Sec. 40. Minnesota Statutes 1987 Supplement, section 144A.071, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [EXCEPTIONS.] The commissioner of health, in coordination with the commissioner of human services, may approve the addition of a new certified bed or the addition of a new licensed nursing home bed, under the following conditions:

(a) to replace a bed decertified after May 23, 1983 or to address an extreme hardship situation, in a particular county that, together with all contiguous Minnesota counties, has fewer nursing home beds per 1,000 elderly than the number that is ten percent higher than the national average of nursing home beds per 1,000 elderly individuals. For the purposes of this section, the national average of nursing home beds shall be the most recent figure that can be supplied by the federal health care financing administration and the number of elderly in the county or the nation shall be determined by the most recent federal census or the most recent estimate of the state demographer as of July 1, of each year of persons age 65 and older, whichever is the most recent at the time of the request for replacement. In allowing replacement of a decertified bed, the commissioners shall ensure that the number of added or recertified beds does not exceed the total number of decertified beds in the state in that level of care. An extreme hardship situation can only be found after the county documents the existence of unmet medical needs that cannot be addressed by any other alternatives;

(b) to certify a new bed in a facility that commenced construction before May 23, 1983. For the purposes of this section, "commenced construction" means that all of the following conditions were met: the final working drawings and specifications were approved by the commissioner of health; the construction contracts were let; a timely construction schedule was developed, stipulating dates for beginning, achieving various stages, and completing construction; and all zoning and building permits were secured;

(c) to certify beds in a new nursing home that is needed in order to meet the special dietary needs of its residents, if: the nursing home proves to the commissioner's satisfaction that the needs of its residents cannot otherwise be met; elements of the special diet are not available through most food distributors; and proper preparation of the special diet requires incurring various operating expenses, including extra food preparation or serving items, not incurred to a similar extent by most nursing homes;

(d) to license a new nursing home bed in a facility that meets one of the exceptions contained in clauses (a) to (c);

(e) to license nursing home beds in a facility that has submitted either a completed licensure application or a written request for licensure to the commissioner before March 1, 1985, and has either commenced any required construction as defined in clause (b) before May 1, 1985, or has, before May 1, 1985, received from the commissioner approval of plans for phased-in construction and written authorization to begin construction on a phased-in basis. For the purpose of this clause, "construction" means any erection, building, alteration, reconstruction, modernization, or improvement necessary to comply with the nursing home licensure rules;

(f) to certify or license new beds in a new facility that is to be operated by the commissioner of veterans' affairs or when the costs of constructing and operating the new beds are to be reimbursed by the commissioner of veterans' affairs or the United States Veterans Administration;

(g) to license or certify beds in a new facility constructed to replace a facility that was destroyed after June 30, 1987, by fire, lightning, or other hazard provided:

(3) the net proceeds from an insurance settlement for the damages caused by the hazard are applied to the cost of the new facility;

(4) the new facility is constructed on the same site as the destroyed facility or on another site subject to the restrictions in section 144A.073, subdivision 5; and

(5) the number of licensed and certified beds in the new facility does not exceed the number of licensed and certified beds in the destroyed facility;

(h) to license or certify beds that are moved from one location to another within a nursing home facility, provided the total costs of remodeling performed in conjunction with the relocation of beds does not exceed ten percent of the appraised value of the facility or $200,000, whichever is less, or to license or certify beds in a facility for which the total costs of remodeling or renovation exceed ten percent of the appraised value of the facility or $200,000, whichever is less, if the facility makes a written commitment to the commissioner of human services that it will not seek to receive an increase in its property-related payment rate by reason of the remodeling or renovation;

(i) to license or certify beds in a facility that has been involuntarily delicensed or decertified for participation in the medical assistance program, provided that an application for relicensure or recertification is submitted to the commissioner within 120 days after delicensure or decertification;

(j) to license or certify beds in a project recommended for approval by the interagency board for quality assurance under section 144A.073;

(k) to license nursing home beds in a hospital facility that are relocated from a different hospital facility under common ownership or affiliation, provided: (1) the hospital in which the nursing home beds were originally located ceases to function as an acute care facility, or necessary support services for nursing homes as required for licensure under sections 144A.02 to 144A.10, such as dietary service, physical plant, housekeeping, physical therapy, occupational therapy, and administration, are no longer available from the original hospital site; and (2) the nursing home beds are not certified for participation in the medical assistance program;

(1) to license or certify beds that are moved from one location to another within an existing identifiable complex of hospital buildings, from a hospital-attached nursing home to the hospital building, or from a separate nursing home under common ownership with or control of a hospital to the hospital when a hospital-attached nursing home is moved simultaneously to the hospital to a building formerly used as a hospital, provided the original nursing home building will no longer be operated as a nursing home and the building to which the beds are moved will no longer be operated as a hospital. As a condition of receiving a license or certification under this clause, the facility must make a written commitment to the commissioner of human services that it will not seek to receive an increase in its property-related payment rate as a result of the relocation. At the time of the licensure and certification of the nursing home beds, the commissioner of health shall delicense the same number of acute care beds within the existing complex of hospital buildings or building. ~~When a separate nursing home and a hospital-attached nursing home under common ownership or~~ control are simultaneously relocated to a hospital building, a combined cost report must be submitted for the cost reporting year ending September 30, 1987, and the freestanding nursing home limits apply. Relocation of nursing home beds under this clause is subject to the limitations in section 144A.073, subdivision 5;

(m) to license or certify beds that are moved from an existing state nursing home to a different state facility, provided there is no net increase in the number of state nursing home beds;

(n) to license new nursing home beds in a continuing care retirement community affiliated with a national referral center engaged in substantial programs of patient care, medical research, and medical education meeting state and national needs that receives more than 40 percent of its residents from outside the state for the purpose of meeting contractual obligations to residents of the retirement community, provided the facility makes a written commitment to the commissioner of human services that it will not seek medical assistance certification for the new beds; or

(o) to certify or license new beds in a new facility on the Red Lake Indian reservation for which payments will be made under the Indian Health Care Improvement Act, Public Law Number 94-437, at the rates specified in United States Code, title 42, section 1396d(b);

(p) to certify and license as nursing home beds boarding care beds in a certified boarding care facility if the beds meet the standards for nursing home licensure and if the cost of any remodeling of the facility does not exceed ten percent of the appraised value of the facility or $200,000, whichever is less. If boarding care beds are licensed as nursing home beds, the number of boarding care beds in the facility must not increase in the future. The provisions contained in section 144A.073 regarding the upgrading of the facilities do not apply to facilities that satisfy these requirements; or

(q) to license and certify up to 40 beds transferred from an existing facility owned and operated by the Amherst H. Wilder Foundation in the city of Saint Paul to a new unit at the same location as the existing facility that will serve persons with Alzheimer's disease and other related disorders. The transfer of beds may occur gradually or in stages, provided the total number of beds transferred does not exceed 40. As a condition of receiving a license or certification under this clause, the facility must make a written commitment to the commissioner of human services that it will not seek to receive an increase in its property-related payment rate as a result of the transfers allowed under this clause.

Employees of the facilities must be state employees under chapters 43A and 179A. The establishment of state-operated, community-based residential facilities must be within the context of a comprehensive definition of the role of state-operated services in the state. The role of state-operated services must be defined within the context of a comprehensive system of services for persons with mental retardation and related conditions. Services may include, but are not limited to, community group homes, foster care, supportive living arrangements, and respite care arrangements. The commissioner may operate the pilot projects established under Laws 1985, First Special Session chapter 9, article 1, section 2, subdivision 6, and may, within the limits of available appropriations, establish additional state-operated, community-based services for regional treatment center residents who are persons with mental retardation. Day program services for clients living in state-operated, community-based residential facilities must not be provided by a regional treatment center or a state-operated, community-based program.

Subd. 2. [AUTHORIZATION TO BUILD OR PURCHASE.] Within the limits of available appropriations, the commissioner may build, purchase or lease suitable buildings for state-operated, community-based residential facilities. Facilities must be homelike and adaptable to the needs of persons with mental retardation or related conditions.

Subd. 3. [ALTERNATIVE FUNDING MECHANISMS.] To the extent possible, the commissioner may amend the medical assistance home and community-based waiver and, as appropriate, develop special waiver procedures for targeting services to persons currently in state regional centers.

Assessment, placement, screening, case management responsibilities, and determination of need procedures must be consistent with county responsibilities established under law and rule. Counties may enter into shared service agreements with state-operated programs.

Sec. 109. [252.045] [REGIONAL CENTER AND COMMUNITY-BASED FACILITY EMPLOYEES.]

In accordance with section 43A.21, the commissioner shall develop procedures to assure that:

(1) there are workers employed at state regional centers and nursing homes who are skilled in the treatment of persons with severe and profound mental retardation or related conditions, behavioral problems, and medical needs, to facilitate adjustment to community living;

(2) suitable training programs exist for regional treatment center and state-operated, community-based residential facility staff; and

(3) state employees under the jurisdiction of the commissioner who are included in a position reduction plan have the option of transferring to a community-based program; to a similar, comparable classification in another regional center setting; or to a position in another state agency.

Sec. 110. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 252.291, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [MORATORIUM.] Notwithstanding section 252.28, subdivision 1, or any other law or rule to the contrary, the commissioner of human services shall deny any request for a determination of need and refuse to grant a license pursuant to section 245.782 for any new intermediate care facility for persons with mental retardation or related conditions or for an increase in the licensed capacity of an existing facility except as provided in this subdivision and subdivision 2. ~~In no event shall~~ The total number of certified intermediate care beds for persons with mental retardation or related conditions in community facilities and state hospitals shall not exceed 7,500 beds as of July 1, 1983, and 7,000 beds as of July 1, 1986 except that, to the extent that federal authorities disapprove any applications of the commissioner for home and community-based waivers under United States Code, title 42, section 1396n, as amended through December 31, 1987, the commissioner may authorize new intermediate care beds, as necessary, to serve persons with mental retardation or related conditions who would otherwise have been served under a proposed waiver. "Certified bed" means an intermediate care bed for persons with mental retardation or related conditions certified by the commissioner of health for the purposes of the medical assistance program under United States Code, title 42, sections 1396 to 1396p, as amended through December 31, 1982 1987.

Sec. 111. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 252.291, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [EXCEPTIONS.] The commissioner of human services in coordination with the commissioner of health may approve a new newly constructed or newly established publicly or privately operated community intermediate care facility for six or fewer persons with mental retardation or related conditions only in when the following circumstances exist:

(a) when the facility is developed in accordance with a request for proposal system established pursuant to subdivision 3, clause (b) approved by the commissioner of human services;

(b) when the facility is necessary to serve the needs of identifiable identified persons with mental retardation or related conditions who are seriously behaviorally disordered or who are seriously physically or sensorily impaired. At least 50 percent of the capacity of the facility must be used for persons coming from regional treatment centers; or and

(c) to license beds in new facilities where need was determined by the commissioner prior to June 10, 1983 when the commissioner determines that the need for increased service capacity cannot be met by the use of alternative resources or the modification of existing facilities.

In the biennium ending on June 30, 1989, the commissioner shall not authorize or approve more than 150 newly constructed or newly established intermediate care beds for persons with mental retardation or related conditions under this subdivision.

One-half of the first 70 newly constructed or newly established intermediate care beds for persons with mental retardation or related conditions approved by the commissioner under this subdivision in the biennium ending June 30, 1989, shall be state-operated community intermediate care beds for persons with mental retardation or related conditions. Funds appropriated to operate and expand state-operated community-based programs pilot projects pursuant to Laws 1987, chapter 403, article 1, section 2, subdivision

9, may be used to establish state-operated community intermediate care beds for persons with mental retardation or related conditions.

Sec. 112. Minnesota Statutes 1987 Supplement, section 252.291, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [DUTIES OF COMMISSIONER OF HUMAN SERVICES.] The commissioner shall:

(a) establish standard admission criteria for state hospitals and county utilization targets to limit and reduce the number of intermediate care beds in state hospitals and community facilities in accordance with approved waivers under United States Code, title 42, sections 1396 to 1396p, as amended through December 31, ~~1982~~ 1987, to assure that appropriate services are provided in the least restrictive setting;

(b) define services, including respite care, that may be needed in meeting individual service plan objectives;

(c) provide technical assistance so that county boards may establish a request for proposal system for meeting individual service plan objectives through home and community-based services; alternative community services; or, if no other alternative will meet the needs of identifiable individuals for whom the county is financially responsible, a new intermediate care facility for persons with mental retardation or related conditions;

(d) establish a client tracking and evaluation system as required under applicable federal waiver regulations, Code of Federal Regulations, title 42, sections 431, 435, 440, and 441, as amended through December 31, ~~1982~~ 1987; and

(e) develop a state plan for the delivery and funding of residential day and support services to persons with mental retardation or related conditions in Minnesota and submit that plan to the clerk of each house of the Minnesota legislature on or before the 15th of January of each biennium beginning January 15, 1985. The biennial mental retardation plan shall include but not be limited to:

(1) county by county maximum intermediate care bed utilization quotas;

(2) plans for the development of the number and types of services alternative to intermediate care beds;

(3) procedures for the administration and management of the plan;

(4) procedures for the evaluation of the implementation of the plan; and

(5) the number, type, and location of intermediate care beds targeted for decertification.

The commissioner shall modify the plan to ensure conformance with the medical assistance home and community-based services waiver.

Sec. 113. Minnesota Statutes 1987 Supplement, section 252.46, subdivision 5, is amended to read:

Subd. 5. [SUBMITTING RECOMMENDED RATES.] The county board shall submit recommended payment rates to the commissioner on forms supplied by the commissioner by November 1, 1987, and at least 60 days before revised payment rates or payment rates for new vendors are to be effective. The forms must require the county board's written verification of the individual documentation required under section 252.44, clause (a). If the number of days of service provided by a licensed vendor are projected to increase, the county board must recommend payment rates based on the projected increased days of attendance and resulting lower per unit fixed costs. Recommended increases in payment rates for vendors whose approved payment rates are 15 or more than 15 percent below the statewide median payment rates must be equal to the maximum increases allowed for that vendor under subdivision 3. If a vendor provides services at more than one licensed site, the county board may recommend the same payment rates for each site based on the average rate for all sites. The county board may also recommend differing payment rates for each licensed site if it would result in a total annual payment to the vendor that is equal to or less than the total annual payment that would result if the average rates had been used for all sites. For purposes of this subdivision, the average payment rate for all service sites used by a vendor must be computed by adding the amounts that result when the payment rates for each licensed site are multiplied by the projected annual number of service units to be provided at that site and dividing the sum of those amounts by the total units of service to be provided by the vendor at all sites.

Sec. 114. Minnesota Statutes 1987 Supplement, section 252.46, subdivision 6, is amended to read:

Subd. 6. [VARIANCES.] A variance from the minimum or maximum payment rates in subdivisions 2 and 3 may be granted by the commissioner when the vendor requests and the county board submits to the commissioner a written variance request with the recommended payment rates. A variance can be utilized for costs associated with compliance with state administrative rules, compliance with court orders, increased insurance costs, start-up and conversion costs for supported employment, direct service staff salaries, and transportation. The county board shall review all vendors' payment rates that are 20 15 or more than 15 percent lower than the average rates for the regional development commission district to which the county belongs statewide median payment rates. If the county determines that the payment rates do not provide sufficient revenue to the vendor for authorized service delivery the county must recommend a variance under this section. This review must occur prior to November 1, 1987. When the county board contracts for increased services from any vendor for some or all individuals receiving services from the vendor, the county board shall review the vendor's payment rates to determine whether the increase requires that a variance to the minimum rates be recommended under this section to reflect the vendor's lower per unit fixed costs. The written variance request must include documentation that all the following criteria have been met:

(1) The commissioner and the county board have both conducted a review and have identified a need for a change in the payment rates to change the number of direct service staff or the level of qualifications of the staff.

(2) The proposed changes are required for the vendor to deliver authorized individual services in an effective and efficient manner.

(3) The proposed changes are necessary to demonstrate compliance with minimum licensing standards governing minimum staffing ratios and staff qualifications.

(4) The vendor documents that the change in staff numbers or qualifications changes cannot be achieved by reallocating current staff or by reallocating financial resources to provide or purchase the necessary services.

(5) The county board submits evidence that the need for additional staff cannot be met by using temporary special needs rate exceptions under Minnesota Rules, parts 9510.1020 to 9510.1140.

(6) The county board submits a description of the nature and cost of the proposed changes, and how the county will monitor the use of funds by the vendor to make necessary changes in services. Allowable costs are limited to salaries, related fringe benefits, and payroll taxes.

(7) The county board's recommended payment rates do not exceed 125 percent of the average current calendar year's statewide median payment rates in the regional development commission district in which the vendor is located.

Sec. 115. Minnesota Statutes 1987 Supplement, section 252.46, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 13. [REVIEW AND REVISION OF PROCEDURES FOR RATE EXCEPTIONS FOR VERY DEPENDENT PERSONS WITH SPECIAL NEEDS.] The commissioner shall review the procedures established in Minnesota Rules, parts 9510.1020 to 9510.1140, that counties must follow to seek authorization for a medical assistance rate exception for services for very dependent persons with special needs. The commissioner shall appoint an advisory task force to work with the commissioner. Members of the task force must include vendors, providers, advocates, and consumers. After considering the recommendations of the advisory task force and county rate setting procedures developed under this section, the commissioner shall:

- (1) revise administrative procedures as necessary;
- (2) implement new review procedures for county applications for medical assistance rate exceptions for services for very dependent persons with special needs in a manner that accounts for services available to the person within the approved payment rates of the vendor;
- (3) provide training and technical assistance to vendors, providers, and counties in use of procedures governing medical assistance rate exceptions for very dependent persons with special needs and in county rate setting procedures established under this subdivision; and
- (4) develop a strategy and implementation plan for uniform data collection for use in establishing equitable payment rates and medical assistance rate exceptions for services provided by vendors.

Sec. 116. Minnesota Statutes 1987 Supplement, section 252.46, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 14. [PILOT STUDY.] The commissioner may initiate a pilot payment rate system under section 252.47. The pilot project may establish training and demonstration sites. The pilot payment rate system must include actual transfers of funds, not simulated transfers. The pilot payment rate system may involve up to four counties and four vendors. Participation in the pilot project is voluntary. Selection of participants by the commissioner is based on the vendor's submission of a complete application form provided by the commissioner. The application must include letters of agreement from the host county, counties of financial responsibility, and residential service providers. Implementation of the pilot payment rate system is contingent upon federal approval and systems feasibility.

Sec. 117. Minnesota Statutes 1987 Supplement, section 253B.03, subdivision 6, is amended to read:

Subd. 6. [CONSENT FOR MEDICAL PROCEDURE.] A patient has the right to prior consent to any medical or surgical treatment, other than the treatment of mental illness or chemical dependency. A patient with mental retardation or the patient's guardian or conservator has the right to give or withhold consent before:

- (1) the implementation of any aversive or deprivation procedure except for emergency procedures permitted in rules of the commissioner adopted under section 245.825; or
- (2) the administration of psychotropic medication.

The following procedures shall be used to obtain consent for any treatment necessary to preserve the life or health of any committed patient:

(a) The written, informed consent of a competent adult patient for the treatment is sufficient.

(b) If the patient is subject to guardianship or conservatorship which includes the provision of medical care, the written, informed consent of the guardian or conservator for the treatment is sufficient.

(c) If the head of the treatment facility determines that the patient is not competent to consent to the treatment and the patient has not been adjudicated incompetent, written, informed consent for the surgery or medical treatment shall be obtained from the nearest proper relative. For this purpose, the following persons are proper relatives, in the order listed: the patient's spouse, parent, adult child, or adult sibling. If the nearest proper relatives cannot be located or refuse to consent to the procedure, the head of the treatment facility or an interested person may petition the committing court for approval for the treatment or may petition ~~an~~ appropriate a court of competent jurisdiction for the appointment of a guardian or conservator. The determination that the patient is not competent, and the reasons for the determination, shall be documented in the patient's clinical record.

(d) Consent to treatment of any minor patient shall be secured in accordance with sections 144.341 to 144.346, except that a minor 16 years of age or older may give valid consent for hospitalization, routine diagnostic evaluation, and emergency or short-term acute care.

(e) In the case of an emergency and when the persons ordinarily qualified to give consent cannot be located, the head of the treatment facility may give consent.

(f) A competent patient with mental illness or the patient's guardian or conservator has the right to give or withhold consent before the administration of neuroleptic medication.

(g) If the head of a regional treatment center determines that a patient is not competent to consent to neuroleptic medication and the patient has no guardian or conservator and does not object to medication, written, informed consent must be obtained from the nearest proper relative in the order listed in paragraph (c) and from a multidisciplinary treatment review panel composed of persons employed by the treatment facility who are not engaged in the provision of direct care to the patient. The determination that the patient is not competent, and the reasons for the determination, must be documented in the patient's clinical record. If the patient objects or if written, informed consent is not obtained from both the nearest proper relative and the treatment review panel, the head of the treatment facility or an interested person may petition a court of competent jurisdiction for approval of the neuroleptic medication or for the appointment of a guardian or conservator.

No person who consents to treatment pursuant to the provisions of this subdivision shall be civilly or criminally liable for the performance or the manner of performing the treatment. No person shall be liable for performing treatment without consent if written, informed consent was given pursuant to this subdivision. This provision shall not affect any other liability which may result from the manner in which the treatment is performed.

Sec. 118. Minnesota Statutes 1987 Supplement, section 256.015, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [PERFECTION; ENFORCEMENT.] The state agency may perfect and enforce its lien under sections 514.69, 514.70, and 514.71, and must file the verified lien statement with the appropriate court administrator in the county of financial responsibility. The verified lien statement must contain the following: the name and address of the person to whom medical care, subsistence, or other payment was furnished; the date of injury; the name and address of vendors furnishing medical care; the dates of the service or payment; the amount claimed to be due for the care or payment; and to the best of the state agency's knowledge, the names and addresses of all persons, firms, or corporations claimed to be liable for damages arising from the injuries.

This section does not affect the priority of any attorney's lien. The state agency is not subject to any limitations period referred to in section 514.69 or 514.71 and has one year from the date notice is received by it under subdivision 4, paragraph (c), or one year from the date medical bills are first paid by the state agency, whichever is later, to file its verified lien statement. The state agency may commence an action to enforce the lien within one year of (1) the date the notice required by subdivision 4, paragraph (c), is received, or (2) the date the person's cause of action is concluded by judgment, award, settlement, or otherwise, whichever is later.

Sec. 119. [256.016] [PLAIN LANGUAGE IN WRITTEN MATERIALS.]

(a) To the extent feasible and consistent with the goal of providing easily understandable and readable materials, all written materials relating to services and determinations of eligibility for or amounts of benefits that will be given to applicants for or recipients of assistance under a program administered or supervised by the commissioner of human services must be understandable to a person who reads at the seventh-grade level, using the Flesch scale analysis readability score as determined under section 72C.09.

(b) All written materials relating to determinations of eligibility for or amounts of benefits that will be given to applicants for or recipients of assistance under programs administered or supervised by the commissioner of human services must satisfy the plain language requirements of the plain language contract act under sections 325G.29 to 325G.36. Materials may be submitted to the attorney general for review and certification. Notwithstanding section 325G.35, subdivision 1, the attorney general shall review submitted materials to determine whether they comply with the requirements of section 325G.31. The remedies available pursuant to sections 8.31 and 325G.33 to 325G.36 do not apply to these materials. Failure to comply with this section shall not prevent the operation of public assistance laws that are not the subject of the noncomplying materials.

(c) The requirements of this section apply to all materials modified or developed by the commissioner on or after July 1, 1988. The requirements of this section do not apply to materials that must be submitted to a federal agency for approval, to the extent that application of the requirements prevents federal approval.

Sec. 120. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 256.73, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [ALLOWANCE BARRED BY OWNERSHIP OF PROPERTY.] Ownership by an assistance unit of property as follows is a bar to any allowance under sections 256.72 to 256.87:

(1) The value of real property other than the homestead, which when combined with other assets exceeds the limits of paragraph (2), unless the assistance unit is making a good faith effort to sell the nonexcludable real property. The time period for disposal must not exceed nine months and the assistance unit shall execute an agreement to dispose of the property to repay assistance received during the nine months up to the amount of the net sale proceeds. The payment must be made when the property is sold. If the property is not sold within the required time or the assistance unit becomes ineligible for any reason the entire amount received during the nine months is an overpayment and subject to recovery. For the purposes of this section "homestead" means the house home owned and occupied by the child, relative or other member of the assistance unit as a dwelling place, together with the land upon which it is situated in an area no greater than two contiguous lots in a platted or laid out city or town or all contiguous acres in rural areas surrounding property which is not separated from the home by intervening property owned by others. Public rights-of-way, such as roads which run through the surrounding property and separate it from the home, will not affect the exemption of the property; or

(2) Personal property of an equity value in excess of $1,000 for the entire assistance unit, exclusive of personal property used as the home, one motor vehicle of an equity value not exceeding $1,500, except that the entire equity value of a motor vehicle determined to be necessary for the operation of a self-employment business is excluded, one burial plot for each member of the assistance unit, one prepaid burial contract with an equity value of no more than $1,000 for each member of the assistance unit, clothing and necessary household furniture and equipment and other basic maintenance items essential for daily living, in accordance with rules promulgated by and standards established by the commissioner of human services.

Sec. 121. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 256.73, subdivision 6, is amended to read:

Subd. 6. [REPORTS BY RECIPIENT.] (a) An assistance unit with a recent work history or with earned income shall report monthly to the local agency on income received and other circumstances affecting eligibility or assistance amounts. All other assistance units shall report on income and other circumstances affecting eligibility and assistance amounts at less frequent intervals, as specified by the state agency. All income not specifically disregarded by the Social Security Act, the Code of Federal Regulations, or state law and rules, shall be income applicable to the budgetary needs of the family. If any amount of aid to families with dependent children assistance is paid to a recipient thereof in excess of the payment due it shall be recoverable by the local agency. The agency shall give written notice to the recipient of its intention to recover the overpayment. Overpayments to a current assistance unit shall be recovered either through repayment by the individual in part or in full or by reducing the amount of aid payable to the assistance unit of which the individual is a member. For any month in which an overpayment must be recovered, recoupment may be made by reducing the grant but only if the reduced assistance payment, together with the assistance unit's liquid assets and total income after deducting actual work expenses equals at least 95 percent of the standard of need for the assistance unit, except that if the overpayment is due solely to agency error, this total after deducting actual work expenses shall equal at least 99 percent of the standard of need. In cases when there is both an overpayment and underpayment the local agency shall offset one against the other in correcting the payment. The local agency shall make reasonable efforts to recover overpayments made to persons no longer on assistance in accordance with standards established by the commissioner of human services. The local agency need not attempt to recover overpayments of less than $35 paid to an individual no longer on assistance if the individual does not receive assistance again within three years, unless the individual has been convicted of fraud under section 256.98. The recipient may appeal the agency's determination that an overpayment has occurred in accordance with section 256.045. The county agency shall promptly repay the recipient for any underpayment and shall disregard that payment when determining the assistance unit's income and resources in the month when the payment is made and the following month.

(b) An assistance unit required to submit a report on the form designated by the commissioner is considered to have continued its application for assistance effective the date the required report is received by the local agency, if a complete report is received within a calendar month after the month in which assistance was received, except that no assistance shall be paid for the period beginning with the end of the month in which the report was due and ending with the date the report was received by the local agency.

Sec. 122. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 256.73, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 8. [RECOVERY OF OVERPAYMENTS.] If any amount of aid to families with dependent children assistance is paid to a recipient in excess of the payment due, it shall be recoverable by the local agency. The agency shall give written notice to the recipient of its intention to recover the overpayment.

When an overpayment occurs, the local agency shall recover the overpayment from a current recipient by reducing the amount of aid payable to the assistance unit of which the recipient is a member for one or more monthly assistance payments until the overpayment is repaid. For any month in which an overpayment must be recovered, recoupment may be made by reducing the grant but only if the reduced assistance payment, together with the assistance unit's total income after deducting work expenses as allowed under section 256.74, subdivision 1, clauses (3) and (4), equals at least 95 percent of the standard of need for the assistance unit, except that if the overpayment is due solely to agency error, this total after deducting allowable work expenses must equal at least 99 percent of the standard of need. Notwithstanding the preceding sentence, beginning on the date on which the commissioner implements a computerized client eligibility and information system in one or more counties, all local agencies in the state shall reduce the assistance payment by three percent of the assistance unit's standard of need or the amount of the monthly payment, whichever is less, for all overpayments whether or not the overpayment is due solely to agency error. In cases when there is both an overpayment and underpayment, the local agency shall offset one against the other in correcting the payment.

Overpayments may also be voluntarily repaid, in part or in full, by the individual, in addition to the above aid reductions, until the total amount of the overpayment is repaid.

The local agency shall make reasonable efforts to recover overpayments made to persons no longer on assistance in accordance with standards adopted in rule by the commissioner of human services. The local agency need not attempt to recover overpayments of less than $35 paid to an individual no longer on assistance if the individual does not receive assistance again within three years, unless the individual has been convicted of fraud under section 256.98.

Sec. 123. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 256.73, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 9. [APPEAL OF OVERPAYMENT DETERMINATIONS.] The recipient may appeal the agency's determination that an overpayment has occurred in accordance with section 256.045.

Sec. 124. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 256.73, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 10. [UNDERPAYMENTS.] The local agency shall promptly repay the recipient for any underpayment. The local agency shall disregard that payment when determining the assistance unit's income and resources in the month when the payment is made and the following month.

Sec. 125. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 256.73, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 11. [COMPLIANCE WITH FEDERAL LAW AND REGULATION.] None of the provisions in this section shall be implemented to the extent that they violate federal law or regulation.

Sec. 126. Minnesota Statutes 1987 Supplement, section 256.736, subdivision 1b, is amended to read:

Subd. 1b. [WORK INCENTIVE SUBSIDIZED HOUSING PROGRAM.] Within the limit of available appropriations, employed recipients of aid to families with dependent children who meet eligibility requirements established by the commissioner of human services are eligible for a state housing subsidy as an incentive to seek and retain employment. The commissioner of human services shall adopt rules for the work incentive subsidized housing program using eligibility criteria, subsidy amounts, and an administrative system developed jointly by the commissioner of human services and the commissioner of jobs and training. Unless superseded by permanent rules, emergency rules adopted to implement this section remain in effect until July 1, 1989. The rules must:

(1) target recipients who are or are likely to become long-term recipients or who experience substantial barriers to employment;

(2) establish a fixed or sliding scale subsidy amount that will create a significant work incentive yet enable the program to serve the greatest possible number of recipients;

(3) limit the subsidy to persons who become employed while receiving assistance; and

(4) provide for continued subsidy payments for up to one year after termination of assistance to ease the transition from assistance to self-sufficiency.

The program must be coordinated with existing work and training programs and must be designed to maximize savings in the aid to families with dependent children program. The subsidy must be provided as in-kind assistance, and it is not available if it would be considered countable income under state and federal requirements.

Sec. 127. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 256.736, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 3b. [MANDATORY SCHOOL ATTENDANCE FOR MINOR PARENTS.] (a) The definitions in this paragraph apply to this subdivision.

(1) "Minor parent" means a recipient of AFDC who is under age 18, and who is the natural or adoptive parent of a child living with the minor parent.

(2) "School" means:

(i) an educational program which leads to a high school diploma. The program or coursework may be, but is not limited to, a program under the post-secondary enrollment options of section 123.3514, a regular or alternative program of an elementary or secondary school, a technical institute, or a college;

(ii) coursework for a general educational development (GED) diploma of not less than six hours of classroom instruction per week; or

(iii) other post-secondary educational program which is approved by the public school or the local agency under subdivision 11.

(b) Notwithstanding section 256.736, subdivision 3, a minor parent must attend school if all of the following apply:

(1) the minor parent has no child living with the parent who is younger than six weeks of age;

(2) transportation services needed to enable the minor parent to attend school are available;

(3) licensed or legal nonlicensed child care services needed to enable the minor parent to attend school are available;

(4) the minor parent has not already graduated from high school and has not received a general educational development (GED) diploma; and

(5) the minor parent does not have good cause for failing to attend school, as provided in paragraph (d).

(c) The minor parent must be enrolled in school and meeting the school's attendance requirements. The minor parent is considered to be attending when the minor parent is enrolled but the school is not in regular session, including during holiday and summer breaks.

(d) The local agency shall determine whether good cause for not attending or not enrolling in school exists, according to this paragraph:

(1) Good cause exists when the minor parent is ill or injured seriously enough to prevent the minor parent from attending school.

(2) Good cause exists when the minor parent's child is ill or injured, and the minor parent's presence in the home is required to care for the child.

(3) Good cause exists when the local agency has verified that the only available school program requires round trip commuting time from the minor parent's residence of more than two hours by available means of transportation, excluding the time necessary to transport children to and from child care.

(4) Good cause exists when there is an interruption in availability of child care services.

(5) Good cause exists when the minor parent has indicated a desire to attend school, but the public school system is not providing for the minor parent's education and alternative programs are not available.

(6) Good cause exists when the school does not cooperate with the local agency in providing verification of the minor parent's education or attendance.

(7) Good cause exists when the minor parent or the minor parent's child has a medical appointment, an appointment with the local welfare agency, or is required to appear in court during the minor parent's normal school hours, or any other obligation consistent with the case management contract.

(8) For the minor parent of a child between six and twelve weeks of age, good cause exists when child care is not available on the premises of the school, or a medical doctor certifies that it would be better for the health of either the parent or the child for the parent to remain at home with the child for a longer period of time.

(e) If the school notifies the local agency that the minor parent is not enrolled or is not meeting the school's attendance requirements, and the local agency determines that the minor parent does not have good cause, the local agency shall apply the sanctions listed in subdivision 4 beginning with the first payment month after issuance of notice.

(f) A right to notice and fair hearing shall be provided in accordance with section 256.045 and the Code of Federal Regulations, title 45, section 205.10.

(g) When a minor parent has failed to attend school and does not have good cause, the local agency shall refer the minor parent to social services for services, as provided in section 257.33.

(h) No less often than quarterly, the local agency must verify that the minor parent is meeting the requirements of this subdivision. Notwithstanding section 13.32, subdivision 3, when the local agency notifies the school that a minor parent is subject to this subdivision, the school must furnish verification of school enrollment and attendance to the local agency.

Sec. 128. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 256.736, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 3c. [MINOR PARENTS NOT LIVING WITH RELATIVES.]

(a) This subdivision applies to a minor parent who is not living with a parent or other adult relative, and who is not living in a group or foster home licensed by the commissioner.

(b) For purposes of this subdivision, the following terms shall have the meanings given them:

(1) "Minor parent" means an applicant for or recipient of AFDC who is under age 18, and who is the natural or adoptive parent of a child living with the minor parent.

(2) "Other adult relative" means a person who qualifies to be an eligible relative caretaker for AFDC, as specified in federal regulations.

(c) The agency shall determine, for each minor parent who applies for or receives AFDC, whether this section applies. For a minor parent to whom this section applies, the local agency shall refer the minor parent to its social services unit within 30 days of the date the application for assistance is approved for development of a social service plan as required in section 257.33. The agency shall notify the minor parent of the referral to social services, and that cooperation in developing and participating in a social service plan is required in order for AFDC eligibility to continue.

(d) In addition to meeting the requirements of section 257.33, the social service plan may, based upon the social service unit's evaluation of the minor caretaker's needs and parenting abilities, and the health, safety, and parenting needs of the minor caretaker's child, require the minor caretaker to live in a group or foster home or participate in available programs which teach skills in parenting or independent living.

(e) If the minor parent fails to cooperate in developing or participating in the social service plan, the social services unit shall notify the income maintenance unit of the local agency, which shall then notify the minor parent of the determination and that the sanctions in subdivision 4 will be applied.

Sec. 129. Minnesota Statutes 1987 Supplement, section 256.736, subdivision 4, is amended to read:

Subd. 4. [CONDITIONS OF CERTIFICATION.] The commissioner of human services shall:

(1) Arrange for or provide any caretaker or child required to participate in employment and training services pursuant to this section with child-care services, transportation, and other necessary family services;

(2) Pay 10 percent of the cost of the work incentive program and any other costs that are required of that agency by federal regulation for employment and training services for recipients of aid to families with dependent children;

(3) Provide that in determining a recipient's needs any monthly incentive training payment made to the recipient by the department of jobs and training is disregarded and the additional expenses attributable to participation in a program are taken into account in grant determination to the extent permitted by federal regulation; and

(4) Provide that when it has been certified by the county board that a caretaker or child required to participate in an employment and training program has been found by the employment and training service provider to have refused without good cause to participate in appropriate employment and training services or to have refused without good cause to accept a bona fide offer of public or other employment, the county board shall provide that the county board shall impose the sanctions in clause (5) or (6) when the county board:

(a) is notified that a caretaker or child required to participate in employment and training services has been found by the employment and training service provider to have failed without good cause to participate in appropriate employment and training services or to have failed without good cause to accept a bona fide offer of public or other employment;

(b) determines that a minor parent who is required to attend school under subdivision 3b has, without good cause, failed to attend school;

(c) determines that subdivision 3c applies to a minor parent and the minor parent has, without good cause, failed to cooperate with development of a social service plan or to participate in execution of the plan, to live in a group or foster home, or to participate in a program that teaches skills in parenting and independent living; or

(d) determines that a caretaker has, without good cause, failed to attend orientation.

(5) To the extent permissible by federal law, the following sanctions shall be imposed for a recipient's failure to participate in required employment and training services, education, orientation, or the requirements of subdivision 3c:

(a) For the first failure, 50 percent of the grant provided to the family for the month following the failure shall be made in the form of protective or vendor payments;

(b) For the second and subsequent failures, the entire grant provided to the family shall be made in the form of protective or vendor payments. Assistance provided to the family shall be in the form of protective or vendor payments until the recipient complies with the requirement; and

(c) When protective payments are required, the local agency may continue payments to the caretaker if a protective payee cannot reasonably be found.

(6) When the sanctions provided by clause (5) are not permissible under federal law, the following sanctions shall be imposed for a recipient's failure to participate in required employment and training services, education, orientation, or the requirements of subdivision 3c:

(a) If the caretaker makes the refusal fails to participate, the caretaker's needs shall not be taken into account in making the grant determination, and aid for any dependent child in the family will be made in the form of protective or vendor payments, except that when protective payments are made, the local agency may continue payments to the caretaker if a protective payee cannot reasonably be found. The standard of assistance for the remaining eligible members of the assistance unit shall be the standard that is used in other instances in which the caretaker is excluded from the assistance unit for noncompliance with a program requirement.

(b) Aid with respect to a dependent child will be denied if a child who makes the refusal fails to participate is the only child receiving aid in the family.

(c) If there is more than one child receiving aid in the family, aid for the child who makes the refusal fails to participate will be denied and the child's needs will not be taken into account in making the grant determination.

(d) If the assistance unit's eligibility is based on the nonexempt principal earner's unemployment and this principal earner fails or refuses without good cause to participate or to accept employment, the entire assistance unit is ineligible for benefits under sections 256.72 to 256.87.

Sec. 130. Minnesota Statutes 1987 Supplement, section 256.736, subdivision 11, is amended to read:

Subd. 11. [CASE MANAGEMENT SERVICES.] (a) For clients described in subdivision 2a, the case manager shall:

(1) Assess the education, skills, and ability of the caretaker to secure and retain a job which, when added to child support, will support the caretaker's family. The case manager must work with the caretaker in completing this task;

(2) Set goals and develop a timetable for completing education and employment goals. The case manager must work with the caretaker in completing this task. For caretakers who are not literate or who have not completed high school, the first goal for the caretaker must be to complete literacy training or a general education diploma. Caretakers who are literate and have completed high school shall be counseled to set realistic attainable goals, taking into account the long-term needs of both the caretaker and the caretaker's family;

(3) Coordinate services such as child care, transportation, and education assistance necessary to enable the caretaker to work toward the goals developed in clause (2). When a client needs child care services in order to attend a Minnesota public or nonprofit college, university or technical institute, the case manager shall contact the appropriate agency to reserve child care funds for the client. A caretaker who needs child care services in order to complete high school or a general education diploma is eligible for child care under section 268.91;

(4) Develop, execute, and monitor a contract between the local agency and the caretaker. The contract must include: (a) specific goals of the caretaker including stated measurements of progress toward each goal; (b) specific services provided by the county agency; and (c) conditions under which the county will withdraw the services provided;

The contract may include other terms as desired or needed by either party. In all cases, however, the case manager must ensure that the caretaker has set forth in the contract realistic goals consistent with the ultimate goal of self-sufficiency for the caretaker's family; and

(5) Develop and refer caretakers to counseling or peer group networks for emotional support while participating in work, education, or training.

(b) In addition to the duties in paragraph (a), for minor parents and pregnant minors, the case manager shall:

(1) Ensure that the contract developed under paragraph (a)(4) considers all factors set forth in section 257.33, subdivision 2; and

(2) Assess the housing and support systems needed by the caretaker in order to provide the dependent children with adequate parenting. The case manager shall encourage minor parents who are not living with friends or relatives to live in a group home or foster care setting and shall assist pregnant minors in assessing their housing needs and planning for adequate housing. If minor parents are unwilling to live in a group home or foster care setting or if no group home or foster care setting is available, the case manager shall assess the minor parent's need for training in parenting and independent living skills and shall refer appropriate minor parents to available counseling programs designed to teach needed skills; and

(3) Inform the minor parent or pregnant minor and assist the minor parent or pregnant minor in evaluating the appropriateness of the high school graduation incentives program under section 126.22, including post-secondary enrollment options, and the employment related and community based instruction programs.

(c) A caretaker may request a conciliation conference to attempt to resolve disputes regarding the contents of a contract developed under this section or a housing and support systems assessment conducted under this section. The caretaker may request a hearing pursuant to section 256.045 to dispute the contents of a contract or assessment developed under this section. The caretaker need not request a conciliation conference in order to request a hearing pursuant to section 256.045.

Sec. 131. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 256.76, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. Upon the completion of ~~such~~ the investigation the county agency shall decide whether the child is eligible for assistance under the provisions of sections 256.72 to 256.87, determine the amount of ~~such~~ the assistance, and the date on which ~~such~~ the assistance shall begin. A decision on an application for assistance shall be made as promptly as possible and no more than 30 days after the date of application. Notwithstanding section 393.07, the county agency shall not delay approval or issuance of assistance pending formal action of the county board of commissioners. The first month's grant shall be based upon that portion of the month from the date of application, or from the date that the applicant meets all eligibility factors, whichever occurs later, provided that on the date that assistance is first requested, the local agency shall inquire and determine whether the person requesting assistance is in immediate need of food, shelter, clothing, or other emergency assistance. If an emergency need is found to exist, the applicant shall be granted assistance pursuant to section 256.871 within a reasonable period of time. It shall make a grant of assistance which shall be binding upon the county and be complied with by the county until ~~such~~ the grant is modified or vacated. If the applicant is ~~subsequently found to have been eligible for assistance under sections 256.72 to 256.87, assistance rendered under section 256.871~~ must be considered as a regular AFDC payment and not a payment under section 256.871. The county agency shall notify the applicant of its decision in writing. ~~Such~~ The assistance shall be paid monthly to the applicant or to the vendor of medical care upon order of the county agency from funds appropriated to the county agency for this purpose. The county agency shall, upon the granting of assistance under these sections, file an order on the form to be approved by the state agency with the auditor of the county and thereafter. After the order is filed, warrants shall be drawn and payments made only in accordance with this order to or for recipients of this assistance or in accordance with any subsequent order.

Sec. 132. [256.925] [OPTIONAL VOTER REGISTRATION FOR PUBLIC ASSISTANCE APPLICANTS AND RECIPIENTS.]

A county agency shall provide voter registration cards to every individual eligible to vote who applies for a public assistance program at the time application is made. The agency shall also make voter registration cards available to a public assistance recipient upon the recipient's request or at the time of the recipient's eligibility redetermination. The county agency shall assist applicants and recipients in completing the voter registration cards, as needed. Applicants must be informed that completion of the cards is optional. Completed forms shall be collected by agency employees and submitted to proper election officials.

Sec. 133. Minnesota Statutes 1987 Supplement, section 256.936, is amended to read:

256.936 [CHILDREN'S HEALTH PLAN.]

Subdivision 1. [DEFINITIONS.] For purposes of this section the following terms shall have the meanings given them:

(a) "Eligible persons" means pregnant women and children under six years old who are one year of age or older but less than 11 years of age who have gross family incomes that are equal to or less than 185 percent of the federal poverty guidelines and who are not eligible for medical assistance under chapter 256B or general assistance medical care under chapter 256D and who are not otherwise insured for the covered services. Eligibility for pregnant women shall continue for 60 days postpartum to allow for follow-up visits. The period of eligibility extends from the first day of the month in which the child's first birthday occurs to the last day of the month in which the child becomes 11 years old.

(b) "Covered services" means prenatal care services and children's health services.

(c) "Prenatal care services" means the outpatient services provided to pregnant women which are medically necessary for the pregnancy. Physician or certified nurse-midwife services for delivery are included but inpatient hospital services are not included.

(d) "Children's health services" means the health services reimbursed under chapter 256B, with the exception of inpatient hospital services, nursing home or intermediate care facilities services, and mental health and chemical dependency services.

(e) (d) "Eligible providers" means those health care providers who provide prenatal care services and children's health services to medical assistance clients under rules established by the commissioner for that program. Reimbursement under this section shall be at the same rates and conditions established for medical assistance. A provider of prenatal care services shall assess whether the pregnant woman is at risk of delivering a low birth weight baby or has a health condition which may increase the probability of a problem birth.

(f) (e) "Commissioner" means the commissioner of human services.

Subd. 2. [PLAN ADMINISTRATION.] The children's health plan is established to promote access to appropriate primary health care for pregnant women and to assure healthy babies and healthy children. The commissioner shall establish an office for the state administration of this plan. The plan shall be used to provide prenatal care and children's health services for eligible persons. Payment for these services shall be made to all eligible providers. The commissioner shall establish marketing efforts to encourage potentially eligible persons to receive information about the program and about other medical care programs administered or supervised by the department of human services. A toll-free telephone number must be used to provide information about the plan medical programs and to promote access to the covered services. The commissioner must make a quarterly assessment of the expected expenditures for the covered services and the appropriation. Based on this assessment the commissioner may limit enrollments and target former aid to families with dependent children recipients. If sufficient money is not available to cover all costs incurred in one quarter, the commissioner may seek an additional authorization for funding from the legislative advisory committee.

Subd. 3. [APPLICATION PROCEDURES.] Applications and other information must be made available in to provider offices, local human services agencies, public and private elementary schools, community health offices, and Women, Infants and Children (WIC) program sites. These sites may accept applications, collect the enrollment fee, and forward the forms and fees to the commissioner. Otherwise, applicants may apply directly to the commissioner. The commissioner may use individuals' social security numbers as identifiers for purposes of administering the plan and conduct data matches to verify income. Applicants shall submit evidence of family income, earned and unearned, that will be used to verify income eligibility. Notwithstanding any other law to the contrary, benefits under this section are secondary to any a plan of insurance or benefit program under which an eligible person may have coverage. The commissioner shall identify eligible persons who may have coverage or benefits under other plans of insurance or who become eligible for medical assistance.

Subd. 4. [ENROLLMENT FEE.] An enrollment fee of $35 is required from eligible persons for prenatal care services and an annual enrollment fee of $25, not to exceed $150 per family, is required from eligible persons for children's health services. The fees may be paid together at the time of enrollment or as two payment installments. The commissioner shall make an annual redetermination of continued eligibility and identify people who may become eligible for medical assistance.

Sec. 134. Minnesota Statutes 1987 Supplement, section 256.969, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [SPECIAL CONSIDERATIONS.] (a) In determining the rate the commissioner of human services will take into consideration whether the following circumstances exist:

(1) minimal medical assistance and general assistance medical care utilization;

(2) unusual length of stay experience; and

(3) disproportionate numbers of low-income patients served.

(b) To the extent of available appropriations, the commissioner shall provide supplemental grants directly to a hospital described in section 256B.031, subdivision 10, paragraph (a), that receives medical assistance payments through a county-managed health plan that serves only residents of the county. The payments must be designed to compensate for actuarially demonstrated higher health care costs within the county, for the population served by the plan, that are not reflected in the plan's rates under section 256B.031, subdivision 4.

(c) For inpatient hospital originally paid admissions, excluding medicare cross-overs, provided from July 1, 1988, through June 30, 1989, hospitals with 100 or fewer medical assistance annualized paid admissions, excluding medicare cross-overs, that were paid by March 1, 1988, for admissions paid during the period January 1, 1987, to June 30, 1987, shall have medical assistance inpatient payments increased 17 percent. Hospitals with more than 100 but fewer than 250 medical assistance annualized paid admissions, excluding medicare cross-overs, that were paid by March 1, 1988, for admissions paid during the period January 1, 1987, to June 30, 1987, shall have medical assistance inpatient payments increased 7 percent for inpatient hospital originally paid admissions, excluding medicare cross-overs, provided from July 1, 1988, through June 30, 1989. This provision applies only to hospitals that have 100 or fewer licensed beds on March 1, 1988.

Sec. 135. Minnesota Statutes 1987 Supplement, section 256B.02, subdivision 8, is amended to read:

Subd. 8. [MEDICAL ASSISTANCE; MEDICAL CARE.] "Medical assistance" or "medical care" means payment of part or all of the cost of the following care and services for eligible individuals whose income and resources are insufficient to meet all of this cost:

(1) Inpatient hospital services. A second medical opinion is required prior to reimbursement for elective surgeries requiring a second opinion. The commissioner shall publish in the State Register a list of elective surgeries that require a second medical opinion prior to reimbursement, and the criteria and standards for deciding whether an elective surgery should require a second medical opinion. The list and the criteria and standards are not subject to the requirements of sections 14.01 to 14.69. The commissioner's decision whether a second medical opinion is required, made in accordance with rules governing that decision, is not subject to administrative appeal;

(2) Skilled nursing home services and services of intermediate care facilities, including training and habilitation services, as defined in section 252.41, subdivision 3, for persons with mental retardation or related conditions who are residing in intermediate care facilities for persons with mental retardation or related conditions. Medical assistance must not be used to pay the costs of nursing care provided to a patient in a swing bed as defined in section 144.562 unless the facility is eligible as a sole community provider as defined in Code of Federal Regulations, title 42, section 412.92. If medical assistance is used to pay for costs of nursing care provided to patients in swing beds when the facility is an eligible sole community provider, the facility's medical assistance payments are contingent upon the following conditions:

(a) the health care financing administration approves the state plan amendment;

(b) swing bed patients are screened as provided for in Minnesota Rules, part 9549.0059;

(c) it is no longer medically necessary for the patient to receive acute care level of service;

(d) the daily medical assistance payment for swing bed services shall be the statewide average medical assistance payment expressed as per diem for skilled nursing services as computed annually by the commissioner of human services on July 1 each year; and

(e) the continuation of the medical assistance swing bed option for sole community providers beyond June 30, 1990, is subject to legislative adoption of a like recommendation made by the interagency board for quality assurance in its nursing home bed distribution study required under Laws 1987, chapter 403, article 4, section 13;

(3) Physicians' services;

(4) Outpatient hospital or nonprofit community health clinic services or physician-directed clinic services. The physician-directed clinic staff shall include at least two physicians, one of whom is on the premises whenever the clinic is open, and all services shall be provided under the direct supervision of the physician who is on the premises. Hospital outpatient departments are subject to the same limitations and reimbursements as other enrolled vendors for all services, except initial triage, emergency services, and services not provided or immediately available in clinics, physicians' offices, or by other enrolled providers. A second medical opinion is required before reimbursement for elective surgeries requiring a second opinion. The commissioner shall publish in the State Register a list of elective surgeries that require a second medical opinion before reimbursement and the criteria and standards for deciding whether an elective surgery should require a second surgical opinion. The list and the criteria and standards are not subject to the requirements of sections 14.01 to 14.69. The commissioner's decision whether a second medical opinion is required, made in accordance with rules governing that decision, is not subject to administrative appeal. "Emergency services" means those medical services required for the immediate diagnosis and treatment of medical conditions that, if not immediately diagnosed and treated, could lead to serious physical or mental disability or death or are necessary to alleviate severe pain. Neither the hospital, its employees, nor any physician or dentist, shall be liable in any action arising out of a determination not to render emergency services or care if reasonable care is exercised in determining the condition of the person, or in determining the appropriateness of the facilities, or the qualifications and availability of personnel to render these services consistent with this section;

(5) Community mental health center services, as defined in rules adopted by the commissioner pursuant to section 256B.04, subdivision 2, and provided by a community mental health center as defined in section 245.62, subdivision 2;

(6) Home health care services;

(7) Private duty nursing services;

- (8) Physical therapy and related services;
- (9) Dental services, excluding cast metal restorations;
- (10) Laboratory and X-ray services;
- (11) Nurse anesthetist services;

(12) The following if prescribed by a licensed practitioner: drugs, eyeglasses, dentures, and prosthetic devices. The commissioner shall designate a formulary committee which shall advise the commissioner on the names of drugs for which payment shall be made, recommend a system for reimbursing providers on a set fee or charge basis rather than the present system, and develop methods encouraging use of generic drugs when they are less expensive and equally effective as trademark drugs. The commissioner shall appoint the formulary committee members no later than 30 days following July 1, 1981. The formulary committee shall consist of nine members, four of whom shall be physicians who are not employed by the department of human services, and a majority of whose practice is for persons paying privately or through health insurance, three of whom shall be pharmacists who are not employed by the department of human services, and a majority of whose practice is for persons paying privately or through health insurance, a consumer representative, and a nursing home representative. Committee members shall serve two-year terms and shall serve without compensation. The commissioner may establish a drug formulary. Its establishment and publication shall not be subject to the requirements of the administrative procedure act, but the formulary committee shall review and comment on the formulary contents. Prior authorization may be required by the commissioner, with the consent of the drug formulary committee, before certain formulary drugs are eligible for payment. The formulary shall not include: drugs or products for which there is no federal funding; over-the-counter drugs, except for antacids, acetaminophen, family planning products, aspirin, insulin, prenatal vitamins, and vitamins for children under the age of seven; or any other over-the-counter drug identified by the commissioner, in consultation with the appropriate professional consultants under contract with or employed by the state agency, as necessary, appropriate and cost effective for the treatment of certain specified chronic diseases, conditions or disorders, and this determination shall not be subject to the requirements of chapter 14, the administrative procedure act; nutritional products, except for those products needed for treatment of phenylketonuria, hyperlysinemia, maple syrup urine disease, a combined allergy to human milk, cow milk, and soy formula, or any other childhood or adult diseases, conditions, or disorders identified by the commissioner as requiring a similarly necessary nutritional product; anorectics; and drugs for which medical value has not been established. Separate payment shall not be made for nutritional products for residents of long-term care facilities; payment for dietary requirements is a component of the per diem rate paid to these facilities. Payment to drug vendors shall not be modified before the formulary is established except that the commissioner shall not permit payment for any drugs which may not by law be included in the formulary, and the commissioner's determination shall not be subject to chapter 14, the administrative procedure act. The commissioner shall publish conditions for prohibiting payment for specific drugs after considering the formulary committee's recommendations.

The basis for determining the amount of payment shall be the lower of the actual acquisition costs of the drugs plus a fixed dispensing fee established by the commissioner, the maximum allowable cost set by the federal government or by the commissioner plus the fixed dispensing fee or the usual and customary price charged to the public. Actual acquisition cost includes quantity and other special discounts except time and cash discounts. The actual acquisition cost of a drug may be estimated by the commissioner. The maximum allowable cost of a multisource drug may be set by the commissioner and it shall be comparable to, but no higher than, the maximum amount paid by other third party payors in this state who have maximum allowable cost programs. Establishment of the amount of payment for drugs shall not be subject to the requirements of the administrative procedure act. An additional dispensing fee of $.30 may be added to the dispensing fee paid to pharmacists for prescriptions dispensed to residents of long-term care facilities when a unit dose blister card system, approved by the department, is used. Under this type of dispensing system, the pharmacist must dispense a 30-day supply of drug. The National Drug Code (NDC) from the drug container used to fill the blister card must be identified on the claim to the department. The unit dose blister card containing the drug must meet the packaging standards set forth in Minnesota Rules, part 6800.2700, that govern the return of unused drugs to the pharmacy for reuse. The pharmacy provider will be required to credit the department for the actual acquisition cost of all unused drugs that are eligible for reuse. Whenever a generically equivalent product is available, payment shall be on the basis of the actual acquisition cost of the generic drug, unless the prescriber specifically indicates "dispense as written" on the prescription as required by section 151.21, subdivision 2.

Notwithstanding the above provisions, implementation of any change in the fixed dispensing fee which has not been subject to the administrative procedure act shall be limited to not more than 180 days, unless, during that time, the commissioner shall have initiated rulemaking through the administrative procedure act;

(12) (13) Diagnostic, screening, and preventive services. "Preventive services" include services related to pregnancy, including services for those conditions which may complicate a pregnancy and which may be available to a pregnant woman determined to be at risk of poor pregnancy outcome. Preventive services available to a woman at risk of poor pregnancy outcome may differ in an amount, duration, or scope from those available to other individuals eligible for medical assistance;

~~(13)~~ (14) Health care prepayment plan premiums and insurance premiums if paid directly to a vendor and supplementary medical insurance benefits under Title XVIII of the Social Security Act. For purposes of obtaining Medicare part B, expenditures may be made even if federal funding is not available;

~~(14)~~ (15) Abortion services, but only if one of the following conditions is met:

(a) The abortion is a medical necessity. "Medical necessity" means (1) the signed written statement of two physicians indicating the abortion is medically necessary to prevent the death of the mother, and (2) the patient has given her consent to the abortion in writing unless the patient is physically or legally incapable of providing informed consent to the procedure, in which case consent will be given as otherwise provided by law;

(b) The pregnancy is the result of criminal sexual conduct as defined in section 609.342, clauses (c), (d), (e)(i), and (f), and the incident is reported within 48 hours after the incident occurs to a valid law enforcement agency for investigation, unless the victim is physically unable to report the criminal sexual conduct, in which case the report shall be made within 48 hours after the victim becomes physically able to report the criminal sexual conduct; or

(c) The pregnancy is the result of incest, but only if the incident and relative are reported to a valid law enforcement agency for investigation prior to the abortion;

~~(15)~~ (16) Transportation costs incurred solely for obtaining emergency medical care or transportation costs incurred by nonambulatory persons in obtaining emergency or nonemergency medical care when paid directly to an ambulance company, common carrier, or other recognized providers of transportation services. For the purpose of this clause, a person who is incapable of transport by taxicab or bus shall be considered to be nonambulatory;

~~(16)~~ (17) To the extent authorized by rule of the state agency, costs of bus or taxicab transportation incurred by any ambulatory eligible person for obtaining nonemergency medical care;

~~(17)~~ (18) Personal care assistant services provided by an individual, not a relative, who is qualified to provide the services, where the services are prescribed by a physician in accordance with a plan of treatment and are supervised by a registered nurse. Payments to personal care assistants shall be adjusted annually to reflect changes in the cost of living or of providing services by the average annual adjustment granted to vendors such as nursing homes and home health agencies;

(18) (19) To the extent authorized by rule of the state agency, case management services to persons with serious and persistent mental illness;

(19) (20) To the extent authorized by rule of the state agency, case management services to persons with brain injuries;

(20) (21) Hospice care services under Public Law Number 99-272, section 9505, to the extent authorized by rule; and

(21) (22) Day treatment services as specified in sections 245.462, subdivision 8, and 245.471, subdivision 3, that are provided under contract with the county board; and

(23) Any other medical or remedial care licensed and recognized under state law unless otherwise prohibited by law, except licensed chemical dependency treatment programs or primary treatment or extended care treatment units in hospitals that are covered under Laws 1986, chapter 394, sections 8 to 20. The commissioner shall include chemical dependency services in the state medical assistance plan for federal reporting purposes, but payment must be made under Laws 1986, chapter 394, sections 8 to 20. The commissioner shall publish in the State Register a list of elective surgeries that require a second medical opinion before medical assistance reimbursement, and the criteria and standards for deciding whether an elective surgery should require a second medical opinion. The list and criteria and standards are not subject to the requirements of sections 14.01 to 14.69. The commissioner shall publish in the State Register a list of health services that require prior authorization, as well as the criteria and standards used to select health services on the list. The list and the criteria and standards used to formulate it are not subject to the requirements of sections 14.01 to 14.69. The commissioner's decision whether prior authorization is required for a health service or a second medical opinion is required for an elective surgery is not subject to administrative appeal.

Sec. 136. Minnesota Statutes 1987 Supplement, section 256B.031, subdivision 5, is amended to read:

Subd. 5. [FREE CHOICE LIMITED.] (a) The commissioner may require recipients of aid to families with dependent children, ~~except those recipients who are refugees and whose health services are reimbursed 100 percent by the federal government for the first 31 months after entry into the United States,~~ to enroll in a prepaid health plan and receive services from or through the prepaid health plan, with the following exceptions:

(1) recipients who are refugees and whose health services are reimbursed 100 percent by the federal government for the first 24 months after entry into the United States; and

(2) recipients who are placed in a foster home or facility. If placement occurs before the seventh day prior to the end of any month, the recipient will be disenrolled from the recipient's prepaid health plan effective the first day of the following month. If placement occurs after the seventh day before the end of any month, that recipient will be disenrolled from the prepaid health plan on the first day of the second month following placement. The prepaid health plan must provide all services set forth in subdivision 2 during the interim period.

Enrollment in a prepaid health plan is mandatory only when recipients have a choice of at least two prepaid health plans.

(b) Recipients who become eligible on or after December 1, 1987, must choose a health plan within 30 days of the date eligibility is determined. At the time of application, the local agency shall ask the recipient whether the recipient has a primary health care provider. If the recipient has not chosen a health plan within 30 days but has provided the local agency with the name of a primary health care provider, the local agency shall determine whether the provider participates in a prepaid health plan available to the recipient and, if so, the local agency shall select that plan on the recipient's behalf. If the recipient has not provided the name of a primary health care provider who participates in an available prepaid health plan, commissioner shall randomly assign the recipient to a health plan.

(c) Recipients who are eligible on November 30, 1987, must choose a prepaid health plan by January 15, 1988. If possible, the local agency shall ask whether the recipient has a primary health care provider and the procedures under paragraph (b) shall apply. If a recipient does not choose a prepaid health plan by this date, the commissioner shall randomly assign the recipient to a health plan.

(d) Each recipient must be enrolled in the health plan for a minimum of six months following the effective date of enrollment, except that the recipient may change health plans once within the first 60 days after initial enrollment. The commissioner shall request a waiver from the federal Health Care Financing Administration to extend the minimum period to 12 months to limit a recipient's ability to change health plans to once every six or 12 months. If such a waiver is obtained, each recipient must be enrolled in the health plan for a minimum of six or 12 months. A recipient may change health plans once within the first 60 days after initial enrollment.

(e) Women who are receiving medical assistance due to pregnancy and later become eligible for aid to families with dependent children are not required to choose a prepaid health plan until 60 days postpartum. An infant born as a result of that pregnancy must be enrolled in a prepaid health plan at the same time as the mother.

(f) If third-party coverage is available to a recipient through enrollment in a prepaid health plan through employment, through coverage by the former spouse, or if a duty of support has been imposed by law, order, decree, or judgment of a court under section 518.551, the obligee or recipient shall participate in the prepaid health plan in which the obligee has enrolled provided that the commissioner has contracted with the plan.

Sec. 137. Minnesota Statutes 1987 Supplement, section 256B.042, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [LIEN ENFORCEMENT.] The state agency may perfect and enforce its lien by following the procedures set forth in sections 514.69, 514.70 and 514.71, and its verified lien statement shall be filed with the appropriate court administrator in the county of financial responsibility. The verified lien statement shall contain the following: the name and address of the person to whom medical care was furnished, the date of injury, the name and address of the vendor or vendors furnishing medical care, the dates of the service, the amount claimed to be due for the care, and, to the best of the state agency's knowledge, the names and addresses of all persons, firms, or corporations claimed to be liable for damages arising from the injuries. This section shall not affect the priority of any attorney's lien. The state agency is not subject to any limitations period referred to in section 514.69 or 514.71 and has one year from the date notice is received by it under subdivision 4, paragraph (c), or one year from the date medical bills are first paid by the state agency, whichever is later, to file its verified lien statement. The state agency may file its verified lien statement or commence an action to enforce the lien within one year of (1) the date the notice required by subdivision 4, paragraph (c), is received or (2) the date the recipient's cause of action is concluded by judgment, award, settlement, or otherwise, whichever is later.

Sec. 138. Minnesota Statutes 1987 Supplement, section 256B.06, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [ELIGIBILITY.] Medical assistance may be paid for any person:

(1) who is a child eligible for or receiving adoption assistance payments under Title IV-E of the Social Security Act, United States Code, title 42, sections 670 to 676 under Minnesota Statutes, section 259.40 or 259.431; or

(2) who is a child eligible for or receiving foster care maintenance payments under Title IV-E of the Social Security Act, United States Code, title 42, sections 670 to 676; or

(3) who is eligible for or receiving public assistance under the aid to families with dependent children program, the Minnesota supplemental aid program, except for those persons eligible for Minnesota supplemental aid because the local agency waived excess assets under section 256D.37, subdivision 2; or

(4) who is a pregnant woman, as certified in writing by a physician or nurse midwife, and who (a) meets the other eligibility criteria of this section, and (b) would be categorically eligible for assistance under the aid to families with dependent children program if the child had been born and was living with the woman. For purposes of this section, a woman is considered pregnant for 60 days postpartum; or

(5) who is a pregnant woman, as certified in writing by a physician or nurse midwife, who meets the other eligibility criteria of this section and whose unborn child would be eligible as a needy child under clause (8) if born and living with the woman. For purposes of this section, a woman is considered pregnant for 60 days postpartum; or

(6) who meets the categorical eligibility requirements of the supplemental security income program and the other eligibility requirements of this section; the methodology for calculating the disregards and deductions from income shall be as specified in section 256D.37, subdivisions 6 to 14; or

(7) who, except for the amount of income or assets, would qualify for supplemental security income for the aged, blind and disabled, or aid to families with dependent children, and who meets the other eligibility requirements of this section. However, in the case of families and children who meet the categorical eligibility requirements for aid to families with dependent children, the methodology for calculating assets shall be as specified in section 256.73, subdivision 2, except that the exclusion for an automobile shall be as in clause (13)(g) as long as acceptable to the health care financing administration, and the methodology for calculating deductions from earnings for child care and work expenses shall be as specified in section 256.74, subdivision 1; or

(8) who is under 21 years of age and in need of medical care that neither the person nor the person's relatives responsible under sections 256B.01 to 256B.26 are financially able to provide; or

(9) who is an infant less than one year of age born on or after October 1, 1984, whose mother was eligible at the time of birth and who remains in the mother's household. Eligibility under this clause is concurrent with the mother's and does not depend on the father's income except as the income affects the mother's eligibility; or

(10) who is residing in a hospital for treatment of mental disease or tuberculosis and is 65 years of age or older and without means sufficient to pay the per capita hospital charge; and

(11) who resides in Minnesota, or, if absent from the state, is deemed to be a resident of Minnesota in accordance with the rules of the state agency; and

(12) who alone, or together with the person's spouse, does not own real property other than the homestead. For the purposes of this section, "homestead" means the house owned and occupied by the applicant or recipient as a primary place of residence, together with the contiguous land upon which it is situated. The homestead shall continue to be excluded for persons residing in a long-term care facility if it is used as a primary residence by the spouse, minor child, or disabled child of any age. The homestead is also excluded for the first six calendar months of the person's stay in the long-term care facility. The homestead must be reduced to an amount within limits or excluded on another basis if the person remains in the long-term care facility for a period longer than six months. Real estate not used as a home may not be retained unless the property is not salable, the equity is $6,000 or less and the income produced by the property is at least six percent of the equity, or the excess real property is exempted for a period of nine months if there is a good faith effort to sell the property and a legally binding agreement is signed to repay the amount of assistance issued during that nine months; and

(13) who individually does not own more than $3,000 in cash or liquid assets, or if a member of a household with two family members (husband and wife, or parent and child), does not own more than $6,000 in cash or liquid assets, plus $200 for each additional legal dependent. In addition to these maximum amounts, an eligible individual or family may accrue interest on these amounts, but they must be reduced to the maximum at the time of an eligibility redetermination. For residents of long-term care facilities, the accumulation of the clothing and personal needs allowance pursuant to section 256B.35 must also be reduced to the maximum at the time of the eligibility redetermination. Cash and liquid assets may include a prepaid funeral contract and insurance policies with cash surrender value. The value of the following shall not be included:

(a) the homestead, (b) household goods and furniture in use in the home, (c) personal effects with a total equity value of $2,000 or less, (d) wearing apparel, (e) personal property used as a regular abode by the applicant or recipient, (f) a lot in a burial plot for each member of the household, (g) personal jewelry acquired more than 24 months immediately prior to the period of medical assistance eligibility and personal jewelry acquired within 24 months immediately prior to the period of medical assistance eligibility and not purchased with assets of the applicant or recipient, (g) (e) capital and operating assets of a trade or business that the local agency determines are necessary to the person's ability to earn an income, (h) (f) for a period of six months, insurance settlements to repair or replace damaged, destroyed, or stolen property, (i) (g) one motor vehicle that is licensed pursuant to chapter 168 and defined as: (1) passenger automobile, (2) station wagon, (3) motorcycle, (4) motorized bicycle or (5) truck of the weight found in categories A to E, of section 168.013, subdivision 1e, and that is used primarily for the person's benefit, and (j) (h) other items which may be required by federal law or statute. To be excluded, the vehicle must have a market value of less than $4,500; be necessary to obtain medically necessary health services; be necessary for employment; be modified for operation by or transportation of a handicapped person; or be necessary to perform essential daily tasks because of climate, terrain, distance, or similar factors. The equity value of other motor vehicles is counted against the cash or liquid asset limit; and

(14) who has or anticipates receiving a semiannual income not in excess of 115 percent of the income standards by family size used in the aid to families with dependent children program, except that families and children may have an income up to 133½ percent of the AFDC income standard. Notwithstanding any laws or rules to the contrary, in computing income to determine eligibility of persons who are not residents of long-term care facilities, the commissioner shall disregard increases in income as required by Public Law Numbers 94-566, section 503; 99-272; and 99-509; and

(15) who has ~~monthly~~ expenses for medical care that are more than the amount of the person's excess income, computed on a ~~monthly~~ basis, in which case eligibility may be established and medical assistance payments may be made to cover the ~~monthly~~ unmet medical need by deducting incurred medical expenses from the excess income to reduce the excess to the income standard specified in clause (14). The person shall elect to have the medical expenses deducted monthly or at the beginning of the budget period; or who is a pregnant woman or infant up to one year of age who meets the requirements of clauses (1) to (8) except that her anticipated income is in excess of the income standards by family size used in the aid to families with dependent children program, but is equal to or less than ~~133½~~ 185 percent of that income standard the federal poverty guideline for the same family size. Eligibility for a pregnant woman or infant up to one year of age with respect to this clause shall be without regard to the asset standards specified in clauses (12) and (13). For persons who reside in licensed nursing homes, regional treatment centers, or medical institutions, the income over and above that required in section 256B.35 for personal needs allowance is to be applied to the cost of institutional care. In addition, income may be retained by an institutionalized person (a)

to support dependents in the amount that, together with the income of the spouse and child under age 18, would provide net income equal to the medical assistance standard for the family size of the dependents excluding the person residing in the facility; or (b) for a period of up to three calendar months, in an amount equal to the medical assistance standard for a family size of one if the person was not living together with a spouse or child under age 21 at the time the person entered a long-term care facility, if the person has expenses of maintaining a residence in the community, and if a physician certifies that the person is expected to reside in the long-term care facility on a short-term basis. For purposes of this section, persons are determined to be residing in licensed nursing homes, regional treatment centers, or medical institutions if the persons are expected to remain for a period expected to last longer than three months. The commissioner of human services may establish a schedule of contributions to be made by the spouse of a nursing home resident to the cost of care; and

(16) who has applied or agrees to apply all proceeds received or receivable by the person or the person's spouse from any third person liable for the costs of medical care for the person, the spouse, and children. The state agency shall require from any applicant or recipient of medical assistance the assignment of any rights to medical support and third party payments. Persons must cooperate with the state in establishing paternity and obtaining third party payments. By signing an application for medical assistance, a person assigns to the department of human services all rights the person may have to medical support or payments for medical expenses from any other person or entity on their own or their dependent's behalf and agrees to cooperate with the state in establishing paternity and obtaining third party payments. Any rights or amounts so assigned shall be applied against the cost of medical care paid for under this chapter. Any assignment takes effect upon the determination that the applicant is eligible for medical assistance and up to three months prior to the date of application if the applicant is determined eligible for and receives medical assistance benefits. The application must contain a statement explaining this assignment. Any assignment shall not be effective as to benefits paid or provided under automobile accident coverage and private health care coverage prior to notification of the assignment by the person or organization providing the benefits; ~~and~~

(17) who is under age 19 and qualifies as a disabled individual under United States Code, title 42, section 1382c(a), and who would be eligible for medical assistance under the state plan if residing in a medical institution, and who requires a level of care provided in a hospital, skilled nursing facility, intermediate care facility, or intermediate care facility for persons with mental retardation or related conditions, for whom home care is appropriate, provided that the cost to medical assistance for home care services is not more than medical assistance would pay for appropriate institutional care; and

(18) eligibility is available for the month of application and for three months prior to application if the person was eligible in those prior months. A redetermination of eligibility must occur every 12 months.

Sec. 139. Minnesota Statutes 1987 Supplement, section 256B.06, subdivision 4, is amended to read:

Subd. 4. [CITIZENSHIP REQUIREMENTS.] Eligibility for medical assistance is limited to citizens of the United States and aliens lawfully admitted for permanent residence or otherwise permanently residing in the United States under the color of law. Aliens who are seeking legalization under the Immigration Reform and Control Act of 1986, Public Law Number 99-603, who are under age 18, over age 65, blind, disabled, or Cuban or Haitian, and who meet the eligibility requirements of medical assistance under subdivision 1 and section 256B.17 are eligible to receive medical assistance. Pregnant women who are aliens seeking legalization under the Immigration Reform and Control Act of 1986, Public Law Number 99-603, and who meet the eligibility requirements of medical assistance under subdivision 1 are eligible for payment of care and services through the period of pregnancy and six weeks postpartum. Payment shall also be made for care and services that are furnished to an alien, regardless of immigration status, who otherwise meets the eligibility requirements of this section if such care and services are necessary for the treatment of an emergency medical condition. For purposes of this subdivision, the term "emergency medical condition" means a medical condition, including labor and delivery, that if not immediately treated could cause a person physical or mental disability, continuation of severe pain, or death.

Sec. 140. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 256B.08, is amended to read:

256B.08 [APPLICATION.]

Subdivision 1. [APPLICATION PROCESS.] An applicant for medical assistance hereunder, or a person acting in the applicant's behalf, shall file an application with a county local agency in such the manner and form as shall be prescribed by the state agency. When a married applicant resides in a nursing home or applies for medical assistance for nursing home services, the county local agency shall consider an application on behalf of the applicant's spouse only upon specific request of the applicant or upon specific request of the spouse and separate filing of an application.

Subd. 2. [EXPEDITED REVIEW FOR PREGNANT WOMEN.] A pregnant woman who may be eligible for assistance under section 256B.06, subdivision 1, shall receive an appointment for eligibility determination no later than five working days from the date of her request for assistance from the local agency. The local agency shall expedite processing her application for assistance and shall make a determination of eligibility on a completed application no later than ten working days following the applicant's initial appointment. The local agency shall assist the applicant to provide all necessary information and documentation in order to process the application within the time period required under this subdivision. The state agency shall provide for the placement of applications for medical assistance in eligible provider offices, community health offices, and Women, Infants and Children (WIC) program sites.

Sec. 141. Minnesota Statutes 1987 Supplement, section 256B.091, subdivision 4, is amended to read:

Subd. 4. [SCREENING OF PERSONS.] Prior to nursing home or boarding care home admission, screening teams shall assess the needs of all applicants, except (1) patients transferred from other certified nursing homes or boarding care homes; (2) patients who, having entered acute care facilities from nursing homes or boarding care homes, are returning to a nursing home or boarding care home; (3) persons entering a facility described in section 256B.431, subdivision 4, paragraph (c); (4) individuals not eligible for medical assistance whose length of stay is expected to be 30 days or less based on a physician's certification, if the facility notifies the screening team upon admission and provides an update to the screening team on the 30th day after admission; (5) individuals who have a contractual right to have their nursing home care paid for indefinitely by the veteran's administration; or (6) persons entering a facility conducted by and for the adherents of a recognized church or religious denomination for the purpose of providing care and services for those who depend upon spiritual means, through prayer alone, for healing. ~~The cost for screening applicants who are receiving medical assistance must be paid by the medical assistance program. The total screening cost for each county for applicants who are not eligible for medical assistance and residents of nursing homes who request a screening must be paid monthly by nursing homes and boarding care homes participating in the medical assistance program in the county. The monthly amount to be paid by each nursing home and boarding care home must be determined by dividing the county's estimate of the total annual cost of screenings allowed by the commissioner in the county for the following rate year by 12 to determine the monthly cost estimate and allocating the monthly cost estimate to each nursing home and boarding care home based on the number of licensed beds in the nursing home or boarding care home. The monthly cost estimate for each nursing home or boarding care home must be submitted to the nursing home or boarding care home and the state by the county no later than February 15 of each year for inclusion in the nursing home's or boarding care home's payment rate on the following rate year. The~~ commissioner shall include the reported annual estimated cost of screenings for each nursing home or boarding care home as an operating cost of that nursing home in accordance with section 256B.431, subdivision 2b, clause (g). For all individuals regardless of payment source, if delay-of-screening timelines are not met because a county is late in screening an individual who meets the delay-of-screening criteria, the county is solely responsible for paying the cost of the preadmission screening. Notwithstanding section 256B.0641, overpayments attributable to payment of the screening costs under the medical assistance program may not be recovered from a facility. Any other interested person may be screened under this subdivision if the person pays a fee for the screening based upon a sliding fee scale determined by the commissioner.

Sec. 142. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 256B.092, subdivision 5, is amended to read:

Subd. 5. [FEDERAL WAIVERS.] The commissioner shall apply for any federal waivers necessary to secure, to the extent allowed by law, federal financial participation under United States Code, title 42, sections 1396 to 1396p, as amended through December 31, 1982, 1987, for the provision of services to persons who, in the absence of the services, would need the level of care provided in a state hospital or a community intermediate care facility for persons with mental retardation or related conditions. The commissioner may seek amendments to the waivers or apply for additional waivers under United States Code, title 42, sections 1396 to 1396p, as amended through December 31, ~~1982~~ 1987, to contain costs. The commissioner shall ensure that payment for the cost of providing home and community-based alternative services under the federal waiver plan shall not exceed the cost of intermediate care services that would have been provided without the waived services.

Sec. 143. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 256B.092, subdivision 7, is amended to read:

Subd. 7. [SCREENING TEAMS ESTABLISHED.] Each county agency shall establish a screening team which, under the direction of the county case manager, shall make an evaluation of need for home and community-based services of persons who are entitled to the level of care provided by an intermediate care facility for persons with mental retardation or related conditions or for whom there is a reasonable indication that they might require the level of care provided by an intermediate care facility. The screening team shall make an evaluation of need within 15 working days of the request for service date that the assessment is completed or within 60 working days of a request for service by a person with mental retardation or related conditions, whichever is the earlier, and within five working days of an emergency admission of an individual to an intermediate care facility for persons with mental retardation or related conditions. The screening team shall consist of the case manager, the client, a parent or guardian, a qualified mental retardation professional, as defined in the Code of Federal Regulations, title 42, section 442.401, as amended through December 31, 1982 1987. For individuals determined to have overriding health care needs, a registered nurse must be designated as either the case manager or the qualified mental retardation professional. The case manager shall consult with the client's physician, other health professionals or other persons as necessary to make this evaluation. The case manager, with the concurrence of the client or the client's legal representative, may invite other persons to attend meetings of the screening team. No member of the screening team shall have any direct or indirect service provider interest in the case.

Sec. 144. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 256B.14, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [ACTIONS TO OBTAIN PAYMENT.] The state agency shall promulgate rules to determine the ability of responsible relatives to contribute partial or complete repayment of medical assistance furnished to recipients for whom they are responsible. ~~In determining the~~ No resource contribution is required of a spouse at the time of the first approved medical assistance application; all medical assistance exclusions shall be allowed, and a resource limit of $10,000 for nonexcluded resources shall be implemented. Above these limits, a contribution of one-third of the excess resources shall be required. These rules shall not require repayment when payment would cause undue hardship to the responsible relative or that relative's immediate family. These rules shall be consistent with the requirements of section 252.27, subdivision 2, for parents of children whose eligibility for medical assistance was determined without deeming of the parents' resources and income. For parents of children receiving services under a federal medical assistance waiver or under section 134 of the Tax Equity and Fiscal Responsibility Act of 1982, United States Code, title 42, section 1396a(e)(3), while living in their natural home, including in-home family support services, respite care, homemaker services, and minor adaptations to the home, the state agency shall take into account the room, board, and services provided by the parents in determining the parental contribution to the cost of care. The county agency shall give the responsible relative notice of the amount of the repayment. If the state agency or county agency finds that notice of the payment obligation was given to the responsible relative, but that the relative failed or refused to pay, a cause of action exists against the responsible relative for that portion of medical assistance granted after notice was given to the responsible relative, which the relative was determined to be able to pay.

The action may be brought by the state agency or the county agency in the county where assistance was granted, for the assistance, together with the costs of disbursements incurred due to the action.

In addition to granting the county or state agency a money judgment, the court may, upon a motion or order to show cause, order continuing contributions by a responsible relative found able to repay the county or state agency. The order shall be effective only for the period of time during which the recipient receives medical assistance from the county or state agency.

Sec. 145. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 256B.17, subdivision 7, is amended to read:

Subd. 7. [EXCEPTION FOR ASSET TRANSFERS.] Notwithstanding the provisions of subdivisions 1 to 6, an institutionalized spouse who applies for medical assistance on or after July 1, 1983, may transfer liquid assets to a noninstitutionalized spouse without loss of eligibility if all of the following conditions apply:

(a) The noninstitutionalized spouse is not applying for or receiving assistance;

(b) Either (1) the noninstitutionalized spouse has less than $10,000 in liquid assets, including assets singly owned and 50 percent of assets owned jointly with the institutionalized spouse; or (2) the noninstitutionalized spouse has less than 50 percent of the total value of nonexempt assets owned by both parties, jointly or individually;

(c) The amount transferred, together with the noninstitutionalized spouse's own assets, totals no more than one-half of the total value of the liquid assets of the parties or $10,000 in liquid assets, whichever is greater; and

(d) The transfer may be effected only once, at the time of initial medical assistance application.

Notwithstanding any law to the contrary, a medical assistance recipient who has been a polio patient in an acute care hospital for a period of not less than 25 consecutive years is eligible to continue receiving hospital care, whether or not the care is medically necessary for purposes of federal reimbursement.

The cost of continued hospital care not reimbursable by the federal government shall be paid with state funds allocated for the medical assistance program. The rate paid to the hospital shall be the rate per day established using Medicare principles for the hospital's fiscal year ending December 31, 1981, adjusted each year by the annual hospital cost index established under section 256.969, subdivision 1, or by other limits in effect at the time of the adjustment. This section does not prohibit a voluntary move to another living arrangement by a recipient whose care is reimbursed under this section.

Sec. 147. Minnesota Statutes 1987 Supplement, section 256B.35, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [PERSONAL NEEDS ALLOWANCE.] (a) Notwithstanding any law to the contrary, welfare allowances for clothing and personal needs for individuals receiving medical assistance while residing in any skilled nursing home, intermediate care facility, or medical institution including recipients of supplemental security income, in this state shall not be less than $40 $45 per month from all sources. When benefit amounts for social security or supplemental security income recipients are increased pursuant to United States Code, title 42, sections 415(i) and 1382f, the commissioner shall, effective in the month in which the increase takes effect, increase by the same percentage to the nearest whole dollar the clothing and personal needs allowance for individuals receiving medical assistance while residing in any skilled nursing home, medical institution, or intermediate care facility. The commissioner of human services shall provide timely notice to local agencies, providers, and recipients of increases under this provision.

~~Provided that this~~ (b) The personal needs allowance may be paid as part of the Minnesota supplemental aid program, notwithstanding the provisions of section 256D.37, subdivision 2, and payments to the recipients ~~from~~ of Minnesota supplemental aid funds may be made once each three months ~~beginning in October 1977,~~ covering liabilities that accrued during the preceding three months.

Sec. 148. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 256B.431, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 2i. [OPERATING COSTS AFTER JULY 1, 1988.] (a) [OTHER-OPERATING-COST LIMITS.] For the rate year beginning July 1, 1988, the commissioner shall increase the other-operating-cost limits established in Minnesota Rules, part 9549.0055, subpart 2, item E, to 109 percent of the median of the array of allowable historical other-operating-cost per diems and index these limits as in Minnesota Rules, part 9549.0056, subparts 3 and 4. The limits must be established in accordance with subdivision 2b, paragraph (d). For rate years beginning on or after July 1, 1989, the adjusted other-operating-cost limits must be indexed as in Minnesota Rules, part 9549.0056, subparts 3 and 4.

(b) [CARE-RELATED OPERATING COST LIMITS.] For the rate year beginning July 1, 1988, the commissioner shall increase the care-related operating cost limits established in Minnesota Rules, part 9549.0055, subpart 2, items A and B, to 125 percent of the median of the arrays of the allowable historical case mix operating cost standardized per diems and the allowable historical other-care-related operating cost per diems and index those limits as in Minnesota Rules, part 9549.0056, subparts 1 and 2. The limits must be established in accordance with subdivision 2b, paragraph (d). For rate years beginning on or after July 1, 1989, the adjusted care-related limits must be indexed as in Minnesota Rules, part 9549.0056, subparts 1 and 2.

(c) [SALARY ADJUSTMENT PER DIEM.] For the rate period October 1, 1988, through June 30, 1990, the commissioner shall add the appropriate salary adjustment per diem calculated in clause (1) or (2) to the total operating cost payment rate of each nursing home. The salary adjustment per diem for each nursing home must be determined as follows:

(1) for each nursing home that reports salaries for registered nurses, licensed practical nurses, and aides, orderlies and attendants separately, the commissioner shall determine the salary adjustment per diem by multiplying the total salaries, payroll taxes, and fringe benefits allowed in each operating cost category, except management fees and administrator and central office salaries and the related payroll taxes and fringe benefits, by 2.7 percent and then dividing the resulting amount by the nursing home's actual resident days; and

(2) for each nursing home that does not report salaries for registered nurses, licensed practical nurses, aides, orderlies, and attendants separately, the salary adjustment per diem is the weighted average salary adjustment per diem increase determined under clause (1).

Each nursing home that receives a salary adjustment per diem pursuant to this subdivision shall adjust nursing home employee salaries by a minimum of the amount determined in clause (1) or (2). The commissioner shall review allowable salary costs, including payroll taxes and fringe benefits, for the reporting year ending September 30, 1989, to determine whether or not each nursing home complied with this requirement. The commissioner shall report the extent to which each nursing home complied with the legislative commission on long-term care by August 1, 1990.

(d) [PERA EXEMPTION.] For rate years beginning on or after July 1, 1988, the commissioner shall exempt allowable public employee pension contributions separately reported by a governmentally operated nursing home on its annual cost report, from the care related operating cost limits and the other operating cost limits.

(e) [NEW BASE YEAR.] The commissioner shall establish the reporting year ending September 30, 1989, as a new base year.

Sec. 149. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 256B.431, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 3d. [BETTERMENTS AND ADDITIONS.] Notwithstanding any contrary provision of chapter 256B, or a rule adopted under chapter 256B, a nursing home that commenced construction on a betterment and addition costing $700,000 or more prior to the expiration of Minnesota Rules, 12 MCAR 2.05001 to 2.05016 (Temporary)(1983) shall have its property-related payment rate step-up as a result of the betterment and addition calculated as set forth in 12 MCAR 2.05011.B.3 in the case of betterments, and 12 MCAR 2.05011.D in the case of additions. For purposes of this subdivision, the terms "betterment" and "addition" have the meaning set forth in 12 MCAR 2.05002 and the term "commenced construction" has the meaning set forth in section 144A.071, subdivision 3.

Sec. 150. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 256B.431, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 3e. [HOSPITAL ATTACHED CONVALESCENT AND NURSING CARE FACILITIES.] If a community-operated hospital and attached convalescent and nursing care facility suspend operation of the hospital, the surviving nursing care facility must be allowed to continue its status as a hospital-attached convalescent and nursing care facility for reimbursement purposes in three subsequent rate years.

Sec. 151. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 256B.431, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 3f. [PROPERTY COSTS AFTER JULY 1, 1988.] (a) [INVESTMENT PER BED LIMIT.] For the rate year beginning July 1, 1988, the replacement-cost-new per bed limit must be $32,571 per licensed bed in multiple bedrooms and $48,857 per licensed bed in a single bedroom. Beginning January 1, 1989, the replacement-cost-new per bed limits must be adjusted annually as specified in Minnesota Rules, part 9549.0060, subpart 4, item A, subitem (1).

(b) [RENTAL FACTOR.] For the rate year beginning July 1, 1988, the commissioner shall increase the rental factor as established in Minnesota Rules, part 9549.0060, subpart 8, item A, by 6.2 percent rounded to the nearest 100th percent for the purpose of reimbursing nursing homes for soft costs and entrepreneurial profits not included in the cost valuation services used by the state's contracted appraisers. For rate years beginning on or after July 1, 1989, the rental factor is the amount determined under this paragraph for the rate year beginning July 1, 1988.

(c) [OCCUPANCY FACTOR.] For rate years beginning on or after July 1, 1988, in order to determine property-related payment rates under Minnesota Rules, part 9549.0060, for all nursing homes except those whose average length of stay in a skilled level of care within a nursing home is 180 days or less, the commissioner shall use 95 percent of capacity days. For a nursing home whose average length of stay in a skilled level of care within a nursing home is 180 days or less, the commissioner shall use the greater of resident days or 80 percent of capacity days but in no event shall the divisor exceed 95 percent of capacity days.

(d) For purposes of determining the amount of a reported actual special assessment to be included in a nursing home's operating cost, the commissioner of human services shall include as a special assessment, an expense charged to a nursing home by the municipality of Minneota through a sewer rental charge assessed against the nursing home for a waste water treatment facility.

Sec. 152. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 256B.431, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 3g. [PROPERTY COSTS AFTER JULY 1, 1990, FOR CERTAIN FACILITIES.] For rate years beginning on or after July 1, 1990, nonhospital-attached nursing homes that, on or after January 1, 1976, but prior to December 31, 1985, were newly licensed after new construction, or increased their licensed beds by a minimum of 35 percent through new construction, and whose building capital allowance is less than their allowable annual principal and interest on allowable remaining weighted average debt prior to the application of the replacement-cost-new per bed limit and whose debt amortization schedule as of January 1, 1988, exceeded 15 years, must receive a property-related payment rate equal to the greater of their rental per diem or their annual allowable principal and allowable interest without application of the replacement-cost-new per bed limit plus their equipment allowance. A nursing home that is eligible for a property-related payment rate under this subdivision and whose property-related payment rate in a subsequent rate year is its rental per diem must continue to have its property-related payment rates established for all future rate years based on the rental reimbursement method in Minnesota Rules, part 9549.0060.

Sec. 153. Minnesota Statutes 1987 Supplement, section 256B.431, subdivision 4, is amended to read:

Subd. 4. [SPECIAL RATES.] (a) For the rate years beginning July 1, 1983, and July 1, 1984, a newly constructed nursing home or one with a capacity increase of 50 percent or more may, upon written application to the commissioner, receive an interim payment rate for reimbursement for property-related costs calculated pursuant to the statutes and rules in effect on May 1, 1983, and for operating costs negotiated by the commissioner based upon the 60th percentile established for the appropriate group under subdivision 2a, to be effective from the first day a medical assistance recipient resides in the home or for the added beds. For newly constructed nursing homes which are not included in the calculation of the 60th percentile for any group, subdivision 2f, the commissioner shall establish by rule procedures for determining interim operating cost payment rates and interim property-related cost payment rates. The interim payment rate shall not be in effect for more than 17 months. The commissioner shall establish, by emergency and permanent rules, procedures for determining the interim rate and for making a retroactive cost settle-up after the first year of operation; the cost settled operating cost per diem shall not exceed 110 percent of the 60th percentile established for the appropriate group. Until procedures determining operating cost payment rates according to mix of resident needs are established, the commissioner shall establish by rule procedures for determining payment rates for nursing homes which provide care under a lesser care level than the level for which the nursing home is certified.

(b) For the rate years beginning on or after July 1, 1985, a newly constructed nursing home or one with a capacity increase of 50 percent or more may, upon written application to the commissioner, receive an interim payment rate for reimbursement for property related costs, operating costs, and real estate taxes and special assessments calculated under rules promulgated by the commissioner.

(c) For rate years beginning on or after July 1, 1983, the commissioner may exclude from a provision of 12 MCAR S 2.050 any facility that is licensed by the commissioner of health only as a boarding care home, certified by the commissioner of health as an intermediate care facility, is licensed by the commissioner of human services under Minnesota Rules, parts 9520.0500 to 9520.0690, and has less than five percent of its licensed boarding care capacity reimbursed by the medical assistance program. Until a permanent rule to establish the payment rates for facilities meeting these criteria is promulgated, the commissioner shall establish the medical assistance payment rate as follows:

(1) The desk audited payment rate in effect on June 30, 1983, remains in effect until the end of the facility's fiscal year. The commissioner shall not allow any amendments to the cost report on which this desk audited payment rate is based.

(2) For each fiscal year beginning between July 1, 1983, and June 30, 1985, the facility's payment rate shall be established by increasing the desk audited operating cost payment rate determined in clause (1) at an annual rate of five percent.

(3) For fiscal years beginning on or after July 1, 1985, the facility's payment rate shall be established by increasing the facility's payment rate in the facility's prior fiscal year by the increase indicated by the consumer price index for Minneapolis and St. Paul.

(4) For the fiscal year beginning on January 1, 1988, the facility's payment rate shall be established using the following method: the commissioner shall divide the real estate taxes and special assessments payable as stated in the facility's current property tax statement by actual resident days to compute a real estate tax and special assessment per diem. Next the prior year's payment rate must be adjusted by 2.5 percent to determine an adjusted payment rate. The facility's payment rate is the adjusted prior year's payment rate plus the real estate tax and special assessment per diem.

(5) For the fiscal year beginning on or after January 1, 1989, the facility's payment rate shall be established using the following method: the commissioner shall divide the real estate taxes and special assessments payable as stated in the facility's current property tax statements by actual resident days to compute a real estate tax and special assessment per diem. Next the prior year's payment rate less the real estate tax and special assessment per diem must be adjusted by 2.5 percent to determine an adjusted payment rate. The facility's payment rate is the adjusted payment rate plus the real estate tax and special assessment per diem.

(6) For the purpose of establishing payment rates under this paragraph, the facility's rate and reporting years coincide with the facility's fiscal year.

A facility that meets the criteria of this paragraph shall submit annual cost reports on forms prescribed by the commissioner.

For the rate year beginning July 1, 1985, each nursing home total payment rate must be effective two calendar months from the first day of the month after the commissioner issues the rate notice to the nursing home. From July 1, 1985, until the total payment rate becomes effective, the commissioner shall make payments to each nursing home at a temporary rate that is the prior rate year's operating cost payment rate increased by 2.6 percent plus the prior rate year's property-related payment rate and the prior rate year's real estate taxes and special assessments payment rate. The commissioner shall retroactively adjust the property-related payment rate and the real estate taxes and special assessments payment rate to July 1, 1985, but must not retroactively adjust the operating cost payment rate.

(d) For the purposes of Minnesota Rules, part 9549.0060, subpart 13, item F, the following types of transactions shall not be considered a sale or reorganization of a provider entity:

(1) the sale or transfer of a nursing home upon death of an owner;

(2) the sale or transfer of a nursing home due to serious illness or disability of an owner as defined under the social security act;

(3) the sale or transfer of the nursing home upon retirement of an owner at 62 years of age or older;

(4) any transaction in which a partner, owner, or shareholder acquires an interest or share of another partner, owner, or shareholder in a nursing home business provided the acquiring partner, owner, or shareholder has less than 50 percent ownership after the acquisition;

(5) a sale and leaseback to the same licensee which does not constitute a change in facility license;

(6) a transfer of an interest to a trust;

(7) gifts or other transfers for no consideration;

(8) a merger of two or more related organizations;

(9) a transfer of interest in a facility held in receivership;

(10) a change in the legal form of doing business other than a publicly held organization which becomes privately held or vice versa;

(11) the addition of a new partner, owner, or shareholder who owns less than 20 percent of the nursing home or the issuance of stock; or

(12) an involuntary transfer including foreclosure, bankruptcy, or assignment for the benefit of creditors.

Any increase in allowable debt or allowable interest expense or other cost incurred as a result of the foregoing transactions shall be a nonallowable cost for purposes of reimbursement under Minnesota Rules, parts 9549.0010 to 9549.0080.

(e) For rate years beginning on or after July 1, 1986, the commissioner may exclude from a provision of Minnesota Rules, parts 9549.0010 to 9549.0080, any facility that is certified by the commissioner of health as an intermediate care facility, licensed by the commissioner of human services as a chemical dependency treatment program, and enrolled in the medical assistance program as an institution for mental disease. The commissioner of human services shall establish a medical assistance payment rate for these facilities. Chapter 14 does not apply to the procedures and criteria used to establish the ratesetting structure. The ratesetting method is not appealable.

Sec. 154. Minnesota Statutes 1987 Supplement, section 256B.433, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [SETTING PAYMENT; MONITORING USE OF THERAPY SERVICES.] The commissioner shall promulgate rules pursuant to the administrative procedure act to set the amount and method of payment for ancillary materials and services provided to recipients residing in nursing homes. Payment for materials and services may be made to either the nursing home in the operating cost per diem, to the vendor of ancillary services pursuant to Minnesota Rules, parts 9500.0750 to 9500.1080 or to a nursing home pursuant to Minnesota Rules, parts 9500.0750 to 9500.1080. Payment for the same or similar service to a recipient shall not be made to both the nursing home and the vendor. The commissioner shall ensure the avoidance of double payments through audits and adjustments to the nursing home's annual cost report as required by section 256B.47, and that charges and arrangements for ancillary materials and services are cost effective and as would be incurred by a prudent and cost-conscious buyer. Therapy services provided to a recipient must be medically necessary and appropriate to the medical condition of the recipient. If the vendor, nursing home, or ordering physician cannot provide adequate medical necessity justification, as determined by the commissioner, in consultation with an advisory committee that meets the requirements of section 256B.064, subdivision 1a, the commissioner may recover or disallow the payment for the services and may require prior authorization for therapy services as a condition of payment or may impose administrative sanctions to limit the vendor, nursing home, or ordering physician's participation in the medical assistance program. If the provider number of a nursing home is used to bill services provided by a vendor of therapy services that is not related to the nursing home by ownership, control, affiliation or employment status, no withholding of payment shall be imposed against the nursing home for services not medically necessary except for funds due the unrelated vendor of therapy services as provided in subdivision 3, paragraph (c). For the purpose of this subdivision, no monetary recovery may be imposed against the nursing home for funds paid to the unrelated vendor of therapy services as provided in subdivision 3, paragraph (c), for services not medically necessary.

Sec. 155. Minnesota Statutes 1987 Supplement, section 256B.501, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [DEFINITIONS.] For the purposes of this section, the following terms have the meaning given them.

(a) "Commissioner" means the commissioner of human services.

(b) "Facility" means a facility licensed as a mental retardation residential facility under section 252.28, licensed as a supervised living facility under chapter 144, and certified as an intermediate care facility for persons with mental retardation or related conditions.

(c) "Waivered service" means home or community-based service authorized under United States Code, title 42, section 1396n(c), as amended through December 31, 1982 1987, and defined in the Minnesota state plan for the provision of medical assistance services. Sec. 156. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 256B.501, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [RATES FOR INTERMEDIATE CARE FACILITIES FOR PERSONS WITH MENTAL RETARDATION OR RELATED CONDITIONS.] The commissioner shall establish, by rule, procedures for determining rates for care of residents of intermediate care facilities for persons with mental retardation or related conditions. The procedures shall be based on methods and standards that the commissioner finds are adequate to provide for the costs that must be incurred for the care of residents in efficiently and economically operated facilities. In developing the procedures, the commissioner shall include:

(a) cost containment measures that assure efficient and prudent management of capital assets and operating cost increases which do not exceed increases in other sections of the economy;

(b) limits on the amounts of reimbursement for property, general and administration, and new facilities;

(c) requirements to ensure that the accounting practices of the facilities conform to generally accepted accounting principles;

(d) incentives to reward accumulation of equity; and

(e) a revaluation on sale for a facility that, for at least three years before its use as an intermediate care facility, has been used by the seller as a single family home and been claimed by the seller as a homestead, and was not revalued immediately prior to or upon entering the medical assistance program, provided that the facility revaluation not exceed the amount permitted by the Social Security Act, section 1902(a)(13); and

(f) appeals procedures that satisfy the requirements of section 256B.50 for appeals of decisions arising from the application of standards or methods pursuant to Minnesota Rules, parts 9510.0500 to 9510.0890, 9553.0010 to 9553.0080, and 12 MCAR 2.05301 to 2.05315 (temporary).

In establishing rules and procedures for setting rates for care of residents in intermediate care facilities for persons with mental retardation or related conditions, the commissioner shall consider the recommendations contained in the February 11, 1983, Report of the Legislative Auditor on Community Residential Programs for the Mentally Retarded and the recommendations contained in the 1982 Report of the Department of Public Welfare Rule 52 Task Force. Rates paid to supervised living facilities for rate years beginning during the fiscal biennium ending June 30, 1985, shall not exceed the final rate allowed the facility for the previous rate year by more than five percent.

Sec. 157. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 256B.501, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 3a. [INTERIM RATES.] For rate years beginning October 1, 1988, and October 1, 1989, the commissioner shall establish an interim program operating cost payment rate for care of residents in intermediate care facilities for persons with mental retardation.

(a) For the rate year beginning October 1, 1988, the interim program operating cost payment rate shall be the greater of the facility's 1987 reporting year allowable program operating costs per resident day increased by the composite forecasted index in section 256B.501, subdivision 3c, or the facility's January 1, 1988, program operating cost payment rate increased by the composite forecasted index in section 256B.501, subdivision 3c, except that the composite forecasted index is established based on the midpoint of the period January 1, 1988, through September 30, 1988, to the midpoint of the following rate year.

(b) For the rate year beginning October 1, 1989, the interim program operating cost payment rate shall be the greater of the facility's 1988 reporting year allowable program operating costs per resident day increased by the composite forecasted index in section 256B.501, subdivision 3c or the facility's October 1, 1988, program operating cost payment rate increased by the composite forecasted index in section 256B.501, subdivision 3c, except that the composite forecasted index is established based on the midpoint of the rate year beginning October 1, 1988, to the midpoint of the following rate year.

Sec. 158. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 256B.501, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 3b. [SETTLE-UP OF COSTS.] The facility's program operating costs are subject to a retroactive settle-up for the 1988 and 1989 reporting years, determined by the following method:

(a) If a facility's program operating costs, including one-time adjustment program operating costs for the facility's 1988 or 1989 reporting year are less than 98 percent of the facility's total program operating cost payments for facilities with 20 or fewer licensed beds, or less than 99 percent of the facility's total program operating cost payments for facilities with more than 20 licensed beds, then the facility must repay the difference to the state according to the desk audit adjustment procedures in Minnesota Rules, part 9553.0041, subpart 13, items B to E. For the purpose of determining the retroactive settle-up amounts, the facility's total program operating cost payments shall be computed by multiplying the facility's program operating cost payment rates, including one-time program operating cost adjustment rates for those reporting years, by the prorated resident days which correspond to those program operating cost payment rates paid during those reporting years.

(b) If a facility's program operating costs, including one-time adjustment program operating costs for the facility's 1989 reporting year are between 102 and 105 percent of the amount computed by multiplying the facility's program operating cost payment rates, including one-time program operating cost adjustment rates for those reporting years, by the prorated resident days which correspond to those program operating cost payment rates paid during that reporting year, the state must repay the difference to the facility according to the desk audit adjustment procedures in Minnesota Rules, part 9553.0041, subpart 13, items B to E.

A facility's retroactive settle-up must be calculated by October 1, 1990.

Sec. 159. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 256B.501, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 3c. [COMPOSITE FORECASTED INDEX.] For rate years beginning on or after October 1, 1988, the commissioner shall establish a statewide composite forecasted index to take into account economic trends and conditions between the midpoint of the facility's reporting year and the midpoint of the rate year following the reporting year. The statewide composite index shall incorporate the forecast by Data Resources, Inc. of increases in the average hourly earnings of nursing and personal care workers indexed in Standard Industrial Code 805 in "Employment and Earnings," published by the Bureau of Labor Statistics, United States Department of Labor. This portion of the index shall be weighted annually by the proportion of total allowable salaries and wages to the total allowable operating costs in the program, maintenance, and administrative operating cost categories for all facilities.

For adjustments to the other operating costs in the program, maintenance, and administrative operating cost categories, the statewide index shall incorporate the Data Resources, Inc. forecast for increases in the national CPI-U. This portion of the index shall be weighted annually by the proportion of total allowable other operating costs to the total allowable operating costs in the program, maintenance, and administrative operating cost categories for all facilities. The commissioner shall use the indices as forecasted by Data Resources, Inc., in the fourth quarter of the reporting year.

Sec. 160. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 256B.501, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 3d. [LIMITS ON ADMINISTRATIVE OPERATING COSTS.] For the rate year beginning October 1, 1988, the administrative operating cost per bed limit shall be calculated according to paragraphs (a) to (d).

(a) The commissioner shall classify a facility into one of two groups based on the number of licensed beds reported on the facility's cost report. Group one includes facilities with more than 20 licensed beds. Group two includes facilities with 20 or fewer licensed beds.

(b) The commissioner shall determine the allowable administrative historical operating cost per licensed bed for each facility in the two groups by dividing the allowable administrative historical operating cost in each facility by the number of licensed beds in each facility.

(c) The commissioner shall establish the administrative cost per licensed bed limit by multiplying the median of the array of allowable administrative historical operating costs per licensed bed for each group by the percentage that establishes the limit at the 75th percentile of the array of each group.

(d) For the rate year beginning October 1, 1988, the maximum allowable administrative historical operating cost shall be the facility's allowable administrative historical operating cost or the amount in paragraph (c) multiplied by the facility's licensed beds, whichever is less.

Sec. 161. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 256B.501, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 3e. [INCREASE IN LIMITS.] For rate years beginning on or after October 1, 1990, the commissioner shall increase the administrative cost per licensed bed limit in section 256B.501, subdivision 3d, paragraph (c), and the maintenance operating cost limit in Minnesota Rules, part 9553.0050, subpart 1, item A, subitem (2), by multiplying the administrative operating cost per bed limit and the maintenance operating cost limit by the composite forecasted index in section 256B.501, subdivision 3c except that the index shall be based on the 12 months between the midpoints of the two preceding reporting years.

Sec. 162. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 256B.501, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 3f. [RATE ADJUSTMENTS.] For rate years beginning October 1, 1989, the commissioner may develop a method to adjust facility rates to meet new licensing or certification standards or regulations adopted by the state or federal government which result in significant cost increases. The commissioner may also consider establishing separate administrative cost limits based on other factors including difficulty of care of residents and licensure classification.

Sec. 163. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 256B.501, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 3g. [ASSESSMENT OF RESIDENTS.] For rate years beginning on or after October 1, 1990, the commissioner shall establish program operating cost rates for care of residents in facilities that take into consideration service characteristics of residents in those facilities. To establish the service characteristics of residents, the quality assurance and review teams in the department of health shall assess all residents annually beginning January 1, 1989, using a uniform assessment instrument developed by the commissioner. This instrument shall include assessment of the client's behavioral needs, integration into the community, ability to perform activities of daily living, medical and therapeutic needs, and other relevant factors determined by the commissioner. The commissioner may establish procedures to adjust the program operating costs of facilities based on a comparison of client services characteristics, resource needs, and costs.

Sec. 164. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 256B.501, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 3h. [SCOPE.] The provisions in subdivisions 3a to 3g do not apply to facilities whose payment rates are governed by Minnesota Rules, part 9553.0075.

Sec. 165. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 256B.501, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 3i. [RULES.] The commissioner shall adopt rules to implement section 256B.501, subdivisions 3e, 3f, 3g, and 3h. The commissioner shall consult with provider groups, advocates, and legislators to develop these rules.

Sec. 166. [256B.64] [ATTENDANTS TO VENTILATOR-DEPENDENT RECIPIENTS.]

A ventilator-dependent recipient of medical assistance who has been receiving the services of a private duty nurse or personal care assistant in the recipient's home may continue to have a private duty nurse or personal care assistant present upon admission to a hospital licensed under chapter 144. Subject to the patient's rights under section 144.651, the hospital, physicians, and hospital staff, consistent with the standards of care in the medical community, shall, while the patient is hospitalized, at all times retain final decision-making authority and otherwise retain responsibility for the care and treatment of the ventilator-dependent patient.

The personal care assistant or private duty nurse shall perform the services of communicator or interpreter for the ventilator-dependent patient during a transition period of up to 120 hours to assure adequate training of the hospital staff to communicate with the patient and to understand the unique comfort, safety and personal care needs of the patient. The personal care assistant or private duty nurse may offer nonbinding advice to the health care professionals in charge of the ventilator-dependent patient's care and treatment on matters pertaining to the comfort and safety of the patient. After the 120 hour transition period, an assessment may be made by the ventilator-dependent patient, the attending physician and the patient's primary care nurse to determine whether continued services of communicator or interpreter for the patient by the private duty nurse or personal care assistant is necessary and appropriate for the patient's needs. If continued service is necessary and appropriate, the physician must certify this need to the commissioner of human services in order to continue payments. The commissioner may adopt rules necessary to implement this section. Reimbursement under this section must be at the payment rate and in a manner consistent with the payment rate and manner used in reimbursing these providers for home care services for the ventilator-dependent recipient under the medical assistance program.

Sec. 167. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 256B.69, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [GEOGRAPHIC AREA.] The commissioner shall designate the geographic areas in which eligible individuals may be included in the demonstration project. The geographic areas shall may include one urban, one suburban, and at least one rural county. In order to encourage the participation of long-term care providers, the project area may be expanded beyond the designated counties for eligible individuals over age 65.

Sec. 168. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 256B.69, subdivision 4, is amended to read:

Subd. 4. [LIMITATION OF CHOICE.] The commissioner shall develop criteria to determine when limitation of choice may be implemented in the experimental counties. The criteria shall ensure that all eligible individuals in the county have continuing access to the full range of medical assistance services as specified in subdivision 6. The commissioner shall exempt the following persons from participation in the project, in addition to those who do not meet the criteria for limitation of choice: (a) persons eligible for medical assistance according to section 256B.06, subdivision 1, paragraphs (1) and (2); and (b) persons eligible for medical assistance due to blindness or disability as determined by the social security administration or the state medical review team, unless they are 65 years of age or older. Before limitation of choice is implemented, eligible individuals shall be notified and after notification, shall be allowed to choose only among demonstration providers. After initially choosing a provider, the recipient is allowed to change that choice only at specified times as allowed by the commissioner.

Sec. 169. Minnesota Statutes 1987 Supplement, section 256B.73, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [ESTABLISHMENT: GEOGRAPHIC AREA.] The commissioner of human services shall cooperate with local coalitions to establish a demonstration project to provide low cost medical insurance to uninsured low income persons in Cook, Crow Wing, Lake, St. Louis, Carlton, Aitkin, Pine, Itasca, and Koochiching counties except an individual county may be excluded as determined by the county board of commissioners.

Sec. 170. Minnesota Statutes 1987 Supplement, section 256B.73, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 10a. [ADDITIONAL DEMONSTRATION PROJECTS.] Additional demonstration projects shall be established to allow exploration of alternative approaches to providing medical insurance to low-income persons. The commissioner shall enter into a contract with the coalition formed for the nine counties named in subdivision 2. The coalition shall work with the commissioner and potential demonstration providers as well as other public and private organizations to determine program design, including enrollee eligibility requirements, benefits, and participation.

Sec. 171. [256B.74] [MANAGED CARE FOR MEDICAL ASSISTANCE AND GENERAL ASSISTANCE MEDICAL CARE RECIPIENTS.]

Subdivision 1. [GOAL.] The commissioner shall design and implement interventions to monitor and manage the health services of recipients in the medical assistance and general assistance medical care programs who are identified as at risk of underutilization of services or of inappropriate high frequency, high cost use of such services. These interventions shall be consistent with the goals of the medical assistance and general assistance medical care programs, to make available to recipients accessible, high quality and cost effective health services.

Subd. 2. [FORMATION OF TASK FORCE.] The commissioner shall convene a task force composed of representatives from expert and interested parties to advise the department of human services in analyzing the utilization patterns of individuals in the medical assistance and general assistance medical care programs and in determining the applicability and usefulness of focused utilization review, case management services, or other managed care approaches to all or parts of these populations. The task force shall include, at a minimum, representatives from the provider community, recipient groups, the departments of health and finance, appropriate experts from the University of Minnesota and the chairs of the house and senate health policy committees or their designees. The analysis may be conducted by staff from the department of human services, or the department of human services may contract with selected research institutions for assistance in the conduct of this analysis.

The design of the intervention shall derive from the findings of the task force as it reviews evidence of the utilization patterns of recipients and providers. The task force shall report its findings and recommendations to the commissioner and the legislature by September 30, 1988.

Subd. 3. [OBJECTIVES.] The specific objectives of the task force shall be determined by the commissioner in consultation with the task force, and shall include at a minimum:

(a) To identify among the general population and in selected geographic areas, patterns of utilization of health services, especially high frequency, high cost use and possible underutilization:

(1) To establish guidelines to distinguish possible overutilization of services from appropriate high frequency, high cost utilization, and to determine levels of utilization below which care may be inappropriate;

(2) To identify patterns of emergency room utilization;

(3) To establish guidelines to identify possible inappropriate use of the hospital emergency room;

(4) To determine the levels and types of patient and physician initiated utilization of the medical assistance and general assistance medical care population; and

(5) To review the type and quality of care provided to recipients identified as at risk of inappropriately high or low utilization of health services.

(b) To recommend interventions and an implementation plan consistent with the goals of the medical assistance and general assistance medical care programs to improve the management of health services to recipients identified as at risk of inappropriately high or low utilization of care:

(1) To examine various approaches to case management and utilization review which might improve the quality and accessibility and reduce the cost of care for individuals identified as at risk;

(2) To conduct cost benefit analyses of such alternative approaches;

(3) To design interventions which have appropriate incentives for recipients and health care providers;

(4) To insure that such interventions are consistent with the surveillance utilization review system program and other managed care programs established by the Minnesota legislature; and

(5) To establish guidelines to evaluate any recommended intervention.

Subd. 4. [IMPLEMENTATION OF INTERVENTIONS.] Based upon the recommendations of the task force, the commissioner shall implement appropriate interventions to manage the care of possible inappropriate high frequency, high cost users and underutilizers of health services in the medical assistance and general assistance medical care populations. The commissioner may adopt rules, including emergency rules pursuant to sections 14.29 to 14.36, to carry out the purposes of subdivisions 1 to 4 of this section. By December 31, 1988, the commissioner, with the assistance of the department of human services staff, shall identify and provide for the information, procedures, and clinical expertise which may be necessary to conduct the interventions recommended by the task force. The commissioner shall implement the interventions on January 1, 1989. The commissioner shall provide for the monitoring and evaluation of the interventions, measuring their impact on the quality, accessibility, and cost effectiveness of health services provided to affected populations of the medical assistance and general assistance medical care recipients.

Sec. 172. [256B.75] [FEASIBILITY STUDY FOR HABILITATION SERVICES.]

The commissioner of human services, together with the commissioner of jobs and training, shall study the feasibility of providing medical assistance reimbursement to work activity programs for training and habilitative services provided to participants. The commissioner shall report its findings to the legislature by December 1, 1988. For the purpose of this section, a work activity program is defined at section 129A.01, subdivision 7.

Sec. 173. Minnesota Statutes 1987 Supplement, section 256D.01, subdivision 1a, is amended to read:

Subd. 1a. [STANDARDS.] (1) A principal objective in providing general assistance is to provide for persons ineligible for federal programs who are unable to provide for themselves. The minimum standard of assistance determines the total amount of the general assistance grant without separate standards for shelter, utilities, or other needs.

(2) The commissioner shall set the standard of assistance for an assistance unit consisting of an adult recipient who is childless and unmarried or living apart from children and spouse and who does not live with a parent or parents or a legal custodian. When the other standards specified in this subdivision increase, this standard shall also be increased by the same percentage.

(3) For an assistance unit consisting of ~~an a single adult who is childless and unmarried or living apart from children and spouse, but~~ who lives with a parent or parents, the general assistance standard of assistance shall be equal to the amount that the aid to families with dependent children standard of assistance would increase if the recipient were added as an additional minor child to an assistance unit consisting of the recipient's parent and all of that parent's family members, provided that the standard shall not exceed the standard for a general assistance recipient living alone. Benefits received by a responsible relative of the assistance unit under the supplemental security income program, a workers' compensation program, the Minnesota supplemental aid program, or any other program based on the responsible relative's disability, and any benefits received by a responsible relative of the assistance unit under the social security retirement program, shall not be counted in the determination of eligibility or benefit level for the assistance unit. ~~An adult child shall be~~ The assistance unit is ineligible for general assistance if the available resources or the countable income of the adult child assistance unit and the parent or parents with whom the adult child assistance unit lives are such that a family consisting of the adult child's assistance unit's parent or parents, the parent or parents' other family members and the adult child assistance unit as the only or additional minor child would be financially ineligible for general assistance. For the purposes of calculating the countable income of the assistance unit's parent or parents, use the calculation methods, income deductions, exclusions, and disregards used when calculating the countable income for a single adult or childless couple.

(4) For an assistance unit consisting of a ~~married childless couple who are childless or who live apart from any child or children of~~ whom either of the married couple is a parent or legal custodian, the standards of assistance shall be equal to the first and second adult standards of the aid to families with dependent children program. If one member of the couple is not included in the general assistance grant, then the standard of assistance for the other shall be equal to the second adult standard of the aid to families with dependent children program, except that, when one member of the couple is not included in the general assistance grant because that member is not categorically eligible for general assistance under section 256D.05, subdivision 1, and has exhausted work readiness eligibility under section 256D.051, subdivision 4 or 5, for the period of time covered by the general assistance grant, then the standard of assistance for the remaining member of the couple shall be equal to the first adult standard of the aid to families with dependent children program.

(5) For an assistance unit consisting of all members of a family, the standards of assistance shall be the same as the standards of assistance applicable to a family under the aid to families with dependent children program if that family had the same number of parents and children as the assistance unit under general assistance and if all members of that family were eligible for the aid to families with dependent children program. If one or more members of the family are not included in the assistance unit for general assistance, the standards of assistance for the remaining members shall be equal to the standards of assistance applicable to an assistance unit composed of the entire family, less the standards of assistance applicable to a family of the same number of parents and children as those members of the family who are not in the assistance unit for general assistance. Notwithstanding the foregoing, if an assistance unit consists solely of the minor children because their parent or parents have been sanctioned from receiving benefits from the aid to families with dependent children program, the standard for the assistance unit shall be equal to the special child standard of the aid to families with dependent children program. A child shall not be excluded from the assistance unit unless income intended for its benefit is received from a federally aided categorical assistance program; or supplemental security income; retirement, survivors, and disability income; other assistance programs; or child support and maintenance payments. The income of a child who is excluded from the assistance unit shall not be counted in the determination of eligibility or benefit level for the assistance unit.

Sec. 174. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 256D.02, subdivision 7, is amended to read:

Subd. 7. "Childless couple" means two individuals who are related by marriage and who are living married to each other, live in a place of residence maintained by them as their own home, and are either childless or living apart from their children.

Sec. 175. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 256D.02, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 12a. "Single adult" means an individual 18 years or older who is childless and unmarried or living apart from the individual's children and spouse.

Sec. 176. Minnesota Statutes 1987 Supplement, section 256D.03, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [GENERAL ASSISTANCE MEDICAL CARE; ELIGIBILITY.] General assistance medical care may be paid for any person:

(1) who is eligible for assistance under section 256D.05 or 256D.051 and is not eligible for medical assistance under chapter 256B; or

(2) who is a resident of Minnesota; whose income as calculated under chapter 256B is not in excess of the medical assistance standards or whose excess income is spent down pursuant to chapter 256B; and whose equity in resources is not in excess of $1,000 per assistance unit. Exempt real and liquid assets, the reduction of excess assets, and the waiver of excess assets must conform to the medical assistance program in chapter 256B.

Eligibility is available for the month of application and for three months prior to application if the person was eligible in those prior months. A redetermination of eligibility must occur every 12 months.

General assistance medical care shall not be available for applicants or recipients who do not cooperate with the local agency to meet the requirements of medical assistance.

General assistance medical care may be paid for a person, regardless of age, who is detained by law for less than one year in a county correctional or detention facility as a person accused or convicted of a crime, or admitted as an inpatient to a hospital on a criminal hold order, if the person is a recipient of general assistance medical care at the time the person is detained by law or admitted on a criminal hold order and as long as the person continues to meet other eligibility requirements of this subdivision.

Sec. 177. Minnesota Statutes 1987 Supplement, section 256D.06, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. General assistance shall be granted in such an amount that when added to the nonexempt income actually available to the individual, married couple, or family assistance unit, the total amount equals the applicable standard of assistance for general assistance. In determining eligibility for and the amount of assistance for an individual or married couple, the local agency shall disregard the first $50 of earned income per month.

Sec. 178. Minnesota Statutes 1987 Supplement, section 256D.06, subdivision 1b, is amended to read:

Subd. 1b. [EARNED INCOME SAVINGS ACCOUNT.] In addition to the $50 disregard required under subdivision 1, the local agency shall disregard an additional earned income up to a maximum of $150 per month for persons residing in facilities licensed under Minnesota Rules, parts 9520.0500 to 9520.0690 and 9530.2500 to 9530.4000, and for whom discharge and work are part of a treatment plan and for persons living in supervised apartments with services funded under Minnesota Rules, parts 9535.0100 to 9535.1600, and for whom discharge and work are part of a treatment plan. The additional amount disregarded must be placed in a separate savings account by the eligible individual, to be used upon discharge from the residential facility into the community. A maximum of $1,000, including interest, of the money in the savings account must be excluded from the resource limits established by section 256D.08, subdivision 1, clause (1). Amounts in that account in excess of $1,000 must be applied to the resident's cost of care. If excluded money is removed from the savings account by the eligible individual at any time before the individual is discharged from the facility into the community, the money is income to the individual in the month of receipt and a resource in subsequent months. If an eligible individual moves from a community facility to an inpatient hospital setting, the separate savings account is an excluded asset for up to 18 months. During that time, amounts that accumulate in excess of the $1,000 savings limit must be applied to the patient's cost of care. If the patient continues to be hospitalized at the conclusion of the 18-month period, the entire account must be applied to the patient's cost of care.

Sec. 179. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 256D.06, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 1c. [ELIGIBILITY OF FAMILIES.] Notwithstanding any other provisions of sections 256D.01 to 256D.22, general assistance for an assistance unit consisting of members of a family shall be granted in an amount that is equal to the amount of assistance which would be paid to an aid to families with dependent children assistance unit which has the same size, composition, income, and other circumstances relevant to the computation of an AFDC grant. Income for an assistance unit consisting of members of a family applying for or receiving general assistance shall be determined in the same manner as for persons applying for or receiving aid to families with dependent children, except that the first $50 per month of total child support paid on behalf of family members is excluded and the balance is counted as unearned income, and nonrecurring lump sums received by the family shall be considered income in the month received and a resource thereafter.

256D.07 [TIME OF PAYMENT OF ASSISTANCE.]

An applicant for general assistance or general assistance medical care authorized by section 256D.03, subdivision 3 shall be deemed eligible if the application and the verification of the statement on that application demonstrate that the applicant is within the eligibility criteria established by sections 256D.01 to 256D.21 and any applicable rules of the commissioner. Any person requesting general assistance or general assistance medical care shall be permitted by the local agency to make an application for assistance as soon as administratively possible and in no event later than the fourth day following the date on which assistance is first requested, and no local agency shall require that a person requesting assistance appear at the offices of the local agency more than once prior to the date on which the person is permitted to make the application. The application shall be in writing in the manner and upon the form prescribed by the commissioner and attested to by the oath of the applicant or in lieu thereof shall contain the following declaration which shall be signed by the applicant: "I declare that this application has been examined by me and to the best of my knowledge and belief is a true and correct statement of every material point." On the date that general assistance is first requested, the local agency shall inquire and determine whether the person requesting assistance is in immediate need of food, shelter, clothing, assistance for necessary transportation, or other emergency assistance pursuant to section 256D.06, subdivision 2. A person in need of emergency assistance shall be granted emergency assistance immediately, and necessary emergency assistance shall continue until either the person is determined to be ineligible for general assistance or the first grant of general assistance is paid to the person. A determination of an applicant's eligibility for general assistance shall be made by the local agency as soon as the required verifications are received by the local agency and in no event later than 30 days following the date that the application is made. Any verifications required of the applicant shall be reasonable, and the commissioner shall by rule establish reasonable verifications. General assistance shall be granted to an eligible applicant without the necessity of first securing action by the board of the local agency. ~~The amount of the first grant of general assistance awarded to an applicant shall be computed to cover the time period starting with the date that assistance is first requested or if the applicant is not eligible on that date, the date on which the applicant first becomes eligible, and~~ The first grant may be reduced by the amount of emergency general assistance provided to the applicant. The first month's grant shall be computed to cover the time period starting with the date a signed application form is received by the local agency or from the date that the applicant meets all eligibility factors, whichever occurs later.

If upon verification and due investigation it appears that the applicant provided false information and the false information materially affected the applicant's eligibility for general assistance or general assistance medical care provided pursuant to section 256D.03, subdivision 3 or the amount of the applicant's general assistance grant, the local agency may refer the matter to the county attorney. The county attorney may commence a criminal prosecution or a civil action for the recovery of any general assistance wrongfully received, or both.

Sec. 181. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 256D.35, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 9. [HOMESTEAD.] "Homestead" means a shelter in which the individual or the spouse with whom the individual lives has an ownership interest, and that is the principal residence of the individual, spouse, or the individual's minor or disabled child. The home may be either real or personal property, fixed or mobile, and located on land or water. The home includes all the land that appertains to it and buildings located on that land.

Sec. 182. Minnesota Statutes 1987 Supplement, section 256D.37, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. (a) For all individuals who apply to the appropriate local agency for supplemental aid, the local agency shall determine whether the individual meets the eligibility criteria prescribed in subdivision 2. For each individual who meets the relevant eligibility criteria prescribed in subdivision 2, the local agency shall certify to the commissioner the amount of supplemental aid to which the individual is entitled in accordance with all of the standards in effect December 31, 1973, for the appropriate categorical aid program.

(b) When a recipient is an adult with mental illness in a facility licensed under Minnesota Rules, parts 9520.0500 to 9520.0690, a resident of a state hospital or a dwelling with a negotiated rate, the recipient is not eligible for a shelter standard, a basic needs standard, or for special needs payments. The state standard of assistance for those recipients is the clothing and personal needs allowance for medical assistance recipients under section 256B.35. Minnesota supplemental aid may be paid to negotiated rate facilities at the rates in effect on March 1, 1985, for services provided under the supplemental aid program to residents of the facility, up to the maximum negotiated rate specified in this section. The rate for room and board for a licensed facility must not exceed $800. The maximum negotiated rate does not apply to a facility that, on August 1, 1984, was licensed by the commissioner of health only as a boarding care home, certified by the commissioner of health as an intermediate care facility, and licensed by the commissioner of human services under Minnesota Rules, parts 9520.0500 to 9520.0690 or a facility that, on August 1, 1984, was licensed by the commissioner of human services under Minnesota Rules, parts 9525.0520 to 9525.0660, but funded as a supplemental aid negotiated rate facility under this chapter. The following facilities are exempt from the limit on negotiated rates and must be reimbursed for documented actual costs, until an alternative reimbursement system covering services excluding room and board maintenance services is developed by the commissioner:

(1) a facility that only provides services to persons with mental retardation; and

(2) a facility not certified to participate in the medical assistance program that is licensed as a boarding care facility as of March 1, 1985, and does not receive supplemental program funding under Minnesota Rules, parts 9535.2000 to 9535.3000 or parts 9553.0010 to 9553.0080. Beginning July 1, 1987, the facilities under clause (1) are subject to applicable supplemental aid limits, and must meet all applicable licensing and reimbursement requirements for programs for persons with mental retardation. The negotiated rates may be paid for persons who are placed by the local agency or who elect to reside in a room and board facility or a licensed facility for the purpose of receiving physical, mental health, or rehabilitative care, provided the local agency agrees that this care is needed by the person. When Minnesota supplemental aid is used to pay a negotiated rate, the rate payable to the facility must not exceed the rate paid by an individual not receiving Minnesota supplemental aid. To receive payment for a negotiated rate, the dwelling must comply with applicable laws and rules establishing standards necessary for health, safety, and licensure. The negotiated rate must be adjusted by the annual percentage change in the consumer price index (CPI-U U.S. city average), as published by the Bureau of Labor Statistics between the previous two Septembers, new series index (1967-100) or 2.5 percent, whichever is less. In computing the amount of supplemental aid under this section, the local agency shall deduct from the gross amount of the individual's determined needs all income, subject to the criteria for income disregards in effect December 31, 1973, for the appropriate categorical aid program, except that the earned income disregard for disabled persons who are not residents of long-term care facilities must be the same as the earned income disregard available to disabled persons in the supplemental security income program and all actual work expenses must be deducted when determining the amount of income for the individual. For purposes of this subdivision, "relative" includes members of a child's extended family and important friends with whom the child has resided or had significant contact.

If the child's genetic parent or parents explicitly request that the preference described in clause (a) or in clauses (a) and (b) not be followed, the court shall honor that request consistent with the best interests of the child.

If the child's genetic parent or parents express a preference for placing the child in a foster or adoptive home of the same or a similar religious background to that of the genetic parent or parents, in following the preferences in clause (a) or (b), the court shall order placement of the child with an individual who meets the genetic parent's religious preference. Only if no individual is available who is described in clause (a) or (b) may the court give preference to an individual described in clause (c) who meets the parent's religious preference.

Failure to comply with this section shall not prevent the operation of program laws that are not the subject of the noncomplying materials.

(c) The requirements of this section apply to all materials modified or developed by the commissioner on or after July 1, 1988. The requirements of this section do not apply to materials that must be submitted to a federal agency for approval, to the extent that application of the requirements prevents federal approval.

Subd. 3. [ALLOCATION.] (a) By June 1 of each odd-numbered year, the commissioner shall notify all county and human services boards and post-secondary educational systems of their allocation. If the appropriation is insufficient to meet the needs in all counties, the amount must be prorated among the counties. Each county that receives funds under this section must keep a written record and report to the commissioner the number of eligible families who have applied for a child care subsidy. Counties shall perform a cursory determination of eligibility when a family requests information about child care assistance. A family that appears to be eligible shall be put on a waiting list if funds are not immediately available.

(b) Except for set-aside money allocated under subdivisions 3a, 3b, 3c, and 3d, the commissioner shall allocate money appropriated between the metropolitan area, comprising the counties of Anoka, Carver, Dakota, Hennepin, Ramsey, Scott, and Washington, and the area outside the metropolitan area so that no more than 55 percent of the total appropriation goes to either area after excluding allocations for statewide administrative costs. The commissioner shall allocate 50 percent of the money among counties on the basis of the number of families below the poverty level, as determined from the most recent special census, and 50 percent on the basis of caseloads of aid to families with dependent children for the preceding fiscal year, as determined by the commissioner of human services.

(c) Once each quarter, the commissioner shall review the use of child care fund allocations by county. In accordance with the formula found in paragraph (b), the commissioner may reallocate unexpended or unencumbered money among those counties who have expended their full portion. Any unexpended money from the first year of the biennium may be carried forward to the second year of the biennium.

Sec. 218. Minnesota Statutes 1987 Supplement, section 268.91, subdivision 3b, is amended to read:

Subd. 3b. [SET-ASIDE MONEY FOR AFDC PRIORITY

GROUPS.] (a) Set-aside money for AFDC priority groups must be allocated among the counties based on the average monthly number of caretakers receiving AFDC under the age of 21 and the average monthly number of AFDC cases open 24 or more consecutive months. For each fiscal year the average monthly caseload shall be based on the 12-month period ending March 31 of the previous fiscal year. The commissioner may reallocate quarterly unexpended or unencumbered set-aside money to counties that expend their full allocation. The county shall use the set-aside money for AFDC priority groups and for former AFDC recipients who (1) have had their child care subsidized under the set-aside for AFDC priority groups; (2) continue to require a child care subsidy in order to remain employed; and (3) are on a waiting list for the basic sliding fee program.

(b) The county shall develop cooperative agreements with the employment and training service provider for coordination of child care funding with employment, training, and education programs for aid to families with dependent children priority groups. The cooperative agreement shall specify that individuals receiving employment, training, and education services under an employability plan from the employment and training service provider shall, as resources permit, be guaranteed set-aside money for child care assistance from the county of their residence.

(c) Counties may contract for administration of the program or may arrange for or contract for child care funds to be used by other appropriate programs, in accordance with this section and as permitted by federal law and regulations.

(d) If the commissioner finds, on or after January 1 of a fiscal year, that set-aside money for AFDC priority groups is not being fully utilized, the commissioner may permit counties to use set-aside money for other eligible applicants, as long as priority for use of the money will continue to be given to the AFDC priority groups.

(e) A county may claim federal reimbursement under the AFDC special needs program for money spent for persons listed in subdivision 3a, clause (1). The commissioner shall allocate any federal earnings to the county. The county shall use the money to expand services to AFDC recipients under the child care sliding fee program.

Sec. 219. Minnesota Statutes 1987 Supplement, section 268.91, subdivision 3c, is amended to read:

Subd. 3c. [SET-ASIDE MONEY FOR AFDC POST-SECONDARY STUDENTS.] (a) For the fiscal year ending June 30, 1988, set-aside money for persons listed in subdivision 3a, clause (2), shall be allocated to the counties based on caseloads of aid to families with dependent children for the preceding fiscal year, as determined by the commissioner. For succeeding fiscal years, the commissioner shall, in cooperation with the director of the higher education coordinating board, develop a formula for allocation of the funds to counties based on the number of AFDC caretakers in each county who are enrolled at post-secondary institutions.

(b) Money allocated in paragraph (a) must be used for child care expenses of AFDC recipients attending post-secondary educational programs, excluding post-baccalaureate programs, and making satisfactory progress towards completion of the program.

(c) Once each quarter the commissioner shall review the use of child care fund allocations under this subdivision by county. The commissioner may reallocate unexpended or unencumbered money among those counties that have expended their full portion for the purposes of this subdivision.

(d) A county may claim federal reimbursement under the AFDC special needs program for money spent for persons listed in subdivision 3a, clause (2). The commissioner shall allocate any federal earnings to the county. The county shall use the money to expand services to AFDC recipients under the child care sliding fee program.

(e) Recipients of AFDC who have completed their post-secondary education and had received child care funds during that education shall be assured, to the extent of available resources allocations, of sliding fee money for employment programs after graduation if they meet sliding fee program eligibility standards.

Sec. 220. Minnesota Statutes 1987 Supplement, section 268.91, subdivision 3e, is amended to read:

Subd. 3e. [USE OF MONEY.] Money for persons listed in subdivision 3a, clauses (2) and (3), shall be used to reduce the costs of child care for students, including the costs of child care for students while employed if enrolled in an eligible education program at the same time and making satisfactory progress towards completion of the program. The county may plan for and provided child care assistance to persons listed in subdivision 3a, clauses (2) and (3), from the regular sliding fee fund to supplement the set-aside funds. Financially eligible students provided who have received child care assistance for one academic year shall be provided child care assistance in the following academic year, providing they remain financially eligible if funds allocated under subdivision 3c or 3d are available.

Sec. 221. Minnesota Statutes 1987 Supplement, section 268.91, subdivision 4, is amended to read:

Subd. 4. [FINANCIAL ELIGIBILITY.] (a) Child care services must be available to families who need child care to find or keep employment or to obtain the training or education necessary to find employment and who:

- (1) receive aid to families with dependent children;
- (2) have household income below the eligibility levels for aid to families with dependent children; or
- (3) have household income within a range established by the commissioner.

(b) Child care services for the families receiving aid to families with dependent children must be made available as in-kind services, to cover any difference between the actual cost and the amount disregarded under the aid to families with dependent children program. Child care services to families whose incomes are below the threshold of eligibility for aid to families with dependent children, but that are not receiving aid to families with dependent children, must be made available without cost to the families.

(c) Child care services to families with incomes in the commissioner's established range must be made available on a sliding fee basis. The lower limit of the sliding fee range must be the eligibility limit for aid to families with dependent children. The upper limit of the range must be neither less than 70 percent nor more than 90 percent of the state median income for a family of four, adjusted for family size.

(d) If a disproportionate amount of the available money is provided to any one of the groups described in subdivision 4, paragraph (a), the county board shall document to the commissioner the reason the group received a disproportionate share. If a county projects that its child care allocation is insufficient to meet the needs of all eligible groups, it may prioritize among the groups to be served. If a county maintains a waiting list of applicants for the sliding fee program, it shall place at the top of the list former AFDC recipients who (1) have had their child care subsidized under the set-aside for AFDC priority groups; (2) continue to require a child care subsidy in order to remain employed; and (3) have been employed for 12 months and, during the 12 months, have had their child care needs paid for out of the set-aside money for AFDC priority groups. Counties shall assure that a person receiving child care assistance from the sliding fee program prior to July 1, 1987, continues to receive assistance, providing the person meets all other eligibility criteria. Set-aside money must be prioritized by the state, and counties do not have discretion over the use of this money.

(e) Annual income of the applicant family is the current monthly income of the family multiplied by 12 or the income for the 12-month period immediately preceding the date of application, whichever provides the most accurate assessment of income available to the family. Self-employment income must be calculated based on gross receipts less operating expenses. Income must be redetermined when the family's income changes, but no less often than every six months. Income must be verified with documentary evidence. If the applicant does not have sufficient evidence of income, verification must be obtained from the source of the income.

Sec. 222. Minnesota Statutes 1987 Supplement, section 268.91, subdivision 12, is amended to read:

Subd. 12. [FAIR HEARING PROCESS.] (a) Applicants and recipients have the option to request the county to conduct a conciliation conference to attempt to resolve complaints arising from any of the following actions:

- (1) a determination of ineligibility for child care assistance;
- (2) unauthorized termination of child care assistance;
- (3) determination of the factors considered in setting the family fee; and
- (4) income redetermination resulting in change of a family fee.

(b) The county shall notify the applicant or the recipient, in writing, of any adverse action. The determination described in paragraph (a), clauses (1) and (3), must include written notice of the applicant's or recipient's right to the election described in paragraph (c), where and how to request the election, the time limit within which to make the request, and the reasons for the determination. Notice of the proposed actions described in paragraph (a), clauses (2) and (4), must be mailed to the applicant or recipient at least 15 calendar days before the effective date of the action. The notice must clearly state what action the county proposes to take, the effective date of the proposed action, the reasons for the proposed action, the necessary corrective measures, the option to request either a conciliation conference or an administrative hearing, where and how to make the request, the time limits within which a request must be made, and the consequence of the action.

(c) An applicant or recipient who receives a determination or notice of proposed action under paragraph (b) must mail or deliver either a written notice of request for a conciliation conference to the administering agency or a written notice of request for the hearing specified under paragraph (e) to the administering agency on or before the effective date of the proposed action or the date specified in the notice, or the action will be final.

(d) The county shall provide a conciliation conference within 30 days of receipt of a written request.

The county shall give the applicant or recipient ten calendar days' notice of the conference date. The applicant or recipient and the county's representative have the right to appear, to bring witnesses, and to submit documentation. The written request and the resolution, if any, of the conference shall be maintained as part of the official record. The county's representative shall issue a written resolution only if mutual agreement is reached between the county's representative and the applicant or recipient. The resolution must be signed by both parties and issued the same day as the conciliation conference is held. Participating in a conciliation conference or signing a resolution does not constitute a waiver of the right to an administrative hearing.

An applicant or recipient may, within 15 calendar days of the conference, mail or deliver a written request to the administering agency for an administrative hearing. Unless an appeal is requested, a determination, proposed action, or resolution of a conciliation conference will be final after the 15-day period has passed.

(e) A fair hearing shall be conducted in the manner prescribed by section 268.10, subdivision 3. A right to review will be provided in accordance with section 268.10, subdivision 5. The proposed action will not take effect until the appeal is decided by the administrative hearing process.

(a) An applicant or recipient adversely affected by a county agency action may request a fair hearing in accordance with section 256.045, subdivision 3.

(b) The county agency shall offer an informal conference to applicants and recipients adversely affected by an agency action to attempt to resolve the dispute. The county agency shall advise adversely affected applicants and recipients that a request for a conference with the agency is optional and shall in no way delay or replace the right to a fair hearing.

(b) In addition to the issues in paragraph (a), the interagency board shall study and make recommendations concerning the policy and fiscal impact of the changes made in Public Law Number 100-203 relating to the elimination of the intermediate care facility certification level in 1990. The interagency board shall consider at least the following: the need for continuation of the services currently offered by certified boarding care home beds, the need for additional beds in state licensed nursing homes, the fiscal impact associated with the reconstruction or replacement of facilities that do not meet nursing home standards, the costs of establishing an alternative funding source for the payment of services currently provided in these facilities, and the need to promulgate licensure standards. If the interagency board recommends that facilities be licensed as nursing homes, the interagency board shall recommend specific procedures for the granting of the licenses and identify methods for the licensing or funding of facilities that may be considered out of compliance with federal law on October 1, 1990. The board shall provide recommendations to the legislature for legislative changes that are necessary to implement the board's recommendations. The costs associated with the board's recommendations must be provided to the commissioner of human services and included in the medical assistance forecast and the agency budget requests for the biennium ending June 30, 1991.

Sec. 235. [MEDICAL SCREENING.]

The commissioner of health shall conduct a medical screening of a sample of people and family members of people who were employed at the Conwed Corporation plant in Cloquet, Minnesota, from January 1, 1958 to December 31, 1974. The purpose of the screening is to study the existence of asbestos-related diseases among people employed at the plant during that time, evaluate their health care needs, and provide medical and scientific data to coordinate future health screening, counseling, and treatment activities among these people and their families.

Sec. 236. [EXPERTS.]

The commissioner of health may contract with local, state, or nationally recognized experts in the diagnosis and treatment of asbestos-related diseases for medical examinations of workers, scientific evaluations of data and consultations on the screening results.

Sec. 237. [REPORT AND RECOMMENDATIONS.]

The commissioner of health shall present a report and recommendations to the legislature on or before March 1, 1989, based on the findings of the medical screenings specified above. The report shall address, but not be limited to:

(1) the actual and estimated extent and risks of asbestos-related disease among the people screened;

(2) the types of counseling and prevention services that the people screened may need and the methods of administering the services; and

(3) the estimated cost and effectiveness of screening, counseling, and preventive services for people described in section 235 who were not included in the sample of people screened.

Sec. 238. [ENVIRONMENTAL HEALTH FEE ACCOUNT.]

The environmental health fee account is created as a special account in the state treasury. Beginning January 1, 1989, money in the account is continuously appropriated to the commissioner of health to pay for the salaries of positions and expenses related to inspection, licensing, and enforcement activities under Minnesota Statutes, chapters 157 and 327.

Sec. 239. [INCREASE IN FEES.]

For licenses issued for 1989 and succeeding years, the commissioner of health shall increase license fees for facilities licensed under chapters 157 and 327 to a level sufficient to recover all expenses related to the licensing, inspection, and enforcement activities prescribed in those chapters. In calculating the fee increase, the commissioner shall include the salaries and expenses of 5.5 new positions required to meet the inspection frequency prescribed in Minnesota Statutes, section 157.04. An amount sufficient to cover the costs associated with the new positions shall be deposited in the environmental health fee account.

Sec. 240. [RULE CHANGES.]

The commissioner of jobs and training shall adopt rule amendments to Minnesota Rules, chapter 3300, including changes in the allocation formula for funds appropriated for extended employment programs, as necessary to effect the changes required by the legislature in sections 129A.01, subdivisions 5, 6, and 7; 129A.02, subdivision 3; 129A.03; 129A.06, subdivision 1; 129A.07, subdivision 1; 129A.08, subdivisions 1, 4, 4a, and 5; 129A.09; and 129A.10.

This rule is exempt from the rulemaking provisions of Minnesota Statutes, chapter 14. The commissioner must comply with Minnesota Statutes, section 14.38, subdivision 7, when adopting this rule amendment.

Sec. 241. [INSTRUCTION TO REVISOR.]

In the next edition of Minnesota Statutes, the revisor of statutes shall substitute in chapter 129A the term "rehabilitation facility" for the terms "long-term sheltered workshop," "workshop," or "sheltered workshop" in the form appropriate for the context.

In the next edition of Minnesota Statutes, the revisor of statutes shall substitute in chapter 129A the term "extended employment program participant" for the term "sheltered employee" in the form appropriate for the context.

The revisor shall make the substitutions required by this section in other places in Minnesota Statutes where the terms appear if they refer to the subject matter covered by chapter 129A.

Sec. 242. [LOCAL INCOME ASSISTANCE FROM FEDERAL FOOD STAMPS.]

To the extent of available appropriations, the commissioner of human services shall contract with community outreach programs to encourage participation in the food stamp program of seniors, farmers, veterans, unemployed workers, low-income working heads of households, battered women residing in shelters, migrant workers, families with children, and other eligible individuals who are homeless. For purposes of this section, "homeless" means that the individual lacks a fixed and regular nighttime residence or has a primary nighttime residence that is:

- (1) a publicly supervised or privately operated shelter, including a welfare hotel or congregate shelter, designed to provide temporary living accommodations;

(2) an institution that provides a temporary residence for individuals who will be institutionalized;

(3) a temporary accommodation in the residence of another individual; or

(4) a public or private place not designed for, or ordinarily used as, a regular sleeping accommodation for human beings.

The commissioner shall seek federal money to equally match or supplement any state money used for grants and contracts under this section. The commissioner shall convene an advisory committee to help establish criteria for awarding grants, to make recommendations regarding grant proposals, to assist in the development of training and educational materials, and to participate in the evaluation of grant programs. The grantees shall provide training for program workers, offer technical assistance, and prepare educational materials. Grantees must demonstrate that grants were used to increase participation in the food stamp program by creating new outreach activities, and not by replacing existing activities. No more than five percent of the appropriation for community outreach programs shall be used by the commissioner for the department's administrative costs. The rulemaking requirements of Minnesota Statutes, chapter 14 do not apply to the procedures used by the commissioner to request and evaluate grant proposals and to award grants and contracts under this section. Distribution of grant money must begin within three months after any transfer of funds from the commissioner of health to the commissioner of human services.

Sec. 243. [FINDINGS.]

The legislature finds that a significant number of state residents do not have access to adequate health care because they cannot afford the cost of health insurance coverage, are not eligible for government health care programs, and are not covered by any government subsidized or employment-based insurance. These residents are often hard working Minnesotans whose wages are not sufficient to pay for health insurance premiums. They are farmers, small business owners, minor children, and elderly persons.

The legislature further finds that the very poor receive subsidized care through medical assistance programs and that most residents who do have health insurance or coverage through a health maintenance organization are covered through employment-based insurance.

The legislature further finds that although charity health care plays an important role in providing access to health care for persons without access to adequate health care, charity health care cannot continue to provide for the health care needs of these persons as their population continues to grow.

The legislature finds that to assure the continued health and welfare of these persons, it is necessary and desirable to establish a state administered health insurance program. The program shall provide coverage comparable to the coverage provided to state of Minnesota employees. To minimize the fiscal impact to the state in administering such a program, the program must require financial participation from those who are covered based on their ability to pay.

Sec. 244. [TRANSFER FOR ENVIRONMENTAL LABORATORY CERTIFICATION PROGRAM.]

An amount equal to the appropriation from the special revenue fund to the commissioner of health for implementation of the environmental laboratory certification program must be transferred from the laboratory certification account to the special revenue fund by June 30, 1992.

Sec. 245. [DEMONSTRATION PROJECT.]

The commissioner of human services shall establish a demonstration project to increase the independence of people with epilepsy by providing training in independent living. The commissioner shall award a grant for the demonstration project to a nonresidential program that provides medical monitoring and living skills training to people with epilepsy who live independently. The grant awarded under this section shall be used for salaries, administration, transportation, and other program costs.

Sec. 246. [EVALUATION; REPORT.]

The developmental disabilities planning section of the state planning agency shall consult with the commissioner of human services and shall evaluate the effectiveness of the demonstration project in increasing independence of the people with epilepsy who are served by the project. By December 1, 1989, the developmental disabilities planning section shall present a report to the legislature with the evaluation and a recommendation on whether there is a need to continue or expand the program.

Sec. 247. [PURPOSE FOR MINNESOTA INSTITUTE FOR ADDICTION AND STRESS RESEARCH.]

To place Minnesota in a leadership role for neurobiological research of addictive disorders and stress-related diseases, the legislature finds it necessary to establish a research institute dedicated to clinical and basic scientific investigation of addictive disorders and stress-related diseases. Because of the critical relationship between addictive and stress-related disorders, the institute will study the neurobiological origins of stress and will investigate and develop therapies for other stress-related medical disorders that are not responsive to available medical therapies. Regarding addictive disorders, the institute's primary objective is to develop and test new scientifically based therapy to reduce the rate of recidivism in the addicted population and lower the costs of therapy. Furthermore, the institute will stimulate and attract significant new research activity to Minnesota.

Sec. 248. [LEAD CONTAMINATION; DEMONSTRATION PROJECTS.]

The department of health shall fund and participate in a two-year demonstration project to be undertaken by an organization serving a population at risk from lead contamination to monitor blood lead levels in pregnant women, provide information to pregnant patients about how to avoid high blood lead levels, and to provide intervention for pregnant patients whose blood lead levels exceed 12 micrograms per deciliter. The purpose of the project is to establish an effective prototype method of monitoring, education, and intervention to prevent or reduce high blood lead levels in pregnant women. By November 1, 1990, the center and the department shall report to the legislature on the outcome of the project.

The department shall also fund a project for the purpose of demonstrating the impact on blood lead levels in children, of soil, dust, paint, and interior and exterior lead cleanup and use of educational materials on proper handling of lead paint removal and cleanup. The project must be undertaken by a community based organization and must include:

(1) neighborhood involvement and an educational community outreach component;

(2) a cost-benefit analysis;

(3) planning for a centrally located information and educational center to serve the community; and

(4) a final evaluation on the effectiveness of the project based on routes of exposure, statistical design of the project, and geographical distribution. The project must include cleanup of lead contamination in a targeted portion of a neighborhood with known lead contamination. Cleanup includes soil removal and replacement, landscaping and removal of loose paint. The department shall test children who reside in the project area before cleanup and one year following cleanup for blood lead levels. The evaluation required as part of the project must be presented to the legislature by January 1, 1990.

Sec. 249. [APPROPRIATION.]

Subdivision 1. The amounts provided in this section are appropriated from the money received before or after the effective date of this section by the governor, the commissioner of finance, or any other state agency as a result of the settlement of the parties and order of the United States District Court for the District of Kansas in the case of In Re Department of Energy Stripper Well Exemption Litigation, 578 F.Supp. 586 (D. Kan. 1983) and all other money received after the effective date of this section by any of those entities or agencies, resulting from overcharges by oil companies in violation of federal law.

Subd. 2. One-half of the money received is appropriated to the commissioner of jobs and training for the purposes of the low-income weatherization assistance program.

Subd. 3. $281,913 is appropriated to the commissioner of administration, for the purposes of a grant to the Lake Isabella Environmental Learning Center. The grant must be used for the installation and operation of a wood burning central heating system located in a manner that allows people to observe and study the usefulness of eliminating the use of fossil fuels as a heat source. The commissioner may enter into an appropriate grant agreement to carry out the terms of the grant.

Subd. 4. $230,000 is appropriated to the commissioner of administration for the purposes of a grant to the environmental learning center at the Battle Creek Magnet school of the St. Paul school system. The grant must be used for the installation of a Photovoltaic cell project that can be demonstrated to persons in the metropolitan area.

Subd. 5. The remainder of the money referred to in subdivision 1 and not appropriated by subdivision 2, 3, or 4, is appropriated to the legislative commission on Minnesota resources for the purposes of grants to local units of government, school districts, post-secondary institutions, nonprofit organizations, and other individuals and business entities for research resulting in decreased dependence on fossil fuels and for technology transfer projects with the same purpose.

Sec. 250. [PROPOSED RULES SUSPENDED.]

Regulations governing staff ratios in day care centers and educational requirements for day care center staff that are in effect on January 1, 1988, remain in effect until July 1, 1989. Proposed amendments to the rules are suspended until that date.

(1) the date on which the last of the collective bargaining agreements under which the plan is maintained, which were in effect on April 7, 1986, ends without regard to any extension of the agreement agreed to after April 7, 1986; or

"Section 1. [FINDINGS.]

The legislature finds that access to continuous and uninterrupted health care coverage is necessary for citizens of Minnesota enrolled in health care plans. While Minnesota law requires conversion policies for members of group health plan contracts, no similar right is extended to holders of individual contracts.

The legislature finds it necessary for individual health care coverage policyholders to immediately be afforded the same protections as group contract holders. The legislature further finds that a legal requirement is necessary to protect the access to health care coverage for the citizens of Minnesota who hold individual health care contracts. In view of continuing uncertainty in the marketplace, the legislature finds it necessary to impose this legal requirement on all existing individual contracts the day after enactment, so that no other consumers face a threat to their health care coverage.

Sec. 2. Minnesota Statutes 1987 Supplement, section 62A.17, subdivision 6, is amended to read:

Subd. 6. [CONVERSION TO INDIVIDUAL POLICY.] A group insurance policy that provides posttermination or layoff coverage as required by this section shall also include a provision allowing a covered employee, surviving spouse, or dependent at the expiration of the posttermination or layoff coverage provided by subdivision 2 to obtain from the insurer offering the group policy or group subscriber contract, at the employee's, spouse's, or dependent's option and expense, without further evidence of insurability and without interruption of coverage, an individual policy of insurance or an individual subscriber contract providing at least the minimum benefits of a qualified plan as prescribed by section 62E.06 and the option of a number three qualified plan, a number two qualified plan, and a number one qualified plan as provided by section 62E.06, subdivisions 1 to 3, provided application is made to the insurer within 30 days following notice of the expiration of the continued coverage and upon payment of the appropriate premium. The required conversion contract must treat pregnancy the same as any other covered illness under the conversion contract. A health maintenance contract issued by a health maintenance organization that provides posttermination or layoff coverage as required by this section shall also include a provision allowing a former employee, surviving spouse, or dependent at the expiration of the posttermination or layoff coverage provided in subdivision 2 to obtain from the health maintenance organization, at the former employee's, spouse's, or dependent's option and expense, without further evidence of insurability and without interruption of coverage, an individual health maintenance contract. Effective January 1, 1985, enrollees who have become nonresidents of the health maintenance organization's service area shall be given the option, to be arranged by the health maintenance organization, of a number three qualified plan, a number two qualified plan, or a number one qualified plan as provided by section 62E.06, subdivisions 1 to 3 if an arrangement with an insurer can reasonably be made by the health maintenance organization. This option shall be made available at the enrollee's expense, without further evidence of insurability and without interruption of coverage.

A policy providing reduced benefits at a reduced premium rate may be accepted by the employee, the spouse, or a dependent in lieu of the optional coverage otherwise required by this subdivision.

The individual policy or contract shall be renewable at the option of the individual as long as the individual is not covered under another qualified plan as defined in section 62E.02, subdivision 4, up to age 65 or to the day before the date of eligibility for coverage under title XVIII of the Social Security Act, as amended. Any revisions in the table of rate for the individual policy shall apply to the covered person's original age at entry and shall apply equally to all similar policies issued by the insurer.

Sec. 3. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 62D.07, is amended to read:

62D.07 [EVIDENCE OF COVERAGE.]

Subd. 3. ~~An evidence~~ Contracts and evidences of coverage shall contain:

Subd. 2. If the health maintenance organization has terminated individuals from coverage in a service area, the replacement coverage shall be health maintenance organization coverage issued by the health maintenance organization terminating coverage unless the health maintenance organization can demonstrate to the commissioner that offering health maintenance organization replacement coverage would not be feasible. In making the determination, the commissioner shall consider (1) loss ratios and forecasts, (2) lack of agreements between health care providers and the health maintenance organization to offer that product, (3) evidence of anticipated premium needs compared with established rates, (4) the financial impact of the replacement coverage on the overall financial solvency of the plan, and (5) the cost to the enrollee of health maintenance organization replacement coverage as compared to cost to the enrollee of the replacement coverage required under subdivision 3 of this section.

Subd. 3. If replacement coverage is not provided by the health maintenance organization, as explained under subdivision 2, the replacement coverage shall provide, for enrollees covered by Title XVIII of the Social Security Act, coverage at least equivalent to a Medicare supplement two plan as defined in section 62A.34, except that the replacement coverage shall also cover the liability for any Medicare Part A and Part B deductible as defined under Title XVIII of the Social Security Act. The fee or premium for a number three qualified plan shall not exceed 125 percent of the average of rates charged by the five insurers with the largest number of individuals in a number three qualified plan of insurance in force in Minnesota. The fee or premium for a number two qualified plan shall not exceed 125 percent of the average of rates charged by the five insurers with the largest number of individuals in a number two qualified plan of insurance in force in Minnesota.

If the replacement coverage is health maintenance organization coverage, the fee shall not exceed 125 percent of the cost of the average fee charged by health maintenance organizations for a similar health plan. The commissioner of health will determine the average cost of the plan on the basis of information provided annually by the health maintenance organizations concerning the rates charged by the health maintenance organizations for the plans offered.

Subd. 4. The commissioner will approve or disapprove the replacement coverage within 30 days. A health maintenance organization shall not give enrollees a notice of cancellation of coverage until a replacement policy has been filed with the commissioner and approved or disapproved.

Such a plan may include but not be limited to requiring the health maintenance organization to make payments to nonparticipating providers for health services for enrollees, requiring the health maintenance organization to discontinue accepting new enrollees in that service area, and requiring the health maintenance organization to reduce its geographic service area. If a nonparticipating provider has been a participating provider with the health maintenance organization within the last year, any payments made under this section must not exceed the payment level of the previous contract.

Sec. 13. [62D.122] [MEDIATION.]

When current parties to a health maintenance organization contract between providers of health care services and the health maintenance organization believe they will be unable to reach agreement on the terms of renewal or maintenance of the agreement, either party may request the commissioner of health to order that the dispute be submitted to mediation. The parties to the dispute shall enter mediation upon the order of the commissioner of health. The commissioner shall order mediation if failure to reach agreement would significantly impair access to health care services on the part of current enrollees of that health maintenance organization. In determining whether access to health care services for current enrollees will be significantly impaired, the commissioner shall consider:

(1) the number of enrollees affected,

(2) the ability of the plan to make alternate arrangements with other participating providers for the provision of health care services to the affected enrollees,

(3) the availability of nonparticipating providers who may become participating providers for those with whom the health maintenance organization is in dispute, and

(4) the time remaining until termination of the provider contract.

When mediation is ordered by the commissioner, the dispute shall be submitted to the office of administrative hearings for mediation. Costs of the mediation shall be borne by the health maintenance organization and the providers.

Sec. 14. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 62D.17, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. The commissioner of health may, for any violation of statute or rule applicable to a health maintenance organization, or in lieu of suspension or revocation of a certificate of authority under section 62D.15, levy an administrative penalty in an amount up to $10,000 for each violation. In the case of contracts or agreements made pursuant to section 62D.05, subdivisions 2 to 4, each contract or agreement entered into or implemented in a manner which violates sections 62D.01 to 62D.29 shall be considered a separate violation. Reasonable notice in writing to the health maintenance organization shall be given of the intent to levy the penalty and the reasons therefor, and the health maintenance organization may have a ~~reasonable time~~ 15 days within which to ~~remedy the defect in its operations which gave rise to the penalty citation, or have file a written request for an administrative hearing and review of the commissioner of health's determination.~~ Such administrative hearing shall be subject to judicial review pursuant to chapter 14.

Sec. 16. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 62D.20, is amended to read:

62D.20 [RULES.]

Subdivision 1. The commissioner of health may, pursuant to chapter 14, promulgate such reasonable rules as are necessary or proper to carry out the provisions of sections 62D.01 to 62D.29. Included among such rules shall be those which provide minimum requirements for the provision of comprehensive health maintenance services, as defined in section 62D.02, subdivision 7, and reasonable exclusions therefrom. Nothing in such rules shall force or require a health maintenance organization to provide elective, induced abortions, except as medically necessary to prevent the death of the mother, whether performed in a hospital, other abortion facility, or the office of a physician; the rules shall provide every health maintenance organization the option of excluding or including elective, induced abortions, except as medically necessary to prevent the death of the mother, as part of its comprehensive health maintenance services.

Such a contributing member shall pay the association an amount equal to the average cost of an enrollee in the state plan in the year in which the member terminated enrollees, multiplied by the total number of terminated enrollees who enroll in the state plan.

The average cost of an enrollee in the state comprehensive health insurance plan shall be determined by dividing the state plan's total annual losses by the total number of enrollees from that year. This cost will be assessed to the contributing member who has terminated health coverage before the association makes the annual determination of each contributing member's liability as required under this section.

Sec. 18. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 62E.11, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 10. Any contributing members who have terminated individual health plans and do not provide or arrange for replacement coverage that meets the requirements of section 12, subdivision 3, and whose former insureds or enrollees enroll in the state comprehensive health insurance plan with a waiver of the preexisting conditions pursuant to section 62E.14, subdivision 1, paragraph (e), and section 21, will be liable for the costs of any preexisting conditions of their former enrollees or insureds treated during the first six months of coverage under the state plan. Sec. 21. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 62E.14, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

The person may exercise this right to conversion within 30 days of leaving the group or within 30 days following receipt of due notice of cancellation or termination of coverage of the group and upon payment of premiums from the date of termination or cancellation. Due notice of cancellation or termination of coverage for a group shall be provided to each employee having coverage in the group by the insurer, self-insurer or health maintenance organization canceling or terminating the coverage except where reasonable evidence indicates that uninterrupted and continuous group coverage is otherwise provided to the group. Every employer having a policy of group accident and health insurance, group subscriber or contract of coverage by a health maintenance organization shall, upon request, provide the insurer or health maintenance organization a list of the names and addresses of covered employees. Plans of health coverage shall also include a provision which, upon the death of the individual in whose name the contract was issued, permits every other individual then covered under the contract to elect, within the period specified in the contract, to continue coverage under the same or a different contract without the addition of underwriting restrictions until the individual would have ceased to have been entitled to coverage had the individual in whose name the contract was issued lived. An individual conversion contract issued by a health maintenance organization shall not be deemed to be an individual enrollment contract for the purposes of section 62D.10.

Sec. 37. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 89.001, is amending by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 14. "State forest road" means a road constructed, acquired, maintained, or administered by the commissioner for the purpose of carrying out forest resource management policy as set forth in section 89.002.

Sec. 38. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 89.19, is amended to read:

89.19 [RULES.]

The commissioner shall have power to ~~may~~ prescribe such rules governing the use of state forest lands under the authority of the commissioner and state forest roads, or any part parts thereof, by the public or ~~and~~ governing the ~~exereising~~ exercise by holders of leases or permits upon state on forest lands and state forest roads of all their rights under ~~such~~ the leases or permits as may be necessary to carry out the purposes of this chapter.

Sec. 39. [89.341] [STATE FOREST ROAD ACCOUNT.]

Subdivision 1. [ACCOUNT CREATED.] There is created in the state treasury a state forest road account in the special revenue fund, consisting of funds credited under section 42. Funds credited to the state forest road account are appropriated to the commissioner and remain available until expended.

Subd. 2. [EXPENDITURE.] Money in the state forest road account may be appropriated by law only for:

(1) acquisition, development, maintenance, and administration of state forest roads under the jurisdiction of the commissioner of natural resources; and

(2) the commissioner's share of the cost of cooperative maintenance agreements made with other providers of forest roads.

Sec. 40. [89.342] [FOREST ROADS.]

Subdivision 1. [DESIGNATION, INVENTORY, RECORDING.] Forest roads, bridges, and other improvements in existence on July 1, 1988, and administered under section 89.002, subdivision 3, are hereby designated as state forest roads to the width of the actual use including ditches, backslopes, fills, and maintained right-of-way, unless otherwise specified in a prior easement of record. The commissioner may undesignate all or part of a state forest road that is not needed to carry out forest resource management policy. The commissioner shall maintain and keep current an inventory listing and describing roads in which the state claims a right or property interest for state forest road purposes. The commissioner may file for record with a county recorder or registrar of titles appropriate documents setting forth the state's interest in all or part of any state forest road.

Subd. 2. [RIGHT-OF-WAY.] After July 1, 1988, additional rights-of-way and easements, including easements needed for drainage or slopes, may be acquired by the commissioner by purchase or gift and by condemnation for safety and/or environmental protection on existing roads and to provide access to tracts of public land larger than 1,000 acres having no access, following a public meeting in the area affected. Rights-of-way and easements shall be designated as state forest roads when needed for construction, maintenance, or safety of roads.

Subd. 3. [CONSTRUCTION; MAINTENANCE.] The commissioner shall develop specifications for the design and construction of state forest roads and shall establish maintenance schedules for forest roads consistent with their intended use.

Subd. 4. [RULES.] In promulgating rules relating to the use of state forest roads, the commissioner may incorporate into the rules, by reference, traffic regulations contained in chapter 169.

Subd. 5. [POSTING OF MINIMUM-MAINTENANCE FOREST ROADS.] The commissioner may designate a state forest road as a minimum-maintenance forest road to be maintained at a level consistent with the intended use. Designation of a state forest road as a minimum-maintenance forest road is effective on the posting of signs, at entry points to the road and at regular intervals along the road, to the effect that the road is a minimum-maintenance forest road and that the user travels on the road at the user's risk. Posting of the signs is prima facie evidence that adequate notice of minimum-maintenance status has been given to the public.

Subd. 6. [LIABILITY ON FOREST ROADS.] The commissioner and employees of the department are not liable for any claim by a person arising on a state forest road that is not in a state forest to the same extent that they are not liable for claims that arise on roads within a state forest under the provisions of section 3.736, subdivision 3, clause (h).

Subd. 7. [CONVEYANCE OF UNNEEDED ROADS TO OTHER GOVERNMENTS.] When the commissioner undesignates a state forest road and determines that the road is no longer needed for any state purpose, the commissioner may convey, in the manner provided in section 84.63, the state interest in the road to the United States, the state of Minnesota, or any of its subdivisions, whether or not the road is on state land.

Subd. 8. [COMMISSIONER NOT A ROAD AUTHORITY UNDER HIGHWAY LAWS.] Except as otherwise provided, the commissioner is not a road authority under chapters 160 to 168, and chapters 160 to 168 do not apply to forest roads unless specifically made applicable by law or rule.

Sec. 41. [89.343] [COUNTY FOREST ACCESS ROAD ACCOUNT.]

Subdivision 1. [ACCOUNT CREATED.] There is created in the state treasury a county forest access road account in the special revenue fund, consisting of funds credited under section 55. Funds credited to the county forest access road account are appropriated to the commissioner for distribution to counties managing forest lands administered through a county land department under the jurisdiction of a land commissioner appointed under section 282.13, for purposes specified in subdivision 2. These funds must be made available in the form of payments in proportion to each county's ownership of commercial forest lands. Funds credited to the county forest access road account remain available until expended.

Subd. 2. [EXPENDITURE; PURPOSES.] Money in the county forest access road account may be spent only to:

(1) construct, reconstruct, acquire, or maintain county forest access roads, including the acquisition of rights-of-way or easements as may be needed; and

(2) pursuant to section 23, study, determine, and inventory by October 1, 1989, county forest access roads and their use by logging trucks, recreational vehicles, and other users.

Sec. 42. Minnesota Statutes 1987 Supplement, section 105.44, subdivision 10, is amended to read:

Subd. 10. [PERMIT FEES.] Each application for a permit authorized by sections 105.37 to 105.64, and each request to amend or transfer an existing permit, must be accompanied by a permit application fee of $30 to defray the costs of receiving, recording, and processing the application or request to amend or transfer. The commissioner may charge an additional permit application fee in excess of the $30 fee but not over $250 for each application. The application fee for permits submitted under sections 105.391, 105.41, and 105.535 is $75. The application fee for permits submitted under sections 105.42 and 105.64 must be at least $75, but may not exceed $500 in accordance with a schedule of fees under section 16A.128.

The commissioner may charge an additional field inspection fee for:

(1) projects requiring a mandatory environmental assessment under chapter 116D;

(2) projects undertaken without a permit or application as required by sections 105.37 to 105.64; and

(3) projects undertaken in excess of limitations established in an issued permit. The fee must not be less than ~~$25~~ $100 nor more than ~~$750~~ actual field inspection costs. The purpose of the fee is to cover actual costs for each permit applied for under sections 105.37 to 105.64 and for each project undertaken without proper authorization.

The commissioner shall establish a schedule of field inspection fees under section 16A.128. The schedule must include actual costs related to field inspection such as investigations of the area affected by the proposed activity, analysis of the proposed activity, consultant services, and subsequent monitoring, if any, of the activity authorized by the permit.

Except as provided below, the commissioner may not issue a permit until all fees required by this section relating to the issuance of a permit have been paid. The time limits prescribed by subdivision 4 do not apply to an application for which the appropriate fee has not been paid. Field inspection fees relating to monitoring of an activity authorized by a permit may be charged and collected as necessary at any time after the issuance of the permit. No permit application or field inspection fee may be refunded for any reason, even if the application is denied or withdrawn. No permit application or field inspection fee may be imposed on any state agency, as defined in section 16B.01, or federal governmental agency applying for a permit.

Sec. 44. [115C.021] [RESPONSIBLE PERSON.]

Subdivision 1. [GENERAL RULE.] Except as provided in subdivision 2, a person is responsible for a release from a tank if the person is an owner or operator of the tank at any time during or after the release.

Subd. 2. [EXCEPTION OF CERTAIN TANK OWNERS.] An owner of a tank is not responsible for a release from the tank if the owner can establish that:

(1) the tank was in place but the owner did not know or have reason to know of its existence at the time the owner first acquired right, title, or interest in the tank; and

(2) the owner did not by failure to report under section 115.061 or other action significantly contribute to the release after the owner knew or reasonably should have known of the existence of the tank.

Sec. 45. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 116.48, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 6. [RECORDING OF AFFIDAVIT.] Before a transfer of ownership of property that the owner knew or should have known contains an underground storage tank or that the owner knew or should have known is subject to contamination by a release of a regulated substance from an aboveground or underground storage tank, the owner shall record with the county recorder of the county in which the property is located an affidavit containing:

(1) a legal description of the property where the tank or release is located;

(2) a description of the tank or release and the location of the tank; and

(3) a description of any restrictions on the use of the property resulting from the tank or release.

Notwithstanding any law to the contrary, the relief association may pay the supplemental benefit out of its special fund. The amount of this benefit equals ten percent of the regular involuntary lump sum distribution that is paid on the basis of service as a volunteer firefighter. In no case may the amount of the supplemental benefit exceed $1,000.

This appropriation is added to the appropriation for the same purpose in Laws 1987, chapter 401, section 2, subdivision 3.

This appropriation is for a projected deficiency in the program in both fiscal years. The legislature intends that the board make full scholarship and grant awards in fiscal year 1989. The HECB should seek a deficiency appropriation in 1989 if the fiscal year 1989 funds are insufficient to make full awards.

During the biennium, the HECB may transfer funds among the accounts provided in Laws 1987, chapter 401, section 2, if there is a projected balance in an account. Before the transfer, the HECB shall consult with the chairs of the education divisions of the appropriations and finance committees.

During the biennium, the HECB may ask the commissioner of finance to loan general fund money to the scholarship and grant account to ease cash flow difficulties. The HECB must first certify to the commissioner that there will be adequate refunds to the account to repay the loan. The commissioner shall use the refunds to make repayment to the general fund of the full amount loaned. Subd. 3. [SALARIES, BENEFITS, CERTIFICATION.] Exchanges made under the program must not have a negative effect on participants' salaries, seniority, or other benefits. For this program, teacher certification requirements shall be waived for participating faculty. All arrangements and details regarding the exchange must be mutually agreed to by the school district and post-secondary institution before implementation.

Subd. 4. [PILOT PROGRAMS.] While these exchanges are voluntary, the legislature intends to maintain oversight to determine the benefits and problems of the program. For the 1988-1989 school year, proposals must be submitted to the education committee and education division of the appropriations committee of the house of representatives and the education committee and education division of the finance committee of the senate by July 1, 1988. Each public post-secondary system shall review its curricula, especially in required courses in general education and departmental majors, to determine the current and future opportunities for incorporating community service components. Each system is encouraged to locate curricular areas in which the system can assist students to voluntarily pursue community service that is relevant to their studies. (ii) exempt-interest dividends as defined in section 852(b)(5)(A) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, except the portion of the exempt-interest dividends derived from interest income on obligations of the state of Minnesota or its political or governmental subdivisions, municipalities, governmental agencies or instrumentalities, but only if the portion of the exempt-interest dividends from such Minnesota sources paid to all shareholders represents 95 percent or more of the exempt-interest dividends that are paid by the fund or series of funds regulated investment company as defined in section 851(a) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, or the fund of the regulated investment company as defined in section 851(q) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, making the payment; and

(2) the amount of income taxes paid or accrued within the taxable year under this chapter and income taxes paid to any other state or to any province or territory of Canada, to the extent allowed as a deduction under section 63(d) of the Internal Revenue Code, but the addition may not be more than the amount by which the itemized deductions as allowed under section 63(d) of the Internal Revenue Code exceeds the amount of the standard deduction as defined in section 63(c) of the Internal Revenue Code; and

(3) the capital gain amount of a lump sum distribution to which the special tax under section 1122(h)(3)(B)(ii) of the Tax Reform Act of 1986, Public Law Number 99-514, applies.

Sec. 4. Minnesota Statutes 1987 Supplement, section 290.01, subdivision 19b, is amended to read:

Subd. 19b. [SUBTRACTIONS FROM FEDERAL TAXABLE INCOME.] For individuals, estates, and trusts, there shall be subtracted from federal taxable income:

(1) interest income on obligations of any authority, commission, or instrumentality of the United States to the extent includable in taxable income for federal income tax purposes but exempt from state income tax under the laws of the United States;

(2) if included in federal taxable income, the amount of any overpayment of income tax to Minnesota or to any other state, for any previous taxable year, whether the amount is received as a refund or as a credit to another taxable year's income tax liability; and

(3) the amount paid to others not to exceed $650 for each dependent in grades kindergarten to six and $1,000 for each dependent in grades seven to 12, for tuition, textbooks, and transportation of each dependent in attending an elementary or secondary school situated in Minnesota, North Dakota, South Dakota, Iowa, or Wisconsin, wherein a resident of this state may legally fulfill the state's compulsory attendance laws, which is not operated for profit, and which adheres to the provisions of the Civil Rights Act of 1964 and chapter 363. As used in this clause, "textbooks" includes books and other instructional materials and equipment used in elementary and secondary schools in teaching only those subjects legally and commonly taught in public elementary and secondary schools in this state. "Textbooks" does not include instructional books and materials used in the teaching of religious tenets, doctrines, or worship, the purpose of which is to instill such tenets, doctrines, or worship, nor does it include books or materials for, or transportation to, extracurricular activities including sporting events, musical or dramatic events, speech activities, driver's education, or similar programs. In order to qualify for the subtraction under this clause the taxpayer must elect to itemize deductions under section 63(e) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended through December 31, 1986;

(4) to the extent included in federal taxable income, distributions from a qualified governmental pension plan, an individual retirement account, simplified employee pension, or qualified plan covering a self-employed person that represent a return of contributions that were included in Minnesota gross income in the taxable year for which the contributions were made but were deducted or were not included in the computation of federal adjusted gross income. The distribution shall be allocated first to return of contributions until the contributions included in Minnesota gross income have been exhausted. This subtraction applies only to contributions made in a taxable year prior to 1985;

(5) income of elderly and disabled individuals as provided under section 8; and

(6) the amount of unrecovered accelerated cost recovery system deductions allowed under section 5.

Sec. 5. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 290.01, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 20g. [ACRS MODIFICATION FOR INDIVIDUALS.] (a) An individual is allowed a subtraction from federal taxable income for the amount of accelerated cost recovery system deductions that were added to federal adjusted gross income in computing Minnesota gross income for taxable year 1981, 1982, 1983, or 1984 and that were not deducted in a later taxable year. The deduction is allowed beginning in the first taxable year after the entire allowable deduction for the property has been allowed under federal law or the first taxable year beginning after December 31, 1987, whichever is later. The amount of the deduction is computed by deducting the amount added to federal adjusted gross income in computing Minnesota gross income (less any deduction allowed under Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 290.01, subdivision 20f) in equal annual amounts over five years.

(b) In the event of a sale or exchange of the property, a deduction is allowed equal to the lesser of (1) the remaining amount that would be allowed as a deduction under paragraph (a) or (2) the amount of capital gain recognized and the amount of cost recovery deductions that were subject to recapture under sections 1245 and 1250 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 for the taxable year.

(c) In the case of a corporation electing S corporation status under section 1362 of the Internal Revenue Code, the amount of the corporation's cost recovery allowances that have been deducted in computing federal tax, but have been added to federal taxable income or not deducted in computing tax under this chapter as a result of the application of subdivision 19e, paragraphs (a) and (c) or Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 290.09, subdivision 7 is allowed as a deduction to the shareholders under the provisions of paragraph (a).

Sec. 6. Minnesota Statutes 1987 Supplement, section 290.06, subdivision 2c, is amended to read:

Subd. 2c. [SCHEDULES OF RATES FOR INDIVIDUALS, ESTATES, AND TRUSTS.] (a) The income taxes imposed by this chapter upon married individuals filing joint returns and surviving spouses as defined in section 2(a) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 as amended through December 31, 1987, must be computed by applying to their taxable net income the following schedule of rates:

plus an amount equal to 0.5 percent of the amount of taxable income over $37,800, but not over $82,500.

(e) In lieu of a tax computed according to the rates set forth in this subdivision, the tax of any individual taxpayer whose taxable net income for the taxable year is less than an amount determined by the commissioner must be computed in accordance with tables prepared and issued by the commissioner of revenue based on income brackets of not more than $100. The amount of tax for each bracket shall be computed at the rates set forth in this subdivision, provided that the commissioner may disregard a fractional part of a dollar unless it amounts to 50 cents or more, in which case it may be increased to $1.

(e) (f) An individual who is not a Minnesota resident for the entire year must compute the individual's Minnesota income tax as provided in this subdivision. After the application of the nonrefundable credits provided in this chapter, the tax liability must then be multiplied by a fraction in which:

(1) The numerator is the individual's Minnesota sourced federal adjusted gross income as defined in section 62 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended through December 31, 1986, after applying the allocation and assignability provisions of section 290.081, clause (a), or 290.17; and

(2) the denominator is the individual's federal adjusted gross income as defined in section 62 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended through December 31, 1986 1987, increased by the addition required for interest income from non-Minnesota state and municipal bonds under section 290.01, subdivision 19a, clause (1).

(g) Any individual who has income which is included in the computation of federal adjusted gross income but is not subject to tax by Minnesota other than income specifically allowed as a subtraction under section 290.01, subdivision 19b, shall compute the tax in the same manner described in paragraph (f). The numerator of the fraction under paragraph (f) is the individual's Minnesota source federal adjusted gross income reduced by the income not subject to Minnesota tax and the denominator is the federal adjusted gross income.

Sec. 7. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 290.06, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 22. [CREDIT FOR TAXES PAID TO ANOTHER STATE.] (a) If a taxpayer who is a resident of this state or is a domestic corporation or corporation commercially domiciled in Minnesota has become liable for taxes on or measured by net income to another state or province or territory of Canada upon income allocated or apportioned to Minnesota, the taxpayer is entitled to a credit for the tax paid to another state or province or territory of Canada if the tax is actually paid in the taxable year or a subsequent taxable year. A taxpayer who is a resident of this state pursuant to section 290.01, subdivision 7a, clause (b), and is subject to income tax as a resident in the state of the individual's domicile is not allowed this credit unless the state of domicile does not allow a similar credit.

(b) For an individual, estate, or trust, the credit is determined by multiplying the tax payable under this chapter by the ratio derived by dividing the income subject to tax in the other state or province or territory of Canada that is also subject to tax in Minnesota while a resident of Minnesota by the taxpayer's federal adjusted gross income, as defined in section 62 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended through December 31, 1987, to the extent the income is allocated or assigned to Minnesota under sections 290.081 and 290.17.

(c) For a corporation, the ratio is determined by dividing the net income from personal or professional services within such other state, or, if the taxpayer is an athletic team where all of the team's income is apportioned to Minnesota, it is the total net income subject to tax in such other state or province or territory of Canada, divided by the Minnesota taxable net income. This percentage shall be applied only against the tax assessed by this section.

(d) The credit determined under paragraph (b) or (c) shall not exceed the amount of tax so paid to the other state or province or territory of Canada on the gross income earned within the other state or province or territory of Canada subject to tax under this chapter, nor shall the allowance of the credit reduce the taxes paid under this chapter to an amount less than what would be assessed if such income amount was excluded from taxable net income.

(e) In the case of the tax assessed on a lump sum distribution under section 290.032, the credit allowed under paragraph (a) is the tax assessed by the other state or province or territory of Canada on the lump sum distribution that is also subject to tax under section 290.032, and shall not exceed the tax assessed under section 290.032.

(f) If a Minnesota resident reported an item of income to Minnesota and is assessed tax in such other state or province or territory of Canada on that same income after the Minnesota statute of limitations has expired, the taxpayer shall receive a credit for that year under paragraph (a), notwithstanding any statute of limitations to the contrary. The claim for the credit must be submitted within one year from the date the taxes were paid to the other state or province or territory of Canada. The taxpayer must submit sufficient proof to show entitlement to a credit.

Sec. 8. [290.0802] [SUBTRACTION FOR THE ELDERLY AND DISABLED.]

Subdivision 1. [DEFINITIONS.] For purposes of this section, the following terms have the meanings given.

(a) "Adjusted gross income" means federal adjusted gross income as used in section 22(d) of the Internal Revenue Code for the taxable year.

(b) "Disability income" means disability income as defined in section 22(c)(2)(B)(iii) of the Internal Revenue Code.

(c) "Internal Revenue Code" means the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended through December 31, 1987.

(d) "Nontaxable retirement and disability benefits" means the amount of pension, annuity, or disability benefits that would be included in the reduction under section 22(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, but excluding tier one railroad retirement benefits.

(e) "Qualified individual" means a qualified individual as defined in section 22(b) of the Internal Revenue Code.

Subd. 2. [SUBTRACTION.] (a) In the case of a qualified individual, a subtraction from federal taxable income is allowed in com-putting the tax imposed by this chapter equal to the lesser of federal taxable income or the individual's subtraction base amount.

(b)(1) The initial subtraction base amount equals

(i) $10,000 for a married taxpayer filing a joint return if a spouse is a qualified individual,

(ii) $8,000 for a single taxpayer, and

(iii) $5,000 for a married taxpayer filing a separate federal return.

(2) The qualified individual's initial subtraction base amount, then, must be reduced by the sum of nontaxable retirement and disability benefits and one-half of the amount of adjusted gross income in excess of the following thresholds:

(i) $15,000 for a married taxpayer filing a joint return if both spouses are qualified individuals,

(ii) $12,000 for a single taxpayer or for a married couple filing a joint return if only one spouse is a qualified individual, and

(iii) $7,500 for a married taxpayer filing a separate federal return.

(3) In the case of a qualified individual who is under the age of 65, the maximum amount of the subtraction base may not exceed the taxpayer's disability income.

(4) The resulting amount is the subtraction base amount.

Subd. 3. [RESTRICTIONS; MARRIED COUPLES.] Except in the case of a husband and wife who live apart at all times during the taxable year, if the taxpayer is married at the close of the taxable year, the subtraction under this section is allowable only if the taxpayers file joint federal and state income tax returns for the taxable year.

Sec. 9. Minnesota Statutes 1987 Supplement, section 290.081, is amended to read:

290.081 [INCOME OF NONRESIDENTS, RECIPROCITY; CREDIT FOR TAXES PAID TO ANOTHER STATE.]

(a) The compensation received for the performance of personal or professional services within this state by an individual whose residence, place of abode, and place customarily returned to at least once a month is in another state, shall be excluded from gross income to the extent such compensation is subject to an income tax imposed by the state of residence; provided that such state allows a similar exclusion of compensation received by residents of Minnesota for services performed therein; or.

(b) If any taxpayer who is a resident of this state, or a domestic corporation or corporation commercially domiciled therein, has become liable for taxes on or measured by net income to another state or a province or territory of Canada upon, if the taxpayer is an individual, or if the taxpayer is an athletic team and all of the team's income is apportioned to Minnesota, any income, or if it is a corporation, estate, or trust, upon income derived from the performance of personal or professional services within such other state or province or territory of Canada and subject to taxation under this chapter the taxpayer shall be entitled to a credit against the amount of taxes payable under this chapter, of such proportion thereof, as such gross income subject to taxation in such state or province or territory of Canada bears to the taxpayer's entire gross income subject to taxation under this chapter; provided (1) that such credit shall in no event exceed the amount of tax so paid to such other state or province or territory of Canada on the gross income earned within such other state or province or territory of Canada and subject to taxation under this chapter, and (2) the allowance of such credit shall not operate to reduce the taxes payable under this chapter to an amount less than would have been payable if the gross income earned in such other state or province or territory of Canada had been excluded in computing net income under this chapter. A taxpayer who is a resident of this state pursuant to section 290.01, subdivision 7a, clause (2), and is subject to income tax as a resident in the state of the individual's domicile is not allowed this credit unless the state of domicile does not allow a similar credit.

(c) The commissioner shall by rule determine with respect to gross income earned in any other state the applicable clause of this section. When it is deemed to be in the best interests of the people of this state, the commissioner may determine that the provisions of clause (a) shall not apply. As long as the provisions of clause (a) apply between Minnesota and Wisconsin, the provisions of clause (a) shall apply to any individual who is domiciled in Wisconsin.

(d) "Tax So Paid" as used in this section means taxes on or measured by net income payable to another state or province or territory of Canada on income earned within the taxable year for which the credit is claimed, provided that such tax is actually paid in that taxable year, or subsequent taxable years.

For purposes of clause (b), where a Minnesota resident reported an item of income to Minnesota and is assessed tax in another state or a province or territory of Canada on that same item of income after the Minnesota statute of limitations has expired, the taxpayer shall be allowed to receive a credit for that year based on clause (b), notwithstanding the provisions of sections 290.49, 290.50, and 290.56. For purposes of the preceding sentence, the burden of proof shall be on the taxpayer to show entitlement to a credit.

(e) (c) For the purposes of clause (a), whenever the Wisconsin tax on Minnesota residents which would have been paid Wisconsin without clause (a) exceeds the Minnesota tax on Wisconsin residents which would have been paid Minnesota without clause (a), or vice versa, then the state with the net revenue loss resulting from clause (a) shall receive from the other state the amount of such loss. This provision shall be effective for all years beginning after December 31, 1972. The data used for computing the loss to either state shall be determined on or before September 30 of the year following the close of the previous calendar year.

Interest shall be payable on all delinquent balances relating to taxable years beginning after December 31, 1977. The commissioner of revenue is authorized to enter into agreements with the state of Wisconsin specifying the reciprocity payment due date, conditions constituting delinquency, interest rates, and a method for computing interest due on any delinquent amounts.

If an agreement cannot be reached as to the amount of the loss, the commissioner of revenue and the taxing official of the state of Wisconsin shall each appoint a member of a board of arbitration and these members shall appoint the third member of the board. The board shall select one of its members as chair. Such board may administer oaths, take testimony, subpoena witnesses, and require their attendance, require the production of books, papers and documents, and hold hearings at such places as are deemed necessary. The board shall then make a determination as to the amount to be paid the other state which determination shall be final and conclusive.

Notwithstanding the provisions of section 290.61, the commissioner may furnish copies of returns, reports, or other information to the taxing official of the state of Wisconsin, a member of the board of arbitration, or a consultant under joint contract with the states of Minnesota and Wisconsin for the purpose of making a determination as to the amount to be paid the other state under the provisions of this section. Prior to the release of any information under the provisions of this section, the person to whom the information is to be released shall sign an agreement which provides that the person will protect the confidentiality of the returns and information revealed thereby to the extent that it is protected under the laws of the state of Minnesota.

Sec. 10. Minnesota Statutes 1987 Supplement, section 290.17, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [INCOME NOT DERIVED FROM CONDUCT OF A TRADE OR BUSINESS.] The income of a taxpayer subject to the allocation rules that is not derived from the conduct of a trade or business must be assigned in accordance with paragraphs (a) to (f):

(a)(1) Subject to paragraphs (a)(2) and (a)(3), income from labor or personal or professional services is assigned to this state if, and to the extent that, the labor or services are performed within it; all other income from such sources is treated as income from sources without this state.

(2) In the case of an individual who is a nonresident of Minnesota and who is an athlete or entertainer, income from compensation for labor or personal services performed within this state shall be determined in the following manner:

(i) The amount of income to be assigned to Minnesota for an individual who is a nonresident salaried athletic team employee shall be determined by using a fraction in which the denominator contains the total number of days in which the individual is under a duty to perform for the employer, and the numerator is the total number of those days spent in Minnesota; and

(ii) The amount of income to be assigned to Minnesota for an individual who is a nonresident, and who is an athlete or entertainer not listed in clause (i), for that person's athletic or entertainment performance in Minnesota shall be determined by assigning to this state all income from performances or athletic contests in this state.

(3) For purposes of this section, amounts received by a nonresident from the United States, its agencies or instrumentalities, the Federal Reserve Bank, the state of Minnesota or any of its political or governmental subdivisions, or a Minnesota volunteer firefighters' relief association, by way of payment as a pension, public employee retirement benefit, or any combination of these, or as a retirement or survivor's benefit made from a plan qualifying under section 401, 403, 408, or 409, or as defined in section 403(b) or 457 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended through December 31, 1986, are not considered income derived from carrying on a trade or business or from performing personal or professional services in Minnesota, and are not taxable under this chapter.

(b) Income or gains from tangible property located in this state that is not employed in the business of the recipient of the income or gains must be assigned to this state.

(c) Except upon the sale of a partnership interest or the sale of stock of an "S" corporation, income or gains from intangible personal property not employed in the business of the recipient of the income or gains must be assigned to this state if the recipient of the income or gains is a resident of this state or is a resident trust or estate.

Gain on the sale of a partnership interest is allocable to this state in the ratio of the original cost of partnership tangible property in this state to the original cost of partnership tangible property everywhere, determined at the time of the sale. If more than 50 percent of the value of the partnership's assets consists of intangibles, gain or loss from the sale of the partnership interest is allocated to this state in accordance with the sales factor of the partnership for its first full tax period immediately preceding the tax period of the partnership during which the partnership interest was sold.

Gain on the sale of stock held in an "S" corporation is allocable to this state in the ratio of the original cost of tangible property of the "S" corporation within this state to the original cost of tangible property of the "S" corporation everywhere.

(d) Income from the operation of a farm shall be assigned to this state if the farm is located within this state and to other states only if the farm is not located in this state.

(e) Income from winnings on Minnesota pari-mutuel betting tickets and lawful gambling as defined in section 349.12, subdivision 2, conducted within the boundaries of the state of Minnesota shall be assigned to this state.

(f) All items of gross income not covered in paragraphs (a) to (e) and not part of the taxpayer's income from a trade or business shall be assigned to the taxpayer's domicile.

Sec. 11. Minnesota Statutes 1987 Supplement, section 290.38, is amended to read:

290.38 [RETURNS OF MARRIED PERSONS.]

A husband and wife must file a joint Minnesota income tax return if they filed a joint federal income tax return. If a joint return is made the tax shall be computed on the aggregate income and the liability with respect to the tax shall be joint and several; provided that a spouse who is relieved of a liability attributable to a substantial underpayment under section 6013(e) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended through December 31, 1987, shall also be relieved of the state tax liability on the substantial underpayment. If the husband and wife have elected to file separate federal income tax returns they must file separate Minnesota income tax returns. This election to file a joint or separate returns must be changed if they change their election for federal purposes. In the event taxpayers desire to change their election, such change shall be done in the manner and on such form as the commissioner shall prescribe by rule.

The determination of whether an individual is married shall be made under provisions of section 7703 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended through December 31, 1986.

Sec. 12. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 290.39, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 5. [PARTNERSHIPS; NONRESIDENT PARTNERS.] (a) The commissioner may allow a partnership with five or more nonresident partners to file a composite return on behalf of nonresident partners who have no other Minnesota source income. This composite return must include the names, addresses, social security numbers, income allocation, and tax liability for all nonresident partners electing to be covered by the composite return.

(b) The computation of each partner's tax liability will be determined by multiplying the income allocated to that partner by the highest rate used to determine the tax liability for individuals under section 290.06, subdivision 2c. Nonbusiness deductions, standard deductions, or personal exemptions are not allowed.

(c) The partnership must submit a request to use this composite return filing method for nonresident partners on or before the due date for filing the individual income tax return. The request may be made a part of the return filed.

(d) The electing partner must not have any Minnesota source income other than the income from the partnership and other electing partnerships. If it is determined that the electing partner has other Minnesota source income, the inclusion of the income and tax liability for that partner under this provision will not constitute a return to satisfy the requirements of subdivision 1. The penalty for failure to file a return as provided in section 290.53, subdivision 2, is assessed from the due date for filing a return until a non-composite return is filed. The tax paid for such an individual as part of the composite return is allowed as a payment of the tax by the individual on the date on which the composite return payment was made. If the electing nonresident partner has no other Minnesota source income, filing of the composite return constitutes a return for purposes of subdivision 1 of this section.

(e) This subdivision does not preclude the requirement that an individual pay estimated tax if the individual's liability would exceed the requirements set forth in section 290.93. However, a composite estimate may be filed in a manner similar to and containing the same information required under paragraph (a).

(f) If an electing partner's share of the partnership's gross income from Minnesota sources is less than the filing requirements for a nonresident under section 290.37, subdivision 1, the tax liability is zero. However, a statement showing the partner's share of gross income must be included as part of the composite return.

(g) The election provided in this subdivision is not available to any partner other than a full-year nonresident individual who has no other Minnesota source income.

(h) A corporation defined in section 290.9725 and its nonresident shareholders may make an election under this subdivision. The provisions covering the partnership apply to the corporation and the provisions applying to the partner apply to each shareholder.

(i) Estates and trusts distributing current income only and the nonresident individual beneficiaries of such estates or trusts may make an election under this subdivision. The provisions covering the partnership apply to the estate or trust. The provisions applying to the partner apply to each beneficiary.

Sec. 13. Minnesota Statutes 1987 Supplement, section 290.41, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. (e) For property subject to the modifications contained in paragraphs (a) and ~~(b)~~ (c) and Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 290.09,

The remaining depreciable basis in those assets for Minnesota purposes, including the amount of any basis reduction to reflect the investment tax credit for federal purposes under sections 48(q) and 49(d) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended through December 31, 1986, shall be a depreciation allowance computed using the straight line method over the following number of years:

- (2) five-year and seven-year property, two years;
- (3) ten-year property, five years; and
- (4) all other property, seven years.

(g) For qualified timber property for which the taxpayer made an election under section 194 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, the remaining depreciable basis for Minnesota purposes is allowed as a deduction in the first taxable year after the entire allowable deduction has been allowed for federal tax purposes.

(h) The basis of property to which section 168 of the Internal Revenue Code applies is its basis as provided in this chapter including the modifications provided in this subdivision and in Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 290.09, subdivision 7, paragraph (c). The recapture tax provisions provided in sections 1245 and 1250 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended through December 31, 1986, apply but must be calculated using the basis provided in the preceding sentence.

(i) The basis of an asset acquired in an exchange of assets, including an involuntary conversion, is the same as its federal basis under the provisions of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, except that the difference in basis due to the modifications in this subdivision and in Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 290.09, subdivision 7, paragraph (c), is a deduction as provided in paragraph (e).

Sec. 7. Minnesota Statutes 1987 Supplement, section 290.015, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [GENERAL RULE.] A person, other than a resident individual, that conducts a trade or business with its principal place of business outside of Minnesota is subject to the taxes imposed by this chapter with respect to that trade or business if the trade or business makes sales or receives other income that is assignable or apportionable to this state under section 290.17, 290.191, 290.20, 290.35 or 290.36 without regard to physical presence in this state, except as provided in subdivision 3. Activities that create jurisdiction to tax under this chapter include, but are not limited to:

- (1) having a place of business in this state;
- (2) having employees, representatives, or independent contractors conducting business activities in this state;
- (3) regularly selling products or services of any kind or nature to customers in this state who receive the product or service in this state;
- (4) regularly soliciting business from potential customers in this state;
- (5) regularly performing services from outside this state which are consumed within this state;
- (6) regularly engaging in transactions with customers in this state that involve intangible property, including loans but not property described in subdivision 3, paragraph (b), and result in income flowing to the person from within this state;
- (7) owning or leasing tangible personal or real property located in this state; or
- (8) if a financial institution, regularly soliciting and receiving deposits from customers in this state. (a) Except as provided in subdivision 3, a person that conducts a trade or business that has a place of business in this state, regularly has employees or independent contractors conducting business activities on its behalf in this state, or owns or leases real property located in this state or tangible personal property located in this state as defined in section 290.191, subdivision 6, paragraph (e), is subject to the taxes imposed by this chapter.

(b) Except as provided in subdivision 3, a person that conducts a trade or business not described in paragraph (a) is subject to the taxes imposed by this chapter if the trade or business obtains or regularly solicits business from within this state, without regard to physical presence in this state.

(c) For purposes of paragraph (b), business from within this state includes, but is not limited to:

(1) sales of products or services of any kind or nature to customers in this state who receive the product or service in this state;

(2) sales of services that are performed from outside this state but the benefits of which are consumed in this state;

(3) transactions with customers in this state that involve intangible property and result in income flowing to the person from within this state;

(4) leases of tangible personal property that is located in this state as defined in section 290.191, subdivision 6, paragraph (e);

(5) sales and leases of real property located in this state; and

(d) For purposes of paragraph (b), solicitation includes, but is not limited to:

(2) display of advertisements on billboards or other outdoor advertising in this state;

(3) advertisements in newspapers published in this state;

(4) advertisements in trade journals or other periodicals the circulation of which is primarily within this state;

(5) advertisements in a Minnesota edition of a national or regional publication or a limited regional edition of which this state is included of a broader regional or national publication which are not placed in other geographically defined editions of the same issue of the same publication.

(6) advertisements in regional or national publications in an edition which is not by its contents geographically targeted to Minnesota but which is sold over the counter in Minnesota or by subscription to Minnesota residents;

(7) advertisements broadcast on a radio or television station located in Minnesota; or

(8) any other solicitation by telegraph, telephone, computer data base, cable, optic, microwave, or other communication system.

Sec. 8. Minnesota Statutes 1987 Supplement, section 290.015, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [PRESUMPTION.] (a) A person is presumed, subject to rebuttal, to be engaged in regular solicitation within this state if it conducts transactions described in any of subdivision 1, clauses (3) to (6), with 20 or more residents of this state during any tax period or, if a financial institution, if the sum of its assets and the absolute value of its deposits attributable to sources within this state equals or exceeds $5,000,000. Assets and deposits must be attributed to sources within this state by applying the principles established under section 290.191 obtaining or regularly soliciting business from within this state if:

(1) it conducts activities described in subdivision 1, without regard to transactions described in subdivision 3, with 20 or more residents of this state during any tax period; or

(2) it is a financial institution as defined in section 290.01, subdivision 4a, and the sum of its assets and the absolute value of its deposits attributable to sources within this state equals or exceeds $5,000,000, with assets and deposits attributed to sources within this state by applying the principles established under section 290.191, except as provided in subdivision 3.

(b) A financial institution that does not satisfy the requirements of paragraph (a) is not subject to taxes imposed by this chapter except for taxes imposed under section 290.92.

Sec. 9. Minnesota Statutes 1987 Supplement, section 290.015, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [EXCEPTIONS.] (a) A person is not subject to tax under this chapter if the person is engaged in the business of selling tangible personal property and taxation of that person under this chapter is precluded by Public Law Number 86-272, United States Code, title 15, sections 381 to 384.

(b) Ownership of an interest in the following types of property (including those contacts with this state reasonably required to evaluate and complete the acquisition or disposition of the property, the servicing of the property or the income from it, the collection of income from the property, or the acquisition or liquidation of collateral relating to the property) shall not be a factor in determining whether the owner is subject to tax under this chapter:

(1) an interest in a real estate mortgage investment conduit, a real estate investment trust, or a regulated investment company, as those terms are defined in the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended through December 31, 1986 1987; and

(2) an interest in a loan-backed, mortgage-backed, or receivable-backed security representing either: (i) ownership in a pool of promissory notes, mortgages, or receivables or certificates of interest or participation in such notes, mortgages, or receivables, or (ii) debt obligations or equity interests which provide for payments in relation to payments or reasonable projections of payments on the notes, mortgages, or receivables, and which are issued by a financial institution or by an entity substantially all of whose assets consist of promissory notes, mortgages, receivables, or interests in them;

(3) an interest that has been purchased or acquired by or from a financial institution in any assets described in section 290.191, subdivision 11, paragraphs (e) to (l), and in which the payment obligations embodied in such assets were solicited and entered into by persons independent and not acting on behalf of the owner;

(4) an interest that has been purchased or acquired by or from a financial institution in the right to service, or collect income from any assets described in section 290.191, subdivision 11, paragraphs (e) to (l), and in which the payment obligations embodied in such assets were solicited and entered into by persons independent and not acting on behalf of the owner;

(5) an interest in any intangible, tangible, real, or personal property acquired in satisfaction, whether in whole or in part, of any asset embodying a payment obligation that is in default, whether secured or unsecured, the ownership of an interest in which would be exempt under the preceding provisions of this subdivision, provided the property is disposed of within a reasonable period of time.

(6) amounts held in escrow or trust accounts, pursuant to and in accordance with the terms of property described in this subdivision.

If the person is the member of a unitary group, this paragraph (b) does not apply to an interest acquired from another member of the unitary group.

Sec. 10. Minnesota Statutes 1987 Supplement, section 290.015, subdivision 4, is amended to read:

Subd. 4. [LIMITATIONS.] (a) This section does not (1) subject a trade or business to any regulation, including any tax, of any local unit of government or subdivision of this state if the trade or business does not own or lease tangible or real property located within this state and has no employees or independent contractors present in this state to assist in the carrying on of the business; or (2) ~~exclude a trade or business from the filing requirements of the notice of business activities report under section 290.371.~~

(b) The purchase of tangible personal property or intangible property or services by a person that conducts a trade or business with the principal place of business outside of Minnesota (the "non-Minnesota person") from a person within Minnesota shall not be taken into account in determining whether the non-Minnesota person is subject to the taxes imposed by this chapter, except for services involving either the direct solicitation of Minnesota customers or relationships with Minnesota customers after sales are made.

(c) No contact with any Minnesota financial institution by any financial institution with its principal place of business outside Minnesota with respect to transactions described in subdivision 3 shall be taken into account in determining whether such a financial institution is subject to the taxes imposed by this chapter. The fact of participation by a Minnesota financial institution in a transaction that also involves a borrower and a financial institution that conducts a trade or business with its principal place of business outside of Minnesota is not a factor in determining whether the financial institution is subject to the taxes imposed by this chapter. This paragraph does not apply to transactions between or among members of the same unitary group.

Sec. 11. Minnesota Statutes 1987 Supplement, section 290.06, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [COMPUTATION, CORPORATIONS.] (a) The franchise tax imposed by this chapter upon corporations shall be computed by applying to their taxable income the rate of 9.5 percent adjusted as provided in paragraph (b).

(b) For taxable years beginning after December 31, 1989, the commissioner of revenue must adjust the rate provided in paragraph (a) as provided in this paragraph. By December 15, 1989, the commissioner shall prepare a forecast of revenues predicted to be raised for taxable years beginning in 1990 by the franchise tax on corporations under this chapter for taxable years beginning in 1990, including the tax under section 290.092, computed as if the tax were imposed under section 290.092, subdivisions 1 to 4, and the rate in effect in this subdivision were 9.5 percent. The commissioner shall adjust the rate provided in paragraph (a) so that the amount forecast to be raised by the franchise tax on corporations under this chapter, including the tax under section 290.092, subdivision 5, is equal to the amount of the forecast computed as if the tax under section 290.092, subdivisions 1 to 4, were in effect. The adjustment of the tax rate by the commissioner under this subdivision shall not be considered a "rule" and shall not be subject to the administrative procedure act contained in chapter 14.

Sec. 12. Minnesota Statutes 1987 Supplement, section 290.06, subdivision 21, is amended to read:

Subd. 21. [ALTERNATIVE MINIMUM TAX.] (a) A corporation is allowed a credit for alternative minimum tax previously paid for any taxable year in which the corporation has no tax liability under section 290.092, subdivision 1, and has an alternative minimum tax credit carryover from a previous year. The credit allowable in any taxable year shall be equal to the lesser of (1) the excess of the tax under section 290.06 for the taxable year over the amount computed under section 290.092, subdivision 1, clause (a) (1), for the taxable year, or (2) the alternative minimum tax credit carryover to the taxable year.

(b) The tax imposed under section 290.092, subdivision 1, for any taxable year is a credit for an alternative minimum tax previously paid which is a credit carryover to each of the five taxable years succeeding the taxable year. The entire amount of the alternative minimum tax credit must be carried to the earliest of the taxable years year to which such amount may be carried. ~~The portion of the alternative minimum tax credit which is carried to each of the other taxable years to which the credit may be carried is the excess, if any, of the credit over the amount allowable under paragraph (a) for each of the taxable years to which the credit may be carried. In each taxable year in which a credit is allowable under paragraph (a), the credit for alternative minimum tax previously paid must be used beginning with the earliest taxable year from which the credit may be carried. Any unused portion of the credit must be carried to the following taxable year. No credit may be carried to a taxable year more than five years after the taxable year in which the alternative minimum tax was paid.~~

Sec. 13. Minnesota Statutes 1987 Supplement, section 290.092, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [ALTERNATIVE MINIMUM TAX BASE.] The alternative minimum tax base equals the sum of:

- (1) the total amount of Minnesota sales and or receipts;
- (2) the amount of the taxpayer's total Minnesota property; and
- (3) the taxpayer's total Minnesota payrolls;

less the exemption amount, if any.

Sec. 14. Minnesota Statutes 1987 Supplement, section 290.092, subdivision 4, is amended to read:

Subd. 4. [DEFINITIONS.] (a) "Minnesota sales and or receipts" means the total sales apportioned to Minnesota pursuant to section 290.191, subdivision 5, the total receipts attributed to Minnesota pursuant to section 290.191, subdivisions 6 to 8, and/or the total sales or receipts apportioned or attributed to Minnesota pursuant to any other apportionment formula applicable to the taxpayer.

(b) "Minnesota property" means total Minnesota tangible property as provided in section 290.191, subdivisions 9 to 11, and any other tangible property located in Minnesota except as provided in subdivision 4a. Intangible property shall not be included in Minnesota property for purposes of this section. Taxpayers who do not utilize tangible property to apportion income shall nevertheless include Minnesota property for purposes of this section. For the first five taxable years during which a corporation is subject to taxation under this chapter, the amount of its Minnesota property and payrolls shall be deemed to be zero for purposes of this section. On a return for a short taxable year, the amount of Minnesota property owned, as determined under section 290.191, shall be included in Minnesota property based on a fraction in which the numerator is the number of days in the short taxable year and the denominator is 365.

(c) "Minnesota payrolls" means total Minnesota payrolls as provided in section 290.191, subdivision 12, except as provided in subdivision 4a. Taxpayers who do not utilize payrolls to apportion income shall nevertheless include Minnesota payrolls for purposes of this section.

(d) The "exemption amount" equals the lesser of (1) the sum of the taxpayer's Minnesota sales and or receipts, property, and payrolls, as defined in this section, or (2) $5,000,000 reduced by one-half of the amount of the taxpayer's total sales and receipts, property, and payrolls, as defined in this section, in excess of $10,000,000. In the case of a unitary group, the exemption amount equals the lesser of (1) the sum of the unitary group's Minnesota sales or receipts, property, and payrolls or (2) $5,000,000 reduced by one-half of the unitary group's total sales or receipts, property, and payrolls in excess of $10,000,000. Each member of a unitary group may use a portion of the unitary group's exemption amount based on a fraction, the numerator of which is the sum of the taxpayer's Minnesota sales or receipts, property, and payrolls and the denominator is the sum of the Minnesota sales or receipts, property, and payrolls of all unitary members subject to the taxes imposed by this chapter. Total sales and receipts, property, and payroll means the total determined under section 290.191 as the denominator of the apportionment formula. For purposes of this section, taxpayers who use an apportionment formula that does not include sales or receipts, property, and payrolls shall, nevertheless, use those amounts as defined in section 290.191, subdivisions 5 to 12. On a return for a short taxable year, the amount of total property owned, as determined under section 290.191, shall be included in Minnesota property based on a fraction in which the numerator is the number of days in the short taxable year and the denominator is 365. In the case of a unitary business, the exemption amount must reflect the factors of the entire all businesses included in the unitary business group as reported on the combined report defined in section 290.17, subdivision 4. A corporation that has as its sole or primary business activity (1) the providing of professional services, as defined in section 319A.02; (2) operation as a financial institution, as defined in section 290.01, subdivision 4a; (3) sales or management of real estate; or (4) operation as an insurance agency, as defined in section 60A.02, does not have an exemption amount.

Sec. 15. Minnesota Statutes 1987 Supplement, section 290.092, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 4a. [NEW BUSINESS EXCLUSION.] For the first five taxable years during which a corporation is subject to taxation under this chapter, the amount of its Minnesota property and payrolls must be excluded from the alternative minimum tax base unless it is disqualified in this subdivision. A corporation is considered subject to taxation under this chapter if it would be subject to Minnesota's jurisdiction to tax as provided in section 290.015, before claiming this exclusion. The following does not qualify for this exclusion:

(1) a corporation that is a member of a unitary group that includes at least one business that does not qualify for this exclusion;

(2) any corporation organized under the laws of this state or certified to do business within this state at least five taxable years before the taxable year in which this exclusion is claimed;

(3) corporations created by: reorganizations, as defined in section 368 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended through December 31, 1987; or split-ups, split-offs, or spin-offs, as described in section 355 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended through December 31, 1987; or the transfer or acquisition, whether directly or indirectly, of assets which constitute a trade or business, including stock purchases under section 338 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended through December 31, 1987, where the surviving, newly formed, or acquiring corporation conducts substantially the same activities as the predecessor corporation, regardless of whether or not the survivor corporation also conducts additional activities, and the predecessor corporation would not otherwise qualify for this exclusion if it had continued to conduct those activities;

(4) any change in identity or form of business where the original business entity would have been subject to Minnesota's taxing jurisdiction, as provided in section 290.015, at least five taxable years before the taxable year in which this exclusion is claimed;

(5) a corporation, the primary business activity of which is the providing of professional services as defined in section 319A.02, operation as a financial institution, as defined in section 290.01, subdivision 4a; sales or management of real estate; or operation as an insurance agency, as defined in section 60A.03; or

(6) a corporation the affairs of which the commissioner finds were arranged as they were primarily to reduce taxes.

Sec. 16. Minnesota Statutes 1987 Supplement, section 290.092, subdivision 5, is amended to read:

Subd. 5. [IMPOSITION OF TAX AFTER 1989.] For taxable years beginning after December 31, 1989, in addition to the taxes computed under this chapter ~~without regard to this section~~, the franchise tax imposed on corporations includes a tax equal to the excess, if any, of:

~~(1) 40 percent of the tax imposed upon the corporation under section 55(a) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended through December 31, 1986, apportioned to Minnesota under section 290.191. In computing the amount of the liability under section 55(a) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, the regular federal tax liability under section 55(a)(2) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, must be determined using federal taxable income as modified by sections 290.01, subdivisions 19c and 19d, 290.095, and 290.21, and alternative minimum taxable income under section 56 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 must be computed as if the section 290.095 restrictions on net operating losses applied.~~

~~(2) the amount of tax computed under this chapter without regard to this section.~~

Sec. 17. Minnesota Statutes 1987 Supplement, section 290.095, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [ALLOWANCE OF DEDUCTION.] (a) There shall be allowed as a deduction for the taxable year the amount of any net operating loss deduction as provided in section 172 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended through December 31, 1986, subject to the limitations and modifications provided in this section.

(b) A net operating loss deduction shall be available under this section only to corporate taxpayers except that subdivisions 7, 9, and 11 hereof apply only to individuals, estates, and trusts.

(c) In the case of a regulated investment company or fund thereof, as defined in section 851(a) or 851(q) of the Internal Revenue code of 1986, as amended through December 31, 1987, the deduction provided by this section is not allowed.

Sec. 18. Minnesota Statutes 1987 Supplement, section 290.095, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [CARRYOVER.] (a) A net operating loss for any taxable year incurred in a taxable year: (i) beginning after December 31, 1986, shall be a net operating loss carryover to each of the 15 taxable years following the taxable year of such loss; (ii) beginning before January 1, 1987, shall be a net operating loss carryover to each of the five taxable years following the taxable year of such loss subject to the provisions of Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 290.095; and (iii) beginning before January 1, 1987, shall be a net operating loss carryback to each of the three taxable years preceding the loss year subject to the provisions of Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 290.095.

(b) The entire amount of the net operating loss for any taxable year shall be carried to the earliest of the taxable years to which such loss may be carried. The portion of such loss which shall be carried to each of the other taxable years shall be the excess, if any, of the amount of such loss over the sum of the taxable net income, adjusted by the modifications specified in subdivision 4, for each of the taxable years to which such loss may be carried.

(c) Where a corporation does business both within and without Minnesota, and apportions its income under the provisions of section 290.191, the net operating loss deduction incurred in any taxable year shall be allowed to the extent of the apportionment ratio of the loss year.

(d) No additional net operating loss deduction is allowed in a subsequent taxable year for the portion of a net operating loss deduction incurred in any taxable year used to offset Minnesota income in a year in which the taxpayer is subject to the alternative minimum tax in section 290.092.

Sec. 19. Minnesota Statutes 1987 Supplement, section 290.095, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 12. [UNITARY GROUP; CARRYBACK; CARRYFORWARD.] (a) A taxpayer may elect a net operating loss carryback to each of the three taxable years preceding the taxable year of the loss and a net operating loss carryover to each of the five taxable years following the taxable year of the loss, notwithstanding subdivision 3, clause (a). The net operating loss carryback and carryover allowed under this subdivision is limited to the part of the net operating loss attributable to the deduction allowed for bad debts under section 166(a) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended through December 31, 1987. The part of the net operating loss for any taxable year that is attributable to the deduction allowed for bad debts is the excess of the net operating loss for the taxable year, over the net operating loss for the taxable year determined without regard to the amount allowed as a deduction for bad debts for the taxable year. In applying the provisions of subdivision 3, clause (b), the part of the net operating loss for the loss year that is attributable to the deduction allowed for bad debts is considered a separate net operating loss for the year to be applied before the other part of the net operating loss. This subdivision applies only to taxpayers where a member of the unitary group meets the definition found in section 585(c)(2)(A) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended through December 31, 1987, and includes all corporations included in the unitary group and required to be included on a combined report. A refund of tax that is the result of a net operating loss carryback under this subdivision must be paid after two years but before two years and 30 days after the claim for refund was filed.

(b) This subdivision is repealed effective for taxable years beginning after December 31, 1993.

Sec. 20. Minnesota Statutes 1987 Supplement, section 290.10, is amended to read:

290.10 [NONDEDUCTIBLE ITEMS.]

Notwithstanding any other provision of law, in computing the net income of a corporation no deduction shall in any case be allowed for expenses, interest and taxes connected with or allocable against the production or receipt of all income not included in the measure of the tax imposed by this chapter, except that for corporations engaged in the business of mining or producing iron ore, the mining of which is subject to the occupation tax imposed by section 298.01, subdivision 1, and the provisions of section 298.031, this shall not prevent the deduction of expenses and other items to the extent that the expenses and other items are allowable under this chapter and are not deductible, capitalizable, retainable in basis, or taken into account by allowance or otherwise in computing the occupation tax and do not exceed the amounts taken for federal income tax purposes for that year. Occupation taxes imposed under chapter 298, royalty taxes imposed under chapter 299, or depletion expenses may not be deducted under this clause.

Sec. 21. Minnesota Statutes 1987 Supplement, section 290.191, subdivision 6, is amended to read:

Subd. 6. [DETERMINATION OF RECEIPTS FACTOR FOR FINANCIAL INSTITUTIONS.] (a) For purposes of this section, the rules in this subdivision and subdivisions 7 and 8 apply in determining the receipts factor for financial institutions.

(b) "Receipts" for this purpose means gross income, including net taxable gain on disposition of assets, including securities and money market ~~transactions~~ instruments, when derived from transactions and activities in the regular course of the taxpayer's trade or business.

(c) "Money market instruments" means federal funds sold and securities purchased under agreements to resell, commercial paper, banker's acceptances, and purchased certificates of deposit and similar instruments to the extent that the instruments are reflected as assets under generally accepted accounting principles.

(d) "Securities" means United States Treasury securities, obligations of United States government agencies and corporations, obligations of state and political subdivisions, corporate stock and other securities, participations in securities backed by mortgages held by United States or state government agencies, loan-backed securities and similar investments to the extent the investments are reflected as assets under generally accepted accounting principles.

(e) Receipts from the lease or rental of real or tangible personal property, including both finance leases and true leases, must be attributed to this state if the property is located in this state. Tangible personal property that is characteristically moving property, such as motor vehicles, rolling stock, aircraft, vessels, mobile equipment, and the like, is considered to be located in a state if:

(1) the operation of the property is entirely within the state; or

(2) the operation of the property is in two or more states, but the principal base of operations from which the property is sent out is in the state.

(f) Interest income and other receipts from assets in the nature of loans that are secured primarily by real estate or tangible personal property must be attributed to this state if the security property is located in this state under the principles stated in paragraph (e).

(g) Interest income and other receipts from consumer loans not secured by real or tangible personal property that are made to residents of this state, whether at a place of business, by traveling loan officer, by mail, by telephone or other electronic means, must be attributed to this state.

(h) Interest income and other receipts from commercial loans and installment obligations not secured by real or tangible personal property must be attributed to this state if the proceeds of the loan are to be applied in this state. If it cannot be determined where the funds are to be applied, the income and receipts are attributed to the state in which the business applied for the loan. "Applied for" means initial inquiry (including customer assistance in preparing the loan application) or submission of a completed loan application, whichever occurs first there is located the office of the borrower from which the application would be made in the regular course of business. If this cannot be determined, the transaction is disregarded in the apportionment formula.

(i) Interest income and other receipts from a participating financial institution's portion of participation loans must be attributed under paragraphs (e) to (h). A participation loan is a loan in which more than one lender is a creditor to a common borrower.

(j) Interest income and other receipts including service charges from financial institution credit card and travel and entertainment credit card receivables and credit card holders' fees must be attributed to the state to which the card charges and fees are regularly billed.

(k) Merchant discount income derived from financial institution credit card holder transactions with a merchant must be attributed to the state in which the merchant is located. In the case of merchants located within and outside the state, only receipts from merchant discounts attributable to sales made from locations within the state are attributed to this state. It is presumed, subject to rebuttal, that the location of a merchant is the address shown on the invoice submitted by the merchant to the taxpayer.

(l) Receipts from the performance of fiduciary and other services must be attributed to the state in which the benefits of the services are consumed. If the benefits are consumed in more than one state, the receipts from those benefits must be apportioned to this state pro rata according to the portion of the benefits consumed in this state.

(m) Receipts from the issuance of travelers checks and money orders must be attributed to the state in which the checks and money orders are purchased.

(n) Receipts from investments of a financial institution in securities of this state, its political subdivisions, agencies, and instrumentalities must be attributed to this state.

(o) Receipts from a financial institution's interest in any property described in section 290.015, subdivision 3, paragraph (b), are not included in the numerator or the denominator of the receipts factor provided the financial institution's activities within this state with respect to any interest in such property are limited in the manner provided in section 290.015, subdivision 3, paragraph (b). If a financial institution is subject to tax under this chapter, its interest in property described in section 290.015, subdivision 3, paragraph (b), is included in the receipts factor in the same manner as assets in the nature of securities or money market instruments are included under paragraph (n) and section 290.191, subdivision 7.

Sec. 22. Minnesota Statutes 1987 Supplement, section 290.191, subdivision 11, is amended to read:

Subd. 11. [FINANCIAL INSTITUTIONS; PROPERTY FACTOR.]

(a) For financial institutions, the property factor includes, as well as tangible property, intangible property as set forth in this subdivision.

(b) Intangible personal property must be included at its tax basis for federal income tax purposes.

(c) Goodwill must not be included in the property factor.

(d) Coin and currency located in this state must be attributed to this state.

(e) Lease financing receivables must be attributed to this state if and to the extent that the property is located within this state.

(f) Assets in the nature of loans that are secured by real or tangible personal property must be attributed to this state if and to the extent that the security property is located within this state.

(g) Assets in the nature of consumer loans and installment obligations that are unsecured or secured by intangible property must be attributed to this state if the loan was made to a resident of this state.

(h) Assets in the nature of commercial loan and installment obligations that are unsecured or secured by intangible property must be attributed to this state if the loan proceeds of the loan are to be applied in this state. If it cannot be determined where the funds are to be applied, the assets must be attributed to the state in which the business applied for the loan. "Applied for" means initial inquiry (including customer assistance in preparing the loan appliation) or submission of a completed loan application, whichever occurs first there is located the office of the borrower from which the application would be made in the regular course of business. If this cannot be determined, the transaction is disregarded in the apportionment formula.

(i) A participating financial institution's portion of a participation loan must be attributed under paragraphs (e) to (h).

(j) Financial institution credit card and travel and entertainment credit card receivables must be attributed to the state to which the credit card charges and fees are regularly billed.

(k) Receivables arising from merchant discount income derived from financial institution credit card holder transactions with a merchant are attributed to the state in which the merchant is located. In the case of merchants located within and without the state, only receipts from merchant discounts attributable to sales made from locations within the state are attributed to this state. It is presumed, subject to rebuttal, that the location of a merchant is the address shown on the invoice submitted by the merchant to the taxpayer.

(l) Assets in the nature of securities and money market instruments are apportioned to this state based upon the ratio that total deposits from this state, its residents, its political subdivisions, agencies and instrumentalities bear to the total deposits from all states, their residents, their political subdivisions, agencies and instrumentalities. In the case of an unregulated financial institution subject to this regulation, the receipts assets are apportioned to this state based upon the ratio that its gross business income earned from sources within this state bears to gross business income earned from sources within all states. For purposes of this subsection, deposits made by this state, its residents, its political subdivisions, agencies, and instrumentalities are attributed to this state, whether or not the deposits are accepted or maintained by the taxpayer at locations within this state.

(m) A financial institution's interest in any property described in section 290.015, subdivision 3, paragraph (b), is not included in the numerator or the denominator of the property factor provided the financial institution's activities within this state with respect to any interest in such property are limited in the manner provided in section 290.015, subdivision 3, paragraph (b). If a financial institution is subject to tax under this chapter, its interest in property described in section 290.015, subdivision 3, paragraph (b), is included in the property factor in the same manner as assets in the nature of securities or money market instruments are included under paragraph (1).

Sec. 23. Minnesota Statutes 1987 Supplement, section 290.21, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. An amount for contribution or gifts made within the taxable year:

(a) to or for the use of the state of Minnesota, or any of its political subdivisions for exclusively public purposes,

(b) to or for the use of any community chest, corporation, organization, trust, fund, association, or foundation located in and carrying on substantially all of its activities within this state, organized and operating exclusively for religious, charitable, public cemetery, scientific, literary, artistic, or educational purposes, or for the prevention of cruelty to children or animals, no part of the net earnings of which inures to the benefit of any private stockholder or individual,

(c) to a fraternal society, order, or association, operating under the lodge system located in and carrying on substantially all of their activities within this state if such contributions or gifts are to be used exclusively for the purposes specified in clause (b), or for or to posts or organizations of war veterans or auxiliary units or societies of such posts or organizations, if they are within the state and no part of their net income inures to the benefit of any private shareholder or individual,

(d) to or for the use of the United States of America for exclusively public purposes if the contribution or gift consists of real property located in Minnesota,

(e) to or for the use of a foundation if the foundation is organized and operated exclusively for a purpose in clause (b), and has no part of its net earnings inuring to the benefit of a private shareholder or individual, but does not carry on substantially all of its activities within this state. The deduction under this clause equals the amount of the corporation's contributions or gifts to the foundation within the taxable year multiplied by a fraction equal to the ratio of the foundation's total expenditures during the taxable year for the benefit of organizations described in clause (b) to the foundation's total expenditures during the taxable year.

(f) the total deduction hereunder shall not exceed 15 percent of the taxpayer's taxable net income less the deductions allowable under this section other than those for contributions or gifts,

(g) in the case of a corporation reporting its taxable income on the accrual basis, if: (A) the board of directors authorizes a charitable contribution during any taxable year, and (B) payment of such contribution is made after the close of such taxable year and on or before the fifteenth day of the third month following the close of such taxable year; then the taxpayer may elect to treat such contribution as paid during such taxable year. The election may be made only at the time of the filing of the return for such taxable year, and shall be signified in such manner as the commissioner shall by rules prescribe.

Sec. 24. Minnesota Statutes 1987 Supplement, section 290.21, subdivision 4, is amended to read:

Subd. 4. (a) Eighty percent of dividends received by a corporation during the taxable year from another corporation, when the corporate stock with respect to which dividends are paid does not constitute the stock in trade of the taxpayer or would not be included in the inventory of the taxpayer, or does not constitute property held by the taxpayer primarily for sale to customers in the ordinary course of the taxpayer's trade or business, or when the trade or business of the taxpayer does not consist principally of the holding of the stocks and the collection of the income and gains therefrom. The remaining 20 percent shall be allowed if the recipient owns 80 percent or more of all the voting stock of the other corporation and the dividends were paid from income arising out of business done in this state by the corporation paying the dividends. If the dividends were declared from income arising out of business done within and without this state, then a proportion of the remainder shall be allowed as a deduction. The proportion must be that which the amount of the taxable net income of the corporation paying the dividends assignable or allocable to this state bears to the entire net income of the corporation. The amounts must be determined by the returns under this chapter of the corporation paying the dividends for the taxable year preceding their distribution. The burden is on the taxpayer to show that the amount of remainder claimed as a deduction has been received from income arising out of business done in this state.

(b) If the trade or business of the taxpayer consists principally of the holding of the stocks and the collection of the income and gains therefrom, 80 percent of dividends received by a corporation during the taxable year from another corporation, if the recipient owns 80 percent or more of all the voting stock of the other corporation, from income arising out of business done in this state by the corporation paying the dividends. If the dividends were declared from income arising out of business done within and without this state, then a proportion of the dividends shall be allowed as a deduction. The proportion must be that which the amount of the taxable net income of the corporation paying the dividends assignable or allocable to this state bears to the entire net income of the corporation. The amounts must be determined by the returns under this chapter of the corporation paying the dividends for the taxable year preceding their distribution. The burden is on the taxpayer to show that the amount of dividends claimed as a deduction has been received from income arising out of business done in this state.

(c) The dividend deduction provided in this subdivision shall be allowed only with respect to dividends that are included in a corporation's Minnesota taxable net income for the taxable year.

The dividend deduction provided in this subdivision does not apply to a dividend from a corporation which, for the taxable year of the corporation in which the distribution is made or for the next preceding taxable year of the corporation, is a corporation exempt from tax under section 501 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended through December 31, 1986.

The dividend deduction provided in this subdivision applies to the amount of regulated investment company dividends only to the extent determined under section 854(b) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended through December 31, 1986.

The dividend deduction provided in this subdivision shall not be allowed with respect to any dividend for which a deduction is not allowed under the provisions of section 246(c) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended through December 31, 1986.

(d) If dividends received by a corporation that does not have nexus with Minnesota under the provisions of Public Law Number 86-272 are included as income on the return of an affiliated corporation permitted or required to file a combined report under section 290.34, subdivision 2, then for purposes of this subdivision the determination as to whether the trade or business of the corporation consists principally of the holding of stocks and the collection of income and gains therefrom shall be made with reference to the trade or business of the affiliated corporation having a nexus with Minnesota.

(e) The deduction provided by this subdivision does not apply if the dividends are paid by a FSC as defined in section 922 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended through December 31, 1986.

Sec. 25. Minnesota Statutes 1987 Supplement, section 290.35, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [APPORTIONMENT OF TAXABLE NET INCOME.] The commissioner shall compute therefrom the taxable net income of such companies by assigning to this state that proportion thereof which the gross premiums collected by them during the taxable year from old and new business within this state bears to the total gross premiums collected by them during that year from their entire old and new business, including reinsurance premiums; provided, the commissioner shall add to the taxable net income so apportioned to this state the amount of any taxes on premiums paid by the company by virtue of any law of this state (other than the surcharge on premiums imposed by sections 69.54 to 69.56) which shall have been deducted from gross income by the company in arriving at its total net income under the provisions of such act of congress.

(a) For purposes of determining the Minnesota apportionment percentage, premiums from reinsurance contracts assumed from companies domiciled in Minnesota and premiums in connection with property in or liability arising out of activity in, or in connection with the lives or health of Minnesota residents shall be assigned to Minnesota and premiums from reinsurance contracts assumed from companies domiciled outside of Minnesota and premiums in connection with property in or liability arising out of activity in, or in connection with the lives or health of non-Minnesota residents shall be assigned outside of Minnesota. Reinsurance premiums are presumed to be received for a Minnesota risk and are assigned to Minnesota, if:

(1) the reinsurance contract is assumed for a company domiciled in Minnesota; and

(2) the taxpayer, upon request of the commissioner, fails to provide reliable records indicating the reinsured contract covered non-Minnesota risks.

For purposes of this paragraph, "Minnesota risk" means coverage in connection with property in or liability arising out of activity in Minnesota, or in connection with the lives or health of Minnesota residents.

(b) The apportionment method prescribed by paragraph (a) shall be presumed to fairly and correctly determine the taxpayer's taxable net income. If the method prescribed in paragraph (a) does not fairly reflect all or any part of taxable net income, the taxpayer may petition for or the commissioner may require the determination of taxable net income by use of another method if that method fairly reflects taxable net income. A petition within the meaning of this section must be filed by the taxpayer on such form as the commissioner shall require.

Sec. 26. Minnesota Statutes 1987 Supplement, section 290.371, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

(1) activity levels lower than those set forth in section 290.015, subdivision 2, paragraph (a), clause (2); or

(2) activities described in section 290.015, subdivision 3, paragraph (b); or

(3) corporations specifically exempted under subdivision 2 of this section must file a notice of business activities report, as provided in this section. Filing of the report is not a factor in determining whether a corporation is subject to taxation under this chapter.

Sec. 27. Minnesota Statutes 1987 Supplement, section 290.371, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [EXEMPTIONS.] A corporation is not required to file a notice of business activities report if:

(2) a timely return or report has been filed under section 290.05, subdivision 4; or 290.37; or

(3) the corporation is exempt from taxation under this chapter pursuant to section 290.05, subdivision 1; or

(4) the corporation's activities in Minnesota, or the interests in property which it owns, consist solely of activities or property exempted from jurisdiction to tax under section 290.015, subdivision 3, paragraph (b).

Sec. 28. Minnesota Statutes 1987 Supplement, section 290.371, subdivision 4, is amended to read:

Subd. 4. [ANNUAL FILING.] Every corporation not exempt under subdivision 3 must file annually a notice of business activities report, including such forms as the commissioner may require, with respect to ~~all or any part of~~ each of its calendar or fiscal accounting years beginning after December 31, 1986, on or before the 15th day of the fourth month after the close of the calendar or fiscal accounting year.

Sec. 29. Minnesota Statutes 1987 Supplement, section 290.371, subdivision 5, is amended to read:

Subd. 5. [FAILURE TO FILE TIMELY REPORT.] (a) Any corporation required to file a notice of business activities report does not have any cause of action upon which it may bring suit under Minnesota law unless the corporation has filed a notice of business activities report.

(b) The failure of a corporation to file a timely report prevents the use of the courts in this state, except regarding activities described in subdivision 3, clause (4), for all contracts executed and all causes of action that arose at any time before the end of the last accounting period for which the corporation failed to file a required report.

(c) The court in which the issues arise has the power to excuse the corporation for its failure to file a report when due, and restore the corporation's cause of action under the laws of this state, if the corporation has paid all taxes, interest, and civil penalties due the state for all periods, or provided for payment of them by adequate security or bond approved by the commissioner.

(d) Notwithstanding the provisions of section 290.61, the commissioner may acknowledge whether or not a particular corporation has filed with the commissioner reports or returns required by this chapter if the acknowledgment:

(1) is to a party in a civil action;

(2) relates to the filing status of another party in the same civil action; and

(3) is in response to a written request accompanied by a copy of the summons and complaint in the civil action.

Sec. 30. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 290.50, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

extended time, and the refund or credit is limited to the amount of overpayment arising from the carryback.

Subd. 3. [CARRYOVER.] (a) A net operating loss for any taxable year shall be a net operating loss carryover to each of the 15 taxable years following the taxable year of such loss.

The portion of such loss which shall be carried to each of the other taxable years shall be the excess, if any, of the amount of such loss over the sum of the taxable net income, adjusted by the modifications specified in subdivision 4, for each of the taxable years to which such loss may be carried.

(c) Where a corporation does business both within and without Minnesota, and apports its income under the provisions of section 290.191, the net operating loss deduction shall be allowed to the extent of the apportionment ratio of the loss year.

(d) No additional net operating loss deduction is allowed in a subsequent taxable year for the portion of a net operating loss deduction used to offset Minnesota income in a year in which the taxpayer is subject to the alternative minimum tax in section 290.092.

(e) The provisions of sections 381, 382, and 384 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended through December 31, 1987, apply to carryovers in certain corporate acquisitions and special limitations on net operating loss carryovers.

Sec. 5. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 290.931, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [REQUIREMENTS OF DECLARATION.] Every corporation subject to taxation under this chapter (excluding section 290.92) shall make a declaration of estimated tax for the taxable year if its tax liability so computed can reasonably be expected to exceed ~~$1,000~~ $500, or in accordance with rules prescribed by the commissioner for an affiliated group of corporations electing to file one return as permitted by rules prescribed under section 290.37, subdivision 1.

Sec. 6. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 290.934, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [ADDITION TO THE TAX.] In case of any underpayment of estimated tax by a corporation, ~~except as provided in subdivision 4,~~ there shall be added to the tax for the taxable year an amount determined at the rate specified in section 270.75 upon the amount of the underpayment (determined under subdivision 2) for the period of the underpayment (determined under subdivision 3).

Sec. 7. Minnesota Statutes 1987 Supplement, section 290.934, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [AMOUNT OF UNDERPAYMENT.] For purposes of subdivision 1, the amount of the underpayment shall be the excess of

(1) ~~the amount of tax shown on the return for the tax year or, if no return is filed, the tax for the tax year~~ required installment, over

(2) the amount, if any, of the installment paid on or before the last date prescribed for payment.

Sec. 8. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 290.934, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [PERIOD OF UNDERPAYMENT.] The period of the underpayment shall run from the date the installment was required to be paid to whichever of the following dates is the earlier

(1) The 15th day of the third month following the close of the taxable year.

(2) With respect to any portion of the underpayment, the date on which such portion is paid. For purposes of this paragraph, a payment of estimated tax on any installment date shall be considered a payment of any previous underpayment only to the extent such payment exceeds the amount of the installment determined under subdivision 2(1) for such installment date credited against unpaid required installments in the order in which such installments are required to be paid.

Sec. 9. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 290.934, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 3a. [REQUIRED INSTALLMENTS.] (1) Except as otherwise provided in this subdivision, the amount of a required installment is 25 percent of the required annual payment.

(2) Except as otherwise provided in this subdivision, the term "required annual payment" means the lesser of:

(a) 90 percent of the tax shown on the return for the taxable year, or if no return is filed 90 percent of the tax for such year; or

(b) 100 percent of the tax shown on the return of the corporation for the preceding taxable year providing such return was for a full 12-month period, did show a liability, and was filed by the corporation.

(3) Except for determining the first required installment for any taxable year, paragraph (2), clause (b) does not apply in the case of a large corporation. The term "large corporation" means a corporation or any predecessor corporation that had taxable net income of $1,000,000 or more for any taxable year during the testing period. The term "testing period" means the three taxable years immediately preceding the taxable year involved. A reduction allowed to a large corporation for the first installment that is allowed by applying paragraph (2), clause (b) must be recaptured by increasing the next required installment by the amount of the reduction.

(4) In the case of a required installment, if the corporation establishes that the annualized income installment is less than the amount determined in paragraph (1), the amount of the required installment is the annualized income installment and the recapture of previous quarters' reductions allowed by this paragraph must be recovered by increasing subsequent required installments to the extent the reductions have not previously been recovered. A reduction shall be treated as recaptured for purposes of this paragraph if 90 percent of the reduction is recaptured.

(5) The "annualized income installment" is the excess, if any, of:

(a) an amount equal to the applicable percentage of the tax for the taxable year computed by placing on an annualized basis the taxable income:

(i) for the first two months of the taxable year, in the case of the first required installment;

(ii) for the first two months or for the first five months of the taxable year, in the case of the second required installment;

(iii) for the first six months or for the first eight months of the taxable year, in the case of the third required installment; and

(iv) for the first nine months or for the first 11 months of the taxable year, in the case of the fourth required installment, over;

(b) the aggregate amount of any prior required installments for the taxable year.

(c) For the purpose of this paragraph, the annualized income shall be computed by placing on an annualized basis the taxable income for the year up to the end of the month preceding the due date for the quarterly payment multiplied by 12 and dividing the resulting amount by the number of months in the taxable year (2, 5, 6, 8, 9, or 11 as the case may be) referred to in clause (a).

(d) The "applicable percentage" used in clause (a) is:

In the case of the following required installments:	The applicable percentage is:
1st	22.5
2nd	45
3rd	67.5
4th	90

(6)(a) If this paragraph applies, the amount determined for any installment must be determined in the following manner:

(i) take the taxable income for all months during the taxable year preceding the filing month;

(ii) divide that amount by the base period percentage for all months during the taxable year preceding the filing month;

(iii) determine the tax on the amount determined under item (ii); and

(iv) multiply the tax computed under item (iii) by the base period percentage for the filing month and all months during the taxable year preceding the filing month.

(b) For purposes of this paragraph:

(i) the "base period percentage" for any period of months is the average percent which the taxable income for the corresponding months in each of the three preceding taxable years bears to the taxable income for the three preceding taxable years;

(ii) the term "filing month" means the month in which the installment is required to be paid;

(iii) this paragraph shall only apply if the base period percentage for any six consecutive months of the taxable year equals or exceeds 70 percent; and

(iv) the commissioner may provide by rule for the determination of the base period percentage in the case of reorganizations, new corporations, and other similar circumstances.

(c) In the case of a required installment, determined under this paragraph, if the corporation determines that the installment is less than the amount determined in paragraph (1), the amount of the required installment is the amount determined under this paragraph and the recapture of previous quarters' reductions allowed by this paragraph must be recovered by increasing subsequent required installments to the extent the reductions have not previously been recovered. A reduction shall be treated as recaptured for purposes of this paragraph if 90 percent of the reduction is recaptured.

Sec. 2. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 290A.03, subdivision 7, is amended to read:

Subd. 7. [DEPENDENT.] "Dependent" means any person who is under 18 years of age at the end of the calendar year who receives more than 50 percent of support from the claimant, or who is between 18 and 21 years of age and is a full time student who receives more than 50 percent of support from the claimant considered a dependent under sections 151 and 152 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended through December 31, 1987. "Dependent" includes a parent of the claimant or spouse who lives in the claimant's homestead. No apportionment or reduction of the "property taxes payable" shall be required for the use of a portion of the claimant's homestead for a business purpose if the claimant does not deduct any business depreciation expenses for the use of a portion of the homestead in the determination of federal adjusted gross income. For homesteads which are manufactured homes as defined in section 274.19, subdivision 8, "property taxes payable" shall also include the amount of the gross rent paid in the preceding year for the site on which the homestead is located, which is attributable to the net tax paid on the site. The amount attributable to property taxes shall be determined by multiplying the net tax on the parcel by a fraction, the numerator of which is the gross rent paid for the calendar year for the site and the denominator of which is the gross rent paid for the calendar year for the parcel. When a homestead is owned by two or more persons as joint tenants or tenants in common, such tenants shall determine between them which tenant may claim the property taxes payable on the homestead. If they are unable to agree, the matter shall be referred to the commissioner of revenue whose decision shall be final. Property taxes are considered payable in the year prescribed by law for payment of the taxes.

If a portion of the property is occupied as a homestead or is used for other than rental purposes, the net tax shall be the amount of tax reduced by the percentage that the nonrental use comprises of the total square footage of the building. If a portion of the property is used for purposes other than for residential rental and none of the property is occupied as a homestead, the net tax shall be the amount of the tax of the parcel multiplied by a fraction, the numerator of which is the assessed value of the residential rental portion and the denominator of which is the total assessed value of the parcel. If a portion of the property is used for other than rental residential purposes, the county treasurer shall list on the property tax statement the amount of net tax pertaining to the rental residential portion of the property.

The amount of the net tax shall not be reduced by an abatement or a court ordered reduction in the property tax on the property made after the certificate of rent constituting property tax has been provided to the renter.

The limitation in this subdivision does not apply to buildings containing fewer than four residential units or to a single rented or leased dwelling unit located within or attached to a private garage or similar structure owned by the owner of a homestead and located on the premises of that homestead.

If the assessor has classified a property as both homestead and nonhomestead, the homestead credit under sections 273.1323 and 273.1324, and the reductions in tax provided under sections 273.135 and 273.1391 apply to the value of both the homestead and the nonhomestead portions of the property.

Subd. 13. [SOCIAL SECURITY NUMBER REQUIRED FOR HOMESTEAD APPLICATION.] Beginning with the January 2, 1987, assessment, every property owner applying for homestead classification must furnish to the county assessor that owner's social security or taxpayer identification number. At the request of the commissioner, each county must give the commissioner a listing that includes the name and social security or taxpayer identification number of each property owner applying for homestead classification.

If, in comparing the lists supplied by the counties, the commissioner finds that a property owner is claiming more than one homestead, the commissioner shall notify the appropriate counties. Within 90 days of the notification, the county assessor shall investigate to determine if the homestead classification was properly claimed. If the property owner does not qualify, the county assessor shall notify the county auditor who will determine the amount of homestead benefits that had been improperly allowed. For the purpose of this section, "homestead benefits" means the ~~tax reduction resulting from the homestead exemption amount provided under section 275.081 credit, taconite homestead credit, supplemental homestead credit, and the tax reduction resulting from the agricultural exemption amount provided in section 275.081 credit~~ which is in excess of the credit which would be allowed if the property had been classified as nonhomestead property. The county auditor shall send a notice to the owners of the affected property, demanding reimbursement of the homestead benefits plus a penalty equal to 25 percent of the homestead benefits. The property owners may appeal the county's determination by filing a notice of appeal with the Minnesota tax court within 60 days of the date of the notice from the county.

If the amount of homestead benefits and penalty is not paid within 60 days, and if no appeal has been filed, the county auditor shall certify the amount to the succeeding year's tax list to be collected as part of the property taxes.

Any amount of homestead benefits recovered from the property owner must be transmitted to the commissioner by the end of each calendar quarter. Any amount recovered attributable to taconite homestead credit shall be transmitted to the St. Louis county auditor to be deposited in the taconite property tax relief account. The amount of penalty collected must be deposited in the county general fund.

The commissioner will provide suggested homestead applications to each county. If a property owner has applied for more than one homestead and the county assessors cannot determine which property should be classified as homestead, the county assessors will refer the information to the commissioner. The commissioner shall make the determination and notify the counties within 60 days.

In addition to lists of homestead properties, the commissioner may ask the counties to furnish lists of all properties and the record owners.

Property is classified and assessed pursuant to this clause only if the commissioner of ~~human services~~ revenue certifies to the assessor that the owner of the property satisfies the requirements of this subdivision. ~~The commissioner of human services shall provide a copy of the certification to the commissioner of revenue.~~

The remaining value of class ~~4(d)(3)~~ 4e property in excess of $34,000 shall be valued and assessed under subdivision 22 or 23, as appropriate, provided that only the value in excess of $34,000 but not in excess of $68,000 is assessed at the rate provided for the first tier of value in subdivision 22 or only the value in excess of $34,000 but not in excess of $66,000 is assessed at the rate provided for the first tier of value in subdivision 23.

Class 4d 4e property is assessed at ~~30~~ 10 percent of market value.

Sec. 13. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 273.13, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 32. [VACANT LAND.] Real property that is not improved with a structure and that is not used as part of a commercial or industrial activity shall be classified and assessed according to its highest and best use permitted under the local zoning ordinance. If the ordinance permits more than one use, the land must be classified and assessed according to the highest and best use permitted under the ordinance. If no such ordinance exists, the assessor shall consider the most likely potential use of the vacant land based upon the use made of surrounding land or land in proximity to the vacant land.

Sec. 14. [273.132] [STATE AGRICULTURAL CREDIT.]

Subdivision 1. [AGRICULTURAL HOMESTEAD PROPERTY.] The county auditor shall reduce the tax on all property receiving the homestead credit under section 273.1324, by an amount equal to 36 percent of the tax levy imposed on up to 320 acres of land including the buildings and structures thereon but excluding all dwellings and an acre of land for each dwelling.

Subd. 2. [OTHER AGRICULTURAL PROPERTY.] The county auditor shall reduce the tax on all other agricultural lands classified under section 273.13, subdivision 23, including buildings and structures thereon but excluding all dwellings and an acre of land for each dwelling, and on timber land classified under section 273.13, subdivision 23, paragraph (b) by an amount equal to 26 percent of the tax levy imposed on the property. The tax on timber land classified under section 273.13, subdivision 23 shall be reduced by an amount equal to 26 percent of the tax levy imposed on the property.

Subd. 3. [SEASONAL RESIDENTIAL RECREATIONAL PROPERTY.] The tax on all real estate devoted to temporary and seasonal residential occupancy for recreational purposes, but not devoted to commercial purposes, shall be reduced by an amount equal to 15 percent of the tax imposed on the property. The amount of the reduction provided under this subdivision which any taxpayer can receive shall not exceed $100. In the case of property owned by more than one person, the maximum amount of the reduction shall apply to the total of all the owners.

Subd. 4. [ADMINISTRATION.] The amounts so computed by the county auditor shall be submitted to the commissioner of revenue as part of the abstracts of tax lists required to be filed with the commissioner under the provisions of section 275.29. Any prior year adjustments shall also be certified in the abstracts of tax lists. The commissioner of revenue shall review the certifications to determine their accuracy and may make changes in the certification as deemed necessary or return a certification to the county auditor for corrections. For purposes of computing the credit pursuant to this section, the "tax levy" shall be the tax levy reduced by the credits provided by sections 273.123, 273.42, subdivision 2, and 473H.10.

Subd. 5. [APPROPRIATION.] There is appropriated from the general fund in the state treasury to the commissioners of revenue and education the amounts necessary to make these payments in fiscal year 1990 and thereafter.

Sec. 15. [273.1321] [DEFINITIONS.]

For the purpose of sections 273.1322 to 273.1325, the following definitions are established:

(1) "commissioner" means the commissioner of revenue unless specified otherwise;

(2) "taxing jurisdiction" means a county, city, town, school district, or special taxing district; and

(3) "homestead credit base value" means the maximum homestead market value eligible to receive homestead credit. The homestead credit base market value shall be $80,000 for taxes payable in 1989 and subsequent years.

Sec. 16. [273.1322] [RESIDENTIAL HOMESTEAD CREDIT AID; APPROPRIATION LIMITATION.]

Subdivision 1. [BASE AMOUNT.] There shall be computed for each taxing jurisdiction in 1989 and subsequent years a residential homestead credit base amount determined under this section.

Subd. 2. [BASE DETERMINATION.] (a) The commissioner shall determine each jurisdiction's homestead credit base equal to the amount of homestead credit that would have been paid in 1988 to each taxing jurisdiction under Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 273.13, subdivision 15a, on residential homesteads if the homestead credit provided in Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 273.13, subdivision 22, had been 53 percent of the tax imposed on the first $80,000 of market value with no credit maximum.

(b) For taxes payable in 1989, the commissioner shall multiply the amount determined in paragraph (a) by a fraction, the numerator of which is the ratio of the total assessed value of the homestead credit base value of all residential homesteads in the taxing jurisdiction to the total assessed valuation of the taxing jurisdiction for taxes payable in 1988. The denominator of the fraction is the ratio of the total assessed value of the homestead credit base value of all residential homesteads in the taxing jurisdiction to the total assessed valuation of the taxing jurisdiction for taxes payable in 1987. In addition, the commissioner shall further multiply the amount by the ratio of the number of residential homesteads in the jurisdiction for taxes payable in 1988 to the number of residential homesteads in the jurisdiction for taxes payable in 1987.

(c) For taxes payable in 1990 and subsequent years, the commissioner shall multiply the amount determined under paragraph (b) for the previous year by a fraction, the numerator of which is the ratio of the total assessed value of the homestead credit base value for taxes payable the preceding year for all residential homesteads in the taxing jurisdiction to the total assessed valuation of the taxing jurisdiction. The denominator of the fraction is the ratio of the total assessed value of the homestead credit base value for all residential homesteads in the taxing jurisdiction to the total assessed valuation of the taxing jurisdiction for the year immediately preceding the preceding year. In addition, the commissioner shall further multiply the amount by the ratio of the number of residential homesteads in the jurisdiction for taxes payable in the preceding year to the number of residential homesteads in the jurisdiction for taxes payable in the year immediately preceding the preceding year.

Subd. 3. [LIMITATION.] For taxes payable in 1989, the total statewide homestead credit base amount shall not exceed $631,000,000. The commissioner shall make proportionally equal adjustments to the amounts determined for all taxing jurisdictions under subdivision 2 so that their sum does not exceed the limitation.

The commissioner shall certify the adjusted amounts to the county auditors on or before October 10, 1988.

Sec. 17. [273.1323] [RESIDENTIAL HOMESTEAD CREDIT.]

Subdivision 1. [CREDIT REDUCTION MILL RATE.] For taxes payable in 1989 and subsequent years, each county auditor shall divide the residential homestead credit aid certified under section 273.1322, subdivision 3 for a taxing jurisdiction by the total current year assessed value of the homestead credit base value for all residential homesteads in the taxing jurisdiction. The resultant mill rate is the residential homestead credit reduction mill rate for the taxing jurisdiction.

Subd. 2. [TAX REDUCTION.] For taxes payable in 1989 and subsequent years, the tax on the homestead credit base value shall be reduced by the product obtained by multiplying the taxing jurisdiction's homestead credit reduction mill rate by the assessed value of the homestead credit base value of the parcel.

Subd. 3. [PROPERTY TAX STATEMENT.] Each property tax statement mailed under section 276.04 to a taxpayer whose property tax is reduced under subdivision 2 must contain a statement of the amount of the reduction in dollars and must identify the reduction as "state paid homestead credit."

Sec. 18. [273.1324] [AGRICULTURAL HOMESTEAD CREDIT.]

Subdivision 1. [CREDIT.] For taxes payable in 1989 and subsequent years, the agricultural homestead gross tax, less any reductions received under section 273.132, shall be reduced by 53 percent. The amount of the agricultural homestead credit reduction must not exceed $700.

Subd. 2. [APPROPRIATION.] A sum sufficient to pay the agricultural homestead credit under subdivision 1 is annually appropriated from the general fund.

Sec. 19. [273.1325] [GENERAL FUND; REPLACEMENT OF REVENUE.]

(a) Payment from the general fund shall be made, as provided in this section, for the purpose of replacing revenue lost as a result of the reduction of property taxes provided in sections 273.1323 and 273.1324.

(b) Each county auditor shall certify, not later than April 1 of each year to the commissioner of revenue, the amount of reduction resulting from sections 273.1323 and 273.1324 in the auditor's county. The certification must be submitted to the commissioner of revenue as part of the abstracts of tax lists required to be filed with the commissioner under the provisions of section 275.29. Any prior year adjustments shall also be certified in the abstracts of tax lists. The commissioner of revenue shall review the certifications to determine their accuracy. The commissioner may make necessary changes in the certification or return a certification to the county auditor for corrections.

(c) Based on current year tax data reported in the abstract of tax lists, the commissioner of revenue shall annually determine the taxing district distribution of the amounts determined in section 273.1324 and certified under paragraph (b). The commissioner of revenue shall pay to each taxing district, other than school districts, its total homestead credit payment for the year determined under section 273.1322 and this paragraph in equal installments on or before July 20 and December 15 of each year. The commissioner of education shall make payments to each school district in accordance with section 124.195, based on the commissioner of revenue's certification.

Sec. 20. [273.1326] [ALTERNATIVE HOMESTEAD CREDIT.]

Subdivision 1. [QUALIFYING PROPERTY.] Effective for taxes levied in 1988 payable in 1989 and subsequent years, class 1 homestead property which has an equalized market value of $200,000 or greater shall not receive the homestead credit reduction under section 273.1323 but shall be eligible for an alternative homestead credit as provided in this section.

The commissioner of revenue shall determine the residential median sales ratio for each municipality using the methodology prescribed under section 124.2131. If the commissioner deems that there are an insufficient number of sales in the study to determine a valid residential sales ratio for a given municipality, that municipality's sales ratio for purposes of this section will be the median residential sales ratio for the county in which the municipality is located. The commissioner shall certify to the county assessor the appropriate sales ratios for each municipality for use in determining the equalized market value of the homestead property.

The county assessor shall provide a list to the county auditor of the homesteads in the county whose equalized market value is $200,000 or greater. The auditor shall notify the owner of each of these homes that the taxpayer may be eligible to receive an alternative homestead credit under this section. A copy of the alternative homestead credit form shall be included with the property's tax statement prescribed under section 276.04. No homestead credit shall be deducted from the gross tax of these homestead parcels.

The commissioner of revenue shall prescribe a form for the "alternative homestead credit" return and shall distribute sufficient copies to the counties. The form shall contain space for the taxpayer to include the taxpayer's household income as defined in section 290A.03, subdivision 5, and any other information which the commissioner deems necessary for use in making the determination. A copy of the current year's property tax statement for the homestead must be submitted to the commissioner with the alternative homestead credit return. Any claim for the alternative homestead credit shall be filed with the department of revenue by May 15 of the year in which the property taxes are due and payable. The filing time limit, late filing, and penalties provided in section 290A.06 apply to alternative homestead credit returns filed under this paragraph.

Subd. 2. [BIENNIAL STUDY OF RELATIONSHIP BETWEEN TAX BURDEN AND WEALTH.] Beginning in 1988 and every two years thereafter, the commissioner shall conduct a study describing the relationship between net property tax burden and wealth for all homeowners in the state. The relationship shall be expressed in terms of a simple regression equation, with net property tax burden as the dependent variable.

For purposes of this section, the following terms shall have these meanings:

(a) "net property tax burden" means the gross tax on homestead property, minus the homestead credit received under section 273.1323, minus any property tax refund received under chapter 290A, and minus the reduction in the taxpayer's federal and state income tax liability resulting from the deduction of the homestead's property tax in the computation of the taxpayer's taxable income.

(b) "wealth" means the sum of the equalized market value of the homestead divided by 2.5 and the taxpayer's household income as defined in section 290A.03, subdivision 5.

Subd. 3. [DETERMINATION OF ALTERNATIVE HOMESTEAD CREDIT.] For all eligible homeowners, an alternative homestead credit shall be computed according to the following formula:

Credit = Ci, when W is less than $180,000, and Credit = $C_i \times (1 - (((W - $180,000)/$100,000) \times (B_w/B)))$, where the symbols have the following meanings:

(a) "C_i" means the full amount of homestead credit that the homestead would have qualified to receive for that year if the homestead had been allowed to receive homestead credit under section 273.1323.

(b) "W" means the total wealth of the homestead, defined as the sum of the equalized market value of the homestead divided by 2.5, plus the taxpayer's household income for the year in which the property tax is levied.

(c) "B_w" means the average tax burden for a homestead with total wealth equal to the homestead's wealth, determined according to the relationship determined in subdivision 2.

(d) "B" means the net property tax burden for the homestead, which is defined as the gross property tax, minus the commissioner's estimate of the reduction in the taxpayer's federal and state income taxes resulting from the deduction for property taxes on the homestead, minus the amount of homestead credit received in the previous year under section 273.13, minus the amount of any property tax refund received in the previous year under chapter 290A.

Subd. 4. [PAYMENT.] Based on the commissioner's determination in subdivision 3, if the taxpayer qualifies for an alternative homestead credit under this section, the taxpayer shall receive full payment of the amount of the alternative homestead credit after July 1 but prior to July 15 or 60 days after receipt of the application, whichever is later.

Subd. 5. [APPROPRIATION.] There is appropriated from the general fund in the state treasury to the department of revenue the amount necessary to make these payments in fiscal year 1990 and thereafter.

Sec. 21. Minnesota Statutes 1987 Supplement, section 273.135, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

273.135 [HOMESTEAD PROPERTY TAX RELIEF.]

Subd. 2. The amount of the reduction authorized by subdivision 1 shall be

(a) In the case of property located within the boundaries of a municipality which meets the qualifications prescribed in section 273.134, 66 percent of the net tax, provided that the reduction shall not exceed the maximum amounts specified in clause (c).

(b) In the case of property located within the boundaries of a school district which qualifies as a tax relief area but which is outside the boundaries of a municipality which meets the qualifications prescribed in section 273.134, 57 percent of the net tax, provided that the reduction shall not exceed the maximum amounts specified in clause (c).

(c) The total maximum reduction of the net tax on property described in clause (a) is ~~$490~~ $253 for taxes payable in ~~1985~~ 1989. The total maximum reduction for the net tax on property described in clause (b) is ~~$435~~ $228 for taxes payable in ~~1985~~ 1989. These maximum amounts shall increase by ~~$15~~ $7.50 per year for taxes payable in ~~1986~~ 1990 and thereafter.

For the purposes of this subdivision, "net tax" means the tax on the property before application of the credit payable under this section after deduction of any credit under sections 273.1323 and 273.1324.

Sec. 22. Minnesota Statutes 1987 Supplement, section 273.1391, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. The amount of the reduction authorized by subdivision 1 shall be:

(a) In the case of property located within a school district which does not meet the qualifications of section 273.134 as a tax relief area, but which is located in a county with a population of less than 100,000 in which taconite is mined or quarried and wherein a school district is located which does meet the qualifications of a tax relief area, and provided that at least 90 percent of the area of the school district which does not meet the qualifications of section 273.134 lies within such county, 57 percent of the net tax, provided that the amount of said reduction shall not exceed the maximum amounts specified in clause (c). The reduction provided by this clause shall only be applicable to property located within the boundaries of the county described therein.

(b) In the case of property located within a school district which does not meet the qualifications of section 273.134 as a tax relief area, but which is located in a school district in a county containing a city of the first class and a qualifying municipality, but not in a school district containing a city of the first class or adjacent to a school district containing a city of the first class unless the school district so adjacent contains a qualifying municipality, 57 percent of the net tax, but not to exceed the maximums specified in clause (c).

(c) The total maximum reduction of the net tax is ~~$435~~ $228 for taxes payable in ~~1985~~ 1989. This total maximum amount shall increase by ~~$15~~ $7.50 per year for taxes payable in ~~1986~~ 1990 and thereafter.

For the purposes of this subdivision, "net tax" means the tax on the property ~~before application of the credit under this section after deduction of any credit under sections 273.1323, and 273.1324.~~

Sec. 23. Minnesota Statutes 1987 Supplement, section 273.1392, is amended to read:

273.1392 [PAYMENT; AIDS TO SCHOOL DISTRICTS.]

The amounts of ~~small business transition homestead credit under section 273.1195~~ sections 273.1322 and 273.1324; disaster or emergency reimbursement under section 273.123; attached machinery aid under section 273.138; ~~homestead credit replacement aid under section 273.1394~~; agricultural credit replacement aid under section ~~273.1395~~ 273.132; commercial-industrial and apartment tax relief credit under section 273.1196; and metropolitan agricultural preserve reduction under section 473H.10, shall be certified to the department of education by the department of revenue. The amounts so certified shall be paid according to section 124.195, subdivisions 6 and 10.

Sec. 24. Minnesota Statutes 1987 Supplement, section 273.1393, is amended to read:

273.1393 [COMPUTATION OF NET PROPERTY TAXES.]

Notwithstanding any other provisions to the contrary, "net" property taxes are determined by subtracting the credits in the order listed from the gross tax:

(1) ~~small business property tax transition credit as provided in section 273.1195~~; commercial-industrial and apartment tax relief credit as provided in section 273.1196;

(2) disaster credit as provided in section 273.123;

(3) powerline credit as provided in section 273.42;

(4) agricultural preserves credit as provided in section 473H.10;

(5) enterprise zone credit as provided in section 469.171;

(6) agricultural credit as provided in section 273.132;

~~(6) (7) state paid homestead credit as provided in section 273.13, subdivision 23~~ sections 273.1323 and 273.1324;

~~(7) (8) taconite homestead credit as provided in section 273.135~~;

(8) (9) supplemental homestead credit as provided in section 273.1391.

The combination of all property tax credits must not exceed the gross tax amount.

Sec. 25. Minnesota Statutes 1987 Supplement, section 273.165, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [IRON ORE.] Unmined iron ore included in class 5 must be assessed with and as a part of the real estate in which it is located, but at the rate established in section 273.13, subdivision 30. The real estate in which iron ore is located, other than the ore, must be classified and assessed in accordance with the provisions of the appropriate classes. In assessing any tract or lot of real estate in which iron ore is known to exist, the assessable value of the ore exclusive of the land in which it is located, and the assessable value of the land exclusive of the ore must be determined and set down separately and the aggregate of the two must be assessed against the tract or lot.

Sec. 26. Minnesota Statutes 1987 Supplement, section 273.42, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. Owners of land that is an agricultural or nonagricultural homestead, nonhomestead agricultural land, rental residential property, and both commercial and noncommercial seasonal residential recreational property, as those terms are defined in section 273.13 listed on records of the county auditor or county treasurer over which runs a high voltage transmission line as defined in section 116C.52, subdivision 3, except a high voltage transmission line the construction of which was commenced prior to July 1, 1974, shall receive a property tax credit in an amount determined by multiplying a fraction, the numerator of which is the length of high voltage transmission line which runs over that parcel and the denominator of which is the total length of that particular line running over all property within the city or township by ten percent of the transmission line tax revenue derived from the tax on that portion of the line within the city or township pursuant to section 273.36. In the case of property owners in unorganized townships, the property tax credit shall be determined by multiplying a fraction, the numerator of which is the length of the qualifying high voltage transmission line which runs over the parcel and the denominator of which is the total length of the qualifying high voltage transmission line running over all property within all the unorganized townships within the county, by the total utility property tax credit fund amount available within the county for that year pursuant to subdivision 1. Where a right-of-way width is shared by more than one property owner, the numerator shall be adjusted by multiplying the length of line on the parcel by the proportion of the total width on the parcel owned by that property owner. The amount of credit for which the property qualifies shall not exceed 20 percent of the total gross tax on the parcel prior to deduction of the state paid agricultural credit and the state paid homestead credit, provided that, if the property containing the right-of-way is included in a parcel which exceeds 40 acres, the total gross tax on the parcel shall be multiplied by a fraction, the numerator of which is the sum of the number of acres in each quarter-quarter section or portion thereof which contains a right-of-way and the denominator of which is the total number of acres in the parcel set forth on the tax statement, and the maximum credit shall be 20 percent of the product of that computation, prior to deduction of those credits. The auditor of the county in which the affected parcel is located shall calculate the amount of the credit due for each parcel and transmit that information to the county treasurer. The county auditor, in computing the ~~credit~~ credits received pursuant to section ~~under sections 273.13 and 273.135~~, shall reduce the gross tax by the amount of the credit received pursuant to this section, unless the amount of the credit would be less than $10.

If, after the county auditor has computed the credit to those qualifying property owners in unorganized townships, there is money remaining in the utility property tax credit fund, then that excess amount in the fund shall be returned to the general school fund of the county.

Sec. 27. [275.065] [LEVY ADOPTION PROCEDURE; NOTICE TO TAXPAYERS.]

Subdivision 1. [PROPOSED LEVY.] On or before August 1, a home rule charter or statutory city shall adopt a proposed city budget and certify to the county auditor the proposed city property tax levy for taxes payable in the following year.

Subd. 2. [MILL RATE COMPUTATION.] (a) The county auditor shall compute a city mill rate that when applied to the taxable assessed value on January 2 of the current year of taxable property within the city, excluding new construction, additions to structures, or property added to or deleted from the assessment rolls since the previous year's assessment, will provide the city the same ad valorem tax levy as the city levied the previous year. This mill rate is the "no-increase mill rate."

(b) The county auditor shall compute a mill rate that when applied to the taxable assessed value on January 2 of the current year of all taxable property within the city, including new construction, additions to structures, or property added to or deleted from the assessment rolls since the previous year's assessment, will provide the proposed city ad valorem tax levy for taxes levied in the current year. This mill rate is the "proposed mill rate."

(c) The county auditor shall notify the city of its no-increase mill rate and its proposed mill rate on or before August 8. The city may amend its proposed levy but must certify to the county auditor by August 15 its final proposed levy and the date the city will hold a public hearing to adopt its budget and property tax levy.

(d) The county auditor shall recompute the city's proposed mill rate to reflect any adjustments made by the city under paragraph (c), and notify the city of the proposed mill rate and the percent, if any, by which the recomputed proposed mill rate exceeds the no-increase mill rate. That percent is the percentage increase in property taxes proposed by the city.

Subd. 3. [NOTICE OF PROPOSED PROPERTY TAXES.] (a) If there is a percentage increase in property taxes proposed by the city, on or before September 15, the county auditor shall compute for each parcel of property on the assessment rolls the proposed city property tax for taxes levied in the current year. The tax shall be computed before the application of any property tax aids or credits. The county auditor shall prepare and deliver by first class mail to each taxpayer at the address listed on the city's current year's assessment roll, a notice of the taxpayer's proposed city property taxes.

(b) The commissioner of revenue shall prescribe the form of the notice.

The notice must contain:

(1) A heading that states:

"NOTICE OF PROPOSED CITY PROPERTY TAXES

DO NOT PAY - THIS IS NOT A BILL";

(2) The name of the city and the date the city will hold a public hearing to adopt its budget and property tax levy;

(3) A statement that the purpose of the hearing is to receive opinions from the public and answer questions on the proposed budget and tax levy before adopting them, and that the city may change its proposed budget and tax levy at the hearing;

(4) In columnar form, the following information applicable to each parcel of property: the name of the city, the city mill rate and city property tax payable on the property for taxes payable in the current year before the application of any aids or credits, the proposed city mill rate and proposed city property tax payable on the property for taxes payable in the following year before the application of any aids or credits, the no-increase mill rate and the city tax that would be payable on the property before application of any aids or credits if the no-increase mill rate is applied;

(5) An explanation of each of the columns. The explanation of the proposed tax must include a statement that the amount is based on a proposed budget which is not final and may be amended at the public hearing. The explanation must state that the application of the no-increase mill rate is applied to the current year's assessed value, and that the difference between the proposed tax and the no-increase tax is the result of a proposed levy change by the city and not the result of higher assessed values;

(6) The person and address to which written comments may be submitted if the taxpayer cannot attend the hearing; and

(7) A clear statement that the tax is proposed for taxes payable in the following year, that the tax is only the tax levied by the city, and that school districts, counties, and special taxing jurisdictions also levy property taxes.

(c) The city shall pay the county for the reasonable cost of the county auditor's services and for the costs of preparing and mailing the notice required in this section.

Subd. 4. [PUBLIC ADVERTISEMENT.] (a) On or before September 15, the city shall advertise in a qualified newspaper a notice of its intent to adopt a budget and property tax levy at a public hearing.

The advertisement must be no less than one-quarter page in size of a standard-size or a tabloid-size newspaper, and the headline in the advertisement shall be in a type no smaller than 18 point. The advertisement must not be placed in the part of the newspaper where legal notices and classified advertisements appear. The advertisement must be published in a newspaper of general paid circulation in the city. (b) In the event of a vacancy in the office of county assessor, through death, resignation or other reasons, the deputy (or chief deputy, if more than one) shall perform the functions of the office. If there is no deputy, the county auditor shall designate a person to perform the duties of the office until an appointment is made as provided in clause (a). Such person shall perform the duties of the office for a period not exceeding 30 days during which the county board must appoint a county assessor. Such 30-day period may, however, be extended by written approval of the commissioner of revenue.

(c) In the case of the first appointment under paragraph (a) of a county assessor who does not have senior accreditation, an approval of the appointment by the commissioner shall be for a term of one year. A county assessor appointed to a one-year term under this paragraph must reapply to the commissioner at the end of the one-year term. The commissioner shall not approve the appointment for the remainder of the four-year term unless the assessor has obtained senior accreditation.

Sec. 7. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 273.112, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. Real estate shall be entitled to valuation and tax deferral under this section only if it is:

(a) actively and exclusively devoted to golf, skiing or archery or firearms range recreational use or uses and other recreational uses carried on at the establishment;

(b) five acres in size or more, except in the case of an archery or firearms range;

(c)(1) operated by private individuals and open to the public; or

(2) operated by firms or corporations for the benefit of employees or guests; or

(3) operated by private clubs having a membership of 50 or more, provided that the club does not discriminate in membership requirements or selection on the basis of sex; and

(d) made available, in the case of real estate devoted to golf, for use without discrimination on the basis of sex during the time when the facility is open to use by the public or by members, except that use for golf may be restricted on the basis of sex no more frequently than one, or part of one, weekend each calendar month for each sex and no more than two, or part of two, weekdays each week for each sex.

If a golf club membership allows use of golf course facilities by more than one adult per membership, the use must be equally available to all adults entitled to use of the golf course under the membership, except that use may be restricted on the basis of sex as permitted in this section. Memberships that permit play during restricted times may be allowed only if the restricted times apply to all adults using the membership.

A golf club may have or create an individual membership category which entitles a member for a reduced rate to play during restricted hours as established by the club. The club must have on record a written request by the member for such membership.

For purposes of this subdivision and subdivision 7a, discrimination means a pattern or course of conduct and not linked to an isolated incident.

Sec. 8. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 273.112, subdivision 6, is amended to read:

Subd. 6. Application for deferment of taxes and assessment under this section shall be made at least 60 days prior to January 2 of each year. Such application shall be filed with the assessor of the taxing district in which the real property is located on such form as may be prescribed by the commissioner of revenue. The assessor may require proof by affidavit or other written verification that the property qualifies under subdivision 3. In the case of property operated by private clubs pursuant to subdivision 3, clause (c)(3), in order to qualify for valuation and tax deferment under this section, the taxpayer must submit to the assessor proof by affidavit or other written verification that the bylaws or rules and regulations of the club meet the eligibility requirements provided under this section. The signed affidavit or other written verification shall be sufficient demonstration of eligibility for the assessor unless the county attorney determines otherwise.

The county assessor shall refer any question regarding the eligibility for valuation and deferment under this section to the county attorney for advice and opinion under section 388.051, subdivision 1. Upon request of the county attorney, the taxpayer shall furnish information that the county attorney considers necessary in order to determine eligibility under this section.

Real estate is not entitled to valuation and deferment under this section unless the county assessor has filed with the assessor's tax records prior to October 16 a statement that the application has been accepted.

Sec. 9. Minnesota Statutes 1987 Supplement, section 273.1195, is amended to read:

273.1195 [STATE PAID SMALL BUSINESS PROPERTY TAX TRANSITION CREDIT.]

For property taxes payable in 1988 only, class 3a commercial industrial property is eligible for a state paid small business transition property tax credit if the payable 1988 property taxes on the first $120,000 of market value of the property exceed three percent of the January 2, 1987, market value. The credit is equal to 50 percent of the property tax amount which is in excess of three percent of market value. Only the first $120,000 of market value of a qualifying parcel and the taxes attributable to the first $120,000 of market value are eligible for the computation of this credit. Only a parcel that qualifies for the 28 percent assessment ratio contained in section 273.13, subdivision 24, paragraph (a), qualifies for the credit provided in this section. Only the market value and property tax attributable to the part of the parcel that is class 3a must be used in computing the credit provided in this section.

~~In the case of taxes paid in installments pursuant to section 279.01, subdivision 1, the credit under this section must be deducted from the second one-half installment payable October 15. The amount of the reduction must be reported to the commissioner of revenue as part of the abstracts of tax lists required to be filed with the commissioner under section 275.29.~~

There is annually appropriated from the general fund to the commissioners of revenue and education the amount necessary to replace the revenue lost to local units of government and school districts as a result of the reduction in property taxes provided in this section. The payment amounts must be determined and the installments paid under the provisions of sections 273.13, subdivision 15a, and 273.1392.

Sec. 10. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 273.121, is amended to read:

273.121 [VALUATION OF REAL PROPERTY, NOTICE.]

Any county assessor or city assessor having the powers of a county assessor, valuing or classifying taxable real property shall in each year notify those persons whose property is to be assessed or reclassified that year if the person's address is known to the assessor, otherwise the occupant of the property. ~~In the case of property owned by a married couple in joint tenancy or tenancy in common, the assessor shall not deny homestead treatment in whole or in part if only one of the spouses is occupying the property and the other spouse is absent due to divorce or separation, or is a resident of a nursing home or a boarding care facility.~~ The notice shall be in writing and shall be sent by ordinary mail at least ten days before the meeting of the local board of review or equalization. It shall contain the amount of the valuation in terms of market value, the new classification, the assessor's office address, and the dates, places, and times set for the meetings of the local board of review or equalization and the county board of equalization. If the assessment roll is not complete, the notice shall be sent by ordinary mail at least ten days prior to the date on which the board of review has adjourned. The assessor shall attach to the assessment roll a statement that the notices required by this section have been mailed. Any assessor who is not provided sufficient funds from the assessor's governing body to provide such notices, may make application to the commissioner of revenue to finance such notices. The commissioner of revenue shall conduct an investigation and, if satisfied that the assessor does not have the necessary funds, issue a certification to the commissioner of finance of the amount necessary to provide such notices. The commissioner of finance shall issue a warrant for such amount and shall deduct such amount from any state payment to such county or municipality. The necessary funds to make such payments are hereby appropriated. Failure to receive the notice shall in no way affect the validity of the assessment, the resulting tax, the procedures of any board of review or equalization, or the enforcement of delinquent taxes by statutory means.

Sec. 11. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 273.124, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [GENERAL RULE.] Residential real estate that is occupied and used for the purposes of a homestead by its owner, who must be a Minnesota resident, is a homestead. Dates for establishment of a homestead and homestead treatment provided to particular types of property are as provided in this section.

The assessor shall require proof, by affidavit or otherwise, of the facts upon which classification as a homestead may be determined.

For purposes of this section, homestead property shall include property which is used for purposes of the homestead but is separated from the homestead by a road, street, lot, waterway, or other similar intervening property. The term "used for purposes of the homestead" shall include but not be limited to uses for gardens, garages, or other outbuildings commonly associated with a homestead, but shall not include vacant land held primarily for future development. In order to receive homestead treatment for the noncontiguous property, the owner shall apply for it to the assessor by July 1 of the year when the treatment is initially sought. After initial qualification for the homestead treatment, additional applications for subsequent years are not required.

In the case of property owned by a married couple in joint tenancy or tenancy in common, the assessor must not deny homestead treatment in whole or in part if only one of the spouses is occupying the property and the other spouse is absent due to divorce or separation, or is a resident of a nursing home or a boarding care facility.

If an individual is purchasing property with the intent of claiming it as a homestead, and is required by the terms of the financing agreement to have one or both parents shown on the deed as coowners, the assessor shall allow a full homestead classification and extend full homestead credit. This provision only applies to first time purchasers, whether married or single, or to a person who had previously been married and is purchasing as a single individual for the first time. The application for homestead benefits must be on a form prescribed by the commissioner and must contain the data necessary for the assessor to determine if full homestead benefits are warranted.

Sec. 12. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 273.124, subdivision 6, is amended to read:

Subd. 6. [LEASEHOLD COOPERATIVES.] When one or more dwellings or one or more buildings which each contain several dwelling units is owned by a nonprofit corporation subject to the provisions of chapter 317 or a limited partnership which corporation or partnership operates the property in conjunction with a cooperative association, homestead treatment may be claimed by the cooperative association on behalf of the members of the cooperative for each dwelling unit occupied by a member of the cooperative. The cooperative association must provide the assessor with the social security numbers of those members. To qualify for the treatment provided by this subdivision, the following conditions must be met: (a) the cooperative association must be organized under sections 308.05 to 308.18; (b) the cooperative association must have a lease for occupancy of the property for a term of at least 20 years; (c) to the extent permitted under state or federal law, the cooperative association must have a right under a written agreement with the owner to purchase the property if the owner proposes to sell it; if the cooperative association does not purchase the property when it is offered for sale, the owner may not subsequently sell the property to another purchaser at a price lower than the price at which it was offered for sale to the cooperative association unless the cooperative association approves the sale; and (d) if a limited partnership owns the property, it must include as the managing general partner either the cooperative association or a nonprofit organization operating under the provisions of chapter 317. Homestead treatment must be afforded to units occupied by members of the cooperative association and the units must be assessed as provided in subdivision 3, provided that any unit not so occupied shall be classified and assessed pursuant to the appropriate class. No more than three acres of land may, for assessment purposes, be included with each dwelling unit that qualifies for homestead treatment under this subdivision.

Sec. 13. Minnesota Statutes 1987 Supplement, section 273.1397, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [AID TO COUNTY.] A county whose preliminary aid amount is greater than zero shall receive a payment equal to the lesser of (1) the preliminary aid amount, or (2) 95 percent of the unreimbursed local share. The commissioner of revenue shall annually determine the amounts pursuant to this section and shall notify the county of the resulting income maintenance tax disparity aid amount. The commissioner of revenue shall pay to each affected county treasurer the county's total payment for the year in equal installments on or before July 15 20 and December 15 of each year.

Sec. 14. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 273.40, is amended to read:

273.40 [ANNUAL TAX ON COOPERATIVE ASSOCIATIONS.]

Cooperative associations organized under the provisions of Laws 1923, chapter 326, and laws amendatory thereof and laws supplemental thereto, and engaged in electrical heat, light or power business upon a mutual, nonprofit, and cooperative plan in rural areas, as hereinafter defined, are hereby recognized as quasi-public in their nature and purposes; but such cooperative associations, which operate within the corporate limits of any city shall be assessed on the basis of ~~43 percent~~ the percentage of the market value of that portion of its property located within the corporate limits of any city as provided for in section 273.13, subdivision 24.

Sec. 15. Minnesota Statutes 1987 Supplement, section 275.07, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. The taxes voted by cities and towns shall be certified by the proper authorities to the county auditor on or before October 10 in each year. ~~The taxes of a school district must be certified to the commissioner of education by October 10 in each year.~~ If a city, town, county, school district, or special district fails to certify its levy by that date, its levy shall be the amount levied by it for the preceding year. If the local unit notifies the commissioner of revenue, ~~or the commissioner of education in the case of a school district,~~ before October 10 of its inability to certify its levy by that date, and the commissioner is satisfied that the delay is unavoidable and is not due to the negligence of the local unit's officials or staff, the commissioner shall extend the time within which the local unit shall certify its levy up to 15 calendar days beyond the date of request for extension. ~~For 1988 only, the commissioner may extend the certification time to November 7 if the requirements of this subdivision are met.~~

The taxes voted by school districts must be certified by the proper authorities to the county auditor on or before October 25 of each year. If a school district fails to certify its levy by that date, its levy must be the amount it levied for the preceding year.

Sec. 16. Minnesota Statutes 1987 Supplement, section 279.01, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. Except as provided in subdivision 3, on May 16, of each year, with respect to property actually occupied and used as a homestead by the owner of the property, a penalty of three percent shall accrue and thereafter be charged upon all unpaid taxes on real estate on the current lists in the hands of the county treasurer, and a penalty of seven percent on nonhomestead property, except that this penalty shall not accrue until June 1 of each year on commercial use real property used for seasonal residential recreational purposes and classified as class 4d or 4c, and on other commercial use real property classified as class 3a, provided that over 60 percent of the gross income earned by the enterprise on the class 3a property is earned during the months of May, June, July, and August. Any property owner of such class 3a property who pays the first half of the tax due on the property after May 15 and before June 1 shall attach an affidavit to the payment attesting to compliance with the income provision of this subdivision. Thereafter, for both homestead and nonhomestead property, on the 16th first day of each month, up to and including October 16 following, an additional penalty of one percent for each month shall accrue and be charged on all such unpaid taxes. When the taxes against any tract or lot exceed $50, one-half thereof may be paid prior to May 16; and, if so paid, no penalty shall attach; the remaining one-half shall be paid at any time prior to October 16 following, without penalty; but, if not so paid, then a penalty of four percent shall accrue thereon for homestead property and a penalty of four percent on nonhomestead property. Thereafter, for homestead property, on the 16th day of each month up to and including December 16 first day of November and December following, an additional penalty of two percent for each month shall accrue and be charged on all such unpaid taxes. Thereafter, for nonhomestead property, on the 16th day of each month up to and including December 16 first day of November and December following, an additional penalty of four percent for each month shall accrue and be charged on all such unpaid taxes. If one-half of such taxes shall not be paid prior to May 16, the same may be paid at any time prior to October 16, with accrued penalties to the date of payment added, and thereupon no penalty shall attach to the remaining one-half until October 16 following.

A county may provide by resolution that in the case of a property owner that has multiple tracts or parcels with aggregate taxes exceeding $50, payments may be made in installments as provided in this subdivision.

The county treasurer may accept payments of more or less than the exact amount of a tax installment due. If the accepted payment is less than the amount due, payments must be applied first to the penalty accrued for the year the payment is made. Acceptance of partial payment of tax does not constitute a waiver of the minimum payment required as a condition for filing an appeal under section 278.03 or any other law, nor does it affect the order of payment of delinquent taxes under section 280.39.

Sec. 17. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 279.01, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. In the case of class 1b agricultural homestead, class 2a agricultural homestead property, and class 2c agricultural non-homestead property, no penalties shall attach to the second one-half property tax payment as provided in this section if paid by November 15. Thereafter for class 1b agricultural homestead and class 2a homestead property, on November 16 following, a penalty of six percent shall accrue and be charged on all such unpaid taxes and on December ~~16~~ 1 following, an additional two percent shall be charged on all such unpaid taxes. Thereafter for class 2c agricultural nonhomestead property, on November 16 following, a penalty of eight percent shall accrue and be charged on all such unpaid taxes and on December ~~16~~ 1 following, an additional four percent shall be charged on all such unpaid taxes.

If the owner of class 1b agricultural homestead, class 2a, or class 2c agricultural property receives a consolidated property tax statement that shows only an aggregate of the taxes and special assessments due on that property and on other property not classified as class 1b agricultural homestead, class 2a, or class 2c agricultural property, the aggregate tax and special assessments shown due on the property by the consolidated statement will be due on November 15 provided that at least 50 percent of the property's market value is classified class 1b agricultural, class 2a, or class 2c agricultural.

Sec. 18. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 375.192, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. Notwithstanding section 270.07, upon written application by the owner of the property, the county board may grant a reduction, for the current year, of the assessed valuation of any real property in that county which erroneously has been classified, for tax purposes, as nonhomestead property, as is necessary to give it the assessed valuation which it would have received if it had been classified correctly. The application shall be made on a form prescribed by the commissioner of revenue. It shall include the social security number of the applicant and a statement of facts of ownership and occupancy. The social security number of the property owner is private data on individuals as defined by section 13.02, subdivision 12. It shall be sworn to by the owner of the property before an officer authorized to take acknowledgments. Before it is acted upon by the county board, the application shall be referred to the county assessor, or if the property is located in a city of the first class having a city assessor, to the city assessor, who shall investigate the facts and attach a report of the investigation to the application.

With respect to abatements relating to the current year's tax processed through June 30, the county auditor shall notify the commissioner of revenue on or before July 31 of that same year of all applications granted pursuant to this subdivision. With respect to abatements relating to the current year's tax processed after June 30 through the balance of the year, the county auditor shall notify the commissioner of revenue on or before the following January 31 of all applications granted pursuant to this subdivision. Sec. 19. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 375.83, is amended to read:

375.83 [ECONOMIC AND AGRICULTURAL DEVELOPMENT.]

A county board may appropriate not more than $50,000 annually out of the general revenue fund of the county ~~to be paid to~~ for any incorporated development society or organization of this state which, in the board's opinion, will use the money for the best interests of the county in promoting, advertising, improving, or developing the economic and agricultural resources of the county. The limitation on annual appropriations under this section does not prohibit accumulation of amounts in excess of the annual appropriation amount in a fund to be used for purposes of this section, provided that the amount of accumulation in the fund may not exceed $300,000.

Sec. 20. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 477A.015, is amended to read:

477A.015 [PAYMENT DATES.]

The commissioner of revenue shall make the payments of local government aid to affected taxing authorities in two installments on July ~~15~~ 20 and December 15 annually.

The commissioner may pay all or part of the payment due on December 15 at any time after August 15 upon the request of a city that requests such payment as being necessary for meeting its cash flow needs.

Sec. 21. [ADJUSTMENT FOR CREDITS.]

A county auditor may make a final certification of prior year adjustments not previously claimed for wetlands credit and reimbursement, native prairie credit and reimbursement, and the small business credit in the 1989 abstract of tax lists. The commissioner of revenue shall review such certifications to determine their accuracy and make changes as are deemed necessary. After they have been reviewed, the commissioner shall include these prior year adjustments in the 1989 aid payments.

Sec. 22. [COUNTY ASSESSORS; SENIOR ACCREDITATION.]

Notwithstanding Minnesota Statutes, section 273.061, the commissioner of revenue's approval on January 1, 1989, of appointments of assessors who are not senior accredited on January 1, 1989, shall be for a term of one year. A county assessor appointed for a one-year term must reapply to the commissioner by January 1, 1990, to obtain the approval of the commissioner for the remainder of the four-year term.

Sec. 23. [REPEALER.]

Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 275.035 and Minnesota Statutes 1987 Supplement, section 273.1195 are repealed.

Sec. 24. Laws 1987, chapter 268, article 6, section 54, is amended to read:

Sec. 54. [EFFECTIVE DATE.]

Except where provided otherwise, sections 1 to 13, and 15 to 53 are effective for taxes levied in 1988, payable in 1989, and thereafter. Section 14 is effective for taxes payable in 1987 and thereafter.

Sec. 9. [EFFECTIVE DATE.]

Sections 1 to 7 are effective beginning for property taxes assessed in 1987 and payable in 1988; except that for property taxes payable after 1988 and before 1994, section 1 is effective only for leases executed or renewed after May 28, 1987.

Sec. 26. [EFFECTIVE DATE.]

Section 9 is effective only for taxes payable in 1988. Sections 3, 11, 12, 14 to 17, 23, and 25 are effective for the 1988 assessment and thereafter, taxes payable in 1989 and thereafter.

ARTICLE 7

ASSESSORS

270.41 [BOARD OF ASSESSORS.]

(a) A board of assessors is hereby created. The board shall be for the purpose of establishing, conducting, reviewing, supervising, coordinating or approving courses in assessment practices, and establishing criteria for determining assessor's qualifications. The board shall also have authority and responsibility to consider other matters relating to assessment administration brought before it by the commissioner of revenue. The board may grant, renew, suspend, or revoke an assessor's license. The board shall consist of nine members, who shall be appointed by the commissioner of revenue, in the manner provided herein.

1. Two from the department of revenue,
2. Two county assessors,
3. Two assessors who are not county assessors, one of whom shall be a township assessor, and
4. One from the private appraisal field holding a professional appraisal designation,
5. Two public members as defined by section 214.02.

The appointment provided in 2 and 3 may be made from two lists of not less than three names each, one submitted to the commissioner of revenue by the Minnesota association of assessing officers or its successor organization containing recommendations for the appointment of appointees described in 2, and one by the Minnesota association of assessors, inc. or its successor organization containing recommendations for the appointees described in 3. The lists must be submitted 30 days before the commencement of the term. In the case of a vacancy, a new list shall be furnished to the commissioner by the respective organization immediately. A member of the board who shall no longer be engaged in the capacity listed above shall automatically be disqualified from membership in the board.

The board shall annually elect a chair and a secretary of the board.

(b) The board may refuse to grant or renew, or may suspend or revoke, a license of an applicant or licensee for any of the following causes or acts:

- (1) failure to complete required training;
- (2) inefficiency or neglect of duty;
- (3) "unprofessional conduct" which means knowingly neglecting to perform a duty required by law, or violation of the laws of this state relating to the assessment of property or unlawfully exempting property or knowingly listing property on the tax list at less than its market value; or
- (4) conviction of a crime involving moral turpitude; or
- (5) any other cause or act that in the board's opinion warrants a refusal to issue or suspension or revocation of a license.

(c) The board of assessors may adopt rules under chapter 14, defining or interpreting grounds for refusing to grant or renew, and for suspending or revoking a license under this section. An action of the board of assessors in refusing to grant or renew a license or in suspending or revoking a license is subject to review in accordance with chapter 14.

Sec. 2. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 273.05, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [APPOINTMENT OF TOWN AND CITY ASSESSORS.] Notwithstanding any other provision of law all town assessors shall be appointed by the town board, and notwithstanding any charter provisions to the contrary, all city assessors shall be appointed by the city council or other appointing authority as provided by law or charter. Such assessors shall be residents of the state but need not be a resident of the town or city for which they are appointed. They shall be selected and appointed because of their knowledge and training in the field of property taxation. All town and statutory city assessors shall be appointed for indefinite terms. The term of the town or city assessors may be terminated at any time by the town board or city council on charges by the commissioner of revenue of inefficiency or neglect of duty. Vacancies in the office of town or city assessor shall be filled within 90 days by appointment of the respective appointing authority indicated above. If the vacancy is not filled within 90 days, the office shall be terminated. When a vacancy in the office of town or city assessor is not filled by appointment, and it is imperative that the office of assessor be filled, the county auditor shall appoint some resident of the county as assessor for such town or city. The county auditor may appoint the county assessor as assessor for such town or city, in which case the town or city shall pay to the county treasurer the amount determined by the county auditor to be due for the services performed and expenses incurred by the county assessor in acting as assessor for such town or city. The term of any town or statutory city assessor in a county electing in accordance with section 273.052 shall be terminated as provided in section 273.055.

The commissioner of revenue may recommend to the state board of assessors the nonrenewal, suspension, or revocation of an assessor's license as provided in sections 270.41 to 270.53.

Sec. 3. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 273.061, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [TERM; VACANCY.] (a) The terms of county assessors appointed under this section shall be four years. A new term shall begin on January 1 of every fourth year after 1973. When any vacancy in the office occurs, the board of county commissioners, within 30 days thereafter, shall fill the same by appointment for the remainder of the term, following the procedure prescribed in subdivision 1. The term of the county assessor may be terminated by the board of county commissioners at any time, on charges of inefficiency or neglect of duty by the commissioner of revenue. If the board of county commissioners does not intend to reappoint a county assessor who has been certified by the state board of assessors, the board shall present written notice to the county assessor not later than 90 days prior to the termination of the assessor's term, that it does not intend to reappoint the assessor. If written notice is not timely made, the county assessor will automatically be reappointed by the board of county commissioners.

The commissioner of revenue may recommend to the state board of assessors the nonrenewal, suspension, or revocation of an assessor's license as provided in sections 270.41 to 270.53.

(b) In the event of a vacancy in the office of county assessor, through death, resignation or other reasons, the deputy (or chief deputy, if more than one) shall perform the functions of the office. If there is no deputy, the county auditor shall designate a person to perform the duties of the office until an appointment is made as provided in clause (a). Such person shall perform the duties of the office for a period not exceeding 30 days during which the county board must appoint a county assessor. Such 30-day period may, however, be extended by written approval of the commissioner of revenue.

Sec. 4. Minnesota Statutes 1987 Supplement, section 274.01, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [ORDINARY BOARD; MEETINGS, DEADLINES, GRIEVANCES.] (a) The town board of a town, or the council or other governing body of a city, is the board of review except in cities whose charters provide for a board of equalization. The county assessor shall fix a day and time when the board or the board of equalization shall meet in the assessment districts of the county. On or before February 15 of each year the assessor shall give written notice of the time to the city or town clerk. Notwithstanding the provisions of any charter to the contrary, the meetings must be held between April 1 and May 31 each year. The clerk shall give published and posted notice of the meeting at least ten days before the date of the meeting. The board shall meet at the office of the clerk to review the assessment and classification of property in the town or city. No changes in valuation may be made by the county assessor after the board of review or the county board of equalization has adjourned. This restriction does not apply to corrections of clerical or administrative errors.

(b) The board shall determine whether the taxable property in the town or city has been properly placed on the list and properly valued by the assessor. If real or personal property has been omitted, the board shall place it on the list with its market value, and correct the assessment so that each tract or lot of real property, and each article, parcel, or class of personal property, is entered on the assessment list at its market value. No assessment of the property of any person may be raised unless the person has been duly notified of the intent of the board to do so. On application of any person feeling aggrieved, the board shall review the assessment or classification, or both, and correct it as appears just.

(c) A local board of review may reduce assessments upon petition of the taxpayer but the total reductions must not reduce the aggregate assessment made by the county assessor by more than one percent. If the total reductions would lower the aggregate assessments made by the county assessor by more than one percent, none of the adjustments may be made. The assessor shall correct any clerical errors or double assessments discovered by the board of review without regard to the one percent limitation.

(d) A majority of the members may act at the meeting, and adjourn from day to day until they finish hearing the cases presented. The assessor shall attend, with the assessment books and papers, and take part in the proceedings, but must not vote. The county assessor, or an assistant delegated by the county assessor shall attend the meetings. The board shall list separately, on a form appended to the assessment book, all omitted property added to the list by the board and all items of property increased or decreased, with the market value of each item of property, added or changed by the board, placed opposite the item. The county assessor shall enter all changes made by the board in the assessment book.

(e) If a person fails to appear in person, by counsel, or by written communication before the board after being duly notified of the board's intent to raise the assessment of the property, or if a person feeling aggrieved by an assessment or classification fails to apply for a review of the assessment or classification, the person may not appear before the county board of equalization for a review of the assessment or classification. This paragraph does not apply if an assessment was made after the board meeting, as provided in section 273.01, or if the person can establish not having received notice of market value at least five days before the local board of review meeting.

(f) The board of review or the board of equalization must complete its work and adjourn within 20 days from the time of convening stated in the notice of the clerk, unless a longer period is approved by the commissioner of revenue. No action taken after that date is valid. All complaints about an assessment or classification made after the meeting of the board must be heard and determined by the county board of equalization. A nonresident may, at any time, before the meeting of the board of review file written objections to an assessment or classification with the county assessor. The objections must be presented to the board of review at its meeting by the county assessor for its consideration.

Sec. 5. [APPROPRIATION.]

There is appropriated to the state board of assessors from the general fund the amount of $10,000 to be used in fiscal year 1989 for adopting rules as required by section 1.

ARTICLE 8

MILL RATE LEVY LIMITATIONS

Section 1. Minnesota Statutes 1987 Supplement, section 124A.02, subdivision 3a, is amended to read:

Subd. 3a. [ADJUSTED ASSESSED VALUATION.] "Adjusted assessed valuation" means the assessed valuation of the taxable property notwithstanding the provisions of section 275.49 of the school district as adjusted by the commissioner of revenue under section 124.2131. The adjusted assessed valuation for any given calendar year shall be used to compute levy limitations for levies certified in the succeeding calendar year and aid for the school year beginning in the second succeeding calendar year.

Sec. 2. [275.011] [MILL RATE LEVY LIMITATIONS; CONVERSION FROM MILLS TO DOLLARS.]

Subdivision 1. The property tax levied for any purpose subject to a mill rate limitation imposed by statute or special law that is presently in effect, excluding levies subject to mill rate limitations that use adjusted assessed values determined by the commissioner of revenue under section 124.2131, must not exceed the following amount for the years specified:

(a) for taxes payable in 1988, the product of the applicable mill rate limitation imposed by statute or special law multiplied by the total assessed valuation of all taxable property subject to the tax as adjusted by the provisions of Minnesota Statutes 1986, sections 272.64; 273.13, subdivision 7a; and 275.49;

(b) for taxes payable in 1989, the product of (1) the property tax levy limitation for the taxes payable year 1988 determined under clause (a) multiplied by (2) an index for market valuation changes equal to the assessment year 1988 total market valuation of all taxable property subject to the tax divided by the assessment year 1987 total market valuation of all taxable property subject to the tax; and

(c) for taxes payable in 1990 and subsequent years, the product of (1) the property tax levy limitation for the previous year determined pursuant to this subdivision multiplied by (2) an index for market valuation changes equal to the total market valuation of all taxable property subject to the tax for the current assessment year divided by the total market valuation of all taxable property subject to the tax for the previous assessment year.

For the purpose of determining the property tax levy limitation for the taxes payable year 1988 and subsequent years under this subdivision, "total market valuation" means the total market valuation of all taxable property subject to the tax without valuation adjustments for fiscal disparities (chapter 473F), tax increment financing (sections 469.174 to 469.179), and high voltage transmission lines (section 273.425).

Subd. 2. A mill rate levy limitation imposed by statute or special law that is presently in effect, excluding those mill rate levy limitations that use adjusted assessed values determined by the commissioner of revenue under section 124.2131, shall be construed to allow no more and no less property taxes than the amount determined under this section.

Sec. 3. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 473.167, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [LOANS FOR ACQUISITION.] The council may make loans to counties, towns, and statutory and home rule charter cities within the metropolitan area for the purchase of property within the right-of-way of a state trunk highway shown on an official map adopted pursuant to section 394.361 or 462.359 or for the purchase of property within the proposed right-of-way of a principal or intermediate arterial highway designated by the council as a part of the metropolitan highway system plan and approved by the council pursuant to subdivision 1. The loans shall be made by the council, from the fund established pursuant to this subdivision, for purchases approved by the council. The loans shall bear no interest. The council shall make loans only: (1) to accelerate the acquisition of primarily undeveloped property when there is a reasonable probability that the property will increase in value before highway construction, or (2) to avert the imminent conversion or the granting of approvals which would allow the conversion of property to uses which would jeopardize its availability for highway construction. The council shall not make loans for the purchase of property at a price which exceeds the fair market value of the property or which includes the costs of relocating or moving persons or property. A private property owner may elect to receive the purchase price either in a lump sum or in not more than four annual installments without interest on the deferred installments. If the purchase agreement provides for installment payments, the council shall make the loan in installments corresponding to those in the purchase agreement.

The recipient of an acquisition loan shall convey the property for the construction of the highway at the same price which the recipient paid for the property. Upon notification by the council that the plan to construct the highway has been abandoned or the anticipated location of the highway changed, the recipient shall sell the property at market value in accordance with the procedures required for the disposition of the property. All rents and other money received because of the recipient's ownership of the property and all proceeds from the conveyance or sale of the property shall be paid to the council. The proceeds of the tax authorized by subdivision 3, all money paid to the council by recipients of loans, and all interest on the proceeds and payments shall be maintained as a separate fund. For administration of the loan program the council may expend from the fund each year an amount no greater than three percent of the amount that a metropolitan area tax levy of 5/100 of a mill would raise in of the authorized levy for that year.

Sec. 4. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 473.167, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [TAX.] The council may levy a tax on all taxable property in the metropolitan area, as defined in section 473.121, to provide funds for loans made pursuant to subdivisions 2 and 2a. The This tax for the right-of-way acquisition loan fund shall be certified by the council, levied, and collected in the manner provided by section 473.13. The tax shall be in addition to that authorized by section 473.249 and any other law and shall not affect the amount or rate of taxes which may be levied by the council or any metropolitan agency or local governmental unit. The amount of the levy shall be as determined and certified by the council, except as otherwise provided in this subdivision. The tax shall not be levied at a rate higher than 5/100 of one mill. The tax shall not be levied at a rate higher than that determined by the council to be sufficient, considering the other anticipated revenues of and disbursements from the loan fund, to produce a balance in the loan fund at the end of the next calendar year equal to twice the amount that a tax levy of 5/100 of a mill would raise in that year.

The property tax levied by the metropolitan council for the right-of-way acquisition loan fund shall not exceed the following amount for the years specified:

(a) for taxes payable in 1988, the product of 5/100 of one mill multiplied by the total assessed valuation of all taxable property located within the metropolitan area as adjusted by the provisions of Minnesota Statutes 1986, sections 272.64; 273.13, subdivision 7a; and 275.49;

(b) for taxes payable in 1989, except as provided in section 6, the product of (1) the metropolitan council's property tax levy limitation for the right-of-way acquisition loan fund for the taxes payable year

1988 determined under clause (a) multiplied by (2) an index for market valuation changes equal to the assessment year 1988 total market valuation of all taxable property located within the metropolitan area divided by the assessment year 1987 total market valuation of all taxable property located within the metropolitan area; and

(c) for taxes payable in 1990 and subsequent years, the product of (1) the metropolitan council's property tax levy limitation for the right-of-way acquisition loan fund for the previous year determined pursuant to this subdivision multiplied by (2) an index for market valuation changes equal to the total market valuation of all taxable property located within the metropolitan area for the current assessment year divided by the total market valuation of all taxable property located within the metropolitan area for the previous assessment year.

For the purpose of determining the metropolitan council's property tax levy limitation for the right-of-way acquisition loan fund for the taxes payable year 1988 and subsequent years under this subdivision, "total market valuation" means the total market valuation of all taxable property within the metropolitan area without valuation adjustments for fiscal disparities (chapter 473F), tax increment financing (sections 469.174 to 469.179), and high voltage transmission lines (section 273.425).

The property tax levied under this subdivision for taxes payable in 1988 and subsequent years shall not be levied at a rate higher than that determined by the metropolitan council to be sufficient, considering the other anticipated revenues of and disbursements from the right-of-way acquisition loan fund, to produce a balance in the loan fund at the end of the next calendar year equal to twice the amount of the property tax levy limitation for taxes payable in the next calendar year determined under this section.

Sec. 5. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 473.167, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 4. [STATE REVIEW.] The commissioner of revenue shall annually determine whether the property tax for the right-of-way acquisition loan fund certified by the metropolitan council for levy following the adoption of its budget is within the levy limitation imposed by this section. To the extent practicable, the determination must be completed prior to November 1 of each year. If current information regarding market valuation in any county is not transmitted to the commissioner in a timely manner, the commissioner may estimate the current market valuation within that county for purposes of making the calculation.

Sec. 6. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 473.167, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 5. [LEVY INCREASE.] For the purpose of determining the levy limitation for taxes payable in 1989 under subdivision 3, the levy limitation for taxes payable in 1988 shall be multiplied by two. The levy limitation so determined for taxes payable in 1989 shall be the basis for determining levy limitations for taxes payable in 1990 and subsequent years under subdivision 3.

Sec. 7. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 473.249, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. The metropolitan council may levy a tax on all taxable property in the metropolitan area defined in section 473.121 to provide funds for the purposes of sections 473.121 to 473.249 and for the purpose of carrying out other responsibilities of the council as provided by law. The tax shall not exceed 8/30 of one mill on the total assessed valuation of all such taxable property located in the metropolitan area, and This tax for general purposes shall be levied and collected in the manner provided by section 473.13.

The property tax levied by the metropolitan council for general purposes shall not exceed the following amount for the years specified:

(a) for taxes payable in 1988, the product of 8/30 of one mill multiplied by the total assessed valuation of all taxable property located within the metropolitan area as adjusted by the provisions of Minnesota Statutes 1986, sections 272.64; 273.13, subdivision 7a; and 275.49;

(b) for taxes payable in 1989, the product of (1) the metropolitan council's property tax levy limitation for general purposes for the taxes payable year 1988 determined under clause (a) multiplied by (2) an index for market valuation changes equal to the assessment year 1988 total market valuation of all taxable property located within the metropolitan area divided by the assessment year 1987 total market valuation of all taxable property located within the metropolitan area; and

(c) for taxes payable in 1990 and subsequent years, the product of (1) the metropolitan council's property tax levy limitation for general purposes for the previous year determined under this subdivision multiplied by (2) an index for market valuation changes equal to the total market valuation of all taxable property located within the metropolitan area for the current assessment year divided by the total market valuation of all taxable property located within the metropolitan area for the previous assessment year.

For the purpose of determining the metropolitan council's property tax levy limitation for general purposes for the taxes payable year 1988 and subsequent years under this subdivision, "total market valuation" means the total market valuation of all taxable property within the metropolitan area without valuation adjustments for fiscal disparities (chapter 473F), tax increment financing (sections 469.174 to 469.179), and high voltage transmission lines (section 273.425).

Sec. 8. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 473.249, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 3. [LEVY LIMIT.] Notwithstanding any other provision of this section, effective for property taxes payable in 1989 and subsequent years, the total amount of dollars levied by the council for general purposes under this section in any year may not increase over the amount levied in the preceding year by a percentage greater than the percentage increase during the most recent 12-month period in the implicit price deflator for state and local government purchases of goods and services.

Sec. 9. Minnesota Statutes 1987 Supplement, section 473.446, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [TAXATION WITHIN TRANSIT TAXING DISTRICT.] For the purposes of sections 473.401 to 473.451 and the metropolitan transit system, except as otherwise provided in this subdivision the regional transit board shall levy each year upon all taxable property within the metropolitan transit taxing district, defined in subdivision 2, a transit tax consisting of:

(a) an amount ~~up to two mills times the assessed value of all such property, based upon the level of transit service provided for the property, the proceeds of which shall be used for payment of the expenses of operating transit and paratransit service and to provide for payment of obligations issued by the commission under section 473.436, subdivision 6;~~

(b) an additional amount, if any, as the board determines to be necessary to provide for the full and timely payment of its certificates of indebtedness and other obligations outstanding on July 1, 1985, to which property taxes under this section have been pledged; and

(c) an additional amount necessary to provide full and timely payment of certificates of indebtedness, bonds, including refunding bonds or other obligations issued or to be issued under section 473.39 by the council for purposes of acquisition and betterment of property and other improvements of a capital nature and to which the council or board has specifically pledged tax levies under this clause.

The property tax levied by the regional transit board for general purposes under clause (a) must not exceed the following amount for the years specified:

(1) for taxes payable in 1988, the product of two mills multiplied by the total assessed valuation of all taxable property located within the metropolitan transit taxing district as adjusted by the provisions of Minnesota Statutes 1986, sections 272.64; 273.13, subdivision 7a; and 275.49;

(2) for taxes payable in 1989, the product of (i) the regional transit board's property tax levy limitation for general purposes for the taxes payable year 1988 determined under clause (1) multiplied by (ii) an index for market valuation changes equal to the assessment year 1988 total market valuation of all taxable property located within the metropolitan transit taxing district divided by the assessment year 1987 total market valuation of all taxable property located within the metropolitan transit taxing district; and

(3) for taxes payable in 1990 and subsequent years, the product of (i) the regional transit board's property tax levy limitation for general purposes for the previous year determined under this subdivision multiplied by (ii) an index for market valuation changes equal to the total market valuation of all taxable property located within the metropolitan transit taxing district for the current assessment year divided by the total market valuation of all taxable property located within the metropolitan transit taxing district for the previous assessment year.

For the purpose of determining the regional transit board's property tax levy limitation for general purposes for the taxes payable year 1988 and subsequent years under this subdivision, "total market valuation" means the total market valuation of all taxable property within the metropolitan transit taxing district without valuation adjustments for fiscal disparities (chapter 473F), tax increment financing (sections 469.174 to 469.179), and high voltage transmission lines (section 273.425).

The county auditor shall reduce the tax levied pursuant to this subdivision on all property within statutory and home rule charter cities and towns that receive full peak service and limited off-peak service by an amount equal to the tax levy that would be produced by applying a rate of 0.5 mills on the property. The county auditor shall reduce the tax levied pursuant to this subdivision on all property within statutory and home rule charter cities and towns that receive limited peak service by an amount equal to the tax levy that would be produced by applying a rate of 0.75 mills on the property. The amounts so computed by the county auditor shall be submitted to the commissioner of revenue as part of the abstracts of tax lists required to be filed with the commissioner under section 275.29. Any prior year adjustments shall also be certified in the abstracts of tax lists. The commissioner shall review the certifications to determine their accuracy and may make changes in the certification as necessary or return a certification to the county auditor for corrections. The commissioner shall pay to the regional transit board the amounts certified by the county auditors on the dates provided in section ~~273.1394~~ 273.1325. There is annually appropriated from the general fund in the state treasury to the department of revenue the amounts necessary to make these payments in fiscal year 1987 and thereafter.

For the purposes of this subdivision, "full peak and limited off-peak service" means peak period regular route service, plus weekday midday regular route service at intervals longer than 60 minutes on the route with the greatest frequency; and "limited peak period service" means peak period regular route service only.

Sec. 10. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 473.446, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [CERTIFICATION AND COLLECTION.] ~~On or before October 10 in each year the regional transit board shall certify the total amount of the tax levied pursuant to subdivision 1 to the auditor of each metropolitan county. Each county auditor shall then assess and extend upon the tax rolls in the county that proportion of the tax which the assessed value of taxable property in the county bears to the assessed value of all taxable property in the metropolitan area. Each county treasurer shall collect and make settlement of such the taxes levied under subdivisions 1 and 1a with the treasurer of the board. The levy of transit taxes pursuant to this section shall not affect the amount or rate of taxes which may be levied by any county or municipality or by the board for other purposes authorized by law and shall be in addition to any other property tax authorized by law.~~

Sec. 11. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 473.446, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 8. [STATE REVIEW.] The commissioner of revenue shall annually determine whether the property tax for general purposes certified by the regional transit board for levy following the adoption of its budget is within the levy limitation imposed by subdivision 1. The commissioner shall also annually determine whether the transit tax imposed on all taxable property within the metropolitan transit area but outside of the metropolitan transit taxing district is within the levy limitation imposed by subdivision 1a. To the extent practicable, the determination must be completed prior to November 1 of each year. If current information regarding market valuation in any county is not transmitted to the commissioner in a timely manner, the commissioner may estimate the current market valuation within that county for purposes of making the calculations.

Sec. 12. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 473.711, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. The metropolitan mosquito control commission shall prepare an annual budget. The budget may provide for expenditures in an amount not exceeding six-tenths of one mill times the current assessed valuation of the district the property tax levy limitation determined in this subdivision. The commission may levy a tax on all taxable property in the district as defined in section 473.702 to provide funds for the purposes of sections 473.701 to 473.716. The tax shall not exceed six-tenths of one mill the property tax levy limitation determined in this subdivision. A participating county may agree to levy an additional tax to be used by the commission for the purposes of sections 473.701 to 473.716 but the sum of the county's and commission's taxes may not exceed six-tenths of one mill in any county the county's proportionate share of the property tax levy limitation determined under this subdivision based on the ratio of its total assessed valuation to the total assessed valuation of the entire district as adjusted by section 270.12, subdivision 3. The auditor of each county in the district shall add the amount of the levy made by the district to other taxes of the county for collection by the county treasurer with other taxes. When collected, the county treasurer shall make settlement of the tax with the district in the same manner as other taxes are distributed to political subdivisions. No county shall levy any tax for mosquito and black gnat (Simuliidae) control except under sections 473.701 to 473.716. The levy shall be in addition to other taxes authorized by law and shall be disregarded in the calculation of limits on taxes imposed by chapter 275.

The property tax levied by the metropolitan mosquito control commission shall not exceed the following amount for the years specified:

(a) for taxes payable in 1988, the product of six-tenths on one mill multiplied by the total assessed valuation of all taxable property located within the district as adjusted by the provisions of Minnesota Statutes 1986, sections 272.64; 273.13, subdivision 7a; and 275.49;

(b) for taxes payable in 1989, the product of (1) the commission's property tax levy limitation for the taxes payable year 1988 determined under clause (a) multiplied by (2) an index for market valuation changes equal to the assessment year 1988 total market valuation of all taxable property located within the district divided by the assessment year 1987 total market valuation of all taxable property located within the district; and for market valuation changes equal to the total market valuation of all taxable property located within the district for the current assessment year divided by the total market valuation of all taxable property located within the district for the previous assessment year.

For the purpose of determining the commission's property tax levy limitation for the taxes payable year 1988 and subsequent years under this subdivision, "total market valuation" means the total market valuation of all taxable property within the district without valuation adjustments for fiscal disparities (chapter 473F), tax increment financing (sections 469.174 to 469.179), and high voltage transmission lines (section 273.425).

Sec. 13. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 473.711, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 5. [STATE REVIEW.] The commissioner of revenue shall annually determine whether the property tax certified by the metropolitan mosquito control commission for levy following the adoption of its budget is within the levy limitation imposed by subdivision 2. To the extent practicable, the determination must be completed prior to November 1 of each year. If current information regarding market valuation in any county is not transmitted to the commissioner in a timely manner, the commissioner may estimate the current market valuation within that county for purposes of making the calculation.

Sec. 14. Minnesota Statutes 1987 Supplement, section 475.53, subdivision 4, is amended to read:

Subd. 4. [SCHOOL DISTRICTS.] Except as otherwise provided by law, no school district shall be subject to a net debt in excess of ten percent of the actual market value of all taxable property and of exempt property referred to in section 275.49, situated within its corporate limits, as computed in accordance with this subdivision. The county auditor of each county containing taxable real or personal property situated within any school district shall certify to the district upon request the market value of all such property. The county auditor of each county containing exempt property referred to in section 275.49, situated within any school district, shall certify to the district upon request the total market value of all such property as determined under section 275.49. The commissioner of revenue shall certify to the district upon request the market value of railroad property within the district as most recently determined under section 270.87. Whenever the commissioner of revenue, in accordance with section 124.2131, subdivision 1, has determined that the assessed valuation of any district furnished by county auditors is not based upon the market value of taxable property in the district, the commissioner of revenue shall certify to the district upon request the ratio most recently ascertained to exist between such value and the actual market value of property within the district. The actual market value of property within a district, on which its debt limit under this subdivision is based, is (a) the value certified by the county auditors and, where applicable, by the commissioner of revenue under section 270.87, or (b) this value divided by the ratio certified by the commissioner of revenue, whichever results in a higher value.

Minnesota Statutes 1986, sections 272.64; 273.13, subdivision 7a; and 275.49, are repealed.

Sec. 16. [APPLICABILITY.]

Sections 3 to 13 apply in the counties of Anoka, Carver, Dakota, Hennepin, Ramsey, Scott, and Washington.

Sec. 17. [EFFECTIVE DATE.]

This article is effective for property taxes levied in 1988 and thereafter, payable in 1989 and thereafter.

The determination must be made by the district court of the county in which the tax is levied or by the tax court. A person can request the determination by filing a petition for it in the office of the court administrator of the district court on or before September 1 of the year in which the tax becomes payable. Sec. 8. Minnesota Statutes 1987 Supplement, section 274.19, subdivision 7, is amended to read:

Subd. 7. [PERSONAL PROPERTY.] The tax assessed on manufactured homes and park trailers is a personal property tax. Laws relating to assessment, review, and collection of personal property taxes apply to this tax, if consistent with this section.

Sec. 9. Minnesota Statutes 1987 Supplement, section 274.19, subdivision 8, is amended to read:

Subd. 8. [MANUFACTURED HOMES; SECTIONAL STRUCTURES; PARK TRAILERS.] (a) In this section, "manufactured home" means a structure transportable in one or more sections, which is built on a permanent chassis, and designed to be used as a dwelling with or without a permanent foundation when connected to the required utilities, and contains the plumbing, heating, air conditioning, and electrical systems in it. "Manufactured home" includes any accessory structure that is an addition or supplement to the manufactured home and, when installed, becomes a part of the manufactured home.

In this section, "park trailer" has the meaning given to it in section 168.011, subdivision 8. Notwithstanding section 168.012, subdivision 9, it must be taxed under this section regardless of whether or not it is registered as a motor vehicle under chapter 168. The county assessor shall determine if the trailer is a park trailer and is subsequently taxable under this section. Proof must be furnished to the county assessor by the owner of the trailer if the owner deems otherwise. If an agreement cannot be reached between the owner of the trailer and the county assessor, the commissioner of revenue shall make the final determination.

(b) A manufactured home that meets each of the following criteria must be valued and assessed as an improvement to real property, the appropriate real property classification applies, and the valuation is subject to review and the taxes payable in the manner provided for real property:

(1) the owner of the unit holds title to the land on which it is situated;

(2) the unit is affixed to the land by a permanent foundation or is installed at its location in accordance with the manufactured home building code in sections 327.31 to 327.34, and rules adopted under those sections, or is affixed to the land like other real property in the taxing district; and

(3) the unit is connected to public utilities, has a well and septic tank system, or is serviced by water and sewer facilities comparable to other real property in the taxing district.

(c) A manufactured home that meets each of the following criteria must be assessed at the rate provided by the appropriate real property classification but must be treated as personal property, and the valuation is subject to review and the taxes payable in the manner provided in this section:

(1) the owner of the unit is a lessee of the land under the terms of a lease;

(2) the unit is affixed to the land by a permanent foundation or is installed at its location in accordance with the manufactured homes building code contained in sections 327.31 to 327.34, and the rules adopted under those sections, or is affixed to the land like other real property in the taxing district; and

(3) the unit is connected to public utilities, has a well and septic tank system, or is serviced by water and sewer facilities comparable to other real property in the taxing district.

(d) If the owner of the park trailer, as defined in section 168.011, subdivision 8, holds title to the land upon which it is situated, the park trailer must be valued and assessed as an improvement to real property and the appropriate real property classification shall apply and the valuation is subject to review and taxes payable in the manner for real property.

(e) If the owner of the park trailer, as defined in section 168.011, subdivision 8, is a lessee of the land pursuant to the terms of a lease, the park trailer must be assessed at the rate provided by the appropriate real property classification but must be treated as personal property and the valuation is subject to review and the taxes payable in the manner provided in this section.

(f) Sectional structures must be valued and assessed as an improvement to real property if the owner of the structure holds title to the land on which it is located or is a qualifying lessee of the land under section 273.19. In this paragraph "sectional structure" means a building or structural unit that has been in whole or substantial part manufactured or constructed at an off-site location to be wholly or partially assembled on-site alone or with other units and attached to a permanent foundation.

(e) (g) The commissioner of revenue may adopt rules under the administrative procedure act to establish additional criteria for the classification of manufactured homes and, sectional structures, and park trailers under this subdivision.

Sec. 10. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 297A.02, subdivision 4, is amended to read:

Subd. 4. [MANUFACTURED HOUSING AND PARK TRAILERS.] Notwithstanding the provisions of subdivision 1, for sales at retail of manufactured homes used for residential purposes and park trailers defined in section 168.011, subdivision 8, clause (c), the excise tax is imposed upon 65 percent of the sales price of the home or park trailer provided that if, in the case of park trailers, property taxes are not levied on the park trailer, the excise tax shall be recomputed based upon 100 percent of the original sales price and the owner shall pay the amount of difference to the state before being granted a permit to move the trailer under section 169.86.

Sec. 11. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 297A.25, subdivision 27, is amended to read:

Subd. 27. [MANUFACTURED HOMES AND PARK TRAILERS.] The gross receipts from the sale of a manufactured home, as defined in section 327.31, subdivision 6, and park trailers as defined in section 168.011, subdivision 8, clause (c), to be used by the purchaser for residential purposes are exempt, unless the sale is the first retail sale of the manufactured home or park trailer in this state.

Sec. 12. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 297A.25, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 37. [PARK TRAILERS.] The gross receipts from the sale of any lease or contract for the space to park a "park trailer" as defined in section 168.011, subdivision 8, provided that the park trailer is subject to property taxes for that same time period.

Sec. 13. [EFFECTIVE DATE.]

Sections 1 to 12 are effective January 1, 1989.

TAXES ON GAMBLING

Section 1. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 240.01, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 12. [AVERAGE DAILY HANDLE.] "Average daily handle" means the total amount bet in all pari-mutuel pools at a licensed racetrack during the racing meeting divided by the number of days that horse racing was conducted at the racetrack during the racing meeting.

Sec. 2. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 240.13, subdivision 4, is amended to read:

Subd. 4. [TAKEOUT; DISTRIBUTION OF WINNINGS.] A licensee conducting pari-mutuel betting must deduct from a straight pari-mutuel pool, before payments to holders of winning tickets, an amount equal to not more than 17 percent of the total money in that pool. The licensee must deduct from a multiple pari-mutuel pool, before payments to the holders of winning tickets, an amount equal to not more than 23 percent of the total money in that pool. The remaining money in each pool must be distributed among the holders of winning tickets in a manner the commission by rule prescribes for each type of pool. Breakage must be computed on the basis of payoffs rounded down to the next lowest increment of 20 cents, with a minimum payoff of $2.20 on a $2 ticket, except that the licensee may reduce the minimum payoff to $2.10 on a $2 ticket if there is not a sufficient amount in a pool to make a minimum payoff of $2.20.

Sec. 3. Minnesota Statutes 1987 Supplement, section 240.13, subdivision 5, is amended to read:

Subd. 5. [PURSES.] (a) From the amounts deducted from all pari-mutuel pools by a licensee, an amount equal to not less than five percent the following percentages of all money in all pools must be set aside by the licensee and used for purses for races conducted by the licensee, provided that a licensee may agree by contract with an organization representing a majority of the horsepersons racing the breed involved to set aside amounts in addition to the following percentages:

(1) For a licensee conducting a racing meeting with an average daily handle of $500,000 or less, four percent of the average daily handle times the number of racing days in that meeting.

(2) For a licensee conducting a racing meeting with an average daily handle of more than $500,000 but not more than $750,000, six percent of the average daily handle times the number of racing days in that meeting.

(3) For a licensee conducting a racing meeting with an average daily handle of more than $750,000, eight percent of the first $1,000,000 in average daily handle times the number of racing days in that meeting.

The commission may by rule provide for the administration and enforcement of this subdivision.

(b) From the money set aside for purses, the licensee shall pay to the horseperson's organization representing the majority of the horsepersons racing the breed involved and contracting with the licensee with respect to purses and the conduct of the racing meetings and providing representation, benevolent programs, benefits, and services for horsepersons and their on-track employees, an amount, sufficient to perform these services, as may be determined by agreement by the licensee and the horseperson's organization. The amount paid may be deducted only from the money set aside for purses to be paid in races for the breed represented by the horseperson's organization. With respect to racing meetings where more than one breed is racing, the licensee may contract independently with the horseperson's organization representing each breed racing.

(c) Notwithstanding sections 325D.49 to 325D.66, a horseperson's organization representing the majority of the horsepersons racing a breed at a meeting, and the members thereof, may agree to withhold horses during a meeting.

Sec. 4. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 240.13, subdivision 6, is amended to read:

Subd. 6. [TELEVISED RACES.] The commission may by rule permit a class B or class D licensee to conduct on the premises of the licensed racetrack pari-mutuel betting on horse races run in other states and broadcast by television on the premises. All provisions of law governing pari-mutuel betting apply to pari-mutuel betting on televised races except as otherwise provided in this subdivision or in the commission's rules. Pari-mutuel pools conducted on such televised races may consist only of money bet on the premises and may not be commingled with any other pool off the premises, except that:

(a) the licensee may pay a fee to the person or entity conducting the race for the privileges of conducting pari-mutuel betting on the race, and

(b) the licensee may pay the costs of transmitting the broadcast of the race.

Pari-mutuel betting on a televised race may be conducted only on a racing day assigned by the commission. The takeout and taxes on pari-mutuel pools on televised races are as provided for other pari-mutuel pools. All televised races under this subdivision must comply with the Interstate Horse Racing Act of 1978 as found in United States Code, title 15, section 3001 and the following relevant sections. In lieu of the purse requirement established by subdivision 5, the licensee shall set aside for purses one-half of the takeout from the amount bet on televised races after the payment of fees and taxes. For the purposes of purse distribution under subdivision 5, the average daily handle shall not include amounts bet in pari-mutuel pools on televised races.

Sec. 5. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 240.15, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [TAXES IMPOSED.] (a) There is imposed on the total amount bet on all pari-mutuel pools on each racing day a tax at the following rates:

(1) For each racing day in a calendar year on which the total amount bet, together with the total amount bet at the same licensed racetrack in all previous racing days in the same calendar year does not exceed \$48,000,000, 1 $\frac{3}{4}$ percent of the total amount bet in all pari-mutuel pools.

(2) For each racing day in a calendar year after the racing day on which the total amount bet in all pari-mutuel pools at the same licensed racetrack in the same calendar year exceeds $48,000,000, six percent of the total amount bet in all pari-mutuel pools rate of six percent of the total amount withheld from all pari-mutuel pools by the licensee, including breakage and amounts withheld under section 240.13, subdivision 4.

In addition to the above tax, the licensee must designate and pay to the commission a tax of one percent of the total amount bet on each racing day, for deposit in the Minnesota breeders fund, at the following rates:

(1) For racing days on which the state tax under clause (a)(1) is $1\frac{3}{4}$ percent, one-half percent of the total amount bet in all pari-mutuel pools.

(2) For racing days on which the state tax under clause (a)(2) is six percent, one percent of the total amount bet in all pari-mutuel pools.

The taxes imposed by this clause must be paid from the amounts permitted to be withheld by a licensee under section 240.13, subdivision 4.

(b) The commission shall impose on each paid admission to each licensed racetrack on a racing day a tax of 40 cents. It may impose an additional admissions tax of not more than ten cents on each paid admission at any a licensed racetrack on a racing day if:

(1) the additional tax is requested by a local unit of government within whose borders the track is located;

(2) a public hearing is held on the request; and

(3) the commission finds that the local unit of government requesting the additional tax is in need of its revenue to meet extraordinary expenses caused by the racetrack.

Sec. 6. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 240.15, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [PAYMENT.] The licensee must remit the tax to the commission or its representative within seven days of the day on which it was collected. In addition to the tax and at that time the licensee must pay to the commission or its representative a sum equal to one-half the total breakage for each racing day during the period for which the tax is paid. The payments must be accompanied by a detailed statement of the remittance on a form the commission prescribes. The commission may by rule provide for the direct deposit of required payments in the commission's account in a financial institution within the state and for determining the time of applicability of different tax rates under subdivision 1.

Sec. 7. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 240.15, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [TAX EXCLUSIVE.] The tax imposed by subdivision 1 is in lieu of any tax or license fee, other than taxes on real property, imposed by a political subdivision and in lieu of any other sales or excise tax imposed by the state on ~~racetrack admissions or pari-mutuel pools or pari-mutuel ticket sales.~~

Sec. 8. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 240.15, subdivision 6, is amended to read:

Subd. 6. [DISPOSITION OF PROCEEDS.] The commission shall distribute all money received under this section, and all money received from license fees and fines it collects, as follows: all money designated for deposit in the Minnesota breeders fund must be paid into that fund for distribution under section 240.18. Revenue from an ~~additional~~ admissions tax imposed under subdivision 1 must be paid to the local unit of government at whose request it was imposed, at times and in a manner the commission determines. All other revenues received under this section by the commission, and all license fees, fines, and other revenue it receives, must be paid to the state treasurer for deposit in the general fund.

Sec. 9. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 240.18, is amended to read:

240.18 [BREEDERS' FUND.]

The commission shall establish a Minnesota breeders' fund with the money paid to it under section 240.15, subdivision 1. The commission, after paying the current costs of administering the fund, shall apportion the remaining net proceeds into categories corresponding with the various breeds of horses which are racing at licensed Minnesota racetracks in proportion to each category's contribution to the fund and distribute the available net proceeds in each such category as follows:

(1) With respect to the available money apportioned in the thoroughbred and quarterhorse categories, twenty percent of the available money in the fund must be expended as grants for equine research and related education at public institutions of post-secondary learning within the state.

(2) After deducting the amount for (1), the balance of the available proceeds shall be apportioned into categories corresponding with the various breeds of horses which are racing at licensed Minnesota racetracks, in proportion to each category's contribution to the fund. The available funds in each such category may be expended by the commission to:

(a) supplement purses for races held exclusively for Minnesota-bred, Minnesota-foaled, or Minnesota-owned horses until January 1, 1988, and for Minnesota-bred and Minnesota-foaled horses after that date in that category;

(b) pay breeders' or owners' awards to the breeders or owners of Minnesota-bred horses in that category which win money at licensed racetracks in the state; and

(c) provide other financial incentives to encourage the horse breeding industry in Minnesota.

(3) With respect to the available money apportioned in the standardbred category, 20 percent must be expended as follows:

(a) one-half of that amount to supplement purses for standardbreds at non-pari-mutuel racetracks in the state;

(b) one-fourth of that amount for the development of non-pari-mutuel standardbred tracks in the state; and

(c) one-fourth of that amount as grants for equine research and related education at public institutions of post-secondary learning in the state.

(4) After deducting the amount for clause (3) the balance of the available proceeds in the standardbred category must be expended by the commission to:

(a) supplement purses for races held exclusively for Minnesota-bred and Minnesota-foaled standardbreds;

(b) pay breeders or owners awards to the breeders or owners of Minnesota-bred standardbreds which win money at licensed racetracks in the state; and

(c) provide other financial incentives to encourage the horse breeding industry in Minnesota.

The commission shall adopt rules governing the distribution of the fund. The commission may establish advisory committees to advise it on the distribution of money under this section, provided that the members of an advisory committee shall serve without compensation.

Sec. 10. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 349.12, subdivision 18, is amended to read:

Subd. 18. [DEAL.] "Deal" means each separate package, or series of packages, consisting of one game of pull-tabs or tipboards with the same serial number purchased from a distributor.

Sec. 11. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 349.12, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 19. [IDEAL GROSS.] "Ideal gross" means the total amount of receipts that would be received if every individual ticket in the pull-tab or tipboard deal was sold at its face value.

Sec. 12. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 349.12, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 20. [IDEAL NET.] "Ideal net" means the pull-tab or tipboard deal's ideal gross, as defined under subdivision 19, less the total predetermined prize amounts available to be paid out. When the prize is not a monetary one, the ideal net is 50 percent of the ideal gross.

Sec. 13. Minnesota Statutes 1987 Supplement, section 349.212, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [RATE.] There is hereby imposed a tax on all lawful gambling, other than (1) pull-tabs purchased and placed into inventory after January 1, 1987, and (2) tipboards purchased and placed into inventory after June 30, 1988, conducted by organizations licensed by the board at the rate specified in this subdivision. The tax imposed by this subdivision is in lieu of the tax imposed by section 297A.02 and all local taxes and license fees except a fee authorized under section 349.16, subdivision 4.

On all lawful gambling, other than (1) pull-tabs purchased and placed into inventory after January 1, 1987, and (2) tipboards purchased and placed into inventory after June 30, 1988, the tax is ten percent of the gross receipts of a licensed organization from lawful gambling less prizes actually paid out, payable by the organization.

Sec. 14. Minnesota Statutes 1987 Supplement, section 349.212, subdivision 4, is amended to read:

Subd. 4. [PULL-TAB AND TIPBOARD TAX.] (a) There is imposed a tax on the sale of each deal of pull-tabs and tipboards sold by a licensed distributor to a licensed organization, or to an organization holding an exemption identification number. The rate of the tax is ten percent of the face resale value of all the pull-tabs in each deal less the total prizes which may be paid out on all the pull-tabs in that ideal net of the pull-tab and tipboard deal. The tax is payable to the commissioner of revenue in the manner prescribed in section 349.2121 and the rules of the commissioner. The commissioner shall pay the proceeds of the tax to the state treasurer for deposit in the general fund. The sales tax imposed by chapter 297A on the sale of the pull-tabs and tipboards by the licensed distributor to an organization is imposed on the retail sales price less the tax imposed by this subdivision. The retail sale of pull-tabs or tipboards by the organization is exempt from taxes imposed by chapter 297A if the tax imposed by this subdivision has been paid and is exempt from all local taxes and license fees except a fee authorized under section 349.16, subdivision 4.

(b) The liability for the tax imposed by this section is incurred when the pull-tabs and tipboards are delivered by the distributor to the licensed or exempt organization, to a common or contract carrier for delivery to the organization, or when received by the organization's authorized representative at the distributor's place of business, regardless of the distributor's method of accounting or the terms of the sale.

If a licensed organization or any organization holding an exemption number receives pull-tabs directly from the manufacturer and the manufacturer is not a licensed distributor, the distributor from whom the pull-tabs were purchased is liable for tax when the manufacturer delivers the pull-tabs to the organization, or to a contract or common carrier for delivery to the organization, or when the pull-tabs are received by the organization's authorized representative at the manufacturer's place of business, regardless of the manufacturer's or the distributor's method of accounting or the terms of the sale.

(c) The exemptions contained in section 349.214, subdivision 2, paragraph (b), do not apply to the tax imposed in this subdivision.

Sec. 15. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 349.2121, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [APPLICATION AND ISSUANCE.] Every distributor licensed by the board who sells pull-tabs and tipboards to organizations authorized to sell pull-tabs and tipboards under this chapter must file with the commissioner of revenue an application, on a form the commissioner prescribes, for a gambling tax identification number and gambling tax permit. The commissioner, when satisfied that the applicant has a valid license from the board, shall issue the applicant a permit and number. A permit is not assignable and is valid only for the distributor in whose name it is issued.

Sec. 16. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 349.2121, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [RECORDS.] The commissioner may by rule require a licensed distributor holding a permit under this section to keep such books, papers, documents, and records as the commissioner deems necessary to the enforcement of this chapter. The commissioner may examine, or cause to be examined, any books, papers, records, or other documents relevant to making a determination, whether they are in the possession of a distributor or another person or corporation. The commissioner may require the attendance of any persons having knowledge or information in the premises; to compel the production of books, papers, records, or memoranda by persons so required to attend; to take testimony on matters material to a determination, and to administer oaths or affirmations. A distributor shall keep at each licensed place of business complete and accurate records for that place of business, including itemized invoices of pull-tabs and tipboards held, purchased, manufactured, or brought in or caused to be brought in from without this state, and of all sales of pull-tabs and tipboards. The records must show the names and addresses of purchasers; the inventory at the close of each period for which a return is required of all pull-tab and tipboard deals on hand, and other pertinent papers and documents relating to the purchase, sale, or disposition of pull-tab and tipboard deals. Books, records, and other papers and documents required by this section must be kept for a period of at least 3½ years after the date of the documents, or the date of the entries appearing in the records, unless the commissioner authorizes in writing their destruction or disposal at an earlier date. At any time during usual business hours, the commissioner, executive secretary of the charitable gambling control board, or any of their duly authorized agents or employees, may enter a place of business of a distributor, charitable organization, or any site from which pull-tabs or tipboards are being sold and inspect the premises and the records required to be kept under this section to determine whether or not all the provisions of this section are being fully complied with. If the commissioner, executive secretary, or their duly authorized agents or employees are denied free access to or are hindered or interfered with in making an inspection of the distributor's place of business, the permit of the distributor may be revoked by the commissioner, and the license of the distributor may be revoked by the charitable gambling control board.

Sec. 17. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 349.2121, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 2a. A distributor who sells pull-tabs and tipboards to persons other than the ultimate consumer shall give with each sale an itemized invoice showing the distributor's name and address, the purchaser's name and address, the date of the sale, description of the deals including the ideal net amounts, and all prices and discounts, and shall keep legible copies of all the itemized invoices for 3½ years from the date of sale.

Sec. 18. Minnesota Statutes 1987 Supplement, section 349.2121, subdivision 4a, is amended to read:

Subd. 4a. [REFUND.] If any deal of pull-tabs or tipboards registered with the board and upon which the tax imposed by section 349.212, subdivision 4, has been paid is returned unplayed to the distributor, the commissioner of revenue shall allow a refund of the tax paid.

In the case of a defective deal registered with the board and upon which the taxes have been paid is returned to the manufacturer, the distributor shall submit to the commissioner of revenue certification from the manufacturer that the deal was returned and in what respect it was defective. The certification must be in a form prescribed by the commissioner and must contain additional information the commissioner requires.

The commissioner may require that no refund under this subdivision be made unless the returned pull-tabs or tipboards have been set aside for inspection by the commissioner's employee.

Reductions in previously paid taxes authorized by this subdivision shall be made at the time and in the manner prescribed by the commissioner.

Sec. 19. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 349.2121, subdivision 5, is amended to read:

Subd. 5. [PUBLIC INFORMATION CONFIDENTIAL.] Neither the commissioner nor any other public official or employee may divulge or otherwise make known in any manner any particulars disclosed in any report or return required by this section, or any information concerning the affairs of the distributor making the return acquired from its records, officers, or employees while examining or auditing under the authority of this chapter, except in connection with a proceeding involving taxes due under this chapter. Nothing herein prohibits the commissioner from publishing statistics so classified as not to disclose the identity of particular returns or reports and their contents. Any person violating the provisions of this section is guilty of a gross misdemeanor.

Notwithstanding the provisions of this section, the commissioner may furnish information on a reciprocal basis to the taxing officials of another state or the board in order to implement the purposes of this chapter.

In order to facilitate processing of returns and payments of taxes required by this chapter, the commissioner may contract with outside vendors and may disclose private and nonpublic data to the vendor. The data disclosed must be administered by the vendor consistent with this section. All records concerning the administration of the pull-tab and tipboard taxes are classified as public information.

Sec. 20. Minnesota Statutes 1987 Supplement, section 349.2121, subdivision 10, is amended to read:

Subd. 10. [UNTAXED PULL-TABS OR TIPBOARDS.] It is a gross misdemeanor for any person to possess pull-tabs or tipboards for resale in this state that have not been registered with the board, for which a registration stamp has not been affixed to the flare, and upon which the taxes imposed by section 349.212, subdivision 4, or chapter 297A have not been paid. The executive secretary of the charitable gambling control board or the commissioner of revenue or their designated inspectors and employees may seize in the name of the state of Minnesota any unregistered or untaxed pull-tabs or tipboards.

Sec. 21. Minnesota Statutes 1987 Supplement, section 349.2122, is amended to read:

349.2122 [MANUFACTURERS; REPORTS TO THE COMMISSIONER; PENALTY.]

A manufacturer registered with the board who sells pull-tabs and tipboards to a distributor licensed by the board must file with the commissioner of revenue, on a form prescribed by the commissioner, a report of pull-tabs and tipboards sold to licensed distributors. The report must be filed monthly on or before the 25th day of the month succeeding the month in which the sale was made. Any person violating this section shall be guilty of a misdemeanor.

Sec. 22. Minnesota Statutes 1987 Supplement, section 349.2123, is amended to read:

349.2123 [CERTIFIED PHYSICAL INVENTORY.]

The commissioner of revenue may, upon request, require a pull-tab licensed distributor to furnish a certified physical inventory of the pull-tabs and tipboards in stock. The inventory must contain the information required by the commissioner.

Sec. 23. [349.2125] [CONTRABAND.]

Subdivision 1. [CONTRABAND DEFINED.] The following are contraband:

(1) all pull-tab or tipboard deals that do not have stamps affixed to them as provided in section 349.162;

(2) all pull-tab or tipboard deals in the possession of any unlicensed organization whether stamped or unstamped;

(3) any container used for the storage and display of any contraband pull-tab or tipboard deals as defined in clauses (1) and (2);

(4) any cash drawer, cash register, or any other container used for illegal pull-tab or tipboard transactions including its contents; and

(5) any device including, but not limited to, motor vehicles, trailers, snowmobiles, airplanes, and boats used, with the knowledge of the owner or of a person operating with the consent of the owner, for the storage or transportation of more than five pull-tab or tipboard deals that are contraband under this subdivision. When pull-tabs and tipboards are being transported in the course of interstate commerce, or from one distributor to another, the pull-tab and tipboard deals are not contraband, notwithstanding the provisions of clause (1).

Subd. 2. [SEIZURE.] Pull-tabs or tipboards or other property made contraband by subdivision 1 may be seized by the commissioner of revenue or the executive secretary of the charitable gambling control board or their authorized agents or by any sheriff or other police officer, hereinafter referred to as the seizing authority, with or without process, and shall be subject to forfeiture as provided in subdivisions 3 and 4.

Subd. 3. [INVENTORY; JUDICIAL DETERMINATION; APPEAL; DISPOSITION OF SEIZED PROPERTY.] Within two days after the seizure of any alleged contraband, the person making the seizure shall deliver an inventory of the property seized to the person from whom the property was seized, if known, and file a copy with the commissioner or the executive secretary of the charitable gambling control board. Within ten days after the date of service of the inventory, the person from whom the property was seized or any person claiming an interest in the property may file with the seizing authority a demand for judicial determination of whether the property was lawfully subject to seizure and forfeiture. Within 30 days after the date of filing of the demand, the seizing authority must bring an action in the district court of the county where seizure was made to determine the issue of forfeiture. The action must be brought in the name of the state and be prosecuted by the county attorney or by the attorney general. The court shall hear the action without a jury and determine the issues of fact and laws involved. When a judgment of forfeiture is entered, the seizing authority may, unless the judgment is stayed pending an appeal, either (1) cause the forfeited property to be destroyed; or (2) cause it to be sold at a public auction as provided by law.

If demand for judicial determination is made and no action is commenced as provided in this subdivision, the property must be released by the seizing authority and delivered to the person entitled to it. If no demand is made, the property seized is considered forfeited to the state by operation of law and may be disposed of by the seizing authority as provided where there has been a judgment of forfeiture. When the seizing authority is satisfied that a person from whom property is seized was acting in good faith and without intent to evade the tax imposed by section 349.2121, subdivision 4, the seizing authority shall release the property seized without further legal proceedings.

Subd. 4. [DISPOSAL.] The property described in subdivision 1, clauses (4) and (5), must be confiscated after conviction of the person from whom it was seized, upon compliance with the following procedure: the seizing authority shall file with the court a separate complaint against the property, describing it and charging its use in the specific violation, and specifying substantially the time and place of the unlawful use. A copy of the complaint must be served upon the defendant or person in charge of the property at the time of seizure, if any. If the person arrested is acquitted, the court shall dismiss the complaint against the property and order it returned to the persons legally entitled to it. Upon conviction of the person arrested, the court shall issue an order directed to any person known or believed to have any right, title or interest in, or lien upon, any of the property, and to persons unknown claiming any right, title, interest, or lien in it, describing the property and (1) stating that it was seized and that a complaint against it, charging the specified violation, has been filed with the court, (2) requiring the persons to file with the court administrator their answer to the complaint, setting forth any claim they may have to any right or title to, interest in, or lien upon the property, within 30 days after the service of the order, and (3) notifying them in substance that if they fail to file their answer within the time, the property will be ordered sold by the seizing authority. The court shall cause the order to be served upon any person known or believed to have any right, title, interest, or lien as in the case of a summons in a civil action, and upon unknown persons by publication, as provided for service of summons in a civil action. If no answer is filed within the time prescribed, the court shall, upon affidavit by the court administrator, setting forth the fact, order the property sold by the seizing authority. The proceeds of the sale, after deducting the expense of keeping the property and fees and costs of sale, must be paid into the state treasury and credited to the general fund. If answer is filed within the time provided, the court shall fix a time for a hearing, which shall be not less than ten nor more than 30 days after the time for filing answer expires. At the time fixed for hearing, unless continued for cause, the matter shall be heard and determined by the court, without a jury, as in other civil actions.

If the court finds that the property, or any part of it, was used in the violation specified in the complaint, it shall order the property unlawfully used, sold as provided by law, unless the owner shows to the satisfaction of the court that the owner had no notice or knowledge or reason to believe that the property was used or intended to be used in the violation. The officer making a sale, after deducting the expense of keeping the property, the fee for seizure, and the costs of the sale, shall pay all liens according to their priority, which are established at the hearing as being bona fide and as existing without the lienor having any notice or knowledge that the property was being used or was intended to be used for or in connection with the violation specified in the order of the court, and shall pay the balance of the proceeds into the state treasury to be credited to the general fund. A sale under this section shall free the property sold from any and all liens on it. Appeal from the order of the district court will lie as in other civil cases. At any time after seizure of the articles specified in this subdivision, and before the hearing provided for, the property must be returned to the owner or person having a legal right to its possession, upon execution of a good and valid bond to the state, with corporate surety, in the sum of not less than $100 and not more than double the value of the property seized, to be approved by the court in which the case is triable, or a judge of it, conditioned to abide any order and the judgment of the court, and to pay the full value of the property at the time of the seizure. The seizing authority may dismiss the proceedings outlined in this subdivision when the seizing authority considers it to be in the best interests of the state to do so.

A retailer who does not maintain a place of business within this state shall not be indebted to Minnesota for amounts of use tax which it was required to collect but did not collect unless the retailer knew or had been advised by the commissioner of its obligation to collect the use tax.

Sec. 6. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 297A.21, is amended to read:

297A.21 [REGISTRATION; INFORMATION RELATING TO BUSINESS LOCATION TO COLLECT USE TAX.]

Subdivision 1. Every retailer making retail sales for storage, use or other consumption in Minnesota shall register with the commissioner and give the name and address of all agents operating in Minnesota, the location of all distribution or sales houses, offices or other places of business in Minnesota, and such other information as the commissioner may require. When, in the opinion of the commissioner, it is necessary for the efficient administration of sections 297A.14 to 297A.25 to regard any salesperson, representative, trucker, peddler, or canvasser as the agent of the dealer, distributor, supervisor, employer, or other person under whom that person operates or from whom the person obtains the tangible personal property sold, whether making sales personally or in behalf of such dealer, distributor, supervisor, employer, or other person, the commissioner may regard the salesperson, representative, trucker, peddler, or canvasser as such agent, and may regard the dealer, distributor, supervisor, employer, or other person as a retailer for the purposes of sections 297A.14 to 297A.25.

Subd. 2. [RETAILER MAINTAINING PLACE OF BUSINESS IN MINNESOTA.] "Retailer maintaining a place of business in this state", or any like term, shall mean any retailer having or maintaining within this state, directly or by a subsidiary, an office, distribution house, sales house, warehouse, or other place of business, or any agent operating within this state under the authority of the retailer or its subsidiary, whether such place of business or agent is located in the state permanently or temporarily, or whether or not such retailer or subsidiary is authorized to do business within this state.

Subd. 2. [DESTINATION.] The destination of a sale is the location to which the retailer makes delivery of the property sold, or causes the property to be delivered, to the purchaser of the property, or to the agent or designee of the purchaser by any means of delivery, including the United States Postal Service, a common carrier, or a contract carrier.

Subd. 3. [OUT-OF-STATE RETAILER MAINTAINING PLACE OF BUSINESS IN MINNESOTA.] A retailer making retail sales from outside this state to a destination within this state and maintaining a place of business in this state shall file an application for a permit pursuant to section 297A.04 and shall collect and remit the use tax as provided in section 297A.16.

Subd. 4. [REQUIRED REGISTRATION BY OUT-OF-STATE RETAILER NOT MAINTAINING PLACE OF BUSINESS IN MINNESOTA.] (a) A retailer making retail sales from outside this state to a destination within this state and not maintaining a place of business in this state shall file an application for a permit pursuant to section 297A.04 and shall collect and remit the use tax as provided in section 297A.16 if the retailer engages in the regular or systematic soliciting of sales from potential customers in this state by:

(1) the distribution, by mail or otherwise, without regard to the state from which such distribution originated or in which the materials were prepared, of catalogs, periodicals, advertising flyers, or other written solicitations of business to customers in this state;

(2) display of advertisements on billboards or other outdoor advertising in this state;

(3) advertisements in newspapers published in this state;

(b) The location within or without this state of vendors independent of the retailer which provide products or services to the retailer in connection with its solicitation of customers within this state, including such products and services as creation of copy, printing, distribution, and recording, is not to be taken into account in the determination of whether the retailer is required to collect use tax. Furthermore, paragraph (a) shall be construed without regard to the state from which the distribution of the materials originated or in which they were prepared.

(c) A retailer not maintaining a place of business in this state is presumed, subject to rebuttal, to be engaged in regular solicitation within this state if it engages in any of the activities in paragraph (a) and makes 100 or more retail sales from outside this state to destinations within this state during a period of 12 consecutive months.

(d) A retailer not maintaining a place of business in this state is not required to collect use tax imposed by a local governmental unit or subdivision of this state. This section does not subject a retailer to regulation by a local unit of government or subdivision of this state.

Subd. 5. [VOLUNTARY REGISTRATION BY OUT-OF-STATE RETAILER NOT MAINTAINING PLACE OF BUSINESS IN MINNESOTA.] A retailer making retail sales from outside this state to a destination within this state who is not required to collect and remit use tax may nevertheless voluntarily file an application for a permit pursuant to section 297A.04. If the application is granted, the retailer shall collect and remit the use tax as provided in section 297A.16 until the permit is canceled or revoked.

Subd. 6. [COMMISSIONER'S DISCRETION.] (a) The commissioner may decline to issue a permit to any retailer not maintaining a place of business in this state, or may cancel a permit previously issued to the retailer, if the commissioner believes that the use tax can be collected more effectively from the persons using the property in this state. A refusal to issue or cancellation of a permit on such grounds does not affect the retailer's right to make retail sales from outside this state to destinations within this state.

(b) When, in the opinion of the commissioner, it is necessary for the efficient administration of sections 297A.14 to 297A.25 to regard a salesperson, representative, trucker, peddler, or canvasser as the agent of the dealer, distributor, supervisor, employer, or other person under whom that person operates or from whom the person obtains the tangible personal property sold, whether making sales personally or in behalf of that dealer, distributor, supervisor, employer, or other person the commissioner may regard the salesperson, representative, trucker, peddler, or canvasser as such agent, and may regard the dealer, distributor, supervisor, employer, or other person as a retailer for the purposes of sections 297A.14 to 297A.25.

(1) the tax forgone under this subdivision is used exclusively for the purpose of making capital improvements to public buildings and facilities on the fairgrounds; and

(2) the tax forgone under this subdivision is matched in equal amount by proceeds from special assessments levied against commercial exhibits, concessions and rentals, and from other special user fees specifically designated for capital improvements.

Sec. 16. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 297A.256, is amended to read:

297A.256 [EXEMPTIONS FOR CERTAIN NONPROFIT GROUPS.]

Notwithstanding the provisions of this chapter, the following sales made by a "nonprofit organization" are exempt from the sales and use tax.

(a) (1) All sales made by an organization for fundraising purposes if that organization exists solely for the purpose of providing educational or social activities for young people primarily age 18 and under. This exemption shall apply only if the gross annual sales receipts of the organization from fundraising do not exceed $10,000.

(2) A club, association, or other organization of elementary or secondary school students organized for the purpose of carrying on sports, educational, or other extracurricular activities is a separate organization from the school district or school for purposes of applying the $10,000 limit. This paragraph does not apply if the sales are derived from admission charges or from activities for which the money must be deposited with the school district treasurer under section 123.38, subdivision 2 or be recorded in the same manner as other revenues or expenditures of the school district under section 123.38, subdivision 2b.

(b) All sales made by an organization for fundraising purposes if that organization is a senior citizen group which qualifies for exemption on its purchases pursuant to section 297A.25, subdivision 16. This exemption shall apply only if the gross annual sales receipts of the organization from fundraising do not exceed $10,000.

(c) The gross receipts from the sales of tangible personal property at, admission charges for, and sales of food, meals, or drinks at fundraising events sponsored by a nonprofit organization when the entire proceeds, except for the necessary expenses therewith, will be used solely and exclusively for charitable, religious, or educational purposes. This exemption does not apply to admission charges for events involving bingo or other gambling activities or to charges for use of amusement devices involving bingo or other gambling activities. For purposes of this clause, a "nonprofit organization" means any unit of government, corporation, society, association, foundation, or institution organized and operated for charitable, religious, educational, civic, fraternal, senior citizens' or veterans' purposes, no part of the net earnings of which enures to the benefit of a private individual.

If the profits are not used solely and exclusively for charitable, religious, or educational purposes, the entire gross receipts are subject to tax.

Each nonprofit organization shall keep a separate accounting record, including receipts and disbursements from each fundraising event. All deductions from gross receipts must be documented with receipts and other records. If records are not maintained as required, the entire gross receipts are subject to tax.

The exemption provided by this section does not apply to any sale made by or in the name of a nonprofit corporation as the active or passive agent of a person that is not a nonprofit corporation.

The exemption for fundraising events under this section is limited to no more than 24 days a year. Fundraising events conducted on premises leased or occupied for more than four days but less than 30 days do not qualify for this exemption.

Sec. 17. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 297A.35, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1: A person who has, pursuant to the provisions of this chapter, paid to the commissioner an amount of tax for any period in excess of the amount legally due for that period, may file with the commissioner a claim for a refund of such excess subject to the conditions specified in subdivision 5. Except as provided in subdivision 4 no such claim shall be entertained unless filed within two years after such tax was paid, or within three years from the filing of the return, whichever period is the longer. The commissioner shall examine the claim and make and file written findings thereon denying or allowing the claim in whole or in part and shall mail a notice thereof to such person at the address stated upon the claim. Any allowance shall include interest on the excess determined at a rate specified in section 270.76 from the date such excess was paid or collected until the date it is refunded or credited, unless otherwise specified in this chapter. If such claim is allowed in whole or in part, the commissioner shall credit the amount of the allowance against any taxes under sections 297A.01 to 297A.44 due from the claimant and for the balance of said allowance, if any, the commissioner shall issue a certificate for the refundment of the excess paid, and the commissioner of finance shall cause such refund to be paid out of the proceeds of the taxes imposed by sections 297A.01 to 297A.44, as other state moneys are expended. So much of the proceeds of such taxes as may be necessary are hereby appropriated for that purpose.

Sec. 18. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 329.11, is amended to read:

Such license shall be good for a period of one year from the date of its issuance. The auditor shall keep a record of such licenses in a book provided for that purpose, which shall at all times be open for public inspection. No license shall be issued unless the merchant produces evidence that the merchant is the holder of a valid seller's permit issued under section 297A.04, or a written statement from the merchant that the merchant is not offering for sale any item that is taxable under chapter 297A.

The application shall further contain the applicant's residence and business address for the prior two year period; the type of business engaged in during the previous two years; and the name and address of the auctioneer who will conduct the sale. Prior to the issuance of the license and approval of bond, the applicant shall in writing appoint the county auditor as the applicant's agent to accept service of process in any action commenced against the applicant arising out of the sale for which the license is sought. Such action shall be brought in the county where the sale was held.

CIGARETTE AND LIQUOR TAXES

Section 1. Minnesota Statutes 1987 Supplement, section 297.01, subdivision 7, is amended to read:

Subd. 7. "Distributor" means any and each of the following:

(1) any person engaged in the business of selling cigarettes in this state and who manufactures or who brings, or causes to be brought, into this state from without the state any packages of cigarettes for sale to subjobbers or retailers;

(2) any person who ~~makes, manufactures, or fabricates~~ cigarettes in this state for sale in this state;

(3) any person engaged in the business without this state who ships or transports cigarettes to retailers in this state, to be sold by those retailers;

(4) (3) any person who is on direct purchase from a cigarette manufacturer and applies cigarette stamps or indicia on at least 50 percent of cigarettes sold by that person.

A distributor who also sells at retail must maintain a separate inventory, substantiated with invoices for cigarettes that were acquired for retail sale.

A distributor may transfer another state's stamped cigarettes to another distributor for the purpose of resale in the other state.

Sec. 2. Minnesota Statutes 1987 Supplement, section 297.01, subdivision 14, is amended to read:

Subd. 14. "Subjobber" means any person who acquires stamped cigarettes or other state's stamped cigarettes for the primary purpose of resale to retailers, and any licensed distributor who delivers to and sells or distributes stamped cigarettes from a place of business other than that licensed in the distributor's license. The definition of subjobber does not include the occasional sale of stamped cigarettes from one retailer to another. Notwithstanding the foregoing, "subjobber" shall also mean any person who is a vending machine operator. A vending machine operator is any person whose principal business is operating, or owning and leasing to operators, machines for the vending of merchandise or service.

For the purpose of this section, any subjobber that sells at retail must maintain a separate inventory, substantiated with invoices, that reflect the cigarettes were acquired for retail sale.

Sec. 3. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 297.01, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 15. "Prior continuous compliance taxpayer" means a person who is licensed under section 297.04 and who, having been a licensee for a continuous period of five years, the commissioner determines has not been either delinquent or deficient in the payment of tax liability during that period or otherwise in violation of this chapter. Any taxpayer who has, as verified by the commissioner, continuously complied with the condition of a bond or other security under provisions of this chapter for a period of five consecutive years is considered a "prior continuous compliance taxpayer." A continuous period of time of qualifying compliance immediately prior to August 1, 1988, is credited to any licensee who became licensed on or before that date.

Sec. 4. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 297.03, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 5a. [REVOLVING ACCOUNT.] A heat applied cigarette tax stamp revolving account is created. The commissioner shall use the amounts in this fund to purchase heat applied stamps for resale. The commissioner shall charge the purchasers for the costs of the stamps along with the tax value plus shipping costs. The costs recovered along with shipping costs must be deposited into this revolving account and are available to the commissioner for further purchases and shipping costs. The revolving account must be funded by reducing the stamping discounts allowed in subdivision 5 for the first three months of fiscal year 1989. The stamping discounts are 0.75 percent of the face amount of any stamps purchased in the first three months for the first $1,500,000 of the stamps and 0.50 percent on the remainder of the stamps purchased.

At the end of each of the first three months of fiscal year 1989, the commissioner shall notify the commissioner of finance of the amount of reduced stamping discounts that have accrued to the tobacco tax revenue fund. The commissioner of finance shall then transfer the amounts to the heat applied cigarette tax stamp revolving account from the tobacco tax revenue fund.

Sec. 5. Minnesota Statutes 1987 Supplement, section 297.03, subdivision 6, is amended to read:

Subd. 6. [TAX METER MACHINES.] (4) (a) Before January 1, 1990, the commissioner may authorize any person licensed as a distributor to stamp packages with a tax meter machine, approved by the commissioner, which shall be provided by the distributor. The commissioner may provide for the use of such a machine by the distributor, supervise and check its operation, provide for the payment of the tax on any package so stamped, subject to the discount provided in subdivision 5, and ~~in that connection~~. Except as provided in paragraph (d), the commissioner may require the furnishing of a corporate surety bond, check guarantee bond, or certified check in a suitable amount to guarantee the payment of the tax.

(2) (b) Before January 1, 1990, the commissioner may authorize, and after December 31, 1989, the commissioner shall require any person licensed as a distributor whose stamp meter machine is no longer operational to stamp packages with a heat-applied tax stamping machine, approved by the commissioner, which shall be provided by the distributor. The commissioner shall supervise and check the operation of the machines and shall provide for the payment of the tax on any package so stamped, subject to the discount provided in subdivision 5. The commissioner may sell heat-applied stamps on a credit basis under conditions prescribed by the commissioner, and in that connection. Except as provided in paragraph (d), the commissioner may require the furnishing of a corporate surety bond, check guarantee bond, or certified check in an amount suitable to guarantee payment of the tax stamps so purchased by a distributor. The stamps shall be sold by the commissioner at a price which includes the tax after giving effect to the discount provided in subdivision 5. The commissioner shall recover the actual costs of the stamps from the distributor.

(3) (c) If the commissioner finds that a stamping machine is not printing or affixing a legible stamp on the package, the commissioner may order the distributor to immediately cease the stamping process until the machine is functioning properly.

(d) Every prior continuous compliance taxpayer is exempt from all requirements under this chapter concerning the furnishing of a bond. This exemption continues for the taxpayer until the commissioner determines that the taxpayer (1) is delinquent in the filing of any return, or (2) is delinquent or deficient in the payment of any uncontested tax liability under this chapter. At that time that taxpayer is subject to the bond requirements of this chapter and, as a condition of being allowed to continue to engage in the business licensed under this chapter, is required to furnish bond to the commissioner as provided in this chapter. The taxpayer shall furnish the bond for a period of two years, after which, if the taxpayer has not been delinquent in the filing of any returns, or delinquent or deficient in the paying of any tax under this chapter, the commissioner may reinstate the person as a prior continuous compliance taxpayer. A taxpayer who fails to pay an uncontested tax liability under this chapter may be required to post bond or other acceptable security with the commissioner guaranteeing the payment of the uncontested tax liability. The commissioner on an annual basis shall establish the maximum amount of heat applied stamps or meter units that may be purchased each month. Notwithstanding any other provisions of this chapter, the tax due on the return shall be paid with certified funds and will be based upon actual heat applied stamps or meter units purchased during the reporting period.

Sec. 6. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 297.03, subdivision 12, is amended to read:

Subd. 12. [SETTING OF TAX METERS.] The commissioner may designate the county treasurer of any county or any banking institution as defined by section 48.01, or any banking institution as defined by any states' statutes as the representative of the commissioner in the setting of a tax meter machine of any particular distributor and the collection of the cigarette tax upon such setting. The county treasurer or banking institution so designated shall be required to set tax meter machines following the method prescribed by the commissioner of revenue and to transmit the amount of tax collected and to report the setting of each tax meter to the commissioner on or before the next business day. For purposes of this paragraph, a business day shall not include Saturday. Such duties shall be within the coverage of the official bond of the county treasurer. The commissioner shall prescribe the form and amount of a surety bond which shall be furnished by a banking institution designated pursuant to this subdivision. The commissioner shall have the right to withdraw this designation without cause.

Sec. 7. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 297.041, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [WHOLESALEERS.] Any wholesaler who furnishes a surety bond in a sum satisfactory to the commissioner shall be permitted to set aside, without affixing the stamps required by this chapter, that part of the wholesaler's stock necessary for the conduct of business in making sales to the established governing body of any Indian tribe recognized by the United States Department of Interior. The unstamped stock shall be kept separate and apart from stamped stock. Every wholesaler shall, at the time of shipping or delivering any of the unstamped stock to an Indian tribal organization, make a true duplicate invoice which shall show the complete details of the sale or delivery and shall transmit the duplicate to the commissioner not later than the ~~fifteenth~~ 18th day of the following calendar month. Failure to comply with the requirements of this section shall cause the commissioner to revoke the permission granted to the wholesaler to maintain a stock of goods which may be unstamped. ~~The commissioner may also revoke this permission to maintain a stock of unstamped goods for sale to a specific Indian tribal organization when it appears that sales of unstamped cigarettes to persons who are not enrolled members of a recognized Indian tribe are taking place, or have taken place, within the exterior boundaries of the reservation occupied by that tribe.~~

Sec. 8. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 297.06, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [DISTRIBUTOR TO KEEP RECORDS.] Every distributor shall keep at each licensed place of business complete and accurate records, for that place of business, including itemized invoices, of cigarettes held, purchased, manufactured, or brought in or caused to be brought in from without the state, and of all sales of cigarettes made, except sales to the ultimate consumer. These records shall show the names and addresses of purchasers, the inventory at the close of each period for which a return is required of all cigarettes on hand, and of all stamps, affixed and unaffixed, and other pertinent papers and documents relating to the purchase, sale, or disposition of cigarettes. When a licensed distributor sells cigarettes exclusively to the ultimate consumer at the address given in the license, no invoice of those sales shall be required, but itemized invoices shall be made of all cigarettes transferred to other retail outlets owned or controlled by that licensed distributor. All books, records, and other papers and documents required by sections 297.01 to 297.13 to be kept shall be preserved for a period of at least one year three years after the date of the documents, as aforesaid, or the date of the entries thereof appearing in the records, unless the commissioner, in writing, authorizes their destruction or disposal at an earlier date. At any time during usual business hours the commissioner, or duly authorized agents or employees, may enter any place of business of a distributor, without a search warrant, and inspect the premises, the records required to be kept under sections 297.01 to 297.13, and the packages of cigarettes and the vending devices contained therein, to determine whether or not all the provisions of these sections are being fully complied with. If the commissioner, or any such agent or employee, is denied free access or is hindered or interfered with in making such examination, the license of the distributor at such premises shall be subject to revocation by the commissioner.

Sec. 9. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 297.06, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [DISTRIBUTOR TO PRESERVE COPIES OF INVOICES.] Every person who sells cigarettes to persons other than the ultimate consumer shall render with each sale itemized invoices showing the seller's name and address, the purchaser's name and address, the date of sale, and all prices and discounts and shall preserve legible copies of all such invoices for one year three years from the date of sale.

Sec. 10. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 297.06, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [RETAILER AND SUBJOBBER TO PRESERVE PURCHASE INVOICES.] Every retailer and subjobber shall procure

itemized invoices of all cigarettes purchased. The invoices shall show the name and address of the seller and the date of purchase. The retailer and subjobber shall preserve a legible copy of each such invoice for one year from the date of purchase. Invoices shall be available for inspection by the commissioner or authorized agents or employees at the retailer's or subjobber's place of business.

At any time during normal business hours, the commissioner or the commissioner's agents may enter any place of business of a retailer or subjobber and inspect the premises, the records required to be kept for this subdivision, and the packages of cigarettes, tobacco products, and vending devices contained on the premises to determine whether all provisions of chapter 297 and sections 325D.30 to 325D.40 are being fully complied with.

Sec. 11. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 297.06, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 4. [PHYSICAL INVENTORY.] The commissioner of revenue or the commissioner's authorized agents may, upon request but not more than twice annually, require a cigarette or tobacco distributor to furnish a physical inventory of all cigarettes in stock. The inventory must contain the information that the commissioner requests and must be certified by an officer of the corporation.

Sec. 12. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 297.08, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [CONTRABAND DEFINED.] The following are declared to be contraband:

(1) All packages which do not have stamps affixed to them as provided in sections 297.01 to 297.13 and all devices for the vending of cigarettes in which such unstamped packages are found, including all contents contained within the devices.

(2) Any device for the vending of cigarettes and all packages of cigarettes contained therein, where the device does not afford at least partial visibility of contents. Where any package exposed to view does not carry the stamp or imprint required by sections 297.01 to 297.13, it shall be presumed that all packages contained in the device are unstamped and contraband.

(3) Any device for the vending of cigarettes to which the commissioner or authorized agents have been denied access for the inspection of contents. In lieu of seizure, the commissioner or an agent may seal the device to prevent its use until inspection of contents is permitted.

(4) Any device for the vending of cigarettes which does not carry the name and address of the owner, plainly marked and visible from the front of the machine.

(5) Any device including, but not limited to, motor vehicles, trailers, snowmobiles, airplanes and boats used with the knowledge of the owner or of a person operating with the consent of the owner for the storage or transportation of more than 5,000 cigarettes which are contraband under this subdivision. When cigarettes are being transported in the course of interstate commerce, or are in movement from either a public warehouse to a distributor upon orders from a manufacturer or distributor, or from one distributor to another, the cigarettes are not contraband, notwithstanding the provisions of clause (1).

Sec. 13. Minnesota Statutes 1987 Supplement, section 297.11, subdivision 5, is amended to read:

Subd. 5. [TRANSPORTING UNSTAMPED PACKAGES.] No person shall transport into, or receive, carry, or move from place to place in this state, any packages of cigarettes not stamped in accordance with the provisions of this act except in the course of interstate commerce, unless the cigarettes are moving from a public warehouse to a distributor upon orders from the manufacturer or distributor. This subdivision shall not apply to a person carrying for personal use not more than 200 cigarettes when those cigarettes have had the individual packages or seals thereof broken and are intended for personal use by that person and not to be sold or offered for sale.

Common carriers and contract carriers transporting cigarettes into this state shall file with the commissioner reports of all such shipments other than those which are delivered to public warehouses of first destination in this state which are licensed under the provisions of chapter 231. Such reports shall be filed monthly on or before the 10th day of each month and shall show with respect to deliveries made in the preceding month: the date, point of origin, point of delivery, name of consignee, the quantity of cigarettes delivered and such other information as the commissioner may require.

All common carriers and contract carriers transporting cigarettes into Minnesota shall permit examination by the commissioner of their records relating to the shipment of cigarettes.

Any person who fails or refuses to transmit to the commissioner the required reports or whoever refuses to permit the examination of the records by the commissioner shall be guilty of a gross misdemeanor.

Sec. 14. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 297.12, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [FELONY.] (a) Any person violating section 297.11, subdivision 1, shall be guilty of a felony.

(b) Any person violating section 297.11, subdivisions 2 or 5 by possessing, receiving, or transporting more than 20,000 cigarettes not stamped in accordance with the provisions of sections 297.01 to 297.13 shall be guilty of a felony.

(c) A person selling cigarettes after the person's license has been revoked is guilty of a felony.

Sec. 15. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 297.35, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 10. A manufacturer of tobacco products as defined by section 297.31, shall report on a form prescribed by the commissioner all sales of tobacco products to Minnesota-licensed distributors, subjobbers, retailers, or to any locations within the state. The report is due on the 18th of the month following the reporting period.

Anyone violating this section is guilty of a gross misdemeanor.

Sec. 16. [297.44] [TIME LIMITATIONS.]

Subdivision 1. [TIME FOR ASSESSMENT; NOTICE.] Except as otherwise provided in this chapter, the amount of taxes assessable with respect to a taxable period must be assessed within three years after the return for the period is filed. The taxes are considered assessed within the meaning of this section when the commissioner has prepared a notice of tax assessment and mailed it to the person required to file a return to the post office address given in the return. The record of the mailing is presumptive evidence of the giving of the notice, and the records must be preserved by the commissioner.

Subd. 2. [OMISSION OVER 25 PERCENT.] If the person required to file the return omits from the return a dollar amount properly includable in it that is in excess of 25 percent of the dollar amount reported in the return, the tax may be assessed, or a proceeding in court for the collection of such tax may be begun, at any time within five years after the return was filed.

Subd. 3. [DATE OF FILING.] For purposes of this section and section 297.36, a return filed before the last day prescribed by law for its filing is considered filed on the last day.

Subd. 4. [FRAUD; FAILURE TO FILE.] In the case of a false or fraudulent return with intent to evade tax or failure with the same intent to file a return, the tax may be assessed at any time, and a proceeding in court for the collection of the tax must be begun within five years after the assessment.

Subd. 5. [COLLECTION.] Where the assessment of any tax is made within the period of limitation properly applicable to it, the tax may be collected by a proceeding in court, but only if begun within five years after the date of assessment.

Subd. 6. [SUSPENSION OF TIME; BANKRUPTCY PROCEEDINGS.] The time during which a tax must be assessed or collection proceedings commenced under this chapter is suspended during the period from the date of a filing of a petition in bankruptcy until 30 days after notice to the commissioner of revenue that the bankruptcy proceedings have been closed or dismissed, or that the automatic stay has been terminated or has expired.

The suspension of the statute of limitations under this subdivision applies to the person against whom the petition in bankruptcy is filed, and to all other persons who may be wholly or partially liable for the tax under this chapter.

Sec. 17. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 297C.02, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [TAX CREDIT.] A qualified brewer producing fermented malt beverages is entitled to a tax credit of $4 $4.60 per barrel on 25,000 barrels sold in any fiscal year beginning July 1, regardless of the alcohol content of the product. Qualified brewers may take the credit on the 15th 18th day of each month, but the total credit allowed may not exceed in any fiscal year the lesser of (a) the liability for tax or (b) $100,000 $115,000.

For purposes of this subdivision, a "qualified brewer" means a brewer, whether or not located in this state, manufacturing less than 100,000 barrels of fermented malt beverages in the calendar year immediately preceding the calendar year for which the credit under this subdivision is claimed. In determining the number of barrels, all brands or labels of a brewer must be combined. All facilities for the manufacture of fermented malt beverages owned or controlled by the same person, corporation, or other entity must be treated as a single brewer.

Sec. 18. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 297C.02, subdivision 4, is amended to read:

Subd. 4. [BOTTLE TAX.] A tax of one cent is imposed on each bottle or container of distilled spirits and wine. The wholesaler is responsible for the payment of this tax when the bottles of distilled spirits and wine are removed from inventory for sale, delivery, or shipment.

The following are exempt from the tax:

- (1) miniatures of distilled spirits and wines;
- (2) containers of fermented malt beverage;
- (3) containers of intoxicating liquor or wine holding less than 200 milliliters;
- (4) containers of wine intended exclusively for sacramental purposes;
- (5) containers of alcoholic beverages sold to qualified, approved military clubs;
- (6) containers of alcoholic beverages sold to common carriers engaged in interstate commerce;

ARTICLE 13

TAX INCREMENT FINANCING

Section 1. Minnesota Statutes 1987 Supplement, section 469.174, subdivision 10, is amended to read:

Subd. 10. [REDEVELOPMENT DISTRICT.] (a) "Redevelopment district" means a type of tax increment financing district consisting of a project, or portions of a project, within which the authority finds by resolution that one of the following conditions, reasonably distributed throughout the district, exists:

(1) 70 percent of the parcels in the district are occupied by buildings, streets, utilities, or other improvements and more than 50 percent of the buildings, not including outbuildings, are structurally substandard to a degree requiring substantial renovation or clearance; or

(2) 70 percent of the parcels in the district are occupied by buildings, streets, utilities, or other improvements and 20 percent of the buildings are structurally substandard and an additional 30 percent of the buildings are found to require substantial renovation or clearance in order to remove such existing conditions as: inadequate street layout, incompatible uses or land use relationships, overcrowding of buildings on the land, excessive dwelling unit density, obsolete buildings not suitable for improvement or conversion, or other identified hazards to the health, safety, and general well-being of the community; or

(3) less than 70 percent of the parcels in the district are occupied by buildings, streets, utilities, or other improvements, but due to unusual terrain or soil deficiencies requiring substantial filling, grading, or other physical preparation for use at least 80 percent of the total acreage of such land has a fair market value upon inclusion in the redevelopment district which, when added to the estimated cost of preparing that land for development, excluding costs directly related to roads as defined in section 160.01 and local improvements as described in section 429.021, subdivision 1, clauses 1 to 7, 11 and 12, and 430.01, if any, exceeds its anticipated fair market value after completion of the preparation. No parcel shall be included within a redevelopment district pursuant to this paragraph unless the authority has concluded an agreement or agreements for the development of at least 50 percent of the acreage having the unusual soil or terrain deficiencies, which agreement provides recourse for the authority should the development not be completed the area consists of one or more parcels containing hazardous substances, pollutants or contaminants, as defined in section 115B.02, for which the pollution control agency has determined that removal or clean-up action is necessary and has taken action under section 115B.17 to request the responsible party to take action and has determined that the requested actions will not be taken by a known responsible party in the manner and within the time requested. Additional parcels may be added to the district if necessary to provide a site suitable for development or redevelopment. The parcels containing hazardous substances, pollutants or contaminants must comprise, at least, 75 percent of the district's total area and value; or

(4) the property consists of underutilized air rights existing over a public street, highway, or right-of-way; or

(5) the property consists of vacant, unused, underused, inappropriately used, or infrequently used railyards, rail storage facilities, or excessive or vacated railroad rights-of-way; or

(6) the district consists of an existing or proposed industrial park no greater in size than 250 acres, which contains a sewage lagoon contaminated with polychlorinated biphenyls.

(b) For purposes of this subdivision, "structurally substandard" shall mean containing defects in structural elements or a combination of deficiencies in essential utilities and facilities, light and ventilation, fire protection including adequate egress, layout and condition of interior partitions, or similar factors, which defects or deficiencies are of sufficient total significance to justify substantial renovation or clearance.

Sec. 2. Minnesota Statutes 1987 Supplement, section 469.175, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [TAX INCREMENT FINANCING PLAN.] A tax increment financing plan shall contain:

(1) a statement of objectives of an authority for the improvement of a project;

(2) a statement as to the development program for the project, including the property within the project, if any, that the authority intends to acquire;

(3) a list of any development activities that the plan proposes to take place within the project, for which contracts have been entered into at the time of the preparation of the plan, including the names of the parties to the contract, the activity governed by the contract, the cost stated in the contract, and the expected date of completion of that activity;

(4) identification or description of the type of any other specific development reasonably expected to take place within the project, and the date when the development is likely to occur;

(5) estimates of the following:

(i) cost of the project, including administration expenses;

(ii) amount of bonded indebtedness to be incurred;

(iii) sources of revenue to finance or otherwise pay public costs;

(iv) the most recent assessed value of taxable real property within the tax increment financing district;

(v) the estimated captured assessed value of the tax increment financing district at completion; and

(vi) the duration of the tax increment financing district's existence; and

(6) a statement of the authority's estimate of the impact of tax increment financing on the assessed values of all taxing jurisdictions in which the tax increment financing district is located in whole or in part. For purposes of the statement, the authority shall assume that the estimated captured assessed value would be available to the other taxing jurisdictions without creation of the district;

(7) identification and description of studies and analyses used to make the determination set forth in subdivision 3, clause (2); and

(8) identification of all parcels to be included in the district.

Sec. 3. Minnesota Statutes 1987 Supplement, section 469.175, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 1a. [INCLUSION OF COUNTY ROAD COSTS.] (a) The county board may require the authority to pay all or a portion of the cost of county road improvements out of increment revenues, if the following conditions occur:

(1) the proposed tax increment financing plan or an amendment to the plan contemplates construction of a development that will, in the judgment of the county, substantially increase the usage of county roads requiring construction of road improvements or other road costs; and

(2) the road improvements or other road costs, in the opinion of the county, would not reasonably be expected to be needed within the reasonably foreseeable future if the tax increment financing plan were not implemented.

(b) If the county elects to use increments to finance the road improvements, the county must notify the authority and municipality within 30 days after receipt of the information on the proposed tax increment district under subdivision 2. The notice must include the estimated cost of the road improvements and schedule for construction and payment of the cost. The authority must include the improvements in the tax increment financing plan. The improvements may be financed with the proceeds of tax increment bonds or the authority and the county may agree that the county will finance the improvements with county funds to be repaid in installments, with or without interest, out of increment revenues. If the cost of the road improvements and other project costs exceed the projected amount of the increment revenues, the county and authority shall negotiate an agreement, modifying the development plan or proposed road improvements that will permit financing of the costs before the tax increment financing plan may be approved.

Sec. 4. Minnesota Statutes 1987 Supplement, section 469.175, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [CONSULTATIONS; COMMENT AND FILING.] Before formation of a tax increment financing district, the authority shall provide an opportunity to the members of the county boards of commissioners of any county in which any portion of the proposed district is located and the members of the school board of any school district in which any portion of the proposed district is located to meet with the authority. The authority shall present to the members of the county boards of commissioners and the school boards its estimate of the fiscal and economic implications of the proposed tax increment financing district. The information on the fiscal and economic implications of the plan must be provided to the county and school district boards at least 30 days before the public hearing required by subdivision 3. The 30-day requirement is waived if the county and school district submit written comments on the proposal and any modification of the proposal to the authority after receipt of the information. The members of the county boards of commissioners and the school boards may present their comments at the public hearing on the tax increment financing plan required by subdivision 3. ~~The county auditor shall not certify the original assessed value of a district pursuant to section 469.177, subdivision 1, until the county board of commissioners has presented its written comment on the proposal to the authority, or 30 days has passed from the date of the transmittal by the authority to the board of the information regarding the fiscal and economic implications, whichever occurs first.~~ Upon adoption of the tax increment financing plan, the authority shall file a copy of the plan with the commissioner of energy and economic development. The authority must also file with the commissioner a copy of the development plan for the project area.

Sec. 5. Minnesota Statutes 1987 Supplement, section 469.175, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [MUNICIPALITY APPROVAL.] A county auditor shall not certify the original assessed value of a tax increment financing district until the tax increment financing plan proposed for that district has been approved by the municipality in which the district is located. If an authority that proposes to establish a tax increment financing district and the municipality are not the same, the authority shall apply to the municipality in which the district is proposed to be located and shall obtain the approval of its tax increment financing plan by the municipality before the authority may use tax increment financing. The municipality shall approve the tax increment financing plan only after a public hearing thereon after published notice in a newspaper of general circulation in the municipality at least once not less than ten days nor more than 30 days prior to the date of the hearing. This hearing may be held before or after the approval or creation of the project or it may be held in conjunction with a hearing to approve the project. Before or at the time of approval of the tax increment financing plan, the municipality shall make the following findings, and shall set forth in writing the reasons and supporting facts for each determination:

(1) that the proposed tax increment financing district is a redevelopment district, a mined underground space development district, a housing district, or an economic development district; if the proposed district is a redevelopment district, the reasons and supporting facts for the determination that the district meets the criteria of section 469.174, subdivision 10, clauses (a)(1) to (a)(6), shall be retained and made available to the public by the authority until the district has been terminated. If the authority files the statement of reasons and supporting facts along with the copies of the tax increment financing and development plans that are filed with the commissioner of trade and economic development under subdivision 2, the authority need not retain the statement of facts and supporting reasons beyond the end of the fifth calendar year following the year in which the district or the modifications to the district were approved.

(2) that the proposed development or redevelopment, in the opinion of the municipality, would not reasonably be expected to occur solely through private investment within the reasonably foreseeable future and therefore the use of tax increment financing is deemed necessary.

(3) that the tax increment financing plan conforms to the general plan for the development or redevelopment of the municipality as a whole.

(4) that the tax increment financing plan will afford maximum opportunity, consistent with the sound needs of the municipality as a whole, for the development or redevelopment of the project by private enterprise.

(5) that the municipality elects the method of tax increment computation set forth in section 469.177, subdivision 3, clause (b), if applicable.

When the municipality and the authority are not the same, the municipality shall approve or disapprove the tax increment financing plan within 60 days of submission by the authority, or the plan shall be deemed approved. When the municipality and the authority are not the same, the municipality may not amend or modify a tax increment financing plan except as proposed by the authority pursuant to subdivision 4. Once approved, the determination of the authority to undertake the project through the use of tax increment financing and the resolution of the governing body shall be conclusive of the findings therein and of the public need for the financing.

Sec. 6. Minnesota Statutes 1987 Supplement, section 469.175, subdivision 4, is amended to read:

Subd. 4. [MODIFICATION OF PLAN.] (a) A tax increment financing plan may be modified by an authority, provided that any reduction or enlargement of geographic area of the project or tax increment financing district, increase in amount of bonded indebtedness to be incurred, including a determination to capitalize interest on the debt if that determination was not a part of the original plan, or to increase or decrease the amount of interest on the debt to be capitalized, increase in the portion of the captured assessed value to be retained by the authority, increase in total estimated tax increment expenditures or designation of additional property to be acquired by the authority shall be approved upon the notice and after the discussion, public hearing, and findings required for approval of the original plan; provided that if an authority changes the type of district from housing, redevelopment, or economic development to another type of district, this change shall not be considered a modification but shall require the authority to follow the procedure set forth in sections 469.174 to 469.179 for adoption of a new plan, including certification of the assessed valuation of the district by the county auditor. If a redevelopment district is enlarged, the reasons and supporting facts for the determination that the addition to the district meets the criteria of section 469.174, subdivision 10, clauses (a)(1) to (a)(6), shall be documented. The requirements of this paragraph do not apply if (1) the only modification is elimination of parcels from the project or district and (2)(A) the current assessed value of the parcels eliminated from the district equals or exceeds the assessed value of those parcels in the district's original assessed value or (B) the authority agrees that, notwithstanding section 469.177, subdivision 1, the original assessed value will be reduced by no more than the current assessed value of the parcels eliminated from the district. The authority must notify the county auditor of any modification that reduces or enlarges the geographic area of a district or a project area.

(b) The geographic area of a tax increment financing district may be reduced, but shall not be enlarged after five years following the date of certification of the original assessed value by the county auditor or after August 1, 1984, for tax increment financing districts authorized prior to August 1, 1979, except that development districts created pursuant to Minnesota Statutes 1978, chapter 472A, prior to August 1, 1979, may be reduced but shall not be enlarged after five years following the date of designation of the district.

Sec. 7. Minnesota Statutes 1987 Supplement, section 469.176, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [DURATION OF TAX INCREMENT FINANCING DISTRICTS.] (a) Subject to the limitations contained in paragraphs (b) to (f), any tax increment financing district as to which bonds are outstanding, payment for which the tax increment and other revenues have been pledged, shall remain in existence at least as long as the bonds continue to be outstanding.

(b) The tax increment pledged to the payment of the bonds and interest thereon may be discharged and the tax increment financing district may be terminated if sufficient funds have been irrevocably deposited in the debt service fund or other escrow account held in trust for all outstanding bonds to provide for the payment of the bonds at maturity or date of redemption and interest thereon to the maturity or redemption date.

(c) For bonds issued pursuant to section 469.178, subdivisions 2 and 3, the full faith and credit and any taxing powers of the municipality or authority shall continue to be pledged to the payment of the bonds until the principal of and interest on the bonds has been paid in full.

(d) No tax increment shall be paid to an authority for a tax increment financing district after three years from the date of certification of the original assessed value of the taxable real property in the district by the county auditor or after August 1, 1982, for tax increment financing districts authorized prior to August 1, 1979, unless within the three-year period (1) bonds have been issued pursuant to section 469.178, or in aid of a project pursuant to any other law, except revenue bonds issued pursuant to sections 469.152 to 469.165, prior to August 1, 1979, or (2) the authority has acquired property within the district, or (3) the authority has constructed or caused to be constructed public improvements within the district.

(e) No tax increment shall in any event be paid to the authority from a redevelopment district after 25 years from date of receipt by the authority of the first tax increment, after 25 years from the date of the receipt for a housing district, after 25 years from the date of the receipt for a mined underground space development district, and after eight years from the date of the receipt, or ten years from approval of the tax increment financing plan, whichever is less, for an economic development district.

For tax increment financing districts created prior to August 1, 1979, no tax increment shall be paid to the authority after August 1, 2004, or the term of a nondefeased bond outstanding on April 1, 1988, secured by increments from the district or project area, whichever time is greater, but in no case after 30 years from August 1, 1979.

(f) Modification of a tax increment financing plan pursuant to section 469.175, subdivision 4, shall not extend the durational limitations of this subdivision.

Sec. 8. Minnesota Statutes 1987 Supplement, section 469.176, subdivision 4, is amended to read:

Subd. 4. [LIMITATION ON USE OF TAX INCREMENT.] (a) All revenues derived from tax increment shall be used in accordance with the tax increment financing plan. The revenues shall be used solely for the following purposes: (1) to pay the principal of and interest on bonds issued to finance a project; (2) by a rural development financing authority for the purposes stated in section 469.142, by a port authority or municipality exercising the powers of a port authority to finance or otherwise pay the cost of redevelopment pursuant to sections 469.048 to 469.068, by an economic development authority to finance or otherwise pay the cost of redevelopment pursuant to sections 469.090 to 469.108, by a housing and redevelopment authority or economic development authority to finance or otherwise pay public redevelopment costs pursuant to sections 469.001 to 469.047, by a municipality or economic development authority to finance or otherwise pay the capital and administration costs of a development district pursuant to sections 469.124 to 469.134, by a municipality or redevelopment agency to finance or otherwise pay premiums for insurance or other security guaranteeing the payment when due of principal of and interest on the bonds pursuant to chapter 462C, sections 469.152 to 469.165, or both, or to accumulate and maintain a reserve securing the payment when due of the principal of and interest on the bonds pursuant to chapter 462C, sections 469.152 to 469.165, or both, which revenues in the reserve shall not exceed, subsequent to the fifth anniversary of the date of issue of the first bond issue secured by the reserve, an amount equal to 20 percent of the aggregate principal amount of the outstanding and nondefeased bonds secured by the reserve. Tax increments may be used to pay county road costs as provided in section 469.175, subdivision 1a. Revenue derived from tax increment from a mined underground space development district may be used only to pay for the costs of excavating and supporting the space, of providing public access to the mined underground space including roadways, and of installing utilities including fire sprinkler systems in the space.

(b) All of the increment revenues derived from a district, classified as a housing district, must be used to finance the cost of housing projects as defined in section 469.174, subdivision 11. The cost of public improvements directly related to the housing projects and the allocated administrative expenses of the authority may be included in the cost of a housing project. A mixed use project does not qualify as a housing project for purposes of this paragraph if the fair market value of the improvements which are constructed for commercial or other non-low and moderate income housing uses consists of more than 25 percent of the total fair market value of the planned improvements in the development plan or agreement. The fair market value of the improvements may be determined using the cost of construction, capitalized income, or other appropriate method of estimating market value.

(c) Revenues derived from tax increment may be used to finance the costs of an interest reduction program operated pursuant to section 469.012, subdivisions 7 to 10, or pursuant to other law granting interest reduction authority and power by reference to those subdivisions only under the following conditions: (1) tax increments may not be collected for a program for a period in excess of 12 years after the date of the first interest rate reduction payment for the program, (2) tax increments may not be used for an interest reduction program, if the proceeds of bonds issued pursuant to section 469.178 after December 31, 1985, have been or will be used to provide financial assistance to the specific project which would receive the benefit of the interest reduction program, and (3) tax increments may not be used to finance an interest reduction program for owner-occupied single-family dwellings.

(e) (d) These revenues shall not be used to circumvent existing levy limit law. No revenues derived from tax increment from any district, whether certified before or after August 1, 1979, shall be used for the construction or, renovation, operation, or maintenance of a municipally owned building used, or for the acquisition of a building to be used, primarily and regularly for conducting the business of the a municipality, county, school district, or any other local unit of government or the state or federal government. This provision shall not prohibit the use of revenues derived from tax increments for the construction or renovation of a parking structure, a commons area used as a public park, or a facility used for social, recreational, or conference purposes and not primarily for conducting the business of the municipality.

Sec. 9. Minnesota Statutes 1987 Supplement, section 469.176, subdivision 6, is amended to read:

Subd. 6. [ACTION REQUIRED.] (a) If, after four years from the date of certification of the original assessed value of the tax increment financing district pursuant to section 469.177, no demolition, rehabilitation, or renovation of property or other site preparation, including but excluding improvement of a street adjacent to a parcel but not and installation of utility service including sewer or water systems, has been commenced on a parcel located within a tax increment financing district by the authority or by the owner of the parcel in accordance with the tax increment financing plan, no additional tax increment may be taken from that parcel, and the original assessed value of that parcel shall be excluded from the original assessed value of the tax increment financing district. If the authority or the owner of the parcel subsequently commences demolition, rehabilitation, or renovation or other site preparation on that parcel including improvement of a street adjacent to that parcel, in accordance with the tax increment financing plan, the authority shall certify to the county auditor that the activity has commenced, and the county auditor shall certify the assessed value thereof as most recently certified by the commissioner of revenue and add it to the original assessed value of the tax increment financing district. The county auditor must enforce the provisions of this subdivision. The authority must submit to the county auditor evidence that the required activity has taken place for each parcel in the district. The evidence for a parcel must be submitted by February 1 of the fifth year following the year in which the parcel was certified as included in the district.

(b) This subdivision applies to all tax increment projects and districts, whether created before or after August 1, 1979. The subdivision applies to projects and districts created before August 1, 1979, as follows. The four-year period is deemed to begin April 1, 1988. The authority must submit the evidence of activity or improvements for each parcel to the county auditor, as required by paragraph (a), by June 1, 1992. In the case of a district or a portion of a district for which no tax increment financing plan has been prepared, improvements are deemed to have been commenced "in accordance with the tax increment financing plan" when one of the following conditions is met, regardless of whether the condition or activity occurred before or after April 1, 1988:

(1) acquisition or improvement of the parcel was financed by the authority with increments, the proceeds of tax increment bonds or other authority funds, but excluding general city revenues or special assessments, after the inclusion of the parcel in the district;

(2) public improvements, excluding sewer and water improvements, were installed or constructed on the parcel or on land adjacent to the parcel after inclusion of the parcel in the district and the improvements were financed with increments, the proceeds of tax increment bonds or other authority funds, but excluding general city revenues or special assessments;

(3) construction of the improvements occurred on the parcel and the municipality passes a resolution stating that the improvements or other improvements of approximately equal (or greater) market value would not have occurred if the authority had not undertaken efforts of the type specified in clause (1) or (2) on other parcels in the district.

(c) In the case of tax increment projects for which certification was requested before August 1, 1979, and for which nondefeased bonds are outstanding on April 1, 1988, the provisions of paragraphs (a) and (b) apply as specified in this paragraph. Increments shall continue to be collected from parcels that fail to meet the requirements of paragraphs (a) and (b). The authority or other administering entity shall deposit these increments in a separate account in the debt service or other bond fund to defease bonds outstanding on April 1, 1988, for the project. The amount of funds in the separate account are pledged to payment of the bonds and for restoration of any reserve therefor, but may not be deducted from any other tax increments or other revenues derived from the project which are otherwise required to be deposited in the regular debt service fund

(including a reserve therefor) under the bond resolution, indenture, or other contract. When the sum of the amount in the regular debt service fund and the separate account are sufficient to fully defease the bonds outstanding on April 1, 1988, or when such bonds are fully defeased or paid by refunding or otherwise, increments may no longer be collected from a parcel that does not satisfy the requirements of paragraphs (a) and (b).

Sec. 10. Minnesota Statutes 1987 Supplement, section 469.177, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [ORIGINAL ASSESSED VALUE.] Upon or after adoption of a tax increment financing plan, the auditor of any county in which the district is situated shall, upon request of the authority, certify the original assessed value of the tax increment financing district as described in the tax increment financing plan and shall certify in each year thereafter the amount by which the original assessed value has increased or decreased as a result of a change in tax exempt status of property within the district, reduction or enlargement of the district or changes pursuant to subdivision 4. In the case of a mined underground space development district the county auditor shall certify the original assessed value as zero, plus the assessed value, if any, previously assigned to any subsurface area included in the mined underground space development district pursuant to section 272.04. If property classified as agricultural land or vacant land under section 273.13, subdivision 23, is included within a tax increment district, the original assessed value of that property shall be redetermined at the time when its use is changed as if the property had originally been classified in the same class in which it is classified after its use is changed. The amount to be added to the original assessed value of the district as a result of previously tax exempt real property within the district becoming taxable shall be equal to the assessed value of the real property as most recently assessed pursuant to section 273.18 or, if that assessment was made more than one year prior to the date of title transfer rendering the property taxable, the value assessed by the assessor at the time of the transfer. The amount to be added to the original assessed value of the district as a result of enlargements thereof shall be equal to the assessed value of the added real property as most recently certified by the commissioner of revenue as of the date of modification of the tax increment financing plan pursuant to section 469.175, subdivision 4. If the assessed value of a property increases because the property no longer qualifies under the Minnesota agricultural property tax law, section 273.111; the Minnesota open space property tax law, section 273.112; or the metropolitan agricultural preserves act, chapter 473H, the increase in assessed value must be added to the original assessed value. Each year the auditor shall also add to the original assessed value of each economic development district an amount equal to the original assessed value for the preceding year multiplied by the average percentage increase in the assessed valuation of all property included in the economic development district during the five years prior to certification of the district. The amount to be subtracted from the original assessed value of the district as a result of previously taxable real property within the district becoming tax exempt, or a reduction in the geographic area of the district, shall be the amount of original assessed value initially attributed to the property becoming tax exempt or being removed from the district. If the assessed value of property located within the tax increment financing district is reduced by reason of a court-ordered abatement, stipulation agreement, voluntary abatement made by the assessor or auditor or by order of the commissioner of revenue, the reduction shall be applied to the original assessed value of the district when the property upon which the abatement is made has not been improved since the date of certification of the district and to the captured assessed value of the district in each year thereafter when the abatement relates to improvements made after the date of certification. The county auditor may specify reasonable form and content of the request for certification of the authority and any modification thereof pursuant to section 469.175, subdivision 4.

Sec. 11. Minnesota Statutes 1987 Supplement, section 469.177, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 1a. [ORIGINAL MILL RATE.] (a) At the time of the initial certification of the original assessed value for a tax increment financing district, the county auditor shall certify the original mill rate that applies to the district. The original mill rate is the sum of all the mill rates that apply to a property in the district for the taxes payable in the calendar year in which the initial certification of original assessed value is requested under subdivision 1. If the total mill rate applicable to properties in the tax increment financing district varies, the mill rate must be computed by determining the average total mill rate in the district, weighted on the basis of assessed value. The resulting mill rate is the original mill rate for the life of the district.

(b) In the case of districts certified during calendar year 1988, the original mill rate equals the amount calculated under paragraph (a) multiplied by 0.45.

Sec. 12. Minnesota Statutes 1987 Supplement, section 469.177, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [TAX INCREMENT, RELATIONSHIP TO CHAPTER 473F.] (a) Unless the governing body elects pursuant to clause (b) the following method of computation shall apply:

(1) The original assessed value and the current assessed value shall be determined before the application of the fiscal disparity provisions of chapter 473F. Where the original assessed value is equal to or greater than the current assessed value, there is no captured assessed value and no tax increment determination. Where the original assessed value is less than the current assessed value, the difference between the original assessed value and the current assessed value is the captured assessed value. This amount less any portion thereof which the authority has designated, in its tax increment financing plan, to share with the local taxing districts is the retained captured assessed value of the authority.

(2) The county auditor shall exclude the retained captured assessed value of the authority from the taxable value of the local taxing districts in determining local taxing district mill rates. The mill rates so determined are to be extended against the retained captured assessed value of the authority as well as the taxable value of the local taxing districts. The tax generated by the extension of the lesser of (A) the local taxing district mill rates or (B) the original mill rate to the retained captured assessed value of the authority is the tax increment of the authority.

(b) The governing body may, by resolution approving the tax increment financing plan pursuant to section 469.175, subdivision 3, elect the following method of computation:

(1) The original assessed value shall be determined before the application of the fiscal disparity provisions of chapter 473F. The current assessed value shall exclude any fiscal disparity commercial-industrial assessed value increase between the original year and the current year multiplied by the fiscal disparity ratio determined pursuant to section 473F.08, subdivision 6. Where the original assessed value is equal to or greater than the current assessed value, there is no captured assessed value and no tax increment determination. Where the original assessed value is less than the current assessed value, the difference between the original assessed value and the current assessed value is the captured assessed value. This amount less any portion thereof which the authority has designated, in its tax increment financing plan, to share with the local taxing districts is the retained captured assessed value of the authority.

(2) The county auditor shall exclude the retained captured assessed value of the authority from the taxable value of the local taxing districts in determining local taxing district mill rates. The mill rates so determined are to be extended against the retained captured assessed value of the authority as well as the taxable value of the local taxing districts. The tax generated by the extension of the lesser of (A) the local taxing district mill rates or (B) the original mill rate to the retained captured assessed value of the authority is the tax increment of the authority.

(3) An election by the governing body pursuant to part (b) shall be submitted to the county auditor by the authority at the time of the request for certification pursuant to subdivision 1.

(c) The method of computation of tax increment applied to a district pursuant to clause (a) or (b) shall remain the same for the duration of the district.

Sec. 13. Minnesota Statutes 1987 Supplement, section 469.177, subdivision 4, is amended to read:

Subd. 4. [PRIOR PLANNED IMPROVEMENTS.] The authority shall, after diligent search, accompany its request for certification to the county auditor pursuant to subdivision 1, or its notice of district enlargement pursuant to section 469.175, subdivision 4, with a listing of all properties within the tax increment financing district or area of enlargement for which building permits have been issued during the 18 months immediately preceding approval of the tax increment financing plan by the municipality pursuant to section 469.175, subdivision 3. The county auditor shall increase the original assessed value of the district by the assessed valuation of the improvements each improvement for which a building permit was issued, excluding the assessed valuation of improvements for which a building permit was issued during the three-month period immediately preceding said approval of the tax increment financing plan, as certified by the assessor.

Sec. 14. Minnesota Statutes 1987 Supplement, section 469.177, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 9. [DISTRIBUTIONS OF EXCESS TAXES ON CAPTURED VALUE.] (a) If the amount of tax paid on captured value exceeds the amount of tax increment, the county auditor shall distribute the excess to the municipality, county, and school district as follows: each governmental unit's share of the excess equals

(1) the total amount of the excess for the tax increment financing district, multiplied by

(2) a fraction, the numerator of which is the current mill rate of the governmental unit less the governmental unit's mill rate for the year the original mill rate for the district was certified (in no case may this amount be less than zero) and the denominator of which is the sum of the numerators for the municipality, county, and school district.

If the entire increase in the mill rate is attributable to a taxing district, other than the municipality, county, or school district, then the excess must be distributed to the municipality, county, and school district in proportion to their respective mill rates.

(b) The amounts distributed shall be deducted in computing the levy limits of the taxing district for the succeeding taxable year.

(c) In the case of distributions to a school district, the county auditor shall report amounts distributed to the commissioner of education in the same manner as provided for excess increments under section 469.176, subdivision 2, and the distribution shall be treated as an excess increment for purposes of section 124.214, subdivision 3.

Sec. 15. Minnesota Statutes 1987 Supplement, section 469.177, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 10. [PAYMENT TO SCHOOL FOR REFERENDUM LEVY.] The provisions of this subdivision apply to tax increment financing districts and projects for which certification was requested before March 17, 1988, that are located in a school district in which the voters have approved new millage or an increase in millage after the tax increment financing district was certified (1) if there are no outstanding bonds on April 1, 1988, to which increment from the district is pledged, or (2) if the referendum is approved after April 1, 1988, and there are no bonds outstanding at the time the referendum is approved, that were issued on or before April 1, 1988, or (3) if the referendum increasing the mill rate was approved after the most recent issue of bonds to which increment from the district is pledged. If clause (1) or (2) applies, the authority must annually pay to the school district an amount of increment equal to the increment that is attributable to the increase in the mill rate under the referendum. If clause (3) applies, upon approval by a majority vote of the governing body of the municipality and the school board, the authority must pay to the school district an amount of increment equal to the increment that is attributable to the increase in the mill rate under the referendum. The amounts of these increments may be expended and must be treated by the school district in the same manner as provided for the revenues derived from the referendum levy approved by the voters.

Sec. 16. [BONDING AUTHORITY; HENNEPIN COUNTY MEDICAL BUILDING.]

Hennepin county may issue and sell not more than $16,000,000 of general obligation bonds to finance or refinance the construction and purchase of the Hennepin county health services building. Issuance of the obligations is not subject to the election requirements of Minnesota Statutes, section 475.58.

Sec. 17. [EFFECTIVE DATE.]

Sections 1 to 5; 8, paragraphs (a) and (b); and 10 to 14 are effective for districts for which the request for certification was filed with the county after March 17, 1988. Sections 6, 7, 9, and 15 are effective April 1, 1988, except section 9's exclusion of street improvements from qualification under Minnesota Statutes 1987 Supplement, section 469.176, subdivision 6, paragraph (a) is effective for districts for which the request for certification was filed with the county after March 17, 1988. Section 8, paragraph (d), is effective for expenditures after June 30, 1988, except to the extent that the authority had entered into a binding contract before July 1, 1988, to make expenditures prohibited by that section. Notwithstanding the preceding, sections 7, 9, 11, 12, 13, and 15 do not apply to a district approved under Minnesota Statutes, section 469.175, subdivision 3, before December 31, 1988, if tax increments from the district are to be used to finance part of a hotel, parking facility, and conference center project for which requests for proposals were approved by the city council on June 22, 1987. Section 16 is effective upon compliance by the Hennepin county board with Minnesota Statutes, section 645.021.

16A.1541 [ADDITIONAL REVENUES; PRIORITY.]

If on the basis of a forecast of general fund revenues and expenditures the commissioner of finance determines that there will be a positive unrestricted budgetary general fund balance at the close of the biennium, the commissioner of finance must allocate money in the following order of priority:

(1) the amount necessary to reduce the property tax levy recognition percent under section 121.904, subdivision 4e, to 24 percent;

(2) the remainder (i) one-half to the greater Minnesota fund, but not to exceed $120,000,000 and (ii) one-half the amount of the unrestricted balance to the budget and cash flow reserve account until the total amount in the account equals $550,000,000.

Sec. 3. [EFFECTIVE DATE.]

Section 1 is effective July 1, 1988. Section 2 is effective the day following final enactment.

Sec. 5. [270.068] [TAX INFORMATION SAMPLE DATA.]

Subdivision 1. [PREPARATION OF SAMPLE.] The commissioner of revenue shall annually prepare a microdata sample of income tax returns and other information useful for purposes of (1) estimating state revenues, (2) simulating the effect of changes or proposed changes in state and federal tax law on the amount of state revenues, and (3) analyzing the incidence of present or proposed taxes.

Subd. 2. [COORDINATING COMMITTEE.] A coordinating committee is established to oversee and coordinate preparation of the microdata sample. ations involved in mining taconite and iron ore and producing iron ore concentrate and for the purpose of promoting the economic development of northeast Minnesota. The taconite environmental protection fund shall be used for the following purposes:

(a) to initiate investigations into matters the iron range resources and rehabilitation board determines are in need of study and which will determine the environmental problems requiring remedial action;

(b) reclamation, restoration or reforestation of minelands not otherwise provided for by state law;

(c) local economic development projects including construction of sewer and water systems, and other public works located within a tax relief area defined in section 273.134;

(d) monitoring of mineral industry related health problems among mining employees.

Subd. 2. [ADMINISTRATION.] The taconite environmental protection fund shall be administered by the commissioner of the iron range resources and rehabilitation board. The commissioner shall by September 1 of each year prepare a list of projects to be funded from the taconite environmental protection fund, with such supporting information including description of the projects, plans, and cost estimates as may be necessary. Upon recommendation of the iron range resources and rehabilitation board, this list shall be submitted to the legislative advisory commission for its review. This list with the recommendation of the legislative advisory commission shall then be transmitted to the governor by November 1 of each year. By December 1 of each year, the governor shall approve or disapprove, or return for further consideration, each individual project. Funds for a project may be expended only upon approval of the project by the governor.

The commissioner may submit supplemental projects for approval at any time. Supplemental projects approved by the board must be submitted to the members of the legislative advisory commission for their review and recommendations of further review. If a recommendation is not provided within ten days, no further review by the legislative advisory commission is required, and the governor shall approve or disapprove each project or return it for further consideration. If the recommendation by any member is for further review, the governor shall submit the request to the legislative advisory commission for its review and recommendation. Sec. 14. [424A.10] [STATE SUPPLEMENTAL BENEFIT; VOLUNTEER FIREFIGHTERS.]

Subdivision 1. [DEFINITION.] For purposes of this section, "qualified recipient" means an individual who receives an involuntary lump sum distribution of pension or retirement benefits from a firefighters' relief association for service performed as a volunteer firefighter.

Subd. 2. [PAYMENT OF SUPPLEMENTAL BENEFIT.] Upon the payment by a firefighters' relief association of an involuntary lump sum distribution to a qualified recipient, the association must pay a supplemental benefit to the qualified recipient. Notwithstanding any law to the contrary, the relief association may pay the supplemental benefit out of its special fund. The amount of this benefit equals ten percent of the regular involuntary lump sum distribution that is paid on the basis of service as a volunteer firefighter. In no case may the amount of the supplemental benefit exceed $1,000.

Subd. 3. [STATE REIMBURSEMENT.] By February 15 of each year, the relief association shall apply to the commissioner of revenue for state reimbursement of the amount of supplemental benefits paid under subdivision 2 during the preceding calendar year. By March 15 the commissioner shall reimburse the relief association for the amount of the supplemental benefits paid to qualified recipients. The commissioner of revenue shall prescribe the form of and supporting information that must be supplied as part of the application for state reimbursement. The reimbursement payment must be deposited in the special fund of the relief association.

Subd. 4. [IN LIEU OF INCOME TAX EXCLUSION.] The supplemental benefit provided by this section is in lieu of the state income tax exclusion for involuntary lump sum distributions of retirement benefits paid to volunteer firefighters. If the law is modified to exclude or exempt volunteer firefighters' lump sum distributions from state income taxation, the supplemental benefits under this section may no longer be paid beginning with the first calendar year in which the exclusion or exemption is effective.

Sec. 15. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 473.843, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [DISPOSITION OF PROCEEDS.] After reimbursement to the department of revenue for costs incurred in administering this section, the proceeds of the fees imposed under this section, including interest and penalties, must be deposited as follows:

(1) Liens, claims, or rights arising or existing under the laws or the constitution of the United States, which this state cannot require to appear of record;

TRANSPORTATION	($40,873)	($0-)

The commissioner of transportation shall implement this appropriation reduction by restoring to the general fund an amount equal to any amount of general fund source funding encumbered under “sole source” contracts for consultant and legal-related services relating to highway finance options which remained unliquidated when the department’s efforts under those contracts were “discontinued” by the department in February of 1988. If that amount is insufficient to implement the entire reduction, the commissioner shall reduce the commissioner’s compensation and travel budget for the biennium in an amount sufficient to make the reduction complete. The commissioner’s implementation of this reduction may not cause the suspension or elimination of any activity funded from the trunk highway fund, nor cause a reduction in the trunk highway fund balance.

Sec. 15. [TRUNK HIGHWAY FUND; LIMITATION ON USE BY COMMISSIONER.]

Under no circumstances may the commissioner authorize an expenditure from the trunk highway fund for services to be provided by a "sole source" vendor if the vendor also administers funds for political action groups or if any partner or officer of the vendor has contributed in excess of $200 to any single political candidate unless notice of intent to let the contract was actually published in some statewide publication at least three weeks prior to the contract being let."

(5) In each calendar year during the period in which state senators serve a two-year term, 35 percent each for the offices of state senator and state representative;

(6) To assure that moneys will be returned to the counties from which they were collected, and to assure that the distribution of those moneys rationally relates to the support for particular parties or for particular candidates within legislative districts, moneys from the party accounts for legislative candidates shall be distributed as follows:

Each candidate for the state senate and state house of representatives whose name is to appear on the ballot in the general election shall receive money from the candidate's party account set aside for candidates of the state senate or state house of representatives, whichever applies, according to the following formula:

For each county within the candidate's district the candidate's share of the dollars allocated in that county to the candidate's party account and set aside for that office shall be:

(a) The sum of the votes cast in the last general election in that part of the county in the candidate's district for all candidates of that candidate's party (i) whose names appeared on the ballot in each voting precinct of the state and (ii) for the state senate and state house of representatives, divided by

(b) The sum of the votes cast in that county in the last general election for all candidates of that candidate's party (i) whose names appeared on the ballot in each voting precinct in the state and (ii) for the state senate and state house of representatives, multiplied by

(c) The amount in the candidate's party account allocated in that county and set aside for the candidates for the office for which the candidate is running.

The sum of all the county shares calculated in the formula above is the candidate's share of the candidate's party account.

In a year in which an election for the state senate occurs, with respect to votes for candidates for the state senate only, "last general election" means the last general election in which an election for the state senate occurred.

For any party under whose name no candidate's name appeared on the ballot in each voting precinct in the state in the last general election, amounts in the party's account shall be allocated based on (a) the number of people voting in the last general election in that part of the county in the candidate's district, divided by (b) the number of the people voting in that county in the last general election, multiplied by (c) the amount in the candidate's party account allocated in that county and set aside for the candidates for the office for which the candidate is running.

The average vote shall be added to the sums in clauses (a) and (b) before the calculation is made for all districts in the county.

Money from a party account not distributed to candidates for state senator and representative in any election year shall be returned to the general fund of the state. Money from a party account not distributed to candidates for other offices in an election year shall be returned to the party account for reallocation to candidates as provided in clauses (1) to (6) of this subdivision in the following year. (2) 16 $\frac{2}{3}$ percent for the office of United States senator for which an election will be held in 1994 and every six years afterward;

(3) 67 $\frac{2}{3}$ percent for the offices of representative in congress.

Sec. 23. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 10A.31, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 5a. [FORMULA FOR DISTRIBUTION TO LEGISLATIVE CANDIDATES.] (a) To assure that money will be returned to the counties from which it was collected, and to assure that the distribution of money rationally relates to the support for particular parties or for particular candidates within legislative districts, money from the party accounts for legislative candidates must be distributed under this subdivision.

A candidate for the state senate and state house of representatives whose name is to appear on the ballot in the general election must receive money from the candidate's party account set aside for candidates of the state senate or state house of representatives, whichever applies, according to the following formula.

For each county within the candidate's district the candidate's share of the dollars allocated in that county to the candidate's party account and set aside for that office must be:

(1) the sum of the votes cast in the last general election in that part of the county in the candidate's district for all candidates of the candidate's party (i) whose names appeared on the ballot in each voting precinct of the state and (ii) for the state senate and state house of representatives, divided by

(2) the sum of the votes cast in that county in the last general election for all candidates of the candidate's party (i) whose names appeared on the ballot in each voting precinct in the state and (ii) for the state senate and state house of representatives, multiplied by

(3) the amount in the candidate's party account allocated in that county and set aside for the candidates for the office the candidate is seeking.

The sum of all the county shares calculated in the formula in this paragraph is the candidate's share of the candidate's party account.

(b) With respect to the formula in paragraph (a), the terms "last general election" and the "candidate's district" have the following meanings:

(1) In a year in which an election for the state senate occurs, with respect to votes for candidates for the state senate only, "last general election" means the last general election in which an election for the state senate occurred.

(2) For any party under whose name no candidate's name appeared on the ballot in each voting precinct in the state in the last general election, "last general election" means the last general election in which the name of a candidate of that party appeared on the ballot in each voting precinct in the state.

(3) In a year in which the first election after a legislative reapportionment is held, "the candidate's district" means the newly drawn district, and voting data from the last general election will be applied to the area encompassing the newly drawn district even though the area was in a different district in the last general election.

(c) If in a district there was no candidate of a party for the state senate or state house of representatives in the last general election, or if a candidate for the state senate or state house of representatives was unopposed, the vote for that office for that party must be the average vote of all the remaining candidates of that party in each county of that district whose votes are included in the sums in paragraph (a), clauses (1) and (2). The average vote must be added to the sums in paragraph (a), clauses (1) and (2) before the calculation is made for all districts in the county.

S. F. No. 1632 was reported to the House.

Bennett moved to amend S. F. No. 1632, as follows:

Delete everything after the enacting clause and insert:

“Section 1. [LEGISLATIVE FINDINGS.]

The legislature finds that the lands and waters of Ramsey county are great natural resources; that as a result of erosion of lands and sediment deposition in waters of the region, waters are being polluted and despoiled to a degree that fish, aquatic life, recreation, and other uses of lands and waters are being adversely affected; that the rapid shift in land use from agricultural to nonagricultural uses has accelerated the processes of soil erosion and sedimentation. Implementation of the metropolitan surface water planning act in Ramsey county requires a coordinated effort in that county, and the state of Minnesota may benefit from a pilot program within that county. The legislature further finds it is necessary to establish and implement through the soil and water conservation district in cooperation with water management organizations, cities, towns, and other public and private entities in that county, a county-wide coordinated erosion and sediment control pilot program to conserve and to protect the land, water, and other natural resources of Ramsey county.

Sec. 2. [DEFINITIONS.]

Subdivision 1. [APPLICABILITY.] The definitions in this section apply to sections 1 to 4.

Subd. 2. [CONSERVATION SPECIFICATIONS.] “Conservation specifications” means management procedures, techniques, and methods to control soil erosion and sedimentation.

Subd. 3. [DISTRICT.] “District” means the soil and water conservation district operating under Minnesota Statutes, chapter 40.

Subd. 4. [LAND DISTURBANCE ACTIVITY.] “Land disturbance activity” means land change that may result in soil erosion from water or wind and the movement of sediments into or upon waters or lands of Ramsey county, including clearing, grading, excavating, transporting, and filling of land. Land disturbance activity does not mean:

(1) minor land disturbance activities such as home gardens and individual home landscaping, repairs, and maintenance work;

(2) construction, installation, maintenance of electric and telephone utility lines or individual service connection to the utility lines;

(3) septic tank lines or drainage fields unless included in an overall plan for a land disturbance activity relating to construction of a building to be served by the septic tank system;

(4) tilling, planting, or harvesting of agricultural, horticultural, or silvicultural crops;

(5) preparation for single-family residences separately built, unless in conjunction with multiple construction in subdivision development;

(6) disturbance of land areas of less than 10,000 square feet for commercial or noncommercial uses, except that the governing body of the statutory or home rule charter city, town, or organization may reduce this exception to a smaller area of disturbed land or qualify the conditions under which this exception applies;

(7) installation of fence, sign, telephone, and electric poles and other kinds of posts or poles; and

(8) emergency work to protect life, limb, or property and emergency repairs.

Subd. 5. [ORGANIZATION.] “Organization” means a watershed management organization as defined in section 473.876 that has more than 25 percent of its area within Ramsey county.

Sec. 3. [DISTRICT EROSION AND SEDIMENT CONTROL PROGRAM.]

Subdivision 1. [ESTABLISHMENT.] The district shall develop a pilot program that contains a model ordinance and conservation specifications for the effective control of soil erosion and sediment deposition. To assist in the development of the pilot program, the district shall seek the advice of appropriate state and federal agencies, local units of government, and representatives of interests such as residential development and nonresidential development.

Subd. 2. [PROGRAM CONTENTS.] The district pilot program shall contain:

(1) relevant physical and developmental information concerning the region, including data relating to land use, soils, hydrology, geology, size of land area being disturbed, proximate water bodies and their characteristics, transportation, and public facilities and services;

(2) a model ordinance;

(3) principles for protecting existing vegetation, adequate revegetation schedules, and run-off control measures; and

(4) conservation specifications and alternative methods for the control of erosion and sediment resulting from land disturbance activities.

Subd. 3. [PROGRAM ADOPTION; IMPLEMENTATION.] The district shall adopt and implement the program by January 1, 1989. The district may revise its pilot program as necessary. The district shall give due notice and conduct at least one public hearing on the proposed pilot program before adoption or revision.

Subd. 4. [INSPECTION OF PROGRAM.] The program shall be made available for public inspection at the office of the district.

Sec. 4. [ORGANIZATION SOIL EROSION AND SEDIMENT CONTROL PROGRAMS.]

Subdivision 1. [ADOPTION.] Each organization must, within one year after the adoption of the district program under section 3, develop and adopt an organization soil erosion and sediment control program, as part of its watershed plan under Minnesota Statutes, section 473.878. The organization program must be consistent with the district program and must be submitted to the district for approval or disapproval. Upon written request of an organization, the district shall assist in the preparation of the organization program. The organization may choose to implement the program throughout its area of jurisdiction or only within the territory of the district.

Subd. 2. [FAILURE TO ADOPT AN ORGANIZATION PROGRAM.] After adoption of the district program under section 3, the board of water and soil resources may not approve a watershed plan until the organization has included an organization program in accordance with this section. A watershed plan approved by the board before the adoption of the district program must be amended and submitted to the board of water and soil resources for approval within one year after the adoption of the district program. If the amendment is not submitted, plan approval must be withdrawn until the amendment is submitted.

Subd. 3. [HEARING REQUIREMENT.] Organizations that choose to adopt conservation specifications or an ordinance that are more stringent than the district program must conduct a public hearing after due notice.

Sec. 5. [COMPLIANCE.]

Plans, rules, and ordinances adopted under sections 1 to 4 must be consistent with any applicable rules promulgated by the board of water and soil resources.

Sec. 6. [EFFECTIVE DATE.]

This act is effective upon approval by the Ramsey county board and the soil and water conservation district as provided in Minnesota Statutes, section 645.021."

The motion prevailed and the amendment was adopted.

Subd. 11. [RENT CONSTITUTING PROPERTY TAXES.] "Rent constituting property taxes" means the amount of gross rent actually paid in cash, or its equivalent, which is attributable (a) to the property tax paid on the unit or (b) to the amount paid in lieu of property taxes, in any calendar year by a claimant for the right of occupancy of the claimant's Minnesota homestead in the calendar year, and which rent constitutes the basis, in the succeeding calendar year of a claim for relief under this chapter by the claimant. The amount of rent attributable to property taxes paid or payments in lieu made on the unit shall be determined by multiplying the net tax on the property where the unit is located by a fraction, the numerator of which is the gross rent paid by the claimant for the calendar year for the unit and the denominator of which is the gross rent paid for the calendar year for the property in which the unit is located plus the gross rent that would be payable for any units that were vacant during the calendar year. In no case may the rent constituting property taxes exceed 50 percent of the gross rent paid by the claimant during that calendar year. In the case of a claimant who resides in a unit for which (1) a rent subsidy is paid to, or for, the claimant based on the income of the claimant or the claimant's family, or (2) a subsidy is paid to a public housing authority that owns or operates the claimant's rental unit, pursuant to United States Code, title 42, section 1437c, 20 percent of gross rent actually paid in cash or its equivalent shall be the claimant's "rent constituting property taxes paid." FOREIGN SOURCE INCOME

Section 1. Minnesota Statutes 1987 Supplement, section 290.01, subdivision 5, is amended to read:

Subd. 5. [DOMESTIC AND FOREIGN CORPORATIONS.] The term "domestic" when applied to a corporation means a corporation created or organized in Minnesota or under its laws; and the term "foreign" when thus applied means a corporation other than a domestic corporation the United States, or under the laws of the United States or of any state, the District of Columbia, the commonwealth of Puerto Rico, any possession of the United States or any political subdivision of any of the foregoing, and any DISC as defined in section 922(a) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, as amended through December 31, 1985, or a FSC as defined in section 922 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended through December 31, 1987.

Sec. 2. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 290.01, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 5a. [FOREIGN CORPORATION.] The term "foreign" when applied to a corporation means a corporation other than a domestic corporation.

Sec. 3. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 290.01, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 6b. [FOREIGN OPERATING CORPORATION.] The term "foreign operating corporation" when applied to a corporation means a domestic corporation that:

(1) is part of a unitary business at least one member of which is taxable in this state and that has less than 20 percent of its average property and payrolls, as determined under section 290.191, assigned to locations inside the United States, the District of Columbia, and possessions of the United States; or

(2) is part of a unitary business at least one member of which is taxable in this state and that has a valid election under section 936 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended through December 31, 1987.

Sec. 4. Minnesota Statutes 1987 Supplement, section 290.17, subdivision 4, is amended to read:

Subd. 4. [UNITARY BUSINESS PRINCIPLE.] (a) If a trade or business conducted wholly within this state or partly within and partly without this state is part of a unitary business, the entire income of the unitary business is subject to apportionment pursuant to section 290.191. Notwithstanding subdivision 2, paragraph (c), none of the income of a unitary business is considered to be derived from any particular source and none may be allocated to a particular place except as provided by the applicable apportionment formula. The provisions of this subdivision do not apply to farm income subject to subdivision 5, paragraph (a), business income subject to subdivision 5, paragraph (b) or (c), income of an insurance company determined under section 290.35, or income of an investment company determined under section 290.36.

(b) The term "unitary business" means business activities or operations which are of mutual benefit, dependent upon, or contributory to one another; individually or as a group. The term may be applied within a single legal entity or between multiple entities and without regard to whether each entity is a corporation, a partnership or a trust.

(c) Unity is presumed whenever there is unity of ownership, operation, and use, evidenced by centralized management or executive force, centralized purchasing, advertising, accounting, or other controlled interaction, but the absence of these centralizing activities will not necessarily evidence a nonunitary business.

(d) Where a business operation conducted in Minnesota is owned by a business entity that carries on business activity outside the state different in kind from that conducted within this state, and the other business is conducted entirely outside the state, it is presumed that the two business operations are unitary in nature, interrelated, connected, and interdependent unless it can be shown to the contrary.

(e) Unity of ownership is not deemed to exist when a corporation is involved unless that corporation is a member of a group of two or more business entities and more than 50 percent of the voting stock of each member of the group is directly or indirectly owned by a common owner or by common owners, either corporate or noncorporate, or by one or more of the member corporations of the group.

(f) ~~For purposes of determining the~~ If a unitary business is required to file a combined report, its net income of a unitary business and the factors to be used in the apportionment of net income pursuant to section 290.191 or 290.20, there must be included only shall be limited to the income and apportionment factors of domestic corporations or other domestic entities created or organized in the United States or under the laws of the United States or of any state, the District of Columbia, the commonwealth of Puerto Rico, any possession of the United States, or any political subdivision of any the foregoing and of any FSC as defined in section 922 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended through December 31, 1986, that are determined to be part of the unitary business pursuant to this subdivision, notwithstanding that other domestic or foreign corporations or other entities organized in foreign countries might be included in the unitary business. None of the net income and apportionment factors of a foreign operating corporation shall be included on the combined report, except that the net income of a foreign operating corporation shall be deemed to be paid as a dividend on the last day of its taxable year to each shareholder thereof (in proportion to its share of ownership) with which such corporation is engaged in a unitary business. Such deemed dividend shall be reduced by the deduction under section 290.21, subdivision 4. In determining the amount of net income deemed to be a dividend:

(1) any taxes paid or accrued to a foreign country, the commonwealth of Puerto Rico, or a United States possession or political subdivision of any of the foregoing shall be a deduction;

(2) the deduction for dividends received under section 290.21, subdivision 4, shall not be allowed with respect to dividends received from any other domestic or foreign corporation or foreign operating corporation which is part of the unitary business; and

(3) the deduction for payments received from foreign corporations under section 290.211 shall not be allowed.

If a foreign operating corporation incurs a net loss, neither income nor deduction from that corporation shall be included in determining the net income of the unitary business.

(g) Each corporation or other entity that is part of a unitary business must file combined reports as the commissioner determines. On the reports, all intercompany transactions between entities included pursuant to paragraph (f) must be eliminated and the entire net income of the unitary business determined in accordance with this subdivision is apportioned among the entities by using each entity's Minnesota factors for apportionment purposes in the numerators of the apportionment formula and the total factors for apportionment purposes of all entities included pursuant to paragraph (f) in the denominators of the apportionment formula.

Sec. 5. Minnesota Statutes 1987 Supplement, section 290.191, subdivision 5, is amended to read:

Subd. 5. [DETERMINATION OF SALES FACTOR.] (a) For purposes of this section, the following rules apply in determining the sales factor.

(b) The sales factor includes all sales, gross earnings, and receipts received in the ordinary course of the business, except that the following types of income are not included in the sales factor:

(1) interest;

(2) dividends;

(3) sales of capital assets as defined in section 1221 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended through December 31, 1987;

(4) sales of property used in the trade or business as defined in section 1231(b)(1) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended through December 31, 1987, except sales of leased property of a type which is regularly sold as well as leased; and

(5) sales of debt instruments as defined in section 1275(a)(1) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended through December 31, 1987, or sales of stock.

(c) Sales of tangible personal property are made within this state if the property is received by a purchaser at a point within this state, and the taxpayer is taxable in this state, regardless of the f.o.b. point, other conditions of the sale, or the ultimate destination of the property.

(e) (d) Tangible personal property delivered to a common or contract carrier or foreign vessel for delivery to a purchaser in another state or nation is a sale in that state or nation, regardless of f.o.b. point or other conditions of the sale.

(d) (e) Notwithstanding paragraphs (b) (c) and (e) (d), when intoxicating liquor, wine, fermented malt beverages, cigarettes, or tobacco products are sold to a purchaser who is licensed by a state or political subdivision to resell this property only within the state of ultimate destination, the sale is made in that state.

(e) (f) Sales made by or through a corporation that is qualified as a domestic international sales corporation under section 992 of the Internal Revenue Code are not considered to have been made within this state.

(f) Sales, other than sales of tangible personal property, are made in this state if the property is used, or the benefits of the services are consumed, in this state. If the property is used or the benefits of the services are consumed in more than one state, the sales must be apportioned pro rata according to the portion of use or consumption of benefits in this state.

(g) Sales, rents, royalties, and other income in connection with real property is attributed to the state in which the property is located.

(h) Receipts from the lease or rental of tangible personal property (including finance leases and true leases) must be attributed to this state if the property is located in this state and to other states if the property is not located in this state. Moving property including, but not limited to, motor vehicles, rolling stock, aircraft, vessels, or mobile equipment is located in this state if:

(1) the operation of the property is entirely within this state; or

(2) the operation of the property is in two or more states and the principal base of operations from which the property is sent out is in this state.

(i) Royalties and other income received for the use of or for the privilege of using intangible property including patents, know-how, formulas, designs, processes, patterns, copyrights, trade names, service names, franchises, licenses, contracts, customer lists, or similar items must be attributable to the state in which the property is used by the purchaser. If the property is used in more than one state, the royalties or other income must be apportioned to this state pro rata according to the portion of use in this state. If the portion of use in this state cannot be determined, the royalties or other income must be excluded from both the numerator and the denominator. Intangible property is used in this state if the purchaser uses the intangible property or the rights therein in the regular course of its business operations in this state regardless of the location of the purchaser's customers.

(j) Sales of intangible property are made within the state in which the property is used by the purchaser. If the property is used in more than one state, the sales must be apportioned to this state pro rata according to the portion of use in this state. If the portion of use in this state cannot be determined, the sale must be excluded from both the numerator and the denominator of the sales factor. Intangible property is used in this state if the purchaser uses the intangible property in the regular course of its business operations in this state.

(k) Receipts from the performance of services are in this state if the benefits of the services are consumed by the purchaser in this state. If the benefits of the services are consumed in more than one state, the receipts from the performance of the service must be apportioned to this state pro rata according to the proportion of benefits consumed in this state to benefits consumed outside this state. If the ratio of benefits consumed within this state to benefits consumed outside this state cannot be determined, receipts from the performance of services must be eliminated from the numerator and denominator of the sales factor.

Sec. 6. Minnesota Statutes 1987 Supplement, section 290.21, subdivision 4, is amended to read:

Subd. 4. (a) Eighty percent of dividends received by a corporation in which the recipient owns 20 percent or more of the stock of such corporation (by vote and value) not including stock described in section 1504(a)(4) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended through December 31, 1987, during the taxable year from another corporation, when the corporate stock with respect to which dividends are paid does not constitute the stock in trade of the taxpayer or would not be included in the inventory of the taxpayer, or does not constitute property held by the taxpayer primarily for sale to customers in the ordinary course of the taxpayer's trade or business, or when the trade or business of the taxpayer does not consist principally of the holding of the stocks and the collection of the income and gains therefrom. The remaining 20 percent shall be allowed if the recipient owns 80 percent or more of all the voting stock of the other corporation and the dividends were paid from income arising out of business done in this state by the corporation paying the dividends. If the dividends were declared from income arising out of business done within and without this state, then a proportion of the remainder shall be allowed as a deduction. The proportion must be that which the amount of the taxable net income of the corporation paying the dividends assignable or allocable to this state bears to the entire net income of the corporation. The amounts must be determined by the returns under this chapter of the corporation paying the dividends for the taxable year preceding their distribution. The burden is on the taxpayer to show that the amount of remainder claimed as a deduction has been received from income arising out of business done in this state.

(b) If the trade or business of the taxpayer consists principally of the holding of the stocks and the collection of the income and gains therefrom, dividends received by a corporation during the taxable year from another corporation, if the recipient owns 80 percent or more of all the voting stock of the other corporation, from income arising out of business done in this state by the corporation paying the dividends. If the dividends were declared from income arising out of business done within and without this state, then a proportion of the dividends shall be allowed as a deduction. The proportion must be that which the amount of the taxable net income of the corporation paying the dividends assignable or allocable to this state bears to the entire net income of the corporation. The amounts must be determined by the returns under this chapter of the corporation paying the dividends for the taxable year preceding their distribution. The burden is on the taxpayer to show that the amount of dividends claimed as a deduction has been received from income arising out of business done in this state.

(c) Seventy percent of dividends received by a corporation in which the recipient owns less than 20 percent of the stock of such corporation (by vote and value) not including stock described in section 1504(a)(4) of the Internal Revenue Code as amended through December 31, 1987, during the taxable year from another corporation, when the corporate stock with respect to which dividends are paid does not constitute the stock in trade of the taxpayer, or does not constitute property held by the taxpayer primarily for sale to customers in the ordinary course of the taxpayer's trade or business, or when the trade or business of the taxpayer does not consist principally of the holding of the stocks and the collection of income and gain therefrom.

(d) The dividend deduction provided in this subdivision shall be allowed only with respect to dividends that are included in a corporation's Minnesota taxable net income for the taxable year.

The dividend deduction provided in this subdivision does not apply to a dividend from a corporation which, for the taxable year of the corporation in which the distribution is made or for the next preceding taxable year of the corporation, is a corporation exempt from tax under section 501 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended through December 31, 1986.

The dividend deduction provided in this subdivision applies to the amount of regulated investment company dividends only to the extent determined under section 854(b) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended through December 31, 1986.

The dividend deduction provided in this subdivision shall not be allowed with respect to any dividend for which a deduction is not allowed under the provisions of section 246(c) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended through December 31, 1986.

~~(d)~~ (e) If dividends received by a corporation that does not have nexus with Minnesota under the provisions of Public Law Number 86-272 are included as income on the return of an affiliated corporation permitted or required to file a combined report under section 290.34, subdivision 2, then for purposes of this subdivision the determination as to whether the trade or business of the corporation consists principally of the holding of stocks and the collection of income and gains therefrom shall be made with reference to the trade or business of the affiliated corporation having a nexus with Minnesota.

(e) (f) The deduction provided by this subdivision does not apply if the dividends are paid by a FSC as defined in section 922 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended through December 31, 1986 1987, or qualify as foreign payments under section 290.211.

Sec. 7. [290.211] [DEDUCTION FOR FOREIGN-SOURCE ROYALTIES.]

(a) An amount equal to 80 percent of the payments accrued or received from a foreign corporation shall be allowed to corporations as a deduction from taxable net income. Payments accrued or received from a foreign corporation which qualify for the deduction shall not be included in the taxpayer's apportionment factors under section 290.191.

(b) The deduction provided by this section is allowed only if the payments were received from a corporation that is part of the taxpayer's unitary business.

(c) The deduction provided in this subdivision is allowed only with respect to payments that are included in a corporation's Minnesota taxable net income for the taxable year.

(d) In the case of payments accrued or received from a foreign corporation for the use of or for the privilege of using outside the United States, intangible property as defined in section 936(h)(3)(B) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended through December 31, 1987, only such income which is commensurate with the income attributable to the license of intangible property within the meaning of sections 367(d) and 482 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended through December 31, 1987, is allowable as a deduction.

(e) If one or more of the members of the unitary group that are included on the combined report received payments as defined in paragraph (a), the deduction under this section for each member of the unitary business required to file a return under this chapter is the product of: (1) 100 percent of the payments, as defined in paragraph (a), received by the members of the group; (2) 80 percent; and (3) the percentage of business income of the unitary business apportionable to this state for the deducting corporation for the taxable year under this chapter.

"Sec. 5. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 290.92, subdivision 2a, is amended to read:

Subd. 2a. [COLLECTION AT SOURCE.] (1) [DEDUCTIONS.] Every employer making payment of wages shall deduct and withhold upon such wages a tax as provided in this section.

(2) [WITHHOLDING ON PAYROLL PERIOD.] The employer shall withhold the tax on the basis of each payroll period or as otherwise provided in this section.

(3) [WITHHOLDING TABLES.] Unless the amount of tax to be withheld is determined as provided in subdivision 3, the amount of tax to be withheld for each individual shall be based upon tables to be prepared and distributed by the commissioner. The tables shall be computed for the several permissible withholding periods and shall take account of exemptions allowed under this section; and the amounts computed for withholding shall be such that the amount withheld for any individual during the individual's taxable year shall approximate in the aggregate as closely as possible the tax which is levied and imposed under this chapter for that taxable year, upon the individual's salary, wages, or compensation for personal services of any kind for the employer.

If the legislature enacts changes in the tax rates, standard deduction or personal exemption amount, or if the brackets and exemptions are substantially adjusted for changes in the price level under section 290.06, subdivision 2d, the commissioner shall prepare and distribute new withholding tables. The new tables must be effective by (1) the first period of the calendar year to which the changes apply, or (2) as soon as is feasible after the changes in the law were enacted, whichever is later. If the changes in the tables are not distributed by the first period to which the changes in law apply, the commissioner shall notify and consult with the chairs of the tax committees of the house of representatives and the senate regarding the delay.

(4) [MISCELLANEOUS PAYROLL PERIOD.] If wages are paid with respect to a period which is not a payroll period, the amount to be deducted and withheld shall be that applicable in the case of a miscellaneous payroll period containing a number of days, including Sundays and holidays, equal to the number of days in the period with respect to which such wages are paid.

(5) [MISCELLANEOUS PAYROLL PERIOD.] (a) In any case in which wages are paid by an employer without regard to any payroll period or other period, the amount to be deducted and withheld shall be that applicable in the case of a miscellaneous payroll period containing a number of days equal to the number of days, including Sundays and holidays, which have elapsed since the date of the last payment of such wages by such employer during the calendar year, or the date of commencement of employment with such employer during such year, or January 1 of such year, whichever is the later.

(b) In any case in which the period, or the time described in clause (a), in respect of any wages is less than one week, the commissioner, under rules prescribed by the commissioner, may authorize an employer to determine the amount to be deducted and withheld under the tables applicable in the case of a weekly payroll period, in which case the aggregate of the wages paid to the employee during the calendar week shall be considered the weekly wages.

(6) [WAGES COMPUTED TO NEAREST DOLLAR.] If the wages exceed the highest bracket, in determining the amount to be deducted and withheld under this subdivision, the wages may, at the election of the employer, be computed to the nearest dollar.

(7) [RULES ON WITHHOLDING.] The commissioner may, by rule, authorize employers:

(a) to estimate the wages which will be paid to any employee in any quarter of the calendar year;

(b) to determine the amount to be deducted and withheld upon each payment of wages to such employee during such quarter as if the appropriate average of the wages so estimated constituted the actual wages paid; and

(c) to deduct and withhold upon any payment of wages to such employee during such quarter such amount as may be necessary to adjust the amount actually deducted and withheld upon wages of such employee during such quarter to the amount required to be deducted and withheld during such quarter without regard to this paragraph (7).

(8) [ADDITIONAL WITHHOLDING.] The commissioner is authorized to provide by rule for increases or decreases in the amount of withholding otherwise required under this section in cases where the employee requests the changes. Such additional withholding shall for all purposes be considered tax required to be deducted and withheld under this section.

(9) [TIPS.] In the case of tips which constitute wages, this subdivision shall be applicable only to such tips as are included in a written statement furnished to the employer pursuant to section

6053 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended through December 31, 1986, and only to the extent that the tax can be deducted and withheld by the employer, at or after the time such statement is so furnished and before the close of the calendar year in which such statement is furnished, from such wages of the employee (excluding tips, but including funds turned over by the employee to the employer for the purpose of such deduction and withholding) as are under the control of the employer; and an employer who is furnished by an employee a written statement of tips (received in a calendar month) pursuant to section 6053 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 as amended through December 31, 1986, to which subdivision 1 is applicable may deduct and withhold the tax with respect to such tips from any wages of the employee (excluding tips) under the employer's control, even though at the time such statement is furnished the total amount of the tips included in statements furnished to the employer as having been received by the employee in such calendar month in the course of employment by such employer is less than $20. Such tax shall not at any time be deducted and withheld in an amount which exceeds the aggregate of such wages and funds as are under the control of the employer minus any tax required by other provisions of state or federal law to be collected from such wages and funds.

(10) [VEHICLE FRINGE BENEFITS.] An employer shall not deduct and withhold any tax under this section with respect to any vehicle fringe benefit provided to an employee if the employer has so elected for federal purposes and the requirement of and the definition contained in section 3402(s) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended through December 31, 1986, are complied with."

477A.013 [MUNICIPAL GOVERNMENT DISTRIBUTIONS TAX BASE EQUALIZATION AID.]

Subdivision 1. [TOWNS AID AMOUNT.] In calendar year 1988 and calendar years thereafter, each town which had levied for taxes payable in the previous year at least one mill on the dollar of the assessed value of the town shall receive a distribution equal to the greater of: (a) 60 percent of the amount received in 1983 pursuant to Minnesota Statutes 1982, sections 273.138, 273.139, and 477A.011 to 477A.03; or (b) the amount certified in 1987 pursuant to sections 477A.011 to 477A.03 Effective for 1989 and each year thereafter, each municipality is eligible to receive a municipal tax base equalization aid determined under this section.

For each municipality, a local share mill rate shall be determined equal to the mill rate that yields an amount equal to the municipal need factor per household when applied to the guaranteed tax base per household.

Each municipality's aid amount shall be determined by applying the local share mill rate to the municipality's adjusted assessed value, and subtracting that amount from the municipal need factor. The resulting amount shall be the municipality's equalization aid amount, except that if the amount is less than zero the municipality will receive no aid.

The commissioner of revenue shall determine the "guaranteed tax base per household" so that the aid amounts to all municipalities equal the limitation amount appropriated for this purpose in this section.

Subd. 2. [CITIES AID LIMITATION.] In calendar year 1988 and calendar years thereafter, each city shall receive a local government aid distribution equal to the amount that the city was certified to receive for calendar year 1987 under this subdivision. The total amount available for distribution to municipalities under subdivision 1 is $90,000,000 for calendar year 1989.

Subd. 3. [GENERAL LOCAL GOVERNMENT AID.] In addition to the aid determined under subdivisions 1 and 2, each municipality shall receive a distribution equal to the amount it was eligible to receive in 1988 under section 477A.011 to 477A.013."

The commissioner may not rent non-state-owned land and buildings or substantial portions of land or buildings within the capitol area as defined in section 15.50 unless the commissioner first consults with the capitol area architectural and planning board. Lands needed by the department of transportation for storage of vehicles or road materials may be rented for five years or less, such leases for terms over two years being subject to cancellation upon 30 days written notice by the state for any reason except rental of other land or premises for the same use.

(b) [USE VACANT PUBLIC SPACE.] No agency may initiate or renew a lease for space for its own use in a private building unless the commissioner has thoroughly investigated presently vacant space in public buildings, such as closed school buildings, and found that none is available.

(c) [PREFERENCE FOR CERTAIN BUILDINGS.] For needs beyond those which can be accommodated in state owned buildings, the commissioner shall acquire and utilize space in suitable buildings of historical, architectural, or cultural significance for the purposes of this subdivision unless use of that space is not feasible, prudent and cost effective compared with available alternatives. Buildings are of historical, architectural, or cultural significance if they are listed on the national register of historic places, designated by a state or county historical society, or designated by a municipal preservation commission.

(d) [RECYCLING SPACE.] Leases for space of 30 days or more for 5,000 square feet or more must require that space is provided for recyclable materials.

Sec. 2. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 16B.61, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 3a. [RECYCLING SPACE.] The code must require suitable space for the separation, collection, and temporary storage of recyclable materials within or adjacent to new or significantly remodeled structures that contain 1,000 square feet or more. Subd. 25b. "Recycling" means the process of collecting and preparing recyclable materials and reusing the materials in their original form or using them in manufacturing processes which do not cause the destruction of recyclable materials in a manner which precludes further use.

Sec. 5. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 115A.14, subdivision 4, is amended to read:

Subd. 4. [POWERS AND DUTIES.] The commission shall review the biennial report of the board, the agency municipal project list and municipal needs list reports, and the budget for the agency division of water quality. Subdivision 1. [PURPOSE.] The board may make grants to eligible recipients to determine the feasibility and method of developing and operating specific types of commercial facilities and services for collecting and processing, or containment of hazardous waste and for improving management of waste rendered nonhazardous and industrial waste. Grants may be made for:

(1) market assessment, including generator surveys;

(2) conceptual design and preliminary engineering;

(3) financial and business planning necessary to address sources of funding, financial security, liability, pricing structure, and similar matters necessary to the development and proper operation of a facility or service;

(4) environmental impact and site analysis, preparation of permit applications, and environmental and permit reviews;

(5) analysis of methods of overcoming identified technical, institutional, legal, regulatory, market, or other constraints; and

(6) analysis of other factors affecting development, operation, and use of a facility or service.

Sec. 7. Minnesota Statutes 1987 Supplement, section 115A.156, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [ELIGIBILITY.] A person proposing to develop and operate specific collection ~~and~~, processing, or containment facilities or services to serve generators in the state and persons seeking to develop or operate specific types of facilities or services to manage industrial waste generated in the state, are eligible for a grant. Sec. 8. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 115A.156, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [PROCEDURE FOR AWARDED GRANTS.] The board may establish procedures for awarding grants under this section. The procedures for awarding grants shall include consideration of the following factors:

(1) the need to provide collection ~~and~~, processing, or containment for a variety of types of hazardous wastes;

(2) the extent to which the facility or service would provide a significant amount of processing ~~or~~, collection, or containment capacity for waste generated in the state, measured by the volume of waste to be managed, the number and geographic distribution of generators to be served, or the reduction of risk to public health and safety and the environment achieved by the operation of the facility or service;

(3) the availability of the facility or service to all generators needing the service in the area to be served;

(4) the contribution of the facility or service to achieving the policies and objectives of the hazardous waste management plan;

(5) participation by persons with demonstrated experience in developing, designing, or operating hazardous waste collection or, processing, or containment facilities or services;

(6) the need for assistance from the board to accomplish the work;

(7) the extent to which a proposal would produce and analyze new information; and

(8) other factors established by the board consistent with the purposes of this section.

The board may adopt emergency rules under sections 14.29 to 14.36 to implement the grant program. Emergency rules adopted by the board remain in effect for 360 days or until permanent rules are adopted, whichever occurs first.

Sec. 9. Minnesota Statutes 1987 Supplement, section 115A.162, is amended to read:

115A.162 [INDUSTRIAL OR HAZARDOUS WASTE PROCESSING FACILITY LOANS.]

The board shall review applications for industrial or hazardous waste processing facility loans received by the agriculture and economic development authority and forwarded to the board under section ~~116M.07, subdivision 9~~ 41A.066. The board may certify a loan application only if it determines that:

(1) the applicant has demonstrated that the proposed facility is technically feasible;

(2) the applicant has made a reasonable assessment of the market for the services offered by the proposed facility;

(3) the applicant has agreed to provide funds for the proposed facility in an amount equal to at least 25 percent of the capital cost of the facility excluding land acquisition cost;

(4) the applicant has agreed to pay the cost of any land acquisition necessary to develop the facility; and

(5) the facility will contribute in a significant way to achievement of the policies and objectives of the hazardous waste management plan and, in particular, to reduce the need for and practice of industrial or hazardous waste disposal.

As a condition of its certification the board may require an applicant to agree to provide funds in excess of 25 percent of the capital cost of the facility in addition to any land acquisition costs. In certifying an application or in determining the share of the capital costs that will be provided by the loan, the board may consider the types and volumes of industrial or hazardous waste that will be handled by the facility, the number of generators served by the facility, and the extent to which the facility serves the need of smaller businesses that generate industrial or hazardous waste. The board may establish additional criteria for certifying loan applications consistent with the provisions of this section.

The board may adopt emergency rules under sections 14.29 to 14.36 to implement the loan program. Emergency rules adopted by the board remain in effect for 360 days or until permanent rules are adopted, whichever occurs first.

Sec. 10. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 115A.165, is amended to read:

115A.165 [EVALUATION OF GRANT AND LOAN PROGRAMS; REPORT.]

By November 1, 1986, and every second year after that date, the board shall evaluate the extent to which the programs provided in sections 115A.152 to 115A.162 have contributed to the achievement of the policies and objectives of the hazardous waste management plan and other related planning documents prepared by the board. The evaluation must consider the amount of waste reduction achieved by generators through the technical and research assistance and waste reduction grant programs and the progress in reducing the need for and practice of disposal achieved through the development grants and the request for proposal program. The board shall report the results of its evaluation to the legislative commission with its recommendations for further action.

Sec. 11. Minnesota Statutes 1987 Supplement, section 115A.48, is amended to read:

115A.48 [MARKET DEVELOPMENT FOR RECYCLABLE MATERIALS AND COMPOST.]

Subdivision 1. [AUTHORITY.] The board shall assist and encourage the development of specific facilities and services, and uses needed to provide adequate, stable, and reliable markets for recyclable materials and compost generated in the state. In carrying out this duty the board shall coordinate and cooperate with the solid waste management efforts of other public agencies and political subdivisions.

Subd. 2. [FACILITY DEVELOPMENT PROPOSALS.] In order to determine the feasibility and method of developing and operating specific types of facilities and services to use recyclable materials and compost generated in the state, the board shall request proposals from and may make grants to persons seeking to develop or operate the facilities or services. Grants may be made for the purposes in section 115A.156, subdivision 1, clauses (1) to (6). A grant must be matched by money or in-kind services provided by the grantee covering at least 50 percent of the project cost. In requesting proposals under this section the board shall follow the procedures provided in section 115A.158, subdivisions 1 and 2, as far as practicable.

Subd. 3. [PUBLIC PROCUREMENT.] The board shall provide technical assistance and advice to political subdivisions and other public agencies to encourage solid waste reduction and development of markets for recyclable materials and compost through procurement policies and practices.

Sec. 12. [115A.541] [PLAN; GRANT REQUIREMENT.]

The board shall only approve a plan under section 115A.46 or make a grant for a recycling facility under section 115A.54, subdivision 2a, if it finds that the applicant demonstrates a commitment to recycle materials separated by generators to the extent such a program is cost effective in meeting recycling goals.

Sec. 13. [115A.55] [SPECIAL WASTE; INCINERATOR ASH.]

Subdivision 1. [POLICY; GOALS.] It is the policy of the legislature that mixed municipal solid waste incinerators be planned and managed to achieve to the maximum extent feasible and prudent:

- (1) reduction of the toxicity of incinerator ash;
- (2) reduction of the quantity of the incinerator ash; and
- (3) reduction of the quantity of waste processing residuals that require disposal.

The purpose of this section is to establish temporary and permanent programs to achieve these reduction goals.

Subd. 2. [DEFINITIONS.] For the purposes of this section the following terms have the meanings given them.

"Incinerator ash" means ash resulting from the combustion of mixed municipal solid waste and ash resulting from the combustion of refuse derived fuel.

"Noncombustible fraction" means constituents of mixed municipal solid waste, including glass, ferrous metals, nonferrous metals and other inorganics, that, when burned, disproportionately add to the quantity of incinerator ash.

Subd. 3. [RULES.] The agency shall adopt rules to establish techniques to measure the noncombustible fraction of mixed municipal solid waste prior to incineration or processing into refuse derived fuel and for at least the testing, management, and disposal of incinerator ash. The rules must be designed to meet the goals in subdivision I.

Subd. 4. [INTERIM PROGRAM.] (a) Incinerator ash is considered special waste for an interim period which expires on the occurrence of the earliest of the following events:

(1) The United States Environmental Protection Agency establishes testing and disposal requirements for incinerator ash;

(2) The agency adopts the rules required in subdivision 3; or

(3) June 30, 1990.

(b) As a special waste incinerator ash must be stored separately from mixed municipal solid waste with adequate controls to protect the environment as provided in agency permits. For the interim period, the agency, in cooperation with generators of incinerator ash and other interested parties, shall establish a temporary program to test, monitor, and store incinerator ash. Incinerator ash stored during the interim is subject to the rules adopted pursuant to subdivision 3 and to the provisions of chapter 115B.

Subd. 5. [PLANS; BOARD REPORT.] A county solid waste plan, or revision of a plan, that includes incineration of mixed municipal solid waste must clearly state how the county plans to meet the goals in subdivision I of reducing the toxicity and quantity of incinerator ash and of reducing the quantity of processing residuals that require disposal. The board, in cooperation with the agency, the counties, and the metropolitan council, may develop guidelines for counties to use to identify ways to meet the goals in subdivision 1.

The board, in cooperation with the agency, the counties, and the metropolitan council, shall develop and propose statewide goals and timetables for the reduction of the noncombustible fraction of mixed municipal solid waste prior to incineration or processing into refuse derived fuel and for the reduction of the toxicity of the incinerator ash. By January 1, 1990, the board shall report to the legislative commission on waste management on the proposal goals and timetables with recommendations for their implementation.

Subd. 6. [PERMITS; AGENCY REPORT.] An application for a permit to build or operate a mixed municipal solid waste incinerator, including an application for permit renewal, must clearly state how the applicant will achieve the goals in subdivision 1 of reducing the toxicity and quantity of incinerator ash and of reducing the quantity of processing residuals that require disposal. The agency, in cooperation with the board, the counties, and the metropolitan council, may develop guidelines for applicants to use to identify ways to meet the goals in subdivision 1.

If, by January 1, 1990, the rules required by subdivision 3 are not in at least final draft form, the agency shall report to the legislative commission on waste management on the status of current incinerator ash management programs with recommendations for specific legislation to meet the goals of subdivision 1.

Sec. 14. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 115A.912, is amended to read:

115A.912 [WASTE TIRE COLLECTION MANAGEMENT.]

Subdivision 1. [PURPOSE.] Money appropriated to the agency board for waste tire collection management may be spent for elimination of health and safety hazards of tire dumps and collection sites, tire dump abatement, collection, management and clean up of waste tires, regulation of permitted waste tire facilities, research and studies to determine the technical and economic feasibility of uses for tire derived products, public education on waste tire management, and grants and loans under section 15.

Subd. 2. [PRIORITIES FOR SPENDING.] The agency board shall apply the following criteria to establish priorities: (1) tire dumps or collection sites determined by the agency board to contain more than 1,000,000 tires; (2) abatement of fire hazard nuisances; (3) abatement of nuisance in densely populated areas; and (4) collection and clean up of waste tires including abatement of tire dumps.

Subd. 3. [CONTRACTS WITH COUNTIES.] The agency board may contract with counties for the abatement of waste tire nuisances and may reimburse a county for up to 85 percent of the cost of abatement. A contract with a county for abatement of waste tire nuisances must incorporate a plan approved by the board that provides for the removal and processing of the waste tires in a manner consistent with board standards and ongoing board abatement activities. A county may bring a civil action to recover its part of abatement costs from the tire collector responsible for a nuisance.

Sec. 15. [115A.913] [WASTE TIRE PROGRAMS.]

Subdivision 1. [LOANS AND GRANTS.] The board may make loans to waste tire processing businesses for the capital costs of land, buildings, equipment, and other capital improvements needed for the construction or betterment of waste tire processing facilities, and for the capital cost of equipment needed to transport waste tires to a waste tire processing facility. The board may also make loans to businesses that use waste tire derived products in manufacturing processes, for the capital costs of land, buildings, and equipment used in the manufacturing process.

The board may make grants for studies necessary to demonstrate the technical and economic feasibility of a proposed waste tire processing project, or of a proposed use for waste tire derived products in a manufacturing process. A grant may not exceed $30,000 and may not exceed 75 percent of the costs of a study.

Subd. 2. [COLLECTION AND TRANSPORTATION.] The board may make grants to local government units for the cost of establishing waste tire collection sites. Grants may be used for the capital costs of land, structures, and equipment needed to establish waste tire collection sites, and to collect and transport waste tires. A grant may not exceed 50 percent of the cost to a local government unit to establish a waste tire collection site.

Subd. 3. [FEASIBILITY STUDIES.] The board may conduct research and studies to determine the technical and economic feasibility of uses for waste tire derived products.

Subd. 4. [PUBLIC EDUCATION.] The board may conduct a program to inform the public about proper handling and opportunities for processing of waste tires consistent with section 115A.072.

Subd. 5. [REPORT.] By November 15 of each year, the board shall prepare and submit to the legislative commission on waste management a progress report of the board's operations and activities under sections 115A.90 to 115A.914.

Sec. 16. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 115A.914, is amended to read:

115A.914 [RULES ADMINISTRATION; COUNTY PLANNING; AND ORDINANCES.]

Subdivision 1. [REGULATORY AND ENFORCEMENT POWERS.] For purposes of implementing and enforcing the waste tire abatement and permitting programs in sections 115A.90 to 115A.914, the board may exercise the regulatory and enforcement powers of the agency under chapters 115 and 116.

Subd. 2. [AGENCY BOARD RULES.] The agency board shall adopt rules for administration of waste tire collector and processor permits, waste tire nuisance abatement, and waste tire collection.

Until December 31, 1985, the agency may adopt emergency rules for these purposes:

Subd. 2- 3. [COUNTY PLANNING; ORDINANCES.] Counties shall include collection and processing of waste tires in the solid waste management plan prepared under sections 115A.42 to 115A.46 and shall adopt ordinances under sections 400.16 and 473.811 for management of waste tires that embody, but may be more restrictive than, agency board rules.

Sec. 17. Minnesota Statutes 1987 Supplement, section 115A.916, is amended to read:

115A.916 [USED OIL; LAND DISPOSAL PROHIBITED.]

A person may not place used oil in mixed municipal solid waste or dispose of place used oil in a solid waste disposal facility after January 1, 1988 or on the land, unless approved by the agency. This section may be enforced by the agency pursuant to section 115.071.

Sec. 18. [115A.9162] [USED OIL LOANS AND GRANTS.]

The board may make loans to businesses for the purchase of used oil processing equipment.

The board may make grants to counties for installation of storage tanks to collect used oil. To be eligible for a grant, a county must obtain approval from the commissioner of the agency for the type of tank to be used, the location and installation of the tank, and the proposed ongoing maintenance and monitoring of the collection site. These measures may include reassigning the employee to different places of work or further restricting or eliminating smoking in the place of work.

Sec. 7. Minnesota Statutes 1987 Supplement, section 135A.04, is amended to read:

135A.04 [VARIABLE TUITION.]

The board of regents of the University of Minnesota, state university board, state board for community colleges, and state board for vocational education shall establish tuition. Tuition may vary by program, level of instruction, cost of instruction, or other classifications determined by each board. ~~In all systems that have a credit hour basis, tuition rates must be established on that basis and must not apply across a variable number of credits.~~ Tuition may be set at any percentage of instructional cost established by the respective boards.

Sec. 8. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 136.31, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 7. Except as provided in this subdivision, the board may irrevocably appropriate and use any money other than state appropriated money held by it to discharge or otherwise provide for the payment of the interest coming due on its outstanding revenue bonds until paid and of the principal and any premium coming due on the bonds at maturity or upon any earlier date upon which the bonds are called for redemption. For this purpose, the board may exercise all powers conferred upon it under subdivision 6 with respect to escrow agents and escrow accounts, and may provide for the funding of the escrow accounts with securities of the type referred to in subdivision 6 and certificates of deposit, time deposits, and investment agreements issued by the escrow agent or any other financial institution. This subdivision does not authorize the appropriation or use of board money to secure outstanding revenue bonds contrary to a board resolution authorizing the issuance and providing for the security of the bonds, or the use of other board money contrary to the terms of a contract or law.

Sec. 9. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 136.41, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 8. The state university board or a successor may issue additional revenue bonds under sections 136.31 to 136.38, subject to the resolutions authorizing its outstanding revenue bonds, and payable from the revenue appropriated to the fund established by section 136.35, and to use the proceeds together with other public or private money that may otherwise become available to acquire land, and to acquire, construct, complete, remodel, and equip structures to be used for dormitory, residence hall, student union, food service, and related parking purposes at the state universities. Before issuing the bonds or any part of them, the board shall consult with the chairs of the house appropriations committee and the senate finance committee on the facilities to be financed by the bonds.

Sec. 10. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 136.41, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 9. The bonds authorized by this section may be issued without regard to whether the interest to be paid on them is includable in gross income for federal tax purposes. However, if it is intended that the interest on the bonds be exempt from federal income taxes, an officer of the board shall certify for the board on the date of issue the facts, estimates, and circumstances that lead the officer reasonably to expect that the proceeds of the bonds and the facilities financed by them will not be used to cause the interest on the bonds to be subject to federal income taxes; the board may covenant and agree with the holders of the bonds that it will comply with the provisions of the United States Internal Revenue Code now or hereafter enacted that do or may apply to the bonds and that establish conditions under which the interest to be paid on the bonds will not be subject to federal income taxes; and the officers of the board shall take the actions or refrain from taking the actions necessary to comply with the covenants. Money required to be spent to comply may be appropriated by the board from the fund established by section 136.35.

Sec. 11. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 136C.61, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 7. [MEETINGS.] Notwithstanding any law to the contrary, the joint board may hold meetings at any location convenient to the member districts and the public, whether or not that meeting site is located within the boundaries of a member district. The joint board shall establish and maintain a schedule of the time and place of its meetings and shall give notice of regular and special meetings in the same manner as required for other public bodies.

Sec. 12. [137.0229] [REGENT CANDIDATE ADVISORY COUNCIL.]

Subdivision 1. [ESTABLISHMENT.] There is established a candidate advisory council for the board of regents of the University of Minnesota. The purpose of the advisory council is to assist the legislature in identifying qualified candidates for membership on the board of regents.

Subd. 2. [MEMBERSHIP.] The advisory council must be composed of 24 members, three of whom reside in each congressional district. One member from each congressional district must be appointed by the governor. One member from each congressional district must be appointed by the members of the house who represent that district. One member from each congressional district must be appointed by the members of the senate who represent that district. No more than two members from any congressional district shall belong to the same political party. Each member shall serve for a term of six years and may serve one additional term. A vacancy shall be filled in the same manner as the original appointment. Members may be reimbursed for expenses according to section 15.059 but must not be compensated.

Subd. 3. [DUTIES.] The advisory council shall:

(1) develop, in consultation with current and former regents and the administration of the University of Minnesota, and provide to potential candidates a statement of the responsibilities and duties of a regent;

(2) establish a subcommittee for each congressional district, composed of the three advisory council members residing in the congressional district and other members appointed by the subcommittee, and encourage each subcommittee to identify qualified candidates within its congressional district;

(3) for each congressional district position on the board, identify and recruit, through the subcommittee established in clause (2), qualified candidates for the board of regents, based on the background and experience of the candidates, and their potential for discharging the responsibilities of a member of the board of regents; and

(4) for each at-large position on the board, including the student position, identify and recruit qualified candidates, based on the background and experience of the candidates, and their potential for discharging the responsibilities of a member of the board of regents.

Subd. 4. [RECOMMENDATIONS.] At the time the legislature elects a regent, the advisory council shall recommend at least two qualified candidates to the relevant congressional delegation and the appropriate committees of the legislature. For a candidate required to reside in a congressional district, the advisory council shall recommend only a candidate recommended by the subcommittee. The legislature shall not be bound by these recommendations.

Subd. 5. [STAFF] The higher education coordinating board shall provide staff and support for the advisory council as necessary to discharge its responsibilities.

Sec. 13. [INITIAL TERMS.]

Notwithstanding section 12, subdivision 2, for the initial advisory council, one member appointed by each of the appointing authorities shall serve a two-year term, one member shall serve a four-year term, and one member shall serve a six-year term.

Sec. 14. [245A.17] [CHILD CARE PROVISIONS.]

As an alternative to licensing under rules for child care centers adopted by the department of human services, post-secondary institutions may submit a child care plan for approval by the commissioner of human services. The plan must show how the center can be operated safely for the benefit of the children.

Sec. 15. Laws 1983, chapter 334, section 7, as amended by Laws 1987, chapter 386, article 10, section 8, is amended to read:

Sec. 16. Laws 1987, chapter 401, section 2, subdivision 6, is amended to read:

Subd. 6. Income Contingent Loans

This appropriation is for an income contingent loan repayment program to assist graduates of Minnesota schools in medical, dental, pharmacy, chiropractic medicine, public health, and veterinary medicine and Minnesota residents graduating from optometry and osteopathy programs in repaying their student debt by providing a repayment plan based on their annual income. The HECB shall study the possible inclusion of students in other academic programs including optometry and osteopathy and report its recommendations to the appropriations and finance committees by December 1, 1987. During the biennium, applicant data collected by the HECB for this program may be disclosed to a consumer credit reporting agency under the same conditions as apply to the supplemental loan program according to section 136A.162.

Sec. 17. [REGENT ACTION.]

The legislature requests that the board of regents of the University of Minnesota undertake the following actions to improve their management and accountability:

(1) establish a committee to plan for and oversee the needs and uses of the president's house;

(2) formally adopt policies for review of capital projects that specify when board approval is required, types and forms of information to be submitted to the board, and board procedures for cost overruns;

(3) develop an accurate and complete reporting system for capital projects in progress;

(4) establish policies that improve the control over the use of unrestricted funds, including specification of approval and reporting requirements; and

(5) establish procedures for accountability and ownership of assets funded by the University Foundation.

The board of regents shall report the actions taken under this section to the education divisions of the appropriations and finance committees by January 1, 1989.

Sec. 18. [PURPOSE.]

The legislature believes it is in the best interest of Minnesota to strengthen relationships between educational levels and sectors. To promote closer alliances and greater understanding between school districts and post-secondary education, the legislature intends to facilitate voluntary cooperative arrangements.

Sec. 19. [FACULTY EXCHANGE PROGRAM.]

Subdivision 1. [ESTABLISHMENT.] A program of faculty exchange is established to allow school districts and post-secondary institutions to arrange temporary exchanges between members of their staffs. These arrangements must be made on a voluntary, cooperative basis between the school district and the institution.

Subd. 2. [USES OF PROGRAM.] Each participating school district and post-secondary institution may determine the way in which the faculty member's time is to be used, but it must be in a way that promotes understanding of the needs of each educational system. A public school teacher might be used to teach courses, provide counseling and tutorial services, assist with the preparation of future teachers, or take professional development courses. A post-secondary instructor might teach advanced placement courses or other classes to aid an underserved population at the school district, counsel students about future education plans, or work with teachers to better prepare students for post-secondary education. Participation need not be limited to one school or institution and may involve other groups including educational cooperative service units.

Subd. 3. [SALARIES, BENEFITS, CERTIFICATION.] Exchanges made under the program must not have a negative effect on participants' salaries, seniority, or other benefits. For this program, teacher certification requirements shall be waived for participating faculty. All arrangements and details regarding the exchange must be mutually agreed to by the school district and post-secondary institution before implementation.

Subd. 4. [PILOT PROGRAMS.] While these exchanges are voluntary, the legislature intends to maintain oversight to determine the benefits and problems of the program. For the 1988-1989 school year, proposals must be submitted to the education committee and education division of the appropriations committee of the house of representatives and the education committee and education division of the finance committee of the senate by July 1, 1988. These committees shall review the proposals and recommend those for pilot programs.

Sec. 20. [STUDENT SERVICES.]

The governing board of each public post-secondary system is requested to establish prices for goods and services sold through student services that approximate as nearly as possible the cost of providing quality goods and services.

Sec. 21. [COMMUNITY SERVICE.]

Each public post-secondary system shall review its curricula, especially in required courses in general education and departmental majors, to determine the current and future opportunities for incorporating community service components. Each system is encouraged to locate curricular areas in which the system can assist students to voluntarily pursue community service that is relevant to their studies. The systems shall report their findings and recommendations to the education divisions of the appropriations and finance committees by February 1, 1989.

Sec. 22. [LOANED EXECUTIVE ACTION PROGRAM (LEAP).]

Subdivision 1. [PUBLIC SYSTEMS; JOINTLY.] The governing boards of the public post-secondary systems are requested to jointly establish a Loaned Executive Action Program to encourage business executives in the private sector to study management issues within each system and to make recommendations to improve the management structures and processes of each. The heads of each system shall jointly report to the education divisions of the appropriations and finance committees on the actions taken under this section by January 15, 1989.

Subd. 2. [CAMPUS BUDGET PROPOSALS.] A loaned executive working with the University of Minnesota should study the issue of preparing and presenting individual campus budget proposals to the board of regents.

Sec. 23. [CHILD CARE REPORTS.]

Each public post-secondary system shall assess the effects of recent child care legislation on the needs of post-secondary students. Each system shall report its assessment and recommendations to the education divisions of the finance and appropriations committees by January 15, 1989.

REPORT FROM THE COMMITTEE ON RULES AND LEGISLATIVE ADMINISTRATION

Wynia from the Committee on Rules and Legislative Administration offered the following report and moved its adoption:

Be It Resolved that the report of the Select Committee on Ethics regarding Representative Kenneth J. Kludt be adopted and the report and the letter addressed to the House by Representative Kludt be printed in the Journal of the House.

REPORT OF THE SELECT COMMITTEE ON ETHICS
TO THE COMMITTEE ON RULES AND LEGISLATIVE ADMINISTRATION

On February 19, 1988, the Committee on Rules and Legislative Administration, pursuant to the Minnesota Constitution, Article IV, Sections 6 and 7, enumerating the powers of the House "to judge the eligibility of, and to punish or expel members," adopted a motion calling on the Speaker of the House to appoint a Select Committee on Ethics. On February 22, 1988, the Speaker appointed the Select Committee: Dee Long (Chair), Robert Anderson, David Bishop, Sidney Pauly, Leo Reding, and Loren Solberg.

The Select Committee determined through its deliberations and through clarifying correspondence with the Speaker, that it was within its jurisdiction to investigate and make recommendations regarding the conviction of Representative Kenneth J. Kludt for his violation of Minnesota Statutes, section 609.324, subd. 3.

On March 9, 1988, the Select Committee adopted the following motion: "The Select Committee on Ethics [shall] hold a public hearing to consider such action as the Committee may find appropriate regarding the conviction of Representative Kenneth J. Kludt on December 14, 1987, for violation of Minnesota Statutes, section 609.324, subd. 3, and that Representative Kludt be notified of such hearing and be allowed to appear before the Committee."

The Committee further determined that the public hearing regarding Representative Kludt should be held March 16, 1988, and that Representatives Long and Bishop were to notify Representative Kludt of the Committee's action and hearing date. Immediately following the Committee meeting, Representative Kludt was informed of the Committee's action. He was requested to appear at the public hearing. The Chair of the Committee, Representative Long, presented Representative Kludt with a letter signed by her notifying him of the Committee's action.

Representative Kludt appeared before the Committee on March 16, 1988. Mr. Gerald Hendrickson, Chief Prosecutor for the St. Paul City Attorney's Office, also appeared. The Committee established the information contained in items one through four in its finding of fact and questioned Representative Kludt concerning the events surrounding his arrest and conviction.

Representative Long moved that the Select Committee find that Representative Kludt's behavior on June 25, 1987, was inappropriate and that Representative Kludt be required to submit a written apology to the House of Representatives. The motion further directed staff to prepare a report of the Committee's actions to submit to the Committee on Rules and Legislative Administration. The Committee adopted this motion.

Representative Kludt indicated that he would comply with the Committee's motion and that he would furnish a copy of his apology for the Committee to review.

On March 17, 1988, Representative Long presented to the Committee a letter of apology which she had received from Representative Kludt. The letter was accepted by the Committee and was ordered to become part of its report.

The Committee also determined that the report, records and supporting documents should be delivered to the Chief Clerk for disposition in the manner prescribed by the House rule for standing committee records.

With respect to the case of Representative Kludt, the Select Committee makes the following findings of fact:

Findings of Fact

1. On June 25, 1987, a special session of the Minnesota House of Representatives in St. Paul was called by the Governor of Minnesota. Representative Kludt was in St. Paul for the purpose of attending the special session.

2. On June 25, 1987, at approximately 11:20 a.m., Representative Kludt was arrested by the St. Paul Police Department for a violation of Minnesota Statutes, section 609.324, subd. 3.

3. On August 6, 1987, Representative Kludt was charged in Ramsey County District Court with a violation of Minnesota Statutes, section 609.324, subd. 3.

4. On December 14, 1987, Representative Kludt was found guilty of a violation of Minnesota Statutes, section 609.324, subd. 3, a misdemeanor, in Ramsey County District Court, with imposition of sentence stayed for one year.

5. With two exceptions there are no rules of procedure for the discipline of Members of the House of Representatives whose conduct is unbecoming to one who holds this office. The two exceptions are the power of the House to punish its members for disorderly behavior and to expel a member as set forth in Article IV, Section 7; and, the provision in Article IV, Section 6 that requires that a Member be a qualified voter, which qualification is lost for conviction of a felony crime.

6. On March 17, 1988, Representative Kludt submitted a letter addressed to the House of Representatives apologizing for his actions on June 25, 1987. This letter of apology was accepted by the Select Committee and is attached to this report.

Based on the deliberations of the Select Committee on Ethics and its findings of fact, the Committee adopts the following conclusions and recommendations:

1. Representative Kludt's actions on June 25, 1987, were inappropriate and unbecoming for a member of the House of Representatives.

2. Representative Kludt's conduct and criminal conviction have adversely reflected upon the House of Representatives.

3. This Select Committee requires that Representative Kludt make a written apology to the House of Representatives.

4. Representative Kludt's apology, together with this report, shall be submitted to the Committee on Rules and Legislative Administration.

5. This Select Committee recommends that both Representative Kludt's apology and this report be entered into the Journal of the House.

Signed:

Dee Long, Chair
Robert Anderson
David Bishop

Sidney Pauly
Leo Reding
