(5) 90 days after the employee has reached maximum medical improvement, following service on or receipt by the employee of a written medical report indicating that the employee has reached maximum medical improvement.

Regardless of the number of weeks of total disability, no totally disabled person is ineligible for supplementary benefits after four years have elapsed since the first date of the total disability, except as provided by clause (b), provided that all periods of disability are caused by the same injury.

(b) An employee who has suffered personal injury after October 1, 1983, and before October 1, 1988, is eligible to receive supplementary benefits after the employee has been receiving temporary total or permanent total benefits for 208 weeks. Regardless of the number of weeks of total disability, no person who is receiving temporary total compensation shall be ineligible for supplementary benefits after four years have elapsed since the first date of the total disability, provided that all periods of disability are caused by the same injury.

(c) An employee who has suffered personal injury on or after October 1, 1988, that caused a permanent total disability, as defined in section 176.101, subdivision 5, is eligible to receive supplementary benefits after four years have elapsed since the first date of the total disability, provided that the employee continues to have a permanent total disability.

Sec. 35. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 176.132, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [AMOUNT.] (a) the supplementary benefit payable under this section shall be the difference between the amount the employee receives on or after January 1, 1976, under section 176.101, subdivision 1 ~~or~~ 4, plus the amount of any disability benefits being paid by any government disability benefit program if those benefits are occasioned by the same injury or injuries giving rise to payments under section 176.101, subdivision 4, plus any old age or survivor's benefits, and 65 percent of the statewide average weekly wage as computed annually.

(b) In the event an eligible recipient is currently receiving no compensation or is receiving a reduced level of compensation because of a credit being applied as the result of a third party liability or damages, the employer or insurer shall compute the offset credit as if the individual were entitled to the actual benefit or 65 percent of the statewide average weekly wage as computed annually, whichever is greater. If this results in the use of a higher credit than otherwise would have been applied and the employer or insurer becomes liable for compensation benefits which would otherwise not have been paid, the additional benefits resulting shall be handled according to this section.

(c) In the event an eligible recipient is receiving no compensation or is receiving a reduced level of compensation because of a valid agreement in settlement of a claim, no supplementary benefit shall be payable under this section. Attorney's fees shall be allowed in settlements of claims for supplementary benefits in accordance with this chapter.

(d) In the event an eligible recipient is receiving no compensation or is receiving a reduced level of compensation because of prior limitations in the maximum amount payable for permanent total disability or because of reductions resulting from the simultaneous receipt of old age or disability benefits, the supplementary benefit shall be payable for the difference between the actual amount of compensation currently being paid and 65 percent of the statewide average weekly wage as computed annually.

(e) In the event that an eligible recipient is receiving simultaneous benefits from any government disability program, the amount of supplementary benefits payable under this section shall be reduced by five percent. If the individual does not receive the maximum benefits for which the individual is eligible under other governmental disability programs due to the provisions of United States Code, title 42, section 424a(d), this reduction shall not apply.

Sec. 36. Minnesota Statutes 1987 Supplement, section 176.135, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [LIMITATION OF LIABILITY.] (a) The pecuniary liability of the employer for the treatment, articles and supplies required by this section shall be limited to the charges therefor as prevail in the same community for similar treatment, articles and supplies furnished to injured persons of a like standard of living when the same are paid for by the injured persons. On this basis the commissioner or compensation judge may determine the reasonable value of all such services and supplies and the liability of the employer is limited to the amount so determined.

(b) For any treatment provided after December 31, 1988, an employer is not liable for the cost of any ongoing therapy treatment after four months after the first treatment, unless a treatment plan is specifically approved in advance by the commissioner as reasonable and necessary. This approval may not be waived by the parties. Therapy treatments during the first four months of treatment must still be reasonable and necessary. The commissioner may adopt emergency rules to establish standards for reasonable and necessary therapy treatments.

Sec. 37. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 176.136, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [SCHEDULE.] The commissioner shall by rule establish procedures for determining whether or not the charge for a health service is excessive. In order to accomplish this purpose, the commissioner shall consult with insurers, associations and organizations representing the medical and other providers of treatment services and other appropriate groups. The procedures established by the commissioner shall limit the charges allowable for medical, chiropractic, podiatric, surgical, hospital and other health care provider treatment or services, as defined and compensable under section 176.135, to the 75th percentile of usual and customary fees or charges based upon billings for each class of health care provider during all of the calendar year preceding the year in which the determination is made of the amount to be paid the health care provider for the billing, except that the medical fee rules promulgated on October 1, 1988, and based upon 1987 medical cost data, shall remain in effect until September 30, 1990; except that the commissioner may modify provisions of the medical fee rules other than the amount of the fees by rule before that date. The commissioner shall by rule expand the fee schedule to include as many relevant medical procedures as possible. The procedures established by the commissioner for determining whether or not the charge for a health service is excessive shall be structured to encourage providers to develop and deliver services for rehabilitation of injured workers. The procedures shall incorporate the provisions of sections 144.701, 144.702, and 144.703 to the extent that the commissioner finds that these provisions effectively accomplish the intent of this section or are otherwise necessary to insure that quality hospital care is available to injured employees.

Sec. 38. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 176.136, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 1a. [HOSPITAL CHARGES.] The commissioner shall adopt rules that reasonably limit inpatient and outpatient hospital charges. Hospital charges may be limited under subdivision 1 or by any other prudent, cost-effective method, or under both subdivision 1 and this subdivision.

Sec. 39. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 176.136, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 1b. [CHARGES FOR INDEPENDENT MEDICAL EXAMINATIONS.] The commissioner shall adopt emergency rules that reasonably limit amounts which may be charged for, or in connection with, independent, adverse, or neutral medical examinations requested by any party, including the amount that may be charged for depositions, witness fees or other expenses. The scheduled amount for the examination itself may not exceed the scheduled amount for complex consultations by treating physicians, although additional reasonable charges may be permitted to reflect additional duties or activities. An insurer or employer may not pay fees above the amount in the schedule. The emergency rules shall remain in effect until permanent rules are adopted. The commissioner shall adopt permanent rules, to be effective after September 30, 1990, or as soon thereafter as possible, regulating these fees.

Sec. 40. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 176.136, subdivision 5, is amended to read:

Subd. 5. [PERMANENT RULES.] ~~Where permanent rules have been adopted to implement this section,~~ The commissioner shall annually give notice in the State Register of the 75th percentile to meet the requirements of subdivision 1. The notice shall be in lieu of the requirements of chapter 14 if the 75th percentile for the service data meets the requirements of paragraphs (a) to ~~(c)~~ (d).

(a) The data base includes at least three different providers of the service.

(b) The data base contains at least 20 billings for the service.

~~(c) The standard deviation as a percentage of the mean of billings for the service is 50 percent or less.~~

~~(d) The means of the Blue Cross and Blue Shield data base and of the department of human services data base for the service are within 20 percent of each other. The value of the 75th percentile is not greater than or equal to three times the value of the 25th percentile.~~

~~(e) The data is taken from the data base of Blue Cross and Blue Shield or the department of human services.~~

(d) If the commissioner identifies a problem with the data base such that the average fee does not logically reflect the usual and customary charge, then, upon consultation with the medical services review board, the commissioner may eliminate the category from the rules or adjust the rate to correct the inconsistency or error.

Subdivision 1. [EMPLOYER'S PHYSICIAN.] The injured employee must submit to examination by the employer's physician, if requested by the employer, and at reasonable times thereafter upon the employer's request. The examination must be scheduled at a location within 150 miles of the employee's residence unless the employer can show cause to the department to order an examination at a location further from the petitioner's residence. The employee is entitled upon request to have a personal physician present at any such examination. Each party shall defray the cost of that party's physician. Any report or written statement made by the employer's physician as a result of an examination of the employee, regardless of whether the examination preceded the injury or was made subsequent to the injury, shall be made available, upon request and without charge, to the injured employee or representative of the employee. The employer shall pay reasonable travel expenses incurred by the employee in attending the examination including mileage, parking, and, if necessary, lodging and meals. The employer shall also pay the employee for any lost wages resulting from attendance at the examination. A self-insured employer or insurer who is served with a claim petition pursuant to section 176.271, subdivision 1, or 176.291, shall schedule any necessary examinations of the employee, if an examination by the employer's physician or health care provider is necessary to evaluate benefits claimed. The examination shall be completed and the report of the examination shall be served on the employee and filed with the commissioner within 120 days of service of the claim petition.

No evidence relating to the examination or report shall be received or considered by the commissioner, a compensation judge, or the court of appeals in determining any issues unless the report has been served and filed as required by this section, unless a written extension has been granted by the commissioner or compensation judge. The commissioner or a compensation judge shall extend the time for completing the adverse examination and filing the report upon good cause shown. The extension must not be for the purpose of delay and the insurer must make a good faith effort to comply with this subdivision. Good cause shall include but is not limited to:

(1) that the extension is necessary because of the limited number of physicians or health care providers available with expertise in the particular injury or disease, or that the extension is necessary due to the complexity of the medical issues, or

(2) that the extension is necessary to gather addition information which was not included on the petition as required by section 176.291.

Sec. 42. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 176.179, is amended to read:

176.179 [PAYMENTS OF COMPENSATION RECEIVED IN GOOD FAITH.]

Notwithstanding section 176.521, subdivision 3, or any other provision of this chapter to the contrary, except as provided in this section, no lump sum or weekly payment, or settlement, which is voluntarily paid to an injured employee or the survivors of a deceased employee in apparent or seeming accordance with the provisions of this chapter by an employer or insurer, or is paid pursuant to an order of the workers' compensation division, a compensation judge, or court of appeals relative to a claim by an injured employee or the employee's survivors, and received in good faith by the employee or the employee's survivors shall be refunded to the paying employer or insurer in the event that it is subsequently determined that the payment was made under a mistake in fact or law by the employer or insurer. When the payments have been made to a person who is entitled to receive further payments of compensation for the same injury, the mistaken compensation may be taken as a full credit against future lump sum benefit entitlement and as a partial credit against future weekly benefits. The credit applied against further payments of temporary total disability, temporary partial disability, permanent total disability, retraining benefits, death benefits, or weekly payments of economic recovery or impairment permanent partial compensation shall not exceed 20 percent of the amount that would otherwise be payable.

A credit may not be applied against medical expenses due or payable.

Sec. 43. Minnesota Statutes 1987 Supplement, section 176.194, subdivision 5, is amended to read:

Subd. 5. [RULES.] The commissioner may, by rules adopted in accordance with chapter 14, specify additional unfair, misleading, deceptive, or fraudulent practices or conduct which are subject to the penalties under this section.

Sec. 44. Minnesota Statutes 1987 Supplement, section 176.194, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 6. [UNFAIR BUSINESS PRACTICES.] (a) An insurer, self-insurer, or other entity referred to in subdivision 1, causing or permitting with such frequency to indicate a general business practice any unfair, deceptive, or fraudulent act concerning any claim or complaint of an insured or claimant including, but not limited to, those practices enumerated under section 72A.20, subdivision 12, may be ordered by the commissioner to cease and desist from such practice immediately and may be assessed a civil penalty of $2,000 for each offense.

(b) Any person who violates a cease and desist order of the commissioner under this section after it has become final, shall forfeit and pay to the special compensation fund a sum of $10,000 for each violation. In addition, the commissioner of commerce may revoke or suspend the entity's license to write insurance or administer or adjust claims, or authority to self-insure in this state in accordance with the procedures in section 176.195.

(c) These penalties are in addition to any other penalties that may be imposed under chapter 176, or chapters 60 to 80. An order of the commissioner under this section shall become final as provided by section 72A.24.

Sec. 45. Minnesota Statutes 1987 Supplement, section 176.221, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [COMMENCEMENT OF PAYMENT.] Within 14 days of notice to or knowledge by the employer of an injury compensable under this chapter the payment of temporary total compensation shall commence. Within 14 days of notice to or knowledge by an employer of a new period of temporary total disability which is caused by an old injury compensable under this chapter, the payment of temporary total compensation shall commence; provided that the employer or insurer may file for an extension with the commissioner within this 14-day period, in which case the compensation need not commence within the 14-day period but shall commence no later than 30 days from the date of the notice to or knowledge by the employer of the new period of disability. Commencement of payment by an employer or insurer does not waive any rights to any defense the employer has on any claim or incident either with respect to the compensability of the claim under this chapter or the amount of the compensation due. Where there are multiple employers, the first employer shall pay, unless it is shown that the injury has arisen out of employment with the second or subsequent employer. Liability for compensation under this chapter may be denied by the employer or insurer by giving the employee written notice of the denial of liability. If liability is denied for an injury which is required to be reported to the commissioner under section 176.231, subdivision 1, the denial of liability must be filed with the commissioner within 14 days after notice to or knowledge by the employer of an injury which is alleged to be compensable under this chapter. If the employer or insurer has commenced payment of compensation under this subdivision but determines within ~~30~~ 60 days of notice to or knowledge by the employer of the injury that the disability is not a result of a personal injury, payment of compensation may be terminated upon the filing of a notice of denial of liability within ~~30~~ 60 days of notice or knowledge. After the ~~30-day~~ 60-day period, payment may be terminated only by the filing of a notice as provided under section 176.239. Upon the termination, payments made may be recovered by the employer if the commissioner or compensation judge finds that the employee's claim of work related disability was not made in good faith. A notice of denial of liability must state in detail specific reasons explaining why the claimed injury or occupational disease was determined not to be within the scope and course of employment and shall include the name and telephone number of the person making this determination.

Sec. 46. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 176.221, subdivision 6a, is amended to read:

Subd. 6a. [MEDICAL, REHABILITATION, ECONOMIC RECOVERY, AND IMPAIRMENT PERMANENT PARTIAL COMPENSATION.] The penalties provided by this section apply in cases where payment for treatment under section 176.135, or rehabilitation expenses under section 176.102, subdivisions 9 and 11, ~~economic recovery compensation or impairment~~ permanent partial compensation are not made in a timely manner as required by law or by rule adopted by the commissioner.

Sec. 47. Minnesota Statutes 1987 Supplement, section 176.238, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 1a. [NOTICE OF REEMPLOYMENT.] An employer or insurer must notify the employee within 30 days of the notice of maximum medical improvement whether the employer will offer the employee a job with the preinjury employer. A copy of the notice must be filed with the department. The commissioner may impose a penalty of up to $200 for any failure to provide or file the notices as required by this subdivision.

Sec. 48. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 176.421, subdivision 6, is amended to read:

Subd. 6. [POWERS OF WORKERS' COMPENSATION COURT OF APPEALS ON APPEAL.] On an appeal taken under this section, the workers' compensation court of appeals' review is limited to the issues raised by the parties in the notice of appeal or by a cross-appeal. In these cases, on those issues raised by the appeal, the workers' compensation court of appeals may:

(1) grant an oral argument based on the record before the compensation judge;

(2) examine the record;

(3) substitute for the findings of fact made by the compensation judge findings based on the total evidence;

(4) sustain, reverse, make or modify an award or disallowance of compensation or other order based on the facts, findings, and law; and,

(5) summarily affirm without opinion the decision of the commissioner or compensation judge; and

(6) remand or make other appropriate order.

Sec. 49. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 176.645, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [TIME OF FIRST ADJUSTMENT.] For injuries occurring on or after October 1, 1981, the initial adjustment made pursuant to subdivision 1 shall be deferred until the first anniversary of the date of the injury. For injuries occurring on or after October 1, 1988, the initial adjustment under subdivision 1 shall be deferred until the third anniversary of the date of injury.

Sec. 50. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 176.66, subdivision 11, is amended to read:

Subd. 11. [AMOUNT OF COMPENSATION.] The compensation for an occupational disease is ~~66%~~ 80 percent of the employee's spendable weekly wage earnings on the date of injury subject to a maximum compensation equal to the maximum compensation in effect on the date of last exposure. The employee shall be eligible for supplementary benefits notwithstanding the provisions of section 176.132, after four years have elapsed since the date of last significant exposure to the hazard of the occupational disease if that employee's weekly compensation rate is less than the current supplementary benefit rate.

Sec. 51. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 176.83, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 16. [EMERGENCY RULES; EFFECTIVE DATES.] Notwithstanding sections 14.29 to 14.36, emergency rules authorized by sections 15 and 39, may be adopted beyond the 180-day period referred to in section 14.29 and, once adopted, shall remain in effect until September 30, 1990 and shall continue until permanent rules are adopted under those sections. The commissioner shall begin the rulemaking process for permanent rules so that permanent rules may be adopted before October 1, 1990, or as soon thereafter as possible.

Sec. 52. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 176.84, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [SPECIFICITY REQUIRED.] Notices of ~~discontinuance~~ intention to discontinue and denials of liability shall be sufficiently specific to convey clearly, without further inquiry, the basis upon which the party issuing the notice or statement is acting. Notwithstanding section 176.275, if the commissioner or compensation judge determines that a notice or statement is not sufficiently specific to meet the standard under this section, the notice or statement may be rejected as unacceptable and the party issuing it shall be informed of this. The rejected notice or statement may be amended to meet the requirement of this section or a new one may be filed. If rejected, the notice or statement will not be considered filed, unless the defect is cured within ten days.

Sec. 53. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 176A.03, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 3. [COVERAGE OUTSIDE STATE.] Policies issued by the fund pursuant to this chapter may also provide workers' compensation coverage required under the laws of states other than Minnesota, including coverages commonly known as "all states coverage." The fund may apply for and obtain any licensure required in any other state in order to issue such coverage.

Sec. 54. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 176A.03, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 4. [INSURANCE OF LOW-RISK EMPLOYERS.] The fund shall make all efforts to insure employers that have been required to insure through the assigned risk plan and have not been liable for workers' compensation benefits, other than medical benefits for any injury or death occurring in the five preceding years. The fund shall review the application of any such employer and shall provide the specific detailed reasons why any such employer is not provided insurance. The manager shall report to the legislature before January 1, 1990, on the efforts of the fund to insure these employers.

Sec. 55. [REPORTS TO THE LEGISLATURE; RECOMMENDATIONS ON MEDICAL AND REHABILITATION ISSUES.]

Subdivision 1. [MEDICAL COSTS.] The commissioner of labor and industry shall present a detailed report to the legislature before January 1, 1990, concerning medical cost issues in the workers' compensation system.

Subd. 2. [NEUTRAL PHYSICIANS.] The commissioner shall develop and evaluate a detailed proposal for establishing a system of neutral doctors for use in such areas as determining maximum medical improvement and rating permanent partial disabilities. The commissioner shall present this report to the legislature before January 1, 1989.

Subd. 3. [QUALIFIED REHABILITATION CONSULTANTS.]

The commissioner shall develop a plan to assure neutrality and high quality of qualified rehabilitation consultants and shall consider alternative methods of selection of qualified rehabilitation consultants for injured workers. The commissioner shall also develop a detailed plan for assuring the high quality of qualified rehabilitation consultants. In formulating this plan, the commissioner shall consider methods used in other states to discipline and otherwise regulate rehabilitation consultants. The commissioner shall report to the legislature by January 1, 1989, regarding these plans.

Sec. 56. [HEARINGS AT THE OFFICE OF ADMINISTRATIVE HEARINGS; REPORT OF THE CHIEF ADMINISTRATIVE LAW

JUDGE.] The chief administrative law judge shall consider methods to reduce the formality and length of hearings in workers' compensation cases at the office of administrative hearings, with a goal of completing 50 percent of the hearings in less than two hours, 75 percent in less than four hours and nearly all of the cases in less than one day. Before January 1, 1989, the chief judge shall report to the legislature on the efforts to meet these goals, including any recommendations for legislation needed to achieve these goals.

WORKERS' COMPENSATION SYSTEM CHANGES

Section 1. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 176.011, subdivision 11a, is amended to read:

Subd. 11a. [FAMILY FARM.] “Family farm” means any farm operation which (1) pays or is obligated to pay less than $8,000 $20,000 in cash wages, exclusive of machine hire, to farm laborers for services rendered during the preceding calendar year, and (2) has total liability and medical payment coverage equal to $250,000 and $5,000, respectively, under a farm liability insurance policy. For purposes of this subdivision, farm laborer does not include any spouse, parent or child, regardless of age, of a farmer employed by the farmer, or any executive officer of a family farm corporation as defined in section 500.24, subdivision 2, or any spouse, parent or child, regardless of age, of such an officer employed by that family farm corporation, or other farmers in the same community or members of their families exchanging work with the employer. Notwithstanding any law to the contrary, a farm laborer shall not be considered as an independent contractor for the purposes of this chapter; provided that a commercial baler or commercial thresher shall be considered an independent contractor.

Sec. 2. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 176.011, subdivision 18, is amended to read:

Subd. 18. [WEEKLY WAGE.] "Weekly wage" is arrived at by multiplying the daily wage by the number of days and fractional days normally worked in the business of the employer for the employment involved. If the employee normally works less than five days per week or works an irregular number of days per week, the number of days normally worked shall be computed by dividing the total number of days in which the employee actually performed any of the duties of employment in the last 26 weeks by the number of weeks in which the employee actually performed such duties, provided that the weekly wage for part time employment during a period of seasonal or temporary layoff shall be computed on the number of days and fractional days normally worked in the business of the employer for the employment involved. If, at the time of the injury, the employee was regularly employed by two or more employers, the employee's days of work for all such employments shall be included in the computation of weekly wage. Occasional overtime is not to be considered in computing the weekly wage, but if overtime is regular or frequent throughout the year it shall be taken into consideration. The maximum weekly compensation payable to an employee, or to the employee's dependents in the event of death, shall not exceed $66 \frac{2}{3}$ percent of the product of the daily wage times the number of days normally worked employee's after-tax weekly wage, provided that the compensation payable for permanent partial disability under section 176.101, subdivision 3, and for permanent total disability under section 176.101, subdivision 4, or death under section 176.111, shall not be computed on less than the number of hours normally worked in the employment or industry in which the injury was sustained, subject also to such maximums as are specifically otherwise provided.

Sec. 3. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 176.011, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 18a. [AFTER-TAX WEEKLY WAGE.] After-tax weekly wage means the weekly wage reduced by the amounts required to be withheld by the Federal Insurance Contributions Act, United States Code, Title 16, sections 3101 to 3126, but without regard to the yearly maximum, and by state and federal income tax laws using as the number of allowances the number of exemptions that the employee is entitled to under federal law for the employee and the employee's dependents.

Sec. 4. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 176.021, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [COMPENSATION, COMMENCEMENT OF PAYMENT.] All employers shall commence payment of compensation at the time and in the manner prescribed by this chapter without the necessity of any agreement or any order of the division. Except for medical, burial, and other nonperiodic benefits, payments shall be made as nearly as possible at the intervals when the wage was payable, provided, however, that payments for permanent partial disability shall be governed by section 176.101 13. If doubt exists as to the eventual permanent partial disability, payment for the ~~economic recovery compensation or impairment compensation, whichever is due, pursuant to section 176.101,~~ shall be then made when due for the minimum permanent partial disability ascertainable, and further payment shall be made upon any later ascertainment of greater permanent partial disability. Prior to or at the time of commencement of the payment of ~~economic recovery compensation or lump sum or periodic payment of impairment compensation~~ permanent partial disability compensation, the employee and employer shall be furnished with a copy of the medical report upon which the payment is based and all other medical reports which the insurer has that indicate a permanent partial disability rating, together with a statement by the insurer as to whether the tendered payment is for minimum permanent partial disability or final and eventual disability. After receipt of all reports available to the insurer that indicate a permanent partial disability rating, the employee shall make available or permit the insurer to obtain any medical report that the employee has or has knowledge of that contains a permanent partial disability rating which the insurer does not already have. ~~Economic recovery compensation or impairment compensation pursuant to section 176.101 is payable in addition to but not concurrently with compensation for temporary total disability but is payable pursuant to section 176.101. Impairment compensation is payable concurrently and in addition to compensation for permanent total disability pursuant to section 176.101. Economic recovery compensation or impairment compensation pursuant to section 176.101 shall be withheld pending completion of payment for temporary total disability, and no credit shall be taken for payment of economic recovery compensation or impairment compensation against liability for temporary total or future permanent total disability. Liability on the part of an employer or the insurer for disability of a temporary total, temporary partial, and permanent total nature shall be considered as a continuing product and part of the employee's inability to earn or reduction in earning capacity due to injury or occupational disease and compensation is payable accordingly, subject to section 176.101. Economic recovery compensation or impairment compensation is payable for functional loss of use or impairment of function, permanent in nature, and payment therefore shall be separate, distinct, and in addition to payment for any other compensation, subject to section 176.101. The right to receive temporary total, temporary partial, or permanent total disability payments vests in the injured employee or the employee's dependents under this chapter or, if none, in the employee's legal heirs at the time the disability can be ascertained and the right is not abrogated by the employee's death prior to the making of the payment.~~

The right to receive economic recovery compensation or impairment permanent partial compensation vests in an injured employee or in the employee's dependents under this chapter or, if none, in the employee's legal heirs at the time the disability can be ascertained, provided that the employee lives for at least 30 days beyond the date of the injury. The right is not abrogated by the employee's death prior to the making of the payment. Upon the death of an employee who is receiving economic recovery compensation or impairment compensation, further compensation is payable pursuant to section 176.101. Impairment compensation is payable under this paragraph if vesting has occurred, the employee dies prior to reaching maximum medical improvement, and the requirements and conditions under section 176.101, subdivision 3c, are not met.

Sec. 5. Minnesota Statutes 1987 Supplement, section 176.041, subdivision 4, is amended to read:

Subd. 4. [OUT-OF-STATE EMPLOYMENTS.] (a) Except as provided in paragraph (b), if an employee who regularly performs the primary duties of employment outside of this state or is hired to perform the primary duties of employment outside of this state, receives an injury within this state in the employ of the same employer, such injury shall be covered within the provisions of this chapter if the employee chooses to forego any workers' compensation claim resulting from the injury that the employee may have a right to pursue in some other state, provided that the special compensation fund is not liable for payment of benefits pursuant to section 176.183 if the employer is not insured against workers' compensation liability pursuant to this chapter and the employee is a nonresident of Minnesota on the date of the personal injury.

(b) An employee who has been hired outside of this state, or regularly performs the primary duties of employment outside of this state, and the employee's employer, are exempt from the provisions of this chapter while the employee is temporarily within this state performing work for the employer provided the employer has furnished workers' compensation insurance coverage under the workers' compensation law or other similar law of another state which covers the employee's employment while in this state. The benefits under the workers' compensation law or similar law of the other state, or other remedies under that state's law, are the exclusive remedy against the employer for any injury, whether resulting in death or not, received by the employee while working for that employer within this state. A certificate from the commissioner of labor and industry or other similar official of another state certifying that the employer is insured in that state and has provided extraterritorial coverage insuring its employees while working within this state is prima facie evidence that the employer carries workers' compensation insurance on those employees.

Sec. 6. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 176.061, subdivision 10, is amended to read:

Subd. 10. [INDEMNITY.] Notwithstanding the provisions of chapter 65B or any other law to the contrary, an employer has a right of indemnity for any compensation paid or payable pursuant to this chapter, including temporary total compensation, temporary partial compensation, permanent partial disability, ~~economic recovery compensation, impairment compensation,~~ medical compensation, rehabilitation, death, and permanent total compensation.

Sec. 7. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 176.081, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. (a) A fee for legal services of 25 percent of the first $4,000 of compensation awarded to the employee and 20 percent of the next $27,500 of compensation awarded to the employee is permissible and does not require approval by the commissioner, compensation judge, or any other party except as provided in ~~clause paragraph~~ (b). If the employer or the insurer or the defendant is given written notice of claims for legal services or disbursements, the claim shall be a lien against the amount paid or payable as compensation. In no case shall fees be calculated on the basis of any undisputed portion of compensation awards. Allowable fees under this chapter shall be based solely upon genuinely disputed portions of claims, including disputes related to the payment of rehabilitation benefits or to other aspects of a rehabilitation plan. Fees for administrative conferences under ~~section 176.242, 176.2421, 176.243, or 176.244~~ sections 176.106 and 176.239 shall be determined on an hourly basis, according to the criteria in subdivision 5.

(b) An attorney who is claiming legal fees ~~under this section~~ for representing an employee in a workers' compensation matter shall file a statement of ~~attorney's attorney~~ fees with the commissioner, compensation judge before whom the matter was heard, or workers' compensation court of appeals on cases before the court. A copy of the signed retainer agreement shall also be filed. The employee and insurer shall receive a copy of the statement. The statement shall be on a form prescribed by the commissioner and shall clearly and conspicuously state that the employee or insurer has ten calendar days to object to the attorney fees requested. If no objection is timely made by the employee or insurer, the amount requested shall be conclusively presumed reasonable providing the amount does not exceed the limitation in subdivision 1. The commissioner, compensation judge, or court of appeals shall issue an order granting the fees and the amount requested shall be awarded to the party requesting the fee. If a timely objection is filed, or the fee is determined on an hourly basis, the commissioner, compensation judge, or court of appeals shall review the matter and make a determination based on the criteria in subdivision 5. If no timely objection is made by an employer or insurer, reimbursement under subdivision 7 shall be made if the statement of fees requested this reimbursement.

(c) An attorney representing employers or insurers shall file a statement of attorney fees or wages with the commissioner, compensation judge before whom the matter was heard, or workers' compensation court of appeals on cases before the court. The statement of attorney fees or wages must contain the following information: the average hourly wage or the value of hours worked on that case if the attorney is an employee of the employer or insurer, the number of hours worked on that case, and the average hourly rate or amount charged an employer or insurer for that case if the attorney is not an employee of the employer or insurer.

(d) Employers and insurers may not pay attorney fees or wages for legal services of more than $6,500 per case unless the additional fees or wages are approved under subdivision 2.

Sec. 8. Minnesota Statutes 1987 Supplement, section 176.081, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. An application for attorney fees in excess of the amount authorized in subdivision 1 shall be made to the commissioner, compensation judge, or district judge, before whom the matter was heard. An appeal of a decision by the commissioner, a compensation judge, or district court judge on additional fees may be made to the workers' compensation court of appeals. The application shall set forth the fee requested ~~and, the number of hours spent on the case,~~ the basis for the request, and whether or not a hearing is requested. The application, with affidavit of service upon the ~~employee attorney's client,~~ shall be filed by the attorney requesting the fee. If a hearing is requested by an interested party, a hearing shall be set with notice of the hearing served upon known interested parties. In all cases the employee shall be served with notice of hearing.

Sec. 9. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 176.081, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. ~~An employee who~~ A party that is dissatisfied with its attorney fees, may file an application for review by the workers' compensation court of appeals. Such application shall state the basis for the need of review and whether or not a hearing is requested. A copy of such application shall be served upon the party's attorney ~~for the employee~~ by the court administrator and if a hearing is requested by either party, the matter shall be set for hearing. The notice of hearing shall be served upon known interested parties. ~~The attorney for the employee shall be served with a notice of the hearing.~~ The workers' compensation court of appeals shall have the authority to raise ~~the question of~~ the issue of the attorney fees at any time upon its own motion and shall have continuing jurisdiction over attorney fees.

Sec. 10. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 176.101, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [TEMPORARY TOTAL DISABILITY.] (a) For an injury producing temporary total disability, the compensation is ~~66 $\frac{2}{3}$~~ 80 percent of the after-tax weekly wage at the time of injury.

(5) 90 days have passed after the employee has reached maximum medical improvement, except as provided in section 176.102, subdivision 1, paragraph (b).

Compensation recommenced under this paragraph is subject to cessation under paragraph (d). Recommended compensation may not be paid beyond 90 days after the employee reaches maximum medical improvement, except as provided under section 176.102, subdivision 11, paragraph (b).

(b) Extended disability compensation is paid at the rate for temporary total compensation, escalated under section 176.645, for the number of weeks equal to 246 multiplied by the employee's percentage rating of permanent partial disability, determined according to the rules adopted by the commissioner pursuant to section 176.105, subdivision 4. (3) for the third 26 weeks that the employee returns to work, the compensation shall be 40 percent of the difference between the after-tax weekly wage of the employee at the time of injury and the after-tax weekly wage the employee is earning in the employee's partially disabled condition.

(b) This compensation shall be paid during the period of disability except as provided in this section, payment to be made at the intervals when the wage was payable, as nearly as may be, and subject to a maximum compensation equal to 105 percent of the statewide average weekly wage.

(c) Temporary partial compensation may be paid only while the employee is working and earning less than the employee's weekly wage at the time of the injury. Except as provided in section

176.102, subdivision 11, paragraph (b), temporary partial compensation may not be paid after the employee has returned to work for 78 weeks or after 350 weeks after the date of injury, whichever occurs first.

(b) Permanent partial disability is payable upon cessation of temporary total disability under subdivision 1. If the employee is not working, the compensation is payable in installments at the same intervals and in the same amount as the initial temporary total disability rate. Rehabilitation to a job with a higher economic status than would have occurred without disability is permitted if it can be demonstrated that this rehabilitation is necessary to increase the likelihood of reemployment. Economic status is to be measured not only by opportunity for immediate income but also by opportunity for future income.

Where there are multiple employers, the first employer shall pay, unless it is shown that the injury has arisen out of employment with the second or subsequent employer. Liability for compensation under this chapter may be denied by the employer or insurer by giving the employee written notice of the denial of liability. If liability is denied for an injury which is required to be reported to the commissioner under section 176.231, subdivision 1, the denial of liability must be filed with the commissioner within 14 days after notice to or knowledge by the employer of an injury which is alleged to be compensable under this chapter. If the employer or insurer has commenced payment of compensation under this subdivision but determines within ~~30~~ 60 days of notice to or knowledge by the employer of the injury that the disability is not a result of a personal injury, payment of compensation may be terminated upon the filing of a notice of denial of liability within ~~30~~ 60 days of notice or knowledge. After the ~~30-day~~ 60-day period, payment may be terminated only by the filing of a notice as provided under section 176.239. Upon the termination, payments made may be recovered by the employer if the commissioner or compensation judge finds that the employee's claim of work related disability was not made in good faith. A notice of denial of liability must state in detail specific reasons explaining why the claimed injury or occupational disease was determined not to be within the scope and course of employment and shall include the name and telephone number of the person making this determination.

For injuries occurring after October 1, 1975, all adjustments provided for in this section shall be included in computing any benefit due under this section. Any limitations of amounts due for daily or weekly compensation under this chapter shall not apply to adjustments made under this section. No adjustment increase made on October 1, 1977 or thereafter under this section shall exceed ~~six~~ four percent a year. The employee shall be eligible for supplementary benefits notwithstanding the provisions of section 176.132, after four years have elapsed since the date of last significant exposure to the hazard of the occupational disease if that employee's weekly compensation rate is less than the current supplementary benefit rate.

The hearing must be conducted pursuant to chapter 14. The commissioner shall give notice of intent to hold a hearing within 90 days of the filing of the change. It is the responsibility of the insurer to show that the rate level or rating plan is not excessive, inadequate, or unfairly discriminatory. The rate level or rating plan is effective unless it is determined as a result of the hearing that the rate level or rating plan is excessive, inadequate, or unfairly discriminatory. Upon such a finding, the rate level or rating plan is retroactively rescinded and any premiums collected thereunder must be refunded. This subdivision applies only to changes resulting from an insurer's utilization of either: (1) the pure premium base rate level filed by any data service organization, plus the insurer's loading for expenses and profit; or (2) the insurer's own filed rate levels and rating plan. This subdivision does not apply to any changes resulting from assessments for the assigned risk plan, reinsurance association, guarantee fund, special compensation fund, or statutory benefit level changes to sections 176.101, subdivisions 1, 2, and 4, 176.111, 176.132, and 176.645 as a result of annual adjustments in the statewide average weekly wage. The disapproval of a rate level or rating plan under this subdivision must be done in the same manner as under section 70A.11, except that the standards of section 79.55 apply.

(b) Notwithstanding paragraph (a), if the commissioner of labor and industry petitions the commissioner for a hearing pursuant to this subdivision, the commissioner must hold a hearing if the commissioner of labor and industry certifies that the hearing is necessary because a decision of the supreme court or enactment of a statute has effected a substantial change in the basis upon which the existing rate levels or rating plan was filed. The commissioner of labor and industry must make a prima facie showing that law change has effected a substantial change in the basis upon which the existing rate levels or rating plan was filed.

(c) Notwithstanding paragraph (a), the commissioner may hold a hearing if the commissioner determines that the hearing is necessary because of circumstances which result in a substantial change in the basis upon which the existing rate levels or rating plan was filed. The commissioner must make a prima facie showing that the circumstances resulted in a substantial change in the basis upon which the existing rate levels or rating plan was filed.

Sec. 4. [79.561] [PARTICIPATION.]

An employer, or person representing a group of employers, which will be directly affected by a change in an insurer's existing rate level or rating plan filed under section 3, and the commissioner of labor and industry, must be allowed to participate in any hearing under that subdivision challenging the change in rate level or rating plan as being excessive, inadequate, or unfairly discriminatory.

Sec. 5. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 79.61, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [REQUIRED ACTIVITY.] Any data service organization shall perform the following activities:

(a) File statistical plans, including classification definitions, amendments to the plans, and definitions, with the commissioner for approval, and assign each compensation risk written by its members to its approved classification for reporting purposes;

(b) Establish requirements for data reporting and monitoring methods to maintain a high quality data base;

(c) Prepare and distribute a periodic report, in a form prescribed by the commissioner, on ratemaking including, but not limited to the following elements:

(i) development factors and alternative derivations;

(ii) trend factors and alternative derivations and applications;

(iii) pure premium relativities for the approved classification system for which data are reported, provided that the relativities for insureds engaged in similar occupations and presenting substantially similar risks shall, if different, differ by at least ten percent; and

(iv) an evaluation of the effects of changes in law on loss data.

The report shall also include explicit discussion and explanation of methodology, alternatives examined, assumptions adopted, and areas of judgment and reasoning supporting judgments entered into, and the effect of various combinations of these elements on indications for modification of an overall pure premium rate level change. The pure premium relativities and rate level indications shall not include a loading for expenses or profit and no expense or profit data or recommendations relating to expense or profit shall be included in the report or collected by a data service organization;

(d) Collect, compile, summarize, and distribute data from members or other sources pursuant to a statistical plan approved by the commissioner;

(e) Prepare merit rating plan and calculate any variable factors necessary for utilization of the plan. Such a plan may be used by any of its members, at the option of the member provided that the application of a plan shall not result in rates that are unfairly discriminatory;

(f) Provide loss data specific to an insured to the insured at a reasonable cost;

(g) Distribute information to an insured or interested party that is filed with the commissioner and is open to public inspection; and

(h) Assess its members for operating expenses on a fair and equitable basis;

(i) Separate the incurred but not reported losses of its members;

(j) Separate paid and outstanding losses of its members;

(k) Provide information indicating cases in which its members have established a reserve in excess of $50,000;

(l) Provide information on the income on invested reserves of its members;

(m) Provide information as to policies written at other than the filed rates;

(n) File information based solely on Minnesota premium income of its members concerning investment income, legal expenses, subro-gation recoveries, administrative expenses, and commission expenses;

(o) File information based solely on Minnesota data concerning its members' reserving practices, premium income, indemnity, and medical benefits paid; and

(p) Provide any records of the data service organizations that are requested by the commissioner or otherwise required by statute.

Sec. 6. [79.65] [CHAPTER APPLICABILITY TO DATA SERVICE ORGANIZATIONS.]

Subdivision 1. [EXAMINATION BY COMMISSIONER.] Data service organizations are subject to all the provisions of this chapter. The commissioner or an authorized representative of the commissioner may visit the rating association at any reasonable time and examine, audit, or evaluate the rating association's operations, records, and practices. For purposes of this section, "authorized representative of the commissioner" includes employees of the departments of commerce or labor and industry or other parties retained by the commissioner. Examination under this section may be done of any member of data service organizations for purposes of workers' compensation insurance regulation.

Subd. 2. [COSTS AND EXPENSES.] The commissioner may order and the data service organization shall pay the costs and expenses of any examination, audit, or evaluation conducted pursuant to subdivision 1. A sum sufficient to pay these costs and expenses is appropriated from the special compensation fund to the commissioner of commerce.

Sec. 7. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 176A.03, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 3. [COVERAGE OUTSIDE STATE.] Policies issued by the fund pursuant to this chapter may also provide workers' compensation coverage required under the laws of states other than Minnesota, including coverages commonly known as "all states coverage." The fund may apply for and obtain any licensure required in any other state in order to issue such coverage.

Sec. 8. [MANDATED REDUCTIONS.]

(a) As a result of the workers' compensation law changes in article 1 and the resulting savings to the costs of Minnesota's workers' compensation system, an insurer's approved schedule of rates in effect on August 1, 1988, must be reduced by 16 percent and applied by the insurer to all policies issued, renewed, or outstanding on or after that date. An insurer may not adjust its filed rating plan to recoup the 16 percent mandated rate reduction under this section. The reduction must be computed on the basis of a 16 percent premium reduction prorated to the expiration of that policy. An insurer shall provide written notice by September 1, 1988, to all employers having an outstanding policy with the insurer as of August 1, 1988, to read as follows: "As a result of the changes in the workers' compensation insurance system enacted by the 1988 legislature, you are entitled to a credit or refund to your current premium in an amount of $ which reflects a 16 percent mandated premium reduction prorated to the expiration of your policy."

(b) No rate increases may be filed between April 10, 1988, and January 1, 1989.

Sec. 9. [NOTICE OF INTENT TO CHALLENGE RATE LEVEL CHANGE.]

Notwithstanding section 3, the commissioner shall have an additional 90 days to give notice of intent to hold a hearing pursuant to that section. This section applies only to challenges to an insurer's change in existing rate levels or rating plan filed between the date the 1989 rate-making report is approved by the commissioner of commerce and six months thereafter.

Sec. 10. [RECORDS DEPOSITED WITH THE COMMISSIONER.]

All records of data services organizations authorized by section 79.61, or its predecessors, pertaining to proceedings before the department of commerce or its predecessors regarding rates or classifications must be deposited with the commissioner no later than August 1, 1988.

Sec. 11. [CONTINGENT APPROPRIATION.]

(a) $250,000 is appropriated from the special compensation fund to a workers' compensation contingent account for the purposes of this article. The appropriation in this section may only be spent with the approval of the governor after consultation with the legislative advisory commission under Minnesota Statutes, section 3.30. The appropriation in this section does not cancel but is available until June 30, 1989.

(b) $100,000 from the general contingent account for workers' compensation appropriated under Laws 1987, chapter 404, section 44, is available for the purposes of article 2.

Sec. 12. [REPEALER.]

Minnesota Statutes 1986, sections 79.54, 79.57, and 79.58 are repealed.

Sec. 13. [EFFECTIVE DATE.]

Section 8, paragraph (b), is effective the day following final enactment.

Subdivision 1. [TIME FOR TAKING; GROUNDS.] When a petition has been heard before a compensation judge, within 30 days after a party in interest has been served with notice of an award or disallowance of compensation, or other order affecting the merits of the case, the party may appeal to the workers' compensation court of appeals on any of the following grounds:

- (1) the order does not conform with this chapter; or
- (2) the compensation judge committed an error of law; or
- (3) the findings of fact and order were clearly erroneous and unsupported by substantial evidence in view of the entire record as submitted; or
- (4) the findings of fact and order were procured by fraud, or coercion, or other improper conduct of a party in interest.

Sec. 2. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 176.421, subdivision 6, is amended to read:

Subd. 6. [POWERS OF WORKERS' COMPENSATION COURT OF APPEALS ON APPEAL.] On an appeal taken under this section, the workers' compensation court of appeals' review is limited to the issues raised by the parties in the notice of appeal or by a cross-appeal. On review, the court may not substitute its judgment for that of the compensation judge as to the weight or credibility of the evidence on any finding of fact. In these cases, on those issues raised by the appeal, the workers' compensation court of appeals may:

(1) grant an oral argument based on the record before the compensation judge;

(2) examine the record;

(3) substitute for the findings of fact made by the compensation judge findings based on the total evidence;

(4) sustain, reverse, make or modify an award or disallowance of compensation or other order based on the facts, findings, and law; and,

(5) (4) remand or make other appropriate order.

Sec. 3. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 480A.06, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [CERTIORARI REVIEW.] The court of appeals shall have jurisdiction to issue writs of certiorari to all agencies, public corporations and public officials, except the tax court and the workers' compensation court of appeals. The court of appeals shall have jurisdiction to review decisions of the commissioner of jobs and training, pursuant to section 268.10.

Sec. 4. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 480A.06, subdivision 4, is amended to read:

Subd. 4. [ADMINISTRATIVE REVIEW.] The court of appeals shall have jurisdiction to review on the record: the validity of administrative rules, as provided in sections 14.44 and 14.45; and; the decisions of administrative agencies in contested cases, as provided in sections 14.63 to 14.69; and workers' compensation cases and peace officer death benefits cases, as provided under chapters 176 and 176A.

Sec. 5. [TRANSFER OF JURISDICTION AND PERSONNEL.]

The jurisdiction of the workers' compensation court of appeals, as provided under Minnesota Statutes, section 175A.01, subdivision 2, is transferred to the court of appeals. All contracts, books, plans, papers, records, and property of every description of the workers' compensation court of appeals relating to its transferred responsibilities and within its jurisdiction or control are transferred to the court of appeals; except that, all case files are transferred to the clerk of the appellate courts. All classified employees and staff attorneys of the workers' compensation court of appeals must be given preference in the employment of personnel required to staff the increased caseload of the court of appeals as a result of transfer of jurisdiction under this section.

Sec. 6. [INCREASED JUDGES.]

(a) The number of judges on the court of appeals as of January 1, 1989, shall be increased by three. The three additional judges are subject to senate confirmation.

(b) For purposes of establishing the number of judges on the court of appeals pursuant to Minnesota Statutes, section 480A.01, subdivision 3, the number of appeals filed in the court of appeals for the calendar years 1987 and 1988 shall be considered to include three-fourths of the number of appeals filed in the workers' compensation court of appeals for those two years.

Sec. 7. [INSTRUCTION TO REVISOR.]

In every instance in Minnesota Statutes in which the term "workers' compensation court of appeals" appears, the revisor of statutes shall change that reference to the "court of appeals."

Sec. 8. [REAPPROPRIATION.]

ARTICLE 5

REPORTS TO THE LEGISLATURE

Section 1. [REPORT TO THE LEGISLATURE ON MEDICAL ISSUES.]

The state fund mutual insurance company shall be consulted, as part of the medical services study, in order to assist the department in developing a proposal to collect and analyze all medical bills. The ultimate goal of this consultation will be the development of a flagging and monitoring system to identify cases which significantly deviate from normal utilization patterns, costs and outcomes. The department shall make a preliminary report on the progress of the proposal to the legislature on January 1, 1989. The department shall make a final recommendation on implementation of the proposal at the time it makes its report to the legislature concerning medical issues in the workers' compensation system on January 1, 1990.

Sec. 2. [REPORT TO THE LEGISLATURE ON USE OF NEUTRAL PHYSICIANS.]

Sec. 3. [REPORT TO THE LEGISLATURE ON USE OF NEUTRAL QUALIFIED REHABILITATION CONSULTANTS.]

To reduce cost and contention in the rehabilitation system, the commissioner of labor and industry shall develop and evaluate a detailed proposal to establish a system to ensure that qualified rehabilitation consultants will not be aligned with either insurers or claimants. The commissioner shall consider alternative methods of selection and payment to ensure neutrality. The commissioner shall present a report and proposal to the legislature by January 1, 1989.

Sec. 4. [REPORT TO THE LEGISLATURE ON IMPLEMENTATION OF MANDATED RATE REDUCTIONS.]

The commissioner of labor and industry shall survey Minnesota employers to determine if the mandated workers' compensation insurance rate reductions required under article 2, section 8, have been implemented by insurers, both as to amount and in a manner that is uniform and nondiscriminatory between employers having similar risks with respect to a particular occupational classification. The commissioner must present a report detailing findings and conclusions to the legislature by February 1, 1989.

Sec. 5. [REPORT TO THE LEGISLATURE ON RECODIFICATION OF WORKERS' COMPENSATION LAW.]

The revisor of statutes shall recodify the workers' compensation law, including Minnesota Statutes, chapter 176.

Each state department agency and legislative staff, including senate counsel and house of representatives research, shall provide assistance in the recodification as requested by the revisor of statutes.

The revisor shall report to the legislature by January 1, 1989, on the progress of the recodification. The revisor shall prepare a bill to implement its recommendations for recodification by January 1, 1990.

Sec. 6. [HEARINGS AT THE OFFICE OF ADMINISTRATIVE HEARINGS; REPORT OF THE CHIEF ADMINISTRATIVE LAW JUDGE.]

The chief administrative law judge shall consider methods to reduce the formality and length of hearings in workers' compensation cases at the office of administrative hearings, with a goal of completing 50 percent of the hearings in less than two hours, 75 percent in less than four hours and nearly all of the cases in less than one day. Before January 1, 1989, the chief judge shall report to the legislature on the efforts to meet these goals, including any recommendations for legislation needed to achieve these goals.

Sec. 7. [REPORT TO THE LEGISLATURE ON STATE REGULATION OF WORKERS' COMPENSATION INSURANCE.]

CONFERENCE COMMITTEE REPORT ON S. F. NO. 1742

A bill for an act relating to agriculture; clarifying a time-price offer; allowing a preceding former owner to convey the right to receive an offer to buy or lease previously owned agricultural land; restricting the sale or inducement of a sale of agricultural land by a preceding former owner accepting an offer for one year; providing penalties and liability for damages; restricting the period for a debtor to receive a copy of a forbearance policy; amending Minnesota Statutes 1987 Supplement, sections 500.24, subdivisions 6 and 7; and 583.24, subdivision 4.

April 14, 1988

The Honorable Jerome M. Hughes
President of the Senate

The Honorable Robert Vanasek
Speaker of the House of Representatives

We, the undersigned conferees for S. F. No. 1742, report that we have agreed upon the items in dispute and recommend as follows:

That the House recede from its amendment and that S. F. No. 1742 be further amended as follows:

Delete everything after the enacting clause and insert:

“Section 1. Minnesota Statutes 1987 Supplement, section 500.24, subdivision 6, is amended to read:

Subd. 6. [DISPOSAL OF LAND.] (a) A state or federal agency or a corporation, other than a family farm corporation or an authorized farm corporation, may not lease or sell agricultural land or a farm homestead that was acquired by enforcing a debt against the agricultural land or farm homestead, including foreclosure of a mortgage, accepting a deed in lieu of foreclosure, terminating a contract for deed, or accepting a deed in lieu of terminating a contract for deed, before offering or making a good faith effort to offer the land for sale or lease to the immediately preceding former owner at a price no higher than the highest price offered by a third party that is acceptable to the seller or lessor. The offer must be made on the notice to offer form under subdivision 7. Selling or leasing property to a third party at a price is prima facie evidence that the price is acceptable to the seller or lessor. The seller must provide written notice to the immediately preceding former owner that the agricultural land or farm homestead will be offered for sale at least 14 days before the agricultural land or farm homestead is offered for sale.

(b) An immediately preceding former owner is the entity with record legal title to the agricultural land or farm homestead before acquisition by the state or federal agency or corporation except: if the immediately preceding former owner is a bankruptcy estate, the debtor in bankruptcy is the immediately preceding former owner; and if the agricultural land or farm homestead was acquired by termination of a contract for deed or deed in lieu of termination of a contract for deed, the immediately preceding former owner is the purchaser under the contract for deed.

(c) An immediately preceding former owner may elect to purchase or lease the entire property or an agreed to portion of the property. If the immediately preceding former owner elects to purchase or lease a portion of the property, the election must be reported in writing to the seller or lessor prior to the time the property is first offered for sale or lease. If election is made to purchase or lease a portion of the property, the portion must be contiguous and compact so that it does not unreasonably reduce access to or the value of the remaining property.

~~(b)~~ (d) For purposes of this subdivision, the term "a price no higher than the highest price offered by a third party" means the acceptable cash price offered by a third party or the acceptable time-price offer made by a third party. A cash price offer is one that involves simultaneous transfer of title for payment of the entire amount of the offer. If the acceptable offer made by a third party is a time-price offer, the seller or lessor must make the same time-price offer or an equivalent cash offer to the immediately preceding former owner. An equivalent cash offer is equal to the total of the payments made over a period of the time-price offer discounted by yield curve of the United States treasury notes and bonds on the first business day of the month in which the offer is personally delivered or mailed for time periods similar to the time period covered by the time-price offer, plus 2.0 percent. A time-price offer is an offer that defers payment of a portion of the price and does not involve a transfer of fee title until payment of the entire amount of the offer is made is financed entirely or partially by the seller and includes an offer to purchase under a contract for deed or mortgage. An equivalent cash offer is not required to be made if the state participates in an offer to a third party through the rural finance authority.

(e) This subdivision applies to a seller when the property is sold and to a lessor each time the property is leased, for five years after the agricultural land is acquired except:

(1) an offer to lease to the immediately preceding former owner is required only until the immediately preceding owner fails to accept an offer to lease the property or the property is sold; and

(2) an offer to sell to the immediately preceding former owner is required until the property is sold; and

(3) if the immediately preceding former owner elects to lease or purchase a portion of the property, this subdivision does not apply to the seller with regard to the balance of the property after the election is made under paragraph (c).

(d) (f) The notice of an offer under subdivision 7 that is personally delivered with a signed receipt or sent by certified mail with a receipt of mailing to the immediately preceding former owner's last known address is a good faith offer.

(e) (g) This subdivision does not apply to a sale or lease that occurs after the seller or lessor has held the property for five years or longer.

(f) (h) For purposes of this subdivision, if the immediately preceding former owner is a bankruptcy estate the debtor in the bankruptcy is the immediately preceding owner.

(g) (i) The immediately preceding former owner must exercise the right to lease all or a portion of the agricultural land or a homestead located on agricultural land in writing within 15 days after an offer to lease under this subdivision is mailed with a receipt of mailing or personally delivered. If election is made to lease only the homestead or a portion of the agricultural land, the portion to be leased must be clearly identified in writing. The immediately preceding former owner must exercise the right to buy the agricultural land, a portion of the agricultural land, or a farm homestead located on agricultural land, in writing, within 65 days after an offer to buy under this subdivision is mailed with a receipt of mailing or is personally delivered. Within ten days after exercising the right to lease or buy by accepting the offer, the immediately preceding owner must fully perform according to the terms of the offer including paying the amounts due. A seller may sell and a lessor may lease the agricultural land or farm homestead subject to this subdivision to the third party in accordance with their lease or purchase agreement if:

(1) the immediately preceding former owner does not accept an offer to lease or buy before the offer terminates; or

(2) the immediately preceding former owner does not perform the obligations of the offer, including paying the amounts due, within ten days after accepting the offer.

(h) (j) A certificate indicating whether or not the property contains agricultural land or a farm homestead that is signed by the county assessor where the property is located and recorded in the office of the county recorder or the registrar of titles where the property is located is prima facie evidence of whether the property is agricultural land or a farm homestead.

(j) (k) As prima facie evidence that an offer to sell or lease agricultural land or a farm homestead has terminated, a receipt of mailing the notice under subdivision 7 and an affidavit, signed by a person authorized to act on behalf of a state, federal agency, or corporation selling or leasing the agricultural land or a farm homestead may be filed in the office of the county recorder or registrar of titles of the county where the agricultural land or farm homestead is located. The affidavit must state that:

(1) notice of an offer to buy or lease the agricultural land or farm homestead was provided to the immediately preceding former owner at a price not higher than the highest price offered by a third party that is acceptable;

(2) the time during which the immediately preceding former owner is required to exercise the right to buy or lease the agricultural land or farm homestead has expired;

(3) the immediately preceding former owner has not exercised the right to buy or lease the agricultural land or farm homestead as provided in this subdivision or has accepted an offer and has not fully performed according to the terms of the offer; and

(4) the offer to the immediately preceding former owner has terminated.

(j) (l) The right of an immediately preceding former owner to receive an offer to lease or purchase agricultural land under this subdivision or to lease or purchase at a price no higher than the highest price offered by a third party that is acceptable to the seller or lessor may be extinguished or limited by an express statement signed by the immediately preceding owner that complies with the plain language requirements of section 325G.31. The right may not be extinguished or limited except by the:

(1) an express statement in a deed in lieu of foreclosure or of the agricultural land;

(2) an express statement in a deed in lieu of a termination of a contract for deed for the agricultural land;

(3) an express statement conveying the right to the state or federal agency or corporation owning the agricultural land that is required to make an offer under this subdivision, however, the preceding former owner may rescind the conveyance by notifying the state or federal agency or corporation in writing within 20 calendar days after signing the express statement;

(4) to cure a title defect, an express statement conveying the right

may be made to a person to whom the agricultural land has been transferred by the state or federal agency or corporation; or

(5) an express statement conveying the right to a contract for deed vendee to whom the agricultural land or farm homestead was sold under a contract for deed by the immediately preceding former owner if the express statement and the contract for deed are recorded.

~~(k)~~ (m) The right of an immediately preceding former owner to receive an offer to lease or purchase agricultural land under this subdivision may not be assigned or transferred except as provided in paragraph (l), but may be inherited.

(n) An immediately preceding former owner, except a former owner who is actively engaged in farming as defined in section 500.24, subdivision 2, paragraph (a), and who agrees to remain actively engaged in farming on a portion of the agricultural land or farm homestead for at least one year after accepting an offer under this subdivision, may not sell agricultural land acquired by accepting an offer under this subdivision if the arrangement of the sale was negotiated or agreed to prior to the former owner accepting the offer under this subdivision. A person who sells property in violation of this paragraph is liable for damages plus reasonable attorney fees to a person who is damaged by a sale in violation of this paragraph. There is a rebuttable presumption that a sale by an immediately preceding former owner is in violation of this paragraph if the sale takes place within 180 days of the former owner accepting the offer under this subdivision. This paragraph does not apply to a sale by an immediately preceding former owner to the owner's spouse, the owner's parents, the owner's sisters and brothers, the owner's spouse's sisters and brothers, or the owner's children.

Sec. 2. Minnesota Statutes 1987 Supplement, section 500.24, subdivision 7, is amended to read:

At least 75 percent of the units must be rented to or cooperatively owned by persons and families whose income at the time the person or family originally occupied the unit was at or below 30 percent of the median family income for the metropolitan area as defined in section 473.121, subdivision 2. In making the grants, the agency shall determine the terms and conditions of repayment and the appropriate security, if any, should repayment be required. To promote the geographic distribution of grants and loans, the agency may designate a portion of the grant or loan awards to be set aside for projects located in specified congressional districts or other geographical regions specified by the agency. The agency may adopt emergency and permanent rules for awarding grants and loans under this subdivision. The emergency rules are effective for 180 days or until the permanent rules are adopted, whichever occurs first.

Members of the committee must represent the interests of realtors, lenders, nonprofit developers, apartment owners, low income persons, housing advocates, advocates for the homeless, and single or multifamily builders. Members of the committee shall be reimbursed for expenses but shall not receive any other compensation for services on the committee. Money in the housing trust fund account may be used for the expenses of the advisory committee and the agency related to the development and implementation of the program described in this section.

Subd. 5. THIS PROVISION APPLIES TO BUT IS NOT LIMITED TO THE FOLLOWING EVENTS: (1) NONPAYMENT BY THE HEALTH MAINTENANCE ORGANIZATION OR (2) BREACH OF THIS AGREEMENT. THIS PROVISION DOES NOT PROHIBIT THE PROVIDER FROM COLLECTING COPAYMENTS OR FEES FOR UNCOVERED SERVICES.

THIS PROVISION SURVIVES THE TERMINATION OF THIS AGREEMENT FOR AUTHORIZED SERVICES PROVIDED BEFORE THIS AGREEMENT TERMINATES, REGARDLESS OF THE REASON FOR TERMINATION. THIS PROVISION IS FOR THE BENEFIT OF THE HEALTH MAINTENANCE ORGANIZATION ENROLLEES. THIS PROVISION DOES NOT APPLY TO SERVICES PROVIDED AFTER THIS AGREEMENT TERMINATES.

THIS PROVISION SUPERSEDES ANY CONTRARY ORAL OR

If an enrollee is liable to any provider for covered services provided under the health plan, that liability has the status of an enrollee claim for distribution of general assets, whether the enrollee or the provider files the claim. Claims of providers under agreement with the health maintenance organization for services rendered have priority after enrollee claims under section 60B.44, subdivision 4.

Subd. 4. [POWERS OF REHABILITATOR.] The powers of the rehabilitator include, subject to the approval of the court the power to change premium rates, without the notice requirements of section 62D.07, and the power to amend the terms of provider contracts, and of contracts with participating entities for the provision of administrative, financial, or management services, relating to reimbursement and termination, considering the interests of providers and other contracting participating entities and the continued viability of the health plan.

If the court approves a contract amendment that diminishes the compensation of a provider or of a participating entity providing administrative, financial, or management services to the health maintenance organization, the amendment may not be effective for more than 60 days and shall not be renewed or extended.

Subd. 5. [POWERS OF LIQUIDATOR.] The power to transfer coverage obligations under section 60B.25, clause (8), includes the power to transfer coverage obligations to a solvent health maintenance organization and to assign the provider contracts of the insolvent health maintenance organization to an assuming health maintenance organization.

Subd. 6. [SPECIAL EXAMINER.] The commissioner as rehabilitator shall make every reasonable effort to employ a senior executive from a successful health maintenance organization to serve as special examiner to rehabilitate the health maintenance organization, provided that the individual does not have a conflict of interest. The special examiner shall have all the powers of the rehabilitator granted under this section and section 60B.17.

Subd. 7. [EXAMINATION ACCOUNT.] The commissioner of health shall assess against a health maintenance organization not yet in rehabilitation or liquidation a fee sufficient to cover the costs of a special examination. The fee must be deposited in an examination account. Money in the account is appropriated to the commissioner of health to pay for the examinations. If the money in the account is insufficient to pay the initial costs of examinations, the commissioner may use other money appropriated to the commissioner, provided the other appropriation is reimbursed from the examination account when it contains sufficient money. Money from the examination account must be used to pay per diem salaries and expenses of special examiners, including meals, lodging, laundry, transportation, and mileage. The salary of regular employees of the health department must not be paid out of the account.

Sec. 24. [62D.181] [INSOLVENCY; MCHA ALTERNATIVE COVERAGE.]

Subdivision 1. [DEFINITION.] "Association" means the Minnesota comprehensive health association created in section 62E.10.

Subd. 2. [ELIGIBLE INDIVIDUALS.] An individual is eligible for alternative coverage under this section if:

(1) the individual had individual health coverage through a health maintenance organization, the coverage is no longer available due to the insolvency of the health maintenance organization, and the individual has not obtained alternative coverage; or

(2) the individual had group health coverage through a health maintenance organization, the coverage is no longer available due to the insolvency of the health maintenance organization and the individual has not obtained alternative coverage.

Subd. 3. [APPLICATION AND ISSUANCE.] If a health maintenance organization will be liquidated, individuals eligible for alternative coverage under subdivision 2 may apply to the association to obtain alternative coverage. Upon receiving an application and evidence that the applicant was enrolled in the health maintenance organization at the time of an order for liquidation, the association shall issue policies to eligible individuals, without the limitation on preexisting conditions described in section 62E.14, subdivision 3.

Subd. 4. [COVERAGE.] Alternative coverage issued under this section must be at least a number two qualified plan, as described in section 62E.06, subdivision 2, or for individuals over age 65, a medicare supplement 2 plan, as described in section 62A.34.

Subd. 5. [PREMIUM.] The premium for alternative coverage issued under this section must not exceed 80 percent of the premium for the comparable coverage offered by the association.

Subd. 6. [DURATION.] The duration of alternative coverage issued under this section is:

(1) for individuals eligible under subdivision 2, clause (1), 90 days; and

(2) for individuals eligible under subdivision 2, clause (2), 90 days or the length of time remaining in the group contract with the insolvent health maintenance organization, whichever is greater.

Subd. 7. [REPLACEMENT COVERAGE; LIMITATIONS.] The association is not obligated to offer replacement coverage under chapter 62D or conversion coverage under section 62E.16 at the end of the periods specified in subdivision 6. Any continuation obligation arising under chapter 62A or 62D will cease at the end of the periods specified in subdivision 6.

Subd. 8. [CLAIMS EXPENSES EXCEEDING PREMIUMS.] Claims expenses resulting from the operation of this section which exceed premiums received shall be borne by contributing members of the association in accordance with section 62E.11, subdivision 5.

Subd. 9. [COORDINATION OF POLICIES.] If an insolvent health maintenance organization has insolvency insurance coverage at the time of an order for liquidation, the association may coordinate the benefits of the policy issued under this section with those of the insolvency insurance policy available to the enrollees. The premium level for the combined association policy and the insolvency insurance policy may not exceed those described in subdivision 5 of this section.

Sec. 25. [62D.182] [LIABILITIES.]

Every health maintenance organization shall maintain liabilities estimated in the aggregate to be sufficient to pay all reported or unreported claims incurred that are unpaid and for which the organization is liable. Liabilities are computed under rules adopted by the commissioner.

Sec. 26. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 62D.19, is amended to read:

62D.19 [UNREASONABLE EXPENSES.]

No health maintenance organization shall incur or pay for any expense of any nature which is unreasonably high in relation to the value of the service or goods provided. The commissioner of health shall implement and enforce this section by rules adopted under this section.

In an effort to achieve the stated purposes of sections 62D.01 to 62D.29; in order to safeguard the underlying nonprofit status of health maintenance organizations; and to ensure that the payment of health maintenance organization money to major participating entities results in a corresponding benefit to the health maintenance organization and its enrollees, when determining whether an organization has incurred an unreasonable expense in relation to a major participating entity, due consideration shall be given to, in addition to any other appropriate factors, whether the officers and trustees of the health maintenance organization have acted with good faith and in the best interests of the health maintenance organization in entering into, and performing under, a contract under which the health maintenance organization has incurred an expense. The commissioner has standing to sue, on behalf of a health maintenance organization, officers or trustees of the health maintenance organization who have breached their fiduciary duty in entering into and performing such contracts.

Sec. 27. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 62E.02, subdivision 13, is amended to read:

Subd. 13. "Eligible person" means an individual who is currently and has been a resident of Minnesota for the six months immediately preceding the date of receipt by the association or its writing carrier of a completed certificate of eligibility and who meets the enrollment requirements of section 62E.14.

Sec. 28. Minnesota Statutes 1987 Supplement, section 62E.10, subdivision 9, is amended to read:

Subd. 9. [EXPERIMENTAL DELIVERY METHOD.] The association may petition the commissioner of commerce for a waiver to allow the experimental use of alternative means of health care delivery. The commissioner may approve the use of the alternative means the commissioner considers appropriate. The commissioner may waive any of the requirements of this chapter and chapters 60A, 62A, and 62D in granting the waiver. The commissioner may also grant to the association any additional powers as are necessary to facilitate the specific waiver, including the power to implement a provider payment schedule.

This subdivision is effective until August 1, 1989 1990.

The commissioner of commerce in consultation with the governor's commission on health plan regulatory reform shall study and report to the legislature by January 15, 1989, on the current means utilized to finance the annual operating deficits incurred under the association. In conducting the study, the commissioner shall analyze any negative financial impacts which the current deficits are having on the contributing members of the association and recommend alternative sources of funding or other approaches which could be utilized to finance the operating deficit. The study shall also address the current association funding inequities between employers which self-insure for employee health benefit coverage and those employers which have health coverage subject to state regulation.

Sec. 29. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 62E.14, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [CERTIFICATE, CONTENTS.] The comprehensive health insurance plan shall be open for enrollment by eligible persons. An eligible person shall enroll by submission of a certificate of eligibility to the writing carrier. The certificate shall provide the following:

(a) Name, address, age, list of residences for the immediately preceding six months and length of time at current residence of the applicant;

(b) Name, address, and age of spouse and children if any, if they are to be insured;

(c) Evidence of rejection, a requirement of restrictive riders, a rate up, or a preexisting conditions limitation on a qualified plan, the effect of which is to substantially reduce coverage from that received by a person considered a standard risk, by at least one association members within six months of the date of the certificate, or other eligibility requirements adopted by rule by the commissioner which are not inconsistent with this chapter and which evidence that a person is unable to obtain coverage substantially similar to that which may be obtained by a person who is considered a standard risk;

(d) Evidence that the applicant meets the eligibility requirements of section 62E.081, subdivision 1; and

(e) A designation of the coverage desired.

An eligible person may not purchase more than one policy from the state plan. Upon ceasing to be a resident of Minnesota a person is no longer eligible to purchase or renew coverage under the state plan.

Sec. 30. Laws 1988, chapter 434, section 14, is amended to read:

Sec. 14. [62D.122] [MEDIATION.]

When current parties to a health maintenance organization contract between providers of health care services and the health maintenance organization believe they will be unable to reach agreement on the terms of renewal or maintenance of the agreement, either party may request the commissioner of health to order that the dispute be submitted to mediation. The parties to the dispute shall enter mediation upon the order of the commissioner of health. Whether or not a request for mediation from one of the parties has been received, the commissioner shall order mediation if failure to reach agreement would significantly impair access to health care services on the part of current enrollees of that health maintenance organization. The commissioner shall be a participant in the mediation. In determining whether access to health care services for current enrollees will be significantly impaired, the commissioner shall consider:

- (1) the number of enrollees affected,
- (2) the ability of the plan to make alternate arrangements with other participating providers for the provision of health care services to the affected enrollees,
- (3) the availability of nonparticipating providers who may become participating providers for those with whom the health maintenance organization is in dispute,
- (4) the time remaining until termination of the provider contract, and
- (5) whether failure to resolve the dispute may establish a precedent for similar disputes in other parts of the state or might impede competition among health plans.

During the period in which the dispute is in mediation, no action to terminate provider or enrollee contracts may be taken by either party. Participation in mediation shall be required of all parties for a period of not more than 30 days. Notice of termination of provider agreements, as required under section 5, shall take effect no earlier than 31 days after the first day of mediation under this section.

When mediation is ordered by the commissioner, arrangements for mediation shall be made through either the office of dispute resolution in the state planning agency, or the office of administrative hearings.

Costs of the mediation shall be borne equally by the health maintenance organization and the health care providers unless otherwise agreed to by the parties. The office of administrative hearings shall establish rates for mediation services comparable to those charged by mediators listed with the office of dispute resolution.

The mediator shall not have authority to impose a settlement or otherwise bind a participant to a nonvoluntary resolution of the dispute; however, any agreement reached as a result of the mediation shall be enforceable.

Except as otherwise provided under chapter 13 and sections 62D.03 and 62D.14, the commissioner shall make public the results of any mediation agreement.

Sec. 31. Laws 1988, chapter 434, section 21, is amended to read:

Sec. 21. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 62E.14, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 6. A Minnesota resident who holds an individual health maintenance contract, individual nonprofit health service corporation contract, or an individual insurance policy previously approved by the commissioners of health or commerce, may enroll in the comprehensive health insurance plan with a waiver of the preexisting condition as described in subdivision 3, without interruption in coverage, provided (1) no replacement coverage that meets the requirements of section 13 was offered by the contributing member, and (2) the policy or contract has been terminated for reasons other than (a) nonpayment of premium; (b) failure to make copayments required by the health care plan; (c) moving out of the area served; or (d) a materially false statement or misrepresentation by the enrollee in the application for membership; and, provided further, that the option to enroll in the plan is exercised within 30 days of termination of the existing policy or contract.

Coverage allowed under this section is effective ~~on the date of termination,~~ when the contract or policy is terminated and the enrollee has completed the proper application and paid the required premium or fee.

Expenses incurred from the preexisting conditions of individuals enrolled in the state plan under this subdivision must be paid by the contributing member canceling coverage as set forth in section 62E.11, subdivision 10.

The application must include evidence of termination of the existing policy or certificate as required in subdivision 1.

Sec. 32. [REPEALER.]

Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 62D.041, subdivisions 5, 6, and 8, are repealed.

Sec. 33. [EFFECTIVE DATE.]

Sections 1 to 15 and 17 to 32 are effective the day following final enactment. Section 16 is effective January 1, 1990."

"Sec. 20. Minnesota Statutes 1987 Supplement, section 115A.921, is amended to read:

115A.921 [CITY OR TOWN FEE AUTHORITY.]

A city or town may impose a fee, not to exceed 25 35 cents per cubic yard of waste, or its equivalent, on operators of facilities for the disposal of mixed municipal solid waste located within the city or town. The revenue from the fees must be credited to the city or town general fund and. Revenue produced by 25 cents of the fee must be used only for purposes of landfill abatement or for purposes of mitigating and compensating for the local risks, costs, and other adverse effects of facilities. Revenue produced by ten cents of the fee may be used for any general fund purpose. Waste residue from energy and resource recovery facilities at which solid waste is processed for the purpose of extracting, reducing, converting to energy, or otherwise separating and preparing solid waste for reuse shall be exempt from one-half the amount of the fee imposed by a city or town under this section if there is at least an 85 percent volume reduction in the solid waste processed. Before any fee is reduced, the verification procedures of section 473.843, subdivision 1, paragraph (c), must be followed and submitted to the appropriate city or town.

Sec. 21. [115A.936] [LAND DISPOSAL OF YARD WASTE.]

(a) Except as authorized by the agency, in the metropolitan area after January 1, 1990, and outside the metropolitan area after January 1, 1992, a person may not dispose of yard waste:

- (1) in mixed municipal solid waste;
- (2) in a disposal facility; or
- (3) in a resource recovery facility except for the purposes of composting or co-composting.

(b) Yard waste subject to this subdivision is garden wastes, leaves, lawn cuttings, weeds, and prunings.

Sec. 22. [115A.98] [WASTE DISPOSAL FEE REGULATION.]

Subdivision 1. [FEE REGULATION.] The legislature finds that the limited number of solid waste disposal facilities in the metropolitan area has created a condition that could allow operators to charge unjust and unreasonable rates. The legislature finds that until sufficient alternatives to landfill disposal become available, the disposal of solid waste is necessary for the health and general welfare of the citizens of this state. Therefore, to ensure just and reasonable fees for the disposal of solid waste, ash, and construction debris in the metropolitan area and a reasonable rate of return to owners and operators of disposal facilities while achieving environmental requirements and other community standards at the facilities, disposal fee structures of disposal facilities that accept solid waste, ash, or construction debris will be publicly regulated.

Subd. 2. [DISPOSAL FEE DISCLOSURE.] By July 1 of each year, each permittee of a disposal facility that accepts solid waste, ash, or construction debris in the metropolitan area shall file with the agency the disposal fees of that facility, including any proposed changes in those fees. The permittee of a facility must also file all necessary documentation to support the amounts of the fees charged, the costs of operation, and the necessity of fee increases to reflect cost increases. Until June 1, 1989, disposal fees in the metropolitan area may not be increased except to reflect documented increases in the costs of operation of the disposal facility. The agency may suspend the operation of a disposal facility whose permittee fails to file the information required in this subdivision or files inadequate information to support fee increases based on increased costs until such time as the permittee files adequate information.

Subd. 3. [COMMISSION RECOMMENDATION.] The legislative commission on waste management, in cooperation with the agency, the board, the public utilities commission, other state agencies, and interested parties shall study current fee structures at disposal facilities in the state for the purpose of recommending to the legislature a regulatory program to ensure just and reasonable disposal fees. The recommendation must include identification of an appropriate entity to impose fee regulation, a structure for fee regulation, standards to be used in regulating fees, and procedures to be followed to regulate fees. The commission's recommendation must be finalized no later than December 31, 1988.

Subd. 4. [EFFECT ON SURCHARGES.] This section does not affect the amount of any city, county or state surcharges on disposal fees."

"Sec. 24. [116.074] [NOTICE OF PERMIT CONDITIONS TO LOCAL GOVERNMENTS.]

Before the agency grants a permit for a solid waste facility, allows a significant alteration of permit conditions or facility operation, or allows the change of a facility permittee, the commissioner must notify the county and town where the facility is located, contiguous counties and towns, and all home rule charter and statutory cities within the contiguous townships. If a local government unit requests a public meeting within 30 days after being notified, the agency must hold at least one public meeting in the area near the facility before granting the permit, allowing the alterations in the permit conditions or facility operation, or allowing the change of the facility permittee."

(b) A plastic can subject to this subdivision is a single serving beverage container composed of plastic and metal excluding the closure mechanism.

Subd. 2. [NONDEGRADABLE PLASTIC.] A person may not sell, offer for sale, or give to consumers beverages or motor oil containers held together by nondegradable plastic material.

Subd. 3. [PENALTY.] A person who violates subdivision 1 or 2 is guilty of a misdemeanor."

Subd. 2b. [INVENTORY OF SOLID WASTE DISPOSAL SITES.] By September 1, 1983, the council shall adopt by resolution an inventory of eligible solid waste disposal sites and buffer areas within the metropolitan area. The council's inventory shall be composed of the sites and buffer areas proposed by the counties and reviewed and approved by the council pursuant to section 473.803, subdivision 1a. If a county does not have an approved inventory of the required number of sites by June 1, 1983, the council shall begin investigations and public hearings in order to adopt the required inventory for the county by September 1, 1983. The council's inventory shall satisfy all requirements and standards described in section 473.803, subdivision 1a, for sites and buffer areas proposed by counties. For sites and buffer areas included in the council's inventory, the development limitation imposed under section 473.806, subdivision 1, shall extend until 90 days following the selection of sites pursuant to section 473.833, subdivision 3. Upon the request of a county, the council may remove from the inventory property that is within the boundaries of the fill portion of a currently or previously permitted solid waste disposal facility, if the removal of the property does not reduce the size of the affected site below the 80 acre minimum area required in section 473.803, subdivision 1a."

473.806 [INVENTORY OF DISPOSAL SITES; DEVELOPMENT LIMITATIONS.]

Subdivision 1. [COUNCIL APPROVAL REQUIRED.] In order to permit the comparative evaluation of sites and the participation of affected localities in decisions about the use of sites, a metropolitan development limitation is hereby imposed as provided in this subdivision on development within the area of each site and buffer area proposed by a county pursuant to section 473.803, subdivision 1a, pending the council's adoption of an inventory pursuant to section 473.149, subdivision 2b. For sites and buffer areas included in the council's inventory, the limitation shall extend until 90 days following the selection of sites pursuant to section 473.833, subdivision 3, except that the council may at any time, with the approval of the county in which the site is located, abrogate the application of the limitation to a specific site or sites or buffer areas. No development shall be allowed to occur within the area of a site or buffer area during the period of the metropolitan development limitation without the approval of the council. No county, city, or town land use control shall permit development which has not been approved by the council, nor shall any county, city, or town sanction or approve any subdivision, permit, license, or other authorization which would allow development to occur which has not been approved by the council. The council shall not approve actions which would jeopardize the availability of a site for use as a solid waste facility. The council may establish guidelines for reviewing requests for approval under this subdivision. Requests for approval shall be submitted in writing to the chair of the council and must include a development schedule and any information required by the council to demonstrate that the proposed development is feasible and economically viable pursuant to guidelines adopted by the council. Requests for approval shall be deemed to be approved by the council unless the chair otherwise notifies the submitter in writing within 15 days.

Subd. 2. [ACQUISITION OF TEMPORARY DEVELOPMENT RIGHTS.] If pursuant to subdivision 1 the council refuses to approve development which is permitted by local development plans, land use classification, and zoning and other official controls applying to the property on February 1, 1983, the landowner may elect to have the county purchase temporary development rights to the property for the period extending from the date when the council approved the site which affects the property for inclusion in the metropolitan inventory of sites until December 31, ~~1987~~ 1992. The election must be made within 30 days of the council's decision to refuse to approve development. The council shall provide funds, from the proceeds of the bonds issued pursuant to section 473.831, for the county to purchase the temporary development rights. The landowner's compensation shall be determined by the agreement of the owner, the county, and the council. If the parties cannot agree within 60 days of the owner's election, the county shall acquire the temporary development rights through eminent domain proceedings, and the landowner's compensation shall be the fair market value of the temporary development rights. A landowner who elects under this section to have the county purchase temporary development rights to the landowner's property is entitled to prompt action by the county. If the landowner brings a successful action to compel the county to initiate eminent domain proceedings, the landowner is entitled to petition the court for reimbursement of reasonable costs and expenses, including reasonable attorney, appraisal, and engineering fees that were actually incurred in bringing the action.

Sec. 32. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 473.840, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [DEFINITIONS.] (a) "Qualifying property" is a parcel of real property any part of which is located within the site or buffer area of a candidate site under section 473.153, or a site included in the metropolitan inventory adopted under section 473.149, subdivision 2b, for the purposes of environmental review under section 473.833, subdivision 2a.

(b) An "eligible owner" is a person who: (1) owns the entire parcel of qualifying property; (2) owned the entire parcel of property at the time the site was selected as a candidate site or included in the metropolitan inventory; and (3) since the site was selected or included in the inventory, has for at least six months offered to sell the entire parcel on the open market through a licensed real estate agent; and (4) has not previously entered a contract under subdivision 4 for the sale of any or all of the parcel.

Sec. 33. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 473.840, subdivision 4, is amended to read:

Subd. 4. [CONTRACT; TERMS AND REQUIREMENTS.] The council and the county or commission shall enter a contract as provided in this subdivision with an eligible owner of qualifying property who requests the council and the county or commission to enter the contract as provided in subdivision 3. The council and the county or commission have 90 days to act on a request submitted under subdivision 3. The contract must include at least the following terms:

(a) The owner must offer to sell the entire parcel of property on the open market through a licensed real estate agent approved by the council for at least a six-month period beginning within one month after the appraised market value of the property is determined as provided in paragraph (b). The offer to sell must be made at no more than the appraised market value.

(b) The appraised market value of the property must be determined by an appraiser selected by the council. If the owner disagrees with the appraisal the owner shall select an appraiser to make a second appraisal. If a second appraisal is made, the council and the owner may agree on an appraised market value equal to either the first or second appraisal or any amount between those appraisals. If the council and owner do not agree on an appraised market value the two appraisers shall select a third appraiser, and the appraised market value must be determined by a majority of the three appraisers. Appraisers must be selected from the approved list of real property appraisers of the state commissioner of administration. Appraisers shall take an oath that they have no interest in any of the property to be appraised or in the purchase thereof. Each party shall pay the cost of the appraiser selected by that party and shall share equally in the cost of a third appraiser selected under this paragraph. The appraised market value of the property may not be increased or decreased by reason of its selection as a candidate or inventoried site or buffer area.

(c) The county or commission must purchase the entire parcel of property at the appraised market value determined under paragraph (b) if: (1) the council determines, based upon affidavits provided by the owner and the real estate agent and other evidence the council may require, that the owner has made a good faith effort to sell the property as provided in paragraph (a) and has been unable to sell the property at the appraised market value; (2) ~~the council determines that the owner will be subject to undue hardship as a result of failure to sell;~~ (3) the county or commission determines that the owner has marketable title to the property and that the owner has cured any defects in the title within a reasonable time as specified in the contract; and (4) (3) the owner conveys the property by warranty deed in a form acceptable to the county or commission.

(d) The owner may not assign or transfer any rights under the contract to another person.

(e) The contract expires and the obligations of the parties under the contract cease when the property is sold or is either selected or eliminated from consideration by a final decision of the council under section 473.153, subdivision 6, or by a final decision of the county site selection authority or council under section 473.833, subdivision 3.

(f) The council and the commission or county may require other terms of contract that are consistent with the purposes of this section and necessary to protect the interests of the parties.

Sec. 34. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 473.845, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [CLOSURE AND POSTCLOSURE, RESPONSE PAYMENTS EXPENDITURES FROM THE FUND.] Money in the fund may only be appropriated to the agency for expenditure for:

(1) reasonable and necessary expenses for closure and postclosure care of a mixed municipal solid waste disposal facility in the metropolitan area for a 20-year period after closure, if the agency determines that the operator or owner will not take the necessary actions requested by the agency for closure and postclosure in the manner and within the time requested; ~~or~~

(2) reasonable and necessary response and postclosure costs at a mixed municipal solid waste disposal facility in the metropolitan area that has been closed for 20 years in compliance with the closure and postclosure rules of the agency; or

(3) reasonable and necessary response costs resulting from county actions required under section 473.833, subdivision 2a, when those actions are done under the supervision of the agency.

Sec. 35. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 477A.012, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

If the state's liability under this clause exceeds $40,000 in any month, the commissioner shall proportionately reduce the entitlements of each eligible county.

(b) Any county government that has executed a contract with the board pursuant to section 115A.191 shall receive an amount as provided under a schedule set forth in the contract not to exceed $150,000 per year in additional local government aids, for a period of not more than two years following the execution of the contract. The sum of the state's obligations under this clause may not exceed $600,000 in any fiscal year.

(c) Aid distributions under this subdivision are in addition to any distributions to which a county is entitled pursuant to subdivision 1, and must not be deducted in the computation of levy limits. When an aid payment is made pursuant to section 477A.015, the commissioner shall distribute to each eligible county the full entitlement due under clause (a) for the county's period of eligibility that was not paid in a previous distribution. ~~When an aid payment is made pursuant to section 477A.015, The commissioner shall distribute the amounts due under clause (b) to each county that has executed a contract the full amount due under clause (b) in accordance with the terms of the contract. If within 30 days after the hearing, a petition requesting a vote on section 3, signed by voters equal in number to ten percent of the votes cast in the county in the last general election, is filed with the county auditor, section 3 shall not be effective until a majority of the voters at a general or special election cast affirmative votes on the question of approving it. The question of whether section 3 shall go into effect shall then be submitted to the voters at a general or special election before January 1, 1989. The question submitted shall be:

“Shall the law that permits a tax not greater than .75 mills on property for the county historical society be approved?”

Yes

The Honorable Robert Vanasek
Speaker of the House of Representatives

The Honorable Jerome M. Hughes
President of the Senate

We, the undersigned conferees for H. F. No. 257, report that we have agreed upon the items in dispute and recommend as follows:

That the Senate recede from its amendment and that H. F. No. 257 be further amended as follows:

Delete everything after the enacting clause and insert:

“Section 1. Minnesota Statutes 1987 Supplement, section 43A.24, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [OTHER ELIGIBLE PERSONS.] The following persons are eligible for state paid life insurance and hospital, medical, and dental benefits as determined in applicable collective bargaining agreements or by the commissioner or by plans pursuant to section 43A.18, subdivision 6, or by the board of regents for employees of the University of Minnesota not covered by collective bargaining agreements. Coverages made available, including optional coverages, are as contained in the plan established pursuant to section 43A.18, subdivision 2.

(a) a member of the state legislature, provided that changes in benefits resulting in increased costs to the state shall not be effective until expiration of the term of the members of the existing house of representatives. An eligible member of the state legislature may decline to be enrolled for state paid coverages by filing a written waiver with the commissioner. The waiver shall not prohibit the member from enrolling the member or dependents for optional coverages, without cost to the state, as provided for in section 43A.26. A member of the state legislature who returns from a leave of absence to a position previously occupied in the civil service shall be eligible to receive the life insurance and hospital, medical, and dental benefits to which the position is entitled;

(b) a permanent employee of the legislature or a permanent employee of a permanent study or interim committee or commission or a state employee on leave of absence to work for the legislature, during a regular or special legislative session;

(c) a judge of the appellate courts or an officer or employee of these courts; a judge of the district court, a judge of county court, a judge of county municipal court, or a judge of probate court; a district administrator; and an employee of the office of the district administrator of the fifth or the eighth judicial districts;

(d) a salaried employee of the public employees retirement association;

(e) a full-time military or civilian officer or employee in the unclassified service of the department of military affairs whose salary is paid from state funds;

(f) a salaried employee of the Minnesota historical society, whether paid from state funds or otherwise, who is not a member of the governing board;

(g) an employee of the regents of the University of Minnesota; and

(h) notwithstanding section 43A.27, subdivision 3, an employee of the state of Minnesota or the regents of the University of Minnesota who is at least 60 and not yet 65 years of age on July 1, 1982, who is otherwise eligible for employee and dependent insurance and benefits pursuant to section 43A.18 or other law, who has at least 20 years of service and retires, earlier than required, within 60 days of March 23, 1982; or an employee who is at least 60 and not yet 65 years of age on July 1, 1982, who has at least 20 years of state service and retires, earlier than required, from employment at Rochester state hospital after July 1, 1981; or an employee who is at least 55 and not yet 65 years of age on July 1, 1982, and is covered by the Minnesota state retirement system correctional employee retirement plan or the state patrol retirement fund, who has at least 20 years of state service and retires, earlier than required, within 60 days of March 23, 1982. For purposes of this clause, a person retires when the person terminates active employment in state or University of Minnesota service and applies for a retirement annuity. Eligibility shall cease when the retired employee attains the age of 65, or when the employee chooses not to receive the annuity that the employee has applied for. The retired employee shall be eligible for coverages to which the employee was entitled at the time of retirement, subject to any changes in coverage through collective bargaining or plans established pursuant to section 43A.18, for employees in positions equivalent to that from which retired, provided that the retired employee shall not be eligible for state-paid life insurance. Coverages shall be coordinated with relevant health insurance benefits provided through the federally sponsored Medicare program; and

(i) An employee of an agency of the state of Minnesota identified through the process provided in this paragraph who is eligible to retire prior to age 65. The commissioner and the exclusive representative of state employees shall enter into agreements under section 179A.22 to identify employees whose positions are in programs that are being permanently eliminated or reduced due to federal or state policies or practices. Failure to reach agreement identifying these employees is not subject to impasse procedures provided in chapter 179A. The commissioner must prepare a plan identifying eligible employees not covered by a collective bargaining agreement in accordance with the process outlined in section 43A.18, subdivisions 2 and 3. For purposes of this paragraph, a person retires when the person terminates active employment in state service and applies for a retirement annuity. Eligibility ends as provided in the agreement or plan, but must cease at the end of the month in which the retired employee chooses not to receive an annuity, or the employee is eligible for employer-paid health insurance from a new employer. The retired employees shall be eligible for coverages to which they were entitled at the time of retirement, subject to any changes in coverage through collective bargaining or plans established under section 43A.18 for employees in positions equivalent to that from which they retired, provided that the retired employees shall not be eligible for state-paid life insurance.

Sec. 2. Minnesota Statutes 1987 Supplement, section 43A.316, subdivision 8, is amended to read:

Subd. 8. [CONTINUATION OF COVERAGE.] (a) A participating employee who is laid off or is on unrequested leave may elect to continue the plan coverage. This coverage is at the expense of the employee unless otherwise provided by a collective bargaining agreement. Premiums for these employees shall be established by the commissioner. Coverage continues until one of the following occurs:

(1) the employee is reemployed and eligible for health care coverage under a group policy; or

(2) the insurance continuation periods required by state and federal laws expire.

(b) A participating employee who retires and is receiving an annuity or is eligible for and has applied for an annuity under chapter 352, 352B, 352C, 352D, 353, 354, 354A, 356, 422A, 423, 423A, 424, or 490 is eligible to continue participation in the plan. ~~Any employer's contribution must cease when the retiree reaches age 65.~~ These employees, and employees who have already retired prior to the group from which they retired entering the plan, are eligible to participate as long as their group continues to participate. This participation is at the retiree's expense unless a collective bargaining agreement or personnel policy provides otherwise. An employer shall notify an employee of this option no later than the effective date of retirement. The retired employee shall notify the employer within 30 days of the effective date of retirement of intent to exercise this option.

The spouse of a deceased retired employee may purchase the benefits provided at premiums established by the commissioner if the deceased retired employee received an annuity under chapter 352, 353, 354, 354A, 356, 422A, 423, 423A, or 424 and if the spouse was a dependent under the retired employee's coverage under this section at the time of the death of the retired employee. Coverage under this clause shall be coordinated with relevant insurance benefits provided through the federally sponsored Medicare program.

(c) The plan benefits shall continue in the event of strike permitted by section 179A.18, if the exclusive representative chooses to have coverage continue and the employee pays the total monthly premiums when due.

(d) A person who desires to participate under paragraphs (a) to (c) shall notify the eligible employer or former employer of intent to participate according to rules established by the commissioner. The eligible employer shall notify the commissioner, and coverage shall begin as soon as the commissioner permits.

Persons participating under these paragraphs shall make appropriate premium payments in the time and manner established by the commissioner.

Sec. 3. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 123.72, is amended to read:

123.72 [MEDICAL INSURANCE PREMIUMS FOR RETIRED PERSONNEL.]

The school board of any independent school district may expend funds to pay premiums on hospitalization and major medical insurance coverage for officers and employees who retire prior to age 65 and who are between the ages of 55 and 65. Such premiums shall only be paid until such retired officers and employees reach age 65.

Sec. 4. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 179A.03, subdivision 19, is amended to read:

Subd. 19. [TERMS AND CONDITIONS OF EMPLOYMENT.] "Terms and conditions of employment" means the hours of employment, the compensation therefor including fringe benefits except retirement contributions or benefits other than employer payment of, or contributions to, premiums for group insurance coverage of retired employees or severance pay, and the employer's personnel policies affecting the working conditions of the employees. In the case of professional employees the term does not mean educational policies of a school district. "Terms and conditions of employment" is subject to section 179A.07.

Sec. 5. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 179A.07, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [MEET AND NEGOTIATE.] (a) A public employer has an obligation to meet and negotiate in good faith with the exclusive representative of public employees in an appropriate unit regarding grievance procedures and the terms and conditions of employment, but this obligation does not compel the public employer or its representative to agree to a proposal or require the making of a concession.

The public employer's duty under this subdivision exists notwithstanding contrary provisions in a municipal charter, ordinance, or resolution. A provision of a municipal charter, ordinance, or resolution which limits or restricts a public employer from negotiating or from entering into binding contracts with exclusive representatives is superseded by this subdivision.

(b) In addition, a public employer may, but does not have an obligation to, meet and negotiate in good faith with the exclusive representative of public employees in an appropriate unit regarding an employer contribution to the state of Minnesota deferred compensation plan authorized by section 356.24, paragraph (a), clause (4), within the limits set by section 356.24, paragraph (a), clause (4).

Sec. 7. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 179A.20, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 2a. A personnel policy may not obligate an employer to fund all or part of health care benefits for a former employee beyond the duration of the policy. A policy may not extend beyond the termination of the contract of longest duration covering other employees of the employer or, if none, the termination of the budgetary cycle during which the policy is adopted.

Sec. 8. Minnesota Statutes 1987 Supplement, section 352.96, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [PURCHASE OF SHARES.] The amount of compensation so deferred may be used to purchase:

(1) shares in the Minnesota supplemental investment fund established in section 11A.17;

(2) saving accounts in federally insured financial institutions;

(3) life insurance contracts, fixed annuity and variable annuity contracts from companies that are subject to regulation by the commissioner of commerce; or

(4) a combination of (1), (2), or (3), as specified by the participant.

The shares accounts or contracts purchased shall stand in the name of the state or other employing unit, for the officer or employee whose deferred compensation purchased the shares, until distributed to the officer or employee in a manner agreed upon by the employee and the executive director of the Minnesota state retirement system, acting for the employer. This subdivision does not authorize an employer contribution, except as authorized in section 356.24, paragraph (a), clause (4). The state, political subdivision, or other employing unit is not responsible for any loss that may result from investment of the deferred compensation.

Lowest responsible bidder means the insurer, service plan corporation, or self-insurance plan, if allowed by the bid specifications which offers the lowest cost, is authorized to do business in this state, and is deemed by the governmental unit to be capable of satisfactorily performing the administration of the policy or contract in accordance with the bid specifications. If additional employees are added to an existing group pursuant to a joint powers agreement under section 471.59, new bids and award are not required.

When an insurer proposes an increase in rates, it shall accompany its proposal with an aggregate claims record for the appropriate period that explains the proposed increase. When a contract is resubmitted for bids the aggregate claims record shall accompany the specifications for the contract. April 14, 1988

The Honorable Robert Vanasek
Speaker of the House of Representatives

The Honorable Jerome M. Hughes
President of the Senate

We, the undersigned conferees for H. F. No. 2596, report that we have agreed upon the items in dispute and recommend as follows:

That the Senate recede from its amendment and that H. F. No. 2596 be further amended as follows:

Delete everything after the enacting clause and insert:

"Section 1. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 473.141, subdivision 9, is amended to read:

Subd. 9. [PERSONNEL CODE; MERIT SYSTEM.] (a) The council shall by resolution adopt guidelines for a personnel code relating to the employees of the commissions, except that nothing in Laws 1974, Chapter 422 shall impair the rights of any commission or employee under sections 473.405 and 473.415. After adoption of the guidelines, each commission shall by resolution adopt a personnel code in general conformance therewith. The code shall include a job classification plan, procedures for employment and promotion of personnel based on merit, procedures for the demotion, suspension or discharge of employees, procedures for hearing grievances, procedures for salary administration, and such other provisions as the council deems appropriate. In addition, the code shall provide for the development by each commission of affirmative action plans, which shall be submitted for approval to the appropriate agency or office of the state. The plans shall include a yearly progress report to the agency or office as provided in section 3. The chief administrator of each commission shall administer the code, and no commission shall take any action inconsistent with the personnel code.

(b) All employees of the commission except those expressly designated for the unclassified service, shall serve in the classified service. The unclassified service shall include: members of the commission, the chief administrator of the commission, all officers of the commission, any employee of the commission who is determined by the commission to have a confidential relationship to the commission or the council; and any employee of the commission expressly exempted from the classified service by law. Each code shall also include procedures for open competitive examinations to test the relative skill or ability of all applicants for positions in the classified service. Such examinations may consist of written or oral tests of the subjective or objective type, physical tests, and practical or demonstration tests for the evaluation of past training and experience. Oral tests may be used to test the applicant's knowledge of the position applied for or personal fitness for the position. Where there is more than one applicant for a position, each code shall provide for the employment of one of the three applicants best qualified for it.

(c) When a commission employee has been demoted, suspended or dismissed by the chief administrator, the employee may, within 30 days after such action becomes effective, file with the commission a written request for a hearing showing the position from which the employee was dismissed, the date of dismissal, and the reason for requesting the hearing, full name and present mailing address. Upon receipt of a request for a hearing the commission shall appoint three of its members to act as an appeal committee and preside at a hearing on the action of the administrator. The hearing shall be held within 30 days after the request is received by the commission, upon written notice mailed or delivered to the employee at the employee's present mailing address, not less than seven days before the hearing. The appeal committee shall approve or disapprove the action of the administrator, and in the case of approval the action of the administrator shall be final. In the case of disapproval the appeal committee may reinstate the employee under such conditions as it deems proper, and may order the payment to the employee of compensation lost as a result of the demotion, suspension or dismissal.

Sec. 2. [473.142] [SOCIALY AND ECONOMICALLY DISADVANTAGED BUSINESSES.]

(a) The metropolitan council and agencies specified in section 3, subdivision 1, shall attempt to award at least nine percent of the value of all procurement, other than contracts under clause (c), to businesses owned and operated by socially or economically disadvantaged persons. For purposes of this section, "socially or economically disadvantaged person" means a person who has been deprived of the opportunity to develop and maintain a competitive position in the economy because of social or economic conditions. This disadvantage may arise from cultural, social or economic circumstances, background, or other similar cause. It includes racial minorities, women, persons with a disability as defined in section 363.01, subdivision 25, sheltered workshops, and work activity programs. To the extent practicable, the council and agencies shall attempt to meet this goal through procurement from businesses with their principal place of business in Minnesota. In furtherance of this goal, the council or an agency shall set aside a percentage of all procurements for bidding only by these businesses. The council or an agency may also award a five percent preference to these businesses in the amount bid on selected procurements.

(b) The council and each agency specified in section 3, subdivision 1, as a condition of awarding procurements for construction, consultant, professional, or technical service contracts in excess of $200,000, shall attempt to assure that at least ten percent of the contract award to a prime contractor be subcontracted to a business owned and operated by a socially or economically disadvantaged person, or that at least ten percent of the contract award be expended in purchasing materials or supplies from this type of business. This paragraph does not apply if the council or agency determines that there is no business owned and operated by a socially or economically disadvantaged person able to perform the subcontract or provide the supplies, or if the prime contractor is a business owned and operated by a socially or economically disadvantaged person. Subcontracting or purchasing of supplies under this subdivision is not included in determining achievement of goals under paragraph (a) or (c).

(c) The council and each agency specified in section 3, subdivision 1, shall attempt to award at least six percent of the value of all procurements for consultant services or professional or technical services to businesses owned and operated by socially or economically disadvantaged persons.

(d) In implementing paragraphs (a) and (c), the council and each agency specified in section 3, subdivision 1, shall attempt to purchase a variety of goods and services from different businesses owned and operated by socially or economically disadvantaged persons.

(e) The council and each agency may adopt rules to implement this section.

(f) This section does not apply to procurement financed in whole or in part with federal funds if the procurement is subject to federal disadvantaged, minority or women business enterprise regulations. The council and each agency shall report annually to the legislature on compliance with this subdivision. The reports must include the information specified in section 16B.21 that pertains to purchasing from businesses owned by socially or economically disadvantaged persons.

Sec. 3. [473.143] [AFFIRMATIVE ACTION PLANS.]

Subdivision 1. [APPLICATION.] For purposes of this section, "agency" means a metropolitan agency as defined in section 473.121, except the metropolitan parks and open space commission. Agency also means the metropolitan mosquito control commission. For purposes of this section, "commissioner" means the commissioner of the state department of employee relations.

Subd. 2. [DEVELOPMENT AND CONTENTS.] The council and each agency shall develop an affirmative action plan and submit its plan to the commissioner for approval. The commissioner may not approve a plan unless the commissioner determines that it will be effective in assuring that employment positions are equally accessible to all qualified persons, in eliminating the underutilization of qualified members of protected groups, in providing a supportive work environment to all employees, regardless of race, religion, sex, national origin, or disability, and in dealing with discrimination complaints. For purposes of this section, "protected group" has the meaning given it in section 43A.02, subdivision 33. A plan must contain at least the elements required in this subdivision.

(a) It must identify protected groups that are underrepresented in the council's or agency's work force.

(b) It must designate a person responsible for directing and implementing the affirmative action program and assign the specific responsibilities and duties of that person. The person responsible for implementing the program shall report directly to the council's or agency's chief operating officer regarding the person's affirmative action duties. The person responsible for the affirmative action program shall review examination and other selection criteria to assure compliance with law. This person shall be involved in the filling of all vacancies in the council or agency work force, to the extent necessary to facilitate attainment of affirmative action goals.

(c) It must describe the methods by which the plan will be communicated to employees and to other persons.

(d) It must describe methods for recruiting members of protected groups. These methods may include internship programs, cooperation with union apprenticeship programs, and other steps necessary to expand the number of protected group members in applicant pools.

(e) It must describe internal procedures in accordance with this paragraph for processing complaints of alleged discrimination from job applicants and employees. The procedures must provide for an initial determination of whether the complaint is properly a discrimination complaint subject to the procedure under the affirmative action plan. Complaints filed under the discrimination procedures that allege reprisals against an employee for opposing a forbidden practice or for filing a charge, testifying, or participating in an investigation, proceeding, or hearing relating to a forbidden practice are appealable to the chief operating officer of the council or agency. Procedures under this paragraph must be distinct from any procedures available under a union contract or personnel policy for nondiscrimination complaints. Use of procedures developed under this paragraph is not a prerequisite to filing charges with a governmental enforcement agency, nor does it limit a person's right to file these charges.

(f) It must set goals and timetables to eliminate underutilization of members of each protected group in the council or agency work force.

(g) It must provide a plan for retaining and promoting protected group members in the council or agency work force. This plan should encourage training opportunities for protected group members, to the extent necessary to eliminate underutilization in specific parts of the work force.

(h) It must describe methods of auditing, evaluating, and reporting program success, including a procedure that requires a pre-employment review of all hiring decisions for occupational groups with unmet affirmative action goals.

(i) It must provide for training of management and supervisory personnel in implementation of the plan and in dealing with alleged acts of discrimination in the workplace.

(j) It must provide for periodic surveying of the council or agency work force to determine employee attitudes toward implementation of the plan.

(k) It must provide for creation of an employee committee to advise on implementation of the plan and on any changes needed in the plan.

Subd. 3. [HARASSMENT.] The council and each agency shall adopt written policies forbidding harassment based on sex, disability, or race in their workplaces and establishing implementation plans and grievance procedures to deal with complaints of harassment based on sex, disability, or race.

Subd. 4. [PERFORMANCE EVALUATION.] The evaluation of the performance of each supervisory and managerial employee of the council and the agencies must include evaluation of the person's performance in implementing the council's or agency's affirmative action plan and in preventing forbidden discrimination in the workplace.

Subd. 5. [REPORT.] By March 1 each year, the commissioner shall report to the legislature on affirmative action progress of the council and of each agency. The report must include:

(1) an audit of the record of the council and each agency to determine compliance with affirmative action goals and to evaluate overall progress in attainment of overall affirmative actions objectives;

(2) if the council or any agency has failed to make satisfactory progress toward its affirmative action goals, a list of unmet goals and an analysis of why the failure occurred;

(3) a summary of all personnel actions taken by the council and each agency during the past calendar year, categorized by occupational group, protected group status, and full-time, part-time, temporary, and seasonal status; and

(4) a summary of discrimination complaints and lawsuits against the council and each agency filed or resolved during the past calendar year, including the basis for the complaints and lawsuits.

For purposes of this subdivision, "personnel action" means a new hire, promotion, transfer, demotion, layoff, recall from layoff, suspension with or without pay, letter of reprimand, involuntary termination, other disciplinary action, and voluntary termination.

The council and each agency shall report to the commissioner all information that the commissioner requests to make the report required by this subdivision. In providing this information, the council and agencies are not required to reveal information that is not public data under chapter 13.

The council and each agency shall submit these reports at the time and in the manner requested by the commissioner. The commissioner shall report to the legislature on the failure of the council or an agency to file the required report in a timely manner.

Subd. 6. [COORDINATION.] The commissioner or a designee shall meet with affirmative action officers of the council and all of the agencies to share successful techniques and foster innovative means to implement affirmative action plans and eliminate discrimination in the workplace.

Subd. 7. [COORDINATION WITH LEGISLATURE.] The council and each agency shall facilitate legislative oversight of equal opportunity practices by providing the legislature access, including access to computerized records if compatible systems exist, to public data maintained by the agency. The council and agencies must not provide access to information that is not public data as defined in section 13.02, subdivision 8a.

Sec. 4. [473.144] [CERTIFICATES OF COMPLIANCE FOR CONTRACTS.]

Neither the council nor an agency listed in section 3, subdivision 1, may accept any bid or proposal for a contract or execute a contract for goods or services in excess of $50,000 with any business having more than 20 full-time employees in Minnesota at any time during the previous 12 months, unless the business has an affirmative action plan for the employment of minority persons, women, and the disabled that has been approved by the commissioner of human rights. Receipt of a certificate of compliance from the commissioner of human rights signifies that a business has an approved affirmative action plan. A certificate is valid for two years. Section 363.073 governs revocation of certificates. The rules adopted by the commissioner of human rights under section 363.074 apply to this section.

Sec. 5. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 473.406, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Sec. 6. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 473.406, subdivision 5, is amended to read:

Subd. 5. A disease arises out of the employment only if there be a direct causal connection between the conditions under which the work is performed and if the occupational disease follows as a natural incident of the work as a result of the exposure occasioned by the nature of the employment. An employer is not liable for compensation for any occupational disease which cannot be traced to the employment as a direct and proximate cause and is not recognized as a hazard characteristic of and peculiar to the trade, occupation, process, or employment or which results from a hazard to which the worker would have been equally exposed outside of the employment. If immediately preceding the date of disablement or death, an employee was employed on active duty with an organized fire or police department of any municipality, as a member of the Minnesota state patrol, conservation officer service, state crime bureau, as a forest officer by the department of natural resources, or sheriff or full time deputy sheriff of any county, and the disease is that of myocarditis, coronary sclerosis, pneumonia or its sequel, and at the time of employment such employee was given a thorough physical examination by a licensed doctor of medicine, and a written report thereof has been made and filed with such organized fire or police department, with the Minnesota state patrol, conservation officer service, state crime bureau, department of natural resources, or sheriff’s department of any county, which examination and report negatived any evidence of myocarditis, coronary sclerosis, pneumonia or its sequel, the disease is presumptively an occupational disease and shall be presumed to have been due to the nature of employment. If immediately preceding the date of disablement or death, any individual who by nature of their position provides emergency medical care, or an employee who was employed as a licensed police officer under section 626.84, subdivision 1, firefighter, paramedic, emergency medical technician, or licensed nurse, and contracts an infectious or communicable disease to which the employee was exposed in the course of employment outside of a hospital to an individual diagnosed as having the infection or communicable disease, then the disease is presumptively an occupational disease and shall be presumed to have been due to the nature of employment and the presumption may be rebutted by substantial factors brought by the employer or insurer."

The Honorable Robert Vanasek
Speaker of the House of Representatives

The Honorable Jerome M. Hughes
President of the Senate

We, the undersigned conferees for H. F. No. 2126, report that we have agreed upon the items in dispute and recommend as follows:

That the House concur in the Senate amendment and that H. F. No. 2126 be further amended as follows:

Delete everything after the enacting clause and insert:

Subd. 2. Human Services Management

$-0- $1,220,200

Any balance remaining at the end of fiscal year 1988 in the appropriation for chemical dependency evaluation in Laws 1987, chapter 403, article 1, section 2, subdivision 8, does not cancel but is available for fiscal year 1989 to complete the incidence and prevalence survey on the extent of drug and alcohol problems in Minnesota.

Of this appropriation, $200,000 is for semi-independent living services for those people determined eligible who have not received funding. This appropriation may be used to fund services for individuals who are currently living in intermediate care facilities for the mentally retarded, who are receiving waived services and are no longer eligible for those services, or who are living in their family home, a foster home, or their own home.

Of this appropriation, $50,000 is for a grant related to attention deficit disorder (ADD). The commissioner shall award the grant to a nonprofit corporation whose only purpose is to educate people about ADD and to support children with ADD and their families. Grant money awarded under this provision must be used for the following purposes: (1) in-service training for school personnel, including teachers at all levels from early childhood through college and vocational training, on the unique problems of children who suffer from ADD, and (2) support groups for children with ADD and their families.

Of this appropriation, $150,000 is for a demonstration grant under the community initiatives for children program, to be awarded to a project in the seven-county metropolitan area. The amount of the grant may not exceed the lesser of $150,000 or 50 percent of capital costs incurred within a two-year period.

Subd. 4. Mental Health

Of the amount appropriated in Laws 1987, chapter 403, article 1, section 2, subdivision 5, for state mental health grants for fiscal year 1988, $720,000 does not cancel but is available for fiscal year 1989 for the same purposes and $1,330,000 is transferred to fiscal year 1989.

Of the amount appropriated in Laws 1987, chapter 403, article 1, section 2, subdivision 5, for mental health for fiscal year 1988, $250,000 for information systems is transferred in fiscal year 1988 to the state systems account established in Minnesota Statutes, section 256.014, subdivision 2.

Money appropriated for the children's mental health plan is for fiscal year 1989 only. Money needed beyond June 30, 1989, to develop or implement the plan must be requested as a change request in the 1989 to 1991 biennial budget.

Upon approval of the legislative audit commission, $25,000 of this appropriation is transferred to the legislative auditor for a program evaluation of the quality of treatment provided by community residential programs for people who are mentally ill or mentally ill and chemically dependent. The evaluation should consider the extent to which facility size and ownership structure affect the quality of treatment; the appropriateness of the reimbursement and payment system, including methods of paying for buildings and land; and the impact of programs on residential areas.

Subd. 5. Income Maintenance and Residential Programs

$(16,987,000) $5,884,300

(a) Health Care and Residential Programs

$(11,933,200) $6,252,900

For services rendered on or after January 1, 1989, the maximum pharmacy dispensing fee under medical assistance and general assistance medical care is $4.20.

For medical assistance services rendered on or after October 1, 1988, payments to medical assistance vendors for physician services, dental care, vision care, podiatric services, chiropractic care, physical therapy, occupational therapy, speech pathologists, audiologists, mental health centers, psychologists, public health clinics, and independent laboratory and X-ray services must be based on payment rates in effect on June 30, 1987, except that the base rate for obstetrical care is increased by ten percent from the base rate in effect on June 30, 1987.

For medical assistance and general assistance medical care services rendered on or after July 1, 1989, payments to physicians and dentists must be calculated at the lower of (1) the submitted charges, or (2) the 50th percentile of prevailing charges in 1982.

The increased payments to small hospitals in Minnesota Statutes, section 256.969, subdivision 3, are authorized for fiscal year 1989 only.

Notwithstanding Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 256.969, subdivision 3, paragraph (b), the appropriation in Laws 1987, chapter 403, article 1, section 2, subdivision 6, paragraph (b), for supplemental grants to hospitals is allocated as follows: $51,900 to Hennepin county medical center and $48,100 to St. Paul-Ramsey medical center. The commissioner shall distribute this money by June 30, 1988.

For the six-month period ending June 30, 1989, persons with serious and persistent mental illness who, except for their residence in a facility licensed under Minnesota Rules, parts 9520.0500 to 9520.0690, would be eligible for medical assistance services, are eligible under the general assistance medical care program for services covered under the general assistance medical care program plus case management. The commissioner may, with the approval of the governor and after consulting with the legislative advisory commission, transfer $711,000 of the medical assistance appropriation to the general assistance medical care appropriation for this purpose.

In the biennium ending on June 30, 1989, the commissioner shall not authorize or approve more than 150 newly constructed or newly established intermediate care beds for persons with mental retardation or related conditions under Minnesota Statutes, section 252.291, subdivision 2. One-half of the first 70 newly constructed or newly established intermediate care beds for persons with mental retardation or related conditions approved by the commissioner must be state-operated community-based intermediate care beds for persons with mental retardation or related conditions. Money appropriated to operate and expand state-operated community-based program pilot projects pursuant to Laws 1987, chapter 403, article 1, section 2, subdivision 9, may be used to establish state-operated community-based intermediate care beds for persons with mental retardation or related conditions.

Of this appropriation, $200,000 is for a regional demonstration project under Minnesota Statutes, section 256B.73, to provide health coverage to low-income uninsured persons. The appropriation is available when the planning for the project is complete, sufficient money has been committed from non-state sources to allow the project to proceed, and the project is prepared to begin accepting and approving applications from uninsured individuals. The commissioner shall contract with the coalition formed for the nine counties named in Minnesota Statutes, section 256B.73, subdivision 2.

Of this appropriation, $752,500 in fiscal year 1988 and $5,117,000 in fiscal year 1989 are for additional positions required in the regional treatment centers as a result of health care financing administration surveys of mental illness program staffing.

Any unexpended balance remaining in the regional treatment center accounts for fiscal year 1988 is available to pay the billing for the state health insurance trust fund and the costs of implementing the Jarvis v. Levine court decision. For fiscal year 1989, $420,000 is appropriated for the costs of implementing the decision.

$1,600,000 is appropriated in the public health fund for medical assistance to extend eligibility to include pregnant women and infants to age one with income at or below 185 percent of the federal poverty level.

On or after October 1, 1988, the commissioner shall transfer $1,600,000 to the public health fund for the children's health plan and $500,000 to the preadmission screening and alternative care grants program from the medical assistance and general assistance medical care programs after any transfers necessary because of projected deficits in the aid to families with dependent children, general assistance, or Minnesota supplemental aid programs. The transfers may occur only to the extent possible using any surplus projected to exist at the end of the biennium within the appropriations for the medical assistance and general assistance medical care programs.

(b) Family Support Programs

(c) Other Income Maintenance Activities

$ (1,502,300) $ 1,008,000

Federal receipts for the alien verification entitlement system must be deposited in the state systems account.

Money appropriated for the medical assistance and general assistance medical care managed care project under Minnesota Statutes, section 256B.74, is available through June 30, 1989. Money needed to implement or continue the recommendations of the task force must be included as a change request in the 1989 to 1991 biennial budget.

Money appropriated to develop a plan to implement the healthspan program is available until June 30, 1989.

By January 1, 1989, the commissioner of the department of human services shall, in cooperation with the commissioner of employee relations, complete a job evaluation study to determine the comparable worth value of direct care staff positions in intermediate care facilities for the mentally retarded, waived residential services, semi-independent living programs, and developmental achievement centers that are licensed by the department of human services or by a county. The commissioner shall contract with the department of employee relations for completion of the study. Results of the study shall be reported to the chair of the finance committee of the senate and to the chair of the appropriations committee of the house.

Notwithstanding Laws 1987, chapter 403, article 1, section 14, subdivision 1, the commissioner is authorized to transfer funds as necessary from non-salary object of expenditure classes to salary object of expenditure classes in the medical assistance demonstration project in order to efficiently educate and enroll medical assistance recipients in the project.

$40,000 of this appropriation must be transferred to the commissioner of the state planning agency for the biennium ending June 30, 1989, to fund the local efforts of a multicounty area in southwest central Minnesota to plan, organize, and design a health insurance program demonstration project for low income adults and their dependents. The demonstration project shall be designed to best meet the health insurance needs of individuals and families who are not eligible for any other federally subsidized health benefits program and who do not have any health insurance or who do not have adequate health insurance. The project shall be planned and organized to make the best use of existing community health providers and agencies. By February 1, 1989, the commissioner shall report to the chairs of the health and human services committees of the senate and the house with a plan, organization, and design for implementation of the health insurance demonstration project. The report must be based on recommendations from the multi-county area.

The developmental achievement center pilot payment rate system in Minnesota Statutes, section 252.46, subdivision 14, may operate through June 30, 1990.

Of this appropriation, $150,000 is immediately available to contract with the commissioner of health to implement that part of Public Law No. 100-203 specified in section 6, subdivision 3.

Federal receipts for the independent review of medical assistance prepaid plans under contract with the commissioner are appropriated to the commissioner for the review process.

$85,000 of this appropriation must be transferred to the commissioner of administration to complete by February 1, 1989, (1) an operational cost analysis, (2) an impact analysis on other nursing homes in the area, (3) a demographic study of the number of veterans that would be served in the area, (4) staffing level requirements and the availability of staff, and (5) a site feasibility study for the following projects: (a) establishment of a facility in Fergus Falls for the housing and nursing care of veterans; and (b) establishment of a veterans home in southwestern Minnesota.

Money appropriated for the Faribault regional center planning study must be transferred to the commissioner of the state planning agency and is available until June 30, 1989.

Subd. 6. Veterans Homes

Funds appropriated for the Minnesota veterans homes shall be transferred to the board of directors of the homes immediately upon licensure of the board by the commissioner of health for the biennium ending June 30, 1989.

During the biennium, the board of directors of the veterans homes shall report the results of all health department and Veterans Administration inspections and surveys to the governor, the chair of the House of Representatives appropriation committee, the chair of the Senate finance committee, the chair of the House health and human services appropriation division and the chair of the Senate health and human services finance division, within ten days of receiving written notification of the results. The report shall include plans for correcting deficiencies.

The board of directors of the veterans homes shall report to the legislature by January 1, 1989, regarding efforts to maximize use of federal Veterans Administration funds.

Of this appropriation, $410,000 is for the replacement of electrical transformers and for phase 1 of the steam retrofitting for the veterans home.

Money appropriated for repairs and replacement at the veterans homes is not included in the base funding level. The commissioner shall request necessary funds for this purpose as a change request to the 1989 to 1991 biennial budget.

(c) to license beds in new facilities where need was determined by the commissioner prior to June 10, 1983 when the commissioner determines that the need for increased service capacity cannot be met by the use of alternative resources or the modification of existing facilities.

Subd. 3. [DUTIES OF COMMISSIONER OF HUMAN SERVICES.] The commissioner shall:

(d) establish a client tracking and evaluation system as required under applicable federal waiver regulations, Code of Federal Regulations, title 42, sections 431, 435, 440, and 441, as amended through December 31, 1982 1987; and

Sec. 114. Minnesota Statutes 1987 Supplement, section 252.46, subdivision 5, is amended to read:

Subd. 5. [SUBMITTING RECOMMENDED RATES.] The county board shall submit recommended payment rates to the commissioner on forms supplied by the commissioner by ~~November 1, 1987,~~ and at least 60 days before revised payment rates or payment rates for new vendors are to be effective. The forms must require the county board's written verification of the individual documentation required under section 252.44, clause (a). If the number of days of service provided by a licensed vendor are projected to increase, the county board must recommend payment rates based on the projected increased days of attendance and resulting lower per unit fixed costs. Recommended increases in payment rates for vendors whose approved payment rates are ten or more than ten percent below the statewide median payment rates must be equal to the maximum increases allowed for that vendor under subdivision 3. If a vendor provides services at more than one licensed site, the county board may recommend the same payment rates for each site based on the average rate for all sites. The county board may also recommend differing payment rates for each licensed site if it would result in a total annual payment to the vendor that is equal to or less than the total annual payment that would result if the average rates had been used for all sites. For purposes of this subdivision, the average payment rate for all service sites used by a vendor must be computed by adding the amounts that result when the payment rates for each licensed site are multiplied by the projected annual number of service units to be provided at that site and dividing the sum of those amounts by the total units of service to be provided by the vendor at all sites.

Sec. 115. Minnesota Statutes 1987 Supplement, section 252.46, subdivision 6, is amended to read:

Subd. 6. [VARIANCES.] A variance from the minimum or maximum payment rates in subdivisions 2 and 3 may be granted by the commissioner when the vendor requests and the county board submits to the commissioner a written variance request with the recommended payment rates. A variance may be utilized for costs associated with compliance with state administrative rules, compliance with court orders, increased insurance costs, start-up and conversion costs for supported employment, direct service staff salaries, and transportation. The county board shall review all vendors' payment rates that are ~~20~~ ten or more than ten percent lower than the average rates for ~~the regional development commission district to which the county belongs~~ statewide median payment rates. If the county determines that the payment rates do not provide sufficient revenue to the vendor for authorized service delivery the county must recommend a variance under this section. This review must occur prior to November 1, 1987. When the county board contracts for increased services from any vendor for some or all individuals receiving services from the vendor, the county board shall review the vendor's payment rates to determine whether the increase requires that a variance to the minimum rates be recommended under this section to reflect the vendor's lower per unit fixed costs. The written variance request must include documentation that all the following criteria have been met:

(1) The commissioner and the county board have both conducted a review and have identified a need for a change in the payment rates to ~~change the number of direct service staff or the level of qualifications of the staff.~~

(2) The proposed changes are required for the vendor to deliver authorized individual services in an effective and efficient manner.

(3) The proposed changes are necessary to demonstrate compliance with minimum licensing standards governing minimum staffing ratios and staff qualifications.

(4) The vendor documents that the ~~change in staff numbers or qualifications~~ changes cannot be achieved by reallocating current staff or by reallocating financial resources to ~~provide or purchase the necessary services.~~

(5) The county board submits evidence that the need for additional staff cannot be met by using temporary special needs rate exceptions under Minnesota Rules, parts 9510.1020 to 9510.1140.

(6) The county board submits a description of the nature and cost of the proposed changes, and how the county will monitor the use of money by the vendor to make necessary changes in services. Allowable costs are limited to salaries, related fringe benefits, and payroll taxes.

(7) The county board's recommended payment rates do not exceed 125 percent of the average current calendar year's statewide median payment rates in the regional development commission district in which the vendor is located.

Sec. 116. Minnesota Statutes 1987 Supplement, section 252.46, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 13. [REVIEW AND REVISION OF PROCEDURES FOR RATE EXCEPTIONS FOR VERY DEPENDENT PERSONS WITH SPECIAL NEEDS.] The commissioner shall review the procedures established in Minnesota Rules, parts 9510.1020 to 9510.1140, that counties must follow to seek authorization for a medical assistance rate exception for services for very dependent persons with special needs. The commissioner shall appoint an advisory task force to work with the commissioner. Members of the task force must include vendors, providers, advocates, and consumers. After considering the recommendations of the advisory task force and county rate setting procedures developed under this section, the commissioner shall:

- (1) revise administrative procedures as necessary;
- (2) implement new review procedures for county applications for medical assistance rate exceptions for services for very dependent persons with special needs in a manner that accounts for services available to the person within the approved payment rates of the vendor;
- (3) provide training and technical assistance to vendors, providers, and counties in use of procedures governing medical assistance rate exceptions for very dependent persons with special needs and in county rate setting procedures established under this subdivision; and
- (4) develop a strategy and implementation plan for uniform data collection for use in establishing equitable payment rates and medical assistance rate exceptions for services provided by vendors.

Sec. 117. Minnesota Statutes 1987 Supplement, section 252.46, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 14. [PILOT STUDY.] The commissioner may initiate a pilot payment rate system under section 252.47. The pilot project may establish training and demonstration sites. The pilot payment rate system must include actual transfers of funds, not simulated transfers. The pilot payment rate system may involve up to four counties and four vendors representing different geographic regions and rates of reimbursement. Participation in the pilot project is voluntary. Selection of participants by the commissioner is based on the vendor's submission of a complete application form provided by the commissioner. The application must include letters of agreement from the host county, counties of financial responsibility, and residential service providers. Evaluation of the pilot project must include consideration of the effectiveness of procedures governing establishment of equitable payment rates. Implementation of the pilot payment rate system is contingent upon federal approval and systems feasibility. The policies and procedures governing administration, participation, evaluation, service utilization, and payment for services under the pilot payment rate system are not subject to the rulemaking requirements of chapter 14.

Sec. 118. Minnesota Statutes 1987 Supplement, section 253B.03, subdivision 6, is amended to read:

Subd. 6. [CONSENT FOR MEDICAL PROCEDURE.] A patient

For this purpose, the following persons are proper relatives, in the order listed: the patient's spouse, parent, adult child, or adult sibling. If the nearest proper relatives cannot be located or refuse to consent to the procedure, the head of the treatment facility or an interested person may petition the committing court for approval for the treatment or may petition an appropriate a court of competent jurisdiction for the appointment of a guardian or conservator. The determination that the patient is not competent, and the reasons for the determination, shall be documented in the patient's clinical record.

(d) Consent to treatment of any minor patient shall be secured in accordance with sections 144.341 to 144.346, except that a minor 16 years of age or older may give valid consent for hospitalization, routine diagnostic evaluation, and emergency or short-term acute care.

(e) In the case of an emergency and when the persons ordinarily qualified to give consent cannot be located, the head of the treatment facility may give consent.

(c) A neuroleptic medication may be administered to a patient who is not competent to consent to neuroleptic medications only if a court approves the administration of the neuroleptic medication or:

(1) the patient does not object to or refuse the medication;

(2) a guardian ad litem appointed by the court with authority to consent to neuroleptic medications gives written, informed consent to the administration of the neuroleptic medication; and

(3) a multidisciplinary treatment review panel composed of persons who are not engaged in providing direct care to the patient gives written approval to administration of the neuroleptic medication.

(d) A person who consents to treatment pursuant to this subdivision is not civilly or criminally liable for the performance of or the manner of performing the treatment. A person is not liable for performing treatment without consent if written, informed consent was given pursuant to this subdivision. This provision does not affect any other liability that may result from the manner in which the treatment is performed.

Sec. 120. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 253B.17, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

[PETITION.] Any patient, except one committed as mentally ill and dangerous to the public, or any interested person may petition the committing court or the court to which venue has been transferred for an order that the patient is not in need of continued institutionalization or for an order that an individual is no longer mentally ill, mentally retarded, or chemically dependent, or for any other relief as the court deems just and equitable. A patient committed as mentally ill or mentally ill and dangerous may petition the committing court or the court to which venue has been transferred for a hearing concerning the administration of neuroleptic medication. A hearing may also be held pursuant to sections 253B.09 and 253B.12.

Sec. 121. Minnesota Statutes 1987 Supplement, section 256.01, subdivision 4, is amended to read:

Subd. 4. [DUTIES AS STATE AGENCY.] The state agency shall:

(1) supervise the administration of assistance to dependent children under Laws 1937, chapter 438, by the county agencies in an integrated program with other service for dependent children maintained under the direction of the state agency;

(2) may subpoena witnesses and administer oaths, make rules, and take such action as may be necessary, or desirable for carrying out the provisions of Laws 1937, chapter 438. All rules made by the state agency shall be binding on the counties and shall be complied with by the respective county agencies;

(3) establish adequate standards for personnel employed by the counties and the state agency in the administration of Laws 1937, chapter 438, and make the necessary rules to maintain such standards;

(4) prescribe the form of and print and supply to the county agencies blanks for applications, reports, affidavits, and such other forms as it may deem necessary and advisable;

(5) cooperate with the federal government and its public welfare agencies in any reasonable manner as may be necessary to qualify for federal aid for aid to dependent children and in conformity with the provisions of Laws 1937, chapter 438, including the making of such reports and such forms and containing such information as the Federal Social Security Board may from time to time require, and comply with such provisions as such board may from time to time find necessary to assure the correctness and verification of such reports; and

(6) may cooperate with other state agencies in establishing reciprocal agreements in instances where a child receiving aid to dependent children moves or contemplates moving into or out of the state, in order that such child may continue to receive supervised aid from the state moved from until the child shall have resided for one year in the state moved to; and

(7) on or before October 1 in each even-numbered year make a biennial report to the governor concerning the activities of the agency; and

(8) design, develop, and administer an intake, referral, and inventory system that provides localized, single point intake with a direct access to a statewide data base to match client needs with employment opportunities and public and private services. The system must include information on all available public and private programs for employment and training services and income maintenance and support services as defined in section 268.0111. The state agency shall cooperate with the department of jobs and training, counties and other local service units, service providers, and clients in the development and operation of the system. The system is not subject to sections 16B.40 to 16B.45;

(9) enter into agreements with other departments of the state as necessary to meet all requirements of the federal government.

Sec. 122. Minnesota Statutes 1987 Supplement, section 256.015, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [PERFECTION; ENFORCEMENT.] The state agency may perfect and enforce its lien under sections 514.69, 514.70, and 514.71, and must file the verified lien statement with the appropriate court administrator in the county of financial responsibility. The verified lien statement must contain the following: the name and address of the person to whom medical care, subsistence, or other payment was furnished; the date of injury; the name and address of vendors furnishing medical care; the dates of the service or payment; the amount claimed to be due for the care or payment; and to the best of the state agency's knowledge, the names and addresses of all persons, firms, or corporations claimed to be liable for damages arising from the injuries.

This section does not affect the priority of any attorney's lien. The state agency is not subject to any limitations period referred to in section 514.69 or 514.71 and has one year from the date notice is received by it under subdivision 4, paragraph (c), or one year from the date medical bills are first paid by the state agency, whichever is later, to file its verified lien statement. The state agency may commence an action to enforce the lien within one year of (1) the date the notice required by subdivision 4, paragraph (c), is received, or (2) the date the person's cause of action is concluded by judgment, award, settlement, or otherwise, whichever is later.

Sec. 123. [256.016] [PLAIN LANGUAGE IN WRITTEN MATERIALS.]

(a) To the extent reasonable and consistent with the goals of providing easily understandable and readable materials and complying with federal and state laws governing the programs, all written materials relating to services and determinations of eligibility for or amounts of benefits that will be given to applicants for or recipients of assistance under a program administered or supervised by the commissioner of human services must be understandable to a person who reads at the seventh-grade level, using the Flesch scale analysis readability score as determined under section 72C.09.

(b) All written materials relating to determinations of eligibility for or amounts of benefits that will be given to applicants for or recipients of assistance under programs administered or supervised by the commissioner of human services must be developed to satisfy the plain language requirements of the plain language contract act under sections 325G.29 to 325G.36. Materials may be submitted to the attorney general for review and certification. Notwithstanding section 325G.35, subdivision 1, the attorney general shall review submitted materials to determine whether they comply with the requirements of section 325G.31. The remedies available pursuant to sections 8.31 and 325G.33 to 325G.36 do not apply to these materials. Failure to comply with this section does not provide a basis for suspending the implementation or operation of other laws governing programs administered by the commissioner.

(c) The requirements of this section apply to all materials modified or developed by the commissioner on or after July 1, 1988. The requirements of this section do not apply to materials that must be submitted to a federal agency for approval, to the extent that application of the requirements prevents federal approval.

(d) Nothing in this section may be construed to prohibit a lawsuit brought to require the commissioner to comply with this section or to affect individual appeal rights granted pursuant to section 256.045.

(e) The commissioner shall report annually to the chairs of the health and human services divisions of the senate finance committee and the house of representatives appropriations committee on the number and outcome of cases that raise the issue of the commissioner's compliance with this section.

Sec. 124. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 256.73, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [ALLOWANCE BARRED BY OWNERSHIP OF PROPERTY.] Ownership by an assistance unit of property as follows is a bar to any allowance under sections 256.72 to 256.87:

(1) The value of real property other than the homestead, which when combined with other assets exceeds the limits of paragraph (2), unless the assistance unit is making a good faith effort to sell the nonexcludable real property. The time period for disposal must not exceed nine months and the assistance unit shall execute an agreement to dispose of the property to repay assistance received during the nine months up to the amount of the net sale proceeds. The payment must be made when the property is sold. If the property is not sold within the required time or the assistance unit becomes ineligible for any reason the entire amount received during the nine months is an overpayment and subject to recovery. For the purposes of this section "homestead" means the house home owned and occupied by the child, relative or other member of the assistance unit as a dwelling place, together with the land upon which it is situated in an area no greater than two contiguous lots in a platted or laid out city or town or all contiguous acres in rural areas surrounding property which is not separated from the home by intervening property owned by others. Public rights-of-way, such as roads which run through the surrounding property and separate it from the home, will not affect the exemption of the property; or

(2) Personal property of an equity value in excess of $1,000 for the entire assistance unit, exclusive of personal property used as the home, one motor vehicle of an equity value not exceeding $1,500 or the entire equity value of a motor vehicle determined to be necessary for the operation of a self-employment business, one burial plot for each member of the assistance unit, one prepaid burial contract with an equity value of no more than $1,000 for each member of the assistance unit, clothing and necessary household furniture and equipment and other basic maintenance items essential for daily living, in accordance with rules promulgated by and standards established by the commissioner of human services.

Sec. 125. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 256.73, subdivision 6, is amended to read:

Subd. 6. [REPORTS BY RECIPIENT.] (a) An assistance unit with a recent work history or with earned income shall report monthly to the local agency on income received and other circumstances affecting eligibility or assistance amounts. All other assistance units shall report on income and other circumstances affecting eligibility and assistance amounts at less frequent intervals, as specified by the state agency. All income not specifically disregarded by the Social Security Act, the Code of Federal Regulations, or state law and rules, shall be income applicable to the budgetary needs of the family. If any amount of aid to families with dependent children assistance is paid to a recipient thereof in excess of the payment due it shall be recoverable by the local agency. The agency shall give written notice to the recipient of its intention to recover the overpayment. Overpayments to a current assistance unit shall be recovered either through repayment by the individual in part or in full or by reducing the amount of aid payable to the assistance unit of which the individual is a member. For any month in which an overpayment must be recovered, recoupment may be made by reducing the grant but only if the reduced assistance payment, together with the assistance unit's liquid assets and total income after deducting actual work expenses equals at least 95 percent of the standard of need for the assistance unit, except that if the overpayment is due solely to agency error, this total after deducting actual work expenses shall equal at least 99 percent of the standard of need. In cases when there is both an overpayment and underpayment the local agency shall offset one against the other in correcting the payment. The local agency shall make reasonable efforts to recover overpayments made to persons no longer on assistance in accordance with standards established by the commissioner of human services. The local agency need not attempt to recover overpayments of less than $35 paid to an individual no longer on assistance if the individual does not receive assistance again within three years, unless the individual has been convicted of fraud under section 256.98. The recipient may appeal the agency's determination that an overpayment has occurred in accordance with section 256.045. The county agency shall promptly repay the recipient for any underpayment and shall disregard that payment when determining the assistance unit's income and resources in the month when the payment is made and the following month.

(b) An assistance unit required to submit a report on the form designated by the commissioner is considered to have continued its application for assistance effective the date the required report is received by the local agency, if a complete report is received within a calendar month after the month in which assistance was received, except that no assistance shall be paid for the period beginning with the end of the month in which the report was due and ending with the date the report was received by the local agency.

Sec. 126. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 256.73, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 8. [RECOVERY OF OVERPAYMENTS.] (a) If an amount of aid to families with dependent children assistance is paid to a recipient in excess of the payment due, it shall be recoverable by the local agency. The agency shall give written notice to the recipient of its intention to recover the overpayment.

(b) When an overpayment occurs, the local agency shall recover the overpayment from a current recipient by reducing the amount of aid payable to the assistance unit of which the recipient is a member for one or more monthly assistance payments until the overpayment is repaid. For any month in which an overpayment must be recovered, recoupment may be made by reducing the grant but only if the reduced assistance payment, together with the assistance unit's total income after deducting work expenses as allowed under section 256.74, subdivision 1, clauses (3) and (4), equals at least 95 percent of the standard of need for the assistance unit, except that if the overpayment is due solely to agency error, this total after deducting allowable work expenses must equal at least 99 percent of the standard of need. Notwithstanding the preceding sentence, beginning on the date on which the commissioner implements a computerized client eligibility and information system in one or more counties, all local agencies in the state shall reduce the assistance payment by three percent of the assistance unit's standard of need or the amount of the monthly payment, whichever is less, for all overpayments whether or not the overpayment is due solely to agency error. In cases when there is both an overpayment and underpayment, the local agency shall offset one against the other in correcting the payment.

(c) Overpayments may also be voluntarily repaid, in part or in full, by the individual, in addition to the above aid reductions, until the total amount of the overpayment is repaid.

(d) The local agency shall make reasonable efforts to recover overpayments to persons no longer on assistance in accordance with standards adopted in rule by the commissioner of human services. The local agency need not attempt to recover overpayments of less than $35 paid to an individual no longer on assistance if the individual does not receive assistance again within three years, unless the individual has been convicted of fraud under section 256.98.

Sec. 127. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 256.73, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 9. [APPEAL OF OVERPAYMENT DETERMINATIONS.] The recipient may appeal the agency's determination that an overpayment has occurred in accordance with section 256.045.

Sec. 128. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 256.73, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 10. [UNDERPAYMENTS.] The local agency shall promptly repay the recipient for any underpayment. The local agency shall disregard that payment when determining the assistance unit's income and resources in the month when the payment is made and the following month.

Sec. 129. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 256.73, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 11. [COMPLIANCE WITH FEDERAL LAW AND REGULATION.] None of the provisions in this section shall be implemented to the extent that they violate federal law or regulation.

Sec. 130. Minnesota Statutes 1987 Supplement, section 256.736, subdivision 1b, is amended to read:

Subd. 1b. [WORK INCENTIVE SUBSIDIZED HOUSING PROGRAM.] Within the limit of available appropriations, employed recipients of aid to families with dependent children who meet eligibility requirements established by the commissioner of human services are eligible for a state housing subsidy as an incentive to seek and retain employment. The commissioner of human services shall adopt rules for the work incentive subsidized housing program using eligibility criteria, subsidy amounts, and an administrative system developed jointly by the commissioner of human services and the commissioner of jobs and training. Unless superseded by permanent rules, emergency rules adopted to implement this section remain in effect until July 1, 1989. The rules must:

- (1) target recipients who are or are likely to become long-term recipients or who experience substantial barriers to employment;
- (2) establish a fixed or sliding scale subsidy amount that will create a significant work incentive yet enable the program to serve the greatest possible number of recipients;
- (3) limit the subsidy to persons who become employed while receiving assistance; and
- (4) provide for continued subsidy payments for up to one year after termination of assistance to ease the transition from assistance to self-sufficiency.

The program must be coordinated with existing work and training programs and must be designed to maximize savings in the aid to families with dependent children program. The subsidy must be provided as in-kind assistance, and it is not available if it would be considered countable income under state and federal requirements.

Sec. 131. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 256.736, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 3b. [MANDATORY SCHOOL ATTENDANCE FOR MINOR PARENTS.] (a) [DEFINITIONS.] The definitions in this paragraph apply to this subdivision.

(1) "Minor parent" means a recipient of AFDC who is under age 18, and who is the natural or adoptive parent of a child living with the minor parent.

(2) "School" means:

(i) an educational program which leads to a high school diploma. The program or coursework may be, but is not limited to, a program under the post-secondary enrollment options of section 123.3514, a regular or alternative program of an elementary or secondary school, a technical institute, or a college;

(ii) coursework for a general educational development (GED) diploma of not less than six hours of classroom instruction per week;
or

(iii) any other post-secondary educational program that is approved by the public school or the local agency under subdivision 11.

(b) [SCHOOL ATTENDANCE REQUIRED.] Notwithstanding section 256.736, subdivision 3, a minor parent must attend school if all of the following apply:

(1) the minor parent has no child living with the parent who is younger than six weeks of age;

(2) transportation services needed to enable the minor parent to attend school are available;

(3) licensed or legal nonlicensed child care services needed to enable the minor parent to attend school are available;

(4) the minor parent has not already graduated from high school and has not received a general educational development (GED) diploma; and

(5) the minor parent does not have good cause for failing to attend school, as provided in paragraph (d).

(c) [ENROLLMENT AND ATTENDANCE.] The minor parent must be enrolled in school and meeting the school's attendance requirements. The minor parent is considered to be attending when the minor parent is enrolled but the school is not in regular session, including during holiday and summer breaks.

(d) [GOOD CAUSE FOR NOT ATTENDING SCHOOL.] The local agency shall determine whether good cause for not attending or not enrolling in school exists, according to this paragraph:

(1) Good cause exists when the minor parent is ill or injured seriously enough to prevent the minor parent from attending school.

(2) Good cause exists when the minor parent's child is ill or injured and the minor parent's presence in the home is required to care for the child.

(3) Good cause exists when the local agency has verified that the only available school program requires round trip commuting time from the minor parent's residence of more than two hours by available means of transportation, excluding the time necessary to transport children to and from child care.

(4) Good cause exists when there is an interruption in availability of child care services.

(5) Good cause exists when the minor parent has indicated a desire to attend school, but the public school system is not providing for the minor parent's education and alternative programs are not available.

(6) Good cause exists when the school does not cooperate with the local agency in providing verification of the minor parent's education or attendance.

(7) Good cause exists when the minor parent or the minor parent's child has a medical appointment or an appointment with the local welfare agency, is required to appear in court during the minor parent's normal school hours, or has any other obligation consistent with the case management contract.

(8) For the minor parent of a child between six and twelve weeks of age, good cause exists when child care is not available on the premises of the school, or a medical doctor certifies that it would be better for the health of either the parent or the child for the parent to remain at home with the child for a longer period of time.

(e) [FAILURE TO COMPLY.] If the school notifies the local agency that the minor parent is not enrolled or is not meeting the school's attendance requirements, and the local agency determines that the minor parent does not have good cause, the local agency shall apply the sanctions listed in subdivision 4 beginning with the first payment month after issuance of notice.

(f) [NOTICE AND HEARING.] A right to notice and fair hearing shall be provided in accordance with section 256.045 and the Code of Federal Regulations, title 45, section 205.10.

(g) [SOCIAL SERVICES.] When a minor parent has failed to attend school and does not have good cause, the local agency shall refer the minor parent to social services for services, as provided in section 257.33.

(h) [VERIFICATION.] No less often than quarterly, the local agency must verify that the minor parent is meeting the requirements of this subdivision. Notwithstanding section 13.32, subdivision 3, when the local agency notifies the school that a minor parent is subject to this subdivision, the school must furnish verification of school enrollment and attendance to the local agency.

Sec. 132. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 256.736, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 3c. [MINOR PARENTS NOT LIVING WITH RELATIVES.]

(a) This subdivision applies to a minor parent who is not living with a parent or other adult relative and who is not living in a group or foster home licensed by the commissioner.

(b) For purposes of this subdivision, the following terms have the meanings given them:

(1) "Minor parent" means an applicant for or recipient of AFDC who is under age 18, and who is the natural or adoptive parent of a child living with the minor parent.

(2) "Other adult relative" means a person who qualifies to be an eligible relative caretaker for AFDC, as specified in federal regulations.

(c) The agency shall determine, for each minor parent who applies for or receives AFDC, whether this section applies. For a minor parent to whom this section applies, the local agency shall refer the minor parent to its social services unit within 30 days of the date the application for assistance is approved for development of a social service plan as required in section 257.33. The agency shall notify the minor parent of the referral to social services and that cooperation in developing and participating in a social service plan is required in order for AFDC eligibility to continue.

(d) In addition to meeting the requirements of section 257.33, the social service plan may, based upon the social service unit's evaluation of the minor caretaker's needs and parenting abilities, and the health, safety, and parenting needs of the minor caretaker's child, require the minor caretaker to live in a group or foster home or participate in available programs which teach skills in parenting or independent living.

(e) If the minor parent fails to cooperate in developing or participating in the social service plan, the social services unit shall notify the income maintenance unit of the local agency, which shall then notify the minor parent of the determination and of the sanctions in subdivision 4 that will be applied.

Sec. 133. Minnesota Statutes 1987 Supplement, section 256.736, subdivision 4, is amended to read:

Subd. 4. [CONDITIONS OF CERTIFICATION.] The commissioner of human services shall:

(1) Arrange for or provide any caretaker or child required to participate in employment and training services pursuant to this section with child-care services, transportation, and other necessary family services;

(2) Pay 10 percent of the cost of the work incentive program and any other costs that are required of that agency by federal regulation for employment and training services for recipients of aid to families with dependent children;

(3) Provide that in determining a recipient's needs any monthly incentive training payment made to the recipient by the department of jobs and training is disregarded and the additional expenses attributable to participation in a program are taken into account in grant determination to the extent permitted by federal regulation; and

(4) Provide that ~~when it has been certified by the county board that a caretaker or child required to participate in an employment and training program has been found by the employment and training service provider to have refused without good cause to participate in appropriate employment and training services or to have refused without good cause to accept a bona fide offer of public or other employment, the county board shall provide that the county board shall impose the sanctions in clause (5) or (6) when the county board:~~

(a) is notified that a caretaker or child required to participate in employment and training services has been found by the employment and training service provider to have failed without good cause to participate in appropriate employment and training services or to have failed without good cause to accept a bona fide offer of public or other employment;

(b) determines that a minor parent who is required to attend school under subdivision 3b has, without good cause, failed to attend school;

(c) determines that subdivision 3c applies to a minor parent and the minor parent has, without good cause, failed to cooperate with development of a social service plan or to participate in execution of the plan, to live in a group or foster home, or to participate in a program that teaches skills in parenting and independent living; or

(d) determines that a caretaker has, without good cause, failed to attend orientation.

(5) To the extent permissible by federal law, the following sanctions must be imposed for a recipient's failure to participate in required employment and training services, education, orientation, or the requirements of subdivision 3c:

(a) For the first failure, 50 percent of the grant provided to the family for the month following the failure shall be made in the form of protective or vendor payments;

(b) For the second and subsequent failures, the entire grant provided to the family must be made in the form of protective or vendor payments. Assistance provided to the family must be in the form of protective or vendor payments until the recipient complies with the requirement; and

(c) When protective payments are required, the local agency may continue payments to the caretaker if a protective payee cannot reasonably be found.

(6) When the sanctions provided by clause (5) are not permissible under federal law, the following sanctions shall be imposed for a recipient's failure to participate in required employment and training services, education, orientation, or the requirements of subdivision 3c:

(a) If the caretaker ~~makes the refusal~~ fails to participate, the caretaker's needs shall not be taken into account in making the grant determination, and aid for any dependent child in the family will be made in the form of protective or vendor payments, except that when protective payments are made, the local agency may continue payments to the caretaker if a protective payee cannot reasonably be found. The standard of assistance for the remaining eligible members of the assistance unit is the standard that is used in other instances in which the caretaker is excluded from the assistance unit for noncompliance with a program requirement.

(b) Aid with respect to a dependent child will be denied if a child who ~~makes the refusal~~ fails to participate is the only child receiving aid in the family.

(c) If there is more than one child receiving aid in the family, aid for the child who ~~makes the refusal~~ fails to participate will be denied and the child's needs will not be taken into account in making the grant determination.

(d) If the assistance unit's eligibility is based on the nonexempt principal earner's unemployment and this principal earner fails or refuses without good cause to participate or to accept employment, the entire assistance unit is ineligible for benefits under sections 256.72 to 256.87.

Sec. 134. Minnesota Statutes 1987 Supplement, section 256.736, subdivision 11, is amended to read:

Subd. 11. [CASE MANAGEMENT SERVICES.] (a) For clients described in subdivision 2a, the case manager shall:

(1) Assess the education, skills, and ability of the caretaker to secure and retain a job which, when added to child support, will support the caretaker's family. The case manager must work with the caretaker in completing this task;

(2) Set goals and develop a timetable for completing education and employment goals. The case manager must work with the caretaker in completing this task. For caretakers who are not literate or who have not completed high school, the first goal for the caretaker must be to complete literacy training or a general education diploma. Caretakers who are literate and have completed high school shall be counseled to set realistic attainable goals, taking into account the long-term needs of both the caretaker and the caretaker's family;

(3) Coordinate services such as child care, transportation, and education assistance necessary to enable the caretaker to work toward the goals developed in clause (2). When a client needs child care services in order to attend a Minnesota public or nonprofit college, university or technical institute, the case manager shall contact the appropriate agency to reserve child care funds for the client. A caretaker who needs child care services in order to complete high school or a general education diploma is eligible for child care under section 268.91;

(4) Develop, execute, and monitor a contract between the local agency and the caretaker. The contract must include: (a) specific goals of the caretaker including stated measurements of progress toward each goal; (b) specific services provided by the county agency; and (c) conditions under which the county will withdraw the services provided;

The contract may include other terms as desired or needed by either party. In all cases, however, the case manager must ensure that the caretaker has set forth in the contract realistic goals consistent with the ultimate goal of self-sufficiency for the caretaker's family; and

(5) Develop and refer caretakers to counseling or peer group networks for emotional support while participating in work, education, or training.

(b) In addition to the duties in paragraph (a), for minor parents and pregnant minors, the case manager shall:

(1) Ensure that the contract developed under paragraph (a)(4) considers all factors set forth in section 257.33, subdivision 2; ~~and~~

(2) Assess the housing and support systems needed by the caretaker in order to provide the dependent children with adequate parenting. The case manager shall encourage minor parents and pregnant minors who are not living with friends or relatives to live in a group home or foster care setting. If minor parents and pregnant minors are unwilling to live in a group home or foster care setting or if no group home or foster care setting is available, the case manager shall assess the ~~minor parent's~~ their need for training in parenting and independent living skills and when appropriate shall refer appropriate minor parents them to available counseling programs designed to teach needed skills; and

Sec. 137. Minnesota Statutes 1987 Supplement, section 256.936, is amended to read:

256.936 [CHILDREN'S HEALTH PLAN.]

Subdivision 1. [DEFINITIONS.] For purposes of this section the following terms shall have the meanings given them:

(a) "Eligible persons" means ~~pregnant women and children under six years old who are one year of age or older but less than nine years of age who have gross family incomes that are equal to or less than 185 percent of the federal poverty guidelines and who are not eligible for medical assistance under chapter 256B or general assistance medical care under chapter 256D and who are not otherwise insured for the covered services. Eligibility for pregnant women shall continue for 60 days postpartum to allow for follow-up visits. The period of eligibility extends from the first day of the month in which the child's first birthday occurs to the last day of the month in which the child becomes nine years old.~~

(b) "Covered services" means ~~prenatal care services and children's health services.~~

(c) "Prenatal care services" means the outpatient services provided to pregnant women which are medically necessary for the pregnancy. Physician or certified nurse midwife services for delivery are included but inpatient hospital services are not included.

(d) "Children's health services" means the health services reimbursed under chapter 256B, with the exception of inpatient hospital services, private duty nursing services, orthodontic services, medical transportation services, personal care assistant and case management services, hospice care services, nursing home or intermediate care facilities services, and mental health and chemical dependency services.

(e) (d) "Eligible providers" means those health care providers who provide prenatal care services and children's health services to medical assistance clients under rules established by the commissioner for that program. Reimbursement under this section shall be at the same rates and conditions established for medical assistance. A provider of prenatal care services shall assess whether the pregnant woman is at risk of delivering a low birth weight baby or has a health condition which may increase the probability of a problem birth.

(f) (e) "Commissioner" means the commissioner of human services.

Subd. 2. [PLAN ADMINISTRATION.] The children's health plan is established to promote access to appropriate primary health care for pregnant women and to assure healthy babies and healthy children. The commissioner shall establish an office for the state administration of this plan. The plan shall be used to provide prenatal care and children's health services for eligible persons. Payment for these services shall be made to all eligible providers. The commissioner shall establish marketing efforts to encourage potentially eligible persons to receive information about the program and about other medical care programs administered or supervised by the department of human services. A toll-free telephone number must be used to provide information about the plan medical programs and to promote access to the covered services. The commissioner must make a quarterly assessment of the expected expenditures for the covered services and the appropriation. Based on this assessment the commissioner may limit enrollments and target former aid to families with dependent children recipients. If sufficient money is not available to cover all costs incurred in one quarter, the commissioner may seek an additional authorization for funding from the legislative advisory committee.

Subd. 3. [APPLICATION PROCEDURES.] Applications and other information must be made available ~~in~~ to provider offices, local human services agencies, school districts, public and private elementary schools in which 25 percent or more of the students receive free or reduced price lunches, community health offices, and Women, Infants and Children (WIC) program sites. These sites may accept applications, collect the enrollment fee, and forward the forms and fees to the commissioner. Otherwise, applicants may apply directly to the commissioner. The commissioner may use individuals' social security numbers as identifiers for purposes of administering the plan and conduct data matches to verify income. Applicants shall submit evidence of family income, earned and unearned, that will be used to verify income eligibility. Notwithstanding any other law to the contrary, benefits under this section are secondary to any a plan of insurance or benefit program under which an eligible person may have coverage. The commissioner shall identify eligible persons who may have coverage or benefits under other plans of insurance or who become eligible for medical assistance.

Subd. 4. [ENROLLMENT FEE.] An enrollment fee of $35 is required from eligible persons for prenatal care services and an annual enrollment fee of $25, not to exceed $150 per family, is required from eligible persons for children's health services. The fees may be paid together at the time of enrollment or as two payment installments. Enrollment fees must be deposited in the public health fund and are appropriated to the commissioner for the children's health plan program. The commissioner shall make an annual redetermination of continued eligibility and identify people who may become eligible for medical assistance.

Sec. 138. [256.9655] [PAYMENTS TO MEDICAL PROVIDERS.]

The commissioner shall establish procedures to analyze and correct problems associated with medical care claims preparation and processing under the medical assistance, general assistance medical care, and children's health plan programs. At a minimum, the commissioner shall:

(1) designate a full-time position as a liaison between the department of human services and providers;

(2) analyze impediments to timely processing of claims, provide information and consultation to providers, and develop methods to resolve or reduce problems;

(3) provide to each acute-care hospital a quarterly listing of claims received and identify claims that have been suspended and the reason the claims were suspended;

(4) provide education and information on reasons for rejecting and suspending claims and identify methods that would avoid multiple submissions of claims; and

(5) for each acute-care hospital, identify and prioritize claims that are in jeopardy of exceeding time factors that eliminate payment.

Sec. 139. Minnesota Statutes 1987 Supplement, section 256.969, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [RATES FOR INPATIENT HOSPITALS.] On July 1, 1984, the commissioner shall begin to utilize to the extent possible existing classification systems, including Medicare. The commissioner may incorporate the grouping of hospitals with similar characteristics for uniform rates upon the development and implementation of the diagnostic classification system. Prior to implementation of the diagnostic classification system, the commissioner shall report the proposed grouping of hospitals to the senate health and human services committee and the house health and welfare committee. The computation of the base year cost per admission and the computation of the relative values of the diagnostic categories must include identified outlier cases and their weighted costs up to the point that they become outlier cases, but must exclude costs and days beyond that point. Claims paid for care provided on or after August 1, 1985, shall be adjusted to reflect a recomputation of rates, unless disapproved by the federal Health Care Financing Administration. The state shall pay the state share of the adjustment for care provided on or after August 1, 1985, up to and including June 30, 1987, whether or not the adjustment is approved by the federal Health Care Financing Administration. The commissioner may reconstitute the diagnostic categories to reflect actual hospital practices, the specific character of specialty hospitals, or to reduce variances within the diagnostic categories after notice in the State Register and a 30-day comment period. After May 1, 1986, acute care hospital billings under the medical assistance and general assistance medical care programs must not be submitted until the recipient is discharged. However, the commissioner shall establish monthly interim payments with inpatient hospitals that have individual patient lengths of stay in excess of 30 days regardless of diagnosis-related group. For purposes of establishing interim rates, the commissioner is exempt from the requirements of chapter 14. Medical assistance and general assistance medical care reimbursement for treatment of mental illness shall be reimbursed based upon diagnosis classifications. The commissioner may selectively contract with hospitals for services within the diagnostic classifications relating to mental illness and chemical dependency under competitive bidding when reasonable geographic access by recipients can be assured. No physician shall be denied the privilege of treating a recipient required to utilize a hospital under contract with the commissioner, as long as the physician meets credentialing standards of the individual hospital. Effective July 1, 1988, the commissioner shall limit the annual increase in pass-through cost payments for depreciation, rents and leases, and interest expense to the annual growth in the consumer price index for all urban consumers (CPI-U) hospital cost index described in section 256.969, subdivision

1. When computing budgeted pass-through cost payments, the commissioner shall use the annual increase in the CPI-U hospital cost index forecasted by Data Resources, Inc. consistent with the quarter of the hospital's fiscal year end. In final settlement of pass-through cost payments, the commissioner shall use the CPI-U hospital cost index for the month in which the hospital's fiscal year ends compared to the same month one year earlier.

Sec. 140. Minnesota Statutes 1987 Supplement, section 256.969, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [SPECIAL CONSIDERATIONS.] (a) In determining the rate the commissioner of human services will take into consideration whether the following circumstances exist:

(1) minimal medical assistance and general assistance medical care utilization;

(2) unusual length of stay experience; and

(3) disproportionate numbers of low-income patients served.

(b) To the extent of available appropriations, the commissioner shall provide supplemental grants directly to a hospital described in section 256B.031, subdivision 10, paragraph (a), that receives medical assistance payments through a county-managed health plan that serves only residents of the county. The payments must be designed to compensate for actuarially demonstrated higher health care costs within the county, for the population served by the plan, that are not reflected in the plan's rates under section 256B.031, subdivision 4.

(c) For inpatient hospital originally paid admissions, excluding medicare cross-overs, provided from July 1, 1988, through June 30, 1989, hospitals with 100 or fewer medical assistance annualized paid admissions, excluding medicare cross-overs, that were paid by March 1, 1988, for admissions paid during the period January 1, 1987, to June 30, 1987, shall have medical assistance inpatient payments increased 30 percent. Hospitals with more than 100 but fewer than 250 medical assistance annualized paid admissions, excluding medicare cross-overs, that were paid by March 1, 1988, for admissions paid during the period January 1, 1987, to June 30, 1987, shall have medical assistance inpatient payments increased 20 percent for inpatient hospital originally paid admissions, excluding medicare cross-overs, provided from July 1, 1988, through June 30, 1989. This provision applies only to hospitals that have 100 or fewer licensed beds on March 1, 1988.

Sec. 141. Minnesota Statutes 1987 Supplement, section 256B.02, subdivision 8, is amended to read:

Subd. 8. [MEDICAL ASSISTANCE; MEDICAL CARE.] "Medical assistance" or "medical care" means payment of part or all of the cost of the following care and services identified in subdivisions 8a to 8y, for eligible individuals whose income and resources are insufficient to meet all of this cost:

(1) Subd. 8a. [INPATIENT HOSPITAL SERVICES.] Medical assistance covers inpatient hospital services. A second medical opinion is required prior to reimbursement for elective surgeries requiring a second opinion. The commissioner shall publish in the State Register a list of elective surgeries that require a second medical opinion prior to reimbursement, and the criteria and standards for deciding whether an elective surgery should require a second medical opinion. The list and the criteria and standards are not subject to the requirements of sections 14.01 to 14.69. The commissioner's decision whether a second medical opinion is required, made in accordance with rules governing that decision, is not subject to administrative appeal.

(2) Subd. 8b. [SKILLED AND INTERMEDIATE NURSING CARE.] Medical assistance covers skilled nursing home services and services of intermediate care facilities, including training and habilitation services, as defined in section 252.41, subdivision 3, for persons with mental retardation or related conditions who are residing in intermediate care facilities for persons with mental retardation or related conditions. Medical assistance must not be used to pay the costs of nursing care provided to a patient in a swing bed as defined in section 144.562, unless (a) the facility in which the swing bed is located is eligible as a sole community provider, as defined in Code of Federal Regulations, title 42, section 412.92, or the facility is a public hospital owned by a governmental entity with 15 or fewer licensed acute-care beds; (b) the health care financing administration approves the necessary state plan amendments; (c) the patient was screened as provided in section 256B.091; (d) the patient no longer requires acute-care services; and (e) no nursing home beds are available within 25 miles of the facility. The daily medical assistance payment for nursing care for the patient in the swing bed is the statewide average medical assistance skilled nursing care per diem as computed annually by the commissioner on July 1 of each year.

(3) Subd. 8c. [PHYSICIANS' SERVICES.] Medical assistance covers physicians' services;

(4) Subd. 8d. [OUTPATIENT AND CLINIC SERVICES.] Medical assistance covers outpatient hospital or nonprofit community health clinic services or physician-directed clinic services. The physician-directed clinic staff shall include at least two physicians, one of whom is on the premises whenever the clinic is open, and all services shall be provided under the direct supervision of the physician who is on the premises. Hospital outpatient departments are subject to the same limitations and reimbursements as other enrolled vendors for all services, except initial triage, emergency services, and services not provided or immediately available in clinics, physicians' offices, or by other enrolled providers. A second medical opinion is required before reimbursement for elective surgeries requiring a second opinion. The commissioner shall publish in the State Register a list of elective surgeries that require a second medical opinion before reimbursement and the criteria and standards for deciding whether an elective surgery should require a second surgical opinion. The list and the criteria and standards are not subject to the requirements of sections 14.01 to 14.69. The commissioner's decision whether a second medical opinion is required, made in accordance with rules governing that decision, is not subject to administrative appeal. "Emergency services" means those medical services required for the immediate diagnosis and treatment of medical conditions that, if not immediately diagnosed and treated, could lead to serious physical or mental disability or death or are necessary to alleviate severe pain. Neither the hospital, its employees, nor any physician or dentist, shall be liable in any action arising out of a determination not to render emergency services or care if reasonable care is exercised in determining the condition of the person, or in determining the appropriateness of the facilities, or the qualifications and availability of personnel to render these services consistent with this section.

(5) Subd. 8e. [COMMUNITY HEALTH CENTER SERVICES.] Medical assistance covers community mental health center services, as defined in rules adopted by the commissioner pursuant to section 256B.04, subdivision 2, and provided by a community mental health center as defined in section 245.62, subdivision 2.

(6) Subd. 8f. [HOME HEALTH CARE.] Medical assistance covers home health care services.

(7) Subd. 8g. [PRIVATE DUTY NURSING.] Medical assistance covers private duty nursing services.

Subd. 8m. [DRUGS.] (a) Medical assistance covers drugs if prescribed by a licensed practitioner. The commissioner shall designate a formulary committee ~~which shall~~ to advise the commissioner on the names of drugs for which payment ~~shall be~~ is made, recommend a system for reimbursing providers on a set fee or charge basis rather than the present system, and develop methods encouraging use of generic drugs when they are less expensive and equally effective as trademark drugs. The commissioner shall appoint the formulary committee members no later than 30 days following July 1, 1981. The formulary committee shall consist of nine members, four of whom shall be physicians who are not employed by the department of human services, and a majority of whose practice is for persons paying privately or through health insurance, three of whom shall be pharmacists who are not employed by the department of human services, and a majority of whose practice is for persons paying privately or through health insurance, a consumer representative, and a nursing home representative. Committee members shall serve two-year terms and shall serve without compensation. The commissioner may establish a drug formulary. Its establishment and publication shall not be subject to the requirements of the administrative procedure act, but the formulary committee shall review and comment on the formulary contents. Prior authorization may be required by the commissioner, with the consent of the drug formulary committee, before certain formulary drugs are eligible for payment. The formulary shall not include: drugs or products for which there is no federal funding; over-the-counter drugs, except for antacids, acetaminophen, family planning products, aspirin, insulin, prenatal vitamins, and vitamins for children under the age of seven; or any other over-the-counter drug identified by the commissioner, in consultation with the appropriate professional consultants under contract with or employed by the state agency, as necessary, appropriate and cost effective for the treatment of certain specified chronic diseases, conditions or disorders, and this determination shall not be subject to the requirements of chapter 14, the administrative procedure act; nutritional products, except for those products needed for treatment of phenylketonuria, hyperlysinemia, maple syrup urine disease, a combined allergy to human milk, cow milk, and soy formula, or any other childhood or adult diseases, conditions, or disorders identified by the commissioner as requiring a similarly necessary nutritional product; anorectics; and drugs for which medical value has not been established. Separate payment shall not be made for nutritional products for residents of long-term care facilities; payment for dietary requirements is a component of the per diem rate paid to these facilities. Payment to drug vendors shall not be modified before the formulary is established except that the commissioner shall not permit payment for any drugs which may not by law be included in the formulary, and the commissioner's determination shall not be subject to chapter 14, the administrative procedure act. The commissioner shall publish conditions for prohibiting payment for specific drugs after considering the formulary committee's recommendations.

(b) The basis for determining the amount of payment shall be the lower of the actual acquisition costs of the drugs plus a fixed dispensing fee established by the commissioner, the maximum allowable cost set by the federal government or by the commissioner plus the fixed dispensing fee or the usual and customary price charged to the public. Actual acquisition cost includes quantity and other special discounts except time and cash discounts. The actual acquisition cost of a drug may be estimated by the commissioner. The maximum allowable cost of a multisource drug may be set by the commissioner and it shall be comparable to, but no higher than, the maximum amount paid by other third party payors in this state who have maximum allowable cost programs. Establishment of the amount of payment for drugs shall not be subject to the requirements of the administrative procedure act. An additional dispensing fee of $.30 may be added to the dispensing fee paid to pharmacists for prescriptions dispensed to residents of long-term care facilities when a unit dose blister card system, approved by the department, is used. Under this type of dispensing system, the pharmacist must dispense a 30-day supply of drug. The National Drug Code (NDC) from the drug container used to fill the blister card must be identified on the claim to the department. The unit dose blister card containing the drug must meet the packaging standards set forth in Minnesota Rules, part 6800.2700, that govern the return of unused drugs to the pharmacy for reuse. The pharmacy provider will be required to credit the department for the actual acquisition cost of all unused drugs that are eligible for reuse. Whenever a generically equivalent product is available, payment shall be on the basis of the actual acquisition cost of the generic drug, unless the prescriber specifically indicates "dispense as written" on the prescription as required by section 151.21, subdivision 2. ~~Notwithstanding the above provisions,~~ Implementation of any change in the fixed dispensing fee ~~which~~ that has not been subject to the administrative procedure act shall be is limited to not more than 180 days, unless, during that time, the commissioner ~~shall have initiated~~ initiates rulemaking through the administrative procedure act;

(b) The pregnancy is the result of criminal sexual conduct as defined in section 609.342, clauses (c), (d), (e)(i), and (f), and the incident is reported within 48 hours after the incident occurs to a valid law enforcement agency for investigation, unless the victim is physically unable to report the criminal sexual conduct, in which case the report shall be made within 48 hours after the victim becomes physically able to report the criminal sexual conduct; or

The commissioner shall publish in the State Register a list of elective surgeries that require a second medical opinion before medical assistance reimbursement, and the criteria and standards for deciding whether an elective surgery should require a second medical opinion. Sec. 142. Minnesota Statutes 1987 Supplement, section 256B.031, subdivision 5, is amended to read:

Subd. 5. [FREE CHOICE LIMITED.] (a) The commissioner may require recipients of aid to families with dependent children, ~~except those recipients who are refugees and whose health services are reimbursed 100 percent by the federal government for the first 31 months after entry into the United States,~~ to enroll in a prepaid health plan and receive services from or through the prepaid health plan, with the following exceptions:

(1) recipients who are refugees and whose health services are reimbursed 100 percent by the federal government for the first 24 months after entry into the United States; and

(2) recipients who are placed in a foster home or facility. If placement occurs before the seventh day prior to the end of any month, the recipient will be disenrolled from the recipient's prepaid health plan effective the first day of the following month. If placement occurs after the seventh day before the end of any month, that recipient will be disenrolled from the prepaid health plan on the first day of the second month following placement. The prepaid health plan must provide all services set forth in subdivision 2 during the interim period.

Enrollment in a prepaid health plan is mandatory only when recipients have a choice of at least two prepaid health plans.

(b) Recipients who become eligible on or after December 1, 1987, must choose a health plan within 30 days of the date eligibility is determined. At the time of application, the local agency shall ask the recipient whether the recipient has a primary health care provider. If the recipient has not chosen a health plan within 30 days but has provided the local agency with the name of a primary health care provider, the local agency shall determine whether the provider participates in a prepaid health plan available to the recipient and, if so, the local agency shall select that plan on the recipient's behalf. If the recipient has not provided the name of a primary health care provider who participates in an available prepaid health plan, commissioner shall randomly assign the recipient to a health plan.

(c) Recipients who are eligible on November 30, 1987, must choose a prepaid health plan by January 15, 1988. If possible, the local agency shall ask whether the recipient has a primary health care provider and the procedures under paragraph (b) shall apply. If a recipient does not choose a prepaid health plan by this date, the commissioner shall randomly assign the recipient to a health plan.

(d) Each recipient must be enrolled in the health plan for a minimum of six months following the effective date of enrollment, except that the recipient may change health plans once within the first 60 days after initial enrollment. The commissioner shall request a waiver from the federal Health Care Financing Administration to extend the minimum period to 12 months to limit a recipient's ability to change health plans to once every six or 12 months. If such a waiver is obtained, each recipient must be enrolled in the health plan for a minimum of six or 12 months. A recipient may change health plans once within the first 60 days after initial enrollment.

(e) Women who are receiving medical assistance due to pregnancy and later become eligible for aid to families with dependent children are not required to choose a prepaid health plan until 60 days postpartum. An infant born as a result of that pregnancy must be enrolled in a prepaid health plan at the same time as the mother.

(f) If third-party coverage is available to a recipient through enrollment in a prepaid health plan through employment, through coverage by the former spouse, or if a duty of support has been imposed by law, order, decree, or judgment of a court under section 518.551, the obligee or recipient shall participate in the prepaid health plan in which the obligee has enrolled provided that the commissioner has contracted with the plan.

The monthly amount to be paid by each nursing home and boarding care home must be determined by dividing the county's estimate of the total annual cost of screenings allowed by the commissioner in the county for the following rate year by 12 to determine the monthly cost estimate and allocating the monthly cost estimate to each nursing home and boarding care home based on the number of licensed beds in the nursing home or boarding care home. The monthly cost estimate for each nursing home or boarding care home must be submitted to the nursing home or boarding care home and the state by the county no later than February 15 of each year for inclusion in the nursing home's or boarding care home's payment rate on the following rate year. The commissioner shall include the reported annual estimated cost of screenings for each nursing home or boarding care home as an operating cost of that nursing home in accordance with section 256B.431, subdivision 2b, clause (g). Notwithstanding section 256B.0641, overpayments attributable to payment of the screening costs under the medical assistance program may not be recovered from a facility. Any other interested person may be screened under this subdivision if the person pays a fee for the screening based upon a sliding fee scale determined by the commissioner.

The commissioner may seek amendments to the waivers or apply for additional waivers under United States Code, title 42, sections 1396 to 1396p, as amended through December 31, ~~1982~~ 1987, to contain costs. The commissioner shall ensure that payment for the cost of providing home and community-based alternative services under the federal waiver plan shall not exceed the cost of intermediate care services that would have been provided without the waived services.

Subd. 7. [SCREENING TEAMS ESTABLISHED.] Each county agency shall establish a screening team which, under the direction of the county case manager, shall make an evaluation of need for home and community-based services of persons who are entitled to the level of care provided by an intermediate care facility for persons with mental retardation or related conditions or for whom there is a reasonable indication that they might require the level of care provided by an intermediate care facility. The screening team shall make an evaluation of need within 15 working days of the request for service date that the assessment is completed or within 60 working days of a request for service by a person with mental retardation or related conditions, whichever is the earlier, and within five working days of an emergency admission of an individual to an intermediate care facility for persons with mental retardation or related conditions. The screening team shall consist of the case manager, the client, a parent or guardian, a qualified mental retardation professional, as defined in the Code of Federal Regulations, title 42, section 442.401, as amended through December 31, ~~1982~~ 1987. The case manager shall consult with the client's physician, other health professionals or other persons as necessary to make this evaluation. The case manager, with the concurrence of the client or the client's legal representative, may invite other persons to attend meetings of the screening team. No member of the screening team shall have any direct or indirect service provider interest in the case.

Above these limits, a contribution of one third of the excess resources shall be required. These rules shall not require repayment when payment would cause undue hardship to the responsible relative or that relative's immediate family. These rules shall be consistent with the requirements of section 252.27, subdivision 2, for parents of children whose eligibility for medical assistance was determined without deeming of the parents' resources and income. For parents of children receiving services under a federal medical assistance waiver or under section 134 of the Tax Equity and Fiscal Responsibility Act of 1982, United States Code, title 42, section 1396a(e)(3), while living in their natural home, including in-home family support services, respite care, homemaker services, and minor adaptations to the home, the state agency shall take into account the room, board, and services provided by the parents in determining the parental contribution to the cost of care. The county agency shall give the responsible relative notice of the amount of the repayment. If the state agency or county agency finds that notice of the payment obligation was given to the responsible relative, but that the relative failed or refused to pay, a cause of action exists against the responsible relative for that portion of medical assistance granted after notice was given to the responsible relative, which the relative was determined to be able to pay.

The action may be brought by the state agency or the county agency in the county where assistance was granted, for the assistance, together with the costs of disbursements incurred due to the action.

In addition to granting the county or state agency a money judgment, the court may, upon a motion or order to show cause, order continuing contributions by a responsible relative found able to repay the county or state agency. The order shall be effective only for the period of time during which the recipient receives medical assistance from the county or state agency.

Sec. 151. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 256B.17, subdivision 7, is amended to read:

(b) Either (1) the noninstitutionalized spouse has less than $10,000 in liquid assets, including assets singly owned and 50 percent of assets owned jointly with the institutionalized spouse; or (2) the noninstitutionalized spouse has less than 50 percent of the total value of nonexempt assets owned by both parties, jointly or individually;

(c) The amount transferred, together with the noninstitutionalized spouse's own assets, totals no more than one-half of the total value of the liquid assets of the parties or $10,000 in liquid assets, whichever is greater; and

Sec. 152. [256B.31] [CONTINUED HOSPITAL CARE FOR LONG-TERM POLIO PATIENT.]

A medical assistance recipient who has been a polio patient in an acute care hospital for a period of not less than 25 consecutive years is eligible to continue receiving hospital care, whether or not the care is medically necessary for purposes of federal reimbursement. The cost of continued hospital care not reimbursable by the federal government must be paid with state money allocated for the medical assistance program. The rate paid to the hospital is the rate per day established using Medicare principles for the hospital's fiscal year ending December 31, 1981, adjusted each year by the annual hospital cost index established under section 256.969, subdivision 1, or by other limits in effect at the time of the adjustment. This section does not prohibit a voluntary move to another living arrangement by a recipient whose care is reimbursed under this section.

Sec. 153. Minnesota Statutes 1987 Supplement, section 256B.35, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [PERSONAL NEEDS ALLOWANCE.] (a) Notwithstanding any law to the contrary, welfare allowances for clothing and personal needs for individuals receiving medical assistance while residing in any skilled nursing home, intermediate care facility, or medical institution including recipients of supplemental security income, in this state shall not be less than $40 $45 per month from all sources. When benefit amounts for social security or supplemental security income recipients are increased pursuant to United States Code, title 42, sections 415(i) and 1382f, the commissioner shall, effective in the month in which the increase takes effect, increase by the same percentage to the nearest whole dollar the clothing and personal needs allowance for individuals receiving medical assistance while residing in any skilled nursing home, medical institution, or intermediate care facility. The commissioner shall provide timely notice to local agencies, providers, and recipients of increases under this provision.

Provided that this (b) The personal needs allowance may be paid as part of the Minnesota supplemental aid program, notwithstanding the provisions of section 256D.37, subdivision 2, and payments to the recipients from of Minnesota supplemental aid funds may be made once each three months beginning in October 1977, covering liabilities that accrued during the preceding three months.

Sec. 154. Minnesota Statutes 1987 Supplement, section 256B.431, subdivision 2b, is amended to read:

Subd. 2b. [OPERATING COSTS, AFTER JULY 1, 1985.] (a) For rate years beginning on or after July 1, 1985, the commissioner shall establish procedures for determining per diem reimbursement for operating costs.

(b) The commissioner shall contract with an econometric firm with recognized expertise in and access to national economic change indices that can be applied to the appropriate cost categories when determining the operating cost payment rate.

(c) The commissioner shall analyze and evaluate each nursing home's cost report of allowable operating costs incurred by the nursing home during the reporting year immediately preceding the rate year for which the payment rate becomes effective.

(d) The commissioner shall establish limits on actual allowable historical operating cost per diems based on cost reports of allowable operating costs for the reporting year that begins October 1, 1983, taking into consideration relevant factors including resident needs, geographic location, size of the nursing home, and the costs that must be incurred for the care of residents in an efficiently and economically operated nursing home. In developing the geographic groups for purposes of reimbursement under this section, the commissioner shall ensure that nursing homes in any county contiguous to the Minneapolis-St. Paul seven-county metropolitan area are included in the same geographic group. The limits established by the commissioner shall not be less, in the aggregate, than the 60th percentile of total actual allowable historical operating cost per diems for each group of nursing homes established under subdivision 1 based on cost reports of allowable operating costs in the previous reporting year. For rate years beginning on or after July 1, 1987, or until the new base period is established, facilities located in geographic group I as described in Minnesota Rules, part 9549.0052 (Emergency), on January 1, 1987, may choose to have the commissioner apply either the care related limits or the other operating cost limits calculated for facilities located in geographic group II, or both, if either of the limits calculated for the group II facilities is higher.

The efficiency incentive for geographic group I nursing homes must be calculated based on geographic group I limits. The phase-in must be established utilizing the chosen limits. For purposes of these exceptions to the geographic grouping requirements, the definitions in Minnesota Rules, parts 9549.0050 to 9549.0059 (Emergency), and 9549.0010 to 9549.0080, apply. The limits established under this paragraph remain in effect until the commissioner establishes a new base period. Until the new base period is established, the commissioner shall adjust the limits annually using the appropriate economic change indices established in paragraph (e). In determining allowable historical operating cost per diems for purposes of setting limits and nursing home payment rates, the commissioner shall divide the allowable historical operating costs by the actual number of resident days, except that where a nursing home is occupied at less than 90 percent of licensed capacity days, the commissioner may establish procedures to adjust the computation of the per diem to an imputed occupancy level at or below 90 percent. The commissioner shall establish efficiency incentives as appropriate. The commissioner may establish efficiency incentives for different operating cost categories. The commissioner shall consider establishing efficiency incentives in care related cost categories. The commissioner may combine one or more operating cost categories and may use different methods for calculating payment rates for each operating cost category or combination of operating cost categories. For the rate year beginning on July 1, 1985, the commissioner shall:

(1) allow nursing homes that have an average length of stay of 180 days or less in their skilled nursing level of care, 125 percent of the care related limit and 105 percent of the other operating cost limit established by rule; and

(2) exempt nursing homes licensed on July 1, 1983, by the commissioner to provide residential services for the physically handicapped under Minnesota Rules, parts 9570.2000 to 9570.3600, from the care related limits and allow 105 percent of the other operating cost limit established by rule.

For the purpose of calculating the other operating cost efficiency incentive for nursing homes referred to in clause (1) or (2), the commissioner shall use the other operating cost limit established by rule before application of the 105 percent.

(e) The commissioner shall establish a composite index or indices by determining the appropriate economic change indicators to be applied to specific operating cost categories or combination of operating cost categories.

(f) Each nursing home shall receive an operating cost payment rate equal to the sum of the nursing home's operating cost payment rates for each operating cost category. The operating cost payment rate for an operating cost category shall be the lesser of the nursing home's historical operating cost in the category increased by the appropriate index established in paragraph (e) for the operating cost category plus an efficiency incentive established pursuant to paragraph (d) or the limit for the operating cost category increased by the same index. If a nursing home's actual historic operating costs are greater than the prospective payment rate for that rate year, there shall be no retroactive cost settle-up. In establishing payment rates for one or more operating cost categories, the commissioner may establish separate rates for different classes of residents based on their relative care needs.

(g) The commissioner shall include the reported actual real estate tax liability or payments in lieu of real estate tax of each nursing home as an operating cost of that nursing home. Except as provided in Minnesota Rules, parts 9549.0010 to 9549.0080, the commissioner shall allow an amount for payments in lieu of real estate tax assessed by a municipality, city, township, or county that does not exceed an amount equivalent to a similar assessment for fire, police, or sanitation services assessed to all other nonprofit or governmental entities located in the municipality, city, township, or county in which a nursing home to be assessed is located. For rate years beginning on or after July 1, 1987, the reported actual real estate tax liability or payments in lieu of real estate tax of nursing homes shall be adjusted to include an amount equal to one-half of the dollar change in real estate taxes from the prior year. The commissioner shall include a reported actual special assessment, and reported actual license fees required by the Minnesota department of health, for each nursing home as an operating cost of that nursing home. Total adjusted real estate tax liability, payments in lieu of real estate tax, actual special assessments paid, and license fees paid as required by the Minnesota department of health, for each nursing home (1) shall be divided by actual resident days in order to compute the operating cost payment rate for this operating cost category, (2) shall not be used to compute the 60th percentile or other operating cost limits established by the commissioner, and (3) shall not be increased by the composite index or indices established pursuant to paragraph (e).

(h) For rate years beginning on or after July 1, 1987, the commissioner shall adjust the rates of a nursing home that meets the criteria for the special dietary needs of its residents as specified in section 144A.071, subdivision 3, clause (c), and the requirements in section 31.651. The adjustment for raw food cost shall be the difference between the nursing home's allowable historical raw food cost per diem and 115 percent of the median historical allowable raw food cost per diem of the corresponding geographic group.

The rate adjustment shall be reduced by the applicable phase-in percentage as provided under subdivision 2h.

Sec. 155. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 256B.431, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 2i. [OPERATING COSTS AFTER JULY 1, 1988.] (a) [OTHER-OPERATING-COST LIMITS.] For the rate year beginning July 1, 1988, the commissioner shall increase the other-operating-cost limits established in Minnesota Rules, part 9549.0055, subpart 2, item E, to 110 percent of the median of the array of allowable historical other-operating-cost per diems and index these limits as in Minnesota Rules, part 9549.0056, subparts 3 and 4. The limits must be established in accordance with subdivision 2b, paragraph (d). For rate years beginning on or after July 1, 1989, the adjusted other-operating-cost limits must be indexed as in Minnesota Rules, part 9549.0056, subparts 3 and 4.

(b) [CARE-RELATED OPERATING COST LIMITS.] For the rate year beginning July 1, 1988, the commissioner shall increase the care-related operating cost limits established in Minnesota Rules, part 9549.0055, subpart 2, items A and B, to 125 percent of the median of the array of the allowable historical case mix operating cost standardized per diems and the allowable historical other-care-related operating cost per diems and index those limits as in Minnesota Rules, part 9549.0056, subparts 1 and 2. The limits must be established in accordance with subdivision 2b, paragraph (d). For rate years beginning on or after July 1, 1989, the adjusted care-related limits must be indexed as in Minnesota Rules, part 9549.0056, subparts 1 and 2.

(c) [SALARY ADJUSTMENT PER DIEM.] For the rate period October 1, 1988, through June 30, 1990, the commissioner shall add the appropriate salary adjustment per diem calculated in clause (1) or (2) to the total operating cost payment rate of each nursing home. The salary adjustment per diem for each nursing home must be determined as follows:

(1) for each nursing home that reports salaries for registered nurses, licensed practical nurses, and aides, orderlies and attendants separately, the commissioner shall determine the salary adjustment per diem by multiplying the total salaries, payroll taxes, and fringe benefits allowed in each operating cost category, except management fees and administrator and central office salaries and the related payroll taxes and fringe benefits, by 3.5 percent and then dividing the resulting amount by the nursing home's actual resident days; and

(2) for each nursing home that does not report salaries for registered nurses, licensed practical nurses, aides, orderlies, and attendants separately, the salary adjustment per diem is the weighted average salary adjustment per diem increase determined under clause (1).

Each nursing home that receives a salary adjustment per diem pursuant to this subdivision shall adjust nursing home employee salaries by a minimum of the amount determined in clause (1) or (2). The commissioner shall review allowable salary costs, including payroll taxes and fringe benefits, for the reporting year ending September 30, 1989, to determine whether or not each nursing home complied with this requirement. The commissioner shall report the extent to which each nursing home complied with the legislative commission on long-term care by August 1, 1990.

(d) [PENSION CONTRIBUTIONS.] For rate years beginning on or after July 1, 1989, the commissioner shall exempt allowable employee pension contributions separately reported by a nursing home on its annual cost report from the care-related operating cost limits and the other-operating-cost limits. Hospital-attached homes that provide allowable employee pension contributions may report the costs that are allocated to nursing home operations independently for verification by the commissioner. For rate years beginning on or after July 1, 1989, amounts verified as allowable employee pension contributions are exempt from care-related operating cost limits and other-operating-cost limits. For purposes of this paragraph, "employee pension contributions" means contributions required under the Public Employee Retirement Act and contributions to other employee pension plans if the pension plan existed on March 1, 1988.

(e) [NEW BASE YEAR.] The commissioner shall establish the reporting year ending September 30, 1989, as a new base year.

Sec. 156. Minnesota Statutes 1987 Supplement, section 256B.431, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [PROPERTY-RELATED COSTS, 1983-1985.] (a) For rate years beginning July 1, 1983 and July 1, 1984, property-related costs shall be reimbursed to each nursing home at the level recognized in the most recent cost report received by December 31, 1982 and audited by March 1, 1983, and may be subsequently adjusted to reflect the costs recognized in the final rate for that cost report, adjusted for rate limitations in effect before the effective date of this section. Effective for rate years beginning on or after July 1, 1988, a rate limitation ratio that is based on historical limitations resulting from the application of the regional maximum rate, private-pay rate, or ten percent cap on rate increases, must not be less than .90. Property-related costs include: depreciation, interest, earnings or investment allowance, lease, or rental payments. No adjustments shall be made as a result of sales or reorganizations of provider entities.

(b) Adjustments for the cost of repairs, replacements, renewals, betterments, or improvements to existing buildings, and building service equipment shall be allowed if:

- (1) the cost incurred is reasonable, necessary, and ordinary;
- (2) the net cost is greater than $5,000. "Net cost" means the actual cost, minus proceeds from insurance, salvage, or disposal;
- (3) the nursing home's property-related costs per diem is equal to or less than the average property-related costs per diem within its group; and
- (4) the adjustment is shown in depreciation schedules submitted to and approved by the commissioner.

(c) Annual per diem shall be computed by dividing total property-related costs by 96 percent of the nursing home's licensed capacity days for nursing homes with more than 60 beds and 94 percent of the nursing home's licensed capacity days for nursing homes with 60 or fewer beds. For a nursing home whose residents' average length of stay is 180 days or less, the commissioner may waive the 96 or 94 percent factor and divide the nursing home's property-related costs by the actual resident days to compute the nursing home's annual property-related per diem. The commissioner shall promulgate emergency and permanent rules to recapture excess depreciation upon sale of a nursing home.

Sec. 157. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 256B.431, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 3d. [BETTERMENTS AND ADDITIONS.] Notwithstanding any contrary provision of chapter 256B, or a rule adopted under chapter 256B, a nursing home that commenced construction on a betterment and addition costing $700,000 or more prior to the expiration of Minnesota Rules, 12 MCAR 2.05001 to 2.05016 (Temporary)(1983) shall have its property-related payment rate step-up as a result of the betterment and addition calculated as set forth in 12 MCAR 2.05011.B.3 in the case of betterments, and 12 MCAR 2.05011.D in the case of additions. For purposes of this subdivision, the terms "betterment" and "addition" have the meaning set forth in 12 MCAR 2.05002 and the term "commenced construction" has the meaning set forth in section 144A.071, subdivision 3.

Sec. 158. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 256B.431, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 3e. [HOSPITAL ATTACHED CONVALESCENT AND NURSING CARE FACILITIES.] If a community-operated hospital and attached convalescent and nursing care facility suspend operation of the hospital, the surviving nursing care facility must be allowed to continue its status as a hospital-attached convalescent and nursing care facility for reimbursement purposes in three subsequent rate years.

Sec. 159. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 256B.431, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 3f. [PROPERTY COSTS AFTER JULY 1, 1988.] (a) [INVESTMENT PER BED LIMIT.] For the rate year beginning July 1, 1988, the replacement-cost-new per bed limit must be $32,571 per licensed bed in multiple bedrooms and $48,857 per licensed bed in a single bedroom. Beginning January 1, 1989, the replacement-cost-new per bed limits must be adjusted annually as specified in Minnesota Rules, part 9549.0060, subpart 4, item A, subitem (1).

(b) [RENTAL FACTOR.] For the rate year beginning July 1, 1988, the commissioner shall increase the rental factor as established in Minnesota Rules, part 9549.0060, subpart 8, item A, by 6.2 percent rounded to the nearest 100th percent for the purpose of reimbursing nursing homes for soft costs and entrepreneurial profits not included in the cost valuation services used by the state's contracted appraisers. For rate years beginning on or after July 1, 1989, the rental factor is the amount determined under this paragraph for the rate year beginning July 1, 1988.

(c) [OCCUPANCY FACTOR.] For rate years beginning on or after July 1, 1988, in order to determine property-related payment rates under Minnesota Rules, part 9549.0060, for all nursing homes except those whose average length of stay in a skilled level of care within a nursing home is 180 days or less, the commissioner shall use 95 percent of capacity days. For a nursing home whose average length of stay in a skilled level of care within a nursing home is 180 days or less, the commissioner shall use the greater of resident days or 80 percent of capacity days but in no event shall the divisor exceed 95 percent of capacity days.

(d) [EQUIPMENT ALLOWANCE.] For rate years beginning on July 1, 1988, and July 1, 1989, the commissioner shall add ten cents per resident per day to each nursing home's property-related payment rate. The ten-cent property-related payment rate increase is not cumulative from rate year to rate year. For the rate year beginning July 1, 1990, the commissioner shall increase each nursing home's equipment allowance as established in Minnesota Rules, part 9549.0060, subpart 10, by ten cents per resident per day. For rate years beginning on or after July 1, 1991, the adjusted equipment allowance must be adjusted annually for inflation as in Minnesota Rules, part 9549.0060, subpart 10, item E.

(e) [REFINANCING.] If a nursing home is refinanced, the commissioner shall adjust the nursing home's property-related payment rate for the savings that result from refinancing. The adjustment to the property-related payment rate must be as follows:

(1) The commissioner shall recalculate the nursing home's rental per diem by substituting the new allowable annual principle and interest payments for those of the refinanced debt.

(2) The nursing home's property-related payment rate must be decreased by the difference between the nursing home's current rental per diem and the rental per diem determined under clause (1).

If a nursing home payment rate is adjusted according to this paragraph, the adjusted payment rate is effective the first of the month following the date of the refinancing for both medical assistance and private paying residents. The nursing home's adjusted property-related payment rate is effective until June 30, 1990.

Sec. 160. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 256B.431, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 3g. [PROPERTY COSTS AFTER JULY 1, 1990, FOR CERTAIN FACILITIES.] For rate years beginning on or after July 1, 1990, non-hospital-attached nursing homes that, on or after January 1, 1976, but prior to December 31, 1985, were newly licensed after new construction, or increased their licensed beds by a minimum of 35 percent through new construction, and whose building capital allowance is less than their allowable annual principal and interest on allowable debt prior to the application of the replacement-cost-new per bed limit and whose remaining weighted average debt amortization schedule as of January 1, 1988, exceeded 15 years, must receive a property-related payment rate equal to the greater of their rental per diem or their annual allowable principal and allowable interest without application of the replacement-cost-new per bed limit plus their equipment allowance. A nursing home that is eligible for a property-related payment rate under this subdivision and whose property-related payment rate in a subsequent rate year is its rental per diem must continue to have its property-related payment rates established for all future rate years based on the rental reimbursement method in Minnesota Rules, part 9549.0060. The commissioner may require the nursing home to apply for refinancing as a condition of receiving special rate treatment under this subdivision.

Sec. 161. Minnesota Statutes 1987 Supplement, section 256B.431, subdivision 4, is amended to read:

Subd. 4. [SPECIAL RATES.] (a) For the rate years beginning July 1, 1983, and July 1, 1984, a newly constructed nursing home or one with a capacity increase of 50 percent or more may, upon written application to the commissioner, receive an interim payment rate for reimbursement for property-related costs calculated pursuant to the statutes and rules in effect on May 1, 1983, and for operating costs negotiated by the commissioner based upon the 60th percentile established for the appropriate group under subdivision 2a, to be effective from the first day a medical assistance recipient resides in the home or for the added beds. For newly constructed nursing homes which are not included in the calculation of the 60th percentile for any group, subdivision 2f, the commissioner shall establish by rule procedures for determining interim operating cost payment rates and interim property-related cost payment rates. The interim payment rate shall not be in effect for more than 17 months. The commissioner shall establish, by emergency and permanent rules, procedures for determining the interim rate and for making a retroactive cost settle-up after the first year of operation; the cost settled operating cost per diem shall not exceed 110 percent of the 60th percentile established for the appropriate group. Until procedures determining operating cost payment rates according to mix of resident needs are established, the commissioner shall establish by rule procedures for determining payment rates for nursing homes which provide care under a lesser care level than the level for which the nursing home is certified.

(b) For the rate years beginning on or after July 1, 1985, a newly constructed nursing home or one with a capacity increase of 50 percent or more may, upon written application to the commissioner, receive an interim payment rate for reimbursement for property related costs, operating costs, and real estate taxes and special assessments calculated under rules promulgated by the commissioner.

(c) For rate years beginning on or after July 1, 1983, the commissioner may exclude from a provision of 12 MCARS 2.050 any facility that is licensed by the commissioner of health only as a boarding care home, certified by the commissioner of health as an intermediate care facility, is licensed by the commissioner of human services under Minnesota Rules, parts 9520.0500 to 9520.0690, and has less than five percent of its licensed boarding care capacity reimbursed by the medical assistance program. Until a permanent rule to establish the payment rates for facilities meeting these criteria is promulgated, the commissioner shall establish the medical assistance payment rate as follows:

(1) The desk audited payment rate in effect on June 30, 1983, remains in effect until the end of the facility's fiscal year. The commissioner shall not allow any amendments to the cost report on which this desk audited payment rate is based.

(2) For each fiscal year beginning between July 1, 1983, and June 30, 1985, the facility's payment rate shall be established by increasing the desk audited operating cost payment rate determined in clause (1) at an annual rate of five percent.

(3) For fiscal years beginning on or after July 1, 1985, but before January 1, 1988, the facility's payment rate shall be established by increasing the facility's payment rate in the facility's prior fiscal year by the increase indicated by the consumer price index for Minneapolis and St. Paul.

(4) For the fiscal year beginning on January 1, 1988, the facility's payment rate must be established using the following method: The commissioner shall divide the real estate taxes and special assessments payable as stated in the facility's current property tax statement by actual resident days to compute a real estate tax and special assessment per diem. Next, the prior year's payment rate must be adjusted by the higher of (1) the percentage change in the consumer price index (CPI-U U.S. city average) as published by the Bureau of Labor Statistics between the previous two Septembers, new series index (1967-100), or (2) 2.5 percent, to determine an adjusted payment rate. The facility's payment rate is the adjusted prior year's payment rate plus the real estate tax and special assessment per diem.

(5) For fiscal years beginning on or after January 1, 1989, the facility's payment rate must be established using the following method: The commissioner shall divide the real estate taxes and special assessments payable as stated in the facility's current property tax statement by actual resident days to compute a real estate tax and special assessment per diem. Next, the prior year's payment rate less the real estate tax and special assessment per diem must be adjusted by the higher of (1) the percentage change in the consumer price index (CPI-U U.S. city average) as published by the Bureau of Labor Statistics between the previous two Septembers, new series index (1967-100), or (2) 2.5 percent, to determine an adjusted payment rate. The facility's payment rate is the adjusted payment rate plus the real estate tax and special assessment per diem.

(6) For the purpose of establishing payment rates under this paragraph, the facility's rate and reporting years coincide with the facility's fiscal year.

A facility that meets the criteria of this paragraph shall submit annual cost reports on forms prescribed by the commissioner.

For the rate year beginning July 1, 1985, each nursing home total payment rate must be effective two calendar months from the first day of the month after the commissioner issues the rate notice to the nursing home. From July 1, 1985, until the total payment rate becomes effective, the commissioner shall make payments to each nursing home at a temporary rate that is the prior rate year's operating cost payment rate increased by 2.6 percent plus the prior rate year's property-related payment rate and the prior rate year's real estate taxes and special assessments payment rate. The commissioner shall retroactively adjust the property-related payment rate and the real estate taxes and special assessments payment rate to July 1, 1985, but must not retroactively adjust the operating cost payment rate.

(d) For the purposes of Minnesota Rules, part 9549.0060, subpart 13, item F, the following types of transactions shall not be considered a sale or reorganization of a provider entity:

- (1) the sale or transfer of a nursing home upon death of an owner;
- (2) the sale or transfer of a nursing home due to serious illness or disability of an owner as defined under the social security act;
- (3) the sale or transfer of the nursing home upon retirement of an owner at 62 years of age or older;
- (4) any transaction in which a partner, owner, or shareholder acquires an interest or share of another partner, owner, or shareholder in a nursing home business provided the acquiring partner, owner, or shareholder has less than 50 percent ownership after the acquisition;
- (5) a sale and leaseback to the same licensee which does not constitute a change in facility license;
- (6) a transfer of an interest to a trust;
- (7) gifts or other transfers for no consideration;
- (8) a merger of two or more related organizations;
- (9) a transfer of interest in a facility held in receivership;
- (10) a change in the legal form of doing business other than a publicly held organization which becomes privately held or vice versa;
- (11) the addition of a new partner, owner, or shareholder who owns less than 20 percent of the nursing home or the issuance of stock; or
- (12) an involuntary transfer including foreclosure, bankruptcy, or assignment for the benefit of creditors.

Any increase in allowable debt or allowable interest expense or other cost incurred as a result of the foregoing transactions shall be a nonallowable cost for purposes of reimbursement under Minnesota Rules, parts 9549.0010 to 9549.0080.

(e) For rate years beginning on or after July 1, 1986, the commissioner may exclude from a provision of Minnesota Rules, parts 9549.0010 to 9549.0080, any facility that is certified by the commissioner of health as an intermediate care facility, licensed by the commissioner of human services as a chemical dependency treatment program, and enrolled in the medical assistance program as an institution for mental disease. The commissioner of human services shall establish a medical assistance payment rate for these facilities. Chapter 14 does not apply to the procedures and criteria used to establish the ratesetting structure. The ratesetting method is not appealable.

Sec. 162. Minnesota Statutes 1987 Supplement, section 256B.433, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [SETTING PAYMENT; MONITORING USE OF THERAPY SERVICES.] The commissioner shall promulgate rules pursuant to the administrative procedure act to set the amount and method of payment for ancillary materials and services provided to recipients residing in nursing homes. Payment for materials and services may be made to either the nursing home in the operating cost per diem, to the vendor of ancillary services pursuant to Minnesota Rules, parts 9500.0750 to 9500.1080 or to a nursing home pursuant to Minnesota Rules, parts 9500.0750 to 9500.1080. Payment for the same or similar service to a recipient shall not be made to both the nursing home and the vendor. The commissioner shall ensure the avoidance of double payments through audits and adjustments to the nursing home's annual cost report as required by section 256B.47, and that charges and arrangements for ancillary materials and services are cost effective and as would be incurred by a prudent and cost-conscious buyer. Therapy services provided to a recipient must be medically necessary and appropriate to the medical condition of the recipient. If the vendor, nursing home, or ordering physician cannot provide adequate medical necessity justification, as determined by the commissioner, in consultation with an advisory committee that meets the requirements of section 256B.064, subdivision 1a, the commissioner may recover or disallow the payment for the services and may require prior authorization for therapy services as a condition of payment or may impose administrative sanctions to limit the vendor, nursing home, or ordering physician's participation in the medical assistance program. If the provider number of a nursing home is used to bill services provided by a vendor of therapy services that is not related to the nursing home by ownership, control, affiliation or employment status, no withholding of payment shall be imposed against the nursing home for services not medically necessary except for funds due the unrelated vendor of therapy services as provided in subdivision 3, paragraph (c). For the purpose of this subdivision, no monetary recovery may be imposed against the nursing home for funds paid to the unrelated vendor of therapy services as provided in subdivision 3, paragraph (c), for services not medically necessary.

Sec. 163. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 256B.50, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [SCOPE.] A nursing home provider may appeal from a decision arising from the application of standards or methods determination of a payment rate established pursuant to sections 256B.41 and 256B.47 this chapter and reimbursement rules of the commissioner if the appeal, if successful, would result in a change to the nursing home's provider's payment rate, or appraised value. The appeal procedures also apply to appeals of payment rates calculated under Minnesota Rules, parts 9510.0010 to 9510.0480 filed with the commissioner on or after May 1, 1984. Appeals must be filed in accordance with procedures in this section. This section does not apply to a request from a resident or nursing home for reconsideration of the classification of a resident under section 144.0722.

Subd. 1a. [DEFINITIONS.] For the purposes of this section, the following terms have the meanings given.

(a) "Determination of a payment rate" means the process by which the commissioner establishes the payment rate paid to a provider pursuant to this chapter, including determinations made in desk audit, field audit, or pursuant to an amendment filed by the provider.

(b) "Provider" means a nursing home as defined in section 256B.421, subdivision 7, or a facility as defined in section 256B.501, subdivision 1.

(c) "Reimbursement rules" means Minnesota Rules, parts 9510.0010 to 9510.0480, 9510.0500 to 9510.0890, and rules adopted by the commissioner pursuant to sections 256B.41 and 256B.501, subdivision 3.

Subd. 1b. [FILING AN APPEAL.] To appeal, the nursing home provider shall notify file with the commissioner in writing of its intent to appeal within 30 days and submit a written notice of appeal; the appeal request must be received by the commissioner within 60 days of receiving notice of the date the payment rate determination or decision of the payment rate was mailed. The notice of appeal request shall must specify each disputed item; the reason for the dispute; an estimate of; the total dollar amount involved for each disputed item; and the dollar amount per bed in dispute for each separate disallowance, allocation, or adjustment of each cost item or part of a cost item; the computation that the nursing home provider believes is correct; the authority in statute or rule upon which the nursing home provider relies for each disputed item; the name and address of the person or firm with whom contacts may be made regarding the appeal; and other information required by the commissioner.

Subd. 1c. [CONTESTED CASE PROCEDURES.] Except as provided in subdivision 2, the appeal shall must be heard by an administrative law judge according to sections 14.48 to 14.56, or upon agreement by both parties according to a modified appeals procedure established by the commissioner and the administrative law judge. In any proceeding under this section, the appealing party must demonstrate by a preponderance of the evidence that the commissioner's determination is incorrect. Regardless of any rate appeal, the rate established shall must be the rate paid and shall must remain in effect until final resolution of the appeal or subsequent desk or field audit adjustment, notwithstanding any provision of law or rule to the contrary. To challenge the validity of rules established by the commissioner pursuant to this section and sections 256B.41, 256B.421, 256B.431, 256B.47, 256B.48, 256B.501, and 256B.502, a nursing home provider shall comply with section 14.44.

Sec. 164. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 256B.50, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 1d. [EXPEDITED APPEAL REVIEW PROCESS.] (a) Within 120 days of the date an appeal is due according to subdivision 1b, the department shall review an appealed adjustment equal to or less than $100 annually per licensed bed of the provider, make a determination concerning the adjustment, and notify the provider of the determination. Except as allowed in paragraph (g), this review does not apply to an appeal of an adjustment made to, or proposed on, an amount already paid to the provider. In this subdivision, an adjustment is each separate disallowance, allocation, or adjustment of a cost item or part of a cost item as submitted by a provider according to forms required by the commissioner.

(b) For an item on which the provider disagrees with the results of the determination of the department made under paragraph (a), the provider may, within 60 days of the date of the review notice, file with the office of administrative hearings and the department its written argument and documents, information, or affidavits in support of its appeal. If the provider fails to make a submission in accordance with this paragraph, the department's determinations on the disputed items must be upheld.

(c) Within 60 days of the date the department received the provider's submission under paragraph (b), the department may file with the office of administrative hearings and serve upon the provider its written argument and documents, information, and affidavits in support of its determination. If the department fails to make a submission in accordance with this paragraph, the administrative law judge shall proceed pursuant to paragraph (d) based on the provider's submission.

(d) Upon receipt by the office of administrative hearings of the department's submission made under paragraph (c) or upon the expiration of the 60-day filing period, whichever is earlier, the chief administrative law judge shall assign the matter to an administrative law judge. The administrative law judge shall consider the submissions of the parties and all relevant rules, statutes, and case law. The administrative law judge may request additional argument from the parties if it is deemed necessary to reach a final decision, but shall not allow witnesses to be presented or discovery to be made in the proceeding. Within 60 days of receipt by the office of administrative hearings of the department's submission or the expiration of the 60-day filing period in paragraph (c), whichever is earlier, the administrative law judge shall make a final decision on the items in issue, and shall notify the provider and the department by first-class mail of the decision on each item. The decision of the administrative law judge is the final administrative decision, is not appealable, and does not create legal precedent, except that the department may make an adjustment contrary to the decision of the administrative law judge based upon a subsequent cost report amendment or field audit that reveals information relating to the adjustment that was not known to the department at the time of the final decision.

(e) For a disputed item otherwise subject to the review set forth in this subdivision, the department and the provider may mutually agree to bypass the expedited review process and proceed to a contested case hearing at any time prior to the time for the department's submission under paragraph (c).

(f) When the department determines that the appeals of two or more providers otherwise subject to the review set forth in this subdivision present the same or substantially the same adjustment, the department may remove the disputed items from the review in this subdivision, and the disputed items shall proceed in accordance with subdivision 1c. The department's decision to remove the appealed adjustments to contested case proceeding is final and is not reviewable.

(g) For a disputed item otherwise subject to the review in this subdivision, the department or a provider may petition the chief administrative law judge to issue an order allowing the petitioning party to bypass the expedited review process. If the petition is granted, the disputed item must proceed in accordance with subdivision 1c. In making the determination, the chief administrative law judge shall consider the potential impact and precedential and monetary value of the disputed item. A petition for removal to contested case hearing must be filed with the chief administrative law judge and the opposing party on or before the date on which its submission is due under paragraph (b) or (c). Within 20 days of receipt of the petition, the opposing party may submit its argument opposing the petition. Within 20 days of receipt of the argument opposing the petition, or if no argument is received, within 20 days of the date on which the argument was due, the chief administrative law judge shall issue a decision granting or denying the petition. If the petition is denied, the petitioning party has 60 days from the date of the denial to make a submission under paragraph (b) or (c).

(h) The department and a provider may mutually agree to use the procedures set forth in this subdivision for any disputed item not otherwise subject to this subdivision.

(i) Nothing shall prevent either party from making its submissions and arguments under this subdivision through a person who is not an attorney.

(j) This subdivision applies to all appeals for rate years beginning after June 30, 1988.

Sec. 165. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 256B.50, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 1e. [ATTORNEY'S FEES AND COSTS.] (a) Notwithstanding section 3.762, paragraph (a), for an issue appealed under subdivision 1, the prevailing party in a contested case proceeding or, if appealed, in subsequent judicial review, must be awarded reasonable attorney's fees and costs incurred in litigating the appeal, if the prevailing party shows that the position of the opposing party was not substantially justified. The procedures for awarding fees and costs set forth in section 3.764 must be followed in determining the prevailing party's fees and costs except as otherwise provided in this subdivision. For purposes of this subdivision, "costs" means subpoena fees and mileage, transcript costs, court reporter fees, witness fees, postage and delivery costs, photocopying and printing costs, amounts charged the commissioner by the office of administrative hearings, and direct administrative costs of the department; and "substantially justified" means that a position had a reasonable basis in law and fact, based on the totality of the circumstances prior to and during the contested case proceeding and subsequent review.

(b) When an award is made to the department under this subdivision, attorney fees must be calculated at the cost to the department. When an award is made to a provider under this subdivision, attorney fees must be calculated at the rate charged to the provider except that attorney fees awarded must be the lesser of the attorney's normal hourly fee or $100 per hour.

(c) In contested case proceedings involving more than one issue, the administrative law judge shall determine what portion of each party's attorney fees and costs is related to the issue or issues on which it prevailed and for which it is entitled to an award. In making that determination, the administrative law judge shall consider the amount of time spent on each issue, the precedential value of the issue, the complexity of the issue, and other factors deemed appropriate by the administrative law judge.

(d) When the department prevails on an issue involving more than one provider, the administrative law judge shall allocate the total amount of any award for attorney fees and costs among the providers. In determining the allocation, the administrative law judge shall consider each provider's monetary interest in the issue and other factors deemed appropriate by the administrative law judge.

(e) Attorney fees and costs awarded to the department for proceedings under this subdivision must not be reported or treated as allowable costs on the provider's cost report.

(f) Fees and costs awarded to a provider for proceedings under this subdivision must be reimbursed to them by reporting the amount of fees and costs awarded as allowable costs on the provider's cost report for the reporting year in which they were awarded. Fees and costs reported pursuant to this subdivision must be included in the general and administrative cost category but are not subject to either the general and administrative or other-operating-cost limits.

(g) If the provider fails to pay the awarded attorney fees and costs within 120 days of the final decision on the award of attorney fees and costs, the department may collect the amount due through any method available to it for the collection of medical assistance overpayments to providers. Interest charges must be assessed on balances outstanding after 120 days of the final decision on the award of attorney fees and costs. The annual interest rate charged must be the rate charged by the commissioner of revenue for late payment of taxes that is in effect on the 121st day after the final decision on the award of attorney fees and costs.

(h) Amounts collected by the commissioner pursuant to this subdivision must be deemed to be recoveries pursuant to section 256.01, subdivision 2, clause 15.

(i) This subdivision applies to all contested case proceedings set on for hearing by the commissioner on or after the effective date of this section, regardless of the date the appeal was filed.

Sec. 166. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 256B.50, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 1f. [LEGAL AND RELATED EXPENSES.] Legal and related expenses for unresolved challenges to decisions by governmental agencies shall be separately identified and explained on the provider's cost report for each year in which the expenses are incurred. When the challenge is resolved in favor of the government-tal agency, the provider shall notify the department of the extent to which its challenge was unsuccessful or the cost report filed for the reporting year in which the challenge was resolved. In addition, the provider shall inform the department of the years in which it claimed legal and related expenses and the amount of the expenses claimed in each year relating to the unsuccessful challenge. The department shall reduce the provider's medical assistance rate in the subsequent rate year by the total amount claimed by the provider for legal and related expenses incurred in an unsuccessful challenge to a decision by a governmental agency.

Sec. 167. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 256B.50, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 1g. [APPEAL SUPPLEMENT.] (a) For an appeal filed with the commissioner regarding payment rates calculated pursuant to Minnesota Rules, parts 9510.0010 to 9510.0480, or parts 9510.0500 to 9510.0890, or prior provisions of these rules, that was not subject to the provisions of this section or section 256B.501, subdivision 3, at the time it was filed, the appellant must file an appeal supplement. The appeal supplement must be filed no later than December 31, 1988, and must specify each disputed item, the reason for the dispute, an estimate of the dollar amount involved for each disputed item, the computation that the provider believes is correct, the authority in statute or rule upon which the provider relies for each disputed item, the name and address of the person or firm with whom contacts may be made regarding the appeal, and any other information required by the commissioner. Failure to file the appeal supplement is jurisdictional and the commissioner may accordingly dismiss the appeal, and the rate established by the commissioner shall take effect.

(b) Filing of an appeal supplement must not be construed to correct any legal defect in the original appeal.

(c) An appeal for which an appeal supplement is filed pursuant to this subdivision must be set on for a contested case hearing, made part of the expedited appeal process with the agreement of both the provider and the department, or otherwise resolved by December 31, 1989.

Sec. 168. Minnesota Statutes 1987 Supplement, section 256B.50, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [APPRAISED VALUE.] (a) ~~A~~ A nursing home may appeal the determination of its appraised value, as determined by the commissioner pursuant to section 256B.431 and rules established thereunder. A written notice of appeal request concerning the appraised value of a nursing home's real estate as established by an appraisal conducted after July 1, 1986, shall must be filed with the commissioner within 60 days of the date the determination was made and shall state the appraised value the nursing home believes is correct for the building, land improvements, and attached equipment and the name and address of the firm with whom contacts may be made regarding the appeal. The appeal request shall include a separate appraisal report prepared by an independent appraiser of real estate which supports the total appraised value claimed by the nursing home. The appraisal report shall be based on an on-site inspection of the nursing home's real estate using the depreciated replacement cost method, must be in a form comparable to that used in the commissioner's appraisal, and must pertain to the same time period covered by the appealed appraisal. The appraisal report shall include information related to the training, experience, and qualifications of the appraiser who conducted and prepared the appraisal report for the nursing home.

(b) A nursing home which has filed an appeal request prior to the effective date of Laws 1987, chapter 403, concerning the appraised value of its real estate as established by an appraisal conducted before July 1, 1986, must submit to the commissioner the information described under paragraph (a) within 60 days of the effective date of Laws 1987, chapter 403, in order to preserve the appeal.

(c) An appeal request which has been filed pursuant to the provisions of paragraph (a) or (b) shall be finally resolved through an agreement entered into by and between the commissioner and the nursing home or by the determination of an independent appraiser based upon an on-site inspection of the nursing home's real estate using the depreciated replacement cost method, in a form comparable to that used in the commissioner's appraisal, and pertaining to the same time period covered by the appealed appraisal. The appraiser shall be selected by the commissioner and the nursing home by alternately striking names from a list of appraisers approved for state contracts by the commissioner of administration. The appraiser shall make assurances to the satisfaction of the commissioner and the nursing home that the appraiser is experienced in the use of the depreciated cost method of appraisals and that the appraiser is free of any personal, political, or economic conflict of interest that may impair the ability to function in a fair and objective manner. The commissioner shall pay costs of the appraiser through a negotiated rate for services of the appraiser.

(d) The decision of the appraiser is final and is not appealable. Exclusive jurisdiction for appeals of the appraised value of nursing homes lies with the procedures set out in this subdivision. No court of law shall possess subject matter jurisdiction to hear appeals of appraised value determinations of nursing homes.

Sec. 169. Minnesota Statutes 1987 Supplement, section 256B.501, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [DEFINITIONS.] For the purposes of this section, the following terms have the meaning given them.

(a) "Commissioner" means the commissioner of human services.

(b) "Facility" means a facility licensed as a mental retardation residential facility under section 252.28, licensed as a supervised living facility under chapter 144, and certified as an intermediate care facility for persons with mental retardation or related conditions.

(c) "Waivered service" means home or community-based service authorized under United States Code, title 42, section 1396n(c), as amended through December 31, 1982 1987, and defined in the Minnesota state plan for the provision of medical assistance services. Sec. 170. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 256B.501, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [RATES FOR INTERMEDIATE CARE FACILITIES FOR PERSONS WITH MENTAL RETARDATION OR RELATED CONDITIONS.] The commissioner shall establish, by rule, procedures for determining rates for care of residents of intermediate care facilities for persons with mental retardation or related conditions. The procedures shall be based on methods and standards that the commissioner finds are adequate to provide for the costs that must be incurred for the care of residents in efficiently and economically operated facilities. In developing the procedures, the commissioner shall include:

(a) cost containment measures that assure efficient and prudent management of capital assets and operating cost increases which do not exceed increases in other sections of the economy;

(b) limits on the amounts of reimbursement for property, general and administration, and new facilities;

(c) requirements to ensure that the accounting practices of the facilities conform to generally accepted accounting principles;

(d) incentives to reward accumulation of equity; and

(e) a revaluation on sale for a facility that, for at least three years before its use as an intermediate care facility, has been used by the seller as a single family home and been claimed by the seller as a homestead, and was not revalued immediately prior to or upon entering the medical assistance program, provided that the facility revaluation not exceed the amount permitted by the Social Security Act, section 1902(a)(13); and

(f) appeals procedures that satisfy the requirements of section 256B.50 for appeals of decisions arising from the application of standards or methods pursuant to Minnesota Rules, parts 9510.0500 to 9510.0890, 9553.0010 to 9553.0080, and 12 MCAR 2.05301 to 2.05315 (temporary).

In establishing rules and procedures for setting rates for care of residents in intermediate care facilities for persons with mental retardation or related conditions, the commissioner shall consider the recommendations contained in the February 11, 1983, Report of the Legislative Auditor on Community Residential Programs for the Mentally Retarded and the recommendations contained in the 1982 Report of the Department of Public Welfare Rule 52 Task Force. Rates paid to supervised living facilities for rate years beginning during the fiscal biennium ending June 30, 1985, shall not exceed the final rate allowed the facility for the previous rate year by more than five percent.

Sec. 171. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 256B.501, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 3a. [INTERIM RATES.] For rate years beginning October 1, 1988, and October 1, 1989, the commissioner shall establish an interim program operating cost payment rate for care of residents in intermediate care facilities for persons with mental retardation.

(a) For the rate year beginning October 1, 1988, the interim program operating cost payment rate is the greater of the facility's 1987 reporting year allowable program operating costs per resident day increased by the composite forecasted index in section 256B.501, subdivision 3c, or the facility's January 1, 1988, program operating cost payment rate increased by the composite forecasted index in section 256B.501, subdivision 3c, except that the composite forecasted index is established based on the midpoint of the period January 1, 1988, through September 30, 1988, to the midpoint of the following rate year.

(b) For the rate year beginning October 1, 1989, the interim program operating cost payment rate is the greater of the facility's 1988 reporting year allowable program operating costs per resident day increased by the composite forecasted index in section 256B.501, subdivision 3c, or the facility's October 1, 1988, program operating cost payment rate increased by the composite forecasted index in section 256B.501, subdivision 3c, except that the composite forecasted index is established based on the midpoint of the rate year beginning October 1, 1988, to the midpoint of the following rate year.

Sec. 172. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 256B.501, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 3b. [SETTLE-UP OF COSTS.] The facility's program operating costs are subject to a retroactive settle-up for the 1988 and 1989 reporting years, determined by the following method:

(a) If a facility's program operating costs, including one-time adjustment program operating costs for the facility's 1988 or 1989 reporting year, are less than 98 percent of the facility's total program operating cost payments for facilities with 20 or fewer licensed beds, or less than 99 percent of the facility's total program operating cost payments for facilities with more than 20 licensed beds, then the facility must repay the difference to the state according to the desk audit adjustment procedures in Minnesota Rules, part 9553.0041, subpart 13, items B to E. For the purpose of determining the retroactive settle-up amounts, the facility's total program operating cost payments must be computed by multiplying the facility's program operating cost payment rates, including one-time program operating cost adjustment rates for those reporting years, by the prorated resident days that correspond to those program operating cost payment rates paid during those reporting years.

(b) If a facility's program operating costs, including one-time adjustment program operating costs for the facility's 1989 reporting year are between 102 and 105 percent of the amount computed by multiplying the facility's program operating cost payment rates, including one-time program operating cost adjustment rates for those reporting years, by the prorated resident days that correspond to those program operating cost payment rates paid during that reporting year, the state must repay the difference to the facility according to the desk audit adjustment procedures in Minnesota Rules, part 9553.0041, subpart 13, items B to E.

A facility's retroactive settle-up must be calculated by October 1, 1990.

Sec. 173. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 256B.501, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 3c. [COMPOSITE FORECASTED INDEX.] For rate years beginning on or after October 1, 1988, the commissioner shall establish a statewide composite forecasted index to take into account economic trends and conditions between the midpoint of the facility's reporting year and the midpoint of the rate year following the reporting year. The statewide composite index must incorporate the forecast by Data Resources, Inc. of increases in the average hourly earnings of nursing and personal care workers indexed in Standard Industrial Code 805 in "Employment and Earnings," published by the Bureau of Labor Statistics, United States Department of Labor. This portion of the index must be weighted annually by the proportion of total allowable salaries and wages to the total allowable operating costs in the program, maintenance, and administrative operating cost categories for all facilities.

For adjustments to the other operating costs in the program, maintenance, and administrative operating cost categories, the statewide index must incorporate the Data Resources, Inc. forecast for increases in the national CPI-U. This portion of the index must be weighted annually by the proportion of total allowable other operating costs to the total allowable operating costs in the program, maintenance, and administrative operating cost categories for all facilities. The commissioner shall use the indices as forecasted by Data Resources, Inc., in the fourth quarter of the reporting year.

Sec. 174. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 256B.501, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 3d. [LIMITS ON ADMINISTRATIVE OPERATING COSTS.] For the rate year beginning October 1, 1989, the administrative operating cost per bed limit shall be calculated according to paragraphs (a) to (d).

(a) The commissioner shall classify a facility into one of two groups based on the number of licensed beds reported on the facility's cost report. Group one includes facilities with more than 20 licensed beds. Group two includes facilities with 20 or fewer licensed beds.

(b) The commissioner shall determine the allowable administrative historical operating cost per licensed bed for each facility in the two groups by dividing the allowable administrative historical operating cost in each facility by the number of licensed beds in each facility.

(c) The commissioner shall establish the administrative cost per licensed bed limit by multiplying the median of the array of allowable administrative historical operating costs per licensed bed for each group by the percentage that establishes the limit at the 75th percentile of the array of each group.

(d) For the rate year beginning October 1, 1989, the maximum allowable administrative historical operating cost shall be the facility's allowable administrative historical operating cost or the amount in paragraph (c) multiplied by the facility's licensed beds, whichever is less.

Sec. 175. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 256B.501, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 3e. [INCREASE IN LIMITS.] For rate years beginning on or after October 1, 1990, the commissioner shall increase the administrative cost per licensed bed limit in section 256B.501, subdivision 3d, paragraph (c), and the maintenance operating cost limit in Minnesota Rules, part 9553.0050, subpart 1, item A, subitem (2), by multiplying the administrative operating cost per bed limit and the maintenance operating cost limit by the composite forecasted index in section 256B.501, subdivision 3c except that the index shall be based on the 12 months between the midpoints of the two preceding reporting years.

Sec. 176. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 256B.501, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 3f. [RATE ADJUSTMENTS.] For rate years beginning October 1, 1989, the commissioner may develop a method to adjust facility rates to meet new licensing or certification standards or regulations adopted by the state or federal government that result in significant cost increases. The commissioner may also consider establishing separate administrative cost limits based on other factors including difficulty of care of residents and licensure classification.

Sec. 177. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 256B.501, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 3g. [ASSESSMENT OF RESIDENTS.] For rate years beginning on or after October 1, 1990, the commissioner shall establish program operating cost rates for care of residents in facilities that take into consideration service characteristics of residents in those facilities. To establish the service characteristics of residents, the quality assurance and review teams in the department of health shall assess all residents annually beginning January 1, 1989, using a uniform assessment instrument developed by the commissioner. This instrument shall include assessment of the client's behavioral needs, integration into the community, ability to perform activities of daily living, medical and therapeutic needs, and other relevant factors determined by the commissioner. The commissioner may establish procedures to adjust the program operating costs of facilities based on a comparison of client services characteristics, resource needs, and costs.

Sec. 178. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 256B.501, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 3h. [WAIVING INTEREST CHARGES.] The commissioner may waive interest charges on overpayments incurred by intermediate care facilities for persons with mental retardation and related conditions for the period October 1, 1987, through February 29, 1988, if the overpayments resulted from the continuation of the desk audit rate in effect on September 30, 1987, through the period.

Sec. 179. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 256B.501, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 3i. [SCOPE.] Subdivisions 3a to 3h do not apply to facilities whose payment rates are governed by Minnesota Rules, part 9553.0075.

Sec. 180. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 256B.501, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 3j. [RULES.] The commissioner shall adopt rules to implement this section. The commissioner shall consult with provider groups, advocates, and legislators to develop these rules.

Sec. 181. [256B.64] [ATTENDANTS TO VENTILATOR-DEPENDENT RECIPIENTS.]

A ventilator-dependent recipient of medical assistance who has been receiving the services of a private duty nurse or personal care assistant in the recipient's home may continue to have a private duty nurse or personal care assistant present upon admission to a hospital licensed under chapter 144. The personal care assistant or private duty nurse shall perform only the services of communicator or interpreter for the ventilator-dependent patient during a transition period of up to 120 hours to assure adequate training of the hospital staff to communicate with the patient and to understand the unique comfort, safety, and personal care needs of the patient. The personal care assistant or private duty nurse may offer non-binding advice to the health care professionals in charge of the ventilator-dependent patient's care and treatment on matters pertaining to the comfort and safety of the patient. After the 120 hour transition period, an assessment may be made by the ventilator-dependent patient, the attending physician, and the patient's primary care nurse to determine whether continued services of communicator or interpreter for the patient by the private duty nurse or personal care assistant are necessary and appropriate for the patient's needs. If continued service is necessary and appropriate, the physician must certify this need to the commissioner of human services in order for payments to continue. The commissioner may adopt rules necessary to implement this section. Reimbursement under this section must be at the payment rate and in a manner consistent with the payment rate and manner used in reimbursing these providers for home care services for the ventilator-dependent recipient under the medical assistance program.

Sec. 182. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 256B.69, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [GEOGRAPHIC AREA.] The commissioner shall designate the geographic areas in which eligible individuals may be included in the demonstration project. The geographic areas shall may include one urban, one suburban, and at least one rural county. In order to encourage the participation of long-term care providers, the project area may be expanded beyond the designated counties for eligible individuals over age 65.

Sec. 183. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 256B.69, subdivision 4, is amended to read:

Subd. 4. [LIMITATION OF CHOICE.] The commissioner shall develop criteria to determine when limitation of choice may be implemented in the experimental counties. The criteria shall ensure that all eligible individuals in the county have continuing access to the full range of medical assistance services as specified in subdivision 6. The commissioner shall exempt the following persons from participation in the project, in addition to those who do not meet the criteria for limitation of choice: (1) persons eligible for medical assistance according to section 256B.06, subdivision I, clause (1) or who are in foster placement; and (2) persons eligible for medical assistance due to blindness or disability as determined by the social security administration or the state medical review team, unless they are 65 years of age or older. Before limitation of choice is implemented, eligible individuals shall be notified and after notification, shall be allowed to choose only among demonstration providers. After initially choosing a provider, the recipient is allowed to change that choice only at specified times as allowed by the commissioner.

Sec. 184. Minnesota Statutes 1987 Supplement, section 256B.73, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [ESTABLISHMENT: GEOGRAPHIC AREA.] The commissioner of human services shall cooperate with a local coalition to establish a demonstration project to provide low cost medical insurance to uninsured low income persons in Cook, Crow Wing, Lake, St. Louis, Carlton, Aitkin, Pine, Itasca, and Koochiching counties except an individual county may be excluded as determined by the county board of commissioners. The coalition shall work with the commissioner and potential demonstration providers as well as other public and private organizations to determine program design, including enrollee eligibility requirements, benefits, and participation.

Sec. 185. Minnesota Statutes 1987 Supplement, section 256D.01, subdivision 1a, is amended to read:

Subd. 1a. [STANDARDS.] (1) A principal objective in providing general assistance is to provide for persons ineligible for federal programs who are unable to provide for themselves. The minimum standard of assistance determines the total amount of the general assistance grant without separate standards for shelter, utilities, or other needs.

(2) The commissioner shall set the standard of assistance for an assistance unit consisting of an adult recipient who is childless and unmarried or living apart from children and spouse and who does not live with a parent or parents or a legal custodian. When the other standards specified in this subdivision increase, this standard shall also be increased by the same percentage.

(3) For an assistance unit consisting of ~~an a single adult who is childless and unmarried or living apart from children and spouse, but~~ who lives with a parent or parents, the general assistance standard of assistance shall be equal to the amount that the aid to families with dependent children standard of assistance would increase if the recipient were added as an additional minor child to an assistance unit consisting of the recipient's parent and all of that parent's family members, provided that the standard shall not exceed the standard for a general assistance recipient living alone. Benefits received by a responsible relative of the assistance unit under the supplemental security income program, a workers' compensation program, the Minnesota supplemental aid program, or any other program based on the responsible relative's disability, and any benefits received by a responsible relative of the assistance unit under the social security retirement program, shall not be counted in the determination of eligibility or benefit level for the assistance unit. An adult child shall be The assistance unit is ineligible for general assistance if the available resources or the countable income of the adult child assistance unit and the parent or parents with whom the adult child assistance unit lives are such that a family consisting of the adult child's assistance unit's parent or parents, the parent or parents' other family members and the adult child assistance unit as the only or additional minor child would be financially ineligible for general assistance. For the purposes of calculating the countable income of the assistance unit's parent or parents, use the calculation methods, income deductions, exclusions, and disregards used when calculating the countable income for a single adult or childless couple.

(4) For an assistance unit consisting of a married childless couple who are childless or who live apart from any child or children of whom either of the married couple is a parent or legal custodian, the standards of assistance shall be equal to the first and second adult standards of the aid to families with dependent children program. If one member of the couple is not included in the general assistance grant, then the standard of assistance for the other shall be equal to the second adult standard of the aid to families with dependent children program, except that, when one member of the couple is not included in the general assistance grant because that member is not categorically eligible for general assistance under section 256D.05, subdivision 1, and has exhausted work readiness eligibility under section 256D.051, subdivision 4 or 5, for the period of time covered by the general assistance grant, then the standard of assistance for the remaining member of the couple shall be equal to the first adult standard of the aid to families with dependent children program.

(5) For an assistance unit consisting of all members of a family, the standards of assistance shall be the same as the standards of assistance applicable to a family under the aid to families with dependent children program if that family had the same number of parents and children as the assistance unit under general assistance and if all members of that family were eligible for the aid to families with dependent children program. If one or more members of the family are not included in the assistance unit for general assistance, the standards of assistance for the remaining members shall be equal to the standards of assistance applicable to an assistance unit composed of the entire family, less the standards of assistance applicable to a family of the same number of parents and children as those members of the family who are not in the assistance unit for general assistance. Notwithstanding the foregoing, if an assistance unit consists solely of the minor children because their parent or parents have been sanctioned from receiving benefits from the aid to families with dependent children program, the standard for the assistance unit shall be equal to the special child standard of the aid to families with dependent children program. A child shall not be excluded from the assistance unit unless income intended for its benefit is received from a federally aided categorical assistance program; or supplemental security income; ~~retirement, survivors, and disability income; other assistance programs; or child support and maintenance payments.~~ The income of a child who is excluded from the assistance unit shall not be counted in the determination of eligibility or benefit level for the assistance unit.

Sec. 186. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 256D.02, subdivision 7, is amended to read:

Subd. 7. "Childless couple" means two individuals who are related by marriage and who are living married to each other, live in a place of residence maintained by them as their own home, and are either childless or living apart from their children.

Sec. 187. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 256D.02, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 12a. "Single adult" means an individual 18 years or older who is childless and unmarried or living apart from the individual's children and spouse.

Sec. 188. Minnesota Statutes 1987 Supplement, section 256D.03, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [GENERAL ASSISTANCE MEDICAL CARE; ELIGIBILITY.] (a) General assistance medical care may be paid for any person:

(1) who is eligible for assistance under section 256D.05 or 256D.051 and is not eligible for medical assistance under chapter 256B; or

(2) who is a resident of Minnesota; whose income as calculated under chapter 256B is not in excess of the medical assistance standards or whose excess income is spent down pursuant to chapter 256B; and whose equity in resources is not in excess of $1,000 per assistance unit. Exempt real and liquid assets, the reduction of excess assets, and the waiver of excess assets must conform to the medical assistance program in chapter 256B.

(b) Eligibility is available for the month of application and for three months prior to application if the person was eligible in those prior months. A redetermination of eligibility must occur every 12 months.

(c) General assistance medical care may be paid for a person, regardless of age, who is detained by law for less than one year in a county correctional or detention facility as a person accused or convicted of a crime, or admitted as an inpatient to a hospital on a criminal hold order, if the person is a recipient of general assistance medical care at the time the person is detained by law or admitted on a criminal hold order and as long as the person continues to meet other eligibility requirements of this subdivision.

(d) General assistance medical care is not available for applicants or recipients who do not cooperate with the local agency to meet the requirements of medical assistance.

Sec. 189. Minnesota Statutes 1987 Supplement, section 256D.06, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. General assistance shall be granted in ~~such~~ an amount that when added to the nonexempt income actually available to the ~~individual, married couple, or family~~ assistance unit, the total amount equals the applicable standard of assistance for general assistance. In determining eligibility for and the amount of assistance for an individual or married couple, the local agency shall disregard the first $50 of earned income per month.

Sec. 190. Minnesota Statutes 1987 Supplement, section 256D.06, subdivision 1b, is amended to read:

Subd. 1b. [EARNED INCOME SAVINGS ACCOUNT.] In addition to the $50 disregard required under subdivision 1, the local agency shall disregard an additional earned income up to a maximum of $150 per month for persons residing in facilities licensed under Minnesota Rules, parts 9520.0500 to 9520.0690 and 9530.2500 to 9530.4000, and for whom discharge and work are part of a treatment plan and for persons living in supervised apartments with services funded under Minnesota Rules, parts 9535.0100 to 9535.1600, and for whom discharge and work are part of a treatment plan. The additional amount disregarded must be placed in a separate savings account by the eligible individual, to be used upon discharge from the residential facility into the community. A maximum of $1,000, including interest, of the money in the savings account must be excluded from the resource limits established by section 256D.08, subdivision 1, clause (1). Amounts in that account in excess of $1,000 must be applied to the resident's cost of care. If excluded money is removed from the savings account by the eligible individual at any time before the individual is discharged from the facility into the community, the money is income to the individual in the month of receipt and a resource in subsequent months. If an eligible individual moves from a community facility to an inpatient hospital setting, the separate savings account is an excluded asset for up to 18 months. During that time, amounts that accumulate in excess of the $1,000 savings limit must be applied to the patient's cost of care. If the patient continues to be hospitalized at the conclusion of the 18-month period, the entire account must be applied to the patient's cost of care.

Sec. 191. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 256D.06, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 1c. [ELIGIBILITY OF FAMILIES.] Notwithstanding any other provisions of sections 256D.01 to 256D.22, general assistance for an assistance unit consisting of members of a family must be granted in an amount that is equal to the amount of assistance which would be paid to an aid to families with dependent children assistance unit which has the same size, composition, income, and other circumstances relevant to the computation of an AFDC grant. Income for an assistance unit consisting of members of a family applying for or receiving general assistance must be determined in the same manner as for persons applying for or receiving aid to families with dependent children, except that the first $50 per month of total child support paid on behalf of family members is excluded and the balance is counted as unearned income, and nonrecurring lump sums received by the family shall be considered income in the month received and a resource thereafter.

Sec. 192. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 256D.07, is amended to read:

256D.07 [TIME OF PAYMENT OF ASSISTANCE.]

An applicant for general assistance or general assistance medical care authorized by section 256D.03, subdivision 3 shall be deemed eligible if the application and the verification of the statement on that application demonstrate that the applicant is within the eligibility criteria established by sections 256D.01 to 256D.21 and any applicable rules of the commissioner. Any person requesting general assistance or general assistance medical care shall be permitted by the local agency to make an application for assistance as soon as administratively possible and in no event later than the fourth day following the date on which assistance is first requested, and no local agency shall require that a person requesting assistance appear at the offices of the local agency more than once prior to the date on which the person is permitted to make the application. The application shall be in writing in the manner and upon the form prescribed by the commissioner and attested to by the oath of the applicant or in lieu thereof shall contain the following declaration which shall be signed by the applicant: "I declare that this application has been examined by me and to the best of my knowledge and belief is a true and correct statement of every material point." On the date that general assistance is first requested, the local agency shall inquire and determine whether the person requesting assistance is in immediate need of food, shelter, clothing, assistance for necessary transportation, or other emergency assistance pursuant to section 256D.06, subdivision 2. A person in need of emergency assistance shall be granted emergency assistance immediately, and necessary emergency assistance shall continue until either the person is determined to be ineligible for general assistance or the first grant of general assistance is paid to the person. A determination of an applicant's eligibility for general assistance shall be made by the local agency as soon as the required verifications are received by the local agency and in no event later than 30 days following the date that the application is made. Any verifications required of the applicant shall be reasonable, and the commissioner shall by rule establish reasonable verifications. General assistance shall be granted to an eligible applicant without the necessity of first securing action by the board of the local agency. ~~The amount of the first grant of general assistance awarded to an applicant shall be computed to cover the time period starting with the date that assistance is first requested or if the applicant is not eligible on that date, the date on which the applicant first becomes eligible, and the first grant may be reduced by the amount of emergency general assistance provided to the applicant. The first month's grant must be computed to cover the time period starting with the date a signed application form is received by the local agency or from the date that the applicant meets all eligibility factors, whichever occurs later. The first grant may be reduced by the amount of emergency general assistance provided to the applicant.~~

If upon verification and due investigation it appears that the applicant provided false information and the false information materially affected the applicant's eligibility for general assistance or general assistance medical care provided pursuant to section 256D.03, subdivision 3 or the amount of the applicant's general assistance grant, the local agency may refer the matter to the county attorney. The county attorney may commence a criminal prosecution or a civil action for the recovery of any general assistance wrongfully received, or both.

Sec. 193. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 256D.35, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 9. [HOMESTEAD.] "Homestead" means a shelter in which the individual or the spouse with whom the individual lives has an ownership interest, and that is the principal residence of the individual, spouse, or the individual's minor or disabled child. The home may be either real or personal property, fixed or mobile, and located on land or water. The home includes all the land that appertains to it and buildings located on that land.

Sec. 194. Minnesota Statutes 1987 Supplement, section 256D.37, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. (a) For all individuals who apply to the appropriate local agency for supplemental aid, the local agency shall determine whether the individual meets the eligibility criteria prescribed in subdivision 2. For each individual who meets the relevant eligibility criteria prescribed in subdivision 2, the local agency shall certify to the commissioner the amount of supplemental aid to which the individual is entitled in accordance with all of the standards in effect December 31, 1973, for the appropriate categorical aid program.

(b) When a recipient is an adult with mental illness in a facility licensed under Minnesota Rules, parts 9520.0500 to 9520.0690, a resident of a state hospital or a dwelling with a negotiated rate, the recipient is not eligible for a shelter standard, a basic needs standard, or for special needs payments. The state standard of assistance for those recipients is the clothing and personal needs allowance for medical assistance recipients under section 256B.35. Minnesota supplemental aid may be paid to negotiated rate facilities at the rates in effect on March 1, 1985, for services provided under the supplemental aid program to residents of the facility, up to the maximum negotiated rate specified in this section. The rate for room and board for a licensed facility must not exceed $800. The maximum negotiated rate does not apply to a facility that, on August 1, 1984, was licensed by the commissioner of health only as a boarding care home, certified by the commissioner of health as an intermediate care facility, and licensed by the commissioner of human services under Minnesota Rules, parts 9520.0500 to 9520.0690 or a facility that, on August 1, 1984, was licensed by the commissioner of human services under Minnesota Rules, parts 9525.0520 to 9525.0660, but funded as a supplemental aid negotiated rate facility under this chapter. The following facilities are exempt from the limit on negotiated rates and must be reimbursed for documented actual costs, until an alternative reimbursement system covering services excluding room and board maintenance services is developed by the commissioner:

(1) a facility that only provides services to persons with mental retardation; and

(2) a facility not certified to participate in the medical assistance program that is licensed as a boarding care facility as of March 1, 1985, and does not receive supplemental program funding under Minnesota Rules, parts 9535.2000 to 9535.3000 or parts 9553.0010 to 9553.0080. Beginning July 1, 1987, the facilities under clause (1) are subject to applicable supplemental aid limits, and must meet all applicable licensing and reimbursement requirements for programs for persons with mental retardation. The negotiated rates may be paid for persons who are placed by the local agency or who elect to reside in a room and board facility or a licensed facility for the purpose of receiving physical, mental health, or rehabilitative care, provided the local agency agrees that this care is needed by the person. When Minnesota supplemental aid is used to pay a negotiated rate, the rate payable to the facility must not exceed the rate paid by an individual not receiving Minnesota supplemental aid. To receive payment for a negotiated rate, the dwelling must comply with applicable laws and rules establishing standards necessary for health, safety, and licensure. The negotiated rate must be adjusted by the annual percentage change in the consumer price index (CPI-U U.S. city average), as published by the Bureau of Labor Statistics between the previous two Septembers, new series index (1967-100) or 2.5 percent, whichever is less. In computing the amount of supplemental aid under this section, the local agency shall deduct from the gross amount of the individual's determined needs all income, subject to the criteria for income disregards in effect December 31, 1973, for the appropriate categorical aid program, except that the earned income disregard for disabled persons who are not residents of long term care facilities must be the same as the earned income disregard available to disabled persons in the supplemental security income program and all actual work expenses must be deducted when determining the amount of income for the individual. From the first of the month in which an effective application is filed, the state and the county shall share responsibility for the payment of the supplemental aid to which the individual is entitled under this section as provided in section 256D.36.

Sec. 195. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 256D.37, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [RESOURCE STANDARDS.] The resource standards and restrictions for supplemental aid under this section shall be those used to determine eligibility for disabled individuals in the supplemental security income program. The local agency shall apply the relevant criteria to each application. The local agency in its discretion may permit eligibility of an applicant having assets in excess of the amount prescribed in this section if liquidation of the assets would cause undue loss or hardship.

Sec. 196. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 256D.37, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 6. [TRANSFERS.] (a) In determining the resources of an individual and an eligible spouse, if any, a person shall include a resource or interest that exceeds the limits set out in subdivision 2 and that was given away or sold for less than fair market value within the 24 months preceding application for Minnesota supplemental aid or during the period of eligibility.

(b) A transaction described in this subdivision is presumed to have been made to establish eligibility for benefits or assistance under this chapter unless the individual or eligible spouse gives convincing evidence to establish that the transaction was made exclusively for another purpose.

(c) For purposes of this subdivision, the value of a resource or interest is the fair market value when it was sold or given away, less the amount of compensation received.

(d) For any uncompensated transfer, the period of ineligibility must be calculated by dividing the amount of the uncompensated transferred amount by the statewide average monthly skilled nursing facility payment for the previous calendar year to determine the number of months of ineligibility. The individual is ineligible until the fixed period of ineligibility has expired. The period of ineligibility may exceed 24 months, and a reapplication for benefits after 24 months from the date of the transfer does not result in eligibility unless and until the period of ineligibility has expired.

(e) The period of ineligibility must not be applied if the local agency determines that it would create an immediate threat to the health or safety of the assistance unit.

Sec. 197. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 256D.37, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 7. [EXCLUSIONS.] The following must not be included as income in determining eligibility:

(1) the value of food stamps;

(2) home-produced food used by the household;

(3) Indian claim payments made by the United States Congress to compensate members of Indian tribes for the taking of tribal lands by the federal government;

(4) cash payments to displaced persons who face relocation as a result of the Housing Act of 1965, the Housing and Urban Development Act of 1965, or the Uniform Relocation Assistance and Real Property Acquisition Policies Act of 1970;

(5) one-third of child support payments received by an eligible child from an absent parent;

(6) displaced homemaker payments;

(7) reimbursement received for maintenance costs of providing foster care to adults or children;

(8) benefits received under Title IV and Title VII of the Older Americans Act of 1965;

(9) Minnesota renter or homeowner property tax refunds;

(13) payments received for providing volunteer services under Title I, Title II, and Title III of the Domestic Volunteer Service Act of 1973;

(14) loans that have to be repaid;

(15) federal low income heating assistance program payments; and

(16) any other type of funds excluded as income by state law.

The local agency shall exclude the first $20 of earned or unearned income.

Sec. 198. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 256D.37, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 8. [APPLICATION FOR FEDERALLY FUNDED BENEFITS.] Persons for whom the applicant or recipient has financial responsibility and who have unmet needs must apply for, and if eligible, accept aid to families with dependent children and other federally funded benefits before allocation of earned and unearned income from the applicant or recipient to meet the needs of those persons. If the persons are determined potentially eligible for these benefits, the applicant or recipient may not allocate earned or unearned income to those persons.

Sec. 199. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 256D.37, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 9. [ALLOCATION OF INCOME.] The rate of allocation for the financially responsible relatives of applicants or recipients is one-half the individual supplemental security income standard of assistance, except as restricted in subdivision 8.

If the applicant or recipient shares a residence with another person who has financial responsibility for the applicant or recipient, the income of the responsible relative must be considered available to the applicant or recipient after allowing the deductions in subdivisions 11 and 12.

Sec. 200. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 256D.37, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 10. [EARNED INCOME DISREGARDS.] From the assistance unit's gross earned income, the local agency shall disregard $65 plus one-half of the remaining income.

Sec. 201. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 256D.37, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 11. [EARNED INCOME DEDUCTIONS.] From the assistance unit's gross earned income, the local agency shall subtract work expenses allowed by the supplemental security income program.

Sec. 203. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 256D.37, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 13. [RENTAL PROPERTY.] Income from rental property must be considered self-employment earnings for each month that an average of at least ten hours a week of labor is expended by the owner of the property. When no labor is expended, income from rental property must be considered as unearned income and an additional deduction must be allowed for actual, reasonable, and necessary labor costs for upkeep and repair.

Sec. 204. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 256D.37, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 14. [GROSS INCOME TEST.] The local agency shall apply a gross income test prospectively for each month of program eligibility. An assistance unit is ineligible when nonexcluded income, before applying any disregards or deductions, exceeds 300 percent of the supplemental security income standard for the assistance unit.

Sec. 205. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 256E.12, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. The commissioner shall establish an experimental a statewide program to assist counties in providing services to chronically mentally ill persons with serious and persistent mental illness as defined in section 245.462, subdivision 20. The commissioner shall make grants to counties to establish, operate, or contract with private providers to provide services designed to help chronically mentally ill persons with serious and persistent mental illness remain and function in their own communities. Grants received pursuant to this section may be used to fund innovative community support services programs, relating to physical fitness programs designed as part of a mental health treatment plan as specified in section 245.462, subdivision 6, and case management activities that cannot be billed to the medical assistance program under section 256B.02, subdivision 8.

(7) information, counseling, and support groups to assist minority children approaching age 18 in setting permanent goals for independent living;

(8) minority adolescent support groups for children in long-term foster care, new adoptive placements, and nonminority homes where identity issues threaten the adoptive relationship and adjustment;

(9) services listed at section 256F.07; and

(10) other activities and services approved by the commissioner that further the goals of the minority heritage preservation act.

Sec. 218. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 260.181, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [PROTECTION OF RACIAL OR ETHNIC HERITAGE, OR RELIGIOUS AFFILIATION.] The policy of the state is to ensure that the best interests of children are met by requiring due consideration of the child's minority race or minority ethnic heritage in foster care placements.

The court, in transferring legal custody of any child or appointing a guardian for the child under the laws relating to juvenile courts, shall place the child, in the following order of preference, in the absence of good cause to the contrary, in the legal custody or guardianship of an individual who (a) is the child's relative, or if that would be detrimental to the child or a relative is not available, who (b) is of the same racial or ethnic heritage as the child, or if that is not possible, who (c) is knowledgeable and appreciative of the child's racial or ethnic heritage. The court may require the county welfare agency to continue efforts to find a guardian of the child's minority racial or minority ethnic heritage when such a guardian is not immediately available. For purposes of this subdivision, "relative" includes members of a child's extended family and important friends with whom the child has resided or had significant contact.

If the child's genetic parent or parents explicitly request that the preference described in clause (a) or in clauses (a) and (b) not be followed, the court shall honor that request consistent with the best interests of the child.

If the child's genetic parent or parents express a preference for placing the child in a foster or adoptive home of the same or a similar religious background to that of the genetic parent or parents, in following the preferences in clause (a) or (b), the court shall order placement of the child with an individual who meets the genetic parent's religious preference. Only if no individual is available who is described in clause (a) or (b) may the court give preference to an individual described in clause (c) who meets the parent's religious preference.

Sec. 219. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 268.0111, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 4a. [HOMELESS INDIVIDUAL.] "Homeless individual," or "homeless person" means:

(1) an individual who lacks a fixed, regular, and adequate nighttime residence; and

(2) an individual who has a primary nighttime residence that is:

(i) a supervised publicly or privately operated shelter or dwelling designed to provide temporary living accommodations,

(ii) an institution that provides a temporary residence for individuals intended to be institutionalized, or

(iii) a public or private place not designed for, or ordinarily used as, a regular sleeping accommodation for humans.

The term "homeless individual" does not include any individual imprisoned or otherwise detained pursuant to federal or state law.

Sec. 220. [268.0124] [PLAIN LANGUAGE IN WRITTEN MATERIALS.]

(a) To the extent reasonable and consistent with the goals of providing easily understandable and readable materials and complying with federal and state laws governing the programs, all written materials relating to services and determinations of eligibility for or amounts of benefits that will be given to applicants for or recipients of assistance under a program administered or supervised by the commissioner of jobs and training must be understandable to a person who reads at the seventh-grade level, using the Flesch scale analysis readability score as determined under section 72C.09.

(b) All written materials relating to determinations of eligibility for or amounts of benefits that will be given to applicants for or recipients of assistance under programs administered or supervised by the commissioner of jobs and training must be developed to satisfy the plain language requirements of the plain language contract act under sections 325G.29 to 325G.36. Materials may be submitted to the attorney general for review and certification. Notwithstanding section 325G.35, subdivision I, the attorney general shall review submitted materials to determine whether they comply with the requirements of section 325G.31. The remedies available pursuant to sections 8.31 and 325G.33 to 325G.36 do not apply to these materials. Failure to comply with this section does not provide a basis for suspending the implementation or operation of other laws governing programs administered by the commissioner.

(c) The requirements of this section apply to all materials modified or developed by the commissioner on or after July 1, 1988. The requirements of this section do not apply to materials that must be submitted to a federal agency for approval, to the extent that application of the requirements prevents federal approval.

(d) Nothing in this section may be construed to prohibit a lawsuit brought to require the commissioner to comply with this section or to affect individual appeal rights granted pursuant to section 268.10.

(e) The commissioner shall report annually to the chairs of the health and human services divisions of the senate finance committee and the house of representatives appropriations committee on the number and outcome of cases that raise the issue of the commissioner's compliance with this section.

Sec. 221. [268.39] [LIFE SKILLS AND EMPLOYMENT GRANTS.]

The commissioner may provide grants to organizations for the development and administration of life skills and employment plans for homeless individuals that reside in residential units constructed or rehabilitated under section 462A.05, subdivision 29. Grants awarded under this section may also be used for the management of these residential units. The organizations that receive grants under this section must coordinate their efforts with organizations that receive grants under section 462A.05, subdivision 29.

A life skills and employment plan must be developed for each tenant residing in a dwelling that receives funding under section 462A.05, subdivision 29. The plan may include preapprentice and apprenticeship training in the area of housing rehabilitation. If preapprentice and apprenticeship training is part of a plan, the organization must consult with labor organizations experienced in working with apprenticeship programs. The completion or compliance with the individual life skills and employment plan must be required for a tenant to remain in a unit constructed or rehabilitated under section 462A.05, subdivision 29.

The application for a grant under this section must include a plan that must provide for:

(1) training for tenants in areas such as cleaning and maintenance, payment of rent, and roommate skills, and

(2) tenant selection and rental policies that insure rental of units to people who are homeless if applicable.

The applicant must provide a proposed occupancy contract if applicable, the name and address of the rental agent if applicable, and other information the commissioner considers necessary with the application.

The commissioner may adopt permanent rules to administer this grant program.

Sec. 222. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 268.86, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 10. [INVENTORY, REFERRAL, AND INTAKE SERVICES.] The commissioner of jobs and training, in cooperation with the commissioner of human services, shall develop an inventory, referral, and intake system. The system must provide for coordinated delivery of employment and training and income maintenance support services, efficient client referral among programs and services, reduction of duplicate data collection, coordinated program intake by local agencies, and effective evaluation of employment and training services. The system must, at a minimum, include the following:

(1) a listing of all available public and private employment and training services, income maintenance and support services, and vocationally directed education and training programs;

(2) the capability to assess client needs and match those needs with employment opportunities, education and training programs, and employment and training and income maintenance and support services, and to refer the client to the appropriate employer, educational institution, or service provider;

(3) a coordinated intake procedure for employment and training services, and income maintenance and support services;

(4) access to a statewide data base for client tracking and program evaluation; and

(5) internal security measures to protect private data from unauthorized access.

In developing the system, the commissioner shall consult with the public post-secondary educational systems, local agencies, employment and training service providers, and client and employer representatives. The system must be available in each local agency or service provider delivering programs administered by the commissioner of jobs and training or the commissioner of human services. Access by intake workers, state agency personnel, clients, and any other system users to information contained in the system must conform with all applicable federal and state data privacy requirements.

Sec. 224. Minnesota Statutes 1987 Supplement, section 268.91, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [ALLOCATION.] (a) By June 1 of each odd-numbered year, the commissioner shall notify all county and human services boards and post-secondary educational systems of their allocation. If the appropriation is insufficient to meet the needs in all counties, the amount must be prorated among the counties. Each county that receives funds under this section must keep a written record and report to the commissioner the number of eligible families who have applied for a child care subsidy. Counties shall perform a cursory determination of eligibility when a family requests information about child care assistance. A family that appears to be eligible must be put on a waiting list if funds are not immediately available.

(b) Except for set-aside money allocated under subdivisions 3a, 3b, 3c, and 3d, the commissioner shall allocate money appropriated between the metropolitan area, comprising the counties of Anoka, Carver, Dakota, Hennepin, Ramsey, Scott, and Washington, and the area outside the metropolitan area so that no more than 55 percent of the total appropriation goes to either area after excluding allocations for statewide administrative costs. The commissioner shall allocate 50 percent of the money among counties on the basis of the number of families below the poverty level, as determined from the most recent special census, and 50 percent on the basis of caseloads of aid to families with dependent children for the preceding fiscal year, as determined by the commissioner of human services.

(c) Once each quarter, the commissioner shall review the use of child care fund allocations by county. ~~In accordance with the formula found in paragraph (b),~~ The commissioner may reallocate unexpended or unencumbered money among those counties who have expended their full portion. Any unexpended money from the first year of the biennium may be carried forward to the second year of the biennium.

Sec. 225. Minnesota Statutes 1987 Supplement, section 268.91, subdivision 3b, is amended to read:

Subd. 3b. [SET-ASIDE MONEY FOR AFDC PRIORITY GROUPS.] (a) Set-aside money for AFDC priority groups must be allocated among the counties based on the average monthly number of caretakers receiving AFDC under the age of 21 and the average monthly number of AFDC cases open 24 or more consecutive months. For each fiscal year the average monthly caseload shall be based on the 12-month period ending March 31 of the previous fiscal year. The commissioner may reallocate quarterly unexpended or unencumbered set-aside money to counties that expend their full allocation. The county shall use the set-aside money for AFDC priority groups and for former AFDC recipients who (1) have had their child care subsidized under the set-aside for AFDC priority groups; (2) continue to require a child care subsidy in order to remain employed; and (3) are on a waiting list for the basic sliding fee program.

(b) The county shall develop cooperative agreements with the employment and training service provider for coordination of child care funding with employment, training, and education programs for aid to families with dependent children priority groups. The cooperative agreement shall specify that individuals receiving employment, training, and education services under an employability plan from the employment and training service provider shall, as resources permit, be guaranteed set-aside money for child care assistance from the county of their residence.

(c) Counties may contract for administration of the program or may arrange for or contract for child care funds to be used by other appropriate programs, in accordance with this section and as permitted by federal law and regulations.

(d) If the commissioner finds, on or after January 1 of a fiscal year, that set-aside money for AFDC priority groups is not being fully utilized, the commissioner may permit counties to use set-aside money for other eligible applicants, as long as priority for use of the money will continue to be given to the AFDC priority groups.

(e) A county may claim federal reimbursement under the AFDC special needs program for money spent for persons listed in subdivision 3a, clause (1). The commissioner shall allocate any federal earnings to the county. The county shall use the money to expand services to AFDC recipients child care sliding fee services under the child care sliding fee program this subdivision.

Sec. 226. Minnesota Statutes 1987 Supplement, section 268.91, subdivision 3c, is amended to read:

Subd. 3c. [SET-ASIDE MONEY FOR AFDC POST-SECONDARY STUDENTS.] (a) For the fiscal year ending June 30, 1988, set-aside money for persons listed in subdivision 3a, clause (2), shall be allocated to the counties based on caseloads of aid to families with dependent children for the preceding fiscal year, as determined by the commissioner. For succeeding fiscal years, the commissioner shall, in cooperation with the director of the higher education coordinating board, develop a formula for allocation of the funds to counties based on the number of AFDC caretakers in each county who are enrolled at post-secondary institutions.

(b) Money allocated in paragraph (a) must be used for child care expenses of AFDC recipients attending post-secondary educational programs, excluding post-baccalaureate programs, and making satisfactory progress towards completion of the program.

(c) Once each quarter the commissioner shall review the use of child care fund allocations under this subdivision by county. The commissioner may reallocate unexpended or unencumbered money among those counties that have expended their full portion for the purposes of this subdivision.

(d) A county may claim federal reimbursement under the AFDC special needs program for money spent for persons listed in subdivision 3a, clause (2). The commissioner shall allocate any federal earnings to the county. The county shall use the money to expand child care sliding fee services to AFDC recipients under the child care sliding fee program under this subdivision.

(e) Recipients of AFDC who have completed their post-secondary education and had received child care funds during that education shall be assured, to the extent of available resources allocations, of sliding fee money for employment programs after graduation if they meet sliding fee program eligibility standards.

Sec. 227. Minnesota Statutes 1987 Supplement, section 268.91, subdivision 3e, is amended to read:

Subd. 3e. [USE OF MONEY.] Money for persons listed in subdivision 3a, clauses (2) and (3), shall be used to reduce the costs of child care for students, including the costs of child care for students while employed if enrolled in an eligible education program at the same time and making satisfactory progress towards completion of the program. The county may plan for and provided child care assistance to persons listed in subdivision 3a, clauses (2) and (3), from the regular sliding fee fund to supplement the set-aside funds. Financially eligible students provided who have received child care assistance for one academic year shall be provided child care assistance in the following academic year, providing they remain financially eligible if funds allocated under subdivision 3c or 3d are available.

Sec. 228. Minnesota Statutes 1987 Supplement, section 268.91, subdivision 4, is amended to read:

Subd. 4. [FINANCIAL ELIGIBILITY.] (a) Child care services must be available to families who need child care to find or keep employment or to obtain the training or education necessary to find employment and who:

(1) receive aid to families with dependent children;

(2) have household income below the eligibility levels for aid to families with dependent children; or

(3) have household income within a range established by the commissioner.

(b) Child care services for the families receiving aid to families with dependent children must be made available as in-kind services, to cover any difference between the actual cost and the amount disregarded under the aid to families with dependent children program. Child care services to families whose incomes are below the threshold of eligibility for aid to families with dependent children, but that are not receiving aid to families with dependent children, must be made available without cost to the families.

(c) Child care services to families with incomes in the commissioner's established range must be made available on a sliding fee basis. The lower limit of the sliding fee range must be the eligibility limit for aid to families with dependent children. The upper limit of the range must be neither less than 70 percent nor more than 90 percent of the state median income for a family of four, adjusted for family size.

(d) If a disproportionate amount of the available money is provided to any one of the groups described in subdivision 4, paragraph (a), the county board shall document to the commissioner the reason the group received a disproportionate share. If a county projects that its child care allocation is insufficient to meet the needs of all eligible groups, it may prioritize among the groups to be served. Counties shall assure that a person receiving child care assistance from the sliding fee program prior to July 1, 1987, continues to receive assistance, providing the person meets all other eligibility criteria. Set-aside money must be prioritized by the state, and counties do not have discretion over the use of this money.

(e) Annual income of the applicant family is the current monthly income of the family multiplied by 12 or the income for the 12-month period immediately preceding the date of application, whichever provides the most accurate assessment of income available to the family. Self-employment income must be calculated based on gross receipts less operating expenses. Income must be redetermined when the family's income changes, but no less often than every six months. Income must be verified with documentary evidence. If the applicant does not have sufficient evidence of income, verification must be obtained from the source of the income.

Sec. 229. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 268.91, subdivision 7, is amended to read:

Subd. 7. [SLIDING FEE SCALE.] In setting the sliding fee schedule, the commissioner shall exclude from the amount of income used to determine eligibility an amount for federal and state income and social security taxes attributable to that income level according to federal and state standardized tax tables. The commissioner shall base the parent fee on the ability of the family to pay for child care. The fee schedule must be designed to use any available tax credits and to progress smoothly from appropriated assistance to assistance through tax credits.

Sec. 230. Minnesota Statutes 1987 Supplement, section 268.91, subdivision 12, is amended to read:

Subd. 12. [FAIR HEARING PROCESS.] (a) Applicants and recipients have the option to request the county to conduct a conciliation conference to attempt to resolve complaints arising from any of the following actions:

- (1) a determination of ineligibility for child care assistance;
- (2) unauthorized termination of child care assistance;
- (3) determination of the factors considered in setting the family fee; and
- (4) income redetermination resulting in change of a family fee.

(b) The county shall notify the applicant or the recipient, in writing, of any adverse action. The determination described in paragraph (a), clauses (1) and (3), must include written notice of the applicant's or recipient's right to the election described in paragraph (c), where and how to request the election, the time limit within which to make the request, and the reasons for the determination. Notice of the proposed actions described in paragraph (a), clauses (2) and (4), must be mailed to the applicant or recipient at least 15 calendar days before the effective date of the action. The notice must clearly state what action the county proposes to take, the effective date of the proposed action, the reasons for the proposed action, the necessary corrective measures, the option to request either a conciliation conference or an administrative hearing, where and how to make the request, the time limits within which a request must be made, and the consequence of the action.

(c) An applicant or recipient who receives a determination or notice of proposed action under paragraph (b) must mail or deliver either a written notice of request for a conciliation conference to the administering agency or a written notice of request for the hearing specified under paragraph (c) to the administering agency on or before the effective date of the proposed action or the date specified in the notice, or the action will be final.

(d) The county shall provide a conciliation conference within 30 days of receipt of a written request.

The county shall give the applicant or recipient ten calendar days' notice of the conference date. The applicant or recipient and the county's representative have the right to appear, to bring witnesses, and to submit documentation. The written request and the resolution, if any, of the conference shall be maintained as part of the official record. The county's representative shall issue a written resolution only if mutual agreement is reached between the county's representative and the applicant or recipient. The resolution must be signed by both parties and issued the same day as the conciliation conference is held. Participating in a conciliation conference or signing a resolution does not constitute a waiver of the right to an administrative hearing.

An applicant or recipient may, within 15 calendar days of the conference, mail or deliver a written request to the administering agency for an administrative hearing. Unless an appeal is requested, a determination, proposed action, or resolution of a conciliation conference will be final after the 15-day period has passed.

(c) A fair hearing shall be conducted in the manner prescribed by section 268.10, subdivision 3. A right to review will be provided in accordance with section 268.10, subdivision 5. The proposed action will not take effect until the appeal is decided by the administrative hearing process.

(a) An applicant or recipient adversely affected by a county agency action may request a fair hearing in accordance with section 256.045, subdivision 3.

(b) The county agency shall offer an informal conference to applicants and recipients adversely affected by an agency action to attempt to resolve the dispute. The county agency shall advise adversely affected applicants and recipients that a request for a conference with the agency is optional and does not delay or replace the right to a fair hearing.

Sec. 231. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 268.911, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [PROGRAM SERVICES.] The commissioner may make grants to public or private nonprofit entities to fund child care resource and referral programs. Child care resource and referral programs must serve a defined geographic area.

(a) Each program shall identify all existing child care services through information provided by all relevant public and private agencies in the areas of service, and shall develop a resource file of the services which shall be maintained and updated at least quarterly. These services must include family day care homes; public and private day care programs; full-time and part-time programs; infant, preschool, and extended care programs; and programs for school age children.

The resource file must include: the type of program, hours of program service, ages of children served, fees, location of the program, eligibility requirements for enrollment, and transportation available to the program. The file may also include program information and special needs services.

(b) Each program shall establish a referral process which responds to parental need for information and which fully recognizes confidentiality rights of parents. The referral process must afford parents maximum access to all referral information. This access must include telephone referral available for no less than 20 hours per week.

Each child care resource and referral agency shall publicize its services through popular media sources, agencies, employers, and other appropriate methods.

(c) Each program shall maintain ongoing documentation of requests for service. All child care resource and referral agencies must maintain documentation of the number of calls and contacts to the child care information and referral agency or component. A program may collect and maintain the following information:

- (1) ages of children served;
- (2) time category of child care request for each child;
- (3) special time category, such as nights, weekends, and swing shift; and
- (4) reason that the child care is needed.

(d) Each program shall have available the following information as an educational aid to parents:

(1) information on aspects of evaluating the quality and suitability of child care services, including licensing regulation, financial assistance available, child abuse reporting procedures, appropriate child development information;

(2) information on available parent, early childhood, and family education programs in the community.

(e) A program may provide technical assistance to existing and potential providers of all types of child care services and employers. This assistance shall include:

(1) information on all aspects of initiating new child care services including licensing, zoning, program and budget development, and assistance in finding information from other sources;

(2) information and resources which help existing child care providers to maximize their ability to serve the children and parents of their community;

(3) dissemination of information on current public issues affecting the local and state delivery of child care services;

(4) facilitation of communication between existing child care providers and child-related services in the community served; and

(5) recruitment of licensed providers; and

(6) options, and the benefits available to employers utilizing the various options, to expand child care services to employees.

Services prescribed by this section must be designed to maximize parental choice in the selection of child care and to facilitate the maintenance and development of child care services and resources.

(f) Child care resource and referral information must be provided to all persons requesting services and to all types of child care providers and employers.

(g) Public or private entities may apply to the commissioner for funding. The maximum amount of money which may be awarded to any entity for the provision of service under this subdivision is $60,000 per year. A local match of up to 25 percent is required.

Sec. 232. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 326.371, is amended to read:

326.371 [BAN ON LEAD IN PLUMBING.]

Lead pipe, solders, and flux containing more than 0.2 percent lead, and pipes and pipe fittings containing more than eight percent lead shall not be used in any plumbing installation which conveys a potable water supply. A Minnesota seller of lead solder, except for a seller whose primary business is contracting in plumbing, heating, and air conditioning, shall not sell any solder containing 0.2 percent lead unless the seller displays a sign which states,

“Contains Lead

Minnesota law prohibits the use of this solder in any plumbing installation which is connected to a potable water supply.”

Sec. 233. Minnesota Statutes 1987 Supplement, section 326.73, is amended to read:

326.73 [EMPLOYEE ASBESTOS CERTIFICATIONS.]

Before an employee performs asbestos-related work, the employee shall first obtain a certificate from the commissioner certifying that the employee is qualified to perform the work. No certificate shall be issued unless the employee has shown evidence of training or experience in the general commercial building construction trades, has taken a course of training in asbestos control and removal, passed an examination in those subjects, and demonstrated to the commissioner the ability to perform asbestos-related work safely in accordance with the current state-of-the-art technology. The commissioner shall specify the course of training necessary. The certificate issued by the commissioner shall be in writing, be dated when issued, contain an expiration date, be signed by the commissioner, and contain the name and address of the employee to whom it is issued. The certificate shall be carried by the employee and be readily available for inspection by the commissioner, other public officials charged with the health, safety, and welfare of the state's citizens, and the contracting entity.

Sec. 234. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 462.05, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 29. [HOUSING GRANTS FOR HOMELESS INDIVIDUALS.] The agency may provide grants to eligible mortgagors for the purpose of purchasing, rehabilitating, and constructing housing for homeless individuals as defined in section 268.0111, subdivision 4a. The agency may determine the conditions, if any, under which all or a portion of the grant will be repaid and appropriate security, if any, for repayment of the grant. In establishing this grant program, the agency must consult the commissioner of jobs and training. The applicant must consult with advocates for the homeless, representatives from neighborhood groups and representatives of labor organizations in preparing the proposal.

Grants awarded under this section may not exceed $25,000 per residential unit. Priority must be given to viable proposals with the lowest total cost. Applicants must consider the use of donated or leased, abandoned or empty dwellings owned by a public entity including, but not limited to, a housing redevelopment authority, community development authority, public housing authority, the Federal Department of Housing and Urban Development, or the Farmers Home Administration. Any residential unit purchased, rehabilitated, or constructed under this section must be allocated in the following order:

- (1) homeless families with at least one dependent,
- (2) other homeless individuals,
- (3) other very low income families or individuals whose incomes are equal to or less than 30 percent of the median income for the Minneapolis-St. Paul metropolitan area, and

(4) families or individuals that receive public assistance and do not qualify in any other priority group.

Proposals must include a plan for (a) maintaining the ownership of the property and managing the dwelling for rental to homeless individuals and families and very low income families; (b) selling rehabilitated dwellings to homeless individuals and families or very low income families; or (c) selling, leasing, or conveying to organizations that will manage the dwelling for rental to homeless individuals and families and very low income families. These organizations may include organizations awarded grants under section 268.39. The homeless individuals or families or very low income families that may purchase dwellings under (b) must have incomes that are equal to or less than 30 percent of the median income for the Minneapolis-St. Paul metropolitan area.

Eligible mortgagors must demonstrate that the grants awarded under this section will not exceed 50 percent of the project's total cost. A project's total cost includes, but is not limited to, acquisition costs, rehabilitation costs, and related costs. In cases where the property is donated, the acquisition costs are the prerehabilitated estimated market value as established for property tax purposes. Donated property may be used to satisfy the match requirement.

Sec. 235. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 462A.21, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Sec. 252. [PURPOSE FOR MINNESOTA INSTITUTE FOR ADDICTION AND STRESS RESEARCH.]

To place Minnesota in a leadership role for neurobiological research of addictive disorders and stress-related diseases, the legislature finds it necessary to establish a research institute dedicated to clinical and basic scientific investigation of addictive disorders and stress-related diseases. Because of the critical relationship between addictive and stress-related disorders, the institute will study the neurobiological origins of stress and will investigate and develop therapies for other stress-related medical disorders that are not responsive to available medical therapies. Regarding addictive disorders, the institute's primary objective is to develop and test new scientifically based therapy to reduce the rate of recidivism in the addicted population and lower the costs of therapy. Furthermore, the institute will stimulate and attract significant new research activity to Minnesota.

Sec. 253. [LEAD CONTAMINATION; DEMONSTRATION PROJECTS.]

Notwithstanding Minnesota Statutes, section 256B.091, and rules of the commissioner of human services relating to the alternative care grants program, the commissioner may authorize pilot projects to use pre-capitated rates; to provide expanded services such as chore services, activities, and meal planning, preparation, and serving; and to waive freedom of choice of vendor to the extent necessary to allow one vendor to provide services to all eligible persons in a residence or building. The commissioner may apply for a waiver of federal requirements as necessary to implement the pilot projects.

(2) the ability of each project to target low-income, frail elderly;

(3) the cost-effectiveness of each project, including the financial impact on the resident, the state, and the county;

(2) identifies the level of counseling and education that is occurring for individuals who are tested for the human immunodeficiency virus and specifies whether additional measures are needed to ensure that individuals tested for the human immunodeficiency virus are adequately counseled about the meaning of the test, test results, and steps the individual should take to protect the individual and others from infection.

Sec. 261. [CHILD CARE SERVICES STUDY.]

The commissioner of human services shall study the existing public and private funding sources for child care services and the development of child care services, including the AFDC special needs program, the sliding fee child care program, the maternal and child nutrition program, county funding, Title XX funding, and private foundation, corporate, community social services act, or nonprofit funding to child care services providers and parents. (ii) the need for subsidized child care services for low-income parents is being met;

(iii) present funding mechanisms are efficient or can be made more efficient;

(iv) alternative or improved methods may encourage private funding for child care services;

(k) Agricultural land, either leased or owned, totaling no more than 2,700 acres, acquired after May 20, 1973 for the purpose of replacing or expanding asparagus growing operations, provided that such corporation had established 2,000 acres of asparagus production;

(l) All agricultural land or land capable of being used for farming which was owned or leased by an authorized farm corporation as defined in Minnesota Statutes 1974, section 500.24, subdivision 1, clause (d) but which does not qualify as an authorized farm corporation as defined in subdivision 2, clause (d);

(p) An interest in the title to agricultural land acquired by a pension fund or family trust established by the owners of a family farm, authorized farm corporation or family farm corporation, but limited to the farm on which one or more of those owners or shareholders have resided or have been actively engaged in farming as required by subdivision 2, clause (b), (c), or (d);

(q) Agricultural land owned by a nursing home located in a city with a population, according to the state demographer's 1985 estimate, between 900 and 1,000, in a county with a population, according to the state demographer's 1985 estimate, between 18,000 and 19,000, if the land was given to the nursing home as a gift with the expectation that it would not be sold during the donor's lifetime. This exemption is available until July 1, 1995;

(r) The acreage of agricultural land and land capable of being used for farming owned and recorded by an authorized farm corporation as defined in Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 500.24, subdivision 2, paragraph (d), or a limited partnership as of May 1, 1988, including the normal expansion of the ownership at a rate not to exceed 20 percent of the land owned and recorded as of May 1, 1988, measured in acres, in any five-year period, and including additional ownership reasonably necessary to meet the requirements of pollution control rules.

The report of a corporation seeking to qualify hereunder as a family farm corporation or, an authorized farm corporation, a family farm partnership, or authorized farm partnership shall contain the following additional information: The number of shares or the partnership interests owned by persons residing on the farm or actively engaged in farming, or their relatives within the third degree of kindred according to the rules of the civil law or their spouses; the name, address and number of shares owned by each shareholder or partnership interests owned by each partner; and a statement as to percentage of gross receipts of the corporation derived from rent, royalties, dividends, interest and annuities. Sec. 7. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 500.24, subdivision 5, is amended to read:

Subd. 5. [ENFORCEMENT.] With reason to believe that a corporation, limited partnership, or pension or investment fund is violating subdivision 3, the attorney general shall commence an action in the district court in which any agricultural lands relative to such violation are situated, or if situated in two or more counties, in any county in which a substantial part of the lands are situated. The attorney general shall file for record with the county recorder or the registrar of titles of each county in which any portion of said lands are located a notice of the pendency of the action as provided in section 557.02. If the court finds that the lands in question are being held in violation of subdivision 3, it shall enter an order so declaring. The attorney general shall file for record any such order with the county recorder or the registrar of titles of each county in which any portion of said lands are located. Thereafter, the pension or investment fund, limited partnership, or corporation owning such land shall have a period of five years from the date of such order to divest itself of such lands. The aforementioned five year limitation period shall be deemed a covenant running with the title to the land against any pension or investment fund, limited partnership, or corporate grantee or assignee or the successor of such pension or investment fund, limited partnership, or corporation. Any lands not so divested within the time prescribed shall be sold at public sale in the manner prescribed by law for the foreclosure of a mortgage by action. In addition, any prospective or threatened violation may be enjoined by an action brought by the attorney general in the manner provided by law.

Sec. 8. Minnesota Statutes 1987 Supplement, section 500.24, subdivision 6, is amended to read:

Subd. 6. [DISPOSAL OF LAND.] (a) A state or federal agency, limited partnership, or a corporation, other than a family farm corporation or an authorized farm corporation, may not lease or sell agricultural land or a farm homestead that was acquired by enforcing a debt against the agricultural land or farm homestead, including foreclosure of a mortgage, accepting a deed in lieu of foreclosure, terminating a contract for deed, or accepting a deed in lieu of terminating a contract for deed, before offering or making a good faith effort to offer the land for sale or lease to the immediately preceding former owner at a price no higher than the highest price offered by a third party that is acceptable to the seller or lessor. The offer must be made on the notice to offer form under subdivision 7. Selling or leasing property to a third party at a price is prima facie evidence that the price is acceptable to the seller or lessor.

(b) For purposes of this subdivision, the term "a price no higher than the highest price offered by a third party" means the acceptable cash price offered by a third party or the acceptable time-price offer made by a third party. A cash price offer is one that involves simultaneous transfer of title for payment of the entire amount of the offer. If the acceptable offer made by a third party is a time-price offer, the seller or lessor must make the same time-price offer or an equivalent cash offer to the immediately preceding former owner. An equivalent cash offer is equal to the total of the payments made over a period of the time-price offer discounted by yield curve of the United States treasury notes and bonds on the first business day of the month in which the offer is personally delivered or mailed for time periods similar to the time period covered by the time-price offer, plus 2.0 percent. A time-price offer is an offer that defers payment of a portion of the price and does not involve a transfer of fee title until payment of the entire amount of the offer is made.

(c) This subdivision applies to a seller when the property is sold and to a lessor each time the property is leased, for five years after the agricultural land is acquired except:

(1) an offer to lease to the immediately preceding former owner is required only until the immediately preceding owner fails to accept an offer to lease the property or the property is sold; and

(2) an offer to sell to the immediately preceding former owner is required until the property is sold.

(d) The notice of an offer under subdivision 7 that is personally delivered with a signed receipt or sent by certified mail with a receipt of mailing to the immediately preceding former owner's last known address is a good faith offer.

(e) This subdivision does not apply to a sale or lease that occurs after the seller or lessor has held the property for five years or longer.

(f) For purposes of this subdivision, if the immediately preceding former owner is a bankruptcy estate the debtor in the bankruptcy is the immediately preceding owner.

(g) The immediately preceding former owner must exercise the right to lease agricultural land or a homestead located on agricultural land in writing within 15 days after an offer to lease under this subdivision is mailed with a receipt of mailing or personally delivered. The immediately preceding former owner must exercise the right to buy the agricultural land or farm homestead located on agricultural land, in writing, within 65 days after an offer to buy under this subdivision is mailed with a receipt of mailing or is personally delivered. Within ten days after exercising the right to lease or buy by accepting the offer, the immediately preceding owner must fully perform according to the terms of the offer including paying the amounts due. A seller may sell and a lessor may lease the agricultural land or farm homestead subject to this subdivision to the third party in accordance with their lease or purchase agreement if:

(1) the immediately preceding former owner does not accept an offer to lease or buy before the offer terminates; or

(2) the immediately preceding former owner does not perform the obligations of the offer, including paying the amounts due, within ten days after accepting the offer.

(h) A certificate indicating whether or not the property contains agricultural land or a farm homestead that is signed by the county assessor where the property is located and recorded in the office of the county recorder or the registrar of titles where the property is located is prima facie evidence of whether the property is agricultural land or a farm homestead.

(i) As prima facie evidence that an offer to sell or lease agricultural land or a farm homestead has terminated, a receipt of mailing the notice under subdivision 7 and an affidavit, signed by a person authorized to act on behalf of a state, federal agency, or corporation selling or leasing the agricultural land or a farm homestead may be filed in the office of the county recorder or registrar of titles of the county where the agricultural land or farm homestead is located. The affidavit must state that:

(1) notice of an offer to buy or lease the agricultural land or farm homestead was provided to the immediately preceding former owner at a price not higher than the highest price offered by a third party that is acceptable;

(2) the time during which the immediately preceding former owner is required to exercise the right to buy or lease the agricultural land or farm homestead has expired;

(3) the immediately preceding former owner has not exercised the right to buy or lease the agricultural land or farm homestead as provided in this subdivision or has accepted an offer and has not fully performed according to the terms of the offer; and

(4) the offer to the immediately preceding former owner has terminated.

(j) The right of an immediately preceding former owner to receive an offer to lease or purchase agricultural land under this subdivision or to lease or purchase at a price no higher than the highest price offered by a third party that is acceptable to the seller or lessor may be extinguished or limited by an express statement signed by the immediately preceding owner that complies with the plain language requirements of section 325G.31. The right may not be extinguished or limited except by the express statement in a deed in lieu of foreclosure or in a deed in lieu of a termination of a contract for deed for the agricultural land.

(k) The right of an immediately preceding former owner to receive an offer to lease or purchase agricultural land under this subdivision may not be assigned or transferred, but may be inherited.

Sec. 9. Minnesota Statutes 1987 Supplement, section 500.24, subdivision 7, is amended to read:

The commissioner shall prescribe a procedure for taking samples and having the samples certified by both the person receiving and the person delivering the grain as being true samples of the grain in dispute on the day the grain is delivered and sampled. Samples must be forwarded prepaid in suitable air-tight containers, with the names and addresses of the person receiving and the person delivering the grain, to the head of the grain inspection division of the department. The head of the grain inspection division shall examine samples submitted, and determine the proper grade, dockage, moisture content, protein content, and other factors used in establishing the market price of the samples of grain in accordance with the inspection rules and the standards established by the United States Department of Agriculture and the state of Minnesota. The test results must be based on the arithmetic mean of the samples submitted. If a person requesting the inspection asks for determination of some but not all of the factors that affect market price, the department shall perform only the requested tests on the samples. A person requesting the inspection must pay the required fee before the results of the inspection are released. The fee charged must be the same as that required for similar services rendered by the grain inspection division. Payment for the grain involved in a disagreement must be made on the basis of grade, dockage, moisture content, protein content, and other market pricing factors certified by the department on samples submitted. An appeal of the determination made by the department may be made as provided under the United States Grain Standards Act, United States Code, title 7, section 79, subsection (c), and the Code of Federal Regulations, title 7, sections 800.125 to 800.140. A person receiving or delivering grain that is subject to this section is liable for damages resulting from not abiding by the determination made by the department. A person who violates this section is subject to penalties prescribed in section 17B.29.

(b) A licensed business that uses test equipment as defined in section 17B.02 to perform tests or analysis on grain to be purchased or placed in storage must post at the place of business a notice informing persons selling or delivering grain of their right to have a representative sample of the grain forwarded to the grain inspection division for analysis. The commissioner shall provide copies of the notice to each business licensed to buy or receive grain. The business must display the notice in a conspicuous location as prescribed by the commissioner.

Sec. 14. [EFFECTIVE DATE.]

Section 3, 4, 5, 6, 7, 8, 9, 10, or 11 is effective 30 days after at least three states representing 30 percent or more of the national production of that grain according to the current United States Department of Agriculture crop production summary requires that a premium be paid for the grain based on the factors provided in the section. Section 3, 4, 5, 6, 7, 8, 9, 10, or 11 applies to purchasers of grain in this state 30 days after the commissioner publishes notice in the State Register that the section is effective. [SAMPLING; ANALYSIS.] The commissioner and the commissioner's agents may sample, inspect, make analysis of, and test industrial by-product soil buffering materials used in the demonstration project and study at a time and place and to an extent the commissioner considers necessary to determine whether the industrial by-product soil buffering materials are suitable for the project. The commissioner and the commissioner's agents may enter public or private premises where demonstration projects are being conducted in order to have access to:

- (1) soil buffering materials used in the demonstration project;
- (2) sampling of sites actually or reportedly exposed to industrial by-product soil buffering materials;
- (3) inspection of storage, handling, transportation, use, or disposal areas of industrial by-product soil buffering materials;

RURAL FINANCE AUTHORITY

Section 1. Minnesota Statutes 1987 Supplement, section 41B.01, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [PURPOSE.] Sections 41B.01 to 41B.23 create and establish the Minnesota rural finance authority and establish a program under which state bonds are authorized to be issued and proceeds of their sale are appropriated under the authority of article XI, section 5, clause (h) of the Minnesota Constitution, to develop the state's agricultural resources by extending credit on real estate security. The purpose of the rural finance authority's programs and of the bonds issued to finance or provide security for the programs is to purchase participation interests in loans, including seller-sponsored loans to be made available by agricultural lenders to farmers on terms and conditions not otherwise available from other credit sources. It is hereby found and declared that there presently exist in the state economic conditions which have severely adversely affected the economic viability of farms to the detriment of the rural economy and to the detriment of the economy of the state of Minnesota as a whole. It is further found and declared that as a result of public agricultural policies, agricultural market conditions, and other causes, the condition of the farm economy of the state of Minnesota is such as to jeopardize the continued existence and successful operation of farms in this state, necessitating the establishment of the programs in sections 41B.01 to 41B.23 to provide new sources of credit on favorable terms and conditions. It is further found and declared that providing credit for farmers on favorable terms and conditions will serve and promote the public welfare by assuring the viability of farm operations, by preventing erosion of the tax base in rural areas, by reducing foreclosures on farm property, and by enhancing the financial stability of farmers and of the businesses which depend on farmers as customers. It is further found and declared that in establishing a Minnesota rural finance authority and in authorizing the programs in sections 41B.01 to 41B.23, the legislature is acting in all respects for the benefit of the people of the state of Minnesota to serve the public purpose of improving and otherwise promoting their health, welfare, and prosperity and that the Minnesota rural finance authority, as created and established, is empowered to act on behalf of the people of the state of Minnesota in serving this public purpose for the benefit of the general public.

Sec. 2. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 41B.02, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 18. [SELLER-SPONSORED LOAN.] "Seller-sponsored loan" means a loan in which part or all of the price of a farm is financed by a loan from the seller of the farm who is a natural person, a partnership, or a family farm corporation as defined in section 500.24, located in Minnesota. The loan must be secured by a real estate mortgage evidenced by one or more notes that may carry different interest rates or by a contract for deed. The definition of a seller-sponsored loan under this subdivision does not include a loan between persons within the second degree of kindred according to common law. A seller-sponsored loan may not be made to a person who has previously defaulted on a state loan or state guarantee of a loan.

Sec. 3. Minnesota Statutes 1987 Supplement, section 41B.03, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [BEGINNING FARMER LOANS.] In addition to the requirements under subdivision 1, a prospective borrower for a beginning farm loan, including a seller-sponsored loan, in which the authority holds an interest, must:

- (1) have sufficient education, training, or experience in the type of farming for which the loan is desired;
- (2) have a total net worth, including assets and liabilities of the borrower's spouse and dependents, of less than $100,000;
- (3) demonstrate a need for the loan;
- (4) demonstrate an ability to repay the loan;
- (5) demonstrate that the agricultural land to be purchased will be used by the borrower for agricultural purposes; and
- (6) demonstrate that farming will be the principal occupation of the borrower.

Sec. 4. Minnesota Statutes 1987 Supplement, section 41B.039, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [ESTABLISHMENT.] The authority may establish, develop criteria, and implement a beginning farmer program. The program must assist persons entering farming who have not owned a farm before entering the beginning farmer program. The program may include assistance for persons entering or reentering farming through the use of seller-sponsored loans.

Sec. 5. Minnesota Statutes 1987 Supplement, section 41B.039, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [STATE PARTICIPATION.] The state may participate in a new real estate loan with an eligible lender to a beginning farmer to the extent of ~~one-fourth~~ 35 percent of the principal amount of the loan or $25,000 $50,000, whichever is less. The interest rates and repayment terms of the authority's participation interest may be different than the interest rates and repayment terms of the lender's retained portion of the loan.

Sec. 6. Minnesota Statutes 1987 Supplement, section 41B.039, subdivision 4, is amended to read:

Subd. 4. [FARM MANAGEMENT.] A borrower must agree to participate in a farm management program approved by the commissioner of agriculture for at least the first ~~eight~~ five years of the loan.

CONFERENCE COMMITTEE REPORT ON S. F. NO. 203

A bill for an act relating to financial institutions; permitting interstate banking with additional reciprocating states; amending Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 48.92, subdivision 7.

April 15, 1988

The Honorable Jerome M. Hughes
President of the Senate

The Honorable Robert Vanasek
Speaker of the House of Representatives

We, the undersigned conferees for S. F. No. 203, report that we have agreed upon the items in dispute and recommend as follows:

That the House recede from its amendments and that S. F. No. 203 be further amended as follows:

"Sec. 2. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 48.93, subdivision 4, is amended to read:

Subd. 4. [DISAPPROVAL.] The commissioner shall disapprove any proposed acquisition if:

(1) the financial condition of any acquiring person is such as might jeopardize the financial stability of the bank or prejudice the interests of the depositors of the bank;

(2) the competence, experience, integrity of any acquiring person or of any of the proposed management personnel indicates that it would not be in the interest of the depositors of the bank, or in the interest of the public to permit the person to control the bank;

(3) the acquisition will result in undue concentration of resources or substantial lessening of competition in this state;

(4) the application fails to adequately demonstrate that the acquisition proposal would bring net new funds into Minnesota; or

(5) the application is incomplete or any acquiring party neglects, fails, or refuses to furnish all the information required by the commissioner;

(6) a subsidiary of the acquiring bank holding company has failed to meet the requirements set forth in the federal Community Reinvestment Act; or

(7) the acquisition will result in over 30 percent of Minnesota's total deposits in financial institutions as defined in section 13A.01, subdivision 2, being held by banks located in this state owned by reciprocating state bank holding companies. This limitation does not apply to consideration for approval pursuant to section 48.99, special acquisitions.

Sec. 3. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 48.95, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [DIVESTITURE; CEASE AND DESIST.] In the event a reciprocating state bank holding company makes an acquisition other than in full compliance with the requirements and procedures of Laws 1986, chapter 339, the commissioner may:

(1) by order immediately require the reciprocating state bank holding company to divest itself of its direct or indirect ownership or control of any bank located in this state; or

(2) by order require the reciprocating state bank holding company to cease and desist the violations by a date certain. The order would be subject to the procedures applicable to cease and desist proceedings pursuant to sections 46.23 to 46.33 and any applicable rules; or

(3) in the event control of a bank located in this state is acquired by a bank holding company that is not a reciprocating state bank holding company as a result of change of control of a reciprocating state bank holding company, the acquiring bank holding company shall divest itself of control of the bank located in this state within two years of the date of its acquisition of control of the bank.

Sec. 4. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 48.991, is amended to read:

48.991 [DEVELOPMENTAL LOANS.]

A ~~financial institution~~ bank located in this state owned by an interstate bank holding company shall provide a level of developmental loans as defined by the commissioner by rule. In establishing the developmental loan levels for banks, the commissioner may consider the developmental loan performance of financially stable banks of comparable or smaller size that have above average levels of activity in developmental loans in reciprocating states as defined in section 48.92, subdivision 7. A "developmental loan" includes, but is not limited to, (1) loans for low and moderate income housing, loans to community development corporations, loans to woman and minority owned businesses, student education loans, and alternative energy or energy conservation loans, and (2) loans within distressed areas and on any Indian reservation for any commercial nonreal estate purpose, home loans, home improvement loans, and operating loans to family farmers. The commissioner of commerce shall annually designate distressed areas. A distressed area may be made for a geographic region smaller than a county within the counties of Anoka, Carver, Dakota, Hennepin, Ramsey, Scott, and Washington. The determination of a distressed area should be made on the area's unemployment rate, economic conditions, and credit needs.

Sec. 5. [RECOMMENDATIONS OF THE COMMISSIONER OF COMMERCE.]

The commissioner of commerce shall recommend to the financial institutions and insurance committee of the house of representatives and the commerce committee of the senate by January 1, 1989, reporting requirements for financial institutions as defined in Minnesota Statutes, section 13A.01, subdivision 2, that address a financial institution's commitment and performance in investing in their community. The recommendations must address the following:

(1) the amount of developmental loans that financial institutions have made within their service areas. Developmental loans include, but are not limited to, loans for low and moderate income housing, operating loans to family farmers, loans made in distressed areas of the state, commercial loans to minority-owned and woman-owned businesses, loans for alternative energy and energy conservation, student loans, loans made for businesses and housing-related loans within Indian reservations, and loans to community-based economic development organizations;

(2) the degree of "redlining" by financial institutions within their service areas;

(3) the effect of reporting requirements on various sizes and types of financial institutions; and

(4) the adequacy of existing federal and state reporting requirements of financial institutions."

Amend the title as follows:

Page 1, line 4, after the semicolon insert "regulating reciprocal interstate banking; requiring the commissioner to recommend reporting requirements;"

Page 1, line 5, before the period insert "; 48.93, subdivision 4; 48.95, subdivision 1; and 48.991"

After July 31, 1985,

(b) "Motor vehicle" also includes an all-terrain vehicle, as defined in section 84.92, subdivision 8, which (1) has at least four wheels, (2) is owned and operated by a physically handicapped person, and (3) displays both physically handicapped license plates and a physically handicapped certificate issued under section 169.345, subdivision 3.

(c) Motor vehicle does not include a ~~three-wheel off-road~~ an all-terrain vehicle as defined in section 84.92, subdivision 8; except ~~that if the three-wheel off-road~~ (1) an all-terrain vehicle described in paragraph (b), or (2) an all-terrain vehicle was licensed as a motor vehicle before August 1, 1985, in which case the owner may continue to license it as a motor vehicle until it is conveyed or otherwise transferred to another owner, is destroyed, or fails to comply with the registration and licensing requirements of this chapter.

Subd. 2. [FINANCE CHARGE FOR CREDIT SALES MADE BY A THIRD PARTY.] (a) A person may enter into a credit sale contract for sale to an association and an association may purchase and enforce a contract evidencing the sale, if the annual percentage rate provided for in the contract does not exceed that permitted in this section, or, in the case of contracts governed by sections 168.66 to 168.77, the rates permitted by those sections.

(b) Except as provided in subdivision 4, the annual percentage rate may not exceed the equivalent of the greater of either of the following:

(1) the total of:

(i) 36 percent per year on that part of the unpaid balances of the amount financed which is $300 or less;

(ii) 21 percent per year on that part of the unpaid balances of the amount financed which exceeds $300 but does not exceed $1,000; and

(iii) 15 percent per year on that part of the unpaid balances of the amount financed which exceeds $1,000; or

(2) 19 percent per year on the unpaid balances of the amount financed.

(c) This subdivision does not limit or restrict the manner of calculating or charging the finance charge whether by way of add-on, discount, discount points, single annual percentage rate, precomputed charges, variable rate, interest in advance, compounding or otherwise, if the annual percentage rate calculated under paragraph (d) does not exceed that permitted by this section. The finance charge may be contracted for and earned at the single annual percentage rate that would earn the same finance charge as the graduated rates when the debt is paid according to the agreed terms and the finance charge is calculated under paragraph (d). If a finance charge is calculated or collected in advance, or included in the principal amount of the contract, and the borrower prepays the contract in full, the association shall credit the borrower with a refund of the charge based on the actuarial method of computing an unearned finance charge.

(d) The annual percentage rate must be calculated in accordance with Code of Federal Regulations, title 12, part 226, but using the definition of finance charge in section 51A.02, and computed on the basis of a 365-day year.

Subd. 3. [FINANCE CHARGE FOR LOANS.] Except as provided in subdivision 4:

(a) With respect to a loan, including a loan pursuant to open-end credit but excluding open-end credit pursuant to a credit card, an association may contract for and receive a finance charge at an annual percentage rate not exceeding 19 percent per year. With respect to open-end credit pursuant to a credit card, an association may contract for and receive a finance charge at an annual percentage rate not exceeding 18 percent per year. With respect to a loan made pursuant to open-end credit, the finance charge shall be considered not to exceed the maximum annual percentage rate permitted pursuant to this section if the finance charge contracted for and received does not exceed the equivalent of the maximum annual percentage rate computed on a 365-day year calculated in accordance with Code of Federal Regulations, title 12, part 226, but using the definition of finance charge in section 51A.02.

(b) This subdivision does not limit or restrict the manner of calculating the finance charge, whether by way of add-on, discount, single annual percentage rate, variable rate, interest in advance, compounding, average daily balance method, or otherwise, if the annual percentage rate does not exceed that permitted by this section. If a finance charge is calculated or collected in advance, or included in the principal amount of the loan, and the borrower prepays the loan in full, the association shall credit the borrower with a refund of the charge to the extent that the annual percentage rate on the loan would exceed the maximum rate permitted under paragraph (a), taking into account the prepayment.

Subd. 4. [ADDITIONAL AUTHORITY.] Extensions of credit, and purchases of extensions of credit, authorized by sections 47.20, subdivision 1, 3, or 4a; 47.204; 47.21; 48.153; 48.185; sections 168.66 to 168.77, or section 334.01, subdivision 2; and section 334.011 may, but need not, be made pursuant to those sections in lieu of the authority set forth in subdivisions 1 to 3, and if so, are subject to the provisions of those sections, and not the provisions of this section, except this subdivision. An association may also charge an organization any rate of interest and any charges agreed to by the borrower, and may calculate and collect finance and other charges in any manner agreed to by the borrower. Except for extensions of credit the association elects to make under section 334.01, subdivision 2; or 334.011, the provisions of chapter 334 do not apply to extensions of credit made pursuant to this section or the sections mentioned in this subdivision.

(3) with respect to a loan secured by real estate, including a real estate loan, the following "closing costs," if they are bona fide, reasonable in amount, and not for the purpose of circumvention or evasion of this section:

(b) An additional charge may be made for insurance written in connection with the loan:

(2) with respect to credit insurance providing life, accident, health, or unemployment coverage, if the insurance coverage is not required by the association, and this fact is clearly and conspicuously disclosed in writing to the borrower, and the borrower gives specific, dated, and separately signed affirmative written indication of the borrower's desire to do so after written disclosure to the borrower of the cost of the insurance; and

(3) with respect to vendor's single interest insurance, but only (i) to the extent that the insurer has no right of subrogation against the borrower, and (ii) to the extent that the insurance does not duplicate the coverage of other insurance under which loss is payable to the association as its interest may appear, against loss of or damage to property for which a separate charge is made to the borrower pursuant to paragraph (b), clause (1), and (iii) if a clear, conspicuous, and specific statement in writing is furnished by the association to the borrower setting forth the cost of the insurance if obtained from or through the association and stating that the borrower may choose the person through whom the insurance is to be obtained.

(c) In addition to the finance charges and other additional charges permitted by this section, an association may contract for and receive the following additional charges in connection with open-end credit:

(5) charges for check and draft copies and for the replacement of lost or stolen credit cards.

Subd. 6. [ADVANCES TO PERFORM COVENANTS OF BORROWER OR PURCHASER.] (a) If the agreement with respect to a loan or contract contains covenants by the borrower or purchaser to perform certain duties pertaining to insuring or preserving collateral and the association pursuant to the agreement pays for performance of the duties on behalf of the borrower or purchaser, the association may add to the debt or contract balance the amounts so advanced. Within a reasonable time after advancing any sums, the association shall state to the borrower or purchaser in writing the amount of sums advanced, any charges with respect to this amount, and any revised payment schedule and, if the duties of the borrower or purchaser performed by the association pertain to insurance, a brief description of the insurance paid for by the association including the type and amount of coverages. Further information need not be given.

(b) A finance charge equal to that specified in the loan agreement or contract may be made for sums advanced under paragraph (a).

Subd. 7. [ATTORNEY'S FEES.] With respect to a loan or credit sale, the agreement may provide for payment by the borrower of the attorney's fees incurred in connection with collection or foreclosure.

Subd. 8. [RIGHT TO PREPAY.] The borrower or purchaser may prepay in full the unpaid balance of a consumer loan or contract, at any time without penalty.

Subd. 9. [CREDIT INSURANCE.] (a) The sale of credit insurance is subject to the provisions of chapter 62B and the rules adopted under that chapter, but the term of the insurance may exceed 60 months if the loan exceeds 60 months and the insurance will nevertheless be subject to chapter 62B and the rules adopted under that chapter.

(b) An association which provides credit insurance in relation to open-end credit may calculate the charge to the borrower in each billing cycle by applying the current premium rate to the balance in the manner permitted with respect to finance charges by the provisions on finance charge in this section.

(c) Upon prepayment in full of a consumer loan by the proceeds of credit insurance, the consumer or the consumer's estate is entitled to a refund of any portion of a separate charge for insurance which by reason of prepayment is retained by the association or returned to it by the insurer, unless the charge was computed from time to time on the basis of the balances of the consumer's loan.

(d) This section does not require an association to grant a refund to the consumer if all refunds due to the consumer under paragraph (c) amount to less than $1 and, except as provided in paragraph (c), does not require the association to account to the consumer for any portion of a separate charge for insurance because:

(1) the insurance is terminated by performance of the insurer's obligation;

(2) the association pays or accounts for premiums to the insurer in amounts and at times determined by the agreement between them;
or

(3) the association receives directly or indirectly under any policy of insurance a gain or advantage not prohibited by law.

(e) Except as provided in paragraph (d), the association shall promptly make or cause to be made an appropriate refund to the consumer with respect to any separate charge made to the consumer for insurance if:

(1) the insurance is not provided or is provided for a shorter term than for which the charge to the borrower for insurance was computed; or

(2) the insurance terminates before the end of the term for which it was written because of prepayment in full or otherwise.

(f) If an association requires insurance, upon notice to the borrower, the borrower has the option of providing the required insurance through an existing policy of insurance owned or controlled by the borrower, or through a policy to be obtained and paid for by the borrower, but the association for reasonable cause may decline the insurance provided by the borrower.

Subd. 10. [PROPERTY AND LIABILITY INSURANCE.] (a) Except as otherwise provided in this section and subject to the provisions on additional charges and maximum finance charges in this section, an association may agree to provide property and liability insurance, and may contract for and receive a charge for such insurance separate from and in addition to other charges. An association need not make a separate charge for the insurance provided or required by it. This section does not authorize the issuance of the insurance prohibited under any statute or rule governing the business of insurance.

(b) This section does not apply to an insurance premium loan. An association may request cancellation of a policy of property or liability insurance only after the borrower's default or in accordance with a written authorization by the borrower. In either case, the cancellation does not take effect until written notice is delivered to the borrower or mailed to the borrower at the borrower's address as stated by the borrower. The notice must state that the policy may be canceled on a date not less than ten days after the notice is delivered, or, if the notice is mailed, not less than 13 days after it is mailed. A cancellation may not take effect until those notice periods expire.

Subd. 11. [CONSUMER PROTECTIONS.] (a) Associations shall comply with the requirements of the Federal Truth in Lending Act, United States Code, title 15, section 1601 to 1693, in connection with a consumer loan or credit sale for a consumer loan purpose.

(b) Associations shall comply with the following consumer protection provisions in connection with a consumer loan or credit sale for a consumer purpose: sections 325G.02 to 325G.05; 325G.06 to 325G.11; 325G.15 to 325G.22; and 325G.29 to 325G.36, and the Code of Federal Regulations, title 12, part 535.

(c) An assignment of a consumer's earnings by the consumer to an association as payment or as security for payment of a debt arising out of a consumer loan or consumer credit sale is unenforceable by the association and revocable by the consumer.

Subd. 12. [LOANS OTHER THAN CONSUMER LOANS.] Loans other than consumer loans are not subject to the provisions and limitations of subdivisions 3, 5, 8, 9, 10, and 11.

Subd. 13. [EFFECT OF VIOLATIONS ON RIGHTS OF PARTIES.] (a) If an association has violated any provision of this section applying to collection of finance or other charges, the borrower has a cause of action to recover damages and also a right in an action other than a class action, to recover from the association violating this section a penalty in an amount determined by the court not less than $100 nor more than $1,000. With respect to violations arising from other than open-end credit transactions, no action may be brought pursuant to this paragraph and no set-off or recoupment may be asserted pursuant to this paragraph, more than one year after the making of the debt.

(b) A borrower is not obligated to pay a charge in excess of that allowed by this section and has a right of refund of any excess charge paid. A refund may not be made by reducing the borrower's obligation by the amount of the excess charge, unless the association has notified the borrower that the borrower may request a refund and the borrower has not so requested within 30 days thereafter. If the debtor has paid an amount in excess of the lawful obligation under the agreement, the borrower may recover the excess amount from the association who made the excess charge or from an assignee of the association's rights who undertakes direct collection of payments from or enforcement of rights against borrowers arising from the debt.

(c) If an association has contracted for or received a charge in excess of that allowed by this section, or if a borrower is entitled to a refund and a person liable to the borrower refuses to make a refund within a reasonable time after demand, the borrower may recover from the association or the person liable in an action other than a class action a penalty in an amount determined by the court not less than $100 nor more than $1,000. With respect to excess charges arising from other than open-end credit transactions, no action pursuant to this paragraph may be brought more than one year after the making of the debt. For purposes of this paragraph, a reasonable time is presumed to be 30 days.

(d) A violation of this section does not impair rights on a debt.

(e) An association is not liable for a penalty under paragraph (a) or (c) if it notifies the borrower of a violation before the association receives from the borrower written notice of the violation or the borrower has brought an action under this section, and the association corrects the violation within 45 days after notifying the borrower. If the violation consists of a prohibited agreement, giving the borrower a corrected copy of the writing containing the violation is sufficient notification and correction. If the violation consists of an excess charge, correction must be made by an adjustment or refund.

(f) An association may not be held liable in an action brought under this section for a violation of this section if the association shows by a preponderance of evidence that the violation was not intentional and resulted from a bona fide error notwithstanding the maintenance of procedures reasonably adopted to avoid the error.

(g) In an action in which it is found that an association has violated this section, the court shall award to the borrower the costs of the action and to the borrower's attorneys their reasonable fees.

HOUSE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION NO. 27

A House concurrent resolution relating to the governor's item veto power; clarifying the effect of the governor's veto of H.F. No. 243, article 2, section 157, enacted by the 1987 legislature.

Whereas, the Minnesota Constitution, article IV, section 23, authorizes the governor to veto an item of appropriation of money when he signs a bill containing several items of appropriation of money; and

Whereas, when Governor Rudy Perpich signed H.F. No. 243 following the 1987 regular session of the 75th Legislature, he appended to it a statement that he was vetoing article 2, section 157, which contained an appropriation of oil overcharge money received from the federal government; and

Whereas, section 157 of H.F. No. 243 contains provisions which are not items of appropriation, but rather restrict the authority to expend oil overcharge moneys and direct development of spending plans for the expenditure of oil overcharge moneys;

Whereas, the governor's veto message purports to invalidate and veto section 157 in its entirety, including the portions that are not items of appropriation;

Whereas, silence by the Legislature on the Governor's purported veto of subdivision 3 might wrongly be construed as acceptance of a governor's power to veto items that are not appropriations of money; Now, Therefore,

Be It Resolved by the Minnesota House of Representatives, the Senate concurring, that notwithstanding the governor's veto, the provisions of section 157 that do not consist of items authorizing expenditure of money out of the state treasury are effective and the law of the state of Minnesota until repealed or modified by an action of the legislature under article IV of the constitution.

Be It Further Resolved, the chief clerk of the House of Representatives shall transmit enrolled copies of this resolution to Governor Rudy Perpich and to the Secretary of State to be filed with the enrolled copy of H.F. No. 243, Laws 1987, chapter 403.

The Honorable Robert Vanasek
Speaker of the House of Representatives

We, the undersigned conferees for S. F. No. 2491, report that we have agreed upon the items in dispute and recommend as follows:

That the House recede from its amendments and that S. F. No. 2491 be further amended as follows:

Delete everything after the enacting clause and insert:

"Section 1. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 473.13, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [BUDGET.] On or before October 1 of each year the council, after a public hearing, shall adopt a budget covering its anticipated receipts and disbursements for the ensuing year and shall decide upon the total amount necessary to be raised from ad valorem tax levies to meet its budget. The budget shall state in detail the expenditures for each program to be undertaken, including the expenses for salaries, consultant services, overhead, travel, printing, and other items. The budget shall state in detail the capital expenditures of the council for the budget year, based on a five-year capital program adopted by the council and transmitted to the legislature. After adoption of the budget, an increase of over $10,000 in the council's budget, a program or department budget, or a budget item, must be approved by the council before the increase is allowed or the funds obligated. After adoption of the budget and no later than October 1, the council shall certify to the auditor of each metropolitan county the share of the tax to be levied within that county, which must be an amount bearing the same proportion to the total levy agreed on by the council as the assessed valuation of the county bears to the assessed valuation of the metropolitan area. The maximum amount of any levy made for the purpose of this chapter may not exceed the limits set by sections 473.167 and 473.249.

Sec. 2. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 473.13, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 1a. [PROGRAM EVALUATION.] The budget procedure of the council must include a substantive assessment and evaluation of the effectiveness of each significant program of the council, with, to the extent possible, quantitative information on the status, progress, costs, benefits, and effects of each program. The council shall transmit the evaluation to the legislature annually.

Sec. 3. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 473.146, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [TRANSPORTATION CHAPTER OF THE DEVELOPMENT GUIDE.] The transportation chapter must include policies relating to all transportation forms and be designed to promote the legislative determinations, policies and goals set forth in section 473.371. In addition to the requirements of subdivision 1 regarding the contents of the policy plan, the nontransit element of the transportation chapter must include the following:

(1) a statement of the needs and problems of the metropolitan area with respect to the functions covered and, including the present and prospective demand for and constraints on access to regional business concentrations and other major activity centers and the constraints on and acceptable levels of development and vehicular trip generation at such centers;

(2) the objectives of and the policies to be forwarded by the policy plan;

(2) (3) a general description of the physical facilities and services to be developed;

(3) (4) a statement as to the general location of physical facilities and service areas;

(4) (5) a general statement of timing and priorities in the development of those physical facilities and service areas; and

(5) (6) a detailed statement, updated every two years, of timing and priorities for improvements and expenditures needed on the metropolitan highway system; and

(7) a general statement on the level of public expenditure appropriate to the facilities.

The council shall develop the nontransit element in consultation with the transportation advisory board and shall transmit the results to the state department of transportation.

Sec. 4. Minnesota Statutes 1987 Supplement, section 473.1623, subdivision 4, is amended to read:

Subd. 4. [FINANCIAL REPORTING; BUDGETING.] (a) The advisory committee, with the assistance of the state auditor and the legislative auditor, shall develop uniform or consistent standards, formats, and procedures for the budgets and financial reports of the council and all metropolitan agencies. The council shall report to the legislature from time to time on progress made by the committee in improving the uniformity and quality of budgets and financial reports and on legislation that may be needed for this purpose.

(b) The council and each metropolitan agency shall prepare a summary budget for agency fiscal year 1988 and each year thereafter. The advisory committee, with the assistance of the state auditor and the legislative auditor, shall develop guidelines and models for the summary budgets. The purpose of the summary budget is to increase public knowledge and agency accountability by providing citizens outside of the agency with a condensed, accessible, and graphic description of the financial affairs of the agency. The document should contain a coherent, effectively communicated, understandable statement of: financial trends and forecasts; budget policies and policy changes; agency financial assumptions, objectives and plans; revenue sources and expenditures by program category; personnel policies, decisions, and allocation; budgetary performance measures; and similar matters serving the purpose of the document.

(c) The council and each metropolitan agency shall include in the annual budget:

(1) a statement of the reserve or fund balance carried forward at the end of the budget year, for at least the two preceding fiscal years;

(2) a comparison of budgeted and actual expenditures, reported by department and, if the agency has a program budget, by program, for at least the two preceding fiscal years;

(3) a listing of proposed or anticipated consulting contracts or projects and the amount of each contract or project.

Sec. 5. Minnesota Statutes 1987 Supplement, section 473.1623, subdivision 6, is amended to read:

Subd. 6. [PERSONNEL AND ETHICAL PRACTICES; COMMUNICATION.] By January 1, of each year, the council and each agency represented on the advisory committee established under this section shall report to the legislature on the following:

(2) ethical practices requirements for board members and employees of each agency, including the sources of the requirements, agency comparisons, and comparison with requirements for state and local government officers and employees; and

(3) the activities undertaken by each agency board member and council member to regularly meet with and communicate with local officials and legislators in the member's district about issues before the agency or council.

The report on employee salaries under clause (1) must include details of: all lump sum payments or bonuses; and a description of all payments, expense accounts, allowances, including travel allowances, and other current benefits granted to individuals that are not made generally available to employees of the council or agency.

Sec. 6. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 473.167, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [LOANS FOR ACQUISITION.] The council may make loans to counties, towns, and statutory and home rule charter cities within the metropolitan area for the purchase of property within the right-of-way of a state trunk highway shown on an official map adopted pursuant to section 394.361 or 462.359 or for the purchase of property within the proposed right-of-way of a principal or intermediate arterial highway designated by the council as a part of the metropolitan highway system plan and approved by the council pursuant to subdivision 1. The loans shall be made by the council, from the fund established pursuant to this subdivision, for purchases approved by the council. The loans shall bear no interest. The council shall make loans only: (1) to accelerate the acquisition of primarily undeveloped property when there is a reasonable probability that the property will increase in value before highway construction, and to update an expired environmental impact statement on a project for which the right-of-way is being purchased; or (2) to avert the imminent conversion or the granting of approvals which would allow the conversion of property to uses which would jeopardize its availability for highway construction. The council shall not make loans for the purchase of property at a price which exceeds the fair market value of the property or which includes the costs of relocating or moving persons or property. A private property owner may elect to receive the purchase price either in a lump sum or in not more than four annual installments without interest on the deferred installments. If the purchase agreement provides for installment payments, the council shall make the loan in installments corresponding to those in the purchase agreement. The recipient of an acquisition loan shall convey the property for the construction of the highway at the same price which the recipient paid for the property. Upon notification by the council that the plan to construct the highway has been abandoned or the anticipated location of the highway changed, the recipient shall sell the property at market value in accordance with the procedures required for the disposition of the property. All rents and other money received because of the recipient's ownership of the property and all proceeds from the conveyance or sale of the property shall be paid to the council. The proceeds of the tax authorized by subdivision 3, all money paid to the council by recipients of loans, and all interest on the proceeds and payments shall be maintained as a separate fund. For administration of the loan program the council may expend from the fund each year an amount no greater than three percent of the amount that a metropolitan area tax levy of 5/100 of a mill would raise in of the authorized levy for that year.

Sec. 7. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 473.167, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [TAX.] The council may levy a tax on all taxable property in the metropolitan area, as defined in section 473.121, to provide funds for loans made pursuant to subdivisions 2 and 2a. This tax for the right-of-way acquisition loan fund shall be certified by the council, levied, and collected in the manner provided by section 473.13. The tax shall be in addition to that authorized by section 473.249 and any other law and shall not affect the amount or rate of taxes which may be levied by the council or any metropolitan agency or local governmental unit. The amount of the levy shall be as determined and certified by the council, except as otherwise provided in this subdivision. The tax shall not be levied at a rate higher than 5/100 of one mill. The tax shall not be levied at a rate higher than that determined by the council to be sufficient, considering the other anticipated revenues of and disbursements from the loan fund, to produce a balance in the loan fund at the end of the next calendar year equal to twice the amount that a tax levy of 5/100 of a mill would raise in that year.

The property tax levied by the metropolitan council for the right-of-way acquisition loan fund shall not exceed the following amount for the years specified:

(a) for taxes payable in 1988, the product of 5/100 of one mill multiplied by the total assessed valuation of all taxable property

located within the metropolitan area as adjusted by the provisions of Minnesota Statutes 1986, sections 272.64; 273.13, subdivision 7a; and 275.49;

(b) for taxes payable in 1989, except as provided in section 13, the product of (1) the metropolitan council's property tax levy limitation for the right-of-way acquisition loan fund for the taxes payable year 1988 determined under clause (a) multiplied by (2) an index for market valuation changes equal to the assessment year 1988 total market valuation of all taxable property located within the metropolitan area divided by the assessment year 1987 total market valuation of all taxable property located within the metropolitan area; and

(c) for taxes payable in 1990 and subsequent years, the product of (1) the metropolitan council's property tax levy limitation for the right-of-way acquisition loan fund for the previous year determined pursuant to this subdivision multiplied by (2) an index for market valuation changes equal to the total market valuation of all taxable property located within the metropolitan area for the current assessment year divided by the total market valuation of all taxable property located within the metropolitan area for the previous assessment year.

For the purpose of determining the metropolitan council's property tax levy limitation for the right-of-way acquisition loan fund for the taxes payable year 1988 and subsequent years under this subdivision, "total market valuation" means the total market valuation of all taxable property within the metropolitan area without valuation adjustments for fiscal disparities (chapter 473F), tax increment financing (sections 469.174 to 469.179), and high voltage transmission lines (section 273.425).

The property tax levied under this subdivision for taxes payable in 1988 and subsequent years shall not be levied at a rate higher than that determined by the metropolitan council to be sufficient, considering the other anticipated revenues of and disbursements from the right-of-way acquisition loan fund, to produce a balance in the loan fund at the end of the next calendar year equal to twice the amount of the property tax levy limitation for taxes payable in the next calendar year determined under this section.

Sec. 8. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 473.167, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 4. [STATE REVIEW.] The commissioner of revenue shall annually determine whether the property tax for the right-of-way acquisition loan fund certified by the metropolitan council for levy following the adoption of its budget is within the levy limitation imposed by this section. To the extent practicable, the determination must be completed prior to November 1 of each year. If current information regarding market valuation in any county is not transmitted to the commissioner in a timely manner, the commissioner may estimate the current market valuation within that county for purposes of making the calculation.

Sec. 9. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 473.167, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 5. [LEVY INCREASE.] For the purpose of determining the levy limitation for taxes payable in 1989 under subdivision 3, the levy limitation for taxes payable in 1988 shall be multiplied by two. The levy limitation so determined for taxes payable in 1989 shall be the basis for determining levy limitations for taxes payable in 1990 and subsequent years under subdivision 3.

Sec. 10. [473.171] [LIGHT RAIL TRANSIT PLANS; METROPOLITAN REVIEW.]

The council and the regional transit board shall review and comment on comprehensive light rail transit plans and preliminary design plans of regional railroad authorities. The council and the board shall conduct their review and comment before the regional railroad authority prepares final design plans. The council and the board may undertake the study necessary for this review, in accordance with the provisions of section 473.17 and notwithstanding the provisions of section 473.398.

The council and the board shall review comprehensive light rail transit plans in accordance with Laws 1987, chapter 405, section 6. The council and the board in reviewing the comprehensive light rail transit plans, and the authority in preparing those plans, shall, to the extent practicable, ensure the acquisition, lease or preservation of the right of way for planned light rail transit corridors, so that the planned corridors are ready for construction and development and so that corridor development and priorities are not determined by right of way ownership.

The authority's light rail transit plans shall provide for the staged development of the light rail transit system.

The light rail transit plans and the comments of the council and the board must be transmitted to the legislature.

Sec. 11. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 473.173, subdivision 6, is amended to read:

Subd. 6. The council and the advisory metropolitan land use committee shall review and assess the rules following their effective date and at least every two years thereafter. On or before January 15 of each year, the council shall report to the legislature concerning metropolitan significance. No major alteration or amendments to standards for determining the necessity for a comprehensive review metropolitan significance shall be put into effect by the council until 90 days have elapsed following the a report to the legislature in which the alteration or amendment was proposed and recommended by the council in the form of a proposed rule published under section 14.14, subdivision 1a, or 14.22. The report to the legislature must be made during the month of January.

Sec. 12. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 473.249, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. The metropolitan council may levy a tax on all taxable property in the metropolitan area defined in section 473.121 to provide funds for the purposes of sections 473.121 to 473.249 and for the purpose of carrying out other responsibilities of the council as provided by law. The tax shall not exceed 8/30 of one mill on the total assessed valuation of all such taxable property located in the metropolitan area, and This tax for general purposes shall be levied and collected in the manner provided by section 473.13.

The property tax levied by the metropolitan council for general purposes shall not exceed the following amount for the years specified:

(a) for taxes payable in 1988, the product of 8/30 of one mill multiplied by the total assessed valuation of all taxable property located within the metropolitan area as adjusted by the provisions of Minnesota Statutes 1986, sections 272.64; 273.13, subdivision 7a; and 275.49;

(b) for taxes payable in 1989, the product of (1) the metropolitan council's property tax levy limitation for general purposes for the taxes payable year 1988 determined under clause (a) multiplied by (2) an index for market valuation changes equal to the assessment year 1988 total market valuation of all taxable property located within the metropolitan area divided by the assessment year 1987 total market valuation of all taxable property located within the metropolitan area; and

(c) for taxes payable in 1990 and subsequent years, the product of (1) the metropolitan council's property tax levy limitation for general purposes for the previous year determined under this subdivision multiplied by (2) an index for market valuation changes equal to the total market valuation of all taxable property located within the metropolitan area for the current assessment year divided by the total market valuation of all taxable property located within the metropolitan area for the previous assessment year.

For the purpose of determining the metropolitan council's property tax levy limitation for general purposes for the taxes payable year 1988 and subsequent years under this subdivision, "total market valuation" means the total market valuation of all taxable property within the metropolitan area without valuation adjustments for fiscal disparities (chapter 473F), tax increment financing (sections 469.174 to 469.179), and high voltage transmission lines (section 273.425).

Sec. 13. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 473.249, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Sec. 19. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 473.446, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [CERTIFICATION AND COLLECTION.] ~~On or before October 10 in each year the regional transit board shall certify the total amount of the tax levied pursuant to subdivision 1 to the auditor of each metropolitan county. Each county auditor shall then assess and extend upon the tax rolls in the county that proportion of the tax which the assessed value of taxable property in the county bears to the assessed value of all taxable property in the metropolitan area. Each county treasurer shall collect and make settlement of such the taxes levied under subdivisions 1 and 1a with the treasurer of the board. The levy of transit taxes pursuant to this section shall not affect the amount or rate of taxes which may be levied by any county or municipality or by the board for other purposes authorized by law and shall be in addition to any other property tax authorized by law.~~

Sec. 20. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 473.446, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 8. [STATE REVIEW.] The commissioner of revenue shall annually determine whether the property tax for general purposes certified by the regional transit board for levy following the adoption of its budget is within the levy limitation imposed by subdivision 1. The commissioner shall also annually determine whether the transit tax imposed on all taxable property within the metropolitan transit area but outside of the metropolitan transit taxing district is within the levy limitation imposed by subdivision 1a. To the extent practicable, the determination must be completed prior to November 1 of each year. If current information regarding market valuation in any county is not transmitted to the commissioner in a timely manner, the commissioner may estimate the current market valuation within that county for purposes of making the calculations.

Sec. 21. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 473.711, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. The metropolitan mosquito control commission shall prepare an annual budget. The budget may provide for expenditures in an amount not exceeding six-tenths of one mill times the current assessed valuation of the district the property tax levy limitation determined in this subdivision. The commission may levy a tax on all taxable property in the district as defined in section 473.702 to provide funds for the purposes of sections 473.701 to 473.716. The tax shall not exceed six-tenths of one mill the property tax levy limitation determined in this subdivision. A participating county may agree to levy an additional tax to be used by the commission for the purposes of sections 473.701 to 473.716 but the sum of the county's and commission's taxes may not exceed six-tenths of one mill in any county the county's proportionate share of the property tax levy limitation determined under this subdivision based on the ratio of its total assessed valuation to the total assessed valuation of the entire district as adjusted by section 270.12, subdivision 3. The auditor of each county in the district shall add the amount of the levy made by the district to other taxes of the county for collection by the county treasurer with other taxes. When collected, the county treasurer shall make settlement of the tax with the district in the same manner as other taxes are distributed to political subdivisions. No county shall levy any tax for mosquito and black gnat (Simuliidae) control except under sections 473.701 to 473.716. The levy shall be in addition to other taxes authorized by law and shall be disregarded in the calculation of limits on taxes imposed by chapter 275.

The property tax levied by the metropolitan mosquito control commission shall not exceed the following amount for the years specified:

(a) for taxes payable in 1988, the product of six-tenths on one mill multiplied by the total assessed valuation of all taxable property located within the district as adjusted by the provisions of Minnesota Statutes 1986, sections 272.64; 273.13, subdivision 7a; and 275.49;

(b) for taxes payable in 1989, the product of (1) the commission's property tax levy limitation for the taxes payable year 1988 determined under clause (a) multiplied by (2) an index for market valuation changes equal to the assessment year 1988 total market valuation of all taxable property located within the district divided by the assessment year 1987 total market valuation of all taxable property located within the district; and for market valuation changes equal to the total market valuation of all taxable property located within the district for the current assessment year divided by the total market valuation of all taxable property located within the district for the previous assessment year.

For the purpose of determining the commissioner's property tax levy limitation for the taxes payable year 1988 and subsequent years under this subdivision, "total market valuation" means the total market valuation of all taxable property within the district without valuation adjustments for fiscal disparities (chapter 473F), tax increment financing (sections 469.174 to 469.179), and high voltage transmission lines (section 273.425).

Sec. 22. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 473.711, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 5. [STATE REVIEW.] The commissioner of revenue shall annually determine whether the property tax certified by the metropolitan mosquito control commission for levy following the adoption of its budget is within the levy limitation imposed by subdivision 2. To the extent practicable, the determination must be completed prior to November 1 of each year. If current information regarding market valuation in any county is not transmitted to the commissioner in a timely manner, the commissioner may estimate the current market valuation within that county for purposes of making the calculation.

Sec. 23. [CERTAIN TAX ADJUSTMENTS.]

The adjustments allowable under Minnesota Statutes 1986, sections 272.64, 273.13, subdivision 7a, and 275.49, shall be made for property taxes payable in 1988 and subsequent years under sections 473.167, 473.249, 473.446, and 473.711 only as provided in sections 6 to 9, 12, 13, 18, 19, 21, and 22.

Sec. 24. [REPEALER.]

Minnesota Statutes 1987 Supplement, section 473.393, is repealed.

Sec. 25. [APPLICATION; EFFECTIVE DATE.]

Sections 1 to 24 are effective in the counties of Anoka, Carver, Dakota, Hennepin, Ramsey, Scott, and Washington, on the day following final enactment."

Subd. 10. The expenditure limits imposed by this section apply only to candidates who agree to be bound by the limits as a condition of receiving a public subsidy for their campaigns in the form of:

or

(b) Credits against the tax due of individuals who contribute to that candidate.

Sec. 42. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 10A.31, subdivision 5, is amended to read:

Subd. 5. In each calendar year the moneys in each party account and the general account shall be allocated to candidates as follows:

(1) 21 percent for the offices of governor and lieutenant governor together;

(2) 3.6 percent for the office of attorney general;

(3) 1.8 percent each for the offices of secretary of state, state auditor and state treasurer;

(4) In each calendar year during the period in which state senators serve a four-year term, 23 $\frac{1}{3}$ percent for the office of state senator and 46 $\frac{2}{3}$ percent for the office of state representative;

(5) In each calendar year during the period in which state senators serve a two-year term, 35 percent each for the offices of state senator and state representative;

In each calendar year the money in each party account shall be allocated as follows:

(1) 14 percent for the offices of governor and lieutenant governor together;

(2) 2.4 percent for the office of attorney general;

(3) 1.2 percent each for the offices of secretary of state, state auditor and state treasurer;

(4) In each calendar year during the period in which state senators serve a four-year term, 23 $\frac{1}{3}$ percent for the office of state senator and 46 $\frac{2}{3}$ percent for the office of state representative;

(5) In each calendar year during the period in which state senators serve a two-year term, 35 percent each for the offices of state senator and state representative;

(6) 10 percent for the state committee of a political party; money allocated to each state committee under this clause must be deposited in a separate account and must be spent for legitimate political party operations, including voter education; the sample ballot; operations of precinct caucuses, county unit conventions, and state conventions; and the maintenance and programming of computers used to provide lists of voters, party workers, party officers, patterns of voting, and other data for use in political party activities; money allocated to a state committee under this clause must be paid to the committee as it is received in the account, on a monthly or other basis agreed to between the committee and the board.

To assure that moneys will be returned to the counties from which they were collected, and to assure that the distribution of those moneys rationally relates to the support for particular parties or for particular candidates within legislative districts, moneys from the party accounts for legislative candidates shall be distributed as follows:

Each candidate for the state senate and state house of representatives whose name is to appear on the ballot in the general election shall receive money from the candidate's party account set aside for candidates of the state senate or state house of representatives, whichever applies, according to the following formula;

For each county within the candidate's district the candidate's share of the dollars allocated in that county to the candidate's party account and set aside for that office shall be:

(a) The sum of the votes cast in the last general election in that part of the county in the candidate's district for all candidates of that candidate's party (i) whose names appeared on the ballot in each voting precinct of the state and (ii) for the state senate and state house of representatives, divided by

(b) The sum of the votes cast in that county in the last general election for all candidates of that candidate's party (i) whose names appeared on the ballot in each voting precinct in the state and (ii) for the state senate and state house of representatives, multiplied by

(c) The amount in the candidate's party account allocated in that county and set aside for the candidates for the office for which the candidate is running.

The sum of all the county shares calculated in the formula above is the candidate's share of the candidate's party account.

In a year in which an election for the state senate occurs, with respect to votes for candidates for the state senate only, "last general election" means the last general election in which an election for the state senate occurred.

For any party under whose name no candidate's name appeared on the ballot in each voting precinct in the state in the last general election, amounts in the party's account shall be allocated based on (a) the number of people voting in the last general election in that part of the county in the candidate's district, divided by (b) the number of the people voting in that county in the last general election, multiplied by (c) the amount in the candidate's party account allocated in that county and set aside for the candidates for the office for which the candidate is running.

In a year in which the first election after a legislative reapportionment is held, "the candidate's district" means the newly drawn district, and voting data from the last general election will be applied to the area encompassing the newly drawn district notwithstanding that the area was in a different district in the last general election.

If in a district there was no candidate of a party for the state senate or state house of representatives in the last general election, or if a candidate for the state senate or state house of representatives was unopposed, the vote for that office for that party shall be the average vote of all the remaining candidates of that party in each county of that district whose votes are included in the sums in clauses (a) and (b). The average vote shall be added to the sums in clauses (a) and (b) before the calculation is made for all districts in the county.

Money from a party account not distributed to candidates for state senator and representative in any election year shall be returned to the general fund of the state. Money from a party account not distributed to candidates for other offices in an election year shall be returned to the party account for reallocation to candidates as provided in clauses (1) to (6) of this subdivision in the following year. Moneys from the general account refused by any candidate shall be distributed to all other qualifying candidates in proportion to their shares as provided in this subdivision.

The recommended salary for each office must be a fixed amount per year, to take effect on the first Monday in January of the next odd-numbered year, with no more than one adjustment, to take effect on January 1 of the year after that. The salary recommendations for legislators, judges, and constitutional officers take effect if an appropriation of money to pay the recommended salaries is enacted after the recommendations are submitted and before their effective date. Recommendations may be expressly modified or rejected by a bill enacted into law. The salary recommendations for legislators are subject to additional terms that may be adopted according to section 3.099, subdivisions 1 and 3.

(b) Except as provided in paragraph (c), each state agency shall adopt a smoking policy for the space it occupies. Before placing a policy in effect, the agency shall submit the policy and a plan for implementing it to the commissioner of employee relations. The policy must:

(1) prohibit smoking entirely; or

(2) permit smoking only in designated areas, providing that existing physical barriers and ventilation systems can be used to prevent or substantially minimize the toxic effect presence of smoke in adjacent nonsmoking areas.

(c) An agency need not adopt a new policy governing an area in which smoking is prohibited under a policy in effect on the effective date of this subdivision.

The purpose of these programs is to provide specialized training and work experience to at-risk targeted youth who have not been served effectively by the current educational system. The programs are to be designed to include a work experience component with work projects that result in the rehabilitation or construction of residential units for the homeless. Two or more eligible organizations may jointly apply for a planning grant. The commissioner shall administer the grant program.

Interested eligible organizations must apply to the commissioner for the grants. The advisory committee must review the applications and provide to the commissioner a list of recommended eligible organizations that the advisory committee determines meet the requirements for receiving a planning grant. Sec. 3. [ADVISORY COMMITTEE.]

A 13-member advisory committee is established as provided under Minnesota Statutes, section 15.059 to assist the commissioner in selecting eligible organizations to receive planning grants, evaluating the final reports of each organization, and providing recommendations to the legislature. Members of the committee may be reimbursed for expenses but may not receive any other compensation for service on the committee. Sec. 4. [PROGRAM PURPOSE AND DESIGN.]

Subdivision 1. [PROGRAM PURPOSE.] The grants awarded under section 2 are for the design of a youth employment and training program directed at targeted youth who are likely to be at risk of not completing their high school education. Each program design must include education, work experience, and job skills

Program participants must be working toward the completion of their secondary education or literacy advancement.

Subd. 3. [WORK EXPERIENCE COMPONENT.] A work experience component must be included in each program design. The work experience component must provide vocational skills training in an industry where there is a viable expectation of job opportunities and a training subsidy or stipend may be provided to program participants. The wage or stipend must be provided to participants who are recipients of public assistance in a manner or amount which will not reduce public assistance benefits. The work experience component must be designed so that work projects result in the expansion of residential units for homeless persons and very low income families, and must include direct supervision by individuals skilled in each specific vocation. The program design must include an examination of how program participants may earn credits toward the completion of their secondary education from their participation in the work experience component.

Subd. 4. [JOB READINESS SKILLS COMPONENT.] A job readiness skills component must be included in each program design. The component must provide program participants with job search skills, placement assistance, and other job readiness skills to ensure that participants will be able to compete in the employment market.

Subd. 5. [ELIGIBLE PROGRAM PROVIDERS.] A program design must include the examination of the types of organizations that would administer and operate the program. The types of organizations examined must include public school districts, private nonsectarian schools, alternative schools, local jurisdictions, housing related groups, community groups, and labor organizations, or a joint effort among two or more of these organizations.

Sec. 5. [HOUSING FOR HOMELESS.]

Subdivision 1. [REQUIREMENT.] The work experience component of the youth employment and training program described in section 4 must include work projects that provide residential units through construction or rehabilitation for the homeless and families with very low incomes.

Subd. 2. [PRIORITY FOR HOUSING.] Any residential units that become available through the employment and training program must be allocated in the following order:

- (1) homeless families with at least one dependent;
- (2) other homeless individuals;

The examination must include the review of possible sources of property and funding through federal, state, or local agencies, including the federal Department of Housing and Urban Development, Farmers Home Administration housing finance agency, and the local housing authority.

Subd. 4. [MANAGEMENT OF RESIDENTIAL UNITS.] The program design must address how to manage these residential units, including the source of financing for the maintenance costs of the buildings. Any management plan must include the participation of the residents and local established neighborhood groups.

Sec. 6. [REQUIREMENTS OF ORGANIZATIONS RECEIVING GRANTS.]

An organization that is awarded a planning grant under section 2 shall prepare and submit a report to the commissioner by January 15, 1989. The report must address each of the following:

- (4) the amount of training subsidy or stipend that each participant should receive while participating in the work experience component. The subsidy or stipend must reflect prevailing wage and benefits standards appropriate for preapprenticeship training unless a participant's receipt of public assistance is affected. The subsidy or stipend should be structured to include incentives for progress toward increasing job skills and completing secondary education;

(5) the identification and means of providing the necessary job readiness skills so that program participants who have completed the work experience and educational components of the program may have the ability to compete in the job market. These job search skills may include skills assessment, job search and selection, application preparation and assistance in preparing for job interviews;

(6) the methods that may be used to assist in placing program participants in suitable employment. The methods should include means of involving state government, businesses, labor organizations, community groups, and local jurisdictions in assisting in the placement;

(7) a plan for evaluating the program, including the necessary data elements that must be collected from program participants after they have completed the program to monitor the success of the program;

(8) the method used to maximize parental involvement in the program;

(9) the identification of existing public and private programs that may be utilized by the program to avoid duplication of services;

(10) the identification of regional characteristics that may affect the operation of the program in the specific region where the organization is located;

(11) the identification and special needs of priority groups of targeted youth, which groups may include:

(i) persons who are responsible for at least one dependent;

(ii) persons who are pregnant;

(iii) persons who are or have been subject to any stage of the criminal justice system and who may benefit from receiving employment and training services in overcoming barriers to employment resulting from a record of arrest or conviction;

(iv) persons receiving income maintenance services and social services, including chemical dependency treatment, vocational rehabilitation services, and protection services;

Sec. 7. [REPORT.]

The commissioner shall prepare and submit a report to the legislature and the governor by February 15, 1989, that outlines the various program designs submitted by the organizations that received planning grants. The report must also include recommendations on which components of the program designs are most suitable to meeting the needs of targeted youth. The advisory committee must participate in the preparation of this report and in the formulation of the recommendations.

Subd. 14. "State forest road" means a road constructed, acquired, maintained, or administered by the commissioner for the purpose of carrying out forest resource management policy as set forth in section 89.002.

Sec. 2. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 89.01, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

The commissioner shall appoint as members representatives from among the following: road authorities, county land commissioners, local governments, the forest products industry, and forest recreation interests. Each committee must meet at least once annually. The committees shall assist in providing a transportation system to facilitate the protection, management, and use of this state's forest resources. The purpose of the committees includes coordination of the planning, construction, maintenance, and use of forest roads, and of restrictions on their use.

Sec. 3. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 89.19, is amended to read:

89.19 [RULES.]

The commissioner shall have power to may prescribe such rules governing the use of state forest lands under the authority of the commissioner and state forest roads, or any part parts thereof, by the public or and governing the exercising exercise by holders of leases or permits upon state on forest lands and state forest roads of all their rights under such the leases or permits as may be necessary to carry out the purposes of this chapter.

Sec. 4. [89.341] [STATE FOREST ROAD ACCOUNT.]

There is created in the state treasury a state forest road account in the special revenue fund, consisting of money credited under section 8. Money in the state forest road account is appropriated to the commissioner and remains available until expended for:

(1) acquisition, development, maintenance, and administration of state forest roads under the jurisdiction of the commissioner of natural resources; and

(2) the commissioner's share of the cost of cooperative maintenance agreements made with other providers of forest roads.

Sec. 5. [89.342] [FOREST ROADS.]

Subdivision 1. [DESIGNATION, INVENTORY, RECORDING.] Forest roads, bridges, and other improvements administered under section 89.002, subdivision 3, are designated as state forest roads to the width of the actual use including ditches, backslopes, fills, and maintained right-of-way, unless otherwise specified in a prior easement of record. The commissioner may undesignate all or part of a state forest road that is not needed to carry out forest resource management policy. The commissioner shall maintain and keep current an inventory listing and describing roads in which the state claims a right or property interest for state forest road purposes. The commissioner may file for record with a county recorder or registrar of titles appropriate documents setting forth the state's interest in all or part of any state forest road.

Subd. 5. [POSTING OF MINIMUM-MAINTENANCE FOREST ROADS.] The commissioner may designate a state forest road as a minimum-maintenance forest road to be maintained at a level consistent with the intended use. Designation of a state forest road as a minimum-maintenance forest road is effective on the posting of signs, at entry points to the road and at regular intervals along the road, to the effect that the road is a minimum-maintenance forest road and that the user travels on the road at the user's risk. Posting of the signs is prima facie evidence that adequate notice of minimum-maintenance status has been given to the public. Liability on a road designated under this subdivision is governed by section 160.095, subdivision 4.

Subd. 6. [CONVEYANCE OF UNNEEDED ROADS TO OTHER GOVERNMENTS.] When the commissioner undesignates a state forest road and determines that the road is no longer needed for any state purpose, the commissioner may convey by mutual agreement, in the manner provided in section 84.63, the state interest in the road to the United States, the state of Minnesota, or any of its subdivisions, whether or not the road is on state land.

Subd. 7. [COMMISSIONER NOT A ROAD AUTHORITY UNDER HIGHWAY LAWS.] Except as otherwise provided, the commissioner is not a road authority under chapters 160 to 168, and chapters 160 to 168 do not apply to forest roads unless specifically made applicable by law or rule.

The payments must be made by July 15 and January 15 of each year through the commissioner and in proportion to each county's ownership of commercial forest lands, for purposes of constructing, reconstructing, acquiring, and maintaining county management access roads, including the acquisition of rights-of-way or easements as may be needed.

mittees and the house higher education and appropriations committees.

Subd. 2. State Scholarships and Grants

$500,000

This appropriation is added to the appropriation for the same purpose in Laws 1987, chapter 401, section 2, subdivision 3.

The legislature intends that the board make full scholarship and grant awards in fiscal year 1989. The HECB may request the necessary appropriation in the 1989 legislative session if the fiscal year 1989 money is insufficient to make full awards.

During the biennium, the HECB may transfer unencumbered balances among the accounts provided in Laws 1987, chapter 401, section 2, to the scholarship and grant account. Before the transfer, the HECB shall consult with the chairs of the house appropriations and senate finance committees.

During the biennium, the HECB may ask the commissioner of finance to loan general fund money to the scholarship and grant account to ease cash flow difficulties. The HECB must first certify to the commissioner that there will be adequate refunds to the account to repay the loan. The commissioner shall use the refunds to make repayment to the general fund of the full amount loaned. Money necessary to meet cash flow difficulties in the state scholarship and grant program is appropriated to the commissioner of finance for loans to HECB.

$350,000 is to begin a study of the post-secondary needs of the state. The study shall be divided into two phases. The second phase, to be undertaken in 1989, must concentrate on the other regions of the state. The HECB may contract for portions of the study, as necessary. Both phases of the study must focus on (1) an assessment of the current and future conditions and needs; (2) strategies to meet these needs; (3) costs associated with the strategies; and (4) effects of the strategies on existing institutions, state policies, and system and institutional missions.

Both phases of the study should include consideration of at least the following concerns: the current and projected demographic and participation trends; current level and types of services available; needs of traditional, nontraditional, and minority students; the geographical accessibility of services needed by different types of students; uses of alternative delivery systems, technology, cooperative efforts, and reciprocity agreements; and the physical capacity of existing institutions. The HECB shall seek matching money for the study. The HECB shall report its findings on the first phase to the education and finance committees of the senate and the higher education and appropriations committees of the house by February 1, 1989. The study shall serve as the 1988 intersystem plan for the post-secondary systems as required in section 135A.06, subdivision 2.

$25,000 is for a study, to be conducted simultaneously with the first phase, on the procedures necessary, fiscal implications, and effects of implementing alternative governance arrangements of two-year public post-secondary institutions. The HECB shall report the results of this study to the education and finance committees of the senate and the higher education and appropriations committees of the house by March 1, 1989.

If either appropriation is insufficient, the HECB may transfer money within this subdivision, after notifying the chairs of the house appropriations and senate finance committees.

Tuition may vary by program, level of instruction, cost of instruction, or other classifications determined by each board. ~~In all systems that have a credit hour basis, tuition rates must be established on that basis and must not apply across a variable number of credits.~~ Tuition may be set at any percentage of instructional cost established by the respective boards.

Sec. 10. [135A.11] [COMMUNITY SERVICE.]

Each public post-secondary system is requested to review its curricula, especially in required courses in general education and departmental majors, to determine the current and future opportunities for incorporating community service components. Each system is encouraged to locate curricular areas in which the system can assist students to voluntarily pursue community service that is relevant to their studies.

Sec. 11. [135A.12] [UNIQUE NEEDS AND ABILITIES OF AMERICAN INDIAN PEOPLE.]

Subdivision 1. [APPLICABILITY.] This section applies to the higher education coordinating board, each public post-secondary governing board, each public post-secondary institution, and each school board that operates a technical institute.

Subd. 2. [PROGRAMS AND SERVICES.] The board of each institution, at the request of ten or more full-time American Indian students, shall establish an advisory committee, in consultation with tribal designated representatives. The advisory committee shall recommend instructional programs and student services to meet the unique needs of American Indian people.

Subd. 3. [AMERICAN INDIAN LANGUAGES.] A student who is proficient in an American Indian language shall have the opportunity to be assessed, placed, or to receive credit for skills in that language in the same manner that a student is assessed, placed, or receives credit for skills in languages other than the English language.

Subd. 4. [QUALIFICATIONS FOR AMERICAN INDIAN STUDIES AND SERVICES.] American Indian individuals who understand and have demonstrated knowledge of American Indian language, history, or culture may be considered to be competent to provide instruction in American Indian language, history, or culture programs. Qualifications to provide noninstructional services at post-secondary institutions for American Indian people must take into consideration knowledge of and understanding of American Indian language, history, or culture.

Subd. 5. [CONSULTATION.] When the higher education coordinating board conducts studies, performs evaluations, reviews programs, and makes recommendations that affect educational programs and services for American Indian people, it shall consult with tribal designated representatives.

Sec. 12. [135A.13] [STUDENT SERVICES PRICES.]

The governing board of each public post-secondary system is requested to establish prices for goods and services sold through student services that approximate as nearly as possible the cost of providing quality goods and services.

Sec. 13. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 136.31, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 7. Except as provided in this subdivision, the board may irrevocably appropriate and use any money, other than direct state appropriations and tuition receipts appropriated by section 136.11, subdivision 1, held by it to discharge or otherwise provide for the payment of the interest coming due on its revenue bonds outstanding on the effective date of this section until paid and of the principal and any premium coming due on the bonds at maturity or upon any earlier date upon which the bonds are called for redemption. For this purpose, the board may exercise all powers conferred upon it under subdivision 6 with respect to escrow agents and escrow accounts, and may provide for the funding of the escrow accounts with securities of the type referred to in subdivision 6 and certificates of deposit, time deposits, and investment agreements issued by the escrow agent or any other financial institution. This subdivision does not authorize the appropriation or use of board money to secure outstanding revenue bonds contrary to a board resolution authorizing the issuance and providing for the security of the bonds, or the use of other board money contrary to the terms of a contract, specific legislative appropriation, or law.

Sec. 14. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 136.41, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 8. The state university board or a successor may issue additional revenue bonds under sections 136.31 to 136.38 in an aggregate principal amount not exceeding $40,000,000, subject to the resolutions authorizing its outstanding revenue bonds, and payable from the revenue appropriated to the fund established by section 136.35, and use the proceeds together with other public or private money that may otherwise become available to acquire land, and to acquire, construct, complete, remodel, and equip structures to be used for dormitory, residence hall, student union, food service, and related parking purposes at the state universities. Before issuing the bonds or any part of them, the board shall consult with and obtain the advisory recommendations of the chairs of the house appropriations committee and the senate finance committee about the facilities to be financed by the bonds.

Sec. 15. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 136.41, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 9. The bonds authorized by this section may be issued without regard to whether the interest to be paid on them is includable in gross income for federal tax purposes. However, if it is intended that the interest on the bonds be exempt from federal income taxes, an officer of the board shall certify for the board on the date of issue the facts, estimates, and circumstances that lead the officer reasonably to expect that the proceeds of the bonds and the facilities financed by them will not be used to cause the interest on the bonds to be subject to federal income taxes; the board may covenant and agree with the holders of the bonds that it will comply with the provisions of the United States Internal Revenue Code now or hereafter enacted that do or may apply to the bonds and that establish conditions under which the interest to be paid on the bonds will not be subject to federal income taxes; and the officers of the board shall take the actions or refrain from taking the actions necessary to comply with the covenants. Money required to be spent to comply may be appropriated by the board from the fund established by section 136.35.

Sec. 16. [137.0245] [REGENT CANDIDATE ADVISORY COUNCIL.]

Subdivision 1. [ESTABLISHMENT.] A regent candidate advisory council is established to assist the legislature in determining criteria for, and identifying and recruiting qualified candidates for membership on the board of regents.

Subd. 2. [MEMBERSHIP.] The regent candidate advisory council shall consist of 24 members. Twelve members shall be appointed by the subcommittee on committees of the committee on rules and administration of the senate. Twelve members shall be appointed by the speaker of the house of representatives. No more than one-third of the members appointed by each appointing authority may be current or former legislators. No more than two-thirds of the members appointed by each appointing authority may belong to the same political party; however, political activity or affiliation is not required for the appointment of any member. Geographical representation must be taken into consideration when making appointments. Section 15.0575 shall govern the advisory council, except that the members shall be appointed to six-year terms with one-third appointed each even-numbered year.

Subd. 3. [DUTIES.] The advisory council shall:

(1) develop, in consultation with current and former regents and the administration of the University of Minnesota, a statement of the selection criteria to be applied and a description of the responsibilities and duties of a regent, and shall distribute this to potential candidates; and

(2) for each position on the board, identify and recruit qualified candidates for the board of regents, based on the background and experience of the candidates, and their potential for discharging the responsibilities of a member of the board of regents.

Subd. 4. [RECOMMENDATIONS.] The advisory council shall recommend at least two and not more than four candidates. By February 1 of each odd-numbered year, the advisory council shall submit its recommendations to the president of the senate and the speaker of the house of representatives. The legislature shall not be bound by these recommendations.

Subd. 5. [SUPPORT SERVICES.] The legislative coordinating commission shall provide administrative and support services for the advisory council.

Sec. 17. [INITIAL TERMS.]

By September 1, 1988, each appointing authority shall appoint four members to terms that expire January 1990, four members to terms that expire January 1992, and four members to terms that expire January 1994.

Sec. 18. [137.0251] [BUDGETARY INFORMATION.]

The board of regents of the University of Minnesota shall make available to the commissioner of finance all books, accounts, documents, and property that the commissioner desires to inspect.

Sec. 19. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 248.07, subdivision 7, is amended to read:

Subd. 7. [BLIND, VENDING STANDS AND MACHINES ON GOVERNMENTAL PROPERTY.] Notwithstanding any other law, for the rehabilitation of blind persons the commissioner shall have exclusive authority to establish and to operate vending stands and vending machines in all buildings and properties owned or rented exclusively by the state university or community college systems or by any department or agency of the state of Minnesota except the department of natural resources properties operated directly by the division of state parks and not subject to private leasing. The merchandise to be dispensed by such vending stands and machines may include soft drinks, (except 3.2 beer), milk nonalcoholic beverages, food, candies, tobacco, souvenirs, notions and related items. Such vending stands and vending machines herein authorized shall be operated on the same basis as other vending stands for the blind established and supervised by the commissioner under federal law. The commissioner may shall waive this authority to displace any present private individual concessionaire in any state-owned or rented building or property who is operating under a contract with a specific renewal or termination date, until the renewal or termination date. With the consent of the governing body of a governmental subdivision of the state, the commissioner may establish and supervise vending stands and vending machines for the blind in any building or property exclusively owned or rented by the governmental subdivision.

Sec. 20. Minnesota Statutes 1987 Supplement, section 248.07, subdivision 8, is amended to read:

Subd. 8. [USE OF REVOLVING FUND, LICENSES FOR OPERATION OF VENDING MACHINES.] The revolving fund created by Laws 1947, chapter 535, section 5, is continued as provided in this subdivision and shall be known as the revolving fund for vocational rehabilitation of the blind. It shall be used for the purchase of equipment and supplies for establishing and operating of vending stands by blind persons. All income, receipts, earnings, and federal grants due to the operation thereof shall also be paid into the fund. All interest earned on money accrued in the fund must be credited to the fund by the state treasurer. All equipment, supplies, and expenses for setting up these stands shall be paid for from the fund. Authority is hereby given to the commissioner to use the money available in the revolving fund that originated as operational charges to individuals licensed under this subdivision for the establishment, operation, and supervision of vending stands by blind persons for the following purposes: (1) purchase, upkeep and replacement of equipment; (2) purchase of initial and replacement stock of supplies and merchandise; (3) expenses incidental to the setting up of new stands and improvement of old stands; (4) purchase of general liability insurance as deemed advisable for any vending stand by the commissioner; (5) (3) reimbursement under section 15.059 to individual blind vending operators for reasonable travel and maintenance expenses incurred in attending supervisory meetings as called by the commissioner and other expenditures for management services consistent with federal law; (6) and (4) purchase of fringe benefits for blind vending operators and their employees such as group health insurance, retirement program, vacation or sick leave assistance provided that the purchase of any fringe benefit is approved by a majority vote of blind vending operators licensed pursuant to this subdivision after the commissioner provides to each blind vending operator information on all matters relevant to the fringe benefits. Fringe benefits shall be paid only from assessments of operators for specific benefits, gifts to the fund for fringe benefit purposes, and vending income which is not assignable to an individual stand.

Money originally deposited as merchandise and supplies repayments by individuals licensed under this subdivision may be expended for initial and replacement stocks of supplies and merchandise. Money originally deposited from vending income on federal property must be spent consistent with federal law.

All other deposits may be used for the purchase of general liability insurance or any other expense related to the operation and supervision of vending stands.

The commissioner shall issue each license for the operation of a vending stand or vending machine for an indefinite period but may terminate any license in the manner provided. In granting licenses for new or vacated stands preference on the basis of seniority of experience in operating stands under the control of the commissioner shall be given to capable operators who are deemed competent to handle the enterprise under consideration. Application of this preference shall not prohibit the commissioner from selecting an operator from the community in which the stand is located.

Sec. 21. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 248.07, subdivision 12, is amended to read:

Subd. 12. [REIMBURSEMENT OUT OF STATE DISTRIBUTION OF BRAILLE AND SPECIAL MATERIALS.] The commissioner shall obtain reimbursement from other states for the estimated cost of providing radio signals, programming, and radio receivers for the blind and for production and handling of Braille books, audio tapes, and related services for the blind distributed by the department of jobs and training to users in such other states and may contract with the appropriate authorities of such states to effect such reimbursement. All money received hereunder shall be paid to the state treasurer and placed in the general special revenue fund and is appropriated to the commissioner of jobs and training for the purposes of this subdivision.

Sec. 22. Laws 1987, chapter 401, section 2, subdivision 6, is amended to read:

Subd. 6. Income Contingent Loans

$158,100

This appropriation is for an income contingent loan repayment program to assist graduates of Minnesota schools in medical, dental, pharmacy, chiropractic medicine, public health, and veterinary medicine and Minnesota residents graduating from optometry and osteopathy programs in repaying their student debt by providing a repayment plan based on their annual income. The HECB shall study the possible inclusion of students in other academic programs including optometry and osteopathy and report its recommendations to the appropriations and finance committees by December 1, 1987. During the biennium, applicant data collected by the HECB for this program may be disclosed to a consumer credit reporting agency under the same conditions as apply to the supplemental loan program according to section 136A.162.

Sec. 23. [FACULTY EXCHANGE PROGRAM.]

Subdivision 1. [ESTABLISHMENT.] A program of faculty exchange for the 1988-1989 academic year is established to allow school districts and post-secondary institutions to arrange temporary exchanges between members of their instructional staff. These arrangements must be made on a voluntary, cooperative basis between the school district and the institution.

Subd. 2. [USES OF PROGRAM.] Each participating school district and post-secondary institution may determine the way in which the instructional staff member's time is to be used, but it must be in a way that promotes understanding of the needs of each educational system. A public school teacher might be used to teach courses, provide counseling and tutorial services, assist with the preparation of future teachers, or take professional development courses. A post-secondary instructor might teach advanced placement courses or other classes to aid an underserved population at the school district, counsel students about future education plans, or work with teachers to better prepare students for post-secondary education. Participation need not be limited to one school or institution and may involve other groups including educational cooperative service units.

Subd. 3. [SALARIES, BENEFITS, CERTIFICATION.] Exchanges made under the program must not have a negative effect on participants' salaries, seniority, or other benefits. Notwithstanding Minnesota Statutes, sections 123.35, subdivision 6, and 125.04, a member of the instructional staff of a post-secondary institution may teach in an elementary or secondary school or perform a service, agreed upon according to this section, for which a license would otherwise be required without holding the applicable license. In addition, a licensed employee of a school district may teach or perform a service, agreed upon according to this section, at a post-secondary institution without meeting the applicable qualifications of the post-secondary institution. A school district is not subject to Minnesota Statutes, section 124.19, subdivision 3, as a result of entering into an agreement according to this section that enables a post-secondary instructional staff member to teach or provide services in the district. All arrangements and details regarding the exchange must be mutually agreed to by the school district and post-secondary institution before implementation.

Subd. 4. [REPORT OF PILOT PROGRAMS.] While these exchanges are voluntary, the legislature intends to maintain oversight to determine the benefits and problems of the program. By February 1, 1989, each post-secondary system shall submit a report about the faculty exchange program to the chairs of the house education, higher education, and appropriations committees and the senate education and finance committees. The report shall contain the number of instructional staff participating in the exchange, areas of instruction, and other issues related to the exchange.

Sec. 24. [LOANED EXECUTIVE ACTION PROGRAM (LEAP).]

Subdivision 1. [PUBLIC SYSTEMS; JOINTLY.] The governing boards of the public post-secondary systems are requested to jointly establish a Loaned Executive Action Program to encourage business executives in the private sector to study management issues within each system and to make recommendations to improve the management structures and processes of each. The heads of each system shall jointly report to the appropriations and finance committees on the actions taken under this section by January 15, 1989.

Subd. 2. [CAMPUS BUDGET PROPOSALS.] A loaned executive working with the University of Minnesota should study the issue of preparing and presenting individual campus budget proposals to the board of regents.

Sec. 25. [REGENT ACTION.]

The legislature requests that the board of regents of the University of Minnesota undertake the following actions to improve their management and accountability:

(1) establish a committee to plan for and oversee the needs and uses of the president's house;

(2) formally adopt policies for review of capital projects that specify when board approval is required, types and forms of information to be submitted to the board, and board procedures for cost overruns;

(3) develop an accurate and complete reporting system for capital projects in progress; and

(4) establish policies that improve the control over the use of unrestricted funds, including specification of approval and reporting requirements.

The board of regents shall report the actions taken under this section to the house appropriations and senate finance committees by January 1, 1989.

As part of its 1989 biennial budget presentation to the legislature, the University of Minnesota is requested to report its income and expenditures from all public and private sources.

Sec. 26. [COMMUNITY SERVICE REPORTS.]

The public post-secondary systems shall report their actions, findings, and recommendations on community service opportunities to the house appropriations and senate finance committees by February 1, 1989.

Sec. 27. [CHILD CARE REPORTS.]

Each public post-secondary system shall assess the effects of child care legislation on the needs of post-secondary students. The report required by Laws 1988, chapter 439, shall include the assessment and recommendations of each system. Each system shall also submit its assessment and recommendations to the senate finance and house appropriations committees by January 15, 1989.

Sec. 28. [AMERICAN INDIAN EDUCATION REPORT.]

By February 1, 1989, each governing board shall report the actions it has taken to implement the provisions in this act relating to American Indian education. The report shall be submitted to the house higher education and appropriations committees and the senate education and finance committees.

Sec. 29. [REPEALER.]

Minnesota Statutes 1986, sections 136.26 and 136C.13, subdivision 3, are repealed.

Sec. 30. [EFFECTIVE DATE.]

Sections 2, 6, 16, 17, 19, 20, 21, 23, 24, and 25 are effective the day following final enactment.

Subdivision 1. [REPORT REQUIRED.] The commissioner of finance, in cooperation with the higher education coordinating board, shall study and report to the legislature by September 1, 1988, on the market for and feasibility of college savings bonds. "College savings bonds" are state general obligation bonds on which interest is accrued and compounded annually but not paid until maturity, commonly known as zero coupon bonds. Sale and marketing efforts should be directed to Minnesota residents of low and moderate income whose children or grandchildren are likely to pursue higher education.

Subd. 2. [FINDINGS.] The report must include findings on the following:

(1) the parental income levels at which a student is no longer eligible for state scholarship and grant assistance, but at which the cost of higher education may create severe financial hardship for the student's family;

(2) an estimate of the number of parents in this state at the income levels described in clause (1) whose children are likely to pursue higher education, including their social, economic, and geographic characteristics;

(3) the impact of the availability of financial aid on the savings practices of parents of future students and the extent to which the availability of college savings bonds might increase the amount saved;

(4) the estimated demand of parents and relatives for college savings bonds each year and over the next five years, and the estimated periodic rate of purchase;

(5) the demand for bonds of various denominations and the smallest denomination that can be sold and issued economically to those parents and relatives;

(6) the demand of parents and relatives for bonds of various maturities, and the implications of a variety of maturity dates for potential students and post-secondary institutions;

(7) a marketing strategy for the college savings bond program including strategies to:

(i) inform parents and relatives about the availability of the bonds;

(ii) take orders for the bonds;

(iii) insure that the bonds are purchased by residents of low and moderate income throughout this state; and

(iv) market the bonds at the lowest cost to the state;

(8) the demand of various institutions for the bonds, including business corporations, nonprofit corporations, and foundations, and a strategy to ensure that purchase of the bonds by these entities will not prevent individuals and parents and relatives of future students from buying them;

(9) the limitations, if any, that should be placed on bond purchasers' use of the bonds;

(10) an estimate of the cost of the strategy to market and underwrite the bonds; and

(11) the amount, if any, of bonds purchased for the benefit of a student that should not be considered in determining the financial need of an applicant for a state scholarship or grant under Minnesota Statutes, section 136A.121, or a part-time grant under Minnesota Statutes, section 136A.132.

Subd. 3. [RECOMMENDATIONS.] The commissioner of finance may not sell college savings bonds under section 2 until reports have been submitted to the chair of the senate committee on education and the chair of the house of representatives committee on higher education and the commissioner has received their advisory recommendations on whether and how to sell the bonds.

Sec. 2. [ZERO COUPON BONDS.]

Subdivision 1. [DEFINITIONS.] For purposes of this section, the following terms have the meanings given them.

(a) "Compounded maturity amount" means the sum of the stated principal amount plus the interest payable at maturity on zero coupon bonds.

(b) "Serial maturity bonds" means bonds maturing on a specified day in two or more consecutive years and bearing interest at a specified rate payable periodically to maturity or prior redemption.

(c) "Zero coupon bonds" means bonds in a stated principal amount, maturing on a specified date or dates, and bearing interest that accrues and compounds to and is payable only at maturity or upon prior redemption of the bonds.

Subd. 2. [AUTHORIZATION.] When authorized by law to issue state general obligation bonds, the commissioner may issue all or part of the bonds as serial maturity bonds or as zero coupon bonds or a combination of the two. Except as otherwise provided by this section, bonds, including zero coupon bonds, must be issued and sold as provided under Minnesota Statutes, section 16A.641. The amount of bonds that may be issued under this section may not exceed the amount of authorized, but previously unissued, bonds for higher education facilities. Higher education facilities include capital projects for the University of Minnesota, the state universities, community colleges, and technical institutes. The stated principal amount of zero coupon bonds must be used to determine the principal amount of bonds issued under the laws authorizing issuance of state general obligation bonds.

Subd. 3. [MARKETING PLAN.] Based on the results of the study required under section 1, the commissioner and the higher education coordinating board shall develop a plan for marketing college savings bonds. The marketing plan must include appropriate disclosures to potential buyers, including information on the types of savers for whom long-term, tax-exempt bonds may not be appropriate investments. The program must also include strategies to:

(1) inform parents and relatives about the availability of the bonds;

(2) take orders for the bonds;

(3) target the sale of the bonds to Minnesota residents whose progeny are likely to seek higher education; and

(4) market the bonds at the lowest cost to the state.

Before implementing the marketing plan, the commissioner of finance and the higher education coordinating board shall seek the advisory recommendations of the chairs of the senate finance and house of representatives appropriations committees about the plan.

Subd. 4. [SALE.] Except as otherwise provided in this subdivision, zero coupon bonds, or a series of bonds including zero coupon bonds, must be sold at public sale at a price not less than 98 percent of their stated principal amount. No state trunk highway bond may be sold for a price of less than par and accrued interest. The commissioner may sell bonds directly to the public or to financial institutions for prompt resale to the public upon the terms, conditions, and restrictions the commissioner prescribes. The commissioner should make bonds available for sale to financial institutions located in neighborhoods where low or moderate income persons reside. The commissioner may enter into all contracts considered necessary or desirable to accomplish the sale in an economical manner. The commissioner may contract for investment banking and banking services only after receiving competitive proposals for the services.

Subd. 5. [DENOMINATIONS; MATURITIES.] Based on the results of the study required under section 1, the commissioner shall determine the appropriate denominations and maturities for the bonds. The legislature intends to make bonds available in as small denominations as is feasible given the costs of marketing and administering the bond issue. Bonds in denominations of $1,000 must be made available. If not economical, the minimum denomination bonds need not be made available for bonds of all maturities. For purposes of this subdivision, "denomination" means the compounded maturity amount of the bond.

Subd. 6. [SINKING FUND.] The commissioner's order authorizing the issuance of zero coupon bonds must also establish a separate sinking fund account for the zero coupon bonds in the state bond fund. There is annually appropriated from the general fund to each zero coupon bond account, beginning in the year in which the zero coupon bonds are issued, an amount not less than the sum of:

(1) the total stated principal amount of the zero coupon bonds that would have matured from their date of issue to and including the second July 1 following the transfer of appropriated money, if the bonds matured serially in an equal principal amount in each year during their term and in the same month as their stated maturity date; plus

(2) the total amount of interest accruing on the stated principal amount of the bonds and on interest previously accrued, from the bonds' date of issue to and including the second July 1 following the transfer of appropriated money; less

(3) the amount in the sinking fund account for the payment of the compounded maturity amount of the bonds, including interest earnings on amounts in the account. This appropriation is in lieu of all other appropriations made with respect to zero coupon bonds. The appropriated amounts must be transferred from the general fund to the sinking fund account in the state bond fund by December 1 of each year.

Sec. 3. [APPROPRIATION.]

The amount necessary to pay for the cost of the marketing study under section 1, subdivision 2, and the marketing plan under section 2, subdivision 3, is appropriated to the commissioner of finance out of the proceeds of the college savings bonds. The cost of the marketing study must not exceed $60,000.

Sec. 4. [REPEALER.]

Sections 1 to 3 are repealed December 31, 1989.

Sec. 5. [EFFECTIVE DATE.]

This act is effective the day following final enactment and applies to authorizations of state bonds under laws enacted before or after the effective date of this act."

CONFERENCE COMMITTEE REPORT ON H. F. NO. 1749

A bill for an act relating to transportation; increasing the tax on gasoline and special fuel to 20 cents per gallon; increasing the share of motor vehicle excise tax revenues dedicated to highways and transit to 35 percent; amending Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 296.02, subdivision 1b; and Minnesota Statutes 1987 Supplement, sections 296.025, subdivisions 2a and 2b; and 297B.09, subdivision 1.

April 20, 1988

The Honorable Robert Vanasek
Speaker of the House of Representatives

The Honorable Jerome M. Hughes
President of the Senate

We, the undersigned conferees for H. F. No. 1749, report that we have agreed upon the items in dispute and recommend as follows:

That the Senate recede from its amendment and that H. F. No. 1749 be further amended as follows:

Delete everything after the enacting clause and insert:

"Section 1. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 296.02, subdivision 1b, is amended to read:

Subd. 1b. [RATES IMPOSED.] The gasoline excise tax is imposed at the following rate:

(a) For the period beginning on the first day of the month following the month of final enactment of Laws 1983, chapter 17; or on the first day of the second month following the month of final enactment of Laws 1983, chapter 17 if the date of final enactment of Laws 1983, chapter 17 is within 15 days of the end of the month, and ending December 31, 1983, gasoline is taxed at the rate of 16 cents per gallon.

(b) For the period on and after January 1, 1984, May 1, 1988, gasoline is taxed at the rate of 17 20 cents per gallon.

Sec. 2. Minnesota Statutes 1987 Supplement, section 296.025, subdivision 2a, is amended to read:

Subd. 2a. [TAX IMPOSED FOR RAILROAD USE.] There is imposed an excise tax of, at the same rate of 17 cents per gallon as the gasoline excise tax on special fuel used to propel trains in this state and not otherwise taxed as gasoline. The tax shall be computed by using the same method as the gasoline excise tax imposed for railroad use under section 296.02, subdivision 2a, and shall be payable at the times, in the manner, and by the persons specified in this chapter.

Sec. 3. Minnesota Statutes 1987 Supplement, section 296.025, subdivision 2b, is amended to read:

Subd. 2b. [TAX IMPOSED FOR BARGE USE.] There is imposed an excise tax of, at the same rate of 17 cents per gallon as the gasoline excise tax on special fuel used to propel barges in this state and not otherwise taxed as gasoline. The tax shall be computed by using the same method as the gasoline excise tax imposed for barge use under section 296.02, subdivision 2b, and shall be payable at the times, in the manner, and by the persons specified in this chapter.

Sec. 4. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 296.026, subdivision 2, as amended by Laws 1988, chapter 450, section 4, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [PERMIT FEES IMPOSED.] The fees for annual alternate fuel permits are based on each vehicle's mileage in the preceding year and are as follows:

Gross Vehicle Weight	Fee
Under 6,000 pounds	$7.50 $8.80 per 1,000 miles
6,001 - 12,000 pounds	$ 9 $10.60 per 1,000 miles
12,001 - 18,000 pounds	$16 $18.80 per 1,000 miles
18,001 - 26,000 pounds	$23 $27.10 per 1,000 miles
26,001 - 36,000 pounds	$27 $31.80 per 1,000 miles
Over 36,000 pounds	$34 $40.00 per 1,000 miles

A log with validating receipts pertaining to the vehicle's out of state mileage may be supplied to the commissioner of public safety at the time of permit application to be subtracted from the actual mileage for the purpose of calculating the permit fee. If no true cumulative mileage figures are available for the preceding year, the fee charged under this section must be based on 15,000 miles driven within the state.

The fee for a permit required by this section must be calculated based on the number of unexpired months remaining in the registration year of the vehicle as measured from the date of the occurrence of the event requiring the permit.

Sec. 5. Minnesota Statutes 1987 Supplement, section 297B.09, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [GENERAL FUND SHARE.] (a) Money collected and received under this chapter must be deposited in the state treasury and credited to the general fund. The amounts collected and received shall be credited to the ~~highway user tax distribution fund and the transit assistance fund~~ as provided in this subdivision, and transferred from the general fund on July 15 and January 15 of each fiscal year. The commissioner of finance must make each transfer based upon the actual receipts of the preceding six calendar months and include the interest earned during that six-month period. The commissioner of finance may establish a quarterly or other schedule providing for more frequent payments to the transit assistance fund if the commissioner determines it is necessary or desirable to provide for the cash flow needs of the recipients of money from the transit assistance fund.

Five (b) Thirty percent of the money collected and received under this chapter after June 30, 1988, and before July 1, 1991, must be deposited in the highway user tax distribution fund and the transit assistance fund for apportionment as provided in this section. Of the money deposited under this section, follows: 75 percent must be credited to the highway user tax distribution fund for apportionment in the same manner and for the same purposes as other money in that fund, and the remaining 25 percent of the money must be credited to the transit assistance fund to be appropriated to the commissioner of transportation for transit assistance within the state and to the regional transit board.

(c) Thirty percent of the money collected and received under this chapter after June 30, 1991, must be deposited in the trunk highway fund and the transit assistance fund for apportionment as follows: 75 percent must be credited to the trunk highway fund and the remaining 25 percent must be credited to the transit assistance fund.

(b) (d) The distributions under this subdivision to the highway user tax distribution fund until June 30, 1991, and to the trunk highway fund thereafter, must be reduced by the amount necessary to fund the appropriation under section 41A.09, subdivision 1. For the fiscal years ending June 30, 1988, and June 30, 1989, the commissioner of finance, before making the transfers required on July 15 and January 15 of each year, shall estimate the amount required to fund the appropriation under section 41A.09, subdivision 1, for the six-month period for which the transfer is being made. The commissioner shall then reduce the amount transferred to the highway user tax distribution fund by the amount of that estimate. The commissioner shall reduce the estimate for any six-month period by the amount by which the estimate for the previous six-month period exceeded the amount needed to fund the appropriation under section 41A.09, subdivision 1, for that previous six-month period. If at any time during a six-month period in those fiscal years the amount of reduction in the transfer to the highway user tax distribution fund is insufficient to fund the appropriation under section 41A.09, subdivision 1 for that period, the commissioner shall transfer to the general fund from the highway user tax distribution fund an additional amount sufficient to fund the appropriation for that period, but the additional amount so transferred to the general fund in a six-month period may not exceed the amount transferred to the highway user tax distribution fund for that six-month period.

Sec. 6. [TRANSPORTATION STUDY BOARD.]

Subdivision 1. [BOARD CREATED; MEMBERSHIP.] A transportation study board is created to consist of the following members:

(1) four members of the senate, with not more than three of the same political party, appointed by the senate committee on committees;

(2) four members of the house of representatives, with not more than three of the same political party, appointed by the speaker of the house;

(3) thirteen members appointed by the governor, with at least one member but not more than two members from each congressional district. The governor shall appoint members so that at least one member represents each of the following:

(i) business, commerce and industry;

(ii) labor;

(iii) agriculture;

(iv) tourism;

(v) natural resources industries; and

(vi) local government.

Vacancies on the board shall be filled by the appointing authority. The board shall elect from among its members a chair, who must be a member of the legislature, and other officers as it deems necessary.

Subd. 2. [STUDIES.] (a) The board shall conduct a study of Minnesota's surface transportation needs into the 21st century and recommend a program for making transportation improvements to meet those needs.

(b) The board shall consider state policy toward highways, transit and rail service, including:

(1) state transportation goals and objectives;

(2) the present level of transportation service in Minnesota and the feasibility and desirability of alternative levels of service;

(3) how statewide and regional transportation planning is done and investment priorities determined, and whether changes are needed in these processes; and

(4) the extent to which the state should contribute financially to local and regional transportation activities.

(c) The board shall consider methods of providing more cost-effective transportation service, including:

(1) increased use of public-private partnerships;

(2) present and alternative methods of relating transportation expenditures to benefits;

(3) potential cost-saving measures in the department of transportation, including changes in department staffing levels; and

(4) departmental procedures for bid-letting and establishment of design standards.

(d) The board shall consider whether additional funding is required to accomplish transportation goals and objectives, and if so, desirable and feasible sources of revenue, including non-traditional sources.

Subd. 3. [COMPENSATION.] The compensation of nonlegislator members and their removal from office are as provided in Minnesota Statutes, section 15.059. Members who are legislators must be compensated in the same manner as for other legislative meetings. Compensation for legislators and nonlegislators must be paid from the appropriation in section 7, paragraph (a).

Subd. 4. [REPORTS.] The board shall make a preliminary report to the chairs of the senate and house committees on transportation, the senate committee on finance and the house committee on appropriations not later than March 15, 1989. The board shall make a final report to the legislature and governor on its findings and recommendations not later than January 15, 1991.

Subd. 5. April 19, 1988

The Honorable Jerome M. Hughes

The Honorable Robert Vanasek

We, the undersigned conferees for S. F. No. 63, report that we have agreed upon the items in dispute and recommend as follows:

That the House recede from its amendment and that S. F. No. 63 be further amended as follows:

Delete everything after the enacting clause and insert:

“Section 1. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 168.011, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 5a. [REGISTERED OWNER.] “Registered owner” means any person, firm, association, or corporation, other than a secured party, having title to a motor vehicle. If a passenger automobile, as defined in subdivision 7, is under lease for a term of 180 days or more, the lessee is deemed to be the registered owner, for purposes of registration only, provided that the application for renewal of the registration of a passenger automobile described in this subdivision shall be sent to the lessor.

Sec. 2. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 168.013, subdivision 7, is amended to read:

Subd. 7. [AGENTS.] Any act required herein of an a registered owner may be performed in the registered owner's behalf by a duly authorized agent. Any person having a lien upon, or claim to, any motor vehicle may pay any tax due thereon to prevent the penalty for delayed registration from accruing, but the registration certificate and number plates shall not be issued until legal ownership is definitely determined.

Sec. 3. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 168.041, subdivision 7, is amended to read:

Subd. 7. If an a registered owner wishes to sell a motor vehicle during the time its registration plates and registration certificate are impounded or during the time its registration plates bear a special series number, the registered owner may apply to the court which impounded such plates and certificate, for consent to transfer title to the motor vehicle. If the court is satisfied that the proposed sale is in good faith and for a valid consideration, that the registered owner will thereby be deprived of the custody and control of the motor vehicle, and that the sale is not for the purpose of circumventing the provisions of this section, it may certify its consent to the registrar of motor vehicles and return the impounded registration plates and certificates. If during the time the registration plates and certificate of registration are impounded the title to said motor vehicle is transferred by the foreclosure of a chattel mortgage, the cancellation of a conditional sales contract, a sale upon execution, or by decree or order of a court of competent jurisdiction, the court shall order the license plates and registration certificate surrendered to the new registered owner and notify the registrar of motor vehicles of such action. The registrar of motor vehicles shall then transfer the registration plates and registration certificates to the new registered owner.

Sec. 4. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 168.10, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [APPLICATION.] Except as provided in subdivisions 1a, 1b, 1c, 1d, 1g, and 1h, every registered owner of any motor vehicle in this state, not exempted by section 168.012 or 168.26, shall as soon as registered ownership of a motor vehicle is acquired and annually thereafter during the period provided in section 168.31, file with the commissioner of public safety on a blank provided by the commissioner a listing for taxation and application for the registration of such vehicle, stating the first, middle and last names, the dates of birth, and addresses of all registered owners thereof who are natural persons, the full names and addresses of all other registered owners, the name and address of the person from whom purchased, make of motor vehicle, year and number of the model, manufacturer's identification number or serial number, type of body, the weight of the vehicle in pounds, for trailers only, its rated load carrying capacity and for buses only, its seating capacity, and such other information as the commissioner may require. When it has been determined that the number had been affixed to such vehicle in a manner prescribed by the commissioner, the vehicle may thereafter be registered in the same manner as other motor vehicles. "ARTICLE 1

Section 1. [CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENT PROPOSED; ENVIRONMENTAL AND NATURAL RESOURCES TRUST FUND.]

Subdivision 1. [AMENDMENT.] The following amendment to the Minnesota Constitution, adding a section to article XI, is proposed to the people. If the amendment is adopted, the section will read as follows:

Sec. 14. A permanent Minnesota environment and natural resources trust fund is established in the state treasury. The principal of the environment and natural resources trust fund must be perpetual and inviolate forever, except appropriations may be made from up to 25 percent of the annual revenues deposited in the fund until fiscal year 1997 and loans may be made of up to five percent of the principal of the fund for water system improvements as provided by law. This restriction does not prevent the sale of investments at less than the cost to the fund, however, all losses not offset by gains shall be repaid to the fund from the earnings of the fund. The net earnings from the fund shall be appropriated in a manner prescribed by law for the public purpose of protection, conservation, preservation, and enhancement of the state's air, water, land, fish, wildlife, and other natural resources.

Subd. 2. [SUBMISSION TO VOTERS.] The proposed amendment must be submitted to the people at the 1988 general election. The question submitted shall be:

Minnesota environment and natural resources trust fund for environmental, natural resource, and wildlife purposes?

No

Sec. 2. [CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENT; PROPOSED LOTTERY.]

Subdivision 1. [AMENDMENT.] The following amendment to the Minnesota Constitution is proposed to the people. If the amendment is adopted, article XIII, section 5, will read as follows:

Sec. 5. The legislature shall not authorize any lottery or the sale of lottery tickets, other than authorizing a lottery and sale of lottery tickets for a lottery operated by the state.

Sec. 3. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 88.80, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [PILOT PROJECT.] The commissioner shall establish an aspen recycling program pilot project in the highest priority area on state lands in order to develop effective program procedures and practices. With respect to the pilot project, the commissioner may restrict bidding on contracts for the cutting, removal, and disposal of aspens, and for related activities, to loggers and others residing in the pilot project area designated under the program that are financially distressed. The commissioner may establish standards and procedures for awarding logging contracts under section 86.35, notwithstanding chapter 14, relating to eligibility for employment for conservation work projects.

Sec. 4. Minnesota Statutes 1987 Supplement, section 116C.69, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [FUNDING; ASSESSMENT.] The board shall finance its base line studies, general environmental studies, development of criteria, inventory preparation, monitoring of conditions placed on site certificates and construction permits, and all other work, other than specific site and route designation, from an assessment made quarterly, at least 30 days before the start of each quarter, by the board against all utilities with annual retail kilowatt-hour sales greater than 4,000,000 kilowatt-hours in the previous calendar year.

Until June 30, 1992, the assessment shall also include an amount sufficient to cover 60 percent of the costs to the pollution control agency of achieving, maintaining, and monitoring compliance with the acid deposition control standard adopted under sections 116.42 to 116.45, reprinting informational booklets on acid rain, and costs for additional research on the impacts of acid deposition on sensitive areas published under section 116.44, subdivision 1. The director of the pollution control agency must prepare a work plan and budget and submit them annually by June 30 to the pollution control agency board. The agency board must take public testimony on the budget and work plan. After the agency board approves the work plan and budget they must be submitted annually to the legislative commission on ~~Minnesota resources waste management~~ for review and recommendation before an assessment is levied. Each share shall be determined as follows: (1) the ratio that the annual retail kilowatt-hour sales in the state of each utility bears to the annual total retail kilowatt-hour sales in the state of all these utilities, multiplied by 0.667, plus (2) the ratio that the annual gross revenue from retail kilowatt-hour sales in the state of each utility bears to the annual total gross revenues from retail kilowatt-hour sales in the state of all these utilities, multiplied by 0.333, as determined by the board. The assessment shall be credited to the special revenue fund and shall be paid to the state treasury within 30 days after receipt of the bill, which shall constitute notice of said assessment and demand of payment thereof. The total amount which may be assessed to the several utilities under authority of this subdivision shall not exceed the sum of the annual budget of the board for carrying out the purposes of this subdivision plus 60 percent of the annual budget of the pollution control agency for achieving, maintaining, and monitoring compliance with the acid deposition control standard adopted under sections 116.42 to 116.45, for reprinting informational booklets on acid rain, and for costs for additional research on the impacts of acid deposition on sensitive areas published under section 116.44, subdivision 1. The assessment for the second quarter of each fiscal year shall be adjusted to compensate for the amount by which actual expenditures by the board and the pollution control agency for the preceding fiscal year were more or less than the estimated expenditures previously assessed.

Sec. 5. [116P.01] [FINDINGS.]

The legislature finds that all Minnesotans share the responsibility to ensure wise stewardship of the state's environment and natural resources for the benefit of current citizens and future generations. Proper management of the state's environment and natural resources includes and requires foresight, planning, and long-term activities that allow the state to preserve its high quality environment and provides for wise use of its natural resources. The legislature also finds that to undertake such activities properly, a long-term, consistent, and stable source of funding must be provided.
