a public or private cemetery without authorization during hours the cemetery is posted as closed to the public; or

(12) without authorization of the adjutant general enters or is present upon the Camp Ripley military reservation; or

(13) returns to the property of another with the intent to harass, abuse, or threaten another, after being told to leave the property and not to return, if the actor has no claim of right to the property and no consent of one with authority to consent.

Sec. 4. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 609.746, is amended to read:

609.746 [INTERFERENCE WITH PRIVACY.]

Subdivision 1. [SURREPTITIOUS INTRUSION.] Any A person who enters upon another's property and surreptitiously gazes, stares, or peeps in the window of a house or place of dwelling of another with intent to intrude upon or interfere with the privacy of a member of the household thereof is guilty of a misdemeanor.

Subd. 2. [INTRUSION ON PRIVACY.] A person who, with the intent to harass, abuse, or threaten another, repeatedly follows or pursues another, after being told not to do so by the person being followed or pursued, is guilty of a misdemeanor. This subdivision does not apply to a member of the news media who repeatedly follows another in a public place for the purpose of gathering information or photographs for a news story.

Sec. 5. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 609.79, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. Whoever,

(1) By means of a telephone,

(a) Makes any comment, request, suggestion or proposal which is obscene, lewd, or lascivious, ~~filthy or indecent,~~

(b) Repeatedly makes a telephone call calls, whether or not conversation ensues, ~~without disclosing the caller's identity and with intent to annoy, abuse, threaten, or harass any person at the called number,~~

(c) Makes or causes the telephone of another repeatedly or continuously to ring, with intent to harass any person at the called number, or

(2) Having control of a telephone, knowingly permits it to be used for any purpose prohibited by this section, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor.

Sec. 6. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 609.795, is amended to read:

609.795 [~~OPENING SEALED LETTER, TELEGRAM, OR PACKAGE;~~ OPENING; HARASSMENT.]

Whoever does ~~either~~ any of the following is guilty of a misdemeanor:

(1) Knowing that the actor does not have the consent of either the sender or the addressee, intentionally opens any sealed letter, telegram, or package addressed to another; or

(2) Knowing that a sealed letter, telegram, or package has been opened without the consent of either the sender or addressee, intentionally publishes any of the contents thereof; or

(3) With the intent to harass, abuse, or threaten repeatedly uses the mails or delivers letters, telegrams, or packages.

Sec. 7. [EFFECTIVE DATE.]

Sections 1 to 6 are effective August 1, 1987, and apply to crimes committed on or after that date.

Delete the title and insert:

"A bill for an act relating to crime; amending trespass law to prohibit harassment on private property; prohibiting following and pursuing with intent to harass, abuse, or threaten; removing requirement that caller not disclose identity for purposes of misdemeanor harassing telephone calls; prohibiting intentional harassment by delivering a letter or object; providing penalties; amending Minnesota Statutes 1986, sections 609.02, by adding subdivisions; 609.605, subdivision 1; 609.746; 609.79, subdivision 1; and 609.795."

The motion prevailed and the amendment was adopted.

"Sec. 4. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 609.605, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 3. [PENALTY ENHANCEMENT.] (a) A person who violates subdivision 1, clause (5), within five years of a prior conviction under that clause is guilty of a gross misdemeanor.

(b) In addition to any other penalty the court may impose under paragraph (a), the court shall, if the person is not otherwise imprisoned under that paragraph, impose a minimum sentence of imprisonment in a jail or other local correctional facility for 30 days."

Page 4, line 25, delete "6" and insert "7"

Renumber the sections in sequence

Amend the title as follows:

Page 1, line 8, after the semicolon, insert "redefining the "claim of right" defense to criminal trespass; requiring a mandatory jail sentence for a second conviction of trespass;"

Page 1, line 11, after "1" insert ", and by adding a subdivision"

The bill was passed, as amended, and its title agreed to.

S. F. No. 1323 which was temporarily laid over earlier today was again reported to the House.

Bishop moved to amend S. F. No. 1323, as follows:

Delete everything after the enacting clause and insert:

"Section 1. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 179A.20, subdivision 4, is amended to read:

Subd. 4. [GRIEVANCE PROCEDURE.] All contracts shall include a grievance procedure which shall provide compulsory binding arbitration of grievances including all disciplinary actions. If the parties cannot agree on the grievance procedure, they shall be subject to the grievance procedure promulgated by the director under section 179A.04, subdivision 3, clause (h).

Employees covered by civil service systems created under chapter 43A, 44, 375, 387, 419, or 420, by a home rule charter under chapter 410, or by Laws 1941, chapter 423, or a veteran entitled to a discharge hearing under section 197.46, may pursue a grievance through the procedure established under this section. When the grievance is also within the jurisdiction of appeals boards or appeals procedures created by chapter 43A, 44, 197, 375, 387, 419, or 420, by a home rule charter under chapter 410, or by Laws 1941, chapter 423, the employee may proceed through the grievance procedure or the civil service or veteran's appeals procedure, but once a written grievance or appeal has been properly filed or submitted by the employee or on the employee's behalf with the employee's consent the employee may not proceed in the alternative manner.

This section does not require employers or employee organizations to negotiate on matters other than terms and conditions of employment.

Sec. 2. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 197.46, is amended to read:

197.46 [VETERANS PREFERENCE ACT; REMOVAL FORBIDDEN; RIGHT OF MANDAMUS.]

Any person whose rights may be in any way prejudiced contrary to any of the provisions of this section, shall be entitled to a writ of mandamus to remedy the wrong. No person holding a position by appointment or employment in the several counties, cities, towns, school districts and all other political subdivisions in the state, who is a veteran separated from the military service under honorable conditions, shall be removed from such position or employment except for incompetency or misconduct shown after a hearing, upon due notice, upon stated charges, in writing.

Any veteran who has been notified of the intent to discharge the veteran from an appointed position or employment pursuant to this section shall be notified in writing of such intent to discharge and of the veteran's right to request a hearing within 60 days of receipt of the notice of intent to discharge. The failure of a veteran to request a hearing within the provided 60-day period shall constitute a waiver of the right to a hearing. Such failure shall also waive all other available legal remedies for reinstatement. A hearing under this section shall not be available to a public employee who contests the discharge in a grievance procedure under section 179A.20, subdivision 4.

Request for a hearing concerning such a discharge shall be made in writing and submitted by mail or personal service to the employment office of the concerned employer or other appropriate office or person.

In all governmental subdivisions having an established civil service board or commission, or merit system authority, such hearing for removal or discharge shall be held before such civil service board or commission or merit system authority. Where no such civil service board or commission or merit system authority exists, such hearing shall be held by a board of three persons appointed as follows: one by the governmental subdivision, one by the veteran, and the third by the two so selected. In the event the two persons so selected do not appoint the third person within ten days after the appointment of the last of the two, then the judge of the district court of the county wherein the proceeding is pending, or if there be more than one judge in said county then any judge in chambers, shall have jurisdiction to appoint, and upon application of either or both of the two so selected shall appoint, the third person to the board and the person so appointed by the judge with the two first selected shall constitute the board. The veteran may appeal from the decision of the board upon the charges to the district court by causing written notice of appeal, stating the grounds thereof, to be served upon the governmental subdivision or officer making the charges within 15 days after notice of the decision and by filing the original notice of appeal with proof of service thereof in the office of the court administrator of the district court within ten days after service thereof. Nothing in section 197.455 or this section shall be construed to apply to the position of private secretary, teacher, superintendent of schools, or one chief deputy of any elected official or head of a department, or to any person holding a strictly confidential relation to the appointing officer. The burden of establishing such relationship shall be upon the appointing officer in all proceedings and actions relating thereto.

All officers, boards, commissions, and employees shall conform to, comply with, and aid in all proper ways in carrying into effect the provisions of section 197.455 and this section notwithstanding any laws, charter provisions, ordinances or rules to the contrary. Any willful violation of such sections by officers, officials, or employees is a misdemeanor.

Sec. 3. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 325B.15, is amended to read:

325B.15 [COVERAGE.]

The provisions of sections 325B.01 to 325B.17 shall cover agreements in existence on May 28, 1977, as well as agreements entered into after May 28, 1977.

Sec. 4. [REPEALER.]

Minnesota Statutes 1986, sections 466.03, subdivision 2; 487.39; and 595.04, are repealed.

Delete the title and insert:

“A bill for an act relating to statutes; conforming various laws to judicial decisions of unconstitutionality and suggestions for clarity; amending Minnesota Statutes 1986, sections 179A.20, subdivision 4; 197.46; and 352B.15; repealing Minnesota Statutes 1986, sections 466.03, subdivision 2; 487.39; and 595.04."

The motion prevailed and the amendment was adopted.

Bishop and Rest moved to amend S. F. No. 1323, as amended, as follows:

"Sec. 5. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 466.07, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [AUTHORITY TO INDEMNIFY.] The governing body of any municipality may defend, save harmless, and indemnify any of its officers and employees, whether elective or appointive, against any tort claim or demand, whether groundless or otherwise, arising out of an alleged act or omission occurring in the performance of duty. Any independent board or commission of the municipality having authority to disburse funds for a particular function without approval of the governing body may similarly defend, save harmless, and indemnify its officers and employees against such tort claims or demands.

Notwithstanding any provisions to the contrary in section 127.03, subdivision 2, or 466.12, this section applies to all school districts, however organized."

Amend the title accordingly

The motion prevailed and the amendment was adopted.

S. F. No. 1323, A bill for an act relating to statutes; conforming various laws to judicial decisions of unconstitutionality and suggestions for clarity; amending Minnesota Statutes 1986, sections 169.123, subdivision 7; 325B.15; 487.01, subdivisions 2, 3, and 4; 487.21, subdivision 4; 487.23, subdivisions 1, 2, and 3; 487.25, subdivisions 1 and 2; 487.33, subdivision 1; 488A.01, subdivision 14; 488A.18, subdivision 14; 501.35; and 525.712; repealing Minnesota Statutes 1986, sections 466.03, subdivision 2; 487.39; and 595.04.

S. F. No. 1097 was reported to the House.

Kludt moved to amend S. F. No. 1097, as follows:

Delete everything after the enacting clause and insert:

“Section 1. [611A.037] [RIGHT TO SUBMIT STATEMENT AT SENTENCING.]

Subdivision 1. [IMPACT STATEMENT.] A victim has the right to submit an impact statement, either orally and/or in writing, to the court at the time of sentencing or disposition hearing.

Statements may include the following, subject to reasonable limitations as to time and length:

(1) a summary of the harm or trauma suffered by the victim as a result of the crime;

(2) a summary of the economic loss or damage suffered by the victim as a result of the crime; and

(3) the victim's recommendation for an appropriate sentence or disposition, and the victim's objections, if any, to the proposed sentence or disposition.

Sec. 2. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 629.72, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [JUDICIAL REVIEW; RELEASE; BAIL.] The judge before whom the arrested person is brought shall review the facts surrounding the arrest and detention. The arrested person must be ordered released pending trial or hearing on the person's personal recognizance or on an order to appear or upon the execution of an unsecured bond in a specified amount unless the judge determines that release (1) will be inimical to public safety, (2) will create a threat of bodily harm to the arrested person, the victim of the alleged assault, or another, or (3) will not reasonably assure the appearance of the arrested person at subsequent proceedings. If the judge determines release is not advisable, the judge may impose any conditions of release that will reasonably assure the appearance of the person for subsequent proceedings, or will protect the victim of the alleged assault, or may fix the amount of money bail without other conditions upon which the arrested person may obtain release. If conditions of release are imposed, the judge shall issue a written order for conditional release. The court administrator shall immediately distribute a copy of the order for conditional release to the agency having custody of the arrested person and shall provide the agency having custody of the arrested person with any available information on the location of the victim in a manner that protects the victim's safety. Either the court or its designee or the agency having custody of the arrested person shall serve upon the defendant a copy of the order. Failure to serve the arrested person with a copy of the order for conditional release does not invalidate the conditions of release.

Sec. 3. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 629.72, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 5. [VIOLATIONS OF CONDITIONS OF RELEASE.] The judge who released the arrested person shall issue a warrant directing that the person be arrested and taken immediately before the judge, if:

(1) the judge receives an application alleging that the arrested person has violated the conditions of release; and

(2) the judge finds that probable cause exists to believe that the conditions of release have been violated.

Sec. 4. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 629.72, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 6. [NOTICE TO VICTIM REGARDING RELEASE OF ARRESTED PERSON.] (a) Immediately after the issuance of a citation in lieu of continued detention under subdivision 1, or the entry of an order for release under subdivision 2, but before the arrested person is released, the agency having custody of the arrested person or its designee must make a reasonable and good faith effort to inform orally the alleged victim of:

- (1) the conditions of release, if any;
- (2) the time of release;
- (3) the time, date, and place of the next scheduled court appearance of the arrested person and the victim's right to be present at the court appearance; and
- (4) the location and telephone number of the area battered women's shelter as designated by the department of corrections.

(b) As soon as practicable after an order for conditional release is entered, the agency having custody of the arrested person or its designee must personally deliver or mail to the alleged victim a copy of the written order and written notice of the information in clauses (2) and (3).

Sec. 5. [EFFECTIVE DATE.]

Section 1 is effective August 1, 1987. Sections 2 to 4 are effective August 1, 1987, and apply to crimes committed on or after that date."

Delete the title and insert:

ANNOUNCEMENT BY THE SPEAKER

The Speaker announced the appointment of the following members of the House to a Conference Committee on S. F. No. 353:

Nelson, D.; Pauly and Larsen.

REPORT FROM THE COMMITTEE ON RULES AND LEGISLATIVE ADMINISTRATION

Vanasek, from the Committee on Rules and Legislative Administration, pursuant to House Rule No. 1.9, designated the following bills as Special Orders to be acted upon immediately following Special Orders pending for today, Thursday, May 7, 1987:

S. F. No. 1261; H. F. No. 350; S. F. No. 555; H. F. Nos. 1104, 1189 and 663; S. F. No. 607; H. F. No. 65; S. F. No. 948; H. F. No. 1496; S. F. No. 1296; H. F. No. 1283; S. F. Nos. 494, 833, 406, 378, 743, 830, 800, 1053 and 300.

SPECIAL ORDERS

S. F. No. 1261 was reported to the House.

Simoneau moved to amend S. F. No. 1261, as follows:

"Sec. 4. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 515A.2-110, is amended to read:

515A.2-110 [CONDOMINIUM PLATS.]

(a) Condominium plats are a part of the declaration. The condominium plat shall contain a certification by a registered professional land surveyor or registered professional architect, as to the parts of the plat prepared by each, that the condominium plat accurately depicts all information required by this section. The portions of the condominium plat depicting the dimensions of the portions of the condominium described in paragraphs (b)(3), (8), (9), (10), and (11), may be prepared by either a land surveyor or an architect. The other portions of the plat shall be prepared only by a land surveyor. All measurements shall be undertaken in accordance with good professional practice. The certification shall indicate that the work was undertaken by or under the supervision of the certifying architect or land surveyor. Certification by the architect or land surveyor does not constitute a guaranty or warranty of the nature, suitability, or quality of construction of the condominium.

(b) Each condominium plat shall show:

(1) the number of the condominium and the boundaries and dimensions of the land included in the condominium;

(2) the dimensions and location of all existing structural improvements and roadways;

(3) the intended location and dimensions of any contemplated common element improvements to be constructed within the condominium labeled either "MUST BE BUILT" or "NEED NOT BE BUILT";

(4) the location and dimensions of any additional real estate, labeled as such;

(5) the extent of any encroachments by or upon any portion of the condominium;

(6) the location and dimensions of all recorded easements within the condominium serving or burdening any portion of the condominium;

(7) the distance between noncontiguous parcels of real estate;

(8) the location and dimensions of limited common elements, including porches, balconies and patios, other than limited common elements described in section 515A.2-102(2) and (4);

(9) the location and dimensions of the vertical boundaries of each unit and that unit's identifying number;

(10) the location and dimensions of the horizontal unit boundaries with reference to established or assumed datum and that unit's identifying number;

(11) any units which may be converted by the declarant to create additional units or common elements (section 515A.2-115) identified separately.

(c) When adding additional real estate (section 515A.2-111), the declarant shall record supplemental condominium plats for that real estate conforming to the requirements of subsection (b). If less than all additional real estate is being added, the supplemental condominium plats shall also show the location and dimensions of the remaining portion.

(d) If a declarant subdivides or converts any unit into two or more units, common elements or limited common elements (section 515A.2-115), the declarant shall record an amendment to the condominium plat showing the location and dimensions of any new units, common elements and limited common elements thus created."

Amend the title as follows:

Page 1, line 3, after the semicolon insert "allowing architects to prepare portions of condominium plats;"

Page 1, line 5, delete the second "and" and after "16B.71" insert "and 515A.2-110"

The motion prevailed and the amendment was adopted.

DeBlieck moved that S. F. No. 1261, as amended, be temporarily laid over on Special Orders. The motion prevailed.

The Speaker called Simoneau to the Chair.

H. F. No. 350 was reported to the House.

Bishop moved to amend H. F. No. 350, the first engrossment, as follows:

Pages 1 to 2, delete sections 1 and 2; and insert:

"Section 1. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 609.195, is amended to read:

609.195 [MURDER IN THE THIRD DEGREE.]

(a) Whoever, without intent to effect the death of any person, causes the death of another by perpetrating an act eminently dangerous to others and evincing a depraved mind, without regard for human life, is guilty of murder in the third degree and may be sentenced to imprisonment for not more than 25 years.

(b) Whoever, without intent to cause death, proximately causes the death of a human being by, directly or indirectly, unlawfully selling, giving away, bartering, delivering, exchanging, distributing, or administering a controlled substance classified in schedule I or II, is guilty of murder in the third degree and may be sentenced to imprisonment for not more than 25 years or to payment of a fine of not more than $40,000, or both.

Renumber the remaining sections

Amend the title as follows:

Greenfield moved to amend S. F. No. 948, as follows:

Delete everything after the enacting clause and insert:

"Section 1. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 609.347, is amended to read:

609.347 [EVIDENCE.]

Subdivision 1. In a prosecution under sections 609.342 to 609.346, the testimony of a complainant victim need not be corroborated.

Subd. 2. In a prosecution under sections 609.342 to 609.346, there is no need to show that the complainant victim resisted the actor accused.

Subd. 3. In a prosecution under sections 609.342 to 609.346 or 609.365, evidence of the complainant's victim's previous sexual conduct shall not be admitted nor shall any reference to such conduct be made in the presence of the jury, except by court order under the procedure provided in subdivision 4, and only to the extent that the court finds that any of the following proposed evidence is material to the fact at issue in the case and that its inflammatory or prejudicial nature does not outweigh its probative value. The evidence can be admitted only if the probative value of the evidence is not substantially outweighed by its inflammatory or prejudicial nature and only in the circumstances set out in paragraphs (a) and (b). For the evidence to be admissible under paragraph (a), subsection (i), the judge must find by a preponderance of the evidence that the facts set out in the accused's offer of proof are true. For the evidence to be admissible under paragraph (a), subsection (ii) or paragraph (b), the judge must find that the evidence is sufficient to support a finding that the facts set out in the accused's offer of proof are true, as provided under Rule 901 of the Rules of Evidence.

(a) When consent or fabrication by the complainant of the victim is the a defense in the case, the following evidence of such is admissible:

(i) evidence of the victim's previous sexual conduct tending to establish a common scheme or plan of similar sexual conduct under circumstances similar to the case at issue on the part of the complainant, relevant and material to the issue of consent or fabrication. Evidence of such conduct engaged in more than one year prior to the date of alleged offense is inadmissible. In order to find a common scheme or plan, the judge must find that the victim made prior allegations of sexual assault which were fabricated; and

(ii) evidence of the victim's previous sexual conduct with the accused.

(b) When the prosecution's case includes evidence of specific instances of sexual activity showing the source of semen, pregnancy, or disease at the time of the incident or, in the case of pregnancy, between the time of the incident and trial ; evidence of specific instances of the victim's previous sexual conduct is admissible solely to show the source of the semen, pregnancy, or disease.

(c) Evidence of the complainant's past sexual conduct with the defendant;

(d) For purposes of impeachment, when such evidence is offered to rebut specific testimony of the complainant.

Subd. 4. The defendant accused may not offer evidence described in subdivision 3 except pursuant to the following procedure:

(a) A motion shall be made by the defendant accused at least three business days prior to trial, unless later for good cause shown, stating to the court and prosecutor that the defendant has an setting out with particularity the offer of proof of the relevancy of the evidence of that the accused intends to offer, relative to the previous sexual conduct of the complainant which is proposed to be presented victim;

(b) If the court finds that deems the offer of proof is sufficient, the court shall order a hearing out of the presence of the jury, if any, and in such hearing shall allow the defendant accused to make a full presentation of the offer of proof;

(c) At the conclusion of the hearing, if the court finds that the evidence proposed to be offered by the defendant accused regarding the previous sexual conduct of the complainant victim is relevant and material to the fact of consent, admissible under subdivision 3 and is not so prejudicial as to be inadmissible that its probative value is not substantially outweighed by its inflammatory or prejudicial nature, the court shall make an order stating the extent to which evidence is admissible under subdivision 3 and prescribing the nature of questions to be permitted at trial. The defendant accused may then offer evidence pursuant to the order of the court;

(d) If new information is discovered after the date of the hearing or during the course of trial, which may make evidence described in subdivision 3 admissible, the defendant shall accused may make the disclosures under an offer of proof pursuant to clause (a) of this subdivision and the court shall order an in camera hearing to determine whether the proposed evidence is admissible by the standards herein.

Subd. 5. In a prosecution under sections 609.342 to 609.346, the court shall not instruct the jury to the effect that:

(a) It may be inferred that a complainant victim who has previously consented to sexual intercourse with persons other than the defendant accused would be therefore more likely to consent to sexual intercourse again; or

(b) The complainant's victim's previous or subsequent sexual conduct in and of itself may be considered in determining the credibility of the complainant victim; or

(c) Criminal sexual conduct is a crime easily charged by a complainant victim but very difficult to disprove by a defendant an accused because of the heinous nature of the crime; or

(d) The jury should scrutinize the testimony of the complainant victim any more closely than it should scrutinize the testimony of any witness in any felony prosecution.

Subd. 6. (a) In a prosecution under sections 609.342 to 609.346 involving a psychotherapist and patient, evidence of the patient's personal or medical history is not admissible except when:

(1) the defendant accused requests a hearing at least three business days prior to trial and makes an offer of proof of the relevancy of the history; and

(2) the court finds that the history is relevant and that the probative value of the history outweighs its prejudicial value.

(b) The court shall allow the admission only of specific information or examples of conduct of the complainant victim that are determined by the court to be relevant. The court's order shall detail the information or conduct that is admissible and no other evidence of the history may be introduced.

(c) Violation of the terms of the order is grounds for mistrial but does not prevent the retrial of the defendant accused.

Subd. 7. [EFFECT OF STATUTE ON RULES.] Rule 404, paragraph (c) of the Rules of Evidence is superseded to the extent of its conflict with this section.

Sec. 2. [EFFECTIVE DATE.]

Section 1 is effective August 1, 1987, and applies to proceedings commenced on or after that date.

Amend the title as follows:

Page 1, line 5, after the semicolon, insert "making certain statutory changes for the purpose of consistency with the rules of evidence;"

Schoenfeld, Brown and Uphus moved to amend S. F. No. 743, as follows:

"Sec. 4. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 49.34, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 3. [DEFINITIONS.] (a) For the purposes of this subdivision, the following terms have the meanings given them:

(1) "bank holding company" has the meaning as that term is defined in section 2 of the Bank Holding Company Act of 1956, as amended, United States Code, title 12, section 1841;

(2) "consumer loans" means those loans reported by a bank as loans to individuals in the bank's call report to its supervisory authority;

(3) "agricultural loans" means those loans reported by a bank as loans to finance agricultural production and loans secured by farmland in the bank's call report to its supervisory authority;

(4) "small business loans" means those loans that are: (i) made to small businesses as defined in section 645.445; and (ii) that are reported by a bank as commercial and industrial loans in the bank's call report to its supervisory authority;

(5) "total loans" means the total dollars reported by a bank as total domestic loans in the bank's call report to its supervisory authority; and

(6) "primary capital ratio" means the ratio of the bank's primary capital to total assets as calculated by the bank's supervisory authority.

(b)(1) No bank may acquire another bank under subdivision 2 or establish a detached facility under sections 47.51 to 47.57 unless it meets the requirements of paragraph (b), clause (2). In the case of a bank owned or controlled by a bank holding company, or where the successor bank that results from an acquisition is to be owned or controlled by a bank holding company, all banks that are owned or controlled by the parent bank holding company must each individually also meet the requirements of paragraph (b), clause (2).

(2) The acquiring bank or bank establishing a detached facility and each affiliate bank of the parent bank holding company must, individually, have met the following requirements in each of the previous five years:

(i) at least ten percent of each bank's dollar amount of total loans made must have been consumer loans;

(ii) at least ten percent of each bank's dollar amount of total loans made must have been agricultural and/or small business loans; and

(iii) at least 30 percent of each bank's dollar amount of total loans made must have been consumer loans and small business and/or agricultural loans.

If a bank's consumer loans under subclause (i) for any one year is equal to or greater than 30 percent of the dollar amount of total loans, then the bank need not meet the minimum requirements of subclause (ii).

If a bank's small business and/or agricultural loans under subclause (ii) for any one year is equal to or greater than 30 percent of the dollar amount of total loans, then the bank need not meet the minimum requirements of subclause (i).

Determination of the amounts of various loans required by this section must be determined by the bank's most recent call report to its supervisory authority and the call reports submitted by the bank for the calendar year end for the immediately preceding four years."

Amend the title as follows:

Page 1, line 3, after the semicolon insert "regulating acquisitions;"

Page 1, line 5, before the semicolon insert ", and by adding a subdivision"

A roll call was requested and properly seconded.

"ARTICLE 1

OFFICE OF SOCIAL WORK AND MENTAL HEALTH BOARDS

Section 1. [148B.01] [DEFINITIONS.]

Subdivision 1. [TERMS.] For the purposes of this chapter, the following terms have the meanings given.

Subd. 2. [OFFICE.] "Office" means the office of social work and mental health boards established in section 2.

Subd. 3. [BOARD OF SOCIAL WORK.] "Board of social work" means the board of social work established in article 2, section 2.

Subd. 4. [BOARD OF MARRIAGE AND FAMILY THERAPY.] "Board of marriage and family therapy" means the board of marriage and family therapy established in article 3, section 2.

Subd. 5. [BOARD OF UNLICENSED MENTAL HEALTH SERVICE PROVIDERS.] “Board of unlicensed mental health service providers” means the board of unlicensed mental health service providers established in article 4, section 2.

Subd. 6. [SOCIAL WORK AND MENTAL HEALTH BOARDS.] “Social work and mental health boards” or “boards” means the board of social work, the board of marriage and family therapy, and the board of unlicensed mental health service providers.

Subd. 7. [REGULATED INDIVIDUAL.] “Regulated individual” means a person licensed by the board of social work or the board of marriage and family therapy, or required to file with the board of unlicensed mental health service providers.

Sec. 2. [148B.02] [OFFICE OF SOCIAL WORK AND MENTAL HEALTH BOARDS.]

Subdivision 1. [CREATION.] The office of social work and mental health boards is established to coordinate the administrative and staff functions of the boards of social work, marriage and family therapy, and unlicensed mental health service providers, and to collect and publish information as provided in this chapter. The office of social work and mental health boards consists of an executive secretary and other staff as provided in section 214.04.

Subd. 2. [REPORTS.] The office shall compile the report required by section 214.07 on behalf of the boards. The office shall present the information according to the category of educational credential held by the regulated individual, if any. Notwithstanding section 214.07, the office shall provide an interim report including this information to the commissioner of health on or before July 1, 1990.

Sec. 3. [148B.03] [APPLICABILITY.]

Sections 4 to 17 apply to all of the social work and mental health boards and the regulated individuals within their respective jurisdictions, unless superseded by an inconsistent law that relates specifically to a particular board.

Sec. 4. [148B.04] [DISCLOSURE.]

Subdivision 1. [CLASSIFICATION OF DATA.] Subject to the exceptions listed in this subdivision, all communications or information received by or disclosed to a board relating to any person or matter subject to its regulatory jurisdiction, and all records of any action or proceedings thereon, except a final decision of the board, are confidential and privileged and any disciplinary hearing must be closed to the public.

Subd. 2. [CONTESTED CASE PROCEEDINGS.] Upon application of a party in a contested case proceeding before a board, the board shall produce and permit the inspection and copying, by or on behalf of the moving party, of any designated documents or papers relevant to the proceedings, in accordance with rule 34, Minnesota rules of civil procedure.

Subd. 3. [INFORMATION ON ADVERSE ACTIONS.] If a board imposes disciplinary measures or takes adverse action of any kind, the name and business address of the regulated individual, the nature of the misconduct, and the action taken by the board are public data.

Subd. 4. [EXCHANGE OF INFORMATION.] The boards shall exchange information with other boards, agencies, or departments within the state, as required under section 214.10, subdivision 8, paragraph (d), and may release information in the reports required under section 2.

Sec. 5. [148B.05] [RIGHT TO PRACTICE.]

Subdivision 1. [ADVERSE ACTION BY A BOARD.] A suspension, revocation, condition, limitation, qualification, or restriction of a regulated individual's license, filing, or right to practice is in effect pending determination of an appeal unless the court, upon petition and for good cause shown, orders otherwise. The right to provide services is automatically suspended if (1) a guardian of the person of a regulated individual is appointed by order of a probate court pursuant to sections 525.54 to 525.612, for reasons other than the minority of the individual, or (2) the individual is committed by order of a probate court pursuant to chapter 253B or sections 526.09 to 526.11. The right to provide services remains suspended until the individual is restored to capacity by a court and, upon petition by the individual, the suspension is terminated by the board after a hearing. In its discretion, a board may restore and reissue permission to provide services, but as a condition thereof may impose any disciplinary or corrective measure that it might originally have imposed.

Subd. 2. [TEMPORARY SUSPENSION OF RIGHT OF PRACTICE.] In addition to any other remedy provided by law, a board may, without a hearing, temporarily suspend the right of a regulated individual to provide services if the board finds that the regulated individual has violated a statute or rule that the board is empowered to enforce and continued practice would create a serious risk of harm to the public. The suspension is effective upon written notice to the individual specifying the statute or rule violated and remains in effect until the board issues a final order in the matter after a hearing. At the time it issues the suspension notice, the board shall schedule a disciplinary hearing to be held pursuant to the administrative procedure act. The individual must be provided with at least 20 days' notice of any hearing held pursuant to this subdivision. The hearing must be scheduled to begin no later than 30 days after the suspension order is issued.

Sec. 6. [148B.06] [TAX CLEARANCE CERTIFICATE.]

Subdivision 1. [CERTIFICATE REQUIRED.] A board may not issue or renew a filing if the commissioner of revenue notifies the board and the regulated individual or applicant for a license or filing that the individual or applicant owes the state delinquent taxes in the amount of $500 or more. A board may issue or renew a license or filing only if the commissioner of revenue issues a tax clearance certificate and the commissioner of revenue or the individual or applicant forwards a copy of the clearance to the board. The commissioner of revenue may issue a clearance certificate only if the individual or applicant does not owe the state any uncontested delinquent taxes. For purposes of this section, "taxes" means all taxes payable to the commissioner of revenue, including penalties and interest due on those taxes. "Delinquent taxes" do not include a tax liability if (i) an administrative or court action that contests the amount or validity of the liability has been filed or served, (ii) the appeal period to contest the tax liability has not expired, or (iii) the regulated individual or applicant has entered into a payment agreement to pay the liability and is current with the payments.

Subd. 2. [HEARING.] In lieu of the notice and hearing requirements of section 16, when a regulated individual or applicant is required to obtain a clearance certificate under this subdivision, a contested case hearing must be held if the individual or applicant requests a hearing in writing to the commissioner of revenue within 30 days of the date of the notice required in subdivision 1. The hearing must be held within 45 days of the date the commissioner of revenue refers the case to the office of administrative hearings. Notwithstanding any other law, the individual or applicant must be served with 20 days' notice in writing specifying the time and place of the hearing and the allegations against the regulated individual or applicant. The notice may be served personally or by mail.

Subd. 3. [INFORMATION REQUIRED.] The boards shall require all regulated individuals or applicants to provide their social security number and Minnesota business identification number on all license or filing applications. Upon request of the commissioner of revenue, the board must provide to the commissioner of revenue a list of all regulated individuals and applicants, including the name and address, social security number, and business identification number. The commissioner of revenue may request a list of the individuals and applicants no more than once each calendar year. Notwithstanding sections 290.61 and 297A.43, the commissioner of revenue may release information necessary to accomplish the purpose of this subdivision.

Sec. 7. [148B.07] [REPORTING OBLIGATIONS.]

Subdivision 1. [PERMISSION TO REPORT.] A person who has knowledge of any conduct constituting grounds for discipline or adverse action relating to licensure or filing under this chapter may report the violation to the appropriate board.

Subd. 2. [INSTITUTIONS.] A state agency, political subdivision, agency of a local unit of government, private agency, hospital, clinic, prepaid medical plan, or other health care institution or organization located in this state shall report to the appropriate board any action taken by the agency, institution, or organization or any of its administrators or medical or other committees to revoke, suspend, restrict, or condition a regulated individual's privilege to practice or treat patients or clients in the institution, or as part of the organization, any denial of privileges, or any other adverse action or disciplinary action for conduct that might constitute grounds for adverse action or disciplinary action by a board under this chapter. The institution or organization shall also report the resignation of any regulated individuals prior to the conclusion of any disciplinary or adverse action proceeding for conduct that might constitute grounds for disciplinary or adverse action under this chapter, or prior to the commencement of formal charges but after the individual had knowledge that formal charges were contemplated or in preparation.

Subd. 3. [PROFESSIONAL SOCIETIES.] A state or local professional society for regulated individuals shall report to the appropriate board any termination, revocation, or suspension of membership or any other disciplinary or adverse action taken against a regulated individual. If the society has received a complaint that might be grounds for discipline under this chapter against a member on which it has not taken any disciplinary or adverse action, the society shall report the complaint and the reason why it has not taken action on it or shall direct the complainant to the appropriate board.

Subd. 4. [REGULATED INDIVIDUALS AND LICENSED PROFESSIONALS.] A regulated individual or a licensed health professional shall report to the appropriate board personal knowledge of any conduct that the regulated individual or licensed health professional reasonably believes constitutes grounds for disciplinary or adverse action under this chapter by any regulated individual, including conduct indicating that the individual may be medically incompetent, or may be medically or physically unable to engage safely in the provision of services. If the information was obtained in the course of a client relationship, the client is another regulated individual, and the treating individual successfully counsels the other individual to limit or withdraw from practice to the extent required by the impairment, the board may deem this limitation of or withdrawal from practice to be sufficient disciplinary action.

Subd. 5. [INSURERS.] Four times each year as prescribed by a board, each insurer authorized to sell insurance described in section 60A.06, subdivision 1, clause (13), and providing professional liability insurance to regulated individuals, or the medical joint underwriting association under chapter 62F, shall submit to the appropriate board a report concerning the regulated individuals against whom malpractice settlements or awards have been made to the plaintiff. The report must contain at least the following information:

(1) the total number of malpractice settlements or awards made to the plaintiff;

(2) the date the malpractice settlements or awards to the plaintiff were made;

(3) the allegations contained in the claim or complaint leading to the settlements or awards made to the plaintiff;

(4) the dollar amount of each malpractice settlement or award;

(5) the regular address of the practice of the regulated individual against whom an award was made or with whom a settlement was made; and

(6) the name of the regulated individual against whom an award was made or with whom a settlement was made.

The insurance company shall, in addition to the above information, report to the board any information it possesses that tends to substantiate a charge that a regulated individual may have engaged in conduct violating this chapter.

Subd. 6. [COURTS.] The court administrator of district court or any other court of competent jurisdiction shall report to the board any judgment or other determination of the court that adjudges or includes a finding that a regulated individual is mentally ill, mentally incompetent, guilty of a felony, guilty of a violation of federal or state narcotics laws or controlled substances act, or guilty of an abuse or fraud under Medicare or Medicaid; or that appoints a guardian of the regulated individual pursuant to sections 525.54 to 525.61 or commits a regulated individual pursuant to chapter 253B or sections 526.09 to 526.11.

Subd. 7. [SELF-REPORTING.] A regulated individual shall report to the appropriate board any personal action that would require that a report be filed with the board by any person, health care facility, business, or organization pursuant to subdivisions 2 to 6.

Subd. 8. [DEADLINES; FORMS.] Reports required by subdivisions 2 to 7 must be submitted not later than 30 days after the occurrence of the reportable event or transaction. The boards may provide forms for the submission of reports required by this section, may require that reports be submitted on the forms provided, and may adopt rules necessary to assure prompt and accurate reporting.

Subd. 9. [SUBPOENAS.] The boards may issue subpoenas for the production of any reports required by subdivisions 2 to 7 or any related documents.

Sec. 8. [148B.08] [IMMUNITY.]

Subdivision 1. [REPORTING.] Any person, health care facility, business, or organization is immune from civil liability or criminal prosecution for submitting a report to a board under section 7 or for otherwise reporting to the board violations or alleged violations of this chapter. All the reports are confidential and absolutely privileged communications.

Subd. 2. [INVESTIGATION.] Members of the boards of social work, marriage and family therapy, and unlicensed mental health professionals, and persons employed by the office or engaged in the investigation of violations and in the preparation and management of charges of violations of this chapter on behalf of the office or boards, are immune from civil liability and criminal prosecution for any actions, transactions, or publications in the execution of, or relating to, their duties under this chapter.

Sec. 9. [148B.09] [PROFESSIONAL COOPERATION.]

A regulated individual who is the subject of an investigation by or on behalf of a board shall cooperate fully with the investigation. Cooperation includes responding fully and promptly to any question raised by or on behalf of the board relating to the subject of the investigation and providing copies of client records, as reasonably requested by the board, to assist the board in its investigation. The board shall pay for copies requested. If the board does not have a written consent from a client permitting access to the client's records, the regulated individual shall delete any data in the record that identifies the client before providing it to the board. The board shall maintain any records obtained pursuant to this section as investigative data pursuant to chapter 13.

Sec. 10. [148B.10] [DISCIPLINARY RECORD ON JUDICIAL REVIEW.]

Upon judicial review of any board disciplinary or adverse action taken under this chapter, the reviewing court shall seal the administrative record, except for the board's final decision, and shall not make the administrative record available to the public.

Sec. 11. [148B.11] [PROFESSIONAL ACCOUNTABILITY.]

Subdivision 1. [INVESTIGATION.] Each board shall maintain and keep current a file containing the reports and complaints filed against regulated individuals within the board's jurisdiction. Each complaint filed with a board pursuant to section 214.10, subdivision 1, must be investigated according to section 214.10, subdivision 2. If the files maintained by a board show that a malpractice settlement or award to the plaintiff has been made against a regulated individual as reported by insurers under section 7, the executive director of the board shall notify the board and the board may authorize a review of the provider's practice.

Subd. 2. [ATTORNEY GENERAL INVESTIGATES.] When a board initiates a review of a regulated individual's practice it shall notify the attorney general who shall investigate the matter in the same manner as provided in section 214.10. If an investigation is to be made, the attorney general shall notify the regulated individual, and, if the incident being investigated occurred there, the administrator and chief of staff, at the health care facilities or clinics in which the professional serves, if applicable.

Subd. 3. [ACCESS TO RECORDS.] The board shall be allowed access to records of a client treated by the regulated individual under review if the client signs a written consent permitting access. If no consent form has been signed, the hospital, clinic, or regulated individual shall first delete data in the record that identifies the client before providing it to the board.

Sec. 12. [148B.12] [MALPRACTICE HISTORY.]

Subdivision 1. [SUBMISSION.] Regulated individuals who have previously practiced in another state shall submit with their filing or application the following information:

(1) number, date, and disposition of any malpractice settlement or award made to the plaintiff or other claimant relating to the quality of services provided by the regulated individual; and

(2) number, date, and disposition of any civil litigations or arbitrations relating to the quality of services provided by the regulated individual in which the party complaining against the individual prevailed or otherwise received a favorable decision or order.

Subd. 2. [BOARD ACTION.] The board shall give due consideration to the information submitted under this section. A regulated individual who willfully submits incorrect information is subject to disciplinary action under this chapter.

Sec. 13. [148B.13] [PUBLICATION OF DISCIPLINARY ACTIONS.]

At least annually, each board shall publish and release to the public a description of all disciplinary measures or adverse actions taken by the board. The publication must include, for each disciplinary measure or adverse action taken, the name and business address of the regulated individual, the nature of the misconduct, and the measure or action taken by the board.

Sec. 14. [148B.14] [EVIDENCE OF PAST SEXUAL CONDUCT.]

In a proceeding for the suspension or revocation of the right to practice or other disciplinary or adverse action involving sexual contact with a client or former client, the board or administrative law judge shall not consider evidence of the client's previous sexual conduct nor shall any reference to this conduct be made during the proceedings or in the findings, except by motion of the complainant, unless the evidence would be admissible under the applicable provisions of section 609.347, subdivision 3.

Sec. 15. [148B.15] [DISPUTE RESOLUTION.]

Subdivision 1. [ARBITRATION.] Each board shall encourage regulated individuals to submit all fee disputes to binding arbitration.

Subd. 2. [MEDIATION.] Each board shall encourage regulated individuals to submit all disputes that are not related to violations of a code of professional conduct to voluntary mediation.

Sec. 16. [148B.16] [CONTESTED CASES.]

Chapters 14 and 214 apply to any disciplinary proceeding or adverse action relating to filing taken under this chapter.

Sec. 17. [148B.17] [FEES.]

Each board shall by rule establish fees, including late fees, for licenses or filings and renewals so that the total fees collected by the board will as closely as possible equal anticipated expenditures during the fiscal biennium, as provided in section 16A.128, plus the prorated costs of the office of social work and mental health boards. Fees must be credited to the special revenue fund.

Sec. 18. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 144.335, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [DEFINITIONS.] For the purposes of this section, the following terms have the meanings given them:

(a) "Patient" means a natural person who has received health care services from a provider for treatment of a medical, psychiatric or mental condition, or a person the patient designates in writing as a representative. Except for minors who have received health care services pursuant to sections 144.341 to 144.347, in the case of a minor, "patient" includes a parent or guardian, or a person acting as a parent or guardian in the absence of a parent or guardian.

(b) "Provider" means (1) any person who furnishes health care services and is licensed to furnish the services pursuant to chapters 147, 148, 148B, 150A, 151, or 153; and (2) a health care facility licensed pursuant to this chapter or chapter 144A.

Sec. 19. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 148A.01, subdivision 5, is amended to read:

Subd. 5. [PSYCHOTHERAPIST.] "Psychotherapist" means a physician, psychologist, nurse, chemical dependency counselor, social worker, member of the clergy, marriage and family therapist, mental health service provider, or other person, whether or not licensed by the state, who performs or purports to perform psychotherapy.

Sec. 20. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 214.01, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. "Health-related licensing board" means the board of examiners of nursing home administrators established pursuant to section 144A.19, the board of medical examiners created pursuant to section 147.01, the board of nursing created pursuant to section 148.181, the board of chiropractic examiners established pursuant to section 148.02, the board of optometry established pursuant to section 148.52, the board of psychology established pursuant to section 148.90, the social work licensing board pursuant to article 2, section 2, the board of marriage and family therapy pursuant to article 3, section 2, the board of mental health service providers established pursuant to article 4, section 2, the board of dentistry established pursuant to section 150A.02, the board of pharmacy established pursuant to section 151.02, the board of podiatry established pursuant to section 153.02, and the board of veterinary medicine, established pursuant to section 156.01.

Sec. 21. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 214.04, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. The executive secretary of each health-related and non-health-related board shall be the chief administrative officer for the board but shall not be a member of the board. The executive secretary shall maintain the records of the board, account for all fees received by it, supervise and direct employees servicing the board, and perform other services as directed by the board. The executive secretaries and other employees of the following boards shall be hired by the board, and the executive secretaries shall be in the unclassified civil service, except as provided in this subdivision:

- (1) dentistry;
- (2) medical examiners;
- (3) nursing;
- (4) pharmacy;
- (5) accountancy;
- (6) architecture, engineering, land surveying and landscape architecture;
- (7) barber examiners;
- (8) cosmetology;
- (9) electricity;
- (10) teaching; and
- (11) peace officer standards and training;
- (12) social work;
- (13) marriage and family therapy;
- (14) unlicensed mental health service providers; and
- (15) office of social work and mental health boards.

The board of medical examiners shall set the salary of its executive director, which may not exceed 95 percent of the top of the salary range set for the commissioner of health in section 15A.081, subdivision 1. At least 30 days before the board of medical examiners adopts a salary increase for its executive director, the board shall submit the proposed salary increase to the legislative commission on employee relations for its review.

The executive secretaries serving the remaining boards shall be hired by those boards, and shall be in the unclassified civil service except for part-time executive secretaries, who are not required to be in the unclassified service. Boards not requiring a full-time executive secretary may employ such services on a part-time basis. To the extent practicable the sharing of part-time executive secretaries by boards being serviced by the same department is encouraged.

Persons providing services to those boards not listed in this subdivision, except executive secretaries of the boards and employees of the attorney general, shall be classified civil service employees of the department servicing the board. To the extent practicable the commissioner shall insure that staff services are shared by the boards being serviced by the department. If necessary, a board may hire part-time, temporary employees to administer and grade examinations.

Sec. 22. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 609.341, subdivision 17, is amended to read:

Subd. 17. "Psychotherapist" means a physician, psychologist, nurse, chemical dependency counselor, social worker, clergy, marriage and family therapist, mental health service provider, or other person, whether or not licensed by the state, who performs or purports to perform psychotherapy.

Sec. 23. [EMERGENCY RULES.]

The office or boards may adopt emergency rules under sections 14.29 to 14.385 to carry out the provisions of this chapter. Notwithstanding contrary provisions of chapter 14, the authority to use sections 14.29 to 14.385 expires on December 31, 1988.

ARTICLE 2

BOARD OF SOCIAL WORK

Section 1. [148B.18] [DEFINITIONS.]

Subdivision 1. [APPLICABILITY.] For the purposes of sections 1 to 11, the following terms have the meanings given them.

Subd. 2. [ACCREDITED PROGRAM OF SOCIAL WORK.] "Accredited program of social work" means a school of social work or other educational program that has been accredited by the council on social work education.

Subd. 3. [BOARD.] "Board" means the social work licensing board created in section 2.

Subd. 4. [COUNTY AGENCY SOCIAL WORKER.] "County agency social worker" means an individual who is employed by a county social service agency in Minnesota in social work practice or clinical social work.

Subd. 5. [STATE AGENCY SOCIAL WORKER.] “State agency social worker” means an individual who is employed by a state social service agency in Minnesota in social work practice or clinical social work.

Subd. 6. [PUBLIC AGENCY SOCIAL WORKER.] “Public agency social worker” means an individual who is employed by the federal government or the state of Minnesota or any of its political subdivisions in social work practice or clinical social work.

Subd. 7. [PRIVATE AGENCY SOCIAL WORKER.] “Private agency social worker” means an individual who is employed by an entity not listed in subdivision 6 in the practice of social work or clinical social work.

Subd. 8. [PRIVATE PRACTICE.] “Private practice” means social work practice conducted by an individual who is either self-employed, or a member of a partnership or of a group practice, rather than being employed by an agency, clinic, or other similar entity.

Subd. 9. [PSYCHOTHERAPY.] “Psychotherapy” means treatment of a person or persons who have cognitive, emotional, behavioral, or social dysfunctions through psychological or interpersonal methods. The treatment is a planned and structured program, conducted by a qualified mental health professional and based on information from a differential diagnostic examination, and is directed toward the accomplishment of goals provided in a plan of care. Social workers qualified to practice psychotherapy are licensed independent clinical social workers; or licensed graduate or licensed independent social workers who have training required by section 4, subdivision 6, and practice under the supervision of a qualified mental health professional.

Subd. 10. [QUALIFIED MENTAL HEALTH PROFESSIONAL.] “Qualified mental health professional” means a psychiatrist, board-certified or eligible for board certification, and licensed under chapter 147; a psychologist licensed under sections 148.88 to 148.98; an independent clinical social worker who has the qualifications in section 4, subdivision 6; or a psychiatric registered nurse with a master’s degree from an accredited school of nursing, licensed under section 148.211, with at least two years of postmaster’s supervised experience in direct clinical practice.

Subd. 11. [SOCIAL WORK PRACTICE.] “Social work practice” includes the application of psychosocial theory and methods in the prevention, treatment, or resolution of social and/or psychological dysfunction caused by environmental stress, interpersonal or intrapersonal conflict, physical or mental disorders, or a combination of these causes, with particular attention to the person-in-situation configuration.

Social work practice also includes but is not limited to psychotherapy, which is restricted to social workers qualified to practice psychotherapy as defined in subdivision 9. For the following four categories of licensure, social work practice also includes the following action:

(a) Licensed social workers evaluate and assess difficulties in psychosocial functioning, develop a treatment plan to alleviate those difficulties, and either carry it out themselves or refer clients to other qualified resources for assistance. Treatment interventions commonly include but are not limited to psychosocial evaluation; counseling of individuals, families, and groups; advocacy; referral to community resources; and facilitation of organizational change to meet social needs.

(b) Licensed graduate social workers and licensed independent social workers evaluate and treat more complex problems in psychosocial functioning. Treatment interventions include but are not limited to psychosocial evaluation; counseling of individuals, families, and groups; referral to community resources; advocacy; facilitation of organizational change to meet social needs; and psychotherapy when conducted under supervision as defined in subdivision 12.

(c) Licensed independent clinical social workers provide professional services for the diagnosis, treatment, and prevention of mental and emotional disorders in individuals, families, and groups, with the goal of restoring, maintaining, and enhancing social functioning. Treatment interventions include, but are not limited to, those listed for licensed graduate and licensed independent social workers plus individual, marital, and group psychotherapy without supervision. Independent clinical social work practice may be conducted by independent clinical social workers in private independent practice or in the employ of a public or private agency or corporation or other legal entity.

Social work practice is not medical care nor any other type of remedial care that may be reimbursed under medical assistance, chapter 256B, except to the extent such care is reimbursed under section 256B.02, subdivision 8, clause (5), or as provided under Minnesota Rules, parts 9500.1070, 9500.1020, or their successor parts.

Subd. 12. [SUPERVISION.] "Supervision" means the direction of social work practice in face-to-face sessions. Further standards for supervision shall be determined by the social work licensing board. Supervision shall be provided:

(1) by a social worker licensed at least at the level of the worker being supervised and qualified under section 4 to practice without supervision; or

(2) when the social work licensing board determines that supervision by a social worker as required in clause (1) is unobtainable, and in other situations considered appropriate by the board of social work examiners, by another qualified professional.

Sec. 2. [148B.19] [SOCIAL WORK LICENSING BOARD.]

Subdivision 1. [CREATION.] The social work licensing board is created. The board consists of ten members appointed by the governor. The members are:

- (1) six social workers licensed under sections 1 to 11;
- (2) three public members as defined in section 214.02; and
- (3) one school social worker licensed by the board of teaching.

Subd. 2. [QUALIFICATIONS OF BOARD MEMBERS.] The six social worker members of the board shall be as follows: two licensed independent clinical social workers, two licensed independent social workers, and two licensed social workers.

Social worker members shall represent the following employment settings:

- (1) two members shall be public agency social workers;
- (2) two members shall be private agency social workers;
- (3) one member shall be engaged in private practice;
- (4) one member shall be an educator engaged in regular teaching duties at an accredited program of social work; and
- (5) in addition, at least two members shall be persons of color and at least four members shall reside outside of the seven-county metropolitan area.

Subd. 3. [MEMBERS OF FIRST BOARD APPOINTED.] Members of the first board appointed according to subdivision 1, clause (1), and subdivision 2, clauses (1) to (5), need not be licensed, but must meet all qualifications, other than payment of fees, to be eligible for licensure under sections 1 to 11.

Subd. 4. [OFFICERS AND EXECUTIVE SECRETARY.] The board shall annually elect from its membership a chair, vice-chair, and secretary-treasurer, and shall adopt rules to govern its proceedings. The board shall appoint and employ an executive secretary who is not a member of the board.

Subd. 5. [TERMS AND SALARIES.] Chapter 214 applies to the social work licensing board unless superseded by sections 1 to 11.

Sec. 3. [148B.20] [DUTIES OF THE BOARD.]

Subdivision 1. [GENERAL.] The social work licensing board shall:

(a) Adopt and enforce rules for licensure of social workers and for regulation of their professional conduct. The rules must be designed to protect the public.

(b) Adopt rules establishing standards and methods of determining whether applicants and licensees are qualified under sections 4 to 6. The rules must make provision for examinations and must establish standards for professional conduct, including adoption of a code of professional ethics and requirements for continuing education.

(c) Hold examinations at least twice a year to assess applicants' knowledge and skills. The examinations may be written or oral and may be administered by the board or by a body designated by the board. Examinations must test the knowledge and skills of each of the four groups of social workers qualified under section 4 to practice social work. Examinations must minimize cultural bias and must be balanced in theory.

(d) Issue licenses to individuals qualified under sections 1 to 11.

(e) Issue copies of the rules for licensure to all applicants.

(f) Establish and implement procedures, including a standard disciplinary process, to ensure that individuals licensed as social workers will comply with the board's rules.

(g) Establish, maintain, and publish annually a register of current licensees.

(h) Establish initial and renewal application and examination fees sufficient to cover operating expenses of the board and its agents.

(i) Educate the public about the existence and content of the rules for social work licensing to enable consumers to file complaints against licensees who may have violated the rules.

(j) Evaluate its rules in order to refine the standards for licensing social workers and to improve the methods used to enforce the board's standards.

Subd. 2. [CONTINUING EDUCATION COMMITTEE.] The board shall appoint a continuing education committee that shall advise the board on the administration of continuing education requirements in sections 1 to 11. The committee chair shall be appointed by the board and shall be a member of the board. Four additional committee members shall be appointed by the board and need not be board members. The committee members and chair shall consist of licensed social workers, licensed independent social workers, and licensed independent clinical social workers as defined in section 4, subdivision 6, and shall include:

(1) a social worker engaged in regular teaching duties at an accredited program of social work;

(2) a public agency social worker;

(3) a private agency social worker;

(4) a social worker engaged in private practice;

(5) a public member as defined in section 214.02; and

(6) in addition, at least one member shall be a person of color and at least one member shall reside outside of the seven-county metropolitan area.

Sec. 4. [148B.21] [REQUIREMENTS FOR LICENSURE.]

Subdivision 1. [CATEGORIES OF LICENSEES.] The board shall issue licenses for the following four groups of individuals qualified under sections 4 to 6 to practice social work:

(1) social workers;

(2) graduate social workers;

(3) independent social workers; and

(4) independent clinical social workers.

Subd. 2. [FEE.] Each applicant shall pay a nonrefundable fee set by the board. Fees paid to the board shall be deposited in the general fund.

Subd. 3. [SOCIAL WORKER.] To be licensed as a social worker, an applicant must provide evidence satisfactory to the board that the applicant:

(1) has received a baccalaureate degree from an accredited program of social work;

(2) has passed the examination provided for in section 3, subdivision 1;

(3) will engage in social work practice only under supervision as defined in section 1, subdivision 12, for at least two years in full-time employment or 4,000 hours; and

(4) will conduct all professional activities as a social worker in accordance with standards for professional conduct established by the rules of the board.

Subd. 4. [GRADUATE SOCIAL WORKER.] To be licensed as a graduate social worker, an applicant must provide evidence satisfactory to the board that the applicant:

(1) has received a master's degree from an accredited program of social work or doctoral degree in social work;

(2) has passed the examination provided for in section 3, subdivision 1;

(3) will engage in social work practice only under supervision as defined in section 1, subdivision 12; and

(4) will conduct all professional activities as a graduate social worker in accordance with standards for professional conduct established by the rules of the board.

Subd. 5. [INDEPENDENT SOCIAL WORKER.] To be licensed as an independent social worker, an applicant must provide evidence satisfactory to the board that the applicant:

(1) has received a master's degree from an accredited program of social work or doctoral degree in social work;

(2) has passed the examination provided for in section 3, subdivision 1;

(3) has practiced social work for at least two years in full-time employment or 4,000 hours under supervision as defined in section 1, subdivision 12, after receiving the master's or doctoral degree in social work; and

(4) will conduct all professional activities as an independent social worker in accordance with standards for professional conduct established by the rules of the board.

Subd. 6. [INDEPENDENT CLINICAL SOCIAL WORKER.] To be licensed as an independent clinical social worker, an applicant must provide evidence satisfactory to the board that the applicant:

(1) has received a master's degree from an accredited program of social work, or doctoral degree in social work, that included an advanced concentration of clinically oriented course work as defined by the board and a supervised clinical field placement at the graduate level, or postmaster's clinical training that is found by the board to be equivalent to that course work and field placement;

(2) has practiced clinical social work for at least two years in full-time employment or 4,000 hours under supervision as defined in section 1, subdivision 12, after receiving the master's or doctoral degree in social work;

(3) has passed the examination provided for in section 3, subdivision 1; and

(4) will conduct all professional activities as an independent clinical social worker in accordance with standards for professional conduct established by the rules of the board.

Sec. 5. [148B.22] [LICENSE RENEWAL REQUIREMENTS.]

Subdivision 1. [RENEWAL.] Licensees shall renew licenses at the time and in the manner established by the rules of the board.

Subd. 2. [CONTINUING EDUCATION.] At the time of renewal, each licensee shall provide evidence satisfactory to the board that the licensee has completed during each three-year period at least the equivalent of 45 clock hours of continuing professional post-degree education in programs approved by the board and continues to be qualified to practice under sections 1 to 11.

Sec. 6. [148B.23] [LICENSES; TRANSITION PERIOD.]

Subdivision 1. [EXEMPTION FROM EXAMINATION.] For two years from the effective date of sections 1 to 11, the board shall issue a license without examination to an applicant:

(1) for a licensed social worker, if the board determines that the applicant has received a baccalaureate degree from an accredited program of social work, or that the applicant has at least a baccalaureate degree from an accredited college or university and two years in full-time employment or 4,000 hours of experience in the supervised practice of social work within the five years before the effective date of sections 1 to 11;

(2) for a licensed graduate social worker, if the board determines that the applicant has received a master's degree from an accredited program of social work or doctoral degree in social work; or a master's or doctoral degree from a graduate program in a human service discipline, as approved by the board;

(3) for a licensed independent social worker, if the board determines that the applicant has received a master's degree from an accredited program of social work or doctoral degree in social work; or a master's or doctoral degree from a graduate program in a human service discipline, as approved by the board; and, after receiving the degree, has practiced social work for at least two years in full-time employment or 4,000 hours under the supervision of a social worker meeting these requirements, or of another qualified professional; and

(4) for a licensed independent clinical social worker, if the board determines that the applicant has received a master's degree from an accredited program of social work or doctoral degree in social work; or a master's or doctoral degree from a graduate program in a human service discipline as approved by the board; and, after receiving the degree, has practiced clinical social work for at least two years in full-time employment or 4,000 hours under the supervision of a clinical social worker meeting these requirements, or of another qualified mental health professional.

Subd. 2. [OTHER REQUIREMENTS.] An applicant licensed under this section must also agree to:

(1) engage in social work practice only under the applicable supervision requirements provided in section 4 for each category of licensees; and

(2) to conduct all professional activities as a social worker in accordance with standards for professional conduct established by the board by rule.

Subd. 3. [TEMPORARY RULEMAKING AUTHORITY.] The board is authorized to adopt emergency and permanent rules to implement this section.

Sec. 7. [148B.24] [RECIPROCITY.]

The board shall issue an appropriate license to an individual who holds a current license or other credential from another jurisdiction if the board finds that the requirements for that credential are substantially similar to the requirements in sections 4 to 6.

Sec. 8. [148B.25] [NONTRANSFERABILITY OF LICENSES.]

A social work license is not transferable.

Sec. 9. [148B.26] [DENIAL, SUSPENSION, OR REVOCATION OF LICENSE.]

Subdivision 1. [GROUNDS.] The board may refuse to renew or to grant a license to, or may suspend, revoke, or restrict the license of an individual whom the board, after a hearing under the contested case provisions of chapter 14, determines:

(1) is incompetent to engage in social work practice, or is found to be engaged in social work practice in a manner harmful or dangerous to a client or to the public;

(2) has violated the rules of the board or the statutes the board is empowered to enforce;

(3) has obtained or attempted to obtain a license or license renewal by bribery or fraudulent representation; or

(4) has knowingly made a false statement on a form required by the board for licensing or license renewal.

Subd. 2. [RESTORING A LICENSE.] For reasons it finds sufficient, the board may grant a license previously refused, restore a license that has been revoked, or reduce a period of suspension or restriction of a license.

Subd. 3. [REVIEW.] Suspension, revocation, or restriction of a license shall be reviewed by the board at the request of the licensee against whom the disciplinary action was taken.

Sec. 10. [148B.27] [PROHIBITION AGAINST UNLICENSED PRACTICE OR USE OF TITLES; PENALTY.]

Subdivision 1. [PRACTICE.] After the board adopts rules, no individual shall engage in social work practice unless that individual holds a valid license as a licensed social worker, licensed graduate social worker, licensed independent social worker, or licensed independent clinical social worker.

Subd. 2. [USE OF TITLES.] After the board adopts rules, no individual shall be presented to the public by any title incorporating the words "social work" or "social worker" unless that individual holds a valid license issued under sections 1 to 11. City, county, and state agency social workers who are not licensed under sections 1 to 11 may use the title city agency social worker or county agency social worker or state agency social worker.

Subd. 3. [PENALTY.] A person who violates sections 4 to 11 is guilty of a misdemeanor.

Sec. 11. [148B.28] [EXCEPTIONS TO LICENSE REQUIREMENT.]

Subdivision 1. [OTHER PROFESSIONALS.] Nothing in sections 1 to 11 shall be construed to prevent members of other professions or occupations from performing functions for which they are qualified or licensed. This exception includes but is not limited to licensed physicians; registered nurses; licensed practical nurses; licensed psychologists; probation officers; members of the clergy; attorneys; marriage and family therapists; chemical dependency counselors; professional counselors; school counselors; and registered occupational therapists or certified occupational therapist assistants. These persons must not, however, hold themselves out to the public by any title or description stating or implying that they are engaged in the practice of social work, or that they are licensed to engage in the practice of social work.

Subd. 2. [STUDENTS.] Nothing in sections 1 to 11 shall be construed to prevent students enrolled in an accredited program of social work to engage in the practice of social work, or to prevent social work practice by individuals preparing for licensed independent clinical social work practice under qualified supervision in a social work setting.

Subd. 3. [GEOGRAPHIC WAIVER.] A geographic waiver may be granted by the board on a case-by-case basis to agencies with special regional hiring problems. The waiver will permit agencies to hire individuals, who do not meet the qualifications of section 4, to practice social work.

Subd. 4. [CITY, COUNTY, AND STATE AGENCY SOCIAL WORKERS.] The licensing of city, county, and state agency social workers shall be voluntary. City, county, and state agencies employing social workers shall not be required to employ licensed social workers, nor shall they require their social worker employees to be licensed.

Subd. 5. [FEDERALLY RECOGNIZED TRIBES AND PRIVATE NONPROFIT AGENCIES WITH A MINORITY FOCUS.] The licensure of social workers who are employed by federally recognized tribes, or by private nonprofit agencies whose primary service focus addresses ethnic minority populations, and are themselves members of ethnic minority populations within said agencies, shall be voluntary.

ARTICLE 3

BOARD OF MARRIAGE AND FAMILY THERAPY

Section 1. [148B.29] [DEFINITIONS.]

Subdivision 1. [APPLICABILITY] For the purposes of sections 1 to 11, the following terms have the meanings given.

Subd. 2. [BOARD.] "Board" means the board of marriage and family therapy created in section 2.

Subd. 3. [MARRIAGE AND FAMILY THERAPY.] "Marriage and family therapy" means the process of providing professional marriage and family psychotherapy to individuals, married couples, and family groups, either singly or in groups. The practice of marriage and family therapy utilizes established principles that recognize the interrelated nature of the individual problems and dysfunctions in family members to assess, understand, and treat emotional and mental problems. Marriage and family therapy includes premarital, marital, divorce, and family therapy, and is a specialized mode of treatment for the purpose of resolving emotional problems and modifying intrapersonal and interpersonal dysfunction.

Sec. 2. [148B.30] [BOARD OF MARRIAGE AND FAMILY THERAPY EXAMINERS.]

Subdivision 1. [CREATION.] There is created a board of marriage and family therapy that consists of seven members appointed by the governor. Four members shall be licensed, practicing marriage and family therapists, each of whom shall for at least five years immediately preceding appointment, have been actively engaged as a marriage and family therapist, rendering professional services in marriage and family therapy. One member shall be engaged in the professional teaching and research of marriage and family therapy. Two members shall be representatives of the general public who have no direct affiliation with the practice of marriage and family therapy. All members shall have been a resident of the state two years preceding their appointment. Of the first board members appointed, three shall continue in office for two years, two members for three years, and two members, including the chair for terms of four years respectively. Their successors shall be appointed for terms of four years each, except that a person chosen to fill a vacancy shall be appointed only for the unexpired term of the board member whom the newly appointed member succeeds. Upon the expiration of a board member's term of office, the board member shall continue to serve until a successor is appointed and qualified.

Subd. 2. [TRANSITION PROVISION.] Notwithstanding subdivision 1, members of the first board appointed need not be licensed under sections 1 to 11, but shall meet all qualifications, other than payments of fees, so as to be eligible for licensure under sections 1 to 11.

Subd. 3. [OFFICERS; STAFF.] The board shall annually elect from its membership a chair, a vice-chair, and secretary-treasurer, and shall adopt rules to govern its proceedings. The board shall appoint and employ an executive secretary who shall not be a member of the board.

Subd. 4. [MEMBERSHIP TERMS; COMPENSATION AND REMOVAL.] The membership terms, compensation, and removal of board members is governed by section 15.0575, unless superseded by this section.

Sec. 3. [148B.31] [DUTIES OF THE BOARD.]

The board shall:

(1) adopt and enforce rules for marriage and family therapy licensing, which shall be designed to protect the public;

(2) develop by rule appropriate techniques, including examinations and other methods, for determining whether applicants and licensees are qualified under sections 1 to 11;

(3) issue licenses to individuals who are qualified under sections 1 to 11;

(4) establish and implement procedures designed to assure that licensed marriage and family therapists will comply with the board's rules;

(5) study and investigate the practice of marriage and family therapy within the state in order to improve the standards imposed for the licensing of marriage and family therapists and to improve the procedures and methods used for enforcement of the board's standards;

(6) formulate and implement a code of ethics for all licensed marriage and family therapists; and

(7) establish continuing education requirements for marriage and family therapists.

Sec. 4. [148B.32] [PROHIBITIONS AND PENALTY.]

Subdivision 1. [UNLICENSED PRACTICE PROHIBITED.] After adoption of rules by the board implementing sections 1 to 11, no individual shall engage in marriage and family therapy practice unless that individual holds a valid license issued under sections 1 to 11.

Marriage and family therapy practice is not medical care nor any other type of remedial care that may be reimbursed under medical assistance, chapter 256B, except to the extent such care is reimbursed under section 256B.02, subdivision 8, clause (5).

Subd. 2. [APPEARANCE AS LICENSEE PROHIBITED.] After adoption of rules by the board implementing sections 1 to 11, no individual shall be held out to be a marriage and family therapist unless that individual holds a valid license issued under sections 1 to 11.

Subd. 3. [PENALTY.] A person who violates a provision of sections 1 to 11 is guilty of a gross misdemeanor.

Sec. 5. [148B.33] [REQUIREMENTS FOR LICENSURE.]

Subdivision 1. [DOCUMENTARY EVIDENCE OF QUALIFICATIONS.] An applicant for a license shall furnish evidence that the applicant:

- (1) has attained the age of majority;
- (2) is of good moral character;
- (3) is a citizen of the United States, or is lawfully entitled to remain and work in the United States;
- (4) has at least two years of supervised postgraduate experience in marriage and family counseling satisfactory to the board;
- (5)(i) has completed a master's or doctoral degree in marriage and family therapy from a program in a regionally accredited educational institution or from a program accredited by the commissioner on accreditations for marriage and family therapy education of the American association for marriage and family therapists; or (ii) has completed a master's or doctoral degree from a regionally accredited educational institution in a related field for which the course work is considered by the board to be equivalent to that provided in clause (5)(i);
- (6) will agree to conduct all professional activities as a licensed marriage and family counselor in accordance with a code of ethics for marriage and family therapists to be adopted by the board; and
- (7) has passed an examination approved by the board by rule.

Subd. 2. [FEE.] Each applicant shall pay a nonrefundable application fee set by the board.

Sec. 6. [148B.34] [LICENSES; TRANSITION PERIOD.]

Notwithstanding section 5, clause (7), for two years from the effective date of sections 1 to 11, a license shall be issued to an applicant without examination if the board is satisfied that the applicant meets the requirements of section 5, subdivision 1, clauses (1) to (6).

Sec. 7. [148B.35] [RECIPROCITY WITH OTHER STATES.]

The board shall issue a marriage and family therapist's license to an individual who holds a current license as a marriage and family therapist from another jurisdiction if the board determines that the standards for licensure in the other jurisdiction are at least equivalent to or exceed the requirements of sections 1 to 11 and the rules of the board.

Sec. 8. [148B.36] [NONTRANSFERABILITY OF LICENSES.]

A marriage and family therapy license is not transferable.

Sec. 9. [148B.37] [REFUSAL TO GRANT LICENSE; SUSPENSION OR REVOCATION OF LICENSE.]

Subdivision 1. [GROUNDS FOR ACTION.] The board may refuse to grant a license to, or may suspend, revoke, condition, limit, qualify, or restrict the license of any individual who the board, after a hearing under the contested case provisions of chapter 14, determines:

(1) is incompetent to practice marriage and family therapy, or is found to engage in the practice of marriage and family therapy in a manner harmful or dangerous to a client or to the public;

(2) is convicted by a court of competent jurisdiction of a crime that the board determines is of a nature to render the convicted person unfit to practice marriage and family therapy. The board should compile, maintain, and publish a list of such crimes;

(3) has violated a provision of sections 1 to 11 or one or more of the rules of the board;

(4) has obtained or attempted to obtain a license or license renewal by bribery or fraudulent representation;

(5) has knowingly made a false statement on a form required by the board for licensing or license renewal; or

(6) has failed to obtain continuing education credits required by the board.

Subd. 2. [RESTORING A LICENSE.] For reasons it considers sufficient and upon a vote of five of its members, the board may restore a license that has been revoked, reduce a period of suspension, or withdraw a reprimand.

Sec. 10. [148B.38] [EXCEPTIONS FROM LICENSE REQUIREMENT.]

Subdivision 1. [OTHER PROFESSIONALS.] Nothing in sections 1 to 11 shall be construed to prevent qualified members of other licensed or certified professions or occupations, such as licensed physicians, registered nurses, licensed practical nurses, psychologists licensed by the board of psychology, social workers, probation officers, members of the clergy, attorneys, school counselors who are employed by an accredited educational institution while performing those duties for which they are employed, registered occupational therapists or certified occupational therapist assistants who are certified by the American Occupational Therapy Association, from doing work of a marriage and family therapy nature.

Subd. 2. [STUDENTS.] Nothing in sections 1 to 11 shall be construed to prevent marriage and family therapy practice by students or interns or individuals preparing for marriage and family therapy to practice under qualified supervision of a licensed professional, recognized and approved by the board in a recognized educational institution or agency so long as they are designated by titles such as "student," "trainee," "intern," or other titles clearly indicating training status.

Subd. 3. [FEDERALLY RECOGNIZED TRIBES AND PRIVATE NONPROFIT AGENCIES WITH A MINORITY FOCUS.] The licensure of marriage and family therapists who are employed by federally recognized tribes and private nonprofit agency marriage and family therapists, whose primary service focus addresses ethnic minority populations and who are themselves members of ethnic minority populations within said agencies, shall be voluntary for a period of five years at which time the legislature will review the need for mandatory licensure for all marriage and family therapists.

Sec. 11. [148B.39] [PRIVILEGED COMMUNICATIONS; EXCEPTIONS.]

A person licensed under sections 1 to 11 and employees and professional associates of the person cannot be required to disclose any information that the person, employee, or associate may have acquired in rendering marriage and family therapy services, unless:

- (1) disclosure is required by other state laws;
- (2) failure to disclose the information presents a clear and present danger to the health or safety of an individual;
- (3) the person, employee, or associate is a party defendant to a civil, criminal, or disciplinary action arising from the therapy, in which case a waiver of the privilege accorded by this section is limited to that action;

(4) the patient is a defendant in a criminal proceeding and the use of the privilege would violate the defendant's right to a compulsory process or the right to present testimony and witnesses in that persons behalf; and

(5) a patient agrees to a waiver of the privilege accorded by this section, and in circumstances where more than one person in a family is receiving therapy, each such family member agrees to the waiver. Absent a waiver from each family member, a marital and family therapist cannot disclose information received by a family member.

ARTICLE 4

BOARD OF UNLICENSED MENTAL HEALTH SERVICE PROVIDERS

Section 1. [148B.40] [DEFINITIONS.]

Subdivision 1. [TERMS.] As used in sections 1 to 8, the following terms have the meanings given them in this section.

Subd 2. [BOARD.] "Board" means the board of mental health service providers established in section 2.

Subd. 3. [MENTAL HEALTH SERVICE PROVIDER.] "Mental health service provider" or "provider" means any person who provides, for a remuneration, mental health services as defined in subdivision 4. It does not include persons licensed by the board of medical examiners under chapter 147; the board of nursing under sections 148.171 to 148.285; or the board of psychology under sections 148.88 to 148.98; the board of social work under article 2, sections 1 to 13; the board of marriage and family therapy under article 3, sections 1 to 11; or another licensing board if the person is practicing within the scope of the license.

Subd. 4. [MENTAL HEALTH SERVICES.] "Mental health services" means the professional treatment, assessment, or counseling of another person for a cognitive, behavioral, emotional, mental, or social dysfunction, including intrapersonal or interpersonal dysfunctions.

Subd. 5. [MENTAL HEALTH CLIENT.] "Mental health client" or "client" means a person who receives the services of a mental health service provider.

Sec. 2. [148B.41] [BOARD OF UNLICENSED MENTAL HEALTH SERVICE PROVIDERS.]

Subdivision 1. [COMPOSITION.] The board of unlicensed mental health service providers consists of 17 members, including two chemical dependency counselors, two professional counselors, two pastoral counselors, five members representing other identifiable specialties and subgroups of providers subject to filing requirements, and six public members as defined in section 214.02. Within 90 days after the effective date of rules adopted by the board to implement sections 1 to 8, members of the board specified must be mental health service providers who have filed with the board pursuant to section 3.

Subd. 2. [APPOINTMENT.] Members of the board are appointed by the governor and serve under section 214.09.

Subd. 3. [BOARD ADMINISTRATION.] The board shall elect from among its members a chair and a vice-chair to serve for one year or until a successor is elected and qualifies. The members of the board have authority to administer oaths and the board, in session, to take testimony as to matters pertaining to the duties of the board. Six members of the board constitute a quorum for the transaction of business.

Subd. 4. [RULEMAKING.] The board shall adopt rules necessary to implement, administer, or enforce sections 1 to 8 under chapter 14 and section 214.001, subdivisions 2 and 3. The board shall consult with the commissioner of health, the commissioner of human services, and the commissioner of employee relations in the development of rules. The board may not adopt rules that restrict or prohibit persons from providing mental health services on the basis of education, training, experience, or supervision; or that restrict the use of any title.

Sec. 3. [148B.42] [FILING REQUIRED.]

Subdivision 1. [FILING.] All mental health service providers shall file with the state, on a form provided by the board, their name; home and business address; telephone number; degrees held, if any, major field, and whether the degrees are from an accredited institution and how the institution is accredited; and any other relevant experience. An applicant for filing who has practiced in another state shall authorize, in writing, the licensing or regulatory entity in the other state or states to release to the board any information on complaints or disciplinary actions pending against that individual, as well as any final disciplinary actions taken against that individual. The board shall provide a form for this purpose. The board may reject a filing if there is evidence of a violation of or failure to comply with this chapter.

Subd. 2. [ACKNOWLEDGMENT OF FILING.] The board shall issue an acknowledgment of filing to each mental health service provider who files under subdivision 1 and relevant rules of the board, and who is determined by the board to be in compliance with this chapter. The acknowledgment of filing must not be displayed in any manner nor shall it be shown to mental health clients. The acknowledgment of filing shall contain, in bold print, the phrase: "This acknowledgment of filing does not imply or certify in any way that this mental health professional has met any standards or criteria of education or training."

Subd. 3. [NONTRANSFERABILITY.] Acknowledgments of filing are nontransferable.

Subd. 4. [PENALTIES.] Failure to file with the board, or supplying false or misleading information on the filing form, application for registration, or any accompanying statements shall constitute grounds for adverse action.

Subd. 5. [PROVISION OF MENTAL HEALTH SERVICES WITHOUT FILING.] Except as otherwise provided in this chapter, it is unlawful for any person not filing with the board to provide mental health services in this state as defined in section 1, subdivision 4. Any person violating subdivision 1 is guilty of a gross misdemeanor.

Sec. 4. [148B.43] [PROHIBITED USE OF ACKNOWLEDGMENT.]

No mental health service provider may display the acknowledgment received under section 3, subdivision 2, or refer to it in any advertising, on stationary, or in any communication to a client or the public, or otherwise use the fact that the provider has filed with the state as an indication of state approval or endorsement or satisfaction of standards of conduct, training, or skill.

Sec. 5. [148B.44] [PROHIBITED CONDUCT.]

Subdivision 1. [PROHIBITED CONDUCT.] Notwithstanding any law to the contrary, the board may reject a filing or application, or may impose adverse action as described in section 6 against any mental health service provider for failure to comply with the provisions of this chapter. The following conduct is prohibited and is grounds for adverse action:

(a) Conviction of a crime reasonably related to the provision of mental health services. Conviction, as used in this subdivision, includes a conviction of an offense which, if committed in this state, would be deemed a felony without regard to its designation elsewhere, or a criminal proceeding where a finding or verdict of guilty is made or returned but the adjudication of guilt is either withheld or not entered.

(b) Conviction of crimes against persons. For the purposes of this chapter, a crime against a person means violations of the following sections: sections 609.185; 609.19; 609.195; 609.20; 609.205; 609.21; 609.215; 609.221; 609.222; 609.223; 609.224; 609.23; 609.231; 609.235; 609.24; 609.245; 609.25; 609.255; 609.265; 609.26, subdivision 1, clause (1) or (2); 609.342; 609.343; 609.344; 609.345; 609.365; 609.498, subdivision 1; 609.50, clause (1); 609.561; 609.562; and 609.595.

(c) Revocation, suspension, restriction, limitation, or other disciplinary action against the mental health professional's license, certificate, registration, or right of practice in another state or jurisdiction, for offenses that would be subject to disciplinary action in this state, or failure to report to the board that charges regarding the person's license, certificate, registration, or right of practice have been brought in another state or jurisdiction.

(d) Advertising that is false or misleading.

(e) Filing with the board false or misleading statements of credentials, training, or experience.

(f) Conduct likely to deceive, defraud, or harm the public; or demonstrating a willful or careless disregard for the health, welfare, or safety of a client; or any other practice that may create unnecessary danger to any client's life, health, or safety, in any of which cases, proof of actual injury need not be established.

(g) Adjudication as mentally incompetent, or as a person who has a psychopathic personality as defined in section 526.09, or who is dangerous to himself or herself, or adjudication pursuant to chapter 253B, as chemically dependent, mentally ill, mentally retarded, or mentally ill and dangerous to the public.

(h) Inability to provide mental health services with reasonable safety to clients by reason of physical, mental, or emotional illness; drunkenness; or use of legend drugs, chemicals, controlled substances, or any other similar materials or mood-altering substances.

(i) Revealing a communication from, or relating to, a client except when otherwise required or permitted by law.

(j) Failure to comply with a client's request made under section 144.335, or to furnish a client record or report required by law.

(k) Splitting fees or promising to pay a portion of a fee to any other professional other than for services rendered by the other professional to the client.

(l) Engaging in abusive or fraudulent billing practices, including violations of the federal Medicare and Medicaid laws or state medical assistance laws.

(m) Engaging in sexual contact with a client or former client as defined in section 148A.01.

(n) Failure to make reports as required by section 5, or cooperate with an investigation of the board as required by section 7.

(o) Obtaining money, property, or services from a client, other than reasonable fees for services provided to the client, through the use of undue influence, harassment, duress, deception, or fraud.

(p) Undertaking or continuing a professional relationship with a client in which the objectivity of the professional would be impaired.

(q) Failure to provide the client with a copy of the client bill of rights, or violation of any provision of the client bill of rights.

Subd. 2. [EVIDENCE.] In adverse actions alleging a violation of subdivision 1, paragraph (a), (b), or (c), a copy of the judgment or proceeding under the seal of the court administrator or of the administrative agency that entered the same shall be admissible into evidence without further authentication and shall constitute prima facie evidence of its contents.

Subd. 3. [MENTAL EXAMINATION; ACCESS TO MEDICAL DATA.] (a) If the board has probable cause to believe that a mental health service provider comes under subdivision 1, paragraph (g) or (h), it may direct the provider to submit to a mental or physical examination or chemical dependency evaluation. For the purpose of this subdivision every mental health service provider is deemed to have consented to submit to a mental or physical examination or chemical dependency evaluation when directed in writing by the board and further to have waived all objections to the admissibility of the examining physicians', psychologists', or mental health professional's testimony or examination reports on the ground that the same constitute a privileged communication. Failure of a mental health service provider to submit to an examination when directed constitutes an admission of the allegations against the provider, unless the failure was due to circumstance beyond the provider's control, in which case a default and final order may be entered without the taking of testimony or presentation of evidence. A mental health service provider affected under this paragraph shall at reasonable intervals be given an opportunity to demonstrate that the provider can resume the provision of mental health services with reasonable safety to clients. In any proceeding under this paragraph, neither the record of proceedings nor the orders entered by the board shall be used against a mental health service provider in any other proceeding.

(b) In addition to ordering a physical or mental examination, the board may, notwithstanding section 13.42, 144.651, or any other law limiting access to medical or other health data, obtain medical data and health records relating to a mental health service provider without the provider's consent if the board has probable cause to believe that a provider comes under subdivision 1, paragraph (g), (h), or (m). The medical data may be requested from a health care professional, as defined in section 144.335, subdivision 1, paragraph (b), an insurance company, or a government agency, including the department of human services. A health care professional, insurance company, or government agency shall comply with any written request of the board under this subdivision and is not liable in any action for damages for releasing the data requested by the board if the data are released pursuant to a written request under this subdivision, unless the information is false and the person or organization giving the information knew, or had reason to believe, the information was false. Information obtained under this subdivision is private data under sections 13.01 to 13.87.

Sec. 6. [148B.45] [ADVERSE ACTIONS.]

Subdivision 1. [FORMS OF ADVERSE ACTION.] When the board finds that a mental health service provider has violated a provision or provisions of this chapter, it may do one or more of the following:

- (1) deny or reject the filing;
- (2) revoke the right to practice;
- (3) suspend the right to practice;
- (4) impose limitations or conditions on the provider's provision of mental health services, the imposition of rehabilitation requirements, or the requirement of practice under supervision;
- (5) impose a civil penalty not exceeding $10,000 for each separate violation, the amount of the civil penalty to be fixed so as to deprive the provider of any economic advantage gained by reason of the violation charged or to reimburse the board for all costs of the investigation and proceeding;
- (6) order the provider to provide unremunerated professional service under supervision at a designated public hospital, clinic, or other health care institution; or
- (7) censure or reprimand the provider.

Subd. 2. [PROCEDURES.] The board shall adopt a written statement of internal operating procedures for receiving and investigating complaints reviewing misconduct cases, and imposing adverse actions.

Sec. 7. [148B.46] [MENTAL HEALTH CLIENT BILL OF RIGHTS.]

Subdivision 1. [SCOPE.] All mental health service providers other than those providing services in a facility regulated under section 144.651 shall provide to each client prior to providing treatment a written copy of the mental health client bill of rights. A copy must also be posted in a prominent location in the office of the mental health service provider. Reasonable accommodations shall be made for those clients who cannot read or who have communication impairments and those who do not read or speak English. The mental health client bill of rights shall include the following:

(a) The name, title, business address, and telephone number of the provider.

(b) The degrees, training, experience, or other qualifications of the provider, followed by the following statement in bold print:

THE STATE OF MINNESOTA HAS NOT ADOPTED UNIFORM EDUCATIONAL AND TRAINING STANDARDS FOR MENTAL HEALTH SERVICE PROVIDERS. THIS STATEMENT OF CREDENTIALS IS FOR INFORMATIONAL PURPOSES ONLY.

(c) The name, business address, and telephone number of the provider's supervisor, if any.

(d) Notice that a client has the right to file a complaint with the provider's supervisor, if any, and the procedure for filing complaints.

(e) The name, address, and telephone number of the board and notice that a client may file complaints with the board.

(f) The provider's fees per unit of service, the provider's method of billing for such fees, the names of any insurance companies that have agreed to reimburse the provider, or health maintenance organizations with whom the provider contracts to provide service, whether the provider accepts Medicare, medical assistance, or general assistance medical care, and whether the provider is willing to accept partial payment, or to waive payment, and in what circumstances.

(g) A statement that the client has a right to reasonable notice of changes in services or charges.

(h) A brief summary, in plain language, of the theoretical approach used by the provider in treating patients.

(i) Notice that the client has a right to complete and current information concerning the provider's assessment and recommended course of treatment, including the expected duration of treatment.

(j) A statement that clients may expect courteous treatment and to be free from verbal, physical, or sexual abuse by the provider.

(k) A statement that client records and transactions with the provider are confidential, unless release of these records is authorized in writing by the client, or otherwise provided by law.

(l) A statement of the client's right to be allowed access to records and written information from records in accordance with section 144.335.

(m) A statement that other services may be available in the community, including where information concerning services is available.

(n) A statement that the client has the right to choose freely among available providers, and to change providers after services have begun, within the limits of health insurance, medical assistance, or other health programs.

(o) A statement that the client has a right to coordinated transfer when there will be a change in the provider of services.

(p) A statement that the client may refuse services or treatment, unless otherwise provided by law.

(q) A statement that the client may assert the client's rights without retaliation.

Subd. 2. [ACKNOWLEDGMENT BY CLIENT.] Prior to the provision of any service, the client must sign a written statement attesting that the client has received the client bill of rights.

Sec. 8. [148B.47] [RENEWALS.]

Notwithstanding any other law, the board shall adopt rules providing for the renewal of filings. The rules shall specify the period of time for which a filing is valid, procedures and information required for the renewal, and renewal fees.

Sec. 9. [REPORTS.]

Subdivision 1. [COMMISSIONER OF HEALTH.] The commissioner of health shall review the report of the office under sections 214.001, 214.13, and 214.141. The commissioner shall make recommendations to the legislature by January 15, 1991, on the need for registration or licensure of unlicensed mental health service providers and the need to retain the board of unlicensed mental health service providers.

Subd. 2. [BOARD OF UNLICENSED MENTAL HEALTH SERVICE PROVIDERS.] The board of unlicensed mental health service providers must report on the board's findings and activities to the commissioner of health and the legislature by July 1, 1990. The board shall report to the legislature on or before January 15, 1991, with recommendations on whether providers who are not trained should be allowed to continue to practice.

Subd. 3. [LEGISLATIVE INTENT.] Nothing in this section is intended to require the commissioner of health to delay review of applications for credentialing pursuant to sections 214.13 and 214.141 pending the outcome of the reports required under this section.

Sec. 10. [APPROPRIATION.]

$835,000 is appropriated from the special revenue fund to the office of social work and mental health boards.

Subdivision 1. Residential programs for five or more persons with a mental illness must be licensed under sections 1 to 17. To assure that this requirement is met, the commissioner of health, in cooperation with the commissioner of human services, shall monitor licensed boarding care, board and lodging, and supervised living facilities.

Subd. 2. [SPECIFIC REVIEW OF RULES.] The commissioner shall:

(1) provide in rule for various levels of care to address the residential treatment needs of persons with mental illness;

(2) review category I and II programs established in Minnesota Rules, parts 9520.0500 to 9520.0690 to ensure that the categories of programs provide a continuum of residential service programs for persons with mental illness;

(3) provide in rule for a definition of the term "treatment" as used in relation to persons with mental illness;

(4) adjust funding mechanisms by rule as needed to reflect the requirements established by rule for services being provided;

(5) review and recommend staff educational requirements and staff training as needed; and

(6) review and make changes in rules relating to residential care and service programs for persons with mental illness as the commissioner may determine necessary.

Subd. 3. [HOUSING SERVICES FOR PERSONS WITH MENTAL ILLNESS.] The commissioner of human services shall study the housing needs of people with mental illness and shall articulate a continuum of services from residential treatment as the most intensive service through housing programs as the least intensive. The commissioner shall develop recommendations for implementing the continuum of services and shall present the recommendations to the legislature by January 31, 1988."

336.9-407 [INFORMATION FROM FILING OFFICER.]

(1) If the person filing any financing statement, termination statement, statement of assignment, or statement of release, furnishes the filing officer a copy thereof, the filing officer shall upon request note upon the copy the file number and date and hour of the filing of the original and deliver or send the copy to such person.

(2) Upon request of any person, the filing officer shall conduct a search of a file for any effective financing statements naming a particular debtor and any statement of assignment thereof. The filing officer shall report the findings as of that date and hour by issuing:

(a) a certificate listing the file number, date, and hour of each filing and the names and addresses of each secured party therein;

(b) photocopies of the original documents on file; or,

(c) upon request, both the certificate and photocopies of the statements.

The uniform fee for conducting the search and for preparing a certificate showing up to five listed filings or for preparing up to five photocopies of original documents, or any combination of up to five listed filings and photocopies, shall be $5 if the request is in the standard form prescribed by the secretary of state and otherwise shall be $10. Another fee, at the same rate, shall also be charged for conducting a search and preparing a certificate showing federal and state tax liens on file with the filing officer naming a particular debtor. There shall be an additional fee of 50 cents for each financing statement and each statement of assignment or tax lien listed on the certificate and for each photocopy prepared in excess of the first five. Notwithstanding the fees set in this clause, a natural person who is the subject of data must, upon the person's request, (i) be shown the data without charge; and (ii) be provided with photocopies of the data upon payment of no more than the actual cost of making the copies.

“Section 1. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 144.335, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [DEFINITIONS.] For the purposes of this section, the following terms have the meanings given them:

(a) “Patient” means a natural person who has received health care services from a provider for treatment of a medical, psychiatric or mental condition, or a person the patient designates in writing as a representative. Except for minors who have received health care services pursuant to sections 144.341 to 144.347, in the case of a minor, “patient” includes a parent or guardian, or a person acting as a parent or guardian in the absence of a parent or guardian.

(b) “Provider” means (1) any person who furnishes health care services and is licensed to furnish the services pursuant to chapters 147, 148, 150A, 151 or 153; (2) a home care provider licensed under section 6; and ~~(2)~~ (3) a health care facility licensed pursuant to this chapter or chapter 144A.

Sec. 2. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 144.699, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [FOSTERING PRICE COMPETITION.] The commissioner of health shall:

(a) Encourage hospitals, outpatient surgical centers, home care providers, and professionals regulated by the health related licensing boards as defined in section 214.01, subdivision 2, and by the commissioner of health under section 214.13, to publish prices for procedures and services that are representative of the diagnoses and conditions for which citizens of this state seek treatment.

(b) Analyze and disseminate available price information and analyses so as to foster the development of price competition among hospitals, outpatient surgical centers, home care providers, and health professionals.

Sec. 3. [144A.43] [DEFINITIONS.]

Subdivision 1. [APPLICABILITY.] The definitions in this section apply to sections 2 to 7.

Subd. 2. [COMMISSIONER.] “Commissioner” means the commissioner of health.

Subd. 3. [HOME CARE SERVICE.] “Home care service” means any of the following services when delivered in a place of residence to a person whose illness, disability, or physical condition creates a need for the service:

- (1) nursing services, including the services of a home health aide;
- (2) personal care services not included under sections 148.171 to 148.299;
- (3) physical therapy;
- (4) speech therapy;
- (5) respiratory therapy;
- (6) occupational therapy;
- (7) nutritional services;
- (8) home management services when provided to a person who is unable to perform these activities due to illness, disability, or physical condition. Home management services include at least two of the following services: housekeeping, meal preparation, laundry, shopping, and other similar services;
- (9) medical social services;
- (10) the provision of medical supplies and equipment when accompanied by the provision of a home care service;
- (11) the provision of hospice core services as specified in section 8; and
- (12) other similar medical services and health-related support services identified by the commissioner in rule.

Subd. 4. [HOME CARE PROVIDER.] “Home care provider” means an individual, organization, association, corporation, unit of government, or other entity that is regularly engaged in the delivery, directly or by contractual arrangement, of home care services for a fee. At least one home care service must be provided directly, although additional home care services may be provided by contractual arrangements. “Home care provider” includes a hospice program defined in section 8. “Home care provider” does not include:

(1) any home care or nursing services conducted by and for the adherents of any recognized church or religious denomination for the purpose of providing care and services for those who depend upon spiritual means, through prayer alone, for healing;

(2) an individual who only provides services to a relative;

(3) an individual not connected with a home care provider who provides assistance with home management services or personal care needs if the assistance is provided primarily as a contribution and not as a business;

(4) an individual not connected with a home care provider who shares housing with and provides primarily housekeeping or home-making services to an elderly or disabled person in return for free or reduced-cost housing;

(5) an individual or agency providing home-delivered meal services;

(6) an agency providing senior companion services and other older American volunteer programs established under the Domestic Volunteer Service Act of 1973, Public Law Number 98-288;

(7) an individual or agency that only provides chore, housekeeping, or child care services which do not involve the provision of home care services;

(8) a member of a professional corporation organized under sections 319A.01 to 319A.22 that does not regularly offer or provide home care services as defined in subdivision 3;

(9) the following organizations established to provide medical or surgical services that do not regularly offer or provide home care services as defined in subdivision 3: a business trust organized under sections 318.01 to 318.04, a nonprofit corporation organized under chapter 317, a partnership organized under chapter 323, or any other entity determined by the commissioner;

(10) an individual or agency that provides medical supplies or durable medical equipment, except when the provider of supplies or equipment is accompanied by a home care service that is provided for a fee; or

(11) an individual licensed under chapter 147.

Sec. 4. [144A.44] [HOME CARE BILL OF RIGHTS.]

Subdivision 1. [STATEMENT OF RIGHTS.] A person who receives home care services has these rights:

(1) the right to receive written information about rights, including what to do if rights are violated;

(2) the right to receive care and services according to a suitable and up-to-date plan, and subject to accepted medical or nursing standards, to take an active part in creating and changing the plan and evaluating care and services;

(3) the right to be told about the services that are being provided or suggested, about other choices that are available, and about the consequences of these choices including the consequences of refusing these services;

(4) the right to refuse services or treatment;

(5) the right to know, in advance, any limits to the services available from a provider, whether the services are covered by health insurance, medical assistance, or other health programs, and the provider's grounds for a termination of services;

(6) the right to know what the charges are for services, no matter who will be paying the bill;

(7) the right to know that there may be other services available in the community, including other home care services and providers, and to know where to go for information about these services;

(8) the right to choose freely among available providers and to change providers after services have begun, within the limits of health insurance, medical assistance, or other health programs;

(9) the right to have personal, financial, and medical information kept private;

(10) the right to be allowed access to records and written information from records in accordance with section 144.335;

(11) the right to be served by people who are properly trained and competent to perform their duties;

(12) the right to be treated with courtesy and respect;

(13) the right to be free from physical and verbal abuse;

(14) the right to reasonable notice of changes in services or charges;

(15) the right to a coordinated transfer when there will be a change in the provider of services;

(16) the right to know how to contact an individual associated with the provider who is responsible for handling problems and the name and address of the state or county agency to contact for additional information or assistance; and

(17) the right to assert these rights without retaliation.

Subd. 2. [INTERPRETATION AND ENFORCEMENT OF RIGHTS.] These rights are established for the benefit of persons who receive home care services. "Home care services" means home care services as defined in section 3, subdivision 3. A home care provider may not require a person to surrender these rights as a condition of receiving services. A guardian or conservator or, when there is no guardian or conservator, a designated person, may seek to enforce these rights. This statement of rights does not replace or diminish other rights and liberties that may exist relative to persons receiving home care services, persons providing home care services, or providers licensed under this act. A copy of these rights must be provided to an individual at the time home care services are initiated. The copy shall also contain the address and phone number of the office of health facility complaints and a brief statement describing how to file a complaint with that office.

Sec. 5. [144A.45] [REGULATION OF HOME CARE SERVICES.]

Subdivision 1. [PURPOSE.] The commissioner shall regulate and control the delivery of home care services in order to protect consumers, assure quality of care, improve access to services, and prevent fraud.

Subd. 2. [REGULATORY FUNCTIONS.] The commissioner shall:

(1) evaluate, monitor, and license home care providers in accordance with sections 5 to 8 and 14;

(2) inspect the office and records of a provider during regular business hours, provided that when conducting routine office visits or inspections, the commissioner shall provide at least 48 hours' advance notice to the home care provider;

(3) with the consent of the consumer, visit the home where services are being provided;

(4) issue correction orders and assess civil penalties in accordance with section 144.653, subdivisions 5 to 8;

(5) take other action reasonably required to accomplish the purposes of sections 2 to 8 and 14; and

(6) adopt rules governing home care providers. The rules adopted by the commissioner may include the following:

(a) provisions to assure, to the extent possible, the health, safety and well-being, and appropriate treatment of persons who receive home care services;

(b) requirements that home care providers furnish the commissioner specified information necessary to implement sections 2 to 8 and 14;

(c) standards of training of home care provider personnel, which may vary according to the nature of the services provided or the health status of the consumer;

(d) standards of supervision by a registered nurse or other appropriate health care professionals of personnel providing home care services, which may vary according to the nature of the services provided or the health status of the consumer;

(e) requirements for the involvement of a consumer's physician, the documentation of physicians' orders, if required, and the consumer's treatment plan, and the maintenance of accurate, current clinical records;

(f) the establishment of different classes of licenses for different types of providers and different standards and requirements for different kinds of home care services; and

(g) operating procedures required to implement the home care bill of rights.

In the exercise of the authority granted in sections 2 to 8 and 14, the commissioner shall comply with the applicable requirements of section 144.122, the government data practices act, and the administrative procedure act.

Subd. 3. [ADVISORY TASK FORCE.] The commissioner of health shall establish and appoint a home care advisory task force consisting of 15 members representing the various kinds of home care providers, including a hospice program, health care professionals, community health services agencies, and consumers. The appointment, removal, and compensation of members is as provided in section 15.059, subdivision 6. The task force shall provide advice and recommendations to the commissioner regarding the development of rules required by subdivision 2.

Sec. 6. [144A.46] [LICENSURE.]

Subdivision 1. [LICENSE REQUIRED.] (a) A home care provider may not operate in the state without a current license issued by the commissioner of health.

(b) Within ten days after receiving an application for a license, the commissioner shall acknowledge receipt of the application in writing. The acknowledgement must indicate whether the application appears to be complete or whether additional information is required before the application will be considered complete. Within 90 days after receiving a complete application, the commissioner shall either grant or deny the license. If an applicant is not granted or denied a license within 90 days after submitting a complete application, the license must be deemed granted. An applicant whose license has been deemed granted must provide written notice to the commissioner before providing a home care service.

Subd. 2. [EXEMPTIONS.] The following individuals or organizations are exempt from the requirement to obtain a home care provider license:

(1) a person who is licensed under sections 148.171 to 148.285 and who independently provides nursing services in the home without any contractual or employment relationship to a home care provider or other organization;

(2) a personal care assistant who provides services under the medical assistance program as authorized under section 256B.02, subdivision 8, paragraph (17), and section 15;

(3) a person or organization that exclusively offers, provides, or arranges for personal care assistant services under the medical assistance program as authorized under section 256B.02, subdivision 8, paragraph (17), and section 15;

(4) a person who is registered under sections 148.65 to 148.78 and who independently provides physical therapy services in the home without any contractual or employment relationship to a home care provider or other organization;

(5) a person who provides services to a person with mental retardation under a program of semi-independent living services regulated by Minnesota Rules, parts 9525.0500 to 9525.0660; or

(6) a person who provides services to a person with mental retardation under contract with a county to provide home and community-based services that are reimbursed under the medical assistance program, chapter 256B, and regulated by Minnesota Rules, parts 9525.1800 to 9525.1930.

An exemption under this subdivision does not excuse the individual from complying with applicable provisions of the home care bill of rights.

Subd. 3. [ENFORCEMENT.] The commissioner may refuse to grant or renew a license, or may suspend or revoke a license, for violation of statutes or rules relating to home care services or for conduct detrimental to the welfare of the consumer. Prior to any suspension, revocation, or refusal to renew a license, the home care provider shall be entitled to notice and a hearing as provided by sections 14.57 to 14.70. In addition to any other remedy provided by law, the commissioner may, without a prior contested case hearing, temporarily suspend a license or prohibit delivery of services by a provider for not more than 60 days if the commissioner determines that the health or safety of a consumer is in imminent danger, provided (1) advance notice is given to the provider; (2) after notice, the provider fails to correct the problem; (3) the commissioner has reason to believe that other administrative remedies are not likely to be effective; and (4) there is an opportunity for a contested case hearing within the 60 days. The process of suspending or revoking a license must include a plan for transferring affected clients to other providers.

Subd. 4. [RELATION TO OTHER REGULATORY PROGRAMS.] In the exercise of the authority granted under sections 2 to 8 and 14, the commissioner shall not duplicate or replace standards and requirements imposed under another state regulatory program. The commissioner shall not impose additional training or education requirements upon members of a licensed or registered occupation or profession, except as necessary to address or prevent problems that are unique to the delivery of services in the home or to enforce and protect the rights of consumers listed in section 4. For home care providers certified under the Medicare program, the state standards must not be inconsistent with the Medicare standards for Medicare services. To the extent possible, the commissioner shall coordinate the inspections required under sections 5 and 8 with the health facility licensure inspections required under sections 144.50 to 144.58 or 144A.10 when the health care facility is also licensed under the provisions of this act.

Subd. 5. [PRIOR CRIMINAL CONVICTIONS.] An applicant for a home care provider license shall disclose to the commissioner all criminal convictions of persons involved in the management, operation, or control of the provider. A home care provider shall require employees of the provider and applicants for employment to disclose all criminal convictions. No person may be employed by a home care provider or involved in the management, operation, or control of a provider, if the person has been convicted of a crime that relates to the provision of home care services or to the position, duties, or responsibilities undertaken by that person in the operation of the home care provider, unless the person can provide sufficient evidence of rehabilitation. The commissioner shall adopt rules for determining whether a crime relates to home care services and what constitutes sufficient evidence of rehabilitation. The rules must require consideration of the nature and seriousness of the crime; the relationship of the crime to the purposes of home care licensure and regulation; the relationship of the crime to the ability, capacity, and fitness required to perform the duties and discharge the responsibilities of the person's position; mitigating circumstances or social conditions surrounding the commission of the crime; the length of time elapsed since the crime was committed; the seriousness of the risk to the home care client's person or property; and other factors the commissioner considers appropriate. Data collected under this subdivision shall be classified as private data under section 13.02, subdivision 12.

Sec. 7. [144A.47] [INFORMATION AND REFERRAL SERVICES.]

The commissioner shall ensure that information and referral services relating to home care are available in all regions of the state. The commissioner shall collect and make available information about available home care services, sources of payment, providers, and the rights of consumers. The commissioner may require home care providers to provide information requested for the purposes of this section, including price information, as a condition of registration or licensure. Specific price information furnished by providers under this section is not public data and must not be released without the written permission of the agency. The commissioner may publish and make available:

- (1) general information and a summary of the range of prices of home care services in the state;
- (2) limitations on hours, availability of services, and eligibility for third-party payments, applicable to individual providers; and
- (3) other information the commissioner determines to be appropriate.

Sec. 8. [144A.48] [HOSPICE PROGRAMS.]

Subdivision 1. [DEFINITIONS.] For the purposes of this section, the following terms have the meanings given to them:

- (1) "Hospice core services" means physician services, registered nursing services, medical social services, pastoral care or other counseling services, and volunteer services. Hospice core services may be provided either directly by the hospice program or through a service contract or other arrangement;

(2) "Hospice patient" means an individual who has been diagnosed as terminally ill with a probable life expectancy of under one year, as documented by the individual's attending physician, and who alone or, when unable, through the hospice patient's family has voluntarily consented to and received admission to a hospice program;

(3) "Hospice patient's family" means the immediate kin of the hospice patient and other relatives, the hospice patient's guardian, primary caregivers, or persons identified by the hospice patient as having significant personal ties;

(4) "Hospice program" means a centrally coordinated program that ensures continuity and consistency of home and inpatient care provided directly or through an agreement. Hospice core services are provided under the direction of an identifiable hospice administration. The hospice interdisciplinary team provides palliative care and supportive medical and other services to terminally ill hospice patients and patients' families to meet the physical, nutritional, emotional, social, spiritual, and special needs experienced during the final stages of illness, dying, and bereavement;

(5) "Interdisciplinary team" means a group of qualified individuals with expertise in meeting the special needs of hospice patients and patients' families. The interdisciplinary team must, at a minimum, include individuals who are providers of the hospice core services;

(6) "Palliative care" means care directed at managing the symptoms experienced by the hospice patient, intended to enhance the quality of life for the hospice patient, and the patient's family, but not directed at curing the illness; and

(7) "Volunteer services" means services by volunteers who provide a personal presence that augments a variety of professional and nonprofessional services available to the hospice patient, the patient's family, and the hospice program. Volunteers must complete a hospice training program and must be qualified for any services they provide.

Subd. 2. [LICENSE REQUIREMENTS.] A hospice program may not operate in the state or use the words "hospice" or "hospice program" without a current license issued by the commissioner of health. The commissioner shall license hospice programs using the powers and authorities contained in sections 3 to 7 and 14. In addition a hospice program must provide:

(1) centrally coordinated hospice core services in the home and inpatient settings;

(2) that the medical components of the hospice program are under the direction of a licensed physician who serves as medical director;

(3) that the palliative medical care provided to a hospice patient is under the direction of the attending physician;

(4) an interdisciplinary team that meets regularly to develop, implement, and evaluate the hospice program's plan of care for each hospice patient and the patient's family;

(5) accessible hospice care, 24 hours a day, seven days a week;

(6) an ongoing system of quality assurance;

(7) a planned program of supportive services available to patients' families during the bereavement period; and

(8) that inpatient services are provided directly or by arrangement in a licensed hospital or nursing home.

Subd. 3. [REQUIRED INSPECTIONS.] The commissioner shall inspect the hospice program, the home care and the inpatient care provided by the hospice program to determine if the requirements of sections 5 to 8 are met.

Subd. 4. [RULE AUTHORITY.] The commissioner shall promulgate rules to implement the provisions of this section.

Subd. 5. [LICENSE DESIGNATION.] A license issued to a home care provider meeting the requirements contained in this section shall indicate that the provider is qualified to offer hospice care.

Sec. 9. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 144A.51, subdivision 6, is amended to read:

Subd. 6. "Resident" means any resident or patient of a health facility or a consumer of services provided by a home care provider, or the guardian or conservator of a the resident or patient of a health facility, or consumer, if one has been appointed.

Sec. 10. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 144A.51, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 7. "Home care provider" means a home care provider as defined in section 3, subdivision 4.

Sec. 11. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 144A.52, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. The director may delegate to members of the staff any of the authority or duties of the director except the duty of formally making recommendations to the legislature, administrative agencies, health facilities, health care providers, home care providers, and the state commissioner of health.

Sec. 12. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 144A.53, is amended to read:

144A.53 [DIRECTOR; POWERS AND DUTIES.]

Subdivision 1. [POWERS.] The director may:

(a) Promulgate by rule, pursuant to chapter 14, and within the limits set forth in subdivision 2, the methods by which complaints against health facilities, health care providers, home care providers, or administrative agencies are to be made, reviewed, investigated, and acted upon; provided, however, that a fee may not be charged for filing a complaint;

(b) Recommend legislation and changes in rules to the state commissioner of health, legislature, governor, administrative agencies or the federal government;

(c) Investigate, upon a complaint or upon initiative of the director, any action or failure to act by a health care provider, home care provider, or a health facility;

(d) Request and receive access to relevant information, records, or documents in the possession of an administrative agency, a health care provider, a home care provider, or a health facility which the director deems necessary for the discharge of responsibilities;

(e) Enter and inspect, at any time, a health facility; provided that the director shall not unduly interfere with or disturb the activities of a resident unless the resident consents;

(f) Issue a correction order pursuant to section 144.653 or any other law which provides for the issuance of correction orders to health care facilities or home care provider, or under section 5;

(g) Recommend the certification or decertification of health facilities pursuant to Title XVIII or Title XIX of the United States Social Security Act;

(h) Assist residents of health facilities in the enforcement of their rights under Minnesota law; and

(i) Work with administrative agencies, health facilities, home care providers, and health care providers and organizations representing consumers on programs designed to provide information about health facilities to the public and to health facility residents.

Subd. 2. [COMPLAINTS.] The director may receive a complaint from any source concerning an action of an administrative agency, a health care provider, a home care provider, or a health facility. The director may require a complainant to pursue other remedies or channels of complaint open to the complainant before accepting or investigating the complaint.

The director shall keep written records of all complaints and any action upon them. After completing an investigation of a complaint, the director shall inform the complainant, the administrative agency having jurisdiction over the subject matter, the health care provider, the home care provider, and the health facility of the action taken.

Subd. 3. [RECOMMENDATIONS.] If, after duly considering a complaint and whatever material the director deems pertinent, the director determines that the complaint is valid, the director may recommend that an administrative agency, a health care provider, a home care provider, or a health facility should:

- (a) Modify or cancel the actions which gave rise to the complaint;
- (b) Alter the practice, rule or decision which gave rise to the complaint;
- (c) Provide more information about the action under investigation; or
- (d) Take any other step which the director considers appropriate.

If the director requests, the administrative agency, a health care provider, a home care provider, or health facility shall, within the time specified, inform the director about the action taken on a recommendation.

Subd. 4. [REFERRAL OF COMPLAINTS.] If a complaint received by the director relates to a matter more properly within the jurisdiction of an occupational licensing board or other governmental agency, the director shall forward the complaint to that agency and shall inform the complaining party of the forwarding. The agency shall promptly act in respect to the complaint, and shall inform the complaining party and the director of its disposition. If a governmental agency receives a complaint which is more properly within the jurisdiction of the director, it shall promptly forward the complaint to the director, and shall inform the complaining party of the forwarding. If the director has reason to believe that an official or employee of an administrative agency, a home care provider, or health facility has acted in a manner warranting criminal or disciplinary proceedings, the director shall refer the matter to the state commissioner of health, the commissioner of human services, an appropriate prosecuting authority, or other appropriate agency.

Sec. 13. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 144A.54, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. Except as otherwise provided by this section, the director may determine the form, frequency, and distribution of the conclusions and recommendations. The director shall transmit the conclusions and recommendations to the state commissioner of health and the legislature. Before announcing a conclusion or recommendation that expressly or by implication criticizes an administrative agency, a health care provider, a home care provider, or a health facility, the director shall consult with that agency, health care provider, home care provider, or facility. When publishing an opinion adverse to an administrative agency, a health care provider, a home care provider, or a health facility, the director shall include in the publication any statement of reasonable length made to the director by that agency, health care provider, home care provider, or health facility in defense or explanation of the action.

Sec. 14. [TEMPORARY PROCEDURES.]

For purposes of this section, "home care providers" shall mean the providers described in section 3, subdivision 4, including hospice programs described in section 8. Home care providers are exempt from the licensure requirement in section 6, subdivision 1, until 90 days after the effective date of the licensure rules. Beginning July 1, 1987, no home care provider, as defined in section 3, subdivision 4, except a provider exempt from licensure under section 6, subdivision 2, may provide home care services in this state without registering with the commissioner. A home care provider is registered with the commissioner when the commissioner has received in writing the provider's name; the name of its parent corporation or sponsoring organization, if any; the street address and telephone number of its principal place of business; the street address and telephone number of its principal place of business in Minnesota; the counties in Minnesota in which it may render services; the street address and telephone number of all other offices in Minnesota; and the name, educational background, and ten-year employment history of the person responsible for the management of the agency. A registration fee must be submitted with the application for registration. The fee must be established pursuant to section 144.122 and must be based on a consideration of the following factors: the number of clients served by the home care provider, the number of employees, the number of services offered, and annual revenues of the provider. The registration is effective until 90 days after licensure rules are effective. In order to maintain its registration and provide services in Minnesota, a home care provider must comply with section 4 and comply with requests for information under section 7. A registered home care provider is subject to sections 144A.51 to 144A.54. Registration under this section does not exempt a home care provider from the licensure and other requirements later adopted by the commissioner.

Within 90 days after the effective date of the licensure rules under section 5, the commissioner of health shall issue provisional licenses to all home care providers registered with the department as of that date. The provisional license shall be valid until superseded by a license issued under section 6 or for a period of one year, whichever is shorter. Applications for licensure as a home care provider received on or after the effective date of the home care licensure rules, shall be issued under section 6, subdivision 1.

Sec. 15. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 256B.04, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 16. [PERSONAL CARE ASSISTANTS.] (a) The commissioner shall adopt permanent rules to implement, administer, and operate the personal care assistant services program. The rules must incorporate the standards and requirements adopted by the commissioner of health under section 5 which are applicable to the personal care assistant program. Limits on the extent of personal care assistant services that may be provided to an individual must be based on the cost-effectiveness of the services in relation to the costs of inpatient hospital care, nursing home care, and other available types of care. The rules must provide, at a minimum:

(1) that agencies be selected to contract with or employ and train staff to provide and supervise the provision of personal care services;

(2) that agencies employ or contract with a qualified applicant that a qualified recipient proposes to the agency as the recipient's choice of assistant;

(3) that agencies bill the medical assistance program for a personal care service by a personal care assistant and visits by the registered nurse supervising the personal care assistant;

(4) that agencies establish a grievance mechanism; and

(5) that agencies have a quality assurance program.

(b) For personal care assistants under contract with an agency under paragraph (a), the provision of training and supervision by the agency does not create an employment relationship.

Sec. 16. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 364.09, is amended to read:

364.09 [LAW ENFORCEMENT; EXCEPTION EXCEPTIONS.]

This chapter shall not apply to the practice of law enforcement, to eligibility for a family day care license or, a family foster care license, a home care provider license, or to eligibility for school bus driver endorsements. Nothing in this section shall be construed to preclude the Minnesota police and peace officers training board from recommending policies set forth in this chapter to the attorney general for adoption in the attorney general's discretion to apply to law enforcement.

Sec. 17. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 626.557, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [DEFINITIONS.] As used in this section, the following terms have the meanings given them unless the specific context indicates otherwise.

(a) "Facility" means a hospital or other entity required to be licensed pursuant to sections 144.50 to 144.58; a nursing home required to be licensed to serve adults pursuant to section 144A.02; an agency, day care facility, or residential facility required to be licensed to serve adults pursuant to sections 245.781 to 245.812; or a home health agency certified for participation in titles XVIII or XIX of the Social Security Act, United States Code, title 42, sections 1395 et seq care provider licensed under section 6.

(b) "Vulnerable adult" means any person 18 years of age or older:

(1) who is a resident or inpatient of a facility;

(2) who receives services at or from a facility required to be licensed to serve adults pursuant to sections 245.781 to 245.812, except a person receiving outpatient services for treatment of chemical dependency or mental illness;

(3) who receives services from a home health agency certified for participation under titles XVIII or XIX of the Social Security Act, United States Code, title 42, sections 1395 et seq and 1396 et seq care provider licensed under section 6; or

(4) who, regardless of residence or type of service received, is unable or unlikely to report abuse or neglect without assistance because of impairment of mental or physical function or emotional status.

(c) "Caretaker" means an individual or facility who has responsibility for the care of a vulnerable adult as a result of a family relationship, or who has assumed responsibility for all or a portion of the care of a vulnerable adult voluntarily, by contract, or by agreement.

(d) "Abuse" means:

(1) any act which constitutes a violation under sections 609.221 to 609.223, 609.23 to 609.235, 609.322, 609.342, 609.343, 609.344, or 609.345;

(2) nontherapeutic conduct which produces or could reasonably be expected to produce pain or injury and is not accidental, or any repeated conduct which produces or could reasonably be expected to produce mental or emotional distress;

(3) any sexual contact between a facility staff person and a resident or client of that facility; or

(4) the illegal use of a vulnerable adult's person or property for another person's profit or advantage, or the breach of a fiduciary relationship through the use of a person or a person's property for any purpose not in the proper and lawful execution of a trust, including but not limited to situations where a person obtains money, property, or services from a vulnerable adult through the use of undue influence, harassment, duress, deception, or fraud.

(e) "Neglect" means:

(1) failure by a caretaker to supply a vulnerable adult with necessary food, clothing, shelter, health care or supervision;

(2) the absence or likelihood of absence of necessary food, clothing, shelter, health care, or supervision for a vulnerable adult; or

(3) the absence or likelihood of absence of necessary financial management to protect a vulnerable adult against abuse as defined in paragraph (d), clause (4). Nothing in this section shall be construed to require a health care facility to provide financial management or supervise financial management for a vulnerable adult except as otherwise required by law.

(f) "Report" means any report received by a local welfare agency, police department, county sheriff, or licensing agency pursuant to this section.

(g) "Licensing agency" means:

(1) the commissioner of health, for facilities as defined in clause (a) which are required to be licensed or certified by the department of health;

(2) the commissioner of human services, for facilities required by sections 245.781 to 245.813 to be licensed;

(3) any licensing board which regulates persons pursuant to section 214.01, subdivision 2; and

(4) any agency responsible for credentialing human services occupations.

Sec. 18. [APPROPRIATION.]

$516,600 is appropriated from the general fund to the commissioner of health for the regulation of home care services to be available until June 30, 1989.

Sec. 19. [EFFECTIVE DATE.]

Delete everything after the enacting clause and insert:

"Section 1. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 349.12, subdivision 11, is amended to read:

Subd. 11. "Lawful purpose" means one or more of the following: (a) benefiting persons by enhancing their opportunity for religious or educational advancement, by relieving or protecting them from disease, suffering or distress, by contributing to their physical well-being, by assisting them in establishing themselves in life as worthy and useful citizens, or by increasing their comprehension of and devotion to the principles upon which this nation was founded; (b) initiating, performing, or fostering worthy public works or enabling or furthering the erection or maintenance of public structures; (c) lessening the burdens borne by government or voluntarily supporting, augmenting or supplementing services which government would normally render to the people; or (d) the improving, expanding, maintaining or repairing real property owned or leased by an organization; or (e) payment of taxes imposed by this chapter, and imposed by the United States on receipts from lawful gambling.

“Lawful purpose” does not include the erection or acquisition of any real property, unless the board specifically authorizes the expenditures after finding that the property will be used exclusively for one or more of the purposes specified in this clause.

Sec. 2. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 349.12, subdivision 12, is amended to read:

Subd. 12. “Organization” means any fraternal, religious, veterans, or other nonprofit organization which has been in existence for at least three years and has at least 15 active members.

Sec. 3. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 349.12, subdivision 13, is amended to read:

Subd. 13. “Profit” means the gross receipts collected from lawful gambling, less reasonable sums necessarily and actually expended for prizes and taxes imposed by this chapter.

Sec. 4. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 349.12, subdivision 15, is amended to read:

Subd. 15. “Gambling equipment” means: bingo cards and devices for selecting bingo numbers, pull-tabs, ~~ticket jars~~ jar tickets, paddlewheels, and tipboards.

Sec. 5. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 349.14, is amended to read:

349.14 [ORGANIZATION MAY CONDUCT LAWFUL GAMBLING; LICENSE.]

An organization may conduct lawful gambling if it ~~has been in existence for at least three years, has at least 15 active members,~~ has a license to conduct lawful gambling from the board and complies with this chapter.

Sec. 6. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 349.15, is amended to read:

349.15 [USE OF PROFITS.]

Profits from lawful gambling may be expended only for lawful purposes or expenses as authorized at a regular meeting of the conducting organization. Provided that no more than ~~50~~ 55 percent of profits from bingo, and no more than ~~40~~ 45 percent for other forms of lawful gambling, may be expended for necessary expenses related to lawful gambling.

The board shall provide by rule for the administration of this section, including specifying allowable expenses. The rules may provide a maximum percentage of gross receipts which may be expended for certain expenses.

Sec. 7. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 349.151, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [COMPENSATION.] The compensation of board members is $35 per day spent on commission activities, when authorized by the board, plus expenses in the same manner and amount as provided in the commissioner's plan adopted according to section ~~43A.18, subdivision 2~~ as provided in section 15.0575, subdivision 3.

Sec. 8. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 349.161, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [QUALIFICATIONS.] A license may not be issued under this section to a person, or to a corporation, firm, or partnership which has as an officer, director, or other person in a supervisory or management position, or employee eligible to make sales on behalf of the distributor a person, who:

(1) has been convicted of a felony in a state or federal court within the past five years or who has a felony charge pending;

(2) has ever been convicted in a state or federal court of a gambling-related offense; or

(3) is or has ever been engaged in an illegal business.

Sec. 9. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 349.161, subdivision 5, is amended to read:

Subd. 5. [PROHIBITION.] (a) No distributor, or employee eligible to make sales on behalf of a distributor, may also be a wholesale distributor of liquor or alcoholic beverages.

(b) No distributor, or employee authorized to make sales on behalf of a distributor, may be involved directly in the operation of lawful gambling conducted by an organization.

Sec. 10. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 349.161, subdivision 7, is amended to read:

Subd. 7. [CRIMINAL HISTORY.] The board may request the assistance of the bureau of criminal apprehension in investigating the background of an applicant for a ~~supplier's distributor's~~ license and may reimburse the bureau for the costs thereof. The board has access to all criminal history data compiled by the bureau on licensees and applicants.

Sec. 11. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 349.161, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 9. [PERMANENT OFFICE.] Licensed distributors must maintain a permanent office in Minnesota. All records required to be maintained by this chapter must be kept at that location.

Sec. 12. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 349.162, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [STAMP REQUIRED.] A distributor may not sell to an organization and an organization may not purchase from a distributor gambling equipment unless the equipment has been registered with the board and has a registration stamp affixed. The stamps must be kept in Minnesota and affixed to gambling equipment at a facility owned or leased by the distributor. The board shall charge a fee of five cents for each stamp. Each stamp must bear a registration number assigned by the board. A distributor is entitled to a refund for unused stamps and replacement for stamps which are defective or canceled by the distributor.

Sec. 13. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 349.162, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 4. [PROHIBITION.] No person other than a licensed organization or a licensed distributor may possess registration stamps issued by the board.

Sec. 14. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 349.18, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [LEASE OR OWNERSHIP REQUIRED.] An organization may conduct lawful gambling only on premises it owns or leases. Leases must be for a period of at least one year and must be in writing. Copies of all leases must be made available to employees of the board on request. A lease may not provide for rental payments based on a percentage of receipts or profits from lawful gambling. The board may prescribe by rule limits on the amount of rent which an organization may pay to a lessor for premises leased for lawful gambling.

Sec. 15. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 349.18, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [PROCEEDS FROM RENTAL.] A licensed organization which leases Rental proceeds from premises it owns owned by a licensed organization and leased or subleased to one or more other licensed organizations for the purposes including the conduct of conducting lawful gambling may expend the rental proceeds, less reasonable deductions for maintenance, furnishings, and utilities, only for lawful purposes. The rental proceeds must be recorded and reported as proceeds from gambling under section 349.19 shall not be reported as gambling proceeds under this chapter.

Sec. 16. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 349.19, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [EXPENDITURES.] All expenditures of bingo profits from lawful gambling must be itemized as to payee, purpose, amount, and date of payment.

Sec. 17. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 349.21, is amended to read:

349.21 [COMPENSATION.]

Compensation to persons who participate in the conduct of lawful gambling may be paid only to active members of the conducting organization or its auxiliary, or the spouse or surviving spouse of an active member, except that nonmanagement assistants who are not active members or spouses may be hired to assist in the conduct of lawful gambling in nonmanagement positions if approved by a majority of the organization's members.

The amounts of compensation which may be paid under this section ~~must~~ may be provided for in a schedule of compensation adopted by the board by rule. In adopting ~~the~~ a schedule the board must consider the nature of the participation and the types of lawful gambling participated in.

A licensed organization may pay a percentage of the gross receipts from raffle ticket sales to a nonprofit organization which sells tickets for the licensed organization.

Sec. 18. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 349.213, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [LOCAL REGULATION.] A statutory or home rule city or county has the authority to adopt more stringent regulation of any form of lawful gambling within its jurisdiction, including the prohibition of any form of lawful gambling, and may require a permit for the conduct of gambling exempt from licensing under section 349.214. The fee for a permit issued under this subdivision may not exceed $100. The authority granted by this subdivision does not include the authority to require a license or permit to conduct gambling by organizations or sales by distributors licensed by the board. The authority granted by this subdivision does not include the authority to require an organization to make specific expenditures of more than ten percent from its net profits derived from lawful gambling. For the purposes of this subdivision, net profits are profits less amounts expended for allowable expenses. A statutory or home rule charter city or a county may not require an organization conducting lawful gambling within its jurisdiction to make an expenditure to the city or county as a condition to operate within that city or county, except as authorized under section 349.16, subdivision 4, or section 349.212.

Sec. 19. [EFFECTIVE DATE.]

Sections 1 to 18 are effective June 1, 1987."

Delete the title and insert:

"A bill for an act relating to lawful gambling; including payment of taxes as a lawful purpose; increasing the percentage of profits that may be used for necessary expenses; changing requirements for distributors; authorizing the board to adopt rules restricting the amount of rent charged by organizations; prohibiting local units of government from requiring organizations to make certain expenditures; making various technical changes; amending Minnesota Statutes 1986, sections 349.12, subdivisions 11, 12, 13, and 15; 349.14; 349.15; 349.151, subdivision 3; 349.161, subdivisions 3, 5, 7, and by adding a subdivision; 349.162, subdivision 1, and by adding a subdivision; 349.18, subdivisions 1 and 3; 349.19, subdivision 3; 349.21; and 349.213, subdivision 1."

With the recommendation that when so amended the bill pass.

The report was adopted.

“(c) A county or counties jointly may elect not to have its sanction amount computed by the formula in paragraph (a). It may instead choose to have its sanction amount calculated on the basis of its own error rate. A county may elect this option provided that it does so at no cost to the state and that the county’s error rate is documented in the same way and with the same accuracy as the federal requirements for documentation of the statewide error rate. The county’s sanction amount shall then be the same proportion of all sanctions for the state that the county’s errors are of the total of all errors in the state for the program. The balance of the state’s sanction amount shall be distributed to the other counties according to paragraph (a). The county shall inform the department of its decision to use this paragraph ninety days before the beginning of the following fiscal year.”

Page 5, line 12, after the period insert “For years prior to 1987, a county may choose the option provided by section 256.01, subdivision 2, clause (14), paragraph (c) before ninety days after the effective date of this act.”

PATRICK E. FLAHAVER, Secretary of the Senate

Kahn moved that the House refuse to concur in the Senate amendments to H. F. No. 1315, that the Speaker appoint a Conference Committee of 5 members of the House, and that the House requests that a like committee be appointed by the Senate to confer on the disagreeing votes of the two houses. The motion prevailed.

ANNOUNCEMENT BY THE SPEAKER

The Speaker announced the appointment of the following members of the House to a Conference Committee on H. F. No. 1315:

Kahn; Battaglia; Anderson, G.; Nelson, D., and Carlson, D.

SPECIAL ORDERS, Continued

S. F. No. 830 was reported to the House.

Gruenes moved to amend S. F. No. 830, as follows:

Delete everything after the enacting clause and insert:

"Section 1. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 80C.14, is amended to read:

80C.14 [UNFAIR PRACTICES.]

Subdivision 1. [PROHIBITION.] No person, whether by means of a term or condition of a franchise or otherwise, shall engage in any unfair or inequitable practice in contravention of such rules as the commissioner may adopt defining as to franchises the words "unfair and inequitable." For the purpose of rules defining the words "unfair and inequitable", the commissioner may specifically recognize classifications of franchises including but not limited to the classifications of motor vehicle fuel franchises, motor vehicle franchises, hardware franchises, and franchises which require that the franchisee make an initial, unfinanced investment in excess of $200,000. Any A violation of this section is enjoined by a court of competent jurisdiction.

A temporary injunction may be granted under this section without requiring the posting of any bond or security. A bond or security shall be is required if a temporary restraining order is granted.

Subd. 2. [ACTS CONSTITUTING.] All franchise contracts or agreements, other than those classifications of franchises specifically recognized by the commissioner pursuant to under subdivision 1, and any other device or practice of a franchisor shall must conform to the following provisions subdivisions 3 and 4. It shall be deemed is an unfair and inequitable practice for any a person to: commit an act specified in subdivision 3 or 4.

Subd. 3. [TERMINATION OR CANCELLATION.] (a) terminate or cancel a franchise without first giving written notice setting forth all the reasons for the termination or cancellation to the franchisee at least 60 days in advance of termination or cancellation, except that the notice shall be effective immediately upon receipt where the alleged grounds are: No person may terminate or cancel a franchise unless: (i) that person has given written notice setting forth all the reasons for the termination or cancellation at least 90 days in advance of termination or cancellation, and (ii) the recipient of the notice fails to correct the reasons stated for termination or cancellation in the notice within 60 days of receipt of the notice; except that the notice is effective immediately upon receipt where the alleged grounds for termination or cancellation are:

(1) voluntary abandonment of the franchise relationship by the franchisee;

(2) the conviction of the franchisee of an offense directly related to the business conducted pursuant to the franchise; or

(3) failure to cure a default under the franchise agreement which materially impairs the goodwill associated with the franchisor's trade name, trademark, service mark, logotype or other commercial symbol after the franchisee has received written notice to cure of at least 24 hours in advance thereof;

(b) No person may terminate or cancel a franchise except for good cause. "Good cause" shall be means failure by the franchisee to substantially to comply with the material and reasonable franchise requirements imposed by the franchise franchisor including, but not limited to:

(1) the bankruptcy or insolvency of the franchisee;

(2) assignment for the benefit of creditors or similar disposition of the assets of the franchise business;

(3) voluntary abandonment of the franchise business;

(4) conviction or a plea of guilty or no contest to a charge of violating any law relating to the franchise business; or

(5) any act by or conduct of the franchisee which materially impairs the goodwill associated with the franchisor's trademark, trade name, service mark, logotype or other commercial symbol; or

(e) fail to renew a franchise unless the franchisee has been given written notice of the intention not to renew at least 90 days in advance thereof and has been given a sufficient opportunity to recover the franchisee's investment unless the failure to renew is for good cause as defined in clause (b).

Subd. 4. [FAILURE TO RENEW.] Unless the failure to renew a franchise is for good cause as defined in subdivision 3, paragraph (b), and the franchisee has failed to correct reasons for termination as required by subdivision 3, no person may fail to renew a franchise unless (1) the franchisee has been given written notice of the intention not to renew at least 180 days in advance of the expiration of the franchise; (2) the franchisee has been given an opportunity to operate the franchise over a sufficient period of time to enable him to recover the fair market value of the franchise as a going concern; and (3) the franchisor's refusal to renew is not for the purpose of converting the franchisee's business premises to an operation that will be owned by the franchisor for its own account.

Subd. 5. [WITHHOLDING CONSENT TO TRANSFER.] It is unfair and inequitable for a person to unreasonably withhold consent to an assignment, transfer, or sale of the franchise whenever the franchisee to be substituted meets the present qualifications and standards required of the franchisees of the particular franchisor.

Sec. 2. [EFFECTIVE DATE.]

This act is effective the day following final enactment and applies to all franchise contracts or agreements in effect on that date.

[SPEED LIMITS.] Where no special hazard exists the following speeds shall be lawful, but any speeds in excess of such limits shall be prima facie evidence that the speed is not reasonable or prudent and that it is unlawful; except that the speed limit within any municipality shall be a maximum limit and any speed in excess thereof shall be unlawful:

(1) 30 miles per hour in an urban district;

(2) 65 miles per hour in other locations during the daytime on interstate highways outside urbanized areas with a population of 50,000 or more, as determined by the commissioner, except as otherwise provided in section 7;

(3) 55 miles per hour in such other locations during the nighttime other than those specified in clauses (1), (2), and (4);

(4) ten miles per hour in alleys.

"Daytime" means from a half hour before sunrise to a half hour after sunset, except at any time when due to weather or other conditions there is not sufficient light to render clearly discernible persons and vehicles at a distance of 500 feet. "Nighttime" means at any other hour or at any time when due to weather or other conditions there is not sufficient light to render clearly discernible persons and vehicles at a distance of 500 feet.

Sec. 2. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 169.141, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. Upon a finding by the governor, after due consideration of available information and consultation with such federal and state officials as the governor deems appropriate, that it is necessary to reduce highway vehicular speeds because of a serious shortage of energy which exists or is imminent, the ~~commissioner of transportation~~, with the approval of the governor, shall, by order, designate the maximum allowable speed of vehicles using the highways of this state. The order shall be effective the day following the filing of a certified copy thereof in the office of the secretary of state, and shall remain in effect until rescinded by order of the ~~commissioner of transportation~~ governor. Any speed in excess of the designated maximum speed as contained in the order is unlawful, and the penalties provided in section 169.89 apply.

Sec. 3. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 169.141, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. The provisions of section 169.14 and the provisions of any other law authorizing highway vehicular speeds in excess of the maximum speed designated in the order of the ~~commissioner of transportation~~ governor provided for in subdivision 2 are inapplicable and of no effect during the period of time in which the order of the ~~commissioner of transportation~~ governor is in effect.

Sec. 4. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 169.99, subdivision 1b, is amended to read:

Subd. 1b. The uniform traffic ticket must provide a blank or space wherein an officer who issues a citation for a violation of section 169.141 or 169.14, subdivision 2, clause (3), must specify whether the speed was greater than ten miles per hour in excess of the speed designated under in that section or clause.

Sec. 5. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 171.12, subdivision 6, is amended to read:

Subd. 6. [CERTAIN CONVICTIONS NOT RECORDED.] The department shall not keep on the record of a driver any conviction for a violation of section 169.141 or 169.14, subdivision 2, clause (3), unless the violation consisted of a speed greater than ten miles per hour in excess of the lawful speed designated under in that section or clause.

Sec. 6. [EXECUTIVE ORDERS NULLIFIED.]

Any order issued by the commissioner of transportation under Minnesota Statutes, section 169.141, designating the maximum speed of vehicles, which was in effect on June 1, 1987, is hereby declared to be of no effect.

Sec. 7. [APPLICATION.]

Section 1, subdivision 2, clause (2) does not apply to Anoka, Carver, Dakota, Hennepin, Ramsey, Scott, and Washington counties.

Sec. 8. [REPEALER.]

Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 169.141, subdivision 1, is repealed."

Delete the title and insert:

"A bill for an act relating to highway traffic regulations; authorizing a 65 mile per hour speed limit on certain interstate highways; specifying speeding violations which are not recorded on permanent driving records; transferring from the commissioner of transportation to the governor authority to designate an emergency speed limit; amending Minnesota Statutes 1986, sections 169.14, subdivision 2; 169.141, subdivisions 2 and 3; 169.99, subdivision 1b; and 171.12, subdivision 6; repealing Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 169.141, subdivision 1."

With the recommendation that when so amended the bill pass.

The report was adopted.

The bill was repassed, as amended by the Senate, and its title agreed to.

Mr. Speaker:

I hereby announce that the Senate refuses to concur in the House amendments to Senate File No. 378:

S. F. No. 378, A bill for an act relating to utilities; requiring owners of electric power lines to trim vegetation around lines; providing that failure to trim vegetation is a nuisance; proposing coding for new law in Minnesota Statutes, chapter 561.

The Senate respectfully requests that a Conference Committee be appointed thereon. The Senate has appointed as such committee:

Messrs. Merriam and Dicklich and Ms. Olson.

Said Senate File is herewith transmitted to the House with the request that the House appoint a like committee.

PATRICK E. FLAHAVEN, Secretary of the Senate

Jacobs moved that the House accede to the request of the Senate and that the Speaker appoint a Conference Committee of 3 members of the House to meet with a like committee appointed by the Senate on the disagreeing votes of the two houses on S. F. No. 378. The motion prevailed.

Mr. Speaker:

I hereby announce that the Senate refuses to concur in the House amendments to Senate File No. 785:

S. F. No. 785, A bill for an act relating to crimes; eliminating consent defense to charge of depriving another of parental rights; allowing filing of felony charges before 14 days have elapsed; increasing penalty for depriving another of parental rights; amending Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 609.26, subdivisions 2, 5, and 6.

The Senate respectfully requests that a Conference Committee be appointed thereon. The Senate has appointed as such committee:

Ms. Peterson, D. C.; Messrs. Pogemiller and Belanger.

Said Senate File is herewith transmitted to the House with the request that the House appoint a like committee.

PATRICK E. FLAHAVEN, Secretary of the Senate

Segal moved that the House accede to the request of the Senate and that the Speaker appoint a Conference Committee of 3 members of the House to meet with a like committee appointed by the Senate on the disagreeing votes of the two houses on S. F. No. 785. The motion prevailed.

Mr. Speaker:

I hereby announce that the Senate refuses to concur in the House amendments to Senate File No. 1323:

S. F. No. 1323, A bill for an act relating to statutes; conforming various laws to judicial decisions of unconstitutionality and suggestions for clarity; amending Minnesota Statutes 1986, sections 169.123, subdivision 7; 325B.15; 487.01, subdivisions 2, 3, and 4; 487.21, subdivision 4; 487.23, subdivisions 1, 2, and 3; 487.25, subdivisions 1 and 2; 487.33, subdivision 1; 488A.01, subdivision 14; 488A.18, subdivision 14; 501.35; and 525.712; repealing Minnesota Statutes 1986, sections 466.03, subdivision 2; 487.39; and 595.04.

The Senate respectfully requests that a Conference Committee be appointed thereon. The Senate has appointed as such committee:

Messrs. Marty, Jude and Belanger.

Said Senate File is herewith transmitted to the House with the request that the House appoint a like committee.

PATRICK E. FLAHAVEN, Secretary of the Senate

Bishop moved that the House accede to the request of the Senate and that the Speaker appoint a Conference Committee of 3 members of the House to meet with a like committee appointed by the Senate on the disagreeing votes of the two houses on S. F. No. 1323. The motion prevailed.

Mr. Speaker:

I hereby announce the passage by the Senate of the following Senate Files, herewith transmitted:

S. F. Nos. 634, 677 and 462.

PATRICK E. FLAHAVER, Secretary of the Senate

FIRST READING OF SENATE BILLS

"Sec. 16. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 268.09, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [DISQUALIFYING CONDITIONS.] An individual separated from employment under clause (1), (2), or (3) shall be disqualified for waiting week credit and benefits. For separations under clauses (1) and (2), the disqualification shall continue until four eight calendar weeks have elapsed following the individual's separation and the individual has earned four eight times the individual's weekly benefit amount in insured work.

(1) [VOLUNTARY LEAVE.] The individual voluntarily and without good cause attributable to the employer discontinued employment with such employer. For the purpose of this clause, a separation from employment by reason of its temporary nature or for inability to pass a test or for inability to meet performance standards necessary for continuation of employment or based solely on a provision in a collective bargaining agreement by which an individual has vested discretionary authority in another to act in behalf of the individual shall not be deemed voluntary.

A separation shall be for good cause attributable to the employer if it occurs as a consequence of sexual harassment. Sexual harassment means unwelcome sexual advances, requests for sexual favors, sexually motivated physical contact or other conduct or communication of a sexual nature when: (1) the employee's submission to such conduct or communication is made a term or condition of the employment, (2) the employee's submission to or rejection of such conduct or communication is the basis for decisions affecting employment, or (3) such conduct or communication has the purpose or effect of substantially interfering with an individual's work performance or creating an intimidating, hostile, or offensive working environment and the employer knows or should know of the existence of the harassment and fails to take timely and appropriate action.

(2) [DISCHARGE FOR MISCONDUCT.] The individual was discharged for misconduct, not amounting to gross misconduct connected with work or for misconduct which interferes with and adversely affects employment.

An individual shall not be disqualified under clauses (1) and (2) of this subdivision under any of the following conditions:

(a) The individual voluntarily discontinued employment to accept work offering substantially better conditions of work or substantially higher wages or both;

(b) The individual is separated from employment due to personal, serious illness provided that such individual has made reasonable efforts to retain employment;

An individual who is separated from employment due to the individual's illness of chemical dependency which has been professionally diagnosed or for which the individual has voluntarily submitted to treatment and who fails to make consistent efforts to maintain the treatment the individual knows or has been professionally advised is necessary to control that illness has not made reasonable efforts to retain employment.

(c) The individual accepts work from a base period employer which involves a change in location of work so that said work would not have been deemed to be suitable work under the provisions of subdivision 2 and within a period of 13 weeks from the commencement of said work voluntarily discontinues employment due to reasons which would have caused the work to be unsuitable under the provision of said subdivision 2;

(d) The individual left employment because of reaching mandatory retirement age and was 65 years of age or older;

(e) The individual is terminated by the employer because the individual gave notice of intention to terminate employment within 30 days. This exception shall be effective only through the calendar week which includes the date of intended termination, provided that this exception shall not result in the payment of benefits for any week for which the individual receives the individual's normal wage or salary which is equal to or greater than the weekly benefit amount;

(f) The individual is separated from employment due to the completion of an apprenticeship program, or segment thereof, approved pursuant to chapter 178;

(g) The individual voluntarily leaves part-time employment with a base period employer while continuing full-time employment if the individual attempted to return to part-time employment after being separated from the full-time employment, and if substantially the same part-time employment with the base period employer was not available for the individual.

(3) [DISCHARGE FOR GROSS MISCONDUCT.] The individual was discharged for gross misconduct connected with work or gross misconduct which interferes with and adversely affects the individual's employment. For a separation under this clause, the commissioner shall impose a total disqualification for the benefit year and cancel all of the wage credits from the last employer from whom the individual was discharged for gross misconduct connected with work.

For the purpose of this clause "gross misconduct" is defined as misconduct involving assault and battery or the malicious destruction of property or arson or sabotage or embezzlement or any other act, including theft, the commission of which amounts to a felony or gross misdemeanor. For an employee of a health care facility, gross misconduct also includes misconduct involving an act of patient or resident abuse as defined in section 626.557, subdivision 2, clause (d).

If an individual is convicted of a felony or gross misdemeanor for the same act or acts of misconduct for which the individual was discharged, the misconduct is conclusively presumed to be gross misconduct if it was connected with the individual's work.

(4) [LIMITED OR NO CHARGE OF BENEFITS.] Benefits paid subsequent to an individual's separation under any of the foregoing clauses, excepting clauses (2)(c) and (2)(e), shall not be used as a factor in determining the future contribution rate of the employer from whose employment such individual separated.

Benefits paid subsequent to an individual's failure, without good cause, to accept an offer of suitable re-employment shall not be used as a factor in determining the future contribution rate of the employer whose offer of re-employment was not accepted or whose offer of re-employment was refused solely due to the distance of the available work from the individual's residence, the individual's own serious illness or the individual's other employment at the time of the offer.

(5) An individual who was employed by an employer shall not be disqualified for benefits under this subdivision for any acts or omissions occurring after separation from employment with the employer.

(6) [DISCIPLINARY SUSPENSIONS.] An individual shall be disqualified for waiting week credit and benefits for the duration of any disciplinary suspension of 30 days or less resulting from the individual's own misconduct. Disciplinary suspensions of more than 30 days shall constitute a discharge from employment.

Sec. 17. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 268.09, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [FAILURE TO APPLY FOR OR ACCEPT SUITABLE WORK OR RE-EMPLOYMENT.] An individual shall be disqualified for waiting week credit and benefits during the week of occurrence and until ~~four~~ eight calendar weeks have elapsed following the refusal or failure and the individual has earned ~~four~~ eight times the individual's weekly benefit amount in insured work if the commissioner finds that the individual has failed, without good cause, either to apply for available, suitable work of which advised by the employment office, or the commissioner or to accept suitable work when offered, or to return to customary self-employment (if any) when so directed by the commissioner, or to accept a base period employer's offer of re-employment offering substantially the same or better hourly wages and conditions of work as were previously provided by that employer in the base period.

(a) In determining whether or not any work is suitable for an individual, the commissioner shall consider the degree of risk involved to health, safety, and morals, physical fitness and prior training, experience, length of unemployment and prospects of securing local work in the individual's customary occupation, and the distance of the available work from the individual's residence.

(b) Notwithstanding any other provisions of sections 268.03 to 268.24, no work shall be deemed suitable, and benefits shall not be denied thereunder to any otherwise eligible individual for refusing to accept new work under any of the following conditions:

(1) if the position offered is vacant due directly to a strike, lockout, or other labor dispute;

(2) if the wages, hours, or other conditions of the work offered are substantially less favorable to the individual than those prevailing for similar work in the locality;

(3) if as a condition of being employed the individual would be required to join a union or to resign from or refrain from joining any bona fide labor organization;

(4) if the individual is in training with the approval of the commissioner."

Renumber the sections accordingly and correct internal cross-references

Amend the title as follows:

“ARTICLE 1

UNEMPLOYMENT COMPENSATION

Section 1. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 268.03, is amended to read:

268.03 [DECLARATION OF PUBLIC POLICY.]

As a guide to the interpretation and application of sections 268.03 to 268.24, the public policy of this state is declared to be as follows: Economic insecurity due to unemployment is a serious menace to the health, morals, and welfare of the people of this state. Involuntary unemployment is therefore a subject of general interest and concern which requires appropriate action by the legislature to prevent its spread and to lighten its burdens. This can be provided by encouraging employers to provide more stable employment and by the systematic accumulation of funds during periods of employment to provide benefits for periods of unemployment, thus maintaining purchasing power and limiting the serious social consequences of poor relief assistance. The legislature, therefore, declares that in its considered judgment the public good and the general welfare of the citizens of this state will be promoted by providing, under the police powers of the state for the compulsory setting aside of unemployment reserves to be used for the benefit of persons unemployed through no fault of their own establishment of an unemployment insurance fund. The reserves of the unemployment insurance fund are to be used to provide a temporary replacement of a portion of lost wages to individuals with a permanent attachment to the work force, who become involuntarily unemployed through no fault of their own, and who are actively seeking, and are willing and available to accept, suitable reemployment.

Sec. 2. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 268.04, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. "Base period" means the period of 52 calendar weeks immediately preceding the first day of an individual's benefit year. However, if a claimant received weekly worker's compensation for temporary total disability under the provisions of chapter 176 or under a similar law of the United States for more than seven weeks within the base period, or if a claimant, whose own serious illness caused a loss of credit weeks within the base period, received compensation due to the illness from some other source or under a law of this state other than chapter 176 or under a similar law of the United States for more than seven weeks within the base period, the claimant's base period shall be lengthened by the same number of weeks, but not to exceed 52 weeks, for which the claimant received the payments. No extended base period shall include wage credits upon which benefits were established and paid with respect to a prior valid claim first four of the last five completed calendar quarters immediately preceding the first day of an individual's benefit year; except that, if during the base period an individual received workers' compensation for temporary disability under chapter 176 or a similar law of the United States, or if an individual whose own serious illness caused a loss of work for which the individual received compensation due to the illness from some other source or under a law of this state other than chapter 176 or a similar law of the United States, the individual's base period shall be lengthened to the extent stated as follows:

(1) if an individual was compensated, as described above, for a loss of work of seven to 13 weeks, the original base period shall be extended to include one calendar quarter preceding the original base period; or

(2) if an individual was compensated, as described above, for a loss of work of 14 to 26 weeks, the original base period shall be extended to include two calendar quarters preceding the original base period; or

(3) if an individual was compensated, as described above, for a loss of work from 27 to 39 weeks, the original base period shall be extended to include the first three calendar quarters preceding the original base period; or

(4) if an individual was compensated, as described above, for a loss of work from 40 to 52 weeks, the original base period shall be extended to include the first four quarters preceding the original base period.

In no instance shall the base period be extended to include more than four additional calendar quarters.

No extended base period shall include wage credits upon which a claim was established and benefits were paid with respect to that valid claim.

Sec. 3. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 268.04, subdivision 4, is amended to read:

Subd. 4. "Benefit year" with respect to any individual means the period of 52 calendar weeks beginning with the first day of the first week with respect to which the individual files a valid claim for benefits. For individuals with a claim effective January 1, April 1, July 1, or October 1, the benefit year will be a period of 53 weeks beginning with the first week with respect to which the individual files a valid claim for benefits.

Sec. 4. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 268.04, subdivision 24, is amended to read:

Subd. 24. "Valid claim" with respect to any individual means a claim filed by an individual who has registered for work and who has earned wage credits and established credit weeks been paid wages during the individual's base period sufficient to entitle the individual to benefits under section 268.07, subdivision 2.

Sec. 5. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 268.04, subdivision 25, is amended to read:

Subd. 25. [WAGES.] "Wages" means all remuneration for services, including commissions and bonuses, back pay as of the date of payment, and tips and gratuities paid to an employee by a customer of an employer and accounted for by the employee to the employer, and the cash value of all remuneration in any medium other than cash; except that such, the term shall not include:

(a) For the purpose of determining contributions payable under section 268.06, subdivision 2, that part of the remuneration which exceeds, for each calendar year, the greater of $7,000 or that part of the remuneration which exceeds 60 percent of the average annual wage rounded to the nearest $100 computed in accordance with the provisions of clause (f) $11,600 in 1988 and $12,000 in 1989 and thereafter, paid to an individual by an employer with respect to covered employment in this state, or with respect to employment under the unemployment compensation law of any other state during any calendar year paid to such individual by such covered employer or predecessor during such calendar year; provided, that if the term "wages" as contained in the Federal Unemployment Tax Act is amended to include remuneration in excess of the amount required to be paid hereunder to an individual by an employer under the federal act for any calendar year, wages for the purposes of sections 268.03 to 268.24 shall include remuneration paid in a calendar year up to an amount equal to the dollar limitation specified in the Federal Unemployment Tax Act. For the purposes of this clause, the term "employment" shall include service constituting employment under any employment security law of another state or of the federal government;

(b) The amount of any payment made to, or on behalf of, an employee under a plan or system established by an employer which makes provision for employees generally or for a class or classes of employees (including any amount paid by an employer for insurance or annuities, or into a fund, to provide for any such payment), on account of (1) retirement or (2) sickness or accident disability or (3) medical and hospitalization expenses in connection with sickness or accident disability, or (4) death, provided the employee has not the option to receive, instead of provision for such death benefit, any part of such payment, or if such death benefit is insured, any part of the premium (or contributions to premiums) paid by the employer and has not the right, under the provisions of the plan or system or policy of insurance providing for such death benefit, to assign such benefit, or to receive a cash consideration in lieu of such benefit either upon withdrawal from the plan or system providing for such benefit or upon termination of such plan or system or policy of insurance or of employment with such employer;

(c) The payment by an employer (without deduction from the remuneration of the employee) (1) of the tax imposed upon an employee under section 3101 of the federal Internal Revenue Code, or (2) of any payment required from an employee under a state unemployment compensation law, with respect to remuneration paid to an employee for domestic service in a private home of the employer or for agricultural labor;

(d) Any payments made to a former employee during the period of active military service in the armed forces of the United States by such employer, whether legally required or not;

(e) Any payment made to, or on behalf of, an employee or beneficiary (1) from or to a trust described in section 401(a) of the federal Internal Revenue Code which is exempt from tax under section 501(a) of such code at the time of such payment unless such payment is made to an employee of the trust as remuneration for services rendered as an employee and not as a beneficiary of the trust, or (2) under or to an annuity plan which, at the time of such payment is a plan described in section 403(a) of the federal Internal Revenue Code, or (3) under or to a bond purchase plan which, at the time of such payment, is a qualified bond purchase plan described in section 405(a) of the federal Internal Revenue Code;

(f) On or before July 1 of each year the commissioner shall determine the average annual wage paid by employers subject to sections 268.03 to 268.24 in the following manner:

(1) The sum of the total monthly employment reported for the previous calendar year shall be divided by 12 to determine the average monthly employment;

(2) The sum of the total wages reported for the previous calendar year shall be divided by the average monthly employment to determine the average annual wage.

The average annual wage determined shall be effective for the calendar year next succeeding the determination. The value of any meals and lodgings furnished by or on behalf of the employer, if at the time of such furnishings it is reasonable to believe that the employee will be able to exclude such items from income under United States Code, title 26, section 119.

Sec. 6. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 268.04, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 34. [CONTRIBUTION REPORT.] “Contribution report” means the summary report of wages and employment used to determine the amount of contributions due by employers on a calendar quarter basis. An auxiliary report of wages and employment broken down by business locations, when required, is part of the contribution report.

Sec. 7. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 268.04, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 35. [WAGE DETAIL REPORT.] “Wage detail report” means the itemized report used to record the information required by section 268.121.

Sec. 8. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 268.04, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 36. [HIGH QUARTER.] “High quarter” means the calendar quarter in an individual’s base period for which the total wage credits paid to the individual during that quarter are equal to or greater than the total wage credits paid to the individual during any other calendar quarter in the individual’s base period.

Sec. 9. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 268.06, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [RATES.] Each employer shall pay contributions equal to two and seven-tenths percent for each calendar year prior to 1985 and 5-4/10 percent for 1985 and each subsequent calendar year of wages paid and wages overdue and delayed beyond the usual time of payment from the employer with respect to employment occurring during each calendar year, except as may be otherwise prescribed in subdivisions 3a and 4. Each employer who has an experience ratio of less than one-tenth of one percent shall pay contributions on only the first $8,000 in wages paid and wages overdue and delayed beyond the usual time of payment to each employee with respect to employment occurring during each calendar year.

Sec. 10. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 268.06, subdivision 5, is amended to read:

Subd. 5. [BENEFITS CHARGED AS AND WHEN PAID.] Benefits paid to an individual pursuant to a valid claim shall be charged against the account of the individual's employer as and when paid, except that benefits paid to an individual who earned base period wages for part-time employment shall not be charged to an employer that is liable for payments in lieu of contributions or to the experience rating account of an employer if the employer: (1) provided weekly base period part-time employment; ~~(2), continues to provide weekly employment equal to at least 90 percent of the part-time employment provided in the base period; and (3) is an interested party because of the individual's loss of other employment; or~~ (2) provided weekly employment in the base period on an on-call as needed basis, continues to employ the individual on the same basis and provides employment substantially equal to the employment provided in the base period, and is an interested party because of the individual's loss of other employment. The amount of benefits so chargeable against each base period employer's account shall bear the same ratio to the total benefits paid to an individual as the base period wage credits of the individual earned from such employer bear to the total amount of base period wage credits of the individual earned from all the individual's base period employers.

In making computations under this provision, the amount of wage credits if not a multiple of $1, shall be computed to the nearest multiple of $1.

Benefits shall not be charged to an employer that is liable for payments in lieu of contributions or to the experience rating account of an employer for unemployment (1) that is directly caused by a major natural disaster declared by the president pursuant to section 102(2) of the Disaster Relief Act of 1974 (United States Code, title 42, section 5122(2)), if the unemployed individual would have been eligible for disaster unemployment assistance with respect to that unemployment but for the individual's receipt of unemployment insurance benefits, or (2) that is directly caused by a fire, flood, or act of God where 70 percent or more of the employees employed in the affected location become unemployed as a result and the employer substantially reopens its operations in that same area within 360 days of the fire, flood, or act of God. Benefits shall be charged to the employer's account where the unemployment is caused by the willful act of the employer or a person acting on behalf of the employer.

Sec. 11. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 268.06, subdivision 8, is amended to read:

Subd. 8. [DETERMINATION OF CONTRIBUTION RATES.] (a) For each calendar year the commissioner shall determine the contribution rate of each employer by adding the minimum rate to the experience ratio, except that if the ratio for the current calendar year increases or decreases the experience ratio for the preceding calendar year by more than one and one-half percentage points for 1982; and 2½ percentage points for 1983 and each year thereafter, the increase or decrease for the current year shall be limited to one and one-half percentage points for 1982; and 2½ percentage points for 1983 and each year thereafter, provided that a small business employer shall be eligible, upon application, for a reduction in the limitation to 1½ percentage points for 1983 and each year thereafter. "Small business employer" for the purpose of this subdivision means an employer with an annual covered payroll of $250,000 or less, or fewer than 20 employees in three of the four quarters ending June 30, of the previous calendar year.

(b) The minimum rate for all employers that have had benefits charged to their account at any time during the applicable experience rating period described in subdivision 6 shall be one percent if the amount in the unemployment compensation fund is less than $80,000,000 on June 30 of the preceding calendar year; or nine-tenths of one percent if the fund is more than $80,000,000 but less than $90,000,000; or eight-tenths of one percent if the fund is more than $90,000,000 but less than $110,000,000; or seven-tenths of one percent if the fund is more than $110,000,000 but less than $130,000,000; or six-tenths of one percent if the fund is more than $130,000,000 but less than $150,000,000; or five-tenths of one percent if the fund is more than $150,000,000 but less than $170,000,000; or three-tenths of one percent if the fund is more than $170,000,000 but less than $200,000,000; or one-tenth of one percent if the fund is $200,000,000 or more; provided that no employer shall have a contribution rate of more than 7.5 percent.

(c) The minimum rate for all employers that have not had benefits charged to their account at any time during the applicable experience rating period described in subdivision 6 shall be three-tenths of one percent less than the minimum rate under paragraph (b) for 1988 and for each year thereafter, provided that no rate can be less than zero percent.

(d) For the purposes of this section the unemployment compensation fund shall not include any moneys advanced from the Federal Unemployment Account in the unemployment trust fund in accordance with Title XII of the Social Security Act, as amended. No employer first assigned an experience ratio in accordance with subdivision 6, shall have a contribution rate increased or decreased by more than one and one-half percentage points for 1982; and 2½ percentage points for 1983 and each year thereafter over the contribution rate assigned for the preceding calendar year in accordance with subdivision 3a, provided that a small business employer shall be eligible, upon application, for a reduction in the limitation to 1½ percentage points for 1983 and each year thereafter.

Sec. 12. [268.062] [STANDBY SOLVENCY SURTAX.]

If the balance in the unemployment compensation fund as calculated on April 1 of a year is less than 12.5 percent of benefits paid out in the previous year, a ten percent surtax is imposed on employers payable to the unemployment compensation fund. The surtax is imposed on the experience portion of the employer's contributions for the calendar year preceding the April 1 calculation. The surtax shall be assessed on the July 1 next following the April 1 calculation and is due March 1 of the year following its imposition. The surtax imposed by this subdivision is not a part of the employer's contribution rate for the purpose of the maximum tax limitation of section 268.06, subdivision 8. An employer's surtax under this section and contribution rate under section 268.06, subdivision 8, shall not in the aggregate exceed 8.15 percent.

Sec. 13. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 268.07, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [WEEKLY BENEFIT AMOUNT AND DURATION.] (a) If the commissioner finds that an individual has earned 15, or more, credit weeks within the base period of employment in insured work with one or more employers, benefits shall be payable to such individual during his benefit year as follows:

(1) Weekly benefit amount shall be equal to 60 percent of the first $85, 40 percent of the next $85 and 50 percent of the remainder of the average weekly wage of such individual. The amount so computed if not a whole dollar shall be rounded down to the next lower dollar amount. To establish a benefit year for unemployment compensation insurance benefits, effective after January 1, 1988, and thereafter, an individual must have:

(1) wage credits in two or more calendar quarters of the individual's base period; and

(2) minimum total base period wage credits equal to the high quarter wages multiplied by 1.5; and

(3) high quarter wage credits of not less than $1,300.

(b) An individual who cannot qualify for benefits under paragraph (a), may qualify if the individual has:

(1) wage credits in three or more calendar quarters of the individual's base period; and

(2) minimum total base period wage credits equal to the high quarter wages multiplied by 2.0;

(3) high quarter wage credits of not less than $870.

(c) If the commissioner finds that an individual has sufficient wages and weeks worked within the base period to establish a valid claim, the weekly benefit amount payable to the individual during the individual's benefit year shall be equal to one percent of the individual's wage credits during the base period, rounded to the next lower whole dollar.

(d) Notwithstanding paragraph (b), the maximum weekly benefit amount of claims for benefits which establish a benefit year subsequent to July 1, 1979 June 30, 1987, shall be 66 $\frac{2}{3}$  percent of the average weekly wage, except as provided in clause (d) \$239.

On or before June 30 of each year the commissioner shall determine the average weekly wage paid by employers subject to sections 268.03 to 268.24 in the following manner:

(a) The sum of the total monthly employment reported for the previous calendar year shall be divided by 12 to determine the average monthly employment.

(b) The sum of the total wages reported for the previous calendar year shall be divided by the average monthly employment to determine the average annual wage.

(c) The average annual wage shall be divided by 52 to determine the average weekly wage.

The maximum weekly benefit amount as so determined computed to the nearest whole dollar shall apply to claims for benefits which establish a benefit year which begins subsequent to June 30 of each year.

(d) The maximum weekly benefit amount for claims for benefits which establish a benefit year subsequent to June 30, 1982, and prior to July 1, 1983, shall be $184.

The maximum weekly benefit amount for claims for benefits which establish a benefit year subsequent to June 30, 1983, and prior to July 1, 1984, shall be $191.

The maximum weekly benefit amount for claims for benefits which establish a benefit year subsequent to June 30, 1984, and prior to July 1, 1985, shall be $198.

(2) An individual's maximum amount of regular benefits payable in a benefit year shall not exceed the lesser of (a) 26 times his weekly benefit amount or (b) 70 percent of the number of credit weeks earned by such an individual computed to the nearest whole week times his weekly benefit amount.

(e) An eligible individual shall be entitled during any benefit year to a total amount of benefits equal to one-third of the individual's total base period wage credits rounded to the next lower dollar not to exceed 26 times the individual's weekly benefit amount; except that, the maximum number of weeks of benefits that can be received as calculated under this paragraph shall be increased by one for each full year, excluding the first five years, of continuous employment the individual has worked with the same employer, subject to a maximum of eight additional weeks. For purposes of this paragraph, "continuous employment" means an individual has 26 or more weeks in a calendar year with the same employer with credit being given for leaves of absence for health reasons.

(3) (f) Each eligible individual who is unemployed in any week shall be paid with respect to such week a benefit in an amount equal to his weekly benefit amount less that part of his earnings, including holiday pay, payable to him with respect to such week which is in excess of $25 or $200 for earnings from service in the national guard or a United States military reserve unit. In addition, one-fourth of the individual's earnings up to the amount of the individual's benefit shall not apply to reduce the individual's benefit. Jury duty pay is not considered as earnings and shall not be deducted from benefits paid. Such benefit, if not a whole dollar amount shall be rounded down to the next lower dollar amount.

(4) The provisions of clauses (1) and (2) shall apply to claims for benefits which establish a benefit year subsequent to June 30, 1983.

(g) The minimum weekly benefit amount for claims for benefits which establish a benefit year subsequent to June 30, 1987, shall be $68 for claims established under paragraph (a) or $40 for claims established under paragraph (b).

Sec. 14. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 268.07, subdivision 2a, is amended to read:

Subd. 2a. [EXCEPTION.] Notwithstanding the provisions of subdivision 2, if the commissioner finds that an individual has earned credit weeks wage credits in seasonal employment, benefits shall be payable only if the commissioner finds that the individual has earned 15 credit weeks wage credits equal to or in excess of 36 times the individual's weekly benefit amount for claims establishing a benefit year before July 1, 1988, or at least 40 times the individual's weekly benefit amount in employment which is not seasonal for claims establishing a benefit year after June 30, 1988, in employment which is not seasonal, in addition to any credit weeks wage credits in seasonal employment. For the purposes of this subdivision, "seasonal employment" means employment with a single employer in the recreation or tourist industry which is available with the employer for 15 consecutive weeks or less each calendar year.

Sec. 15. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 268.07, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [WHEN WAGE CREDITS ARE NOT AVAILABLE.] (1) No individual may receive benefits in a benefit year unless, subsequent to the beginning of the next preceding benefit year during which benefits were received, the individual performed service in insured work as defined in section 268.04, subdivision 17, and earned remuneration for the service in an amount equal to not less than the minimum wage credits required to qualify for benefits. To establish a second benefit year following the expiration of an immediately preceding benefit year, an individual must have sufficient wage credits and weeks worked to establish a claim under subdivision 2, and must have performed services after the establishment of the expired benefit year. The services performed must have been in insured work and the wage credits from the services must equal not less than ten times the weekly benefit amount of the second benefit year.

(2) No employer who provided 90 percent or more of the wage credits in a claimant's base period shall be charged for benefits based upon earnings of the claimant during a subsequent base period unless the employer has employed the claimant in any part of the subsequent base period.

(3) Wages paid by an employing unit may not be used for benefit purposes by any individual who (a) individually or jointly with a spouse, parent or child owns or controls directly or indirectly 25 percent or more interest in the employing unit; or (b) is the spouse, parent or minor child of any individual who owns or controls directly or indirectly 25 percent or more interest in the employing unit; and (c) is not permanently separated from employment.

This clause is effective when the individual has been paid four times the individual's weekly benefit amount in the current benefit year.

(4) Wages paid in seasonal employment, as defined in subdivision 2a, are not available for benefit purposes during weeks in which there is no seasonal employment available with the employer.

(5) No employer shall be charged for benefits if the employer is a base period employer on a second claim solely because of the transition from a base period consisting of the 52-week period preceding the claim date to a base period consisting of the first four of the last five completed calendar quarters preceding the claim date.

Sec. 16. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 268.071, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [DEFINITIONS.] As used in this section, unless the context clearly requires otherwise:

(1) [EXTENDED BENEFIT PERIOD.] "Extended benefit period" means a period which

(a) Begins with the third week after a week for which there is a state "on" indicator; and

(b) Ends with either of the following weeks, whichever occurs later: The third week after the first week for which there is a state "off" indicator; or the 13th consecutive week of the period;

Provided, that no extended benefit period may begin before the 14th week following the end of a prior extended benefit period which was in effect with respect to this state.

(2) [STATE "ON" INDICATOR.] There is a "state 'on' indicator" for this state for a week if the commissioner determines, in accordance with the regulations of the United States Secretary of Labor, that for the period consisting of such week and the immediately preceding 12 weeks, the rate of insured unemployment (not seasonally adjusted) under this law

(a) equaled or exceeded 120 percent of the average of such rates for the corresponding 13-week period ending in each of the preceding two calendar years, and

(b) equaled or exceeded five percent.

The determination of whether there has been a state "on" indicator beginning any extended benefit period may be made as provided in clauses (a) and (b) above or a "state 'on' indicator" shall exist if the rate described in clause (b) equaled or exceeded six percent irrespective of whether the percentage requirement provided by clause (a) is met or exceeded.

(3) [STATE "OFF" INDICATOR.] There is a "state 'off' indicator" for this state for a week if, for the period consisting of such week and the immediately preceding 12 weeks, the rate of insured unemployment is less than six percent and the requirements for a "state 'on' indicator" under clause (2) of this subdivision are not satisfied.

(4) [RATE OF INSURED UNEMPLOYMENT.] "Rate of insured unemployment," for purposes of clauses (2) and (3), means the percentage derived by dividing the average weekly number of individuals filing claims for regular benefits in this state for weeks of unemployment with respect to the most recent 13 consecutive week period, as determined by the commissioner on the basis of the commissioner's reports to the United States secretary of labor, by the average monthly employment covered under this law for the first four of the most recent six completed calendar quarters ending before the end of such 13 week period.

(5) [REGULAR BENEFITS.] "Regular benefits" means benefits payable to an individual under this law or under any other state law (including benefits payable to federal civilian employees and to ex-servicemen pursuant to United States Code, title 5, chapter 85) other than extended benefits and additional benefits.

(6) [EXTENDED BENEFITS.] "Extended benefits" means benefits (including benefits payable to federal civilian employees and to ex-servicemen pursuant to United States Code, title 5, chapter 85) payable to an individual under the provisions of this section for weeks of unemployment in the individual's eligibility period.

(7) [ADDITIONAL BENEFITS.] "Additional benefits" means benefits payable to exhaustees by reason of conditions of high unemployment or by reason of other special factors under the provisions of any state law.

(8) [ELIGIBILITY PERIOD.] "Eligibility period" of an individual means the period consisting of the weeks in the individual's benefit year which begin in an extended benefit period and, if the benefit year ends within such extended benefit period, any weeks thereafter which begin in such period.

(9) [EXHAUSTEE.] "Exhaustee" means an individual who, with respect to any week of unemployment in the individual's eligibility period:

(a) Has received, prior to such week, all of the regular benefits that were available under this law or any other state law (including dependents' allowances and benefits payable to federal civilian employees and ex-servicemen under United States Code, title 5, chapter 85) in the individual's current benefit year that includes such week;

Provided, that, for the purposes of this paragraph, an individual shall be deemed to have received all of the regular benefits that were available to the individual although as a result of a pending appeal with respect to wage credits or credit weeks or weeks worked that were not considered in the original monetary determination in the individual's benefit year, the individual may subsequently be determined to be entitled to added regular benefits; or

(b) The individual's benefit year having expired prior to such week, has no, or insufficient, wages and/or employment on the basis of which the individual could establish a new benefit year that would include such week or having established a benefit year that includes such week, the individual is precluded from receiving regular compensation by reason of: (i) a state law provision which meets the requirements of section 3304 (a) (7) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, or (ii) a disqualification determination which canceled wage credits or totally reduced benefit rights, or (iii) benefits are not payable by reason of a seasonal limitation in a state unemployment insurance law; and

(c) Has no right to unemployment benefits or allowances, as the case may be, under the railroad unemployment insurance act, the trade expansion act of 1962, the automotive products act of 1965 and such other federal laws as are specified in regulations issued by the United States Secretary of Labor; and has not received and is not seeking unemployment benefits under the unemployment compensation law of Canada; but if the individual is seeking such benefits and the appropriate agency finally determines that the individual is not entitled to benefits under such law the individual is considered an exhaustee.

(10) [STATE LAW.] "State law" means the unemployment insurance law of any state, approved by the United States secretary of labor under section 3304 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954.

Sec. 17. [268.073] [ADDITIONAL UNEMPLOYMENT COMPENSATION BENEFITS.]

Subdivision 1. Additional unemployment compensation benefits are authorized under this section only if the commissioner determines that:

(1) an employer has reduced operations at an establishment resulting in the reduction of at least 50 percent of the employer's work force and the lay-off of at least 50 employees at that establishment;

(2) the employer does not intend to resume operations which would lead to the reemployment of those employees at any time in the future; and

(3) the unemployment rate for the county in which the establishment is located was ten percent during the month of the reduction or any of the three months preceding or succeeding the reduction.

Subd. 2. [PAYMENT OF BENEFITS.] All benefits payable under this section are payable from the fund.

Subd. 3. [ELIGIBILITY CONDITIONS.] An individual is eligible to receive additional benefits under this section for any week during the individual's benefit year if the commissioner finds that:

(1) the individual's unemployment is the result of a reduction in operations as provided under subdivision 1;

(2) the individual is unemployed and meets the eligibility requirements for the receipt of unemployment benefits under section 268.08;

(3) the individual is not subject to a disqualification for benefits under section 268.09; for the purpose of this subdivision, the disqualifying conditions set forth in section 268.09, and the requalifying requirements thereunder, apply to the receipt of additional benefits under this section;

(4) the individual has exhausted all rights to regular benefits payable under section 268.07, is not entitled to receive extended benefits under section 268.071, and is not entitled to receive unemployment compensation benefits under any other state or federal law for the week in which the individual is claiming additional benefits;

(5) the individual has made a claim for additional benefits with respect to any week the individual is claiming benefits in accordance with the regulations as the commissioner may prescribe with respect to claims for regular benefits; and

(6) the individual has worked at least 26 weeks during the individual's base period in employment with an employer for whom the commissioner has determined there was a reduction in operations under subdivision 1.

Subd. 4. [WEEKLY BENEFIT AMOUNT.] A claimant's weekly benefit amount under this section shall be the same as the individual's weekly benefit amount payable during the individual's current benefit year under section 268.08.

Subd. 5. [MAXIMUM BENEFITS PAYABLE.] A claimant's maximum amount of additional benefits payable in the individual's benefit year shall be six times the individual's weekly benefit amount. Unemployment compensation benefits paid to an individual under any state or federal law other than regular benefits payable under section 268.07 shall be deducted from that individual's maximum amount of additional benefits.

Subd. 6. [ELIGIBILITY.] The additional benefits provided under this section shall be payable to any claimant who meets the eligibility conditions under subdivision 3 whose unemployment occurred on July 1, 1984, or thereafter, provided the claimant has filed a claim for additional benefits which is effective January 1, 1988, or thereafter.

Sec. 18. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 268.08, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [ELIGIBILITY CONDITIONS.] An individual shall be eligible to receive benefits with respect to any week of unemployment only if the commissioner finds that the individual:

(1) has registered for work at and thereafter has continued to report to an employment office, or agent of the office, in accordance with rules the commissioner may adopt; except that the commissioner may by rule waive or alter either or both of the requirements of this clause as to types of cases or situations with respect to which the commissioner finds that compliance with the requirements would be oppressive or would be inconsistent with the purposes of sections 268.03 to 268.24;

(2) has made a claim for benefits in accordance with rules as the commissioner may adopt;

(3) was able to work and was available for work, and was actively seeking work. The individual's weekly benefit amount shall be reduced one-fifth for each day the individual is unable to work or is unavailable for work. Benefits shall not be denied by application of this clause to an individual who is in training with the approval of the commissioner or in training approved pursuant to section 236 of the Trade Act of 1974, as amended.

An individual is deemed unavailable for work with respect to any week which occurs in a period when the individual is a full-time student in attendance at, or on vacation from an established school, college or university unless a majority of the credit weeks wage credits earned in the base period were for services performed during weeks in which the student was attending school as a full-time student.

An individual serving as a juror shall be considered as available for work and actively seeking work on each day the individual is on jury duty; and

(4) has been unemployed for a waiting period of one week during which the individual is otherwise eligible for benefits under sections 268.03 to 268.24. However, payment for the waiting week shall be made to the individual as follows: ten percent of the amount of the individual's weekly benefit amount otherwise payable shall be paid to the individual after the individual has qualified for and been paid benefits for four weeks of unemployment in a benefit year which period of unemployment is terminated because of the individual's return to employment; the remaining 90 percent of the individual's weekly benefit amount shall be paid to the individual after the last week for which the individual has qualified for and been paid benefits. No individual is required to serve a waiting period of more than one week within the one-year period subsequent to filing a valid claim and commencing with the week within which the valid claim was filed.

Sec. 19. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 268.08, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [NOT ELIGIBLE.] An individual shall not be eligible to receive benefits for any week with respect to which the individual is receiving, has received, or has filed a claim for remuneration in an amount equal to or in excess of the individual's weekly benefit amount in the form of

(1) termination, severance, or dismissal payment or wages in lieu of notice whether legally required or not; provided that if a termination, severance, or dismissal payment is made in a lump sum, the employer may allocate such lump sum payment over a period equal to the lump sum divided by the employee's regular pay while employed by such employer; provided any such payment shall be applied for a period immediately following the last day of work but not to exceed 28 calendar days; or

(2) vacation allowance paid directly by the employer for a period of requested vacation, including vacation periods assigned by the employer under the provisions of a collective bargaining agreement, or uniform vacation shutdown; or

(3) compensation for loss of wages under the workers' compensation law of this state or any other state or under a similar law of the United States, or under other insurance or fund established and paid for by the employer except that this does not apply to an individual who is receiving temporary partial compensation pursuant to section 176.101, subdivision 3k; or

(4) 50 percent of the pension payments from any fund, annuity or insurance maintained or contributed to by a base period employer including the armed forces of the United States if the employee contributed to the fund, annuity or insurance and all of the pension payments if the employee did not contribute to the fund, annuity or insurance; or

(5) 50 percent of a primary insurance benefit under title II of the Social Security Act, as amended, or similar old age benefits under any act of congress or this state or any other state.

Provided, that if such remuneration is less than the benefits which would otherwise be due under sections 268.03 to 268.24, the individual shall be entitled to receive for such week, if otherwise eligible, benefits reduced by the amount of such remuneration; provided, further, that if the appropriate agency of such other state or the federal government finally determines that the individual is not entitled to such benefits, this provision shall not apply. If the computation of reduced benefits, required by this subdivision, is not a whole dollar amount, it shall be rounded down to the next lower dollar amount.

If an individual's benefit is reduced because of the receipt of a pension from the employer that the individual left due to the reasons described in clause (b), the individual's benefit year shall be extended by the number of weeks necessary for the individual to receive the benefit which would have been paid in the benefit year except for that reduction if the following conditions are satisfied:

(a) the individual is ineligible for benefits solely due to the lapse of the benefit year;

(b) the individual is unemployed due to the closing of a place of employment or is otherwise permanently laid off and not due to a voluntary decision of the individual to retire; and

(c) the individual had not attained mandatory retirement age at the time the individual became unemployed.

Sec. 20. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 268.09, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [DISQUALIFYING CONDITIONS.] An individual separated from employment under clause (1), (2), or (3) shall be disqualified for waiting week credit and benefits. For separations under clauses (1) and (2), the disqualification shall continue until ~~four~~ eight calendar weeks have elapsed following the individual's separation and the individual has earned ~~four~~ eight times the individual's weekly benefit amount in insured work.

(1) [VOLUNTARY LEAVE.] The individual voluntarily and without good cause attributable to the employer discontinued employment with such employer. For the purpose of this clause, a separation from employment by reason of its temporary nature or for inability to pass a test or for inability to meet performance standards necessary for continuation of employment or based solely on a provision in a collective bargaining agreement by which an individual has vested discretionary authority in another to act in behalf of the individual shall not be deemed voluntary.

A separation shall be for good cause attributable to the employer if it occurs as a consequence of sexual harassment. Sexual harassment means unwelcome sexual advances, requests for sexual favors, sexually motivated physical contact or other conduct or communication of a sexual nature when: (1) the employee's submission to such conduct or communication is made a term or condition of the employment, (2) the employee's submission to or rejection of such conduct or communication is the basis for decisions affecting employment, or (3) such conduct or communication has the purpose or effect of substantially interfering with an individual's work performance or creating an intimidating, hostile, or offensive working environment and the employer knows or should know of the existence of the harassment and fails to take timely and appropriate action.

(2) [DISCHARGE FOR MISCONDUCT.] The individual was discharged for misconduct, not amounting to gross misconduct connected with work or for misconduct which interferes with and adversely affects employment.

An individual shall not be disqualified under clauses (1) and (2) of this subdivision under any of the following conditions:

(a) The individual voluntarily discontinued employment to accept work offering substantially better conditions of work or substantially higher wages or both;

(b) The individual is separated from employment due to personal, serious illness provided that such individual has made reasonable efforts to retain employment;

An individual who is separated from employment due to the individual's illness of chemical dependency which has been professionally diagnosed or for which the individual has voluntarily submitted to treatment and who fails to make consistent efforts to maintain the treatment the individual knows or has been professionally advised is necessary to control that illness has not made reasonable efforts to retain employment.

(c) The individual accepts work from a base period employer which involves a change in location of work so that said work would not have been deemed to be suitable work under the provisions of subdivision 2 and within a period of 13 weeks from the commencement of said work voluntarily discontinues employment due to reasons which would have caused the work to be unsuitable under the provision of said subdivision 2;

(d) The individual left employment because of reaching mandatory retirement age and was 65 years of age or older;

(e) The individual is terminated by the employer because the individual gave notice of intention to terminate employment within 30 days. This exception shall be effective only through the calendar week which includes the date of intended termination, provided that this exception shall not result in the payment of benefits for any week for which the individual receives the individual's normal wage or salary which is equal to or greater than the weekly benefit amount;

(f) The individual is separated from employment due to the completion of an apprenticeship program, or segment thereof, approved pursuant to chapter 178;

(g) The individual voluntarily leaves part-time employment with a base period employer while continuing full-time employment if the individual attempted to return to part-time employment after being separated from the full-time employment, and if substantially the same part-time employment with the base period employer was not available for the individual.

(3) [DISCHARGE FOR GROSS MISCONDUCT.] The individual was discharged for gross misconduct connected with work or gross misconduct which interferes with and adversely affects the individual's employment. For a separation under this clause, the commissioner shall impose a total disqualification for the benefit year and cancel all of the wage credits from the last employer from whom the individual was discharged for gross misconduct connected with work.

For the purpose of this clause "gross misconduct" is defined as misconduct involving assault and battery or the malicious destruction of property or arson or sabotage or embezzlement or any other act, including theft, the commission of which amounts to a felony or gross misdemeanor. For an employee of a health care facility, gross misconduct also includes misconduct involving an act of patient or resident abuse as defined in section 626.557, subdivision 2, clause (d).

If an individual is convicted of a felony or gross misdemeanor for the same act or acts of misconduct for which the individual was discharged, the misconduct is conclusively presumed to be gross misconduct if it was connected with the individual's work.

(4) [LIMITED OR NO CHARGE OF BENEFITS.] Benefits paid subsequent to an individual's separation under any of the foregoing clauses, excepting clauses (2)(c) and (2)(e), shall not be used as a factor in determining the future contribution rate of the employer from whose employment such individual separated.

Benefits paid subsequent to an individual's failure, without good cause, to accept an offer of suitable re-employment shall not be used as a factor in determining the future contribution rate of the employer whose offer of re-employment was not accepted or whose offer of re-employment was refused solely due to the distance of the available work from the individual's residence, the individual's own serious illness or the individual's other employment at the time of the offer.

(5) An individual who was employed by an employer shall not be disqualified for benefits under this subdivision for any acts or omissions occurring after separation from employment with the employer.

(6) [DISCIPLINARY SUSPENSIONS.] An individual shall be disqualified for waiting week credit and benefits for the duration of any disciplinary suspension of 30 days or less resulting from the individual's own misconduct. Disciplinary suspensions of more than 30 days shall constitute a discharge from employment.

Sec. 21. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 268.09, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [FAILURE TO APPLY FOR OR ACCEPT SUITABLE WORK OR RE-EMPLOYMENT.] An individual shall be disqualified for waiting week credit and benefits during the week of occurrence and until ~~four~~ eight calendar weeks have elapsed following the refusal or failure and the individual has earned ~~four~~ eight times the individual's weekly benefit amount in insured work if the commissioner finds that the individual has failed, without good cause, either to apply for available, suitable work of which advised by the employment office, or the commissioner or to accept suitable work when offered, or to return to customary self-employment (if any) when so directed by the commissioner, or to accept a base period employer's offer of re-employment offering substantially the same or better hourly wages and conditions of work as were previously provided by that employer in the base period.

(a) In determining whether or not any work is suitable for an individual, the commissioner shall consider the degree of risk involved to health, safety, and morals, physical fitness and prior training, experience, length of unemployment and prospects of securing local work in the individual's customary occupation, and the distance of the available work from the individual's residence.

(b) Notwithstanding any other provisions of sections 268.03 to 268.24, no work shall be deemed suitable, and benefits shall not be denied thereunder to any otherwise eligible individual for refusing to accept new work under any of the following conditions:

(1) if the position offered is vacant due directly to a strike, lockout, or other labor dispute;

(2) if the wages, hours, or other conditions of the work offered are substantially less favorable to the individual than those prevailing for similar work in the locality;

(3) if as a condition of being employed the individual would be required to join a union or to resign from or refrain from joining any bona fide labor organization;

(4) if the individual is in training with the approval of the commissioner.

(c) Except as otherwise provided in paragraph (b), work is suitable if it meets the requirements of paragraph (a) and pays 75 percent or more of the individual's gross weekly wages.

Sec. 22. Minnesota Statutes 1984, section 268.09, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 2a. An individual who has qualified for benefits under paragraph (b) of section 268.07, subdivision 2, and who is disqualified for benefits under subdivisions 1 or 2 of this section, other than for gross misconduct, shall be disqualified for waiting week credit and benefits. The disqualification shall continue until eight weeks have elapsed following the separation or refusal to accept suitable work or reemployment and until the individual has worked for a minimum of 20 hours in each of eight weeks in insured work.

Sec. 23. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 268.10, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [FILING.] (a) Claims for benefits shall be made in accordance with such rules as the commissioner may prescribe. Each employer shall post and maintain printed statements of such rules in places readily accessible to individuals in the employer's service and shall make available to each such individual at the time of becoming unemployed, a printed statement of such rules. Such printed statements shall be supplied by the commissioner to each employer without cost to the employer.

(1) (b) Any employer upon separation of an employee from employment for any reason which may result in disqualification for benefits under section 268.09, shall furnish to such employee a separation notice which shall provide the employer's name, address, and employer account number as registered with the department, the employee's name and social security account number, the inclusive dates of employment, and the reason for the separation. A copy of such separation notice shall be filed with the commissioner within seven days of such separation. The commissioner shall require each individual filing a claim for benefits to establish a benefit year to furnish the reason for separation from all employers in the individual's base period.

(2) Upon the filing, by an individual, of a claim for benefits, the commissioner shall give notice to all such base period employers of the filing of such claim and request each such base period employer, within seven days after the mailing of such notice, to furnish the following information:

(a) The total wage credits earned in the base period;

(b) The number of credit weeks which end within the base period;

(c) The week ending dates for each calendar week within the base period in which the individual earned less than the amount required to make a credit week and the amount of earnings in each such week;

(d) The reason for the separation or separations of such individual from the employ of the employer in the base period; and

(e) Such employer's protest, if any, relating to the ineligibility or disqualification of such individual.

(3) If any base period employer, after the notice of filing of a claim and the request for wage and separation information has been duly mailed to the employer's last known address, fails to file information as provided by items (a) through (e) of clause 2 of this subdivision within seven days, the commissioner shall:

(a) Determine the validity of an individual's claim based on the claimant's statements or any other available information. An employer shall be liable for a late filing fee of not less than $5 nor more than $25, as the commissioner may determine, to be paid to the department of jobs and training and credited to the contingent fund if the employer has failed without good cause to submit the wage and separation information as required in clause 2 of this subdivision within seven days after the request has been duly mailed to the employer's last known address.

(c) Upon establishment of a benefit year, the commissioner shall give notice to the last employer for whom the individual worked and all base period employers. The employer so notified shall have seven days after the mailing of the notice to file a protest to monetary entitlement or raise an issue of ineligibility or disqualification.

(d) If, upon review of the wage information on file with the department, it is found that an employer failed to provide wage information for the claimant, the commissioner shall accept a claimant certification as to the wages earned, based upon the claimant's records, and issue a monetary determination of validity certification. This determination may be modified based upon corrected information subsequently received from the employer or other sources. The employer who failed to report the individual's wages or filed an erroneous report may be penalized in accordance with section 268.16 or 268.18. In the absence of fraud, if a redetermina-

tion of validity of claim based on an employer's late or erroneous report subsequently cancels or reduces the amount of benefits to which a claimant was entitled under the initial determination, the claimant shall not be required to make repayment to the fund of any benefits paid prior to such redetermination; and ~~(b)~~ (e) The commissioner shall determine any issue of disqualification raised by ~~clause (1)~~ under paragraph (c) or by an employer's late report. If an employer fails to file a separation notice within the time limits prescribed in ~~clause (1)~~ paragraph (b), any relief from benefit charges provided by section 268.09, subdivision 1, clause (4), shall apply to weeks of unemployment beginning after the filing of the late report.

Sec. 24. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 268.10, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [EXAMINATION OF CLAIMS; DETERMINATION; APPEAL.] (1) An official, designated by the commissioner, shall promptly examine each claim for benefits filed to establish a benefit year pursuant to this section, and, on the basis of the facts found, shall determine whether or not such claims are valid, and if valid, the weekly benefit amount payable, the maximum benefit amount payable during the benefit year, and the date the benefit year terminates, and this determination shall be known as the determination of validity. Notice of the determination of validity or any redetermination as provided for in clause (4) shall be promptly given the claimant and all other interested parties. If within the time limits for filing a protest an employer notifies the department that an individual's weekly benefit amount as determined under section 268.07 exceeds the individual's weekly wages earned with the employer, the individual's weekly benefit amount shall be the lesser of (1) the weekly benefit amount as determined under section 268.07, or (2) the weekly benefit amount which is 50 percent of the quotient derived by dividing the total wage credits earned in the individual's base period credit weeks from all employers in insured work by the number of base period credit weeks. If within the time specified for the filing of ~~wage and separation information~~ a protest as provided in subdivision 1, ~~clause (2)~~ paragraph (c), the employer makes an allegation of disqualification or raises an issue of the chargeability to the employer's account of benefits that may be paid on such claim, if the claim is valid, the issue thereby raised shall be promptly determined by said official and a notification of the determination delivered or mailed to the claimant and the employer. If an initial determination or an appeal tribunal decision or the commissioner's decision awards benefits, the benefits shall be paid promptly regardless of the pendency of any appeal period or any appeal or other proceeding which may thereafter be taken. Except as provided in clause (6), if an appeal tribunal decision modifies or reverses an initial determination awarding benefits, or if a commissioner's decision modifies or reverses an appeal decision awarding benefits, any benefits paid under the award of such initial determination or appeal tribunal decision shall be deemed erroneous payments.

(2) At any time within 24 months from the date of the filing of a valid claim for benefits by an individual, an official of the department or any interested party or parties raises an issue of claimant's eligibility for benefits for any week or weeks in accordance with the requirements of the provisions of sections 268.03 to 268.24 or any official of the department or any interested party or parties or benefit year employer raises an issue of disqualification in accordance with the rules of the commissioner, a determination shall be made thereon and a written notice thereof shall be given to the claimant and such other interested party or parties or benefit year employer. A determination issued under this clause which denies benefits for weeks for which the claimant has previously been paid benefits is an overpayment of those benefits subject to section 268.18.

(3) A determination issued pursuant to clauses (1) and (2) shall be final unless an appeal therefrom is filed by a claimant or employer within 15 days after the mailing of the notice of the determination to the last known address or personal delivery of the notice. Every notice of determination shall contain a prominent statement indicating in clear language the method of appealing the determination, the time within which such an appeal must be made, and the consequences of not appealing the determination. A timely appeal from a determination of validity in which the issue is whether an employing unit is an employer within the meaning of this chapter or whether services performed for an employer constitute employment within the meaning of this chapter shall be subject to the provisions of section 268.12, subdivision 13.

(4) At any time within 24 months from the date of the filing of a valid claim for benefits by an individual, the commissioner on the commissioner's own motion may reconsider a determination of validity made thereon and make a redetermination thereof on finding that an error in computation or identity or the crediting of wage credits has occurred in connection therewith or if the determination was made as a result of a nondisclosure or misrepresentation of a material fact. A determination or redetermination issued under this clause which denies benefits for weeks for which the claimant has previously been paid benefits is an overpayment of those benefits subject to section 268.18.

(5) However, the commissioner may refer any disputed claims directly to a referee for hearing and determination in accordance with the procedure outlined in subdivision 3 and the effect and status of such determination in such a case shall be the same as though the matter had been determined upon an appeal to the tribunal from an initial determination.

(6) If a referee's decision affirms an initial determination awarding benefits or the commissioner affirms an appeal tribunal decision awarding benefits, the decision, if finally reversed, shall not result in a disqualification and benefits paid shall neither be deemed overpaid nor shall they be considered in determining any individual employer's future contribution rate under section 268.06.

Sec. 25. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 268.12, subdivision 8, is amended to read:

Subd. 8. [RECORDS; REPORTS.] (1) Each employing unit shall keep true and accurate work records for such periods of time and containing such information as the commissioner may prescribe. Such records shall be open to inspection, audit, and verification, and be subject to being copied by any authorized representative of the commissioner at any reasonable time and as often as may be necessary. The commissioner, appeal referee, or any other duly authorized representative of the commissioner, may require from any employing unit any sworn or unsworn reports, with respect to persons employed by it, which the commissioner, appeal referee, or any other duly authorized representative of the commissioner deems necessary for the effective administration of sections 268.03 to 268.24, provided that quarterly contribution and wage report forms shall include the employee's name, social security number, and total wages paid to the employee.

(2) The commissioner may cause to be made such summaries, compilations, photographs, duplications, or reproductions of any records, reports, or transcripts thereof as the commissioner may deem advisable for the effective and economical preservation of the information contained therein, and such summaries, compilations, photographs, duplications or reproductions, duly authenticated, shall be admissible in any proceeding under sections 268.03 to 268.24, if the original record or records would have been admissible therein. Notwithstanding any restrictions contained in section 16B.50, except restrictions as to quantity, the commissioner is hereby authorized to duplicate, on equipment furnished by the federal government or purchased with funds furnished for that purpose by the federal government, records, reports, summaries, compilations, instructions, determinations, or any other written matter pertaining to the administration of the Minnesota economic security law.

(3) Notwithstanding any inconsistent provisions elsewhere, the commissioner may provide for the destruction or disposition of any records, reports, transcripts, or reproductions thereof, or other papers in the commissioner's custody, which are more than two years old, the preservation of which is no longer necessary for the establishment of contribution liability or benefit rights or for any purpose necessary to the proper administration of sections 268.03 to 268.24, including any required audit thereof, provided, that the commissioner may provide for the destruction or disposition of any record, report, or transcript, or other paper in the commissioner's custody which has been photographed, duplicated, or reproduced in the manner provided in clause (2).

(4) Notwithstanding the provisions of the Minnesota State Archives Act the commissioner shall with the approval of the legislative auditor destroy all benefit checks and benefit check authorization cards that are more than two years old and no person shall make any demand, bring any suit or other proceeding to recover from the state of Minnesota any sum alleged to be due on any claim for benefits after the expiration of two years from the date of filing such claim.

Sec. 26. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 268.121, is amended to read:

268.121 [WAGE REPORTING.]

Beginning on April 1, 1984, each employer subject to this chapter shall provide the commissioner with a quarterly report of the wages, as defined in section 268.04, subdivision 25, paid to each employee of that employer covered by this chapter. The commissioner shall provide the legislature with recommendations for statutory changes to fully implement this section no later than January 1, 1983 report must include the employee's name, social security number, the wage the employee earned each week, and the total wages paid to the employee. The report is due and must be filed at the same time as the contribution report in accordance with rules established by the commissioner for filing of quarterly contribution reports. For the purpose of this section, "wages paid" includes wages actually or constructively paid and wages overdue and delayed beyond the usual time of payment.

Sec. 27. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 268.16, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [REPORTS; DELINQUENCIES; PENALTIES.] (4) (a) Any employer who knowingly fails to make and submit to the department of jobs and training any contribution report of wages paid by or due from the employer for insured work in the manner and at the time such the report is required by rules prescribed by the commissioner shall pay to the department of jobs and training for the contingent account a penalty in the amount of 1½ percent of contributions accrued during the period for which such the report is required, for each month from and after such the due date until such the report is properly made and submitted to the department of jobs and training. In no case shall the amount of the penalty imposed hereby be less than $5 per month. The maximum penalty imposed hereby shall be $25 or the amount determined at the rate of 1½ percent per month, whichever is greater. Any employing unit which fails to make and submit to the commissioner any report, other than one of wages paid or payable for insured work, as and when required by the rules of the commissioner, shall be subject to a penalty in the sum of $10 payable to the department of (jobs and training) for the contingent account. All such penalties shall be in addition to interest and any other penalties provided for by sections 268.03 to 268.24 and shall be collected as provided by section 268.161.

(2) (b) If any employing unit required by sections 268.03 to 268.24 to make and submit contribution reports shall fail to do so within the time prescribed by these sections or by rules under the authority thereof, or shall make, willfully or otherwise, an incorrect, false or fraudulent contribution report, it shall, on the written demand of the commissioner, make such contribution report, or corrected report, within ten days after the mailing of such written demand and at the same time pay the whole contribution, or additional contribution, due on the basis thereof. If such employer shall fail within that time to make such report, or corrected report, the commissioner shall make a report, or corrected report, from the commissioner's own knowledge and from such information as the commissioner can obtain through testimony, or otherwise, and assess a contribution on the basis thereof, which contribution, plus penalties and interest which thereafter accrued (less any payments theretofore made) shall be paid within ten days after the commissioner has mailed to such employer a written notice of the amount thereof and demand for its payment. Any such contribution report or assessment made by the commissioner on account of the failure of the employer to make a report or corrected report shall be prima facie correct and valid, and the employer shall have the burden of establishing its incorrectness or invalidity in any action or proceeding in respect thereto. Whenever such delinquent employer shall file a report or corrected report, the commissioner may, on finding it substantially correct, substitute it for the commissioner's report.

(c) Any employer who fails to file the wage detail report required by section 268.121 shall pay to the department for the contingent account a penalty of one-half of one percent of total wages paid and wages due but not paid during the period for each month the report is delinquent. The penalty shall not be assessed if the wage detail report is properly made and filed within 30 days after a demand for the report is mailed to the employer's address of record. In no case shall the amount of the penalty, if assessed, be less than $25. Penalties due under this subdivision may be waived where good cause for late filing is found by the commissioner.

(d) Any employer who files the wage detail report required by section 268.121, but knowingly fails to include any of the required information or knowingly enters erroneous information, shall be subject to a penalty of $25 for each individual for whom the information is missing or erroneous.

(e) Any employing unit which fails to make and submit to the commissioner any report, other than a contribution report or wage detail report, as and when required by rule, shall be subject to a penalty in the sum of $50 payable to the department for the contingent account.

(f) The penalties provided for in paragraphs (a), (c), (d), and (e) are in addition to interest and any other penalties imposed by sections 268.03 to 268.24 and shall be collected as provided by section 268.161.

Sec. 28. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 268.16, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 2a. [COSTS.] Any employing unit which fails to make and submit reports or pay any contributions or reimbursement when due is liable to the department any recording fees, sheriff fees, or litigation costs incurred in obtaining the reports or collecting the amounts due.

If any check or money order, in payment of any amount due under sections 268.03 to 268.24, is not honored when presented for payment, the employing unit will be assessed a fee of $20 which shall be in addition to any other fees required under sections 268.03 to 268.24. The fee shall be assessed regardless of the amount of the check or money order or the reason for nonpayment with the exception of processing errors made by a financial institution.

Costs due under this subdivision shall be paid to the department and credited to the administration fund.

Sec. 29. [REEMPLOYMENT BENEFIT STUDY.]

The commissioner of the department of jobs and training shall study the feasibility and public policy implication of providing partial weekly benefits to individuals that return to work prior to the time their benefit eligibility ceases. The commissioner shall report the results of the study along with any recommendations to each house of the legislature by January 1, 1988.

Sec. 30. [REPEALER.]

Minnesota Statutes 1986, sections 268.04, subdivisions 29 and 30; and 268.06, subdivision 24, are repealed.

Sec. 31. [EFFECTIVE DATE.]

Sections 1, 6, 7, 25, 26, 27, 28, and 29 are effective the day following final enactment. Sections 11, paragraph (d), 17, 19, 20, and 21 are effective July 1, 1987. The remaining sections are effective January 1, 1988.

ARTICLE 2

TRANSFER OF AUTHORITY TO OFFICE OF ADMINISTRATIVE HEARINGS

Section 1. [TRANSFER FROM DEPARTMENT OF JOBS AND TRAINING.]

Subdivision 1. [PURPOSE.] It is the purpose and intent of this article to transfer all unemployment compensation hearing responsibilities and related functions except for appeal hearings before the commissioner or an authorized representative from the department of jobs and training to the office of administrative hearings.

Subd. 2. [PERSONNEL; EQUIPMENT.] All unemployment insurance referees at the department of jobs and training are transferred to the office of administrative hearings pursuant to Minnesota Statutes, section 15.039, except as otherwise provided by this article. Notwithstanding any laws to the contrary, all unemployment insurance referees employed by the department of jobs and training at the time of this transfer are eligible for appointment as unemployment judges within the office of administrative hearings, and shall be appointed as such on transfer. Notwithstanding the provisions of section 15.039, or any other provision of this article, the chief administrative law judge, in consultation with the commissioner of employee relations, shall appoint supervisory unemployment insurance judges. Referees transferred pursuant to this section fulfilling supervisory functions with the department of jobs and training at the time of transfer may be considered for appointment as supervisory unemployment insurance judges. All personnel and positions at the department of jobs and training presently providing support to the hearing related functions transferred pursuant to this article, including those involved in the scheduling of hearings, processing, and mailing of hearing notices, preparation and serving of referees' decisions or correspondence, travel coordination, accounting, and answering of telephones are transferred to the office of administrative hearings pursuant to Minnesota Statutes, section 15.039.

All equipment and supplies used solely by the transferred personnel in the performance of their duties are transferred to the office of administrative hearings.

Subd. 3. [COOPERATION.] Commencing with the passage and signing of this act, the commissioner, the commissioners of administration, finance, and employee relations, and the chief administrative law judge shall cooperate in assuring a smooth transfer of the referees and related personnel and equipment in order to carry out the purposes of this article. The commissioner shall provide office space at the department of jobs and training for the chief administrative law judge to use prior to the transfer in order to complete a review of the existing hearing system and personnel prior to the effective date of the transfer. The commissioner of administration, after consultation with the commissioner of jobs and training, the commissioner of finance, and the chief administrative law judge, shall determine the appropriate location of office space for the transferred personnel. The commissioner shall continue to provide space for the conduct of hearings in the same facilities and locations which are presently utilized for that purpose.

Subd. 4. [RULES.] The chief administrative law judge may make emergency rules for the purpose of adopting procedural rules for unemployment compensation hearings. The rules shall not conflict with any provisions of Minnesota Statutes, chapter 268, and shall comply with any applicable federal laws, rules, or regulations.

Subd. 5. [TIMELINESS.] To satisfy United States Department of Labor funding requirements the office of administrative hearings shall meet or exceed timeliness standards under federal regulation in the conduct of unemployment compensation hearings.

Sec. 2. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 14.03, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [CONTESTED CASE PROCEDURE.] The contested case procedures of the administrative procedure act provided in sections 14.57 to 14.70 do not apply to (a) the Minnesota municipal board, (b) the commissioner of corrections, (c) the unemployment insurance program and, except for those hearings held by an unemployment insurance judge of the office of administrative hearings, (d) the social security disability determination program in the department of jobs and training, (e) the director of mediation services, (f) the workers' compensation division in the department of labor and industry, (g) the workers' compensation court of appeals, (h) the board of pardons, or (i) the public employment relations board.

Sec. 3. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 14.48, is amended to read:

14.48 [CREATION OF OFFICE OF ADMINISTRATIVE HEARINGS; CHIEF ADMINISTRATIVE LAW JUDGE APPOINTED; OTHER ADMINISTRATIVE LAW JUDGES APPOINTED.]

A state office of administrative hearings is created. The office shall be under the direction of a chief administrative law judge who shall be learned in the law and appointed by the governor, with the advice and consent of the senate, for a term ending on June 30 of the sixth calendar year after appointment. Senate confirmation of the chief administrative law judge shall be as provided by section 15.066. The chief administrative law judge shall appoint additional administrative law judges and compensation judges to serve in the office as necessary to fulfill the duties prescribed in sections 14.48 to 14.56. The chief administrative law judge may delegate to a subordinate employee the exercise of a specified statutory power or duty as deemed advisable, subject to the control of the chief administrative law judge. Every delegation must be by written order filed with the secretary of state. All administrative law judges, unemployment insurance judges, and compensation judges shall be in the classified service except that the chief administrative law judge shall be in the unclassified service, but may be removed only for cause. All administrative law judges shall have demonstrated knowledge of administrative procedures and shall be free of any political or economic association that would impair their ability to function officially in a fair and objective manner. All workers' compensation judges shall be learned in the law, shall have demonstrated knowledge of workers' compensation laws and shall be free of any political or economic association that would impair their ability to function officially in a fair and objective manner.

Sec. 4. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 14.51, is amended to read:

14.51 [PROCEDURAL RULES FOR HEARINGS.]

The chief administrative law judge shall adopt rules to govern the procedural conduct of all hearings, relating to both rule adoption, amendment, suspension or repeal hearings, contested case hearings, and workers' compensation hearings and unemployment compensation hearings, and to govern the conduct of voluntary mediation sessions for rulemaking and contested cases other than those within the jurisdiction of the bureau of mediation services. Temporary Emergency rulemaking authority is granted to the chief administrative law judge for the purpose of implementing Laws 1981, chapter 346, sections 2 to 6, 103 to 122, 127 to 135, and 141 the adoption of procedural rules for unemployment compensation hearings. The procedural rules for hearings shall be binding upon all agencies and shall supersede any other agency procedural rules with which they may be in conflict. The procedural rules for hearings shall include in addition to normal procedural matters provisions relating to recessing and reconvening new hearings when the proposed final rule of an agency is substantially different from that which was proposed at the public hearing. The procedural rules shall establish a procedure whereby the proposed final rule of an agency shall be reviewed by the chief administrative law judge to determine whether or not a new hearing is required because of substantial changes or failure of the agency to meet the requirements of sections 14.13 to 14.18. Upon the chief administrative law judge's own initiative or upon written request of an interested party, the chief administrative law judge may issue a subpoena for the attendance of a witness or the production of books, papers, records or other documents as are material to the matter being heard. The subpoenas shall be enforceable through the district court in the district in which the subpoena is issued.

Sec. 5. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 14.53, is amended to read:

14.53 [COSTS ASSESSED.]

In consultation with the commissioner of ~~administration~~ finance the chief administrative law judge shall assess agencies the cost of services rendered to them in the conduct of hearings. All agencies shall include in their budgets provisions for such assessments.

Sec. 6. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 43A.18, subdivision 4, is amended to read:

Subd. 4. [PLANS NOT ESTABLISHED BUT APPROVED BY COMMISSIONER.] Notwithstanding any other law to the contrary, total compensation for employees listed in this subdivision shall be set by appointing authorities within the limits of compensation plans that have been approved by the commissioner before becoming effective.

(a) Total compensation for employees who are not covered by a collective bargaining agreement in the offices of the governor, attorney general, secretary of state, state auditor and state treasurer shall be determined by the governor, attorney general, secretary of state, state auditor and state treasurer, respectively.

(b) Total compensation for unclassified positions pursuant to section 43A.08, subdivision 1, clause (h), in the higher education coordinating board, and in the state board of vocational technical education shall be determined by the state university board and the state board for community colleges, the higher education coordinating board, and the state board of vocational technical education, respectively.

(c) Total compensation for classified administrative law judges and unemployment insurance judges in the office of administrative hearings shall be determined by the chief administrative law judge.

Sec. 7. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 179A.10, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [EXCLUSIONS.] The commissioner of employee relations shall meet and negotiate with the exclusive representative of each of the units specified in this section. The units provided in this section are the only appropriate units for executive branch state employees. The following employees shall be excluded from any appropriate unit:

(1) the positions and classes of positions in the classified and unclassified services defined as managerial by the commissioner of employee relations in accordance with section 43A.18, subdivision 3, and so designated in the official state compensation schedules;

(2) unclassified positions in the state university system and the community college system defined as managerial by their respective boards;

(3) positions of physician employees compensated under section 43A.17, subdivision 4;

(4) positions of all unclassified employees appointed by a constitutional officer;

(5) positions in the bureau of mediation services and the public employment relations board;

(6) positions of employees whose classification is pilot or chief pilot;

(7) administrative law judge, unemployment insurance judge, and compensation judge positions in the office of administrative hearings; and

(8) positions of all confidential employees.

The governor may upon the unanimous written request of exclusive representatives of units and the commissioner direct that negotiations be conducted for one or more units in a common proceeding or that supplemental negotiations be conducted for portions of a unit or units defined on the basis of appointing authority or geography.

Sec. 8. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 268.06, subdivision 18, is amended to read:

Subd. 18. [NOTICE TO EMPLOYER.] The commissioner shall at least twice each year notify each employer of the benefits as determined by the department which have been charged to the employer's account subsequent to the last notice. Unless reviewed in the manner hereinafter provided, charges set forth in such notice, or as modified by a redetermination, a decision of a ~~referee~~ an unemployment insurance judge, or the commissioner, shall be final and shall be used in determining the contribution rates for all years in which the charges occur within the employer's experience period and shall not be subject to collateral attack by way of review of a rate determination, application for adjustment or refund, or otherwise.

Sec. 9. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 268.06, subdivision 19, is amended to read:

Subd. 19. [NOTICE OF RATE.] The commissioner shall mail to each employer notice of the employer's rate of contributions as determined for any calendar year pursuant to this section. Such notice shall contain the contribution rate, factors used in determining the individual employer's experience rating, and such other information as the commissioner may prescribe. Unless reviewed in the manner hereinafter provided, the rate as determined or as modified by a redetermination, a decision of a referee an unemployment insurance judge, or the commissioner shall be final except for fraud and shall be the rate upon which contributions shall be computed for the calendar year for which such rate was determined, and shall not be subject to collateral attack for any errors, clerical or otherwise, whether by way of claim for adjustment or refund, or otherwise. If the legislature changes any of the factors used to determine the contribution rate of any employer for any year subsequent to the original mailing of such notice for the year, the earlier notice shall be void. The notice based on the new factors shall be deemed to be the only notice of rate of contributions for that year and shall be subject to the same finality, redetermination and review procedures as provided above.

Sec. 10. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 268.06, subdivision 20, is amended to read:

Subd. 20. [PROTEST, REVIEW, REDETERMINATION, APPEAL.] A review of the charges made to an employer's account as set forth in the notice of charges referred to in subdivision 18 and a review of an employer's contribution rate as set forth in the notice of the employer's rate for any calendar year as provided in subdivision 19, may be had by the employer by filing with the commissioner a written protest setting forth reasons therefor within 30 days from the date of the mailing of the notice of charges or contribution rate to the employer. The date shall appear on the notice. Upon receipt of the protest, the commissioner shall refer the matter to an official designated by the commissioner to review the charges appearing on the notice appealed from or the computations of the protesting employer's rate, as the case may be, to determine whether or not there has been any clerical error or error in computation in either case. The official shall either affirm or make a redetermination rectifying the charges or rate as the case may be, and a notice of the affirmation or redetermination shall immediately be mailed to the employer. If the employer is not satisfied with the affirmation or redetermination, the employer may appeal by filing a notice with the department within ten days after the date of mailing appearing upon the redetermination. Upon the receipt of the appeal, the commissioner shall refer the matter to a ~~referee~~ the office of administrative hearings for a hearing and after opportunity for a fair hearing, ~~the referee~~ unemployment insurance judge shall affirm, modify or set aside the original determination with its affirmation or the redetermination, as appears just and proper. The commissioner may at any time upon the commissioner's own motion correct any clerical error of the department resulting in charges against an employer's account or any error in the computation of an employer's contribution rate. The ~~referee~~ unemployment insurance judge may order the consolidation of two or more appeals whenever, in the ~~referee's~~ judge's judgment, consolidation will not be prejudicial to any interested party. At any hearing a written report of any employee of the department which has been authenticated shall be admissible in evidence. Appeals from the decision of the ~~referee~~ unemployment insurance judge shall be provided by section 268.10, subdivision 5.

Sec. 11. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 268.10, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [EXAMINATION OF CLAIMS; DETERMINATION; APPEAL.] (1) An official, designated by the commissioner, shall promptly examine each claim for benefits filed to establish a benefit year pursuant to this section, and, on the basis of the facts found, shall determine whether or not such claims are valid, and if valid, the weekly benefit amount payable, the maximum benefit amount payable during the benefit year, and the date the benefit year terminates, and this determination shall be known as the determination of validity. Notice of the determination of validity or any redetermination as provided for in clause (4) shall be promptly given the claimant and all other interested parties. If within the time limits for filing a protest an employer notifies the department that an individual's weekly benefit amount as determined under section 268.07 exceeds the individual's weekly wages earned with the employer, the individual's weekly benefit amount shall be the lesser of (1) the weekly benefit amount as determined under section 268.07, or (2) the weekly benefit amount which is 50 percent of the quotient derived by dividing the total wage credits earned in the individual's base period credit weeks from all employers in insured work by the number of base period credit weeks. If within the time specified for the filing of wage and separation information as provided in subdivision 1, clause (2), the employer makes an allegation of disqualification or raises an issue of the chargeability to the employer's account of benefits that may be paid on such claim, if the claim is valid, the issue thereby raised shall be promptly determined by said official and a notification of the determination delivered or mailed to the claimant and the employer. If an initial determination or an ~~appeal tribunal~~ unemployment insurance judge decision or the commissioner's decision awards benefits, the benefits shall be paid promptly regardless of the pendency of any appeal period or any appeal or other proceeding which may thereafter be taken. Except as provided in clause (6), if an appeal tribunal unemployment insurance judge decision modifies or reverses an initial determination awarding benefits, or if a commissioner's decision modifies or reverses an appeal unemployment insurance judge decision awarding benefits, any benefits paid under the award of such initial determination or appeal tribunal unemployment insurance judge decision shall be deemed erroneous payments.

(2) At any time within 24 months from the date of the filing of a valid claim for benefits by an individual, an official of the department or any interested party or parties raises an issue of claimant's eligibility for benefits for any week or weeks in accordance with the requirements of the provisions of sections 268.03 to 268.24 or any official of the department or any interested party or parties or benefit year employer raises an issue of disqualification in accordance with the rules of the commissioner, a determination shall be made thereon and a written notice thereof shall be given to the claimant and such other interested party or parties or benefit year employer. A determination issued under this clause which denies benefits for weeks for which the claimant has previously been paid benefits is an overpayment of those benefits subject to section 268.18.

(3) A determination issued pursuant to clauses (1) and (2) shall be final unless an appeal therefrom is filed by a claimant or employer within 15 days after the mailing of the notice of the determination to the last known address or personal delivery of the notice. Every notice of determination shall contain a prominent statement indicating in clear language the method of appealing the determination, the time within which such an appeal must be made, and the consequences of not appealing the determination. A timely appeal from a determination of validity in which the issue is whether an employing unit is an employer within the meaning of this chapter or whether services performed for an employer constitute employment within the meaning of this chapter shall be subject to the provisions of section 268.12, subdivision 13.

(4) At any time within 24 months from the date of the filing of a valid claim for benefits by an individual, the commissioner on the commissioner's own motion may reconsider a determination of validity made thereon and make a redetermination thereof on finding that an error in computation or identity or the crediting of wage credits has occurred in connection therewith or if the determination was made as a result of a nondisclosure or misrepresentation of a material fact. A determination or redetermination issued under this clause which denies benefits for weeks for which the claimant has previously been paid benefits is an overpayment of those benefits subject to section 268.18.

(5) However, the commissioner may refer any disputed claims directly to a referee the office of administrative hearings for hearing and determination in accordance with the procedure outlined in subdivision 3 and the effect and status of such determination in such a case shall be the same as though the matter had been determined upon an appeal to the ~~tribunal~~ unemployment insurance judge from an initial determination.

(6) If a referee's an unemployment insurance judge's decision affirms an initial determination awarding benefits or the commissioner affirms an ~~appeal tribunal~~ unemployment insurance judge decision awarding benefits, the decision, if finally reversed, shall not result in a disqualification and benefits paid shall neither be deemed overpaid nor shall they be considered in determining any individual employer's future contribution rate under section 268.06.

Sec. 12. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 268.10, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [APPEAL; HEARING.] Upon receipt of an appeal from an initial determination made under subdivision 2, the commissioner shall immediately forward the appeal and all necessary documents to the chief administrative law judge for assignment of an unemployment insurance judge to hear the case and the scheduling of a date, time, and place for the hearing. Unless an appeal is withdrawn, the date for hearing before a referee an unemployment insurance judge shall be set and notice of the hearing shall be mailed to the last known address of all interested parties at least ten days prior to the date set for the hearing. The notice shall be mailed by the office of administrative hearings. The hearing may be conducted by means of a conference telephone call except that the appellant may request that the hearing be conducted in person. The hearing shall be a trial de novo, and, upon the evidence presented, the ~~referee~~ unemployment insurance judge shall affirm, modify, or set aside the initial determination. Where the same or substantially similar evidence is relevant and material to the issues in appeals by more than one individual or in appeals by one individual with respect to two or more weeks of unemployment, the appeals may be consolidated into one hearing pursuant to the procedural rules adopted by the chief administrative law judge. The ~~referee~~ unemployment insurance judge shall exclude from any consolidated hearing the appeal of an individual who may be prejudiced because of the consolidation. A referee An unemployment insurance judge shall not hear any appeal in which the ~~referee~~ unemployment insurance judge has a direct interest. The parties and the commissioner shall be notified of the ~~referee's~~ unemployment insurance judge's decision and the reason for it. The ~~referee's~~ unemployment insurance judge's decision is deemed to be the final decision unless a further appeal is initiated pursuant to subdivision 5.

Sec. 13. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 268.10, subdivision 4, is amended to read:

Subd. 4. [REFEREES' TRANSCRIPTS; REVIEW OF DECISIONS.] In order to assure the prompt disposition of all claims for benefits, the commissioner shall appoint one or more impartial referees. The commissioner shall by rule adopt a procedure by which referees hear and decide disputed claims, subject to appeal to the commissioner. No person shall participate on behalf of the commissioner in any case in which that person is an interested party. The commissioner may designate alternates to serve in the absence or disqualification of a referee. The department shall cause a transcript to be prepared of all cases heard by an unemployment insurance judge from which an appeal is made to the commissioner. There shall be no charges, fees, transcript costs, or other cost imposed upon the employee in prosecuting an appeal. All decisions of referees unemployment insurance judges shall be made available to the public in accordance with rules the commissioner may prescribe, except that names of interested parties may be deleted.

Sec. 14. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 268.10, subdivision 5, is amended to read:

Subd. 5. [REVIEW BY COMMISSIONER.] Within 30 days after mailing or personal delivery of the notice of a referee's unemployment insurance judge's decision to the claimant or employer at the last known address, a party may file, with the commissioner, a notice of appeal from the decision and obtain a review of it by the commissioner or an authorized representative. The commissioner within the same period of time may on the commissioner's own motion order a review of a decision. Upon review, the commissioner or authorized representative may affirm, modify, or set aside any finding of fact or decision, or both, of the referee on the basis of the evidence previously submitted in the case, or remand the matter back to the referee for the taking of additional evidence and new findings and decision based on all of the evidence before the referee. The notice of appeal must set forth the issues raised on appeal. The notice of the decision of the unemployment compensation judge must explain how an appeal may be filed. On an appeal taken under this subdivision, the commissioner or authorized representative is limited to the issues raised by the parties in the notice of the appeal from the unemployment insurance judge's decision. The commissioner or authorized representative, on the basis of evidence previously submitted, may affirm the decision of the unemployment insurance judge, may remand the case for further proceedings, or may modify or reverse the decision if the unemployment insurance judge's decision is in error of law, violates the procedures of chapter 268, is unsupported by substantial evidence in view of the record as a whole when the issue in dispute involves a question of fact, or is arbitrary or capricious. Notice of all hearings on review shall be given to all interested parties in the same manner as provided for by subdivision 3. Upon the motion of a party, the commissioner or authorized representative may personally hear or transfer to another referee unemployment insurance judge the proceedings on any claim pending before a referee an unemployment insurance judge. Any proceedings removed to the commissioner or authorized representative shall be heard upon notice in accordance with the requirements of subdivision 3. The department of jobs and training shall mail to all interested parties and the chief administrative law judge a notice of the filing of and a copy of the findings and decision of the commissioner or representative.

Sec. 15. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 268.10, subdivision 6, is amended to read:

Subd. 6. [COMMISSIONER.] The manner in which disputed claims are presented, the reports required from the claimant and from employers, and the conduct of ~~hearings and~~ appeals shall be in accordance with the rules adopted by the commissioner ~~for determining the rights of the parties, whether or not the~~. Rules relating to the conduct of hearings before unemployment insurance judges shall be adopted by the chief administrative law judge. The rules of the commissioner and the chief administrative law judge need not conform to common law or statutory rules of evidence and other technical rules of procedure. A full and complete record shall be kept of all proceedings in connection with a disputed claim. All testimony at any hearing shall be recorded, but need not be transcribed unless the disputed claim is further appealed.

Sec. 16. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 268.10, subdivision 9, is amended to read:

Subd. 9. [REPRESENTATION BY ATTORNEY.] In any proceeding under these sections before a referee an unemployment insurance judge or the commissioner, a party may be represented by an agent or attorney, but no individual claiming benefits shall be charged fees of any kind in a proceeding before a referee an unemployment insurance judge, the commissioner, commissioner's representatives, or by any court or any officers thereof. Any individual claiming benefits in any proceedings before the commissioner or representatives or a court may be represented by counsel or other duly authorized agent, except that said agent in any court proceedings under these sections, must be an attorney at law; but no counsel shall either charge or receive for the services more than an amount approved by the commissioner and no fees shall be collected from an individual claiming benefits by any agent unless the agent is an attorney at law.

Sec. 17. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 268.12, subdivision 8, is amended to read:

Subd. 8. [RECORDS; REPORTS.] (1) Each employing unit shall keep true and accurate work records for such periods of time and containing such information as the commissioner may prescribe. Such records shall be open to inspection, audit, and verification, and be subject to being copied by any authorized representative of the commissioner at any reasonable time and as often as may be necessary. The commissioner, ~~appeal referee~~ unemployment insurance judge, or any other duly authorized representative of the commissioner, may require from any employing unit any sworn or unsworn reports, with respect to persons employed by it, which the commissioner, ~~appeal referee~~ unemployment insurance judge, or any other duly authorized representative of the commissioner deems necessary for the effective administration of sections 268.03 to 268.24, provided that quarterly contribution and wage report forms shall include the employee's name, social security number, and total wages paid to the employee.

(2) The commissioner may cause to be made such summaries, compilations, photographs, duplications, or reproductions of any records, reports, or transcripts thereof as the commissioner may deem advisable for the effective and economical preservation of the information contained therein, and such summaries, compilations, photographs, duplications or reproductions, duly authenticated, shall be admissible in any proceeding under sections 268.03 to 268.24, if the original record or records would have been admissible therein. Notwithstanding any restrictions contained in section 16B.50, except restrictions as to quantity, the commissioner is hereby authorized to duplicate, on equipment furnished by the federal government or purchased with funds furnished for that purpose by the federal government, records, reports, summaries, compilations, instructions, determinations, or any other written matter pertaining to the administration of the Minnesota economic security law.

(3) Notwithstanding any inconsistent provisions elsewhere, the commissioner may provide for the destruction or disposition of any records, reports, transcripts, or reproductions thereof, or other papers in the commissioner's custody, which are more than two years old, the preservation of which is no longer necessary for the establishment of contribution liability or benefit rights or for any purpose necessary to the proper administration of sections 268.03 to 268.24, including any required audit thereof, provided, that the commissioner may provide for the destruction or disposition of any record, report, or transcript, or other paper in the commissioner's custody which has been photographed, duplicated, or reproduced in the manner provided in clause (2).

(4) Notwithstanding the provisions of the Minnesota State Archives Act the commissioner shall with the approval of the legislative auditor destroy all benefit checks and benefit check authorization cards that are more than two years old and no person shall make any demand, bring any suit or other proceeding to recover from the state of Minnesota any sum alleged to be due on any claim for benefits after the expiration of two years from the date of filing such claim.

Sec. 18. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 268.12, subdivision 9, is amended to read:

Subd. 9. [TESTIMONIAL POWERS.] (1) In the discharge of the duties imposed by sections 268.03 to 268.24, the commissioner, ~~appeal referee unemployment insurance judge~~, or any duly authorized representative of the commissioner, shall have power to administer oaths and affirmations, take depositions, certify to official acts, and issue subpoenas to compel the attendance of witnesses and the production of books, papers, correspondence, memoranda, and other records deemed necessary as evidence in connection with a disputed claim or the administration of these sections;

(2) Witnesses, other than interested parties or officers and employees of an employing unit which is an interested party, subpoenaed pursuant to this subdivision or sections 268.03 to 268.24, shall be allowed fees the same as witness fees in civil actions in district court, which fees need not be paid in advance of the time of giving of testimony, and such fees of witnesses so subpoenaed shall be deemed part of the expense of administering these sections;

(3) In case of contumacy by, or refusal to obey, a subpoena issued to any person, any court of this state within the jurisdiction of which the inquiry is carried on or within the jurisdiction of which such person guilty of contumacy or refusal to obey is found or resides or transacts business, upon application by the commissioner, or ~~referee unemployment insurance judge~~, or any duly authorized representative of the commissioner, shall have jurisdiction to issue to such person an order requiring such person to appear before the commissioner, ~~the chair of an appeal tribunal, referee unemployment insurance judge~~, or any duly authorized representative of the commissioner, there to produce evidence if so ordered or there to give testimony relative to the matter under investigation or in question; and any failure to obey such order of the court may be punished by the court as a contempt thereof.

Sec. 19. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 268.12, subdivision 10, is amended to read:

Subd. 10. [SELF-INCRIMINATION.] No person shall be excused from attending and testifying or from producing books, papers, correspondence, memoranda, and other records before the commissioner, ~~the chair of an appeal tribunal, referee unemployment insurance judge~~, or any duly authorized representative of the commissioner, or in obedience to the subpoena of any of them in any cause or proceeding before the commissioner, ~~an appeal tribunal, referee unemployment insurance judge~~, or any duly authorized representative of the commissioner on the grounds that the testimony or evidence, documentary or otherwise, required may tend to be incriminating or subject the person to a penalty or forfeiture; but no individual shall be prosecuted or subjected to any penalty or forfeiture for or on account of any transaction, matter, or thing concerning which the person is compelled, after having claimed a privilege against self-incrimination, to testify or produce evidence, documentary or otherwise, except that such individual so testifying shall not be exempt from prosecution and punishment for perjury committed in so testifying.

Sec. 20. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 268.12, subdivision 13, is amended to read:

Subd. 13. [DETERMINATIONS.] (1) An official, designated by the commissioner, upon the commissioner's own motion or upon application of an employing unit, shall determine if an employing unit is an employer within the meaning of this chapter or as to whether services performed for it constitute employment within the meaning of this chapter, and shall notify the employing unit of the determination. The determination shall be final unless the employing unit, within 30 days after the mailing of notice of the determination to the employing unit's last known address, files a written appeal from it.

(2) ~~The commissioner shall designate one or more referees to conduct hearings on appeals. Upon receipt of an appeal under clause (1), the commissioner shall refer the matter to the office of administrative hearings for a hearing.~~ The employing unit and any claimant whose filed claim for benefits may be affected by a determination issued under clause (1) shall be interested parties to an appeal. ~~The referee unemployment insurance judge shall fix a time and place within this state for the hearing and give interested parties written notice of it, by mail, not less than ten days prior to the time of the hearing. In the discharge of the duties imposed by this subdivision, the referee unemployment insurance judge may administer oaths and affirmations, take depositions, certify to official acts, and issue subpoenas to compel the attendance of witnesses and the production of books, papers, correspondence, memoranda, and other records deemed necessary as evidence in connection with the subject matter of the hearing. The written report of any employee of the department of jobs and training, made in the regular course of the performance of the employee's duties, shall be competent evidence of the facts contained in it and shall be prima facie correct, unless refuted by other credible evidence.~~

(3) Upon the conclusion of the hearing, ~~the referee unemployment insurance judge shall serve upon the interested parties by mail findings of fact and decision. The decision of the referee unemployment insurance judge, together with the findings of fact and reasons in support of them, is final unless an interested party, within 30 days after the mailing of a copy of it to the interested parties' last known addresses, files an appeal with the commissioner, and serves a copy of the appeal on the chief administrative law judge, or unless the commissioner, within 30 days after mailing of the decision, on the commissioner's own motion orders the matter certified to the com-~~ missioner for review. Appeal from and review by the commissioner of the decision of the referee unemployment insurance judge shall be in the manner provided by rule. The commissioner may without further hearing affirm, modify, or set aside the findings of fact or decision, or both, of the referee unemployment insurance judge on the basis of the evidence previously submitted in the case, or direct the taking of additional evidence. The commissioner may disregard the findings of fact of the referee unemployment insurance judge and examine the testimony taken and make any findings of fact as the evidence taken before the referee unemployment insurance judge may, in the judgment of the commissioner, require, and make any decision as the facts found by the commissioner require. The commissioner shall notify the employing unit and the chief administrative law judge of the commissioner's findings and decision by mail, mailed to the interested parties' last known addresses. The decision of the commissioner is final unless judicial review of it is sought as provided by this subdivision. Any interested party to a proceeding before the commissioner may obtain a transcript of the testimony taken before the referee unemployment insurance judge upon payment to the commissioner of the cost of the transcript at the rate of ten cents per 100 words.

(4) The court of appeals may, by writ of certiorari to the commissioner, review all questions of law and fact presented by the record in accordance with chapter 14. The commissioner shall not be required to certify the record to the court unless the party commencing the proceedings for review pays to the commissioner the cost of certification of the record at the rate of ten cents per 100 words less any amount previously paid by the party for a transcript. The commissioner shall, upon receipt of the payment, prepare and certify to the court a true and correct typewritten copy of all matters contained in the record. The costs collected by the commissioner shall be deposited in the economic security administration fund provided for in section 268.15.

(5) A final decision of the commissioner or referee unemployment insurance judge, in the absence of appeal, is conclusive for all the purposes of sections 268.03 to 268.24 except as otherwise provided, and, together with the records therein made, shall be admissible in any subsequent judicial proceeding involving liability for contributions. A final decision of the commissioner or referee unemployment insurance judge may be introduced in any proceeding involving a claim for benefits.

(6) In the event a final decision of the commissioner or referee unemployment insurance judge determines the amount of contributions due under sections 268.03 to 268.24, then, if the amount, together with interest and penalties, is not paid within 30 days after the decision, the provisions of section 268.161 shall apply. The commissioner shall proceed thereunder, substituting a certified copy of the final decision in place of the contribution report.

Sec. 21. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 268.18, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [ERRONEOUS PAYMENTS.] Any claimant for benefits who, by reason of the claimant's own mistake or through the error of any individual engaged in the administration of sections 268.03 to 268.24 or because of a determination or redetermination issued pursuant to section 268.10, subdivision 2, has received any sum as benefits to which the claimant was not entitled under these sections, shall promptly return such benefits in cash to the nearest office of the Minnesota department of jobs and training. If such claimant fails to return such benefits, the department of jobs and training shall, as soon as it discovers such erroneous payment, determine the amount thereof and notify said individual to return the same. Unless the claimant files a written appeal with the department of jobs and training within 15 days after the mailing of the notice of determination to the claimant's last known address or personal delivery of the notice, the determination shall become final. If the claimant files an appeal with the department in writing within the time aforesaid the matter shall be set for hearing before a referee of the department an unemployment insurance judge of the office of administrative hearings and heard as other benefit matters are heard in accordance with section 268.10 with the same rights of review as outlined for benefit cases in that section. The commissioner of the department of jobs and training is hereby authorized to deduct from any future benefits payable to the claimant under these sections in either the current or any subsequent benefit year an amount equivalent to the overpayment determined or the overpayment may be collected without interest by civil action in the name of the commissioner. If a claimant has been overpaid benefits under the law of another state and that state certifies to the department the facts involved and that the individual is liable under its law to repay the benefits and requests the department to recover the overpayment, the commissioner is authorized to deduct from future benefits payable to the claimant in either the current or any subsequent benefit year an amount equivalent to the amount of overpayment determined by that state. Benefits paid for weeks more than three years prior to the discovery of error are not erroneous payments.

Sec. 22. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 268.18, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [FRAUD.] Any claimant who files a claim for or receives benefits by knowingly and willfully misrepresenting or misstating any material fact or by knowingly and willfully failing to disclose any material fact which would make the claimant ineligible for benefits under sections 268.03 to 268.24 is guilty of fraud. After the discovery of facts by the commissioner indicating fraud in claiming or obtaining benefits under sections 268.03 to 268.24, the commissioner is hereby authorized to make a determination that the claimant was ineligible for each week with reference to which benefits were claimed or obtained by fraud for the amount as was in excess of what the claimant would have been entitled to had the claimant not made the fraudulent statements or failed to disclose any material facts. The commissioner also may disqualify an individual from benefits for one to 52 weeks in which the claimant is otherwise eligible for benefits following the week in which the fraud was determined. A disqualification imposed for fraud shall not be removed by subsequent insured work or the expiration of a benefit year but shall not apply to any week more than 104 weeks after the week in which the fraud was determined. The claimant shall promptly repay in cash to the department of jobs and training any benefits fraudulently obtained. Unless the claimant files a written appeal with the department of jobs and training within 15 days after the mailing of the notice of determination to the claimant's last known address or personal delivery of the notice, the determination shall become final. If the claimant appeals from the determination within the time above specified the matter shall be referred to a referee an unemployment insurance judge for a hearing as in other benefit cases and thereafter the procedure for review shall be the same as set forth in section 268.10. The commissioner is hereby authorized to deduct from future benefits payable to the claimant in either the current or any subsequent benefit year an amount equivalent to the amount of overpayment determined or the overpayment may be collected without interest by civil action in the name of the commissioner. If a claimant has been overpaid benefits under the law of another state and that state certifies to the department the facts involved and that the individual is liable to repay the benefits and requests the department to recover the overpayment, the commissioner is authorized to deduct from future benefits payable to the claimant in either the current or any subsequent benefit year an amount equivalent to the amount of overpayment determined by that state. A determination of fraud may be made at any time.

Reported the same back with the following amendments:

Delete everything after the enacting clause and insert:

"Section 1. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 41A.09, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [PAYMENTS FROM FUND.] The commissioner of revenue shall make cash payments from the development fund to producers of ethanol or agricultural grade alcohol, for use as a motor fuel, located in the state. The amount of the payment for each producer's annual production shall be as follows:

(a) For each gallon of ethanol produced:

(1) For the period beginning July 1, 1986 and ending June 30, 1987, 15 cents per gallon;

(2) For the period beginning July 1, 1987 and ending June 30, ~~1992~~ 2000, 20 cents per gallon.

(b) For each gallon produced of agricultural grade alcohol of a purity of at least 50 percent but not more than 90 percent and designed to be used in conjunction with diesel fuel in an engine's internal combustion process, for the period beginning July 1, 1987 and ending June 30, ~~1992~~ 2000, 11 cents per gallon.

The total payments from the fund to all producers may not exceed $200,000 during the period beginning July 1, 1986 and ending June 30, 1987, and may not exceed $10,000,000 in any fiscal year during the period beginning July 1, 1987 and ending June 30, ~~1992~~ 2000. Total payments to any producer from the fund in any fiscal year may not exceed $3,000,000.

By the last day of October, January, April, and July, each producer shall file a claim for payment for production during the preceding three calendar months. The volume of production must be verified by a certified financial audit performed by an independent certified public accountant using generally accepted accounting procedures.

Payments shall be made November 15, February 15, May 15, and August 15.

Sec. 2. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 41A.09, subdivision 5, is amended to read:

Subd. 5. [EXPIRATION.] This section expires July 1, ~~1992~~ 2000, and all money in the fund on that date reverts to the general fund.

Sec. 3. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 325E.09, subdivision 4, is amended to read:

Subd. 4. Any signs or devices stating or relating to the minimum octane rating or to the retail price of motor fuel or designed and calculated to cause the public to believe that they state or relate to the minimum octane rating or the retail price of motor fuel posted or displayed on or about premises where motor fuel is sold at retail or on property adjacent thereto and within view of any public highway, road, or street shall clearly and legibly state in figures the minimum octane rating and in figures and fractions of uniform size and prominence the total price per gallon, including the per gallon amount of all tax to be collected in connection with the sale. No signs or devices stating or relating to the absence of ethanol, methanol, or other alcohol fuels in motor fuel may be posted or displayed on or about premises where motor fuel is sold at retail or on property adjacent thereto and within view of any public highway, road, or street to cause the public to believe that the person sells at retail gasoline that does not contain ethanol. Nothing contained in this section shall be deemed to prohibit any separate signs or decals posted or displayed on or about premises where motor fuel is sold at retail relating to premiums, trading stamps or other promotional devices, or the per gallon amount of tax imposed upon the sale of motor fuel, provided any sign pertaining to price of merchandise other than motor fuel clearly and legibly states in letters of the same size as the figures and fractions stating such price the name or designation of such merchandise.

Sec. 4. [APPROPRIATION.]

Notwithstanding section 41A.09, subdivision 1, $..... is appropriated for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1988, and $..... is appropriated for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1989, from the ethanol development fund established under section 41A.09 to the commissioner of agriculture for the purpose of promoting ethanol. ### AGRICULTURAL DEVELOPMENT BOARD

Section 1. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 41A.01, is amended to read:

41A.01 [PURPOSE.]

Sections 41A.01 to 41A.06 ~~41A.08~~ provide a framework for an agricultural ~~resource loan guaranty~~ development program, the purposes of which are to further the development of the state's agricultural resources and rural areas, improve the market for its agricultural products, further the promotion, attraction, encouragement, retention, and development of economically sound industry and commerce in rural areas, and promote economic development within the state. All credit advanced pursuant to loan guaranty commitments is to be secured by subrogation of the state to mortgage security and other security interests granted to the private lender, in proportion to the amount advanced by the state. A ~~loan guaranty~~ board is established to investigate the feasibility of each project, its conformity to public policy and to environmental standards, the qualifications of the owners, operators, and lenders, and the nature and extent of the security, prior to commitment. The board shall also seek to secure financial participation by private persons not supported by the guaranty, to assure that in these respects each project satisfies and will continue to satisfy criteria which are adequate in the judgment of the board.

Sec. 2. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 41A.02, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [AGRICULTURAL RESOURCE LOAN GUARANTY DEVELOPMENT BOARD; BOARD.] "Agricultural resource loan guaranty development board" or "board" means the commissioner of finance as chair, the commissioner of agriculture, the commissioner of commerce, the commissioner of energy trade and economic development, and the director of the pollution control agency, the president of the Greater Minnesota Corporation and a member appointed by the Greater Minnesota Corporation board.

Sec. 3. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 41A.02, subdivision 4, is amended to read:

Subd. 4. [AGRICULTURAL RESOURCE LOAN GUARANTY DEVELOPMENT FUND; GUARANTY FUND.] "Agricultural resource loan guaranty development fund" or "guaranty fund" means the fund created by section 41A.05.

Sec. 4. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 41A.02, subdivision 5, is amended to read:

Subd. 5. [AGRICULTURAL RESOURCE LOAN GUARANTY DEVELOPMENT PROGRAM; PROGRAM.] "Agricultural resource loan guaranty development program" or "program" includes all projects, loan guaranties and bonds approved or issued pursuant to this chapter.

Sec. 5. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 41A.02, subdivision 6, is amended to read:

Subd. 6. [AGRICULTURAL RESOURCE PROJECT; PROJECT.] "Agricultural resource project" or "project" means (1) any facility, or portion of a facility, located in the state which is operated or to be operated primarily for the production from agricultural resources of marketable products; (2) buildings, equipment, and land used for the commercial production of agricultural resources; (3) a facility or portion of a facility used to commercially produce fish or fish products from commercially-produced fish; or (4) real or personal property used or useful in connection with a revenue-producing enterprise, or a combination of two or more revenue-producing enterprises engaged in a business whether or not for profit, if the properties are not located within a city of the first class.

The land in clause (2) is limited to land on which the buildings and equipment are located and immediately surrounding land used for storage, waste disposal, and other functions directly related to the commercial production of agricultural resources at a facility. The land in clause (2) does not include land used for the growing or raising of crops or the grazing of livestock other than poultry.

A project includes a facility or portion of a facility for mixing or producing substances to be mixed with other substances for use as a fuel or as a substitute for petroleum or petrochemical feedstocks.

Sec. 6. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 41A.02, subdivision 11, is amended to read:

Subd. 11. [LENDER.] "Lender" means any a corporation or an investment or commercial banking institution, savings and loan institution, insurance company, investment company, or other financial institution or institutional investor making, purchasing, or participating in a loan or any part of a loan or a public entity authorized to make agricultural loans.

Sec. 7. [41A.021] [SUCCESSOR STATUS.]

The board is the legal successor in all respects of the agricultural resource loan guaranty board created by Laws 1984, chapter 502, article 10, and all bonds, resolutions, contracts, and liabilities of the agricultural resource loan guaranty board are the bonds, resolutions, contracts, and liabilities of the board as renamed and reconstituted by section 41A.02, subdivision 3.

Sec. 8. [41A.022] [POWERS.]

In addition to the other powers granted by this chapter, the board may:

- (1) sue and be sued;
- (2) acquire, hold, lease, and transfer any interest in real and personal property for its corporate purposes;
- (3) sell at public or private sale a note, mortgage, or other instrument or obligation evidencing a loan;
- (4) obtain insurance against any loss in connection with its property in the amounts and from the insurers the board determines to be necessary or desirable;
- (5) obtain municipal bond insurance, letters of credit, surety obligations, or other similar agreements from financial institutions;

(6) enter into other agreements or transactions, without regard to chapter 16B, the board considers necessary or appropriate to carry out the purposes of this chapter with any federal or state agencies, political subdivisions of the state, and other persons, firms, or corporations;

(7) establish and collect fees without regard to chapter 14 or section 16A.128;

(8) accept appropriations, gifts, grants, and bequests;

(9) use money received from any source for any legal purpose or program of the board; and

(10) participate in loans for agricultural resource projects in accordance with section 9.

Sec. 9. [41A.035] [LOAN PARTICIPATION.]

The board may participate in loans made to finance agricultural resource projects by purchasing from a lender up to 75 percent of the amount of an eligible loan. If the loan participated in is $500,000 or less, the loan may be for 80 percent of the cost of the project. If the loan participated in exceeds $500,000, the loan may not exceed 80 percent of the cost of the project. The lender shall service the loan or cause it to be serviced in a manner that equally protects the lender's and the board's interests.

Sec. 10. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 41A.04, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [REQUIREMENTS.] (a) Any applicant may file a written application with the state commissioner of energy and economic development on behalf of the board, to be considered by the agricultural resource loan guaranty board, for a guaranty by the state of a portion of a loan or for issuance of bonds for an agricultural resource project. In general, the application must provide information similar to that required by an investment banking or other financial institution considering such a project for debt financing. Specifically, each application must include in brief but precise form the following information, as supplied by the applicant, the borrower, or the lender:

(1) a description of the scope, nature, extent, and location of the proposed project, including the identity of the borrower and a preliminary or conceptual design of the project;

(2) a description of the technology to be used in the project and the prior construction and operating experience of the borrower with such projects;

(3) a detailed estimate of the items comprising the total cost of the project, including escalation and contingencies, with explanation of the assumptions underlying the estimate;

(4) a general description of the financial plan for the project, including the mortgage and security interests to be granted for the security of the guaranteed loan or the bonds, and all sources of equity, grants, or contributions or of borrowing the repayment of which is not to be secured by the mortgage and security interests, or, if so secured, is expressly subordinated to the guaranteed loan;

(5) an environmental report analyzing potential environmental effects of the project, any necessary or proposed mitigation measures, and other relevant data available to the applicant to enable the board to make an environmental assessment;

(6) a list of applications to be filed and estimated dates of approvals of permits required by federal, state, and local government agencies as conditions for construction and commencement of operation of the project;

(7) an estimated construction schedule;

(8) an analysis of the estimated cost of production of and market for the product, including economic factors justifying the analysis and proposed and actual marketing contracts, letters of intent, and contracts for the supply of feedstock;

(9) a description of the management experience of the borrower in organizing and undertaking similar projects;

(10) pro forma cash flow statements for the first five years of project operation including income statements and balance sheets;

(11) a description of the borrower's organization and, where applicable, a copy of its articles of incorporation or partnership agreement and bylaws;

(12) the estimated amount of the loan or bonds and percentage of the guaranty requested, the proposed repayment schedule, and other terms and conditions and security provisions of the loan;

(13) an estimate of the amounts and times of receipt of guaranty fees, sales and use taxes, property tax increments, and any other governmental charges which may be available for the support of the state guaranty agricultural development fund as a result of the construction of the project, with an analysis of the assumptions on which the estimate is based;

(14) a copy of any lending commitment issued by a lender to the borrower;

(15) a statement from the lender, if identified, as to its general experience in financing and servicing debt incurred for projects of the size and general type of the project, and its proposed servicing and monitoring plan; and

(16) additional information required by the board.

(b) The applicant shall pay upon filing of the application a fee equal to .25 percent of the amount of the loan guaranty or bond requested. The fee shall be paid to the commissioner of finance and deposited in the general fund. If the board determines not to issue a commitment for the project, the fee shall be refunded to the applicant, less the board's cost of processing, reviewing, and evaluating the application. If the board issues a commitment for the project and the application fee exceeds the board's cost of processing, reviewing, and evaluating the application, the balance shall be transferred from the general fund to the project account in the guaranty fund and credited against the amount of the commitment fee required in section 41A.03, subdivision 3, clause (j). The county or rural development finance authority may require the proposed borrower under the project to pay the application fee.

(e) If the application is made by an applicant other than the county or rural development finance authority and tax increment financing is to be used for the project, the application must include a copy of a resolution adopted by the governing body of the county or rural development finance authority in which the project is located. The resolution must authorize the use of tax increment financing for the project as required by section 41A.06, subdivision 5.

Sec. 11. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 41A.05, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [ESTABLISHMENT OF FUND.] For the purpose of developing the state's agricultural resources by extending credit on real estate security, The agricultural resource loan guaranty development fund is established as a special and dedicated fund to be held and invested separately from all other funds of the state. All money appropriated to the fund, and all guaranty fees, retail sales taxes, property tax increments, and other money from any source which may be credited to the fund pursuant to law or pursuant to the terms of grants, contributions, or contracts are appropriated and shall remain available for the purposes of the fund until those purposes have been fully accomplished. The board may maintain or establish within the guaranty agricultural development fund reserve funds, project accounts, or other restrictions it determines necessary or appropriate to carry out the purposes of this chapter. Except as otherwise provided in this section, the fund may be used only for paying amounts due under loan guaranties and principal and interest assistance contracts entered into by the state, pursuant to the agricultural resource loan guaranty program. The board may enter into pledge and escrow agreements or indentures of trust with a trustee for the purposes of maintaining the accounts. The board may use the fund to pay administrative costs and expenses of the program, including the personnel costs of positions in the approved complement of the department of trade and economic development serving as staff to the board.

Sec. 12. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 41A.05, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [ISSUANCE OF BONDS.] (a) ~~Subject to section 16A.80, upon application pursuant to section 41A.04,~~ The board by resolution may exercise the powers of a rural development authority under sections 362A.01 to 362A.05 and the powers of a municipality under chapter 474 for the purposes of ~~providing money to pay the costs of a project financing one or more projects,~~ including the issuance of bonds and the loan application of the bond proceeds and investment income pursuant to a lease, loan, loan guaranty, loan participation, or other agreement. The bonds must be issued, sold, and secured on the terms and conditions and in the manner determined by resolution of the board. ~~Sections Section 16A.80 and 474.23 do does~~ not apply to the bonds.

Notwithstanding subdivision 1, a reserve established for the bonds provided by the borrower, including out of bond proceeds, may be deposited and held in a separate account in the guaranty agricultural development fund and applied to the last installments of principal or interest on the bonds, subject to the reserves being withdrawn for any purpose permitted by subdivision 1. The board may by resolution or indenture pledge any or all amounts in the guaranty agricultural development fund, including any reserves and investment income on amounts in the fund, to secure the payment of principal and interest on any or all series of bonds, upon the terms and conditions as provided in the resolution or indenture. To the extent the board deems necessary or desirable to prevent interest on bonds from becoming subject to federal income taxation, (1) the amounts in the guaranty agricultural development fund shall be invested in obligations or securities with restricted yields and (2) the investment income on the amounts are released from the pledge securing the bonds or loan guaranty and appropriately applied to prevent taxation.

(b) Bonds issued pursuant to this chapter are not general obligations of the state or the board. The full faith and credit and taxing powers of the state and the board are not and may not be pledged for the payment of the bonds. No person may compel the levy of a tax for the payment or compel the appropriation of money of the state or the board for the payment of the bonds, except as specifically provided in this chapter.

(c) The issuance of bonds pursuant to this subdivision is subject to sections 474.18 to 474.25. For purposes of sections 474.16 474A.01 to 474.20 474A.21, the board is a local issuer and may apply for allocations of authority to issue private activity obligations and may enter into an agreement for the issuance of obligations by another issuer.

Sec. 13. [INSTRUCTIONS TO REVISOR.]

Subdivision 1. The revisor of statutes is directed to change the words "agricultural resource loan guaranty fund" and "guaranty fund" wherever they appear in Minnesota Statutes to "agricultural development fund" in the next and subsequent editions of the statutes.

Subd. 2. The revisor of statutes is directed to change the words "agricultural resource loan guaranty board" and "agricultural resource loan guaranty program" wherever they appear in Minnesota Statutes to "agricultural development board" and "agricultural development program" in the next and subsequent editions of the statutes.

116J.955 [RURAL REHABILITATION REVOLVING FUND.]

Subdivision 1. [ESTABLISHMENT.] The rural rehabilitation revolving fund is established as an account in the state treasury. The money transferred to the state as a result of liquidating the rural rehabilitation corporation trust, and money derived from transfer of the trust to the state, must be credited to the rural rehabilitation revolving fund. ~~The principal amount of the rural rehabilitation revolving fund, $9,300,000, may not be spent and must be invested by the state investment board. The income attributable to investment of the principal is appropriated to the commissioner for the activities of the rural development council.~~

Subd. 2. [EXPENDITURE OF INVESTMENT INCOME FUND.] ~~The commissioner council may only use the income from the investment of the rural rehabilitation revolving fund for the purposes that are allowed under the Minnesota rural rehabilitation corporation's charter and agreement with the United States Secretary of Agriculture as provided in Public Law Number 499, 81st Congress, enacted May 3, 1950 and as allowed under section 116J.961, subdivision 8. Not more than three percent of the book value of the Minnesota rural rehabilitation corporation's assets may be used for administrative purposes in a year without approval of the United States Secretary of Agriculture.~~

Subd. 3. [TRANSFER OF AUTHORIZED RECORDS TO COMMISSIONER BOARD.] The authority, assets, books, and records held by the Minnesota rural rehabilitation corporation and later by the state executive council under Public Law Number 499, 81st Congress, May 3, 1950, is transferred to the commissioner corporation.

Sec. 7. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 116J.961, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [ESTABLISHMENT.] The governor's rural development council is established in the ~~department of energy and economic development~~ Greater Minnesota Corporation. The council shall consist of one representative from each of the state's development regions, including the seven-county metropolitan area, and the ~~commissioner~~ president.

Sec. 8. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 116J.961, subdivision 5, is amended to read:

Subd. 5. [COUNCIL STAFF.] (a) The ~~commissioner~~ board shall employ, ~~with the concurrence of the council, an executive director staff~~ experienced in public administration and rural development issues. The ~~executive director is not a member of the council, but president and corporation staff shall perform duties the council may require in carrying out its responsibilities. The executive director's position is in the unclassified service.~~

(b) ~~The commissioner shall employ professional staff, clerical help, and other necessary employees upon the recommendation of the council and the executive director. Support staff shall serve in the classified civil service. The commissioner corporation shall also provide materials and administrative help necessary for the council's activities including personnel, budget, payroll, and contract administration.~~

Sec. 9. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 116J.961, subdivision 6, is amended to read:

Subd. 6. [EXPENSES OF COUNCIL.] The ~~commissioner corporation~~ shall pay for the expenses of the council, the council staff, and the council's programs ~~from the appropriation under section 116J.955, subdivision 1.~~

Sec. 10. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 116J.961, subdivision 8, is amended to read:

Subd. 8. [ADMINISTRATION OF ANNUAL INVESTMENT INCOME FROM THE RURAL REHABILITATION REVOLVING FUND.] (a) The council shall administer the rural rehabilitation revolving fund by:

(1) administering a rural development grant program including the establishment of grant eligibility criteria, solicitation and review of grant applications, and determination of projects to be funded;

(2) developing priorities for state projects and activities related to rural development;

(3) providing technical help and rural development information services to state agencies, regional agencies, special districts, local governments, and interested citizens;

(4) preparing an annual budget and work program, and a biennial budget;

(5) preparing an annual report for the state office of the farmers home administration, United States Department of Agriculture outlining program activities and expenditures from the trust fund; and

(6) reporting to the house agriculture and senate agriculture and natural resources committees by January 31 of each year on the grants, projects, and activities of the council.

(b) The ~~commissioner~~ corporation shall make agreements or contracts to distribute grant funds to projects selected by the council.

Sec. 11. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 116J.961, subdivision 10, is amended to read:

Subd. 10. [BUDGET.] The ~~commissioner~~ corporation's board shall review and approve a biennial budget prepared by the council and submit it to the governor and the legislature for approval as part of the biennial budget process.

Sec. 12. [116N.01] [CITATION.]

Sections 12 to 27 may be cited as the "Greater Minnesota Corporation act."

Sec. 13. [116N.02] [PURPOSE.]

It is the intent of this legislation to ensure the development of new products, processes, and services that have the potential to contribute to the state's economy, particularly in nonmetropolitan areas. For these purposes, the Greater Minnesota Corporation is established to foster economic growth in Minnesota through cooperative research and development and investments in new products and businesses. It is the intention of the legislature to create the Greater Minnesota Corporation as a public corporation.

Sec. 14. [116N.03] [DEFINITIONS.]

Subdivision 1. [SCOPE.] The definitions in this section apply to chapter 116N.

Subd. 2. [AUTHORITY.] "Authority" means the greater Minnesota finance authority established in section 19.

Subd. 3. [CORPORATION.] "Corporation" means the Greater Minnesota Corporation.

Subd. 4. [CORPORATION BOARD.] "Corporation board" means the board of directors of the Greater Minnesota Corporation.

Subd. 5. [FINANCIAL INSTITUTION.] "Financial institution" means a bank, bank or trust company, trust company, mortgage company, credit union, mortgage banker, national banking association, savings bank, savings association, savings and loan association, building and loan association, insurance company, securities broker-dealer, financial organizations relating to commercial credit or venture capital, or a lender certified by the secretary of housing and urban development or by the administrator of veterans affairs, or approved or certified by the administrator of the farmers home administration or any other financial or lending institution, whether organized under federal law or the laws of any state of the United States, and whether located within or without this state.

Subd. 6. [FUND.] "Fund" means the greater Minnesota fund established by section 25.

Subd. 7. [GREATER MINNESOTA.] "Greater Minnesota" means the area of the state not included in the definition of area in section 473F.02, subdivision 2.

Subd. 8. [INSTITUTE.] "Institute" means a regional research institute created in section 20.

Sec. 15. [116N.04] [CORPORATION CREATED; BOARD OF DIRECTORS; PURPOSE AND DUTY.]

Subdivision 1. [CREATION; NAME.] The Greater Minnesota Corporation is created as a public corporation. The corporation is not a state agency under chapters 14, 15, or for any other purpose. All business of the corporation must be conducted under the name "Greater Minnesota Corporation."

Subd. 2. [BOARD OF DIRECTORS.] The corporation is governed by a board of 11 directors appointed by the governor to six-year terms. The governor shall make the initial appointments. As the terms of the initial appointees expire, appointments must be made by the board. The board may determine the compensation of its members. Directors shall be considered public officials for the purposes of section 10A.07.

Subd. 3. [INTEREST IN CONTRACT; PENALTY.] A director, employee, or officer of the corporation, subsidiary of the corporation or an organization selected under section 18 who is authorized by the corporation to take part in any manner in making any sale, lease, or contract in their official capacity are "public officers" for the purpose of section 471.87.

Subd. 4. [CONTRIBUTIONS TO PUBLIC OFFICIALS; DISCLOSURE.] Each director shall, when appointed, file a statement with the ethical practices board disclosing the nature, amount, date, and recipient of any contribution made to a public official, political committee, political fund, or political party, as defined in chapter 10A, that:

(1) was made within the four years preceding appointment to the Greater Minnesota board; and

(2) was subject to the reporting requirements of chapter 10A.

The statement must be updated quarterly during the director's term to reflect contributions made to public officials during the appointed director's tenure.

Subd. 5. [ARTICLES AND BYLAWS.] The corporation board shall adopt articles of incorporation and bylaws necessary for the conduct of the business of the corporation consistent with the provisions of this chapter. The articles and bylaws must be filed with the secretary of state.

Subd. 6. [PLACES OF BUSINESS.] The corporation board shall locate and maintain the corporation's places of business within the state.

Subd. 7. [MEETINGS AND ACTIONS OF THE BOARD.] The corporation board shall meet at least twice a year and may hold additional meetings upon giving whatever notice the bylaws of the corporation might provide. Meetings of the corporation board, institute boards, the governor's council on rural development, the greater Minnesota finance authority, and the research advisory board are subject to the provisions in section 471.705 except when information or data described in subdivision 8 is discussed.

Subd. 8. [APPLICATION AND INVESTIGATIVE DATA.] The following data is classified as private data with regard to data on individuals under section 13.02, subdivision 12, or as nonpublic data with regard to data not on individuals under section 13.02, subdivision 9, whichever is applicable:

(1) financial data, statistics, and information furnished in connection with assistance or proposed assistance under sections 12 to 27, including credit reports, financial statements, statements of net worth, income tax returns, either personal or corporate, and any other business and personal financial records;

(2) correspondence between members of the corporation board authority or employees of the corporation and applicants or other persons or entities regarding assistance or proposed assistance, and any investigative data obtained by the corporation board or authority, or employees of the corporation in relation to the assistance under sections 12 to 27;

(3) security information, trade secret information, or labor relations information, as defined in section 13.37, subdivision 1, disclosed to members of the corporation board authority, or employees of the corporation pursuant to sections 12 to 27.

Sec. 16. [116N.05] [CORPORATE PERSONNEL.]

Subdivision 1. [GENERALLY.] The corporation board shall appoint and set the compensation for a president and may appoint subordinate officers. The corporation board may designate the president as its general agent. Subject to the control of the corporation board, the president shall employ employees and agents as the president deems necessary. The staff of the corporation must include individuals knowledgeable in commercial and industrial financing, research and development, economic development, and general fiscal affairs. The corporation board shall define the duties and designate the titles of the employees and agents.

Subd. 2. [STATUS OF EMPLOYEES.] Employees, officers, and directors of the corporation are not state employees, but, at the option of the corporation board, may participate in the state retirement plan and the state deferred compensation plan for employees in the unclassified service and an insurance plan administered by the commissioner of employee relations.

Subd. 3. [CONTRIBUTIONS TO PUBLIC OFFICIALS; DISCLOSURE.] The president shall, when employed, file a statement with the ethical practices board disclosing the nature, amount, date, and recipient of any contribution made to a public official which:

(1) was made within the four years preceding employment with the greater Minnesota board; and

(2) was subject to the reporting requirements of chapter 10A.

The statement must be updated quarterly during the president's employment to reflect contributions made to public officials during the president's tenure.

Sec. 17. [116N.06] [CORPORATE POWERS.]

Subdivision 1. [CORPORATE POWERS; GENERALLY.] The corporation board shall have all powers necessary to accomplish the purposes of sections 12 to 27. These include, but are not limited to, the powers granted to a business corporation by section 302A.161, subdivisions 3; 4; 5; 7; 8; 9; 11; 12; 13 except that the corporation may not act as a general partner in any partnership; 14; 15; 16; 17; 18; 20 but limited to the transactions described in section 302A.501, subdivision 1, clause (b); and 22.

Subd. 2. [ADDITIONAL POWERS.] In addition to powers granted in subdivision 1, the corporation may:

- (1) obtain insurance;
- (2) provide and commit to provide mortgage insurance on terms and conditions the corporation board or its designee may deem advisable;
- (3) provide advisory, consultative, training and educational services, technical assistance, and advice to any person, firm, partnership, or corporation, either public or private, or any community, in order to carry out the purposes of sections 12 to 27 and may charge fees for this service or assistance;
- (4) accept gifts, grants, and bequests and use or dispose of them for its purposes; and
- (5) spend money from the greater Minnesota fund, and other money appropriated for purposes including expenses for the food, lodging, and travel of consultants and speakers hired by the board, publications, advertising, and promotional activities; to its projects, operations, properties, and facilities.

Subd. 3. [DESIGNATED POWERS.] The board may designate any of the powers granted in subdivision 1 to the greater Minnesota finance authority established in section 19, or the individual research institution boards established in section 20.

Sec. 18. [116N.07] [CHALLENGE GRANT PROGRAM.]

Subdivision 1. [ORGANIZATION.] The corporation board shall provide challenge grants to regional organizations to encourage private investment, provide jobs for low-income persons, and promote economic development in the rural areas of the state.

Subd. 2. [FUNDING REGIONS.] The corporation board shall divide greater Minnesota into six regions. The regions' boundaries must be coterminous with the boundaries of one or more of the development regions established under section 462.385.

Subd. 3. [CHALLENGE GRANT PROGRAM ADMINISTRATION.] The corporation board shall establish a challenge grant account for each of the six regions. Challenge grant funds must be used for revolving loans and equity investments authorized under this section. The corporation board shall select nonprofit corporations to administer the challenge grant programs using the selection criteria in subdivision 4.

Subd. 4. [SELECTION OF ORGANIZATION TO ADMINISTER CHALLENGE GRANT PROGRAM.] The corporation board shall select at least one organization for each region to be responsible for administering the challenge grant programs and shall enter into grant agreements with the organizations. An organization is eligible to administer a challenge grant program if it is a nonprofit corporation and it can demonstrate that:

(1) its board of directors includes citizens experienced in rural development, including members of the regional development commissions, and representatives from the different geographic areas in the challenge grant program region;

(2) it has the technical skills to analyze projects;

(3) it is familiar with other available public and private funding sources and economic development programs;

(4) it has the capability to package economic development projects; and

(5) it has the capability to establish and administer a revolving loan program.

Subd. 5. [REVOLVING LOAN FUND.] Each organization responsible for administering a challenge grant program shall provide loans from the challenge grant account to businesses in greater Minnesota to promote economic development in areas including technologically innovative industries, value added manufacturing, agriprocessing, information industries, and agricultural marketing. Each organization shall establish a regional revolving loan fund certified by the board, and shall process loan applications as provided in subdivision 6. The amount of state money allocated for each revolving loan is appropriated from the appropriate challenge grant account to the organization's regional revolving loan fund when the organization's board gives final approval for each loan.

Subd. 6. [LOAN CRITERIA AND PRIORITY.] (a) In processing a loan application, an organization responsible for administering a challenge grant program shall give priority to proposed borrowers who are not likely to undertake the project without assistance from the challenge grant program. Loans must be used for projects designed to principally benefit low-income persons through the creation of job opportunities for such persons. Loans may be used for capital assets and working capital. Among loan applicants, priority must be given on the basis of the number of permanent jobs created or retained by the project and the proportion of nonstate money leveraged by the revolving loan. The minimum revolving loan is $5,000 and the maximum is $100,000. The amount of state money appropriated from the challenge grant fund may not exceed 50 percent for each revolving loan. The amount of nonpublic money must equal at least 50 percent for each revolving loan. With the approval of the corporation board, a revolving loan may be used to provide up to 50 percent of the private investment required to qualify for grants from the economic recovery fund. A revolving loan may not exceed 25 percent of the total project cost of an individual project. A revolving loan may not be used for a retail development project.

(b) The corporation board shall establish a minimum interest rate for revolving loans to ensure that necessary management costs are covered.

(c) Money repaid to the challenge grant program must remain in the regional revolving loan fund for further distribution by the organization responsible for administering the challenge grant program.

(d) Administrative expenses must be paid out of the interest earned on revolving loans or from fees that the organizations may charge to businesses applying for loans.

(e) A business applying for a loan must be sponsored by a resolution of the governing body of the local government unit having jurisdiction over the area within which the project is located. For the purposes of this subdivision, "local government unit" means a home rule charter or statutory city when the project is located in an incorporated area, a county when the project is located in an unincorporated area or an American Indian tribal government when the project is located in a federally recognized American Indian Reservation or community.

Subd. 7. [EQUITY INVESTMENTS.] The corporation board may allow a specific amount of the challenge grant account designated to each region to be used for the purpose of acquiring equity interests in new or existing businesses located in greater Minnesota. The organizations responsible for administering challenge grant programs may acquire equity investments in new or expanding businesses located in greater Minnesota. The organizations may also invest in qualified regional investment organizations. A qualified regional investment organization is a corporation or fund organized and located within the designated region which conducts a lending and investment program consistent with the goals of the challenge grant program.

Subd. 8. [DUTIES OF CHALLENGE GRANT ADMINISTRATION ORGANIZATION.] The organization responsible for administering a challenge grant program may contract with other regional development authorities to carry out all or part of its duties. The organization shall:

(1) submit an annual report to the corporation board, the governor, and the legislature by February 15 of each year that includes, at least, a description of projects supported by the program, an account of all loans made during the calendar year, the source and amount of all money collected and distributed by the program, the program's assets and liabilities, and an explanation of administrative expenses; and

(2) provide for an annual audit to be performed in accordance with generally accepted accounting practices and auditing standards and submit a copy of each annual audit report to the corporation board.

Sec. 19. [116N.08] [GREATER MINNESOTA FINANCE AUTHORITY.]

Subdivision 1. [ESTABLISHMENT; PURPOSE.] The greater Minnesota finance authority is created to provide financial assistance to individuals and businesses on behalf of the corporation.

Subd. 2. [APPOINTMENT.] The authority shall have 11 members. The president of the corporation and two members of the corporation board shall serve on the authority. Eight members shall be appointed by the corporation board. Members of the authority should have extensive experience in business development, finance, banking, or venture capital. Terms and removal of members of the authority shall be set by the corporation board. Members of the authority shall serve without compensation but shall receive their necessary and actual expenses while engaged in the business of the corporation. Members of authority shall be considered public officials for the purposes of section 10A.07.

Subd. 3. [STAFFING.] The corporation may provide staff to assist the authority in carrying out its duties. The corporation may contract with an individual or for-profit or nonprofit organization to provide staff to the authority.

Subd. 4. [FINANCIAL ASSISTANCE.] The authority may provide financial assistance from the fund to individuals, businesses, and profit or nonprofit organizations. Financial assistance includes, but is not limited to, loan guarantees or insurance, direct loans, grants, interest subsidy payments, participation in loan packages, and equity financing.

Subd. 5. [STANDARDS.] The corporation board may establish minimum interest rates, security requirements, restrictions on the amount of authority financial participation in a project, and other standards and restrictions that the authority must follow in providing financial assistance.

Subd. 6. [PREFERENCE.] In providing financial assistance, the authority must give preference to individuals, businesses, or organizations that are starting or expanding their operations in greater Minnesota.

Sec. 20. [116N.09] [REGIONAL RESEARCH INSTITUTES.]

Subdivision 1. [ESTABLISHMENT.] The corporation board may establish up to four regional research institutes in greater Minnesota. The corporation board shall locate each institute adjacent to a post-secondary education institution whose focus is comparable to the mission of the institute.

Subd. 2. [PURPOSE.] The purpose of the institutes is to provide applied research and development services to individuals, businesses, and for-profit or nonprofit organizations for the purposes of developing the region's economy through the utilization of the region's resources and through the development of technology in the region. Research and development services may include on-site research, product development grants, testing of production techniques and product quality, marketing and business management assistance, and feasibility studies.

Subd. 3. [INSTITUTE BOARD.] Each regional research institute is administered by a nine member institute board. The board for each institute consists of one Greater Minnesota Corporation board member, the president of the corporation, two representatives of public post-secondary institutions in the area surrounding the institute, and five public members appointed by the corporation board. Each institute board shall elect a chair and other board officers as it deems fit from its membership. Members of each board shall serve without compensation but shall receive their necessary and actual expenses.

Subd. 4. [INSTITUTE ADMINISTRATION.] The board for each regional research institute must appoint an institute director to manage the operation of the institute. An institute board may contract with post-secondary education governing boards for research services of post-secondary institution staff, facilities, or equipment. The director may directly hire staff for the institutes.

Subd. 5. [RESEARCH CONTRACTS.] The board of each institute may enter into contracts with individuals, businesses, and organizations to provide research and development assistance at institute facilities or at other sites where appropriate. The corporation board is to establish contract guidelines.

Subd. 6. [PRODUCT DEVELOPMENT GRANTS.] The board of each institute may provide product development grants to those individuals, businesses, or organizations that, without financial assistance, would not be able to undertake the development of a product or technology-related service. The corporation board is to establish criteria for determining what individuals, businesses, or organizations are eligible to receive product development grants.

Subd. 7. [DESIGNATED RESEARCH INSTITUTE.] The agricultural utilization research institute established in section 21 is designated as one of the regional research institutes.

Sec. 21. [116N.10] [AGRICULTURAL UTILIZATION RESEARCH INSTITUTE.]

Subdivision 1. [ESTABLISHMENT.] The corporation must establish an agricultural utilization research institute to promote the establishment of new markets and the expansion of existing markets for the state's agricultural commodities and products. The agricultural utilization research institute is one of the regional institutes authorized in section 20.

Subd. 2. [DUTIES.] In addition to the duties and powers assigned to the institutes in section 20, the agricultural utilization research institute and its board have the following additional duties:

(1) identify the various market segments characterized by Minnesota's agricultural industry, address the individual needs of each segment, and identify development opportunities in each segment;

(2) develop and implement a utilization program for each segment that addresses the development needs of that segment and identifies techniques that might meet those needs;

(3) coordinate research among the public and private organizations and individuals specifically addressing procedures to transfer new technology to businesses and individuals; and

(4) provide research grants to public and private educational institutions and other organizations that are undertaking basic and applied research that would promote the development of the various agricultural industries.

Subd. 3. [STAFF.] The corporation shall provide staff to the agricultural utilization research institute and assist in carrying out the duties of the agricultural utilization research institute. The corporation may contract with an organization or individual to provide all or a portion of the staff services required by the agricultural utilization research institute.

Subd. 4. [ADVISORY BOARD.] A 36-member advisory board is established to identify priorities for the agricultural utilization research institute. The advisory board shall consist of: the chair of the Minnesota house of representatives agricultural committee; the chair of the Minnesota senate agricultural committee; a representative from each of the 20 largest agricultural-related businesses in the state as determined by the corporation; a member from each of the appropriate trade organizations representing producers of beef cattle, dairy, corn, soybeans, pork, wheat, turkey, barley, wild rice, edible beans, eggs, and potatoes; a member of the Farmers' Union; and a member of the Farm Bureau.

The advisory board shall annually provide a list of priorities and suggested research and marketing studies that should be undertaken by the agricultural utilization research institute.

Sec. 22. [116N.11] [RESEARCH ADVISORY BOARD.]

Subdivision 1. [ESTABLISHMENT.] The corporation board shall establish a research advisory board to provide advisory assistance to the corporation board, the research institute boards, and the rural finance authority.

Subd. 2. [APPOINTMENT.] The research advisory board shall consist of 11 members appointed by the corporation board. Terms and removal of members shall be set by the board and research advisory board members shall serve without compensation but shall receive their necessary and actual expenses while engaged in the business of the corporation. The membership of the advisory board must have representatives that are experienced or have expertise in technology, applied research, agriculture, business, labor, and productivity.

Subd. 3. [DUTIES.] The research advisory board has the following duties and responsibilities:

(a) Identify specific areas where research and development will contribute to the productivity of the state's businesses and farms.

(b) Determine specific areas where financial assistance for research and development could assist the development of businesses and create new employment opportunities.

(c) Advise the corporation board in the development and establishment of the regional research institutes and the research grants to public and private post-secondary education institutions.

(d) Advise public and private post-secondary education institutions on the research and development needs of businesses in Minnesota.

(e) Review the applications and make recommendations to the corporation board for research grants to public and private post-secondary education institutions.

(f) Develop guidelines for an effective peer review process for evaluating scientifically or technologically related financial assistance. The research advisory board must consider the guidelines recommended by the committee on science and technology research and development under article 3, section 8, subdivision 6.

Sec. 23. [116N.12] [RESEARCH GRANTS TO EDUCATION UNITS.]

The corporation board may make matching grants to public and private post-secondary education institutions or units within those institutions, including the natural resource research institute, for applied research and development. Grants are to be made for projects which will likely result in assisting economic and employment development in greater Minnesota. The corporation board shall not give final approval to a research grant until it has received an evaluation and recommendation from the research advisory board established in section 22.

Sec. 24. [116N.13] [INFORMATION ASSISTANCE.]

The corporation board or its designee must provide individuals, businesses, and organizations with information relating to federal, state, and local economic development programs. The corporation board must divide greater Minnesota into regions and have its own staff or its contracted organization's staff located in each of these regions to provide information assistance required in this section. The corporation board may contract with organizations, including but not limited to, regional development commissions, to provide the assistance under this section in each of the regions. The corporation's or designated organization's assigned staff to this function must have knowledge of existing private and federal, state, and local economic development programs and work in conjunction with existing programs including state agency programs, the university extension service, and the small business development centers.

Sec. 25. [116N.14] [GREATER MINNESOTA FUND.]

(a) The greater Minnesota fund is a separate account in the state treasury. The corporation board may require the commissioner of finance to create separate accounts within the fund for use in accordance with the fund's purposes. Money in the fund may be deposited in an institution designated as a depository for state funds under section 9.031. Money in the fund not needed for the immediate purposes of the corporation may be invested by the corporation in any way authorized by section 11A.24. Money in the fund may be used as provided in this chapter.

(b) The fund consists of:

- (1) all appropriations made to the corporation;
- (2) all fees and charges collected by the corporation;
- (3) income from investments and purchases;
- (4) all revenue from loans, rentals, royalties, dividends, and other proceeds collected in connection with lawful corporate purposes; and
- (5) all gifts, donations, and bequests made to the corporation.

Sec. 26. [116N.15] [AUDITS.]

The corporation board shall contract with a certified public accounting firm to audit the corporation and any subsidiary annually in accordance with generally accepted accounting standards.

The books and records of the corporation, the governor's council on rural development, the greater Minnesota finance authority, challenge grant organizations, regional research institutes, the research advisory board, and any other subsidiary, fund, or entity to be administered or governed by the corporation are subject to audit without previous notice by the legislative auditor.

Sec. 27. [116N.16] [REPORTS.]

The corporation shall report to the legislature and the governor on its activities by January 1 of each year.

Sec. 28. [DEVELOPMENT PLAN.]

The board of directors of the Greater Minnesota Corporation shall prepare a comprehensive development plan and submit it to the governor and the legislature by November 15, 1987. The development plan must include at least the following:

- (1) operating procedures;

- (2) accounting procedures;
- (3) grant procedures;
- (4) loan procedures;
- (5) personnel procedures and salaries for corporate personnel;
- (6) investment procedures; and
- (7) board conduct and ethics.

In addition, the development plan must include a budget proposal and a five-year plan. It must identify sources and amounts of available nongovernmental money and the purposes for which that money may be used, and it must suggest any further legislation that may be necessary to carry out the development plan.

Sec. 29. [INITIAL APPOINTMENTS.]

Notwithstanding section 15, subdivision 2, the governor shall appoint the initial members of the board of directors of the Greater Minnesota Corporation as follows: four to six-year terms, four to four-year terms, and three to two-year terms.

Sec. 30. [VENTURE CAPITAL STUDY.]

The Greater Minnesota Corporation shall study the effect and the possible administrative and legal structure of the establishment of a for-profit venture capital corporation. This venture capital corporation would be capitalized by a state appropriation that in turn would be converted into shares of stock owned by every resident of the state. This corporation would invest only in Minnesota companies or production facilities located in the state with a preference to ventures that utilize the state's resources and intermediate products and services. The venture capital corporation would invest in local capital venture pools that are managed by experienced private venture capital firms and this corporation would only provide investment capital for product development and start-up business development. The venture capital corporation would target its investment capital to products and businesses that reduce costs to the state's residents and government jurisdictions such as products that improve resource efficiency or products that improve the independence of the physically disabled.

The study may be completed directly by the Greater Minnesota Corporation or the corporation may contract with a business, state agency, organization, or individual to complete the study. The study must include the examination of at least the following:

(1) the anticipated demand for venture capital that meets the investment criteria of the venture capital corporation;

(2) an estimation of the start-up costs of the venture capital corporation;

(3) an estimation of on-going administrative costs of the venture capital corporation including shareholder related costs;

(4) the most appropriate legal structure for the venture capital corporation including recommendations for the enabling legislation for the corporation;

(5) an estimation of the potential additional investment through stock purchases by Minnesota residents;

(6) an inventory of experienced and interested local venture capital firms that the corporation would utilize in distributing its venture capital; and

(7) an analysis of the type of products that meet the investment criteria of the venture capital corporation.

The Greater Minnesota Corporation shall submit the study to the legislature and the governor by January 15, 1988.

Sec. 31. [DISSOLUTION.]

In the event of dissolution of the Greater Minnesota Corporation for any reason, the state of Minnesota, upon action by the governor, and after consultation with the legislative advisory commission, may require the liquidation of all holdings and investments and the return of the proceeds of that liquidation and any wholly-owned assets of the corporation to the state, in exchange for the assumption of all outstanding obligations of the corporation.

If the corporation is dissolved, or certain of its functions transferred to another entity, the assets and liabilities and property associated with the dissolved or transferred functions must return to the state or to the entity designated by law.

Sec. 32. [APPROPRIATION.]

$3,500,000 is appropriated from the general fund to the greater Minnesota fund established in section 25 to carry out the purposes of sections 15 to 31. $2,500,000 of this appropriation is for the agricultural utilization research institute established in section 21. This appropriation is available until expended.

Sec. 33. [TRANSFER.]

$2,500,000 is transferred from the money appropriated in Laws of Minnesota 1987, chapter 15, section 10 for program B, to the greater Minnesota fund established in section 25 to carry out the purpose of sections 15 to 31. Any remaining unencumbered balance in the appropriation for the program authorized in Laws of Minnesota 1987, chapter 15, on June 30, 1989 is transferred to the greater Minnesota fund established in section 25 to carry out the purposes of sections 15 to 31.

Sec. 34. [EFFECTIVE DATE.]

Sections 1 to 31 are effective the day following final enactment.

(5) coordinate the development and review of state agency rural development policies;

(6) provide staff and consultant services to the rural development board; and

(7) be responsible for coordinating community assistance and development programs in cooperation with regional development commissions.

Sec. 5. [116J.8741] [RURAL DEVELOPMENT BOARD.]

Subdivision 1. [CREATION.] The legislature finds that it is in the public interest to coordinate and encourage community and economic development in the rural areas of the state. The rural development board is created to assist in developing a strategy for promoting rural development in the state.

Subd. 2. [MEMBERSHIP.] The board consists of the commissioner of trade and economic development; the commissioner of jobs and training; the commissioner of agriculture; the president of the Greater Minnesota Corporation; the chair of the Minnesota association of counties; the chair of the Minnesota association of townships; the president of the league of Minnesota cities; the chair of the association of regional development commissions; the state director of vocational technical education; the chancellor of the state university board; the chancellor of the state board of community colleges; and the president of the University of Minnesota. The governor shall appoint five additional members from the general public to the board. Two of the public members must be members of farm organizations. One public member must represent the interests of business and one public member must represent the interests of organized labor. The governor shall take geographic interests and representation into account in the selection of public board members.

Subd. 3. [MEMBERSHIP TERMS.] The membership terms, compensation, removal, and filling of vacancies of public members of the board are as provided in section 15.0575.

Subd. 4. [CHAIR; OTHER OFFICERS.] The commissioner of trade and economic development shall serve as chair of the board. The board may elect other officers as is necessary from its members.

Subd. 5. [ADVISORY TASK FORCES; COMMITTEES.] The board may establish advisory task forces or committees to advise or assist the board in identifying and working with rural development issues. Persons on a task force or committee may not receive per diem but may be reimbursed for expenses.

Subd. 6. [STAFF; EXPENSES.] The department of trade and economic development shall provide staff, consultant support, materials, and administrative services necessary to the board's activities. The commissioner shall pay for the expenses of the board.

Subd. 7. [DUTIES.] The board has the following duties:

(a) The board, with the assistance of department staff, shall investigate and evaluate new methods to enhance rural development, particularly relating to economic diversification through private enterprises, including technologically innovative industries, value-added manufacturing, agriprocessing, information industries, and agricultural marketing.

(b) The board shall review and comment on the mineral resources program to the department of natural resources.

(c) The board shall review the services provided by state agencies, including the post-secondary education systems, to rural businesses and communities and make recommendations to the agency and the legislature that would enhance those services.

(d) The board shall prepare, with the assistance of department staff and other state agency staff, the rural investment guide required by subdivision 8.

(e) The board shall submit an annual report to the legislature by January 31 of each year. The report shall include a review of rural development in the state, an evaluation of rural development initiatives, and recommendations concerning state support for rural development.

Subd. 8. The guide must recognize and encompass both the community and economic needs and resources of rural Minnesota and provide a plan to coordinate and allocate public and private resources to the rural areas of the state.

Sec. 6. [116J.8742] [MAIN STREET PROGRAM.]

The commissioner shall develop and administer a main street program to assist cities in the revitalization of their businesses. The purpose of the program is to strengthen local organization and local management of business districts so that cities become more self-reliant and not dependent on future state financial assistance. The staff dedicated for this program shall assist cities that request assistance in the following manner:

(1) improving the organization of a city's business district including the leadership skills of business owners and city officials;

(2) establishing a marketing strategy to promote a city's business district to residents of the surrounding trade area;

(3) providing technical assistance in the design and rehabilitation of buildings in a city's business district including historic preservation; and

(4) establishing a strategy to strengthen existing businesses, recruit new businesses, diversify the mix of businesses, and develop vacant property in a city's business district.

Sec. 7. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 116M.04, is amended to read:

116M.04 [COMMUNITY DEVELOPMENT CORPORATIONS.]

Subdivision 1. For the purposes of this section, the following terms shall have the meanings given them:

Subd. 1a. "Authority" "Commissioner" means the energy commissioner of trade and economic development authority, formerly known as the small business finance agency.

Subd. 2. "Economic development region" means an area so designated in the governor's executive order number 60, dated June 12, 1970, as amended.

Subd. 3. "Federal poverty level" means the income level established by the United States Community Services Administration in Code of Federal Regulations, title 45, section 1060.2-2.

Subd. 4. "Low income" means an annual income below the federal poverty level.

Subd. 5. The authority commissioner shall administer this section and shall enforce the rules related to the community development corporations promulgated by the authority commissioner. The authority commissioner may amend, suspend, repeal or otherwise modify these rules as provided for in chapter 14.

Subd. 6. The ~~authority~~ commissioner shall designate a community development corporation as eligible to receive grants pursuant to this section if the corporation:

(a) Is a nonprofit corporation incorporated under chapter 317 or a federally recognized American Indian tribal government;

(b) Designates in its articles of incorporation or bylaws or a tribal constitution a specific geographic community within which it will operate. At least ten percent of the population within the designated community must have low income. Within the metropolitan area as defined in section 473.121, subdivision 2, a designated community shall be an identifiable neighborhood, or a combination of neighborhoods or home rule charter or statutory cities, townships, unincorporated areas or combinations thereof. Outstate designated communities shall to the extent possible not cross existing economic development boundaries;

(c) Limits voting membership to residents of the designated community;

(d) Has a board of directors with 15 to 30 members, unless the corporation can demonstrate to the authority that a smaller or larger board is more advantageous. At least 40 percent of the directors shall have incomes that do not exceed 80 percent of the county median family income and are not greater than 80 percent of the statewide median family income, as determined by the state demographer, and the remaining directors shall be members of the business or financial community and the community at large. At least 60 percent of the directors shall be residents of the designated community, and to the greatest extent possible directors shall be residents of the designated community. The directors who must meet the income limitations of this paragraph shall be elected by the members of the corporation, and the remaining directors may be elected by the members of the corporation or selected by the directors who must meet the income limitations of this paragraph; and

(e) Hires low income residents of the designated community to fill nonmanagerial and nonprofessional positions; and

(f) Demonstrates that it has or will have the technical skills to analyze projects, is familiar with other available public and private funding sources and economic development programs, and has the capability to package economic development projects.

Subd. 7. The ~~authority~~ commissioner shall approve a grant to a community development corporation only for a project carried on within the designated community, except when the corporation demonstrates that a project carried on outside will have a significant impact inside the designated community.

Subd. 8. The authority commissioner may approve a grant to a community development corporation for planning, including organization of the corporation, training of the directors, creation of a comprehensive community economic development plan, and development of a proposal for a venture grant, or for establishment of a business venture, including assistance to an existing business venture, purchase of partial or full ownership of a business venture, or development of resources or facilities necessary for the establishment of a business venture.

Subd. 8a. The energy and economic development authority commissioner shall be named as an assignee of the rights of a state-funded community development corporation on any loan or other evidence of debt provided by a community development corporation to a private enterprise. The assignment of rights shall provide that it will be effective upon the dormancy or cessation of existence of the community development corporation. "Dormancy" for the purpose of this section means the continuation of the corporation in name only without any functioning officers or activities. Upon the cessation of the activities of a state-funded community development corporation, any assigned money paid to the energy and economic development authority commissioner shall be deposited into the economic development fund to be used for the purposes as set out in this chapter general fund.

Subd. 9. Factors considered by the authority commissioner in approving a grant to a community development corporation should include the creation of employment opportunities, the maximization of profit and the effect on securing money from sources other than the state.

Subd. 10. Grants under this section shall not be available for programs conducted by churches or religious organizations or for securing or developing social services.

Subd. 11. A person shall not be excluded from participation in a program funded pursuant to this section because of race, color, religion, sex, age or national origin.

Sec. 8. [116J.971] [COMMITTEE ON SCIENCE AND TECHNOLOGY RESEARCH AND DEVELOPMENT.]

Subdivision 1. [DEFINITIONS.] For the purposes of this section, the following terms have the meanings given them.

(a) "Committee" means the committee on science and technology research and development established in subdivision 2.

(b) "Agency" means any state agency, commission, board authority, or post-secondary educational institution that has received money from the state through an appropriation, transfer, or grant.

Subd. 2. [COMMITTEE CREATED; MEMBERSHIP QUALIFICATIONS.] There is created a committee on science and technology research and development, which consists of:

- (1) a chair appointed by the governor to a four-year term;
- (2) eight members appointed by the governor to six-year terms;
- (3) one member appointed by the speaker of the house of representatives at the beginning of each biennium to a two-year term;
- (4) one member appointed by the minority leader of the house of representatives at the beginning of each biennium to a two-year term;
- (5) one member appointed by the majority leader of the senate at the beginning of each biennium to a two-year term; and
- (6) one member appointed by the minority leader of the senate at the beginning of each biennium to a two-year term.

The members of the committee must be qualified in at least one of the following four areas: academic and applied research, the administration of research, the review of research processes, and the management and development of technology intensive companies.

Subd. 3. [COMPENSATION.] Members of the committee and the ad hoc advisory committees authorized under subdivision 5 shall receive no compensation but shall be paid their expenses under section 15.059, subdivision 6.

Subd. 4. [DUTIES OF THE COMMITTEE.] The committee shall have the following duties:

- (1) establish guidelines that any agency may use in allocating state grant or loan money for scientifically and technologically related research and development projects. These guidelines must address assessments of emerging technologies and those technologies that provide significant promise for the development of job-creating businesses;
- (2) provide an analysis of the efficacy and completeness of the decentralized research peer review processes mandated in subdivision 6, with special emphasis on whether or not scientifically and technologically related research and development projects in Minnesota are in conformance with the guidelines established in this subdivision, and whether or not the scientifically and technologically related research and development projects have or will result in creating scientifically and technologically related jobs;

(3) advise all agencies on the preparation of the analysis required by clause (2);

(4) approve the assignment of ad hoc advisory committees on science and technology research and development as needed; and

(5) review and comment upon, if the committee considers it to be necessary, the reports of the ad hoc advisory committees and forward the reports to the commissioner of trade and economic development and other interested parties.

Subd. 5. [AD HOC ADVISORY COMMITTEES.] To perform the duties required by subdivision 3, the committee may, from time to time, approve the creation and use of ad hoc advisory committees composed of three to 15 members each. The commissioner shall determine those persons in the state technically qualified for service on ad hoc advisory committees and keep a roster of the names of those persons. Members of the committee may be ad hoc committee members, but members of the committee may not be a majority of an ad hoc committee.

Subd. 6. [PEER REVIEW PROCESS.] An agency that funds scientifically and technologically related research or provides financial assistance to scientific or technologically related businesses shall establish a peer review system to evaluate the research and emerging technologies and those technologies that provide significant promise for the development of job creating businesses. The committee shall recommend guidelines for establishing effective peer review. An agency that funds scientifically and technologically related research shall, at least biennially, present to the committee or to ad hoc committees, as determined by the committee, a review and evaluation of the peer review process used in that agency.

Subd. 7. [AUTHORITY TO PERFORM REQUESTED EVALUATIONS.] The governor, any commissioner or director of a state agency, speaker of the house of representatives, minority leader of the house of representatives, senate majority leader, senate minority leader, chair of the house appropriations committee, chair of the senate finance committee, or any member of the legislature considering the introduction or approval of legislation containing funding for scientifically and technologically related research and development, may request the committee to evaluate a loan or grant made or to be made or the proposed legislation for funding scientifically and technologically related research and development to determine (i) whether it complies with the guidelines required by subdivision 4; (ii) whether it is technically feasible; and (iii) for development proposals, whether the proposal appears to have the potential for economic development. Ad hoc committees may be appointed by the permanent committee to perform these reviews.

Subd. 8. [AUTHORITY FOR REVIEW AND COMMENT UPON RESEARCH AND DEVELOPMENT PROGRAMS.] Each agency receiving an appropriation for the funding of scientifically and technologically related research and development shall notify the committee within 30 days of making a loan or grant for scientifically or technologically related research and development. The notice shall contain a copy of the grant or loan application and any contract or agreement under which the loan or grant was made. The committee must review scientifically and technologically related research funded by an agency to assess whether or not the research and development is conducted in accordance with the guidelines required by subdivision 4. The committee's assessment shall be sent to the legislature on or before January 15 of every odd-numbered year.

Subd. 9. [COMMITTEE STAFF.] The commissioner shall provide those staff members in the classified and unclassified services necessary to perform the functions of the committee.

Sec. 9. [INSTRUCTION TO REVISOR.]

The revisor of statutes is directed to change the words "commissioner of energy and economic development" and "department of energy and economic development" wherever they appear in Minnesota Statutes to "commissioner of trade and economic development" and "department of trade and economic development" in the next and subsequent editions of the statutes.

Sec. 10. [TRANSFER.]

The responsibilities of the state planning agency in regard to the main street program and the community improvement program are transferred to the department of trade and economic development. Section 15.039 applies to this transfer.

ARTICLE 4

EDUCATION AND TRAINING PROGRAMS

Section 1. [136A.125] [SUPPLEMENTAL GRANTS TO DISPLACED RURAL WORKERS.]

Subdivision 1. [PROGRAM; ELIGIBILITY.] (a) The higher education coordinating board shall establish and administer the state supplemental education grant program to assist displaced workers in rural areas of the state in paying the costs of attending public, post-secondary educational institutions in the state. The board shall develop policies and procedures for the administration of grants, including the allocation of funds to public post-secondary institutions.

(b) Only state residents who are enrolled in adult farm management programs or enrolled in a program designed to train people for employment are eligible to apply for grants under this section. Applicants must demonstrate financial need in accordance with policies and procedures established by the board. In developing eligibility policies, the board shall consider criteria for participation in state and federal programs designed to serve economically dislocated workers.

(c) The development of policies and procedures in accordance with this subdivision is not subject to chapter 14.

Subd. 2. [PART-TIME GRANTS.] Displaced workers in rural Minnesota areas are eligible to be considered for a part-time grant under section 136A.132. In awarding grants during the 1987-1989 biennium, participating post-secondary institutions shall consider the needs of displaced rural workers.

Subd. 3. [PUBLIC INFORMATION.] The board shall provide information to displaced workers in rural areas about post-secondary education opportunities and financial assistance to help them pay for their education, including existing state and federal programs and the state supplemental education grant program. The board shall develop and communicate the information in cooperation with the department of jobs and training, financial aid administrators, the agriculture extension service, and representatives of public and private post-secondary education institutions.

Sec. 2. [136C.043] [CUSTOMIZED RURAL TRAINING PROGRAM.]

Subdivision 1. [DEFINITIONS.] For the purposes of this section: (a) "low-income" means equal to or below the nonmetropolitan median household income; (b) "principally" means at least 51 percent; and (c) "greater Minnesota" means the area of the state not included in the definition of area in section 473F.02, subdivision 2.

Subd. 2. [TRAINING PROGRAM.] The state board of vocational technical education may provide customized training for new or expanding businesses located in greater Minnesota if the projects are designed to principally benefit low-income persons. Expenses incurred in training for a specific business must be matched by that business. The match may be in the form of money, personnel, or equipment necessary for training. The state director shall determine the equity of a proposed match and ensure that it is of value to the state.

Subd. 3. [NEW BUSINESS SET-ASIDE.] The board may set aside up to 50 percent of the amount available for the training program to provide customized training grants for new businesses locating in greater Minnesota. A set-aside grant may not be made for a business located within the state that relocates to greater Minnesota. Any amount left in the set-aside program at the end of the 1988 fiscal year may be used for the customized training program established in subdivision 2.

Sec. 3. [APPROPRIATION.]

$250,000 is appropriated from the general fund to the higher education coordinating board for the state supplemental education grant program established in section 2, to be available until expended. The board may spend up to $500,000 of any projected unobligated balance in 1988-1989 agency appropriations for the grant program in section 1.

Sec. 4. [APPROPRIATION.]

$250,000 is appropriated from the general fund to the board of vocational technical education for the customized training program established in section 2.

ARTICLE 5

NATURAL RESOURCES

Section 1. [93.001] [POLICY FOR MINERAL DEVELOPMENT.]

It is the policy of the state to provide for the diversification of the state's mineral economy through long-term support of mineral exploration, evaluation, development, production, and commercialization.

Sec. 2. [93.002] [MINERAL COORDINATING COMMITTEE.]

Subdivision 1. [ESTABLISHMENT.] The mineral coordinating committee is established to plan for diversified mineral development. The mineral coordinating committee consists of the director of the minerals division of the department of natural resources, the director of the Minnesota geological survey, the director of the University of Minnesota mineral resources research center, and the director of the natural resources research institute. The director of the minerals division of the department of natural resources shall serve as chair. A member of the committee may designate another person of the member's organization to act in the member's place. The commissioner of natural resources shall provide staff and administrative services necessary for the committee's activities.

Subd. 2. [MINERAL DIVERSIFICATION PLAN.] The mineral coordinating committee shall prepare and adopt a ten-year plan for mineral diversification. The plan must include a strategy to:

- (1) increase the knowledge of the state's mineral potential;
- (2) stimulate the development of mineral resources in the state; and
- (3) provide for basic minerals research.

The plan must also include a two-year plan that establishes funding priorities for the minerals programs under subdivision 3. The funding priorities must be updated every two years.

Subd. 3. [MINERALS PROGRAMS.] The mineral diversification plan must consider at least the following: aeromagnetic surveys, glacial till geochemistry surveys, geologic drilling and mapping, LMIC minerals data base, drill core examination and assay, industrial minerals characterization and research, bedrock geochemistry, nonferrous minerals research, reclamation studies, economic evaluation of mineral resources, improved geophysical and remote sensing base, acquisition of sampling equipment and analyses, determination of mineral rights ownership, ferrous minerals research, evaluation of mineral resource occurrence, evaluation of value-added processes, ore deposit modeling, and basic mineral research.

Subd. 4. [SUBMISSION OF PLAN AND FUNDING PRIORITIES.] (a) The minerals coordinating committee shall submit the minerals diversification plan to the legislature by December 31, 1987.

(b) By January 15 of each odd-numbered year, the minerals coordinating committee shall submit the two-year funding priority plan required under subdivision 2 to the chairs of the house appropriations and environment and natural resources committee and the chairs of the senate finance and environment and natural resources committee.

Sec. 3. [APPROPRIATION.]

Subdivision 1. [MINERALS PROGRAMS.] $1,000,000 is appropriated from the general fund to the commissioner of natural resources to accelerate geological mapping of the state, accelerate evaluation of the state's mineral potential and other natural resources, and provide analytical support for the minerals industry according to the mineral diversification plan or a minerals industry acceleration plan developed by the minerals coordinating committee. $500,000 is for fiscal year 1988 and $500,000 is for fiscal year 1989.

Subd. 2. [COUNTY FORESTRY ASSISTANCE PROGRAMS.] $1,000,000 is appropriated from the general fund to the commissioner of natural resources for grants to counties or groups of counties for county forestry assistance programs. $500,000 is for fiscal year 1988 and $500,000 is for fiscal year 1989. The commissioner of natural resources shall make the appropriation available to counties with the amount proportional to the acreage of forested tax-forfeited land managed by the county. As a condition of receiving money, the commissioner of natural resources shall require work plans, semiannual progress reports, and final project reports.

ARTICLE 6

URBAN NEIGHBORHOOD REVITALIZATION

Section 1. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 281.17, is amended to read:

281.17 [PERIOD FOR REDEMPTION.]

The period of redemption for all lands sold to the state at a tax judgment sale shall be three years from the date of sale to the state of Minnesota if the land is within an incorporated area unless it is: (a) nonagricultural homesteaded land as defined in section 273.13, subdivision 22, (b) homesteaded agricultural land as defined in section 273.13, subdivision 23, paragraph (a), or (c) seasonal recreational land as defined in section 273.13, subdivision 27, paragraph (a), or subdivision 22, paragraph (c), in which event the period of redemption is five years from the date of sale to the state of Minnesota.

The period of redemption for all homesteaded lands as defined in section 273.13, subdivision 22, located in a targeted neighborhood as defined in section 6 and sold to the state at a tax judgment sale shall be two years from the date of sale. The period of redemption for all other lands in a targeted neighborhood as defined in section 6 and sold to the state at a tax judgment sale shall be one year from the date of sale.

The period of redemption for all other lands sold to the state at a tax judgment sale shall be five years from the date of sale.

Sec. 2. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 429.061, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [ADOPTION; INTEREST.] At such meeting or at any adjournment thereof the council shall hear and pass upon all objections to the proposed assessment, whether presented orally or in writing. The council may amend the proposed assessment as to any parcel and by resolution adopt the same as the special assessment against the lands named in the assessment roll. Notice of any adjournment of the hearing shall be adequate if the minutes of the meeting so adjourned show the time and place when and where the hearing is to be continued.

The council may consider any objection to the amount of a proposed assessment as to a specific parcel of land at an adjourned hearing upon further notice to the affected property owner as it deems advisable. At the adjourned hearing the council or a committee of it may hear further written or oral testimony on behalf of the objecting property owner and may consider further written or oral testimony from appropriate city officials and other witnesses as to the amount of the assessment. The council or committee shall prepare a record of the proceedings at the adjourned hearing and written findings as to the amount of the assessment. The amount of the assessment as finally determined by the council shall become a part of the adopted assessment roll. No appeal may be taken as to the amount of any assessment adopted under this section unless written objection signed by the affected property owner is filed with the municipal clerk prior to the assessment hearing or presented to the presiding officer at the hearing. All objections to the assessments not received at the assessment hearing in the manner prescribed by this subdivision are waived, unless the failure to object at the assessment hearing is due to a reasonable cause.

If the adopted assessment differs from the proposed assessment as to any particular lot, piece, or parcel of land, the clerk must mail to the owner a notice stating the amount of the adopted assessment. Owners must also be notified by mail of any changes adopted by the council in interest rates or prepayment requirements from those contained in the notice of the proposed assessment.

The assessment, with accruing interest, shall be a lien upon all private and public property included therein, from the date of the resolution adopting the assessment, concurrent with general taxes; but the lien shall not be enforceable against public property as long as it is publicly owned, and during such period the assessment shall be recoverable from the owner of such property only in the manner and to the extent provided in section 435.19. Except as provided below, all assessments shall be payable in equal annual installments extending over such period, not exceeding 30 years, as the resolution determines, payable on the first Monday in January in each year, but the number of installments need not be uniform for all assessments included in a single assessment roll if a uniform criterion for determining the number of installments is provided by the resolution. Assessments on property located in a targeted neighborhood as defined in section 6 do not have to be payable in equal annual installments if the resolution provides for a variable payment. The first installment of each assessment shall be included in the first tax rolls completed after its adoption and shall be payable in the same year as the taxes contained therein; except that the payment of the first installment of any assessment levied upon unimproved property may be deferred until a designated future year, or until the platting of the property or the construction of improvements thereon, upon such terms and conditions and based upon such standards and criteria as may be provided by resolution of the council. If special assessments against the property have been deferred pursuant to this subdivision, the governmental unit shall file with the county recorder in the county in which the property is located a certificate containing the legal description of the affected property and of the amount deferred. In any event, every assessment the payment of which is so deferred, when it becomes payable, shall be divided into a number of installments such that the last installment thereof will be payable not more than 30 years after the levy of the assessment. All assessments shall bear interest at such rate as the resolution determines, not exceeding eight percent per annum, except that the rate may in any event equal the average annual interest rate on bonds issued to finance the improvement for which the assessments are levied. To the first installment of each assessment shall be added interest on the entire assessment from a date specified in the resolution levying the assessment, not earlier than the date of the resolution, until December 31 of the year in which the first installment is payable, and to each subsequent installment shall be added interest for one year on all unpaid installments; or alternatively, any assessment may be made payable in equal annual installments including principal and interest, each in the amount annually required to pay the principal over such period with interest at such rate as the resolution determines, not exceeding the maximum period and rate specified above. In the latter event no prepayment shall be accepted under subdivision 3 without payment of all installments due to and including December 31 of the year of prepayment, together with the original principal amount reduced only by the amounts of principal included in such installments, computed on an annual amortization basis. When payment of an assessment is deferred, as authorized in this subdivision, interest thereon for the period of deferment may be made payable annually at the same times as the principal installments of the assessment would have been payable if not deferred; or interest for this period may be added to the principal amount of the assessment when it becomes payable; or, if so provided in the resolution levying the assessment, interest thereon to December 31 of the year before the first installment is payable may be forgiven.

Sec. 3. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 462.445, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [SCHEDULE OF POWERS.] An authority shall be a public body corporate and politic and shall have all the powers necessary or convenient to carry out the purposes of sections 462.415 to 462.705 (but not the power to levy and collect taxes or special assessments except as provided in sections 462.515 to 462.545 with respect to redevelopment projects only) including the following powers in addition to others granted in these sections:

(1) To sue and be sued; to have a seal, which shall be judicially noticed, and to alter the same at pleasure; to have perpetual succession; and to make, and from time to time to amend and repeal, rules and regulations not inconsistent with these sections;

(2) To employ an executive director, technical experts, and such officers, agents, and employees, permanent and temporary, as it may require, and determine their qualifications, duties, and compensation; for such legal services as it may require, to call upon the chief law officer of the municipality or to employ its own counsel and legal staff; so far as practicable, to use the services of local public bodies, in its area of operation, such local public bodies, if requested, to make such services available;

(3) To delegate to one or more of its agents or employees such powers or duties as it may deem proper;

(4) Within its area of operation to undertake, prepare, carry out, and operate projects and to provide for the construction, reconstruction, improvement, extension, alteration, or repair of any project or part thereof;

(5) Subject to the provisions of section 462.511, to give, sell, transfer, convey, or otherwise dispose of real or personal property or any interest therein and to execute such leases, deeds, conveyances, negotiable instruments, purchase agreements, and other contracts or instruments, and take such action, as may be necessary or convenient to carry out the purposes of these sections;

(6) Within its area of operation to acquire real or personal property or any interest therein by gifts, grant, purchase, exchange, lease, transfer, bequest, devise, or otherwise, and by the exercise of the power of eminent domain, in the manner provided by Minnesota Statutes 1945, chapter 117, and any amendments thereof or supplements thereto, to acquire real property which it may deem necessary for its purposes under these sections, after the adoption by it of a resolution declaring that the acquisition of the real property is necessary to eliminate one or more of the conditions found to exist in the resolution adopted pursuant to section 462.425 or found to exist by section 462.415, subdivision 5, or is necessary to carry out a redevelopment project as defined in section 462.421, subdivision 13;

(7) Within its area of operation, and without the adoption of an urban renewal plan, to acquire, by all means as set forth in clause (6) of this subdivision, including by the exercise of the power of eminent domain, in the manner provided by chapter 117, and without the adoption of a resolution provided for in subdivision 1, clause (6), real property, and to demolish, remove, rehabilitate or reconstruct the buildings and improvements or construct new buildings and improvements thereon, or to so provide through other means as set forth in Laws 1974, chapter 228, or to grade, fill and construct foundations or otherwise prepare the site for improvements, and to dispose of said property pursuant to section 462.525, provided that the provisions of section 462.525 requiring conformance to an urban renewal plan shall not apply, and to finance such activities by means of the redevelopment project fund or by means of tax increments or tax increment bonds or by the methods of financing provided for in section 462.545 or by means of contributions from the municipality provided for in section 462.581, clause (9), or by any combination of such means; provided that, real property with buildings or improvements thereon shall only be acquired when the buildings or improvements are substandard; and provided further that the exercise of the power of eminent domain under this clause shall be limited to real property which contains buildings and improvements which are vacated and substandard. For the purpose of this subparagraph, substandard buildings or improvements mean hazardous buildings as defined in section 463.15, subdivision 3, or buildings or improvements that are dilapidated or obsolescent, faultily designed, lack adequate ventilation, light, or sanitary facilities, or any combination of these or other factors that are detrimental to the safety or health of the community.

(8) Within its area of operation to determine the level of income constituting low or moderate family income. Such income level shall be that level below which there is not available within the area of operation a substantial supply of decent, safe and sanitary housing provided by private enterprise without subsidy at prices or rents within the financial means of persons and families of such incomes. The authority may establish various income levels for various family sizes. In making its determination the authority may consider income levels which may be established by the federal housing administration or a similar or successor federal agency for the purpose of federal loan guarantees or subsidies for persons of low or moderate income. The authority may use such determination as a basis for the maximum amount of income for admissions to housing development projects owned or operated by it;

(9) To provide in federally assisted projects such relocation payments and assistance as may be necessary to comply with the requirements of the Federal Uniform Relocation Assistance and Real Property Acquisition Policies Act of 1970, and any amendments or supplements thereto.

Sec. 4. [FINDINGS AND PURPOSE.]

The legislature finds that certain neighborhoods in the cities of Minneapolis and Saint Paul are socially and economically distressed and physically blighted. The distressed and blighted nature of these neighborhoods is an economic and social crisis that affects the social and economic health of Minneapolis and Saint Paul, the metropolitan area, and the entire state. The distressed and blighted nature of these neighborhoods is evidenced by substandard, deteriorating, and vacant housing and commercial properties, declining property values, high crime rates, unemployment, poverty, and other adverse social and economic conditions.

The legislature further finds that the cities of Minneapolis and Saint Paul must build upon their past progress and intensify their efforts to revitalize distressed neighborhoods, and that the cities are unable to bear the sole financial burden for revitalizing their distressed neighborhoods due in part to the declining availability of federal funds and other resources. Therefore, the effort to revitalize distressed neighborhoods must include participation by state government and by organizations and individuals in the private and nonprofit sectors.

The public funds made available by this act should be used primarily to benefit those households with income less than 50 percent of the household median income for the Minneapolis and Saint Paul standard metropolitan statistical area. The two needs that these households require are jobs at sufficient wages to meet living needs and suitable housing at affordable costs. It is therefore a valid purpose for the state to assist the cities to preserve and promote the health, welfare, and safety of its low income citizens by providing funds for the preservation, improvement, expansion, and creation of housing and commercial properties serving, employing, or benefiting low income residents. It is not the purpose of this act to foster destruction of existing housing stock or commercial properties in the absence of plans for the relocation of current residents and replacement of commercial opportunities or lost housing units.

The purpose and intent of the Minneapolis and Saint Paul urban revitalization action act is to provide state assistance to a comprehensive effort by the cities of Minneapolis and Saint Paul to revitalize the most distressed neighborhoods in their cities. It is not the intent of this act to provide state assistance in order to replace funding from sources already available to the city, but rather to provide additional resources for carrying out the purposes of this act.

Sec. 5. [DEFINITIONS.]

Subdivision 1. [TERMS DEFINED.] For the purposes of sections 4 to 12, the following terms have the meaning given them.

Subd. 2. [CITY.] "City" means the city of Minneapolis or the city of Saint Paul. For each city, any port authority, housing and redevelopment authority, or other agency or instrumentality, the jurisdiction of which is the territory of either city, shall be included within the meaning of city.

Subd. 3. [CITY COUNCIL.] "City council" means either the city council of Minneapolis or the city council of Saint Paul.

Subd. 4. [CITY MATCHING FUNDS.] "City matching funds" means the funds of a city specified in a revitalization and financing program to be expended to implement a revitalization program. The sources of city matching funds may include:

(1) money from the general fund or any special fund of a city used to implement a revitalization program;

(2) money paid or repaid to a city from the proceeds of any grant that a city has received from the federal or state government, any profit or nonprofit corporation, or any other entity or individual that are to be used to implement a revitalization program;

(3) tax increments received by a city under sections 273.71 to 273.78 or other law, if eligible, to be expended in the targeted neighborhood;

(4) the greater of the fair market value or the cost to the city of acquiring land, buildings, equipment, or other real or personal property that a city contributes, grants, or loans to a profit or nonprofit corporation, or other entity or individual in connection with the implementation of a revitalization program;

(5) city money to be used to install, reinstall, repair, or improve the infrastructure facilities of a targeted neighborhood;

(6) money contributed by a city to pay issuance costs or to otherwise provide financial support for revenue bonds or obligations issued by a city for a project or program related to the implementation of a revitalization program;

(7) money derived from fees received by a city in connection with its community development activities that are to be used in implementing a revitalization program.

City matching money does not include:

(1) city money used to provide a service or exercise a function that is ordinarily provided throughout the city unless an increased level of the service or function is to be provided in a targeted neighborhood in accordance with a revitalization program;

(2) the proceeds of any revenue bonds issued by the city under chapter 458, 462C, 472, or 474; or

(3) any administrative expenses that are incurred in connection with the planning or implementation of sections 4 to 12.

Subd. 5. [COMMISSIONER.] "Commissioner" means the commissioner of trade and economic development.

Subd. 6. [LOST UNIT.] "Lost unit" means a rental housing unit that is lost as a result of revitalization activities because it is demolished, converted to an owner-occupied unit that is not a cooperative, converted to a nonresidential use, or if the gross rent to be charged exceeds 125 percent of the gross rent charged for the unit six months prior to the start of rehabilitation.

Subd. 7. [TARGETED NEIGHBORHOOD.] "Targeted neighborhood" means an area including one or more census tracts as determined and measured by the Bureau of Census of the United States Department of Commerce that meet the criteria of section 6, subdivision 2, and any additional area designated under section 6, subdivision 3.

Subd. 8. [TARGETED NEIGHBORHOOD FUNDS.] "Targeted neighborhood funds" means the funds designated in the revitalization program to be used to implement the revitalization program.

Subd. 9. [TARGETED NEIGHBORHOOD REVITALIZATION AND FINANCING PROGRAM.] "Targeted neighborhood revitalization and financing program," "revitalization program," or "program" means the targeted neighborhood revitalization and financing program adopted in accordance with section 7.

Sec. 6. [DESIGNATION OF TARGETED NEIGHBORHOODS.]

Subdivision 1. [CITY AUTHORITY.] A city may by resolution designate targeted neighborhoods within its borders after adopting detailed findings that the designated neighborhoods meet the eligibility requirements in subdivision 2 or 3.

Subd. 2. [ELIGIBILITY REQUIREMENTS FOR TARGETED NEIGHBORHOODS.] An area within a city is eligible for designation as a targeted neighborhood if the area meets two of the following three requirements:

(a) The area had an unemployment rate that was twice the unemployment rate for the Minneapolis and Saint Paul standard metropolitan statistical area as determined by the 1980 federal decennial census.

(b) The median household income in the area was no more than half the median household income for the Minneapolis and Saint

Paul standard metropolitan statistical area as determined by the 1980 federal decennial census.

(c) The area is characterized by residential dwelling units in need of substantial rehabilitation. An area qualifies under this clause if 25 percent or more of the residential dwelling units are in standard condition as determined by the city; or 70 percent or more of the residential dwelling units in the area were built before 1940 as determined by the 1980 federal decennial census.

Subd. 3. [ADDITIONAL AREA ELIGIBLE FOR INCLUSION IN TARGETED NEIGHBORHOOD.] The city may add to the area designated as a targeted neighborhood under subdivision 2 additional area extending up to four contiguous city blocks in all directions from the designated targeted neighborhood. For the purpose of this subdivision, "city block" shall have the meaning determined by the city.

Sec. 7. [TARGETED NEIGHBORHOOD REVITALIZATION AND FINANCING PROGRAM REQUIREMENTS.]

Subdivision 1: [COMPREHENSIVE REVITALIZATION AND FINANCING PROGRAM.] (a) For each targeted neighborhood for which a city requests state financial assistance under section 8, the city must prepare a comprehensive revitalization and financing program that includes the following:

(1) the revitalization objectives of the city for the targeted neighborhood;

(2) the specific activities or means by which the city intends to pursue and implement the revitalization objectives;

(3) the extent to which the activities identified in clause (2) will benefit low and moderate income families, will alleviate the blighted condition of the targeted neighborhood, or otherwise assist in the revitalization of the targeted neighborhood;

(4) a statement of the intended outcomes to be achieved by implementation of the revitalization program, how the outcomes will be measured both qualitatively and quantitatively, and the estimated time over which they will occur; and

(5) a financing program and budget that identifies the financial resources necessary to implement the revitalization program.

(b) The financing program and budget must include the following items:

(1) the estimated total cost to implement the revitalization program;

(2) the estimated cost to implement each activity in the revitalization program identified in paragraph (a), clause (2);

(3) the estimated amount of financial resources that will be available from all sources other than from the appropriation available under section 8 to implement the revitalization program;

(4) the estimated amount of the appropriation available under section 8 that will be necessary to implement the revitalization program;

(5) a description of the activities identified in the revitalization program for which the state appropriation will be used and the time or times at which the state appropriation will be committed or spent; and

(6) a statement of how the city intends to meet the requirement for a financial contribution matching the state appropriation from city matching funds in accordance with section 8, subdivision 3.

Subd. 2. [TARGETED NEIGHBORHOOD PARTICIPATION IN REVITALIZATION PROGRAM DEVELOPMENT.] The city must develop a process to consult the residents in the targeted neighborhood concerning the development, drafting, and implementation of the revitalization program. The process may include the establishment of an advisory board in each city as provided for in subdivision 3 to assist the city in implementing the urban revitalization action act. The process must include at least one public hearing in addition to any public hearing held by the advisory board.

Subd. 3. [ADVISORY BOARD.] The governing body of the city may establish a seven-member advisory board to assist the city in implementing sections 4 to 12. The advisory board shall consist of one city council member appointed by the city council, one county commissioner appointed by the county board of the county in which the city is located, two legislators appointed by the city legislative delegation, and three residents who reside in a targeted neighborhood appointed by the city council. The advisory board shall advise the city on the preparation of the revitalization program including the conversion from absent-owner rental housing to home ownership, the promotion of commercial and industrial growth in targeted neighborhoods, and the integration of human service programs and the redevelopment in targeted neighborhoods.

Subd. 4. [PRELIMINARY CITY REVIEW; STATE AGENCY REVIEW.] Before adoption of the revitalization program under subdivision 5, the city must submit a draft program to the commissioner and the Minnesota housing finance agency for their comment. The city may not adopt the revitalization program until comments have been received from the state agencies or 30 days have elapsed without response after the program was sent to them. Comments received by the city from the state agencies within the 30-day period must be responded to in writing by the city before adoption of the program by the city.

Subd. 5. [CITY APPROVAL.] The city may adopt the revitalization program only after holding a public hearing after the program has been prepared. Notice of the hearing must be provided in a newspaper of general circulation in the city and in the targeted neighborhood not less than ten days nor more than 30 days prior to the date of the hearing.

Subd. 6. [PROGRAM CERTIFICATION.] A certification by the city that a revitalization program has been approved by the city council for the targeted neighborhood must be provided to the commissioner together with a copy of the program. A copy of the program must also be provided to the Minnesota housing finance agency.

Subd. 7. [REVITALIZATION PROGRAM MODIFICATION.] The revitalization program may be modified at any time by the city council after a public hearing, notice of which is published in a newspaper of general circulation in the city and in the targeted neighborhood not less than ten days nor more than 30 days before the date of the hearing. If the city council determines that the proposed modification is a significant modification to the program originally certified under subdivision 6, it must implement the revitalization program approval process of subdivisions 2 to 6 for the proposed modification. If the proposed modification will require an increase in the amount of state appropriation available under section 8 for the revitalization program, the commissioner and the Minnesota housing finance agency must be notified and afforded an opportunity to comment on it in accordance with subdivision 4. Any modification to the revitalization program must be certified to the commissioner as provided in subdivision 6.

Subd. 8. [DISPLACEMENT.] In the event the activities of an approved revitalization and financing program cause the direct displacement of households with incomes less than 200 percent of the poverty levels as determined by the United States Department of Health and Human Services, the city shall provide opportunities for all such displaced households to secure standard, affordable replacement housing within the targeted neighborhood in which the displacement occurs.

Sec. 8. [PAYMENT; CITY MATCHING MONEY; DRAWDOWN; USE OF STATE MONEY.]

Subdivision 1. [PAYMENT OF STATE MONEY.] Upon receipt from a city of the certification that a revitalization program has been adopted or modified, the commissioner must, within 30 days, pay to the city the amount of state money identified as necessary to implement the revitalization program or program modification. State money may be paid to the city only to the extent that the appropriation limit for the city specified in subdivision 2 is not exceeded. Once the state money has been paid to the city, it becomes targeted neighborhood money for use by the city in accordance with an adopted revitalization program and subject only to the restrictions on its use under sections 4 to 12.

Subd. 2. [ALLOCATION.] A city may receive a part of the appropriations made available that is the proportion that the population of that city bears to the combined population of Minneapolis and Saint Paul. One city may agree to reduce its entitlement amount so that the other may receive an amount more than its entitlement amount. The population of each city for the purposes of this subdivision is determined according to the most recent estimates available to the commissioner. Interest earned by a city from money paid to the city must be repaid to the commissioner annually unless the revitalization program identifies the interest as necessary to implement the revitalization program and the requirement for city matching money is satisfied with respect to the interest.

Subd. 3. [CITY MATCHING MONEY; DRAWDOWN OF STATE MONEY; RESTRICTION ON USE OF STATE MONEY.] A city may spend state money only if the revitalization program identifies city matching money to be used to implement the program in an amount equal to the state appropriation. A city must keep the state money in a segregated fund for accounting purposes. No state money may be used to pay the general administrative expenses of a city that are incurred in connection with the planning or implementation of sections 4 to 12.

Sec. 9. [CITY POWERS AND ELIGIBLE USES OF TARGETED NEIGHBORHOOD MONEY.]

Subdivision 1. [CONSOLIDATION OF EXISTING POWERS IN TARGETED NEIGHBORHOODS.] A city may exercise any of its corporate powers within a targeted neighborhood including, but not limited to, all of the powers enumerated and granted by Minnesota Statutes, chapters 458, 462, 462C, 472, 472A, and 474. For the purposes of chapter 458, a targeted neighborhood is considered an industrial development district. A city may exercise the powers of chapter 458 in conjunction with, and in addition to, exercising the powers granted by chapters 462 and 462C in order to promote and assist housing construction and rehabilitation within a targeted neighborhood. For the purposes of Minnesota Statutes, section 462C.02, subdivision 9, a targeted neighborhood is considered a "targeted area."

Subd. 2. [GRANTS AND LOANS.] In addition to the authority granted by other law, a city may make grants and loans to individuals, for-profit and nonprofit corporations, and other organizations to implement a revitalization program. The grants and loans must contain the terms concerning use of money, repayment, and other conditions the city deems proper to implement a revitalization program.

Subd. 3. [ELIGIBLE USES OF TARGETED NEIGHBORHOOD FUNDS.] The city may spend targeted neighborhood money for any purpose authorized by subdivision 1 or 2. Any use of targeted neighborhood money must be authorized by a revitalization program.

Sec. 10. [HAZARDOUS BUILDING PENALTY.]

A city may assess a penalty equal to one percent of the assessed value of a building located in a targeted neighborhood defined in section 6 that the city determined to be hazardous as defined in Minnesota Statutes, section 463.15, subdivision 3. If the owner of the building has not paid the penalty within 30 days after receiving notice of the penalty, the penalty is considered delinquent and is increased by 25 percent each 60 days the penalty is not paid and the property remains hazardous. For the purposes of this section, a penalty that is delinquent is considered a delinquent property tax and subject to Minnesota Statutes, chapters 279, 280, and 281 in the same manner as delinquent property taxes.

Sec. 11. [ANNUAL AUDIT AND REPORT.]

Subdivision 1. [ANNUAL FINANCIAL AUDIT.] In 1988 and subsequent years, at the end of each calendar year, the legislative auditor shall conduct a financial audit to review the spending of state money under sections 4 to 12. Before spending any state funds to implement a revitalization program, the city must consult with the legislative auditor to determine appropriate accounting methods and principles that will assist the legislative auditor in conducting its financial audit. The results of the financial audit must be submitted to the legislative audit commission, the commissioner, and the Minnesota housing finance agency.

Subd. 2. [ANNUAL REPORT.] A city that begins to implement a revitalization program in any calendar year must, by March 1 of the succeeding calendar year, provide a detailed report on the revitalization program or programs being implemented in the city. The report must describe the status of the program implementation and analyze whether the intended outcomes identified in section 7, subdivision 1, clause (a), are being achieved. The report must include at least the following:

(a) The number of housing units removed, created, lost, replaced, relocated, and assisted as a result of the program. The level of rent of the units and the income of the households affected must be included in the report.

(b) The number and type of commercial establishments removed, created, and assisted as a result of a revitalization program. The report must include information regarding the number of new jobs created by category, whether the jobs are full-time or part-time, and the salary or wage levels of both new and expanded jobs in the affected commercial establishments.

(c) A description of a statement of the cost of the public improvement projects that are part of the program and the number of jobs created per each $20,000 of funds expended on commercial projects and applicable public improvement projects.

(d) The increase in the assessed valuation for the city as a result of the assistance to commercial and housing assistance.

(e) The amount of private investment that is a result of the use of public funds in a targeted neighborhood.

The report must be submitted to the commissioner, the Minnesota housing finance agency, and the legislative audit commission, and must be available to the public.

Sec. 12. [APPROPRIATION; DISTRIBUTION.]

$3,000,000 is appropriated from the general fund to the commissioner of energy and economic development for disbursement to the cities of Minneapolis and Saint Paul as provided in section 8, to be available until June 30, 1989.

Sec. 13. [EFFECTIVE DATE; LOCAL APPROVAL.]

Sections 4 to 12 are effective for the city of Minneapolis the day after compliance with Minnesota Statutes, section 645.021, subdivision 3, by the governing body of the city of Minneapolis.

Sections 4 to 12 are effective for the city of Saint Paul the day after compliance with Minnesota Statutes, section 645.021, subdivision 3, by the governing body of the city of Saint Paul."

Carlson, D.; Johnson, V.; Stanius; Forsythe; Miller; Haukoos; Poppenhagen and Seaberg offered a Minority Report to the Majority Report from the Committee on Appropriations relating to S. F. No. 1.

POINT OF ORDER

Vanasek raised a point of order pursuant to rule 3.9 that the Minority Report to the Majority Report from the Committee on Appropriations relating to S. F. No. 1 was not in order. The Speaker ruled the point of order well taken and the Minority Report out of order.

Schreiber appealed the decision of the Chair.

A roll call was requested and properly seconded.

The vote was taken on the question "Shall the decision of the Speaker stand as the judgment of the House?" and the roll was called. There were 82 yeas and 45 nays as follows:

Those who voted in the affirmative were:

Anderson, G.	Clark	Jensen	Knuth	Milbert
Battaglia	Cooper	Johnson, A.	Kostohryz	Minne
Bauerly	Dauner	Johnson, R.	Krueger	Munger
Beard	DeBlicke	Kahn	Larsen	Murphy
Begich	Dorn	Kalis	Lasley	Nelson, C.
Bertram	Greenfield	Kelly	Lieder	Nelson, D.
Brown	Jacobs	Kelso	Long	Nelson, K.
Carlson, L.	Jefferson	Kinkel	McEachern	Neuenschwander
Carruthers	Jennings	Kludt	McLaughlin	O'Connor

Ogren	Peterson	Rukavina	Sparby	Welle
Olson, E.	Price	Sarna	Steensma	Wenzel
Olson, K.	Quinn	Scheid	Trimble	Winter
Orenstein	Reding	Schoenfeld	Tunheim	Wynia
Osthoff	Rest	Segal	Vanasek	Spk. Norton
Otis	Rice	Simoneau	Vellenga
Pappas	Riveness	Skoglund	Voss
Pelowski	Rodosovich	Solberg	Wagenius

Those who voted in the negative were:

Bennett	Frerichs	Knickerbocker	Ozment	Shaver
Bishop	Gruenes	Marsh	Pauly	Stanius
Blatz	Gutknecht	McDonald	Poppenhagen	Sviggum
Burger	Hartle	McKasy	Quist	Swenson

Trimble moved to amend S. F. No. 865, as follows:

Delete everything after the enacting clause and insert:

"Section 1. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 116C.69, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [FUNDING; ASSESSMENT.] The board shall finance its base line studies, general environmental studies, development of criteria, inventory preparation, monitoring of conditions placed on site certificates and construction permits, and all other work, other than specific site and route designation, from an assessment made quarterly, at least 30 days before the start of each quarter, by the board against all utilities with retail kilowatt-hour sales greater than 4,000,000 kilowatt-hours in the previous calendar year. The Until June 30, 1992, the assessment shall also include an amount sufficient to cover 60 percent of the costs to the pollution control agency of developing achieving, maintaining, and monitoring compliance with the acid deposition control plan required by standard adopted under sections 116.42 to 116.45, reprinting informational booklets on acid rain, and costs for additional research on the impacts of acid deposition on sensitive areas published under section 116.44, subdivision 1. This amount shall be certified to the board by the executive director of the pollution control agency. A work plan and budget shall be submitted annually to the board which shall take public testimony on the budget and work plan. The board must approve the work plan and budget before an assessment is levied. The work plan and budget must be submitted to the board by June 30, 1987. A work plan and budget shall then be submitted annually to the legislative commission on Minnesota resources for approval before an assessment is levied. Each share shall be determined as follows: (1) the ratio that the annual retail kilowatt-hour sales in the state of each utility bears to the annual total retail kilowatt-hour sales in the state of all ~~such~~ these utilities, multiplied by 0.667, plus (2) the ratio that the annual gross revenue from retail kilowatt-hour sales in the state of each utility bears to the annual total gross revenues from retail kilowatt-hour sales in the state of all ~~such~~ these utilities, multiplied by 0.333, as determined by the board. The assessment shall be credited to the special revenue fund and shall be paid to the state treasury within 30 days after receipt of the bill, which shall constitute notice of said assessment and demand of payment thereof. The total amount which may be assessed to the several utilities under authority of this subdivision shall not exceed the sum of the annual budget of the board for carrying out the purposes of this subdivision plus 60 percent of the annual budget of the pollution control agency for developing the plan required by achieving, maintaining, and monitoring compliance with the acid deposition control standard adopted under sections 116.42 to 116.45, reprinting informational booklets on acid rain, and for costs for additional research on the impacts of acid deposition on sensitive areas published under section 116.44, subdivision 1. The assessment for the second quarter of each fiscal year shall be adjusted to compensate for the amount by which actual expenditures by the board and the pollution control agency for the preceding fiscal year were more or less than the estimated expenditures previously assessed."

H. F. No. 290 was reported to the House.

Gruenes, Jennings and Clausnitzer moved to amend H. F. No. 290, the third engrossment, as follows:

Delete everything after the enacting clause and insert:

"Section 1. [148B.01] [CITATION.]

This chapter may be cited as the "mental health practitioners act of 1987."

Sec. 2. [148B.02] [DEFINITIONS.]

Subdivision 1. [TERMS.] As used in this chapter, the following terms have the meanings given them in this section.

Subd. 2. [BOARD.] "Board" means the board of mental health practitioners established in section 3.

Subd. 3. [MENTAL HEALTH PRACTITIONER.] "Mental health practitioner" or "practitioner" means any person who provides, for a remuneration, mental health services as defined in subdivision 4. This chapter does not apply to those persons holding valid licenses from the board of medical examiners under chapter 147, the board of nursing under sections 148.171 to 148.285, or the board of psychology under sections 148.88 to 148.98.

Subd. 4. [MENTAL HEALTH SERVICES.] "Mental health services" means the professional treatment, assessment, or counseling of a cognitive, behavioral, emotional, mental, or social dysfunction, including intrapersonal or interpersonal dysfunctions.

Subd. 5. [MARRIAGE AND FAMILY THERAPIST.] "Marriage and family therapist" means a mental health practitioner who is registered under section 20 as a marriage and family therapist.

Subd. 6. [SOCIAL WORKER.] "Social worker" means any person who is registered under section 21 as a social worker, whether or not the person provides mental health services.

Subd. 7. [MENTAL HEALTH CLIENT.] "Mental health client" or "client" means a person who receives the services of a mental health practitioner or registered social worker.

Sec. 3. [148B.03] [BOARD OF MENTAL HEALTH PRACTITIONERS.]

Subdivision 1. [COMPOSITION.] The board of mental health practitioners shall consist of 15 members. In its initial composition, the membership shall consist of:

(1) two marriage and family therapists whose qualifications are no less than those specified in section 20;

(2) two social workers whose qualifications shall be no less than those specified in section 21, one of whom must be employed by a public agency, and one of whom must be a private practitioner;

(3) two mental health practitioners who meet the criteria set forth in section 2, subdivision 3, and who do not meet the criteria to become registered as marriage and family therapists or social workers;

(4) one representative of a currently licensed health care facility;

(5) one representative of a third party payer of health care costs, other than a health maintenance organization;

(6) one representative of a health maintenance organization as defined in section 62D.02;

(7) one representative of a local unit of government; and

(8) five public members as defined in section 214.02.

Within one year of the effective date of rules adopted by the board to govern the registration of marriage and family therapists and social workers, members of the board specified in clause (1) shall be registered marriage and family therapists, and members of the board specified in clause (2) shall be registered social workers, registered master social workers, or registered clinical social workers. Within one year of the effective date of this chapter, members of the board specified in clause (3) shall be mental health practitioners other than those specified in clause (1) or (2) who have filed with the board pursuant to section 4, subdivision 1.

Subd. 2. [APPOINTMENT.] Members of the board shall be appointed by the governor and shall serve under the provisions of section 214.09.

Subd. 3. [BOARD ADMINISTRATION.] The board shall elect from among its number a chairperson and a vice-chairperson who shall each serve for one year, or until a successor is elected and qualifies. The members of the board shall have authority to administer oaths and the board, in session, to take testimony as to matters pertaining to the duties of the board. Eight members of the board shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business.

Subd. 4. [RULEMAKING.] The board shall adopt rules necessary to implement, administer, or enforce this chapter under chapter 14 and section 214.001, subdivisions 2 and 3. The board shall consult with the commissioner of health, the commissioner of human services, and the commissioner of employee relations in the development of rules. The board may not adopt rules restricting or prohibiting persons from providing mental health services on the basis of education, training, experience, or supervision.

The board may adopt by rule educational, training, or experiential criteria for the use of the titles marriage and family therapist, social worker, master social worker, and clinical social worker. The registration criteria may not restrict the scope of practice of any person so registered, nor may the board establish criteria for supervision of mental health practitioners, except as specifically provided in this chapter.

Subd. 5. [DESIGNATION.] The board of mental health practitioners shall be considered a health-related licensing board as defined in section 214.01, subdivision 2, and shall have all powers and duties granted to such boards in chapter 214.

Subd. 6. [REPORTS.] The board, in compiling the report required by section 214.07, shall present the information compiled according to the category of credentials held by practitioners, if any. The commissioner of health shall review this information under sections 214.01, 214.13, and 214.141 to determine the need for any additional regulation of mental health practitioners.

Sec. 4. [148B.04] [MANDATORY MENTAL HEALTH CLIENT PROTECTION SYSTEM.]

Subdivision 1. [FILING.] All persons providing mental health services as defined in section 2, subdivision 4, shall file with the state on a form provided by the board, their name, home and business address, telephone number, degrees held, if any, major field, and whether the degrees are from an accredited institution, how the institution is accredited, and any other relevant experience.

The board shall provide separate application forms for persons wishing to register as a marriage and family therapist or social worker, master social worker, and clinical social worker.

Any applicant for filing or registration who has practiced in any other state shall authorize, in writing, the licensing or regulatory entity in the other state or states to release to the board any information on complaints or disciplinary actions pending against that individual, as well as any final disciplinary actions taken against that individual. The board shall provide a form for this purpose.

The board shall review all filings and applications for registration and may reject any filings and applications if there is evidence of violations or any other failure to meet the provisions of sections 1 to 19, or in the case of applications for registration, failure to meet the provisions of section 20 or 21, as applicable.

Subd. 2. [CERTIFICATES.] The board of mental health practitioners shall issue an acknowledgement of filing to each mental health practitioner who files under subdivision 1, and relevant rules of the board, and who is determined by the board to be in compliance with sections 1 to 19. The board shall issue, in addition, a separate certificate of registration to those individuals who satisfy the requirements of section 20 or 21.

Subd. 3. [POSTING.] All mental health practitioners shall display, in a prominent location, a copy of the acknowledgment of filing issued by the board of mental health practitioners. Registered marriage and family therapists and social workers shall, in addition to posting the acknowledgement of filing, display the certificate of registration issued by the board.

Subd. 4. [PENALTIES.] Failure to file with the board, or supplying false or misleading information on the filing form, application for registration, or any accompanying statements shall constitute grounds for disciplinary action under section 9.

Subd. 5. [PROVISION OF MENTAL HEALTH SERVICES WITHOUT FILING.] It is unlawful for any person not filing with the board to provide mental health services in this state as defined in section 2, subdivision 4. Any person violating subdivision 1 is guilty of a gross misdemeanor.

Sec. 5. [148B.05] [CODE OF PROFESSIONAL CONDUCT.]

Subdivision 1. [PROHIBITED CONDUCT.] Notwithstanding any law to the contrary, the board may reject a filing or application, or may impose disciplinary action as described in section 9 against any mental health practitioner for failure to comply with the provisions of sections 1 to 21. The following conduct is prohibited and is grounds for disciplinary action:

(a) Conviction of a crime reasonably related to the provision of mental health services. Conviction, as used in this subdivision, includes a conviction of an offense which, if committed in this state, would be deemed a felony without regard to its designation elsewhere, or a criminal proceeding where a finding or verdict of guilty is made or returned but the adjudication of guilt is either withheld or not entered.

(b) Conviction of crimes against persons. For the purposes of this chapter, a crime against a person means violations of the following sections: sections 609.185; 609.19; 609.195; 609.20; 609.205; 609.21; 609.215; 609.221; 609.222; 609.223; 609.224; 609.23; 609.231; 609.235; 609.24; 609.245; 609.25; 609.255; 609.265; 609.26, subdivision 1, clause (1) or (2); 609.342; 609.343; 609.344; 609.345; 609.365; 609.498, subdivision 1; 609.50, clause (1); 609.561; 609.562; and 609.595.

(c) Revocation, suspension, restriction, limitation, or other disciplinary action against the mental health practitioner's license, certificate, registration, or right of practice in another state or jurisdiction, for offenses that would be subject to disciplinary action in this state, or failure to report to the board that charges regarding the person's license, certificate, registration, or right of practice have been brought in another state or jurisdiction.

(d) Advertising that is false or misleading.

(e) Filing with the board false or misleading statements of credentials, training, or experience.

(f) Engaging in any unprofessional conduct; conduct likely to deceive, defraud, or harm the public; or demonstrating a willful or careless disregard for the health, welfare, or safety of a client; or any other practice that is professionally incompetent in that it may create unnecessary danger to any client's life, health, or safety, in any of which cases, proof of actual injury need not be established.

(g) Adjudication as mentally incompetent, or as a person who has a psychopathic personality as defined in section 526.09 or who is dangerous to himself or herself, or adjudication pursuant to chapter 253B as chemically dependent, mentally ill, mentally retarded, or mentally ill and dangerous to the public.

(h) Inability to provide mental health services with reasonable skill and safety to clients by reason of physical, mental, or emotional illness; drunkenness; or use of legend drugs, chemicals, controlled substances, or any other similar materials or mood-altering substances.

(i) Revealing a privileged communication from, or relating to, a client except when otherwise required or permitted by law.

(j) Improper management of client records, including failure to maintain adequate client records, to comply with a client's request made under section 144.335 or to furnish a client record or report required by law.

(k) Splitting fees or promising to pay a portion of a fee to any other mental health practitioner other than for services rendered by the other mental health practitioner to the client.

(l) Engaging in abusive or fraudulent billing practices, including violations of the federal Medicare and Medicaid laws or state medical assistance laws.

(m) Addiction to, or the habitual use of, a drug, intoxicant, chemical, or other mood-altering substance.

(n) Engaging in sexual contact with a client or former client as defined in section 148A.01.

(o) Failure to make reports as required by section 6, or cooperate with an investigation of the board as required by section 8.

(p) Obtaining money, property, or services from a client, other than reasonable fees for services provided to the client, through the use of undue influence, harassment, duress, deception, or fraud.

(q) Undertaking or continuing a professional relationship with a client in which the objectivity of the practitioner would be impaired due to a familial, social, emotional, economic, supervisory, or political interpersonal relationship.

(r) Undertaking or continuing a professional relationship with a client in which objectivity or effectiveness is or would be impaired due to divorce, grief reaction, severe health problem, or other situation affecting the practitioner.

(s) Failure to provide the client with a copy of the client bill of rights, or violation of any provision of the client bill of rights.

Subd. 2. [DISCLOSURE.] Subject to the exceptions listed in this subdivision, all communications or information received by or disclosed to the board relating to any person or matter subject to its regulatory jurisdiction, and all records of any action or proceedings thereon, except a final decision of the board, are confidential and privileged and any disciplinary hearing shall be closed to the public.

(a) Upon application of a party in a proceeding before the board under section 17, the board shall produce and permit the inspection and copying, by or on behalf of the moving party, of any designated documents or papers relevant to the proceedings, in accordance with the provisions of rule 34, Minnesota rules of civil procedure.

(b) If the board imposes disciplinary measures of any kind, the name and business address of the mental health practitioner, the nature of the misconduct, and the action taken by the board are public data.

(c) The board shall exchange information with other licensing boards, agencies, or departments within the state, as required under section 214.10, subdivision 8, paragraph (d), and may release information in the reports required under sections 3, subdivision 6, and 14.

Subd. 3. [EFFECTIVE DATES.] A suspension, revocation, condition, limitation, qualification or restriction of a practitioner's right to practice shall be in effect pending determination of an appeal unless the court, upon petition and for good cause shown, shall otherwise order.

The right to provide mental health services is automatically suspended if (1) a guardian of the person of a mental health practitioner is appointed by order of a probate court pursuant to sections 525.54 to 525.612, for reasons other than the minority of the mental health practitioner; or (2) the mental health practitioner is committed by order of a probate court pursuant to chapter 253B or sections 526.09 to 526.11. The right to provide mental health services remains suspended until the mental health practitioner is restored to capacity by a court and, upon petition by the mental health practitioner, the suspension is terminated by the board after a hearing.

Subd. 4. [CONDITIONS ON REISSUED RIGHT OF PRACTICE.] In its discretion, the board may restore and reissue permission to provide to practice mental health services, but as a condition thereof may impose any disciplinary or corrective measure which it might originally have imposed.

Subd. 5. [TEMPORARY SUSPENSION OF RIGHT OF PRACTICE.] In addition to any other remedy provided by law, the board may, without a hearing, temporarily suspend the right of practice of a mental health practitioner if the board finds that the practitioner has violated a statute or rule which the board is empowered to enforce and continued practice by the practitioner would create a serious risk of harm to the public. The suspension shall take effect upon written notice to the practitioner, specifying the statute or rule violated. The suspension shall remain in effect until the board issues a final order in the matter after a hearing. At the time it issues the suspension notice, the board shall schedule a disciplinary hearing to be held pursuant to the administrative procedure act. The practitioner shall be provided with at least 20 days notice of any hearing held pursuant to this subdivision. The hearing shall be scheduled to begin no later than 30 days after the issuance of the suspension order.

Subd. 6. [EVIDENCE.] In disciplinary actions alleging a violation of subdivision 1, paragraph (a), (b), (c), or (d), a copy of the judgment or proceeding under the seal of the court administrator or of the administrative agency which entered the same shall be admissible into evidence without further authentication and shall constitute prima facie evidence of the contents thereof.

Subd. 7. [MENTAL EXAMINATION; ACCESS TO MEDICAL DATA.] (a) If the board has probable cause to believe that a practitioner comes under subdivision 1, paragraph (h), (i), or (n), it may direct the practitioner to submit to a mental or physical examination or chemical dependency evaluation. For the purpose of this subdivision every practitioner regulated under this chapter is deemed to have consented to submit to a mental or physical examination or chemical dependency evaluation when directed in writing by the board and further to have waived all objections to the admissibility of the examining physicians', psychologists', or mental health practitioners' testimony or examination reports on the ground that the same constitute a privileged communication. Failure of a practitioner to submit to an examination when directed constitutes an admission of the allegations against the practitioner, unless the failure was due to circumstance beyond the practitioner's control, in which case a default and final order may be entered without the taking of testimony or presentation of evidence. A practitioner affected under this paragraph shall at reasonable intervals be given an opportunity to demonstrate that the practitioner can resume the provision of mental health services with reasonable safety to clients.

In any proceeding under this paragraph, neither the record of proceedings nor the orders entered by the board shall be used against a practitioner in any other proceeding.

(b) In addition to ordering a physical or mental examination, the board may, notwithstanding section 13.42, 144.651, or any other law limiting access to medical or other health data, obtain medical data and health records relating to a practitioner or applicant without the practitioner's or applicant's consent if the board has probable cause to believe that a practitioner comes under subdivision 1, paragraph (g), (h), or (m). The medical data may be requested from a provider, as defined in section 144.335, subdivision 1, paragraph (b), an insurance company, or a government agency, including the department of human services. A provider, insurance company, or government agency shall comply with any written request of the board under this subdivision and is not liable in any action for damages for releasing the data requested by the board if the data are released pursuant to a written request under this subdivision, unless the information is false and the provider giving the information knew, or had reason to believe, the information was false. Information obtained under this subdivision is classified as private under sections 13.01 to 13.87.

Subd. 8. [TAX CLEARANCE CERTIFICATE.] (a) In addition to the provisions of subdivision 1, the board may not issue or renew a filing if the commissioner of revenue notifies the board and the practitioner or applicant for a filing that the practitioner or applicant owes the state delinquent taxes in the amount of $500 or more. The board may issue or renew the filing only if (1) the commissioner of revenue issues a tax clearance certificate and (2) the commissioner of revenue or the practitioner or applicant forwards a copy of the clearance to the board. The commissioner of revenue may issue a clearance certificate only if the practitioner or applicant does not owe the state any uncontested delinquent taxes.

(b) For purposes of this subdivision, the following terms have the meanings given.

(1) "Taxes" are all taxes payable to the commissioner of revenue, including penalties and interest due on those taxes.

(2) "Delinquent taxes" do not include a tax liability if (i) an administrative or court action that contests the amount or validity of the liability has been filed or served, (ii) the appeal period to contest the tax liability has not expired, or (iii) the practitioner or applicant has entered into a payment agreement to pay the liability and is current with the payments.

(c) In lieu of the notice and hearing requirements of section 17, when a practitioner or applicant is required to obtain a clearance certificate under this subdivision, a contested case hearing must be held if the practitioner or applicant requests a hearing in writing to the commissioner of revenue within 30 days of the date of the notice provided in paragraph (a). The hearing must be held within 45 days of the date the commissioner of revenue refers the case to the office of administrative hearings. Notwithstanding any law to the contrary, the practitioner or applicant must be served with 20 days' notice in writing specifying the time and place of the hearing and the allegations against the practitioner or applicant. The notice may be served personally or by mail.

(d) The board shall require all practitioners or applicants to provide their social security number and Minnesota business identification number on all filing applications. Upon request of the commissioner of revenue, the board must provide to the commissioner of revenue a list of all practitioners and applicants, including the name and address, social security number, and business identification number. The commissioner of revenue may request a list of the practitioners and applicants no more than once each calendar year. Notwithstanding sections 290.61 and 297A.43, the commissioner of revenue may release information necessary to accomplish the purpose of this subdivision.

Sec. 6. [148B.06] [REPORTING OBLIGATIONS.]

Subdivision 1. [PERMISSION TO REPORT.] A person who has knowledge of any conduct constituting grounds for discipline under sections 1 to 21 may report the violation to the board.

Subd. 2. [INSTITUTIONS.] Any state agency, political subdivision, agency of a local unit of government, private agency, hospital, clinic, prepaid medical plan, or other health care institution or organization located in this state shall report to the board any action taken by the agency, institution or organization or any of its administrators or medical or other committees to revoke, suspend, restrict, or condition a practitioner's privilege to practice or treat patients or clients in the institution, or as part of the organization, any denial of privileges, or any other disciplinary action. The institution or organization shall also report the resignation of any practitioners prior to the conclusion of any disciplinary proceeding, or prior to the commencement of formal charges but after the practitioner had knowledge that formal charges were contemplated or in preparation. No report shall be required of a practitioner voluntarily limiting the practice of the practitioner at a hospital provided that the practitioner notifies all hospitals at which the practitioner has privileges of the voluntary limitation and the reasons for it.

Subd. 3. [PROFESSIONAL SOCIETIES.] A state or local professional society for marriage and family therapists, social workers, or other mental health practitioners shall report to the board any termination, revocation, or suspension of membership or any other disciplinary action taken against a mental health practitioner. If the society has received a complaint which might be grounds for discipline under sections 1 to 21 against a member practitioner on which it has not taken any disciplinary action, the society shall report the complaint and the reason why it has not taken action on it or shall direct the complainant to the board of mental health practitioners.

Subd. 4. [MENTAL HEALTH PRACTITIONERS AND LICENSED PROFESSIONALS.] A mental health practitioner or a licensed health professional shall report to the board personal knowledge of any conduct which the practitioner or professional reasonably believes constitutes grounds for disciplinary action under sections 1 to 21 by any practitioner, including any conduct indicating that the practitioner may be medically incompetent, or may have engaged in unprofessional conduct or may be medically or physically unable to engage safely in the provision of mental health services. No report shall be required if the information was obtained in the course of a practitioner-client relationship if the client is another practitioner and the treating practitioner successfully counsels the other practitioner to limit or withdraw from practice to the extent required by the impairment.

Subd. 5. [INSURERS.] Four times each year as prescribed by the board, each insurer authorized to sell insurance described in section 60A.06, subdivision 1, clause (13), and providing professional liability insurance to mental health practitioners, or the medical joint underwriting association under chapter 62F, shall submit to the board a report concerning the practitioners against whom malpractice settlements or awards have been made to the plaintiff. The report must contain at least the following information:

(1) the total number of malpractice settlements or awards made to the plaintiff;

(2) the date the malpractice settlements or awards to the plaintiff were made;

(3) the allegations contained in the claim or complaint leading to the settlements or awards made to the plaintiff;

(4) the dollar amount of each malpractice settlement or award;

(5) the regular address of the practice of the practitioner against whom an award was made or with whom a settlement was made; and

(6) the name of the practitioner against whom an award was made or with whom a settlement was made.

The insurance company shall, in addition to the above information, report to the board any information it possesses which tends to substantiate a charge that a practitioner may have engaged in conduct violating sections 1 to 21.

Subd. 6. [COURTS.] The court administrator of district court or any other court of competent jurisdiction shall report to the board any judgment or other determination of the court which adjudges or includes a finding that a practitioner is mentally ill, mentally incompetent, guilty of a felony, or guilty of a violation of federal or state narcotics laws or controlled substances act, guilty of an abuse or fraud under Medicare or Medicaid, appoints a guardian of the practitioner pursuant to sections 525.54 to 525.61 or commits a practitioner pursuant to chapter 253B or sections 526.09 to 526.11.

Subd. 7. [SELF-REPORTING.] A practitioner shall report to the board any personal action which would require that a report be filed with the board by any person, health care facility, business, or organization pursuant to subdivisions 2 to 6.

Subd. 8. [DEADLINES; FORMS.] Reports required by subdivisions 2 to 7 must be submitted not later than 30 days after the occurrence of the reportable event or transaction. The board may provide forms for the submission of reports required by this section, may require that reports be submitted on the forms provided, and may adopt rules necessary to assure prompt and accurate reporting.

Subd. 9. [SUBPOENAS.] The board may issue subpoenas for the production of any reports required by subdivisions 2 to 7 or any related documents.

Sec. 7. [148B.07] [IMMUNITY.]

Subdivision 1. [REPORTING.] Any person, health care facility, business, or organization is immune from civil liability or criminal prosecution for submitting a report to the board pursuant to section 6 or for otherwise reporting to the board violations or alleged violations of section 5 or 13. All such reports are confidential and absolutely privileged communications.

Subd. 2. [INVESTIGATION.] Members of the board and persons employed by the board or engaged in the investigation of violations and in the preparation and management of charges of violations of sections 1 to 21 on behalf of the board are immune from civil liability and criminal prosecution for any actions, transactions, or publications in the execution of, or relating to, their duties under sections 1 to 21.

Sec. 8. [148B.08] [PRACTITIONER COOPERATION.]

A practitioner who is the subject of an investigation by or on behalf of the board shall cooperate fully with the investigation. Cooperation includes responding fully and promptly to any question raised by or on behalf of the board relating to the subject of the investigation and providing copies of client records, as reasonably requested by the board, to assist the board in its investigation. The board shall pay for copies requested. If the board does not have a written consent from a client permitting access to the client's records, the practitioner shall delete any data in the record which identifies the client before providing it to the board. The board shall maintain any records obtained pursuant to this section as investigative data pursuant to chapter 13.

Sec. 9. [148B.09] [DISCIPLINARY ACTIONS.]

Subdivision 1. [FORMS OF DISCIPLINARY ACTION.] When the board finds that a practitioner has violated a provision or provisions of sections 1 to 21, it may do one or more of the following:

- (1) deny or reject the filing or application for registration;
- (2) revoke the right to practice or the right to the use of a registered title;
- (3) suspend the right to practice or the right to the use of a registered title;
- (4) impose limitations or conditions on the practitioner's provision of mental health services, the imposition of rehabilitation requirements, or the requirement of practice under supervision;
- (5) impose a civil penalty not exceeding $10,000 for each separate violation, the amount of the civil penalty to be fixed so as to deprive the practitioner of any economic advantage gained by reason of the violation charged or to reimburse the board for all costs of the investigation and proceeding;
- (6) order the practitioner to provide unremunerated professional service under supervision at a designated public hospital, clinic, or other health care institution; or

(7) censure or reprimand the practitioner.

Subd. 2. [PROCEDURES.] The board shall adopt a written statement of internal operating procedures for receiving and investigating complaints reviewing misconduct cases, and imposing disciplinary actions.

Subd. 3. [MANDATORY SUSPENSION OR REVOCATION OF RIGHT OF PRACTICE.] The board shall suspend or revoke the right of a practitioner to provide mental health services, and the right to use any registered title, for violations of section 5, subdivision 1, paragraphs (a), (b), and (n).

Sec. 10. [148B.10] [DISCIPLINARY RECORD ON JUDICIAL REVIEW.]

Upon judicial review of any board disciplinary action taken under sections 1 to 21, the reviewing court shall seal the administrative record, except for the board's final decision, and shall not make the administrative record available to the public.

Sec. 11. [148B.11] [PRACTITIONER ACCOUNTABILITY.]

Subdivision 1. [INVESTIGATION.] The board shall maintain and keep current a file containing the reports and complaints filed against practitioners in the state. Each complaint filed with the board pursuant to section 214.10, subdivision 1, shall be investigated according to section 214.10, subdivision 2.

Whenever the files maintained by the board show that a malpractice settlement or award to the plaintiff has been made against a practitioner as reported by insurers pursuant to section 6, the executive director of the board shall notify the board and the board may authorize a review of the practitioner's practice.

Subd. 2. [ATTORNEY GENERAL INVESTIGATES.] When the board initiates a review of a practitioner's practice it shall notify the attorney general who shall investigate the matter in the same manner as provided in section 214.10. If an investigation is to be made, the attorney general shall notify the practitioner, and, if the incident being investigated occurred there, the administrator and chief of staff at the health care facilities or clinics in which the practitioner serves, if applicable.

Subd. 3. [ACCESS TO RECORDS.] The board shall have access to records of a client treated by the practitioner under review if the client signs a written consent permitting such access. If no consent form has been signed, the hospital, clinic, or practitioner shall first delete data in the record which identifies the client before providing it to the board.

Sec. 12. [148B.12] [MALPRACTICE HISTORY.]

Subdivision 1. [SUBMISSION.] Practitioners who have previously practiced in another state shall submit with their filing the following information:

(1) number, date, and disposition of any malpractice settlement or award made to the plaintiff or other claimant relating to the quality of mental health services provided by the practitioner; and

(2) number, date, and disposition of any civil litigations or arbitrations relating to the quality of mental health services provided by the practitioner in which the party complaining against the practitioner prevailed or otherwise received a favorable decision or order.

Subd. 2. [BOARD ACTION.] The board shall give due consideration to the information submitted under this section. An applicant who willfully submits incorrect information shall be subject to disciplinary action under section 9.

Sec. 13. [148B.13] [MENTAL HEALTH CLIENT BILL OF RIGHTS.]

Subdivision 1. [SCOPE.] All mental health practitioners other than those providing services in a facility regulated under section 144.651 shall provide to each client prior to providing treatment a written copy of the mental health client bill of rights. Reasonable accommodations shall be made for those clients who cannot read or who have communication impairments and those who do not read or speak English. The mental health client bill of rights shall include the following:

(a) The name, title, business address, and telephone number of the mental health practitioner.

(b) The degrees, training, experience, or other qualifications of the mental health practitioner.

(c) The name, business address, and telephone number of the mental health practitioner's supervisor, if any.

(d) Notice that a client has the right to file a complaint with the practitioner's supervisor, if any, and the procedure for filing complaints.

(e) The name, address, and telephone number of the board of mental health practitioners and notice that a client may file complaints with the board.

(f) The practitioner's fees per unit of service, the practitioner's method of billing for such fees, the names of any insurance companies that have agreed to reimburse the practitioner, or health maintenance organizations with whom the practitioner contracts to provide service, whether the practitioner accepts Medicare, medical assistance, or general assistance medical care, and whether the provider is willing to accept partial payment, or to waive payment, and in what circumstances.

(g) A statement that the client has a right to reasonable notice of changes in services or charges.

(h) A brief summary, in plain language, of the theoretical approach used by the therapist in treating patients.

(i) Notice that the client has a right to complete and current information concerning the practitioner's diagnosis and recommended course of treatment, including the expected duration of treatment.

(j) A statement that clients may expect courteous treatment and to be free from verbal, physical, or sexual abuse by the therapist. For the purposes of this section, abuse has the meaning given to it in section 144.651.

(k) A statement that client records and transactions with the therapist shall be confidential, unless release of these records is authorized in writing by the client, or otherwise provided by law.

(l) The right to be allowed access to records and written information from records in accordance with section 144.335.

(m) A statement that other services may be available in the community, including where information concerning such services may be available.

(n) A statement that the client has the right to choose freely among available providers, and to change providers after services have begun, within the limits of health insurance, medical assistance, or other health programs.

(o) A statement that the client has a right to coordinated transfer when there will be a change in the provider of services.

(p) A statement that the client has a right to receive mental health services according to a suitable and up-to-date plan, and to take an active part in creating and changing the plan and evaluating care and services.

(q) A statement that the client may refuse services or treatment, unless otherwise provided by law.

(r) A statement that the client may assert the client's rights without retaliation.

Subd. 2. [ACKNOWLEDGMENT BY CLIENT.] Prior to the provision of any service, the client must sign a written statement attesting that the client has received the client bill of rights.

Sec. 14. [148B.14] [PUBLICATION OF DISCIPLINARY ACTIONS.]

At least annually, the board shall publish and release to the public a description of all disciplinary measures taken by the board. The publication must include, for each disciplinary measure taken, the name and business address of the practitioner, the nature of the misconduct, and the disciplinary measure taken by the board.

Sec. 15. [148B.15] [EVIDENCE OF PAST SEXUAL CONDUCT.]

In a proceeding for the suspension or revocation of the right to practice or other disciplinary action for unethical or unprofessional conduct involving sexual contact with a client or former client, the board or administrative law judge shall not consider evidence of the client's previous sexual conduct nor shall any reference to this conduct be made during the proceedings or in the findings, except by motion of the complainant, unless during the proceedings or in the findings, except by motion of the complainant, unless the evidence would be admissible under the applicable provisions of section 609.347, subdivision 3.

Sec. 16. [148B.16] [DISPUTE RESOLUTION.]

Subdivision 1. [ARBITRATION.] The board shall encourage mental health practitioners to submit all fee disputes to binding arbitration.

Subd. 2. [MEDIATION.] The board shall encourage mental health practitioners to submit all disputes which are not related to violations of the code of professional conduct set forth in section 5 to voluntary mediation.

Sec. 17. [148B.17] [CONTESTED CASES.]

In any disciplinary proceeding under section 9, the provisions of chapters 14 and 214 shall apply.

Sec. 18. [148B.18] [FEES.]

The board shall by rule establish fees for filings, applications for registration, and renewals of filings or applications for registration such that the total fees collected by the board will as closely as possible equal anticipated expenditures during the fiscal biennium, as provided in section 16A.128.

The fees established under this section shall include an amount necessary to recover, over a five-year period, expenditures of the board prior to the effective date of rules establishing fees.

Fees must be credited to the special revenue fund.

Sec. 19. [148B.19] [RENEWALS.]

Notwithstanding any law to the contrary, the board shall adopt rules providing for the renewal of filings and certificates of registration. The rules shall specify the period of time for which a filing or certificate of registration is valid, procedures and information required for the renewal, and renewal fees to be paid under section 18.

Sec. 20. [148B.20] [REGISTRATION OF MARRIAGE AND FAMILY THERAPISTS.]

Subdivision 1. [PROTECTION OF TITLE.] A person shall not use the title of marriage and family therapist, marriage and family counselor, marriage and family advisor, or marriage and family consultant if the person has not met the requirements of this section.

Subd. 2. [ADVISORY COUNCIL OF MARRIAGE AND FAMILY THERAPY.] (a) In its initial composition, the advisory council shall consist of (1) three persons who meet the criteria in subdivision 3, one of whom is also a member of the board of mental health practitioners, (2) three public members appointed by the board of mental health practitioners, and (3) one representative of a third party payer of health care costs.

(b) Within one year of the effective date of rules adopted by the board of mental health practitioners to govern the registration of marriage and family therapists, members of the advisory council specified in paragraph (a), clause (1) shall be registered marriage and family therapists.

(c) The advisory council of marriage and family therapy shall advise the board of mental health practitioners on rules to establish criteria for use of the title of marriage and family therapist. The advisory council shall advise the board of mental health practitioners as to whether an applicant for registration as a marriage and family therapist meets the criteria established in this section and relevant rules of the board of mental health practitioners.

Subd. 3. [CRITERIA FOR REGISTRATION AS A MARRIAGE AND FAMILY THERAPIST.] To be registered as a marriage and family therapist, or a closely related title, an applicant must provide to the board evidence that he or she holds a masters or doctoral degree in marriage and family therapy from an accredited institution as determined by the board of mental health practitioners in rule, or a masters or doctoral degree in an allied mental health profession as defined by the board of mental health practitioners in rule.

Subd. 4. [SUSPENSION, REVOCATION OF RIGHT TO USE TITLE.] The board of mental health practitioners may suspend or revoke the right to use the title of marriage and family therapist for failure to maintain compliance with the criteria established in this section and in relevant rules of the board of mental health practitioners for registration as a marriage and family therapist. The board may proceed jointly to suspend or revoke both the right to provide mental health services and the right to use of the title marriage and family therapist. Suspension or revocation of the right to use the title marriage and family therapist is automatic upon suspension or revocation of the right to provide mental health services by the board of mental health practitioners.

Subd. 5. [MANDATORY REPORTING.] The advisory council of marriage and family therapy shall report all cases of alleged or suspected violations of the mental health practitioners act to the board of mental health practitioners.

Sec. 21. [148B.21] [REGISTRATION OF SOCIAL WORKERS.]

Subdivision 1. [PROTECTION OF TITLE.] A person shall not use the title of social worker, master social worker, or clinical social worker, except in accordance with this section and relevant rules of the board of mental health practitioners.

Subd. 2. [ADVISORY COUNCIL OF SOCIAL WORK.] (a) In its initial composition, the advisory council shall consist of (1) three persons who meet the criteria in subdivision 3, one of whom shall be a member of the board of mental health practitioners, one of whom shall be employed by a public agency, and one of whom shall hold a degree related to social work as defined by the board of mental health practitioners in rule, (2) three public members appointed by the board of mental health practitioners, (3) one representative of a third party payer of health care costs, and (4) two representatives of a local unit of government.

(b) Within one year of the effective date of rules adopted by the board of mental health practitioners to govern the registration of social workers, members of the advisory council specified in paragraph (a), clause (1) shall be registered social workers.

(c) The advisory council of social work shall advise the board of mental health practitioners on rules to establish criteria for the use of the titles of social worker, master social worker, and clinical social worker. The advisory council shall also advise the board of mental health practitioners as to whether an applicant for registration as a social worker meets the criteria in this section and relevant rules established by the board of mental health practitioners.

Subd. 3. [CRITERIA.] (a) To be registered as a social worker, an applicant must provide satisfactory evidence that the applicant has received a baccalaureate degree with a major in social work or a related field from an accredited college or university as determined by the board of mental health practitioners in rule.

(b) To be registered as a master social worker, the applicant must provide satisfactory evidence that the applicant:

(1) has received a masters or doctoral degree in social work from an accredited college or university; and

(2) has engaged in supervised social work practice for two years or 4,000 hours after receiving the masters or doctoral degree in social work.

(c) To be registered as a clinical social worker, the applicant must provide satisfactory evidence that the applicant:

(1) has received a masters or doctoral degree in social work from an accredited college or university that includes an advanced concentration in clinically oriented course work as specified by the board in rule;

(2) has successfully completed a supervised clinical field placement at the graduate or post-graduate level; and

(3) has practiced clinical social work as defined by the board in rule for at least two years or 4,000 hours after receiving the masters or doctoral degree in social work.

Subd. 4. [SUSPENSION, REVOCATION OF TITLE.] The board of mental health practitioners may revoke or suspend the right to use the title of social worker, master social worker, or clinical social worker for failure to maintain compliance with the criteria established in this section and in relevant rules of the board of mental health practitioners for registration as a social worker, master social worker, or clinical social worker. The board may proceed jointly to suspend or revoke both the right to provide mental health services and the right to use the title social worker, master social worker, or clinical social worker. Suspension or revocation of the right to use these titles is automatic upon the suspension or revocation of the right to provide mental health services by the board of mental health practitioners.

Subd. 5. [MANDATORY REPORTING.] The advisory board on social work shall report all alleged or suspected violations of the mental health practitioners act to the board of mental health practitioners.

Sec. 22. [144B.22] [ADVISORY COUNCILS PERMANENT.]

Notwithstanding the provisions of section 15.059, subdivision 5, the advisory council of marriage and family therapy and the advisory council of social work shall be permanent.

Advisory council members shall receive compensation under section 15.059, subdivision 3.

Sec. 23. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 13.41, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [DEFINITION.] As used in this section "licensing agency" means any board, department or agency of this state which is given the statutory authority to issue professional or other types of licenses, including the board of mental health practitioners, except the various agencies primarily administered by the commissioner of human services. Data pertaining to persons or agencies licensed or registered under authority of the commissioner of human services shall be administered pursuant to section 13.46, subdivision 4.

Sec. 24. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 144.335, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [DEFINITIONS.] For the purposes of this section, the following terms have the meanings given them:

(a) "Patient" means a natural person who has received health care services from a provider for treatment of a medical, psychiatric or mental condition, or a person the patient designates in writing as a representative. Except for minors who have received health care services pursuant to sections 144.341 to 144.347, in the case of a minor, "patient" includes a parent or guardian, or a person acting as a parent or guardian in the absence of a parent or guardian.

(b) "Provider" means (1) any person who furnishes health care services and is licensed to furnish the services pursuant to chapters 147, 148, 150A, 151 or 153; a mental health practitioner under chapter 148B; and (2) a health care facility licensed pursuant to this chapter or chapter 144A.

Sec. 25. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 148A.01, subdivision 5, is amended to read:

Subd. 5. [PSYCHOTHERAPIST.] "Psychotherapist" means a physician, psychologist, nurse, chemical dependency counselor, social worker, member of the clergy, mental health practitioner, or other person, whether or not licensed by the state, who performs or purports to perform psychotherapy.

Sec. 26. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 214.01, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. "Health-related licensing board" means the board of examiners of nursing home administrators established pursuant to section 144A.19, the board of medical examiners created pursuant to section 147.01, the board of nursing created pursuant to section 148.181, the board of chiropractic examiners established pursuant to section 148.02, the board of optometry established pursuant to section 148.52, the board of psychology established pursuant to section 148.90, the board of mental health practitioners established pursuant to section 3, the board of dentistry established pursuant to section 150A.02, the board of pharmacy established pursuant to section 151.02, the board of podiatry established pursuant to section 153.02, and the board of veterinary medicine, established pursuant to section 156.01.

Sec. 27. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 609.341, subdivision 17, is amended to read:

Subd. 17. "Psychotherapist" means a physician, psychologist, nurse, chemical dependency counselor, social worker, clergy, mental health practitioner, or other person, whether or not licensed by the state, who performs or purports to perform psychotherapy.

Sec. 28. [EMERGENCY RULES.]

The board may adopt emergency rules under sections 14.29 to 14.385 to carry out the provisions of this chapter, including adopting emergency rules for implementing and administering sections 20 and 21. The authority to use sections 14.29 to 14.385 will expire on December 31, 1988.

Sec. 29. [APPROPRIATION.]

$835,000 is appropriated from the special revenue fund to the board for costs of administering sections 1 to 27.

Sec. 30. [EFFECTIVE DATE.]

Sections 4 to 27 are effective July 1, 1988."

REPORTS OF STANDING COMMITTEES

Anderson, G., from the Committee on Appropriations to which was referred:

S. F. No. 63, A bill for an act relating to motor vehicles; providing that passenger automobile license plates be issued for a six-year period; providing for license plate replacement fees; amending Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 168.12, subdivisions 1, 2a, and 5; repealing Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 168.12, subdivisions 3 and 4.

Reported the same back with the following amendments:

Delete everything after the enacting clause and insert:

"Section 1. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 168.011, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 35. [LIMOUSINE.] "Limousine" means a passenger automobile for hire, other than a taxicab or a van, that is regularly engaged in the business of transporting persons and that has a rear seating capacity of not more than nine passengers.

Sec. 2. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 168.12, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [NUMBER PLATES; VISIBILITY, PERIODS OF ISSUANCE.] The registrar, upon the approval and payment, shall issue to the applicant the number plates required by law, bearing the state name and the number assigned. The number assigned may be a combination of a letter or sign with figures. The color of the plates and the color of the abbreviation of the state name and the number assigned shall be in marked contrast. The plates shall be lettered, spaced, or distinguished to suitably indicate the registration of the vehicle according to the rules of the registrar, and when a vehicle is registered on the basis of total gross weight, the plates issued shall clearly indicate by letters or other suitable insignia the maximum gross weight for which the tax has been paid. These number plates shall be so treated as to be at least 100 times brighter than the conventional painted number plates. When properly mounted on an unlighted vehicle, these number plates, when viewed from a vehicle equipped with standard headlights, shall be visible for a distance of not less than 1,500 feet and readable for a distance of not less than 110 feet. The registrar shall issue these number plates for the following periods:

(1) Number plates issued pursuant to sections 168.27, subdivisions 16 and 17, and 168.053 shall be for a one-year period;

(2) New number plates issued pursuant to section 168.012, subdivision 1, shall be issued to a vehicle for as long as it is owned by the exempt agency and shall not be transferable from one vehicle to another but may be transferred with the vehicle from one tax exempt agency to another;

(3) Plates issued for passenger automobiles as defined in section 168.011, subdivision 7, ~~motorcycles, motorized bicycles, and motor scooters~~ shall be issued for a six-year period starting not later than October 1986, or until the next general reissuance of plates every six years thereafter, whichever is less; and All plates issued under this paragraph must be replaced if they are six years old or older at the time of annual registration or will become so during the registration period.

(4) Plates for any vehicle not specified in clauses paragraphs (1), (2) and (3), except for trailers as hereafter provided, shall be issued for the life of the vehicle. Beginning with number plates issued for the year 1981, plates issued for trailers with a total gross weight of 3,000 pounds or less shall be issued for the life of the trailer and shall be not more than seven inches in length and four inches in width.

In a year in which plates are not issued, the registrar shall issue for each registration a tab or sticker to designate the year of registration. This tab or sticker shall show the calendar year or years for which issued, and is valid only for that period. The number plates, number tabs, or stickers issued for a motor vehicle may not be transferred to another motor vehicle during the period for which it is issued.

Notwithstanding any other provision of this subdivision, number plates issued to a vehicle which is used for behind-the-wheel instruction in a driver education course in a public school may be transferred to another vehicle used for the same purpose without payment of any additional fee. The registrar shall be notified of each transfer of number plates under this paragraph, and may prescribe a form for notification.

Sec. 3. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 168.12, subdivision 2a, is amended to read:

Subd. 2a. [PERSONALIZED LICENSE PLATES.] Personalized license plates must be issued to an applicant for registration of a passenger automobile, van, or pickup truck, motorcycle, or self-propelled recreational vehicle, upon compliance with the laws of this state relating to registration of the vehicle and upon payment of a one-time fee of $100 in addition to the registration tax required by law for the vehicle. The commissioner shall designate a replacement fee for personalized license plates that is calculated to cover the cost of replacement. This fee is required whenever the personalized license plates are required to be replaced by law. In lieu of the numbers assigned as provided in subdivision 1, personalized license plates must have imprinted on them a series of not more than ~~six~~ seven numbers and letters in any combination. When an applicant has once obtained personalized plates, the applicant shall have a prior claim for similar personalized plates in the next succeeding year that plates are issued if application is made for them at least 30 days before the first date that registration can be renewed. The commissioner of public safety shall adopt rules in the manner provided by chapter 14, regulating the issuance and transfer of personalized license plates. No words or combination of letters placed on personalized license plates may be used for commercial advertising, be of an obscene, indecent, or immoral nature, or be of a nature that would offend public morals or decency. The call signals or letters of a radio or television station are not commercial advertising for the purposes of this subdivision.

Notwithstanding the provisions of subdivision 1, personalized license plates issued under this subdivision may be transferred to another motor vehicle owned or jointly owned by the applicant, upon the payment of a fee of $5, which must be paid into the state treasury and credited to the highway user tax distribution fund. The registrar may by rule provide a form for notification.

Notwithstanding any law to the contrary, if the personalized license plates are lost, stolen, or destroyed, the applicant may apply and shall receive duplicate license plates bearing the same combination of letters and numbers as the former personalized plates upon the payment of a $5 fee.

The fee prescribed for personalized license plates must be paid only in those years in which the number plate itself is issued, and must not be payable in a year in which a year plate, tab, or sticker is issued in lieu of a number plate.

Fees from the sale of permanent and duplicate personalized license plates must be paid into the state treasury and credited to the highway user tax distribution fund.

Sec. 4. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 168.12, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 2d. [VIETNAM ERA VETERANS; SPECIAL LICENSE PLATE.] The registrar shall issue special license plates to an applicant who served in the active military service in a branch of the armed forces of the United States after July 1, 1961, and before July 1, 1978, was discharged under honorable conditions and is an owner or joint owner of a passenger automobile, station wagon, or van or pickup truck included within the definition of a passenger automobile upon payment of a fee of $10, payment of the registration tax required by law, and compliance with other laws relating to registration and licensing of motor vehicles and drivers.

The veteran shall have a certified copy of the veteran's discharge papers, indicating character of discharge, at the time of application.

The commissioner of veterans affairs shall design the special plates subject to the approval of the registrar. An applicant must not be issued more than two sets of plates for vehicles owned or jointly owned by the applicant. The commissioner of veterans affairs shall estimate the number of special plates that will be required and submit the estimate to the registrar. Upon payment of a fee of $5, plates issued under this subdivision may be transferred to another motor vehicle owned or jointly owned by the person to whom the plates were issued. Fees collected under this subdivision must be paid into the state treasury and credited to the highway user tax distribution fund.

The registrar may adopt rules under the administrative procedure act to govern the issuance and use of the special plates authorized by this subdivision.

Sec. 5. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 168.12, subdivision 5, is amended to read:

Subd. 5. [ADDITIONAL FEE.] In addition to any fee otherwise authorized or any tax otherwise imposed upon any motor vehicle, the payment of which is required as a condition to the issuance of any number license plate or plates, the commissioner of public safety may impose a fee of $2 for a license plate for a motorcycle, motorized bicycle, or motorized sidecar, and ~~$3~~ $2 for license plates, other than license plates issued pursuant to section 168.27, subdivisions 16 and 17, for passenger automobiles; ~~provided that no fee is required for plates issued within one calendar year before a general reissuance of plates under subdivision 4.~~ Graphic design license plates shall only be issued for vehicles registered pursuant to section 168.017 and recreational vehicles registered pursuant to section 168.013, subdivision 1g.

Sec. 6. [168.123] [SPECIAL LICENSE PLATES FOR PEARL HARBOR SURVIVORS.]

Subdivision 1. [ISSUANCE AND DESIGN.] The registrar shall issue special license plates bearing the inscription "PEARL HARBOR SURVIVOR" to an applicant who was a member of the United States Armed Forces stationed on the island of Oahu, Hawaii, or offshore, during the attack on Pearl Harbor on December 7, 1941, and who complies with the laws of this state relating to the registration and licensing of motor vehicles and drivers. Application for these plates may be made only at the time of renewal or first application for registration. The registrar shall determine the design and size of these plates.

Subd. 2. [FEES; TRANSFER.] The fee for one set of two plates is $10, in addition to the registration tax required by law for the motor vehicle. This additional fee is payable only when the plates are issued and is not payable in a year in which tabs or stickers are issued instead of number plates.

Notwithstanding section 168.12, subdivision 1, these plates may be transferred to another motor vehicle owned or jointly owned by the Pearl Harbor survivor on payment of a fee of $5.

Fees paid under this subdivision must be paid into the state treasury and credited to the highway user tax distribution fund.

Subd. 3. [USE.] The registrar may issue special license plates under this section only for use on a motor vehicle that is a passenger automobile, van, station wagon, pickup truck, motorcycle, or recreational vehicle, and that is not used for commercial purposes.

Sec. 7. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 168.125, is amended to read:

168.125 [SPECIAL LICENSE PLATES FOR FORMER PRISONERS OF WAR.]

Subdivision 1. [SPECIAL PLATES; APPLICATION; FEE; TRANSFER ISSUANCE AND DESIGN.] The registrar shall issue special license plates bearing the inscription "EX-POW" to any applicant who is both a former prisoner of war and an owner or joint owner of a motor vehicle upon the applicant's compliance with all the laws of this state relating to the registration and licensing of motor vehicles and drivers. The special license plates shall be of a design and size to be determined by the commissioner. Plates bearing the "EX-POW" inscription may be issued for only one motor vehicle per applicant.

Application for issuance of these plates shall be made at the time of renewal or first application for registration. The application shall include a certification by the commissioner of veterans affairs that the applicant was a member of the military forces of the United States who was captured, separated, and incarcerated by an enemy of the United States during a period of armed conflict.

The applicant shall pay, in addition to the registration tax required by law, a fee of $10 for the special license plates issued under this section, in an amount calculated by the commissioner to cover the cost of the license plates. The additional fee is payable only when the plates are issued and no additional fee is payable in any year in which tabs or stickers are issued in lieu of number plates. All fees from the sale of the special license plates shall be paid into the state treasury and credited to the highway user tax distribution fund.

Notwithstanding the provisions of section 168.12, subdivision 1, the special license plates issued under this section may be transferred to another motor vehicle owned or jointly owned by the former prisoner of war upon the payment of a fee of $5. This fee shall be paid into the state treasury and credited to the highway user tax distribution fund.

For purposes of this section, "motor vehicle" means a passenger automobile, station wagon, pickup truck, motorcycle, or recreational vehicle.

Subd. 2. [SPECIAL PLATE PLATES; EX-POW AND HANDICAPPED INSIGNIA.] The registrar shall issue special license plates bearing both the "EX-POW" and handicapped insignia to any applicant who is entitled to the special license plates provided under this section and who is also entitled to special license plates for the physically handicapped under section 168.021 upon compliance with the provisions of both sections. The special license plates shall be of a design and size to be determined by the commissioner.

Subd. 3. [RULES; COMMISSIONER OF PUBLIC SAFETY.] The commissioner of public safety may promulgate by rule, in accordance with the provisions of chapter ~~15~~ 14, the procedures for issuance or transfer of the special license plates authorized under this section.

Subd. 4. [RULES; COMMISSIONER OF VETERANS AFFAIRS.] The commissioner of veterans affairs shall promulgate by rule, in accordance with the provisions of chapter 14, establish the procedure for obtaining the certification of former prisoner of war status.

Subd. 5. [SAVINGS PROVISION.] Nothing in this section shall alter the exemption for disabled war veterans provided for in section 168.031.

Sec. 8. [168.1261] [LIMOUSINE; LICENSE PLATES.]

Subdivision 1. [UNIQUE REGISTRATION CATEGORY.] A unique vehicle registration category is established for limousines as defined in section 1.

Subd. 2. [LICENSE PLATES.] The registrar shall issue limousine license plates upon the applicant's compliance with laws relating to registration and licensing of motor vehicles and drivers. The applicant must provide the registrar with proof that the passenger automobile license tax and a $10 fee have been paid for each limousine receiving limousine license plates. The limousine license plates must be designed to specifically identify the vehicle as a limousine. Limousine license plates may not be transferred upon sale of the limousine, but may be transferred to another limousine owned by the same person upon notifying the registrar and paying a $5 transfer fee.

Subd. 3. [INSURANCE.] The application must include a certificate of insurance verifying that a valid commercial insurance policy is in effect and giving the name of the insurance company and the number of the insurance policy. The policy must provide stated limits of liability, exclusive of interest and costs, with respect to each vehicle for which coverage is granted, of not less than $100,000 because of bodily injury to one person in any one accident and, subject to said limit for one person, of not less than $300,000 because of injury to two or more persons in any one accident. The insurance company must notify the commissioner if the policy is canceled or if the policy no longer provides the coverage required by this subdivision.

Sec. 9. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 169.71, subdivision 4, is amended to read:

Subd. 4. No person shall drive or operate any motor vehicle required to be registered in the state of Minnesota upon any street or highway under the following conditions:

(a) when the windshield is composed of, covered by, or treated with any material which has the effect of making the windshield more reflective or in any other way reducing light transmittance through the windshield;

(b) when any window on the vehicle is composed of, covered by, or treated with any material that has a highly reflective or mirrored appearance;

CONFERENCE COMMITTEE REPORT ON H. F. NO. 554

A bill for an act relating to natural resources; changing certain provisions relating to state park motor vehicle permits; amending Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 85.05, subdivision 2.

May 8, 1987

The Honorable Fred C. Norton
Speaker of the House of Representatives

The Honorable Jerome M. Hughes
President of the Senate

We, the undersigned conferees for H. F. No. 554, report that we have agreed upon the items in dispute and recommend as follows:

That the Senate recede from its amendment and that H. F. No. 554 be further amended as follows:

Delete everything after the enacting clause and insert:

"Section 1. [85.0501] [SPECIAL USES OF STATE PARKS.]

Subdivision 1. [RULES.] The commissioner may make rules for the use of state parks including:

(1) special parking space for automobiles or other motor-driven vehicles in a state park or state recreation area;

(2) special parking spurs, campgrounds for automobiles, sites for tent camping, and special auto trailer coach parking spaces, for the use of the individual charged for the space;

(3) improvement and maintenance of golf courses already established in state parks, and charging reasonable use fees;

(4) state park pageant areas that may be established in a state park to have historical or other pageants conducted by the commissioner of a state agency or other public agency; and

(5) providing water, sewer, and electric service to trailer or tent campsites and charging a reasonable use fee.

Subd. 2. [STATE PARK PAGEANTS.] The commissioner may stage state park pageants in a state park, municipal park, or on other land near or adjoining a state park and charge an entrance or use fee for the pageant. All receipts from the pageants must be used in the same manner as though the pageants were conducted in a state park.

Subd. 3. [FEE FOR CERTAIN PARKING AND CAMPSITE USE.]

(a) An individual using spaces in state parks under subdivision 1, clause (2), shall be charged daily rates determined and set by the commissioner in a manner and amount consistent with the type of facility provided for the accommodation of guests in a particular park and with similar facilities offered for tourist camping and similar use in the area.

(b) The fee for special parking spurs, campgrounds for automobiles, sites for tent camping, and special auto trailer coach parking spaces is one-half of the fee set in paragraph (a) on Sunday through Thursday of each week for:

(1) an individual age 65 or over who is a resident of the state and who furnishes satisfactory proof of age and residence;

(2) a physically handicapped person with a motor vehicle that has special plates issued under section 168.021, subdivision 1; or

(3) a physically handicapped person who possesses a certificate issued under section 169.345, subdivision 3.

Subd. 4. [DEPOSIT OF FEES.] (a) Fees paid for special state park uses under this section shall be deposited in the state treasury and credited to the state park maintenance and operation account.

(b) Gross receipts derived from sales, rentals, or leases of natural resources within state parks, recreation areas, and waysides, other than those on trust fund lands, must be deposited in the state treasury and be credited to the state park maintenance and operation account.

Sec. 2. [85.0502] [STATE PARK PERMITS.]

Subdivision 1. [FORM, ISSUANCE, VALIDITY.] (a) The commissioner shall prepare and provide state park permits for each calendar year that state a motor vehicle may enter and use state parks, state recreation areas, and state waysides over 50 acres in area. State park permits must be available and placed on sale by October 1 of the year preceding the calendar year that the permit is valid.

(b) A state park permit may be affixed when purchased and used from the time it is affixed until the end of the calendar year for which it is issued. State park permits in each category must be numbered consecutively for each year of issue.

(c) State park permits shall be issued by employees of the division of parks and recreation as designated by the commissioner.

Subd. 2. [REQUIREMENT.] Except as provided in section 3, a motor vehicle may not enter a state park, state recreation area, or state wayside over 50 acres in area, without a state park permit issued under this section. The state park permit must be affixed to the lower right corner windshield of the motor vehicle and must be completely affixed by its own adhesive to the windshield.

Subd. 3. [SECOND VEHICLE PERMITS.] The commissioner shall prescribe and issue second vehicle state park permits for persons who own more than one motor vehicle and who request a second permit for the second vehicle on a form prescribed by the commissioner. The commissioner may issue an applicant only one second vehicle permit.

Subd. 4. [TWO-DAY PERMITS.] The commissioner shall prescribe a special state park permit for use of state parks, state recreation areas, or state waysides up to two days under conditions prescribed by the commissioner.

Subd. 5. [DAILY VEHICLE PERMIT FOR GROUPS.] The commissioner may authorize special daily vehicle state park permits for groups by rule.

Subd. 6. [EMPLOYEE'S PERMIT.] (a) The commissioner shall prescribe and issue an employee's state park permit to state employees, peace officers, and contractors, that must enter areas where state park permits are required to perform official duties. An employee, peace officer, or contractor must display the special permit on the motor vehicle in the same manner as state park permits are displayed.

(b) A motor vehicle displaying only an employee's state park permit may not enter a place where state park permits are required if the vehicle is used for purposes other than performing official duties.

Subd. 7. [HANDICAPPED PERSONS AND PERSONS OVER AGE 65.] (a) The commissioner shall prescribe and issue special state park permits for:

(1) an individual age 65 years or older who furnishes satisfactory proof of age and is a resident of the state;

(2) a physically handicapped person with a motor vehicle that has special plates issued under section 168.021, subdivision 1; and

(3) up to two days for a physically handicapped person who possesses a certificate issued under section 169.345, subdivision 3.

(b) The permit or the decal issued under this subdivision is valid only when displayed on a vehicle owned and occupied by the person to whom the permit is issued.

Sec. 3. [85.0503] [STATE PARK PERMIT EXEMPTIONS.]

Subdivision 1. [STATE PARK OPEN HOUSE DAY.] (a) A state park permit is not required for a motor vehicle to enter a state park, state monument, state recreation area, or state wayside, on one day each calendar year, which the commissioner may designate as state park open house day. The commissioner may designate two consecutive days as state park open house day, if the open house is held in conjunction with a special pageant described in section 1, subdivision 2.

(b) The commissioner shall announce the date of state park open house day at least 30 days in advance of the date it occurs.

(c) The state park open house day is to acquaint the public with state parks, recreation areas, and waysides.

Subd. 2. [FORT SNELLING MEMORIAL CHAPEL ISLAND.] A state park permit is not required and a fee may not be charged for motor vehicle entry or parking at the Fort Snelling Memorial Chapel Island portion of Fort Snelling State Park.

Subd. 3. [INTERSTATE PARK.] A Minnesota state park permit is not required at Interstate Park if a valid, current, Wisconsin state park permit or sticker authorizing entry of a motor vehicle into Wisconsin state parks is appropriately displayed on the vehicle and the commissioner has entered into an agreement with appropriate officials of the state of Wisconsin that authorizes motor vehicles displaying Minnesota state park permits free entry into Interstate State Park of Wisconsin on a reciprocal basis.

Sec. 4. [85.0504] [STATE PARK PERMIT FEES.]

Subdivision 1. [FEES.] The fee for state park permits for:

- (1) an annual use of state parks is $15;
- (2) a second vehicle state park permit is one-half the annual state park permit fee in clause (1);
- (3) a special state park permit valid up to two days is $3;
- (4) a special daily vehicle state park permit for groups is as prescribed by the commissioner;
- (5) an employee's state park permit is without charge;
- (6) a special state park permit for handicapped persons and persons over age 65 under section 2, subdivision 7, clauses (1) and (2), is one-half the annual state park permit fee in clause (1) of this subdivision; and
- (7) a special state park permit valid up to two days for handicapped persons and persons over age 65 under section 2, subdivision 7, clauses (1) and (3), is one-half of the special state park permit fee in clause (3) of this subdivision.

Subd. 2. [FEE DEPOSIT AND APPROPRIATION.] The fees collected under this section shall be deposited in the state treasury and credited to the state park maintenance and operation account. Appropriations from the account shall be for state park maintenance and operation.

Sec. 5. [REPEALER.]

Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 85.05, is repealed.

Sec. 6. [EFFECTIVE DATE.]

This act is effective 30 days after final enactment."

Delete the title and insert:

"A bill for an act relating to natural resources; changing certain provisions relating to state park permits; authorizing and assessing fees for state park permits for second vehicles; authorizing a state park permit exemption for Interstate Park under reciprocal agreement with Wisconsin; proposing coding for new law in Minnesota Statutes, chapter 85; repealing Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 85.05."

SPECIAL ORDERS

S. F. No. 677 was reported to the House.

Ogren, Jacobs, Clark, Jennings, Quinn, McLaughlin, Scheid, Osthoff, Minne, Jensen, Rodosovich, Beard, Lieder and Jaros moved to amend S. F. No. 677, as follows:

“Sec. 13. [237.63] [TELEPHONE ASSISTANCE PLAN; DEFINITIONS.]

Subdivision 1. [SCOPE.] The terms used in sections 13 to 16 have the meanings given them in this section.

Subd. 2. [COMMISSION.] “Commission” means the Minnesota public utilities commission.

Subd. 3. [DEPARTMENT.] “Department” means the Minnesota department of public service.

Subd. 4. [TELEPHONE COMPANY.] “Telephone company” has the meanings given it in section 237.01, subdivisions 2 and 3, that provides local exchange telephone service.

Subd. 5. [ACCESS LINE.] “Access line” means telephone company-owned facilities furnished to permit switched access to the telecommunications network that extend from a central office to the demarcation point on the property where the subscriber is served. The term includes access lines provided to residential and business subscribers, includes centrex access lines on a trunk-equivalent basis, but does not include private nonswitched or wide area telephone service access lines.

Subd. 6. [FEDERAL MATCHING PLAN.] “Federal matching plan” means the telephone assistance plan formulated by the Federal Communications Commission that provides federal assistance to local telephone subscribers.

Subd. 7. [TELEPHONE ASSISTANCE PLAN.] "Telephone assistance plan" means the plan to be adopted by the commission and to be jointly administered by the commission, the department of human services, and the telephone companies, as required by sections 13 to 16.

Subd. 8. [DOCUMENTATION.] "Documentation" means (1) the most recent income tax return filed by members of the subscriber's household, (2) for each employed member of the subscriber's household, either paycheck stubs for the last two months or a written statement from the employer of wages earned during the preceding two months, (3) a Medicaid card or food stamps eligibility document, (4) documents that show that the subscriber is on a pension from the department of human services, the Social Security Administration, the Veterans Administration, or other pension providers, (5) a letter showing the subscriber's dismissal from a job or other documents showing unemployment, or (6) other document that supports the subscriber's declaration of annual income level.

Sec. 14. [237.64] [DEVELOPMENT OF TELEPHONE ASSISTANCE PLAN.]

Subdivision 1. [COMMISSION RESPONSIBILITY.] The commission shall develop a telephone assistance plan under this section.

Subd. 2. [SCOPE.] The telephone assistance plan must be statewide and apply to telephone companies that provide local exchange service in Minnesota.

Subd. 3. [FEDERAL MATCHING PLAN.] The telephone assistance plan must contain adequate provisions to enable telephone companies to qualify for assistance under the federal matching plan.

Subd. 4. [HOUSEHOLDS ELIGIBLE FOR CREDITS.] The telephone assistance plan must provide telephone assistance credit for a residential household in Minnesota that:

(1) does not receive aid for telephone service under any other program other than the federal matching plan or the telephone assistance plan;

(2) has a household member who subscribes to local exchange telephone service and who is 65 years of age or older; and

(3) has a maximum total annual household income level that does not exceed:

(i) when the size of the household is 1, $7,862;

(ii) when the size of the household is 2, $10,281;

(iii) when the size of the household is 3, $12,699;

(iv) when the size of the household is 4, $15,118;

(v) when the size of the household is more than 4, $15,118 plus for each additional household member, $2,419.

Subd. 5. [NATURE AND EXTENT OF CREDITS.] The telephone assistance plan may provide for telephone assistance credits to eligible households up to the amounts available under the federal matching plan. However, the credits available under the telephone assistance plan may not exceed:

(1) more than 50 percent of the local exchange rate charged for the local exchange service provided to the household by that household's telephone company; and

(2) the level of credits that can actually be funded in accordance with the limitations contained in subdivision 6.

Subd. 6. [FUNDING.] The commission shall provide for the funding of the telephone assistance plan by assessing a uniform recurring monthly surcharge applicable to all classes and grades of access lines provided by each telephone company in the state. The revenue generated by the surcharge must not exceed $2,500,000 on a statewide basis. This statewide $2,500,000 limitation must be apportioned between telephone companies based on their relative number of access lines.

Subd. 7. [ADMINISTRATION.] The telephone assistance plan must be administered jointly by the commission, the department of human services, and the telephone companies in accordance with the following guidelines:

(a) The commission and the department of human services shall develop eligibility certification forms that must be completed at least annually by the subscriber residing in a household for the purposes of certifying eligibility for telephone assistance plan credits to the telephone companies.

(b) The department of human services, through its various offices and agencies, shall determine the eligibility for telephone assistance plan credits on an annual basis according to the criteria contained in subdivision 4, based upon consideration of documentation made available to the department of human services by the subscriber, and shall provide the necessary certification forms to eligible households for provision by the households to the telephone company.

(c) The telephone company shall provide telephone assistance plan credits against monthly charges in the month following receipt of an eligibility certification form and shall continue to provide credits for 12 months after, unless notified that eligibility has terminated earlier. At the end of every 12-month period, telephone assistance plan credits cease unless the telephone company has been provided with a new eligibility certification form.

(d) The commission shall serve as the administrator of a statewide surcharge revenue pool and be reimbursed for its administrative expenses from the surcharge revenue pool. As the administrator, the commission shall:

(1) establish a uniform statewide surcharge in accordance with subdivision 6;

(2) establish a uniform statewide level of telephone assistance plan credit that each telephone company shall extend to each eligible household in its service area;

(3) require each telephone company to account to the commission on a periodic basis for surcharge revenues collected by the company, expenses incurred by the company, and credits extended by the company under the telephone assistance plan;

(4) require each telephone company to remit excess surcharge revenues to the commission for administration as part of the pool; and

(5) remit to each telephone company from the surcharge revenue pool the amount necessary to compensate the company for expenses and telephone assistance plan credits that are not covered by the surcharge revenue collected by the company. When it appears that the revenue generated by the maximum surcharge permitted under subdivision 6 will be inadequate to fund any particular established level of telephone assistance plan credits, the commission shall reduce the credits to a level that can be adequately funded by the maximum surcharge. Similarly, the commission may increase the level of the telephone assistance plan credit that is available or reduce the surcharge to a level and for a period of time that will prevent an unreasonable overcollection of surcharge revenues.

(e) Each telephone company shall maintain adequate records of surcharge revenues, expenses, and credits related to the telephone assistance plan and shall, as part of its annual report or separately, provide the commission and the department with a financial report of its experience under the telephone assistance plan for the previous year. That report must also be adequate to satisfy the reporting requirements of the federal matching plan.

(f) The department shall investigate complaints against telephone companies with regard to the telephone assistance plan and shall report the results of its investigation to the commission.

Sec. 15. [237.65] [RULES.]

The commission shall adopt rules under the administrative procedure act necessary or appropriate to establish the telephone assistance plan in accordance with this chapter so that the telephone assistance plan is effective as of January 1, 1988, or as soon after that date as Federal Communications Commission approval of the telephone assistance plan is obtained.

Sec. 16. [237.66] [PARTICIPATION OF DEPARTMENT OF HUMAN SERVICES.]

The department of human services shall participate in the implementation and administration of the telephone assistance plan in accordance with sections 13 to 16.

Sec. 17. [LEGISLATIVE REPORT.]

By January 1, 1989, the commission shall submit a report to the legislature with regard to the implementation, administration, and effectiveness of the telephone assistance plan and shall make any recommendations the commission believes are appropriate with regard to eligibility, funding, and administration of the telephone assistance plan."

"Sec. 5. [144A.45] [REGULATION OF HOME CARE SERVICES.]

Subdivision 1. [RULES.] The commissioner shall adopt rules for the regulation of home care providers pursuant to sections 3 to 8 and 14. The rules shall include the following:

(a) provisions to assure, to the extent possible, the health, safety and well-being, and appropriate treatment of persons who receive home care services;

(b) requirements that home care providers furnish the commissioner with specified information necessary to implement sections 3 to 8 and 14;

(c) standards of training of home care provider personnel, which may vary according to the nature of the services provided or the health status of the consumer;

(d) standards of supervision by a registered nurse or other appropriate health care professionals of personnel providing home care services, which may vary according to the nature of the services provided or the health status of the consumer;

(e) requirements for the involvement of a consumer's physician, the documentation of physicians' orders, if required, and the consumer's treatment plan, and the maintenance of accurate, current clinical records;

(f) the establishment of different classes of licenses for different types of providers and different standards and requirements for different kinds of home care services; and

(g) operating procedures required to implement the home care bill of rights.

Subd. 2. [REGULATORY FUNCTIONS.] (a) The commissioner shall:

(1) evaluate, monitor, and license home care providers in accordance with sections 5 to 8 and 14;

(2) inspect the office and records of a provider during regular business hours, provided that when conducting routine office visits or inspections, the commissioner shall provide at least 48 hours advance notice to the home care provider;

(3) with the consent of the consumer, visit the home where services are being provided;

(4) issue correction orders and assess civil penalties in accordance with section 144.653, subdivisions 5 to 8; and

(5) take other action reasonably required to accomplish the purposes of sections 3 to 8 and 14.

(b) In the exercise of the authority granted in sections 3 to 8 and 14, the commissioner shall comply with the applicable requirements of section 144.122, the government data practices act, and the administrative procedure act.

Subd. 3. [ADVISORY TASK FORCE.] The commissioner of health shall establish and appoint a home care advisory task force consisting of 15 members representing the various kinds of home care providers, including a hospice program, health care professionals, community health services agencies, and consumers. The appointment, removal, and compensation of members is as provided in section 15.059, subdivision 6. The task force shall provide advice and recommendations to the commissioner regarding the development of rules required by subdivision 1."

"Sec. 2. [60A.101] [SELF-INSURERS; DEPOSIT OF SECURITIES.]

Subdivision 1. [REQUIREMENT.] A workers' compensation self-insurer, except the state and its political subdivisions, as well as political subdivision self-insurance pools exempted by sections 471.98 to 471.982 must deposit securities or surety bonds acceptable to the commissioner of commerce of a value at least equal to:

(1) 110 percent of its total outstanding workers' compensation liability provided that the deposit shall be no less than the retention level selected with the workers' compensation reinsurance association, for an employer who has been self-insured for at least two years. The total outstanding workers' compensation liability incurred must be certified by an actuary who is a member of the casualty actuarial society one year after the date of authority to self-insure and every fourth year thereafter unless requested more frequently by the commissioner of commerce. Self-insurers authorized to self-insure on the effective date of this section must provide this actuarial certification of outstanding liabilities by July 1, 1988, or upon the anniversary of their authority to self-insure, whichever comes first; or

(2) the greater of the retention level selected with the workers' compensation reinsurance association, or 70 percent of the employer's estimated current modified premium as developed using the rates currently utilized by the Minnesota workers' compensation assigned risk plan for an employer who has been self-insured less than two years.

Subd. 2. [SURETY BOND FORM.] The bond shall be in the form as follows:

"KNOW ALL PERSONS BY THESE PRESENTS: That we, (entity to be bonded), of (location), (hereinafter called the "principal(s)"), as principal(s), and (bonding company name), a (name of state) corporation, of (location) (hereinafter called the "surety"), as surety, are held and firmly bound unto the commissioner of commerce of the STATE OF MINNESOTA for the use and benefit of the employees of the principal(s) and to pay workers' compensation obligations of the principal(s) in the sum of (amount in writing), for the payment of which well and truly to be made, the principal(s) bind themselves, their successors and assigns, and the surety binds itself and its successors and assigns, jointly and severally, firmly by these presents.

WHEREAS, in accordance with the provisions of Minnesota Statutes, section 176.181, the principal(s) has by written order of the commissioner of commerce of the state of Minnesota been exempted from insuring their liability for compensation according to the Minnesota workers' compensation act and have been permitted by order to self-insure all liability hereafter arising under the workers' compensation act.

NOW, THEREFORE, the condition of this obligation is such that if the principal(s) shall, according to the terms, provisions, and limitations of the Minnesota workers' compensation act, pay all of the principal's liabilities and obligations under the act, including all benefits as provided by the act, then this obligation shall be null and void, otherwise to remain in full force and effect subject, however, to the following terms and conditions.

(a) The liability of the surety is limited to the payment of all legal liabilities and obligations, including payment of compensation and medical benefits, provided by the workers' compensation act of Minnesota which are payable by the principals for or on account of personal injuries or occupational diseases sustained during or attributable to the entire period that the bond is in effect, subject to cancellation, as provided in paragraphs (b) and (e). In no event shall the total liability of the surety exceed the penal amount of the bond.

(b) In the event of a default, whenever occurring, on the part of the principal(s) to abide by any award, order, or decision directing and awarding payment of such legal liabilities, obligations, or benefits to or on behalf of any employee or the dependents of any deceased employee, which occurred during the period this bond remains in force regardless of whether this bond has been canceled prior to the making of the claim or the award, order, or decision, the commissioner of commerce may, upon twenty-days notice to the surety and opportunity to be heard, require the surety to pay the amount of the award, order, or decision to be enforced in the same manner as an award may be enforced against said principal(s).

(c) Service on the surety shall be deemed to be service on the principals.

(d) This bond shall continue in force from year to year unless canceled as herein provided. However, the penal amount of the bond must be revised each year to comply with all statutory requirements and rules. Regardless of the number of years this bond remains in force or the number of annual premiums paid or payable, the total liability of the surety hereunder may not exceed the penal amount of the bond.

(e) This bond may be canceled at any time by the surety by giving 60-days notice in writing to the commissioner of commerce of the state of Minnesota at its offices in the city of St. Paul, Minnesota, and upon expiration of said 60 days, the liability of the surety hereunder shall cease, except as to liability incurred hereunder prior to the expiration of said 60 days, as set out in paragraph (a).

(f) This bond shall become effective at (time of day, month, day, year).

IN TESTIMONY WHEREOF, said principal(s) and said surety have caused this instrument to be signed by their respective duly-authorized officers and their corporate seals to be hereunto affixed this (day, month, year).

“Sec. 27. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 176.129, subdivision 9, is amended to read:

Subd. 9. [POWERS OF FUND.] In addition to powers granted to the special compensation fund by this chapter the fund may do the following:

(a) sue and be sued in its own name;

(b) intervene in or commence an action under this chapter or any other law, including, but not limited to, intervention or action as a subrogee to the division's right in a third-party action, any proceeding under this chapter in which liability of the special compensation fund is an issue, or any proceeding which may result in other liability of the fund or to protect the legal right of the fund;

(c) enter into settlements including but not limited to structured, annuity purchase agreements with appropriate parties under this chapter;

(d) contract with another party to administer the special compensation fund; and

(e) take any other action which an insurer is permitted by law to take in operating within this chapter; and

(f) conduct a financial audit of indemnity claim payments and assessments reported to the fund. This may be contracted by the fund to a private auditing firm.

Sec. 28. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 176.129, subdivision 11, is amended to read:

Subd. 11. [ADMINISTRATIVE PROVISIONS.] The accounting, investigation, and legal costs necessary for the administration of the programs financed by the special compensation fund shall be paid from the fund during each biennium commencing July 1, 1981. Staffing and expenditures related to the administration of the special compensation fund shall be approved through the regular budget and appropriations process. All sums recovered by the special compensation fund as a result of action under section 176.061, or recoveries of payments made by the special compensation fund under section 176.183 or 176.191 shall be credited to the special compensation fund.

Sec. 29. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 176.129, subdivision 13, is amended to read:

Subd. 13. [EMPLOYER REPORTS.] All employers and insurers shall make reports to the commissioner as required for the proper administration of this section and ~~section~~ sections 176.131 and 176.132. Employers and insurers may not be reimbursed from the special compensation fund for any periods for which the employer has not properly filed reports as required by this section and made all payments due to the special compensation fund under subdivision 3.

Sec. 30. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 176.131, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. If an employee incurs personal injury and suffers disability from that injury alone that is substantially greater, because of a preexisting physical impairment, than what would have resulted from the personal injury alone, the employer or insurer shall pay all compensation provided by this chapter, but the employer shall be reimbursed from the special compensation fund for all compensation paid in excess of 52 weeks of monetary benefits and $2,000 in medical expenses, subject to the following exceptions in paragraphs (a), (b), and (c):

(a) If the disability caused by the subsequent injury is made substantially greater by the employee's registered preexisting physical impairment, there shall be apportionment of liability among all injuries. The special compensation fund shall only reimburse for that portion of the compensation, medical expenses, and rehabilitation expenses attributed to the subsequent injury after the applicable deductible has been met.

(b) If the subsequent personal injury alone results in permanent partial disability to a scheduled member under the schedule adopted by the commissioner pursuant to section 176.105, the monetary and medical expense limitations shall not apply and the employer is liable for the compensation, medical expense, and rehabilitation attributable to the permanent partial disability, and may be reimbursed from the special compensation fund only for compensation paid in excess of the disability the special compensation fund shall not reimburse permanent partial disability, medical expenses, or rehabilitation expenses.

Sec. 31. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 176.131, subdivision 8, is amended to read:

Subd. 8. As used in this section the following terms have the meanings given them:

"Physical impairment" means any physical or mental condition that is permanent in nature, whether congenital or due to injury, disease or surgery and which is or is likely to be a hindrance or obstacle to obtaining employment except that physical impairment is limited to the following:

(a) Epilepsy,

(b) Diabetes,

(c) Hemophilia,

(d) Cardiac disease, provided that objective medical evidence substantiates at least the minimum permanent partial disability listed in the workers' compensation permanent partial disability schedule,

(e) Partial or entire absence of thumb, finger, hand, foot, arm or leg,

(f) Lack of sight in one or both eyes or vision in either eye not correctable to 20/40,

(g) Residual disability from poliomyelitis,

(h) Cerebral Palsy,

(i) Multiple Sclerosis,

(j) Parkinson's disease,

(k) Cerebral vascular accident,

(l) Chronic Osteomyelitis,

(m) Muscular Dystrophy,

(n) Thrombophlebitis,

(o) Brain tumors,

(p) Pott's disease,

(q) Seizures,

(r) Cancer of the bone,

(s) Leukemia,

(t) Any other physical impairment resulting in a disability rating of at least ten percent of the whole body if the physical impairment were evaluated according to standards used in workers' compensation proceedings, and

(u) Any other physical impairments of a permanent nature which the commissioner may by rule prescribe;

"Compensation" has the meaning defined in section 176.011;

"Employer" includes insurer;

"Disability" means, unless otherwise indicated, any condition causing either temporary total, temporary partial, permanent total, permanent partial, death, medical expense, or rehabilitation."

"Sec. 46. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 176.181, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [FAILURE TO INSURE, PENALTY.] Any employer who fails to comply with the provisions of subdivision 2 to secure payment of compensation is liable to the state of Minnesota for a penalty of ~~$100~~ $750, if the number of uninsured employees is less than five and for a penalty of ~~$400~~ $1,500 if the number of such uninsured employees is five or more. If the commissioner determines that the failure to comply with the provisions of subdivision 2 was willful and deliberate, the employer shall be liable to the state of Minnesota for a penalty of ~~$500~~ $2,500, if the number of uninsured employees is less than five, and for a penalty of ~~$2,000~~ $5,000 if the number of uninsured employees is five or more. If the employer continues noncompliance, the employer is liable for five times the lawful premium for compensation insurance for such employer for the period the employer fails to comply with such provisions, commencing ten days after notice has been served upon the employer by the commissioner of the department of labor and industry by certified mail. These penalties may be recovered jointly or separately in a civil action brought in the name of the state by the attorney general in any court having jurisdiction. Whenever any such failure occurs the commissioner of the department of labor and industry shall immediately certify ~~the~~ that fact thereof to the attorney general. Upon receipt of such certification the attorney general shall forthwith commence and prosecute ~~such~~ the action. All penalties recovered by the state in any such action shall be paid into the state treasury and credited to the special compensation fund. If an employer fails to comply with the provisions of subdivision 2, to secure payment of compensation after having been notified of the employer's duty, the attorney general, upon request of the commissioner, may proceed against the employer in any court having jurisdiction for an order restraining the employer from having any person in employment at any time when the employer is not complying with the provisions of subdivision 2 or for an order compelling the employer to comply with subdivision 2.

Sec. 47. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 176.182, is amended to read:

176.182 [BUSINESS LICENSES OR PERMITS; COVERAGE REQUIRED.]

Every state or local licensing agency shall withhold the issuance or renewal of a license or permit to operate a business in Minnesota until the applicant presents acceptable evidence of compliance with the workers' compensation insurance coverage requirement of section 176.181, subdivision 2, by providing the name of the insurance company, the policy number, and dates of coverage or the permit to self-insure. The commissioner shall assess a penalty to the employer of $1,000 payable to the special compensation fund, if the information is not reported or is falsely reported.

Neither the state nor any governmental subdivision of the state shall enter into any contract for the doing of any public work before receiving from all other contracting parties acceptable evidence of compliance with the workers' compensation insurance coverage requirement of section 176.181, subdivision 2.

This section shall not be construed to create any liability on the part of the state or any governmental subdivision to pay workers' compensation benefits or to indemnify the special compensation fund, an employer, or insurer who pays workers' compensation benefits.

Sec. 48. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 176.183, subdivision 1a, is amended to read:

Subd. 1a. When an employee or the employee's dependent is entitled to benefits under this chapter from a self-insurer, present or past, other than the state and its municipal subdivisions, but the self-insurer fails to pay the benefits, the employee or the employee's dependents, regardless of the date when the accident, personal injury, occupational disease, or death occurred, shall nevertheless receive the benefits from the special compensation fund. The commissioner has a cause of action against the self-insuring employer for reimbursement for all benefits and other expenditures paid out or to be paid out and, in the discretion of the court, the self-insurer is liable for punitive damages in an amount not to exceed 50 percent of the total of all benefits and other expenditures paid out or to be paid out. The commissioner shall institute an action to recover the total expenditures from the fund unless the commissioner determines that no recovery is possible. All proceeds recovered shall be deposited in the general special compensation fund.

By assumption of the obligations of a self-insured employer pursuant to this subdivision, the special compensation fund shall have the right to direct reimbursement under the same conditions and in the same amounts from the workers' compensation insurers reinsurance association and from any other agreement, contract, or insurance policies which would have reimbursed or indemnified the self-insured employer for payments made pursuant to this chapter.

Sec. 49. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 176.183, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. The commissioner of labor and industry, in accordance with the terms of the order awarding compensation, shall pay compensation to the employee or the employee's dependent from the special compensation fund. The commissioner of labor and industry shall certify to the commissioner of finance and to the legislature annually the total amount of compensation paid from the special compensation fund under subdivisions 1 and 1a. The commissioner of finance shall upon proper certification reimburse the special compensation fund from the general fund appropriation provided for this purpose. The amount reimbursed shall be limited to the certified amount paid under this section or the appropriation made for this purpose, whichever is the lesser amount. Compensation paid under this section which is not reimbursed by the general fund shall remain a liability of the special compensation fund and shall be financed by the percentage assessed under section 176.131, subdivision 10 176.129.

Sec. 50. [176.184] [INSPECTIONS; ENFORCEMENT.]

Subdivision 1. [PROOF OF INSURANCE.] The commissioner of labor and industry, in order to carry out the purpose of section 176.181, may request satisfactory proof of authority to self-insure workers' compensation liability or satisfactory proof of insurance coverage for workers' compensation liability. If an employer does not provide satisfactory proof as requested within seven working days of the mailing of the request, the commissioner may proceed in accordance with the provisions of subdivisions 2 to 7.

Subd. 2. [AT PLACE OF EMPLOYMENT.] In order to carry out the purposes of section 176.181, the commissioner, upon presenting appropriate credentials to the owner, operator, or agent in charge, is authorized to enter without delay and at reasonable times any place of employment and to inspect and investigate during regular working hours and at other reasonable times, within reasonable limits, and in a reasonable manner, any records pertaining to that employer's workers' compensation insurance policy, number of employees, documents governing conditions and benefits of employment, contracts with employees and their authorized representatives, and any other documents which may be relevant to the enforcement of section 176.181 and to question privately any employer, owner, operator, agent, or employee with respect to matters relevant to the enforcement of section 176.181.

Subd. 3. [POWERS; COMMISSIONER AND DISTRICT COURT.] In making inspections and investigations under this chapter, the commissioner shall have the power to administer oaths, certify official acts, take and cause to be taken depositions of witnesses, issue subpoenas, and compel the attendance of witnesses and production of papers, books, documents, records, and testimony. In case of failure of any person to comply with any subpoena lawfully issued, or on the refusal of any witness to produce evidence or to testify to any matter regarding which the person may be lawfully interrogated, the district court shall, upon application of the commissioner, compel obedience in proceedings for contempt, as in the case of disobedience of the requirements of a subpoena issued by the court or a refusal to testify.

Subd. 4. [RIGHTS OF EMPLOYER AND EMPLOYEE REPRESENTATIVE.] A representative of the employer and a representative authorized by employees shall be given an opportunity to participate in any conference or discussion held prior to, during, or after any inspection. Where there is no authorized employee representative, the commissioner shall consult with a reasonable number of employees. No employee as a consequence of aiding an inspection shall lose any privilege or payment that the employee would otherwise earn.

Subd. 5. [REQUEST FOR INVESTIGATION BY EMPLOYEE.] (a) Any employee or representative of an employee who believes that their employer is uninsured against workers' compensation liability, may request an inspection by giving notice to the commissioner of the belief and grounds for the belief. Any notice shall be written, shall set forth with reasonable particularity the grounds for the notice, and shall be signed by the employee or representative of employees. A copy of the notice shall be provided the employer, representative, or agent no later than the time of inspection, except that, upon the request of a person giving the notice, the employee's name and the names of individual employees referred to in the notice shall not appear in the copy or on any record published, released, or made available. If upon receipt of the notification the commissioner determines that reasonable grounds exist to believe that the employer is uninsured against workers' compensation liability, the commissioner shall make an inspection in accordance with this section as soon as practicable. If the commissioner determines that there are not reasonable grounds to believe that a violation exists, the commissioner shall so notify the employee or representative of employees in writing. Upon notification, the employee or the employee representative may request the commissioner to reconsider the determination. Upon receiving the request, the commissioner shall review the determination.

(b) The commissioner, upon receipt of a report of violation of the mandatory insurance provisions of sections 176.181 or 176.185 verified by review of the department's insurance registration records and other relevant information, shall initiate a preliminary investigation to determine if reasonable grounds exist to believe that the employer is uninsured against workers' compensation liability, and upon certification of reasonable belief that the employer is uninsured the commissioner shall make an inspection in accordance with paragraph (a).

Subd. 6. [ORDER PERMITTING ENTRY.] Upon the refusal of an owner, operator, or agent in charge to permit entry as specified in this section, the commissioner may apply for an order in the district court in the county which entry was refused, to compel the employer to permit the commissioner to enter and inspect the place of employment.

Subd. 7. [ADVANCE NOTICE.] Advance notice may not be authorized by the commissioner except:

(1) in circumstances where the inspection can most effectively be conducted after regular business hours or where special preparations are necessary for an inspection;

(2) where necessary to assure the presence of representatives of the employer and employees or the appropriate personnel needed to aid in the inspection; and

(3) in other circumstances where the commissioner determines that the giving of advance notice would enhance the probability of an effective and thorough inspection.

When advance notice is given to an employer, notice shall also be given by the commissioner to the authorized representative of employees if the identity of the representative is known to the employer."

"Sec. 60. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 176.225, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [EXAMINATION OF BOOKS AND RECORDS.] To determine whether an employer or insurer is liable for the payment provided by subdivision 1, the division, a compensation judge, or the workers' compensation court of appeals upon appeal may examine the books and records of the employer or insurer relating to the payment of compensation, and may require the employer or insurer to furnish any other information relating to the payment of compensation.

The right of the division to review the records of an employer or insurer includes the right of the special compensation fund to examine records for the proper administration of sections 176.129, 176.131, 176.132, 176.181, and 176.183. The special compensation fund may not review the records of the employer or insurer relating to a claim under section 176.131 until the special compensation fund has accepted liability under that section or a final determination of liability under that section has been made. The special compensation fund may withhold reimbursement to the employer or insurer under section 176.131 or 176.132 if the employer or insurer denies access to records requested for the proper administration of section 176.129, 176.131, 176.132, 176.181, or 176.183."

PATRICK E. FLAHAVEN, Secretary of the Senate

McLaughlin moved that the House refuse to concur in the Senate amendments to H. F. No. 234, that the Speaker appoint a Conference Committee of 3 members of the House, and that the House requests that a like committee be appointed by the Senate to confer on the disagreeing votes of the two houses. The motion prevailed.

Mr. Speaker:

I hereby announce the passage by the Senate of the following Senate Files, herewith transmitted:

S. F. Nos. 478 and 806.

PATRICK E. FLAHAVEN, Secretary of the Senate

MOTIONS AND RESOLUTIONS

Wenzel introduced:

House Concurrent Resolution No. 10, A House concurrent resolution saluting the 60th anniversary of Charles A. Lindbergh's solo nonstop flight from New York to Paris in the Spirit of St. Louis.

SUSPENSION OF RULES

Wenzel moved that the rules be so far suspended that House Concurrent Resolution No. 10 be now considered and be placed upon its adoption. The motion prevailed.

HOUSE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION NO. 10

A House concurrent resolution saluting the 60th anniversary of Charles A. Lindbergh's solo nonstop flight from New York to Paris in the Spirit of St. Louis.

Whereas, Charles Lindbergh, a son of this state, became one of the world's greatest heroes through his aviation exploits; and

Whereas, this 25-year-old citizen of Little Falls, Minnesota, on May 20-21, 1927, with courage and vision, successfully completed the first solo nonstop crossing of the Atlantic Ocean in 33½ hours in the Spirit of St. Louis; and

Whereas, it was an achievement that electrified the world, and gained for the first time recognition of the international potential of flight; and

Whereas, the United States of America, its Congress, and President Calvin Coolidge joyously welcomed Charles Lindbergh home where he was awarded the first Distinguished Flying Cross in our country's history; and

Whereas, the valiant Minnesotan in the summer and fall of 1927 made an air tour of 82 cities coast to coast in the Spirit of St. Louis, including triumphal homecomings to Little Falls and the Twin Cities of Minneapolis and St. Paul to popularize aviation and to demonstrate the feasibility of commercial aviation; and

Whereas, Charles and Anne Morrow Lindbergh made hazardous exploratory flights to the Orient, Europe, Africa, and South America to establish international airline routes; and

Whereas, Charles Lindbergh, whose many interests were nurtured on the banks of the Mississippi River in Little Falls, Minnesota, went on to achieve notable successes in the fields of science and technology and as a Pulitzer prize-winning author; and

Whereas, through the Charles A. Lindbergh Fund, a nonprofit foundation headquartered in Minnesota, grants are made in the amount of $10,580, the cost of the Spirit of St. Louis, to individuals who in their scientific endeavors pursue Lindbergh's philosophy of balancing the advance of technology with preservation of the environment; and

Whereas, Minnesota honors its famous son with the sculpture, "Charles Lindbergh, The Man and the Boy," on the Capitol approach, with the Lindbergh Terminal at Minneapolis-St. Paul International Airport, and with the restored Lindbergh Home and the Lindbergh Interpretive Center at Little Falls; Now, Therefore,

Be It Resolved by the House of Representatives of the State of Minnesota, the Senate concurring, that it officially recognizes the 60th anniversary of the epic flight of Charles Lindbergh in the Spirit of St. Louis and pays tribute to a hero son whose heritage is forever indelible in our history and whose legacy is the vitally important work being carried on throughout the world by those who believe in his vision and ideals.

Be It Further Resolved that the Chief Clerk of the House of Representatives is hereby directed to prepare enrolled copies of this resolution, to be authenticated by his signature and those of the Speaker, the Secretary of the Senate, and the Chairman of the Senate Rules and Administration Committee, and that they be presented to Anne Morrow Lindbergh and the Lindbergh Interpretive Center.

Wenzel moved that House Concurrent Resolution No. 10 be now adopted. The motion prevailed and House Concurrent Resolution No. 10 was adopted.

PROTEST AND DISSENT

On May 11, 1987, the Speaker of this body ruled a report from a minority of the members of the appropriations committee to be non-germane. The recommendation of the minority in the form of a minority report has never been so treated in the history of this institution.

The ruling was made in an arbitrary exercise of the power of the chair. It was made in violation of those authorities historically governing legislative conduct within this body. It was without precedent within the custom and usage of this body.

The purpose for the institutional abuse is clear. The Speaker violated both rule and tradition for simple political expedience. During the course of the session, the majority has repeatedly demanded that the minority come forward with responsible alternatives. It is the height of hypocrisy for the Speaker to endorse those demands and then bar discussion on just such an alternative.

Pursuant to Article IV, Section 11, of the Minnesota Constitution, We the undersigned members individually and on behalf of all minority members register our protest, and dissent from the decision of the Speaker of this body to break from tradition and disallow discussion of a minority report. We submit, as an element of the protest, the text of the minority report censored by action of the Speaker.

MINORITY REPORT

May 9, 1987

We, the undersigned, being a minority of the Committee on Appropriations recommend that S. F. No. 1 pass with the following amendments:

Delete everything after the enacting clause and insert:

"ARTICLE 1

RURAL DEVELOPMENT

Section 1. [120.86] [MILK PROGRAM.]

Subdivision 1. [LEGISLATIVE INTENT.] The legislature finds that it is helpful to the health and well-being of the school children in the state that they receive a minimum amount of milk. The purpose of this section is to assure that school districts will be able to provide milk to all children attending school in the state.

Subd. 2. [ESTABLISHMENT.] Each common, independent, and special school district choosing to participate in this program shall provide one-half pint of milk on each school day to all elementary and secondary pupils attending a public or nonpublic school in the district. No child is required to accept the milk that is provided by the district.

Subd. 3. [REIMBURSEMENT.] The department of education shall reimburse school districts for one-half of the cost of providing milk under subdivision 2, except that school districts located wholly or partly within rural economic protection zones, as defined in section 2, must be reimbursed for the entire cost of providing milk under subdivision 2. The commissioner of education shall establish procedures and application forms for reimbursement.

Sec. 2. [124A.029] [RURAL ECONOMIC PROTECTION ZONE; VALUATION REDUCTION FOR SCHOOL PURPOSES.]

Subdivision 1. [ZONE CREATED.] The rural economic protection zone is created. The zone consists of all counties constituting distressed counties for purposes of section 297A.257, subdivision 1.

Subd. 2. [REDUCED ADJUSTED ASSESSED VALUATION.] Notwithstanding section 124A.02, subdivision 3a, the adjusted assessed valuation of all property in a school district shall be reduced by ten percent if at least 50 percent of the assessed valuation of taxable property in the school district is located in a county included in the rural economic protection zone. The resulting amount is the reduced adjusted assessed valuation of the school district. The reduced adjusted assessed valuation shall be used only for the purposes provided in this section. The adjusted assessed valuation under section 124A.02, subdivision 3a, shall be used to determine the basic maintenance mill rate under section 124A.03, subdivision 1a, and the school district's basic maintenance levy under section 124A.03, subdivision 1.

Subd. 3. [COUNTY AUDITOR; DETERMINATION OF TAX.] The department of education shall certify to the county auditor a reduced basic maintenance levy at the time the basic maintenance levy under section 124A.03, subdivision 1, is certified. The reduced basic maintenance levy is the basic maintenance mill rate times the reduced adjusted assessed valuation of the school district. The county auditor shall use the reduced basic maintenance levy when extending the taxes against property in the school district.

Subd. 4. [REIMBURSEMENT.] The commissioner of education shall reimburse school districts for the amount of the reduction under subdivision 3. The amount of the reimbursement is the difference between the basic maintenance levy and the reduced basic maintenance levy. Payment shall be made according to section 124.195, subdivisions 6 and 10.

Subd. 5. [RURAL ECONOMIC PROTECTION FUND.] The rural economic protection fund is created. The fund consists of the amount of the reduction in local government aid distribution under section 477A.013, subdivision 4. The amount in the rural economic protection fund is annually appropriated to the commissioner of education to make the reimbursement in subdivision 4. If the amount in the rural economic protection fund is insufficient to pay the reimbursement in subdivision 4, the amount necessary to pay the reimbursement is annually appropriated from the general fund to the commissioner of education.

Sec. 3. [161.066] [ALLOCATION OF FUNDS.]

In allocating funds for highway purposes originating from the highway user tax distribution fund, the commissioner of transportation or other authority must give priority to projects pending in the rural economic protection zone.

Sec. 4. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 177.24, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [AMOUNT.] (a) Except as provided in paragraph (b) beginning January 1, 1982, except as otherwise provided in sections 177.21 to 177.35, every employer must pay each employee who is 18 years of age or older wages at a rate of at least $3.35 an hour and must pay each employee under 18 wages at a rate of at least $3.02 an hour.

(b) A county board of a county within a rural economic protection zone as defined in section 2 may by resolution establish the minimum wage for jobs in that county at either the state or federal minimum wage. The board may change the established wage once every six months.

Sec. 5. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 268.06, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 8a. [RURAL ECONOMIC PROTECTION ZONE EMPLOYEES.] An employer's contribution rate is reduced by ten percent for those contributions based on wages paid to employees whose jobs are located in a rural economic protection zone as defined in section 2.

Sec. 6. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 268.06, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 8b. [SURTAX, CITIES OF FIRST CLASS, JOBS.] An employer's contribution rate is increased by five percent for those contributions based on wages paid to employees whose jobs are located in a city of the first class if the unemployment rate for that city is below the statewide unemployment rate. The increase in rate applies despite any applicable maximum contribution rate otherwise established by law.

Sec. 7. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 297A.257, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [DESIGNATION OF DISTRESSED COUNTIES.]

(a) The commissioner of energy and economic development revenue shall annually on June 1 designate those counties which are distressed. A county is distressed if it satisfies either any of the following two criteria:

(1) The county has an average unemployment rate of ten percent or more for the one-year period ending on April 30 of the year in which the designation is made; or

(2) the unemployment rate for the entire county was greater than 110 percent of the state average for the 12-month period ending the previous April 30, and 20 percent or more of the county's economy, as determined by the commissioner of jobs and training, is dependent upon agriculture; or

(3) at least 25 percent of all employment within a county is "farm employment." For purposes of this clause, "farm employment" consists of self-employed farmers and their employees. In making the designation under this clause, the commissioner must use the most recent data available from the United States Department of Commerce, Bureau of Economic Analysis.

If, as a result of a plant closing, layoffs or another similar event affecting a significant number of employees in the county, the commissioner has reason to believe that the average unemployment in the county will exceed ten percent during the one-year period beginning April 30, the commissioner may designate the county as distressed, notwithstanding clause (1).

(b) The commissioner shall designate a portion of a county containing a city of the first class located outside of the metropolitan area as a distressed county if:

(1) that portion of the county has an unemployment rate of ten percent or more for the one-year period ending on April 30 of the year in which the designation is made; and

(2) that portion of the county has a population of at least 50,000 as determined by the 1980 federal census.

(c) A county or the portion of a county designated pursuant to this subdivision shall be considered a distressed county for purposes of this section and chapter 116M.

(d) Except as otherwise specifically provided, the determination of whether a county is distressed must be made using the most current data available from the state demographer. The designation of a distressed county is effective for the 12-month period beginning July 1. A county may be designated as distressed as often as it qualifies.

(e) The authority to designate counties as distressed expires on June 30, 1989.

Sec. 8. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 297B.09, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [HIGHWAY USER TAX DISTRIBUTION FUND AND TRANSIT ASSISTANCE FUND SHARE.] Notwithstanding any law enacted before or after the date of final enactment of this act, the proceeds collected under this chapter must be deposited in the highway user tax distribution fund and the transit assistance fund for apportionment in the following manner:

(a) None of the proceeds collected before July 1, 1984, or between July 1, 1985, and June 30, ~~1987~~ 1986, may be credited to either fund.

(b) 18.75 percent of the proceeds collected after June 30, 1984, and before July 1, 1985, and 18.75 percent of the proceeds collected after

June 30, 1986, and before July 1, 1987, must be credited to the highway user tax distribution fund for apportionment in the same manner and for the same purposes as other money in that fund. The remaining 6.25 percent of the proceeds must be credited to the transit assistance fund to be appropriated to the commissioner of transportation for transit assistance within the state.

(c) Except as provided in paragraph (f), 37.5 percent of the proceeds collected after June 30, 1987, and before July 1, 1989, must be credited to the highway user tax distribution fund for apportionment in the same manner and for the same purposes as other money in that fund. The remaining 12.5 percent of the proceeds must be credited to the transit assistance fund to be appropriated to the commissioner of transportation for transit assistance within the state.

(d) Except as provided in paragraph (f), 56.25 percent of the proceeds collected after June 30, 1989, and before July 1, 1991, must be credited to the highway user tax distribution fund for apportionment in the same manner and for the same purposes as other money in that fund. The remaining 18.75 percent of the proceeds must be credited to the transit assistance fund to be appropriated to the commissioner of transportation for transit assistance within the state.

(e) Except as provided in paragraph (f), 75 percent of the proceeds collected after June 30, 1991, must be credited to the highway user tax distribution fund for apportionment in the same manner and for the same purposes as other money in that fund. The remaining 25 percent of the proceeds must be credited to the transit assistance fund to be appropriated to the commissioner of transportation for transit assistance within the state.

(f) The distributions under paragraphs (c), (d), and (e) to the highway user tax distribution fund shall be reduced by the amount necessary to fund the appropriation under section 41A.09, subdivision 1.

Sec. 9. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 477A.013, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 4. [REDUCTION FOR CERTAIN CITIES.] The local government aid distribution for a city with more than $100,000,000 in "captured assessed value" as defined in section 273.73, subdivision 4, within its taxing jurisdiction, must be reduced by 15 percent from the amount it would otherwise receive in a year.

Sec. 10. [373.41] [AGRICULTURAL LOANS]

A county in a rural economic protection zone, as defined in section 2, or a county where a financial institution has failed during the preceding two years may establish a revolving loan fund to assist borrowers from failed financial institutions to make a transition to a new commercial lending institution. The county may make loans from the fund to enable borrowers to maintain agricultural production or business services at the level that existed before the failure. The county may require whatever records it deems appropriate to be provided as a condition of a loan. A loan may not extend for more than two years. A loan may not be used to acquire real estate. A loan may be used to make scheduled payments on debt secured by real property but not accelerated or balloon payments.

The county may use any available federal, state, or private funds to provide money for the revolving loan fund. It may use any county power individually or in cooperation with any other local government unit to carry out the provisions of this section. No more than five percent of the principal amount of the fund may be used for administrative expenses in a year. Interest rates on the loans shall be at a rate comparable to that charged by commercial lending institutions.

A county that establishes a fund and program under this section must adopt a system for the administration of the fund and program that is approved by the state auditor before the fund is established.

Sec. 11. [116J.4011] [ADMINISTRATION OF SMALL CITIES COMMUNITY DEVELOPMENT BLOCK GRANT]

Subdivision 1. [RURAL DEVELOPMENT FUND CREATED; APPROPRIATION.] The rural development fund is created as a special revenue account in the state treasury. The fund shall consist of one-half of the federal money received annually under the provisions of the Housing and Community Development Act of 1974, as amended, and all of the repayment funds received annually from statutory and home rule charter cities, counties, and towns receiving economic development assistance from the fund. The fund shall be expended only for economic development activities authorized under the Housing and Community Development Act of 1974, as amended, and the contents of the fund are continually appropriated to the director for those purposes. No less than one-half of the amount encumbered within a biennium shall be for economic development activities within rural economic protection zones as defined in section 2. Cities, counties, and towns receiving economic development assistance money from the fund shall repay to the fund any assistance received according to the rules adopted by the director of the state planning agency.

Subd. 2. [EMERGENCY RULEMAKING AUTHORITY.] The commissioner of economic development may adopt emergency rules under chapter 14 to implement this section.

Sec. 12. [TRANSFER OF FUNDS.]

On or before June 30, 1987, the commissioner of finance shall transfer the amount specified for transfer under section 8 for fiscal year 1987 from the general fund to the highway user tax distribution fund and the transit assistance fund.

Sec. 13. [APPROPRIATION.]

$1,500,000 in fiscal year 1988 and $1,500,000 in fiscal year 1989 are appropriated from the general fund to the department of education to reimburse school districts under section 1 for providing milk to Minnesota school children.

Sec. 14. [EFFECTIVE DATE.]

Section 2 is effective for taxes levied in 1987 and thereafter. Sections 3 and 10 are effective the day after final enactment. Section 7 is effective for counties designated as distressed on June 1, 1987 and thereafter. Section 9 is effective for distributions made July 15, 1987 and thereafter. Section 12 is effective the day after final enactment.

ARTICLE 2

INSURANCE

Section 1. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 62E.52, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. "Eligible person" means any person who is a resident of Minnesota and who, while a resident of Minnesota, has been found by the commissioner to have incurred an obligation to pay:

(1) qualified medical expenses for that person and any dependents in any 12 consecutive months exceeding:

(a) ~~40~~ <sup>25</sup> percent of household income up to $15,000, plus 50 percent of household income between ~~$15,000~~ <sup>$20,000</sup> and ~~$25,000~~ <sup>$30,000</sup>, plus ~~60~~ <sup>50</sup> percent of household income in excess of ~~$25,000~~ <sup>$30,000</sup>; or

(b) ~~$2,500~~ <sup>$3,000</sup>, whichever is greater; or

(2) qualified nursing home expenses for that person and any dependents in any 12 consecutive months exceeding 20 percent of household income.

Sec. 2. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 62E.52, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. "Qualified medical expense" means any charge incurred subsequent to July 1, 1977 1987, and within 18 months prior to application for coverage under sections 62E.51 to 62E.55 for a health service which is included in the list of covered services described in section 62E.06, subdivision 1, and for which no third party is liable. Expenses related to organ transplants or other experimental procedures must not be considered qualified medical expenses for purposes of sections 62E.51 to 62E.55.

Sec. 3. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 62E.52, subdivision 7, is amended to read:

Subd. 7. "Commissioner" means the commissioner of human services commerce or the commissioner's designated representative.

Sec. 4. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 62E.52, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 9. "Financial need" means the demonstrated need of the applicant for financial assistance to meet the reasonable costs of qualified medical expenses as determined from financial information on the applicant by the uniform methodology used by the higher education coordinating board for purposes of the state grant-in-aid program or similar determination of an applicant's ability to pay which takes into consideration both income and assets. In no instance shall an applicant pay less than $3,000.

Sec. 5. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 62E.53, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. All persons who believe that they are or will become an eligible person may submit an application for state assistance to the commissioner. Applications may be obtained from the business office of any licensed acute care hospital in Minnesota. The application shall include a listing of expenses incurred prior to the date of the application and shall designate the date on which the 12 month period for computing expenses began. No applicant seeking assistance under sections 62E.51 to 62E.55 may list as an expense in the application any income spent in order to become eligible for medical assistance under chapter 256B or general assistance medical care under chapter 256D. Insurance premiums may be included in the expenses used in determination of eligibility under this section.

Sec. 6. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 62E.53, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. If the commissioner determines that an applicant is an eligible person, the commissioner shall pay

(1) 90 percent of all qualified expenses of the eligible person and dependents in excess of:

(a) 40 percent of household income under $15,000, plus 50 percent of household income between $15,000 and $25,000, plus 60 percent of household income in excess of $25,000; or

(b) $2,500;

whichever is greater for which the commissioner can demonstrate a financial need as defined in section 62E.52 for the 12-month period in which the applicant becomes an eligible person and

(2) all qualified nursing home expenses of the eligible person and dependents in excess of 20 percent of household income. Provided, however, that the payment of qualified nursing home expenses shall not be made until the end of the fiscal year. If the appropriation for the payment of qualified nursing home expenses is inadequate to pay all qualified nursing home expenses, the commissioner shall prorate the payments among all eligible persons in proportion to their share of the total of the qualified nursing home expenses of all eligible persons.

Sec. 7. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 62E.53, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. The commissioner shall by rule establish procedures may contract with insurers and others for administrative services and for determining whether and to what extent qualified expenses are reasonable charges. Unless otherwise provided for by rule charges shall be reviewed for reasonableness by the same procedures used to review and limit reimbursement under the provisions of chapter 256B. If the commissioner determines that the charge for a health service is excessive, the commissioner may limit payment to the reasonable charge for that service. If the commissioner determines that a health service provided to an eligible person was not medically necessary, the commissioner may refuse to pay for the service. The commissioner may contract with a review organization as defined in section 145.61, in making any determinations as to whether or not a charge is excessive and in making any determination as to whether or not a service was medically necessary. If the commissioner in accordance with this section refuses to pay all or a part of the charge for a health service, the unpaid portion of the charge shall be deemed to be an unconscionable fee, against the public policy of this state, and unenforceable in any action brought for the recovery of moneys owed.

Sec. 8. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 62E.53, subdivision 4, is amended to read:

Subd. 4. No applicant shall be eligible for state assistance under sections 62E.51 to 62E.55 unless the applicant has authorized the commissioner of human services commerce in writing to examine all personal medical records developed while the applicant received the medical care for which state assistance is sought. The commissioner shall use the medical records only for the purpose of investigating whether or not a health services vendor has submitted a claim for reimbursement, a cost report or a rate application which the vendor knows to be false in whole or in part, or in order to determine whether or not the medical care provided to the applicant was medically necessary. This written authorization shall be presented to the vendor of medical care before the commissioner gains access to the records. The vendor of medical care shall receive notification from the commissioner at least 24 hours before the commissioner gains access to such records. Notwithstanding any other law to the contrary, a vendor of medical care shall not be subject to any civil or criminal liability for providing access to medical records to the commissioner pursuant to this subdivision.

Sec. 9. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 62E.531, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. When the commissioner pays for or becomes liable for payments for health services under the provisions of sections 62E.51 to 62E.55, the department of human services commerce shall have a lien for payments and liabilities for the services upon any and all causes of action, including actions under the workers' compensation act of this state which accrue to the person to whom the services were furnished, or to the person's legal representatives, as a result of injuries which directly or indirectly led to the incurring of qualified expenses.

The department may perfect and enforce its lien by following the procedures set forth in sections 514.69, 514.70, and 514.71, except that it shall have one year from the date when the last item of health service was furnished in which to file its verified lien statement. The statement shall be filed with the appropriate court administrator in the county in which the recipient of the services resides or in the county in which the action was filed.

Sec. 10. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 62E.531, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. Upon furnishing assistance under the provisions of sections 62E.51 to 62E.55, the department of human services commerce shall be subrogated, to the extent of its payments for health services, to any rights the eligible person or a dependent may have under the terms of any plan of health coverage as defined in section 62E.02, subdivision 9 or insurance as defined in section 79.01, subdivision 3. The right of subrogation shall not attach prior to written notice of the exercise of subrogation rights to the issuer of the plan of health coverage.

The attorney general, or the appropriate county attorney, acting upon direction from the attorney general, commissioner may institute or join a appropriate civil action against the issuer of the plan of health coverage to recover under this subdivision.

Sec. 11. [136A.134] [GRANTS TO DISLOCATED RURAL WORKERS.]

Subdivision 1. [ESTABLISHMENT OF PROGRAM.] A dislocated rural worker grant program is established under the supervision of the higher education coordinating board. The board shall develop policies and procedures for the administration of the program and the allocation of the program funds to eligible institutions.

Subd. 2. [ELIGIBLE INSTITUTIONS.] For purposes of this section, "eligible institution" means eligible institutions as defined in section 136A.101.

Subd. 3. [APPLICANTS.] An applicant is eligible to be considered for a dislocated rural worker grant if the applicant:

(1) is a resident of a county named a rural human resources protection zone under section 245.74, subdivision 1;

(2) is enrolled in an adult farm management program or a program designed to provide preparation for available employment within the local labor market or in an area to which the individual is willing to relocate;

(3) has met the financial need criteria established by the board; and

(4) can demonstrate that one of the following criteria has been met:

(i) the applicant or applicant's spouse has been separated from employment or has received a notice of separation from employment as a result of job obsolescence, plant shutdown, regional decline in the applicant's customary occupation, or industry slowdown and the applicant is unlikely to return to work for that employer or in that occupation within 12 months following separation from employment;

(ii) the applicant is a displaced homemaker; or

(iii) the applicant or the applicant's spouse is a farmer who can demonstrate severe household financial need.

Subd. 4. [PROGRAM RECIPIENTS.] A recipient of a dislocated rural worker grant shall be selected by the post-secondary education institution in accordance with guidelines, policies, and rules established by the board. The board may adopt emergency rules for awarding grants only for the fiscal year beginning July 1, 1987.

Subd. 5. [PROGRAM COORDINATION; INFORMATION.] The board shall develop and provide information to dislocated workers in rural areas about post-secondary education opportunities and student financial aid programs. The board shall also provide for the coordination of dislocated rural worker grants with other available student financial aid programs. Dislocated rural worker grants must be awarded in a manner that maximizes the use of existing federal and state student financial aid programs.

Sec. 12. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 245.74, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [FORMULA.] The commissioner of human services shall pay equalization aid to counties based upon the appropriation and a formula that includes four factors: recipient rate, per capita income, per capita taxable value, and per capita expenditures for welfare.

(a) Seventy-five percent of the appropriation must be distributed according to the four factor formula.

(b) Twenty-five percent of the appropriation must be distributed on a per capita basis to counties in which 25 percent or more of all employment is farm employment. The commissioner must use the most current information from the United States Department of Commerce, Bureau of Economic Analysis, in determining farm employment. The commissioner shall make the determination on an annual basis and counties meeting the 25 percent requirement shall be designated a rural human resources protection zone. A county that receives a distribution under the four factor formula is not eligible for an increase in distribution based on farm employment.

Sec. 13. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 268.6751, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [WAGE SUBSIDIES.] (a) Seventy-five percent of wage subsidy money must be allocated to eligible local service units in the following manner described in clauses (1) and (2):

(a) (1) The commissioner shall allocate 70 percent of the funds available for allocation to eligible local service units for wage subsidy programs as follows: the proportion of the wage subsidy money available to each eligible local service unit must be based on the number of unemployed persons in the eligible local service unit for the most recent six-month period and the number of work readiness assistance cases and aid to families with dependent children cases in the eligible local service unit for the most recent six-month period.

(b) (2) Thirty percent of the money available for wage subsidy programs must be allocated at the direction and discretion of the coordinator. The commissioner shall distribute the discretionary portion of wage subsidy appropriations at the request of the coordinator. For the biennium ending June 30, 1987, up to 25 percent of the discretionary portion of the wage subsidy appropriation may be used to support the office of full productivity and opportunity and the development of an intake, referral, and inventory system. In allocating the remaining discretionary portion of the wage subsidy appropriation, the coordinator shall give priority to eligible local service units that have:

(1) (i) high numbers of farmers who can demonstrate severe household financial need;

(2) (ii) demonstrated success in placing public assistance applicants in private sector jobs;

(3) (iii) demonstrated need beyond the allocation distributed under paragraph (a);

(4) (iv) maximized use of money through coordination with other programs and state, local, and federal agencies, and through the use of matching money from private and nonprofit sources;

(5) (v) demonstrated need to provide special assistance in order to serve unemployed persons who incur unusual costs such as necessary relocation expenses; or

(6) (vi) areas with high unemployment rates.

(b) Twenty-five percent of wage subsidy money must be distributed in the manner and subject to the restrictions provided in section 245.74, subdivision 1, clause (a).

Sec. 14. [ELIGIBILITY FOR ENROLLMENT IN STATE PLAN.]

A Minnesota resident of a county designated as a rural human resources protection zone under section 12 may enroll in the state comprehensive health insurance plan described in section 62E.14 within 60 days of the effective date of this section, with a waiver of the preexisting condition limitation in section 62E.14, subdivision 3, and a waiver of the evidence of rejection in section 62E.14, subdivision 1, paragraph (c).

Coverage in the state plan under this section terminates on July 1, 1988.

Sec. 15. [REPORT.]

The commissioner of commerce, after consultation with the commissioners of health, human services, and jobs and training, shall recommend legislation to allow persons referred to in section 14 to obtain group insurance coverage paid for, and administered by, the state. This legislation shall be submitted in the form of a report to the legislature under section 3.195. The report must be submitted to the legislature by January 1, 1988.

Sec. 16. [APPROPRIATION.]

$7,000,000 is appropriated from the general fund to the commissioner of commerce for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1989, for the purposes of sections 1 to 10. The approved complement of the department of commerce is increased by one position.

$10,000 is appropriated from the general fund to the commissioner of commerce for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1988, for the purpose of paying the state plan premium to the writing carrier for coverage of those enrolling under section 14.

ARTICLE 3

UNEMPLOYMENT AND WORKERS' COMPENSATION

Section 1. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 268.03, is amended to read:

268.03 [DECLARATION OF PUBLIC POLICY.]

As a guide to the interpretation and application of sections 268.03 to 268.24, the public policy of this state is declared to be as follows: Economic insecurity due to unemployment is a serious menace to the health, morals, and welfare of the people of this state. Involuntary unemployment is therefore a subject of general interest and concern which requires appropriate action by the legislature to prevent its spread and to lighten its burdens. This can be provided by encouraging employers to provide more stable employment and by the systematic accumulation of funds during periods of employment to provide benefits for periods of unemployment, thus maintaining purchasing power and limiting the serious social consequences of poor relief assistance. The legislature, therefore, declares that in its considered judgment the public good and the general welfare of the citizens of this state will be promoted by providing, under the police powers of the state for the compulsory setting aside of unemployment reserves to be used for the benefit of persons unemployed through no fault of their own establishment of an unemployment insurance fund. The reserves of the unemployment insurance fund are to be used to provide a temporary replacement of a portion of lost wages to individuals with a permanent attachment to the work force, who become involuntarily unemployed through no fault of their own, and who are actively seeking, and are willing and available to accept, suitable reemployment.

Sec. 2. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 268.04, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. "Base period" means the period of 52 calendar weeks immediately preceding the first day of an individual's benefit year. However, if a claimant received weekly worker's compensation for temporary total disability under the provisions of chapter 176 or under a similar law of the United States for more than seven weeks within the base period, or if a claimant, whose own serious illness caused a loss of credit weeks within the base period, received compensation due to the illness from some other source or under a law of this state other than chapter 176 or under a similar law of the United States for more than seven weeks within the base period, the claimant's base period shall be lengthened by the same number of weeks, but not to exceed 52 weeks, for which the claimant received the payments. No extended base period shall include wage credits upon which benefits were established and paid with respect to a prior valid claim. first four of the last five completed calendar quarters immediately preceding the first day of an individual's benefit year; except: (a) if during the base period an individual received workers' compensation for temporary disability under chapter 176 or a similar law of the United States, or if an individual whose own serious illness caused a loss of work for which the individual received compensation due to the illness from some other source or under a law of this state other than chapter 176 or a similar law of the United States, the individual's base period shall be lengthened to the extent stated as follows:

(1) if an individual was compensated, as described above, for a loss of work of seven to 13 weeks, the original base period shall be extended to include one calendar quarter preceding the original base period; or

(2) if an individual was compensated, as described above, for a loss of work of 14 to 26 weeks, the original base period shall be extended to include two calendar quarters preceding the original base period; or

(3) if an individual was compensated, as described above, for a loss of work from 27 to 39 weeks, the original base period shall be extended to include the first three calendar quarters preceding the original base period; or

(4) if an individual was compensated, as described above, for a loss of work from 40 to 52 weeks, the original base period shall be extended to include the first four quarters preceding the original base period; or

(b) if the commissioner finds that, during the base period described above, the individual has insufficient wage credits to establish a valid claim, the individual may request a determination of validity using an alternate base period of the last four completed calendar quarters preceding the first day of an individual's benefit year. This alternate base period may be used by an individual only once during any five calendar year period to establish a valid claim.

In no instance shall the base period be extended to include more than four additional calendar quarters.

No base period, extended base period, or alternate base period under paragraph (b) shall include wage credits upon which a claim was established and benefits were paid with respect to that valid claim.

Sec. 3. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 268.04, subdivision 24, is amended to read:

Subd. 24. "Valid claim" with respect to any individual means a claim filed by an individual who has registered for work and who has earned wage credits and established credit weeks or alternative credit weeks during the individual's base period sufficient to entitle the individual to benefits under section 268.07, subdivision 2.

Sec. 4. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 268.04, subdivision 25, is amended to read:

Subd. 25. [WAGES.] "Wages" means all remuneration for services, including commissions and bonuses, back pay as of the date of payment, and tips and gratuities paid to an employee by a customer of an employer and accounted for by the employee to the employer, and the cash value of all remuneration in any medium other than cash, except that such term shall not include:

(a) For the purpose of determining contributions payable under section 268.06, subdivision 2, that part of the remuneration which exceeds, for each calendar year, the greater of $7,000 or that part of the remuneration which exceeds 60 percent of the average annual wage rounded to the nearest $100 computed in accordance with the provisions of clause (f) (i) $11,400 for calendar year 1987 and $12,000 for calendar year 1988 and all calendar years thereafter, for each employer that has an experience ratio of one-tenth of one percent or more, or (ii) $10,000 for calendar year 1987, and $12,000 for calendar year 1988 and thereafter, for each employer that has an experience ratio of less than one-tenth of one percent, paid to an individual by an employer with respect to covered employment in this state, or with respect to employment under the unemployment compensation law of any other state during any calendar year paid to such individual by such covered employer or predecessor during such calendar year; provided, that if the term "wages" as contained in the Federal Unemployment Tax Act is amended to include remuneration in excess of the amount required to be paid hereunder to an individual by an employer under the federal act for any calendar year, wages for the purposes of sections 268.03 to 268.24 shall include remuneration paid in a calendar year up to an amount equal to the dollar limitation specified in the Federal Unemployment Tax Act. For the purposes of this clause, the term "employment" shall include service constituting employment under any employment security law of another state or of the federal government;

(b) The amount of any payment made to, or on behalf of, an employee under a plan or system established by an employer which makes provision for employees generally or for a class or classes of employees (including any amount paid by an employer for insurance or annuities, or into a fund, to provide for any such payment), on account of (1) retirement or (2) sickness or accident disability or (3) medical and hospitalization expenses in connection with sickness or accident disability, or (4) death, provided the employee has not the option to receive, instead of provision for such death benefit, any part of such payment, or if such death benefit is insured, any part of the premium (or contributions to premiums) paid by the employer and has not the right, under the provisions of the plan or system or policy of insurance providing for such death benefit, to assign such benefit, or to receive a cash consideration in lieu of such benefit either upon withdrawal from the plan or system providing for such benefit or upon termination of such plan or system or policy of insurance or of employment with such employer;

(c) The payment by an employer (without deduction from the remuneration of the employee) (1) of the tax imposed upon an employee under section 3101 of the federal Internal Revenue Code, or (2) of any payment required from an employee under a state unemployment compensation law, with respect to remuneration paid to an employee for domestic service in a private home of the employer or for agricultural labor;

(d) Any payments made to a former employee during the period of active military service in the armed forces of the United States by such employer, whether legally required or not;

(e) Any payment made to, or on behalf of, an employee or beneficiary (1) from or to a trust described in section 401(a) of the federal Internal Revenue Code which is exempt from tax under section 501(a) of such code at the time of such payment unless such payment is made to an employee of the trust as remuneration for services rendered as an employee and not as a beneficiary of the trust; or (2) under or to an annuity plan which, at the time of such payment is a plan described in section 403(a) of the federal Internal Revenue Code, or (3) under or to a bond purchase plan which, at the time of such payment, is a qualified bond purchase plan described in section 405(a) of the federal Internal Revenue Code;

(f) On or before July 1 of each year the commissioner shall determine the average annual wage paid by employers subject to sections 268.03 to 268.24 in the following manner:

(1) The sum of the total monthly employment reported for the previous calendar year shall be divided by 12 to determine the average monthly employment;

(2) The sum of the total wages reported for the previous calendar year shall be divided by the average monthly employment to determine the average annual wage.

The average annual wage determined shall be effective for the calendar year next succeeding the determination. The value of any meals and lodgings furnished by or on behalf of the employer, if at the time of such furnishings it is reasonable to believe that the employee will be able to exclude such items from income under United States Code, title 26, section 119.

Sec. 5. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 268.04, subdivision 29, is amended to read:

Subd. 29. "Credit week" is any week for which wages or back pay, actually or constructively paid, wages overdue and delayed beyond the usual time of payment, and back pay by or from one or more employers to an employee for insured work equal or exceed 30 percent of the average weekly wage times the adult minimum wage in effect under section 177.24, subdivision 1, on December 31 of the year two years before the year in which the claim is made. The product shall be computed to the nearest whole dollar. On or before June 30 of each year the commissioner shall determine the average weekly wage paid by employers subject to sections 268.03 to 268.24 in the following manner:

(a) The sum of the total monthly employment reported for the previous calendar year shall be divided by 12 to determine the average monthly employment;

(b) The sum of the total wages reported for the previous calendar year shall be divided by the average monthly employment to determine the average annual wage; and

(c) The average annual wage shall be divided by 52 to determine the average weekly wage.

The average weekly wage as so determined computed to the nearest whole dollar shall apply to claims for benefits which establish a benefit year which begins subsequent to December 31 of the year of the computation.

Sec. 6. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 268.04, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 29a. [ALTERNATIVE CREDIT WEEK.] "Alternative credit week" means any week for which wages or back pay, actually or constructively paid, wages overdue and delayed beyond the usual time of payment, and back pay by or from one or more employers to an employee for insured work equal or exceed 20 times the state minimum wage in effect on the date the employee makes a claim for benefits.

Sec. 7. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 268.04, subdivision 30, is amended to read:

Subd. 30. "Average weekly wage" means the quotient derived by dividing the total wage credits earned by an individual from all employers in insured work in the base period by the number of credit weeks or alternative credit weeks.

Sec. 8. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 268.04, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 34. [CONTRIBUTION REPORT.] "Contribution report" means the summary report of wages and employment used to determine the amount of contributions due by employers on a calendar quarter basis. An auxiliary report of wages and employment broken down by business locations, when required, is part of the contribution report.

Sec. 9. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 268.04, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 35. [WAGE DETAIL REPORT.] "Wage detail report" means the itemized report used to record the information required by section 268.121.

Sec. 10. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 268.06, subdivision 5, is amended to read:

Subd. 5. [BENEFITS CHARGED AS AND WHEN PAID.] Benefits paid to an individual pursuant to a valid claim shall be charged against the account of the individual's employer as and when paid, except that benefits paid to an individual who earned base period wages for part-time employment shall not be charged to an employer that is liable for payments in lieu of contributions or to the experience rating account of an employer if the employer: (1) provided weekly base period part-time employment; (2) continues to provide weekly employment equal to at least 90 percent of the part-time employment provided in the base period; and (3) is an interested party because of the individual's loss of other employment; or (2) provided weekly employment in the base period on an on-call as needed basis, continues to employ the individual on the same basis and provides employment substantially equal to the employment provided in the base period, and is an interested party because of the individual's loss of other employment. The amount of benefits so chargeable against each base period employer's account shall bear the same ratio to the total benefits paid to an individual as the base period wage credits of the individual earned from such employer bear to the total amount of base period wage credits of the individual earned from all the individual's base period employers.

In making computations under this provision, the amount of wage credits if not a multiple of $1, shall be computed to the nearest multiple of $1.

Benefits shall not be charged to an employer that is liable for payments in lieu of contributions or to the experience rating account of an employer for unemployment (1) that is directly caused by a major natural disaster declared by the president pursuant to section 102(2) of the Disaster Relief Act of 1974 (United States Code, title 42, section 5122(2)); if the unemployed individual would have been eligible for disaster unemployment assistance with respect to that unemployment but for the individual's receipt of unemployment insurance benefits, or (2) that is directly caused by a fire, flood, or act of God where 70 percent or more of the employees employed in the affected location become unemployed as a result and the employer substantially reopens its operations in that same area within 360 days of the fire, flood, or act of God. Benefits shall be charged to the employer's account where the unemployment is caused by the willful act of the employer or a person acting on behalf of the employer.

Sec. 11. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 268.06, subdivision 8, is amended to read:

Subd. 8. [DETERMINATION OF CONTRIBUTION RATES.] For each calendar year the commissioner shall determine the contribution rate of each employer by adding the minimum rate to the experience ratio, except that if the ratio for the current calendar year increases or decreases the experience ratio for the preceding calendar year by more than one and one-half percentage points for 1982; and 2½ percentage points for 1983 and each year thereafter, the increase or decrease for the current year shall be limited to one and one-half percentage points for 1982; and 2½ percentage points for 1983 and each year thereafter, provided that a small business employer shall be eligible, upon application, for a reduction in the limitation to  $1\frac{1}{2}$  percentage points for 1983 and each year thereafter. "Small business employer" for the purpose of this subdivision means an employer with an annual covered payroll of \$250,000 or less, or fewer than 20 employees in three of the four quarters ending June 30, of the previous calendar year.

The minimum rate for all employers that have had benefits charged to their account at any time during the period described in subdivision 6 shall be one percent if the amount in the unemployment compensation fund is less than $80,000,000 on June 30 of the preceding calendar year; or nine-tenths of one percent if the fund is more than $80,000,000 but less than $90,000,000; or eight-tenths of one percent if the fund is more than $90,000,000 but less than $110,000,000; or seven-tenths of one percent if the fund is more than $110,000,000 but less than $130,000,000; or six-tenths of one percent if the fund is more than $130,000,000 but less than $150,000,000; or five-tenths of one percent if the fund is more than $150,000,000 but less than $170,000,000; or three-tenths of one percent if the fund is more than $170,000,000 but less than $200,000,000; or one-tenth of one percent if the fund is $200,000,000 or more; provided that no employer shall have a contribution rate of more than 7.5 percent.

The minimum rate for all employers that have not had benefits charged to their account at any time during the period described in subdivision 6 shall be eight-tenths of one percent for calendar year 1988 and seven-tenths of one percent for calendar year 1989 and thereafter.

For the purposes of this section the unemployment compensation fund shall not include any moneys advanced from the Federal Unemployment Account in the unemployment trust fund in accordance with Title XII of the Social Security Act, as amended. No employer first assigned an experience ratio in accordance with subdivision 6, shall have a contribution rate increased or decreased by more than one and one-half percentage points for 1982; and  $2\frac{1}{2}$  percentage points for 1983 and each year thereafter over the contribution rate assigned for the preceding calendar year in accordance with subdivision 3a, provided that a small business employer shall be eligible, upon application, for a reduction in the limitation to  $1\frac{1}{2}$  percentage points for 1983 and each year thereafter.

Sec. 12. [268.062] [STANDBY SOLVENCY SURTAX.]

If the balance in the unemployment compensation fund as calculated on April 1 of a year is less than 12.5 percent of benefits paid out in the previous year, a ten percent surtax is imposed on employers payable to the unemployment compensation fund. The surtax is imposed on the experience portion of the employer's contributions for the calendar year preceding the April 1 calculation. The surtax shall be assessed on the July 1 next following the April 1 calculation and is due March 1 of the year following its imposition. The surtax imposed by this subdivision is not a part of the employer's contribution rate for the purpose of the maximum tax limitation of section 268.06, subdivision 8. An employer's surtax under this section and contribution rate under section 268.06, subdivision 8, shall not in the aggregate exceed 8.15 percent.

Sec. 13. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 268.07, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [WEEKLY BENEFIT AMOUNT AND DURATION.] If the commissioner finds that an individual has earned 15, 18 or more, credit weeks within the base period of employment in insured work with one or more employers, for claims establishing a benefit year prior to July 1, 1988, or 20 or more credit weeks for claims establishing a benefit year subsequent to June 30, 1988, or failing that, 24 or more alternative credit weeks benefits shall be payable to such individual during the individual's benefit year as follows:

(1) Weekly benefit amount shall be equal to 60 percent of the first $85, 40 percent of the next $85 and 50 percent of the remainder of the average weekly wage of such individual

(a) for claims which establish a benefit year prior to July 1, 1988, the individual's total base period wage credits multiplied by 1.0 percent; or

(b) for claims which establish a benefit year subsequent to June 30, 1988, the individual's total base period wage credits multiplied by 1.1 percent if it is the individual's first claim during the five-year period immediately preceding the claim filing, or 1.0 percent for subsequent claims filed within that five-year period.

The amount so computed if not a whole dollar, shall be rounded down to the next lower dollar amount. The maximum weekly benefit amount of claims for benefits which establish a benefit year subsequent to July 1, 1979 shall be 66 $\frac{2}{3}$  percent of the average weekly wage, except as provided in clause (d).

On or before June 30 of each year the commissioner shall determine the average weekly wage paid by employers subject to sections 268.03 to 268.24 in the following manner:

(a) The sum of the total monthly employment reported for the previous calendar year shall be divided by 12 to determine the average monthly employment.

(b) The sum of the total wages reported for the previous calendar year shall be divided by the average monthly employment to determine the average annual wage.

(c) The average annual wage shall be divided by 52 to determine the average weekly wage.

The maximum weekly benefit amount as so determined computed to the nearest whole dollar shall apply to claims for benefits which establish a benefit year which begins subsequent to June 30 of each year.

(d) The maximum weekly benefit amount for claims for benefits which establish a benefit year subsequent to June 30, 1982, and prior to July 1, 1983, shall be $184.

The maximum weekly benefit amount for claims for benefits which establish a benefit year subsequent to June 30, 1983, and prior to July 1, 1984, shall be $191.

The maximum weekly benefit amount for claims for benefits which establish a benefit year subsequent to June 30, 1984, and prior to July 1, 1985, shall be $198.

(2) An individual's maximum amount of regular benefits payable in a benefit year shall not exceed the lesser of (a) 26 times the individual's weekly benefit amount or (b) 70  $\frac{2}{3}$  percent of the number of credit weeks earned by such an individual computed to the nearest whole week times the individual's weekly benefit amount; except that, the maximum number of weeks of benefits that can be received as calculated under this paragraph shall be increased by one for each full year, excluding the first five years, of continuous employment the individual has worked with the same employer, subject to a maximum of eight additional weeks. For purposes of this paragraph, "continuous employment" means an individual has 26 or more credit weeks in a calendar year with the same employer with credit being given for leaves of absence for health reasons.

(3) Each eligible individual who is unemployed in any week shall be paid with respect to such week a benefit in an amount equal to the individual's weekly benefit amount less that part of the individual's earnings, including holiday pay, payable to the individual with respect to such week which is in excess of $25 or $200 for earnings from service in the national guard or a United States military reserve unit. In addition, one-fourth of the individual's earnings up to the amount of the individual's benefit shall not apply to reduce the individual's benefit. Jury duty pay is not considered as earnings and shall not be deducted from benefits paid. Such benefit, if not a whole dollar amount shall be rounded down to the next lower dollar amount.

(4) The provisions of clauses (1) and (2) shall apply to claims for benefits which establish a benefit year subsequent to June 30, 1983. The minimum weekly benefit amount for claims for benefits which establish a benefit year subsequent to June 30, 1987, shall be $68 for claims based on credit weeks or $40 for claims based on alternative credit weeks. The maximum weekly benefit amount for claims for benefits that establish a benefit year subsequent to June 30, 1987, shall be $239.

Sec. 14. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 268.07, subdivision 2a, is amended to read:

Subd. 2a. [EXCEPTION.] Notwithstanding the provisions of subdivision 2, if the commissioner finds that an individual has earned credit weeks or alternative credit weeks in seasonal employment, benefits shall be payable only if the commissioner finds that the individual has earned ~~15~~ at least 18 credit weeks or alternative credit weeks in employment which is not seasonal for claims establishing a benefit year prior to July 1, 1988, or at least 20 credit weeks in employment which is not seasonal for claims establishing a benefit year subsequent to June 30, 1988, in addition to any credit weeks or alternative credit weeks in seasonal employment. For the purposes of this subdivision, "seasonal employment" means employment with a single employer in the recreation or tourist industry which is available with the employer for ~~15~~ 18 consecutive weeks or less each calendar year.

Sec. 15. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 268.071, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [DEFINITIONS.] As used in this section, unless the context clearly requires otherwise:

(1) [EXTENDED BENEFIT PERIOD.] "Extended benefit period" means a period which

(a) Begins with the third week after a week for which there is a state "on" indicator; and

(b) Ends with either of the following weeks, whichever occurs later: The third week after the first week for which there is a state "off" indicator; or the 13th consecutive week of the period;

Provided, that no extended benefit period may begin before the 14th week following the end of a prior extended benefit period which was in effect with respect to this state.

(2) [STATE "ON" INDICATOR.] There is a "state 'on' indicator" for this state for a week if the commissioner determines, in accordance with the regulations of the United States Secretary of Labor, that for the period consisting of such week and the immediately preceding 12 weeks, the rate of insured unemployment (not seasonally adjusted) under this law

(a) equaled or exceeded 120 percent of the average of such rates for the corresponding 13-week period ending in each of the preceding two calendar years, and

(b) equaled or exceeded five percent.

The determination of whether there has been a state "on" indicator beginning any extended benefit period may be made as provided in clauses (a) and (b) above or a "state 'on' indicator" shall exist if the rate described in clause (b) equaled or exceeded six percent irrespective of whether the percentage requirement provided by clause (a) is met or exceeded.

(3) [STATE "OFF" INDICATOR.] There is a "state 'off' indicator" for this state for a week if, for the period consisting of such week and the immediately preceding 12 weeks, the rate of insured unemployment is less than six percent and the requirements for a "state 'on' indicator" under clause (2) of this subdivision are not satisfied.

(4) [RATE OF INSURED UNEMPLOYMENT.] "Rate of insured unemployment," for purposes of clauses (2) and (3), means the percentage derived by dividing the average weekly number of individuals filing claims for regular benefits in this state for weeks of unemployment with respect to the most recent 13 consecutive week period, as determined by the commissioner on the basis of the commissioner's reports to the United States secretary of labor, by the average monthly employment covered under this law for the first four of the most recent six completed calendar quarters ending before the end of such 13 week period.

(5) [REGULAR BENEFITS.] "Regular benefits" means benefits payable to an individual under this law or under any other state law (including benefits payable to federal civilian employees and to ex-servicemen pursuant to United States Code, title 5, chapter 85) other than extended benefits and additional benefits.

(6) [EXTENDED BENEFITS.] "Extended benefits" means benefits (including benefits payable to federal civilian employees and to ex-servicemen pursuant to United States Code, title 5, chapter 85) payable to an individual under the provisions of this section for weeks of unemployment in the individual's eligibility period.

(7) [ADDITIONAL BENEFITS.] "Additional benefits" means benefits payable to exhaustees by reason of conditions of high unemployment or by reason of other special factors under the provisions of any state law.

(8) [ELIGIBILITY PERIOD.] "Eligibility period" of an individual means the period consisting of the weeks in the individual's benefit year which begin in an extended benefit period and, if the benefit year ends within such extended benefit period, any weeks thereafter which begin in such period.

(9) [EXHAUSTEE.] "Exhaustee" means an individual who, with respect to any week of unemployment in the individual's eligibility period:

(a) Has received, prior to such week, all of the regular benefits that were available under this law or any other state law (including dependents' allowances and benefits payable to federal civilian employees and ex-servicemen under United States Code, title 5, chapter 85) in the individual's current benefit year that includes such week;

Provided, that, for the purposes of this paragraph, an individual shall be deemed to have received all of the regular benefits that were available to the individual although as a result of a pending appeal with respect to wage credits or credit weeks, or alternative credit weeks that were not considered in the original monetary determination in the individual's benefit year, the individual may subsequently be determined to be entitled to added regular benefits; or

(b) The individual's benefit year having expired prior to such week, has no, or insufficient, wages and/or employment on the basis of which the individual could establish a new benefit year that would include such week or having established a benefit year that includes such week, the individual is precluded from receiving regular compensation by reason of: (i) a state law provision which meets the requirements of section 3304 (a) (7) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, or (ii) a disqualification determination which canceled wage credits or totally reduced benefit rights, or (iii) benefits are not payable by reason of a seasonal limitation in a state unemployment insurance law; and

(c) Has no right to unemployment benefits or allowances, as the case may be, under the railroad unemployment insurance act, the trade expansion act of 1962, the automotive products act of 1965 and such other federal laws as are specified in regulations issued by the United States Secretary of Labor; and has not received and is not seeking unemployment benefits under the unemployment compensation law of Canada; but if the individual is seeking such benefits and the appropriate agency finally determines that the individual is not entitled to benefits under such law the individual is considered an exhaustee.

(10) [STATE LAW.] "State law" means the unemployment insurance law of any state, approved by the United States secretary of labor under section 3304 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954.

Sec. 16. [268.073] [ADDITIONAL UNEMPLOYMENT COMPENSATION BENEFITS.]

Subdivision 1. Additional unemployment compensation benefits are authorized under this section only if the commissioner determines that:

(1) an employer has reduced operations at an establishment resulting in the reduction of at least 50 percent of the employer's work force and the lay-off of at least 50 employees at that establishment;

(2) the employer does not intend to resume operations which would lead to the reemployment of those employees at any time in the future; and

(3) the unemployment rate for the county in which the establishment is located was ten percent during the month of the reduction or any of the three months preceding or succeeding the reduction.

Subd. 2. [PAYMENT OF BENEFITS.] All benefits payable under this section are payable from the fund.

Subd. 3. [ELIGIBILITY CONDITIONS.] An individual is eligible to receive additional benefits under this section for any week during the individual's benefit year if the commissioner finds that:

(1) the individual's unemployment is the result of a reduction in operations as provided under subdivision 1;

(2) the individual is unemployed and meets the eligibility requirements for the receipt of unemployment benefits under section 268.08;

(3) the individual is not subject to a disqualification for benefits under section 268.09; for the purpose of this subdivision, the disqualifying conditions set forth in section 268.09, and the requalifying requirements thereunder, apply to the receipt of additional benefits under this section;

(4) the individual has exhausted all rights to regular benefits payable under section 268.07, is not entitled to receive extended benefits under section 268.071, and is not entitled to receive unemployment compensation benefits under any other state or federal law for the week in which the individual is claiming additional benefits;

(5) the individual has made a claim for additional benefits with respect to any week the individual is claiming benefits in accordance with the regulations as the commissioner may prescribe with respect to claims for regular benefits; and

(6) the individual has worked at least 26 weeks during the individual's base period in employment with an employer for whom the commissioner has determined there was a reduction in operations under subdivision 1.

Subd. 4. [WEEKLY BENEFIT AMOUNT.] A claimant's weekly benefit amount under this section shall be the same as the individual's weekly benefit amount payable during the individual's current benefit year under section 268.08.

Subd. 5. [MAXIMUM BENEFITS PAYABLE.] A claimant's maximum amount of additional benefits payable in the individual's benefit year shall be six times the individual's weekly benefit amount. Unemployment compensation benefits paid to an individual under any state or federal law other than regular benefits payable under section 268.07 shall be deducted from that individual's maximum amount of additional benefits.

Subd. 6. [ELIGIBILITY.] The additional benefits provided under this section shall be payable to any claimant who meets the eligibility conditions under subdivision 3 whose unemployment occurred on July 1, 1984, or thereafter, provided the claimant has filed a claim for additional benefits which is effective January 1, 1987, or thereafter.

Sec. 17: Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 268.08, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [ELIGIBILITY CONDITIONS.] An individual shall be eligible to receive benefits with respect to any week of unemployment only if the commissioner finds that the individual:

(1) has registered for work at and thereafter has continued to report to an employment office, or agent of the office, in accordance with rules the commissioner may adopt; except that the commissioner may by rule waive or alter either or both of the requirements of this clause as to types of cases or situations with respect to which the commissioner finds that compliance with the requirements would be oppressive or would be inconsistent with the purposes of sections 268.03 to 268.24;

(2) has made a claim for benefits in accordance with rules as the commissioner may adopt;

(3) was able to work and was available for work, and was actively seeking work. The individual's weekly benefit amount shall be reduced one-fifth for each day the individual is unable to work or is unavailable for work. Benefits shall not be denied by application of this clause to an individual who is in training with the approval of the commissioner or in training approved pursuant to section 236 of the Trade Act of 1974, as amended.

An individual is deemed unavailable for work with respect to any week which occurs in a period when the individual is a full-time student in attendance at, or on vacation from an established school, college or university unless a majority of the credit weeks or alternative credit weeks earned in the base period were for services performed during weeks in which the student was attending school as a full-time student.

An individual serving as a juror shall be considered as available for work and actively seeking work on each day the individual is on jury duty; and

(4) has been unemployed for a waiting period of one week during which the individual is otherwise eligible for benefits under sections 268.03 to 268.24. However, payment for the waiting week shall be made to the individual as follows: ten percent of the amount of the individual's weekly benefit amount otherwise payable shall be paid to the individual after the individual has qualified for and been paid benefits for four weeks of unemployment in a benefit year which period of unemployment is terminated because of the individual's return to employment; the remaining 90 percent of the individual's weekly benefit amount shall be paid to the individual after the last week for which the individual has qualified for and been paid benefits. No individual is required to serve a waiting period of more than one week within the one-year period subsequent to filing a valid claim and commencing with the week within which the valid claim was filed.

Sec. 18. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 268.08, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [NOT ELIGIBLE.] An individual shall not be eligible to receive benefits for any week with respect to which the individual is receiving, has received, or has filed a claim for remuneration in an amount equal to or in excess of the individual's weekly benefit amount in the form of

(1) termination, severance, or dismissal payment or wages in lieu of notice whether legally required or not; provided that if a termination, severance, or dismissal payment is made in a lump sum, the employer may allocate such lump sum payment over a period equal to the lump sum divided by the employee's regular pay while employed by such employer; provided any such payment shall be applied for a period immediately following the last day of work but not to exceed 28 calendar days; or

(2) vacation allowance paid directly by the employer for a period of requested vacation, including vacation periods assigned by the employer under the provisions of a collective bargaining agreement, or uniform vacation shutdown; or

(3) compensation for loss of wages under the workers' compensation law of this state or any other state or under a similar law of the United States, or under other insurance or fund established and paid for by the employer except that this does not apply to an individual who is receiving temporary partial compensation pursuant to section 176.101, subdivision 3k; or

(4) 50 percent of the pension payments from any fund, annuity or insurance maintained or contributed to by a base period employer including the armed forces of the United States if the employee contributed to the fund, annuity or insurance and all of the pension payments if the employee did not contribute to the fund, annuity or insurance; or

(5) 50 percent of a primary insurance benefit under title II of the Social Security Act as amended, or similar old age benefits under any act of congress or this state or any other state.

Provided, that if such remuneration is less than the benefits which would otherwise be due under sections 268.03 to 268.24, the individual shall be entitled to receive for such week, if otherwise eligible, benefits reduced by the amount of such remuneration; provided, further, that if the appropriate agency of such other state or the federal government finally determines that the individual is not entitled to such benefits, this provision shall not apply. If the computation of reduced benefits, required by this subdivision, is not a whole dollar amount, it shall be rounded down to the next lower dollar amount.

If an individual's benefit is reduced because of the receipt of a pension from the employer that the individual left due to the reasons described in clause (b), the individual's benefit year shall be extended by the number of weeks necessary for the individual to receive the benefit which would have been paid in the benefit year except for that reduction if the following conditions are satisfied:

(a) the individual is ineligible for benefits solely due to the lapse of the benefit year;

(b) the individual is unemployed due to the closing of a place of employment or is otherwise permanently laid off and not due to a voluntary decision of the individual to retire; and

(c) the individual had not attained mandatory retirement age at the time the individual became unemployed.

Sec. 19. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 268.09, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [DISQUALIFYING CONDITIONS.] An individual separated from employment under clause (1), (2), or (3) shall be disqualified for waiting week credit and benefits. For separations under clauses (1) and (2), the disqualification shall continue until ~~four~~ eight calendar weeks have elapsed following the individual's separation and the individual has earned ~~four~~ eight times the individual's weekly benefit amount in insured work.

(1) [VOLUNTARY LEAVE.] The individual voluntarily and without good cause attributable to the employer discontinued employment with such employer. For the purpose of this clause, a separation from employment by reason of its temporary nature or for inability to pass a test or for inability to meet performance standards necessary for continuation of employment or based solely on a provision in a collective bargaining agreement by which an individual has vested discretionary authority in another to act in behalf of the individual shall not be deemed voluntary.

A separation shall be for good cause attributable to the employer if it occurs as a consequence of sexual harassment. Sexual harassment means unwelcome sexual advances, requests for sexual favors, sexually motivated physical contact or other conduct or communication of a sexual nature when: (1) the employee's submission to such conduct or communication is made a term or condition of the employment, (2) the employee's submission to or rejection of such conduct or communication is the basis for decisions affecting employment, or (3) such conduct or communication has the purpose or effect of substantially interfering with an individual's work performance or creating an intimidating, hostile, or offensive working environment and the employer knows or should know of the existence of the harassment and fails to take timely and appropriate action.

(2) [DISCHARGE FOR MISCONDUCT.] The individual was discharged for misconduct, not amounting to gross misconduct connected with work or for misconduct which interferes with and adversely affects employment.

An individual shall not be disqualified under clauses (1) and (2) of this subdivision under any of the following conditions:

(a) The individual voluntarily discontinued employment to accept work offering substantially better conditions of work or substantially higher wages or both;

(b) The individual is separated from employment due to personal, serious illness provided that such individual has made reasonable efforts to retain employment;

An individual who is separated from employment due to the individual's illness of chemical dependency which has been professionally diagnosed or for which the individual has voluntarily submitted to treatment and who fails to make consistent efforts to maintain the treatment the individual knows or has been professionally advised is necessary to control that illness has not made reasonable efforts to retain employment.

(c) The individual accepts work from a base period employer which involves a change in location of work so that said work would not have been deemed to be suitable work under the provisions of subdivision 2 and within a period of 13 weeks from the commencement of said work voluntarily discontinues employment due to reasons which would have caused the work to be unsuitable under the provision of said subdivision 2;

(d) The individual left employment because of reaching mandatory retirement age and was 65 years of age or older;

(e) The individual is terminated by the employer because the individual gave notice of intention to terminate employment within 30 days. This exception shall be effective only through the calendar week which includes the date of intended termination, provided that this exception shall not result in the payment of benefits for any week for which the individual receives the individual's normal wage or salary which is equal to or greater than the weekly benefit amount;

(f) The individual is separated from employment due to the completion of an apprenticeship program, or segment thereof, approved pursuant to chapter 178;

(g) The individual voluntarily leaves part-time employment with a base period employer while continuing full-time employment if the individual attempted to return to part-time employment after being separated from the full-time employment, and if substantially the same part-time employment with the base period employer was not available for the individual.

(3) [DISCHARGE FOR GROSS MISCONDUCT.] The individual was discharged for gross misconduct connected with work or gross misconduct which interferes with and adversely affects the individual's employment. For a separation under this clause, the commissioner shall impose a total disqualification for the benefit year and cancel all of the wage credits from the last employer from whom the individual was discharged for gross misconduct connected with work.

For the purpose of this clause "gross misconduct" is defined as misconduct involving assault and battery or the malicious destruction of property or arson or sabotage or embezzlement or any other act, including theft, the commission of which amounts to a felony or gross misdemeanor. For an employee of a health care facility, gross misconduct also includes misconduct involving an act of patient or resident abuse as defined in section 626.557, subdivision 2, clause (d).

If an individual is convicted of a felony or gross misdemeanor for the same act or acts of misconduct for which the individual was discharged, the misconduct is conclusively presumed to be gross misconduct if it was connected with the individual's work.

(4) [LIMITED OR NO CHARGE OF BENEFITS.] Benefits paid subsequent to an individual's separation under any of the foregoing clauses, excepting clauses (2)(c) and (2)(e), shall not be used as a factor in determining the future contribution rate of the employer from whose employment such individual separated.

Benefits paid subsequent to an individual's failure, without good cause, to accept an offer of suitable re-employment shall not be used as a factor in determining the future contribution rate of the employer whose offer of re-employment was not accepted or whose offer of re-employment was refused solely due to the distance of the available work from the individual's residence, the individual's own serious illness or the individual's other employment at the time of the offer.

(5) An individual who was employed by an employer shall not be disqualified for benefits under this subdivision for any acts or omissions occurring after separation from employment with the employer.

(6) [DISCIPLINARY SUSPENSIONS.] An individual shall be disqualified for waiting week credit and benefits for the duration of any disciplinary suspension of 30 days or less resulting from the individual's own misconduct. Disciplinary suspensions of more than 30 days shall constitute a discharge from employment.

Sec. 20. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 268.09, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [FAILURE TO APPLY FOR OR ACCEPT SUITABLE WORK OR RE-EMPLOYMENT.] An individual shall be disqualified for waiting week credit and benefits during the week of occurrence and until ~~four~~ eight calendar weeks have elapsed following the refusal or failure and the individual has earned ~~four~~ eight times the individual's weekly benefit amount in insured work if the commissioner finds that the individual has failed, without good cause, either to apply for available, suitable work of which advised by the employment office, or the commissioner or to accept suitable work when offered, or to return to customary self-employment (if any) when so directed by the commissioner, or to accept a base period employer's offer of re-employment offering substantially the same or better hourly wages and conditions of work as were previously provided by that employer in the base period.

(a) In determining whether or not any work is suitable for an individual, the commissioner shall consider the degree of risk involved to health, safety, and morals, physical fitness and prior training, experience, length of unemployment and prospects of securing local work in the individual's customary occupation, and the distance of the available work from the individual's residence.

(b) Notwithstanding any other provisions of sections 268.03 to 268.24, no work shall be deemed suitable, and benefits shall not be denied thereunder to any otherwise eligible individual for refusing to accept new work under any of the following conditions:

(1) if the position offered is vacant due directly to a strike, lockout, or other labor dispute;

(2) if the wages, hours, or other conditions of the work offered are substantially less favorable to the individual than those prevailing for similar work in the locality;

(3) if as a condition of being employed the individual would be required to join a union or to resign from or refrain from joining any bona fide labor organization;

(4) if the individual is in training with the approval of the commissioner.

(c) Except as otherwise provided in paragraph (b), work is suitable if it meets the requirements of paragraph (a) and pays 75 percent or more of the individual's gross weekly wages.

Sec. 21. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 268.09, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 2a. An individual who has qualified for benefits under the alternative credit week requirement, as provided under section 268.07, subdivision 2, and who is disqualified for benefits under subdivisions 1 and 2 of this section, other than for gross misconduct, shall be disqualified for waiting week credit and benefits. The disqualification shall continue until eight weeks have elapsed following the separation or refusal of suitable work or reemployment and until the individual has worked for a minimum of 20 hours in each of eight weeks in insured work.

Sec. 22. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 268.10, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [FILING.] (a) Claims for benefits shall be made in accordance with such rules as the commissioner may prescribe. Each employer shall post and maintain printed statements of such rules in places readily accessible to individuals in the employer's service and shall make available to each such individual at the time of becoming unemployed, a printed statement of such rules. Such printed statements shall be supplied by the commissioner to each employer without cost to the employer.

(1) (b) Any employer upon separation of an employee from employment for any reason which may result in disqualification for benefits under section 268.09, shall furnish to such employee a separation notice which shall provide the employer's name, address, and employer account number as registered with the department, the employee's name and social security account number, the inclusive dates of employment, and the reason for the separation. A copy of such separation notice shall be filed with the commissioner within seven days of such separation. The commissioner shall require each individual filing a claim for benefits to establish a benefit year to furnish the reason for separation from all employers in the individual's base period.

(2) Upon the filing, by an individual, of a claim for benefits, the commissioner shall give notice to all such base period employers of the filing of such claim and request each such base period employer, within seven days after the mailing of such notice, to furnish the following information:

- (a) The total wage credits earned in the base period;
- (b) The number of credit weeks which end within the base period;
- (c) The week ending dates for each calendar week within the base period in which the individual earned less than the amount required to make a credit week and the amount of earnings in each such week;
- (d) The reason for the separation or separations of such individual from the employ of the employer in the base period; and
- (e) Such employer's protest, if any, relating to the ineligibility or disqualification of such individual.

(3) If any base period employer, after the notice of filing of a claim and the request for wage and separation information has been duly mailed to the employer's last known address, fails to file information as provided by items (a) through (e) of clause 2 of this subdivision within seven days, the commissioner shall:

(a) Determine the validity of an individual's claim based on the claimant's statements or any other available information. An employer shall be liable for a late filing fee of not less than $5 nor more than $25, as the commissioner may determine, to be paid to the department of jobs and training and credited to the contingent fund if the employer has failed without good cause to submit the wage and separation information as required in clause 2 of this subdivision within seven days after the request has been duly mailed to the employer's last known address.

(c) For the purpose of complying with section 268.04, subdivision 2, the commissioner may require all base period employers to provide such information as the commissioner may prescribe, including, but not limited to, wages paid during any part of the base period, whether or not such information was previously provided.

(d) Upon establishment of a benefit year, the commissioner shall give notice to the last employer for whom the individual worked and all base period employers. The employer so notified shall have seven days after the mailing of the notice to file a protest to monetary entitlement or a protest raising an issue of ineligibility or disqualification.

(e) If, upon review of the wage information on file with the department, it is found that an employer failed to provide wage information for the claimant, the commissioner shall accept a claimant certification as to the wage credits earned, based upon the claimant's records, and issue a monetary determination of validity certification. This determination may be modified based upon corrected information subsequently received from the employer or other sources. The employer who failed to report the individual's wages or filed an erroneous report may be penalized in accordance with section 268.16 or 268.18. In the absence of fraud, if a redetermination of validity of claim based on an employer's late corrected or erroneous report subsequently cancels or reduces the amount of benefits to which a claimant was entitled under the initial determination, the claimant shall not be required to make repayment to the fund of any benefits paid prior to such redetermination; and

(b) (f) The commissioner shall determine any issue of disqualification raised by clause (1) under paragraph (d) or by an employer's late report. If an employer fails to file a separation notice within the time limits prescribed in clause (1) paragraph (b), any relief from benefit charges provided by section 268.09, subdivision 1, clause (4), shall apply to weeks of unemployment beginning after the filing of the late report or protest.

Sec. 23. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 268.10, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [EXAMINATION OF CLAIMS; DETERMINATION; APPEAL.] (1) An official, designated by the commissioner, shall promptly examine each claim for benefits filed to establish a benefit year pursuant to this section, and, on the basis of the facts found, shall determine whether or not such claims are valid, and if valid, the weekly benefit amount payable, the maximum benefit amount payable during the benefit year, and the date the benefit year terminates, and this determination shall be known as the determination of validity. Notice of the determination of validity or any redetermination as provided for in clause (4) shall be promptly given the claimant and all other interested parties. If within the time limits for filing a protest an employer notifies the department that an individual's weekly benefit amount as determined under section 268.07 exceeds the individual's weekly wages earned with the employer, the individual's weekly benefit amount shall be the lesser of (1) the weekly benefit amount as determined under section 268.07, or (2) the weekly benefit amount which is 50 percent of the quotient derived by dividing the total wage credits earned in the individual's base period credit weeks or alternative credit weeks from all employers in insured work by the number of base period credit weeks or alternative credit weeks. If within the time specified for the filing of wage and separation information as provided in subdivision 1, clause (2), the employer makes an allegation of disqualification or raises an issue of the chargeability to the employer's account of benefits that may be paid on such claim, if the claim is valid, the issue thereby raised shall be promptly determined by said official and a notification of the determination delivered or mailed to the claimant and the employer. If an initial determination or an appeal tribunal decision or the commissioner's decision awards benefits, the benefits shall be paid promptly regardless of the pendency of any appeal period or any appeal or other proceeding which may thereafter be taken. Except as provided in clause (6), if an appeal tribunal decision modifies or reverses an initial determination awarding benefits, or if a commissioner's decision modifies or reverses an appeal decision awarding benefits, any benefits paid under the award of such initial determination or appeal tribunal decision shall be deemed erroneous payments.

(2) At any time within 24 months from the date of the filing of a valid claim for benefits by an individual, an official of the department or any interested party or parties raises an issue of claimant's eligibility for benefits for any week or weeks in accordance with the requirements of the provisions of sections 268.03 to 268.24 or any official of the department or any interested party or parties or benefit year employer raises an issue of disqualification in accordance with the rules of the commissioner, a determination shall be made thereon and a written notice thereof shall be given to the claimant and such other interested party or parties or benefit year employer. A determination issued under this clause which denies benefits for weeks for which the claimant has previously been paid benefits is an overpayment of those benefits subject to section 268.18.

(3) A determination issued pursuant to clauses (1) and (2) shall be final unless an appeal therefrom is filed by a claimant or employer within 15 days after the mailing of the notice of the determination to the last known address or personal delivery of the notice. Every notice of determination shall contain a prominent statement indicating in clear language the method of appealing the determination, the time within which such an appeal must be made, and the consequences of not appealing the determination. A timely appeal from a determination of validity in which the issue is whether an employing unit is an employer within the meaning of this chapter or whether services performed for an employer constitute employment within the meaning of this chapter shall be subject to the provisions of section 268.12, subdivision 13.

(4) At any time within 24 months from the date of the filing of a valid claim for benefits by an individual, the commissioner on the commissioner's own motion may reconsider a determination of validity made thereon and make a redetermination thereof on finding that an error in computation or identity or the crediting of wage credits has occurred in connection therewith or if the determination was made as a result of a nondisclosure or misrepresentation of a material fact. A determination or redetermination issued under this clause which denies benefits for weeks for which the claimant has previously been paid benefits is an overpayment of those benefits subject to section 268.18.

(5) However, the commissioner may refer any disputed claims directly to a referee for hearing and determination in accordance with the procedure outlined in subdivision 3 and the effect and status of such determination in such a case shall be the same as though the matter had been determined upon an appeal to the tribunal from an initial determination.

(6) If a referee's decision affirms an initial determination awarding benefits or the commissioner affirms an appeal tribunal decision awarding benefits, the decision, if finally reversed, shall not result in a disqualification and benefits paid shall neither be deemed overpaid nor shall they be considered in determining any individual employer's future contribution rate under section 268.06.

Sec. 24. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 268.121, is amended to read:

268.121 [WAGE REPORTING.]

Beginning on April 1, 1984, each employer subject to this chapter shall provide the commissioner with a quarterly report of the wages, as defined in section 268.04, subdivision 25, paid to each employee of that employer covered by this chapter. The commissioner shall provide the legislature with recommendations for statutory changes to fully implement this section no later than January 1, 1983. The report must include the employee's name, social security number, the wages paid each week to an employee, and the total wages paid to the employee. The report is due and must be filed at the same time as the contribution report in accordance with rules established by the commissioner for filing of quarterly contribution reports. For the purpose of this section, "wages paid" includes wages actually or constructively paid and wages overdue and delayed beyond the usual time of payment.

Sec. 25. [REEMPLOYMENT BENEFIT STUDY.]

The commissioner of the department of jobs and training shall study the feasibility and public policy implication of providing partial weekly benefits to individuals that return to work prior to the time their benefit eligibility ceases. The commissioner shall report the results of the study along with any recommendations to each house of the legislature by January 1, 1988.

Sec. 26. [QUARTERLY QUALIFYING STUDY.]

The commissioner of the department of jobs and training shall make a detailed study of quarterly qualifying statutes in other states and shall present that study, along with a proposal for its implementation, to the legislature no later than January 1, 1987. The proposal shall be as revenue- and benefit-neutral as practicable with reference to the laws in effect as of January 1, 1987, as is reasonably possible. The report shall include a detailed explication of the need for adoption of this system, including pertinent citations of federal laws, and a timetable for its implementation.

Sec. 27. [WORKERS' COMPENSATION PREMIUM REDUCTION.]

The commissioner of the department of labor and industry shall report to the legislature by February 1, 1988 with proposals for reform in the workers' compensation system that will produce a 20 percent reduction in workers' compensation premium rates.

Sec. 28. [EFFECTIVE DATE.]

Sections 1, 16, 17, 18, 19, 20, 25, and 26 are effective the day following final enactment. Sections 2, 3, 5, 6, 7, 8, 9, 13, 14, 15, 21, 22, 23, and 24 are effective July 1, 1987. Sections 4, 11, and 12 are effective retroactively to January 1, 1987.

ARTICLE 4

TRANSFER OF AUTHORITY TO OFFICE OF ADMINISTRATIVE HEARINGS

Section 1. [TRANSFER FROM DEPARTMENT OF JOBS AND TRAINING.]

Subdivision 1. [PURPOSE.] It is the purpose and intent of this article to transfer all unemployment compensation hearing responsibilities and related functions except for appeal hearings before the commissioner or an authorized representative from the department of jobs and training to the office of administrative hearings.

Subd. 2. [PERSONNEL; EQUIPMENT.] All unemployment insurance referees at the department of jobs and training are transferred to the office of administrative hearings pursuant to Minnesota Statutes, section 15.039, except as otherwise provided by this article. Notwithstanding any laws to the contrary, all unemployment insurance referees employed by the department of jobs and training at the time of this transfer are eligible for appointment as unemployment judges within the office of administrative hearings, and shall be appointed as such on transfer. Notwithstanding the provisions of section 15.039, or any other provision of this article, the chief administrative law judge, in consultation with the commissioner of employee relations, shall appoint supervisory unemployment insurance judges. Referees transferred pursuant to this section fulfilling supervisory functions with the department of jobs and training at the time of transfer may be considered for appointment as supervisory unemployment insurance judges. All personnel and positions at the department of jobs and training presently providing support to the hearing related functions transferred pursuant to this article, including those involved in the scheduling of hearings, processing, and mailing of hearing notices, preparation and serving of referees' decisions or correspondence, travel coordination, accounting, and answering of telephones are transferred to the office of administrative hearings pursuant to Minnesota Statutes, section 15.039.

All equipment and supplies used solely by the transferred personnel in the performance of their duties are transferred to the office of administrative hearings.

Subd. 3. [COOPERATION.] Commencing with the passage and signing of this act, the commissioner, the commissioners of administration, finance, and employee relations, and the chief administrative law judge shall cooperate in assuring a smooth transfer of the referees and related personnel and equipment in order to carry out the purposes of this article. The commissioner shall provide office space at the department of jobs and training for the chief administrative law judge to use prior to the transfer in order to complete a review of the existing hearing system and personnel prior to the effective date of the transfer. The commissioner of administration, after consultation with the commissioner of jobs and training, the commissioner of finance, and the chief administrative law judge, shall determine the appropriate location of office space for the transferred personnel. The commissioner shall continue to provide space for the conduct of hearings in the same facilities and locations which are presently utilized for that purpose.

Subd. 4. [RULES.] The chief administrative law judge may make emergency rules for the purpose of adopting procedural rules for unemployment compensation hearings. The rules shall not conflict with any provisions of Minnesota Statutes, chapter 268, and shall comply with any applicable federal laws, rules, or regulations.

Subd. 5. [TIMELINESS.] To satisfy United States Department of Labor funding requirements the office of administrative hearings shall meet or exceed timeliness standards under federal regulation in the conduct of unemployment compensation hearings.

Sec. 2. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 14.03, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [CONTESTED CASE PROCEDURE.] The contested case procedures of the administrative procedure act provided in sections 14.57 to 14.70 do not apply to (a) the Minnesota municipal board, (b) the commissioner of corrections, (c) the unemployment insurance program ~~and, except for those hearings held by an unemployment insurance judge of the office of administrative hearings,~~ (d) the social security disability determination program in the department of jobs and training, ~~(d)~~ (e) the director of mediation services, (e) (f) the workers' compensation division in the department of labor and industry, ~~(f)~~ (g) the workers' compensation court of appeals, ~~(g)~~ (h) the board of pardons, or ~~(h)~~ (i) the public employment relations board.

Sec. 3. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 14.48, is amended to read:

14.48 [CREATION OF OFFICE OF ADMINISTRATIVE HEARINGS; CHIEF ADMINISTRATIVE LAW JUDGE APPOINTED; OTHER ADMINISTRATIVE LAW JUDGES APPOINTED.]

A state office of administrative hearings is created. The office shall be under the direction of a chief administrative law judge who shall be learned in the law and appointed by the governor, with the advice and consent of the senate, for a term ending on June 30 of the sixth calendar year after appointment. Senate confirmation of the chief administrative law judge shall be as provided by section 15.066. The chief administrative law judge shall appoint additional administrative law judges and compensation judges to serve in the office as necessary to fulfill the duties prescribed in sections 14.48 to 14.56. The chief administrative law judge may delegate to a subordinate employee the exercise of a specified statutory power or duty as deemed advisable, subject to the control of the chief administrative law judge. Every delegation must be by written order filed with the secretary of state. All administrative law judges, unemployment insurance judges, and compensation judges shall be in the classified service except that the chief administrative law judge shall be in the unclassified service, but may be removed only for cause. All administrative law judges shall have demonstrated knowledge of administrative procedures and shall be free of any political or economic association that would impair their ability to function officially in a fair and objective manner. All workers' compensation judges shall be learned in the law, shall have demonstrated knowledge of workers' compensation laws and shall be free of any political or economic association that would impair their ability to function officially in a fair and objective manner.

Sec. 4. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 14.51, is amended to read:

14.51 [PROCEDURAL RULES FOR HEARINGS.]

The chief administrative law judge shall adopt rules to govern the procedural conduct of all hearings, relating to both rule adoption, amendment, suspension or repeal hearings, contested case hearings, and workers' compensation hearings and unemployment compensation hearings, and to govern the conduct of voluntary mediation sessions for rulemaking and contested cases other than those within the jurisdiction of the bureau of mediation services. Temporary Emergency rulemaking authority is granted to the chief administrative law judge for the purpose of implementing Laws 1981, chapter 346, sections 2 to 6, 103 to 122, 127 to 135, and 141 the adoption of procedural rules for unemployment compensation hearings. The procedural rules for hearings shall be binding upon all agencies and shall supersede any other agency procedural rules with which they may be in conflict. The procedural rules for hearings shall include in addition to normal procedural matters provisions relating to recessing and reconvening new hearings when the proposed final rule of an agency is substantially different from that which was proposed at the public hearing. The procedural rules shall establish a procedure whereby the proposed final rule of an agency shall be reviewed by the chief administrative law judge to determine whether or not a new hearing is required because of substantial changes or failure of the agency to meet the requirements of sections 14.13 to 14.18. Upon the chief administrative law judge's own initiative or upon written request of an interested party, the chief administrative law judge may issue a subpoena for the attendance of a witness or the production of books, papers, records or other documents as are material to the matter being heard. The subpoenas shall be enforceable through the district court in the district in which the subpoena is issued.

Sec. 5. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 14.53, is amended to read:

14.53 [COSTS ASSESSED.]

In consultation with the commissioner of administration finance the chief administrative law judge shall assess agencies the cost of services rendered to them in the conduct of hearings. All agencies shall include in their budgets provisions for such assessments.

Sec. 6. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 43A.18, subdivision 4, is amended to read:

Subd. 4. [PLANS NOT ESTABLISHED BUT APPROVED BY COMMISSIONER.] Notwithstanding any other law to the contrary, total compensation for employees listed in this subdivision shall be set by appointing authorities within the limits of compensation plans that have been approved by the commissioner before becoming effective.

(a) Total compensation for employees who are not covered by a collective bargaining agreement in the offices of the governor, attorney general, secretary of state, state auditor and state treasurer shall be determined by the governor, attorney general, secretary of state, state auditor and state treasurer, respectively.

(b) Total compensation for unclassified positions pursuant to section 43A.08, subdivision 1, clause (h), in the higher education coordinating board, and in the state board of vocational technical education shall be determined by the state university board and the state board for community colleges, the higher education coordinating board, and the state board of vocational technical education, respectively.

(c) Total compensation for classified administrative law judges and unemployment insurance judges in the office of administrative hearings shall be determined by the chief administrative law judge.

Sec. 7. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 179A.10, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [EXCLUSIONS.] The commissioner of employee relations shall meet and negotiate with the exclusive representative of each of the units specified in this section. The units provided in this section are the only appropriate units for executive branch state employees. The following employees shall be excluded from any appropriate unit:

(1) the positions and classes of positions in the classified and unclassified services defined as managerial by the commissioner of employee relations in accordance with section 43A.18, subdivision 3, and so designated in the official state compensation schedules;

(2) unclassified positions in the state university system and the community college system defined as managerial by their respective boards;

(3) positions of physician employees compensated under section 43A.17, subdivision 4;

(4) positions of all unclassified employees appointed by a constitutional officer;

(5) positions in the bureau of mediation services and the public employment relations board;

(6) positions of employees whose classification is pilot or chief pilot;

(7) administrative law judge, unemployment insurance judge, and compensation judge positions in the office of administrative hearings; and

(8) positions of all confidential employees.

The governor may upon the unanimous written request of exclusive representatives of units and the commissioner direct that negotiations be conducted for one or more units in a common proceeding or that supplemental negotiations be conducted for portions of a unit or units defined on the basis of appointing authority or geography.

Sec. 8. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 268.06, subdivision 18, is amended to read:

Subd. 18. [NOTICE TO EMPLOYER.] The commissioner shall at least twice each year notify each employer of the benefits as determined by the department which have been charged to the employer's account subsequent to the last notice. Unless reviewed in the manner hereinafter provided, charges set forth in such notice, or as modified by a redetermination, a decision of a referee an unemployment insurance judge, or the commissioner, shall be final and shall be used in determining the contribution rates for all years in which the charges occur within the employer's experience period and shall not be subject to collateral attack by way of review of a rate determination, application for adjustment or refund, or otherwise.

Sec. 9. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 268.06, subdivision 19, is amended to read:

Subd. 19. [NOTICE OF RATE.] The commissioner shall mail to each employer notice of the employer's rate of contributions as determined for any calendar year pursuant to this section. Such notice shall contain the contribution rate, factors used in determining the individual employer's experience rating, and such other information as the commissioner may prescribe. Unless reviewed in the manner hereinafter provided, the rate as determined or as modified by a redetermination, a decision of a referee an unemployment insurance judge, or the commissioner shall be final except for fraud and shall be the rate upon which contributions shall be computed for the calendar year for which such rate was determined, and shall not be subject to collateral attack for any errors, clerical or otherwise, whether by way of claim for adjustment or refund, or otherwise. If the legislature changes any of the factors used to determine the contribution rate of any employer for any year subsequent to the original mailing of such notice for the year, the earlier notice shall be void. The notice based on the new factors shall be deemed to be the only notice of rate of contributions for that year and shall be subject to the same finality, redetermination and review procedures as provided above.

Sec. 10. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 268.06, subdivision 20, is amended to read:

Subd. 20. [PROTEST, REVIEW, REDETERMINATION, APPEAL.] A review of the charges made to an employer's account as set forth in the notice of charges referred to in subdivision 18 and a review of an employer's contribution rate as set forth in the notice of the employer's rate for any calendar year as provided in subdivision 19, may be had by the employer by filing with the commissioner a written protest setting forth reasons therefor within 30 days from the date of the mailing of the notice of charges or contribution rate to the employer. The date shall appear on the notice. Upon receipt of the protest, the commissioner shall refer the matter to an official designated by the commissioner to review the charges appearing on the notice appealed from or the computations of the protesting employer's rate, as the case may be, to determine whether or not there has been any clerical error or error in computation in either case. The official shall either affirm or make a redetermination rectifying the charges or rate as the case may be, and a notice of the affirmation or redetermination shall immediately be mailed to the employer. If the employer is not satisfied with the affirmation or redetermination, the employer may appeal by filing a notice with the department within ten days after the date of mailing appearing upon the redetermination. Upon the receipt of the appeal, the commissioner shall refer the matter to a referee the office of administrative hearings for a hearing and after opportunity for a fair hearing, the referee unemployment insurance judge shall affirm, modify or set aside the original determination with its affirmation or the redetermination, as appears just and proper. The commissioner may at any time upon the commissioner's own motion correct any clerical error of the department resulting in charges against an employer's account or any error in the computation of an employer's contribution rate. The referee unemployment insurance judge may order the consolidation of two or more appeals whenever, in the referee's judge's judgment, consolidation will not be prejudicial to any interested party. At any hearing a written report of any employee of the department which has been authenticated shall be admissible in evidence. Appeals from the decision of the referee unemployment insurance judge shall be provided by section 268.10, subdivision 5.

Sec. 11. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 268.10, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [EXAMINATION OF CLAIMS; DETERMINATION; APPEAL.] (1) An official, designated by the commissioner, shall promptly examine each claim for benefits filed to establish a benefit year pursuant to this section, and, on the basis of the facts found, shall determine whether or not such claims are valid, and if valid, the weekly benefit amount payable, the maximum benefit amount payable during the benefit year, and the date the benefit year terminates, and this determination shall be known as the determination of validity. Notice of the determination of validity or any redetermination as provided for in clause (4) shall be promptly given the claimant and all other interested parties. If within the time limits for filing a protest an employer notifies the department that an individual's weekly benefit amount as determined under section 268.07 exceeds the individual's weekly wages earned with the employer, the individual's weekly benefit amount shall be the lesser of (1) the weekly benefit amount as determined under section 268.07, or (2) the weekly benefit amount which is 50 percent of the quotient derived by dividing the total wage credits earned in the individual's base period credit weeks from all employers in insured work by the number of base period credit weeks. If within the time specified for the filing of wage and separation information as provided in subdivision 1, clause (2), the employer makes an allegation of disqualification or raises an issue of the chargeability to the employer's account of benefits that may be paid on such claim, if the claim is valid, the issue thereby raised shall be promptly determined by said official and a notification of the determination delivered or mailed to the claimant and the employer. If an initial determination or an ~~appeal tribunal~~ unemployment insurance judge decision or the commissioner's decision awards benefits, the benefits shall be paid promptly regardless of the pendency of any appeal period or any appeal or other proceeding which may thereafter be taken. Except as provided in clause (6), if an ~~appeal tribunal~~ unemployment insurance judge decision modifies or reverses an initial determination awarding benefits, or if a commissioner's decision modifies or reverses an ~~appeal~~ unemployment insurance judge decision awarding benefits, any benefits paid under the award of such initial determination or ~~appeal tribunal~~ unemployment insurance judge decision shall be deemed erroneous payments.

(2) At any time within 24 months from the date of the filing of a valid claim for benefits by an individual, an official of the department or any interested party or parties raises an issue of claimant's eligibility for benefits for any week or weeks in accordance with the requirements of the provisions of sections 268.03 to 268.24 or any official of the department or any interested party or parties or benefit year employer raises an issue of disqualification in accordance with the rules of the commissioner, a determination shall be made thereon and a written notice thereof shall be given to the claimant and such other interested party or parties or benefit year employer. A determination issued under this clause which denies benefits for weeks for which the claimant has previously been paid benefits is an overpayment of those benefits subject to section 268.18.

(3) A determination issued pursuant to clauses (1) and (2) shall be final unless an appeal therefrom is filed by a claimant or employer within 15 days after the mailing of the notice of the determination to the last known address or personal delivery of the notice. Every notice of determination shall contain a prominent statement indicating in clear language the method of appealing the determination, the time within which such an appeal must be made, and the consequences of not appealing the determination. A timely appeal from a determination of validity in which the issue is whether an employing unit is an employer within the meaning of this chapter or whether services performed for an employer constitute employment within the meaning of this chapter shall be subject to the provisions of section 268.12, subdivision 13.

(4) At any time within 24 months from the date of the filing of a valid claim for benefits by an individual, the commissioner on the commissioner's own motion may reconsider a determination of validity made thereon and make a redetermination thereof on finding that an error in computation or identity or the crediting of wage credits has occurred in connection therewith or if the determination was made as a result of a nondisclosure or misrepresentation of a material fact. A determination or redetermination issued under this clause which denies benefits for weeks for which the claimant has previously been paid benefits is an overpayment of those benefits subject to section 268.18.

(5) However, the commissioner may refer any disputed claims directly to a referee the office of administrative hearings for hearing and determination in accordance with the procedure outlined in subdivision 3 and the effect and status of such determination in such a case shall be the same as though the matter had been determined upon an appeal to the tribunal unemployment insurance judge from an initial determination.

(6) If a referee's an unemployment insurance judge's decision affirms an initial determination awarding benefits or the commissioner affirms an appeal tribunal unemployment insurance judge decision awarding benefits, the decision, if finally reversed, shall not result in a disqualification and benefits paid shall neither be deemed overpaid nor shall they be considered in determining any individual employer's future contribution rate under section 268.06.

Sec. 12. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 268.10, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [APPEAL; HEARING.] Upon receipt of an appeal from an initial determination made under subdivision 2, the commissioner shall immediately forward the appeal and all necessary documents to the chief administrative law judge for assignment of an unemployment insurance judge to hear the case and the scheduling of a date, time, and place for the hearing. Unless an appeal is withdrawn, the date for hearing before a referee an unemployment insurance judge shall be set and notice of the hearing shall be mailed to the last known address of all interested parties at least ten days prior to the date set for the hearing. The notice shall be mailed by the office of administrative hearings. The hearing may be conducted by means of a conference telephone call except that the appellant may request that the hearing be conducted in person. The hearing shall be a trial de novo, and, upon the evidence presented, the referee unemployment insurance judge shall affirm, modify, or set aside the initial determination. Where the same or substantially similar evidence is relevant and material to the issues in appeals by more than one individual or in appeals by one individual with respect to two or more weeks of unemployment, the appeals may be consolidated into one hearing pursuant to the procedural rules adopted by the chief administrative law judge. The referee unemployment insurance judge shall exclude from any consolidated hearing the appeal of an individual who may be prejudiced because of the consolidation. A referee An unemployment insurance judge shall not hear any appeal in which the referee unemployment insurance judge has a direct interest. The parties and the commissioner shall be notified of the referee's unemployment insurance judge's decision and the reason for it. The referee's unemployment insurance judge's decision is deemed to be the final decision unless a further appeal is initiated pursuant to subdivision 5.

Sec. 13. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 268.10, subdivision 4, is amended to read:

Subd. 4. [REFEREES TRANSCRIPTS; REVIEW OF DECISIONS.] In order to assure the prompt disposition of all claims for benefits, the commissioner shall appoint one or more impartial referees. The commissioner shall by rule adopt a procedure by which referees hear and decide disputed claims, subject to appeal to the commissioner. No person shall participate on behalf of the commissioner in any case in which that person is an interested party. The commissioner may designate alternates to serve in the absence or disqualification of a referee. The department shall cause a transcript to be prepared of all cases heard by an unemployment insurance judge from which an appeal is made to the commissioner. There shall be no charges, fees, transcript costs, or other cost imposed upon the employee in prosecuting an appeal. All decisions of referees unemployment insurance judges shall be made available to the public in accordance with rules the commissioner may prescribe, except that names of interested parties may be deleted.

Sec. 14. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 268.10, subdivision 5, is amended to read:

Subd. 5. [REVIEW BY COMMISSIONER.] Within 30 days after mailing or personal delivery of the notice of a referee's an unemployment insurance judge's decision to the claimant or employer at the last known address, a party may file, with the commissioner, a notice of appeal from the decision and obtain a review of it by the commissioner or an authorized representative. The commissioner within the same period of time may on the commissioner's own motion order a review of a decision. Upon review, the commissioner or authorized representative may affirm, modify, or set aside any finding of fact or decision, or both, of the referee on the basis of the evidence previously submitted in the case, or remand the matter back to the referee for the taking of additional evidence and new findings and decision based on all of the evidence before the referee. The notice of appeal must set forth the issues raised on appeal. The notice of the decision of the unemployment compensation judge must explain how an appeal may be filed. On an appeal taken under this subdivision, the commissioner or authorized representative is limited to the issues raised by the parties in the notice of the appeal from the unemployment insurance judge's decision. The commissioner or authorized representative, on the basis of evidence previously submitted, may affirm the decision of the unemployment insurance judge, may remand the case for further proceedings, or may modify or reverse the decision if the unemployment insurance judge's decision is in error of law, violates the procedures of chapter 268, is unsupported by substantial evidence in view of the record as a whole when the issue in dispute involves a question of fact, or is arbitrary or capricious. Notice of all hearings on review shall be given to all interested parties in the same manner as provided for by subdivision 3. Upon the motion of a party, the commissioner or authorized representative may personally hear or transfer to another referee unemployment insurance judge the proceedings on any claim pending before a referee an unemployment insurance judge. Any proceedings removed to the commissioner or authorized representative shall be heard upon notice in accordance with the requirements of subdivision 3. The department of jobs and training shall mail to all interested parties and the chief administrative law judge a notice of the filing of and a copy of the findings and decision of the commissioner or representative.

Sec. 15. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 268.10, subdivision 6, is amended to read:

Subd. 6. [COMMISSIONER.] The manner in which disputed claims are presented, the reports required from the claimant and from employers, and the conduct of hearings and appeals shall be in accordance with the rules adopted by the commissioner for determining the rights of the parties, whether or not the Rules relating to the conduct of hearings before unemployment insurance judges shall be adopted by the chief administrative law judge. The rules of the commissioner and the chief administrative law judge need not conform to common law or statutory rules of evidence and other technical rules of procedure. A full and complete record shall be kept of all proceedings in connection with a disputed claim. All testimony at any hearing shall be recorded, but need not be transcribed unless the disputed claim is further appealed.

Sec. 16. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 268.10, subdivision 9, is amended to read:

Subd. 9. [REPRESENTATION BY ATTORNEY.] In any proceeding under these sections before a referee an unemployment insurance judge or the commissioner, a party may be represented by an agent or attorney, but no individual claiming benefits shall be charged fees of any kind in a proceeding before a referee an unemployment insurance judge, the commissioner, commissioner's representatives, or by any court or any officers thereof. Any individual claiming benefits in any proceedings before the commissioner or representatives or a court may be represented by counsel or other duly authorized agent, except that said agent in any court proceedings under these sections, must be an attorney at law; but no counsel shall either charge or receive for the services more than an amount approved by the commissioner and no fees shall be collected from an individual claiming benefits by any agent unless the agent is an attorney at law.

Sec. 17. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 268.12, subdivision 8, is amended to read:

Subd. 8. [RECORDS; REPORTS.] (1) Each employing unit shall keep true and accurate work records for such periods of time and containing such information as the commissioner may prescribe. Such records shall be open to inspection, audit, and verification, and be subject to being copied by any authorized representative of the commissioner at any reasonable time and as often as may be necessary. The commissioner, ~~appeal referee~~ unemployment insurance judge, or any other duly authorized representative of the commissioner, may require from any employing unit any sworn or unsworn reports, with respect to persons employed by it, which the commissioner, ~~appeal referee~~ unemployment insurance judge, or any other duly authorized representative of the commissioner deems necessary for the effective administration of sections 268.03 to 268.24, provided that quarterly contribution and wage report forms shall include the employee's name, social security number, and total wages paid to the employee.

(2) The commissioner may cause to be made such summaries, compilations, photographs, duplications, or reproductions of any records, reports, or transcripts thereof as the commissioner may deem advisable for the effective and economical preservation of the information contained therein, and such summaries, compilations, photographs, duplications or reproductions, duly authenticated, shall be admissible in any proceeding under sections 268.03 to 268.24, if the original record or records would have been admissible therein. Notwithstanding any restrictions contained in section 16B.50, except restrictions as to quantity, the commissioner is hereby authorized to duplicate, on equipment furnished by the federal government or purchased with funds furnished for that purpose by the federal government, records, reports, summaries, compilations, instructions, determinations, or any other written matter pertaining to the administration of the Minnesota economic security law.

(3) Notwithstanding any inconsistent provisions elsewhere, the commissioner may provide for the destruction or disposition of any records, reports, transcripts, or reproductions thereof, or other papers in the commissioner's custody, which are more than two years old, the preservation of which is no longer necessary for the establishment of contribution liability or benefit rights or for any purpose necessary to the proper administration of sections 268.03 to 268.24, including any required audit thereof, provided, that the commissioner may provide for the destruction or disposition of any record, report, or transcript, or other paper in the commissioner's custody which has been photographed, duplicated, or reproduced in the manner provided in clause (2).

(4) Notwithstanding the provisions of the Minnesota State Archives Act the commissioner shall with the approval of the legislative auditor destroy all benefit checks and benefit check authorization cards that are more than two years old and no person shall make any demand, bring any suit or other proceeding to recover from the state of Minnesota any sum alleged to be due on any claim for benefits after the expiration of two years from the date of filing such claim.

Sec. 18. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 268.12, subdivision 9, is amended to read:

Subd. 9. [TESTIMONIAL POWERS.] (1) In the discharge of the duties imposed by sections 268.03 to 268.24, the commissioner, ~~appeal referee~~ unemployment insurance judge, or any duly authorized representative of the commissioner, shall have power to administer oaths and affirmations, take depositions, certify to official acts, and issue subpoenas to compel the attendance of witnesses and the production of books, papers, correspondence, memoranda, and other records deemed necessary as evidence in connection with a disputed claim or the administration of these sections;

(2) Witnesses, other than interested parties or officers and employees of an employing unit which is an interested party, subpoenaed pursuant to this subdivision or sections 268.03 to 268.24, shall be allowed fees the same as witness fees in civil actions in district court, which fees need not be paid in advance of the time of giving of testimony, and such fees of witnesses so subpoenaed shall be deemed part of the expense of administering these sections;

(3) In case of contumacy by, or refusal to obey, a subpoena issued to any person, any court of this state within the jurisdiction of which the inquiry is carried on or within the jurisdiction of which such person guilty of contumacy or refusal to obey is found or resides or transacts business, upon application by the commissioner, or ~~referee~~ unemployment insurance judge, or any duly authorized representative of the commissioner, shall have jurisdiction to issue to such person an order requiring such person to appear before the commissioner, ~~the chair of an appeal tribunal, referee~~ unemployment insurance judge, or any duly authorized representative of the commissioner, there to produce evidence if so ordered or there to give testimony relative to the matter under investigation or in question; and any failure to obey such order of the court may be punished by the court as a contempt thereof.

Sec. 19. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 268.12, subdivision 10, is amended to read:

Subd. 10. [SELF-INCRIMINATION.] No person shall be excused from attending and testifying or from producing books, papers, correspondence, memoranda, and other records before the commissioner, ~~the chair of an appeal tribunal, referee~~ unemployment insurance judge, or any duly authorized representative of the commissioner, or in obedience to the subpoena of any of them in any cause or proceeding before the commissioner, ~~an appeal tribunal, referee~~ unemployment insurance judge, or any duly authorized representative of the commissioner on the grounds that the testimony or evidence, documentary or otherwise, required may tend to be incriminating or subject the person to a penalty or forfeiture; but no individual shall be prosecuted or subjected to any penalty or forfeiture for or on account of any transaction, matter, or thing concerning which the person is compelled, after having claimed a privilege against self-incrimination, to testify or produce evidence, documentary or otherwise, except that such individual so testifying shall not be exempt from prosecution and punishment for perjury committed in so testifying.

Sec. 20. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 268.12, subdivision 13, is amended to read:

Subd. 13. [DETERMINATIONS.] (1) An official, designated by the commissioner, upon the commissioner's own motion or upon application of an employing unit, shall determine if an employing unit is an employer within the meaning of this chapter or as to whether services performed for it constitute employment within the meaning of this chapter, and shall notify the employing unit of the determination. The determination shall be final unless the employing unit, within 30 days after the mailing of notice of the determination to the employing unit's last known address, files a written appeal from it.

(2) The commissioner shall designate one or more referees to conduct hearings on appeals. Upon receipt of an appeal under clause (1), the commissioner shall refer the matter to the office of administrative hearings for a hearing. The employing unit and any claimant whose filed claim for benefits may be affected by a determination issued under clause (1) shall be interested parties to an appeal. The referee unemployment insurance judge shall fix a time and place within this state for the hearing and give interested parties written notice of it, by mail, not less than ten days prior to the time of the hearing. In the discharge of the duties imposed by this subdivision, the referee unemployment insurance judge may administer oaths and affirmations, take depositions, certify to official acts, and issue subpoenas to compel the attendance of witnesses and the production of books, papers, correspondence, memoranda, and other records deemed necessary as evidence in connection with the subject matter of the hearing. The written report of any employee of the department of jobs and training, made in the regular course of the performance of the employee's duties, shall be competent evidence of the facts contained in it and shall be prima facie correct, unless refuted by other credible evidence.

(3) Upon the conclusion of the hearing, the referee unemployment insurance judge shall serve upon the interested parties by mail findings of fact and decision. The decision of the referee unemployment insurance judge, together with the findings of fact and reasons in support of them, is final unless an interested party, within 30 days after the mailing of a copy of it to the interested parties' last known addresses, files an appeal with the commissioner, and serves a copy of the appeal on the chief administrative law judge, or unless the commissioner, within 30 days after mailing of the decision, on the commissioner's own motion orders the matter certified to the commissioner for review. Appeal from and review by the commissioner of the decision of the referee unemployment insurance judge shall be in the manner provided by rule. The commissioner may without further hearing affirm, modify, or set aside the findings of fact or decision, or both, of the referee unemployment insurance judge on the basis of the evidence previously submitted in the case, or direct the taking of additional evidence. The commissioner may disregard the findings of fact of the referee unemployment insurance judge and examine the testimony taken and make any findings of fact as the evidence taken before the referee unemployment insurance judge may, in the judgment of the commissioner, require, and make any decision as the facts found by the commissioner require. The commissioner shall notify the employing unit and the chief administrative law judge of the commissioner's findings and decision by mail, mailed to the interested parties' last known addresses. The decision of the commissioner is final unless judicial review of it is sought as provided by this subdivision. Any interested party to a proceeding before the commissioner may obtain a transcript of the testimony taken before the referee unemployment insurance judge upon payment to the commissioner of the cost of the transcript at the rate of ten cents per 100 words.

(4) The court of appeals may, by writ of certiorari to the commissioner, review all questions of law and fact presented by the record in accordance with chapter 14. The commissioner shall not be required to certify the record to the court unless the party commencing the proceedings for review pays to the commissioner the cost of certification of the record at the rate of ten cents per 100 words less any amount previously paid by the party for a transcript. The commissioner shall, upon receipt of the payment, prepare and certify to the court a true and correct typewritten copy of all matters contained in the record. The costs collected by the commissioner shall be deposited in the economic security administration fund provided for in section 268.15.

(5) A final decision of the commissioner or referee unemployment insurance judge, in the absence of appeal, is conclusive for all the purposes of sections 268.03 to 268.24 except as otherwise provided, and, together with the records therein made, shall be admissible in any subsequent judicial proceeding involving liability for contributions. A final decision of the commissioner or referee unemployment insurance judge may be introduced in any proceeding involving a claim for benefits.

(6) In the event a final decision of the commissioner or referee unemployment insurance judge determines the amount of contributions due under sections 268.03 to 268.24, then, if the amount, together with interest and penalties, is not paid within 30 days after the decision, the provisions of section 268.161 shall apply. The commissioner shall proceed thereunder, substituting a certified copy of the final decision in place of the contribution report.

Sec. 21. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 268.18, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [ERRONEOUS PAYMENTS.] Any claimant for benefits who, by reason of the claimant's own mistake or through the error of any individual engaged in the administration of sections 268.03 to 268.24 or because of a determination or redetermination issued pursuant to section 268.10, subdivision 2, has received any sum as benefits to which the claimant was not entitled under these sections, shall promptly return such benefits in cash to the nearest office of the Minnesota department of jobs and training. If such claimant fails to return such benefits, the department of jobs and training shall, as soon as it discovers such erroneous payment, determine the amount thereof and notify said individual to return the same. Unless the claimant files a written appeal with the department of jobs and training within 15 days after the mailing of the notice of determination to the claimant's last known address or personal delivery of the notice, the determination shall become final. If the claimant files an appeal with the department in writing within the time aforesaid the matter shall be set for hearing before a referee of the department an unemployment insurance judge of the office of administrative hearings and heard as other benefit matters are heard in accordance with section 268.10 with the same rights of review as outlined for benefit cases in that section. The commissioner of the department of jobs and training is hereby authorized to deduct from any future benefits payable to the claimant under these sections in either the current or any subsequent benefit year an amount equivalent to the overpayment determined or the overpayment may be collected without interest by civil action in the name of the commissioner. If a claimant has been overpaid benefits under the law of another state and that state certifies to the department the facts involved and that the individual is liable under its law to repay the benefits and requests the department to recover the overpayment, the commissioner is authorized to deduct from future benefits payable to the claimant in either the current or any subsequent benefit year an amount equivalent to the amount of overpayment determined by that state. Benefits paid for weeks more than three years prior to the discovery of error are not erroneous payments.

Sec. 22. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 268.18, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [FRAUD.] Any claimant who files a claim for or receives benefits by knowingly and willfully misrepresenting or misstating any material fact or by knowingly and willfully failing to disclose any material fact which would make the claimant ineligible for benefits under sections 268.03 to 268.24 is guilty of fraud. After the discovery of facts by the commissioner indicating fraud in claiming or obtaining benefits under sections 268.03 to 268.24, the commissioner is hereby authorized to make a determination that the claimant was ineligible for each week with reference to which benefits were claimed or obtained by fraud for the amount as was in excess of what the claimant would have been entitled to had the claimant not made the fraudulent statements or failed to disclose any material facts. The commissioner also may disqualify an individual from benefits for one to 52 weeks in which the claimant is otherwise eligible for benefits following the week in which the fraud was determined. A disqualification imposed for fraud shall not be removed by subsequent insured work or the expiration of a benefit year but shall not apply to any week more than 104 weeks after the week in which the fraud was determined. The claimant shall promptly repay in cash to the department of jobs and training any benefits fraudulently obtained. Unless the claimant files a written appeal with the department of jobs and training within 15 days after the mailing of the notice of determination to the claimant's last known address or personal delivery of the notice, the determination shall become final. If the claimant appeals from the determination within the time above specified the matter shall be referred to a referee an unemployment insurance judge for a hearing as in other benefit cases and thereafter the procedure for review shall be the same as set forth in section 268.10. The commissioner is hereby authorized to deduct from future benefits payable to the claimant in either the current or any subsequent benefit year an amount equivalent to the amount of overpayment determined or the overpayment may be collected without interest by civil action in the name of the commissioner. If a claimant has been overpaid benefits under the law of another state and that state certifies to the department the facts involved and that the individual is liable to repay the benefits and requests the department to recover the overpayment, the commissioner is authorized to deduct from future benefits payable to the claimant in either the current or any subsequent benefit year an amount equivalent to the amount of overpayment determined by that state. A determination of fraud may be made at any time.

ARTICLE 5

TAX CREDITS

Section 1. [LEGISLATIVE FINDINGS.]

The legislature finds that the large number of unemployed workers in this state causes serious damage to the health, welfare, and personal and economic well-being of the people of this state. Further, the legislature finds the costs of funding workers' compensation and unemployment compensation are a heavy financial burden on the business community that discourages the expansion of industry and creation of jobs in this state. The legislature, therefore, finds that the public good and general welfare will be promoted and that jobs will be created by providing the tax credits in sections 2 and 3 to employers for workers' compensation and unemployment compensation costs.

Sec. 2. [290.0695] [NEW JOBS CREDIT.]

Subdivision 1. [AMOUNT OF CREDIT.] A credit against the tax due under this chapter shall be allowed to a taxpayer in an amount equal to the sum of the qualified expenditures made or accrued during the taxable year with respect to each qualified employee.

If the credit exceeds the taxpayer's tax liability, the excess credit shall not be refunded or carried forward to a succeeding taxable year or carried back to a preceding taxable year.

Subd. 2. [DEFINITIONS.] (a) "Qualified employee" means a resident individual performing services within the state for an employer (1) the performance of which constitutes employment as defined in section 268.04, subdivision 12, or (2) for whom the employer is required to provide workers' compensation insurance and to whom the employer is liable for compensation pursuant to chapter 176. An employee shall be deemed to be performing services within the state if his regular or principal place of work is located within the state. If an employee has no regular or principal place of work, the services he performs shall be deemed to be performed within the state.

The employee must have been unemployed for a period of ten consecutive weeks ending on the day the individual is hired by the employer. An individual is unemployed in any week for which he has filed a valid claim, as defined in section 268.04, subdivision 24, for unemployment compensation, and for which he is eligible to receive benefits under section 268.08, without regard to whether or not benefits have been exhausted.

(b) "Workers' compensation insurance costs" means (1) workers' compensation insurance premiums paid to an insurance carrier, (2) payments to a workers' compensation group self-insurance plan, and (3) payments of compensation or benefits made to employees by a self-insured employer.

(c) "Qualified expenditures" means expenditures paid or incurred with respect to each qualified employee, beginning the day the employee begins work for the employer, for (1) employer's contributions pursuant to section 268.06, and (2) worker's compensation insurance costs. To determine the amount of worker's compensation costs with respect to each qualified employee of a self-insured employer, the total worker's compensation insurance costs for the risk classification of the employee shall be multiplied by a fraction, the numerator of which is the wages paid or incurred to the employee during the taxable year and which were paid or incurred within the one-year period beginning the day the employee began work for the employer, and the denominator of which is wages paid during the taxable year to all employees of the taxpayer for that risk classification; provided, however, that the amount shall not exceed the highest premium rate charged for that risk classification in that industry.

Sec. 3. [298.029] [NEW JOBS CREDIT.]

Subdivision 1. [AMOUNT OF CREDIT.] A credit against the tax due under section 298.01 shall be allowed to a taxpayer in an amount equal to the sum of the qualified expenditures made or accrued during the calendar year with respect to each qualified employee.

If the credit exceeds the taxpayer's tax liability, the excess credit shall not be refunded or carried forward to a succeeding year or carried back to a preceding year.

Subd. 2. [DEFINITIONS.] (a) "Qualified employee" means a resident individual performing services within the state for an employer (1) the performance of which constitutes employment as defined in section 268.04, subdivision 12, or (2) for whom the employer is required to provide workers' compensation insurance and to whom the employer is liable for compensation pursuant to chapter 176. An employee shall be deemed to be performing services if his regular or principal place of work is located within the state. If an employee has no regular or principal place of work, the services he performs shall be deemed to be performed within the state.

The employee must have been unemployed for a period of ten consecutive weeks ending on the day the individual is hired by the employer. An individual is unemployed in any week during which he performs no services with respect to which wages are payable.

(b) "Workers' compensation insurance costs" means (1) workers' compensation insurance premiums paid to an insurance carrier, (2) payments to a workers' compensation group self-insurance plan, and (3) payments of compensation or benefits made to employees by a self-insured employer.

(c) "Qualified expenditures" means expenditures paid or incurred with respect to each qualified employee, beginning the day the employee begins work for the employer, for (1) employer's contributions pursuant to section 268.06, and (2) worker's compensation insurance costs. To determine the amount of worker's compensation costs with respect to each qualified employee of a self-insured employer, the total worker's compensation insurance costs for the risk classification of the employee shall be multiplied by a fraction, the numerator of which is the wages paid or incurred to the employee during the year and which were paid or incurred within the one-year period beginning the day the employee began work for the employer, and the denominator, of which is wages paid during the year to all employees of the taxpayer for that risk classification.

Sec. 4. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 290.068, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [CREDIT ALLOWED.] In addition to the deduction provided in section 290.09, a corporation, other than a corporation with a valid election in effect under section 290.9725, is allowed a credit against the tax imposed by this chapter for the taxable year equal to

- (a) ~~12.5~~ 25 percent of the first $2 million of the excess (if any) of
- (1) the qualified research expenses for the taxable year, over
  - (2) the base period research expenses; and
- (b) ~~6.25~~ 12.5 percent on all of such excess expenses over $2 million.

Sec. 5. [EFFECTIVE DATE.]

Section 2 is effective for qualified expenditures paid or incurred in taxable years beginning after December 31, 1986, but prior to January 1, 1989, with respect to employees who first begin work for the employer in taxable years beginning after December 31, 1986, but prior to January 1, 1989. Section 3 is effective for qualified expenditures paid or incurred in calendar years 1987 and 1988 with respect to employees who first begin work for the employer in calendar year 1987 or 1988. Section 4 is effective for taxable years beginning after December 31, 1986.

ARTICLE 6

RURAL DEVELOPMENT CORPORATION ACT

Section 1. [116N.01] [PURPOSE.]

It is the intent of sections 1 to 10 to ensure the development of new products, processes, and services that have the potential to contribute to the state's economy, particularly in nonmetropolitan areas. In order to further these purposes, incorporation of specialized rural development corporations is authorized.

Sec. 2. [116N.02] [INCORPORATION; PURPOSES.]

A rural development corporation may be incorporated under chapter 302A and sections 1 to 10 for one of the following purposes:

- (1) establishing and operating a venture capital investment fund;
- (2) promotion of ideas, inventions, business processes, and other tangible intellectual business property developed by individuals, and to prevent exploitation of these ideas, inventions, business processes, and other tangible intellectual business property until the inventor or developer of the property elects to commercially exploit the property, or to sell, transfer, or dispose of any interest in that property;

(3) assessment of applied high technology research or technical information deficiencies, to facilitate communication and funding activities necessary for the initiation of applied high technology research beneficial to rural economic development, and to facilitate communication and funding activities necessary to satisfy identified technical information needs within the high technology industry;

(4) assessment of deficiencies in applied agricultural products utilization research or technical information available to the agricultural products processing industry, to facilitate communication and funding activities necessary for the initiation of applied agricultural products utilization research beneficial to rural economic development, and to facilitate communication and funding activities necessary to satisfy identified technical needs within the agricultural products processing industry; or

(5) assessment of deficiencies in applied silvicultural products utilization research or technical information available to the silvicultural products processing industry, to facilitate communication and funding activities necessary for the initiation of applied silvicultural products utilization research beneficial to rural economic development, and to facilitate communication and funding activities necessary to satisfy identified technical needs within the wood products industry.

Sec. 3. [116N.03] [ORGANIZATION; ARTICLES; APPLICABLE LAW.] A rural economic development corporation shall, except as provided in sections 1 to 10, organize and operate under chapter 302A.

Sec. 4. [116N.04] [POWERS; LIMITATIONS.]

Subdivision 1. [VENTURE CAPITAL CORPORATION.] A rural development corporation incorporated for the purposes of section 2, clause (1), has all of the powers of a corporation provided in chapter 302A, subject to limitations imposed by its articles of incorporation and bylaws, except the power to:

(1) issue bonds or other instruments of indebtedness, except in the form of a mortgage or lease of real property or improvements on which to conduct its operations, or in the form of short-term credit needed to facilitate the operation of the corporation;

(2) loan money secured by mortgage on real property;

(3) obtain, except by default, a controlling interest in any corporation, partnership, limited partnership, or other form of business in which the corporation may acquire an interest;

(4) acquire, except by default, an equity interest, or a right to an equity interest, exceeding five percent of the total equity of any corporation, partnership, limited partnership, or other form of business in which the corporation has invested venture capital funds; and

(5) transfer, except by default, an equity interest or right to an equity interest in any government entity, agency, or investment fund in an aggregate amount exceeding 12.5 percent of the total equity of the corporation.

Subd. 2. [IDEA WAREHOUSE CORPORATION.] A rural development corporation incorporated for the purposes of section 2, clause (2), has all of the powers of a corporation provided in chapter 302A, subject to limitations imposed by its articles of incorporation and bylaws, except the power to:

(1) issue bonds or other instruments of indebtedness, except in the form of a mortgage or lease of real property or improvements on which to conduct its operations, or in the form of short-term credit needed to facilitate the operation of the corporation;

(2) loan money or hold property interests in the form of mortgages;

(3) obtain, except by gift or default, an equity interest in any corporation, partnership, limited partnership, or other form of business that is a client of the corporation;

(4) obtain, except as provided in section 5, subdivision 2, an interest in intellectual business property owned or developed by a client of the corporation; and

(5) transfer, except by default, an equity interest or right to an equity interest, in any government entity, agency, or investment fund in an aggregate amount exceeding 25 percent of the total equity of the corporation.

Subd. 3. [HIGH TECHNOLOGY RESEARCH CORPORATION.] A rural development corporation incorporated for the purposes of section 2, clause (3), has all of the powers provided in chapter 302A, subject to limitations imposed by its articles of incorporation and bylaws, except the power to:

(1) issue bonds or other instruments of indebtedness, except in the form of a mortgage or lease of real property or improvements on which to conduct its operations, or in the form of short-term credit needed to facilitate the operation of the corporation;

(2) loan money or hold property interests in the form of mortgages;

(3) obtain, except by gift or default, an equity interest in any corporation, partnership, limited partnership, or other form of business; and

(4) transfer, except by default, an equity interest or right to an equity interest, in any government entity, agency, or investment fund in an aggregate amount exceeding 15 percent of the total equity of the corporation.

Subd. 4. [AGRICULTURAL PRODUCTS RESEARCH CORPORATION.] A rural development corporation incorporated for the purposes of section 2, clause (4), has all of the powers of a corporation provided in chapter 302A, subject to limitations imposed by its articles of incorporation and bylaws, except the power to:

(1) issue bonds or other instruments of indebtedness, except in the form of a mortgage or lease of real property or improvements on which to conduct its operations, or in the form of short-term credit needed to facilitate the operation of the corporation;

(2) loan money or hold property interests in the form of mortgages;

(3) obtain, except by default, a controlling interest in a corporation, partnership, limited partnership, or other form of business in which the corporation has acquired an interest; and

(4) transfer, except by default, an equity interest or right to an equity interest, in any government entity, agency, or investment fund in an aggregate amount exceeding 15 percent of the total equity of the corporation.

Subd. 5. [FOREST PRODUCTS RESEARCH CORPORATION.] A rural development corporation incorporated for the purposes of section 2, clause (5), has all of the powers of a corporation provided in chapter 302A, subject to limitations imposed by its articles of incorporation and bylaws, except the power to:

(1) issue bonds or other instruments of indebtedness, except in the form of a mortgage or lease of real property or improvements on which to conduct its operations, or in the form of short-term credit needed to facilitate the operation of the corporation;

(2) loan money or hold property interests in the form of mortgages;

(3) obtain, except by default, a controlling interest in a corporation, partnership, limited partnership, or other form of business in which the corporation has acquired an interest; and

(4) transfer, except by default, an equity interest or right to an equity interest, in a government entity, agency, or investment fund in an aggregate amount exceeding 15 percent of the total equity of the corporation.

Sec. 5. [116N.05] [POWERS; SPECIFIC AUTHORITY.]

Subdivision 1. [VENTURE CAPITAL CORPORATION.] In addition to the powers provided in chapter 302A, a rural development corporation incorporated for the purposes of section 2, clause (1), may:

(1) maintain a fund within the state treasury to be used exclusively for venture capital investment purposes;

(2) accept contributions from any private source in the form of money, real estate or improvements, services, equipment, or other real or personal property;

(3) accept contributions from any government source in the form of real estate or improvements, services, equipment, block grant funds, money, or other real or personal property;

(4) purchase equity interests in the form of stock issued by new or expanding businesses subject to a standard of care common to the venture capital industry; and

(5) loan money to new or expanding businesses for venture capital investment purposes if the money loaned is secured by a right to the royalties or rents of, or an equity interest in, the business for which the money is used.

Subd. 2. [IDEA WAREHOUSE CORPORATION.] In addition to the powers provided in chapter 302A, a rural development corporation incorporated for the purposes of section 2, clause (2), may:

(1) maintain a fund to be used exclusively to finance the creation and operation of an "idea warehouse";

(2) accept contributions from any private source in the form of money, real estate or improvements, services, equipment, or other real or personal property;

(3) accept contributions from any government source in the form of real estate or improvements, services, equipment, money, or other real or personal property;

(4) act as an agent for the protection of all forms of unpatented or uncopyrighted inventions, business processes, and other intellectual property on behalf of the owner or developer of the invention, processes, or intellectual property;

(5) serve as bailee for all forms of inventions, processes, and intellectual property; a corporation formed for the purposes of idea warehousing may act on behalf of the bailor to defend the bailed property against conversion, theft, copyright violations, patent infringement, or other wrongful encroachment on the rights of the bailor in relation to the bailed property; and

(6) apply for and accept state rural development matching grants as provided for in section 6.

Subd. 3. [HIGH TECHNOLOGY RESEARCH CORPORATION.] In addition to the powers provided in chapter 302A, a rural development corporation incorporated for the purposes of section 2, clause (3), may:

(1) maintain a fund to be used exclusively to finance applied high technology research projects of the corporation;

(2) accept contributions from any private source in the form of money, real estate or improvements, services, equipment, or other real or personal property;

(3) accept contributions from any government source in the form of real estate or improvements, services, equipment, money, or other real or personal property;

(4) apply for and accept state rural development matching grants as provided for in section 6; and

(5) accept contributions from any private or public post-secondary educational institution in the form of real estate or improvements, services, or equipment.

Subd. 4. [AGRICULTURAL PRODUCTS RESEARCH CORPORATION.] In addition to the powers provided in chapter 302A, a rural development corporation incorporated for the purposes of section 2, clause (4), may:

(1) maintain a fund to be used exclusively to finance applied agricultural products research projects of the corporation;

(2) accept contributions from any private source in the form of money, real estate or improvements, services, equipment, or other real or personal property;

(3) accept contributions from any government source whether in the form of real estate or improvements, services, equipment, money, or other real or personal property;

(4) apply for and accept state rural development matching grants as provided for in section 6; and

(5) accept contributions from any private or public post-secondary educational institution in the form of real estate or improvements, services, or equipment.

Subd. 5. [FOREST PRODUCTS RESEARCH CORPORATION.] In addition to the powers provided in chapter 302A, a rural development corporation incorporated for the purposes of section 2, clause (3), may:

(1) maintain a fund to be used exclusively to finance applied forest products research projects of the corporation;

(2) accept contributions from any private source in the form of money, real estate or improvements, services, equipment, or other real or personal property;

(3) accept contributions from any government source whether in the form of real estate or improvements, services, equipment, money, or other real or personal property;

(4) apply for and accept state rural development matching grants as provided for in section 6; and

(5) accept contributions from any private or public post-secondary educational institution in the form of real estate or improvements, services, or equipment.

Sec. 6. [116N.06] [MATCHING GRANTS TO RURAL DEVELOPMENT CORPORATIONS.]

Subdivision 1. [AUTHORIZATION; LIMITATIONS.] The commissioner of energy and economic development may make matching grants to rural development corporations to be used for the purposes for which the corporation was formed. A corporation formed under sections 1 to 10 that meets the eligibility requirements established in this section may apply to the commissioner for matching funds. Within 60 days following receipt of an application, the commissioner shall either grant an amount appropriate for the needs of the applicant, or provide a reason for denying the application. The commissioner shall deny an application if:

(1) the commissioner determines that the requirements of this section will not be satisfied throughout the fiscal year in which the grant is to be made;

(2) the commissioner lacks the authority to award the grant;

(3) grant money is not available, or is not sufficient for the needs of the applicant; or

(4) evidence relating to the management experience or personal background of officers or directors or the applicant suggests financial unreliability of the corporation.

The commissioner may award any number of grants to a corporation within a single fiscal year, but may award grants to only two corporations formed for each of the purposes provided in section 2, clauses (2) to (5) during a fiscal year.

Subd. 2. [VENTURE CAPITAL CORPORATIONS.] Rural development corporations incorporated for the purposes of section 2, clause (1) are not eligible for matching grants.

Subd. 3. [IDEA WAREHOUSE CORPORATIONS.] Matching grants to rural development corporations incorporated for the purposes of section 2, clause (2) may not exceed the amount contributed or committed to the corporation from all other sources.

Subd. 4. [HIGH TECHNOLOGY RESEARCH CORPORATIONS.] Matching grants to a rural development corporation incorporated for the purposes of section 2, clause (3) may not exceed 50 percent of the amount contributed or committed to the corporation from all other sources.

Subd. 5. [AGRICULTURAL PRODUCTS RESEARCH CORPORATIONS.] Matching grants to rural development corporations incorporated for the purposes of section 2, clause (4) may not exceed 50 percent of the amount contributed or committed to the corporation from all other sources.

Subd. 6. [FOREST PRODUCTS RESEARCH CORPORATIONS.] Matching grants to rural development corporations incorporated for the purposes of section 2, clause (5) may not exceed 50 percent of the amount contributed or committed to the corporation from all other sources.

Sec. 7. [116N.07] [ELIGIBILITY.]

Subdivision 1. [VENTURE CAPITAL CORPORATION.] (a) A rural development corporation incorporated for the purposes of section 2, clause (1) may apply to the commissioner for matching grants to be used for the purpose of the corporation. The commissioner may award grants to the corporation if:

(1) an authorized representative of the corporation agrees to permit unannounced audits or other inspection of books and records relating to the use of the grants at any time and manner considered appropriate by the state auditor;

(2) directors and officers of the corporation agree to submit conflict of interest statements in the manner required of public officials under section 10A.07. The statements shall be filed only during the receipt of state grant funds;

(3) an authorized representative agrees to file articles of incorporation and bylaws of the corporation with the secretary of state; or

(4) an authorized representative agrees to supply information required by the commissioner to annually report to the legislature on the rural development grant program.

(b) In addition to the requirements of paragraph (a), the directors or officers must possess, or agree to retain persons possessing, extensive experience in venture capital management.

Subd. 2. [IDEA WAREHOUSE CORPORATION.] (a) A rural development corporation incorporated for the purposes of section 2, clause (2) may apply to the commissioner for matching grants for the purpose of the corporation. The commissioner may award grants to the corporation if:

(1) an authorized representative of the corporation agrees to permit unannounced audits or other inspection of books and records relating to the use of the grants at any time and manner considered appropriate by the state auditor;

(2) directors and officers of the corporation agree to submit conflict of interest statements in the manner required of public officials under section 10A.07. The statements shall be filed only during the receipt of state grant funds;

(3) an authorized representative of the corporation agrees to file articles of incorporation and bylaws of the corporation with the secretary of state; or

(4) an authorized representative agrees to supply information required by the commissioner to annually report to the legislature on the rural development grant program.

(b) In addition to the requirements of paragraph (a), the directors or officers must possess, or agree to retain persons possessing, extensive experience or education relating to patent procedures and to procedures relating to copyright protection and licensing of intellectual business property.

Subd. 3. [HIGH TECHNOLOGY RESEARCH CORPORATION.]

(a) A rural development corporation incorporated for the purposes of section 2, clause (3) may apply to the commissioner for matching grants for the purpose of the corporation. The commissioner may award grants to the corporation if:

(1) an authorized representative of the corporation agrees to permit unannounced audits or other inspection of books and records relating to the use of the grants at any time and manner considered appropriate by the state auditor;

(2) directors and officers of the corporation agree to submit conflict of interest statements in the manner required of public officials under section 10A.07. The statements shall be filed only during the receipt of state grant funds;

(3) an authorized representative of the corporation agrees to file articles of incorporation and bylaws of the corporation with the secretary of state; or

(4) an authorized representative of the corporation agrees to supply information needed by the commissioner to annually report to the legislature on the rural development grant program.

(b) In addition to the requirements of paragraph (a), the directors or officers must possess, or agree to retain persons possessing, extensive experience in the administration of applied research and experience or education in the manufacture and marketing of technologically sophisticated products.

Subd. 4. [AGRICULTURAL PRODUCTS RESEARCH CORPORATION.] (a) A rural development corporation incorporated for the purposes of section 2, clause (4) may apply to the commissioner for matching grants for the purpose of the corporation. The commissioner may award grants to the corporation if:

(1) an authorized representative of the corporation agrees to permit unannounced audits or other inspection of books and records relating to the use of the grants at any time and manner considered appropriate by the state auditor;

(2) directors and officers of the corporation agree to submit conflict of interest statements in the manner required of public officials under section 10A.07. The statements shall be filed only during the receipt of state grant funds;

(3) an authorized representative of the corporation agrees to file articles of incorporation and bylaws of the corporation with the secretary of state; or

(4) an authorized representative of the corporation agrees to supply information needed by the commissioner to annually report to the legislature on the rural development grant program.

(b) In addition to the requirements of paragraph (a), the directors or officers must possess, or agree to retain persons possessing, extensive experience in the administration of applied research and experience or education in the processing and marketing of agricultural products.

Subd. 5. [FOREST PRODUCTS RESEARCH CORPORATION.]

(a) A rural development corporation incorporated for the purposes of section 2, clause (5) may apply to the commissioner for matching grants for the purpose of the corporation. The commissioner may award grants to the corporation if:

(1) an authorized representative of the corporation agrees to permit unannounced audits or other inspection of books and records relating to the use of the grants at any time and manner considered appropriate by the state auditor;

(2) directors and officers of the corporation agree to submit conflict of interest statements in the manner required of public officials under section 10A.07. The statements shall be filed only during the receipt of state grant funds;

(3) an authorized representative of the corporation agrees to file articles of incorporation and bylaws of the corporation with the secretary of state; or

(4) an authorized representative of the corporation agrees to supply information needed by the commissioner to annually report to the legislature on the rural development grant program.

(b) In addition to the requirements of paragraph (a), the directors or officers must possess, or agree to retain persons possessing, extensive experience in the administration of applied research and experience or education in the processing and marketing of forest products.

Sec. 8. [116N.08] [STATUS OF DIRECTORS AND EMPLOYEES.]

Directors, officers, and employees of rural development corporations are not state employees. Directors and officers of rural development corporations are public officials for the purposes of sections 10A.07 and 471.87.

Sec. 9. [116N.09] [AUDIT REQUIRED.]

The board of directors of a rural development corporation shall annually audit the corporation's books, records, and operations. The audit shall be performed by an independent financial auditor. Each annual audit shall be submitted to the state auditor and the legislative auditor. Data contained in audit reports submitted to the state auditor and the legislative auditor are private data with regard to data on individuals under section 13.02, subdivision 12, or nonpublic data with regard to data not on individuals under section 13.02, subdivision 9. The state auditor shall initiate an audit of a rural development corporation that fails to submit to an annual audit.

Sec. 10. [116N.10] [REPORTS TO THE LEGISLATURE.]

Subdivision 1. [LEGISLATIVE AUDITOR.] The legislative auditor shall annually report to the legislature on the financial condition and volume of activity conducted by corporations incorporated under sections 1 to 10. To the extent permissible under chapter 13, the report shall summarize data contained in annual audit reports submitted to the legislative auditor by each corporation.

Subd. 2. [COMMISSIONER OF ENERGY AND ECONOMIC DEVELOPMENT.] The commissioner of energy and economic development shall annually report to the legislature on the purpose and volume of rural development grants awarded to rural development corporations.

Sec. 11. [APPROPRIATIONS.]

$5,000,000 is appropriated from the general fund to the commissioner of energy and economic development for awards to rural development corporations in the form of matching grants to be available until June 30, 1989."

Amend the title accordingly

We regret that the Speaker does not wish the minority to offer any concrete alternative to his legislative program. We regret that he would abuse the process simply to insulate majority members from a vote on those alternatives.

We also regret that this action will impair the ability of any minority to be heard within the legislative body from this day forward. It represents a rejection of the two-party system, and of the principles of free speech.

It must be viewed as the single most destructive ruling ever made and upheld by this body.

We protest and dissent.
