Sec. 2. [326.84] [LICENSE REQUIRED.]

Subdivision 1. [IN GENERAL.] A person may not sell, design, install, modify, alter, repair, maintain, or make a maintenance inspection on a fire protection system, or offer to do so unless licensed to perform these duties or except as a registered professional engineer acting solely in a professional capacity. No license is required for modification, alteration, repair, maintenance, or maintenance inspection of an existing installation in a nonresidential facility, if the work is done by an employee of the owner of the facility. Except as provided in this section, if a license is required under sections 1 to 13, no person offering fire protection services may do any of the following unless the person is a licensed fire protection system contractor:

(1) advertise as a fire protection system contractor, fire sprinkler contractor, or sprinkler fitter;

(2) add the person's name to, or in connection with, the title "fire protection system contractor," "fire sprinkler contractor," or "sprinkler fitter"; or

A person who advertises as a fire protection system contractor must include in the advertisement the number of the person's license as a fire protection system contractor.

A vehicle used to conduct a fire protection system business must have prominently displayed on its exterior the company name and license number of the fire protection system contractor performing fire protection services.

Subd. 2. [EXCEPTION.] However, plumbers licensed under section 326.40 may contract to sell, design, install, modify, alter, demolish, repair, maintain, or examine a standpipe and hose system not in connection with parts of an automatic sprinkler system.

Subd. 3. [FIRE PROTECTION SYSTEM CONTRACTOR.] (a) The fire protection system contractor is responsible for the preparation of detailed fire protection drawings for installation in accordance with the applicable fire protection engineering standards published by the National Fire Protection Association, Inc., and applicable statutes and rules of the state of Minnesota and its political subdivisions.

(b) A fire protection system contractor may be required by a municipality to pay fees normally imposed for local permits and to submit plans for review under section 11. However, a political subdivision of the state may not impose requirements to prove qualifications other than the production of a license valid under sections 1 to 13.

(c) No person may engage in or work at the business of a fire protection system contractor or journeyman sprinkler fitter unless licensed to do so by the commissioner. Sections 1 to 13 do not apply to a person solely selling or supplying products or materials to a licensed fire protection system contractor.

Subd. 4. [SPRINKLER FITTER.] A person may not undertake the prescribed activities of a sprinkler fitter under this chapter without having a valid license in possession.

Subd. 5. [INSPECTOR'S CREDIT.] An employee performing the duties of inspector for the department in regulating fire sprinkler systems may not receive time credit for the inspection duties when making an application for a license required by this section.

Sec. 4. [326.86] [EXCEPTION TO EXAMINATION.]

Persons who submit satisfactory proof to the commissioner that they have been actively engaged in fire protection systems installation either as fire protection system contractors or journeyman sprinkler fitters for a period of five years prior to the effective date of this section, and who apply for licenses within 60 days after the effective date of this section, must be granted the appropriate license upon payment of the required annual license fee.

Sec. 5. [326.87] [LICENSE DISPLAY; RENEWAL; DUPLICATE.]

Subdivision 1. [IN GENERAL.] Licenses are valid for one year and expire December 31 of each year regardless of the month issued.

Subd. 2. [RENEWAL.] A license that has not been suspended or revoked must be renewed for an additional year from its expiration on application for renewal on a form prescribed by the commissioner and payment of the fee prescribed.

Subd. 3. [DUPLICATE.] A duplicate license must be issued to replace a lost, destroyed, or mutilated license on application on a form prescribed by the commissioner and payment of the fee prescribed. A duplicate license must have the word "duplicate" stamped on its face and must bear the same number as that on the license replaced.

Subd. 4. [CONTRACTOR'S LICENSE POSTED; DISPLAYED.] A license issued under sections 1 to 13 must be posted in a conspicuous place in the fire protection system contractor's place of business.

Bids, proposals, and offers and preliminary, conceptual, shop, and field installation drawings must bear the contractor's license number in a prominent display.

Subd. 5. [SPRINKLER FITTER'S LICENSE IN POSSESSION; SIGNATURE WITH NUMBER.] Sprinkler fitters must carry their licenses when they are engaged in activities of their profession. A sprinkler fitter must present the license on request to the authority having jurisdiction. The sprinkler fitter must affix the license number to those certificates that require the sprinkler fitter's signature.

Sec. 6. [326.88] [FEES.]

The fees for licenses under this chapter for the fire protection system contractor, sprinkler fitter, and registration of apprentice may be set by the commissioner under section 3.

Sec. 7. [326.89] [FINANCIAL RESPONSIBILITY.]

Subd. 2. [INSURANCE.] Before a license as a fire protection system contractor is issued, the applicant must get and maintain in force at all times a full-term, comprehensive, general liability insurance policy from an insurance company authorized to do business in Minnesota. The policy must have an aggregate limit of at least $500,000 for fire protection work. Evidence of insurance must be filed with the department.

Sec. 8. [326.90] [ACTION ON APPLICATION.]

Subdivision 1. [DEPARTMENT DETERMINATION.] Within 120 days after an applicant has filed a complete application for a license and paid the required fees, the commissioner shall:

(1) conduct the testing required under this chapter;

(2) conduct an investigation of the applicant, limited to the applicant's eligibility; and

(3) either issue a license to the applicant, or notify the applicant in writing by registered mail of the decision not to grant the license and the reasons for the denial.

Subd. 2. [NOTICE OF HEARING.] When an application is denied, the commissioner shall specifically notify the applicant that the applicant has a right to a hearing conducted under section 10.

Sec. 9. [326.91] [REVOCATION; SUSPENSION; RENEWAL.]

Subdivision 1. [CAUSES FOR REVOCATION OR SUSPENSION.] The commissioner shall revoke a license, suspend the right of the licensee to use a license, or refuse to renew a license issued under this chapter, for any of the following causes:

(1) fraud, bad faith, misrepresentation, or bribery, either in securing a license or in conducting business under a license;

(2) making a false statement about a material matter in an application for a license; or

(3) failing to maintain the requirements of the license.

Subd. 2. [TERM OF REVOCATION OR SUSPENSION.] A license must not be suspended for longer than two years. A person whose license is revoked is eligible to apply for a license only after the expiration of two years.

Sec. 10. [326.92] [HEARING.]

If the commissioner decides not to grant or renew a license, it must give adequate notice and, if requested, provide a hearing. Notice of the hearing must be given in writing, by registered or certified mail with a return receipt requested, at least 15 days before the hearing.

Sec. 11. [326.93] [PERMIT; FILING; AND INSPECTION FEES.]

Subdivision 1. [REQUIRED PERMIT.] No person may construct or install fire protection systems without first filing an application for a permit with the department or a municipality that has complied with subdivision 2. Projects under construction prior to the effective date of sections 1 to 13 are not required to obtain a permit.

Subd. 2. [PERMISSIVE MUNICIPAL REGULATION.] A municipality may, by ordinance, require the inspection of fire protection system materials and construction and that they may not be constructed or installed except in accordance with state standards. The authority designated by the ordinance for issuing fire protection permits and assuring compliance with state standards must report to the department all violations of state fire protection standards. A municipality may not adopt an ordinance with fire protection standards that does not comply with the minimum standards prescribed by the commissioner. The commissioner shall specify by rule the minimum qualifications for municipal inspectors.

Subd. 3. [SURCHARGE.] To defray the cost of administering sections 1 to 13, there is imposed on all municipalities except municipalities that have a letter of agreement with the commissioner to perform inspections, a surcharge on the filing fees, inspection fees, and permits issued after the effective date of sections 1 to 13 in connection with the construction or installation of fire protection systems. The surcharge must be two percent of the fees collected, but may not be less than $10 or greater than $2,000. The surcharge may be amended under chapter 14 and section 16A.128.

Subd. 4. [COLLECTION AND REPORTS.] Fee surcharges must be collected by each municipality. All other municipalities must submit reports and surcharges on a semiannual basis. The reports must be in a form prescribed by the commissioner and submitted together with a remittance covering surcharges collected. Subd. 6. [FILING AND INSPECTION FEES.] The commissioner must charge a filing fee set under section 3 for all applications for permits to construct or install fire protection systems. The fee for inspection of fire protection system construction or installation must also be set by the commissioner under section 3. This subdivision does not apply if a permit is issued by a municipality complying with subdivision 2.

Subd. 7. [CONTRACT INSPECTION.] The commissioner may contract with any other government agency for inspection of fire protection systems.

Sec. 12. [326.94] [DEPOSIT OF FEES.]

Fees received by the commissioner under sections 1 to 13 must be deposited by the department to the credit of the special revenue fund in the state treasury. The salaries and per diem of the inspectors and examiners, their expenses, and all incidental expenses of the department in carrying out the provisions of sections 1 to 13 must be paid from the appropriations made to the department.

The fee or premium for a number three qualified plan shall not exceed 125 percent of the average of rates charged by the five insurers with the largest number of individuals in a number three qualified plan of insurance in force in Minnesota. The fee or premium for a number two qualified plan shall not exceed 125 percent of the average of rates charged by the five insurers with the largest number of individuals in a number two qualified plan of insurance in force in Minnesota.

If the replacement coverage is health maintenance organization coverage, the fee shall not exceed 125 percent of the cost of the average fee charged by health maintenance organizations for a similar health plan. The commissioner of health will determine the average cost of the plan on the basis of information provided annually by the health maintenance organizations concerning the rates charged by the health maintenance organizations for the plans offered.

Subd. 4. The commissioner will approve or disapprove the replacement coverage within 30 days. A health maintenance organization shall not give enrollees a notice of cancellation of coverage until a replacement policy has been filed with the commissioner and approved or disapproved.

Subd. 5. The health maintenance organization must provide the terminated enrollees with a notice of cancellation 90 days before the date the cancellation takes effect. If the replacement coverage is approved by the commissioner under subdivision 4, the notice shall clearly and completely describe the replacement coverage that the enrollees are eligible to receive and explain the procedure for enrolling. If the replacement coverage is not approved by the commissioner, the health maintenance organization shall provide a cancellation notice with information that the enrollee is entitled to enroll in the state comprehensive health insurance plan with a waiver of the waiting period for preexisting conditions under section 62E.14, subdivisions 1, paragraph (e), and 5.

Subd. 6. [GEOGRAPHIC ACCESSIBILITY.] If the commissioner determines that there are not enough providers to assure that enrollees have accessible health services available in a geographic service area, the commissioner shall institute a plan of corrective action that shall be followed by the health maintenance organization. Such a plan may include but not be limited to requiring the health maintenance organization to make payments to nonparticipating providers for health services for enrollees, requiring the health maintenance organization to discontinue accepting new enrollees in that service area, and requiring the health maintenance organization to reduce its geographic service area. If a nonparticipating provider has been a participating provider with the health maintenance organization within the last year, any payments made under this section must not exceed the payment level of the previous contract.

Sec. 12. [62D.122] [MEDIATION.]

Where the existing parties to a health maintenance organization agreement are unable to come to terms on the renewal or maintenance of an agreement and the failure to reach agreement will significantly impair access to health care for existing enrollees, the commissioner of health, the health maintenance organization, or the provider may request mediation services through the state bureau of mediation services to resolve the issues of dispute. Participation in mediation shall be required of all parties for a period of 30 days. Mediation is intended to resolve the issues of dispute to prevent a loss of coverage to enrollees. Other than requiring participation of all parties, mediation is intended to be nonbinding.

Sec. 13. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 62D.17, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. The commissioner of health may, for any violation of statute or rule applicable to a health maintenance organization, or in lieu of suspension or revocation of a certificate of authority under section 62D.15, levy an administrative penalty in an amount up to $10,000 for each violation. In the case of contracts or agreements made pursuant to section 62D.05, subdivisions 2 to 4, each contract or agreement entered into or implemented in a manner which violates sections 62D.01 to 62D.29 shall be considered a separate violation. Reasonable notice in writing to the health maintenance organization shall be given of the intent to levy the penalty and the reasons therefor, and the health maintenance organization may have a reasonable time 15 days within which to ~~remedy the defect in its operations which gave rise to the penalty citation, or have file a written request~~ request for an administrative hearing and review of the commissioner of health's determination. Such administrative hearing shall be subject to judicial review pursuant to chapter 14.

Sec. 14. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 62D.17, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 6. [FULL PAYMENT REQUIRED; INTEREST ON UNPAID CHARGES.] A health maintenance organization shall provide payment consistent with contractual requirements to any participating pharmacy for services rendered as part of a contract with the organization. Clean claims, as defined in Code of Federal Regulations, title 42, section 447.45(d) must be paid within 30 days of acceptance of the claim or be subject to interest charged at the rate established by the commissioner of revenue under section 270.75.

Sec. 15. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 62D.20, is amended to read:

62D.20 [RULES.]

Subdivision 1. The commissioner of health may, pursuant to chapter 14, promulgate such reasonable rules as are necessary or proper to carry out the provisions of sections 62D.01 to 62D.29. Included among such rules shall be those which provide minimum requirements for the provision of comprehensive health maintenance services, as defined in section 62D.02, subdivision 7, and reasonable exclusions therefrom. Nothing in such rules shall force or require a health maintenance organization to provide elective, induced abortions, except as medically necessary to prevent the death of the mother, whether performed in a hospital, other abortion facility, or the office of a physician; the rules shall provide every health maintenance organization the option of excluding or including elective, induced abortions, except as medically necessary to prevent the death of the mother, as part of its comprehensive health maintenance services.

Subd. 2. The commissioner shall adopt rules that address the issue of appropriate prior authorization requirements, considering consumer needs, administrative concerns, and the nature of the benefit.

Sec. 16. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 62E.11, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 9. Such a contributing member shall pay the association an amount equal to the average cost of an enrollee in the state plan in the year in which the member terminated enrollees, multiplied by the total number of terminated enrollees who enroll in the state plan.

The average cost of an enrollee in the state comprehensive health insurance plan shall be determined by dividing the state plan's total annual losses by the total number of enrollees from that year. This cost will be assessed to the contributing member who has terminated health coverage before the association makes the annual determination of each contributing member's liability as required under this section.

Sec. 17. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 62E.11, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 10. Any contributing members who have terminated individual health plans and do not provide or arrange for replacement coverage that meets the requirements of section 11, subdivision 3, and whose former insureds or enrollees enroll in the state comprehensive health insurance plan with a waiver of the preexisting conditions pursuant to section 62E.14, subdivision 1, paragraph (e), and section 20, will be liable for the costs of any preexisting conditions of their former enrollees or insureds treated during the first six months of coverage under the state plan. The liability for preexisting conditions will be assessed before the association makes the annual determination of each contributing member's liability as required under this section.

Sec. 18. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 62E.14, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [CERTIFICATE, CONTENTS.] The comprehensive health insurance plan shall be open for enrollment by eligible persons. An eligible person shall enroll by submission of a certificate of eligibility to the writing carrier. The certificate shall provide the following:

(d) Evidence that the applicant meets the eligibility requirements of section 62E.081, subdivision 1; ~~and~~

(e) If the applicant has been terminated from individual health coverage which does not provide replacement coverage, evidence that no replacement coverage that meets the requirements of section 11, subdivision 3, was offered, and evidence of termination of individual health coverage by an insurer, nonprofit health service plan corporation, or health maintenance organization provided that the contract or policy has been terminated for reasons other than (1) failure to pay the charge for health care coverage; (2) failure to make copayments required by the health care plan; (3) enrollee moving out of the area served; or (4) a materially false statement or misrepresentation by the enrollee in the application for membership; and

Subd. 3. [PREEXISTING CONDITIONS.] No person who obtains coverage pursuant to this section shall be covered for any preexisting condition during the first six months of coverage under the state plan if the person was diagnosed or treated for that condition during the 90 days immediately preceding the filing of an application except as provided under subdivisions 4 and 5, and section 20.

Sec. 20. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 62E.14, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 6. A Minnesota resident who holds an individual health maintenance contract, individual nonprofit health service corporation contract, or an individual insurance policy previously approved by the commissioners of health or commerce, may enroll in the comprehensive health insurance plan with a waiver of the preexisting condition as described in subdivision 3, without interruption in coverage, provided (1) no replacement coverage that meets the requirements of section 11, subdivision 3, was offered by the contributing member, and (2) the policy or contract has been terminated for reasons other than (a) nonpayment of premium; (b) failure to make copayments required by the health care plan; (c) moving out of the area served; or (d) a materially false statement or misrepresentation by the enrollee in the application for membership; and, provided further, that the option to enroll in the plan is exercised within 30 days of termination of the existing policy or contract.

Expenses incurred from the preexisting conditions of individuals enrolled in the state plan under this subdivision must be paid by the contributing member canceling coverage as set forth in section 17.

The application must include evidence of termination of the existing policy or certificate as required in subdivision 1.

Sec. 21. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 62E.16, is amended to read:

If the health maintenance organization has canceled coverage for the group because of a loss of providers in a service area, the health maintenance organization shall arrange for other health maintenance or indemnity conversion options that shall be offered to enrollees without the addition of underwriting restrictions. The required conversion contract must treat pregnancy the same as any other covered illness under the conversion contract. The person may exercise this right to conversion within 30 days of leaving the group or within 30 days following receipt of due notice of cancellation or termination of coverage of the group and upon payment of premiums from the date of termination or cancellation. Due notice of cancellation or termination of coverage for a group shall be provided to each employee having coverage in the group by the insurer, self-insurer or health maintenance organization canceling or terminating the coverage except where reasonable evidence indicates that uninterrupted and continuous group coverage is otherwise provided to the group. Every employer having a policy of group accident and health insurance, group subscriber or contract of coverage by a health maintenance organization shall, upon request, provide the insurer or health maintenance organization a list of the names and addresses of covered employees. Plans of health coverage shall also include a provision which, upon the death of the individual in whose name the contract was issued, permits every other individual then covered under the contract to elect, within the period specified in the contract, to continue coverage under the same or a different contract without the addition of underwriting restrictions until the individual would have ceased to have been entitled to coverage had the individual in whose name the contract was issued lived. An individual conversion contract issued by a health maintenance organization shall not be deemed to be an individual enrollment contract for the purposes of section 62D.10.

Examples of nursing duties may be found in Minnesota Rules, parts 4655.5900, 4655.6100, and 4655.6400. Not included are vacations, holidays, sick leave, in-service classroom training, or lunches. Also not included are the nonproductive nursing hours of the in-service training director. In homes with more than 60 licensed beds, the hours of the director of nursing are excluded. "Standardized resident day" means the sum of the number of residents in each case mix class multiplied by the case mix weight for that resident class, as found in Minnesota Rules, part 9549.0059, subpart 2, calculated on the basis of a facility's census for any given day.

(c) Calculation of nursing hours per standardized resident day is performed by dividing total hours of nursing personnel for a given period by the total of standardized resident days for that same period.

Sec. 2. Minnesota Statutes 1987 Supplement, section 144A.071, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [EXCEPTIONS.] The commissioner of health, in coordination with the commissioner of human services, may approve the addition of a new certified bed or the addition of a new licensed nursing home bed, under the following conditions:

(a) to replace a bed decertified after May 23, 1983 or to address an extreme hardship situation, in a particular county that, together with all contiguous Minnesota counties, has fewer nursing home beds per 1,000 elderly than the number that is ten percent higher than the national average of nursing home beds per 1,000 elderly individuals. For the purposes of this section, the national average of nursing home beds shall be the most recent figure that can be supplied by the federal health care financing administration and the number of elderly in the county or the nation shall be determined by the most recent federal census or the most recent estimate of the state demographer as of July 1, of each year of persons age 65 and older, whichever is the most recent at the time of the request for replacement. In allowing replacement of a decertified bed, the commissioners shall ensure that the number of added or recertified beds does not exceed the total number of decertified beds in the state in that level of care. An extreme hardship situation can only be found after the county documents the existence of unmet medical needs that cannot be addressed by any other alternatives;

(b) to certify a new bed in a facility that commenced construction before May 23, 1983. For the purposes of this section, "commenced construction" means that all of the following conditions were met: the final working drawings and specifications were approved by the commissioner of health; the construction contracts were let; a timely construction schedule was developed, stipulating dates for beginning, achieving various stages, and completing construction; and all zoning and building permits were secured;

(c) to certify beds in a new nursing home that is needed in order to meet the special dietary needs of its residents, if: the nursing home proves to the commissioner's satisfaction that the needs of its residents cannot otherwise be met; elements of the special diet are not available through most food distributors; and proper preparation of the special diet requires incurring various operating expenses, including extra food preparation or serving items, not incurred to a similar extent by most nursing homes;

(d) to license a new nursing home bed in a facility that meets one of the exceptions contained in clauses (a) to (c);

(e) to license nursing home beds in a facility that has submitted either a completed licensure application or a written request for licensure to the commissioner before March 1, 1985, and has either commenced any required construction as defined in clause (b) before May 1, 1985, or has, before May 1, 1985, received from the commissioner approval of plans for phased-in construction and written authorization to begin construction on a phased-in basis. For the purpose of this clause, "construction" means any erection, building, alteration, reconstruction, modernization, or improvement necessary to comply with the nursing home licensure rules;

(f) to certify or license new beds in a new facility that is to be operated by the commissioner of veterans' affairs or when the costs of constructing and operating the new beds are to be reimbursed by the commissioner of veterans' affairs or the United States Veterans Administration;

(g) to license or certify beds in a new facility constructed to replace a facility that was destroyed after June 30, 1987, by fire, lightning, or other hazard provided:

(1) destruction was not caused by the intentional act of or at the direction of a controlling person of the facility;

(2) at the time the facility was destroyed the controlling persons of the facility maintained insurance coverage for the type of hazard that occurred in an amount that a reasonable person would conclude was adequate;

(3) the net proceeds from an insurance settlement for the damages caused by the hazard are applied to the cost of the new facility;

(4) the new facility is constructed on the same site as the destroyed facility or on another site subject to the restrictions in section 144A.073, subdivision 5; and

(5) the number of licensed and certified beds in the new facility does not exceed the number of licensed and certified beds in the destroyed facility;

(h) to license or certify beds that are moved from one location to another within a nursing home facility, provided the total costs of remodeling performed in conjunction with the relocation of beds does not exceed ten percent of the appraised value of the facility or $200,000, whichever is less, or to license or certify beds in a facility for which the total costs of remodeling or renovation exceed ten percent of the appraised value of the facility or $200,000, whichever is less, if the facility makes a written commitment to the commissioner of human services that it will not seek to receive an increase in its property-related payment rate by reason of the remodeling or renovation;

(i) to license or certify beds in a facility that has been involuntarily delicensed or decertified for participation in the medical assistance program, provided that an application for relicensure or recertification is submitted to the commissioner within 120 days after delicensure or decertification;

(j) to license or certify beds in a project recommended for approval by the interagency board for quality assurance under section 144A.073;

(k) to license nursing home beds in a hospital facility that are relocated from a different hospital facility under common ownership or affiliation, provided: (1) the hospital in which the nursing home beds were originally located ceases to function as an acute care facility, or necessary support services for nursing homes as required for licensure under sections 144A.02 to 144A.10, such as dietary service, physical plant, housekeeping, physical therapy, occupational therapy, and administration, are no longer available from the original hospital site; and (2) the nursing home beds are not certified for participation in the medical assistance program;

(1) to license or certify beds that are moved from one location to another within an existing identifiable complex of hospital buildings, from a hospital-attached nursing home to the hospital building, or from a separate nursing home under common ownership with or control of a hospital to the hospital when a hospital-attached nursing home is moved simultaneously to the hospital. As a condition of receiving a license or certification under this clause, the facility must make a written commitment to the commissioner of human services that it will not seek to receive an increase in its property-related payment rate as a result of the relocation. At the time of the licensure and certification of the nursing home beds, the commissioner of health shall delicense the same number of acute care beds within the existing complex of hospital buildings or building. When a separate nursing home and a hospital-attached nursing home under common ownership or control are simultaneously relocated to a hospital building, a combined cost report must be submitted for the cost reporting year ending September 30, 1987, and the freestanding nursing home limits apply. Relocation of nursing home beds under this clause is subject to the limitations in section 144A.073, subdivision 5;

(m) to license or certify beds that are moved from an existing state nursing home to a different state facility, provided there is no net increase in the number of state nursing home beds;

(n) to license new nursing home beds in a continuing care retirement community affiliated with a national referral center engaged in substantial programs of patient care, medical research, and medical education meeting state and national needs that receives more than 40 percent of its residents from outside the state for the purpose of meeting contractual obligations to residents of the retirement community, provided the facility makes a written commitment to the commissioner of human services that it will not seek medical assistance certification for the new beds; or

(o) to certify or license new beds in a new facility on the Red Lake Indian reservation for which payments will be made under the Indian Health Care Improvement Act, Public Law Number 94-437, at the rates specified in United States Code, title 42, section 1396d(b); or

(p) to certify and license as nursing home beds boarding care beds in a certified boarding care facility if the beds meet the standards for nursing home licensure and if the cost of any remodeling of the facility does not exceed ten percent of the appraised value of the facility or $200,000, whichever is less. If boarding care beds are licensed as nursing home beds, the number of boarding care beds in the facility must not increase in the future. The provisions contained in section 144A.073 regarding the upgrading of the facilities do not apply to facilities that satisfy these requirements.

Sec. 3. Minnesota Statutes 1987 Supplement, section 144A.073, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [DEFINITIONS.] For purposes of this section, the following terms have the meanings given them:

(a) "Conversion" means the relocation of a nursing home bed from a nursing home to an attached hospital.

(b) "Renovation" means extensive remodeling of, or construction of an addition to, a facility on an existing site with a total cost exceeding ten percent of the appraised value of the facility or $200,000, whichever is less.

(c) "Replacement" means the demolition and reconstruction of all or part of an existing facility.

(d) "Upgrading" means a change in the level of licensure of a bed from a boarding care bed to a nursing home bed in a certified boarding care facility that is attached to a nursing home or a boarding care bed in a freestanding boarding care facility that currently meets all health department standards for a nursing home.

Sec. 4. Minnesota Statutes 1987 Supplement, section 144A.073, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [REQUEST FOR PROPOSALS.] At the intervals specified in rules, the interagency board shall publish in the State Register a request for proposals for nursing home projects to be licensed or certified under section 144A.071, subdivision 3, clause (j). The notice must describe the information that must accompany a request and state that proposals must be submitted to the interagency board within 90 days of the date of publication. The notice must include the amount of the legislative appropriation available for the additional costs to the medical assistance program of projects approved under this section. If no money is appropriated for a year, the notice for that year must state that proposals will not be requested because no appropriations were made. To be considered for approval, a proposal must include the following information:

(1) whether the request is for renovation, replacement, upgrading, or conversion;

(2) a description of the problem the project is designed to address;

(3) a description of the proposed project;

(4) an analysis of projected costs, including initial construction and remodeling costs, site preparation costs, financing costs, and estimated operating costs during the first two years after completion of the project;

(5) for proposals involving replacement of all or part of a facility, the proposed location of the replacement facility and an estimate of the cost of addressing the problem through renovation;

(6) for proposals involving renovation, an estimate of the cost of addressing the problem through replacement;

(8) the proposed timetable for commencing construction and completing the project; and

(9) other information required by rule of the commissioner of health.

Sec. 5. Minnesota Statutes 1987 Supplement, section 144A.073, subdivision 7, is amended to read:

Subd. 7. [UPGRADING RESTRICTIONS.] Proposals submitted or approved under this section involving upgrading must satisfy the following conditions:

(a) ~~No proposal for upgrading may be approved after June 30, 1989.~~

(b) ~~No more than one proposal for upgrading may be approved for a facility.~~

(c) ~~Upgrading is limited to a total of ten beds.~~

(d) ~~The facility must meet minimum nursing home care standards.~~

(e) ~~Upgrading must not result in an increase in per diem operating costs, except for the upgrading of those freestanding boarding care facilities which currently meet existing nursing home building and space standards.~~

(f) ~~(b) If beds are upgraded to nursing home beds, the number of boarding care beds in a facility must not increase in the future.~~

(g) ~~(c) The average occupancy rate in the existing nursing home beds in an attached facility must be greater than 96 percent according to the most recent annual statistical report of the department of health.~~

(h) ~~The cost of remodeling the facility to meet current nursing home construction standards must not exceed ten percent of the appraised value of the facility or $200,000, whichever is less.~~

Sec. 6. Minnesota Statutes 1987 Supplement, section 256B.35, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [PERSONAL NEEDS ALLOWANCE.] (a) Notwithstanding any law to the contrary, welfare allowances for clothing and personal needs for individuals receiving medical assistance while residing in any skilled nursing home, intermediate care facility, or medical institution including recipients of supplemental security income, in this state shall not be less than $40 $45 per month from all sources. When benefit amounts for social security or supplemental security income recipients are increased pursuant to United States Code, title 42, sections 415(i) and 1382f, the commissioner shall, effective in the month in which the increase takes effect, increase by the same percentage the clothing and personal needs allowance for individuals receiving medical assistance while residing in any skilled nursing home or intermediate care facility. The commissioner of human services shall provide timely notice to local agencies, providers, and recipients of increases under this provision.

Provided that this (b) The personal needs allowance may be paid as part of the Minnesota supplemental aid program, notwithstanding the provisions of section 256D.37, subdivision 2, and payments to the recipients from of Minnesota supplemental aid funds may be made once each three months beginning in October 1977, covering liabilities that accrued during the preceding three months.

Sec. 7. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 256B.431, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 2i. [OPERATING COSTS AFTER JULY 1, 1988.] (a) [OTHER-OPERATING-COST LIMITS.] For the rate year beginning July 1, 1988, the commissioner shall increase the other-operating-cost limits established in Minnesota Rules, part 9549.0055, subpart 2, item E, to the percent of the median that approximates the 70th percentile of the array of allowable historical other-operating-cost per diems and index these limits as in Minnesota Rules, part 9549.0056, subparts 3 and 4. The limits must be established in accordance with subdivision 2b, paragraph (d). For rate years beginning on or after July 1, 1989, the adjusted other-operating-cost limits must be indexed as in Minnesota Rules, part 9549.0056, subparts 3 and 4.

(b) [CARE-RELATED OPERATING COST LIMITS.] For the rate year beginning July 1, 1988, the commissioner shall increase the care-related operating cost limits established in Minnesota Rules, part 9549.0055, subpart 2, items A and B, to the percent of the median that approximates the 85th percentile of the arrays of the allowable historical case mix operating cost standardized per diems and the allowable historical other-care-related operating cost per diems and index those limits as in Minnesota Rules, part 9549.0056, subparts 1 and 2. The limits must be established in accordance with subdivision 2b, paragraph (d). For rate years beginning on or after July 1, 1989, the adjusted care-related limits must be indexed as in Minnesota Rules, part 9549.0056, subparts 1 and 2.

(c) [SALARY ADJUSTMENT PER DIEM.] For the rate period October 1, 1988, through June 30, 1990, the commissioner shall add the appropriate salary adjustment per diem calculated in clause (1) or (2) to the total operating cost payment rate of each nursing home. The salary adjustment per diem for each nursing home must be determined as follows:

(1) for each nursing home that reports salaries for registered nurses, licensed practical nurses, and aides, orderlies and attendants separately, the commissioner shall determine the salary adjustment per diem by multiplying the total salaries, payroll taxes, and fringe benefits allowed in each operating cost category, except management fees and administrator and central office salaries and the related payroll taxes and fringe benefits, by 2.7 percent and then dividing the resulting amount by the nursing home's actual resident days; and

(2) for each nursing home that does not report salaries for registered nurses, licensed practical nurses, aides, orderlies, and attendants separately, the salary adjustment per diem is the weighted average salary adjustment per diem increase determined under clause (1).

Each nursing home that receives a salary adjustment per diem pursuant to this subdivision shall adjust nursing home employee salaries by a minimum of the amount determined in clause (1) or (2). The commissioner shall review allowable salary costs, including payroll taxes and fringe benefits, for the reporting year ending September 30, 1989, to determine whether or not each nursing home complied with this requirement. The commissioner shall report the extent to which each nursing home complied with the legislative commission on long-term care by August 1, 1990.

(d) [NEW BASE YEAR.] The commissioner shall establish the reporting year ending September 30, 1989, as a new base year.

Sec. 8. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 256B.431, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 3d. [BETTERMENTS AND ADDITIONS.] Notwithstanding any contrary provision of chapter 256B, or a rule adopted under chapter 256B, a nursing home that commenced construction on a betterment and addition costing $700,000 or more prior to the expiration of Minnesota Rules, 12 MCAR 2.05001 to 2.05016 (Temporary)(1983) shall have its property-related payment rate step-up as a result of the betterment and addition calculated as set forth in 12 MCAR 2.05011.B.3 in the case of betterments, and 12 MCAR 2.05011.D in the case of additions. For purposes of this subdivision, the terms "betterment" and "addition" have the meaning set forth in 12 MCAR 2.05002 and the term "commenced construction" has the meaning set forth in section 144A.071, subdivision 3.

Sec. 9. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 256B.431, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 3e. [PROPERTY COSTS AFTER JULY 1, 1988.] (a) [INVESTMENT PER BED LIMIT.] For the rate year beginning July 1, 1988, the replacement-cost-new per bed limit must be $32,571 per licensed bed in multiple bedrooms and $48,857 per licensed bed in a single bedroom. Beginning January 1, 1989, the replacement-cost-new per bed limits must be adjusted annually as specified in Minnesota Rules, part 9549.0060, subpart 4, item A, subitem (1).

(b) [RENTAL FACTOR.] For the rate year beginning July 1, 1988, the commissioner shall increase the rental factor as established in Minnesota Rules, part 9549.0060, subpart 8, item A, by 6.2 percent rounded to the nearest 100th percent for the purpose of reimbursing nursing homes for soft costs and entrepreneurial profits not included in the cost valuation services used by the state's contracted appraisers. For rate years beginning on or after July 1, 1989, the rental factor is the amount determined under this paragraph for the rate year beginning July 1, 1988.

(c) [OCCUPANCY FACTOR.] For rate years beginning on or after July 1, 1988, in order to determine property-related payment rates under Minnesota Rules, part 9549.0060, for all nursing homes except those whose average length of stay in a skilled level of care within a nursing home is 180 days or less, the commissioner shall use 95 percent of capacity days. For a nursing home whose average length of stay in a skilled level of care within a nursing home is 180 days or less, the commissioner shall use the greater of resident days or 80 percent of capacity days but in no event shall the divisor exceed 95 percent of capacity days.

(d) [REFINANCING.] If a nursing home is approved and refinanced under section 10, the commissioner shall adjust the nursing home's property-related payment rate for the savings that result from refinancing. The adjustment to the property-related payment rate must be as follows:

(1) The commissioner shall recalculate the nursing home's rental per diem by substituting the new allowable annual principal and interest payments for those of the refinanced debt.

(2) The nursing home's property-related payment rate must be decreased by the difference between the nursing home's current rental per diem and the rental per diem determined under clause (1).

If a nursing home payment rate is adjusted according to this paragraph, the adjusted payment rate is effective the first of the month following the date of the refinancing for both medical assistance and private paying residents. The nursing home's adjusted property-related payment rate is effective until June 30, 1990.

Sec. 10. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 256B.431, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 3f. [PROPERTY COSTS AFTER JULY 1, 1990, FOR CERTAIN FACILITIES.] (a) For rate years beginning on or after July 1, 1990, nonhospital-attached nursing homes that, on or after January 1, 1976, but prior to December 31, 1985, were newly licensed after new construction, or increased their licensed beds by a minimum of 35 percent through new construction, and whose building capital allowance is less than their allowable annual principal and interest on allowable debt prior to the application of the replacement-cost-new per bed limit and whose debt amortization schedule exceeds 15 years, must receive a property-related payment rate equal to the greater of their rental per diem or their allowable principal and allowable interest before application of the replacement-cost-new per bed limit plus their equipment allowance. A nursing home that is eligible for a property-related payment rate under this subdivision and whose property-related payment rate in a subsequent rate year is its rental per diem must continue to have its property-related payment rates established for all future rate years based on the rental reimbursement method in Minnesota Rules, part 9549.0060.

(b) Each nursing home eligible for a property-related payment rate under paragraph (a) must first apply for refinancing of the nursing home's mortgage debt with the housing finance agency by June 30, 1989. The housing finance agency, in consultation with the commissioner of human services, shall review the refinancing application and shall determine the cost-effectiveness and feasibility of refinancing the nursing home's mortgage debt. A nursing home that does not apply for refinancing by June 30, 1989, is not eligible for property-related payment rates determined under this subdivision for rate years beginning on or after July 1, 1990.

Sec. 11. Minnesota Statutes 1987 Supplement, section 256B.431, subdivision 4, is amended to read:

Subd. 4. [SPECIAL RATES.] (a) For the rate years beginning July 1, 1983, and July 1, 1984, a newly constructed nursing home or one with a capacity increase of 50 percent or more may, upon written application to the commissioner, receive an interim payment rate for reimbursement for property-related costs calculated pursuant to the statutes and rules in effect on May 1, 1983, and for operating costs negotiated by the commissioner based upon the 60th percentile established for the appropriate group under subdivision 2a, to be effective from the first day a medical assistance recipient resides in the home or for the added beds. For newly constructed nursing homes which are not included in the calculation of the 60th percentile for any group, subdivision 2f, the commissioner shall establish by rule procedures for determining interim operating cost payment rates and interim property-related cost payment rates. The interim payment rate shall not be in effect for more than 17 months. The commissioner shall establish, by emergency and permanent rules, procedures for determining the interim rate and for making a retroactive cost settle-up after the first year of operation; the cost settled operating cost per diem shall not exceed 110 percent of the 60th percentile established for the appropriate group. Until procedures determining operating cost payment rates according to mix of resident needs are established, the commissioner shall establish by rule procedures for determining payment rates for nursing homes which provide care under a lesser care level than the level for which the nursing home is certified.

(b) For the rate years beginning on or after July 1, 1985, a newly constructed nursing home or one with a capacity increase of 50 percent or more may, upon written application to the commissioner, receive an interim payment rate for reimbursement for property related costs, operating costs, and real estate taxes and special assessments calculated under rules promulgated by the commissioner.

(c) For rate years beginning on or after July 1, 1983, the commissioner may exclude from a provision of 12 MCAR S 2.050 any facility that is licensed by the commissioner of health only as a boarding care home, certified by the commissioner of health as an intermediate care facility, is licensed by the commissioner of human services under Minnesota Rules, parts 9520.0500 to 9520.0690, and has less than five percent of its licensed boarding care capacity reimbursed by the medical assistance program. Until a permanent rule to establish the payment rates for facilities meeting these criteria is promulgated, the commissioner shall establish the medical assistance payment rate as follows:

(1) The desk audited payment rate in effect on June 30, 1983, remains in effect until the end of the facility's fiscal year. The commissioner shall not allow any amendments to the cost report on which this desk audited payment rate is based.

(2) For each fiscal year beginning between July 1, 1983, and June 30, 1985, the facility's payment rate shall be established by increasing the desk audited operating cost payment rate determined in clause (1) at an annual rate of five percent.

(3) For fiscal years beginning on or after July 1, 1985, the facility's payment rate shall be established by increasing the facility's payment rate in the facility's prior fiscal year by the increase indicated by the consumer price index for Minneapolis and St. Paul.

(4) For fiscal years beginning on or after January 1, 1988, the facility's payment rate shall be established using the following method: The commissioner shall divide the real estate taxes and special assessments payable as stated in the facility's current property tax statement by actual resident days to compute a real estate tax and special assessment per diem. Next, the prior year's payment rate less the real estate tax and special assessment per diem must be adjusted by the higher of (1) the percentage change in the consumer price index (CPI-U U.S. city average) as published by the Bureau of Labor Statistics between the previous two Septembers, new series index (1967-100), or (2) 2.5 percent, to determine an adjusted payment rate. The facility's payment rate is the adjusted payment rate plus the real estate tax and special assessment per diem.

(5) For the purpose of establishing payment rates under this paragraph, the facility's rate and reporting years coincide with the facility's fiscal year.

A facility that meets the criteria of this paragraph shall submit annual cost reports on forms prescribed by the commissioner.

For the rate year beginning July 1, 1985, each nursing home total payment rate must be effective two calendar months from the first day of the month after the commissioner issues the rate notice to the nursing home. From July 1, 1985, until the total payment rate becomes effective, the commissioner shall make payments to each nursing home at a temporary rate that is the prior rate year's operating cost payment rate increased by 2.6 percent plus the prior rate year's property-related payment rate and the prior rate year's real estate taxes and special assessments payment rate. The commissioner shall retroactively adjust the property-related payment rate and the real estate taxes and special assessments payment rate to July 1, 1985, but must not retroactively adjust the operating cost payment rate.

(d) For the purposes of Minnesota Rules, part 9549.0060, subpart 13, item F, the following types of transactions shall not be considered a sale or reorganization of a provider entity:

- (1) the sale or transfer of a nursing home upon death of an owner;
- (2) the sale or transfer of a nursing home due to serious illness or disability of an owner as defined under the social security act;
- (3) the sale or transfer of the nursing home upon retirement of an owner at 62 years of age or older;
- (4) any transaction in which a partner, owner, or shareholder acquires an interest or share of another partner, owner, or shareholder in a nursing home business provided the acquiring partner, owner, or shareholder has less than 50 percent ownership after the acquisition;
- (5) a sale and leaseback to the same licensee which does not constitute a change in facility license;
- (6) a transfer of an interest to a trust;
- (7) gifts or other transfers for no consideration;
- (8) a merger of two or more related organizations;

(9) a transfer of interest in a facility held in receivership;

(10) a change in the legal form of doing business other than a publicly held organization which becomes privately held or vice versa;

(11) the addition of a new partner, owner, or shareholder who owns less than 20 percent of the nursing home or the issuance of stock; or

(12) an involuntary transfer including foreclosure, bankruptcy, or assignment for the benefit of creditors.

Any increase in allowable debt or allowable interest expense or other cost incurred as a result of the foregoing transactions shall be a nonallowable cost for purposes of reimbursement under Minnesota Rules, parts 9549.0010 to 9549.0080.

(e) For rate years beginning on or after July 1, 1986, the commissioner may exclude from a provision of Minnesota Rules, parts 9549.0010 to 9549.0080, any facility that is certified by the commissioner of health as an intermediate care facility, licensed by the commissioner of human services as a chemical dependency treatment program, and enrolled in the medical assistance program as an institution for mental disease. The commissioner of human services shall establish a medical assistance payment rate for these facilities. Chapter 14 does not apply to the procedures and criteria used to establish the ratesetting structure. The ratesetting method is not appealable.

Sec. 12. Minnesota Statutes 1987 Supplement, section 256B.433, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [SETTING PAYMENT; MONITORING USE OF THERAPY SERVICES.] The commissioner shall promulgate rules pursuant to the administrative procedure act to set the amount and method of payment for ancillary materials and services provided to recipients residing in nursing homes. Payment for materials and services may be made to either the nursing home in the operating cost per diem, to the vendor of ancillary services pursuant to Minnesota Rules, parts 9500.0750 to 9500.1080 or to a nursing home pursuant to Minnesota Rules, parts 9500.0750 to 9500.1080. Payment for the same or similar service to a recipient shall not be made to both the nursing home and the vendor. The commissioner shall ensure the avoidance of double payments through audits and adjustments to the nursing home's annual cost report as required by section 256B.47, and that charges and arrangements for ancillary materials and services are cost effective and as would be incurred by a prudent and cost-conscious buyer. Therapy services provided to a recipient must be medically necessary and appropriate to the medical condition of the recipient. If the vendor, nursing home, or ordering physician cannot provide adequate medical necessity justification, as determined by the commissioner, in consultation with an advisory committee that meets the requirements of section 256B.064, subdivision 1a, the commissioner may recover or disallow the payment for the services and may require prior authorization for therapy services as a condition of payment or may impose administrative sanctions to limit the vendor, nursing home, or ordering physician's participation in the medical assistance program. If the provider number of a nursing home is used to bill services provided by a vendor of therapy services that is not related to the nursing home by ownership, control, affiliation or employment status, no withholding of payment shall be imposed against the nursing home for services not medically necessary except for funds due the unrelated vendor of therapy services as provided in subdivision 3, paragraph (c). For the purpose of this subdivision, no monetary recovery may be imposed against the nursing home for funds paid to the unrelated vendor of therapy services as provided in subdivision 3, paragraph (c), for services not medically necessary.

Sec. 13. Laws 1987, chapter 403, article 4, section 13, is amended to read:

Sec. 13. [STUDY AND REPORT.]

(a) The interagency board for quality assurance shall study the following issues and report to the legislature by December 15, 1988, on its findings and recommendations:

(1) the advisability of changing the definition of "hardship" for purposes of the nursing home moratorium;

(2) the advisability of defining the need for nursing home beds in terms of the population aged 75 and older; and

If the interagency board recommends that facilities be licensed as nursing homes, the interagency board shall recommend specific procedures for the granting of the licenses and identify

The board shall provide recommendations to the legislature for legislative changes that are necessary to implement the board's recommendations. The amount of excess investment income, if any, must be stated as a dollar amount and reported by the relief association to the governing body of the municipality, the state auditor, the commissioner of finance, and the legislative commission on pensions and retirement. The dollar amount of excess investment income up to 1.5 percent of the assets of the fund must be reserved by the relief association for application under subdivisions 3 and 4. Excess investment income must not be considered for actuarial valuations of the fund for that year under sections 69.77, 356.215, and 356.216. Additional investment must be included in the actuarial valuations performed under sections 69.77, 356.215, and 356.216.

Subd. 3. [APPLICATION OF EXCESS INVESTMENT INCOME.] The amount of excess investment income determined by subdivision 2 must be applied as follows:

(1) one-third must be reserved to pay a benefit to eligible members under subdivision 4 in an amount not to exceed .5 percent of the assets of the fund or an amount equal to the total monthly benefit that the eligible member was entitled to in the prior year under the terms of the pension plan, whichever is less;

A relief association that increases a service pension to a retired member in an amount equal to the same percentage that the salary base has increased shall pay an annual postretirement payment to all eligible members in a percent amount not to exceed the amount of excess investment income. Payment to each eligible member shall be calculated by dividing the total number of pension units to which eligible members are entitled into the excess investment income, and then multiplying that result by the number of units to which each eligible member is entitled. Payment to each eligible member shall not exceed an amount equal to the total monthly benefit that the eligible member was entitled to in the prior year under the terms of the pension plan.

Each other relief association shall pay an annual postretirement payment to its eligible members who do not receive a service pension increase equal to the same percentage that the salary base has increased. Payment to each of these members shall be calculated by dividing the total number of pension units to which these members are entitled into the excess investment income, and then multiplying that result by the number of units to which each member is entitled. The payment to each eligible member shall not exceed the difference between the retired member's monthly benefit and the amount the benefit would have been had it increased at the same percentage rate as the salary base. Any excess investment income exceeding the limits just described shall be divided among all eligible members of the relief association by dividing the total number of pension units to which the members are entitled into the excess investment income, and then multiplying that result by the number of units to which each member is entitled. The total payment to each eligible member is subject to the overall limit that it shall not exceed an amount equal to the total monthly benefit that the eligible member was entitled to in the prior year under the terms of the pension plan."

Employers and utility companies doing business in this state shall provide the following data upon written request by an agency responsible for child support enforcement, to identify and locate individuals owing or allegedly owing a duty to support, whether the individual is employed or is receiving utility service and the individual's address. A request for this information may be made to an employer when there is reasonable cause to believe that the subject of the inquiry is or was employed by the employer of whom the request was made. The request must include a statement that such reasonable cause exists. Information relative to the identity, whereabouts, employment, income, and property of a person owing or alleged to be owing an obligation of support may be requested and used or transmitted by the commissioner pursuant to the authority conferred by this section. The commissioner of human services may make such information available only to public officials and agencies of this state and its political subdivisions and other states of the union and their political subdivisions who are seeking to enforce the support liability of parents or to locate parents who have, or appear to have, deserted their children. Sec. 5. Minnesota Statutes 1987 Supplement, section 356.80, is amended to read:

356.80 [PROVISION OF INFORMATION IN THE EVENT OF MARRIAGE DISSOLUTION.]

Subdivision 1. [INFORMATION FOR A PENDING MARRIAGE DISSOLUTION.] (a) Upon written request by a person with access to the data under subdivision 3 who cites this statute, a public or private pension plan administrator must provide the court and the parties to a marriage dissolution action involving a plan member or former plan member with information regarding pension benefits or rights of the plan member or former plan member. The pension plan shall provide this information upon request of the court or a party to the action without requiring a signed authorization from the plan member or former plan member.

(b) The information must include the pension benefits or rights of the plan member or former plan member as of the first day of the month following the date of the request, ~~as of the first day of the seventh month following the date of the request if the action involves an active plan member,~~ and as of the date of valuation of marital assets under section 518.58, if the person requesting the information specifies that date. The information must also include the accrued service credit of the person, the credited salary of the person for the most current five-year period, a summary of the benefit plan, and any other information relevant to the calculation of the present value of the benefits or rights.

Subd. 2. [INFORMATION FOR AN EXISTING DISSOLUTION DECREE.] If a marriage dissolution decree rendered by a court of competent jurisdiction prior to August 1, 1987, provided a procedure for dividing pension benefits or rights in the form the distribution of future pension plan payments, upon request the applicable pension plan administrator shall provide on a timely basis to the court and the parties to the action the required information to implement that procedure without requiring a signed authorization from the plan member or former plan member.

Sec. 6. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 518.145, is amended to read:

518.145 [DECREE, FINALITY, AND REOPENING.]

Subdivision 1. [APPEAL.] A decree of dissolution of marriage or of legal separation is final when entered, subject to the right of appeal. When entered, the findings of fact and conclusions of law may constitute the judgment and decree. An appeal from the decree of dissolution that does not challenge the finding that the marriage is irretrievably broken does not delay the finality of that provision of the decree which dissolves the marriage beyond the time for appealing from that provision. A party may remarry before the time for appeal has run if it is not contested that the marriage is irretrievably broken or if a stipulation that the marriage is irretrievably broken is incorporated in the decree of dissolution.

Subd. 2. [REOPENING.] On motion and upon terms as are just, the court may relieve a party from a judgment and decree, order, or proceeding under chapter 518, except for provisions dissolving the bonds of marriage, annulling the marriage, or directing that the parties are legally separated, and may order a new trial or grant other relief as may be just for the following reasons:

- (1) mistake, inadvertence, surprise, or excusable neglect;
- (2) newly discovered evidence which by due diligence could not have been discovered in time to move for a new trial under the rules of civil procedure, rule 59.03;

(3) fraud, whether denominated intrinsic or extrinsic, misrepresentation, or other misconduct of an adverse party;

(4) the judgment and decree or order is void; or

(5) the judgment has been satisfied, released, or discharged, or a prior judgment and decree or order upon which it is based has been reversed or otherwise vacated, or it is no longer equitable that the judgment and decree or order should have prospective application.

The motion must be made within a reasonable time, and for a reason under clause (1), (2), or (3), not more than one year after the judgment and decree, order, or proceeding was entered or taken. A motion under this subdivision does not affect the finality of a judgment and decree or order or suspend its operation. This subdivision does not limit the power of a court to entertain an independent action to relieve a party from a judgment and decree, order, or proceeding or to grant relief to a party not actually personally notified as provided in the rules of civil procedure, or to set aside a judgment for fraud upon the court.

Sec. 7. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 518.17, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [CUSTODY ORDER.] (a) Upon adjudging the nullity of a marriage, or in a dissolution or separation proceeding, or in a child custody proceeding, the court shall make such further order as it deems just and proper concerning:

(a) (1) the legal custody of the minor children of the parties which shall be sole or joint;

(b) (2) their physical custody and residence; and

(3) Within the 15-day period, the obligor fails to move the court to deny withholding on the grounds that an arrearage of at least 30 days does not exist as of the date of the notice of income withholding, or on other grounds limited to mistakes of fact, and, ex parte, to stay service on the payor of funds until the motion to deny withholding is heard; and

(4) The obligee or the public authority serves a copy of the notice of income withholding, a copy of the court's order, and the provisions of this section on the payor of funds; and

(5) The obligee serves on the public authority a copy of the notice of income withholding, a copy of the court's order, an application, and the fee to use the public authority's collection services.

(b) To pay the arrearage specified in the notice of income withholding, the employer or payor of funds shall withhold from the obligor's income an additional amount equal to 20 percent of the monthly child support or maintenance obligation until the arrearage is paid.

Sec. 17. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 518.611, subdivision 10, is amended to read:

Subd. 10. [ORDER TERMINATING INCOME WITHHOLDING.]
(a) Whenever an obligation for support of a child or maintenance of a spouse, or both, terminates under the terms of the order or decree establishing the obligation, and where the obligation is enforced by an order for income withholding from the obligor, the court shall enter an order, directed to the obligor's employer or other payer of funds, which terminates the income withholding. The order terminating income withholding must specify the effective date of the order, referencing the initial order or decree establishing the support obligation.

The order must be entered once the following conditions have been met:

(1) the obligor serves written notice of the application for termination of income withholding by mail upon the obligee at the obligee's last known mailing address; and a duplicate copy of the application is served upon the public authority responsible for the processing of support collection services;

(2) the application for termination of income withholding specifies the event that terminates the support obligation, the effective date of the termination of the support obligation, and the applicable provisions of the order or decree that established the support obligation;

(3) the application includes the complete name of the obligor's employer or other payer of funds, the business mailing address, the court action and court file number, and the support and collections file number, if known; and

(4) after receipt of the application for termination of income withholding, the obligee or the public authority fails within 20 days to request a hearing on the issue of whether income withholding of support should continue clearly specifying the basis for the continued support obligation and, ex parte, to stay the service of the order terminating income withholding upon the obligor's employer or other payer of funds, pending the outcome of the hearing.

(b) If the public authority determines that the support obligation has terminated under the terms of the order or decree establishing the obligation, the public authority shall notify the obligee and obligor of intent to terminate income withholding. Five days following this notice, the public authority shall issue a notice to the payor of funds terminating income withholding, without a requirement for a court order terminating income withholding, unless a hearing has been requested under paragraph (a).

Sec. 18. Minnesota Statutes 1987 Supplement, section 518.64, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [MODIFICATION.] The terms of a decree respecting maintenance or support may be modified upon a showing of one or more of the following: (1) substantially increased or decreased earnings of a party; (2) substantially increased or decreased need of a party; (3) receipt of assistance under sections 256.72 to 256.87; or (4) a change in the cost-of-living for either party as measured by the federal bureau of statistics, any of which makes the terms unreasonable and unfair. On a motion for modification of maintenance, the court shall apply, in addition to all other relevant factors, the factors for an award of maintenance under section 518.552 that exist at the time of the motion. On a motion for modification of support, the court shall take into consideration the needs of the children and shall not consider the financial circumstances of each party's spouse, if any. A modification which decreases support or maintenance may be made retroactive only with respect to any period during which the support obligor has pending a motion for modification but only from the date that notice of the motion has been given to the obligee and to the court or other entity which issued each support order. A modification which increases support or maintenance shall not be made retroactive if the obligor has substantially complied with the previous order. Except for an award of the right of occupancy of the homestead, provided in section 518.63, all divisions of real and personal property provided by section 518.58 shall be final, and may be revoked or modified only where the court finds the existence of conditions that justify reopening a judgment under the laws of this state, including motions under section 518.145, subdivision 2. The court may impose a lien or charge on the divided property at any time while the property, or subsequently acquired property, is owned by the parties or either of them, for the payment of maintenance or support money, or may sequester the property as is provided by section 518.24.

Sec. 19. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 518.641, is amended to read:

518.641 [COST-OF-LIVING ADJUSTMENTS IN MAINTENANCE OR CHILD SUPPORT ORDER.]

Subdivision 1. [REQUIREMENT.] An order for child support shall, and an order for maintenance may, provide for a biennial adjustment in the amount to be paid based on a change in the cost-of-living. The An order which provides for a cost-of-living adjustment shall specify the cost-of-living index to be applied. The court may use the consumer price index for all urban consumers, Minneapolis-St. Paul (CPI-U), the consumer price index for wage earners and clerical, Minneapolis-St. Paul (CPI-W), or another cost-of-living index published by the department of labor which it specifically finds is more appropriate. The court may specify that the housing component be excluded from the cost-of-living adjustment. Cost-of-living increases under this section shall be compounded. ~~It~~ The court may also increase the amount by more than the cost-of-living adjustment by agreement of the parties or by making further findings. The adjustment becomes effective on the first of May of the year in which it is made. A court may waive the requirement of the cost-of-living clause in an order for child support if it expressly finds that the obligor's occupation or income, or both, does not provide for cost-of-living adjustment or that the order for child support has a provision such as a step increase that has the effect of a cost-of-living clause. The court may waive a cost-of-living adjustment in a maintenance order if the parties so agree in writing. The commissioner of human services may promulgate rules for child support adjustments under this section in accordance with the rulemaking provisions of chapter 14.

Subd. 2. [CONDITIONS.] No adjustment under this section may be made unless the order provides for it and until the following conditions are met:

(a) the obligee or public authority serves notice of its application for adjustment by mail on the obligor at the obligor's last known address at least 20 days before the effective date of the adjustment;

(b) the notice to the obligor shall inform the obligor that an adjustment in payments shall become effective on the first of May; and

(c) after receipt of notice and before the effective day of the adjustment, the obligor fails to request a hearing on the issue of whether the adjustment should take effect, and ex parte, to stay imposition of the adjustment pending outcome of the hearing.

Subd. 3. [RESULT OF HEARING.] If, at a hearing pursuant to this section, the obligor establishes an insufficient cost of living or other increase in income that prevents fulfillment of the an adjusted maintenance or child support obligation, the court may direct that all or part of the adjustment not take effect. If, at the hearing, the obligor does not establish this insufficient increase in income, the adjustment shall take effect as of the date it would have become effective had no hearing been requested.

Subd. 4. [FORM.] The department of human services shall prepare and make available to the court and obligors a form to be submitted to the department by the obligor in support of a request for hearing under this section regarding a child support order. The rulemaking provisions of chapter 14 shall not apply to the preparation of the form.

Subd. 5. [REQUEST FOR COST-OF-LIVING CLAUSE.] A motion for enforcement or modification of an existing child support order shall include a request for a cost-of-living clause. The court may deny the request only upon an express finding that the obligor's occupation, income, or both, does not provide for a cost-of-living adjustment or that the existing child support order either has a cost-of-living clause or sets forth a step increase which has the effect of a cost-of living adjustment."

H. F. No. 2188, A bill for an act relating to health; providing a state administered insurance program for persons without health care coverage; requiring premiums on a sliding fee basis; appropriating money; proposing coding for new law as Minnesota Statutes, chapter 256H.

Reported the same back with the following amendments:

“Section 1. [FINDINGS.]

The legislature finds that a significant number of state residents do not have access to adequate health care because they cannot afford the cost of health insurance coverage, are not eligible for government health care programs, and are not covered by any government subsidized or employment-based insurance. These residents are often hard working Minnesotans whose wages are not sufficient to pay for health insurance premiums. They are farmers, small business owners, minor children, and elderly persons.

The legislature further finds that the very poor receive subsidized care through medical assistance programs and that most residents who do have health insurance or coverage through a health maintenance organization are covered through employment-based insurance.

The legislature further finds that although charity health care plays an important role in providing access to health care for persons without access to adequate health care, charity health care cannot continue to provide for the health care needs of these persons as their population continues to grow.

The legislature finds that to assure the continued health and welfare of these persons, it is necessary and desirable to establish a state administered health insurance program. The program shall provide coverage comparable to the coverage provided to state of Minnesota employees. To minimize the fiscal impact to the state in administering such a program, the program must require financial participation from those who are covered based on their ability to pay.

Sec. 2. Minnesota Statutes 1987 Supplement, section 256.936, is amended to read:

256.936 [CHILDREN'S HEALTH PLAN.]

Subdivision 1. [DEFINITIONS.] For purposes of this section the following terms shall have the meanings given them:

(a) “Eligible persons” means ~~pregnant women and children under six years old~~ who are one year of age or older but less than 11 years of age who have gross family incomes that are equal to or less than 185 percent of the federal poverty guidelines and who are not eligible for medical assistance under chapter 256B or general assistance medical care under chapter 256D and who are not otherwise insured for the covered services. ~~Eligibility for pregnant women shall continue for 60 days postpartum to allow for follow-up visits. The period of eligibility extends from the first day of the month in which the child's first birthday occurs to the last day of the month in which the child becomes 11 years old.~~

(b) "Covered services" means ~~prenatal care services and children's health services.~~

(c) "~~Prenatal care services~~" means ~~the outpatient services provided to pregnant women which are medically necessary for the pregnancy. Physician or certified nurse-midwife services for delivery are included but inpatient hospital services are not included.~~

(d) "Children's health services" means the health services reimbursed under chapter 256B, with the exception of inpatient hospital services, nursing home or intermediate care facilities services, and mental health and chemical dependency services.

(e) (d) "Eligible providers" means those health care providers who provide ~~prenatal care services and children's health services~~ to medical assistance clients under rules established by the commissioner for that program. Reimbursement under this section shall be at the same rates and conditions established for medical assistance. ~~A provider of prenatal care services shall assess whether the pregnant woman is at risk of delivering a low birth weight baby or has a health condition which may increase the probability of a problem birth.~~

(f) (e) "Commissioner" means the commissioner of human services.

Subd. 2. [PLAN ADMINISTRATION.] The children's health plan is established to promote access to appropriate primary health care for pregnant women and to assure healthy babies and healthy children. The commissioner shall establish an office for the state administration of this plan. The plan shall be used to provide prenatal care and children's health services for eligible persons. Payment for these services shall be made to all eligible providers. The commissioner shall establish marketing efforts to encourage potentially eligible persons to receive information about the program and about other medical care programs administered or supervised by the department of human services. A toll-free telephone number must be used to provide information about the plan medical programs and to promote access to the covered services. The commissioner must make a quarterly assessment of the expected expenditures for the covered services and the appropriation. Based on this assessment the commissioner may limit enrollments and target former aid to families with dependent children recipients. If sufficient money is not available to cover all costs incurred in one quarter, the commissioner may seek an additional authorization for funding from the legislative advisory committee.

Subd. 3. [APPLICATION PROCEDURES.] Applications and other information must be available in provider offices, local human services agencies, public and private elementary schools, community health offices, and Women, Infants and Children (WIC) program sites. These sites may accept applications, collect the enrollment fee, and forward the forms and fees to the commissioner. Otherwise, applicants may apply directly to the commissioner. The commissioner may use individuals' social security numbers as identifiers for purposes of administering the plan and conduct data matches to verify income. Applicants shall submit evidence of family income, earned and unearned, that will be used to verify income eligibility. Notwithstanding any other law to the contrary, benefits under this section are secondary to ~~any~~ a plan of insurance or benefit program under which an eligible person may have coverage. The commissioner shall identify eligible persons who may have coverage or benefits under other plans of insurance or who become eligible for medical assistance.

Subd. 4. [ENROLLMENT FEE.] An enrollment fee of $35 is required from eligible persons for prenatal care services and an annual enrollment fee of $25 is required from eligible persons for children's health services. ~~The fees may be paid together at the time of enrollment or as two payment installments.~~ The commissioner shall make an annual redetermination of continued eligibility and identify people who may become eligible for medical assistance.

Sec. 3. Minnesota Statutes 1987 Supplement, section 256B.06, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. Medical assistance may be paid for any person:

(1) who is a child eligible for or receiving adoption assistance payments under Title IV-E of the Social Security Act, United States Code, title 42, sections 670 to 676 under Minnesota Statutes, section 259.40 or 259.431; or

(2) who is a child eligible for or receiving foster care maintenance payments under Title IV-E of the Social Security Act, United States Code, title 42, sections 670 to 676; or

(3) who is eligible for or receiving public assistance under the aid to families with dependent children program, the Minnesota supplemental aid program, except for those persons eligible for Minnesota supplemental aid because the local agency waived excess assets under section 256D.37, subdivision 2; or

(4) who is a pregnant woman, as certified in writing by a physician or nurse midwife, and who (a) meets the other eligibility criteria of this section, and (b) would be categorically eligible for assistance under the aid to families with dependent children program if the child had been born and was living with the woman. For purposes of this section, a woman is considered pregnant for 60 days postpartum; or

(5) who is a pregnant woman, as certified in writing by a physician or nurse midwife, who meets the other eligibility criteria of this section and whose unborn child would be eligible as a needy child under clause (8) if born and living with the woman. For purposes of this section, a woman is considered pregnant for 60 days postpartum; or

(6) who meets the categorical eligibility requirements of the supplemental security income program and the other eligibility requirements of this section; or

(7) who, except for the amount of income or assets, would qualify for supplemental security income for the aged, blind and disabled, or aid to families with dependent children, and who meets the other eligibility requirements of this section. However, in the case of families and children who meet the categorical eligibility requirements for aid to families with dependent children, the methodology for calculating assets shall be as specified in section 256.73, subdivision 2, and the methodology for calculating deductions from earnings for child care and work expenses shall be as specified in section 256.74, subdivision 1; or

(8) who is under 21 years of age and in need of medical care that neither the person nor the person's relatives responsible under sections 256B.01 to 256B.26 are financially able to provide; or

(9) who is an infant less than one year of age born on or after October 1, 1984, whose mother was eligible at the time of birth and who remains in the mother's household. Eligibility under this clause is concurrent with the mother's and does not depend on the father's income except as the income affects the mother's eligibility; or

(10) who is residing in a hospital for treatment of mental disease or tuberculosis and is 65 years of age or older and without means sufficient to pay the per capita hospital charge; and

(11) who resides in Minnesota, or, if absent from the state, is deemed to be a resident of Minnesota in accordance with the rules of the state agency; and

(12) who alone, or together with the person's spouse, does not own real property other than the homestead. For the purposes of this section, "homestead" means the house owned and occupied by the applicant or recipient as a primary place of residence, together with the contiguous land upon which it is situated. The homestead shall continue to be excluded for persons residing in a long-term care facility if it is used as a primary residence by the spouse, minor child, or disabled child of any age. The homestead is also excluded for the first six calendar months of the person's stay in the long-term care facility. The homestead must be reduced to an amount within limits or excluded on another basis if the person remains in the long-term care facility for a period longer than six months. Real estate not used as a home may not be retained unless the property is not salable, the equity is $6,000 or less and the income produced by the property is at least six percent of the equity, or the excess real property is exempted for a period of nine months if there is a good faith effort to sell the property and a legally binding agreement is signed to repay the amount of assistance issued during that nine months; and

(13) who individually does not own more than $3,000 in cash or liquid assets, or if a member of a household with two family members (husband and wife, or parent and child), does not own more than $6,000 in cash or liquid assets, plus $200 for each additional legal dependent. In addition to these maximum amounts, an eligible individual or family may accrue interest on these amounts, but they must be reduced to the maximum at the time of an eligibility redetermination. For residents of long-term care facilities, the accumulation of the clothing and personal needs allowance pursuant to section 256B.35 must also be reduced to the maximum at the time of the eligibility redetermination. Cash and liquid assets may include a prepaid funeral contract and insurance policies with cash surrender value. The value of the following shall not be included:

(a) the homestead, (b) household goods and furniture in use in the home, (c) wearing apparel, (d) personal property used as a regular abode by the applicant or recipient, (e) a lot in a burial plot for each member of the household, (f) personal jewelry acquired more than 24 months immediately prior to the period of medical assistance eligibility and personal jewelry acquired within 24 months immediately prior to the period of medical assistance eligibility and not purchased with assets of the applicant or recipient, (g) capital and operating assets of a trade or business that the local agency determines are necessary to the person's ability to earn an income, (h) for a period of six months, insurance settlements to repair or replace damaged, destroyed, or stolen property, (i) one motor vehicle that is licensed pursuant to chapter 168 and defined as: (1) passenger automobile, (2) station wagon, (3) motorcycle, (4) motorized bicycle or (5) truck of the weight found in categories A to E, of section 168.013, subdivision 1e, and that is used primarily for the person's benefit, and (j) other items which may be required by federal law or statute. To be excluded, the vehicle must have a market value of less than $4,500; be necessary to obtain medically necessary health services; be necessary for employment; be modified for operation by or transportation of a handicapped person; or be necessary to perform essential daily tasks because of climate, terrain, distance, or similar factors. The equity value of other motor vehicles is counted against the cash or liquid asset limit; and

(14) who has or anticipates receiving a semiannual income not in excess of 115 percent of the income standards by family size used in the aid to families with dependent children program, except that families and children may have an income up to $133\frac{1}{3}$ percent of the AFDC income standard. Notwithstanding any laws or rules to the contrary, in computing income to determine eligibility of persons who are not residents of long-term care facilities, the commissioner shall disregard increases in income as required by Public Law Numbers 94-566, section 503; 99-272; and 99-509; and

(15) who has monthly expenses for medical care that are more than the amount of the person's excess income, computed on a monthly basis, in which case eligibility may be established and medical assistance payments may be made to cover the monthly unmet medical need or who is a pregnant woman or infant up to one year of age who meets the requirements of clauses (1) to (8) except that her anticipated income is in excess of the income standards by family size used in the aid to families with dependent children program, but is equal to or less than $133\frac{1}{3}$ 185 percent of ~~that income standard~~ the federal poverty guideline for the same family size. Eligibility for a pregnant woman or infant up to one year of age with respect to this clause shall be without regard to the asset standards specified in clauses (12) and (13). For persons who reside in licensed nursing homes, regional treatment centers, or medical institutions, the income over and above that required in section 256B.35 for personal needs allowance is to be applied to the cost of institutional care. In addition, income may be retained by an institutionalized person (a) to support dependents in the amount that, together with the income of the spouse and child under age 18, would provide net income equal to the medical assistance standard for the family size of the dependents excluding the person residing in the facility; or (b) for a period of up to three calendar months, in an amount equal to the medical assistance standard for a family size of one if the person was not living together with a spouse or child under age 21 at the time the person entered a long-term care facility, if the person has expenses of maintaining a residence in the community, and if a physician certifies that the person is expected to reside in the long-term care facility on a short-term basis. For purposes of this section, persons are determined to be residing in licensed nursing homes, regional treatment centers, or medical institutions if the persons are expected to remain for a period expected to last longer than three months. The commissioner of human services may establish a schedule of contributions to be made by the spouse of a nursing home resident to the cost of care; and

(16) who has applied or agrees to apply all proceeds received or receivable by the person or the person's spouse from any third person liable for the costs of medical care for the person, the spouse, and children. The state agency shall require from any applicant or recipient of medical assistance the assignment of any rights to medical support and third party payments. Persons must cooperate with the state in establishing paternity and obtaining third party payments. By signing an application for medical assistance, a person assigns to the department of human services all rights the person may have to medical support or payments for medical expenses from any other person or entity on their own or their dependent's behalf and agrees to cooperate with the state in establishing paternity and obtaining third party payments. Any rights or amounts so assigned shall be applied against the cost of medical care paid for under this chapter. Any assignment takes effect upon the determination that the applicant is eligible for medical assistance and up to three months prior to the date of application if the applicant is determined eligible for and receives medical assistance benefits. The application must contain a statement explaining this assignment. Any assignment shall not be effective as to benefits paid or provided under automobile accident coverage and private health care coverage prior to notification of the assignment by the person or organization providing the benefits; and

(17) eligibility is available for the month of application and for three months prior to application if the person was eligible in those prior months. A redetermination of eligibility must occur every 12 months.

Sec. 4. [256H.01] [DEFINITIONS.]

Subdivision 1. [SCOPE.] For the purposes of sections 4 to 11, the terms defined in this section have the meanings given them.

Subd. 2. [COMMISSIONER.] "Commissioner" means the commissioner of human services.

Subd. 3. [ELIGIBLE PERSON.] "Eligible person" means an individual who meets the requirements of section 6 and the rules adopted by the commissioner.

Subd. 4. [PROGRAM.] "Program" means the health insurance program for eligible persons administered by the commissioner under sections 4 to 11. The program's name is Minnesota access health plan.

Sec. 5. [256H.02] [CONTRACTING AUTHORITY.]

Subdivision 1. [GENERAL.] The commissioner may request bids and negotiate and contract with carriers that the commissioner determines are best qualified to underwrite and service the health insurance plans. The commissioner may negotiate premium rates and coverage provisions with all carriers regulated under chapters 62A, 62C, and 62D. The commissioner may negotiate separate contracts to cover eligible persons who are in need of, and receive, immediate medical treatment but who have not as yet selected a plan of coverage. The commissioner may also negotiate reasonable restrictions to be applied to all carriers under chapters 62A, 62C, and 62D. Contracts to manage enrollment and plan selection must be bid or negotiated separately from contracts to service the plans, which shall be awarded only on the basis of competitive bids. The commissioner shall consider the cost of the plans, conversion options relating to the contracts, service capabilities, character, financial position, and reputation of the carriers and other factors the commissioner considers appropriate. Each contract must be for a uniform term of at least one year but may be made automatically renewable from term to term in the absence of notice of termination by either party. The commissioner shall, to the extent feasible, offer a choice of plans available from two or more health plan companies. The commissioner may offer only one plan in an area of the state if only one acceptable bid exists or if offering more than one would result in substantial, additional administrative costs. Payments from the state to a health plan company under sections 4 to 11 are exempt from the tax imposed by section 60A.15 and are not included in a health plan company's premiums for the purposes of assessments under 62E.11.

Subd. 2. [CONTRACT TO CONTAIN STATEMENT OF BENEFITS.] A contract under this section must contain a detailed statement of benefits offered and must include any maximums, limitations, exclusions, and other definitions of benefits the commissioner considers necessary or desirable. A contract must provide benefits at least equal to those required by section 62A.32 or 62E.06, subdivision 2.

A contract shall not contain a provision denying coverage for any preexisting conditions.

Sec. 6. [256H.03] [ELIGIBILITY.]

Subdivision 1. [ELIGIBLE PERSONS.] A Minnesota resident may enroll in the program if the resident is not covered either directly or through a family member under:

(1) a policy, plan, or contract of health or accident insurance regulated under chapter 62A, 62C, or 62D; or

(2) Medicaid or an employment-based insurance program.

Subd. 2. [REDETERMINATION OF ELIGIBILITY AND PREMIUM.] The commissioner shall redetermine a person's eligibility and share of the premium every six months while the person is enrolled in the program.

Sec. 7. [256H.05] [PREMIUMS.]

Subdivision 1. [SLIDING FEE.] An eligible person shall pay that person's share of the premium for coverage at the time of enrollment. The enrollee's share of the premium shall be determined by an income-based sliding fee scale adopted by the commissioner in rule. The commissioner shall pay the remainder of the premium. Terms of payment of premiums by the commissioner and enrollee shall be provided in the contract.

Subd. 2. [PAYMENT OF FULL PREMIUM ALLOWED.] A person whose income is greater than 250 percent of the federal poverty income guidelines for a family of the same size must pay the entire premium to receive coverage under the program.

Sec. 8. [256H.06] [ENROLLMENT.]

The time, manner, conditions, and terms of eligibility for enrollment in the program shall be determined by the commissioner in rule.

The rules must ensure that eligible persons who need immediate medical treatment are covered under the program from the time they first seek treatment.

Sec. 9. [256H.07] [EFFECTIVE DATE OF COVERAGE.]

Except as provided by rule for persons who need immediate medical treatment, an eligible person is covered under the program on the date the writing carrier receives the first month's premium. Coverage is retroactive to the date the eligible person enrolled in the program.

Sec. 10. [256H.08] [SOLICITATION OF ELIGIBLE PERSONS.]

The commissioner shall disseminate appropriate information to the residents of this state about the existence of the program and the means of enrollment. Means of communication may include use of the press, radio, and television, as well as publication in appropriate state offices and publications.

The commissioner shall devise and implement methods to maintain public awareness of the provisions of sections 4 to 11 and shall administer sections 4 to 11 in a manner that facilitates public participation.

Sec. 11. [256H.09] [IMPLEMENTATION PLAN; REPORT.]

The commissioner, in consultation with the commissioners of health and commerce, three individuals appointed by the chair of the senate health and human services committee, and three individuals appointed by the chair of the house health and human services committee, shall develop a plan to implement the program. The plan must include, but not be limited to:

(1) estimates of the number of people eligible for the program and the costs of the program;

(2) a description of benefits to be offered;

(3) recommendations for methods to determine eligibility and collect premiums;

(4) strategies for contracting and marketing;

(5) strategies to maintain current employer participation in the provision of health care coverage;

(6) strategies to coordinate the program with health care programs such as general assistance medical care, the University Hospital Papers program at the University of Minnesota hospitals, Minnesota comprehensive health association, medical assistance, Medicare, Minnesota catastrophic health expense protection program, and other similar programs;

(7) timelines for implementing the program, with specific implementation plans for the 1989 to 1991 biennium; and

(8) recommendations for legislation to implement the program.

The commissioner shall report to the legislature by November 1, 1988, on the plan to implement the program.

126.034 [SCHOOL PREASSESSMENT TEAMS.]

Every public school, and every nonpublic school that participates in a school district chemical abuse program shall establish a chemical abuse preassessment team. The preassessment team must be composed of classroom teachers, administrators, and to the extent possible they exist in each school, school nurse, school counselor or psychologist, social worker, chemical abuse specialist, and other appropriate professional staff. The superintendents or their designees shall designate the team members in the public schools. The preassessment team is responsible for addressing reports of chemical abuse problems and making recommendations for appropriate responses to the individual reported cases.

Within 45 days after receiving an individual reported case the preassessment team shall make a determination whether to provide the student and, in the case of a minor, the student's parents with information about school and community services in connection with chemical abuse. Data may be disclosed without consent in health and safety emergencies pursuant to section 13.32 and applicable federal law and regulations.

Notwithstanding section 138.163, destruction of records identifying individual students shall be governed by this section. If the preassessment team decides not to provide a student and, in the case of a minor, the student's parents with information about school or community services in connection with chemical abuse, records created or maintained by the preassessment team about the student shall be destroyed not later than six months after the determination is made. If the preassessment team decides to provide a student and, in the case of a minor, the student's parents with information about school or community services in connection with chemical abuse, records created or maintained by the preassessment team about the student shall be destroyed not later than six months after the student is no longer enrolled in the district.

Sec. 2. Minnesota Statutes 1987 Supplement, section 126.035, is amended to read:

126.035 [SCHOOL AND COMMUNITY ADVISORY TEAM.]

The superintendent, with the advice of the school board, shall establish a school and community advisory team to address chemical abuse problems in the district. The school and community advisory team must be composed of representatives from the school preassessment team established in section 126.034, to the extent possible, law enforcement agencies, county attorney's office, social service agencies, chemical abuse treatment programs, parents, and the business community. The community advisory team shall:

(1) build awareness of the problem within the community, identify available treatment and counseling programs for students and develop good working relationships and enhance communication between the schools and other community agencies; and

(2) develop a written procedure clarifying the notification process to be used by the chemical abuse preassessment team established under section 126.034 when a student is believed to be in possession of or under the influence of alcohol or a controlled substance. The procedure must include contact with the student, and the student's parents or guardian; and

(3) develop a written memorandum of understanding between school personnel and law enforcement agencies identifying when the school shall notify the local law enforcement agency that a violation of its drug and alcohol policy has occurred, and when the law enforcement agency shall notify the school chemical abuse preassessment team of incidents occurring off the school premises involving chemical abuse by students enrolled in that school pursuant to the possession or purchase of alcohol in violation of section 340A.503, subdivision 2 or 3, or in the case of controlled substances, a violation of section 152.09, subdivision 1 in the case of a minor student.

Sec. 3. [126.036] [LAW ENFORCEMENT RECORDS.]

A law enforcement agency shall provide notice of any drug incident occurring within the agency's jurisdiction, in which the agency has probable cause to believe a student violated section 152.09, subdivision 1 or 340A.503, subdivision 1, 2, or 3. The notice shall be in writing and shall be provided, within two weeks after an incident occurs, to the chemical abuse preassessment team in the school where the student is enrolled.

A teacher who complies with this section shall be defended and indemnified under section 466.07, subdivision 1, in any action for damages arising out of the compliance.

Subd. 2. [OTHER REPORTS.] Nothing in this section prevents a teacher or any other school employee from reporting to a law enforcement agency any violation of law occurring on school premises or at school sponsored events.

Sec. 5. Minnesota Statutes 1987 Supplement, section 260.161, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Delete everything after the enacting clause and insert:

"Section 1. Minnesota Statutes 1987 Supplement, section 252.46, subdivision 5, is amended to read:

Subd. 5. [SUBMITTING RECOMMENDED RATES.] The county board shall submit recommended payment rates to the commissioner on forms supplied by the commissioner by November 1, 1987, and at least 60 days before revised payment rates or payment rates for new vendors are to be effective. The forms must require the county board's written verification of the individual documentation required under section 252.44, clause (a). If the number of days of service provided by a licensed vendor are projected to increase, the county board must recommend payment rates based on the projected increased days of attendance and resulting lower per unit fixed costs. Recommended increases in payment rates for vendors whose approved payment rates are ten or more than ten percent below the statewide median payment rates must be equal to the maximum increases allowed for that vendor under subdivision 3. If a vendor provides services at more than one licensed site, the county board may recommend the same payment rates for each site based on the average rate for all sites. The county board may also recommend differing payment rates for each licensed site if it would result in a total annual payment to the vendor that is equal to or less than the total annual payment that would result if the average rates had been used for all sites. For purposes of this subdivision, the average payment rate for all service sites used by a vendor must be computed by adding the amounts that result when the payment rates for each licensed site are multiplied by the projected annual number of service units to be provided at that site and dividing the sum of those amounts by the total units of service to be provided by the vendor at all sites.

Sec. 2. Minnesota Statutes 1987 Supplement, section 252.46, subdivision 6, is amended to read:

Subd. 6. [VARIANCES.] A variance from the minimum or maximum payment rates in subdivisions 2 and 3 may be granted by the commissioner when the vendor requests and the county board submits to the commissioner a written variance request with the recommended payment rates. A variance can be utilized for costs associated with compliance with state administrative rules, compliance with court orders, increased insurance costs, start-up and conversion costs for supported employment, direct service staff salaries, and transportation. The county board shall review all vendors' payment rates that are ~~20~~ ten or more than ten percent lower than the average rates for the regional development commission district to which the county belongs statewide median payment rates. If the county determines that the payment rates do not provide sufficient revenue to the vendor for authorized service delivery the county must recommend a variance under this section.

This review must occur prior to November 1, 1987. When the county board contracts for increased services from any vendor for some or all individuals receiving services from the vendor, the county board shall review the vendor's payment rates to determine whether the increase requires that a variance to the minimum rates be recommended under this section to reflect the vendor's lower per unit fixed costs. The written variance request must include documentation that all the following criteria have been met:

(1) The commissioner and the county board have both conducted a review and have identified a need for a change in the payment rates to change the number of direct service staff or the level of qualifications of the staff.

(2) The proposed changes are required for the vendor to deliver authorized individual services in an effective and efficient manner.

(3) The proposed changes are necessary to demonstrate compliance with minimum licensing standards governing minimum staffing ratios and staff qualifications.

(4) The vendor documents that the change in staff numbers or qualifications changes cannot be achieved by reallocating current staff or by reallocating financial resources to provide or purchase the necessary services.

(5) The county board submits evidence that the need for additional staff cannot be met by using temporary special needs rate exceptions under Minnesota Rules, parts 9510.1020 to 9510.1140.

(6) The county board submits a description of the nature and cost of the proposed changes, and how the county will monitor the use of funds by the vendor to make necessary changes in services. Allowable costs are limited to salaries, related fringe benefits, and payroll taxes.

(7) The county board's recommended payment rates do not exceed 125 percent of the average current calendar year's statewide median payment rates in the regional development commission district in which the vendor is located.

Sec. 3. Minnesota Statutes 1987 Supplement, section 252.46, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 13. [REVIEW AND REVISION OF PROCEDURES FOR RATE EXCEPTIONS FOR VERY DEPENDENT PERSONS WITH SPECIAL NEEDS.] The commissioner shall review the procedures established in Minnesota Rules, parts 9510.1020 to 9510.1140, that counties must follow to seek authorization for a medical assistance rate exception for services for very dependent persons with special needs. The commissioner shall appoint an advisory task force to work with the commissioner. Members of the task force must include vendors, providers, advocates, and consumers. After considering the recommendations of the advisory task force and county rate setting procedures developed under this section, the commissioner shall:

(1) revise administrative procedures as necessary;

(2) implement new review procedures for county applications for medical assistance rate exceptions for services for very dependent persons with special needs in a manner that accounts for services available to the person within the approved payment rates of the vendor;

(3) provide training and technical assistance to vendors, providers, and counties in use of procedures governing medical assistance rate exceptions for very dependent persons with special needs and in county rate setting procedures established under this subdivision; and

(4) develop a strategy and implementation plan for uniform data collection for use in establishing equitable payment rates and medical assistance rate exceptions for services provided by vendors.

Sec. 4. [COMPLEMENT.]

The approved complement of the department of human services shall be increased by one full-time equivalent for the purposes of sections 1 to 3.

Sec. 5. [APPROPRIATION.]

$ is appropriated to the commissioner of human services for the purposes of sections 1 to 3."

"Section 1. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 473.167, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [LOANS FOR ACQUISITION.] The council may make loans to counties, towns, and statutory and home rule charter cities within the metropolitan area for the purchase of property within the right-of-way of a state trunk highway shown on an official map adopted pursuant to section 394.361 or 462.359 or for the purchase of property within the proposed right-of-way of a principal or intermediate arterial highway designated by the council as a part of the metropolitan highway system plan and approved by the council pursuant to subdivision 1. The loans shall be made by the council, from the fund established pursuant to this subdivision, for purchases approved by the council. The loans shall bear no interest. The council shall make loans only: (1) to accelerate the acquisition of primarily undeveloped property when there is a reasonable probability that the property will increase in value before highway construction, or (2) to avert the imminent conversion or the granting of approvals which would allow the conversion of property to uses which would jeopardize its availability for highway construction. The council shall determine priorities for loans and administer the fund in a manner consistent with the council's transportation policies and highway system plan. The council shall not make loans for the purchase of property at a price which exceeds the fair market value of the property or which includes the costs of relocating or moving persons or property. A private property owner may elect to receive the purchase price either in a lump sum or in not more than four annual installments without interest on the deferred installments. If the purchase agreement provides for installment payments, the council shall make the loan in installments corresponding to those in the purchase agreement. The recipient of an acquisition loan shall convey the property for the construction of the highway at the same price which the recipient paid for the property. Upon notification by the council that the plan to construct the highway has been abandoned or the anticipated location of the highway changed, the recipient shall sell the property at market value in accordance with the procedures required for the disposition of the property. All rents and other money received because of the recipient's ownership of the property and all proceeds from the conveyance or sale of the property shall be paid to the council. The proceeds of the tax authorized by subdivision 3, all money paid to the council by recipients of loans, and all interest on the proceeds and payments shall be maintained as a separate fund. For administration of the loan program the council may expend from the fund each year an amount no greater than three percent of the amount ~~that a metropolitan area tax levy of 5/100 of a mill would raise in~~ of the authorized levy for that year.

Sec. 2. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 473.167, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 4. [LEVY INCREASE.] For taxes payable in 1989, the levy limit established in subdivision 3 for that year is multiplied by two. The payable 1989 levy limit established by this subdivision must be adjusted for subsequent years as otherwise provided in this section.

Sec. 3. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 473.249, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 3. [LEVY LIMIT.] Notwithstanding any other provision of this section, effective for property taxes payable in 1989 and subsequent years, the total amount of dollars levied by the council for general purposes under this section in any year may not increase over the amount levied in the preceding year by a percentage greater than the percentage increase during the most recent 12-month period in the implicit price deflator for state and local government purchases of goods and services.

“Section 1. [POLICY STATEMENT; LEGISLATIVE FINDINGS.]

Since 1931 the expressed policy of the state of Minnesota, stated by law in Minnesota Statutes, section 481.02, subdivision 3, clause (3), has been that real estate brokers and salespeople may provide drafting services incident to real estate closings. The legislature continues to find that the public interest will be served by permitting the provision of those services by brokers, salespeople, and closing agents with or without compensation. The legislature also finds it appropriate, and it is the purpose of this act, to provide clarification of the role of real estate brokers, salespeople, and closing agents.

Sec. 2. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 82.17, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 10. “Closing agent” or “real estate closing agent” means any person, except a licensed attorney, real estate broker, or real estate salesperson, who for another and with or without a commission, fee, or other valuable consideration or with or without the intention or expectation of receiving a commission, fee, or other valuable consideration, directly or indirectly provides closing services incident to the sale, trade, lease, or loan of residential real estate, including drawing or assisting in drawing papers incident to the sale, trade, lease, or loan, or advertises or claims to be engaged in these activities.

(2) a person from drawing a will for another in an emergency if the imminence of death leaves insufficient time to have it drawn and its execution supervised by a licensed attorney-at-law;

(3) any one, acting as broker for the parties or agent of one of the parties to a sale or trade or lease of property or to a loan, from drawing or assisting in drawing, with or without charge, papers incident to the sale, trade, lease, or loan;

(6) (5) any bona fide labor organization from giving legal advice to its members in matters arising out of their employment;

(8) (7) any licensed attorney-at-law of Minnesota, who is an officer or employee of a corporation, from drawing, for or without compensation, any document to which the corporation is a party or in which it is interested personally or in a representative capacity, except wills or testamentary dispositions or instruments of trust serving purposes similar to those of a will, but any charge made for the legal work connected with preparing and drawing the document shall not exceed the amount paid to and received and retained by the attorney, and the attorney shall not, directly or indirectly, rebate the fee to or divide the fee with the corporation;

(11) (10) any person or corporation engaged in the business of making collections from engaging or turning over to an attorney-at-law for the purpose of instituting and conducting suit or making proof of claim of a creditor in any case in which the attorney-at-law receives the entire compensation for the work;

(12) (11) any regularly established farm journal or newspaper, devoted to general news, from publishing a department of legal questions and answers to them, made by a licensed attorney-at-law, if no answer is accompanied or at any time preceded or followed by any charge for it, any disclosure of any name of the maker of any answer, any recommendation of or reference to any one to furnish legal advice or services, or by any legal advice or service for the periodical or any one connected with it or suggested by it, directly or indirectly;

Two of the members from each house must be from the minority party. The appointing authority from each house shall appoint one member to serve as a co-chair.

Subd. 2. [DUTIES.] The task force shall monitor the performance of metropolitan agencies in complying with sections 3 and 4. The task force shall recommend action necessary to assure that metropolitan agencies comply with principles of equal employment opportunity in establishing their work forces and to assure that these agencies maintain work environments free of forbidden discrimination. The task force has powers granted to legislative committees under section 3.153, to the extent necessary to perform its duties.

Subd. 3. [SPECIAL INVESTIGATIONS.] (a) A special investigation of a metropolitan agency within the jurisdiction of the task force may be initiated only by direction of the legislature or upon a finding by vote of a majority of all members of the task force that a special investigation of an agency is necessary to assure compliance with the principles of equal employment opportunity and nondiscriminatory employment. Upon initiation of a special investigation, the task force shall exercise the authority provided in this subdivision and assure agency compliance with the requirements of this subdivision. The task force may terminate the special investigation upon a determination that the investigation has achieved its objective and is no longer necessary. Paragraphs (b), (c), (d), and (e) apply only if a special investigation is initiated according to this paragraph.

(b) The task force shall receive complaints concerning equal employment opportunity policies and alleged instances of forbidden discrimination relating to the agency. The task force shall investigate complaints to the extent necessary to determine if the agency's internal policies and procedures are adequate to assure that complaints are dealt with fairly and that the circumstances underlying complaints are corrected. The task force does not have authority to decide the merits of individual cases. The task force may designate a person to be present at agency facilities to the extent necessary to fulfill duties assigned by this subdivision. The agency shall cooperate with the task force by providing access to requested documents that are public data under chapter 13 and by providing space and support at agency facilities upon request.

(c) The agency must report monthly to the task force summarizing personnel actions that it has taken since the last report. For purposes of this subdivision, "personnel action" means a new hire, promotion, transfer, demotion, layoff, recall from layoff, suspension with or without pay, letter of reprimand, involuntary termination, other disciplinary action, and voluntary termination. Each report must include the job title of the affected person and must specify what protected group, if any, the person is a member of. Each report must also include the percentage of members of each protected group, as defined in section 43A.02, subdivision 33, in the applicant pool for each new hire or promotion, to the extent that the agency knows this information. The agency must also report monthly to the task force summarizing the number of:

(1) charges filed against the agency with the state or a local human rights department or commission alleging employment discrimination;

(2) lawsuits filed in federal or state court against the agency, alleging employment discrimination;

(3) grievances filed under a nondiscrimination clause of a union contract;

(4) complaints filed under the agency's affirmative action plan or sexual or racial harassment policies; or

(5) discrimination complaints filed under other agency personnel policies.

The reports required by clauses (1) to (5) must include the basis for each complaint, grievance or lawsuit, and any disciplinary action taken against an agency employee in relation to the complaint or lawsuit. In filing reports on complaints and lawsuits, the agency shall not disclose the name of the employee filing the complaint or lawsuit, and shall not reveal information that is not public data under chapter 13.

(d) The agency shall report to the task force on the composition of the work force under the direction of each person that the agency designates as a managerial or supervisory employee. The report must be in the form and submitted at the time intervals requested by the task force and must show the percentage of the relevant work force that is composed of members of each protected group.

(e) Upon request of the task force, the agency shall report other information related to achievement of affirmative action goals or to elimination of discrimination from the workplace.

Subd. 4. [WASTE CONTROL COMMISSION.] The task force shall initiate a special investigation of the metropolitan waste control commission under subdivision 3.

Subd. 5. [REPORTS.] The task force shall report to the legislature by January 15, 1989. The report must include:

(1) an evaluation of the performance of each metropolitan agency in complying with sections 3 and 4;

(2) recommendations for further legislation related to personnel and procurement functions of metropolitan agencies; and

(3) a recommendation on what form of continued legislative oversight of these personnel and procurement functions is appropriate and on when, or under what conditions, the task force should be eliminated.

Sec. 2. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 473.141, subdivision 9, is amended to read:

Subd. 9. [PERSONNEL CODE; MERIT SYSTEM.] (a) The council shall by resolution adopt guidelines for a personnel code relating to the employees of the commissions, except that nothing in Laws 1974, Chapter 422 shall impair the rights of any commission or employee under sections 473.405 and 473.415. After adoption of the guidelines, each commission shall by resolution adopt a personnel code in general conformance therewith. The code shall include a job classification plan, procedures for employment and promotion of personnel based on merit, procedures for the demotion, suspension or discharge of employees, procedures for hearing grievances, procedures for salary administration, and such other provisions as the council deems appropriate. In addition, the code shall provide for the development by each commission of affirmative action plans, which shall be submitted for approval to the appropriate agency or office of the state. The plans shall include a yearly progress report to the agency or office as provided in section 4. The chief administrator of each commission shall administer the code, and no commission shall take any action inconsistent with the personnel code.

(b) All employees of the commission except those expressly designated for the unclassified service, shall serve in the classified service. The unclassified service shall include: members of the commission, the chief administrator of the commission, all officers of the commission, any employee of the commission who is determined by the commission to have a confidential relationship to the commission or the council; and any employee of the commission expressly exempted from the classified service by law. Each code shall also include procedures for open competitive examinations to test the relative skill or ability of all applicants for positions in the classified service. Such examinations may consist of written or oral tests of the subjective or objective type, physical tests, and practical or demonstration tests for the evaluation of past training and experience. Oral tests may be used to test the applicant's knowledge of the position applied for or personal fitness for the position. Where there is more than one applicant for a position, each code shall provide for the employment of one of the three applicants best qualified for it.

(c) When a commission employee has been demoted, suspended or dismissed by the chief administrator, the employee may, within 30 days after such action becomes effective, file with the commission a written request for a hearing showing the position from which the employee was dismissed, the date of dismissal, and the reason for requesting the hearing, full name and present mailing address. Upon receipt of a request for a hearing the commission shall appoint three of its members to act as an appeal committee and preside at a hearing on the action of the administrator. The hearing shall be held within 30 days after the request is received by the commission, upon written notice mailed or delivered to the employee at the employee's present mailing address, not less than seven days before the hearing. The appeal committee shall approve or disapprove the action of the administrator, and in the case of approval the action of the administrator shall be final. In the case of disapproval the appeal committee may reinstate the employee under such conditions as it deems proper, and may order the payment to the employee of compensation lost as a result of the demotion, suspension or dismissal.

Sec. 3. [473.142] [SOCIALY AND ECONOMICALLY DISADVANTAGED BUSINESSES.]

(a) The metropolitan council and agencies specified in section 4, subdivision 1, shall attempt to award at least nine percent of the value of all procurement, other than contracts under clause (c), to businesses owned and operated by socially or economically disadvantaged persons. For purposes of this section, "socially or economically disadvantaged person" means a person who has been deprived of the opportunity to develop and maintain a competitive position in the economy because of social or economic conditions. This disadvantage may rise from cultural, social or economic circumstances, background, or other similar cause. It includes racial minorities, women, persons with a disability as defined in section 363.01, subdivision 25, sheltered workshops, and work activity programs. To the extent practicable, the council and agencies shall attempt to meet this goal through procurement from businesses with their principal place of business in Minnesota. In furtherance of this goal, the council or an agency shall set aside a percentage of all procurements for bidding only by these businesses. The council or an agency may also award a five percent preference to these businesses in the amount bid on selected procurements.

(b) The council and each agency specified in section 4, subdivision 1, as a condition of awarding procurements for construction, consultant, professional, or technical service contracts in excess of $200,000, shall require that at least ten percent of the contract award to a prime contractor be subcontracted to a small business owned and operated by a socially or economically disadvantaged person, or that at least ten percent of the contract award be expended in purchasing materials or supplies from this type of business. This paragraph does not apply if the council or agency determines that there is no small business owned and operated by a socially or economically disadvantaged person able to perform the subcontract or provide the supplies. Subcontracting or purchasing of supplies under this subdivision is not included in determining achievement of goals under paragraph (a) or (c).

(c) The council and each agency specified in section 4, subdivision 1, shall attempt to award at least six percent of the value of all procurements for consultant services or professional or technical services to businesses owned and operated by socially or economically disadvantaged persons.

(d) The council and each agency may adopt rules to implement this section.

(e) This section does not apply to procurement financed in whole or in part with federal funds if the procurement is subject to federal disadvantaged business enterprise regulations. The council and each agency must report annually to the legislature on compliance with this subdivision. The reports must include the information specified in section 16B.21.

Sec. 4. [473.143] [AFFIRMATIVE ACTION PLANS.]

Subdivision 1. [APPLICATION.] For purposes of this section, "agency" means a metropolitan agency as defined in section 473.121, except the metropolitan parks and open space commission. Agency also means the metropolitan mosquito control commission. For purposes of this section, "commissioner" means the commissioner of the state department of employee relations.

Subd. 2. [DEVELOPMENT AND CONTENTS.] The council and each agency must develop an affirmative action plan and submit its plan to the commissioner for approval. The commissioner may not approve a plan unless the commissioner determines that it will be effective in assuring that employment positions are equally accessible to all qualified persons, in eliminating the underutilization of qualified members of protected groups, in providing a supportive work environment to all employees, regardless of race, religion, sex, national origin, or disability, and in dealing with discrimination complaints. For purposes of this section, "protected group" has the meaning given it in section 43A.02, subdivision 33. A plan must contain at least the elements required in this subdivision.

(a) It must identify protected groups that are underrepresented in the council's or agency's work force.

(b) It must designate a person responsible for directing and implementing the affirmative action program and assign the specific responsibilities and duties of that person. The person responsible for implementing the program must report directly to the council's or agency's chief executive officer regarding the person's affirmative action duties. The person responsible for the affirmative action program must review examination and other selection criteria to assure compliance with law. This person must be involved in the filling of all vacancies in the council or agency work force, to the extent necessary to facilitate attainment of affirmative action goals.

(c) It must describe the methods by which the plan will be communicated to employees and to other persons.

(d) It must describe methods for recruiting members of protected groups. These methods may include internship programs, cooperation with union apprenticeship programs, and other steps necessary to expand the number of protected group members in applicant pools.

(d) It must describe internal procedures in accordance with this paragraph for processing complaints of alleged discrimination from job applicants and employees. The procedures must provide for an initial determination of whether the complaint is properly a discrimination complaint subject to the procedure under the affirmative action plan. Complaints filed under the discrimination procedures that allege reprisals against an employee for opposing a forbidden practice or for filing a charge, testifying, or participating in an investigation, proceeding, or hearing relating to a forbidden practice must be appealable to the chief executive officer of the council or agency. Procedures under this paragraph must be distinct from any procedures available under a union contract or personnel policy for nondiscrimination complaints. Use of procedures developed under this paragraph is not a prerequisite to filing charges with a governmental enforcement agency, nor does it limit a person's right to file these charges.

(e) It must set goals and timetables to eliminate underutilization of members of each protected group in the council or agency work force.

(f) It must provide a plan for retaining and promoting protected group members in the council or agency work force. This plan should encourage training opportunities for protected group members, to the extent necessary to eliminate underutilization in specific parts of the work force.

(g) It must describe methods of auditing, evaluating, and reporting program success, including a procedure that requires a pre-employment review of all hiring decisions for occupational groups with unmet affirmative action goals.

(h) It must provide for training of management and supervisory personnel in implementation of the plan and in dealing with alleged acts of discrimination in the workplace.

(i) It must provide for periodic surveying of the council or agency work force to determine employee attitudes toward implementation of the plan.

(j) It must provide for creation of an employee committee to advise on implementation of the plan and on any changes needed in the plan.

Subd. 3. [HARASSMENT.] The council and each agency must adopt written policies forbidding sexual and racial harassment in their workplaces and establishing implementation plans and grievance procedures to deal with complaints of sexual and racial harassment.

Subd. 4. [PERFORMANCE EVALUATION.] The evaluation of the performance of each supervisory and managerial employee of the council and the agencies must include evaluation of the person's performance in implementing the council's or agency's affirmative action plan and in preventing forbidden discrimination in the workplace.

Subd. 5. [REPORT.] By March 1 each year, the commissioner shall report to the legislature and to the task force created in section 1 on affirmative action progress of the council and of each agency. The report must include:

(1) an audit of the record of the council and each agency to determine compliance with affirmative action goals and to evaluate overall progress in attainment of overall affirmative actions objectives;

(2) if the council or any agency has failed to make satisfactory progress toward its affirmative action goals, a list of unmet goals and an analysis of why the failure occurred;

(3) a summary of all personnel actions, as defined in section 1, subdivision 3, taken by the council and each agency during the past calendar year, categorized by occupational group, protected group status, and full-time, part-time, temporary, and seasonal status; and

(4) a summary of discrimination complaints and lawsuits against the council and each agency filed or resolved during the past calendar year, including the basis for the complaints and lawsuits.

The council and each agency must report to the commissioner all information that the commissioner requests to make the report required by this subdivision.

The council and each agency must submit these reports at the time and in the manner requested by the commissioner. The commissioner shall report to the legislature and the task force created in section 1 on the failure of the council or an agency to file the required report in a timely manner.

Subd. 6. [COORDINATION.] The commissioner or a designee shall meet with affirmative action officers of the council and all of the agencies to share successful techniques and foster innovative means to implement affirmative action plans and eliminate discrimination in the workplace.

The failure of the commission to set aside particular procurements shall not be deemed to prohibit or discourage business entities controlled by socially or economically disadvantaged persons or handicapped persons from seeking the procurement award through the normal solicitation and bidding processes.

Sec. 6. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 473.406, subdivision 5, is amended to read:

Subd. 5. Sec. 7. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 473.406, subdivision 6, is amended to read:

The commissioner shall grant or deny the application within 30 days after a complete application is filed. The time limit may be extended for another 30 days upon 15 days' prior notice to the applicant. Any grant of authority to self-insure shall continue in effect until revoked by order of the commissioner or until such time as the employer becomes insured.

Subd. 2. [CERTIFIED FINANCIAL STATEMENT.] Each application for self-insurance shall be accompanied by a certified financial statement. Certified financial statements for a period ending more than six months prior to the date of the application must be accompanied by an affidavit, signed by a company officer under oath, stating that there has been no material lessening of the net worth nor other adverse changes in its financial condition since the end of the period.

Subd. 3. [NET WORTH.] Each individual self-insurer shall have and maintain a net worth at least equal to the greater of ten times the retention limit selected with the workers' compensation reinsurance association or one-third the amount of the self-insurer's current annual modified premium. The requirements of this subdivision shall be modified if the self-insurer can demonstrate through a reinsurance program, other than coverage provided by the WCRA, that it can pay expected losses without endangering the financial stability of the company.

Subd. 4. [ASSETS, NET WORTH, AND LIQUIDITY.] Each individual self-insurer shall have and maintain sufficient assets, net worth, and liquidity to promptly and completely meet all of its obligations that may arise under chapter 176 or this act. In determining whether a self-insurer meets this requirement, the commissioner shall consider the self-insurer's current ratio; its long-term and short-term debt to equity ratios; its net worth; financial characteristics of the particular industry in which the self-insurer is involved; any recent changes in the management and ownership of the company; any excess insurance purchased by the self-insurer from a licensed company or an authorized surplus line carrier, other than excess insurance from the workers' compensation reinsurance association; any other financial data submitted to the commissioner by the company; and the company's workers' compensation experience for the last four years.

If said guarantee is withdrawn or if the guarantor ceases being an affiliate, the affiliate shall give written notice to the commissioner and the self-insured. The self-insured's authority to self-insure shall automatically terminate upon expiration of the 30-day notice period.

Subd. 6. [APPLICATIONS FOR GROUP SELF-INSURANCE.] (a) Two or more employers may apply to the commissioner for the authority to self-insure as a group on forms available from the commissioner. Subd. 8. Approval shall be effective until revoked by order of the commissioner or until the employer members of the group become insured.

Subd. 9. [FILING REPORTS.] (a) Incurred losses, paid and unpaid, specifying indemnity and medical losses by classification, payroll by classification, and current estimated outstanding liability for workers' compensation shall be reported to the commissioner by each self-insurer on a calendar year basis, in a manner and on forms available from the commissioner. Payroll information must be filed by April 1 of the following year, and loss information and total workers' compensation liability must be filed by August 1 of the following year.

(b) Each self-insurer shall, under oath, attest to the accuracy of each report submitted pursuant to paragraph (a). Upon sufficient cause, the commissioner shall require the self-insurer to submit a certified audit of payroll and claim records conducted by an independent auditor approved by the commissioner, based on generally accepted accounting principles and generally accepted auditing standards, and supported by an actuarial review and opinion of the future contingent liabilities. The basis for sufficient cause shall include the following factors: where the losses reported appear significantly different from similar type businesses; where major changes in the reports exist from year to year, which are not solely attributable to economic factors; or where the commissioner has reason to believe that the losses and payroll in the report do not accurately reflect the losses and payroll of that employer. If any discrepancy is found, the commissioner shall require changes in the self-insurer's or workers' compensation service company record keeping practices.

(c) With the annual loss report due August 1, each self-insurer shall report to the commissioner any workers' compensation claim from the previous year where the full, undiscounted value is estimated to exceed $50,000, in a manner and on forms prescribed by the commissioner.

(d) Each individual self-insurer shall, within four months after the end of its fiscal year, annually file with the commissioner its latest 10K report required by the Securities and Exchange Commission. If an individual self-insurer does not prepare a 10K report, it shall file an annual certified financial statement, together with such other financial information as the commissioner may require to substantiate data in the financial statement.

(e) Each group self-insurer shall, within four months after the end of the fiscal year for that group, annually file a statement showing the combined net worth of its members based upon an accounting review performed by a certified public accountant, together with such other financial information the commissioner may require to substantiate data in the group's summary statement.

(f) In addition to the financial statements required by paragraphs (d) and (e), interim financial statements or 10Q reports required by the Securities and Exchange Commission may be required by the commissioner upon an indication that there has been deterioration in the self-insurer's financial condition, including a worsening of current ratio, lessening of net worth, net loss of income, the downgrading of the company's bond rating, or any other significant change that may adversely affect the self-insurer's ability to pay expected losses. Any self-insurer that files an 8K report with the Securities and Exchange Commission shall also file a copy of the report with the commissioner within 30 days of the filing with the Securities and Exchange Commission.

Subd. 10. [ANNUAL AUDIT.] The accounts and records of the group self-insurer's fund shall be audited annually. Audits shall be made by certified public accountants, based on generally accepted accounting principles and generally accepted auditing standards, and supported by actuarial review and opinion of the future contingent liabilities, in order to determine the solvency of the self-insurer's fund. All audits required by this part shall be filed with the commissioner 90 days after the close of the fiscal year for the group self-insurer. The commissioner may require a special audit to be made at other times if the financial stability of the fund or the adequacy of its monetary reserves is in question.

Subd. 11. [JOINT AND SEVERAL LIABILITY.] All members of a private self-insurer group shall be jointly and severally liable for the obligations incurred by any member of the same group under chapter 176.

Subd. 12. [COMMISSIONER REVIEW.] The commissioner shall annually review the documents and reports filed by the private self-insurer.

Sec. 5. [176C.03] [PRIVATE SELF-INSURING EMPLOYER; ANNUAL RENEWAL OR DEPOSIT OF NEW SECURITY FOR PAYMENT OF COMPENSATION.]

Subdivision 1. [ANNUAL SECURING OF LIABILITY.] Each year every private self-insuring employer shall secure incurred liabilities for the payment of compensation and the performance of the obligations of employers imposed under chapter 176 by renewing the prior year's security deposit or by making a new deposit of security. If a new deposit is made, it must be posted within 60 days of the filing of the self-insured employer's annual report with the commissioner, but in no event later than July 1.

Subd. 2. [MINIMUM DEPOSIT.] The minimum deposit is 110 percent of the private self-insurer's estimated future liability. Up to ten percent of that deposit may be used to secure payment of all administrative and legal costs relating to or arising from the employer's self-insuring. As used in this section, "private self-insurers' estimated future liability" means the private self-insurers' total of estimated future liability as determined by a member of the casualty actuarial society every two years for non-group member private self-insurers, and every year for group member private self-insurers. Estimated future liability is determined by first taking the total amount of the self-insured's future liability of workers' compensation claims and then deducting the total amount which is estimated to be returned to the self-insurer from any specific excess insurance coverage, aggregate excess insurance coverage, and any supplementary benefits or second injury benefits which are estimated to be reimbursed by the special compensation fund. Supplementary benefits or second injury benefits will not be reimbursed by the special compensation fund unless the special compensation fund assessment pursuant to section 176.129 is paid and the reports required thereunder are filed with the special compensation fund. In the case of surety bonds, bonds shall secure administrative and legal costs in addition to the liability for payment of compensation reflected on the face of the bond. In no event shall the security be less than the last retention limit selected by the self-insurer with the workers' compensation reinsurance association. The posting or depositing of security pursuant to this section shall release all previously posted or deposited securities from any obligations under the posting or depositing.

Subd. 3. [TYPE OF ACCEPTABLE SECURITY.] The commissioner may only accept as security, and the employer shall deposit as security, cash, approved government securities, surety bonds, or irrevocable letters of credit in any combination. Interest or dividend income or other income generated by the security shall be paid to the member or, at the member's direction, applied to the member's security requirement. The current deposit shall include within its coverage all amounts covered by terminated surety bonds. As used in this chapter, an irrevocable letter of credit shall be accepted only if it is clean, irrevocable, and contains an evergreen clause.

(a) "Clean" means a letter of credit that is not conditioned on the delivery of any other documents or materials.

(b) "Irrevocable" means a letter of credit that cannot be modified or revoked without the consent of the beneficiary, once the beneficiary is established.

(c) "Evergreen clause" means one which specifically states that expiration of a letter of credit will not take place without a 60-day notice by the insurer and one which allows the issuer to conduct an annual review of the account party's financial condition. If prior notice of expiration is not given by the issuer, the letter of credit is automatically extended for one year.

A clean irrevocable letter of credit shall be accepted only if it is in the form prescribed by statute and is issued by a financial institution that is authorized to engage in banking in any of the 50 states or under the laws of the United States and whose business is substantially confined to banking and supervised by the state commissioner of commerce or banking or similar official, and which has a long-term debt rating by a recognized national rating agency of investment grade or better. If no long-term debt rating is available, the financial institution must have the equivalent investment grade financial characteristics.

Subd. 4. [EXONERATION OF SECURITY.] Surety bonds, irrevocable letters of credit, and documents showing issuance of any irrevocable letter of credit shall be deposited with, and, except where specified by statute, in a form approved by the commissioner.

Subd. 5. [DEPOSIT WITH STATE TREASURER.] Securities shall be deposited on behalf of the commissioner by the self-insured employer with the state treasurer or a financial institution approved by the commissioner. Securities shall be accepted by the state treasurer for deposit and shall be withdrawn only upon written order of the commissioner.

Subd. 6. [CASH DEPOSITS.] Cash shall be deposited in a financial institution approved by the commissioner, and in the account assigned to the state treasurer. Cash shall be withdrawn only upon written order of the commissioner.

Subd. 7. [PERFECTION OF SECURITY.] Upon the commissioner sending a request to renew, request to post, or request to increase a security deposit, a perfected security interest is created in the private self-insured's assets in favor of the commissioner to the extent of any then unsecured portion of the self-insured's incurred liabilities. That perfected security interest is transferred to any cash or securities thereafter posted by the private self-insured with the state treasurer and is released only upon either of the following:

(1) the acceptance by the commissioner of a surety bond or irrevocable letter of credit for the full amount of the incurred liabilities for the payment of compensation; or

(2) the return of cash or securities by the commissioner.

The private self-insured employer loses all right, title, and interest in and any right to control all assets or obligations posted or left on deposit as security. In the event of a declaration of bankruptcy or insolvency by a court of competent jurisdiction, or in the event of the issuance of a certificate of default by the commissioner, the commissioner shall liquidate the deposit as provided in this chapter, and transfer it to the self-insurer's security fund for application to the self-insured employers incurred liability.

Subd. 8. [RETURN OF EXCESS AMOUNTS OF SECURITY TO PRIVATE SELF-INSURED EMPLOYER.] The commissioner shall return on an annual basis to a private self-insured employer all amounts of security determined by the commissioner to be in excess of the statutory requirements to self-insure, including that necessary for administrative costs and legal fees, and the payment of any future workers' compensation claims.

Subd. 9. [INSOLVENCY, BANKRUPTCY, OR DEFAULT; UTILIZATION OF SECURITY DEPOSIT.] The commissioner of labor and industry shall notify the commissioner and the security fund if the commissioner of labor and industry has knowledge that any private self-insurer has failed to pay workers' compensation benefits as required by chapter 176. If the commissioner determines that a court of competent jurisdiction has declared the private self-insurer to be bankrupt or insolvent, and the private self-insurer has failed to pay workers' compensation as required by chapter 176 or, if the commissioner issues a certificate of default against a private self-insurer for failure to pay workers' compensation as required by chapter 176, then the security deposit shall be utilized to administer and pay the private self-insurers' workers' compensation obligations.

Subd. 10. [NOTICE; OBLIGATION OF FUND.] In the event of bankruptcy, insolvency, or certificate of default, the commissioner shall immediately notify the state treasurer, the surety, the issuer of an irrevocable letter of credit, and any custodian of the security required in this chapter. At the time of notification, the commissioner shall also call the security and transfer and assign it to the self-insurer's security fund. The commissioner shall also immediately notify the self-insurers' security fund, and order the security fund to assume the insolvent self-insurers' obligations for which it is liable under chapter 176. The security fund shall commence payment of these obligations within 14 days of this notification and order. Payments shall be made to claimants whose entitlement to benefits can be ascertained by the security fund, with or without proceedings before the department of labor and industry, the office of administrative hearings, the workers' compensation court of appeals, or the Minnesota supreme court. Upon the assumption of obligations by the security fund pursuant to the commissioner's notification and order, the security fund has the right to immediate possession of any posted or deposited security and the custodian, surety, or issuer of any irrevocable letter of credit or the commissioner, if in possession of it, shall turn over the security, proceeds of the surety bond, or letter of credit to the security fund together with the interest that has accrued since the date of the self-insured employer's insolvency. The self-insurers' security fund may administer payment of benefits, or it may retain a third-party administrator to do so.

Subd. 11. [PRIORITY.] Notwithstanding anything in this chapter to the contrary, any cash, securities, irrevocable letter of credit, specific excess or aggregate excess insurance proceeds, or any other security deposited or posted in accordance with this section shall be used first, when due, to pay workers' compensation claims. After that security has been exhausted, the payment of workers' compensation claims from self-insurers' security fund members' assessments may be made. Where the self-insurers' security fund member assessment account is used to pay workers' compensation claims on an emergency or an interim basis, pending receipt by the self-insurers' security fund of security which is due but not yet received, then the member assessment account shall be reimbursed for payment from the security when it is received, and the priorities stated above shall thereafter apply.

Subd. 12. [DUTY TO INFORM.] The commissioner shall be provided with any relevant information by the employer, any excess insurer, any third party administrator, or any issuer of any irrevocable letter of credit, issuer of any surety bond, or custodian of any security necessary for the commissioner to carry out the commissioner's obligations under this chapter. The commissioner shall provide this information to the self-insurers' security fund if necessary for the security fund to carry out its obligations under this chapter.

Subd. 13. [DISCHARGE AND RELEASE.] The payment of benefits by the self-insurers' security fund from security deposit proceeds shall release and discharge any custodian of the security deposit, surety, any issuer of a letter of credit, and the self-insured employer from liability to fulfill obligations to provide those same benefits as compensation, but does not release any person or entity from any liability to the security fund for full reimbursement. Any decision or determination made or any settlement approved by the commissioner or by an administrative law judge under subdivision 15 shall conclusively be presumed valid and binding as to all known claims arising out of the underlying dispute, unless an appeal is made pursuant to chapter 14. No security shall be exchanged more often than once every 90 days.

Subd. 14. [NOTICE TO SECURITY FUND.] The commissioner shall advise the self-insurers' security fund promptly after the receipt of information indicating that a private self-insurer may be unable to meet its compensation obligations. The commissioner shall advise the self-insurers' security fund of all determinations and directives and orders made or issued pursuant to this section.

Subd. 15. [DISPUTE RESOLUTION; APPEALS.] Disputes concerning the posting, renewal, termination, exoneration, or return of all or any portion of the security deposit, or any liability arising out of the posting or failure to post security, or adequacy of the security or reasonableness of administrative costs, including legal fees, and arising between or among a surety, the issuer of an agreement of assumption and guarantee of workers' compensation liabilities, the issuer of a letter of credit, any custodian of the security deposit, a private self-insurer, or the self-insurers' security fund shall be resolved by the commissioner. An appeal from the commissioner's written decision, determination, or order may be instituted pursuant to the contested case procedures of chapter 14. Payment of claims from the security deposit or by the self-insurers' security fund shall not be stayed pending the resolution of the disputes unless and until the administrative law judge issues a determination staying a payment of claims decision or determination of the commissioner or the self-insurers' security fund.

Subd. 16. [CERTIFICATE TO SELF-INSURE; REVOCATION.] If, following a private self-insurer's bankruptcy, insolvency, or certificate of default, the commissioner calls its security and proceeds in accordance with this section, the commissioner shall revoke the certificate to self-insure of the private self-insurer as soon as practicable but no later than 30 days after its security has been called.

Sec. 6. [176C.04] [REVOCATION OF CERTIFICATE TO SELF-INSURE.]

A certificate to self-insure may be revoked by the commissioner at any time for good cause. After revocation, the self-insurer may request a hearing. Good cause includes, among other things, failure to maintain a security deposit as required by this chapter, failure to pay assessments of the self-insurers' security fund, or the failure or inability of the employer to fulfill obligations under chapter 176 or this chapter. Good cause also includes failure to provide proof of renewal of the security 15 days before its expiration.

A self-insured employer must comply with section 176.181 and all applicable rules to operate during the pendency of its appeal of a decision under this section.

Sec. 7. [176C.05] [THIRD-PARTY ADMINISTRATOR.]

Subdivision 1. [CERTIFICATE TO SELF-INSURE.] No person, firm, or corporation, other than an insurer admitted to transact workers' compensation insurance in this state, shall contract to administer claims of self-insured employers as a third-party administrator unless qualified to do so pursuant to section 60A.23, subdivision 8.

Subd. 2. [LOCAL OFFICE.] A third-party administrator who contracts to administer claims of a self-insured employer shall maintain an office in the state of Minnesota and shall be subject to regulation under this chapter and chapters 60A and 72A with respect to the adjustment, administration, and management of workers' compensation claims for any self-insured employer.

Subd. 3. [ANNUAL ESTIMATE OF LIABILITY.] A third-party administrator retained by a self-insured employer to administer the employer's workers' compensation claims shall estimate the total accrued liability of the employer for the payment of compensation for the employer's annual report to the commissioner and shall make the estimate both in good faith and with the exercise of a reasonable degree of care. The use of a third-party administrator does not discharge or alter the employer's responsibilities with respect to the report.

Subd. 4. [FAILURE TO SUBMIT REPORTS OR INFORMATION; PENALTY.] Failure to submit reports to the commissioner as required by this chapter may result in the assessment of a penalty which shall not exceed $3,000 for each month or fraction thereof the report is past due. Failure to submit reports required by statute within 60 days from the due date without written consent of the commissioner shall result in the revocation of certificate to self-insure. Penalties shall be deposited in the self-insurers security fund.

Subd. 5. [PRIVATE EMPLOYERS WHO HAVE CEASED TO BE SELF-INSURED.] Private employers who have ceased to be private self-insurers shall discharge their continuing obligations to secure the payment of compensation which is accrued during the period of self-insurance, for purposes of sections 3 to 19 by compliance with all of the following obligations of current certificate holders:

(1) Filing reports with the commissioner to carry out the requirements of this chapter;

(2) Depositing and maintaining security deposit for accrued liability for the payment of any compensation which may become due, pursuant to chapter 176. However, if a private employer who has ceased to be a private self-insurer purchases an insurance policy from an insurer authorized to transact workers' compensation insurance in this state which provides coverage of all claims for compensation arising out of injuries occurring during the period the employer was self-insured, whether or not reported during that period, the policy will discharge the obligation of the employer to maintain a security deposit for the payment of the claims covered under the policy. The policy may not be issued by an insurer unless it has previously been approved as to form and substance by the commissioner; and

(3) Paying within 30 days all assessments of which notice is sent by the security fund, for a period of seven years from the last day its certificate of self-insurance was in effect. Thereafter, the private employer who has ceased to be a private self-insurer may either: (a) continue to pay within 30 days all assessments of which notice is sent by the security fund until it has no incurred liabilities for the payment of compensation arising out of injuries during the period of self-insurance; or (b) pay the security fund a cash payment equal to four percent of the net present value of all remaining incurred liabilities for the payment of compensation under sections 176.101 and 176.111 as certified by a member of the casualty actuarial society. Assessments shall be based on the benefits paid by the employer during the last full calendar year of self-insurance on claims incurred during that year.

In addition to proceedings to establish liabilities and penalties otherwise provided, a failure to comply may be the subject of a proceeding before the commissioner. An appeal from the commissioner's determination may be taken pursuant to the contested case procedures of chapter 14, within 30 days of the commissioner's written determination.

Any current or past member of the self-insurer's security fund is subject to service of process on any claim arising out of chapter 176 or this chapter in the manner provided by section 303.13, subdivision 1, clause (3), or as otherwise provided by law. The issuance of a certificate to self-insure to the private self-insured employer shall be deemed to be the agreement that any process which is served in accordance with this section shall be of the same legal force and effect as if served personally within this state.

Sec. 8. [176C.06] [PREFERRED SUBROGATION RIGHTS OF SELF-INSURERS' SECURITY FUND OR SURETY.]

The self-insurers' security fund by making payment of compensation under this chapter has the same preference over the other debts of the principal or the principal's estate as is given by law to the person directly entitled to the compensation.

Sec. 9. [176C.07] [LEGISLATIVE INTENT.]

It is the intent of the legislature in enacting sections 9 to 11 to provide for the continuation of workers' compensation benefits delayed due to the failure of a private self-insured employer to meet its compensation obligations whenever the commissioner of commerce issues a certificate of default or there is a declaration of bankruptcy or insolvency by a court of competent jurisdiction. With respect to the continued liability of a surety for claims that arose under a bond after termination of that bond and to a surety's liability for the cost of administration of claims, it is the intent of the legislature to provide that that liability ceases upon lawful termination of that bond. This applies to all surety bonds which are purchased by the self-insured employer after the effective date of this section. The legislature finds and declares that the establishment of the self-insurers' security fund is a necessary component of a complete system of workers' compensation, required by chapter 176, to have adequate provisions for the comfort, health, safety, and general welfare of any and all workers and their dependents to the extent of relieving the consequences of any industrial injury or death, and full provision for securing the payment of compensation.

Sec. 10. [176C.08] [SECURITY FUND.]

Subdivision 1. [CREATION.] The self-insurers' security fund is established as a nonprofit corporation pursuant to the Minnesota nonprofit corporation act, sections 317.01 to 317.69. If any provision of the Minnesota nonprofit corporation act conflicts with any provision of this chapter, the provisions of this chapter apply. Each private self-insurer who is self-insured on the effective date of this act, or who becomes self-insured thereafter, shall participate as a member in the security fund. This participation shall be a condition of maintaining its certificate to self-insure.

Subd. 2. [BOARD OF TRUSTEES.] The security fund shall be governed by a nine-member board of trustees. Five of the trustees shall be representatives of private self-insurers who shall be elected by the members of the security fund, other than group self-insurers, each member having one vote. One of the trustees shall be a representative of the private group self-insurers who shall be elected by the members of the security fund who are group self-insurers, each group having one vote. Three of the trustees, including the group self-insurer trustee, initially elected by the members shall serve two-year terms, and three shall serve four-year terms. Thereafter, trustees shall be elected to four-year terms, and shall serve until their successors are elected and assume office pursuant to the bylaws of the security fund. Three additional trustees shall be appointed by the commissioner. Two of these trustees shall serve four-year terms. One of those trustees shall serve a two-year term. Thereafter, the trustees shall be appointed to four-year terms, and shall serve until their successors are appointed and assume office pursuant to the bylaws of the security fund. In addition to the nine trustees elected by the members or appointed by the commissioner, the commissioner of labor and industry or the commissioner's designee shall be an ex officio, nonvoting member of the board of trustees. A member of the board of trustees may designate another person to act in the member's place as though the member were acting and the designee's actions shall be deemed those of the member.

Subd. 3. [BYLAWS.] The security fund shall establish bylaws and a plan of operation, subject to the prior approval of the commissioner necessary to the purposes of this chapter and to carry out the responsibilities of the security fund. The security fund may carry out its responsibilities directly or by contract, and may purchase services and insurance and borrow funds as it deems necessary for the protection of the members and their employees.

Subd. 4. [CONFIDENTIAL INFORMATION.] The security fund may receive private data concerning the financial condition of private self-insurers whose liabilities to pay compensation have become its responsibility and shall adopt bylaws to prevent dissemination of that information.

Subd. 5. [EMPLOYEES.] Security fund employees are not state employees and are not subject to any state civil service regulations.

Sec. 11. [176C.09] [ASSUMPTION OF WORKERS' COMPENSATION OBLIGATIONS OF INSOLVENT SELF-INSURER.]

Subdivision 1. [ORDER OF COMMISSIONER.] Upon order of the commissioner pursuant to section 5, subdivision 10, the security fund shall assume the workers' compensation obligations of an insolvent private self-insurer.

Subd. 2. [ACT OR OMISSIONS; PENALTIES.] Notwithstanding subdivision 1, the security fund shall not be liable for the payment of any penalties assessed for any act or omission on the part of any person other than the security fund or its appointed administrator, including, but not limited to, the penalties provided in chapter 176 unless the security fund or its appointed administrator would be subject to penalties under chapter 176 as the result of the actions of the security fund or its administrator.

Subd. 3. [PARTY IN INTEREST.] The security fund shall be a party in interest in all proceedings involving compensation claims against an insolvent self-insurer whose compensation obligations have been paid or assumed by the security fund. The security fund shall have the same rights and defenses as the insolvent private self-insurer, including, but not limited to, all of the following:

- (1) to appear, defend, and appeal claims;
- (2) to receive notice of, investigate, adjust, compromise, settle, and pay claims; and
- (3) to investigate, handle, and deny claims.

Subd. 4. [PAYMENTS TO SECURITY FUND.] Notwithstanding anything in this chapter or chapter 176 to the contrary, in the event that the self-insurers' security fund assumes the obligations of any bankrupt or insolvent private self-insurer pursuant to this section, then the proceeds of any surety bond, workers' compensation reinsurance association, specific excess insurance or aggregate excess insurance policy, and any special compensation fund payment or second injury fund or supplementary benefit reimbursements shall be paid to the self-insurers' security fund instead of the bankrupt or insolvent private self-insurer or its successor in interest. No special compensation fund reimbursements shall be made to the security fund unless the special compensation fund assessments pursuant to section 176.129 are paid and the reports required thereunder are made to the special compensation fund.

Sec. 12. [176C.10] [REIMBURSEMENT FOR OBLIGATIONS PAID AND ASSUMED.]

Subdivision 1. [INSOLVENT INSURER.] The security fund shall have the right and obligation to obtain reimbursement from an insolvent private self-insurer up to the amount of the private self-insurers' workers' compensation obligations paid and assumed by the security fund, including reasonable administrative and legal costs. This right includes, but is not limited to, a right to claim for wages and other necessities of life advanced to claimants as subrogee of the claimants in any action to collect against the private self-insurer as debtor.

Subd. 2. [SECURITY DEPOSITS.] The security fund shall have the right and obligation to obtain from the security deposit of an insolvent private self-insurer the amount of the private self-insurer's compensation obligations, including reasonable administrative and legal costs, paid or assumed by the security fund. Reimbursement of administrative costs, including legal costs, shall be subject to approval by a majority of the security fund's voting trustees. The security fund shall be a party in interest in any action to obtain the security deposit for the payment of compensation obligations of an insolvent self-insurer.

Subd. 3. [LEGAL ACTIONS.] The security fund shall have the right to bring an action against any person or entity to recover compensation paid and liability assumed by the security fund, including, but not limited to, any excess insurance carrier of the insolvent private self-insurer, and any person or entity whose negligence or breach of any obligation contributed to any underestimation of the private self-insurer's total accrued liability as reported to the commissioner.

Subd. 4. [PARTY IN INTEREST.] The security fund may be a party in interest in any action brought by any other person seeking damages resulting from the failure of an insolvent private self-insurer to pay workers' compensation required pursuant to this subdivision.

Sec. 13. [176C.11] [MAINTENANCE OF ASSETS OR LINE OF CREDIT TO CONTINUE PAYMENT OF COMPENSATION OBLIGATIONS.]

Subdivision 1. [ASSETS MAINTAINED.] The security fund shall maintain cash, readily marketable securities, or other assets, or a line of credit, approved by the commissioner, sufficient to immediately continue the payment of the compensation obligations of an insolvent private self-insurer pending receipt of the security deposit, surety bond proceeds, irrevocable letter of credit, or, if necessary, assessment of the members. The commissioner may establish the minimum amount to be maintained by, or immediately available to, the security fund for this purpose.

Subd. 2. [ASSESSMENT.] The security fund may assess each of its members a pro rata share of the funding necessary to carry out its obligation and the purposes of this chapter. Total annual assessments in any calendar year shall not exceed four percent of the workers' compensation benefits paid under sections 176.101 and 176.111 during the previous calendar year. The annual assessment calculation shall not include workers' compensation benefits paid which will be reimbursed by the special compensation fund. Funds obtained by assessments pursuant to this subdivision may only be used for the purposes of this chapter. The trustees shall certify to the commissioner the collection and receipt of all money from assessments, noting any delinquencies. The trustees shall take any action deemed appropriate to collect any delinquent assessments.

Sec. 14. [176C.12] [AUDIT; ANNUAL REPORT.]

The trustees shall annually contract for an independent certified audit of the financial activities of the fund. An annual report on the financial status of the fund as of June 30 shall be submitted to the commissioner and to each member.

The security fund shall be established on July 1, 1988, or 90 days after the effective date of this act, whichever occurs later. All applications for new and renewal private self-insurers which are made after the effective date of this act prior to the establishment of the security fund shall comply with all requirements of this chapter. Applications for new and renewal private self-insurers which are made after January 1, 1988, but prior to the effective date of this act shall, prior to the establishment of the security fund, comply with the requirements of this chapter. The security fund shall be liable for payment of benefits only for members where there has been a declaration of bankruptcy or insolvency by a court of competent jurisdiction after the date on which the security fund is established, or the commissioner has issued a certificate of default which has occurred after the date on which the security fund is established.

to the terms, provisions, and limitations of said statute to its employees for injury or disability, and to the dependents of its employees, then this bond or obligation shall be null and void; otherwise to remain in full force and effect.

FURTHERMORE, it is understood and agreed that:

1. This bond may be amended, by agreement between the parties hereto and the commissioner of commerce as to the identity of the principal herein named and, by agreement of the parties hereto, as to the premium or rate or premium. Such amendment must be by endorsement upon, or rider to, this bond, executed by the surety and delivered to or filed with the commissioner.

2. The surety does, by these presents, undertake and agree that the obligation of this bond shall cover and extend to all past, present, existing, and potential liability of said principal, as a self-insurer, to the extent of the penal sum herein named without regard to specific injuries, date or dates or injuries, happenings or events.

3. The penal sum of this bond may be increased or decreased, by agreement between the parties hereto and the commissioner of commerce, without impairing the obligation incurred under this bond for the overall coverage of the said principal, for all past, present, existing, and potential liability, as a self-insurer, without regard to specific injuries, date or dates of injuries, happenings or events, to the extent, in the aggregate, of the penal sum as increased or decreased. Such amendment must be by endorsement.

4. This bond shall be continuous in form and shall remain in full force and effect unless terminated in the manner provided by law.

5. The aggregate liability of the surety hereunder on all claims whatsoever shall not exceed the penal sum of this bond in any event.

6. In the event of a change in the proprietorship of the principal or the appointment of a receiver or trustee for said principal and 30 days after the receipt of notice by the commissioner of commerce, state of Minnesota, given by registered or certified mail, by the principal or surety, herein named, the obligation of this bond shall terminate, save and except as to all past, present, existing, and potential liability of the principal incurred as a self-insurer. This bond shall also terminate upon the revocation of the certificate to self-insure, save and except as to all past, present, existing, and potential liability of the principal, incurred as a self-insurer; and the principal and the surety, herein named, shall be notified in writing by said commissioner, in the event of such revocation.

7. If the said principal shall suspend payment of workers' compensation benefits or shall become insolvent or a receiver shall be appointed for its business, the undersigned surety will become liable for the workers' compensation obligations of the principal on the date benefits are suspended and the surety shall begin payments within 30 days after receipt of written notification by the commissioner of commerce of Minnesota to begin payments under the terms of this bond.

8. When the surety exercises its obligation to pay claims, it shall pay benefits due to the principal's injured workers without a form award of a compensation judge, the commissioner of labor and industry, the workers' compensation court of appeals, or the Minnesota supreme court and such payment will be a credit against the penal sum of the bond. Administrative and legal costs incurred by the surety in discharging its obligations shall also be a charge against the penal sum of the bond, however, the total amount of this surety bond set aside for the payment of said administrative and legal expenses shall be limited to a maximum of ten percent of the total penal sum of the bond pursuant to Minnesota Statutes. Payment by the surety of the principal's obligation for administrative and legal expenses under said statute in an amount not to exceed ten percent of the penal sum of the bond shall satisfy in full the surety's obligation to pay said administrative and legal expenses of the principal.

9. If any part or provision of this bond shall be declared unenforceable or held to be invalid by a court of proper jurisdiction, such determination shall not affect the validity or enforceability of the other provisions or parts of this bond.

10. If the commissioner of commerce directs the self-insurers' security fund to assume the payment of the workers' compensation obligations of the principal pursuant to Minnesota Statutes, chapter 176, the surety shall pay upon written demand by the commissioner and within 30 days of receipt of such demand to the self-insurers' security fund the entire penal sum of the bond that remains unpaid.

11. Disputes concerning the posting, renewal, termination, exoneration, or return of all or any portion of the principal's security deposit or any liability arising out of the posting or failure to post security, or the adequacy of the security or the reasonableness of administrative costs, including legal costs, arising between or among a surety, the issuer of an agreement of assumption and guarantee of workers' compensation liabilities, the issuer of a letter of credit, any custodian of the security deposit, the principal, or the self-insurers' security fund shall be resolved by the commissioner of commerce pursuant to Minnesota Statutes, chapters 176 and 176C.

“Whereas, the family farm system has proven to be the means of food production best able to supply an ever expanding demand for food and at the same time to provide for the long-term, wide-based social, economic, and environmental concerns of our nation; and

Whereas, public policy, inflationary economy, and an unstable world situation combine to exert unbearable pressures on the family farm system; and

Whereas, providing incentives for unlimited production unfairly encourages large scale corporate farming operations at the expense of family farmers; and

Whereas, the benefits of a healthy family farm system are shared by all citizens; and

Whereas, corporate agriculture and agricultural conglomerates cannot be sensitive to the local needs of a richly diversified rural economy; Now, Therefore,

Be It Resolved by the Legislature of the State of Minnesota that Congress should enact legislation to establish price supports for dairy products at 80 percent of parity for up to 1,000,000 pounds of production per farm unit per year; that this level be adjusted semiannually; and that there be limits set on the importation of dairy products and substitutes including casein.

Be It Further Resolved that the $.50 per hundredweight reduction in the support price of milk that went into effect on January 1, 1988, be reversed immediately and that all resulting reductions in dairy farmer milk checks be restored by lump sum payments.

Be It Further Resolved that the $.50 reduction in the support prices of milk scheduled for January 1, 1989, be eliminated.

Be It Further Resolved that formulas used by the United States Department of Agriculture to establish different support prices in locations covered by various milk marketing orders be adjusted to reestablish fairness and equity for the Upper Midwest.

Be It Further Resolved that target price supports for other farm commodities not be abandoned but be statutorily established at a level not to fall below 75 percent of parity and be limited so that no single farming operation receive annual target price support payments totaling more than $20,000.

Be It Further Resolved that the Farmer-Owned Reserve program be continued in its present form with the basic commodity loan rate set at the cost of production, and that these loans be limited to $150,000 per farm unit per year, the reserve level set at 110 percent of the loan rate, the release level set at 120 percent of the loan rate, and the call level at 140 percent of the loan rate except in cases where the exportation of a commodity has been restricted by United States governmental, labor, or management activities that infringe upon the movement of agricultural commodities in which case the loan rate for the commodity would be set at 100 percent of parity.

Be It Further Resolved that the President of the United States immediately direct the Commissioner of Agriculture to maximize on-farm storage of Farmer-Owned Reserve grain stocks.

Be It Further Resolved that the implementation and administration of all federal farm programs be primarily the responsibility of the state and local Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Service offices, and that these offices be given the flexibility necessary to serve their districts adequately.

Be It Further Resolved that the Secretary of State of the State of Minnesota is instructed to transmit copies of this memorial to the President of the United States, the President and Secretary of the Senate of the United States, the Speaker and Chief Clerk of the House of Representatives of the United States, to the Minnesota Senators and Representatives in Congress, and to the members of the Agriculture Committees of the United States Senate and House of Representatives."

(a) "Owner" has the meaning given it in section 566.18, subdivision 3.

(b) "Tenant" has the meaning given it in section 566.18, subdivision 2.

Subd. 2. [PROCEDURE.] If the owner is required to supply heat, running water, hot water, electricity, or gas, and if the owner fails to supply the essential service by nonpayment of the amount billed for the essential service, and the loss of the essential service is not caused by conditions beyond the owner's control, a tenant or group of tenants of the building may pay the total outstanding bill or portion of the bill under this subdivision. Before paying the bill, the tenant or tenants shall make a reasonable attempt to give oral or written notice to the owner of the tenant's intention to pay the bill after 48 hours, or some shorter period that is reasonable under the circumstances, if the owner has not already by then paid the bill. If oral notice is given, written notice must be mailed or delivered to the owner within 24 hours after oral notice is given. If the owner has not yet paid the bill by the time of the tenant's intended payment, or if the utility service remains discontinued, the tenant or tenants may pay the outstanding bill and after submitting receipts for that payment to the owner a tenant may deduct the amount of the tenant's payment from the rental payment next paid to the owner. Any amount paid to the utility company or municipality by a tenant under this subdivision is considered payment of rent to the owner for purposes of section 504.02.

Subd. 3. [LIMITATIONS; WAIVER PROHIBITED; RIGHTS AS ADDITIONAL.] The rights afforded to the tenant under this section:

(1) do not extend to conditions caused by the willful, malicious, or negligent conduct of the tenant or of a person under the tenant's direction or control;

(2) may not be waived or modified; and

(3) are in addition to and do not limit other rights available to the tenant, including the right to damages or to abatement of the rental obligation based upon the owner's failure to supply essential services under subdivision 2 and the right to restoration of possession of the premises under section 504.02."

"Sec. 2. Minnesota Statutes 1987 Supplement, section 349.15, is amended to read:

349.15 [USE OF PROFITS.]

(a) Profits from lawful gambling may be expended only for lawful purposes or expenses as authorized at a regular meeting of the conducting organization.

(b) Provided that No more than 55 percent of profits from bingo, and no more than 45 percent for other forms of lawful gambling, may be expended for necessary expenses related to lawful gambling. In determining compliance with this requirement an organization may exclude gross receipts, expenses, and net profit from any licensed premises at which profits from all lawful gambling conducted by the organization do not exceed $50,000 in any 12-month period. This exclusion does not relieve an organization of any requirement the board imposes for reporting gambling activity and expense computation at any licensed premises.

(c) The board shall provide by rule for the administration of this section, including specifying allowable expenses. The rules must specify that no more than one-third of the annual premium on a policy of liability insurance procured by the organization may be taken as an allowable expense from the gross receipts from lawful gambling. This expense shall be allowed by the board only to the extent that it relates directly to the conduct of lawful gambling and is verified in the manner the board prescribes by rule. The rules may provide a maximum percentage of gross receipts which may be expended for certain expenses.

Sec. 3. [349.164] [BINGO HALL LICENSES.]

Subdivision 1. [LICENSE REQUIRED.] No person may lease a facility to more than one licensed organization to conduct bingo without having obtained a bingo hall license under this section, unless the person is a licensed organization.

Subd. 2. [LICENSE APPLICATION.] The board may issue a bingo hall license to persons who meet the qualifications of this section if the board determines that a license is consistent with the purpose of sections 349.11 to 349.22. Applications must be on a form the board prescribes.

Subd. 3. [QUALIFICATIONS.] A license may not be issued under this section to a person, or to a corporation, firm, or partnership which has as an officer, director, or other person in a supervisory or management position, who:

(1) has been convicted of a felony in a state or federal court within the past five years or who has a felony charge pending; or

(2) has been convicted in a state or federal court of a gambling-related offense within ten years of the date of license application.

Subd. 4. [FEES.] The annual fee for a bingo hall license is $250.

Subd. 5. [CRIMINAL HISTORY.] The board may request the assistance of the bureau of criminal apprehension in investigating the background of an applicant for a bingo hall license and may reimburse the bureau for the costs. The board has access to all criminal history data compiled by the bureau on licensees and applicants.

Subd. 6. [PROHIBITION.] No bingo hall licensee may also be a licensed distributor or registered manufacturer or affiliate of the distributor or manufacturer under section 349.161 or 349.163.

Subd. 7. [RESTRICTIONS.] A bingo hall licensee or affiliate of the licensee may not:

(1) provide any staff to conduct bingo or any other form of lawful gambling during the bingo occasion;

(2) acquire, provide storage or inventory control, or report the use of any gambling equipment used by an organization that conducts bingo on the premises;

(3) provide accounting services to an organization conducting bingo on the premises;

(4) make any expenditures of gross receipts of an organization from lawful gambling; or

(5) charge any admission fee for entering the premises where the bingo occasion will be held.

Subd. 8. [LEASES.] All of the remuneration to be received from the organization for the conduct of lawful gambling must be stated in the lease. No amount may be paid by the organization or received by the operator of the bingo hall based on the number of participants attending the bingo occasion or on the gross receipts or profit received by the organization.

Subd. 9. [REVOCATION AND SUSPENSION.] A license under this section may be suspended by the board for a violation of law or board rule or for failure to meet the qualifications in subdivision 3 at any time or revoked for what the board determines to be a pattern of willful violations of law or board rule. A revocation or suspension is a contested case under sections 14.57 to 14.69 of the administrative procedure act.

Sec. 4. Minnesota Statutes 1987 Supplement, section 349.17, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [BINGO ON LEASED PREMISES.] (a) A person or corporation, other than an organization, which leases any premises that it owns to two or more organizations for purposes including the conduct of bingo occasions, may not allow more than 18 bingo occasions to be conducted on the premises in any week.

(b) If an organization conducts bingo on premises it does not own, the organization must provide the board with the name of the owner and lessor of the premises, copies of all agreements between the organization and the owner or lessor, and the name of employees of the owner or lessor who will be responsible for the premises during the bingo occasion held by the organization.

(c) During any bingo occasion held by an organization on premises it does not own, the organization shall be directly responsible for the:

- (1) staffing of the bingo occasion;
- (2) conducting of lawful gambling during the bingo occasion;
- (3) acquiring, storage, inventory control, and reporting of all gambling equipment used by the organization; and
- (4) receipt, accounting, and all expenditures of gross receipts from lawful gambling.

Sec. 5. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 349.19, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [REQUIRED RECORD OF RECEIPTS.] A licensed organization must keep a record of each occasion on which it conducts gambling, including each bingo occasion and each day on which other forms of lawful gambling are conducted. The record must include gross receipts, quantities of free plays if any, expenses, and profits. The board may by rule provide for the methods by which expenses are documented. Gross receipts for bingo include any amount received by the organization which has been paid by a person at the bingo occasion to play the game, without which the player could not play the game. In the case of bingo, gross receipts must be compared to the checkers' records for the occasion by a person who did not sell cards for the occasion. Separate records must be kept for bingo and all other forms of lawful gambling."

"Section 1. Minnesota Statutes 1987 Supplement, section 500.24, subdivision 6, is amended to read:

Subd. 6. [DISPOSAL OF LAND.] (a) A state or federal agency or a corporation, other than a family farm corporation or an authorized farm corporation, may not lease or sell agricultural land or a farm homestead that was acquired by enforcing a debt against the agricultural land or farm homestead, including foreclosure of a mortgage, accepting a deed in lieu of foreclosure, terminating a contract for deed, or accepting a deed in lieu of terminating a contract for deed, before offering or making a good faith effort to offer the land for sale or lease to the immediately preceding former owner at a price no higher than the highest price offered by a third party that is acceptable to the seller or lessor. The offer must be made on the notice to offer form under subdivision 7. Selling or leasing property to a third party at a price is prima facie evidence that the price is acceptable to the seller or lessor.

(b) An immediately preceding former owner may elect to purchase or lease the entire property or a portion of the property. An election to purchase or lease a portion of the property must be reported in writing to the seller or lessor prior to the time the property is offered for sale or lease. If election is made to purchase or lease a portion of the property, that portion must be contiguous and compact so that it does not unreasonably reduce access to or the value of the remaining property.

(b) (c) For purposes of this subdivision, the term "a price no higher than the highest price offered by a third party" means the acceptable cash price offered by a third party or the acceptable time-price offer made by a third party. A cash price offer is one that involves simultaneous transfer of title for payment of the entire amount of the offer. If the acceptable offer made by a third party is a time-price offer, the seller or lessor must make the same time-price offer or an equivalent cash offer to the immediately preceding former owner. An equivalent cash offer is equal to the total of the payments made over a period of the time-price offer discounted by yield curve of the United States treasury notes and bonds on the first business day of the month in which the offer is personally delivered or mailed for time periods similar to the time period covered by the time-price offer, plus 2.0 percent. A time-price offer is an offer that defers payment of a portion of the price and does not involve a transfer of fee title until payment of the entire amount of the offer is made is financed entirely or partially by the seller and includes an offer to purchase under a contract for deed or mortgage.

(e) (d) This subdivision applies to a seller when the property is sold and to a lessor each time the property is leased, for five years after the agricultural land is acquired except:

(1) an offer to lease to the immediately preceding former owner is required only until the immediately preceding owner fails to accept an offer to lease the property or the property is sold; and

(2) an offer to sell to the immediately preceding former owner is required until the property is sold; and

(3) if the immediately preceding former owner elects to lease or purchase a portion of the property, the balance of the property may be sold or leased without further regard to this subdivision.

(d) (e) The notice of an offer under subdivision 7 that is personally delivered with a signed receipt or sent by certified mail with a receipt of mailing to the immediately preceding former owner's last known address is a good faith offer.

(e) (f) This subdivision does not apply to a sale or lease that occurs after the seller or lessor has held the property for five years or longer.

(f) (g) For purposes of this subdivision, if the immediately preceding former owner is a bankruptcy estate the debtor in the bankruptcy is the immediately preceding owner.

(g) (h) The immediately preceding former owner must exercise the right to lease all or a portion of the agricultural land or a homestead located on agricultural land in writing within 15 days after an offer to lease under this subdivision is mailed with a receipt of mailing or personally delivered. If election is made to lease only the homestead or a portion of the agricultural land, the portion to be leased must be clearly identified in writing by the immediately preceding former owner. The immediately preceding former owner must exercise the right to buy the agricultural land, a portion of the agricultural land, or a farm homestead located on agricultural land, in writing, within 65 days after an offer to buy under this subdivision is mailed with a receipt of mailing or is personally delivered. Within ten days after exercising the right to lease or buy by accepting the offer, the immediately preceding owner must fully perform according to the terms of the offer including paying the amounts due. A seller may sell and a lessor may lease the agricultural land or farm homestead subject to this subdivision to the third party in accordance with their lease or purchase agreement if:

(1) the immediately preceding former owner does not accept an offer to lease or buy before the offer terminates; or

(2) the immediately preceding former owner does not perform the obligations of the offer, including paying the amounts due, within ten days after accepting the offer.

(h) (i) A certificate indicating whether or not the property contains agricultural land or a farm homestead that is signed by the county assessor where the property is located and recorded in the office of the county recorder or the registrar of titles where the property is located is prima facie evidence of whether the property is agricultural land or a farm homestead.

(+) (j) As prima facie evidence that an offer to sell or lease agricultural land or a farm homestead has terminated, a receipt of mailing the notice under subdivision 7 and an affidavit, signed by a person authorized to act on behalf of a state, federal agency, or corporation selling or leasing the agricultural land or a farm homestead may be filed in the office of the county recorder or registrar of titles of the county where the agricultural land or farm homestead is located. The affidavit must state that:

(1) notice of an offer to buy or lease the agricultural land or farm homestead was provided to the immediately preceding former owner at a price not higher than the highest price offered by a third party that is acceptable;

(2) the time during which the immediately preceding former owner is required to exercise the right to buy or lease the agricultural land or farm homestead has expired;

(3) the immediately preceding former owner has not exercised the right to buy or lease the agricultural land or farm homestead as provided in this subdivision or has accepted an offer and has not fully performed according to the terms of the offer; and

(4) the offer to the immediately preceding former owner has terminated.

(+) (k) The right of an immediately preceding former owner to receive an offer to lease or purchase agricultural land under this subdivision or to lease or purchase at a price no higher than the highest price offered by a third party that is acceptable to the seller or lessor may be extinguished or limited by an express statement signed by the immediately preceding owner that complies with the plain language requirements of section 325G.31. The right may not be extinguished or limited except by the:

(1) an express statement in a deed in lieu of foreclosure of the agricultural land;

(2) an express statement in a deed in lieu of a termination of a contract for deed for the agricultural land; or

(3) an express statement conveying the right to the state or federal agency or corporation owning the agricultural land that is required to make an offer under this subdivision.

(+) (l) The right of an immediately preceding former owner to receive an offer to lease or purchase agricultural land under this subdivision may not be assigned or transferred except as provided in paragraph (j), but may be inherited.

(m) An immediately preceding former owner, except a former owner who remains actively engaged in farming the land acquired by accepting an offer under this subdivision may not sell agricultural land acquired by accepting an offer under this subdivision if the arrangement of such sale was negotiated or agreed to prior to the former owner accepting the offer under this subdivision. A person who sells property in violation of this paragraph is liable for up to treble damages and court costs and reasonable attorney fees to a person who is damaged by a sale in violation of this paragraph. There shall be a rebuttable presumption that a sale by an immediately preceding former owner is in violation of this paragraph if the sale takes place within 180 days of the former owner accepting the offer under this subdivision. The prohibition in this paragraph does not apply to a sale by an immediately preceding former owner to his or her spouse or to a person related to the former owner in the first degree of kindred according to the rules of the civil law.

Reported the same back with the following amendments:

Delete everything after the enacting clause and insert:

"Section 1. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 500.24, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 6a. [PROTECTION FROM EVICTION.] (a) An immediately preceding former owner who will have the right to receive an offer to lease or purchase agricultural land under subdivision 6 may not be evicted from the land by any legal process during the time before the new owner receives an offer from a third party to buy or rent the land and during the time the former owner has the right to match or refuse to match that offer. Eviction may only take place after an event in subdivision 6, paragraph (g), clause (1) or (2), has occurred, the right of first refusal in United States Code, title 12, section 2219a, has occurred, or as a consequence of an event in paragraph (d) or (e).

(b) The immediately preceding former owner may elect to occupy the entire property or a portion of the property, however, if election is made to occupy a portion of the property, that portion must be contiguous and compact so that it does not unreasonably reduce access to or the value of the remaining property.

(c) During the time a former owner is protected from eviction under this subdivision, the new owner may require the person protected to pay fair market rent, on a monthly basis, to the new owner of the property. If the new owner requires the former owner to pay rent, the new owner may also require payment of a security deposit equivalent to one month's rent. Upon termination of the rental period, the new owner must return to the former owner the security deposit pursuant to section 504.20, subdivisions 1 to 3, except that the new owner is not required to pay interest on the security deposit. For purposes of this paragraph, "fair market rent" means a prorated portion of annual rent. If the rented portion of the property is less than the entire property, "fair market rent" must apply only to the portion rented. In case of a dispute concerning fair market rent of the property or the rented portion of the property, the county extension agent of the county in which the property is located shall establish the fair market rent of the buildings on the property or the portion of the property rented by the former owner.

(d) The right to protection under paragraph (a) is extinguished if the immediately preceding former owner intentionally destroys or wastes, or allows the destruction or waste of the property of the new owner. For purposes of determining if destruction or waste has occurred, the new owner may perform inspections of the property as follows:

(1) An initial inspection may be made at the time the right to protection under paragraph (a) is established.

(2) Inspections of the property under this paragraph are permitted only upon 24-hour prior notice to the immediately preceding former owner.

(e) Failure of the former owner to pay rent as described in paragraph (c) removes the former owner's protection from eviction.

(f) During the time a former owner is protected from eviction under this subdivision, the new owner or an agent for the new owner may enter the property for purposes of showing the property to a prospective buyer or lessee under the following conditions:

(1) the new owner or an agent for the new owner must not show the property more frequently than once in each period of three consecutive days; and

(2) the new owner or an agent for the new owner must notify the former owner or a responsible adult at the residence of the former owner not less than 24 hours before the scheduled showing to a prospective buyer or lessee.

(e) A person who fails the examination may be examined at a later time if the person pays another nonrefundable examination fee. No applicant who has taken and failed to pass two examinations may take the examination until the person has submitted a new application together with a nonrefundable application fee and presented evidence to the board of additional study in the area for which licensure is sought.

(f) Separate examinations must be given for speech pathology and audiology.

Sec. 15. [153B.06] [LICENSING UNDER SPECIAL CONDITIONS.]

(a) The board may waive the examination and grant a license to an applicant who presents proof that the applicant holds a current license in another state, the District of Columbia, or a territory of the United States that maintains professional standards considered by the board to be equivalent to those in sections 10 to 23 and the rules adopted by the board.

(b) The board may waive the examination and grant a license to an applicant who holds the Certificate of Clinical Competence of the American Speech-Language Hearing Association or has met equivalent requirements in the area for which a license is sought.

Notice of initial or amended continuing education requirements must be sent to all persons licensed under sections 10 to 23 at least 12 months before a person's license renewal is dependent on satisfaction of those requirements. Continuing education requirements must be sent to new applicants with the forms on which they are to apply for licensure.

Subd. 4. [RENEWAL OF SUSPENDED OR REVOKED LICENSES.] A suspended license expires as provided in section 16 and may be renewed as provided in sections 10 to 23, but the renewal does not entitle the licensee, while the license remains suspended and until it is reinstated, to engage in the licensed activity or in any other activity or conduct in violation of the order or judgment by which the license was suspended. A license revoked on disciplinary grounds expires as provided in section 16, but it may not be renewed. If it is reinstated after its expiration, the licensee as a condition of reinstatement shall pay a reinstatement fee in an amount equal to the renewal fee in effect on the last preceding regular renewal date before the date on which it is reinstated plus any delinquency fee accrued at the time of the license revocation.

One year from the date of revocation of a license under sections 10 to 23, application may be made to the board for reinstatement of the license. The board may accept or reject an application for reinstatement and may require passage of an examination before reinstatement.

Subd. 3. [ACTION FOLLOWING CONVICTION.] At the direction of the board, a license may be suspended or revoked or the board may decline to issue a license when the time for appeal of a conviction has elapsed or a judgment or conviction has been affirmed on appeal, or when an order granting probation is made suspending the imposition of sentence irrespective of a later order allowing a person to withdraw a plea of guilty, or setting aside the verdict of guilty, or dismissing the information or indictment. A plea or verdict of guilty or a conviction following a plea of nolo contendere made to a charge of a felony or of an offense involving moral turpitude is considered to be a conviction within the meaning of this subdivision.

Subd. 4. [PROCEDURE.] A person whose application for a license is denied is entitled to a contested case hearing under the administrative procedures act if the person submits a written request to the board.

The Payment for improvements must be made within 30 days of the date of sale, either in cash or upon terms and conditions agreeable to the owner of the improvements. Any amount received by the state for the improvements must be paid to the settler or lessee or heirs, representatives, or assigns of the settler or lessee. Payment must be made by warrant drawn by the commissioner of finance upon the state treasurer. Amounts received for the improvements are appropriated for making the payments.

An appraisal prepared by a person who meets the minimum appraisal standards established by the Farmers Home Administration or the federal Veterans Administration, but who is not included on the list of appraisers approved by the commissioner of administration for the appraisal of state property, must be reviewed by an appraiser selected by the commissioner of natural resources from the commissioner of administration's list of approved appraisers. - (e) when the person's alcohol concentration as measured within two hours of the time of driving is 0.10 or more; or
- (f) when the person is willfully or recklessly under the influence of any chemical compound or combination of chemical compounds that is listed as a hazardous substance in Minnesota Rules, part 5206.0400 and that affects the nervous system, brain, or muscles of the person so as to impair the person's ability to drive or operate the motor vehicle.

Sec. 2. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 169.121, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [EVIDENCE.] Upon the trial of any prosecution arising out of acts alleged to have been committed by any person arrested for driving, operating, or being in physical control of a motor vehicle in violation of subdivision 1, the court may admit evidence of the amount of alcohol or a controlled substance in the person's blood, breath, or urine as shown by an analysis of those items.

For the purposes of this subdivision:

(a) evidence that there was at the time an alcohol concentration of 0.05 or less is prima facie evidence that the person was not under the influence of alcohol;

(b) evidence that there was at the time an alcohol concentration of more than 0.05 and less than 0.10 is relevant evidence in indicating whether or not the person was under the influence of alcohol.

Evidence of the refusal to take a test is admissible into evidence in a prosecution under this section or an ordinance in conformity with it.

If proven by a preponderance of the evidence, it shall be an affirmative defense to a violation of subdivision 1, clause (e), that the defendant consumed a sufficient quantity of alcohol after the time of actual driving, operating, or physical control of a motor vehicle and before the administration of the evidentiary test to cause the defendant's alcohol concentration to exceed 0.10. Provided, that this evidence may not be admitted unless notice is given to the prosecution prior to the omnibus or pretrial hearing in the matter.

The foregoing provisions do not limit the introduction of any other competent evidence bearing upon the question whether or not the person was under the influence of alcohol or a controlled substance violated this section, including tests obtained more than two hours after the alleged violation and results obtained from partial tests on an infrared breath-testing instrument. A result from a partial test is the measurement obtained by analyzing one adequate breath sample, as defined in section 169.123, subdivision 2b, paragraph (b).

Sec. 3. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 361.12, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [ACTS PROHIBITED.] (a) No person shall operate or be in physical control of any motorboat while underway or in use on the waters of this state while under the influence of:

(1) alcohol, as provided in section 169.121, subdivision 1, clauses (a) and (d);

(2) a controlled or other substance, as defined provided in section 152.01, subdivision 4 ~~169.121, subdivision 1~~; or

(3) a combination of any two or more of the elements named in clauses (1) and (2).

(b) No owner or other person having charge or control of any motorboat shall authorize or permit any individual the person knows or has reason to believe is under the influence of alcohol or a controlled or other substance, as provided under paragraph (a), to operate the motorboat while underway or in use on the waters of this state.

(c) No owner or other person having charge or control of any motorboat shall knowingly authorize or permit any person, who by reason of any physical or mental disability is incapable of operating the motorboat, to operate the motorboat while underway or in use on the waters of this state.

Sec. 4. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 361.12, subdivision 4, is amended to read:

Subd. 4. [EVIDENCE.] (a) Upon the trial of any prosecution arising out of acts alleged to have been committed by any person arrested for operating or being in physical control of any motorboat in violation of subdivision 1, paragraph (a), the court may admit evidence of the amount of alcohol or a controlled substance in the person's blood, breath, or urine as shown by an analysis of those items.

(b) For the purposes of this subdivision:

(1) evidence that there was at the time an alcohol concentration of 0.05 or less is prima facie evidence that the person was not under the influence of alcohol;

(2) evidence that there was at the time an alcohol concentration of more than 0.05 and less than 0.10 is relevant evidence in indicating whether or not the person was under the influence of alcohol.

(c) Evidence of the refusal to take a preliminary screening test required under subdivision 3 or a chemical test required under section 361.121 is admissible into evidence in a prosecution under this section.

(d) This subdivision does not limit the introduction of any other competent evidence bearing upon the question whether or not the person was under the influence of alcohol or a controlled substance violated this section, including results obtained from partial tests on an infrared breath-testing instrument. A result from a partial test is the measurement obtained by analyzing one adequate breath sample. A sample is adequate if the instrument analyzes the sample and does not indicate the sample is deficient.

"Section 1. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 168.27, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [DEFINITIONS.] For the purposes of this section, the following terms have the meanings given them:

(1) "Leasing motor vehicles" means furnishing a motor vehicle for a fee under a bailor-bailee relationship where no incidences of ownership are intended to be transferred other than the right to use the vehicle for a stated period of time.

(2) "Brokering motor vehicles" means arranging sales between willing buyers and sellers of motor vehicles and receiving a fee for said service.

(3) "Wholesaling motor vehicles" means selling new or used motor vehicles to dealers for resale to the public.

(4) "Auctioning motor vehicles" means arranging for and handling the sale of motor vehicles, not the property of the auctioneer, to the highest bidder.

(5) "Dealer" includes new motor vehicle dealers, used motor vehicle dealers, brokers, wholesalers, auctioneers ~~and~~ lessors of new or used motor vehicles, scrap metal processors, used vehicle parts dealers, and salvage pools.

(6) "Commercial building" means a building adapted to commercial use and located in an area zoned for commercial or other less restrictive nonresidential use by the governmental unit in which it is located.

(7) "Horse trailer" is a trailer designed and used to carry horses and other livestock, which has not more than three axles and a maximum gross weight capacity of not more than 24,000 pounds.

(8) "Junked vehicle" means a vehicle that is graded and stamped as a "class D" total loss vehicle under section 19.

Sec. 2. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 168.27, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [NEW MOTOR VEHICLE DEALER.] (a) No person shall engage in the business of selling or arranging the sale of new motor vehicles or shall offer to sell, solicit, arrange, or advertise the sale of new motor vehicles without first acquiring a new motor vehicle dealer license. A new motor vehicle dealer licensee shall be entitled thereunder to sell, broker, wholesale, or auction and to solicit and advertise the sale, broker, wholesale, or auction of new motor vehicles covered by the franchise and any used motor vehicles or to lease and to solicit and advertise the lease of new motor vehicles and any used motor vehicles and such sales or leases may be either for consumer use at retail or for resale to a dealer. A new motor vehicle dealer may engage in the business of buying or otherwise acquiring vehicles for dismantling the vehicles and selling used parts and remaining scrap materials under chapter 168A, except that a new motor vehicle dealer may not purchase a junked vehicle from a salvage pool, insurance company, or its agent unless the dealer is also licensed as a used vehicle parts dealer. Nothing herein shall be construed to require an applicant for a dealer license who proposes to deal in: (1) new and unused motor vehicle bodies; or (2) type A, B, or C motor homes as defined in section 168.011, subdivision 25, to have a bona fide contract or franchise in effect with either the first-stage manufacturer of the motor home or the manufacturer or distributor of any motor vehicle chassis upon which the new and unused motor vehicle body is mounted. The modification or conversion of a new van-type vehicle into a multipurpose passenger vehicle which is not a motor home does not constitute dealing in new or unused motor vehicle bodies, and a person engaged in the business of selling these van-type vehicles must have a bona fide contract or franchise with the appropriate manufacturer under subdivision 10. A van converter or modifier who owns these modified or converted van-type vehicles may sell them at wholesale to new motor vehicle dealers having a bona fide contract or franchise with the first-stage manufacturer of the vehicles.

(b) The requirements pertaining to franchises do not apply to persons who remodel or convert motor vehicles for medical purposes. For purposes of this subdivision, "medical purpose" means certification by a licensed physician that remodeling or conversion of a motor vehicle is necessary to enable a handicapped person to use the vehicle.

Sec. 3. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 168.27, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [USED MOTOR VEHICLE DEALER.] No person shall engage in the business of selling or arranging the sale of used motor vehicles or shall offer to sell, solicit, arrange, or advertise the sale of used motor vehicles without first acquiring a used motor vehicle dealer license. A used motor vehicle dealer licensee shall be entitled thereunder to sell, lease, broker, wholesale or auction and to solicit and advertise the sale, lease, broker, wholesale or auction of any used motor vehicles for consumer use at retail or for resale to a dealer. Delete everything after the enacting clause and insert:

"Section 1. Minnesota Statutes 1987 Supplement, section 549.09, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [WHEN OWED; RATE.] (a) When the judgment is for the recovery of money, including a judgment for the recovery of taxes, interest from the time of the verdict or report until judgment is finally entered shall be computed by the court administrator as provided in clause (c) and added to the judgment.

(b) Except as otherwise provided by contract or allowed by law, preverdict or prereport interest on pecuniary damages shall be computed as provided in clause (c) from the time of the commencement of the action, or the time of a written settlement demand, whichever occurs first, except as provided herein. The action must be commenced within 60 days of a written settlement demand for interest to begin to accrue from the time of the demand. If either party serves a written offer of settlement, the other party may serve a written acceptance or a written counteroffer within 60 days. After that time interest on the judgment shall be calculated by the judge in the following manner. The prevailing party shall receive interest on any judgment from the time the action was commenced or a written settlement demand was made, or as to special damages from the time when special damages were incurred, if later, until the time of verdict or report only if the amount of its offer is closer to the judgment than the amount of the opposing party's offer. If the amount of the losing party's offer was closer to the judgment than the prevailing party's offer, the prevailing party shall receive interest only on the amount of the settlement offer or the judgment, whichever is less, and only from the time the action was commenced or a written settlement demand was made, or as to special damages from when the special damages were incurred, if later, until the time the settlement offer was made. Subsequent offers and counteroffers supersede the legal effect of earlier offers and counteroffers. For the purposes of clause (3), the amount of settlement offer must be allocated between past and future damages in the same proportion as determined by the trier of fact. Except as otherwise provided by contract or allowed by law, preverdict or prereport interest shall not be awarded on the following:

- (1) judgments, awards, or benefits in workers' compensation cases, but not including third-party actions;
- (2) judgments, decrees, or orders in dissolution, annulment, or legal separation actions;
- (3) judgments for future damages;
- (4) punitive damages, fines, or other damages that are noncompensatory in nature;
- (5) judgments not in excess of the amount specified in section 487.30; and
- (6) that portion of any verdict or report which is founded upon interest, or costs, disbursements, attorney fees, or other similar items added by the court.

(c) The interest shall be computed as simple interest per annum. The rate of interest shall be based on the secondary market yield of one year United States treasury bills, calculated on a bank discount basis as provided in this section.

On or before the 20th day of December of each year the state court administrator shall determine the rate from the secondary market yield on one year United States treasury bills for the most recent calendar month, reported on a monthly basis in the latest statistical release of the board of governors of the federal reserve system. This yield, rounded to the nearest one percent, shall be the annual interest rate during the succeeding calendar year; provided, however, that in no event shall the rate of interest be less than eight percent per annum. The state court administrator shall also determine the average rate of interest on judgments to be used during the succeeding calendar year for computation of the discount rate under section 604.07, subdivision 4. The state court administrator shall communicate the interest rates to the court administrators and sheriffs for use in computing the interest on verdicts and the discount rate under section 604.07.

When a judgment creditor, or the judgment creditor's attorney or agent, has received a payment after entry of judgment, whether the payment is made voluntarily by or on behalf of the judgment debtor, or is collected by legal process other than execution levy where a proper return has been filed with the court administrator, the judgment creditor, or the judgment creditor's attorney, before applying to the court administrator for an execution shall file with the court administrator an affidavit of partial satisfaction. The affidavit must state the dates and amounts of payments made upon the judgment after the most recent affidavit of partial satisfaction filed, if any; the part of each payment that is applied to taxable disbursements and to accrued interest and to the unpaid principal balance of the judgment; and the accrued, but the unpaid interest owing, if any, after application of each payment.

Sec. 2. [549.25] [FUTURE DAMAGES; PAYMENT.]

Where a claimant is awarded an amount representing future damages greater than $100,000, the court shall hold a hearing prior to ordering entry of judgment to allow the claimant to consider whether payment of the future damages over time as the damages are incurred is in the best interests of the claimant. The following factors may be considered at the hearing, as well as any others as justice requires:

(1) the claimant's financial ability to meet obligations likely to be incurred as a result of the injury at issue in the trial;

(2) the advantages, if any, to the claimant from voluntarily entering into a structured settlement; and

(3) the interests of the claimant in self-determination over the claimant's financial affairs.

If the claimant decides, after the hearing, that structured payments of future damages would be in the claimant's best interests, the court shall make available information to assist the claimant in seeking an appropriate financial instrument to provide such payments. Judgment may not be entered until the claimant has notified the court that the claimant does not wish to enter into a structured settlement.

Sec. 3. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 604.02, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. When two or more persons are jointly liable, contributions to awards shall be in proportion to the percentage of fault attributable to each, except that each is jointly and severally liable for the whole award. Except in cases where liability arises under chapters 18B - pesticide control, 115 - water pollution control, 115A - waste management, 115B - environmental response and liability, 115C - leaking underground storage tanks, and 299E - pipeline safety, public nuisance law for damage to the environment or the public health, any other environmental or public health law, or any environmental or public health ordinance or program of a municipality as defined in section 466.01, a person whose fault is ten percent or less is liable for a percentage of the whole award no greater than ten times the percentage of fault, including any amount reallocated to that person under subdivision 2.

If the state or a municipality as defined in section 466.01 is jointly liable, and its fault is less than 35 percent, it is jointly and severally liable for an amount a percentage of the whole award no greater than twice the amount of fault, including any amount reallocated to the state or municipality under subdivision 2.

Sec. 4. [INJURY COMPENSATION STUDY.]

The speaker of the house of representatives and the majority leader of the senate shall each appoint three persons to a commission to study the civil justice system and current and alternative methods of compensating injured persons. Not later than January 1, 1990, the study commission shall report its findings to the legislature along with any recommendations for legislative action.

Sec. 5. [REPEALER.]

Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 604.07, is repealed.

Sec. 6. [APPLICATION; EFFECTIVE DATE.]

Sections 2 and 3 apply to causes of action arising on or after their effective dates. Sections 1 and 5 are effective the day following final enactment and apply to all cases pending or brought on or after that date."

"Sec. 2. [16A.652] [ZERO COUPON BONDS.]

Subdivision 1. [AUTHORITY TO ISSUE.] When authorized by law to issue state general obligation bonds, the commissioner may issue all or part of the bonds as serial maturity bonds or as zero coupon bonds or a combination of the two.

Subd. 2. [DEFINITIONS.] For purposes of sections 1 and 2, the following terms have the meanings given them.

(a) "Compounded maturity" means the amount of principal and interest payable at maturity on zero coupon bonds.

(b) "Serial maturity bonds" means bonds maturing on a specified day in two or more consecutive years and bearing interest at a specified rate payable periodically to maturity or prior redemption.

(c) "Zero coupon bonds" means bonds in a stated principal amount, maturing on a specified date or dates, and bearing interest that accrues and compounds to and is payable only at maturity or upon prior redemption of the bonds.

Subd. 3. [METHOD OF SALE; PRINCIPAL AMOUNT.] Except as otherwise provided by this section or section 1, any series of bonds including zero coupon bonds must be issued and sold under the provisions of section 16A.641. The stated principal amount of zero coupon bonds must be used to determine the principal amount of bonds issued under the laws authorizing issuance of state general obligation bonds.

Subd. 4. [SINKING FUND.] The commissioner's order authorizing the issuance of zero coupon bonds shall establish a separate sinking fund account for the zero coupon bonds in the state bond fund. There is annually appropriated from the general fund to each zero coupon bond account, beginning in the year in which the zero coupon bonds are issued, an amount not less than the sum of:

(1) the total stated principal amount of the zero coupon bonds that would have matured from their date of issue to and including the second July 1 following the transfer of appropriated money, if the bonds matured serially in an equal principal amount in each year during their term and in the same month as their stated maturity date; plus

(2) the total amount of interest accruing on the stated principal amount of the bonds and on interest previously accrued, from the bonds' date of issue to and including the second July 1 following the transfer of appropriated money; less

(3) the amount in the sinking fund account for the payment of the compounded maturity amount of the bonds, including interest earnings on amounts in the account. This appropriation is in lieu of all other appropriations made with respect to zero coupon bonds. The appropriated amounts must be transferred from the general fund to the sinking fund account in the state bond fund by December 1 of each year.

Subd. 5. [SALE.] Except as otherwise provided in section 1, zero coupon bonds, or a series of bonds including zero coupon bonds, must be sold at public sale at price not less than 98 percent of their stated principal amount. No state trunk highway bond may be sold for a price of less than par and accrued interest."

Sec. 2. [347.51] [DANGEROUS DOGS; REGISTRATION.]

Subdivision 1. [REQUIREMENT.] No person may own a dangerous dog in this state unless the dog is registered as provided in this section.

Subd. 2. [REGISTRATION.] A county shall issue a certificate of registration to the owner of a dangerous dog if the owner presents sufficient evidence that:

(1) a proper enclosure exists for the dangerous dog and a posting on the premises with a clearly visible warning sign, including a warning symbol to inform children, that there is a dangerous dog on the property; and

(2) a surety bond issued by a surety company authorized to conduct business in this state in a form acceptable to the county in the sum of at least $50,000, payable to any person injured by the dangerous dog, or a policy of liability insurance issued by an insurance company authorized to conduct business in this state in the amount of at least $50,000, insuring the owner for any personal injuries inflicted by the dangerous dog.

Sec. 3. [347.52] [DANGEROUS DOGS; REQUIREMENTS.]

An owner of a dangerous dog shall keep the dangerous dog, while on the owner's property, in a proper enclosure. If the dog is outside the proper enclosure, the dog must be muzzled and restrained by a substantial chain or leash and under the physical restraint of a responsible person. The muzzle must be made in a manner that will prevent the dog from biting any person or animal, but that will not cause injury to the dog or interfere with its vision or respiration.

Sec. 4. [347.53] [POTENTIALLY DANGEROUS DOGS.]

Any statutory or home rule charter city, or any county, may regulate potentially dangerous dogs. Nothing in sections 1 to 5 limits any restrictions the local jurisdictions may place on owners of potentially dangerous dogs.

[PERSONNEL USED.] An interception under sections 626A.01 to 626A.23 may be conducted in whole or in part by employees of the state or any subdivision of the state, or by an individual operating under a contract with the state or one of its subdivisions, acting under the supervision of an investigative or law enforcement officer authorized to conduct the investigation.

Sec. 27. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 626A.06, subdivision 5, is amended to read:

Subd. 5. [DURATION OF WARRANT.] No warrant entered under this section may authorize or approve the interception of any wire, electronic, or oral communication for any period longer than is necessary to achieve the objective of the authorization, nor in any event longer than ten days.

The effective period of any warrant for intercepting communications shall terminate immediately when any person named in the warrant has been charged with an offense specified in the warrant.

Sec. 28. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 626A.06, subdivision 6, is amended to read:

Subd. 6. [EXTENSIONS.] Any judge of the district court, of the court of appeals, or of the supreme court may grant extensions of a warrant, but only upon application for an extension made in accordance with subdivision 1 and the court making the findings required by subdivision 3. The period of extension shall be no longer than the authorizing judge deems necessary to achieve the purposes for which it was granted and in no event for longer than ten days. In addition to satisfying the requirements of subdivision 1, an application for a renewal of any warrant for intercepting communications shall also:

(a) contain a statement that all interception of communications under prior warrants has been in compliance with sections 626A.01 to 626A.23;

(b) contain a statement setting forth the results thus far obtained from the interception or a reasonable explanation of the failure to obtain results;

(c) state the continued existence of the matters contained in subdivision 1; and

(d) specify the facts and circumstances of the interception of communications under prior warrants which are relied upon by the applicant to show that such continued interception of communications is necessary and in the public interest.

Any application to intercept communications of a person previously the subject of such a warrant for any offense designated in a prior warrant shall constitute a renewal of such warrant.

Sec. 29. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 626A.06, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 11. [REQUIREMENTS INAPPLICABLE.] The requirements of subdivision 1, clause (b)(ii), and subdivision 3, clause (d), relating to the specification of the facilities from which, or the place where, the communication is to be interpreted do not apply if:

(1) in the case of an application with respect to the interception of an oral communication:

(i) the application contains a full and complete statement as to why the specification is not practical and identifies the person committing the offense and whose communications are to be intercepted; and

(ii) the judge finds that the specification is not practical.

(2) in the case of an application with respect to a wire or electronic communication:

(i) the application identifies the person believed to be committing the offense and whose communications are to be intercepted and the applicant makes a showing of a purpose, on the part of that person, to thwart interception by changing facilities; and

(ii) the judge finds that the purpose has been adequately shown.

Sec. 30. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 626A.06, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 12. [MOTION TO QUASH ORDER.] An interception of a communication under an order with respect to which the requirements of subdivision 1, clause (b)(ii), and subdivision 3, clause (d), of this section do not apply by reason of section 29 must not begin until the facilities from which, or the place where, the communication is to be intercepted is ascertained by the person implementing the interception order. A provider of wire or electronic communications service that has received an order as provided for in section 29, clause (2), may move the court to modify or quash the order on the ground that its assistance with respect to the interception cannot be performed in a timely or reasonable fashion. The court, upon notice to the attorney applying for the warrant, shall decide a motion expeditiously.

Sec. 31. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 626A.08, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [MATERIAL OBTAINED.] Every part of any wire, oral, or electronic communication, conversation, or discussion overheard intercepted pursuant to sections 626A.01 to 626A.23 shall be completely recorded on tape or wire or other comparable device and shall be done in such manner as will protect the recording from editing or other alterations. Immediately upon the expiration of the period of the order, or extensions thereof, such recordings shall be made available to the judge issuing such order and sealed under the judge's directions. Custody of the recordings shall be wherever the judge orders. They shall not be destroyed except upon an order of the issuing or denying judge or a successor and in any event shall be kept for ten years. Duplicate recordings may be made for use or disclosure pursuant to the provisions of section 626A.09 for investigations. The presence of the seal provided for by this subdivision, or a satisfactory explanation for the absence thereof, shall be a prerequisite for the use or disclosure of the contents of any wire, electronic, or oral communication or evidence derived therefrom under section 626A.09.

Sec. 32. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 626A.09, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. Any investigative or law enforcement officer who, by any means authorized by sections 626A.01 to 626A.23, has obtained knowledge of the contents of any wire, electronic, or oral communication, or evidence derived therefrom may disclose such contents to another investigative or law enforcement officer to the extent that such disclosure is appropriate to the proper performance of the official duties of the officer making or receiving the disclosure.

Sec. 33. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 626A.09, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. Any investigative or law enforcement officer who, by any means authorized by sections 626A.01 to 626A.23, has obtained knowledge of the contents of any wire, electronic, or oral communication or evidence derived therefrom may use such contents to the extent such use is appropriate to the proper performance of official duties.

Sec. 34. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 626A.09, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. Any person who has received, by any means authorized by sections 626A.01 to 626A.23, any information concerning a wire, electronic, or oral communication, or evidence derived therefrom intercepted in accordance with the provisions of sections 626A.01 to 626A.23 may disclose the contents of that communication or such derivative evidence while giving testimony under oath or affirmation in any criminal proceeding in any court of the United States or of any state or in any federal or state grand jury proceeding.

Sec. 35. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 626A.09, subdivision 4, is amended to read:

Subd. 4. No otherwise privileged wire, electronic, or oral communication intercepted in accordance with, or in violation of, the provisions of sections 626A.01 to 626A.23 shall lose its privileged character.

Sec. 36. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 626A.09, subdivision 5, is amended to read:

Subd. 5. When an investigative or law enforcement officer, while engaged in intercepting wire, electronic, or oral communications in the manner authorized herein, intercepts wire, electronic, or oral communications relating to offenses other than those specified in the order of authorization or approval, the contents thereof, and evidence derived therefrom, may be disclosed or used as provided in subdivisions 1 and 2. Such contents and any evidence derived therefrom may be used under subdivision 3 when authorized or approved by a judge of the district court where such judge finds on subsequent application that the contents were otherwise intercepted in accordance with the provisions of sections 626A.01 to 626A.23. Such application shall be made as soon as practicable.

Sec. 37. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 626A.10, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [NOTICE OF ORDER.] Within a reasonable time but not later than 90 days after the termination of the period of a warrant or extensions thereof, the issuing or denying judge shall cause to be served, on the persons named in the warrant and the application, and such other parties to intercepted communications as the judge may determine that is in the interest of justice, an inventory which shall include notice of:

- (1) the fact of the issuance of the warrant or the application;
- (2) the date of the issuance and the period of authorized, approved or disapproved interception, or the denial of the application; and
- (3) the fact that during the period wire, electronic, or oral communications were or were not intercepted.

Sec. 38. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 626A.10, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [NOTICE OF INTENT TO USE EVIDENCE OBTAINED BY INTERCEPTION OF WIRE OR ORAL COMMUNICATION.] The contents of any intercepted wire, electronic, or oral communication or evidence derived therefrom shall not be received in evidence otherwise disclosed in any trial, hearing, or other proceeding in a federal or state court unless each party, not less than ten days before the trial, hearing, or proceeding, has been furnished with a copy of the court order, and accompanying application, under which the interception was authorized or approved. This ten-day period may be waived by the judge if the judge finds that it was not possible to furnish the party with the above information ten days before the trial, hearing, or proceeding and that the party will not be prejudiced by the delay in receiving such information.

Sec. 39. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 626A.11, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [ILLEGALLY OBTAINED EVIDENCE INADMISSIBLE.] Evidence obtained by any act of intercepting wire or oral communications, in violation of section 626A.02, and all evidence obtained through or resulting from information obtained by any such act, shall be inadmissible for any purpose in any action, proceeding, or hearing; provided, however, that any such evidence shall be admissible in any civil or criminal action, proceeding, or hearing against the person who has, or is alleged to have, violated sections 626A.01 to 626A.23.

Sec. 40. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 626A.11, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [OFFICIAL AVAILABLE AS A WITNESS.] No evidence obtained as a result of intercepting wire or oral communications pursuant to a warrant issued under section 626A.06 shall be admissible in any proceeding unless the law enforcement official or officials person or persons overhearing or recording such communication, conversation, or discussion be called or made available as witnesses subject to cross examination by the party against whom such intercepted evidence is being offered. The provisions of this clause shall not apply if the trial court finds that such law enforcement official person is dead; or is out of the state; or is unable to attend or testify because of age, sickness, infirmity, or imprisonment; or that such exceptional circumstances exist as to make it desirable, in the interest of justice and with due regard to the importance of presenting such persons in open court, to allow the evidence to be received.

Sec. 41. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 626A.11, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 4. [REMEDIES AND SANCTIONS.] The remedies and sanctions described in sections 626A.01 to 626A.23 with respect to the interception of electronic communications are the only judicial remedies and sanctions for nonconstitutional violations of sections 626A.01 to 626A.23 involving communications.

Sec. 42. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 626A.12, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [THE MOTION.] Any aggrieved person may move to suppress the contents of any intercepted wire or oral communication, or evidence derived therefrom on the grounds that:

- (i) the wire or oral communication was unlawfully intercepted;
- (ii) the order of authorization or approval under which it was intercepted is insufficient on its face;
- (iii) the interception was not made in conformity with the order of authorization or approval;
- (iv) there was not probable cause for believing the existence of the grounds on which the warrant was issued; or
- (v) the evidence was otherwise illegally obtained.

The court shall hear evidence upon any issue of fact necessary to a determination of the motion.

If the motion is granted, the contents of the intercepted wire or oral communication, or evidence derived therefrom, shall be treated as having been obtained in violation of sections 626A.01 to 626A.23.

If the motion is denied, the order denying such may be reviewed on appeal from a judgment of conviction notwithstanding the fact that such judgment of conviction is predicated upon a plea of guilty.

Sec. 43. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 626A.12, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 1a. [MOTION TO SUPPRESS.] Any aggrieved person may move to suppress the contents of any intercepted electronic communication on the ground that there was a constitutional violation.

Sec. 44. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 626A.13, is amended to read:

626A.13 [CIVIL REMEDIES.]

Any person whose wire or oral communication is intercepted, disclosed, or used in violation of sections 626A.01 to 626A.23 shall (1) have a civil cause of action against any person who intercepts, discloses, or uses, or procures any other person to intercept, disclose, or use such communications, and (2) be entitled to the following remedies:

(a) to an injunction by any court of competent jurisdiction prohibiting further interception or use or divulgence by the person involved;

(b) to treble damages against the person or persons committing such interception, divulgence, or use, but in no event shall such recovery be less than $1,000;

(c) to any punitive damages that may be awarded by the court or jury; and

(d) a reasonable attorney's fee and other litigation costs reasonably incurred.

A good faith reliance on a court order shall constitute a complete defense to any civil or criminal action brought under sections 626A.01 to 626A.23. Good faith reliance by a telephone or telegraph company on a warrant issued pursuant to sections 626A.01 to 626A.23, or on provisions of sections 626A.01 to 626A.23 requiring action by such company, shall constitute a complete defense to any civil action brought under sections 626A.01 to 626A.23.

Subdivision 1. [IN GENERAL.] Except as provided in section 2511 (2)(a)(ii) of title 18 of the United States Code, a person whose wire, oral, or electronic communication is intercepted, disclosed, or intentionally used in violation of sections 626A.01 to 626A.23 may in a civil action recover from the person or entity that engaged in that violation relief as may be appropriate.

Subd. 2. [RELIEF.] In an action under this section, appropriate relief includes:

(1) temporary and other equitable or declaratory relief as may be appropriate;

(2) damages under subdivision 3 and punitive damages in appropriate cases; and

(3) a reasonable attorney's fee and other litigation costs reasonably incurred.

Subd. 3. [COMPUTATION OF DAMAGES.] (a) In an action under this section, if the conduct in violation of sections 626A.01 to 626A.23 is the private viewing of a private satellite video communication that is not scrambled or encrypted or if the communication is a radio communication that is transmitted on frequencies allocated under subpart D of part 74 of title 47 of the Code of Federal Regulations that is not scrambled or encrypted and the conduct is not for a tortious or illegal purpose or for purposes of direct or indirect commercial advantage or private commercial gain, then the court shall assess damages as follows:

(1) If the person who engaged in that conduct has not previously been enjoined under section 18, subdivision 5, and has not been found liable in a prior civil action under this section, the court shall assess the greater of the sum of actual damages suffered by the plaintiff, or statutory damages of not less than $50 and not more than $500.

(2) If, on one prior occasion, the person who engaged in that conduct has been enjoined under section 18, subdivision 5, or has been found liable in a civil action under this section, the court shall assess the greater of the sum of actual damages suffered by the plaintiff, or statutory damages of not less than $100 and not more than $1,000.

(b) In any other action under this section, the court may assess as damages whichever is the greater of:

(1) the sum of three times the actual damages suffered by the plaintiff and any profits made by the violator as a result of the violation; or

(2) statutory damages of whichever is the greater of $100 a day for each day of violation or $10,000.

Subd. 4. [DEFENSE.] A good faith reliance on:

(1) a court warrant or order, a grand jury subpoena, a legislative authorization, or a statutory authorization;

(2) a request of an investigative or law enforcement officer under United States Code, title 18, section 2518(7); or

(3) a good faith determination that section 626A.02, subdivision 3, permitted the conduct complained of;

is a complete defense against any civil or criminal action brought under sections 626A.01 to 626A.23 or any other law.

Subd. 5. [LIMITATION.] A civil action under this section may not be begun later than two years after the date upon which the claimant first has a reasonable opportunity to discover the violation.

Sec. 45. [626A.24] [MOBILE TRACKING DEVICES.]

Subdivision 1. [WARRANT.] When an investigative or law enforcement officer, under sections 626.04 to 626.17, applies to the district court for a warrant or other order authorizing the installation of a mobile tracking device, the warrant or other order may authorize the use of the mobile tracking device within the jurisdiction of the court and outside of that jurisdiction as long as the device is installed in the jurisdiction.

Subd. 2. [DEFINITION.] As used in this section, the term "tracking device," means an electronic or mechanical device that permits the tracking of the movement of a person or object.

Sec. 46. [626A.25] [INJUNCTION AGAINST ILLEGAL INTERCEPTION.]

Whenever it appears that a person is engaged or is about to engage in an act that constitutes or will constitute a felony violation of sections 626A.01 to 626A.23, the attorney general or a county attorney may initiate a civil action in district court to enjoin the violation. The court shall proceed as soon as practicable to the hearing and determination of the civil action, and may, at any time before final determination, enter a restraining order or prohibition, or take other action, as is warranted to prevent a continuing and substantial injury to the state, any of its subdivisions, or to a person or class of persons for whose protection the action is brought. A proceeding under this section is governed by the Rules of Civil Procedure, except that, if the defendant has been charged with the felony, discovery against that defendant is governed by the Rules of Criminal Procedure.

Sec. 47. [626A.26] [UNLAWFUL ACCESS TO STORED COMMUNICATIONS.]

Subdivision 1. [OFFENSE.] Except as provided in subdivision 3, whoever:

(1) intentionally accesses without authorization a facility through which an electronic communication service is provided; or

(2) intentionally exceeds an authorization to access that facility; and thereby obtains, alters, or prevents authorized access to a wire or electronic communication while it is in the electronic storage in a system must be punished as provided in subdivision 2.

Subd. 2. [PUNISHMENT.] The punishment for an offense under subdivision 1 is:

(1) if the offense is committed for purposes of commercial advantage, malicious destruction or damage, or private commercial gain:

(i) a fine of not more than $250,000 or imprisonment for not more than one year, or both, in the case of a first offense under this clause; and

(ii) a fine of not more than $250,000 or imprisonment for not more than two years, or both, for any subsequent offense under this clause;

(2) a fine of not more than $5,000 or imprisonment for not more than six months, or both, in any other case.

Subd. 3. [EXCEPTIONS.] Subdivision 1 does not apply with respect to conduct authorized:

(1) by the person or entity providing a wire or electronic communications service;

(2) by a user of that service with respect to a communication of or intended for that user; or

(3) in sections 626A.05 to 626A.09, section 49 or 50.

Sec. 48. [626A.27] [DISCLOSURE OF CONTENTS.]

Subdivision 1. [PROHIBITIONS.] Except as provided in subdivision 2:

(1) a person or entity providing an electronic communication service to the public must not knowingly divulge to a person or entity the contents of a communication while in electronic storage by that service; and

(2) a person or entity providing remote computing service to the public must not knowingly divulge to a person or entity the contents of any communication that is carried or maintained on that service:

(i) on behalf of, and received by means of electronic transmission from, or created by means of computer processing of communications received by means of electronic transmission, from a subscriber or customer of the service; and

(ii) solely for the purpose of providing storage or computer processing services to the subscriber or customer, if the provider is not authorized to access the contents of any communications for purposes of providing any services other than storage or computer processing.

Subd. 2. [EXCEPTIONS.] A person or entity may divulge the contents of a communication:

(1) to an addressee or intended recipient of the communication or an agent of the addressee or intended recipient;

(2) as otherwise authorized in sections 626A.02; subdivision 2, paragraph (a); 626A.05; or section 49;

(3) with the lawful consent of the originator or an addressee or intended recipient of the communication, or the subscriber in the case of remote computing service;

(4) to a person employed or authorized or whose facilities are used to forward a communication to its destination;

(5) as may be necessarily incident to the rendition of the service or to the protection of the rights or property of the provider of that service; or

(6) to a law enforcement agency, if the contents:

(i) were inadvertently obtained by the service provider; and

(ii) appear to pertain to the commission of a crime.

Sec. 49. [626A.28] [REQUIREMENTS FOR GOVERNMENTAL ACCESS.]

Subdivision 1. [CONTENTS OF ELECTRONIC COMMUNICATIONS IN ELECTRONIC STORAGE.] A governmental entity may require the disclosure by a provider of electronic communication service of the contents of an electronic communication that is in electronic storage in an electronic communications system for 180 days or less only under a warrant. A government entity may require the disclosure by a provider of electronic communications services of the contents of an electronic communication that has been in electronic storage in an electronic communications system for more than 180 days by the means available under subdivision 2.

Subd. 2. [CONTENTS OF ELECTRONIC COMMUNICATIONS IN A REMOTE COMPUTING SERVICE.] (a) A governmental entity may require a provider of remote computing service to disclose the contents of electronic communication to which this paragraph is made applicable by paragraph (b):

(1) without required notice to the subscriber or customer, if the governmental entity obtains a warrant; or

(2) with prior notice if the governmental entity:

(i) uses an administrative subpoena authorized by statute or a grand jury subpoena; or

(ii) obtains a court order for such disclosure under subdivision 4; except that delayed notice may be given under section 51.

(b) paragraph (a) is applicable with respect to any electronic communication that is held or maintained on that service:

(1) on behalf of, and received by means of electronic transmission from, or created by means of computer processing of communications received by means of electronic transmission from, a subscriber or customer of such remote computing service; and

(2) solely for the purpose of providing storage or computer processing services to the subscriber or customer, if the provider is not authorized to access the contents of any communications for purposes of providing any services other than storage or computer processing.

Subd. 3. [RECORDS CONCERNING ELECTRONIC COMMUNICATION SERVICE OR REMOTE COMPUTING SERVICE.]

(a) (1) Except as provided in clause (2), a provider of electronic communication service or remote computing service may disclose a record or other information pertaining to a subscriber to or customer of the service, not including the contents of communications covered by subdivision 1 or 2, to any person other than a governmental entity.

(2) A provider of electronic communication service or remote computing service may disclose a record or other information pertaining to a subscriber to or customer of the service, not including the contents of communications covered by subdivision 1 or 2, to a governmental entity only when the governmental entity:

(i) uses an administrative subpoena authorized by statute, or a grand jury subpoena;

(ii) obtains a warrant;

(iii) obtains a court order for such disclosure under subdivision 4; or

(iv) has the consent of the subscriber or customer to the disclosure.

(b) A governmental entity receiving records or information under this subdivision is not required to provide notice to a subscriber or customer.

Subd. 4. [REQUIREMENTS FOR COURT ORDER.] A court order for disclosure under subdivision 2 or 3 must issue only if the governmental entity shows that there is reason to believe the contents of a wire or electronic communication, or the records or other information sought, are relevant to a legitimate law enforcement inquiry. A court issuing an order pursuant to this section, on a motion made promptly by the service provider, may quash or modify such order, if the information or records requested are unusually voluminous in nature or compliance with such order otherwise would cause an undue burden on such provider.

Subd. 5. [NO CAUSE OF ACTION AGAINST A PROVIDER DISCLOSING CERTAIN INFORMATION.] No cause of action lies in any court against any provider of wire or electronic communication service, its officers, employees, agents, or other specified persons for providing information, facilities, or assistance in accordance with the terms of a court order, warrant, subpoena, or certification under sections 47 to 55.

Sec. 50. [626A.29] [BACKUP PRESERVATION.]

Subdivision 1. [BACKUP COPY.] (a) A governmental entity acting under section 49, subdivision 2, paragraph (b), may include in its subpoena or court order a requirement that the service provider to whom the request is directed create a backup copy of the contents of the electronic communications sought in order to preserve those communications. Without notifying the subscriber or customer of the subpoena or court order, the service provider shall create a backup copy, as soon as practicable, consistent with its regular business practices and shall confirm to the governmental entity that the backup copy has been made. The backup copy must be created within two business days after receipt by the service provider of the subpoena or court order.

(b) Notice to the subscriber or customer must be made by the governmental entity within three days after receipt of the confirmation, unless notice is delayed under section 51, subdivision 1.

(c) The service provider must not destroy a backup copy until the later of:

(1) the delivery of the information; or

(2) the resolution of any proceedings, including appeals of any proceeding, concerning the subpoena or court order.

(d) The service provider shall release the backup copy to the requesting governmental entity no sooner than 14 days after the governmental entity's notice to the subscriber or customer if the service provider:

(1) has not received notice from the subscriber or customer that the subscriber or customer has challenged the governmental entity's request; and

(2) has not initiated proceedings to challenge the request of the governmental entity.

(e) A governmental entity may seek to require the creation of a backup copy under subdivision 1, paragraph (a), if in its sole discretion the entity determines that there is reason to believe that notification under section 49 of the existence of the subpoena or court order may result in destruction of or tampering with evidence. This determination is not subject to challenge by the subscriber or customer or service provider.

Subd. 2. [CUSTOMER CHALLENGES.] (a) Within 14 days after notice by the governmental entity to the subscriber or customer under subdivision 1, paragraph (b), the subscriber or customer may file a motion to quash the subpoena or vacate the court order, with copies served upon the governmental entity and with written notice of the challenge to the service provider. A motion to vacate a court order must be filed in the court which issued the order. A motion to quash a subpoena must be filed in the district court of the county in which the governmental entity issuing the subpoena is located. The motion or application must contain an affidavit or sworn statement:

(1) stating that the applicant is a customer or subscriber to the service from which the contents of electronic communications maintained for him have been sought; and

(2) stating the applicant's reasons for believing that the records sought are not relevant to a legitimate law enforcement inquiry or that there has not been substantial compliance with the provisions of this chapter in some other respect.

(b) Service must be made under this section upon a governmental entity by delivering or mailing by registered or certified mail a copy of the papers to the person, office, or department specified in the notice which the customer has received under sections 47 to 55. For the purposes of this section, the term "delivery" means handing it to the person specified in the notice or handing it to the person, or his designee, in charge of the office or department specified in the notice.

(c) If the court finds that the customer has complied with paragraphs (a) and (b), the court shall order the governmental entity to file a sworn response. The response may be filed in camera if the governmental entity includes in its response the reasons that make in camera review appropriate. If the court is unable to determine the motion or application on the basis of the parties' initial allegations and response, the court may conduct additional proceedings as it considers appropriate. Proceedings must be completed and the motion or application decided as soon as practicable after the filing of the governmental entity's response.

(d) If the court finds that the applicant is not the subscriber or customer for whom the communications sought by the governmental entity are maintained, or that there is a reason to believe that the law enforcement inquiry is legitimate and that the communications sought are relevant to that inquiry, it shall deny the motion or application and order the process enforced. If the court finds that the applicant is the subscriber or customer for whom the communications sought by the governmental entity are maintained, and that there is not a reason to believe that the communications sought are relevant to a legitimate law enforcement inquiry, or that there has not been substantial compliance with the provisions of sections 47 to 55, it shall order the process quashed.

(e) A court order denying a motion or application under this section shall not be deemed a final order and no interlocutory appeal may be taken therefrom by the customer.

Sec. 51. [626A.30] [DELAYED NOTICE.]

Subdivision 1. [DELAY OF NOTIFICATION.] (a) A governmental entity acting under section 49, subdivision 2, may:

(1) where a court order is sought, include in the application a request, which the court shall grant, for an order delaying the notification required under section 49, subdivision 2, for a period not to exceed 90 days, if the court determines that there is reason to believe that notification of the existence of the court order may have an adverse result described in paragraph (b) of this subdivision; or

(2) where an administrative subpoena or a grand jury subpoena is obtained, delay the notification required under section 49 for a period not to exceed 90 days upon the execution of a written certification of a supervisory official that there is reason to believe that notification of the existence of the subpoena may have an adverse result described in paragraph (b) of this subdivision.

(b) An adverse result for the purposes of paragraph (a) of this subdivision is:

- (1) endangering the life or physical safety of an individual;
- (2) flight from prosecution;
- (3) destruction of or tampering with evidence;
- (4) intimidation of potential witnesses; or

(5) otherwise seriously jeopardizing an investigation or unduly delaying a trial.

(c) The governmental entity shall maintain a true copy of certification under paragraph (a), clause (2).

(d) Extensions of the delay of notification provided in section 49 of up to 90 days each may be granted by the court upon application, or by certification by a governmental entity, but only in accordance with subdivision 2.

(e) Upon expiration of the period of delay of notification under paragraph (a) or (d) of this subdivision, the governmental entity shall serve upon, or deliver by registered or first-class mail to, the customer or subscriber a copy of the process or request together with notice that:

(1) states with reasonable specificity the nature of the law enforcement inquiry; and

(2) informs the customer or subscriber:

(i) that information maintained for the customer or subscriber by the service provider named in the process or request was supplied to or requested by that governmental authority and the date on which the supplying or request took place;

(ii) that notification of the customer or subscriber was delayed;

(iii) what governmental entity or court made the certification or determination under which that delay was made; and

(iv) which provision of sections 47 to 55 allowed such delay.

(f) As used in this subdivision, the term "supervisory official" means a peace officer with the rank of sergeant, or its equivalent, or above, a special agent in charge from the bureau of criminal apprehension, the attorney general, the head of the attorney general's criminal division, a county attorney, or the head of a county attorney's criminal division.

Subd. 2. The purpose of the laws relating to the administration of human services programs is to assure that public assistance benefits are distributed accurately and in a timely manner, and that services delivered to applicants for, and recipients of, public assistance benefits are complete.

The purpose of the laws relating to the compliance system established for certain public assistance programs is not to arbitrarily impose fiscal penalties on local agencies. Instead, the legislative intent is to reduce the possibility of sanctions and fiscal disallowances for noncompliance with federal regulations and to encourage compliance with state statutes, administrative rules, written policies and procedures. The primary focus of this legislation is to promote program management which provides those client services provided for by law in a timely, accurate, and effective manner. To that end, these laws establish an incentive fund in order for the department to reward local agencies that meet written program performance standards. In addition, these laws expand department program monitoring efforts to include program assessment, corrective action plans, and technical assistance to help counties meet program performance standards."

Larsen moved to amend S. F. No. 187, the unofficial engrossment, as amended, as follows:

Delete everything after the enacting clause and insert:

“Section 1. [504.30] [TITLE.]

Sections 1 to 8 may be cited as the “Minnesota self-service storage act.”

Sec. 2. [504.31] [DEFINITIONS.]

Subdivision 1. [SCOPE.] For the purposes of sections 1 to 8, the terms defined in this section have the meanings given them.

Subd. 2. [SELF-SERVICE STORAGE FACILITY.] “Self-service storage facility” means real property or a portion thereof that is designed and used only for renting or leasing individual enclosures, cubicles, or rooms permanently constructed and affixed to the real property and locked for security by the occupant in the facility under the following conditions:

(1) the occupants have access to the enclosures, cubicles, or rooms only for the purpose of storing and removing personal property;

(2) the owner does not issue a warehouse receipt, bill of lading, or other document of title for the personal property stored in the enclosures, cubicles, or rooms; and

(3) the property has 50 or more individual enclosures, cubicles, or rooms.

The term does not include a garage used principally for parking motor vehicles or any property of a financial institution that contains vaults, safe deposit boxes, or other receptacles for the uses, purposes, and benefits of the financial institution’s customers.

Subd. 3. [OWNER.] “Owner” means one or more persons, jointly or severally, who are either the owner of a self-service storage facility, or the lessor of an entire self-service storage facility, and who receive rent from an occupant under a rental agreement entered into with the occupant.

Subd. 4. [OCCUPANT.] “Occupant” means a person who rents an enclosure, cubicle, or room at a self-service storage facility under a rental agreement entered into with the owner.

Subd. 5. [RENTAL AGREEMENT.] “Rental agreement” means a written agreement that is entered into by the owner and the occupant and that establishes the terms and conditions of the occupant’s use of enclosures, cubicles, or rooms at a self-service storage facility.

Subd. 6. [PERSONAL PROPERTY.] “Personal property” means money and every inanimate tangible thing that is the subject of ownership. The term does not include anything forming part of a parcel of real estate and agricultural commodities.

Subd. 7. [DEFAULT.] “Default” means failure of the occupant to pay the rent and other charges becoming due under the rental agreement within 15 days of the rents and other charges becoming due under the terms of the rental agreement.

Sec. 3. [504.32] [RENTAL AGREEMENTS.]

The rental agreement between the owner and the occupant must include a disclosure of the rights of the owner upon failure of the occupant to pay rent, and the extent and the limits of insurance carried by the owner covering the occupant's personal property stored in the leased premises. A rental agreement may not include an exculpatory clause. The rental agreement must request the occupant to insert an alternate mailing address.

Sec. 4. [504.33] [DISCLOSURE AND ACTIONS.]

Subdivision 1. [DISCLOSURE.] There must be disclosed to the occupant either in the rental agreement or otherwise in writing prior to commencement of the occupancy the name and address of:

(1) the person authorized to manage the premises; and

(2) an owner of the premises or an agent authorized by the owner to accept service of process and receive and give receipt for notices and demands.

Subd. 2. [POSTING OF NOTICE.] A printed or typewritten notice containing the information that must be disclosed under subdivision 1 must be placed in a conspicuous place on the premises.

Subd. 3. [ALTERNATE SERVICE.] If subdivisions 1 and 2 have not been complied with and an occupant desiring to make service of process upon or give a notice or demand to the owner does not know the name and address of the owner or the owner's agent, as that term is used in subdivision 1, then a caretaker or manager of the premises or an individual to whom rental payments for the premises are made is considered to be an agent authorized to accept service of process and receive and give receipt for notices and demands on behalf of the owner.

Subd. 4. [ACTION.] Except as otherwise provided in this subdivision, an owner may not maintain an action to recover rent or possession of the premises unless the information required by this section has been disclosed to the occupant, or unless the information is known by or has been disclosed to the occupant at least 30 days prior to the initiation of the action. Failure by the owner to post a notice required by subdivision 2 does not prevent any action to recover rent or possession of the premises.

Subd. 5. [APPLICATION.] This section applies to any successor owner, caretaker, manager, or individual to whom rental payments for the storage space are made.

Sec. 5. [504.34] [DEFAULT.]

If an occupant defaults in the payment of rent or otherwise breaches the rental agreement, the owner may commence an unlawful detainer action under section 566.01.

Sec. 6. [504.35] [WAIVER OR MODIFICATION PROHIBITED.]

The owner and occupant may not waive or modify the provisions of sections 1 to 8.

Sec. 7. [504.36] [ADVERTISING.]

An owner may not advertise or represent its services, or permit its services to be advertised or represented, in a manner that uses the word "warehouse" or "storage" unless the owner is licensed and bonded as provided in chapter 231.

Sec. 8. [504.37] [ENFORCEMENT.]

The rights and remedies of owners and occupants under sections 1 to 7 must be enforced in accordance with the provisions contained therein.

Sec. 9. [EFFECTIVE DATE.]

Sections 1 to 8 are effective August 1, 1988, and apply to rental agreements entered into on or after that date."

The plan must provide that any deductible will not apply to claims that arise while a motor vehicle is being rented by a named insured property damage liability portion of the plan. The obligation of the plan must not be contingent on fault or negligence. In all cases where the plan's property damage liability coverage is less than $25,000, the coverage available under the subdivision must be $25,000. Other than as described in this paragraph, nothing in this

The notice must be approved by the commissioner of commerce. The commissioner may specify the form of the notice. A form approved by the commissioner must be reasonably calculated to put the insured on notice of the coverage.

(f) When a motor vehicle is rented or leased in this state on a weekly or daily basis, the rental contract must contain a written notice in at least 10-point bold type, if printed, or in capital letters, if typewritten, which states:

H. F. No. 89, A bill for an act relating to animals; providing for the return of lost animals to their owners; prohibiting transfer of certain dogs and cats for use in research; providing a penalty; amending Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 35.71.

Reported the same back with the following amendments:

Delete everything after the enacting clause and insert:

"Section 1. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 35.71, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [STRAY ANIMALS; SEIZURE, DISPOSITION.] All animals seized by public authority must be held for redemption by the owner for at least five regular business days of the impounding agency or for a longer time specified by municipal ordinance. At least one of the business days must be a Saturday or Sunday. For the purpose of this subdivision, "regular business day" means a day during which the establishment having custody of an animal is open to the public not less than four consecutive hours between the hours of 8:00 a.m. and 7:00 p.m. Establishments must maintain the following records of the animals in custody, and preserve the records for at least six months:

(a) the description of the animal by species, breed, sex, approximate age, and other distinguishing traits;

(b) the location at which the animal was seized;

(c) the date of seizure;

(d) the name and address of the person from whom any animal three months of age or over was received; and

(e) the name and address of the person to whom any animal three months of age or over was transferred.

The records must be maintained in a form permitting easy perusal by the public. A person may view the records and animals in custody at any time during which the establishment is open to the public. At the end of the five-day period, all animals which remain unredeemed must be made available to any licensed institution which has requested that number of animals. ~~However, if a tag affixed to the animal or a statement by the animal's owner after the animal's seizure specifies that the animal may not be used for research, the animal must not be made available to any institution and may, in the discretion of the establishment, be destroyed after the expiration of the five-day period.~~ If a request is made by a licensed institution to an establishment for more animals than are available at the time of the request, the establishment must withhold from destruction all unclaimed and unredeemed animals until the request has been filled. The actual expense of holding animals beyond the time of notice to the institution of their availability must be borne by the institution receiving them. An establishment which fails or refuses to comply with this section is ineligible for any further public funds from any county or municipality. Upon receipt of a sworn statement by an authorized officer or employee of a licensed institution of noncompliance by any establishment with this section, the treasurer of any municipality or other political subdivision of the state may not pay any public funds to the establishment until the complainant withdraws its statement of noncompliance or until the board either determines that the complaint of noncompliance was without foundation or that the establishment has given adequate assurance of future compliance and the treasurer of the municipality or other political subdivision has been notified of the determination in writing. If it appears upon a person's complaint that an officer, agent, or employee of an establishment is violating or failing to carry out the provisions of this section, the attorney general or county attorney of the county in which the establishment is located, in addition to any other remedies, may bring an action in the name of the state against the establishment, officer, agent, or employee to enjoin compliance with this section.

Sec. 2. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 35.71, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Sec. 3. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 35.71, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 3b. [DOGS AND CATS BEARING IDENTIFICATION.] An establishment shall check for identification on each dog or cat, identify the owner by the identification whenever possible, and promptly notify the owner of the location of the animal by the most expedient means. An establishment may not convey to an institution a dog or cat with a collar or other form of identification attached, unless there is in the possession of the establishment a surrender form signed by the owner of the dog or cat that it may be released to an institution for research and teaching.

Sec. 4. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 35.71, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 3c. [DISPOSITION OF DOGS AND CATS.] Dogs and cats not returned to their owners or conveyed to institutions must be adopted out as pet and companion animals or humanely euthanized. An establishment may not transfer dogs or cats to dealers, as defined in section 347.31, subdivision 4, or out-of-state institutions.

Sec. 5. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 35.71, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 3d. [NOTICE TO PUBLIC.] An establishment that conveys dogs and cats to institutions must post a conspicuous notice at the establishment's site where dogs and cats are surrendered and must place a notice on each surrender form. The notice must state that dogs and cats left with the establishment may be conveyed to an institution for research and teaching purposes.

Sec. 6. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 35.71, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 4a. [RECOVERY OF DOGS AND CATS.] An institution that receives dogs and cats from an establishment must have a procedure for permitting the owner of a lost dog or cat to determine if the institution has the animal.

Similarly, the commission may increase the level of the telephone assistance plan credit that is available or reduce the surcharge to a level and for a period of time that will prevent an unreasonable overcollection of surcharge revenues.

Subd. 8. [SPECIAL REQUIREMENTS FOR HEALTH-RELATED LICENSING BOARDS.] In addition to the provisions of this section that apply to all examining and licensing boards, the requirements in this subdivision apply to all health-related licensing boards, except the board of veterinary medicine.

(a) If the executive director or consulted board member determines that a communication received alleges a violation of statute or rule that involves sexual contact with a patient or client, the communication shall be forwarded to the designee of the attorney general for an investigation of the facts alleged in the communication. If, after an investigation it is the opinion of the executive director or consulted board member that there is sufficient evidence to justify disciplinary action, the board shall conduct a disciplinary conference or hearing. If, after a hearing or disciplinary conference the board determines that misconduct involving sexual contact with a patient or client occurred, the board shall take disciplinary action. Notwithstanding subdivision 2, a board may not attempt to correct improper activities or redress grievances through education, conciliation, and persuasion, unless in the opinion of the executive director or consulted board member there is insufficient evidence to justify disciplinary action. The board may settle a case by stipulation prior to, or during, a hearing if the stipulation provides for disciplinary action.

(b) In addition to the information required under section 214.07, subdivision 1, each board shall include in its reports to the legislature summaries of each individual case that involved possible sexual contact with a patient or client. The summary must include a description of the alleged misconduct; the general results of the investigation; the nature of board activities relating to that case; the disposition of the case; and the reasons for board decisions concerning the disposition of the case. (d) Each health-related licensing board shall establish procedures for exchanging information with other Minnesota state boards, agencies, and departments responsible for licensing health-related occupations, facilities, and programs, and for coordinating investigations involving matters within the jurisdiction of more than one licensing body. The procedures must provide for the forwarding to other licensing bodies of all information and evidence, including the results of investigations, that are relevant to matters within that licensing body's regulatory jurisdiction. Each health-related licensing board shall have access to any data of the department of human services relating to a person subject to the jurisdiction of the licensing board. The data shall have the same classification under sections 13.01 to 13.88, the Minnesota government data practices act, in the hands of the agency receiving the data as it had in the hands of the department of human services.

(e) Each health-related licensing board shall establish procedures for exchanging information with other states regarding disciplinary actions against licensees. The procedures must provide for the collection of information from other states about disciplinary actions taken against persons who are licensed to practice in Minnesota or who have applied to be licensed in this state and the dissemination of information to other states regarding disciplinary actions taken in Minnesota. In addition to any authority in chapter 13 permitting the dissemination of data, the board may, in its discretion, disseminate data to other states regardless of its classification under chapter 13. Before transferring any data that is not public, the board shall obtain reasonable assurances from the receiving state that the data will not be made public.

H. F. No. 1953, A bill for an act relating to the metropolitan area; authorizing coordinated erosion and sediment control programs by water management organizations and the Association of Metropolitan Soil and Water Conservation Districts.

Reported the same back with the following amendments:

Delete everything after the enacting clause and insert:

“Section 1. [LEGISLATIVE FINDINGS.]

The legislature finds that the lands and waters of Ramsey county are great natural resources; that as a result of erosion of lands and sediment deposition in waters of the region, waters are being polluted and despoiled to a degree that fish, aquatic life, recreation, and other uses of lands and waters are being adversely affected; that the rapid shift in land use from agricultural to nonagricultural uses has accelerated the processes of soil erosion and sedimentation. Implementation of the metropolitan surface water planning act in Ramsey county requires a coordinated effort in that county, and the state of Minnesota may benefit from a pilot program within that county. The legislature further finds it is necessary to establish and implement through the soil and water conservation district in cooperation with water management organizations, cities, towns, and other public and private entities in that county, a county-wide coordinated erosion and sediment control pilot program to conserve and to protect the land, water, and other natural resources of Ramsey county.

Sec. 2. [DEFINITIONS.]

Subdivision 1. [APPLICABILITY.] The definitions in this section apply to sections 1 to 4.

Subd. 2. [CONSERVATION SPECIFICATIONS.] “Conservation specifications” means the management procedures, techniques, and methods to control soil erosion and sedimentation as officially adopted by the district board.

Subd. 4. [DISTRICT PROGRAM.] "District program" means the erosion and sediment control program adopted by the district consisting of conservation specifications to minimize erosion and sedimentation and a model ordinance for adoption by the district.

Subd. 5. [LAND DISTURBANCE ACTIVITY.] "Land disturbance activity" means land change that may result in soil erosion from water or wind and the movement of sediments into or upon waters or lands of Ramsey county, including clearing, grading, excavating, transporting, and filling of land. Land disturbance activity does not mean:

(1) minor land disturbance activities such as home gardens and individual home landscaping, repairs, and maintenance work;

(2) construction, installation, maintenance of electric and telephone utility lines or individual service connection to the utility lines;

(3) septic tank lines or drainage fields unless included in an overall plan for a land disturbance activity relating to construction of a building to be served by the septic tank system;

(4) tilling, planting, or harvesting of agricultural, horticultural, or silvicultural crops;

(5) preparation for single-family residences separately built, unless in conjunction with multiple construction in subdivision development;

(6) disturbed land areas for commercial or noncommercial uses of less than 10,000 square feet in size, except that the governing body of the statutory or home rule charter city, town, or organization may reduce this exception to a smaller area of disturbed land or qualify the conditions under which this exception applies;

(7) installation of fence, sign, telephone, and electric poles and other kinds of posts or poles; and

(8) emergency work to protect life, limb, or property and emergency repairs, except if the land disturbing activity would have required an approved erosion and sediment control plan except for the emergency, then the land area disturbed shall be shaped and stabilized in accordance with the requirement of the local plan-approving authority or the district when applicable.

Subd. 6. [ORGANIZATION.] "Organization" means a watershed district established under Minnesota Statutes, chapter 112, or a joint powers entity under Minnesota Statutes, section 471.59, within Ramsey county that has the characteristics and the authority specified in Minnesota Statutes, section 473.877, and has more than 25 percent of its area within Ramsey county. Lake improvement or conservation districts are not watershed management organizations.

Subd. 7. [ORGANIZATION SOIL EROSION AND SEDIMENT CONTROL PROGRAM.] "Organization soil erosion and sediment control program" means the soil erosion and sediment control program of the organization. The program must set forth the elements or methods to be employed by a watershed management organization to regulate land disturbance activities to minimize erosion and sedimentation in compliance with the program.

Sec. 3. [EROSION AND SEDIMENT CONTROL PROGRAM.]

Subdivision 1. [ESTABLISHMENT.] The district shall develop a pilot program that contains a model ordinance and conservation specifications for the effective control of soil erosion and sediment deposition that must be met in an organization soil erosion and sediment control program. To assist in the development of the pilot program, the district shall seek the advice of appropriate state and federal agencies, local units of government, and representatives of interests such as residential development and nonresidential development.

Subd. 2. [PROGRAM CONTENTS.] The district pilot program shall contain:

(1) relevant physical and developmental information concerning the region, including data relating to land use, soils, hydrology, geology, size of land area being disturbed, proximate water bodies and their characteristics, transportation, and public facilities and services;

(2) a model ordinance;

(3) principles for protecting existing vegetation, adequate revegetation schedules, and run-off control measures; and

(4) conservation specifications and alternative methods for the control of erosion and sediment resulting from land disturbance activities.

Subd. 3. [PROGRAM IMPLEMENTATION.] To implement the district pilot program, the district shall develop and adopt by January 1989 a model ordinance and conservation specifications for soil erosion and sediment control. The district may revise its pilot program as necessary. The district shall give due notice and conduct at least one public hearing on the proposed pilot program before addition or revision.

Subd. 4. [INSPECTION OF PROGRAM.] The program shall be made available for public inspection at the office of the district.

Sec. 4. [ORGANIZATION SOIL EROSION AND SEDIMENT CONTROL PROGRAMS.]

Subdivision 1. [ADOPTION.] Each organization in the district must, within nine months after the adoption of the district program, develop and adopt an organization soil erosion and sediment control program consistent with the district program. Upon written request of an organization, the district shall assist in the preparation of the organization program. The organization shall adopt an organization soil erosion and sediment control program as approved by the district.

Subd. 2. [FAILURE TO ADOPT AN ORGANIZATION PROGRAM.] If an organization fails to adopt an organization soil erosion and sediment control program within the required period, the board of water and soil resources may not approve the watershed plan prepared under Minnesota Statutes, chapter 473. For currently approved plans, an amendment shall be submitted to the board of water and soil resources within one year for approval. If the amendment is not submitted, plan approval must be withdrawn.

Subd. 3. [HEARING REQUIREMENT.] (a) Notwithstanding any other provision of sections 1 to 4, organizations that have adopted local erosion and sediment control programs are not required to conduct public hearings to amend their local programs to conform with the district program except as provided in paragraph (b).

(b) Organizations that choose to adopt conservation specifications or an ordinance that are more stringent than the district program must conduct a public hearing after due notice.

Sec. 5. [RULES.]

Any rules promulgated by the board of water and soil resources pursuant to statute shall supersede any plans, rules, or ordinances enacted pursuant to this section to the extent they may be in conflict.

Sec. 6. [APPLICABILITY.]

Reported the same back with the following amendments:

Delete everything after the enacting clause and insert:

"Section 1. Minnesota Statutes 1987 Supplement, section 446A.04, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 6. [PROPERTY.] The authority may acquire, encumber, hold, and convey through lease, purchase, gift, or otherwise, any real or personal property.

Sec. 2. Minnesota Statutes 1987 Supplement, section 446A.04, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 7. [IN GENERAL.] The authority has all the powers necessary and convenient to carry out its duties under sections 3 to 13.

Sec. 3. Minnesota Statutes 1987 Supplement, section 446A.05, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [LOANS AND LOAN PURCHASES.] The authority may make and contract to make loans to governmental units to finance projects that the governmental unit may construct or acquire or may acquire or contract to acquire notes and bonds issued by governmental units to finance those projects. A loan may not be used to pay current expenses or obligations, except for temporary financing. A loan made by the authority must be secured by notes or bonds of the borrowing governmental unit.

Sec. 4. [446A.051] [PROJECT FINANCIAL ASSISTANCE.]

The authority shall assist eligible governmental units in determining what grants or loans under sections 446A.06 and 446A.07 to apply for to finance projects and the manner in which the governmental unit will pay for its portion of the project cost. The authority shall review the proposed financing for each project certified by the agency to ascertain whether or not: (1) total financing of a project is assured; and (2) the governmental unit's financial plan to pay for its portion of the project cost is feasible.

Sec. 5. [446A.12] [ISSUANCE OF BONDS.]

Subdivision 1. [BONDING AUTHORITY.] The authority may issue negotiable bonds in a principal amount that the authority determines necessary to provide sufficient funds for achieving its purposes, including the making of loans and purchase of securities, the payment of interest on bonds of the authority, the establishment of reserves to secure its bonds, the payment of fees to a third party providing credit enhancement, and the payment of all other expenditures of the authority incident to and necessary or convenient to carry out its corporate purposes and powers. Bonds of the authority may be issued as bonds or notes or in any other form authorized by law. The principal amount of bonds issued and outstanding under this section at any time may not exceed $100,000,000.

Subd. 2. [REFUNDING OF BONDS.] The authority may issue bonds to refund outstanding bonds of the authority, to pay any redemption premiums on those bonds, and to pay interest accrued or to accrue to the redemption date next succeeding the date of delivery of the refunding bonds. The authority may apply the proceeds of any refunding bonds to the purchase or payment at maturity of the bonds to be refunded, or to the redemption of outstanding bonds on the redemption date next succeeding the date of delivery of the refunding bonds and may, pending the application, place the proceeds in escrow to be applied to the purchase, retirement, or redemption. Pending use, escrowed proceeds may be invested and reinvested in obligations issued or guaranteed by the state or the United States or by any agency or instrumentality of the state or the United States, or in certificates of deposit or time deposits secured in a manner determined by the authority, maturing at a time appropriate to assure the prompt payment of the principal and interest and redemption premiums, if any, on the bonds to be refunded. The income realized on any investment may also be applied to the payment of the bonds to be refunded. After the terms of the escrow have been fully satisfied, any balance of the proceeds and any investment income may be returned to the authority for use by it in any lawful manner. All refunding bonds issued under this subdivision must be issued and secured in the manner provided by resolution of the authority.

Subd. 3. [KIND OF BONDS.] Bonds issued under this section must be negotiable investment securities within the meaning and for all purposes of the uniform commercial code, subject only to the provisions of the bonds for registration. The bonds issued may be either general obligations of the authority, secured by its full faith and credit and payable out of any money, assets, or revenues of the authority, subject to the provisions of resolutions or indenture pledging and appropriating particular money, assets, or revenues to particular bonds, or limited obligations of the authority not secured by its full faith and credit and payable solely from specified sources or assets.

Subd. 4. [RESOLUTION AND TERMS OF SALE.] The bonds of the authority must be authorized by a resolution or resolutions adopted by the authority. The bonds must bear the date or dates, mature at the time or times, bear interest at a fixed or variable rate, including a rate varying periodically at the time or times and on the terms determined by the authority, or any combination of fixed and variable rates, be in the denominations, be in the form, carry the registration privileges, be executed in the manner, be payable in lawful money of the United States, at the place or places within or without the state, and be subject to the terms of redemption or purchase before maturity as the resolutions or certificates provide. If, for any reason existing at the date of issue of the bonds or existing at the date of making or purchasing any loan or securities from the proceeds or after that date, the interest on the bonds is or becomes subject to federal income taxation, this fact does not affect the validity or the provisions made for the security of the bonds. The authority may make covenants and take or have taken actions that are in its judgment necessary or desirable to comply with conditions established by federal law or regulations for the exemption of interest on its obligations. The authority may refrain from compliance with those conditions if in its judgment this would serve the purposes and policies set forth in this chapter with respect to any particular issue of bonds, unless this would violate covenants made by the authority. The maximum maturity of a bond, whether or not issued for the purpose of refunding, must be 30 years from its date. The bonds of the authority may be sold at public or private sale, at a price or prices determined by the authority; provided that (i) the aggregate price at which an issue of bonds is initially offered by underwriters to investors, as stated in the authority's official statement with respect to the offering, must not exceed by more than three percent the aggregate price paid by the underwriters to the authority at the time of delivery; (ii) the commission paid by the authority to an underwriter for placing an issue of bonds with investors must not exceed three percent of the aggregate price at which the issue is offered to investors as stated in the authority's offering statement; and (iii) the spread or commission must be an amount determined by the authority to be reasonable in the light of the risk assumed and the expenses of issuance, if any, required to be paid by the underwriters.

Sec. 6. [446A.13] [TENDER OPTION.]

An obligation may be issued giving its owner the right to tender or the authority to demand tender of the obligation to the authority or another person designated by it, for purchase at a specified time or times, if the authority has first entered into an agreement with a suitable financial institution obligating the financial institution to provide funds on a timely basis for purchase of bonds tendered. The obligation is not considered to mature on any tender date and the purchase of a tendered obligation is not considered a payment or discharge of the obligation by the authority. Obligations tendered for purchase may be remarketed by or on behalf of the authority or another purchaser. The authority may enter into agreements it considers appropriate to provide for the purchase and remarketing of tendered obligations, including:

(1) provisions under which undelivered obligations may be considered tendered for purchase and new obligations may be substituted for them;

(2) provisions for the payment of charges of tender agents, remarketing agents, and financial institutions extending lines of credit or letters of credit assuring repurchase; and

(3) provisions for reimbursement of advances under letters of credit that may be paid from the proceeds of the obligations or from tax and other revenues appropriated for the payment and security of the obligations and similar or related provisions.

Sec. 7. [446A.14] [INTEREST EXCHANGES.]

The authority may enter into an agreement with a third party for an exchange of interest rates under this subdivision. With respect to outstanding obligations bearing interest at a variable rate, the authority may agree to pay sums equal to interest at a fixed rate or at a different variable rate determined in accordance with a formula set out in the agreement on an amount not exceeding the outstanding principal amount of the obligations, in exchange for an agreement by the third party to pay sums equal to interest on a similar amount at a variable rate determined according to a formula set out in the agreement. With respect to outstanding obligations bearing interest at a fixed rate or rates, the authority may agree to pay sums equal to interest at a variable rate determined according to a formula set out in the agreement on an amount not exceeding the outstanding principal amount of the obligations in exchange for an agreement by the third party to pay sums equal to interest on a similar amount at a fixed rate or rates set out in the agreement. Subject to any applicable bonds covenants, payments required to be made by the municipality under the swap agreement may be made from amounts secured to pay debt service on the obligations with respect to which the swap agreement was made from any other available source of the authority.

Sec. 8. [446A.15] [BOND FUND.]

Subdivision 1. [CREATION AND CONTENTS.] The authority may establish a special fund or funds for the security of one or more or all series of its bonds. The funds must be known as debt service reserve funds. The authority may pay into each debt service reserve fund:

(1) any money appropriated by the state only for the purposes of the fund;

(2) the proceeds of sale of bonds to the extent provided in the resolution or indenture authorizing the issuance of them;

(3) funds directed to be transferred by the authority to the debt service reserve fund; and

(4) other money made available to the authority from any other source only for the purpose of the fund.

Subd. 2. [USE OF FUNDS.] Except as provided in this section, the money credited to each debt service reserve fund must be used only for the payment of the principal of bonds of the authority as they mature, the purchase of the bonds, the payment of interest on them, or the payment of any premium required when the bonds are redeemed before maturity. Money in a debt service reserve fund must not be withdrawn at a time and in an amount that reduces the amount of the fund to less than the amount the authority determines to be reasonably necessary for the purposes of the fund. However, money may be withdrawn to pay principal or interest due on bonds secured by the fund if other money of the authority is not available.

Subd. 3. [INVESTMENT.] Money in a debt service reserve fund not required for immediate use may be invested in accordance with section 446A.11, subdivision 9, paragraph (b).

Subd. 4. [MINIMUM AMOUNT OF RESERVE AT ISSUANCE.] If the authority establishes a debt service reserve fund for the security of any series of bonds, it shall not issue additional bonds that are similarly secured if the amount of any of the debt service reserve funds at the time of issuance does not equal or exceed the minimum amount required by the resolution creating the fund, unless the authority deposits in each fund at the time of issuance, from the proceeds of the bonds, or otherwise, an amount that when added together with the amount then in the fund will be at least the minimum amount required.

Subd. 5. [TRANSFER OF EXCESS.] To the extent consistent with the resolutions and indentures securing outstanding bonds, the authority may at the close of a fiscal year transfer to any other fund or account from any debt service reserve fund any excess in that reserve fund over the amount determined by the authority to be reasonably necessary for the purpose of the reserve fund.

Subd. 6. [CERTIFICATION AND BUDGET REQUEST.] To assure the payment of the principal of and interest on bonds of the authority and the continued maintenance of all debt service reserve funds created and established for that payment, the authority shall annually determine and certify to the governor, on or before December 1, the following amounts:

(1) the amount then needed to restore each debt service reserve fund to the minimum amount required by the resolution or indenture establishing the fund, but not exceeding the maximum amount of principal and interest to become due and payable in any later year on all bonds that are then outstanding and secured by the fund; and

(2) the amount determined by the authority to be needed in the immediately ensuing fiscal year, with other funds pledged and estimated to be received during that year, for the payment of the principal and interest due and payable in that year on all then outstanding bonds secured by a debt service reserve fund the amount of which is then less than the minimum amount agreed.

The governor shall include in the proposed biennial budget for the following fiscal year, or in a supplemental budget if the biennial budget has previously been approved, the amounts certified by the authority in accordance with this subdivision.

Sec. 9. [446A.16] [MONEY OF THE AUTHORITY.]

Subdivision 1. [FUNCTIONS OF STATE TREASURER.] Except as otherwise provided in this section, money of the authority must be paid to the state treasurer as agent of the authority and the treasurer shall not commingle the money with other money. The money in the accounts of the authority must be paid out only on warrants drawn by the commissioner of finance on requisition of the chair of the authority or of another officer or employee as the authority authorizes. Deposits of the authority's money must, if required by the state treasurer or the authority, be secured by obligations of the United States or of the state of a market value equal at all times to the amount of the deposit and all banks and trust companies are authorized to give security for the deposits.

Subd. 2. [CONTRACTS AND SECURITY.] Notwithstanding the provisions of this section, the authority may, with the approval of the state treasurer, contract with the holders of any of its bonds as to the custody, collection, securing, investment, and payment of money of the authority or money held in trust or otherwise for the payment of bonds, and to carry out the contract. Money held in trust or otherwise for the payment of bonds or in any way to secure bonds and deposits of the money may be secured in the same manner as money of the authority, and all banks and trust companies are authorized to give security for the deposits. All money paid to the state treasurer as agent of the authority is appropriated to the authority.

Subd. 3. [SYSTEM OF ACCOUNTS.] Subject to agreements with bondholders, the commissioner of finance shall prescribe a system of accounts.

Sec. 10. [446A.17] [NONLIABILITY.]

Subdivision 1. [NONLIABILITY OF INDIVIDUALS.] No member of the authority or other person executing the bonds is liable personally on the bonds or is subject to any personal liability or accountability by reason of their issuance.

Subd. 2. [NONLIABILITY OF STATE.] The state is not liable on bonds of the authority issued under this chapter and those bonds are not a debt of the state. The bonds must contain on their face a statement to that effect.

Sec. 11. [446A.18] [PURCHASE AND CANCELLATION BY AUTHORITY.]

Subd. 3. [NONPROFIT CORPORATION.] “Nonprofit corporation” means the entity formed in accordance with section 2, subdivision 1.

Sec. 2. [INCORPORATION AS NONPROFIT CORPORATION.]

Subd. 2. [EMPLOYEES.] (a) Employees of the nonprofit corporation are not state or other public employees. Coverage of board employees under the Minnesota state retirement system ceases, for purposes of future services, at the time of incorporation under subdivision 1.

(b) A person who on the day immediately preceding incorporation under subdivision 1 is an employee of the board and a member of the Minnesota state retirement system is entitled to disability benefits or to a retirement annuity, whichever is applicable, notwithstanding any years of allowable service requirements in Minnesota Statutes, chapter 352 or 356, upon meeting other requirements for these benefits or annuities. For a person with less than five years of allowable service, the benefit or annuity shall be calculated based on the average salary for the person’s entire period of allowable service.

(c) Notwithstanding any law to the contrary, for an employee covered by this subdivision who elects to leave accumulated contributions in the Minnesota state retirement system and be entitled to a deferred retirement annuity, the deferred annuity must be calculated as provided in Minnesota Statutes, section 352.72, subdivision

Subd. 4. [LEASEHOLD INTEREST.] Notwithstanding subdivision 3, the city of St. Paul and Ramsey county shall grant the nonprofit corporation a leasehold interest in the areas of buildings owned by the board under article 2 of the February 19, 1975, agreement. Except as otherwise provided in this act or agreed to by the nonprofit corporation, the city, and the county, the terms of the lease must be no less favorable to the nonprofit corporation than the terms of the board's occupancy. The lease must be for a term of 30 years, but is terminable by the nonprofit corporation if the nonprofit corporation vacates those areas entirely or partially, by the nonprofit corporation or the city and county if the nonprofit corporation ceases to provide services and training in medical and surgical care of children with handicaps or disabilities in the leased areas, or upon mutual agreement of the parties. Unless agreed to by the city and the county, the leasehold interest under this subdivision may be transferred by the nonprofit corporation only to a successor nonprofit corporation into which the nonprofit corporation may merge, of which it may become a subsidiary, or that may be formed by the nonprofit corporation and another nonprofit corporation. The leasehold interest may also be transferred to the city of St. Paul and Ramsey county without limitation as to use.

(10) require a borrower to obtain a policy of insurance covering the mortgaged property that exceeds the replacement cost of the buildings on the mortgaged property, provided that a mortgage banker is not prohibited from requiring that a policy of insurance or renewal thereof be in conformance with the standards of the Federal National Mortgage Association or the Federal Home Loan Mortgage Corporation;

Subd. 2. [GENERAL OR INDIVIDUAL MORTGAGE BROKERS.] No person, whether or not licensed under this chapter, while brokering a mortgage loan shall:

(1) except for documented out-of-pocket expenses paid or to be paid to third parties and which are necessary to obtain a loan commitment, receive compensation from a borrower until a written commitment to make a mortgage loan is given to the borrower by a mortgage banker or loan officer;

(2) fail to deposit in a trust account, within 48 hours of receipt, all fees received prior to the time a loan is actually funded. The trust account must be in a depository financial institution located within Minnesota;

(3) receive compensation from a borrower in connection with any mortgage loan transaction in which the general mortgage broker or individual mortgage broker is the mortgage banker, loan officer, or a principal stockholder, partner, trustee, director, or officer of the mortgage banker;

(4) receive compensation from the borrower other than that specified in a written agreement signed by the borrower; or

(5) receive compensation from the borrower for acting as a general mortgage broker or individual mortgage broker without first entering into a written contract with the borrower that:

(i) identifies the trust account into which the fees or consideration will be deposited;

(ii) sets forth the circumstances under which the general and individual mortgage broker will be entitled to disbursement from the trust account;

(iii) sets forth the circumstances under which the borrower will be entitled to a refund of all or part of the fee;

(iv) specifically describes the services to be provided by the general and individual mortgage broker and the dates by which the services will be performed;

(v) states the maximum rate of interest to be charged on any loan obtained;

(vi) discloses, with respect to the 12-month period ending ten business days prior to the date of the contract in question, the percentage of the general mortgage broker's customers for whom loans have actually been funded as a result of the mortgage broker's services (this disclosure need not be made for any period before the effective date of this statute); and

(vii) discloses the cancellation rights and procedures in section 13.

Sec. 13. [57.13] [CANCELLATION.]

A customer of a general or individual mortgage broker who pays a fee before the time the loan is actually funded has an unconditioned right to rescind the contract for mortgage brokerage services at any time until midnight of the third business day after the day on which the contract is signed. Cancellation is evidenced by the customer giving written notice of cancellation to the general mortgage broker at the address stated in the contract. Notice of cancellation, if given by mail, is effective upon deposit in a mailbox properly addressed to the general mortgage broker with postage prepaid. Notice of cancellation need not take a particular form and is sufficient if it indicates by any form of written expression the intention of the customer not to be bound by the contract. No act of a customer of a general or individual mortgage broker is effective to waive the right to rescind as provided in this section.

Sec. 14. [57.14] [DENIAL, SUSPENSION, OR REVOCATION OF LICENSE.]

In addition to the powers granted in section 45.027, subdivision 7, the commissioner may deny, suspend, or revoke any mortgage banker's, general mortgage broker's, loan officer's, or individual mortgage broker's license issued under this chapter for:

(1) conviction of a felony or misdemeanor involving fraud, misrepresentation, or deceit;

(2) entry of a judgment against the mortgage banker, loan officer, general mortgage broker, or individual mortgage broker involving fraud, misrepresentation, or deceit;

(3) entry of a federal or state administrative order against the mortgage banker, loan officer, general mortgage broker, or individual mortgage broker for violation of any law or any regulation applicable to the conduct of the licensed business.

For the purposes of this section and section 45.027, acts of an officer, employee, director, partner, or principal stockholder are considered to be acts of the mortgage banker or mortgage broker.

Sec. 15. [57.15] [RIGHT TO USE THE TERM MORTGAGE BANKER OR GENERAL MORTGAGE BROKER.]

Subdivision 1. [RESTRICTION.] No persons making or brokering a mortgage loan or administering an escrow account, including persons exempt from the licensing requirements of this chapter, may advertise or represent themselves to be a mortgage banker or general mortgage broker unless licensed as provided in this chapter or unless the person elects licensure for employees who perform the functions defined in section 3, subdivisions 8 and 10, pursuant to section 16.

Subd. 2. [PENALTY.] A person who willfully violates this section is guilty of a misdemeanor and may be fined not more than $700 or imprisoned not more than 90 days, or both. Each act in violation of this section constitutes a separate offense and a prosecution or conviction for any violation of this section does not bar prosecution or conviction for another violation under this section.

Sec. 16. [57.16] [RIGHT OF FINANCIAL INSTITUTION TO ELECT LOAN OFFICER AND INDIVIDUAL MORTGAGE BROKER LICENSURE.]

(a) Notwithstanding the exemption provided in section 4, an exempt financial institution may elect licensing for its employees if each employee who performs the functions defined in section 3, subdivisions 8 and 10 holds a loan officer or individual mortgage broker license. Employees of exempt institutions who hold a loan officer's or individual mortgage broker's license shall comply with the requirements of this chapter as if they were licensed to a mortgage banker or general mortgage broker.

(b) A financial institution that elects licensing for its employees does not forfeit its right to the exemption provided in section 4 by virtue of the election.

Sec. 17. [57.17] [MORTGAGE BANKER AND GENERAL MORTGAGE BROKER; REPORT OF VIOLATIONS TO COMMISSIONER.]

A person, whether or not licensed under this chapter, while making or brokering a mortgage loan or administering an escrow account shall report a violation of this chapter by an employee to the commissioner. The report shall be made within a reasonable time after that person has knowledge of the violation. The commissioner shall prescribe the manner and form of the report. The making of a report of a violation to the commissioner shall not provide grounds for any action for libel, slander, or defamation by an employee against an employer, unless the employer knows that the report is false or acts with reckless disregard for the truth or falsity of the report.

A person who fails to report a violation is guilty of a misdemeanor and may be fined not more than $700 or imprisoned not more than 90 days, or both. Each act in violation of this section constitutes a separate offense and a prosecution or conviction for any violation of this section does not bar prosecution or conviction for another violation under this section.

Sec. 18. [57.18] [RULES.]

The commissioner may adopt rules the commissioner considers appropriate to administer this chapter.

Sec. 19. Minnesota Statutes 1987 Supplement, section 82.17, subdivision 4, is amended to read:

Sec. 22. [COMMERCE DEPARTMENT REPORT.]

"ARTICLE 1

INSURANCE REGULATIONS

Section 1. Minnesota Statutes 1987 Supplement, section 62I.02, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [CREATION.] The Minnesota joint underwriting association is created to provide insurance coverage to any person or entity unable to obtain insurance through ordinary methods if the insurance is required by statute, ordinance, or otherwise required by law, or is necessary to earn a livelihood or conduct a business and serves a public purpose. Prudent business practice or mere desire to have insurance coverage is not a sufficient standard for the association to offer insurance coverage to a person or entity. For purposes of this subdivision, directors' and officers' liability insurance is considered to be a business necessity and not merely a prudent business practice. The association shall be specifically authorized to provide insurance coverage to day care providers, foster parents, foster homes, developmental achievement centers, group homes, and sheltered workshops for mentally, emotionally, or physically handicapped persons, ~~and~~ citizen participation groups established pursuant to the housing and community redevelopment act of 1974, Public Law Number 93-383, and surety bonds required by Minnesota Rules, part 2780.2700, for workers' compensation group self-insurers made up of truckers subject to licensing by the department of transportation. Because the activities of certain persons or entities present a risk that is so great, the association shall not offer insurance coverage to any person or entity the board of directors of the association determines is outside the intended scope and purpose of the association because of the gravity of the risk of offering insurance coverage. The association shall not offer environmental impairment liability or product liability insurance. The association shall not offer coverage for activities that are conducted substantially outside the state of Minnesota unless the insurance is required by statute, ordinance, or otherwise required by law. Every insurer authorized to write property and casualty insurance in this state shall be a member of the association as a condition to obtaining and retaining a license to write insurance in this state.

Sec. 2. [62I.065] [TRUCKERS' SURETY BOND.]

Subdivision 1. [JOINT AND SEVERAL LIABILITY REQUIRED.] Surety bonds may not be issued to workers' compensation group self-insurers made up of truckers licensed by the department of transportation if the members do not have joint and several liability.

Subd. 2. [RATE.] The rate for surety bonds which comply with subdivision 1 shall be 120 percent of the average rate for the surety bonds of all other workers' compensation group self-insurers.

Sec. 3. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 62I.07, is amended to read:

62I.07 [MEMBERSHIP ASSESSMENTS.]

(a) Each member of the association shall participate in its losses and expenses in the proportion that the direct written premiums of the member bears to the total aggregate direct written premiums written in this state by all members. The members' participation in the association shall be determined annually on the direct written premiums written during the preceding calendar year as reported on the annual statements and other reports filed by the member with the commissioner.

(b) Losses resulting from surety bonds for truckers groups that self-insure for workers' compensation shall be paid by the special compensation fund. The special compensation fund shall seek appropriations in each biennium for any amounts paid pursuant to this subdivision.

Sec. 4. [62I.166] [REINSURANCE ASSOCIATION TO ASSIST.]

The workers' compensation reinsurance association shall assist the association in any manner requested by the association in regard to surety bonds issued to trucker group self-insurers. This assistance may consist of the provision of data, the use of computer programs, or similar aid needed by the association in regard to the bonds. The workers' compensation reinsurance association must provide these services without cost to the association.

Sec. 5. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 62I.21, is amended to read:

62I.21 [ACTIVATION OF MARKET ASSISTANCE PLAN AND JOINT UNDERWRITING ASSOCIATION.]

At any time the commissioner of commerce deems it necessary to provide assistance with respect to the placement of general liability insurance coverage, including bonds, on Minnesota risks for a class of business, the commissioner shall by notice in the State Register activate the market assistance plan and the joint underwriting association. The plan and association are activated for a period of 180 days from publication of the notice. At the same time the notice is published, the commissioner shall prepare a written petition requesting that a hearing be held to determine whether activation of the market assistance plan and the joint underwriting association is necessary beyond the 180-day period. The hearing must be held in accordance with section 62I.22. The commissioner by order shall deactivate a market assistance program and the joint underwriting association at any time the commissioner finds that the market assistance program and the joint underwriting association are not necessary.

Sec. 6. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 79.01, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [TERMS.] Unless the language or context clearly indicates that a different meaning is intended, the following terms, for the purposes of sections 79.01 to ~~79.23~~ 36, shall have the meanings ascribed to them.

Sec. 7. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 79.074, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 3. [RATES.] One rate is unfairly discriminatory in relation to another if it clearly fails to reflect equitably the differences in expected losses, expenses, and the degree of risk. Rates are not unfairly discriminatory because different premiums result for policyholders with like loss exposures but different expense factors, or like expense factors but different loss exposures, so long as the rates reflect the differences with reasonable accuracy.

Sec. 8. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 79.074, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 4. [FLEXIBLE RANGE OF RATES.] An insurer may write insurance at rates that are lower than the rates approved by the commissioner provided the rates are not unfairly discriminatory.

Sec. 9. [79.253] [PRIOR RATES.]

Subdivision 1. Rates and rating plans that have been filed with the commissioner prior to January 1, 1988, pursuant to section 79.56 by insurers are conclusively presumed to satisfy the requirements of this act until the initial schedule of rates has been approved by order of the commissioner.

Subd. 2. If a rate was not filed by an insurer prior to January 1, 1988, then an insurer may file a rate for any classification for which a rate was not previously filed. This rate shall not be used until it is approved by the commissioner. The commissioner may approve a rate up to the rate level approved for use by the assigned risk plan for that rate class. These rates may remain in force until the commissioner has approved an initial schedule of rates pursuant to section 10, subdivision 4. If the commissioner disapproves of any rate or rating plan pursuant to authority granted in this subdivision, the disapproval shall not be subject to chapter 14 and the decision shall be final.

Subd. 3. Until the commissioner issues a rate order approving a schedule of rates pursuant to section 10, subdivision 4, an insurer may not, through the use of any rating plan charge a rate higher than the rates applicable to the insurer pursuant to subdivision 1 or 2. This subdivision does not prohibit the use of approved experience rate plans or retrospective rating plans which have been adopted in the filed rates by insurers, the assigned risk plan, or filed by a data service organization.

Sec. 10. [79.71] [RATES; HEARINGS.]

Subdivision 1. [ADOPTION OF INITIAL RATE SCHEDULE.]

The commissioner shall adopt a schedule of workers' compensation insurance rates for use in this state after June 30, 1989, for each classification under which business is written. The schedule of rates shall not be excessive, inadequate, or unfairly discriminatory. The adoption of the initial schedule of rates shall be by hearing held pursuant to the contested case procedures in chapter 14. In adopting a schedule of rates, the commissioner may act on the written petition of the association, the department of labor and industry, or any other interested party requesting that a hearing be held for modification of the schedule of rates.

Subd. 2. [PETITION FOR RATE HEARING.] Upon receipt of a petition requesting a hearing for modification of an existing schedule of rates, the commissioner shall determine whether the petition sufficiently sets forth facts that show that the existing schedule of rates is excessive, inadequate, unfairly discriminatory, or otherwise in need of modification so as to indicate the need to hold a hearing. If the association is a petitioner, the commissioner may decline to grant a hearing if the association has failed to provide information requested by previous orders modifying the schedule of rates, provided that the request was not unreasonable. The commissioner may accept or reject the petition for a hearing and shall give notice of a determination to the petitioning party within 90 days of receipt of the petition. If the commissioner rejects the petition, the commissioner shall notify the petitioning party of the reasons for the rejection. If the commissioner of labor and industry petitions the commissioner for a hearing pursuant to this section or section 13, the commissioner must hold a hearing if the commissioner of labor and industry certifies that the hearing is necessary because a decision of the supreme court, enactment of a statute or other circumstance has effected a substantial change in the basis upon which the existing schedule of rates was adopted. Upon such certification by the commissioner of labor and industry, the commissioner may, by order, modify the existing schedule of rates to reflect the supreme court's decision, enactment of statute, or other circumstance. The order modifying the schedule of rates is not subject to chapter 14 and shall remain in effect until the commissioner has made a final determination as required by subdivisions 4 and 5.

Subd. 3. [HEARING.] The commissioner shall determine, within 90 days of receipt of the petition whether to accept or reject the petition. If the commissioner accepts the petition for hearing, the commissioner shall order a hearing on matters set forth in the petition. The hearing shall be held pursuant to the contested case procedures in chapter 14. The burden of proof is on the petitioning party. The commissioner shall forward a copy of the order for hearing to the chief administrative law judge. The chief administrative law judge must, within 30 days of the receipt of the order, set a hearing date, assign an administrative law judge to hear the matter, and notify the commissioner of the hearing date and the administrative law judge assigned to hear the matter. The report of the administrative law judge must be issued within 180 days from the date of receipt of the order by the chief administrative law judge. The commissioner shall publish notice of the hearing in the State Register at least 20 days before the hearing date. The administrative law judge must admit documentary and statistical evidence accepted and relied upon by an expert whose expertise is related to workers' compensation rate matters, without the traditional evidentiary foundation. Approval of the notice prior to publication by the administrative law judge is not required. Within 60 days of the completion of the hearing, the administrative law judge must submit a report to the commissioner. The parties or the administrative law judge, if the parties cannot agree, shall adjust all time requirements under the contested case procedures to conform with the the time requirements set forth in this subdivision. After the close of the hearing record, the administrative law judge shall transmit to the commissioner the entire record of the hearing, including the transcript, exhibits, and all other material properly accepted into evidence, together with the finding of facts, conclusions, and recommended order made by the administrative law judge. The time for filing the report may be extended by the chief administrative law judge for good cause.

Subd. 4. [HEARING DETERMINATION.] The commissioner may accept, reject, or modify, in whole or in part, matters raised in the petition for modifications of the schedule of rates or matters raised in the findings and recommendations of the administrative law judge. The commissioner's determination shall be based upon substantial evidence.

Subd. 5. [DEADLINE FOR DETERMINATION.] The commissioner shall make a final determination with respect to adoption of a schedule of rates within 90 days after receipt of the administrative law judge's report. If the commissioner fails to act within the 90-day period, the findings, conclusions, and recommended order of the administrative law judge become the final order of the commissioner on the 91st day.

Subd. 6. [CONSULTANTS; COMMISSIONER OF COMMERCE.] The commissioner of commerce may hire consultants, including a consulting actuary and other experts, deemed necessary to assist in the establishment or modification of the schedule of rates. A sum sufficient to pay the costs of conducting the hearing provided under subdivision 3, appeals therefrom, or the establishment or modification of the schedule of rates, including the costs of consultants, staff, and related costs, and the costs of the attorney general's office, is appropriated from the special compensation fund to the commissioner of commerce and assessed against the rating association and its members by the special compensation fund.

Subd. 7. [CONSULTANTS; COMMISSIONER OF LABOR AND

INDUSTRY.] The commissioner of labor and industry may hire consultants, including a consulting actuary and other experts, deemed necessary to assist the commissioner of labor and industry in the hearing for modification of the schedule of rates and appeals therefrom. A sum sufficient to pay the costs of the commissioner of labor and industry in regard to the hearing provided under subdivision 3 and appeals therefrom, including the costs of consultants, staff, and related costs, and the costs of the attorney general's office, is appropriated from the special compensation fund to the commissioner of labor and industry and assessed against the rating association and its members by the special compensation fund.

Subd. 8. [CONSULTANTS, ADMINISTRATIVE JUDGES.] The office of administrative hearings, upon approval of the chief administrative law judge, may hire consultants necessary to assist the administrative law judge assigned to a workers' compensation rate proceeding.

Subd. 9. [COMMISSIONER OF LABOR AND INDUSTRY AS A PARTY.] The commissioner of labor and industry must be a party to all proceedings under this chapter and shall act to assure that the public interest is represented and protected. The commissioner of labor and industry may: (1) inspect at all reasonable times, and copy the books, records, memoranda, and correspondence or other documents and records of any person relating to any regulated business; and (2) cause the deposition to be taken of any person concerning the business and affairs of any business regulated by the department. Information sought through said deposition shall be for a lawfully authorized purpose and shall be relevant and material to the investigation or hearing before the commissioner. Information obtained from said deposition shall be used by the department only for a lawfully authorized purpose and pursuant to powers and responsibilities conferred upon the department. Said deposition is to be taken in the manner prescribed by law for taking depositions in civil actions in the district court. The commissioner of labor and industry may, on the commissioner's own initiative, investigate any matter subject to the jurisdiction of the department of labor and industry. The costs of the commissioner of labor and industry in discharging this obligation shall be paid by the special compensation fund and assessed against the rating association and its members by the special compensation fund.

Subd. 10. [APPOINTMENT OF ACTUARY.] The commissioner of labor and industry shall employ the services of a casualty actuary experienced in workers' compensation whose duties shall include but not be limited to investigation of complaints by insured parties relative to rates, rate classifications, or discriminatory practices of an insurer. The salary of the actuary employed pursuant to this section is not subject to the provisions of section 43A.17, subdivision 1.

Sec. 11. [79.72] [PETITION FOR REHEARING.]

Subdivision 1. [PETITION CONTENTS.] Any interested party may petition the commissioner for rehearing and reconsideration of a determination made pursuant to section 10. The petition for rehearing and reconsideration shall be served on the commissioner and all parties to the rate hearing within 30 days after service of the commissioner's final order. The petition shall set forth factual grounds in support of its petition. An interested party adversely affected by a petition for review and reconsideration has 15 days to respond to factual matters alleged in the petition.

Subd. 2. [GRANT OF REHEARING.] The commissioner may grant a rehearing upon the filing of a petition under subdivision 1. On rehearing, the commissioner may limit the scope of factual matters that are subject to rehearing and reconsideration. The rehearing is subject to the provisions of section 10.

Subd. 3. [MODIFICATION OF ORDER.] Following rehearing, the commissioner may modify the terms of the initial order adopting a change in the schedule of rates upon a determination that adequate factual grounds exist to support modification. Adequate factual grounds include, but are not limited to, erroneous testimony by any witness or party to the hearing, material change in Minnesota loss or expense data occurring after a petition for modification of the schedule of rates has been filed, or any other mistake of fact that has a substantial effect upon the schedule of rates adopted in the initial order of the commissioner.

Sec. 12. [79.731] [JUDICIAL REVIEW.]

Final orders of the commissioner pursuant to sections 10 and 11 are subject to judicial review pursuant to sections 14.63 to 14.69 but shall remain in effect during the pendency of any appeal.

Sec. 13. [79.711] [INTERIM SCHEDULE OF RATES.]

The rating association, the commissioner of labor and industry, or any other interested party may file a petition for an adjustment in the schedule of rates when there has been a law change in the benefit payable under chapter 176. "Law change" means only statutory changes by the legislature or supreme court decisions. When a petition for a change in the schedule of rates due to a law change is received by the commissioner, the commissioner shall review any petition for up to 30 days to determine if it presents facts which warrant a hearing. If the commissioner accepts a petition for hearing it shall be conducted pursuant to the contested case procedures found in chapter 14. The chief administrative law judge shall assign an administrative law judge to hear a petition for a change in the schedule of rates within 30 days. The administrative law judge shall conclude the hearing within 60 days of assignment by the chief administrative law judge and file findings of fact, conclusions of law, and a proposed order with the commissioner within 30 days of concluding the hearing. The administrative law judge shall, after the close of the record, file a report with recommendations in the same manner as in section 10, subdivision 4. The time for holding the hearing and filing the report with the commissioner may be expanded by the chief administrative law judge upon a showing of good cause for an additional 30 days. The commissioner's order may affirm, reverse, or modify the findings and order of the administrative law judge. The petitioning party shall have the burden of proof in any hearing held pursuant to this subdivision. Interim rate hearings are only for changes in the schedule of workers' compensation rates resulting from law changes. All other evidentiary, procedural, and review standards in section 10 shall apply to interim rate hearings except for the time requirements in this subdivision. Interim rate hearings are subject to judicial review pursuant to chapter 14 except that the commissioner's interim rate order shall remain in effect during the pendency of any appeal by any party. The commissioner is an interested party if the commissioner's decision is appealed pursuant to chapter 14. Interim rate hearings may only be held after an initial schedule of rates has been approved by the commissioner unless requested by the commissioner of labor and industry.

Sec. 14. [79.74] [AUTOMATIC ADJUSTMENT OF RATES.]

The commissioner shall adopt a rule to automatically adjust a schedule of rates to reflect benefit changes mandated by operation of law after the most recent change in the statewide schedule of rates. This adjustment shall also reflect the annual change in the maximum weekly compensation made pursuant to section 176.101, an adjustment in the assessment rate for the special fund, and the annual adjustment made pursuant to section 176.645, any adjustment in the assessment for the assigned risk plan pursuant to section 79.251, subdivision 5, any adjustment in the assessment for the Minnesota insurance guarantee association pursuant to section 60C.05, or any other assessment required by law. The initial rule to automatically adjust the schedule of rates and any amendments made pursuant to this subdivision is effective on October 1, 1988, or as soon thereafter as possible and is not subject to chapter 14, except the commissioner of commerce shall comply with section 14.38, subdivision 7.

At each rate hearing held pursuant to section 10 or rehearing pursuant to section 11, following an automatic adjustment, the commissioner shall review the rate adjustment to assure that the schedule of rates adopted subsequent to the adjustment are not excessive, inadequate, or unfairly discriminatory. If the commissioner finds that the schedule of rates adopted subsequent to the adjustment are excessive, inadequate, or unfairly discriminatory, the commissioner shall order appropriate remedial action.

Sec. 15. [79.75] [RATE REVISION ORDER; EFFECT.]

Subdivision 1. [POLICIES.] A revised schedule of rates, adopted under section 10 or 11, applies to new and renewal policies issued after the effective date of the commissioner's final order.

Sec. 16. [79.76] [COMMISSIONER MAY REQUIRE SURVEY.]

Following a complaint, the commissioner may require the association to conduct a survey and report. The commissioner may withdraw approval of any rate or classification upon ten days' notice to the parties interested.

Sec. 17. [79.77] [CLASSIFICATION OF WORKERS' COMPENSATION INSURANCE.]

No classification for compensation insurance purposes shall be effective until approved by the commissioner. No rule or regulation with reference to compensation risks filed by any insurer, or by the association, shall be effective until approved by the commissioner. No type of insurance covering any part of the liability of an employer allowed to self-insure as provided in section 176.181, is effective in this state unless approved by the commissioner. If it appears at any time that reasonable doubt on the part of the commissioner as to the proper classification or rate for any risk exists, such risk may be bound for insurance subject to establishing a rate and classification.

Sec. 18. [79.78] [INSURERS SHALL BE MEMBERS OF ASSOCIATION.]

Every insurer issuing workers' compensation insurance in this state shall be a member of the association organized under section 19, to be maintained in this state for the following purposes:

(1) to separate the industries of this state that are subject to workers' compensation insurance into proper classes for compensation insurance purposes; to inspect compensation risks and establish the merit and experience rating system approved for use in this state; to establish charges and credits under the system; and to report all facts affecting compensation insurance risks and those necessary for approving policies of compensation insurance as conforming with classifications and rates previously promulgated by the association and approved by the commissioner; and

(2) to assist the commissioner and insurers in approving rates, determining hazards and other material facts in connection with compensation risks, and to assist in promoting safety in the industries.

Sec. 19. [79.79] [ORGANIZATION OF ASSOCIATION.]

The association shall adopt articles of incorporation, bylaws, and a plan of operation. These articles, bylaws, and plan of operation and all amendments thereto shall be filed with and approved by the commissioner and shall not be effective until so filed and approved. The association shall admit to membership any insurer authorized to transact workers' compensation insurance in this state. The charges and service of the association shall be fixed in the articles or bylaws and shall be equitable and nondiscriminatory as between members. The initial articles, bylaws, and plan of operation shall be filed with the commissioner no later than June 15, 1988. If the initial articles, bylaws, and plan of operation are not filed by June 15, 1988, the commissioner shall adopt the initial articles, bylaws, and plan of operation.

Sec. 20. [79.80] [EXPENSE, HOW PAID.]

Each member of the association shall pay an equitable and nondiscriminatory share of the cost of operating the association. If the members of the association cannot agree upon an apportionment of cost, any member may in writing petition the commissioner to establish a basis for apportioning the cost. If any member is aggrieved by an apportionment made by the association, it may in writing petition the commissioner for a review of the apportionment. The commissioner shall, upon not less than five days notice to each member of the association, hold a hearing upon any such petition at which all members are entitled to be present and be heard. The commissioner shall determine the matter and mail a copy of the determination to each member of the association. The decision of the commissioner shall be final and binding upon all members of the association.

Sec. 21. [79.81] [BOARD OF DIRECTORS.]

A board of directors of the rating association is created and is responsible for the operation of the rating association consistent with the plan of operation and sections 10 to 36. The board consists of seven directors. Four directors shall represent insurers and the commissioner of commerce shall appoint the remaining directors. Each director is entitled to one vote. Terms of the directors shall be two years. The board shall select a chair and other officers it deems appropriate.

A majority of the directors currently holding office constitutes a

Sec. 22. [79.82] [PLAN OF OPERATION.]

Subdivision 1. [PROVISIONS.] The plan of operation shall provide for all of the following:

(a) the establishment of necessary facilities;

(b) the management and operation of the rating association;

(d) procedures governing the actual payment of assessments to the rating association;

(e) reimbursement of each member of the board by the rating association for actual and necessary expenses incurred on rating association business; and

(f) any other matters required by or necessary to effectively implement sections 10 to 36.

Subd. 2. [AMENDMENTS.] (a) The plan of operation shall be subject to approval by the commissioner after consultation with the members of the association, representatives of the public and other affected individuals and organizations. If the commissioner disapproves all or any part of the proposed plan of operation, the directors shall within 15 days submit for review an appropriate revised plan of operation or part thereof. If a revised plan is not submitted within 15 days, the commissioner shall promulgate a plan of operation or part thereof, as the case may be. The plan of operation approved or promulgated by the commissioner shall become effective and operational upon order of the commissioner.

(b) Amendments to the plan of operation may be made by the commissioner or by the directors of the association, subject to the approval of the commissioner.

Sec. 23. [79.83] [APPLICABILITY OF CHAPTER 79.]

Subdivision 1. [EXAMINATION BY COMMISSIONER.] The rating association is subject to all the provisions of this chapter. The commissioner or an authorized representative of the commissioner may visit the rating association at any time and examine, audit, or evaluate the rating association's operations, records and practices. For purposes of this section, "authorized representative of the commissioner" includes employees of the departments of commerce or labor and industry or other parties retained by the commissioner.

Subd. 2. [COSTS AND EXPENSES.] The commissioner may order and the rating association shall pay the costs and expenses of any examination, audit, or evaluation conducted pursuant to subdivision 1. A sum sufficient to pay these costs and expenses is appropriated from the special compensation fund to the commissioner of commerce.

Sec. 24. [79.84] [MANUALS.]

Subdivision 1. [FILING REQUIRED.] On or before July 1, 1988, the association must file with the commissioner all underwriting and rating manuals which are used in the classification of risks and the calculation of rating plans, rates, and fees. The association must provide the commissioner with at least six copies of each manual. A copy of each manual filed shall also be provided to the commissioner of labor and industry.

The commissioner shall review the manuals and on or before October 1, 1988, approve or disapprove the manuals or any part thereof. Until the commissioner has approved or disapproved the manuals, they shall remain in force. As to any manual or part thereof that is not approved, a hearing pursuant to the contested case procedures of chapter 14 shall be held.

Until the conclusion of the contested case proceeding, the portions of the manuals that were not approved shall remain in force.

Subd. 2. [AMENDMENTS.] If the association amends a manual, the amendment shall not be effective until approved by the commissioner. The commissioner shall approve or disapprove any amendment within 90 days of filing. Any amendment not approved within 90 days shall be deemed to be disapproved. As to a disapproved amendment, the association may contest the disapproval pursuant to the contested case procedures of chapter 14.

Subd. 3. [BURDEN OF PROOF.] The burden of proof in a proceeding under this section shall be upon the party requesting the adoption of a manual or an amendment of a manual.

Subd 4. [COSTS.] The costs of the commissioner and the commissioner of labor and industry in regard to a contested case proceeding under this section, including the costs of consultants, staff, and related costs, and costs billed by the attorney general's office shall be paid by the special compensation fund and assessed to the association and its members by the special compensation fund.

Subd. 5. [PUBLIC ACCESS.] Copies of all approved manuals must be made available to the public for inspection during regular business hours at the office of the association. Proposed manuals and amendments to manuals must be made available in the same manner.

Sec. 25. [79.85] [EXEMPTION.]

The rating association is not subject to sections 15.0597 and 471.705 and chapter 13 nor any other law or rule that pertains to a public body. For purposes of Minnesota law or rule, the association is not a public body.

Sec. 26. [79.86] [LICENSE; FEE.]

The association shall procure annually from the commissioner a license to carry on its business. The license shall run from July 1 to the last day of June. An annual license fee of $100 must be paid at the time of filing application for license.

Sec. 27. [79.861] [ANNUAL STATEMENT.]

The association on or before March 1 each year shall file with the commissioner a statement covering its activities for the year ending on the preceding December 31. This report shall cover its financial transactions and other matters connected with its operation, including employee compensation and other specific expenditures as required by the commissioner. The commissioner shall prescribe the form of the report. The association and its members are subject to supervision and examination by the commissioner or any examiner authorized by the commissioner on such matters as the commissioner deems appropriate. The determination as to the proper classification by the association shall be subject to the approval of the commissioner as provided in this chapter. The association shall, on behalf of all members thereof, inspect and make a written survey of each risk to

It shall, on behalf of all the members thereof, file with the commissioner its classification of risks and keep on file at the office of the association the written surveys of all risks inspected by it, which survey shall show the location and description of all items producing charges and credits, if any, and such other facts as are material in the writing of insurance thereon. It shall file any subsequent proposed classification or later survey and all rules and regulations which do or may affect the writing of these risks. The association classification shall be binding upon all insurers. The commissioner and the association and its representatives shall give all information as to classifications, rates, surveys, and other facts collected and intended for the common use of insurers subject to sections 10 to 36 to all these insurers at the same time. A copy of the complete survey by the association, with the approved classification and rates based thereon and the effective date thereof, shall be furnished to the insurer of record as soon as approved. The approved classification and rates upon a specific risk shall be furnished upon request to any other insurer upon the payment of a reasonable charge for the service. Every insurer shall promptly file with the association a copy of each payroll audit, which shall be checked by the association for correctness of classification and rate. The commissioner may require the association to file any such copy and may verify any payroll audit by a reaudit of the books of the employer or in such other manner as may appear most expedient. Upon written complaint stating facts sufficient to warrant action by it, the commissioner shall verify any payroll audit reported to the commissioner.

Sec. 29. [79.863] [INFORMATION.]

In addition to other information that the commissioner requests pursuant to section 10, the rating association shall: (a) separate the incurred but not reported losses of its members; (b) separate paid and outstanding losses of its members; (c) provide information indicating cases in which its members have established a reserve in excess of $50,000; (d) provide information on the income on invested reserves of its members; and (e) provide information as to policies written at other than the filed rates. The rating association shall file an itemized breakdown of its lobbying expenses.

The commissioner shall consider this information in an appropriate manner in adopting a schedule of rates and shall decline to grant

Sec. 30. [79.864] [RECORD; ASSOCIATION SHALL FURNISH INFORMATION.]

The association shall keep a careful record of its proceedings. It shall furnish, upon demand, to any employer whose workers' compensation risk has been surveyed, full information as to the survey, including the method of the computation and a detailed description and location of all items producing charges or credits. The association shall provide a means, approved by the commissioner for hearing any member or employer whose risk has been inspected, either in person or by a representative, before the governing or rating committee or other proper representatives with reference to any matter affecting the risk. The commissioner may require the association to file any information connected with its activities.

Sec. 31. [79.865] [INSURERS SHALL NOT DISCRIMINATE.]

Sec. 32. [79.867] [RATES SHALL BE FILED.]

Every insurer writing workers' compensation insurance in this state, except as ordered by the commissioner, must file with the commissioner its rates for this compensation insurance and all additions or changes. The association may reduce or increase a rate by the application to individual risks of the system of merit or experience rating which has been approved by the commissioner. This reduction or increase shall be set forth in the policy or by endorsement thereon. Upon written request, an insurer shall furnish a written explanation to the insured of how and why the individual rate was adjusted by

MISCELLANEOUS

Section 1. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 176.011, subdivision 18, is amended to read:

Subd. 18. [WEEKLY WAGE.] "Weekly wage" is arrived at by multiplying the daily wage by the number of days and fractional days normally worked in the business of the employer for the employment involved. If the employee normally works less than five days per week or works an irregular number of days per week, the number of days normally worked shall be computed by dividing the total number of days in which the employee actually performed any of the duties of employment in the last 26 weeks by the number of weeks in which the employee actually performed such duties, provided that the weekly wage for part time employment during a period of seasonal or temporary layoff shall be computed on the number of days and fractional days normally worked in the business of the employer for the employment involved. If, at the time of the injury, the employee was regularly employed by two or more employers, the employee's days of work for all such employments shall be included in the computation of weekly wage. Occasional overtime is not to be considered in computing the weekly wage, but if overtime is regular or frequent throughout the year it shall be taken into consideration. The maximum weekly compensation payable to an employee, or to the employee's dependents in the event of death, shall not exceed ~~66 2/3~~ 80 percent of the ~~product of the daily wage times the number of days normally worked of the employee's spendable weekly earnings~~, provided that the compensation payable for permanent partial disability under section 176.101, subdivision 3, and for permanent total disability under section 176.101, subdivision 4, or death under section 176.111, shall not be computed on less than the number of hours normally worked in the employment or industry in which the injury was sustained, subject also to such maximums as are specifically otherwise provided.

Sec. 2. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 176.011, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 28. [SPENDABLE WEEKLY EARNINGS.] (a) "Spendable weekly earnings" means the employee's weekly wage, as defined by subdivision 18, reduced by both of the following:

(1) an amount equal to a prorated weekly amount which would have been withheld under state law and under the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, as amended, using the number of exemptions allowed for the employee and for actual dependents, old age, and blindness, to which the employee is entitled on the date of injury; and

(2) an amount equal to the weekly amount required to be withheld under the Social Security Act of 1935, as amended, from the earnings of the employee at the time of the injury as if the earnings were earned at the beginning of the calendar year in which the employee was injured.

(b) Each September 1, the commissioner of the department of labor and industry shall publish uniform tables of spendable weekly earnings, as defined in paragraph (a), using applicable state and federal tax laws in effect the preceding July 1. This table shall take effect October 1 and shall be conclusive for the purpose of converting a weekly wage into spendable weekly earnings during the following 12 months. The adoption of this table is exempt from the administrative rulemaking provisions of chapter 14.

Sec. 3. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 176.081, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. (a) A fee for legal services of 25 percent of the first $4,000 of compensation awarded to the employee and 20 percent of the next $27,500 of compensation awarded to the employee is permissible and does not require approval by the commissioner, compensation judge, or any other party except as provided in clause (b). If the employer or the insurer or the defendant is given written notice of claims for legal services or disbursements, the claim shall be a lien against the amount paid or payable as compensation. In no case shall fees be calculated on the basis of any undisputed portion of compensation awards. Allowable fees under this chapter shall be based solely upon genuinely disputed portions of claims, including disputes related to the payment of rehabilitation benefits or to other aspects of a rehabilitation plan. Fees for administrative conferences under section 176.242, 176.2421, 176.243, or 176.244 sections 176.106 and 176.239 shall be determined on an hourly basis, according to the criteria in subdivision 5.

(b) An attorney who is claiming legal fees under this section for a workers' compensation matter shall file a statement of attorney's fees with the commissioner, compensation judge before whom the matter was heard, or workers' compensation court of appeals on cases before the court. A copy of the signed retainer agreement shall also be filed. The employee, employer, and insurer shall receive a copy of the statement. The statement shall be on a form prescribed by the commissioner, shall report the number of hours spent on the case, and shall clearly and conspicuously state that the employee or insurer has ten calendar days to object to the attorney fees requested. If no objection is timely made by the employee or insurer, the amount requested shall be conclusively presumed reasonable providing the amount does not exceed the limitation in subdivision 1. The commissioner, compensation judge, or court of appeals shall issue an order granting the fees and the amount requested shall be awarded to the party requesting the fee.

If a timely objection is filed, or the fee is determined on an hourly basis, the commissioner, compensation judge, or court of appeals shall review the matter and make a determination based on the criteria in subdivision 5.

If no timely objection is made by an employer or insurer, reimbursement under subdivision 7 shall be made if the statement of fees requested this reimbursement.

(c) Attorneys representing employers and insurers may charge no more than $6,500 per case, unless an additional fee is approved under subdivision 2. No fee shall be paid by the employer or insurer until a statement of attorney fees reporting the number of hours spent on the case and the amount of the fee being claimed has been filed with the commissioner.

Sec. 4. Minnesota Statutes 1987 Supplement, section 176.081, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. An application for attorney fees in excess of the amount authorized in subdivision 1 shall be made to the commissioner, compensation judge, or district judge, before whom the matter was heard. An appeal of a decision by the commissioner, a compensation judge, or district court judge on additional fees may be made to the workers' compensation court of appeals. The application shall set forth the fee requested and the basis for the request and whether or not a hearing is requested. The application, with affidavit of service upon the employee parties, including the employer, shall be filed by the attorney requesting the fee. If a hearing is requested by an interested party, a hearing shall be set with notice of the hearing served upon known interested parties. In all cases the employee shall be served with notice of hearing.

Sec. 5. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 176.081, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. ~~An employee who~~ Any party that is dissatisfied with attorney fees, may file an application for review by the workers' compensation court of appeals. Such application shall state the basis for the need of review and whether or not a hearing is requested. A copy of such application shall be served upon the attorney for the employee by the court administrator and if a hearing is requested by either party, the matter shall be set for hearing. The notice of hearing shall be served upon known interested parties. ~~The attorney for the employee shall be served with a notice of the hearing.~~ The workers' compensation court of appeals shall have the authority to raise the question of the issue of the attorney fees at any time upon its own motion and shall have continuing jurisdiction over attorney fees.

Sec. 6. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 176.101, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [TEMPORARY TOTAL DISABILITY.] For injury producing temporary total disability, the compensation is ~~66 $\frac{2}{3}$~~ 80 percent of the spendable weekly wage earnings at the time of injury:

(1) provided that during the year commencing on October 1, 1979, and each year thereafter, commencing on October 1, the maximum weekly compensation payable is 130 percent of the statewide average weekly wage for the period ending December 31, of the preceding year.

(2) The minimum weekly compensation benefits for temporary total disability shall be not less than ~~50~~ 20 percent of the statewide average weekly wage or the injured employee's ~~actual~~ spendable weekly wage earnings, whichever is less. ~~In no case shall a weekly benefit be less than 20 percent of the statewide average weekly wage.~~

Subject to subdivisions 3a to 3u this compensation shall be paid during the period of disability, payment to be made at the intervals when the wage was payable, as nearly as may be.

Sec. 7. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 176.101, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [TEMPORARY PARTIAL DISABILITY.] In all cases of temporary partial disability the compensation shall be ~~66 $\frac{2}{3}$~~ 80 percent of the difference between the spendable weekly wage earnings of the employee at the time of injury and the wage spendable weekly earnings the employee is able to earn in the employee's partially disabled condition. This compensation shall be paid during the period of disability except as provided in this section, payment to be made at the intervals when the wage was payable, as nearly as may be, and subject to a maximum compensation equal to 130 percent of the statewide average weekly wage.

Sec. 8. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 176.101, subdivision 3a, is amended to read:

Subd. 3a. [ECONOMIC RECOVERY COMPENSATION.] If an employee is not eligible for an impairment award pursuant to subdivision 3b, then the employee shall receive economic recovery compensation for a permanent partial disability pursuant to this subdivision. The compensation shall be ~~66 $\frac{2}{3}$~~ 80 percent of the spendable weekly wage earnings at the time of injury subject to a maximum equal to the statewide average weekly wage. For permanent partial disability up to the percent of the whole body in the following schedule the compensation shall be paid for the proportion that the loss of function of the disabled part bears to the whole body multiplied by the number of weeks aligned with that percent.

Percent of disability	Weeks of compensation
0-25	600
26-30	640
31-35	680
36-40	720
41-45	760
46-50	800
51-55	880
56-60	960
61-65	1040
71-100	1200

The percentage loss in all cases under this subdivision is determined according to the rules adopted by the commissioner pursuant to section 176.105, subdivision 4. This subdivision applies to an injury which occurs on or after January 1, 1984.

Sec. 9. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 176.101, subdivision 4, is amended to read:

Subd. 4. [PERMANENT TOTAL DISABILITY.] For permanent total disability, as defined in subdivision 5, the compensation shall be ~~66%~~ 80 percent of the daily wage spendable weekly earnings at the time of the injury, subject to a maximum weekly compensation equal to the maximum weekly compensation for a temporary total disability and a minimum weekly compensation equal to the minimum weekly compensation for a temporary total disability. This compensation shall be paid during the permanent total disability of the injured employee but after a total of $25,000 of weekly compensation has been paid, the amount of the weekly compensation benefits being paid by the employer shall be reduced by the amount of any disability benefits being paid by any government disability benefit program if the disability benefits are occasioned by the same injury or injuries which give rise to payments under this subdivision. This reduction shall also apply to any old age and survivor insurance benefits. Payments shall be made at the intervals when the wage was payable, as nearly as may be. In case an employee who is permanently and totally disabled becomes an inmate of a public institution, no compensation shall be payable during the period of confinement in the institution, unless there is wholly dependent on the employee for support some person named in section 176.111, subdivision 1, 2 or 3, in which case the compensation provided for in section 176.111, during the period of confinement, shall be paid for the benefit of the dependent person during dependency. The dependency of this person shall be determined as though the employee were deceased.

Sec. 10. Minnesota Statutes 1987 Supplement, section 176.102, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [ADMINISTRATORS.] The commissioner shall hire a director of rehabilitation services in the classified service. The commissioner shall monitor and supervise rehabilitation services, including, but not limited to, making determinations regarding the selection and delivery of rehabilitation services and the criteria used to approve qualified rehabilitation consultants and rehabilitation vendors. The commissioner may also make determinations regarding fees for rehabilitation services and may by emergency rules that shall remain in effect until September 30, 1991, establish a fee schedule or otherwise limit fees charged by qualified rehabilitation consultants and vendors. The commissioner may hire qualified personnel to assist in the commissioner's duties under this section and may delegate the duties and performance.

Sec. 11. Minnesota Statutes 1987 Supplement, section 176.102, subdivision 4, is amended to read:

Subd. 4. [REHABILITATION PLAN; DEVELOPMENT.] (a) An employer or insurer shall provide rehabilitation consultation by a qualified rehabilitation consultant or by another person permitted by rule to provide consultation to an injured employee within five days after the employee has ~~60~~ 90 days of lost work time due to the personal injury, ~~except as otherwise provided in this subdivision. Where an employee has incurred an injury to the back, the consultation shall be made within five days after the employee has 30 days of lost work time due to the injury.~~ The lost work time in either case may be intermittent lost work time. If an employer or insurer has medical information at any time prior to the time specified in this subdivision that the employee will be unable to return to the ~~job~~ the employee held at the time of the injury ~~preinjury employer,~~ rehabilitation consultation shall be provided immediately after receipt of this information.

For purposes of this section "lost work time" means only those days during which the employee would actually be working but for the injury. In the case of the construction industry, mining industry, or other industry where the hours and days of work are affected by seasonal conditions, "lost work time" shall be computed by using the normal schedule worked when employees are working full time.

The qualified rehabilitation consultant appointed by the employer or insurer shall disclose in writing at the first meeting or written communication with the employee any ownership interest or affiliation between the firm which employs the qualified rehabilitation consultant and the employer, insurer, adjusting or servicing company, including the nature and extent of the affiliation or interest.

The consultant shall also disclose to all parties any affiliation, business referral or other arrangement between the consultant or the firm employing the consultant and any other party to the case, including any attorneys, doctors, or chiropractors.

If the employee objects to the employer's selection of a qualified rehabilitation consultant, the employee shall notify the employer and the commissioner in writing of the objection. The notification shall include the name, address, and telephone number of the qualified rehabilitation consultant chosen by the employee to provide rehabilitation consultation.

The employee may choose a different qualified rehabilitation consultant as follows:

(1) once during the first 60 days following the first in-person contact between the employee and the original consultant;

(2) once after the 60-day period referred to in clause (1); and

(3) subsequent requests shall be determined by the commissioner or compensation judge according to the best interests of the parties.

The employee and employer shall enter into a program if one is prescribed in a rehabilitation plan. A copy of the plan, including a target date for return to work, shall be submitted to the commissioner.

(b) If the employer does not provide rehabilitation consultation as required by this section, the commissioner or compensation judge shall notify the employer that if the employer fails to appoint a qualified rehabilitation consultant or other persons as permitted by clause (a) within 15 days to conduct a rehabilitation consultation, the commissioner or compensation judge shall appoint a qualified rehabilitation consultant to provide the consultation at the expense of the employer unless the commissioner or compensation judge determines the consultation is not required.

(c) In developing a rehabilitation plan consideration shall be given to the employee's qualifications, including but not limited to age, education, previous work history, interest, transferable skills, and present and future labor market conditions.

(d) The commissioner or compensation judge may waive rehabilitation services under this section if the commissioner or compensation judge is satisfied that the employee will return to work in the near future or that rehabilitation services will not be useful in returning an employee to work.

Sec. 12. Minnesota Statutes 1987 Supplement, section 176.102, subdivision 6, is amended to read:

Subd. 6. [PLAN, ELIGIBILITY FOR REHABILITATION, APPROVAL AND APPEAL.] The commissioner or a compensation judge shall determine eligibility for rehabilitation services and shall review, approve, modify, or reject rehabilitation plans developed under subdivision 4. The commissioner or a compensation judge shall also make determinations regarding rehabilitation issues not necessarily part of a plan including, but not limited to, determinations regarding whether an employee is eligible for further rehabilitation and the benefits under subdivisions 9 and 11 to which an employee is entitled. Any plan that is not completed within six months or that will cost more than $3,600, must be specifically approved by the commissioner. This approval may not be waived by the parties.

Sec. 13. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 176.136, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [SCHEDULE.] The commissioner shall by rule establish procedures for determining whether or not the charge for a health service is excessive. In order to accomplish this purpose, the commissioner shall consult with insurers, associations, and organizations representing the medical and other providers of treatment services and other appropriate groups. The procedures established by the commissioner shall limit the charges allowable for medical, chiropractic, podiatric, surgical, hospital and other health care provider treatment or services, as defined and compensable under section 176.135, to the 75th percentile of usual and customary fees or charges based upon billings for each class of health care provider during all of the calendar year preceding the year in which the determination is made of the amount to be paid the health care provider for the billing, except that the medical fee rules promulgated on October 1, 1988, and based upon 1987 medical cost data, shall remain in effect until September 30, 1991. The commissioner may modify provisions of the medical fee rules other than the amount of the fees by emergency rules which shall remain in effect until September 30, 1991. The procedures established by the commissioner for determining whether or not the charge for a health service is excessive shall be structured to encourage providers to develop and deliver services for rehabilitation of injured workers. The procedures shall incorporate the provisions of sections 144.701, 144.702, and 144.703 to the extent that the commissioner finds that these provisions effectively accomplish the intent of this section or are otherwise necessary to insure that quality hospital care is available to injured employees.

Sec. 14. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 176.136, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 1a. [HOSPITAL CHARGES.] The commissioner shall by emergency rules which shall remain in effect until September 30, 1991, reasonably limit inpatient as well as outpatient hospital charges. Hospital charges may be limited under subdivision 1 or by any other prudent, cost-effective method, or under both subdivision 1 and this subdivision.

Sec. 15. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 176.136, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 1b. [CHARGES FOR INDEPENDENT MEDICAL EXAMINATIONS.] The commissioner shall adopt emergency rules that shall remain in effect until September 30, 1991, that reasonably limit amounts which may be charged for independent, adverse, or neutral medical examinations requested by any party.

Sec. 16. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 176.136, subdivision 5, is amended to read:

Subd. 5. [PERMANENT RULES.] Where permanent rules have been adopted to implement this section, The commissioner shall annually give notice in the State Register of the 75th percentile to meet the requirements of subdivision 1. The notice shall be in lieu of the requirements of chapter 14 if the 75th percentile for the service data meets the requirements of paragraphs (a) to (e) (d).

(a) The data base includes at least three different providers of the service.

(b) The data base contains at least 20 billings for the service.

(c) The standard deviation as a percentage of the mean of billings for the service is 50 percent or less.

(d) The means of the Blue Cross and Blue Shield data base and of the department of human services data base for the service are within 20 percent of each other. The value of the 75th percentile is not greater than or equal to three times the value of the 25th percentile.

(e) The data is taken from the data base of Blue Cross and Blue Shield or the department of human services.

(d) If the commissioner identifies a problem with the data base such that the average fee does not logically reflect the usual and customary charge, then, upon consultation with the medical services review board, the commissioner may eliminate the category from the rules or adjust the rate to correct the inconsistency or error.

Sec. 17. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 176.136, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 6. [LEGISLATIVE INTENT.] It is the intent of the legislature to control workers' compensation costs by limiting the amount workers' compensation insurers must pay for medical expenses. Given rapidly rising medical costs which have had a direct impact on the rise in workers' compensation costs in recent years, the legislature mandates that these costs must be controlled. Therefore, the legislature is conferring authority upon the commissioner to develop a means of limiting allowable medical and hospital charges.

Sec. 18. Minnesota Statutes 1987 Supplement, section 176.155, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [EMPLOYER'S PHYSICIAN.] The injured employee must submit to examination by the employer's physician, if requested by the employer, and at reasonable times thereafter upon the employer's request. The examination must be scheduled at a location within 150 miles of the employee's residence unless the employer can show cause to the department to order an examination at a location further from the petitioner's residence. The employee is entitled upon request to have a personal physician present at any such examination. Each party shall defray the cost of that party's physician. Any report or written statement made by the employer's physician as a result of an examination of the employee, regardless of whether the examination preceded the injury or was made subsequent to the injury, shall be made available, upon request and without charge, to the injured employee or representative of the employee. The employer shall pay reasonable travel expenses incurred by the employee in attending the examination including mileage, parking, and, if necessary, lodging and meals. The employer shall also pay the employee for any lost wages resulting from attendance at the examination. A self-insured employer or insurer who is served with a claim petition pursuant to section 176.271, subdivision 1, or 176.291, shall schedule any necessary examinations of the employee, if an examination by the employer's physician or health care provider is necessary to evaluate benefits claimed. The examination shall be completed and the report of the examination shall be served on the employee and filed with the commissioner within 120 days of service of the claim petition.

No evidence relating to the examination or report shall be received or considered by the commissioner, a compensation judge, or the court of appeals in determining any issues unless the report has been served and filed as required by this section, unless a written extension has been granted by the commissioner or compensation judge. The commissioner or a compensation judge shall extend the time for completing the adverse examination and filing the report upon good cause shown. The extension must not be for the purpose of delay and the insurer must make a good faith effort to comply with this subdivision. Good cause shall include but is not limited to:

(1) that the extension is necessary because of the limited number of physicians or health care providers available with expertise in the particular injury or disease, or that the extension is necessary due to the complexity of the medical issues, or

(2) that the extension is necessary to gather addition information which was not included on the petition as required by section 176.291.

Sec. 19. Minnesota Statutes 1987 Supplement, section 176.194, subdivision 5, is amended to read:

Subd. 5. [RULES.] The commissioner may, by rules adopted in accordance with chapter 14, specify additional unfair, misleading, deceptive, or fraudulent practices or conduct which are subject to the penalties under this section.

Sec. 20. Minnesota Statutes 1987 Supplement, section 176.194, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 6. [UNFAIR BUSINESS PRACTICES.] (a) An insurer, self-insurer, or other entity referred to in subdivision 1, causing or permitting with such frequency to indicate a general business practice any unfair, deceptive, or fraudulent act concerning any claim or complaint of an insured or claimant including, but not limited to, those practices enumerated under section 72A.20, subdivision 12, may be ordered by the commissioner to cease and desist from such practice immediately and may be assessed a civil penalty of $2,000 for each offense.

(b) Any person who violates a cease and desist order of the commissioner under this section after it has become final, shall forfeit and pay to the special compensation fund a sum of $10,000 for each violation. In addition, the commissioner of commerce may revoke or suspend the entity's license to write insurance or administer or adjust claims, or authority to self-insure in this state in accordance with the procedures in section 176.195.

(c) These penalties are in addition to any other penalties that may be imposed under chapter 176, or chapters 60 to 80. An order of the commissioner under this section shall become final as provided by section 72A.24.

Sec. 21. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 176.421, subdivision 6, is amended to read:

Subd. 6. [POWERS OF WORKERS' COMPENSATION COURT OF APPEALS ON APPEAL.] On an appeal taken under this section, the workers' compensation court of appeals' review is limited to the issues raised by the parties in the notice of appeal or by a cross-appeal. In these cases, on those issues raised by the appeal, the workers' compensation court of appeals may:

(1) grant an oral argument based on the record before the compensation judge;

(2) examine the record;

(3) substitute for the findings of fact made by the compensation judge findings based on the total evidence;

(4) sustain, reverse, make or modify an award or disallowance of compensation or other order based on the facts, findings, and law; and,

(5) summarily affirm without opinion the decision of the commissioner or compensation judge; and

(6) remand or make other appropriate order.

Sec. 22. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 176.645, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [TIME OF FIRST ADJUSTMENT.] For injuries occurring on or after October 1, 1981, the initial adjustment made pursuant to subdivision 1 shall be deferred until the first anniversary of the date of the injury. For injuries occurring on or after October 1, 1988, the initial adjustment under subdivision 1 shall be deferred until the second anniversary of the date of injury.

Sec. 23. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 176.66, subdivision 11, is amended to read:

Subd. 11. [AMOUNT OF COMPENSATION.] The compensation for an occupational disease is ~~66%~~ 80 percent of the employee's spendable weekly wage earnings on the date of injury subject to a maximum compensation equal to the maximum compensation in effect on the date of last exposure. The employee shall be eligible for supplementary benefits notwithstanding the provisions of section 176.132, after four years have elapsed since the date of last significant exposure to the hazard of the occupational disease if that employee's weekly compensation rate is less than the current supplementary benefit rate.

Sec. 24. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 176.83, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 16. [EMERGENCY RULES EFFECTIVE DATES.] Notwithstanding sections 14.29 to 14.36, emergency rules authorized by sections 10, 13, 14, and 15, may be adopted beyond the 180-day period referred to in section 14.29 and, once adopted, shall remain in effect until September 30, 1991.

Sec. 25. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 176A.03, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 3. [COVERAGE OUTSIDE STATE.] Policies issued by the fund pursuant to this chapter may also provide workers' compensation coverage required under the laws of states other than Minnesota, including coverages commonly known as "all states coverage." The fund may apply for and obtain any licensure required in any other state in order to issue such coverage.

Sec. 26. [REPORTS TO THE LEGISLATURE; RECOMMENDATIONS ON MEDICAL ISSUES.]

The commissioner of labor and industry shall present a detailed report to the legislature before January 1, 1990, concerning medical cost issues in the workers' compensation system. The report shall also develop and evaluate a detailed proposal for establishing a system of neutral doctors for use in such areas as determining maximum medical improvement and rating permanent partial disabilities.

Sec. 27. [NEUTRAL QUALIFIED REHABILITATION CONSULTANTS.]

The commissioner shall develop a plan to assure neutrality of qualified rehabilitation consultants and shall consider alternative methods of selection of qualified rehabilitation consultants for injured workers. The commissioner shall report to the legislature by January 1, 1989, regarding the plan.

The plan is not effective if the commissioner disapproves the plan within 90 days after it was submitted. If the commissioner has not disapproved the plan within 90 days after its submission, the plan is deemed approved and effective. The commissioner shall disapprove a capital improvement plan only if the commissioner determines (1) that the planned improvements cannot be financed within the limits specified in subdivision 4, or (2) the county in preparing the plan did not consider the factors listed in subdivision 3 or failed to gather the information necessary to evaluate the plan under the factors, or (3) the proposed improvements will result in unnecessary duplication of public facilities provided by other units of government in the region or there is insufficient demand for the facility. If the plan is disapproved by the commissioner and the county board does not withdraw the plan, the capital improvement plan must be submitted to the voters for approval. H. F. No. 453 was reported to the House.

Subd. 2a. [NORMAL RETIREMENT UNDER THE RULE OF 90.]

Any person whose attained age plus credited allowable service totals 90 years shall be entitled upon termination of active service and application to a normal retirement annuity provided in section 352.115, without any reduction in the amount of the annuity by reason of the early retirement.

Sec. 3. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 354.44, subdivision 6, is amended to read:

Subd. 6. [COMPUTATION OF FORMULA PROGRAM RETIREMENT ANNUITY.] (1) The formula retirement annuity hereunder shall be computed in accordance with the applicable provisions of the formula stated in clause (2) hereof on the basis of each member's average salary for the period of the member's formula service credit. For the purposes of computing the formula benefits under the formula and variable program, if a combination of these formulas is used, the formula percentages used will be those percentages in each formula as continued for the respective years of service from one formula to the next.

For all years of formula service credit "average salary" for the purpose of determining the member's retirement annuity means the average salary upon which contributions were made and upon which payments were made to increase the salary limitation provided in Minnesota Statutes 1971, section 354.511 for the highest five successive years of formula service credit provided however that such "average salary" shall not include any more than the equivalent of 60 monthly salary payments.

(2) The average salary as defined in clause (1), multiplied by the following percentages per year of formula service credit shall determine the amount of the annuity to which the member qualifying therefor is entitled:

	Coordinated Member	Basic Member
Each year of service during first ten	1.0 percent per year	2.0 percent per year
Each year of service thereafter	1.5 percent per year	2.5 percent per year

(3) Except as provided in clause (4), where any member retires prior to age 65 under a formula annuity, the member shall be paid a retirement annuity in an amount equal to the normal annuity provided in this subdivision and subdivision 7, reduced by one-half of one percent for each month that the member is under age 65 to and including age 60 and reduced by one-fourth of one percent for each month under age 60 at the time of retirement except that for any member who has 30 or more years of allowable service credit, the reduction shall be applied only for each month which the member is under age 62.

(4) Any member whose attained age plus credited allowable service totals 90 years shall be entitled upon termination of active service and application to a normal retirement annuity provided in clauses (1) and (2) without any reduction in the amount of the annuity by reason of early retirement.

Amend the title as follows:

Page 1, line 4, after the semicolon, insert "authorizing early unreduced retirement under the rule of 90 for the Minnesota state retirement system and the teachers retirement association; amending Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 354.44, subdivision 6; Minnesota Statutes 1987 Supplement, section 352.116, by adding a subdivision;"

"Sec. 3. Minnesota Statutes 1987 Supplement, section 352.04, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [EMPLOYEE CONTRIBUTIONS.] The employee contribution to the fund must be equal to ~~3.73~~ 3.88 percent of salary, beginning with the first full pay period after June 30, 1984 1988. These contributions must be made by deduction from salary as provided in subdivision 4.

Sec. 4. Minnesota Statutes 1987 Supplement, section 352.04, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [EMPLOYER CONTRIBUTIONS.] The employer contribution to the fund must be equal to ~~3.90~~ 4.05 percent of salary beginning with the first full pay period after June 30, 1984 1988.

Sec. 5. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 354.42, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. The employee contribution to the fund shall be an amount equal to ~~4½~~ 4.74 percent of the salary of every coordinated member and ~~8½~~ 8.74 percent of the salary of every basic member. This contribution shall be made by deduction from salary. Where any portion of a member's salary is paid from other than public funds, such member's employee contribution shall be based on the entire salary received. For purposes of financing the various options related to the variable annuity division, employee variable annuity contributions will be credited in accordance with section 354.62, subdivision 2.

Sec. 6. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 354.42, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. The employer contribution to the fund shall be an amount equal to $4\frac{1}{2}$ 4.74 percent of the salary of each coordinated member and $8\frac{1}{2}$ 8.74 percent of the salary of each basic member. Reported the same back with the following amendments:

Delete everything after the enacting clause and insert:

"Section 1. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 124.43, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [REVIEW BY COMMISSIONER.] (a) ~~To the extent moneys are from time to time available hereunder,~~ The commissioner may, after review and a favorable recommendation by the state board of education, recommend to the legislature capital loans to school districts. Proceeds of the loans shall be used only for sites for school buildings and for acquiring, bettering, furnishing, or equipping school buildings under contracts to be entered into within 12 months from and after the date on which each loan is granted. ~~Applications with the accompanying data specified in subdivision 2 shall be filed between October 1 of any year and the following June 1.~~

(b) Any school board which intends to submit an application for a capital loan shall submit a proposal to the commissioner for review and comment pursuant to section 121.15 by September 1 of any year, and the commissioner shall prepare a review and comment on the proposed facility, regardless of the amount of the capital expenditure required to construct the facility. The state board shall not make a favorable recommendation on an application for a capital loan for any facility unless:

(1) the facility receives a favorable review and comment pursuant to section 121.15; and

(2) the state board determines that

(A) the facilities are needed to replace facilities dangerous to the health and safety of pupils, or to provide for pupils for whom no adequate facilities exist;

(B) the facilities could not be made available through dissolution and attachment of the district to another district or through pairing, interdistrict cooperation, or consolidation with another district, or through the purchase or lease of facilities from existing institutions within the area. The preference of the school district regarding reorganization shall not be a criterion used by the state board in determining whether the facilities could be made available through reorganization;

(C) the facilities are comparable in size and quality to facilities recently constructed in other districts of similar enrollment; and

(D) the district's need for the facilities is comparable to needs which comparable districts are meeting through local bond issues.

The state board may recommend that the loan be approved in a reduced amount in order to meet the foregoing criteria. If the state board recommends that a loan not be approved, the commissioner shall not recommend approval of the loan. If the state board recommends that the loan be approved in a reduced amount, the commissioner shall not recommend approval of a loan larger than that recommended by the state board.

(c) As part of reviewing an application for a capital loan, the commissioner of education shall prepare estimated yearly repayments by the school district and the estimated amount of principal and interest that may be forgiven after the term of the loan. These estimates shall assume no growth in assessed valuation over the term of the loan, shall assume a 16 mill levy, and shall be prepared using a methodology approved by the commissioner of finance. The commissioner of education shall use a discount factor provided by the commissioner of finance in determining the present value of the estimated amount of interest and principal which may be forgiven after the term of the loan.

(d) No loan shall be recommended for approval for any district exceeding an amount computed as follows:

(1) The amount ~~voted~~ requested by the district under subdivision 2;

(2) Plus the aggregate principal amount of general obligation bonds of the district outstanding on the date of approval June 30 of the year following the year the application was received, not exceeding the limitation on net debt of the district in section 475.53, subdivision 4, or 24 percent of the adjusted assessed value, whichever is less;

(3) Less the maximum net debt permissible for the district on the date of approval on December 1 of the year the application is received, under the limitation in section 475.53, subdivision 4, or 24 percent of the most recent adjusted assessed value available at the time of application, whichever is less; and

(4) Less any amount by which the amount voted exceeds the total cost of the facilities for which the loan is granted, as estimated in accordance with subdivision 4, provided that the loan may be approved in an amount computed as provided in clauses (1) to (3), subject to subsequent reduction in accordance with this clause.

Sec. 2. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 124.43, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [DISTRICT PROCEDURES.] The school board of any district desiring a capital loan shall adopt a resolution stating the amount proposed to be borrowed, the purpose for which the debt is to be incurred, and an estimate of the dates when the facilities for which the loan is requested will be contracted for and completed. ~~The question of authorizing the borrowing of funds for the facilities shall be submitted to the voters of the district at a regular or special election. The question submitted shall state the total amount to be borrowed from all sources. REPORTS OF STANDING COMMITTEES

H. F. No. 125, A bill for an act relating to financial institutions; permitting interstate banking with an additional reciprocating state; amending Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 48.92, subdivision 7.

Reported the same back with the following amendments:

Delete everything after the enacting clause and insert:

"Section 1. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 48.92, subdivision 7, is amended to read:

Subd. 7. [RECIPROCATING STATE.] "Reciprocating state" is: (1) a state that authorizes the acquisition, directly or indirectly, or control of, banks in that state by a bank or bank holding company located in this state under conditions substantially similar to those imposed by the laws of Minnesota as determined by the commissioner; and (2) limited to the states of Iowa, North Dakota, South Dakota, and Wisconsin, Idaho, Montana, Nebraska, Washington, and Wyoming.

Sec. 2. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 48.93, subdivision 4, is amended to read:

Subd. 4. [DISAPPROVAL.] The commissioner shall disapprove any proposed acquisition if:

(1) the financial condition of any acquiring person is such as might jeopardize the financial stability of the bank or prejudice the interests of the depositors of the bank;

(2) the competence, experience, integrity of any acquiring person or of any of the proposed management personnel indicates that it would not be in the interest of the depositors of the bank, or in the interest of the public to permit the person to control the bank;

(3) the acquisition will result in undue concentration of resources or substantial lessening of competition in this state;

(4) the application fails to adequately demonstrate that the acquisition proposal would bring net new funds into Minnesota; or

(5) the application is incomplete or any acquiring party neglects, fails, or refuses to furnish all the information required by the commissioner;

(6) the bank has failed to meet the requirements set forth in the federal Community Reinvestment Act, and sections 48.97, 48.991, and 48.993; or

(7) the acquisition will result in over 30 percent of Minnesota's total banking deposits being held by banks located in this state owned by a reciprocating state bank holding company. This limitation shall not apply to consideration for approval pursuant to section 48.99, special acquisitions.

Sec. 3. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 48.95, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [DIVESTITURE; CEASE AND DESIST.] In the event a reciprocating state bank holding company makes an acquisition other than in full compliance with the requirements and procedures of Laws 1986, chapter 339, the commissioner may:

(1) by order immediately require the reciprocating state bank holding company to divest itself of its direct or indirect ownership or control of any bank located in this state; or

(2) by order require the reciprocating state bank holding company to cease and desist the violations by a date certain. The order would be subject to the procedures applicable to cease and desist proceedings pursuant to sections 46.23 to 46.33 and any applicable rules; or

(3) in the event control of a bank located in this state is acquired by a bank holding company that is not a reciprocating state bank holding company as a result of change of control of a reciprocating state bank holding company, the acquiring bank holding company shall divest itself of control of the bank located in this state within two years of the date of its acquisition of control of the bank.

Sec. 4. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 48.991, is amended to read:

48.991 [DEVELOPMENTAL LOANS.]

A financial institution located in this state owned by an interstate bank holding company shall provide a level of developmental loans as defined by the commissioner by rule. In establishing the developmental loan levels for financial institutions, the commissioner may consider the developmental loan performance of financially stable financial institutions of comparable or smaller size that have above average levels of activity in developmental loans in reciprocating states as defined in section 48.92, subdivision 7. A "developmental loan" includes, but is not limited to, (1) loans for low and moderate income housing, loans to community development corporations, loans to woman and minority owned businesses, student education loans, and alternative energy or energy conservation loans, and (2) loans within distressed areas and on any Indian reservation for any commercial nonreal estate purpose, home loans, home improvement loans, and operating loans to family farmers. The commissioner of commerce shall annually designate distressed areas. A distressed area may be made for a geographic region smaller than a county within the counties of Anoka, Carver, Dakota, Hennepin, Ramsey, Scott, and Washington. The determination of a distressed area should be made on the area's unemployment rate, economic conditions, and credit needs.

Sec. 5. [48.993] [ANNUAL REPORTING OF COMMUNITY RE-INVESTMENT ACTIVITIES BY BANKS.]

Subdivision 1. [INVESTMENT; REPORTING REQUIREMENTS.] Every bank organized under the laws of this state or the United States and doing business in this state as defined by section 48.92, subdivision 6, clause (1), shall fully and accurately disclose in an annual report to the commissioner of commerce the same information required of financial institutions located in this state owned by an interstate bank holding company pursuant to section 48.97, subdivisions 2 to 4, and the rules adopted in connection with sections 48.97 and 48.991.

Subd. 2. [COMPLIANCE BY BANK HOLDING COMPANIES.] Any corporation qualifying as a bank holding company as defined in the Bank Holding Company Act of 1956, as amended, with banking subsidiaries described in subdivision 1, must meet the requirements of this section in the event of noncompliance with this section for any reason by their banking subsidiaries.

Subd. 3. [FAILURE TO COMPLY.] Failure to comply with this section by any bank or bank holding company is to be considered a violation for purposes of chapter 45. Violators are subject to the penalties in section 45.027."

The association at its option may hold such funds in trust and commingle them with other such funds and use the same for such purposes, or hold such funds in open account and commingle them with its own funds and advance like amounts for such purposes, or credit such funds as received to the mortgage account and advance a like amount for the purposes stated. If such funds are held in trust or invested in savings accounts, the amounts ~~shall~~ may be pledged to further secure the indebtedness and, if held in open account or credited to the loan account, the amounts when advanced for the purposes stated ~~shall~~ may be secured by the mortgage with the same priority as the original amount advanced under the mortgage. Sec. 66. [51A.385] [TERMS AND CONDITIONS OF LOANS, CONTRACTS, AND EXTENSIONS OF CREDIT.]

Subdivision 1. [APPLICATION.] Except as otherwise provided in this section, this section applies to loans made by federal and state associations, and "association" as used in this section applies to federal and state associations.

Subd. 2. [FINANCE CHARGE FOR CREDIT SALES MADE BY A THIRD PARTY.] (a) A person may enter into a credit sale contract for sale to an association and an association may purchase and enforce a contract evidencing the sale, if the annual percentage rate provided for in the contract does not exceed that permitted in this section, or, in the case of contracts governed by sections 168.66 to 168.77, the rates permitted by those sections.

(b) Except as provided in subdivision 4, the annual percentage rate may not exceed the equivalent of the greater of either of the following:

(1) the total of:

(i) 36 percent per year on that part of the unpaid balances of the amount financed which is $300 or less;

(ii) 21 percent per year on that part of the unpaid balances of the amount financed which exceeds $300 but does not exceed $1,000; and

(iii) 15 percent per year on that part of the unpaid balances of the amount financed which exceeds $1,000; or

(2) 19 percent per year on the unpaid balances of the amount financed.

(c) This subdivision does not limit or restrict the manner of calculating or charging the finance charge whether by way of add-on, discount, discount points, single annual percentage rate, precomputed charges, variable rate, interest in advance, compounding or otherwise, if the annual percentage rate calculated under paragraph (d) does not exceed that permitted by this section. The finance charge may be contracted for and earned at the single annual percentage rate that would earn the same finance charge as the graduated rates when the debt is paid according to the agreed terms and the finance charge is calculated under paragraph (d). If a finance charge is calculated or collected in advance, or included in the principal amount of the contract, and the borrower prepays the contract in full, the association shall credit the borrower with a refund of the charge based on the actuarial method of computing an unearned finance charge.

(d) The annual percentage rate must be calculated in accordance with Code of Federal Regulations, title 12, part 226, but using the definition of finance charge in section 51A.02, and computed on the basis of a 365-day year.

Subd. 3. [FINANCE CHARGE FOR LOANS.] Except as provided in subdivision 4:

(a) With respect to a loan, including a loan pursuant to open-end credit but excluding open-end credit pursuant to a credit card, an association may contract for and receive a finance charge at an annual percentage rate not exceeding 19 percent per year. With respect to open-end credit pursuant to a credit card, an association may contract for and receive a finance charge at an annual percentage rate not exceeding 18 percent per year. With respect to a loan made pursuant to open-end credit, the finance charge shall be considered not to exceed the maximum annual percentage rate permitted pursuant to this section if the finance charge contracted for and received does not exceed the equivalent of the maximum annual percentage rate computed on a 365-day year calculated in accordance with Code of Federal Regulations, title 12, part 226, but using the definition of finance charge in section 51A.02.

(b) This subdivision does not limit or restrict the manner of calculating the finance charge, whether by way of add-on, discount, single annual percentage rate, variable rate, interest in advance, compounding, average daily balance method, or otherwise, if the annual percentage rate does not exceed that permitted by this section. If a finance charge is calculated or collected in advance, or included in the principal amount of the loan, and the borrower prepays the loan in full, the association shall credit the borrower with a refund of the charge to the extent that the annual percentage rate on the loan would exceed the maximum rate permitted under paragraph (a), taking into account the prepayment.

Subd. 4. [ADDITIONAL AUTHORITY.] Extensions of credit, and purchases of extensions of credit, authorized by sections 47.20, subdivision 1, 3, or 4a; 47.204; 47.21; 48.153; 48.185; sections 168.66 to 168.77, or section 334.01, subdivision 2; and section 334.011 may, but need not, be made pursuant to those sections in lieu of the authority set forth in subdivisions 1 to 3, and if so, are subject to the provisions of those sections, and not the provisions of this section, except this subdivision. An association may also charge an organization any rate of interest and any charges agreed to by the borrower, and may calculate and collect finance and other charges in any manner agreed to by the borrower. Except for extensions of credit the association elects to make under section 334.01, subdivision 2; or 334.011, the provisions of chapter 334 do not apply to extensions of credit made pursuant to this section or the sections mentioned in this subdivision.

Subd. 5. [ADDITIONAL CHARGES.] (a) In addition to the finance charges permitted by this section, an association may contract for and receive the following additional charges which may be included in the amount financed:

- (1) official fees and taxes;
- (2) charges for insurance as described in paragraph (b);
- (3) with respect to a loan secured by real estate, including a real estate loan, the following "closing costs," if they are bona fide, reasonable in amount, and not for the purpose of circumvention or evasion of this section:

(i) fees or premiums for title examination, abstract of title, title insurance, surveys, or similar purposes;

(ii) fees for preparation of a deed, mortgage, settlement statement, or other documents, if not paid to the association;

(iii) escrows for future payments of taxes, including assessments for improvements, insurance, and water, sewer, and land rents;

(iv) fees for notarizing deeds and other documents; and

(v) appraisal and credit report fees;

(5) for any returned check or returned automatic payment withdrawal request, an amount not in excess of the service charge limitation in section 332.50; and

(6) charges for other benefits, including insurance, conferred on the borrower that are of a type that is not for credit.

(b) An additional charge may be made for insurance written in connection with the loan:

(1) with respect to insurance against loss of or damage to property, or against liability arising out of the ownership or use of property, if the association furnishes a clear, conspicuous, and specific statement in writing to the borrower setting forth the cost of the insurance if obtained from or through the association and stating that the borrower may choose the person through whom the insurance is to be obtained;

(2) with respect to credit insurance providing life, accident, health, or unemployment coverage, if the insurance coverage is not required by the association, and this fact is clearly and conspicuously disclosed in writing to the borrower, and the borrower gives specific, dated, and separately signed affirmative written indication of the borrower's desire to do so after written disclosure to the borrower of the cost of the insurance; and

(3) with respect to vendor's single interest insurance, but only (i) to the extent that the insurer has no right of subrogation against the borrower, and (ii) to the extent that the insurance does not duplicate the coverage of other insurance under which loss is payable to the association as its interest may appear, against loss of or damage to property for which a separate charge is made to the borrower pursuant to paragraph (b), clause (1), and (iii) if a clear, conspicuous, and specific statement in writing is furnished by the association to the borrower setting forth the cost of the insurance if obtained from or through the association and stating that the borrower may choose the person through whom the insurance is to be obtained.

(c) In addition to the finance charges and other additional charges permitted by this section, an association may contract for and receive the following additional charges in connection with open-end credit:

(1) annual charges, not to exceed $50 per annum, payable in advance, for the privilege of opening and maintaining open-end credit;

(2) charges for the use of an automated teller machine;

(3) charges for any monthly or other periodic payment period in which the borrower has exceeded or, except for the association's dishonor would have exceeded, the maximum approved credit limit, in an amount not in excess of the service charge permitted in section 332.50;

(4) charges for obtaining a cash advance in an amount not to exceed the service charge permitted in section 332.50; and

(5) charges for check and draft copies and for the replacement of lost or stolen credit cards.

Subd. 6. [ADVANCES TO PERFORM COVENANTS OF BORROWER OR PURCHASER.] (a) If the agreement with respect to a loan or contract contains covenants by the borrower or purchaser to perform certain duties pertaining to insuring or preserving collateral and the association pursuant to the agreement pays for performance of the duties on behalf of the borrower or purchaser, the association may add to the debt or contract balance the amounts so advanced. Within a reasonable time after advancing any sums, the association shall state to the borrower or purchaser in writing the amount of sums advanced, any charges with respect to this amount, and any revised payment schedule and, if the duties of the borrower or purchaser performed by the association pertain to insurance, a brief description of the insurance paid for by the association including the type and amount of coverages. Further information need not be given.

(b) A finance charge equal to that specified in the loan agreement or contract may be made for sums advanced under paragraph (a).

Subd. 7. [ATTORNEY'S FEES.] With respect to a loan or credit sale, the agreement may provide for payment by the borrower of the attorney's fees incurred in connection with collection or foreclosure.

Subd. 8. [RIGHT TO PREPAY.] The borrower or purchaser may prepay in full the unpaid balance of a consumer loan or contract, at any time without penalty.

Subd. 9. [CREDIT INSURANCE.] (a) The sale of credit insurance is subject to the provisions of chapter 62B and the rules adopted under that chapter, but the term of the insurance may exceed 60 months if the loan exceeds 60 months and the insurance will nevertheless be subject to chapter 62B and the rules adopted under that chapter.

(b) An association which provides credit insurance in relation to open-end credit may calculate the charge to the borrower in each billing cycle by applying the current premium rate to the balance in the manner permitted with respect to finance charges by the provisions on finance charge in this section.

(c) Upon prepayment in full of a consumer loan by the proceeds of credit insurance, the consumer or the consumer's estate is entitled to a refund of any portion of a separate charge for insurance which by reason of prepayment is retained by the association or returned to it by the insurer, unless the charge was computed from time to time on the basis of the balances of the consumer's loan.

(d) This section does not require an association to grant a refund to the consumer if all refunds due to the consumer under paragraph (c) amount to less than $1 and, except as provided in paragraph (c), does not require the association to account to the consumer for any portion of a separate charge for insurance because:

(1) the insurance is terminated by performance of the insurer's obligation;

(2) the association pays or accounts for premiums to the insurer in amounts and at times determined by the agreement between them;
or

(3) the association receives directly or indirectly under any policy of insurance a gain or advantage not prohibited by law.

(e) Except as provided in paragraph (d), the association shall promptly make or cause to be made an appropriate refund to the consumer with respect to any separate charge made to the consumer for insurance if:

(1) the insurance is not provided or is provided for a shorter term than for which the charge to the borrower for insurance was computed; or

(2) the insurance terminates before the end of the term for which it was written because of prepayment in full or otherwise.

(f) If an association requires insurance, upon notice to the borrower, the borrower has the option of providing the required insurance through an existing policy of insurance owned or controlled by the borrower, or through a policy to be obtained and paid for by the borrower, but the association for reasonable cause may decline the insurance provided by the borrower.

Subd. 10. [PROPERTY AND LIABILITY INSURANCE.] (a) Except as otherwise provided in this section and subject to the provisions on additional charges and maximum finance charges in this section, an association may agree to provide property and liability insurance, and may contract for and receive a charge for such insurance separate from and in addition to other charges. An association need not make a separate charge for the insurance provided or required by it. This section does not authorize the issuance of the insurance prohibited under any statute or rule governing the business of insurance.

(b) This section does not apply to an insurance premium loan. An association may request cancellation of a policy of property or liability insurance only after the borrower's default or in accordance with a written authorization by the borrower. In either case, the cancellation does not take effect until written notice is delivered to the borrower or mailed to the borrower at the borrower's address as stated by the borrower. The notice must state that the policy may be canceled on a date not less than ten days after the notice is delivered, or, if the notice is mailed, not less than 13 days after it is mailed. A cancellation may not take effect until those notice periods expire.

Subd. 11. [CONSUMER PROTECTIONS.] (a) Associations shall comply with the requirements of the Federal Truth in Lending Act, United States Code, title 15, section 1601 to 1693, in connection with a consumer loan or credit sale for a consumer loan purpose.

(b) Associations shall comply with the following consumer protection provisions in connection with a consumer loan or credit sale for a consumer purpose: sections 325G.02 to 325G.05; 325G.06 to 325G.11; 325G.15 to 325G.22; and 325G.29 to 325G.36, and the Code of Federal Regulations, title 12, part 535.

(c) An assignment of a consumer's earnings by the consumer to an association as payment or as security for payment of a debt arising out of a consumer loan or consumer credit sale is unenforceable by the association and revocable by the consumer.

Subd. 12. [LOANS OTHER THAN CONSUMER LOANS.] Loans other than consumer loans are not subject to the provisions and limitations of subdivisions 3, 5, 8, 9, 10, and 11.

Subd. 13. [EFFECT OF VIOLATIONS ON RIGHTS OF PARTIES.] (a) If an association has violated any provision of this section applying to collection of finance or other charges, the borrower has a cause of action to recover damages and also a right in an action other than a class action, to recover from the association violating this section a penalty in an amount determined by the court not less than $100 nor more than $1,000. With respect to violations arising from other than open-end credit transactions, no action may be brought pursuant to this paragraph and no set-off or recoupment may be asserted pursuant to this paragraph, more than one year after the making of the debt.

(b) A borrower is not obligated to pay a charge in excess of that allowed by this section and has a right of refund of any excess charge paid. A refund may not be made by reducing the borrower's obligation by the amount of the excess charge, unless the association has notified the borrower that the borrower may request a refund and the borrower has not so requested within 30 days thereafter. If the debtor has paid an amount in excess of the lawful obligation under the agreement, the borrower may recover the excess amount from the association who made the excess charge or from an assignee of the association's rights who undertakes direct collection of payments from or enforcement of rights against borrowers arising from the debt.

(c) If an association has contracted for or received a charge in excess of that allowed by this section, or if a borrower is entitled to a refund and a person liable to the borrower refuses to make a refund within a reasonable time after demand, the borrower may recover from the association or the person liable in an action other than a class action a penalty in an amount determined by the court not less than $100 nor more than $1,000. With respect to excess charges arising from other than open-end credit transactions, no action pursuant to this paragraph may be brought more than one year after the making of the debt. For purposes of this paragraph, a reasonable time is presumed to be 30 days.

(d) A violation of this section does not impair rights on a debt.

(e) An association is not liable for a penalty under paragraph (a) or (c) if it notifies the borrower of a violation before the association receives from the borrower written notice of the violation or the borrower has brought an action under this section, and the association corrects the violation within 45 days after notifying the borrower. If the violation consists of a prohibited agreement, giving the borrower a corrected copy of the writing containing the violation is sufficient notification and correction. If the violation consists of an excess charge, correction must be made by an adjustment or refund.

(f) An association may not be held liable in an action brought under this section for a violation of this section if the association shows by a preponderance of evidence that the violation was not intentional and resulted from a bona fide error notwithstanding the maintenance of procedures reasonably adopted to avoid the error.

(g) In an action in which it is found that an association has violated this section, the court shall award to the borrower the costs of the action and to the borrower's attorneys their reasonable fees.
