REPORTS OF STANDING COMMITTEES

Welle from the Committee on Health and Human Services to which was referred:

H. F. No. 1728, A bill for an act relating to human services; creating a technology assistance review panel; requiring a study of the feasibility of developing a shared risk pool for technology-assisted persons; appropriating money; proposing coding for new law in Minnesota Statutes, chapter 256.

Reported the same back with the following amendments:

Delete everything after the enacting clause and insert:

“Section 1. [256.9691] [TECHNOLOGY ASSISTANCE REVIEW PANEL.]

Subdivision 1. [ESTABLISHMENT.] The commissioner of health shall establish a technology assistance review panel to resolve disputes over the provision of health care benefits for technology-assisted persons who receive benefits under a policy or plan of health, medical, hospitalization, or accident and sickness insurance regulated under chapter 62A, a subscriber contract of a nonprofit health service plan corporation regulated under chapter 62C, or a certificate of coverage of a health maintenance organization regulated under chapter 62D.

Subd. 2. [DEFINITION.] For purposes of this section, “technology-assisted person” means a person who:

- (1) has a chronic health condition;
- (2) requires the routine use of a medical device to compensate for the loss of a life-sustaining body function; and
- (3) requires ongoing care or monitoring by trained personnel on a daily basis.

Subd. 3. [STEERING COMMITTEE.] The commissioner shall appoint a seven-member steering committee to appoint the review panel members, develop policies and procedures for the review process, including the replacement of review panel members, serve as a liaison between the regulatory agencies and the review panel, and provide the review panel with technical assistance. The steering committee shall consist of representatives of the departments of health, human services, and commerce; a health maintenance organization regulated under chapter 62D; an insurer regulated under chapter 62A or a health service plan corporation regulated under chapter 62C; an advocacy organization representing persons who are technology assisted; and a tertiary care center that serves technology-assisted persons. The steering committee shall not be reimbursed for any expenses as defined under section 15.0575, subdivision 3. The steering committee shall dissolve no later than June 30, 1992.

Subd. 4. [COMPOSITION OF REVIEW PANEL.] (a) The review panel shall be appointed by the members of the steering committee that do not represent state agencies and must include:

(1) a medical director from an insurer regulated under chapter 62A, a health service plan corporation regulated under chapter 62C, or a health maintenance organization regulated under chapter 62D;

(2) a contract benefits analyst from an insurer regulated under chapter 62A, a health service plan corporation regulated under chapter 62C, or a health maintenance organization regulated under chapter 62D;

(3) a consumer board member of an insurer regulated under chapter 62A, a health service plan corporation regulated under chapter 62C, or a health maintenance organization regulated under chapter 62D;

(4) a physician with expertise in providing care for technology-assisted persons in a nonhospital setting;

(5) a registered nurse with expertise in providing care for technology-assisted persons in a nonhospital setting; and

(6) a consumer of health care benefits regulated under chapter 62A, 62C, or 62D who is a technology-assisted person or the parent or guardian of a technology-assisted person.

(b) The term of service for review panel members is three years except that, for the initial appointment, the steering committee shall establish procedures to assure that the terms of the members are staggered. Members are eligible to serve two consecutive terms.

Subd. 5. [AUTHORITY.] The review panel may review cases involving disputes over the provision of contract benefits regarding discharge planning, home health care benefits eligibility and coverage, or changes in the level of home health care services for technology-assisted persons. The review may be requested by a third-party payor, a health or social service professional, or a parent or guardian of a technology-assisted child or a technology-assisted adult. For the case to be eligible for review by the panel, the parent or guardian of a technology-assisted child or technology-assisted adult must consent to the review. The review panel may not review cases involving discharge to a long-term care facility. The review panel may seek advice from experts outside the membership of the panel as necessary. The internal grievance process within an insurer, health service plan corporation, or health maintenance organization must be exhausted before requesting a review by the review panel. The recommendations of the review panel are not binding. If, following a review by the review panel, a complaint is filed with the appropriate state agency regarding the same subject matter, the findings of the review panel must be made available to the agency upon request and with the consent of the parent or guardian of a technology-assisted child or technology-assisted adult. The information must be maintained by the agency as nonpublic information under chapter 13. The steering committee may establish policies for reimbursement of expenses for review panel members consistent with the provisions of section 15.0575, subdivision 3.

Subd. 6. [CONFIDENTIALITY.] All proceedings of the review organization are nonpublic under chapter 13. All data, information, and findings acquired and developed by the review panel in the exercise of its duties or functions must be held in confidence, may not be disclosed to anyone except to the extent necessary to carry out one or more of the purposes of the review panel or as described in subdivision 5, and are not subject to subpoena or discovery. Members of the review panel may not disclose what transpired at a meeting of the review panel except to the extent necessary to carry out one or more of the purposes of the review panel. The proceedings and record of the review panel are not subject to discovery or introduction into evidence in any civil action against a health care professional or insurer, health service plan corporation, or health maintenance organization, arising out of the matter or matters that are the subject of consideration by the review panel.

Subd. 7. [LIMITATION ON LIABILITY FOR MEMBERS OF STEERING COMMITTEE AND REVIEW PANEL.] A person who is a member of, or who acts in an advisory capacity to or who gives counsel or services to, the steering committee or review panel is not liable for damages or other relief in any action brought by a person or persons whose case has been reviewed by the panel, by reason of the performance of any duty, function, or activity of the review panel, unless the performance of the duty, function, or activity was motivated by malice toward the person affected. A member is not liable for damages or other relief in any action by reason of the performance of the member of any duty, function, or activity as a member of the steering committee or review panel or by reason of any recommendation or action of the review committee when the member acts in the reasonable belief that the action or recommenation is warranted by the facts known to the member or review panel after reasonable efforts to ascertain the facts.

Sec. 2. [APPROPRIATION.]

$ is appropriated from the general fund to the commissioner of health for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1991, for the purpose of operating the technology assistance review panel. The commissioner may contract with an organization or entity to provide administrative support services for the review panel.

With the recommendation that when so amended the bill pass and be re-referred to the Committee on Appropriations.

The report was adopted.

"Sec. 3. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 626.556, subdivision 10e, is amended to read:

Subd. 10e. [DETERMINATIONS.] Upon the conclusion of every assessment or investigation it conducts, the local welfare agency shall make two determinations: first, whether maltreatment has occurred; and second, whether child protective services are needed.

(a) For the purposes of this subdivision, "maltreatment" means any of the following acts or omissions committed by a person responsible for the child's care:

(1) ~~an assault, as defined in section 609.02, subdivision 10, or any physical contact not exempted by section 609.379, where the assault~~ or physical contact is either severe or recurring and causes either injury or significant risk of injury to the child physical abuse as defined in subdivision 2, paragraph (d);

- (2) neglect as defined in subdivision 2, paragraph (c); or
- (3) sexual abuse as defined in subdivision 2, paragraph (a); or
- (4) mental injury as defined in section 1.

(b) For the purposes of this subdivision, a determination that child protective services are needed means that the local welfare agency has documented conditions during the assessment or investigation sufficient to cause a child protection worker, as defined in section 626.559, subdivision 1, to conclude that a child is at significant risk of maltreatment if protective intervention is not provided and that the individuals responsible for the child's care have not taken or are not likely to take actions to protect the child from maltreatment or risk of maltreatment.

(c) This subdivision does not mean that maltreatment has occurred solely because the child's parent, guardian, or other person responsible for the child's care in good faith selects and depends upon spiritual means or prayer for treatment or care of disease or remedial care of the child, in lieu of medical care. However, if lack of medical care may result in imminent and serious danger to the child's health, the local welfare agency may ensure that necessary medical services are provided to the child."

"Sec. 3. [APPROPRIATIONS.]

$250,000 is appropriated from the general fund to the commissioner of human services for the state fiscal year ending June 30, 1991. The sum shall be used to reimburse counties who suffered a reduction in state aids under section 256E.06, subdivision 7. The amount to be reimbursed shall be the total sum of aid lost for calendar years 1982 to 1990 which is directly attributable to a carryforward of the aid reduction made under section 256E.06, subdivision 7, in calculating subsequent allocations under section 256E.06, subdivision 2. Counties are not to be reimbursed for any one year reduction in aids imposed under section 256E.06, subdivision 7. If the sum appropriated by this section is insufficient to reimburse all eligible counties, the amount shall be prorated among all counties in proportion to their reduction attributable to the carryforward of aid reductions relative to the total of such reductions imposed on all counties for the period in question.

"Sec. 11. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 245.4874, is amended to read:

245.4874 [DUTIES OF COUNTY BOARD.]

The county board in each county shall use its share of mental health and community social service act funds allocated by the commissioner according to a biennial local children's mental health service proposal required under section 245.4887, and approved by the commissioner. The county board must:

(1) develop a system of affordable and locally available children's mental health services according to sections 245.487 to 245.4887;

(2) establish a central point of information and referral about children's mental health services and assure that parents and providers in the county receive information about how to access services provided according to sections 245.487 to 245.4887;

(3) coordinate the delivery of children's mental health services with services provided by social services, education, corrections, health, and vocational agencies to improve the availability of mental health services to children and the cost effectiveness of their delivery;

(3) (4) assure that mental health services delivered according to sections 245.487 to 245.4887 are delivered expeditiously and are appropriate to the child's diagnostic assessment and individual treatment plan;

(4) (5) provide the community with information about predictors and symptoms of emotional disturbances and how to access children's mental health services according to sections 245.4877 and 245.4878;

(5) (6) provide for case management services to each child with severe emotional disturbance according to sections 245.486; 245.4871, subdivisions 3 and 4; and 245.4881, subdivisions 1, 3, and 5;

(6) (7) provide for screening of each child under section 245.4885 upon admission to a residential treatment facility, acute care hospital inpatient treatment, or informal admission to a regional treatment center;

(7) (8) prudently administer grants and purchase-of-service contracts that the county board determines are necessary to fulfill its responsibilities under sections 245.487 to 245.4887;

(8) (9) assure that mental health professionals, mental health practitioners, and case managers employed by or under contract to the county to provide mental health services are qualified under section 245.4871; and

(9) (10) assure that children's mental health services are coordinated with adult mental health services specified in sections 245.461 to 245.486 so that a continuum of mental health services is available to serve persons with mental illness, regardless of the person's age.

Sec. 12. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 245.4875, subdivision 5, is amended to read:

Subd. 5. [LOCAL CHILDREN'S ADVISORY COUNCIL.] (a) By October 1, 1989, the county board, individually or in conjunction with other county boards, shall establish a local children's mental health advisory council or children's mental health subcommittee of the existing local mental health advisory council or shall include persons on its existing mental health advisory council who are representatives of children's mental health interests. The following individuals must serve on the local children's mental health advisory council, the children's mental health subcommittee of an existing local mental health advisory council, or be included on an existing mental health advisory council: (1) at least one person who was in a mental health program as a child or adolescent; (2) at least one parent of a child or adolescent with severe emotional disturbance; (3) one children's mental health professional; (4) representatives of minority populations of significant size residing in the county; (5) a representative of the children's mental health local coordinating council; and (6) one family community support services program representative.

(b) The local children's mental health advisory council or children's mental health subcommittee of an existing advisory council shall seek input from parents, former consumers, providers, and others about the needs of children with emotional disturbance in the local area and services needed by families of these children, and shall meet at least quarterly monthly to review, evaluate, and make recommendations regarding the local children's mental health system. Annually, the local children's mental health advisory council or children's mental health subcommittee of the existing local mental health advisory council shall:

(1) arrange for input from the local system of care providers regarding coordination of care between the services; and

(2) identify for the county board the individuals, providers, agencies, and associations as specified in section 245.4877, clause (2).

(c) The county board shall consider the advice of its local children's mental health advisory council or children's mental health subcommittee of the existing local mental health advisory council in carrying out its authorities and responsibilities."

Subd. 2. [QUALIFICATIONS.] No later than January 1, 1992 1991, screening of children for residential and inpatient services must be conducted by a mental health professional. Mental health professionals providing screening for inpatient and residential services must not be financially affiliated with any acute care inpatient hospital, residential treatment facility, or regional treatment center. The commissioner may waive this requirement for mental health professional participation in sparsely populated areas after January 1, 1991, if the county documents that:

(1) mental health professionals or mental health practitioners are unavailable to provide this service; and

(2) services are provided by a designated person with training in human services who receives clinical supervision from a mental health professional."

"Sec. 27. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 245.697, subdivision 2a, is amended to read:

Subd. 2a. [SUBCOMMITTEE ON CHILDREN'S MENTAL HEALTH.] The state advisory council on mental health (the "advisory council") must have a subcommittee on children's mental health. The subcommittee must make recommendations to the advisory council on policies, laws, regulations, and services relating to children's mental health. Members of the subcommittee must include:

(1) the commissioners or designees of the commissioners of the departments of human services, health, education, state planning, finance, and corrections;

(2) the commissioner of commerce or a designee of the commissioner who is knowledgeable about medical insurance issues;

(3) at least one representative of an advocacy group for children with emotional disturbances;

(4) providers of children's mental health services, including at least one provider of services to preadolescent children, one provider of services to adolescents, and one hospital-based provider;

(5) parents of children who have emotional disturbances;

(6) a present or former consumer of adolescent mental health services;

(7) educators currently working with emotionally disturbed children;

(8) people knowledgeable about the needs of emotionally disturbed children of minority races and cultures;

(9) people experienced in working with emotionally disturbed children who have committed status offenses;

(10) members of the advisory council;

(11) one person from the local corrections department and one representative of the Minnesota district judges association juvenile committee; and

(12) county commissioners and social services agency representatives.

The chair of the advisory council shall appoint subcommittee members described in clauses (3) to (11) through the process established in section 15.0597. The chair shall appoint members to ensure a geographical balance on the subcommittee. Terms, compensation, removal, and filling of vacancies are governed by subdivision 1, except that terms of subcommittee members who are also members of the advisory council are coterminous with their terms on the advisory council. The subcommittee shall meet at the call of the subcommittee chair who is elected by the subcommittee from among its members. The subcommittee expires with the expiration of the advisory council.”

REPORTS OF STANDING COMMITTEES

Kalis from the Committee on Transportation to which was referred:

H. F. No. 1569, A bill for an act relating to highways; abolishing authority of a city to disapprove the abandonment, change, or revocation of a county state-aid highway; providing that 30 percent of the county state-aid highway fund be apportioned on the basis of lane-miles; changing the composition of the county state-aid screening board; amending Minnesota Statutes 1988, sections 162.02, subdivision 10; and 162.07, subdivisions 1 and 5.

Reported the same back with the following amendments:

"Section 1. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 162.02, subdivision 8, is amended to read:

Subd. 8. [APPROVAL BY CITY.] No portion of the county state-aid highway system lying within the corporate limits of any city shall be constructed, reconstructed, or improved nor the grade thereof changed without the prior approval of the plans by the governing body of such city and the approval shall be in the manner and form required by the commissioner. unless (1) the action has been approved by the city council of the city in which the portion lies, in the manner and form prescribed by the commissioner, or (2) the action has been authorized by the commissioner as provided in subdivision 8a.

Sec. 2. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 162.02, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 8a. [REVIEW COMMITTEE.] If a county proposes to abandon, change, revoke, construct, reconstruct, improve, or change the grade of a portion of a county state-aid highway lying within a city, and the city has refused to approve the action as provided in subdivision 8 or 10, the county may refer the dispute to the commissioner for resolution. On receiving such a request, the commissioner shall establish a review committee consisting of the following five members:

(1) one county commissioner and one county engineer, both appointed by the commissioner from the membership of the county state-aid advisory committee established in subdivision 2;

(2) one city council member and one city engineer, both appointed by the commissioner from the membership of the municipal state-aid rules advisory committee established in section 162.09, subdivision 2; and

(3) the department of transportation state-aid engineer or the state-aid engineer's designate.

The review committee must within 30 days of its establishment, after notice to the affected city and county and to the commissioner, hold at least one public hearing on the disputed action. At the completion of its hearings, the review committee shall make a recommendation to the commissioner. Within ten days of receiving the review committee's recommendation, the commissioner shall issue an order (1) authorizing the action, (2) authorizing the action as modified by the commissioner, or (3) refusing to authorize the action. A county may not proceed with an action referred to the commissioner under this subdivision except in accordance with the commissioner's order."

Pages 2 and 3, delete section 3 and insert:

"Sec. 5. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 162.07, subdivision 5, is amended to read:

Subd. 5. [SCREENING BOARD.] On or before September 1 of each year the county engineer of each county shall forward to the commissioner, on forms prepared by the commissioner, all information relating to the mileage of the county state-aid highway system in the county, and the money needs of the county that the commissioner deems necessary in order to apportion the county state-aid highway fund in accordance with the formula heretofore set forth. Upon receipt of the information the commissioner shall appoint a board consisting of nine county engineers. The board shall be so selected that each one county engineer appointed shall be from a different from each state highway construction district, plus three additional engineers from the highway construction district which includes Anoka, Carver, Chisago, Dakota, Hennepin, Ramsey, Scott, and Washington counties. Of the four county engineers appointed from this district, two shall be appointed from Anoka, Hennepin, Carver, and Scott counties, and two shall be appointed from Chisago, Dakota, Ramsey, and Washington counties. No county engineer shall be appointed so as to serve consecutively for more than two years. The board shall investigate and review the information submitted by each county and shall on or before the first day of November of each year submit its findings and recommendations in writing as to each county's mileage and money needs to the commissioner on a form prepared by the commissioner. Final determination of the mileage of each system and the money needs of each county shall be made by the commissioner.

Sec. 6. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 162.13, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [SCREENING COMMITTEE.] On or before September 1 of each year, the engineer of each city having a population of 5,000 or more shall forward to the commissioner on forms prepared by the commissioner, all information relating to the money needs of the city that the commissioner deems necessary in order to apportion the municipal state-aid street fund in accordance with the apportionment formula heretofore set forth. Upon receipt of the information the commissioner shall appoint a board of city engineers. The board shall be composed consists of (1) one engineer from each state highway construction district, (2) one additional engineer from the district which includes Anoka, Carver, Chisago, Dakota, Hennepin, Ramsey, Scott, and Washington counties, and in addition thereto, (3) one additional engineer from each city of the first class. Of the two engineers appointed from the district which includes Anoka, Carver, Chisago, Dakota, Hennepin, Ramsey, Scott, and Washington counties, one must be appointed from Anoka, Hennepin, Carver, or Scott county and one must be appointed from Chisago, Dakota, Ramsey, or Washington county. The board shall investigate and review the information submitted by each city. On or before November 1 of each year, the board shall submit its findings and recommendations in writing as to each city's money needs to the commissioner on a form prepared by the commissioner. Final determination of the money needs of each city shall be made by the commissioner. In the event that any city shall fail to submit the information provided for herein, the commissioner shall estimate the money needs of the city. The estimate shall be used in solving the apportionment formula. The commissioner may withhold payment of the amount apportioned to the city until the information is submitted.

Sec. 7. [EFFECTIVE DATE.]

Sections 1 to 6 are effective the day following final enactment."

Subdivision 1. [RESERVATION OF MARGINAL LAND AND WETLANDS.] Notwithstanding any other law, marginal land and wetlands are withdrawn from sale by the state unless use of the marginal land or wetland is restricted by a conservation easement as provided in this section. This section does not apply to transfers of land by the board of water and soil resources to correct errors in legal descriptions under section 73, subdivision 8, or to transfers by the commissioner of natural resources for:

(1) land that is currently in nonagricultural commercial use if a conservation easement would interfere with the commercial use;

(2) land in platted subdivisions;

(3) conveyances of land to correct errors in legal descriptions under section 84.0273;

(4) exchanges of nonagricultural land with the federal government, or exchanges of Class A, Class B, and Class C nonagricultural land with local units of government under sections 94.342, 94.343, 94.344, and 94.349;

(5) land transferred to political subdivisions for public purposes under sections 84.027, subdivision 10, and 94.10; and

(6) land not needed for trail purposes that is sold to adjacent property owners and lease holders under section 85.015, subdivision 1, paragraph (b).

Subd. 2. [DELINEATION OF WETLAND OR MARGINAL LAND.] (a) Before state land is sold, the land must be submitted to the board of water and soil resources to determine and delineate the marginal land and wetlands to be reserved or restricted by a conservation easement. The delineation of the reservation or conservation easement need not be by legal description and may be a description, in general terms that identifies the marginal land or wetlands.

(b) Marginal land and wetlands may not be sold unless restricted by a conservation easement with the restrictions provided in section 73, subdivision 4, paragraphs (a) and (c), and other restrictions determined necessary by the board of water and soil resources.

Subd. 3. [SCHOOL TRUST LAND.] If the sale of school trust land as defined in section 92.025 is restricted by a conservation easement and the restriction results in a reduction of the amount received from the sale, the commissioner of natural resources must determine the amount of the reduction. The amount of the reduction in sale price must be paid from appropriations to acquire conservation easements and shall be credited to the account to which the proceeds from the sale are credited.

Subd. 4. [RELEASE AND ALTERATION OF CONSERVATION EASEMENT.] The board may alter, release, or terminate a conservation easement created under this section after consultation with the commissioners of agriculture and natural resources. The board may alter, release, or terminate a conservation easement only if the board determines the public interests and general welfare are better served by the alteration, release, or termination. Registered nurses may prescribe and administer prescription drugs and therapeutic devices in accordance with rules adopted by the board of nursing under this section. The board of nursing shall promulgate rules to provide for the following:

(1) a system of identifying registered nurses eligible to prescribe drugs and therapeutic devices;

(2) a method of determining the categories of prescription drugs and therapeutic devices that each registered nurse is allowed to prescribe; and

(3) a system of transmitting to pharmacists a listing of registered nurses eligible to prescribe prescription drugs and therapeutic devices and the types of drugs and therapeutic devices they are allowed to prescribe.

For purposes of adopting rules under this section, the board of nursing shall establish and appoint a rules advisory task force composed of the following six members:

(1) three registered nurses;

(2) two pharmacists; and

(3) one physician.

The rules advisory task force shall review and make recommendations to the board of nursing on the merit of all suggested rules relating to the prescription of therapeutic devices and prescription drugs by registered nurses. No rule relating to the prescribing of prescription drugs and therapeutic devices by registered nurses shall be proposed by the board of nursing without first being submitted to the task force for review and comment.

The board of the Minnesota medical association shall appoint two physicians, and the board of the Minnesota nurses association shall appoint two nurses, to a protocol development task force that shall propose a standardized format for the written protocols to the board of nursing for incorporation into the rules required by this section. Subd. 2. Whoever solicits or accepts a solicitation to engage for hire in sexual penetration or sexual contact while in a public place may be sentenced to imprisonment for not more than one year or to payment of a fine of not more than $3,000 or both. Except as otherwise provided in subdivision 4, a person who is convicted of violating this subdivision while acting as a patron must, at a minimum, be sentenced to pay a fine of at least $1,500.

Sec. 2. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 609.324, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. Whoever intentionally does any of the following may be sentenced to imprisonment for not more than 90 days or to payment of a fine of not more than $700, or both:

(1) Engages in prostitution with an individual 18 years of age or above; or

(2) Hires or offers or agrees to hire an individual 18 years of age or above to engage in sexual penetration or sexual contact. Except as otherwise provided in subdivision 4, a person who is convicted of violating clause (1) or (2) while acting as a patron must, at a minimum, be sentenced to pay a fine of at least $500.

Whoever violates the provisions of this subdivision within ~~two~~ five years of a previous conviction may be sentenced to imprisonment for not more than one year or to payment of a fine of not more than $3,000, or both. Except as otherwise provided in subdivision 4, a person who is convicted of a gross misdemeanor violation of this subdivision while acting as a patron, must, at a minimum, be sentenced to pay a fine of at least $1,500 and, in those counties where section 609.3241 applies, ordered to pay an assessment of $500.

Sec. 3. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 609.324, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 4. [COMMUNITY SERVICE IN LIEU OF MINIMUM FINE.] The court may order a person convicted of violating subdivision 2 or 3 to perform community work service in lieu of all or a portion of the minimum fine required under those subdivisions if the court makes specific, written findings that the convicted person is indigent or that payment of the fine would create undue hardship for the convicted person or that person's immediate family.

“Section 1. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 151.37, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 2a. A supervising physician, as defined in Minnesota Rules, part 5600.2600, may delegate to a physician assistant, who is registered with the board of medical examiners, certified by the National Commission on Certification of Physician Assistants, and who is under the supervising physician's supervision, the authority to prescribe and administer legend drugs and medical devices, subject to a process of retrospective review by the supervising physician, as established in rule.

Sec. 2. [RULES.]

By June 1, 1991, the commissioner of health shall amend Minnesota Rules, part 5600.2635, to require the agreement between the physician assistant and supervising physician and any alternate supervising physicians to include a statement by the supervising physician regarding delegation or nondelegation of the functions of prescribing and administering of legend drugs and medical devices to the physician assistant. This statement shall include a protocol indicating categories of drugs for which the supervising physician delegates prescriptive authority. This delegation shall be appropriate to the physician assistant's practice and within the scope of the physician assistant's training.

By June 1, 1991, the commissioner of health shall amend Minnesota Rules, part 5600.2615, subpart 2, to include, as an allowed service, the prescription and administration of legend drugs and medical devices as delegated by the supervising physician, subject to retrospective review and the limitations in the supervisory agreement. The commissioner of health shall review whether there are certain categories of drugs for which delegated prescribing is inappropriate.

By June 1, 1991, the commissioner of health shall amend Minnesota Rules, parts 5600.2630 and 5600.2645, to require physician assistants who have been delegated the authority to prescribe and administer legend drugs and medical devices to provide evidence of current certification by the National Commission on Certification of Physician Assistants, when registering or reregistering as physician assistants.

By June 1, 1991, the commissioner of health shall adopt rules to require supervising physicians to retrospectively review, on a daily basis, the prescribing and administering of legend drugs and medical devices by physician assistants, when this authority has been delegated to the physician assistant as part of the agreement required by Minnesota Rules, part 5600.2635. During each on-site visit, the supervising physician shall document by signature and date that the prescriptive practice of the physician assistant has been reviewed.

By June 1, 1991, the commissioner of health shall adopt rules to develop:

(1) a system of identifying physician assistants eligible to prescribe drugs and therapeutic devices;

(2) a method of determining the categories of prescription drugs and therapeutic devices that each physician assistant is allowed to prescribe; and

(3) a system of transmitting to pharmacists a listing of physician assistants eligible to prescribe prescription drugs and therapeutic devices and the types of drugs and therapeutic devices they are allowed to prescribe."

McEachern from the Committee on Education to which was referred:

H. F. No. 1771, A bill for an act relating to education; giving Cambridge full campus status in the community college system; appropriating money; amending Minnesota Statutes 1988, sections 136.60 and 136.602.

Reported the same back with the recommendation that the bill pass and be re-referred to the Committee on Appropriations.

The report was adopted.

Kelly from the Committee on Judiciary to which was referred:

H. F. No. 1836, A bill for an act relating to meetings of public bodies; government data practices; defining final disposition of a disciplinary action regarding personnel records; making clear that meetings may not be closed on the basis of data classification statutes; providing an exception to the open meeting law for preliminary discussions concerning allegations of misconduct against government employees; amending Minnesota Statutes 1988, sections 13.43, subdivision 2; and 471.705, by adding subdivisions.

Reported the same back with the following amendments:

Delete everything after the enacting clause and insert:

"Section 1. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 13.43, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [PUBLIC DATA.] (a) Except for employees described in subdivision 5, the following personnel data on current and former employees, volunteers, and independent contractors of a state agency, statewide system, or political subdivision and members of advisory boards or commissions is public: name; actual gross salary; salary range; contract fees; actual gross pension; the value and nature of employer paid fringe benefits; the basis for and the amount of any added remuneration, including expense reimbursement, in addition to salary; job title; job description; education and training background; previous work experience; date of first and last employment; the existence and status of any complaints or charges against the employee, whether or not the complaint or charge resulted in a disciplinary action; and the final disposition of any disciplinary action together with the specific reasons for the action and supporting documentation data documenting the basis of the action, excluding data that would identify confidential sources who are employees of the public body; the terms of any agreement settling administrative or judicial proceedings involving individuals described in paragraph (c); work location; a work telephone number; badge number; honors and awards received; payroll time sheets or other comparable data that are only used to account for employee's work time for payroll purposes, except to the extent that release of time sheet data would reveal the employee's reasons for the use of sick or other medical leave or other not public data; and city and county of residence.

(b) For purposes of this subdivision, a final disposition occurs with respect to an individual described in paragraph (c) when the state agency, statewide system, or political subdivision makes its final decision about the disciplinary action, regardless of the possibility of any later proceedings or court proceedings. In the case of arbitration proceedings arising under collective bargaining agreements, a final disposition occurs at the conclusion of the arbitration proceedings. Final disposition includes a resignation by an individual after a disciplinary action has been initiated; except that in the case of teachers and law enforcement officers there is a final disposition only when the resignation occurs after the final decision of the state agency, statewide system, or political subdivision.

(c) An individual is subject to paragraph (b) if:

(1) the individual is an executive, manager, or supervisor;

(2) the individual is a teacher or law enforcement officer; or

(3) the individual is responsible for the care of minors or vulnerable adults and the person's conduct puts the minors or vulnerable adults at substantial risk.

Sec. 2. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 471.705, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 1d. [TREATMENT OF DATA CLASSIFIED AS NOT PUBLIC.] (a) Meetings may not be closed to discuss data that are not public data. Data that are not public data may be discussed at a meeting subject to this section without liability or penalty, if the disclosure relates to a matter within the scope of the public body's authority, is reasonably necessary to conduct the business or agenda item before the public body, and is without malice. During an open meeting, a public body may make reasonable efforts to protect from disclosure data that are not public data, including where practical acting by means of reference to a letter, number, or other designation that does not reveal the identity of the data subject. Data discussed at an open meeting or reflected in a record of the meeting retain the data's original classification.

(b) Notwithstanding paragraph (a), any portion of a meeting must be closed if expressly required by other law or if the following types of data are discussed:

(1) data that would identify alleged victims of criminal sexual conduct, domestic abuse, or child abuse;

(2) private personnel data on individuals not described in section 13.43, subdivision 2, paragraph (c);

(3) data on individuals collected, maintained, used, or disseminated by the welfare system, as defined in section 13.46, provided that the data cannot be reduced to summary data;

(4) active investigative data or internal affairs data collected or created by a law enforcement agency, as defined in section 13.82, subdivision 5; or

(5) educational data, medical data, or mental health data that are not public data under section 13.32, 13.42, or 13.46, subdivision 7, respectively.

(c) Notwithstanding paragraph (a), a public body shall close a meeting for preliminary consideration of allegations or charges against an individual subject to its authority. If the members conclude that discipline of any nature is warranted, further meetings or hearings relating to an individual described in section 13.43, subdivision 2, paragraph (c), shall be open. A meeting shall also be open at the request of the individual who is the subject of the meeting.

(d) Notwithstanding paragraph (a), a public body may at its discretion close a meeting to evaluate the performance of an individual described in section 13.43, subdivision 2, who is subject to its authority. The public body shall identify the individual to be evaluated prior to closing a meeting. At its next open meeting, the public body shall summarize its conclusions regarding the evaluation. A meeting shall be open at the request of the individual who is the subject of the meeting.

(e) Meetings may also be closed if expressly authorized by other law.

Sec. 3. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 471.705, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 1e. [REASONS FOR CLOSING A MEETING.] Before closing a meeting, a public body shall state on the record the specific grounds permitting the meeting to be closed and describe the subject to be discussed.

Sec. 4. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 471.705, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 1f. [CONSTITUENT MEETINGS.] The notice described in subdivision 1c is not required where members of a public body attend a meeting with constituents to report to them or to discuss public business with them, provided that the meeting occurs at the invitation of the constituents, the meeting is open to the public, no vote or decision is made at the meeting, at least five constituents attend the meeting, and the meeting is not held at the public body's regular meeting location. The public body shall upon request provide the date, time, place, and purpose of the meeting. For purposes of this subdivision, "constituent" does not include members of, employees of, or a person under contract with the public body."

Kalis from the Committee on Transportation to which was referred:

H. F. No. 1898, A bill for an act relating to public safety; providing for inspection of commercial motor vehicles; setting fees; prescribing a penalty; increasing complement of state patrol; amending Minnesota Statutes 1988, sections 221.031, subdivision 1, and by adding a subdivision; 221.221, subdivisions 2 and 3; and 221.605, subdivision 1; Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 221.031, subdivision 2a; proposing coding for new law in Minnesota Statutes, chapter 169.

Reported the same back with the following amendments:

Delete everything after the enacting clause and insert:

"Section 1. [169.781] [ANNUAL INSPECTION OF COMMERCIAL MOTOR VEHICLES.]

Subdivision 1. [DEFINITIONS.] For purposes of sections 1 to 3:

(a) A "commercial vehicle" is:

(1) any commercial motor vehicle as defined in section 169.01, subdivision 75; and

(2) a motor vehicle registered as a farm truck that otherwise is described in section 169.01, subdivision 75, paragraph (a).

Unless otherwise stated, "commercial motor vehicle" includes each vehicle in a combination drawn by a commercial motor vehicle.

Commercial motor vehicle does not include a school bus displaying a certificate under section 169.451.

(b) "Commissioner" is the commissioner of public safety.

(c) "Owner" means a person who owns, or has control of through a lease of more than 30 days' duration, one or more commercial motor vehicles.

Subd. 2. [INSPECTION REQUIRED.] No person may operate a commercial motor vehicle registered in Minnesota, and no person may permit the operation of a commercial motor vehicle under that person's control, unless the vehicle displays a valid safety inspection decal issued by the commissioner.

Subd. 3. [WHO MAY INSPECT.] (a) An inspection meeting the requirements of this section may be performed by:

(1) an employee of the department of public safety or transportation who has been certified by the commissioner after having received training provided by the state patrol; or

(2) a person certified to perform inspections after having received training provided by the state patrol.

The commissioner shall certify under clause (2) only a person who (i) is an owner of five or more commercial motor vehicles that are power units, or is an employee of the owner, or (ii) is a dealer licensed under section 168.27 and engaged in the business of buying and selling commercial motor vehicles or an employee of the dealer. Certification under clause (2) is effective for one year from the date of certification. The commissioner may require annual retraining of persons holding a certificate under this paragraph as a condition of renewal of the certificate. A person certified under clause (2) may charge a fee of not more than $50 for each inspection of a vehicle not owned by the person or the person's employer.

(b) The commissioner may classify types of vehicles for inspection purposes. The commissioner may adopt separate inspection procedures and issue separate classes of inspector certificates for each class.

(c) The commissioner, after notice and a hearing, may suspend a certificate issued under paragraph (a), clause (2), for (1) failure to meet annual certification requirements prescribed by the commissioner, or (2) failure to inspect commercial motor vehicles in accordance with state patrol inspection procedures. The commissioner shall revoke a certificate issued under paragraph (a), clause (2), when the commissioner determines after notice and a hearing that the certified person issued an inspection decal for a commercial motor vehicle when the person knew or reasonably should have known that the commercial motor vehicle was in such a state of repair that it would have been declared out of service if inspected by an employee of the state patrol. Suspension and revocation of certificates under this subdivision are not subject to the contested case provisions of the administrative procedure act.

Subd. 4. [INSPECTION REPORTS.] (a) A person performing an inspection shall issue an inspection report to the owner of each commercial motor vehicle inspected. The report must include the following information:

(1) the name and signature of the person performing the inspection, and any inspector certification number given that person by the commissioner;

(2) if applicable, the United States Department of Transportation carrier number issued to the owner of the vehicle, or to the operator of the vehicle if other than the owner;

(3) the license plate number and vehicle identification number of the vehicle;

(4) the date and location of the inspection;

(5) the vehicle components inspected and a description of the findings of the inspection, including identification of those components not meeting the minimum standards of federal motor carrier regulations; and

(6) the inspector's certification that the inspection was complete, accurate, and in compliance with the requirements of this subdivision.

(b) A copy of the inspection report must be kept by the vehicle's owner for at least one year at a location in the state where the vehicle is domiciled or maintained. The report must be available for inspection by an authorized federal, state, or local official at any time during the period in which the report is required to be retained.

(c) The commissioner shall prescribe the contents of the inspection report and revise it as necessary to comply with state law and federal law and regulations. The report form is not subject to the administrative procedure act.

Subd. 5. [INSPECTION DECALS.] (a) The person performing the inspection shall issue an inspection decal for each commercial motor vehicle when each inspected component complies with federal motor carrier regulations. The decal must state that in a month specified on the decal the commercial motor vehicle was inspected and each inspected component passed the inspection in accordance with the terms of federal motor carrier regulations. The decal is valid for 12 months after the month specified on the decal. The commissioners of public safety and transportation shall make decals available, at a fee of not more than $2 for each decal, to persons certified to perform inspections under subdivision 3, paragraph (a), clause (2).

(b) Minnesota inspection decals may be affixed only to commercial motor vehicles bearing Minnesota-based license plates.

Subd. 6. [AUDITS; REVIEWS; RANDOM INSPECTIONS.] Employees of the state patrol and motor transportation representatives of the department of transportation have the authority to (1) review records required to be kept under subdivision 4, paragraph (b); (2) conduct random vehicle inspections at the facility of an owner of a commercial motor vehicle; and (3) conduct audits at the facility of an owner of a commercial motor vehicle under chapters 221 and 296 and federal motor vehicle safety regulations.

Subd. 7. [DISPOSITION OF REVENUES.] The commissioner shall pay all revenues received under this section to the state treasurer for deposit in the trunk highway fund.

Subd. 8. [VIOLATIONS; PENALTY.] A violation of this section is a misdemeanor.

Subd. 9. [FORMS.] The adoption of forms required under this section is not subject to the administrative procedure act.

Sec. 2. [169.782] [DAILY INSPECTION OF COMMERCIAL MOTOR VEHICLES.]

Subdivision 1. [DRIVERS; DAILY INSPECTION REPORT] (a) The driver of each commercial motor vehicle must report in writing at the completion of each day's work on each commercial motor vehicle the driver has operated. A person who owns one or more commercial motor vehicles and who employs drivers for those commercial motor vehicles must require each driver to report as required in this section. The report must cover the following parts and accessories: service brakes, including trailer and semitrailer brake connections; parking (hand) brake; steering mechanism; lighting devices and reflectors; tires; horn; windshield wiper or wipers; rear vision mirror or mirrors; coupling devices; wheels and rims; and emergency equipment.

(b) The report must identify the vehicle and list any defect or deficiency discovered by or reported to the driver that would affect the safe operation of the vehicle or result in its mechanical breakdown. If no defect or deficiency is discovered by or reported to the driver, the report must so indicate. The driver must sign the report after completing it. In the case of a commercial motor vehicle operated by two drivers, the signature of one of the drivers satisfies the requirements of this subdivision if both drivers agree concerning the defects or deficiencies. If a driver operates more than one commercial motor vehicle during a day's work, a report must be prepared for each vehicle operated.

(c) Before operating a commercial motor vehicle on which a report has been prepared under this subdivision, the owner of a commercial motor vehicle or the owner's agent must repair the defects or deficiencies listed on the report that would be sufficient under the state patrol inspection procedures to require the vehicle to be declared out of service. Before allowing the commercial motor vehicle to again be operated, the owner or the owner's agent must certify, on each report listing the defect or deficiency, that the defect or deficiency has been corrected or that correction is unnecessary. A motor carrier must keep the original copy of the vehicle inspection report, and any certification of repairs in connection with the report, for at least three months after the date of inspection. The report must be available for inspection by an authorized federal, state, or local official at any time during the period in which the report is required to be kept.

(d) A copy of the vehicle inspection report, including a certification of corrections resulting from the report, must be carried in the commercial motor vehicle, or in the power unit of a commercial motor vehicle combination, at all times when the vehicle or power unit is operated until the next inspection report is completed under this subdivision. The copy must be made available on demand to (1) a peace officer, (2) a person authorized to enforce section 221.221, and (3) a person described in section 229D.06.

Subd. 2. [DRIVERS; PRETRIP INSPECTION.] (a) Before driving the vehicle, each driver of a commercial motor vehicle must:

- (1) review the most recent vehicle inspection report on the vehicle;
- (2) determine that the vehicle is in safe operating condition; and
- (3) sign the inspection report in the vehicle. The driver shall sign the report only if all defects and deficiencies listed in the report have been certified as having been corrected or as not requiring correction.

(b) If the commercial motor vehicle does not contain the previous day's inspection report, the driver must make the inspection and complete the report required under subdivision 1. Subdivision 1 applies to a report made under this paragraph.

Subd. 3. [OPERATION PROHIBITED.] It is a misdemeanor to drive or to cause another to drive a commercial motor vehicle that does not contain a copy of an inspection report complying with this section.

Subd. 4. [EXCEPTIONS.] (a) This section, other than subdivision 2, paragraph (a), clause (2), does not apply to a commercial motor vehicle that is a farm truck that may be operated by a person not holding a commercial driver's license.

(b) This section does not apply to a commercial motor vehicle held for resale by a motor vehicle dealer licensed under section 168.27.

Sec. 3. [169.783] [ACCIDENTS; REINSPECTION.]

Subdivision 1. [POSTCRASH INSPECTION.] A peace officer responding to an accident involving a commercial motor vehicle defined in section 1, must immediately notify the state patrol if the accident results in death, personal injury, or property damage to an apparent extent of more than $4,500. It is a misdemeanor for a person to drive or cause to be driven a commercial motor vehicle after such an accident unless the commercial motor vehicle (1) has been inspected by a state trooper or other person authorized to conduct inspections under section 1, subdivision 3, paragraph (a), clause (1), and the person inspecting the vehicle has determined that the vehicle may safely be operated, or (2) a waiver has been granted under subdivision 2.

Subd. 2. [WAIVER.] A state trooper or other person called to the scene of an accident by a responding peace officer under subdivision 1 may waive the inspection requirement of that subdivision if the person determines that a postcrash inspection is not needed or cannot be accomplished without unreasonable delay. A person who grants a waiver must provide the driver of each commercial motor vehicle involved in the accident a written statement to the effect that the inspection has been waived. The written statement must include the incident report number assigned to the accident by the state patrol.

Sec. 4. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 221.031, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [POWERS, DUTIES, REPORTS, LIMITATIONS.]
(a) This subdivision applies to motor carriers engaged in intrastate commerce.

(b) The commissioner shall prescribe rules for the operation of motor carriers, including their facilities, accounts, leasing of vehicles and drivers, service, safe operation of vehicles, equipment, parts and accessories, maximum hours of service of drivers, driver qualifications, accident reporting, identification of vehicles, installation of safety devices, inspection, repair, and maintenance, and proper automatic speed regulators if, in the opinion of the commissioner, there is a need for the rules.

(c) The commissioner shall direct the repair and reconstruction or replacement of an inadequate or unsafe motor carrier vehicle or facility. The commissioner may require the construction and maintenance or furnishing of suitable and proper freight terminals, passenger depots, waiting rooms, and accommodations or shelters in a city in this state or at a point on the highway traversed which the commissioner, after investigation by the department, may deem just and proper for the protection of passengers or property.

(d) The commissioner shall require the filing of annual and other reports including annual accounts of motor carriers, schedules of rates and charges, or other data by motor carriers, regulate motor carriers in matters affecting the relationship between them and the traveling and shipping public, and prescribe other rules as may be necessary to carry out the provisions of this chapter.

(e) A motor carrier having gross revenues from for-hire transportation in a calendar year of less than $50,000 may, at the discretion of the commissioner, be exempted from the filing of an annual report, if instead of filing the report the motor carrier files an affidavit, in a form as may be prescribed by the commissioner, attesting that the motor carrier's gross revenues did not exceed $50,000 in the previous calendar year. Motor carrier gross revenues from for-hire transportation, for the purposes of this subdivision only, do not include gross revenues received from the operation of school buses as defined in section 169.01, subdivision 6.

(f) The commissioner shall enforce sections 1 to 3.

(g) The commissioner shall make no rules relating to the granting, limiting, or modifying of permits or certificates of convenience and necessity, which are powers granted to the board.

(h) The board may extend the termini of a route or alter or change the route of a regular route common carrier upon petition and after finding that public convenience and necessity require an extension, alteration, or change.

Sec. 5. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 221.031, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 8. [DRIVEAWAY-TOWAWAY EXEMPTION.] Notwithstanding Minnesota Rules, part 8850.9000, for purposes of regulating commercial motor vehicles as defined in section 1, subdivision 1, the exemption provided in Code of Federal Regulations, title 49, section 396.11, paragraph (d), applies in Minnesota only to drive-away-towaway operations.

Sec. 6. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 221.031, subdivision 2a, is amended to read:

Subd. 2a. [AGRICULTURAL EXEMPTIONS.] (a) Notwithstanding the provisions of subdivision 2, private carriers engaged in intrastate commerce and operating vehicles transporting agricultural and other farm products within an area having a 50-mile radius from the business location of the private carrier must comply only with the commissioner's rules for safety of operations and equipment, except as provided in paragraph (b).

(b) A rear-end dump truck or other rear-unloading truck while being used for hauling agricultural and other farm products from a place of production or on-farm storage site to a place of processing or storage, is not subject to any rule of the commissioner requiring rear-end protection, including a federal regulation adopted by reference.

(c) A private carrier that is a commercial motor vehicle as defined in section 1, subdivision 1, must comply with sections 1 to 3.

Sec. 7. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 221.221, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [POWERS.] Transportation representatives and hazardous material specialists of the department for the purpose of enforcing the provisions of this chapter ~~and section, sections 1 to 3~~ and 296.17, subdivisions 10 and 17, and the applicable rules, orders, or directives of the commissioner, the commissioner of revenue, and the board issued under this chapter and chapter 296, but for no other purpose, have the powers conferred by law upon police officers. The powers include the authority to conduct inspections at designated highway weigh stations or under other appropriate circumstances.

Sec. 8. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 221.221, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [DELEGATED POWERS.] Representatives of the department to whom authority has been delegated by the commissioner for the purpose of enforcing sections 1 to 3, 221.041, and 221.171 and the rules, orders, or directives of the commissioner or board adopted or issued under those sections, and for no other purpose, shall have the powers conferred by law upon police officers. The representatives of the department have the power to inspect records, logs, freight bills, bills of lading, or other documents which may provide evidence to determine compliance with sections 1 to 3, 221.041, and 221.171.

Sec. 9. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 221.605, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [FEDERAL REGULATIONS.] Interstate carriers and private carriers engaged in interstate commerce shall comply with the federal motor carrier safety regulations, Code of Federal Regulations, title 49, parts 390 to 398, and with the rules of the commissioner concerning inspections, vehicle and driver out-of-service restrictions and requirements, and vehicle, driver, and equipment checklists. For purposes of regulating commercial motor vehicles as defined in section 1, subdivision 1, the exemption provided in Code of Federal Regulations, title 49, section 396.11, paragraph (d), applies in Minnesota only to driveaway-towaway operations.

Sec. 10. [STATE PATROL COMPLEMENT.]

The complement of the state patrol in the department of public safety is increased by three state trooper positions and one clerical staff person to administer the program under sections 1 to 3.

Sec. 11. [EFFECTIVE DATE.]

Sections 1 to 10 are effective July 1, 1990."

"Sec. 6. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 176.011, subdivision 9, is amended to read:

Subd. 9. [EMPLOYEE.] "Employee" means any person who performs services for another for hire including the following:

(1) an alien;

(2) a minor;

(3) a sheriff, deputy sheriff, constable, marshal, police officer, firefighter, county highway engineer, and peace officer while engaged in the enforcement of peace or in the pursuit or capture of a person charged with or suspected of crime;

(4) a person requested or commanded to aid an officer in arresting or retaking a person who has escaped from lawful custody, or in executing legal process, in which cases, for purposes of calculating compensation under this chapter, the daily wage of the person shall be the prevailing wage for similar services performed by paid employees;

(5) a county assessor;

(6) an elected or appointed official of the state, or of a county, city, town, school district, or governmental subdivision in the state. An officer of a political subdivision elected or appointed for a regular term of office, or to complete the unexpired portion of a regular term, shall be included only after the governing body of the political subdivision has adopted an ordinance or resolution to that effect;

(7) an executive officer of a corporation, except those executive officers excluded by section 176.041;

(8) a voluntary uncompensated worker, other than an inmate, rendering services in state institutions under the commissioners of human services and corrections similar to those of officers and employees of the institutions, and whose services have been accepted or contracted for by the commissioner of human services or corrections as authorized by law. In the event of injury or death of the worker, the daily wage of the worker, for the purpose of calculating compensation under this chapter, shall be the usual wage paid at the time of the injury or death for similar services in institutions where the services are performed by paid employees;

(9) a voluntary uncompensated worker engaged in peace time in the civil defense program when ordered to training or other duty by the state or any political subdivision of it. The daily wage of the worker, for the purpose of calculating compensation under this chapter, shall be the usual wage paid at the time of the injury or death for similar services performed by paid employees;

(10) a voluntary uncompensated worker participating in a program established by a county welfare board. In the event of injury or death of the worker, the wage of the worker, for the purpose of calculating compensation under this chapter, shall be the usual wage paid in the county at the time of the injury or death for similar services performed by paid employees working a normal day and week;

(11) a voluntary uncompensated worker accepted by the commissioner of natural resources who is rendering services as a volunteer pursuant to section 84.089. The daily wage of the worker for the purpose of calculating compensation under this chapter, shall be the usual wage paid at the time of injury or death for similar services performed by paid employees;

(12) a member of the military forces, as defined in section 190.05, while in state active service, as defined in section 190.05, subdivision 5a. The daily wage of the member for the purpose of calculating compensation under this chapter shall be based on the member's usual earnings in civil life. If there is no evidence of previous occupation or earning, the trier of fact shall consider the member's earnings as a member of the military forces;

(13) a voluntary uncompensated worker, accepted by the director of the Minnesota historical society, rendering services as a volunteer, pursuant to chapter 138. The daily wage of the worker, for the purposes of calculating compensation under this chapter, shall be the usual wage paid at the time of injury or death for similar services performed by paid employees;

(14) a voluntary uncompensated worker, other than a student, who renders services at the Minnesota state academy for the deaf or the Minnesota state academy for the blind, and whose services have been accepted or contracted for by the state board of education, as authorized by law. In the event of injury or death of the worker, the daily wage of the worker, for the purpose of calculating compensation under this chapter, shall be the usual wage paid at the time of the injury or death for similar services performed in institutions by paid employees;

(15) a voluntary uncompensated worker, other than a resident of the veterans home, who renders services at a Minnesota veterans home, and whose services have been accepted or contracted for by the commissioner of veterans affairs, as authorized by law. In the event of injury or death of the worker, the daily wage of the worker, for the purpose of calculating compensation under this chapter, shall be the usual wage paid at the time of the injury or death for similar services performed in institutions by paid employees;

(16) a worker who renders in-home attendant care services to a physically handicapped person, and who is paid directly by the commissioner of human services for these services, shall be an employee of the state within the meaning of this subdivision, but for no other purpose;

(17) students enrolled in and regularly attending the medical school of the University of Minnesota in the graduate school program or the postgraduate program. The students shall not be considered employees for any other purpose. In the event of the student's injury or death, the weekly wage of the student for the purpose of calculating compensation under this chapter, shall be the annualized educational stipend awarded to the student, divided by 52 weeks. The institution in which the student is enrolled shall be considered the "employer" for the limited purpose of determining responsibility for paying benefits under this chapter;

(18) a faculty member of the University of Minnesota employed for an academic year is also an employee for the period between that academic year and the succeeding academic year if:

(a) the member has a contract or reasonable assurance of a contract from the University of Minnesota for the succeeding academic year; and

(b) the personal injury for which compensation is sought arises out of and in the course of activities related to the faculty member's employment by the University of Minnesota;

(19) a worker who performs volunteer ambulance driver or attendant services is an employee of the political subdivision, nonprofit hospital, nonprofit corporation, or other entity for which the worker performs the services. The daily wage of the worker for the purpose of calculating compensation under this chapter shall be the usual wage paid at the time of injury or death for similar services performed by paid employees;

(20) a voluntary uncompensated worker, accepted by the commissioner of administration, rendering services as a volunteer at the department of administration. In the event of injury or death of the worker, the daily wage of the worker, for the purpose of calculating compensation under this chapter, shall be the usual wage paid at the time of the injury or death for similar services performed in institutions by paid employees; and

(21) a voluntary uncompensated worker rendering service directly to the pollution control agency. The daily wage of the worker for the purpose of calculating compensation payable under this chapter is the usual going wage paid at the time of injury or death for similar services if the services are performed by paid employees; and

(22) a voluntary uncompensated worker while volunteering services as a first responder or as a member of a law enforcement assistance organization while acting under the supervision and authority of a political subdivision. The daily wage of the worker for the purpose of calculating compensation payable under this chapter is the usual going wage paid at the time of injury or death for similar services if the services are performed by paid employees.

If it is difficult to determine the daily wage as provided in this subdivision, the trier of fact may determine the wage upon which the compensation is payable."

Reported the same back with the following amendments:

Page 1, line 19, delete the new language and insert "liqueur-filled candies,"

Subd. 2. [SPECIAL PROVISION; CITY OF MINNEAPOLIS.] (a) The city of Minneapolis may issue an on-sale intoxicating liquor license to the Guthrie Theatre, the Cricket Theatre, the Orpheum Theatre, and the State Theatre, notwithstanding the limitations of law, or local ordinance, or charter provision relating to zoning or school or church distances. The licenses authorize sales on all days of the week to holders of tickets for performances presented by the theatres and to members of the nonprofit corporations holding the licenses and to their guests.

(b) The city of Minneapolis may issue an intoxicating liquor license to 510 Groveland Associates, a Minnesota cooperative, for use by a restaurant on the premises owned by 510 Groveland Associates, notwithstanding limitations of law, or local ordinance, or charter provision.

(c) Notwithstanding any other law, local ordinance, or charter provision, the city of Minneapolis may issue one or more on-sale intoxicating liquor licenses to the owner of the sports arena located at 600 First Avenue North in the city of Minneapolis or an entity holding a concessions contract with the owner for use on the premises of that sports arena. The license authorizes sales on all days of the week to holders of tickets for sporting events or other events at the sports arena, and to the owner of the sports arena and the owner's guests. The licensee may not dispense intoxicating liquor to any person attending or participating in an amateur athletic event held on the premises.

Sec. 4. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 340A.404, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [NOTICE TO THE COMMISSIONER.] A city shall within ten days of the issuance of a license under subdivision 1 or 5, inform the commissioner of the licensee's name and address and trade name, and the effective date and expiration date of the license. The city shall also inform the commissioner of a license transfer, cancellation, suspension, or revocation during the license period."

Page 3, delete lines 1 to 5 and insert "this section may permit a person purchasing a full bottle of wine in conjunction with the purchase of a meal to remove the bottle on leaving the licensed premises, provided that the bottle has been opened and the contents partially consumed. A removal of a bottle under the conditions described in this subdivision is not an off-sale of intoxicating liquor and may be permitted without additional license.

Sec. 6. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 340A.405, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [COUNTIES.] (a) A county may issue an off-sale intoxicating license with the approval of the commissioner to exclusive liquor stores located within unorganized territory of the county.

(b) A county board of any county except Ramsey county containing a town exercising powers under section 368.01, subdivision 1, may issue an off-sale license to an exclusive liquor store within that town with the approval of the commissioner. No license may be issued under this paragraph unless the town board adopts a resolution supporting the issuance of the license.

(c) A county board of any county except Ramsey county containing a town that may not exercise powers under section 368.01, subdivision 1, may issue a combination off-sale and on-sale license to restaurants within that town with the approval of the commissioner pursuant to section 340A.404, subdivision 6. No license may be issued under this paragraph unless the town board adopts a resolution supporting the issuance of the license.

(d) No license may be issued under this subdivision unless a public hearing is held on the issuance of the license. Notice must be given to all interested parties and to any city located within three miles of the premises proposed to be licensed. At the hearing the county board shall consider testimony and exhibits presented by interested parties and may base its decision to issue or deny a license upon the nature of the business to be conducted and its impact upon any municipality, the character and reputation of the applicant, and the propriety of the location. Any hearing held under this paragraph is not subject to chapter 14.

(e) A county board may not issue a license under this subdivision to a person for an establishment located less than three miles by the most direct route from the boundary of any statutory or home rule city except cities of the first class or within Pine, Carlton, Carver, or Red Lake county within three miles of a statutory or home rule city with a municipal liquor store.

(f) (e) The town board may impose an additional license fee in an amount not to exceed 20 percent of the county license fee.

(g) (f) Notwithstanding any provision of this subdivision or Laws 1973, chapter 566, as amended by Laws 1974, chapter 200, a county board may transfer or renew a license that was issued by a town board under Minnesota Statutes 1984, section 340.11, subdivision 10b, prior to January 1, 1985.

Sec. 7. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 340A.504, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [NONINTOXICATING MALT LIQUOR.] No sale of nonintoxicating malt liquor may be made between 1:00 a.m. and 8:00 a.m. on the days of Monday through Saturday, nor between 1:00 a.m. and 12:00 noon on Sunday, provided that an establishment located on land owned by the metropolitan sports commission, or the sports arena for which one or more licenses have been issued under section 340A.404, subdivision 2, paragraph (c), may sell nonintoxicating malt liquor between 10:00 a.m. and 12:00 noon on a Sunday on which a sports or other event is scheduled to begin at that location on or before 1:00 p.m. of that day.

Sec. 8. [CITY OF ST. PAUL; WINE AND BEER LICENSES.]

Subdivision 1. [LICENSE AUTHORIZED.] The city of St. Paul may issue on-sale nonintoxicating malt liquor licenses and on-sale wine licenses to the city's division of parks and recreation. The licenses authorize the sale of wine or nonintoxicating malt liquor on property owned by the city and under the jurisdiction of the division, by:

(1) employees of the city;

(2) persons holding a permit from the division to conduct an event and sell wine or nonintoxicating malt liquor to persons attending the event; or

(3) persons who have contracted with the city to sell wine or nonintoxicating malt liquor on such property.

Subd. 2. [PERMITS, CONTRACTS.] (a) Permits issued by the city under subdivision 1, clause (2), and contracts entered into by the city under subdivision 1, clause (3), must provide for:

- (1) the duration of the permit or contract;
- (2) the premises or area in which sales of wine or nonintoxicating malt liquor will be made;
- (3) the persons to whom such sales will be made;
- (4) the days and hours in which such sales will be made; and
- (5) obtaining by the permit holder or contracted vendor of such liquor liability insurance or bond, or both, as the city considers necessary to protect the city's interest as the holder of the license.

(b) A permit may be issued or a contract entered into under this section with a person who does not hold a license issued under Minnesota Statutes, chapter 340A, for the retail sale of alcoholic beverages.

(c) The division may, without notice or hearing, refuse to issue a permit under subdivision 1, clause (2).

Subd. 3. [CITY COUNCIL APPROVAL.] The St. Paul city council must approve each:

- (1) facility at which wine or nonintoxicating malt liquor will be sold by city employees;
- (2) permit issued under subdivision 1, clause (2); and
- (3) contract entered into under subdivision 1, clause (3).

Subd. 4. [APPLICABILITY OF GENERAL LAW.] All provisions of Minnesota Statutes, chapter 340A, not inconsistent with this section apply to licenses issued under this section. Licenses authorized by this section are in addition to any other licenses authorized by law.

Sec. 9. [EARLE BROWN HERITAGE CENTER LICENSE.]

In addition to any license authorized by law, the city of Brooklyn Center may issue one on-sale intoxicating liquor license for the Earle Brown Heritage Center convention center. The license shall authorize the sale and serving of liquor to persons attending events at the center, other than amateur athletic events. The license fee and hours of sale shall be set by the city council within the limits imposed by law. All provisions of Minnesota Statutes, chapter 340A, not inconsistent with this section apply to this license.

Sec. 10. [DULUTH LICENSE.]

Notwithstanding any law to the contrary, the city of Duluth may issue an on-sale intoxicating liquor license to a restaurant located at 109 North Second Avenue West in the city of Duluth. The license authorized by this section is in addition to any other licenses authorized by law. All provisions of Minnesota Statutes, chapter 340A, not inconsistent with this section apply to the license authorized by this section.

Section 3 is effective on approval by the Minneapolis city council and compliance with Minnesota Statutes, section 645.021. Section 4 is effective the day following final enactment. Section 8 is effective on approval by the St. Paul city council and compliance with section 645.021. Section 9 is effective on approval by the Brooklyn Center city council and compliance with section 645.021. Section 10 is effective on approval by the Duluth city council and compliance with section 645.021.”

MESSAGES FROM THE SENATE

The following messages were received from the Senate:

Mr. Speaker:

I hereby announce the adoption by the Senate of the following Senate Concurrent Resolution, herewith transmitted:

Senate Concurrent Resolution No. 9, A senate concurrent resolution providing session deadline dates for the legislature pursuant to Joint Rule 2.03.

PATRICK E. FLAHAVEN, Secretary of the Senate

SUSPENSION OF RULES

Long moved that the rules be so far suspended that Senate Concurrent Resolution No. 9 be now considered and be placed upon its adoption. The motion prevailed.

SENATE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION NO. 9

A senate concurrent resolution providing session deadline dates for the legislature pursuant to Joint Rule 2.03.

Whereas, Joint Rule 2.03, paragraph (b) requires the legislature to establish session deadline dates for even-numbered year sessions; Now, Therefore,

Be It Resolved, by the Senate of the State of Minnesota, the House of Representatives concurring; that committee reports on bills favorably acted upon by a committee in the house of origin after Friday, March 9, 1990, and committee reports on bills originating in the other house favorably acted upon by a committee after Friday, March 16, 1990, shall be referred in the Senate to the Committee on Rules and Administration and in the House of Representatives to the Committee on Rules and Legislative Administration for disposition. Referral is not required when a committee, after the earlier date and by the later date set by this paragraph, acts on a bill that is a companion to a bill that has met the earlier deadline in the other house. This requirement does not apply to the Senate Committees on Finance and on Taxes and Tax Laws, and the House Committees on Appropriations and on Taxes.

After Friday, April 6, 1990, neither house shall act on bills other than those contained in:

- (1) Reports of conference committees;
- (2) Messages from the other house;
- (3) Reports of the Committee on Rules and Administration in the Senate or the Committee on Rules and Legislative Administration in the House; or
- (4) Messages from the Governor.

Long moved that Senate Concurrent Resolution No. 9 be now adopted. The motion prevailed and Senate Concurrent Resolution No. 9 was adopted.

Mr. Speaker:

I hereby announce that the Senate refuses to adopt the Conference Committee report on House File No. 796, and requests that H. F. No. 796 be returned to the Conference Committee as formerly constituted:

H. F. No. 796, A bill for an act relating to state lands; authorizing sale of certain tax-forfeited lands that border public waters in Pine county.

Said House File is herewith returned to the House.

PATRICK E. FLAHAVEN, Secretary of the Senate

Carlson, D., moved that the House accede to the request of the Senate and that H. F. No. 796 be returned to the Conference Committee as formerly constituted. The motion prevailed.

H. F. No. 168, A bill for an act relating to education; requiring post-secondary education administrators and faculty members to take certain coursework; appropriating money; proposing coding for new law in Minnesota Statutes, chapter 135A.

Reported the same back with the following amendments:

Delete everything after the enacting clause and insert:

"Section 1. [REPORT ON TRAINING OF POST-SECONDARY ADMINISTRATION AND FACULTY.]

Subdivision 1. [LEGISLATIVE INTENT.] The Minnesota legislature recommends that (1) post-secondary administrators have training in administrative skills relevant to their position in areas such as management, affirmative action, human relations, and contract negotiations; and (2) faculty have training in educational psychology, teaching methods, and advising students. Similar training is recommended for students preparing for post-secondary teaching or administrative careers.

Subd. 2. [REPORT.] Each post-secondary governing board shall examine its current programs that provide initial training and continuing education for its administrators and faculty to improve their administrative, teaching, and advising skills. The boards shall report to the education committees on their existing programs and their future plans by January 15, 1991."

Delete the title and insert:

Osthoff from the Committee on Financial Institutions and Housing to which was referred:

H. F. No. 693, A bill for an act relating to animals; requiring landlords to allow elderly tenants to keep certain pets; proposing coding for new law in Minnesota Statutes, chapter 504.

Reported the same back with the following amendments:

Delete everything after the enacting clause and insert:

"Section 1. [504.36] [PETS IN RENTAL HOUSING; DEPOSITS.]

A renter who is 55 years of age or older who resides alone in a unit of a building or alone in a building, and where the developer or owner of the building receives financial assistance or the renter receives a rent subsidy or other assistance which directly reduces or eliminates the rental payment, must be allowed by the landlord to keep at least one spayed or neutered dog or one spayed or neutered cat or two birds in the renter's unit. A renter under this section may not keep an animal that constitutes a threat to the health or safety of other individuals, causes substantial physical damage to the property of others, or causes a noise nuisance or noise disturbance to other renters. The landlord may require the renter to pay an additional damage deposit in an amount reasonable to cover damage likely to be caused by the animal. The deposit is refundable at any time the renter leaves the unit of housing to the extent it exceeds the amount of damage actually caused by the animal.

"Financial assistance" means assistance from federal, state, or local units of government that reduces the development, construction, borrowing, or operating costs of a building. Financial assistance includes, but is not limited to, loans, grants, interest subsidies, tax credits, property tax deferments or reductions, property acquisition writedowns, tax abatements, and interest cost savings from tax-exempt bonds or other securities issued by a unit of government on behalf of a person."

With the recommendation that when so amended the bill pass.

Subdivision 1. [QUALIFICATION.] No newspaper in this state shall be entitled to any compensation or fee for publishing any public notice unless it is qualified as a medium of official and legal publication. A newspaper that is not qualified must inform a public body that presents a public notice for publication that it is not qualified. To be qualified as a medium of official and legal publication, a newspaper shall:

(a) be printed in the English language in newspaper format and in column and sheet form equivalent in printed space to at least 1,000 square inches;

(b) if a daily, be distributed at least five days each week, or if not a daily, be distributed at least once each week, for 50 weeks each year. In any week in which a legal holiday is included, not more than four issues of a daily paper are necessary;

(c) in at least half of its issues each year, have no more than 75 percent of its printed space comprised of advertising material and paid public notices. In all of its issues each year, have 25 percent, if published more often than weekly, or 50 percent, if weekly, of its news columns devoted to news of local interest to the community which it purports to serve. Not more than 25 percent of its total nonadvertising column inches in any issue may wholly duplicate any other publication unless the duplicated material is from recognized general news services;

(d) be circulated in the local public corporation which it purports to serve, and either have at least 500 copies regularly delivered to paying subscribers, or have at least 500 copies regularly distributed without charge to local residents;

(e) have its known office of issue established in either the county in which lies, in whole or in part, the local public corporation which the newspaper purports to serve, or in an adjoining county;

(f) file a copy of each issue immediately with the state historical society;

(g) be made available at single or subscription prices to any person, corporation, partnership, or other unincorporated association requesting the newspaper and making the applicable payment, or be distributed without charge to local residents;

(h) have complied with all the foregoing conditions of this subdivision for at least one year immediately preceding the date of the notice publication;

(i) the newspaper must between October 1 and December 31 of each year publish and submit to the secretary of state, along with a filing fee of $25, a sworn United States Post Office second-class statement of ownership and circulation or a statement of ownership and circulation verified by a recognized independent circulation auditing agency covering a period of not less than one year ending no earlier than the June 30 preceding the filing deadline;

Sec. 7. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 16B.28, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [REVOLVING FUND.] (a) [CREATION.] The materials distribution revolving fund is a separate fund in the state treasury. All money relating to the resource recovery program established under section 115A.15, subdivision 1, all money resulting from the acquisition, acceptance, warehousing, distribution, and public sale of surplus property, and all money resulting from the sale of centrally acquired, warehoused, and distributed supplies, materials, and equipment, and all money relating to the cooperative purchasing venture established under section 471.59 must be deposited in the fund. Money paid into the materials distribution revolving fund is appropriated to the commissioner for the purposes of the programs and services referred to in this section.

(b) [TRANSFER OR SALE TO STATE AGENCY.] When the state or an agency operating under a legislative appropriation obtains surplus property from the commissioner, the commissioner of finance must, at the commissioner's request, transfer the cost of the surplus property, including any expenses of acquiring, accepting, warehousing, and distributing the surplus property, from the appropriation of the state agency receiving the surplus property to the materials distribution revolving fund. The determination of the commissioner is final as to the cost of the surplus property to the state agency receiving the property.

(c) [TRANSFER OR SALE TO OTHER GOVERNMENTAL UNITS OR NONPROFIT ORGANIZATIONS.] When any governmental unit or nonprofit organization other than a state agency receives surplus property, supplies, materials, or equipment from the commissioner, the governmental unit or nonprofit organization must reimburse the materials distribution revolving fund for the cost of the property, including the expenses of acquiring, accepting, warehousing, and distributing it, in an amount the commissioner sets. The commissioner may, however, require the governmental unit or nonprofit organization to deposit in advance in the materials distribution revolving fund the cost of the surplus property, supplies, materials, and equipment upon mutually agreeable terms and conditions. The commissioner may charge a fee to political subdivisions and nonprofit organizations to establish their eligibility for receiving the property and to pay for costs of storage and distribution."

"Section 1. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 504.23, is amended to read:

504.23 [CODE VIOLATIONS, DISCLOSURE.]

All code violation records pertaining to a particular parcel of real property and the buildings, improvements and dwelling units located thereon kept by any state, county or city agency charged by the governing body of the appropriate political subdivision with the responsibility for enforcing a state, county or city health, housing, building, fire prevention or housing maintenance code shall be available to all persons having a reasonable need for the information contained in the records relating to the premises, at reasonable times and upon reasonable notice to the custodian of the records, for inspection, examination, abstracting or copying at the expense of the person obtaining the information. The persons to whom the records shall be available under this section include but are not limited to the following persons and their representatives:

(a) any person having any legal or beneficial interest in the premises, including a tenant;

(b) any person considering in good faith the lease or purchase of the premises; and

(c) any person authorized to request an inspection under section 566.19; and

(d) a party to any action related to the premises, including actions maintained pursuant to sections 504.18 and 566.18 to 566.33.

Sec. 2. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 566.18, subdivision 7, is amended to read:

Subd. 7. [BUILDING.] "Building" means:

(a) any building used in whole or in part as a dwelling, including single family homes, multiple family units such as apartments, and structures containing both dwelling units and units used for non-dwelling purposes, and also includes a manufactured home park, or

(b) any unoccupied building which was previously used in whole or in part as a dwelling and which constitutes a nuisance under section 561.01.

Sec. 3. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 566.18, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 9. [NEIGHBORHOOD ORGANIZATION.] "Neighborhood organization" means a nonprofit corporation incorporated under chapter 317 that satisfies clauses (1) and (2).

The corporation shall:

(1) designate in its articles of incorporation or bylaws a specific geographic community to which its activities are limited; and

(2) be formed for the purposes of promoting community safety, crime prevention, and housing quality in a nondiscriminatory manner.

For purposes of this chapter, an action taken by a neighborhood organization with the written permission of a tenant means, with respect to a building with multiple dwelling units, an action taken by the neighborhood organization with the written permission of the tenants of a majority of the units.

Sec. 4. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 566.19, is amended to read:

566.19 [INSPECTION, NOTICE.]

Subdivision 1. Upon demand by a tenant, neighborhood organization with the written permission of a tenant or, if a building is unoccupied, by a neighborhood organization, an inspection shall be made by the local authority charged with enforcing the code claimed to be violated.

Subd. 2. After an inspection of a building has been made upon demand by a tenant or neighborhood organization with the written permission of a tenant, the owner or the owner's agent and the complaining tenant or neighborhood organization shall be informed in writing by the inspector of any code violations discovered and a reasonable period of time shall be allowed in which to correct the violations.

Subd. 3. Where an inspection has been made, no action shall be brought pursuant to sections 566.18 to 566.33 except on expiration of the time thus granted without satisfactory repairs being accomplished to remove the code violations unless the tenant or neighborhood organization with the written permission of a tenant shall allege the time is excessive.

Subd. 4. No action may be commenced pursuant to sections 566.18 to 566.33 by a tenant of a building in which a violation as defined in section 566.18, subdivision 6, clauses (b) or (c), is alleged to exist or by a neighborhood organization with the written permission of a tenant of a building in which a violation as defined in section 566.18, subdivision 6, clause (b), is alleged to exist unless the owner is informed in writing of the alleged violation at least 14 days prior to the commencement of the action. The notice requirement may be waived upon a finding by the court that the owner cannot be located despite diligent efforts.

Sec. 5. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 566.20, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. An action may be brought in county district court, or municipal court in the counties of Hennepin, Ramsey or St. Louis, by any tenant of a building in which a violation, as defined in section 566.18, subdivision 6, is alleged to exist, or by any neighborhood organization with the written permission of a tenant of a building in which a violation, as defined in section 566.18, subdivision 6, clause (a) or (b), is alleged to exist, or by a neighborhood organization that has within its geographical area an unoccupied building in which a violation, as defined in section 566.18, subdivision 6, clause (a) or (b), is alleged to exist, or state, county or local department, or authority, charged with the enforcement of codes relating to health, housing, or building maintenance.

Sec. 6. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 566.25, is amended to read:

566.25 [JUDGMENT.]

Upon finding the complaint proved, the court may, in its discretion, do any or all of the following, either alone or in combination:

(a) Order the owner to remedy the violation or violations found by the court to exist if the court is satisfied that corrective action will be undertaken promptly; or

(b) Order the tenant to remedy the violation or violations found by the court to exist and deduct the cost from the rent subject to the terms as the court determines to be just; or

(c) Appoint an administrator with powers as set out in section 566.29, and

(1) direct that rents due:

(i) on and from the day of entry of judgment, in the case of petitioning tenants or neighborhood organizations, and

(ii) on and from the day of service of the judgment on all other tenants and commercial tenants of the building, if any, shall be deposited with the administrator appointed by the court, and

(2) direct that the administrator use the rents collected for the purpose of remedying the violations found to exist by the court paying the debt service, taxes and insurance, and providing the services necessary to the ordinary operation and maintenance of the building which the owner is obligated to provide but fails or refuses to provide; or

(d) Find the extent to which any uncorrected violations impair the tenants' use and enjoyment of the premises contracted for and order the rent abated accordingly. Should the court choose to enter judgment under this paragraph the parties shall be informed and the court shall find the amount by which the rent shall be abated; and

(e) After termination of administration, continue the jurisdiction of the court over the building for a period of one year and order the owner to maintain the building in compliance with all applicable state, county, and city health, safety, housing, building, fire prevention, and housing maintenance codes; and

(e) (f) Grant any other relief the court deems just and proper, including a judgment against the owner for reasonable attorney fees, not to exceed $500, in the case of a prevailing tenant or neighborhood organization. The $500 limitation does not apply to awards made under section 549.21 or other specific statutory authority.

Sec. 7. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 566.28, is amended to read:

566.28 [EVICITION PROCEEDINGS BY OWNER LIMITED.]

A tenant may not be evicted, nor may the tenant's obligations under a rental agreement be increased nor the services decreased, if the eviction or increase of obligations or decrease of services is intended as a penalty for the tenant's or neighborhood organization's complaint of a violation. The burden of proving otherwise shall be on the owner if said eviction or increase of obligations or decrease of services occurs within 90 days after the filing of the complaint, unless it is found that the complaint was not made in good faith. After 90 days the burden of proof shall be on the tenant.

Sec. 8. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 566.29, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [ADMINISTRATOR.] The administrator may be a person, local government unit or agency, other than an owner of the building, the inspector, the complaining tenant or any person living in the complaining tenant's dwelling unit. If a state or court agency is authorized by statute, ordinance or regulation to provide persons or neighborhood organizations to act as administrators under this section, the court may appoint such persons or neighborhood organizations as administrators to the extent they are available.

Sec. 9. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 566.29, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. The court may allow a reasonable amount for the services of administrators, and the expense of the administration from any rent moneys, or upon termination of administration, may enter judgment against the owner in a reasonable amount for the services and expenses incurred by the administrator.

Sec. 10. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 566.29, subdivision 4, is amended to read:

Subd. 4. [POWERS.] The administrator is authorized to:

(a) Collect rents from tenants and commercial tenants, evict tenants and commercial tenants for nonpayment of rent or other cause, ~~rent enter into leases for vacant dwelling units on a month to month basis, rent vacant commercial units with the consent of the owner and exercise all other powers necessary and appropriate to carry out the purposes of Laws 1973, chapter 611;~~

(b) Contract for the reasonable cost of materials, labor and services necessary to remedy the violation or violations found by the court to exist and for the rehabilitation of the property in order to maintain safe and habitable conditions over the useful life of the property, and make disbursements for payment therefor from funds available for the purpose;

(c) Provide any services to the tenants which the owner is obligated to provide but refuses or fails to provide, and pay for them from funds available for the purpose;

(d) Petition the court, after notice to the parties, for an order allowing the administrator to encumber the premise to secure funds to the extent necessary to cover the cost of materials, labor, and services, including reasonable fees for the administrator's services, necessary to remedy the violation or violations found by the court to exist and for rehabilitation of the property in order to maintain safe and habitable conditions over the useful life of the property, and to pay for them from funds derived from the encumbrance; and

(e) Petition the court, after notice to the parties, for an order allowing the administrator to receive funds made available for this purpose by the municipality to the extent necessary to cover the cost of materials, labor, and services necessary to remedy the violation or violations found by the court to exist and for rehabilitation of the property in order to maintain safe and habitable conditions over the useful life of the property, and pay for them from funds derived from the municipal sources. The municipality shall recover disbursements by special assessment on the real estate affected, bearing interest at the rate determined by the municipality, not exceeding the rate established for finance charges for open-end credit sales under section 334.16, subdivision 1, clause (b), with the assessment, interest and any penalties to be collected the same as special assessments made for other purposes under state statute or municipal charter."

SECOND READING OF SENATE BILLS

S. F. No. 1087 was read for the second time.

REPORT FROM THE COMMITTEE ON RULES AND LEGISLATIVE ADMINISTRATION

Long, for the Committee on Rules and Legislative Administration, offered the following report and moved its adoption:

Resolved, that the Permanent Rules of the House of Representatives for the 76th Session as adopted on February 2, 1989, and as amended on March 20, 1989, be further amended to read as follows:

(1) Rule 1.16 is amended to read:

1.16 TIME LIMIT FOR CONSIDERATION OF BILLS. If 20 legislative days after a bill has been referred to committee or division (other than a bill in Appropriations) no report has been made upon it by the committee or division, its chief author may request that it be returned to the House and the request shall be entered in the Journal for the day. The committee or division shall have ten calendar days thereafter in which to vote upon the bill requested. If the committee or division fails to vote upon it within the ten days, the chief author may, at any time within five calendar days thereafter, present a written demand to the Speaker for its immediate return to the House. The demand shall be entered in the Journal for that day and shall constitute the demand of the House. The bill shall then be considered to be in the possession of the House, given its second reading and placed at the end of General Orders.

Such bill is subject to re-reference by a majority vote of the whole House. If the motion to re-refer is made on the day of the demand or within one legislative day thereafter, the motion shall take precedence over all other motions except privileged motions and shall be in order at any time.

After ~~Friday, May 12, 1989~~ Monday, March 26, 1990, the House shall not act on bills other than those recommended by conference committee reports or the Committee on Rules and Legislative Administration, and those bills contained in messages from the Senate or from the Governor.

(2) Rule 3.4 is amended to read:

3.4 MOTION FOR RECONSIDERATION. When a question has been decided either in the affirmative or negative, it shall be in order for any member who voted with the prevailing side to move its reconsideration, provided that such motion is made either on the same day the vote was taken or within the following two days of actual session of the House. A motion for reconsideration can be made at any time in the Order of Business and shall take precedence over all other questions except the motion to adjourn and the notice of intention to move reconsideration. Such motion or notice shall not be in order if the document, bill, resolution, message, report or other official action on which the vote was taken shall have left the possession of the House.

When a member gives notice of intention to move reconsideration of the final action of the House on any bill, resolution, message, report or other official action, the Chief Clerk shall retain the same until after the matter is disposed of or the time has expired during which the motion for reconsideration can be made.

On the last day allowed for the motion to reconsider, it shall be in order for any member who voted on the prevailing side to make the motion, unless the matter has been already disposed of.

A motion for reconsideration having been voted upon and lost shall not be renewed.

In an odd-numbered year, notice of intention to move reconsideration shall not be in order after Monday, April 24, 1989.

In an even-numbered year, notice of intention to move reconsideration shall not be in order after Thursday, March 22, 1990.

(3) Rule 5.8 is amended to read:

5.8 BILLS AFFECTING STATE GOVERNMENT POWERS AND STRUCTURE. Any bill, whether originating in the House or the Senate, which creates or reestablishes any new department, agency, commission, board, task force, advisory committee or council, or bureau, or any other such entity, or which substantially changes or alters the organization of or delegates emergency rulemaking authority to or exempts from rulemaking any department or agency thereof of state government, or substantially changes, alters, vests or divests official rights, powers, or duties of any official, department or agency of the state government or any institution under its control, after being reported to the House, shall be referred, or re-referred, as the case may be, to the Committee on Governmental Operations for action by that committee. Any committee other than the Committee on Governmental Operations to which such bill is referred shall, in its report, recommend re-referral to the Committee on Governmental Operations.

(4) Rule 5.10 is amended to read:

5.10 WAYS AND MEANS COMMITTEE; RESOLUTION; EFFECT ON EXPENDITURES AND TAX BILLS. The Committee on Ways and Means shall hold hearings as necessary to determine state expenditures and taxes for the coming fiscal biennium. No later than April 6, 1989 March 19, 1990, the Committee on Ways and Means shall report a budget resolution to the House for consideration. The budget resolution shall take the form of a House resolution that sets the maximum limitation on expenditures and taxes for the coming fiscal biennium for the general fund and an amount to be set aside as a budget reserve. The limitation is effective, if adopted, unless the House adopts a different limitation in a subsequent budget resolution that accounts for increases or decreases in general fund revenues and expenditures anticipated for the current fiscal biennium.

No bill described in Rule 5.7 or 5.9 shall be given its second reading until the House has received a statement from the Committee on Ways and Means certifying that the major expenditure and tax bills are reconciled and do not exceed the limitation specified in the budget resolution for the general fund. Major expenditure and tax bills are: the education appropriation bill; the health and human services appropriation bill; the state departments appropriation bill; the agriculture, transportation and semi-state appropriation bill; the education finance bill; and the omnibus tax bill. However, a bill may be given its second reading by special authorization of the Committee on Ways and Means or by majority vote of the whole House. A special authorization may be reported by an oral notice to the House from the Chair of the Committee on Ways and Means or a designee of the Chair stating that the fiscal impact of a bill will be accounted for in the reconciliation statement.

The Committee on Appropriations and the Committee on Taxes, upon recommending passage of any bill described in Rule 5.7 or 5.9, shall provide to the Committee on Ways and Means a fiscal statement on the bill.

After the House has received a reconciliation statement from the Committee on Ways and Means, the House shall not give a second reading to any bill described in Rule 5.7 or 5.9 other than the major expenditure and tax bills. However, a bill may be given its second reading after the House has received from the Committee on Ways and Means a statement certifying that the fiscal impact of the bill is within the guidelines of the budget resolution, or after authorization by majority vote of the whole House. The statement of the Committee on Ways and Means may be reported orally by the Chair of the Committee on Ways and Means or a designee of the Chair.

(5) Rule 6.11 is amended to read:

6.11 CONFERENCE COMMITTEES. A conference committee may report at any time. No committee except a conference committee or the Committee on Rules and Legislative Administration shall sit during any daily session of the House without leave.

A conference committee report shall include only subject matter contained in the House or Senate versions of the bill for which that conference committee was appointed, or like subject matter contained in a bill passed by the House. The member presenting the conference committee report to the House shall disclose all substantive changes from the House version of the bill.

In an odd-numbered year except after Monday, May 15, 1989, and in an even-numbered year except after March 28, a written copy of a report of a conference committee shall be placed on the desk of each member of the House 24 hours before action on the report by the House. If the report has been reprinted in the Journal of the House for a preceding day and is available to the members, the Journal copy shall serve as the written report.

(6) Rule 9.3 is amended to read:

9.3 DEADLINES. In odd-numbered years, committee reports on bills favorably acted upon by a committee in the house of origin after Friday, April 14, 1989, and committee reports on bills originating in the other house favorably acted upon by a committee after Wednesday, April 26, 1989, shall be referred in the House of Representatives to the Committee on Rules and Legislative Administration for disposition. In even-numbered years, committee reports on bills favorably acted upon by a committee of the house of origin after Friday, March 9, and committee reports on bills originating in the other house favorably acted upon by a committee after Friday, March 16, shall be referred in the House of Representatives to the Committee on Rules and Legislative Administration for disposition. However, referral is not required after the first deadline when, by the second deadline, a committee acts on a bill that is a companion to a bill that has then been acted upon by the first deadline in the Senate.

This rule does not apply Bills in the House Committees on Appropriations and on Taxes, and to the education finance bill in the Committee on Education, are exempt from this rule and need not be re-referred, except as follows: a bill other than an omnibus tax or appropriation bill that includes provisions that create or reestablish a commission, board, task force, advisory committee or council, or other entity, shall be re-referred to the Committee on Rules and Legislative Administration if it remains in committee after the deadlines set by this rule.

(7) Insert a new article and rule as follows:

ARTICLE X - ETHICS

10.1 SOLICITATIONS DURING LEGISLATIVE SESSION. After March 10, 1990, no member of the House, nor the member's principal campaign committee, nor any other political committee with the member's name or title, nor any committee authorized by the member which would benefit the member, shall solicit or accept a contribution on behalf of the member's principal campaign committee, any other political committee with the member's name or title, or any political committee authorized by the member which would benefit the member, from a registered lobbyist, political committee, or political fund during the regular session of the House.

10.2 ACCEPTANCE OF AN HONORARIUM BY A MEMBER. No member may accept an honorarium for any service performed for an individual or organization which has a direct interest in the business of the House, including, but not limited to, registered lobbyists or any organizations they represent. The term "honorarium" does not include reimbursement for expenses incurred and actually paid by a member in performing any service.

Alleged violations of this rule shall be referred to the Committee on Ethics under Rule 6.10. Upon finding that an honorarium was accepted in violation of this rule, the Committee on Ethics shall direct the return of the funds. If the funds are not returned, the committee may recommend disciplinary action under Rule 6.10.

Long moved to amend the report from the Committee on Rules and Legislative Administration, as follows:

Page 3, line 13, before "any" insert "Prior to the deadline set by Rule 9.3,"

Page 3, line 16, after the period insert "After the deadline set by Rule 9.3, a report shall recommend re-referral to the Committee on Rules and Legislative Administration."

“This rule does not apply to the omnibus bill on taxation, the education finance bill, or the omnibus appropriations bills for: state departments; health and human services; education; or agriculture, transportation, and semi-state activities. But, if those bills contain provisions that would create or reestablish a commission, board, task force, advisory committee or council, or other such entity, then the chair of the Committee on Taxes, the chair of the Committee on Education, or the chair of a division of the Committee on Appropriations, as appropriate, must communicate the inclusion of the provision to the chair of the Committee on Rules and Legislative Administration prior to consideration of the matter on the floor.”

All other bills in the House Committees on Appropriations and on Taxes are also exempt from this rule except for bills to create or reestablish a commission, board, task force, advisory committee or council, or other such entity. Prior to the deadline set by Rule 9.3, those bills shall be re-referred to the Committee on Governmental Operations. After that deadline, the bills shall be re-referred to the Committee on Rules and Legislative Administration.”

GENERAL ORDERS

Pursuant to Rules of the House, the House resolved itself into the Committee of the Whole with Vanasek in the Chair for consideration of bills pending on General Orders of the day. Quinn presided during a portion of the meeting of the Committee of the Whole. After some time spent therein the Committee arose.

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE OF THE WHOLE

The Speaker resumed the Chair, whereupon the following recommendations of the Committee were reported to the House:

H. F. Nos. 1754, 1785 and 1830 were recommended to pass.

H. F. No. 1839 was recommended for progress.

H. F. No. 1569, the first engrossment, which it recommended to pass with the following amendments:

Offered by Johnson, A., and Seaberg:

Delete section 5 and insert:

"Sec. 5. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 162.07, subdivision 5, is amended to read:

Subd. 5. [SCREENING BOARD.] On or before September 1 of each year the county engineer of each county shall forward to the commissioner, on forms prepared by the commissioner, all information relating to the mileage of the county state-aid highway system in the county, and the money needs of the county that the commissioner deems necessary in order to apportion the county state-aid highway fund in accordance with the formula heretofore set forth. Upon receipt of the information the commissioner shall appoint a board consisting of ~~nine county engineers~~. The board shall be so selected that each one county engineer appointed shall be from a ~~different from each state highway construction district~~, plus one county engineer from each county with a population of 175,000 or more according to the most recent decennial census. No county engineer shall be appointed so as to serve consecutively for more than two years. The board shall investigate and review the information submitted by each county and shall on or before the first day of November of each year submit its findings and recommendations in writing as to each county's mileage and money needs to the commissioner on a form prepared by the commissioner. Final determination of the mileage of each system and the money needs of each county shall be made by the commissioner."

Page 2, line 3, delete everything after the period

Page 2, line 4, delete "such a" and insert "However, the county and city shall enter into good faith negotiations for a period of one year before the commissioner may take action on the referral. If the city and county have not resolved the dispute one year after the referral"

H. F. No. 1846, the first engrossment, which it recommended to pass with the following amendment offered by Bishop:

Page 2, line 7, delete the new language and reinstate the old language

On the motion of Long the report of the Committee of the Whole was adopted.

REPORTS OF STANDING COMMITTEES

Beginn from the Committee on Labor-Management Relations to which was referred:

H. F. No. 367, A bill for an act relating to employment; providing a medical leave of absence and a leave to care for family members; amending Minnesota Statutes 1988, sections 181.940, subdivisions 1, 3, and by adding subdivisions; 181.942; 181.943; 181.944; proposing coding for new law in Minnesota Statutes, chapter 181.

Reported the same back with the following amendments:

Delete everything after the enacting clause and insert:

"Section 1. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 181.940, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [SCOPE.] For the purposes of sections 181.940 to ~~181.944~~ 181.946, the following terms have the meanings given to them in this section.

Sec. 2. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 181.940, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [EMPLOYER.] For the purposes of leaves of absence under sections 181.941, 181.945, and 181.946, "employer" means a person or entity that employs 21 or more employees at at least one site and except that for purposes of the school leave allowed under section 181.945, subdivision 1, employer means a person or entity that employs one or more employees in Minnesota. Employer includes an individual, corporation, partnership, association, non-profit organization, group of persons, state, county, town, city, school district, or other governmental subdivision.

Sec. 3. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 181.940, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 4. [CHILD.] "Child" means a natural, adopted, or foster child, a stepchild, or a legal ward who:

(1) is a minor; or

(2) is 18 years of age or older and is a dependent of the employee or employee's spouse because of a physical or mental condition.

Sec. 4. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 181.940, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 5. [SERIOUS HEALTH CONDITION.] "Serious health condition" means an illness, injury, impairment, or physical or mental condition that involves (1) inpatient care in a hospital, hospice, or residential medical care facility; (2) continuing treatment or continuing supervision by a health care provider or accredited Christian Science practitioner; or (3) a terminally ill patient.

Sec. 5. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 181.942, is amended to read:

181.942 [REINSTATEMENT AFTER LEAVE.]

Subdivision 1. [COMPARABLE POSITION.] An employee returning from a leave of absence under section 181.941 shall be entitled to return to employment in the employee's former position or in a position of comparable duties, number of hours, and pay. An employee returning from a leave of absence longer than one month must notify a supervisor at least two weeks prior to return from leave. An employee returning from a medical or family care leave under section 181.945 shall be entitled to the employee's former position.

If, during the leave, the employer experiences a layoff and the employee would have lost a position had the employee not been on leave, pursuant to the good faith operation of a bona fide layoff and recall system, including a system under a collective bargaining agreement, the employee is not entitled to reinstatement in the former or comparable position. In such circumstances, the employee retains all rights under the layoff and recall system, including a system under a collective bargaining agreement, as if the employee had not taken the leave.

Subd. 2. [PAY; BENEFITS; ON RETURN.] An employee returning from a leave of absence under section 181.941 or 181.945 shall return to work at the same rate of pay the employee had been receiving when the leave commenced, plus any automatic adjustments in the employee's pay scale that occurred during leave period. The employee returning from a leave shall retain all accrued preleave benefits of employment and seniority, as if there had been no interruption in service; provided that nothing in sections 181.940 to ~~181.943~~ 181.945 prevents the accrual of benefits or seniority during the leave pursuant to a collective bargaining or other agreement between the employer and employees.

Subd. 3. [PART-TIME RETURN.] An employee, by agreement with the employer, may return to work part time during the leave period without forfeiting the right to return to employment at the end of the leave period, as provided in sections 181.940 to ~~181.943~~ 181.945.

Sec. 6. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 181.943, is amended to read:

181.943 [RELATIONSHIP TO OTHER LEAVE.]

The length of leave provided by sections ~~181.940 to 181.944~~ section 181.941 may be reduced by any period of paid parental or disability leave, but not accrued sick leave, provided by the employer, so that the total leave does not exceed six weeks, unless agreed to by the employer.

Nothing in sections 181.940 to ~~181.943~~ 181.946 prevents any employer from providing ~~parental~~ leave benefits in addition to those provided in sections 181.940 to ~~181.943~~ 181.946 or otherwise affects an employee's rights with respect to any other employment benefit.

Sec. 7. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 181.944, is amended to read:

181.944 [INDIVIDUAL REMEDIES.]

In addition to any remedies otherwise provided by law, any person injured by a violation of sections 181.940 to ~~181.943~~ 181.946 may bring a civil action to recover any and all damages recoverable at law, together with costs and disbursements, including reasonable attorney's fees, and may receive injunctive and other equitable relief as determined by a court.

Sec. 8. [181.945] [MEDICAL AND FAMILY CARE LEAVE.]

Subdivision 1. [FAMILY LEAVE.] An employer must grant an employee, who has been employed by the employer for at least 12 months, leaves of up to a total of ten work days during any 12-month period:

(1) to care for the employee's child, spouse, or parent, including a parent-in-law, who has a serious health condition;

(2) to attend school conferences or other school events related to the employee's child, provided the conference or events cannot be scheduled during nonwork hours; or

(3) for care necessary for the employee's own serious health condition.

A maximum of three days of the leave required by this subdivision may be used for school events and conferences under clause (2).

Leave under this subdivision need not be taken at one time but may be used more than once until the maximum allowed by this subdivision is used.

Subd. 2. [TIMING; NOTICE.] Where the need for the leave is foreseeable, the employee must (1) provide reasonable prior notice of the leave; and (2) make a reasonable effort to schedule the leave so as not to disrupt unduly the operations of the employer.

Subd. 3. [PAYMENT DURING LEAVE.] (a) Nothing in this section requires that the leave be paid.

(b) An employee may substitute any accrued paid vacation leave, sick leave, or other appropriate paid leave for any part of the leave, except that the employer is not required to provide paid sick leave if the employer would not normally provide paid leave in such circumstances.

Subd. 4. [CONTINUED HEALTH INSURANCE.] During the period of the leave, the employer shall maintain group health insurance coverage under the conditions that applied immediately before the leave began. If the employee continues to make required contributions to the plan, the employer shall continue making group health insurance premium contributions as if the employee had not taken the leave.

Sec. 9. [181.946] [USE OF SICK LEAVE.]

An employee may use sick leave benefits for absences due to the illness of a child, for such reasonable periods as the employee's attendance may be necessary, on the same terms the employee is able to use sick leave benefits for the employee's own illness."

"Section 1. [STUDY DIRECTED.]

The chairs of the committees on transportation of the senate and the house of representatives shall appoint a joint subcommittee on motor carrier regulation. The joint subcommittee must consist of an equal number of members of each committee. The joint subcommittee shall oversee those activities of the transportation regulation board which relate to a study by the board, or by a board task force or advisory committee, of current and proposed law and rules on regulated motor carriers. The chair and other members of the transportation regulation board, and the members of any task force or advisory committee of the board, shall cooperate and consult with the joint subcommittee throughout the study. The chair and any person selected by the chair as a facilitator for any of the board's task forces, must report to the joint subcommittee at least once every 60 days until February 1, 1991. The joint subcommittee must report to the chairs of each committee not later than February 1, 1991, on the results of its activities and any recommendations of the joint subcommittee for changes in motor carrier laws.

Reported the same back with the following amendments:

Delete everything after the enacting clause and insert:

"Section 1. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 115C.02, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 10a. [PETROLEUM REFINERY.] "Petroleum refinery" means any facility engaged in producing gasoline, kerosene, distillate fuel oils, residual fuel oil, lubricants, or other products through distillation of petroleum or through redistillation, cracking, or reforming of unfinished petroleum derivatives. "Petroleum refinery" includes fluid catalytic cracking unit incinerator-waste heat boilers, fuel gas combustion devices, and all indirect heating equipment associated with the refinery.

Sec. 2. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 115C.02, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 15. [TANK FACILITY.] "Tank facility" means a contiguous area where tanks are located which are owned or operated by the same person, or by affiliated persons.

Sec. 3. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 115C.08, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [IMPOSITION OF FEE.] The board shall notify the commissioner of revenue if the unexpended unencumbered balance of the fund falls below $1,000,000 $2,000,000, and within 60 days of receiving notice from the board, the commissioner of revenue shall impose the fee established in subdivision 3 on the use of a tank for a 30-day period, within 60 days of receiving notice from the board four calendar months, payment to be submitted with each monthly distributor tax return.

Sec. 4. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 115C.08, subdivision 5, is amended to read:

Subd. 5. [FUND TRANSFER.] The board shall authorize the commissioner of finance to transfer to the harmful substance compensation fund the amount requested by the harmful substance compensation board under section 115B.26, subdivision 4. Transfer of the amount must be made at the earliest practical date after authorization by the board. If the unexpended unencumbered balance in the fund is less than $1,000,000 $2,000,000 the transfer must be made at the earliest practical date after the unexpended unencumbered balance in the fund exceeds that amount.

Sec. 5. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 115C.09, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [REIMBURSEMENT.] (a) The board shall reimburse a responsible person who is eligible under subdivision 2 from the fund for 90 percent of the portion of the total reimbursable costs less than $250,000 or $1,000,000, whichever is less. Not more than $250,000 $1,000,000 may be reimbursed for costs associated with a single release, regardless of the number of persons eligible for reimbursement, and not more than $2,000,000 may be reimbursed for costs associated with a single tank facility.

(b) A reimbursement may not be made from the fund under this subdivision until the board has determined that the costs for which reimbursement is requested were actually incurred and were reasonable.

(c) Money in the fund is appropriated to the board to make reimbursements under this section. Reimbursements to state agencies are appropriated to the state agencies for the fiscal year in which they are received.

Sec. 6. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 115C.09, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 6. [FACILITIES INELIGIBLE FOR REIMBURSEMENT.] Notwithstanding subdivisions 1 to 3b, no reimbursement shall be made under this section for costs associated with a release:

(1) from tanks located at petroleum refineries; or

(2) from tank facilities, including pipeline terminals, where more than 1,000,000 gallons of petroleum are stored. For purposes of this subdivision, the amount stored at the tank facility is calculated as the total capacity of all tanks located at the tank facility.

“Section 1. [135A.16] [STATE MATCH OF ENDOWMENT GIFTS FOR UNDERGRADUATE PROGRAMS.]

Subdivision 1. [LIMITATIONS.] The state shall match a gift for an undergraduate academic program made to an endowment fund of a college or university. The state's matching program has the elements, conditions, and financial and legal limits described in sections 1 to 8.

Subd. 2. [ADMINISTRATION.] The higher education coordinating board shall administer the state's matching program. The board may adopt rules as necessary to administer the documentation of gifts and the payment of matching contributions.

Sec. 2. [135A.161] [ELEMENTS OF PROGRAM.]

Subdivision 1. [WHICH GIFTS MATCHED.] The state shall match a gift of money, of income from an asset, or of the proceeds or income from the disposition of an asset.

Subd. 2. [WHEN GIFT "MADE."] (a) A gift of money is made when the money is irrevocably credited to the recipient's endowment fund.

(b) A gift of income from an asset or of income or proceeds from the disposition of an asset is made when the net income or net proceeds are converted to money and credited to the recipient's endowment fund.

Subd. 3. [UNDERGRADUATE ACADEMIC PROGRAM.] An undergraduate academic program is a nonsectarian program leading to a degree from the accredited college or university offering the program.

Subd. 4. [NONSECTARIAN PROGRAM.] (a) A "nonsectarian" program is one that is not specifically for education of students to prepare them to become ministers of religion or to enter upon some other religious vocation or to prepare them to teach theological subjects.

(b) A nonsectarian program may provide for the scholarly study of religion as a discipline of knowledge in a manner similar to that provided for any other field of study.

(c) A nonsectarian program does not require its students:

(1) to take courses that are based on a particular set of religious beliefs;

(2) to receive instruction intended to propagate or promote any religious beliefs;

(3) to participate in religious activities;

(4) to maintain affiliation with a particular church or religious organization; or

(5) to attest to any particular religious beliefs.

Subd. 5. [ACCREDITED.] (a) Accredited means accredited by the north central association of secondary schools and colleges or by a substantially equivalent regional accrediting organization.

(b) An organization that accredits a program primarily for the content of the program in connection with admission of its participants to a profession is not accreditation for purposes of the state's matching program.

Subd. 6. [ENDOWMENT FUND.] (a) An endowment fund is a fund or account maintained by trustees to benefit one or more colleges and universities described in subdivision 7.

(b) The fund or account must be solely for:

(1) gifts to be matched under sections 1 to 8;

(2) the state's grants matching the gifts in clause (1); and

(3) net income earned by the fund or account.

(c) The University of Minnesota foundations, the state universities' foundations, the community college foundations, the technical college foundations and the Minnesota private college fund and the endowment funds of each college or university that meets the definition in subdivision 7, or accounts within each of them, are endowment funds within the meaning of sections 1 to 8.

Subd. 7. [COLLEGE OR UNIVERSITY.] A college or university for purposes of the matching program is an accredited nonprofit institution of higher education, located and incorporated or chartered in the state, that offers, substantially totally within the state, undergraduate academic programs leading to a degree at the institution.

Sec. 3. [135A.162] [CONDITIONS.]

(a) A gift to be matched under sections 1 to 8 must be restricted by the donor or by the trustees of the endowment fund to use for nonsectarian undergraduate academic programs at one or more colleges or universities. The matching contribution has the same restrictions.

(b) The principal amount of an endowment fund including the principal amount of matching grants from the state may only be invaded in accordance with generally accepted principles of trust law for endowment funds of colleges and universities.

(c) The gift must be made from nonstate money.

Sec. 4. [135A.163] [THE MATCHING CONTRIBUTION.]

The state shall match each dollar of gifts made to an endowment fund under sections 1 to 8 with a dollar of state money, within the amount appropriated for these purposes. The money must be paid in a grant directly to the endowment fund.

Sec. 5. [135A.164] [REPORT ON FUNDS TO BE MATCHED.]

Each gift to be matched shall be reported to the state governing board in the case of the University of Minnesota, the state universities, the community colleges and the technical colleges, or to the Minnesota private college council in the case of a private college or university. By June 30 of each year the governing board or the council shall review all submitted gifts and prioritize them for matching within the available appropriation. By July 15 the governing board or council shall submit its prioritized list to the higher education coordinating board together with any necessary supporting documentation. By August 15 of each year, the higher education coordinating board shall allocate the matching funds to each endowment consistent with the priorities of the governing board or council.

Sec. 6. [135A.166] [INCOME MAY BE USED ONLY FOR ACADEMIC PROGRAMS.]

(a) Net income from gifts to be matched under sections 1 to 8 and from the state's matching contributions may be used by the beneficiary college and university only for its:

- (1) faculty compensation and benefits;
- (2) endowed faculty chairs;
- (3) faculty development;
- (4) library, media center, and laboratory resources if the resources are accessible to undergraduate students;
- (5) collaborative research of undergraduate students and their faculty;
- (6) need-based scholarships, as defined by the appropriate governing board or council;
- (7) scientific, technical, and computer equipment and software accessible for instructional and research purposes to undergraduate students and their faculty; and
- (8) uses related to or consistent with other uses in this paragraph.

(b) Income from gifts to be matched under sections 1 to 8 and from the state's matching contributions must not be used by the beneficiary college or university for its:

- (1) administration;
- (2) admissions;

- (3) public relations;
- (4) fundraising;
- (5) athletics;
- (6) construction, remodeling, repair, and maintenance of buildings and grounds;
- (7) utility payments;
- (8) taxes, government assessments, or voluntary payments in place of taxes or assessments;
- (9) debt service;
- (10) furniture, fixtures, and equipment other than equipment described in paragraph (a), clause (7); and
- (11) other uses not included in paragraph (a).

Sec. 7. [135A.167] [LIMITS TO GRANTS.]

State grants under sections 1 to 8 are limited to the amount appropriated for the purpose. The appropriation shall be divided into four equal parts with one-fourth available to the University of Minnesota, one-fourth available to the state university system, one-fourth available to both the community college system and the technical college system, and one-fourth available to private colleges and universities that are members of the Minnesota private college council. The amounts appropriated in a biennium may be spent in either year of the biennium. Amounts unspent at the end of a biennium do not cancel but carry over into the next biennium. Any funds that are unspent after two years shall be placed in a common pool and be available as matching money to supplement any of the four parts in which the funds have been exhausted.

Sec. 8. [135A.168] [SUBJECT LAW.]

(a) A gift to be matched under sections 1 to 8 is received subject to the law of Minnesota with respect to the state's obligation to make a matching contribution under sections 1 to 8, regardless of the intent of anyone to invoke the law of another jurisdiction on this point.

(b) The state's obligation to make a matching contribution under sections 1 to 8 is subject to the laws of this state, as the laws exist at the time of the gift and as the law may be changed after the gift is made.

(c) No individual, government agency, endowment fund, or higher education institution is authorized to ensure that the state will match any gift under sections 1 to 8.

(d) The state is not liable to a donor, a higher education institution, an endowment fund, or anyone else who relies on the state to match a gift made under sections 1 to 8 if the matching contribution is not made or not fully made for any reason.

Sec. 9. [EFFECTIVE DATE.]

Sections 1 to 8 are effective July 1, 1991, to match gifts made after June 30, 1991."

H. F. No. 2038, A bill for an act relating to human rights; amending definitions of public accommodation, age, and familial status; clarifying medical information obtainable from prospective employees; clarifying protection for pregnant employees; prohibiting threats against home owners and renters; adding familial status as a protected class in employment; prohibiting discriminatory business practices; clarifying the meaning of business necessity and continuing violations; renumbering definitions; amending Minnesota Statutes 1988, sections 363.01, subdivisions 18 and 28; 363.03, subdivisions 2, 8a, and by adding a subdivision; 363.06, subdivision 1, and by adding a subdivision; 363.11; and 363.116; Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, sections 363.01, subdivision 31; 363.02, subdivision 1; and 363.03, subdivision 1.

Reported the same back with the following amendments:

Delete everything after the enacting clause and insert:

"Section 1. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 363.01, subdivision 28, is amended to read:

Subd. 28. [AGE.] "Age" insofar as it refers to any prohibited unfair employment or education practice shall be deemed to protect only those individuals The prohibition against unfair employment or education practices based on age prohibits using a person's age as a basis for a decision if the person is over the age of majority except for section 363.03, subdivision 5 which shall be deemed to protect any individual over the age of 25 years.

Sec. 2. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 363.02, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [EMPLOYMENT.] The provisions of section 363.03, subdivision 1, shall not apply to:

(1) The employment of any individual

(a) by the individual's parent, grandparent, spouse, child, or grandchild, or

(b) in the domestic service of any person;

(2) A religious or fraternal corporation, association, or society, with respect to qualifications based on religion, when religion shall be a bona fide occupational qualification for employment;

(3) The employment of one person in place of another, standing by itself, shall not be evidence of an unfair discriminatory practice;

(4) The operation of a bona fide seniority system which mandates differences in such things as wages, hiring priorities, layoff priorities, vacation credit, and job assignments based on seniority, so long as the operation of the system is not a subterfuge to evade the provisions of this chapter;

(5) With respect to age discrimination, a practice by which a labor organization or employer offers or supplies varying insurance benefits or other fringe benefits to members or employees of differing ages, so long as the cost to the labor organization or employer for the benefits is reasonably equivalent for all members or employees;

(6) A restriction imposed by state statute, home rule charter, ordinance, or civil service rule, and applied uniformly and without exception to all individuals, which establishes a maximum age for entry into employment as a peace officer or firefighter.

(7) Nothing in this chapter concerning age discrimination shall be construed to validate or permit age requirements which have a disproportionate impact on persons of any class otherwise protected by section 363.03, subdivision 1 or 5.

(8) It is not an unfair employment practice for an employer, employment agency, or labor organization:

(i) to require or request a person to undergo physical examination, which may include a medical history, for the purpose of determining the person's capability to perform available employment, provided

(a) that an offer of employment has been made on condition that the person meets the physical or mental requirements of the job except that a law enforcement agency filling a peace officer position or part-time peace officer position may require or request an applicant to undergo psychological evaluation before a job offer is made provided that the psychological evaluation is for those job-related abilities set forth by the board of peace officer standards and training for psychological evaluations. Nothing in this subdivision authorizes psychological evaluation which would otherwise be prohibited by another law;

(b) that the examination tests only for essential job-related abilities; and

(c) that the examination except for examinations authorized under chapter 176 is required of all persons conditionally offered employment for the same position regardless of disability; or

(ii) with the consent of the employee, after employment has commenced, to obtain additional medical information necessary for the purposes of establishing an employee health record assessing continuing ability to perform the job or employee health insurance eligibility; for purposes mandated by local, state or federal law; for purposes of assessing the need to reasonably accommodate an employee or obtaining information to determine eligibility for the second injury fund under chapter 79A; or pursuant to sections 181.950 to 181.957;

(iii) to administer preemployment tests, provided that the tests (a) measure only essential job-related abilities, (b) are required of all applicants for the same position regardless of disability except for tests authorized under chapter 176, and (c) accurately measure the applicant's aptitude, achievement level, or whatever factors they purport to measure rather than reflecting the applicant's impaired sensory, manual, or speaking skills except when those skills are the factors that the tests purport to measure; or

(iv) to limit receipt of benefits payable under a fringe benefit plan for disabilities to that period of time which a licensed physician reasonably determines a person is unable to work; or

(v) to provide special safety considerations for pregnant women involved in tasks which are potentially hazardous to the health of the unborn child, as determined by medical criteria.

Sec. 3. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 363.03, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [EMPLOYMENT.] Except when based on a bona fide occupational qualification, it is an unfair employment practice:

(1) For a labor organization, because of race, color, creed, religion, national origin, sex, marital status, status with regard to public assistance, disability, or age,

(a) to deny full and equal membership rights to a person seeking membership or to a member;

(b) to expel a member from membership;

(c) to discriminate against a person seeking membership or a member with respect to hiring, apprenticeship, tenure, compensation, terms, upgrading, conditions, facilities, or privileges of employment; or

(d) to fail to classify properly, or refer for employment or otherwise to discriminate against a person or member.

(2) For an employer, because of race, color, creed, religion, national origin, sex, marital status, status with regard to public assistance, membership or activity in a local commission, disability, or age,

(a) to refuse to hire or to maintain a system of employment which unreasonably excludes a person seeking employment; or

(b) to discharge an employee; or

(c) to discriminate against a person with respect to hiring, tenure, compensation, terms, upgrading, conditions, facilities, or privileges of employment.

(3) For an employment agency, because of race, color, creed, religion, national origin, sex, marital status, status with regard to public assistance, disability, or age,

(a) to refuse or fail to accept, register, classify properly, or refer for employment or otherwise to discriminate against a person; or

(b) to comply with a request from an employer for referral of applicants for employment if the request indicates directly or indirectly that the employer fails to comply with the provisions of this chapter.

(4) For an employer, employment agency, or labor organization, before a person is employed by an employer or admitted to membership in a labor organization, to

(a) require or request the person to furnish information that pertains to race, color, creed, religion, national origin, sex, marital status, status with regard to public assistance, disability, or age; or, subject to section 363.02, subdivision 1, to require or request a person to undergo physical examination; unless for the sole and exclusive purpose of national security, information pertaining to national origin is required by the United States, this state or a political subdivision or agency of the United States or this state, or for the sole and exclusive purpose of compliance with the public contracts act or any rule, regulation, or laws of the United States or of this state requiring the information or examination. A law enforcement agency may, after notifying an applicant for a peace officer or part-time peace officer position that the law enforcement agency is commencing the background investigation on the applicant, request the applicant's date of birth, gender, and race on a separate form for the sole and exclusive purpose of conducting a criminal history check, a driver's license check, and fingerprint criminal history inquiry. The form shall include a statement indicating why the data is being collected and what its limited use will be. No document which has date of birth, gender, or race information will be included in the information given to or available to any person who is involved in selecting the person or persons employed other than the background investigator. No person may act both as background investigator and be involved in the selection of an employee except that the background investigator's report about background may be used in that selection as long as no direct or indirect references are made to the applicant's race, age, or gender;

(b) seek and obtain for purposes of making a job decision, information from any source that pertains to the person's race, color, creed, religion, national origin, sex, marital status, status with regard to public assistance, disability, or age, unless for the sole and exclusive purpose of compliance with the public contracts act or any rule, regulation, or laws of the United States or of this state requiring the information; or

(c) cause to be printed or published a notice or advertisement that relates to employment or membership and discloses a preference, limitation, specification, or discrimination based on race, color, creed, religion, national origin, sex, marital status, status with regard to public assistance, disability, or age.

Any individual who is required to provide information that is prohibited by this subdivision is an aggrieved party under section 363.06.

(5) For an employer, an employment agency, or a labor organization, with respect to all employment related purposes, including receipt of benefits under fringe benefit programs, not to treat women affected by pregnancy, childbirth, or disabilities related to pregnancy or childbirth, the same as other persons who are not so affected but who are similar in their ability or inability to work.

(6) For an employer with 50 or more permanent, full-time employees, an employment agency, or a labor organization, not to make reasonable accommodation to the known disability of a qualified disabled or pregnant person or job applicant unless the employer, agency, or organization can demonstrate that the accommodation would impose an undue hardship on the business, agency, or organization. "Reasonable accommodation" means steps which must be taken to accommodate the known physical or mental limitations of a qualified disabled person. "Reasonable accommodation" may include but is not limited to, nor does it necessarily require: (a) making facilities readily accessible to and usable by disabled persons; and (b) job restructuring, modified work schedules, acquisition or modification of equipment or devices, and the provision of aides on a temporary or periodic basis.

In determining whether an accommodation would impose an undue hardship on the operation of a business or organization, factors to be considered include:

(a) the overall size of the business or organization with respect to number of employees or members and the number and type of facilities;

(b) the type of the operation, including the composition and structure of the work force, and the number of employees at the location where the employment would occur;

(c) the nature and cost of the needed accommodation;

(d) the reasonable ability to finance the accommodation at each site of business; and

(e) documented good faith efforts to explore less restrictive or less expensive alternatives, including consultation with the disabled person or with knowledgeable disabled persons or organizations.

A prospective employer need not pay for an accommodation for a job applicant if it is available from an alternative source without cost to the employer or applicant.

Sec. 4. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 363.03, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [REAL PROPERTY.] It is an unfair discriminatory practice:

(1) For an owner, lessee, sublessee, assignee, or managing agent of, or other person having the right to sell, rent or lease any real property, or any agent of any of these:

(a) to refuse to sell, rent, or lease or otherwise deny to or withhold from any person or group of persons any real property because of race, color, creed, religion, national origin, sex, marital status, status with regard to public assistance, disability, or familial status; or

(b) to discriminate against any person or group of persons because of race, color, creed, religion, national origin, sex, marital status, status with regard to public assistance, disability, or familial status in the terms, conditions or privileges of the sale, rental or lease of any real property or in the furnishing of facilities or services in connection therewith, except that nothing in this clause shall be construed to prohibit the adoption of reasonable rules intended to protect the safety of minors in their use of the real property or any facilities or services furnished in connection therewith; or

(c) in any transaction involving real property, to print, circulate or post or cause to be printed, circulated, or posted any advertisement or sign, or use any form of application for the purchase, rental or lease of real property, or make any record or inquiry in connection with the prospective purchase, rental, or lease of real property which expresses, directly or indirectly, any limitation, specification, or discrimination as to race, color, creed, religion, national origin, sex, marital status, status with regard to public assistance, disability, or familial status, or any intent to make any such limitation, specification, or discrimination except that nothing in this clause shall be construed to prohibit the advertisement of a dwelling unit as available to adults-only if the person placing the advertisement reasonably believes that the provisions of this subdivision prohibiting discrimination because of familial status do not apply to the dwelling unit.

(2) For a real estate broker, real estate salesperson, or employee, or agent thereof:

(a) to refuse to sell, rent, or lease or to offer for sale, rental, or lease any real property to any person or group of persons or to negotiate for the sale, rental, or lease of any real property to any person or group of persons because of race, color, creed, religion, national origin, sex, marital status, status with regard to public assistance, disability, or familial status or represent that real property is not available for inspection, sale, rental, or lease when in fact it is so available, or otherwise deny or withhold any real property or any facilities of real property to or from any person or group of persons because of race, color, creed, religion, national origin, sex, marital status, status with regard to public assistance, disability, or familial status; or

(b) to discriminate against any person because of race, color, creed, religion, national origin, sex, marital status, status with regard to public assistance, disability, or familial status in the terms, conditions or privileges of the sale, rental or lease of real property or in the furnishing of facilities or services in connection therewith; or

(c) to print, circulate, or post or cause to be printed, circulated, or posted any advertisement or sign, or use any form of application for the purchase, rental, or lease of any real property or make any record or inquiry in connection with the prospective purchase, rental or lease of any real property, which expresses directly or indirectly, any limitation, specification or discrimination as to race, color, creed, religion, national origin, sex, marital status, status with regard to public assistance, disability, or familial status or any intent to make any such limitation, specification, or discrimination except that nothing in this clause shall be construed to prohibit the advertisement of a dwelling unit as available to adults-only if the person placing the advertisement reasonably believes that the provisions of this subdivision prohibiting discrimination because of familial status do not apply to the dwelling unit.

(3) For a person, bank, banking organization, mortgage company, insurance company, or other financial institution or lender to whom application is made for financial assistance for the purchase, lease, acquisition, construction, rehabilitation, repair or maintenance of any real property or any agent or employee thereof:

(a) to discriminate against any person or group of persons because of race, color, creed, religion, national origin, sex, marital status, status with regard to public assistance, disability, or familial status of the person or group of persons or of the prospective occupants or tenants of the real property in the granting, withholding, extending, modifying or renewing, or in the rates, terms, conditions, or privileges of the financial assistance or in the extension of services in connection therewith; or

(b) to use any form of application for the financial assistance or make any record or inquiry in connection with applications for the financial assistance which expresses, directly or indirectly, any limitation, specification, or discrimination as to race, color, creed, religion, national origin, sex, marital status, status with regard to public assistance, disability, or familial status or any intent to make any such limitation, specification, or discrimination; or

(c) to discriminate against any person or group of persons who desire to purchase, lease, acquire, construct, rehabilitate, repair, or maintain real property in a specific urban or rural area or any part thereof solely because of the social, economic, or environmental conditions of the area in the granting, withholding, extending, modifying, or renewing, or in the rates, terms, conditions, or privileges of the financial assistance or in the extension of services in connection therewith.

(4) For any real estate broker or real estate salesperson, for the purpose of inducing a real property transaction from which the person, the person's firm, or any of its members may benefit financially, to represent that a change has occurred or will or may occur in the composition with respect to race, creed, color, national origin, sex, marital status, status with regard to public assistance, or disability of the owners or occupants in the block, neighborhood, or area in which the real property is located, and to represent, directly or indirectly, that this change will or may result in undesirable consequences in the block, neighborhood, or area in which the real property is located, including but not limited to the lowering of real property values, an increase in criminal or antisocial behavior, or a decline in the quality of schools or other public facilities.

(5) For a person to deny a totally or partially blind, physically handicapped, or deaf person with a service dog full and equal access to real property provided for in this section. The person may not be required to pay extra compensation for the service dog but is liable for damage done to the premises by the service dog.

(6) For a person to coerce, intimidate, threaten, or interfere with a person in the exercise or enjoyment of, or on account of that person having exercised or enjoyed, or on account of that person having aided or encouraged a third person in the exercise or enjoyment of, any right granted or protected by this subdivision.

Notwithstanding the provisions of any law, ordinance, or home rule charter to the contrary, no person shall be deemed to have committed an unfair discriminatory practice based upon age if the unfair discriminatory practice alleged is attempted or accomplished for the purpose of obtaining or maintaining one of the exemptions provided for a dwelling unit provided for in section 363.02, subdivision 2.

Sec. 5. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 363.03, subdivision 8a, is amended to read:

Subd. 8a. [BUSINESS; SEX DISCRIMINATION.] It is an unfair discriminatory practice for a person engaged in a trade or business or in the provision of a service:

(a) to refuse to do business with or provide a service to a woman based on her use of her current or former surname; or

It is an unfair discriminatory practice for a person (b) to impose, as a condition of doing business with or providing a service to a woman, that a woman use her current surname rather than a former surname; or

(c) to refuse to do business with, to refuse to contract with, or to discriminate in the terms, conditions, facilities, privileges, or performance of the business or contract due to a person's race, color, creed, religion, national origin, sex, marital status, disability, or age, unless the failure to contract is because of a legitimate business reason.

Nothing in this subdivision shall prohibit positive action plans.

Sec. 6. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 363.03, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 11. [DISPARATE IMPACT CASES.] Business necessity may only be raised as an affirmative defense to a prima facie disparate impact case by showing the practice responsible for the disparity is necessary to the business. If a business necessity is established, then the opposing side may rebut it by establishing that a reasonable, less discriminatory alternative is available to achieve the business necessity.

Sec. 7. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 363.06, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [ACTIONS.] Any person aggrieved by a violation of this chapter may bring a civil action as provided in section 363.14, subdivision 1, clause (a), or may file a verified charge with the commissioner or the commissioner's designated agent. A charge filed with the commissioner must be in writing on a form provided by the commissioner and signed by the charging party. The charge must state the name of the person alleged to have committed an unfair discriminatory practice and set out a summary of the details of the practice complained of. The commissioner may require a charging party to provide the address of the person alleged to have committed the unfair discriminatory practice, names of witnesses, documents, and any other information necessary to process the charge. The commissioner may dismiss a charge when the charging party fails to provide required information. The commissioner within ten days of the filing shall serve a copy of the charge and a form for use in responding to the charge upon the respondent personally or by mail. The respondent shall file with the department a written response setting out a summary of the details of the respondent's position relative to the charge within 20 days of receipt of the charge. If the respondent fails to respond within 30 days after service of the charge, and service was consistent with rule 4 of the rules of civil procedure, the commissioner, on behalf of the complaining party, may bring an action for default in district court pursuant to rule 55.01 of the rules of civil procedure.

Sec. 8. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 363.06, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 3a. For purposes of subdivision 3, each application of an unfair discriminatory practice, employment policy, or seniority system to a new person establishes a basis for the filing of a claim.

Sec. 9. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 363.11, is amended to read:

363.11 [CONSTRUCTION.]

The provisions of this chapter shall be construed liberally for the accomplishment of the purposes thereof. Nothing contained in this chapter shall be deemed to repeal any of the provisions of the civil rights law or of any other law of this state relating to discrimination because of race, creed, color, religion, sex, age, disability, marital status, status with regard to public assistance or national origin or familial status; but, as to acts declared unfair by sections 363.03 and 363.123, the procedure herein provided shall, while pending, be exclusive.

An employer may not discriminate against an employee due to disability as defined in section 363.01, subdivision 25, regardless of whether the employee is pursuing or has pursued a claim for compensation under other statutory or common law protections.

Sec. 10. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 363.14, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [DISTRICT COURT JURISDICTION.] Any action brought pursuant to this section shall be filed in the district court of the county wherein the unlawful discriminatory practice is alleged to have been committed or where the respondent resides or has a principal place of business.

~~Any action brought pursuant to this chapter shall be heard and determined by a judge sitting without a jury.~~

In an action brought under this chapter, a party is entitled to a trial by jury of any issue of fact in an action for recovery of amounts owing as a result of a violation of this chapter, regardless of whether equitable relief is sought by a party to the action.

If the court finds that the respondent has engaged in an unfair discriminatory practice, it shall issue an order directing appropriate relief as provided by section 363.071, subdivision 2.

Sec. 11. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 363.116, is amended to read:

363.116 [TRANSFER TO COMMISSIONER.]

A local commission may refer a matter under its jurisdiction to the commissioner.

The charging party has the option of filing a charge either with a local commission or the department. Notwithstanding the provisions of any ordinance or resolution to the contrary, a charge may be filed with a local commission within ~~300 days~~ one year after the occurrence of the practice. The exercise of such choice in filing a charge with one agency shall preclude the option of filing the same charge with the other agency. At the time a charge comes to the attention of a local agency, the agency or its representative shall inform the charging party of this option, and of the party's rights under Laws 1967, chapter 897.

Where this chapter provides additional protections and remedies not provided for under a local antidiscrimination ordinance, the local commission shall advise a party bringing a charge under a local ordinance of those additional protections and remedies and of the option to file a charge under this chapter.

The term "local commission" as used in this section has the same meaning given the term in section 363.115.

Sec. 12. [INSTRUCTION TO REVISOR.]

In the next edition of Minnesota Statutes, the revisor of statutes shall alphabetize the definitions in Minnesota Statutes, section 363.01, and make all appropriate cross-reference changes in Minnesota Statutes and Minnesota Rules.

Sec. 13. [SEVERABILITY.]

If any provision of sections 1 to 12 is found to be unconstitutional and void, the remaining provisions of sections 1 to 12 shall remain valid."

Sec. 3. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 15A.083, subdivision 7, is amended to read:

Subd. 7. [WORKERS' COMPENSATION COURT OF APPEALS AND COMPENSATION JUDGES.] Salaries of judges of the workers' compensation court of appeals ~~shall be~~ are 90 percent of the salary for district judges as provided in set under section 15A.082, subdivision 1 3. Salaries of compensation judges ~~shall be~~ are 75 percent of the salary of district court judges as provided in subdivision 1. The chief workers' compensation settlement judge at the department of labor and industry may be paid an annual salary that is up to five percent greater than the salary of workers' compensation settlement judges at the department of labor and industry.

Sec. 4. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 43A.04, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [STATEWIDE LEADERSHIP.] (a) The commissioner ~~shall be~~ is the chief personnel and labor relations manager of the civil service in the executive branch.

(a) Whenever any power or responsibility is given to the commissioner by any provision of Laws 1981, chapter 210, unless otherwise expressly provided, the power or authority ~~shall apply~~ applies to all employees of agencies in the executive branch and to employees in classified positions in the office of the legislative auditor, the Minnesota state retirement system, the public employees retirement association, and the teacher's retirement association. Unless otherwise provided by law, the power or authority ~~shall does not~~ applies to unclassified employees in the legislative and judicial branches.

(b) The commissioner shall operate an information system from which personnel data, as defined in section 13.43, concerning employees and applicants for positions in the classified service can be retrieved.

The commissioner ~~shall have~~ has access to all public and private personnel data kept by appointing authorities ~~which~~ that will aid in the discharge of the commissioner's duties.

(c) The commissioner may consider and investigate any matters concerned with the administration of provisions of Laws 1981, chapter 210, and may order any remedial actions consistent with law.

(d) The commissioner has sole authority to settle state employee workers' compensation claims.

(e) The commissioner may assess all state entities for the costs of programs under sections 15.46 and 176.603.

Sec. 5. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 43A.04, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [RULES.] The commissioner shall ~~promulgate~~ adopt rules pursuant to under the administrative procedure act to implement the provisions of this chapter ~~which~~ that directly affect the rights of or processes available to the general public. The rules shall have the force and effect of law and shall may include but are not limited to:

(a) (1) the processes for determining the extent of competition for filling vacancies, for recruiting applicants, for conducting competitive open examinations, for ranking candidates and maintaining competitive open eligible lists, and for certification and appointment of eligibles from competitive open eligible lists;

(b) (2) the process for effecting noncompetitive and qualifying appointments;

(c) (3) the process for temporary designation of positions in the unclassified service and for effecting appointments to the unclassified service;

(d) (4) a statewide affirmative action program to include requirements for agency affirmative action plans, statewide policies and procedures, reporting requirements, accountability and responsibility of employees in the executive branch, and overall objectives of the program;

(e) (5) conditions under which moving and other expenses may be authorized and paid prior to appointment to persons who have accepted state employment;

(f) (6) procedures for administration of the code of ethics for employees of the executive branch; and

(g) (7) examination procedures for candidates with handicaps disabilities as described in section 43A.10, subdivision 8; and

(8) procedures or policies that affect the operation of or participation in the public employees insurance program.

Sec. 6. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 43A.04, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 9. [EXPERIMENTAL OR RESEARCH PROJECTS.] The commissioner of employee relations may conduct experimental or research projects designed to improve recruitment, selection, referral, or appointment processes for the filling of state classified positions.

The commissioner shall meet and confer with the affected exclusive bargaining representative of state employees concerning the design and implementation of experimental and research projects under this subdivision.

Any provision in sections 43A.09 to 43A.15, associated personnel rules adopted under section 43A.04, subdivision 3, or administrative procedures established under section 43A.04, subdivision 4, is waived for the purposes of these projects. The number of appointments under this subdivision may not exceed five percent of the total number of appointments in the preceding fiscal year.

The commissioner shall report by September 1 to the legislative commission on employee relations the results of the experimental research projects conducted in the preceding fiscal year.

Sec. 7. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 43A.10, subdivision 7, is amended to read:

Subd. 7. [EXAMINATION ACCOMMODATIONS.] Upon request, the commissioner shall provide examination accommodations to a candidate with a handicap disability that does not prevent performance of the duties of the class. The accommodations shall must provide an opportunity to fairly examine the ability of the candidate to perform the duties of the class notwithstanding the handicap disability but shall must preserve, to the extent feasible, the validity of the examination process and equitable comparison of examination scores with competitors without handicaps disabilities.

Sec. 8. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 43A.10, subdivision 8, is amended to read:

Subd. 8. [ELIGIBILITY FOR QUALIFIED HANDICAPPED DISABLED EXAMINATIONS.] The commissioner shall establish examination procedures for candidates whose handicaps disabilities are of such a severe nature that the candidates are unable to demonstrate their abilities in competitive examination processes. The examination procedures shall must consist of up to 700 hours on-the-job trial work experience which will be in lieu of a competitive examination and for which the disabled person has the option of being paid or unpaid. Up to three persons with severe disabilities and their job coach shall may be allowed to demonstrate their job competence as a unit through the on-the-job trial work experience examination procedure. This work experience shall must be limited to candidates for appointment, promotion, or transfer who have a physical or mental impairment for which there is no reasonable accommodation in the examination process. Implementation of provisions of this subdivision shall may not be deemed a violation of other provisions of Laws 1981, chapter 210 or 363.

Sec. 9. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 43A.12, subdivision 5, is amended to read:

Subd. 5. [~~QUALIFIED HANDICAPPED DISABLED LISTS.~~] On qualified ~~handicapped~~ disabled lists eligibles ~~shall~~ must be ranked in alphabetical order.

Sec. 10. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 43A.13, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [LAYOFF.] If an agency has a layoff list for the class and employment conditions of the vacancy to be filled, the commissioner shall certify eligibles as provided in collective bargaining agreements, plans established ~~pursuant to~~ under section 43A.18, rules, or procedures implemented ~~pursuant to~~ under section 43A.04, subdivision 4.

The commissioner, in accordance with collective bargaining agreements or plans established under section 43A.18, may also afford employees on permanent layoff from state service the opportunity to be tested for existing competitive open and promotional eligible lists for classes equal to or lower than those from which they are on layoff. Candidates tested under this procedure who obtain passing scores are eligible in accordance with the ranking and certification provisions of section 43A.12 and this section.

Sec. 11. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 43A.13, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [REEMPLOYMENT.] For positions to be filled by reemployment of a former employee, the commissioner may certify any eligible on the reemployment list for the class or approve direct reinstatement of a former classified employee within ~~three~~ four years of separation.

Sec. 12. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 43A.13, subdivision 4, is amended to read:

Subd. 4. [COMPETITIVE OPEN.] (a) For positions to be filled by competitive open examination, the commissioner shall certify the first 20 eligibles on the list plus those eligibles having the same score as the 20th eligible certified.

(b) When the position to be filled by competitive open examination is in a class for which the initially established eligible list contained the names of more than 200 eligibles and that list has existed for more than 12 months and been referred to more than ten vacancies, the commissioner shall certify the first 40 eligibles on the list plus those eligibles having the same score as the 40th eligible certified.

Sec. 13. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 43A.13, subdivision 5, is amended to read:

Subd. 5. [COMPETITIVE PROMOTIONAL.] For positions to be filled by competitive promotional examination limited to employees of one or more agencies or organizational units, the commissioner shall certify the first ten eligibles on the list plus those eligibles having the same score as the tenth eligible certified. For positions to be filled by competitive promotional examination extended to all employees of the civil service, the commissioner shall certify the first 20 eligibles on the list, plus those eligibles having the same score as the 20th eligible certified.

Sec. 14. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 43A.13, subdivision 6, is amended to read:

Subd. 6. [QUALIFIED HANDICAPPED DISABLED.] For a position to be filled by qualified ~~handicapped disabled~~ examination, the commissioner shall certify only the one eligible who has successfully completed the examination processes provided in section 43A.10, subdivision 8 for the position.

Sec. 15. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 43A.13, subdivision 7, is amended to read:

Subd. 7. [EXPANDED CERTIFICATION.] When the commissioner determines that a disparity as defined in rules exists between an agency's work force and its affirmative action plan approved in accordance with section 43A.19, the commissioner shall ensure to the extent possible that eligibles who are members of the protected groups for which the disparity exists are certified for appointment. When fewer than two eligibles of each protected group for which a disparity has been determined to exist would be certified under subdivisions 4 and 5, the commissioner shall certify two eligibles from each protected group for which a disparity exists or four from each group for which a disparity exists if the number of names referred has been increased under subdivision 4, paragraph (b). Implementation of this subdivision shall may not be deemed a violation of other provisions of Laws 1981, chapter 210 or 363.

Sec. 16. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 43A.15, subdivision 10, is amended to read:

Subd. 10. [ROUTINE SERVICE AND ENTRY CLERICAL APPOINTMENTS.] The commissioner may authorize the administration of a qualifying selection process if a class is of a routine, service nature involving unskilled tasks, the performance of which cannot be directly related to qualifications beyond a minimum competency level. Appointing authorities may consider any candidate found so qualified for probationary appointment to such a position. The commissioner may also authorize the administration of qualifying skill tests for entry level clerical positions as an alternative to certification from an eligible list as provided in section 43A.13.

Sec. 17. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 43A.17, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [SALARY LIMITS.] As used in subdivisions 1 to 9, "salary" means hourly, monthly, or annual rate of pay including any lump-sum payments and cost-of-living adjustment increases but excluding payments due to overtime worked, shift or equipment differentials, work out of class as required by collective bargaining agreements or plans established under section 43A.18, and back pay on reallocation or other payments related to the hours or conditions under which work is performed rather than to the salary range or rate to which a class is assigned.

The salary, as established in section 15A.081, of the head of a state agency in the executive branch is the upper limit of compensation in the agency. The salary of the commissioner of labor and industry is the upper limit of compensation of employees in the bureau of mediation services. However, if an agency head is assigned a salary that is lower than the current salary of another agency employee, the employee retains the salary, but may not receive an increase in salary as long as the salary is above that of the agency head. The commissioner may grant exemptions from these upper limits as provided in subdivisions 3 and 4.

Sec. 18. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 43A.17, subdivision 8, is amended to read:

Subd. 8. [ACCUMULATED VACATION LEAVE.] The commissioner of employee relations shall not agree to a collective bargaining agreement or recommend a compensation plan pursuant to section 43A.18, subdivisions 1, 2, 3, and 4, nor shall an arbitrator issue an award under sections 179A.01 to 179A.25, if the compensation plan, agreement, or award permits an employee to convert accumulated vacation leave into cash or deferred compensation before separation from state service.

This section does not prohibit the commissioner from negotiating a collective bargaining agreement or recommending approval of a compensation plan which permits an employee to receive payment for accumulated vacation leave upon beginning an unpaid leave of absence approved for more than one year in duration if the leave of absence is not for the purpose of accepting an unclassified position in state civil service.

Sec. 19. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 43A.18, subdivision 4, is amended to read:

Subd. 4. [PLANS NOT ESTABLISHED BUT APPROVED BY COMMISSIONER.] Notwithstanding any other law to the contrary, total compensation for employees listed in this subdivision shall must be set by appointing authorities within the limits of compensation plans that have been approved by the commissioner before becoming effective. Compensation plans established under paragraphs (b), (c), and (d) must be approved by the legislature and the legislative commission on employee relations under subdivision 2 before becoming effective.

(a) Total compensation for employees who are not covered by a collective bargaining agreement in the offices of the governor, lieutenant governor, attorney general, secretary of state, state auditor, and state treasurer shall must be determined by the governor, lieutenant governor, attorney general, secretary of state, state auditor and state treasurer, respectively.

(b) Total compensation for unclassified positions pursuant to section 43A.08, subdivision 1, clause (h) (i), ~~in the higher education coordinating board, and in the state board of vocational technical education~~ shall in the state universities and the community colleges not covered by a collective bargaining agreement must be determined by the state university board and the state board for community colleges, ~~the higher education coordinating board, and the state board of vocational technical education,~~ respectively.

(c) Total compensation for classified administrative law judges in the office of administrative hearings shall must be determined by the chief administrative law judge.

(d) Total compensation for unclassified positions not covered by a collective bargaining agreement in the higher education coordinating board and in the state board of vocational technical education must be determined by the higher education coordinating board and the state board of vocational technical education, respectively.

Sec. 20. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 43A.18, subdivision 5, is amended to read:

Subd. 5. [GOVERNOR TO RECOMMEND CERTAIN SALARIES.] (a) The governor shall, by July 1 of each odd-numbered year, submit to the legislative commission on employee relations recommendations for salaries within the salary range for the positions listed in section 15A.081, subdivisions 1 and 7. The governor may also propose additions or deletions of positions from those listed.

(a) (b) Before submitting the recommendations, the governor shall consult with the commissioner of administration, the commissioner of finance, and the commissioner of employee relations concerning the recommendations.

(b) (c) In making recommendations, the governor shall consider only the criteria established in subdivision 8 and may not shall take into account performance of individual incumbents. The governor shall establish an objective system for quantifying knowledge, abilities, duties, responsibilities, and accountabilities and in determining recommendations rate each position by this system.

(e) (d) Before the governor's recommended salaries take effect, the recommendations must be reviewed and approved, rejected, or modified by the legislative commission on employee relations and the legislature in the same manner as provided for the commissioner's plan in subdivision 2. The governor may also at any time propose changes in the salary rate of any positions covered by this subdivision, which must be submitted and approved in the same manner as provided in this subdivision.

(d) (e) The governor shall set the initial salary of a head of a new agency or a chair of a new metropolitan board or commission whose salary is not specifically prescribed by law after consultation with the commissioner, whose recommendation is advisory only. The amount of the new salary must be comparable to the salary of an agency head or commission chair having similar duties and responsibilities.

(e) (f) The salary of a newly appointed head of an agency or chair of a metropolitan agency listed in section 15A.081, subdivision 1 or 7, may be increased or decreased by the governor from the salary previously set for that position within 30 days of the new appointment after consultation with the commissioner. If the governor increases a salary under this paragraph, the governor shall submit the new salary to the legislative commission on employee relations and the full legislature for approval, modification, or rejection in the manner provided in section 43A.18, subdivision 2. If the legislature rejects an increased salary or adjourns without action during the following legislative session, the salary for the position reverts to the level in effect before the governor proposed the change.

Sec. 21. [43A.181] [UNREIMBURSED MEDICAL COSTS VACATION DONATION PROGRAM.]

Subdivision 1. [DONATION OF VACATION TIME.] A state employee may donate up to eight hours of accrued vacation time in any fiscal year to the account established by subdivision 2 for the benefit of another state employee. The employee must notify the employee's agency head of the amount of accrued vacation time the employee wishes to donate and the name of the other state employee who is to benefit from the donation. The agency head shall determine the monetary value of the donated time, using the gross salary of the employee making the donation. The agency head shall transfer that amount, less deductions for applicable taxes and retirement contributions, to the account established by subdivision 2. A donation of accrued vacation time is irrevocable once its monetary value has been transferred to the account.

Subd. 2. [BENEFIT ACCOUNT.] The vacation benefit account, consisting of money transferred under subdivision 1, is administered by the commissioner of employee relations. Money in the account is appropriated to the commissioner for purposes of this section.

Subd. 3. [USE OF ACCOUNT ASSETS.] Expenditures from the account established by subdivision 2 may be made only to pay unreimbursed medical expenses when the total of those expenses is at least $10,000 and the expenses are incurred because of the illness of or injury to a state employee or the employee's spouse or dependent. Any money remaining after all of the unreimbursed medical expenses incurred by the employee named to benefit from a donation have been paid may be transferred to a general pool. The commissioner may use the pool to pay unreimbursed medical expenses for another state employee named to benefit from donated vacation time but whose unreimbursed expenses exceed the monetary value of the donated time.

Sec. 22. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 43A.191, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [AGENCY AFFIRMATIVE ACTION PLANS.] (a) The head of each agency in the executive branch shall prepare and implement an agency affirmative action plan consistent with this section and rules issued under section 43A.04, subdivision 3.

(b) The agency plan must include a plan for the provision of reasonable accommodation in the hiring and promotion of qualified handicapped disabled persons. The reasonable accommodation plan shall must consist of at least the following:

(1) procedures for compliance with section 363.03 and, where appropriate, regulations implementing United States Code, title 29, section 794, as amended through December 31, 1984, which is section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973, as amended;

(2) methods and procedures for providing reasonable accommodation for handicapped disabled job applicants, current employees, and employees seeking promotion; and

(3) provisions for funding reasonable accommodations.

(c) The agency plan must be prepared by the agency head with the assistance of the agency affirmative action officer and the director of equal employment opportunity. The council on disability shall provide assistance with the agency reasonable accommodation plan.

(d) An agency affirmative action plan may not be implemented without the commissioner's approval.

Sec. 23. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 43A.191, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [SANCTIONS AND INCENTIVES.] (a) The director of equal employment opportunity shall annually audit the record of each agency to determine the rate of compliance with annual hiring goals of each goal unit and to evaluate the agency's overall progress toward its affirmative action goals and objectives.

(b) By March 1 of each year, the commissioner shall submit a report on affirmative action progress of each agency and the state as a whole to the governor and to the finance committee of the senate, the appropriations committee of the house of representatives, the governmental operations committees of both houses of the legislature, and the legislative commission on employee relations. The report must include noncompetitive appointments made under section 43A.08, subdivision 2a, or 43A.15, subdivisions 3 to 13, and cover each agency's rate of compliance with annual hiring goals. In addition, any agency that has not met its affirmative action hiring goals, that fails to make an affirmative action hire, or fails to justify its nonaffirmative action hire in 25 percent or more of the appointments made in the previous calendar year must be designated in the report as an agency not in compliance with affirmative action requirements.

(c) The commissioner shall study methods to improve the performance of agencies not in compliance with affirmative action requirements.

(d) The commissioner shall establish a program to recognize agencies that have made significant and measurable progress toward achieving affirmative action objectives.

Sec. 24. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 43A.23, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [GENERAL.] The commissioner is authorized to request bids from carriers or to negotiate with carriers and to enter into contracts with carriers which in the judgment of the commissioner are best qualified to underwrite and service the benefit plans. Contracts entered into with carriers are not subject to the requirements of sections 16B.189 to 16B.22. The commissioner may negotiate premium rates and coverage provisions with all carriers licensed under chapters 62A, 62C, and 62D. The commissioner may also negotiate reasonable restrictions to be applied to all carriers under chapters 62A, 62C, and 62D. Contracts to underwrite the benefit plans must be bid or negotiated separately from contracts to service the benefit plans, which may be awarded only on the basis of competitive bids. The commissioner shall consider the cost of the plans, conversion options relating to the contracts, service capabilities, character, financial position, and reputation of the carriers and any other factors which the commissioner deems appropriate. Each benefit contract must be for a uniform term of at least one year, but may be made automatically renewable from term to term in the absence of notice of termination by either party. The commissioner shall, to the extent feasible, make hospital and medical benefits available from at least one carrier licensed to do business pursuant to each of chapters 62A, 62C and 62D. The commissioner need not provide health maintenance organization services to an employee who resides in an area which is not served by a licensed health maintenance organization. The commissioner may refuse to allow a health maintenance organization to continue as a carrier. The commissioner may elect not to offer all three types of carriers if there are no bids or no acceptable bids by that type of carrier or if the offering of additional carriers would result in substantial additional administrative costs. A carrier licensed under chapter 62A is exempt from the tax imposed by section 60A.15 on premiums paid to it by the state.

Sec. 25. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 43A.27, subdivision 4, is amended to read:

Subd. 4. [RETIRED JUDGES; FORMER LEGISLATORS.] A (a) Retired judge judges or a former legislator legislators may elect to purchase coverage for themselves or their dependents at their own expense as provided below: in paragraphs (b) and (c).

(a) (b) A retired judge of the state supreme court, the court of appeals, a district court, a county court, a county municipal court, or a probate court may elect to purchase coverage provided persons listed in section 43A.24, subdivision 2, clause (c); provided that the retired judge exercises this option within 30 days of the effective date of retirement; or. The commissioner shall notify judges no later than the effective date of their retirement of their right to exercise the option provided in this subdivision. A retired judge must notify the commissioner or designee of the commissioner within 30 days after the effective date of retirement if the judge intends to exercise the option.

(b) (c) A former member of the legislature may elect to purchase coverage provided persons listed in section 43A.24, subdivision 2, clause (a).

Sec. 26. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 43A.316, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [PUBLIC EMPLOYEE INSURANCE PLAN.] There is created the "public employee insurance plan." The commissioner shall be the administrator of the public employee insurance plan and may determine its funding arrangements. The commissioner shall model the plan after the plan established in section 43A.18, subdivision 2, but may modify that plan, in consultation with the labor-management committee.

Sec. 28. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 43A.316, subdivision 5, is amended to read:

Subd. 5. [PUBLIC EMPLOYEE PARTICIPATION.] (a) Participation in the plan is subject to the conditions in this subdivision.

~~(a)~~ (b) Each exclusive representative for an eligible employer determines whether the employees it represents shall will participate in the plan. The exclusive representative ~~must~~ shall give the employer notice of intent to participate at least 90 days before the expiration date of the collective bargaining agreement preceding the collective bargaining agreement that covers the date of entry into the plan. The exclusive representative and the eligible employer shall give notice to the commissioner of the determination to participate in the plan at least 90 days ~~prior to~~ before entry into the plan. Entry into the plan ~~shall be according to~~ is governed by a schedule established by the commissioner.

~~(b)~~ (c) Employees not represented by exclusive representatives may become members of the plan upon a determination of an eligible employer to include these employees in the plan. Either all or none of the employer's unrepresented employees must participate. The eligible employer shall give at least 90 days' notice to the commissioner ~~prior to~~ before entering the plan. Entry into the plan ~~shall be according to~~ is governed by a schedule established by the commissioner.

~~(e)~~ (d) Participation in the plan shall be ~~is~~ for a ~~three-year~~ two-year term if coverage begins in an ~~even-numbered~~ odd-numbered year and a ~~four-year~~ two-year term if coverage begins in an ~~odd-numbered~~ even-numbered year. Participation is automatically renewed for an additional ~~four-year~~ two-year term unless the exclusive representative, or the employer for unrepresented employees, gives the commissioner notice of withdrawal at least 90 days ~~prior to~~ before expiration of the participation period. A group that withdraws ~~must~~ wait two years before rejoining. An exclusive representative, or employer for unrepresented employees, may also withdraw if premiums increase 50 percent or more from one insurance year to the next.

of intent to withdraw to the commissioner at least 90 days before the expiration date of a collective bargaining agreement that includes the date on which the term of participation expires.

(e) (f) Each participating eligible employer shall notify the commissioner of names of individuals who will be participating within two weeks of the commissioner receiving notice of the parties' intent to participate. The employer must shall also submit other information as required by the commissioner for administration of the plan.

Sec. 29. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 43A.316, subdivision 7, is amended to read:

Subd. 7. [PREMIUMS.] The proportion of premium paid by the employer and employee is subject to collective bargaining or personnel policies. If, at the beginning of the coverage period, no collective bargaining agreement has been finalized, the increased dollar costs, if any, from the previous year is the sole responsibility of the individual participant until a collective bargaining agreement states otherwise. Premiums, including an administration fee, shall be established by the commissioner. Each eligible employer shall pay monthly the amounts due for employee benefits including the amounts under subdivision 8 to the commissioner on or before no later than the dates established by the commissioner. Failure to pay may result in cancellation of the If an employer fails to make the payments as required, the commissioner may cancel plan benefits and pursue other civil remedies.

Sec. 30. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 43A.316, subdivision 8, is amended to read:

Subd. 8. [CONTINUATION OF COVERAGE.] (a) ~~A participating employee who is laid off or is on leave may elect to continue the plan coverage. This coverage is at the expense of the employee unless otherwise provided by a collective bargaining agreement. Premiums for these employees must be established by the commissioner. Coverage continues until one of the following occurs:~~

(1) the employee is reemployed and eligible for health care coverage under a group policy; or

(2) the insurance continuation periods required by state and federal laws expire.

(b) A participating employee who retires and is receiving an annuity or is eligible for and has applied for an annuity under chapter 352, 352B, 352C, 352D, 353, 353C, 354, 354A, 356, 422A, 423, 423A, or 424, or 490 is eligible to continue participation in the plan. These employees, and employees who have already retired prior to the group from which they retired entering the plan, are eligible to participate as long as their group continues to participate. This participation is at the retiree's expense unless a collective bargaining agreement or personnel policy provides otherwise. Premiums for these participants must be established by the commissioner. An employer shall notify an employee of this option no later than the effective date of retirement. The retired employee shall notify the employer within 30 days of the effective date of retirement of intent to exercise this option.

(e) (b) The spouse of a deceased, active, or retired employee may purchase the benefits provided at premiums established by the commissioner if the spouse was a dependent under the active or retired employee's coverage under this section at the time of the death. These participants are eligible to participate as long as the group which included their spouse participates. Coverage under this clause must be coordinated with relevant insurance benefits provided through the federally sponsored Medicare program.

(d) (c) The plan benefits must continue in the event of strike permitted by section 179A.18, if the exclusive representative chooses to have coverage continue and the employee pays the total monthly premiums when due.

(e) (d) A person who desires to participate under paragraphs (a) to (d) (c) shall notify the eligible employer or former employer of intent to participate according to rules established by the commissioner. The eligible employer shall notify the commissioner and coverage begins as soon as the commissioner permits.

Persons participating under these paragraphs shall make appropriate premium payments in the time and manner established by the commissioner.

Sec. 31. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 43A.316, subdivision 9, is amended to read:

(b) The commission shall make recommendations to the standing legislative committees on finance and appropriations for appropriations from:

(1) the environmental response, compensation, and compliance account in the environmental fund under section 115B.20, subdivision 5;

(2) the metropolitan landfill abatement account under section 473.844; and

(3) the metropolitan landfill contingency action trust fund under section 473.845.

(c) The commission may conduct public hearings and otherwise secure data and expressions of opinion. The commission shall make such recommendations as it deems proper to assist the legislature in formulating legislation. Any data or information compiled by the commission shall be made available to any standing or interim committee of the legislature upon request of the chair of the respective committee.

Sec. 4. [115A.31] [LOCAL GOVERNMENT DECISIONS; TIME-LINES.]

When a county applies for or requests approval of establishment of a solid waste facility within the boundaries of a local government unit, the local government unit shall make a final decision on the application or request within 120 days following the delivery by the county to the local government unit of the application or request completed in accordance with the requirements of applicable local ordinances. When the proposed facility is one for which an environmental impact statement or environmental assessment worksheet is required under section 116D.04, the local government unit shall make a final decision on the application or request within 90 days after the final determination of adequacy of the environmental impact statement or environmental assessment worksheet.

Sec. 5. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 115A.411, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [AUTHORITY; PURPOSE.] The board and director with assistance from the agency, shall jointly prepare and adopt a report on solid waste management policy excluding the metropolitan area. The report must be adopted by November 15 of each even-numbered year beginning in 1988. The report must be submitted by the board and the agency jointly director to the legislative commission on waste management by November 15 of each even-numbered year.

Sec. 6. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 115A.46, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [GENERAL.] (a) Plans shall address the state policies and purposes expressed in section 115A.02 and may not be inconsistent with state law.

(b) Plans for the location, establishment, operation, maintenance, and postclosure use of facilities and facility sites, for ordinances, and for licensing, permit, and enforcement activities shall be consistent with the rules adopted by the agency pursuant to chapter 116.

(c) Plans shall address:

(1) the resolution of conflicting, duplicative, or overlapping local management efforts. Plans shall address;

(2) the establishment of joint powers management programs or waste management districts where appropriate. Plans shall address; and

(3) other matters as the rules of the board office of waste management may require consistent with the purposes of sections 115A.42 to 115A.46.

(d) Political subdivisions preparing plans under sections 115A.42 to 115A.46 shall consult with persons presently providing solid waste collection, processing, and disposal services.

(e) Plans shall must be approved by submitted to the board director, or the metropolitan council pursuant to section 473.803, for approval. When a county board is ready to have a final plan approved, the county board shall submit a resolution requesting review and approval by the director or the metropolitan council. After receiving the resolution, the director or the metropolitan council must notify the county within 45 days whether the plan as submitted is complete and, if not complete, the specific items that need to be submitted to make the plan as submitted complete. By 90 days after a complete plan has been submitted, the director or the metropolitan council must approve or disapprove the plan. If the plan is disapproved, reasons for the disapproval must be provided.

(f) After initial approval, each plan shall be updated and submitted for approval every five years and. The plan shall be revised as necessary for further approval so that it is not inconsistent with state law.

Sec. 7. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 115A.46, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 5. [JURISDICTION OF PLAN.] (a) After a county plan has been submitted for approval under subdivision 1, another political subdivision within the county may not enter into a binding agreement governing a solid waste management activity that is inconsistent with the county plan without the consent of the county.

(b) After a county plan has been approved under subdivision 1, the plan governs all solid waste management in the county and another political subdivision within the county may not develop or implement a solid waste management activity, other than an activity to reduce waste generation or reuse waste materials, that is inconsistent with the county plan that the county is actively implementing without the consent of the county.

Sec. 8. [115A.47] [GRANT PRIORITY FOR DISTRICT AND COOPERATIVE AGREEMENTS.]

In making grants and awarding other financial assistance for solid waste management projects under chapters 115A and 473, the director and the metropolitan council may give priority to proposals submitted by waste management districts and counties acting cooperatively through joint agreement.

Sec. 9. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 115A.49, is amended to read:

115A.49 [ESTABLISHMENT; PURPOSES AND PRIORITIES.]

There is established a program to encourage and assist cities, counties, solid waste management districts, and sanitary districts in the development and implementation of solid waste management projects and to transfer the knowledge and experience gained from such projects to other communities in the state. The program must be administered to encourage local communities to develop feasible and prudent alternatives to disposal, including waste reduction; waste separation by generators, collectors, and other persons; and waste processing. The program must be administered by the board director in accordance with the requirements of sections 115A.49 to 115A.54 and rules promulgated by the board director pursuant to chapter 14. In administering the program, the board director shall give priority to projects in the order of preference of the waste management practices listed in section 115A.02, areas where natural geologic and soil conditions are especially unsuitable for land disposal of solid waste; and areas where the capacity of existing solid waste disposal facilities is determined by the board director to be less than five years; and projects serving more than one local government unit.

Sec. 10. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 115A.53, is amended to read:

115A.53 [WASTE REDUCTION AND SEPARATION PROJECTS.]

The ~~board~~ director shall provide grants to develop and implement projects for ~~waste reduction~~; waste separation by generators, collectors, and other persons; and collection systems for separated waste. Activities eligible for assistance under this section include legal, financial, economic, educational, marketing, social, governmental, and administrative activities related to the development and implementation of the project. Preliminary planning and development, feasibility study, and conceptual design costs are eligible activities, but no more than 20 percent of program funds shall be used to fund those activities. Projects may include the management of household hazardous waste, as defined in section 115A.96. The director shall give priority to innovative methods for waste separation for reuse or recycling. ~~The rules of the board director shall prescribe by rule the level or levels of local funding required for grants under this section.~~

Sec. 11. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 115A.64, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [PETITION CONTENTS.] (a) A petition requesting establishment or alteration of a waste district shall contain the information the ~~board~~ director may require, including at least the following:

(a) (1) the name of the proposed district;

(b) (2) a description of the territory and political subdivisions within and the boundaries of the proposed district or alteration thereto, along with a map showing the district or alteration;

(c) (3) resolutions of support for the district, as proposed ~~to the board~~, from the governing body of each of the petitioning counties;

(d) (4) a statement of the reason, necessity, and purpose for the district, plus a general description of the solid waste management improvements and facilities contemplated for the district showing how its activities will accomplish the purpose of the district and the purposes for waste resource districts stated in sections 115A.62 to 115A.72; and

(e) (5) articles of incorporation stating:

(i) the powers of the district consistent with sections 115A.62 to 115A.72, including a statement of powers proposed pursuant to sections 115A.70 ~~and~~, 115A.71, and section 13; and

(ii) provisions for representation and election of the board of directors of the district.

(b) After the petition has been filed, no petitioner may withdraw from it except with the written consent of all other petitioners filed with the board.

Sec. 12. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 115A.67, is amended to read:

115A.67 [ORGANIZATION OF DISTRICT.]

The governing body of each county wholly or partly within the district shall appoint two persons to serve on the first board of directors of the district, except that in the case of a district having territory within only two counties each county may appoint three persons. At least one person appointed by each county shall be an elected official of a local government unit having territory within the district. The first chair of the board of directors shall be appointed from outside the first board of directors by the chair of the waste management board. The first chair shall serve for a term of two years. Thereafter The chair shall be elected from outside the board of directors by majority vote of the board of directors. The first chair shall serve for a term of two years. Members of the board of directors shall be residents of the district. The first meeting of the board of directors shall be held at the call of the chair, after notice, for the purpose of proposing the bylaws, electing officers and for any other business that comes before the meeting. The bylaws of the district, and amendments thereto, shall be adopted by a majority vote of the board of directors unless the certificate of incorporation requires a greater vote. The bylaws shall state:

(a) the manner and time of calling regular meetings of the representatives and the board of directors, not less than once annually;

(b) the title, manner of selection, and term of office of officers of the district;

(c) the term of office of members of the board of directors, the manner of their removal, and the manner of filling vacancies on the board of directors;

(d) the powers and duties of the board of directors consistent with the order and articles of incorporation establishing the district;

(e) the definition of a quorum for meetings of the board of directors, which shall be not less than a majority of the members;

(f) the compensation and reimbursement for expenses for members of the board of directors, which shall not exceed that provided for in section 15.0575, subdivision 3; and

(g) such other provisions for regulating the affairs of the district as the board of directors shall determine to be necessary.

Sec. 13. [115A.715] [SOLID WASTE AUTHORITY.]

A district has all the authority of a county for solid waste management purposes that is given to counties under this chapter, chapter 400, and chapter 473, except the authority to issue general obligation bonds or to levy property taxes. A district has the authority of a county to issue general obligation bonds and to levy property taxes only if and only to the extent that the governing body of each county that is a member of the district agrees to delegate the authority to the district. The delegation of the authority is irrevocable unless the governing body of each county that is a member of the district agrees to the revocation.

Sec. 14. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 115A.84, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [DESIGNATION; PLAN CONTENTS.] (a) The designation plan must evaluate:

(1) the benefits of the designation, including the public purposes achieved by the conservation and recovery of resources, the furtherance of local and any district or regional waste management plans and policies, and the furtherance of the state policies and purposes expressed in section 115A.02; and

(2) the estimated costs of the designation, including the direct capital, operating, and maintenance costs of the facility designated, the indirect costs, and the long-term effects of the designation.

(b) In particular the designation plan must evaluate:

(1) whether the designation will result in the recovery of resources or energy from materials which would otherwise be wasted;

(2) whether the designation will lessen the demand for and use of indiscriminate land disposal;

(3) whether the designation is necessary for the financial support of the facility;

(4) whether less restrictive methods for ensuring an adequate solid waste supply are available;

(5) other feasible and prudent waste management alternatives for accomplishing the purposes of the proposed designation, the direct and indirect costs of the alternatives, including capital and operating costs, and the effects of the alternatives on the cost to generators; and

(6) whether the designation takes into account and promotes local, regional, and state waste management goals.

(c) When the plan proposes designation to disposal facilities, the designation plan must also evaluate:

(1) whether the disposal facility is part of an integrated waste management system involving a processing facility and the designation is necessary for the financial support of the processing facility;

(2) whether the designation will better serve to protect public health and safety;

(3) the impacts on other disposal facilities inside and outside the area;

(4) whether the designation is necessary to promote regional waste management programs and cooperation; and

(5) the extent to which the design and operation of the disposal facility protects the environment including whether it is permitted under current agency rules and whether any portion of the facility's site is listed under section 115B.17, subdivision 13.

(d) When the plan proposes designation to a disposal facility, mixed municipal solid waste that is subject to a contract between a hauler and a different facility that is in effect on the date notice is given under section 115A.85, subdivision 2, is not subject to the designation during the contract period or for one year after the date notice is given, whichever period is shorter.

Sec. 15. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 115A.86, subdivision 5, is amended to read:

Subd. 5. [AMENDMENTS.] (a) Except as provided in section 16, amendments to a designation ordinance must be submitted to the reviewing authority for approval. The reviewing authority shall approve the amendment if the amendment is in the public interest and in furtherance of the state policies and purposes expressed in section 115A.02. If the reviewing authority finds that the proposed amendment is a substantive change from the existing designation plan, the reviewing authority may require that the county or solid waste management district submit a revised designation plan to the reviewing authority for approval. After receiving approval for the designation plan amendment from the reviewing authority, the county or district shall follow the procedure outlined in section 115A.85 prior to submitting the amended designation ordinance to the reviewing authority for approval. If the reviewing authority does not act within 90 days after receiving the proposed amendment to the designation ordinance, the amendment is approved.

(b) Except as provided in section 16, prior to amending an ordinance to designate solid waste to a disposal facility, a county or district shall submit an amended designation plan to the reviewing authority for approval, and shall follow the procedures outlined in section 115A.85.

Sec. 16. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 115A.86, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 6. [PENALTIES.] (a) A county may include in its designation ordinance civil and criminal penalties for violation of the ordinance. A civil penalty adopted by the county may not exceed a fine of $10,000 per day of violation plus the cost of mitigating any damages caused by the violation and the attorney fees and court costs incurred by the county to enforce the ordinance.

(b) Subdivision 5 does not govern a designation ordinance amendment adopted under this subdivision.

Sec. 17. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 115A.919, is amended to read:

115A.919 [COUNTY FEE AUTHORITY.]

Subdivision 1. [FEE.] A county may impose a fee, by cubic yard of waste or its equivalent, on operators of facilities for the disposal of mixed municipal solid waste or construction debris located within the county, except a facility permitted solely for disposal of an industrial waste generated by the owner of the facility, or ash resulting from the combustion of solid waste. The revenue from the fees shall be credited to the county general fund and shall be used only for landfill abatement purposes, or costs of closure, postclosure care, and response actions or for purposes of mitigating and compensating for the local risks, costs, and other adverse effects of facilities. When the county makes expenditures of funds generated by the fee, it shall prioritize the expenditures based on the types of facilities from which the fees were generated.

Any fee imposed under this section must be the same for all facilities within the county that accept the same type of waste.

Waste residue from recycling facilities at which recyclable materials are separated or processed for the purpose of recycling, or from energy and resource recovery facilities at which solid waste is processed for the purpose of extracting, reducing, converting to energy, or otherwise separating and preparing solid waste for reuse shall be exempt from the fee imposed by a county under this section if there is at least an 85 percent volume reduction in the solid waste processed. Before any fee is reduced, the verification procedures of section 473.843, subdivision 1, paragraph (c), must be followed and submitted to the appropriate county.

A facility permitted for the disposal of construction debris is exempt from 50 percent of a fee imposed under this section if the facility has implemented a recycling program that has been approved by the county.

Subd. 2. [ADDITIONAL FEE.] A county may impose a fee, by cubic yard or the equivalent of waste collected outside the county, in addition to a fee imposed under subdivision 1, on operators of mixed municipal solid waste disposal facilities located within the county. Revenue generated from the additional fee shall be credited to the county general fund and shall be used only for the purposes listed in subdivision 1, except it shall not be used for landfill abatement purposes.

Sec. 18. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 115A.921, is amended to read:

115A.921 [CITY OR TOWN FEE AUTHORITY.]

(a) A city or town may impose a fee, not to exceed $1 per cubic yard of waste, or its equivalent, on operators of facilities for the disposal of mixed municipal solid waste or construction debris, or facilities that are exempt from the payment of property taxes for the processing of refuse derived fuel or the direct incineration of solid waste located within the city or town, except a facility permitted solely for disposal of an industrial waste generated by the owner of the facility. The revenue from the fees must be credited to the city or town general fund. Revenue produced by ~~25 cents~~ of the fee must be used only for purposes of new landfill abatement programs or for purposes of mitigating and compensating for the local risks, costs, and other adverse effects of facilities. Revenue produced by the balance of the fee may be used for any general fund purpose.

(b) Waste residue from recycling facilities at which recyclable materials are separated or processed for the purpose of recycling, or from energy and resource recovery facilities at which solid waste is processed for the purpose of extracting, reducing, converting to energy, or otherwise separating and preparing solid waste for reuse shall be exempt from the fee imposed by a city or town under this section if there is at least an 85 percent volume reduction in the solid waste processed. Before any fee is reduced, the verification procedures of section 473.843, subdivision 1, paragraph (c), must be followed and submitted to the appropriate city or town.

Sec. 19. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 115A.94, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [GENERAL PROVISIONS.] (a) The local government unit may organize collection as a municipal service or by ordinance, franchise, license, negotiated or bidded contract, or other means, using one or more collectors or an organization of collectors.

(b) The local government unit may not establish or administer organized collection in a manner that impairs the preservation and development of recycling and markets for recyclable materials. The local government unit shall exempt recyclable materials from organized collection upon a showing by the generator or collector that the materials are or will be separated from mixed municipal solid waste by the generator, separately collected, and delivered for reuse in their original form or for use in a manufacturing process.

(c) The local government unit ~~may~~ shall invite and employ the assistance of interested persons, including persons operating solid waste collection services, in developing plans and proposals for organized collection and in establishing the organized collection system.

(d) Organized collection accomplished by contract or as a municipal service may include a requirement that all or any portion of the solid waste, except (1) recyclable materials and (2) materials that are processed at a resource recovery facility at the capacity in operation at the time that the requirement is imposed, be delivered to a waste facility identified by the local government unit. In a district or county where a resource recovery facility has been designated by ordinance under section 115A.86, organized collection must conform to the requirements of the designation ordinance.

Sec. 20. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 115A.94, subdivision 4, is amended to read:

Subd. 4. [CITIES AND TOWNS; NOTICE; PLANNING.] (a) At least 90 180 days before ~~proposing~~ implementing an ordinance, franchise, license, contract or other means of organizing collection, a city or town, by resolution of the governing body, shall announce its intent to organize collection and invite the participation of interested persons in planning and establishing the organized collection system.

(b) The resolution of intent must be adopted after a public hearing. The hearing must be held at least two weeks after public notice and mailed notice to persons known by the city or town to be operating solid waste collection services in the city or town. The failure to give mailed notice to persons or defect in the notice does not invalidate the proceedings, provided a bona fide effort to comply with notice requirements has been made.

(c) During the a 90-day period following the resolution of intent, and before proposing a method of organizing collection, the city or town shall develop or supervise the development of plans or proposals for organized collection. During this 90-day planning period, the city or town shall invite and employ the assistance of persons licensed as of the date of the resolution of intent to operate solid waste collection services in the city or town. Failure of a licensed collector to participate in the 90-day planning period, when the city or town has made a bona fide effort to provide the person the opportunity to participate, does not invalidate the planning process.

(d) For 90 days from the date ending the planning period required under paragraph (c), the city or town shall discuss possible organized collection arrangements with all licensed collectors operating in the city or town who have expressed interest. If the city or town is unable to agree on an organized collection arrangement with a majority of the licensed collectors who have expressed interest, it may then propose implementation of an alternate method of organizing collection as authorized in subdivision 3.

(e) The city or town shall make specific findings that:

(1) describe in detail the procedures it used to plan and to attempt implementation of organized collection through an arrangement with collectors who expressed interest; and

(2) evaluate the proposed organized collection method in light of at least the following standards: achieving the stated organized collection goals of the city or town; minimizing displacement of collectors; ensuring participation of all interested parties in the decision making process; and maximizing efficiency in solid waste collection.

(d) (f) Upon request, the city or town shall provide mailed notice of subsequent all proceedings on the organization of collection in the city or town.

Sec. 21. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 115A.97, subdivision 5, is amended to read:

Subd. 5. [PLANS; BOARD REPORT.] A county solid waste plan, or revision of a plan, that includes incineration of mixed municipal solid waste must clearly state how the county plans to meet the goals in subdivision 1 of reducing the toxicity and quantity of incinerator ash and of reducing the quantity of processing residuals that require disposal. The ~~board~~ director, in cooperation with the agency, the counties, and the metropolitan council, may develop guidelines for counties to use to identify ways to meet the goals in subdivision 1.

The ~~board~~ director, in cooperation with the agency, the counties, and the metropolitan council, shall develop and propose statewide goals and timetables for the reduction of the noncombustible fraction of mixed municipal solid waste prior to incineration or processing into refuse derived fuel and for the reduction of the toxicity of the incinerator ash. By January 1, 1990, the ~~board~~ director shall report to the legislative commission on waste management on the proposal goals and timetables with recommendations for their implementation and, by November 15, 1991, shall submit to the legislative commission on waste management a supplementary report that, at a minimum, assesses the nature of the incinerator ash produced in the state and progress made in removal of problem materials and noncombustibles from the waste stream.

Sec. 22. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 115B.04, subdivision 4, is amended to read:

Subd. 4. [LIABILITY OF POLITICAL SUBDIVISIONS.] (a) The liability of a political subdivision under this section is subject to the limits imposed under section 466.04, subdivision 1, except when the political subdivision is liable under this section as the owner or operator of a disposal facility as defined in section 115A.03, subdivision 10.

(b) When a political subdivision is liable as an owner or operator of a disposal facility, the liability of each political subdivision is limited to $400,000 at each facility unless the facility was owned or operated under a valid joint powers agreement by three or more political subdivisions, in which case the aggregate liability of all political subdivisions that are parties to the joint powers agreement is limited to $1,200,000.

(c) The limits on the liability of a political subdivision for ownership or operation of a disposal facility apply to the costs of remedial response action incurred between the date a request for response action is issued by the agency and the date one year after the construction certificate of completion is approved by the commissioner, excluding the costs incurred during of negotiation of a consent order agreement.

(d) When a political subdivision takes remedial response action as the owner or operator of a disposal facility between the dates in paragraph (c), it may receive, after approval by the agency, reimbursement of any amount spent pursuant to an approved work plan that exceeds the applicable liability limit specified in this subdivision.

Sec. 23. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 116.36, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. For the purposes of ~~this section and section 116.37~~ sections 116.36 to 116.38, the following terms shall have the meanings given.

Sec. 24. [116.38] [PCB BURNING.]

Subdivision 1. [STATE POLICY.] The legislature finds that risks to human health must be adequately evaluated before a facility may burn wastes containing 50 parts per million (ppm) or greater polychlorinated biphenyls (PCBs). The legislature also finds that if there is a risk to human health, all human health must be treated with equal concern, and facilities that cause risks to human health must not be allowed to operate in sparsely populated areas if they would not be allowed to operate in heavily populated areas.

Subd. 2. [ENVIRONMENTAL IMPACT STATEMENT REQUIRED.] A state agency may not allow burning of wastes containing 50 ppm or greater PCBs by permit or otherwise unless an environmental impact statement is completed. This section does not apply to experimental burning of small quantities of waste containing 50 ppm or greater PCBs.

Sec. 25. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 116.41, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [TRAINING AND CERTIFICATION PROGRAMS.] The agency shall may develop standards of competence for persons operating and inspecting various classes of disposal waste management facilities. The agency shall conduct training programs for persons operating waste management facilities for the disposal of waste and for inspectors of such facilities, and may charge such fees as are necessary to cover the actual costs of the training programs. All fees received shall be paid into the state treasury and credited to the pollution control agency training account and are appropriated to the agency to pay expenses relating to the training of disposal waste management facility personnel.

The agency shall require operators and inspectors of such facilities to obtain from the agency a certificate of competence. The agency shall conduct examinations to test the competence of applicants for certification, and shall require that certificates be renewed at reasonable intervals. The agency may charge such fees as are necessary to cover the actual costs of receiving and processing applications, conducting examinations, and issuing and renewing certificates. Certificates shall not be required for a private individual for landspreading and associated interim and temporary storage of sewage sludge on property owned or farmed by that individual.

Sec. 26. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 116C.69, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [FUNDING; ASSESSMENT.] The board shall finance its base line studies, general environmental studies, development of criteria, inventory preparation, monitoring of conditions placed on site certificates and construction permits, and all other work, other than specific site and route designation, from an assessment made quarterly, at least 30 days before the start of each quarter, by the board against all utilities with annual retail kilowatt-hour sales greater than 4,000,000 kilowatt-hours in the previous calendar year.

Until June 30, 1992, the assessment shall also include an amount sufficient to cover 60 percent of the costs to the pollution control agency of achieving, maintaining, and monitoring compliance with the acid deposition control standard adopted under sections 116.42 to 116.45, reprinting informational booklets on acid rain, and costs for additional research on the impacts of acid deposition on sensitive areas published under section 116.44, subdivision 1. The director of the pollution control agency must prepare a work plan and budget and submit them annually by June 30 to the pollution control agency board. The agency board must take public testimony on the budget and work plan. After the agency board approves the work plan and budget they must be submitted annually to the legislative water commission on waste management for review and recommendation before an assessment is levied. Each share shall be determined as follows: (1) the ratio that the annual retail kilowatt-hour sales in the state of each utility bears to the annual total retail kilowatt-hour sales in the state of all these utilities, multiplied by 0.667, plus (2) the ratio that the annual gross revenue from retail kilowatt-hour sales in the state of each utility bears to the annual total gross revenues from retail kilowatt-hour sales in the state of all these utilities, multiplied by 0.333, as determined by the board. The assessment shall be credited to the special revenue fund and shall be paid to the state treasury within 30 days after receipt of the bill, which shall constitute notice of said assessment and demand of payment thereof. The total amount which may be assessed to the several utilities under authority of this subdivision shall not exceed the sum of the annual budget of the board for carrying out the purposes of this subdivision plus 60 percent of the annual budget of the pollution control agency for achieving, maintaining, and monitoring compliance with the acid deposition control standard adopted under sections 116.42 to 116.45, for reprinting informational booklets on acid rain, and for costs for additional research on the impacts of acid deposition on sensitive areas published under section 116.44, subdivision 1. The assessment for the second quarter of each fiscal year shall be adjusted to compensate for the amount by which actual expenditures by the board and the pollution control agency for the preceding fiscal year were more or less than the estimated expenditures previously assessed.

Sec. 27. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 325E.045, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [DEFINITIONS.] The definitions in this subdivision apply to this section.

(a) "Degradable" means capable of being decomposed by natural biological processes, including exposure to ultraviolet rays of the sun, within five years after the date of disposal.

(b) "Person" means an individual, partnership, corporation, sole proprietorship, association, or other for-profit or nonprofit organization, including the state and its political subdivisions.

(c) "Polyethylene disposal bag" means a bag made of polyethylene that is used or intended to be used for disposal of mixed municipal solid waste as defined in section 115A.03.

(d) "Polyethylene beverage ring" means a device made of polyethylene that is used or intended to be used to hold beverage bottles or other beverage containers together.

(e) "Public agency" means the state, an office, agency, or institution of the state, a county, a statutory or home rule charter city, a town, a school district, or another special taxing district.

Sec. 28. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 400.08, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [SERVICE CHARGES.] The county may establish by ordinance, revise when deemed advisable, and collect just and reasonable rates and charges for solid waste management services provided by the county or by others under contract with the county. The ordinance may obligate the owners, lessees, or occupants of property, or any or all of them, to pay charges for solid waste management services to their properties or for disposal at a facility and may obligate the user of any facility to pay a reasonable charge for the use of the facility. Rates and charges may take into account the character, kind, and quality of the service and of the solid waste, the method of disposition, the number of people served at each place of collection, and all other factors that enter into the cost of the service, including but not limited to depreciation and payment of principal and interest on money borrowed by the county for the acquisition or betterment of facilities. A notice of intention to enact an ordinance, published pursuant to section 375.51, subdivision 2, shall provide for a public hearing prior to the meeting at which the ordinance is to be considered.

Sec. 29. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 473.823, subdivision 5, is amended to read:

Subd. 5. [REVIEW OF WASTE PROCESSING FACILITIES.] (a) A metropolitan county may establish a waste processing facility within the county without complying with local ordinances, if the action is approved by the council in accordance with the review process established by this subdivision. A county requesting review by the council shall show that:

(1) the required permits for the proposed facility have been or will be issued by the agency; ~~that;~~

(2) the facility is consistent with the council's policy plan and the approved county master plan; and ~~that~~

(3) a local government unit has refused to approve the establishment or operation of the facility, has failed to deny or approve establishment or operation of the facility within the time period required in section 4, or has approved the application or request with conditions that are unreasonable or impossible for the county to meet.

(b) The council shall meet to commence the review within 90 days of the submission of a request determined by the council to satisfy the requirements for review under this subdivision. At the meeting commencing the review the chair shall recommend and the council establish a scope and procedure, including criteria, for its review and final decision on the proposed facility. The procedure shall require the council to make a final decision on the proposed facility within 120 days following the commencement of review. For facilities other than waste incineration and mixed municipal solid waste composting facilities, the council shall meet to commence the review within 45 days of submission of the request and shall make a final decision within 75 days following commencement of review.

(c) The council shall conduct at least one public hearing in the city or town within which the proposed facility would be located. Notice of the hearing shall be published in a newspaper or newspapers of general circulation in the area for two successive weeks ending at least 15 days before the date of the hearing. The notice shall describe the proposed facility, its location, the proposed permits, and the council's scope and procedure, and criteria for review. The notice shall identify a location or locations within the local government unit and county where the permit applications and the council's scope and, procedure, and criteria for review are available for review and where copies may be obtained.

(d) In its review and final decision on the proposed facility, the council shall consider at least the following matters:

(a) (1) the risk and effect of the proposed facility on local residents, units of government, and the local public health, safety, and welfare, and the degree to which the risk or effect may be alleviated;

(b) (2) the consistency of the proposed facility with, and its effect on, existing and planned local land use and development; local laws, ordinances, and permits; and local public facilities and services;

(c) (3) the adverse effects of the facility on agriculture and natural resources and opportunities to mitigate or eliminate such adverse effects by additional stipulations, conditions, and requirements respecting the design and operation of the proposed facility at the proposed site;

(d) (4) the need for the proposed facility and the availability of alternative sites;

(e) (5) the consistency of the proposed facility with the county master plan adopted pursuant to section 473.803 and the council's policy plan adopted pursuant to section 473.149;

(f) (6) transportation facilities and distance to points of waste generation.

(e) In its final decision in the review, the council may either approve or disapprove the proposed facility at the proposed site. The council's approval shall embody all terms, conditions, and requirements of the permitting state agencies, provided that the council may require more stringent permit terms, conditions, and requirements respecting the design, construction, operation, inspection, monitoring, and maintenance of the proposed facility at the proposed site.

Sec. 30. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 473.833, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 2c. [BUFFER AREA.] The buffer area must ensure, at a minimum, protection of surrounding land uses from adverse or incompatible impacts due to landfill operations and related activities. Related activities that the buffer area must protect against include but are not limited to stockpiling of materials, soil modification operations, and landfill borrow operations.

Sec. 31. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 473.845, subdivision 4, is amended to read:

Subd. 4. [COMMISSION RECOMMENDATION.] The commissioner shall notify the chair and the director of the legislative commission on waste management prior to making expenditures from the fund. The legislative commission on waste management shall make recommendations to the standing legislative committees on finance and appropriations about appropriations from the fund.

Sec. 32. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 473.846, is amended to read:

473.846 [REPORT TO LEGISLATURE.]

By November 1, 1986, and each year thereafter, of each year, the commissioner of health, the commissioner of the agency and the chair of the metropolitan council shall submit to the senate finance committee, the house appropriations committee, and the legislative commission on waste management separate reports describing the activities for which money from the landfill abatement and contingency action funds has been spent during the previous fiscal year. The council may incorporate its report in the report required by section 473.149. In its 1988 report, the council shall make recommendations to the legislature on the future management and use of the metropolitan landfill abatement fund.

Sec. 33. Laws 1989, chapter 325, section 79, is amended to read:

Sec. 79. [EFFECTIVE DATE; APPLICATION.]

Section 6 is effective January 1, 1990.

Sections 20 and 22 to 25 are effective August 1, 1989.

Section 21 is effective January 1, 1990, except that, with respect to nonhazardous solid waste from metal casting facilities, section 21 is effective January 1, 1991.

Section 8 is effective August 1, 1990.

Section 28 is effective June 30, 1989.

Sections 29 and 50 are effective the day following final enactment and apply to all response actions initiated or pending on or after that date.

Section 31 is effective the day following final enactment and section 31, paragraph (1), applies to expenditures resulting from emergencies that occur after January 1, 1988.

Sections 51 to 66 apply in the counties of Anoka, Carver, Dakota, Hennepin, Ramsey, Scott, and Washington and are effective August, 1989; except sections 60 to 63 are effective January 1, 1990; and section 59 is effective the day following final enactment.

Section 69 is effective the day following final enactment.

Sec. 34. Laws 1989, chapter 335, article 1, section 23, subdivision 4, is amended to read:

Subd. 4. Groundwater and Solid Waste Pollution Control

$7,813,000 $8,313,000

Summary by Fund

General	$2,553,000	$3,053,000
Environmental Response	$2,890,000	$2,890,000
Metro Landfill Abatement	$1,700,000	$1,700,000
Metro Landfill Contingency	$ 670,000	$ 670,000

All money in the environmental response, compensation, and compliance fund not otherwise appropriated, is appropriated to the pollution control agency for the purposes described in the environmental response and liability act, Minnesota Statutes, section 115B.20, subdivision 2, paragraphs (a), (b), (c), and (d). This appropriation is available until June 30, 1991.

All money in the metropolitan landfill abatement fund not otherwise appropriated is appropriated to the pollution control agency for payment to the metropolitan council and may be used by the council for the purposes of Minnesota Statutes, section 473.844. The council may not spend the money until the legislative commission on waste management has made its recommendations on the budget and work program submitted by the council.

$1,000,000 the first year and $1,500,000 the second year are appropriated from the general fund for transfer to the environmental response, compensation, and compliance fund.

Any unencumbered balance from the metropolitan landfill contingency fund remaining in fiscal year 1990 does not cancel but is available for fiscal year 1991.

Sec. 35. Laws 1988, chapter 685, section 42, is amended to read:

Sec. 42. Laws 1980, chapter 564, article XII, section 1, subdivision

3, as amended by Laws 1983, chapter 299, section 31, and chapter 301, section 222, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. WASTE MANAGEMENT BOARD.

This appropriation is available for the following purposes:

(a) General Operations and Management. Approved Complement - 14. These positions are in the unclassified service and their continuation is dependent upon the availability of money from appropriations in this subdivision. When these appropriations have been expended the positions shall be canceled and the approved complement reduced accordingly. The annual salary of the full-time chairperson of the board shall be established pursuant to section 115A.081, subdivision 1.

(b) Evaluation, Development, and Acquisition of Sites and Buffer Areas for Hazardous Waste Stabilization and Containment

Facilities

6,200,000

This appropriation is from the state waste management fund, to be spent pursuant to article II, section 3 Minnesota Statutes, section 115A.06, subdivision 4, including payment of the costs of staff and independent professional services needed for the selection and acquisition of sites.

(c) Waste Processing Facility Demonstration Program

8,800,000

This appropriation is from the state waste management fund, to be spent pursuant to article VI, sections 4 and 6. Up to 5 percent is available for administration and technical and professional services.

The commissioner of administration shall amend the state building code to incorporate the requirements of section 1 no later than January 1, 1991.

Sec. 37. [USE OF THE GREATER MINNESOTA LANDFILL CLEANUP FEE UNTIL JULY 1, 1991.]

The operator of a facility shall pay the fee required under section 115A.923, subdivision 1, to the county or sanitary district where the facility is located until July 1, 1991.

By October 1, 1990, each county or sanitary district that collects the required fee shall pay three percent out of the revenue generated by the fee during the first quarter of collection to the department of revenue for deposit in the general fund of the state.

The remainder of the fees received by the county or sanitary district may not be spent but must be held in trust by the county or sanitary district until July 1, 1991, after which date the county or sanitary district may spend the funds generated by the fee for the purposes specified in section 115A.919.

Sec. 38. [STUDY; FINANCIAL ASSURANCE ASSISTANCE MECHANISM.]

The legislative commission on waste management, in coordination with counties, organizations of counties, state agencies, and other interested parties, shall develop and evaluate a possible mechanism or mechanisms to assist public and private landfill owners and operators to comply with the contingency action requirements of the financial assurance rules adopted under Minnesota Statutes, section 116.07, subdivision 4h. The assistance mechanisms identified may include use of the fees collected under section 37.

Development and evaluation of possible assistance mechanisms must include at least:

(1) how each mechanism should be structured;

(2) what facilities and costs should be assisted by each mechanism;

(3) how each mechanism should be funded and administered;

(4) how each mechanism should be coordinated with the environmental response and liability act, Minnesota Statutes, chapter 115B; and

(5) how and to what extent each mechanism would assist owners and operators of landfills to comply with the financial assurance rules.

The commission shall report its findings and make any applicable recommendations for legislative action by December 31, 1990.

Sec. 39. [REPEALER.]

Minnesota Statutes 1988, sections 115A.09, subdivision 5; and 325E.045, subdivisions 3 and 4; Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, sections 115A.922; 115A.923, subdivisions 2, 3, 4, and 5; 115A.924; 115A.925; 115A.927; and 115A.928; and Laws 1987, chapter 348, section 51, subdivision 5, are repealed.

Sec. 40. [APPROPRIATION.]

$ is appropriated from the general fund to the legislative commission on waste management for the purposes of conducting the study required in section 38.

Sec. 41. [COMPLEMENT.]

The complement of the pollution control agency is increased by two full-time permanent positions to assist in administering Minnesota Statutes, section 115B.17, subdivision 14.

Sec. 42. [EFFECTIVE DATES.]

Sections 2, 4, 6, 9, 14 to 16, 22 to 29, 33 to 36, 38, and 39, are effective the day following final enactment. Section 7 is effective the day following final enactment and applies to only those activities, circumstances, or disputes that are undertaken or arise after that date. Section 7 does not apply to activities, circumstances, or disputes that have been undertaken or have arisen prior to its effective date. Section 37 is effective July 1, 1990.

ARTICLE 2

Section 1. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 115A.03, subdivision 23, is amended to read:

Subd. 23. "Person" has the meaning given it in section 116.06, but does not include the board office or director.

for the exercise of its the powers or the accomplishment of its the purposes of the office.

Sec. 6. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 115A.06, subdivision 10, is amended to read:

Subd. 10. [RESEARCH.] ~~The board or the chair acting on behalf of the board~~ director may conduct research studies and programs, collect and analyze data, prepare reports, maps, charts, and tables, and order all necessary hearings and investigations in connection with its work and may advise and assist other government units on planning matters within the scope of its the powers, duties, and objectives of the office.

Sec. 7. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 115A.06, subdivision 11, is amended to read:

Subd. 11. [EMPLOYEES; CONTRACTS FOR SERVICES.] ~~The board through its chair~~ director may employ persons and contract for services to perform research, engineering, legal, or other services necessary to carry out its the functions of the office.

Sec. 8. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 115A.06, subdivision 12, is amended to read:

Subd. 12. [INSURANCE.] ~~The board through its chair~~ director may require any employee to obtain and file with it an individual bond or fidelity insurance policy. ~~It~~ The director may procure insurance in amounts ~~it~~ the director deems necessary to insure against liability of the ~~board~~ director, office, and employees ~~or both,~~ for personal injury or death and property damage or destruction, with the force and effect stated in chapter 466, and against risks of damage to or destruction of ~~any of its property as it deems necessary.~~

Sec. 9. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 115A.06, subdivision 13, is amended to read:

Subd. 13. [PRIVATE AND NONPUBLIC DATA.] Any data held by the ~~board which~~ director that consists of trade secret information as defined by section 13.37, subdivision 1, clause (b), or sales information, ~~shall be~~ is classified as private or nonpublic data as defined in section 13.02, subdivisions 9 and 12. When data is classified private or nonpublic pursuant to this subdivision the ~~board~~ director may:

(a) Use the data to compile and publish analyses or summaries and to carry out its the director's statutory responsibilities in a manner which does not identify the subject of the data; or

(b) Disclose the data when ~~it is~~ obligated to disclose it to comply with federal law or regulation but only to the extent required by the federal law or regulation.

The subject of data classified as private or nonpublic pursuant to this subdivision may authorize the disclosure of some or all of that data by the board director.

Sec. 10. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 115A.07, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [INTERAGENCY COORDINATION.] The chair of the board director shall inform the commissioner of trade and economic development of the board's director's activities, solicit the advice and recommendations of the agency, and coordinate its the work of the office with the regulatory and enforcement activities of the agency.

Sec. 11. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 115A.07, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [BIENNIAL REPORT.] Before November 15 of each even-numbered year the board through its chair director shall prepare and submit to the legislative commission a report of the board's office's operations and activities pursuant to sections 115A.01 to 115A.72 and any recommendations for legislative action. The report shall include a proposed work plan for the following biennium.

Sec. 12. Minnesota Statutes Second 1989 Supplement, section 115A.072, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [WASTE EDUCATION COALITION.] (a) The office director shall provide for the development and implementation of a program of general public education on waste management in cooperation and coordination with the pollution control agency, metropolitan council, department of education, department of agriculture, state planning agency, environmental quality board, environmental education board, educational institutions, other public agencies with responsibility for waste management or public education, and three other persons who represent private industry and who have knowledge of or expertise in recycling and solid waste management issues. The objectives of the program are to: develop increased public awareness of and interest in environmentally sound waste management methods; encourage better informed decisions on waste management issues by business, industry, local governments, and the public; and disseminate practical information about ways in which households and other institutions and organizations can improve the management of waste.

(b) The office director shall appoint an advisory task force, to be called the waste education coalition, of up to 18 members to advise the office director in carrying out ~~its~~ the director's responsibilities under this section and whose membership represents the agencies and entities listed in this subdivision.

Sec. 13. Minnesota Statutes Second 1989 Supplement, section 115A.072, subdivision 4, is amended to read:

Subd. 4. [EDUCATION, PROMOTION, AND PROCUREMENT.] The office director shall include waste reduction as an element of its the program of public education on waste management required under this section. The waste reduction education program must include dissemination of information and may include an award program for model waste reduction efforts. Waste reduction educational efforts must also include provision of information about and promotion of the model procurement program developed by the commissioner of administration under section 115A.15, subdivision 7, or any other model procurement program that results in significant waste reduction.

Sec. 14. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 115A.075, is amended to read:

115A.075 [LEGISLATIVE POLICY AGAINST DISPOSAL OF HAZARDOUS WASTE.]

The legislature finds that hazardous waste must be managed in a manner that protects the health, safety, and welfare of the citizens of the state and protects and conserves the state's natural resources and environment; that reduction of the amount of waste generated and processing, treatment, separation, and resource recovery are the preferred methods to manage hazardous waste; and that disposal of hazardous waste should be used only as a last resort when all other management methods are ineffective, and then only if an environmentally suitable site can be identified in the state.

The board director, in its planning, facility approval, and other activities related to hazardous waste shall give first priority to eliminating the generation of hazardous waste and eliminating or reducing the hazardous character of the waste generated in the state through processing, treatment, separation, and resource recovery.

Sec. 15. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 115A.10, is amended to read:

115A.10 [DUTIES OF THE BOARD DIRECTOR; HAZARDOUS WASTE FACILITIES; ENCOURAGEMENT OF PRIVATE ENTERPRISE.]

The board and the chair on behalf of the board director shall encourage the development and operation of hazardous waste facilities by private enterprise to the extent practicable and consistent with the purposes of sections 115A.01 to 115A.72 this chapter and the board's hazardous waste management plan adopted pursuant to section 115A.11. In preparing the reports under section 115A.08 and the inventory of processing facility sites under section 115A.09, In adopting the management plan, and in its actions and decisions under sections 115A.18 to 115A.30 and 115A.32 to 115A.39, the board and the chair on behalf of the board director shall solicit the active participation of private waste management firms and shall so conduct its activities as to encourage private permit applications for facilities needed in the state. The board director shall promulgate rules for accepting and evaluating applications for permits for the construction and operation of facilities at sites preferred by the board pursuant to section 115A.09. The rules shall include standards and procedures for making determinations on the minimum qualifications, including technical competence and financial capability, of permit applicants.

Sec. 16. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 115A.11, subdivision 1a, is amended to read:

Subd. 1a. [POLICY.] In developing and implementing the plan, the director shall place highest priority of the board must be placed upon alternatives to land disposal of hazardous wastes including: technologies to modify industrial processes or introduce new processes that will reduce or eliminate hazardous waste generation; recycling, reuse, and recovery methods to reduce or eliminate hazardous waste disposal; and conversion and treatment technologies to reduce the degree of environmental risk from hazardous waste. The board director shall also consider technologies for retrievable storage of hazardous wastes for later recycling, reuse, recovery, conversion, or treatment.

Sec. 17. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 115A.14, subdivision 4, is amended to read:

Subd. 4. [POWERS AND DUTIES.] (a) The commission shall oversee the activities of the board office under this chapter relating to solid and hazardous waste management, the activities of the agency under sections 116.16 to 116.181 relating to water pollution control, and the activities of the metropolitan council relating to metropolitan waste management under sections 473.801 to 473.848, and direct such changes or additions in the work plan of the board director and agency as it deems fit.

(b) The commission shall make recommendations to the standing legislative committees on finance and appropriations for appropriations from:

- (1) the environmental response, compensation, and compliance account in the environmental fund under section 115B.20, subdivision 5;

(2) the metropolitan landfill abatement account under section 473.844; and

(3) the metropolitan landfill contingency action trust fund under section 473.845.

(c) The commission may conduct public hearings and otherwise secure data and expressions of opinion. The commission shall make such recommendations as it deems proper to assist the legislature in formulating legislation. Any data or information compiled by the commission shall be made available to any standing or interim committee of the legislature upon request of the chair of the respective committee.

Sec. 18. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 115A.158, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [PROCEDURE; EVALUATION; REPORT.] In requesting proposals, the board director shall inform potential developers of the assistance available to them in siting and establishing hazardous waste processing and collection facilities and services in the state and improved industrial waste management in the state, including the availability of sites listed on the board's inventory of preferred areas for hazardous waste processing facilities, the authority of the board director to acquire sites and order the establishment of facilities in those areas, the policies and objectives of the hazardous waste management plan, and the availability of information developed by the board director on hazardous or industrial waste generation and management in the state.

The board director shall evaluate the proposals received in response to its request and determine the extent to which the proposals demonstrate the qualifications of the developers, the technical and economic feasibility of the proposed facility or service, and the extent to which the proposed facility or service will contribute in a significant way to the achievement of the policies and objectives of the hazardous waste management plan.

The board director shall report to the legislative commission on the proposals that it has received and evaluated, and on the legislative, regulatory, and other actions needed to develop and operate the proposed facilities or services.

Sec. 19. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 115A.191, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [~~BOARD~~ DIRECTOR TO SEEK CONTRACTS.]

The waste management board director and any eligible county board may enter a contract as provided in this section expressing their voluntary and mutually satisfactory agreement concerning the location and development of a stabilization and containment facility. The chair director shall negotiate and enter into contracts with eligible counties and shall present drafts of the negotiated contracts to the board for its approval. The chair director shall actively solicit, encourage, and assist counties, together with developers, landowners, the local business community, and other interested parties, in developing resolutions of interest. The county shall provide affected political subdivisions and other interested persons with an opportunity to suggest contract terms.

Sec. 20. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 115A.191, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [RESOLUTION OF INTEREST IN NEGOTIATING; ELIGIBILITY.] A county is eligible to negotiate a contract under this section if the county board files with the waste management board director and the board director accepts a resolution adopted by the county board that expresses the county board's interest in negotiations and its willingness to accept the preliminary evaluation of one or more study areas in the county for consideration as a location of a stabilization and containment facility. The county board resolution expressing interest in negotiations must provide for county cooperation with the board director, as necessary to facilitate the evaluation of study areas in the county, and for the appointment of a member of the county board or an officer or employee of the county as official liaison with the board director with respect to the matters provided in the resolution and future negotiations with the board. A county board by resolution may withdraw a resolution of interest, and the waste management board director may withdraw its acceptance of such a resolution, at any time before the parties execute a contract under this section. A county that is eligible to negotiate a contract shall receive the benefits as provided in section 477A.012.

Sec. 21. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 115A.192, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [REQUEST FOR PROPOSALS.] The chair director shall issue requests for proposals for the development and operation of a stabilization and containment facility. The request must be designed to obtain detailed information about the qualifications of a respondent to develop and operate the facility; the capital and operating costs of the facility and the sources and methods by which the respondent plans to finance the facility; the technical specifications of the proposed facility and the technologies to be employed for processing, stabilization, containment, and monitoring; the requirements of the site for the proposed facility; the schedule for developing and commencing operation of the facility; and other matters which that the chair director deems necessary for the board to evaluate and select a developer and operator for the facility. Before issuing the requests, the chair director shall prepare a draft of clauses (a) to (e) of the report required by section 115A.193. The draft must accompany the requests for proposals.

Sec. 22. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 115A.192, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [SELECTION OF DEVELOPER; PROCEDURE.] After evaluating responses to the request for proposals and before selecting a site as provided in section 115A.194, the board director shall decide whether to select a developer for a stabilization and containment facility. If the board director selects a developer ~~at the director~~ shall proceed as provided in section 115A.194 to select a site for the development of a facility. If the board director decides not to select a developer, the board director shall proceed as provided in section 115A.194 to select and acquire a site for potential future development of a facility.

Sec. 23. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 115A.193, is amended to read:

115A.193 [REPORT ON FACILITY DEVELOPMENT.]

The chair director shall prepare a report concerning the development of a stabilization and containment facility. The report must include:

(a) a conceptual plan that describes and evaluates the proposed design and operation of the facility, including an evaluation of technical feasibility, a description and evaluation of the types and quantities of hazardous waste and nonhazardous residual waste from hazardous waste processing that the facility would be designed to accept, and a description and evaluation of technologies needed or desired at the facility for processing, stabilization, and containment, including above grade containment;

(b) procedures and standards for the operation of the facility that require the use of reduction, recycling, and recovery of any hazardous waste before the waste is accepted for stabilization when the alternative or additional management method is feasible and prudent and would materially reduce adverse impact on human health and the environment;

(c) evaluation of the design and use of the facility for processing, stabilization, or containment of industrial waste, including technical and regulatory issues and alternative management methods;

(d) evaluation of feasible and prudent technologies that may substantially reduce the possibility of migration of any hazardous constituents of wastes that the facility would be designed to accept;

(e) a general analysis of the necessary and desirable physical, locational, and other characteristics of a site for the facility;

(f) an evaluation of the prospects of and conditions required for the regulatory delisting of residual waste from hazardous waste processing;

(g) an evaluation of the feasibility of an interstate, regional approach to the management of hazardous waste; and

(h) an economic feasibility analysis of the development and operation of the facility, including the anticipated use of the facility by Minnesota generators from within and outside the state, and sources of private and public financing that may be available or necessary for development or operation.

The ~~chair~~ director shall submit a draft of the report to the ~~board~~ and the legislative commission on waste management by ~~July 1, 1988, and~~ before executing contracts under section 115A.191.

Sec. 24. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 115A.194, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [~~BOARD DIRECTOR; REQUIREMENTS BEFORE DECISIONS.~~] Before the ~~board~~ director makes decisions under subdivision 4:

(a) the ~~board~~ director shall complete environmental impact statements on the environmental effects of the decisions, in the manner provided in chapter 116D and the rules issued under that chapter; and

(b) the ~~chair~~ director shall present to the ~~board~~ legislative commission the report on facility development prepared as provided in section 115A.193.

Sec. 25. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 115A.195, is amended to read:

115A.195 [PUBLIC PARTICIPATION IN OWNERSHIP AND MANAGEMENT OF FACILITY.]

The stabilization and containment facility developed under sections 115A.18 to 115A.30 may be wholly owned by the state or jointly owned by the state and a developer selected by the ~~board~~ director under section 115A.192. The ~~board~~ chair director may negotiate and ~~the board may enter into~~ agreements with a selected developer providing terms and conditions for the development and operation of the facility. If the agreements provide for capital improvements or equipment, or for payment of state money, the agreements may be implemented only if funds are appropriated and available to the board director for those purposes.

Sec. 26. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 115A.54, subdivision 2a, is amended to read:

Subd. 2a. [SOLID WASTE MANAGEMENT PROJECTS.] (a) The board director shall provide technical and financial assistance for the acquisition and betterment of solid waste management projects as provided in this subdivision and section 115A.52. Money appropriated for the purposes of this subdivision must be distributed as grants.

(b) Except as provided in paragraph (c), a project may receive grant assistance up to 25 percent of the capital cost of the project or $2,000,000, whichever is less.

(c) A recycling project or a project to compost or co-compost waste may receive grant assistance up to 50 percent of the capital cost of the project or $2,000,000, whichever is less.

(d) Notwithstanding paragraph (e), the agency director may award grants for transfer stations that will initially transfer waste to landfills if the transfer stations are part of a planned resource recovery project, the county where the planned resource recovery facility will be located has a comprehensive solid waste management plan approved by the agency director, and the solid waste management plan proposes the development of the resource recovery facility. If the proposed resource recovery facility is not in place and operating within five years of the date of the grant award, the recipient shall repay the grant amount to the state.

(e) Projects without resource recovery are not eligible for assistance.

(f) In addition to any assistance received under clause (b) or (c), a project may receive grant assistance for the cost of tests necessary to determine the appropriate pollution control equipment for the project or the environmental effects of the use of any product or material produced by the project.

(g) In addition to the application requirements of section 115A.51, an application for a project serving eligible jurisdictions in only a single county must demonstrate that cooperation with jurisdictions in other counties to develop the project is not needed or not feasible. Each application must also demonstrate that the project is not financially prudent without the state assistance, because of the applicant's financial capacity and the problems inherent in the waste management situation in the area, particularly transportation distances and limited waste supply and markets for resources recovered.

(h) For the purposes of this subdivision, a "project" means a processing facility, together with any transfer stations, transmission facilities, and other related and appurtenant facilities primarily serving the processing facility. The board director shall adopt rules for the program by July 1, 1985.

Sec. 27. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 115A.54, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [OBLIGATIONS OF RECIPIENT.] No grant or loan for any project shall be disbursed until the governing body of the recipient has made an irrevocable undertaking, by resolution, to use all funds made available exclusively for the capital cost of the project and to pay any additional amount by which the cost of the project exceeds the estimate by appropriation to the construction fund of additional funds or proceeds of additional bonds of the recipient. The resolution shall also indicate that any subsequent withdrawal of allocated or additional funds of the recipient will impair the obligation of contract between the state of Minnesota, the recipient, and the bondholders. The resolution shall pledge payment to the debt service account of all revenues of the project to the extent that they exceed costs and shall also obligate the recipient to levy a tax sufficient to make timely payments under the loan agreement, if a deficiency occurs in the amount of user charges, taxes, special assessments, or other money pledged for payment under the loan agreement. Each loan made to a recipient shall be secured by the director and by resolutions adopted by the board and the governing body of the recipient, obligating the recipient to repay the loan to the state treasurer in annual installments including both principal and interest. Installments shall be in an amount sufficient to pay the principal amount within the period required by the board. The interest on the loan shall be calculated on the declining balance at a rate not less than the average annual interest rate on the state bonds of the issue from which proceeds of the loan were made. The resolution shall obligate the recipient to provide money for the repayment from user charges, taxes, special assessments or any other funds available to it.

Sec. 28. Minnesota Statutes Second 1989 Supplement, section 115A.55, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [FINANCIAL ASSISTANCE.] (a) The office director shall make loans and grants to any person for the purpose of developing and implementing projects or practices to prevent or reduce the generation of solid waste including those that involve reuse of items in their original form or in manufacturing processes that do not cause the destruction of recyclable materials in a manner that precludes further use, or involve procuring, using, or producing products with long useful lives. Grants may be used to fund studies needed to determine the technical and financial feasibility of a waste reduction project or practice or for the cost of implementation of a waste reduction project or practice that the office has determined is technically and financially feasible.

(b) In making grants or loans, the office director shall give priority to waste reduction projects or practices that have broad application in the state and that have the potential for significant reduction of the amount of waste generated.

(c) All information developed as a result of a grant or loan shall be made available to other solid waste generators through the public information program established in subdivision 2.

(d) The office director shall adopt rules for the administration of this program. Office The rules must prescribe the level or levels of matching funds required for grants or loans under this subdivision.

Sec. 29. Minnesota Statutes Second 1989 Supplement, section 115A.551, subdivision 4, is amended to read:

Subd. 4. [INTERIM MONITORING.] The office director, for counties outside of the metropolitan area, and the metropolitan council, for counties within the metropolitan area, shall monitor the progress of each county toward meeting the recycling goal in subdivision 2 and shall report to the legislative commission on waste management on the progress of the counties by November 1 of each year. If the office director or the council finds that a county is not progressing toward the goal in subdivision 2, ~~it~~ the director or council shall negotiate with the county to develop and implement solid waste management techniques designed to assist the county in meeting the goal, such as organized collection, curbside collection of source-separated materials, and volume-based pricing.

Sec. 30. Minnesota Statutes Second 1989 Supplement, section 115A.551, subdivision 7, is amended to read:

Subd. 7. [RECYCLING IMPLEMENTATION STRATEGY.] Within one year of office approval by the director of the portion of the plan required in subdivision 6, each nonmetropolitan county shall submit for office approval by the director a local recycling implementation strategy. The local recycling implementation strategy must:

(1) be consistent with the approved county solid waste management plan;

(2) identify the materials that are being and will be recycled in the county to meet the goals under this section and the parties responsible and methods for recycling the material; and

(3) define the need for funds to ensure continuation of local recycling, methods of raising and allocating such funds, and permanent sources and levels of local funding for recycling.

Sec. 31. Minnesota Statutes Second 1989 Supplement, section 115A.558, is amended to read:

115A.558 [SAFETY GUIDE.]

The ~~pollution control agency commissioner~~, in cooperation with the office of waste management director and the metropolitan council, shall prepare and distribute to all interested persons a guide for operation of a recycling or yard waste composting facility to protect the environment and public health.

Sec. 32. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 115A.64, subdivision 4, is amended to read:

Subd. 4. [REVIEW PROCEDURES.] Upon receipt of the petition, the ~~chair of the board~~ director shall determine whether the petition conforms in form and substance to the requirements of law and rule. If the petition does not conform to the requirements, the ~~chair director~~ shall return it immediately to the petitioners with a statement describing the deficiencies and the amendments necessary to rectify them. If the petition does conform to the requirements, and if comments have been received objecting to the establishment or alteration of the district as proposed, the ~~chair director~~ shall request the office of administrative hearings to conduct a hearing on the petition. The hearing shall be conducted in the proposed district in the manner provided in chapter 14 for contested cases. If no comments have been received objecting to the establishment of the district as proposed, the ~~board director~~ may proceed to grant or deny the petition without the necessity of conducting a contested case hearing. If the petition conforms to the requirements of law and rule, the ~~chair director~~ shall also immediately submit the petition to the solid waste ~~and the technical management advisory councils of the board council~~ for review and recommendation and shall forward the petition to the commissioner of the agency, who shall prepare and submit to the ~~board director~~ a report containing recommendations on the disposition of the petition. The commissioner's report shall contain at least the commissioner's findings and conclusions on whether the proposed boundaries, purposes, powers, and management plans of the district or alteration thereto serve the purposes of waste resource districts, are appropriately related to the waste generation, collection, processing, and disposal patterns in the area, and are generally consistent with the purposes of the agency's regulatory program.

Sec. 33. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 115A.64, subdivision 6, is amended to read:

Subd. 6. [BOARD ORDER DIRECTOR'S ORDERS.] After considering the reports of the administrative law judge, if a contested case hearing has been held, and the recommendations of the solid waste management advisory ~~councils~~ council and the commissioner of the agency, the board director shall make a final decision on the petition. If the board director finds and determines that the establishment or alteration of a district as proposed in the petition would not be in the public interest and would not serve the purposes of sections 115A.62 to 115A.72, it the director shall give notice to the petitioners of its the director's intent to deny the petition. If a contested case hearing has not been held, the petitioners may request a hearing within 30 days of the notice of intent to deny the petition. The request shall be granted. Following the hearing and the report of the administrative law judge, the board director shall make a final decision on the petition and mail a copy of its decision to the governing body of each affected political subdivision. If the board director finds and determines that the establishment or alteration of a district as proposed in the petition would be in the public interest and would serve the purposes of sections 115A.62 to 115A.72, it the director shall, by order, establish the district, define its boundaries, and give it a corporate name by which, in all proceedings, it shall thereafter be known. The order shall include articles of incorporation stating the powers of the district and the location of its registered office. Upon the filing of a certified copy of the order of the board director with the secretary of state, the district shall become a political subdivision of the state and a public corporation, with the authority, power, and duties prescribed in sections 115A.62 to 115A.72 and the order of the board director. At the time of filing, a copy of the order shall be mailed by the board director to the governing body of each political subdivision wholly or partly within the district or affected by the alteration of the district.

Sec. 34. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 115A.66, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [HEARING; DECISION.] If objection is made to the board director against the petition for termination, a contested case hearing on the petition shall be held in the waste district pursuant to chapter 14. If the board director determines that the termination of the district as proposed in the petition would not be in the public interest, the board director shall give notice to the petitioner of its the director's intent to deny the petition. If a contested case hearing has not been held, the petitioner may request a hearing within 30 days of the notice of intent to deny the petition. The request shall be granted. Following the hearing and the report of the administrative law judge, the board director shall make a final decision on the petition. If the petition is dismissed all costs of the proceeding shall be assessed against the petitioner. If the board director determines that the existence of the district is no longer in the public interest, the board director shall by its findings and order terminate the district. Upon the filing of a certified copy of the findings and order with the secretary of state the district shall cease to be a public corporation and a political subdivision of the state.

Sec. 35. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 115A.914, is amended to read:

115A.914 [ADMINISTRATION; COUNTY PLANNING AND ORDINANCES.]

Subdivision 1. [REGULATORY AND ENFORCEMENT POWERS.] For purposes of implementing and enforcing the waste tire programs in sections 115A.90 to 115A.914, the board commissioner may exercise the regulatory and enforcement powers of the agency under chapters 115 and 116.

Subd. 2. [BOARD RULES.] The board commissioner shall adopt rules for administration of waste tire collector and processor permits, waste tire nuisance abatement, and waste tire collection.

Subd. 3. [COUNTY PLANNING; ORDINANCES.] Counties shall include collection and processing of waste tires in the solid waste management plan prepared under sections 115A.42 to 115A.46 and shall adopt ordinances under sections 400.16 and 473.811 for management of waste tires that embody, but may be more restrictive than, board agency rules.

Sec. 36. Minnesota Statutes Second 1989 Supplement, section 115A.961, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [PROGRAM.] (a) The office director, in consultation with other state agencies, political subdivisions, and representatives of the household battery industry, may develop household battery programs. The office director must coordinate ~~its~~ the programs with the legislative commission on Minnesota resources study on batteries.

(b) The office director shall investigate options and develop guidelines for collection, processing, and disposal of household batteries. The options the office director may investigate include:

(1) establishing a grant program for counties to plan and implement household battery collection, processing, and disposal projects;

(2) establishing collection and transportation systems;

(3) developing and disseminating educational materials regarding environmentally sound battery management; and

(4) developing markets for materials recovered from the batteries.

(c) The ~~office~~ director may also distribute funds to political subdivisions to develop battery management plans and implement those plans.

Sec. 37. Minnesota Statutes Second 1989 Supplement, section 115A.961, subdivision 4, is amended to read:

Subd. 4. [REPORT.] By November 1, 1991, the ~~office~~ director shall report to the legislative commission on waste management on ~~its~~ the activities of the office under this section with recommendations for legislation necessary to address management of household batteries.

Sec. 38. Laws 1989, chapter 335, article 1, section 269, is amended to read:

Sec. 269. [INSTRUCTION TO THE REVISOR.]

(a) The revisor shall change references to "Minnesota future resources commission" to "legislative commission on Minnesota resources" wherever they appear in the 1990 edition of Minnesota Statutes and subsequent editions of the statutes.

(b) If legislation is enacted in the 1989 legislature to change section numbers of provisions governing watercraft licensing or to recodify those provisions into chapter 361A, the revisor of statutes shall correct cross-references to those provisions in this act and renumber the sections of Minnesota Statutes in this act consistent with those changes.

(c) The revisor shall change references to "waste management board" to "office of waste management," "board" where it means waste management board to "office," "chair" where it means chair of the waste management board to "director," "chair of the board" where it means chair of the waste management board to "director," and "board, through its chair" where it means waste management board through its chair to "director" in Minnesota Statutes 1990 and subsequent editions of the statutes. Wherever a reference to "waste management board" or "board" where it refers to the waste management board was changed to another board or agency in laws enacted in the 1989 regular session as a result of reorganization order number 155, the revisor shall change the reference to "office of waste management" or "office."

Sec. 39. [INSTRUCTION TO THE REVISOR.]

Except as specifically provided in article 1 and this article, in Minnesota Statutes 1990 and subsequent editions of the statutes, the revisor of statutes shall change references as follows:

(i) in chapter 115A, except for sections 115A.08, 115A.09, 115A.159, 115A.201 to 115A.30, 115A.32 to 115A.39, and 115A.90 to 115A.914, the revisor shall change the words "waste management board," "board," "board or the chair acting on behalf of the board," "board and the chair acting on behalf of the board," "chair of the waste management board," "chair of the board," "board through its chair," "chair," and "board chair," where those words mean waste management board or chair of the waste management board; and "office of waste management," where it means director of the office of waste management, and "office," where it means director of the office of waste management, to "director";

(ii) in sections 115A.90 to 115A.914, the revisor shall change the word "board" to "agency"; and

(iii) in chapters other than chapter 115A, the revisor shall change the words "waste management board" to "office of waste management," where it means office of waste management, or to "director of the office of waste management," where it means director of the office of waste management.

"ARTICLE 1

Section 1. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 175A.01, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [MEMBERSHIP, APPOINTMENT, QUALIFICATIONS.] The workers' compensation court of appeals as previously constituted is reconstituted as an independent agency in the executive branch.

The workers' compensation court of appeals shall consist of five judges each serving in the unclassified service. The five judges shall be learned in the law and shall have been licensed to practice law for at least five years. Each judge of the workers' compensation court of appeals shall be appointed by the governor, by and with the advice and consent of the senate, for a term of six years commencing at the expiration of the preceding term. Any vacancy shall be filled by the governor for the unexpired term, subject to confirmation by the senate. The terms of the judges shall expire on the first Monday in January of the year in which they expire. The terms of the judges shall be staggered. The judges of the workers' compensation court of appeals as now created shall be the judges of the workers' compensation court of appeals until the expiration of the terms for which they have been appointed and qualified. They shall be selected on the basis of their experience with and knowledge of workers' compensation and the workers' compensation laws of Minnesota. The judges of the workers' compensation court of appeals shall be subject to the provisions of the Minnesota Constitution, article VI, section 6, the jurisdiction of the commission on judicial standards, as provided in sections 490.15 and 490.16, and the provisions of the code of judicial conduct.

Sec. 2. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 175A.02, is amended to read:

175A.02 [OFFICERS COURT ADMINISTRATION.]

Subdivision 1. [CHIEF JUDGE.] The governor shall designate one of the judges of the workers' compensation court of appeals shall choose a to be chief judge from among their number. The chief judge shall appoint one of the judges to serve as the administrator, who shall be custodian of the court's files and records and shall coordinate and make hearing assignments.

Subd. 2. [ADMINISTRATIVE AUTHORITY.] The chief judge shall exercise general administrative authority over the court. The chief judge who is appointed the administrator may delegate the administrative duties of administrator to an employee chosen to be the assistant court administrator.

Subd. 3. [ASSIGNMENT OF CASES; PANELS.] Judges shall serve on the panels of the court on a rotating basis so that as nearly as practicable each judge serves a proportionate time with every other judge. Cases shall be assigned to panels on a random basis.

Subd. 4. [DRAFT CIRCULATION; REHEARING EN BANC.] When a draft opinion has been prepared, the authoring judge shall circulate the opinion, together with any concurring or dissenting opinions, to the other members of the court for their information. Any judge may submit comments within ten days. The opinion shall not be filed before the noted return date.

If three judges of the court request reconsideration during the ten-day comment period, the opinion shall not be issued and the case shall be reconsidered by the full court, sitting en banc, on the record previously submitted and the arguments, if any, previously made by counsel.

Subd. 5. [COUNTY ADMINISTRATORS.] The court administrator of district court in each county shall be the court administrator of the workers' compensation court of appeals in that county. Filing fees and library fees deposited with the court administrator of district court in the capacity as clerk of the workers' compensation court of appeals and in cases originally commenced in district court and transferred to the workers' compensation court of appeals shall be retained by the court administrator of district court. The workers' compensation court of appeals court administrator in each county shall be subject to the supervision of the ~~administrator~~ chief judge in workers' compensation court of appeals matters.

Sec. 3. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 175A.07, subdivision 4, is amended to read:

Subd. 4. [RULES.] The workers' compensation court of appeals shall prescribe rules of practice before it in appellate matters. The rules shall include procedures and schedules to ensure that the court complete work on each case within 180 days of the date that the record is certified to the court. The rules shall also permit the chief judge to waive the 180-day limitation for good cause shown.

Sec. 4. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 176.421, subdivision 5, is amended to read:

Subd. 5. [TRANSCRIPT; CERTIFICATION OF THE RECORD.] When the notice of appeal has been filed with the chief administrative law judge and the fee for the preparation of the record has been paid, the chief administrative law judge shall immediately order the preparation of a typewritten transcript of that part of the hearing delineated in the notice. The official reporter or other person designated by the chief administrative law judge who transcribes the proceedings shall certify to their correctness.

If the transcript is prepared by a person who is not an employee of the office of administrative hearings, upon completion of the transcript, the original shall be filed with the chief administrative law judge.

When the transcript has been completed and is on file with the chief administrative law judge, the chief administrative law judge shall certify the record to the workers' compensation court of appeals and notify the commissioner of the certification. The chief administrative law judge shall complete the certification within 23 days of the filing of the notice of appeal, except that the chief administrative law judge may extend the time for certification because of extraordinary circumstances.

Sec. 5. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 176.421, subdivision 6, is amended to read:

Subd. 6. [POWERS OF WORKERS' COMPENSATION COURT OF APPEALS ON APPEAL.] On an appeal taken under this section, the workers' compensation court of appeals' review is limited to the issues raised by the parties in the notice of appeal or by a cross-appeal. The court may reverse or modify a decision only on the grounds stated in subdivision 1. In these cases, on those issues raised by the appeal, the workers' compensation court of appeals may:

- (1) grant an oral argument based on the record before the compensation judge;
- (2) examine the record;
- (3) ~~substitute for the findings of fact made by the compensation judge findings based on the total evidence;~~
- (4) sustain, reverse, make or modify an award or disallowance of compensation or other order based on the facts, findings, and law; and,
- (5) (4) remand or make other appropriate order.

Sec. 6. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 176.421, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 8. [PROCEEDINGS ON REMAND.] When a case is remanded to the office of administrative hearings and does not require the submission of additional evidence, the compensation judge shall issue a decision within 30 days.

ARTICLE 2

Section 1. [PROPOSED AMENDMENT.]

The following amendment to the Minnesota Constitution is proposed to the people.

Subdivision 1. If the amendment is adopted, article VI, section 1, of the Minnesota Constitution, will read as follows:

Section 1. The judicial power of the state is vested in a supreme court, a court of appeals, if established by the legislature, a court of compensation appeals, if established by the legislature, a district court and such other courts, judicial officers and commissioners with jurisdiction inferior to the district court as the legislature may establish.

Subd. 2. If the amendment is adopted article VI, section 2, of the Minnesota Constitution, will read as follows:

Sec. 2. The supreme court consists of one chief judge and not less than six nor more than eight associate judges as the legislature may establish. It shall have original jurisdiction in such remedial cases as are prescribed by law, and appellate jurisdiction in all cases, but there shall be no trial by jury in the supreme court.

The legislature may establish a court of appeals and provide by law for the number of its judges, who shall not be judges of any other court, and its organization and for the review of its decisions by the supreme court. The court of appeals shall have appellate jurisdiction over all courts, except the supreme court and the court of compensation appeals, and other appellate jurisdiction as prescribed by law.

The legislature may establish a court of compensation appeals and provide by law for the number of its judges, who shall not be judges of any other court, and its organization and for the review of its decisions by the supreme court. The court of compensation appeals shall have appellate jurisdiction over cases arising under the workers' compensation and unemployment insurance laws of the state as prescribed by law.

As provided by law judges of the court of appeals or of the district court may be assigned temporarily to act as judges of the supreme court upon its request and judges of the district court may be assigned temporarily by the supreme court to act as judges of the court of appeals.

The supreme court shall appoint to serve at its pleasure a clerk, a reporter, a state law librarian and other necessary employees.

Subd. 3. If the amendment is adopted, article VI, section 5, of the Minnesota Constitution, will read as follows:

Sec. 5. Judges of the supreme court, the court of appeals, the court of compensation appeals, and the district court shall be learned in the law. The qualifications of all other judges and judicial officers shall be prescribed by law. The compensation of all judges shall be prescribed by the legislature and shall not be diminished during their term of office.

Subd. 4. If the amendment is adopted, article VI, section 6, of the Minnesota Constitution, will read as follows:

Sec. 6. A judge of the supreme court, the court of appeals, court of compensation appeals, or the district court shall not hold any office under the United States except a commission in a reserve component of the military forces of the United States and shall not hold any other office under this state. His term of office shall terminate at the time he files as a candidate for an elective office of the United States or for a nonjudicial office of this state.

Subd. 5. If the amendment is adopted, article VIII, section 2, of the Minnesota Constitution, will read as follows:

Sec. 2. The governor, secretary of state, treasurer, auditor, attorney general and the judges of the supreme court, court of appeals, court of compensation appeals, and district courts may be impeached for corrupt conduct in office or for crimes and misdemeanors; but judgment shall not extend further than to removal from office and disqualification to hold and enjoy any office of honor, trust or profit in this state. The party convicted shall also be subject to indictment, trial, judgment and punishment according to law.

Sec. 2. [SUBMISSION TO VOTERS.]

The proposed amendment shall be submitted to the people at the 1990 general election. The question submitted shall be:

“Shall the Minnesota Constitution be amended to allow the creation of a court of compensation appeals?”

Yes”
No

Sec. 3. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 268.10, subdivision 8, is amended to read:

Subd. 8. [CERTIORARI.] Any decision of the commissioner may be reviewed on certiorari by the court of compensation appeals provided a petition for the writ is filed and served upon the adverse party or parties within 30 days after the date of mailing notice of any decision to the party at the last known address.

Any party in interest, except a claimant for benefits, upon the service of the writ shall furnish a cost bond to be approved by the commissioner and pay to the department of jobs and training the fee prescribed by rule 103.01 of the rules of civil appellate procedure which shall be disposed of in the manner provided by that rule.

Sec. 4. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 268.12, subdivision 13, is amended to read:

Subd. 13. [DETERMINATIONS.] (1) An official, designated by the commissioner, upon the commissioner’s own motion or upon application of an employing unit, shall determine if an employing unit is an employer within the meaning of this chapter or as to whether services performed for it constitute employment within the meaning of this chapter, and shall notify the employing unit of the determination. The determination shall be final unless the employing unit, within 30 days after the mailing of notice of the determination to the employing unit's last known address, files a written appeal from it.

(2) The commissioner shall designate one or more referees to conduct hearings on appeals. The employing unit and any claimant whose filed claim for benefits may be affected by a determination issued under clause (1) shall be interested parties to an appeal. The referee shall fix a time and place within this state for the hearing and give interested parties written notice of it, by mail, not less than ten days prior to the time of the hearing. In the discharge of the duties imposed by this subdivision, the referee may administer oaths and affirmations, take depositions, certify to official acts, and issue subpoenas to compel the attendance of witnesses and the production of books, papers, correspondence, memoranda, and other records deemed necessary as evidence in connection with the subject matter of the hearing. The written report of any employee of the department of jobs and training, made in the regular course of the performance of the employee's duties, shall be competent evidence of the facts contained in it and shall be prima facie correct, unless refuted by other credible evidence.

(3) Upon the conclusion of the hearing, the referee shall serve upon the interested parties by mail findings of fact and decision. The decision of the referee, together with the findings of fact and reasons in support of them, is final unless an interested party, within 30 days after the mailing of a copy of it to the interested parties' last known addresses, files an appeal with the commissioner, or unless the commissioner, within 30 days after mailing of the decision, on the commissioner's own motion orders the matter certified to the commissioner for review. Appeal from and review by the commissioner of the decision of the referee shall be in the manner provided by rule. The commissioner may without further hearing affirm, modify, or set aside the findings of fact or decision, or both, of the referee on the basis of the evidence previously submitted in the case, or direct the taking of additional evidence. The commissioner may disregard the findings of fact of the referee and examine the testimony taken and make any findings of fact as the evidence taken before the referee may, in the judgment of the commissioner, require, and make any decision as the facts found by the commissioner require. The commissioner shall notify the employing unit of the commissioner's findings and decision by mail, mailed to the interested parties' last known addresses. The decision of the commissioner is final unless judicial review of it is sought as provided by this subdivision. Any interested party to a proceeding before the commissioner may obtain a transcript of the testimony taken before the referee upon payment to the commissioner of the cost of the transcript at the rate of ten cents per 100 words.

(4) The court of compensation appeals may, by writ of certiorari to the commissioner, review all questions of law and fact presented by the record in accordance with chapter 14. The commissioner shall not be required to certify the record to the court unless the party commencing the proceedings for review pays to the commissioner the cost of certification of the record at the rate of ten cents per 100 words less any amount previously paid by the party for a transcript. The commissioner shall, upon receipt of the payment, prepare and certify to the court a true and correct typewritten copy of all matters contained in the record. The costs collected by the commissioner shall be deposited in the economic security administration fund provided for in section 268.15.

(5) A final decision of the commissioner or referee, in the absence of appeal, is conclusive for all the purposes of sections 268.03 to 268.24 except as otherwise provided, and, together with the records therein made, shall be admissible in any subsequent judicial proceeding involving liability for contributions. A final decision of the commissioner or referee may be introduced in any proceeding involving a claim for benefits.

(6) In the event a final decision of the commissioner or referee determines the amount of contributions due under sections 268.03 to 268.24, then, if the amount, together with interest and penalties, is not paid within 30 days after the decision, the provisions of section 268.161 shall apply. The commissioner shall proceed thereunder, substituting a certified copy of the final decision in place of the contribution report.

Sec. 5. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 480A.06, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [CERTIORARI REVIEW.] The court of appeals shall have jurisdiction to issue writs of certiorari to all agencies, public corporations and public officials, except the tax court and the workers' compensation court of appeals. ~~The court of appeals shall have jurisdiction to review decisions of the commissioner of jobs and training, pursuant to section 268.10.~~

Sec. 6. [480B.01] [COURT OF COMPENSATION APPEALS.]

Subdivision 1. [CREATION.] There is established a court of compensation appeals to hear appeals of cases arising under the workers' compensation laws and unemployment insurance laws of the state.

Subd. 2. [MEMBERSHIP; QUALIFICATIONS.] The court shall consist of five judges. The judges shall be learned in the law and shall have been licensed to practice law for at least five years. The judges shall be subject to the Minnesota Constitution, article VI, the jurisdiction of the commission on judicial standards, as provided in sections 490.15 and 490.16, and the provisions of the code of judicial conduct.

Subd. 3. [OATH.] Before entering upon the duties of office, each judge shall take the oath prescribed by law for judicial officers.

Subd. 4. [ELECTION.] Each judge shall be elected at the general election for a term of six years, beginning on the first Monday of the January next following the election and until a successor qualifies. Vacancies occurring between general elections shall be filled by appointment, as prescribed in the constitution.

Subd. 5. [COMPENSATION; TRAVEL EXPENSES.] The salary of a judge of the court of compensation appeals shall be the same as the salary for a judge of the court of appeals. Travel expenses shall be paid by the state in the same manner and amount as provided for judges of the district court in section 484.54.

Sec. 7. [480B.02] [COURT ADMINISTRATION.]

Subdivision 1. [CHIEF JUDGE; ELECTION; TERM; REMOVAL.] The governor shall designate one of the judges of the court of compensation appeals to be chief judge for a term of three years. Vacancies in the office of chief judge shall be filled for the remainder of the unexpired term. The chief judge may be reappointed. If the chief judge ceases to be judge of the court, the office of chief judge also becomes vacant.

Subd. 2. [ADMINISTRATIVE AUTHORITY.] The chief judge shall exercise general administrative authority over the court. The chief judge may delegate administrative duties to an employee chosen to be the court administrator.

Subd. 3. [ASSIGNMENT OF CASES; PANELS.] Judges shall serve on the panels of the court on a rotating basis so that as nearly as practicable each judge serves a proportionate time with every other judge. Cases shall be assigned to panels on a random basis.

Subd. 4. [DRAFT CIRCULATION; REHEARING EN BANC.] When a draft opinion has been prepared, the authoring judge shall circulate the opinion, together with any concurring or dissenting opinions, to the other members of the court for their information. Any judge may submit comments within ten days. The opinion shall not be filed before the noted return date.

If three judges of the court request reconsideration during the ten-day comment period, the opinion shall not be issued and the case shall be reconsidered by the full court, sitting en banc, on the record previously submitted and the arguments, if any, previously made by counsel.

Subd. 5. [DECISIONS.] The court of compensation appeals must complete work on each case within 180 days of the date that the record is certified to the court. The chief justice or the chief judge may waive the 180-day limitation for good cause shown.

In every case, the decision of the court, including any written opinion containing a summary of the case and a statement of the reasons for its decision, shall be indexed and made readily available.

Sec. 8. [480B.03] [CLERK OF COURT.]

The clerk of the appellate courts shall serve as clerk of the court of compensation appeals.

Sec. 9. [480B.04] [COURT SESSIONS.]

Subdivision 1. [QUORUM.] A panel of three judges of the court of compensation appeals shall constitute a quorum for the exercise of the powers conferred and the duties imposed on the court, except that all appeals shall be heard by no more than three of the five judges, except as provided in section 7, subdivision 4, unless the appeal is determined to be of exceptional importance by a four-fifths vote of the judges. A vacancy shall not impair the ability of the remaining judges to exercise all of its powers and perform all of its duties.

Subd. 2. [SESSIONS TO BE PUBLIC.] The hearings of the court of compensation appeals shall be open to the public and may be adjourned from time to time. All proceedings of the court shall be shown on its records, which shall be public records.

Sec. 10. [480B.05] [POWERS.]

Subdivision 1. [PROCESS; PROCEDURES.] The court of compensation appeals shall keep records of all its proceedings as it deems appropriate and shall issue necessary processes, writs, warrants, and notices which the court is required or authorized to issue. Notices and other documents required to be served or filed on the court shall be served on the administrator of the court or the administrator's delegate.

Subd. 2. [PERSONNEL.] The judges of the court of compensation appeals shall appoint in the manner provided by law all personnel required by the court. The office of court administrator shall provide the court with necessary staff and administrative services.

Subd. 3. [RULES.] The supreme court may adopt rules of appellate procedure governing the proceedings before the court of compensation appeals and regulating appellate practice. The court of compensation appeals may adopt supplementary rules not in conflict with the rules of appellate procedure.

Sec. 11. [480B.06] [JURISDICTION.]

Subdivision 1. [WORKERS' COMPENSATION APPEALS.] The court of compensation appeals has jurisdiction to review decisions arising under the workers' compensation laws of Minnesota, as provided in chapters 176 and 176B, or as otherwise provided in law.

Subd. 2. [UNEMPLOYMENT INSURANCE APPEALS.] The court of compensation appeals has jurisdiction to issue writs of certiorari to review decisions of the commissioner of jobs and training relating to unemployment insurance, as provided in chapter 268.

Subd. 3. [ANCILLARY JURISDICTION.] The court of compensation appeals shall have jurisdiction to issue all writs and orders necessary in aid of its jurisdiction with respect to cases pending before it and for the enforcement of its judgments or orders.

Sec. 12. [480B.07] [CHAMBERS.]

The court of compensation appeals shall maintain its permanent chambers in St. Paul. The offices of the court shall be in a separate building from the department of labor and industry and the department of jobs and training. The court may hold sessions at any other place in the state as the convenience of the court and the interested parties require.

Sec. 13. [480B.08] [REVIEW IN THE SUPREME COURT.]

Subdivision 1. [AFTER DECISION IN COURT OF COMPENSATION APPEALS.] The supreme court may grant further review of any decision of the court of compensation appeals upon the petition of any party. In determining whether to grant such a petition, the supreme court should take into consideration whether the question presented is an important one upon which the court has not, but should, rule; whether the court of compensation appeals has held a statute to be unconstitutional; whether the court of compensation appeals has decided a question in direct conflict with an applicable precedent of the supreme court; or whether the lower courts have so far departed from the accepted and usual course of justice as to call for an exercise of the court's supervisory powers. The supreme court shall issue its decision whether to grant a petition for review within 60 days of the date the petition is filed.

Subd. 2. [BEFORE DECISION IN COURT OF COMPENSATION APPEALS.] (a) The supreme court may grant accelerated review of any case pending in the court of compensation appeals upon the petition of any party. The supreme court shall establish rules for petitions. The petition should be granted only upon a showing that the case is of such imperative public importance as to justify the deviation from normal appellate processes and to require immediate settlement in the supreme court. Making a petition for accelerated review does not stay proceedings or extend time in the court of compensation appeals. If accelerated review is granted, the case shall be transferred to the supreme court without decision in the court of compensation appeals.

(b) Upon its own motion or upon the certification of the court of compensation appeals, the supreme court may provide for accelerated review of any case if (i) the question presented is an important one upon which the court has not, but should, rule; (ii) the lower courts have held a statute to be unconstitutional; or (iii) the lower courts have so far departed from the accepted and usual course of justice as to call for an exercise of the court's supervisory powers.

Subd. 3. [RULES.] The rules of appellate procedure shall prescribe the form and procedures for petitions for further or accelerated review, and the time for filing them.

Sec. 14. [INITIAL APPOINTMENT OF JUDGES.]

The judicial offices created in section 6 shall be filled initially by appointment by the governor.

Sec. 15. [TRANSFER OF RECORDS AND PERSONNEL.]

All contracts, books, plans, papers, records, and property of every description of the workers' compensation court of appeals relating to its transferred responsibilities and within its jurisdiction or control are transferred to the court of compensation appeals; except that, all case files are transferred to the clerk of the appellate courts. All classified employees and staff attorneys of the workers' compensation court of appeals must be given preference in the employment of personnel required to staff the court of compensation appeals.

Sec. 16. [INSTRUCTION TO REVISOR.]

The revisor of statutes shall change the words "workers' compensation court of appeals" whenever they appear in Minnesota Statutes to "court of compensation appeals" in Minnesota Statutes 1990 and subsequent editions of the statutes.

Sec. 17. [REAPPROPRIATION.]

$ is reappropriated from the special compensation fund, as a result of the savings to that fund in fiscal year 1991 due to the abolition of the workers' compensation court of appeals, to the court of compensation appeals for the purposes of this article.

$ is appropriated from the general fund to the supreme court for fiscal year 1991 for the operation of the court of compensation appeals.

Sec. 18. [REPEALER.]

Minnesota Statutes 1988, sections 175A.01; 175A.02; 175A.03; 175A.04; 175A.05; 175A.06; 175A.07; 175A.08; 175A.09; 175A.10; and 176.471, are repealed.

Sec. 19. [EFFECTIVE DATE; TRANSITION.]

Sections 3 to 18 shall become effective only upon ratification of the amendment proposed in section 1 of this article as provided in the Minnesota Constitution. If the constitutional amendment proposed by section 1 is adopted by the people, sections 3 and 4 are effective July 1, 1991, and sections 5 to 18 are effective January 1, 1991.

The court of compensation appeals shall have jurisdiction over all cases arising under the workers' compensation laws which are pending in the workers' compensation court of appeals on December 31, 1990, or in which the notice of appeal, petition for review, or writ is filed on or after January 1, 1991. The court of compensation appeals shall have jurisdiction over cases arising under the unemployment insurance laws in which the notice of appeal, petition for review, or writ is filed on or after July 1, 1991. In all unemployment insurance cases in which the notice of appeal, petition for review, or writ was filed on or before June 30, 1991, the court to which the appeal, petition, or writ was taken shall continue to exercise jurisdiction, notwithstanding any provision of this act.

Section 1. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 3C.11, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [SLIP LAWS.] In the time before Laws of Minnesota is published each year, the revisor's office shall furnish, upon request and without charge, a copy of each law or resolution to a member of the legislature, a legislative staff member, a constitutional officer, a justice of the supreme court, or a judge of the court of appeals or court of compensation appeals.

Sec. 2. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 3C.12, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [FREE DISTRIBUTION.] The revisor shall distribute without charge copies of each edition of Minnesota Statutes, supplements to Minnesota Statutes, and Laws of Minnesota to the persons or bodies listed in this subdivision. Before distributing the copies, the revisor shall ask these persons or bodies whether their work requires the full number of copies authorized by this subdivision. Unless a smaller number is needed, the revisor shall distribute:

- (a) 30 copies to the supreme court;
- (b) 30 copies to the court of appeals;
- (c) one copy to each judge of a district court;
- (d) one copy to the court administrator of each district court for use in each courtroom of the district court;
- (e) one copy to each judge, district attorney, clerk of court of the United States, and deputy clerk of each division of the United States district court in Minnesota;
- (f) 100 copies to the office of the attorney general;
- (g) ten copies each to the governor's office, the departments of agriculture, commerce, corrections, education, finance, health, transportation, labor and industry, jobs and training, natural resources, public safety, public service, human services, revenue, and the pollution control agency;
- (h) two copies each to the lieutenant governor and the state treasurer;
- (i) 20 copies each to the department of administration, state auditor, and legislative auditor;
- (j) one copy each to other state departments, agencies, boards, and commissions not specifically named in this subdivision;
- (k) one copy to each member of the legislature;
- (l) 150 copies for the use of the senate and 200 copies for the use of the house of representatives;
- (m) 50 copies to the revisor of statutes from which the revisor shall send the appropriate number to the Library of Congress for copy-right and depository purposes;

- (n) four copies to the secretary of the senate;
- (o) four copies to the chief clerk of the house of representatives;
- (p) 100 copies to the state law library;
- (q) 100 copies to the law school of the University of Minnesota;
- (r) five copies each to the Minnesota historical society and the secretary of state;
- (s) one copy each to the public library of the largest municipality of each county if the library is not otherwise eligible to receive a free copy under this section or section 15.18; ~~and~~
- (t) one copy to each county library maintained pursuant to chapter 134, except in counties containing cities of the first class. If a county has not established a county library pursuant to chapter 134, the copy shall be provided to any public library in the county; and
- (u) 15 copies to the court of compensation appeals.

Sec. 3. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 5.08, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [DISTRIBUTION.] 15,000 copies of the legislative manual shall be printed and distributed as follows:

- (1) up to 25 copies shall be available to each member of the legislature on request;
- (2) 50 copies to the state historical society;
- (3) 25 copies to the state university;
- (4) 60 copies to the state library;
- (5) two copies each to the Library of Congress, the Minnesota veterans home, the state universities, the state high schools, the public academies, seminaries, and colleges of the state, and the free public libraries of the state;
- (6) one copy each to other state institutions, the elective state officials, ~~the appointed heads of departments,~~ the officers and employees of the legislature, the justices of the supreme court, the judges of the court of appeals, the court of compensation appeals, and the district court, the senators and representatives in Congress from this state, and the county auditors;

(7) one copy to each public school, to be distributed through the superintendent of each school district; and

(8) the remainder may be disposed of as the secretary of state deems best.

Sec. 4. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 10A.01, subdivision 5, is amended to read:

Subd. 5. [CANDIDATE.] "Candidate" means an individual who seeks nomination or election to any statewide or legislative office for which reporting is not required under federal laws. The term candidate shall also include an individual who seeks nomination or election to supreme court, court of appeals, court of compensation appeals, or district court judgeships of the state. An individual shall be deemed to seek nomination or election if the individual has taken the action necessary under the law of the state of Minnesota to qualify for nomination or election, has received contributions or made expenditures in excess of $100, or has given implicit or explicit consent for any other person to receive contributions or make expenditures in excess of $100, for the purpose of bringing about the individual's nomination or election. A candidate remains a candidate until the candidate's principal campaign committee is dissolved as provided in section 10A.24.

Sec. 5. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 10A.01, subdivision 18, is amended to read:

Subd. 18. "Public official" means any:

- (a) member of the legislature;
- (b) constitutional officer in the executive branch and the officer's chief administrative deputy;
- (c) member, chief administrative officer or deputy chief administrative officer of a state board or commission which has at least one of the following powers: (i) the power to adopt, amend or repeal rules, or (ii) the power to adjudicate contested cases or appeals;
- (d) commissioner, deputy commissioner, or assistant commissioner of any state department as designated pursuant to section 15.01;
- (e) individual employed in the executive branch who is authorized to adopt, amend or repeal rules or adjudicate contested cases;
- (f) executive director of the state board of investment;
- (g) executive director of the Indian affairs intertribal board;

(h) commissioner of the iron range resources and rehabilitation board;

(i) commissioner of mediation services;

(j) deputy of any official listed in clauses (e) to (i);

(k) judge of the workers' compensation court of appeals;

(l) administrative law judge or compensation judge in the state office of administrative hearings or referee in the department of jobs and training;

(m) (l) solicitor general or deputy, assistant or special assistant attorney general;

(n) (m) individual employed by the legislature as secretary of the senate, legislative auditor, chief clerk of the house, revisor of statutes, or researcher or attorney in the office of senate research, senate counsel, or house research;

(o) (n) member or chief administrative officer of the metropolitan council, regional transit board, metropolitan transit commission, metropolitan waste control commission, metropolitan parks and open spaces commission, metropolitan airports commission or metropolitan sports facilities commission;

(p) (o) the commissioner of gaming and director of each division in the department of gaming and the deputy director of the division of state lottery; or

(q) (p) director of the division of gambling enforcement in the department of public safety.

Sec. 6. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 10A.01, subdivision 19, is amended to read:

Subd. 19. [OFFICE HOLDER.] "Office holder" means an individual who holds any statewide or legislative office, except a federal office for which candidates are required to report under federal laws, state supreme court justice, and judges of the court of appeals, court of compensation appeals, district court, county court, probate court, or county municipal court.

Sec. 7. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 14.03, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [CONTESTED CASE PROCEDURE.] The contested case procedures of the administrative procedure act provided in sections 14.57 to 14.69 do not apply to (a) the Minnesota municipal board, (b)

the commissioner of corrections, (c) the unemployment insurance program and the social security disability determination program in the department of jobs and training, (d) the director of mediation services, (e) the workers' compensation division in the department of labor and industry, (f) ~~the workers' compensation court of appeals,~~ (g) the board of pardons, or (h) (g) the public employment relations board.

Sec. 8. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 15A.082, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [CREATION.] A compensation council is created each even-numbered year to assist the legislature in establishing the compensation of constitutional officers, members of the legislature, justices of the supreme court, and judges of the court of appeals; and court of compensation appeals district court, county court, and county municipal court.

Sec. 9. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 15A.082, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [SUBMISSION OF RECOMMENDATIONS.] By April 1 in each odd-numbered year, the compensation council shall submit to the speaker of the house of representatives and the president of the senate salary recommendations for constitutional officers, legislators, justices of the supreme court, and judges of the court of appeals; and court of compensation appeals district court, county court, and county municipal court. The recommended salary for each office must be a fixed amount per year, to take effect on the first Monday in January of the next odd-numbered year, with no more than one adjustment, to take effect on January 1 of the year after that. The salary recommendations for legislators, judges, and constitutional officers take effect if an appropriation of money to pay the recommended salaries is enacted after the recommendations are submitted and before their effective date. Recommendations may be expressly modified or rejected by a bill enacted into law. The salary recommendations for legislators are subject to additional terms that may be adopted according to section 3.099, subdivisions 1 and 3.

Sec. 10. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 15A.083, subdivision 7, is amended to read:

Subd. 7. [WORKERS' COMPENSATION COURT OF APPEALS AND COMPENSATION JUDGES.] ~~Salaries of judges of the workers' compensation court of appeals shall be 90 percent of the salary for district judges as provided in subdivision 1. Salaries of compensation judges shall be 75 percent of the salary of district court judges as provided in subdivision 1. The chief workers' compensation settlement judge at the department of labor and industry may be paid an annual salary that is up to five percent greater than the~~ salary of workers' compensation settlement judges at the department of labor and industry.

Sec. 11. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 43A.18, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [MANAGERIAL PLAN.] The commissioner shall identify individual positions or groups of positions in the classified and unclassified service, in the executive branch as being managerial. The list shall not include positions listed in subdivision 4. The commissioner shall annually submit the listing of positions to the chair of the legislative commission on employee relations for the commission's review and comment, and shall note on each listing the changes from the prior year.

(a) The commissioner shall periodically prepare a plan for total compensation and terms and conditions of employment for employees of those positions identified as being managerial and whose salaries and benefits are not otherwise provided for in law or other plans established under this chapter. Before becoming effective those portions of the plan establishing compensation and terms and conditions of employment shall be reviewed and approved or modified by the legislative commission on employee relations and the legislature in the same manner as provided for the commissioner's plan in subdivision 2.

(b) Incumbents of managerial positions as identified under this subdivision shall be excluded from any bargaining units under the provisions of chapter 179.

(c) The management compensation plan shall provide methods and levels of compensation for managers that will be generally comparable to those applicable to managers in other public and private employment. Provisions of the plan shall ensure that compensation within assigned salary ranges is related to level of performance. The plan shall also provide a procedure for establishment of a salary rate for a newly created position and a new appointee to an existing position and for progression through assigned salary ranges. The employee benefits established under the provisions of the managerial plan may be extended to agency heads whose salaries are established in section 15A.081, subdivision 1, and to constitutional officers, judges of the workers' compensation court of appeals, and tax court judges.

Sec. 12. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 43A.27, subdivision 4, is amended to read:

Subd. 4. [RETIRED JUDGES; FORMER LEGISLATORS.] A retired judge or a former legislator may elect to purchase coverage for themselves or their dependents at their own expense as provided below:

(a) A retired judge of the state supreme court, the court of appeals, court of compensation appeals, a district court, a county court, a county municipal court, or a probate court may elect to purchase coverage provided persons listed in section 43A.24, subdivision 2, clause (c), provided that the retired judge exercises this option within 30 days of the effective date of retirement; or

(b) A former member of the legislature may elect to purchase coverage provided persons listed in section 43A.24, subdivision 2, clause (a).

Sec. 13. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 204B.06, subdivision 4, is amended to read:

Subd. 4. [PARTICULAR OFFICES.] Candidates who seek nomination for the following offices shall state the following additional information on the affidavit:

(a) for United States senator, that the candidate will be 30 years of age or older and a citizen of the United States for not less than nine years on the next January 3 or, in the case of an election to fill a vacancy, within 21 days after the special election;

(b) for United States representative, that the candidate will be 25 years of age or older and a citizen of the United States for not less than seven years on the next January 3 or, in the case of an election to fill a vacancy, within 21 days after the special election;

(c) for governor or lieutenant governor, that on the first Monday of the next January the candidate will be 25 years of age or older and, on the day of the state general election, a resident of Minnesota for not less than one year;

(d) for supreme court justice, court of appeals judge, court of compensation appeals judge, or district court judge, that the candidate is learned in the law;

(e) for county or county municipal court judge or other judicial officer, that the candidate is qualified as prescribed by law;

(f) for senator or representative in the legislature, that on the day of the general or special election to fill the office the candidate will have resided not less than one year in the state and not less than six months in the legislative district from which the candidate seeks election.

Sec. 14. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 204B.06, subdivision 6, is amended to read:

Subd. 6. [JUDICIAL CANDIDATES; DESIGNATION OF TERM.]

An individual who files as a candidate for the office of associate justice of the supreme court, judge of the court of appeals, judge of the court of compensation appeals, judge of the district court, or judge of county or county municipal court shall state in the affidavit of candidacy the office of the particular justice or judge for which the individual is a candidate. The individual shall be a candidate only for the office identified in the affidavit. Each justice of the supreme court and each court of appeals, court of compensation appeals, district, county or county municipal court judge is deemed to hold a separate nonpartisan office.

Sec. 15. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 204B.11, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [AMOUNT; DISHONORED CHECKS; CONSEQUENCES.] Except as provided by subdivision 2, a filing fee shall be paid by each candidate who files an affidavit of candidacy. The fee shall be paid at the time the affidavit is filed. The amount of the filing fee shall vary with the office sought as follows:

(a) for the office of governor, lieutenant governor, attorney general, state auditor, state treasurer, secretary of state, representative in congress, judge of the supreme court, judge of the court of appeals, judge of the court of compensation appeals, judge of the district court, or judge of the county municipal court of Hennepin county, $200;

(b) for the office of senator in congress, $300;

(c) for office of senator or representative in the legislature, $75;

(d) for a county office, $50; and

(e) for the office of soil and water conservation district supervisor, $20.

For the office of presidential elector, and for those offices for which no compensation is provided, no filing fee is required.

The filing fees received by the county auditor shall immediately be paid to the county treasurer. The filing fees received by the secretary of state shall immediately be paid to the state treasurer.

When an affidavit of candidacy has been filed with the appropriate filing officer and the requisite filing fee has been paid, the filing fee shall not be refunded. If a candidate's filing fee is paid with a check, draft, or similar negotiable instrument for which sufficient funds are not available or that is dishonored, notice to the candidate of the worthless instrument must be sent by the filing officer via registered mail no later than immediately upon the closing of the filing deadline with return receipt requested. The candidate will have five days from the time the filing officer receives proof of receipt to issue a check or other instrument for which sufficient funds are available. The candidate issuing the worthless instrument is liable for a service charge pursuant to section 332.50. If adequate payment is not made, the name of the candidate must not appear on any official ballot and the candidate is liable for all costs incurred by election officials in removing the name from the ballot.

Sec. 16. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 204B.34, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [JUDICIAL ELECTIONS.] When one or more justices of the supreme court or judges of the court of appeals, of the court of compensation appeals, or of a district, county or county municipal court are to be nominated at the same primary or elected at the same general election, the notice of election shall state the name of each justice or judge whose successor is to be nominated or elected.

Sec. 17. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 204B.36, subdivision 4, is amended to read:

Subd. 4. [JUDICIAL CANDIDATES.] The official ballot shall contain the names of all candidates for each judicial office and shall state the number of those candidates for whom a voter may vote. The title of each judicial office shall be printed on the official primary and general election ballot as follows:

(a) In the case of the supreme court:

“Chief justice (or associate justice) – supreme court (last name of incumbent) seat”;

(b) In the case of the court of appeals:

“Judge – court of appeals (last name of incumbent) seat”;

(c) In the case of the court of compensation appeals:

“Judge – court of compensation appeals (last name of incumbent) seat”;

(d) In the case of the district court:

“Judge – (number) district court (last name of incumbent) seat”;
or

~~(d)~~ (e) In the case of the county court:

“Judge – (number) county court (last name of incumbent) seat.”

Sec. 18. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 204D.02, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [OFFICERS.] All elective state and county officers, justices of the supreme court, judges of the court of appeals, court of compensation appeals, district, county and county municipal courts, state senators and state representatives, and senators and representatives in congress shall be elected at the state general election held in the year before their terms of office expire. Presidential electors shall be chosen at the state general election held in the year before the expiration of a term of a president of the United States.

Sec. 19. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 204D.08, subdivision 6, is amended to read:

Subd. 6. [STATE AND COUNTY NONPARTISAN PRIMARY BALLOT.] The state and county nonpartisan primary ballot shall be headed "State and County Nonpartisan Primary Ballot." It shall be printed on canary paper. The names of candidates for nomination to the supreme court, court of appeals, court of compensation appeals, district, county and county municipal courts, and all county offices shall be placed on this ballot.

No candidate whose name is placed on the state and county nonpartisan primary ballot shall be designated or identified as the candidate of any political party or in any other manner except as expressly provided by law.

Sec. 20. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 209.01, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [STATEWIDE OFFICE.] For purposes of this chapter "statewide office" means the office of governor, lieutenant governor, attorney general, state auditor, state treasurer, secretary of state, chief justice or associate justice of the supreme court, judge of the court of appeals, judge of the court of compensation appeals, United States senator, or presidential elector.

Sec. 21. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 357.08, is amended to read:

357.08 [PAID BY APPELLANT IN APPEAL.]

There shall be paid to the clerk of the appellate courts by the appellant, or moving party or person requiring the service, in all cases of appeal, certiorari, habeas corpus, mandamus, injunction, prohibition, or other original proceeding, when initially filed with the clerk of the appellate courts, the sum of $150 to the clerk of the appellate courts. An additional filing fee of $50 shall be required for a petition for accelerated review by the supreme court. A filing fee of $150 shall be paid to the clerk of the appellate courts upon the filing of a petition for review from a decision of the court of appeals or court of compensation appeals. A filing fee of $150 shall be paid to the clerk of the appellate courts upon the filing of a petition for permission to appeal. A filing fee of $75 shall be paid to the clerk of the appellate courts upon the filing by a respondent of a notice of review. The clerk shall transmit the fees to the state treasurer for deposit in the state treasury and credit to the general fund.

The clerk shall not file any paper, issue any writ or certificate, or perform any service enumerated herein, until the payment has been made for it. The clerk shall pay the sum into the state treasury as provided for by section 15A.01.

The charges provided for shall not apply to disbarment proceedings, nor to an action or proceeding by the state taken solely in the public interest, where the state is the appellant or moving party, nor to copies of the opinions of the court furnished by the clerk to the parties before judgment, or furnished to the district judge whose decision is under review, or to such law library associations in counties having a population exceeding 50,000, as the court may direct.

Sec. 22. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 480.052, is amended to read:

480.052 [ADVISORY COMMITTEE.]

Before any rules are adopted the supreme court shall appoint an advisory committee consisting of eight members of the bar of the state, one judge of the court of appeals, one judge of the court of compensation appeals, two judges of the district court, and one judge of a court exercising municipal court jurisdiction to assist the court in considering and preparing such rules as it may adopt.

Sec. 23. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 480.054, is amended to read:

480.054 [DISTRIBUTION OF PROPOSED RULES; HEARING.]

Before any rule for the court of appeals, for the court of compensation appeals, or for the district, county, or county municipal courts is adopted, the supreme court shall distribute copies of the proposed rule to the bench and bar of the state for their consideration and suggestions and give due consideration to any suggestions they submit to the court. The court of appeals judges, court of compensation appeals judges, the district court judges association, the Minnesota county court judges association, or the municipal court judges association may file with the court a petition specifying their suggestions concerning any existing or proposed rule and requesting a hearing on it. The court shall grant a hearing within six months after the filing of the petition. The court may grant a hearing upon the petition of any other person.

Sec. 24. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 480.055, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [OTHER COURTS.] Any court, other than the supreme court, may adopt rules of court governing its practice; the judges of the court of appeals, pursuant to section 480A.11, the judges of the court of compensation appeals, pursuant to section 480B.05, the judges of district courts, pursuant to sections 484.33 and 484.52, the judges of county courts, pursuant to section 487.23, and the judges of municipal courts, pursuant to chapter 488A, may adopt rules not in conflict with the rules promulgated by the supreme court.

Sec. 25. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 480.19, is amended to read:

480.19 [APPLICATION TO SUPREME AND OTHER COURTS.]

Sections 480.13 to 480.20 apply to the following courts: The supreme court, the court of appeals; the court of compensation appeals, the district, county, probate, and county municipal courts.

Sec. 26. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 481.02, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [PERMITTED ACTIONS.] The provisions of this section shall not prohibit:

(1) any person from drawing, without charge, any document to which the person, an employer of the person, a firm of which the person is a member, or a corporation whose officer or employee the person is, is a party, except another's will or testamentary disposition or instrument of trust serving purposes similar to those of a will;

(2) a person from drawing a will for another in an emergency if the imminence of death leaves insufficient time to have it drawn and its execution supervised by a licensed attorney-at-law;

(3) any insurance company from causing to be defended, or from offering to cause to be defended through lawyers of its selection, the insureds in policies issued or to be issued by it, in accordance with the terms of the policies;

(4) a licensed attorney-at-law from acting for several common-carrier corporations or any of its subsidiaries pursuant to arrangement between the corporations;

(5) any bona fide labor organization from giving legal advice to its members in matters arising out of their employment;

(6) any person from conferring or cooperating with a licensed attorney-at-law of another in preparing any legal document, if the attorney is not, directly or indirectly, in the employ of the person or of any person, firm, or corporation represented by the person;

(7) any licensed attorney-at-law of Minnesota, who is an officer or employee of a corporation, from drawing, for or without compensation, any document to which the corporation is a party or in which it is interested personally or in a representative capacity, except wills or testamentary dispositions or instruments of trust serving purposes similar to those of a will, but any charge made for the legal work connected with preparing and drawing the document shall not exceed the amount paid to and received and retained by the attorney, and the attorney shall not, directly or indirectly, rebate the fee to or divide the fee with the corporation;

(8) any person or corporation from drawing, for or without a fee, farm or house leases, notes, mortgages, chattel mortgages, bills of sale, deeds, assignments, satisfactions, or any other conveyances except testamentary dispositions and instruments of trust;

(9) a licensed attorney-at-law of Minnesota from rendering to a corporation legal services to itself at the expense of one or more of its bona fide principal stockholders by whom the attorney is employed and by whom no compensation is, directly or indirectly, received for the services;

(10) any person or corporation engaged in the business of making collections from engaging or turning over to an attorney-at-law for the purpose of instituting and conducting suit or making proof of claim of a creditor in any case in which the attorney-at-law receives the entire compensation for the work;

(11) any regularly established farm journal or newspaper, devoted to general news, from publishing a department of legal questions and answers to them, made by a licensed attorney-at-law, if no answer is accompanied or at any time preceded or followed by any charge for it, any disclosure of any name of the maker of any answer, any recommendation of or reference to any one to furnish legal advice or services, or by any legal advice or service for the periodical or any one connected with it or suggested by it, directly or indirectly;

(12) any authorized management agent of an owner of rental property used for residential purposes, whether the management agent is a natural person, corporation, partnership, limited partnership, or any other business entity, from commencing, maintaining, conducting, or defending in its own behalf any action in any court in this state to recover or retain possession of the property, except that the provision of this clause does not authorize a person who is not a licensed attorney-at-law to conduct a jury trial or to appear before a district court ~~or~~, the court of appeals, the court of compensation appeals, or supreme court pursuant to an appeal; and

(13) any person from commencing, maintaining, conducting, or defending on behalf of the plaintiff or defendant any action in any court of this state pursuant to the provisions of section 566.175 or sections 566.18 to 566.33 or from commencing, maintaining, conducting, or defending on behalf of the plaintiff or defendant any action in any court of this state for the recovery of rental property used for residential purposes pursuant to the provisions of section 566.02 or 566.03, subdivision 1, except that the provision of this clause does not authorize a person who is not a licensed attorney-at-law to conduct a jury trial or to appear before a district court ~~or~~, the court of appeals, the court of compensation appeals, or supreme court pursuant to an appeal, and provided that, except for a nonprofit corporation, a person who is not a licensed attorney-at-law shall not charge or collect a separate fee for services rendered pursuant to this clause.

Sec. 27. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 481.02, subdivision 6, is amended to read:

Subd. 6. [ATTORNEYS OF OTHER STATES.] Any attorney or counselor at law residing in any other state or territory in which the attorney has been admitted to practice law, who attends any term of the supreme court, court of appeals, court of compensation appeals, or district court of this state for the purpose of trying or participating in the trial or proceedings of any action or proceedings there pending, may, in the discretion of the court before which the attorney appears in the action or proceeding, be permitted to try, or participate in the trial or proceedings in, the action or proceeding, without being subject to the provisions of this section, other than those set forth in subdivision 2, providing the state in which the attorney is licensed to practice law likewise grants permission to members of the state bar of Minnesota to act as an attorney for a client in that state under the same terms.

Sec. 28. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 490.15, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. The board on judicial standards is established and consists of one judge of the court of appeals, one judge of the court of compensation appeals, three trial court judges, two lawyers who have practiced law in the state for ten years and four citizens who are not judges, retired judges, or lawyers. The executive secretary is appointed by the governor. Commencing July 1, 1980, the board shall appoint the executive secretary. All members shall be appointed by the governor with the advice and consent of the senate except that senate confirmation shall not be required for the judicial members. No member shall serve more than two full four-year terms or their equivalent. Membership terminates if a member ceases to hold the position that qualified the member for appointment.

Sec. 29. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 574.18, is amended to read:

574.18 [UNDERTAKING IN LIEU OF BOND.]

In all cases of appeal from a county board to the district court upon the allowance or disallowance of claims, in all actions begun in the district, county or municipal court, in all cases of appeal or writ of error to remove a cause or proceeding to the court of appeals, the court of compensation appeals, or the supreme court, and in all cases of special or equitable proceedings in the district court, the court of appeals, the court of compensation appeals, or the supreme court, the filing or service, or both, as may be required, of an undertaking, signed by a surety or sureties, as the law may require, containing a condition substantially the same as required for bonds, with like sureties, qualifications, and justifications, and without acknowledgment or signature of the principal, shall be deemed a sufficient compliance with the law to sustain the action, appeal, or proceeding. Every undertaking shall save and secure all rights and liabilities to the same extent as a bond. The damages presumed to accrue to the party against whom the proceeding is taken shall be deemed a sufficient consideration for the undertaking, though no consideration is mentioned in it. No undertaking or bond need be given upon any appeal or other proceeding instituted in favor of the state, or any county, city, town, or school district in it, or of any executor or administrator as such.

Sec. 30. [EFFECTIVE DATE.]

Article 3 shall be effective only upon ratification of the amendment proposed in section 1 of article 2 as provided in the Minnesota Constitution. If the constitutional amendment proposed by section 1 of article 2 is adopted by the people, article 3, is effective January 1, 1991.

Reported the same back with the following amendments:

Delete everything after the enacting clause and insert:

"Section 1. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 179.02, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 5. [LABOR-MANAGEMENT COMMITTEES.] The commissioner may provide technical support and assistance to voluntary joint labor-management committees established for the purpose of improving relationships between labor organizations and employers at area, industry, or work-site levels.

Sec. 2. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 179.84, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [REQUIREMENTS.] For each grant awarded the commissioner shall:

(1) require an approved work plan that establishes measurable goals and objectives for the committee within the committee's area of responsibility and that prohibits the committee from becoming involved in contract disputes, labor negotiations, or grievance procedures; and

(2) ~~establish a technical assistance delivery area outside the geographic area or sector covered by the area labor management committee;~~

(3) ~~require the area labor management committee to establish an approved technical assistance work plan for its external technical assistance delivery area; and~~

(4) annually review the operating performance of each area labor-management committee receiving state money under this program.

Sec. 3. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 179.85, is amended to read:

179.85 [FUNDING LIMITATIONS.]

A new or existing area labor-management committee may apply for a maximum grant of $75,000 per year. A new or existing area labor-management committee may be awarded state grant money, and must provide money from other nonstate sources, in the following ratio of state and nonstate money: in the first year, 90 percent state and ten percent nonstate; in the second year, 80 percent state and 20 percent nonstate; in the third year and beyond, 50 percent state and 50 percent nonstate. ~~In a grant to an existing or proposed area labor management committee, ten percent of the grant is designated and may only be used for technical assistance services within an external technical assistance delivery area, both as specified by the commissioner under section 179.84.~~

Sec. 4. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 179A.04, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [OTHER DUTIES.] The commissioner shall:

(a) provide mediation services as requested by the parties until the parties reach agreement. The commissioner may continue to assist parties after they have submitted their final positions for interest arbitration;

(b) issue notices, subpoenas, and orders required by law to carry out duties under sections 179A.01 to 179A.25;

(c) certify to the board items of dispute between parties subject to action of the board under section 179A.16;

(d) assist the parties in formulating petitions, notices, and other papers required to be filed with the commissioner or the board;

(e) certify the final results of any election or other voting procedure conducted under sections 179A.01 to 179A.25;

(f) adopt rules regulating the forms of petitions, notices, and orders; and the conduct of hearings and elections relating to the administration of this chapter;

(g) receive, catalogue, and file all orders and decisions of the board, all decisions of arbitration panels authorized by sections 179A.01 to 179A.25, all grievance arbitration decisions, and the commissioner's orders and decisions. All orders and decisions catalogued and filed shall be readily available to the public;

(h) adopt, subject to chapter 14, a grievance procedure to fulfill the purposes of section 179A.20, subdivision 4. The grievance procedure shall not provide for the services of the bureau of mediation services. The grievance procedure shall be available to any employee in a unit not covered by a contractual grievance procedure;

(i) conduct elections;

(j) maintain a schedule of state employee classifications or positions assigned to each unit established in section 179A.10, subdivision 2;

(k) collect such fees as are established by rule for empanelment of persons on the labor arbitrator roster maintained by the commissioner or in conjunction with fair share fee challenges; and

(l) provide technical support and assistance to voluntary joint labor-management committees established for the purpose of improving relationships between exclusive representatives and employers, at the discretion of the commissioner.

Sec. 5. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 179A.12, subdivision 7, is amended to read:

Subd. 7. [ELECTION ORDER.] The commissioner shall issue an order providing for a secret ballot election by the employees in a designated appropriate unit. The election shall be held in the premises on one or more sites where those voting are employed unless the commissioner determines that the election cannot be fairly held, in which case it shall be held at a place or shall be by a mail ballot, as determined by the commissioner. In making this determination, the commissioner shall strive for an election process which provides for maximum participation by the affected employees. The parties affected by this determination may request reconsideration by the commissioner pursuant to rules adopted by the commissioner.

Sec. 6. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 179A.12, subdivision 11, is amended to read:

Subd. 11. [UNFAIR LABOR PRACTICES NEW ELECTIONS.] If the commissioner finds that an unfair labor practice was committed by an employer or representative candidate or an employee or group of employees, and that the unfair labor practice affected the result of an election, or that procedural or other irregularities in the conduct of the election may have substantially affected its results, the commissioner may void the election result and order a new election.

Sec. 7. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 179A.16, subdivision 4, is amended to read:

Subd. 4. [CONSTRUCTION OF ARBITRATION PANEL.] The parties may select persons who are members of the arbitration roster maintained by the board to act as the arbitration panel in their dispute by mutual agreement. In the event of such mutual agreement on the members of the arbitration panel, the commissioner shall advise the board in writing of such selection and the persons so selected shall serve as the arbitration panel. In the event the parties have not mutually agreed upon the panel members at the time the commissioner certifies the matter to the board, the board shall provide the parties to the interest arbitration a list of seven arbitrators. The parties shall alternately strike names from the list of arbitrators until only a single arbitrator remains, unless the parties request and mutually agree to utilize a panel of three arbitrators. If the parties are unable to agree on who shall strike the first name, the question must be decided by the flip of a coin. The arbitrator or arbitrators remaining after the striking procedure constitute the arbitration panel."

Delete everything after the enacting clause and insert:

"Section 1. [CITATION.]

This act may be cited as the "Minnesota natural wild rice preservation act of 1990" or "Manomin act."

Sec. 2. [PURPOSE.]

This act promotes restoration of the natural wild rice industry in northern Minnesota, enabling communities to participate and benefit from the increased per capita income of the unemployed, underemployed, and seasonal worker. The resource of natural wild rice is local, renewable, and does not require long-term subsidization. This industry by its nature is self-sustaining, enables broad citizen involvement and empowerment, and would preserve cultural and agricultural diversity and integration. It is, therefore, necessary to take steps sufficient to restore the industry of our state grain, wild rice.

Sec. 3. [116J.645] [MINNESOTA NATURAL WILD RICE PROMOTION ADVISORY COUNCIL.]

The Minnesota natural wild rice promotion advisory council is established for the promotion and marketing of hand-harvested natural lake or river wild rice. The commissioner of trade and economic development, with recommendations from the Minnesota Chippewa Tribe, shall appoint the members of the advisory council. The advisory council must include representatives of natural wild rice hand harvesters, natural wild rice processors, natural wild rice dealers, and enrolled members of the Minnesota Chippewa Tribe. At least 51 percent of the membership of the advisory council must be American Indians as defined in section 254B.01, subdivision 2. Members of the advisory council shall serve for four-year terms and section 15.059, subdivisions 2 and 4, shall apply to members of the advisory council. Members of the advisory council may receive no per diem and may not be reimbursed for expenses. The department of trade and economic development shall provide technical assistance to the advisory council relating to the marketing of natural wild rice."

Delete the title and insert:

Subd. 3. [REQUEST FOR ACCESS TO DATA.] Upon request to a responsible authority or designee, a person shall be permitted to inspect and copy public government data at reasonable times and places, and, upon request, shall be informed of the data's meaning. If a person requests access for the purpose of inspection, the responsible authority may not assess a charge or require the requesting person to pay a fee to inspect data. The responsible authority or designee shall provide copies of public data upon request. If a person requests copies or electronic transmittal of the data to the person, the responsible authority may require the requesting person to pay the actual costs of searching for and retrieving government data, separating public from not public data, and for making, certifying and, compiling and electronically transmitting the copies of the data but or the data; provided that in the case of a request for copies or for transmittal of data made by a person who is the subject of the data or by the news media, the responsible authority may not charge for separating public from not public data. If the responsible authority or designee is not able to provide copies at the time a request is made, copies shall be supplied as soon as reasonably possible.

When a request under this subdivision involves any person's receipt of copies of public government data that has commercial value and is an entire formula, pattern, compilation, program, device, method, technique, process, data base, or system developed with a significant expenditure of public funds by the agency, the responsible authority may charge a reasonable fee for the information in addition to the costs of making, certifying, and compiling the copies. Any fee charged must be clearly demonstrated by the agency to relate to the actual development costs of the information. The responsible authority, upon the request of any person, shall provide sufficient documentation to explain and justify the fee being charged.

If the responsible authority or designee determines that the requested data is classified so as to deny the requesting person access, the responsible authority or designee shall inform the requesting person of the determination either orally at the time of the request, or in writing as soon after that time as possible, and shall cite the specific statutory section, temporary classification, or specific provision of federal law on which the determination is based. Upon the request of any person denied access to data, the responsible authority or designee shall certify in writing that the request has been denied and cite the specific statutory section, temporary classification, or specific provision of federal law upon which the denial was based.

Sec. 2. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 13.10, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [RIGHTS.] Rights conferred by this chapter on individuals who are the subjects of private or confidential data shall, in the case of private data on decedents or confidential data on decedents, be exercised by the representative of the decedent. Nonpublic data concerning a decedent, created or collected after death, shall be accessible by the representative of the decedent. A responsible authority may give the representative of a decedent access to confidential data on the decedent if the responsible authority determines that the investigative or other reasons for treating the data as confidential are no longer relevant because the data subject has died. Nothing in this section may be construed to prevent access to appropriate data by a trustee appointed in a wrongful death action.

Sec. 3. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 13.46, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [GENERAL.] (a) Unless the data is summary data or a statute specifically provides a different classification, data on individuals collected, maintained, used, or disseminated by the welfare system is private data on individuals, and shall not be disclosed except:

- (1) pursuant to section 13.05;
- (2) pursuant to court order;
- (3) pursuant to a statute specifically authorizing access to the private data;
- (4) to an agent of the welfare system, including a law enforcement person, attorney, or investigator acting for it in the investigation or prosecution of a criminal or civil proceeding relating to the administration of a program;
- (5) to personnel of the welfare system who require the data to determine eligibility, amount of assistance, and the need to provide services of additional programs to the individual;
- (6) to administer federal funds or programs;
- (7) between personnel of the welfare system working in the same program;
- (8) the amounts of cash public assistance and relief paid to welfare recipients in this state, including their names and social security numbers, upon request by the department of revenue to administer the property tax refund law, supplemental housing allowance, and the income tax;
- (9) to the Minnesota department of jobs and training for the purpose of monitoring the eligibility of the data subject for unemployment compensation, for any employment or training program administered, supervised, or certified by that agency, or for the purpose of administering any rehabilitation program, whether alone or in conjunction with the welfare system, and to verify receipt of energy assistance for the telephone assistance plan;

(10) to appropriate parties in connection with an emergency if knowledge of the information is necessary to protect the health or safety of the individual or other individuals or persons; or

(11) data maintained by residential facilities as defined in section 245A.02 may be disclosed to the protection and advocacy system established in this state pursuant to Part C of Public Law Number 98-527 to protect the legal and human rights of persons with mental retardation or other related conditions who live in residential facilities for these persons if the protection and advocacy system receives a complaint by or on behalf of that person and the person does not have a legal guardian or the state or a designee of the state is the legal guardian of the person; or

(12) to the county medical examiner or the county coroner for identifying or locating relatives or friends of a deceased person.

(b) Mental health data shall be treated as provided in subdivisions 7, 8, and 9, but is not subject to the access provisions of subdivision 10, paragraph (b).

Sec. 4. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 13.46, subdivision 4, is amended to read:

Subd. 4. [LICENSING DATA.] (a) As used in this subdivision:

(1) "licensing data" means all data collected, maintained, used, or disseminated by the welfare system pertaining to persons licensed or registered or who apply for licensure or registration or who formerly were licensed or registered under the authority of the commissioner of human services;

(2) "client" means a person who is receiving services from a licensee or from an applicant for licensure; and

(3) "personal and personal financial data" means social security numbers, identity of and letters of reference, insurance information, reports from the bureau of criminal apprehension, health examination reports, and social/home studies.

(b) Except as provided in paragraph (c), the following data are public: name, address, telephone number of licensees, licensed capacity, type of children client preferred, variances granted, type of dwelling, name and relationship of other family members, previous license history, class of license, the existence and status of complaints, the nature and content substance of complaints and the findings of the investigation after resolution when the information is not maintained in anticipation of legal action, record of informal resolutions of licensing violations, orders of hearing, findings of fact, and conclusions of law, and specifications of the final disciplinary action contained in the record of disciplinary action.

(c) The following are private data on individuals under section 13.02, subdivision 12, or nonpublic data under section 13.02, subdivision 9: personal and personal financial data on family day care program and family foster care program applicants and licensees and their family members who provide services under the license.

(d) The following are private data on individuals: the identity of persons who have made reports concerning licensees or applicants that appear in inactive investigative data, and the records of clients or employees of the licensee or applicant for licensure whose records are received by the licensing agency for purposes of review or in anticipation of a contested matter. The names of reporters under sections 626.556 and 626.557 may be disclosed only as provided in section 626.556, subdivision 11, or 626.557, subdivision 12.

(e) Data classified as private, confidential, or nonpublic, or protected nonpublic under this subdivision become public data if submitted to a court or administrative law judge as part of a disciplinary proceeding in which there is a public hearing concerning the disciplinary action.

(f) Data generated in the course of licensing investigations that relate to an alleged violation of law are investigative data under subdivision 3.

(g) Data that are not public data collected, maintained, used, or disseminated under this subdivision that relate to or are derived from a report as defined in section 626.556, subdivision 2, are subject to the destruction provisions of section 626.556, subdivision 11.

Sec. 5. [13.511] [LODGING TAX DATA.]

All data, other than basic taxpayer identification data, collected from taxpayers under a lodging tax ordinance are nonpublic.

Sec. 6. [13.521] [TRANSPORTATION SERVICE DATA.]

All personal, medical, financial, familial, or locational information data pertaining to applicants for or users of services providing transportation for the disabled or elderly, with the exception of the name of the applicant or user of the service, are private.

Sec. 7. [13.643] [DEPARTMENT OF AGRICULTURE DATA.]

The following data, collected by the department of agriculture in its sustainable agriculture revolving loan program, are private: applicant identifying information; nonfarm income; credit history; insurance coverage; description of the project that is the subject of the loan; balance sheet; machinery and equipment list; typical year's income and expenses; federal income tax returns; and credit information requests.

Sec. 8. [13.644] [STATE AUDITOR'S DATA.]

The following data collected by the office of the state auditor are private: any data that could reasonably be used to determine the identity of an individual supplying data for an audit, if the data supplied by this individual was needed for an audit or was provided to initiate an audit, and the individual would not have provided the data to the state auditor without an assurance that the individual's identity would remain private.

Sec. 9. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 13.83, subdivision 4, is amended to read:

Subd. 4. [~~CONFIDENTIAL INVESTIGATIVE DATA.~~] Data created or collected by a county coroner or medical examiner which is part of an active investigation mandated by chapter 390, or any other general or local law relating to coroners or medical examiners is ~~confidential data on individuals pursuant to section 13.02, subdivision 3 or protected nonpublic data~~, until the completion of the coroner's or medical examiner's final summary of findings at which point the data collected in the investigation and the final summary thereof shall become private or nonpublic data ~~on individuals~~, except that nothing in this subdivision shall be construed to make ~~private or confidential~~ not public the data elements identified in subdivision 2 at any point in the investigation or thereafter.

Sec. 10. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 13.83, subdivision 5, is amended to read:

Subd. 5. [~~PRIVATE OTHER DATA.~~] All other medical examiner data on deceased individuals is ~~private pursuant to section 13.02, subdivision 12~~, are nonpublic and shall not be disclosed except pursuant to the provisions of chapter 390, or any other general or local law on county coroners or medical examiners, or pursuant to a valid court order.

Sec. 11. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 13.83, subdivision 7, is amended to read:

Subd. 7. [COURT REVIEW.] Any person may petition the district court located in the county where medical examiner data is being maintained to authorize disclosure of private nonpublic, protected nonpublic, or confidential medical examiner data. The petitioner shall notify the medical examiner or coroner. The court may notify other interested persons and require their presence at a hearing. A hearing may be held immediately if the parties agree, and in any event shall be held as soon as practicable. After examining the data in camera, the court may order disclosure of the data if it determines that disclosure would be in the public interest.

Sec. 12. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 13.83, subdivision 8, is amended to read:

Subd. 8. [ACCESS TO PRIVATE NONPUBLIC DATA.] The data made private nonpublic by this section are accessible to the legal representative of the decedent's estate and to the decedent's surviving spouse, parents, children, and siblings and their legal representatives.

Subd. 7. [SCREENING TEAMS ESTABLISHED.] (a) Each county agency shall establish a screening team which, under the direction of the county case manager, shall make an evaluation of need for home and community-based services of persons who are entitled to the level of care provided by an intermediate care facility for persons with mental retardation or related conditions or for whom there is a reasonable indication that they might require the level of care provided by an intermediate care facility. The screening team shall make an evaluation of need within 15 working days of the date that the assessment is completed or within 60 working days of a request for service by a person with mental retardation or related conditions, whichever is the earlier, and within five working days of an emergency admission of an individual to an intermediate care facility for persons with mental retardation or related conditions. The screening team shall consist of the case manager, the client, a parent or guardian, and a qualified mental retardation professional, as defined in the Code of Federal Regulations, title 42, section 483.430, as amended through June 3, 1988. The case manager may also act as the qualified mental retardation professional if the case manager meets the federal definition. County social service agencies may contract with a public or private agency or individual who is not a service provider for the person for the public guardianship representation required by the screening or individual service and habilitation planning process. The contract shall be limited to public guardianship representation for the screening and individual service and habilitation planning activities. The contract shall require compliance with the commissioner's instructions and may be for paid or voluntary services. For individuals determined to have overriding health care needs, a registered nurse must be designated as either the case manager or the qualified mental retardation professional. The case manager shall consult with the client's physician, other health professionals or other persons as necessary to make this evaluation. The case manager, with the concurrence of the client or the client's legal representative, may invite other persons to attend meetings of the screening team. No member of the screening team shall have any direct or indirect service provider interest in the case.

(b) In addition to the requirements of paragraph (a), the following conditions apply to the discharge of persons with mental retardation or a related condition from a regional treatment center:

(1) For a person under public guardianship, at least two weeks prior to each screening team meeting the case manager must notify in writing parents, near relatives, and the ombudsman established under section 245.92 or a designee, and invite them to attend. The notice to parents and near relatives must include: (i) notice of the provisions of section 252A.03, subdivision 4, regarding assistance to persons interested in assuming private guardianship; (ii) notice of the rights of parents and near relatives to object to a proposed discharge by requesting a review as provided in clause (7); and (iii) information about advocacy services available to assist parents and near relatives of persons with mental retardation or related conditions. In the case of an emergency screening meeting, the notice must be provided as far in advance as practicable.

(2) Prior to the discharge, a screening must be conducted under subdivision 8 and a plan developed under subdivision 1a. For a person under public guardianship, the county shall encourage parents and near relatives to participate in the screening team meeting. The screening team shall consider the opinions of parents and near relatives in making its recommendations. The screening team shall determine that the services outlined in the plan are available in the community before recommending a discharge. The case manager shall provide a copy of the plan to the person, legal representative, parents, near relatives, the ombudsman established under section 245.92, and the protection and advocacy system established under United States Code, title 42, section 6042, at least 30 days prior to the date the proposed discharge is to occur. The information provided to parents and near relatives must include notice of the rights of parents and near relatives to object to a proposed discharge by requesting a review as provided in clause (7). If a discharge occurs, the case manager and a staff person from the regional treatment center from which the person was discharged must conduct a monitoring visit as required in Minnesota Rules, part 9525.0115, within 90 days of discharge and provide an evaluation within 15 days of the visit to the person, legal representative, parents, near relatives, ombudsman, and the protection and advocacy system established under United States Code, title 42, section 6042.

(3) In order for a discharge or transfer from a regional treatment center to be approved, the concurrence of a majority of the screening team members is required. The screening team shall determine that the services outlined in the discharge plan are available and accessible in the community before the person is discharged. The recommendation of the screening team cannot be changed except by subsequent action of the team and is binding on the county and on the commissioner. If the commissioner or the county determines that the decision of the screening team is not in the best interests of the person, the commissioner or the county may seek judicial review of the screening team recommendation. A person or legal representative may appeal under section 256.045, subdivision 3 or 4a.

(4) For persons who have overriding health care needs or behaviors that cause injury to self or others, or cause damage to property that is an immediate threat to the physical safety of the person or others, the following additional conditions must be met:

(i) For a person with overriding health care needs, either a registered nurse or a licensed physician shall review the proposed community services to assure that the medical needs of the person have been planned for adequately. For purposes of this paragraph, "overriding health care needs" means a medical condition that requires daily clinical monitoring by a licensed registered nurse.

(ii) For a person with behaviors that cause injury to self or others, or cause damage to property that is an immediate threat to the physical safety of the person or others, a qualified mental retardation professional, as defined in paragraph (a), shall review the proposed community services to assure that the behavioral needs of the person have been planned for adequately. The qualified mental retardation professional must have at least one year of experience in the areas of assessment, planning, implementation, and monitoring of individual habilitation plans that have used behavior intervention techniques.

(5) No person with mental retardation or a related condition may be discharged from a regional treatment center before an appropriate community placement is available to receive the person.

(6) A resident of a regional treatment center may not be discharged to a community intermediate care facility with a licensed capacity of more than 15 beds. Effective July 1, 1993 1996, a resident of a regional treatment center may not be discharged to a community intermediate care facility with a licensed capacity of more than ten beds.

(7) If the person, legal representative, parent, or near relative of the person proposed to be discharged from a regional treatment center objects to the proposed discharge, the individual who objects to the discharge may request a review under section 256.045, subdivision 4a, and may request reimbursement as allowed under section 256.045. The person must not be transferred from a regional treatment center while a review or appeal is pending. Within 30 days of the request for a review, the local agency shall conduct a conciliation conference and inform the individual who requested the review in writing of the action the local agency plans to take. The conciliation conference must be conducted in a manner consistent with section 256.045, subdivision 4a. A person, legal representative, parent, or near relative of the person proposed to be discharged who is not satisfied with the results of the conciliation conference may submit to the commissioner a written request for a hearing before a state human services referee under section 256.045, subdivision 4a. The person, legal representative, parent, or near relative of the person proposed to be discharged may appeal the order to the district court of the county responsible for furnishing assistance by serving a written copy of a notice of appeal on the commissioner and any adverse party of record within 30 days after the day the commissioner issued the order and by filing the original notice and proof of service with the court administrator of the district court. Judicial review must proceed under section 256.045, subdivisions 7 to 10. For a person under public guardianship, the ombudsman established under section 245.92 may object to a proposed discharge by requesting a review or hearing or by appealing to district court as provided in this clause. The person must not be transferred from a regional treatment center while a conciliation conference or appeal of the discharge is pending."

The report was adopted.

Munger from the Committee on Environment and Natural Resources to which was referred:

H. F. No. 2383, A bill for an act relating to education; providing for the environmental education act; creating the office of environmental education; proposing coding for new law as Minnesota Statutes, chapter 126A; repealing Minnesota Statutes 1988, sections 116E.01; 116E.02; 116E.03, subdivisions 2, 3, 4, 5, 6, 7, 7a, 8, and 9; and 116E.04; Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, sections 116E.03, subdivision 1; and 116E.035.

Reported the same back with the recommendation that the bill pass and be re-referred to the Committee on Governmental Operations.

The report was adopted.

Kelly from the Committee on Judiciary to which was referred:

H. F. No. 2390, A bill for an act relating to children; providing improved procedures to protect the safety and welfare of abused and neglected children; providing for more permanent placements of children in need of protection or services; improving data practices; appropriating money for early intervention and targeted family services, and for family planning grants; amending Minnesota Statutes 1988, sections 147.09; 260.011, subdivision 2; 260.155, subdivision 1; 626.556, subdivision 1, and by adding a subdivision; 626.559, subdivision 2; Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, sections 245A.04, subdivision 3; 260.015, subdivision 2a; 260.161, subdivision 2; 260.171, subdivision 4; 260.191, subdivision 1; 260.221, subdivision 1; 626.556, subdivisions 2, 10e, and 11; and 626.558, subdivision 1; proposing coding for new law in Minnesota Statutes, chapters 245 and 260.

Reported the same back with the following amendments:

Delete everything after the enacting clause and insert:

"Section 1. [144.3871] [POSTERS ON THE DANGERS OF ALCOHOL USE.]

The commissioner of health shall encourage all establishments required to obtain on-sale or off-sale intoxicating liquor licenses under chapter 340A, to display, in a prominent location, posters informing pregnant women of the dangers of alcohol use. The commissioner shall make posters available, at no charge, to establishments with on-sale or off-sale licenses for intoxicating liquors. Posters must provide, in large print, the following message: "Warning: drinking alcoholic beverages during pregnancy can cause birth defects and prematurity," or a similar message approved by the commissioner of health.

Sec. 2. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 147.09, is amended to read:

147.09 [EXEMPTIONS.]

Section 147.081 does not apply to, control, prevent or restrict the practice, service, or activities of:

(1) A person who is a commissioned medical officer of, a member of, or employed by, the armed forces of the United States, the United States Public Health Service, the Veterans Administration, any federal institution or any federal agency while engaged in the performance of official duties within this state, if the person is licensed elsewhere.

(2) A licensed physician from a state or country who is in actual consultation here.

(3) A licensed or registered physician who treats the physician's home state patients or other participating patients while the physicians and those patients are participating together in outdoor recreation in this state as defined by section 86A.03, subdivision 3. A physician shall first register with the board on a form developed by the board for that purpose. The board shall not be required to promulgate the contents of that form by rule. No fee shall be charged for this registration.

(4) A student practicing under the direct supervision of a preceptor while the student is enrolled in and regularly attending a recognized medical school.

(5) A student who is in continuing training and performing the duties of an intern or resident or engaged in postgraduate work considered by the board to be the equivalent of an internship or residency in any hospital or institution approved for training by the board.

(6) A person employed in a scientific, sanitary or teaching capacity by the state university, the state department of education, or by any public or private school, college, or other bona fide educational institution, or the state department of health, whose duties are entirely of a public health or educational character, while engaged in such duties.

(7) Physician's assistants registered in this state.

(8) A doctor of osteopathy duly licensed by the state board of osteopathy under Minnesota Statutes 1961, sections 148.11 to 148.16, prior to May 1, 1963, who has not been granted a license to practice medicine in accordance with this chapter provided that the doctor confines activities within the scope of the license.

(9) Any person licensed by a health related licensing board, as defined in section 214.01, subdivision 2, or registered by the commissioner of health pursuant to section 214.13, including licensed psychologists with respect to the use of hypnosis; provided that the person confines activities within the scope of the license.

(10) A Christian Scientist or other person who endeavors to prevent or cure disease or suffering exclusively by mental or spiritual means or by prayer, or who practices ritual circumcision pursuant to the requirements or tenets of any established religion.

(11) A Christian Scientist or other person who endeavors to prevent or cure disease or suffering exclusively by mental or spiritual means or by prayer.

Sec. 3. [245.826] [USE OF AVERSIVE AND DEPRIVATION PROCEDURES IN FACILITIES SERVING EMOTIONALLY DISTURBED CHILDREN.]

The commissioner of human services shall promulgate rules to govern the use of aversive and deprivation procedures in facilities serving emotionally disturbed children that are licensed under section 245A.09 and Minnesota Rules, parts 9545.0900 to 9545.1090. No provision of these rules may encourage or require the use of aversive and deprivation procedures. The rules must prohibit: (1) the application of certain aversive or deprivation procedures in facilities, except as authorized in the child's case plan and monitored by the county caseworker responsible for the child; (2) the use of aversive or deprivation procedures that restrict the consumers' normal access to nutritious diet, drinking water, adequate ventilation, necessary medical care, ordinary hygiene facilities, normal sleeping conditions, and necessary clothing; and (3) the use of faradic shock without a court order. The rule may specify other prohibited practices and the specific conditions under which permitted practices are to be carried out. For any persons receiving faradic shock, a plan to reduce and eliminate the use of faradic shock shall be in effect upon implementation of the procedure.

Sec. 4. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 245A.04, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [STUDY OF THE APPLICANT.] (a) Before the commissioner issues a license, the commissioner shall conduct a study of the individuals specified in clauses (1) to (4) according to rules of the commissioner. The applicant, license holder, the bureau of criminal apprehension, and county agencies, after written notice to the individual who is the subject of the study, shall help with the study by giving the commissioner criminal conviction data and reports about abuse or neglect of adults substantiated under section 626.557 and the maltreatment of minors substantiated under section 626.556. The individuals to be studied shall include:

- (1) the applicant;
- (2) persons over the age of 13 living in the household where the licensed program will be provided;
- (3) current employees or contractors of the applicant who will have direct contact with persons served by the program; and
- (4) volunteers who have direct contact with persons served by the program to provide program services, if the contact is not directly supervised by the individuals listed in clause (1) or (3).

The juvenile courts shall also help with the study by giving the commissioner existing juvenile court records on individuals described in clause (2) relating to delinquency proceedings held within either the five years immediately preceding the application or the five years immediately preceding the individual's 18th birthday, whichever time period is longer. The commissioner shall destroy juvenile records obtained pursuant to this subdivision when the subject of the records reaches age 23.

For purposes of this subdivision, "direct contact" means providing face-to-face care, training, supervision, counseling, consultation, or medication assistance to persons served by a program. For purposes of this subdivision, "directly supervised" means an individual listed in clause (1) or (3) is within sight or hearing of a volunteer to the extent that the individual listed in clause (1) or (3) is capable at all times of intervening to protect the health and safety of the persons served by the program who have direct contact with the volunteer.

A study of an individual in clauses (1) to (4) shall be conducted on at least an annual basis. No applicant, license holder, or individual who is the subject of the study shall pay any fees required to conduct the study.

(b) The individual who is the subject of the study must provide the applicant or license holder with sufficient information to ensure an accurate study including the individual's first, middle, and last name; home address, city, county, and state of residence; zip code; sex; date of birth; and driver's license number. The applicant or license holder shall provide this information about an individual in paragraph (a), clauses (1) to (4), on forms prescribed by the commissioner. The commissioner may request additional information of the individual, which shall be optional for the individual to provide, such as the individual's social security number or race.

(c) A study must include information from the county agency's record of substantiated abuse of adults, neglect of adults, and the maltreatment of minors, and information from the bureau of criminal apprehension.

The commissioner may also review arrest and investigative information from the bureau of criminal apprehension, a county attorney, county sheriff, county agency, local chief of police, other states, the courts, or a national criminal record repository if the commissioner has reasonable cause to believe the information is pertinent to the disqualification of an individual listed in paragraph (a), clauses (1) to (4).

(d) An applicant's or license holder's failure or refusal to cooperate with the commissioner is reasonable cause to deny an application or immediately suspend, suspend, or revoke a license. Failure or refusal of an individual to cooperate with the study is just cause for denying or terminating employment of the individual if the individual's failure or refusal to cooperate could cause the applicant's application to be denied or the license holder's license to be immediately suspended, suspended, or revoked.

(e) The commissioner shall not consider an application to be complete until all of the information required to be provided under this subdivision has been received.

(f) No person in paragraph (a), clause (1), (2), (3), or (4) who is disqualified as a result of this act may be retained by the agency in a position involving direct contact with persons served by the program.

(g) The commissioner shall not implement the procedures contained in this subdivision until appropriate rules have been adopted, except for the applicants and license holders for child foster care, adult foster care, and family day care homes.

(h) Termination of persons in paragraph (a), clause (1), (2), (3), or (4) made in good faith reliance on a notice of disqualification provided by the commissioner shall not subject the applicant or license holder to civil liability.

(i) The commissioner may establish records to fulfill the requirements of this section. The information contained in the records is only available to the commissioner for the purpose authorized in this section.

Sec. 5. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 260.011, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. (a) The paramount consideration in all proceedings concerning a child alleged or found to be in need of protection or services is the best interest of the child. The purpose of the laws relating to juvenile courts is to secure for each child alleged or adjudicated in need of protection or services and under the jurisdiction of the court, the care and guidance, preferably in the child's own home, as will best serve the spiritual, emotional, mental, and physical welfare of the child and the best interests of the state; to provide judicial procedures which protect the welfare of the child; to preserve and strengthen the child's family ties whenever possible and in the child's best interests, removing the child from the custody of parents only when the child's welfare or safety cannot be adequately safeguarded without removal; and, when removal from the child's own family is necessary and in the child's best interests, to secure for the child custody, care and discipline as nearly as possible equivalent to that which should have been given by the parents.

(b) The purpose of the laws relating to termination of parental rights is to ensure that:

(1) reasonable efforts have been made by the social service agency to reunite the child with the child's parents in a placement that is safe and permanent; and

(2) if placement with the parents is not reasonably foreseeable, to secure for the child a safe and permanent placement, preferably with adoptive parents.

The paramount consideration in all proceedings for the termination of parental rights is the best interests of the child. In proceedings involving an American Indian child, as defined in section 257.351, subdivision 6, the best interests of the child must be determined consistent with the Indian Child Welfare Act of 1978, United States Code, title 25, section 1901, et seq.

(c) The purpose of the laws relating to children alleged or adjudicated to be delinquent is to promote the public safety and reduce juvenile delinquency by maintaining the integrity of the substantive law prohibiting certain behavior and by developing individual responsibility for lawful behavior. This purpose should be pursued through means that are fair and just, that recognize the unique characteristics and needs of children, and that give children access to opportunities for personal and social growth.

(d) The laws relating to juvenile courts shall be liberally construed to carry out these purposes.

Sec. 6. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 260.015, subdivision 2a, is amended to read:

Subd. 2a. [CHILD IN NEED OF PROTECTION OR SERVICES.] "Child in need of protection or services" means a child who is in need of protection or services because the child:

- (1) is abandoned or without parent, guardian, or custodian;
- (2)(i) has been a victim of physical or sexual abuse, or (ii) resides with or has resided with a victim of domestic child abuse as defined in subdivision 24, (iii) resides with or would reside with a perpetrator of domestic child abuse, or (iv) is a victim of emotional maltreatment as defined in subdivision 5a;
- (3) is without necessary food, clothing, shelter, education, or other required care for the child's physical or mental health or morals because the child's parent, guardian, or custodian is unable or unwilling to provide that care;
- (4) is without the special care made necessary by a physical, mental, or emotional condition because the child's parent, guardian, or custodian is unable or unwilling to provide that care;
- (5) is medically neglected, which includes, but is not limited to, the withholding of medically indicated treatment from a disabled infant with a life-threatening condition. The term "withholding of medically indicated treatment" means the failure to respond to the infant's life-threatening conditions by providing treatment, including appropriate nutrition, hydration, and medication which, in the treating physician's or physicians' reasonable medical judgment, will be most likely to be effective in ameliorating or correcting all conditions, except that the term does not include the failure to provide treatment other than appropriate nutrition, hydration, or medication to an infant when, in the treating physician's or physicians' reasonable medical judgment:
 - (i) the infant is chronically and irreversibly comatose;
 - (ii) the provision of the treatment would merely prolong dying, not be effective in ameliorating or correcting all of the infant's life-threatening conditions, or otherwise be futile in terms of the survival of the infant; or
 - (iii) the provision of the treatment would be virtually futile in terms of the survival of the infant and the treatment itself under the circumstances would be inhumane;
- (6) is one whose parent, guardian, or other custodian for good cause desires to be relieved of the child's care and custody;

(7) has been placed for adoption or care in violation of law;

(8) is without proper parental care because of the emotional, mental, or physical disability, or state of immaturity of the child's parent, guardian, or other custodian;

(9) is one whose behavior, condition, or environment is such as to be injurious or dangerous to the child or others;

(10) has committed a delinquent act before becoming ten years old;

(11) is a runaway; or

(12) is an habitual truant; or

(13) is one whose custodial parent's parental rights to another child have been involuntarily terminated.

Sec. 7. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 260.155, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [GENERAL.] Except for hearings arising under section 260.261, hearings on any matter shall be without a jury and may be conducted in an informal manner. The rules of evidence promulgated pursuant to section 480.0591 and the law of evidence shall apply in adjudicatory proceedings involving a child alleged to be delinquent, in need of protection or services under section 260.015, subdivision 2a, clause (11) or (12), or a juvenile petty offender, and hearings conducted pursuant to section 260.125 except to the extent that the rules themselves provide that they do not apply. Except for proceedings involving a child alleged to be in need of protection or services, hearings may be continued or adjourned from time to time and, in the interim. In proceedings involving a child alleged to be in need of protection or services, hearings may only be continued or adjourned if the court makes specific findings that the continuance or adjournment is in the best interests of the child. When a continuance or adjournment is ordered in any proceeding, the court may make any interim orders as it deems in the best interests of the minor in accordance with the provisions of sections 260.011 to 260.301. The court shall exclude the general public from these hearings and shall admit only those persons who, in the discretion of the court, have a direct interest in the case or in the work of the court; except that, the court shall open the hearings to the public in delinquency proceedings where the child is alleged to have committed an offense or has been proven to have committed an offense that would be a felony if committed by an adult and the child was at least 16 years of age at the time of the offense. In all delinquency cases a person named in the charging clause of the petition as a person directly damaged in person or property shall be entitled, upon request, to be notified by the court administrator in writing, at the named person's last known address, of (1) the date of the reference or adjudicatory hearings, and (2) the disposition of the case. Adoption hearings shall be conducted in accordance with the provisions of laws relating to adoptions.

Sec. 8. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 260.161, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. Except as provided in this subdivision and in subdivision 1, and except for legal records arising from proceedings that are public under section 260.155, subdivision 1, none of the records of the juvenile court and none of the records relating to an appeal from a nonpublic juvenile court proceeding, except the written appellate opinion, shall be open to public inspection or their contents disclosed except (a) by order of a court or (b) as required by sections 245A.04, 611A.03, 611A.04, and 611A.06. The records of juvenile probation officers and county home schools are records of the court for the purposes of this subdivision. Court services data relating to delinquent acts that are contained in records of the juvenile court may be released as allowed under section 13.84, subdivision 5a. This subdivision applies to all proceedings under this chapter, including appeals from orders of the juvenile court, except that this subdivision does not apply to proceedings under section 260.255, 260.261, or 260.315 when the proceeding involves an adult defendant. The court shall maintain the confidentiality of adoption files and records in accordance with the provisions of laws relating to adoptions. In juvenile court proceedings any report or social history furnished to the court shall be open to inspection by the attorneys of record and the guardian ad litem a reasonable time before it is used in connection with any proceeding before the court.

When a judge of a juvenile court, or duly authorized agent of the court, determines under a proceeding under this chapter that a child has violated a state or local law, ordinance, or regulation pertaining to the operation of a motor vehicle on streets and highways, except parking violations, the judge or agent shall immediately report the violation to the commissioner of public safety. The report must be made on a form provided by the department of public safety and must contain the information required under section 169.95.

Sec. 9. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 260.171, subdivision 4, is amended to read:

Subd. 4. If the person who has taken the child into custody determines that the child should be placed in a secure detention facility or a shelter care facility, that person shall advise the child and as soon as is possible, the child's parent, guardian, or custodian:

(a) of the reasons why the child has been taken into custody and why the child is being placed in a juvenile secure detention facility or a shelter care facility; and

(b) of the location of the juvenile secure detention facility or shelter care facility. If there is reason to believe that disclosure of the location of the shelter care facility would place the child's health and welfare in immediate endangerment, disclosure of the location of the shelter care facility shall not be made; and

(c) that the child's parent, guardian, or custodian and attorney or guardian ad litem may make an initial visit to the juvenile secure detention facility or shelter care facility at any time. Subsequent visits by a parent, guardian, or custodian may be made on a reasonable basis during visiting hours and by the child's attorney or guardian ad litem at reasonable hours; and

(d) that the child may telephone parents and an attorney or guardian ad litem from the juvenile secure detention facility or shelter care facility immediately after being admitted to the facility and thereafter on a reasonable basis to be determined by the director of the facility; and

(e) that the child may not be detained for acts as defined in section 260.015, subdivision 5, at a juvenile secure detention facility or shelter care facility longer than 36 hours, excluding Saturdays, Sundays, and holidays, unless a petition has been filed within that time and the court orders the child's continued detention, pursuant to section 260.172; and

(f) that the child may not be detained for acts defined in section 260.015, subdivision 5, at an adult jail or municipal lockup longer than 24 hours, excluding Saturdays, Sundays, and holidays, or longer than six hours if the adult jail or municipal lockup is in a standard metropolitan statistical area, unless a petition has been filed and the court orders the child's continued detention under section 260.172; and

(g) that the child may not be detained pursuant to section 260.165, subdivision 1, clause (a) or (c)(2), at a shelter care facility longer than 72 hours, excluding Saturdays, Sundays, and holidays, unless a petition has been filed within that time and the court orders the child's continued detention, pursuant to section 260.172; and

(h) of the date, time, and place of the detention hearing, if this information is available to the person who has taken the child into custody; and

(i) that the child and the child's parent, guardian, or custodian have the right to be present and to be represented by counsel at the detention hearing, and that if they cannot afford counsel, counsel will be appointed at public expense for the child, if it is a delinquency matter, or for any party, if it is a child in need of protection or services, neglected and in foster care, or termination of parental rights matter.

After August 1, 1991, the child's parent, guardian, or custodian shall also be informed under clause (f) that the child may not be detained in an adult jail or municipal lockup longer than 24 hours, excluding Saturdays, Sundays, and holidays, or longer than six hours if the adult jail or municipal lockup is in a standard metropolitan statistical area, unless a motion to refer the child for adult prosecution has been made within that time period.

Sec. 10. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 260.191, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [DISPOSITIONS.] (a) If the court finds that the child is in need of protection or services or neglected and in foster care, it shall enter an order making any of the following dispositions of the case:

(1) place the child under the protective supervision of the county welfare board or child placing agency in the child's own home under conditions prescribed by the court directed to the correction of the child's need for protection or services;

(2) transfer legal custody to one of the following:

(i) a child placing agency; or

(ii) the county welfare board.

~~In placing a child whose custody has been transferred under this paragraph, the agency and board shall follow the order of preference stated in section 260.181, subdivision 3 under section 11;~~

(3) if the child is in need of special treatment and care for reasons of physical or mental health, the court may order the child's parent, guardian, or custodian to provide it. If the parent, guardian, or custodian fails or is unable to provide this treatment or care, the court may order it provided. The court shall not transfer legal custody of the child for the purpose of obtaining special treatment or care solely because the parent is unable to provide the treatment or care. If the court's order for mental health treatment is based on a diagnosis made by a treatment professional, the court may order that the diagnosing professional not provide the treatment to the child if it finds that such an order is in the child's best interests; or

(4) if the court believes that the child has sufficient maturity and judgment and that it is in the best interests of the child, the court may order a child 16 years old or older to be allowed to live independently, either alone or with others as approved by the court under supervision the court considers appropriate, if the county board, after consultation with the court, has specifically authorized this dispositional alternative for a child.

(b) If the child was adjudicated in need of protection or services because the child is a runaway or habitual truant, the court may order any of the following dispositions in addition to or as alternatives to the dispositions authorized under paragraph (a):

- (1) counsel the child or the child's parents, guardian, or custodian;
- (2) place the child under the supervision of a probation officer or other suitable person in the child's own home under conditions prescribed by the court, including reasonable rules for the child's conduct and the conduct of the parents, guardian, or custodian, designed for the physical, mental, and moral well-being and behavior of the child; or with the consent of the commissioner of corrections, place the child in a group foster care facility which is under the commissioner's management and supervision;
- (3) subject to the court's supervision, transfer legal custody of the child to one of the following:
 - (i) a reputable person of good moral character. No person may receive custody of two or more unrelated children unless licensed to operate a residential program under sections 245A.01 to 245A.16; or
 - (ii) a county probation officer for placement in a group foster home established under the direction of the juvenile court and licensed pursuant to section 241.021;
- (4) require the child to pay a fine of up to $100. The court shall order payment of the fine in a manner that will not impose undue financial hardship upon the child;
- (5) require the child to participate in a community service project;
- (6) order the child to undergo a chemical dependency evaluation and, if warranted by the evaluation, order participation by the child in a drug awareness program or an inpatient or outpatient chemical dependency treatment program;
- (7) if the court believes that it is in the best interests of the child and of public safety that the child's driver's license be canceled, the court may recommend to the commissioner of public safety that the child's license be canceled for any period up to the child's 18th birthday. The commissioner is authorized to cancel the license without a hearing. At any time before the expiration of the period of cancellation, the court may, for good cause, recommend to the commissioner of public safety that the child be authorized to apply for a new license, and the commissioner may so authorize; or

(8) require the child to perform any other activities or participate in any other treatment programs deemed appropriate by the court.

Sec. 11. [260.1911] [TRANSFER OF LEGAL CUSTODY.]

Subdivision 1. [GENERAL.] The court may transfer legal custody under section 260.191, subdivision 1, paragraph (a), to:

- (1) a child placing agency;
- (2) the county welfare board; or
- (3) a suitable and fit parent who does not have legal custody of the child.

In placing a child whose custody has been transferred under clause (1) or (2), the agency or board shall follow the order of preference stated in section 260.181, subdivision 3.

Subd. 2. [TRANSFER TO PARENT.] (a) An order transferring legal custody to a parent under this section must be made under the standards and findings required under section 518.17, subdivision 1. The court shall determine visitation rights and child support under sections 518.175 and 518.57.

(b) If legal custody is transferred to a parent under this subdivision, a certified copy of the order must be filed with the family court of the judicial district where the juvenile court order is entered. Issuance of an order under this subdivision divests the juvenile court of further jurisdiction over the matter. Sections 518.175, 518.18, and 518.64 apply to the review and modification of orders under this subdivision.

(c) A custody order under this subdivision is the same as an order under section 518.17, and all civil or criminal rights, duties, or penalties that apply to orders under section 518.17 apply to orders under this subdivision.

Sec. 12. [260.1912] [DISPOSITION; PERMANENT CUSTODY OR FOSTER CARE.]

Subdivision 1. [WHEN PERMISSIBLE.] When a child has been in placement under a court order for more than one year and at least nine months have elapsed since a case plan was ordered under section 260.191, subdivision 1e, a party may move the court for an order under subdivision 2. The motion must give specific notice of the relief requested and the basis for the relief under this subdivision. The court shall hold an evidentiary hearing unless it is waived by the parties. The court may issue an order under subdivision 2 only if the court finds that all the following factors have been established by clear and convincing evidence:

(1) reasonable efforts, or in the case of an Indian child, active efforts have been made by the social service agency under section 260.012, and those efforts have not corrected the conditions necessitating the continued placement of the child;

(2) if reasonable efforts continue, conditions necessitating the continued placement of the child will not be corrected within the reasonably foreseeable future;

(3) there has been compliance with section 260.181, subdivision 3; and

(4) the relief sought is in the best interests of the child.

In order to find that the relief sought is in the best interests of the child, the court must determine that the requested relief better serves the child's interests than an order for termination of parental rights and that the child's needs for permanency will be served by the order.

Subd. 2. [PERMANENT CUSTODY OR FOSTER CARE.] (a) After a hearing and findings under subdivision 1, in addition to the dispositions available under section 260.191, the court may enter a dispositional order under paragraph (b) or (c).

(b) The court may grant legal custody of the child to a reputable individual of good moral character. The order must be made under the standards and findings required under section 257.025. The court shall determine visitation rights and child support under sections 518.175 and 518.57. Legal custody under this paragraph means the right to determine the child's upbringing, including education, health care, and religious training. A legal custodian under this paragraph is not a foster parent, and the child is not in foster care under section 260.015, subdivision 7.

(c) The court may order that the child remain in permanent foster care until the child is no longer a minor. The court may only issue this order if the child has been in continuous placement with the same foster parent for at least one year and the court finds that the foster parent intends to continue foster parenting the child until the child is no longer a minor. The name of the foster parent must appear in the court order. If the court enters an order under this paragraph, the court shall enter findings consistent with the federal Child Welfare Act of 1980, Public Law Number 96-272.

(d) An order under this subdivision must comply with section 260.181, subdivision 3.

(e) Jurisdiction to review an order under this subdivision remains in juvenile court. Notwithstanding section 260.191, subdivision 2, further hearings are not required and the order remains in effect until the child is no longer a minor unless it is modified under section 13.

(f) After entry of an order under this subdivision, further reasonable efforts under section 260.012 are not required.

Sec. 13. [260.1913] [MODIFICATION OF ORDER FOR PERMANENT CUSTODY OR FOSTER CARE.]

An order issued under section 12 may be modified only under the following circumstances:

- (1) modification is agreed to by all parties in writing;
- (2) there is a willful and persistent denial of or interference with court-ordered parental visitation;
- (3) there is reason to believe that the child's present environment may endanger the child's physical or emotional health; or
- (4) a substantial change in circumstances has occurred based on facts that have arisen since the prior order or based on facts that were not known to the court at the time it issued the prior order.

The court may modify an order under section 12 only if it finds that modification is in the best interests of the child and after an appropriate motion and notice to all parties. The court shall hold an evidentiary hearing unless it is waived by the parties.

Sec. 14. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 260.221, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [VOLUNTARY AND INVOLUNTARY.] The juvenile court may upon petition, terminate all rights of a parent to a child in the following cases:

- (a) With the written consent of a parent who for good cause desires to terminate parental rights; or
- (b) If it finds that one or more of the following conditions exist:
 - (1) That the parent has abandoned the child. Abandonment is presumed when:

(i) the parent has had no contact or merely incidental contact with the child for six months in the case of a child under six years of age, or for 12 months in the case of a child ages six to 11; and

(ii) the social service agency has made reasonable efforts to facilitate contact, unless the parent establishes that an extreme financial or physical hardship or treatment for mental disability or chemical dependency or other good cause prevented the parent from making contact with the child. This presumption does not apply to children whose custody has been determined under chapter 257 or 518. The court is not prohibited from finding abandonment in the absence of this presumption; or

(2) That the parent has substantially, continuously, or repeatedly refused or neglected to comply with the duties imposed upon that parent by the parent and child relationship, including but not limited to providing the child with necessary food, clothing, shelter, education, and other care and control necessary for the child's physical, mental, or emotional health and development, if the parent is physically and financially able, and reasonable efforts by the social service agency have failed to correct the conditions that formed the basis of the petition; or

(3) That a parent has been ordered to contribute to the support of the child or financially aid in the child's birth and has continuously failed to do so without good cause. This clause shall not be construed to state a grounds for termination of parental rights of a noncustodial parent if that parent has not been ordered to or cannot financially contribute to the support of the child or aid in the child's birth; or

(4) That a parent is palpably unfit to be a party to the parent and child relationship because of a consistent pattern of specific conduct before the child or of specific conditions directly relating to the parent and child relationship either of which are determined by the court to be of a duration or nature that renders the parent unable, for the reasonably foreseeable future, to care appropriately for the ongoing physical, mental, or emotional needs of the child. It is presumed that a parent is palpably unfit to be a party to the parent and child relationship upon a showing that the child has been adjudicated in need of protection or services and that the parent's parental rights to one or more other children have been involuntarily terminated in the past; or

(5) That following upon a determination of neglect or dependency, or of a child's need for protection or services, reasonable efforts, under the direction of the court, have failed to correct the conditions leading to the determination. It is presumed that reasonable efforts under this clause have failed upon a showing that:

(i) a child under the age of 12 has resided out of the parental home under court order for more than one year following an adjudication of dependency, neglect, need for protection or services under section 260.015, subdivision 2a, clause (1), (2), (6), (8), or (9), or neglected and in foster care, and an order for disposition under section 260.191, including adoption of the case plan required by section 257.071;

(ii) conditions leading to the determination will not be corrected within the reasonably foreseeable future; and

(iii) reasonable efforts have been made by the social service agency to rehabilitate the parent and reunite the family.

This clause does not prohibit the termination of parental rights prior to one year after a child has been placed out of the home; or

It is also presumed that reasonable efforts have failed under this clause upon a showing that the parent has been required by a case plan to participate in a chemical dependency treatment program; the parent has either failed to successfully complete the program two or more times or has refused to participate in the treatment program; and the parent continues to abuse chemicals; or

(6) That the parent has been convicted of causing the death of another of the parent's children; or

(7) That in the case of a child born to a mother who was not married to the child's father when the child was conceived nor when the child was born the person is not entitled to notice of an adoption hearing under section 259.26 and either the person has not filed a notice of intent to retain parental rights under section 259.261 or that the notice has been successfully challenged; or

~~(7)~~ (8) That the child is neglected and in foster care.

Sec. 15. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 364.09, is amended to read:

364.09 [EXCEPTIONS.]

(a) This chapter shall not apply to the practice of law enforcement, to fire protection agencies, to eligibility for a private detective or protective agent license, to eligibility for a family day care license, a family foster care license, a home care provider license, or to eligibility for school bus driver endorsements, or to eligibility for juvenile corrections employment where the offense involved child physical or sexual abuse or criminal sexual conduct.

(b) This chapter does not apply to a school district.

(c) Nothing in this section shall be construed to preclude the Minnesota police and peace officers training board or the state fire marshal from recommending policies set forth in this chapter to the attorney general for adoption in the attorney general's discretion to apply to law enforcement or fire protection agencies.

Sec. 16. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 609.223, is amended to read:

609.223 [ASSAULT IN THE THIRD DEGREE.]

Subdivision 1. [SUBSTANTIAL BODILY HARM.] Whoever assaults another and inflicts substantial bodily harm may be sentenced to imprisonment for not more than five years or to payment of a fine of not more than $10,000, or both.

Subd. 2. [PAST PATTERN OF CHILD ABUSE.] Whoever assaults a minor may be sentenced to imprisonment for not more than five years or to payment of a fine of not more than $10,000, or both, if the perpetrator has engaged in a past pattern of child abuse against the minor. As used in this subdivision, "child abuse" has the meaning given it in section 609.185, clause (5).

Sec. 17. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 609.2231, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 5. [CHILD PROTECTION WORKERS.] Whoever assaults a child protection worker, as defined in section 626.559, subdivision 1, while the worker is engaged in the performance of a duty imposed by law, policy, or rule, and inflicts demonstrable bodily harm, is guilty of a gross misdemeanor.

Sec. 18. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 609.377, is amended to read:

609.377 [MALICIOUS PUNISHMENT OF A CHILD.]

A parent, legal guardian, or caretaker who, by an intentional act or a series of intentional acts with respect to a child, evidences unreasonable force or cruel discipline that is excessive under the circumstances is guilty of malicious punishment of a child and may be sentenced to imprisonment for not more than one year or to payment of a fine of not more than $3,000, or both. If the punishment results in substantial bodily harm, that person may be sentenced to imprisonment for not more than five years or to payment of a fine of not more than $10,000, or both. If the punishment results in great bodily harm, that person may be sentenced to imprisonment for not more than ten years or to payment of a fine of not more than $20,000, or both.

Sec. 19. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 626.556, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [PUBLIC POLICY.] The legislature hereby declares that the public policy of this state is to protect children whose health or welfare may be jeopardized through physical abuse, neglect or sexual abuse. In furtherance of this public policy, it is the intent of the legislature under this section to strengthen the family and make the home, school, and community safe for children by promoting responsible child care in all settings; and to provide, when necessary, a safe temporary or permanent home environment for physically or sexually abused or neglected children.

In addition, it is the policy of this state to require the reporting of neglect, physical or sexual abuse of children in the home, school, and community settings; to provide for the voluntary reporting of abuse or neglect of children; to require the assessment and investigation of the reports; and to provide protective and counseling services in appropriate cases.

Sec. 20. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 626.556, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [DEFINITIONS.] As used in this section, the following terms have the meanings given them unless the specific content indicates otherwise:

(a) "Sexual abuse" means threatened injury or the subjection by a person responsible for the child's care, or by a person in a position of authority, as defined in section 609.341, subdivision 10, to any act which constitutes a violation of section 609.342, 609.343, 609.344, or 609.345. Sexual abuse also includes any act which involves a minor which constitutes a violation of sections 609.321 to 609.324 or 617.246.

(b) "Person responsible for the child's care" means (1) an individual functioning within the family unit and having responsibilities for the care of the child such as a parent, guardian, or other person having similar care responsibilities, or (2) an individual functioning outside the family unit and having responsibilities for the care of the child such as a teacher, school administrator, or other lawful custodian of a child having either full-time or short-term care responsibilities including, but not limited to, day care, babysitting whether paid or unpaid, counseling, teaching, and coaching.

(c) "Neglect" means failure by a person responsible for a child's care to supply a child with necessary food, clothing, shelter or medical care when reasonably able to do so or failure to protect a child from conditions or actions which imminently and seriously endanger the child's physical or mental health when reasonably able to do so. Nothing in this section shall be construed to mean that a child is neglected solely because the child's parent, guardian, or other person responsible for the child's care in good faith selects and depends upon spiritual means or prayer for treatment or care of disease or remedial care of the child in lieu of medical care; except that there is a duty to report if a lack of medical care may cause imminent and serious danger to the child's health. This section does not impose upon persons, not otherwise legally responsible for providing a child with necessary food, clothing, shelter, or medical care, a duty to provide that care. "Neglect" includes prenatal exposure to a controlled substance, as defined in section 626.5561, used by the mother for a nonmedical purpose, as evidenced by withdrawal symptoms in the child at birth, results of a toxicology test performed on the mother at delivery or the child at birth, or medical effects or developmental delays during the child's first year of life that medically indicate prenatal exposure to a controlled substance. Neglect also means "medical neglect" as defined in section 260.015, subdivision 2a, clause (5).

(d) "Physical abuse" means any physical or mental injury, or threatened injury, inflicted by a person responsible for the child's care on a child other than by accidental means, or any physical or mental injury that cannot reasonably be explained by the child's history of injuries, or any aversive and deprivation procedures that have not been authorized under section 245.825.

(e) "Report" means any report received by the local welfare agency, police department, or county sheriff pursuant to this section.

(f) "Facility" means a day care facility, residential facility, agency, hospital, sanitarium, or other facility or institution required to be licensed pursuant to sections 144.50 to 144.58, 241.021, or 245.781 to 245.812.

(g) "Operator" means an operator or agency as defined in section 245A.02.

(h) "Commissioner" means the commissioner of human services.

(i) "Assessment" includes authority to interview the child, the person or persons responsible for the child's care, the alleged perpetrator, and any other person with knowledge of the abuse or neglect for the purpose of gathering the facts, assessing the risk to the child, and formulating a plan.

(j) "Practice of social services," for the purposes of subdivision 3, includes but is not limited to employee assistance counseling and the provision of guardian ad litem services.

(k) "Mental injury" means an injury to the psychological capacity or emotional stability of a child as evidenced by an observable or substantial impairment in the child's ability to function within a normal range of performance and behavior with due regard to the child's culture.

(1) "Threatened injury" means a statement, overt act, condition or status which represents a substantial risk of physical or sexual abuse or mental injury.

Sec. 21. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 626.556, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [PERSONS MANDATED TO REPORT.] (a) A person who knows or has reason to believe a child is being neglected or physically or sexually abused, as defined in subdivision 2, or has been neglected or physically or sexually abused within the preceding three years, shall immediately report the information to the local welfare agency, police department, or the county sheriff if the person is:

(1) a professional or professional's delegate who is engaged in the practice of the healing arts, social services, hospital administration, psychological or psychiatric treatment, child care, education, or law enforcement; or

(2) employed as a member of the clergy and received the information while engaged in ministerial duties, provided that a member of the clergy is not required by this subdivision to report information that is otherwise privileged under section 595.02, subdivision 1, paragraph (c).

The police department or the county sheriff, upon receiving a report, shall immediately notify the local welfare agency orally and in writing. The local welfare agency, upon receiving a report, shall immediately notify the local police department or the county sheriff orally and in writing. The county sheriff and the head of every local welfare agency and police department shall each designate a person within their agency, department, or office who is responsible for ensuring that the notification duties of this paragraph and paragraph (b) are carried out. Nothing in this subdivision shall be construed to require more than one report from any institution, facility, school, or agency.

(b) Any person may voluntarily report to the local welfare agency, police department, or the county sheriff if the person knows, has reason to believe, or suspects a child is being or has been neglected or subjected to physical or sexual abuse. The police department or the county sheriff, upon receiving a report, shall immediately notify the local welfare agency orally and in writing. The local welfare agency, upon receiving a report, shall immediately notify the local police department or the county sheriff orally and in writing.

(c) A person mandated to report physical or sexual child abuse or neglect occurring within a licensed facility shall report the information to the agency responsible for licensing the facility. A health or corrections agency receiving a report may request the local welfare agency to provide assistance pursuant to subdivisions 10, 10a, and 10b.

(d) Any person mandated to report shall, upon request to the local welfare agency, receive a summary of the disposition of any report made by that reporter, unless release would be detrimental to the best interests of the child. Any person who is not mandated to report shall, upon request to the local welfare agency, receive a concise summary of the disposition of any report made by that reporter, unless release would be detrimental to the best interests of the child.

(e) For purposes of this subdivision, "immediately" means as soon as possible but in no event longer than 24 hours.

Sec. 22. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 626.556, subdivision 10e, is amended to read:

Subd. 10e. [DETERMINATIONS.] Upon the conclusion of every assessment or investigation it conducts, the local welfare agency shall make two determinations: first, whether maltreatment has occurred; and second, whether child protective services are needed.

(a) For the purposes of this subdivision, "maltreatment" means any of the following acts or omissions committed by a person responsible for the child's care:

(1) an assault, as defined in section 609.02, subdivision 10, or any physical contact not exempted by section 609.379, where the assault or physical contact is either severe or recurring and causes either injury or significant risk of injury to the child physical abuse as defined in subdivision 2, paragraph (d);

(2) neglect as defined in subdivision 2, paragraph (c); ~~or~~

(3) sexual abuse as defined in subdivision 2, paragraph (a); or

(4) mental injury as defined in section 20.

(b) For the purposes of this subdivision, a determination that child protective services are needed means that the local welfare agency has documented conditions during the assessment or investigation sufficient to cause a child protection worker, as defined in section 626.559, subdivision 1, to conclude that a child is at significant risk of maltreatment if protective intervention is not provided and that the individuals responsible for the child's care have not taken or are not likely to take actions to protect the child from maltreatment or risk of maltreatment.

(c) This subdivision does not mean that maltreatment has occurred solely because the child's parent, guardian, or other person responsible for the child's care in good faith selects and depends upon spiritual means or prayer for treatment or care of disease or remedial care of the child, in lieu of medical care. However, if lack of medical care may result in imminent and serious danger to the child's health, the local welfare agency may ensure that necessary medical services are provided to the child.

Sec. 23. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 626.556, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 10g. [INTERSTATE DATA EXCHANGE.] All reports and records created, collected, or maintained under this section by a local social service agency or law enforcement agency may be disclosed to a local social service or other child welfare agency of another state when the agency certifies that:

(1) the reports and records are necessary in order to conduct an investigation of actions that would qualify as sexual abuse, physical abuse, or neglect under this section; and

(2) the reports and records will be used only for purposes of a child protection assessment or investigation and will not be further disclosed to any other person or agency.

The local social service agency or law enforcement agency in this state shall keep a record of all records or reports disclosed pursuant to this subdivision and of any agency to which the records or reports are disclosed. If in any case records or reports are disclosed before a determination is made under subdivision 10e, or a disposition of any criminal proceedings is reached, the local social service agency or law enforcement agency in this state shall forward the determination or disposition to any agency which has received any report or record under this subdivision.

Sec. 24. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 626.556, subdivision 11, is amended to read:

Subd. 11. [RECORDS.] Except as provided in subdivisions 10b, 10d, 10g, and 11b, all records concerning individuals maintained by a local welfare agency under this section, including any written reports filed under subdivision 7, shall be private data on individuals, except insofar as copies of reports are required by subdivision 7 to be sent to the local police department or the county sheriff. Reports maintained by any police department or the county sheriff shall be private data on individuals except the reports shall be made available to the investigating, petitioning, or prosecuting authority. Section 13.82, subdivisions 5, 5a, and 5b, apply to law enforcement data other than the reports. The welfare board shall make available to the investigating, petitioning, or prosecuting authority any records which contain information relating to a specific incident of neglect or abuse which is under investigation, petition, or prosecution and information relating to any prior incidents of neglect or abuse involving any of the same persons. The records shall be collected and maintained in accordance with the provisions of chapter 13. In conducting investigations and assessments pursuant to this section, the notice required by section 13.04, subdivision 2, need not be provided to a minor under the age of ten who is the alleged victim of abuse or neglect. An individual subject of a record shall have access to the record in accordance with those sections, except that the name of the reporter shall be confidential while the report is under assessment or investigation except as otherwise permitted by this subdivision. Any person conducting an investigation or assessment under this section who intentionally discloses the identity of a reporter prior to the completion of the investigation or assessment is guilty of a misdemeanor. After the assessment or investigation is completed, the name of the reporter shall be confidential. The subject of the report may compel disclosure of the name of the reporter only with the consent of the reporter or upon a written finding by the court that the report was false and that there is evidence that the report was made in bad faith. This subdivision does not alter disclosure responsibilities or obligations under the rules of criminal procedure.

Sec. 25. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 626.558, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [ESTABLISHMENT OF THE TEAM.] A county ~~may shall~~ establish a multidisciplinary child protection team that may include, but not be limited to, the director of the local welfare agency or designees, the county attorney or designees, the county sheriff or designees, representatives of health and education, representatives of mental health or other appropriate human service agencies, and parent groups.

Sec. 26. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 626.559, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [JOINT TRAINING.] The commissioners of human services and public safety shall cooperate in the development of a joint program for training child abuse services professionals in the appropriate techniques for child abuse assessment and investigation. The program shall include but need not be limited to the following areas:

- (1) the public policy goals of the state as set forth in section

260.011 and the role of the assessment or investigation in meeting these goals;

(2) the special duties of child protection workers and law enforcement officers under section 626.556;

(3) the appropriate methods for directing and managing affiliated professionals who may be utilized in providing protective services and strengthening family ties;

(4) the appropriate methods for interviewing alleged victims of child abuse and other minors in the course of performing an assessment or an investigation;

(5) the dynamics of child abuse and neglect within family systems and the appropriate methods for interviewing parents in the course of the assessment or investigation, including training in recognizing cases in which one of the parents is a victim of domestic abuse and in need of special legal or medical services;

(6) the legal, evidentiary considerations that may be relevant to the conduct of an assessment or an investigation;

(7) the circumstances under which it is appropriate to remove the alleged abuser or the alleged victim from the home;

(8) the protective social services that are available to protect alleged victims from further abuse, to prevent child abuse and domestic abuse, and to preserve the family unit, and training in the preparation of case plans to coordinate services for the alleged child abuse victim with services for any parents who are victims of domestic abuse; and

(9) the methods by which child protection workers and law enforcement workers cooperate in conducting assessments and investigations in order to avoid duplication of efforts.

Sec. 27. [ATTORNEY GENERAL DATA PRACTICES STUDY.]

The attorney general shall study and make recommendations regarding government data practices that affect the child protection system. The attorney general shall consult with a multidisciplinary task force of individuals involved in the child protection system, including child protection agencies, law enforcement, prosecution and defense attorneys, the department of administration data protection division, and members of the public. The attorney general shall:

(1) prepare a plain-language interpretation of existing data practices laws that affect the child protection system;

(2) identify ambiguities and inconsistencies in the laws and compare the classification and treatment of data in law enforcement and child protection agencies;

(3) prepare standard forms for giving information to individuals under Minnesota Statutes, section 13.04, subdivision 2, and for reports under Minnesota Statutes, section 626.556;

(4) determine the need for giving mandated reporters, law enforcement, and child protection workers who must diagnose and investigate child abuse increased access to medical records and information on prior abuse; and

(5) consider the desirability of defining false or unfounded reports under Minnesota Statutes, section 626.556.

The attorney general shall report and make recommendations to the legislature by December 15, 1991.

Sec. 28. [PILOT PROJECT FOR SERVICES TO PREVENT CHILD ABUSE.]

The commissioner of human services is authorized to fund a pilot project designed to measure the effectiveness of early intervention and targeted family services in preventing child abuse. The pilot project must be designed to offer a full range of innovative in-home and family treatment services to selected families, determined by the county agency to be at risk for child abuse. The county shall monitor and evaluate the program outcomes for the families participating in the program and shall report those outcomes to the commissioner. The commissioner shall report to the legislature before January 15, 1992, on the design and effectiveness of the project program and shall include recommendations for legislation as appropriate.

Sec. 29. [CHILD ABUSE; PLAN FOR STATEWIDE COMPUTER DATA SYSTEM.]

The commissioner of public safety, in consultation with the department of human services, shall determine the feasibility and costs of establishing a statewide computerized data system containing the following information on determinations made under Minnesota Statutes, section 626.556, and on the criminal and juvenile court matters specified in clauses (1) to (6):

(1) identifying information on any individual that a local social service agency has determined under Minnesota Statutes, section 626.556, subdivision 10e, to have been responsible for the maltreatment of a child or to have necessitated the provision of child protective services for a child, and the name and birth date of any child found to have been maltreated or to be in need of child protective services as a result of the individual's actions;

(2) identifying information on individuals arrested for, charged with, or convicted of malicious punishment of a child or neglect of a child;

(3) pretrial release conditions applicable to individuals charged with an offense listed in clause (2);

(4) probation and supervised release conditions applicable to individuals convicted of an offense listed in clause (2);

(5) identifying information on individuals whose parental rights to a child have been involuntarily terminated under Minnesota Statutes, section 260.221; and

(6) identifying information on individuals who have a child who was found to be in need of protective services as defined in Minnesota Statutes, section 260.015, subdivision 2a.

The commissioner shall also determine the feasibility and costs of requiring all local social service agencies, law enforcement agencies, prosecutors, courts, and court services personnel to report relevant information to the statewide data system; of making the information available to these agencies on request; and of providing a process by which the accuracy of the data may be reviewed at the request of the subject of the data.

The commissioner shall report the results of the study and provide an implementation plan to the chairs of the judiciary committees in the house of representatives and the senate on or before February 1, 1991.

Sec. 30. [SUPREME COURT REVIEW OF CERTAIN JUVENILE COURT ISSUES.]

The supreme court is requested to study and review the following two issues:

(1) whether the use of Minnesota Statutes, section 542.16 and Rule 63.03 of the rules of civil procedure to remove judges in juvenile court cases involving allegations of child abuse or neglect is frequent and appropriate;

(2) whether there is adequate special training for judges who hear juvenile court cases involving allegations of child abuse or neglect.

The supreme court is requested to report to the judiciary committees of the senate and the house of representatives with any findings or recommendations for change resulting from these reviews.

Sec. 31. [APPROPRIATIONS.]

(a) $ is appropriated from the general fund to the commissioner of human services to be available for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1991, for purposes of section 28.

(b) Additional funds, in the amount of $, are appropriated from the general fund to the commissioner of health for the biennium ending June 30, 1991, to be used for family planning grants under Minnesota Statutes, section 145.925. The supplemental funds authorized by this paragraph shall be targeted to provide support services to persons who are at risk for unplanned pregnancies and who, because of dependency on alcohol or other drugs, are seen to be at risk of creating abusive family settings.

Sec. 32. [EFFECTIVE DATE.]

Sections 16 to 18 are effective August 1, 1990, and apply to crimes committed on or after that date."

Delete everything after the enacting clause and insert:

"Section 1. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 169.26, is amended to read:

169.26 [SPECIAL STOPS AT RAILROADS.]

Subdivision 1. [REQUIREMENTS.] (a) When any person driving a vehicle approaches a railroad grade crossing and a clearly visible electric or mechanical signal device gives warning of the immediate approach of a train, under any of the circumstances stated in this section, the driver of such vehicle shall stop the vehicle not less than ten feet from the nearest railroad track of such railroad and shall not proceed until safe to do so. These requirements apply when:

(1) a clearly visible electric or mechanical signal device warns of the immediate approach of a railroad train;

(2) a crossing gate is lowered warning of the immediate approach or passage of a railroad train; or

(3) an approaching railroad train is plainly visible and is in hazardous proximity.

(b) The driver of a vehicle shall stop and remain standing and not traverse such a the grade crossing when the crossing gate is lowered or when a human flagger gives or continues to give a signal of signals the approach or passage of a train. No person may drive a vehicle past a flagger at a railroad crossing until the flagger signals that the way is clear to proceed.

Subd. 2. [PENALTIES.] (a) A person who violates this section is guilty of a misdemeanor.

(b) A person who violates this section and section 169.121 simultaneously is guilty of a gross misdemeanor.

Sec. 2. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 169.973, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. The commissioner of public safety shall supervise the administration and conduct of driver improvement clinics. The commissioner of public safety shall promulgate rules setting forth standards for the curriculum and mode of instruction of driver improvement clinics and such other matters as the commissioner of public safety considers necessary for the proper administration of such clinics. In the preparation of such standards the commissioner of public safety shall consult with the commissioner of education and state associations of judges. A driver improvement clinic established under Laws 1965, chapter 711 shall conform to the standards promulgated by the commissioner of public safety. The course of study at a driver improvement clinic may not exceed a cumulative total of nine hours with no single class session lasting more than three hours. The course of study at a driver improvement clinic shall include instruction in railroad crossing safety.

Sec. 3. [219.073] [COMMISSIONER'S RULES ON GRADE CROSSINGS.]

In accordance with chapter 14, the commissioner of transportation shall adopt rules by December 1, 1991, that contain standards governing the establishment, vacation, relocation, consolidation, and separation of grades at public grade crossings. In adopting standards, the commissioner shall consider that the number of grade crossings in Minnesota should be reduced and that public safety will be enhanced by reducing the number of grade crossings.

Sec. 4. [219.074] [GRADE CROSSING CHANGES.]

Subdivision 1. [AGREEMENTS; HEARING.] Public officials having the necessary authority and a railway company operating the railroad may agree to the vacation, relocation, consolidation, or separation of grades at grade crossings. If agreement cannot be reached concerning the location, manner of construction, or a reasonable division of expense, either party may file a petition with the board, setting forth the facts and submitting the matter to it for determination. The board shall then conduct a hearing under chapter 14 and shall apply the rules developed under section 3 in coming to a determination. The commissioner may also bring matters concerning vacation, relocation, consolidation, or separation of grades at public grade crossings to the board for determination.

Subd. 2. [CROSSING-CLOSING PROGRAM.] On or before July 1, 1992, and on or before July 1 of each of the next four years, and as necessary afterward, the commissioner shall propose to the board a list of grade crossings proposed to be closed. The list must be developed by applying the standards set forth in the rules adopted under section 3. Grade crossings that are part of an abandonment, closing, or removal under section 219.741, may not be included in the list. The board shall notify the public officials having the necessary authority and the railway companies operating the railroads of the proposed closings. Either affected party may request a hearing. If requested, the board shall hold a contested case hearing applying in its determination the rules developed under section 3. If a request for a hearing on a particular crossing is not received within 30 days of the publication in the State Register, the board shall order the crossing closed.

Sec. 5. [REPEALER.]

Minnesota Statutes 1988, sections 219.27 and 219.28, are repealed.

Sec. 6. [EFFECTIVE DATES.]

Sections 1 to 3 are effective the day following final enactment. Sections 4 and 5 are effective December 1, 1991."

Reported the same back with the following amendments:

Delete everything after the enacting clause and insert:

"Section 1. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 609.487, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [PEACE OFFICER; DEFINITION.] For purposes of this section, "peace officer" means:

(1) an employee of a political subdivision or state law enforcement agency who is licensed by the Minnesota board of peace officer standards and training, charged with the prevention and detection of crime and the enforcement of the general criminal laws of the state and who has the full power of arrest, and shall also include the Minnesota state patrol and Minnesota conservation officers; or

(2) a member of a duly organized state, county, or municipal law enforcement unit of another state charged with the duty to prevent and detect crime and generally enforce criminal laws, and granted full powers of arrest.

Sec. 2. [626.71] [FRESH PURSUIT IN NONFELONY SITUATIONS.]

Subdivision 1. [DEFINITIONS.] As used in this section:

(1) "Fresh pursuit" means fresh pursuit as defined by the common law and includes the pursuit of a person who has committed or is reasonably believed to have committed a violation in the presence of the peace officer. Fresh pursuit does not necessarily imply instant pursuit, but pursuit without unreasonable delay;

(2) "Peace officer" means a member of a duly organized state, county, or municipal law enforcement unit; and

(3) "Violation" includes gross misdemeanors, misdemeanors, and traffic violations.

Subd. 2. [FRESH PURSUIT AUTHORITY.] A peace officer of another state who enters this state while on duty and in fresh pursuit, and who continues in fresh pursuit, of a person in order to arrest the person for a violation committed in the peace officer's presence, has the same authority to arrest and hold the person in custody as has any peace officer of this state if reciprocal fresh pursuit authority for that type of violation is extended to Minnesota peace officers by the pursuing officer's state.

Sec. 3. [626.72] [PEACE OFFICERS; TRANSPORTATION FOR LAW ENFORCEMENT PURPOSES.]

A peace officer, as defined in section 609.487, subdivision 2, clause (2), who enters this state to perform an assigned duty of transporting persons in legal custody for law enforcement purposes has the same authority to transport persons in legal custody as any member of any duly organized state, county, or municipal law enforcement unit of this state if a reciprocal right to transport persons in legal custody is extended to Minnesota peace officers by the peace officer's state or local jurisdiction.

Sec. 4. [634.30] [EVIDENCE OBTAINED IN FOREIGN JURISDICTIONS.]

Relevant evidence shall not be excluded in any criminal trial or hearing or in any proceeding arising under section 169.123 on the ground that it existed or was obtained outside of this state.

Sec. 5. [EFFECTIVE DATE.]

Sections 1 to 3 are effective August 1, 1990, and apply to crimes committed on or after that date. Section 4 is effective August 1, 1990, and applies to trials and hearings beginning after that date."

Reported the same back with the following amendments:

Delete everything after the enacting clause and insert:

“Section 1. [17.90] [DEFINITIONS.]

Subdivision 1. [CONTRACTOR.] “Contractor” means a person who buys farm products grown in this state or who contracts with a producer to grow farm products in this state.

Subd. 2. [AGRICULTURAL COMMODITY.] “Agricultural commodity” means any materials produced for but not limited to use in or as food, feed, seed, or fiber and includes but is not limited to crops for fiber, food, oilseeds, seeds, livestock, livestock products, poultry, poultry products, and other products or by-products of the farm produced for the same or similar use.

Subd. 3. [PRODUCER.] “Producer” means a person who produces or causes to be produced an agricultural commodity in a quantity beyond the person’s own family use and is able to transfer title to another or provides management, labor, machinery, facilities, or any other production input for the production of an agricultural commodity.

Sec. 2. [17.91] [MEDIATION; ARBITRATION.]

A contract for an agricultural commodity between a contractor and a producer must contain language providing for resolution of contract disputes by either mediation or arbitration. If there is a contract dispute, either party may make a written request to the commissioner for mediation or arbitration services as specified in the contract, to facilitate resolution of the dispute.

Sec. 3. [17.92] [RECAPTURE OF CAPITAL INVESTMENT REQUIRED BY AN AGRICULTURAL CONTRACT.]

(a) A contractor must not terminate or cancel a contract that requires a producer of agricultural commodities to make a large capital investment in buildings or equipment that cost $100,000 or more and have a useful life of five or more years, unless:

(1) the producer has been given written notice of the intention to terminate or cancel the contract at least 180 days prior to the effective date of the termination or cancellation; and

(2) the producer has been reimbursed for the unamortized portion of an investment in buildings or equipment that were made for the purpose of meeting minimum requirements of the contract.

(b) If a producer fails to substantially comply with the material and reasonable provisions of a contract that requires a large capital investment, a contractor must not terminate or cancel that contract unless the contractor has given written notice with all the reasons for the termination or cancellation at least 90 days in advance of termination or cancellation, and the recipient of the notice fails to correct the reasons stated for termination or cancellation in the notice within 60 days of receipt of the notice.

(c) A notice under this section is effective immediately upon receipt if the alleged grounds for termination or cancellation are:

(1) voluntary abandonment of the contract relationship by the producer; or

(2) conviction of the producer of an offense directly related to the business conducted under the contract.

Sec. 4. [17.93] [PARENT COMPANY RESPONSIBILITY FOR CONTRACTS OF SUBSIDIARIES.]

Subdivision 1. [LICENSING.] If a contractor is required to obtain a license to purchase agricultural commodities, the licensing authority may require the parent company of a licensee subsidiary to guarantee payment or contract performance as a condition of licensing.

Subd. 2. [PARENT COMPANY LIABILITY.] If an agricultural contractor is the subsidiary of another corporation, partnership, or association, the parent corporation, partnership, or association is liable to a seller for the amount of any unpaid claim or contract performance claim if the contractor fails to pay or perform according to the terms of the contract.

Sec. 5. [17.94] [GOOD FAITH; UNFAIR TRADE PRACTICES.]

Subdivision 1. [GOOD FAITH.] There is an implied promise of good faith in all agricultural contracts. In an action to recover damages, if the court finds that there has been a violation of this provision, double damages, court costs, and attorneys' fees may be recovered.

Subd. 2. [UNFAIR TRADE PRACTICES.] The commissioner may adopt rules to implement sections 1 to 8 including the designation of specific trade practices determined to be unconscionable.

Sec. 6. [17.95] [DEPARTMENT OF AGRICULTURE OMBUDSMAN.]

A position is created in the department of agriculture to provide information, investigate complaints arising from this chapter, and provide or facilitate dispute resolutions.

Sec. 7. [17.96] [AGRICULTURAL PRODUCER LIEN.]

Subdivision 1. [GENERAL.] Starting on the date a producer delivers an agricultural commodity to a purchaser, the producer has a first priority statutory lien, referred to as an "agricultural producer lien." An agricultural producer lien continues until 30 days after payment for the product is due and remains unpaid, without filing a notice of lien, for the contract price, if any, or the fair market value of the agricultural commodity delivered. As an alternative to the lien the producer may demand the return of the agricultural commodity any time after payment becomes due but remains unpaid. The agricultural commodity lien attaches to the product delivered, the buyer's inventory, and accounts receivable. Grain, as defined in section 232.21, subdivision 7, milk, and purchases made by a marketing cooperative association are exempt from the provisions of this section.

Subd. 2. [FILING OF STATEMENT EVIDENCING LIEN CONTENTS; STANDARD FILING FORMS; FEES; PROCEDURES.] (a) A producer claiming an agricultural producer lien may file a statement evidencing the lien with the secretary of state after payment from the buyer is due and remains unpaid. Payment is due on the date specified in the contract, or if not specified, within 30 days from the time of delivery.

(b) The statement must be in writing and verified by the producer and must contain the following information:

(1) a true statement of the amount demanded after deducting all credits and offsets;

(2) the name of the purchaser who received the agricultural commodity to be charged with the lien;

(3) a description sufficient to identify the agricultural commodity to be charged with the lien;

(4) a statement that the amount claimed is a true and bona fide existing debt as of the date of the filing of the notice evidencing the lien; and

(5) the date on which payment was due for the agricultural commodity to be charged with the lien.

Subd. 3. [PRIORITY OF THE LIEN.] If a statement is filed within 30 days of the date upon which payment from the buyer is due and remains unpaid, the agricultural commodity lien evidenced by the statement continues its priority over all other liens or security interests upon agricultural commodities, inventory, and accounts receivable. Priority is without regard to whether the other liens or security interests attached before or after the date the agricultural commodity lien attached.

If the lien statement is not filed within 30 days of the date payment is due and remains unpaid the agricultural commodity lien becomes subordinate to:

(1) a lien that has attached to the agricultural commodity inventory or accounts receivable before the date on which the agricultural commodity lien attaches; and

(2) a perfected security interest in the agricultural commodity, inventory, or accounts receivable.

Subd. 4. [DURATION OF LIEN.] The agricultural commodity lien expires six months after the later of the date of attachment or filing, unless a suit to foreclose a lien has been filed before that time.

Subd. 5. [FORECLOSURE AND ENFORCEMENT OF LIEN; COSTS.] An agricultural commodity lien may be foreclosed and enforced by civil action in district court. In all suits to enforce an agricultural commodity lien, the court shall, upon entering judgment, allow to the prevailing party as a part of the costs all money paid for the filing and recording of the lien and reasonable attorney fees.

Sec. 8. [17.97] [AGRICULTURAL INPUT PREPAYMENTS.]

If a producer makes a prepayment for agricultural production inputs that include but are not limited to seed, feed, fertilizer, pesticides, or fuel for future delivery, the producer may demand a letter of credit or bank guarantee to ensure reimbursement if delivery does not occur.

Sec. 9. Laws 1989, chapter 350, article 20, section 25, is amended to read:

Sec. 25. [FORAGE AND TURF SEED SPECIALIST; CROOKSTON CAMPUS.]

$50,000 is appropriated from the general fund to the University of Minnesota for a crop management specialist on seed production of forage and turf species in northern Minnesota, and for supplies, services, and expenses related to the specialist's work. The specialist must be located at the Crookston campus of the university. This appropriation is available for the fiscal year biennium ending June 30, ~~1990~~ 1991.

Sec. 10. [APPROPRIATION.]

$50,000 is appropriated to the commissioner of agriculture for purposes of the ombudsman under section 6 for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1991. The complement of the department of agriculture is increased by one position.

Sec. 4. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 27.01, subdivision 5, is amended to read:

Subd. 5. [DUE DATE.] The term “Due date” means ten days from the date of delivery of produce by the seller to the licensee in the case of a sale; in all cases where.

If there is a contract between the seller and licensee, the licensee shall pay for produce that is delivered to the licensee at the time and in the manner specified in the contract with the seller. If the due date is not set by the contract, the licensee shall pay for the produce within ten days of the delivery or taking possession of the produce. A payment received after the date it is due must include payment of 12 percent annual interest prorated for the number of days past the due date. By January 31 of each year, a contractor shall pay for all farm products that were delivered by producers on or before December 31 of the previous year.

If produce is consigned, "due date" means ten days from the date the sale is made by the broker or handler, except as to milk processing plants, where the due date means 15 days following the monthly day of accounting subsequent to deliveries following the date fixed by each milk processing plant for such that accounting.

Sec. 5. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 27.01, subdivision 8, is amended to read:

Subd. 8. [WHOLESALE PRODUCE DEALER.] (a) ~~The term~~ "Wholesale produce dealer" or "dealer at wholesale" includes:

(1) ~~Any~~ a person who buys or contracts to buy produce in wholesale lots for resale;

(2) ~~Any~~ a person engaging in the business of a broker or agent, who handles or deals in produce for a commission or fee;

(3) ~~Any~~ a truck owner or operator who buys produce in wholesale lots for resale; and

(4) ~~Any~~ a person engaged in the business of a cannery, food manufacturer, or food processor, ~~and~~ who purchases produce as a part of such that business.

(b) ~~The term~~ "Wholesale produce dealer" or "dealer at wholesale" does not include:

(1) ~~Any~~ a truck owner and operator who regularly engages in the business of transporting freight, including produce, for a transportation fee only, and who does not purchase, contract to purchase, or sell produce;

(3) ~~Any~~ a person who purchases, ~~and pays cash in full at the time of purchase,~~ Minnesota seasonally grown produce defined in subdivision 2, clause (a), and pays cash, including lawful money of the United States, a cashier's check, a certified check, or a bank draft;

(4) ~~Any~~ a person who handles and deals in only canned, packaged, processed produce or packaged dairy products, ~~all of which are no longer deemed to be perishable; or~~

(5) retail merchants who purchase produce, defined in subdivision 2, directly from farmers, which in the aggregate does not exceed $500 per month.

Sec. 6. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 27.01, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 10. [SELLER.] "Seller" includes a farmer or licensed wholesale produce dealer, whether the owner of the produce or producing it for another person who holds title to it.

Sec. 7. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 27.03, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [LICENSE.] No person except a wool dealer shall engage in, or purport to be engaged in, or hold out as being engaged in, the business of a dealer at wholesale, or as being a dealer at wholesale, unless licensed and bonded to carry on such business by the commissioner.

Sec. 8. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 27.03, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 3. [BROKERS.] (a) A licensee operating as a broker, upon negotiating the sale of farm products, shall issue to both buyer and seller a written memorandum of sale before the close of the next business day showing price, date of delivery, quality, and other details of the transaction.

(b) The memorandum required in paragraph (a) must have an individual identifying number printed upon it. Numbers must be organized and printed on the memoranda so that each memorandum can be identified and accounted for sequentially. Unused or damaged memoranda must be retained by the broker for accounting purposes.

(c) A licensee operating as a broker may not alter the terms of a transaction specified on the original memorandum of sale required in paragraph (a) without the consent of both parties to the transaction. Upon making a change, the broker is required to issue a clearly marked corrected memorandum of sale indicating the date and time when the adjustment or change was made. The broker shall transmit the corrected memorandum to both the buyer and seller before the close of the next business day.

Sec. 9. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 27.04, is amended to read:

27.04 [APPLICATION FOR LICENSE.]

License to engage in the business of a dealer at wholesale within the state shall be issued by the commissioner to such reputable persons as apply therefor, pay the prescribed fee, and comply with the conditions herein specified.

The application shall be in writing, accompanied by the prescribed fee and under oath, and shall set forth the place or places where the applicant intends to carry on the business for which the license is desired, the estimated amount of business to be done monthly, the amount of business done during the preceding year, if any, the full names of the persons constituting the firm, in case the applicant is a copartnership, the names of the officers of the corporation and where incorporated, if a corporation, and a financial statement showing the value and character of the assets and the amount of liabilities of the applicant, the income and expenses for the most recent year, the names and addresses of all shareholders who own at least five percent of a corporate applicant's shares of stock, whether the applicant or any of its officers, partners, or agents have been involved in any litigation relating to the business of a wholesale produce dealer in the previous five years, and any other information relevant to the conduct of its business as a wholesale produce dealer in the previous five years, as the commissioner may require. If a contract is used in a transaction, a copy of that contract must also be submitted to the department.

Financial data required of an applicant under this section is classified as private data with regard to data on individuals and as nonpublic data with regard to data not on individuals under Minnesota Statutes, section 13.02.

Applications shall be filed annually to be reviewed semiannually periodically. Upon special order, the commissioner may require persons engaged in the business of a dealer at wholesale to file at the time and in the manner the commissioner directs, sworn or unsworn reports or answers in writing to specific questions on any matter which the commissioner may investigate.

For the purposes of this section, the commissioner or the commissioner's authorized agents shall have authority to audit and review any records relating to the financial condition of any dealer at wholesale or any transactions between such dealer and those entitled to the protections of this chapter, if such records are in the possession of or under the care, custody, or control of such dealer or the dealer's authorized agent. No person shall willfully make any false entries or statements or fail to make full and true entries and statements in any report, answer required, document demanded under this section. No person shall remove from the state, mutilate, or alter any document relevant to any investigation, hearing, or proceeding conducted under chapter 27.

Sec. 10. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 27.041, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [BONDS.] The applicant required to be bonded shall execute and file with the commissioner a surety bond to the state of Minnesota to be approved by the commissioner, the amount, form, and effective date to be fixed by the commissioner with the maximum not to exceed ~~$500,000~~ $1,000,000. In lieu of said surety bond the commissioner may accept a duly executed letter of credit. Said bond or letter of credit shall be conditioned on the faithful performance of the applicant's duties as a dealer at wholesale including: (1) the observance of all laws relating to the carrying on of the business of a dealer at wholesale; (2) the payment when due of the purchase price of produce purchased by the applicant when notice of default is given the commissioner within 40 days after the due date, unless it appears to the commissioner that a voluntary extension of credit has been given on the produce by the seller to the licensee beyond the due date; (3) the prompt settlement and payment of all claims and charges due the state for services rendered or otherwise; (4) the prompt reporting of sales as required by law to all persons consigning produce to the licensee for sale on commission, and; (5) the prompt payment to the persons entitled thereto of the proceeds of the sales, less lawful charges, disbursements, and commissions. The bond shall cover all wholesale produce business subject to the protection outlined in section 27.001 which is: (1) transacted within this state; or (2) transacted in part within this state and in part within the states and provinces contiguous with this state and sold by Minnesota producers.

Subd. 2. [LICENSES.] The license, or a certified copy of the license, must be kept posted in the office of the licensee at each place within the state where the licensee transacts business. No licensed dealer shall appoint, delegate, or authorize a person, firm, or company to purchase produce unless a certified copy, identification card, or truck decal has been issued at the request of the licensee to that person, firm, or company acting as the licensee's buyer or agent. Every license shall expire June 30 following its issuance and thereafter be renewed July 1 each year. Any license issued under this subdivision is automatically void upon the termination of the surety bond covering the licensed operation. The fee for each license shall be based on the following schedule:

License Fee	Penalty for Late Renewal	Dollar Volume of Business
$30	$10	$10,000 or less per month
$60	$15	Over $10,000 to $50,000 per month
$300	$75	Over $50,000 to $100,000 per month
$400	$100	Over $100,000 per month

include a $50 registration fee and .025 percent of the total annual dollar amount of produce purchased the previous year subject to this chapter. Fees may not exceed $1,500 per license. In addition, a fee of $20 shall be charged for each certified copy of a license, $5 for each license identification card, and $5 $10 for each license identification truck decal. The commissioner shall make appropriate license fee adjustments for up to one year from July 1, 1975, for persons required to be licensed hereunder, who hold validly issued licenses as of the effective date of Laws 1975, chapter 227 under the provisions of law amended or repealed herein. A penalty amounting to ten percent of the fees then due must be imposed by the commissioner for each month for which the fees are delinquent. The amounts received by the commissioner must be deposited with the state treasurer and constitute a separate account in the state treasury known as the "wholesale produce dealer account." The wholesale produce dealer account is annually appropriated to the commissioner to be used to defray the cost of administering and enforcing sections 27.001 to 27.06, and sections 27.11 to 27.19.

A licensee who sells, disposes of, or discontinues the licensee's business during the lifetime of a license shall at the time the action is taken, notify the commissioner in writing, and upon demand produce before the commissioner a full statement of all assets and liabilities as of the date of transfer or discontinuance of the business.

Money collected from license fees shall be deposited in the state treasury.

Sec. 11. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 27.05, is amended to read:

27.05 [ADDITIONAL BONDS; TRUST.]

Subdivision 1. [BONDS.] The commissioner, when of the opinion that any bond theretofore given by any licensee is inadequate for the proper protection of the public, may require the licensee to give additional bonds in such amounts as from time to time the commissioner may determine and direct, with sureties to be approved by the commissioner, and conditioned as set forth in section 27.04. For the purpose of fixing or changing the amount of such bonds, the commissioner may require from a licensee verified statements of the licensee's business. Failure of the licensee to furnish such information or to give a new or additional bond is cause for suspension of the licensee's license for as long as the failure continues, or revocation of the license, on ten days' notice to the licensee and opportunity to be heard. Where the public interest requires it the commissioner may suspend the license after such notice pending hearing and decision.

Subd. 2. [WHOLESALE PRODUCE DEALERS' TRUST.] In order to satisfy outstanding obligations to unpaid sellers, wholesale produce dealers shall maintain certain assets in trust so that the assets are freely available to satisfy outstanding obligations.

The trust is made up of produce received in all transactions, all inventories of produce or other products derived from the produce, and all receivables or proceeds from the sale of the produce and food or products derived from it. Trust assets are to be preserved as a nonsegregated floating trust. Commingling of trust assets is contemplated.

Subd. 3. [TRUST BENEFITS.] If a seller who has met the eligibility requirements of the due date, as defined in section 27.01, transfers ownership, possession, or control of goods to a wholesale produce dealer, it automatically becomes eligible to participate in the trust. Participants who preserve their rights to benefits within 40 days past the due date remain beneficiaries until they are paid in full.

Wholesale produce dealers acting on behalf of others have the duty to preserve their principals' rights to trust benefits by filing timely written notice with their customers and with the commissioner within 40 days past the due date.

Subd. 4. [FILING NOTICE OF INTENT TO PRESERVE TRUST BENEFITS.] Notice of intent to preserve benefits under a trust must be in writing, given to the debtor, and filed with the commissioner within 40 days after the due date. Timely filing of a notice of intent to preserve trust benefits by a trust beneficiary has been made if written notice is given to the debtor and filed with the commissioner within 40 days after the due date. An appropriate notice of intent to preserve trust benefits must be in writing, must include the statement that it is a notice of intent to preserve trust benefits, and must include information establishing for each shipment: (1) the names and addresses of the trust beneficiary, seller, and debtor, as applicable; (2) the date of the transaction commodity, contract terms, invoice price, and the date payment was due; (3) the date of receipt of notice that a payment instrument has been dishonored, if appropriate; and (4) the amount past due and unpaid.

Sec. 12. [27.055] [MEDIATION; ARBITRATION.]

A contract for produce between a buyer and a seller must contain language providing for resolution of contract disputes by either mediation or arbitration. If there is a contract dispute, either party may make a written request to the department for mediation or arbitration, as specified in the contract to facilitate resolution of the dispute.

Sec. 13. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 27.06, is amended to read:

27.06 [COMPLAINTS TO COMMISSIONER, HEARING; ACTION ON BOND.]

Any person claiming to be damaged by any breach of the conditions of a bond given by a licensee, as herein provided, may enter complaint thereof to the commissioner within 40 days after the due date, which complaint shall be a written statement of the facts constituting the complaint. Upon filing the complaint in the manner herein provided, the commissioner shall investigate the charges made and may have the matter heard as a contested case pursuant to chapter 14. No hearing shall be required if all affected parties to a bond claim proceeding waive their right to a hearing and agree to accept the commissioner's determination as to the validity of the claims and the allocation of the proceeds of the bond, if an affected party requests one.

Sec. 14. [27.065] [PARENT COMPANY LIABILITY.]

If a wholesale produce dealer is a subsidiary of another corporation, partnership, or association, the parent corporation, partnership, or association is liable to a seller for the amount of any unpaid claim or contract performance claim if the wholesale produce dealer fails to pay or perform according to the terms of the contract and this chapter.

Sec. 15. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 27.19, is amended to read:

27.19 [VIOLATIONS, PENALTIES.]

Subdivision 1. [UNLAWFUL ACTS.] Any It is unlawful for a person subject to the provisions of this section and sections 27.01 to 27.15 who shall to:

(1) operate or advertise to operate as a dealer at wholesale without a license; or

(2) make any false statement or report as to the grade, condition, markings, quality, or quantity of produce, as defined in section 27.069, received or delivered, or act in any manner so as to deceive the consignor or purchaser thereof; or

(3) refuse to accept any shipment contracted for by the person, unless such refusal is based upon the showing of a state inspection certificate secured with reasonable promptness after the receipt of such shipment showing that the kind and quality of produce, as defined in section 27.069, is other than that purchased or ordered by the person; or

(4) fail to account for produce or to make settlement therefor within the time herein limited; or ~~who shall~~ violate or fail to comply with the terms or conditions of any contract entered into by the person for the purchase or sale of produce; or

(5) purchase for the person's own account any produce received on consignment, either directly or indirectly, without the consent of the consignor; or

(6) issue any false or misleading market quotations, or ~~who shall~~ cancel any quotations during the period advertised by the person; or

(7) increase the sales charges on produce shipped to the person by means of "dummy" or fictitious sales; or

(8) receive decorative forest products and the products of farms and waters from foreign states or countries for sale or resale, either within or without the state, and give the purchaser the impression, through any method of advertising or description, that the produce is of Minnesota origin; or

(9) Whoever shall violate any provisions of this section and sections 27.01 to 27.15, or any rule made or published thereunder by the commissioner, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and the person's license may be forthwith suspended, revoked, or canceled by the commissioner, upon ten days notice and opportunity to be heard; but, upon conviction of any such offense, or upon conviction in any federal court for violation of the federal statutes relative to the fraudulent use of the mails, or conviction in any court of other criminal acts under any federal food or drug statute, or any statute of this state administered by the commissioner of agriculture, pertaining to the conduct of the person's business, the commissioner may forthwith revoke and cancel the license of the person so convicted. Each day a person violates any provisions of this section and sections 27.01 to 27.15, or any rule published thereunder by the commissioner, shall constitute a separate offense. fail to notify in writing all suppliers of produce of the protection afforded to suppliers by the person's licensee bond including the following: bond amount; section 27.041, subdivision 1, clause (2), notice requirements; and any other conditions of the bond;

(10) make any false statement to the commissioner on an application for license or bond or in response to written questions from the commissioner regarding the license or bond;

(11) discriminate between different sections, localities, communities, or cities, or between persons in the same community, by purchasing produce from farmers of the same grade, quality, and kind, at different prices, except that price differentials are allowed if directly related to the costs of transportation, shipping, and handling of the produce. A person is allowed to meet the prices of a competitor in good faith, in the same locality for the same grade, quality, and kind of produce. A showing of different prices by the commissioner is prima facie evidence of discrimination; or

(12) fail to pay for all crops grown under contract regardless of the quality or maturity of the produce.

Subd. 2. [PENALTIES.] (a) A person who violates this chapter or rules adopted under this chapter may be assessed a civil penalty not to exceed $500 per violation. In addition, that person's license may be suspended, revoked, or canceled by the commissioner, upon ten days' notice and opportunity to be heard. Action under this subdivision is civil in nature.

(b) A person who willfully violates this chapter or rules adopted under this chapter is guilty of a misdemeanor. Upon conviction, or upon conviction in a federal court for violation of the federal statutes relative to fraudulent use of the mails or in any court of other criminal acts under a federal food or drug statute or a statute of this state administered by the commissioner of agriculture pertaining to the conduct of the person's business, the commissioner may immediately revoke and cancel the license of the person convicted, without further hearing.

(c) A separate violation occurs with respect to each different person involved, each different product involved, each purchase or transaction involved, and each false statement.

Subd. 3. [SETTLEMENTS.] The commissioner or the commissioner's authorized representative may enter into a written agreement with a person in settlement of an alleged violation whether or not a hearing is held. An agreement must be construed as a "no contest" pleading and may encompass any sanctions, penalties, or affirmative actions that are mutually satisfactory and are consistent with the intent and purpose of this chapter. The agreement is final and conclusive with respect to the action, except upon a showing of fraud or malfeasance or misrepresentation of a material fact. The matter agreed upon in the agreement may not be reopened or modified by an officer, employee, or agent of the state. In an action, suit, or proceeding, the agreement and any determination or payment made under the agreement is final and conclusive and may not be annulled, modified, set aside, or disregarded. A civil penalty amount received by the commissioner under this section must be deposited in the wholesale produce dealer account.

Subd. 4. [SEIZURE OF VEHICLES.] A person doing business in this state who does not have a business location in this state and who is not licensed as required by this chapter may have the person's vehicles or the vehicles of the person's agents or contractors seized by the commissioner after a hearing in Ramsey county district court. If a person required to comply with this chapter fails to appear, without just cause, or the person appears and is in violation of this chapter, the court shall order the commissioner to seize the vehicles.

Subd. 5. [DOUBLE DAMAGES.] A person injured by a person doing business in this state as a wholesale produce dealer who is not licensed under this chapter or whose license has been suspended or revoked by the commissioner, may in an action recover double the amount of damages sustained.

There is an implied promise of good faith between producers and buyers. In an action to recover damages, if there is a finding that there has been a violation of this provision, double damages may be recovered, as well as court costs and attorneys fees."

"Sec. 4. [462A.075] [REVIEW AND APPROVAL OF GRANTS UNDER THE SMALL CITIES COMMUNITY DEVELOPMENT BLOCK GRANT PROGRAM.]

The commissioner of the Minnesota housing finance agency must review and approve all housing related grant applications for the small cities community development block grant program under section 116J.401. The commissioner must consider whether the following goals are met in reviewing and approving the projects for which the application for a grant has been made:

(1) the project furthers the housing needs of low and moderate income individuals and families;

(2) the project meets the mission and goals of the agency's most recent affordable housing plan;

(3) there is a demand in the community or surrounding area for the specific type of housing that is part of the project;

(4) the grant application does not directly duplicate any specific request for funding made to the agency;

(5) the project leverages private sources of funding or other public sources of funding;

(6) the proposed grant may be used to increase the viability of projects under consideration by the agency for funding from the housing development fund and housing trust fund; and

(7) the project conforms with an existing housing plan required under section 462C.03 if the application is from a local government unit that has adopted a housing plan.

Sec. 5. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 462A.21, subdivision 8b, is amended to read:

Subd. 8b. [FAMILY RENTAL HOUSING.] It may establish a family rental housing assistance program to provide loans or direct rental subsidies for housing for families with incomes of up to 60 percent of area median income. Priority must be given to those developments with resident families with the lowest income. The development may be financed by the agency or other public or private lenders. Direct rental subsidies must be administered by the agency for the benefit of eligible families. Financial assistance provided under this subdivision to recipients of aid to families with dependent children must be in the form of vendor payments whenever possible. Loans and direct rental subsidies under this subdivision may be made only with specific appropriations by the legislature. The limitations on eligible mortgagors contained in section 462A.03, subdivision 13, do not apply to loans for the rehabilitation of existing housing under this subdivision.

Sec. 6. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 462A.21, subdivision 8c, is amended to read:

Subd. 8c. [RENTAL HOUSING FOR INDIVIDUALS.] It may establish a rental housing assistance program for persons of low income or with a mental illness to provide loans or direct rental subsidies for housing for individuals with incomes of up to 30 percent of area median income. Priority must be given to developments with the lowest income residents. Housing for the mentally ill must be operated in coordination with social service providers who provide services to tenants. The developments may be financed by the agency or other public or private entities. Direct rental subsidies must be administered by the agency for the benefit of eligible tenants. Financial assistance provided under this subdivision must be in the form of vendor payments whenever possible. Loans and direct rental subsidies under this subdivision may be made only with specific appropriations by the legislature. The limitations on eligible mortgagors contained in section 462A.03, subdivision 13, do not apply to loans for the rehabilitation of existing housing under this subdivision.

Reported the same back with the following amendments:

Delete everything after the enacting clause and insert:

"Section 1. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 462A.201, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [LOW-INCOME HOUSING.] The agency may, in consultation with the advisory committee, use money from the housing trust fund account to provide loans or grants for projects for the development, construction, acquisition, preservation, and rehabilitation of low-income rental and limited equity cooperative housing units and homes for ownership. No more than 20 percent of available funds may be used for home ownership projects. At least 75 percent of the rental and cooperative units, and 100 percent of the homes for ownership, must be rented to or cooperatively owned, or owned by persons and families whose income at the time the person or family originally occupied the unit was at or below does not exceed 30 percent of the median family income for the metropolitan area as defined in section 473.121, subdivision 2. In making the grants, the agency shall determine the terms and conditions of repayment and the appropriate security, if any, should repayment be required. To promote the geographic distribution of grants and loans, the agency may designate a portion of the grant or loan awards to be set aside for projects located in specified congressional districts or other geographical regions specified by the agency. The agency may adopt emergency and permanent rules for awarding grants and loans under this subdivision. The emergency rules are effective for 180 days or until the permanent rules are adopted, whichever occurs first.

Sec. 2. [462A.202] [LOCAL GOVERNMENT HOUSING ACCOUNT.]

Subdivision 1. [ACCOUNT.] The local government housing account is a separate account in the housing development fund. Money in the account is appropriated to the agency for the purposes in this section.

Subd. 2. [TRANSITIONAL HOUSING.] The agency may provide loans or grants to local government units to acquire and rehabilitate transitional housing. Preference must be given to local governments that propose to acquire federally acquired savings and loan properties and department of housing and urban development repossessed properties. The local government unit may contract with a nonprofit or for profit organization to manage the property and to operate a transitional housing program on the property. The local government unit must retain ownership of the property for at least 20 years.

Subd. 3. [PUBLIC HOUSING REHABILITATION.] The agency may provide loans or grants to local government units for the rehabilitation and modernization of public housing units from funds specifically appropriated by the legislature for that purpose.

Subd. 4. [SUBSIDIZED RENTAL HOUSING PRESERVATION.] The agency may provide loans or grants to local government units for the acquisition and rehabilitation of federally subsidized multi-family rental housing for the purpose of preserving the housing for the use of low- and moderate-income persons from funds specifically appropriated by the legislature for that purpose. The local government unit may contract with a nonprofit or for profit organization to manage the property. The local government unit must retain ownership of the property for at least 20 years.

Sec. 3. [462A.29] [INTERAGENCY COORDINATION ON HOMELESSNESS.]

The agency shall coordinate services and activities of all state agencies relating to homelessness. The agency shall coordinate an investigation and review of the current system of service delivery to the homeless. The agency may request assistance from other agencies of state government as needed for the execution of the responsibilities under this section and the other agencies shall furnish the assistance upon request.

Sec. 4. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 469.040, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 4. [LEASED PROPERTY; HOUSING PROJECT EXCEPTION.] If the authority sells or leases property to a nonprofit corporation or limited dividend entity for the purpose of providing a housing project, the authority shall pay for the housing units occupied by persons or families meeting the income limits under clause (3), in lieu of property taxes, a service charge based on the project's aggregate shelter rentals. Property taxes must be paid on housing units that are occupied by persons or families who do not meet the income limits under clause (3). The service charge must be collected and distributed in the manner described in subdivision 3. Housing projects must meet the following criteria in order to be eligible for the service charge:

(1) a nonprofit corporation or limited dividend entity has contracted with the authority to provide housing units to persons and families of low income for at least 15 years and to provide annual income certification of residents;

(2) the housing project will meet a specific housing shortage identified by the city or the authority; and

(3) at least 60 percent of the units must be occupied by persons or families whose income does not exceed 60 percent of the area's median income adjusted by family size as determined by the department of housing and urban development.

Sec. 5. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 469.203, subdivision 4, is amended to read:

Subd. 4. [CITY APPROVAL OF PROGRAM.] (a) ~~For the purposes of this subdivision, "city" means the cities of Minneapolis and Duluth.~~

~~(b)~~ (b) Before adoption of a revitalization program under paragraph (e) (b), the city must submit a preliminary program to the commissioner, the state planning agency, and the Minnesota housing finance agency for their comments. The city may not adopt the revitalization program until comments have been received from the state agencies or 30 days have elapsed without response after the program was sent to them. Comments received by the city from the state agencies within the 30-day period must be responded to in writing by the city before adoption of the program by the city.

~~(c)~~ (b) The city may adopt a revitalization program only after holding a public hearing after the program has been prepared. Notice of the hearing must be provided in a newspaper of general circulation in the city and in the most widely circulated community newspaper in the targeted neighborhoods not less than ten days nor more than 30 days before the date of the hearing.

~~(d)~~ (c) A certification by the city that a revitalization program has been approved by the city council for the targeted neighborhood must be provided to the commissioner together with a copy of the program. A copy of the program must also be provided to the Minnesota housing finance agency and the state planning agency.

~~(e)~~ (d) A revitalization program for the city may be modified at any time by the city council after a public hearing, notice of which is published in a newspaper of general circulation in the city and in the targeted neighborhood at least ten days nor more than 30 days before the date of the hearing. If the city council determines that the proposed modification is a significant modification to the program originally certified under paragraph (d) (c), the city council shall implement the revitalization program approval and certification process of this subdivision for the proposed modification.

Sec. 6. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 474A.21, is amended to read:

474A.21 [APPROPRIATION; RECEIPTS.]

Any fees collected by the department under Laws 1987, chapter 268, article 16, sections 1 474A.01 to 40 474A.21 must be deposited in a separate account in the general fund. The amount necessary to refund application deposits is appropriated to the department from the separate account in the general fund for that purpose. The interest accruing on application deposits and any application deposit not refunded as provided under section 474A.061, subdivision 4, or section 474A.091, subdivision 5, or forfeited as provided under section 474A.131, subdivision 2, must be deposited in the housing trust fund account under section 462A.201.

Sec. 7. [APPROPRIATION; BOND SALE.]

Subdivision 1. [APPROPRIATION.] $ is appropriated from the bond proceeds fund for transfer to the local government housing account in the housing development fund for the purposes of section 2.

Subd. 2. [BOND SALE.] To provide the money appropriated in this section from the bond proceeds fund the commissioner of finance on request of the governor shall sell and issue bonds of the state in an amount up to $ in the manner, upon the terms, and with the effect prescribed in Minnesota Statutes, sections 16A.631 to 16A.675, and by the Minnesota Constitution, article XI, sections 4 to 7.

Reported the same back with the following amendments:

Delete everything after the enacting clause and insert:

“Section 1. [299A.41] [DEFINITIONS.]

Subdivision 1. [SCOPE.] The terms used in this chapter have the meanings given them in this section.

Subd. 2. [DEPENDENT CHILD.] A “dependent child” means a person who is unmarried and who was either living with or was receiving support contributions from the public safety officer at the time of death, including a child by birth, a stepchild, an adopted child, or a posthumous child, and who is:

(1) under 18 years of age;

(2) over 18 years of age and incapable of self-support because of physical or mental disability; or

(3) over 18 years of age and a student as defined by United States Code, title 5, section 8101.

Subd. 3. [KILLED IN THE LINE OF DUTY.] “Killed in the line of duty” does not include deaths from natural causes.

Subd. 4. [PUBLIC SAFETY OFFICER.] “Public safety officer” includes:

(1) a peace officer defined in section 626.84;

(2) a correction officer employed at a correctional facility and charged with maintaining the safety, security, discipline, and custody of inmates at the facility;

(3) a firefighter employed on a full-time basis by the state or by a fire department of a governmental subdivision of the state, who is engaged in the hazards of firefighting;

(4) a legally enrolled member of a volunteer fire department or member of an independent nonprofit firefighting corporation who is engaged in the hazards of firefighting;

(5) a good samaritan while complying with the request or direction of a public safety officer to assist the officer;

(6) a reserve police officer or a reserve deputy sheriff while acting under the supervision and authority of a political subdivision;

(7) a driver or attendant with a licensed basic or advanced life support transportation service who is engaged in providing emergency care; and

(8) a first responder who is certified by the commissioner of health to perform basic emergency skills before the arrival of a licensed ambulance service and who is a member of an organized service recognized by a local political subdivision to respond to medical emergencies to provide initial medical care before the arrival of an ambulance.

Subd. 5. [SPOUSE.] "Spouse" means a person legally married to the decedent at the time of death.

Sec. 2. [299A.42] [PUBLIC SAFETY OFFICERS BENEFIT FUND.]

The public safety officers benefit account is created in the state treasury. Funds in the account consist of money transferred and appropriated to that fund. The administrator of the fund is the commissioner of public safety.

Sec. 3. [299A.43] [ELIGIBILITY DETERMINATION; CONTESTED CASE.]

A challenge to a determination of eligibility by the commissioner of public safety must be heard as a contested case, except that the decision of the administrative law judge is binding on the parties to the proceeding. The order of the administrative law judge is the final decision of the commissioner. The hearing must be conducted in accordance with sections 14.56 to 14.62 and is subject to appeal in accordance with sections 14.63 to 14.68.

Sec. 4. [299A.44] [DEATH BENEFIT.]

On certification to the governor by the administrator of the fund that a public safety officer employed within this state has been killed in the line of duty, leaving a spouse or one or more eligible dependents, the commissioner of finance shall pay $100,000 from the public safety officers benefit fund, as follows:

(1) if there is no dependent child, to the spouse;

(2) if there is no spouse, to the dependent child or children in equal shares;

(3) if there are both a spouse and one or more dependent children, one-half to the spouse and one-half to the child or children, in equal shares;

(4) if there is no surviving spouse or dependent child or children, to the parent or parents dependent for support on the decedent, in equal shares; or

(5) if there is no surviving spouse, dependent child, or dependent parent, then no payment may be made from the public safety officers benefit fund.

Sec. 5. [299A.45] [EDUCATION BENEFIT.]

Subdivision 1. [ELIGIBILITY.] Following certification under section 4 and compliance with this section and rules of the commissioner of public safety, dependent children less than 23 years of age and the surviving spouse of a public safety officer killed in the line of duty on or after July 1, 1967, who are attending a post-secondary educational institution after June 30, 1990, are eligible to receive educational benefits under this section for undergraduate degree or certificate programs at institutions eligible to participate in the Minnesota state grant program as specified in section 136A.101, subdivision 4. Persons who have received a baccalaureate degree are no longer eligible.

Subd. 2. [AWARD AMOUNT.] The award must not exceed a grant applicant's cost of attendance, defined in section 136A.121, subdivision 6, after deducting:

(1) the amount of the federal Pell Grant for which the applicant is eligible; and

(2) the amount of the state grant for which the applicant is eligible.

Subd. 3. [PAYMENT.] On proof of eligibility for this program, an eligible institution, on behalf of the student, shall request payment of the award from the higher education coordinating board. Funds in excess of tuition and fees charged by the school must be disbursed to the student no sooner than the first day of class. The award will be divided by the number of terms in that school's academic year and disbursed proportionately. A student is not eligible for a disbursement unless the student is enrolled in or has completed the term for which the payment is intended. A student must apply annually for the award. An award under this subdivision may not be more than $9,000 for each academic year not to exceed a total of $36,000 awarded to a single student.

Sec. 6. [299A.46] [RULES.]

The commissioner of public safety may adopt rules, including emergency rules, under chapter 14 to implement, coordinate, and administer sections 1 to 4. The higher education coordinating board may adopt rules to implement, coordinate, and administer section 5.

Sec. 7. [REPEALER.]

Minnesota Statutes 1988, sections 176B.01, as amended by Laws 1989, chapter 289, section 2; 176B.02; 176B.03; 176B.04; and 176B.05, are repealed.

Sec. 8. [MONEY SET ASIDE.]

The higher education coordinating board shall set aside $ appropriated for the state grant program under Minnesota Statutes, section 136A.121 for the purpose of section 5.

Sec. 9. [EFFECTIVE DATES.]

Sections 1 to 4 and 6 to 8 are effective the day following final enactment. Section 5 is effective July 1, 1990, and applies to all eligible surviving dependents and spouses of public safety officers killed in the line of duty on or after July 1, 1967."

Subd. 4. [CITY APPROVAL OF PROGRAM.] (a) ~~For the purposes of this subdivision, "city" means the cities of Minneapolis and Duluth.~~

(b) Before adoption of a revitalization program under paragraph (e) (b), the city must submit a preliminary program to the commissioner, the state planning agency, and the Minnesota housing finance agency for their comments. The city may not adopt the revitalization program until comments have been received from the state agencies or 30 days have elapsed without response after the program was sent to them. Comments received by the city from the state agencies within the 30-day period must be responded to in writing by the city before adoption of the program by the city.

(e) (b) The city may adopt a revitalization program only after holding a public hearing after the program has been prepared. Notice of the hearing must be provided in a newspaper of general circulation in the city and in the most widely circulated community newspaper in the targeted neighborhoods not less than ten days nor more than 30 days before the date of the hearing.

(e) (c) A certification by the city that a revitalization program has been approved by the city council for the targeted neighborhood must be provided to the commissioner together with a copy of the program. A copy of the program must also be provided to the Minnesota housing finance agency and the state planning agency.

(e) (d) A revitalization program for the city may be modified at any time by the city council after a public hearing, notice of which is published in a newspaper of general circulation in the city and in the targeted neighborhood at least ten days nor more than 30 days before the date of the hearing. If the city council determines that the proposed modification is a significant modification to the program originally certified under paragraph (e) (c), the city council shall implement the revitalization program approval and certification process of this subdivision for the proposed modification.

Nos. 232, 1784, 1870, 1924, 1960, 1963, 1976, 1977, 2001, 2002, 2028, 2057, 2097, 2116, 2134, 2138, 2147, 2163, 2173, 2189, 2202, 2219, 2252, 2291, 2296, 2336, 2350, 2384, 2407, 2426, 2448, 2462, 2494, 2505, 2594, 2628, 2637, 2645, 2650, 2657, 1894, 1939, 1970, 1987, 2043, 2056, 2090, 2092, 2105, 2124, 2131, 2148, 2156, 2211, 2222, 2223, 2234, 2321, 2351, 2397, 2459, 2507, 2534, 2541, 2614 and 2623 and S. F. Nos. 1695, 1813, 1906, 1943, 1922, 1947 and 1783 have been placed in the members' files.

S. F. No. 1922 and H. F. No. 2028, which had been referred to the Chief Clerk for comparison, were examined and found to be identical.

Carlson, L., moved that S. F. No. 1922 be substituted for H. F. No. 2028 and that the House File be indefinitely postponed. The motion prevailed.

S. F. No. 1947 and H. F. No. 2090, which had been referred to the Chief Clerk for comparison, were examined and found to be identical with certain exceptions.

SUSPENSION OF RULES

Jennings moved that the rules be so far suspended that S. F. No. 1947 be substituted for H. F. No. 2090 and that the House File be indefinitely postponed. The motion prevailed.

REPORTS OF STANDING COMMITTEES

Wenzel from the Committee on Agriculture to which was referred:

H. F. No. 31, A bill for an act relating to natural resources; prohibiting drainage of certain wetlands; amending Minnesota

Statutes 1988, sections 105.38; 105.391, by adding subdivisions; and 106A.701, by adding a subdivision.

Reported the same back with the following amendments:

Delete everything after the enacting clause and insert:

“Section 1. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 105.37, subdivision 14, is amended to read:

Subd. 14. [PUBLIC WATERS.] “Public waters” includes and shall be limited to the following waters of the state:

(1) All waterbasins assigned a shoreland management classification by the commissioner pursuant to section 105.485, except wetlands less than 80 acres in size which are classified as natural environment lakes;

(2) All waters of the state which have been finally determined to be public waters or navigable waters by a court of competent jurisdiction;

(3) All meandered lakes, except for those which have been legally drained;

(4) All waterbasins previously designated by the commissioner for management for a specific purpose such as trout lakes and game lakes pursuant to applicable laws;

(5) All waterbasins designated as scientific and natural areas pursuant to section 84.033;

(6) All waterbasins located within and totally surrounded by publicly owned lands;

(7) All waterbasins where the state of Minnesota or the federal government holds title to any of the beds or shores, unless the owner declares that the water is not necessary for the purposes of the public ownership;

(8) All waterbasins where there is a publicly owned and controlled access which is intended to provide for public access to the waterbasin; ~~and~~

(9) All natural and altered natural watercourses with a total drainage area greater than two square miles, except that trout streams officially designated by the commissioner shall be public waters regardless of the size of their drainage area; and

(10) All types 3, 4, and 5 wetlands as defined in United States Fish and Wildlife Service Circular No. 39 (1971 edition), which are ten or more acres in unincorporated areas or 2-1/2 or more acres in incorporated areas, and are not included in clauses (1) to (9).

The public character of water shall not be determined exclusively by the proprietorship of the underlying, overlying, or surrounding land or by whether it is a body or stream of water which was navigable in fact or susceptible of being used as a highway for commerce at the time this state was admitted to the union.

For the purposes of statutes other than this section and sections 105.38 and 105.391, the term "public waters" shall include "wetlands" unless the statute expressly states otherwise.

Sec. 2. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 105.37, subdivision 15, is amended to read:

Subd. 15. [WETLANDS.] "Wetlands" includes, and shall be limited to, all types 3, 4, and 5 wetlands, as defined in United States Fish and Wildlife Service Circular No. 39 (1971 edition), not included within the definition of public waters, which are ten or more acres in size in unincorporated areas or 2-1/2 or more acres in incorporated areas.

"Wetlands" means lands transitional between terrestrial and aquatic systems where the water table is usually at or near the surface or the land is covered by shallow water. For purposes of this definition, wetlands must have two or more of the following three attributes:

(1) at least periodically, the land supports predominantly hydrophytes;

(2) the substrate is predominantly undrained hydric soil; and

(3) the substrate is nonsoil and is saturated with water or covered by shallow water at some time during the growing season of each year.

Sec. 3. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 105.37, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 19. [LOCAL WATER MANAGEMENT ORGANIZATION.] "Local water management organization" means the managers of a watershed district established under chapter 112. Where no watershed district has been established, the local water management organization shall be the governing board of the county, city, or the watershed management organization under section 473.876, subdivision 9.

Sec. 4. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 105.37, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 20. [MITIGATION.] "Mitigation" is the quantification and replacement of an area's size, quality, character, and diversity through restoration or creation of equivalent quantities in another area after the impacts of the proposed project have been avoided and minimized to the extent possible and there are no feasible and practical alternatives.

Sec. 5. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 105.37, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 21. [WATERSHED.] "Watershed" means the 81 major watershed units delineated by the "State of Minnesota Watershed Boundaries - 1979" map.

Sec. 6. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 105.38, is amended to read:

105.38 [DECLARATION OF POLICY.]

Subdivision 1. [POLICY.] To conserve and use the state's water resources in the best interests of its people, and to promote the public health, safety, and welfare, the policy of the state is as follows:

(a) Subject to existing rights, public waters and wetlands are subject to the control of the state.

(b) The state, to the extent provided by law, shall control the appropriation and use of surface and underground waters of the state.

(c) The state shall control and supervise, so far as practicable, any activity that changes or will change the course, current, or cross-section of public waters or wetlands, including but not limited to the construction, reconstruction, repair, removal, abandonment, the making of any other change, or the transfer of ownership of dams, reservoirs, control structures, and waterway obstructions in public waters or wetlands of the state.

Subd. 2. [FINDINGS; PUBLIC INTEREST.] (a) The legislature finds that the wetlands of Minnesota provide public value by conserving surface waters, maintaining and improving water quality, preserving wildlife habitat, providing recreational opportunities, reducing runoff, providing for floodwater retention, reducing stream sedimentation, contributing to improved subsurface moisture, and enhancing the natural beauty of the landscape, and are important to comprehensive water management, and that it is in the public interest to:

(1) achieve no net loss in the quantity and quality of Minnesota's existing wetlands;

(2) increase the quantity and quality of Minnesota's wetlands by restoring or enhancing diminished or drained wetlands;

(3) avoid direct or indirect impacts from activities that destroy or diminish wetlands; and

(4) mitigate where avoidance is not feasible or practical.

(b) Mitigation must be guided by the following principles in descending order of priority:

(1) restoration of a wetland area;

(2) enhancement of a wetland area; or

(3) creation of new wetland.

(c) This subdivision controls the enforcement and administration of all other statutes affecting wetlands.

Sec. 7. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 105.391, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [INVENTORY, COUNTY BOARD REVIEW, HEARINGS.] On the basis of information available to the commissioner and the criteria in section 105.37, ~~subdivisions~~ subdivision 14 and 15, the commissioner shall inventory the waters of each county and make a preliminary designation as to which are public waters ~~and wetlands~~. The commissioner shall send a list and map of the waters preliminarily designated as public waters ~~and wetlands~~ in each county to the county board of that county for its review and comment.

The county board shall conduct at least one public informational meeting within the county regarding the commissioner's preliminary designation. After conducting the meetings and within 90 days after receipt of the list or maps, the county board shall present its recommendation to the commissioner, listing any waters regarding which the board disagrees with the commissioner's preliminary designation and stating with particularity the waters involved and the reasons for disagreement.

The commissioner shall review the county board's response and, if in agreement with any of the board's recommendations, shall revise the list and map to reflect the recommendations. Within 30 days after receiving the county board's recommendations, the commissioner shall also notify the county board which recommendations are accepted and rejected and the reasons for the decision.

After the revision of the map and list, if any, or if no response is received from the county board within the 90 days review period, the commissioner shall file the revised list and map with the recorder of each county and shall have the list and map published in the official newspaper of the county. The published notice must also state that any person or any county may challenge the designation of specific waters as public waters or wetlands or may request the designation of additional waters as public waters or wetlands, by filing a petition for a hearing with the commissioner within 90 days following the date of publication. The petition must state with particularity the waters for which the commissioner's designation is disputed and the reasons for disputing the designation.

If any designations are disputed by petition, the commissioner shall order a public hearing to be held within the county within 60 days following the 90-day period. Notice of the hearing must be published in the State Register and the official newspaper of the county. The hearings must be conducted by a hearings unit. The unit is composed of: one person appointed by the affected county board; one person appointed by the commissioner; and one board member of the local soil and water conservation district or districts within the county who must be selected by the other two members at least 20 days before the hearing date. The expenses and per diem of any member of the hearings unit who is not a state employee must be paid as provided for in section 15.059, subdivision 3, within the limits of funds available from grants to the county under Laws 1979, chapter 199, section 16.

If there is a watershed district whose boundaries include the waters involved, the district may give the hearings unit its recommendations.

Within 60 days after completion of the hearing, the hearings unit shall issue its findings of fact, conclusions and an order, which must be considered the decision of an agency in a contested case for purposes of judicial review under sections 14.63 to 14.69. The commissioner, the county, or any person aggrieved by the decision of the hearings unit may appeal from the hearings unit's order. On receiving the order of the hearings unit and after the appeal period has expired, or on receiving the final order of the court in the case of an appeal, the commissioner shall publish a list of the waters determined to be public waters and wetlands. The commissioner shall complete the public waters and wetlands inventory by December 31, 1982.

Sec. 8. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 105.391, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [PERMISSION TO DRAIN WATERS AND WETLANDS.] Except as provided below, no public waters or wetlands shall be drained, and no permit authorizing drainage of public waters or wetlands shall be issued, unless the public waters or wetlands being drained are replaced by public waters or wetlands that will have equal or greater public value. Wetlands, as defined in section 105.37, subdivision 14, clause (10), drainage of which is lawful, feasible, and practical and would provide high quality cropland and that is the projected land use, as determined by the commissioner, may be drained without a permit and without replacement of wetlands of equal or greater public value if the commissioner does not choose, within 60 days of receiving an application for a permit to drain the wetlands, to (1) place the wetlands in the state waterbank program under section 105.392, or (2) acquire it in fee under section 97A.145. The applicant, if not offered a choice of the above alternatives, is entitled to drain the wetlands involved.

In addition, the owner of lands underlying wetlands situated on privately owned lands may apply to the commissioner for a permit to drain the wetlands at any time more than ten years after their original designation. On receiving an application, the commissioner shall review the status and conditions of the wetlands. If the commissioner finds that the current status or conditions make it likely that the economic or other benefits from agricultural use to the owner from drainage would exceed the public benefits of maintaining the wetlands, the commissioner shall grant the application and issue a drainage permit. If the application is denied, the owner may not apply again for another ten years.

Sec. 9. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 105.391, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 3a. [REPLACEMENT OF WETLANDS.] (a) Wetlands not inventoried under subdivision 1 which are identified on United States Fish and Wildlife Service National Wetlands Inventory maps, or which have been created or restored by public or private conservation programs, must not be drained or filled, wholly or partially, unless there are no feasible, practical, or prudent alternatives and unless replaced by creating wetland areas of at least equivalent size, quantity, character, and diversity under either a mitigation plan approved as provided in subdivision 3d or a mining reclamation plan approved by the commissioner under a permit to mine under section 93.481.

(b) Any mitigation or replacement shall be within the same watershed or county as the impacted wetlands, as based on the wetland evaluation.

(c) Wetlands that are created or restored as a result of an approved mitigation plan are subject to the provisions of this section for any subsequent drainage or filling.

(d) All requests to add or delete a wetland from the jurisdiction of subdivision 3a must be approved in the same way as provided for mitigation plans by the committee for dispute resolution of the board of water and soil resources and must be based on substantial evidence that the wetland does or does not comply with established criteria for inclusion in the national wetlands inventory.

Sec. 10. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 105.391, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 3b. [CALCAREOUS FENS.] Calcareous fens as identified by the commissioner may not be filled or drained, wholly or partially, by any activity.

Sec. 11. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 105.391, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 3c. [EXCEPTIONS.] Wetlands identified in subdivision 3a are not subject to mitigation or replacement if:

(1) the wetland was planted and harvested with annually seeded crops or was in a crop rotation seeding six of the ten years prior to January 1, 1990;

(2) the wetland is a wetland restored under a contract or easement providing the landowner with the right to drain the restored wetland;

(3) the wetland is a type 2 wetland;

(4) the wetland is located between the banks of a ditch, as defined in section 106A.005, subdivision 8; or is located between the crowns of the leveled spoil banks planted with permanent grass, as provided in section 106A.021, and the opposite bank; and the wetland is drained pursuant to a ditch repair as defined in section 106A.701;

(5) the wetland is less than ten acres;

(6) except for bottomland hardwood wetlands, the wetland is a type 1 as defined in United States Fish and Wildlife Circular No. 39 (1971 edition);

(7) the wetland was included in a request for a commenced drainage determination provided for by the 1985 federal Food Security Act that was made to the county agricultural stabilization and conservation service office prior to September 19, 1988, and a ruling and any subsequent appeals or reviews have determined that drainage of the wetland had been commenced prior to December 23, 1985;

(8) the wetland is located in a subdivision that has received plat approval before the effective date of this section;

(9) the wetland was created solely as a result of beaver dam construction, or the blockage of culverts through roadways maintained by a public authority; or

(10) the wetland is located in a development area in which the governing body or the developing company acting under local approvals has installed infrastructure improvements or made agreements and financial commitments for infrastructure improvements.

Sec. 12. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 105.391, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 3d. [MITIGATION RULES.] (a) By July 1, 1992, the commissioner shall adopt rules governing the approval of mitigation plans under this section. These rules must address the criteria, procedure, timing, and location of acceptable mitigation; the establishment and administration of a wetland banking program for public transportation projects; the methodology to be used in identifying and evaluating wetland functions; the administrative, monitoring, and enforcement procedures to be used; and provide a procedure for the review and appeal of decisions under this section.

(b) Prior to the adoption of these rules, the mitigation plan must be approved by a four-member review panel. The review panel shall be composed of the regional administrator for the department of natural resources, one board member of the local soil and water conservation district or districts within the county, one manager of the watershed district, and one member of the local water planning group who must be appointed by the county board. Where there is no watershed district, a member of the governing board of the county or city shall be present on the review panel.

(c) After the adoption of these rules, the mitigation plan must be approved by a resolution of the governing board of the local water management organization, consistent with the provisions of the rules.

(d) By July 1, 1994, the commissioner shall review the feasibility of and may adopt rules extending wetland banking to projects in addition to public transportation projects.

Sec. 13. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 105.391, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 3e. [EVALUATION.] Questions concerning the location, size, or type of a wetland shall be submitted to and decided by a technical evaluation panel. The technical evaluation panel shall be composed of a technical professional employee of the department of natural resources, a technical professional employee of the local soil and water conservation district or districts, and an engineer for the local water management organization. This panel shall provide this information to the authority that must approve a mitigation plan under subdivision 3d.

Sec. 14. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 105.391, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 3f. [DECISION.] As provided in subdivision 3d, and upon receiving all required data, the local water management organization approving a mitigation plan must act on all applications for mitigation plan approval within 60 days.

Sec. 15. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 105.391, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 3g. [NOTICE OF APPLICATION.] Within ten days of receiving an application for approval of a mitigation plan under this section, a copy of the application must be submitted for publication in the Environmental Quality Board Monitor and separate copies mailed to the commissioner, the board of supervisors of the soil and water conservation district, the managers of the watershed district, the board of county commissioners, and within the wetland watershed, the mayors of the cities.

Sec. 16. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 105.391, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 3h. [NOTICE OF DECISION.] At least 30 days prior to the effective date of the approval or denial of a mitigation plan under this section, a copy of the approval or denial must be submitted for publication in the Environmental Quality Board Monitor and separate copies mailed to the applicant, the commissioner, the board of supervisors of the soil and water conservation district, the managers of the watershed district, the board of county commissioners, and the mayor of the city.

Sec. 17. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 105.391, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 3i. [APPEAL.] Appeal of the decision may be obtained by mailing a notice of appeal to the board of water and soil resources within 30 days after the postmarked date of the mailing specified in subdivision 3h. If appeal is not sought within 30 days, the decision becomes final and is not thereafter subject to judicial review. Appeal may be made by any of those to whom notice is required to be mailed under subdivision 3h, or by 25 landowners or residents in the county or watershed of the impacted wetland. All appeals must be heard by the committee for dispute resolution of the board of water and soil resources, and a decision made within 60 days of the appeal. The decision must be served by mail on the parties to the appeal, and is not subject to the provisions of chapter 14. The decision must be considered the decision of an agency in a contested case for purposes of judicial review under Minnesota Statutes, sections 14.63 to 14.69.

Sec. 18. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 105.391, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 3j. [WETLAND HERITAGE ADVISORY COMMITTEE.] The commissioner shall establish a wetland heritage advisory committee consisting of a balanced diversity of interests including agriculture, environmental, sporting organizations, land development organizations, local government organizations, and other agencies. The committee shall advise the commissioner on the development of rules and, after rule adoption, shall meet twice a year to review implementation of the program, to identify strengths and weaknesses, and to recommend changes to the rules and the law to improve the program.

Sec. 19. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 105.391, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 3k. [MITIGATION CREDITS.] No public or private wetland restoration, enhancement, or construction may be allowed for mitigation unless specifically designated for mitigation by the individual or organization performing the wetland restoration, enhancement, or construction.

Sec. 20. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 105.391, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 3l. [DRAINING PUBLIC WATERS.] No public ditch may be repaired in such a way as to partially or completely drain a public water inventoried under subdivision 1, except as provided in subdivision 3. This section does not limit the rights of a landowner to maintain an existing drainage system within the criteria set forth in subdivision 3c.

Sec. 21. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 105.391, subdivision 10, is amended to read:

Subd. 10. [LANDOWNER'S USE OF WETLANDS.] This chapter does not prevent a landowner from:

(1) using the bed of wetlands or public waters for pasture or cropland during periods of drought, if there is no;

(2) filling a wetland to accommodate wheeled booms on irrigation devices, so long as the fill does not impede normal drainage; or

(3) harvesting timber from a wetland as part of a forest management plan;

if the activities do not result in the construction of dikes, ditches, tile lines or buildings, and the agricultural or forestry use does not result in the drainage of the wetlands or public waters. This chapter does not prevent a landowner from filling a wetland to accommodate wheeled booms on irrigation devices so long as the fill does not impede normal drainage.

Sec. 22. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 105.392, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [TWENTY-YEAR WATERBANK AGREEMENTS.] For the conservation of wetlands, whether or not included in the definition contained in section 105.37, subdivision 14, clause (10), and subdivision 15, the commissioner may acquire wetlands in fee pursuant to section 97A.145, or may enter into easement agreements with landowners for the conservation of wetlands and other waters. These easement agreements shall be conservation easements, as defined in section 84C.01, paragraph (1), but, in addition, may be made possessory as well as nonpossessory if agreed upon by the landowner and the commissioner. These easements must be entered into for a period of not less than 20 years, with provision for renewal for not less than 20-year periods, or the agreements may provide that the easement will be permanent in duration. Highest priority must be given to the selection of permanent easements. The commissioner may reexamine the payment rates at the beginning of a 20-year renewal period and adjust them giving consideration to current land and crop values.

Sec. 23. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 105.392, subdivision 4, is amended to read:

Subd. 4. [PAYMENT AND HELP TO OWNER.] In return for the easement of the owner, the commissioner must provide advice on conservation and development practices on the wetlands and adjacent areas for the purposes of this section as the commissioner determines to be appropriate. The commissioner must make the following payments to the landowner for the easement:

(1) for a permanent easement, 50 70 percent of the average equalized estimated market value of cropland in the township as established by the commissioner of revenue for the time period when the application is made;

(2) for an easement of limited duration, a lump sum payment equal to 65 percent of the value of the permanent easement value for the time period when the application is made 90 percent of the average of the accepted bids for the federal Conservation Reserve Program in the county in 1989, or in the most recent year prior to 1989 in which bids were accepted, if no bids were accepted in 1989, as contained in Public Law Number 99-198, in the relevant geographic area and on bids accepted at the time of easement application; or

(3) an alternative payment system for easements based on cash rent or a similar system as may be determined by the commissioner.

Sec. 24. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 106A.701, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 5. [WETLAND RESTORATION AND MITIGATION.] Repair of a drainage system may include the restoration or enhancement of wetlands; wetland mitigation under section 105.391, subdivision 3a; and the realignment of a drainage system to prevent drainage of a wetland.

Sec. 25. [APPROPRIATION; BONDING.]

Subdivision 1. [WETLANDS ENROLLMENT.] $10,000,000 is appropriated from the bond proceeds fund to the commissioner of natural resources to enroll wetlands in the state waterbank program.

Subd. 2. [SALE OF BONDS.] To provide the money appropriated in this section from the bond proceeds fund, the commissioner of finance on request of the governor shall sell and issue bonds of the state in an amount up to $10,000,000 in the manner, upon the terms, and with the effect prescribed by Minnesota Statutes, sections 16A.631 to 16A.675, and by the Minnesota Constitution, article XI, sections 4 to 7.

Subd. 3. [COMMISSIONER OF NATURAL RESOURCES.] $1,000,000 is appropriated from the general fund to the commissioner of natural resources for administrative costs for the purposes of this act.

Subd. 4. [BOARD OF WATER AND SOIL RESOURCES.] $1,000,000 is appropriated from the general fund to the board of water and soil resources for grants to local water management organizations and administrative costs for the purposes of this act.

Subd. 5. [RULE DEVELOPMENT.] $50,000 is appropriated from the general fund to the commissioner of natural resources for development of draft rules and adoption of rules under section 18.

Sec. 26. [EFFECTIVE DATE.]

Section 18 is effective the day following final enactment. Section 25, subdivision 5, is effective July 1, 1990. Sections 1 to 17, 19 to 24, and section 25, subdivisions 1 to 4 are effective July 1, 1991.

Wenzel from the Committee on Agriculture to which was referred:

H. F. No. 173, A bill for an act relating to agriculture; requiring certain restaurants and retailers of prepared foods to disclose the use of cheese substitutes; exempting certain restaurants and retailers; proposing coding for new law in Minnesota Statutes, chapter 31.

Reported the same back with the following amendments:

Delete everything after the enacting clause and insert:

“Section 1. [31.105] [ARTIFICIAL CHEESE DISCLOSURE.]

Subdivision 1. [APPLICATION; DISCLOSURE.] A restaurant or retailer whose principle business is serving or selling prepared foods that prepares foods containing artificial cheese shall:

(1) post in a clearly visible manner on or near each customer entrance to the premises a notice substantially as follows: “NOTICE: ONE OR MORE OF THE PRODUCTS SERVED OR SOLD BY THIS ESTABLISHMENT MAY CONTAIN ARTIFICIAL CHEESE”; or

(2) print on or affix to the menu or menu board a list of the foods that contain artificial cheese.

Subd. 2. [EXCEPTIONS.] A restaurant or retailer that prepares and serves or sells foods is exempt from the disclosure requirements of subdivision 1 if:

- (1) the foods do not contain artificial cheese;
- (2) the foods contain only minor quantities of artificial cheese used principally for cosmetic purposes; or
- (3) the foods containing artificial cheese are prepackaged and labeled in accordance with federal labeling regulations.

Subd. 3. [RULES.] The commissioner may adopt rules necessary to administer this section. The rules may include provisions governing the size, location, and wording of disclosure notices.

"Sec. 2. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 136A.02, subdivision 7, is amended to read:

Subd. 7. [STUDENT ADVISORY COUNCIL.] A student advisory council to the board is established. The members of the council shall include the chair of the University of Minnesota university student senate, the state chair of the Minnesota state university student association, the president of the Minnesota community college student association, the president of the Minnesota vocational technical student association, the president of the Minnesota association of private college students, and a student who is enrolled in a private vocational school registered under this chapter, to be appointed by the Minnesota association of private post-secondary schools. A member may be represented by a designee.

The advisory council shall:

(1) bring to the attention of the board any matter that the council believes needs the attention of the board;

(2) make recommendations to the board as the council deems appropriate;

(3) review and comment upon proposals and other matters before the board;

(4) appoint student members to board advisory groups as provided in section 1;

(5) provide any reasonable assistance to the board; and

(6) select one of its members to serve as chair. The board shall inform the council of all matters under consideration by the board and shall refer all proposals to the council before the board acts or sends the proposals to the governor or the legislature. The board shall provide time for a report from the advisory council at each meeting of the board.

The student advisory council shall report to the board quarterly and at other times that the council considers desirable. The council shall determine its meeting time, but the council shall also meet with the executive director of the board within 30 days after the director's request for a council meeting. The student advisory council shall meet quarterly with the higher education advisory council and the board executive committee. The council expires June 30, 1993."

Kelly from the Committee on Judiciary to which was referred:

H. F. No. 1101, A bill for an act relating to probate; adopting the uniform anatomical gift act (1987); correcting cross-references; amending Minnesota Statutes 1988, sections 65B.44, subdivision 4; 171.07, subdivision 5; and 390.36; proposing coding for new law in Minnesota Statutes, chapter 525; repealing Minnesota Statutes 1988, sections 525.921 to 525.93.

Reported the same back with the following amendments:

Delete everything after the enacting clause and insert:

"Section 1. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 65B.44, subdivision 4, is amended to read:

Subd. 4. [FUNERAL AND BURIAL EXPENSES.] Funeral and burial benefits shall be reasonable expenses not in excess of $2,000, including expenses for cremation or delivery under the uniform anatomical gift act (1987), sections 525.921 4 to 525.93 25.

Sec. 2. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 171.07, subdivision 5, is amended to read:

Subd. 5. The department may provide a donor document to each person making application for a driver's license or a Minnesota identification card whereby any such person may execute an anatomical gift, pursuant to the provisions of the uniform anatomical gift act (1987), sections ~~525.921 4~~ to ~~525.93 25~~. The commissioner of public safety shall prescribe the form of the donor document. If the donor is 18 years of age or older, the donor document must be signed by the donor in the presence of two witnesses who must sign the donor document in the donor's presence. If the donor cannot sign, the donor document may be signed for the donor at the donor's direction, in the donor's presence, and in the presence of two witnesses who must sign the donor document in the donor's presence. If the donor is a minor, the donor document must be signed by the minor donor, and both of the minor donor's parents, a legal guardian, or the parent or parents having legal custody. If the minor cannot sign, the donor document may not be signed for the minor. The department shall identify donors of anatomical gifts by the designation "donor" on the front side of the donor's driver's license or Minnesota identification card. The designation "donor" shall constitute sufficient legal authority for the removal of all body organs or parts upon death of the donor for the purpose of transplantation and the designation shall be removed only upon written notice to the department. Delivery of the license or Minnesota identification card during the donor's lifetime is not necessary to make the gift valid.

Sec. 3. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 390.36, is amended to read:

390.36 [CORONER REMOVAL OF PITUITARY GLAND DURING AUTOPSY.]

A county coroner who performs an autopsy under section 390.11, 390.32, or any other general or local law relating to county coroners or medical examiners, may remove the pituitary gland from the body and give it to the national pituitary agency, or any other agency or organization, for research if the following conditions have been met:

(a) the removal would not alter a gift made under sections ~~525.921 4~~ to ~~525.93 25~~;

(b) the coroner or medical examiner has no knowledge of any objection to the removal by the decedent or other person having the right to control the disposition of the body; and

(c) the coroner or medical examiner has followed generally accepted ethical guidelines and the removal would not violate the tenets of the deceased's religion.

Sec. 4. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 525.921, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [SCOPE.] For the purposes of sections ~~525.921 4~~ to 525.93 25 the terms defined in this section have the meanings given them.

Sec. 5. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 525.921, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 1a. [ANATOMICAL GIFT.] "Anatomical gift" means a donation of all or part of a human body to take effect upon or after death.

Sec. 6. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 525.921, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 3a. [DOCUMENT OF GIFT.] "Document of gift" means a card, a statement attached to or imprinted on a motor vehicle operator's or chauffeur's license, a will, or other writing used to make an anatomical gift.

Sec. 7. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 525.921, subdivision 4, is amended to read:

Subd. 4. [DONOR.] "Donor" means an individual who makes a anatomical gift of all or part of the individual's body.

Sec. 8. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 525.921, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 4a. [ENUCLEATOR.] "Enucleator" means an individual who has completed a course in eye enucleation conducted and certified by the department of ophthalmology of any accredited college of medicine, and holds a valid certificate of competence for completing the course.

Sec. 9. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 525.921, subdivision 5, is amended to read:

Subd. 5. [HOSPITAL.] "Hospital" means a hospital facility licensed, accredited, or approved as a hospital under the laws of any state; includes or a facility operated as a hospital operated by the United States government, a state, or a subdivision thereof, although not required to be licensed under state laws of a state.

Sec. 10. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 525.921, subdivision 8, is amended to read:

Subd. 8. [PHYSICIAN OR SURGEON.] "Physician" or "surgeon" means a ~~physician or surgeon~~ an individual licensed or otherwise authorized to practice medicine and surgery or osteopathy and surgery under the laws of any state.

Sec. 11. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 525.921, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 8a. [PROCUREMENT ORGANIZATION.] "Procurement organization" means a person licensed, accredited, or approved under the laws of any state for procurement, distribution, or storage of human bodies or parts.

Sec. 12. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 525.921, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 10. [TECHNICIAN.] "Technician" means an individual who is appropriately trained to remove or process a part.

Sec. 13. [525.9211] [MAKING, AMENDING, REVOKING, AND REFUSING TO MAKE ANATOMICAL GIFTS BY INDIVIDUAL.]

(a) An individual who is at least 18 years of age, or a minor with the written consent of a parent or legal guardian, may (i) make an anatomical gift for any of the purposes stated in section 17, paragraph (a), (ii) limit an anatomical gift to one or more of those purposes, or (iii) refuse to make an anatomical gift.

(b) An anatomical gift may be made by a will or by a document of gift signed by the donor. If the donor cannot sign, the document of gift must be signed by another individual and by two witnesses, all of whom have signed at the direction and in the presence of the donor and of each other, and state that it has been so signed.

(c) If a document of gift is attached to or imprinted on a donor's motor vehicle operator's or chauffeur's license, the document of gift must comply with paragraph (b). Revocation, suspension, expiration, or cancellation of the license does not invalidate the anatomical gift.

(d) A document of gift may designate a particular physician or surgeon to carry out the appropriate procedures. In the absence of a designation or if the designee is not available, the donee or other person authorized to accept the anatomical gift may employ or authorize any physician, surgeon, technician, or enucleator to carry out the appropriate procedures.

(e) An anatomical gift by will takes effect upon death of the testator, whether or not the will is probated. If, after death, the will is declared invalid for testamentary purposes, the validity of the anatomical gift is unaffected.

(f) A donor may amend or revoke an anatomical gift, not made by will, only by:

- (1) a signed statement;
- (2) an oral statement made in the presence of two individuals;
- (3) any form of communication during a terminal illness or injury addressed to a health care professional or member of the clergy; or
- (4) the delivery of a signed statement to a specified donee to whom a document of gift had been delivered.

(g) The donor of an anatomical gift made by will may amend or revoke the gift in the manner provided for amendment or revocation of wills, or as provided in paragraph (f).

(h) An anatomical gift that is not revoked by the donor before death is irrevocable and does not require the consent or concurrence of any person after the donor's death.

(i) An individual may refuse to make an anatomical gift of the individual's body or part by (i) a writing signed in the same manner as a document of gift, or (ii) any other writing used to identify the individual as refusing to make an anatomical gift. During a terminal illness or injury, the refusal may be an oral statement or other form of communication.

(j) In the absence of contrary indications by the donor, an anatomical gift of a part is neither a refusal to give other parts nor a limitation on an anatomical gift under section 14 or on a removal or release of other parts under section 15.

(k) In the absence of contrary indications by the donor, a revocation or amendment of an anatomical gift is not a refusal to make another anatomical gift. If the donor intends a revocation to be a refusal to make an anatomical gift, the donor shall make the refusal pursuant to paragraph (i).

Sec. 14. [525.9212] [MAKING, REVOKING, AND OBJECTING TO ANATOMICAL GIFTS, BY OTHERS.]

(a) Any member of the following classes of persons, in the order of priority listed, may make an anatomical gift of all or a part of the decedent's body for an authorized purpose, unless the decedent has made a refusal to make that anatomical gift that is unrevoked at the time of death:

- (1) the spouse of the decedent;
- (2) an adult son or daughter of the decedent;
- (3) either parent of the decedent;

(4) an adult brother or sister of the decedent;

(5) a grandparent of the decedent; and

(6) a guardian of the person of the decedent at the time of death.

(b) An anatomical gift may not be made by a person listed in paragraph (a) if:

(1) a person in a prior class is available at the time of death to make an anatomical gift;

(2) the person proposing to make an anatomical gift knows of a refusal or contrary indications by the decedent; or

(3) the person proposing to make an anatomical gift knows of an objection to making an anatomical gift by a member of the person's class or a prior class.

(c) An anatomical gift by a person authorized under paragraph (a) must be made by (i) a document of gift signed by the person, or (ii) the person's telegraphic, recorded telephonic, or other recorded message, or other form of communication from the person that is contemporaneously reduced to writing and signed by the recipient.

(d) An anatomical gift by a person authorized under paragraph (a) may be revoked by any member of the same or a prior class if, before procedures have begun for the removal of a part from the body of the decedent, the physician, surgeon, technician, or enucleator removing the part knows of the revocation.

(e) A failure to make a decision as to an anatomical gift under paragraph (a) is not an objection to the making of an anatomical gift.

Sec. 15. [525.9213] [AUTHORIZATION BY CORONER OR MEDICAL EXAMINER OR LOCAL PUBLIC HEALTH OFFICIAL.]

(a) The coroner or medical examiner may release and permit the removal of a part from a body within that official's custody, for transplantation or therapy, if:

(1) the official has received a request for the part from a hospital, physician, surgeon, or procurement organization;

(2) the official has made a reasonable effort, taking into account the useful life of the part, to locate and examine the decedent's medical records and inform persons listed in section 14, paragraph (a), of their option to make, or object to making, an anatomical gift;

(3) the official does not know of a refusal or contrary indication by the decedent or objection by a person having priority to act as listed in section 14, paragraph (a);

(4) the removal will be by a physician, surgeon, or technician; but in the case of eyes, by one of them or by an enucleator;

(5) the removal will not interfere with any autopsy or investigation; and

(6) the removal will be in accordance with accepted medical standards.

(b) If the body is not within the custody of the coroner or medical examiner, the local public health officer may release and permit the removal of any part from a body in the local public health officer's custody for transplantation or therapy if the requirements of paragraph (a) are met.

(c) An official releasing and permitting the removal of a part shall maintain a permanent record of the name of the decedent, the person making the request, the date and purpose of the request, the part requested, and the person to whom it was released.

Sec. 16. [525.9214] [ROUTINE INQUIRY AND REQUIRED REQUEST; SEARCH AND NOTIFICATION.]

(a) If, at or near the time of death of a patient, there is no documentation in the medical record that the patient has made or refused to make an anatomical gift, the hospital administrator or a representative designated by the administrator shall discuss with the patient or a relative of the patient the option to make or refuse to make an anatomical gift and may request the making of an anatomical gift pursuant to section 13 or 14. The request must be made with reasonable discretion and sensitivity to the circumstances of the family. A request is not required if the gift is not suitable, based upon accepted medical standards, for a purpose specified in section 17. An entry must be made in the medical record of the patient, stating the name of the individual making the request, and of the name, response, and relationship to the patient of the person to whom the request was made.

(b) The following persons shall make a reasonable search for a document of gift or other information identifying the bearer as a donor or as an individual who has refused to make an anatomical gift:

(1) a law enforcement officer, firefighter, paramedic, or other emergency rescuer finding an individual who the searcher believes is dead or near death;

(2) a hospital or emergency care facility, upon the admission or presentation of an individual at or near the time of death, if there is not immediately available any other source of that information; and

(3) a medical examiner or coroner upon receipt of a body.

(c) If a document of gift or evidence of refusal to make an anatomical gift is located by the search required by paragraph (b), clause (1), and the individual or body to whom it relates is taken to a hospital, the hospital must be notified of the contents and the document or other evidence must be sent to the hospital.

(d) If, at or near the time of death of a patient, a hospital knows that an anatomical gift has been made pursuant to section 14, paragraph (a), or a release and removal of a part has been permitted pursuant to section 15, or that a patient or an individual identified as in transit to the hospital is a donor, the hospital shall notify the donee if one is named and known to the hospital; if not, it shall notify an appropriate procurement organization. The hospital shall cooperate in the implementation of the anatomical gift or release and removal of a part.

(e) A person who fails to discharge the duties imposed by this section is not subject to criminal or civil liability.

Sec. 17. [525.9215] [PERSONS WHO MAY BECOME DONEES; PURPOSES FOR WHICH ANATOMICAL GIFTS MAY BE MADE.]

(a) The following persons may become donees of anatomical gifts for the purposes stated:

(1) a hospital, nonprofit organization in medical education and research, physician, surgeon, or procurement organization for transplantation, therapy, medical or dental education, research, or advancement of medical or dental science;

(2) an accredited medical or dental school, college, or university for education, research, advancement of medical or dental science;

(3) an approved chiropractic college for education; or

(4) a designated individual for transplantation or therapy needed by that individual.

(b) An anatomical gift may be made to a designated donee or without designating a donee. If a donee is not designated or if the donee is not available or rejects the anatomical gift, the anatomical gift may be accepted by any hospital or procurement organization.

(c) If the donee knows of the decedent's refusal or contrary indications to make an anatomical gift or that an anatomical gift by a member of a class having priority to act is opposed by a member of the same class or a prior class under section 14, paragraph (a), the donee may not accept the anatomical gift.

Sec. 18. [525.9216] [DELIVERY OF DOCUMENT OF GIFT.]

(a) Delivery of a document of gift during the donor's lifetime is not required for the validity of an anatomical gift.

(b) If an anatomical gift is made to a designated donee, the document of gift, or a copy, may be delivered to the donee to expedite the appropriate procedures after death. The document of gift, or a copy, may be deposited in any hospital, procurement organization, or registry office that accepts it for safekeeping or for facilitation of procedures after death. On request of an interested person, upon or after the donor's death, the person in possession shall allow the interested person to examine or copy the document of gift.

Sec. 19. [525.9217] [RIGHTS AND DUTIES AT DEATH.]

(a) Rights of a donee created by an anatomical gift are superior to rights of others except with respect to autopsies under section 22, paragraph (b). A donee may accept or reject an anatomical gift. If a donee accepts an anatomical gift of an entire body, the donee, subject to the terms of the gift, may allow embalming and use of the body in funeral services. If the gift is of a part of a body, the donee, upon the death of the donor and before embalming, shall cause the part to be removed without unnecessary mutilation. After removal of the part, custody of the remainder of the body vests in the person under obligation to dispose of the body.

(b) The time of death must be determined by a physician or surgeon who attends the donor at death or, if none, the physician or surgeon who certifies the death. Neither the physician or surgeon who attends the donor at death nor the physician or surgeon who determines the time of death may participate in the procedures for removing or transplanting a part unless the document of gift designates a particular physician or surgeon pursuant to section 13, paragraph (d).

(c) If there has been an anatomical gift, a technician may remove any donated parts and an enucleator may remove any donated eyes or parts of eyes, after determination of death by a physician or surgeon.

Sec. 20. [525.9218] [COORDINATION OF PROCUREMENT AND USE.]

The organ procurement organizations, after consultation with hospitals, shall establish agreements or affiliations for coordination of procurement and use of human bodies and parts.

Sec. 21. [525.9219] [SALE OR PURCHASE OF PARTS PROHIBITED.]

(a) A person may not knowingly, for valuable consideration, purchase or sell a part for transplantation or therapy, if removal of the part is intended to occur after the death of the decedent.

(b) Valuable consideration does not include reasonable payment for the removal, processing, disposal, preservation, quality control, storage, transportation, or implantation of a part.

(c) A person who violates this section is guilty of a felony and upon conviction is subject to a fine not exceeding $50,000 or imprisonment not exceeding five years, or both.

Sec. 22. [525.9220] [EXAMINATION, AUTOPSY, LIABILITY.]

(a) An anatomical gift authorizes any reasonable examination necessary to assure medical acceptability of the gift for the purposes intended.

(b) The provisions of sections 4 to 25 are subject to the laws of this state governing autopsies.

(c) A hospital, physician, surgeon, coroner, medical examiner, local public health officer, enucleator, technician, or other person, who acts in accordance with sections 4 to 25 or with the applicable anatomical gift law of another state or a foreign country or attempts in good faith to do so is not liable for that act in a civil action or criminal proceeding.

(d) An individual who makes an anatomical gift pursuant to section 5 or 6 and the individual's estate are not liable for any injury or damage that may result from the making or the use of the anatomical gift.

Sec. 23. [525.9221] [TRANSITIONAL PROVISIONS.]

Sections 4 to 25 apply to a document of gift, revocation, or refusal to make an anatomical gift signed by the donor or a person authorized to make or object to making an anatomical gift before, on, or after the effective date of sections 4 to 25.

Sec. 24. [525.9222] [UNIFORMITY OF APPLICATION AND CONSTRUCTION.]

Sections 4 to 25 shall be applied and construed to effectuate their general purpose to make uniform the law with respect to the subject of sections 4 to 25 among states enacting it.

Sec. 25. [525.9223] [SHORT TITLE.]

Sections 4 to 25 may be cited as the "uniform anatomical gift act (1987)."

Sec. 26. [REPEALER.]

Minnesota Statutes 1988, sections 525.921, subdivision 2; 525.922; 525.923; 525.924; 525.925; 525.926; 525.927; 525.928; 525.929; 525.93; and 525.94, as amended by Laws 1989, chapter 209, article 1, section 42, are repealed."

Amend the title as follows:

Page 1, line 5, delete "and" and after "390.36;" insert "and 525.921, subdivisions 1, 4, 5, 8, and by adding subdivisions;"

Page 1, line 7, before "to" insert ", subdivision 2; and 525.922"

Page 1, line 8, delete "525.93" and insert "525.94, as amended"

With the recommendation that when so amended the bill pass.

"ARTICLE 1

SHERIFF'S LEVY ON PROPERTY, MONEY, OR INDEBTEDNESS

Section 1. [550.051] [TERM OF WRIT OF EXECUTION; INVENTORY; SATISFACTION.]

Subdivision 1. [TIME PERIODS.] The writ of execution expires 180 days after its issuance by the court administrator. A levy that is served with a writ of execution that has expired is void. If the officer having the writ levies upon property or earnings before the expiration of 180 days, the officer may retain the writ until the officer sells the property or completes the levy upon earnings in the manner prescribed by law. Upon a demand of the judgment creditor or the creditor's attorney within 180 days, the officer shall pay to the judgment creditor or the judgment creditor's attorney all money collected upon execution after deducting the officer's fees. Upon expiration of the writ or full satisfaction of the judgment, if earlier, the officer shall make a full inventory of the property levied on and return it with the execution.

Subd. 2. [SATISFACTION.] In case of satisfaction, either partial or in full, the officer shall return the writ to the court administrator originally issuing it and return a duplicate copy of it to the court administrator of the officer's own county, if execution is upon judgment transcribed from another county. The court administrator to whom a duplicate is returned shall enter the record of the satisfaction upon the judgment docket and note in the margin that the entry is made upon "duplicate return." If the writ of execution is being returned when the judgment has been wholly satisfied, the writ shall be filed with the court administrator within ten days after the final payment or within 30 days if the payment is by check or other noncertified funds. If the writ of execution is being returned partially satisfied, the officer shall include a statement setting forth the dates and amounts of payments made upon the judgment after the most recent partial satisfaction filed, if any.

Sec. 2. [550.135] [SHERIFF'S LEVY ON OTHER PERSONAL PROPERTY, MONEY, OR INDEBTEDNESS.]

Subdivision 1. [SCOPE OF GENERAL AND SPECIFIC PROVISIONS.] General provisions relating to the sheriff's levy upon personal property not covered elsewhere in this chapter and upon money or indebtedness are set forth in this section. Specific provisions relating to a sheriff's levy upon earnings are set forth in sections 550.136 and 550.142. Specific provisions relating to a sheriff's levy upon funds at a financial institution are set forth in section 550.143. Summary execution of judgment debts by an attorney for the judgment creditor is governed by chapter 551.

Subd. 2. [OTHER PERSONAL PROPERTY.] Other personal property shall be levied on by leaving a copy of the writ of execution and a notice specifying the property levied on, with the person holding it; or, if a debt, with the judgment debtor; or, if stock or interest in stock of a corporation, with its president, secretary, treasurer, cashier, officer, or managing agent.

Subd. 3. [MONEY OR INDEBTEDNESS.] The sheriff may levy upon money or other indebtedness owed by a third party to the judgment debtor. The sheriff may serve a copy of the writ of execution through a registered or certified letter or by personal service to the third party. Upon receipt, unless governed by section 550.136 or 550.143, the third party shall remit to the sheriff as much of the amount due under section 550.04 as the third party's own debt equals.

Subd. 4. [PROPERTY NOT ATTACHABLE.] The following property is not subject to attachment by a writ of execution served pursuant to this chapter:

(1) any indebtedness or money due to the judgment debtor, unless at the time of the service of the writ of execution the same is due absolutely or does not depend upon any contingency;

(2) any judgment owing by the third party to the judgment debtor, if the third party or the third party's property is liable on an execution levy upon the judgment;

(3) any debt owing by the third party to the judgment debtor for which any negotiable instrument has been issued or endorsed by the third party;

(4) any indebtedness or money due to the judgment debtor where the judgment debtor is a bank, savings bank, trust company, credit union, savings and loan association, or industrial loan and thrift company with deposit liabilities;

(5) any indebtedness or money due to the judgment debtor with a cumulative value of less than $10; and

(6) any disposable earnings, indebtedness, or money that is exempt under Minnesota or federal law.

Subd. 5. [THIRD PARTY FEE.] If the levy is upon earnings or upon funds at a financial institution, the third party shall be paid a $15 fee at the time of the service of the writ of execution. Failure to pay the fee renders the levy void, and the third party shall take no action. The $15 shall not be paid where the funds being levied on are being retained pursuant to a garnishment previously served in compliance with chapter 571. This fee may be recovered by the judgment creditor as an allowable cost. The judgment creditor shall provide the $15 fee to the sheriff to be paid to the third party. If a third party is required to appear and submit to oral examination, the third party shall be tendered, in advance of the examination, fees and mileage for attendance at the rate allowed by law to a witness. These fees may be recovered by the judgment creditor as an allowable disbursement. In extraordinary cases, the third party may be allowed additional sums the court considers reasonable for attorney fees and other necessary expenses. The court shall then determine which party bears the burden of this expense.

Subd. 6. [THIRD PARTY DISCLOSURE AND REMITTANCE.] Within 15 days after receipt of the writ of execution, unless governed by section 550.136 or 550.143, the third party shall make the required disclosure and remittance to the sheriff. The remittance shall be as much of the amount due under section 550.04 as the third party's own debt equals.

Subd. 7. [ORAL DISCLOSURE.] Before or after the service of a written disclosure by a third party under subdivision 6, upon a showing by affidavit upon information and belief that an oral examination of the third party would provide a complete disclosure of relevant facts, any party to the execution proceedings may obtain an ex parte order requiring the third party, or a representative of the third party designated by name or by title, to appear for oral examination before the court or a referee appointed by the court. Notice of the examination shall be given to all parties.

Subd. 8. [SUPPLEMENTAL COMPLAINT.] If a third party holds property, money, earnings, or other indebtedness by a title that is void as to the judgment debtor's creditors, the property may be levied on although the judgment debtor would be barred from maintaining an action to recover the property, money, earnings, or other indebtedness. In this and all other cases where the third party denies liability, the judgment creditor may move the court at any time before the third party is discharged, on notice to both the judgment debtor and the third party for an order making the third party a party to the supplemental action and granting the judgment creditor leave to file a supplemental complaint against the third party and the judgment debtor. The supplemental complaint shall set forth the facts upon which the judgment creditor claims to charge the third party. If probable cause is shown, the motion shall be granted. The supplemental complaint shall be served upon the third party and the judgment debtor and any other parties. The parties served shall answer or respond pursuant to the Minnesota Rules of Civil Procedure for the District Courts, and if they fail to do so, judgment by default may be entered against them.

Subd. 9. [JUDGMENT AGAINST THIRD PARTY UPON FAILURE TO DISCLOSE OR REMIT.] Judgment may be entered against a third party who has been served with a writ of execution and fails to disclose or remit the levied funds as required in this chapter. Upon order to show cause served on the third party, and notice of motion supported by affidavit of facts and affidavit of service upon the judgment debtor, the court may render judgment against the third party for an amount not exceeding 110 percent of the amount claimed in the writ of execution. The court upon good cause shown may remove the default and permit the third party to disclose or remit on just terms.

Subd. 10. [FORMS.] No judgment creditor shall use a form that contains alterations or changes from the statutory forms that mislead judgment debtors as to their rights and the execution procedure generally. If a court finds that a judgment creditor has used a misleading form, the judgment debtor shall be awarded actual damages, costs, reasonable attorney's fees resulting from additional proceedings, and an amount not to exceed $100. All forms must be clearly legible and printed in not less than the equivalent of 10-point type. A form that uses both sides of a sheet must clearly indicate on the front side that there is additional information on the back side of the sheet.

Subd. 11. [THIRD PARTY GOOD FAITH REQUIREMENT.] The third party is not liable to the judgment debtor, judgment creditor, or other person for wrongful retention if the third party retains or remits disposable earnings, indebtedness, or money of the judgment debtor or any other person, pending the third party's disclosure or consistent with the disclosure the third party makes, if the third party has a good faith belief that the property retained or remitted is subject to the writ of execution. In addition, the third party may, at any time before or after disclosure, proceed under Rule 67 of the Minnesota Rules of Civil Procedure for the District Courts to make deposit into court. No third party is liable for damages if the third party complies with the provisions of this chapter.

Subd. 12. [BAD FAITH CLAIM.] If, in a proceeding brought under section 550.143, subdivision 10, or a similar proceeding under this chapter to determine a claim of exemption, the claim of exemption is not upheld, and the court finds that it was asserted in bad faith, the judgment creditor shall be awarded actual damages, costs, reasonable attorney fees resulting from the additional proceedings, and an amount not to exceed $100. If the claim of exemption is upheld, and the court finds that the judgment creditor disregarded the claim of exemption in bad faith, the judgment debtor shall be awarded actual damages, costs, reasonable attorney fees resulting from the additional proceedings, and an amount not to exceed $100. The underlying judgment shall be modified to reflect assessment of damages, costs, and attorney fees. However, if the party in whose favor a penalty assessment is made is not actually indebted to that party's attorney for fees, the attorney's fee award shall be made directly to the attorney and if not paid, an appropriate judgment in favor of the attorney shall be entered. Any action by a judgment creditor made in bad faith and in violation of this chapter renders the execution levy void and the judgment creditor liable to the judgment debtor named in the execution levy in the amount of $100, actual damages, and reasonable attorney's fees and costs.

Subd. 13. [DISCHARGE OF A THIRD PARTY.] Subject to subdivisions 6 and 14, the third party, after disclosure, shall be discharged of any further obligation to the judgment creditor when one of the following conditions is met:

(a) The third party discloses that the third party is not indebted to the judgment debtor or does not possess any property, money, or earnings belonging to the judgment debtor that is attachable as defined in this chapter. The disclosure is conclusive against the judgment creditor and discharges the third party from any further obligation to the judgment creditor other than to retain and remit all nonexempt disposable earnings, indebtedness, or money of the judgment debtor that was disclosed.

(b) The third party discloses that the third party is indebted to the judgment debtor as indicated on the execution disclosure form. The disclosure is conclusive against the judgment creditor and discharges the third party from any further obligation to the judgment creditor other than to retain and remit all nonexempt disposable earnings, indebtedness, or money of the judgment debtor that was disclosed.

(c) The court may, upon motion of an interested person, discharge the third party as to any disposable earnings, money, property, or indebtedness in excess of the amount that may be required to satisfy the judgment creditor's claim.

Subd. 14. [EXCEPTIONS TO DISCHARGE OF A THIRD PARTY.] The third party is not discharged if:

(a) Within 20 days of the service of the third party's disclosure, an interested person serves a motion relating to the execution levy. The hearing on the motion must be scheduled to be heard within 30 days of the service of the motion.

(b) The judgment creditor moves the court for leave to file a supplemental complaint against the third party, as provided for in subdivision 8, and the court upon proper showing, vacates the discharge of the third party.

Subd. 15. [JOINDER AND INTERVENTION BY PERSONS IN INTEREST.] If it appears that a person, who is not a party to the action, has or claims an interest in any of the disposable earnings, other indebtedness, or money, the court shall permit that person to intervene or join in the execution proceeding under this chapter. If that person does not appear, the court may summon that person to appear or order the claim barred. The person so appearing or summoned shall be joined as a party and be bound by the judgment.

Subd. 16. [APPEAL.] A party to an execution proceeding aggrieved by an order or final judgment may appeal as in other civil cases.

Sec. 3. [550.136] [SHERIFF'S LEVY OF EARNINGS.]

Subdivision 1. [PROCEDURE.] When earnings are levied upon by the sheriff, this section must be complied with, in addition to the general provisions specified in section 550.135.

Subd. 2. [DEFINITIONS.] For purposes of this section, the following terms have the meanings given them:

(a) "earnings" means:

(1) compensation paid or payable to an employee for personal service whether denominated as wages, salary, commissions, bonus, or otherwise, and includes periodic payments pursuant to a pension or retirement program; or

(2) compensation paid or payable to the producer for the sale of agricultural products; livestock or livestock products; milk or milk products; or fruit or other horticultural products produced when the producer is operating a family farm, a family farm corporation, or an authorized farm corporation, as defined in section 500.24, subdivision 2;

(b) "disposable earnings" means that part of the earnings of an individual remaining after the deduction from those earnings of amounts required by law to be withheld;

(c) "employee" means an individual who performs services subject to the right of the employer to control both what is done and how it is done; and

(d) "employer" means a person for whom an individual performs services as an employee.

Subd. 3. [LIMITATION ON LEVY ON EARNINGS.] Unless the judgment is for child support, the maximum part of the aggregate disposable earnings of an individual for any pay period subjected to an execution levy may not exceed the lesser of:

(1) 25 percent of the judgment debtor's disposable earnings; or

(2) the amount by which the judgment debtor's disposable earnings exceed the following product: 40 times the federal minimum hourly wages prescribed by section 6(a)(1) of the Fair Labor Standards Act of 1938, United States Code, title 29, section 206(a)(1), in effect at the time the earnings are payable, times the number of work weeks in the pay period. When a pay period consists of other than a whole number of work weeks, each day of that pay period in excess of the number of completed work weeks shall be counted as a fraction of a work week equal to the number of excess work days divided by the number of days in the normal work week.

If the judgment is for child support, the levy may not exceed:

(1) 50 percent of the judgment debtor's disposable income, if the judgment debtor is supporting a spouse or dependent child;

(2) 55 percent of the judgment debtor's disposable income, if the judgment debtor is supporting a spouse or dependent child, and the judgment is over 12 weeks old (12 weeks to be calculated to the beginning of the work week in which the execution levy is received);

(3) 60 percent of the judgment debtor's disposable income, if the judgment debtor is not supporting a spouse or dependent child; or

(4) 65 percent of the judgment debtor's disposable income, if the judgment debtor is not supporting a spouse or dependent child, and the judgment is over 12 weeks old (12 weeks to be calculated to the beginning of the work week in which the execution levy is received).

No court may make, execute, or enforce an order or any process in violation of this section.

Subd. 4. [MULTIPLE LEVIES ON EARNINGS.] Except as otherwise provided in this chapter or section 518.611, subdivision 6, the priority of multiple earnings execution levies is determined by the order in which the execution levies were served on the employer. If the employer is served with two or more writs of execution at the same time on the same day, the writ of execution issued pursuant to the first judgment entered has priority. If two or more execution levies are served on the same day and are based on judgments entered on the same day, then the employer shall select the priority of the earnings levies. However, in all cases, the execution levies shall be effective no longer than 70 days from the date of the service of the writ of execution.

Subd. 5. [EARNINGS ATTACHABLE.] Subject to the exemptions provided by sections 550.37 and 571.922, and any other applicable statute, the service of a writ of execution under this chapter attaches all unpaid nonexempt disposable earnings owing or to be owed by the third party and earned or to be earned by the judgment debtor before and within the pay period in which the writ of execution is served and within all subsequent pay periods whose paydays occur within the 70 days after the date of service of the writ of execution. "Paydays" means the days upon which the third party pays earnings to the judgment debtor in the ordinary course of business. If the judgment debtor has no regular paydays, paydays means the 15th day and the last day of each month. If the levy attaches less than $10, the third party shall not retain and remit the sum.

Subd. 6. [EARNINGS EXEMPTION NOTICE.] Before the first levy on earnings under this chapter, the judgment creditor shall serve upon the judgment debtor no less than ten days before the service of the writ of execution, a notice that the writ of execution may be served on the judgment debtor's employer. The notice must: (1) be substantially in the form set forth below; (2) be served personally, in the manner of a summons and complaint, or by first class mail to the last known address of the judgment debtor; (3) inform the judgment debtor that an execution levy may be served on the judgment debtor's employer in ten days, and that the judgment debtor may, within that time, cause to be served on the judgment creditor a signed statement under penalties of perjury asserting an entitlement to an exemption from execution; (4) inform the judgment debtor of the earnings exemptions contained in section 550.37, subdivision 14; and (5) advise the judgment debtor of the relief set forth in this chapter to which the debtor may be entitled if a judgment creditor in bad faith disregards a valid claim and the fee, costs, and penalty that may be assessed against a judgment debtor who in bad faith falsely claims an exemption or in bad faith takes action to frustrate the execution process. The notice requirement of this subdivision does not apply to a levy on earnings being retained by an employer pursuant to a garnishment previously served in compliance with chapter 571.

The ten-day notice informing a judgment debtor that a writ of execution may be used to levy the earnings of an individual must be substantially in the following form:

STATE OF MINNESOTA
COUNTY OF

..... (Judgment Debtor)
and

EXECUTION EXEMPTION NOTICE AND NOTICE OF
INTENT TO LEVY ON EARNINGS WITHIN TEN DAYS

..... (Third Party)

THE STATE OF MINNESOTATO THE ABOVE-NAMED JUDGMENT DEBTOR

PLEASE TAKE NOTICE that a levy may be served upon your employer or other third parties, without any further court proceedings or notice to you, ten days or more from the date hereof. Your earnings are completely exempt from execution levy if you are now a recipient of relief based on need, if you have been a recipient of relief within the last six months, or if you have been an inmate of a correctional institution in the last six months.

Relief based on need includes Aid to Families with Dependent Children (AFDC), AFDC-Emergency Assistance (AFDC-EA), Medical Assistance (MA), General Assistance (GA), General Assistance Medical Care (GAMC), Emergency General Assistance (EGA), Work Readiness, Minnesota Supplemental Aid (MSA), MSA Emergency Assistance (MSA-EA), Supplemental Security Income (SSI), and Energy Assistance.

If you wish to claim an exemption, you should fill out the appropriate form below, sign it, and send it to the judgment creditor's attorney.

You may wish to contact the attorney for the judgment creditor in order to arrange for a settlement of the debt or contact an attorney to advise you about exemptions or other rights.

PENALTIES

(1) Be advised that even if you claim an exemption, an execution levy may still be served on your employer. If your earnings are levied on after you claim an exemption, you may petition the court for a determination of your exemption. If the court finds that the judgment creditor disregarded your claim of exemption in bad faith, you will be entitled to costs, reasonable attorney fees, actual damages, and an amount not to exceed $100.

(2) HOWEVER, BE WARNED if you claim an exemption, the judgment creditor can also petition the court for a determination of your exemption, and if the court finds that you claimed an exemption in bad faith, you will be assessed costs and reasonable attorney's fees plus an amount not to exceed $100.

(3) If after receipt of this notice, you in bad faith take action to frustrate the execution levy, thus requiring the judgment creditor to petition the court to resolve the problem, you will be liable to the judgment creditor for costs and reasonable attorney's fees plus an amount not to exceed $100.

Subd. 7. [ADDITIONAL NOTICES.] If the execution levy has not been served within one year after service of the exemption notice, the judgment creditor or its attorney shall serve another notice upon the judgment debtor before serving the execution levy on the judgment debtor's employer. If more than one year has passed since the service of the judgment creditor's most recent execution levy, the judgment creditor shall, no less than ten days before service of a subsequent execution levy, serve notice that another execution levy may be served.

Subd. 8. [PROCEEDINGS IF NO EXEMPTION STATEMENT IS RECEIVED.] If no statement of exemption is received by the judgment creditor's attorney (or the creditor if not represented by an attorney) on an earnings levy within ten days after the service of the notice, the judgment creditor may proceed with the execution levy. Failure of the judgment debtor to serve a statement does not constitute a waiver of any right the judgment debtor may have to an exemption. If the statement of exemption is received by the judgment creditor, the judgment creditor may still cause a levy to be served subject to sanctions provided in section 550.143, subdivision 10.

Subd. 9. [EXECUTION EARNINGS DISCLOSURE FORM AND WORKSHEET.] The judgment creditor shall provide to the sheriff for service upon the judgment debtor's employer an execution earnings disclosure form and an earnings disclosure worksheet with the writ of execution, that must be substantially in the form set forth below.

DEFINITIONS

"EARNINGS": For the purpose of execution, "earnings" means compensation paid or payable to an employee for personal services or compensation paid or payable to the producer for the sale of agricultural products; milk or milk products; or fruit or other horticultural products produced when the producer is operating a family farm, a family farm corporation, or an authorized farm corporation, as defined in section 500.24, subdivision 2, whether denominated as wages, salary, commission, bonus, or otherwise, and includes periodic payments pursuant to a pension or retirement.

"DISPOSABLE EARNINGS": Means that part of the earnings of an individual remaining after the deduction from those earnings of amounts required by law to be withheld. (Amounts required by law to be withheld do not include items such as health insurance, charitable contributions, or other voluntary wage deductions.)

"PAYDAY": For the purpose of execution, "payday(s)" means the date(s) upon which the employer pays earnings to the debtor in the ordinary course of business. If the judgment debtor has no regular payday, payday(s) means the 15th and the last day of each month.

THE THIRD PARTY/EMPLOYER MUST ANSWER THE FOLLOWING QUESTIONS:

(1) Do you now owe, or within 70 days from the date the execution levy was served on you, will you or may you owe money to the judgment debtor for earnings?

Yes

.....
No

(2) Does the judgment debtor earn more than $. . . per week? (this amount is the federal minimum wage per week)

.....

INSTRUCTIONS FOR COMPLETING THE EARNINGS DISCLOSURE

A. If your answer to either questions 1 or 2 is "No," then you must sign the affirmation below and return this disclosure to the sheriff within 20 days after it was served on you, and you do not need to answer the remaining questions.

B. If your answers to both questions 1 and 2 are "Yes," you must complete this form and the Earnings Disclosure Worksheet as follows:

For each payday that falls within 70 days from the date the execution levy was served on you, YOU MUST calculate the amount of earnings to be retained by completing steps 3 through 11 on page 2, and enter the amounts on the Earnings Disclosure Worksheet. UPON REQUEST, THE EMPLOYER MUST PROVIDE THE DEBTOR WITH INFORMATION AS TO HOW THE CALCULATIONS REQUIRED BY THIS DISCLOSURE WERE MADE.

Each payday, you must retain the amount of earnings listed in column 1 on the Earnings Disclosure Worksheet.

You must pay the attached earnings and return this earnings disclosure form and the Earnings Disclosure Worksheet to the sheriff and deliver a copy of the disclosure and worksheet to the judgment debtor within ten days after the last payday that falls within the 70-day period. If the judgment is wholly satisfied or if the judgment debtor's employment ends before the expiration of the 70-day period, your disclosure and remittance should be made within ten days after the last payday for which earnings were attached.

For steps 3 through 11, "columns" refers to columns on the Earnings Disclosure Worksheet.

(3) COLUMN A. Enter the date of judgment debtor's payday.

(4) COLUMN B. Enter judgment debtor's gross earnings for each payday.

(5) COLUMN C. Enter judgment debtor's disposable earnings for each payday.

(6) COLUMN D. Enter 25 percent of disposable earnings. (Multiply column C by .25.)

(7) COLUMN E. Enter here 40 times the hourly federal minimum wage ($. . .) times the number of work weeks included in each payday. (Note: if a payday includes days in excess of whole work weeks, the additional days should be counted as a fraction of a work week equal to the number of work days in excess of a whole work week divided by the number of work days in a normal work week.)

(8) COLUMN F. Subtract the amount in column E from the amount in column C, and enter here.

(9) COLUMN G. Enter here the lesser of the amount in column D and the amount in column F.

(10) COLUMN H. Enter here any amount claimed by you as a setoff, defense, lien, or claim, or any amount claimed by any other person as an exemption or adverse interest which would reduce the amount of earnings owing to the judgment debtor. (Note: Any indebtedness to you, or any assignment of wages, that was incurred or made by the judgment debtor within ten days prior to your receipt of the execution levy is void.)

You must also describe your claim(s) and the claims of others, if known, in the space provided below the worksheet and state the name(s) and address(es) of these persons.

Enter zero in column H if there are no claims by you or others which would reduce the amount of earnings owing to the judgment debtor.

(11) COLUMN I. Subtract the amount in column H from the amount in column G and enter here. This is the amount of earnings that you must remit for the payday for which the calculations were made.

Subd. 11. [POSTEXECUTION NOTICE TO JUDGMENT DEBTOR.] The judgment creditor shall serve by mail upon the judgment debtor not later than five days after service is made on the judgment debtor's employer, a copy of the writ of execution and copies of all other papers served on the judgment debtor's employer.

Subd. 12. [THIRD PARTY DISCLOSURE AND REMITTANCE OBLIGATION.] If there are no attachable earnings, the third party shall serve the execution earnings disclosure form upon the sheriff within 20 days after service of the writ of execution. However, if the judgment debtor has attachable earnings, the third party shall serve the execution earnings disclosure form and remit to the sheriff the attached earnings within ten days of the last payday to occur within the 70 days after the date of the service of the execution. If the judgment is wholly satisfied or if the judgment debtor's employment ends before the expiration of the 70-day period, the disclosure and remittance should be made within ten days after the last payday for which earnings were attached. The amount of the third party's execution earnings disclosure form and remittance need not exceed 110 percent of the amount of the judgment creditor's judgment that remains unpaid, after subtracting the total of setoffs, defenses, exemption, or other adverse interests. If the disclosure is by a corporation, it shall be made by an officer or a managing agent having knowledge of the facts.

Subd. 13. [PENALTY FOR RETALIATION OR DISCHARGE.] (a) An employer shall not discharge or otherwise discipline an employee as a result of an earnings levy authorized by this chapter.

(b) If an employer violates this section, a court may order the reinstatement of an aggrieved party who demonstrates a violation of this section, and other relief the court considers appropriate. The aggrieved party may bring a civil action within 90 days of the date of the prohibited action. If an employer-employee relationship existed before the violation of this section, the employee shall recover twice the wages lost as a result of this violation.

(c) The rights guaranteed by this section are not subject to abridgment and may not be altered by employment contract.

Sec. 4. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 550.142, is amended to read:

550.142 [PUBLIC EMPLOYEES; WAGES, EXECUTION LEVY.]

The salary or wages earnings of any public employee or officer may be levied upon and disposed of on execution pursuant to sections 550.135 and 550.136. Where the person judgment debtor is an officer, the writ shall be served upon the auditor, treasurer, or clerk of the subdivision or department of which the person judgment debtor is an officer. Where the person judgment debtor is an employee other than an officer, the writ shall be served upon the person in charge of the office or department in which the employee works.

When payment has been made pursuant to levy, a copy of the writ of execution with certificate of satisfaction shall be delivered to the treasurer as a voucher for such payment.

Sec. 5. [550.143] [LEVY ON FUNDS AT A FINANCIAL INSTITUTION.]

Subdivision 1. [PROCEDURE.] When the sheriff is levying upon funds at a financial institution, this section must be complied with, in addition to the general provisions set forth in section 550.135.

Subd. 2. [DISCLOSURE FORM.] Along with the writ of execution and the exemption notice described in subdivision 3, the sheriff shall serve upon the financial institution an execution disclosure form which must be substantially in the following form:

Subd. 3. [EXEMPTION NOTICE.] If the levy is on funds of a judgment debtor who is a natural person and if the funds to be levied are held on deposit at any financial institution, the judgment creditor or its attorney shall provide the sheriff with two copies of an exemption notice, which must be substantially in the form set forth below. The sheriff shall serve both copies of the exemption notice on the financial institution, along with the writ of execution. Failure of the sheriff to serve the exemption notices renders the levy void, and the financial institution shall take no action. However, if this subdivision is being used to execute on funds that have previously been garnished in compliance with section 571.71, the judgment creditor is not required to serve additional exemption notices. In that event, the execution levy shall only be effective as to the funds that were subject to the prior garnishment. Upon receipt of the writ of execution and exemption notices, the financial institution shall retain as much of the amount due under section 550.04 as the financial institution has on deposit owing to the judgment debtor, but not more than 110 percent of the amount remaining due on the judgment.

EXEMPTION NOTICE

An order for attachment, garnishment summons, or levy of execution (strike inapplicable language) has been served on

..... (Bank or other financial institution where you have an account.)

Your account balance is $

The amount being held is $

However, all or a portion of the funds in your account will normally be exempt from creditors' claims if they are in one of the following categories:

(1) relief based on need. This includes: Aid to Families with Dependent Children (AFDC), AFDC-Emergency Assistance (AFDC-EA), Medical Assistance (MA), General Assistance (GA), General Assistance Medical Care (GAMC), Emergency General Assistance (EGA), Work Readiness, Minnesota Supplemental Aid (MSA), MSA Emergency Assistance (MSA-EA), Supplemental Security Income (SSI), and Energy Assistance;

(2) Social Security benefits (Old Age, Survivors, or Disability Insurance);

(3) unemployment compensation, workers' compensation, or veterans' benefits;

(4) an accident, disability, or retirement pension or annuity;

(5) life insurance proceeds;

(6) the earnings of your minor child; or

(7) money from a claim for damage or destruction of exempt property (such as household goods, farm tools, business equipment, a mobile home, or a car.)

The following funds are also exempt:

(8) all earnings of a person in category (1);

(9) all earnings of a person who has received relief based on need, or who has been an inmate of a correctional institution, within the last six months;

(10) 75 percent of every debtor's after tax earnings; and

(11) all of a judgment debtor's after tax earnings below 40 times the federal minimum wage.

TIME LIMIT ON EXEMPTIONS AFTER DEPOSIT IN BANK:

Categories (10) and (11): 20 days

Categories (8) and (9): 60 days

All others: no time limit, as long as funds are traceable to the exempt source. (In tracing funds, the first-in, first-out method is used. This means money deposited first is spent first.) The money being sought by the judgment creditor is being held in your account to give you a chance to claim an exemption.

TO CLAIM AN EXEMPTION:

Fill out, sign, and mail or deliver one copy of the attached exemption claim form to the institution which sent you this notice and mail or deliver one copy to the judgment creditor's attorney. In the event that there is no attorney for the judgment creditor, then the notice shall be sent directly to the judgment creditor. The address for the judgment creditor's attorney or the judgment creditor is set forth below. Both copies must be mailed or delivered on the same day.

If the financial institution does not get the exemption claim back from you within 14 days of the date they mailed or gave it to you, they will be free to turn the money over to the sheriff or the judgment creditor. If you are going to claim an exemption, do so as soon as possible, because your money may be held until it is decided.

IF YOU CLAIM AN EXEMPTION:

(1) nonexempt money can be turned over to the judgment creditor or sheriff;

(2) the financial institution will keep holding the money claimed to be exempt; and

(3) seven days after receiving your exemption claim, the financial institution will release the money to you unless before then it receives an objection to your exemption claim.

IF THE JUDGMENT CREDITOR OBJECTS TO YOUR EXEMPTION CLAIM:

the institution will hold the money until a court decides if your exemption claim is valid, BUT ONLY IF the institution gets a copy of your court motion papers asserting the exemption WITHIN TEN DAYS after the objection is mailed or given to you. You may wish to consult an attorney at once if the creditor objects to your exemption claim.

MOTION TO DETERMINE EXEMPTION:

At any time after your funds have been held, you may ask for a court decision on the validity of your exemption claim by filing a request for hearing which may be obtained at the office of the clerk of the above court.

PENALTIES:

If you claim an exemption in bad faith, or if the judgment creditor wrongly objects to an exemption in bad faith, the court may order the person who acted in bad faith to pay costs, actual damages, attorney fees, and an additional amount of up to $100.

Subd. 4. [EFFECT OF EXEMPTION NOTICE.] Within two business days after receipt of the writ of execution and exemption notices, the financial institution shall serve upon the judgment debtor two copies of the exemption notice. The financial institution shall serve the notice by first class mail to the last known address of the judgment debtor. If no claim of exemption is received by the financial institution within 14 days after the exemption notices are mailed to the judgment debtor, the funds remain subject to the execution levy and shall be remitted to the sheriff within seven days. If the judgment debtor elects to claim an exemption, the judgment debtor shall complete the exemption notice, sign it under penalty of perjury, and deliver one copy to the financial institution and one copy to the attorney for the judgment creditor within 14 days of the date postmarked on the correspondence mailed to the debtor containing the exemption notices. In the event that there is no attorney for the judgment creditor, then the notice must be sent directly to the judgment creditor. Failure of the judgment debtor to deliver the executed exemption notice does not constitute a waiver of any claimed right to an exemption. Upon timely receipt of a claim of exemption, funds not claimed to be exempt by the debtor remain subject to the execution levy. All money claimed to be exempt shall be released to the judgment debtor upon the expiration of seven days after the date postmarked on the envelope containing the executed exemption notice mailed to the financial institution, or the date of personal delivery of the executed exemption notice to the financial institution, unless within that time the judgment creditor interposes an objection to the exemption.

Subd. 5. [OBJECTION TO EXEMPTION CLAIM.] Objection shall be interposed by mailing or delivering one copy of the written objection to the financial institution and one copy of the written objection to the judgment debtor along with a copy of the judgment debtor's claimed exemption form. Both copies of an objection to an exemption claim shall be mailed or delivered on the same date. The financial institution may rely on the date of mailing or delivery of a notice to it in computing any time periods in this section. The written objection must be substantially in the form specified in subdivision 7.

Subd. 6. [DUTIES OF FINANCIAL INSTITUTION IF OBJECTION IS MADE TO EXEMPTION CLAIM.] Upon receipt of a written objection from the judgment creditor or its attorney within the specified seven-day period, the financial institution shall retain the funds claimed to be exempt. Unless the financial institution receives a request for hearing and notice of hearing from the judgment debtor asserting exemption rights within ten days after receipt of a written objection to the exemption, the funds remain subject to the execution levy as if no claim of exemption had been made and shall be remitted to the sheriff within seven days. If a request for hearing and notice of hearing to determine the validity of a claim of exemption is received by the financial institution within the period provided, it shall retain the funds claimed to be exempt until otherwise ordered by the court.

Subd. 7. [NOTICE OF OBJECTION.] (a) The written objection to the judgment debtor's claim of exemption must be in substantially the following form:

STATE OF MINNESOTA	DISTRICT COURT
COUNTY OF	JUDICIAL DISTRICT
.....(Judgment Creditor)	OBJECTION TO
.....(Judgment Debtor)	EXEMPTION CLAIM
.....(Garnishee) (Third Party)

The judgment creditor objects to your claim for exemption from garnishment, levy of execution, order for attachment (strike inapplicable language) for the following reason(s):

Because of this objection, your financial institution will retain the funds you claimed to be exempt for an additional ten days. If you wish to request a hearing on your exemption claim, you should do so within ten days of your receipt of this objection. You may request a hearing by completing the attached form and filing it with the court administrator.

1. The court administrator's office shall provide clerical assistance to help with the writing and filing of a Request for Hearing by any person not represented by counsel. The court administrator may charge a fee of $1 for the filing of a Request for Hearing.

2. Upon the filing of a Request for Hearing, the clerk shall schedule the matter for a hearing no later than five business days from the date of filing. The court administrator shall forthwith send a completed copy of the request, including the hearing date, time and place to the adverse party and to the financial institution by first class mail.

3. If it is possible that the financial institution might not receive the request mailed from the court administrator within ten days, then you may want to personally deliver a copy of the request to the financial institution after you have filed your request with the court.

4. An order stating whether your funds are exempt shall be issued by the court within three days of the date of the hearing.

If you do not file a Request for Hearing within ten days of the date you receive this objection, your financial institution may turn your funds over to your creditor.

If you file a Request for Hearing and your financial institution receives it within ten days of the date it received this objection, your financial institution will retain your funds claimed to be exempt until otherwise ordered by the court.

Subd. 9. [RELEASE OF FUNDS.] At any time during the procedure specified in this section, the judgment debtor or the judgment creditor may, by a writing dated after the service of the execution, direct the sheriff to release the funds in question to the other party. Upon receipt of a release, the sheriff shall release the funds as directed.

Subd. 10. [SUBSEQUENT PROCEEDINGS; BAD FAITH CLAIMS.] If in subsequent proceedings brought by the judgment debtor or the judgment creditor, the claim of exemption is not upheld, and the court finds that it was asserted in bad faith, the judgment creditor shall be awarded actual damages, costs, and reasonable attorney fees resulting from the additional proceedings, and an amount not to exceed $100. If the claim of exemption is upheld, and the court finds that the judgment creditor disregarded the claim of exemption in bad faith, the judgment debtor shall be awarded costs, reasonable attorney fees, actual damages, and an amount not to exceed $100. The underlying judgment must be modified to reflect assessment of damages, costs, and attorney fees. However, if the party in whose favor a penalty assessment is made is not actually indebted to the party's attorney for fees, the attorney's fee award shall be made directly to the attorney and, if not paid, an appropriate judgment in favor of the attorney shall be entered. Upon motion of any party in interest, on notice, the court shall determine the validity of any claim of exemption, and may make any order necessary to protect the rights of those interested. No financial institution is liable for damages for complying with this section. Both copies of an exemption claim or an objection to an exemption claim must be mailed or delivered on the same date. The financial institution may rely on the date of mailing or delivery of a notice to it in computing any time periods in this section.

Sec. 6. [EFFECTIVE DATE.]

Sections 1 to 5 are effective October 1, 1989, and apply to executions begun on or after that date.

ARTICLE 2

ATTORNEY'S SUMMARY EXECUTIONS

Section 1. [551.01] [ATTORNEY'S SUMMARY EXECUTION OF JUDGMENT DEBTS; WHEN AUTHORIZED.]

An attorney for a judgment creditor may execute on a money judgment by levying on indebtedness owed to the judgment debtor by a third party, pursuant to this chapter. The attorney for the judgment creditor must obtain a writ of execution issued under section 550.04 before the attorney can execute pursuant to this chapter. No more than $5,000 may be recovered by a single execution levy pursuant to this section.

Sec. 2. [551.02] [SCOPE OF GENERAL AND SPECIFIC PROVISIONS.]

General provisions and definitions relating to attorney's summary execution, as authorized in this chapter, are set forth in sections 551.03 and 551.04. Specific provisions relating to attorney's summary execution on funds at a financial institution are set forth in section 551.05. Specific provisions relating to attorney's summary execution of earnings are set forth in section 551.06. When an attorney is levying against either funds at a financial institution or earnings, the specific provisions of section 551.05 or 551.06 must be complied with in addition to the general provisions set forth in sections 551.03 and 551.04. Provisions contained in the statutory forms are incorporated in this chapter and have the same force of law as any other provisions in this chapter.

Sec. 3. [551.03] [DEFINITIONS.]

Subdivision 1. [SCOPE.] For the purposes of this chapter, the terms defined in this section have the meanings given them.

Subd. 2. [JUDGMENT CREDITOR.] "Judgment creditor" means a party who has a judgment for the recovery of money in the civil action whether that party is the plaintiff, defendant, or other party in the civil action and who is serving the execution levy.

Subd. 3. [JUDGMENT DEBTOR.] "Judgment debtor" means a party against whom the judgment creditor has a judgment for the recovery of money in the civil action whether that party is the plaintiff, defendant, or other party in the civil action.

Subd. 4. [THIRD PARTY.] "Third party" means the person or entity upon whom the execution levy is served.

Subd. 5. [CLAIM.] "Claim" means the unpaid balance of the creditor's judgment against the judgment debtor, including all lawful interest and costs incurred.

Sec. 4. [551.04] [GENERAL PROVISIONS.]

Subdivision 1. [RULES OF CIVIL PROCEDURE.] Unless this chapter specifically provides otherwise, the Minnesota Rules of Civil Procedure for the District Courts shall apply in all proceedings under this chapter.

Subd. 2. [PROPERTY ATTACHABLE.] Subject to the exemptions provided by subdivision 3 and section 550.37, and any other applicable statute, the service of a writ of execution under this chapter attaches:

(a) All unpaid nonexempt disposable earnings owing or to be owed by the third party and earned or to be earned by the judgment debtor within the pay period in which the writ of execution is served and within all subsequent pay periods whose paydays occur within the 70 days after the date of service of the writ of execution. "Payday" means the day upon which the third party pays earnings to the judgment debtor in the ordinary course of business. If the judgment debtor has no regular paydays, payday means the 15th day and the last day of each month.

(b) All other nonexempt indebtedness or money due or belonging to the judgment debtor and owing by the third party or in the possession or under the control of the third party at the time of service of the writ of execution, whether or not the same, has become payable. The third party shall not be compelled to pay or deliver the same before the time specified by any agreement unless the agreement was fraudulently contracted to defeat an execution levy or other collection remedy.

Subd. 3. [PROPERTY NOT ATTACHABLE.] The following property is not subject to attachment by a writ of execution served pursuant to this chapter:

(1) any indebtedness or money due to the judgment debtor, unless at the time of the service of the writ of execution the same is due absolutely or does not depend upon any contingency;

(2) any judgment owing by the third party to the judgment debtor, if the third party or the third party's property is liable on an execution levy upon the judgment;

(3) any debt owing by the third party to the judgment debtor for which any negotiable instrument has been issued or endorsed by the third party;

(4) any indebtedness or money due to the judgment debtor where the judgment debtor is a bank, savings bank, trust company, credit union, savings and loan association, or industrial loan and thrift company with deposit liabilities;

(5) any indebtedness or money due to the judgment debtor with a cumulative value of less than $10; and

(6) any disposable earnings, indebtedness, or money that is exempt under Minnesota or federal law.

Subd. 4. [SERVICE OF THIRD PARTY LEVY; NOTICE AND DISCLOSURE FORMS.] When levying upon money or earnings owed to the judgment debtor by a third party, the attorney for the judgment creditor shall serve a copy of the writ of execution upon the third party either by registered or certified mail, or by personal service. Along with a copy of the writ of execution, the attorney shall serve upon the third party a notice of third party levy and disclosure form that must be substantially in the form set forth below. If the levy is upon earnings, the attorney shall serve upon the third party the notice of third party levy and disclosure form as set forth in section 551.06, subdivision 9.

Subd. 5. [THIRD PARTY FEES.] If the levy is upon earnings or upon funds at a financial institution, the third party shall be paid a $15 fee at the time of the service of the writ of execution. Failure to pay the fee renders the levy void, and the third party shall take no action. The $15 shall not be paid where the funds being levied on are being held pursuant to a garnishment previously served in compliance with chapter 571. This fee may be recovered by the judgment creditor as an allowable disbursement. If a third party is required to appear and submit to oral examination, the third party shall be tendered, in advance of the examination, fees and mileage for attendance at the rate allowed by law to a witness. These fees may be recovered by the judgment creditor as an allowable disbursement. In extraordinary cases, the third party may be allowed additional sums the court considers reasonable for attorney's fees and other necessary expenses. The court shall then determine which party bears the burden of this expense.

Subd. 6. [THIRD PARTY DISCLOSURE AND REMITTANCE.] Within 15 days after receipt of the writ of execution, unless governed by section 551.05 or 551.06, the third party shall disclose and remit to the judgment creditor's attorney as much of the amount due under section 550.04, but not more than $5,000, as the third party's own debt equals to the judgment debtor. The attorney for the judgment creditor shall proceed in all other respects like the sheriff making a similar execution levy. No more than $5,000 may be recovered by a single execution levy pursuant to this section.

Subd. 7. [ORAL DISCLOSURE.] Before or after the service of a written disclosure by a third party under subdivision 6, upon a showing by affidavit upon information and belief that an oral examination of the third party would provide a complete disclosure of relevant facts, any party to the execution proceedings may obtain an ex parte order requiring the third party, or a representative of the third party designated by name or by title, to appear for oral examination before the court or a referee appointed by the court. Notice of the examination must be given to all parties.

Subd. 8. [SUPPLEMENTAL COMPLAINT.] If a third party holds property, money, earnings, or other indebtedness by a title that is void as to the judgment debtor's creditors, the property may be levied on although the judgment debtor would be barred from maintaining an action to recover the property, money, earnings, or other indebtedness. In this and all other cases where the third party denies liability, the judgment creditor may move the court at any time before the third party is discharged, on notice to both the judgment debtor and the third party for an order making the third party a party to the supplemental action and granting the judgment creditor leave to file a supplemental complaint against the third party and the judgment debtor. The supplemental complaint shall set forth the facts upon which the judgment creditor claims to charge the third party. If probable cause is shown, the motion shall be granted. The supplemental complaint shall be served upon the third party and the judgment debtor and any other parties. The parties served shall answer or respond pursuant to the Minnesota Rules of Civil Procedure for the District Courts, and if they fail to do so, judgment by default may be entered against them.

Subd. 9. [JUDGMENT AGAINST THIRD PARTY UPON FAILURE TO DISCLOSE OR REMIT.] Judgment may be entered against a third party who has been served with a writ of execution and fails to disclose or remit the levied funds as required in this chapter. Upon order to show cause served on the third party and notice of motion supported by affidavit of facts and affidavit of service upon both the judgment debtor and third party, the court may render judgment against the third party for an amount not exceeding 100 percent of the amount claimed in the execution or $5,000, whichever is less. Judgment against the third party pursuant to this section shall not bar the judgment creditor from further remedies under this chapter as a result of any subsequent defaults by the third party. The court upon good cause shown may remove the default and permit the third party to disclose or remit on just terms.

Subd. 10. [COSTS; SATISFACTION.] Except as provided for in subdivision 5, neither the judgment creditor nor its attorney shall be allowed costs from any party other than the judgment creditor for a levy in accordance with this section. Upon expiration, the attorney making the execution shall endorse on the writ partial satisfaction by amount or the total satisfaction and return the original writ of execution to the court administrator of that court, pursuant to section 550.051, subdivision 2, for filing without charge.

Subd. 11. [FORMS.] No judgment creditor shall use a form that contains alterations or changes from the statutory forms that mislead judgment debtors as to their rights and the execution procedure generally. If a court finds that a judgment creditor has used a misleading form, the judgment debtor shall be awarded actual damages, costs, reasonable attorney's fees resulting from additional proceedings, and an amount not to exceed $100. All forms must be clearly legible and printed in not less than the equivalent of 10-point type. A form that uses both sides of a sheet must clearly indicate on the front side that there is additional information on the back side of the sheet.

Subd. 12. [THIRD PARTY GOOD FAITH REQUIREMENT.] The third party is not liable to the judgment debtor, judgment creditor, or other person for wrongful retention if the third party retains or remits disposable earnings, indebtedness, or money of the judgment debtor or any other person, pending the third party's disclosure or consistent with the disclosure the third party makes, if the third party has a good faith belief that the property retained or remitted is subject to the execution. In addition, the third party may, at any time before or after disclosure, proceed under Rule 67 of the Minnesota Rules of Civil Procedure for the District Courts to make deposit into court. No third party is liable for damages if the third party complies with the provisions of this chapter.

Subd. 13. [BAD FAITH CLAIM.] If, in a proceeding brought under section 551.05, subdivision 8, or a similar proceeding under this chapter to determine a claim of exemption, the claim of exemption is not upheld, and the court finds that it was asserted in bad faith, the judgment creditor shall be awarded actual damages, costs, reasonable attorney's fees resulting from the additional proceedings, and an amount not to exceed $100. If the claim of exemption is upheld, and the court finds that the judgment creditor disregarded the claim of exemption in bad faith, the judgment debtor shall be awarded actual damages, costs, reasonable attorney's fees resulting from the additional proceedings, and an amount not to exceed $100. The underlying judgment shall be modified to reflect assessment of damages, costs, and attorney's fees. However, if the party in whose favor a penalty assessment is made is not actually indebted to that party's attorney for fees, the attorney's fee award shall be made directly to the attorney, and if not paid, an appropriate judgment in favor of the attorney shall be entered. Any action by a judgment creditor made in bad faith and in violation of this chapter renders the execution levy void and the judgment creditor liable to the judgment debtor named in the execution levy in the amount of $100, actual damages, and reasonable attorney's fees and costs.

Subd. 14. [DISCHARGE OF A THIRD PARTY.] Subject to subdivisions 6 and 15, the third party, after disclosure, shall be discharged of any further obligation to the judgment creditor earnings when one of the following conditions is met:

(a) The third party discloses that the third party is not indebted to the judgment debtor or does not possess any earnings, property, money, or indebtedness belonging to the judgment debtor that is attachable as defined in subdivision 2. The disclosure is conclusive against the judgment creditor and discharges the third party from any further obligation to the judgment creditor other than to retain and remit all nonexempt disposable earnings, property, indebtedness, or money of the judgment debtor which was disclosed.

(b) The third party discloses that the third party is indebted to the judgment debtor as indicated on the execution disclosure form. The disclosure is conclusive against the judgment creditor and discharges the third party from any further obligation to the judgment creditor other than to retain and remit all nonexempt disposable earnings, property, indebtedness, or money of the judgment debtor that was disclosed.

(c) The court may, upon motion of an interested person, discharge the third party as to any disposable earnings, money, property, or indebtedness in excess of the amount that may be required to satisfy the judgment creditor's claim.

Subd. 15. [EXCEPTIONS TO DISCHARGE OF A THIRD PARTY.] The third party is not discharged if:

(a) Within 20 days of the service of the third party's disclosure, an interested person serves a motion relating to the execution levy. The hearing on the motion must be scheduled to be heard within 30 days of the service of the motion.

(b) The judgment creditor moves the court for leave to file a supplemental complaint against the third party, as provided for in subdivision 8, and the court upon proper showing vacates the discharge of the third party.

Subd. 16. [JOINDER AND INTERVENTION BY PERSONS IN INTEREST.] If it appears that a person, who is not a party to the action, has or claims an interest in any of the disposable earnings, other indebtedness, or money, the court shall permit that person to intervene or join in the execution proceeding under this chapter. If that person does not appear, the court may summon that person to appear or order the claim barred. The person so appearing or summoned shall be joined as a party and be bound by the judgment.

Subd. 17. [APPEAL.] A party to an execution proceeding aggrieved by an order or final judgment may appeal as in other civil cases.

Sec. 5. [551.05] [ATTORNEY'S SUMMARY EXECUTION UPON FUNDS AT A FINANCIAL INSTITUTION.]

When levying upon funds at a financial institution, this section must be complied with, in addition to the general provisions specified in section 551.04.

Subdivision 1. [EXEMPTION NOTICE.] If the writ of execution is being used by the attorney to levy funds of a judgment debtor who is a natural person and if the funds to be levied are held on deposit at any financial institution, the attorney for the judgment creditor shall serve with the writ of execution two copies of an exemption notice. The notice must be substantially in the form set forth below. Failure of the attorney for the judgment creditor to send the exemption notice renders the execution levy void, and the financial institution shall take no action. However, if this subdivision is being used to execute on funds that have previously been garnished in compliance with section 571.71, the attorney for judgment creditor is not required to serve an additional exemption notice. In that event, the execution levy shall only be effective as to the funds that were subject to the prior garnishment. Upon receipt of the writ of execution and exemption notices, the financial institution shall retain as much of the amount due under section 550.04 as the financial institution has on deposit owing to the judgment debtor, but not more than 100 percent of the amount remaining due on the judgment, or $5,000, whichever is less.

The notice informing a judgment debtor that an execution levy has been used to attach funds of the judgment debtor to satisfy a claim, must be substantially in the following form:

STATE OF MINNESOTA	DISTRICT COURT
County of JUDICIAL DISTRICT
.....(Judgment Creditor)
.....(Judgment Debtor)
TO: Judgment Debtor	EXEMPTION NOTICE

An order for attachment, garnishment summons, or levy of execution (strike inapplicable language) has been served on (Bank or other financial institution where you have an account.)

Your account balance is $

The amount being held is $

However, all or a portion of the funds, in your account will normally be exempt from creditors' claims if they are in one of the following categories:

(1) relief based on need. This includes: Aid to Families with Dependent Children (AFDC), AFDC-Emergency Assistance (AFDC-EA), Medical Assistance (MA), General Assistance (GA), General Assistance Medical Care (GAMC), Emergency General Assistance (EGA), Work Readiness, Minnesota Supplemental Aid (MSA), MSA Emergency Assistance (MSA-EA), Supplemental Security Income (SSI), and Energy Assistance;

(2) Social Security benefits (Old Age, Survivors, or Disability Insurance);

(3) unemployment compensation, workers' compensation, or veterans' benefits;

(4) an accident, disability, or retirement pension or annuity;

(5) life insurance proceeds;

(6) the earnings of your minor child; or

(7) money from a claim for damage or destruction of exempt or property (such as household goods, farm tools, business equipment, a mobile home, or a car.)

The following funds are also exempt:

(8) all earnings of a person in category (1);

(9) all earnings of a person who has received relief based on need, or who has been an inmate of a correctional institution, within the last six months;

(10) 75 percent of every judgment debtor's after tax earnings; or

(11) all of a judgment debtor's after tax earnings below 40 times the federal minimum wage.

TIME LIMIT ON EXEMPTIONS AFTER DEPOSIT IN BANK:

Categories (10) and (11): 20 days

Categories (8) and (9): 60 days

All others: no time limit, as long as funds are traceable to the exempt source. (In tracing funds, the first-in, first-out method is used. This means money deposited first is spent first.) The money being sought by the judgment creditor is being held in your account to give you a chance to claim an exemption.

TO CLAIM AN EXEMPTION:

Fill out, sign, and mail or deliver one copy of the attached exemption claim form to the institution which sent you this notice and mail or deliver one copy to the judgment creditor's attorney. The address for the judgment creditor's attorney is set forth below. Both copies must be mailed or delivered on the same day.

If they do not get the exemption claim back from you within 14 days of the date they mailed or gave it to you, they will be free to turn the money over to the attorney for the judgment creditor. If you are going to claim an exemption, do so as soon as possible, because your money may be held until it is decided.

IF YOU CLAIM AN EXEMPTION:

(1) nonexempt money can be turned over to the judgment creditor or sheriff;

(2) the financial institution will keep holding the money claimed to be exempt; and

(3) seven days after receiving your exemption claim, the financial institution will release the money to you unless before then it receives an objection to your exemption claim.

IF THE JUDGMENT CREDITOR OBJECTS TO YOUR EXEMPTION CLAIM:

the institution will hold the money until a court decides if your exemption claim is valid, BUT ONLY IF the institution gets a copy of your court motion papers asserting the exemption WITHIN TEN DAYS after the objection is mailed or given to you. You may wish to consult an attorney at once if the judgment creditor objects to your exemption claim.

MOTION TO DETERMINE EXEMPTION:

At any time after your funds have been held, you may ask for a court decision on the validity of your exemption claim by filing a request for hearing which may be obtained at the office of the clerk of the above court.

PENALTIES:

If you claim an exemption in bad faith, or if the judgment creditor wrongly objects to an exemption in bad faith, the court may order the person who acted in bad faith to pay costs, actual damages, attorney fees, and an additional amount of up to $100.

Subd. 2. [EFFECT OF EXEMPTION NOTICE.] Within two business days after receipt of the execution levy and exemption notices, the financial institution shall serve upon the judgment debtor two copies of the exemption notice. The financial institution shall serve the notice by first class mail to the last known address of the judgment debtor. If no claim of exemption is received by the financial institution within 14 days after the exemption notices are mailed to the judgment debtor, the funds remain subject to the execution levy and shall be remitted to the judgment creditor's attorney within seven days. If the judgment debtor elects to claim an exemption, the judgment debtor shall complete the exemption notice, sign it under penalty of perjury, and deliver one copy to the financial institution and one copy to the attorney for the judgment creditor within 14 days of the date postmarked on the correspondence mailed to the judgment debtor containing the exemption notices. Failure of the judgment debtor to deliver the executed exemption notice does not constitute a waiver of any claimed right to an exemption. Upon timely receipt of a claim of exemption, funds not claimed to be exempt by the judgment debtor remain subject to the execution levy. All money claimed to be exempt shall be released to the judgment debtor upon the expiration of seven days after the date postmarked on the envelope containing the executed exemption notice mailed to the financial institution, or the date of personal delivery of the executed exemption notice to the financial institution, unless within that time the attorney for the judgment creditor interposes an objection to the exemption.

Subd. 3. [OBJECTION TO EXEMPTION CLAIM.] Objection shall be interposed by mailing or delivering one copy of the written objection to the financial institution and one copy of the written objection to the judgment debtor along with a copy of the judgment debtor's claimed exemption form. Both copies of an objection to an exemption claim shall be mailed or delivered on the same date. The financial institution may rely on the date of mailing or delivery of a notice to it in computing any time periods in this section. The written objection must be substantially in the form specified in subdivision 5.

Subd. 4. [DUTIES OF FINANCIAL INSTITUTION IF OBJECTION IS MADE TO EXEMPTION CLAIM.] Upon receipt of a written objection from the judgment creditor within the specified seven-day period, the financial institution shall retain the funds claimed to be exempt. Unless the financial institution receives a request for hearing and notice of hearing from the judgment debtor asserting exemption rights within ten days after receipt of a written objection to the exemption, the funds remain subject to the execution levy as if no claim of exemption had been made and shall be remitted to the judgment creditor's attorney within seven days. If a request for hearing and notice of hearing to determine the validity of a claim of exemption is received by the financial institution within the period provided, it shall retain the funds claimed to be exempt until otherwise ordered by the court.

Subd. 5. [NOTICE OF OBJECTION.] (a) The written objection to the judgment debtor's claim of exemption must be in substantially the following form:

Because of this objection, your financial institution will retain the funds you claimed to be exempt for an additional ten days. If you wish to request a hearing on your exemption claim, you should do so within ten days of your receipt of this objection. You may request a hearing by completing the attached form and filing it with the court administrator.

1. The court administrator's office shall provide clerical assistance to help with the writing and filing of a Request for Hearing by any person not represented by counsel. The court administrator may charge a fee of $1 for the filing of a Request for Hearing.

2. Upon the filing of a Request for Hearing, the clerk shall schedule the matter for a hearing no later than five business days from the date of filing. The court administrator shall forthwith send a completed copy of the request, including the hearing date, time and place to the adverse party and to the financial institution by first class mail.

3. If it is possible that the financial institution might not receive the request mailed from the court administrator within ten days, then you may want to personally deliver a copy of the request to the financial institution after you have filed your request with the court.

4. An order stating whether your funds are exempt shall be issued by the court within three days of the date of the hearing.

If you do not file a Request for Hearing within ten days of the date you receive this objection, your financial institution may turn your funds over to your judgment creditor.

If you file a Request for Hearing and your financial institution receives it within ten days of the date it received this objection, your financial institution will retain your funds claimed to be exempt until otherwise ordered by the court.

Subd. 7. [RELEASE OF FUNDS.] At any time during the procedure specified in this section, the judgment debtor or the attorney for the judgment creditor may, by a writing dated after the service of the writ of execution, direct the financial institution to release the funds in question to the other party. Upon receipt of a release, the financial institution shall release the funds as directed.

Subd. 8. [SUBSEQUENT PROCEEDINGS; BAD FAITH CLAIMS.] If in subsequent proceedings brought by the judgment debtor or the judgment creditor, the claim of exemption is not upheld, and the court finds that it was asserted in bad faith, the judgment creditor shall be awarded actual damages, costs, and reasonable attorney fees resulting from the additional proceedings, and an amount not to exceed $100. If the claim of exemption is upheld, and the court finds that the judgment creditor disregarded the claim of exemption in bad faith, the judgment debtor shall be awarded costs, reasonable attorney fees, actual damages, and an amount not to exceed $100. The underlying judgment must be modified to reflect assessment of damages, costs, and attorney fees. However, if the party in whose favor a penalty assessment is made is not actually indebted to the party's attorney for fees, the attorney's fee award shall be made directly to the attorney and if not paid, an appropriate judgment in favor of the attorney shall be entered. Upon motion of any party in interest, on notice, the court shall determine the validity of any claim of exemption, and may make any order necessary to protect the rights of those interested. No financial institution is liable for damages for complying with this section. Both copies of an exemption claim or an objection to an exemption claim must be mailed or delivered on the same date. The financial institution may rely on the date of mailing or delivery of a notice to it in computing any time periods in this section.

Sec. 6. [551.06] [ATTORNEY'S SUMMARY EXECUTION UPON EARNINGS.]

Subdivision 1. [PROCEDURE.] When earnings are levied upon this section must be complied with, in addition to the general provisions specified in section 551.04.

Subd. 2. [DEFINITIONS.] For purposes of this section, the following terms have the meanings given them:

(a) "earnings" means:

(1) compensation paid or payable to an employee for personal service whether denominated as wages, salary, commissions, bonus, or otherwise, and includes periodic payments pursuant to a pension or retirement program; or

(2) compensation paid or payable to the producer for the sale of agricultural products; livestock or livestock products; milk or milk products; or fruit or other horticultural products produced when the producer is operating a family farm, a family farm corporation, or an authorized farm corporation, as defined in section 500.24, subdivision 2;

(b) "disposable earnings" means that part of the earnings of an individual remaining after the deduction from those earnings of amounts required by law to be withheld;

(c) "employee" means an individual who performs services subject to the right of the employer to control both what is done and how it is done; and

(d) "employer" means a person for whom an individual performs services as an employee.

Subd. 3. [LIMITATION ON LEVY ON EARNINGS.] Unless the judgment is for child support, the maximum part of the aggregate disposable earnings of an individual for any pay period subjected to an execution levy may not exceed the lesser of:

(1) 25 percent of the judgment debtor's disposable earnings; or

(2) the amount by which the judgment debtor's disposable earnings exceed the following product: 40 times the federal minimum hourly wages prescribed by section 6(a)(1) of the Fair Labor Standards Act of 1938, United States Code, title 29, section 206(a)(1), in effect at the time the earnings are payable, times the number of work weeks in the pay period. When a pay period consists of other than a whole number of work weeks, each day of that pay period in excess of the number of completed work weeks shall be counted as a fraction of a work week equal to the number of excess work days divided by the number of days in the normal work week.

If the judgment is for child support, the levy may not exceed:

(1) 50 percent of the judgment debtor's disposable income, if the judgment debtor is supporting a spouse or dependent child;

(2) 55 percent of the judgment debtor's disposable income, if the judgment debtor is supporting a spouse or dependent child, and the judgment is over 12 weeks old (12 weeks to be calculated to the beginning of the work week in which the execution levy is received);

(3) 60 percent of the judgment debtor's disposable income, if the judgment debtor is not supporting a spouse or dependent child; or

(4) 65 percent of the judgment debtor's disposable income, if the judgment debtor is not supporting a spouse or dependent child, and the judgment is over 12 weeks old (12 weeks to be calculated to the beginning of the work week in which the execution levy is received).

No court may make, execute, or enforce an order or any process in violation of this section.

Subd. 4. [MULTIPLE LEVIES ON EARNINGS.] Except as otherwise provided in this chapter or section 518.611, subdivision 6, the priority of multiple earnings execution levies is determined by the order in which the execution levies were served on the employer. If the employer is served with two or more writs of execution at the same time on the same day, the writ of execution issued pursuant to the first judgment entered has priority. If two or more execution levies are served on the same day, and are based on judgments entered on the same day, then the employer shall select the priority of the earnings levies. However, in all cases, the execution levies shall be effective no longer than 70 days from the date of the service of the writ of execution.

Subd. 5. [EARNINGS ATTACHABLE.] Subject to the exemptions provided by sections 550.37 and 551.06, subdivision 3, and any other applicable statute, the service of a writ of execution under this chapter attaches all unpaid nonexempt disposable earnings owing or to be owed by the third party and earned or to be earned by the judgment debtor before and within the pay period in which the writ of execution is served and within all subsequent pay periods whose paydays occur within the 70 days after the date of service of the writ of execution. "Paydays" means the days upon which the third party pays earnings to the judgment debtor in the ordinary course of business. If the judgment debtor has no regular paydays, paydays means the 15th day and the last day of each month. If the levy attaches less than $10, the third party shall not retain and remit the sum.

Subd. 6. [EARNINGS EXEMPTION NOTICE.] Before the first levy on earnings, the attorney for the judgment creditor shall serve upon the judgment debtor no less than ten days before the service of the writ of execution, a notice that the writ of execution may be served on the judgment debtor's employer. The notice must: (1) be substantially in the form set forth below; (2) be served personally, in the manner of a summons and complaint, or by first class mail to the last known address of the judgment debtor; (3) inform the judgment debtor that an execution levy may be served on the judgment debtor's employer in ten days, and that the judgment debtor may, within that time, cause to be served on the judgment creditor's attorney a signed statement under penalties of perjury asserting an entitlement to an exemption from execution; (4) inform the judgment debtor of the earnings exemptions contained in section 550.37, subdivision 14; and (5) advise the judgment debtor of the relief set forth in this chapter to which the judgment debtor may be entitled if a judgment creditor in bad faith disregards a valid claim and the fee, costs, and penalty that may be assessed against a judgment debtor who in bad faith falsely claims an exemption or in bad faith takes action to frustrate the execution process. The notice requirement of this subdivision does not apply to a levy on earnings being held by an employer pursuant to a garnishment summons served in compliance with chapter 571.

The ten-day notice informing a judgment debtor that a writ of execution may be used to levy the earnings of an individual must be substantially in the following form:

INTENT TO LEVY ON
DAYS

THE STATE OF MINNESOTA
TO THE ABOVE-NAMED JUDGMENT DEBTOR

PLEASE TAKE NOTICE that a levy may be served upon your employer or other third parties, without any further court proceedings or notice to you, ten days or more from the date hereof. Your earnings are completely exempt from execution levy if you are now a recipient of relief based on need, if you have been a recipient of relief within the last six months, or if you have been an inmate of a correctional institution in the last six months.

Relief based on need includes Aid to Families with Dependent Children (AFDC), AFDC-Emergency Assistance (AFDC-EA), Medical Assistance (MA), General Assistance (GA), General Assistance Medical Care (GAMC), Emergency General Assistance (EGA), Work Readiness, Minnesota Supplemental Aid (MSA), MSA Emergency Assistance (MSA-EA), Supplemental Security Income (SSI), and Energy Assistance.

If you wish to claim an exemption, you should fill out the appropriate form below, sign it, and send it to the judgment creditor's attorney.

You may wish to contact the attorney for the judgment creditor in order to arrange for a settlement of the debt or contact an attorney to advise you about exemptions or other rights.

PENALTIES

(1) Be advised that even if you claim an exemption, an execution levy may still be served on your employer. If your earnings are levied on after you claim an exemption, you may petition the court for a determination of your exemption. If the court finds that the judgment creditor disregarded your claim of exemption in bad faith, you will be entitled to costs, reasonable attorney fees, actual damages, and an amount not to exceed $100.

(2) HOWEVER, BE WARNED if you claim an exemption, the judgment creditor can also petition the court for a determination of your exemption, and if the court finds that you claimed an exemption in bad faith, you will be assessed costs and reasonable attorney's fees plus an amount not to exceed $100.

(3) If after receipt of this notice, you in bad faith take action to frustrate the execution levy, thus requiring the judgment creditor to petition the court to resolve the problem, you will be liable to the judgment creditor for costs and reasonable attorney's fees plus an amount not to exceed $100.

Subd. 7. [ADDITIONAL NOTICES.] If the execution levy has not been served within one year after service of the exemption notice, the judgment creditor's attorney shall serve another notice upon the judgment debtor before serving the execution levy on the judgment debtor's employer. If more than one year has passed since the service of the judgment creditor's most recent execution levy, the judgment creditor shall, no less than ten days before service of a subsequent execution levy, serve notice that another execution levy may be served.

Subd. 8. [PROCEEDINGS IF NO EXEMPTION STATEMENT IS RECEIVED.] If no statement of exemption is received by the attorney for the judgment creditor on an earnings levy within ten days from the service of the notice, the attorney for the judgment creditor may proceed with the execution levy. Failure of the judgment debtor to serve a statement does not constitute a waiver of any right the judgment debtor may have to an exemption. If the statement of exemption is received by the attorney for the judgment creditor, the attorney may still cause a levy to be served subject to sanctions provided in section 551.05, subdivision 8.

Subd. 9. [NOTICE OF LEVY ON EARNINGS, DISCLOSURE, AND WORKSHEET.] The attorney for the judgment creditor shall serve upon the judgment debtor's employer a notice of levy on earnings and an execution earnings disclosure form and an earnings disclosure worksheet with the writ of execution, that must be substantially in the form set forth below.

DISCLOSURE

DEFINITIONS

“EARNINGS”: For the purpose of execution, “earnings” means compensation paid or payable to an employee for personal services or compensation paid or payable to the producer for the sale of agricultural products; milk or milk products; or fruit or other horticultural products produced when the producer is operating a family farm, a family farm corporation, or an authorized farm corporation, as defined in section 500.24, subdivision 2, whether denominated as wages, salary, commission, bonus, or otherwise, and includes periodic payments pursuant to a pension or retirement.

“DISPOSABLE EARNINGS”: Means that part of the earnings of an individual remaining after the deduction from those earnings of amounts required by law to be withheld. (Amounts required by law to be withheld do not include items such as health insurance, charitable contributions, or other voluntary wage deductions.)

“PAYDAY”: For the purpose of execution, “payday(s)” means the date(s) upon which the employer pays earnings to the judgment debtor in the ordinary course of business. If the judgment debtor has no regular payday, payday(s) means the 15th and the last day of each month.

THE THIRD PARTY/EMPLOYER MUST ANSWER THE FOLLOWING QUESTIONS:

1. Do you now owe, or within 70 days from the date the execution levy was served on you, will you or may you owe money to the judgment debtor for earnings?

Yes No

2. Does the judgment debtor earn more than $. . . per week? (This amount is the federal minimum wage per week.)

Yes No

INSTRUCTIONS FOR COMPLETING THE EARNINGS DISCLOSURE

A. If your answer to either questions 1 or 2 is "No," then you must sign the affirmation on page 2 and return this disclosure to the judgment creditor's attorney within 20 days after it was served on you, and you do not need to answer the remaining questions.

B. If your answers to both questions 1 and 2 are "Yes," you must complete this form and the Earnings Disclosure Worksheet as follows:

For each payday that falls within 70 days from the date the execution levy was served on you, YOU MUST calculate the amount of earnings to be retained by completing steps 3 through 11 on page 2, and enter the amounts on the Earnings Disclosure Worksheet. UPON REQUEST, THE EMPLOYER MUST PROVIDE THE DEBTOR WITH INFORMATION AS TO HOW THE CALCULATIONS REQUIRED BY THIS DISCLOSURE WERE MADE.

Each payday, you must retain the amount of earnings listed in column I on the Earnings Disclosure Worksheet.

You must pay the attached earnings and return this Earnings Disclosure Form and the Earnings Disclosure Worksheet to the judgment creditor's attorney and deliver a copy to the judgment debtor within ten days after the last payday that falls within the 70-day period.

If the judgment is wholly satisfied or if the judgment debtor's employment ends before the expiration of the 70-day period, your disclosure and remittance should be made within ten days after the last payday for which earnings were attached.

For steps 3 through 11, "columns" refers to columns on the Earnings Disclosure Worksheet.

3. COLUMN A. Enter the date of judgment debtor's payday.
4. COLUMN B. Enter judgment debtor's gross earnings for each payday.
5. COLUMN C. Enter judgment debtor's disposable earnings for each payday.
6. COLUMN D. Enter 25 percent of disposable earnings. (Multiply Column C by .25.)
7. COLUMN E. Enter here 40 times the hourly federal minimum wage ($. . .) times the number of work weeks included in each payday. (Note: If a pay period includes days in excess of whole work weeks, the additional days should be counted as a fraction of a work week equal to the number of work days in excess of a whole work week divided by the number of work days in a normal work week.)
8. COLUMN F. Subtract the amount in Column E from the amount in Column C, and enter here.
9. COLUMN G. Enter here the lesser of the amount in Column D and the amount in Column F.
10. COLUMN H. Enter here any amount claimed by you as a setoff, defense, lien, or claim, or any amount claimed by any other person as an exemption or adverse interest which would reduce the amount of earnings owing to the judgment debtor. (Note: Any indebtedness to you, or any assignment of wages, that was incurred or made by the judgment debtor within ten days before your receipt of the execution levy is void.)

You must also describe your claim(s) and the claims of others, if known, in the space provided below the worksheet and state the name(s) and address(es) of these persons.

Enter zero in Column H if there are no claims by you or others which would reduce the amount of earnings owing to the judgment debtor.

11. COLUMN I.

Subtract the amount in Column H from the amount in Column G and enter here. This is the amount of earnings that you must retain for the payday for which the calculations were made. The total of all amounts entered in Column I is the amount to be remitted to the attorney for the judgment creditor.

DISCLOSUREDEFINITIONS

"EARNINGS": For the purpose of execution, "earnings" means compensation paid or payable to an employee for personal services or compensation paid or payable to the producer for the sale of agricultural products; milk or milk products; or fruit or other horticultural products produced when the producer is operating a family farm, a family farm corporation, or an authorized farm corporation, as defined in section 500.24, subdivision 2, whether denominated as wages, salary, commission, bonus, or otherwise, and includes periodic payments pursuant to a pension or retirement, workers' compensation, or unemployment compensation.

"DISPOSABLE EARNINGS": Means that part of the earnings of an individual remaining after the deduction from those earnings of amounts required by law to be withheld. (Amounts required by law to be withheld do not include items such as health insurance, charitable contributions, or other voluntary wage deductions.)

"PAYDAY": For the purpose of execution, "payday(s)" means the date(s) upon which the employer pays earnings to the debtor in the ordinary course of business. If the judgment debtor has no regular payday, payday(s) means the 15th and the last day of each month.

THE THIRD PARTY/EMPLOYER MUST ANSWER THE FOLLOWING QUESTION:

(1) Do you now owe, or within 70 days from the date the execution levy was served on you, will you or may you owe money to the judgment debtor for earnings?

Yes

.....
No

INSTRUCTIONS FOR COMPLETING THE EARNINGS DISCLOSURE

A. If your answer to question 1 is "No," then you must sign the affirmation below and return this disclosure to the judgment creditor's attorney within 20 days after it was served on you, and you do not need to answer the remaining questions.

B. If your answer to question 1 is "Yes," you must complete this form and the Earnings Disclosure Worksheet as follows:

For each payday that falls within 70 days from the date the execution levy was served on you, YOU MUST calculate the amount of earnings to be retained by completing steps 2 through 8 on page 2, and enter the amounts on the Earnings Disclosure Worksheet. UPON REQUEST, THE EMPLOYER MUST PROVIDE THE DEBTOR WITH INFORMATION AS TO HOW THE CALCULATIONS REQUIRED BY THIS DISCLOSURE WERE MADE.

Each payday, you must retain the amount of earnings listed in column G on the Earnings Disclosure Worksheet.

You must pay the attached earnings and return this earnings disclosure form and the Earnings Disclosure Worksheet to the judgment creditor's attorney and deliver a copy of the disclosure and worksheet to the judgment debtor within ten days after the last payday that falls within the 70-day period. If the judgment is wholly satisfied or if the judgment debtor's employment ends before the expiration of the 70-day period, your disclosure and remittance should be made within ten days after the last payday for which earnings were attached.

For steps 2 through 8, "columns" refers to columns on the Earnings Disclosure Worksheet.

(2) COLUMN A. Enter the date of judgment debtor's payday.

(3) COLUMN B. Enter judgment debtor's gross earnings for each payday.

(4) COLUMN C. Enter judgment debtor's disposable earnings for each payday.

(5) COLUMN D. Enter either 50, 55, 60, or 65 percent of disposable earnings, based on which of the following descriptions fits the child support judgment debtor:

(a) 50 percent of the judgment debtor's disposable income, if the judgment debtor is supporting a spouse or dependent child;

(b) 55 percent of the judgment debtor's disposable income, if the judgment debtor is supporting a spouse or dependent child, and the judgment is over 12 weeks old (12 weeks to be calculated to the beginning of the work week in which the execution levy is received);

(c) 60 percent of the judgment debtor's disposable income, if the judgment debtor is not supporting a spouse or dependent child; or

(d) 65 percent of the judgment debtor's disposable income, if the judgment debtor is not supporting a spouse or dependent child, and the judgment is over 12 weeks old (12 weeks to be calculated to the beginning of the work week in which the execution levy is received). (Multiply column C by .50, .55, .60, or .65, as appropriate.)

(6) COLUMN E. Subtract the amount in column D from the amount in column C, and enter here.

(7) COLUMN F. Enter here any amount claimed by you as a setoff, defense, lien, or claim, or any amount claimed by any other person as an exemption or adverse interest that would reduce the amount of earnings owing to the judgment debtor. (Note: Any indebtedness to you, or any assignment of wages, that was incurred or made by the judgment debtor within ten days prior to your receipt of the execution levy is void.)

You must also describe your claim(s) and the claims of others, if known, in the space provided below the worksheet and state the name(s) and address(es) of these persons.

Enter zero in column F if there are no claims by you or others that would reduce the amount of earnings owing to the judgment debtor.

(8) COLUMN G. Subtract the amount in column F from the amount in column E and enter here. This is the amount of earnings that you must remit for the payday for which the calculations were made.

Subd. 11. [POSTEXECUTION NOTICE TO JUDGMENT DEBTOR.] The attorney for the judgment creditor shall serve by mail upon the judgment debtor not later than five days after service is made on the judgment debtor's employer, a copy of the writ of execution and copies of all other papers served on the judgment debtor's employer.

Subd. 12. [THIRD PARTY DISCLOSURE AND REMITTANCE OBLIGATION.] If there are no attachable earnings, the third party shall serve the execution earnings disclosure form upon the attorney for the judgment creditor within 20 days after service of the writ of execution. However, if the judgment debtor has attachable earnings, the third party shall serve the execution earnings disclosure form upon both the attorney for the judgment creditor and the judgment debtor and remit to the attorney for the judgment creditor the attached earnings within ten days of the last payday to occur within the 70 days after the date of the service of the writ of execution. If the judgment is wholly satisfied or if the judgment debtor's employment ends before the expiration of the 70-day period, the disclosure and remittance should be made within ten days after the last payday for which earnings were attached. The amount of the third party's execution earnings disclosure form and remittance need not exceed 100 percent of the amount of the judgment creditor's judgment that remains unpaid, after subtracting the total of setoffs, defenses, exemption, or other adverse interests. If the disclosure is by a corporation, it shall be made by an officer or a managing agent having knowledge of the facts.

Subd. 13. [PENALTY FOR RETALIATION FOR EXECUTION.]
(a) An employer shall not discharge or otherwise discipline an employee as a result of an earnings levy authorized by this chapter.

(b) If an employer violates this section, a court may order the reinstatement of an aggrieved party who demonstrates a violation of this section, and other relief the court considers appropriate. The aggrieved party may bring a civil action within 90 days of the date of the prohibited action. If an employer-employee relationship existed before the violation of this section, the employee shall recover twice the wages lost as a result of this violation.

(c) The rights guaranteed by this section are not subject to abridgment and may not be altered by employment contract.

Subd. 14. [PUBLIC EMPLOYEES, LEVY ON EARNINGS.] The salary or earnings of any public employee or officer may be levied upon pursuant to this chapter. Where the person is an officer, the writ shall be served upon the auditor, treasurer, or clerk of the subdivision or department of which the person is an officer. Where the person is an employee other than an officer, the writ must be served upon the person in charge of the office or department in which the employee works.

When payment has been made pursuant to levy, a copy of the execution with certificate of satisfaction shall be delivered to the treasurer as a voucher for such payment.

Sec. 7. [EFFECTIVE DATE.]

Sections 1 to 6 are effective October 1, 1989, and apply to attorney's summary executions begun on or after that date.

ARTICLE 3
GARNISHMENTS

Section 1. [571.71] [GARNISHMENT: WHEN AUTHORIZED.]

As an ancillary proceeding to a civil action for the recovery of money, a creditor may issue a garnishment summons as provided in this chapter against any third party in the following instances:

(1) at the time the civil action is commenced or at any time after the commencement of the civil action, but before the entry of a judgment, if the court orders the issuance of the garnishment summons pursuant to section 571.93;

(2) at any time 40 days or more after service of the summons and complaint upon the debtor in the civil action when a judgment by default could have, but has not, been entered pursuant to Rule 55.01(a) of the Minnesota Rules of Civil Procedure for the District Courts. No filing of a pleading or other documents by the creditor is required to issue a garnishment summons under this clause; however, the creditor must comply with the service requirement of section 571.72, subdivision 4; or

(3) at any time after entry of a money judgment in the civil action.

Sec. 2. [571.711] [SCOPE OF GENERAL AND SPECIFIC PROVISIONS.]

General provisions and definitions relating to all garnishment proceedings, as authorized in this chapter, are set forth in sections 571.71 to 571.90. Specific provisions relating to garnishments involving financial institutions are set forth in sections 571.911 to 571.915. Specific provisions relating to the garnishment of earnings are set forth in sections 571.92 to 571.927. When a garnishment summons is issued against either earnings or funds in a financial institution, the applicable provisions cited in this chapter must be complied with in addition to the general provisions and definitions relating to all garnishment proceedings. Provisions contained in the statutory forms are incorporated in this chapter and have the same force of law as any other provision in this chapter.

Sec. 3. [571.712] [DEFINITIONS.]

Subdivision 1. [SCOPE.] For the purposes of this chapter, the terms defined in this section have the meanings given them.

Subd. 2. (a) "Creditor" means the party who has a claim for the recovery of money in the civil action whether that party is the plaintiff, defendant, or other party in the civil action and who is issuing or requesting the issuance of a garnishment summons.

(b) "Debtor" means a party against whom the creditor has a claim for the recovery of money in the civil action whether that party is the plaintiff, defendant, or other party in the civil action.

(c) "Garnishee" means the third party upon whom the garnishment summons is served.

(d) "Claim" means the unpaid balance of the creditor's judgment against the debtor or, in a prejudgment garnishment proceeding, the unpaid balance of the creditor's claim against the debtor and all lawful interest and costs and disbursements paid or incurred in the civil action or in the garnishment proceedings.

Subd. 3. [DESIGNATION OF PARTIES.] Each pleading or other document in the ancillary proceeding of garnishment must designate each party as creditor or debtor or garnishee.

Sec. 4. [571.72] [GENERAL GARNISHMENT PROVISIONS.]

Subdivision 1. [RULES OF CIVIL PROCEDURE.] Unless this chapter specifically provides otherwise, the Rules of Civil Procedure for the District Courts shall apply in all proceedings under this chapter.

Subd. 2. [SERVICE OF A GARNISHMENT SUMMONS.] To enforce a claim asserted in a civil action venued in a court of record, a garnishment summons may be issued by a creditor and served upon the garnishee in the same manner as other summons in that court of record, except that service may not be made by publication. Service of a garnishment summons on the garnishee may also be made by certified mail, return receipt requested. The effective date of service by certified mail is the time of receipt by the garnishee. A single garnishment summons may be addressed to two or more garnishees but must state whether each is summoned separately or jointly.

The garnishment summons must state:

(1) the full name of the debtor, the debtor's last known mailing address, and the amount of the claim that remains unpaid;

(2) the date of the entry of judgment against the debtor or that the debtor is in default pursuant to Rule 55.01 of the Minnesota Rules of Civil Procedure for the District Courts. Where there is a pre-judgment garnishment pursuant to section 571.93, the garnishment summons must include a copy of the court order;

(3) if the garnishment is on any indebtedness, money, or property other than earnings, the garnishee shall serve upon the creditor and upon the debtor within 20 days after service of the garnishment summons, a written disclosure, of the garnishee's indebtedness, money, or other property owing to the debtor and answers to all written interrogatories that are served with the garnishment summons. The garnishment summons shall also state that if the garnishment is on earnings and the debtor has garnishable earnings, the garnishee shall serve the disclosure within ten days of the last payday to occur within the 70 days after the date of service of the garnishment summons;

(4) that the creditor shall not require disclosure of the disposable earnings, indebtedness, money, or property of debtor in the garnishee's possession or under the garnishee's control in excess of 110 percent of the amount of the claim that remains unpaid;

(5) that the garnishee shall retain disposable earnings, indebtedness, money, or property of the debtor in the garnishee's possession or under the garnishee's control not in excess of 110 percent of the amount of the claim that remains unpaid, until the creditor causes a writ of execution to be served upon the garnishee, until the debtor authorizes release to the creditor, upon court order, or by operation of law;

(6) that after the expiration of the period of time specified in section 571.79 from the date of service of the garnishment summons, the garnishee's retention obligation automatically expires;

(7) that an assignment of wages made by the debtor or indebtedness to the garnishee incurred by the debtor within ten days before the service of the first garnishment summons on a debt is void.

Subd. 3. [REPRESENTATION BY AN ATTORNEY.] Whenever a creditor is represented by an attorney, a responsive pleading or document from the garnishee or debtor under this chapter must be served on the creditor's attorney.

Subd. 4. [SERVICE OF GARNISHMENT SUMMONS ON DEBTOR.] A copy of the garnishment summons and copies of all other papers served on the garnishee must be served by mail at the last known mailing address of the debtor not later than five days after the service is made upon the garnishee. The first time a garnishment summons is served on the debtor pursuant to section 571.71, clause (2), the creditor shall also serve a copy of the affidavit of service of the original summons and complaint. Service of the garnishment documents on the debtor is effective upon mailing.

Subd. 5. [GARNISHMENT DISCLOSURE FORM.] The creditor shall serve with the garnishment summons the applicable garnishment disclosure form substantially in the form set forth in section 571.75. The creditor may also serve written interrogatories with the garnishment summons.

Subd. 6. [BAD FAITH CLAIM.] If, in a proceeding brought under section 571.91, or a similar proceeding under this chapter to determine a claim of exemption, the claim of exemption is not upheld, and the court finds that it was asserted in bad faith, the creditor shall be awarded actual damages, costs, reasonable attorney fees resulting from the additional proceedings, and an amount not to exceed $100. If the claim of exemption is upheld, and the court finds that the creditor disregarded the claim of exemption in bad faith, the debtor shall be awarded actual damages, costs, reasonable attorney fees resulting from the additional proceedings, and an amount not to exceed $100. The underlying judgment shall be modified to reflect assessment of damages, costs, and attorney fees. However, if the party in whose favor a penalty assessment is made is not actually indebted to that party's attorney for fees, the attorney's fee award shall be made directly to the attorney and if not paid an appropriate judgment in favor of the attorney shall be entered.

Subd. 7. [FORMS.] No creditor shall use a form that contains alterations or changes from the statutory forms that mislead debtors as to their rights and the garnishment procedure generally. If a court finds that a creditor has used a misleading form, the debtor shall be awarded actual damages, costs, reasonable attorney's fees resulting from additional proceedings, and an amount not to exceed $100. All forms must be clearly legible and printed in not less than the equivalent of 10-point type. A form that uses both sides of a sheet must clearly indicate on the front side that there is additional information on the back side of the sheet.

Subd. 8. [EXEMPTION NOTICE.] In every garnishment where the debtor is a natural person, the debtor shall be provided with a garnishment exemption notice. If the creditor is garnishing earnings, the earnings exemption notice provided in section 571.924 must be served ten or more days before the service of the first garnishment summons. If the creditor is garnishing funds in a financial institution, the exemption notice provided in section 571.912 must be served with the garnishment summons. In all other cases, the exemption notice must be in the following form and served on the debtor with a copy of the garnishment summons.

.....(Garnishee)

A Garnishment Summons is being served upon you. Some of your property may be exempt and cannot be garnished. The following is a list of some of the more common exemptions. It is not complete and is subject to section 550.37 of the Minnesota Statutes and other state and federal laws. The dollar amounts contained in this list are subject to the provisions of section 550.37, subdivision 4a, at the time of garnishment. If you have questions about an exemption, you should obtain legal advice.

(1) a homestead or the proceeds from the sale of a homestead;

(2) household furniture, appliances, phonographs, radios, and televisions up to a total current value of $5,850;

(3) a manufactured (mobile) home used as your home;

(4) one motor vehicle currently worth less than $2,600 after deducting any security interest;

(5) farm machinery used by an individual principally engaged in farming, or tools, machines, or office furniture used in your business or trade. This exemption is limited to $13,000;

(6) relief based on need. This includes:

(i) Aid to Families with Dependent Children (AFDC);

(ii) AFDC-Emergency Assistance (AFDC-EA);

(iii) Medical Assistance (MA);

(iv) General Assistance (GA);

(v) General Assistance Medical Care (GAMC);

- (vi) Emergency General Assistance (EGA);
- (vii) Work Readiness, Minnesota Supplemental AID (MSA);
- (viii) MSA-Emergency Assistance (MSA-EA);
- (ix) Supplemental Security Income (SSI); and
- (x) Energy Assistance;
- (7) social security benefits;
- (8) unemployment compensation, workers' compensation, or veteran's benefits;
- (9) an accident, disability, or retirement pension or annuity;
- (10) life insurance proceeds;
- (11) earnings of your minor child; and
- (12) money from a claim for damage or destruction of exempt property (such as household goods, farm tools, business equipment, a manufactured (mobile) home, or a car.)

Subd. 9. [MOTION TO DETERMINE OBJECTIONS.] Upon motion of any party in interest, on notice, the court shall determine the validity of any claim of exemption and may make any order necessary to protect the rights of those interested.

Sec. 5. [571.73] [PROPERTY ATTACHABLE BY GARNISHMENT; GOOD FAITH REQUIREMENT.]

Subdivision 1. [RETENTION OBLIGATION.] Except as provided in subdivision 4 and section 571.79, service of the garnishment summons upon the garnishee shall obligate the garnishee to retain possession and control of the disposable earnings, indebtedness, money, and property of the debtor specified in subdivision 3, except that the garnishee shall not retain possession and control of disposable earnings, indebtedness, money, or property of the debtor in the garnishee's possession or under the garnishee's control in excess of 110 percent of the amount claimed by the creditor in the garnishment summons.

Subd. 2. [GARNISHEE GOOD FAITH REQUIREMENT.] The garnishee is not liable to the debtor, creditor, or other person for wrongful retention if the garnishee retains disposable earnings, indebtedness, money, or property of the debtor or any other person, pending the garnishee's disclosure or consistent with the disclosure the garnishee makes, if the garnishee has a good faith belief that the property retained is subject to the garnishment summons. In addition, the garnishee may, at any time before or after disclosure, proceed under Rule 67 of the Minnesota Rules of Civil Procedure for the District Courts to make deposit into court. No garnishee is liable for damages if the garnishee complies with the provisions of this chapter.

Subd. 3. [PROPERTY ATTACHABLE.] Subject to the exemptions provided by sections 550.37 and 571.922 and any other applicable statute, the service of a garnishment summons under this chapter attaches:

(1) all unpaid nonexempt disposable earnings owed or to be owed by the garnishee and earned or to be earned by the debtor within the pay period in which the garnishment summons is served and within all subsequent pay periods whose paydays occur within the 70 days after the date of service of the garnishment summons. "Payday" means the day upon which the garnishee pays earnings to the debtor in the ordinary course of business. If the debtor has no regular paydays, "payday" means the 15th day and the last day of each month;

(2) all other nonexempt indebtedness, money or other property due or belonging to the debtor and owing by the garnishee or in the possession or under the control of the garnishee at the time of service of the garnishment summons, whether or not the same has become payable. The garnishee shall not be compelled to pay or deliver the same before the time specified by any agreement unless the agreement was fraudulently contracted to defeat a garnishment or other collection remedy; and

(3) all other nonexempt intangible or tangible personal property of the debtor in the possession or under the control of the garnishee at the time of service of the garnishment summons, including property of any kind due from or in the hands of an executor, administrator, personal representative, receiver, or trustee, and all written evidences of indebtedness whether or not negotiable or not yet underdue or overdue.

Subd. 4. [PROPERTY NOT ATTACHABLE.] The following property is not subject to attachment by garnishment:

(1) any indebtedness, money, or other property due to the debtor, unless at the time of the garnishment summons the same is due absolutely or does not depend upon any contingency;

(2) any judgment in favor of the debtor against the garnishee, if the garnishee or the garnishee's property is liable on an execution levy upon the judgment;

(3) any debt owed by the garnishee to the debtor for which any negotiable instrument has been issued or endorsed by the garnishee;

(4) any indebtedness, money, or other property due to the debtor where the debtor is a bank, savings bank, trust company, credit union, savings and loan association, or industrial loan and thrift companies with deposit liabilities;

(5) any indebtedness, money, or other property due to the debtor with a cumulative value of less than $10; and

(6) any disposable earnings, indebtedness, money, or property that is exempt under Minnesota or federal law.

Sec. 6. [571.74] [GARNISHMENT SUMMONS AND NOTICE TO DEBTOR.]

The garnishment summons and notice to debtor must be substantially in the following form. The notice to debtor must be in no smaller than 14-point type.

GARNISHMENT SUMMONS

The State of Minnesota

To the Garnishee named above:

You are hereby summoned and required to serve upon the creditor's attorney (or the creditor if not represented by an attorney) and on the debtor within 20 days after service of this garnishment summons upon you, a written disclosure, of the indebtedness, money, or other property that you owe to the debtor and answers to all written interrogatories that are served with the garnishment summons. However, if the garnishment is on earnings and the debtor has garnishable earnings, you shall serve the completed disclosure form on the creditor's attorney, or the creditor if not represented by an attorney, within ten days of the last payday to occur within the 70 days after the date of the service of this garnishment summons. "Payday" means the day which you pay earnings in the ordinary course of business. If the debtor has no regular paydays, "payday" means the 15th day and the last day of each month.

Your disclosure need not exceed 110 percent of the amount of the creditor's claim that remains unpaid.

You shall retain garnishable earnings, other indebtedness, money, or other property in your possession in an amount not to exceed 110 percent of the creditor's claim until such time as the creditor causes a writ of execution to be served upon you, until the debtor authorizes you in writing to release the property to the creditor, or until the expiration of days from the date of service of this garnishment summons upon you, at which time you shall return the disposable earnings, other indebtedness, money, or other property to the debtor.

EARNINGS

In the event you are summoned as a garnishee because you owe "earnings" (as defined on the Earnings Garnishment Disclosure form attached to this Garnishment Summons, if applicable) to the debtor, then you are required to serve upon the creditor's attorney, or the creditor if not represented by an attorney, a written earnings disclosure form within the time limit set forth above.

In the case of earnings you are further required to retain in your possession all unpaid nonexempt disposable earnings owed or to be owed by you and earned or to be earned to the debtor within the pay period in which this garnishment summons in served and within all subsequent pay periods whose paydays (defined above) occur within the 70 days after the date of service of this garnishment summons.

Any assignment of earnings made by the debtor to any party, or any indebtedness to you incurred by the debtor within the ten days before the receipt of the first garnishment on a debt is void as to the creditor.

You are prohibited by law from discharging or disciplining the debtor because the debtor's earnings have been subject to garnishment.

This Garnishment Summons includes:

(check applicable box)

- Earnings garnishment
(see attached Earnings Disclosure Form)
- Nonearnings garnishment
(see attached Nonearnings Disclosure Form)

..... Both Earnings and Nonearnings garnishment (see both attached Earning and Nonearnings Disclosure Form)

Sec. 7. [571.75] [GARNISHEE DISCLOSURE.]

Subdivision 1. [GARNISHEE TO DISCLOSE.] The garnishee shall serve on both the creditor and the debtor, within 20 days after service of the garnishment summons, a written disclosure of the garnishee's indebtedness, money, or other property owing to the debtor. However, if the garnishment is on earnings and the debtor has garnishable earnings, the garnishee shall serve the disclosure and earnings disclosure worksheet within ten days after the last payday to occur within the 70 days after the date of the service of this garnishment summons. "Payday" means the day upon which the garnishee pays earnings to the debtor in the ordinary course of business. If the debtor has no regular paydays, "payday" means the 15th day and the last day of each month. The amount of the garnishee's disclosure need not exceed 110 percent of the amount of the creditor's claim that remains unpaid, after subtracting the total of setoffs, defenses, exemptions, ownership claims, or other interests. The answers to the garnishment disclosure form may be served personally or by first class mail. If the disclosure is by a corporation, it shall be made by an officer, managing agent, or other authorized person having knowledge of the facts.

Subd. 2. [CONTENTS OF DISCLOSURE.] The disclosure must state:

(a) If an earnings garnishment disclosure, the amount of disposable earnings earned by the debtor within the debtor's pay periods as specified in section 571.921.

(b) If a nonearnings garnishment disclosure, a description of any personal property or any instrument or papers relating to this property belonging to the judgment debtor or in which the debtor is interested or other indebtedness of the garnishee to the debtor.

(c) If the garnishee asserts any setoff, defense, claim, or lien on disposable earnings, other indebtedness, money, or property, the garnishee shall disclose the amount and the facts concerning the same.

(d) Whether the debtor asserts any exemption, or any other objection, known to the garnishee against the right of the creditor to garnish the disposable earnings, other indebtedness, money, or property disclosed.

(e) If other persons assert claims to any disposable earnings, other indebtedness, money, or property disclosed, the garnishee shall disclose the names and addresses of these claimants and, so far as known by the garnishee, the nature of their claims.

(f) The garnishment disclosure forms and earnings disclosure worksheet must be the same or substantially similar to the following forms. If the garnishment affects earnings of the debtor, the creditor shall use the earnings garnishment disclosure form. If the garnishment affects any indebtedness, money, or property of the debtor, other than earnings, the creditor shall use the nonearnings garnishment disclosure form. Nothing contained in this paragraph limits the simultaneous use of the earnings and nonearnings garnishment disclosure forms.

EARNINGS DISCLOSURE

DEFINITIONS

"EARNINGS": For the purpose of garnishment, "earnings" means compensation paid or payable to an employee for personal services or compensation paid or payable to the producer for the sale of agricultural products; milk or milk products; or fruit or other horticultural products produced when the producer is operating a family farm, a family farm corporation or an authorized farm corporation, as defined in section 500.24, subdivision 2, whether denominated as wages, salary, commission, bonus, or otherwise, and includes periodic payments pursuant to a pension or retirement.

“DISPOSABLE EARNINGS”: Means that part of the earnings of an individual remaining after the deduction from those earnings of amounts required by law to be withheld. (Amounts required by law to be withheld do not include items such as health insurance, charitable contributions, or other voluntary wage deductions.)

“PAYDAY”: For the purpose of garnishment, “payday(s)” means the date(s) upon which the employer pays earnings to the debtor in the ordinary course of business. If the debtor has no regular payday, payday(s) means the fifteenth and the last day of each month.

THE GARNISHEE MUST ANSWER THE FOLLOWING QUESTIONS:

1. Do you now owe, or within 70 days from the date the garnishment summons was served on you, will you or do you expect to owe money to the debtor for earnings?

Yes No

2. Does the debtor earn more than $ per week? (This amount is the federal minimum wage per week.)

Yes No

INSTRUCTIONS FOR COMPLETING THE EARNINGS DISCLOSURE

A. If your answer to either questions 1 or 2 is “No,” then you must sign the affirmation on Page 2 and return this disclosure to the creditor’s attorney (or the creditor if not represented by an attorney) within 20 days after it was served on you, and you do not need to answer the remaining questions.

B. If your answers to both questions 1 and 2 are “Yes,” you must complete this form and the Earnings Disclosure Worksheet as follows:

For each payday that falls within 70 days from the date the garnishment summons was served on you, YOU MUST calculate the amount of earnings to be retained by completing Steps 3 through 11, and enter the amounts on the Earnings Disclosure Worksheet. UPON REQUEST, THE EMPLOYER MUST PROVIDE THE DEBTOR WITH INFORMATION AS TO HOW THE

CALCULATIONS REQUIRED BY THIS DISCLOSURE WERE MADE.

Each payday, you must retain the amount of earnings listed in Column I on the Earnings Disclosure Worksheet.

You must return this Earnings Disclosure Form and the Earnings Disclosure Worksheet to the creditor's attorney (or the creditor if not represented by an attorney) and deliver a copy to the debtor within ten days after the last payday that falls within the 70-day period.

If the claim is wholly satisfied or if the debtor's employment ends before the expiration of the 70-day period, your disclosure should be made within ten days after the last payday for which earnings were attached.

For Steps 3 through 11, "Columns" refers to columns on the Earnings Disclosure Worksheet.

3. COLUMN A. Enter the date of debtor's payday.
4. COLUMN B. Enter debtor's gross earnings for each payday.
5. COLUMN C. Enter debtor's disposable earnings for each payday.
6. COLUMN D. Enter 25 percent of disposable earnings. (Multiply Column C by .25.)
7. COLUMN E. Enter here 40 times the hourly federal minimum wage ($. . .) times the number of work weeks included in each payday. (Note: If a pay period includes days in excess of whole work weeks, the additional days should be counted as a fraction of a work week equal to the number of work days in excess of a whole work week divided by the number of work days in a normal work week.)
8. COLUMN F. Subtract the amount in Column E from the amount in Column C, and enter here.
9. COLUMN G. Enter here the lesser of the amount in Column D and the amount in Column F.

10. COLUMN H.

Enter here any amount claimed by you as a setoff, defense, lien, or claim, or any amount claimed by any other person as an exemption or adverse interest which would reduce the amount of earnings owing to the debtor. (Note: Any indebtedness to you, or any assignment of wages, that was incurred or made by the debtor within ten days before your receipt of the garnishment summons is void.)

You must also describe your claim(s) and the claims of others, if known, in the space provided below the worksheet and state the name(s) and address(es) of these persons.

Enter zero in Column H if there are no claims by you or others which would reduce the amount of earnings owing to the debtor.

11. COLUMN I.

Subtract the amount in Column H from the amount in Column G and enter here. This is the amount of earnings that you must retain for the payday for which the calculations were made.

No

INSTRUCTIONS FOR COMPLETING THE EARNINGS DISCLOSURE

A. If your answer to question 1 is “No,” then you must sign the affirmation below and return this disclosure to the creditor’s attorney (or the creditor if not represented by an attorney) within 20 days after it was served on you, and you do not need to answer the remaining questions.

B. If your answer to question 1 is “Yes,” you must complete this form and the Earnings Disclosure Worksheet as follows:

For each payday that falls within 70 days from the date the garnishment summons was served on you, YOU MUST calculate the amount of earnings to be retained by completing steps 2 through 8 on page 2, and enter the amounts on the Earnings Disclosure Worksheet. UPON REQUEST, THE EMPLOYER MUST PROVIDE THE DEBTOR WITH INFORMATION AS TO HOW THE CALCULATIONS REQUIRED BY THIS DISCLOSURE WERE MADE. Each payday, you must retain the amount of earnings listed in column G on the Earnings Disclosure Worksheet. You must pay the attached earnings and return this earnings disclosure form and the Earnings Disclosure Worksheet to the creditor’s attorney (or the creditor if not represented by an attorney) and deliver a copy to the debtor within ten days after the last payday that falls within the 70-day period. If the claim is wholly satisfied or if the debtor’s employment ends before the expiration of the 70-day period, your disclosure should be made within ten days after the last payday for which earnings were attached. For steps 2 through 8, "columns" refers to columns on the Earnings Disclosure Worksheet.

(2) COLUMN A. Enter the date of debtor's payday.

(3) COLUMN B. Enter debtor's gross earnings for each payday.

(4) COLUMN C. Enter debtor's disposable earnings for each payday.

(5) COLUMN D. Enter either 50, 55, 60, or 65 percent of disposable earnings, based on which of the following descriptions fits the child support judgment debtor:

(a) 50 percent of the judgment debtor's disposable income, if the judgment debtor is supporting a spouse or dependent child;

(b) 55 percent of the judgment debtor's disposable income, if the judgment debtor is supporting a spouse or dependent child, and the judgment is over 12 weeks old (12 weeks to be calculated to the beginning of the work week in which the execution levy is received);

(c) 60 percent of the judgment debtor's disposable income, if the judgment debtor is not supporting a spouse or dependent child; or

(d) 65 percent of the judgment debtor's disposable income, if the judgment debtor is not supporting a spouse or dependent child, and the judgment is over 12 weeks old (12 weeks to be calculated to the beginning of the work week in which the execution levy is received). (Multiply column C by .50, .55, .60, or .65, as appropriate.)

(6) COLUMN E. Subtract the amount in column D from the amount in column C, and enter here.

(7) COLUMN F. Enter here any amount claimed by you as a setoff, defense, lien, or claim, or any amount claimed by any other person as an exemption or adverse interest that would reduce the amount of earnings owing to the debtor. (Note: Any indebtedness to you, or any assignment of wages, that was incurred or made by the debtor within ten days prior to your receipt of the execution levy is void.)

You must also describe your claim(s) and the claims of others, if known, in the space provided below the worksheet and state the name(s) and address(es) of these persons.

Enter zero in column F if there are no claims by you or others that would reduce the amount of earnings owing to the judgment debtor.

Subd. 3. [ORAL DISCLOSURE.] Before or after the service of a written disclosure by a garnishee under subdivision 1, upon a showing by affidavit upon information and belief that an oral examination of the garnishee would provide a complete disclosure of relevant facts, any party to the garnishment proceedings may obtain an ex parte order requiring the garnishee, or a representative of the garnishee designated by name or by title, to appear for oral examination before the court or a referee appointed by the court. Notice of the examination must be given to all parties.

Subd. 4. [SUPPLEMENTAL COMPLAINT] If a garnishee holds property, money, or other indebtedness by a title that is void as to the debtor's creditors, the property may be garnished although the debtor would be barred from maintaining an action to recover the property, money, or indebtedness. In this and all other cases where the garnishee denies liability, the creditor may move the court at any time before the garnishee is discharged, on notice to both the debtor and the garnishee for an order making the garnishee a party to the civil action and granting the creditor leave to file a supplemental complaint against the garnishee and the debtor. The supplemental complaint shall set forth the facts upon which the creditor claims to charge the garnishee. If probable cause is shown, the motion shall be granted. The supplemental complaint shall be served upon the garnishee and the debtor and any other parties. The parties served shall answer or respond pursuant to the Minnesota Rules of Civil Procedure for the District Courts, and if they fail to do so, judgment by default may be rendered against them pursuant to section 571.82.

Sec. 8. [571.76] [GARNISHEE FEES.]

A garnishee shall be paid a $15 fee by the creditor at the time of service of a garnishment summons. Failure to pay the fee renders the garnishment void, and the garnishee shall take no action. If a garnishee is required to appear and submit to oral examination the garnishee shall be tendered, in advance of the examination, fees and mileage for attendance at the rate allowed by law to a witness. These fees may be recovered by the creditor as an allowable disbursement. In extraordinary cases, the garnishee may be allowed additional sums the court considers reasonable for attorneys fees and other necessary expenses. The court shall then determine which party bears the burden of this expense. If specific articles of personal property are garnished, the garnishee is not required to deliver the property to any person until payment of the garnishee's reasonable charges for storage.

Sec. 9. [571.77] [SALARY OF PUBLIC SERVANTS.]

The salary or wages of an official or employee of a county, town, city, or school district, or any department of these bodies, is subject to garnishment. The garnishment summons shall be served upon the auditor, treasurer, or clerk of the body, or head of the department of the body of which that person is an official or employee. The disclosure shall be made by the officer or person so served, or by some person designated by that person having knowledge of the facts. If payment is made by the county, town, city, or school district, or any department of these bodies pursuant to a judgment against it as garnishee, a certified copy of the judgment with a certificate of satisfaction to the extent of the payment endorsed on it shall be delivered to the treasurer as a voucher for the payment.

Sec. 10. [571.78] [DUTIES OF A GARNISHEE.]

A garnishee shall:

(1) complete the garnishment disclosure form and return it to the creditor, and serve a copy on the debtor as required by section 571.75;

(2) retain nonexempt disposable earnings, indebtedness, money, or other property belonging to the debtor up to 110 percent of the amount claimed in the garnishment summons, as required by section 571.73, except as limited by section 571.922;

(3)(a) remit and deliver the garnished nonexempt disposable earnings, indebtedness, money, or other property to the creditor upon levy, written authorization of the debtor, court order, or operation of law. However, the garnishee shall not be compelled to deliver the nonexempt earnings, indebtedness, money, or other property at any time or place other than as stipulated in the contract between the garnishee and the debtor; or

(b) return the garnished nonexempt disposable earnings, indebtedness, money, or other property to the debtor when the garnishment retention period expires as set forth in section 571.79.

Sec. 11. [571.79] [DISCHARGE OF A GARNISHEE.]

Subject to sections 571.78 and 571.80, the garnishee, after disclosure, shall be discharged of any further obligation to the creditor when one of the following conditions are met:

(a) The garnishee discloses that the garnishee is not indebted to the debtor or does not possess any money or other property belonging to the debtor that is attachable as defined in section 571.73, subdivision 3. The disclosure is conclusive against the creditor and discharges the garnishee from any further obligation to the creditor other than to retain all nonexempt disposable earnings, indebtedness, money, and property of the debtor which was disclosed.

(b) The garnishee discloses that the garnishee is indebted to the debtor as indicated on the garnishment disclosure form. The disclosure is conclusive against the creditor and discharges the garnishee from any further obligation to the creditor other than to retain all nonexempt disposable earnings, indebtedness, money and property of the debtor that was disclosed.

(c) If the garnishee was served with a garnishment summons before entry of judgment against the debtor by the creditor in the civil action, 270 days after the garnishment summons is served the garnishee is discharged and the garnishee shall return any disposable earnings, indebtedness, money and property to the debtor.

(d) If the garnishee was served with a garnishment summons after entry of judgment against the debtor by the creditor in the civil action, 180 days after the garnishment summons is served the garnishee is discharged and the garnishee shall return any disposable earnings, other indebtedness, money and property to the debtor.

(e) If the garnished indebtedness, money, or other property is destroyed without any negligence of the garnishee, the garnishee is discharged of any liability to the creditor for nondelivery of the garnished indebtedness, money and other property.

(f) The court may, upon motion of an interested person, discharge the garnishee as to any disposable earnings, other indebtedness, money, and property in excess of the amount that may be required to satisfy the creditor's claim.

Sec. 12. [571.80] [EXCEPTIONS TO DISCHARGE OF A GARNISHEE.]

The garnishee is not discharged if:

(a) Within 20 days of the service of the garnishee's disclosure, an interested person serves a motion relating to the garnishment. The hearing on the motion must be scheduled to be heard within 30 days of the service of the motion.

(b) The creditor moves the court for leave to file a supplemental complaint against the garnishee, as provided for in section 571.75, subdivision 4, and the court upon proper showing, vacates the discharge of the garnishee.

Sec. 13. [571.81] [GARNISHMENT LIEN; PRIORITIES OF CREDITORS.]

Subdivision 1. [GARNISHMENT LIEN.] From the time of service of a garnishment summons upon a garnishee, either before or after judgment, the creditor has a perfected lien upon all disposable earnings, indebtedness, money, or other property of the debtor that is attached by garnishment pursuant to section 571.73, subdivision 3.

Subd. 2. [PRIORITIES OF CREDITORS.] Except as provided in this subdivision or in section 518.611, subdivision 6, a perfected lien by garnishment is subordinate to a preexisting voluntary or involuntary transfer, setoff, security interest, lien, or other encumbrance that is perfected, but a lien perfected by garnishment is superior to such interests subsequently perfected. Priorities of creditors relating to multiple wage garnishments are set forth in section 571.923. An assignment of earnings made by the debtor or an indebtedness to the garnishee incurred by the debtor within ten days before the receipt of the first garnishment summons on a debt is void as to the creditor.

Subd. 3. [CONTINUITY OF GARNISHMENT LIEN.] When a lien by garnishment is perfected in disposable earnings, indebtedness, money or property, neither that lien nor the date and priority of that lien is lost for any purpose when the creditor: (1) obtains the debtor's assignment of the same to the creditor; (2) levies execution upon the same or against the garnishee whether or not a release of garnishment accompanies the levy; or (3) obtains a court-ordered sale of the same.

Sec. 14. [571.82] [JUDGMENT AGAINST GARNISHEE.]

Subdivision 1. [JUDGMENT UPON FAILURE TO DISCLOSE.] If a garnishee fails to serve a disclosure as required in this chapter, the court may render judgment against the garnishee, upon motion by the creditor, for an amount not exceeding the creditor's claim against the debtor or 110 percent of the amount claimed in the garnishment summons, whichever is less. The motion shall be supported by an affidavit of the facts and shall be served upon both the debtor and the garnishee. The court upon good cause shown may remove the default and permit the garnishee to disclose on just terms.

Subd. 2. [LIMITATION OF LIABILITY.] Judgment against a garnishee shall be rendered, if at all, for the amount due to the debtor, or as much as may be necessary to satisfy the creditor's claim against the debtor, with costs taxed and allowed in the proceeding against the garnishee but not to exceed 110 percent of the amount claimed in the garnishment summons. This judgment discharges the garnishee from all claims of all parties named in the process in and to the property or money paid, delivered, or accounted for by the garnishee by force of the judgment.

Sec. 15. [571.83] [JOINDER AND INTERVENTION BY PERSONS IN INTEREST.]

If it appears that a person, who is not a party to the action, has or claims an interest in any of the disposable earnings, other indebtedness, money, or other property, the court shall permit that person to intervene or join in the garnishment proceeding. If that person does not appear, the court may summon that person to appear or order the claim barred. The person so appearing or summoned shall be joined as a party and be bound by the judgment.

Sec. 16. [571.84] [VALUATION AND DISPOSITION OF PROPERTY IN HANDS OF THE GARNISHEE.]

On motion of a person in interest the court may: (1) determine the value of property of the debtor in the hands of the garnishee; (2) make an order relative to the keeping, delivery, or sale of the property that is necessary to protect the rights of those interested; or (3) require the property to be delivered to a receiver or other person appointed by the court. If the garnishee refuses or neglects to comply with an order of the court, the garnishee may be held in contempt of court, and is also liable to the creditor for the value of the property, less the amount of a lien.

Sec. 17. [571.85] [LIEN OF GARNISHEE.]

If it appears that the garnishee has a security interest or lien on the indebtedness or property, the creditor, on motion, may be permitted to pay the amount of the lien or security interest, and the amount that is paid shall be repaid to the creditor, with interest, out of the proceeds from the sale of the indebtedness or property. The garnishee may sell the property to satisfy the lien, if a sale is authorized by the contract between the debtor and garnishee, at any time before the payment or tender.

Sec. 18. [571.86] [DISCHARGE NOT A BAR.]

If a person summoned as a garnishee is discharged pursuant to section 571.79, or released by the creditor, the discharge is no bar to an action brought against the garnishee by the debtor or other claimants.

Sec. 19. [571.87] [TRANSFER TO ANOTHER COURT.]

In case of a change in venue or removal to a United States District Court, whether before or after full disclosure, the garnishment proceeding must be changed to the county or court to which the action is transferred. Written notice of the transfer, specifying the court to which the transfer is made shall be served by the creditor on the garnishee. The transfer carries with it all pending proceedings and any disclosure made in those proceedings.

Sec. 20. [571.88] [APPEAL.]

A party to a garnishment proceeding aggrieved by an order or final judgment may appeal as in other civil cases.

Sec. 21. [571.90] [PENALTY IN CERTAIN GARNISHMENT PROCEEDINGS.]

A creditor who serves or causes to be served a garnishment summons before entry of judgment in the main action, except when garnishment before entry of judgment is permitted under this chapter, is liable to the debtor named in the garnishment proceedings in the amount of $100, plus actual damages, plus reasonable attorney's fees and costs. Any action by a creditor made in bad faith and in violation of this chapter renders the garnishment void and the creditor liable to the debtor named in the garnishment in the amount of $100, actual damages, and reasonable attorney's fees and costs.

Sec. 22. [571.91] [GARNISHMENT OF FUNDS AT A FINANCIAL INSTITUTION.]

Sections 571.911 to 571.915 relate to the garnishment of funds at a financial institution.

Sec. 23. [571.911] [EXEMPTION NOTICE; DUTY OF FINANCIAL INSTITUTION.]

If the garnishment summons is used to garnish funds of a debtor who is a natural person and if the funds to be garnished are held on deposit at a financial institution, the creditor shall serve with the garnishee summons two copies of an exemption notice. The notice must be substantially in the form set forth in section 571.912. Failure of the creditor to send the exemption notice renders the garnishment void, and the financial institution shall take no action. Upon receipt of the garnishment summons and exemption notices, the financial institution shall retain as much of the amount under section 571.73 as the financial institution has on deposit owing to the debtor, but not more than 110 percent of the creditor's claim.

Sec. 24. [571.912] [FORM OF EXEMPTION NOTICE.]

The notice informing a debtor that an order for attachment, garnishment summons, or levy by execution has been used to attach funds of the debtor to satisfy a claim must be substantially in the following form:

STATE OF MINNESOTA
COUNTY OF
..... (Creditor)
..... (Debtor)

TO: Debtor

EXEMPTION NOTICE

An order for attachment, garnishment summons, or levy of execution (strike inapplicable language) has been served on (Bank or other financial institution) where you have an account.

Your account balance is $

The amount being held is $

However, all or a portion of the funds, in your account will normally be exempt from creditors' claims if they are in one of the following categories:

- (1) relief based on need. This includes: Aid to Families with Dependent Children (AFDC), AFDC-Emergency Assistance (AFDC-

EA), Medical Assistance (MA), General Assistance (GA), General Assistance Medical Care (GAMC), Emergency General Assistance (EGA), Work Readiness, Minnesota Supplemental Aid (MSA), MSA Emergency Assistance (MSA-EA), Supplemental Security Income (SSI), and Energy Assistance;

(2) Social Security benefits (Old Age, Survivors, or Disability Insurance);

(3) unemployment compensation, workers' compensation, or veterans' benefits;

(4) an accident, disability, or retirement pension or annuity;

(5) life insurance proceeds;

(6) the earnings of your minor child; or

(7) money from a claim for damage or destruction of exempt property (such as household goods, farm tools, business equipment, a mobile home, or a car.)

The following funds are also exempt:

(8) all earnings of a person in category (1);

(9) all earnings of a person who has received relief based on need, or who has been an inmate of a correctional institution, within the last six months;

(10) 75 percent of every debtor's after tax earnings; and

(11) all of a debtor's after tax earnings below 40 times the federal minimum wage.

TIME LIMIT ON EXEMPTIONS AFTER DEPOSIT IN BANK:

Categories (10) and (11): 20 days

Categories (8) and (9): 60 days

All others: no time limit, as long as funds are traceable to the exempt source. (In tracing funds, the first-in, first-out method is used. This means money deposited first is spent first.) The money being sought by the creditor is being held in your account to give you a chance to claim an exemption.

TO CLAIM AN EXEMPTION:

Fill out, sign, and mail or deliver one copy of the attached exemption claim form to the institution which sent you this notice and mail or deliver one copy to the creditor's attorney. In the event that there is no attorney for the creditor, then such notice shall be sent directly to the creditor. The address for the creditor's attorney or the creditor is set forth below. Both copies must be mailed or delivered on the same day.

If they do not get the exemption claim back from you within 14 days of the date they mailed or gave it to you, they will be free to turn the money over to the sheriff or the creditor. If you are going to claim an exemption, do so as soon as possible, because your money may be held until it is decided.

IF YOU CLAIM AN EXEMPTION:

- (1) nonexempt money can be turned over to the creditor or sheriff;
- (2) the financial institution will keep holding the money claimed to be exempt; and
- (3) seven days after receiving your exemption claim, the financial institution will release the money to you unless before then it receives an objection to your exemption claim.

IF THE CREDITOR OBJECTS TO YOUR EXEMPTION CLAIM:

the institution will hold the money until a court decides if your exemption claim is valid, BUT ONLY IF the institution gets a copy of your court motion papers asserting the exemption WITHIN TEN DAYS after the objection is mailed or given to you. You may wish to consult an attorney at once if the creditor objects to your exemption claim.

MOTION TO DETERMINE EXEMPTION:

At any time after your funds have been held, you may ask for a court decision on the validity of your exemption claim by filing a request for hearing which may be obtained at the office of the clerk of the above court.

PENALTIES:

If you claim an exemption in bad faith, or if the creditor wrongly objects to an exemption in bad faith, the court may order the person who acted in bad faith to pay costs, actual damages, attorney fees, and an additional amount of up to $100.

Sec. 25. [571.913] [EFFECT OF EXEMPTION NOTICE.]

Within two business days after receipt of the garnishment summons and exemption notices, the financial institution shall serve upon the debtor two copies of the exemption notice. The financial institution shall serve the notice by first class mail to the last known address of the debtor. If no claim of exemption is received by the financial institution within 14 days after the exemption notices are mailed to the debtor, the funds remain subject to the garnishment summons. If the debtor elects to claim an exemption, the debtor shall complete the exemption notice, sign it under penalty of perjury, and deliver one copy to the financial institution and one copy to the attorney for the creditor within 14 days of the date postmarked on the correspondence mailed to the debtor containing the exemption notices. In the event that there is no attorney for the creditor, then the notice must be sent directly to the creditor. Failure of the debtor to deliver the executed exemption notice does not constitute a waiver of a claimed right to an exemption. Upon timely receipt of a claim of exemption, funds not claimed to be exempt by the debtor remain subject to the garnishment summons. All money claimed to be exempt shall be released to the debtor upon the expiration of seven days after the date postmarked the envelope containing the executed exemption notice mailed to the financial institution, or the date of personal delivery of the executed exemption notice to the financial institution, unless within that time the creditor interposes an objection to the exemption.

Sec. 26. [571.914] [OBJECTION TO EXEMPTION CLAIM.]

Subdivision 1. [OBJECTIONS.] An objection shall be interposed by mailing or delivering one copy of the written objection to the financial institution and one copy of the written objection to the debtor. A Request for Hearing and Notice of Hearing form must accompany each copy of the written objection.

Both copies of an objection to an exemption claim must be mailed or delivered on the same date. The financial institution may rely on the date of mailing or delivery of a notice to it in computing any time periods in this section.

The written objection, and Request for Hearing and Notice of Hearing, must be substantially in the forms set out in subdivisions 2 and 3.

The court shall provide clerical assistance to help with the writing and filing of a Request for Hearing by any person not represented by counsel. The court administrator may charge a fee of $1 for the filing of a Request for Hearing. Upon the filing of a Request for Hearing, the clerk shall schedule the matter for hearing no later than five business days from the date of filing. The court administrator shall immediately send a completed copy of the request, including the hearing date, time, and place to the adverse party and to the financial institution by first class mail.

An order stating whether the debtor's funds are exempt shall be issued by the court within three days of the date of the hearing.

Subd. 2. [NOTICE OF OBJECTION.] (a) The written objection to the debtor must be in substantially the following form:

STATE OF MINNESOTA	DISTRICT COURT
COUNTY OF	JUDICIAL DISTRICT
..... (Creditor)
..... (Debtor)	CREDITOR'S OBJECTION
..... (Garnishee)	TO EXEMPTION CLAIM

The creditor objects to your claim for exemption from garnishment, levy of execution, order for attachment (strike inapplicable language) for the following reason(s):

.....
.....

Because of this objection, your financial institution will retain the funds you claimed to be exempt for an additional ten days. If you wish to request a hearing on your exemption claim, you should do so within ten days of your receipt of this objection. You may request a hearing by completing the attached form and filing it with the court administrator.

1. The court shall provide clerical assistance to help with the writing and filing of a Request for Hearing by any person not represented by counsel. The court administrator may charge a fee of $1 for the filing of a Request for Hearing.

2. Upon the filing of a Request for Hearing, the clerk shall schedule the matter for a hearing no later than five business days from the date of filing. The court administrator shall forthwith send a completed copy of the request, including the hearing date, time and place to the adverse party and to the financial institution by first class mail.

3. If it is possible that the financial institution might not receive the request mailed from the court administrator within ten days, then you may want to personally deliver a copy of the request to the financial institution after you have filed your request with the court.

4. An order stating whether your funds are exempt shall be issued by the court within three days of the date of the hearing.

If you do not file a Request for Hearing within ten days of the date you receive this objection, your financial institution may turn your funds over to your creditor.

If you file a Request for Hearing and your financial institution receives it within ten days of the date it received this objection, your financial institution will retain your funds claimed to be exempt until otherwise ordered by the court, or until the garnishment lapses pursuant to Minnesota Statutes, section 571.79.

(CREDITOR OR CREDITOR'S ATTORNEY.)

Subd. 3. [REQUEST FOR HEARING AND NOTICE FOR HEARING.] The request for hearing accompanying the objection notice must be in substantially the following form:

Subd. 4. [DUTIES OF FINANCIAL INSTITUTION IF OBJECTION IS MADE TO EXEMPTION CLAIM.] Upon receipt of a written objection from the creditor within the specified seven-day period, the financial institution shall retain the funds claimed to be exempt. Unless the financial institution receives a request for hearing from the debtor asserting exemption rights within ten days after receipt of the written objection to the exemption, the funds remain subject to the garnishment summons as if no claim of exemption had been made. If a notice of motion and motion to determine the validity of a claim of exemption is received by the financial institution within the period provided, the financial institution shall retain the funds claimed to be exempt until otherwise ordered by the court, or until the garnishment lapses pursuant to section 571.79.

Sec. 27. [571.915] [RELEASE OF FUNDS.]

At any time the debtor or the creditor may, by a writing dated after the service of the garnishment summons, direct the financial institution to release the funds in question to the other party. Upon receipt of a release, the financial institution shall release the funds as directed.

Sec. 28. [571.92] [GARNISHMENT OF EARNINGS.]

Sections 571.921 to 571.926 relate to the garnishment of earnings.

Sec. 29. [571.921] [DEFINITIONS.]

For purposes of sections 571.921 to 571.926, the following terms have the meanings given them:

(a) "earnings" means:

(1) compensation paid or payable to an employee for personal service whether denominated as wages, salary, commissions, bonus, or otherwise, and includes periodic payments pursuant to a pension or retirement program; or

(2) compensation paid or payable to the producer for the sale of agricultural products; livestock or livestock products; milk or milk products; or fruit or other horticultural products produced when the producer is operating a family farm, a family farm corporation, or an authorized farm corporation, as defined in section 500.24, subdivision 2;

(b) "disposable earnings" means that part of the earnings of an individual remaining after the deduction from those earnings of amounts required by law to be withheld;

(c) "employee" means an individual who performs services subject to the right of the employer to control both what is done and how it is done; and

(d) "employer" means a person for whom an individual performs services as an employee.

Sec. 30. [571.922] [LIMITATION ON WAGE GARNISHMENT.]

Unless the judgment is for child support, the maximum part of the aggregate disposable earnings of an individual for any pay period subjected to garnishment may not exceed the lesser of:

(1) 25 percent of the debtor's disposable earnings; or

(2) the amount by which the debtor's disposable earnings exceed the following product: 40 times the federal minimum hourly wages prescribed by section 6(a)(1) of the Fair Labor Standards Act of 1938, United States Code, title 29, section 206(a)(1), in effect at the time the earnings are payable, times the number of work weeks in the pay period. When a pay period consists of other than a whole number of work weeks, each day of that pay period in excess of the number of completed work weeks shall be counted as a fraction of a work week equal to the number of excess work days divided by the number of days in the normal work week.

If the judgment is for child support, the garnishment may not exceed:

(1) 50 percent of the judgment debtor's disposable income, if the judgment debtor is supporting a spouse or dependent child;

(2) 55 percent of the judgment debtor's disposable income, if the judgment debtor is supporting a spouse or dependent child, and the judgment is over 12 weeks old (12 weeks to be calculated to the beginning of the work week in which the garnishment summons is received);

(3) 60 percent of the judgment debtor's disposable income, if the judgment debtor is not supporting a spouse or dependent child; or

(4) 65 percent of the judgment debtor's disposable income, if the judgment debtor is not supporting a spouse or dependent child, and the judgment is over 12 weeks old (12 weeks to be calculated to the beginning of the work week in which the garnishment summons is received).

No court may make, execute, or enforce an order or any process in violation of this section.

Sec. 31. [571.923] [MULTIPLE EARNINGS GARNISHMENTS.]

Except as otherwise provided in this chapter or section 518.611, subdivision 6, the priority of multiple earnings garnishments shall be determined by the order in which the garnishment summonses were served on the employer. If the employer is served with two or more garnishment summonses at the same time on the same day, the garnishment summons issued pursuant to the first judgment entered has priority. If two or more garnishment summonses are served on the same day and are based on judgments entered on the same day or if there are two or more garnishment summonses based on prejudgment garnishment pursuant to section 571.93, then the employer shall select the priority of the earnings garnishments. However, in all cases garnishments shall be effective no longer than 70 days from the date of the service of the garnishment summons.

Sec. 32. [571.924] [GARNISHMENT EXEMPTION NOTICE.]

Subdivision 1. [REQUIREMENT.] The creditor shall serve upon the debtor, no less than ten days before the service of the garnishment summons, a notice that a summons may be issued. The notice shall: (1) be substantially in the form set out in section 571.925; (2) be served personally, in the manner of a summons and complaint, or by first class mail to the last known address of the debtor; (3) inform the debtor that a garnishment summons may be served on the debtor's employer after ten days, and that the debtor may, within that time, cause to be served on the creditor a signed statement under penalties of perjury asserting an entitlement to an exemption from garnishment; (4) inform the debtor of the earnings garnishment exemptions contained in section 550.37, subdivision 14; and (5) advise the debtor of the relief set forth in this chapter to which the debtor may be entitled if a creditor in bad faith disregards a valid claim and the fee, costs, and penalty that may be assessed against a debtor who in bad faith falsely claims an exemption or in bad faith takes action to frustrate the garnishment process.

Subd. 2. [ADDITIONAL NOTICES.] If the garnishment summons has not been served within one year after service of the notice, the creditor shall serve another notice upon the debtor before serving the garnishment summons on the debtor's employer. If more than one year has passed since the service of the creditor's most recent garnishment summons, the creditor shall, no less than ten days before service of another garnishment summons, serve notice that another garnishment summons may be served.

Sec. 33. [571.925] [FORM OF NOTICE.]

The ten-day notice informing a debtor that a garnishment summons may be used to garnish the earnings of an individual must be substantially in the following form:

THE STATE OF MINNESOTA

TO THE ABOVE NAMED DEBTOR

PLEASE TAKE NOTICE that a garnishment summons or levy may be served upon your employer or other third parties, without any further court proceedings or notice to you, ten days or more from the date hereof. Some or all of your earnings are exempt from garnishment. If your earnings are garnished, your employer must show you how the amount that is garnished from your earnings was calculated. You have the right to request a hearing if you claim the garnishment is incorrect.

Your earnings are completely exempt from garnishment if you are now a recipient of relief based on need, if you have been a recipient of relief within the last six months, or if you have been an inmate of a correctional institution in the last six months.

Relief based on need includes Aid to Families with Dependent Children (AFDC), AFDC-Emergency Assistance (AFDC-EA), Medical Assistance (MA), General Assistance (GA), General Assistance Medical Care (GAMC), Emergency General Assistance (EGA), Work Readiness, Minnesota Supplemental Aid (MSA), MSA Emergency Assistance (MSA-EA), Supplemental Security Income (SSI), and Energy Assistance.

If you wish to claim an exemption, you should fill out the appropriate form below, sign it, and send it to the creditor's attorney and the garnishee.

You may wish to contact the attorney for the creditor in order to arrange for a settlement of the debt or contact an attorney to advise you about exemptions or other rights.

PENALTIES

(1) Be advised that even if you claim an exemption, a garnishment summons may still be served on your employer. If your earnings are garnished after you claim an exemption, you may petition the court for a determination of your exemption. If the court finds that the creditor disregarded your claim of exemption in bad faith, you will be entitled to costs, reasonable attorney fees, actual damages, and an amount not to exceed $100.

(2) HOWEVER, BE WARNED if you claim an exemption, the creditor can also petition the court for a determination of your exemption, and if the court finds that you claimed an exemption in bad faith, you will be assessed costs and reasonable attorney's fees plus an amount not to exceed $100.

(3) If after receipt of this notice, you in bad faith take action to frustrate the garnishment, thus requiring the creditor to petition the court to resolve the problem, you will be liable to the creditor for costs and reasonable attorney's fees plus an amount not to exceed $100.

Sec. 34. [571.926] [PROCEEDINGS IF NO EXEMPTION STATEMENT IS RECEIVED.]

If no statement of exemption is received by the creditor on an earnings garnishment within ten days from the service of the notice, the creditor may proceed with the garnishment. Failure of the debtor to serve a statement does not constitute a waiver of any right the debtor may have to an exemption. If the statement of exemption is received by the creditor, the creditor may still cause a garnishment summons to be issued subject to sanctions provided in section 571.72, subdivision 6.

Sec. 35. [571.927] [PENALTY FOR RETALIATION FOR GARNISHMENT.]

Subdivision 1. [PROHIBITION.] An employer shall not discharge or otherwise discipline an employee as a result of an earnings garnishment authorized by this chapter.

Subd. 2. [REMEDY.] If an employer violates this section, a court may order the reinstatement of an aggrieved party who demonstrates a violation of this section, and other relief the court considers appropriate. The aggrieved party may bring a civil action within 90 days of the date of the prohibited action. If an employer-employee relationship existed before the violation of this section, the employee shall recover twice the wages lost as a result of this violation.

Subd. 3. [NONWAIVER.] The rights guaranteed by this section may not be waived or altered by employment contract.

Sec. 36. [571.93] [GARNISHMENT BEFORE JUDGMENT OR DEFAULT.]

Subdivision 1. [GROUNDS.] The court may order the issuance of a garnishment summons before judgment or default in the civil action, if a summons and complaint, or copies of these documents, are filed with the appropriate court, and if, upon application to the court, it appears that any of the following grounds exist:

(1) the debtor has assigned, secreted, or disposed of, or is about to assign, secrete, or dispose of, any of the debtor's nonexempt property, with intent to delay or defraud any of debtor's creditors;

(2) the debtor has removed, or is about to remove, any of the debtor's nonexempt property from this state, with intent to delay or defraud any of debtor's creditors;

(3) the debtor has converted or is about to convert any of the debtor's nonexempt property into money or credits, for the purpose of placing the property beyond the reach of any of debtor's creditors;

(4) the debtor has committed an intentional fraud giving rise to the claim upon which the civil action is brought;

(5) the debtor has committed any act or omission, for which the debtor has been convicted of a felony, giving rise to the claim upon which the civil action is brought; or

(6) the purpose of the garnishment is to establish quasi in rem jurisdiction and

(i) debtor is a resident individual having left the state with intent to defraud creditors, or to avoid service; or

(ii) a judgment had previously been obtained in another state consistent with due process; or

(iii) the claim in the civil action is directly related to and arises from the property sought to be attached; or

(iv) no forum is available to obtain a personal judgment against the debtor in the United States or elsewhere; or

(7) the creditor has been unable to serve upon the debtor the summons and complaint in the civil action because the debtor has been inaccessible due to residence and employment in a building where access is restricted.

Subd. 2. [NOTICE AND HEARING REQUIREMENTS.] If the garnishment is before notice and hearing, the requirements of section 571.931 must be met. If the garnishment is after notice and hearing, the requirements of section 571.932 must be met.

Sec. 37. [571.931] [PREJUDGMENT GARNISHMENT BEFORE NOTICE AND HEARING.]

Subdivision 1. [WRITTEN APPLICATION.] A creditor seeking a prejudgment garnishment order in extraordinary circumstances to secure property before the hearing specified in section 571.932 shall proceed by written application. The application must be accompanied by affidavits or by oral testimony, or both, setting forth in detail:

- (1) the basis and the amount of the claim in the civil action;
- (2) the facts which constitute the conditions for prejudgment garnishment as specified in section 571.93, subdivision 1; and
- (3) a good faith estimate, based on facts known to the creditor, of any harm that would be suffered by the debtor if a prejudgment garnishment order is entered without notice and hearing.

Subd. 2. [CONDITIONS.] A prejudgment garnishment order may be issued before the hearing specified in subdivision 4 only if the following conditions are met:

(1) the creditor has made a good faith effort to inform the debtor of the application for a prejudgment garnishment order or that informing the debtor would endanger the ability of the creditor to recover upon a judgment subsequently awarded;

(2) the creditor has demonstrated the probability of success on the merits;

(3) the creditor has demonstrated the existence of one or more of the grounds specified in section 571.93, subdivision 1; and

(4) due to extraordinary circumstances, the creditor's interests cannot be protected pending a hearing by an appropriate order of the court, other than by directing a prehearing seizure of property.

Subd. 3. [ORDER.] All prejudgment garnishment orders must:

(1) state the names and addresses of all persons whose affidavits were submitted to the court and of all witnesses who gave oral testimony;

(2) contain specific findings of fact, based upon competent evidence presented either in the form of affidavits or oral testimony, supporting the conclusion that each of the conditions in subdivision 1 have been met;

(3) be narrowly drafted to minimize any harm to the debtor as a result of the seizure of the debtor's property; and

(4) provide for the bond required by section 571.932, subdivision 6.

Subd. 4. [SUBSEQUENT HEARING.] If the court issues a prejudgment garnishment order, the order must establish a date for a hearing at which the debtor may be heard. The subsequent hearing must be conducted at the earliest practicable time. At the hearing, the burden of proof is on the creditor to establish the grounds justifying the prejudgment garnishment order.

Subd. 5. [STANDARDS AT SUBSEQUENT HEARING.] The hearing held pursuant to subdivision 4 must be conducted in accordance with the standards established in section 571.932. In addition, if the court finds that the motion for a prejudgment garnishment order was made in bad faith, the court shall award debtor the actual damages, costs, and reasonable attorney's fees, suffered by reason of the prejudgment garnishment.

Subd. 6. [NOTICE.] The debtor shall be served with a copy of the prejudgment garnishment order issued pursuant to this section together with a copy of all pleadings and other documents not previously served, including any affidavits upon which the claimant intends to rely at the subsequent hearing and a transcript of any oral testimony given at the prejudgment garnishment hearing upon which the creditor intends to rely and a notice of hearing. Service must be in the manner prescribed for personal service of a summons unless that service is impracticable or would be ineffective and the court prescribes an alternative method of service calculated to provide actual notice to the debtor.

The notice of hearing served upon the debtor must be signed by the creditor or the attorney for the creditor and must be accompanied by an exemption notice. The notice of hearing must be accompanied by an exemption notice, and both notices must provide, at a minimum, the following information in substantially the following language:

NOTICE OF HEARING

TO: (the debtor)

The (insert the name of court) Court has ordered the prejudgment garnishment of some of your property in the possession or control of a third party. Some of your property may be exempt from seizure. See the exemption notice below.

The Court issued this Order based upon the claim of (insert name of creditor) that (insert name of creditor) is entitled to a court order for garnishment of your property to secure your payment of any money judgment that (insert name of creditor) may later be obtained against you and that immediate action was necessary.

You have the legal right to challenge (insert name of creditor) claims at a court hearing before a judge. The hearing will be held at the (insert place) on (insert date) at (insert time). You may attend the court hearing alone or with an attorney. After you have presented your side of the matter, the court will decide what should be done with your property until the lawsuit against you is finally decided.

IF YOU DO NOT ATTEND THIS HEARING, THE COURT MAY ORDER GARNISHMENT OF YOUR PROPERTY.

EXEMPTION NOTICE

Some of your property may be exempt and cannot be garnished. The following is a list of some of the more common exemptions. It is not complete and is subject to section 550.37, and other state and federal laws. If you have questions about an exemption, you should obtain competent legal advice.

- (1) A homestead or the proceeds from the sale of a homestead.
- (2) Household furniture, appliances, phonographs, radios, and televisions up to a total current value of $4,500 at the time of attachment.
- (3) A manufactured (mobile) home used as your home.
- (4) One motor vehicle currently worth less than $2,000 after deducting any security interests.
- (5) Farm machinery used by someone principally engaged in farming, or tools, machines, or office furniture used in your business or trade. This exemption is limited to $10,000.
- (6) Relief based on need. This includes: Aid to Families with Dependent Children (AFDC), AFDC-Emergency Assistance (AFDC-EA), Medical Assistance (MA), General Assistance (GA), General Assistance Medical Care (GAMC), Emergency General Assistance (EGA), Work Readiness, Minnesota Supplemental Aid (MSA), MSA Emergency Assistance (MSA-EA), Supplemental Security Income (SSI), and Energy Assistance.
- (7) Social Security benefits.
- (8) Unemployment compensation, workers' compensation, or veterans' benefits.
- (9) An accident, disability or retirement pension or annuity.
- (10) Life insurance proceeds.
- (11) The earnings of your minor child.

(12) Money from a claim for damage or destruction of exempt property (such as household goods, farm tools, business equipment, a manufactured (mobile) home, or a car.)

Sec. 38. [571.932] [PREJUDGMENT GARNISHMENT AFTER NOTICE AND HEARING.]

Subdivision 1. [MOTION.] A creditor seeking to obtain an order of garnishment in other than extraordinary circumstances shall proceed by motion. The motion must be accompanied by an affidavit setting forth in detail:

- (1) the basis and amount of the claim in the civil action; and
- (2) the facts that constitute one or more of the grounds for garnishment as specified in section 571.93, subdivision 1.

Subd. 2. [SERVICE.] The creditor's motion to obtain an order of garnishment together with the creditor's affidavit and notice of hearing must be served in the manner prescribed for service of a summons in a civil action in district court unless that service is impracticable or would be ineffective and the court prescribes an alternative method of service calculated to provide actual notice to the debtor. If the debtor has already appeared in the action, the motion must be served in the manner prescribed for service of pleadings subsequent to the summons. The date of the hearing must be fixed in accordance with Rule 6 of the Minnesota Rules of Civil Procedure for the District Courts, unless a different date is fixed by order of the court.

The notice of hearing served upon the debtor shall be signed by the creditor or the attorney for the creditor and shall provide, at a minimum, the following information in substantially the following language:

NOTICE OF HEARING

TO: (the debtor)

A hearing will be held (insert place) on (insert date) at (insert time) to determine whether nonexempt property belonging to you will be garnished to secure a judgment that may be entered against you.

You may attend the court hearing alone or with an attorney. After you have presented your side of the matter, the court will decide whether your property should be garnished until the lawsuit which has been commenced against you is finally decided.

If the court directs the issuance of a garnishment summons while the lawsuit is pending, you may still keep the property until the lawsuit is decided if you file a bond in an amount set by the court.

IF YOU DO NOT ATTEND THIS HEARING, THE COURT MAY ORDER YOUR NONEXEMPT PROPERTY TO BE GARNISHED.

EXEMPTION NOTICE

Some of your property may be exempt and cannot be garnished. The following is a list of some of the more common exemptions. It is not complete and is subject to section 550.37, and other state and federal laws. The dollar amounts contained in this list are subject to the provisions of section 550.37, subdivision 4a, at the time of the garnishment. If you have questions about an exemption, you should obtain competent legal advice.

- (1) A homestead or the proceeds from the sale of a homestead.
- (2) Household furniture, appliances, phonographs, radios, and televisions up to a total current value of $5,850.
- (3) A manufactured (mobile) home used as your home.
- (4) One motor vehicle currently worth less than $2,600 after deducting any security interests.
- (5) Farm machinery used by an individual principally engaged in farming, or tools, machines, or office furniture used in your business or trade. This exemption is limited to $13,000.
- (6) Relief based on need. This includes: Aid to Families with Dependent Children (AFDC), AFDC-Emergency Assistance (AFDC-EA), Medical Assistance (MA), General Assistance (GA), General Assistance Medical Care (GAMC), Emergency General Assistance (EGA), Work Readiness, Minnesota Supplemental Aid (MSA), MSA Emergency Assistance (MSA-EA), Supplemental Security Income (SSI), and Energy Assistance.
- (7) Social Security benefits.
- (8) Unemployment compensation, workers' compensation, or veterans' benefits.
- (9) An accident, disability or retirement pension or annuity.
- (10) Life insurance proceeds.
- (11) The earnings of your minor child.

(12) Money from a claim for damage or destruction of exempt property (such as household goods, farm tools, business equipment, a manufactured (mobile) home, or a car.)

Subd. 3. [STANDARDS FOR ORDER.] An order for prejudgment garnishment may be issued only if the creditor has demonstrated the probability of success on the merits, and the creditor has stated facts that show the existence of at least one of the grounds stated in section 571.93, subdivision 1. However, even if those standards are met, the order may not be issued if:

(1) the circumstances do not constitute a risk to collectibility of any judgment that may be entered; or

(2)(i) the debtor has raised a defense to the merits of the creditor's claim or has raised a counterclaim in an amount equal to or greater than the claim and the defense or counterclaim is not frivolous; and

(ii) the interests of the debtor cannot be adequately protected by a bond filed by the creditor pursuant to section 571.932, subdivision 6, if property is garnished; and

(iii) the harm suffered by the debtor as a result of garnishment would be greater than the harm that would be suffered by the creditor if property is not attached.

Subd. 4. [PROTECTION OF CREDITOR.] If the creditor makes the showing prescribed by subdivision 3 but the court nevertheless determines that an order of garnishment should not be issued for the reasons set forth in subdivision 3, clause (2), the court shall enter a further order protecting the rights of the creditor to the extent possible. The order may require that the debtor post a bond in an amount set by the court, that the debtor make the property available for inspection from time to time, that the debtor be restrained from certain activities, including, but not limited to, selling, disposing, or otherwise encumbering property, or any other provision the court considers appropriate.

Subd. 5. [STAY OF ORDER.] An order permitting prejudgment garnishment of property may be stayed up to three days to allow the debtor time to post a bond.

Subd. 6. [BONDING REQUIREMENT.] (a) Before issuing an order of garnishment, the court shall require the creditor to post a bond in the penal sum of at least $500, conditioned that if judgment be given for the debtor or if the order is vacated, the creditor will pay all costs that may be awarded against the creditor and all damages caused by the garnishment. Damages may be awarded in a sum in excess of the bond only if, before the issuance of the order establishing the amount of the bond, the debtor specifically notified the creditor and the court of the likelihood that the debtor would suffer the specific damages, or the court finds that the creditor acted in bad faith in bringing or pursuing the garnishment proceeding. In establishing the amount of the bond, the court shall consider the value and nature of the property garnished, the method of retention or storage of the property, the potential harm to the debtor or any party, and other factors that the court considers appropriate. Nothing in this section modifies or restricts the application of section 549.20 or 549.21.

(b) The court may at any time modify the amount of the bond upon its own motion or upon the motion of a party based on the value of the property garnished, the nature of the property attached, the methods of retention or storage of the property, the potential harm to the debtor or a party, or other factor that the court considers appropriate.

(c) In lieu of filing a bond, either the creditor or the debtor may satisfy the bonding requirements by depositing cash, an irrevocable letter of credit, a cashier's check, or a certified check with the court.

Subd. 7. [REQUIREMENTS OF ORDER.] An order for prejudgment garnishment after notice and hearing must:

- (1) contain the findings required by section 571.932, subdivision 3;
- (2) state with particularity the facts upon which the findings are made;
- (3) state that a debtor who attended the hearing was offered an opportunity to identify exempt property, without waiver of the right to claim exemption in property not identified at the hearing;
- (4) direct the issuance of a garnishment summons; and
- (5) specify the amount of the bond.

Sec. 39. [REPEALER.]

Minnesota Statutes 1988, sections 550.041; 550.05; 550.14; 550.141; 571.41; 571.42; 571.43; 571.44; 571.45; 571.46; 571.471; 571.495; 571.50; 571.51; 571.52; 571.53; 571.54; 571.55; 571.56; 571.57; 571.58; 571.59; 571.60; 571.61; 571.62; 571.63; 571.64; 571.65; 571.66; 571.67; 571.68; and 571.69, are repealed.

Sec. 40. [EFFECTIVE DATE.]

Sections 1 to 39 are effective October 1, 1989, and apply to garnishments begun on or after that date.

ARTICLE 4

Section 1. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 270A.03, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. "Claimant agency" means any state agency, as defined by section 14.02, subdivision 2, the regents of the University of Minnesota, any district court of the state, any county, any public agency responsible for child support enforcement, ~~and any public agency responsible for the collection of court-ordered restitution, and any person, corporation, or association who is a judgment creditor who has docketed a judgment in district court.~~

Sec. 2. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 270A.03, subdivision 4, is amended to read:

Subd. 4. "Debtor" means a natural person obligated on a debt to a claimant agency or having a delinquent account with a public agency responsible for child support enforcement; except that in the case of a judgment debtor, a debtor is a person, corporation, or association against whom a judgment has been docketed in district court.

Sec. 3. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 270A.03, subdivision 5, is amended to read:

Subd. 5. Except in the case of a judgment, "debt" means a legal obligation of a natural person to pay a fixed and certain amount of money, which equals or exceeds $25 and which is due and payable to a claimant agency. The term includes criminal fines imposed under section 609.10 and restitution. A debt may arise under a contractual or statutory obligation, a court order, or other legal obligation, but need not have been reduced to judgment. A debt does not include (1) any legal obligation of a current recipient of assistance which is based on overpayment of an assistance grant, or (2) any legal obligation to pay a claimant agency for medical care, including hospitalization if the debtor would have qualified for a low income credit equal to tax liability pursuant to Minnesota Statutes 1984, section 290.06, subdivision 3d, clause (1), at the time when the medical care was rendered, provided that, for purposes of this subdivision, the income amounts in that section shall be adjusted for inflation for debts incurred in calendar years 1987 and thereafter. The dollar amount of each income level that applied to debts incurred in the prior year shall be increased in the same manner as provided in section 290.06, subdivision 2d, for the expansion of the tax rate brackets.

In the case of a judgment, debt means a judgment in an amount between $25 and $4,000 that has been docketed in district court.

Sec. 4. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 270A.04, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. For each debt submitted, the claimant agency shall provide the commissioner with the name and social security number of the debtor and any other identifying information required by rules promulgated by the commissioner; except that a judgment creditor need not provide the debtor's social security number.

Sec. 5. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 270A.07, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [SETOFF PROCEDURES.] (a) The commissioner, upon receipt of notification, shall initiate procedures to detect any refunds otherwise payable to the debtor. When the commissioner determines that a refund is due to a debtor whose debt was submitted by a claimant agency, the commissioner shall remit the refund or the amount claimed, whichever is less, to the agency. In transferring or remitting moneys to the claimant agency, the commissioner shall provide information indicating the amount applied against each debtor's obligation and, except in the case of a judgment creditor, the debtor's address listed on the tax return.

(b) The commissioner shall remit to the debtor the amount of any refund due in excess of the debt submitted for setoff by the claimant agency. Notice of the amount setoff and address of the claimant agency shall accompany any disbursement to the debtor of the balance of a refund.

Sec. 6. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 270A.11, is amended to read:

270A.11 [DATA PRIVACY.]

Private and confidential data on individuals may be exchanged among the department, the claimant agency, and the debtor as necessary to accomplish and effectuate the intent of sections 270A.01 to 270A.12, as provided by section 13.05, subdivision 4, clause (b). The department may disclose to the claimant agency only the debtor's name, address, social security number and the amount of the refund; except that in the case of a judgment creditor, the department may disclose only the amount of the refund due the creditor. Any person employed by, or formerly employed by, a claimant agency who discloses any such information for any other purpose, shall be subject to the civil and criminal penalties of section 270B.18."

Subdivision 1. [DEFINITION.] For the purposes of this section, "prosecuting attorney" means a political subdivision's elected or appointed county and city attorneys and any of that attorney's assistants who have criminal prosecution responsibility for bias-motivated crimes.

Subd. 2. [BIAS-MOTIVATED CRIMES COURSE.] By December 31, 1990, the attorney general's office in cooperation with the peace officers standards and training board, the Minnesota County Attorneys Association, and the department of human rights shall create a course of no less than six hours dealing with the prosecution of bias-motivated crimes. The course shall include training on the devastating impact of such crimes on society and on victims. The attorney general shall present this course at least once a year until December 31, 1993.

Subd. 3. [PROSECUTORS MUST MAKE REASONABLE EFFORTS TO ATTEND.] All prosecuting attorneys as defined in subdivision 1 who assumed their responsibilities before July 1, 1990, shall make reasonable efforts to attend the bias-motivated crimes prosecution course described in subdivision 2 no later than December 31, 1992. All prosecuting attorneys who assume their responsibilities after July 1, 1990 and before December 31, 1993, shall make reasonable efforts to attend the course as soon as possible after their assignment, appointment, or election.

Subd. 4. [RECORDS OF ATTENDANCE.] The head of every agency that employs prosecuting attorneys shall maintain records of the number of prosecuting attorneys who have attended the bias-motivated crimes prosecution course and the number of those who have not. The agency head shall report annually to the attorney general on these attendance and nonattendance figures."

Sec. 6. [152.0261] [IMPORTING CONTROLLED SUBSTANCES ACROSS STATE BORDERS.]

Subdivision 1. [FELONY.] A person who crosses a state or international border into Minnesota while in possession of an amount of a controlled substance that constitutes a first degree controlled substance crime under section 152.021, subdivision 2, is guilty of importing controlled substances and may be sentenced as provided in subdivision 3.

Subd. 2. [JURISDICTION.] A violation of subdivision 1 may be charged, indicted, and tried in any county, but not more than one county, into or through which the actor has brought the controlled substance.

Subd. 3. [PENALTY.] A person convicted of violating this section is guilty of a felony and may be sentenced to imprisonment for not more than 35 years or to payment of a fine of not more than $1,250,000, or both.

Sec. 7. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 152.028, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [PASSENGER AUTOMOBILES.] The presence of a controlled substance in a passenger automobile permits the factfinder to infer knowing possession of the controlled substance by the driver or person in control of the automobile when the controlled substance was in the automobile. This inference may only be made if the defendant is charged with violating section 152.021, 152.022, or 152.023, or section 6. The inference does not apply:

(1) to a duly licensed operator of an automobile who is at the time operating it for hire in the lawful and proper pursuit of the operator's trade;

(2) to any person in the automobile if one of them legally possesses a controlled substance; or

(3) when the controlled substance is concealed on the person of one of the occupants.

Sec. 8. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 152.028, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 3. [AIRLINE PASSENGER BAGGAGE.] The presence of a controlled substance in baggage received at an airport in Minnesota permits the factfinder to infer knowing possession of the controlled substance by the airline passenger to whom the baggage was checked.

Sec. 9. [152.0971] [TERMS.]

Subdivision 1. [TERMS.] For purposes of sections 9 to 13, the following terms have the meanings given.

Subd. 2. [FURNISH.] "Furnish" means to sell, transfer, deliver, send, or supply a precursor substance by any other means.

Subd. 3. [SUPPLIER.] A "supplier" is a manufacturer, wholesaler, retailer, or any other person who furnishes a precursor substance to another person in this state.

Sec. 10. [152.0972] [PRECURSORS OF CONTROLLED SUBSTANCES.]

Subdivision 1. [PRECURSOR SUBSTANCES.] The following precursors of controlled substances are "precursor substances":

(1) phenyl-2-propanone;

(2) methylamine;

(3) ethylamine;

(4) d-lysergic acid;

- (5) ergotamine tartrate;
- (6) diethyl malonate;
- (7) malonic acid;
- (8) ethyl malonate;
- (9) barbituric acid;
- (10) piperidine;
- (11) n-acetylanthranilic acid;
- (12) pyrrolidine;
- (13) phenylacetic acid;
- (14) anthranilic acid;
- (15) morpholine;
- (16) ephedrine;
- (17) pseudoephedrine;
- (18) norpseudoephedrine;
- (19) phenylpropanolamine;
- (20) propionic anhydride;
- (21) isosafrole;
- (22) safrole;
- (23) piperonal;
- (24) thionylchloride;
- (25) benzyl cyanide;
- (26) ergonovine maleate;
- (27) n-methylephedrine;
- (28) n-ethylpseudoephedrine;

- (29) n-methypseudoephedrine;
- (30) n-ethylpseudoephedrine;
- (31) chloroephedrine;
- (32) chloropseudoephedrine; and
- (33) any substance added to this list by rule adopted by the state board of pharmacy.

Subd. 2. [ADOPTION OF RULES.] The state board of pharmacy may adopt rules under chapter 14 that add a substance to this section if the substance is a precursor to a controlled substance or delete a substance from this section. A rule adding or deleting a substance is effective only until December 31 of the year following the calendar year during which the rule was adopted.

Sec. 11. [152.0973] [REPORT OF TRANSACTION.]

Subdivision 1. [PREDELIVERY NOTICE.] A supplier who furnishes a precursor substance to a person in this state shall, not less than 21 days before delivery of the substance, submit a report of the transaction, which includes the identification information specified in subdivision 3, to the bureau of criminal apprehension.

Subd. 2. [REGULAR REPORTS.] The bureau may authorize the submission of the reports on a monthly basis with respect to repeated, regular transactions between the supplier and the purchaser involving the same substance if the superintendent of the bureau of criminal apprehension determines that:

- (1) a pattern of regular supply of the precursor substance exists between the supplier and the purchaser of the substance; or
- (2) the purchaser has established a record of utilization of the precursor substance for lawful purposes.

Subd. 3. [PROPER IDENTIFICATION.] A report submitted by a supplier under this section must include:

- (1) a copy of a driver's license or state identification card that contains a photograph of the purchaser, and includes the residential or mailing address of the purchaser, other than a post office box number;
- (2) the motor vehicle license number of any motor vehicle owned or operated by the purchaser;

(3) a letter of authorization from the business for which the precursor substance is being furnished, including the business license number and address of the business, a full description of how the precursor substance is to be used, and the signature of the purchaser;

(4) the signature of the supplier as a witness to the signature and identification of the purchaser;

(5) the type and quantity of the precursor substance; and

(6) the method of delivery used.

Subd. 4. [RETENTION OF RECORDS.] A supplier shall retain a copy of the report filed under this section for five years.

Sec. 12. [152.0974] [EXCEPTIONS.]

Sections 9 to 13 do not apply to:

(1) a pharmacist or other authorized person who sells or furnishes a precursor substance on the prescription of a physician, dentist, podiatrist, or veterinarian;

(2) a physician, dentist, podiatrist, or veterinarian who administers or furnishes a precursor substance to patients;

(3) a manufacturer or wholesaler licensed by the state board of pharmacy who sells, transfers, or otherwise furnishes a precursor substance to a licensed pharmacy, physician, dentist, podiatrist, or veterinarian; or

(4) a sale, transfer, furnishing, or receipt of any drug that contains ephedrine, pseudoephedrine, norpseudoephedrine, or phenylpropanolamine and is lawfully sold, transferred, or furnished over the counter without a prescription under the federal Food, Drug, and Cosmetic Act, United States Code, title 21, section 301, et seq., or regulations adopted under that act.

Sec. 13. [152.0975] [PENALTY.]

Subdivision 1. [MISDEMEANOR.] A person who does not submit a report as required by section 11 is guilty of a misdemeanor.

Subd. 2. [GROSS MISDEMEANOR.] (a) A person who knowingly submits a report with false or fictitious information is guilty of a gross misdemeanor.

(b) A person who is convicted of violating subdivision 1 and has previously been convicted of a violation of subdivision 1 is guilty of a gross misdemeanor. The subsequent conviction must be for an offense that occurred after the earlier conviction.

Sec. 14. [299A.331] [DARE ADVISORY COUNCIL.]

Subdivision 1. [MEMBERSHIP] The advisory council on drug abuse resistance education consists of:

- (1) the attorney general who shall serve as chair;
- (2) the commissioner of public safety;
- (3) the commissioner of education;
- (4) three representatives of law enforcement appointed by the commissioner of public safety;
- (5) three representatives of teachers appointed by the commissioner of education;
- (6) a representative of the DARE officers association; and
- (7) seven citizens appointed by the attorney general.

Subd. 2. [DUTIES.] The council shall:

- (1) advise the bureau of criminal apprehension in establishing a drug abuse resistance education training program for peace officers;
- (2) promote the drug abuse resistance education program throughout the state;
- (3) monitor the drug abuse resistance education officer training program in conjunction with the bureau of criminal apprehension;
- (4) provide coordination and assistance to local communities who wish to implement drug abuse resistance education programs in their local school systems;
- (5) encourage parental and community involvement in drug abuse resistance education programs;
- (6) develop a private/public partnership to provide for continuation and funding for the drug abuse resistance education program; and
- (7) receive funds from public and private sources for use in the drug abuse resistance education program.

Sec. 15. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 609.135, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 8. [CONTROLLED SUBSTANCE CONVICTIONS.] (a) A court may order periodic drug testing as a condition of probation if:

(1) the court convicts a person for a felony violation of chapter 152, or the court convicts a person for a felony violation of chapter 609 and the court finds that the convicted person has a history of chemical dependency; and

(2) the court stays the imposition or execution of the sentence.

(b) The periodic drug testing must determine whether the offender has used a controlled substance or alcohol. The testing must be done at the direction of the probation officer assigned to the case, and must be unannounced.

(c) The probation officer shall report to the court if an offender refuses the test or if an offender's test detects the presence of a controlled substance or alcohol. On receiving notice of refusal or failure, the court may revoke the stay under section 609.14, subdivision 2.

Sec. 16. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 631.40, is amended to read:

631.40 [JUDGMENT ON CONVICTION; JUDGMENT ROLL DEFINED NOTICE TO LICENSING BOARDS.]

Subdivision 1. [JUDGMENT ROLL.] When judgment upon a conviction is rendered, the court administrator shall enter the judgment upon the minutes, stating briefly the offense for which the conviction was had. The court administrator shall then immediately attach together and file the papers specified in clauses (1) to (5). The judgment roll consists of the papers specified in clauses (1) to (5):

(1) a copy of the minutes of challenge made by the defendant to the panel of the grand jury, or to an individual grand juror, and the proceedings and decisions on the challenges;

(2) the indictment or complaint and a copy of the minutes of the plea or motion to dismiss or to grant appropriate relief;

(3) a copy of the minutes of a challenge made to the panel of the trial jury or to an individual juror, and the proceedings and decision on the challenge;

(4) a copy of the minutes of the trial; and

(5) a copy of the minutes of the judgment.

Subd. 2. [CONTROLLED SUBSTANCE CONVICTIONS.] When a court convicts a person of a felony under chapter 152, the court shall order that the presentence investigation include information about any business or professional licenses held by the offender. If the offender holds a business or professional license, the court administrator shall send a certified copy of the conviction to the appropriate licensing board.

Sec. 17. [CHEMICAL DEPENDENCY TREATMENT IN LOCAL PROGRAMS; PILOT PROGRAMS.]

The commissioner of corrections shall develop pilot programs to provide chemical dependency treatment through services in local correctional and treatment programs. The pilot programs shall:

(1) increase the availability of chemical dependency treatment services for adult and juvenile offenders;

(2) provide for professional evaluation of the need for treatment and aftercare of individual offenders;

(3) coordinate with local chemical dependency resources; and

(4) facilitate the provision of aftercare services for chemically dependent persons after their release.

Sec. 18. [DAY-FINES.]

Subdivision 1. [MODEL SYSTEM.] By June 1, 1991, the sentencing guidelines commission shall develop a model day-fine system. Each judicial district must adopt either the model system or its own day-fine system by January 1, 1992.

Subd. 2. [COMPONENTS.] A day-fine system adopted under this section must provide for a two-step sentencing procedure for those receiving a fine as part of a probationary felony sentence. In the first step, the court determines how many punishment points a person will receive, taking into account the severity of the offense and the criminal history of the offender. The second step is to multiply the punishment points by a factor that accounts for the offender's financial circumstances. The goal of the system is to provide a fine that is proportional to the seriousness of the offense and largely equal in impact among offenders with different financial circumstances. The system may provide for community service in lieu of fines for offenders whose means are so limited that the payment of a fine would be unlikely.

Sec. 19. [INCARCERATION OF DRUG DEALERS.]

The legislature finds that persons convicted of a felony offense for selling controlled substances should be incarcerated in a jail or correctional facility. The legislature strongly advises that courts make full use of the sentences provided under state law and the sentencing guidelines for persons convicted of selling controlled substances.

Sec. 20. [SUPREME COURT STUDIES.]

Subdivision 1. [JOINDER STUDY.] The supreme court shall study the feasibility of amending rule 17.03 of the Minnesota Rules of Criminal Procedure to facilitate the joint trial of certain defendants being prosecuted for possession of a controlled substance where separate trials do not serve the interests of justice. The court shall consider whether the amendment of rule 17.03 would have an unfair impact on particular economic classes or ethnic groups or otherwise create unfair categories of defendants.

Subd. 2. [CASH BAIL STUDY.] The supreme court shall study the feasibility of amending the Minnesota Rules of Criminal Procedure to provide a hearing when a defendant pays a large bail amount in cash to allow the court to determine whether the funds are the proceeds of the unlawful sale of controlled substances.

Sec. 21. [PROBATIONARY DRUG TESTING; PILOT PROGRAMS.]

The commissioner of corrections shall develop pilot programs to evaluate the value of mandating testing for drugs and alcohol as a condition of probation. One pilot program must be in a metropolitan area jurisdiction and one must be in a nonmetropolitan area jurisdiction. The programs must require courts to order testing for drugs and alcohol as a condition of probation for offenders described in section 15. The programs shall comply with the criteria outlined in section 15, paragraphs (b) and (c).

Sec. 22. [CHEMICAL DEPENDENCY ASSESSMENTS; PILOT PROGRAMS.]

The commissioner of corrections shall create pilot programs in two or more jurisdictions to conduct chemical dependency assessments of all persons convicted of and juveniles adjudicated for felony violations of Minnesota Statutes, chapter 152, and persons convicted of and juveniles adjudicated for selected Minnesota Statutes, chapter 609, felonies. The assessment shall evaluate the offender's need for chemical dependency treatment services and recommend a program to meet the offender's needs. The assessor qualifications and assessment and placement criteria shall comply with Minnesota Rules, parts 9530.6600 to 9530.6655. If funds under Minnesota Statutes, chapter 254B, are to be used to pay for the recommended treatment, the assessment and placement must comply with all provisions of Minnesota Rules, parts 9530.6600 to 9530.6655, and parts 9530.7000 to 9530.7030.

Sec. 23. [EFFECTIVE DATE.]

Sections 1 to 8, 13, and 16 are effective August 1, 1990, and apply to crimes committed on or after that date.

ARTICLE 2

INTENSIVE COMMUNITY SUPERVISION

Section 1. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 244.05, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 6. [INTENSIVE COMMUNITY SUPERVISION.] The commissioner may order that an inmate be placed on intensive community supervision, as described in sections 4 and 5, for all or part of the inmate's supervised release term. If the inmate violates the conditions of the intensive community supervision, the commissioner shall impose sanctions as provided in subdivision 3 and section 4.

Sec. 2. [244.12] [INTENSIVE COMMUNITY SUPERVISION.]

Subdivision 1. [GENERALLY.] The commissioner may order that an offender who meets the eligibility requirements of subdivision 2 be placed on intensive community supervision, as described in sections 4 and 5, for all or part of the offender's prison sentence or supervised release term.

Subd. 2. [ELIGIBILITY.] The commissioner must limit the intensive community supervision program to the following persons:

- (1) inmates who are serving a supervised release term;
- (2) offenders who are committed to the commissioner's custody following revocation of a stayed sentence;
- (3) offenders who are committed to the commissioner's custody for a prison sentence of 27 months or less, who did not receive a dispositional departure under the sentence guidelines, and who have already served a period of incarceration as a result of the offense for which they are committed;
- (4) offenders who were not committed to the commissioner's custody under a statutory mandatory minimum sentence; and
- (5) offenders who were not committed to the commissioner's custody following a conviction for murder, manslaughter, or criminal vehicular operation resulting in death.

Sec. 3. [244.13] [INTENSIVE COMMUNITY SUPERVISION; ESTABLISHMENT OF PROGRAMS.]

Subdivision 1. [ESTABLISHMENT.] The commissioner of corrections shall establish programs for those designated by the commissioner to serve all or part of a prison sentence or a supervised release term on intensive community supervision. The commissioner shall locate the programs so that at least one-half of the money appropriated for the programs in each year is used for programs in community corrections act counties.

Subd. 2. [TRAINING.] The commissioner shall develop specialized training programs for probation officers assigned to the intensive community supervision program. The probation officer caseload shall not exceed the ratio of 30 offenders to two probation officers.

Subd. 3. [EVALUATION.] The commissioner shall develop a system for gathering and analyzing information concerning the value and effectiveness of the intensive community supervision programs and shall compile a report to the chairs of the senate and house judiciary committees by January 1 of each odd-numbered year.

Sec. 4. [244.14] [INTENSIVE COMMUNITY SUPERVISION; BASIC ELEMENTS.]

Subdivision 1. [REQUIREMENTS.] This section governs the intensive community supervision programs established under section 3. The commissioner shall operate the programs in conformance with this section. The commissioner shall administer the programs to further the following goals:

- (1) to punish the offender;
- (2) to protect the safety of the public;
- (3) to facilitate employment of the offender during the intensive community supervision and afterward; and
- (4) to require the payment of restitution ordered by the court to compensate the victims of the offender's crime.

Subd. 2. [GOOD TIME NOT AVAILABLE.] An offender serving a prison sentence on intensive community supervision does not earn good time, notwithstanding section 244.04.

Subd. 3. [SANCTIONS.] The commissioner shall impose severe and meaningful sanctions for violating the conditions of an intensive community supervision program. The commissioner shall provide for revocation of intensive community supervision of an offender who:

(1) fails to follow the rules of the program;

(2) commits any misdemeanor, gross misdemeanor, or felony offense; or

(3) presents a risk to the public, based on the offender's behavior, attitude, or abuse of alcohol or controlled substances. The revocation of intensive community supervision is governed by the procedures in the commissioner's rules adopted under section 244.05, subdivision 2.

An offender whose intensive community supervision is revoked shall be imprisoned for a time period equal to the offender's original term of imprisonment, but in no case for longer than the time remaining in the offender's sentence. "Original term of imprisonment" means a time period equal to two-thirds of the prison sentence originally executed by the sentencing court.

Subd. 4. [ALL PHASES.] Throughout all phases of an intensive community supervision program, the offender shall submit at any time to an unannounced search of the offender's person, vehicle, or premises by a probation officer. If the offender received a restitution order as part of the sentence, the offender shall make weekly payments as scheduled by the probation officer, until the full amount is paid.

Sec. 5. [244.15] [INTENSIVE COMMUNITY SUPERVISION; PHASES I TO IV.]

Subdivision 1. [DURATION.] Phase I of an intensive community supervision program is six months, or one-half the presumptive imprisonment sentence under the sentencing guidelines, whichever is less. Phase II lasts for at least four months. Phase III lasts for at least two months. Phase IV continues indefinitely.

Subd. 2. [RANDOM DRUG TESTING.] (a) During phase I, the offender will be subjected to weekly urinalysis and breath tests to detect the presence of controlled substances or alcohol. The tests will be random and unannounced.

(b) During phase II, the tests will be done twice monthly.

(c) During phases III and IV, the tests will be done at random at the frequency determined by the probation officer.

Subd. 3. [HOUSE ARREST.] (a) During phase I, the offender will be under house arrest in a residence approved by the offender's probation officer and may not move to another residence without permission. "House arrest" means that the offender's movements will be severely restricted and continually monitored by the assigned probation officer.

(b) During phase II, modified house arrest is imposed.

(c) During phases III and IV, the offender is subjected to a daily curfew instead of house arrest.

Subd. 4. [FACE-TO-FACE CONTACTS.] (a) During phase I, the assigned probation officer shall have at least four face-to-face contacts with the offender each week.

(b) During phase II, two face-to-face contacts a week are required.

(c) During phase III, one face-to-face contact a week is required.

(d) During phase IV, two face-to-face contacts a month are required.

Subd. 5. [WORK REQUIRED.] During phases I, II, III, and IV, the offender must spend at least 40 hours a week performing approved work, undertaking constructive activity designed to obtain employment, or attending a treatment or education program as directed by the commissioner.

Subd. 6. [ELECTRONIC SURVEILLANCE.] During any phase, the offender may be placed on electronic surveillance if the probation officer so directs.

Subd. 7. [OTHER REQUIREMENTS.] The commissioner may include any other conditions in the various phases of the intensive community supervision program that the commissioner finds necessary and appropriate.

ARTICLE 3

MATERNAL AND CHILD HEALTH PROVISIONS

Section 1. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 145.88, is amended to read:

145.88 [PURPOSE.]

The legislature finds that it is in the public interest to assure:

(a) Statewide planning and coordination of maternal and child health services through the acquisition and analysis of population-based health data, provision of technical support and training, and coordination of the various public and private maternal and child health efforts; and

(b) Support for targeted maternal and child health services in communities with significant populations of high risk, low income families through a grants process.

Federal money received by the Minnesota department of health, pursuant to United States Code, title 42, sections 701 to 709, shall be expended to:

(1) assure access to quality maternal and child health services for mothers and children, especially those of low income and with limited availability to health services and those children at risk of physical, neurological, emotional, and developmental problems arising from chemical abuse by a mother during pregnancy;

(2) reduce infant mortality and the incidence of preventable diseases and handicapping conditions among children;

(3) reduce the need for inpatient and long-term care services and to otherwise promote the health of mothers and children, especially by providing preventive and primary care services for low income mothers and children and prenatal, delivery and postpartum care for low income mothers;

(4) provide rehabilitative services for blind and disabled children under age 16 receiving benefits under Title XVI of the Social Security Act; and

(5) provide and locate medical, surgical, corrective and other service for children who are crippled or who are suffering from conditions that lead to crippling.

Sec. 2. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 145.882, subdivision 7, is amended to read:

Subd. 7. [USE OF BLOCK GRANT MONEY.] (a) Maternal and child health block grant money allocated to a community health board or community health services area under this section must be used for qualified programs for high risk and low income individuals. Block grant money must be used for programs that:

(1) specifically address the highest risk populations, particularly low income and minority groups with a high rate of infant mortality and children with low birth weight, by providing services, including pre-pregnancy family planning services, calculated to produce measurable decreases in infant mortality rates, instances of children with low birth weight, and medical complications associated with pregnancy and childbirth, including infant mortality, low birth rates, and medical complications arising from chemical abuse by a mother during pregnancy;

(2) specifically target pregnant women whose age, medical condition, or maternal history, or chemical abuse substantially increases the likelihood of complications associated with pregnancy and childbirth or the birth of a child with an illness, disability, or special medical needs;

(3) specifically address the health needs of young children who have or are likely to have a chronic disease or disability or special medical needs, including physical, neurological, emotional, and developmental problems that arise from chemical abuse by a mother during pregnancy;

(4) provide family planning and preventive medical care for specifically identified target populations, such as minority and low income teenagers, in a manner calculated to decrease the occurrence of inappropriate pregnancy and minimize the risk of complications associated with pregnancy and childbirth; or

(5) specifically address the frequency and severity of childhood injuries in high risk target populations by providing services calculated to produce measurable decreases in mortality and morbidity. However, money may be used for this purpose only if the community health board's application includes program components for the purposes in clauses (1) to (4) in the proposed geographic service area and the total expenditure for injury-related programs under this clause does not exceed ten percent of the total allocation under subdivision 3.

(b) Maternal and child health block grant money may be used for purposes other than the purposes listed in this subdivision only under the following conditions:

(1) the community health board or community health services area can demonstrate that existing programs fully address the needs of the highest risk target populations described in this subdivision; or

(2) the money is used to continue projects that received funding before creation of the maternal and child health block grant in 1981.

(c) Projects that received funding before creation of the maternal and child health block grant in 1981, must be allocated at least the amount of maternal and child health special project grant funds received in 1989, unless (1) the local board of health provides equivalent alternative funding for the project from another source; or (2) the local board of health demonstrates that the need for the specific services provided by the project has significantly decreased as a result of changes in the demographic characteristics of the population, or other factors that have a major impact on the demand for services. If the amount of federal funding to the state for the maternal and child health block grant is decreased, these projects must receive a proportional decrease as required in subdivision 1. Increases in allocation amounts to local boards of health under subdivision 4 may be used to increase funding levels for these projects.

Sec. 3. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 626.556, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [DEFINITIONS.] As used in this section, the following terms have the meanings given them unless the specific content indicates otherwise:

(a) "Sexual abuse" means the subjection by a person responsible for the child's care, or by a person in a position of authority, as defined in section 609.341, subdivision 10, to any act which constitutes a violation of section 609.342, 609.343, 609.344, or 609.345. Sexual abuse also includes any act which involves a minor which constitutes a violation of sections 609.321 to 609.324 or 617.246.

(b) "Person responsible for the child's care" means (1) an individual functioning within the family unit and having responsibilities for the care of the child such as a parent, guardian, or other person having similar care responsibilities, or (2) an individual functioning outside the family unit and having responsibilities for the care of the child such as a teacher, school administrator, or other lawful custodian of a child having either full-time or short-term care responsibilities including, but not limited to, day care, babysitting whether paid or unpaid, counseling, teaching, and coaching.

(c) "Neglect" means failure by a person responsible for a child's care to supply a child with necessary food, clothing, shelter or medical care when reasonably able to do so or failure to protect a child from conditions or actions which imminently and seriously endanger the child's physical or mental health when reasonably able to do so. Nothing in this section shall be construed to mean that a child is neglected solely because the child's parent, guardian, or other person responsible for the child's care in good faith selects and depends upon spiritual means or prayer for treatment or care of disease or remedial care of the child in lieu of medical care; except that there is a duty to report if a lack of medical care may cause imminent and serious danger to the child's health. This section does not impose upon persons, not otherwise legally responsible for providing a child with necessary food, clothing, shelter, or medical care, a duty to provide that care. "Neglect" includes prenatal exposure to a controlled substance, as defined in section ~~626.5561~~ 253B.02, subdivision 2, used by the mother for a nonmedical purpose, as evidenced by withdrawal symptoms in the child at birth, results of a toxicology test performed on the mother at delivery or the child at birth, or medical effects or developmental delays during the child's first year of life that medically indicate prenatal exposure to a controlled substance. Neglect also means "medical neglect" as defined in section 260.015, subdivision 2a, clause (5).

(d) "Physical abuse" means any physical injury inflicted by a person responsible for the child's care on a child other than by accidental means, or any physical injury that cannot reasonably be explained by the child's history of injuries, or any aversive and deprivation procedures that have not been authorized under section 245.825.

(e) "Report" means any report received by the local welfare agency, police department, or county sheriff pursuant to this section.

(f) "Facility" means a day care facility, residential facility, agency, hospital, sanitarium, or other facility or institution required to be licensed pursuant to sections 144.50 to 144.58, 241.021, or 245.781 to 245.812.

(g) "Operator" means an operator or agency as defined in section 245A.02.

(h) "Commissioner" means the commissioner of human services.

(i) "Assessment" includes authority to interview the child, the person or persons responsible for the child's care, the alleged perpetrator, and any other person with knowledge of the abuse or neglect for the purpose of gathering the facts, assessing the risk to the child, and formulating a plan.

(j) "Practice of social services," for the purposes of subdivision 3, includes but is not limited to employee assistance counseling and the provision of guardian ad litem services.

Sec. 4. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 626.5561, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [REPORTS REQUIRED.] A person mandated to report under section 626.556, subdivision 3, shall immediately report to the local welfare agency if the person knows or has reason to believe that a woman is pregnant and has used a controlled substance for a nonmedical purpose during the pregnancy. Any person may make a voluntary report if the person knows or has reason to believe that a woman is pregnant and has used a controlled substance for a nonmedical purpose during the pregnancy. An oral report shall be made immediately by telephone or otherwise. An oral report made by a person required to report shall be followed within 72 hours, exclusive of weekends and holidays, by a report in writing to the local welfare agency. Any report shall be of sufficient content to identify the pregnant woman, the nature and extent of the use, if known, and the name and address of the reporter.

Sec. 5. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 626.5561, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [RELATED PROVISIONS.] Reports under this section are governed by section 626.556, subdivisions 4, 4a, 5, 6, 7, 8, and 11.

Sec. 6. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 626.5561, subdivision 4, is amended to read:

Subd. 4. [CONTROLLED SUBSTANCES.] For purposes of this section and section 626.5562, "controlled substance" means a controlled substance classified in schedule I, II, or III under chapter 152 listed in section 253B.02, subdivision 2.

Sec. 7. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 626.5561, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 5. [IMMUNITY.] (a) A person making a voluntary or mandated report under subdivision 1 or assisting in an assessment under subdivision 2 is immune from any civil or criminal liability that otherwise might result from the person's actions, if the person is acting in good faith.

(b) This subdivision does not provide immunity to any person for failure to make a required report or for committing neglect, physical abuse, or sexual abuse of a child.

Sec. 8. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 626.5562, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [TEST; REPORT.] A physician shall administer a toxicology test to a pregnant woman under the physician's care or to a woman under the physician's care within eight hours after delivery to determine whether there is evidence that she has ingested a controlled substance, if the woman has obstetrical complications that are a medical indication of possible use of a controlled substance for a nonmedical purpose. If the test results are positive, the physician shall report the results under section 626.5561. A negative test result does not eliminate the obligation to report under section 626.5561, if other evidence gives the physician reason to believe the patient has used a controlled substance for a nonmedical purpose.

Sec. 9. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 626.5562, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [NEWBORNS.] A physician shall administer to each newborn infant born under the physician's care a toxicology test to determine whether there is evidence of prenatal exposure to a controlled substance, if the physician has reason to believe based on a medical assessment of the mother or the infant that the mother used a controlled substance for a nonmedical purpose prior to the birth during the pregnancy. If the test results are positive, the physician shall report the results as neglect under section 626.556. A negative test result does not eliminate the obligation to report under section 626.556 if other medical evidence of prenatal exposure to a controlled substance is present.

Sec. 10. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 626.5562, subdivision 4, is amended to read:

Subd. 4. [IMMUNITY FROM LIABILITY.] Any physician or other medical personnel administering a toxicology test to determine the presence of a controlled substance in a pregnant woman, in a woman within eight hours after delivery, or in a child at birth or during the first month of life is immune from civil or criminal liability arising from administration of the test, if the physician ordering the test believes in good faith that the test is required under this section and the test is administered in accordance with an established protocol and reasonable medical practice.

ARTICLE 4

ALCOHOL-RELATED PROVISIONS

Section 1. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 169.121, subdivision 3a, is amended to read:

Subd. 3a. [HABITUAL OFFENDER PENALTIES.] (a) If a person has been convicted under this section, section 169.129, an ordinance in conformity with either of them, or a statute or ordinance from another state in conformity with either of them, and if the person is then convicted of violating this section or an ordinance in conformity with it (1) once within five years after the first conviction or (2) two or more times within ten years after the first conviction, the person must be sentenced:

(1) to a minimum of 30 days imprisonment; or

(2) to a minimum of ten days imprisonment and to eight hours of community work service for each day less than 30 days but more than ten days that the person is ordered to serve in jail.

A judge may not sentence the person to home detention in lieu of the minimum ten-day jail term. Notwithstanding section 609.135, the above sentence must be executed, unless the court departs from the mandatory minimum sentence under paragraph (b) or (c).

(b) Prior to sentencing the prosecutor may file a motion to have the defendant sentenced without regard to the mandatory minimum sentence established by this subdivision. The motion must be accompanied by a statement on the record of the reasons for it. When presented with the prosecutor's motion and if it finds that substantial mitigating factors exist, the court shall sentence the defendant without regard to the mandatory minimum term of imprisonment established by this subdivision.

(c) The court may, on its own motion, sentence the defendant without regard to the mandatory minimum term of imprisonment established by this subdivision if it finds that substantial mitigating factors exist and if its sentencing departure is accompanied by a statement on the record of the reasons for it.

(d) When any portion of the sentence required by this subdivision is not executed, the court should impose a sentence that is proportional to the extent of the offender's prior criminal and moving traffic violation record.

Sec. 2. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 169.121, subdivision 3b, is amended to read:

Subd. 3b. [HABITUAL OFFENDERS; CHEMICAL USE TREATMENT.] If a person has been convicted under subdivision 1, section 169.129, an ordinance in conformity with either of them, or a statute or ordinance from another state in conformity with either of them, and if the person is then convicted of violating subdivision 1, section 169.129, or an ordinance in conformity with either of them (1) once within five years of the first conviction or (2) two or more times within ten years after the first conviction, the court must order the person to submit to the level of care recommended in the alcohol and chemical use assessment required under section 169.126.

If a person is convicted under section 169.121, subdivision 1a, the court shall order the person to submit to the level of care recommended in the alcohol and chemical use assessment required under section 169.126.

Sec. 3. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 169.121, subdivision 5, is amended to read:

Subd. 5. Except as otherwise provided in subdivision 3b, when a court sentences a person convicted of violating this section, section 169.129, or an ordinance in conformity with either of them, the court may stay imposition or execution of any sentence authorized by subdivision 3 or 4, except the revocation of the driver's license, on the condition that the convicted person submit to the level of care recommended in the alcohol and chemical use assessment report required under section 169.126. If the court does not order a level of care in accordance with the assessment report recommendation as a condition of a stay of imposition or execution, it shall state on the record its reasons for not following the assessment report recommendation. A stay of imposition or execution shall be in the manner provided in section 609.135. The court shall report to the commissioner of public safety any stay of imposition or execution of sentence granted under the provisions of this section.

Sec. 4. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 169.124, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [COUNTY BOARD.] The county board of every county shall establish an alcohol safety program designed to provide an alcohol problem screening and chemical use assessment of persons convicted of an offense enumerated in section 169.126, subdivision 1.

Sec. 5. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 169.124, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [ASSESSMENT REIMBURSEMENT RULES.] The alcohol problem assessment shall be conducted under the direction of the court and by such persons or agencies as the court deems qualified to provide the alcohol problem assessment and assessment report as described in section 169.126. The alcohol problem assessment may be conducted by court services probation officers having the required knowledge and skills in the assessment of alcohol problems, by alcoholism counselors, by persons conducting court sponsored driver improvement clinics if in the judgment of the court such persons have the required knowledge and skills in the assessment of alcohol problems, by appropriate staff members of public or private alcohol treatment programs and agencies or mental health clinics, by court approved volunteer workers such as members of alcoholics anonymous, or by such other qualified persons as the court may direct. The commissioner of public safety shall provide the courts with information and assistance in establishing alcohol problem assessment programs suited to the needs of the area served by each court. The commissioner shall consult with the alcohol and other drug abuse section in the department of human services and with local community mental health boards in providing such information and assistance to the courts. The commissioner of public safety shall promulgate rules and standards under chapter 14, consistent with this subdivision, for reimbursement under the provisions of subdivision 3.

Sec. 6. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 169.126, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [~~SCREENING ASSESSMENT REQUIREMENT.~~] An alcohol ~~problem screening and chemical use assessment~~ shall be conducted and a ~~screening an assessment~~ report submitted to the court by the county agency administering the alcohol safety program when:

(a) The defendant is convicted of an offense described in section 169.121 or 169.129; or

(b) The defendant is arrested for committing an offense described in section 169.121 or 169.129 but is convicted of another offense arising out of the circumstances surrounding the arrest.

Sec. 7. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 169.126, subdivision 4, is amended to read:

Subd. 4. [~~ALCOHOL AND CHEMICAL USE ASSESSMENT.~~] (~~a~~) ~~Except as otherwise provided in paragraph (d), when an alcohol problem screening shows that the defendant has an identifiable chemical use problem;~~ The court shall require the defendant to undergo a comprehensive alcohol and chemical use assessment conducted by an assessor qualified designated by the court to the commissioner of public safety as meeting the training and qualification requirements under rules adopted by the commissioner of human services under section 254A.03, subdivision 3. Notwithstanding section 13.82, the assessor shall have access to any police reports, laboratory test results, and other law enforcement data relating to the current offense or previous offenses that are necessary to complete the evaluation. An assessor providing ~~a~~ an alcohol and chemical use assessment for the court may not have any direct or shared financial interest or referral relationship resulting in shared financial gain with a treatment provider. If an independent assessor is not available, the court may use the services of an assessor authorized to perform assessments for the county social services agency under a variance granted under rules adopted by the commissioner of human services under section 254A.03, subdivision 3. An appointment for the defendant to undergo the alcohol and chemical use assessment shall be made by the court, a court services probation officer, or the court administrator as soon as possible but in no case more than one week after the defendant's court appearance. The comprehensive alcohol and chemical use assessment must be completed no later than three weeks after the defendant's court appearance. If the assessment is not performed within this time limit, the county where the defendant is to be sentenced shall perform the assessment. The county of financial responsibility shall be determined under chapter 256G.

Subd. 4a. [REPORT.] (a) The assessment report shall contain an evaluation of the convicted defendant concerning the defendant's prior traffic record, characteristics and history of alcohol and chemical use problems, and amenability to rehabilitation through the alcohol safety program. The report shall be classified as private data on individuals as defined in section 13.02, subdivision 12.

(b) The alcohol and chemical use assessment report must (1) include a recommended level of care for the defendant in accordance with the criteria contained in rules adopted by the commissioner of human services under section 254A.03, subdivision 3, (2) contain recommendations for other appropriate remedial action or care, that may consist of educational programs, one-on-one counseling, a program or type of treatment that addresses mental health concerns, or a combination of them, or (3) the report must specifically explain why no level of care or action was recommended.

(c) The state shall reimburse the county for the entire cost of each alcohol and chemical use assessment and report at a rate established by the department of human services public safety up to a maximum of $100 $. . . in each case. The county may not be reimbursed for the cost of any alcohol and chemical use assessment or report not completed within the time limit provided in this subdivision 4. Reimbursement to the county must be made from the general fund.

(d) If the preliminary alcohol problem screening is conducted by an assessor qualified under rules adopted by the commissioner of human services under section 254A.03, subdivision 3, consists of a comprehensive chemical use assessment of the defendant, and complies with the chemical use assessment report requirements of paragraph (b), it is a chemical use assessment for the purposes of this section and the court may not require the defendant to undergo a second chemical use assessment under paragraph (a). The state shall reimburse counties for the cost of alcohol problem screenings that qualify as chemical use assessments under this paragraph in the manner provided in paragraph (c) in lieu of the reimbursement provisions of section 169.124, subdivision 3.

Sec. 8. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 169.126, subdivision 4b, is amended to read:

Subd. 4b. [EVALUATION.] The commissioner of public safety shall, with the assistance of the department of human services and the state planning agency, monitor and evaluate the implementation and effects of the alcohol safety programs required in sections 169.124 to 169.126 and shall submit a written report to the legislature by January 1, 1989, containing the commissioner's findings and recommendations.

Sec. 9. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 169.126, subdivision 6, is amended to read:

Subd. 6. [APPLICABILITY.] This section shall not apply to persons who are not residents of the state of Minnesota at the time of the offense and at the time of the alcohol problem screening and chemical use assessment.

Sec. 10. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 254B.03, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [LOCAL AGENCY DUTIES.] (a) Every local agency shall assess the needs of each person requesting chemical dependency services according to the criteria established under section 254A.03, subdivision 1. Whenever treatment is denied, the local agency shall report the results of the assessment to the department of human services in the manner specified by the commissioner.

(b) Every local agency shall provide chemical dependency services to persons residing within its jurisdiction who meet criteria established by the commissioner for placement in a chemical dependency residential or nonresidential treatment service or who has been sentenced according to section 609.10, subdivision 2. Chemical dependency money must be administered by the local agencies according to law and rules adopted by the commissioner under sections 14.01 to 14.69.

(c) In order to contain costs, the county board shall, with the approval of the commissioner of human services, select eligible vendors of chemical dependency services who can provide economical and appropriate treatment. Unless the local agency is a social services department directly administered by a county or human services board, the local agency shall not be an eligible vendor under section 254B.05. The commissioner may approve proposals from county boards to provide services in an economical manner or to control utilization, with safeguards to ensure that necessary services are provided. If a county implements a demonstration or experimental medical services funding plan, the commissioner shall transfer the money as appropriate. If a county selects a vendor located in another state, the county shall ensure that the vendor is in compliance with the rules governing licensure of programs located in the state.

(d) A culturally specific vendor that provides assessments under a variance under Minnesota Rules, part 9530.6610, shall be allowed to provide assessment services to persons not covered by the variance.

Sec. 11. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 260.151, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. Upon request of the court the county welfare board or probation officer shall investigate the personal and family history and environment of any minor coming within the jurisdiction of the court under section 260.111 and shall report its findings to the court. The court may order any minor coming within its jurisdiction to be examined by a duly qualified physician, psychiatrist, or psychologist appointed by the court.

The court shall have a chemical use assessment conducted when a child is: (1) found to be delinquent for violating a provision of chapter 152; or (2) alleged to be delinquent for violating a provision of chapter 152, if the child is being held in custody under a detention order. The assessor's qualifications and the assessment criteria shall comply with Minnesota Rules, parts 9530.6600 to 9530.6655. If funds under chapter 254B are to be used to pay for the recommended treatment, the assessment and placement must comply with all provisions of Minnesota Rules, parts 9530.6600 to 9530.6655, and parts 9530.7000 to 9530.7030. The commissioner of public safety shall reimburse the court for the cost of the chemical use assessment, up to a maximum of $100.

With the consent of the commissioner of corrections and agreement of the county to pay the costs thereof, the court may, by order, place a minor coming within its jurisdiction in an institution maintained by the commissioner for the detention, diagnosis, custody and treatment of persons adjudicated to be delinquent, in order that the condition of the minor be given due consideration in the disposition of the case. Adoption investigations shall be conducted in accordance with the laws relating to adoptions. Any funds received under the provisions of this subdivision shall not cancel until the end of the fiscal year immediately following the fiscal year in which the funds were received. The funds are available for use by the commissioner of corrections during that period and are hereby appropriated annually to the commissioner of corrections as reimbursement of the costs of providing these services to the juvenile courts.

Sec. 12. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 260.193, subdivision 8, is amended to read:

Subd. 8. If the juvenile court finds that the child is a juvenile major highway or water traffic offender, it may make any one or more of the following dispositions of the case:

(a) Reprimand the child and counsel with the child and the parents;

(b) Continue the case for a reasonable period under such conditions governing the child's use and operation of any motor vehicles or boat as the court may set;

(c) Require the child to attend a driver improvement school if one is available within the county;

(d) Recommend to the department of public safety suspension of the child's driver's license as provided in section 171.16;

(e) If the child is found to have committed two moving highway traffic violations or to have contributed to a highway accident involving death, injury, or physical damage in excess of $100, the court may recommend to the commissioner of public safety or to the licensing authority of another state the cancellation of the child's license until the child reaches the age of 18 years, and the commissioner of public safety is hereby authorized to cancel the license without hearing. At any time before the termination of the period of cancellation, the court may, for good cause, recommend to the commissioner of public safety, or to the licensing authority of another state, that the child's license be returned, and the commissioner of public safety is authorized to return the license;

(f) Place the child under the supervision of a probation officer in the child's own home under conditions prescribed by the court including reasonable rules relating to operation and use of motor vehicles or boats directed to the correction of the child's driving habits;

(g) Require the child to pay a fine of up to $700. The court shall order payment of the fine in accordance with a time payment schedule which shall not impose an undue financial hardship on the child;

(h) If the court finds that the child committed an offense described in section 169.121, the court shall order that an alcohol problem screening and chemical use assessment be conducted and a screening report submitted to the court in the manner prescribed in section 169.126. Except as otherwise provided in section 169.126, subdivision 4, paragraph (d), if the alcohol problem screening assessment shows that the child has an identifiable chemical use problem, the court shall require the child to undergo a comprehensive chemical use assessment in accordance with section 169.126, subdivision 4. If the chemical use assessment recommends meets the level of care criteria for placement according to section 254A.03, subdivision 3, the report must recommend a level of care for the child. The court may require that level of care in its disposition order. In addition, the court may require any child ordered to undergo a an alcohol and chemical use assessment to pay a chemical dependency assessment charge of $75. The court shall forward the assessment charge to the commissioner of finance to be credited to the general fund. The state shall reimburse counties for the total cost of the alcohol and chemical use assessment in the manner provided in section 169.126, subdivision 4 4a.

Sec. 13. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 340A.503, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [CONSUMPTION.] It is unlawful for any:

(1) retail intoxicating liquor or nonintoxicating liquor licensee or bottle club permit holder under section 340A.414, to permit any person under the age of 21 years to consume alcoholic beverages on the licensed premises; or

(2) person under the age of 21 years to consume any alcoholic beverages ~~unless in the household of the person's parent or guardian and with the consent of the parent or guardian. If proven by a preponderance of the evidence, it is an affirmative defense to a violation of this clause that the defendant consumed the alcoholic beverage in the household of the defendant's parent or guardian and with the consent of the parent or guardian.~~

Sec. 14. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 340A.503, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [PURCHASING.] It is unlawful for any person:

(1) to sell, barter, furnish, or give alcoholic beverages to a person under 21 years of age; ~~except that a parent or guardian of a person under the age of 21 years may give or furnish alcoholic beverages to that person solely for consumption in the household of the parent or guardian;~~

(2) under the age of 21 years to purchase or attempt to purchase any alcoholic beverage; or

(3) to induce a person under the age of 21 years to purchase or procure any alcoholic beverage, or to lend or knowingly permit the use of the person's driver's license, permit, Minnesota identification card, or other form of identification by a person under the age of 21 years for the purpose of purchasing or attempting to purchase an alcoholic beverage.

If proven by a preponderance of the evidence, it shall be an affirmative defense to a violation of clause (1) that the defendant is the parent or guardian of the person under 21 years of age and that the defendant gave or furnished the alcoholic beverage to that person solely for consumption in the defendant's household.

Sec. 15. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 340A.503, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [POSSESSION.] It is unlawful for a person under the age of 21 years to possess any alcoholic beverage with the intent to consume it at a place other than the household of the person's parent or guardian. Possession at a place other than the household of the parent or guardian is ~~prima facie evidence~~ creates a rebuttable presumption of intent to consume it at a place other than the household of the parent or guardian. This presumption may be rebutted by a preponderance of the evidence.

Sec. 16. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 609.10, is amended to read:

609.10 [SENTENCES AVAILABLE.]

Subdivision 1. [GENERALLY.] Upon conviction of a felony and compliance with the other provisions of this chapter the court, if it imposes sentence, may sentence the defendant to the extent authorized by law as follows:

- (1) to life imprisonment; or
- (2) to imprisonment for a fixed term of years set by the court; or
- (3) to both imprisonment for a fixed term of years and payment of a fine; or
- (4) to payment of a fine without imprisonment or to imprisonment for a fixed term of years if the fine is not paid; or
- (5) to payment of court-ordered restitution in addition to either imprisonment or payment of a fine, or both.

Subd. 2. [CHEMICAL DEPENDENCY TREATMENT FOR CERTAIN OFFENDERS.] (a) Notwithstanding any law or rule to the contrary, when the defendant is convicted of a felony, the court may order the treatment of the defendant for chemical dependency if the presentence investigation performed under section 609.115, subdivision 1, indicates that alcohol or controlled substance abuse was a contributing factor to the commission of the crime, and if a local agency, as defined in section 254B.01, subdivision 5, determines that the defendant is in need of the treatment. If the defendant is convicted of violating section 609.21 or is convicted of a felony-level violation of section 169.09, the presentence investigation report must contain a chemical-use assessment conducted by a qualified assessor and a determination by the local agency as to whether treatment is needed. If the local agency does not find that the defendant is in need of treatment, the court may still order chemical dependency treatment of the defendant if an assessor designated by the court and qualified under rules adopted by the commissioner under section 254B.03, subdivision 3, or credentialed by the Institute for Chemical Dependency Professionals determines that the defendant is chemically dependent or chemically abusive. In any case, the local agency shall determine the appropriate level of care and authorize payment under chapter 254B.

(b) In those cases where the local agency has not found the defendant to be in need of treatment, but where the court-designated assessor has found the defendant to be chemically dependent or abusive, the court-designated assessor must provide written findings to the local agency and to the commissioner of human services before the local agency authorizes any payment for treatment under chapter 254B.

Sec. 18. [REPEALER.]

Minnesota Statutes 1988, sections 169.124, subdivision 3; and 169.126, subdivisions 2 and 3; and Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 169.126, subdivision 4a, are repealed.

Sec. 17. [EFFECTIVE DATE.]

Sections 13 to 15 are effective August 1, 1990, and apply to offenses committed on or after that date.

ARTICLE 5

MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS

Section 1. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 90.301, subdivision 6, is amended to read:

Subd. 6. [TICKET FOR THEFT VIOLATIONS.] The commissioner may design and issue a ticket in the form, and having the effect, of a summons and complaint, for use in cases of theft of state timber or other state property, where the value of the property is within the limits established by section 609.52, subdivision 3, clause (7). The ticket shall provide for the name and address of the person charged with the violation, the offense charged, the time and place the person is to appear before a court, and any other necessary information.

Sec. 2. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 256.98, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [WRONGFULLY OBTAINING ASSISTANCE.] A person who obtains, or attempts to obtain, or aids or abets any person to obtain by means of a willfully false statement or representation, by intentional concealment of a material fact, or by impersonation or other fraudulent device, assistance to which the person is not entitled or assistance greater than that to which the person is entitled, or who knowingly aids or abets in buying or in any way disposing of the property of a recipient or applicant of assistance without the consent of the local agency with intent to defeat the purposes of sections 256.12, 256.72 to 256.871, and chapter 256B, or all of these sections is guilty of theft and shall be sentenced pursuant to section 609.52, subdivision 3, ~~clauses (2), (3), (6), and (7).~~

Sec. 3. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 256B.35, subdivision 5, is amended to read:

Subd. 5. The nursing home may transfer the personal allowance to someone other than the recipient only when the recipient or the recipient's guardian or conservator designates that person in writing to receive or expend funds on behalf of the recipient and that person certifies in writing that the allowance is spent for the well-being of the recipient. Persons, other than the recipient, in possession of the personal allowance, may use the allowance only for the well-being of the recipient. Any person, other than the recipient, who, with intent to defraud, uses the personal needs allowance for purposes other than the well-being of the recipient shall be guilty of theft and shall be sentenced pursuant to section 609.52, subdivision 3, ~~clauses (2), (3), and (7).~~ To prosecute under this subdivision, the attorney general or the appropriate county attorney, acting independently or at the direction of the attorney general, may institute a criminal action. A nursing home that transfers personal needs allowance funds to a person other than the recipient in good faith and in compliance with this section shall not be held liable under this subdivision.

Sec. 4. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 268.18, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [FALSE REPRESENTATIONS; CONCEALMENT OF FACTS; PENALTY.] (a) Whoever obtains, or attempts to obtain, or aids or abets any person to obtain by means of a willfully false statement or representation, by intentional concealment of a material fact, or by impersonation or other fraudulent device, benefits to which the person is not entitled or benefits greater than that to which the person is entitled under this chapter, or under the employment security law of any state or of the federal government or of a foreign government, either personally or for any other person, shall be guilty of theft and shall be sentenced pursuant to section 609.52, subdivision 3, ~~clauses (2), (3), (6), and (7).~~ The amount of the benefits incorrectly paid shall be the difference between the amount of benefits actually received and the amount which the person would have been entitled under state and federal law had the department been informed of all material facts.

(b) Any employing unit or any officer or agent of an employing unit or any other person who makes a false statement or representation knowing it to be false, or who knowingly fails to disclose a material fact, to prevent or reduce the payment of benefits to any individual entitled thereto, or to avoid becoming or remaining a subject employer or to avoid or reduce any contribution or other payment required from an employing unit under this chapter or under the employment security law of any state or of the federal government, or who willfully fails or refuses to make any such contributions or other payment at the time required shall be guilty of a gross misdemeanor unless the benefit underpayment, contribution, or other payment involved exceeds $250, in which event the person is guilty of a felony.

(c) Any person who willfully fails to produce or permit the inspection or copying of books, papers, records, or memoranda as required or when requested under section 268.12, subdivision 8, or to furnish any required reports other than contribution reports shall be guilty of a gross misdemeanor.

Sec. 5. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 473.608, subdivision 17, is amended to read:

Subd. 17. [ORDINANCES.] (1) It may adopt and enforce rules, regulations, and ordinances it deems necessary for the purposes of sections 473.601 to 473.679, including those relating to the internal operation of the corporation and to the management and operation of airports owned or operated by it, subject to sections 473.601 to 473.679. Any person violating any rule, regulation or ordinance is guilty of a misdemeanor.

(2) The prosecution may be before a county or municipal court having jurisdiction over the place where the violation occurs. Every sheriff, constable, police officers, and other peace officer shall arrest offenders. The fines collected shall be paid into the treasury of the corporation. The portion of the fines necessary to cover all costs and disbursements incurred in processing and prosecuting the violations in the court shall be transferred to the court administrator. The corporation shall reimburse the prosecuting authority for the costs of prosecuting violations of the corporation's rules, regulations and ordinances, and violations of state law occurring on property owned by the corporation. All persons committed shall be received into any penal institution in the county in which the offense was committed. All persons shall take notice of the rules, regulations, and ordinances without pleading or proof.

(3) A public hearing need not be held on rules, regulations and ordinances relating to the internal operation of the commission or to the management or operation of airports owned or operated by it unless the rule, regulation or ordinance affects substantial rights.

(4) When necessary, the corporation may adopt and enforce without a public hearing all other rules, regulations or ordinances, but it shall hold a public hearing within 30 days after their adoption. Prior to the hearing, the corporation shall give at least 15 days notice by publication in appropriate legal newspapers of general circulation in the metropolitan area and mail a copy of them to all interested parties who have registered their names with the corporation for that purpose. If the rules, regulations, or ordinances are not deemed immediately necessary, the corporation shall hold a public hearing on them after giving the required notice. The rules, regulations, or ordinances shall not be adopted and enforced until after the hearing.

(5) Notice of the adoption of rules, regulations and ordinances shall, as soon as possible after adoption, be published in appropriate legal newspapers of general circulation in the metropolitan area. Proof of publication and a copy of the rule, regulation, or ordinance shall be filed with the secretary of state. They shall then be in full force and effect.

(6) Any person substantially interested or affected in rights as to person or property by a rule, regulation or ordinance adopted by the corporation, may petition the corporation for reconsideration, amendment, modification, or waiver of it. The petition shall set forth a clear statement of the facts and grounds upon which it is based. The corporation shall grant the petitioner a public hearing within 30 days after the filing of the petition.

Sec. 6. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 609.135, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [TERMS AND CONDITIONS.] Except when a sentence of life imprisonment is required by law, or when a mandatory minimum term of imprisonment is required by section 609.11, any court may stay imposition or execution of sentence and (a) may order ~~noninstitutional~~ intermediate sanctions without placing the defendant on probation, or (b) may place the defendant on probation with or without supervision and on the terms the court prescribes, including ~~noninstitutional~~ intermediate sanctions when practicable. The court may order the supervision to be under the probation officer of the court, or, if there is none and the conviction is for a felony or gross misdemeanor, by the commissioner of corrections, or in any case by some other suitable and consenting person. No ~~noninstitutional~~ intermediate sanction may be ordered performed at a location that fails to observe applicable requirements or standards of chapter 181A or 182, or any rule promulgated under them. For purposes of this subdivision, subdivision 6, and section 609.14, the term "~~noninstitutional~~ intermediate sanctions" includes but is not limited to incarceration in a local jail or workhouse, home detention, electronic monitoring, intensive probation, sentencing to service, reporting to a day reporting center, chemical dependency or mental health treatment or counseling, restitution, fines, day-fines, community work service, and work in lieu of or to work off fines.

A court may not stay the revocation of the driver's license of a person convicted of violating the provisions of section 169.121.

Sec. 7. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 609.135, subdivision 6, is amended to read:

Subd. 6. [PREFERENCE FOR NONINSTITUTIONAL INTERMEDIATE SANCTIONS.] A court staying imposition or execution of a sentence that does not include a term of incarceration as a condition of the stay shall order ~~noninstitutional~~ other intermediate sanctions where practicable.

Sec. 8. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 609.14, is amended to read:

609.14 [REVOCAION OF STAY.]

Subdivision 1. [GROUND.] When it appears that the defendant has violated any of the conditions of probation or ~~noninstitutional intermediate~~ intermediate sanction, or has otherwise been guilty of misconduct which warrants the imposing or execution of sentence, the court may without notice revoke the stay thereof and probation and direct that the defendant be taken into immediate custody.

Subd. 2. The defendant shall thereupon be notified in writing and in such manner as the court directs of the grounds alleged to exist for revocation of the stay of imposition or execution of sentence. If such grounds are brought in issue by the defendant, a summary hearing shall be held thereon at which the defendant is entitled to be heard and to be represented by counsel.

Subd. 3. [SENTENCE.] If any of such grounds are found to exist the court may:

(1) If imposition of sentence was previously stayed, again stay sentence or impose sentence and stay the execution thereof, and in either event place the defendant on probation or order ~~noninstitutional intermediate~~ intermediate sanctions pursuant to section 609.135, or impose sentence and order execution thereof; or

(2) If sentence was previously imposed and execution thereof stayed, continue such stay and place the defendant on probation or order ~~noninstitutional intermediate~~ intermediate sanctions in accordance with the provisions of section 609.135, or order execution of the sentence previously imposed.

Subd. 4. If none of such grounds are found to exist, the defendant shall be restored to liberty under the previous order of the court.

“Section 1. [315.121] [RELIGIOUS CORPORATIONS, CERTAIN CONVEYANCES VALIDATED.]

All conveyances executed by any religious corporation organized under this chapter, conveying real property within this state that were recorded prior to July 1, 1984, in the office of the county recorder or registrar of titles of the county in which the real estate conveyed is located, and the record of the conveyance, are legalized, validated, and confirmed, even though the corporate records do not disclose that the execution of the conveyance was authorized by the congregation of the religious corporation in the manner provided by law, or the record of the authorization has not been recorded in the office of the county recorder or registrar of titles of the county in which the real estate conveyed is located.

Sec. 2. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 500.19, subdivision 5, is amended to read:

Subd. 5. [SEVERANCE OF ESTATES IN JOINT TENANCY.] A severance of a joint tenancy interest in real estate by a joint tenant shall be legally effective only if (1) the instrument of severance is recorded in the office of the county recorder or the registrar of titles in the county where the real estate is situated; or (2) the instrument of severance is executed by all of the joint tenants; or (3) the severance is ordered by a court of competent jurisdiction; or (4) a severance is effected pursuant to bankruptcy of a joint tenant.

A decree of dissolution of a marriage severs all joint tenancy interests in real estate between the parties to the marriage, except to the extent the decree declares that the parties continue to hold an interest in real estate as joint tenants.

Sec. 3. Minnesota Statutes Second 1989 Supplement, section 508A.82, is amended to read:

508A.82 [REGISTRAR'S FEES.]

The fees to be paid to the registrar shall be as follows:

(1) of the fees provided herein, five percent of the fees collected under clauses (3), (4), (11), (13), (14), (15), and (17), for filing or memorializing shall be paid to the state treasurer and credited to the general fund;

(2) for registering each original CPT, and issuing a duplicate of it, $20;

(3) for registering each instrument transferring the fee simple title for which a new CPT is issued and for the issuance and registration of the new CPT, $20;

(4) for the entry of each memorial on a certificate and endorsements upon duplicate CPTs, $10;

(5) for issuing each mortgagee's or lessee's duplicate, $10;

(6) for issuing each residue CPT, $20;

(7) for exchange CPTs, $10 for each CPT canceled and $10 for each new CPT issued;

(8) for each certificate showing condition of the register, $10;

(9) for any certified copy of any instrument or writing on file in the registrar's office, the same fees allowed by law to county recorders for like services;

(10) for a noncertified copy of any instrument or writing on file in the office of the registrar of titles, or any specified page or part of it, an amount as determined by the county board for each page or fraction of a page specified. If computer or microfilm printers are used to reproduce the instrument or writing, a like amount per image;

(11) for filing two copies of any plat in the office of the registrar, $30;

(12) for any other service under sections 508A.01 to 508A.85, the fee the court shall determine;

(13) for issuing a duplicate CPT pursuant to the directive of the examiner of titles in counties in which the compensation of the examiner is paid in the same manner as the compensation of other county employees, $50, plus $10 to memorialize;

(14) for issuing a duplicate CPT pursuant to the directive of the examiner of titles in counties in which the compensation of the examiner is not paid by the county or pursuant to an order of the court, $10;

(15) for filing a condominium plat or an amendment to it in accordance with chapter 515, §30;

(18) in counties in which the compensation of the examiner of titles is paid in the same manner as the compensation of other county employees, for each parcel of land contained in the application for a CPT, as the number of parcels is determined by the examiner, $50 a fee which is reasonable and which reflects the actual cost to the county, established by the board of county commissioners of the county in which the land is located;

(19) for filing a registered land survey in triplicate in accordance with section 508A.47, subdivision 4, §30;

(20) for furnishing a certified copy of a registered land survey in accordance with section 508A.47, subdivision 4, §10.

Sec. 4. Minnesota Statutes 1988 Supplement, section 514.12, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [ONE-YEAR LIMITATION.] No lien shall be enforced in any case unless the holder thereof shall assert the same, either by filing a complaint or answer with the court administrator, within one year after the date of the last item of the claim as set forth in the recorded lien statement; and, no person shall be bound by any judgment in such action unless made a party thereto within the year; and, as to a bona fide purchaser, mortgagee, or encumbrancer without notice, the absence from the record of a notice of lis pendens of an action after the expiration of the year in which the lien could be so asserted shall be conclusive evidence that the lien may no longer be enforced and, in the case of registered land, the registrar of titles shall refrain from carrying forward to new certificates of title the memorials of lien statements when no such notice of lis pendens has been registered within the period; nor shall any person be bound by the judgment in such action unless made a party thereto within the year.

Sec. 5. [518.191] [SUMMARY REAL ESTATE DISPOSITION JUDGMENT.]

Subdivision 1. [ABBREVIATED JUDGMENT AND DECREE.] If real estate is described in a judgment and decree of dissolution, the court may direct either of the parties or their legal counsel to prepare and submit to the court a proposed summary real estate disposition judgment. Upon approval by the court and filing of the summary real estate disposition judgment with the court administrator, the court administrator shall provide to any party upon request certified copies of the summary real estate disposition judgment.

Subd. 2. [REQUIRED INFORMATION.] A summary real estate disposition judgment must contain the following information: (1) the full caption and file number of the case and the title "Summary Real Estate Disposition Judgment"; (2) the dates of the parties' marriage and of the entry of the judgment and decree of dissolution; (3) the names of the parties' attorneys or if either or both appeared pro-se; (4) the name of the judge and referee, if any, who signed the order for judgment and decree; (5) whether the judgment and decree resulted from a stipulation, a default, or a trial and the appearances at the default or trial; (6) whether either party changed the party's name through the judgment and decree; (7) the legal description of each parcel of real estate; (8) the name or names of the persons awarded an interest in each parcel of real estate and a description of the interest awarded; (9) liens, mortgages, encumbrances, or other interests in the real estate described in the judgment and decree; and (10) triggering or contingent events set forth in the judgment and decree affecting the disposition of each parcel of real estate.

Subd. 3. [COURT ORDER.] An order or provision in a judgment and decree that provides that the judgment and decree must be recorded in the office of the county recorder or filed in the office of the registrar of titles means, if a summary real estate disposition judgment has been approved by the court, that the summary real estate disposition judgment, rather than the judgment and decree, must be recorded in the office of the county recorder or filed in the office of the registrar of titles.

Subd. 4. [TRANSFER OF PROPERTY.] The summary real estate disposition judgment operates as a conveyance and transfer of each interest in the real estate in the manner and to the extent described in the summary real estate disposition judgment.

Subd. 5. [CONFLICT.] If a conflict exists between the judgment and decree and the summary real estate disposition judgment, the summary real estate disposition judgment recorded in the office of the county recorder or filed in the office of the registrar of titles controls as to the interest acquired in real estate by any subsequent purchaser in good faith and for a valuable consideration, who is in possession of the interest or whose interest is recorded with the county recorder or registrar of titles, before the recording of the judgment and decree in the same office.

Sec. 6. [559.215] [CONTRACTS OF SALE; VALIDATING TERMINATIONS OF CONTRACT OF SALE.]

Every termination of a contract for the conveyance of real property or an interest in real property where service of notice of default is published for the first time or is served on the purchaser, or the purchaser's personal representative or assigns before the date in section 7 is legal and valid as against the following objections:

(1) that prior to the service of notice of termination, no mortgage registration tax was paid on the contract, or an insufficient registration tax was paid on the contract;

(2) that the notice:

(i) did not correctly state the amount of attorney fees;

(ii) failed to state or incorrectly stated the names of one or more of the sellers, or the sellers' successors or assigns, or incorrectly described the interest or representative capacity of the person giving the notice;

(iii) was printed or typed in an incorrect type size; or

(iv) incorrectly stated the number of days after service that the contract will terminate, provided that the number of days stated is not less than 30 days;

(3) that the cancellation was commenced by less than all sellers;
or

(4) that in the case of a termination by publication the notice was not served on all persons in possession of the real estate, provided it was served on at least one of those persons.

Sec. 7. [559.216] [EFFECTIVE DATES.]

The following dates apply to section 6:

(1) as to clause (2)(iv) and clause (3), August 1, 1985; and

(2) as to the general provisions of section 6, May 1, 1989.

Sec. 8. [REPEALER.]

Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 580.031, is repealed retroactive to May 1, 1989.

Sec. 9. [EFFECTIVE DATES.]

Sections 1 and 6 do not affect any action or proceeding pending on their effective date or that is commenced before February 1, 1991, involving the validity of the termination or conveyance.

Section 8 is effective the day following final enactment."

Delete the title and insert:

144.224 [REPORTS OF DISSOLUTION AND ANNULMENT OF MARRIAGE.]

Each month the court administrator shall forward to the commissioner of health the statistical report forms collected pursuant to section 518.147 during the preceding month. The report form shall include only the following information:

- (a) name, date of birth, birthplace, residence, race, and educational attainment of the husband and wife;
- (b) county of decree;
- (c) date and type of decree;
- (d) place and date of marriage;
- (e) date of separation;
- (f) number and ages of children of marriage;
- (g) amount and status of maintenance and child support;
- (h) custody of children, including whether joint legal or physical custody was awarded;
- (i) income of the parties;
- (j) length of separation and length of marriage; and
- (k) number of previous marriages and reasons for ending the previous marriages (death, dissolution, or annulment).

The commissioner may publish data collected under this section in summary form only. The statistical report form shall contain a statement that neither the report form, nor information contained in the form, shall be admissible in evidence in this or any subsequent proceeding.

Sec. 2. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 257.025, is amended to read:

257.025 [CUSTODY DISPUTES.]

In any proceeding where two or more parties seek custody of a child the court shall determine the best interests of the child by considering and evaluating consider and evaluate all relevant factors in determining "the best interests of the child," including the following factors:

(a) The love, affection and other emotional ties existing between the competing parties and the child;

(b) The capacity and disposition of competing parties to give the child love, affection and guidance and continuation of the educating and raising of the child in its religion, creed, if any, or culture;

(c) The capacity and disposition of competing parties to provide the child with food, clothing, medical care or other remedial care recognized and permitted under the laws of this state in lieu of medical care, and other material needs;

(d) The length of time the child has lived in a stable, satisfactory environment and the desirability of maintaining continuity;

(e) The permanence, as a family unit, of the existing or proposed custodial home;

(f) The mental and physical health of the competing parties;

(g) The home, school and community record of the child;

(h) The cultural background of the child;

(i) The reasonable preference of the child, if the court deems the child to be of sufficient age to express preference;

(j) Any other factor considered by the court to be relevant to a particular child custody dispute.

(1) the wishes of the party or parties as to custody;

(2) the reasonable preference of the child, if the court deems the child to be of sufficient age to express preference;

(3) the child's primary caretaker;

(4) the intimacy of the relationship between each party and the child;

(5) the interaction and interrelationship of the child with a party or parties, siblings, and any other person who may significantly affect the child's best interests;

(6) the child's adjustment to home, school, and community;

(7) the length of time the child has lived in a stable, satisfactory environment and the desirability of maintaining continuity;

(8) the permanence, as a family unit, of the existing or proposed custodial home;

(9) the mental and physical health of all individuals involved;

(10) the capacity and disposition of the parties to give the child love, affection and guidance, and to continue educating and raising the child in the child's culture, religion or creed, if any;

(11) the child's cultural background; and

(12) the effect on the child of the actions of an abuser, if related to domestic abuse as defined in section 518B.01, that has occurred between the parents or the parties.

The court may not use one factor to the exclusion of all others. The court must make detailed findings on each of the factors and explain how the factors led to its conclusions and to the determination of the best interests of the child.

The fact that the parents of the child are not or were never married to each other shall not be determinative of the custody of the child.

The court shall not consider conduct of a proposed custodian that does not affect the custodian's relationship to the child.

The court shall consider evidence of a violation of section 609.507 in determining the best interests of the child.

A person may seek custody of a child by filing a petition or motion pursuant to section 518.156.

The provisions of section 518.619, shall be applicable to this section.

Sec. 3. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 257.541, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [FATHER'S RIGHT TO VISITATION.] (a) If paternity has been acknowledged under section 257.34 and paternity has been established under sections 257.51 to 257.74, the father's rights of visitation or custody are determined under sections 518.17 and 518.175.

(b) If paternity has not been acknowledged under section 257.34 and paternity has been established under sections 257.51 to 257.74, the biological father may petition for rights of visitation or custody in the paternity proceeding or in a separate proceeding under section 518.156.

Sec. 4. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 518.003, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [CUSTODY.] Unless otherwise agreed by the parties:

(a) "Legal custody" means the right to determine the child's upbringing, including education, health care and religious training.

(b) "Joint legal custody" means that both parents have equal rights and responsibilities, including the right to participate in major decisions determining the child's upbringing, including education, health care and religious training.

(c) "Physical custody and residence" means the routine daily care and control and the residence of the child.

(d) "Joint physical custody" means that the routine daily care and control and the residence of the child is structured between the parties.

(e) Wherever used in this chapter, the term "custodial parent" or "custodian" means the person who has the physical custody of the child at any particular time.

(f) "Custody determination" means a court decision and court orders and instructions providing for the custody of a child, including visitation rights, but does not include a decision relating to child support or any other monetary obligation of any person.

(g) "Custody proceeding" includes proceedings in which a custody determination is one of several issues, such as an action for dissolution, divorce or separation, and includes child neglect and dependency, domestic abuse, and paternity proceedings.

Sec. 5. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 518.003, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 4. "Mediation" is a process in which an impartial third party facilitates an agreement between two or more parties in a proceeding.

Sec. 6. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 518.131, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. In a proceeding brought for custody, dissolution, or legal separation, or for disposition of property, maintenance, or child support following the dissolution of a marriage, either party may, by motion, request from the court and the court may grant a temporary order pending the final disposition of the proceeding to or for:

(a) Temporary custody and visitation rights of the minor children of the parties;

(b) Temporary maintenance of either spouse;

(c) Temporary child support for the children of the parties;

(d) Temporary costs and reasonable attorney fees;

(e) Award the temporary use and possession, exclusive or otherwise, of the family home, furniture, household goods, automobiles and other property of the parties;

(f) Restrain one or both parties from transferring, encumbering, concealing or disposing of property except in the usual course of business or for the necessities of life, and to account to the court for all such transfers, encumbrances, dispositions and expenditures made after the order is served or communicated to the party restrained in open court;

(g) Restrain one or both parties from harassing, vilifying, mistreating, molesting, disturbing the peace, or restraining the liberty of the other party or the children of the parties;

(h) Restrain one or both parties from removing any minor child of the parties from the jurisdiction of the court;

(i) Exclude a party from the family home of the parties or from the home of the other party; and

(j) Require one or both of the parties to perform or to not perform such additional acts as will facilitate the just and speedy disposition of the proceeding, or will protect the parties or their children from physical or emotional harm.

Sec. 7. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 518.131, subdivision 7, is amended to read:

Subd. 7. The court shall be guided by the factors set forth in sections 518.551 (concerning child support), 518.552 (concerning maintenance) and 518.17 to 518.175 (concerning custody and visitation), and 518.14 (concerning costs and attorney fees) in making temporary orders and restraining orders.

Sec. 8. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 518.14, is amended to read:

518.14 [COSTS AND DISBURSEMENTS AND ATTORNEY'S FEES.]

In a proceeding brought either for dissolution or legal separation under this chapter, the court, from time to time, after considering the financial resources of both parties, may require one party to pay a reasonable amount necessary to enable the other spouse to carry on or to contest the proceeding, and to pay attorney's fees, including sums for legal services rendered and costs incurred prior to the commencement or after entry of judgment. The court may adjudge costs and disbursements against either party. The court shall award temporary attorney fees and costs to a party if the party will be unable to effectively pursue relief in family court without assistance and the opposing party has the ability to pay. The court may authorize the collection of money awarded by execution, or out of property sequestered, or in any other manner within the power of the court. An award of attorney's fees made by the court during the pendency of the proceeding or in the final judgment survives the proceeding and if not paid by the party directed to pay the same may be enforced as above provided or by a separate civil action brought in the attorney's own name. If the proceeding is dismissed or abandoned prior to determination and award of attorney's fees, the court may nevertheless award attorney's fees upon the attorney's motion. The award shall also survive the proceeding and may be enforced in the same manner as last above provided.

Sec. 9. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 518.156, is amended to read:

518.156 [COMMENCEMENT OF CUSTODY PROCEEDING.]

Subdivision 1. In a court of this state which has jurisdiction to decide child custody matters, a child custody proceeding is commenced:

(a) By a parent

(1) By filing a petition for dissolution or legal separation; or

(2) Where a decree of dissolution or legal separation has been entered or where none is sought, by filing a petition or motion seeking custody or visitation of the child in the county where the child is permanently resident or where the child is found or where an earlier order for custody of the child has been entered; or

(b) By a person other than a parent, where a decree of dissolution or legal separation has been entered or where none is sought by filing a petition or motion seeking custody or visitation of the child in the county where the child is permanently resident or where the child is found or where an earlier order for custody of the child has been entered.

Subd. 2. Written notice of a child custody or visitation proceeding shall be given to the child's parent, guardian and custodian, who may appear and be heard and may file a responsive pleading. The court may, upon a showing of good cause, permit the intervention of other interested parties.

Sec. 10. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 518.167, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [PREPARATION.] (a) In preparing a report concerning a child, the investigator may consult any person who may have information about the child and the potential custodial arrangements except for persons involved in mediation efforts between the parties. Mediation personnel may disclose to investigators and evaluators information collected during mediation only if agreed to in writing by all parties. Upon order of the court, the investigator may refer the child to professional personnel for diagnosis. The investigator may consult with and obtain information from medical, psychiatric, school personnel, or other expert persons who have served the child in the past after obtaining the consent of the parents or the child's custodian or guardian.

(b) The report submitted by the investigator must consider and evaluate the factors in section 518.17, subdivision 1, and include a detailed analysis of all information considered for each factor. If joint custody is contemplated or sought, the report must consider and evaluate the factors in section 518.17, subdivision 2, state the position of each party and the investigator's recommendation and the reason for the recommendation, and reference established means for dispute resolution between the parties.

Sec. 11. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 518.17, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [FACTORS WHEN JOINT CUSTODY IS SOUGHT.] In addition to the factors listed in subdivision 1, where either joint legal or joint physical custody is contemplated or sought, the court shall consider the following relevant factors:

(a) The ability of parents to cooperate in the rearing of their children;

(b) Methods for resolving disputes regarding any major decision concerning the life of the child, and the parents' willingness to use those methods;

(c) Whether it would be detrimental to the child if one parent were to have sole authority over the child's upbringing; and

(d) Whether domestic abuse, as defined in section 518B.01, has occurred between the parents.

The court shall use a rebuttable presumption that upon request of either or both parties, joint legal custody is in the best interests of the child. However, the court shall use a rebuttable presumption that joint legal custody is not in the best interests of the child if domestic abuse, as defined in section 518B.01, has occurred between the parents.

Sec. 12. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 518.175, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. In all proceedings for dissolution or legal separation, subsequent to the commencement of the proceeding and continuing thereafter during the minority of the child, the court shall, upon the request of either parent, grant such rights of visitation on behalf of the child and noncustodial parent as will enable the child and the noncustodial parent to maintain a child to parent relationship that will be in the best interests of the child. If the person seeking visitation rights has been convicted of a crime described in subdivision 8, paragraph (d), the presumptions and standards of subdivision 8, paragraph (c), apply. In addition, if the court finds, after a hearing, that visitation is likely to endanger the child's physical or emotional health or impair the child's emotional development, the court shall restrict visitation by the noncustodial parent as to time, place, duration, or supervision and may deny visitation entirely, as the circumstances warrant. The court shall consider the age of the child and the child's relationship with the noncustodial parent prior to the commencement of the proceeding. A parent's failure to pay support because of the parent's inability to do so shall not be sufficient cause for denial of visitation.

Sec. 13. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 518.175, subdivision 5, is amended to read:

Subd. 5. The court shall modify an order granting or denying visitation rights whenever modification would serve the best interests of the child, ~~but the court shall.~~ Except as provided in subdivision 8, the court may not restrict visitation rights unless it finds that:

(1) the visitation is likely to endanger the child's physical or emotional health or impair the child's emotional development; or

(2) the noncustodial parent has chronically and unreasonably failed to comply with court-ordered visitation.

If the custodial parent makes specific allegations that visitation places the custodial parent or child in danger of harm, the court shall hold a hearing at the earliest possible time to determine the need to modify the order granting visitation rights. The court may require a third party, including the county welfare board, to supervise the visitation or may restrict a parent's visitation rights if necessary to protect the custodial parent or child from harm.

Sec. 14. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 518.175, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 8. [SUSPENSION OF VISITATION.] (a) For purposes of this subdivision, "person with visitation rights" includes a noncustodial parent or other person with court-ordered visitation rights.

(b) If a person with visitation rights has been convicted of a crime listed in paragraph (d), the custodial parent or any other person who has been granted custody of the child under a court order may file an objection to visitation with the court. The custodial parent or other person having custody shall give written notice to the person with visitation rights of the objection and the person with visitation rights has 20 days from the notice to respond. If the person fails to respond within 20 days, the person's visitation rights are suspended until further order of the court. If the person responds and objects, a hearing must be held within 30 days of the response.

(c) The person with visitation rights who has been convicted of a crime listed in paragraph (d) has the burden at the hearing to prove that visitation by the person is in the best interests of the child. The court shall suspend the person's visitation rights unless it finds that visitation is in the best interests of the child. If the victim of the crime was a family or household member as defined in section 518B.01, subdivision 2, the standard of proof is clear and convincing evidence.

(d) This subdivision applies to the following crimes or similar crimes under the laws of the United States or any other state:

(1) murder in the first, second, or third degree under section 609.185, 609.19, or 609.195;

(2) manslaughter in the first degree under section 609.20;

(3) assault in the first, second, or third degree under section 609.221, 609.222, or 609.223;

(4) kidnapping under section 609.25;

(5) depriving another of custodial or parental rights under section 609.26;

(6) soliciting, inducing, or promoting prostitution involving a minor under section 609.322;

(7) receiving profit from prostitution involving a minor under section 609.323;

(8) criminal sexual conduct in the first degree under section 609.342;

(9) criminal sexual conduct in the second degree under section 609.343;

(10) criminal sexual conduct in the third degree under section 609.344, subdivision 1, paragraph (c), (f), or (g);

(11) solicitation of a child to engage in sexual conduct under section 609.352;

(12) incest under section 609.365;

(13) malicious punishment of a child under section 609.377; or

(14) neglect of a child under section 609.378.

(e) This subdivision does not prevent a court from restricting or denying visitation rights under this section even if the person has not been convicted of a crime listed in paragraph (d).

Sec. 15. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 518.551, subdivision 5, is amended to read:

Subd. 5. [NOTICE TO PUBLIC AUTHORITY; GUIDELINES.] (a) The petitioner shall notify the public authority of all proceedings for dissolution, legal separation, determination of parentage or for the custody of a child, if either party is receiving aid to families with dependent children or applies for it subsequent to the commencement of the proceeding. After receipt of the notice, the court shall set child support as provided in this subdivision. The court may shall order either or both parents owing a duty of support to a child of the marriage to pay an amount reasonable or necessary for the child's support, without regard to marital misconduct. Both parents are presumed to be obligors to the extent of their ability. The court shall approve a child support agreement of the parties if each party is represented by independent counsel; unless the agreement is not in the interest of justice. In other cases the court shall determine and order child support in a specific dollar amount in accordance with the guidelines and the other factors set forth in paragraph (b) and any departure therefrom.

The court shall ~~multiply~~ derive a specific dollar amount by multiplying the obligor's net income by the percentage indicated by the following guidelines:

Net Income Per Month of Obligor	Number of Children
	1	2	3	4	5	6	7 or more
$400 and Below	Order based on the ability of the obligor to provide support at these income levels, or at higher levels, if the obligor has the earning ability.
$401 - 500	14%	17%	20%	22%	24%	26%	28%
$501 - 550	15%	18%	21%	24%	26%	28%	30%
$551 - 600	16%	19%	22%	25%	28%	30%	32%

$1001- 4000	25%	30%	35%	39%	43%	47%	50%

Guidelines for support for an obligor with a monthly income of $4,001 or more shall be the same dollar amounts as provided for in the guidelines for an obligor with a monthly income of $4,000.

Net Income defined as:

Total monthly income less

- *(i) Federal Income Tax
- *(ii) State Income Tax
- (iii) Social Security
Deductions
- (iv) Reasonable
Pension Deductions

*Standard Deductions apply-use of tax tables recommended

- (v) Union Dues
- (vi) Cost of Dependent
Insurance Coverage
- (vii) Cost of Individual or Group
Health/Hospitalization
Coverage or an Amount for Actual
Medical Expenses
- (viii) A Child Support or Maintenance Order that is Currently Being Paid.

"Net income" does not include:

(1) the income of the obligor's spouse; or

(2) earnings, salary, overtime, bonus, commission, vacation, or profit sharing distributions if they:

(i) are not a regular and substantial part of annual salary; or

(ii) are earned by an obligor who is a full-time employee, from employment with an employer other than the employer for which the obligor is considered to be a full-time employee. The obligor shall have the burden of proof to demonstrate that any portion of the obligor's income is excluded under this clause.

(b) In addition to the child support guidelines, the court shall take into consideration the following factors in setting or modifying child support:

(1) all earnings, income, and resources of the parents, including real and personal property;

(2) the financial needs and resources, physical and emotional condition, and educational needs of the child or children to be supported;

(3) the standards of living the child would have enjoyed had the marriage not been dissolved, but recognizing that the parents now have separate households;

(4) the amount of the aid to families with dependent children grant for the child or children;

(5) which parent receives the income taxation dependency exemption and what financial benefit the parent receives from it; and

(6) the parents' debts as provided in paragraph (c).

(c) In establishing or modifying a support obligation, the court may consider debts owed to private creditors, but only if:

(1) the right to support has not been assigned under section 256.74;

(2) the court determines that the debt was reasonably incurred for necessary support of the child or parent or for the necessary generation of income. If the debt was incurred for the necessary generation of income, the court shall consider only the amount of debt that is essential to the continuing generation of income; and

(3) the party requesting a departure produces a sworn schedule of the debts, with supporting documentation, showing goods or services purchased, the recipient of them, the amount of the original debt, the outstanding balance, the monthly payment, and the number of months until the debt will be fully paid.

Any schedule prepared under paragraph (c), clause (3), shall contain a statement that the debt will be fully paid after the number of months shown in the schedule, barring emergencies beyond the party's control.

Any further departure below the guidelines that is based on a consideration of debts owed to private creditors shall not exceed 18 months in duration, after which the support shall increase automatically to the level ordered by the court. Nothing in this section shall be construed to prohibit one or more step increases in support to reflect debt retirement during the 18-month period.

Where payment of debt is ordered pursuant to this section, the payment shall be ordered to be in the nature of child support.

(d) Nothing shall preclude the court from receiving evidence on the above factors to determine if the guidelines should be exceeded or modified in a particular case.

(e) The above guidelines are binding in each case unless the court makes express findings of fact as to the reason for departure below or above the guidelines.

Sec. 16. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 518.619, is amended to read:

518.619 [CONTESTED CUSTODY OR VISITATION; MEDIATION SERVICES.]

Subdivision 1. [MEDIATION PROCEEDING.] Except as provided in subdivision 2, if it appears on the face of the petition or other application for an order or modification of an order for the custody of a child that custody is contested, or that any issue pertinent to a custody or visitation determination, including visitation rights is unresolved, the matter may be set for mediation of the contested issue prior to or concurrent with, or subsequent to the setting of the matter for hearing. The purpose of the mediation proceeding is to reduce acrimony which may exist between the parties and to develop an agreement assuring the child's close and continuing contact with both parents after the marriage is dissolved which is supportive of the child's best interests. The mediator shall use best efforts to effect a settlement of the custody or visitation dispute, but shall have no coercive authority.

Subd. 2. [EXCEPTION.] If the court determines that there is probable cause that one of the parties, or a child of a party, has been physically or sexually abused by the other party, the court shall not require or refer the parties to mediation or any other process which requires parties to meet and confer without counsel, if any, present.

Subd. 3. [MEDIATOR APPOINTMENT.] In order to participate in a custody mediation, a mediator must be appointed by the family court. A mediator must be a member of the professional staff of a family court, probation department, mental health services agency, or a private mediation service. The mediator must be on a list of mediators approved by the court having jurisdiction of the matter, unless the parties stipulate to a mediator not on the list.

Subd. 4. [MEDIATOR QUALIFICATIONS.] A mediator who performs mediation in contested child custody matters shall meet the following minimum qualifications:

(a) knowledge of the court system and the procedures used in contested child custody matters;

(b) knowledge of other resources in the community to which the parties to contested child custody matters can be referred for assistance;

(c) knowledge of child development, clinical issues relating to children, the effects of marriage dissolution on children, and child custody research; and

(d) a minimum of 40 hours of certified mediation training.

Subd. 5. [RECORDS; PRIVATE DATA.] Mediation proceedings shall be conducted in private. All records of a mediation proceeding shall be private and not available as evidence in an action for marriage dissolution and related proceedings on any issue in controversy in the dissolution.

Subd. 6. [MEDIATOR RECOMMENDATIONS.] When the parties have not reached agreement as a result of the mediation proceeding, the mediator may recommend to the court that an investigation be conducted under section 518.167, or that other action be taken to assist the parties to resolve the controversy before hearing on the issues. The mediator may conduct the investigation. The mediator may not recommend that mutual restraining orders be issued in appropriate cases, pending determination of the controversy, to protect the well-being of the children involved in the controversy.

Subd. 7. [MEDIATION AGREEMENT.] An agreement reached by the parties as a result of mediation shall be discussed by the parties with their attorneys, if any, and the approved agreement may then be included in the marital dissolution decree or other stipulation submitted to the court. An agreement reached by the parties as a result of mediation shall not be presented to the court nor made enforceable unless the parties and their counsel, if any, consent to its presentation to the court, and the court adopts the agreement.

Subd. 8. [RULES.] Each court shall adopt rules to implement this section, and shall compile and maintain a list of mediators.

Sec. 17. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 518.64, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [MODIFICATION.] The terms of a decree respecting maintenance or support may be modified upon a showing of one or more of the following: (1) substantially increased or decreased earnings of a party; (2) substantially increased or decreased need of a party; (3) receipt of assistance under sections 256.72 to 256.87; or (4) a change in the cost of living for either party as measured by the federal bureau of statistics, any of which makes the terms unreasonable and unfair. On a motion for modification of maintenance, the court shall apply, in addition to all other relevant factors, the factors for an award of maintenance under section 518.552 that exist at the time of the motion. On a motion for modification of support, the court shall take into consideration the needs of the children and shall not consider the financial circumstances of each party's spouse, if any. On a motion for modification of support, the court shall take into consideration the needs of any child of the support obligor born or adopted after entry of the decree of dissolution of the parties' marriage. A modification of support or maintenance may be made retroactive only with respect to any period during which the petitioning party has pending a motion for modification but only from the date of service of notice of the motion on the responding party. However, modification may be applied to an earlier period if the court makes express findings that the party seeking modification was precluded from serving a motion by reason of a significant physical or mental disability, a material misrepresentation of another party or other compelling reason and that the party seeking modification, when no longer precluded, promptly served a motion. Except for an award of the right of occupancy of the homestead, provided in section 518.63, all divisions of real and personal property provided by section 518.58 shall be final, and may be revoked or modified only where the court finds the existence of conditions that justify reopening a judgment under the laws of this state, including motions under section 518.145, subdivision 2. The court may impose a lien or charge on the divided property at any time while the property, or subsequently acquired property, is owned by the parties or either of them, for the payment of maintenance or support money, or may sequester the property as is provided by section 518.24."

"Section 1. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 518B.01, subdivision 6, is amended to read:

Subd. 6. [RELIEF BY THE COURT.] (a) Upon notice and hearing, the court may provide relief as follows:

(1) restrain the abusing party from committing acts of domestic abuse;

(2) exclude the abusing party from the dwelling which the parties share or from the residence of the petitioner;

(3) award temporary custody or establish temporary visitation with regard to minor children of the parties on a basis which gives primary consideration to the safety of the victim and the children. If the court finds that the safety of the victim or the children will be jeopardized by unsupervised or unrestricted visitation, the court shall condition or restrict visitation as to time, place, duration, or supervision, or deny visitation entirely, as needed to guard the safety of the victim and the children. The court's deliberation under this subdivision shall in no way delay the issuance of an order for protection granting other reliefs provided for in Laws 1985, chapter 195;

(4) on the same basis as is provided in chapter 518, establish temporary support for minor children or a spouse, and order the withholding of support from the income of the person obligated to pay the support according to chapter 518;

(5) provide upon request of the petitioner counseling or other social services for the parties, if married, or if there are minor children;

(6) order the abusing party to participate in treatment or counseling services;

(7) award temporary use and possession of property and restrain one or both parties from transferring, encumbering, concealing, or disposing of property except in the usual course of business or for the necessities of life, and to account to the court for all such transfers, encumbrances, dispositions, and expenditures made after the order is served or communicated to the party restrained in open court;

(8) exclude the abusing party from the place of employment of the petitioner or otherwise limit the abusing party's access to the petitioner at the petitioner's place of employment; and

(9) order, in its discretion, other relief as it deems necessary for the protection of a family or household member, including orders or directives to the sheriff or constable, as provided by this section.

(b) Any relief granted by the order for protection shall be for a fixed period not to exceed one year, except when the court determines a longer fixed period is appropriate.

(c) An order granting the relief authorized in paragraph (a), clause (1), may not be vacated or modified in a proceeding for dissolution of marriage or legal separation, except that the court may hear a motion for modification of an order for protection concurrently with a proceeding for dissolution of marriage upon notice of motion and motion. The notice required by court rule shall not be waived. If the proceedings are consolidated and the motion to modify is granted, a separate order for modification of an order for protection shall be issued.

(d) An order granting the relief authorized in paragraph (a), clause (2), is not voided by the admittance of the abusing party into the dwelling from which the abusing party is excluded.

Sec. 2. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 518B.01, subdivision 7, is amended to read:

Subd. 7. [TEMPORARY ORDER.] (a) Where an application under this section alleges an immediate and present danger of domestic abuse, the court may grant an ex parte temporary order for protection, pending a full hearing, and granting relief as the court deems proper, including an order:

(1) restraining the abusing party from committing acts of domestic abuse;

(2) excluding any party from the dwelling they share or from the residence of the other except by further order of the court; and

(3) excluding the abusing party from the place of employment of the petitioner or otherwise limiting the abusing party's access to the petitioner at the petitioner's place of employment.

(b) An ex parte temporary order for protection shall be effective for a fixed period not to exceed 14 days, except for good cause as provided under paragraph (c). A full hearing, as provided by this section, shall be set for not later than seven days from the issuance of the temporary order. The respondent shall be served forthwith a copy of the ex parte order along with a copy of the petition and notice of the date set for the hearing.

(c) When service is made by published notice, as provided under subdivision 5, the petitioner may apply for an extension of the period of the ex parte order at the same time the petitioner files the affidavit required under that subdivision. The court may extend the ex parte temporary order for an additional period not to exceed 14 days. The respondent shall be served forthwith a copy of the modified ex parte order along with a copy of the notice of the new date set for the hearing.

Sec. 3. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 518B.01, subdivision 14, is amended to read:

Subd. 14. [VIOLATION OF AN ORDER FOR PROTECTION.] (a) Whenever an order for protection is granted pursuant to this section, and the respondent or person to be restrained knows of the order, violation of the order for protection is a misdemeanor.

(b) A peace officer shall arrest without a warrant and take into custody a person whom the peace officer has probable cause to believe has violated an order granted pursuant to this section restraining the person or excluding the person from the residence, if the existence of the order can be verified by the officer. The arrest must be made even if the violation of the order did not take place in the presence of the peace officer.

(c) A violation of an order for protection shall also constitute contempt of court and be subject to the penalties therefor.

(d) If the court finds that the respondent has violated an order for protection and that there is reason to believe that the respondent will commit a further violation of the provisions of the order restraining the respondent from committing acts of domestic abuse or excluding the respondent from the petitioner's residence, the court may require the respondent to acknowledge an obligation to comply with the order on the record. The court may require a bond sufficient to deter the respondent from committing further violations of the order for protection, considering the financial resources of the respondent and not to exceed $10,000. If the respondent refuses to comply with an order to acknowledge the obligation or post a bond under this paragraph, the court shall commit the respondent to the county jail during the term of the order for protection or until the respondent complies with the order under this paragraph. The warrant must state the cause of commitment, with the sum and time for which any bond is required. If an order is issued under this paragraph, the court may order the costs of the contempt action, or any part of them, to be paid by the respondent. An order under this paragraph is appealable.

(e) Upon the filing of an affidavit by the petitioner or any peace officer, alleging that the respondent has violated any order for protection granted pursuant to this section, the court may issue an order to the respondent, requiring the respondent to appear and show cause within 14 days why the respondent should not be found in contempt of court and punished therefor. The hearing may be held by the court in any county in which the petitioner or respondent temporarily or permanently resides at the time of the alleged violation. The court also may refer the violation of the order for protection to the appropriate prosecuting authority for possible prosecution under paragraph (a).

(e) (f) The admittance into petitioner's dwelling of an abusing party excluded from the dwelling under an order for protection is not a violation by the petitioner of the order for protection.

A peace officer is not liable under section 609.43, clause (1), for a failure to perform a duty required by clause (b).

Sec. 4. [611A.0311] [DOMESTIC ABUSE PROSECUTIONS; PLAN AND PROCEDURES.]

Subdivision 1. [DEFINITIONS.] (a) "Domestic abuse" has the meaning given in section 518B.01, subdivision 2.

(b) "Domestic abuse case" means a prosecution for: (1) a crime that involves domestic abuse; (2) violation of a condition of release following an arrest for a crime that involves domestic abuse; or (3) violation of a domestic abuse order for protection.

Subd. 2. [CONTENTS OF PLAN.] The commissioner of public safety shall select five city attorneys and five county attorneys whose jurisdictions have higher than a 50 percent dismissal rate for domestic abuse cases and direct them to develop and implement a written plan to expedite and improve the efficiency and just disposition of domestic abuse cases brought to the prosecuting authority. Domestic abuse advocates and other interested members of the public shall have an opportunity to assist in the development of the model plan and in the development or adaptation of the plans in each of the jurisdictions selected for the pilot program. Once a model plan is developed and available it may be used or adapted by any city or county attorney whether or not they are participating in the pilot program. The model plan shall state goals and contain policies and procedures to address the following matters:

(a) The plan must provide for (1) early assignment of a trial prosecutor who has the responsibility, whenever feasible, of handling the domestic abuse case through disposition or, where applicable, through probation revocation; and (2) early contact between the trial prosecutor and the victim.

(b) The plan must contain procedures to facilitate the earliest possible contact between the prosecutor's office and the victim for the purpose of acquainting the victim with the criminal justice process, the use of subpoenas, the victim's role as a witness in the prosecution, and the domestic abuse or victim services that are available.

(c) The plan must contain procedures to coordinate the trial prosecutor's efforts with those of the domestic abuse advocate or victim advocate, when available, and to facilitate the early provision of advocacy services to the victim.

(d) The plan must describe the methods that will be used to identify, gather, and preserve evidence in addition to the victim's in-court testimony that will enhance the ability to prosecute a case when a victim is reluctant to assist including, but not limited to, physical evidence of the victim's injury, evidence relating to the scene of the crime, eyewitness testimony, and statements of the victim made at or near the time of the injury.

(e) The plan must contain procedures for educating local law enforcement agencies about the contents of the plan and their role in assisting with its implementation.

(f) The plan must encourage the issuance of subpoenas to victims and witnesses, when appropriate.

(g) The plan must include procedures for annual review of the plan to evaluate whether it is meeting its goals effectively and whether improvements are needed.

(h) The plan must include a timetable for implementation.

Subd. 3. [COPY FILED WITH DEPARTMENT OF PUBLIC SAFETY.] A copy of the written plan must be filed with the department of public safety on or before November 15, 1990. The city and county attorneys selected for the pilot program under subdivision 2 shall file a status report on the pilot program by January 1, 1992. The status report must contain information on the number of prosecutions and dismissals of domestic abuse cases in the prosecutor's office. The written plan and the status reports are classified as public data.

Sec. 5. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 611A.0315, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [NOTICE OF DECISION NOT TO PROSECUTE.]
(a) A prosecutor shall make every reasonable effort to notify a domestic assault victim that the prosecutor has decided to decline prosecution of the case or to dismiss the criminal charges filed against the defendant. Efforts to notify the victim should include, in order of priority: (1) contacting the victim or a person designated by the victim by telephone; and (2) contacting the victim by mail. If a suspect is still in custody, the notification attempt shall be made before the suspect is released from custody.

(b) Whenever a prosecutor dismisses criminal charges against a person accused of domestic assault, a record shall be made of the specific reasons for the dismissal. If the dismissal is due to the unavailability of the witness, the prosecutor shall indicate the specific reason why the witness is unavailable.

Sec. 6. [DOMESTIC ABUSE; PLAN FOR STATEWIDE COMPUTER DATA SYSTEM.]

The commissioner of public safety, in consultation with the department of corrections and the state court administrator, shall evaluate the feasibility and costs of establishing a statewide computerized data system containing the following information on domestic assault crimes and domestic abuse orders for protection:

(1) identifying information on individuals arrested for, charged with, or convicted of domestic assault, as defined in Minnesota Statutes, section 611A.0315, and the names and birthdates of their victims or alleged victims;

(2) prior arrests and convictions of individuals described in clause (1) for homicide, assault, criminal sexual conduct, criminal damage to property, kidnapping, terroristic threats, trespass, obscene or harassing telephone calls, interference with privacy, harassment by means of the mail, or violations of an order for protection;

(3) pretrial release conditions applicable to individuals charged with domestic assault;

(4) probation and supervised release conditions applicable to individuals convicted of domestic assault;

(5) identifying information on respondents who are or were subject to an order for protection issued under Minnesota Statutes, chapter 518B, and the name and birthdate of the petitioner and other individuals protected under the order; and

(6) the terms and conditions of these orders for protection.

The evaluation shall include consideration of the risk to victims of creating a database that contains identifying information on victims.

The commissioner shall report to the legislature on or before February 1, 1991, on the results of the evaluation."

H. F. No. 1902, A bill for an act relating to insurance; property and casualty; requiring compensation to certain agents upon termination; proposing coding for new law in Minnesota Statutes, chapter 60A.

Reported the same back with the following amendments:

Delete everything after the enacting clause and insert:

"Section 1. [60A.176] [INVOLUNTARY TERMINATION OF AN AGENT BY THE INSURER.]

(a) For purposes of this section, the following terms have the meanings given them:

(1) "Agency" means an agency contractual relationship that has been in effect five years or more.

(2) "Agent" means an agent who is not an employee of the insurer and who writes 80 percent or more of the agent's business through one insurer or its subsidiaries.

(3) "Insurer" means an insurance company writing property or casualty loss insurance in this state through agents.

(b) Every insurer shall establish a termination review process for any agent involuntarily terminated by the company. This review process is available for use at the option of the agent. The review process shall be completed within 15 days of the request or before the date of termination, whichever is later.

(c) In the event of a voluntary or involuntary termination, the agent is entitled to a hearing conducted by the department of commerce.

In the event of a company initiated termination of an agent's agreement, the written notice of termination shall advise the agent of the agent's right of appeal to the commissioner of commerce.

Upon receipt of an agent's request for a hearing, the commerce department shall establish a hearing date within 30 days of the request or longer with the approval of the agent and the insurer. A three-member board of review shall be selected from a list of ten agents and ten insurer representatives appointed by the commissioner. One member shall be selected by the agent, one by the insurer, and one by the commissioner. The agent and the insurer shall be notified in writing of the date, time, and place of the hearing. An insurer is immune from any civil liability to the agent for any disclosure made at the hearing. This immunity does not extend to disclosures made in bad faith or with knowledge of their falseness.

The agent selected for the board of review shall not be a relative of the agent nor shall the agent or insurer member of the board be presently or formerly associated with any insurer represented by the agent.

Upon completion of the hearing, the board of review shall determine if the termination of the agent's agreement is justified. If in the opinion of the board of review the involuntary termination is not justified, and in the absence of a reasonable contractual financial provision for termination as determined by the commissioner, the commissioner shall determine an appropriate level of compensation to the agent.

If in the opinion of the board of review the resignation was not voluntary and the insurer would not have been justified in terminating the agent's agreement, and in the absence of a reasonable contractual financial provision for termination as determined by the commissioner, the commissioner shall determine an appropriate level of compensation to the agent.

(d) Any determination by the commissioner may be appealed to district court by either party for a trial de novo. However, if the insurer appeals and the agent prevails, the insurer is responsible for the agent's legal fees as approved by the court. A person who intimidates or coerces a member of the board of review is subject to a civil penalty imposed by the commissioner of commerce in an amount not to exceed $25,000.

(e) This section does not apply to an agent whose license has expired, is revoked, or is currently under suspension.

Sec. 2. [EFFECTIVE DATE.]

Section 1 is effective the day following final enactment.

H. F. No. 1907, A bill for an act relating to human services; requiring increases in rates for wages of employees of intermediate care facilities for persons with mental retardation, semi-independent living services, home and community-based waived services, developmental achievement centers, and mental health residential programs; requiring a fair wage plan; appropriating money; proposing coding for new law in Minnesota Statutes, chapter 252.

Reported the same back with the following amendments:

Delete everything after the enacting clause and insert:

"Section 1. [252.285] [WAGE ADJUSTMENTS.]

Subdivision 1. [ICF/MR PER DIEM INCREASE.] The commissioner shall increase per diems for each intermediate care facility for persons with mental retardation and related conditions by a wage adjustment figured by multiplying the total wages, payroll taxes, and fringe benefits for personnel below top management by five percent beginning October 1, 1990, through September 30, 1991. All increased revenue received by facilities as a result of this calculation must be used for wages and related costs of personnel in positions below top management.

Subd. 2. [DEVELOPMENTAL ACHIEVEMENT CENTERS PER DIEM INCREASE.] In establishing, operating, or contracting for the provision of developmental achievement centers under section 252.24, a county board shall contract at rates to reflect increased wages figured by multiplying the total wages, payroll taxes, and fringe benefits for personnel below top management times five percent for fiscal year 1991. All increased revenue received by facilities as a result of this calculation must be used for wages and related costs of personnel in positions below top management.

County boards shall submit a plan to the commissioner to implement increased wages according to this subdivision by September 15, 1990. If the county fails to submit a plan, the state may direct the county regarding implementation of this subdivision.

Subd. 3. [MENTAL HEALTH RESIDENTIAL PROGRAMS.] In establishing, operating, or contracting for the provision of programs licensed under Minnesota Rules, parts 9520.0500 to 9520.0690, a county board shall contract at rates to reflect increased wages figured by multiplying the total wages, payroll taxes, and fringe benefits for personnel below administration times five percent for fiscal year 1991. All increased revenue received by programs as a result of this calculation must be used for wages and related costs of personnel in positions below administration.

(a) Increases to program grants under Minnesota Rules, parts 9535.2000 to 9535.3000, shall be made to counties upon their submission of the total increase in program costs for residential programs according to this subdivision.

(b) Increases to Minnesota supplemental assistance negotiated rates shall be made upon submission by counties of the increases in negotiated rate contracts for board and lodging made according to this subdivision.

Sec. 2. [252.53] [TASK FORCE ON COMPENSATION.]

The commissioner of human services shall establish a task force on the compensation and training of employees in the developmental disabilities field. The purpose of the task force is to address staff turnover, recruitment, and training in order to have a significant number of qualified people working in programs for people with developmental disabilities. Programs include intermediate care facilities for persons with mental retardation, semi-independent living services, day training and habilitation, waived services, supported employment, and rehabilitation facilities. Members of the task force shall be appointed by the commissioner. Task force membership shall consist of at least one representative from the department of human services, the department of employee relations, the department of jobs and training, advocates, and the department of health, direct care staff from unionized and non-unionized facilities, providers, collective bargaining representatives, and representatives from institutions of post-secondary education, metro and greater Minnesota counties, and the governor's council on developmental disabilities. The task force shall submit a report to the commissioner by November 1, 1990, that includes recommendations on the following:

(1) entry and promotional level wage ranges for various job classifications which reduce wage and benefit inequities between community and state-operated facilities and services;

(2) implementation of wage and benefit increases over a four-year period to ensure that wages and benefits are brought up to a level competitive within the community marketplace;

(3) mechanisms to link wage increases to initial training, continuing education, and competency;

(4) recruitment and retention of qualified staff; and

(5) the impact of making adjustments pursuant to complying with United States Code, title 29, section 157 (Supp. 1988), and sections 179.16 and 179A.12.

By January 15, 1991, the commissioner shall submit the report and recommended legislation to implement the report to the chairs of the house and senate health and human services committees.

Sec. 3. [APPROPRIATION.]

$ is appropriated from the general fund to the commissioner of human services for the biennium ending June 30, 1991, for increased per diems under section 1.

$ is appropriated from the general fund to the commissioner of human services for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1991, to establish the task force on compensation under section 2."

"Section 1. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 290.06, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 23. [CREDIT FOR PROVIDERS OF SHELTER TO ABUSED OR NEGLECTED CHILDREN.] An individual who is not the parent or legal foster parent of a child may take a credit against the tax due under this chapter equal to $250 per month for each month that the child resides with the individual under a court order issued under chapter 260. If the amount of the credit that an individual may claim under this subdivision exceeds the individual's tax liability under this chapter, the excess amount of the credit shall be refunded to the individual by the commissioner.

Sec. 2. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 290.06, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 24. [CREDIT FOR EMPLOYERS' FAMILY PROGRAMS.] A taxpayer may take a credit against the tax due under this chapter equal to the cost incurred by the taxpayer for providing a course or program on prenatal care or early childhood family education for employees of the taxpayer. The credit is available only for costs incurred during the first 12 consecutive months during which the taxpayer made the service available to employees. The credit may not exceed a total of $2,500 in one or two taxable years. An employer who provides these services to employees prior to March 1, 1990, is not eligible for a credit under this subdivision. As used in this subdivision, "early childhood family education" means a program described in section 121.882.

Sec. 3. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 297.02, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [RATES.] A tax is hereby imposed upon the sale of cigarettes in this state or having cigarettes in possession in this state with intent to sell and upon any person engaged in business as a distributor thereof, at the following rates, subject to the discount provided in section 297.03:

(1) On cigarettes weighing not more than three pounds per thousand, ~~19~~ 20 mills on each such cigarette;

(2) On cigarettes weighing more than three pounds per thousand, ~~38~~ 40 mills on each such cigarette.

Sec. 4. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 297C.02, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [DISTILLED SPIRITS AND WINE.] There is imposed on all distilled spirits and wine manufactured, imported, sold, or possessed in this state the following excise tax:

	Standard	Metric
(a) Distilled spirits, liqueurs, cordials, and specialties regardless of alcohol content (excluding ethyl alcohol)	$5.03 per gallon	$1.33 per liter
(b) Wine containing 14 percent or less alcohol by volume	$.30 $1.51 per gallon	$.08 $.40 per liter
(c) Wine containing more than 14 percent but not more than 21 percent alcohol by volume	$.95 $3.79 per gallon	$.25 $1.00 per liter
(d) Wine containing more than 21 percent but not more than 24 percent alcohol by volume	$1.82 per gallon	$.48 per liter
(e) Wine containing more than 24 percent alcohol by volume	$3.52 per gallon	$.93 per liter
(f) Natural and artificial sparkling wines containing alcohol	$1.82 $3.79 per gallon	$.48 $1.00 per liter

The metric tax is imposed on all products taxable under this subdivision when the net contents are stated in metric units of measure.

In computing the tax on a package of distilled spirits or wine a proportional tax at a like rate on all fractional parts of a gallon or liter must be paid, except that the tax on a fractional part of a gallon less than 1/16 of a gallon is the same as for 1/16 of a gallon.

The tax on miniatures of two fluid ounces or less or 50 milliliters or less is 14 15 cents.

The commissioner of revenue may establish by rule a date and procedure for the conversion of excise tax computation and reporting from rates expressed in gallons to rates expressed in metric volumes. The official conversion factor is one liter equals 0.264172 United States gallons.

Sec. 5. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 299A.29, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 2a. [ALCOHOL.] "Alcohol" means alcoholic beverages as defined in section 340A.101, subdivision 2.

Sec. 6. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 299A.30, is amended to read:

299A.30 [OFFICE OF DRUG AND ALCOHOL ABUSE POLICY.]

Subdivision 1. [OFFICE; ASSISTANT COMMISSIONER.] The office of drug and alcohol abuse policy is an office in the department of public safety headed by an assistant commissioner appointed by the commissioner to serve in the unclassified service. The assistant commissioner may appoint other employees in the unclassified service. The assistant commissioner shall coordinate the activities of drug and alcohol program agencies and serve as staff to the drug and alcohol abuse prevention resource council.

Subd. 2. [DUTIES.] (a) The assistant commissioner shall gather and make available information on demand reduction and supply reduction throughout the state, foster cooperation among drug and alcohol program agencies, and assist agencies and public officials in training and other programs designed to improve the effectiveness of demand reduction and supply reduction.

(b) The assistant commissioner shall coordinate the distribution of funds received by the state of Minnesota through the federal Anti-Drug Abuse Act. ~~The assistant commissioner may obtain technical assistance from the state planning agency to perform this function.~~ The assistant commissioner shall recommend to the commissioner recipients of grants under sections 299A.33 and 299A.34 to 299A.40, after consultation with the drug and alcohol abuse prevention resource council.

(c) The assistant commissioner shall:

(1) after consultation with all drug program appropriate agencies operating in the state, develop a state drug strategy encompassing the efforts of those agencies and taking into account all money available for demand reduction and supply reduction, from any source;

(2) submit the strategy to the governor and the legislature by January 15 of each year, along with a summary of demand reduction and supply reduction during the preceding calendar year;

(3) assist appropriate professional and occupational organizations, including organizations of law enforcement officers, prosecutors, and educators, in developing and operating informational and training programs to reduce and prevent alcohol abuse and to improve the effectiveness of drug demand reduction and supply reduction; and

(4) provide information and assistance to drug and alcohol program agencies, both directly and by functioning as a clearinghouse for information from other drug and alcohol program agencies.

Sec. 7. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 299A.31, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [ESTABLISHMENT; MEMBERSHIP.] A drug and alcohol abuse prevention resource council consisting of 18 members is established. The commissioners of public safety, education, health, human services, and the state planning agency, and the attorney general shall each appoint one member from among their employees. The speaker of the house of representatives and the subcommittee on committees of the senate shall each appoint a legislative member. The governor shall appoint an additional ten members who shall demonstrate knowledge in the area of drug and alcohol abuse prevention or treatment, shall represent the demographic and geographic composition of the state and, to the extent possible, shall represent the following groups: parents, educators, clergy, local government, racial and ethnic minority communities, professional providers of drug and alcohol abuse prevention and treatment services, volunteers in private, nonprofit drug and alcohol prevention and treatment programs, the nonprofit foundation community, and the business community, and the criminal justice community. The members shall designate one of the governor's appointees as chair of the council. Compensation and removal of members are governed by section 15.059.

Sec. 8. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 299A.32, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [PURPOSE OF THE COUNCIL.] The general purpose of the drug and alcohol abuse prevention resource council is to foster the coordination and development of a statewide drug and alcohol abuse prevention, education, treatment, and criminal justice policy.

Sec. 9. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 299A.32, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [SPECIFIC DUTIES AND RESPONSIBILITIES.] In furtherance of the general purpose specified in subdivision 1, the council has the following duties and responsibilities:

(1) it shall develop a coordinated, statewide drug and alcohol abuse prevention policy with particular attention to programs that are geared to reducing the demand for drugs and the abuse of alcohol;

(2) it shall develop a mission statement that defines the roles and relationships of agencies operating within the continuum of chemical health care;

(3) it shall develop guidelines for drug and alcohol abuse prevention program development and operation based on its research and program evaluation activities;

(4) it shall assist local governments and groups in planning, organizing, and establishing comprehensive, community-based drug abuse prevention programs and services;

(5) it shall coordinate and provide technical assistance to organizations and individuals seeking public or private funding for drug abuse prevention programs, and to government and private agencies seeking to grant funds for these purposes;

(6) it shall assist providers of drug abuse prevention services in implementing, monitoring, and evaluating new and existing programs and services;

(7) it shall provide information on and analysis of the relative public and private costs of drug abuse prevention, enforcement, intervention, and treatment efforts; and

(8) it shall advise the assistant commissioner of the office of drug and alcohol abuse policy in awarding grants for programs including those created by sections 299A.33 to 299A.40, and in other duties.

Sec. 10. [299A.321] [ANTI-DRUG AND ANTI-ALCOHOL ABUSE PROGRAMS; GRANTS.]

Subdivision 1. [DISBURSEMENT.] The commissioner, with the assistance and advice of the drug and alcohol abuse prevention resource council, may award grants under sections 299A.33, 299A.34, 299A.35, and 299A.40 and section 11.

Subd. 2. [GRANTS.] A grant awarded under this section may require a match not to exceed 25 percent. Grants may be awarded for up to five years. Money received under this section may not be used to compensate for a decrease in previously existing funding levels.

Subd. 3. [GRANT PROCEDURE.] An applicant may apply for a grant by submitting an application with the commissioner. The applicant shall specify the following in the application:

- (1) a description of each program for which funding is sought;
- (2) the amount of funding to be provided to the program;
- (3) the geographical area to be served by the program; and

(4) for criminal justice grants, statistical information about the number of arrests in the geographical area for violent crimes, for alcohol-related crimes under Minnesota Statutes, chapter 169, and for crimes involving schedule I and II controlled substances. "Violent crime" includes a violation of or an attempt or conspiracy to violate any of the following laws: sections 609.185; 609.19; 609.195; 609.20; 609.205; 609.21; 609.221; 609.222; 609.223; 609.228; 609.235; 609.24; 609.245; 609.25; 609.255; 609.2661; 609.2662; 609.2663; 609.2664; 609.2665; 609.267; 609.2671; 609.268; 609.342; 609.343; 609.344; 609.345; 609.498, subdivision 1; 609.561; 609.562; 609.582, subdivision 1; 609.687; and any provision of chapter 152 that is punishable by a maximum term of imprisonment greater than ten years.

For criminal justice grants, the commissioner shall give priority to funding programs in the geographical areas that have the highest crime rates, as measured by the data supplied under clause (4), and that demonstrate substantial involvement by members of the community served by the program.

Sec. 11. [299A.332] [DRUG AND ALCOHOL TREATMENT GRANTS.]

Subdivision 1. [GRANTS.] (a) The commissioner shall develop grant programs to provide funds to drug and alcohol treatment facilities, programs, and services that:

(1) provide court-ordered treatment services to persons who are convicted of a crime and are determined through a chemical use assessment under section 169.126 or a similar procedure to be in need of drug and alcohol treatment services; and

(2) provide drug and alcohol treatment services to persons ordered to receive it as an outcome of a criminal justice diversion program, civil proceeding, or child protection order, but who are indigent or otherwise unable to afford the treatment.

(b) The commissioner shall establish eligibility criteria and reporting requirements for grant recipients.

Sec. 12. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 299A.34, is amended to read:

299A.34 [LAW ENFORCEMENT AND COMMUNITY AND CRIMINAL JUSTICE GRANTS.]

Subdivision 1. [GRANT PROGRAMS.] (a) The commissioner shall develop grant programs to:

(1) assist law enforcement criminal justice agencies in purchasing equipment, ~~provide undercover buy money~~, and pay other personnel and nonpersonnel costs; and

(2) assist community and neighborhood organizations in efforts to prevent or reduce criminal activities in their areas, particularly activities involving youth and the use and sale of drugs.

Eligible criminal justice agencies include prosecutors, county sheriffs, police departments, public defender offices, district courts, and community corrections agencies.

(b) The commissioner shall ~~by rule prescribe~~ establish criteria for eligibility and the award of grants and reporting requirements for recipients.

Subd. 2. [SELECTION AND MONITORING.] The drug and alcohol abuse prevention resource council shall assist in the selection and monitoring of grant recipients.

Sec. 13. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 299A.35, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [PROGRAMS.] The commissioner shall, in consultation with the drug and alcohol abuse prevention resource council, administer a grant program to fund community-based programs that are designed to enhance the community's sense of personal security and to assist the community in its crime control efforts. Examples of qualifying programs include, but are not limited to, the following:

(1) programs to provide security systems for residential buildings serving low-income persons, elderly persons, and persons who have physical or mental disabilities;

(2) community-based programs designed to discourage young people from involvement in unlawful drug or street gang activities;

(3) neighborhood block clubs and innovative community-based crime watch programs; ~~and~~

(4) other community-based crime prevention programs that are innovative and encourage substantial involvement by members of the community served by the program; and

(5) programs designed to alleviate the impact of abuse of alcohol and controlled substances on the community, including programs to aid the victims of domestic violence and other offenses to which the abuse of alcohol and controlled substances is a contributing factor.

Sec. 14. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 299A.36, is amended to read:

299A.36 [OTHER DUTIES.]

The assistant commissioner assigned to the office of drug and alcohol abuse policy, in consultation with the drug and alcohol abuse prevention resource council, shall:

(1) provide information and assistance upon request to school preassessment teams established under section 126.034 and school and community advisory teams established under section 126.035;

(2) provide information and assistance upon request to the state board of pharmacy with respect to the board's enforcement of chapter 152;

(3) cooperate with and provide information and assistance upon request to the alcohol and other drug abuse section in the department of human services;

(4) assist in coordinating the policy of the office with that of the narcotic enforcement unit in the bureau of criminal apprehension; and

(5) coordinate the activities of the regional drug task forces, provide assistance and information to them upon request, and assist in the formation of task forces in areas of the state in which no task force operates.

Sec. 15. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 299A.37, is amended to read:

299A.37 [COOPERATION OF OTHER AGENCIES.]

State agencies, and agencies and governing bodies of political subdivisions, shall cooperate with the assistant commissioner assigned to the office of drug and alcohol abuse policy and shall provide any public information requested by the assistant commissioner assigned to the office of drug and alcohol abuse policy.

Sec. 16. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 299A.40, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [GRANTS FOR DEMONSTRATION PROGRAM.] The assistant commissioner of the office of drug and alcohol abuse policy may award a grant to a county, multicounty organization, or city, as described in subdivision 1, for establishing and operating a multidisciplinary chemical abuse prevention team. The assistant commissioner may approve up to five applications for grants under this subdivision shall consult with the drug and alcohol abuse prevention resource council before awarding grants. The grant funds must be used to establish a multidisciplinary chemical abuse prevention team to carry out the duties in subdivision 2.

Sec. 17. [PILOT PROJECT FOR SERVICES TO PREVENT CHILD ABUSE.]

The commissioner of human services is authorized to fund a pilot project designed to measure the effectiveness of early intervention and targeted family services in preventing child abuse. The pilot project must be designed to offer a full range of innovative in-home and family treatment services to selected families, determined by the county agency to be at risk for child abuse. The county shall monitor and evaluate the program outcomes for the families participating in the program and shall report those outcomes to the commissioner. The commissioner shall report to the legislature before January 15, 1992, on the design and effectiveness of the project program and shall include recommendations for legislation as appropriate.

Sec. 18. [ANTI-DRUG AND ANTI-ALCOHOL ABUSE PROGRAMS.]

The purpose of the increases in excise taxes in sections 3 and 4 is to provide funding for the anti-drug and anti-alcohol abuse programs authorized by sections 299A.30 to 299A.40 and for the child abuse prevention and family planning services authorized by sections 17 and 19.

Sec. 19. [APPROPRIATIONS.]

Sec. 5. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 349.12, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 10a. [VIDEO PULL-TAB DEVICE.] "Video pull-tab device" means an electronic video device that on the insertion of cash or a token simulates the game of pull-tabs.

Sec. 6. Minnesota Statutes Second 1989 Supplement, section 349.12, subdivision 11, is amended to read:

Subd. 11. (a) "Lawful purpose" means one or more of the following:

(1) benefiting persons by enhancing their opportunity for religious or educational advancement, by relieving or protecting them from disease, suffering or distress, by contributing to their physical well-being, by assisting them in establishing themselves in life as worthy and useful citizens, or by increasing their comprehension of and devotion to the principles upon which this nation was founded;

(2) initiating, performing, or fostering worthy public works or enabling or furthering the erection or maintenance of public structures;

(3) lessening the burdens borne by government or voluntarily supporting, augmenting or supplementing services which government would normally render to the people;

(4) payment of local taxes authorized under this chapter, and taxes imposed by the United States on receipts from lawful gambling;

(5) any expenditure by, or any contribution to, a hospital or nursing home exempt from taxation under section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code;

(6) payment of reasonable costs incurred in complying with the performing of annual audits required under section 349.19, subdivision 9;

(7) payment of real estate taxes and assessments on licensed gambling premises wholly owned by the licensed organization; or

(8) if approved by the board, construction, improvement, expansion, maintenance, and repair of athletic fields and outdoor ice rinks and their appurtenances, owned by the organization or a public agency.

(b) "Lawful purpose" does not include the erection, acquisition, improvement, expansion, repair, or maintenance of any real property or capital assets owned or leased by an organization, other than a hospital or nursing home exempt from taxation under section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, unless the board has first specifically authorized the expenditures after finding: (1) that the property or capital assets will be used exclusively for one or more of the purposes specified in paragraph (a), clauses (1) to (3); or (2) with respect to expenditures for repair or maintenance only, that the property is or will be used extensively as a meeting place or event location by other nonprofit organizations or community or service groups and that no rental fee is charged for the use; or (3) with respect to expenditures for erection or acquisition only, that the erection or acquisition is necessary to replace with a comparable building a building owned by the organization and destroyed or made uninhabitable by fire or natural disaster, provided that the expenditure may be only for that part of the replacement cost not reimbursed by insurance. The board shall by rule adopt procedures and standards to administer this subdivision.

(1) any expenditure by or contribution to a 501(c)(3) organization, provided that the organization and expenditure or contribution are in conformity with standards prescribed by the board under section 19;

(2) a contribution to an individual or family suffering from poverty, homelessness, or physical or mental disability, which is used to relieve the effects of that poverty, homelessness, or disability;

(3) a contribution to an individual for treatment for delayed post-traumatic stress syndrome, or a contribution to a recognized program for the treatment of compulsive gambling on behalf of an individual who is a compulsive gambler;

(4) a contribution to or expenditure on a public or private nonprofit educational institution registered with or accredited by this state or any other state;

(5) a contribution to a scholarship fund for defraying the cost of education to individuals, where the funds are awarded through an open and fair selection process not controlled by the contributing organization;

(6) activities by a veterans organization or a government entity which recognize humanitarian or military service to the United States, the state of Minnesota, or a community;

(7) recreational and athletic facilities and activities intended primarily for persons under age 21, provided that such facilities and activities do not discriminate on the basis of gender, as evidenced by (i) provision of equipment and supplies, (ii) scheduling of activities, including games and practice times, (iii) supply and assignment of coaches or other adult supervisors, (iv) provision and availability of support facilities, and (v) whether the opportunity to participate reflects each gender's demonstrated interest in the activity;

(8) payment of local taxes authorized under this chapter, and taxes imposed by the United States on receipts from lawful gambling;

(9) payment of real estate taxes and assessments on licensed gambling premises wholly owned by the licensed organization paying the taxes;

(10) a contribution to the United States, this state or any of its political subdivisions, or any agency or instrumentality thereof other than a direct contribution to a law enforcement or prosecutorial agency; or

(11) a contribution to or expenditure by a nonprofit organization, church or body of communicants, gathered in common membership for mutual support and edification in piety, worship, or religious observances.

(b) Notwithstanding paragraph (a), "lawful purpose" does not include:

(1) any expenditure made or incurred for the purpose of influencing the nomination or election of a candidate for public office or for the purpose of promoting or defeating a ballot question;

(2) any activity intended to influence an election or a governmental decision-making process;

(3) the erection, acquisition, improvement, expansion, repair, or maintenance of real property or capital assets owned or leased by an organization, unless the board has first specifically authorized the expenditures after finding that (i) the real property or capital assets will be used exclusively for one or more of the purposes in paragraph (a); (ii) with respect to expenditures for repair or maintenance only, that the property is or will be used extensively as a meeting place or event location by other nonprofit organizations or community or service groups and that no rental fee is charged for the use; (iii) with respect to expenditures, including a mortgage payment or other debt service payment, for erection or acquisition only, that the erection or acquisition is necessary to replace with a comparable building, a building owned by the organization and destroyed or made uninhabitable by fire or natural disaster, provided that the expenditure may be only for that part of the replacement cost not reimbursed by insurance; or (iv) with respect to expenditures, including a mortgage payment or other debt service payment, for erection or acquisition only, that the erection or acquisition is necessary to replace with a comparable building a building owned by the organization that was acquired from the organization by eminent domain or sold by the organization to a purchaser that the organization reasonably believed would otherwise have acquired the building by eminent domain, provided that the expenditure may be only for that part of the replacement cost that exceeds the compensation received by the organization for the building being replaced;

(4) an expenditure by an organization which is a contribution to a parent organization, foundation or affiliate of the contributing organization, if the parent organization, foundation, or affiliate has provided to the contributing organization within one year of the contribution any money, grants, property, or other thing of value; or

(5) a contribution by a licensed organization to another licensed organization unless the board has specifically authorized the contribution. The board must authorize such a contribution when requested to do so by the contributing organization unless it makes an affirmative finding that the contribution will not be used by the recipient organization for one or more of the purposes in paragraph (a).

Sec. 7. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 349.12, subdivision 12, is amended to read:

Subd. 12. [ORGANIZATION.] "Organization" means any fraternal, religious, veterans, or other nonprofit organization which has at least 15 active members, and either has been duly incorporated as a nonprofit organization for at least three years, or has been recognized by the Internal Revenue Service as exempt from income taxation for the most recent three years.

Sec. 8. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 349.12, subdivision 15, is amended to read:

Subd. 15. [GAMBLING EQUIPMENT.] "Gambling equipment" means: bingo cards or sheets, devices for selecting bingo numbers, pull-tabs, jar tickets, pull-tab and/or tipboard dispensing machines, video pull-tab devices, paddlewheels, and tipboards.

Sec. 9. Minnesota Statutes Second 1989 Supplement, section 349.12, subdivision 19, is amended to read:

Subd. 19. [IDEAL GROSS.] "Ideal gross" means the total amount of receipts that would be received if every individual ticket in the pull-tab or tipboard deal was sold at its face value. In the calculation of ideal gross and prizes, a free play ticket shall be valued at face value. In the case of video pull-tab devices "ideal gross" is the total amount of receipts that can be received by the read-only memory chip driving the device.

Sec. 10. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 349.12, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 30. [501(c)(3) ORGANIZATION.] "501(c)(3) organization" is an organization exempt from the payment of federal income taxes under section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code.

Sec. 11. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 349.12, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 31. [AFFILIATE.] "Affiliate" is any person or entity directly or indirectly controlling, controlled by, or under common control or ownership with a licensee of the board or any officer or director of a licensee of the board.

Sec. 12. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 349.12, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 32. [PERSON.] "Person" is an individual, firm, association, partnership, corporation, trustee, or legal representative.

Subd. 33. [VIDEO PULL-TAB DEVICE WHOLESALER.] "Video pull-tab device wholesaler" is a person who purchases video pull-tab devices from a manufacturer and sells them to a distributor.

Sec. 14. Minnesota Statutes Second 1989 Supplement, section 349.15, is amended to read:

349.15 [USE OF GROSS PROFITS.]

(a) Gross profits from lawful gambling may be expended only for lawful purposes or allowable expenses as authorized at a regular meeting of the conducting organization. Provided that no more than 55 percent of the gross profit less the tax imposed under section 349.212, subdivision 1, from bingo, no more than 50 percent of the gross profit from raffles, paddlewheels, and tipboards, and no more than 50 percent of the gross profit less the taxes imposed by section 349.212, subdivisions 1, 4, and 6, from other forms of lawful gambling pull-tabs, may be expended for allowable expenses related to lawful gambling.

(b) The board shall provide by rule for the administration of this section, including specifying allowable expenses. The rules must specify that no more than one-third of the annual premium on a policy of liability insurance procured by the organization may be taken as an allowable expense. This expense shall be allowed by the board only to the extent that it relates directly to the conduct of lawful gambling and is verified in the manner the board prescribes by rule. The rules may provide a maximum percentage of gross profits which may be expended for certain expenses.

(c) Allowable expenses also include reasonable costs of bank account service charges, and the reasonable costs of an audit required by the board, except an audit required under section 349.19, subdivision 9.

(d) Allowable expenses include reasonable legal fees and damages that relate to the conducting of lawful gambling, except for legal fees or damages incurred in defending the organization against the board, attorney general, United States attorney, commissioner of revenue, or a county or city attorney.

Sec. 15. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 349.151, subdivision 4, is amended to read:

Subd. 4. [POWERS AND DUTIES.] (a) Until July 1, 1993, the board has the following powers and duties:

(1) to regulate lawful gambling to ensure it is conducted in the public interest;

(2) to issue, revoke, and suspend licenses to organizations, distributors, bingo halls, and manufacturers under sections 349.16, 349.161, 349.163, and 349.164, and gambling managers;

(2) (3) to collect and deposit license, permit, and registration fees due under this chapter;

(3) (4) to receive reports required by this chapter and inspect the all premises, records, books, and other documents of organizations and suppliers, distributors, manufacturers, and bingo halls to insure compliance with all applicable laws and rules;

(4) (5) to make rules required authorized by this chapter;

(5) (6) to register gambling equipment and issue registration stamps under section 349.162;

(6) (7) to provide by rule for the mandatory posting by organizations conducting lawful gambling of rules of play and the odds and/or house percentage on each form of lawful gambling;

(7) (8) to report annually to the governor and legislature on its activities and on recommended changes in the laws governing gambling;

(8) (9) to impose civil penalties of not more than $500 per violation on organizations, distributors, and manufacturers, bingo halls, and gambling managers for failure to comply with any provision of sections 349.12 to 349.23 this chapter or any rule of the board;

(9) to notify city councils, county boards, and town boards before issuing or renewing licenses to organizations and bingo halls as specified under section 349.213; and

(10) to issue premises permits to organizations licensed to conduct lawful gambling;

(11) to delegate to the director the authority to issue licenses and premises permits under criteria established by the board;

(12) to suspend or revoke licenses and premises permits of organizations, distributors, manufacturers, bingo halls, or gambling managers for violations of law or board rule;

(13) to register recipients of net profits from lawful gambling and to revoke or suspend such registrations;

(14) to register employees of organizations licensed to conduct lawful gambling;

(15) to require fingerprints from those persons determined by board rule to be subject to fingerprinting; and

(16) to take all necessary steps to ensure the integrity of and public confidence in lawful gambling.

(b) Any organization, distributor, bingo hall operator, or manufacturer assessed a civil penalty may request a hearing before the board. Hearings conducted on appeals of imposition of penalties are not subject to the provisions of the administrative procedure act.

(c) All fees and penalties received by the board must be deposited in the general fund.

(d) On and after July 1, 1993, the board has only the following powers and duties:

(1) to impose civil penalties of up to $500 per violation on organizations, distributors, manufacturers, bingo halls, and gambling managers who violate any provision of this chapter or any rule of the board before July 1, 1993; and

(2) to hear appeals of civil penalties imposed by the board before July 1, 1993.

Sec. 16. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 349.152, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [DUTIES OF THE DIRECTOR.] The director has the following duties:

- (1) to carry out gambling policy established by the board;
- (2) to employ and supervise personnel of the board;
- (3) to advise and make recommendations to the board on rules;
- (4) to issue licenses and premises permits as authorized by the board;
- (5) to issue cease and desist orders;
- (6) to make recommendations to the board on license issuance, denial, suspension and revocation, and civil penalties the board imposes; and
- (7) to ensure that board rules, policy, and decisions are adequately and accurately conveyed to the board's licensees.

Sec. 17. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 349.152, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 3. [CEASE AND DESIST ORDERS.] Whenever it appears to the director that any person has engaged or is about to engage in any act or practice constituting a violation of this chapter or any rule:

(a) The director has the power to issue and cause to be served upon the person an order requiring the person to cease and desist from violations of this chapter. The order must give reasonable notice of the rights of the person to request a hearing and must state the reason for the entry of the order. A hearing shall be held not later than seven days after the request for the hearing is received by the board after which and within 20 days of the date of the hearing the board shall issue an order vacating the cease and desist order or making it permanent as the facts require. All hearings shall be conducted in accordance with the provisions of chapter 14. If the person to whom a cease and desist order is issued fails to appear at the hearing after being duly notified, the person shall be deemed in default, and the proceeding may be determined against the person upon consideration of the cease and desist order, the allegations of which may be deemed to be true.

(b) The board may bring an action in the district court in the appropriate county to enjoin the acts or practices and to enforce compliance with this chapter or any rule and may refer the matter to the attorney general. Upon a proper showing, a permanent or temporary injunction, restraining order, or writ of mandamus shall be granted. The court may not require the board to post a bond.

Sec. 18. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 349.152, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 4. [EXECUTIVE ASSISTANT.] The director may appoint an executive assistant to the director, who is in the unclassified service.

Sec. 19. [349.154] [EXPENDITURE OF NET PROFITS FROM LAWFUL GAMBLING.]

Subdivision 1. [STANDARDS FOR CERTAIN ORGANIZATIONS.] The board shall by rule prescribe standards that must be met by any licensed organization that is a 501(c)(3) organization. The standards must provide:

(1) operating standards for the organization, including a maximum percentage or percentages of the organization's total expenditures that may be expended for the organization's administration and operation; and

(2) standards for any expenditure by the organization of net profits from lawful gambling, including a requirement that the expenditure be related to the primary purpose of the organization.

Subd. 2. [NET PROFIT REPORTS.] (a) Each licensed organization must report monthly to the board on a form prescribed by the board each expenditure and contribution of net profits from lawful gambling. The reports must provide for each expenditure or contribution:

(1) the name, address, and telephone number of the recipient of the expenditure or contribution;

(2) the date the contribution was approved by the organization;

(3) the date, amount, and check number of the expenditure or contribution; and

(4) a brief description of how the expenditure or contribution meets one or more of the purposes in section 349.12, subdivision 11, paragraph (a).

(b) Each report required under paragraph (a) must be accompanied by an acknowledgment, on a form the board prescribes, of each contribution of net profits from lawful gambling included in the report. The acknowledgment must be signed by the recipient of the contribution, or, if the recipient is not an individual, or other authorized representative of the recipient, by an officer. The acknowledgment must include the name and address of the contributing organization and each item in paragraph (a), clauses (1) to (3).

(c) The board shall provide the commissioners of revenue and public safety copies of each report received under this subdivision.

Subd. 3. [REGISTRATION OF LAWFUL GAMBLING NET PROFIT RECIPIENTS.] The board may by rule require that any individual, organization, or other entity must be registered with the board to receive a contribution of net profits from lawful gambling. The rules may designate and define specific categories of recipients which are subject to registration. The board may suspend or revoke the registration of any recipient the board determines has made an unlawful expenditure of net profits from lawful gambling.

Sec. 20. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 349.16, as amended by Laws 1989, chapter 334, article 2, sections 20 and 21, and Laws 1989, First Special Session chapter 1, article 13, section 8, is amended to read:

349.16 [ORGANIZATION LICENSES.]

Subdivision 1. [LICENSE REQUIRED.] An organization may conduct lawful gambling if it has a license to conduct lawful gambling and complies with this chapter.

Subd. 2. [ISSUANCE OF GAMBLING LICENSES.] Licenses authorizing organizations to conduct lawful gambling may be issued by the board to organizations meeting the following qualifications of section 349.14, if the board determines that the license is consistent with the purpose of sections 349.11 to 349.22:

(a) The organization must have been in existence for the most recent three years preceding the license application as a registered Minnesota nonprofit corporation or as an organization designated as exempt from the payment of income taxes by the Internal Revenue Code.

(b) The organization at the time of licensing must have at least 15 active members.

(c) The organization must not be in existence solely for the purpose of conducting gambling.

(d) The organization must not have as an officer or member of the governing body any person who has within the five years prior to the issuance of the license been convicted in a federal or state court of a felony or gross misdemeanor or who has ever been convicted of a crime involving gambling or who has had a license issued by the board or director revoked for a violation of law or board rule.

(e) The organization has identified in its license application the lawful purposes on which it proposes to expend net profits from lawful gambling.

(f) The organization has identified on its license application a gambling manager and certifies that the manager is qualified under this section.

(g) The organization must not, in the opinion of the board after consultation with the commissioner of revenue, be seeking licensing primarily for the purpose of evading or reducing the tax imposed by section 349.212, subdivision 6.

Subd. 3. [TERM OF LICENSE: SUSPENSION AND REVOCATION] (a) Licenses issued under this section are valid for one year and may be suspended by the board for a violation of law or board rule or revoked for what the board determines to be a ~~pattern of willful violations~~ violation of law or board rule. A revocation or suspension is a contested case under sections 14.57 to 14.69 of the administrative procedure act.

(b) The board may summarily suspend the license of an organization that is more than three months late in filing a tax return required under this chapter, and may keep the suspension in effect until all required returns are filed. The board must notify an organization at least 14 days before suspending the organization's license under this paragraph. A contested case hearing must be held within 20 days of the summary suspension and the administrative law judge's report must be issued within 20 days after the close of the hearing record. In all cases involving summary suspension, the board must issue its final decision within 30 days after receipt of the report of the administrative law judge and subsequent exceptions and argument under section 14.61.

(c) When an organization's license is suspended or revoked under this subdivision, the board shall within three days notify all municipalities in which the organization's gambling premises are located, and all licensed distributors in the state.

Subd. 1a. [RESTRICTIONS ON LICENSE ISSUANCE.] On and after October 1, 1989, the board shall not issue an initial license to any organization if the board, in consultation with the department of revenue, determines that the organization is seeking licensing for the primary purpose of evading or reducing the tax imposed by section 349.212, subdivision 6.

Subd. 2 4. [APPLICATION.] All applications for a license under this section must be on a form prescribed by the board. The board may require the applying organization to submit a copy of its articles of incorporation and other documents it deems necessary.

Subd. 5. [RENEWALS.] The board shall not renew a license issued under this section unless it determines that the organization is (1) in compliance with all laws and rules governing lawful gambling; and (2) is not delinquent in filing tax returns or paying taxes required under this chapter. The board may delegate to the director the authority to make determinations required under this subdivision.

Subd. 3 6. [FEES.] The board may issue four classes of organization licenses: a class A license authorizing all forms of lawful gambling; a class B license authorizing all forms of lawful gambling except bingo; a class C license authorizing bingo only; and a class D license authorizing raffles only. The annual license fee for each class of license is:

- (1) $200 for a class A license;
- (2) $125 for a class B license;
- (3) $100 for a class C license; and
- (4) $75 for a class D license. board shall not charge a fee for an organization license.

Subd. 7. [PURCHASE OF GAMBLING EQUIPMENT.] An organization may purchase gambling equipment only from a person licensed as a distributor.

Subd. 4 8. [LOCAL INVESTIGATION FEE.] A statutory or home rule charter city or county notified under section 349.213, subdivision 2, may assess an investigation fee on organizations or bingo halls applying for or renewing a license to conduct lawful gambling or operate a bingo hall. An investigation fee may not exceed the following limits:

- (1) for cities of the first class, $500;
- (2) for cities of the second class, $250;
- (3) for all other cities, $100; and
- (4) for counties, $375.

Sec. 21. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 349.161, as amended by Laws 1989, First Special Session chapter 1, article 13, section 9, is amended to read:

349.161 [DISTRIBUTOR LICENSES.]

Subdivision 1. [PROHIBITED ACTS; LICENSES REQUIRED.]

(e) No distributor, distributor's or any representative, agent, affiliate, or employee of a distributor may alter or modify any gambling equipment, except to add a "last ticket sold" prize sticker.

Subd. 6. [REVOCATION AND SUSPENSION.] A license under this section may be suspended by the board for a violation of law or board rule or. A license under this section may be revoked for (1) failure to meet the qualifications in subdivision 3 at any time; or revoked (2) for what the board determines to be a pattern of a willful violations violation of law or board rule. A revocation or suspension is a contested case under sections 14.57 to 14.69 of the administrative procedure act.

Subd. 7. [CRIMINAL HISTORY.] The board may request the assistance of the division of gambling enforcement in investigating the background of an applicant for a distributor's license and may reimburse the division of gambling enforcement for the costs thereof. The board has access to all criminal history data compiled by the division of gambling enforcement on licensees and applicants.

Subd. 8. [EMPLOYEES OF DISTRIBUTORS.] Licensed distributors shall provide the board upon request with the names and home addresses of all employees. Each distributor, employee of a distributor, or a person making sales of gambling equipment on behalf of a distributor must have in their possession a picture identification card approved by the board.

Subd. 9. [LEASES OF VIDEO PULL-TAB DEVICES.] For purposes of this section the terms "sell" and "sale" include the lease of a video pull-tab device or pull-tab dispensing machine by a distributor to a licensed organization.

Sec. 22. [349.1611] [VIDEO PULL-TAB DEVICE WHOLE-SALER.]

Subdivision 1. [LICENSE REQUIRED.] No person may engage in the business of purchasing video pull-tab devices from a manufacturer for sale to a distributor without having obtained a license from the board. The board may issue a license to persons who meet the qualifications of this section if the board determines that issuance of the license is consistent with the purposes of section 349.11 to 349.23. Applications must be on a form the board prescribes. Video pull-tab device wholesaler's licenses are valid for one year. The fee for a video pull-tab device wholesaler's license is $2,500.

(5) owes $500 or more in delinquent taxes as defined in section 270.72;

(6) has had a sales and use tax permit revoked by the commissioner of revenue within the last two years; or

(7) after demand, has not filed tax returns required by the commissioner of revenue.

Subd. 3. [PROHIBITIONS.] All prohibitions applicable to distributors or manufacturers under section 349.161, subdivision 5, apply to video pull-tab device wholesalers.

Subd. 4. [REVOCATION; SUSPENSION.] A license under this section may be suspended by the board for a violation of law or board rule. A license under this section may be revoked for (1) failure to meet the qualifications in subdivision 2 at any time, or (2) for a willful violation of law or board rule. A revocation or suspension is a contested case under sections 14.57 to 14.69 of the administrative procedure act.

Sec. 23. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 349.162, is amended to read:

349.162 [EQUIPMENT REGISTERED.]

Subdivision 1. [STAMP REQUIRED.] (a) A distributor may not sell, transfer, furnish, or otherwise provide to a person, organization, or distributor, and no person, organization, or distributor may purchase, borrow, accept, or acquire from a distributor gambling equipment unless the equipment has been registered with the board and has a registration stamp affixed. The board shall charge a fee of five cents for each stamp. Each stamp must bear a registration number assigned by the board. A distributor is entitled to a refund for unused stamps and replacement for stamps which are defective or canceled by the distributor.

(b) On and after January 1, 1991, no distributor, organization, or other person may sell a pull-tab which is not clearly marked "For Sale in Minnesota Only."

Subd. 2. [RECORDS REQUIRED.] A distributor must maintain a record of all gambling equipment which it sells to organizations. The record must include:

(1) the identity of the person or firm from whom the equipment was distributor purchased the equipment;

- (2) the registration number of the equipment;
- (3) the name ~~and~~, address and license or exempt permit number of the organization to which the sale was made;
- (4) the date of the sale;
- (5) the name of the person who ordered the equipment; ~~and~~
- (6) the name of the person who received the equipment;
- (7) the type of equipment;
- (8) the serial number of the equipment;
- (9) the name, form number, or other identifying information for each game; and
- (10) in the case of bingo cards sold on and after January 1, 1991, the individual number of each card.

The invoice for each sale must be retained for at least ~~two~~ three and one-half years after the sale is completed and a copy of each invoice is to be delivered to the board in the manner and time prescribed by the board. For purposes of this section, a sale is completed when the gambling equipment is physically delivered to the purchaser.

Each distributor must report monthly to the board, in a form the board prescribes, its sales of each type of gambling equipment. Employees of the division and the division of gambling enforcement may inspect the business premises, books, records, and other documents of a distributor at any reasonable time without notice and without a search warrant.

Subd. 3. [EXEMPTION.] For purposes of this section, bingo cards or sheets need not be stamped.

Subd. 4. [PROHIBITION.] (a) No person other than a licensed distributor may possess unaffixed registration stamps issued by the board.

(b) Unless otherwise provided in this chapter, no person may possess gambling equipment that has not been stamped and registered with the board.

(c) On and after January 1, 1991, no distributor may:

(2) sell a package of bingo cards that does not contain bingo cards in numerical order.

Subd. 5. [SALES FROM FACILITIES.] (a) All gambling equipment purchased or possessed by a licensed distributor for resale in Minnesota must, prior to the equipment's resale, be unloaded into a sales or storage facility located in Minnesota which the distributor owns or leases; and which has been registered, in advance and in writing, with the division of gambling enforcement as a sales or storage facility of the distributor's. All unregistered gambling equipment and all unaffixed registration stamps owned by, or in the possession of, a licensed distributor in the state of Minnesota shall be stored at a sales or storage facility which has been registered with the division of gambling enforcement. No gambling equipment may be moved from the facility unless the gambling equipment has been first registered with the board.

(b) All sales and storage facilities owned, leased, used, or operated by a licensed distributor may be entered upon and inspected by the employees of the division of gambling enforcement or the director's authorized representatives during reasonable and regular business hours. Obstruction of, or failure to permit, entry and inspection is cause for revocation or suspension of a distributor's licenses and permits issued under this chapter.

(c) Unregistered gambling equipment and unaffixed registration stamps found at any location in Minnesota other than a registered sales or storage facility are contraband under section 349.2125. This paragraph does not apply to unregistered gambling equipment being transported in interstate commerce between locations outside Minnesota, if the interstate shipment is verified by a bill of lading or other valid shipping document.

Subd. 6. [VIDEO PULL-TAB DEVICE MEMORY CHIPS.] For purposes of this section only, "gambling equipment" includes any memory chip used or intended to be used to drive a video pull-tab device.

Sec. 24. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 349.163, as amended by Laws 1989, First Special Session chapter 1, article 13, section 10, is amended to read:

349.163 [LICENSING OF MANUFACTURERS.]

Subdivision 1. [LICENSE REQUIRED.] No manufacturer of gambling equipment may sell any gambling equipment to any person unless the manufacturer has been issued a current and valid license by the board under objective this section and other criteria prescribed by the board by rule.

A manufacturer licensed under this section may not also be directly or indirectly licensed as a distributor under section 349.161 or as a video pull-tab wholesaler under section 22.

Subd. 1a. [QUALIFICATIONS.] A license may not be issued under this section to a person, or to a corporation, firm, or partnership which has as an officer, director, other person in a supervisory or management position, or employee eligible to make sales on behalf of the distributor, a person, who:

- (2) has ever been convicted of a felony involving fraud or misrepresentation or a crime involving gambling;
- (3) has ever been convicted of (i) assault, (ii) any criminal violation involving the use of a firearm, or (iii) making terroristic threats;
- (4) is or has ever been engaged in an illegal business;
- (5) owes $500 or more in delinquent taxes as defined in section 270.72;
- (6) has had a sales and use tax permit revoked by the commissioner of revenue within the last two years; or
- (7) after demand, has not filed tax returns required by the commissioner of revenue.

Subd. 2. [LICENSE; FEE.] A license under this section is valid for one year. The annual fee for the license is $2,500.

Subd. 3. [PROHIBITED SALES.] (a) A manufacturer may not:

- (1) sell gambling equipment to any person not licensed as a distributor unless the manufacturer is also a licensed distributor; or
- (2) sell gambling equipment to a distributor in this state that has the same serial number as another item of gambling equipment of the same type that is sold by that manufacturer for use in this state; or
- (3) on and after January 1, 1991, ship or cause to be shipped into this state a paper pull-tab that is not clearly marked with the words "For Sale in Minnesota Only."

(b) A manufacturer, affiliate of a manufacturer, or person acting as a representative, agent, or employee of a manufacturer may not provide a lessor of gambling premises any compensation, gift, gratuity, premium, or other thing of value.

Subd. 4. [INSPECTION OF MANUFACTURERS.] Employees of the division and the division of gambling enforcement may inspect the books, records, inventory, and manufacturing operations of a licensed manufacturer without notice during the normal business hours of the manufacturer.

Subd. 5. [PULL-TAB AND TIPBOARD FLARES.] A manufacturer may not ship or cause to be shipped into this state any deal of pull-tabs or tipboards that does not have its own individual flare as required for that deal by rule of the board. No person other than a manufacturer may manufacture, alter, modify, or otherwise change a flare for a deal of pull-tabs or tipboards except as allowed by this chapter or board rules.

Subd. 6. [SAMPLES OF GAMBLING EQUIPMENT.] The board shall require each licensed manufacturer to submit samples to the board of each item of gambling equipment the manufacturer manufactures for sale in this state. The board shall inspect and test all such equipment as it deems necessary to determine the equipment's compliance with law and board rules. The board may request the assistance of the commissioner of public safety and the director of the state lottery division in performing such tests.

Subd. 7. [RECYCLED PAPER REQUIRED.] All pull-tabs sold in Minnesota by a licensed manufacturer on and after January 1, 1991, must be manufactured on recycled paper.

Sec. 25. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 349.164, is amended to read:

349.164 [BINGO HALL LICENSES.]

Subdivision 1. [LICENSE REQUIRED.] No person may lease a facility to more than one individual, corporation, partnership, or organization to conduct bingo without having obtained a current and valid bingo hall license under this section, unless the lessor is a licensed organization.

Subd. 2. [LICENSE APPLICATION.] The board may issue a bingo hall license to persons who meet the qualifications of this section if the board determines that a license is consistent with the purpose of sections 349.11 to 349.22. Applications must be on a form the board prescribes. The board may not issue or renew a bingo hall license unless the conditions of section 349.213, subdivision 2, have been satisfied.

Subd. 3. [QUALIFICATIONS.] A license may not be issued under this section to a person, ~~or to a organization~~, corporation, firm, or partnership which is not the legal owner of the facility, or to a person, organization, corporation, firm, or partnership which has as an officer, director, or other person in a supervisory or management position, who:

- (1) has been convicted of a felony within the past five years;
- (2) has ever been convicted of a felony involving fraud or misrepresentation or a crime involving gambling; ~~or~~
- (3) has every been convicted of (i) assault, (ii) any criminal violation involving the use of a firearm, or (iii) making terroristic threats;
- (4) owes delinquent taxes in excess of $500 as defined in section 270.72; or
- (5) after demand, has not filed tax returns required by the commissioner of revenue.

Subd. 4. [FEES.] The annual fee for a bingo hall license is $2,500.

Subd. 5. [CRIMINAL HISTORY.] The board may request the assistance of the division of gambling enforcement in investigating the background of an applicant for a bingo hall license and may reimburse the division of gambling enforcement for the costs. The board has access to all criminal history data compiled by the bureau of criminal apprehension and the division of gambling enforcement on licensees and applicants.

Subd. 6. [PROHIBITION PROHIBITED ACTS.] No bingo hall licensee, person holding a financial or managerial interest in a bingo hall, or an affiliate thereof may also:

- (1) be a licensed distributor or licensed manufacturer or affiliate of the distributor or manufacturer under section 349.161 or 349.163 or a wholesale distributor of alcoholic beverages;

Subd. 7. [RESTRICTIONS.] A bingo hall licensee ~~or affiliate of the licensee may not:~~

- (1) (2) provide any staff to conduct or assist in the conduct of bingo or any other form of lawful gambling during the bingo occasion on the premises;

- (2) (3) acquire, provide storage or inventory control, or report the use of any gambling equipment used by an organization that conducts bingo lawful gambling on the premises;

(3) (4) provide accounting services to an organization conducting bingo lawful gambling on the premises;

(4) (5) solicit, suggest, encourage, or make any expenditures of gross receipts of an organization from lawful gambling; or

(7) provide assistance or participate in the conduct of lawful gambling on the premises; or

(8) permit more than 21 bingo occasions to be conducted on the premises in any week.

Subd. 8 7. [LEASES.] All of the remuneration to be received from the organization for the conduct of lawful gambling must be stated in the lease. No amount may be paid by the organization or received by the operator of the bingo hall licensee based on the number of participants attending the bingo occasion or participating in lawful gambling on the premises, or based on the gross receipts or profit received by the organization. All provisions of section 349.18 apply to lawful gambling conducted in bingo halls.

Subd. 9 8. [REVOCAION AND SUSPENSION.] A license under this section may be suspended by the board for a violation of law or board rule or revoked for (1) failure to meet the qualifications in subdivision 3 at any time; or revoked for what the board determines to be (2) a pattern of willful violations violation of law or board rule. A revocation or suspension is a contested case under sections 14.57 to 14.69 of the administrative procedure act.

Sec. 26. [349.165] [PREMISES PERMITS.]

Subdivision 1. [PREMISES PERMIT REQUIRED; APPLICATION.] No licensed organization may conduct any lawful gambling at any site unless it has first obtained from the board a premises permit for the site. The board shall prescribe a form for permit applications, and each application for a permit must be submitted on a separate form. The board may by rule limit the number of premises permits that may be issued to an organization.

Subd. 2. [CONTENTS OF APPLICATION.] Each application for a premises permit must contain:

(1) the name and address of the applying organization and of the organization's gambling manager;

(2) a description of the site for which the permit is sought, including its address and, where applicable, its placement within another premises or establishment;

(3) if the site is leased, the name and address of the lessor and such information about the lease as the board requires, including all rents and other charges for the use of the site; and

(4) other information the board deems necessary to carry out its purposes.

An organization holding a premises permit must notify the board within ten days whenever any material change is made in the above information.

Subd. 3. [FEES.] The board may issue four classes of premises permits, corresponding to the classes of licenses authorized under section 349.16, subdivision 6. The annual fee for each class of permit is:

- (1) $200 for a class A permit;
- (2) $125 for a class B permit;
- (3) $100 for a class C permit; and
- (4) $75 for a class D permit.

Sec. 27. [349.166] [EXEMPTIONS; EXCLUSIONS.]

Subdivision 1. [EXCLUSIONS.] (a) Bingo may be conducted without a license and without complying with sections 349.17, subdivision 1, and 349.18, if it is conducted:

- (1) in connection with a county fair, the state fair, or a civic celebration if it is not conducted for more than 12 consecutive days in a calendar year; or
- (2) by an organization that conducts four or fewer bingo occasions in a calendar year.

No organization that holds a license to conduct lawful gambling under this chapter may conduct bingo under this subdivision.

(b) Bingo may be conducted within a nursing home or a senior citizen housing project or by a senior citizen organization without compliance with sections 349.11 to 349.213 if the prizes for a single bingo game do not exceed $10, total prizes awarded at a single bingo occasion do not exceed $200, no more than two bingo occasions are held by the organization or at the facility each week, only members of the organization or residents of the nursing home or housing project are allowed to play in a bingo game, no compensation is paid for any persons who conduct the bingo, a manager is appointed to supervise the bingo, and the manager registers with the board. The gross receipts from bingo conducted under the limitations of this subdivision are exempt from taxation under chapter 297A.

(c) Raffles may be conducted by an organization without complying with sections 349.11 to 349.14 and 349.151 to 349.213 if the value of all raffle prizes awarded by the organization in a calendar year does not exceed $750.

Subd. 2. [EXEMPTIONS.] (a) Lawful gambling may be conducted by an organization as defined in section 349.12, subdivision 12, without complying with sections 349.151 to 349.16; 349.167; 349.168; 349.18; 349.19; and 349.212 if:

(1) the organization conducts lawful gambling on five or fewer days in a calendar year;

(2) the organization does not award more than $50,000 in prizes for lawful gambling in a calendar year;

(3) the organization pays a fee of $25 to the board, notifies the board in writing not less than 30 days before each lawful gambling occasion of the date and location of the occasion, or 60 days for an occasion held in the case of a city of the first class, the types of lawful gambling to be conducted, the prizes to be awarded, and receives an exemption identification number;

(4) the organization notifies the local government unit 30 days before the lawful gambling occasion, or 60 days for an occasion held in a city of the first class;

(5) the organization purchases all gambling equipment and supplies from a licensed distributor; and

(6) the organization reports to the board, on a single page form prescribed by the board, within 30 days of each gambling occasion, the gross receipts, prizes, expenses, expenditures of net profits from the occasion, and the identification of the licensed distributor from whom all gambling equipment was purchased.
