The biennial budget document submitted to the legislature by the governor beginning with the 1992-1993 biennium shall indicate, by activity, the number of full-time equivalent positions included as base level and recommended changes. The governor's salary requests for the agency shall include all full-time, part-time, and seasonal dollars requested. Any change level request submitted to the legislature for consideration by the governor as part of the governor's biennial budget containing funding for salaries shall indicate the number of additional full-time equivalent positions and salary dollars requested.

Within the full-time equivalent number and amount of salary dollars appropriated for the department, the commissioner shall have the authority to establish as many full-time, part-time, or seasonal positions as required to accomplish the assigned responsibilities for the department. The commissioner shall have the authority to reallocate salary dollars for other operating expenses, but the commissioner shall not have authority to reallocate other operating funds to increase the total amount appropriated for salary-related expenses, including salary supplement, without receiving prior approval according to the process defined in this subdivision.

In the event that the commissioner finds it necessary to exceed the full-time equivalent number or the amount of appropriated dollars and the legislature is not in session, the commissioner shall seek approval of the legislative advisory commission under subdivision 4. Legislative advisory commission approved full-time equivalent positions and dollars shall not become a part of the agency budget base unless authorized by the legislature.

Sec. 61. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 16A.133, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Sec. 62. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 16B.24, subdivision 6, is amended to read:

- Subd. 6. [PROPERTY RENTAL.] (a) [LEASES.] The commissioner shall rent land and other premises when necessary for state purposes. The commissioner may lease land or premises for five years or less, subject to cancellation upon 30 days written notice by the state for any reason except rental of other land or premises for the same use. The commissioner may not rent non-state-owned land and buildings or substantial portions of land or buildings within the capitol area as defined in section 15.50 unless the commissioner first consults with the capitol area architectural and planning board. If the commissioner enters into a lease-purchase agreement for buildings or substantial portions of buildings within the capitol area, the commissioner shall require that any new construction of non-stateowned buildings conform to design guidelines of the capitol area architectural and planning board. Lands needed by the department of transportation for storage of vehicles or road materials may be rented for five years or less, such leases for terms over two years being subject to cancellation upon 30 days written notice by the state for any reason except rental of other land or premises for the same use.
- (b) [USE VACANT PUBLIC SPACE.] No agency may initiate or renew a lease for space for its own use in a private building unless the commissioner has thoroughly investigated presently vacant space in public buildings, such as closed school buildings, and found that none is available.
- (c) [PREFERENCE FOR CERTAIN BUILDINGS.] For needs beyond those which can be accommodated in state-owned buildings, the commissioner shall acquire and utilize space in suitable buildings of historical, architectural, or cultural significance for the purposes of this subdivision unless use of that space is not feasible, prudent and cost effective compared with available alternatives. Buildings are of historical, architectural, or cultural significance if they are listed on the national register of historic places, designated by a state or county historical society, or designated by a municipal preservation commission.
- (d) [RECYCLING SPACE.] Leases for space of 30 days or more for 5,000 square feet or more must require that space be provided for recyclable materials.
- Sec. 63. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 16B.41, subdivision 2, is amended to read:
- Subd. 2. [RESPONSIBILITIES.] The office has the following duties:
- (a) The office must develop and establish a state information architecture to ensure that further state agency development and purchase of information systems equipment and software is directed in such a manner that individual agency information systems complement and do not needlessly duplicate or needlessly conflict with the systems of other agencies. In those instances where state agencies have need for the same or similar computer data, the commissioner shall ensure that the most efficient and cost-effective method of producing and storing data for or sharing data between those agencies is used. The development of this information architecture must include the establishment of standards and guidelines to be followed by state agencies. The commissioner of administration must establish interim standards and guidelines by August 1, 1987. The office must establish permanent standards and guidelines by July 1, 1988. On January 1, 1988, and every six months thereafter, any state agency that has purchased information systems equipment or software in the past six months, or that is contemplating purchasing this equipment or software in the next six months, must report to the office and to the chairs of the house appropriations committee and the senate finance committee on how the purchases or proposed purchases comply with the applicable standards and guidelines.

- (b) The office shall assist state agencies in the planning and management of information systems so that an individual information system reflects and supports the state agency's and the state's mission, requirements, and functions.
- (c) Beginning July 1, 1988, the office must review and approve all agency requests for legislative appropriations for the development or purchase of information systems equipment or software. Requests may not be included in the governor's budget submitted to the legislature, beginning with the budget submitted in January 1989, unless the office has approved the request.
- (d) Each biennium the office must rank in order of priority agency requests for new appropriations for development or purchase of information systems equipment or software. The office must submit this ranking to the legislature at the same time, or no later than 14 days after, the governor submits the budget message to the legislature.
- (e) Beginning July 1, 1989, the office must define, review, and approve major purchases of information systems equipment to (1) ensure that the equipment follows the standards and guidelines of the state information architecture; (2) ensure that the equipment is consistent with the information management principles adopted by the information policy council; (3) evaluate whether or not the agency's proposed purchase reflects a cost-effective policy regarding volume purchasing; and (4) ensure the equipment is consistent with other systems in other state agencies so that data can be shared among agencies, unless the office determines that the agency purchasing the equipment has special needs justifying the inconsistency. The commissioner of finance may not allot funds appropriated for major purchases of information systems equipment until the office reviews and approves the proposed purchase.

(f) The office shall review the operation of information systems by state agencies and provide advice and assistance so that these systems are operated efficiently and continually meet the standards and guidelines established by the office.

Sec. 64. [16B.465] [STATEWIDE TELECOMMUNICATIONS ACCESS ROUTING SYSTEM.]

Subdivision 1. [CREATION.] The statewide telecommunications access routing system provides voice, data, video, and other telecommunications transmission services to state agencies, educational institutions, public corporations, and state political subdivisions. It is not a telephone company for purposes of chapter 237. It shall not resell or sublease any services or facilities to nonpublic entities. The commissioner has the responsibility for planning, development, and operations of a statewide telecommunications access routing system in order to provide cost-effective telecommunications transmission services to system users.

- Subd. 2. [ADVISORY COUNCIL.] The statewide telecommunications access routing system is managed by the commissioner. Subject to section 15.059, subdivisions 1 to 4, the commissioner shall appoint an advisory council to provide assistance in implementing a statewide telecommunications access routing system. The council consists of:
- (1) one member appointed by the higher education advisory council established by section 136A.02, subdivision 6;
- (2) the system heads, or their designees, of the University of Minnesota, the state university system, the community colleges system, and the board of vocational technical education; and
- (3) five members appointed by the governor or the governor's designee or designees, four of whom must be agency heads or their designees or representatives of political subdivisions.

No member of the advisory council may be a vendor of telecommunications equipment or services or an employee or representative of a vendor.

 $\underline{\underline{Subd.\ 3.\ [DUTIES.]}\ \underline{The}\ \underline{commissioner,\ \underline{after}\ \underline{consultation}\ \underline{with}\ \underline{the}}}$

(1) provide voice, data, video, and other telecommunications transmission services to the state and to political subdivisions through the statewide telecommunications access routing system revolving fund;

- (3) manage vendor relationships, network function, and capacity planning in order to be responsive to the needs of the system users;
  - (4) set rates and fees for services;
  - (5) approve contracts relating to the system;
- (6) develop the system plan, including plans for the phasing of its implementation and maintenance of the initial system, and the annual program and fiscal plans for the system; and
- (7) develop a plan for interconnection of the network with private colleges in the state.
- Subd. 4. [PROGRAM PARTICIPATION.] The commissioner may require the participation of state agencies and the governing boards of the state universities, the community colleges, and the technical institutes, and may request the participation of the board of regents of the University of Minnesota, in the planning and implementation of the network to provide interconnective technologies. The commissioner shall establish reimbursement rates in cooperation with the commissioner of finance to be billed to participating agencies and educational institutions sufficient to cover the operating, maintenance, and administrative costs of the system.
- Subd. 5. [RULES.] The commissioner shall adopt rules for the operation of this program. The rules must require participation of state agencies in the network to provide interconnective technologies. The rules may require the participation of the governing boards of the state universities, the community colleges, and the technical institutes, and may request the participation of the board of regents of the University of Minnesota, in the planning of the program. The commissioner shall establish reimbursement rates in cooperation with the commissioner of the department of finance to be billed to participating agencies and educational institutions sufficient to cover the operating, maintenance, and administrative costs of the system.
- Subd. 6. [REVOLVING ACCOUNT.] The statewide telecommunications access routing system revolving account is a separate account for the department of administration in the state treasury for the receipt of and payment of funds for the statewide telecommunications access routing system established in subdivision 1. Money appropriated to the account and fees for communications services provided by the statewide telecommunications access routing system must be deposited in the account. Money in the account is appropriated annually to the commissioner to operate the statewide telecommunications access routing system.

- Subd. 7. [EXEMPTION.] The system is exempt from the five-year limitation on contracts set by section 16B.07, subdivision 2.
- Sec. 65. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 16B.61, subdivision 5, is amended to read:
- Subd. 5. [ACCESSIBILITY.] (a) [PUBLIC BUILDINGS.] The code must provide for making public buildings constructed or remodeled after July 1, 1963, accessible to and usable by physically handicapped persons, although this does not require the remodeling of public buildings solely to provide accessibility and usability to the physically handicapped when remodeling would not otherwise be undertaken.
- (b) [LEASED SPACE.] No agency of the state may lease space for agency operations in a non-state-owned building unless the building satisfies the requirements of the state building code for accessibility by the physically handicapped, or is eligible to display the state symbol of accessibility. This limitation applies to leases of 30 days or more for space of at least 1,000 square feet.
- (c) [MEETINGS OR CONFERENCES.] Meetings or conferences for the public or for state employees which are sponsored in whole or in part by a state agency must be held in buildings that meet the state building code requirements relating to accessibility for physically handicapped persons. This subdivision does not apply to any classes, seminars, or training programs offered by a state university, the University of Minnesota, or a state community college. Meetings or conferences intended for specific individuals none of whom need the accessibility features for handicapped persons specified in the state building code need not comply with this subdivision unless a handicapped person gives reasonable advance notice of an intent to attend the meeting or conference. When sign language interpreters will be provided, meetings or conference sites must be chosen which allow hearing impaired participants to see their signing clearly.
- (d) [EXEMPTIONS.] The commissioner may grant an exemption from the requirements of paragraphs (b) and (c) in advance if an agency has demonstrated that reasonable efforts were made to secure facilities which complied with those requirements and if the selected facilities are the best available for access for handicapped persons. Exemptions shall be granted using criteria developed by the commissioner in consultation with the council on disability.
- (e) [SYMBOL INDICATING ACCESS.] The wheelchair symbol adopted by Rehabilitation International's Eleventh World Congress is the state symbol indicating buildings, facilities, and grounds which are accessible to and usable by handicapped persons. In the interests of uniformity, this symbol in its white on blue format is the sole symbol for display in or on all public or private buildings, facilities, and grounds which qualify for its use. The secretary of state shall obtain the symbol and keep it on file. No building, facility, or grounds may display the symbol unless it is in compliance with the rules adopted by the commissioner under subdivision 1. Before any rules are proposed for adoption under this paragraph, the commissioner shall consult with the council on disability. Rules adopted under this paragraph must be enforced in the same way as other accessibility rules of the state building code.

- (f) [MUNICIPAL ENFORCEMENT.] Municipalities which have not adopted the state building code may enforce the building code requirements for handicapped persons by either entering into a joint powers agreement for enforcement with another municipality which has adopted the state building code; or contracting for enforcement with an individual certified under section 16B.65, subdivision 3, to enforce the state building code.
- (g) [EQUIPMENT ALLOWED.] The code must allow the use of vertical wheelchair lifts and inclined stairway wheelchair lifts in public buildings. An inclined stairway wheelchair lift must be equipped with light or sound signaling device for use during operation of the lift. The stairway or ramp shall be marked in a bright color that clearly indicates the outside edge of the lift when in operation. The code shall not require a guardrail between the lift and the stairway or ramp. Compliance with this provision by itself does not mean other handicap accessibility requirements have been met.
- Sec. 66. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 84.025, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:
- Subd. 9. [PROFESSIONAL SERVICES SUPPORT ACCOUNT.] The commissioner of natural resources may bill the various programs carried out by the commissioner for the costs of providing them with professional support services. Receipts must be credited to a special account in the state treasury and are appropriated to the commissioner to pay the costs for which the billings were made.

The commissioner of natural resources shall submit to the commissioner of finance before the start of each fiscal year a work plan showing the estimated work to be done during the coming year, the estimated cost of doing the work, and the positions and fees that will be necessary. This account is exempted from statewide and agency indirect cost payments.

Sec. 67. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 84.0272, is amended to read:

84.0272 [PROCEDURE IN ACQUIRING LANDS.]

When the commissioner of natural resources is authorized to acquire lands or interests in lands the procedure set forth in this section shall apply. The commissioner of natural resources shall first prepare a fact sheet showing the lands to be acquired, the legal authority for their acquisition, and the qualities of the land that make it a desirable acquisition. The commissioner of natural resources shall cause the lands to be appraised. An appraiser shall before entering upon the duties of office take and subscribe an oath to faithfully and impartially discharge the duties as appraiser according to the best of the appraiser's ability and that the appraiser is not interested directly or indirectly in any of the lands to be appraised or the timber or improvements thereon or in the sale thereof and has entered into no agreement or combination to purchase the same or any part thereof, which oath shall be attached to the report of the appraisal. The commissioner of natural resources may pay less than the appraised value, but shall not agree to pay more than ten percent above the appraised value, except that if the commissioner pays less than the appraised value for a parcel of land, the difference between the purchase price and the appraised value may be used to apply to purchases at more than the appraised value. The sum of accumulated differences between appraised amounts and purchases for more than the appraised amount may not exceed the sum of accumulated differences between appraised amounts and purchases for less than the appraised amount. New appraisals may be made at the discretion of the commissioner of natural resources.

Sec. 68. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 84.0274, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 8. [EXCEPTION FOR RAILROAD RIGHT-OF-WAY ACQUISITIONS.] When the commissioner of natural resources acquires abandoned railroad right-of-way from a railroad, railroad holding company, or similar entity, any or all of the provisions of this section may be waived by mutual agreement of the commissioner and the landowner.

- Subd. 5. [RESEARCH.] The commissioner shall initiate cooperative research with the Freshwater Foundation and the University of Minnesota freshwater biological institute to study the use of non-chemical methods, including biological control agents, for control of Eurasian water milfoil.

- (9) standards of conduct and other operating guidelines for Minnesota conservation corps members; and
- (10) a determination of preference for projects that will provide long-term benefits to the public, will provide productive work and public service experience to Minnesota conservation corps members, will be primarily labor intensive, and will provide a significant return on taxpayer investment.
- (b) The commissioner shall establish the plan notwithstanding chapter 14. No later than July 1, 1990, the plan established under this paragraph shall be adopted under the rulemaking provisions of chapter 14.
- Subd. 3. [CRITERIA FOR DETERMINING ECONOMIC, SOCIAL, PHYSICAL, OR EDUCATIONAL DISADVANTAGE.] (a) The criteria for determining economic, social, physical, or educational disadvantage shall be determined as provided in this subdivision.

- Subd. 5. [CORPS MEMBER STATUS.] Minnesota conservation corps members are not eligible for unemployment compensation or other benefits except workers' compensation, and are not employees of the state within the meaning of section 43A.02, subdivision 21.

Supervising agencies that participate in the program may not terminate, lay off, reduce the seasonal hours, or reduce the working hours of any employee for the purpose of using a corps member with available funds. The positions and job duties of persons employed in projects shall be submitted to affected exclusive representatives prior to actual assignment.

The money must be apportioned to the counties in the proportion that each county's managed commercial forest land is to the managed commercial forest land in all 14 counties. If a county does not use all of its share, the commissioner shall reallocate the balance to those of the 14 counties whose Minnesota conservation corps program was not fully supported by the first allocation for either year. The reallocation must be based on the proportion that commercial forest lands in each county to receive the reallocated money is to the managed commercial forest land in all of the counties receiving a reallocation.

Sec. 72. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 85A.01, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

- (4) Requiring the construction, installation, maintenance, and operation by any person of any disposal system or any part thereof, or other equipment and facilities, or the reconstruction, alteration, or enlargement of its existing disposal system or any part thereof, or the adoption of other remedial measures to prevent, control or abate any discharge or deposit of sewage, industrial waste or other wastes by any person;

- (5) Establishing, and from time to time revising, standards of performance for new sources taking into consideration, among other things, classes, types, sizes, and categories of sources, processes, pollution control technology, cost of achieving such effluent reduction, and any nonwater quality environmental impact and energy requirements. Said standards of performance for new sources shall encompass those standards for the control of the discharge of pollutants which reflect the greatest degree of effluent reduction which the agency determines to be achievable through application of the best available demonstrated control technology, processes, operating methods, or other alternatives, including, where practicable, a standard permitting no discharge of pollutants. New sources shall encompass buildings, structures, facilities, or installations from which there is or may be the discharge of pollutants, the construction of which is commenced after the publication by the agency of proposed rules prescribing a standard of performance which will be applicable to such source. Notwithstanding any other provision of the law of this state, any point source the construction of which is commenced after May 20, 1973 and which is so constructed as to meet all applicable standards of performance for new sources shall, consistent with and subject to the provisions of section 306(d) of the Amendments of 1972 to the Federal Water Pollution Control Act, not be subject to any more stringent standard of performance for new sources during a ten-year period beginning on the date of completion of such construction or during the period of depreciation or amortization of such facility for the purposes of section 167 or 169, or both, of the Federal Internal Revenue Code of 1954, whichever period ends first. Construction shall encompass any placement, assembly, or installation of facilities or equipment, including contractual obligations to purchase such facilities or equipment, at the premises where such equipment will be used, including preparation work at such premises;

- (7) Requiring the owner or operator of any disposal system or any point source to establish and maintain such records, make such reports, install, use, and maintain such monitoring equipment or methods, including where appropriate biological monitoring methods, sample such effluents in accordance with such methods, at such locations, at such intervals, and in such a manner as the agency shall prescribe, and providing such other information as the agency may reasonably require;
- (8) Notwithstanding any other provision of this chapter, and with respect to the pollution of waters of the state, chapter 116, requiring the achievement of more stringent limitations than otherwise imposed by effluent limitations in order to meet any applicable water quality standard by establishing new effluent limitations, based upon section 115.01, subdivision 5, clause (b), including alternative effluent control strategies for any point source or group of point sources to insure the integrity of water quality classifications, whenever the agency determines that discharges of pollutants from such point source or sources, with the application of effluent limitations required to comply with any standard of best available technology, would interfere with the attainment or maintenance of the water quality classification in a specific portion of the waters of the state. Prior to establishment of any such effluent limitation, the agency shall hold a public hearing to determine the relationship of the economic and social costs of achieving such limitation or limitations, including any economic or social dislocation in the affected community or communities, to the social and economic benefits to be obtained and to determine whether or not such effluent limitation can be implemented with available technology or other alternative control strategies. If a person affected by such limitation demonstrates at such hearing that, whether or not such technology or other alternative control strategies are available, there is no reasonable relationship between the economic and social costs and the benefits to be obtained, such limitation shall not become effective and shall be adjusted as it applies to such person;

- (9) Modifying, in its discretion, any requirement or limitation based upon best available technology with respect to any point source for which a permit application is filed after July 1, 1977 upon a showing by the owner or operator of such point source satisfactory to the agency that such modified requirements will represent the maximum use of technology within the economic capability of the owner or operator and will result in reasonable further progress toward the elimination of the discharge of pollutants;
- (f) To require to be submitted and to approve plans and specifications for disposal systems or point sources, or any part thereof and to inspect the construction thereof for compliance with the approved plans and specifications thereof;
- (g) To prescribe and alter rules, not inconsistent with law, for the conduct of the agency and other matters within the scope of the powers granted to and imposed upon it by this chapter and, with respect to pollution of waters of the state, in chapter 116, provided that every rule affecting any other department or agency of the state or any person other than a member or employee of the agency shall be filed with the secretary of state;
- (h) To conduct such investigations, issue such notices, public and otherwise, and hold such hearings as are necessary or which it may deem advisable for the discharge of its duties under this chapter and, with respect to the pollution of waters of the state, under chapter 116, including, but not limited to, the issuance of permits, and to authorize any member, employee, or agent appointed by it to conduct such investigations or, issue such notices and hold such hearings;

- (i) For the purpose of water pollution control planning by the state and pursuant to the Federal Water Pollution Control Act, as amended, to establish and revise planning areas, adopt plans and programs and continuing planning processes, including, but not limited to, basin plans and areawide waste treatment management plans, and to provide for the implementation of any such plans by means of, including, but not limited to, standards, plan elements, procedures for revision, intergovernmental cooperation, residual treatment process waste controls, and needs inventory and ranking for construction of disposal systems;
- (j) To train water pollution control personnel, and charge such fees therefor as are necessary to cover the agency's costs. All such fees received shall be paid into the state treasury and credited to the water pollution control training fund of the agency, from which the agency shall have the power to make disbursements to pay expenses relating to such training;
- (k) To impose as additional conditions in permits to publicly owned disposal systems appropriate measures to insure compliance by industrial and other users with any pretreatment standard, including, but not limited to, those related to toxic pollutants, and any system of user charges ratably as is hereby required under state law or said Federal Water Pollution Control Act, as amended, or any regulations or guidelines promulgated thereunder;

- (n) To train individual sewage treatment system personnel, including persons who design, construct, install, inspect, service, and operate individual sewage treatment systems, and charge fees as necessary to pay the agency's costs. All fees received must be paid into the state treasury and credited to the agency's training account. Money in the account is appropriated to the agency to pay expenses related to training.

The monitoring system must provide continuous emission measurements to ensure optimum combustion efficiency of dioxin precursors. The system must also be capable of providing a permanent record of monitored emissions that will be available upon request to the commissioner and the general public. The commissioner shall provide periodic inspection of the monitoring system to determine its continued accuracy. [INTERESTS OF COMMISSIONER.] Except upon the exercise of the commissioner's right of subrogation under section 153, the commissioner has no legal or equitable interest in any collateral, security, or other right of recovery in connection with any loan enrolled in the program, and the commissioner's consent is not necessary for any amendment to the lender's loan documents.

Sec. 149. [116J.8763] [ELIGIBLE LOANS.]

Subdivision 1. [LOAN TYPES.] Eligible loans may include:

- (1) loans made for industrial, commercial, or agricultural purposes;
  - (2) refinancing of loans made for the purposes in clause (1); and
- (3) lines of credit agreements established between the lender and borrower which are used for the purposes in clause (1).
- $\underline{Subd.}\ \underline{2.}\ [LOAN\ RESTRICTIONS.]\ \underline{Eligible}\ \underline{loans}\ \underline{must}\ \underline{meet}\ \underline{the}$  following criteria:
- (1) the lender has not made the loan in order to enroll in the program prior debt which is not covered under the program and which is or was owed by the borrower to the lender;
- (2) the proceeds of the loan will not be used for that portion of a project or development devoted to housing;
- (4) the proceeds of the loan will be used to finance a project or enterprise located within this state which will foster economic development in Minnesota.
- Subd. 3. [LOAN PROVISIONS.] An eligible loan may provide for an interest rate, fees, and other terms and conditions as the lender and borrower may agree. If the loan amount to be borrowed is determined by a commitment agreement that establishes a line of credit, the amount of the loan is the maximum amount available to the borrower under the agreement.
- Sec. 150. [116J.8764] [ENROLLMENT OF LOANS IN PROGRAM.]
- Subdivision 1. [FILING REQUIREMENTS.] (a) To enroll a loan under this program, the lender must file a completed loan enrollment form with the commissioner. The lender must also certify the following to the commissioner as part of the filing:
- (1) the lender has no substantial reason to believe that the loan is being made to a borrower who does not meet the requirements of section 146, subdivision 3;
- (2) that the lender has received from the borrower a written representation, warranty, pledge, and waiver stating that the borrower has no legal, beneficial, or equitable interest in the nonrefundable premium charges or any other funds credited to the reserve fund established to cover losses sustained by the lender on enrolled loans;

- (3) the loan being filed for enrollment is an eligible loan under section 149, and
- (4) premium changes required of the borrower and lender under this section have been deposited in the reserve fund.
- (b) The lender shall file the loan enrollment form within ten business days after the lender makes the loan. The date on which the lender makes a loan is the date on which the lender first disburses proceeds of the loan to the borrower or an earlier date on which the loan documents have been executed and the lender has obligated itself to disburse proceeds of the loan. The filing date of a loan enrollment form is the date on which the lender delivers the required documentation to the commissioner, delivers it to a professional courier service for delivery to the commissioner, or mails it to the commissioner by certified mail.
- Subd. 2. [COMMISSIONER ENROLLMENT; ACKNOWLEDG-MENT] When the commissioner receives the loan enrollment form, the commissioner shall enroll the loan, unless the information provided under subdivision 1 indicates that the loan is not an eligible loan, and shall deliver to the lender within five business days of receipt an acknowledgment of enrollment, signed by the commissioner or designee, including documentation of the amount being transferred by the commissioner into the reserve fund under this section.
- Subd. 3. [AMOUNT COVERED.] When filing a loan enrollment form, the lender may specify an amount to be covered under the program. The amount may be less than the total amount of the loan. Unless the context clearly requires otherwise, when used in connection with a loan or loans, the words "amount" and "proceeds" refer only to the amount covered under the agreement.
- Subd. 4. [AMOUNT COVERED IN REFINANCINGS.] (a) In the case of a loan to refinance a loan previously made to the borrower by the lender that was not enrolled under the program, the lender may obtain coverage under the program for an amount not exceeding the amount of additional financing.
- (b) If an enrolled loan is refinanced and the total amount to be covered under the program does not exceed the covered amount of the loan as previously enrolled, the refinanced loan may continue as an enrolled loan without payment of additional premium charges or transfers by the commissioner to the reserve fund.

- (c) If an enrolled loan is refinanced in an amount exceeding the amount of the loan as previously enrolled, the lender may obtain coverage of the amount of the refinanced loan that exceeds the amount covered when the loan was previously enrolled by refiling the loan for enrollment under subdivision 1.
- (d) Fluctuations in the outstanding balance of a line of credit, without increasing the enrolled amount under the program, are not a refinancing of the loan.
- Subd. 5. [TERMINATION OF ENROLLMENT.] If the outstanding balance of an enrolled loan which is not a line of credit is reduced to zero, the loan is no longer an enrolled loan. If an enrolled loan which is a line of credit has an outstanding balance of zero for a 12-month period, the line of credit is no longer an enrolled loan, unless, before the expiration of the 12-month period, the lender reaffirms in writing to the borrower that the line of credit will remain open and the borrower acknowledges the reaffirmation in writing.

Sec. 151. [116J.8765] [RESERVE FUND; PREMIUMS.]

Subdivision 1. [CREATION.] Upon execution of an agreement between the lender and the commissioner, the commissioner shall establish a reserve fund account with the lender in the name of the commissioner for the purpose of receiving all required premium charges to be paid by the lender and the borrower and transfers made by the commissioner under sections 146 to 155.

- Subd. 2. [PREMIUM PAYMENTS AND TRANSFERS TO RESERVE FUND.] The premium charges payable to the reserve fund by the lender and the borrower in connection with a loan filed for enrollment are determined by the lender. The premium paid by the borrower may not be less than 1.5 percent nor greater than 3.5 percent of the amount of the loan. The premium paid by the lender shall be equal to the amount of the premium paid by the borrower. The lender may recover from the borrower the cost of the lender's premium payment, in any manner in which the lender and borrower agree. When enrolling a loan, the commissioner shall transfer into the reserve fund from the account premium amounts determined as follows:
- (a) If the amount of any loan, plus the amount of loans previously enrolled by the lender, is less than $2,000,000, the premium amount transferred must be equal to 150 percent of the combined premiums paid into the reserve fund by the borrower and the lender for each enrolled loan.
- (b) If, prior to the enrollment of the loan, the amount of loans previously enrolled by the lender equals or exceeds $2,000,000, the premium amount transferred must be equal to the combined premiums paid into the reserve fund by the borrower and the lender for each enrolled loan.

- (c) If the amount of loans previously enrolled by the lender is less than $2,000,000, but the enrollment of a loan will cause the aggregate amount of all enrolled loans made by the lender to exceed $2,000,000, the premium amount transferred must be equal to a percentage of the combined amount paid by the lender and the borrower. The percentage must be determined by (1) multiplying by 150 that portion of the loan which when added to the amount of all previously enrolled loans totals $2,000,000, (2) multiplying the balance of the loan by 100, and (3) adding the products of the two amounts and dividing the sum by the total amount of the loan.
- Subd. 3. [LIMITATION OF TRANSFERS.] A maximum premium amount of $150,000 may be transferred into the reserve funds of all lenders participating in the program by the commissioner over any three-year period in connection with any one borrower or any group of borrowers among which a common enterprise exists. This maximum premium amount may be exceeded upon the written request by a lender only if the commissioner approves in writing the transfer of an amount in excess of $150,000. For the purpose of this subdivision, the term "common enterprise" has the meaning given it in Code of Federal Regulations, title 12, section 32, as amended.
- Subd. 4. [CONTROL AND INVESTMENT OF RESERVE FUND.]

  (a) All money credited to the reserve fund is under the exclusive control of the commissioner. The commissioner may not withdraw money from the reserve fund except as specifically provided in this subdivision and sections 152 and 154.
- (b) Money in the reserve fund must be deposited by the commissioner in an account with the lender unless the commissioner determines that the lender is not in substantial compliance with the requirements of the agreement. If money in the reserve fund is not deposited by the commissioner in an account with the lender, it must be invested or reinvested by the commissioner in (1) direct obligations of the United States or the state of Minnesota or in obligations the principal and interest of which are unconditionally guaranteed by the United States or the state of Minnesota, or (2) a deposit account at a depository institution whose deposits are insured by the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation or the Federal Savings and Loan Insurance Corporation.
- (c) Interest or income earned on the money credited to the reserve fund is part of the reserve fund. The commissioner may withdraw at any time from the reserve fund 50 percent of all interest or income that has been credited to the reserve fund, except that after the first withdrawal the commissioner may not withdraw more than 50 percent of all interest or income that has been credited to the reserve fund since the time of the last withdrawal. Any withdrawal made under this subdivision may be made prior to paying any claim. None of the amounts withdrawn need to be transferred back to the reserve fund. Any withdrawal under this subdivision must be credited in the capital access account.

- Subd. 5. [PLEDGE OF THE RESERVE FUND.] The commissioner shall pledge to the lender that the money in the reserve fund will be available to pay claims under section 152, that the lender will have a first security interest in the money in the reserve fund to pay the claims, and that the commissioner will not encumber or pledge the money to any other party.
- Subd. 6. [QUARTERLY REPORTS; INSPECTIONS.] (a) If the reserve fund is not maintained with the lender, the commissioner shall provide to the lender quarterly transaction reports indicating the balance in the reserve fund, payments and transfers into the reserve fund, withdrawals from the reserve fund, and interest or income earned on money credited to the reserve fund.
- (b) The records of the commissioner with respect to all payments and transfers into the reserve fund, withdrawals from the reserve fund, and interest or income earned on the money credited to the reserve fund, are available to the lender at the offices of the commissioner during normal business hours.

Sec. 152. [116J.8766] [CLAIMS BY LENDER TO RESERVE FUND.]

Subdivision 1. [CLAIM PROCESS.] (a) If the lender charges off all or part of an enrolled loan, the lender may file a claim with the commissioner. The claim must be filed contemporaneously with the charge-off.

- (b) The lender's claim may include, in addition to the amount of principal charged off plus accrued interest, one-half of the documented out-of-pocket expenses incurred in pursuing its collection efforts, including preservation of collateral. The amount of principal and accrued interest included in the claim may not exceed the principal amount covered under the program upon enrollment, plus accrued interest attributable to the covered principal amount.
- (c) The lender shall determine when and how much to charge off on an enrolled loan in a manner consistent with its normal method for making these determinations on similar loans which are not enrolled loans.
- (d) If the lender files two or more claims contemporaneously and there are insufficient funds in its reserve fund at that time to cover the entire amount of the claims, the lender may designate the order of priority in which the commissioner shall pay the claims.

- Subd. 2. [DISBURSEMENT OF RESERVE FUND.] (a) Upon receipt by the commissioner of a claim filed by the lender, the commissioner shall, within ten business days, pay or authorize the lender to withdraw from the reserve fund the amount of the claim as submitted, unless the information provided by the lender was known by the lender to be false at the time the loan was filed for enrollment. No other violation of sections 146 to 155 or the agreement is grounds for denial of a claim.
- (b) If there is insufficient money in the reserve fund to cover the entire amount of the lender's claim, the commissioner shall pay to the lender or authorize the lender to withdraw an amount equal to the current balance in the reserve fund and the following shall apply:
- (1) If the enrolled loan for which the claim has been filed is not an early loan, the payment fully satisfies the claim, and the lender has no right to receive any further amount from the reserve fund with respect to that claim.
- (2) If the loan is an early loan, the partial payment does not satisfy the lender's claim, and at any time that the remaining balance of the claim is not greater than 75 percent of the balance in the reserve fund at the time of the loss, the commissioner, upon request of the lender, shall pay the remaining balance of the claim.
- Subd. 3. [RECOVERY BY LENDER SUBSEQUENT TO CLAIM.]

  If, subsequent to payment of a claim by the commissioner, the lender recovers from a borrower any amount for which payment of the claim was made, the lender shall promptly pay to the commissioner for deposit in the reserve fund the amount recovered, less one-half of any documented out-of-pocket expenses incurred. The lender need pay to the commissioner for deposit in the reserve fund only amounts in excess of the amount of recovery needed to fully cover the lender's loss on an enrolled loan.

For the purposes of this subdivision and section 153, the lender's loss on an enrolled loan includes any losses on the loan including principal, accrued interest, and one-half of the documented out-of-pocket expenses attributable to principal amounts in excess of the amount covered under the program or the principal amount included in the claim.

Sec. 153. [116J.8767] [SUBROGATION OF CLAIMS.]

Subdivision 1. [LIMITATION.] The commissioner may exercise the right of subrogation under this section if the commissioner determines, in the commissioner's discretion, that the lender has not exercised reasonable care and diligence in its collection activities with respect to the loan or that there is a reasonable basis for believing that the lender will not exercise reasonable care and diligence in the future with respect to the collection activities.

- Subd. 2. [ASSIGNMENT OF RIGHTS.] If the payment of a claim has fully covered the lender's loss on an enrolled loan, or if the payment of a claim when combined with any recovery from the borrower has fully covered the lender's loss, the commissioner, upon request, is subrogated to the rights of the lender with respect to any collateral, security, or other right of recovery in connection with the loan that has not been realized by the lender. The lender thereafter shall assign to the commissioner any right, title, or interest to any collateral, security, or other right of recovery in connection with the loan.
- Subd. 3. [LENDER OBLIGATIONS.] If an assignment has been made, the commissioner is not required to undertake any obligations of the lender under its loan documents, except for any obligations directly related to the commissioner's assigned rights of recovery in connection with the loan. The lender shall fulfill any other obligations it may have under the loan documents in the same manner and to the same degree as required had the assignment not been made. The lender shall provide the commissioner with all reasonable assistance the commissioner requests in proceeding with respect to any collateral, security, or other right of recovery, except that the lender need not incur any out-of-pocket expenses.
- Subd. 4. [PAYMENT OF LENDER'S LOSS.] If the commissioner decides to exercise the right of subrogation in connection with an enrolled loan and would be entitled to exercise the right except for the fact that the lender's loss has not been fully covered, the commissioner may pay from money in the reserve fund an amount sufficient to fully cover the lender's loss even though the payment may cover a principal amount not covered under the program or not included in the lender's claim. Upon making the payment, the commissioner is subrogated to the rights of the lender.
- Subd. 5. [RECOVERED FUNDS.] Any money received by the commissioner as a result of enforcement actions taken with respect to any collateral, security, or other rights of recovery must be promptly deposited by the commissioner in the reserve fund, less any out-of-pocket expenses incurred by the commissioner in taking such enforcement actions.

Sec. 154. [116J.8768] [EXCESS RESERVE FUNDS.]

Subdivision 1. [REPORTS.] The lender shall file quarterly reports with the commissioner indicating the number and aggregate outstanding balance of all enrolled loans as of the end of each quarter. A quarterly report is not required for any quarter that ends with a balance in the reserve fund of zero, except that a calendar year-end report must be filed. In computing the aggregate outstanding balance of all enrolled loans, the balance of any loan may not be greater than the covered amount of the loan as enrolled.

Subd. 2. [WITHDRAWAL OF EXCESS RESERVE FUNDS.] (a) If reports filed under this section indicate that for the immediately preceding 24-month period the balance in the reserve fund continually exceeded the aggregate outstanding balance of all enrolled loans, the commissioner may withdraw from the reserve fund, on or before the last day of the month for which a report is due, an amount not greater than the amount by which the reserve fund balance exceeded the aggregate outstanding balance of all enrolled loans as of the most recent report, unless the lender has provided to the commissioner adequate documentation that at some time during that 24-month period the aggregate outstanding balance of all enrolled loans exceeded the balance then in the reserve fund. Any amounts withdrawn from the reserve fund must be transferred to the account.

(b) If a report is not filed within 30 days of its original due date, the commissioner may withdraw from the reserve fund based on the commissioner's determination from an inspection of the lender's files an amount not greater than the amount by which the reserve fund balance exceeded the aggregate outstanding balance of all enrolled loans as of the date for which the report was required to be filed.

Sec. 155. [116J.8769] [TERMINATION.]

The commissioner may terminate the obligation to a lender to enroll loans under the program if the commissioner determines that the lender is not in substantial compliance with the requirements of the program. The termination takes effect on the date specified in the notice of termination, except that the termination does not apply to any loan made on or before the date on which the notice of termination is received by the lender. If the commissioner is terminating the enrollment of loans for all participating lenders under the program, the commissioner shall provide notice of at least 90 days to the lender. Any terminations under this section are prospective only and do not apply to any loans previously refinanced. After termination, the amount covered under the program may not be increased beyond the covered amount as previously enrolled.

336.9-403 [WHAT CONSTITUTES FILING; DURATION OF FILING; EFFECT OF LAPSED FILING; DUTIES OF FILING OFFICER.]

- (1) Presentation for filing of a financing statement and tender of the filing fee or acceptance of the statement by the filing officer constitutes filing under this article.
- (2) Except as provided in subsection (6) a filed financing statement is effective for a period of five years from the date of filing. The effectiveness of a filed financing statement lapses on the expiration of the five-year period unless a continuation statement is filed prior to the lapse. If a security interest perfected by filing exists at the time insolvency proceedings are commenced by or against the debtor, the security interest remains perfected until termination of the insolvency proceedings and thereafter for a period of 60 days or until expiration of the five-year period, whichever occurs later regardless of whether the financing statement filed as to that security interest is destroyed by the filing officer pursuant to subsection (3). Upon lapse the security interest becomes unperfected, unless it is perfected without filing. If the security interest becomes unperfected upon lapse, it is deemed to have been unperfected as against a person who became a purchaser or lien creditor before lapse.
- (3) A continuation statement may be filed by the secured party within six months prior to the expiration of the five-year period specified in subsection (2). Any such continuation statement must be signed by the secured party, set forth the name and address of the debtor and secured party as those items appear on the original financing statement or the most recently filed amendment, identify the original statement by file number and filing date, and state that the original statement is still effective. Upon timely filing of the continuation statement, the effectiveness of the original statement is continued for five years after the last date to which the filing was effective whereupon it lapses in the same manner as provided in subsection (2) unless another continuation statement is filed prior to such lapse. Succeeding continuation statements may be filed in the same manner to continue the effectiveness of the original statement. Unless a statute on disposition of public records provides otherwise, the filing officer may remove a lapsed statement from the files and destroy it immediately if the officer has retained a microfilm or other photographic record, or in other cases after one year after the lapse. The filing officer shall so arrange matters by physical annexation of financing statements to continuation statements or other related filings, or by other means, that if the officer physically destroys the financing statements of a period more than five years past, those which have been continued by a continuation statement or which are still effective under subsection (6) shall be retained. If insolvency proceedings are commenced by or against the debtor, the secured party shall notify the filing officer both upon commencement and termination of the proceedings, and the filing officer shall not destroy any financing statements filed with respect to the debtor until termination of the insolvency proceedings. The security interest remains perfected until termination of the insolvency proceedings and thereafter for a period of 60 days or until expiration of the five-year period, whichever occurs later

- (4) Except as provided in subsection (7) a filing officer shall mark each statement with a file number and with the date and hour of filing and shall hold the statement or a microfilm or other photographic copy thereof for public inspection. In addition the filing officer shall index the statements according to the name of the debtor and shall note in the index the file number and the address of the debtor given in the statement.
- (5) The secretary of state shall prescribe uniform forms for statements and samples thereof shall be furnished to all filing officers in the state. The uniform fee for filing and indexing and for stamping a copy furnished by the secured party to show the date and place of filing for an original financing statement or for a continuation statement shall be $5 $7 if the statement is in the standard form prescribed by the secretary of state and otherwise shall be $10. plus in each case, if the financing statement is subject to subsection (5) of section 336.9-402, $5. An additional fee of $5 $7 shall be collected if more than one name is required to be indexed or if the secured party chooses to show a trade name for any debtor listed. There shall be no The uniform fee collected for the filing of an amendment to a financing statement if the amendment is in the standard form prescribed by the secretary of state and does not add additional debtor names to the financing statement shall be $7. The fee for an amendment adding additional debtor names shall be $5 $14 if the amendment is in the form prescribed by the secretary of state and, if otherwise, $10 $17. The fee for an amendment which is not in the form prescribed by the secretary of state but which does not add additional names shall be $5 $10.

The secretary of state shall adopt rules for filing, amendment, continuation, termination, removal, and destruction of financing statements.

- (6) If the debtor is a transmitting utility (subsection (5) of section 336.9-401) and a filed financing statement so states, it is effective until a termination statement is filed. A real estate mortgage which is effective as a fixture filing under subsection (6) of section 336.9-402 remains effective as a fixture filing until the mortgage is released or satisfied of record or its effectiveness otherwise terminates as to the real estate.
- (7) When a financing statement covers timber to be cut or covers minerals or the like (including oil and gas) or accounts subject to subsection (5) of section 336.9-103, or is filed as a fixture filing, it shall be filed for record and the filing officer shall index it under the names of the debtor and any owner of record shown on the financing statement in the same fashion as if they were the mortgagors in a mortgage of the real estate described, and, to the extent that the law of this state provides for indexing of mortgages under the name of the mortgagee, under the name of the secured party as if the secured party were the mortgagee thereunder, or, for filing offices other than the secretary of state, where indexing is by description in the same fashion as if the financing statement were a mortgage of the real estate described. If requested of the filing officer on the financing statement, a financing statement filed for record as a fixture filing in the same office where nonfixture filings are made is effective, without a dual filing, as to collateral listed thereon for which filing is required in such office pursuant to section 336.9-401 (1) (a); in such case, the filing officer shall also index the recorded statement in accordance with subsection (4) using the recording data in lieu of a file number.
- (8) The fees provided for in this article shall supersede the fees for similar services otherwise provided for by law except in the case of security interests filed in connection with a certificate of title on a motor vehicle.

For the purposes of this subdivision, net profits are profits less amounts expended for allowable expenses. A statutory or home rule charter city or a county may not require an organization conducting lawful gambling within its jurisdiction to make an expenditure to the city or county as a condition to operate within that city or county, except as authorized under section 349.16, subdivision 4, or section 349.212; provided, however, that an ordinance requirement that such organizations must contribute ten percent of their net profits derived from lawful gambling to a fund administered and regulated by the responsible local unit of government without cost to such fund, for disbursement by the responsible local unit of government of the receipts for lawful purposes, is not considered an expenditure to the city or county nor a tax under section 349.212, and is valid and lawful.

Sec. 221. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 361.03, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 3a. [WATERCRAFT SURCHARGE.] A surcharge of $2 is placed on each watercraft licensed under subdivision 3, that is 17 feet in length or longer, for management of purple loosestrife and Eurasian water milfoil according to law.

- Subd. 2. [CONCURRENT APPLICATIONS.] If a person applies for an original or a new certificate of title for a watercraft concurrently with an application for transfer of license of the watercraft to the applicant, the fee prescribed in subdivision 1 is in lieu of the fee prescribed by section 361.03 for a transfer of ownership or license of the watercraft to the applicant.
- Subd. 3. [FEES PAID BEFORE TITLE ISSUED.] Subject to subdivision 2, the commissioner may not issue a certificate of title for a watercraft until the fees prescribed by subdivision 1 and section 361.03 for a prior transfer of ownership or license of the watercraft have been paid.
- Subd. 4. [DEPOSIT OF FEE.] Fees collected under this section must be deposited in the state treasury and credited to the water recreation account, except a deputy registrar who originates an application shall retain the filing fee under subdivision I, paragraph (b).
- Sec. 233. [361A.12] [INAPPLICABLE LIENS AND SECURITY INTERESTS.]

The requirements of this chapter relating to security interests and certificate of title do not apply to or affect:

- (1) a lien given by statute or rule of law to a supplier of services or materials for the watercraft while the watercraft is in the possession of the lienholder;
- (2) a lien given by statute to the United States, this state, or a political subdivision of this state; or

(3) a security interest in a watercraft created by a manufacturer or dealer who holds the watercraft for sale.

Sec. 234. [361A.13] [SECURITY INTERESTS.]

Subdivision 1. [VALIDITY.] Unless excepted by section 233, a security interest in a titled watercraft is not valid against creditors of the owner or subsequent transferees or secured parties of the watercraft unless perfected as provided in this chapter.

Subd. 2. [PERFECTION.] A security interest is perfected by the delivery to the commissioner of the existing certificate of title, if any, or an application for a certificate of title, containing the name and address of the secured party, the date of the security agreement, and the required fee. It is perfected as of the time of its creation if the delivery is completed within the following ten days. In other instances it is perfected as of the time of the delivery. The method provided in this chapter is exclusive.

Sec. 235. [361A.14] [OWNER-CREATED SECURITY INTEREST.]

Paragraphs (a) to (d) apply if an owner creates a security interest in a titled watercraft.

- (a) The owner shall immediately execute the application in the space provided on the certificate of title or on a separate form prescribed by the commissioner, show the name and address of the secured party on the certificate, and have the certificate, application, and required fee delivered to the secured party.

The delivery of the certificate does not affect the rights of the first secured party under the security agreement.
- (d) Upon receiving the certificate of title, application, and required fee, the commissioner shall either endorse on the certificate or issue a new certificate containing the name and address of the new secured party, and mail or deliver the certificate to the first secured party named on it.

Sec. 236. [361A.15] [LICENSED WATERCRAFT PREVIOUSLY PERFECTED.]

If a security interest in a previously licensed watercraft is perfected under other applicable Minnesota law on January 1, 1991, the security interest continues perfected:

- (1) until its perfection lapses under the law under which it was perfected or would lapse in the absence of a further filing; or
- (2) until a certificate of title for the watercraft is issued and the security interest is perfected under section 234.

The assignment, release, or satisfaction of a security interest in a previously licensed watercraft is governed by the laws under which it was perfected.

The district public defender of the fourth judicial district serving on July 1, 1989, shall continue in office until the expiration of the term to which appointed or until August 1, 1991, whichever date is later.

Sec. 39. [631.021] [SPEEDY CRIMINAL TRIALS; CASE DISPOSITION OBJECTIVES.]

The judges of each judicial district must adopt and administer rules or procedures to ensure that, on and after July 1, 1994, the following timing objectives for the disposition of criminal cases are met by judges within the district:

- $\underline{\text{(1) 90 percent of all criminal cases must be disposed of within 120}}$  days;
- $\underline{\frac{(2)}{\text{days;}}} \underline{\frac{97 \text{ percent of all criminal cases}}{\text{must be disposed of within 180}} \underline{\frac{180}{\text{days;}}}$

The time periods referred to in clauses (1) to (3) must be measured from the date the criminal complaint is filed, to the date the defendant is either found not guilty or is sentenced. If the criminal case begins by indictment rather than by criminal complaint, the time period must be measured from the date the indictment is returned.

Sec. 40. [COURT MANAGEMENT PLAN.]

On or before January 1, 1990, the judges of each judicial district shall prepare a written caseload management plan to implement the goal of ensuring the right to speedy trial in criminal cases and the expeditious disposition of civil cases. The plan must discuss current caseloads in each judicial district and the time necessary to dispose of the various types of cases, including felonies, gross misdemeanors, misdemeanors, marriage dissolution and other family law matters, probate, juvenile, general civil matters, and conciliation court matters. The plan must be based on the assumption that the judicial and staff resources that will be available are those available on July 1, 1989.

In addition to preparing a caseload management plan, the judges of each judicial district shall make written recommendations for any changes in rules of procedure or statutes affecting procedure that they find would improve the expeditious disposition of criminal and civil cases in the district courts.

A copy of the caseload management plan, including any recommendations for changes in rules of procedure or statutes affecting procedure, must be filed with the state court administrator and the chairs of the judiciary committees of the house of representatives and of the senate on or before January 1, 1990.

Sec. 41. [CRIMINAL COURTS STUDY COMMISSION.]

The supreme court shall establish a commission to study ways to more expeditiously dispose of criminal cases in the district courts, in a manner that preserves the interest of both the defendant and the state in having a fair and just outcome. The commission shall consist of sufficient members to provide adequate representation of the viewpoints and experience of judges, prosecutors, and defense attorneys involved in the disposition of criminal matters. The commission may establish advisory groups to focus on juvenile law or other specific areas of practice.

The commission study must include the following:

- (1) whether model proposals or rules and statutes from other jurisdictions provide any alternatives that might be followed to modify the rules of criminal procedure and statutes affecting criminal procedure in ways that would simplify procedures without sacrificing fair outcome;
- (2) whether certain kinds of offenses, such as traffic petty misdemeanors and housing code violations, might be better processed if the only possible sentence were a fine rather than incarceration, if a referee or administrative officer rather than a judge presided, and if no prosecuting attorney was involved, with the option of enhancing the matter to a misdemeanor if prior judgments have been entered against a party;
- (3) whether the petty misdemeanor category should be expanded to replace current misdemeanor offenses in some instances, with criteria for enhancing a petty misdemeanor to a misdemeanor in specified circumstances; and

The commission shall report its conclusions to the supreme court on or before January 1, 1991.

Sec. 42. [TRANSITIONAL PROVISIONS.]

Subdivision 1. [HIRING AND SALARY MORATORIUM.] A county or a court must not increase the number of referees, judicial officers, court reporters, law clerks, or district administration employees in the county, other than district administration employees in the second or fourth judicial district, without approval of the

Notwithstanding any law to the contrary, the supreme court may authorize an additional complement of up to five law clerks for the seventh judicial district. The budgets shall include the current levels of funding and positions at the time of submission as well as the requests for increases in funding and positions. Submission of the budgets for calendar year 1990 must be made to the supreme court. The supreme court shall then submit the budgets to the department of finance, and the legislature by January 15, 1990. Submission of the budgets for calendar year 1991 must be made by October 1, 1990.

Sec. 43. [CONTINUED STUDY BY SUPREME COURT.]

The supreme court shall continue to study all county-funded components of the district courts and make recommendations to the governor and the legislature by August 1, 1990, for inclusion in the governor's budget recommendations to the legislature for the 1991 session, regarding their control and financing. Money for the project must not be used to increase complement above the number set without regard to this article. Funds appropriated in article 1 for the eighth district project may only be used for increased expenses necessitated by salary increases, and other verifiable escalating expenses associated with the operations of the eighth judicial district, and for contingencies as provided in subdivision 3.

Subd. 2. [BUDGETS.] During the period of the pilot project the court administrators and the judicial district administrator in the eighth judicial district shall each develop a budget in a form prescribed by the supreme court. The plan shall also include the costs of items not mentioned in this section that the supreme court believes may be a function that the state could take over if it were to fund the state trial court system. These costs must be included in any report to the legislature on state takeover of the trial court and public defense systems. Counties in all the judicial districts shall cooperate with the supreme court and the state board of public defense in developing these standards and calculating and reporting these costs in a timely and accurate manner.
- Subd. 7. [REPORT TO LEGISLATURE.] The supreme court shall make a report to the legislature by February 1, 1991, on the results of the eighth district project and the potential costs and revenues to be transferred to the state if the state were to fund the takeover of the trial court system statewide. The supreme court shall certify to the counties on or before October 1 of each year the amount necessary in excess of the state-funded eighth district project costs. The counties are responsible on a per capita prorated basis for the costs that the state is not assuming. These include but are not limited to capital costs, rent, and other associated costs. The county administrator of each of the counties shall consult with the supreme court and the eighth judicial district administrator regarding these costs before setting county budgets and levies for calendar year 1990.

Subd. 9. [LIMITS.] The costs to the state for the eighth district project are limited to the appropriations in article 1 for the project and for contingencies as provided in subdivision 3.

ARTICLE 4 FUND CONSOLIDATION

Section 1. [STATEMENT OF PURPOSE.]

During recent years the state of Minnesota has experienced a significant increase in the number of special revenue accounts and funds that has created a large base of nongeneral fund budget activities. The resulting structure is complicated and at best difficult for the legislature to exercise adequate legislative oversight of. Executive branch agencies are also being faced with increased administrative costs and programmatic restrictions because of the growing number of special revenue funds and accounts. This article is an attempt to simplify the existing accounting structure and develop an accounting organizational structure that is reflective of agency functional organizations.

The consolidations in this article are not intended to restructure programs within agencies by reducing the number of special revenue accounts and funds. Fund consolidation in this article shall not be accomplished at the expense of those user groups who pay fees to the current special revenue accounts and funds. Fees currently being paid shall continue to be used for the purposes for which the fees were created.

Sec. 2. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 6.48, is amended to read:

6.48 [EXAMINATION OF COUNTIES; COST, FEES.]

All the powers and duties conferred and imposed upon the state auditor shall be exercised and performed by the state auditor in respect to the offices, institutions, public property, and improvements of several counties of the state. At least once in each year, if funds and personnel permit, the state auditor shall visit, without previous notice, each county and make a thorough examination of all accounts and records relating to the receipt and disbursement of the public funds and the custody of the public funds, including the game and fish funds, and other property. The state auditor shall prescribe and install systems of accounts and financial reports that shall be uniform, so far as practicable, for the same class of offices. A copy of the report of such examination shall be filed and be subject to public inspection in the office of the state auditor and another copy in the office of the auditor of the county thus examined. The state auditor may accept the records and audit, or any part thereof, of the department of human services in lieu of examination of the county social welfare funds, if such audit has been made within any period covered by the state auditor's audit of the other records of the county. If any such examination shall disclose malfeasance, misfeasance, or nonfeasance in any office of such county, such report shall be filed with the county attorney of the county, and the county attorney shall institute such civil and criminal proceedings as the law and the protection of the public interests shall require.

The county receiving such examination, and the division of game and fish of the department of natural resources of the state of Minnesota, in the case of the examination of the game and fish funds, shall pay to the state auditor's revolving general fund, notwithstanding the provisions of section 16A.125, the total cost and expenses of such examinations, including the salaries paid to the examiners while actually engaged in making such examination. The state auditor on deeming it advisable may bill counties, having a population of 200,000 or over, monthly for services rendered and the officials responsible for approving and paying claims shall cause said bill to be promptly paid. The revolving general fund of the state auditor shall be credited with all collections made for any such examinations.

Sec. 3. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 6.56, is amended to read:

6.56 [COST OF EXAMINATION, PAYMENT.]

Upon the examination of the books, records, accounts, and affairs of any county, city, town, or school district, as provided by law, such county, city, town, or school district shall be liable to the state for the total cost and expenses of such examination, including the salaries paid to the examiners while actually engaged in making such examination. The state auditor may bill such county, city, town, or school district monthly for service rendered and the officials responsible for approving and paying claims are authorized to pay said bill promptly. Said payments shall be without prejudice to any defense against said claims that may exist or be asserted. The revolving general fund of the state auditor shall be credited with all collections made for any such examinations.

Sec. 4. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 6.58, is amended to read:

6.58 [REVOLVING GENERAL FUND.]

The revolving general fund established by Laws 1947, chapter 634, section 24, shall be used to provide personnel, pay other expenses, and for the acquisition of equipment used in connection with reimbursable examinations and other duties pursuant to law. When full-time personnel are not available, the state auditor may contract with private persons, firms, or corporations for accounting and other technical services. Notwithstanding any law to the contrary, the acquisition of equipment may include duplicating equipment to be used in producing the reports issued by the department. All receipts from such reimbursable examinations shall be deposited in the general fund and are hereby reappropriated to that purpose. The state auditor is directed to adjust the schedule of charges for such examinations to provide that such charges shall be sufficient to cover all costs of such examinations and that the aggregate charges collected shall be sufficient to pay all salaries and other expenses including charges for the use of the equipment used in connection with such reimbursable examinations and including the cost of contracting for accounting and other technical services. The schedule of charges shall be based upon an estimate of the cost of performing reimbursable examinations including, but not limited to, salaries, office overhead, equipment, authorized contracts, and other expenses. The state auditor may allocate a proportionate part of the total costs to an hourly or daily charge for each person or class of persons engaged in the performance of an examination. The schedule of charges shall reflect an equitable charge for the expenses incurred in the performance of any given examination. The state auditor shall review and adjust the schedule of charges for such examinations at least annually and have all schedules of charges approved by the commissioner of finance before they are adopted so as to insure that the amount collected shall be sufficient to pay all the costs connected with such examinations during the fiscal year and that the unobligated balance, including accounts receivable, in the revolving fund at the end of each fiscal year shall not be less than $315,000. The unobligated balance in the revolving fund in excess of $350,000, as of June 30 of each fiscal year, shall be canceled into the general fund.

- Sec. 5. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 8.31, subdivision 2c, is amended to read:
- Subd. 2c. [CONSUMER EDUCATION ACCOUNT FUND.] If a court of competent jurisdiction finds that a sum recovered under this section for the benefit of injured persons cannot reasonably be distributed to the victims, because the victims cannot readily be located or identified, or because the cost of distributing the money would outweigh the benefit to the victims, then the court may order that the money be paid into a consumer education account the general fund. All sums recovered must be deposited into the state treasury and credited to the consumer education account general fund. The money credited to the account may be expended only as appropriated by law for the following purposes:

- (2) to underwrite educational seminars and other forms of educational projects for the benefit of consumers and businesses;

- Subd. 3. [INJUNCTIVE RELIEF.] In addition to the penalties provided by law for violation of the laws referred to in subdivision 1, specifically and generally, whether or not injunctive relief is otherwise provided by law, the courts of this state are vested with jurisdiction to prevent and restrain violations of those laws, to require the payment of civil penalties, to require payment into a consumer education account the general fund, and to appoint administrators as provided in subdivision 3C. On becoming satisfied that any of those laws has been or is being violated, or is about to be violated, the attorney general shall be entitled, on behalf of the state; (a) to sue for and have injunctive relief in any court of competent jurisdiction against any such violation or threatened violation without abridging the penalties provided by law; and (b) to sue for and recover for the state, from any person who is found to have violated any of the laws referred to in subdivision 1, a civil penalty, in an amount to be determined by the court, not in excess of $25,000. All sums recovered by the attorney general under this section shall be deposited in the general fund of the state treasury. but sums recovered and deposited pursuant to subdivision 2C must

- (2) Prohibiting or directing the abatement of any discharge of sewage, industrial waste, or other wastes, into any waters of the state or the deposit thereof or the discharge into any municipal disposal system where the same is likely to get into any waters of the state in violation of this chapter and, with respect to the pollution of waters of the state, chapter 116, or standards or rules promulgated or permits issued pursuant thereto, and specifying the schedule of compliance within which such prohibition or abatement must be accomplished;

New sources shall encompass buildings, structures, facilities, or installations from which there is or may be the discharge of pollutants, the construction of which is commenced after the publication by the agency of proposed rules prescribing a standard of performance which will be applicable to such source. Prior to establishment of any such effluent limitation, the agency shall hold a public hearing to determine the relationship of the economic and social costs of achieving such limitation or limitations, including any economic or social dislocation in the affected community or communities, to the social and economic benefits to be obtained and to determine whether or not such effluent limitation can be implemented with available technology or other alternative control strategies. If a person affected by such limitation demonstrates at such hearing that, whether or not such technology or other alternative control strategies are available, there is no reasonable relationship between the economic and social costs and the benefits to be obtained, such limitation shall not become effective and shall be adjusted as it applies to such person;
- (9) Modifying, in its discretion, any requirement or limitation based upon best available technology with respect to any point source for which a permit application is filed after July 1, 1977 upon a showing by the owner or operator of such point source satisfactory to the agency that such modified requirements will represent the maximum use of technology within the economic capability of the owner or operator and will result in reasonable further progress toward the elimination of the discharge of pollutants;

- (f) To require to be submitted and to approve plans and specifications for disposal systems or point sources, or any part thereof and to inspect the construction thereof for compliance with the approved plans and specifications thereof;
- (g) To prescribe and alter rules, not inconsistent with law, for the conduct of the agency and other matters within the scope of the powers granted to and imposed upon it by this chapter and, with respect to pollution of waters of the state, in chapter 116, provided that every rule affecting any other department or agency of the state or any person other than a member or employee of the agency shall be filed with the secretary of state;

The Honorable Jerome M. Hughes President of the Senate

We, the undersigned conferees for H. F. No. 306, report that we have agreed upon the items in dispute and recommend as follows:

That the Senate recede from its amendment and that H. F. No. 306, the first engrossment, be further amended as follows:

Delete everything after the enacting clause and insert:

"ARTICLE 1 TRUSTS

Section 1. [501B.01] [PURPOSES FOR WHICH EXPRESS TRUSTS MAY BE CREATED.]

An active express trust may be created for any lawful purpose.

Sec. 2. [501B.02] [PASSIVE TRUSTS ABOLISHED.]

Passive express trusts of real or personal property are abolished. An attempt to create a passive trust vests the entire estate granted in the beneficiary.

Sec. 3. [501B.03] [TERMINATION OF TRUST PURPOSES.]

If the purposes for which an active express trust is created have been accomplished, or become impossible of accomplishment or illegal, the trust will be terminated.

Sec. 4. [501B.04] [REVERSION IN GRANTOR.]

Every legal estate and interest not embraced in an express trust and not otherwise disposed of remains in the grantor.

Sec. 5. [501B.05] [BONA FIDE PURCHASERS PROTECTED.]

An express trust not declared in the disposition to the trustee or a constructive or resulting trust does not defeat the title of a purchaser from the trustee for value and without notice of the trust, or the rights of a creditor who extended credit to the trustee in reliance upon the trustee's apparent ownership of the trust property.

Sec. 6. [501B.06] [MISAPPLICATION OF PAYMENT TO TRUSTEE.]

A person who actually and in good faith makes a payment to a trustee that the trustee, as such, is authorized to receive, is not responsible for the proper application of the payment according to the trust. No right or title derived by the person from the trustee, in consideration of the payment, may be impeached or called in question because of a misapplication of the payment by the trustee.

Sec. 7. [501B.07] [PURCHASE MONEY RESULTING TRUSTS.]

If a transfer of property is made to one person and the purchase price is paid by another, a resulting trust is presumed to arise in favor of the person by whom the purchase price is paid, except:

- (1) if the person by whom the purchase price is paid manifests a contrary intention, no resulting trust is presumed to arise;
- $\frac{(2) \ if \ the \ transferee}{bounty} \underbrace{is \ a}_{of \ the \ payor, \ a} \underbrace{gift \ in}_{of \ the \ transferee} \underbrace{is \ presumed}_{of \ the \ transferee}$
- (3) if the transfer is made to accomplish an illegal purpose, no resulting trust is presumed to arise unless it is needed to prevent unjust enrichment of the transferee.

Sec. 8. [501B.08] [APPOINTMENT OF AND ACQUISITION OF TITLE BY SUCCESSOR TRUSTEES AND CONFIRMATION OF ACTS PERFORMED DURING VACANCIES IN TRUSTEESHIP]

If the terms of a trust provide for the appointment of a successor trustee and direct how the successor is to qualify, title to the trust assets vests in the successor trustee upon qualification, unless the terms of the trust expressly provide otherwise.

If the terms of a trust do not effectively provide for the appointment of a successor trustee and appointment of a successor is required, or if title to the trust assets does not vest in a successor trustee, the district court may appoint a successor trustee or vest title in a successor trustee.

The district court may confirm an act performed by a person in execution of the trust while there was no acting trustee.

Sec. 9. [501B.09] [SUSPENSION OF THE POWER OF ALIENATION.]

Subdivision 1. [SUSPENSION; EXCEPTIONS.] The power of alienation is suspended if there are no persons in being who, alone or in conjunction with others, can convey an absolute fee in possession or absolute ownership of real property or absolute ownership of personal property.

- (a) There is no suspension of the power of alienation by the terms of a trust or by interests in property held in trust if there is an unlimited power in one or more persons then in being to terminate the trust, by revocation or otherwise, and to acquire an absolute fee in possession or absolute ownership of the trust property.
- (b) There is no suspension of the power of alienation by the terms of a trust or by interests in property held in trust if the trustee has power to sell an absolute fee in possession or absolute ownership of the trust property.
- Subd. 2. [SUSPENSION FOR 21 YEARS.] The power of alienation of property held in trust may be suspended, by the terms of the trust, for a period of not more than 21 years. During any period of suspension of the power of alienation of real property, section 38 applies. Notwithstanding any contrary term of a trust, suspension of the power of alienation by the terms of a trust ceases after a period of 21 years, after which the trustee has the power to convey an absolute fee in possession or absolute ownership of the trust property, and to mortgage, pledge, and lease the same. A provision in the terms of a trust for forfeiture of the interest of a trustee or beneficiary if the trustee or beneficiary participates in or seeks to convey, mortgage, pledge, or lease trust property after the expiration of a 21-year period of suspension is void.

- Subd. 3. [VOID FUTURE INTERESTS.] Every future interest in real or personal property not held in trust is void in its creation if it might suspend the power of alienation for a period longer than a life or lives in being plus 21 years.
- Sec. 10. [501B.10] [KINDS OF PROPERTY A TRUSTEE MAY ACQUIRE.]
- Subdivision 1. [GENERAL PROPERTIES AND INVEST-MENTS.] (a) A trustee may invest in every kind of real or personal property and every kind of investment that a prudent person would invest in having in mind the preservation of the trust estate and the amount and regularity of the income derived. This permission includes, but is not limited to, bonds, debentures, and other individual or corporate obligations, mutual funds, and corporate stocks. In considering an investment, a trustee shall exercise the care, skill, and judgment under the circumstances then prevailing that a person of ordinary prudence would exercise in the management of the person's own property and shall consider the role that the investment plays within the trust's overall portfolio of assets. If the trustee has greater skills than a person of ordinary prudence, the trustee is under a duty to use those skills.
- (b) Among the factors to be considered by a trustee in determining the prudence of a particular investment are the following:
- (1) the probable income of the trust and the probable safety of the capital of the trust;
- (2) the composition of the portfolio of the trust with regard to diversification;
  - (3) the length of the term of investments of the trust;
  - (4) the duration of the trust;
- (5) the liquidity and current return of the trust's portfolio relative to the anticipated cash requirements of the trust;
- (6) other assets of the beneficiary or beneficiaries known to the trustees, including earning capacity;
- $\frac{(7)}{\text{and}} \frac{\text{the }}{\text{relative}} \frac{\text{interests}}{\text{interests}} \frac{\text{of income}}{\text{income}} \frac{\text{and remainder}}{\text{beneficiaries}} \frac{\text{beneficiaries}}{\text{of income}}$
  - (8) the tax consequences.

- (c) If a trustee is a national banking association or national trust company or holds a certificate under section 48.37 or if a trustee retains or employs an investment advisor registered under the Investment Advisors Act of 1940, an investment that is otherwise prudent is not imprudent solely because it is in new, unproven, untried, or other enterprises with a potential for significant growth, or in a limited partnership or commingled fund investing in these enterprises.
- Subd. 2. [DISPOSAL OF PROPERTY.] Unless the trust instrument or a court order specifically directs otherwise, a trustee need not dispose of any property, real, personal, or mixed, or any kind of investment, in the trust, however acquired, until the trustee determines in the exercise of a sound discretion that it is advisable to dispose of the property. Nothing in this subdivision excuses the trustee from the duty to exercise discretion at reasonable intervals and to determine at those intervals the advisability of retaining or disposing of property.
- Subd. 3. [ALTERATION OF TERMS OF WILL.] This section does not authorize any departure from or variation of express terms or limitations in a will, agreement, court order, or other instrument creating or defining the trustee's duties and powers, but the terms "authorized securities," "authorized investments," or "legal investments," or words of similar import, as used in a will, agreement, court order, or instrument or in the statutes of this state in relation to the investment of trust funds by corporate or individual trustees, mean every kind of property, real, personal, or mixed, and every kind of investment, that a trustee is authorized to acquire under the terms of subdivision 1.
- Subd. 4. [NO LIMITATION ON POWERS OF COURT.] This section does not restrict the power of a court of proper jurisdiction to permit a trustee to deviate from the terms of a will, agreement, court order, or other instrument relating to the acquisition, investment, reinvestment, exchange, retention, sale, or management of trust property.
- Subd. 5. [TRUSTEES DEFINED.] As used in this section, "trustee" means individual trustees and corporations having trust powers acting under wills, agreements, court orders, and other instruments, whether existing on the effective date of this section or made at a later time.
- Subd. 6. [INVESTMENT COMPANIES.] (a) In the absence of an express prohibition in the trust instrument, the trustee may acquire and retain securities of any open-end or closed-end management type investment company or investment trust registered under the Federal Investment Company Act of 1940.

 $\frac{(b)\ This\ subdivision\ does\ not\ alter\ the\ degree\ of\ care\ and\ judgment}{required\ of\ trustees\ by\ subdivision\ 1}$

Sec. 11. [501B.11] [EMPLOYEES AND AGENTS OF TRUSTEE.]

Unless prohibited by the terms of the trust instrument, a trustee may employ attorneys, accountants, investment advisors, agents, or other persons, even if they are associated with the trustee, to advise or assist the trustee in the performance of duties. The trustee may act without independent investigation upon their recommendations or, instead of acting personally, employ one or more agents to perform any act of administration, whether or not discretionary. If the terms of the trust instrument do not address the authority of the trustee to delegate:

- (1) the trustee may not delegate all of the trustee's duties;
- (2) the employment does not relieve the trustee of liability for the acts of a person that, if done by the trustee, would result in liability of the trustee; and
- (3) the employment does not relieve the trustee of the duty to select and retain a person with reasonable care.

Sec. 12. [501B.12] [GRANTOR AND AGENTS OF GRANTOR.]

If a trust instrument reserves to the grantor, in a nonfiduciary capacity, the control over any or all investment decisions, the trustee is not responsible for the investment decisions made by the grantor or an agent of the grantor.

COURT PROCEEDINGS

Sec. 13. [501B.16] [PETITION FOR COURT ORDER.]

A trustee of an express trust by will or other written instrument or a person interested in the trust may petition the district court for an order:

- (1) to confirm an action taken by a trustee;
- (2) upon filing of an account, to settle and allow the account;
- (3) to determine the persons having an interest in the income or principal of the trust and the nature and extent of their interests;
- (4) to construe, interpret, or reform the terms of a trust, or authorize a deviation from the terms of a trust, including a proceeding involving section 23;

  - (6) to confirm the appointment of a trustee;
- (7) to accept a trustee's resignation and discharge the trustee from the trust;
  - (8) to require a trustee to account;
  - (9) to remove a trustee for cause;
- (10) to appoint a successor trustee when required by the terms of the trust instrument or when by reason of death, resignation, removal, or other cause there is no acting trustee;

- (13) to remove a trust from continuing court supervision under section 20;
- (14) to mortgage, lease, sell, or otherwise dispose of real property held by the trustee notwithstanding any contrary provision of the trust instrument;
- (15) to suspend the powers and duties of a trustee in military service or war service in accordance with section 75 and to order further action authorized in that section;
- (16) to secure compliance with the provisions of sections 25 to 37, in accordance with section 33;
- (17) to determine the validity of a disclaimer filed under section 70;
  - (18) to change the situs of a trust;
  - (19) to redress a breach of trust;
  - (20) to terminate a trust; or
- (21) to instruct the trustee, beneficiaries, and any other interested parties in any matter relating to the administration of the trust and the discharge of the trustee's duties.

Sec. 14. [501B.17] [VENUE.]

A petition under section 13 or 19 may be filed:

- (1) in the case of a trust created by will, in the district court for the county where the will was probated, or in the district court for the county where a trustee having custody of part or all of the trust assets resides or has a main place of business;
- (2) in the case of a nontestamentary trust, in the district court for the county where a trustee having custody of part or all of the trust assets resides or has a main place of business; or
- (3) in the case of a trust holding real property, in the district court for any county in which the real estate is situated.

In the case of a trust with respect to which there have been prior court proceedings in this state, a petition under section 13 or 19 must be filed in the court in which the prior proceedings were held.

Sec. 15. [501B.18] [ORDER FOR HEARING.]

Upon the filing of a petition under section 13, the court shall, by order, fix a time and place for a hearing, unless notice and hearing have been waived in writing by the beneficiaries of the trust then in being. Unless waived, notice of the hearing must be given as follows:

(1) by publishing, at least 20 days before the date of the hearing, a copy of the order for hearing one time in a legal newspaper for the county in which the petition is filed; and (2) by mailing, at least 15 days before the date of the hearing, a copy of the order for hearing to those beneficiaries of the trust who are known to or reasonably ascertainable by the petitioner. In the case of a beneficiary who is a minor or an incapacitated person as defined in section 525.54 and for whom a conservator, guardian, or guardian ad litem known to the petitioner has been appointed, notice must be mailed to that fiduciary. Notice may be given in any other manner the court orders.

Sec. 16. [501B.19] [REPRESENTATION OF PERSONS WHO ARE UNBORN, UNASCERTAINED, UNKNOWN, OR MINORS OR INCAPACITATED PERSONS.]

If an interested person is a minor or an incapacitated person as defined in section 525.54 and has no guardian or conservator within the state, or if an interested person is unborn, unascertained, or a person whose identity or address is unknown to the petitioner, the court shall represent that person, unless the court, upon the application of the trustee or any other interested person, appoints a guardian ad litem to represent the person.

Sec. 17. [501B.20] [HOLDER OF A GENERAL POWER.]

For purposes of giving notice, waiving notice, initiating a proceeding, granting consent or approval, or objecting with regard to any proceedings under this chapter, the sole holder or all coholders of a presently exercisable or testamentary general power of appointment, power of revocation, or unlimited power of withdrawal are deemed to represent the act for beneficiaries to the extent that their interests as objects, takers in default, or otherwise are subject to the power.

Sec. 18. [501B.21] [ORDER AND APPEAL.]

Upon hearing a petition filed under section 13, the court shall make an order it considers appropriate. The order is final as to all matters determined by it and binding in rem upon the trust estate and upon the interests of all beneficiaries, vested or contingent, even though unascertained or not in being, except that appeal may be taken under the rules of appellate procedure.

Sec. 19. [501B.22] [CONFIRMATION OF APPOINTMENT OF TRUSTEE.]

A person appointed as trustee of an express trust by a will or other written instrument or any interested person may file in the district court an ex parte petition to confirm the appointment of the trustee and specify the manner in which the trustee must qualify. Upon consideration of the petition, the court shall make an order it considers appropriate. A trustee whose appointment is confirmed under this section is subject to section 20.

Sec. 20. [501B.23] [INVENTORY; ANNUAL ACCOUNT; CONTINUING COURT SUPERVISION.]

A trustee whose appointment has been confirmed by court order under section 19 or a trustee otherwise subject to continuing court supervision by court order shall file with the court administrator of the district court an inventory containing a list of all property then belonging to the trust. The trustee shall then render to the court at least annually a verified account containing a complete inventory of the trust assets and itemized principal and income accounts. This section does not apply to trusts established in connection with bonds issued under chapter 474.

Sec. 21. [501B.24] [JURISDICTION.]

Once a district court has assumed jurisdiction of a trust, the district court has jurisdiction as a proceeding in rem, until jurisdiction is transferred to another court or terminated by court order.

This chapter does not limit or abridge the power or jurisdiction of the district court over trusts and trustees.

Sec. 22. [501B.25] [APPLICATION.]

Sections 13 to 20 do not apply to trusts in the nature of mortgages or to trusts commonly known as voting trusts. Sections 13 to 20 apply, however, unless otherwise provided in the trust instrument, to trusts established in connection with bonds issued under chapter 474. As used in sections 13 to 20, "person" includes an artificial as well as a natural person, and "beneficiary" includes a bondholder.

CHARITABLE TRUSTS AND THEIR SUPERVISION

Sec. 23. [501B.31] [CHARITABLE TRUSTS.]

Subdivision 1. [VALIDITY AND CONSTRUCTION.] No charitable trust is invalid because of indefiniteness or uncertainty of the object of the trust or of its beneficiaries designated in the instrument creating the trust or because the trust violates a statute or rule against perpetuities. No charitable trust may prevent or limit the free alienation of the title to any of the trust estate by the trustee in the administration of the trust, except as may be permitted under existing or subsequent statutes.

Subd. 2. [LIBERAL INTERPRETATION; ADMINISTRATION.] A charitable trust must be liberally construed by the courts so that the intentions of the donor are carried out when possible, and the trust must not fail solely because the donor has imperfectly outlined the purpose and object of the charity or the method of administration. If the district court of the proper county determines that the purpose and object of the donor's charity are imperfectly expressed, the method of administration is incomplete or imperfect, or circumstances have so changed since the execution of the instrument creating the trust as to render impracticable, inexpedient, or impossible a literal compliance with the terms of the instrument, the court may, upon the petition of the trustee under section 13, make an order directing that the trust must be administered or expended in a manner the court determines will, as nearly as possible, accomplish the general purposes of the instrument and the object and intention of the donor without regard to, and free from any specific restriction, limitation, or direction it contains.

Subd. 3. [LAWS NOT AFFECTED.] Nothing in this section impairs, limits, or abridges the operation and efficacy of the whole or any part of a statute that authorizes the creation of a corporation for charitable purposes or that permits a municipal corporation to act as trustee for a public or charitable purpose. Nothing in subdivisions 1 to 3 of this section applies to a gift, bequest, devise, or trust made, created, or arising by or under the provisions of the will of a person who died before April 15, 1927.

- Subd. 4, [DETERMINATION OF TRUST, GIFT, BEQUEST, DE-VISE.] (a) This subdivision applies to a gift or trust made or created by a living person before April 15, 1927, or a gift, bequest, devise, or trust made or created by or under the will of a person who died before April 15, 1927.
- (b) If a gift, trust, or devise has been made for a charitable, benevolent, educational, religious, or other public use or trust, or upon a condition, limitation, or restriction of any kind, the property given, entrusted, or devised may be used only for that use or trust and in accordance with the condition, limitation, or restriction. The grantee, devisee, trustee, or other holder of property may petition the court under section 13 for determination of the legal rights and relationship of the holder, the public, the grantor, and the grantor's heirs, representatives, or assigns in and to the property.
- (c) If the court determines that circumstances have so changed since the execution of the instrument as to render impracticable, inexpedient, or impossible a literal compliance with the terms or conditions of the instrument, but the terms and purposes of the instrument may be substantially performed, the court may order that the terms of the instrument be performed and the property be administered or expended in a manner that will, in the judgment of the court, as nearly as possible, accomplish the general purposes of the instrument and the intention of the grantor without regard to, and free from any, specific restriction, limitation, condition, or direction contained in the instrument.
- Subd. 5. [ATTORNEY GENERAL.] In cases arising under this section, the attorney general must be given notice of any court proceedings pursuant to section 15. The attorney general shall represent the beneficial interests in those cases and shall enforce affected trusts.
- Sec. 24. [501B.32] [PRIVATE FOUNDATIONS; CHARITABLE TRUSTS; SPLIT-INTEREST TRUSTS.]

Subdivision 1. [INCORPORATED PROVISIONS.] A will or trust instrument that creates a trust that is: (1) a "private foundation," as defined in section 501(a) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986; or (2) a "charitable trust," as defined in section 4947(a)(1) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986; or (3) a "split-interest trust," as defined in section 4947(a)(2) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, and any other instrument governing the trustee of one of those trusts or the use, retention, or disposition of any of the income or property of one of those trusts, must be considered to have incorporated within it the provisions in paragraphs (a) to (e) with respect to the trust and its trustee. Except as provided in subdivision 2, paragraphs (a) to (e) govern the administration and distribution of the trust notwithstanding provisions of the governing instrument, statute, or law of this state to the contrary.

- (a) The trustee shall distribute for each taxable year of the trust amounts at least sufficient to avoid liability for the tax imposed by section 4942(a) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986.
- (b) The trustee shall not engage in an act of "self-dealing," as defined in section 4941(d) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, which would give rise to liability for the tax imposed by section 4941(a) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986.
- (d) The trustee shall not make investments that would jeopardize the carrying out of any of the exempt purposes of the trust, within the meaning of section 4944 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, so as to give rise to liability for the tax imposed by section 4944(a) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986.
- (e) The trustee shall not make a "taxable expenditure," as defined in section 4945(d) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, that would give rise to liability for the tax imposed by section 4945(a) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986.
- Subd. 2. [EXCEPTION.] Subdivision 1 does not apply to the extent that a court of competent jurisdiction determines that application would be contrary to the terms of the will, trust instrument, or other governing instrument described in subdivision 1 and that the will, trust instrument, or other governing instrument may not be changed to conform to subdivision 1.
- Subd. 3. [RIGHTS AND POWERS OF COURTS, ATTORNEY GENERAL.] Nothing in this section impairs the rights and powers of the attorney general or the courts of this state with respect to a trust.

Sec. 26. [501B.34] [CHARITABLE TRUSTS; SUPERVISION BY ATTORNEY GENERAL.]

Sections 25 to 37 apply to trustees holding property for charitable purposes. In connection with the supervision, administration, and enforcement of charitable trusts, the attorney general has the rights, duties, and powers in sections 25 to 37, and common law and statutory rights, duties, and powers.

Sec. 27. [501B.35] [DEFINITIONS.]

Subdivision 1. [SCOPE.] The definitions in this section apply to sections 23 to 37 and do not modify or abridge any law or rule respecting the nature of a charitable trust or the nature and extent of the duties of a trustee except duties imposed by sections 23 to 37.

- Subd. 2. [CHARITABLE PURPOSE.] "Charitable purpose" means an actual or purported charitable, philanthropic, religious, social service, educational, eleemosynary, or other public use or purpose.
- Subd. 3. [CHARITABLE TRUST.] "Charitable trust" means a fiduciary relationship with respect to property that arises as a result of a manifestation of an intention to create it, and that subjects the person by whom the property is held to equitable duties to deal with the property for a charitable purpose.
- Subd. 4. [TRUSTEE.] "Trustee" means a person or group of persons either in an individual or a joint capacity, or a director, officer, or other agent of an association, foundation, trustee corporation, corporation, or other legal entity who is vested with the control or responsibility of administering property held for a charitable purpose.

Sec. 28. [501B.36] [REGISTRATION AND REPORTING.]

The registration and reporting provisions of sections 29 and 30 apply to a charitable trust, or an organization with a charitable purpose, that has gross assets of $25,000 or more, except that the provisions do not apply to:

- (1) a charitable trust administered by the United States or a state, territory, or possession of the United States, the District of Columbia, the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico, or any of their agencies or subdivisions;
- $\frac{(2)}{317}$  a religious association organized under chapter  $\frac{315}{317}$  or chapter
- (3) a charitable trust organized and operated exclusively for religious purposes and administered by a religious association organized under chapter 315 or chapter 317;
- (4) an organization described in section 509(a)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 and operated, supervised, or controlled by or in connection with one or more organizations described in clauses (2) to (5); a pooled income fund as defined in section 642(c)(5) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 maintained by an organization described in clauses (2) to (5); or a charitable remainder annuity trust or unitrust, as defined in section 664 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986;

- (5) a trust in which the only charitable interest is a contingent interest for which no charitable deduction has been allowed for Minnesota income, inheritance, or gift tax purposes or a trust in which not all of the unexpired interests are devoted to one or more charitable purposes and in which the only charitable interest is an annuity or an income interest with respect to which a charitable deduction is allowed the trust under applicable Minnesota income tax laws;
  - (6) an organization subject to sections 309.50 to 309.61;
- (7) a trust for individual and charitable beneficiaries that is described in section 4947(a)(2) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, also known as a split-interest trust; or
- (8) a charitable gift, bequest, or devise not held and continued by a private express trust or corporation even though the gift, bequest, or devise creates a fiduciary relationship, unless there is no named charitable beneficiary in existence or unless a named charitable beneficiary elects in a writing filed with the attorney general and with the fiduciary to come within the provisions of sections 29 and 30.

Sec. 29. [501B.37] [REGISTER OF TRUSTS AND TRUSTEES.]

Subdivision 1. [ESTABLISHMENT OF REGISTER; TRANSFER TO ATTORNEY GENERAL.] The attorney general shall establish and maintain a register of charitable trusts and trustees subject to sections 25 to 37.

Subd. 2. [FILING OF INSTRUMENTS.] A charitable trust subject to sections 25 to 37 must register and file with the attorney general a copy of the instrument that created the charitable trust, including any amendments, within three months after the charitable trust first receives possession or control of property authorized or required to be applied, either at present or in the future, for charitable purposes.

Sec. 30. [501B.38] [FILING OF ANNUAL REPORTS.]

Subdivision 1. [REPORTS REQUIRED; DEADLINES; EXTENSIONS.] A charitable trust subject to sections 25 to 37 must file with the attorney general written reports containing any information the trust is required to report under sections 6056(b), 6033, 6034, and 6056 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986. The reports must be filed annually on or before the 15th day of the fifth month following the close of the charitable trust's taxable year as established for federal tax purposes. The time for filing may be extended by application to the attorney general, but no extension may be for more than six months. A charitable trust that files the information required under this subdivision with the attorney general is not required to file the same information with the commissioner of revenue.

Subd. 2. [SUSPENSION OF FILING.] The attorney general may suspend the filing requirements under subdivision 1 for a particular charitable trust for a reasonable, specifically designated time on written application of the trustee filed with the attorney general. If the filing requirements are suspended, the attorney general shall file in the register of charitable trusts a written statement that the interests of the beneficiaries will not be prejudiced by the suspension and that annual reports are not required for proper supervision by the attorney general's office.

Sec. 31. [501B.39] [PUBLIC INSPECTION OF RECORDS.]

The register, copies of instruments, and the reports filed with the attorney general must be open to public inspection.

Sec. 32. [501B.40] [INVESTIGATORY POWERS OF THE ATTORNEY GENERAL; CUSTODIANS TO FURNISH COPIES OF RECORDS.]

Subdivision 1. [DISCOVERY.] The attorney general may conduct investigations that are reasonably necessary for: (1) the administration of sections 25 to 37; or (2) determining whether property held for charitable purposes is properly administered. In connection with an investigation under this section, the attorney general may obtain discovery from an agent, trustee, fiduciary, beneficiary, institution, association, corporation, or other person regarding a matter, fact, or circumstance, not privileged, that is relevant to the subject matter involved in the investigation. The discovery may be obtained without commencement of a civil action and without leave of court, except as expressly required by subdivision 2. The applicable protective provisions of Rules 26.02, 30.02, and 30.04, of the Rules of Civil Procedure for the District Court apply to discovery procedures instituted under this section. The attorney general or a person to whom discovery is directed may apply to and obtain leave of the district court in order to reduce or extend the time requirements of this subdivision, and, upon a showing of good cause, the district court shall order a reduction or extension. In order to obtain discovery, the attorney general may:

(1) serve written interrogatories on a person. Within 20 days after

- service of interrogatories, separate written answers and objections to each interrogatory must be mailed to the attorney general;
- (2) upon reasonable written notice of no less than 15 days, require a person to produce for inspection and copying documents, papers, books, accounts, letters, photographs, objects, or tangible things in the person's possession, custody, or control; and
- (3) upon reasonable written notice of no less than 15 days, take the testimony of a person by deposition as to a fact or opinion relevant to the subject matter involved in the pending investigation.
- Subd. 2. [ORDER BY COURT.] If a person fails or refuses to answer interrogatories, produce materials, or be examined under oath, the attorney general may, upon notice to the person, apply to the district court in the county where the person resides or is found, for an order to compel compliance. On a showing of cause by the attorney general, the court may issue an order to compel compliance with the discovery procedures authorized by this section.
- Subd. 3. [PUBLIC RECORDS.] A custodian of records of a court having jurisdiction of probate matters or of charitable trusts, and a custodian of records of a department, agency, or political subdivision of this state shall, upon request, furnish to the attorney general, free of charge, copies of records relating to the subject of sections 25 to 37.
- Subd. 4. [REPORT OF APPLICATIONS FOR TAX EXEMPTION.] Every officer, agency, board, or commission of this state that receives an application for exemption from taxation from a charitable trust subject to sections 25 to 37 shall annually file with the attorney general a list of all applications received during the year and shall notify the attorney general of the suspension or revocation of a tax exempt status previously granted.
- Sec. 33. [501B.41] [BREACH OF TRUST; PROCEEDINGS TO SECURE COMPLIANCE.]
- Subdivision 1. [ENFORCEMENT POWERS.] The attorney general may institute appropriate proceedings to obtain compliance with sections 25 to 37 and the proper administration of a charitable trust. The powers and duties of the attorney general in this section are in addition to all other powers and duties.
- Subd. 2. [PARTICIPATION BY ATTORNEY GENERAL.] The attorney general must be notified of, and has the right to participate as a party in, all court proceedings:
- $\underline{\text{(1) to terminate}}$  a charitable trust or to liquidate or distribute its assets;

- (2) to modify or depart from the objects or purposes of a charitable trust as contained in the instrument governing the trust, including a proceeding for the application of the doctrine of cy pres;

- (5) involving a charitable trust when the interests of the uncertain or indefinite charitable beneficiaries may be affected.
- Subd. 3. [EXEMPTION FROM NOTICE REQUIREMENT.] The attorney general need not be provided with notice under subdivision 2 of a charitable gift, devise, or bequest (1) for which the donor or testator has named as a charitable beneficiary an organization that is then in existence; or (2) that is not held and continued by a private express trust or corporation, whether or not the gift, devise, or bequest creates a fiduciary relationship.

This subdivision does not affect any other notice to the attorney general required by this chapter.

- Subd. 4. [FAILURE TO GIVE NOTICE.] If proceedings are commenced without service of process and service of the pleadings upon the attorney general, a judgment or order rendered in the proceedings is voidable, unenforceable, and, upon the attorney general's motion seeking relief, may be set aside. With respect to the proceedings, no compromise, settlement agreement, contract, or judgment agreed to by any or all of the parties having or claiming to have an interest in a charitable trust is valid unless the attorney general was made a party to the proceedings and joined any agreement or the attorney general, in writing, waived the right to participate. The attorney general may enter into a compromise, settlement agreement, contract, or judgment that the attorney general believes is in the best interests of the people of the state and the uncertain or indefinite beneficiaries.
- Subd. 5. [WILLS.] The personal representative shall send to the attorney general a copy of the petition or application for probate together with a copy of the will and any codicils that are being offered for probate:
- (1) when a will provides for a bequest or devise for a charitable purpose for which there is no named charitable beneficiary or for which there is then in existence no named charitable beneficiary;

- (3) when a will provides for a bequest or devise to a named charitable beneficiary that is in receivership; or
- (4) upon a written request served on the personal representative by a named charitable beneficiary prior to the order allowing the final account or, in unsupervised proceedings, within 30 days after service of the final account on the charitable beneficiary.

The personal representative shall serve the documents on the attorney general and file with the appropriate court a copy of the affidavit of service on the attorney general. If the personal representative was requested to notify the attorney general of the probate proceedings according to clause (4), the requesting party shall file with the court a copy of the request and the affidavit of service on the personal representative.

If objections are filed to a will or codicil containing any bequest or devise to a charitable trust, the person filing the objections, at least 14 days before the hearing, shall send to the attorney general a copy of the objections, a copy of the petition or application for probate, a copy of the will, and any codicil that has been offered for probate.

Any service upon the attorney general under this section must be made personally or by registered or certified mail, return receipt requested. The attorney general may become a party in the estate proceedings.

- Subd. 6. [BREACH OF TRUST.] The failure of a trustee to register under section 29, to file annual reports under section 30, or to administer and manage property held for charitable purposes in accordance with law or consistent with fiduciary obligations constitutes a breach of trust.
- Subd. 7. [CIVIL ACTIONS.] The attorney general may begin a civil action in order to remedy and redress a breach of trust, as described in subdivision 6 or as otherwise provided by law, committed by a trustee subject to sections 25 to 37. If it appears to the attorney general that a breach of trust has been committed, the attorney general may sue for and obtain:
- (1) injunctive relief against the breach of trust or threatened breach of trust;
- $\underbrace{(2)\ the\ \underline{removal}}_{a\ breach\ \underline{of}\ trust;}\underbrace{of\ \underline{a}\ \underline{trustee}}_{breach\ \underline{of}\ trust;}\underbrace{who\ \underline{has}\ \underline{committed}}_{breach\ \underline{or}\ \underline{is}\ \underline{committing}}$
  - (3) the recovery of damages; and
  - (4) another appropriate remedy.

Sec. 34. [501B.42] [CONTRARY PROVISIONS OF INSTRUMENT INVALID.]

Sec. 35. [501B.43] [COST OF INVESTIGATIONS AND PROCEEDINGS; REGISTRATION AND FILING FEES.]

Subdivision 1. [EXPENSES PAYABLE.] In a proceeding brought by the attorney general or in which the attorney general intervenes under sections 25 to 37, the judgment or order may provide that the trustee must pay the reasonable expenses necessarily incurred by the attorney general in the investigation and prosecution of the action, including attorneys' fees, if it is determined in the proceeding that the trustee has been guilty of an intentional or grossly negligent breach of trust.

Subd. 2. [DISPOSITION OF MONEY.] All money received by the attorney general under this section must be deposited in the state treasury and credited to the general fund.

Sec. 36. [501B.44] [IMMUNITY OF CHARITABLE TRUSTS.]

Sec. 37. [501B.45] [SALE OF BANKS OWNED BY CHARITABLE TRUSTS.]

Subdivision 1. [DEFINITIONS.] For the purpose of this section, "charitable trust" means a charitable trust subject to supervision by the attorney general under the supervision of charitable trusts and trustees act, sections 25 to 37, that is required to divest excess business holdings by section 4943 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 and that owned 100 percent of a bank holding company on May 26, 1969, the date of enactment of section 4943 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954.

Subd. 2. [AUTHORIZATION.] The stock or assets of one or more banks or a bank holding company owned directly or indirectly by a charitable trust may be sold, assigned, merged, or transferred by the charitable trust under the procedures in section 48.93 to a bank holding company, bank, or other qualified entity as permitted by applicable banking laws without regard to whether the entity acquiring the stock or assets is located in a reciprocating state.

Subd. 3. [LEGISLATIVE INTENT.] It is the express intention of the Minnesota legislature to act pursuant to United States Code, title 12, section 1842(d), to permit certain charitable trusts to sell, assign, or transfer certain financial institutions' assets without regard to whether the entity acquiring the assets of the charitable trust is located outside of this state.

Subd. 4. [ADDITIONAL ACQUISITIONS.] A bank holding company, other than a reciprocating state bank holding company as defined in section 48.92, subdivision 8, that directly or indirectly acquires control of a bank located in this state under the provisions of this section may acquire additional bank assets through the expenditure of an annual amount not to exceed five percent of the Minnesota assets of the acquired bank holding company as of December 31 of the preceding year. The restrictions within this subdivision apply only until the bank holding company making an acquisition under this section becomes a reciprocating state bank holding company. This section does not prohibit the bank holding company from being granted a charter for a de novo bank or from establishing de novo detached facilities pursuant to Minnesota law.

SALES AND LEASES OF REAL PROPERTY

Sec. 38. [501B.46] [PETITION FOR COURT ORDER TO SELL, MORTGAGE, OR LEASE REAL PROPERTY HELD IN TRUST.]

- (a) If the assets of an express trust by will or other written instrument include real property in this state that the trustee is not, under the terms of the trust, then permitted to sell, mortgage, or lease, and if section 20 is applicable to the trust, the trustee or a beneficiary of the trust may petition the court then having jurisdiction of the trust for an order directing the trustee to sell, mortgage, or lease the real property or any of the real property.
- (b) If the assets of an express trust by will or other written instrument include real property in this state that the trustee is not, under the terms of the trust, then permitted to sell, mortgage, or lease, and if section 20 is not applicable to the trust, the trustee or a beneficiary of the trust may petition an appropriate district court under section 13 for an order directing the trustee to sell, mortgage, or-lease-the real property or a part of the real property.

Sec. 39. [501B.47] [PETITION BY OWNER OF PRESENT OR FUTURE INTEREST FOR COURT_ORDER TO SELL, MORTGAGE, OR LEASE INTERESTS IN REAL PROPERTY.]

Notwithstanding a contrary provision in the instrument creating the interests, when the ownership of real property situated in this state is divided into one or more possessory interests and one or more future interests, the owner of an interest may petition the district court for the county in which any of the real property is situated for an order directing that the real property or part of the real property be sold, mortgaged, or leased. If an owner is a minor or incapacitated person as defined in section 525.54, the petition may be made on behalf of the owner by a custodian, conservator, or guardian.

Sec. 40. [501B.48] [WHEN PETITION MAY BE GRANTED.]

Subdivision 1. [PETITION UNDER SECTION 38.] The court to which a petition to sell, mortgage, or lease has been made under section 38 may grant the petition, on terms it considers appropriate, if the court determines that:

- (1) if the interest in real property were owned in fee simple or absolute ownership by a single individual, a sale or mortgage of the interest would be desirable because total investment returns, including appreciation and the value of any use of the real property by trust beneficiaries, were inadequate; or
- (2) an order directing a sale or mortgage would be economically advantageous to the trust beneficiaries to whom trust income is distributable or may be distributed and would not be seriously disadvantageous to any trust beneficiary.

The court to which a petition to lease has been made under section 38 may grant the petition on terms it considers appropriate, even though the term of the lease may extend beyond the term of the trust, if the court determines that an order directing a lease would be economically advantageous to the trust beneficiaries to whom trust income is distributable or may be distributed and would not be seriously disadvantageous to any trust beneficiary.

- Subd. 2. [PETITION UNDER SECTION 39.] The court to which a petition to sell or mortgage has been made under section 39 may grant the petition on terms it considers appropriate if the court determines that:
- (1) were the real property held in trust for the owners of the possessory and future interests in the property, retention of the real property by the trustee without the sale or mortgage would be inconsistent with a trustee's common law duty to administer the trust impartially as between the holders of successive interests in income and principal;
- (2) if the interest in real property were owned in fee simple or absolute ownership by a single individual, a sale or mortgage of the interest would be desirable because total investment returns, including appreciation and the value of any use of the real property by possessory owners, were inadequate; or
- (3) an order directing a sale or mortgage would be economically advantageous to the owners of possessory interests in the real property and would not be seriously disadvantageous to the owner of any interest in the property.

The court to which a petition to lease has been made under section 39 may grant the petition on terms it considers appropriate, even though the term of the lease may extend beyond the duration of the possessory interests in the real property, if the court determines that an order directing a lease would be economically advantageous to the owners of possessory interests in the real property and would not be seriously disadvantageous to the owner of any interest in the property.

Sec. 41. [501B.49] [NOTICE OF HEARING.]

Subdivision 1. [HEARING REQUIRED.] On the filing of a petition under section 38 or 39, the court shall, by order, fix a time and place for a hearing on the petition unless a hearing has been waived in writing. In the case of a petition under section 38, each beneficiary of the trust then in being must join in the waiver. In the case of a petition under section 39, each person in being who owns an interest in the real property must join in the waiver.

Subd. 2. [NOTICE.] Notice of hearing must be given by publishing a copy of the order for hearing one time in a legal newspaper for the county in which the petition is filed at least 20 days before the date of the hearing, and by mailing copies of the order for hearing in the manner specified in this subdivision or in another manner ordered by the court. In the case of a petition under section 38, mailed notice must be given by mailing a copy of the order for hearing to those beneficiaries of the trust then in being who are known to or reasonably ascertainable by the petitioner and, in the case of a beneficiary who is a minor or an incapacitated person as defined in section 525.54, to the conservator or guardian, or if none is acting within the state, to the guardian ad litem of the beneficiary, at least 15 days before the date of the hearing. In the case of a petition under section 39, mailed notice must be given by mailing a copy of the order for hearing to those persons owning an interest in the real property then in being who are known to or reasonably ascertainable by the petitioner and, in the case of a person who is a minor or an incapacitated person as defined in section 525.54, to the conservator or guardian, or if none is acting within the state, to the guardian ad litem of the person, at least 15 days before the date of the hearing.

Sec. 42. [501B.50] [REPRESENTATION OF PERSONS WHO ARE UNBORN, UNASCERTAINED, UNKNOWN, OR MINORS OR INCAPACITATED PERSONS.]

If an interested person is a minor or an incapacitated person as defined in section 525.54 and does not have a guardian or conservator within the state, the court shall appoint a guardian ad litem for the person. If an interested person is unborn, unascertained, or a person whose identity or address is unknown to the petitioner, the court shall represent the person, but the court may, upon the application of the petitioner or another interested person or on its own motion, appoint a guardian ad litem to represent the person.

Sec. 43. [501B.51] [ORDER UPON PETITION; EXECUTION OF TRANSACTION.]

Subdivision 1. [FORM OF ORDER; CONCLUSIVENESS.] At a hearing under section 41, the court shall make an order it considers appropriate. If the petition is granted in whole or in part, the order must specify the real property to be sold, mortgaged, or leased and the terms and conditions on which the transaction is to be consummated. The order is final and conclusive as to all matters determined by it and binding in rem on all persons interested in the real property, whether their interests are vested or contingent, even though the person is a minor, incapacitated as defined in section 525.54, unascertained, or not in being, except that appeal may be taken in the manner provided in the rules of appellate procedure.

Subd. 2. [EXECUTION OF ORDER.] (a) In the case of a petition under section 38, all transactions required by the order must be executed by the trustee.

(b) In the case of a petition under section 39, the court shall appoint a suitable person as receiver to act for the court in executing each transaction required by the order. Each required transaction must be executed by the receiver.

Sec. 44. [501B.52] [REPORT OF AGREEMENT FOR CONFIRMATION.]

Before a sale, mortgage, or lease is made under an order described in section 43, the trustee or receiver shall enter into an agreement for the sale, mortgage, or lease, subject to the approval of the court, and must report the agreement to the court under oath. At least 15 days before the hearing on the confirmation of the agreement, the trustee or receiver shall mail a copy of the agreement to each interested party to whom mailed notice was given under section 41 and to any interested party who did not receive notice but appeared at the hearing on the petition.

Sec. 45. [501B.53] [ORDER OF CONFIRMATION; CONTENTS AND SUBSEQUENT PROCEDURES; DISTRIBUTION OF ASSETS.]

Subdivision 1. [ORDER TO EXECUTE AGREEMENT.] If an agreement reported to the court under section 44 is found by the court to conform to the order described in section 43, the court shall make an order approving and confirming the agreement and directing the trustee or receiver to execute and deliver the deed, mortgage, or lease of real property required by the agreement.

- Subd. 2. [COSTS; ALLOWANCES.] The order of confirmation may direct that each participant in the proceeding be paid reasonable costs of the proceeding incurred by the participant. The order of confirmation may make appropriate allowances to persons who have served in the proceeding as receiver, guardian ad litem, or counsel, and may direct the manner of payment of these allowances.
- Subd. 3. [SAFEKEEPING, MANAGEMENT, AND DISTRIBU-TION OF ASSETS.] The order of confirmation must include appropriate provisions for the safekeeping, management, and distribution of assets derived from the ordered transaction. In the case of assets derived from a transaction executed by a trustee under section 43, subdivision 2, paragraph (a), distribution must be made to the trustee for administration as trust assets. In the case of assets derived from a transaction executed by a receiver under section 43, subdivision 2, paragraph (b), distribution must be made to the owners, at the time of the sale or mortgage, of present possessory interests in the real property that was sold or mortgaged, and to the owners of leased real property who would be entitled to possession on the present termination of the lease. Notwithstanding any contrary provision in the terms of the instrument creating the interests in real property sold, mortgaged, or leased under this subdivision, the same possessory and future interests exist in the assets distributed as existed in the real property, and any provision in the creating instrument for forfeiture of an interest in real property upon a sale or other assignment must be disregarded by the court in directing distribution or other assignment of interests in the proceeds of a sale.
- Subd. 4. [HEARING ON CONFIRMATION ORDER.] The trustee or receiver shall obtain from the court a time and place for the court's hearing on the confirmation of the agreement and shall give mailed notice of the time and place of the hearing to the interested parties described in section 43 at least 15 days before the date of that hearing. The order of confirmation is final and conclusive as to all matters determined by it and binding in rem on all persons interested in the real property, whether their interests are vested or contingent, even though a person is a minor, incapacitated as defined in section 525.54, unascertained, or not in being, except that appeal may be taken in the manner provided in the rules of appellate procedure.
- Subd. 5. [COMBINED PROCEEDINGS.] In appropriate circumstances, proceedings under this section and section 44 may be combined with proceedings under sections 38 to 43.

Sec. 46. [501B.54] [LEGAL EFFECT OF DEED, MORTGAGE, OR LEASE MADE UNDER SECTION 45.]

A deed, mortgage, or lease executed and delivered in accordance with an order of confirmation under section 45 binds the interests of the applicant for the order and of all other persons interested in the real property sold, mortgaged, or leased.

Sec. 47. [501B.55] [DATE OF CREATION OF INTERESTS AFFECTED BY THE PROCEDURES IN SECTIONS 38 TO 46.]

The procedures in sections 38 to 46 apply to proceedings initiated after January 1, 1990, with respect to interests created before, on, or after January 1, 1990.

UNIFORM PRINCIPAL AND INCOME ACT

Sec. 48. [501B.59] [DEFINITIONS.]

- Subd. 3. [INVENTORY VALUE.] "Inventory value" means the cost of property purchased by the trustee and the market value of other property at the time it became subject to the trust, but in the case of a testamentary trust the trustee may use any value finally determined for the purposes of an estate or inheritance tax.
- Subd. 4. [REMAINDERPERSON.] "Remainderperson" means the person entitled to principal, including income accumulated and added to principal.
- Subd. 5. [TRUSTEE.] "Trustee" means an original trustee and any successor or added trustee.
- Sec. 49. [501B.60] [DUTY OF TRUSTEE AS TO RECEIPTS AND EXPENDITURE.]

Subdivision 1. [GENERAL RULES OF ADMINISTRATION.] A trust must be administered with due regard to the respective interests of income beneficiaries and remainderpersons. A trust is so administered with respect to the allocation of receipts and expenditures if a receipt is credited or an expenditure is charged to income or principal or partly to each:

- (1) in accordance with the terms of the trust instrument, notwithstanding contrary provisions of sections 48 to 65;
- (3) if neither of the preceding rules of administration is applicable, in accordance with what is reasonable and equitable in view of the interests of those entitled to income as well as of those entitled to principal, and in view of the manner in which persons of ordinary prudence, discretion, and judgment would act in the management of their own affairs.
- Subd. 2. [TRUSTEE'S DISCRETION.] If a trust instrument gives the trustee discretion in crediting a receipt or charging an expenditure to income or principal or partly to each, no inference of imprudence or partiality arises from the fact that the trustee has made an allocation contrary to sections 48 to 65.

Sec. 50. [501B.61] [INCOME; PRINCIPAL; CHARGES.]

Subdivision 1. [INCOME DEFINED.] "Income" means the return in money or property derived from the use of principal, including return received as:

- (1) rent of real or personal property, including sums received for cancellation or renewal of a lease;
- (2) interest on money lent, including sums received as consideration for the privilege of prepayment of principal, except as provided in section 54 on bond premium and bond discount;
- $\underline{(3)\ income\ earned\ during}\ \underline{administration}\ \underline{of\ a}\ \underline{decedent's}\ \underline{estate}\ \underline{as}$  provided in section 52;
  - (4) corporate distributions as provided in section 50;
- (5) accrued increment on bonds or other obligations issued at discount as provided in section 54;
- $\underline{(6)}$  receipts  $\underline{from}$   $\underline{business}$   $\underline{and}$   $\underline{farming}$   $\underline{operations}$   $\underline{as}$   $\underline{provided}$   $\underline{in}$  section 55;
- $\frac{(7) \text{ receipts from }}{\text{sections 56 and 57;}} \frac{\text{disposition }}{\text{of natural resources as provided in }}$
- $\underline{(8)\ receipts}\ \underline{from}\ \underline{other}\ \underline{principal}\ \underline{subject}\ \underline{to}\ \underline{depletion}\ \underline{as}\ \underline{provided}\ \underline{in}$  section 58; and

- (9) receipts from disposition of underproductive property as provided in section 59.
- Subd. 2. [PRINCIPAL DEFINED.] "Principal" means the property set aside by the owner or the person legally empowered so that it is held in trust eventually to be delivered to a remainderperson while the return or use of the principal is in the meantime taken or received by or held for accumulation for an income beneficiary. Principal includes:
- (1) consideration received by the trustee on the sale or other transfer of principal, on repayment of a loan, or as a refund, replacement, or change in the form of principal;
  - (2) proceeds of property taken on eminent domain proceedings;
- (3) proceeds of insurance on property forming part of the principal, except proceeds of insurance on a separate interest of an income beneficiary;
- (4) stock dividends, receipts on liquidation of a corporation, and other corporate distributions as provided in section 53;
- $\frac{(5)\ receipts}{section} \frac{from}{54} \frac{the}{section} \frac{disposition}{section} \frac{of}{54} \frac{corporate}{securities} \frac{as}{as} \frac{provided}{section}$
- (6) royalties and other receipts from disposition of natural resources as provided in sections 56 and 57;
- $\frac{(7)\ receipts}{section} \frac{from\ other\ principal}{section} \frac{subject}{58} \frac{to\ depletion\ as\ provided\ in}{section}$
- (8) profit resulting from a change in the form of principal, except as provided in section 59 on underproductive property;

- Subd. 3. [CHARGES.] After determining income and principal in accordance with the terms of the trust instrument or of sections 48 to 65, the trustee shall charge to income or principal expenses and other charges as provided in section 60.
- Sec. 51. [501B.62] [WHEN RIGHT TO INCOME ARISES; APPORTIONMENT OF INCOME.]

- Subdivision 1. [GENERAL RULE.] An income beneficiary is entitled to income from the date specified in the trust instrument or, if none is specified, from the date an asset becomes subject to the trust. In the case of an asset that becomes subject to a trust because of a will, it becomes subject to the trust as of the date of the death of the testator or date of receipt in the estate if acquired after death, even though there is an intervening period of administration of the testator's estate during which the beneficiary may have no right to a distribution of the income.
- Subd. 2. [RECEIPTS DUE BUT NOT PAID; PERIODIC PAY-MENTS.] In the administration of a decedent's estate or an asset that becomes subject to a trust by reason of a will:
- (1) receipts due but not paid at the date of death of the testator are principal;
- (2) receipts in the form of periodic payments, other than corporate distributions to stockholders, including rent, interest, or annuities, not due at the date of the death of the testator must be treated as accruing from day to day. That portion of the receipt that accrues before the date of death is principal, and the balance is income.
- Subd. 3. [OTHER RECEIPTS.] In all other cases, any receipt from an income-producing asset is income even though the receipt was earned or accrued in whole or in part before the date when the asset became subject to the trust.
- Subd. 4. [TERMINATION OF INCOME INTEREST.] On termination of an income interest, the income beneficiary whose interest is terminated, or the income beneficiary's estate, is entitled to:
  - (1) income undistributed on the date of termination;
- (3) income in the form of periodic payments, other than corporate distributions to stockholders, including rent, interest, or annuities, not due on the date of termination, accrued from day to day.
- Subd. 5. [CORPORATE DISTRIBUTIONS TO STOCKHOLD-ERS.] Corporate distributions to stockholders must be treated as due on the day fixed by the corporation for determination of stockholders of record entitled to distribution or, if no date is fixed, on the date of declaration of the distribution by the corporation.
- Sec. 52. [501B.63] [INCOME EARNED DURING ADMINISTRATION OF A DECEDENT'S ESTATE.]

Subdivision 1. [EXPENSES.] Unless a will provides otherwise and subject to subdivision 2, all expenses incurred in connection with the settlement of a decedent's estate, including debts, funeral expenses, estate taxes, interest and penalties concerning taxes, family allowances, fees of attorneys and personal representatives, and court costs must be charged against the principal of the estate.

- Subd. 2. [INCOME.] Unless the will provides otherwise, income from the assets of a decedent's estate after the death of the testator and before distribution, including income from property used to discharge liabilities, must be determined in accordance with the rules applicable to a trustee and distributed as follows:
- (1) to specific devisees, the income from the property devised to them respectively, less property taxes, ordinary repairs, interest, and other expenses of management and operation of the property, and less an appropriate portion of taxes imposed on income, excluding taxes on capital gains, that accrue during the period of administration;
- (2) to all other devisees, except devisees of pecuniary devises not in trust, the balance of the income, less the balance of property taxes, ordinary repairs, interest, and other expenses of management and operation of all property from which the estate is entitled to income, and taxes imposed on income, excluding taxes on capital gains, that accrue during the period of administration, in proportion to their respective interests in the undistributed assets of the estate computed at times of distribution on the basis of inventory value.
- Subd. 3. [INCOME RECEIVED BY TRUSTEE.] Income received by a trustee under subdivision 2 must be treated as income of the trust.

Sec. 53. [501B.64] [CORPORATE DISTRIBUTIONS.]

Subdivision 1. [SHARES; STOCK SPLITS; STOCK DIVIDENDS; SUBSCRIPTION RIGHTS.] Distributions of shares of a distributing corporation, including distributions in the form of a stock split or stock dividend, are principal. A shareholder's right to subscribe to shares or other securities of the distributing corporation and the proceeds of any sale of that right are principal.

Subd. 2. [CALL OF SHARES; MERGER; LIQUIDATION.] Except to the extent that the corporation indicates that some part of a corporate distribution is a settlement of preferred or guaranteed dividends accrued since the trustee became a stockholder or is in lieu of an ordinary cash dividend, a corporate distribution is principal if the distribution is pursuant to:

(1) a call of shares;

- (2) a merger, consolidation, reorganization, or other plan by which assets of the corporation are acquired by another corporation; or
- (3) a total or partial liquidation of the corporation, including a distribution the corporation indicates is a distribution in total or partial liquidation or distribution of assets, other than cash, pursuant to a court decree or final administrative order by a government agency ordering distribution of the particular assets.
- Subd. 3. [REGULATED INVESTMENT COMPANY; REAL ESTATE INVESTMENT TRUST.] Distributions made from ordinary income by a regulated investment company or by a trust qualifying and electing to be taxed under federal law as a real estate investment trust are income. All other distributions made by the company or trust, including distributions from capital gains, depreciation, or depletion, whether in the form of cash or an option to take new stock or cash or an option to purchase additional shares, are principal.
- Subd. 4. [OTHER DISTRIBUTIONS.] Except as provided in subdivisions 1, 2, and 3, all corporate distributions are income. "Corporate distributions" includes cash dividends, distributions of or rights to subscribe to shares or securities or obligations of corporations other than the distributions corporation, and the proceeds of the rights or property distributions. Except as provided in subdivisions 2 and 3, if the distributing corporation gives a stockholder an option to receive a distribution either in cash or in its own shares, the distribution chosen is income.
- Subd. 5. [RELIANCE ON STATEMENTS.] The trustee may rely on a statement of the distributing corporation as to a fact relevant under a provision of sections 48 to 65 concerning the source or character of dividends or distributions of corporate assets.

Sec. 54. [501B.65] [BOND PREMIUM AND DISCOUNT.]

Subdivision 1. [PRINCIPAL.] Bonds or other obligations for the payment of money are principal at their inventory value, except as provided in subdivision 2 for discount bonds. No provision may be made for amortization of bond premiums or for accumulation for discount. The proceeds of sale, redemption, or other disposition of the bonds or obligations are principal.

Subd. 2. [INCOME.] The increment in value of a bond or other obligation for the payment of money payable at a future time in accordance with a fixed schedule of appreciation in excess of the price at which it was issued, is distributable as income. The increment in value is distributable to the beneficiary who was the income beneficiary at the time of increment from the first principal cash available or, if none is available, when realized by sale, redemption, or other disposition. Whenever unrealized increment is distributed as income but out of principal, the principal must be reimbursed for the increment when realized.

Sec. 55. [501B.66] [BUSINESS AND FARMING OPERATIONS.]

Subdivision 1. [BUSINESS INCOME OR LOSSES.] If a trustee uses part of the principal in the continuance of a business of which the settlor was a sole proprietor or a partner, the net profits of the business, computed in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles for a comparable business, are income. If a loss results in any fiscal or calendar year, the loss falls on principal and must not be carried into any other fiscal or calendar year for purposes of calculating new income.

Subd. 2. [AGRICULTURAL INCOME.] Generally accepted accounting principles must be used to determine income from an agricultural or farming operation, including the raising of animals or the operation of a nursery.

Sec. 56. [501B.67] [DISPOSITION OF NATURAL RESOURCES.]

Subdivision 1. [ALLOCATION OF RECEIPTS.] If a part of the principal consists of a right to receive royalties, overriding or limited royalties, working interests, production payments, net profit interests, or other interests in minerals or other natural resources in, on, or under land, the receipts from taking the natural resources from the land must be allocated under paragraphs (a) to (c).

- (a) If received as rent on a lease or extension payments on a lease, the receipts are income.
- (b) If received from a production payment carved out of a mineral property, the receipts are income to the extent of a factor for interest or its equivalent provided in the governing instrument or a greater amount determined by the trustee to be reasonable and equitable in view of the interests of those entitled to income as well as those entitled to principal. The receipts not allocated to income are principal.
- (c) If received as a royalty, overriding or limited royalty, or bonus or from a working, net profit, or other interest in minerals or other natural resources, receipts not provided for in paragraph (a) or (b) must be apportioned on a yearly basis in accordance with this paragraph whether or not any natural resource was being taken from the land at the time the trust was established. The receipts from these properties must be allocated in accordance with what is reasonable and equitable in view of the interests of those entitled to income as well as of those entitled to principal. The amount allocated to principal must be presumed to be reasonable and equitable if it is not less than the amount allowable as a deduction for depletion, amortization, depreciation, or similar costs under the Internal Revenue Code of 1986. Any allocated amount must be added to principal as an allowance for depletion of the asset. The balance of the gross receipts, after payment from the receipts of all direct and indirect expenses, is income.

Subd. 2. [TIMBER EXCEPTED.] This section does not apply to timber.

Sec. 57. [501B.68] [TIMBER.]

If a part of the principal consists of land from which merchantable timber may be removed, the receipts from taking the timber from the land must be allocated in accordance with what is reasonable and equitable in view of the interests of those entitled to income as well as of those entitled to principal. The amount allocated to principal must be presumed to be reasonable and equitable if it is not less than the amount allowable as a deduction for depletion, amortization, depreciation, or similar costs under the Internal Revenue Code of 1986.

Sec. 58. [501B.69] [OTHER PROPERTY SUBJECT TO DEPLETION.]

Except as provided in sections 56 and 57, if part of the principal consists of property subject to depletion, including leaseholds, patents, copyrights, royalty rights, and rights to receive payments on a contract for deferred compensation, the receipts from the property must be allocated in accordance with what is reasonable and equitable in view of the interests of those entitled to income as well as of those entitled to principal. The amount allocated to principal is presumed to be reasonable and equitable if it is not less than the amount allowable as a deduction for depletion, amortization, depreciation, or similar costs under the Internal Revenue Code of 1986.

Sec. 59. [501B.70] [UNDERPRODUCTIVE PROPERTY.]

Subdivision 1. [PORTION OF PROCEEDS AS INCOME.] Except as otherwise provided in this section, a portion of the net proceeds of a sale of a part of the principal that has not produced an average net income of at least one percent per year of its inventory value for more than a year, including as income the value of any beneficial use of the property by the income beneficiary, must be treated as delayed income to which the income beneficiary is entitled as provided in this section. The net proceeds of sale are the gross proceeds received, including the value of property received in substitution for the property disposed of, less the expenses, including capital gains tax, if any, incurred in the disposition and less any carrying charges paid while the property was underproductive.

- Subd. 2. [CALCULATION OF DELAYED INCOME.] The sum allocated as delayed income is the difference between the net proceeds, and the amount that would have produced the net proceeds, had it been invested at simple interest at four percent per year while the property was underproductive. This sum, plus any carrying charges and expenses previously charged against income while the property was underproductive, less any income received by the income beneficiary from the property and less the value of any beneficial use of the property by the income beneficiary, is income, and the balance is principal.
- Subd. 3. [ACCRUAL OF DELAYED INCOME.] An income beneficiary or the income beneficiary's estate is entitled to delayed income under this section as if accrued from day to day.
- Subd. 4. [DIFFICULT-TO-APPORTION PROPERTY.] If principal subject to this section is disposed of by conversion into property that cannot be apportioned easily, including, but not limited to, land, mortgages, or realty acquired by or in lieu of foreclosure, the income beneficiary is entitled to the net income from any property or obligation into which the original principal is converted while the substituted property or obligation is held. If within five years after the conversion the substituted property has not been further converted into easily apportionable property, no allocation as provided in this section may be made.
- Sec. 60. [501B.71] [CHARGES AGAINST INCOME AND PRINCIPAL.]
- (1) ordinary expenses incurred in connection with the administration, management, or preservation of the trust property, including regularly recurring taxes assessed against a portion of the principal, water rates, premiums on insurance taken upon the interests of the income beneficiary, remainderperson, or trustee, interest paid by the trustee, and ordinary repairs;
- (2) a reasonable allowance for depreciation on property subject to depreciation under generally accepted accounting principles, but no allowance may be made for depreciation of that portion of real property used by a beneficiary as a residence or for depreciation of property held by the trustee on January 1, 1970, for which the trustee is not then making an allowance for depreciation;

- (4) court costs, attorneys' fees, and other fees on other accountings or judicial proceedings if the matter primarily concerns the income interest, unless the court directs otherwise;
- (5) one-half of the trustee's regular compensation for services performed for the income beneficiary or in the production of income whether based on a percentage of principal or income, and all expenses reasonably incurred for current management of principal and application of income; and
- (6) any tax levied on receipts defined as income under sections 48 to 65 or the trust instrument and payable by the trustee.
- Subd. 2. [UNUSUAL CHARGES.] If charges against income are of an unusual amount, the trustee may charge them over a reasonable period of time or, by means of reserves or other reasonable means, withhold from distribution sufficient sums to regularize distributions.
- (1) trustee's compensation not chargeable to income under subdivision 1, clause (5), special compensation of the trustee, expenses reasonably incurred in connection with principal, court costs and attorneys' fees primarily concerning matters of principal, and trustee's compensation computed on principal as an acceptance, distribution, or termination fee;
- (2) charges not provided for in subdivision 1, including the cost of investing and reinvesting principal, the payments on principal of an indebtedness, including a mortgage amortized by periodic payments of principal, expenses for preparation of property for rental or sale, and, unless the court directs otherwise, expenses incurred in maintaining or defending any action to construe the trust or protect it or the property or assure the title of any trust property;
- (3) extraordinary repairs or expenses incurred in making a capital improvement to principal, including special assessments, but a trustee may establish an allowance for depreciation out of income to the extent permitted by subdivision 1, clause (2), and by section 52;
- (4) any tax levied on profit, gain, or other receipts allocated to principal, even if the taxing authority calls the tax an income tax;
- (5) any amount apportioned to a trust, including interest and penalties, if an estate or inheritance tax is levied in respect of a trust in which both an income beneficiary and a remainderperson have an interest.

Subd. 4. [REGULAR CHARGES PAYABLE FROM INCOME.] Regularly recurring charges payable from income must be apportioned to the same extent and in the same manner that income is apportioned under section 51.

Sec. 61. [501B.72] [NONTRUST ESTATES.]

Subdivision 1. [LIMITATIONS.] Sections 48 to 65 apply to non-trust estates, subject to:

- (1) agreement of the parties;
- (2) specific direction in the instrument creating the nontrust estates;
  - (3) subdivision 2; and
  - (4) other applicable statutes.

References in sections 48 to 65 to trusts and trustees must be read as applying to nontrust estates and to tenants and remainderpersons as the context requires.

- Subd. 2. [APPLICATION.] In applying sections 48 to 65 to nontrust estates, the rules in paragraphs (a) to (c) must be followed.
- (a) A legal life tenant or a remainderperson who has incurred a charge for the tenant's or remainderperson's benefit without the consent or agreement of the other, shall pay the charge in full.
- (b) Costs of an improvement, including special taxes or assessments representing an addition to value of property forming part of the principal that cannot reasonably be expected to outlast the legal life estate, must be paid by the legal life tenant.
- (c) If the improvement can reasonably be expected to outlast the legal life estate, only a portion of the costs must be paid by the legal life tenant and the balance by the remainderperson.
- (1) The portion payable by the legal life tenant is that fraction of the total found by dividing the present value of the legal life estate by the present value of an estate of the same form as that of the legal life estate but limited to a period corresponding to the reasonably expected duration of the improvement.
- (2) The present value of the legal life estate must be computed by applying the federal estate tax regulations for the calculation of the value of life estates under section 2031 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986. The federal estate tax regulations applied must be those in force on the date when the costs of the improvement are initially determined by assessment, agreement, or otherwise. No other evidence of duration or expectancy may be considered.

Sec. 62. [501B.73] [APPLICATION.]

Except as specifically provided in the governing instrument, Minnesota Statutes 1988, sections 501.48 to 501.63, apply to a receipt or expense received or incurred after January 1, 1970, and before January 1, 1990, by any trust or decedent's estate whether established before or after January 1, 1970, and whether the asset involved was acquired by the trustee before or after January 1, 1970.

Except as specifically provided in the governing instrument, sections 48 to 65 apply to a receipt or expense received or incurred after December 31, 1989, by a trust or decedent's estate whether established before, on, or after January 1, 1990, and whether the asset involved or legal estate was acquired by the trustee, personal representative, legal life tenant, or remainderperson before; on, or after January 1, 1990.

Sec. 63. [501B.74] [ASCERTAINMENT OF INCOME OR PRINCIPAL.]

Sections 48 to 65 do not govern the ascertainment of what constitutes the receipt of income or principal by the estate or trust for income tax purposes.

Sec. 64. [501B.75] [UNIFORMITY OF INTERPRETATION.]

Sections 48 to 65 must be so construed as to effectuate their general purpose to make uniform the law of those states that enact them.

MISCELLANEOUS

Sec. 70. [501B.86] [DISCLAIMER OF INTERESTS PASSING BY DEED, ASSIGNMENT, UNDER CERTAIN NONTESTAMENTARY INSTRUMENTS, OR UNDER CERTAIN POWERS OF APPOINTMENT.]

Subdivision 1. [DEFINITIONS.] As used in this section, unless otherwise clearly required by the context:

- (a) "beneficiary" means a person entitled, but for the person's disclaimer, to take an interest:
  - (1) as grantee;
  - (2) as donee;
  - (3) under an assignment or instrument of conveyance or transfer;
- (4) by succession to a disclaimed interest, other than by will, intestate succession, or through the exercise or nonexercise of a testamentary power of appointment;
  - (5) as beneficiary of an inter vivos trust or insurance contract;
- (6) pursuant to the exercise or nonexercise of a nontestamentary power of appointment;
- (7) as donee of a power of appointment created by a nontestamentary instrument; or
  - (8) otherwise under a nontestamentary instrument;
  - (b) "interest" means:
  - (1) the whole of any property, real or personal, legal or equitable;
- $\underline{\text{(2) a fractional part, share, particular portion, or specific assets of property;}}$
  - (3) an estate in property;
  - (4) a power to appoint, consume, apply, or expend property; or
- $\underline{\text{(5)}}$  any other right, power, privilege, or immunity relating to property; and
- (c) "disclaimer" means a written instrument that declines, refuses, releases, or disclaims an interest that would otherwise be succeeded to by a beneficiary, if the instrument defines the nature and extent of the interest disclaimed and is signed, witnessed, and acknowledged by the disclaimant in the manner provided for deeds of real estate.

Subd. 2. [WHO MAY DISCLAIM.] A beneficiary may disclaim an interest in whole or in part, or with reference to specific parts, shares, portions, or assets, by filing a disclaimer in court in the manner provided in this section. A guardian or conservator of the estate of a minor or an incapacitated person under section 525.54, or the personal representative of the estate of a deceased beneficiary may execute and file a disclaimer on behalf of the beneficiary if that representative considers it not detrimental to the best interests of the beneficiary's estate and of those who take the beneficiary's interest by virtue of the disclaimer. The representative may file the disclaimer with or without a court order within the time specified in subdivision 3. A beneficiary may file a disclaimer by an attorney or attorney-in-fact.

Subd. 3. [FILING DEADLINE.] A disclaimer under subdivision 2 may be filed at any time after the creation of the interest, but it must be filed within nine months after the effective date of the nontestamentary instrument creating the interest, or, if the disclaimant is not then finally ascertained as a beneficiary or the disclaimant's interest has not then become indefeasibly fixed both in quality and in quantity, the disclaimer must be filed not later than nine months after the event that would cause the disclaimant to become finally ascertained and the interest to become indefeasibly fixed both in quality and quantity.

Subd. 4. [EFFECTIVE DATE.] (a) A disclaimer under subdivision 2 is effective on being filed in a district court of the state of Minnesota. A copy of the disclaimer must be delivered or mailed to the trustee of a trust in which the interest disclaimed exists or to any other person who has legal title to, or possession of, the property in which the interest disclaimed exists. The trustee or person is not liable for any otherwise proper distribution or other disposition made without actual notice of the disclaimer.

(b) If an interest in or relating to real estate is disclaimed, the original of the disclaimer, or a copy of the disclaimer certified as true and complete by the court administrator of the district court where the disclaimer has been filed, must also be filed with the county recorder or with the registrar of titles, as appropriate, in the county or counties where the real estate is situated. The filed disclaimer is notice to all persons after the time of filing. If title to the real estate has not been registered under chapter 508, the disclaimer or certified copy must be filed with the county recorder. If title to the real estate has been registered under chapter 508, the disclaimer or certified copy must be filed with the registrar of titles.

- Subd. 5. [DISTRIBUTION OF DISCLAIMED PROPERTY.] Unless otherwise provided in the nontestamentary instrument creating the interest with reference to the possibility of a disclaimer by the beneficiary, the interest disclaimed must be distributed or otherwise disposed of in the same manner as if the disclaimant had died immediately preceding the death or other event that causes the disclaimant to become indefeasibly fixed both in quality and quantity. The disclaimer relates for all purposes to that date, whether filed before or after the death or other event. Unless the disclaimer provides otherwise, a person disclaiming an interest in a nonresiduary gift under a trust instrument or otherwise is not excluded from sharing in a gift of the residue even though, through lapse, the residue includes the assets disclaimed.
- Subd. 6. [BARS TO RIGHT TO DISCLAIM.] The right to disclaim is barred if the beneficiary: (1) is insolvent; (2) assigns or transfers, or contracts to assign or transfer, an interest in the property to be disclaimed; (3) in writing, waives the right to disclaim the succession to an interest in the property; or (4) sells or otherwise disposes of an interest in the property.
- Subd. 7. [EFFECT OF RESTRICTIONS.] The right to disclaim granted by this section exists despite a limitation imposed on the interest of the disclaimant in the nature of an express or implied spendthrift provision or similar restriction. A disclaimer, when filed under this section, or a written waiver of the right to disclaim, is binding on the disclaimant or waiving beneficiary and all parties later claiming by, through, or under the disclaimant or waiving beneficiary, except that a waiving beneficiary may later transfer, assign, or release the waiving beneficiary's interest if it is not prohibited by an express or implied spendthrift provision. If an interest in real estate is disclaimed and the disclaimer is filed in accordance with subdivision 4, the spouse of the disclaimant, if the spouse has consented to the disclaimer in writing, is automatically debarred from the spouse's statutory or common law right or estate by curtesy or in dower or otherwise in the real estate to which the spouse, except for the disclaimer, would have been entitled.
- Subd. 8. [OTHER LAW.] This section does not abridge the right of a person, apart from this section, under an existing or future statute or rule of law, to disclaim an interest or to assign, convey, release, renounce, or otherwise dispose of an interest.
- Subd. 9. [INTERESTS IN EXISTENCE ON MAY 22, 1965.] If an interest existed on May 22, 1965, it may be disclaimed under this section if it had not then become indefeasibly fixed both in quality and quantity or if its taker had not then become finally ascertained.
- Subd. 10. [BANK DEPOSITS.] The survivor or survivors of a bank deposit held in the names of the decedent and the survivor or survivors may at any time disclaim that interest by authorizing the inclusion of the proceeds of the bank deposit in the inventory and appraisal required by law to be filed by the representative or executor of the estate of the decedent. For purposes of this subdivision, "bank deposit" includes a checking or savings account or time deposit in any financial institution authorized to accept deposits.

Sec. 71. [501B.87] [TRUSTS FORMING PART OF RETIREMENT PLANS FOR PARTICIPATING MEMBERS.]

If a trust forms part of a retirement plan created by and for the benefit of self-employed persons for the purpose of receiving their contributions and investing, accumulating, and distributing to the persons or their beneficiaries the corpus, profits, and earnings of the trust in accordance with the plan, the power of a person beneficially interested in the trust to sell, assign, or transfer that beneficial interest, to anticipate payments under the plan, or to terminate the trust, may be limited or withheld in accordance with the provisions of the plan, whether or not the person furnished consideration for the creation of the trust.

Sec. 72. [501B.88] [TRUSTS NOT AFFECTED.]

Notwithstanding other law to the contrary, a trust created before June 1, 1973, relating to one's "minority" or "majority" or other related terms is governed by the definitions of those terms existing at the time of the creation of the trust.

Sec. 73. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 500.17, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [ACCUMULATION.] Where the controlling will or other written instrument permits accumulation, either expressly or by necessary implication, rents and profits from real estate may be accumulated to the same extent and for the same period permitted by law for the accumulation of income from personal property income from personal property and rents and profits from real estate may be accumulated for the period during which the power of alienation may be suspended by future interests in real or personal property not held in trust under section 9, subdivision 3. Where any will or other instrument authorizes accumulation beyond the period permissible under this section, such authorization shall be void only as to the excess period.

Reasonable sums set aside for depreciation and depletion shall not be deemed an accumulation within the meaning of this section.

Sec. 74. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 502.73, is amended to read:

502.73 [RIGHT OF ALIENATION SUSPENDED, WHEN.]

The period during which the absolute right power of alienation, within the meaning of section 9, may be suspended by any instrument in execution of a power is to be computed from the time of the creation of the power and not from the date of the instrument, except that in the case of a general power presently exercisable, the period is to be computed from the date of the instrument.

Sec. 75. [525.95] [FIDUCIARY POWERS, SUSPENSION DURING WAR SERVICE.]

- (a) "War service" includes the following, during a period when the United States is engaged in war or other major military engagement with a foreign nation:
- (1) active membership in the military forces of the United States or any of its allies;
- (2) acceptance for membership in the military forces of the United States or any of its allies and awaiting induction into that service;
- (3) participation in work abroad in connection with a governmental agency of the United States or any of its allies, with the Red Cross, or with a similar service;
- (4) internment by an enemy or absence from the United States and inability to return; and
- (5) service arising out of or in connection with the war or other major military engagement, which in the opinion of the court prevents the fiduciary from giving the proper attention to duties.
- (b) "Fiduciary" refers to a trustee of a testamentary trust or of an express trust, a guardian or conservator of the person or estate of a person, an executor of a will, an administrator of the estate of the decedent, a custodian under the Minnesota uniform transfers to minors act, or an advisor or consultant in a testamentary or express trust.
- Subd. 2. [POWERS OF FIDUCIARY MAY BE SUSPENDED; PETITION.] A fiduciary who contemplates entering war service, a fiduciary who is engaged in war service, a cofiduciary, or an interested person may petition the proper court having jurisdiction in matters of that nature for the suspension of the powers and duties of the fiduciary during the period of war service and until the further order of the court, and may petition for the reinstatement of the fiduciary upon the fiduciary's return.

- Subd. 3. [NOTICE OF HEARING.] Notice of the hearing on a petition under subdivision 2 must be given to persons and in the manner the court directs.
- Subd. 4. [HEARING; ORDER.] After a hearing on a petition under subdivision 2 or in the case of an executor, administrator, or guardian on the court's own motion, the court may:
- (1) order the suspension of the powers and duties of the fiduciary who is in war service for the period of the war service and until the further order of the court;
- (2) appoint a successor fiduciary to serve for the period of suspension of the powers and duties of the fiduciary and until the further order of the court, if upon suspension of powers and duties, there is no fiduciary to exercise the powers and duties of the fiduciary who is in war service, or if in the opinion of the court the appointment of a cofiduciary is advisable;
- (3) decree that the ownership and title to the trust property vests in the successor fiduciary or cofiduciary, as the case may be, and that the duties, powers, and discretions, or those of the powers and discretions that are not personal to the fiduciary, may be exercised by the cofiduciary or successor fiduciary;
- (4) make other orders the court considers advisable with respect to the trust estate or its administration, and authorize a reasonable compensation to the successor fiduciary; or
- (5) reserve jurisdiction for the entry of further orders and for the reinstatement of the fiduciary.

Upon petition, the court shall order the reinstatement of the fiduciary when the fiduciary's war service has terminated if it appears that the trust is not fully executed or administration of the estate is not completed.

Subd. 5. [RESPONSIBILITY OF FIDUCIARY.] The fiduciary has no responsibility for the acts and doings of the cofiduciary or successor fiduciary during the period of the suspension of the fiduciary's powers and duties, but is not relieved of responsibility for the fiduciary's own acts or doings in the administration of the trust fund or estate. A successor fiduciary appointed under this section is not responsible for the acts of the predecessor fiduciary.

Except as required by section 645.35 or as otherwise provided in sections 47, 60, 62, 70, subdivision 9, and 72, this article is effective January 1, 1990, and applies to trusts, property interests, and powers of appointment whenever created to the extent permitted under the United States Constitution and the Minnesota Constitution.

The commission shall take steps to at least:

- (1) assure that minority and women's businesses and organizations know of its existence and purpose;
- (2) determine the existence and extent of discrimination in Minnesota business, trade, and industry;
  - (3) recommend appropriate statutory or regulatory changes; and
- (4) recommend programs targeted to small businesses in need of assistance.

Subd. 2. [MEMBERSHIP.] The commission shall consist of 11 members: three members, one of which shall be of the minority caucus of the house of representatives appointed by the speaker, three members, one of which shall be of the minority caucus of the senate appointed by the committee on committees; three members appointed by the governor; and two members from the socially or economically disadvantaged community appointed by the commissioner of administration. The attorney general or the attorney general's designee shall serve as a nonvoting member. Any vacancy shall be filled by the appointing authority.

- Subd. 3. [REPORT.] The commission shall report its findings and recommendations for legislative action to the governor and the legislature by January 31, 1990, and shall cease to function after that date.
- Subd. 4. [POWERS; OFFICERS.] The commission shall hold hearings and meetings as necessary to accomplish its purposes and may enter into contracts and subpoena witnesses and records. It shall select from its members a chair or co-chairs and other officers it considers necessary.
- Subd. 5. [COMPENSATION, SUPPORT SERVICES.] (a) Legislative members of the commission shall be compensated in the same manner as for other legislative meetings. Other members shall be compensated as provided in Minnesota Statutes, section 15.059, subdivision 3.
- (b) The legislative coordinating commission shall provide administrative and support services for the commission.
- Sec. 2. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 16B.189, is amended to read:

16B.189 [CITATION AND PURPOSE.]

Sections 16B.19 to 16B.22 may be cited as the "Minnesota small business procurement act." These sections prescribe procurement practices and procedures to assist in the economic development of small businesses and economically disadvantaged small businesses owned and operated by socially or economically disadvantaged persons.

- Sec. 3. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 16B.19, is amended to read:
- 16B.19 [DESIGNATION OF PROCUREMENTS FROM SMALL BUSINESSES.]

Subdivision 1. [SMALL BUSINESS PROCUREMENTS.] The commissioner shall for each fiscal year ensure that small businesses receive at least 25 percent of the value of anticipated total state procurement of goods and services, including printing and construction. The commissioner shall divide the procurements so designated into contract award units of economically feasible production runs in order to facilitate offers or bids from small businesses. In making the annual designation of such procurements the commissioner shall attempt (1) to vary the included procurements so that a variety of goods and services produced by different small businesses are obtained each year, and (2) to designate small business procurements in a manner that will encourage proportional distribution of such awards among the geographical regions of the state. To promote the geographical distribution of set-aside awards, the commissioner may designate a portion of the small business set-aside procurement for award to bidders from a specified congressional district or other geographical region specified by the commissioner. The failure of the commissioner to designate particular procurements shall not be deemed to prohibit or discourage small businesses from seeking the procurement award through the normal solicitation and bidding processes.

Subd. 1a. [SMALL BUSINESS.] For purposes of sections 16B.189 to 16B.22, "small business" means a small business, as defined in section 645.445, with its principal place of business in Minnesota.

Subd. 2. [CONSULTANT, PROFESSIONAL AND TECHNICAL PROCUREMENTS.] Every state agency shall for each fiscal year designate for awarding to small businesses with their principal place of business in Minnesota at least 25 percent of the value of anticipated procurements of that agency for consultant services or professional and technical services. The set-aside under this subdivision is in addition to that provided by subdivision 1, but shall otherwise comply with section 16B.17. At least six percent of all these procurements for consultant services or professional or technical services shall be set aside for small businesses owned and operated by socially or economically disadvantaged persons.

Subd. 3. A bill for an act relating to utilities; low-income energy needs; designating the department of public service as the agency responsible for coordinating energy policy for low-income Minnesotans; requiring the department to gather certain information on low-income energy programs; appropriating money; amending Minnesota Statutes 1988, sections 216B.241, subdivisions 1 and 2; 216C.02, subdivision 1; 216C.10; 216C.11; and 268.37, by adding a subdivision; proposing coding for new law in Minnesota Statutes, chapter 216B.

The Honorable Robert E. Vanasek Speaker of the House of Representatives

The Honorable Jerome M. Hughes President of the Senate

We, the undersigned conferees for H. F. No. 1532, report that we have agreed upon the items in dispute and recommend as follows:

That the Senate recede from its amendment and that H. F. No. 1532 be further amended as follows:

"Section 1. [216B.095] [DISCONNECTION DURING COLD WEATHER.]

The commission shall amend its rules governing disconnection of residential utility customers who are unable to pay for utility service during cold weather to include the following:

- $\frac{(1)\ coverage\ of\ customers\ whose\ household\ income\ is\ less\ than\ 185}{percent\ of\ the\ federal\ poverty\ level;}$
- (2) a requirement that a customer who pays the utility at least ten percent of the customer's income or the full amount of the utility bill, whichever is less, in a cold weather month cannot be disconnected during that month;
- (3) that the ten percent figure in clause (2) must be prorated between energy providers proportionate to each provider's share of the customer's total heating energy costs where the customer receives service from more than one provider;
- (4) that a customer's household income does not include any amount received for energy assistance;
- (5) verification of income by the local energy assistance provider, unless the customer is automatically eligible as a recipient of any form of public assistance, including energy assistance, that uses income eligibility in an amount at or below the income eligibility in clause (1); and
- (6) a requirement that the customer receive, from the local energy assistance provider or other entity, budget counseling and referral to weatherization, conservation, or other programs likely to reduce the customer's consumption of energy.

For the purpose of clause (2), the "customer's income" means the actual monthly income of the customer except for a customer who is normally employed only on a seasonal basis and whose annual income is over 135 percent of the federal poverty level, in which case the customer's income is the average monthly income of the customer computed on an annual calendar year basis.

Sec. 2. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 216B.241, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [DEFINITIONS.] For purposes of this section, the terms defined in this subdivision shall have the meanings given them:

- (a) "Commission" means the public utilities commission, department of public service;
  - (b) "Department" means the department of public service;
- (c) "Energy conservation improvement" means the purchase or installation of any device, method or material that increases the efficiency in the use of electricity or natural gas including, but not limited to:
  - (1) insulation and ventilation;
  - (2) storm or thermal doors or windows;
  - (3) caulking and weatherstripping;
  - (4) furnace efficiency modifications;
  - (5) thermostat or lighting controls;
  - (6) awnings; or
- (7) systems to turn off or vary the delivery of energy. The term "energy conservation improvement" includes any device or method which creates, converts or actively uses energy from renewable sources such as solar, wind and biomass providing such device or method conforms with national or state performance and quality standards whenever applicable.
- (e)  $\underline{(d)}$  "Investments and expenses of a public utility" includes the investments and expenses incurred by a public utility in connection with an energy conservation improvement including, but not limited to:
- (1) the differential in interest cost between the market rate and the rate charged on a no interest or below market interest loan made by a public utility to a customer for the purchase or installation of an energy conservation improvement;
- (2) the difference between the utility's cost of purchase or installation of energy conservation improvements and any price charged by a public utility to a customer for such improvements.

(d) (e) "Public utility" has the same meaning as given that term in section 216B.02, subdivision 4. For the purposes of this section, "public utility" shall not include cooperative electric associations that become subject to rate regulation after April 16, 1980.

Sec. 3. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 216B.241, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [PROGRAMS.] The commission department may order by rule require public utilities to make investments and expenditures in energy conservation improvements, explicitly setting forth the interest rates, prices, and terms under which the improvements shall must be offered to the customers. The required programs must cover a two-year period. The commission department shall order require at least one public utility to establish a pilot program to make investments in and expenditures for energy from renewable resources such as solar, wind, or biomass. The commission department shall evaluate the program on the basis of cost-effectiveness and the reliability of technologies employed. The order rules of the commission shall department must provide to the extent practicable for a free choice, by consumers participating in the program, of the device, method, or material constituting the energy conservation improvement and for a free choice of the seller, installer, or contractor of the energy conservation improvement, provided that the device, method, material, seller, installer, or contractor is duly licensed, certified, approved, or qualified, including under the residential conservation services program, where applicable. The commission department may order require a utility to make an energy conservation improvement investment or expenditure whenever the commission department finds that the improvement will result in energy savings at a total cost to the utility less than the cost to the utility to produce or purchase an equivalent amount of new supply of energy. The commission department shall nevertheless insure that every public utility with operating revenues in excess of $50,000,000 operate one or more programs, under periodic review by the commission department, which that make significant investments in and expenditures for energy conservation improvements. The department shall consider and may require a utility to undertake a program suggested by an outside source, including a political subdivision or a nonprofit or community organization. The commission department shall give special consideration to ensure that at least half the money spent on residential programs is devoted to programs that directly address the needs of renters and low income families and individuals unless an insufficient number of appropriate programs are available. Provisions of the previous sentences shall expire on January 1, 1993. For purposes of this section, "low income" means an income less than 185 percent of the federal poverty level. Investments and expenditures made pursuant to an order shall under this subdivision must be treated for ratemaking purposes in the manner prescribed in section 216B.16, subdivision 6b. No utility shall make an energy conservation improvement pursuant to this section to a building envelope unless it is the primary supplier of energy used for either space heating or cooling in the building or unless the department determines that special circumstances, which would unduly restrict the availability of conservation programs, warrant otherwise. A utility, a political subdivision, or a nonprofit or community organization that has suggested a program, or the attorney general acting on behalf of consumers and small business interests, may petition the commission to modify or revoke a department decision to require a program under this subdivision, and the commission may do so if it determines that the program is ineffective, does not adequately address the needs of renters and low-income families and individuals, or is otherwise not in the public interest. The person petitioning for commission review has the burden of proof. The commission shall reject a petition that, on its face, fails to make a reasonable argument that a program is not in the public interest.

The commission shall allow a utility to recover expenses resulting from a conservation improvement program required by the department.

Sec. 4. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 216C.02, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

The Honorable Jerome M. Hughes President of the Senate

We, the undersigned conferees for H. F. No. 13, report that we have agreed upon the items in dispute and recommend as follows:

That the Senate recede from its amendments and that H. F. No. 13 be further amended as follows:

Delete everything after the enacting clause and insert:

"Section 1. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 487.30, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. The rules of the supreme court shall provide for a right of appeal from the decision of the conciliation court to the county court for a trial on the merits. The territorial jurisdiction of a conciliation court shall be coextensive with the county in which the court is established.

- (b) If the claim involves a consumer credit transaction, the amount of money or property that is the subject matter of the claim may not exceed $2,000. "Consumer credit transaction" means a sale of personal property, or a loan arranged to facilitate the purchase of personal property, in which:
- (1) credit is granted by a seller or a lender who regularly engages as a seller or lender in credit transactions of the same kind;
  - (2) the buyer is a natural person;
  - (3) the claimant is the seller or lender in the transaction; and

[JURISDICTION; STUDENT LOANS.] Notwithstanding the provisions of subdivision 1 or any rule of court to the contrary, the conciliation court has jurisdiction to determine a civil action commenced by a plaintiff educational institution, including but not limited to, a state university or community college, with administrative offices in the county in which the conciliation court is located, to recover the amount of a student loan or loans even though the defendant or defendants are not residents of the county under the following conditions:
- (a) the student loan or loans were originally awarded in the county in which the conciliation court is located:
- (b) the loan or loans are overdue at the time the action is commenced;
- (c) the amount sought in any single action does not exceed $2,000 $3,500;
- (d) notice that payment on the loan is overdue has previously been sent by first class mail to the borrower to the last known address reported by the borrower to the educational institution; and
- (e) the notice states that the educational institution may commence a conciliation court action in the county where the loan was awarded to recover the amount of the loan.

Notwithstanding any law or rule or civil procedure to the contrary, a summons in any action commenced under this subdivision may be served anywhere within the state of Minnesota. The conciliation court administrator shall attach a copy of the overdue loan or loans to the summons before it is issued.

- Sec. 3. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 487.30, subdivision 5, is amended to read:

The information shall be provided on a form prescribed by the supreme court and shall be sufficiently detailed to enable the judgment creditor to obtain satisfaction of the judgment by way of execution on nonexempt assets and earnings of the judgment debtor.

The form shall be written in a clear and coherent manner using words with common and everyday meanings, shall summarize the execution and garnishment exemptions and limitations applicable to assets and earnings, and shall permit the judgment debtor to identify on the form those assets and earnings that the debtor considers to be exempt from execution or garnishment. The order shall contain a notice that failure to complete the form and mail it to the judgment creditor within ten days after service of the order may result in a citation for contempt of court unless the judgment is satisfied prior to the expiration of that period. A judgment debtor who intentionally fails to comply with the order of the court may be cited for civil contempt of court. Cash bail posted as a result of being cited for civil contempt of court under this statute may be ordered payable to the creditor to satisfy the judgment, either partially or fully.

- Subd. 2. [REEXAMINATIONS.] An examination must be required before renewal of a license that has been suspended, or before the issuance of a license to a person whose license has been ineffective for a period of two years. Subd. 8. [FEES.] The commissioner may assess an examination fee sufficient to recover the actual direct costs of holding the examination.

Sec. 11. [82B.11] [CLASSES OF LICENSE.]

Subdivision 1. [GENERALLY.] There are two classes of license for licensed real estate appraisers.

- Subd. 2. [LEVEL I.] The licensed level I residential real estate appraiser is a person meeting the requirements for licensing relating to the appraisal of residential real property or agricultural acreage when a net income capitalization analysis is not required by the uniform standards of professional appraisal practice.
- Subd. 3. [LEVEL II.] The licensed level II real estate appraiser is a person meeting the requirements for licensing relating to the appraisal of all types of real property.

Sec. 12. [82B.12] [EXAMINATION REQUIREMENT.]

An original license as a licensed real estate appraiser must be issued to a person who has demonstrated through a written examination process that the appraiser has the following qualifications:

Sec. 13. [82B.13] [EXAMINATION PREREQUISITES.]

Subdivision 1. [LEVEL I CLASSIFICATION.] As a prerequisite to taking the examination for licensing as a licensed level I real estate appraiser, an applicant must present evidence satisfactory to the commissioner that the person has successfully completed at least 75 classroom hours of courses. The courses must consist of 60 hours of general real estate appraisal principles and 15 hours related to standards of professional practice and the provisions of this chapter.

Subd. 2. [LEVEL II CLASSIFICATION.] As a prerequisite to taking the examination for licensing as a licensed general real estate appraiser, an applicant must present evidence satisfactory to the commissioner that the person has successfully completed at least 150 classroom hours of courses in subjects related to real estate appraisal. All applicants shall complete 15 classroom hours related to standards of professional practice and the provisions of this chapter.

Subd. 3. [COMMISSIONER'S APPROVAL; RULES.] The courses and instruction and procedures of courses must be approved by the commissioner. The commissioner may adopt rules to administer this section. These rules must, to the extent practicable, conform to the rules adopted for real estate and insurance education.

Sec. 14. [82B.14] [EXPERIENCE REQUIREMENT.]

(a) An original license as a level II licensed real estate appraiser may not be issued to a person who does not have the equivalent of two years of experience in real property appraisal supported by adequate written reports or file memoranda. This experience, or the equivalent of this experience, must be acquired within a period of five years immediately preceding the filing of the application for licensing.

(b) Each applicant for license as a level II licensed real estate appraiser shall give under oath a detailed listing of the real estate appraisal reports or file memoranda for each year for which experience is claimed by the applicant. Upon request, the applicant shall make available to the commissioner for examination, a sample of appraisal reports that the applicant has prepared in the course of appraisal practice.

Sec. 15. [82B.15] [NONRESIDENT SERVICE OF PROCESS.]

Subdivision 1. [APPOINTMENT OF COMMISSIONER.] A non-resident, before being licensed as a real estate appraiser, shall appoint the commissioner and a successor or successors in office as true and lawful attorney, upon whom may be served all legal process in an action or proceedings against the person, or in which the person may be a party, in relation to or involving a transaction covered by this chapter or a rule or order under this chapter. The appointment is irrevocable. Service upon the attorney is as valid and binding as if due and personal service had been made upon the person. The appointment is effective upon the issuance of the license in connection with which the appointment was filed.

- Subd. 2. [EFFECT OF NONAPPOINTMENT.] The commission of an act constituting a violation of this chapter or rule or order adopted under this chapter by a nonresident person who has not appointed the commissioner as attorney in compliance with subdivision 1, is conclusively considered an irrevocable appointment by the person of the commissioner and a successor or successors in an action or proceedings against the nonresident or in which the nonresident may be a party in relation to or involving the violation. The violation is a signification of agreement that all legal process that is served is as valid and binding upon the nonresident as if due and personal service had been made.
- Subd. 3. [PROCEDURE.] Service of process under this section may be made by filing a copy of the process with the commissioner or a representative, but is not effective unless:
- (1) the plaintiff, who may be the commissioner in an action or proceeding started by the commissioner, sends notice of the service and a copy of the process by certified mail to the defendant or respondent at the address as shown by the records at the office of the commissioner in the case of service made on the commissioner as attorney by appointment under subdivision 1, and at the defendant's or respondent's last known address in the case of service on the commissioner as attorney by appointment under subdivision 2; and
- (2) the plaintiff's affidavit of compliance with this subdivision is filed in the action or proceeding on or before the return day of the process, if any, or within any additional time the court or administrative law judge allows.
- Sec. 16. [82B.16] [PRINCIPAL PLACE OF BUSINESS AND NOTICE.]

A licensed real estate appraiser shall advise the commissioner of the address of the person's principal place of business and all other addresses at which the person is now engaged in the business of preparing real property appraisal reports.

When a licensed real estate appraiser changes a place of business, the person shall immediately give written notification of the change to the commissioner and apply for an amended license.

 $\underline{\underline{A}}$  licensed real estate appraiser shall notify the commissioner of the person's current residence address.

Sec. 17. [82B.17] [LICENSE DESIGNATION.]

When a licensed real estate appraiser uses the designation real estate appraiser or licensed real estate appraiser in an appraisal report or in a contract or other instrument used by the license holder in conducting real property appraisal activities or in advertisements, the appraiser shall place the person's license number adjacent to or immediately below the designation used and indicate the class of license held.

Sec. 18. [82B.18] [USE OF TERM.]

The term "licensed real estate appraiser" may only be used to refer to individuals who hold the license. The term may not be used following or immediately in connection with the name or signature of a firm, partnership, corporation, or group; or in a manner that might cause it to be interpreted as referring to a firm, partnership, corporation, group, or anyone other than an individual holder of the license.

No license may be issued under this chapter to a corporation, partnership, firm, or group. This does not prevent a licensed real estate appraiser from signing an appraisal report on behalf of a corporation, partnership, firm, or group practice.

Sec. 19. [82B.19] [CONTINUING EDUCATION.]

Subdivision 1. [LICENSE RENEWALS.] A licensed real estate appraiser shall present evidence satisfactory to the commissioner of having met the continuing education requirements of this chapter before the commissioner renews a license.

The basic continuing education requirement for renewal of a license is the completion by the applicant either as a student or as an instructor, during the immediately preceding term of licensing, of at least 15 classroom hours per year, of instruction in courses or seminars that have received the approval of the commissioner.

Subd. 2. [RULES.] The commissioner may adopt rules to assure that persons renewing their licenses as licensed real estate appraisers have current knowledge of real property appraisal theories, practices, and techniques that will provide a high degree of service and protection to those members of the public with whom they deal in a professional relationship under authority of their license. The rules must include the following:

- $\underline{(1)}$  policies and procedures for obtaining approval of courses of instruction;
- (2) standards, monitoring methods, and systems for recording attendance to be employed by course sponsors as a prerequisite to approval of courses for credit; and
- (3) coordination with real estate continuing education requirements so that as the commissioner considers courses or parts of courses appropriate they may be used to satisfy both real estate and appraiser continuing education requirements.
- Subd. 3. [REINSTATEMENTS.] On or after September 1, 1991, a license as a real estate appraiser that has been revoked as a result of disciplinary action by the commissioner may not be reinstated unless the applicant presents evidence of completion of the continuing education required by this chapter. This requirement may not be imposed upon an applicant for reinstatement who has been required to successfully complete the examination for licensed real estate appraiser as a condition to reinstatement of a license.

Sec. 20. [82B.20] [PROHIBITED PRACTICES.]

Subdivision 1. [ENFORCEMENT.] The license of a licensed real estate appraiser may be denied, revoked, or suspended, or the person may be otherwise disciplined in accordance with this chapter, upon any of the grounds set forth in this section.

Subd. 2. [CONDUCT PROHIBITED.] No person may:

- (1) obtain or try to obtain a license under this chapter by knowingly making a false statement, submitting false information, refusing to provide complete information in response to a question in an application for license, or through any form of fraud or misrepresentation;
- (2) fail to meet the minimum qualifications established by this chapter;
- (3) be convicted, including a conviction based upon a plea of guilty or nolo contendere, of a crime that is substantially related to the qualifications, functions, and duties of a person developing real estate appraisals and communicating real estate appraisals to others;
- (4) engage in an act or omission involving dishonesty, fraud, or misrepresentation with the intent to substantially benefit the license holder or another person or with the intent to substantially injure another person;

- (5) engage in a violation of any of the standards for the development or communication of real estate appraisals as provided in this chapter;
- (6) fail or refuse without good cause to exercise reasonable diligence in developing an appraisal, preparing an appraisal report, or communicating an appraisal;
- (7) engage in negligence or incompetence in developing an appraisal, in preparing an appraisal report, or in communicating an appraisal;
- (8) willfully disregard or violate any of the provisions of this chapter or the rules of the commissioner for the administration and enforcement of the provisions of this chapter;
- (9) accept an appraisal assignment when the employment itself is contingent upon the appraiser reporting a predetermined estimate, analysis, or opinion, or where the fee to be paid is contingent upon the opinion, conclusion, or valuation reached, or upon the consequences resulting from the appraisal assignment;
- (10) violate the confidential nature of governmental records to which the person gained access through employment or engagement as an appraiser by a governmental agency;
- (11) offer, pay, or give, and no person shall accept, any compensation or other thing of value from a real estate appraiser by way of commission-splitting, rebate, finder's fee, or otherwise in connection with a real estate appraisal. This prohibition does not apply to transactions among persons licensed under this chapter if the transactions involve appraisals for which the license is required;
- (12) engage or authorize a person, except a person licensed under this chapter, to act as a real estate appraiser on the appraiser's behalf;
- $\frac{(13)}{\text{section}} \, \frac{\text{violate}}{\text{82B.02}}, \frac{\text{standards}}{\text{subdivision}} \, \frac{\text{of professional practice}}{11;} \, \frac{\text{as defined by}}{\text{of professional practice}} \, \frac{\text{defined by}}{\text{of professional practice}} \, \frac$
- (14) make an oral appraisal report without also making a written report within a reasonable time after the oral report is made;
  - (15) represent a market analysis to be an appraisal report;
- (16) give an appraisal in any circumstances where the appraiser has a conflict of interest, as determined under rules adopted by the commissioner; or
  - (17) engage in other acts the commissioner by rule prohibits.

Sec. 21. [82B.21] [CLASSIFICATION OF SERVICES.]

A client or employer may retain or employ a licensed real estate appraiser to act as a disinterested third party in giving an unbiased estimate of value or analysis. A client or employer may also retain or employ a licensed real estate appraiser to provide a market analysis to facilitate the client's or employer's objectives. In either case, the appraisal and the appraisal report must comply with the provisions of this chapter.

Sec. 22. [82B.22] [CONTINGENT FEES.]

A licensed real estate appraiser may not accept a commission for an appraisal assignment that is contingent upon the appraiser reporting a predetermined estimate, analysis, or opinion, or is contingent upon the opinion, conclusion, or valuation reached, or upon the consequences resulting from the appraisal assignment.

A licensed real estate appraiser who enters into an agreement to perform a market analysis may be paid a fixed fee or a fee that is contingent on the results achieved by the specialized services.

If a licensed real estate appraiser enters into an agreement to perform a market analysis for a contingent fee, this fact must be clearly stated in each written and oral report. In each written report, this fact must be clearly stated in a prominent location in the report and also in each letter of transmittal and in the licensing statement made by the appraiser in the report.

Sec. 23. [TRANSITIONAL LICENSES.]

Until September 1, 1991, a person already engaged in the business of real estate appraisal may apply to the commissioner of commerce for a license as a real estate appraiser. The application must contain the information listed in section 82B.08. The commissioner shall issue a license to a person who satisfies the requirements of section 82B.08 and who demonstrates at least one year's experience as a real estate appraiser.

An appraiser who is issued a license under this section shall pass an examination conducted by the commissioner of commerce under section 82B.10 or successfully complete sufficient classroom hours of courses under section 82B.13, no later than August 31, 1991. If the appraiser intends to satisfy the requirements of section 82B.13, the appraiser must provide adequate written reports or file memoranda as evidence of compliance. An appraiser who has not met either of those requirements as of that date may not be issued a renewal license and must meet all the requirements for a new licensee.

Sec. 24. (INITIAL APPOINTMENTS.)

Notwithstanding section 5, subdivision 3, the commissioner of commerce shall appoint the initial members of the real estate appraiser advisory board to the following terms:

- (1) two public members, three appraiser members, and two consumer members to three-year terms;
- (2) two public members, three appraiser members, and one consumer member to two-year terms, and
  - (3) two appraiser members to one-year terms.

Sec. 25. [APPROPRIATION.]

$213,000 is appropriated from the general fund to the commissioner of commerce to administer Minnesota Statutes, chapter 82B. $121,000 is for fiscal year 1990 and $92,000 is for fiscal year 1991. The approved complement of the department of commerce is increased by two positions.

Sec. 26. [REPEALER.]

Section 23 is repealed September 1, 1991.

ARTICLE 2

- Subd. 7. [PARITY WITH NATIONAL BANKS.] A state bank or trust company may invest in any securities that are authorized investments for national banks on the effective date of this section, subject to the same restrictions as apply to national banks. The commissioner may authorize a state bank or trust company to invest in any securities that become authorized investments for national banks after the effective date of this section, subject to the same restrictions as apply to national banks. This authority is in addition to the investment authority granted to state banks under other provisions of state law.
- Sec. 2. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 53.04, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:
- Subd. 3c. The right to extend credit and make loans under chapter 51 $\Lambda$  on the same terms and subject to the same conditions as apply to other lenders under that chapter. Sec. 3. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 53.06, is amended to read:

53.06 [DIRECTORS, RESIDENCE.]

Sec. 4. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 168.71, is amended to read:

168.71 [RETAIL INSTALLMENT CONTRACTS.]

- (a)(1) Every retail installment contract shall be in writing, shall contain all the agreements of the parties, shall be signed by the retail buyer and seller, and a copy thereof shall be furnished to such retail buyer at the time of the execution of the contract.
- (2) No provisions for confession of judgment or power of attorney therefor contained in any retail installment contract or contained in a separate agreement relating thereto, shall be valid or enforceable.
- (3) The holder of a precomputed retail installment contract may, if the contract so provides, collect a delinquency and collection charge on each installment in arrears for a period not less than ten days in an amount not in excess of five percent of each installment or $5, whichever is the less greater. In addition to such delinquency and collection charge, the retail installment contract, whether interest-bearing or precomputed, may provide for the payment of attorneys' fees not exceeding 15 percent of the amount due and payable under such contract where such contract is referred to an attorney not a salaried employee of the holder of the contract for collection plus the court costs.
- (4) Unless written notice has been given to the retail buyer of actual or intended assignment of a retail installment contract, payment thereunder or tender thereof made by the retail buyer to the last known holder of such contract shall be binding upon all subsequent holders or assignees.
- (5) Upon written request from the retail buyer, the holder of the retail installment contract shall give or forward to the retail buyer a written statement of the dates and amounts of payments and the total amount unpaid under such contract. A retail buyer shall be given a written receipt for any payment when made in cash.

- (b) The retail installment contract shall contain the following items:

- (2) The total amount of the retail buyer's down payment, whether made in money or goods, or partly in money or partly in goods;
  - (3) The difference between items one and two;
- (4) The charge, if any, included in the transaction for any insurance and other benefits not included in clause (1), specifying the types of coverage and taxes, fees, and charges that actually are or will be paid to public officials or government agencies, including those for perfecting, releasing, or satisfying a security interest if such taxes, fees, or charges are not included in clause (1);
  - (5) Principal balance, which is the sum of items three and four;
  - (6) The amount of the finance charge;
- (7) The total of payments payable by the retail buyer to the retail seller and the number of installment payments required and the amount of each installment expressed in dollars or percentages, and date of each payment necessary finally to pay the total of payments which is the sum of item five and item six.

Provided, however, that said items one to seven inclusive need not be stated in the terms, sequence or order set forth above. Provided further, that clauses (6) and (7) may be disclosed on the assumption that all scheduled payments under the contract will be made when due.

In lieu of the above clauses, the retail seller may give the retail buyer disclosures which satisfy the requirements of the Federal Truth-In-Lending Act in effect as of the time of the contract, notwithstanding whether or not that act applies to the transaction.

(c) Every retail seller or sales finance company, if a charge for insurance on the motor vehicle is included in a retail installment contract shall within 30 days after execution of the retail installment contract send or cause to be sent to the retail buyer a policy or policies or certificate of insurance, which insurance shall be written by a company authorized to do business in this state, clearly setting forth the amount of the premium, the kind or kinds of insurance and the scope of the coverage and all the terms, exceptions, limitations, restrictions and conditions of the contract or contracts of the insurance. The buyer of a motor vehicle under a retail installment contract shall have the privilege of purchasing such insurance from an agent or broker of the buyer's own selection and selecting an insurance company mutually acceptable to the seller and the buyer; provided, however, that the inclusion of the cost of the insurance premium in the retail installment contract when the buyer selects the agent, broker or company, shall be optional with the seller.

- (d) Any sales finance company hereunder may purchase or acquire from any retail seller any retail installment contract on such terms and conditions as may be mutually agreed upon between them.
- (e) An acknowledgment by the retail buyer of the delivery of any such copy or notice as required in subsection (a) contained in the body of the statement or contract shall be conclusive proof of delivery in any action or proceeding by or against any assignee of a retail installment contract.

"Section 1. [62J.01] [FINDINGS.]

The legislature finds that substantial numbers of Minnesotans have no health care coverage and that most of these residents are wage earners or their dependents. One-third of these individuals are children.

The legislature further finds that when these individuals enter the health care system they have often foregone preventive care and are in need of more expensive treatment that often exceeds their financial resources. Much of the cost for these uncompensated services to the uninsured are already in the health care system in the form of increased insurance and provider rates and property and income taxes.

The legislature further finds that these costs, spread among the already insured, represent a woefully inefficient method for providing basic preventive and acute care for the uninsured and represent an added cost to employers now providing health insurance to their employees.

The legislature further finds that it is necessary to ensure basic and affordable health care to all Minnesotans while addressing the economic pressures on the health care system as a whole in Minnesota.

Sec. 2. [62J.02] [HEALTH CARE ACCESS COMMISSION.]

Subdivision 1. [MEMBERSHIP; COMPENSATION; CHAIR.] The Minnesota health care access commission consists of 15 members. Five members are appointed by the governor, one of whom must be an experienced health care professional, one of whom must be a representative of small business, and one of whom must be a representative of consumers. Three members are appointed under the rules of the senate and three members are appointed under the rules of the house of representatives. The commissioners of health, human services, employee relations, and commerce, or their designated representatives are also members. The governor shall appoint the chair of the commission from among the members who are not agency commissioners. The terms, compensation, and removal of the members appointed by the governor are as provided in section 15.0575.

Subd. 2. [STAFF; OFFICE SPACE; EQUIPMENT.] The commission shall select a director to serve at its pleasure as the chief administrative officer of the commission. The director may hire advisors, consultants, and employees, as authorized by the commission, and prescribe their duties. Employees are not state employees, but are covered by section 3.736. At the option of the commission, the employees may participate in the following plans for employees in the unclassified service: the state retirement plan, the state deferred compensation plan, and the health insurance and life insurance plans. The commissioner of state planning shall provide to the commission, at a reasonable cost, administrative assistance, office space, and access to office equipment and services.

Subd. 3. [DUTIES.] The health care access commission, with the assistance of the commissioner of state planning, shall develop and recommend to the legislature a plan to provide access to health care for all state residents. In developing the plan, the commission shall:

- (1) develop a system to estimate the total number of uninsured Minnesotans by age, sex, employment status, income level, geography, and other relevant characteristics;
- (2) explore all potential insurance options including size and makeup of risk groups;
- (3) prepare a legal analysis of restrictions and other potential legal issues of the Employee Retirement Income Security Act, United States Code, title 29, sections 1001 to 1461;
- (4) study and make recommendations on insurance and health care law changes that will improve access to health care;
- $\frac{(5) \text{ study and}}{\text{tives}} \underbrace{\frac{\text{make recommendations}}{\text{to provide }}}_{\text{to provide}} \underbrace{\frac{\text{disincentives}}{\text{provide health insurance}}}_{\text{coverage;}}$
- (6) study and make recommendations regarding benefits to be covered by health plans that would be available through the health care access program, including preventive, well-child, and prenatal care;
- (7) identify cost savings to public programs that would result from implementation of the health care access program;
- (8) develop a cost containment policy after reviewing cost containment methods such as hospital admission precertification, concurrent review of hospital stays, discharge planning, hospital bill audit prior to discharge, primary gatekeepers, claims data analysis, a drug formulary, pharmacy data analysis, bulk discounts, emergency room use, outpatient surgery oversight, protocols for preventive care and common acute care, practice data compared to peers, practitioner rewards and penalties, and other cost containment methods;
- (9) develop a system to administer the health care access program, including recommendations for eligibility criteria, enrollment procedures, and options for contracting with carriers, health plans, and providers, to ensure access to affordable health care in all geographic areas of the state;
- $\underline{\text{(10)}}$  define the number, functions, and duties of administrative staff;
- (11) study alternatives for financing the state share of the cost of the premiums in an amount sufficient to generate one-half of the total costs of the health care access program, but not more than $150,000,000 a year, including, but not limited to, an actuarial analysis, a sliding fee scale analysis, and reserve fund requirements;

- (12) develop a system for collection of premium payments;
- (13) examine and make recommendations on gatekeeping mechanisms for access to health care services, different benefit and service packages for the minimum core coverage plan, and dollar limitations for prescription drug costs;
- (14) consider limits on provider reimbursement and covered services and make recommendations;
- $\frac{(15)\ examine\ the\ effect\ of\ different\ copayment\ levels\ on\ access\ to}{\frac{health\ care\ for\ persons\ with\ low\ incomes}{tions\ based\ on\ this\ analysis;}}$
- (16) examine and make recommendations on maximum lifetime benefits;
- (17) develop methods to ensure representation in service delivery by eligible practitioners, without regard to race, color, or sex;
- (18) develop methods to coordinate the health care access program with other government-subsidized programs; and
- (19) conduct other activities it considers necessary to carry out the intent of the legislature as expressed in section 1 and this section.
- Subd. 4. [REPORT.] The commission shall report to the legislature by February 15, 1990, on its progress in developing the plan, including preliminary data analysis and other appropriate information. The commission shall provide a final report and implementation plan to the legislature by January 1, 1991.

Sec. 3. [DEMONSTRATION PROJECT REPORT.]

The nine-county demonstration project for the uninsured authorized in Minnesota Statutes, section 256B.73, shall report to the commission by January 1, 1990, on the number and percentage of enrollees in the project, benefits provided, and the financial commitment of enrollees and employers.

Sec. 4. [REPEALER.]

Section 2 is repealed effective July 1, 1991.

- Subdivision 1. [HEALTH CARE ACCESS COMMISSION.] $800,000 is appropriated from the general fund to the health care access commission for purposes of sections 1 and 2, to be available until June 30, 1991.
- Subd. 2. [COMMISSIONER OF HUMAN SERVICES.] (a) $50,000 is appropriated from the general fund to the commissioner of human services to provide one-time subsidies to community-based clinics, to be available until June 30, 1990. The commissioner shall publish in the State Register a notice of the availability of clinic subsidies, a request for applications from clinics that desire a subsidy, a notice that a subsidy review committee will be convened to allocate the subsidies, and notice that each clinic that seeks representation on the committee must submit the name, address, and telephone number of its designated representative. Applications from clinics that desire a subsidy must include detailed information about the financial condition of the clinic, the amounts and sources of financial support received by the clinic, and the proportion of patients who are uninsured and for whom the clinic does not receive any payments. The commissioner shall convene a committee consisting of a representative of each community-based clinic meeting the definition in this paragraph that asks to be represented on the committee. Committee members do not receive compensation but may be reimbursed out of the appropriation in this subdivision for reasonable travel expenses incurred to attend committee meetings. The committee shall determine the recipients and amounts of the subsidies. Subsidies must be awarded to those clinics with the greatest financial need due to the number of uninsured patients, the inadequacy of grant support and charitable contributions, and other factors. The committee shall consider the extent to which the subsidy would enable the clinic to continue effectively serving the uninsured. The commissioner must award the subsidies according to the recommendations of the committee. For purposes of this paragraph, "community-based clinics" means an entity that:
- (1) through its staff and supporting resources or through its contracts or cooperative arrangements with other public or private entities, provides primary health services for all intended residents of its service area;
- (2) was established to serve the primary health needs of low-income population groups;
- (3) uses a sliding fee scale based on ability to pay, and does not limit access or care because of the financial limitations of the client;
- (4) has nonprofit status under Minnesota Statutes, chapter 317; and
- (5) has a governing board, for which at least 51 percent of the membership resides in the local community served by the clinic.

(b) $175,000 for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1990, and $200,000 for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1991, are appropriated from the general fund to the commissioner of human services to provide a 20 percent increase in medical assistance and children's health plan payments for covered services provided by clinics enrolled as public health clinics or community health clinics under Minnesota Rules, Parts 9505.0380 and 9505.0255."

"ARTICLE 1 FEDERAL CROP INSURANCE

Section 1. [FINDING OF PUBLIC PURPOSE.]

The legislature finds that federal crop insurance represents the lowest cost, most economically feasible mechanism for protecting farm families from severe economic stress caused by drought and other natural disasters. The legislature further finds that costs to the state for rural disaster relief are greatly reduced when a majority of farmers carry federal crop insurance. In order to encourage all farmers to carry federal crop insurance, it is a valid public purpose for state funds to be used to make grants for a portion of the premium costs of the crop insurance.

Sec. 2. [GRANTS FOR PARTIAL PAYMENT OF FEDERAL CROP INSURANCE.]

Subdivision 1. [ELIGIBLE CROPS.] Crops eligible for partial payment of federal crop insurance are barley, corn, flax, oats, soybeans, sugar beets, canning crops grown under contract, and wheat.

- $\underline{\underline{Subd.\ 2.\ [ELIGIBILITY.]\ A\ farmer\ is\ eligible\ for\ state}\ assistance}$
- (1) the farmer experienced a 65 percent or greater loss in the yield of at least one of the eligible crops grown during the 1988 growing season;
- (2) the farmer was required to purchase federal crop insurance as a condition for participation in federal agriculture programs for 1989; and
- (3) the farmer submits an application to the commissioner of agriculture on or before September 1, 1989.
- Subd. 3. [APPLICATION.] To receive reimbursement under this article a farmer must submit an application for reimbursement of federal crop insurance premiums to the commissioner on forms provided by the commissioner. The application must include documentation of crop losses and other factors relevant to eligibility.
- Subd. 4. [REIMBURSEMENT RATE AND MAXIMUM.] From within funds appropriated for this program, the commissioner must not later than December 1, 1989, reimburse an eligible farmer for up to 20 percent of the total premium cost for federal crop insurance on the 1989 crop. #### AGRICULTURAL INTERPRETIVE CENTER

Section 1. [POLICY OF PRESERVING HISTORY OF BASIC INDUSTRIES.]

Minnesota's historic basic industries are agriculture, mining, and forestry. Their history holds intense fascination for contemporary Minnesotans. It is the policy of the state to preserve and present that history in ways that do justice to its dramatic past and dynamic future. For these reasons the maintenance of a living history agricultural interpretive center is a desirable public purpose.

ARTICLE 16

MEDIATION AND FIRST REFUSAL

Section 1. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 500.24, subdivision 6, is amended to read:

Subd. 6. [DISPOSAL OF LAND.] (a) A state or federal agency, limited partnership, or a corporation, other than a family farm corporation or an authorized farm corporation, may not lease or sell agricultural land or a farm homestead that was acquired by enforcing a debt against the agricultural land or farm homestead, including foreclosure of a mortgage, accepting a deed in lieu of forcelosure. terminating a contract for deed, or accepting a deed in lieu of terminating a contract for deed, before offering or making a good faith effort to offer the land for sale or lease to the immediately preceding former owner at a price no higher than the highest price offered by a third party that is acceptable to the seller or lessor. The offer must be made on the notice to offer form under subdivision 7. The requirements of this subdivision do not apply to a sale or lease by a corporation that is a family farm corporation or an authorized farm corporation. This subdivision applies only to a sale or lease when the seller or lessor acquired the property by enforcing a debt against the agricultural land or farm homestead, including foreclosure of a mortgage, accepting a deed in lieu of foreclosure, terminating a contract for deed, or accepting a deed in lieu of terminating a contract for deed. Selling or leasing property to a third party at a price is prima facie evidence that the price is acceptable to the seller or lessor. The seller must provide written notice to the immediately preceding former owner that the agricultural land or farm homestead will be offered for sale at least 14 days before the agricultural land or farm homestead is offered for sale.

- (b) An immediately preceding former owner is the entity with record legal title to the agricultural land or farm homestead before acquisition by the state or federal agency or corporation except: if the immediately preceding former owner is a bankruptcy estate, the debtor in bankruptcy is the immediately preceding former owner; and if the agricultural land or farm homestead was acquired by termination of a contract for deed or deed in lieu of termination of a contract for deed, the immediately preceding former owner is the purchaser under the contract for deed. For purposes of this subdivision, only a family farm, family farm corporation, or family farm partnership can be an immediately preceding former owner.
- (c) An immediately preceding former owner may elect to purchase or lease the entire property or an agreed to portion of the property. If the immediately preceding former owner elects to purchase or lease a portion of the property, the election must be reported in writing to the seller or lessor prior to the time the property is first offered for sale or lease. If election is made to purchase or lease a portion of the property, the portion must be contiguous and compact so that it does not unreasonably reduce access to or the value of the remaining property.
- (d) For purposes of this subdivision, the term "a price no higher than the highest price offered by a third party" means the acceptable cash price offered by a third party or the acceptable time-price offer made by a third party. A cash price offer is one that involves simultaneous transfer of title for payment of the entire amount of the offer. If the acceptable offer made by a third party is a time-price offer, the seller or lessor must make the same time-price offer or an equivalent cash offer to the immediately preceding former owner. An equivalent cash offer is equal to the total of the payments made over a period of the time-price offer discounted by yield curve of the United States treasury notes and bonds of similar maturity on the first business day of the month in which the offer is personally delivered or mailed for time periods similar to the time period covered by the time-price offer, plus 2.0 percent. A time-price offer is an offer that is financed entirely or partially by the seller and includes an offer to purchase under a contract for deed or mortgage. An equivalent cash offer is not required to be made if the state participates in an offer to a third party through the rural finance authority.
- (e) This subdivision applies to a seller when the property is sold and to a lessor each time the property is leased, for five years after the agricultural land is acquired except:
- (1) an offer to lease to the immediately preceding former owner is required only until the immediately preceding owner fails to accept an offer to lease the property or the property is sold;

- (2) an offer to sell to the immediately preceding former owner is required until the property is sold; and
- (3) if the immediately preceding former owner elects to lease or purchase a portion of the property, this subdivision does not apply to the seller with regard to the balance of the property after the election is made under paragraph (c).
- (f) The notice of an offer under subdivision 7 that is personally delivered with a signed receipt or sent by certified mail with a receipt of mailing to the immediately preceding former owner's last known address is a good faith offer.
- (g) This subdivision does not apply to a sale or lease that occurs after the seller or lessor has held the property for five years or longer.
- (h) For purposes of this subdivision, if the immediately preceding former owner is a bankruptcy estate the debtor in the bankruptcy is the immediately preceding owner.
- (i) The immediately preceding former owner must exercise the right to lease all or a portion of the agricultural land or a homestead located on agricultural land in writing within 15 days after an offer to lease under this subdivision is mailed with a receipt of mailing or personally delivered. If election is made to lease only the homestead or a portion of the agricultural land, the portion to be leased must be clearly identified in writing. The immediately preceding former owner must exercise the right to buy the agricultural land, a portion of the agricultural land, or a farm homestead located on agricultural land, in writing, within 65 days after an offer to buy under this subdivision is mailed with a receipt of mailing or is personally delivered. Within ten days after exercising the right to lease or buy by accepting the offer, the immediately preceding owner must fully perform according to the terms of the offer including paying the amounts due. A seller may sell and a lessor may lease the agricultural land or farm homestead subject to this subdivision to the third party in accordance with their lease or purchase agreement if:
- (1) the immediately preceding former owner does not accept an offer to lease or buy before the offer terminates; or
- (2) the immediately preceding former owner does not perform the obligations of the offer, including paying the amounts due, within ten days after accepting the offer.
- (j) A certificate indicating whether or not the property contains agricultural land or a farm homestead that is signed by the county assessor where the property is located and recorded in the office of the county recorder or the registrar of titles where the property is located is prima facie evidence of whether the property is agricultural land or a farm homestead.

- (k) As prima facie evidence that an offer to sell or lease agricultural land or a farm homestead has terminated, a receipt of mailing the notice under subdivision 7 and an affidavit, signed by a person authorized to act on behalf of a state, federal agency, or corporation selling or leasing the agricultural land or a farm homestead may be filed in the office of the county recorder or registrar of titles of the county where the agricultural land or farm homestead is located. The affidavit must state that:
- (1) notice of an offer to buy or lease the agricultural land or farm homestead was provided to the immediately preceding former owner at a price not higher than the highest price offered by a third party that is acceptable;
- (2) the time during which the immediately preceding former owner is required to exercise the right to buy or lease the agricultural land or farm homestead has expired;
- (3) the immediately preceding former owner has not exercised the right to buy or lease the agricultural land or farm homestead as provided in this subdivision or has accepted an offer and has not fully performed according to the terms of the offer; and
- (4) the offer to the immediately preceding former owner has terminated.
- (l) The right of an immediately preceding former owner to receive an offer to lease or purchase agricultural land under this subdivision or to lease or purchase at a price no higher than the highest price offered by a third party that is acceptable to the seller or lessor may be extinguished or limited by an express statement signed by the immediately preceding owner that complies with the plain language requirements of section 325G.31. The right may not be extinguished or limited except by:
- (1) an express statement in a deed in lieu of foreclosure of the agricultural land;
- (2) an express statement in a deed in lieu of a termination of a contract for deed for the agricultural land;
- (3) an express statement conveying the right to the state or federal agency or corporation owning the agricultural land that is required to make an offer under this subdivision, however, the preceding former owner may rescind the conveyance by notifying the state or federal agency or corporation in writing within 20 calendar days after signing the express statement;

- (4) to cure a title defect, an express statement conveying the right may be made to a person to whom the agricultural land has been transferred by the state or federal agency or corporation; or
- (5) an express statement conveying the right to a contract for deed vendee to whom the agricultural land or farm homestead was sold under a contract for deed by the immediately preceding former owner if the express statement and the contract for deed are recorded.
- (m) The right of an immediately preceding former owner to receive an offer to lease or purchase agricultural land under this subdivision may not be assigned or transferred except as provided in paragraph (l), but may be inherited.
- (n) An immediately preceding former owner, except a former owner who is actively engaged in farming as defined in subdivision 2, paragraph (a), and who agrees to remain actively engaged in farming on a portion of the agricultural land or farm homestead for at least one year after accepting an offer under this subdivision, may not sell agricultural land acquired by accepting an offer under this subdivision if the arrangement of the sale was negotiated or agreed to prior to the former owner accepting the offer under this subdivision. A person who sells property in violation of this paragraph is liable for damages plus reasonable attorney fees to a person who is damaged by a sale in violation of this paragraph. There is a rebuttable presumption that a sale by an immediately preceding former owner is in violation of this paragraph if the sale takes place within 180 270 days of the former owner accepting the offer under this subdivision. This paragraph does not apply to a sale by an immediately preceding former owner to the owner's spouse, the owner's parents, the owner's sisters and brothers, the owner's spouse's sisters and brothers, or the owner's children.
- Sec. 2. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 550.37, subdivision 4a, is amended to read:
- Subd. 4a. [ADJUSTMENT OF DOLLAR AMOUNTS.] (a) Except for subdivisions 5 and 7, the dollar amounts in this section shall change periodically as provided in this subdivision to the extent of changes in the implicit price deflator for the gross national product, 1972 = 100, compiled by the United States Department of Commerce, and hereafter referred to as the index. The index for December, 1980, is the reference base index.
- (b) The designated dollar amounts shall change on July 1 of each even-numbered year if the percentage of change, calculated to the nearest whole percentage point, between the index for December of the preceding year and the reference base index is ten percent or more. The portion of the percentage change in the index in excess of a multiple of ten percent shall be disregarded and the dollar amounts shall change only in multiples of ten percent of the amounts stated in this section.

- (c) If the index is revised, the percentage of change pursuant to this section shall be calculated on the basis of the revised index. If a revision of the index changes the reference base index, a revised reference base index shall be determined by multiplying the reference base index then applicable by the rebasing factor furnished by the department of commerce. If the index is superseded, the index referred to in this section is the one represented by the department of commerce as reflecting most accurately changes in the purchasing power of the dollar for consumers.
  - (d) The commissioner of commerce shall announce and publish:
- (1) on or before April 30 of each year in which dollar amounts are to change, the changes in dollar amounts required by paragraph (b); and
- (2) promptly after the changes occur, changes in the index required by paragraph (c) including, if applicable, the numerical equivalent of the reference base index under a revised reference base index and the designation or title of any index superseding the index.
- (e) A person does not violate this chapter with respect to a transaction otherwise complying with this chapter if the person relies on dollar amounts either determined according to paragraph (b) or appearing in the last publication of the commissioner announcing the then current dollar amounts.

Delete everything after the enacting clause and insert;

"Section 1. [CORRECTION 3.] Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 40A.122, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [APPLICABILITY.] An agency of the state, a public benefit corporation, a local government, or any other entity with the power of eminent domain under chapter 117, except a public utility as defined in section 216B.02, a municipal electric or gas utility, a municipal power agency, a cooperative electric association organized under chapter 308 308A, or a pipeline operating under the authority of the Natural Gas Act, United States Code, title 15, sections 717 to 717z, shall follow the procedures in this section before:

- (1) acquiring land or an easement in land with a total area over ten acres within an exclusive agricultural use zone; or
- (2) advancing a grant, loan, interest subsidy, or other funds for the construction of dwellings, commercial or industrial facilities, or water or sewer facilities that could be used to serve structures in areas that are not for agricultural use, that require an acquisition of land or an easement in an exclusive agricultural zone.
- Sec. 2. [CORRECTION 3.] Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 65A.375, is amended to read:

65A.375 [RATES FOR COOPERATIVE HOUSING AND NEIGH-BORHOOD REAL ESTATE TRUST INSURANCE.]

The commissioner shall set the insurance rates for cooperative housing, organized under chapter 308 308A, and for neighborhood real estate trusts, characterized as nonprofit ownership of real estate with resident control. The rates must be actuarially sound.

- Sec. 3. [CORRECTION NO. 19.] Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 65B.49, subdivision 5a, as amended by 1989 H.F. 1283, section 15, if enacted, is amended to read:
- Sec. 15. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 65B.49, subdivision 5a, is amended to read:

Subd. 5a. [RENTAL VEHICLES.] (a) Every plan of reparation security insuring a natural person as named insured, covering private passenger vehicles as defined under section 65B.001, subdivision 3, and pickup trucks and vans as defined under section 168.011 must provide that all of the obligation for damage and loss of use to a rented private passenger vehicle, including pickup trucks and vans as defined under section 168.011, and rented trucks with a registered gross vehicle weight of 26,000 pounds or less would be covered by the property damage liability portion of the plan. The obligation of the plan must not be contingent on fault or negligence. In all cases where the plan's property damage liability coverage is less than $25,000, the coverage available under the subdivision must be $25,000. Other than as described in this paragraph, nothing in this section amends or alters the provisions of the plan of reparation security as to primacy of the coverages in this section.

- (b) A vehicle is rented for purposes of this subdivision if the rate for the use of the vehicle is determined on a weekly or daily basis. A vehicle is not rented for purposes of this subdivision if the rate for the vehicle's use is determined on a monthly or longer period.
- (c) The policy or certificate issued by the plan must inform the insured of the application of the plan to private passenger rental vehicles, including pickup trucks and vans as defined under section 168.011, and that the insured may not need to purchase additional coverage from the rental company.
- (d) Where an insured has two or more vehicles covered by a plan or plans of reparation security containing the rented motor vehicle coverage required under paragraph (a), the insured may select the plan the insured wishes to collect from and that plan is entitled to a pro rata contribution from the other plan or plans based upon the property damage limits of liability. If the person renting the motor vehicle is also covered by the person's employer's insurance policy or the employer's automobile self-insurance plan, the reparation obligor under the employer's policy or self-insurance plan has primary responsibility to pay claims arising from use of the rented vehicle.
- (e) A notice advising the insured of rental vehicle coverage must be given by the reparation obligor to each current insured with the first renewal notice after January 1, 1989. The notice must be approved by the commissioner of commerce. The commissioner may specify the form of the notice.
- (f) When a motor vehicle is rented or leased in this state on a weekly or daily basis, there must be attached to the rental contract a separate form containing a written notice in at least 10-point bold type, if printed, or in capital letters, if typewritten, which states:

Under Minnesota law, a personal automobile insurance policy issued in Minnesota must cover the rental of this motor vehicle against damage to the vehicle and against loss of use of the vehicle. Therefore, purchase of any collision damage waiver or similar insurance affected in this rental contract is not necessary if your policy was issued in Minnesota.

No collision damage waiver or other insurance offered as part of or in conjunction with a rental of a motor vehicle may be sold unless the person renting the vehicle provides a written acknowledgment that the above consumer protection notice has been read and understood.

(g) When damage to a rented vehicle is covered by a plan of reparation security as provided under paragraph (a), the rental contract must state that payment by the reparation obligor within the time limits of section 72A.201 is acceptable, and prior payment by the renter is not required.

- (h) To be compensated for the loss of use of a damaged rented motor vehicle, the car rental company must prove:
- (1) that had the vehicle been available, it would have been rented; and
- (2) that no other vehicle was available for rental in place of the damaged vehicle.

The standard of proof set forth in this paragraph does not limit the responsibility of a reparation obligor to provide an insured with coverage for any loss of use for which the reparation obligor is otherwise responsible. A car rental company may be compensated for loss of use of a damaged rental motor vehicle only for the period when the damaged car actually would have been rented.

- Sec. 4. [CORRECTION 5] Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 65B.49, subdivision 4a, as amended by 1989 H.F. No. 956, is amended to read:
- Subd. 4a. [LIABILITY ON UNDERINSURED MOTOR VEHI-CLES.] With respect to underinsured motor motorist coverage, the maximum liability of an insurer is the amount of damages sustained but not recovered from the insurance policy of the driver or owner of any underinsured at fault vehicle. If a person is injured by two or more vehicles, underinsured motorist coverage is payable whenever any one of those vehicles meets the definition of underinsured motorist motor vehicle in Minnesota Statutes, section 65B.43, subdivision 17. However, in no event shall the underinsured motorist carrier have to pay more than the amount of its underinsured motorist limits.
- Sec. 5. [CORRECTION 3.] Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 80A.15, subdivision 2, is amended to read:
- Subd. 2. The following transactions are exempted from sections 80A.08 and 80A.16:
- (a) Any isolated sales, whether or not effected through a broker-dealer, provided that no person shall make more than ten sales of securities of the same issuer pursuant to this exemption during any period of 12 consecutive months; provided further, that in the case of sales by an issuer, except sales of securities registered under the Securities Act of 1933 or exempted by section 3(b) of that act, (1) the seller reasonably believes that all buyers are purchasing for investment, and (2) the securities are not advertised for sale to the general public in newspapers or other publications of general circulation or otherwise, or by radio, television, electronic means or similar communications media, or through a program of general solicitation by means of mail or telephone.

- (b) Any nonissuer distribution of an outstanding security if (1) either Moody's, Fitch's, or Standard & Poor's Securities Manuals, or other recognized manuals approved by the commissioner contains the names of the issuer's officers and directors, a balance sheet of the issuer as of a date not more than 18 months prior to the date of the sale, and a profit and loss statement for the fiscal year preceding the date of the balance sheet, and (2) the issuer or its predecessor has been in active, continuous business operation for the five-year period next preceding the date of sale, and (3) if the security has a fixed maturity or fixed interest or dividend provision, the issuer has not, within the three preceding fiscal years, defaulted in payment of principal, interest, or dividends on the securities.
- (c) The execution of any orders by a licensed broker-dealer for the purchase or sale of any security, pursuant to an unsolicited offer to purchase or sell; provided that the broker-dealer acts as agent for the purchaser or seller, and has no direct material interest in the sale or distribution of the security, receives no commission, profit, or other compensation from any source other than the purchaser and seller and delivers to the purchaser and seller written confirmation of the transaction which clearly itemizes the commission, or other compensation.
- (d) Any nonissuer sale of notes or bonds secured by a mortgage lien if the entire mortgage, together with all notes or bonds secured thereby, is sold to a single purchaser at a single sale.
- (e) Any judicial sale, exchange, or issuance of securities made pursuant to an order of a court of competent jurisdiction.
- (f) The sale, by a pledge holder, of a security pledged in good faith as collateral for a bona fide debt.
- (g) Any offer or sale to a bank, savings institution, trust company, insurance company, investment company as defined in the Investment Company Act of 1940, pension or profit sharing trust, or other financial institution or institutional buyer, or to a broker-dealer, whether the purchaser is acting for itself or in some fiduciary capacity.

Subd. 7. An Indian desiring a loan for the purpose of starting a business enterprise, expanding an existing business, or for technical and management assistance, shall make application to the Indian affairs council. The Indian affairs council shall prescribe the necessary forms and advise the prospective borrower as to the conditions under which the application may be expected to receive favorable consideration. The application shall be forwarded to the appropriate tribal council, if it is participating in the program, for approval or disapproval, and shall be in conformity with the plans submitted by said tribal councils. If the tribal council is not participating in the program, the Indian affairs council may directly administer the loan. If the application is approved, the Indian affairs council shall forward the application, together with all relevant documents pertinent thereto, to the commissioner of finance, who shall draw a warrant in favor of the applicable tribal council or the Indian affairs council, if it is administering the loan, with appropriate notations identifying the borrower. The tribal council or the Indian affairs council, if it is administering the loan, shall thereafter reimburse suppliers and vendors for purchases of equipment, real estate and inventory made by the borrower pursuant to the conditions or guidelines established by the Indian affairs council. The tribal council or the Indian affairs council, if it is administering the loan, shall maintain records of transactions for each borrower in a manner consistent with good accounting practice. On the placing of a loan, additional money equal to ten percent of the total amount made available to any tribal council or the Indian affairs council, if it is administering the loan, for loans during the fiscal year shall be paid to the council prior to December 31 for the purpose of financing administrative costs.

Sec. 8. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 124.43, subdivision 1, as amended by Laws 1989, chapter 1, section 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [REVIEW BY COMMISSIONER.] (a) The commissioner may, after review and a favorable recommendation by the state board of education, recommend to the legislature capital loans to school districts. Proceeds of the loans shall be used only for sites for school buildings and for acquiring, bettering, furnishing, or equipping school buildings under contracts to be entered into within 12 months from and after the date on which each loan is granted.

- (b) Any school board that intends to submit an application for a capital loan shall submit a proposal to the commissioner for review and comment pursuant to section 121.15 by September 1 of any year, and the commissioner shall prepare a review and comment on the proposed facility, regardless of the amount of the capital expenditure required to construct the facility. The state board shall not make a favorable recommendation on an application for a capital loan for any facility unless:
- (1) the facility receives a positive review and comment pursuant to section 121.15; and
  - (2) the state board determines that
- (A) the facilities are needed to replace facilities dangerous to the health and safety of pupils, or to provide for pupils for whom no adequate facilities exist;
- (B) the facilities could not be made available through dissolution and attachment of the district to another district or through pairing, interdistrict cooperation, or consolidation with another district, or through the purchase or lease of facilities from existing institutions within the area. The preference of the school district regarding reorganization shall not be a criterion used by the state board in determining whether the facilities could be made available through reorganization;
- (C) the facilities are comparable in size and quality to facilities recently constructed in other districts of similar enrollment; and
- (D) the district's need for the facilities is comparable to needs that comparable districts are meeting through local bond issues.

The state board may recommend that the loan be approved in a reduced amount in order to meet the foregoing criteria. If the state board recommends that a loan not be approved, the commissioner shall not recommend approval of the loan. If the state board recommends that the loan be approved in a reduced amount, the commissioner shall not recommend approval of a loan larger than that recommended by the state board.

(c) As part of reviewing an application for a capital loan, the commissioner of education shall prepare estimated yearly repayments by the school district and the estimated amount of principal and interest that may be forgiven after the term of the loan. These estimates shall assume no growth in gross tax capacity over the term of the loan, shall assume a levy equal to 16 mills times the adjusted gross tax capacity, and shall be prepared using a methodology approved by the commissioner of finance. The commissioner of education shall use a discount factor provided by the commissioner of finance in determining the present value of the estimated amount of interest and principal which may be forgiven after the term of the loan.

- (d) No loan shall be recommended for approval for any district exceeding an amount computed as follows:
  - (1) The amount requested by the district under subdivision 2;
- (2) Plus the aggregate principal amount of general obligation bonds of the district outstanding on June 30 of the year following the year the application was received, not exceeding the limitation on net debt of the district in section 475.53, subdivision 4, or the following amount:
- (i) for the period October 1, 1988, to September 30, 1989, 197 percent of its adjusted gross tax capacity,
- (ii) for any 12-month period beginning October 1 of any year after 1988, 245 percent of its adjusted net tax capacity as most recently determined, whichever is less;
- (3) Less the maximum net debt permissible for the district on December 1 of the year the application is received, under the limitation in section 475.53, subdivision 4, or the following amount:
- (i) for the period October 1, 1988, to September 30, 1989, 197 percent of its adjusted gross tax capacity,
- (ii) for any 12-month period beginning October 1 of any year after 1988, 245 percent of its adjusted net tax capacity as most recently determined, whichever is less; and
- (4) Less any amount by which the amount voted exceeds the total cost of the facilities for which the loan is granted, as estimated in accordance with subdivision 4, provided that the loan may be approved in an amount computed as provided in clauses (1) to (3), subject to subsequent reduction in accordance with this clause.
- Sec. 9. [CORRECTION 3.] Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 216B.01, is amended to read:

216B.01 [LEGISLATIVE FINDING.]

It is hereby declared to be in the public interest that public utilities be regulated as hereinafter provided in order to provide the retail consumers of natural gas and electric service in this state with adequate and reliable services at reasonable rates, consistent with the financial and economic requirements of public utilities and their need to construct facilities to provide such services or to otherwise obtain energy supplies, to avoid unnecessary duplication of facilities which increase the cost of service to the consumer and to minimize disputes between public utilities which may result in inconvenience or diminish efficiency in service to the consumers. Because municipal utilities are presently effectively regulated by the residents of the municipalities which own and operate them, and cooperative electric associations are presently effectively regulated and controlled by the membership under the provisions of chapter 308 308A, it is deemed unnecessary to subject such utilities to regulation under this chapter except as specifically provided herein.

Sec. 10. [CORRECTION 3.] Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 216B.02, subdivision 4, is amended to read:

Subd. 4. Except as otherwise provided, the provisions of this chapter shall not be applicable to any sale of natural, manufactured or mixed gas or electricity by a public utility to another public utility for resale. In addition, the provisions of this chapter shall not apply to a public utility whose total natural gas business consists of supplying natural, manufactured or mixed gas to not more than 650 customers within a city pursuant to a franchise granted by the city, provided a resolution of the city council requesting exemption from regulation is filed with the commission. The city council may rescind the resolution requesting exemption at any time, and, upon the filing of the rescinding resolution with the commission, the provisions of this chapter shall apply to the public utility. No person shall be deemed to be a public utility if it furnishes its services only to tenants or cooperative or condominium owners in buildings owned, leased or operated by such person. No person shall be deemed to be a public utility if it furnishes service to occupants of a manufactured home or trailer park owned, leased, or operated by such person. No person shall be deemed to be a public utility if it produces or furnishes service to less than 25 persons.

- (d) The driver qualification rule and the hours of service rules do not apply to vehicles controlled by a farmer and operated by a farmer or farm employee to transport agricultural products or farm machinery or supplies to or from a farm if the vehicle is not used in the operations of a motor carrier and not carrying hazardous materials of a type or quantity that requires the vehicle to be marked or placarded in accordance with section 221.033.

costs and the proposed order establishing the waiver shall be filed with the secretary of the senate and chief clerk of the house of representatives at least 60 days prior to its effective date.

- (a) One-half of the total amount of the disallowance shall be borne by the county boards responsible for administering the programs. For the medical assistance and AFDC programs, disallowances shall be shared by each county board in the same proportion as that county's expenditures for the sanctioned program are to the total of all counties' expenditures for the AFDC and medical assistance programs. For the food stamp program, sanctions shall be shared by each county board, with 50 percent of the sanction being distributed to each county in the same proportion as that county's administrative costs for food stamps are to the total of all food stamp administrative costs for all counties, and 50 percent of the sanctions being distributed to each county in the same proportion as that county's value of food stamp benefits issued are to the total of all benefits issued for all counties. Each county shall pay its share of the disallowance to the state of Minnesota. When a county fails to pay the amount due hereunder, the commissioner may deduct the amount from reimbursement otherwise due the county, or the attorney general, upon the request of the commissioner, may institute civil action to recover the amount due.
- (b) Notwithstanding the provisions of paragraph (a), if the disallowance results from knowing noncompliance by one or more counties with a specific program instruction, and that knowing noncompliance is a matter of official county board record, the commissioner may require payment or recover from the county or counties, in the manner prescribed in paragraph (a), an amount equal to the portion of the total disallowance which resulted from the noncompliance, and may distribute the balance of the disallowance according to paragraph (a).

- (17) Have the authority to establish and enforce the following county reporting requirements:
- (a) The commissioner shall establish fiscal and statistical reporting requirements necessary to account for the expenditure of funds allocated to counties for human services programs. When establishing financial and statistical reporting requirements, the commissioner shall evaluate all reports, in consultation with the counties, to determine if the reports can be simplified or the number of reports can be reduced.
- (b) The county board shall submit monthly or quarterly reports to the department as required by the commissioner. Monthly reports are due no later than 15 working days after the end of the month. Quarterly reports are due no later than 30 calendar days after the end of the quarter, unless the commissioner determines that the deadline must be shortened to 20 calendar days to avoid jeopardizing compliance with federal deadlines or risking a loss of federal funding. Only reports that are complete, legible, and in the required format shall be accepted by the commissioner.
- (c) If the required reports are not received by the deadlines established in clause (b), the commissioner may delay payments and withhold funds from the county board until the next reporting period. The reduction in funding must not exceed the amount to which the county would otherwise have been entitled.

- (d) A county board that submits reports that are late, illegible, incomplete, or not in the required format for two out of three consecutive reporting periods is considered noncompliant. When a county board is found to be noncompliant, the commissioner shall notify the county board of the reason the county board is considered noncompliant and request that the county board develop a corrective action plan stating how the county board plans to correct the problem. The corrective action plan must be submitted to the commissioner within 45 days after the date the county board received notice of noncompliance.
- (e) The final deadline for fiscal reports or amendments to fiscal reports is one year after the date the report was originally due. If the commissioner does not receive a report by the final deadline, the county board forfeits the funding associated with the report for that reporting period and the county board must repay any funds associated with the report received for that reporting period.
- (f) The commissioner may not delay payments, withhold funds, or require repayment under paragraph (c) or (e) if the county demonstrates that the commissioner failed to provide appropriate forms, guidelines, and technical assistance to enable the county to comply with the requirements training on completion of the reporting forms. If the county board disagrees with an action taken by the commissioner under paragraph (c) or (e), the county board may appeal the action according to sections 14.57 to 14.69.
- (g) Counties subject to withholding of funds under paragraph (c) or forfeiture or repayment of funds under paragraph (e) shall not reduce or withhold benefits or services to clients to cover costs incurred due to actions taken by the commissioner under paragraph (c) or (e).

- Sec. 18. [CORRECTION 3.] Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 273.11, subdivision 8, is amended to read:
- Subd. 8. [LIMITED EQUITY COOPERATIVE APARTMENTS.] For the purposes of this subdivision, the terms defined in this subdivision have the meanings given them.
- A "limited equity cooperative" is a corporation organized under chapter 308 308A, which has as its primary purpose the provision of housing and related services to its members which meets one of the following criteria with respect to the income of its members: (1) a minimum of 75 percent of members must have incomes at or less than 90 percent of area median income, (2) a minimum of 40 percent of members must have incomes at or less than 60 percent of area median income, or (3) a minimum of 20 percent of members must have incomes at or less than 50 percent of area median income. For purposes of this clause, "member income" shall mean the income of a member existing at the time the member acquires cooperative membership, and median income shall mean the St. Paul-Minneapolis metropolitan area median income as determined by the United States Department of Housing and Urban Development. It must also meet the following requirements:
- (a) The articles of incorporation set the sale price of occupancy entitling cooperative shares or memberships at no more than a transfer value determined as provided in the articles. That value may not exceed the sum of the following:
- (1) the consideration paid for the membership or shares by the first occupant of the unit, as shown in the records of the corporation;
- (2) the fair market value, as shown in the records of the corporation, of any improvements to the real property that were installed at the sole expense of the member with the prior approval of the board of directors;
- (3) accumulated interest, or an inflation allowance not to exceed the greater of a ten percent annual noncompounded increase on the consideration paid for the membership or share by the first occupant of the unit, or the amount that would have been paid on that consideration if interest had been paid on it at the rate of the percentage increase in the revised consumer price index for all urban consumers for the Minneapolis-St. Paul metropolitan area prepared by the United States Department of Labor, provided that the amount determined pursuant to this clause may not exceed $500 for each year or fraction of a year the membership or share was owned; plus

- (4) real property capital contributions shown in the records of the corporation to have been paid by the transferor member and previous holders of the same membership, or of separate memberships that had entitled occupancy to the unit of the member involved. These contributions include contributions to a corporate reserve account the use of which is restricted to real property improvements or acquisitions, contributions to the corporation which are used for real property improvements or acquisitions, and the amount of principal amortized by the corporation on its indebtedness due to the financing of real property acquisition or improvement or the averaging of principal paid by the corporation over the term of its real property-related indebtedness.
- (b) The articles of incorporation require that the board of directors limit the purchase price of stock or membership interests for new member-occupants or resident shareholders to an amount which does not exceed the transfer value for the membership or stock as defined in clause (a).
- (c) The articles of incorporation require that the total distribution out of capital to a member shall not exceed that transfer value.
- (d) The articles of incorporation require that upon liquidation of the corporation any assets remaining after retirement of corporate debts and distribution to members will be conveyed to a charitable organization described in section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended through December 31, 1986, or a public agency.

A "limited equity cooperative apartment" is a dwelling unit owned by a limited equity cooperative.

"Occupancy entitling cooperative share or membership" is the ownership interest in a cooperative organization which entitles the holder to an exclusive right to occupy a dwelling unit owned or leased by the cooperative.

For purposes of taxation, the assessor shall value a unit owned by a limited equity cooperative at the lesser of its market value or the value determined by capitalizing the net operating income of a comparable apartment operated on a rental basis at the capitalization rate used in valuing comparable buildings that are not limited equity cooperatives. If a cooperative fails to operate in accordance with the provisions of clauses (a) to (d), the property shall be subject to additional property taxes in the amount of the difference between the taxes determined in accordance with this subdivision for the last ten years that the property had been assessed pursuant to this subdivision and the amount that would have been paid if the provisions of this subdivision had not applied to it. The additional taxes, plus interest at the rate specified in section 549.09, shall be extended against the property on the tax list for the current year.

Sec. 26. [CORRECTION NO. 10.] 1989 H.F. No. 1734, article 1, section 7, if enacted, is amended to read:

Sec. 7. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 290.06, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 1a. [SURTAX; CORPORATIONS.] (a) In addition to the tax computed under subdivision 1 and section 290.0921, a surtax is imposed upon corporations equal to a percentage of the sum of the corporation's tax under subdivision 1 and section 290.0921.

(b) By May 31, 1990, the commissioner of revenue shall determine the rate of the surtax to be imposed under paragraph (a). The commissioner of revenue shall prepare a forecast of the revenue predicted to be raised for taxable years beginning in calendar years 1990 through 1992 by the franchise tax on corporations under this chapter, including the tax under section 290.092, computed as if the tax were imposed under section 290.092, subdivisions 1 to 4a, and the rate under subdivision 1 were 9.5 percent. The commissioner shall set the rate of the surtax so that the amount forecast to be raised by the surtax (when added to the tax imposed under subdivision 1 and section 290.0921) equals the amount of revenue forecast

- to be raised if the tax under section 290.092, subdivisions 1 to 4a, were in effect and section 290.0921 did not apply.
- (c) The rate determined under paragraph (b) applies to taxable years beginning after December 31, 1990 1989.
- (d) If the rate determined under paragraph (b) is held invalid, the surtax rate in effect for taxable years beginning after December 31, 1990 1989 is 7.5 percent.
- Sec. 27. [CORRECTION 3.] Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 290.092, subdivision 2, is amended to read:
- Subd. 2. [EXEMPTIONS.] Corporations subject to tax under sections 290.05, subdivision 3; or 60A.15, subdivision 1 and 290.35; real estate investment trusts; regulated investment companies; cooperatives taxable under subchapter T of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 or organized under chapter 308 308A or a similar law of another state; and entities having a valid election in effect under section 1362 or 860D(b) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended through December 31, 1987, are not subject to the tax imposed in subdivision 1 or subdivision 5.
- Sec. 28. [CORRECTION NO. 11.] 1989 H.F. No. 1734, article 1, section 17, if enacted, is amended to read:
- Sec. 17. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 290.191, subdivision 6, is amended to read:
- Subd. 6. [DETERMINATION OF RECEIPTS FACTOR FOR FINANCIAL INSTITUTIONS.] (a) For purposes of this section, the rules in this subdivision and subdivisions 7 and 8 apply in determining the receipts factor for financial institutions.
- (b) "Receipts" for this purpose means gross income, including net taxable gain on disposition of assets, including securities and money market instruments, when derived from transactions and activities in the regular course of the taxpayer's trade or business.
- (c) "Money market instruments" means federal funds sold and securities purchased under agreements to resell, commercial paper, banker's acceptances, and purchased certificates of deposit and similar instruments to the extent that the instruments are reflected as assets under generally accepted accounting principles.
- (d) "Securities" means United States Treasury securities, obligations of United States government agencies and corporations, obligations of state and political subdivisions, corporate stock and other securities, participations in securities backed by mortgages held by United States or state government agencies, loan-backed securities and similar investments to the extent the investments are reflected as assets under generally accepted accounting principles.

- (e) Receipts from the lease or rental of real or tangible personal property, including both finance leases and true leases, must be attributed to this state if the property is located in this state. Tangible personal property that is characteristically moving property, such as motor vehicles, rolling stock, aircraft, vessels, mobile equipment, and the like, is considered to be located in a state if:
  - (1) the operation of the property is entirely within the state; or
- (2) the operation of the property is in two or more states, but the principal base of operations from which the property is sent out is in the state.
- (f) Interest income and other receipts from assets in the nature of loans that are secured primarily by real estate or tangible personal property must be attributed to this state if the security property is located in this state under the principles stated in paragraph (e).
- (g) Interest income and other receipts from consumer loans not secured by real or tangible personal property that are made to residents of this state, whether at a place of business, by traveling loan officer, by mail, by telephone or other electronic means, must be attributed to this state.
- (h) Interest income and other receipts from commercial loans and installment obligations that are unsecured by real or tangible personal property or secured by intangible property must be attributed to this state if the proceeds of the loan are to be applied in this state. If it cannot be determined where the funds are to be applied, the income and receipts are attributed to the state in which the office of the borrower from which the application would be made in the regular course of business is located. If this cannot be determined, the transaction is disregarded in the apportionment formula.
- (i) Interest income and other receipts from a participating financial institution's portion of participation and syndication loans must be attributed under paragraphs (e) to (h). A participation loan is an arrangement in which a lender makes a loan to a borrower and then sells, assigns, or otherwise transfers all or a part of the loan to a purchasing financial institution. A syndication loan is a multibank loan transaction in which all the lenders are named as parties to the loan documentation, are known to the borrower, and have privity of contract with the borrower.
- (j) Interest income and other receipts including service charges from financial institution credit card and travel and entertainment credit card receivables and credit card holders' fees must be attributed to the state to which the card charges and fees are regularly billed.

- (k) Merchant discount income derived from financial institution credit card holder transactions with a merchant must be attributed to the state in which the merchant is located. In the case of merchants located within and outside the state, only receipts from merchant discounts attributable to sales made from locations within the state are attributed to this state. It is presumed, subject to rebuttal, that the location of a merchant is the address shown on the invoice submitted by the merchant to the taxpayer.
- (l) Receipts from the performance of fiduciary and other services must be attributed to the state in which the benefits of the services are consumed. If the benefits are consumed in more than one state, the receipts from those benefits must be apportioned to this state pro rata according to the portion of the benefits consumed in this state. If the extent to which the benefits of services are consumed in this state is not readily determinable, the benefits of the services shall be deemed to be consumed at the location of the office of the customer from which the services were ordered in the regular course of the customer's trade or business. If the ordering office cannot be determined, the benefits of the services shall be deemed to be consumed at the office of the customer to which the services are billed.
- (m) Receipts from the issuance of travelers checks and money orders must be attributed to the state in which the checks and money orders are purchased.
- (n) Receipts from investments of a financial institution in securities of this state, its political subdivisions, agencies, and instrumentalities must be attributed to this state.
- (o) Receipts from a financial institution's interest in any property described in section 290.015, subdivision 3, paragraph (b), is not included in the numerator or the denominator of the receipts factor provided the financial institution's activities within this state with respect to any interest in the property are limited in the manner provided in section 290.015, subdivision 3, paragraph (b). If a financial institution is subject to tax under this chapter, its interest in property described in section 290.015, subdivision 3, paragraph (b), is included in the receipts factor in the same manner as assets in the nature of securities or money market instruments are included under paragraph (n) and subdivision 7.

Sec. 11. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 275.50, subdivision 5, is amended to read:

Subd. 5. Notwithstanding any other law to the contrary for taxes

- (a) pay the costs not reimbursed by the state or federal government, of payments made to or on behalf of recipients of aid under any public assistance program authorized by law, and the costs of purchase or delivery of social services. The aggregate amounts levied under this paragraph for the costs of purchase or delivery of social services and income maintenance programs, other than those identified in section 273 1398, subdivision 1, paragraph (i) and paragraph (b) are subject to a maximum increase over the amount levied for the previous year of 12 percent for counties within the metropolitan area as defined in section 473.121, subdivision 2, or counties outside the metropolitan area but containing a city of the first class, and 15 percent for other counties. For purposes of this clause, "income maintenance programs" include income maintenance programs in section 273.1398, subdivision 1, to the extent the county provides benefits under those programs over the state mandated minimums. Effective with taxes levied in 1989, the portion of this special levy for the county share levy identified in section 273.1398, subdivision 1, paragraph (k), is limited to the amount calculated under section 273.1398, subdivision 2a;
- (b) pay the costs of principal and interest on bonded indebtedness except on bonded indebtedness issued under section 471.981, subdivisions 4 to 4c or to reimburse for the amount of liquor store revenues used to pay the principal and interest due in the year preceding the year for which the levy limit is calculated on municipal liquor store bonds;
- (c) pay the costs of principal and interest on certificates of indebtedness, except tax anticipation or aid anticipation certificates of indebtedness, issued for any corporate purpose except current expenses or funding an insufficiency in receipts from taxes or other sources or funding extraordinary expenditures resulting from a public emergency; and to pay the cost for certificates of indebtedness issued pursuant to sections 298.28 and 298.282:
- (d) fund the payments made to the Minnesota state armory building commission pursuant to section 193.145, subdivision 2, to retire the principal and interest on armory construction bonds;
- (e) provide for the bonded indebtedness portion of payments made to another political subdivision of the state of Minnesota;
- (f) pay the amounts required, in accordance with section 275.075, to correct for a county auditor's error of omission but only to the extent that when added to the preceding year's levy it is not in excess of an applicable statutory, special law or charter limitation, or the limitation imposed on the governmental subdivision by sections 275.50 to 275.56 in the preceding levy year;

- (g) pay amounts required to correct for an error of omission in the levy certified to the appropriate county auditor or auditors by the governing body of a city or town with statutory city powers in a levy year, but only to the extent that when added to the preceding year's levy it is not in excess of an applicable statutory, special law or charter limitation, or the limitation imposed on the governmental subdivision by sections 275.50 to 275.56 in the preceding levy year;
- (h) pay amounts required by law to be paid to pay the interest on and to reduce the unfunded accrued liability of public pension funds in accordance with the actuarial standards and guidelines specified in sections 356.215 and 356.216 reduced by 106 percent of the amount levied for that purpose in 1976, payable in 1977. For the purpose of this special levy, the estimated receipts expected from the state of Minnesota pursuant to sections 69.011 to 69.031 or any other state aid expressly intended for the support of public pension funds shall be considered as a deduction in determining the required levy for the normal costs of the public pension funds. No amount of these aids shall be considered as a deduction in determining the governmental subdivision's required levy for the reduction of the unfunded accrued liability of public pension funds;
- (i) to compensate the state for the cost of a reassessment ordered by the commissioner of revenue pursuant to section 270.16;
- (j) pay the debt service on tax increment financing revenue bonds to the extent that revenue to pay the bonds or to maintain reserves for the bonds is insufficient as a result of the provisions of Laws 1988, chapter 719, article 5;
  - (k) pay the cost of hospital care under section 261.21;
- (l) pay the unreimbursed costs incurred in the previous year to satisfy judgments rendered against the governmental subdivision by a court of competent jurisdiction in any tort action, or to pay the costs of settlements out of court against the governmental subdivision in a tort action when substantiated by a stipulation for the dismissal of the action filed with the court of competent jurisdiction and signed by both the plaintiff and the legal representative of the governmental subdivision, provided that an appeal for the unreimbursed costs under this clause was approved by the commissioner of revenue under section 15;
- (m) pay the expenses reasonably and necessarily incurred in preparing for or repairing the effects of natural disaster including the occurrence or threat of widespread or severe damage, injury, or loss of life or property resulting from natural causes such as earthquake, fire, flood, wind storm, wave action, oil spill, water contamination, air contamination, or drought in accordance with standards formulated by the emergency services division of the state department of public safety, provided that an appeal for the expenses incurred under this clause were approved by the commissioner of revenue under section 15;

- (n) pay a portion of the losses in tax receipts to a city due to tax abatements or court actions in the year preceding the current levy year, provided that an appeal for the tax losses was approved by the commissioner of revenue under section 15. This special levy is limited to the amount of the losses times the ratio of the nonspecial levies to total levies for taxes payable in the year the abatements were granted. County governments are not authorized to claim this special levy;
- (o) pay the operating cost of regional library services authorized under section 134.34, subject to a maximum increase of the greater of (1) 103 percent multiplied by one plus the percentage increase determined for the governmental subdivision under section 275.51, subdivision 3h, clause (b), or (2) six percent. If a governmental subdivision elected to include some or all of its levy for libraries within its adjusted levy limit base in the prior year, but elects to claim the levy as a special levy in the current levy year, the allowable increase is determined by applying the greater percentage determined under clause (1) or (2) to the total amount levied for libraries in the prior levy year. After levy year 1989, the increase must not be determined using a base amount other than the amount that could have been levied as a special levy in the prior year. In no event shall the special levy be less than the minimum levy required under sections 134.33 and 134.34, subdivisions 1 and 2;
- (p) pay the amount of the county building fund levy permitted under section 373.40, subdivision 6;
- (q) pay the county's share of the costs levied in 1989, 1990, and 1991 for the Minnesota cooperative soil survey under Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 40.07, subdivision 15; and
- (r) for taxes levied in 1989, payable in 1990 only, pay the cost incurred for the minimum share required by counties levying for the first time under section 134.34 as required under section 134.341. For taxes levied in 1990, and thereafter, counties levying under this provision must levy under paragraph (o), and their allowable increase must be determined with reference to the amount levied in 1989 under this paragraph; and
- (s) for taxes levied in 1989, payable in 1990 only, provide an amount equal to 50 percent of the estimated amount of the reduction in aids to a county under sections 273.1398, subdivision 2, paragraph (d), and 477A.012, subdivision 3, for aids payable in 1990. For taxes levied in 1990, payable in 1991 only, the adjusted levy limit base of a county that imposes a special levy under this paragraph for taxes payable in 1990 shall be decreased by the amount of the special levy that exceeded the actual aid reduction, or increased by the amount of the special levy that was less than the actual aid reduction."

The designation of a distressed county is effective for the 12-month period beginning July 1, except that a designation made June 1, 1988 shall remain in effect until December 31, 1989 with respect to purchases of capital equipment placed in service by December 31, 1989 only, provided that the continued exemption under subdivision 2b terminates June 30, 1990. A county may be designated as distressed as often as it qualifies.
- (e) The authority to designate counties as distressed expires on June 30, for designations made effective July 1, 1988."

We, the undersigned conferees for S. F. No. 470, report that we have agreed upon the items in dispute and recommend as follows:

That the House recede from its amendment and that S. F. No. 470 be further amended as follows:

Delete everything after the enacting clause and insert:

"Section 1. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 116.18, subdivision 3a, is amended to read:

Subd. 3a. [STATE INDEPENDENT GRANTS PROGRAM.] (a) The public facilities authority must adopt the objective of maintaining financial assistance to municipalities that the agency has listed on its annual municipal project list of approximately 50 percent of the eligible cost of construction for municipalities with populations over 25,000 and 80 percent of the eligible cost for municipalities with populations of 25,000 or less. Financial assistance may be provided by the public facilities authority through a combination of low interest loans under the state revolving fund under chapter 446A, independent state grants, and other financial assistance available to the municipality. The Minnesota public facilities authority may award independent grants for projects certified by the state pollution control commissioner for 50 35 percent or, if the population of the municipality is 25,000 or less, 80 65 percent of the eligible cost of construction. These grants may be awarded in separate steps for planning and design in addition to actual construction. Until December 31, 1990, Not more than 20 percent

$2,000,000 of the total amount of grants awarded under this subdivision in any single fiscal year may be awarded to a single grantee.

- (b) Up to ten percent $1,000,000 of the money to be awarded as grants under this subdivision in any single fiscal year shall be set aside for municipalities having substantial economic development projects that cannot come to fruition without municipal wastewater treatment improvements. The agency shall forward its municipal needs list to the authority at the beginning of each fiscal year, and the authority shall review the list and identify those municipalities having substantial economic development projects. After the first 90 percent of the total available money is allocated to municipalities in accordance with agency priorities, the set-aside shall be used by the authority to award grants to remaining municipalities that have been identified.
- (c) Grants may also be awarded under this subdivision to reimburse municipalities willing to proceed with projects and be reimbursed in a subsequent year conditioned upon appropriation of sufficient money under subdivision 1 for that year at the grant percentage determined in paragraph (a).
- (d) A municipality that applies for a state independent grant to be reimbursed for a project must receive an additional five percent of the total eligible cost of construction beyond the normal percentage to which the municipality is entitled under paragraph (a). Municipalities that entered into an intent to award agreement with the agency under paragraph (c), in the state fiscal years 1985 to 1988, will be reimbursed at 55 percent or, if the population of the municipality is 25,000 or less, 85 percent of the eligible cost of construction.
- Sec. 2. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 116.18, subdivision 3b, is amended to read:

- (b) Beginning in fiscal year 1989, up to $1,500,000 of the money to be awarded as grants under subdivision 3a in any single fiscal year may be set aside for the award of capital cost component grants to municipalities on the municipal needs list for part of the capital cost component of the service fee under a service contract for a term of at least 20 years with a private vendor for the purpose of constructing and operating wastewater treatment facilities.
- (c) The amount granted to a municipality shall be 50 percent of the average total eligible costs of municipalities of similar size recently awarded state and federal grants under the provisions of subdivisions 2a and 3a and the Federal Water Pollution Control Act, United States Code, title 33, sections 1281 to 1289 1299. Federal and state eligibility requirements for determining the amount of grant dollars to be awarded to a municipality are not applicable to municipalities awarded capital cost component grants. Federal and state eligibility requirements for determining which cities qualify for state and federal grants are applicable, except as provided in this subdivision.

- (d) Except as provided in this subdivision, municipalities receiving capital cost component grants shall not be required to comply with federal and state regulations regarding facilities planning and procurement contained in sections 116.16 to 116.18, except those necessary to issue a National Pollutant Discharge Elimination System permit or state disposal system permit and those necessary to assure that the proposed facilities are reasonably capable of meeting the conditions of the permit over 20 years. The municipality and the private vendor shall be parties to the permit. Municipalities receiving capital cost component grants may also be exempted by rules of the agency from other state and federal regulations relating to the award of state and federal grants for wastewater treatment facilities, except those necessary to protect the state from fraud or misuse of state funds.
- (e) Funds shall be distributed from the set-aside to municipalities that apply for the funds in accordance with these provisions in the order of their ranking on the municipal needs list.

469.152 [PURPOSES.]

The welfare of the state requires the active promotion, attraction, encouragement, and development of economically sound industry and commerce through governmental action for the purpose of preventing the emergence of blighted and marginal lands and areas of chronic unemployment. It is the policy of the state to facilitate and encourage action by local government units to prevent the economic deterioration of such areas to the point where the process can be reversed only by total redevelopment through the use of local, state, and federal funds derived from taxation, necessitating relocating displaced persons and duplicating public services in other areas. By the use of the powers and procedures described in sections 469.152 to 469.165, local government units and their agencies and authorities responsible for redevelopment and economic development may prevent occurrence of conditions requiring redevelopment, or aid in the redevelopment of existing areas of blight, marginal land, and avoidance of substantial and persistent unemployment.

The welfare of the state further requires the provision of necessary health care facilities, so that adequate health care services are available to residents of the state at reasonable cost. The welfare of the state further requires the provision of county jail facilities for the purpose of providing adequately for the care, control, and safeguarding of civil rights of prisoners. The welfare of the state requires that, whenever feasible, employment opportunities made available in part by sections 469.152 to 469.165 or other state law providing for similar financing mechanisms should be offered to individuals who are unemployed or who are economically disadvantaged.

The welfare of the state further requires that, whenever feasible, action should be taken to reduce the cost of borrowing by local governments for public purposes.

In the bond resolution or trust indenture, the council may make such covenants as it determines to be reasonable for the protection of the bondholders, including a covenant to issue general obligation bonds to refund the revenue bonds if and to the extent required to pay principal and interest on the bonds and to certify a deficiency tax levy as provided in section 473.521, subdivision 4.

The county may pledge to the payment of the bonds and the interest thereon, its full faith, credit and taxing powers, or the proceeds of any designated tax levies, or the gross or net revenues or charges to be derived from any facility operated by or for the county, or any combination thereof. Taxes levied for the payment of the bonds and interest shall not reduce the amounts of other taxes which the county is authorized by law to levy. The proceeds of the bonds may be used in part to establish a reserve as further security for the payment of the principal and interest of the bonds when due. Revenue Bonds issued pursuant to this section may be sold at public or private sale upon such conditions as the county board shall determine, but any bonds issued after May 22, 1991, to which the full faith and credit and taxing powers of the county are pledged shall be sold in accordance with the provisions of chapter 475. Sec. 6. [40.46] [RESERVATION OF MARGINAL LAND AND WETLANDS.]

Subdivision 1. [RESERVATION OF MARGINAL LAND AND WETLANDS.] Notwithstanding any other law, marginal land and wetlands are withdrawn from sale by the state unless use of the marginal land or wetland is restricted by a conservation easement as provided in this section. This section does not apply to transfers of land by the board of water and soil resources to correct errors in legal descriptions under section 40.43, subdivision 8, or to transfers by the commissioner of natural resources for:

- (1) land that is currently in nonagricultural commercial use if a conservation easement would interfere with the commercial use;
  - (2) land in platted subdivisions;
- (4) exchanges of nonagricultural land with the federal government, or exchanges of Class A, Class B, and Class C nonagricultural land with local units of government under sections 94.342, 94.343, 94.344, and 94.349;

The delineation of the reservation or conservation easement need not be by legal description and may be a description in general terms that identifies the marginal land or wetlands.
- (b) Marginal land and wetlands may not be sold unless restricted by a conservation easement with the restrictions provided in section 40.43, subdivision 4, paragraphs (a) and (c), and other restrictions determined necessary by the board of water and soil resources.
- Subd. 3. [SCHOOL TRUST LAND.] If the sale of school trust land as defined in section 92.025 is restricted by a conservation easement and the restriction results in a reduction of the amount received from the sale, the commissioner of natural resources must determine the amount of the reduction. The amount of the reduction in sale price must be paid from appropriations to acquire conservation easements and shall be credited to the account to which the proceeds from the sale are credited.
- Subd. 4. [RELEASE AND ALTERATION OF CONSERVATION EASEMENT.] The board of water and soil resources may alter, release, or terminate a conservation easement created under this section after consultation with the commissioners of agriculture and natural resources. The board of water and soil resources may alter, release, or terminate a conservation easement only if the board determines the public interests and general welfare are better served by the alteration, release, or termination.
- Sec. 7. [84.0276] [LAND TRANSFERS BY A FEDERAL AGENCY.]

- (6) to the purchase of any tract of 40 acres or less for facilities incidental to pipeline operation by a company operating a pipeline as defined in section 116I.01, subdivision 3; or
- (7) to agricultural land and land capable of being used as farmland used for processing operations of agricultural commodities reasonably necessary to meet the requirements of pollution control laws or rules.

The ticket must identify the trespass, where the trespass occurred, and the official observing the trespass. A copy of the ticket must be sent to the public agency responsible for managing the land.
- (c) The civil penalty shall be paid to the public agency responsible for managing the public land. A civil penalty paid to the state is appropriated to the state agency responsible for managing the land to restore the damage and improve state land.
- (d) Within 60 days after a ticket is issued, the public agency responsible for managing the public land where the trespass occurred must make a determination of whether a civil penalty will be sought for the trespass and notify the person.

[COUNTY RECYCLING GOALS.] By July 1, 1993, each county outside of the metropolitan area will have as a goal to recycle a minimum of 25 percent by weight of total solid waste generation; and by July 1, 1993, each county within the metropolitan area will have as a goal to recycle a minimum of 35 percent by weight of total solid waste generation. Each county will develop and implement or require political subdivisions within the county to develop and implement programs, practices, or methods designed to meet its recycling goal. Nothing in this section or in any other law may be construed to prohibit a county from establishing a higher recycling goal.
- Subd. 4. [INTERIM MONITORING.] The board, for counties outside of the metropolitan area, and the metropolitan council, for counties within the metropolitan area, shall monitor the progress of each county toward meeting the recycling goal in subdivision 2 and shall report to the legislative commission on waste management on the progress of the counties by November 1 of each year. If the board or the council finds that a county is not progressing toward the goal in subdivision 2, it shall negotiate with the county to develop and implement solid waste management techniques designed to assist the county in meeting the goal, such as organized collection, curbside collection of source-separated materials, and volume-based pricing.

- (1) notify county residents of the failure to achieve the goal and why the goal was not achieved; and
- (2) provide county residents with information on recycling programs offered by the county.

- (b) If, based on the recycling monitoring described in subdivision 4, the board or the metropolitan council finds that a county will be unable to meet the recycling goal established in subdivision 2, the board or council shall, after consideration of the reasons for the county's inability to meet the goal, recommend legislation for consideration by the legislative commission on waste management to establish mandatory recycling standards and to authorize the board or council to mandate appropriate solid waste management techniques designed to meet the standards in those counties that are unable to meet the goal.
- Subd. 6. [COUNTY SOLID WASTE PLANS.] (a) Each county shall include in its solid waste management plan described in section 115A.46, or its solid waste master plan described in section 473.803, a plan for implementing the recycling goal established in subdivision 2 along with mechanisms for providing financial incentives to solid waste generators to reduce the amount of waste generated and to separate recyclable materials from the waste stream. The recycling plan must include detailed recycling implementation information to form the basis for the strategy required in subdivision 7.
- (b) Each county required to submit its plan to the board under section 115A.46 shall amend its plan to comply with this subdivision within one year after the effective date of this section.
- Subd. 7. [RECYCLING IMPLEMENTATION STRATEGY.] Within one year of board approval of the portion of the plan required in subdivision 6, each nonmetropolitan county shall submit for board approval a local recycling implementation strategy. The local recycling implementation strategy must:

Subd. 2. [SIGN STANDARDS.] The department of transportation shall design and manufacture the recycling center sign to specifications not contrary to other federal and state highway sign standards. The sign must contain the international three arrow recycling symbol followed by the words "recycling center."

Subd. 3. [LOCATION.] Each local road authority shall permit recycling center signs to be located on roads in its jurisdiction, subject to sign placement and distance requirements of the local authority in conformance with standard policies for placement of signs for other traffic generators.

Sec. 19. [REPORT ON RECYCLING IN PUBLIC BUILDINGS.]

The commissioner of administration and the commissioner of public safety shall review the availability of the opportunity to recycle in buildings, including those in the capitol area, and address barriers to recycling systems that may be caused by building, safety, and fire codes and historical preservation. The commissioners shall prepare a report on the barriers to recycling systems and the progress in overcoming the barriers and submit it to the legislative commission on waste management by November 1, 1990.

Sec. 20. [EFFECTIVE DATE.]

Dear Mr. Speaker:

I have vetoed and am returning to you Chapter 302, H. F. No. 564, a bill relating to workers' compensation. During discussions on workers' compensation, I have requested that any reform bill must authorize the state to examine the books of insurance companies before they are allowed to raise their rates. This bill does not meet that requirement.

While the bill does propose a form of regulation, that regulation is too weak—it does not give the Commissioner of Commerce any additional powers to regulate workers' compensation insurance companies. Further, the one time premium reduction would only be in effect for three months, from October 1, 1989 to January 1, 1990. It offers no guarantee for long term premium reductions. Lastly, the contingent regulation does not go into effect until July 1991, and then, only if the Governor notifies the Legislature of his intent to regulate. Not only do I believe that the contingent regulation is inadequate, but this bill leaves open the possibility that even this protection will never go into effect. The Attorney General's Office has also raised questions regarding the constitutionality of this provision.

We have previously seen that cutting benefits in injured workers will not necessarily result in reduced premiums. In 1983, the Legislature enacted a workers' compensation reform bill which cut benefits to injured workers while deregulation of the insurance industry was taking place. We expected to see reductions in workers' compensation insurance premiums. Instead, the deregulated insurance industry raised its rates and drove up the cost of workers' compensation for Minnesota businesses. I cannot sign a bill which again cuts benefits to injured workers without providing adequate guarantees that it will reduce compensation premiums to Minnesota businesses. While I could support a balanced approach to workers' compensation reform, this bill does not provide that balance.

Minnesota would not be alone if it chose to regulate workers' compensation insurance. Thirty-seven states—including three of our surrounding states—impose strict regulations on their workers' compensation insurance companies. Unless we return to adequate regulation, small businesses across Minnesota will continue to pay higher than necessary workers' compensation premiums.

In an effort to obtain an accurate picture of the profitability of the workers' compensation insurance companies, I have asked Commerce Commissioner Mike Hatch to conduct a study of these insurance companies and report to the Legislature in 1990.

In light of the failure of the legislature to pass a balanced package, I am vetoing this bill and returning it to you.

Sincerely,

RUDY PERPICH Governor

Dear Speaker Vanasek:

I have vetoed and am returning to you Chapter 281, H. F. No. 1285, a bill relating to the Minnesota Comprehensive Health Association (MCHA).

I understand that this bill proposes a number of reforms for this insurance program which includes health care cost containment measures. The purpose of these measures is to better manage the program so that current and future enrollees can continue to receive quality health care.

I commend the authors, Senator Brandl and Representative Skoglund, for their work on a difficult and complex issue.

However, a major misunderstanding has resulted from the passage of the bill. Current enrollees believe that access to quality care will be reduced and that the present level of premiums will increase. This perception of the bill adds to the burden of a serious and often times continuing illness these people and their families already face.

I am directing Commissioner Hatch and the MCHA board to work on the questions this bill addresses over the interim. In addition, I am directing the Commissioner and the MCHA board to work with MCHA enrollees to arrive at a better understanding of the issues and solutions and to shape a proposal for the next legislative session.

In light of the serious concerns raised by MCHA enrollees, I am vetoing this bill and returning it to you.

Sincerely,
RUDY PERPICH

Dear Mr. Speaker:

I have today vetoed Chapter 297, H. F. No. 1734, the Omnibus Tax Bill for the 1989 session.

My decision to veto was not an easy one; the bill contains many good features. However, the bill falls far short of meeting our need for permanent, meaningful reform of our property tax and statelocal fiscal systems.

We need simplification, fairness and stability. Your bill, unfortunately, is a $270 million band-aid that provides only a temporary fix to our long-term problem. Without a start toward major reform this year, I guarantee you that we will be back in coming years trying to find the money for additional expensive and temporary fixes. We cannot afford to continue pumping more and more money into a broken system.

I look forward to working with you in a cooperative manner to enact a bill with permanent, meaningful reform.

Sincerely,
RUDY PERPICH

The Honorable Robert E. Vanasek Speaker of the House of Representatives The State of Minnesota

Dear Mr. Speaker:

I have today signed into law Chapter 335, H. F. No. 372, the omnibus State Departments appropriations bill. However, I have, pursuant to the powers vested in me by Article IV, Section 23 of the Minnesota Constitution, determined to line-item veto the following provisions in this bill.

1. Article 1, section 8, page 9, lines 46 to 50 which read as follows:

$2,000 the first year is a one-time appropriation to the governor's residence council for repairs and replacements in the governor's residence.

I did not request this funding in our budget, and it has been our practice and intention to fund Residence rehabilitation from private contributions.

2. Article 1, section 19, page 24, lines 4 to 8 which read as follows:

Subd. 7. Base Cut $(618,000) $(620,000)

The base cut must be allocated among the agency's programs by the agency head.

All of the base reductions contained in your bill will prove harmful to the efficient operation of state government. The reduction to the Revenue Department would prove especially harmful, not only to departmental operations, but also to revenues to the state from tax enforcement efforts. The lost revenues would be greater than the savings from the reduction.

3. Article 1, section 25, page 45, lines 30 to 60 and page 46, lines 1 to 35 which read as follows:

$800,000 of any funds except those designated by law specifically for agricultural related purposes received by the Greater Minnesota Corporation through an appropriation, a transfer from another state fund, investment income, fees, and other charges, repayment of loans, royalty and dividend income and lottery proceeds are transferred to the department of trade and economic development for deposit in the capital access account in the special revenue fund for the capital access program.

Subd. 9. Greater Minnesota Corporation Reallocations

$1,000,000 the first year of any funds except those designated by law specifically for agricultural related purposes received by the Greater Minnesota Corporation through an appropriation, a transfer from another state fund, investment income, fees, and other charges, repayment of loans, royalty and dividend income and lottery proceeds shall be transferred to Minnesota Project Innovation by October 1, 1989, for the purposes of providing research bridge grants. The commissioner of trade and economic development shall be responsible for coordinating the grant. Upon written notice from the commissioner of trade and economic development, the Greater Minnesota Corporation shall transfer the funds requested to Minnesota Project Innovation.

$150,000 the first year of any funds except those designated by law specifically for agricultural related purposes received by the Greater Minnesota Corporation through an appropriation, a transfer from another state fund, investment income, fees, and other charges, repayment of loans, royalty and dividend income, and lottery proceeds shall be transferred by August 1, 1989, to the Western Five Community Development Corporation for the purpose of establishing a statewide system of aiding small businesses in preparing proposals for and negotiating federal government procurement contracts. The Western Five Community Development Corporation shall cooperate with the other community development corporations in the state to develop this statewide system. Responsibilities of the community development corporations may include preparation and negotiation of federal government procurement proposals on behalf of small businesses and administration of federal government procurement contracts. This funding must be matched on a dollarfor-dollar basis from nonstate sources.

4. Article 4, section 15, on page 290, those portions of lines 7 to 15 which read as follows:

The trustee and insurance accounts related to the energy loan insurance program established under Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 116M.11, are transferred to the energy loan insurance account of the special revenue fund. All repayments, earnings, releases from insurance accounts, and trust accounts of the energy loan insurance account must be credited to the energy loan insurance account. All other money in the economic development account is credited to the general fund.

These provisions inappropriately reallocate funding already committed by the Legislature to the Greater Minnesota Corporation. The idea behind the GMC was to establish a corporate entity removed from direct control of government which would help to finance critically needed research and development efforts in Minnesota. For the Legislature to rescind its prior commitments would jeopardize the independence critical to GMC operations and would impair its ability to promote economic development and job creation in Minnesota.

Pursuant to the requirement of Article IV, Section 23 of the Minnesota Constitution, an executed copy of this letter has been appended to the bill as filed with the Secretary of State.

Sincerely,
RUDY PERPICH
Governor

SPECIAL SESSION-1989

FIRST DAY

Saint Paul, Minnesota, Wednesday, September 27, 1989

In obedience to the Proclamation of the Honorable Rudy Perpich, Governor of the State of Minnesota, summoning the two houses of the Legislature to meet in Special Session, the members of the House of Representatives pursuant to a Special Session Senate Resolution assembled in the Chamber of the Senate at the Capitol in Saint Paul on Wednesday, the twenty-seventh day of September 1989, at 12:00 noon.

PROCLAMATION FOR SPECIAL SESSION 1989

Whereas, Final agreement on essential legislation affecting the health, safety and welfare of Minnesota citizens was not reached during the regular session of the Minnesota Legislature, and

Whereas, The unfinished business includes essential items dealing with tax reform and operations of local governments; and

Whereas, It is critical for the long-term fiscal stability of the state government, the economic future of the state and the needs of the people of Minnesota that such issues be resolved; and

Whereas, The period of time allowed by the Minnesota Constitution for passage of such legislation has expired and an extraordinary occasion is thereby created; and

Whereas, Article IV, Section 12 of the Constitution of the State of Minnesota provides that a Special Session of the Legislature may be called on extraordinary occasions; and

Whereas, Elected leaders of the Legislature have agreed on an agenda and procedures to complete a Special Session in the shortest time possible, and

Whereas, Due to the current renovation of the Chamber of the House of Representatives, it is necessary for the House to meet in the Chamber of the Senate, but only after the Senate has passed a resolution granting consent to such use; and

Whereas, It is therefore necessary to summon members of the House to convene at a time certain that is later than the time set for convening the Senate;

Now, Therefore, I, Rudy Perpich, as Governor of the State of Minnesota, do hereby summon you, members of the Legislature, to convene in Special Session on Wednesday, September 27, 1989, the Senate to convene at 10:00 a.m. and the House of Representatives at noon on that day, in the Chamber of the Senate in the Capitol in Saint Paul, Minnesota.

In Witness Whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of Minnesota to be affixed at the State Capitol this twenty-sixth day of September in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred and eighty-nine, and of the State the one hundred thirty-first.

Following the public hearing, the county may determine to take no further action or adopt a resolution confirming its intention to exercise the authority. That resolution must also be published in the official newspaper of the county or, if there is no official newspaper, in a newspaper of general circulation in the county. If within 30 days after publication of the resolution a petition signed by voters equal in number to five percent of the votes cast in the county in the last general election requesting a vote on the proposed resolution is filed with the county auditor, the resolution is not effective until it has been submitted to the voters at a general or special election and a majority of votes cast on the question of approving the resolution are in the affirmative. The commissioner of revenue shall prepare a suggested form of question to be presented at the election. The referendum must be held at a special or general election before December 1, 1990.

"On or before December 1, 1990, and December 1 of each of the following three years, the commissioner shall estimate the cost of making the payments provided by this subdivision for taxes payable in the following year. Notwithstanding the open appropriation provision of section 290A.23, if the estimated total refund claims exceed the following amounts for the taxes payable year designated, the commissioner shall decrease the percentages of the excess taxes the state will pay and increase the dollar amount of tax increase which must occur before a taxpayer qualifies for a refund.

$\overline{1992}$	\$6,500,000
$\overline{1993}$	\$6,000,000
$\overline{1994}$	\$5,500,000

The commissioner shall make the adjustments so that half of the estimated savings come from decreasing the percentages of the excess taxes the state will pay and half of the estimated savings come from increasing the dollar amount of the tax increase which must occur before a taxpayer qualifies for a refund. The determinations of the revised percentages and thresholds by the commissioner are not rules subject to chapter 14.

- Sec. 4. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 290A.03, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:
- Subd. 2i. If the net property taxes payable in 1990 on a seasonal residential and recreational property, not devoted to commercial use, increase more than ten percent over the net property taxes payable in 1989 and if the amount is $40 or more, one claimant who is an owner of the property in both years is allowed a refund equal to 75 percent of the first $250 of the excess of the increase over ten percent. This subdivision does not apply to the portion of an increase in taxes payable that are attributable to improvements to the property.

In addition to the other proofs required by this chapter, each claimant under this subdivision shall file with the application a copy of the property tax statement for property taxes payable in 1989 and 1990 and any other documents required by the commissioner."

"It is the intent of the legislature that this act not increase the net cost of rental housing to tenants after taking into consideration the combined effect of the reductions in property tax, rent, and property tax refund. Article 2 will significantly reduce the property tax burden on rental housing. Since the property tax refund for renters is based on the property tax paid on the rental unit, the reductions in article 2 will also reduce the amount of property tax refunds. However, because of conditions in the market for rental housing units in some or many areas, the property tax reductions may not affect the amount of rent the tenant must pay. As a result, the net effect of the provisions of this act may not improve the net cost of housing to some tenants. The property tax refund schedule for renters in this article was increased to partially offset this effect. In order to insure that this act does not adversely affect the net cost of housing to tenants, the department of revenue is directed to study this issue and to prepare a property tax refund schedule for renters that increases the eligibility for and amount of refunds in a manner found necessary to prevent increases in overall rental housing costs resulting from the adoption of article 2 and this article, as compared with prior law. This schedule must be submitted to the 1990 legislature along with the governor's recommendations required by this section.

Sec. 8. [INTEREST ON ADDITIONAL REFUNDS FOR PROPERTY TAXES PAID IN 1989.]

Notwithstanding Minnesota Statutes, section 290A.07, subdivision 3, interest on the portion of a property tax refund generated by removing the $250 maximum limit for taxes paid in 1989 shall be computed from the later of 60 days from the day of enactment or 60 days from receipt of the application.

Subd. 2c. [SCHEDULES OF RATES FOR INDIVIDUALS, ESTATES, AND TRUSTS.] (a) The income taxes imposed by this chapter upon married individuals filing joint returns and surviving spouses as defined in section 2(a) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 as amended through December 31, 1987, must be computed by applying to their taxable net income the following schedule of rates:

if taxable income is: not over $19,000 over $19,000 the tax is: 6 percent $1,140 plus 8 percent of the excess over $19.000

if taxable income is: over $75,500, but not over $165,000 over $165,000 the tax is: 0.5 percent of the excess over $75,500 $447.50.

Married individuals filing separate returns, estates, and trusts must compute their income tax by applying the above rates to their taxable income, except that the income brackets will be one-half of the above amounts. In the case of married individuals filing separately, the additional 0.5 percent tax provided in this subdivision shall be applied to taxable income over $37,750, but not over $127,500.

(b) The income taxes imposed by this chapter upon unmarried individuals must be computed by applying to taxable net income the following schedule of rates:

$780 plus 8 percent
of the excess over $13,000

plus an amount computed using the following schedule of rates:

if taxable income is: over $42,700, but not over $93,000 over $93,000 the tax is: 0.5 percent of the excess over $42,700 $251.50.

(c) The income taxes imposed by this chapter upon unmarried individuals qualifying as a head of household as defined in section 2(b) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended through December 31, 1987, must be computed by applying to taxable net income the following schedule of rates:

if taxable income is: not over $16,000 over $16,000 the tax is:
6 percent
$960 plus 8 percent of the excess over $16,000

plus an amount computed using the following schedule of rates:

if taxable income is: over $64,300, but not over $135,000 over $135,000 the tax is: 0.5 percent of the excess over $64,300 $353.50.

- (d) In lieu of a tax computed according to the rates set forth in this subdivision, the tax of any individual taxpayer whose taxable net income for the taxable year is less than an amount determined by the commissioner must be computed in accordance with tables prepared and issued by the commissioner of revenue based on income brackets of not more than $100. The amount of tax for each bracket shall be computed at the rates set forth in this subdivision, provided that the commissioner may disregard a fractional part of a dollar unless it amounts to 50 cents or more, in which case it may be increased to $1.
- (e) An individual who is not a Minnesota resident for the entire year must compute the individual's Minnesota income tax as provided in this subdivision. After the application of the nonrefundable credits provided in this chapter, the tax liability must then be multiplied by a fraction in which:

- (1) The numerator is the individual's Minnesota source federal adjusted gross income as defined in section 62 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended through December 31, 1987, after applying the allocation and assignability provisions of section 290.081, clause (a), or 290.17; and
- (2) the denominator is the individual's federal adjusted gross income as defined in section 62 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended through December 31, 1987, increased by the addition required for interest income from non-Minnesota state and municipal bonds under section 290.01, subdivision 19a, clause (1).
- (f) Any individual who has income which is included in the computation of federal adjusted gross income but is not subject to tax by Minnesota other than income specifically allowed as a subtraction under section 290.01, subdivision 19b, shall compute the tax in the same manner described in paragraph (e). The numerator of the fraction under paragraph (e) is the individual's Minnesota source federal adjusted gross income reduced by the income not subject to Minnesota tax and the denominator is the federal adjusted gross income."

- (b) For purposes of the study, a "two-rate tax" means a tax structure with higher local tax rates on land market values and lower local tax rates on improvement market values. The city, town, or county must impose uniform local tax rates on all classes of property. Land and improvements must be assessed uniformly at the class rates provided in section 273.13.

"Sec. 12. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 297B.09, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [GENERAL FUND SHARE.] (a) Money collected and received under this chapter must be deposited in the state treasury and credited to the general fund. The amounts collected and received shall be credited as provided in this subdivision, and transferred from the general fund on July 15 and January 15 of each fiscal year. The commissioner of finance must make each transfer based upon the actual receipts of the preceding six calendar months and include the interest earned during that six-month period. The commissioner of finance may establish a quarterly or other schedule providing for more frequent payments to the transit assistance fund if the commissioner determines it is necessary or desirable to provide for the cash flow needs of the recipients of money from the transit assistance fund.

- (b) Thirty percent of the money collected and received under this chapter after June 30, 1988, and before July 1, 1991, must be transferred to the highway user tax distribution fund and the transit assistance fund for apportionment as follows: 75 percent must be transferred to the highway user tax distribution fund for apportionment in the same manner and for the same purposes as other money in that fund, and the remaining 25 percent of the money must be transferred to the transit assistance fund to be appropriated to the commissioner of transportation for transit assistance within the state and to the regional transit board.
- (c) Five percent of the money collected and received under this chapter after June 30, 1989, and before July 1, 1991, must be transferred as follows: 75 percent must be transferred to the trunk highway fund and 25 percent must be transferred to the transit assistance fund.
- (d) Thirty-five percent of the money collected and received under this chapter after June 30, 1991, must be transferred as follows: 75 percent must be transferred to the trunk highway fund highway user tax distribution fund for apportionment in the same manner and for the same purposes as other money in that fund, and 25 percent must be transferred to the transit assistance fund.
- (e) The distributions under this subdivision to the highway user tax distribution fund until June 30, 1991, and to the trunk highway fund thereafter, must be reduced by the amount necessary to fund the appropriation under section 41A.09, subdivision 1. For the fiscal years ending June 30, 1988, and June 30, 1989, the commissioner of finance, before making the transfers required on July 15 and January 15 of each year, shall estimate the amount required to fund the appropriation under section 41A.09, subdivision 1, for the six-month period for which the transfer is being made. The commissioner shall then reduce the amount transferred to the highway user tax distribution fund by the amount of that estimate. The commissioner shall reduce the estimate for any six-month period by the amount by which the estimate for the previous six-month period exceeded the amount needed to fund the appropriation under section 41A.09, subdivision 1, for that previous six-month period. If at any time during a six-month period in those fiscal years the amount of reduction in the transfer to the highway user tax distribution fund is insufficient to fund the appropriation under section 41A.09, subdivision 1 for that period, the commissioner shall transfer to the general fund from the highway user tax distribution fund an additional amount sufficient to fund the appropriation for that period, but the additional amount so transferred to the general fund in a six-month period may not exceed the amount transferred to the highway user tax distribution fund for that six-month period."

MOTIONS AND RESOLUTIONS

Long moved that the Chief Clerk be and he is hereby authorized to correct and approve the Journal of the House, 1989 Special Session, for today, Friday, September 29, 1989, and that he be authorized to include in the Journal for today any subsequent proceedings and any appointments to legislative interim committees or commissions created by legislative action or by law. The motion prevailed.

Long moved that the Chief Clerk be and he is hereby instructed to inform the Senate and the Governor by message that the House of Representatives is about to adjourn this 1989 Special Session sine die. The motion prevailed.

Bennett moved that the name of Schreiber be added as an author on H. F. No. 19. The motion prevailed.

PROTEST AND DISSENT

Pursuant to Article IV, Section 11, of the Minnesota Constitution, we the undersigned members of the Minnesota House of Representatives do hereby protest and dissent the recent actions of the DFL leadership which barred the public, the media, and the minority caucus from participation in negotiating the compromise Property Tax Reform Bill of 1989.

Ten Democrats and zero Republicans were appointed on May 4, 1989, to the Tax Conference Committee that reconciled the Omnibus Tax Bill. The bill was vetoed June 2 but ultimately formed the core of the compromise Tax Bill introduced in the September 27 Special Session.

On August 18, a "Reconciliation Team" was appointed in which Republicans were outnumbered 20 to 4. During seven meetings and 20 hours of discussion, public testimony and efforts by Republicans to discuss tax reform goals were squelched.

From September 19 to September 22, House Speaker Bob Vanasek, House Majority Leader Dee Long, Senate Majority Leader Roger Moe, Senate Tax Committee Chair Douglas Johnson, and Governor Rudy Perpich met to negotiate differences in the vetoed bill and the Governor's proposal. The public was barred from the meetings. The news media was barred from the meetings. Republican leaders were barred from the meetings. However, two paid lobbyists were summoned into the meetings in the early morning of September 22, and an agreement was subsequently reached.

We hereby protest the actions of the leaders of the House, Senate, and Governor's office—all under control by the same political party—to conspire to negotiate a major bill but bar the public, media, and minority caucus from the negotiating process.

The closed-door, one-party meetings were followed with an attempt to ramrod the Tax Bill through the special legislative session. The 397-page bill was made available to legislators on September 25, and DFL leadership unsuccessfully attempted to suspend the Rules in order to pass it in a one-day session on September 27. The hasty timetable leaves insufficient time for legislators of either political party to adequately research the bill and leaves virtually no opportunity for the public and local officials to study its impact and comment publicly on it.

These actions, born forth from the arrogance of a one-party system, clearly run contrary to the principles of an open, representative democracy, and contrary to Minnesota's tradition of clean and honest government.

PROTEST AND DISSENT

Pursuant to Article IV, Section 11, of the Minnesota Constitution, we, the undersigned members of the Minnesota House of Representatives, do hereby protest and dissent the contention by the House Republican minority that the public, the media, and the minority caucus were barred from participation in negotiating the compromise Property Tax Reform Bill of 1989, and we protest the fact that Republicans, while in control of the House during 1985 and 1986, banned the public, the media, and the minority caucus from input on major tax and budget bills.

The vetoed tax bill, which formed the core of the compromise tax bill, received five months of public hearings and public testimony prior to passage. The media, public, House minority caucus, Senate, and Executive Branch were all involved in the formulation of the 1989 regular session tax bill. In addition, the compromise tax bill presented in Special Session received over 119 hours of public testimony, minority caucus participation, and media coverage between the House, the Senate, and the Governor's Office during 36 meetings held from June to September, 1989. In addition, the House DFL held six teleconferences and six press conferences and press briefings on taxes from June to September, 1989, plus innumerable interviews with individual representatives of the media.

The Republican minority caucus in the House and/or Senate had access to and were allowed input in the following:

Governor's Hearings: 20 hours (10 meetings)
House Ways and Means Meeting: 3 hours
House Appropriations Meeting: 3 hours
House Tax Committee on Governor's Veto and Proposal:
9 hours (3 meetings)

Winona/Rochester Tax Meetings: 3 hours

Winona Town Meeting: 3 hours (including questions following meeting)

Senate Tax Hearings: 6 hours (2 meetings)
House/Senate Reconciliation Team: 21 hours (7 meetings)
Reconciliation Team Working Groups: 20 hours (5 meetings)
House Tax and Appropriations Meetings (9/25-9/28):
21 hours (4 meetings)
Senate Tax Meetings (9/25-9/28): 6 hours (3 meetings)
Meetings Between House DFL and IR Leaders on the tax bill:
4 hours

During the week of Special Session and following the introduction of the compromise tax bill, 27 hours of public meetings were held in the House and Senate during which time minority caucuses in both bodies received copies of the bill and were allowed to introduce amendments.

Therefore, the House Majority made every effort to include Minority Party and public input and media access, and the contents of and the bipartisan vote on the compromise tax bill demonstrate this fact.

In contrast, we protest the House Republican process of closed government and the process by which they offered tax and budget bills during the 1985 and 1986 sessions while they controlled the House.

The Republican tax bill in 1985 was pushed through after closed door sessions and "no effort to conduct public negotiations" (St. Paul Pioneer Press, 6/85). The minority (DFL members) did not receive a copy of the bill until Thursday, June 20, 1985, the day the floor vote was taken, and even then, copies were given to every other member only.

During 1986, the Republican Budget Balancing Bill was conceived in the dead of night on a legal holiday, with no public, media, or minority participation, although the bill made major changes in public services and the operation of state government and made 30 percent reductions in income maintenance payments to poor children and the disadvantaged.

We also protest objections by the minority party to legislative sessions held around the state which encourage public input and access and the Republican rejection of a DFL amendment to permit public testimony on all bills before committees in 1986. We believe these objections are contrary to their supposed adherence to open government and representative democracy.

The House majority party thus protests the false statements made by the House minority party.
