Subd. 1a. [REPORT REQUIREMENT FOR BOARD OF MEDICAL EXAMINERS AND BOARD OF NURSING.] The board of medical examiners and the board of nursing shall include in the report required under subdivision 1, clause (o), specific information regarding complaints and communications involving obstetrics, gynecology, prenatal care, and delivery, and the boards' responses or dispositions.

Sec. 9. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 256.936, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [DEFINITIONS.] For purposes of this section the following terms shall have the meanings given them:

(a) "Eligible persons" means pregnant women and children who are one year of age or older but less than 18 years of age who have gross family incomes that are equal to or less than 185 percent of the federal poverty guidelines and who are not eligible for medical assistance under chapter 256B or general assistance medical care under chapter 256D and who are not otherwise insured for the covered services. The period of eligibility for children extends from the first day of the month in which the child's first birthday occurs birth to the last day of the month in which the child becomes 18 years old. For purposes of this subdivision, a woman is considered pregnant for 60 days postpartum.

(b) "Covered services" means children's health services.

(c) "Children's health services" means the health services reimbursed under chapter 256B, with the exception of inpatient hospital services, special education services, private duty nursing services, orthodontic services, medical transportation services, personal care assistant and case management services, hospice care services, nursing home or intermediate care facilities services, and chemical dependency services.

(d) "Eligible providers" means those health care providers who provide children's health services to medical assistance recipients under rules established by the commissioner for that program. Reimbursement under this section shall be at the same rates and conditions established for medical assistance.

(e) "Commissioner" means the commissioner of human services.

(f) "Gross family income" for farm and nonfarm self-employed means income calculated using as the baseline the adjusted gross income reported on the applicant's federal income tax form for the previous year and adding back in reported depreciation, carryover loss, and net operating loss amounts that apply to the business in which the family is currently engaged. Applicants shall report the most recent financial situation of the family if it has changed from the period of time covered by the federal income tax form. The report may be in the form of percentage increase or decrease.

Sec. 10. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 256.936, subdivision 4, is amended to read:

Subd. 4. [ENROLLMENT FEE.] An annual enrollment fee of $25, not to exceed $150 per family, is required from eligible persons, who have gross family incomes that are equal to or less than 185 percent of the federal poverty guidelines, for children's health services. An annual enrollment fee of $50, not to exceed $300 per family, is required from eligible persons, who have gross family incomes that exceed 185 percent of the federal poverty guidelines, for children's health services. Enrollment fees are dedicated to the commissioner for the children's health plan program. The commissioner shall make an annual redetermination of continued eligibility and identify people who may become eligible for medical assistance.

Sec. 11. [256.9365] [PURCHASE OF CONTINUATION COVERAGE FOR AIDS PATIENTS.]

Subdivision 1. [PROGRAM ESTABLISHED.] The commissioner of human services shall establish a program to pay private health plan premiums for persons who have contracted human immunodeficiency virus (HIV) to enable them to continue coverage under a group or individual health plan. If a person is determined to be eligible under subdivision 2, the commissioner shall pay the eligible person's group plan continuation coverage premium for 18 months after termination of employment, or pay the eligible person's individual plan premium for 24 months after initial application.

Subd. 2. [ELIGIBILITY REQUIREMENTS.] To be eligible for the program, an applicant must satisfy the following requirements:

(1) the applicant must provide a physician's statement verifying that the applicant is infected with HIV and is, or within three months is likely to become, too ill to work in the applicant's current employment because of HIV-related disease;

(2) the applicant's monthly gross family income must not exceed 300 percent of the federal poverty guidelines, after deducting medical expenses and insurance premiums;

(3) the applicant must not own assets with a combined value of more than $25,000;

(4) if applying for payment of group plan premiums, the applicant must be covered by an employer's or former employer's group insurance plan and be eligible to purchase continuation coverage; and

(5) if applying for payment of individual plan premiums, the applicant must be covered by an individual health plan whose coverage and premium costs satisfy additional requirements established by the commissioner in rule.

Subd. 3. [RULES.] The commissioner shall establish rules as necessary to implement the program. Special requirements for the payment of individual plan premiums under subdivision 2, clause (5), must be designed to ensure that the state cost of paying an individual plan premium over a two-year period does not exceed the estimated state cost that would otherwise be incurred in the medical assistance program.

Sec. 12. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 256.969, subdivision 2c, is amended to read:

Subd. 2c. [PROPERTY PAYMENT RATES.] For each hospital's first two consecutive fiscal years beginning on or after July 1, 1988, the commissioner shall limit the annual increase in property payment rates for depreciation, rents and leases, and interest expense to the annual growth in the hospital cost index derived from the methodology in effect on the day before July 1, 1989. When computing budgeted and settlement property payment rates, the commissioner shall use the annual increase in the hospital cost index forecasted by Data Resources, Inc., consistent with the quarter of the hospital's fiscal year end. For admissions occurring on or after the rate year beginning January 1, 1991, the commissioner shall obtain property data from an updated base year and establish property payment rates per admission for each hospital. Property payment rates shall be derived from data from the same base year that is used to establish operating payment rates. The property information shall include cost categories not subject to the hospital cost index and shall reflect the cost-finding methods and allowable costs of the Medicare program in effect during the base year. The property payment rate per admission shall be adjusted for positive percentage change differences in the net book value of hospital property and equipment by increasing the property payment rate per admission 85 percent of the percentage change from the base year through the most recent year ending prior to the rate year for which required information is available. The percentage change shall be derived from equivalent audited information in both years and shall be adjusted to account for changes in generally accepted accounting principles, reclassification of assets, allocations to nonhospital areas, and fiscal years. The cost, audit, and charge data used to establish property rates shall only reflect inpatient services covered by medical assistance and shall not include operating cost information. To be eligible for the property payment rate per admission adjustment, the hospital must provide the necessary information to the commissioner, in a format specified by the commissioner, by the October 1 preceding the rate year. The commissioner shall adjust rates for the rate year beginning January 1, 1991, to ensure that all hospitals are subject to the hospital cost index limitation for two complete years.

Sec. 13. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 256.969, subdivision 6a, is amended to read:

Subd. 6a. [SPECIAL CONSIDERATIONS.] (a) In determining the payment rates, the commissioner shall consider whether the following circumstances exist:

(1) [MINIMAL MEDICAL ASSISTANCE USE.] Minnesota hospitals with 30 or fewer annualized admissions of Minnesota medical assistance recipients in the base year, excluding Medicare crossover admissions, may have the base year operating rates, as adjusted by the case mix index, and property payment rates established at the 70th percentile of hospitals in the peer group in effect during the base year as established by the Minnesota department of health for use by the rate review program. Rates within a peer group shall be adjusted for differences in fiscal years and outlier percentage payments before establishing the 70th percentile. The operating payment rate portion of the 70th percentile shall be adjusted by the hospital cost index. To have rates established under this paragraph, the hospital must notify the commissioner in writing by November 1 of the year preceding the rate year. This paragraph shall be applied to all payment rates of the affected hospital.

(2) [UNUSUAL COST OR LENGTH OF STAY EXPERIENCE.]

The commissioner shall establish day and cost outlier thresholds for each diagnostic category established under subdivision 2 at two standard deviations beyond the geometric mean length of stay or allowable cost. Payment for the days and cost beyond the outlier threshold shall be in addition to the operating and property payment rates per admission established under subdivisions 2, 2b, and 2c. Payment for outliers shall be at 70 percent of the allowable operating cost calculated by dividing the operating payment rate per admission, after adjustment by the case mix index, hospital cost index, relative values and the disproportionate population adjustment, by the arithmetic mean length of stay for the diagnostic category. The outlier threshold for neonatal and burn diagnostic categories shall be established at one standard deviation beyond the geometric mean length of stay or allowable cost, and payment shall be at 90 percent of allowable operating cost calculated in the same manner as other outliers. A hospital may choose an alternative percentage outlier payment to a minimum of 60 percent and a maximum of 80 percent if the commissioner is notified in writing of the request by October 1 of the year preceding the rate year. The chosen percentage applies to all diagnostic categories except burns and neonates. The percentage of allowable cost that is unrecognized by the outlier payment shall be added back to the base year operating payment rate per admission. Cost outliers shall be calculated using hospital specific allowable cost data. If a stay is both a day and a cost outlier, outlier payments shall be based on the higher outlier payment.

(3) [DISPROPORTIONATE NUMBERS OF LOW-INCOME PATIENTS SERVED.] For admissions occurring on or after July 1, 1989, the medical assistance disproportionate population adjustment shall comply with federal law at fully implemented rates. The commissioner may establish a separate disproportionate population operating payment rate adjustment under the general assistance medical care program. For admissions occurring on or after the rate year beginning January 1, 1991, the disproportionate population adjustment shall be derived from base year Medicare cost report data and may be adjusted by data reflecting actual claims paid by the department.

(4) [SEPARATE BILLING BY CERTIFIED REGISTERED NURSE ANESTHETISTS.] Hospitals may exclude certified registered nurse anesthetist costs from the operating payment rate as allowed by section 256B.0625, subdivision 11. To be eligible, a hospital must notify the commissioner in writing by October 1 of the year preceding the rate year of the request to exclude certified registered nurse anesthetist costs. The hospital must agree that all hospital claims for the cost and charges of certified registered nurse anesthetist services will not be included as part of the rates for inpatient services provided during the rate year. In this case, the operating payment rate shall be adjusted to exclude the cost of certified registered nurse anesthetist services. Payments made through separate claims for certified registered nurse anesthetist services shall not be paid directly through the hospital provider number or indirectly by the certified registered nurse anesthetist to the hospital or related organizations.

(5) [SPECIAL RATES.] The commissioner may establish special rate-setting methodologies, including a per day operating and property payment system, for hospice, ventilator dependent, and other services on a hospital and recipient specific basis taking into consideration such variables as federal designation, program size, and admission from a medical assistance waiver or home care program. The data and rate calculation method shall conform to the requirements of paragraph (7), except that hospice rates shall not exceed the amount allowed under federal law and payment shall be secondary to any other medical assistance hospice program. Rates and payments established under this paragraph must meet the requirements of section 256.9685, subdivisions 1 and 2, and must not exceed payments that would otherwise be made to a hospital in total for rate year admissions under subdivisions 2, 2b, 2c, 3, 4, 5, and 6. The cost and charges used to establish rates shall only reflect inpatient medical assistance covered services. Hospital and claims data that are used to establish rates under this paragraph shall not be used to establish payments or relative values under subdivisions 2, 2b, 2c, 3, 4, 5, and 6.

(6) [REHABILITATION DISTINCT PARTS.] Units of hospitals that are recognized as rehabilitation distinct parts by the Medicare program shall have separate provider numbers under the medical assistance program for rate establishment and billing purposes only. These units shall also have operating and property payment rates and the disproportionate population adjustment established separately from other inpatient hospital services, based on the methods of subdivisions 2, 2b, 2c, 3, 4, 5, and 6. The commissioner may establish separate relative values under subdivision 2 for rehabilitation hospitals and distinct parts as defined by the Medicare program. For individual hospitals that did not have separate medical assistance rehabilitation provider numbers or rehabilitation distinct parts in the base year, hospitals shall provide the information needed to separate rehabilitation distinct part cost and claims data from other inpatient service data.

(7) [NEONATAL TRANSFERS.] For admissions occurring on or after July 1, 1989, neonatal diagnostic category transfers shall have operating and property payment rates established at receiving hospitals which have neonatal intensive care units on a per day payment system that is based on the cost finding methods and allowable costs of the Medicare program during the base year. Other neonatal diagnostic category transfers shall have rates established according to paragraph (8). The rate per day for the neonatal service setting within the hospital shall be determined by dividing base year neonatal allowable costs by neonatal patient days. The operating payment rate portion of the rate shall be adjusted by the hospital cost index and the disproportionate population adjustment. The cost and charges used to establish rates shall only reflect inpatient services covered by medical assistance. Hospital and claims data used to establish rates under this paragraph shall not be used to establish payments or relative values under subdivisions 2, 2b, 2c, 3, 4, 5, and 6.

(8) [TRANSFERS.] Except as provided in paragraphs (5) and (7), operating and property payment rates for admissions that result in transfers and transfers shall be established on a per day payment system. The per day payment rate shall be the sum of the adjusted operating and property payment rates determined in subdivisions 2b and 2c, divided by the arithmetic mean length of stay for the diagnostic category. Each admission that results in a transfer and each transfer is considered a separate admission to each hospital, and the total of the admission and transfer payments to each hospital must not exceed the total per admission payment that would otherwise be made to each hospital under paragraph (2) and subdivisions 2b and 2c.

(b) The computation of each hospital's payment rate and the relative values of the diagnostic categories are not subject to the routine service cost limitation imposed under the Medicare program.

(c) Indian health service facilities are exempt from the rate establishment methods required by this section and shall be reimbursed at the facility's usual and customary charges to the general public. This exemption is not effective for payments under general assistance medical care.

(d) Except as provided in paragraph (a), clauses (1) and (3), out-of-state hospitals that are located within a Minnesota local trade area shall have rates established using the same procedures and methods that apply to Minnesota hospitals. Hospitals that are not required by law to file information in a format necessary to establish rates shall have rates established based on the commissioner's estimates of the information. Relative values of the diagnostic categories shall not be redetermined under this paragraph until required by rule. Hospitals affected by this paragraph shall then be included in determining relative values. However, hospitals that have rates established based upon the commissioner's estimates of information shall not be included in determining relative values. This paragraph is effective for hospital fiscal years beginning on or after July 1, 1988. A hospital shall provide the information necessary to establish rates under this paragraph at least 90 days before the start of the hospital's fiscal year.

(e) Hospitals that are not located within Minnesota or a Minnesota local trade area shall have operating and property rates established at the average of statewide and local trade area rates or, at the commissioner's discretion, at an amount negotiated by the commissioner. Relative values shall not include data from hospitals that have rates established under this paragraph. Payments, including third party liability, established under this paragraph may not exceed the charges on a claim specific basis for inpatient services that are covered by medical assistance.

(f) Medical assistance inpatient payment rates must include the cost incurred by hospitals to pay the department of health for metabolic disorder testing of newborns who are medical assistance recipients, if the cost is not recognized by another payment source.

(g) Medical assistance inpatient payments shall increase 20 percent for inpatient hospital originally paid admissions, excluding Medicare crossovers, that occurred between July 1, 1988, and December 31, 1990, if: (i) the hospital had 100 or fewer Minnesota medical assistance annualized paid admissions, excluding Medicare crossovers, that were paid by March 1, 1988, for the period January 1, 1987, to June 30, 1987; (ii) the hospital had 100 or fewer licensed beds on March 1, 1988; (iii) the hospital is located in Minnesota; and (iv) the hospital is not located in a city of the first class as defined in section 410.01. For this paragraph, medical assistance does not include general assistance medical care.

(h) Medical assistance inpatient payments shall increase 15 percent for inpatient hospital originally paid admissions, excluding Medicare crossovers, that occurred between July 1, 1988, and December 31, 1990, if: (i) the hospital had more than 100 but fewer than 250 Minnesota medical assistance annualized paid admissions, excluding Medicare crossovers, that were paid by March 1, 1988, for the period January 1, 1987, to June 30, 1987; (ii) the hospital had 100 or fewer licensed beds on March 1, 1988; (iii) the hospital is located in Minnesota; and (iv) the hospital is not located in a city of the first class as defined in section 410.01. For this paragraph, medical assistance does not include general assistance medical care.

(i) Admissions occurring on or after July 1, 1990, that are classified to a diagnostic category of mental health or chemical dependency shall have rates established according to the methods of paragraph (a), clause (8), when a hold or commitment is ordered by the court for the days that inpatient hospital services are medically necessary. Stays which are medically necessary for inpatient hospital services and covered by medical assistance shall not be billable to any other governmental entity. Medical necessity shall be determined under criteria established to meet the requirements of section 256B.04, subdivision 15, or 256D.03, subdivision 7, paragraph (b).

Sec. 14. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 256.9695, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [APPEALS.] A hospital may appeal a decision arising from the application of standards or methods under section 256.9685, 256.9686, or 256.969, if an appeal would result in a change to the hospital's payment rate or payments. Both overpayments and underpayments that result from the submission of appeals shall be implemented. Regardless of any appeal outcome, relative values shall not be recalculated. The appeal shall be heard by an administrative law judge according to sections 14.48 to 14.56, or upon agreement by both parties, according to a modified appeals procedure established by the commissioner and the office of administrative hearings. In any proceeding under this section, the appealing party must demonstrate by a preponderance of the evidence that the commissioner's determination is incorrect or not according to law.

(a) To appeal a payment rate or payment determination or a determination made from base year information, the hospital shall file a written appeal request to the commissioner within 60 days of the date the payment rate determination was mailed. The appeal request shall specify: (i) the disputed items; (ii) the authority in federal or state statute or rule upon which the hospital relies for each disputed item; and (iii) the name and address of the person to contact regarding the appeal. A change to a payment rate or payments that results from a successful appeal to the Medicare program of the base year information establishing rates for the rate year beginning in 1991 and after is a prospective adjustment to subsequent rate years. After December 31, 1990, payment rates shall not be adjusted for appeals of base year information that affect years prior to the rate year beginning January 1, 1991. Facts to be considered in any appeal of base year information are limited to those in existence at the time the payment rates of the first rate year were established from the base year information. In the case of Medicare settled appeals, the 60-day appeal period shall begin on the mailing date of the notice by the Medicare program or the date the medical assistance payment rate determination notice is mailed, whichever is later.

(b) To appeal a payment rate or payment change that results from a difference in case mix between the base year and a rate year, the procedures and requirements of paragraph (a) apply. However, the appeal must be filed with the commissioner within ~~60~~ 120 days after the end of a rate year. A case mix appeal must apply to the cost of services to all medical assistance patients that received inpatient services from the hospital during the rate year appealed. ~~For this paragraph, hospital means a facility holding the provider number as an inpatient service facility.~~

Sec. 15. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 256.9695, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [TRANSITION.] Except as provided in section 256.969, subdivision 6a, paragraph (a), clause (3), the commissioner shall establish a transition period for the calculation of payment rates from July 1, 1989, to December 31, 1990, as follows the implementation date of the upgrade to the Medicaid management information system.

During the transition period:

(a) Changes resulting from section 256.969, subdivision 6a, paragraph (a), clauses (1), (2), (4), (5), (6), and (8), shall not be implemented, except as provided in section 256.969, subdivision 6a, paragraph (a), clause (7), and paragraph (i).

(b) Rates established for hospital fiscal years beginning on or after July 1, 1989, shall not be adjusted for the one percent technology factor included in the hospital cost index. The beginning of the 1991 rate year shall be delayed and the rates notification requirement shall not be applicable.

(c) Operating payment rates shall be indexed from the hospital's most recent fiscal year ending prior to January 1, 1991, by prorating the hospital cost index methodology in effect on January 1, 1989. Payments made for admissions occurring on or after July June 1, 1990, shall not include be adjusted by the one percent technology factor included in the hospital cost index and the hospital cost index shall not exceed four percent. This hospital cost index limitation shall not apply to hospitals that meet the requirements of section 256.969, subdivision 6a, paragraphs (g) and (h).

(d) Property and pass-through payment rates shall be maintained at the most recent payment rate effective for June 1, 1990. However, all hospitals are subject to the hospital cost index limitation of subdivision 2c, for two complete fiscal years. Property and pass-through costs shall be retroactively settled through December 31, 1990 the transition period. The laws in effect on the day before July 1, 1989, apply to the retroactive settlement from July 1, 1989, to December 31, 1990.

Sec. 16. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 256B.04, subdivision 15, is amended to read:

Subd. 15. [UTILIZATION REVIEW.] (1) Establish on a statewide basis a new program to safeguard against unnecessary or inappropriate use of medical assistance services, against excess payments, against unnecessary or inappropriate hospital admissions or lengths of stay, and against underutilization of services in prepaid health plans, long-term care facilities or any health care delivery system subject to fixed rate reimbursement. In implementing the program, the state agency shall utilize both prepayment and postpayment review systems to determine if utilization is reasonable and necessary. The determination of whether services are reasonable and necessary shall be made by the commissioner in consultation with a professional services advisory group or health care consultant appointed by the commissioner.

(2) Contracts entered into for purposes of meeting the requirements of this subdivision shall not be subject to the set-aside provisions of chapter 16B.

(3) A recipient aggrieved by the commissioner's termination of services or denial of future services may appeal pursuant to section 256.045. A vendor aggrieved by the commissioner's determination that services provided were not reasonable or necessary may appeal pursuant to the contested case procedures of chapter 14. To appeal, the vendor shall notify the commissioner in writing within 30 days of receiving the commissioner's notice. The appeal request shall specify each disputed item, the reason for the dispute, an estimate of the dollar amount involved for each disputed item, the computation that the vendor believes is correct, the authority in statute or rule upon which the vendor relies for each disputed item, the name and address of the person or firm with whom contacts may be made regarding the appeal, and other information required by the commissioner.

(4) The commissioner may select providers to provide case management services to recipients who use health care services inappropriately or to recipients who are eligible for other managed care projects. The providers shall be selected based upon criteria that may include a comparison with a peer group of providers related to the quality, quantity, or cost of health care services delivered or a review of sanctions previously imposed by health care services programs or the provider's professional licensing board.

Sec. 17. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 256B.04, subdivision 16, is amended to read:

Subd. 16. [PERSONAL CARE ASSISTANTS SERVICES.] (a) The commissioner shall adopt permanent rules to implement, administer, and operate the personal care ~~assistant~~ services program. The rules must incorporate the standards and requirements adopted by the commissioner of health under section 144A.45 which are applicable to the provision of personal care assistant program. Limits on the extent of personal care ~~assistant~~ services that may be provided to an individual must be based on the cost-effectiveness of the services in relation to the costs of inpatient hospital care, nursing home care, and other available types of care. The rules must provide, at a minimum:

(1) that agencies be selected to contract with or employ and train staff to provide and supervise the provision of personal care services;

(2) that agencies employ or contract with a qualified applicant that a qualified recipient proposes to the agency as the recipient's choice of assistant;

(3) that agencies bill the medical assistance program for a personal care service by a personal care assistant and visits supervision by the registered nurse supervising the personal care assistant;

(4) that agencies establish a grievance mechanism; and

(5) that agencies have a quality assurance program.

(b) For personal care assistants under contract with an agency under paragraph (a), the provision of training and supervision by the agency does not create an employment relationship. The commissioner may waive the requirement for the provision of personal care services through an agency in a particular county, when there are less than two agencies providing services in that county.

Sec. 18. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 256B.055, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [AFDC FAMILIES.] Medical assistance may be paid for a person who is eligible for or receiving, or who would be eligible for, except for excess income or assets, public assistance under the aid to families with dependent children program.

Sec. 19. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 256B.055, subdivision 5, is amended to read:

Subd. 5. [PREGNANT WOMEN; DEPENDENT UNBORN CHILD.] Medical assistance may be paid for a pregnant woman, as certified in writing by a physician or nurse midwife who has written verification of a positive pregnancy test from a physician or licensed registered nurse, who meets the other eligibility criteria of this section and who would be categorically eligible for assistance under the aid to families with dependent children program if the child had been born and was living with the woman. For purposes of this subdivision, a woman is considered pregnant for 60 days postpartum.

Sec. 20. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 256B.055, subdivision 6, is amended to read:

Subd. 6. [PREGNANT WOMEN; NEEDY UNBORN CHILD.] Medical assistance may be paid for a pregnant woman, as certified in writing by a physician or nurse midwife who has written verification of a positive pregnancy test from a physician or licensed registered nurse, who meets the other eligibility criteria of this section and whose unborn child would be eligible as a needy child under subdivision ~~H~~ 10 if born and living with the woman. For purposes of this subdivision, a woman is considered pregnant for 60 days postpartum.

Sec. 21. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 256B.055, subdivision 7, is amended to read:

Subd. 7. [AGED, BLIND, OR DISABLED PERSONS.] Medical assistance may be paid for a person who meets the categorical eligibility requirements of the supplemental security income program ~~and or, who would meet those requirements except for excess income or assets, and who meets the other eligibility requirements of this section. The methodology for calculating income must be the same methodology used for calculating income for the supplemental security income program except as specified otherwise by state or federal law, rule, or regulation.~~

Effective February 1, 1989, and to the extent allowed by federal law the commissioner shall deduct state and federal income taxes and federal insurance contributions act payments withheld from the individual's earned income in determining eligibility under this subdivision.

Sec. 22. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 256B.055, subdivision 12, is amended to read:

Subd. 12. [DISABLED CHILDREN.] (a) A person is eligible for medical assistance if the person is under age 19 and qualifies as a disabled individual under United States Code, title 42, section 1382c(a), and would be eligible for medical assistance under the state plan if residing in a medical institution, and who requires a level of care provided in a hospital, skilled nursing facility, intermediate care facility, or intermediate care facility for persons with mental retardation or related conditions, for whom home care is appropriate, provided that the cost to medical assistance for home care services is not more than the amount that medical assistance would pay for appropriate institutional care.

(b) For purposes of this subdivision, "hospital" means an acute care institution as defined in section 144.696, subdivision 3, licensed pursuant to sections 144.50 to 144.58, which is appropriate if a person is technology dependent or has a chronic health condition which requires frequent intervention by a health care professional to avoid death.

(c) For purposes of this subdivision, "skilled nursing facility" and "intermediate care facility" means a facility which provides nursing care as defined in section 144A.01, subdivision 5, licensed pursuant to sections 144A.02 to 144A.10, which is appropriate if a person is in active restorative treatment; is in need of special treatments provided or supervised by a licensed nurse; or has unpredictable episodes of active disease processes requiring immediate judgment by a licensed nurse.

(d) For purposes of this subdivision, "intermediate care facility for the mentally retarded" or "ICF/MR" means a program licensed to provide services to persons with mental retardation under section 252.28, and chapter 245A, and a physical plant licensed as a supervised living facility under chapter 144, which together are certified by the Minnesota department of health as meeting the standards in Code of Federal Regulations, title 42, part 483, for an intermediate care facility which provides services for persons with mental retardation or persons with related conditions who require 24-hour supervision and active treatment for medical, behavioral, or habilitation needs.

(e) For purposes of this subdivision, a hospital, skilled nursing facility, or intermediate care facility may be appropriate for persons who require 24-hour supervision because they exhibit suicidal or homicidal ideation or behavior, psychosomatic disorders or somatopsychic disorders that may become life threatening, severe socially unacceptable behavior associated with psychiatric disorder, psychosis or severe developmental problems requiring continuous skilled observation, or disabling symptoms that do not respond to office-centered outpatient treatment.

Sec. 23. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 256B.056, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 1a. [INCOME AND ASSETS GENERALLY.] Unless specifically required by state law or rule or federal law or regulation, the methodologies used in counting income and assets to determine eligibility for medical assistance shall be as follows: (a) for persons whose eligibility category is based on blindness, disability, or age of 65 or more years, the methodologies for the supplemental security income program shall be used; and (b) for families and children, which includes all other eligibility categories, the methodologies for the aid to families with dependent children program under section 256.73 shall be used. For these purposes, a "methodology" does not include an asset or income standard, budgeting or accounting method, or method of determining effective dates.

Sec. 24. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 256B.056, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [HOMESTEAD.] To be eligible for medical assistance, a person must not own, individually or together with the person's spouse, real property other than the homestead. For the purposes of this section, "homestead" means the house owned and occupied by the applicant or recipient as a primary place of residence, together with the contiguous land upon which it is situated. The homestead shall continue to be excluded for persons residing in a long-term care facility if it is used as a primary residence by ~~the spouse, minor child, or disabled child of any age.~~ one of the following individuals:

- (a) the spouse;
- (b) a child under age 21;
- (c) a child of any age who is blind or permanently and totally disabled as defined in the supplemental security income program;
- (d) a sibling who has equity interest in the home and who resided in the home for at least one year immediately before the date of the person's admission to the facility; or
- (e) a child of any age who resided in the home for at least two years immediately before the date of the person's admission to the facility, and who provided care to the person that permitted the person to reside at home rather than in an institution.

The homestead is also excluded for the first six calendar months of the person's stay in the long-term care facility. The person's equity in the homestead must be reduced to an amount within limits or excluded on another basis if the person remains in the long-term care facility for a period longer than six months. Real estate not used as a home may not be retained unless the property is not salable, the equity is $6,000 or less and the income produced by the property is at least six percent of the equity, or the excess real property is exempted for a period of nine months if there is a good faith effort to sell the property and a legally binding agreement is signed to repay the amount of assistance issued during that nine months.

Sec. 25. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 256B.056, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [ASSET LIMITATIONS.] To be eligible for medical assistance, a person must not individually own more than $3,000 in assets, or if a member of a household with two family members (husband and wife, or parent and child), the household must not own more than $6,000 in assets, plus $200 for each additional legal dependent. In addition to these maximum amounts, an eligible individual or family may accrue interest on these amounts, but they must be reduced to the maximum at the time of an eligibility redetermination. For residents of long-term care facilities, the accumulation of the clothing and personal needs allowance pursuant to section 256B.35 must also be reduced to the maximum at the time of the eligibility redetermination. The value of the items in paragraphs (a) to (i) are not considered in determining medical assistance eligibility.

- (a) The homestead is not considered.

(b) Household goods and personal effects are not considered.

(c) Personal property used as a regular abode by the applicant or recipient is not considered.

(d) A lot in a burial plot for each member of the household is not considered.

(e) Capital and operating assets of a trade or business that the local agency determines are necessary to the person's ability to earn an income are not considered.

(f) For a period of six months, Insurance settlements to repair or replace damaged, destroyed, or stolen property are not considered to the same extent as in the related cash assistance programs.

(g) One motor vehicle that is licensed pursuant to chapter 168 and defined as: (1) passenger automobile, (2) station wagon, (3) motorcycle, (4) motorized bicycle or (5) truck of the weight found in categories A to E, of section 168.013, subdivision 1e, and that is used primarily for the person's benefit is not considered.

To be excluded, the vehicle must have a market value of less than $4,500; be necessary to obtain medically necessary health services; be necessary for employment; be modified for operation by or transportation of a handicapped person; or be necessary to perform essential daily tasks because of climate, terrain, distance, or similar factors. The equity value of other motor vehicles is counted against the asset limit.

(h) Life insurance policies and assets designated as burial expenses, according to the standards and restrictions of the supplemental security income (SSI) program.

(i) Other items which may be excluded by federal law are not considered.

Sec. 26. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 256B.056, subdivision 4, is amended to read:

Subd. 4. [INCOME.] To be eligible for medical assistance, a person must not have, or anticipate receiving, semiannual income in excess of 120 percent of the income standards by family size used in the aid to families with dependent children program, except that families and children may have an income up to 133 $\frac{1}{3}$ percent of the AFDC income standard. ~~Notwithstanding any laws or rules to the contrary,~~ In computing income to determine eligibility of persons who are not residents of long-term care facilities, the commissioner shall disregard increases in income as required by Public Law Numbers 94-566, section 503; 99-272; and 99-509.

Sec. 27. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 256B.056, subdivision 7, is amended to read:

Subd. 7. [~~PERIOD OF INELIGIBILITY~~ ELIGIBILITY.] Eligibility is available for the month of application and for three months prior to application if the person was eligible in those prior months. A redetermination of eligibility must occur every 12 months.

Sec. 28. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 256B.057, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [PREGNANT WOMEN AND INFANTS.] An infant less than one year of age or a pregnant woman, ~~as certified in writing by a physician or nurse midwife who has written verification of a positive pregnancy test from a physician or licensed registered nurse,~~ is eligible for medical assistance if countable family income is equal to or less than 185 percent of the federal poverty guideline for the same family size. Eligibility for a pregnant woman or infant less than one year of age under this subdivision must be determined without regard to asset standards established in section 256B.056, subdivision 3. Adjustments in the income limits due to annual changes in the federal poverty guidelines shall be implemented the first day of July following publication of the changes.

Sec. 29. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 256B.057, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [CHILDREN.] A child one through seven ~~five~~ years of age in a family whose countable income is less than ~~100~~ 133 percent of the federal poverty guidelines for the same family size is eligible for medical assistance. A child six through seven years of age who was born after September 30, 1983, in a family whose countable income is less than 100 percent of the federal poverty guideline for the same sized family is eligible for medical assistance. Eligibility for children under this subdivision must be determined without regard to asset standards established in section 256B.056, subdivision 3. Adjustments in the income limits due to annual changes in the federal poverty guidelines shall be implemented the first day of July following publication of the changes.

Sec. 30. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 256B.057, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 4. [QUALIFIED WORKING DISABLED ADULTS.] A person who is entitled to Medicare Part A benefits under section 1818A of the Social Security Act; whose income does not exceed 200 percent of the federal poverty guidelines for the applicable family size; whose nonexempt assets do not exceed twice the maximum amount allowable under the supplemental security income program, according to family size; and who is not otherwise eligible for medical assistance, is eligible for medical assistance reimbursement of the Medicare Part A premium. Adjustments in the income limits due to annual changes in the federal poverty guidelines shall be implemented the first day of July following publication of the changes.

Sec. 31. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 256B.057, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 5. [DISABLED ADULT CHILDREN.] A person who is at least 18 years old, who was eligible for supplemental security income benefits on the basis of blindness or disability, who became disabled or blind before he or she reached the age of 22, and who lost eligibility as a result of becoming entitled to a child's insurance benefits on or after July 1, 1987, under section 202(d) of the Social Security Act, or because of an increase in those benefits effective on or after July 1, 1987, is eligible for medical assistance as long as he or she would be entitled to supplemental security income in the absence of child's insurance benefits or increases in those benefits.

Sec. 32. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 256B.0575, is amended to read:

256B.0575 [AVAILABILITY OF INCOME FOR INSTITUTIONALIZED PERSONS.]

When an institutionalized person is determined eligible for medical assistance, the income that exceeds the deductions in paragraphs (a) and (b) must be applied to the cost of institutional care.

(a) The following amounts must be deducted from the institutionalized person's income in the following order:

(1) the personal needs allowance under section 256B.35;

(2) the personal allowance for disabled individuals under section 256B.36;

(3) if the institutionalized person has a legally-appointed guardian or conservator, five percent of the recipient's gross monthly income up to $100 as reimbursement for guardianship or conservatorship services;

(4) a monthly income allowance determined under section 256B.058, subdivision 2, but only to the extent income of the institutionalized spouse is made available to the community spouse;

(5) a monthly allowance for children under age 18 which, together with the net income of the children, would provide income equal to the medical assistance standard for a family size that includes only the minor children. This deduction applies only if the children do not live with the community spouse, and only if the children resided with the institutionalized person immediately prior to admission;

(6) a monthly family allowance for other family members, equal to one-third of the difference between 122 percent of the federal poverty guidelines and the monthly income for that family member; and

(6) (7) amounts for reasonable expenses incurred for necessary medical or remedial care for the institutionalized spouse that are not medical assistance covered expenses and that are not subject to payment by a third party.

For purposes of clause (5) (6), other family member includes only minor or dependent children, dependent parents, or dependent siblings of the institutionalized or community spouse if the sibling resides with the community spouse. a person who resides with the community spouse and who is a minor or dependent child, dependent parent, or dependent sibling of either spouse. "Dependent" means a person who could be claimed as a dependent for federal income tax purposes under the Internal Revenue Code.

(b) Income shall be allocated to an institutionalized person for a period of up to three calendar months, in an amount equal to the medical assistance standard for a family size of one if:

(1) a physician certifies that the person is expected to reside in the long-term care facility for three calendar months or less;

(2) if the person has expenses of maintaining a residence in the community; and

(3) if one of the following circumstances apply:

(i) the person was not living together with a spouse or a family member as defined in paragraph (a) when the person entered a long-term care facility; or

(ii) the person and the person's spouse become institutionalized on the same date, in which case the allocation shall be applied to the income of one of the spouses.

For purposes of this paragraph, a person is determined to be residing in a licensed nursing home, regional treatment center, or medical institution if the person is expected to remain for a period of one full calendar month or more.

Sec. 33. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 256B.059, subdivision 4, is amended to read:

Subd. 4. [INCREASED COMMUNITY SPOUSE ASSET ALLOWANCE; WHEN ALLOWED.] (a) If either the institutionalized spouse or community spouse establishes that the community spouse asset allowance under subdivision 3 (in relation to the amount of income generated by such an allowance) is not sufficient to raise the community spouse's income to the minimum monthly maintenance needs allowance in section 256B.058, subdivision 2, paragraph (c), there shall be substituted for the amount allowed to be transferred an amount sufficient, when combined with the monthly income otherwise available to the spouse, to provide the minimum monthly maintenance needs allowance. A substitution under this paragraph may be made only if the assets of the couple have been arranged so that the maximum amount of income-producing assets, at the maximum rate of return, are available to the community spouse under the community spouse asset allowance. The maximum rate of return is the average rate of return available from the financial institution holding the asset, or a rate determined by the commissioner to be reasonable according to community standards, if the asset is not held by a financial institution.

(b) The community spouse asset allowance under subdivision 3 can be increased by court order or hearing that complies with the requirements of United States Code, title 42, section 1924.

Sec. 34. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 256B.059, subdivision 5, is amended to read:

Subd. 5. [ASSET AVAILABILITY.] (a) At the time of application for medical assistance benefits, assets considered available to the institutionalized spouse shall be the total value of all assets in which either spouse has an ownership interest, reduced by the greater of:

(1) $12,000; or

(2) the lesser of the spousal share or $60,000; or

(3) the amount required by court order to be paid to the community spouse. If the community spouse asset allowance has been increased under subdivision 4, then the assets considered available to the institutionalized spouse under this subdivision shall be further reduced by the value of additional amounts allowed under subdivision 4.

(b) An institutionalized spouse may be found eligible for medical assistance even though assets in excess of the allowable amount are found to be available under paragraph (a) if the assets are owned jointly or individually by the community spouse, and the institutionalized spouse cannot use those assets to pay for the cost of care without the consent of the community spouse, and if: (i) the institutionalized spouse assigns to the commissioner the right to support from the community spouse under section 256B.14, subdivision 2; (ii) the institutionalized spouse lacks the ability to execute an assignment due to a physical or mental impairment; or (iii) the denial of eligibility would cause an imminent threat to the institutionalized spouse's health and well-being.

(c) After the month in which the institutionalized spouse is determined eligible for medical assistance, during the continuous period of institutionalization, no assets of the community spouse are considered available to the institutionalized spouse, unless the institutionalized spouse has been found eligible under clause (b).

(e) (d) For purposes of this section, assets do not include assets excluded under section 256B.056, without regard to the limitations on total value in that section.

Sec. 35. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 256B.0595, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [PROHIBITED TRANSFERS.] If an institutionalized person or the person's spouse has given away, sold, or disposed of, for less than fair market value, any asset or interest therein, except assets other than the homestead that are excluded under section 256B.056, subdivision 3, within 30 months of before or any time after the date of institutionalization if the person has been determined eligible for medical assistance, or within 30 months of before or any time after the date of the first approved application for medical assistance if the person has not yet been determined eligible for medical assistance, the person is ineligible for long-term care services for the period of time determined under subdivision 2. For purposes of this section, long-term care services include nursing facility services, and home and community-based services provided pursuant to section 256B.491. For purposes of this subdivision and subdivisions 2, 3, and 4, "institutionalized person" includes a person who is an inpatient in a nursing facility, or who is receiving home and community-based services under section 256B.491.

Sec. 36. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 256B.0595, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [PERIOD OF INELIGIBILITY.] For any uncompensated transfer, the number of months of ineligibility for long-term care services shall be the lesser of 30 months, or the uncompensated transfer amount divided by the average medical assistance rate for nursing facility services in the state in effect on the date of application. The amount used to calculate the average medical assistance payment rate shall be adjusted each July 1 to reflect payment rates for the previous calendar year. The period of ineligibility begins with the month in which the assets were transferred. If the transfer was not reported to the local agency at the time of application, and the applicant received long-term care services during what would have been the period of ineligibility if the transfer was reported, a cause of action exists against the transferee for the cost of long-term care services provided during the period of ineligibility, or for the uncompensated amount of the transfer, whichever is less. The action may be brought by the state or the local agency responsible for providing medical assistance under chapter 256G. The uncompensated transfer amount is the fair market value of the asset at the time it was given away, sold, or disposed of, less the amount of compensation received.

Sec. 37. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 256B.0595, subdivision 4, is amended to read:

Subd. 4. [OTHER EXCEPTIONS TO TRANSFER PROHIBITION.] An institutionalized person receiving medical assistance on the date of institutionalization who has transferred assets for less than fair market value within the 30 months immediately before the date of institutionalization or an institutionalized person who was not receiving medical assistance on the date of institutionalization and who has transferred assets for less than fair market value within 30 months immediately before the month of application who has made, or whose spouse has made a transfer prohibited by subdivision 1, is not ineligible for long-term care services if one of the following conditions apply:

(1) the assets were transferred to the community spouse, as defined in section 256B.059; or

(2) the institutionalized spouse, prior to being institutionalized, transferred assets to his or her spouse, provided that the spouse to whom the assets were transferred does not then transfer those assets to another person for less than fair market value. (At the time when one spouse is institutionalized, assets must be allocated between the spouses as provided under section 256B.059); or

(3) the assets were transferred to the individual's child who is blind or permanently and totally disabled as determined in the supplemental security income program; or

(4) a satisfactory showing is made that the individual intended to dispose of the assets either at fair market value or for other valuable consideration; or

(5) the local agency determines that denial of eligibility for long-term care services would work an undue hardship and grants a waiver of excess assets. When a waiver is granted, a cause of action exists against the person to whom the assets were transferred for that portion of long-term care services granted within 30 months of the transfer, or the amount of the uncompensated transfer, whichever is less, together with the costs incurred due to the action. The action may be brought by the state or the local agency responsible for providing medical assistance under this chapter.

Sec. 38. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 256B.0625, subdivision 4, is amended to read:

Subd. 4. [OUTPATIENT AND CLINIC SERVICES.] Medical assistance covers outpatient hospital or ~~nonprofit community health clinic services~~ or physician-directed clinic services. The physician-directed clinic staff shall include at least two physicians, ~~one of whom is on the premises whenever the clinic is open,~~ and all services shall be provided under the direct supervision of ~~the a~~ physician ~~who is on the premises~~. Hospital outpatient departments are subject to the same limitations and reimbursements as other enrolled vendors for all services, except initial triage, emergency services, and services not provided or immediately available in clinics, physicians' offices, or by other enrolled providers. A second medical opinion is required before reimbursement for elective surgeries requiring a second opinion. The commissioner shall publish in the State Register a list of elective surgeries that require a second medical opinion before reimbursement and the criteria and standards for deciding whether an elective surgery should require a second surgical opinion. The list and the criteria and standards are not subject to the requirements of sections 14.01 to 14.69. The commissioner's decision whether a second medical opinion is required, made in accordance with rules governing that decision, is not subject to administrative appeal. "Emergency services" means those medical services required for the immediate diagnosis and treatment of medical conditions that, if not immediately diagnosed and treated, could lead to serious physical or mental disability or death or are necessary to alleviate severe pain. Neither the hospital, its employees, nor any physician or dentist, shall be liable in any action arising out of a determination not to render emergency services or care if reasonable care is exercised in determining the condition of the person, or in determining the appropriateness of the facilities, or the qualifications and availability of personnel to render these services consistent with this section.

Sec. 39. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 256B.0625, subdivision 5, is amended to read:

Subd. 5. [COMMUNITY MENTAL HEALTH CENTER SERVICES.] Medical assistance covers community mental health center services, as defined in rules adopted by the commissioner pursuant to section 256B.04, subdivision 2, and provided by a community mental health center as defined in section 245.62, subdivision 2.

Sec. 40. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 256B.0625, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 8a. [OCCUPATIONAL THERAPY.] Medical assistance covers occupational therapy and related services.

Sec. 41. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 256B.0625, subdivision 9, is amended to read:

Subd. 9. [DENTAL SERVICES.] Medical assistance covers dental services, ~~excluding cast metal restorations.~~ Dental services include, with prior authorization, fixed cast metal restorations that are cost-effective for persons who cannot use removable dentures because of their medical condition.

Sec. 42. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 256B.0625, subdivision 13, is amended to read:

Subd. 13. [DRUGS.] (a) Medical assistance covers drugs if prescribed by a licensed practitioner. The commissioner shall designate a formulary committee to advise the commissioner on the names of drugs for which payment is made, recommend a system for reimbursing providers on a set fee or charge basis rather than the present system, and develop methods encouraging use of generic drugs when they are less expensive and equally effective as trademark drugs. The commissioner shall appoint the formulary committee members no later than 30 days following July 1, 1981. The formulary committee shall consist of nine members, four of whom shall be physicians who are not employed by the department of human services, and a majority of whose practice is for persons paying privately or through health insurance, three of whom shall be pharmacists who are not employed by the department of human services, and a majority of whose practice is for persons paying privately or through health insurance, a consumer representative, and a nursing home representative. Committee members shall serve two-year terms and shall serve without compensation. The commissioner may establish a drug formulary. Its establishment and publication shall not be subject to the requirements of the administrative procedure act, but the formulary committee shall review and comment on the formulary contents. Prior authorization may be required by the commissioner, with the consent of the drug formulary committee, before certain formulary drugs are eligible for payment. The formulary shall not include: drugs or products for which there is no federal funding; over-the-counter drugs, except for antacids, acetaminophen, family planning products, aspirin, insulin, and vitamins for children under the age of seven and pregnant or nursing women; or any other over-the-counter drug identified by the commissioner, in consultation with the appropriate professional consultants under contract with or employed by the state agency, as necessary, appropriate and cost effective for the treatment of certain specified chronic diseases, conditions or disorders, and this determination shall not be subject to the requirements of chapter 14, the administrative procedure act; nutritional products, except for those products needed for treatment of phenylketonuria, hyperlysinemia, maple syrup urine disease, a combined allergy to human milk, cow milk, and soy formula, or any other childhood or adult diseases, conditions, or disorders identified by the commissioner as requiring a similarly necessary nutritional product; anorectics; and drugs for which medical value has not been established. Separate payment shall not be made for nutritional products for residents of long-term care facilities; payment for dietary requirements is a component of the per diem rate paid to these facilities. Payment to drug vendors shall not be modified before the formulary is established except that the commissioner shall not permit payment for any drugs which may not by law be included in the formulary, and the commissioner's determination shall not be subject to chapter 14, the administrative procedure act. The commissioner shall publish conditions for prohibiting payment for specific drugs after considering the formulary committee's recommendations.

(b) The basis for determining the amount of payment shall be the lower of the actual acquisition costs of the drugs plus a fixed dispensing fee established by the commissioner, the maximum allowable cost set by the federal government or by the commissioner plus the fixed dispensing fee or the usual and customary price charged to the public. Actual acquisition cost includes quantity and other special discounts except time and cash discounts. The actual acquisition cost of a drug may be estimated by the commissioner. The maximum allowable cost of a multisource drug may be set by the commissioner and it shall be comparable to, but no higher than, the maximum amount paid by other third party payors in this state who have maximum allowable cost programs. Establishment of the amount of payment for drugs shall not be subject to the requirements of the administrative procedure act. An additional dispensing fee of $.30 may be added to the dispensing fee paid to pharmacists for legend drug prescriptions dispensed to residents of long-term care facilities when a unit dose blister card system, approved by the department, is used. Under this type of dispensing system, the pharmacist must dispense a 30-day supply of drug. The National Drug Code (NDC) from the drug container used to fill the blister card must be identified on the claim to the department. The unit dose blister card containing the drug must meet the packaging standards set forth in Minnesota Rules, part 6800.2700, that govern the return of unused drugs to the pharmacy for reuse. The pharmacy provider will be required to credit the department for the actual acquisition cost of all unused drugs that are eligible for reuse. Over-the-counter medications must be dispensed in the manufacturer's unopened package. Whenever a generically equivalent product is available, payment shall be on the basis of the actual acquisition cost of the generic drug, unless the prescriber specifically indicates "dispense as written" on the prescription as required by section 151.21, subdivision 2. Implementation of any change in the fixed dispensing fee that has not been subject to the administrative procedure act is limited to not more than 180 days, unless, during that time, the commissioner initiates rulemaking through the administrative procedure act.

Sec. 43. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 256B.0625, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 28. [CERTIFIED PEDIATRIC OR FAMILY NURSE PRACTITIONER SERVICES.] Medical assistance covers services performed by a certified pediatric nurse practitioner or a certified family nurse practitioner in independent practice, if the services are otherwise covered under this chapter as a physician service, and if the service is within the scope of practice of the nurse practitioner's license as a registered nurse, as defined in section 148.171.

Sec. 44. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 256B.0625, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 29. [PUBLIC HEALTH NURSING CLINIC SERVICES.] Medical assistance covers the services of a certified public health nurse practicing in a public health nursing clinic that is a department of, or that operates under the direct authority of a unit of government, if the service is within the scope of practice of the public health nurse's license as a registered nurse, as defined in section 148.171.

Sec. 45. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 256B.0625, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 30. [OTHER CLINIC SERVICES.] Medical assistance covers rural health clinic, federally qualified health center, and non-profit community health clinic services. Rural health clinic services and federally qualified health center services mean services defined in United States Code, title 42, section 1396d(a)(2)(B) and (C). Payment for rural health clinic and federally qualified health center services shall be made according to applicable federal law and regulation.

Sec. 46. [256B.0627] [COVERED SERVICE; HOME CARE SERVICES.]

Subdivision 1. [DEFINITION.] "Home care services" means a medically necessary health service that is ordered by a physician and documented in a plan of care that is reviewed and revised as medically necessary by the physician at least once every 60 days. Home care services include personal care and nursing supervision of personal care services which is reviewed and revised as medically necessary by the physician at least once every 365 days. Home care services are provided to the recipient at the recipient's residence that is a place other than a hospital or long-term care facility.

Subd. 2. [SERVICES COVERED.] Home care services covered under this section include:

- (1) nursing services;
- (2) private duty nursing services;

- (3) home health aide services;
- (4) personal care services; and
- (5) nursing supervision of personal care services.

Subd. 3. [PRIVATE DUTY NURSING SERVICES; WHO MAY PROVIDE.] Private duty nursing services may be provided by a registered nurse or licensed practical nurse who is not the recipient's spouse, legal guardian, or parent of a minor child.

Subd. 4. [PERSONAL CARE SERVICES.] (a) Personal care services may be provided by a qualified individual who is not the recipient's spouse, legal guardian, or parent of a minor child.

(b) The personal care services that are eligible for payment are the following:

- (1) bowel and bladder care;
- (2) skin care to maintain the health of the skin;
- (3) range of motion exercises;
- (4) respiratory assistance;
- (5) transfers;
- (6) bathing, grooming, and hairwashing necessary for personal hygiene;
- (7) turning and positioning;
- (8) assistance with furnishing medication that is normally self-administered;
- (9) application and maintenance of prosthetics and orthotics;
- (10) cleaning medical equipment;
- (11) dressing or undressing;
- (12) assistance with food, nutrition, and diet activities;
- (13) accompanying a recipient to obtain medical diagnosis or treatment;
- (14) services provided for the recipient's personal health and safety;

(15) helping the recipient to complete daily living skills such as personal and oral hygiene and medication schedules; and

(16) incidental household services that are an integral part of a personal care service described in items (1) to (15).

(c) The personal care services that are not eligible for payment are the following:

(1) personal care services that are not in the plan of care developed by the supervising registered nurse in consultation with the personal care assistants and the recipient or family of the recipient;

(2) services that are not supervised by the registered nurse;

(3) services provided by the recipient's spouse, legal guardian, or parent of a minor child;

(4) sterile procedures; and

(5) injections of fluids into veins, muscles, or skin.

Subd. 5. [LIMITATION ON PAYMENTS.] Medical assistance payments for home care services shall be limited according to paragraphs (a) to (e).

(a) [EXEMPTION FROM PAYMENT LIMITATIONS.] The level, or the number of hours or visits of a specific service, of home health care services to a recipient that began before and is continued without increase on or after December 1987 shall be exempt from the payment limitations of this section, as long as the services are medically necessary.

(b) [LEVEL I HOME CARE.] For all new cases after December 1987, medically necessary home care services up to $800 may be provided in a calendar month.

If the services in the recipient's home care plan will exceed the $800 threshold for 30 days or less, the medically necessary services may be provided.

(c) [LEVEL II HOME CARE.] If the services in the recipient's home care plan will exceed $800 for more than 30 days, a public health nurse from the local preadmission screening team shall determine the recipient's maximum level of home care according to this paragraph.

(1) The local preadmission screening team shall base its determination of the recipient's maximum level of care on the need and eligibility of the recipient for one of the following placements:

(i) residential facility for persons with mental retardation or related conditions operated under section 256B.501;

(ii) inpatient hospital care for a ventilator-dependent recipient. "Ventilator dependent" means an individual who receives mechanical ventilation for life support at least six hours per day and is expected to or has been dependent for at least 30 consecutive days; or

(iii) all other recipients not appropriate for one of the above placements.

(2) If the recipient is eligible under clause (1)(i), the monthly medical assistance reimbursement for home care services shall not exceed the total monthly statewide average payment rate for residential facilities for children or adults with mental retardation or related conditions appropriate for the recipient's age and level of self-preservation as determined according to Minnesota Rules, parts 9553.0010 to 9553.0080.

(3) If the recipient is eligible under clause (1)(ii), the monthly medical assistance reimbursement for home care services shall not exceed the monthly cost of care at Bethesda Respiratory Hospital. For purposes of this clause, home care services means all services provided in the home that would be included in the payment for care at Bethesda Respiratory Hospital.

(4) If the recipient is not eligible under either clause (1)(i) or (1)(ii), the monthly medical assistance reimbursement for home care services shall not exceed the total monthly statewide average payment for the case mix classification most appropriate to the recipient. The case mix classification is established under section 256B.431.

(5) The determination of the recipient's maximum level of home care by the public health nurse is called a home care cost assessment. The home care cost assessment must be requested by the home care provider before the end of the first 30 days of provided service and must be conducted by the public health nurse within ten working days following request.

(6) A home care provider shall request a new home care cost assessment when the needs of the individual have changed enough to require that a revised care plan be implemented that will increase costs beyond what was authorized by the previous home care cost assessment and the change is anticipated to last for more than 30 days. The home care provider must request the home care cost assessment before the end of the first 30 days of provided service. Whenever a home care cost assessment is completed, the public health nurse that completes the home care cost assessment, in consultation with the home care provider, shall determine the time period for which a home care cost assessment shall remain valid. If the recipient continues to require home care services beyond the limited duration of the home care cost assessment, the home care provider must request a reassessment through the home care cost assessment process described above. Under no circumstances shall a home care cost assessment be valid for more than 12 months.

(7) Reimbursement for the home care cost assessment shall be made through the Medicaid administrative authority. The state shall pay the nonfederal share.

(d) [LEVEL III HOME CARE.] If the home care provider determines that the recipient's needs exceed the amount authorized for the appropriate level of care as determined in paragraph (c), the home care provider may refer the case to the department for a level III determination. Based on the client needs, physician orders, diagnosis, condition, and plan of care, the department may give prior authorization for care that exceeds level II described in paragraph (c). The amount authorized shall not exceed the maximum cost for the appropriate level of care as determined in paragraph (c), clause (1), which will be the maximum ICF/MR rate for intermediate care facilities for persons with mental retardation or related conditions, or the maximum nursing home case mix payment, or the highest hospital cost for the state.

The department has 30 days from receipt of the request to complete the level III determination, during which time it may authorize the higher level while reviewing the case.

Case reviews or authorization of home care services in levels II and III may result in assignment of a case manager.

(e) [PRIOR AUTHORIZATION REQUIRED IN FOSTER CARE SETTING.] Any home care service provided in an adult or child foster care setting must receive prior authorization by the department.

Subd. 6. [RECOVERY OF EXCESSIVE PAYMENTS.] The commissioner shall seek monetary recovery of payments from providers made for services which exceed the limits established in this section.

Sec. 47. [256B.0629] [ADVISORY COMMITTEE ON ORGAN AND TISSUE TRANSPLANTS.]

Subdivision 1. [CREATION AND MEMBERSHIP.] By July 1, 1990, the commissioner shall appoint and convene a 12 member advisory committee to provide advice and recommendations to the commissioner concerning the eligibility of organ and tissue transplant procedures for reimbursement by medical assistance and general assistance medical care. The committee must include rep-representatives of the transplant provider community, hospitals, patient recipient groups or organizations, the department of human services, the department of finance, and the department of health, and persons with expertise in ethics, law, and economics. The terms and removal of members shall be governed by section 15.059. Members shall not receive per diems but shall be compensated for expenses. The advisory committee does not expire as provided in section 15.059, subdivision 6.

Subd. 2. [FUNCTION AND OBJECTIVES.] The advisory committee shall meet at least twice a year. The committee's activities include, but are not limited to:

(1) collection of information on the efficacy and experience of various forms of transplantation not approved by medicare;

(2) collection of information from Minnesota transplant providers on available services, success rates, and the current status of transplant activity in the state;

(3) development of guidelines for determining when and under what conditions, organ and tissue transplants not approved by medicare should be eligible for reimbursement by medical assistance and general assistance medical care;

(4) providing recommendations, at least annually, to the commissioner on: (i) organ and tissue transplant procedures, beyond those approved by medicare, that should also be eligible for reimbursement under medical assistance and general assistance medical care; and (ii) which transplant centers should be eligible for reimbursement from medical assistance and general assistance medical care.

Subd. 3. [ANNUAL REPORT.] The advisory committee shall present an annual report to the commissioner and the chairs of the health and human services appropriations divisions of the house appropriations committee and the senate finance committee by January 1 of each year on the findings and recommendations of the committee.

Subd. 4. [RESPONSIBILITIES OF THE COMMISSIONER.] The commissioner shall, at least annually:

(1) Develop and publish criteria governing the eligibility of organ and tissue transplant procedures for reimbursement from medical assistance and general assistance medical care. Procedures approved by medicare are automatically eligible for medical assistance and general assistance medical care reimbursement.

(2) Develop and publish criteria certifying transplant centers within and outside of Minnesota where Minnesotans receiving medical assistance and general assistance medical care may obtain transplants.

Sec. 48. [256B.0643] [VENDOR REQUEST FOR CONTESTED CASE PROCEEDING.]

Unless otherwise provided by law, a vendor of medical care, as defined in section 256B.02, subdivision 7, must use this procedure to request a contested case, as defined in section 14.02, subdivision 3. A request for a contested case must be filed with the commissioner in writing within 30 days after the date the notification of an action or determination was mailed. The appeal request must specify:

- (1) each disputed action or item;
- (2) the reason for the dispute;
- (3) an estimate of the dollar amount involved, if any, for each disputed item;
- (4) the computation or other disposition that the appealing party believes is correct;
- (5) the authority in statute or rule upon which the appealing party relies for each disputed item;
- (6) the name and address of the person or firm with whom contacts may be made regarding the appeal; and
- (7) other information required by the commissioner.

Nothing in this section shall be construed to create a right to an administrative appeal or contested case proceeding.

Sec. 49. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 256B.091, subdivision 4, is amended to read:

Subd. 4. [SCREENING OF PERSONS.] Prior to nursing home or boarding care home admission, screening teams shall assess the needs of all applicants, except (1) patients transferred from other certified nursing homes or boarding care homes; (2) patients who, having entered acute care facilities from nursing homes or boarding care homes, are returning to a nursing home or boarding care home; (3) persons entering a facility described in section 256B.431, subdivision 4, paragraph (e) individuals who are screened by another state within three months before admission to a Minnesota nursing home; (4) individuals not eligible for medical assistance whose length of stay is expected to be 30 days or less based on a physician's certification, if the facility notifies the screening team upon admission and provides an update to the screening team on the 30th day after admission; (5) individuals who have a contractual right to have their nursing home care paid for indefinitely by the veteran's administration; or (6) persons entering a facility conducted by and for the adherents of a recognized church or religious denomination for the purpose of providing care and services for those who depend upon spiritual means, through prayer alone, for healing. The total screening cost for each county for applicants and residents of nursing homes who request a screening must be paid monthly by nursing homes and boarding care homes participating in the medical assistance program in the county. The monthly amount to be paid by each nursing home and boarding care home for fiscal year 1991 must be determined by dividing the county's estimate of the total annual cost of screenings allowed by the commissioner in the county for the following rate year by 12 to determine the monthly cost estimate and allocating the monthly cost estimate to each nursing home and boarding care home based on the number of licensed beds in the nursing home or boarding care home. The rate allowed for a screening where two team members are present shall be the actual costs up to $218. The rate allowed for a screening where only one team member is present shall be the actual costs up to $131. The commissioner shall establish by rulemaking an annual adjustment of the state maximum screening rate. The monthly cost estimate for each nursing home or boarding care home must be submitted to the nursing home or boarding care home and the state by the county no later than February 15 of each year for inclusion in the nursing home's or boarding care home's payment rate on the following rate year. The commissioner shall include the reported annual estimated cost of screenings for each nursing home or boarding care home as an operating cost of that nursing home in accordance with section 256B.431, subdivision 2b, clause (g). ~~For all individuals regardless of payment source, if delay of screening timelines are not met because a county is late in screening an individual who meets the delay-of-screening criteria, the county is solely responsible for paying the cost of the preadmission screening. If in more than ten percent of the total number of screenings performed by a county in a fiscal year for all individuals regardless of payment source, the screening timelines were not met because a county was late in screening the individual, the county is solely responsible for paying the cost of those delayed screenings that exceed ten percent.~~ Notwithstanding section 256B.0641, overpayments attributable to payment of the screening costs under the medical assistance program may not be recovered from a facility. Any other interested person may be screened under this subdivision if the person pays a fee for the screening based upon a sliding fee scale determined by the commissioner.

Sec. 50. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 256B.091, subdivision 6, is amended to read:

Subd. 6. [REIMBURSEMENT.] The commissioner of human services shall amend the Minnesota medical assistance plan to include reimbursement for the local screening teams. Medical assistance reimbursement shall not be provided for any recipient placed in a nursing home in opposition to the screening team's recommendation after January 1, 1981; provided, however, the commissioner shall not deny reimbursement for (1) an individual admitted to a nursing home or boarding care home who is assessed to need long-term supportive services if long-term supportive services other than nursing home care are not available in that community; (2) any eligible individual placed in the nursing home or boarding care home pending an appeal of the preadmission screening team's decision; (3) any eligible individual placed in the nursing home or boarding care home by a physician in an emergency situation and where the screening team has not made a decision within five working days of its initial contact; or (4) any medical assistance recipient when, after full discussion of all appropriate alternatives including those that are expected to be less costly than care in a nursing home or boarding care home, the individual or the individual's legal representative insists on nursing home or boarding care home placement. Medical assistance reimbursement for nursing homes shall not be provided for any recipient who the team has determined does not meet the level of care criteria for nursing home placement. The screening team shall provide documentation that the most cost effective alternatives available were offered to this individual or the individual's legal representative.

Sec. 51. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 256B.091, subdivision 8, is amended to read:

Subd. 8. [ALTERNATIVE CARE GRANTS.] (a) The commissioner shall provide grants funds to counties participating in the program to pay costs of providing alternative care to individuals screened under subdivision 4 and nursing home or boarding care home residents who request a screening.

(b) Prior to July of each year, the commissioner shall allocate state funds available for alternative care grants to each local agency. ~~This allocation must be made as follows: half of the state funds available for alternative care grants must be allocated to each county according to the total number of adults in that county who are recipients age 65 or older who are reported to the department by March 1 of each state fiscal year and half of the state funds available for alternative care grants must be allocated to a county according to that county's number of Medicare enrollments age 65 or older for the most recent statistical report.~~

(c) For fiscal year 1991 only, the appropriation shall be distributed as specified in paragraphs (1) and (2).

(1) Sufficient state funds shall be set aside for payment for unreimbursed services provided prior to April 1, 1990, as billed by each county by June 1, 1990.

(2) The remainder of the state funds available for alternative care grants must be allocated to each county in the same proportion as each county's share of the actual payments made plus claims submitted for services rendered in the base year. The base year for each county shall be either fiscal year 1989 or calendar year 1989, whichever period contains a larger total dollar amount of payments plus claims submitted for each county. To be counted in the allocation process, claims must be submitted by June 1, 1990. This allocation will include the state share for medical assistance recipients as well as the state share for those who would be eligible within 180 days after nursing home admission. No reallocation between counties will be made. The county agency shall not be reimbursed for services which exceed the county allocation. To receive reimbursement for persons who are eligible within 180 days, the county must submit invoices within 90 days following the date of service. The number of medical assistance waiver recipients which each county may serve is allocated according to the number of open medical assistance waiver cases on July 1, 1990. Additional recipients may be served with the approval of the commissioner. These additional recipients must be served within the county's allocation.

(d) The alternative care grant appropriation for fiscal years 1992 and beyond shall cover only individuals who would be eligible for medical assistance within 180 days after admission to a nursing home. The commissioner shall allocate state funds available for alternative care grants to each county agency. The allocation must be made as follows: the state funds available for alternative care grants, up to the amount of the previous year's allocation increased by the percentage for rates in Minnesota Rules, part 9505.2490, must be allocated to each county in the same proportion as the previous year's allocation. If the appropriation is less than the previous year's allocation plus inflation, it shall be prorated according to the county's share of the formula. Any funds appropriated in excess of the previous year's allocation plus inflation shall be allocated to county agencies, by methodologies that target funds for programs designed to reduce premature nursing home placements and promote cost-effective alternatives to increasing nursing home beds and nursing home utilization. The additional allocation to counties will become part of the allocation base. The commissioner shall appoint a work group including county and senior representatives to assist in developing criteria for allocating funds which may include identifying special target populations, geographic areas, or projects. No reallocation between counties shall be made. The county agency shall not be reimbursed for services which exceed the county allocation. To receive reimbursement, the county must submit invoices within 90 days following the date of service. The number of medical assistance waiver recipients which a county may serve must be allocated according to the number of open medical assistance waiver cases on July 1 of each fiscal year. Additional recipients may be served with the approval of the commissioner.

(e) The commissioner is directed to conduct a review of the preadmission screening program and alternative care grant program including screening requirements, screening reimbursement, program effectiveness, eligibility criteria for alternative care, accessibility to services, copayment and sliding fee issues, county utilization, rates for services, the payment system, funding and forecasting issues, administrative requirements, incentives for innovation, improved consistency with the community assistance for disabled individuals program and medical assistance home care services, and the allocation formula. In conducting this review, special attention should be given to ways to reduce or minimize administrative and program requirements and associated county costs. The commissioner shall appoint a work group including county and senior citizen representatives to assist in the program review. The commissioner must present a report on the findings of the review and recommendations for change to the legislature by February 15, 1991.

(f) Payment is available under this subdivision only for individuals (1) for whom the screening team would recommend nursing home or boarding care home admission, or continued stay if alternative care were not available; (2) who are receiving medical assistance or who would be eligible for medical assistance within 180 days of admission to a nursing home; (3) who need services that are not available at that time in the county through other public assistance; and (4) who are age 65 or older.

(g) The commissioner shall establish by rule, in accordance with chapter 14, procedures for determining grant reallocations, limits on the rates for payment of approved services, including screenings, and submittal and approval of a biennial county plan for the administration of the preadmission screening and alternative care grants program.

(h) Grants may be used for payment of costs of providing care-related supplies, equipment, and the following services ~~such as, but not limited to;~~ adult foster care for elderly persons, adult day care whether or not offered through a nursing home, nutritional counseling, or medical social services, which, home health aide, homemaker, personal care, case management, and respite care. These services are must be provided by a licensed health care provider, a home health service eligible for reimbursement under Titles XVIII and XIX of the federal Social Security Act, or by persons employed by or contracted with by the county board or the local welfare agency.

(i) The county agency shall ensure that a plan of care is established for each individual in accordance with subdivision 3, clause (e)(2), and that a client's service needs and eligibility is reassessed at least every six months. The plan shall include any services prescribed by the individual's attending physician as necessary and follow up services as necessary. The county agency shall provide documentation to the commissioner verifying that the individual's alternative care is not available at that time through any other public assistance or service program and shall provide documentation in each individual's plan of care and to the commissioner that the most cost-effective alternatives available have been offered to the individual and that the individual was free to choose among available qualified providers, both public and private. The county agency shall document to the commissioner that the agency made reasonable efforts to inform potential providers of the anticipated need for services under the alternative care grants program, including a minimum of 14 days written advance notice of the opportunity to be selected as a service provider and an annual public meeting with providers to explain and review the criteria for selection, and that the agency allowed potential providers an opportunity to be selected to contract with the county board. Grants to counties under this subdivision are subject to audit by the commissioner for fiscal and utilization control.

(j) The county must select providers for contracts or agreements using the following criteria and other criteria established by the county:

- (1) the need for the particular services offered by the provider;
- (2) the population to be served, including the number of clients, the length of time services will be provided, and the medical condition of clients;
- (3) the geographic area to be served;
- (4) quality assurance methods, including appropriate licensure, certification, or standards, and supervision of employees when needed;
- (5) rates for each service and unit of service exclusive of county administrative costs;
- (6) evaluation of services previously delivered by the provider; and
- (7) contract or agreement conditions, including billing requirements, cancellation, and indemnification.

(k) The county must evaluate its own agency services under the criteria established for other providers. The county shall provide a written statement of the reasons for not selecting providers.

(l) The commissioner shall establish a sliding fee schedule for requiring payment for the cost of providing services under this subdivision to persons who are eligible for the services but who are not yet eligible for medical assistance. The sliding fee schedule is not subject to chapter 14 but the commissioner shall publish the schedule and any later changes in the State Register and allow a period of 20 working days from the publication date for interested persons to comment before adopting the sliding fee schedule in final forms.

(m) The commissioner shall apply for a waiver for federal financial participation to expand the availability of services under this subdivision. Waivered services provided to medical assistance recipients must comply with the same criteria as defined in this section and in the approved waiver. Reimbursement for the medical assistance recipients shall be made from the regular medical assistance account. The commissioner shall provide grants to counties from the nonfederal share, unless the commissioner obtains a federal waiver for medical assistance payments, of medical assistance appropriations. A county agency may use grant money to supplement but not supplant services available through other public assistance or service programs and shall not use grant money to establish new programs for which public money is available through sources other than grants provided under this subdivision. A county agency shall not use grant money to provide care under this subdivision to an individual if the anticipated cost of providing this care would exceed the average payment, as determined by the commissioner, for the level of care that the recipient would receive if placed in a nursing home or boarding care home. The nonfederal share may be used to pay up to 90 percent of the start-up and service delivery costs of providing care under this subdivision. The state share of the nonfederal portion of costs shall be 90 percent and the county share shall be ten percent. Each county agency that receives a grant shall pay ten percent of the costs for persons who are eligible for the services but who are not yet eligible for medical assistance.

(n) Beginning July 1, 1991, the state will reimburse counties according to the payment schedule in section 256.025 for the county share of costs incurred under this subdivision from January 1, 1991, on, for individuals who are receiving medical assistance.

(o) Beginning July 1, 1991, the state will reimburse counties, up to the limit of state appropriations, according to the payment schedule in section 256.025 for the county share of costs incurred under this subdivision from January 1, 1991, on, for individuals who would be eligible for medical assistance within 180 days of admission to a nursing home.

(p) The commissioner shall promulgate emergency rules in accordance with sections 14.29 to 14.36, to establish required documentation and reporting of care delivered.

Sec. 52. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 256B.14, is amended to read:

256B.14 [RELATIVE'S RESPONSIBILITY.]

Subdivision 1. [IN GENERAL.] Subject to the provisions of sections 256B.055, 256B.056, and 256B.06, responsible relative means the parent of a minor recipient of medical assistance or the spouse of a medical assistance recipient.

Subd. 2. [ACTIONS TO OBTAIN PAYMENT.] The state agency shall promulgate rules to determine the ability of responsible relatives to contribute partial or complete payment or repayment of medical assistance furnished to recipients for whom they are responsible. These rules shall not require payment or repayment when payment would cause undue hardship to the responsible relative or that relative's immediate family. These rules shall be consistent with the requirements of section 252.27, subdivision 2, for parents of children whose eligibility for medical assistance was determined without deeming of the parents' resources and income. For parents of children receiving services under a federal medical assistance waiver or under section 134 of the Tax Equity and Fiscal Responsibility Act of 1982, United States Code, title 42, section 1396a(e)(3), while living in their natural home, including in-home family support services, respite care, homemaker services, and minor adaptations to the home, the state agency shall take into account the room, board, and services provided by the parents in determining the parental contribution to the cost of care. The county agency shall give the responsible relative notice of the amount of the payment or repayment within 30 days of the date of the notice of the person's eligibility. If the state agency or county agency finds that notice of the payment obligation was given to the responsible relative, but that the relative failed or refused to pay, a cause of action exists against the responsible relative for that portion of medical assistance granted after notice was given to the responsible relative, which the relative was determined to be able to pay.

The action may be brought by the state agency or the county agency in the county where assistance was granted, for the assistance, together with the costs of disbursements incurred due to the action.

In addition to granting the county or state agency a money judgment, the court may, upon a motion or order to show cause, order continuing contributions by a responsible relative found able to repay the county or state agency. The order shall be effective only for the period of time during which the recipient receives medical assistance from the county or state agency.

Subd. 3. [COMMUNITY SPOUSE CONTRIBUTION.] The community spouse of an institutionalized person who receives medical assistance under section 256B.059, subdivision 5, paragraph (b), has an obligation to pay for the cost of care equal to the dollar value of assets considered available under section 256B.059, subdivision 5, paragraph (a).

Subd. 4. [APPEALS.] A responsible relative may appeal the determination of an obligation to make a contribution under this section, according to section 256.045.

Sec. 53. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 256B.15, is amended to read:

256B.15 [CLAIMS AGAINST ESTATES.]

Subdivision 1. [ESTATES SUBJECT TO CLAIMS.] If a person receives any medical assistance hereunder, on the person's death, if single, or on the death of the survivor of a married couple, either or both of whom received medical assistance, and only when there is no surviving child who is under 21 or is blind or totally disabled, the total amount paid for medical assistance rendered for the person and spouse, after age 65, without interest, shall be filed as a claim against the estate of the person or the estate of the surviving spouse in the court having jurisdiction to probate the estate.

A claim against the estate of a surviving spouse who did not receive medical assistance, for medical assistance rendered for the predeceased spouse, is limited to the value of the assets of the estate that were marital property or jointly owned property at any time during the marriage. A claim shall be filed if medical assistance was rendered for either or both persons under one of the following circumstances:

(a) the person was over 65 years of age; or

(b) the person resided in a medical institution for six months or longer and, at the time of institutionalization or application for medical assistance, whichever is later, the person could not have reasonably been expected to be discharged and returned home, as certified in writing by the person's treating physician. For purposes of this section only, a "medical institution" means a skilled nursing facility, intermediate care facility, intermediate care facility for persons with mental retardation, nursing facility, or inpatient hospital.

The claim shall be considered an expense of the last illness of the decedent for the purpose of section 524.3-805. Any statute of limitations that purports to limit any county agency or the state agency, or both, to recover for medical assistance granted hereunder shall not apply to any claim made hereunder for reimbursement for any medical assistance granted hereunder. Counties are entitled to one-half of the nonfederal share of medical assistance collections from estates that are directly attributable to county effort.

Subd. 2. [LIMITATIONS ON CLAIMS.] The claim shall include only the total amount of medical assistance rendered after age 65 or during a period of institutionalization described in subdivision 1, clause (b), and shall not include interest. A claim against the estate of a surviving spouse who did not receive medical assistance, for medical assistance rendered for the predeceased spouse, is limited to the value of the assets of the estate that were marital property or jointly owned property at any time during the marriage.

Subd. 3. [MINOR, BLIND OR DISABLED CHILDREN.] If a decedent who was single, or who was the surviving spouse of a married couple, is survived by a child who is under age 21 or blind or permanently and totally disabled according to the supplemental security income program criteria, no claim shall be filed against the estate.

Subd. 4. [OTHER SURVIVORS.] If the decedent who was single or the surviving spouse of a married couple is survived by one of the following persons, a claim exists against the estate in an amount not to exceed the value of the nonhomestead property included in the estate:

(a) a sibling who resided in the decedent medical assistance recipient's home at least one year before the decedent's institutionalization and continuously since the date of institutionalization; or

(b) a son or daughter who resided in the decedent medical assistance recipient's home for at least two years immediately before the parent's institutionalization and continuously since the date of institutionalization, and who establishes by a preponderance of the evidence that he or she provided care to the parent who received medical assistance, the care was provided before institutionalization, and the care permitted the parent to reside at home rather than in an institution.

Sec. 54. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 256B.19, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 2b. [PILOT PROJECT REIMBURSEMENT.] In counties where a demonstration or pilot project is operated under the medical assistance program, the state may pay 100 percent of the administrative costs for the demonstration or pilot project after June 30, 1990. Reimbursement for these costs is subject to section 256.025.

Sec. 55. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 256B.431, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 2l. [INFLATION ADJUSTMENTS AFTER JULY 1, 1990.] For rate years beginning on or after July 1, 1990, the forecasted composite price index for a nursing home's allowable operating cost per diems shall be determined using Data Resources, Inc., forecast for change in the Nursing Home Market Basket. The commissioner of human services shall use the indices as forecasted by Data Resources, Inc., in the fourth quarter of the calendar year preceding the rate year.

Sec. 56. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 256B.431, subdivision 3e, is amended to read:

Subd. 3e. [HOSPITAL-ATTACHED CONVALESCENT AND NURSING CARE FACILITIES.] If a community-operated hospital and attached convalescent and nursing care facility suspend operation of the hospital, or a nonprofit hospital and attached convalescent and nursing care facility suspend operation of the hospital on July 31, 1989, the surviving nursing care facility must be allowed to continue its status as a hospital-attached convalescent and nursing care facility for reimbursement purposes in three subsequent rate years.

Sec. 57. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 256B.431, subdivision 3g, is amended to read:

Subd. 3g. [PROPERTY COSTS AFTER JULY 1, 1990, FOR CERTAIN FACILITIES.] (a) For rate years beginning on or after July 1, 1990, nursing homes that, on or after January 1, 1976, but prior to January 1, 1987, were newly licensed after new construction, or increased their licensed beds by a minimum of 35 percent through new construction, and whose building capital allowance is less than their allowable annual principal and interest on allowable debt prior to the application of the replacement-cost-new per bed limit and whose remaining weighted average debt amortization schedule as of January 1, 1988, exceeded 15 years, must receive a property-related payment rate equal to the greater of their rental per diem or their annual allowable principal and allowable interest without application of the replacement-cost-new per bed limit, divided by their capacity days as determined under Minnesota Rules, part 9549.0060, subpart 11, as modified by subdivision 3f, paragraph (c), for the preceding reporting year, plus their equipment allowance. A nursing home that is eligible for a property-related payment rate under this subdivision and whose property-related payment rate in a subsequent rate year is its rental per diem must continue to have its property-related payment rates established for all future rate years based on the rental reimbursement method in Minnesota Rules, part 9549.0060.

The commissioner may require the nursing home to apply for refinancing as a condition of receiving special rate treatment under this subdivision.

(b) If a nursing home is eligible for a property-related payment rate under this subdivision, and the nursing home's debt is refinanced after ~~October~~ January 1, 1988 1985, the provisions in paragraphs (1) to (7) also apply to the property-related payment rate for rate years beginning on or after July 1, 1990.

(1) A nursing home's refinancing must not include debts with balloon payments.

(2) If the issuance costs, including issuance costs on the debt refinanced, are financed as part of the refinancing, the historical cost of capital assets limit in Minnesota Rules, part 9549.0060, subpart 5, item A, subitem (6), includes issuance costs that do not exceed seven percent of the debt refinanced, plus the related issuance costs. For purposes of this paragraph, issuance costs means the fees charged by the underwriter, issuer, attorneys, bond raters, appraisers, and trustees, and includes the cost of printing, title insurance, registration tax, and a feasibility study for the refinancing of a nursing home's debt. Issuance costs do not include bond premiums or discounts when bonds are sold at other than their par value, points, or a bond reserve fund. To the extent otherwise allowed under this paragraph, the straight-line amortization of the refinancing issuance costs is not an allowable cost.

(3) The annual principal and interest expense payments and any required annual municipal fees on the nursing home's refinancing replace those of the refinanced debt and, together with annual principal and interest payments on other allowable debts, are allowable costs subject to the limitation on historical cost of capital assets plus issuance costs as limited in paragraph (2), if any.

(4) If the nursing home's refinancing includes zero coupon bonds, the commissioner shall establish a monthly debt service payment schedule based on an annuity that will produce an amount equal to the zero coupon bonds at maturity. The term and interest rate is the term and interest rate of the zero coupon bonds. Any refinancing to repay the zero coupon bonds is not an allowable cost.

(5) The annual amount of annuity payments is added to the nursing home's allowable annual principal and interest payment computed in paragraph (3).

(6) The property-related payment rate is equal to the amount in paragraph (5), divided by the nursing home's capacity days as determined under Minnesota Rules, part 9549.0060, subpart 11, as modified by subdivision 3f, paragraph (c), for the preceding reporting year plus an equipment allowance.

(7) Except as provided in this subdivision, the provisions of Minnesota Rules, part 9549.0060 apply.

Sec. 58. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 256B.431, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 3h. [PROPERTY COSTS FOR THE RATE YEAR BEGINNING JULY 1, 1990.] Notwithstanding Minnesota Rules, part 9549.0060, subpart 13, item H, the commissioner shall determine property-related payment rates for nursing homes for the rate year beginning July 1, 1990, as follows:

(a) The property-related payment rate for a nursing home that qualifies under subdivision 3g is the rate determined under that subdivision.

(b) Nursing homes shall be grouped according to the type of property-related payment rate the commissioner determined for the rate year beginning July 1, 1989. A nursing home whose property-related payment rate was determined under Minnesota Rules, part 9549.0060, subpart 13, item A (full rental reimbursement) shall be considered group A. A nursing home whose property-related payment rate was determined under Minnesota Rules, part 9549.0060, subpart 13, item B (phase-down to full rental reimbursement) shall be considered group B. A nursing home whose property-related payment rate was determined under Minnesota Rules, part 9549.0060, subpart 13, item C or D (phase-up to full rental reimbursement) shall be considered group C.

(c) For the rate year beginning July 1, 1990, a Group A nursing home shall receive its property-related payment rate determined under Minnesota Rules, parts 9549.0010 to 9549.0080, and this section.

(d) For the rate year beginning July 1, 1990, a Group B nursing home shall receive the greater of 90.5 percent of the property-related payment rate in effect on July 1, 1989; or the rental per diem rate determined under Minnesota Rules, parts 9549.0010 to 9549.0080, and this section in effect on July 1, 1990; or the sum of 100 percent of the nursing home's allowable principal and interest expense, plus its equipment allowance multiplied by the resident days for the reporting year ending September 30, 1989, divided by the nursing home's capacity days as determined under Minnesota Rules, part 9549.0060, subpart 11, as modified by subdivision 3f, paragraph (c); except that the nursing home's property-related payment rate must not exceed its property-related payment rate in effect on July 1, 1989.

(e) For the rate year beginning July 1, 1990, a Group C nursing home shall receive its property-related payment rate determined under Minnesota Rules, parts 9549.0010 to 9549.0080, and this section, except the rate must not exceed the lesser of its property-related payment rate determined for the rate year beginning July 1, 1989, multiplied by 150 percent or its rental per diem rate determined effective July 1, 1990.

(f) The property-related payment rate for a nursing home that qualifies for a rate adjustment under Minnesota Rules, part 9549.0060, subpart 13, item G (special reappraisals) shall have the property-related payment rate determined in paragraphs (a) to (e) adjusted according to the provisions in that rule.

(g) For the rate year beginning July 1, 1990, a nursing home in the city of Faribault with a construction project approved by the commissioner under the moratorium exception approval process in section 144A.073 prior to February 1, 1990, whose property-related payment rate for the rate year beginning July 1, 1989, was determined under Minnesota Rules, part 9549.0060, subpart 13, item C or D (phase-up to full rental reimbursement) shall have its property-related payment rate determined under Minnesota Rules, part 9549.0060, subpart 13, item A (full rental reimbursement).

Sec. 59. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 256B.431, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 3i. [PROPERTY RATE ADJUSTMENT FOR REQUIRED IMPROVEMENTS.] The commissioner shall add an adjustment to the property-related payment rate of a certified, freestanding boarding care home reflecting the costs incurred by that nursing home to install a communications system in every room and hallway handrails, as required under the 1987 federal Omnibus Budget Reconciliation Act, Public Law Number 100-203. The property-related payment rate increase is only available if, and to the extent that, the nursing home's existing property-related payment rate, minus the nursing home's allowable principal and interest costs and equipment allowance, is not sufficient to cover the costs of the required improvements. Each nursing home eligible for the adjustment shall submit to the commissioner a detailed estimate of the cost increases the facility will incur to meet the new physical plant requirements. Ten percent of the amount of the costs that are determined by the commissioner to be reasonable for the nursing home to meet the new requirements, divided by resident days, must be added to the nursing home's property-related payment rate. The adjustment shall be added to the property-related payment rate determined under section 256B.431, subdivision 3h. The resulting recalculated property-related payment rate is effective October 1, 1990, or 60 days after a nursing home submits its detailed cost estimate, whichever occurs later.

The adjustment is only available to a certified, freestanding boarding care home that cannot meet the requirements of Public Law Number 100-203 for communications systems and handrails as demonstrated to the satisfaction of the commissioner of health. When the commissioner of human services establishes that it is not cost effective to upgrade an eligible certified, freestanding boarding care home to the new standards, the commissioner of human services may exclude the certified freestanding boarding care home if it is either an institution for mental disease or a certified, freestanding boarding care home that would have been determined to be an institution for mental disease but for the fact that it has 16 or fewer licensed beds.

Sec. 60. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 256B.431, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 3j. [SPECIAL PROPERTY RATE.] Notwithstanding any law or rule to the contrary, for rate years beginning July 1, 1990, a nursing home under lease from 1968 until 1983 with a lessee or related party having an option to purchase the nursing home, which option was subsequently exercised, shall be allowed debt and interest costs incurred by the lessee or related party on indebtedness created when the option to purchase was exercised before the end of the 1983 calendar year. The nursing home must demonstrate to the commissioner's satisfaction that the interest rate on the debt was less than market interest rates for similar arms-length transactions at the time the debt was incurred.

Sec. 61. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 256B.431, subdivision 7, is amended to read:

Subd. 7. [ONE-TIME ADJUSTMENT TO NURSING HOME PAYMENT RATES TO COMPLY WITH OMNIBUS BUDGET RECONCILIATION ACT.] The commissioner shall determine a one-time nursing staff adjustment to the payment rate to adjust payment rates to upgrade certain nursing homes' professional nursing staff complement to meet the minimum standards of 1987 Public Law Number 100-203. The adjustments to the payment rates determined under this subdivision cover cost increases to meet minimum standards for professional nursing staff. For a nursing home to be eligible for the payment rate adjustment, a nursing home must have all of its current licensed beds certified solely for the intermediate level of care. When the commissioner establishes that it is not cost effective to upgrade an eligible nursing home to the new minimum staff standards, the commissioner may exclude the nursing home if it is either an institution for mental disease or a nursing home that would have been determined to be an institution for mental disease, but for the fact that it has 16 or fewer licensed beds.

(a) The increased cost of professional nursing for an eligible nursing home shall be determined according to clauses (1) to (4):

(1) subtract from the number 8760 the compensated hours for professional nurses, both employed and contracted, and, if the result is greater than zero, then multiply the result by $4.55;

(2) subtract from the number 2920 the compensated hours for registered nurses, both employed and contracted, and, if the result is greater than zero, then multiply the result by $9.30;

(3) if an eligible nursing home has less than 61 licensed beds, the director of nurses' compensated hours must be included in the compensated hours for professional nurses in clause (1). If the director of nurses is also a registered nurse, the director of nurses' hours must be included in the compensated hours for registered nurses in clause (2); and

(4) the one-time nursing staff adjustment to the payment rate shall be the sum of clauses (1) and (2) as adjusted by clause (3), if appropriate, and then divided by the nursing home's actual resident days for the reporting year ending September 30, 1988.

(b) The one-time nursing staff adjustment to the payment rate is effective from January 1, 1990, to June 30, 1991.

(c) If a nursing home is granted a waiver to the minimum professional nursing staff standards under Public Law Number 100-203 for either the professional nurse adjustment referred to in clause (1), or the registered nurse adjustment in clause (2), the commissioner must recover the portion of the nursing home's payment rate that relates to a one-time nursing staff adjustment granted under this subdivision. The amount to be recovered shall be based on the type and extent of the waiver granted.

(d) Notwithstanding the provisions of paragraph (a), clause (3), if an eligible nursing home has less than 61 licensed beds, the director of nurses' compensated hours must be excluded from the computation of compensated hours for professional nurses and registered nurses in paragraph (a), clauses (1) and (2). The commissioner shall recompute the one-time nursing staff adjustment to the payment rate using the data from the cost report for the reporting year ending September 30, 1989, and the adjustment computed under this paragraph shall replace the adjustment previously computed under this subdivision effective October 1, 1990, and shall be effective for the period October 1, 1990, to June 30, 1992.

Sec. 62. [256B.432] [LONG-TERM CARE FACILITIES; CENTRAL, AFFILIATED, OR CORPORATE OFFICE COSTS.]

Subdivision 1. [DEFINITIONS.] For purposes of this section, the following terms have the meanings given them.

(a) "Management agreement" means an agreement in which one or more of the following criteria exist:

(1) the central, affiliated, or corporate office has or is authorized to assume day-to-day operational control of the long-term care facility for any six-month period within a 24-month period. "Day-to-day operational control" means that the central, affiliated, or corporate office has the authority to require, mandate, direct, or compel the employees of the long-term care facility to perform or refrain from performing certain acts, or to supplant or take the place of the top management of the long-term care facility. "Day-to-day operational control" includes the authority to hire or terminate employees or to provide an employee of the central, affiliated, or corporate office to serve as administrator of the long-term care facility;

(2) the central, affiliated, or corporate office performs or is authorized to perform two or more of the following: the execution of contracts; authorization of purchase orders; signature authority for checks, notes, or other financial instruments; requiring the long-term care facility to use the group or volume purchasing services of the central, affiliated, or corporate office; or the authority to make annual capital expenditures for the long-term care facility exceeding $50,000, or $500 per licensed bed, whichever is less, without first securing the approval of the long-term care facility board of directors;

(3) the central, affiliated, or corporate office becomes or is required to become the licensee under applicable state law;

(4) the agreement provides that the compensation for services provided under the agreement is directly related to any profits made by the long-term care facility; or

(5) the long-term care facility entering into the agreement is governed by a governing body that meets fewer than four times a year, that does not publish notice of its meetings, or that does not keep formal records of its proceedings.

(b) "Consulting agreement" means any agreement the purpose of which is for a central, affiliated, or corporate office to advise, counsel, recommend, or suggest to the owner or operator of the nonrelated long-term care facility measures and methods for improving the operations of the long-term care facility.

(c) "Long-term care facility" means a nursing home whose medical assistance rates are determined according to section 256B.431 or an intermediate care facility for persons with mental retardation and related conditions whose medical assistance rates are determined according to section 256B.501.

Subd. 2. [EFFECTIVE DATE.] For rate years beginning on or after July 1, 1990, the central, affiliated, or corporate office cost allocations in subdivisions 3 to 6 must be used when determining medical assistance rates under sections 256B.431 and 256B.501.

Subd. 3. [ALLOCATION; DIRECT IDENTIFICATION OF COSTS OF LONG-TERM CARE FACILITIES; MANAGEMENT AGREEMENT.] All costs that can be directly identified with a specific long-term care facility that is a related organization to the central, affiliated, or corporate office, or that is controlled by the central, affiliated, or corporate office under a management agreement, must be allocated to that long-term care facility.

Subd. 4. [ALLOCATION; DIRECT IDENTIFICATION OF COSTS TO OTHER ACTIVITIES.] All costs that can be directly identified with any other activity or function not described in subdivision 3 must be allocated to that activity or function.

Subd. 5. [ALLOCATION OF REMAINING COSTS; ALLOCATION RATIO.] (a) After the costs that can be directly identified according to subdivisions 3 and 4 have been allocated, the remaining central, affiliated, or corporate office costs must be allocated between the long-term care facility operations and the other activities or facilities unrelated to the long-term care facility operations based on the ratio of expenses.

(b) For purposes of allocating these remaining central, affiliated, or corporate office costs, the numerator for the allocation ratio shall be determined as follows:

(1) for long-term care facilities that are related organizations or are controlled by a central, affiliated, or corporate office under a management agreement, the numerator of the allocation ratio shall be equal to the sum of the total costs incurred by each related organization or controlled long-term care facility;

(2) for a central, affiliated, or corporate office providing goods or services to related organizations that are not long-term care facilities, the numerator of the allocation ratio shall be equal to the sum of the total costs incurred by the non-long-term care related organizations;

(3) for a central, affiliated, or corporate office providing goods or services to unrelated long-term care facilities under a consulting agreement, the numerator of the allocation ratio shall be equal to the greater of directly identified central, affiliated, or corporate costs or the contracted amount; or

(4) for business activities that involve the providing of goods or services to unrelated parties which are not long-term care facilities, the numerator of the allocation ratio shall be equal to the greater of directly identified costs or revenues generated by the activity or function.

(c) The denominator for the allocation ratio is the sum of the numerators in paragraph (b), clauses (1) to (4).

Subd. 6. [COST ALLOCATION BETWEEN LONG-TERM CARE FACILITIES.] (a) Those long-term care operations that have long-term care facilities both in Minnesota and outside of Minnesota must allocate the long-term care operation's central, affiliated, or corporate office costs identified in subdivision 5 to Minnesota based on the ratio of total resident days in Minnesota long-term care facilities to the total resident days in all facilities.

(b) The Minnesota long-term care operation's central, affiliated, or corporate office costs identified in paragraph (a) must be allocated to each Minnesota long-term care facility on the basis of resident days.

Sec. 63. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 256B.48, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 1c. [CASE MIX RATE FOR PROVIDER WITH ADDENDUM TO PROVIDER AGREEMENT.] A nursing home with an addendum to its provider agreement effective beginning July 8, 1985, or September 24, 1985, shall have its payment rates established by the commissioner under this subdivision. To save medical assistance resources, for rate years beginning after July 1, 1991, the provider's payment rates shall be the payment rates established by the commissioner July 1, 1990, multiplied by a 12-month inflation factor based on the forecasted inflation between the mid-points of rate years using the inflation index applied by the commissioner to other nursing homes.

The provider and the department of health shall complete case mix assessments under Minnesota Rules, chapter 4656, and parts 9549.0058 and 9549.0059, on only those residents receiving medical assistance. The commissioner of health may audit and verify the limited provider assessments at any time.

Sec. 64. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 256B.48, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [REPORTING REQUIREMENTS.] No later than December 31 of each year, a skilled nursing facility or intermediate care facility, including boarding care facilities, which receives medical assistance payments or other reimbursements from the state agency shall:

(a) Provide the state agency with a copy of its audited financial statements. The audited financial statements must include a balance sheet, income statement, statement of the rate or rates charged to private paying residents, statement of retained earnings, statements of changes in financial position (cash and working capital methods) statement of cash flows, notes to the financial statements, audited applicable supplemental information, and the certified public accountant's or licensed public accountant's opinion. The examination by the certified public accountant or licensed public accountant shall be conducted in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards as promulgated and adopted by the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants;

(b) Provide the state agency with a statement of ownership for the facility;

(c) Provide the state agency with separate, audited financial statements as specified in clause (a) for every other facility owned in whole or part by an individual or entity which has an ownership interest in the facility;

(d) Upon request, provide the state agency with separate, audited financial statements as specified in clause (a) for every organization with which the facility conducts business and which is owned in whole or in part by an individual or entity which has an ownership interest in the facility;

(e) Provide the state agency with copies of leases, purchase agreements, and other documents related to the lease or purchase of the nursing facility;

(f) Upon request, provide the state agency with copies of leases, purchase agreements, and other documents related to the acquisition of equipment, goods, and services which are claimed as allowable costs; and

(g) Permit access by the state agency to the certified public accountant's and licensed public accountant's audit workpapers which support the audited financial statements required in clauses (a), (c), and (d).

Documents or information provided to the state agency pursuant to this subdivision shall be public. If the requirements of clauses (a) to (g) are not met, the reimbursement rate may be reduced to 80 percent of the rate in effect on the first day of the fourth calendar month after the close of the reporting year, and the reduction shall continue until the requirements are met.

Sec. 65. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 256B.49, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 3. [CONTINUED SERVICES FOR PERSONS OVER AGE 65.] Persons who are found eligible for services under this section before their 65th birthday may remain eligible for these services after their 65th birthday if they meet all other eligibility factors.

Sec. 66. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 256B.495, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [PAYMENT OF RECEIVERSHIP FEES.] The commissioner in consultation with the commissioner of health may establish a receivership fee payment that exceeds a long-term care facility payment rate when the commissioner of health determines a long-term care facility is subject to the receivership provisions under section 144A.14 or 144A.15 or the commissioner of human services determines that a facility is subject to the receivership under section 245A.12 or 245A.13. In establishing the receivership fee payment, the commissioner must reduce the receiver's requested receivership fee by amounts that the commissioner determines are included in the long-term care facility's payment rate and that can be used to cover part or all of the receivership fee. Amounts that can be used to reduce the receivership fee shall be determined by reallocating facility staff or costs that were formerly paid by the long-term care facility before the receivership and are no longer required to be paid. The amounts may include any efficiency incentive, allowance, and other amounts not specifically required to be paid for expenditures of the long-term care facility.

If the receivership fee cannot be covered by amounts in the long-term care facility's payment rate, a receivership fee payment shall be set according to paragraphs (a) and (b) and payment shall be according to paragraphs (c) to (e).

(a) The receivership fee per diem shall be determined by dividing the annual receivership fee payment by the long-term care facility's resident days from the most recent cost report for which the commissioner has established a payment rate or the estimated resident days in the projected receivership fee period.

(b) The receivership fee per diem shall be added to the long-term care facility's payment rate.

(c) Notification of the payment rate increase must meet the requirements of section 256B.47, subdivision 2.

(d) The payment rate in paragraph (b) for a nursing home shall be effective the first day of the month following the receiver's compliance with the notice conditions in paragraph (c). The payment rate in paragraph (b) for an intermediate care facility for the mentally retarded shall be effective on the first day of the rate year in which the receivership fee per diem is determined.

(e) The commissioner may elect to make a lump sum payment of a portion of the receivership fee to the receiver or managing agent. In this case, the commissioner and the receiver or managing agent shall agree to a repayment plan. Regardless of whether the commissioner makes a lump sum payment under this paragraph, the provisions of paragraphs (a) to (d) and subdivision 2 also apply.

Sec. 67. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 256B.50, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [SCOPE.] A provider may appeal from a determination of a payment rate established pursuant to this chapter and reimbursement rules of the commissioner if the appeal, if successful, would result in a change to the provider's payment rate or to the calculation of maximum charges to therapy vendors as provided by section 256B.433, subdivision 2. Appeals must be filed in accordance with procedures in this section. This section does not apply to a request from a resident or nursing home for reconsideration of the classification of a resident under section 144.0722.

Sec. 68. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 256B.50, subdivision 1b, is amended to read:

Subd. 1b. [FILING AN APPEAL.] To appeal, the provider shall file with the commissioner a written notice of appeal; the appeal must be received by the commissioner within 60 days of the date the determination of the payment rate was mailed. The notice of appeal must specify each disputed item; the reason for the dispute; the total dollar amount and the dollar amount per bed in dispute for each separate disallowance, allocation, or adjustment of each cost item or part of a cost item; the computation that the provider believes is correct; the authority in statute or rule upon which the provider relies for each disputed item; the name and address of the person or firm with whom contacts may be made regarding the appeal; and other information required by the commissioner.

Sec. 69. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 256B.501, subdivision 3c, is amended to read:

Subd. 3c. [COMPOSITE FORECASTED INDEX.] For rate years beginning on or after October 1, 1988, the commissioner shall establish a statewide composite forecasted index to take into account economic trends and conditions between the midpoint of the facility's reporting year and the midpoint of the rate year following the reporting year. The statewide composite index must incorporate the forecast by Data Resources, Inc. of increases in the average hourly earnings of nursing and personal care workers indexed in Standard Industrial Code 805 in "Employment and Earnings," published by the Bureau of Labor Statistics, United States Department of Labor. This portion of the index must be weighted annually by the proportion of total allowable salaries and wages to the total allowable operating costs in the program, maintenance, and administrative operating cost categories for all facilities.

For adjustments to the other operating costs in the program, maintenance, and administrative operating cost categories, the statewide index must incorporate the Data Resources, Inc. forecast for increases in the national CPI-U. This portion of the index must be weighted annually by the proportion of total allowable other operating costs to the total allowable operating costs in the program, maintenance, and administrative operating cost categories for all facilities. The commissioner shall use the indices as forecasted by Data Resources, Inc., in the fourth quarter of the reporting year.

For rate years beginning on or after October 1, 1990, the commissioner shall index a facility's allowable operating costs in the program, maintenance, and administrative operating cost categories by using Data Resources, Inc., forecast for change in the Consumer Price Index-All Items (U.S. city average) (CPI-U). The commissioner shall use the indices as forecasted by Data Resources, Inc., in the first quarter of the calendar year in which the rate year begins.

Sec. 70. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 256B.501, subdivision 3e, is amended to read:

Subd. 3e. [INCREASE IN LIMITS.] For rate years beginning on or after October 1, 1990, the commissioner shall increase the administrative cost per licensed bed limit in subdivision 3d, paragraph (c), and the maintenance operating cost limit in Minnesota Rules, part 9553.0050, subpart 1, item A, subitem (2), by multiplying the administrative operating cost per bed limit and the maintenance operating cost limit by the ~~composite~~ forecasted index in subdivision 3c except that the index shall be based on the 12 months between the midpoints of the two preceding reporting years.

Sec. 71. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 256B.501, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 11. [INVESTMENT PER BED LIMITS, INTEREST EXPENSE LIMITATIONS, AND ARMS-LENGTH LEASES.] (a) The provisions of Minnesota Rules, part 9553.0075, except as modified under this subdivision, shall apply to newly constructed or established facilities that are certified for medical assistance on or after May 1, 1990.

(b) For purposes of establishing payment rates under this subdivision and Minnesota Rules, parts 9553.0010 to 9553.0080, the term "newly constructed or newly established" means a facility (1) for which a need determination has been approved by the commissioner under sections 252.28 and 252.291; (2) whose program is newly licensed under Minnesota Rules, parts 9525.0215 to 9525.0355, and certified under Code of Federal Regulations, title 42, section 442.400, et seq.; and (3) that is part of a proposal that meets the requirements of section 252.291, subdivision 2, paragraph (2). The term does not include a facility for which a need determination was granted solely for other reasons such as the relocation of a facility; a change in the facility's name, program, number of beds, type of beds, or ownership; or the sale of a facility, unless the relocation of a facility to one or more service sites is the result of a closure of a facility under section 252.292, in which case clause (3) shall not apply. The term does include a facility that converts more than 50 percent of its licensed beds from class A to class B residential or class B institutional to serve persons discharged from state regional treatment centers on or after May 1, 1990, in which case, clause (3) does not apply.

(c) Newly constructed or newly established facilities that are certified for medical assistance on or after May 1, 1990, shall be allowed the capital asset investment per bed limits as provided in clauses (1) to (4).

(1) The 1990 calendar year investment per bed limit for a facility's land must not exceed $5,700 per bed for newly constructed or newly established facilities in Hennepin, Ramsey, Anoka, Washington, Dakota, Scott, Carver, Chisago, Isanti, Wright, Benton, Sherburne, Stearns, St. Louis, Clay, and Olmsted counties, and must not exceed $3,000 per bed for newly constructed or newly established facilities in other counties.

(2) The 1990 calendar year investment per bed limit for a facility's depreciable capital assets must not exceed $44,800 for class B residential beds, and $45,200 for class B institutional beds.

(3) The investment per bed limit in clause (2) must not be used in determining the three-year average percentage increase adjustment in Minnesota Rules, part 9553.0060, subpart 1, item C, subitem (4), for facilities that were newly constructed or newly established before May 1, 1990.

(4) The investment per bed limits in clause (2) shall be adjusted annually beginning January 1, 1991, and each January 1 following, as provided in Minnesota Rules, part 9553.0060, subpart 1, item C, subitem (2).

(d) A newly constructed or newly established facility's interest expense limitation as provided for in Minnesota Rules, part 9553.0060, subpart 3, item F, on capital debt for capital assets acquired during the interim or settle-up period, shall be increased by 2.5 percentage points for each full .25 percentage points that the facility's interest rate on its mortgage is below the maximum interest rate as established in Minnesota Rules, part 9553.0060, subpart 2, item A, subitem (2). For all following rate periods, the interest expense limitation on capital debt in Minnesota Rules, part 9553.0060, subpart 3, item F, shall apply to the facility's capital assets acquired, leased, or constructed after the interim or settle-up period. If a newly constructed or newly established facility is acquired by the state, the limitations of this paragraph and Minnesota Rules, part 9553.0060, subpart 3, item F, shall not apply.

(e) If a newly constructed or newly established facility is leased with an arms-length lease as provided for in Minnesota Rules, part 9553.0060, subpart 7, the lease agreement shall be subject to the following conditions:

(1) the term of the lease, including option periods, must not be less than 20 years;

(2) the maximum interest rate used in determining the present value of the lease must not exceed the lesser of the interest rate limitation in Minnesota Rules, part 9553.0060, subpart 2, item A, subitem (2), or 16 percent; and

(3) the residual value used in determining the net present value of the lease must be established using the provisions of Minnesota Rules, part 9553.0060.

(f) All leases of the physical plant of an intermediate care facility for the mentally retarded shall contain a clause that requires the owner to give the commissioner notice of any requests or orders to vacate the premises 90 days before such vacation of the premises is to take place. In the case of unlawful detainer actions, the owner shall notify the commissioner within three days of notice of an unlawful detainer action being served upon the tenant. The only exception to this notice requirement is in the case of emergencies where immediate vacation of the premises is necessary to assure the safety and welfare of the residents. In such an emergency situation, the owner shall give the commissioner notice of the vacation request at the time the owner of the property is aware that the vacating of the premises is necessary. This paragraph applies to all leases entered into after the effective date of this section. Rentals set in leases entered into after that date that do not contain this clause are not allowable costs for purposes of medical assistance reimbursement.

(g) A newly constructed or newly established facility's preopening costs are subject to the provisions of Minnesota Rules, part 9553.0035, subpart 12, and must be limited to only those costs incurred during one of the following periods, whichever is shorter:

(1) between the date the commissioner approves the facility's need determination and 30 days before the date the facility is certified for medical assistance; or

(2) the 12-month period immediately preceding the 30 days before the date the facility is certified for medical assistance.

Sec. 72. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 256B.69, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [GEOGRAPHIC AREA.] The commissioner shall designate the geographic areas in which eligible individuals may be included in the ~~demonstration project~~. ~~The geographic areas may include one urban, one suburban, and one rural county. In order to encourage the participation of long-term care providers, the project area may be expanded beyond the designated counties for eligible individuals over age 65~~ medical assistance prepayment programs.

Sec. 73. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 256B.69, subdivision 16, is amended to read:

Subd. 16. [PROJECT EXTENSION.] Minnesota Rules, parts 9500.1450; 9500.1451; 9500.1452; 9500.1453; 9500.1454; 9500.1455; 9500.1456; 9500.1457; 9500.1458; 9500.1459; 9500.1460; 9500.1461; 9500.1462; 9500.1463; and 9500.1464 are extended ~~until December 31, 1990.~~

Sec. 74. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 256D.03, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [GENERAL ASSISTANCE MEDICAL CARE; ELIGIBILITY.] (a) General assistance medical care may be paid for any person:

(1) who is ~~eligible for receiving~~ assistance under section 256D.05 or 256D.051 and is not eligible for medical assistance under chapter 256B including eligibility for medical assistance based on a spend-down of excess income according to section 256B.056, subdivision 5; or

(2)(i) who is a resident of Minnesota; and whose equity in assets is not in excess of $1,000 per assistance unit. Exempt assets, the reduction of excess assets, and the waiver of excess assets must conform to the medical assistance program in chapter 256B; and

(ii) who has countable income not in excess of the assistance standards established in section 256B.056, subdivision 4, or whose excess income is spent down pursuant to section 256B.056, subdivision 5, using a six-month budget period except that for recipients residing in a long-term care facility, a one-month budget period must be used. The method for calculating earned income disregards and deductions for a person who resides with a dependent child under age 21 shall be as specified in section 256.74, subdivision 1. However, if a disregard of $30 and one-third of the remainder described in section 256.74, subdivision 1, clause (5), has been applied to the wage earner's income, the disregard shall not be applied again until the wage earner's income has not been considered in an eligibility determination for general assistance, general assistance medical care, medical assistance, or aid to families with dependent children for 12 consecutive months. The earned income and work expense deductions for a person who does not reside with a dependent child under age 21 shall be the same as the method used to determine eligibility for a person under section 256D.06, subdivision 1, except for the disregard of the first $50 of earned income is not allowed; or

(3) who is over age 18 and who would be eligible for medical assistance except that the person resides in a facility that is determined by the commissioner or the federal health care financing administration to be an institution for mental diseases.

(b) Eligibility is available for the month of application and for three months prior to application if the person was eligible in those prior months. A redetermination of eligibility must occur every 12 months.

(c) General assistance medical care may be paid for a person, regardless of age, who is detained by law for less than one year in a county correctional or detention facility as a person accused or convicted of a crime, or admitted as an inpatient to a hospital on a criminal hold order, if the person is a recipient of general assistance medical care at the time the person is detained by law or admitted on a criminal hold order and as long as the person continues to meet other eligibility requirements of this subdivision.

(d) General assistance medical care is not available for applicants or recipients who do not cooperate with the local agency to meet the requirements of medical assistance.

(e) In determining the amount of assets of an individual, there shall be included any asset or interest in an asset, including an asset excluded under paragraph (a), that was given away, sold, or disposed of for less than fair market value within the 30 months preceding application for general assistance medical care or during the period of eligibility. Any transfer described in this paragraph shall be presumed to have been for the purpose of establishing eligibility for general assistance medical care, unless the individual furnishes convincing evidence to establish that the transaction was exclusively for another purpose. For purposes of this paragraph, the value of the asset or interest shall be the fair market value at the time it was given away, sold, or disposed of, less the amount of compensation received. For any uncompensated transfer, the number of months of ineligibility, including partial months, shall be calculated by dividing the uncompensated transfer amount by the average monthly per person payment made by the medical assistance program to skilled nursing facilities for the previous calendar year. The individual shall remain ineligible until this fixed period has expired. The period of ineligibility may exceed 30 months, and a reapplication for benefits after 30 months from the date of the transfer shall not result in eligibility unless and until the period of ineligibility has expired. The period of ineligibility begins in the month the transfer was reported to the local agency, or if the transfer was not reported, the month in which the local agency discovered the transfer, whichever comes first. For applicants, the period of ineligibility begins on the date of the first approved application.

Sec. 75. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 256D.03, subdivision 4, is amended to read:

Subd. 4. [GENERAL ASSISTANCE MEDICAL CARE; SERVICES.] (a) Reimbursement under the general assistance medical care program shall be limited to the following categories of service: inpatient hospital care, outpatient hospital care, services provided by Medicare certified rehabilitation agencies, prescription drugs, equipment necessary to administer insulin and diagnostic supplies and equipment for diabetics to monitor blood sugar level, eyeglasses and eye examinations provided by a physician or optometrist, hearing aids, prosthetic devices, laboratory and X-ray services, physician's services, medical transportation, chiropractic services as covered under the medical assistance program, podiatric services, and dental care. In addition, payments of state aid shall be made for:

(1) outpatient services provided by a mental health center or clinic that is under contract with the county board and is certified under Minnesota Rules, parts 9520.0010 to 9520.0230 established under section 245.62;

(2) day treatment services for mental illness provided under contract with the county board;

(3) prescribed medications for persons who have been diagnosed as mentally ill as necessary to prevent more restrictive institutionalization;

(4) case management services for a person with serious and persistent mental illness who would be eligible for medical assistance except that the person resides in an institution for mental diseases;

(5) psychological services, medical supplies and equipment, and Medicare premiums, coinsurance and deductible payments for a person who would be eligible for medical assistance except that the person resides in an institution for mental diseases; and

(6) equipment not specifically listed in this paragraph when the use of the equipment will prevent the need for costlier services that are reimbursable under this subdivision.

(b) In order to contain costs, the commissioner of human services shall select vendors of medical care who can provide the most economical care consistent with high medical standards and shall where possible contract with organizations on a prepaid capitation basis to provide these services. The commissioner shall consider proposals by counties and vendors for prepaid health plans, competitive bidding programs, block grants, or other vendor payment mechanisms designed to provide services in an economical manner or to control utilization, with safeguards to ensure that necessary services are provided. Before implementing prepaid programs in counties with a county operated or affiliated public teaching hospital or a hospital or clinic operated by the University of Minnesota, the commissioner shall consider the risks the prepaid program creates for the hospital and allow the county or hospital the opportunity to participate in the program in a manner that reflects the risk of adverse selection and the nature of the patients served by the hospital, provided the terms of participation in the program are competitive with the terms of other participants considering the nature of the population served. Payment for services provided pursuant to this subdivision shall be as provided to medical assistance vendors of these services under sections 256B.02, subdivision 8, and 256B.0625. For payments made during fiscal year 1990 and later years, the commissioner shall contract with an independent actuary to establish prepayment rates.

(c) The commissioner of human services may reduce payments provided under sections 256D.01 to 256D.21 and 261.23 in order to remain within the amount appropriated for general assistance medical care, within the following restrictions.

For the period July 1, 1985, to December 31, 1985, reductions below the cost per service unit allowable under section 256.966, are permitted only as follows: payments for inpatient and outpatient hospital care provided in response to a primary diagnosis of chemical dependency or mental illness may be reduced no more than 30 percent; payments for all other inpatient hospital care may be reduced no more than 20 percent. Reductions below the payments allowable under general assistance medical care for the remaining general assistance medical care services allowable under this subdivision may be reduced no more than ten percent.

For the period January 1, 1986, to December 31, 1986, reductions below the cost per service unit allowable under section 256.966 are permitted only as follows: payments for inpatient and outpatient hospital care provided in response to a primary diagnosis of chemical dependency or mental illness may be reduced no more than 20 percent; payments for all other inpatient hospital care may be reduced no more than 15 percent. Reductions below the payments allowable under general assistance medical care for the remaining general assistance medical care services allowable under this subdivision may be reduced no more than five percent.

For the period January 1, 1987, to June 30, 1987, reductions below the cost per service unit allowable under section 256.966 are permitted only as follows: payments for inpatient and outpatient hospital care provided in response to a primary diagnosis of chemical dependency or mental illness may be reduced no more than 15 percent; payments for all other inpatient hospital care may be reduced no more than ten percent. Reductions below the payments allowable under medical assistance for the remaining general assistance medical care services allowable under this subdivision may be reduced no more than five percent.

For the period July 1, 1987, to June 30, 1988, reductions below the cost per service unit allowable under section 256.966 are permitted only as follows: payments for inpatient and outpatient hospital care provided in response to a primary diagnosis of chemical dependency or mental illness may be reduced no more than 15 percent; payments for all other inpatient hospital care may be reduced no more than five percent. Reductions below the payments allowable under medical assistance for the remaining general assistance medical care services allowable under this subdivision may be reduced no more than five percent.

For the period July 1, 1988, to June 30, 1989, reductions below the cost per service unit allowable under section 256.966 are permitted only as follows: payments for inpatient and outpatient hospital care provided in response to a primary diagnosis of chemical dependency or mental illness may be reduced no more than 15 percent; payments for all other inpatient hospital care may not be reduced. Reductions below the payments allowable under medical assistance for the remaining general assistance medical care services allowable under this subdivision may be reduced no more than five percent.

There shall be no copayment required of any recipient of benefits for any services provided under this subdivision. A hospital receiving a reduced payment as a result of this section may apply the unpaid balance toward satisfaction of the hospital's bad debts.

(d) Any county may, from its own resources, provide medical payments for which state payments are not made.

(e) Chemical dependency services that are reimbursed under Laws 1986, chapter 394, sections 8 to 20, must not be reimbursed under general assistance medical care.

(f) The maximum payment for new vendors enrolled in the general assistance medical care program after the base year shall be determined from the average usual and customary charge of the same vendor type enrolled in the base year.

(g) The conditions of payment for services under this subdivision are the same as the conditions specified in rules adopted under chapter 256B governing the medical assistance program, unless otherwise provided by statute or rule.

Sec. 76. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 256D.03, subdivision 6, is amended to read:

Subd. 6. [DIVISION OF COSTS.] The state share of local agency expenditures for general assistance medical care shall be 90 percent and the county share shall be ten percent. Payments made under this subdivision shall be made in accordance with sections 256B.041, subdivision 5 and 256B.19, subdivision 1. In counties where a pilot or demonstration project is operated for general assistance medical care services, the state may pay 100 percent of the costs of administering the pilot or demonstration project. Reimbursement for these costs is subject to section 256.025.

Beginning July 1, 1991, the state will reimburse counties according to the payment schedule in section 256.025 for the county share of costs incurred under this subdivision from January 1, 1991, on. Payment to counties under this subdivision is subject to the provisions of section 256.017.

Notwithstanding any provision to the contrary, beginning July 1, 1991, the state shall pay 100 percent of the costs for centralized claims processing by the department of administration relative to claims beginning January 1, 1991, and submitted on behalf of general assistance medical care recipients by vendors in the general assistance medical care program.

Beginning July 1, 1991, the state shall reimburse counties up to the limit of state appropriations for general assistance medical care common carrier transportation and related travel expenses provided for medical purposes after December 31, 1990. Reimbursement shall be provided according to the payment schedule set forth in section 256.025. For purposes of this subdivision, transportation shall have the meaning given it in Code of Federal Regulations, title 42, section 440.170(a), as amended through October 1, 1987, and travel expenses shall have the meaning given in Code of Federal Regulations, title 42, section 440.170(a)(3), as amended through October 1, 1987.

The county shall ensure that only the least costly most appropriate transportation and travel expenses are used. The state may enter into volume purchase contracts, or use a competitive bidding process, whenever feasible, to minimize the costs of transportation services. If the state has entered into a volume purchase contract or used the competitive bidding procedures of chapter 16B to arrange for transportation services, the county may be required to use such arrangements to be eligible for state reimbursement for general assistance medical care common carrier transportation and related travel expenses provided for medical purposes.

In counties where prepaid health plans are under contract to the commissioner to provide services to general assistance medical care recipients, the cost of court ordered treatment that does not include diagnostic evaluation, recommendation, or referral for treatment by the prepaid health plan is the responsibility of the county of financial responsibility.

Sec. 77. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 256D.03, subdivision 7, is amended to read:

Subd. 7. [DUTIES OF THE COMMISSIONER.] The commissioner shall promulgate emergency and permanent rules as necessary to establish:

(a) standards of eligibility, utilization of services, and payment levels;

(b) standards for quality assurance, surveillance, and utilization review procedures that conform to those established for the medical assistance program pursuant to chapter 256B, including general criteria and procedures for the identification and prompt investigation of suspected fraud, theft, abuse, presentment of false or duplicate claims, presentment of claims for services not medically necessary, or false statements or representations of material facts by a vendor or recipient of general assistance medical care, and for the imposition of sanctions against such vendor or recipient of medical care. The rules relating to sanctions shall be consistent with the provisions of section 256B.064, subdivisions 1a and 2; and

(c) administrative and fiscal procedures for payment of the state share of the medical costs incurred by the counties under section 256D.02, subdivision 4a. Rules promulgated pursuant to this clause may include: (1) procedures by which state liability for the costs of medical care incurred pursuant to section 256D.02, subdivision 4a may be deducted from county liability to the state under any other public assistance program authorized by law; (2) procedures for processing claims of counties for reimbursement by the state for expenditures for medical care made by the counties pursuant to section 256D.02, subdivision 4a; and (3) procedures by which the local agencies may contract with the commissioner of human services for state administration of general assistance medical care payments.

Sec. 78. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 518.171, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [ORDER.] Unless the obligee has comparable or better group dependent health insurance coverage available at a more reasonable cost, the court shall order the obligor to name the minor child as beneficiary on any health and dental insurance plan that is available to the obligor on a group basis or through an employer or union. “Health insurance coverage” as used in this section does not include medical assistance provided under chapter 256, 256B, or 256D.

If the court finds that dependent health or dental insurance is not available to the obligor on a group basis or through an employer or union, or that the group insurer is not accessible to the obligee, the court may require the obligor to obtain dependent health or dental insurance, or to be liable for reasonable and necessary medical or dental expenses of the child.

If the court finds that the dependent health or dental insurance required to be obtained by the obligor does not pay all the reasonable and necessary medical or dental expenses of the child, or that the dependent health or dental insurance available to the obligee does not pay all the reasonable and necessary medical or dental expenses of the child, and the court finds that the obligor has the financial ability to contribute to the payment of these medical or dental expenses, the court shall require the obligor to be liable for all or a portion of the medical or dental expenses of the child not covered by the required health or dental plan.

Sec. 79. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 518.171, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [IMPLEMENTATION.] A copy of the court order for insurance coverage shall be forwarded to the obligor's employer or union by the obligee or the public authority responsible for support enforcement only when ordered by the court or when the following conditions are met:

(1) the obligor fails to provide written proof to the obligee or the public authority, within 30 days of receiving effective notice of the court order, that the insurance has been obtained or that application for insurability has been made;

(2) the obligee or the public authority serves written notice of its intent to enforce medical support on the obligor by mail at the obligor's last known post office address; and

(3) the obligor fails within 15 days after the mailing of the notice to provide written proof to the obligee or the public authority that the insurance coverage existed as of the date of mailing.

The employer or union shall forward a copy of the order to the health and dental insurance plan offered by the employer.

Sec. 80. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 518.171, subdivision 4, is amended to read:

Subd. 4. [EFFECT OF ORDER.] The order is binding on the employer or union and the health and dental insurance plan when service under subdivision 3 has been made. Upon receipt of the order, or upon application of the obligor pursuant to the order, the employer or union and its health and dental insurance plan shall enroll the minor child as a beneficiary in the group insurance plan and withhold any required premium from the obligor's income or wages. If more than one plan is offered by the employer or union, the child shall be enrolled in the insurance plan in which the obligor is enrolled or the least costly plan otherwise available to the obligor that is comparable to a number two qualified plan. Failure of the obligor to execute any documents necessary to enroll the dependent in the group health and dental insurance plan will not affect the obligation of the employer or union and group health and dental insurance plan to enroll the dependent in a plan for which other eligibility requirements are met. Information and authorization provided by the public authority responsible for child support enforcement, or by the custodial parent or guardian, is valid for the purposes of meeting enrollment requirements of the health plan. The insurance coverage for a child eligible under subdivision 5 shall not be terminated except as authorized in subdivision 5.

Sec. 81. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 518.171, subdivision 7, is amended to read:

Subd. 7. [RELEASE OF INFORMATION.] When an order for dependent insurance coverage is in effect, the obligor's employer or union shall release to the obligee or the public authority, upon request, information on the dependent coverage, including the name of the insurer. Notwithstanding any other law, information reported pursuant to section 268.121 shall be released to the public agency responsible for support enforcement that is enforcing an order for medical or dental insurance coverage under this section. The public agency responsible for support enforcement is authorized to release to the obligor's insurer or employer information necessary to obtain or enforce medical support.

Sec. 82. Laws 1988, chapter 689, article 2, section 256, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [REPORT.] The commissioner shall monitor and evaluate the pilot projects and report to the legislature by January 31, 1991-1993. The report must address at least the following:

- (1) the extent to which each pilot project succeeded in moving elderly persons out of nursing homes into less restrictive settings or in delaying placement in a nursing home;
- (2) the ability of each project to target low-income, frail elderly;

(3) the cost-effectiveness of each project, including the financial impact on the resident, the state, and the county;

(4) the success of each project in meeting other goals established by the commissioner; and

(5) recommendations on whether the pilot projects should be continued or expanded.

Sec. 83. [RECOMMENDATIONS REGARDING PROPERTY COST PAYMENTS.]

By December 15, 1990, the rule 50 property reimbursement advisory task force under the convening authority of the commissioner of state planning shall recommend to the legislature a new system for determining property-related payment rates for nursing homes. The system recommended by the advisory task force must not increase total medical assistance spending for nursing home property costs. The system must be designed to:

(1) reimburse nursing homes for their legitimate and reasonable property-related costs;

(2) permit appropriate sales of facilities within reasonable limitations;

(3) allow for the reasonable accumulation of funds to replace capital assets;

(4) take into consideration Medicare principles and required state plan assurances;

(5) provide equitable treatment of facilities;

(6) establish limitations on investment per bed; and

(7) encourage long-term ownership of nursing facilities through providing a return on an owner's actual investment which is related to the length of ownership at the time of an arm's length sale.

Sec. 84. [FULL FUNDING POLICY FOR THE WIC PROGRAM.]

The WIC program is an effective method of ensuring that the basic nutritional needs of low-income pregnant women and small children are met. Therefore the goal of the legislature is to achieve, by July 1, 1993, a level of funding that will be sufficient to serve all persons in the state who are eligible for the program.

Sec. 85. [FEDERAL WAIVER TO REDUCE THE FREQUENCY

OF ELIGIBILITY REDETERMINATIONS FOR INFANTS ON MEDICAL ASSISTANCE.]

The commissioner of human services shall seek federal approval to eliminate eligibility redeterminations for pregnant women and infants eligible for medical assistance under Minnesota Statutes, section 256B.055, subdivisions 6 and 10, until one year after the birth of the child. The commissioner shall begin the process of seeking federal approval no later than December 31, 1990.

Sec. 86. [PRENATAL CARE AND PREVENTIVE CARE FOR CHILDREN.]

The commissioner of health, in consultation with the commissioner of human services, the commissioner of state planning, and the commissioner of education, shall prepare a state plan to improve utilization rates of medically appropriate prenatal care and preventive care for children. The plan must address at least the following issues: (1) methods of addressing barriers such as the need for child care and transportation; (2) techniques for improving public awareness of the need for prenatal care and preventive care, both statewide and within high risk target populations; and (3) strategies for overcoming cultural factors that may discourage minority populations from obtaining medically appropriate prenatal care and preventive care. To the extent possible, the commissioner shall identify methods of improving access and utilization rates that would not require a significant increase in legislative appropriations, such as reallocation of existing money, coordination and increased efficiency of existing programs, techniques for generating private contributions or federal money, and increased use of volunteers and donated services and facilities. The commissioner shall also include in the plan an analysis of the extent to which improved utilization rates, both statewide and within target populations, could result in cost savings in the medical assistance program, the general assistance medical care program, and the children's health plan. The commissioner shall present the plan to the governor and the legislature by December 15, 1990. It is the intent of the legislature to enact legislation to implement the plan during the 1991 session.

Sec. 87. [CONSUMER AWARENESS CAMPAIGN.]

The department of commerce shall establish a consumer awareness campaign to inform the public of cost effective strategies for the purchase of affordable health insurance. The department of commerce may accept public and private funds to establish and promote this consumer awareness campaign.

Sec. 88. [CITATION.]

Sections 2, 3, 6 to 8, 9, 10, 29, and 84 to 87 may be cited as the "better beginnings act."

Sec. 89. [REPEALER.]

Subdivision 1. [MEDICAL ASSISTANCE; MEDICALLY NEEDY PERSONS.] Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 256B.055, subdivision 8, is repealed.

Subd. 2. [MEDICAL ASSISTANCE; SWING BEDS.] The amendments to Minnesota Statutes, section 256B.0625, subdivision 2, in Laws 1989, chapter 282, article 3, section 54, are repealed, and the stricken language is reenacted.

Subd. 3. [MEDICAL ASSISTANCE; NURSING HOMES.] Minnesota Statutes 1988, sections 256B.431, subdivisions 3, 3b, 3c, and 3d; and 256B.50, subdivision 2; and Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 256B.431, subdivisions 3a and 3f, are repealed effective July 1, 1991.

Sec. 90. [EFFECTIVE DATES.]

Subdivision 1. [CLAIMS AGAINST THE ESTATE.] Section 53 is effective for all claims filed for deaths occurring on and after the date of enactment.

Subd. 2. [PROHIBITED TRANSFERS OF PROPERTY.] Section 35 is effective the day after final enactment.

Subd. 3. [HOME CARE SERVICES; MEDICAL ASSISTANCE.] Section 46 is effective July 1, 1990.

Subd. 4. [SWING BEDS.] Section 89, subdivision 2, is effective the day following final enactment.

Subd. 5. [CHILDREN'S HEALTH PLAN.] Sections 9 and 10 are effective August 1, 1990.

Subd. 6. [SPECIAL PROPERTY RATE; NURSING HOMES.] Section 60 is effective the day following final enactment.

Subd. 7. [ADVISORY COMMITTEE ON TRANSPLANTS.] Section 47 is effective the day following final enactment.

INCOME MAINTENANCE

Section 1. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 256.73, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [ALLOWANCE BARRED BY OWNERSHIP OF PROPERTY.] Ownership by an assistance unit of property as follows is a bar to any allowance under sections 256.72 to 256.87:

(1) The value of real property other than the homestead, which when combined with other assets exceeds the limits of paragraph (2), unless the assistance unit is making a good faith effort to sell the nonexcludable real property. The time period for disposal must not exceed nine months and the assistance unit shall execute an agreement to dispose of the property to repay assistance received during the nine months up to the amount of the net sale proceeds. The payment must be made when the property is sold. If the property is not sold within the required time or the assistance unit becomes ineligible for any reason the entire amount received during the nine months is an overpayment and subject to recovery. For the purposes of this section, "homestead" means the home owned and occupied by the child, relative, or other member of the assistance unit as a dwelling place, that is owned by, and is the usual residence of, the child, relative, or other member of the assistance unit together with the surrounding property which is not separated from the home by intervening property owned by others. "Usual residence" includes the home from which the child, relative, or other members of the assistance unit is temporarily absent due to an employability development plan approved by the local human service agency, which includes education, training, or job search within the state but outside of the immediate geographic area. Public rights-of-way, such as roads which run through the surrounding property and separate it from the home, will not affect the exemption of the property; or

(2) Personal property of an equity value in excess of $1,000 for the entire assistance unit, exclusive of personal property used as the home, one motor vehicle of an equity value not exceeding $1,500 or the entire equity value of a motor vehicle determined to be necessary for the operation of a self-employment business, one burial plot for each member of the assistance unit, one prepaid burial contract with an equity value of no more than $1,000 for each member of the assistance unit, clothing and necessary household furniture and equipment and other basic maintenance items essential for daily living, in accordance with rules promulgated by and standards established by the commissioner of human services.

Sec. 2. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 256.73, subdivision 3a, is amended to read:

Subd. 3a. [PERSONS INELIGIBLE.] No assistance shall be given under sections 256.72 to 256.87:

(1) on behalf of any person who is receiving supplemental security income under title XVI of the Social Security Act unless permitted by federal regulations;

(2) for any month in which the assistance unit's gross income, without application of deductions or disregards, exceeds 185 percent of the standard of need for a family of the same size and composition; except that the earnings of a dependent child who is a full-time student may be disregarded for six calendar months per year and the earnings of a dependent child who is a full-time student that are derived from the jobs training and partnership act may be disregarded for six calendar months per year. If a stepparent's income is taken into account in determining need, the disregards specified in section 256.74, subdivision 1a, shall be applied to determine income available to the assistance unit before calculating the unit's gross income for purposes of this paragraph;

(3) to any assistance unit for any month in which any caretaker relative with whom the child is living is, on the last day of that month, participating in a strike;

(4) on behalf of any other individual in the assistance unit, nor shall the individual's needs be taken into account for any month in which, on the last day of the month, the individual is participating in a strike;

(5) on behalf of any individual who is the principal earner in an assistance unit whose eligibility is based on the unemployment of a parent when the principal earner, without good cause, fails or refuses to seek work, to participate in the job search program under section 256.736, or a community work experience program under section 256.737 if this program is available and participation is mandatory in the county, to accept employment, or to register with a public employment office, unless the principal earner is exempt from these work requirements.

Sec. 3. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 256.736, subdivision 1a, is amended to read:

Subd. 1a. [DEFINITIONS.] As used in this section and section 256.7365, the following words have the meanings given them:

(a) "AFDC" means aid to families with dependent children.

(b) "AFDC-UP" means that group of AFDC clients who are eligible for assistance by reason of unemployment as defined by the commissioner under section 256.12, subdivision 14.

(c) "Caretaker" means a parent or eligible adult, including a pregnant woman, who is part of the assistance unit that has applied for or is receiving AFDC.

(d) "Employment and training services" means programs, activities, and services related to job training and, job placement, and job creation, including job service programs, job training partnership act programs, wage subsidies, remedial and secondary education programs, post-secondary education programs excluding education leading to a post-baccalaureate degree, vocational education programs, work incentive programs, work readiness programs, employment job search, counseling, case management, community work experience programs, displaced homemaker programs, self-employment programs, grant diversion, employment experience programs, youth employment programs, community investment programs, supported work programs, refugee employment and training programs, and counseling and support activities necessary to stabilize the caretaker or the family.

(e) "Employment and training service provider" means an administrative entity a public, private, or nonprofit agency certified by the commissioner of jobs and training to deliver employment and training services under section 268.0122, subdivision 3 and section 268.871, subdivision 1.

(f) "Minor parent" means a caretaker relative who is the parent of the dependent child or children in the assistance unit and who is under the age of 18.

(g) "Priority groups" or "priority caretakers" means recipients of AFDC or AFDC-UP designated as priorities for employment and training services under subdivision 2a 16.

(h) "Suitable employment" means employment which:

(1) is within the recipient's physical and mental capacity;

(2) meets health and safety standards established by the Occupational Safety and Health Administration and the department of jobs and training;

(3) pays hourly gross earnings which are not less than the federal or state minimum wage for that type of employment, whichever is applicable;

(4) does not result in a net loss of income. Employment results in a net loss of income when the income remaining after subtracting necessary work-related expenses from the family's gross income, which includes cash assistance, is less than the cash assistance the family was receiving at the time the offer of employment was made. For purposes of this definition, "work expenses" means the amount withheld or paid for; state and federal income taxes; social security withholding taxes; mandatory retirement fund deductions; dependent care costs; transportation costs to and from work at the amount allowed by the Internal Revenue Service for personal car mileage; costs of work uniforms, union dues, and medical insurance premiums; costs of tools and equipment used on the job; $1 per work day for the costs of meals eaten during employment; public liability insurance required by an employer when an automobile is used in employment and the cost is not reimbursed by the employer; and the amount paid by an employee from personal funds for business costs which are not reimbursed by the employer;

(5) offers a job vacancy which is not the result of a strike, lockout, or other bona fide labor dispute;

(6) requires a round trip commuting time from the recipient's residence of less than two hours by available transportation, exclusive of the time to transport children to and from child care;

(7) does not require the recipient to leave children under age 12 unattended in order to work, or if child care is required, such care is available; and

(8) does not discriminate at the job site on the basis of age, sex, race, color, creed, marital status, status with regard to public assistance, disability, religion, or place of national origin.

(i) "Support services" means programs, activities, and services intended to stabilize families and individuals or provide assistance for family needs related to employment or participation in employment and training services, including child care, transportation, housing assistance, personal and family counseling, crisis intervention services, peer support groups, chemical dependency counseling and treatment, money management assistance, and parenting skill courses.

Sec. 4. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 256.736, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [REGISTRATION.] (a) To the extent permissible under federal law, every caretaker or child is required to register for employment and training services, as a condition of receiving AFDC, unless the caretaker or child is:

(1) a child who is under age 16, a child age 16 or 17 who is attending elementary or secondary school or a secondary level vocational or technical school full time;

(2) ill, incapacitated, or age 60 or older;

(3) a person for whom participation in an employment and training service would require a round trip commuting time by available transportation of more than two hours;

(4) a person whose presence in the home is required because of illness or incapacity of another member of the household;

(5) a caretaker or other caretaker relative of a child under the age of three who personally provides full-time care for the child. In AFDC-UP cases, only one parent or other relative may qualify for this exemption;

(6) a caretaker or other caretaker relative personally providing care for a child under six years of age, except that when child care is arranged for or provided, the caretaker or caretaker relative may be required to register and participate in employment and training services up to a maximum of 20 hours per week. In AFDC-UP cases, only one parent or other relative may qualify for this exemption;

(7) a caretaker if another adult relative in the assistance unit is registered and has not, without good cause, failed or refused to participate or accept employment;

(8) a pregnant woman, if it has been medically verified that the child is expected to be born in the current month or within the next six months; or

(9) (8) employed at least 30 hours per week; or

(10) a parent who is not the principal earner if the parent who is the principal earner is required to register.

(b) To the extent permissible by federal law, applicants for benefits under the AFDC program are registered for employment and training services by signing the application form. Applicants must be informed that they are registering for employment and training services by signing the form. Persons receiving benefits on or after July 1, 1987, shall register for employment and training services to the extent permissible by federal law. The caretaker has a right to a fair hearing under section 256.045 with respect to the appropriateness of the registration.

Sec. 5. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 256.736, subdivision 3a, is amended to read:

Subd. 3a. [PARTICIPATION.] Caretakers in priority groups must participate in employment and training services under this section to the extent permissible under federal law. However, no assistance unit may be sanctioned for a caretaker's failure to participate in employment and training services under this section if failure results from inadequate funding for employment and training services. (a) Except as provided under paragraphs (b) and (c) participation in employment and training services under this section is limited to the following recipients:

(1) caretakers who are required to participate in a job search under subdivision 14;

(2) custodial parents who are subject to the school attendance or case management participation requirements under subdivision 3b;

(3) caretakers whose participation in employment and training services began prior to May 1, 1990, if the caretaker's AFDC eligibility has not been interrupted for 30 days or more and the caretaker's employability development plan has not been completed;

(4) recipients who are members of a family in which the youngest child is within two years of being ineligible for AFDC due to age;

(5) recipients who have received AFDC for 48 or more months out of the last 60 months;

(6) recipients who are participants in the self-employment investment demonstration project under section 268.95; and

(7) recipients who participate in the new chance research and demonstration project under contract with the department of human services.

(b) If the commissioner determines that participation of persons listed in paragraph (a) in employment and training services is insufficient to either meet federal performance targets or to fully utilize funds appropriated under this section, the commissioner may, after notifying the chairs of the senate health and human services committee, the house health and human services committee, the health and human services division of the senate finance committee and the health and human services division of house appropriations, permit additional groups of recipients to participate until the next meeting of the legislative advisory commission, after which the additional groups may continue to enroll for participation, unless the legislative advisory commission disapproves the continued enrollment. The commissioner shall allow participation of additional groups in the following order only as needed to meet performance targets or fully utilize funding for employment and training services under section 256.736:

(1) custodial parents under the age of 22 who:

(i) have not completed a high school education and who, at the time of application for AFDC, were not enrolled in high school or in a high school equivalency program; or

(ii) have had little or no work experience in the preceding year;

(2) recipients who have received at least 42 months of AFDC out of the previous 60 months;

(3) custodial parents under the age of 24 who:

(i) have not completed a high school education and who, at the time of application for AFDC, were not enrolled in high school or in a high school equivalency program; or

(ii) have had little or no work experience in the preceding year;

(4) recipients who have received at least 36 months of AFDC out of the previous 60 months;

(5) recipients who have received 24 or more months of AFDC out of the previous 48 months; and

(6) recipients who have not completed a high school education or a high school equivalency program.

(c) To the extent of funds allocated specifically for this paragraph, the commissioner may permit AFDC caretakers who are not eligible for participation in employment and training services under the provisions of paragraphs (a) or (b), to participate in such services. Funds shall be allocated to county agencies based on the county's percentage of participants statewide in services under this section in the prior calendar year. Counties must provide equal or greater services to participants enrolled under that paragraph, as measured in average per client expenditures, as provided to other participants in employment and training services under this section. Caretakers shall be selected from a waiting list of caretakers who volunteer to participate, based upon a first come, first served principle. The commissioner may on a quarterly basis reallocate unused allocations to county agencies who have sufficient volunteers. In the event that funding under this paragraph is discontinued in future fiscal years, caretakers who began participation under this paragraph shall be deemed eligible under the provisions of paragraph (a), item (3).

Sec. 6. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 256.736, subdivision 3b, is amended to read:

Subd. 3b. [MANDATORY ASSESSMENT AND SCHOOL ATTENDANCE FOR CERTAIN CUSTODIAL PARENTS.] This subdivision applies to the extent permitted under federal law and regulation.

(a) [DEFINITIONS.] The definitions in this paragraph apply to this subdivision.

(1) "Custodial parent" means a recipient of AFDC who is the natural or adoptive parent of a child living with the custodial parent.

(2) "School" means:

(i) an educational program which leads to a high school diploma. The program or coursework may be, but is not limited to, a program under the post-secondary enrollment options of section 123.3514, a regular or alternative program of an elementary or secondary school, a technical institute, or a college;

(ii) coursework for a general educational development (GED) diploma of not less than six hours of classroom instruction per week; or

(iii) any other post-secondary educational program that is approved by the public school or the local agency under subdivision 11.

(b) [ASSESSMENT AND PLAN; REQUIREMENT; CONTENT.] The county agency must examine the educational level of each custodial parent under the age of 20 to determine if the recipient has completed a high school education or its equivalent. If the custodial parent has not completed a high school education or its equivalent and is not exempt from the requirement to attend school under paragraph (c), the county agency must complete an individual assessment for the custodial parent. The assessment must be performed as soon as possible but within 60 days of determining AFDC eligibility for the custodial parent. The assessment must provide an initial examination of the custodial parent's educational progress and needs, literacy level, child care and supportive service needs, family circumstances, skills, and work experience. In the case of a custodial parent under the age of 18, the assessment must also consider the results of the early and periodic screening, diagnosis and treatment (EPSDT) screening, if available, and the effect of a child's development and educational needs on the parent's ability to participate in the program. The county agency must advise the parent that the parent's first goal must be to complete an appropriate educational option if one is identified for the parent through the assessment and, in consultation with educational agencies, must review the various school completion options with the parent and assist the parent in selecting the most appropriate option.

(c) [RESPONSIBILITY FOR ASSESSMENT AND PLAN.] For custodial parents who are under age 18, the assessment and the employability plan must be completed by the county social services agency, as specified in section 257.33. For custodial parents who are age 18 or 19, the assessment and employability plan must be completed by the case manager. The social services agency or the case manager shall consult with representatives of educational agencies required to assist in developing educational plans under section 126.235.

(d) [EDUCATION DETERMINED TO BE APPROPRIATE.] If the case manager or county social services agency identifies an appropriate educational option, it must develop an employability plan in consultation with the custodial parent which reflects the assessment. The plan must specify that participation in an educational activity is required, what school or educational program is most appropriate, the services that will be provided, the activities the parent will take part in including child care and supportive services, the consequences to the custodial parent for failing to participate or comply with the specified requirements, and the right to appeal any adverse action. The employability plan must, to the extent possible, reflect the preferences of the participant.

(e) [EDUCATION DETERMINED TO BE NOT APPROPRIATE.] If the case manager determines that there is no appropriate educational option for a custodial parent who is age 18 or 19, the case manager shall indicate the reasons for the determination. The case manager shall then notify the county agency which must refer the custodial parent to case management services under subdivision 11 for completion of an employability plan and services. If the custodial parent fails to participate or cooperate with case management services and does not have good cause for the failure, the county agency shall apply the sanctions listed in subdivision 4, beginning with the first payment month after issuance of notice. If the county social services agency determines that school attendance is not appropriate for a custodial parent under age 18, the county agency shall refer the custodial parent to social services for services as provided in section 257.33.

(f) [SCHOOL ATTENDANCE REQUIRED.] Notwithstanding subdivision 3, a custodial parent must attend school if all of the following apply:

- (1) the custodial parent is less than 20 years of age;
- (2) transportation services needed to enable the custodial parent to attend school are available;
- (3) licensed or legal nonlicensed child care services needed to enable the custodial parent to attend school are available;

(4) the custodial parent has not already received a high school diploma or its equivalent; and

(5) the custodial parent is not exempt because the custodial parent:

(i) is ill or incapacitated seriously enough to prevent him or her from attending school;

(ii) is needed in the home because of the illness or incapacity of another member of the household; this includes a custodial parent of a child who is younger than six weeks of age;

(iii) works 30 or more hours a week; or

(iv) is pregnant if it has been medically verified that the child's birth is expected ~~in the current month or~~ within the next six months.

(g) [ENROLLMENT AND ATTENDANCE.] The custodial parent must be enrolled in school and meeting the school's attendance requirements. The custodial parent is considered to be attending when he or she is enrolled but the school is not in regular session, including during holiday and summer breaks.

(h) [GOOD CAUSE FOR NOT ATTENDING SCHOOL.] The local agency shall not impose the sanctions in subdivision 4 if it determines that a custodial parent has good cause for not being enrolled or for not meeting the school's attendance requirements. The local agency shall determine whether good cause for not attending or not enrolling in school exists, according to this paragraph:

(1) Good cause exists when the local agency has verified that the only available school program requires round trip commuting time from the custodial parent's residence of more than two hours by available means of transportation, excluding the time necessary to transport children to and from child care.

(2) Good cause exists when the custodial parent has indicated a desire to attend school, but the public school system is not providing for his or her education and alternative programs are not available.

(i) [FAILURE TO COMPLY.] The case manager and social services agency shall establish ongoing contact with appropriate school staff to monitor problems that custodial parents may have in pursuing their educational plan and shall jointly seek solutions to prevent parents from failing to complete education. If the school notifies the local agency that the custodial parent is not enrolled or is not meeting the school's attendance requirements, or appears to be facing barriers to completing education, the information must be conveyed to the case manager for a custodial parent age 18 or 19, or to the social services agency for a custodial parent under age 18. The case manager or social services agency shall reassess the appropriateness of school attendance as specified in paragraph (f). If after consultation, school attendance is still appropriate and the case manager or social services agency determines that the custodial parent has failed to enroll or is not meeting the school's attendance requirements and the custodial parent does not have good cause, the case manager or social services agency shall inform the custodial parent's financial worker who shall apply the sanctions listed in subdivision 4 beginning with the first payment month after issuance of notice.

(j) [NOTICE AND HEARING.] A right to notice and fair hearing shall be provided in accordance with section 256.045 and the Code of Federal Regulations, title 45, section 205.10.

(k) [SOCIAL SERVICES.] When a custodial parent under the age of 18 has failed to attend school, is not exempt, and does not have good cause, the local agency shall refer the custodial parent to the social services agency for services, as provided in section 257.33.

(l) [VERIFICATION.] No less often than quarterly, the financial worker must verify that the custodial parent is meeting the requirements of this subdivision. Notwithstanding section 13.32, subdivision 3, when the local agency notifies the school that a custodial parent is subject to this subdivision, the school must furnish verification of school enrollment, attendance, and progress to the local agency. The county agency must not impose the sanctions in paragraph (i) if the school fails to cooperate in providing verification of the minor parent's education, attendance, or progress.

Sec. 7. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 256.736, subdivision 4, is amended to read:

Subd. 4. [CONDITIONS OF CERTIFICATION.] The commissioner of human services shall:

(1) Arrange for or provide any caretaker or child required to participate in employment and training services pursuant to this section with child-care services, transportation, and other necessary family services;

(2) Provide that in determining a recipient's needs ~~any monthly incentive training payment made to the recipient by the department of jobs and training is disregarded and~~ the additional expenses attributable to participation in a program are taken into account in grant determination to the extent permitted by federal regulation; ~~and~~

(3) Provide that the county board shall impose the sanctions in clause (4) when the county board:

(a) determines that a custodial parent under the age of 16 who is required to attend school under subdivision 3b has, without good cause, failed to attend school; or

(b) determines that subdivision 3c applies to a minor parent and the minor parent has, without good cause, failed to cooperate with development of a social service plan or to participate in execution of the plan, to live in a group or foster home, or to participate in a program that teaches skills in parenting and independent living; ~~or~~

~~(c) determines that a caretaker has, without good cause, failed to attend orientation.~~

(4) To the extent permissible by federal law, impose the following sanctions for a recipient's failure to participate in required education, orientation, or the requirements of subdivision 3b or 3c:

(a) For the first failure, 50 percent of the grant provided to the family for the month following the failure shall be made in the form of protective or vendor payments;

(b) For the second and subsequent failures, the entire grant provided to the family must be made in the form of protective or vendor payments. Assistance provided to the family must be in the form of protective or vendor payments until the recipient complies with the requirement; and

(c) When protective payments are required, the local agency may continue payments to the caretaker if a protective payee cannot reasonably be found;

(5) Provide that the county board shall impose the sanctions in clause (6) when the county board:

(a) determines that a caretaker or child required to participate in employment and training services has been found by the employment and training service provider to have failed without good cause to participate in appropriate employment and training services or to have failed without good cause to accept, through the job search program described in subdivision 14, or the ~~community work experience program described in section 256.737~~ provisions of an employability development plan if the caretaker is a custodial parent age 18 or 19 and subject to the requirements of subdivision 3b, a bona fide offer of public or other employment; or

(b) determines that a custodial parent aged 16 to 19 who is required to attend school under subdivision 3b has, without good cause, failed to enroll or attend school; or

(c) determines that a caretaker has, without good cause, failed to attend orientation;

(6) To the extent required by federal law, the following sanctions must be imposed impose the following sanctions for a recipient's failure to participate in required employment and training services, to accept a bona fide offer of public or other employment, ~~or~~ to enroll or attend school under subdivision 3b, or to attend orientation:

(a) For the first failure, the needs of the noncompliant individual shall not be taken into account in making the grant determination, until the individual complies with the requirements;

(b) For the second failure, the needs of the noncompliant individual shall not be taken into account in making the grant determination until the individual complies with the requirement or for three consecutive months, whichever is longer;

(c) For subsequent failures, the needs of the noncompliant individual shall not be taken into account in making the grant determination until the individual complies with the requirement or for six consecutive months, whichever is longer;

(d) Aid with respect to a dependent child will be denied if a child who fails to participate is the only child receiving aid in the family. who has been sanctioned under this paragraph shall be continued for the parent or parents of the child if the child is the only child receiving aid in the family, the child continues to meet the conditions of section 256.73, and the family is otherwise eligible for aid;

(e) If the noncompliant individual is a parent or other relative caretaker, payments of aid for any dependent child in the family must be made in the form of protective or vendor payments. When protective payments are required, the county agency may continue payments to the caretaker if a protective payee cannot reasonably be found. When protective payments are imposed on assistance units whose basis of eligibility is unemployed parent or incapacitated parent, cash payments may continue to the nonsanctioned caretaker in the assistance unit, subject to ~~clause (f).~~ paragraph (g);

(f) If, after removing a caretaker's needs from the grant, the standard of assistance applicable to the remaining eligible members of the assistance unit is the standard that is used in other instances in which the caretaker is excluded from the assistance unit for noncompliance with a program requirement, only dependent children remain eligible for AFDC, the standard of assistance shall be computed using the special children standard;

(f) (g) If the noncompliant individual is a parent or other caretaker of principal wage earner in a family whose basis of eligibility is the unemployment of a parent and the noncompliant individual's spouse nonprincipal wage earner is not participating in an approved employment and training service, the needs of both the spouse principal and nonprincipal wage earner must not be taken into account in making the grant determination; and

(7) Request approval from the secretary of health and human services to use vendor payment sanctions for persons listed in paragraph (5), clause (b). If approval is granted, the commissioner must begin using vendor payment sanctions as soon as changes to the state plan are approved.

Sec. 8. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 256.736, subdivision 10, is amended to read:

Subd. 10. [COUNTY DUTIES.] (a) To the extent of available state appropriations, county boards shall:

(1) refer all priority mandatory and eligible volunteer caretakers required to register under subdivision 3 to an employment and training service provider for participation in employment and training services;

(2) identify to the employment and training service provider caretakers who fall into the priority groups;

(3) provide all caretakers with an orientation which meets the requirements in subdivisions 10a and 10b;

(4) work with the employment and training service provider to encourage voluntary participation by caretakers in the priority groups;

(5) work with the employment and training service provider to collect data as required by the commissioner;

(6) to the extent permissible under federal law, require all caretakers coming into the AFDC program to attend orientation;

(7) encourage nonpriority caretakers to develop a plan to obtain self-sufficiency;

(8) notify the commissioner of the caretakers required to participate in employment and training services;

(9) inform appropriate caretakers of opportunities available through the head start program and encourage caretakers to have their children screened for enrollment in the program where appropriate;

(10) provide transportation assistance using the employment special needs fund or other available funds to caretakers who participate in employment and training programs, with priority for services to caretakers in priority groups;

(11) ensure that orientation, employment job search, services to custodial parents under the age of 20, and case management services are made available to appropriate caretakers under this section, except that payment for case management services is governed by subdivision 13;

(12) explain in its local service unit plan under section 268.88 how it will ensure that priority caretakers determined to be in need of social services are provided with such social services. The plan must specify how the case manager and the county social service workers will ensure delivery of needed services;

(13) to the extent allowed by federal laws and regulations, provide a job search program as defined in subdivision 14 and at least one of the following employment and training services: community work experience program (CWEP) as defined in section 256.737, grant diversion as defined in section 268.86 256.739, on-the-job training as defined in section 256.738, or another work and training program approved by the commissioner and the secretary of the United States Department of Health and Human Services. Planning and approval for employment and training services listed in this clause must be obtained through submission of the local service unit plan as specified under section 268.88. Each county is urged to adopt grant diversion as the second program required under this clause;

(14) prior to participation, provide an assessment of each AFDC recipient who is required or volunteers to participate in one of the approved employment and training services specified in clause (13) service, including job search, and to recipients who volunteer for participation in case management under subdivision 11. The assessment must include an evaluation of the participant's (i) educational, child care, and other supportive service needs; (ii) skills and prior work experience; and (iii) ability to secure and retain a job which, when wages are added to child support, will support the participant's family. The assessment must also include a review of the results of the early and periodic screening, diagnosis and treatment (EPSDT) screening and preschool screening under chapter 123, if available; the participant's family circumstances; and, in the case of a custodial parent under the age of 18, a review of the effect of a child's development and educational needs on the parent's ability to participate in the program;

(15) develop an employability development plan for each recipient for whom an assessment is required under clause (14) which: (i) reflects the assessment required by clause 14; (ii) takes into consideration the recipient's physical capacity, skills, experience, health and safety, family responsibilities, place of residence, proficiency, child care and other supportive service needs; (iii) is based on available resources and local employment opportunities; (iv) specifies the services to be provided by the employment and training service provider; (v) specifies the activities the recipient will participate in; (vi) specifies necessary supportive services such as child care; (vii) to the extent possible, reflects the preferences of the participant; and (viii) specifies the recipient's long-term employment goal which shall lead to self-sufficiency; and

(16) assure that no work assignment under this section or sections 256.737 ~~and~~, 256.738, and 256.739 results in: (i) termination, layoff, or reduction of the work hours of an employee for the purpose of hiring an individual under this section or sections 256.737 ~~and~~, 256.738, and 256.739; (ii) the hiring of an individual if any other person is on layoff from the same or a substantially equivalent job; (iii) any infringement of the promotional opportunities of any currently employed individual; (iv) the impairment of existing contracts for services or collective bargaining agreements; or (v) except for on-the-job training under section 256.738, a participant filling an established unfilled position vacancy.

(b) Funds available under this subdivision may not be used to assist, promote, or deter union organizing.

(c) A county board may provide other employment and training services that it considers necessary to help caretakers obtain self-sufficiency.

(d) Notwithstanding section 256G.07, when a priority caretaker relocates to another county to implement the provisions of the caretaker's case management contract or other written employability development plan approved by the county human service agency ~~or~~, its case manager or employment and training service provider, the county that approved the plan is responsible for the costs of case management, ~~child care~~, and other services required to carry out the plan, including employment and training services. The county agency's responsibility for the costs ends when all plan obligations have been met, when the caretaker loses AFDC eligibility for at least 30 days, or when approval of the plan is withdrawn for a reason stated in the plan, whichever occurs first. Responsibility for the costs of child care must be determined under section 256H. A county human service agency may pay for the costs of case management, child care, and other services required in an approved employability development plan when the nonpriority caretaker relocates to another county or when a priority caretaker again becomes eligible for AFDC after having been ineligible for at least 30 days.

Sec. 9. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 256.736, subdivision 10a, is amended to read:

Subd. 10a. [ORIENTATION.] (a) Each county agency must provide an orientation to all caretakers within its jurisdiction who are determined eligible for AFDC on or after July 1, 1989, and who are required to attend an orientation. The county agency shall require attendance at orientation of all caretakers except those who are: not exempt from registration under subdivision 3.

(1) ~~physically disabled, mentally ill, or developmentally disabled and whose condition has or is expected to continue for at least 90 days and will prevent participation in educational programs or employment and training services;~~

(2) ~~aged 60 or older;~~

(3) ~~currently employed in unsubsidized employment that is expected to continue at least 30 days and that provides an average of at least 30 hours of employment per week; or~~

(4) ~~currently employed in subsidized employment that is expected to continue at least 30 days and that provides an average of at least 30 hours of employment per week and is expected to result in full-time permanent employment.~~

(b) Except as provided in paragraph (e) below, the orientation must consist of a presentation that informs caretakers of:

(1) the identity, location, and phone numbers of employment and training and support services available in the county;

(2) the types and locations of child care services available through the county agency that are accessible to enable a caretaker to participate in educational programs or employment and training services;

(3) the availability of assistance for participants to help select appropriate child care services and that, on request, assistance will be provided to select appropriate child care services child care resource and referral program designated by the commissioner providing education and assistance to select child care services and a referral to the child care resource and referral when assistance is requested;

(4) the obligations of the county agency and service providers under contract to the county agency;

(5) the rights, responsibilities, and obligations of participants;

(6) the grounds for exemption from mandatory employment and training services or educational requirements;

(7) the consequences for failure to participate in mandatory services or requirements;

(8) the method of entering educational programs or employment and training services available through the county; and

(9) the availability and the benefits of the early and periodic, screening, diagnosis and treatment (EPSDT) program and preschool screening under chapter 123;

(10) their eligibility for transition year child care assistance when they lose eligibility for AFDC due to their earnings; and

(11) their eligibility for extended medical assistance when they lose eligibility for AFDC due to their earnings.

(c) Orientation must encourage recipients to view AFDC as a temporary program providing grants and services to individuals who set goals and develop strategies for supporting their families without AFDC assistance. The content of the orientation must not imply that a recipient's eligibility for AFDC is time limited. Orientation may be provided through audio-visual methods, but the caretaker must be given an opportunity for face-to-face interaction with staff of the county agency or the entity providing the orientation, and an opportunity to express the desire to participate in educational programs and employment and training services offered through the county agency.

(d) County agencies shall not require caretakers to attend orientation for more than three hours during any period of 12 continuous months. The local agency shall also arrange for or provide needed transportation and child care to enable caretakers to attend.

(e) Orientation for caretakers not eligible for participation in employment and training services under the provisions of subdivision 3a, paragraphs (a) and (b) shall present information only on those employment, training, and support services available to those caretakers, and information on clauses (2), (3), (9), (10), and (11) of paragraph (a) and all of paragraph (c), and may not last more than two hours.

Sec. 10. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 256.736, subdivision 11, is amended to read:

Subd. 11. [CASE MANAGEMENT SERVICES.] (a) For clients described in subdivision 2a, the case manager shall: The county agency may, to the extent of available resources, enroll priority caretakers described in subdivision 16 in case management services and for those enrolled shall:

(1) Provide an assessment as described in subdivision 10, paragraph (a), clause (14). As part of the assessment, the case manager shall inform caretakers of the screenings available through the early periodic screening, diagnosis and treatment (EPSDT) program under chapter 256B and preschool screening under chapter 123, and encourage caretakers to have their children screened. The case manager must work with the caretaker in completing this task;

(2) Develop an employability development plan as described in subdivision 10, paragraph (a), clause (15). The case manager must work with the caretaker in completing this task. For caretakers who are not literate or who have not completed high school, the first goal for the caretaker should be to complete literacy training or a general equivalency diploma. Caretakers who are literate and have completed high school shall be counseled to set realistic attainable goals, taking into account the long-term needs of both the caretaker and the caretaker's family;

(3) Coordinate services such as child care, transportation, and education assistance necessary to enable the caretaker to work toward the goals developed in clause (2). The case manager shall refer caretakers to resource and referral services, if available, and shall assist caretakers in securing appropriate child care services. When a client needs child care services in order to attend a Minnesota public or nonprofit college, university or technical institute, the case manager shall contact the appropriate agency to reserve child care funds for the client. A caretaker who needs child care services in order to complete high school or a general equivalency diploma is eligible for child care under section 268.91;

(4) Develop, execute, and monitor a contract between the local agency and the caretaker. The contract must be based upon the employability development plan described in subdivision 10, paragraph (a), clause (15), ~~and~~ but must be a separate document. It must include: (a) specific goals of the caretaker including stated measurements of progress toward each goal, the estimated length of participation in the program, and the number of hours of participation per week; (b) specific educational, training, and employment activities and support services provided by the county agency, including child care; and (c) the participant's obligations and the conditions under which the county will withdraw the services provided;

The contract must be signed and dated by the case manager and participant, and may include other terms as desired or needed by either party. In all cases, however, the case manager must assist the participant in reviewing and understanding the contract, and must ensure that the caretaker has set forth in the contract realistic goals consistent with the ultimate goal of self-sufficiency for the caretaker's family; and

(5) Develop and refer caretakers to counseling or peer group networks for emotional support while participating in work, education, or training.

(b) In addition to the duties in paragraph (a), for minor parents and pregnant minors, the case manager shall:

(1) Ensure that the contract developed under paragraph (a), clause (4), considers all factors set forth in section 257.33, subdivision 2;

(2) Assess the housing and support systems needed by the caretaker in order to provide the dependent children with adequate parenting. The case manager shall encourage minor parents and pregnant minors who are not living with friends or relatives to live in a group home or foster care setting. If minor parents and pregnant minors are unwilling to live in a group home or foster care setting or if no group home or foster care setting is available, the case manager shall assess their need for training in parenting and independent living skills and when appropriate shall refer them to available counseling programs designed to teach needed skills; and

(3) Inform minor parents or pregnant minors of, and assist them in evaluating the appropriateness of, the high school graduation incentives program under section 126.22, including post-secondary enrollment options, and the employment-related and community-based instruction programs.

(c) A caretaker may request a conciliation conference to attempt to resolve disputes regarding the contents of a contract developed under this section or a housing and support systems assessment conducted under this section. The caretaker may request a hearing pursuant to section 256.045 to dispute the contents of a contract or assessment developed under this section. The caretaker need not request a conciliation conference in order to request a hearing pursuant to section 256.045.

Sec. 11. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 256.736, subdivision 14, is amended to read:

Subd. 14. [JOB SEARCH.] (a) The commissioner of human services shall establish a job search program under Public Law Number 100-485. Unless exempt, the principal wage earner in an AFDC-UP assistance unit must be referred to and must begin participation in the job search program within 30 days of being determined eligible for AFDC, and must begin participation within four months of being determined eligible for AFDC-UP unless. The principal wage earner is exempt from job search participation if:

(1) the caretaker is already participating in another approved employment and training service;

(2) the caretaker's employability plan specifies other activities;

(3) the caretaker is exempt from registration under subdivision 3;
or

(4) the caretaker is unable to secure employment due to inability to communicate in the English language, is participating in an English as a second language course, and is making satisfactory progress towards completion of the course. If an English as a second language course is not available to the caretaker, the caretaker is exempt from participation until a course becomes available.

(b) The job search program must provide the following services:

(1) an initial period of up to four weeks of job search activities for not more than 32 hours per week. The employment and training service provider shall specify for each participating caretaker the number of weeks and hours of job search to be conducted and shall report to the county board if the caretaker fails to cooperate with the employment job search requirement; and

(2) an additional period of job search following the first period at the discretion of the employment and training service provider. The total of these two periods of job search may not exceed eight weeks for any 12 consecutive month period beginning with the month of application.

(c) The employment job search program may provide services to non-AFDC-UP caretakers.

Sec. 12. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 256.736, subdivision 16, is amended to read:

Subd. 16. [ALLOCATION AND USE OF MONEY.] (a) State money appropriated for employment and training services under this section must be allocated to counties as follows: as specified in paragraphs (b) to (h).

(b) Funds appropriated for case management services as described in subdivision 11 must be allocated to counties based on the average number of priority cases receiving AFDC in the county for the 12-month period ending December 31 of the previous year. For purposes of this section, "priority caretaker" means a recipient who:

(1) is a custodial parent under the age of 24 who: (i) has not completed a high school education and at the time of application for AFDC is not enrolled in high school or in a high school equivalency program; or (ii) had little or no work experience in the preceding year;

(2) is a member of a family in which the youngest child is within two years of being ineligible for AFDC due to age; or

(3) has received 36 months or more of AFDC over the last 60 months.

(c) Funds appropriated for employment and training services as described in subdivision 1a, paragraph (d), other than case management services as described in subdivision 11, must be allocated to counties as follows:

(1) Forty percent of the state money must be allocated based on the average monthly number of priority caretakers receiving AFDC in the county who are under age 21 and the average monthly number of AFDC cases open in the county for 24 or more consecutive months and residing in the county for the 12-month period ending December 31 of the previous fiscal year.

(2) Twenty percent of the state money must be allocated based on the average monthly number of nonpriority caretakers receiving AFDC in the county for the period ending December 31 of the previous fiscal year. Funds may be used to develop employability plans for nonpriority caretakers if resources allow.

(3) Twenty-five percent of the state money must be allocated based on the average monthly number of assistance units in the county receiving AFDC-UP for the period ending December 31 of the previous fiscal year.

(4) Fifteen percent of the state money must be allocated at the discretion of the commissioner based on participation levels for priority group members in each county.

(b) (d) No more than 15 percent of the money allocated under paragraph (a) (b) and no more than 15 percent of the money allocated under paragraph (c) may be used for administrative activities.

(e) Except as provided in paragraph (d), (e) At least 70 55 percent of the money allocated to counties under clause (c) must be used for case management services and employment and training services for caretakers in the priority groups, and up to 30 45 percent of the money may be used for employment search activities and employment and training services for nonpriority caretakers. One hundred percent of the money allocated to counties under clause (b) must be used for case management services for caretakers in the priority groups.

(d) A county having a high proportion of nonpriority caretakers that interferes with the county's ability to meet the 70 percent spending requirement of paragraph (e) may, with the approval of the commissioner of human services, use up to 40 percent of the money allocated under this section for orientation and employment and training services for nonpriority caretakers.

(e) (f) Money appropriated to cover the nonfederal share of costs for bilingual case management services to refugees for the employment and training programs under this section are allocated to counties based on each county's proportion of the total statewide number of AFDC refugee cases. However, counties with less than one percent of the statewide number of AFDC refugee cases do not receive an allocation.

(f) (g) Counties and the department of jobs and training shall bill the commissioner of human services for any expenditures incurred by the county, the county's employment and training service provider, or the department of jobs and training that may be reimbursed by federal money. The commissioner of human services shall bill the United States Department of Health and Human Services and the United States Department of Agriculture for the reimbursement and appropriate the reimbursed money to the county, the department of jobs and training, or employment and training service provider that submitted the original bill. The reimbursed money must be used to expand employment and training services.

(g) (h) The commissioner of human services shall review county expenditures of case management and employment and training block grant money at the end of the fourth quarter of the biennium and each quarter after that, and may reallocate unencumbered or unexpended money allocated under this section to those counties that can demonstrate a need for additional money. Reallocation of funds must be based on the formula set forth in paragraph (a), excluding the counties that have not demonstrated a need for additional funds.

(i) The county agency may continue to provide case management and supportive services to a participant for up to 90 days after the participant loses AFDC eligibility, and may continue providing a specific employment and training service for the duration of that service to a participant if funds for the service are obligated or expended prior to the participant losing AFDC eligibility.

Sec. 13. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 256.736, subdivision 18, is amended to read:

Subd. 18. [PROGRAM OPERATION BY INDIAN TRIBES.] (a) The commissioner may enter into agreements with any federally recognized Indian tribe with a reservation in the state to provide employment and training programs under this section to members of the Indian tribe receiving AFDC. For purposes of this section, "Indian tribe" means a tribe, band, nation, or other organized group or community of Indians that is recognized as eligible for the special programs and services provided by the United States to Indians because of their status as Indians; and for which a reservation exists as is consistent with Public Law Number 100-485, as amended.

(b) Agreements entered into under this subdivision must require the governing body of the Indian tribe to fulfill all county responsibilities required under this section in operation of the employment and training services covered by the contract, excluding the county share of costs in subdivision 13 and any county function related to AFDC eligibility determination or grant payment. The commissioner may enter into an agreement with a consortium of Indian tribes providing the governing body of each Indian tribe in the consortium agrees to these conditions.

(c) Agreements entered into under this subdivision must require the Indian tribe to operate the employment and training services within a geographic service area not to exceed the counties within which a border of the reservation falls. Indian tribes may also operate services in Hennepin and Ramsey counties or other geographic areas as approved by the commissioner of human services in consultation with the commissioner of jobs and training.

(d) Agreements entered into under this section must require the Indian tribe to operate a federal jobs program under Public Law Number 100-485, section 482(i).

(e) Agreements entered into under this section must require conformity with section 13.46 and any applicable federal regulations in the use of data about AFDC recipients.

(f) Agreements entered into under this section must require financial and program participant activity record keeping and reporting in the manner and using the forms and procedures specified by the commissioner and that federal reimbursement received must be used to expand operation of the employment and training services.

(g) Agreements entered into under this section must require that the Indian tribe coordinate operation of the programs with county employment and training programs, Indian Job Training Partnership Act programs, and educational programs in the counties in which the tribal unit's program operates.

(h) Agreements entered into under this section must require the Indian tribe to allow inspection of program operations and records by representatives of the department.

(i) Agreements entered into under this subdivision must require the Indian tribe to ~~contract with an~~ have its employment and training service provider certified by the commissioner of jobs and training for operation of the programs; ~~or become certified itself.~~

(j) Agreements entered into under this subdivision must require the Indian tribe to specify a starting date for each program with a procedure to enable tribal members participating in county-operated employment and training services to make the transition to the program operated by the tribal unit. Programs must begin on the first day of a month specified by the agreement.

(k) If the commissioner and Indian tribe enter into an agreement, the commissioner, after consulting with the commissioner of jobs and training regarding tribal plan status, may immediately reallocate county case management and employment and training block grant money from the counties in the Indian tribe's service area to the Indian tribe, prorating each county's annual allocations according to that percentage of the number of adult tribal unit members receiving AFDC residing in the county compared to the total number of adult AFDC recipients residing in the county and also prorating the annual allocation according to the month in which the Indian tribe program starts. If the Indian tribe cancels the agreement or fails, in the commissioner's judgment, to fulfill any requirement of the agreement, the commissioner shall reallocate money back to the counties in the Indian tribe's service area.

(l) Indian tribe members receiving AFDC and residing in the service area of an Indian tribe operating employment and training services under an agreement with the commissioner must be referred by county agencies in the service area to the Indian tribe for employment and training services.

(m) The Indian tribe shall bill the commissioner of human services for services performed under the contract. The commissioner shall bill the United States Department of Health and Human Services for reimbursement. Federal receipts are appropriated to the commissioner to be provided to the Indian tribe that submitted the original bill.

Sec. 14. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 256.7365, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [DEFINITIONS.] For the purpose of this section, the following terms have the meanings given them.

(a) "Substantial barriers to employment" means disabilities, chemical dependency, having children with disabilities, lack of a high school degree, lack of a marketable occupational skill, three or more children, or lack of regular work experience in the previous five years.

(b) "Case management" means case management as defined in section 256.736, subdivision 11.

Sec. 15. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 256.737, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [ESTABLISHMENT AND PURPOSE.] In order that persons receiving aid under this chapter may be assisted in achieving self-sufficiency by enhancing their employability through meaningful work experience and training and the development of job search skills, ~~the commissioner of human services shall continue the pilot community work experience demonstration programs that were approved by January 1, 1984,~~ the commissioner may establish ~~additional~~ community work experience programs in as many counties as necessary to comply with the participation requirements of the Family Support Act of 1988, Public Law Number 100-485. As of July 1, 1990, all such programs established on or after July 1, 1989, must be operated on a volunteer basis, and must be operated according to the Family Support Act of 1988, Public Law Number 100-485.

Sec. 16. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 256.737, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [PROGRAM REQUIREMENTS.] (a) Programs under this section are limited to projects that serve a useful public service such as: health, social service, environmental protection, education, urban and rural development and redevelopment, welfare, recreation, public facilities, public safety and child care. To the extent possible, the prior training, skills, and experience of a recipient must be used in making appropriate work experience assignments.

(b) As a condition to placing a person receiving aid to families with dependent children in a program under this subdivision, the county agency shall first provide the recipient the opportunity to participate in the following services:

(1) placement in suitable subsidized or unsubsidized employment through participation in job search under section 256.736, subdivision 14; or

(2) basic educational or vocational or occupational training for an identifiable job opportunity.

(c) ~~If the A recipient refuses who has completed a job search under section 256.736, subdivision 14, who is unable to secure suitable employment, and a who is not enrolled in an approved training program, the county agency may, subject to subdivision 1, require the recipient to participate in a community work experience program as a condition of eligibility.~~

(d) The county agency shall limit the maximum number of hours any participant under this section may be required to work in any month to a number equal to the amount of the aid to families with dependent children payable to the family divided by the greater of the federal minimum wage or the applicable state minimum wage.

(e) After a participant has been assigned to a position under this section for nine months, the participant may not be required to continue in that assignment unless the maximum number of hours a participant is required to work works is no greater than the amount of the aid to families with dependent children payable with respect to the family divided by the higher of (1) the federal minimum wage or the applicable state minimum wage, whichever is greater, or (2) the rate of pay for individuals employed in the same or similar occupations by the same employer at the same site.

(f) After each six months of a recipient's participation in an assignment, and at the conclusion of each assignment under this section, the county agency shall reassess and revise, as appropriate, each participant's employability development plan.

(g) The county agency shall apply the grant reduction sanctions specified in section 256.736, subdivision 4, clause (6), when it is determined that a mandatory participant has failed, without good cause, to participate in the program.

Sec. 17. [256.739] [GRANT DIVERSION.]

(a) County agencies may, according to section 256.736, subdivision 10, develop grant diversion programs that permit voluntary participation by AFDC recipients. A county agency that chooses to provide grant diversion as one of its optional employment and training services may divert to an employer part or all of the AFDC payment for the participant's assistance unit, in compliance with federal regulations and laws. Such payments to an employer are to subsidize employment for AFDC recipients as an alternative to public assistance payments.

(b) County agencies shall limit the length of training to nine months. Placement in a grant diversion training position with an employer is for the purpose of training and employment with the same employer, who has agreed to retain the person upon satisfactory completion of training.

(c) Placement of any recipient in a grant diversion subsidized training position must be compatible with the assessment and employability development plan established for the recipient under section 256.736, subdivision 10, paragraph (a), clauses (14) and (15).

(d) No grant diversion participant may be assigned to fill any established, unfilled position vacancy with an employer.

(e) In addition to diverting the AFDC grant to the employer, employment and training block grant funds may be used to subsidize the grant diversion placement.

Sec. 18. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 256D.01, subdivision 1a, is amended to read:

Subd. 1a. [STANDARDS.] (a) A principal objective in providing general assistance is to provide for persons ineligible for federal programs who are unable to provide for themselves. The minimum standard of assistance determines the total amount of the general assistance grant without separate standards for shelter, utilities, or other needs.

(b) The commissioner shall set the standard of assistance for an assistance unit consisting of an adult recipient who is childless and unmarried or living apart from children and spouse and who does not live with a parent or parents or a legal custodian. When the other standards specified in this subdivision increase, this standard must also be increased by the same percentage.

(c) For an assistance unit consisting of a single adult who lives with a parent or parents, the general assistance standard of assistance is the amount that the aid to families with dependent children standard of assistance would increase if the recipient were added as an additional minor child to an assistance unit consisting of the recipient's parent and all of that parent's family members, except that the standard may not exceed the standard for a general assistance recipient living alone. Benefits received by a responsible relative of the assistance unit under the supplemental security income program, a workers' compensation program, the Minnesota supplemental aid program, or any other program based on the responsible relative's disability, and any benefits received by a responsible relative of the assistance unit under the social security retirement program, may not be counted in the determination of eligibility or benefit level for the assistance unit. Except as provided below, the assistance unit is ineligible for general assistance if the available resources or the countable income of the assistance unit and the parent or parents with whom the assistance unit lives are such that a family consisting of the assistance unit's parent or parents, the parent or parents' other family members and the assistance unit as the only or additional minor child would be financially ineligible for general assistance. For the purposes of calculating the countable income of the assistance unit's parent or parents, the calculation methods, income deductions, exclusions, and disregards used when calculating the countable income for a single adult or childless couple must be used.

(d) For an assistance unit consisting of a childless couple, the standards of assistance are the same as the first and second adult standards of the aid to families with dependent children program. If one member of the couple is not included in the general assistance grant, the standard of assistance for the other is the second adult standard of the aid to families with dependent children program.

(e) For an assistance unit consisting of all members of a family, the standards of assistance are the same as the standards of assistance that apply to a family under the aid to families with dependent children program if that family had the same number of parents and children as the assistance unit under general assistance and if all members of that family were eligible for the aid to families with dependent children program. If one or more members of the family are not included in the assistance unit for general assistance, the standards of assistance for the remaining members are the same as the standards of assistance that apply to an assistance unit composed of the entire family, less the standards of assistance for a family of the same number of parents and children as those members of the family who are not in the assistance unit for general assistance. However, if an assistance unit consists solely of the minor children because their parent or parents have been sanctioned from receiving benefits from the aid to families with dependent children program, the standard for the assistance unit is the same as the special child standard of the aid to families with dependent children program. In no case shall the standard for family members who are in the assistance unit for general assistance, when combined with the standard for family members who are not in the general assistance unit, total more than the standard for the entire family if all members were in an AFDC assistance unit. A child may not be excluded from the assistance unit unless income intended for its benefit is received from a federally aided categorical assistance program or supplemental security income. The income of a child who is excluded from the assistance unit may not be counted in the determination of eligibility or benefit level for the assistance unit.

(f) An assistance unit consisting of one or more members of a family must have its grant determined using the policies and procedures of the aid to families with dependent children program. However, the standard of assistance must be determined according to paragraph (e), the first $50 of total child support received by an assistance unit in a month must be excluded and the balance counted as unearned income, and nonrecurring lump sums received by the family must be considered income in the month received and a resource in the following months.

Sec. 19. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 256D.01, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 1d. [RULES REGARDING EMERGENCY ASSISTANCE.]

In order to maximize the use of federal funds, the commissioner shall adopt rules, to the extent permitted by federal law, for eligibility for the emergency assistance program under aid to families with dependent children, and under the terms of sections 256D.01 to 256D.21 for general assistance, to require use of the emergency program under aid to families with dependent children as the primary financial resource when available. The commissioner shall adopt rules for eligibility for general assistance of persons with seasonal income and may attribute seasonal income to other periods not in excess of one year from receipt by an applicant or recipient. General assistance payments may not be made for foster care, child welfare services, or other social services. Vendor payments and vouchers may be issued only as authorized in sections 256D.05, subdivision 6, and 256D.09.

Sec. 20. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 256D.02, subdivision 5, is amended to read:

Subd. 5. "Family" means the following persons who live together: a minor child or a group of minor children related to each other as siblings, half siblings, or stepsiblings, together with their natural or adoptive parents, their stepparents, or their legal custodians, and any other minor children of whom an adult member of the family is a legal custodian. applicant or recipient and the following persons who reside with the applicant or recipient:

(1) the applicant's spouse;

(2) any minor child of whom the applicant is a parent, stepparent, or legal custodian, and that child's minor siblings, including half-siblings and step-siblings;

(3) the other parent of the applicant's minor child or children together with that parent's minor children, and, if that parent is a minor, his or her parents, stepparents, legal guardians, and minor siblings; and

(4) if the applicant or recipient is a minor, the minor's parents, stepparents, or legal guardians, and any other minor children for whom those parents, stepparents, or legal guardians are financially responsible.

A "family" must contain at least one minor child and at least one of that child's natural or adoptive parents, stepparents, or legal custodians.

Sec. 21. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 256D.02, subdivision 8, is amended to read:

Subd. 8. "Income" means any form of income, including remuneration for services performed as an employee and net earnings from self-employment, reduced by the amount attributable to employment expenses as defined by the commissioner. The amount attributable to employment expenses shall include amounts paid or withheld for federal and state personal income taxes and federal social security taxes.

"Income" includes any payments received as an annuity, retirement, or disability benefit, including veteran's or workers' compensation; old age, survivors, and disability insurance; railroad retirement benefits; unemployment benefits; and benefits under any federally aided categorical assistance program, supplementary security income, or other assistance program; rents, dividends, interest and royalties; and support and maintenance payments. Such payments may not be considered as available to meet the needs of any person other than the person for whose benefit they are received, unless that person is a family member or a spouse and the income is not excluded under section 256D.01, subdivision 1a. Goods and services provided in lieu of cash payment shall be excluded from the definition of income, except that payments made for room, board, tuition or fees by a parent, on behalf of a child enrolled as a full-time student in a post-secondary institution, and payments made on behalf of an applicant or recipient which the applicant or recipient could legally require to be paid in cash to himself or herself, must be included as income.

Sec. 22. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 256D.02, subdivision 12, is amended to read:

Subd. 12. "Local County agency" means the agency designated by the county board of commissioners, human services boards, county welfare boards in the several counties of the state or multicounty welfare boards or departments where those have been established in accordance with law.

Sec. 23. Minnesota Statutes Second 1989 Supplement, section 256D.03, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. After December 31, 1980, state aid shall be paid to local agencies for 75 percent of all general assistance and work readiness grants up to the standards of sections 256D.01, subdivision 1a, and 256D.051, and according to procedures established by the commissioner, except as provided for under section 256.017 and except that, after December 31, 1987 until January 1 1991, state aid is reduced to 65 percent of all work readiness assistance if the local agency does not make occupational or vocational literacy training available and accessible to recipients who are eligible for assistance under section 256D.051.

After December 31, 1986, state aid must be paid to local agencies for 65 percent of work readiness assistance paid under section 256D.051 if the county does not have an approved and operating community investment program.

Beginning July 1, 1991, the state will reimburse counties according to the payment schedule in section 256.025 for the county share of local agency expenditures made under this subdivision from January 1, 1991, on. Payment to counties under this subdivision is subject to the provisions of section 256.017.

Sec. 24. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 256D.051, subdivision 1a, is amended to read:

Subd. 1a. [WORK READINESS PAYMENTS.] (a) Grants of work readiness shall be determined using the standards of assistance, exclusions, disregards, and procedures which are used in the general assistance program. Work readiness shall be granted in an amount that, when added to the nonexempt income actually available to the assistance unit, the total amount equals the applicable standard of assistance.

(b) Work readiness payments must be provided to persons determined eligible for the work readiness program as provided in this subdivision except when the special payment provisions in subdivision 1b are utilized. The initial payment must be prorated to provide assistance for the period beginning with the date the completed application is received by the county agency or the date the assistance unit meets all work readiness eligibility factors, whichever is later, and ending on the final day of that month. The amount of the first payment must be determined by dividing the number of days to be covered under the payment by the number of days in the month, to determine the percentage of days in the month that are covered by the payment, and multiplying the monthly payment amount by this percentage. Subsequent payments must be paid monthly on the first day of each month.

There shall be an initial certification period which shall begin on the date the completed application is received by the county agency or the date that the assistance unit meets all work readiness eligibility factors, whichever is later, and ending on the date that mandatory registrants in the assistance unit must attend a work readiness orientation. This initial certification period may not cover a period in excess of 30 calendar days. All mandatory registrants in the assistance unit must be informed of the period of certification, the requirement to attend orientation, and that work readiness eligibility will end at the end of the certification period unless the registrants attend orientation. A registrant who fails to comply with requirements during the certification period, including attendance at orientation, will lose work readiness eligibility without notice under section 256D.101, subdivision 1, paragraph (b).

At the time the county agency notifies the assistance unit that it is eligible for work readiness assistance, the county agency must inform all mandatory registrants in the assistance unit that they must attend an orientation within 30 days, and that work readiness eligibility will end at the end of the month in which the orientation is scheduled unless the registrants attend orientation. A registrant who fails, without good cause, to comply with requirements during this time period, including attendance at orientation, will lose work readiness eligibility without notice under section 256D.101, subdivision 1, paragraph (b). The registrant shall, however, be sent a notice, on or before the date that eligibility ends, which informs the registrant that work readiness eligibility has ended in accordance with this section for failure to comply with work readiness requirements. The notice shall set forth the factual basis for such determination, and advises the registrant of the right to reinstate eligibility upon a showing of good cause for the failure to meet the requirements. Subsequent assistance must not be issued unless the person completes an application, is determined eligible, and attends an orientation, or demonstrates that the person had good cause for failing to comply with the requirement.

Sec. 25. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 256D.051, subdivision 1b, is amended to read:

Subd. 1b. [SPECIAL PAYMENT PROVISIONS.] A county agency may, at its option, provide work readiness payments as provided under section 256D.05, subdivision 6, during the initial certification period prorated to cover only an initial certification period. The initial certification period shall cover the time from the date the completed application is received by the county agency or the date that the assistance unit meets all work readiness eligibility factors, whichever is later, and ending on the date that mandatory registrants in the assistance unit must attend a work readiness orientation. This initial certification period may not cover a period in excess of 30 calendar days. All mandatory registrants in the assistance unit must be informed of the period of certification, the requirement to attend orientation, and that work readiness eligibility will end at the end of the certification period unless the registrants attend orientation. A registrant who fails, without good cause, to comply with requirements during the certification period, including attendance at orientation, will lose work readiness eligibility without notice under section 256D.101, subdivision 1, paragraph (b). The registrant shall, however, be sent a notice, on or before the date that eligibility ends, which informs the registrant that work readiness eligibility has ended in accordance with this section for failure to comply with work readiness requirements. The notice shall set forth the factual basis for such determination, and advises the registrant of the right to reinstate eligibility upon a showing of good cause for the failure to meet the requirements. If all mandatory registrants attend orientation, an additional grant of work readiness assistance must be issued to cover the period beginning the day after the scheduled orientation and ending on the final day of that month.

Subsequent payments of work readiness shall be governed by subdivision 1a or section 256D.05, subdivision 6. If one or more mandatory registrants from the assistance unit fail to attend the orientation, those who failed to attend orientation will be removed from the assistance unit without further notice and shall be ineligible for additional assistance. Subsequent assistance to such persons shall be dependent upon the person completing application for assistance and, being determined eligible, and attending an orientation or demonstrating that the person had good cause for failing to comply with the requirement.

A local agency that utilizes the provisions in this subdivision must implement the provisions consistently for all applicants or recipients in the county. A local agency must pay emergency general assistance to a registrant whose prorated work readiness payment does not meet emergency needs. ~~A local agency which elects to pay work readiness assistance on a prorated basis under this subdivision may not provide payments under section 256D.05, subdivision 6, for the same time period. A county agency may, at its option, provide work readiness payments as provided under section 256D.05, subdivision 6, during the initial certification period.~~

Sec. 26. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 256D.051, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [LOCAL AGENCY DUTIES.] (a) The local agency shall provide to registrants a work readiness program. The work readiness program must include:

(1) orientation to the work readiness program;

(2) an individualized employability assessment and development plan that includes assessment of literacy, ability to communicate in the English language, eligibility for displaced homemaker services under section 268.96, educational history, and that estimates the length of time it will take the registrant to obtain employment. The employability assessment and development plan must be completed in consultation with the registrant, must assess the registrant's assets, barriers, and strengths, and must identify steps necessary to overcome barriers to employment;

(3) referral to available accredited remedial or skills training programs designed to address registrant's barriers to employment;

(4) referral to available programs including the Minnesota employment and economic development program;

(5) a job search program, including job seeking skills training; and

(6) other activities, ~~including public employment experience pro-~~ grams to the extent of available resources designed by the local agency to prepare the registrant for permanent employment.

The work readiness program may include a public sector or nonprofit work experience component only if the component is established according to section 268.90.

In order to allow time for job search, the local agency may not require an individual to participate in the work readiness program for more than 32 hours a week. The local agency shall require an individual to spend at least eight hours a week in job search or other work readiness program activities.

(b) The local agency shall prepare an annual plan for the operation of its work readiness program. The plan must be submitted to and approved by the commissioner of jobs and training. The plan must include:

- (1) a description of the services to be offered by the local agency;
- (2) a plan to coordinate the activities of all public entities providing employment-related services in order to avoid duplication of effort and to provide services more efficiently;
- (3) a description of the factors that will be taken into account when determining a client's employability development plan; and
- (4) provisions to assure that applicants and recipients are evaluated for eligibility for general assistance prior to termination from the work readiness program.

Sec. 27. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 256D.051, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [REGISTRANT DUTIES.] In order to receive work readiness assistance, a registrant shall: (1) cooperate with the local agency in all aspects of the work readiness program; (2) accept any suitable employment, including employment offered through the job training partnership act, Minnesota employment and economic development act, and other employment and training options; and (3) participate in work readiness activities assigned by the local agency. The local agency may terminate assistance to a registrant who fails to cooperate in the work readiness program, as provided in subdivision 3b 3c.

Sec. 28. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 256D.051, subdivision 8, is amended to read:

Subd. 8. [VOLUNTARY QUIT.] A person is not eligible for work readiness payments or services if, without good cause, the person refuses a legitimate offer of, or quits, suitable employment within 60 days before the date of application. A person who, without good cause, voluntarily quits suitable employment or refuses a legitimate offer of suitable employment while receiving work readiness payments or services shall be terminated from the work readiness program and disqualified for two months according to rules adopted by the commissioner.

Sec. 29. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 256D.052, subdivision 5, is amended to read:

Subd. 5. [REASSESSMENT AND LITERACY REFERRAL.] (a) When a person is no longer functionally illiterate under rules adopted by the commissioner or is terminated for failure to comply with literacy training requirements, the local agency must assess the person's eligibility for general assistance under the remaining provisions of section 256D.05, subdivision 1, paragraph (a). The local agency must refer to the work readiness program under section 256D.051 all people not eligible for general assistance.

(b) ~~The local agency may also refer for voluntary work readiness services all recipients who reach a level of literacy that may allow successful participation in job training, provided that the job training does not interfere with a recipient's participation in literacy training. However, referral under this clause does not affect general assistance eligibility.~~

Sec. 30. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 256D.06, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. Notwithstanding the provisions of subdivision 1, a grant of general assistance shall be made to an eligible individual, married couple, or family for an emergency need, as defined in rules promulgated by the commissioner, where the recipient requests temporary assistance not exceeding 30 days if an emergency situation appears to exist and the individual is ineligible for the program of emergency assistance under aid to families with dependent children and is not a recipient of aid to families with dependent children at the time of application hereunder. If a an applicant or recipient relates facts to the local agency which may be sufficient to constitute an emergency situation, the local agency shall advise the recipient person of the procedure for applying for assistance pursuant to this subdivision.

Sec. 31. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 256H.01, subdivision 7, is amended to read:

Subd. 7. [EDUCATION PROGRAM.] "Education program" means remedial or basic education or English as a second language instruction, a program leading to a general equivalency or high school diploma, post-secondary programs excluding postbaccalaure-ate programs, and other education and training needs as documented in an employability plan that is developed by an employment and training service provider certified by the commissioner of jobs and training or an individual designated by the county to provide employment and training services. The employability plan must outline education and training needs of a recipient, meet state requirements for employability plans, meet the requirements of Minnesota Rules, parts 9565.5000 to 9565.5200 and meet the requirements of other programs that provide federal reimbursement for child care services. ~~The county must incorporate into a recipient's employability plan an educational plan developed by a post-secondary institution for a nonpriority AFDC recipient who is enrolled or planning to enroll at that institution.~~

Sec. 32. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 256H.01, subdivision 8, is amended to read:

Subd. 8. [EMPLOYMENT PROGRAM.] "Employment program" means employment of recipients financially eligible for child care assistance, preemployment activities, or other activities approved in an employability plan that is developed by an employment and training service provider certified by the commissioner of jobs and training or an individual designated by the county to provide employment and training services. The plans must meet the requirements of Minnesota Rules, parts 9565.5000 to 9565.5200, and other programs that provide federal reimbursement for child care services.

Sec. 33. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 256H.01, subdivision 12, is amended to read:

Subd. 12. [PROVIDER.] "Provider" means a child care license holder who operates a family day care home, a group family day care home, a day care center, a nursery school, a day nursery, an extended day school age child care program; a person exempt from licensure who meets child care standards established by the state board of education; or a legal nonlicensed caregiver who is at least 18 years of age, and who is not a member of the AFDC assistance unit.

Sec. 34. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 256H.01, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 16. [TRANSITION YEAR FAMILIES.] "Transition year families" means families who lose eligibility for AFDC due to increased hours of employment, increased income from employment, or the loss of income disregards due to time limitations, as provided under Public Law Number 100-485.

Sec. 35. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 256H.01, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 17. [CHILD CARE FUND.] "Child care fund" means a program providing:

(1) financial assistance for child care to parents engaged in employment or education and training leading to employment; and

(2) grants to develop, expand, and improve the access and availability of child care services statewide.

Sec. 36. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 256H.03, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [ALLOCATION; LIMITATIONS.] The commissioner shall allocate 66 percent of the money appropriated under the child care fund for the basic sliding fee program and shall allocate those funds between the metropolitan area, comprising the counties of Anoka, Carver, Dakota, Hennepin, Ramsey, Scott, and Washington, and the area outside the metropolitan area as follows:

(1) 50 percent of the money shall be allocated among the counties on the basis of the number of families below the poverty level, as determined from the most recent census or special census; and

(2) 50 percent of the money shall be allocated among the counties on the basis of the counties' portion of the AFDC caseload for the preceding state fiscal year.

If, under the preceding formula, either the seven-county metropolitan area consisting of Anoka, Carver, Dakota, Hennepin, Ramsey, Scott, and Washington counties or the area consisting of counties outside the seven-county metropolitan area is allocated more than 55 percent of the basic sliding fee funds, each county's allocation in that area shall be proportionally reduced until the total for the area is no more than 55 percent of the basic sliding fee funds. The amount of the allocations proportionally reduced shall be used to proportionally increase each county's allocation in the other area.

Sec. 37. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 256H.03, subdivision 2a, is amended to read:

Subd. 2a. [ELIGIBLE RECIPIENTS.] Families that meet the eligibility requirements under sections 256H.10, except AFDC recipients and transition year families, and 256H.11 are eligible for child care assistance under the basic sliding fee program. From July 1, 1990, to June 30, 1991, a county may not accept new applications for the basic sliding fee program unless the county can demonstrate that its expenditure of state money for the basic sliding fee program during this period will not exceed 95 percent of the county's allocation of state money for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1991. Families enrolled in the basic sliding fee program as of July 1, 1990, shall be continued until they are no longer eligible. Counties shall make vendor payments to the child care provider or pay the parent directly for eligible child care expenses on a reimbursement basis.

Sec. 38. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 256H.03, subdivision 2b, is amended to read:

Subd. 2b. [FUNDING PRIORITY.] (a) First priority for child care assistance under the basic sliding fee program must be given to eligible recipients ~~non-AFDC families~~ who do not have a high school or general equivalency diploma or who need remedial and basic skill courses in order to pursue employment or to pursue education leading to employment. ~~Priority for child care assistance under the basic sliding fee program must be given to non-AFDC families for this first priority unless a county can demonstrate that funds available in the AFDC child care program allocation are inadequate to serve all AFDC families needing child care services.~~ Within this priority, the following subpriorities must be used:

- (1) child care needs of minor parents;
- (2) child care needs of parents under 21 years of age; and
- (3) child care needs of other parents within the priority group described in this paragraph.

(b) Second priority must be given to all other parents who are eligible for the basic sliding fee program.

Sec. 39. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 256H.05, subdivision 1b, is amended to read:

Subd. 1b. [ELIGIBLE RECIPIENTS.] Families eligible for guaranteed child care assistance under the AFDC child care program are: ~~families receiving AFDC and former AFDC recipients who, during their first year of employment, continue to require a child care subsidy in order to retain employment. The commissioner shall designate between 20 to 60 percent of the AFDC child care program as the minimum to be reserved for AFDC recipients in an educational program. If a family meets the eligibility requirements of the AFDC child care program and the caregiver has an approved employability plan that meets the requirements of appropriate federal reimbursement programs, that family is eligible for child care assistance.~~

- (1) persons receiving services under section 256.736;
- (2) AFDC recipients who are employed; and

(3) persons who are members of transition year families under section 256H.01, subdivision 16.

Sec. 40. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 256H.05, subdivision 1c, is amended to read:

Subd. 1c. [FUNDING PRIORITY.] Priority for child care assistance under the AFDC child care program shall be given to AFDC priority groups who are engaged in an employment or education program consistent with their employability plan. If the AFDC recipient is employed, the AFDC child care disregard shall be applied before the remaining child care costs are subsidized by the AFDC child care program. AFDC recipients leaving AFDC due to their earned income, who have been on AFDC three out of the last six months and who apply for child care assistance under subdivision 1b within the first year after leaving AFDC, shall be entitled to one year of child care subsidies during the first year of employment. AFDC recipients must be put on a waiting list for the basic sliding fee program when they leave AFDC due to their earned income.

Sec. 41. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 256H.05, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [COOPERATION WITH OTHER PROGRAMS.] The county shall develop cooperative agreements with the employment and training service provider for coordination of child care funding with employment, training, and education programs for all AFDC recipients who receive services under section 256.736. The cooperative agreement shall specify that individuals receiving employment, training, and education services under an employability plan from the employment and training service provider shall, as resourcees permit, be guaranteed child care assistance from the county of their residencee responsible for the current employability development plan.

Sec. 42. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 256H.05, subdivision 5, is amended to read:

Subd. 5. [FEDERAL REIMBURSEMENT.] Counties shall maximize their federal reimbursement under the AFDC special needs program Public Law Number 100-485 or other federal reimbursement programs for money spent for persons listed in this section and section 256H.03. The commissioner shall allocate any federal earnings to the county to be used to expand child care services under these sections.

Sec. 43. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 256H.08, is amended to read:

256H.08 [USE OF MONEY.]

Money for persons listed in sections 256H.03, subdivision 2a, and 256H.05, subdivision 1b, shall be used to reduce the costs of child care for students, including the costs of child care for students while employed if enrolled in an eligible education program at the same time and making satisfactory progress towards completion of the program. Counties may not limit the duration of child care subsidies for a person in an employment or educational program, except when the person is found to be ineligible under the child care fund eligibility standards. Any limitation must be based on a person's employability plan in the case of an AFDC recipient, and county policies included in the child care allocation plan. Time limitations for child care assistance, as specified in Minnesota Rules, parts 9565.5000 to 9565.5200, do not apply to basic or remedial educational programs needed to prepare for post-secondary education or employment. These programs include: high school, general equivalency diploma, and English as a second language. Programs exempt from this time limit must not run concurrently with a post-secondary program. Financially eligible students who have received child care assistance for one academic year shall be provided child care assistance in the following academic year if funds allocated under sections 256H.03 and 256H.05. If a student an AFDC recipient who is receiving AFDC child care assistance under this chapter moves to another county as specified authorized in their employability plan, continues to be enrolled in a post-secondary institution, and continues to be eligible for AFDC child care assistance under this chapter, the student must receive continued child care assistance from their county of origin without interruption to the limit of the county's allocation participate in educational or training programs authorized in their employability development plans, and continues to be eligible for AFDC child care assistance under this chapter, the AFDC caretaker must receive continued child care assistance from the county responsible for their current employability development plan, without interruption.

Sec. 44. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 256H.09, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [QUARTERLY REPORTS.] The commissioner shall specify requirements for reports, including quarterly fiscal reports, according to section 256.01, subdivision 2, paragraph (17). Counties shall submit on forms prescribed by the commissioner a quarterly financial and program activity report. The failure to submit a complete report by the end of the quarter in which the report is due may result in a reduction of child care fund allocations equal to the next quarter's allocation. The financial and program activity report must include:

(1) a detailed accounting of the expenditures and revenues for the program during the preceding quarter by funding source and by eligibility group;

(2) a description of activities and concomitant expenditures that are federally reimbursable under the AFDC employment special needs program and other federal reimbursement programs;

(3) a description of activities and concomitant expenditures of child care money;

(4) information on money encumbered at the quarter's end but not yet reimbursable, for use in adjusting allocations as provided in sections section 256H.03, subdivision 3, and 256H.05, subdivision 1a; and

(5) other data the commissioner considers necessary to account for the program or to evaluate its effectiveness in preventing and reducing participants' dependence on public assistance and in providing other benefits, including improvement in the care provided to children.

Sec. 45. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 256H.10, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [ELIGIBILITY FACTORS.] Child care services must be available to families who need child care to find or keep employment or to obtain the training or education necessary to find employment and who:

(a) receive aid to families with dependent children and are receiving employment and training services under section 256.736;

(b) have household income below the eligibility levels for aid to families with dependent children; or

(c) have household income within a range established by the commissioner.

(d) Child care services for the families receiving aid to families with dependent children must be made available as in-kind services, to cover any difference between the actual cost and the amount disregarded under the aid to families with dependent children program. Child care services to families whose incomes are below the threshold of eligibility for aid to families with dependent children, but that are not receiving aid to families with dependent children, must be made available without cost to the families.

Sec. 46. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 256H.10, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [PRIORITIES; ALLOCATIONS.] If more than 75 percent of the available money is provided to any one of the groups described in section 256H.03 or 256H.05, the county board shall document to the commissioner the reason the group received a disproportionate share unless approved in the plan. If a county projects that its child care allocation is insufficient to meet the needs of all eligible groups, it may prioritize among the groups that remain to be served after the county has complied with the priority requirements of sections section 256H.03 and 256H.05. Counties that have established a priority for non-AFDC families beyond those established under section 256H.03 must submit the policy in the annual allocation plan.

Sec. 47. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 256H.10, subdivision 4, is amended to read:

Subd. 4. [ELIGIBILITY; ANNUAL INCOME; CALCULATION.] Annual income of the applicant family is the current monthly income of the family multiplied by 12 or the income for the 12-month period immediately preceding the date of application, whichever or income calculated by the method which provides the most accurate assessment of income available to the family. Self-employment income must be calculated based on gross receipts less operating expenses. Income must be redetermined when the family's income changes, but no less often than every six months. Income must be verified with documentary evidence. If the applicant does not have sufficient evidence of income, verification must be obtained from the source of the income.

Sec. 48. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 256H.11, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [ASSISTANCE FOR PERSONS SEEKING AND RETAINING EMPLOYMENT.] Persons who are seeking employment and who are eligible for assistance under this section are eligible to receive the equivalent of up to one month of child care. Employed persons who work at least ten hours a week and receive at least a minimum wage for all hours worked are eligible for continued child care assistance.

Sec. 49. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 256H.15, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [SUBSIDY RESTRICTIONS.] The county board may limit the subsidy allowed by setting a maximum on the provider child care rate that the county shall subsidize. The maximum rate set by any county shall not be lower than 110 percent or higher than 125 percent of the median rate in that county for like care arrangements for all types of care, including special needs and handicapped care, as determined by the commissioner. If the county sets a maximum rate, it must pay the provider's rate for each child receiving a subsidy, up to the maximum rate set by the county. ~~In order to be reimbursed for more than 110 percent of the median rate, a provider with employees must pay wages for teachers, assistants,~~ and aides that are more than 110 percent of the county average rate for child care workers. If a county does not set a maximum provider rate, it shall pay the provider's rate for every child in care. The maximum state payment is 125 percent of the median provider rate. If the county has not set a maximum provider rate and the provider rate is greater than 125 percent of the median provider rate in the county, the county shall pay the amount in excess of 125 percent of the median provider rate from county funding sources. The county shall pay the provider's full charges for every child in care, up to the maximum established. The commissioner shall determine the maximum rate for each type of care, including special needs and handicapped care. When the provider charge is greater than the maximum provider rate set by the county allowed, the parent is responsible for payment of the difference in the rates in addition to any family copayment fee.

Sec. 50. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 256H.15, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [PROVIDER RATE BONUS FOR ACCREDITATION.] Currently accredited child care centers shall be paid a five ten percent bonus above the maximum rate established by the county in subdivision 1, if the center can demonstrate that its staff wages are greater than 110 percent of the average wages in the county for similar care, up to the actual provider rate. A family day care provider shall be paid a five ten percent bonus above the maximum rate established by the county in subdivision 1, if the provider holds a current child early childhood development associate certificate credential approved by the commissioner, up to the actual provider rate. A county is not required to review wages under this subdivision unless the county has set a maximum above 110 percent for all providers with employees in their county.

Sec. 51. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 256H.17, is amended to read:

256H.17 [EXTENSION OF EMPLOYMENT OPPORTUNITIES.]

The county board shall insure that child care services available to county eligible residents are well advertised and that everyone who receives or applies for aid to families with dependent children is informed of training and employment opportunities and programs, including child care assistance nd child care resource and referral services.

Sec. 52. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 256H.21, subdivision 9, is amended to read:

Subd. 9. [MINI-GRANTS.] "Mini-grants" means child care grants for facility improvements that are less than up to $1,000. Mini-grants include, but are not limited to, improvements to meet licensing requirements, improvements to expand a child care facility or program, toys and equipment, start-up costs, staff training, and development costs.

Sec. 53. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 256H.22, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [DISTRIBUTION OF FUNDS.] (a) The commissioner shall allocate grant money appropriated for child care service (~~development and resource and referral services~~) among the development regions designated by the governor under section 462.385, as follows:

(1) 50 percent of the child care service development grant appropriation shall be allocated to the metropolitan area economic development region; and

(2) 50 percent of the child care service development grant appropriation shall be allocated to greater Minnesota counties economic development regions other than the metropolitan economic development region.

(b) The following formulas shall be used to allocate grant appropriations among the counties economic development regions:

(1) 50 percent of the funds shall be allocated in proportion to the ratio of children under 12 years of age in each county economic development region to the total number of children under 12 years of age in all counties economic development regions; and

(2) 50 percent of the funds shall be allocated in proportion to the ratio of children under 12 years of age in each county economic development region to the number of licensed child care spaces currently available in each county economic development region.

(c) Out of the amount allocated for each economic development region ~~and county~~, the commissioner shall award grants based on the recommendation of the grant review advisory task force. In addition, the commissioner shall award no more than 75 percent of the money either to child care facilities for the purpose of facility improvement or interim financing or to child care workers for staff training expenses. ~~The commissioner shall award no more than 50 percent of the money for resource and referral services to maintain or improve an existing resource and referral until all regions are served by resource and referral programs.~~

(d) Any funds unobligated may be used by the commissioner to award grants to proposals that received funding recommendations by the advisory task force but were not awarded due to insufficient funds.

Sec. 54. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 256H.22, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [CHILD CARE REGIONAL ADVISORY COMMITTEES.] Child care regional advisory committees shall review and make recommendations to the commissioner on applications for service development grants under this section. The commissioner shall appoint the child care regional advisory committees in each governor's economic development regions. People appointed under this subdivision must represent the following constituent groups: family child care providers, group center providers, parent users, health services, social services, public schools, and other citizens with demonstrated interest in child care issues. Members of the advisory task force with a direct financial interest in a pending grant proposal may not provide a recommendation or participate in the ranking of that grant proposal. Committee members may be reimbursed for their actual travel, child care, and child care provider substitute expenses for up to six committee meetings per year. The child care regional advisory committees shall complete their reviews and forward their recommendations to the commissioner by the date specified by the commissioner.

Sec. 55. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 256H.22, subdivision 10, is amended to read:

Subd. 10. [ADVISORY TASK FORCE.] The commissioner shall convene a statewide advisory task force which shall advise the commissioner on grants and other child care issues. The statewide advisory task force shall review and make recommendations to the commissioner on child care resource and referral grants and on statewide service development and child care training grants. Members of the advisory task force with a direct financial interest in a resource and referral or a statewide training proposal may not provide a recommendation or participate in the ranking of that grant proposal. Each regional grant review committee formed under subdivision 3, shall appoint a representative to the advisory task force. The commissioner may convene meetings of the task force as needed. Terms of office and removal from office are governed by the appointing body. The commissioner may compensate members for their expenses of travel to, child care, and child care provider substitute expenses for meetings of the task force. The members of the child care advisory task force shall also meet once with the interagency advisory committee on child care under section 256H.25.

Sec. 56. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 268.0111, subdivision 4, is amended to read:

Subd. 4. [EMPLOYMENT AND TRAINING SERVICES.] "Employment and training services" means programs, activities, and services related to job training, job placement, and job creation.

including job service programs, job training partnership act programs, wage subsidies, work readiness programs, job search, counseling, case management, community work experience programs, displaced homemaker programs, disadvantaged job training programs, grant diversion, employment experience programs, youth employment programs, conservation corps, apprenticeship programs, community investment programs, supported work programs, community development corporations, economic development programs, and opportunities industrialization centers.

Sec. 57. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 268.673, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [DEPARTMENT OF JOBS AND TRAINING.] The commissioner shall supervise wage subsidies and shall provide technical assistance to the eligible local service units for the purpose of delivering wage subsidies.

Sec. 58. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 268.673, subdivision 5, is amended to read:

Subd. 5. [REPORT.] Each entity delivering wage subsidies shall report to the commissioner and the coordinator on a quarterly basis:

(1) the number of persons placed in private sector jobs, in temporary public sector jobs, or in other services;

(2) the outcome for each participant placed in a private sector job, in a temporary public sector job, or in another service;

(3) the number and type of employers employing persons under the program;

(4) the amount of money spent in each eligible local service unit for wages for each type of employment and each type of other expense;

(5) the age, educational experience, family status, gender, priority group status, race, and work experience of each person in the program;

(6) the amount of wages received by persons while in the program and 60 days after completing the program;

(7) for each classification of persons described in clause (5), the outcome of the wage subsidy placement, including length of time employed; nature of employment, whether private sector, temporary public sector, or other service; and the hourly wages; and

(8) any other information requested by the commissioner. Each report must include cumulative information, as well as information for each quarter.

Data collected on individuals under this subdivision are private data on individuals as defined in section 13.02, subdivision 12, except that summary data may be provided under section 13.05, subdivision 7.

Sec. 59. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 268.6751, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [WAGE SUBSIDIES.] Wage subsidy money must be allocated to eligible local service units in the following manner:

(a) The commissioner shall allocate 87.5 percent of the funds available for allocation to eligible local service units for wage subsidy programs as follows: the proportion of the wage subsidy money available to each eligible local service unit must be based on the number of unemployed persons in the eligible local service unit for the most recent six-month period and the number of work readiness assistance cases and aid to families with dependent children cases in the eligible local service unit for the most recent six-month period.

(b) Five percent of the money available for wage subsidy programs must be allocated at the discretion of the commissioner.

(c) Seven and one-half percent of the money available for wage subsidy programs must be allocated at the discretion of the commissioner to provide jobs for residents of federally recognized Indian reservations.

(d) By December 31 of each fiscal year, providers and local service units receiving wage subsidy money shall report to the commissioner on the use of allocated funds. The commissioner shall reallocate uncommitted funds for each fiscal year according to the formula in paragraph (a).

Sec. 60. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 268.676, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [AMONG EMPLOYERS.] Allocation of funds among eligible employers within an eligible local service unit shall give priority to funding private sector jobs to the extent that eligible businesses apply for funds. If possible, no more than 25 percent of the statewide funds available for wages may be allocated for temporary jobs with eligible government and nonprofit agencies, or for temporary community investment program jobs with eligible government agencies during the biennium. This subdivision does not apply to jobs for residents of federally recognized Indian reservations.

Sec. 61. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 268.677, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. Reimbursement to the commissioner for the costs of administering wage subsidies must not exceed one-half percent of the money appropriated. Reimbursement to an eligible local service unit for the costs of administering wage subsidies must not exceed five percent and for the purchase of supplies and materials necessary to create permanent improvements to public property must not exceed one percent of the money allocated to that local service unit. The commissioner and the eligible local service units shall reallocate money from other sources to cover the costs of administering wage subsidies whenever possible.

Sec. 62. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 268.677, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. Eligible Local service units may use up to 25 percent of their wage subsidy allocations to provide eligible applicants with job search assistance, labor market orientation, job seeking skills, necessary child care services, relocation, and transportation, and to subsidize fringe benefits.

Sec. 63. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 268.678, is amended to read:

268.678 [ELIGIBLE LOCAL SERVICE UNITS; POWERS AND DUTIES.]

Subdivision 1. [GENERAL POWERS.] Eligible Local service units have the powers and duties given in this section and any additional duties given by the commissioner.

Subd. 3. [OUTREACH.] Each eligible local service unit shall publicize the availability of wage subsidies within its area to seek maximum participation by eligible job applicants and employers.

Subd. 4. [CONTRACTS.] Each eligible local service unit that has not agreed to a contract under section 268.673, subdivision 4a, may enter into contracts with certified service providers to deliver wage subsidies.

Subd. 5. [SCREENING AND COORDINATION.] Each eligible local service unit shall provide for the screening of job applicants and employers to achieve the best possible placement of eligible job applicants with eligible employers.

Subd. 6. [ELIGIBLE JOB APPLICANT PRIORITY LISTS.] Each eligible local service unit shall provide for the maintenance of a list of eligible job applicants unable to secure employment under the program at the time of application. The list shall prioritize eligible job applicants and shall be used to fill jobs with eligible employers as they become available.

Sec. 64. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 268.681, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [ELIGIBLE BUSINESSES.] A business employer is an eligible employer if it enters into a written contract, signed and subscribed to under oath, with an eligible local service unit or its contractor, containing assurances that:

(a) funds received by a business shall be used only as permitted under sections 268.672 to 268.682;

(b) the business has submitted information to the eligible local service unit or its contractor (1) describing the duties and proposed compensation of each employee proposed to be hired under the program; and (2) demonstrating that, with the funds provided under sections 268.672 to 268.682, the business is likely to succeed and continue to employ persons hired using wage subsidies;

(c) the business will use funds exclusively for compensation and fringe benefits of eligible job applicants and will provide employees hired with these funds with fringe benefits and other terms and conditions of employment comparable to those provided to other employees of the business who do comparable work;

(d) the funds are necessary to allow the business to begin, or to employ additional people, but not to fill positions which would be filled even in the absence of wage subsidies;

(e) the business will cooperate with the eligible local service unit and the commissioner in collecting data to assess the result of wage subsidies; and

(f) the business is in compliance with all applicable affirmative action, fair labor, health, safety, and environmental standards.

Sec. 65. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 268.681, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [PRIORITIES.] (a) In allocating funds among eligible businesses, the eligible local service unit or its contractor shall give priority to:

(1) businesses engaged in manufacturing;

(2) nonretail businesses that are small businesses as defined in section 645.445; and

(3) businesses that export products outside the state.

(b) In addition to paragraph (a), an eligible a local service unit must give priority to businesses that:

(1) have a high potential for growth and long-term job creation;

(2) are labor intensive;

(3) make high use of local and Minnesota resources;

(4) are under ownership of women and minorities;

(5) make high use of new technology;

(6) produce energy conserving materials or services or are involved in development of renewable sources of energy; and

(7) have their primary place of business in Minnesota.

Sec. 66. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 268.681, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [PAYBACK.] A business receiving wage subsidies shall repay 70 percent of the amount initially received for each eligible job applicant employed, if the employee does not continue in the employment of the business beyond the six-month subsidized period. If the employee continues in the employment of the business for one year or longer after the six-month subsidized period, the business need not repay any of the funds received for that employee's wages. If the employee continues in the employment of the business for a period of less than one year after the expiration of the six-month subsidized period, the business shall receive a proportional reduction in the amount it must repay. If an employer dismisses an employee for good cause and works in good faith with the eligible local service unit or its contractor to employ and train another person referred by the eligible local service unit or its contractor, the payback formula shall apply as if the original person had continued in employment.

A repayment schedule shall be negotiated and agreed to by the eligible local service unit and the business prior to the disbursement of the funds and is subject to renegotiation. The eligible local service unit shall forward 25 percent of the payments received under this subdivision to the commissioner on a monthly basis and shall retain the remaining 75 percent for local program expenditures. Notwithstanding section 268.677, subdivision 2, the local service unit may use up to 20 percent of its share of the funds returned under this subdivision for any administrative costs associated with the collection of the funds under this subdivision. At least 80 percent of the local service unit's share of the funds returned under this subdivision must be used as provided in section 268.677. The commissioner shall deposit payments forwarded to the commissioner under this subdivision in the Minnesota wage subsidy account created by subdivision 4.

Sec. 67. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 268.86, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [INTERAGENCY AGREEMENTS.] By October 1, 1987, the commissioner and the commissioner of human services shall enter into a written contract for the design, delivery, and administration of employment and training services for applicants for or recipients of food stamps or aid to families with dependent children and work readiness, including AFDC employment and training programs, and general assistance or work readiness grant diversion, and supported work. The contract ~~must be approved by the coordinator and~~ must address:

- (1) specific roles and responsibilities of each department;
- (2) assignment and supervision of staff for interagency activities including any necessary interagency employee mobility agreements under the administrative procedures of the department of employee relations;
- (3) mechanisms for determining the conditions under which individuals participate in services, their rights and responsibilities while participating, and the standards by which the services must be administered;
- (4) procedures for providing technical assistance to local service units, Indian tribes, and employment and training service providers;
- (5) access to appropriate staff for ongoing development and interpretation of policy, rules, and program standards;
- (6) procedures for reimbursing appropriate agencies for administrative expenses; and
- (7) procedures for accessing available federal funds.

Sec. 68. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 268.86, subdivision 8, is amended to read:

Subd. 8. [GRANT DIVERSION.] The commissioner shall develop grant diversion processes for recipients of aid to families with dependent children general assistance and work readiness assistance payments and shall supervise the counties in the administration of the employment and training services to meet the needs and circumstances of public assistance these recipients. A grant diversion program that places general assistance and work readiness recipients in public sector employment must operate as a community investment program under section 268.90.

Sec. 69. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 268.871, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [RESPONSIBILITY AND CERTIFICATION.] (a) Unless prohibited by federal law or otherwise determined by state law, a local service unit is responsible for the delivery of employment and training services. After February 1, 1988, employment and training services must be delivered by certified employment and training service providers.

(b) The local service unit's employment and training service provider must meet the certification standards in this subdivision in order to be certified to deliver any of the following employment and training services and programs: wage subsidies; work readiness; work readiness and general assistance grant diversion; food stamp employment and training programs; community work experience programs; AFDC job search; AFDC grant diversion; AFDC on-the-job training; and AFDC case management.

(c) The commissioner shall certify a local service unit's service provider to provide these employment and training services and programs if the commissioner determines that the provider has:

(1) past experience in direct delivery of the programs specified in paragraph (b);

(2) staff capabilities and qualifications, including adequate staff to provide timely and effective services to clients, and proven staff experience in providing specific services such as assessments, career planning, job development, job placement, support services, and knowledge of community services and educational resources;

(3) demonstrated effectiveness in providing services to public assistance recipients and other economically disadvantaged clients; and

(4) demonstrated administrative capabilities, including adequate fiscal and accounting procedures, financial management systems, participant data systems, and record retention procedures.

(d) When the only service provider that meets the criterion in paragraph (c), clause (1), has been decertified, pursuant to subdivision 1a, in that local service unit, the following criteria shall be substituted: past experience in direct delivery of multiple, coordinated, nonduplicative services, including outreach, assessments, identification of client barriers, employability development plans, and provision or referral to support services.

Employment and training service providers shall be certified by the commissioner for two fiscal years beginning July 1, 1991, and every second year thereafter.

Sec. 70. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 268.871, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 1a. [DECERTIFICATION.] (a) The department, on its own initiative, or at the request of the local service unit, shall begin decertification processes for employment and training service providers who:

(1) no longer meet one or more of the certification standards;

(2) are delivering services in a manner that does not comply with the Family Support Act of 1988, Public Law Number 100-485 or relevant state law after corrective actions have been cited, technical assistance has been provided, and a reasonable period of time for remedial action has been provided; or

(3) are not complying with other state and federal laws or policy which are necessary for effective delivery of services.

(b) The initiating of decertification processes shall not result in decertification of the service provider unless and until adequate fact-finding and investigation has been performed by the department.

Sec. 71. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 268.871, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [CONTRACTING PREFERENCE RESPONSIBILITY.] In contracting, A local service unit must give preference, whenever possible, to contract with certified employment and training service providers that can effectively coordinate federal, state, and local employment and training services; that can maximize use of available federal and other nonstate funds; and that have demonstrated the ability to serve achieve effective results in serving public assistance clients as well as other unemployed people.

Sec. 72. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 268.88, is amended to read:

268.88 [LOCAL SERVICE UNIT PLANS.]

(a) Local service units shall prepare and submit to the commissioner by April 15 of each year 1990 an annual plan for the subsequent fiscal year. By April 15, 1991, and by April 15 of each second year thereafter, local service units shall prepare and submit to the commissioner a plan that covers the next two state fiscal years. The commissioner shall notify each local service unit within 60 days of receipt of its plan that the plan has been approved or disapproved. The plan must include:

(1) a statement of objectives for the employment and training services the local service unit administers;

(2) the establishment of public assistance caseload reduction goals and the strategies and programs that will be used to achieve these goals;

(3) a statement of whether the goals from the preceding year were met and an explanation if the local service unit failed to meet the goals;

(4) the amount proposed to be allocated to each employment and training service;

(5) the proposed types of employment and training services the local service unit plans to utilize;

(6) a description of how the local service unit will use funds provided under section 256.736 to meet the requirements of that section. The description must include the two work programs required by section 256.736, subdivision 10, paragraph (a), clause (13), what services will be provided, number of clients served, per service expenditures, type of clients served, and projected outcomes;

(7) a report on the use of wage subsidies, grant diversions, community investment programs, and other services administered under this chapter;

(8) an annual update of the community investment program plan according to standards established by the commissioner;

(9) a performance review of the employment and training service providers delivering employment and training services for the local service unit;

(10) (9) a copy of any contract between the local service unit and an employment and training service provider including expected outcomes and service levels for public assistance clients; and

(11) (10) a copy of any other agreements between educational institutions, family support services, and child care providers.

(b) In counties with a city of the first class, the county and the city shall develop and submit a joint plan. The plan may not be submitted until agreed to by both the city and the county. The plan must provide for the direct allocation of employment and training money to the city and the county unless waived by either. If the county and the city cannot concur on a plan, the commissioner shall resolve their dispute. In counties in which a federally recognized Indian tribe is operating an employment and training program under an agreement with the commissioner of human services, the plan must provide that the county will coordinate its employment and training programs, including developing a system for referrals, sanctions, and the provision of supporting services such as access to child care funds and transportation with programs operated by the Indian tribe. The plan may not be given final approval by the commissioner until the tribal unit and county have submitted written agreement on these provisions in the plan. If the county and Indian tribe cannot agree on these provisions, the local service unit shall notify the commissioner of jobs and training and the commissioners of jobs and training and human services shall resolve the dispute.

(c) The commissioner may withhold the distribution of employment and training money from a local service unit that does not submit a plan to the commissioner by the date set by this section, and shall withhold the distribution of employment and training money from a local service unit whose plan has been disapproved by the commissioner until an acceptable amended plan has been submitted.

(d) Notwithstanding Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 268.88, local service units shall prepare and submit to the commissioner by June 1, 1989, an annual plan for fiscal year 1990. The commissioner shall notify each local service unit within 30 days of receipt of its plan if its plan has been approved or disapproved. Beginning April 15, 1992, and by April 15 of each second year thereafter, local service units must prepare and submit to the commissioner an interim year plan update that deals with performance in that state fiscal year and changes anticipated for the second year of the biennium. The update must include information about employment and training programs addressed in the local service unit's two-year plan and shall be completed in accordance with criteria established by the commissioner.

Sec. 73. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 268.881, is amended to read:

268.881 [INDIAN TRIBE PLANS.]

The commissioner, in consultation with the commissioner of human services, shall review and comment on Indian tribe plans submitted to the commissioner for provision of employment and training services. The plan must be submitted by April 15 for the state fiscal year ending June 30, 1990. For subsequent years, the plan must be submitted at least 60 days before the program commences. The commissioner shall approve or disapprove the plan for the state fiscal year ending June 30, 1990, within 30 days of receipt. The commissioner shall notify the Indian tribe of approval or disapproval of plans for subsequent years within 60 days of submission of the plans. The grant proposal must contain information that has been established by the commissioner and the commissioner of human services for the employment and training services grant program for Indian tribes.

(a) The commissioner, in consultation with the commissioner of human services, shall review and comment on Indian tribe plans submitted to the commissioner for provision of employment and training services. Beginning April 15, 1991, and by April 15 of each second year thereafter, the Indian tribe shall prepare and submit to the commissioner a plan that covers the next two state fiscal years. Beginning April 15, 1992, and by April 15 of each second year thereafter, the Indian tribe shall prepare and submit to the commissioner an interim year plan update that deals with performance during the past state fiscal year and that covers changes anticipated for the second year of the biennium. The commissioner shall notify the Indian tribe of approval or disapproval of the plans and updates for existing programs within 60 days of submission.

(b) A plan for a new tribal program must be submitted at least 45 days before the program is to commence. The commissioner shall approve or disapprove the plan for new programs within 30 days of receipt.

(c) The tribal plan and update must contain information that has been established by the commissioner and the commissioner of human services for the tribal employment and training service program.

(d) The commissioner may recommend to the commissioner of human services withholding the distribution of employment and training money from a tribe whose plan or update is disapproved by the commissioner or a tribe that does not submit a plan or update by the date established in this section.

Sec. 74. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 268.90, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. Community investment programs provide temporary employment to people who are experiencing prolonged unemployment and economic hardship. Community investment programs consist of one or more projects. Community investment programs must be beneficial to the state and the communities in which they are located and must provide program employees participants with training and work experience that will enhance their employability. The projects must include activities that:

- (1) expand or improve services, including education, health, social services, recreation, and safety;
- (2) improve or maintain natural resources, including rivers, streams and lakes, forest lands and roads, and soil conservation;
- (3) make permanent improvements to lands and buildings; or
- (4) weatherize public buildings and private residential dwellings.

Community investment programs may not include job placements that replace work that was part or all of the duties or responsibilities of an authorized public employee position established as of January 1, 1985.

Community investment programs that include other sources of money or authorized programs may provide employment for the groups eligible for the included programs under the terms and conditions of those programs. These programs include the Minnesota conservation corps, Minnesota summer youth program, county emergency jobs program, and the jobs training partnership act.

Sec. 75. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 268.90, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [COMMISSIONER OF JOBS AND TRAINING.] The commissioner shall:

- (1) Make emergency or permanent rules governing plan content, criteria for approval, and administrative standards;
- (2) refer community investment program administrators to the appropriate state agency for technical assistance in developing and administering community investment programs;
- (3) establish the method by which community investment programs will be approved or disapproved through the community investment program plan and the annual update component of the county plan;
- (4) review and comment on community investment program plans;
- (5) institute ongoing methods to monitor and evaluate community investment programs; and
- (6) ~~inform~~ consult with the commissioner of human services of on the counties that do not have an approved plan approval of county plans for community investment programs relating to the participation of public assistance recipients.

Sec. 76. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 268.90, subdivision 4, is amended to read:

Subd. 4. [COUNTY BOARDS OF COMMISSIONERS.] The county boards of commissioners shall:

(1) be encouraged to establish community investment programs that are administered jointly according to section 471.59, or through multicounty human service boards under chapter 402;

(2) develop community investment programs in consultation with the exclusive representatives of their employees;

(3) plan community investment programs by involving nonprofit organizations and other governmental units, community action agencies, community-based organizations, local union representatives, and representatives of client groups;

(4) submit to the commissioner a community investment program plan identifying the program funding source and amount, before the initiation of a community investment program, for approval according to standards established by the commissioner;

(5) plan community investment projects that, whenever possible, utilize existing programs that are administered under contract by nonprofit organizations and governmental units, including departments and agencies of cities, counties, towns, school districts, state and federal agencies, park reserve districts, and other special districts;

(6) include in their local service unit plans an annual update to their community investment program plans for approval according to standards established by the commissioner;

(7) submit reports and meet administrative standards established by ~~rule~~ the commissioner;

(8) monitor the performance of entities under contract to administer individual community investment projects;

(9) enter into contracts with other governmental and private bodies to jointly fund or jointly administer approvable projects when agreements expand the resources available, the scope of people employed, or further recognized public purposes; and

(10) be encouraged to enter into contracts with businesses or individuals for eligible projects under subdivision 1 and charge a fee for the completion of a project.

Sec. 77. [INSTRUCTION TO REVISOR.]

In the next edition of Minnesota Statutes, the revisor of statutes shall substitute the phrase "target group," "target groups," "targeted caretaker," or "targeted caretakers" for the phrases "priority group," "priority groups," "priority caretaker," or "priority caretakers wherever it appears in Minnesota Statutes, section 256.736. The revisor of statutes shall also substitute the phrase "county agency" or "county agencies" for the phrase "local agency" or "local agencies" wherever it appears in Minnesota Statutes, chapters 256 and 256D.

Sec. 78. [REPEALER.]

Subdivision 1. [AFDC PROGRAM.] Minnesota Statutes 1988, sections 256.736, subdivisions 1b, 2a, 8, and 17; and 256.7365, subdivision 8, are repealed.

Subd. 2. [GENERAL ASSISTANCE.] Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 256D.06, subdivision 1c, is repealed.

Subd. 3. [JOBS AND TRAINING.] Minnesota Statutes 1988, sections 268.672, subdivision 12; 268.86, subdivision 9; and 268.872, subdivision 3, are repealed.

Subd. 4. [CHILD CARE.] Minnesota Statutes 1988, sections 256H.01, subdivision 14, and 256H.16, are repealed. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 256H.05, subdivisions 1, 1a, and 3a, are repealed.

Sec. 79. [EFFECTIVE DATE.]

Sections 18, 20 to 22; 24 to 30; and 78, subdivision 2, are effective October 1, 1990.

ARTICLE 5
MENTAL HEALTH

Section 1. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 245.467, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [DIAGNOSTIC ASSESSMENT.] All providers of residential, acute care hospital inpatient, and regional treatment centers must complete a diagnostic assessment for each of their clients within five days of admission. Providers of outpatient and day treatment services must complete a diagnostic assessment within ten five days after the adult's second visit or within 30 days of admission after intake, whichever occurs first. In cases where a diagnostic assessment is available and has been completed within 90 180 days preceding admission, only updating is necessary. "Updating" means a written summary by a mental health professional of the adult's current mental health status and service needs. If the adult's mental health status has changed markedly since the adult's most recent diagnostic assessment, a new diagnostic assessment is required. Compliance with the provisions of this subdivision does not ensure eligibility for medical assistance or general assistance medical care reimbursement under chapters 256B and 256D.

Sec. 2. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 245.467, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [INDIVIDUAL TREATMENT PLANS.] All providers of outpatient services, day treatment services, residential treatment, acute care hospital inpatient treatment, and all regional treatment centers must develop an individual treatment plan for each of their adult clients. The individual treatment plan must be based on a diagnostic assessment. To the extent possible, the adult client shall be involved in all phases of developing and implementing the individual treatment plan. Providers of residential treatment and acute care hospital inpatient treatment, and all regional treatment centers must develop the individual treatment plan must be developed within ten days of client intake and reviewed must review the individual treatment plan every 90 days thereafter after intake. Providers of outpatient services and day treatment services must develop the individual treatment plan within 30 days after the diagnostic assessment is completed or obtained, or within 15 days after the first outpatient or day treatment services are provided, whichever occurs first. Outpatient and day treatment services providers must review the individual treatment plan every 90 days after intake.

Sec. 3. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 245.469, is amended to read:

245.469 [EMERGENCY SERVICES.]

Subdivision 1. [AVAILABILITY OF EMERGENCY SERVICES.] By July 1, 1988, county boards must provide or contract for enough emergency services within the county to meet the needs of adults in the county who are experiencing an emotional crisis or mental illness. Clients may be required to pay a fee according to section 245.481. Emergency services must include assessment, crisis intervention, and appropriate case disposition. Emergency services must:

- (1) promote the safety and emotional stability of adults with mental illness or emotional crises;
- (2) minimize further deterioration of adults with mental illness or emotional crises;
- (3) help adults with mental illness or emotional crises to obtain ongoing care and treatment; and
- (4) prevent placement in settings that are more intensive, costly, or restrictive than necessary and appropriate to meet client needs.

Subd. 2. [SPECIFIC REQUIREMENTS.] The county board shall require that all service providers of emergency services to adults with mental illness provide immediate direct access to a mental health professional during regular business hours. For evenings, weekends, and holidays, the service may be by direct toll free telephone access to a mental health professional, a mental health practitioner, or until January 1, 1991, a designated person with training in human services who receives clinical supervision from a mental health professional. The commissioner may waive the requirement that the evening, weekend, and holiday service be provided by a mental health professional or mental health practitioner after January 1, 1991, if the county documents that:

- (1) mental health professionals or mental health practitioners are unavailable to provide this service;
- (2) services are provided by a designated person with training in human services who receives clinical supervision from a mental health professional; and
- (3) the service provider is not also the provider of fire and public safety emergency services.

Whenever emergency service during nonbusiness hours is provided by anyone other than a mental health professional, a mental health professional must be available for at least telephone consultation within 30 minutes.

Sec. 4. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 245.4711, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

245.4711 [CASE MANAGEMENT AND COMMUNITY SUPPORT SERVICES.]

Subdivision 1. [AVAILABILITY OF CASE MANAGEMENT SERVICES.] (a) By January 1, 1989, the county board shall provide case management ~~activities~~ services for all adults with serious and persistent mental illness ~~residing in~~ who are residents of the county and who request or consent to the services and to each adult for whom the court appoints a case manager. Staffing ratios must be sufficient to serve the needs of the clients. The case manager must meet the requirements in section 245.462, subdivision 4.

(b) Case management services provided to adults with serious and persistent mental illness eligible for medical assistance must be billed to the medical assistance program under sections 256B.02, subdivision 8, and 256B.0625.

Sec. 5. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 245.4711, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [NOTIFICATION AND DETERMINATION OF CASE MANAGEMENT ELIGIBILITY.] (a) The county board shall notify the ~~client~~ adult of the ~~person's~~ adult's potential eligibility for case management services within five working days after receiving a request from an individual or a referral from a provider under section 245.467, subdivision 4. The county board shall send a written notice to the ~~client~~ adult and the ~~client's~~ adult's representative, if any, that identifies the designated case management providers.

(b) The county board must determine whether an adult who requests or is referred for case management services meets the criteria of section 245.462, subdivision 20, paragraph (c). If a diagnostic assessment is needed to make the determination, the county board shall offer to assist the adult in obtaining a diagnostic assessment. The county board shall notify, in writing, the adult and the adult's representative, if any, of the eligibility determination. If the adult is determined to be eligible for case management services, the county board shall refer the adult to the case management provider for case management services. If the adult is determined not to be eligible or refuses case management services, the local agency shall offer to refer the adult to a mental health provider or other appropriate service provider and to assist the adult in making an appointment with the provider of the adult's choice.

Sec. 6. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 245.4711, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [DUTIES OF CASE MANAGER.] (a) The case manager shall promptly arrange for a diagnostic assessment of the applicant when one is not available as described in section 245.467, subdivision 2, to determine the applicant's eligibility as an adult with serious and persistent mental illness for community support services. The county board shall notify in writing the applicant and the applicant's representative, if any, if the applicant is determined ineligible for community support services.

(b) Upon a determination of eligibility for community support case management services, and if the adult consents to the services, the case manager shall complete a written functional assessment according to section 245.462, subdivision 11a. The case manager shall develop an individual community support plan for an the adult according to subdivision 4, paragraph (a), review the client's adult's progress, and monitor the provision of services. If services are to be provided in a host county that is not the county of financial responsibility, the case manager shall consult with the host county and obtain a letter demonstrating the concurrence of the host county regarding the provision of services.

Sec. 7. [245.4712] [COMMUNITY SUPPORT AND DAY TREATMENT SERVICES.]

Subdivision 1. [AVAILABILITY OF COMMUNITY SUPPORT SERVICES.] County boards must provide or contract for sufficient community support services within the county to meet the needs of adults with serious and persistent mental illness who are residents of the county. Adults may be required to pay a fee according to section 245.481. The community support services program must be designed to improve the ability of adults with serious and persistent mental illness to:

- (1) work in a regular or supported work environment;
- (2) handle basic activities of daily living;
- (3) participate in leisure time activities;
- (4) set goals and plans; and
- (5) obtain and maintain appropriate living arrangements.

The community support services program must also be designed to reduce the need for and use of more intensive, costly, or restrictive placements both in number of admissions and length of stay.

Subd. 2. [DAY TREATMENT SERVICES PROVIDED.] (a) Day treatment services must be developed as a part of the community support services available to adults with serious and persistent mental illness residing in the county. Adults may be required to pay a fee according to section 245.481. Day treatment services must be designed to:

- (1) provide a structured environment for treatment;
- (2) provide support for residing in the community;
- (3) prevent placement in settings that are more intensive, costly, or restrictive than necessary and appropriate to meet client need;
- (4) coordinate with or be offered in conjunction with a local education agency's special education program; and
- (5) operate on a continuous basis throughout the year.

(b) County boards may request a waiver from including day treatment services if they can document that:

- (1) an alternative plan of care exists through the county's community support services for clients who would otherwise need day treatment services;
- (2) day treatment, if included, would be duplicative of other components of the community support services; and
- (3) county demographics and geography make the provision of day treatment services cost ineffective and infeasible.

Subd. 3. [BENEFITS ASSISTANCE.] The county board must offer to help adults with serious and persistent mental illness in applying for state and federal benefits, including supplemental security income, medical assistance, Medicare, general assistance, general assistance medical care, and Minnesota supplemental aid. The help must be offered as part of the community support program available to adults with serious and persistent mental illness for whom the county is financially responsible and who may qualify for these benefits.

Sec. 8. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 245.474, is amended to read:

245.474 [REGIONAL TREATMENT CENTER INPATIENT SERVICES.]

Subdivision 1. [AVAILABILITY OF REGIONAL TREATMENT CENTER INPATIENT SERVICES.] By July 1, 1987, the commissioner shall make sufficient regional treatment center inpatient services available to adults with mental illness throughout the state who need this level of care. Services must be as close to the patient's county of residence as possible. Regional treatment centers are responsible to:

- (1) provide acute care inpatient hospitalization;
- (2) stabilize the medical and mental health condition of the adult requiring the admission;
- (2) (3) improve functioning to the point where discharge to community-based mental health services is possible;
- (3) (4) strengthen family and community support; and
- (4) (5) facilitate appropriate discharge and referrals for follow-up mental health care in the community.

Subd. 2. [QUALITY OF SERVICE.] The commissioner shall biennially determine the needs of all adults with mental illness who are served by regional treatment centers by administering a client-based evaluation system. The client-based evaluation system must include at least the following independent measurements: behavioral development assessment; habilitation program assessment; medical needs assessment; maladaptive behavioral assessment; and vocational behavior assessment. The commissioner shall propose staff ratios to the legislature for the mental health and support units in regional treatment centers as indicated by the results of the client-based evaluation system and the types of state-operated services needed. The proposed staffing ratios shall include professional, nursing, direct care, medical, clerical, and support staff based on the client-based evaluation system. The commissioner shall recompute staffing ratios and recommendations on a biennial basis.

Subd. 3. [TRANSITION TO COMMUNITY.] Regional treatment centers must plan for and assist clients in making a transition from regional treatment centers to other community-based services. In coordination with the client's case manager, if any, regional treatment centers must also arrange for appropriate follow-up care in the community during the transition period. Before a client is discharged, the regional treatment center must notify the client's case manager, so that the case manager can monitor and coordinate the transition and arrangements for the client's appropriate follow-up care in the community.

Sec. 9. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 245.487, subdivision 5, is amended to read:

Subd. 5. [CONTINUATION OF EXISTING MENTAL HEALTH SERVICES FOR CHILDREN.] Counties shall make available case management, community support services, and day treatment to children eligible to receive these services under Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 245.471. No later than August 1, 1989, the county board shall notify providers in the local system of care of their obligations to refer children eligible for case management and community support services as of January 1, 1989. The county board shall forward a copy of this notice to the commissioner. The notice shall indicate which children are eligible, a description of the services, and the name of the county employee designated to coordinate case management activities and shall include a copy of the plain language notification described in section 245.4881, subdivision 2, paragraph (b). Providers shall distribute copies of this notification when making a referral for case management.

Sec. 10. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 245.4871, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [CASE MANAGEMENT SERVICES.] “Case management services” means activities that are coordinated with the family community support services and are designed to help the child with severe emotional disturbance and the child’s family obtain needed mental health services, social services, educational services, health services, vocational services, recreational services, and related services in the areas of volunteer services, advocacy, transportation, and legal services. Case management services include obtaining a comprehensive diagnostic assessment, assisting in obtaining a comprehensive diagnostic assessment, if needed, developing a functional assessment, developing an individual family community support plan, and assisting the child and the child’s family in obtaining needed services by coordination with other agencies and assuring continuity of care. Case managers must assess and reassess the delivery, appropriateness, and effectiveness of these services over time.

Sec. 11. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 245.4873, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [STATE LEVEL; COORDINATION.] The commissioners or designees of commissioners of the departments of human services, health, education, state planning, and corrections, and a representative of the Minnesota district judges association juvenile committee, in conjunction with the commissioner of commerce or a designee of the commissioner, shall meet at least quarterly ~~through~~ 1992 to:

- (1) educate each agency about the policies, procedures, funding, and services for children with emotional disturbances of all agencies represented;
- (2) develop mechanisms for interagency coordination on behalf of children with emotional disturbances;
- (3) identify barriers including policies and procedures within all agencies represented that interfere with delivery of mental health services for children;

(4) recommend policy and procedural changes needed to improve development and delivery of mental health services for children in the agency or agencies they represent;

(5) identify mechanisms for better use of federal and state funding in the delivery of mental health services for children; and

(6) until February 15, 1992, prepare an annual report on the policy and procedural changes needed to implement a coordinated, effective, and cost-efficient children's mental health delivery system.

This report shall be submitted to the legislature and the state mental health advisory council annually until February 15, 1992, as part of the report required under section 245.487, subdivision 4. The report shall include information from each department represented on:

(1) the number of children in each department's system who require mental health services;

(2) the number of children in each system who receive mental health services;

(3) how mental health services for children are funded within each system;

(4) how mental health services for children could be coordinated to provide more effectively appropriate mental health services for children; and

(5) recommendations for the provision of early screening and identification of mental illness in each system.

Sec. 12. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 245.4874, is amended to read:

245.4874 [DUTIES OF COUNTY BOARD.]

The county board in each county shall use its share of mental health and community social service act funds allocated by the commissioner according to a biennial local children's mental health service proposal required under section 245.4887, and approved by the commissioner. The county board must:

(1) develop a system of affordable and locally available children's mental health services according to sections 245.487 to 245.4887;

(2) establish a central point of information and referral about children's mental health services and assure that parents and providers in the county receive information about how to access services provided according to sections 245.487 to 245.4887;

(3) coordinate the delivery of children's mental health services with services provided by social services, education, corrections, health, and vocational agencies to improve the availability of mental health services to children and the cost effectiveness of their delivery;

(3) (4) assure that mental health services delivered according to sections 245.487 to 245.4887 are delivered expeditiously and are appropriate to the child's diagnostic assessment and individual treatment plan;

(4) (5) provide the community with information about predictors and symptoms of emotional disturbances and how to access children's mental health services according to sections 245.4877 and 245.4878;

(5) (6) provide for case management services to each child with severe emotional disturbance according to sections 245.486; 245.4871, subdivisions 3 and 4; and 245.4881, subdivisions 1, 3, and 5;

(6) (7) provide for screening of each child under section 245.4885 upon admission to a residential treatment facility, acute care hospital inpatient treatment, or informal admission to a regional treatment center;

(7) (8) prudently administer grants and purchase-of-service contracts that the county board determines are necessary to fulfill its responsibilities under sections 245.487 to 245.4887;

(8) (9) assure that mental health professionals, mental health practitioners, and case managers employed by or under contract to the county to provide mental health services are qualified under section 245.4871; and

(9) (10) assure that children's mental health services are coordinated with adult mental health services specified in sections 245.461 to 245.486 so that a continuum of mental health services is available to serve persons with mental illness, regardless of the person's age.

Sec. 13. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 245.4875, subdivision 5, is amended to read:

Subd. 5. [LOCAL CHILDREN'S ADVISORY COUNCIL.] (a) By

October 1, 1989, the county board, individually or in conjunction with other county boards, shall establish a local children's mental health advisory council or children's mental health subcommittee of the existing local mental health advisory council or shall include persons on its existing mental health advisory council who are representatives of children's mental health interests. The following individuals must serve on the local children's mental health advisory council, the children's mental health subcommittee of an existing local mental health advisory council, or be included on an existing mental health advisory council: (1) at least one person who was in a mental health program as a child or adolescent; (2) at least one parent of a child or adolescent with severe emotional disturbance; (3) one children's mental health professional; (4) representatives of minority populations of significant size residing in the county; (5) a representative of the children's mental health local coordinating council; and (6) one family community support services program representative.

(b) The local children's mental health advisory council or children's mental health subcommittee of an existing advisory council shall seek input from parents, former consumers, providers, and others about the needs of children with emotional disturbance in the local area and services needed by families of these children, and shall meet at least quarterly monthly to review, evaluate, and make recommendations regarding the local children's mental health system. Annually, the local children's mental health advisory council or children's mental health subcommittee of the existing local mental health advisory council shall:

(1) arrange for input from the local system of care providers regarding coordination of care between the services; and

(2) identify for the county board the individuals, providers, agencies, and associations as specified in section 245.4877, clause (2).

(c) The county board shall consider the advice of its local children's mental health advisory council or children's mental health subcommittee of the existing local mental health advisory council in carrying out its authorities and responsibilities.

Sec. 14. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 245.4876, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [DIAGNOSTIC ASSESSMENT.] All residential treatment facilities and acute care hospital inpatient treatment services facilities that provide mental health services for children must complete a diagnostic assessment for each of their child clients within five working days of admission. Providers of outpatient and day treatment services for children must complete a diagnostic assessment within ten working days of admission five days after the child's second visit or 30 days after intake, whichever occurs first. In cases where a diagnostic assessment is available and has been completed within 90 180 days preceding admission, only updating is necessary. "Updating" means a written summary by a mental health professional of the child's current mental health status and service needs. If the child's mental health status has changed markedly since the child's most recent diagnostic assessment, a new diagnostic assessment is required. Compliance with the provisions of this subdivision does not ensure eligibility for medical assistance or general assistance medical care reimbursement under chapters 256B and 256D.

Sec. 15. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 245.4876, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [INDIVIDUAL TREATMENT PLANS.] All providers of outpatient services, day treatment services, family community support services, professional home-based family treatment, residential treatment facilities, and acute care hospital inpatient treatment facilities, and all regional treatment centers that provide mental health facilities services for children must develop an individual treatment plan for each child client. The individual treatment plan must be based on a diagnostic assessment. To the extent appropriate, the child and the child's family shall be involved in all phases of developing and implementing the individual treatment plan. Providers of residential treatment, professional home-based family treatment, and acute care hospital inpatient treatment, and regional treatment centers must develop the individual treatment plan must be developed within ten working days of client intake or admission and reviewed must review the individual treatment plan every 90 days after that date intake, except that the administrative review of the treatment plan of a child placed in a residential facility shall be as specified in section 257.071, subdivisions 2 and 4. Providers of outpatient services and day treatment services must develop the individual treatment plan within 30 days after the diagnostic assessment is completed or within 15 days after the first outpatient or day treatment services are provided, whichever occurs first. Providers of outpatient and day treatment services must review the individual treatment plan every 90 days after intake.

Sec. 16. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 245.4876, subdivision 4, is amended to read:

Subd. 4. [REFERRAL FOR CASE MANAGEMENT.] Each provider of emergency services, outpatient treatment, community support services, family community support services, day treatment services, screening under section 245.4885, professional home-based family treatment services, residential treatment facilities, acute care hospital inpatient treatment facilities, or regional treatment center services must inform each child with severe emotional disturbance, and the child's parent or legal representative, of the availability and potential benefits to the child of case management.

The information shall be provided as specified in subdivision 5. If consent is obtained according to subdivision 5, the provider must refer the child by notifying the county employee designated by the county board to coordinate case management activities of the child's name and address and by informing the child's family of whom to contact to request case management. The provider must document compliance with this subdivision in the child's record. The parent or child may directly request case management even if there has been no referral.

Sec. 17. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 245.4879, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [AVAILABILITY OF EMERGENCY SERVICES.] County boards must provide or contract for enough mental health emergency services within the county to meet the needs of children, and children's families when clinically appropriate, in the county who are experiencing an emotional crisis or emotional disturbance.

The county board shall ensure that parents, providers, and county residents are informed about when and how to access emergency mental health services for children. A child or the child's parent may be required to pay a fee according to section 245.481. Emergency service providers shall not delay the timely provision of emergency service because of delays in determining this fee or because of the unwillingness or inability of the parent to pay the fee. Emergency services must include assessment, crisis intervention, and appropriate case disposition. Emergency services must:

- (1) promote the safety and emotional stability of children with emotional disturbances or emotional crises;
- (2) minimize further deterioration of the child with emotional disturbance or emotional crisis;
- (3) help each child with an emotional disturbance or emotional crisis to obtain ongoing care and treatment; and
- (4) prevent placement in settings that are more intensive, costly, or restrictive than necessary and appropriate to meet the child's needs.

Subd. 2. [SPECIFIC REQUIREMENTS.] The county board shall require that all service providers of emergency services to the child with an emotional disturbance provide immediate direct access to a mental health professional during regular business hours. For evenings, weekends, and holidays, the service may be by direct toll-free telephone access to a mental health professional, a mental health practitioner, or until January 1, 1991, a designated person with training in human services who receives clinical supervision from a mental health professional. The commissioner may waive the requirement that the evening, weekend, and holiday service be provided by a mental health professional or mental health practitioner after January 1, 1991, if the county documents that:

(1) mental health professionals or mental health practitioners are unavailable to provide this service;

(2) services are provided by a designated person with training in human services who receives clinical supervision from a mental health professional; and

(3) the service provider is not also the provider of fire and public safety emergency services.

When emergency service during nonbusiness hours is provided by anyone other than a mental health professional, a mental health professional must be available for at least telephone consultation within 30 minutes.

Sec. 18. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 245.4881, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [AVAILABILITY OF CASE MANAGEMENT SERVICES.] (a) By July 1, 1991, the county board shall provide case management activities services for each child with severe emotional disturbance residing in who is a resident of the county and the child's family who request or consent to the services. Staffing ratios must be sufficient to serve the needs of the clients. The case manager must meet the requirements in section 245.4871, subdivision 4.

(b) Case management services provided to children with severe emotional disturbance eligible for medical assistance must be billed to the medical assistance program under sections 256B.02, subdivision 8, and 256B.0625.

Sec. 19. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 245.4881, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [NOTIFICATION AND DETERMINATION OF CASE MANAGEMENT ELIGIBILITY.] (a) The county board shall notify, as appropriate, the child, child's parent, or child's legal representative of the child's potential eligibility for case management services within five working days after receiving a request from an individual or a referral from a provider under section 245.4876, subdivision 4.

(b) The county board shall send a notification written in plain language of potential eligibility for case management and family community support services. The notification shall identify the designated case management providers and shall contain:

(1) a brief description of case management and family community support services;

(2) the potential benefits of these services;

(3) the identity and current phone number of the county employee designated to coordinate case management activities;

(4) an explanation of how to obtain county assistance in obtaining a diagnostic assessment, if needed; and

(5) an explanation of the appeal process.

The county board shall send a written notice that identifies the designated case management providers. The county board shall send the notice, as appropriate, to the child, the child's parent, or the child's legal representative, if any.

(c) The county board must promptly determine whether a child who requests or is referred for case management services meets the criteria of section 245.4871, subdivision 6 or section 245.471. If a diagnostic assessment is needed to make the determination, the county board must offer to assist the child and the child's family in obtaining one. The county board shall notify, in writing, the child and the child's representative, if any, of the eligibility determination. If the child is determined to be eligible for case management services, and if the child and the child's family consent to the services, the county board shall refer the child to the case management provider for case management services. If the child is determined not to be eligible or refuses case management services, the county board shall notify the child of the appeal process and shall offer to refer the child to a mental health provider or other appropriate service provider and to assist the child in making an appointment with the provider of the child's choice.

Sec. 20. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 245.4881, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [DUTIES OF CASE MANAGER.] (a) The case manager shall promptly arrange for a diagnostic assessment of the child when one is not available as described in section 245.4876, subdivision 2, to determine the child's eligibility as a child with severe emotional disturbance for family community support services. The county board shall notify in writing, as appropriate, the child, the child's parent, or the child's legal representative, if any, if the child is determined ineligible for family community support services.

(b) Upon a determination of eligibility for family support case management services, the case manager shall complete a written functional assessment according to section 245.4871, subdivision 18. The case manager shall develop an individual family community support plan for a child as specified in subdivision 4, review the child's progress, and monitor the provision of services. If services are to be provided in a host county that is not the county of financial responsibility, the case manager shall consult with the host county and obtain a letter demonstrating the concurrence of the host county regarding the provision of services.

(b) The case manager shall perform a functional assessment and note in the client's child's record the services needed by the child and the child's family, the services requested by the family, services that are not available, and the unmet needs of the child and family's unmet needs child's family. The information required under section 245.4886 shall be provided in writing to the child and the child's family. The case manager shall note this provision in the client child's record.

Sec. 21. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 245.4881, subdivision 4, is amended to read:

Subd. 4. [INDIVIDUAL FAMILY COMMUNITY SUPPORT PLAN.] (a) For each child, the case manager must develop an individual family community support plan that incorporates the child's individual treatment plan. The individual treatment plan may not be a substitute for the development of an individual family community support plan. The case manager is responsible for developing the individual family community support plan within 30 days of intake based on a diagnostic assessment and a functional assessment and for implementing and monitoring the delivery of services according to the individual family community support plan. The case manager must review the plan every 90 calendar days after it is developed. To the extent appropriate, the child with severe emotional disturbance, the child's family, advocates, service providers, and significant others must be involved in all phases of development and implementation of the individual family community support plan. Notwithstanding the lack of a an individual family community support plan, the case manager shall assist the child and child's family in accessing the needed services listed in subdivision 6.

(b) The child's individual family community support plan must state:

(1) the goals and expected outcomes of each service and criteria for evaluating the effectiveness and appropriateness of the service;

(2) the activities for accomplishing each goal;

(3) a schedule for each activity; and

(4) the frequency of face-to-face contacts by the case manager, as appropriate to client need and the implementation of the individual family community support plan.

Sec. 22. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 245.4882, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [AVAILABILITY OF RESIDENTIAL TREATMENT SERVICES.] County boards must provide or contract for enough residential treatment services to meet the needs of each child with severe emotional disturbance residing in the county and needing this level of care. Length of stay is based on the child's residential treatment need and shall be subject to the six-month review process established in section 257.071, subdivisions 2 and 4. Services must be appropriate to the child's age and treatment needs and must be made available as close to the county as possible. Residential treatment must be designed to:

(1) prevent placement in settings that are more intensive, costly, or restrictive than necessary and appropriate to meet the child's needs;

(2) help the child improve family living and social interaction skills;

(3) help the child gain the necessary skills to return to the community;

(4) stabilize crisis admissions; and

(5) work with families throughout the placement to improve the ability of the families to care for children with severe emotional disturbance in the home.

Sec. 23. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 245.4883, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [AVAILABILITY OF ACUTE CARE HOSPITAL INPATIENT SERVICES.] County boards must make available through contract or direct provision enough acute care hospital inpatient treatment services as close to the county as possible for children with severe emotional disturbances residing in the county needing this level of care. Acute care hospital inpatient treatment services must be designed to:

- (1) stabilize the medical and mental health condition for which admission is required;
- (2) improve functioning to the point where discharge to residential treatment or community-based mental health services is possible;
- (3) facilitate appropriate referrals for follow-up mental health care in the community;
- (4) work with families to improve the ability of the families to care for those children with severe emotional disturbances at home; and
- (5) assist families and children in the transition from inpatient services to community-based services or home setting, and provide notification to the child's case manager, if any, so that the case manager can monitor the transition and make timely arrangements for the child's appropriate follow-up care in the community.

Sec. 24. [245.4884] [FAMILY COMMUNITY SUPPORT SERVICES.]

Subdivision 1. [AVAILABILITY OF FAMILY COMMUNITY SUPPORT SERVICES.] By July 1, 1991, county boards must provide or contract for sufficient family community support services within the county to meet the needs of each child with severe emotional disturbance who resides in the county and the child's family. Children or their parents may be required to pay a fee in accordance with section 245.481.

Family community support services must be designed to improve the ability of children with severe emotional disturbance to:

- (1) handle basic activities of daily living;
- (2) improve functioning in school settings;
- (3) participate in leisure time or community youth activities;
- (4) set goals and plans;
- (5) reside with the family in the community;
- (6) participate in after-school and summer activities;
- (7) make a smooth transition among mental health services provided to children; and
- (8) make a smooth transition into the adult mental health system as appropriate.

In addition, family community support services must be designed to improve overall family functioning if clinically appropriate to the child's needs, and to reduce the need for and use of placements more intensive, costly, or restrictive both in the number of admissions and lengths of stay than indicated by the child's diagnostic assessment.

Subd. 2. [DAY TREATMENT SERVICES PROVIDED.] (a) Day treatment services must be part of the family community support services available to each child with severe emotional disturbance residing in the county. A child or the child's parent may be required to pay a fee according to section 245.481. Day treatment services must be designed to:

- (1) provide a structured environment for treatment;
- (2) provide support for residing in the community;
- (3) prevent placements that are more intensive, costly, or restrictive than necessary to meet the child's need;
- (4) coordinate with or be offered in conjunction with the child's education program;
- (5) provide therapy and family intervention for children that are coordinated with education services provided and funded by schools; and
- (6) operate during all 12 months of the year.

(b) County boards may request a waiver from including day treatment services if they can document that:

- (1) alternative services exist through the county's family community support services for each child who would otherwise need day treatment services; and
- (2) county demographics and geography make the provision of day treatment services cost ineffective and unfeasible.

Subd. 3. [PROFESSIONAL HOME-BASED FAMILY TREATMENT PROVIDED.] (a) By January 1, 1991, county boards must provide or contract for sufficient professional home-based family treatment within the county to meet the needs of each child with severe emotional disturbance who is at risk of out-of-home placement due to the child's emotional disturbance or who is returning to the home from out-of-home placement. The child or the child's parent may be required to pay a fee according to section 245.481. The county board shall require that all service providers of professional home-based family treatment set fee schedules approved by the county board that are based on the child's or family's ability to pay. The professional home-based family treatment must be designed to assist each child with severe emotional disturbance who is at risk of or who is returning from out-of-home placement and the child's family to:

- (1) improve overall family functioning in all areas of life;
- (2) treat the child's symptoms of emotional disturbance that contribute to a risk of out-of-home placement;
- (3) provide a positive change in the emotional, behavioral, and mental well-being of children and their families; and
- (4) reduce risk of out-of-home placement for the identified child with severe emotional disturbance and other siblings or successfully reunify and reintegrate into the family a child returning from out-of-home placement due to emotional disturbance.

(b) Professional home-based family treatment must be provided by a team consisting of a mental health professional and others who are skilled in the delivery of mental health services to children and families in conjunction with other human service providers. The professional home-based family treatment team must maintain flexible hours of service availability and must provide or arrange for crisis services for each family, 24 hours a day, seven days a week. Case loads for each professional home-based family treatment team must be small enough to permit the delivery of intensive services and to meet the needs of the family. Professional home-based family treatment providers shall coordinate services and service needs with case managers assigned to children and their families. The treatment team must develop an individual treatment plan that identifies the specific treatment objectives for both the child and the family.

Subd. 4. [THERAPEUTIC SUPPORT OF FOSTER CARE.] By January 1, 1992, county boards must provide or contract for foster care with therapeutic support as defined in section 245.4871, subdivision 34. Foster families caring for children with severe emotional disturbance must receive training and supportive services, as necessary, at no cost to the foster families within the limits of available resources.

Subd. 5. [BENEFITS ASSISTANCE.] The county board must offer help to a child with severe emotional disturbance and the child's family in applying for federal benefits, including supplemental security income, medical assistance, and Medicare.

Sec. 25: Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 245.4885, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [SCREENING REQUIRED.] The county board shall ensure that, upon admission, screen all children ~~are screened upon admission~~ admitted for treatment of severe emotional disturbance to a residential treatment facility, an acute care hospital, or informally admitted to a regional treatment center if public funds are used to pay for the services. If a child is admitted to a residential treatment facility or acute care hospital for emergency treatment of emotional disturbance or held for emergency care by a regional treatment center under section 253B.05, subdivision 1; screening must occur within five working days of admission. Screening shall determine whether the proposed treatment:

- (1) is necessary;
- (2) is appropriate to the child's individual treatment needs;
- (3) cannot be effectively provided in the child's home;
- (4) ~~the~~ provides a length of stay is as short as possible consistent with the individual child's need; and
- (5) ~~the case manager, if assigned, is developing an~~ shall assure that the child, child's family, or child's legal representative, as appropriate, have been informed of the child's eligibility for case management services and that an individual family community support plan is being developed by the case manager, if assigned.

Screening shall be in compliance with section 256F.07 or 257.071, whichever applies. Wherever possible, the parent shall be consulted in the screening process, unless clinically inappropriate.

The screening process and placement decision must be documented in the child's record.

An alternate review process may be approved by the commissioner if the county board demonstrates that an alternate review process has been established by the county board and the times of review, persons responsible for the review, and review criteria are comparable to the standards in clauses (1) to ~~(3)~~ (5).

Sec. 26. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 245.4885, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [QUALIFICATIONS.] No later than January 1, 1992 1991, screening of children for residential and inpatient services must be conducted by a mental health professional. Mental health professionals providing screening for inpatient and residential services must not be financially affiliated with any acute care inpatient hospital, residential treatment facility, or regional treatment center. The commissioner may waive this requirement for mental health professional participation in sparsely populated areas after January 1, 1991, if the county documents that:

(1) mental health professionals or mental health practitioners are unavailable to provide this service; and

(2) services are provided by a designated person with training in human services who receives clinical supervision from a mental health professional.

Sec. 27. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 245.696, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [SPECIFIC DUTIES.] In addition to the powers and duties already conferred by law, the commissioner of human services shall:

(1) review and evaluate local programs and the performance of administrative and mental health personnel and make recommendations to county boards and program administrators;

(2) provide consultative staff service to communities and advocacy groups to assist in ascertaining local needs and in planning and establishing community mental health programs;

(3) employ qualified personnel to implement this chapter;

(4) adopt rules for minimum standards in community mental health services as directed by the legislature;

(5) cooperate with the commissioners of health and jobs and training to coordinate services and programs for people with mental illness;

(6) convene meetings with the commissioners of corrections, health, education, and commerce at least four times each year for the purpose of coordinating services and programs for children with emotional or behavioral disorders;

(7) evaluate the needs of people with mental illness as they relate to assistance payments, medical benefits, nursing home care, and other state and federally funded services;

(8) (7) provide data and other information, as requested, to the advisory council on mental health;

(9) (8) develop and maintain a data collection system to provide information on the prevalence of mental illness, the need for specific mental health services and other services needed by people with mental illness, funding sources for those services, and the extent to which state and local areas are meeting the need for services;

~~(10)~~ (9) apply for grants and develop pilot programs to test and demonstrate new methods of assessing mental health needs and delivering mental health services;

~~(11)~~ (10) study alternative reimbursement systems and make waiver requests that are deemed necessary by the commissioner;

~~(12)~~ (11) provide technical assistance to county boards to improve fiscal management and accountability and quality of mental health services, and consult regularly with county boards, public and private mental health agencies, and client advocacy organizations for purposes of implementing this chapter;

~~(13)~~ (12) promote coordination between the mental health system and other human service systems in the planning, funding, and delivery of services; entering into cooperative agreements with other state and local agencies for that purpose as deemed necessary by the commissioner;

~~(14)~~ (13) conduct research regarding the relative effectiveness of mental health treatment methods as the commissioner deems appropriate, and for this purpose, enter treatment facilities, observe clients, and review records in a manner consistent with the Minnesota government data practices act, chapter 13; and ~~(15)~~ (14) enter into contracts and promulgate rules the commissioner deems necessary to carry out the purposes of this chapter.

Sec. 28. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 245.697, subdivision 2a, is amended to read:

Subd. 2a. [SUBCOMMITTEE ON CHILDREN'S MENTAL HEALTH.] The state advisory council on mental health (the "advisory council") must have a subcommittee on children's mental health. The subcommittee must make recommendations to the advisory council on policies, laws, regulations, and services relating to children's mental health. Members of the subcommittee must include:

(1) the commissioners or designees of the commissioners of the departments of human services, health, education, state planning, finance, and corrections;

(2) the commissioner of commerce or a designee of the commissioner who is knowledgeable about medical insurance issues;

(3) at least one representative of an advocacy group for children with emotional disturbances;

(4) providers of children's mental health services, including at least one provider of services to preadolescent children, one provider of services to adolescents, and one hospital-based provider;

(5) parents of children who have emotional disturbances;

(6) a present or former consumer of adolescent mental health services;

(7) educators currently working with emotionally disturbed children;

(8) people knowledgeable about the needs of emotionally disturbed children of minority races and cultures;

(9) people experienced in working with emotionally disturbed children who have committed status offenses;

(10) members of the advisory council;

(11) one person from the local corrections department and one representative of the Minnesota district judges association juvenile committee; and

(12) county commissioners and social services agency representatives.

The chair of the advisory council shall appoint subcommittee members described in clauses (3) to (11) through the process established in section 15.0597. The chair shall appoint members to ensure a geographical balance on the subcommittee. Terms, compensation, removal, and filling of vacancies are governed by subdivision 1, except that terms of subcommittee members who are also members of the advisory council are coterminous with their terms on the advisory council. The subcommittee shall meet at the call of the subcommittee chair who is elected by the subcommittee from among its members. The subcommittee expires with the expiration of the advisory council.

Sec. 29. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 253B.03, subdivision 6a, is amended to read:

Subd. 6a. [ADMINISTRATION OF NEUROLEPTIC MEDICATIONS.] (a) Neuroleptic medications may be administered to persons committed as mentally ill or mentally ill and dangerous only as described in this subdivision.

(b) A neuroleptic medication may be administered to a patient who is competent to consent to neuroleptic medications ~~only~~ if the patient has given written, informed consent to administration of the neuroleptic medication.

(c) A neuroleptic medication may be administered to a patient who is not competent to consent to neuroleptic medications ~~only~~ if a court approves the administration of the neuroleptic medication ~~or~~.

(d) A neuroleptic medication may be administered without court review to a patient who is not competent to consent to neuroleptic medications if:

(1) the patient does not object to or refuse the medication;

(2) a guardian ad litem appointed by the court with authority to consent to neuroleptic medications gives written, informed consent to the administration of the neuroleptic medication; and

(3) a multidisciplinary treatment review panel composed of persons who are not engaged in providing direct care to the patient gives written approval to administration of the neuroleptic medication.

(e) A neuroleptic medication may be administered without judicial review and without consent in an emergency situation for so long as the emergency continues to exist if the treating physician determines that the medication is necessary to prevent serious, immediate physical harm to the patient or to others and it is impracticable to first obtain consent from the patient. The treatment facility shall document the emergency in the patient's medical record in specific behavioral terms.

(d) (f) A person who consents to treatment pursuant to this subdivision is not civilly or criminally liable for the performance of or the manner of performing the treatment. A person is not liable for performing treatment without consent if written, informed consent was given pursuant to this subdivision. This provision does not affect any other liability that may result from the manner in which the treatment is performed.

(e) (g) The court may allow and order paid to a guardian ad litem a reasonable fee for services provided under paragraph (c), or the court may appoint a volunteer guardian ad litem.

(h) A medical director or patient may petition the committing court, or the court to which venue has been transferred, for a hearing concerning the administration of neuroleptic medication. A hearing may also be held pursuant to section 253B.08, 253B.09, 253B.12, or 253B.18. The hearing concerning the administration of neuroleptic medication must be held within 14 days from the date of the filing of the petition. The court may extend the time for hearing up to an additional 15 days for good cause shown.

Sec. 30. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 253B.17, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [PETITION.] Any patient, except one committed as mentally ill and dangerous to the public, or any interested person may petition the committing court or the court to which venue has been transferred for an order that the patient is not in need of continued institutionalization or for an order that an individual is no longer mentally ill, mentally retarded, or chemically dependent, or for any other relief as the court deems just and equitable. A patient committed as mentally ill or mentally ill and dangerous may petition the committing court or the court to which venue has been transferred for a hearing concerning the administration of neuroleptic medication. A hearing may also be held pursuant to sections 253B.08, 253B.09 and, 253B.12, and 253B.18.

Sec. 31. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 260.151, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. Upon request of the court the county welfare board or probation officer shall investigate the personal and family history and environment of any minor coming within the jurisdiction of the court under section 260.111 and shall report its findings to the court. The court may order any minor coming within its jurisdiction to be examined by a duly qualified physician, psychiatrist, or psychologist appointed by the court and may order a child in need of special treatment for mental illness, chemical dependency, or a developmental disability to be placed in a residential treatment facility in accordance with subdivision 3. With the consent of the commissioner of corrections and agreement of the county to pay the costs thereof, the court may, by order, place a minor coming within its jurisdiction in an institution maintained by the commissioner for the detention, diagnosis, custody and treatment of persons adjudicated to be delinquent, in order that the condition of the minor be given due consideration in the disposition of the case. Adoption investigations shall be conducted in accordance with the laws relating to adoptions. Any funds received under the provisions of this subdivision shall not cancel until the end of the fiscal year immediately following the fiscal year in which the funds were received. The funds are available for use by the commissioner of corrections during that period and are hereby appropriated annually to the commissioner of corrections as reimbursement of the costs of providing these services to the juvenile courts.

Sec. 32. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 260.151, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 3. [JUVENILE TREATMENT SCREENING TEAM.] The county welfare board shall establish a juvenile treatment screening team to conduct screenings and prepare the evaluations, reports, and case plans required by this subdivision. The team shall consist of social workers, juvenile justice professionals, and persons with expertise in the treatment of juveniles who are mentally ill, chemically dependent, or have a developmental disability. The team shall have the following duties:

(a) If the court, prior to final disposition, proposes to place a child in a residential treatment facility out of state or in one which is within the state and licensed by the commissioner of human services under chapter 245A, the screening team must evaluate the child to determine whether residential treatment is necessary. No child may be sent to a residential treatment facility out of state nor held for more than 72 hours in residential treatment within the state, under this paragraph, unless a treatment professional certifies that an emergency requires the placement or unless the screening team has evaluated the child and recommended that the residential placement is the least restrictive alternative available in light of the child's treatment needs and the safety of the community. Where placement is made pursuant to an emergency certification, a screening team evaluation must be made as soon as possible. Unless the screening team recommends continued placement, the child must be released within five days of placement. All screening team recommendations must be supported by a report to be filed with the juvenile court within seven days of the recommendation. The report shall include a professional diagnosis of the child's condition and an outline of the proposed treatment plan.

(b) If it appears to the court that the child is likely to need special treatment and care for reasons of physical or mental health as part of a final disposition under this chapter, the court shall direct the county juvenile treatment screening team to complete a screening and assessment of the child and to develop a case plan for services, including residential services, if necessary. The case plan must be completed within 30 days of the court's order for the assessment and shall be developed in coordination with court services personnel to ensure that the best interests of the child and the safety needs of the community are met. The assessment and case plan shall be filed with the court and shall include a professional diagnosis of the child's condition and a proposed plan for treatment. If the plan recommends placement in a residential facility, the name of the facility must be specified along with the proposed length of stay and the plan for aftercare and follow-up treatment. A final disposition which involves commitment to a treatment facility out of state or to one which is within the state and licensed under chapter 245A shall not be entered in any proceeding under this chapter, unless the county board has developed and approved a case plan for treatment under this paragraph.

Sec. 33. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 260.172, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 2c. [RESIDENTIAL TREATMENT FACILITY PLACEMENT.] The court may not place a child in a residential treatment facility under a detention order except as authorized under section 260.151, subdivision 3, paragraph (a).

Sec. 34. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 260.181, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [CONSIDERATION OF REPORTS.] Before making a disposition in a case, or terminating parental rights, or appointing a guardian for a child the court may consider any report or recommendation made by the county welfare board, probation officer, licensed child placing agency, foster parent, guardian ad litem, tribal representative, or other authorized advocate for the child or child's family, or any other information deemed material by the court. In issuing a disposition order requiring that a child be placed in a residential treatment facility, the court must follow the juvenile screening team recommendation and case plan required by section 260.151, subdivision 3, paragraph (b).

Sec. 35. [COMPREHENSIVE STUDY.]

The commissioner of human services shall conduct a comprehensive study of state delivered hospital and community-based services for the six regional treatment centers and their catchment areas. The study must examine the need for hospital and community-based services within each catchment area. The state mental health advisory council shall serve as an advisory group for the study. The commissioner shall present study findings and a plan for the provision of hospital and community-based services in each catchment area to the legislature by January 1, 1991.

Sec. 36. [INSTRUCTION TO REVISOR.]

Subdivision 1. [APPEAL OF PAYMENT.] An employer may appeal to the commissioner to reduce or eliminate the payment required under section 268.983, the severance and health benefit payments required under sections 268.984 and 268.985, and the repayments of public assistance required under section 268.988. The employer must appeal under this subdivision at least 30 days before the date of the employee displacement.

The employer may not engage in an employee displacement until the commissioner has made a decision on an appeal by the employer. The commissioner must make a decision within 30 days of the appeal request by an employer. The 30-day limit may be extended if both the employer and the commissioner agree to the extension. The commissioner may contract with a public accounting firm or others to provide technical assistance. The commissioner, or any of the persons the commissioner has contracted with, must have access to all the employer's financial records and other related information for the past five years to assist in making a decision on an appeal.

Subd. 2. [APPEAL GROUNDS.] The employer may appeal under subdivision 1 only if the employer determines that the employee displacement is likely to be due to one or more of the following:

(1) a natural disaster, including flood, damage or destruction due to weather, earthquakes, fire, or drought;

(2) a decrease in sales of the employer resulting from economic or market factors that directly affect the demand for the products produced or provided at the establishment; or

(3) the employee displacement results from the determination that the acquired establishment is not a viable economic operation.

The employer must establish by a preponderance of the evidence that the employee displacement was due to one of the reasons outlined in clause (1), (2), or (3), and not because of the financial needs of the employer to pay for debt incurred because of an acquisition, a reorganization, or duplication of the operations of the employer. In cases where the operations of the establishment have been terminated or significantly affected by a fire, flood, or other unexpected natural disaster and the result is an employee displacement, the employer is not required to appeal 30 days before the employee displacement. The employer may appeal under this subdivision, but is not required to make payments to the commissioner or affected employees until the commissioner makes a decision on the appeal.

Subd. 3. [APPEAL OF REPAYMENT OF PUBLIC ASSISTANCE.] The employer may appeal the amount of public assistance the employer must pay back under section 268.988. The commissioner must make a decision within 30 days of the appeal request of the employer. The commissioner may contract with public accounting firms or others for technical assistance in determining the correct amount of the repayment.

Subd. 4. [APPEAL FROM COMMISSIONER'S DECISION.] The employer may appeal the decision of the commissioner under this section as a contested case proceeding under chapter 14. An employer may not engage in an employee displacement until a decision is rendered upon the completion of the contested case proceeding.

"Sec. 9. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 256.936, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [DEFINITIONS.] For purposes of this section the following terms shall have the meanings given them:

(a) "Eligible persons" means children who are one year of age or older but less than 18 years of age who have gross family incomes that are equal to or less than 185 200 percent of the federal poverty guidelines and who are not eligible for medical assistance under chapter 256B or general assistance medical care under chapter 256D and who are not otherwise insured for the covered services. The period of eligibility extends from the first day of the month in which the child's first birthday occurs to the last day of the month in which the child becomes 18 years old.

(b) "Covered services" means children's health services.

(c) "Children's health services" means the health services reimbursed under chapter 256B, with the exception of inpatient hospital services, special education services, private duty nursing services, orthodontic services, medical transportation services, personal care assistant and case management services, hospice care services, nursing home or intermediate care facilities services, and chemical dependency services.

(d) "Eligible providers" means those health care providers who provide children's health services to medical assistance recipients under rules established by the commissioner for that program. Reimbursement under this section shall be at the same rates and conditions established for medical assistance.

(e) "Commissioner" means the commissioner of human services.

(f) "Gross family income" for farm and nonfarm self-employed means income calculated using as the baseline the adjusted gross income reported on the applicant's federal income tax form for the previous year and adding back in reported depreciation, carryover loss, and net operating loss amounts that apply to the business in which the family is currently engaged. Applicants shall report the most recent financial situation of the family if it has changed from the period of time covered by the federal income tax form. The report may be in the form of percentage increase or decrease."

"Sec. 72. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 12. [RATES FOR INTERMEDIATE CARE FACILITIES FOR PERSONS WITH MENTAL RETARDATION OR RELATED CONDITIONS; SALARY ADJUSTMENT.] (a) For the rate period January 1, 1991, to September 30, 1992, the commissioner shall add the appropriate salary adjustment per diem determined in clauses (1) to (3) to the total operating cost payment rate of each eligible facility.

(1) For a facility to be eligible for a salary adjustment per diem, the commissioner shall require a written affidavit signed by the provider of each facility by November 1, 1990. The affidavit must include assurances that at least 50 percent of the amount of the increase resulting from the application of the statewide index for the rate year beginning October 1, 1990, and the entire amount determined in this subdivision, shall be used for equitable increases to facility employee salaries, fringe benefits, and payroll taxes of employees included in clause (1) provided that the employees have an annual salary of less than $20,000. Facilities with rates governed by section 252.292 or Minnesota Rules, part 9553.0075, or which are newly constructed or newly established with payment rates effective on or after May 1, 1990, are not eligible for payments under this subdivision. The commissioner shall determine the salary adjustment per diem as in clauses (2) and (3) by:

(2) multiplying each eligible facility's total salaries, payroll taxes, and fringe benefits allowed after desk audit in each operating cost category, for the reporting year ending December 31, 1989, except for management fees and administrator and central office salaries and the related payroll taxes and fringe benefits, by three percent; and

(3) then dividing the amount in clause (2) by the facility's resident days.

The commissioner shall indicate the percentage increase by which each eligible facility's salaries, payroll taxes, and fringe benefits, as specified in clauses (1) and (2), is required to increase for the reporting year ending December 31, 1991, over these same cost items for the preceding reporting year, on the nursing home's rate notice for the period beginning January 1, 1991.

(b) By December 1, 1992, the commissioner shall submit a report to the legislative commission on long-term care on the extent to which eligible facilities complied with paragraph (a). The commissioner may require eligible facilities to submit additional information and supporting documentation as necessary to analyze facility expenditures under paragraph (a).

The commissioner, through desk or field audits, shall retroactively recover amounts not spent or inappropriately spent. The per diem amount of recovery, if any, shall be equal to the negative difference between an eligible facility's allowed salaries, payroll taxes, and fringe benefits, as specified in clauses (1) and (2) for the reporting year ending December 31, 1991, and its reporting year ending December 31, 1990, allowed costs for these same items multiplied by the percentage increase indicated by the commissioner on the eligible facility's January 1, 1991 rate notice, and then dividing the difference by the facility's actual resident days for the reporting year ending December 31, 1991. This subdivision does not apply to state operated services."

Subd. 9. [SILS; SALARY ADJUSTMENTS; RATES.] In establishing, operating, or contracting for the provision of semi-independent living services and in securing the commissioner's approval of a county application and budget in subdivision 2, a county board must contract at rates to reflect increased salaries of direct care staff whose annual salary is less than $20,000, by multiplying the total salaries, payroll taxes and fringe benefits related to direct care staff in fiscal year 1990, by an additional three percent in fiscal year 1991 and then dividing the resulting amount by contracted total number of service units. All increased revenue produced by this calculation must be equitably used by the license holder for salary and related costs of all personnel in direct care positions which have an annual salary of less than $20,000. The license holder shall report to the county and department on forms prescribed by the commissioner to determine how, and to what extent, revenues were expended in accordance with this section. The commissioner, through desk or field audit, shall retroactively recover amounts not spent or inappropriately spent. This section does not apply to state operated services.

Sec. 10. [252.286] [MENTAL HEALTH RESIDENTIAL PROGRAMS.]

In establishing, operating, or contracting for the provision of programs licensed under Minnesota Rules, parts 9520.0500 to 9520.0690, a county board shall contract at rates to reflect increased wages figured by multiplying the total wages, payroll taxes, and fringe benefits for direct care staff with annual salaries of less than $20,000 times three percent for fiscal year 1991. All increased revenue received by programs as a result of this calculation must be used for wages and related costs of direct care staff with annual salaries of less than $20,000. The commissioner, through desk or field audits, shall retroactively recover amounts not spent or inappropriately spent.

Sec. 11. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 252.46, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 15. [DAY TRAINING AND HABILITATION; SALARY ADJUSTMENTS; RATES.] For the 12 month contract period beginning January 1, 1991, the county must recommend payment rates for day training and habilitation services for approval by the commissioner which are adjusted in accordance with paragraphs (a) and (b). In order to be eligible for the adjustment in payment rates the county shall require a written affidavit signed by the vendor. The affidavit must include assurances that the entire amount paid under this provision shall be used for equitable increases for employee salaries, payroll taxes, and fringe benefits included in paragraph (a) provided that the employees have an annual salary of less than $20,000 and their job description requires that 50 percent or more of their paid time be spent in direct service delivery as defined in Minnesota Rules, parts 9525.1500, subdivision 12. That portion of the payment rate increases attributable to compliance with this part and recommended for approval to the commissioner under section 252.46, subdivision 5, are exempt from the limits in section 252.46, subdivision 3. The county shall determine the salary adjustment on payment rates by:

(a) multiplying each vendor's eligible salary expenses, payroll taxes, and fringe benefits for calendar year 1990 by three percent in addition to the annual cost of living increase recommended under section 252.46, subdivision 3; and

(b) then dividing the amount in paragraph (a) by the total number of service units projected to be provided for the contract period.

Counties that contract for salary increases under this section shall monitor expenditures in accordance with Minnesota Statutes, section 252.44 and shall report the actual salary expenses and annual salary increases of vendors to the department on forms prescribed by the commissioner. The commissioner, through desk or field audits, shall retroactively recover amounts not spent or inappropriately spent. This subdivision does not apply to state operated services."

Subd. 4a. [WAIVERED SERVICES; SALARY ADJUSTMENTS; RATES.] In establishing, operating, or contracting for the provision of residential habilitation services covered under the home and community based waiver, a county board must contract with licensed residential habilitation vendors at rates to reflect increased salaries of direct care staff whose annual salary is less than $20,000 by multiplying the total salaries, payroll taxes and fringe benefits related to direct care staff in fiscal year 1990 by an additional three percent in fiscal year 1991 and then dividing the resulting amount by the contracted total number of service units. All increased revenue produced by this calculation must be equitably used by the license holder for salary and related costs of all personnel in direct care positions which have an annual salary of less than $20,000. "Sec. 72. Minnesota Statutes 1988, Section 256B.501, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 12. [RATES FOR INTERMEDIATE CARE FACILITIES FOR PERSONS WITH MENTAL RETARDATION OR RELATED CONDITIONS; SALARY ADJUSTMENT.] (a) For the rate period January 1, 1991, to September 30, 1992, the commissioner shall add the appropriate salary adjustment per diem determined in clauses (1) to (3) to the total operating cost payment rate of each eligible facility.

(1) For a facility to be eligible for a salary adjustment per diem, the commissioner shall require a written affidavit signed by the provider of each facility by November 1, 1990. The affidavit must include assurances that at least 50 percent of the amount of the increase resulting from the application of the statewide index for the rate year beginning October 1, 1990, and the entire amount determined in this subdivision, shall be used for equitable increases to facility employee salaries, fringe benefits, and payroll taxes of employees included in clause (1) provided that the employees have an annual salary of less than $20,000. Facilities with rates governed by section 252.292 or Minnesota Rules, part 9553.0075, or which are newly constructed or newly established with payment rates effective on or after May 1, 1990, are not eligible for payments under this subdivision. The commissioner shall determine the salary adjustment per diem as in clauses (2) and (3) by:

(2) multiplying each eligible facility's total salaries, payroll taxes, and fringe benefits allowed after desk audit in each operating cost category, for the reporting year ending December 31, 1989, except for management fees and administrator and central office salaries and the related payroll taxes and fringe benefits, by three percent; and

(3) then dividing the amount in clause (2) by the facility's resident days.

The commissioner shall indicate the percentage increase by which each eligible facility's salaries, payroll taxes, and fringe benefits, as specified in clauses (1) and (2), is required to increase for the reporting year ending December 31, 1991, over these same cost items for the preceding reporting year, on the nursing home's rate notice for the period beginning January 1, 1991.

(b) By December 1, 1992, the commissioner shall submit a report to the legislative commission on long-term care on the extent to which eligible facilities complied with paragraph (a). The commissioner may require eligible facilities to submit additional information and supporting documentation as necessary to analyze facility expenditures under paragraph (a).

The commissioner, through desk or field audits, shall retroactively recover amounts not spent or inappropriately spent. The per diem amount of recovery, if any, shall be equal to the negative difference between an eligible facility's allowed salaries, payroll taxes, and fringe benefits, as specified in clauses (1) and (2) for the reporting year ending December 31, 1991, and its reporting year ending December 31, 1990, allowed costs for these same items multiplied by the percentage increase indicated by the commissioner on the eligible facility's January 1, 1991 rate notice, and then dividing the difference by the facility's actual resident days for the reporting year ending December 31, 1991. This subdivision does not apply to state operated services.

PATRICK E. FLAHAVEN, Secretary of the Senate

Ogren moved that the House refuse to concur in the Senate amendments to H. F. No. 2478, that the Speaker appoint a Conference Committee of 5 members of the House, and that the House requests that a like committee be appointed by the Senate to confer on the disagreeing votes of the two houses. The motion prevailed.

Mr. Speaker:

I hereby announce that the Senate refuses to concur in the House amendments to the following Senate File:

S. F. No. 2421, A bill for an act relating to elections; presidential primary; changing the primary date; providing procedures for conducting the primary; changing the requirements for being a candidate at the primary; allowing voters to prefer uncommitted delegates; allowing write-in votes; providing for voter receipt of ballots; eliminating the provision that the primary winner is the party's endorsed candidate; changing the apportionment of party delegates; requiring provision of certain information to interested persons; amending Minnesota Statutes 1988, sections 204B.06, by adding a subdivision; 204B.11, subdivision 2; Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, sections 207A.01; 207A.02; 207A.03; 207A.04; and 207A.06, subdivisions 1 and 2; proposing coding for new law in Minnesota Statutes, chapter 207A; repealing Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 207A.05:

The Senate respectfully requests that a Conference Committee be appointed thereon. The Senate has appointed as such committee:

Messrs. Luther, Cohen and Laidig.

Said Senate File is herewith transmitted to the House with the request that the House appoint a like committee.

PATRICK E. FLAHAVEN, Secretary of the Senate

Scheid moved that the House accede to the request of the Senate and that the Speaker appoint a Conference Committee of 3 members of the House to meet with a like committee appointed by the Senate on the disagreeing votes of the two houses on S. F. No. 2421. The motion prevailed.

Mr. Speaker:

I hereby announce that the Senate refuses to concur in the House amendments to the following Senate File:

S. F. No. 2617, A bill for an act relating to the organization and operation of state government; appropriating money for the department of transportation and other agencies with certain conditions; reducing appropriations for the biennium ending June 30, 1991, with certain conditions; providing for the transfer of money in the state treasury; amending Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 297B.09, subdivision 1.

The Senate respectfully requests that a Conference Committee be appointed thereon. The Senate has appointed as such committee:

Messrs. Langseth, Berg, Purfeerst, Mehrkens and Metzen.

Said Senate File is herewith transmitted to the House with the request that the House appoint a like committee.

PATRICK E. FLAHAVEN, Secretary of the Senate

Rice moved that the House accede to the request of the Senate and that the Speaker appoint a Conference Committee of 5 members of the House to meet with a like committee appointed by the Senate on the disagreeing votes of the two houses on S. F. No. 2617. The motion prevailed.

"Sec. 69. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 43A.24, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 2a. [OTHER ELIGIBLE PERSONS.] An executive branch employee is eligible for state-paid hospital, medical and dental benefits if the person: (1) is eligible for state-paid insurance under section 43A.18 or other law; (2) has at least 25 years of state service; (3) upon retirement is immediately eligible for a retirement annuity; (4) is at least 55 and not yet 65 years of age; and (5) retires after the effective date of this section and before July 1, 1990. This subdivision does not apply to an employee previously, currently, or prospectively eligible for any form of early retirement incentive under the provisions of any collective bargaining agreement or plan established under section 43A.18, except for employees covered by subdivision 2, clause (i). For purposes of this subdivision, a person retires when the person terminates active employment in state service and applies for a retirement annuity. The retired employee shall be eligible for coverages to which the person was entitled at the time of retirement, subject to any changes in coverage through collective bargaining or plans established under section 43A.18 for employees in positions equivalent to that from which they retired. The retired employee is not eligible for state paid life insurance. Eligibility ceases when the retired employee attains the age of 65, or when the employee chooses not to receive the annuity for which the employee has applied, or the employee is eligible for employer-paid health insurance from a new employer. Coverages must be coordinated with relevant health insurance benefits provided through the federally sponsored Medicare program."

The position of any person who retires under section 69 may not be included in an agency's budget base for the biennium beginning July 1, 1991. An agency that wishes to retain the position must submit the proposal to the legislature as a change level request."

Subdivision 1. [MEDICAL, PSYCHOLOGICAL, CHIROPRACTIC, PODIATRIC, SURGICAL, HOSPITAL.] (a) The employer shall furnish any medical, psychological, chiropractic, podiatric, surgical and hospital treatment, including nursing, medicines, medical, chiropractic, podiatric, and surgical supplies, crutches and apparatus, including artificial members, or, at the option of the employee, if the employer has not filed notice as hereinafter provided, Christian Science treatment in lieu of medical treatment, chiropractic medicine and medical supplies, as may reasonably be required at the time of the injury and any time thereafter to cure and relieve from the effects of the injury. This treatment shall include treatments necessary to physical rehabilitation. Exposure to rabies is an injury and an employer shall furnish preventive treatment to employees exposed to rabies. The employer shall furnish replacement or repair for artificial members, glasses, or spectacles, artificial eyes, podiatric orthotics, dental bridge work, dentures or artificial teeth, hearing aids, canes, crutches, or wheel chairs damaged by reason of an injury arising out of and in the course of the employment. In case of the employer's inability or refusal seasonably to do so the employer is liable for the reasonable expense incurred by or on behalf of the employee in providing the same, including costs of copies of any medical records or medical reports that are in existence, obtained from health care providers, and that directly relate to the items for which payment is sought under this chapter, limited to the charges allowed by subdivision 7, and attorney fees incurred by the employee. No action to recover the cost of copies may be brought until the commissioner adopts a schedule of reasonable charges under subdivision 7. Attorney's fees shall be determined on an hourly basis according to the criteria in section 176.081, subdivision 5. The employer shall pay for the reasonable value of nursing services by a member of the employee's family in cases of permanent total disability.

(b) Both the commissioner and the compensation judges have authority to make determinations under this section in accordance with sections 176.106 and 176.305."

"Sec. 36. [3.888] [LEGISLATIVE BUDGET COMMISSION.]

Subdivision 1. [MEMBERSHIP.] The legislative budget commission consists of nine members of the senate and nine members of the house. Five of the senate members shall be appointed by the senate majority leader, and four of the senate members shall be appointed by the senate minority leader. Five of the house members shall be appointed by the speaker of the house, and four of the house members shall be appointed by the house minority leader. Each senate member must also be a member of the senate finance committee, and each house member must also be a member of the house appropriations committee. Vacancies on the commission are filled in the same manner as original appointments. The commission shall elect a chair and a vice-chair from among its members. The chair alternates between a member of the senate and a member of the house in January of each odd-numbered year.

Subd. 2. [COMPENSATION.] Members of the commission are compensated as provided by Minnesota Statutes, section 3.101.

Subd. 3. [LEGISLATIVE BUDGET OFFICE.] A legislative budget office is established to study issues and provide information to the legislature related to the state budget, and to assist the commission in its duties. The legislative budget office shall be supervised by the commission.

Subd. 4. [STAFF.] (a) The commission may:

(1) employ and fix the salaries of professional, technical, clerical, and other staff of the legislative budget office;

(2) employ and discharge staff solely on the basis of their fitness to perform their duties and without regard to political affiliation;

(3) buy necessary furniture, equipment, and supplies;

(4) enter into contracts for necessary services, equipment, office, and supplies;

(5) provide its staff with computer capability necessary to carry out assigned duties. The computer should be capable of receiving data and transmitting data to computers maintained by the executive and judicial departments of state government that are used for budgetary and revenue purposes; and

(6) use other legislative staff.

(b) The commission may hire an executive director, who shall also be the director of the legislative budget office, and delegate any of its authority under paragraph (a) to that person. The executive director shall be appointed by the chair and vice-chair to a four-year term, shall serve in the unclassified service, and is subject to removal by a majority vote of the members of either the senate or the house of representatives.

(c) The legislative coordinating commission shall provide office space and administrative support to the commission and the legislative budget office.

Subd. 5. [DUTIES.] The commission shall:

(1) conduct a thorough review of the budget base each year for programs comprising at least one-fourth of total state expenditures so that in a four-year period the budget base of every state program is reviewed;

(2) report the results of its review of the budget base to the senate finance committee and the house appropriations committee by February 1 of each year. This report shall specifically identify programs that have grown faster than the rate of inflation, and include recommendations on ways to limit that growth to the rate of inflation, including program elimination, program reduction, or privatization of public programs;

(3) provide state revenue and expenditure projections;

(4) review fiscal notes; and

(5) analyze and report on the operational efficiency of state agencies, including:

(i) effectiveness of internal organizational structures and reporting relationships;

(ii) appropriateness of staff size relative to tasks performed;

(iii) productivity of the agency work force;

(iv) operating expense comparisons among state agencies; and

(v) opportunities for greater cost efficiencies, including, but not limited to, job-merging, interdepartmental cooperation, public-private partnerships, and position phase-out.

The legislative budget office shall provide the public with copies of reports and information for the legislature. Copies must be provided at the actual cost of furnishing each copy.

Subd. 6. [AGENCIES TO COOPERATE.] (a) All departments, agencies, and education institutions of the executive and judicial branches must comply with a request of the commission for information, data, estimates, and statistics on the funding, revenue, operations, and other affairs of the department, agency, or education institution. The commissioner of finance and the commissioner of revenue shall provide the commission with full and free access to information, data, estimates, and statistics in the possession of the finance and revenue departments on the state budget, revenue, expenditures, and tax expenditures.

(b) The commissioner of finance shall assist the commission in conducting its review of the budget base of state programs and shall provide the commission with materials and information regarding the budget base that the commission requests.

(c) The commissioner of finance shall provide the commission with a quarterly state budget report on January 1, April 1, July 1, and November 1 of each year. The quarterly budget report shall include state revenue and expenditure projections and shall identify any programs where expenditures exceed appropriated amounts or, in the case of open appropriations or tax expenditures, where expenditures exceed projected amounts.

Sec. 37. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 3.98, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. The head or chief administrative officer of each department or agency of the state government shall prepare a fiscal note at the request of the chair of the standing committee to which a bill has been referred, or the chair of the house appropriations committee, or the chair of the senate committee on finance, or the chair of the legislative budget commission.

Sec. 38. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 3.98, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. A copy of the fiscal note shall be delivered to the chair of the appropriations committee of the house of representatives, the chair of the finance committee of the senate, the chair of the standing committee to which the bill has been referred, the chair of the legislative budget commission, to the chief author of the bill and to the commissioner of finance.”

“Sec. 62. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 16A.11, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 3a. [BUDGET BASE REVIEW.] Each year the commissioner shall prepare detailed information on the budget base of state programs designated for review by the legislative budget commission. At the direction of the commission, the detailed information shall include:

- (1) a precise and complete description of the program;
- (2) the need the program is intended to address;
- (3) the recommended goals and measurable objectives of the program to meet those needs;
- (4) program outcomes and measures which identify:
 - (i) results in meeting stated needs, goals, and objectives;
 - (ii) administrative efficiency, which, when appropriate, shall include number of program staff and clients served, timeliness in processing clients, and rates and administrative cost as a percent of total program expenditures;
 - (iii) unanticipated program outcomes;
 - (iv) detailed program expenditures compared with program appropriations;
 - (v) historical cost trends and projected program growth, including reasons for fiscal and program growth, for all levels of government involved in the program;
 - (vi) if rules or guidelines or instructions have been promulgated for a program, a review of their efficacy in helping to meet program goals and objectives and in administering the program in a cost-effective way; and
 - (vii) quality control monitoring and sanctions including a review of the level of training, experience, skill, and standards of staff;

(5) recommended changes in the program that would lead to its policy objectives being achieved more efficiently or effectively, or at lower cost;

(6) identification of programs where expenditure growth exceeds the rate of inflation, and consideration of alternatives to limit that growth to the rate of inflation, including program elimination, program reduction, and privatization of public programs; and

(7) additional information requested by the commission."

"Sec. 67. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 16A.15, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [REDUCTION.] (a) If the commissioner determines that probable receipts for the general fund will be less than anticipated, and that the amount available for the remainder of the biennium will be less than needed, and that the conditions specified in subdivision 6a for reducing the amount in the budget reserve account established in subdivision 6a are met, the commissioner shall, with the approval of the governor, and after consulting the legislative advisory commission, reduce the amount in the budget and cash flow reserve account established in subdivision 6 as needed to balance expenditures with revenue by the amount permitted in subdivision 6a to increase revenue available to meet expenditures.

(b) ~~An additional~~ Any remaining deficit that exists after determining the amount, if any, that can be drawn from the budget reserve account under the provisions of subdivision 6a shall, with the approval of the governor, and after consulting the legislative advisory commission, be made up by reducing unexpended allotments of any prior appropriation or transfer. Notwithstanding any other law to the contrary, the commissioner is empowered to defer or suspend prior statutorily created obligations which would prevent effecting such reductions.

(c) If the commissioner determines that probable receipts for any other fund, appropriation, or item will be less than anticipated, and that the amount available for the remainder of the term of the appropriation or for any allotment period will be less than needed, the commissioner shall notify the agency concerned and then reduce the amount allotted or to be allotted so as to prevent a deficit.

(d) In reducing allotments, the commissioner may consider other sources of revenue available to recipients of state appropriations and may apply allotment reductions based on all sources of revenue available.

(e) In like manner, the commissioner shall reduce allotments to an agency by the amount of any saving that can be made over previous spending plans through a reduction in prices or other cause.

Sec. 68. Minnesota Statutes Second 1989 Supplement, section 16A.15, subdivision 6, is amended to read:

Subd. 6. [BUDGET AND CASH FLOW RESERVE ACCOUNT.] A budget and cash flow reserve account is created in the general fund in the state treasury. The commissioner of finance shall, as authorized from time to time by law, restrict part or all of the budgetary balance in the general fund for use as the budget and cash flow reserve account. The commissioner of finance shall transfer to the budget and cash flow reserve account such amounts as are available to bring the total amount, including any existing balance in the account on June 30, 1989, to $550,000,000 $200,000,000. The amounts restricted shall remain in the account until drawn down under the provisions of this subdivision ~~1~~ or increased under section 16A.1541.

The amount in the cash flow reserve account must be used only to meet temporary cash flow needs in the general fund. The amount in the cash flow reserve account must not be used to supplement general fund revenues when the amount available for the rest of the biennium is less than needed.

Sec. 69. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 16A.15, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 6a. [BUDGET RESERVE ACCOUNT.] The legislature finds that a budget reserve is necessary to protect the state budget and the recipients of state-funded services from severe fluctuations in revenue available due to fluctuations in the economy and the difficulty of accurately estimating revenues in advance of their receipt. The legislature further finds that a budget reserve equal to five percent of the state's annual general fund expenditures and transfers is a suitable amount. A budget reserve account is created in the general fund in the state treasury. The commissioner of finance shall, as authorized from time to time by law, restrict part of the budgetary balance in the general fund for use as the budget reserve account. The commissioner of finance shall transfer to the budget reserve account such amounts as are available to bring the total amount to $350,000,000. This amount shall exclude the amount of the cash flow reserve account created under subdivision 6. Beginning July 1, 1991, interest and investment earnings attributable to the amount in the budget reserve account shall accrue to that account. The amounts restricted as the budget reserve account shall remain in the account until drawn down under the provisions of this subdivision and subdivision 1.

The amount in the budget reserve account shall be reduced and used to balance expenditures with revenue only to meet shortfalls due to revenue collections that are less than was projected. The budget reserve account shall not be used to balance expenditures with revenue to the extent that the shortfall was caused by expenditures that exceed estimates.

If a revenue collection shortfall occurs during a biennium that is less than $150,000,000, no amount shall be drawn from the budget reserve account. If a revenue collection shortfall occurs that is more than $150,000,000, an amount shall be drawn from the budget reserve account equal to (1) one-half of the amount by which the revenue collection shortfall exceeds $150,000,000, but is less than $450,000,000, plus (2) the amount by which the revenue collection shortfall exceeds $450,000,000.

Sec. 70. Minnesota Statutes Second 1989 Supplement, section 16A.1541, is amended to read:

16A.1541 [ADDITIONAL REVENUES; PRIORITY.]

If on the basis of a forecast of general fund revenues and expenditures the commissioner of finance determines that there will be a positive unrestricted budgetary general fund balance at the close of the biennium, the commissioner of finance must allocate money to the budget and cash flow reserve account until the total amount in the account equals five percent of total general fund appropriations for the current biennium fiscal year as established by the most recent legislative session legislature. Beginning in November 1990 1991, forecast unrestricted budgetary general fund balances are first appropriated to reduce the property tax levy recognition percent under section 121.904, subdivision 4a, to 27 percent before money is allocated to the budget and cash flow reserve account under the preceding sentence.

The amounts necessary to meet the requirements of this section are appropriated from the general fund."

Subd. 2. [PASSENGER AUTOMOBILES.] The presence of a controlled substance in a passenger automobile permits the factfinder to infer knowing possession of the controlled substance by the driver or person in control of the automobile when the controlled substance was in the automobile. This inference may only be made if the defendant is charged with violating section 152.021, 152.022, or 152.023, or section 6. The inference does not apply:

(1) to a duly licensed operator of an automobile who is at the time operating it for hire in the lawful and proper pursuit of the operator's trade;

(2) to any person in the automobile if one of them legally possesses a controlled substance; or

(3) when the controlled substance is concealed on the person of one of the occupants.

Sec. 8. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 152.028, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 3. [AIRLINE PASSENGER BAGGAGE.] The presence of a controlled substance in baggage received at an airport in Minnesota permits the factfinder to infer knowing possession of the controlled substance by the airline passenger to whom the baggage was checked.

Sec. 9. [152.0971] [TERMS.]

Subdivision 1. [TERMS.] For purposes of sections 9 to 13, the following terms have the meanings given.

Subd. 2. [FURNISH.] "Furnish" means to sell, transfer, deliver, send, or supply a precursor substance by any other means.

Subd. 3. [SUPPLIER.] A "supplier" is a manufacturer, wholesaler, retailer, or any other person who furnishes a precursor substance to another person in this state.

Sec. 10. [152.0972] [PRECURSORS OF CONTROLLED SUBSTANCES.]

Subdivision 1. [PRECURSOR SUBSTANCES.] The following precursors of controlled substances are "precursor substances":

(1) phenyl-2-propanone;

(2) methylamine;

- (14) anthranilic acid;
- (15) morpholine;
- (16) ephedrine;
- (17) pseudoephedrine;
- (18) norpseudoephedrine;
- (19) phenylpropanolamine;
- (20) propionic anhydride;
- (21) isosafrole;
- (22) safrole;
- (23) piperonal;
- (24) thionylchloride;
- (25) benzyl cyanide;
- (26) ergonovine maleate;
- (27) n-methylephedrine;

(28) n-ethylpseudoephedrine;

(29) n-methypseudoephedrine;

(30) n-ethylpseudoephedrine;

(31) chloroephedrine;

(32) chloropseudophedrine; and

(33) any substance added to this list by rule adopted by the state board of pharmacy.

Subd. 2. [ADOPTION OF RULES.] The state board of pharmacy may adopt rules under chapter 14 that add a substance to this section if the substance is a precursor to a controlled substance or delete a substance from this section. A rule adding or deleting a substance is effective only until December 31 of the year following the calendar year during which the rule was adopted.

Sec. 11. [152.0973] [REPORT OF TRANSACTION.]

Subdivision 1. [PREDELIVERY NOTICE.] A supplier who furnishes a precursor substance to a person in this state shall, not less than 21 days before delivery of the substance, submit a report of the transaction, which includes the identification information specified in subdivision 3, to the bureau of criminal apprehension.

Subd. 2. [REGULAR REPORTS.] The bureau may authorize the submission of the reports on a monthly basis with respect to repeated, regular transactions between the supplier and the purchaser involving the same substance if the superintendent of the bureau of criminal apprehension determines that:

(1) a pattern of regular supply of the precursor substance exists between the supplier and the purchaser of the substance; or

(2) the purchaser has established a record of utilization of the precursor substance for lawful purposes.

Subd. 3. [PROPER IDENTIFICATION.] A report submitted by a supplier under this section must include:

(1) a copy of a driver's license or state identification card that contains a photograph of the purchaser, and includes the residential or mailing address of the purchaser, other than a post office box number;

(2) the motor vehicle license number of any motor vehicle owned or operated by the purchaser;

(3) a letter of authorization from the business for which the precursor substance is being furnished, including the business license number and address of the business, a full description of how the precursor substance is to be used, and the signature of the purchaser;

(4) the signature of the supplier as a witness to the signature and identification of the purchaser;

(5) the type and quantity of the precursor substance; and

(6) the method of delivery used.

Subd. 4. [RETENTION OF RECORDS.] A supplier shall retain a copy of the report filed under this section for five years.

Sec. 12. [152.0974] [EXCEPTIONS.]

Sections 9 to 13 do not apply to:

(1) a pharmacist or other authorized person who sells or furnishes a precursor substance on the prescription of a physician, dentist, podiatrist, or veterinarian;

(2) a physician, dentist, podiatrist, or veterinarian who administers or furnishes a precursor substance to patients;

(3) a manufacturer or wholesaler licensed by the state board of pharmacy who sells, transfers, or otherwise furnishes a precursor substance to a licensed pharmacy, physician, dentist, podiatrist, or veterinarian; or

(4) a sale, transfer, furnishing, or receipt of any drug that contains ephedrine, pseudoephedrine, norpseudoephedrine, or phenylpropanolamine and is lawfully sold, transferred, or furnished over the counter without a prescription under the federal Food, Drug, and Cosmetic Act, United States Code, title 21, section 301, et seq., or regulations adopted under that act.

Sec. 13. [152.0975] [PENALTY.]

Subdivision 1. [MISDEMEANOR.] A person who does not submit a report as required by section 11 is guilty of a misdemeanor.

Subd. 2. [GROSS MISDEMEANOR.] (a) A person who knowingly submits a report with false or fictitious information is guilty of a gross misdemeanor.

(b) A person who is convicted of violating subdivision 1 and has previously been convicted of a violation of subdivision 1 is guilty of a gross misdemeanor. The subsequent conviction must be for an offense that occurred after the earlier conviction.

Sec. 14. [299A.331] [DARE ADVISORY COUNCIL.]

Subdivision 1. [MEMBERSHIP.] The advisory council on drug abuse resistance education consists of:

- (1) the attorney general who shall serve as chair;
- (2) the commissioner of public safety;
- (3) the commissioner of education;
- (4) three representatives of law enforcement appointed by the commissioner of public safety;
- (5) three representatives of teachers appointed by the commissioner of education;
- (6) a representative of the DARE officers association; and
- (7) seven citizens appointed by the attorney general.

Subd. 2. [DUTIES.] The council shall:

- (1) advise the bureau of criminal apprehension in establishing a drug abuse resistance education training program for peace officers;
- (2) promote the drug abuse resistance education program throughout the state;
- (3) monitor the drug abuse resistance education officer training program in conjunction with the bureau of criminal apprehension;
- (4) provide coordination and assistance to local communities who wish to implement drug abuse resistance education programs in their local school systems;
- (5) encourage parental and community involvement in drug abuse resistance education programs;
- (6) develop a private/public partnership to provide for continuation and funding for the drug abuse resistance education program; and
- (7) receive funds from public and private sources for use in the drug abuse resistance education program.

Sec. 15. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 299A.34, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [GRANT PROGRAMS.] (a) The commissioner shall develop grant programs to:

(1) assist law enforcement agencies in purchasing equipment, provide undercover buy money, and pay other nonpersonnel costs; and

(2) assist community and neighborhood organizations in efforts to prevent or reduce criminal activities in their areas, particularly activities involving youth and the use and sale of drugs.

(b) The commissioner shall by rule prescribe criteria for eligibility and the award of grants and reporting requirements for recipients.

Sec. 16. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 299A.35, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [GRANT PROCEDURE.] A local unit of government or a nonprofit community-based entity may apply for a grant by submitting an application with the commissioner. The applicant shall specify the following in its application:

(1) a description of each program for which funding is sought;

(2) the amount of funding to be provided to the program;

(3) the geographical area to be served by the program; and

(4) statistical information as to the number of arrests in the geographical area for violent crimes and for crimes involving schedule I and II controlled substances. "Violent crime" includes a violation of or an attempt or conspiracy to violate any of the following laws: sections 609.185; 609.19; 609.195; 609.20; 609.205; 609.21; 609.221; 609.222; 609.223; 609.228; 609.235; 609.24; 609.245; 609.25; 609.255; 609.2661; 609.2662; 609.2663; 609.2664; 609.2665; 609.267; 609.2671; 609.268; 609.342; 609.343; 609.344; 609.345; 609.498, subdivision 1; 609.561; 609.562; 609.582, subdivision 1; 609.687; and any provision of chapter 152 that is punishable by a maximum term of imprisonment greater than ten years.

The commissioner shall give priority to funding programs in the geographical areas that have the highest crime rates, as measured by the data supplied under clause (4), and that demonstrate substantial involvement by members of the community served by the program. The maximum amount that may be awarded to an applicant is ~~$25,000~~ $50,000.

Sec. 17. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 609.135, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 8. [CONTROLLED SUBSTANCE CONVICTIONS.] (a) A court may order periodic drug testing as a condition of probation if:

(1) the court convicts a person for a felony violation of chapter 152, or the court convicts a person for a felony violation of chapter 609 and the court finds that the convicted person has a history of chemical dependency; and

(2) the court stays the imposition or execution of the sentence.

(b) The periodic drug testing must determine whether the offender has used a controlled substance or alcohol. The testing must be done at the direction of the probation officer assigned to the case, and must be unannounced.

(c) The probation officer shall report to the court if an offender refuses the test or if an offender's test detects the presence of a controlled substance or alcohol. On receiving notice of refusal or failure, the court may revoke the stay under section 609.14, subdivision 2.

Sec. 18. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 609.5315, subdivision 5, is amended to read:

Subd. 5. [DISTRIBUTION OF MONEY.] ~~Seventy percent of~~ The money or proceeds from the sale of forfeited property, after payment of seizure, storage, forfeiture, and sale expenses, and satisfaction of valid liens against the property, must be distributed as follows:

(1) 70 percent of the money or proceeds must be forwarded to the appropriate agency for deposit to the general fund, and as a supplement to the agency's operating fund or similar fund for use in law enforcement;

(2) 20 percent of the money or proceeds must be forwarded to the county attorney or other prosecuting agency that handled the forfeiture for deposit as a supplement to its operating fund or similar fund for prosecutorial purposes; and

(3) the remaining ten percent of the money or proceeds must be forwarded within 60 days after resolution of the forfeiture to the state treasury and credited to the general fund. Any local police relief association organized under chapter 423, which received or was entitled to receive the proceeds of any sale made under this section before the effective date of Laws 1988, chapter 665, sections 1 to 17, shall continue to receive and retain the proceeds of these sales.

Sec. 19. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 631.40, is amended to read:

631.40 [JUDGMENT ON CONVICTION; JUDGMENT ROLL DEFINED NOTICE TO LICENSING BOARDS.]

Subdivision 1. [JUDGMENT ROLL.] When judgment upon a conviction is rendered, the court administrator shall enter the judgment upon the minutes, stating briefly the offense for which the conviction was had. The court administrator shall then immediately attach together and file the papers specified in clauses (1) to (5). The judgment roll consists of the papers specified in clauses (1) to (5):

(1) a copy of the minutes of challenge made by the defendant to the panel of the grand jury, or to an individual grand juror, and the proceedings and decisions on the challenges;

(2) the indictment or complaint and a copy of the minutes of the plea or motion to dismiss or to grant appropriate relief;

(3) a copy of the minutes of a challenge made to the panel of the trial jury or to an individual juror, and the proceedings and decision on the challenge;

(4) a copy of the minutes of the trial; and

(5) a copy of the minutes of the judgment.

Subd. 2. [CONTROLLED SUBSTANCE CONVICTIONS.] When a court convicts a person of a felony under chapter 152, the court shall order that the presentence investigation include information about any business or professional licenses held by the offender. If the offender holds a business or professional license, the court administrator shall send a certified copy of the conviction to the appropriate licensing board.

Sec. 20. [CHEMICAL DEPENDENCY TREATMENT IN LOCAL PROGRAMS; PILOT PROGRAMS.]

The commissioner of corrections shall develop pilot programs to provide chemical dependency treatment through services in local correctional and treatment programs. The pilot programs shall:

(1) increase the availability of chemical dependency treatment services for adult and juvenile offenders;

(2) provide for professional evaluation of the need for treatment and aftercare of individual offenders;

(3) coordinate with local chemical dependency resources; and

(4) facilitate the provision of aftercare services for chemically dependent persons after their release.

Sec. 21. [DAY-FINES.]

Subdivision 1. [MODEL SYSTEM.] By June 1, 1991, the sentencing guidelines commission shall develop a model day-fine system. Each judicial district must adopt either the model system or its own day-fine system by January 1, 1992.

Subd. 2. [COMPONENTS.] A day-fine system adopted under this section must provide for a two-step sentencing procedure for those receiving a fine as part of a probationary felony sentence. In the first step, the court determines how many punishment points a person will receive, taking into account the severity of the offense and the criminal history of the offender. The second step is to multiply the punishment points by a factor that accounts for the offender's financial circumstances. The goal of the system is to provide a fine that is proportional to the seriousness of the offense and largely equal in impact among offenders with different financial circumstances. The system may provide for community service in lieu of fines for offenders whose means are so limited that the payment of a fine would be unlikely.

Sec. 22. [INCARCERATION OF DRUG DEALERS.]

The legislature finds that persons convicted of a felony offense for selling controlled substances should be incarcerated in a jail or correctional facility. The legislature strongly advises that courts make full use of the sentences provided under state law and the sentencing guidelines for persons convicted of selling controlled substances.

Sec. 23. [SUPREME COURT STUDIES.]

Subdivision 1. [JOINDER STUDY.] The supreme court shall study the feasibility of amending rule 17.03 of the Minnesota Rules of Criminal Procedure to facilitate the joint trial of certain defendants being prosecuted for possession of a controlled substance where separate trials do not serve the interests of justice. The court shall consider whether the amendment of rule 17.03 would have an unfair impact on particular economic classes or ethnic groups or otherwise create unfair categories of defendants.

Subd. 2. [CASH BAIL STUDY.] The supreme court shall study the feasibility of amending the Minnesota Rules of Criminal Procedure to provide a hearing when a defendant pays a large bail amount in cash to allow the court to determine whether the funds are the proceeds of the unlawful sale of controlled substances.

Sec. 24. [PROBATIONARY DRUG TESTING; PILOT PROGRAMS.]

The commissioner of corrections shall develop pilot programs to evaluate the value of mandating testing for drugs and alcohol as a condition of probation. One pilot program must be in a metropolitan area jurisdiction and one must be in a nonmetropolitan area jurisdiction. The programs must require courts to order testing for drugs and alcohol as a condition of probation for offenders described in section 17. The programs shall comply with the criteria outlined in section 17, paragraphs (b) and (c).

Sec. 25. [CHEMICAL DEPENDENCY ASSESSMENTS; PILOT PROGRAMS.]

The commissioner of corrections shall create pilot programs in two or more jurisdictions to conduct chemical dependency assessments of all persons convicted of and juveniles adjudicated for felony violations of Minnesota Statutes, chapter 152, and persons convicted of and juveniles adjudicated for selected Minnesota Statutes, chapter 609, felonies. The assessment shall evaluate the offender's need for chemical dependency treatment services and recommend a program to meet the offender's needs. The assessor qualifications and assessment and placement criteria shall comply with Minnesota Rules, parts 9530.6600 to 9530.6655. If funds under Minnesota Statutes, chapter 254B, are to be used to pay for the recommended treatment, the assessment and placement must comply with all provisions of Minnesota Rules, parts 9530.6600 to 9530.6655, and parts 9530.7000 to 9530.7030.

Sec. 26. [EFFECTIVE DATE.]

Sections 1 to 8, 13, and 19 are effective August 1, 1990, and apply to crimes committed on or after that date.

ARTICLE 2

INTENSIVE COMMUNITY SUPERVISION

Section 1. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 244.05, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 6. [INTENSIVE COMMUNITY SUPERVISION.] The commissioner may order that an inmate be placed on intensive community supervision, as described in sections 4 and 5, for all or part of the inmate's supervised release term. If the inmate violates the conditions of the intensive community supervision, the commissioner shall impose sanctions as provided in subdivision 3 and section 4.

Sec. 2. [244.12] [INTENSIVE COMMUNITY SUPERVISION.]

Subdivision 1. [GENERALLY.] The commissioner may order that an offender who meets the eligibility requirements of subdivision 2 be placed on intensive community supervision, as described in sections 4 and 5, for all or part of the offender's prison sentence or supervised release term.

Subd. 2. [ELIGIBILITY.] The commissioner must limit the intensive community supervision program to the following persons:

(1) inmates who are serving a supervised release term;

(2) offenders who are committed to the commissioner's custody following revocation of a stayed sentence;

(3) offenders who are committed to the commissioner's custody for a prison sentence of 27 months or less, who did not receive a dispositional departure under the sentence guidelines, and who have already served a period of incarceration as a result of the offense for which they are committed;

(4) offenders who were not committed to the commissioner's custody under a statutory mandatory minimum sentence; and

(5) offenders who were not committed to the commissioner's custody following a conviction for murder, manslaughter, or criminal vehicular operation resulting in death.

Sec. 3. [244.13] [INTENSIVE COMMUNITY SUPERVISION; ESTABLISHMENT OF PROGRAMS.]

Subdivision 1. [ESTABLISHMENT.] The commissioner of corrections shall establish programs for those designated by the commissioner to serve all or part of a prison sentence or a supervised release term on intensive community supervision. The commissioner shall locate the programs so that at least one-half of the money appropriated for the programs in each year is used for programs in community corrections act counties.

Subd. 2. [TRAINING.] The commissioner shall develop specialized training programs for probation officers assigned to the intensive community supervision program. The probation officer caseload shall not exceed the ratio of 30 offenders to two probation officers.

Subd. 3. [EVALUATION.] The commissioner shall develop a system for gathering and analyzing information concerning the value and effectiveness of the intensive community supervision programs and shall compile a report to the chairs of the senate and house judiciary committees by January 1 of each odd-numbered year.

Sec. 4. [244.14] [INTENSIVE COMMUNITY SUPERVISION; BASIC ELEMENTS.]

Subdivision 1. [REQUIREMENTS.] This section governs the intensive community supervision programs established under section 3. The commissioner shall operate the programs in conformance with this section. The commissioner shall administer the programs to further the following goals:

- (1) to punish the offender;
- (2) to protect the safety of the public;
- (3) to facilitate employment of the offender during the intensive community supervision and afterward; and
- (4) to require the payment of restitution ordered by the court to compensate the victims of the offender's crime.

Subd. 2. [GOOD TIME NOT AVAILABLE.] An offender serving a prison sentence on intensive community supervision does not earn good time, notwithstanding section 244.04.

Subd. 3. [SANCTIONS.] The commissioner shall impose severe and meaningful sanctions for violating the conditions of an intensive community supervision program. The commissioner shall provide for revocation of intensive community supervision of an offender who:

- (1) fails to follow the rules of the program;
- (2) commits any misdemeanor, gross misdemeanor, or felony offense; or
- (3) presents a risk to the public, based on the offender's behavior, attitude, or abuse of alcohol or controlled substances. The revocation of intensive community supervision is governed by the procedures in the commissioner's rules adopted under section 244.05, subdivision 2.

An offender whose intensive community supervision is revoked shall be imprisoned for a time period equal to the offender's original term of imprisonment, but in no case for longer than the time remaining in the offender's sentence. "Original term of imprisonment" means a time period equal to two-thirds of the prison sentence originally executed by the sentencing court.

Subd. 4. [ALL PHASES.] Throughout all phases of an intensive community supervision program, the offender shall submit at any time to an unannounced search of the offender's person, vehicle, or premises by a probation officer. If the offender received a restitution order as part of the sentence, the offender shall make weekly payments as scheduled by the probation officer, until the full amount is paid.

Sec. 5. [244.15] [INTENSIVE COMMUNITY SUPERVISION; PHASES I TO IV.]

Subdivision 1. [DURATION.] Phase I of an intensive community supervision program is six months, or one-half the presumptive imprisonment sentence under the sentencing guidelines, whichever is less. Phase II lasts for at least four months. Phase III lasts for at least two months. Phase IV continues indefinitely.

Subd. 2. [RANDOM DRUG TESTING.] (a) During phase I, the offender will be subjected to weekly urinalysis and breath tests to detect the presence of controlled substances or alcohol. The tests will be random and unannounced.

(b) During phase II, the tests will be done twice monthly.

(c) During phases III and IV, the tests will be done at random at the frequency determined by the probation officer.

Subd. 3. [HOUSE ARREST.] (a) During phase I, the offender will be under house arrest in a residence approved by the offender's probation officer and may not move to another residence without permission. "House arrest" means that the offender's movements will be severely restricted and continually monitored by the assigned probation officer.

(b) During phase II, modified house arrest is imposed.

(c) During phases III and IV, the offender is subjected to a daily curfew instead of house arrest.

Subd. 4. [FACE-TO-FACE CONTACTS.] (a) During phase I, the assigned probation officer shall have at least four face-to-face contacts with the offender each week.

(b) During phase II, two face-to-face contacts a week are required.

(c) During phase III, one face-to-face contact a week is required.

(d) During phase IV, two face-to-face contacts a month are required.

Subd. 5. [WORK REQUIRED.] During phases I, II, III, and IV, the offender must spend at least 40 hours a week performing approved work, undertaking constructive activity designed to obtain employment, or attending a treatment or education program as directed by the commissioner.

Subd. 6. [ELECTRONIC SURVEILLANCE.] During any phase, the offender may be placed on electronic surveillance if the probation officer so directs.

Subd. 7. [OTHER REQUIREMENTS.] The commissioner may include any other conditions in the various phases of the intensive community supervision program that the commissioner finds necessary and appropriate.

ARTICLE 3

MATERNAL AND CHILD HEALTH PROVISIONS

Section 1. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 145.88, is amended to read:

145.88 [PURPOSE.]

The legislature finds that it is in the public interest to assure:

(a) Statewide planning and coordination of maternal and child health services through the acquisition and analysis of population-based health data, provision of technical support and training, and coordination of the various public and private maternal and child health efforts; and

(b) Support for targeted maternal and child health services in communities with significant populations of high risk, low income families through a grants process.

Federal money received by the Minnesota department of health, pursuant to United States Code, title 42, sections 701 to 709, shall be expended to:

(1) assure access to quality maternal and child health services for mothers and children, especially those of low income and with limited availability to health services and those children at risk of physical, neurological, emotional, and developmental problems arising from chemical abuse by a mother during pregnancy;

(2) reduce infant mortality and the incidence of preventable diseases and handicapping conditions among children;

(3) reduce the need for inpatient and long-term care services and to otherwise promote the health of mothers and children, especially by providing preventive and primary care services for low income mothers and children and prenatal, delivery and postpartum care for low income mothers;

(4) provide rehabilitative services for blind and disabled children under age 16 receiving benefits under Title XVI of the Social Security Act; and

(5) provide and locate medical, surgical, corrective and other service for children who are crippled or who are suffering from conditions that lead to crippling.

Sec. 2. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 145.882, subdivision 7, is amended to read:

Subd. 7. [USE OF BLOCK GRANT MONEY.] (a) Maternal and child health block grant money allocated to a community health board or community health services area under this section must be used for qualified programs for high risk and low income individuals. Block grant money must be used for programs that:

(1) specifically address the highest risk populations, particularly low income and minority groups with a high rate of infant mortality and children with low birth weight, by providing services, including pre-pregnancy family planning services, calculated to produce measurable decreases in infant mortality rates, instances of children with low birth weight, and medical complications associated with pregnancy and childbirth, including infant mortality, low birth rates, and medical complications arising from chemical abuse by a mother during pregnancy;

(2) specifically target pregnant women whose age, medical condition, or maternal history, or chemical abuse substantially increases the likelihood of complications associated with pregnancy and childbirth or the birth of a child with an illness, disability, or special medical needs;

(3) specifically address the health needs of young children who have or are likely to have a chronic disease or disability or special medical needs, including physical, neurological, emotional, and developmental problems that arise from chemical abuse by a mother during pregnancy;

(4) provide family planning and preventive medical care for specifically identified target populations, such as minority and low income teenagers, in a manner calculated to decrease the occurrence of inappropriate pregnancy and minimize the risk of complications associated with pregnancy and childbirth; or

(5) specifically address the frequency and severity of childhood injuries in high risk target populations by providing services calculated to produce measurable decreases in mortality and morbidity. However, money may be used for this purpose only if the community health board's application includes program components for the purposes in clauses (1) to (4) in the proposed geographic service area and the total expenditure for injury-related programs under this clause does not exceed ten percent of the total allocation under subdivision 3.

(b) Maternal and child health block grant money may be used for purposes other than the purposes listed in this subdivision only under the following conditions:

(1) the community health board or community health services area can demonstrate that existing programs fully address the needs of the highest risk target populations described in this subdivision; or

(2) the money is used to continue projects that received funding before creation of the maternal and child health block grant in 1981.

(c) Projects that received funding before creation of the maternal and child health block grant in 1981, must be allocated at least the amount of maternal and child health special project grant funds received in 1989, unless (1) the local board of health provides equivalent alternative funding for the project from another source; or (2) the local board of health demonstrates that the need for the specific services provided by the project has significantly decreased as a result of changes in the demographic characteristics of the population, or other factors that have a major impact on the demand for services. If the amount of federal funding to the state for the maternal and child health block grant is decreased, these projects must receive a proportional decrease as required in subdivision 1. Increases in allocation amounts to local boards of health under subdivision 4 may be used to increase funding levels for these projects.

Sec. 3. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 626.556, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [DEFINITIONS.] As used in this section, the following terms have the meanings given them unless the specific content indicates otherwise:

(a) "Sexual abuse" means the subjection by a person responsible for the child's care, or by a person in a position of authority, as defined in section 609.341, subdivision 10, to any act which constitutes a violation of section 609.342, 609.343, 609.344, or 609.345. Sexual abuse also includes any act which involves a minor which constitutes a violation of sections 609.321 to 609.324 or 617.246.

(b) "Person responsible for the child's care" means (1) an individual functioning within the family unit and having responsibilities for the care of the child such as a parent, guardian, or other person having similar care responsibilities, or (2) an individual functioning outside the family unit and having responsibilities for the care of the child such as a teacher, school administrator, or other lawful custodian of a child having either full-time or short-term care responsibilities including, but not limited to, day care, babysitting whether paid or unpaid, counseling, teaching, and coaching.

(c) "Neglect" means failure by a person responsible for a child's care to supply a child with necessary food, clothing, shelter or medical care when reasonably able to do so or failure to protect a child from conditions or actions which imminently and seriously endanger the child's physical or mental health when reasonably able to do so. Nothing in this section shall be construed to mean that a child is neglected solely because the child's parent, guardian, or other person responsible for the child's care in good faith selects and depends upon spiritual means or prayer for treatment or care of disease or remedial care of the child in lieu of medical care; except that there is a duty to report if a lack of medical care may cause imminent and serious danger to the child's health. This section does not impose upon persons, not otherwise legally responsible for providing a child with necessary food, clothing, shelter, or medical care, a duty to provide that care. "Neglect" includes prenatal exposure to a controlled substance, as defined in section ~~626.5561~~ 253B.02, subdivision 2, used by the mother for a nonmedical purpose, as evidenced by withdrawal symptoms in the child at birth, results of a toxicology test performed on the mother at delivery or the child at birth, or medical effects or developmental delays during the child's first year of life that medically indicate prenatal exposure to a controlled substance. Neglect also means "medical neglect" as defined in section 260.015, subdivision 2a, clause (5).

(d) "Physical abuse" means any physical injury inflicted by a person responsible for the child's care on a child other than by accidental means, or any physical injury that cannot reasonably be explained by the child's history of injuries, or any aversive and deprivation procedures that have not been authorized under section 245.825.

(e) "Report" means any report received by the local welfare agency, police department, or county sheriff pursuant to this section.

(f) "Facility" means a day care facility, residential facility, agency, hospital, sanitarium, or other facility or institution required to be licensed pursuant to sections 144.50 to 144.58, 241.021, or 245.781 to 245.812.

(g) "Operator" means an operator or agency as defined in section 245A.02.

(h) "Commissioner" means the commissioner of human services.

(i) "Assessment" includes authority to interview the child, the person or persons responsible for the child's care, the alleged perpetrator, and any other person with knowledge of the abuse or neglect for the purpose of gathering the facts, assessing the risk to the child, and formulating a plan.

(j) "Practice of social services," for the purposes of subdivision 3, includes but is not limited to employee assistance counseling and the provision of guardian ad litem services.

Sec. 4. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 626.5561, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [REPORTS REQUIRED.] A person mandated to report under section 626.556, subdivision 3, shall immediately report to the local welfare agency if the person knows or has reason to believe that a woman is pregnant and has used a controlled substance for a nonmedical purpose during the pregnancy. Any person may make a voluntary report if the person knows or has reason to believe that a woman is pregnant and has used a controlled substance for a nonmedical purpose during the pregnancy. An oral report shall be made immediately by telephone or otherwise. An oral report made by a person required to report shall be followed within 72 hours, exclusive of weekends and holidays, by a report in writing to the local welfare agency. Any report shall be of sufficient content to identify the pregnant woman, the nature and extent of the use, if known, and the name and address of the reporter.

Sec. 5. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 626.5561, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [RELATED PROVISIONS.] Reports under this section are governed by section 626.556, subdivisions 4, 4a, 5, 6, 7, 8, and 11.

Sec. 6. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 626.5561, subdivision 4, is amended to read:

Subd. 4. [CONTROLLED SUBSTANCES.] For purposes of this section and section 626.5562, "controlled substance" means a controlled substance classified in schedule I, II, or III under chapter 152 listed in section 253B.02, subdivision 2.

Sec. 7. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 626.5561, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 5. [IMMUNITY.] (a) A person making a voluntary or mandated report under subdivision 1 or assisting in an assessment under subdivision 2 is immune from any civil or criminal liability that otherwise might result from the person's actions, if the person is acting in good faith.

(b) This subdivision does not provide immunity to any person for failure to make a required report or for committing neglect, physical abuse, or sexual abuse of a child.

Sec. 8. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 626.5562, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [TEST; REPORT.] A physician shall administer a toxicology test to a pregnant woman under the physician's care or to a woman under the physician's care within eight hours after delivery to determine whether there is evidence that she has ingested a controlled substance, if the woman has obstetrical complications that are a medical indication of possible use of a controlled substance for a nonmedical purpose. If the test results are positive, the physician shall report the results under section 626.5561. A negative test result does not eliminate the obligation to report under section 626.5561, if other evidence gives the physician reason to believe the patient has used a controlled substance for a nonmedical purpose.

Sec. 9. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 626.5562, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [NEWBORNS.] A physician shall administer to each newborn infant born under the physician's care a toxicology test to determine whether there is evidence of prenatal exposure to a controlled substance, if the physician has reason to believe based on a medical assessment of the mother or the infant that the mother used a controlled substance for a nonmedical purpose prior to the birth during the pregnancy. If the test results are positive, the physician shall report the results as neglect under section 626.556. A negative test result does not eliminate the obligation to report under section 626.556 if other medical evidence of prenatal exposure to a controlled substance is present.

Sec. 10. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 626.5562, subdivision 4, is amended to read:

Subd. 4. [IMMUNITY FROM LIABILITY.] Any physician or other medical personnel administering a toxicology test to determine the presence of a controlled substance in a pregnant woman, in a woman within eight hours after delivery, or in a child at birth or during the first month of life is immune from civil or criminal liability arising from administration of the test, if the physician ordering the test believes in good faith that the test is required under this section and the test is administered in accordance with an established protocol and reasonable medical practice.

ARTICLE 4

ALCOHOL-RELATED PROVISIONS

Section 1: Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 169.121, subdivision 3a, is amended to read:

Subd. 3a. [HABITUAL OFFENDER PENALTIES.] (a) If a person has been convicted under this section, section 169.129, an ordinance in conformity with either of them, or a statute or ordinance from another state in conformity with either of them, and if the person is then convicted of violating this section or an ordinance in conformity with it (1) once within five years after the first conviction or (2) two or more times within ten years after the first conviction, the person must be sentenced:

(1) to a minimum of 30 days imprisonment; or

(2) to a minimum of ten days imprisonment and to eight hours of community work service for each day less than 30 days but more than ten days that the person is ordered to serve in jail.

A judge may not sentence the person to home detention in lieu of the minimum ten-day jail term. Notwithstanding section 609.135, the above sentence must be executed, unless the court departs from the mandatory minimum sentence under paragraph (b) or (c).

(b) Prior to sentencing the prosecutor may file a motion to have the defendant sentenced without regard to the mandatory minimum sentence established by this subdivision. The motion must be accompanied by a statement on the record of the reasons for it. When presented with the prosecutor's motion and if it finds that substantial mitigating factors exist, the court shall sentence the defendant without regard to the mandatory minimum term of imprisonment established by this subdivision.

(c) The court may, on its own motion, sentence the defendant without regard to the mandatory minimum term of imprisonment established by this subdivision if it finds that substantial mitigating factors exist and if its sentencing departure is accompanied by a statement on the record of the reasons for it.

(d) When any portion of the sentence required by this subdivision is not executed, the court should impose a sentence that is proportional to the extent of the offender's prior criminal and moving traffic violation record.

Sec. 2. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 169.121, subdivision 3b, is amended to read:

Subd. 3b. [HABITUAL OFFENDERS; CHEMICAL USE TREATMENT.] If a person has been convicted under subdivision 1, section 169.129, an ordinance in conformity with either of them, or a statute or ordinance from another state in conformity with either of them, and if the person is then convicted of violating subdivision 1, section 169.129, or an ordinance in conformity with either of them (1) once within five years of the first conviction or (2) two or more times within ten years after the first conviction, the court must order the person to submit to the level of care recommended in the alcohol and chemical use assessment required under section 169.126.

If a person is convicted under section 169.121, subdivision 1a, the court shall order the person to submit to the level of care recommended in the alcohol and chemical use assessment required under section 169.126.

Sec. 3. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 169.121, subdivision 5, is amended to read:

Subd. 5. Except as otherwise provided in subdivision 3b, when a court sentences a person convicted of violating this section, section 169.129, or an ordinance in conformity with either of them, the court may stay imposition or execution of any sentence authorized by subdivision 3 or 4, except the revocation of the driver's license, on the condition that the convicted person submit to the level of care recommended in the alcohol and chemical use assessment report required under section 169.126. If the court does not order a level of care in accordance with the assessment report recommendation as a condition of a stay of imposition or execution, it shall state on the record its reasons for not following the assessment report recommendation. A stay of imposition or execution shall be in the manner provided in section 609.135. The court shall report to the commissioner of public safety any stay of imposition or execution of sentence granted under the provisions of this section.

Sec. 4. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 169.124, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [COUNTY BOARD.] The county board of every county shall establish an alcohol safety program designed to provide an alcohol problem screening and chemical use assessment of persons convicted of an offense enumerated in section 169.126, subdivision 1.

Sec. 5. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 169.124, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [ASSESSMENT REIMBURSEMENT RULES.] ~~The alcohol problem assessment shall be conducted under the direction of the court and by such persons or agencies as the court deems qualified to provide the alcohol problem assessment and assessment~~ report as described in section 169.126. The alcohol problem assessment may be conducted by court services probation officers having the required knowledge and skills in the assessment of alcohol problems, by alcoholism counselors, by persons conducting court sponsored driver improvement clinics if in the judgment of the court such persons have the required knowledge and skills in the assessment of alcohol problems, by appropriate staff members of public or private alcohol treatment programs and agencies or mental health clinics, by court approved volunteer workers such as members of alcoholics anonymous, or by such other qualified persons as the court may direct. The commissioner of public safety shall provide the courts with information and assistance in establishing alcohol problem assessment programs suited to the needs of the area served by each court. The commissioner shall consult with the alcohol and other drug abuse section in the department of human services and with local community mental health boards in providing such information and assistance to the courts. The commissioner of public safety shall promulgate rules and standards under chapter 14, consistent with this subdivision, for reimbursement under the provisions of subdivision 3.

Sec. 6. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 169.126, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [SCREENING ASSESSMENT REQUIREMENT.] An alcohol problem screening and chemical use assessment shall be conducted and a screening an assessment report submitted to the court by the county agency administering the alcohol safety program when:

(a) The defendant is convicted of an offense described in section 169.121 or 169.129; or

(b) The defendant is arrested for committing an offense described in section 169.121 or 169.129 but is convicted of another offense arising out of the circumstances surrounding the arrest.

Sec. 7. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 169.126, subdivision 4, is amended to read:

Subd. 4. [ALCOHOL AND CHEMICAL USE ASSESSMENT.] (a) Except as otherwise provided in paragraph (d), when an alcohol problem screening shows that the defendant has an identifiable chemical use problem, The court shall require the defendant to undergo a comprehensive alcohol and chemical use assessment conducted by an assessor qualified designated by the court to the commissioner of public safety as meeting the training and qualification requirements under rules adopted by the commissioner of human services under section 254A.03, subdivision 3. Notwithstanding section 13.82, the assessor shall have access to any police reports, laboratory test results, and other law enforcement data relating to the current offense or previous offenses that are necessary to complete the evaluation. An assessor providing a an alcohol and chemical use assessment for the court may not have any direct or shared financial interest or referral relationship resulting in shared financial gain with a treatment provider. If an independent assessor is not available, the court may use the services of an assessor authorized to perform assessments for the county social services agency under a variance granted under rules adopted by the commissioner of human services under section 254A.03, subdivision 3. An appointment for the defendant to undergo the alcohol and chemical use assessment shall be made by the court, a court services probation officer, or the court administrator as soon as possible but in no case more than one week after the defendant's court appearance. The comprehensive alcohol and chemical use assessment must be completed no later than three weeks after the defendant's court appearance. If the assessment is not performed within this time limit, the county where the defendant is to be sentenced shall perform the assessment. The county of financial responsibility shall be determined under chapter 256G.

Subd. 4a. [REPORT.] (a) The assessment report shall contain an evaluation of the convicted defendant concerning the defendant's prior traffic record, characteristics and history of alcohol and chemical use problems, and amenability to rehabilitation through the alcohol safety program. The report shall be classified as private data on individuals as defined in section 13.02, subdivision 12.

(b) The alcohol and chemical use assessment report must (1) include a recommended level of care for the defendant in accordance with the criteria contained in rules adopted by the commissioner of human services under section 254A.03, subdivision 3, (2) contain recommendations for other appropriate remedial action or care, that may consist of educational programs, one-on-one counseling, a program or type of treatment that addresses mental health concerns, or a combination of them, or (3) the report must specifically explain why no level of care or action was recommended.

(c) The state shall reimburse the county for the entire cost of each alcohol and chemical use assessment and report at a rate established by the department of human services public safety up to a maximum of $100 $. . . in each case. The county may not be reimbursed for the cost of any alcohol and chemical use assessment or report not completed within the time limit provided in this subdivision 4. Reimbursement to the county must be made from the general fund.

(d) If the preliminary alcohol problem screening is conducted by an assessor qualified under rules adopted by the commissioner of human services under section 254A.03, subdivision 3, consists of a comprehensive chemical use assessment of the defendant, and complies with the chemical use assessment report requirements of paragraph (b), it is a chemical use assessment for the purposes of this section and the court may not require the defendant to undergo a second chemical use assessment under paragraph (a). The state shall reimburse counties for the cost of alcohol problem screenings that qualify as chemical use assessments under this paragraph in the manner provided in paragraph (c) in lieu of the reimbursement provisions of section 169.124, subdivision 3.

Sec. 8. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 169.126, subdivision 4b, is amended to read:

Subd. 4b. [EVALUATION.] The commissioner of public safety shall, with the assistance of the department of human services and the state planning agency, monitor and evaluate the implementation and effects of the alcohol safety programs required in sections 169.124 to 169.126 and shall submit a written report to the legislature by January 1, 1989, containing the commissioner's findings and recommendations.

Sec. 9. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 169.126, subdivision 6, is amended to read:

Subd. 6. [APPLICABILITY.] This section shall not apply to persons who are not residents of the state of Minnesota at the time of the offense and at the time of the alcohol problem screening and chemical use assessment.

Sec. 10. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 260.151, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. Upon request of the court the county welfare board or probation officer shall investigate the personal and family history and environment of any minor coming within the jurisdiction of the court under section 260.111 and shall report its findings to the court. The court may order any minor coming within its jurisdiction to be examined by a duly qualified physician, psychiatrist, or psychologist appointed by the court.

The court shall have a chemical use assessment conducted when a child is: (1) found to be delinquent for violating a provision of chapter 152; or (2) alleged to be delinquent for violating a provision of chapter 152, if the child is being held in custody under a detention order. The assessor's qualifications and the assessment criteria shall comply with Minnesota Rules, parts 9530.6600 to 9530.6655. If funds under chapter 254B are to be used to pay for the recommended treatment, the assessment and placement must comply with all provisions of Minnesota Rules, parts 9530.6600 to 9530.6655, and parts 9530.7000 to 9530.7030. The commissioner of public safety shall reimburse the court for the cost of the chemical use assessment, up to a maximum of $100.

With the consent of the commissioner of corrections and agreement of the county to pay the costs thereof, the court may, by order, place a minor coming within its jurisdiction in an institution maintained by the commissioner for the detention, diagnosis, custody and treatment of persons adjudicated to be delinquent, in order that the condition of the minor be given due consideration in the disposition of the case. Adoption investigations shall be conducted in accordance with the laws relating to adoptions. Any funds received under the provisions of this subdivision shall not cancel until the end of the fiscal year immediately following the fiscal year in which the funds were received. The funds are available for use by the commissioner of corrections during that period and are hereby appropriated annually to the commissioner of corrections as reimbursement of the costs of providing these services to the juvenile courts.

Sec. 11. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 260.193, subdivision 8, is amended to read:

Subd. 8. If the juvenile court finds that the child is a juvenile major highway or water traffic offender, it may make any one or more of the following dispositions of the case:

(a) Reprimand the child and counsel with the child and the parents;

(b) Continue the case for a reasonable period under such conditions governing the child's use and operation of any motor vehicles or boat as the court may set;

(c) Require the child to attend a driver improvement school if one is available within the county;

(d) Recommend to the department of public safety suspension of the child's driver's license as provided in section 171.16;

(e) If the child is found to have committed two moving highway traffic violations or to have contributed to a highway accident involving death, injury, or physical damage in excess of $100, the court may recommend to the commissioner of public safety or to the licensing authority of another state the cancellation of the child's license until the child reaches the age of 18 years, and the commissioner of public safety is hereby authorized to cancel the license without hearing. At any time before the termination of the period of cancellation, the court may, for good cause, recommend to the commissioner of public safety, or to the licensing authority of another state, that the child's license be returned, and the commissioner of public safety is authorized to return the license;

(f) Place the child under the supervision of a probation officer in the child's own home under conditions prescribed by the court including reasonable rules relating to operation and use of motor vehicles or boats directed to the correction of the child's driving habits;

(g) Require the child to pay a fine of up to $700. The court shall order payment of the fine in accordance with a time payment schedule which shall not impose an undue financial hardship on the child;

(h) If the court finds that the child committed an offense described in section 169.121, the court shall order that an alcohol ~~problem screening and chemical use assessment~~ be conducted and a ~~screening report submitted to the court in the manner prescribed in section 169.126. Except as otherwise provided in section 169.126, subdivision 4, paragraph (d),~~ If the alcohol ~~problem screening assessment~~ shows that the child has an identifiable chemical use ~~problem~~; the court shall require the child to undergo a comprehensive chemical use assessment in accordance with section 169.126, subdivision 4. If the chemical use assessment ~~recommends~~ meets the level of care criteria for placement according to section 254A.03, subdivision 3, the report must recommend a level of care for the child. The court may require that level of care in its disposition order. In addition, the court may require any child ordered to undergo a an alcohol and chemical use assessment to pay a chemical dependency assessment charge of $75. The court shall forward the assessment charge to the commissioner of finance to be credited to the general fund. The state shall reimburse counties for the total cost of the alcohol and chemical use assessment in the manner provided in section 169.126, subdivision 4 4a.

Sec. 12. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 340A.503, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [CONSUMPTION.] It is unlawful for any:

(1) retail intoxicating liquor or nonintoxicating liquor licensee or bottle club permit holder under section 340A.414, to permit any person under the age of 21 years to consume alcoholic beverages on the licensed premises; or

(2) person under the age of 21 years to consume any alcoholic beverages unless in the household of the person's parent or guardian and with the consent of the parent or guardian. If proven by a preponderance of the evidence, it is an affirmative defense to a violation of this clause that the defendant consumed the alcoholic beverage in the household of the defendant's parent or guardian and with the consent of the parent or guardian.

Sec. 13. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 340A.503, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [PURCHASING.] It is unlawful for any person:

(1) to sell, barter, furnish, or give alcoholic beverages to a person under 21 years of age, except that a parent or guardian of a person under the age of 21 years may give or furnish alcoholic beverages to that person solely for consumption in the household of the parent or guardian;

(2) under the age of 21 years to purchase or attempt to purchase any alcoholic beverage; or

(3) to induce a person under the age of 21 years to purchase or procure any alcoholic beverage, or to lend or knowingly permit the use of the person's driver's license, permit, Minnesota identification card, or other form of identification by a person under the age of 21 years for the purpose of purchasing or attempting to purchase an alcoholic beverage.

If proven by a preponderance of the evidence, it shall be an affirmative defense to a violation of clause (1) that the defendant is the parent or guardian of the person under 21 years of age and that the defendant gave or furnished the alcoholic beverage to that person solely for consumption in the defendant's household.

Sec. 14. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 340A.503, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [POSSESSION.] It is unlawful for a person under the age of 21 years to possess any alcoholic beverage with the intent to consume it at a place other than the household of the person's parent or guardian. Possession at a place other than the household of the parent or guardian is prima facie evidence creates a rebuttable presumption of intent to consume it at a place other than the household of the parent or guardian. This presumption may be rebutted by a preponderance of the evidence.

Sec. 15. [CHEMICAL DEPENDENCY TREATMENT FOR CERTAIN OFFENDERS; STEARNS COUNTY PILOT PROGRAM.] (a) Notwithstanding any law or rule to the contrary, when a defendant is convicted of a felony in Stearns county, the court may order the treatment of the defendant for chemical dependency if the presentence investigation performed under section 609.115, subdivision 1, indicates that alcohol or controlled substance abuse was a contributing factor to the commission of the crime, and if a local agency, as defined in section 254B.01, subdivision 5, determines that the defendant is in need of the treatment. If the defendant is convicted of violating section 609.21 or is convicted of a felony-level violation of section 169.09, the presentence investigation report must contain a chemical use assessment conducted by a qualified assessor and a determination by the local agency as to whether treatment is needed. If the local agency does not find that the defendant is in need of treatment, the court may still order chemical dependency treatment of the defendant if an assessor designated by the court and qualified under rules adopted by the commissioner under section 254B.03, subdivision 3, or credentialed by the Institute for Chemical Dependency Professionals determines that the defendant is chemically dependent or chemically abusive. In any case, the local agency shall determine the appropriate level of care and authorize payment under chapter 254B.

(b) In those cases where the local agency has not found the defendant to be in need of treatment, but where the court-designated assessor has found the defendant to be chemically dependent or abusive, the court-designated assessor must provide written findings to the local agency and to the commissioner of human services before the local agency authorizes any payment for treatment under chapter 254B.

Funds appropriated to pay for treatment services for persons placed through the provisions of this section shall be placed in a dedicated account to be used only for this purpose. No other state funds shall be used to pay for the treatment of these persons.

This pilot program expires on June 30, 1991.

Sec. 16. [REPEALER.]

Minnesota Statutes 1988, sections 169.124, subdivision 3; and 169.126, subdivisions 2 and 3; and Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 169.126, subdivision 4a, are repealed.

Sec. 17. [EFFECTIVE DATE.]

Sections 12 to 14 are effective August 1, 1990, and apply to offenses committed on or after that date.

ARTICLE 5

MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS

Section 1. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 90.301, subdivision 6, is amended to read:

Subd. 6. [TICKET FOR THEFT VIOLATIONS.] The commissioner may design and issue a ticket in the form, and having the effect, of a summons and complaint, for use in cases of theft of state timber or other state property, where the value of the property is within the limits established by section 609.52, subdivision 3, clause ~~(7)~~ (5). The ticket shall provide for the name and address of the person charged with the violation, the offense charged, the time and place the person is to appear before a court, and any other necessary information.

Sec. 2. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 256.98, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [WRONGFULLY OBTAINING ASSISTANCE.] A person who obtains, or attempts to obtain, or aids or abets any person to obtain by means of a willfully false statement or representation, by intentional concealment of a material fact, or by impersonation or other fraudulent device, assistance to which the person is not entitled or assistance greater than that to which the person is entitled, or who knowingly aids or abets in buying or in any way disposing of the property of a recipient or applicant of assistance without the consent of the local agency with intent to defeat the purposes of sections 256.12, 256.72 to 256.871, and chapter 256B, or all of these sections is guilty of theft and shall be sentenced pursuant to section 609.52, subdivision 3, clauses (2), ~~(3)~~, ~~(6)~~, and ~~(7)~~ (3)(a) and (c), (4), and (5).

Sec. 3. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 256B.35, subdivision 5, is amended to read:

Subd. 5. The nursing home may transfer the personal allowance to someone other than the recipient only when the recipient or the recipient's guardian or conservator designates that person in writing to receive or expend funds on behalf of the recipient and that person certifies in writing that the allowance is spent for the well-being of the recipient. Persons, other than the recipient, in possession of the personal allowance, may use the allowance only for the well-being of the recipient. Any person, other than the recipient, who, with intent to defraud, uses the personal needs allowance for purposes other than the well-being of the recipient shall be guilty of theft and shall be sentenced pursuant to section 609.52, subdivision 3, clauses (2), ~~(3)~~, and ~~(7)~~ (3)(a) and (c), and (5). To prosecute under this subdivision, the attorney general or the appropriate county attorney, acting independently or at the direction of the attorney general, may institute a criminal action. A nursing home that transfers personal needs allowance funds to a person other than the recipient in good faith and in compliance with this section shall not be held liable under this subdivision.

Sec. 4. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 268.18, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [FALSE REPRESENTATIONS; CONCEALMENT OF FACTS; PENALTY.] (a) Whoever obtains, or attempts to obtain, or aids or abets any person to obtain by means of a willfully false statement or representation, by intentional concealment of a material fact, or by impersonation or other fraudulent device, benefits to which the person is not entitled or benefits greater than that to which the person is entitled under this chapter, or under the employment security law of any state or of the federal government or of a foreign government, either personally or for any other person, shall be guilty of theft and shall be sentenced pursuant to section 609.52, subdivision 3, clauses (2), ~~(3)~~, (6), and ~~(7)~~ (3)(a) and (c), (4), and (5). The amount of the benefits incorrectly paid shall be the difference between the amount of benefits actually received and the amount which the person would have been entitled under state and federal law had the department been informed of all material facts.

(b) Any employing unit or any officer or agent of an employing unit or any other person who makes a false statement or representation knowing it to be false, or who knowingly fails to disclose a material fact, to prevent or reduce the payment of benefits to any individual entitled thereto, or to avoid becoming or remaining a subject employer or to avoid or reduce any contribution or other payment required from an employing unit under this chapter or under the employment security law of any state or of the federal government, or who willfully fails or refuses to make any such contributions or other payment at the time required shall be guilty of a gross misdemeanor unless the benefit underpayment, contribution, or other payment involved exceeds $250, in which event the person is guilty of a felony.

(c) Any person who willfully fails to produce or permit the inspection or copying of books, papers, records, or memoranda as required or when requested under section 268.12, subdivision 8, or to furnish any required reports other than contribution reports shall be guilty of a gross misdemeanor.

Sec. 5. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 299C.155, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [UNIFORM EVIDENCE COLLECTION.] The bureau shall develop uniform procedures and protocols for collecting evidence in cases of alleged or suspected criminal sexual conduct, including procedures and protocols for the collection and preservation of human biological specimens for DNA analysis. Law enforcement agencies and medical personnel who conduct evidentiary exams shall use the uniform procedures and protocols in their investigation of criminal sexual conduct offenses. The uniform procedures and protocols developed under this subdivision are not subject to the rulemaking provisions of chapter 14.

Sec. 6. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 299C.155, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [DNA ANALYSIS AND DATA BANK.] The bureau shall adopt uniform procedures and protocols to maintain, preserve, and analyze human biological specimens for DNA. The bureau shall establish a centralized system to cross-reference data obtained from DNA analysis. The uniform procedures and protocols developed under this subdivision are not subject to the rulemaking provisions of chapter 14.

Sec. 7. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 473.608, subdivision 17, is amended to read:

Subd. 17. [ORDINANCES.] (1) It may adopt and enforce rules, regulations, and ordinances it deems necessary for the purposes of sections 473.601 to 473.679, including those relating to the internal operation of the corporation and to the management and operation of airports owned or operated by it, subject to sections 473.601 to 473.679. Any person violating any rule, regulation or ordinance is guilty of a misdemeanor.

(2) The prosecution may be before a county or municipal court having jurisdiction over the place where the violation occurs. Every sheriff, constable, police officers, and other peace officer shall arrest offenders. The fines collected shall be paid into the treasury of the corporation. The portion of the fines necessary to cover all costs and disbursements incurred in processing and prosecuting the violations in the court shall be transferred to the court administrator. The corporation shall reimburse the prosecuting authority for the costs of prosecuting violations of the corporation's rules, regulations and ordinances, and violations of state law occurring on property owned by the corporation. All persons committed shall be received into any penal institution in the county in which the offense was committed. All persons shall take notice of the rules, regulations, and ordinances without pleading or proof.

(3) A public hearing need not be held on rules, regulations and ordinances relating to the internal operation of the commission or to the management or operation of airports owned or operated by it unless the rule, regulation or ordinance affects substantial rights.

(4) When necessary, the corporation may adopt and enforce without a public hearing all other rules, regulations or ordinances, but it shall hold a public hearing within 30 days after their adoption. Prior to the hearing, the corporation shall give at least 15 days notice by publication in appropriate legal newspapers of general circulation in the metropolitan area and mail a copy of them to all interested parties who have registered their names with the corporation for that purpose. If the rules, regulations, or ordinances are not deemed immediately necessary, the corporation shall hold a public hearing on them after giving the required notice. The rules, regulations, or ordinances shall not be adopted and enforced until after the hearing.

(5) Notice of the adoption of rules, regulations and ordinances shall, as soon as possible after adoption, be published in appropriate legal newspapers of general circulation in the metropolitan area.

Proof of publication and a copy of the rule, regulation, or ordinance shall be filed with the secretary of state. They shall then be in full force and effect.

(6) Any person substantially interested or affected in rights as to person or property by a rule, regulation or ordinance adopted by the corporation, may petition the corporation for reconsideration, amendment, modification, or waiver of it. The petition shall set forth a clear statement of the facts and grounds upon which it is based. The corporation shall grant the petitioner a public hearing within 30 days after the filing of the petition.

Sec. 8. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 609.135, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [TERMS AND CONDITIONS.] Except when a sentence of life imprisonment is required by law, or when a mandatory minimum term of imprisonment is required by section 609.11, any court may stay imposition or execution of sentence and (a) may order ~~noninstitutional~~ intermediate sanctions without placing the defendant on probation, or (b) may place the defendant on probation with or without supervision and on the terms the court prescribes, including ~~noninstitutional~~ intermediate sanctions when practicable. The court may order the supervision to be under the probation officer of the court, or, if there is none and the conviction is for a felony or gross misdemeanor, by the commissioner of corrections, or in any case by some other suitable and consenting person. No ~~noninstitutional~~ intermediate sanction may be ordered performed at a location that fails to observe applicable requirements or standards of chapter 181A or 182, or any rule promulgated under them. For purposes of this subdivision, subdivision 6, and section 609.14, the term "~~noninstitutional~~ intermediate sanctions" includes but is not limited to incarceration in a local jail or workhouse, home detention, electronic monitoring, intensive probation, sentencing to service, reporting to a day reporting center, chemical dependency or mental health treatment or counseling, restitution, fines, day-fines, community work service, and work in lieu of or to work off fines.

A court may not stay the revocation of the driver's license of a person convicted of violating the provisions of section 169.121.

Sec. 9. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 609.135, subdivision 6, is amended to read:

Subd. 6. [PREFERENCE FOR NONINSTITUTIONAL INTERMEDIATE SANCTIONS.] A court staying imposition or execution of a sentence that does not include a term of incarceration as a condition of the stay shall order ~~noninstitutional~~ other intermediate sanctions where practicable.

Sec. 10. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 609.14, is amended to read:

609.14 [REVOCAION OF STAY.]

Subdivision 1. [GROUNDS.] When it appears that the defendant has violated any of the conditions of probation or ~~noninstitutional intermediate sanction~~, or has otherwise been guilty of misconduct which warrants the imposing or execution of sentence, the court may without notice revoke the stay thereof and probation and direct that the defendant be taken into immediate custody.

Subd. 2. The defendant shall thereupon be notified in writing and in such manner as the court directs of the grounds alleged to exist for revocation of the stay of imposition or execution of sentence. If such grounds are brought in issue by the defendant, a summary hearing shall be held thereon at which the defendant is entitled to be heard and to be represented by counsel.

Subd. 3. [SENTENCE.] If any of such grounds are found to exist the court may:

(1) If imposition of sentence was previously stayed, again stay sentence or impose sentence and stay the execution thereof, and in either event place the defendant on probation or order ~~noninstitutional intermediate sanctions~~ pursuant to section 609.135, or impose sentence and order execution thereof; or

(2) If sentence was previously imposed and execution thereof stayed, continue such stay and place the defendant on probation or order ~~noninstitutional intermediate sanctions~~ in accordance with the provisions of section 609.135, or order execution of the sentence previously imposed.

Subd. 4. If none of such grounds are found to exist, the defendant shall be restored to liberty under the previous order of the court.

Sec. 11. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 631.48, is amended to read:

631.48 [PENALTY MAY INCLUDE COSTS OF PROSECUTION.]

In a criminal action, upon conviction of the defendant, the court may order as part of the sentence that defendant shall pay the whole or any part of the disbursements of the prosecution, including disbursements made to extradite a defendant. The court may order this payment in addition to any other penalty authorized by law which it may impose. The payment of the disbursements of prosecution may be enforced in the same manner as the sentence, or by execution against property. When collected, the disbursements must be paid into the treasury of the county of conviction, but this payment may not interfere with the payment of officers', witnesses', or jurors' fees.

ARTICLE 6 APPROPRIATIONS

Section 1. [APPROPRIATIONS.]

(a) $650,000 is appropriated from the general fund to the commissioner of corrections as a match to federal funds to create programs to provide intensive community supervision.

“Section 1. [126A.01] [FINDINGS.]

(a) The legislature finds that it is in the state's interest to provide all public school pupils in kindergarten through grade 12 with environmental education and all citizens with environmental education opportunities.

(b) The legislature further finds that the purpose of environmental education is to develop citizens who possess the awareness, knowledge, skills, attitudes, motivation, and commitment to work individually and collectively to establish and sustain a healthy environment.

Sec. 2. [126A.02] [ENVIRONMENTAL EDUCATION GOALS.]

The environmental education program described in this chapter has these goals for the pupils and other citizens of Minnesota:

(1) to understand ecological systems;

(2) to understand the cause and effect relationship between human attitudes and behavior and the environment;

(3) to be able to analyze, develop, and use problem-solving skills to understand the decision-making process of individuals, institutions, and nations regarding environmental issues;

(4) to be able to evaluate alternative responses to environmental issues before deciding on alternative courses of action;

(5) to provide experiences to assist citizens to increase their sensitivity and stewardship for the environment; and

(6) to provide the information citizens need to make informed decisions about actions to take on environmental issues.

Sec. 3. [126A.03] [ESTABLISHMENT OF ENVIRONMENTAL EDUCATION PROGRAM; CHARACTERISTICS; IMPLEMENTATION; IN-SERVICE.]

(a) The department of education shall assist in establishing environmental education programs in all public elementary and secondary schools.

(b) The environmental education program must be interdisciplinary, integrated into the curriculum, and outcome based.

(c) The program must be implemented through the department of education's learner outcome, assessment and feedback, and instructional processes.

(d) The department of education shall assist school districts, education districts, and other education organizations to develop environmental education policies that maximize the environmental education in-service teacher training in educational cooperative service unit regional offices.

Sec. 4. [126A.04] [INTEGRATED CURRICULUM DEVELOPMENT MODELS.]

The department of education shall develop curriculum integration models for a learner outcome-based environmental education program. The models must include:

(1) the specific environmental education and curriculum integration goals to be attained;

(2) the various options to achieve the goals;

(3) a hierarchy of learner outcomes composed of state learner goals; integrated learner outcomes; program learner outcomes; and course, unit, and lesson learner outcomes;

(4) mechanisms to communicate the models;

(5) an objective process to evaluate the progress to establish and implement a model integrated environmental education curriculum;

(6) alternatives to evaluate pupils' environmental education progress at the classroom level; and

(7) methods to assess pupils' environmental learning.

Sec. 5. [126A.05] [IN-SERVICE TEACHER TRAINING.]

The department of education is responsible for in-service teacher training in environmental education.

Sec. 6. [126A.06] [REPORTING.]

(a) Beginning January 15, 1992, the department of education shall submit a biennial report on its environmental education program to the legislature and the governor.

(b) The report must:

(1) describe the progress of environmental education learner outcome development and implementation in the public elementary and secondary schools;

(2) describe in-service involvement and assistance at the state and local level;

(3) evaluate the efforts of the research and development sites to implement integrated environmental learner outcome based education; and

(4) contain an implementation plan to assist school districts in the establishment of an environmental education program in all public elementary and secondary schools.

Sec. 7. [RESEARCH AND DEVELOPMENT SITES.]

(a) Sites selected under Laws 1989, chapter 329, article 7, section 21, or other school district sites may be used to demonstrate how environmental education outcomes can be integrated into a comprehensive education curriculum.

(b) The department of education shall assist the research and development sites to plan and implement integrated environmental education programs.

Sec. 8. [ADDITIONAL FUNDING.]

To the extent that existing funding is inadequate to meet the responsibilities of this act, the commissioner of education may request additional funding as a change level in the next biennial budget.

Sec. 9. [SUCCESSOR IN AUTHORITY.]

The department of administration takes the place of the environmental education board with respect to contracts made by the board's chief administrative officer and that officer's authority to apply for, receive, and disburse private grants and federal funds. After June 30, 1991, any such contracts must be transferred to other agencies or must not be renewed.

Sec. 10. [REPEALER.]

Minnesota Statutes 1988, sections 116E.01; 116E.02; 116E.03, subdivisions 2, 3, 4, 5, 6, 7, 7a, 8, and 9; and 116E.04; and Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, sections 116E.03, subdivision 1; and 116E.035, are repealed.

Sec. 11. [EFFECTIVE DATE.]

This act is effective July 1, 1990."

“Section 1. [144.3871] [POSTERS ON THE DANGERS OF ALCOHOL USE.]

The commissioner of health shall encourage all establishments required to obtain on-sale or off-sale intoxicating liquor licenses under chapter 340A, to display, in a prominent location, posters informing pregnant women and the public of the dangers of alcohol use. The commissioner shall make posters available, at no charge, to establishments with on-sale or off-sale licenses for intoxicating liquors. Posters must provide, in large print, the following message: “Warning: drinking alcoholic beverages during pregnancy can cause birth defects and prematurity,” or a similar message approved by the commissioner of health.

Sec. 2. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 147.09, is amended to read:

147.09 [EXEMPTIONS.]

Section 147.081 does not apply to, control, prevent or restrict the practice, service, or activities of:

(1) A person who is a commissioned medical officer of, a member of, or employed by, the armed forces of the United States, the United States Public Health Service, the Veterans Administration, any federal institution or any federal agency while engaged in the performance of official duties within this state, if the person is licensed elsewhere.

(2) A licensed physician from a state or country who is in actual consultation here.

(3) A licensed or registered physician who treats the physician's home state patients or other participating patients while the physicians and those patients are participating together in outdoor recreation in this state as defined by section 86A.03, subdivision 3. A physician shall first register with the board on a form developed by the board for that purpose. The board shall not be required to promulgate the contents of that form by rule. No fee shall be charged for this registration.

(4) A student practicing under the direct supervision of a preceptor while the student is enrolled in and regularly attending a recognized medical school.

(5) A student who is in continuing training and performing the duties of an intern or resident or engaged in postgraduate work considered by the board to be the equivalent of an internship or residency in any hospital or institution approved for training by the board.

(6) A person employed in a scientific, sanitary or teaching capacity by the state university, the state department of education, or by any public or private school, college, or other bona fide educational institution, or the state department of health, whose duties are entirely of a public health or educational character, while engaged in such duties.

(7) Physician's assistants registered in this state.

(8) A doctor of osteopathy duly licensed by the state board of osteopathy under Minnesota Statutes 1961, sections 148.11 to 148.16, prior to May 1, 1963, who has not been granted a license to practice medicine in accordance with this chapter provided that the doctor confines activities within the scope of the license.

(9) Any person licensed by a health related licensing board, as defined in section 214.01, subdivision 2, or registered by the commissioner of health pursuant to section 214.13, including licensed psychologists with respect to the use of hypnosis; provided that the person confines activities within the scope of the license.

(10) A Christian Scientist or other person who endeavors to prevent or cure disease or suffering exclusively by mental or spiritual means or by prayer, or who practices ritual circumcision pursuant to the requirements or tenets of any established religion.

(11) A Christian Scientist or other person who endeavors to prevent or cure disease or suffering exclusively by mental or spiritual means or by prayer.

Sec. 3. [245.826] [USE OF RESTRICTIVE TECHNIQUES AND PROCEDURES IN FACILITIES SERVING EMOTIONALLY DISTURBED CHILDREN.]

The commissioner of human services shall amend the rules governing facilities serving emotionally disturbed children that are licensed under section 245A.09 and Minnesota Rules, parts 9545.0900 to 9545.1090 or 9545.1400 to 9545.1500 to adapt, in a manner applicable to the population served by those facilities, the restrictions on the use of aversive and deprivation procedures mandated in Minnesota Rules, parts 9525.2700 to 9525.2810.

Sec. 4. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 245A.04, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [STUDY OF THE APPLICANT.] (a) Before the commissioner issues a license, the commissioner shall conduct a study of the individuals specified in clauses (1) to (4) according to rules of the commissioner. The applicant, license holder, the bureau of criminal apprehension, and county agencies, after written notice to the individual who is the subject of the study, shall help with the study by giving the commissioner criminal conviction data and reports about abuse or neglect of adults substantiated under section 626.557 and the maltreatment of minors substantiated under section 626.556. The individuals to be studied shall include:

- (1) the applicant;
- (2) persons over the age of 13 living in the household where the licensed program will be provided;
- (3) current employees or contractors of the applicant who will have direct contact with persons served by the program; and
- (4) volunteers who have direct contact with persons served by the program to provide program services, if the contact is not directly supervised by the individuals listed in clause (1) or (3).

The juvenile courts shall also help with the study by giving the commissioner existing juvenile court records on individuals described in clause (2), and on individuals over the age of 13 who are members of the household in which the licensed program will be operated but who are currently living outside the household in an out-of-home placement, relating to delinquency proceedings held within either the five years immediately preceding the application or the five years immediately preceding the individual's 18th birthday, whichever time period is longer. The commissioner shall destroy juvenile records obtained pursuant to this subdivision when the subject of the records reaches age 23.

For purposes of this subdivision, "direct contact" means providing face-to-face care, training, supervision, counseling, consultation, or medication assistance to persons served by a program. For purposes of this subdivision, "directly supervised" means an individual listed in clause (1) or (3) is within sight or hearing of a volunteer to the extent that the individual listed in clause (1) or (3) is capable at all times of intervening to protect the health and safety of the persons served by the program who have direct contact with the volunteer.

A study of an individual in clauses (1) to (4) shall be conducted on at least an annual basis. No applicant, license holder, or individual who is the subject of the study shall pay any fees required to conduct the study.

(b) The individual who is the subject of the study must provide the applicant or license holder with sufficient information to ensure an accurate study including the individual's first, middle, and last name; home address, city, county, and state of residence; zip code; sex; date of birth; and driver's license number. The applicant or license holder shall provide this information about an individual in paragraph (a), clauses (1) to (4), on forms prescribed by the commissioner. The commissioner may request additional information of the individual, which shall be optional for the individual to provide, such as the individual's social security number or race.

(c) A study must include information from the county agency's record of substantiated abuse of adults, neglect of adults, and the maltreatment of minors, and information from the bureau of criminal apprehension.

The commissioner may also review arrest and investigative information from the bureau of criminal apprehension, a county attorney, county sheriff, county agency, local chief of police, other states, the courts, or a national criminal record repository if the commissioner has reasonable cause to believe the information is pertinent to the disqualification of an individual listed in paragraph (a), clauses (1) to (4).

(d) An applicant's or license holder's failure or refusal to cooperate with the commissioner is reasonable cause to deny an application or immediately suspend, suspend, or revoke a license. Failure or refusal of an individual to cooperate with the study is just cause for denying or terminating employment of the individual if the individual's failure or refusal to cooperate could cause the applicant's application to be denied or the license holder's license to be immediately suspended, suspended, or revoked.

(e) The commissioner shall not consider an application to be complete until all of the information required to be provided under this subdivision has been received.

(f) No person in paragraph (a), clause (1), (2), (3), or (4) who is disqualified as a result of this act may be retained by the agency in a position involving direct contact with persons served by the program.

(g) The commissioner shall not implement the procedures contained in this subdivision until appropriate rules have been adopted, except for the applicants and license holders for child foster care, adult foster care, and family day care homes.

(h) Termination of persons in paragraph (a), clause (1), (2), (3), or (4) made in good faith reliance on a notice of disqualification provided by the commissioner shall not subject the applicant or license holder to civil liability.

(i) The commissioner may establish records to fulfill the requirements of this section. The information contained in the records is only available to the commissioner for the purpose authorized in this section.

Sec. 5. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 259.40, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [SUBSIDY PAYMENTS.] The commissioner of human services may make subsidy payments as necessary after the subsidized adoption agreement is approved to an adoptive parent or parents who adopt a child who meets the eligibility requirements under title IV-E of the Social Security Act, United States Code, title 42, section 670, or who otherwise meets the requirements in subdivision 4, is a Minnesota resident and is under guardianship of the commissioner or of a licensed child placing agency after the final decree of adoption is issued. The subsidy payments and any subsequent modifications to the subsidy payments shall be based on the needs of the adopted person that the commissioner has determined cannot be met using other resources including programs available to the adopted person and the adoptive parent or parents.

Sec. 6. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 259.40, subdivision 4, is amended to read:

Subd. 4. [ELIGIBILITY CONDITIONS.] The placing agency shall determine the child's eligibility for adoption assistance under title IV-E of the Social Security Act. If the child does not qualify, the placing agency shall certify a child as eligible for a state-funded subsidy only if the following criteria are met:

(a) A placement agency has made reasonable efforts to place the child for adoption without subsidy, but has been unsuccessful; or

(b) The child's licensed foster parents desire to adopt the child and it is determined by the placing agency that:

(1) The adoption is in the best interest of the child; and,

(2) Due to the child's characteristics or circumstances it would be difficult to provide the child an adoptive home without subsidy; and

(c) The child has been a ward of the commissioner, or licensed child placing agency.

Sec. 7. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 260.011, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. (a) The paramount consideration in all proceedings concerning a child alleged or found to be in need of protection or services is the best interest of the child. The purpose of the laws relating to juvenile courts is to secure for each child alleged or adjudicated in need of protection or services and under the jurisdiction of the court, the care and guidance, preferably in the child's own home, as will best serve the spiritual, emotional, mental, and physical welfare of the child and the best interests of the state; to provide judicial procedures which protect the welfare of the child; to preserve and strengthen the child's family ties whenever possible and in the child's best interests, removing the child from the custody of parents only when the child's welfare or safety cannot be adequately safeguarded without removal; and, when removal from the child's own family is necessary and in the child's best interests, to secure for the child custody, care and discipline as nearly as possible equivalent to that which should have been given by the parents. In proceedings involving an American Indian child, as defined in section 257.351, subdivision 6, the best interests of the child must be determined consistent with the Indian Child Welfare Act of 1978, United States Code, title 25, section 1901, et seq. and the Minnesota Indian family preservation act under sections 257.35 to 257.3579.

(b) The purpose of the laws relating to termination of parental rights is to ensure that:

(1) reasonable efforts have been made by the social service agency to reunite the child with the child's parents in a placement that is safe and permanent; and

(2) if placement with the parents is not reasonably foreseeable, to secure for the child a safe and permanent placement, preferably with adoptive parents.

The paramount consideration in all proceedings for the termination of parental rights is the best interests of the child. In proceedings involving an American Indian child, as defined in section 257.351; subdivision 6, the best interests of the child must be determined consistent with the Indian Child Welfare Act of 1978, United States Code, title 25, section 1901, et seq. and the Minnesota Indian family preservation act under sections 257.35 to 257.3579.

(c) The purpose of the laws relating to children alleged or adjudicated to be delinquent is to promote the public safety and reduce juvenile delinquency by maintaining the integrity of the substantive law prohibiting certain behavior and by developing individual responsibility for lawful behavior. This purpose should be pursued through means that are fair and just, that recognize the unique characteristics and needs of children, and that give children access to opportunities for personal and social growth.

(d) The laws relating to juvenile courts shall be liberally construed to carry out these purposes.

Sec. 8. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 260.015, subdivision 2a, is amended to read:

Subd. 2a. [CHILD IN NEED OF PROTECTION OR SERVICES.] "Child in need of protection or services" means a child who is in need of protection or services because the child:

(1) is abandoned or without parent, guardian, or custodian;

(2)(i) has been a victim of physical or sexual abuse, or (ii) resides with or has resided with a victim of domestic child abuse as defined in subdivision 24, (iii) resides with or would reside with a perpetrator of domestic child abuse, or (iv) is a victim of emotional maltreatment as defined in subdivision 5a;

(3) is without necessary food, clothing, shelter, education, or other required care for the child's physical or mental health or morals because the child's parent, guardian, or custodian is unable or unwilling to provide that care;

(4) is without the special care made necessary by a physical, mental, or emotional condition because the child's parent, guardian, or custodian is unable or unwilling to provide that care;

(5) is medically neglected, which includes, but is not limited to, the withholding of medically indicated treatment from a disabled infant with a life-threatening condition. The term "withholding of medically indicated treatment" means the failure to respond to the infant's life-threatening conditions by providing treatment, including appropriate nutrition, hydration, and medication which, in the treating physician's or physicians' reasonable medical judgment, will be most likely to be effective in ameliorating or correcting all conditions, except that the term does not include the failure to provide treatment other than appropriate nutrition, hydration, or medication to an infant when, in the treating physician's or physicians' reasonable medical judgment:

(i) the infant is chronically and irreversibly comatose;

(ii) the provision of the treatment would merely prolong dying, not be effective in ameliorating or correcting all of the infant's life-threatening conditions, or otherwise be futile in terms of the survival of the infant; or

(iii) the provision of the treatment would be virtually futile in terms of the survival of the infant and the treatment itself under the circumstances would be inhumane;

(6) is one whose parent, guardian, or other custodian for good cause desires to be relieved of the child's care and custody;

(7) has been placed for adoption or care in violation of law;

(8) is without proper parental care because of the emotional, mental, or physical disability, or state of immaturity of the child's parent, guardian, or other custodian;

(9) is one whose behavior, condition, or environment is such as to be injurious or dangerous to the child or others;

(10) has committed a delinquent act before becoming ten years old;

(11) is a runaway; or

(12) is an habitual truant; or

(13) is one whose custodial parent's parental rights to another child have been involuntarily terminated within the past ten years.

Sec. 9. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 260.155, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [GENERAL.] Except for hearings arising under section 260.261, hearings on any matter shall be without a jury and may be conducted in an informal manner. The rules of evidence promulgated pursuant to section 480.0591 and the law of evidence shall apply in adjudicatory proceedings involving a child alleged to be delinquent, in need of protection or services under section 260.015, subdivision 2a, clause (11) or (12), or a juvenile petty offender, and hearings conducted pursuant to section 260.125 except to the extent that the rules themselves provide that they do not apply. Except for proceedings involving a child alleged to be in need of protection or services and petitions for the termination of parental rights, hearings may be continued or adjourned from time to time and, in the interim. In proceedings involving a child alleged to be in need of protection or services and petitions for the termination of parental rights, hearings may not be continued or adjourned for more than one week unless the court makes specific findings that the continuance or adjournment is in the best interests of the child. When a continuance or adjournment is ordered in any proceeding, the court may make any interim orders as it deems in the best interests of the minor in accordance with the provisions of sections 260.011 to 260.301. The court shall exclude the general public from these hearings and shall admit only those persons who, in the discretion of the court, have a direct interest in the case or in the work of the court; except that, the court shall open the hearings to the public in delinquency proceedings where the child is alleged to have committed an offense or has been proven to have committed an offense that would be a felony if committed by an adult and the child was at least 16 years of age at the time of the offense. In all delinquency cases a person named in the charging clause of the petition as a person directly damaged in person or property shall be entitled, upon request, to be notified by the court administrator in writing, at the named person's last known address, of (1) the date of the reference or adjudicatory hearings, and (2) the disposition of the case. Adoption hearings shall be conducted in accordance with the provisions of laws relating to adoptions.

Sec. 10. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 260.161, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. Except as provided in this subdivision and in subdivision 1, and except for legal records arising from proceedings that are public under section 260.155, subdivision 1, none of the records of the juvenile court and none of the records relating to an appeal from a nonpublic juvenile court proceeding, except the written appellate opinion, shall be open to public inspection or their contents disclosed except (a) by order of a court or (b) as required by sections 245A.04, 611A.03, 611A.04, and 611A.06. The records of juvenile probation officers and county home schools are records of the court for the purposes of this subdivision. Court services data relating to delinquent acts that are contained in records of the juvenile court may be released as allowed under section 13.84, subdivision 5a. This subdivision applies to all proceedings under this chapter, including appeals from orders of the juvenile court, except that this subdivision does not apply to proceedings under section 260.255, 260.261, or 260.315 when the proceeding involves an adult defendant. The court shall maintain the confidentiality of adoption files and records in accordance with the provisions of laws relating to adoptions. In juvenile court proceedings any report or social history furnished to the court shall be open to inspection by the attorneys of record and the guardian ad litem a reasonable time before it is used in connection with any proceeding before the court.

When a judge of a juvenile court, or duly authorized agent of the court, determines under a proceeding under this chapter that a child has violated a state or local law, ordinance, or regulation pertaining to the operation of a motor vehicle on streets and highways, except parking violations, the judge or agent shall immediately report the violation to the commissioner of public safety. The report must be made on a form provided by the department of public safety and must contain the information required under section 169.95.

Sec. 11. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 260.171, subdivision 4, is amended to read:

Subd. 4. If the person who has taken the child into custody determines that the child should be placed in a secure detention facility or a shelter care facility, that person shall advise the child and as soon as is possible, the child's parent, guardian, or custodian:

(a) of the reasons why the child has been taken into custody and why the child is being placed in a juvenile secure detention facility or a shelter care facility; and

(b) of the location of the juvenile secure detention facility or shelter care facility. If there is reason to believe that disclosure of the location of the shelter care facility would place the child's health and welfare in immediate endangerment, disclosure of the location of the shelter care facility shall not be made; and

(c) that the child's parent, guardian, or custodian and attorney or guardian ad litem may make an initial visit to the juvenile secure detention facility or shelter care facility at any time. Subsequent visits by a parent, guardian, or custodian may be made on a reasonable basis during visiting hours and by the child's attorney or guardian ad litem at reasonable hours; and

(d) that the child may telephone parents and an attorney or guardian ad litem from the juvenile secure detention facility or shelter care facility immediately after being admitted to the facility and thereafter on a reasonable basis to be determined by the director of the facility; and

(e) that the child may not be detained for acts as defined in section 260.015, subdivision 5, at a juvenile secure detention facility or shelter care facility longer than 36 hours, excluding Saturdays, Sundays, and holidays, unless a petition has been filed within that time and the court orders the child's continued detention, pursuant to section 260.172; and

(f) that the child may not be detained for acts defined in section 260.015, subdivision 5, at an adult jail or municipal lockup longer than 24 hours, excluding Saturdays, Sundays, and holidays, or longer than six hours if the adult jail or municipal lockup is in a standard metropolitan statistical area, unless a petition has been filed and the court orders the child's continued detention under section 260.172; and

(g) that the child may not be detained pursuant to section 260.165, subdivision 1, clause (a) or (c)(2), at a shelter care facility longer than 72 hours, excluding Saturdays, Sundays, and holidays, unless a petition has been filed within that time and the court orders the child's continued detention, pursuant to section 260.172; and

(h) of the date, time, and place of the detention hearing, if this information is available to the person who has taken the child into custody; and

(i) that the child and the child's parent, guardian, or custodian have the right to be present and to be represented by counsel at the detention hearing, and that if they cannot afford counsel, counsel will be appointed at public expense for the child, if it is a delinquency matter, or for any party, if it is a child in need of protection or services, neglected and in foster care, or termination of parental rights matter.

After August 1, 1991, the child's parent, guardian, or custodian shall also be informed under clause (f) that the child may not be detained in an adult jail or municipal lockup longer than 24 hours, excluding Saturdays, Sundays, and holidays, or longer than six hours if the adult jail or municipal lockup is in a standard metropolitan statistical area, unless a motion to refer the child for adult prosecution has been made within that time period.

Sec. 12. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 260.221, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [VOLUNTARY AND INVOLUNTARY.] The juvenile court may upon petition, terminate all rights of a parent to a child in the following cases:

(a) With the written consent of a parent who for good cause desires to terminate parental rights; or

(b) If it finds that one or more of the following conditions exist:

(1) That the parent has abandoned the child. Abandonment is presumed when:

(i) the parent has had no contact or merely incidental contact with the child for six months in the case of a child under six years of age, or for 12 months in the case of a child ages six to 11; and

(ii) the social service agency has made reasonable efforts to facilitate contact, unless the parent establishes that an extreme financial or physical hardship or treatment for mental disability or chemical dependency or other good cause prevented the parent from making contact with the child. This presumption does not apply to children whose custody has been determined under chapter 257 or 518. The court is not prohibited from finding abandonment in the absence of this presumption; or

(2) That the parent has substantially, continuously, or repeatedly refused or neglected to comply with the duties imposed upon that parent by the parent and child relationship, including but not limited to providing the child with necessary food, clothing, shelter, education, and other care and control necessary for the child's physical, mental, or emotional health and development, if the parent is physically and financially able, and reasonable efforts by the social service agency have failed to correct the conditions that formed the basis of the petition; or

(3) That a parent has been ordered to contribute to the support of the child or financially aid in the child's birth and has continuously failed to do so without good cause. This clause shall not be construed to state a grounds for termination of parental rights of a noncustodial parent if that parent has not been ordered to or cannot financially contribute to the support of the child or aid in the child's birth; or

(4) That a parent is palpably unfit to be a party to the parent and child relationship because of a consistent pattern of specific conduct before the child or of specific conditions directly relating to the parent and child relationship either of which are determined by the court to be of a duration or nature that renders the parent unable, for the reasonably foreseeable future, to care appropriately for the ongoing physical, mental, or emotional needs of the child. It is presumed that a parent is palpably unfit to be a party to the parent and child relationship upon a showing that the child has been adjudicated in need of protection or services and that the parent's parental rights to one or more other children have been involuntarily terminated within the past ten years; or

(5) That following upon a determination of neglect or dependency, or of a child's need for protection or services, reasonable efforts, under the direction of the court, have failed to correct the conditions leading to the determination. It is presumed that reasonable efforts under this clause have failed upon a showing that:

(i) a child under the age of 12 has resided out of the parental home under court order for more than one year following an adjudication of dependency, neglect, need for protection or services under section 260.015, subdivision 2a, clause (1), (2), (6), (8), or (9), or neglected and in foster care, and an order for disposition under section 260.191, including adoption of the case plan required by section 257.071;

(ii) conditions leading to the determination will not be corrected within the reasonably foreseeable future; and

(iii) reasonable efforts have been made by the social service agency to rehabilitate the parent and reunite the family.

This clause does not prohibit the termination of parental rights prior to one year after a child has been placed out of the home; or.

It is also presumed that reasonable efforts have failed under this clause upon a showing that: (1) the parent has been diagnosed as chemically dependent by a professional certified to make the diagnosis; (2) the parent has been required by a case plan to participate in a chemical dependency treatment program; (3) the parent has either failed to successfully complete the program two or more times or has refused to participate in a culturally and linguistically appropriate treatment program; and (4) the parent continues to abuse chemicals; or

(6) That the parent has been convicted of causing the death of another of the parent's children; or

(7) That in the case of a child born to a mother who was not married to the child's father when the child was conceived nor when the child was born the person is not entitled to notice of an adoption hearing under section 259.26 and either the person has not filed a notice of intent to retain parental rights under section 259.261 or that the notice has been successfully challenged; or

~~(7)~~ (8) That the child is neglected and in foster care.

Sec. 13. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 364.09, is amended to read:

364.09 [EXCEPTIONS.]

(a) This chapter shall not apply to the practice of law enforcement, to fire protection agencies, to eligibility for a private detective or protective agent license, to eligibility for a family day care license, a family foster care license, a home care provider license, or to eligibility for school bus driver endorsements, or to eligibility for juvenile corrections employment where the offense involved child physical or sexual abuse or criminal sexual conduct.

(b) This chapter does not apply to a school district.

(c) Nothing in this section shall be construed to preclude the Minnesota police and peace officers training board or the state fire marshal from recommending policies set forth in this chapter to the attorney general for adoption in the attorney general's discretion to apply to law enforcement or fire protection agencies.

Sec. 14. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 609.223, is amended to read:

609.223 [ASSAULT IN THE THIRD DEGREE.]

Subdivision 1. [SUBSTANTIAL BODILY HARM.] Whoever assaults another and inflicts substantial bodily harm may be sentenced to imprisonment for not more than five years or to payment of a fine of not more than $10,000, or both.

Subd. 2. [PAST PATTERN OF CHILD ABUSE.] Whoever assaults a minor may be sentenced to imprisonment for not more than five years or to payment of a fine of not more than $10,000, or both, if the perpetrator has engaged in a past pattern of child abuse against the minor. As used in this subdivision, "child abuse" has the meaning given it in section 609.185, clause (5).

Sec. 15. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 609.2231, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 5. [CHILD PROTECTION WORKERS.] Whoever assaults a child protection worker, as defined in section 626.559, subdivision 1, while the worker is engaged in the performance of a duty imposed by law, policy, or rule, and inflicts demonstrable bodily harm, is guilty of a gross misdemeanor.

Sec. 16. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 609.377, is amended to read:

609.377 [MALICIOUS PUNISHMENT OF A CHILD.]

A parent, legal guardian, or caretaker who, by an intentional act or a series of intentional acts with respect to a child, evidences unreasonable force or cruel discipline that is excessive under the circumstances is guilty of malicious punishment of a child and may be sentenced to imprisonment for not more than one year or to payment of a fine of not more than $3,000, or both. If the punishment results in substantial bodily harm, that person may be sentenced to imprisonment for not more than five years or to payment of a fine of not more than $10,000, or both. If the punishment results in great bodily harm, that person may be sentenced to imprisonment for not more than ten years or to payment of a fine of not more than $20,000, or both.

Sec. 17. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 626.556, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [PUBLIC POLICY.] The legislature hereby declares that the public policy of this state is to protect children whose health or welfare may be jeopardized through physical abuse, neglect or sexual abuse; In furtherance of this public policy, it is the intent of the legislature under this section to strengthen the family and make the home, school, and community safe for children by promoting responsible child care in all settings; and to provide, when necessary, a safe temporary or permanent home environment for physically or sexually abused or neglected children.

In addition, it is the policy of this state to require the reporting of neglect, physical or sexual abuse of children in the home, school, and community settings; to provide for the voluntary reporting of abuse or neglect of children; to require the assessment and investigation of the reports; and to provide protective and counseling services in appropriate cases.

Sec. 18. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 626.556, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [DEFINITIONS.] As used in this section, the following terms have the meanings given them unless the specific content indicates otherwise:

(a) "Sexual abuse" means the subjection of a child by a person responsible for the child's care, or by a person in a position of authority, as defined in section 609.341, subdivision 10, to any act which constitutes a violation of section 609.342, 609.343, 609.344, or 609.345. Sexual abuse also includes any act which involves a minor which constitutes a violation of sections 609.321 to 609.324 or 617.246. Sexual abuse includes threatened sexual abuse.

(b) "Person responsible for the child's care" means (1) an individual functioning within the family unit and having responsibilities for the care of the child such as a parent, guardian, or other person having similar care responsibilities, or (2) an individual functioning outside the family unit and having responsibilities for the care of the child such as a teacher, school administrator, or other lawful custodian of a child having either full-time or short-term care responsibilities including, but not limited to, day care, babysitting whether paid or unpaid, counseling, teaching, and coaching.

(c) "Neglect" means failure by a person responsible for a child's care to supply a child with necessary food, clothing, shelter or medical care when reasonably able to do so or failure to protect a child from conditions or actions which imminently and seriously endanger the child's physical or mental health when reasonably able to do so. Nothing in this section shall be construed to mean that a child is neglected solely because the child's parent, guardian, or other person responsible for the child's care in good faith selects and depends upon spiritual means or prayer for treatment or care of disease or remedial care of the child in lieu of medical care; except that there is a duty to report if a lack of medical care may cause imminent and serious danger to the child's health. This section does not impose upon persons, not otherwise legally responsible for providing a child with necessary food, clothing, shelter, or medical care, a duty to provide that care. "Neglect" includes prenatal exposure to a controlled substance, as defined in section 626.5561, used by the mother for a nonmedical purpose, as evidenced by withdrawal symptoms in the child at birth, results of a toxicology test performed on the mother at delivery or the child at birth, or medical effects or developmental delays during the child's first year of life that medically indicate prenatal exposure to a controlled substance. Neglect also means "medical neglect" as defined in section 260.015, subdivision 2a, clause (5).

(d) "Physical abuse" means any physical or mental injury, or threatened injury, inflicted by a person responsible for the child's care on a child other than by accidental means, or any physical or mental injury that cannot reasonably be explained by the child's history of injuries, or any aversive and deprivation procedures that have not been authorized under section 245.825.

(e) "Report" means any report received by the local welfare agency, police department, or county sheriff pursuant to this section.

(f) "Facility" means a day care facility, residential facility, agency, hospital, sanitarium, or other facility or institution required to be licensed pursuant to sections 144.50 to 144.58, 241.021, or 245.781 to 245.812.

(g) "Operator" means an operator or agency as defined in section 245A.02.

(h) "Commissioner" means the commissioner of human services.

(i) "Assessment" includes authority to interview the child, the person or persons responsible for the child's care, the alleged perpetrator, and any other person with knowledge of the abuse or neglect for the purpose of gathering the facts, assessing the risk to the child, and formulating a plan.

(j) "Practice of social services," for the purposes of subdivision 3, includes but is not limited to employee assistance counseling and the provision of guardian ad litem services.

(k) "Mental injury" means an injury to the psychological capacity or emotional stability of a child as evidenced by an observable or substantial impairment in the child's ability to function within a normal range of performance and behavior with due regard to the child's culture.

(l) "Threatened injury" means a statement, overt act, condition or status that represents a substantial risk of physical or sexual abuse or mental injury.

Sec. 19. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 626.556, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [PERSONS MANDATED TO REPORT.] (a) A person who knows or has reason to believe a child is being neglected or physically or sexually abused, as defined in subdivision 2, or has been neglected or physically or sexually abused within the preceding three years, shall immediately report the information to the local welfare agency, police department, or the county sheriff if the person is:

(1) a professional or professional's delegate who is engaged in the practice of the healing arts, social services, hospital administration, psychological or psychiatric treatment, child care, education, or law enforcement; or

(2) employed as a member of the clergy and received the information while engaged in ministerial duties, provided that a member of the clergy is not required by this subdivision to report information that is otherwise privileged under section 595.02, subdivision 1, paragraph (c).

The police department or the county sheriff, upon receiving a report, shall immediately notify the local welfare agency orally and in writing. The local welfare agency, upon receiving a report, shall immediately notify the local police department or the county sheriff orally and in writing. The county sheriff and the head of every local welfare agency and police department shall each designate a person within their agency, department, or office who is responsible for ensuring that the notification duties of this paragraph and paragraph (b) are carried out. Nothing in this subdivision shall be construed to require more than one report from any institution, facility, school, or agency.

(b) Any person may voluntarily report to the local welfare agency, police department, or the county sheriff if the person knows, has reason to believe, or suspects a child is being or has been neglected or subjected to physical or sexual abuse. The police department or the county sheriff, upon receiving a report, shall immediately notify the local welfare agency orally and in writing. The local welfare agency, upon receiving a report, shall immediately notify the local police department or the county sheriff orally and in writing.

(c) A person mandated to report physical or sexual child abuse or neglect occurring within a licensed facility shall report the information to the agency responsible for licensing the facility. A health or corrections agency receiving a report may request the local welfare agency to provide assistance pursuant to subdivisions 10, 10a, and 10b.

(d) Any person mandated to report shall, upon request to the local welfare agency, receive a summary of the disposition of any report made by that reporter, unless release would be detrimental to the best interests of the child. Any person who is not mandated to report shall, upon request to the local welfare agency, receive a concise summary of the disposition of any report made by that reporter, unless release would be detrimental to the best interests of the child.

(e) For purposes of this subdivision, "immediately" means as soon as possible but in no event longer than 24 hours.

Sec. 20. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 626.556, subdivision 4, is amended to read:

Subd. 4. [IMMUNITY FROM LIABILITY.] (a) The following persons are immune from any civil or criminal liability that otherwise might result from their actions, if they are acting in good faith:

(1) any person making a voluntary or mandated report under subdivision 3 or assisting in an assessment under this section;

(2) any social worker or supervisor employed by a local welfare agency complying with subdivision 10d; and

(3) any public or private school, facility as defined in subdivision 2, or the employee of any public or private school or facility who permits access by a local welfare agency or local law enforcement agency and assists in an investigation or assessment pursuant to subdivision 10.

(b) A person who is a supervisor or social worker employed by a local welfare agency complying with subdivisions 10 and 11 or any related rule or provision of law is immune from any civil or criminal liability that might otherwise result from the person's actions, if the person is acting in good faith and exercising due care.

(c) This subdivision does not provide immunity to any person for failure to make a required report or for committing neglect, physical abuse, or sexual abuse of a child.

(d) If a person who makes a voluntary or mandatory report under subdivision 3 and who acts in good faith prevails in a civil action from which the person has been granted immunity under this subdivision, the person may recover attorney fees and costs.

Sec. 21. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 626.556, subdivision 10e, is amended to read:

Subd. 10e. [DETERMINATIONS.] Upon the conclusion of every assessment or investigation it conducts, the local welfare agency shall make two determinations: first, whether maltreatment has occurred; and second, whether child protective services are needed.

(a) For the purposes of this subdivision, "maltreatment" means any of the following acts or omissions committed by a person responsible for the child's care:

(1) an assault, as defined in section 609.02, subdivision 10, or any physical contact not exempted by section 609.379, where the assault or physical contact is either severe or recurring and causes either injury or significant risk of injury to the child physical abuse as defined in subdivision 2, paragraph (d);

(2) neglect as defined in subdivision 2, paragraph (c); ~~or~~

(3) sexual abuse as defined in subdivision 2, paragraph (a); or

(4) mental injury as defined in section 18.

(b) For the purposes of this subdivision, a determination that child protective services are needed means that the local welfare agency has documented conditions during the assessment or investigation sufficient to cause a child protection worker, as defined in section 626.559, subdivision 1, to conclude that a child is at significant risk of maltreatment if protective intervention is not provided and that the individuals responsible for the child's care have not taken or are not likely to take actions to protect the child from maltreatment or risk of maltreatment.

(c) This subdivision does not mean that maltreatment has occurred solely because the child's parent, guardian, or other person responsible for the child's care in good faith selects and depends upon spiritual means or prayer for treatment or care of disease or remedial care of the child, in lieu of medical care. However, if lack of medical care may result in imminent and serious danger to the child's health, the local welfare agency may ensure that necessary medical services are provided to the child.

Sec. 22. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 626.556, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 10g. [INTERSTATE DATA EXCHANGE.] All reports and records created, collected, or maintained under this section by a local social service agency or law enforcement agency may be disclosed to a local social service or other child welfare agency of another state when the agency certifies that:

(1) the reports and records are necessary in order to conduct an investigation of actions that would qualify as sexual abuse, physical abuse, or neglect under this section; and

(2) the reports and records will be used only for purposes of a child protection assessment or investigation and will not be further disclosed to any other person or agency.

The local social service agency or law enforcement agency in this state shall keep a record of all records or reports disclosed pursuant to this subdivision and of any agency to which the records or reports are disclosed. If in any case records or reports are disclosed before a determination is made under subdivision 10e, or a disposition of any criminal proceedings is reached, the local social service agency or law enforcement agency in this state shall forward the determination or disposition to any agency which has received any report or record under this subdivision.

Sec. 23. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 626.556, subdivision 11, is amended to read:

Subd. 11. [RECORDS.] Except as provided in subdivisions 10b, 10d, 10g, and 11b, all records concerning individuals maintained by a local welfare agency under this section, including any written reports filed under subdivision 7, shall be private data on individuals, except insofar as copies of reports are required by subdivision 7 to be sent to the local police department or the county sheriff. Reports maintained by any police department or the county sheriff shall be private data on individuals except the reports shall be made available to the investigating, petitioning, or prosecuting authority. Section 13.82, subdivisions 5, 5a, and 5b, apply to law enforcement data other than the reports. The welfare board shall make available to the investigating, petitioning, or prosecuting authority any records which contain information relating to a specific incident of neglect or abuse which is under investigation, petition, or prosecution and information relating to any prior incidents of neglect or abuse involving any of the same persons. The records shall be collected and maintained in accordance with the provisions of chapter 13. In conducting investigations and assessments pursuant to this section, the notice required by section 13.04, subdivision 2, need not be provided to a minor under the age of ten who is the alleged victim of abuse or neglect. An individual subject of a record shall have access to the record in accordance with those sections, except that the name of the reporter shall be confidential while the report is under assessment or investigation except as otherwise permitted by this subdivision. Any person conducting an investigation or assessment under this section who intentionally discloses the identity of a reporter prior to the completion of the investigation or assessment is guilty of a misdemeanor. After the assessment or investigation is completed, the name of the reporter shall be confidential. The subject of the report may compel disclosure of the name of the reporter only with the consent of the reporter or upon a written finding by the court that the report was false and that there is evidence that the report was made in bad faith. This subdivision does not alter disclosure responsibilities or obligations under the rules of criminal procedure.

Sec. 24. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 626.558, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [ESTABLISHMENT OF THE TEAM.] A county ~~may~~ shall establish a multidisciplinary child protection team that may include, but not be limited to, the director of the local welfare agency or designees, the county attorney or designees, the county sheriff or designees, representatives of health and education, representatives of mental health or other appropriate human service agencies, and parent groups.

Sec. 25. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 626.559, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [JOINT TRAINING.] The commissioners of human services and public safety shall cooperate in the development of a joint program for training child abuse services professionals in the appropriate techniques for child abuse assessment and investigation. The program shall include but need not be limited to the following areas:

(1) the public policy goals of the state as set forth in section 260.011 and the role of the assessment or investigation in meeting these goals;

(2) the special duties of child protection workers and law enforcement officers under section 626.556;

(3) the appropriate methods for directing and managing affiliated professionals who may be utilized in providing protective services and strengthening family ties;

(4) the appropriate methods for interviewing alleged victims of child abuse and other minors in the course of performing an assessment or an investigation;

(5) the dynamics of child abuse and neglect within family systems and the appropriate methods for interviewing parents in the course of the assessment or investigation, including training in recognizing cases in which one of the parents is a victim of domestic abuse and in need of special legal or medical services;

(6) the legal, evidentiary considerations that may be relevant to the conduct of an assessment or an investigation;

(7) the circumstances under which it is appropriate to remove the alleged abuser or the alleged victim from the home;

(8) the protective social services that are available to protect alleged victims from further abuse, to prevent child abuse and domestic abuse, and to preserve the family unit, and training in the preparation of case plans to coordinate services for the alleged child abuse victim with services for any parents who are victims of domestic abuse; and

(9) the methods by which child protection workers and law enforcement workers cooperate in conducting assessments and investigations in order to avoid duplication of efforts.

Sec. 26. [ATTORNEY GENERAL DATA PRACTICES STUDY.]

The attorney general shall:

(1) prepare a plain-language interpretation of existing data practices laws that affect the child protection system;

(2) identify ambiguities and inconsistencies in the laws and compare the classification and treatment of data in law enforcement and child protection agencies;

(3) prepare standard forms for giving information to individuals under Minnesota Statutes, section 13.04, subdivision 2, and for reports under Minnesota Statutes, section 626.556;

(4) determine the need for giving mandated reporters, law enforcement, and child protection workers who must diagnose and investigate child abuse increased access to medical records and information on prior abuse; and

(5) consider the desirability of defining false or unfounded reports under Minnesota Statutes, section 626.556.

The attorney general shall report and make recommendations to the legislature by December 15, 1991.

Sec. 27. [SUPREME COURT REVIEW OF CERTAIN JUVENILE COURT ISSUES.]

The supreme court is requested to study and review the following two issues:

(1) whether the use of Minnesota Statutes, section 542.16 and Rule 63.03 of the rules of civil procedure to remove judges in juvenile court cases involving allegations of child abuse or neglect is frequent and appropriate;

(2) whether there is adequate special training for judges who hear juvenile court cases involving allegations of child abuse or neglect.

The supreme court is requested to report to the judiciary committees of the senate and the house of representatives with any findings or recommendations for change resulting from these reviews.

Sec. 28. [EFFECTIVE DATE.]

Sections 14 to 16 are effective August 1, 1990, and apply to crimes committed on or after that date. Section 20 is effective August 1, 1989, for actions pending or commenced on or after that date."

“Section 1. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 148.171, is amended to read:

148.171 [DEFINITIONS.]

Sections 148.171 to 148.285 shall be referred to as the Minnesota nurse practice act.

As used in sections 148.171 to 148.285:

(1) “Board” means the Minnesota board of nursing.

(2) “Registered Nurse,” abbreviated R.N., means an individual licensed by the board to practice professional nursing.

(3) The practice of professional nursing means the performance for compensation or personal profit of the professional interpersonal service of: (a) providing a nursing assessment of the actual or potential health needs of individuals, families, or communities; (b) providing nursing care supportive to or restorative of life by functions such as skilled ministrations of nursing care, supervising and teaching nursing personnel, health teaching and counseling, case finding, and referral to other health resources; and (c) evaluating these actions.

The practice of professional nursing includes both independent nursing functions and delegated medical functions which may be performed in collaboration with other health team members, or may be delegated by the professional nurse to other nursing personnel. Independent nursing function may also be performed autonomously. The practice of professional nursing requires that level of special education, knowledge, and skill ordinarily expected of an individual who has completed an approved professional nursing education program as described in section 148.211, subdivision 1. A registered nurse who has graduated from a program of study designed to prepare registered nurses for advanced practice as nurse-midwives and who is certified through the national professional nursing organization for nurse-midwives may prescribe and administer drugs and therapeutic devices within practice as a nurse-midwife.

(4) “Licensed practical nurse,” abbreviated L.P.N., means an individual licensed by the board to practice practical nursing.

(5) The practice of practical nursing means the performance for compensation or personal profit of any of those services in observing and caring for the ill, injured, or infirm, in applying counsel and procedure to safeguard life and health, in administering medication and treatment prescribed by a licensed health professional, which are commonly performed by licensed practical nurses and which require specialized knowledge and skill such as are taught or acquired in an approved school of practical nursing, but which do not require the specialized education, knowledge, and skill of a registered nurse.

(6) "Nurse" means registered nurse and licensed practical nurse unless the context clearly refers to only one category.

(7) "Nursing assistant" means an individual providing nursing or nursing-related services that do not require the specialized knowledge and skill of a nurse, at the direction of a nurse, but does not include a licensed health professional or an individual who volunteers to provide such services without monetary compensation.

(8) "Public health nurse" means a registered nurse who meets the voluntary registration requirements established by the board by rule.

Sec. 2. [148.235] [PRESCRIBING DRUGS AND THERAPEUTIC DEVICES.]

Subdivision 1. [NURSE-MIDWIVES.] A registered nurse who has graduated from a program of study designed to prepare registered nurses for advanced practice as nurse-midwives and who is certified through the national professional nursing organization for nurse-midwives may prescribe and administer drugs and therapeutic devices within practice as a nurse-midwife.

Subd. 2. [NURSE PRACTITIONERS.] (a) [PRESCRIBING AUTHORITY.] A registered nurse who (1) has graduated from a program of study designed to prepare registered nurses for advanced practice as nurse practitioners, (2) is certified through a national professional nursing organization which certifies nurse practitioners and is included in the list of professional nursing organizations adopted by the board under section 62A.15, subdivision 3a, and (3) has a written agreement with a physician based on standards established by the Minnesota nurses association and the Minnesota medical association that defines the delegated responsibilities related to the prescription of drugs and therapeutic devices, may prescribe and administer drugs and therapeutic devices within the scope of the written agreement and within practice as a nurse practitioner.

(b) [RULES.] By July 1, 1991, the board shall promulgate rules to provide for the following:

(1) a system of identifying nurse practitioners eligible to prescribe drugs and therapeutic devices;

(2) a method of determining which general categories of prescription drugs and therapeutic devices have been delegated to each nurse practitioner;

(3) a system of transmitting to pharmacists information concerning nurse practitioners eligible to prescribe drugs and therapeutic devices and the types of drugs and therapeutic devices they have been delegated the authority to prescribe; and

(4) a fee to the nurse practitioner who seeks prescribing authority in an amount sufficient to cover the board's ongoing costs relating to monitoring and regulating the prescribing authority of nurse practitioners.

(c) [TASK FORCE.] For purposes of adopting rules under this paragraph, the board shall establish and appoint an advisory task force composed of the following nine members:

(1) five nurse practitioners;

(2) two pharmacists; and

(3) two physicians.

Members must be appointed from lists of qualified persons nominated by the appropriate professional associations. The task force shall recommend rules to the board on each of the subjects listed above. No rule relating to the prescribing of drugs and therapeutic devices by nurse practitioners may be proposed by the board unless it was first submitted to the task force for review and comment.

Sec. 3. [INTERIM FILING REQUIREMENT.]

A nurse practitioner may not prescribe or administer drugs or therapeutic devices after August 1, 1990, unless the nurse practitioner satisfies the requirements in section 2, subdivision 2, paragraph (a), and has filed with the board of nursing the nurse practitioner's name, home and business address, home and business telephone number, and other information requested by the board. These filings must be made available to the board of pharmacy for distribution to pharmacies.

Sec. 4. [APPROPRIATION.]

$23,000 is appropriated from the state special revenue fund to the board of nursing for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1991, to administer sections 1 to 3."

Sec. 12. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 626.861, subdivision 4, is amended to read:

Subd. 4. [PEACE OFFICERS TRAINING ACCOUNT.] Receipts from penalty assessments must be credited to the general fund. The peace officers standards and training board may allocate from funds appropriated as follows:

(a) Up to ~~ten~~ 30 percent may be provided for reimbursement to board approved skills courses in proportion to the number of students successfully completing the board's skills licensing examination.

(b) The balance may be used to pay each local unit of government an amount in proportion to the number of licensed peace officers and constables employed, at a rate to be determined by the board. The disbursed amount must be used exclusively for reimbursement of the cost of in-service training required under this chapter and chapter 214.

Sec. 13. [PROFESSIONAL PEACE OFFICER EDUCATION; STUDY REQUIRED.]

The peace officer standards and training board shall study and report on the training and educational requirements, including the need to require a baccalaureate degree, prerequisite to licensure as a peace officer. In conducting this study, the board shall, at a minimum, consult with peace officers, police chiefs, sheriffs, elected officials from municipalities and counties, representatives of the minority communities, each public post-secondary education system, and the higher education coordinating board. A report based on this study shall be submitted to the legislature on or before February 1, 1991.

H. F. No. 1843 was reported to the House.

Kelly moved to amend H. F. No. 1843, the second engrossment, as follows:

"Sec. 2. Laws 1989, chapter 290, article 1, section 6, is amended to read:

Sec. 6. COMMISSIONER OF PUBLIC SAFETY	1,169,000	1,610,000

Of this amount, $419,000 in 1990 and $860,000 in 1991 is appropriated to the bureau of criminal apprehension to establish and operate a laboratory to perform DNA analysis and to establish a system for collecting and maintaining DNA analysis data and human biological specimens. The staff complement of the bureau is increased by up to ten positions.

Of this amount, $100,000 in each year is to be used for grants to establish community crime reduction pilot projects. Any unencumbered balance remaining in this appropriation in the first year does not cancel but is available for the second year of the biennium.

Of this amount, $125,000 in each year is for community drug prevention and education grants, and $25,000 in each year is for multidisciplinary chemical abuse prevention teams. Any unencumbered balance remaining in this appropriation in the first year does not cancel but is available for the second year of the biennium.

Of this amount, $175,000 in each year is appropriated to the bureau of criminal apprehension for the drug abuse resistance education training program. The staff complement is increased by up to three positions.

Of this amount, $175,000 in each year is for the office of drug policy and the drug abuse prevention resource council. The staff complement of the office of drug policy is not more than two positions. The staff complement of the council is not more than three positions.

Of this amount, $150,000 in each year is for the soft body armor reimbursement program.”

Amend the title accordingly

The motion prevailed and the amendment was adopted.

Macklin and Limmer moved to amend H. F. No. 1843, the second engrossment, as amended, as follows:

“Sec. 7. [152.0271] [CONTROLLED SUBSTANCE OFFENDERS; DRIVER'S LICENSE SUSPENSION.]

When a person is convicted of a controlled substance offense under this chapter, the court shall forward the offender's driver's license to the commissioner of public safety and direct the commissioner to suspend the offender's driving privileges for a period of not less than 30 days nor more than one year. The commissioner shall suspend the offender's driver's license for the period stated in the court order but may allow the offender driving privileges as necessary to travel to and from work. The penalty in this section is in addition to any other penalty that the court may impose for the offense committed.”

Subdivision 1. If the court finds that the child is delinquent, it shall enter an order making any of the following dispositions of the case which are deemed necessary to the rehabilitation of the child:

(a) Counsel the child or the parents, guardian, or custodian;

(b) Place the child under the supervision of a probation officer or other suitable person in the child's own home under conditions prescribed by the court including reasonable rules for conduct and the conduct of the child's parents, guardian, or custodian, designed for the physical, mental, and moral well-being and behavior of the child, or with the consent of the commissioner of corrections, in a group foster care facility which is under the management and supervision of said commissioner;

(c) Subject to the supervision of the court, transfer legal custody of the child to one of the following:

(1) a child placing agency; or

(2) the county welfare board; or

(3) a reputable individual of good moral character. No person may receive custody of two or more unrelated children unless licensed as a residential facility pursuant to sections 245.781 to 245.812; or

(4) a county home school, if the county maintains a home school or enters into an agreement with a county home school; or

(5) a county probation officer for placement in a group foster home established under the direction of the juvenile court and licensed pursuant to section 241.021;

(d) Transfer legal custody by commitment to the commissioner of corrections;

(e) If the child is found to have violated a state or local law or ordinance which has resulted in damage to the person or property of another, the court may order the child to make reasonable restitution for such damage;

(f) Require the child to pay a fine of up to $700; the court shall order payment of the fine in accordance with a time payment schedule which shall not impose an undue financial hardship on the child;

(g) If the child is in need of special treatment and care for reasons of physical or mental health, the court may order the child's parent, guardian, or custodian to provide it. If the parent, guardian, or custodian fails to provide this treatment or care, the court may order it provided;

(h) Except as otherwise provided in clause (i), if the court believes that it is in the best interests of the child and of public safety that the driver's license of the child be canceled until the child's 18th birthday, the court may recommend to the commissioner of public safety the cancellation of the child's license for any period up to the child's 18th birthday, and the commissioner is hereby authorized to cancel such license without a hearing. At any time before the termination of the period of cancellation, the court may, for good cause, recommend to the commissioner of public safety that the child be authorized to apply for a new license, and the commissioner may so authorize;

(i) If the court finds that the child committed a violation of chapter 152, the court shall impose one of the following dispositions:

(1) if the child has a driver's license or permit, the court shall forward the license or permit to the commissioner of public safety and order the commissioner to revoke the child's driver's license or permit for a period of one year. The commissioner may issue a work permit to the child as provided under section 171.30;

(2) if the child does not have a driver's license or permit, the court shall prepare an order of denial of driving privileges. The order must provide that the child will not be granted driving privileges until the child reaches the age of 17 years or for a period of one year, whichever is longer. The court shall forward the order to the commissioner of public safety. The commissioner shall deny the child's eligibility for a driver's license under section 171.04, for the period stated in the court order.

If the child is petitioned and found by the court to have committed or attempted to commit an act in violation of section 609.342, 609.343, 609.344, or 609.345, the court shall order an independent professional assessment of the child's need for sex offender treatment. An assessor providing an assessment for the court may not have any direct or shared financial interest or referral relationship resulting in shared financial gain with a treatment provider. If the assessment indicates that the child is in need of and amenable to sex offender treatment, the court shall include in its disposition order a requirement that the child undergo treatment.

Any order for a disposition authorized under this section shall contain written findings of fact to support the disposition ordered, and shall also set forth in writing the following information:

(a) why the best interests of the child are served by the disposition ordered; and

(b) what alternative dispositions were considered by the court and why such dispositions were not appropriate in the instant case.

Sec. 16. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 260.195, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [DISPOSITIONS.] If the juvenile court finds that a child is a petty offender, the court may:

(a) require the child to pay a fine of up to $100;

(b) require the child to participate in a community service project;

(c) require the child to participate in a drug awareness program;

(d) place the child on probation for up to six months;

(e) order the child to undergo a chemical dependency evaluation and if warranted by this evaluation, order participation by the child in an inpatient or outpatient chemical dependency treatment program; or

(f) perform any other activities or participate in any other treatment programs deemed appropriate by the court.

In all cases where the juvenile court finds that a child has purchased or attempted to purchase an alcoholic beverage in violation of section 340A.503, if the child has a driver's license or permit to drive, and if the child used a driver's license, permit or Minnesota identification card to purchase or attempt to purchase the alcoholic beverage, the court shall forward its finding in the case and the child's driver's license or permit to the commissioner of public safety. Upon receipt, the commissioner shall suspend the child's license or permit for a period of 90 days.

None of the dispositional alternatives described in clauses (a) to (e) shall be imposed by the court in a manner which would cause an undue hardship upon the child.

Sec. 17. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 260.195, subdivision 3a, is amended to read:

Subd. 3a. [ENHANCED CONTROLLED SUBSTANCE AND ALCOHOL OFFENDERS; DRIVER'S LICENSE DISPOSITIONS.] If the juvenile court finds that a child has committed a second or subsequent juvenile alcohol or controlled substance offense, the court may impose any of the dispositional alternatives described in paragraphs (a) to (e).

(a) ~~The court may impose~~ shall impose a disposition under this subdivision in addition to any of the dispositional alternatives described in imposed under subdivision 3, clauses (a) to (f):

(b) (a) ~~If the adjudicated petty offender has a driver's license or permit, the court may shall~~ forward the license or permit to the commissioner of public safety. The commissioner shall revoke the petty offender's driver's license or permit ~~until the offender reaches the age of 18 years or for a period of one year, whichever is longer.~~ The commissioner may issue a work permit to the offender as provided in section 171.30.

(c) ~~If the adjudicated petty offender has a driver's license or permit, the court may suspend the driver's license or permit for a period of up to 90 days, but may allow the offender driving privileges as necessary to travel to and from work.~~

(d) (b) ~~If the adjudicated petty offender does not have a driver's license or permit, the court may shall~~ prepare an order of denial of driving privileges. The order must provide that the petty offender will not be granted driving privileges until the offender reaches the age of 18 17 years or for a period of one year, whichever is longer. The court shall forward the order to the commissioner of public safety. The commissioner shall deny the offender's eligibility for a driver's license under section 171.04, for the period stated in the court order."

"Sec. 21. [340A.7031] [UNDERAGE ALCOHOL OFFENDERS; DRIVER'S LICENSE SUSPENSION.]

When a person is convicted of violating section 340A.503, subdivision 1, clause (2), subdivision 2, clause (2), or subdivision 3, 4, or 5, the court shall forward the offender's driver's license to the commissioner of public safety and direct the commissioner to suspend the offender's driving privileges for a period of not less than 30 days nor more than one year. The commissioner shall suspend the offender's driver's license for the period stated in the court order but may allow the offender driving privileges as necessary to travel to and from work. The penalty in this section is in addition to any other penalty that the court may impose for the offense committed."

S. F. No. 1743 was reported to the House.

Jacobs moved to amend S. F. No. 1743, as follows:

Delete everything after the enacting clause and insert:

“Section 1. [237.161] [EXTENDED AREA SERVICE.]

Subdivision 1. [CRITERIA.] The commission may grant a petition for installation of extended area service only when each of the following criteria has been met:

(1) the petitioning exchange is contiguous to the exchange or local calling area to which extended area service is requested in the petition;

(2) a lower cost alternative to basic flat rate service is available in the petitioning exchange; in the alternative, polling by the commission shows that 55 percent of the customers responding to the poll in the petitioning exchange favor the installation of extended area service;

(3) polling by the commission shows that a majority of the customers responding to the poll in the petitioning exchange favor its installation, unless all parties and the commission agree that no polling is necessary;

(4) at least 50 percent of the customers in the petitioning exchange make one or more calls per month to the exchange or local calling area to which extended area service is requested, as determined by a traffic study; and

(5) the commission determines that a community of interest exists between the petitioning and the petitioned exchanges and that the installation of extended area service is in the public interest as governed by the commission's rules.

The rate to the polled exchange must be available to its customers before the commission determines what proportion of them favor the installation of extended area service.

In making the determination required in clause (4), the commission shall include a reasonable estimate of FX telephone traffic and other types of toll traffic. For the purposes of this subdivision, “FX” means tariffed telephone toll service provided by placing a telephone line from another telephone exchange area in the telephone customer's exchange area.

Subd. 2. [COSTS.] The costs for extended area service shall include the specific additional costs incurred as a result of the installation of the extended area service and the net book cost of existing facilities transferred from another service to now provide extended area service.

Subd. 3. [RATES.] (a) When the proposed extended service area is located in the metropolitan counties of Anoka, Carver, Dakota, Hennepin, Ramsey, Scott, and Washington, 75 percent of the cost of providing extended area service as identified in subdivision 2, must be apportioned to the petitioning exchange and the remaining 25 percent apportioned to the exchange or exchanges to which extended area service is requested. When the proposed extended service area is not located in the metropolitan area, the cost must be equally divided between the petitioning exchange and the exchange or exchanges to which extended area service is requested. The cost must be apportioned among the customers in an exchange so that the relationship between the rates for classes of basic local service remains the same.

(b) The commission shall set rates that are income neutral for each affected telephone company at the point in time at which the commission determines the extended area service rates. The commission shall consider the interests of all parties when determining a fair and equitable extended area service rate for a local telephone exchange that is newly included in the extended area service.

(c) A telephone company that provides local telephone service in an exchange that is included in an extended service area must include the extended area service rate in the basic rate for the purpose of billing customers so that only one line item charge appears on customers bills for both rates.

Subd. 4. [LATA BOUNDARIES.] When the commission has determined that a petition for inclusion of a local exchange in a local calling area should be granted under this section but the inclusion of that local exchange would place a telephone company in violation of the federal prohibition on providing telephone service across a local access and transport area (LATA) line, as defined in section 237.57, subdivision 5, the commission shall order the affected telephone company to seek a waiver of the prohibition on the provision of service across the LATA line to the extent necessary to include the exchange in the appropriate local calling area.

Sec. 2. [METROPOLITAN EXTENDED AREA TELEPHONE SERVICE.]

Subdivision 1. [DEFINITION.] For the purposes of this section, "metropolitan" or "metropolitan area" means all of the area made up by the counties of Anoka, Carver, Dakota, Hennepin, Ramsey, Scott, and Washington.

Subd. 2. [REQUIRED EXPANSION OF METROPOLITAN EXTENDED AREA SERVICE.] Notwithstanding section 1, by July 1, 1991, the public utilities commission shall expand the metropolitan extended area service to include each local service telephone exchange served by a central office or wire center located within the metropolitan area if a majority of the consumers in an exchange that respond to polling by the commission are in favor of including that exchange in the extended area service as determined under subdivisions 3 and 4.

Subd. 3. [COMMISSION DUTIES; PROJECT.] The commission, in cooperation with each affected telephone company, shall determine the rates that would be charged to the customers in each metropolitan exchange that is not currently included in the metropolitan extended area service if that exchange were to be included. The commission shall then conduct a poll of all the customers in each exchange. The ballot or questionnaire sent to each customer must clearly identify the rate that would be charged to customers in the applicable exchange if the exchange becomes part of the metropolitan extended area service and must be returnable to the commission, at no cost to the customers, within 60 days of the date the ballot or questionnaire was mailed. If a majority of the customers in an exchange who respond to the commission's poll indicate that they favor inclusion, the commission shall include that exchange in the metropolitan extended area service.

Subd. 4. [COSTS; RATES.] The commission shall determine the costs and rates for each exchange subject to subdivision 3, as provided in section 1, subdivisions 2 and 3, and applicable commission rules.

Subd. 5. [FUTURE EXPANSION.] Customers in metropolitan exchanges that are not included in the extended area service under subdivision 3, and customers in nonmetropolitan exchanges that want to be included in the metropolitan extended area service after the completion of the project under subdivision 3, may petition the commission for inclusion under section 1 and applicable commission rules, provided that no state boundary may be crossed in expanding the metropolitan extended area service.

Subd. 6. [DUTIES; TELEPHONE COMPANIES.] Each telephone company that is potentially affected by the activities of the commission in undertaking the project required by subdivision 3 shall cooperate with the commission in determining costs and rates and any other activity or determination necessary to implement that subdivision.

Sec. 3. [LOCAL TELEPHONE SERVICE AREA BOUNDARY CHANGE.]

The public utilities commission shall change the boundary between the Red Wing and Hastings local telephone exchanges to ensure that telephone service subscribers who are located in Dakota County receive local service from the Hastings local telephone exchange. The commission shall follow its existing rules to ensure that the change in boundary required by this section is revenue neutral as between the affected telephone companies.

Sec. 4. [EFFECTIVE DATE; APPLICATION.]

Sections 1 to 3 are effective the day following final enactment and section 1 applies to all petitions pending before the public utilities commission unless the petitioners are customers of a metropolitan exchange and they withdraw their petition and notify the commission in writing that they want to be governed by section 2."

The motion prevailed and the amendment was adopted.

Stanius moved to amend S. F. No. 1743, as amended, as follows:

"Sec. 4. [METROPOLITAN AREA.]

For purposes of Minnesota Statutes, chapter 473, the metropolitan area means the portion of the metropolitan extended telephone service area defined by the public utilities commission that is located in the counties of Anoka, Carver, Dakota, Hennepin, Ramsey, Scott, and Washington, including cities and towns located wholly or partially in those counties."

flexible gas utility rates; amending Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 216B.163; and Laws 1987, chapter 371, section 4.

Reported the same back with the following amendments:

Delete everything after the enacting clause and insert:

“Section 1. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 216B.163, is amended to read:

216B.163 [FLEXIBLE TARIFFS.]

Subdivision 1. [DEFINITIONS.] (a) For the purposes of this section, the terms defined in this subdivision have the meanings given them.

(b) “Effective competition” means that a customer of a gas utility who either receives interruptible service or whose daily requirement exceeds 50,000 cubic feet maintains or plans on acquiring the capability to switch to the same, equivalent, or substitutable energy supplies or service, ~~except indigenous biomass energy supplies composed of wood products, grain, biowaste, and cellulose materials,~~ at comparable prices from a supplier not regulated by the commission.

(c) “Flexible tariff” means a rate schedule under which a gas utility may set or change the price for its service to an individual customer or group of customers without prior approval of the commission within a range of prices determined by the commission to be just and reasonable.

Subd. 2. [FLEXIBLE TARIFFS PERMITTED.] Notwithstanding any other provision of this chapter section 216B.03, 216B.05, 216B.06, 216B.07, or 216B.16, the commission is ~~authorized to may~~ approve a flexible tariff for any class of customers of a gas utility when provision of service, including the sale or transportation of gas, to any customers within the class is subject to effective competition. Upon application of a gas utility, the commission shall find that effective competition exists for a class of customers taking interruptible service at a level exceeding 199,000 cubic feet per day. A gas utility may ~~only~~ apply a flexible tariff only to a customer that is subject to effective competition ~~and a gas utility may not apply a flexible tariff or otherwise reduce its rates to compete with indigenous biomass energy supplies, or with customers of district heating facilities as of June 1, 1987. Customers of a gas utility whose only alternative source of energy is gas from a supplier not regulated by the commission and who must use the gas utility's system to transport the gas are not subject to effective competition unless the customers have or can reasonably acquire the capability to bypass the gas utility's system to obtain gas from a supplier not regulated~~ by the commission. A customer subject to effective competition may elect to take service either under the flexible tariff or under the appropriate nonflexible tariff for that class of service set in accordance with section 216B.03, provided that a customer that uses an alternative energy supply or service other than indigenous biomass energy supplies from a supplier not regulated by the commission for reasons of price shall be is deemed to have elected to take service under the flexible tariff.

Subd. 3. [ESTABLISHING OR CHANGING A FLEXIBLE TARIFF.] The commission may establish a flexible tariff through a miscellaneous rate filing only if the filing does not seek to recover any revenues which the utility expects to lose by implementing flexible tariffs from any customers who do not take service under the flexible tariff, nor to change any other rates another rate. If a gas utility requests authority to establish a flexible tariff and as part of that request seeks to recover any revenues which the utility expects to lose by implementing flexible tariffs from any customers who do not take service under the flexible tariff or to change any other rates the commission may only establish that flexible tariff within a general rate case for that gas utility. The commission may only change the rates in a flexible tariff within a gas utility's general rate case.

Subd. 4. [RATES AND TERMS OF SERVICE.] Whenever the commission authorizes a flexible tariff, it shall set the terms, and conditions of service for that tariff, which shall include including:

(1) that the minimum rate for the tariff, which must recover at least the incremental cost of providing the service;

(2) that there is no upward the maximum for the rate for the tariff; and

(3) a requirement that a customer who elects to take service under the flexible tariff remain on that tariff for a reasonable period of time, which shall not be less than one year; and

(4) that any customer changing from a flexible tariff to the appropriate nonflexible tariff for that class pay all costs incurred by the utility due to that change.

The commission may set the terms and conditions of service for a flexible tariff in a gas utility proceeding, a miscellaneous filing, or a complaint proceeding under section 216B.17.

Subd. 5. [RECOVERY OF REVENUES.] In a general rate case which that establishes a flexible tariff for a gas utility, and in each general rate case of a gas utility for which a flexible tariff has been authorized, the commission shall determine a projected level of revenues and expenses from services under that tariff based on a single target rate for all sales under that tariff, which projection shall be used and use the projection to determine the utility's overall rates. That target rate method used to establish a level of projected revenues shall may not limit the gas utility's ability or right to set rates for any a customer taking service under the flexible tariff.

Subd. 6. [INTERIM FLEXIBLE TARIFF.] Notwithstanding section 216B.16, subdivision 3, if a gas utility files with the commission to establish or change a flexible tariff the commission shall permit the proposed flexible tariff to take effect on an interim basis no later than 30 days after filing. If any customers receive an increase in rates during the period that an interim flexible tariff is in effect, the increase is subject to refund as provided in section 216B.16, subdivision 3. The gas utility shall provide ten days written notice, or other notice as may be established by contract not to exceed 30 days, to a customer before implementing an interim rate ~~increase~~ change for that customer under this section.

Subd. 7. [FINAL DETERMINATION.] The commission shall make a final determination in a proceeding begun under this section for approval of a flexible tariff, other than a filing made within a general rate case, within 180 days of the filing by the gas utility.

Subd. 8. [STUDY AND REPORT.] The department shall review the operation and effects of any rates implemented under this section. The review must include, at a minimum, an evaluation of the impact of flexible gas rates on alternative energy sources, including indigenous biomass energy, and the impact on the utility and its customers of setting a maximum rate for the tariff. The department shall submit its report to the legislature by January 1, 1995. The department shall assess gas utilities that utilize a flexible tariff under section 1 for the actual cost of conducting the study, not to exceed $5,000. Each utility utilizing a flexible tariff must be assessed an equal share of the cost.

Sec. 2. Laws 1987, chapter 371, section 4, is amended to read:

Sec. 4. [EFFECTIVE DATE.]

Sections 1 to 3 are effective the day following final enactment, and are repealed effective July 1, 1990.

Sec. 3. [APPROPRIATION.]

$5,000 is appropriated from the general fund to the department of public service to be reimbursed from the assessment authorized in section 1, subdivision 8, for the purpose of conducting the study required by section 1. The money is available until February 1, 1995.

Delete everything after the enacting clause and insert:

"Section 1. [PURPOSE.]

The legislature determines that it is in the public interest and an objective of the state that its citizens and the citizens of the world be better informed about the importance of preserving and restoring the large freshwater lakes of the world, including Lake Superior. The legislature determines that an enhanced public awareness of the vital role which the large freshwater lakes play in the ecosystem is an essential element in a wider program to provide for the protection and preservation of these lakes. The legislature also determines that the transfer of data and scientific findings about the large freshwater lakes of the world to the policymakers and citizens of the state, our nation, and the world is essential.

The legislature determines that as the largest surface of fresh water in the world, Lake Superior can function as a focal point for transferring information about these large lakes to the policymakers and the public, and that the establishment of a facility containing appropriate exhibits and other educational features to support these objectives and the establishment of programs related to them near the shore of Lake Superior in Duluth is in the public interest and of advantage and benefit to all of the citizens of the state.

The legislature is aware that Lake Superior Center, a Minnesota nonprofit corporation, is actively engaged in the development of a program and plan to meet these objectives and is actively engaged in assembling the public and private partnership required to secure the resources, international participation, and expertise required to create a freshwater education center.

The legislature finds that objectives of this act can best be accomplished by forming a public corporation to be known as Lake Superior Center Authority and that Lake Superior Center Authority be given the powers, rights, privileges, and immunities provided in this act, including the power to cooperate and contract with Lake Superior Center to the extent and for the purposes provided for in this act.

Sec. 2. [ORGANIZATION.]

Subdivision 1. [ESTABLISHMENT.] The Lake Superior Center Authority is established as a public corporation. The business of the corporation must be conducted under the name "Lake Superior Center Authority."

Subd. 2. [BOARD OF DIRECTORS.] The corporation is governed by a board of five directors. The term of a director, except as otherwise provided below, is six years. One of the five directors is the commissioner of the department of natural resources. The other four members of the board shall be appointed by the governor. Two members of the initial board of directors shall be appointed for terms of four years, and two for terms of two years. Vacancies on the board shall be filled by appointment of the governor. Board members shall not be compensated for their service as board members other than to be reimbursed for reasonable expenses incurred in connection with their duties as board members. This reimbursement shall be reviewed each year by the commissioner of finance.

Subd. 3. [BYLAWS.] The board of directors shall adopt bylaws necessary for the conduct of the business of the corporation, consistent with this act. The corporation must publish the bylaws and amendments to the bylaws in the State Register.

Subd. 4. [PLACE OF BUSINESS.] The board shall locate and maintain the corporation's place of business within the state.

Subd. 5. [CHAIR.] The board shall annually elect from among its members a chair and other officers necessary for the performance of its duties.

Subd. 6. [MEETINGS.] The board shall meet at least twice each year and may hold additional meetings upon giving notice in accordance with the bylaws of the corporation. Board meetings are subject to Minnesota Statutes, section 471.705.

Subd. 7. [CONFLICT OF INTEREST.] A director, employee, or officer of the corporation may not participate in or vote on a decision of the board relating to an organization in which the director has either a direct or indirect financial interest.

Subd. 8. [ECONOMIC INTEREST STATEMENTS.] Directors and officers of the corporation are public officials for the purpose of section 10A.09, and must file statements of economic interest with the state ethical practices board.

Subd. 9. [NO BENEFIT TO PRIVATE INDIVIDUALS OR CORPORATIONS.] This corporation shall not afford pecuniary gain, incidental or otherwise, to any private individual, firm, or corporation other than Lake Superior Center, a Minnesota nonprofit corporation (except the payment of reasonable fees for goods and services rendered and approved in accordance with the bylaws of the corporation) and no part of the net income or net earnings of the corporation shall, directly or indirectly, be distributable to or otherwise inure to the benefit of any individual.

Sec. 3. [POWERS.]

Subdivision 1. [GENERAL CORPORATE POWERS.] (a) The corporation has the powers granted to a business corporation by Minnesota Statutes, section 302A.161, subdivisions 3; 4; 5; 7; 8; 9; 11; 12; 13, except that the corporation may not act as a general partner in any partnership; 14; 15; 16; 17; 18; and 22; and the powers necessary or convenient to exercise the enumerated powers.

(b) The state is not liable for the obligations of the corporation.

(c) Minnesota Statutes, section 302A.041 applies to this chapter and the corporation in the same manner that it applies to business corporations established under Minnesota Statutes, chapter 302A.

Subd. 2. [FACILITY DESIGN; DEVELOPMENT AND OPERATION.] The corporation shall enter into management contracts or lease agreements or both with Lake Superior Center, a Minnesota nonprofit corporation, to design, develop, and operate a facility to further the purposes of this act in the city of Duluth, at the site determined by the board and on the terms that the board finds desirable. Notwithstanding the provisions of section 2, subdivision 7, relating to the conflict of interest, a director or officer of the corporation who is also a director, officer, or member of Lake Superior Center, a Minnesota nonprofit corporation, and the corporation, may participate in and vote on the decision of the board as to the terms and conditions of management contracts or lease agreements between Lake Superior Center and the corporation.

Subd. 3. [FUNDS.] The corporation may accept and use gifts, grants, or contributions from any source. Unless otherwise restricted by the terms of a gift or bequest, the board may sell, exchange, or otherwise dispose of, and invest or reinvest the money, securities, or other property given or bequeathed to it. The principal of these funds, the income from them, and all other revenues received by it from any nonstate source must be placed in the depositories the board determines and is subject to expenditure for the board's purposes. Expenditures of $25,000 or more must be approved by the full board.

Subd. 4. [ANIMALS; REGULATION.] The corporation shall comply with all federal laws and federal rules or regulations relating to the quarantine, transportation, examination, habitation, care, and treatment of wild animals. The department of natural resources may prescribe rules supplemental to federal regulations, relating to the transportation, examination, care, and treatment of wild animals native to this state held or proposed to be acquired by the board and may inspect them as often and at the times it deems necessary.

Subd. 5. [ANIMALS; SALE.] The board may sell or exchange animals determined by it to be superfluous to operations, subject to state and federal regulations.

Subd. 6. [ADVERTISING.] The board may provide for promotional and advertising programs to be developed and implemented either by its personnel or by contract with outside personnel and paid for out of funds other than bond revenues.

Subd. 7. [ADMISSION FEES.] The board or its agent may establish admission fees and other charges for use of its facilities.

Sec. 4. [EMPLOYEES.]

Persons employed by contractors or lessees are not state employees and may not participate in state retirement, deferred compensation, insurance, or other plans that apply to state employees generally and are not subject to regulation by the state ethical practices board.

Sec. 5. [ACCOUNTS; AUDITS.]

The corporation may establish funds and accounts that it finds convenient. The board shall provide for and pay the cost of an independent annual audit of its official books and records by the legislative auditor subject to Minnesota Statutes, sections 3.971 and 3.972. A copy of this audit shall be filed with the secretary of state.

Sec. 6. [ANNUAL REPORT.]

The board shall submit a report to the chairs of the senate economic development and housing and the house economic development committees of the legislature and the governor on the activities of the corporation and its contractors and lessees by February 1 of each year. The report must include at least the following:

(1) a description of each of the programs that the corporation has provided or undertaken at some time during the previous year;

(2) an identification of the sources of funding in the previous year for the corporation and its programs including federal, state and local government, foundations, gifts, donation, fees, and all other sources;

(3) a description of the administrative expenses of the corporation during the previous year;

(4) a listing of the assets and liabilities of the corporation at the end of the previous fiscal year;

(5) a description of any changes made to the operational plan during the previous year; and

(6) a description of any newly adopted or significant changes to bylaws, policies, rules, or programs created or administered by the corporation during the previous year.

Reports must be made to the legislature as required by Minnesota Statutes, section 3.195.

Sec. 7. [PROPERTY TAX EXEMPTION.]

Property of the corporation is exempt from taxation on its value in the same manner as property listed in Minnesota Statutes, section 272.02, subdivision 1."

MOTIONS AND RESOLUTIONS

Poppenhagen moved that the name of Runbeck be added as an author on H. F. No. 2822. The motion prevailed.

House Concurrent Resolution No. 4 was reported to the House.

HOUSE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION NO. 4

A house concurrent resolution relating to local government packaging ordinances.

Whereas, six Minnesota cities have passed ordinances that seek to ban environmentally unacceptable packaging; and

Whereas, the Legislature preempted the enforcement or further adoption of local packaging and labeling ordinances through June 30, 1990; and

Whereas, additional local government units may undertake to pass packaging or labeling ordinances on July 1, 1990; and

Whereas, the Governor created the Select Committee on Packaging and the Environment in 1989 to study the full environmental context of packaging and propose a coherent, statewide strategy to achieve more environmentally sound packaging; Now, Therefore,

Be It Resolved by the House of Representatives of the State of Minnesota, the Senate concurring that:

(1) local government units should not act to adopt any additional packaging or labeling ordinances before the Legislature has had the opportunity to act on recommendations of the Select Committee on Packaging and the Environment in the 1991 Legislative Session.

(2) this resolution is contingent on the ability of the Select Committee on Packaging and the Environment to reach a coherent statewide plan to achieve more environmentally sound packaging and to present that strategy in its final report due in August 1990.

Be It Further Resolved that the Chief Clerk of the House of Representatives is directed to prepare enrolled copies of this resolution, to be authenticated as appropriate.

Johnson, R., moved that House Concurrent Resolution No. 4 be now adopted. The motion prevailed and House Concurrent Resolution No. 4 was adopted.

Reported the same back with the following amendments:

Delete everything after the enacting clause and insert:

“Section 1. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 297A.01, subdivision 16, is amended to read:

Subd. 16. [CAPITAL EQUIPMENT.] Capital equipment means machinery and equipment and the materials and supplies necessary to construct or install the machinery or equipment. To qualify under this definition the capital equipment must be used by the purchaser or lessee for manufacturing, fabricating, or refining a product to be sold at retail and must be used for the establishment of a new or the physical expansion of an existing manufacturing, fabricating, or refining facility in the state. Capital equipment does not include (1) machinery or equipment purchased or leased to replace machinery or equipment performing substantially the same function in an existing facility, or (2) repair or replacement parts, or (3) ~~machinery or equipment used to extract, receive, or store raw materials.~~

Sec. 2. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 299L.03, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 9. [VIDEO GAMES OF CHANCE.] The commissioner shall exercise all powers and duties assigned to the commissioner relating to video games of chance under sections 349.50 to 349.60 through the division and director.

Sec. 3. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 299L.03, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 10. [FINGERPRINTING.] The director may require that any: (1) licensee under sections 349.11 to 349.23, (2) employee of such a licensee, or (3) shareholder or officer of such a licensee be fingerprinted by the director, or otherwise submit to fingerprinting in a form and manner acceptable to the director.

Sec. 4. [299L.06] [JURISDICTION.]

In any investigation or other enforcement activity where there is probable cause to believe that a criminal violation relating to gambling has occurred, the division shall be the primary investigation entity where enforcement rests.

Sec. 5. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 349.12, subdivision 10, is amended to read:

Subd. 10. "Pull-tab" means a single folded or banded ticket or a card with a face covered to conceal one or more numbers or symbols, where one or more of each set of tickets or cards has been designated in advance as a winner. "Pull-tab" also includes a ticket sold in a gambling device known as a ticket jar, and includes plays on a video pull-tab device and video pull-tab device memory chips.

Sec. 6. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 349.12, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 10a. [VIDEO PULL-TAB DEVICE.] "Video pull-tab device" means an electronic video device that on the insertion of cash or a token simulates the game of pull-tabs.

Sec. 7. Minnesota Statutes Second 1989 Supplement, section 349.12, subdivision 11, is amended to read:

Subd. 11. (a) "Lawful purpose" means one or more of the following:

(1) benefiting persons by enhancing their opportunity for religious or educational advancement, by relieving or protecting them from disease, suffering or distress, by contributing to their physical well-being, by assisting them in establishing themselves in life as worthy and useful citizens, or by increasing their comprehension of and devotion to the principles upon which this nation was founded;

(2) initiating, performing, or fostering worthy public works or enabling or furthering the erection or maintenance of public structures;

(3) lessening the burdens borne by government or voluntarily supporting, augmenting or supplementing services which government would normally render to the people;

(4) payment of local taxes authorized under this chapter, and taxes imposed by the United States on receipts from lawful gambling;

(5) any expenditure by, or any contribution to, a hospital or nursing home exempt from taxation under section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code;

(6) payment of reasonable costs incurred in complying with the performing of annual audits required under section 340.19, subdivision 9;

(7) payment of real estate taxes and assessments on licensed gambling premises wholly owned by the licensed organization; or

(8) if approved by the board, construction, improvement, expansion, maintenance, and repair of athletic fields and outdoor ice rinks and their appurtenances, owned by the organization or a public agency.

(b) "Lawful purpose" does not include the erection, acquisition, improvement, expansion, repair, or maintenance of any real property or capital assets owned or leased by an organization, other than a hospital or nursing home exempt from taxation under section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, unless the board has first specifically authorized the expenditures after finding: (1) that the property or capital assets will be used exclusively for one or more of the purposes specified in paragraph (a), clauses (1) to (3); or (2) with respect to expenditures for repair or maintenance only, that the property is or will be used extensively as a meeting place or event location by other nonprofit organizations or community or service groups and that no rental fee is charged for the use; or (3) with respect to expenditures for erection or acquisition only, that the erection or acquisition is necessary to replace with a comparable building a building owned by the organization and destroyed or made uninhabitable by fire or natural disaster, provided that the expenditure may be only for that part of the replacement cost not reimbursed by insurance. The board shall by rule adopt procedures and standards to administer this subdivision.

(1) any expenditure by or contribution to a 501(c)(3) organization, provided that the organization and expenditure or contribution are in conformity with standards prescribed by the board under section 19;

(2) a contribution to an organization designed to assist an individual or family suffering from poverty, homelessness, or physical or mental disability, which is used to relieve the effects of that poverty, homelessness, or disability;

(3) a contribution to an organization designed to assist an individual for treatment for delayed post-traumatic stress syndrome, or a contribution to a recognized program for the treatment of compulsive gambling on behalf of an individual who is a compulsive gambler;

(4) a contribution to or expenditure on a public or private nonprofit educational institution registered with or accredited by this state or any other state;

(5) a contribution to a scholarship fund for defraying the cost of education to individuals, where the funds are awarded through an open and fair selection process not controlled by the contributing organization;

(6) activities by a veterans organization or a government entity which recognize humanitarian or military service to the United States, the state of Minnesota, or a community;

(7) recreational and athletic facilities and activities intended primarily for persons under age 21, provided that such facilities and activities do not discriminate on the basis of gender, as evidenced by (i) provision of equipment and supplies, (ii) scheduling of activities, including games and practice times, (iii) supply and assignment of coaches or other adult supervisors, (iv) provision and availability of support facilities, and (v) whether the opportunity to participate reflects each gender's demonstrated interest in the activity;

(8) payment of local taxes authorized under this chapter, and taxes imposed by the United States on receipts from lawful gambling;

(9) a contribution to the United States, this state or any of its political subdivisions, or any agency or instrumentality thereof other than a direct contribution to a law enforcement or prosecutorial agency; or

(10) a contribution to or expenditure by a nonprofit organization, church or body of communicants, gathered in common membership for mutual support and edification in piety, worship, or religious observances.

(b) Notwithstanding paragraph (a), "lawful purpose" does not include:

(1) any expenditure made or incurred for the purpose of influencing the nomination or election of a candidate for public office or for the purpose of promoting or defeating a ballot question;

(2) any activity intended to influence an election or a governmental decision-making process;

(3) the erection, acquisition, improvement, expansion, repair, or maintenance of real property or capital assets owned or leased by an organization, unless the board has first specifically authorized the expenditures after finding that (i) the real property or capital assets will be used exclusively for one or more of the purposes in paragraph (a); (ii) with respect to expenditures for repair or maintenance only, that the property is or will be used extensively as a meeting place or event location by other nonprofit organizations or community or service groups and that no rental fee is charged for the use; (iii) with respect to expenditures, including a mortgage payment or other debt service payment, for erection or acquisition only, that the erection or acquisition is necessary to replace with a comparable building, a building owned by the organization and destroyed or made uninhabitable by fire or natural disaster, provided that the expenditure may be only for that part of the replacement cost not reimbursed by insurance; or (iv) with respect to expenditures, including a mortgage payment or other debt service payment, for erection or acquisition only, that the erection or acquisition is necessary to replace with a comparable building a building owned by the organization that was acquired from the organization by eminent domain or sold by the organization to a purchaser that the organization reasonably believed would otherwise have acquired the building by eminent domain, provided that the expenditure may be only for that part of the replacement cost that exceeds the compensation received by the organization for the building being replaced;

(4) an expenditure by an organization which is a contribution to a parent organization, foundation or affiliate of the contributing organization, if the parent organization, foundation, or affiliate has provided to the contributing organization within one year of the contribution any money, grants, property, or other thing of value; or

(5) a contribution by a licensed organization to another licensed organization unless the board has specifically authorized the contribution. The board must authorize such a contribution when requested to do so by the contributing organization unless it makes an affirmative finding that the contribution will not be used by the recipient organization for one or more of the purposes in paragraph (a).

Sec. 8. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 349.12, subdivision 12, is amended to read:

Subd. 12. [ORGANIZATION.] "Organization" means any fraternal, religious, veterans, or other nonprofit organization which has at least 15 active members, and either has been duly incorporated as a nonprofit organization for at least three years, or has been recognized by the Internal Revenue Service as exempt from income taxation for the most recent three years.

Sec. 9. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 349.12, subdivision 15, is amended to read:

Subd. 15. [GAMBLING EQUIPMENT.] "Gambling equipment" means: bingo cards or sheets, devices for selecting bingo numbers, pull-tabs, jar tickets, pull-tab and/or tipboard dispensing machines, video pull-tab devices, video pull-tab device memory chips, paddle-wheels, and tipboards.

Sec. 10. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 349.12, subdivision 18, is amended to read:

Subd. 18. [DEAL.] "Deal" means each separate package, or series of packages, consisting of one game of pull-tabs or tipboards with the same serial number. "Deal" also includes a video pull-tab device memory chip.

Sec. 11. Minnesota Statutes Second 1989 Supplement, section 349.12, subdivision 19, is amended to read:

Subd. 19. [IDEAL GROSS.] "Ideal gross" means the total amount of receipts that would be received if every individual ticket in the pull-tab or tipboard deal was sold at its face value. In the calculation of ideal gross and prizes, a free play ticket shall be valued at face value. In the case of video pull-tab devices "ideal gross" is the total amount of receipts that can be received by the read-only memory chip driving the device.

Sec. 12. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 349.12, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 30. [501(c)(3) ORGANIZATION.] "501(c)(3) organization" is an organization exempt from the payment of federal income taxes under section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code.

Sec. 13. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 349.12, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 31. [AFFILIATE.] "Affiliate" is any person or entity directly or indirectly controlling, controlled by, or under common control or ownership with a licensee of the board or any officer or director of a licensee of the board.

Sec. 14. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 349.12, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 32. [PERSON.] "Person" is an individual, firm, association, partnership, corporation, trustee, or legal representative.

Sec. 15. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 349.12, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 33. [VIDEO PULL-TAB DEVICE WHOLESALER.] "Video pull-tab device wholesaler" is a person who purchases video pull-tab devices from a manufacturer and sells them to a distributor.

Sec. 16. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 349.12, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 34. [FLARE.] "Flare" is the posted display, with registration stamp affixed, that sets forth the rules of a particular game of pull-tabs or tipboards, and that is associated with a specific deal of pull-tabs or grouping of tipboards.

Sec. 17. Minnesota Statutes Second 1989 Supplement, section 349.15, is amended to read:

349.15 [USE OF GROSS PROFITS.]

(a) Gross profits from lawful gambling may be expended only for lawful purposes or allowable expenses as authorized at a regular meeting of the conducting organization. Provided that no more than 55 percent of the gross profit less the tax imposed under section 349.212, subdivision 1, from bingo, no more than 50 percent of the gross profit from raffles, paddlewheels, and tipboards, and no more than 50 percent of the gross profit less the taxes imposed by section 349.212, subdivisions 1, 4, and 6, from other forms of lawful gambling pull-tabs, may be expended for allowable expenses related to lawful gambling.

(b) The board shall provide by rule for the administration of this section, including specifying allowable expenses. The rules must specify that no more than one-third of the annual premium on a policy of liability insurance procured by the organization may be taken as an allowable expense. This expense shall be allowed by the board only to the extent that it relates directly to the conduct of lawful gambling and is verified in the manner the board prescribes by rule. The rules may provide a maximum percentage of gross profits which may be expended for certain expenses.

(c) Allowable expenses also include reasonable costs of bank account service charges, and the reasonable costs of an audit required by the board, except an audit required under section 349.19, subdivision 9.

(d) Allowable expenses include reasonable legal fees and damages that relate to the conducting of lawful gambling, except for legal fees or damages incurred in defending the organization against the board, attorney general, United States attorney, commissioner of revenue, or a county or city attorney.

Sec. 18. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 349.151, subdivision 4, is amended to read:

Subd. 4. [POWERS AND DUTIES.] (a) The board has the following powers and duties:

(1) to regulate lawful gambling to ensure it is conducted in the public interest;

(2) to issue, ~~revoke, and suspend~~ licenses to organizations, distributors, bingo halls, and manufacturers ~~under sections 349.16, 349.161, 349.163, and 349.164,~~ and gambling managers;

(~~2~~) (3) to collect and deposit license, permit, and registration fees due under this chapter;

(~~3~~) (4) to receive reports required by this chapter and inspect ~~the~~ all premises, records, books, and other documents of organizations and suppliers, distributors, manufacturers, and bingo halls to insure compliance with all applicable laws and rules;

(4) (5) to make rules ~~required~~ authorized by this chapter;

(~~5~~) (6) to register gambling equipment and issue registration stamps ~~under section 349.162;~~

(~~6~~) (7) to provide by rule for the mandatory posting by organizations conducting lawful gambling of rules of play and the odds and/or house percentage on each form of lawful gambling;

(7) (8) to report annually to the governor and legislature on its activities and on recommended changes in the laws governing gambling;

(~~8~~) (9) to impose civil penalties of not more than $500 per violation on organizations, distributors, and manufacturers, bingo halls, and gambling managers for failure to comply with any provision of ~~sections 349.12 to 349.23~~ this chapter or any rule of the board;

(9) to ~~notify city councils, county boards, and town boards before issuing or renewing licenses to organizations and bingo halls as specified under section 349.213; and~~

(10) to issue premises permits to organizations licensed to conduct lawful gambling;

(11) to delegate to the director the authority to issue licenses and premises permits under criteria established by the board;

(12) to suspend or revoke licenses and premises permits of organizations, distributors, manufacturers, bingo halls, or gambling managers for violations of law or board rule;

(13) to register recipients of net profits from lawful gambling and to revoke or suspend such registrations;

(14) to register employees of organizations licensed to conduct lawful gambling;

(15) to require fingerprints from those persons determined by board rule to be subject to fingerprinting; and

(16) to take all necessary steps to ensure the integrity of and public confidence in lawful gambling.

(b) Any organization, distributor, bingo hall operator, or manufacturer assessed a civil penalty may request a hearing before the board. Hearings conducted on appeals of imposition of penalties are not subject to the provisions of the administrative procedure act.

(c) All fees and penalties received by the board must be deposited in the general fund.

Sec. 19. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 349.152, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [DUTIES OF THE DIRECTOR.] The director has the following duties:

- (1) to carry out gambling policy established by the board;
- (2) to employ and supervise personnel of the board;
- (3) to advise and make recommendations to the board on rules;
- (4) to issue licenses and premises permits as authorized by the board;
- (5) to issue cease and desist orders;
- (6) to make recommendations to the board on license issuance, denial, suspension and revocation, and civil penalties the board imposes; and
- (7) to ensure that board rules, policy, and decisions are adequately and accurately conveyed to the board's licensees.

Sec. 20. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 349.152, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 3. [CEASE AND DESIST ORDERS.] Whenever it appears to the director that any person has engaged or is about to engage in any act or practice constituting a violation of this chapter or any rule:

(a) The director has the power to issue and cause to be served upon the person an order requiring the person to cease and desist from violations of this chapter. The order must give reasonable notice of the rights of the person to request a hearing and must state the reason for the entry of the order. A hearing shall be held not later than seven days after the request for the hearing is received by the board after which and within 20 days of the date of the hearing the board shall issue an order vacating the cease and desist order or making it permanent as the facts require. All hearings shall be conducted in accordance with the provisions of chapter 14. If the person to whom a cease and desist order is issued fails to appear at the hearing after being duly notified, the person shall be deemed in default, and the proceeding may be determined against the person upon consideration of the cease and desist order, the allegations of which may be deemed to be true.

(b) The board may bring an action in the district court in the appropriate county to enjoin the acts or practices and to enforce compliance with this chapter or any rule and may refer the matter to the attorney general. Upon a proper showing, a permanent or temporary injunction, restraining order, or writ of mandamus shall be granted. The court may not require the board to post a bond.

Sec. 21. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 349.152, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 4. [EXECUTIVE ASSISTANT.] The director may appoint an executive assistant to the director, who is in the unclassified service.

Sec. 22. [349.154] [EXPENDITURE OF NET PROFITS FROM LAWFUL GAMBLING.]

Subdivision 1. [STANDARDS FOR CERTAIN ORGANIZATIONS.] The board shall by rule prescribe standards that must be met by any licensed organization that is a 501(c)(3) organization. The standards must provide:

(1) operating standards for the organization, including a maximum percentage or percentages of the organization's total expenditures that may be expended for the organization's administration and operation; and

(2) standards for any expenditure by the organization of net profits from lawful gambling, including a requirement that the expenditure be related to the primary purpose of the organization.

Subd. 2. [NET PROFIT REPORTS.] (a) Each licensed organization must report monthly to the board on a form prescribed by the board each expenditure and contribution of net profits from lawful gambling. The reports must provide for each expenditure or contribution:

(1) the name, address, and telephone number of the recipient of the expenditure or contribution;

(2) the date the contribution was approved by the organization;

(3) the date, amount, and check number of the expenditure or contribution; and

(4) a brief description of how the expenditure or contribution meets one or more of the purposes in section 349.12, subdivision 11, paragraph (a).

(b) Each report required under paragraph (a) must be accompanied by an acknowledgment, on a form the board prescribes, of each contribution of net profits from lawful gambling included in the report. The acknowledgment must be signed by the recipient of the contribution, or, if the recipient is not an individual, or other authorized representative of the recipient, by an officer. The acknowledgment must include the name and address of the contributing organization and each item in paragraph (a), clauses (1) to (3).

(c) The board shall provide the commissioners of revenue and public safety copies of each report received under this subdivision.

Subd. 3. [REGISTRATION OF LAWFUL GAMBLING NET PROFIT RECIPIENTS.] The board may by rule require that any individual, organization, or other entity must be registered with the board to receive a contribution of net profits from lawful gambling. The rules may designate and define specific categories of recipients which are subject to registration. The board may suspend or revoke the registration of any recipient the board determines has made an unlawful expenditure of net profits from lawful gambling.

Sec. 23. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 349.16, as amended by Laws 1989, chapter 334, article 2, sections 20 and 21, and Laws 1989, First Special Session chapter 1, article 13, section 8, is amended to read:

349.16 [ORGANIZATION LICENSES.]

Subdivision 1. [LICENSE REQUIRED.] An organization may conduct lawful gambling if it has a license to conduct lawful gambling and complies with this chapter.

Subd. 2. [ISSUANCE OF GAMBLING LICENSES.] Licenses authorizing organizations to conduct lawful gambling may be issued by the board to organizations meeting the following qualifications of section 349.14, if the board determines that the license is consistent with the purpose of sections 349.11 to 349.22::

(a) The organization must have been in existence for the most recent three years preceding the license application as a registered Minnesota nonprofit corporation or as an organization designated as exempt from the payment of income taxes by the Internal Revenue Code.

(b) The organization at the time of licensing must have at least 15 active members.

(c) The organization must not be in existence solely for the purpose of conducting gambling.

(d) The organization must not have as an officer or member of the governing body any person who has within the five years prior to the issuance of the license been convicted in a federal or state court of a felony or gross misdemeanor or who has ever been convicted of a crime involving gambling or who has had a license issued by the board or director revoked for a violation of law or board rule.

(e) The organization has identified in its license application the lawful purposes on which it proposes to expend net profits from lawful gambling.

(f) The organization has identified on its license application a gambling manager and certifies that the manager is qualified under this section.

(g) The organization must not, in the opinion of the board after consultation with the commissioner of revenue, be seeking licensing primarily for the purpose of evading or reducing the tax imposed by section 349.212, subdivision 6.

Subd. 3. [TERM OF LICENSE: SUSPENSION AND REVOCATION] (a) Licenses issued under this section are valid for one year and may be suspended by the board for a violation of law or board rule or revoked for what the board determines to be a ~~pattern of willful violations~~ violation of law or board rule. A revocation or suspension is a contested case under sections 14.57 to 14.69 of the administrative procedure act.

(b) The board may summarily suspend the license of an organization that is more than three months late in filing a tax return required under this chapter, and may keep the suspension in effect until all required returns are filed. The board must notify an organization at least 14 days before suspending the organization's license under this paragraph. A contested case hearing must be held within 20 days of the summary suspension and the administrative law judge's report must be issued within 20 days after the close of the hearing record. In all cases involving summary suspension, the board must issue its final decision within 30 days after receipt of the report of the administrative law judge and subsequent exceptions and argument under section 14.61.

(c) When an organization's license is suspended or revoked under this subdivision, the board shall within three days notify all municipalities in which the organization's gambling premises are located, and all licensed distributors in the state.

Subd. 1a. [RESTRICTIONS ON LICENSE ISSUANCE.] On and after October 1, 1989, the board shall not issue an initial license to any organization if the board, in consultation with the department of revenue, determines that the organization is seeking licensing for the primary purpose of evading or reducing the tax imposed by section 349.212, subdivision 6.

Subd. 2 4. [APPLICATION.] All applications for a license under this section must be on a form prescribed by the board. The board may require the applying organization to submit a copy of its articles of incorporation and other documents it deems necessary.

Subd. 5. [RENEWALS.] The board shall not renew a license issued under this section unless it determines that the organization is (1) in compliance with all laws and rules governing lawful gambling; and (2) is not delinquent in filing tax returns or paying taxes required under this chapter. The board may delegate to the director the authority to make determinations required under this subdivision.

Subd. 3 6. [FEES.] The board may issue four classes of organization licenses: a class A license authorizing all forms of lawful gambling; a class B license authorizing all forms of lawful gambling except bingo; a class C license authorizing bingo only; and a class D license authorizing raffles only. The annual license fee for each class of license is:

- (1) $200 for a class A license;
- (2) $125 for a class B license;
- (3) $100 for a class C license; and

(4) $75 for a class D license. board shall not charge a fee for an organization license.

Subd. 7. [PURCHASE OF GAMBLING EQUIPMENT.] An organization may purchase gambling equipment only from a person licensed as a distributor.

Subd. 4 8. [LOCAL INVESTIGATION FEE.] A statutory or home rule charter city or county notified under section 349.213, subdivision 2, may assess an investigation fee on organizations or bingo halls applying for or renewing a license to conduct lawful gambling or operate a bingo hall. An investigation fee may not exceed the following limits:

- (1) for cities of the first class, $500;
- (2) for cities of the second class, $250;
- (3) for all other cities, $100; and
- (4) for counties, $375.

Sec. 24. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 349.161, as amended by Laws 1989, First Special Session chapter 1, article 13, section 9, is amended to read:

349.161 [DISTRIBUTOR LICENSES.]

Subdivision 1. [PROHIBITED ACTS; LICENSES REQUIRED.]
No person may:

(2) sell, offer for sale, or furnish gambling equipment to an ~~organization licensed~~ for lawful gambling without having obtained a distributor license under this section;

(3) sell, offer for sale, or furnish gambling equipment for use within the state that is not purchased or obtained from a manufacturer or distributor licensed under this chapter, or in the case of video pull-tab devices, purchased or obtained from a manufacturer or a video pull-tab device wholesaler; or

(4) sell, offer for sale, or furnish gambling equipment for use within the state that has the same serial number as another item of gambling equipment of the same type sold or offered for sale or furnished for use in the state by that distributor.

~~No licensed organization may purchase gambling equipment from any person not licensed as a distributor under this section.~~

Nothing in this subdivision prohibits the otherwise lawful sale of video pull-tab devices to a distributor by a licensed video pull-tab device wholesaler.

Subd. 2. [LICENSE APPLICATION.] The board may issue licenses for the sale of gambling equipment to persons who meet the qualifications of this section if the board determines that a license is consistent with the purpose of sections 349.11 to 349.22. Applications must be on a form the board prescribes.

Subd. 3. [QUALIFICATIONS.] A license may not be issued under this section to a person, or to a corporation, firm, or partnership which has as an officer, director, other person in a supervisory or management position, or employee eligible to make sales on behalf of the distributor a person, who:

(1) has been convicted of a felony ~~within the past five years~~;

(2) has ever been convicted of a felony involving fraud or misrepresentation or a crime involving gambling;

(3) has ever been convicted of (i) assault, (ii) any criminal violation involving the use of a firearm, or (iii) making terroristic threats;

(4) is or has ever been engaged in an illegal business;

~~(4)~~ (5) owes $500 or more in delinquent taxes as defined in section 270.72;

~~(5)~~ (6) has had a sales and use tax permit revoked by the commissioner of revenue within the last two years; or

~~(6)~~ (7) after demand, has not filed tax returns required by the commissioner of revenue.

Subd. 4. [FEES.] The annual fee for a distributor's license is $2,500.

Subd. 5. [PROHIBITION.] (a) No distributor, or employee of a distributor, may also be a wholesale distributor of alcoholic beverages or an employee of a wholesale distributor of alcoholic beverages.

(b) No distributor, ~~distributor's or any~~ representative, agent, affiliate, or employee of a distributor, may be (1) involved ~~directly~~ in the ~~operation~~ conduct of lawful gambling ~~conducted~~ by an organization; (2) keep or assist in the keeping of an organization's financial records, accounts, and inventories; or (3) prepare or assist in the preparation of tax forms and other reporting forms required to be submitted to the state by an organization.

(c) No ~~manufacturer or distributor or person acting as a~~ any representative, agent, affiliate, or employee of a ~~manufacturer or distributor~~ may provide a lessor of gambling premises any compensation, gift, gratuity, premium, or other thing of value.

(d) No distributor, distributor's or any representative, agent, affiliate, or employee of a distributor may participate in any gambling activity at any gambling site or premises where gambling equipment purchased from that distributor is being used in the conduct of lawful gambling.

(e) No distributor, distributor's or any representative, agent, affiliate, or employee of a distributor may alter or modify any gambling equipment, except to add a "last ticket sold" prize sticker.

(f) No distributor or any representative, agent, affiliate, or employee of a distributor may: (1) recruit a person to become a gambling manager of an organization or identify to an organization a person as a candidate to become gambling manager for the organization; or (2) identify for an organization a potential gambling location.

(g) No distributor may purchase gambling equipment from any person not licensed as a manufacturer under section 349.163.

(h) No distributor may sell gambling equipment to any person in Minnesota other than (i) a licensed organization or organization exempt from licensing, or (ii) the governing body of an Indian tribe.

Subd. 6. [REVOCATION AND SUSPENSION.] A license under this section may be suspended by the board for a violation of law or board rule or. A license under this section may be revoked for (1) failure to meet the qualifications in subdivision 3 at any time; or revoked (2) for what the board determines to be a pattern of a willful violations violation of law or board rule. A revocation or suspension is a contested case under sections 14.57 to 14.69 of the administrative procedure act.

Subd. 7. [CRIMINAL HISTORY.] The board may request the assistance of the division of gambling enforcement in investigating the background of an applicant for a distributor's license and may reimburse the division of gambling enforcement for the costs thereof. The board has access to all criminal history data compiled by the division of gambling enforcement on licensees and applicants.

Subd. 8. [EMPLOYEES OF DISTRIBUTORS.] Licensed distributors shall provide the board upon request with the names and home addresses of all employees. Each distributor, and employee of a distributor, or a person making sales of gambling equipment on behalf of a distributor must have in their possession a picture identification card approved by the board. No person other than an employee of a licensed distributor shall make any sales on behalf of a licensed distributor.

Subd. 9. [LEASES OF VIDEO PULL-TAB DEVICES.] For purposes of this section the terms "sell" and "sale" include the lease of a video pull-tab device or pull-tab dispensing machine by a distributor to a licensed organization.

Sec. 25. [349.1611] [VIDEO PULL-TAB DEVICE WHOLE-SALER.]

Subdivision 1. [LICENSE REQUIRED.] No person may engage in the business of purchasing video pull-tab devices from a manufacturer for sale to a distributor without having obtained a license from the board. The board may issue a license to persons who meet the qualifications of this section if the board determines that issuance of the license is consistent with the purposes of section 349.11 to 349.23. Applications must be on a form the board prescribes. Video pull-tab device wholesaler's licenses are valid for one year. The fee for a video pull-tab device wholesaler's license is $2,500.

Subd. 2. [QUALIFICATIONS.] A license may not be issued under this section to a person, or to a corporation, firm, or partnership which has as an officer, director, other person in a supervisory or management position, or employee eligible to make sales on behalf of the distributor, a person, who:

(1) has been convicted of a felony;

(2) has ever been convicted of a felony involving fraud or misrepresentation or a crime involving gambling;

(3) has ever been convicted of (i) assault, (ii) any criminal violation involving the use of a firearm, or (iii) making terroristic threats;

(4) is or has ever been engaged in an illegal business;

(5) owes $500 or more in delinquent taxes as defined in section 270.72;

(6) has had a sales and use tax permit revoked by the commissioner of revenue within the last two years; or

(7) after demand, has not filed tax returns required by the commissioner of revenue.

A video pull-tab device wholesaler's license may not be issued to any person licensed as a distributor under section 349.161.

Subd. 3. [PROHIBITIONS.] All prohibitions applicable to distributors or manufacturers under section 349.161, subdivision 5, apply to video pull-tab device wholesalers.

Subd. 4. [REVOCAION; SUSPENSION.] A license under this section may be suspended by the board for a violation of law or board rule. A license under this section may be revoked for (1) failure to meet the qualifications in subdivision 2 at any time, or (2) for a willful violation of law or board rule. A revocation or suspension is a contested case under sections 14.57 to 14.69 of the administrative procedure act.

Sec. 26. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 349.162, is amended to read:

349.162 [EQUIPMENT REGISTERED.]

Subdivision 1. [STAMP REQUIRED.] (a) A distributor may not sell, transfer, furnish, or otherwise provide to a person, organization, or distributor, and no person, organization, or distributor may purchase, borrow, accept, or acquire from a distributor gambling equipment unless the equipment has been registered with the board and has a registration stamp affixed. The board shall charge a fee of five cents for each stamp. Each stamp must bear a registration number assigned by the board. A distributor is entitled to a refund for unused stamps and replacement for stamps which are defective or canceled by the distributor.

(b) From January 1, 1991, to June 30, 1992, no distributor, organization, or other person may sell a pull-tab which is not clearly marked "For Sale in Minnesota Only."

(c) On and after July 1, 1992, no distributor, organization, or other person may sell a pull-tab which is not clearly marked "Manufactured in Minnesota For Sale in Minnesota Only."

Subd. 2. [RECORDS REQUIRED.] A distributor must maintain a record of all gambling equipment which it sells to organizations. The record must include:

(1) the identity of the person or firm from whom the equipment was distributor purchased the equipment;

(2) the registration number of the equipment;

(3) the name and, address and license or exempt permit number of the organization to which the sale was made;

(4) the date of the sale;

(5) the name of the person who ordered the equipment; and

(6) the name of the person who received the equipment;.

(7) the type of equipment;

(8) the serial number of the equipment;

(9) the name, form number, or other identifying information for each game; and

(10) in the case of bingo cards sold on and after January 1, 1991, the individual number of each card.

The invoice for each sale must be retained for at least ~~two~~ three and one-half years after the sale is completed and a copy of each invoice is to be delivered to the board in the manner and time prescribed by the board. For purposes of this section, a sale is completed when the gambling equipment is physically delivered to the purchaser.

Each distributor must report monthly to the board, in a form the board prescribes, its sales of each type of gambling equipment. Employees of the division and the division of gambling enforcement may inspect the business premises, books, records, and other documents of a distributor at any reasonable time without notice and without a search warrant.

Subd. 3. [EXEMPTION.] For purposes of this section, bingo cards or sheets need not be stamped.

Subd. 4. [PROHIBITION.] (a) No person other than a licensed distributor may possess unaffixed registration stamps issued by the board.

(b) Unless otherwise provided in this chapter, no person may possess gambling equipment that has not been stamped and registered with the board.

(c) On and after January 1, 1991, no distributor may:

(1) sell a bingo card that does not bear an individual number; or

(2) sell a package of bingo cards that does not contain bingo cards in numerical order.

Subd. 5. [SALES FROM FACILITIES.] (a) All gambling equipment purchased or possessed by a licensed distributor for resale in Minnesota must, prior to the equipment's resale, be unloaded into a sales or storage facility located in Minnesota which the distributor owns or leases; and which has been registered, in advance and in writing, with the division of gambling enforcement as a sales or storage facility of the distributor's. All unregistered gambling equipment and all unaffixed registration stamps owned by, or in the possession of, a licensed distributor in the state of Minnesota shall be stored at a sales or storage facility which has been registered with the division of gambling enforcement. No gambling equipment may be moved from the facility unless the gambling equipment has been first registered with the board.

(b) All sales and storage facilities owned, leased, used, or operated by a licensed distributor may be entered upon and inspected by the employees of the division of gambling enforcement or the director's authorized representatives during reasonable and regular business hours. Obstruction of, or failure to permit, entry and inspection is cause for revocation or suspension of a distributor's licenses and permits issued under this chapter.

(c) Unregistered gambling equipment and unaffixed registration stamps found at any location in Minnesota other than a registered sales or storage facility are contraband under section 349.2125. This paragraph does not apply to unregistered gambling equipment being transported in interstate commerce between locations outside Minnesota, if the interstate shipment is verified by a bill of lading or other valid shipping document.

Subd. 6. [VIDEO PULL-TAB DEVICE MEMORY CHIPS.] For purposes of this section only, "gambling equipment" includes any memory chip used or intended to be used to drive a video pull-tab device.

Subd. 7. [REMOVAL OF EQUIPMENT FROM INVENTORY.] Authorized employees of the division, the division of gambling enforcement of the department of public safety, and the commissioner of revenue may remove gambling equipment from the inventories of distributors and organizations and test that equipment to determine its compliance with all applicable laws and rules. A distributor or organization may return to the manufacturer thereof any gambling equipment which is determined to be in violation of law or rule. The cost to an organization of gambling equipment removed from inventory under this paragraph and found to be in compliance with all applicable law and rules is an allowable expense under section 349.15.

Sec. 27. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 349.163, as amended by Laws 1989, First Special Session chapter 1, article 13, section 10, is amended to read:

349.163 [LICENSING OF MANUFACTURERS.]

Subdivision 1. [LICENSE REQUIRED.] No manufacturer of gambling equipment may sell any gambling equipment to any person unless the manufacturer has been issued a current and valid license by the board under objective this section and other criteria prescribed by the board by rule.

A manufacturer licensed under this section may not also be directly or indirectly licensed as a distributor under section 349.161 or as a video pull-tab wholesaler under section 22.

Subd. 1a. [QUALIFICATIONS.] A license may not be issued under this section to a person, or to a corporation, firm, or partnership which has as an officer, director, other person in a supervisory or management position, or employee eligible to make sales on behalf of the distributor, a person, who:

(1) has been convicted of a felony;

(2) has ever been convicted of a felony involving fraud, misrepresentation, or a crime involving gambling;

(3) has ever been convicted of (i) assault, (ii) any criminal violation involving the use of a firearm, or (iii) making terroristic threats;

(4) is or has ever been engaged in an illegal business;

(5) owes $500 or more in delinquent taxes as defined in section 270.72;

(6) has had a sales and use tax permit revoked by the commissioner of revenue within the last two years; or

(7) after demand, has not filed tax returns required by the commissioner of revenue.

Subd. 1b. [APPLICATIONS; INFORMATION.] An applicant for a manufacturer's license must list on the license application the names and addresses of all subsidiaries, affiliates, and branches in which the applicant has any form of ownership or control, in whole or in part, without regard to whether the subsidiary, affiliate, or branch does business in Minnesota.

Subd. 2. [LICENSE; FEE.] A license under this section is valid for one year. The annual fee for the license is $2,500.

Subd. 3. [PROHIBITED SALES.] (a) A manufacturer may not:

(1) sell gambling equipment to any person not licensed as a distributor unless the manufacturer is also a licensed distributor; or

(2) sell gambling equipment to a distributor in this state that has the same serial number as another item of gambling equipment of the same type that is sold by that manufacturer for use in this state;

(3) on and after January 1, 1991, sell to any person in Minnesota a pull-tab on which the manufacturer has not clearly printed the words "For Sale in Minnesota Only," or

(4) on and after January 1, 1991, sell to any person inside or outside the state, including the governing body of any Indian tribe, other than a Minnesota licensed distributor, a pull-tab marked "For Sale in Minnesota Only."

(b) A manufacturer, affiliate of a manufacturer, or person acting as a representative, agent, or employee of a manufacturer may not provide a lessor of gambling premises any compensation, gift, gratuity, premium, or other thing of value.

(c) On and after July 1, 1992, all pull-tabs sold by a licensed manufacturer to a person in Minnesota must (1) be manufactured within Minnesota, and (2) be clearly marked with the words "Manufactured in Minnesota For Sale in Minnesota Only." A manufacturer may not place the words required in this paragraph on any pull-tab not manufactured in Minnesota.

Subd. 4. [INSPECTION OF MANUFACTURERS.] Employees of the division and the division of gambling enforcement may inspect the books, records, inventory, and manufacturing operations of a licensed manufacturer without notice during the normal business hours of the manufacturer.

Subd. 5. [PULL-TAB AND TIPBOARD FLARES.] (a) A manufacturer may not ship or cause to be shipped into this state any deal of pull-tabs or tipboards that does not have its own individual flare as required for that deal by rule of the board. No person other than a manufacturer may manufacture, alter, modify, or otherwise change a flare for a deal of pull-tabs or tipboards except as allowed by this chapter or board rules.

(b) The flare of each deal of pull-tabs and tipboards sold by a manufacturer in Minnesota must have the Minnesota gambling stamp affixed. The flare, with the stamp affixed, must be placed inside the wrapping of the deal which the flare describes.

(c) Each pull-tab and tipboard flare must bear the following statement, printed in letters large enough to be clearly legible:

"Pull-tab or tipboard purchasers—This pull-tab or tipboard game is not legal in Minnesota unless:

—a Minnesota gambling stamp is affixed to this sheet, and —the serial number handwritten on the gambling stamp is the same as the serial number printed on this sheet, and on the pull-tab ticket or tipboard you have purchased."

(d) The flare of each pull-tab and tipboard game must bear the serial number of the game, printed in numbers at least one-half inch high.

(e) The flare of each pull-tab and tipboard game must be imprinted at the bottom with a bar code which provides:

- (1) the name of the game;
- (2) the serial number of the game;
- (3) the name of the manufacturer;
- (4) the number of tickets or tipboards in the deal;
- (5) the odds of winning each prize in the deal; and
- (6) any other information the board by rule requires.

The serial number included in the bar code must be the same as the serial number of the tickets or tipboards included in the deal. A manufacturer who manufactures a deal of pull-tabs or tipboards must affix to the outside of the box containing that game the same bar code which is imprinted at the bottom of a flare for that deal.

(f) No person may alter the bar code which appears on the outside of a box containing a deal of pull-tabs or tipboards. Possession of a box containing a deal of pull-tabs or tipboards which has a bar code different from the bar code of the deal inside the box is prima facie evidence that the possessor has altered the bar code on the box.

Subd. 6. [SAMPLES OF GAMBLING EQUIPMENT.] The board shall require each licensed manufacturer to submit samples to the board of each item of gambling equipment the manufacturer manufactures for sale in this state. The board shall inspect and test all such equipment as it deems necessary to determine the equipment's compliance with law and board rules. The board may request the assistance of the commissioner of public safety and the director of the state lottery division in performing such tests.

Subd. 7. [RECYCLED PAPER REQUIRED.] All pull-tabs sold in Minnesota by a licensed manufacturer on and after January 1, 1991, must be manufactured on recycled paper.

Sec. 28. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 349.164, is amended to read:

349.164 [BINGO HALL LICENSES.]

Subdivision 1. [LICENSE REQUIRED.] No person may lease a facility to more than one individual, corporation, partnership, or organization to conduct bingo without having obtained a current and valid bingo hall license under this section, unless the lessor is a licensed organization.

Subd. 2. [LICENSE APPLICATION.] The board may issue a bingo hall license to persons who meet the qualifications of this section if the board determines that a license is consistent with the purpose of sections 349.11 to 349.22. Applications must be on a form the board prescribes. The board may not issue or renew a bingo hall license unless the conditions of section 349.213, subdivision 2, have been satisfied.

Subd. 3. [QUALIFICATIONS.] A license may not be issued under this section to a person, ~~or to a~~ organization, corporation, firm, or partnership which is not the legal owner of the facility, or to a person, organization, corporation, firm, or partnership which has as an officer, director, or other person in a supervisory or management position, who:

- (1) has been convicted of a felony within the past five years;
- (2) has ever been convicted of a felony involving fraud or misrepresentation or a crime involving gambling; ~~or~~
- (3) has every been convicted of (i) assault, (ii) any criminal violation involving the use of a firearm, or (iii) making terroristic threats;
- (4) owes delinquent taxes in excess of $500 as defined in section 270.72; or
- (5) after demand, has not filed tax returns required by the commissioner of revenue.

Subd. 4. [FEES.] The annual fee for a bingo hall license is $2,500.

Subd. 5. [CRIMINAL HISTORY.] The board may request the assistance of the division of gambling enforcement in investigating the background of an applicant for a bingo hall license and may reimburse the division of gambling enforcement for the costs. The board has access to all criminal history data compiled by the bureau of criminal apprehension and the division of gambling enforcement on licensees and applicants.

Subd. 6. [~~PROHIBITION~~ PROHIBITED ACTS.] No bingo hall licensee, person holding a financial or managerial interest in a bingo hall, or an affiliate thereof may also:

(1) be a licensed distributor or licensed manufacturer or affiliate of the distributor or manufacturer under section 349.161 or 349.163 or a wholesale distributor of alcoholic beverages;

Subd. 7. [RESTRICTIONS.] A bingo hall licensee or affiliate of the licensee may not:

(1) (2) provide any staff to conduct or assist in the conduct of bingo or any other form of lawful gambling during the bingo occasion on the premises;

(2) (3) acquire, provide storage or inventory control, or report the use of any gambling equipment used by an organization that conducts bingo lawful gambling on the premises;

(3) (4) provide accounting services to an organization conducting bingo lawful gambling on the premises;

(4) (5) solicit, suggest, encourage, or make any expenditures of gross receipts of an organization from lawful gambling; or

(5) (6) charge any fee to a person at a bingo occasion, without which the person could not play a bingo game or participate in another form of lawful gambling on the premises;

(7) provide assistance or participate in the conduct of lawful gambling on the premises; or

(8) permit more than 21 bingo occasions to be conducted on the premises in any week.

Subd. 8 7. [LEASES.] All of the remuneration to be received from the organization for the conduct of lawful gambling must be stated in the lease. No amount may be paid by the organization or received by the operator of the bingo hall licensee based on the number of participants attending the bingo occasion or participating in lawful gambling on the premises, or based on the gross receipts or profit received by the organization. All provisions of section 349.18 apply to lawful gambling conducted in bingo halls.

Subd. 9 8. [REVOCATION AND SUSPENSION.] A license under this section may be suspended by the board for a violation of law or board rule or revoked for (1) failure to meet the qualifications in subdivision 3 at any time; or ~~revoked for what the board determines to be~~ (2) a pattern of willful violations violation of law or board rule. A revocation or suspension is a contested case under sections 14.57 to 14.69 of the administrative procedure act.

Sec. 29. [349.165] [PREMISES PERMITS.]

Subdivision 1. [PREMISES PERMIT REQUIRED; APPLICATION.] No licensed organization may conduct any lawful gambling at any site unless it has first obtained from the board a premises permit for the site. The board shall prescribe a form for permit applications, and each application for a permit must be submitted on a separate form. The board may by rule limit the number of premises permits that may be issued to an organization.

Subd. 2. [CONTENTS OF APPLICATION.] Each application for a premises permit must contain:

(1) the name and address of the applying organization and of the organization's gambling manager;

(2) a description of the site for which the permit is sought, including its address and, where applicable, its placement within another premises or establishment;

(3) if the site is leased, the name and address of the lessor and such information about the lease as the board requires, including all rents and other charges for the use of the site; and

(4) other information the board deems necessary to carry out its purposes.

An organization holding a premises permit must notify the board within ten days whenever any material change is made in the above information.

Subd. 3. [FEES.] The board may issue four classes of premises permits, corresponding to the classes of licenses authorized under section 349.16, subdivision 6. The annual fee for each class of permit is:

(1) $200 for a class A permit;

(2) $125 for a class B permit;

(3) $100 for a class C permit; and

(4) $75 for a class D permit.

Subd. 4. [IDENTIFICATION OF PREMISES.] No organization may seek or accept assistance from a manufacturer or distributor, or a representative, agent, affiliate, or employee of a manufacturer or distributor, in identifying potential locations for gambling conducted by the organization.

Sec. 30. [349.166] [EXEMPTIONS; EXCLUSIONS.]

Subdivision 1. [EXCLUSIONS.] (a) Bingo may be conducted without a license and without complying with sections 349.17, subdivision 1, and 349.18, if it is conducted:

(1) in connection with a county fair, the state fair, or a civic celebration if it is not conducted for more than 12 consecutive days in a calendar year; or

(2) by an organization that conducts four or fewer bingo occasions in a calendar year.

No organization that holds a license to conduct lawful gambling under this chapter may conduct bingo under this subdivision.

(b) Bingo may be conducted within a nursing home or a senior citizen housing project or by a senior citizen organization without compliance with sections 349.11 to 349.213 if the prizes for a single bingo game do not exceed $10, total prizes awarded at a single bingo occasion do not exceed $200, no more than two bingo occasions are held by the organization or at the facility each week, only members of the organization or residents of the nursing home or housing project are allowed to play in a bingo game, no compensation is paid for any persons who conduct the bingo, a manager is appointed to supervise the bingo, and the manager registers with the board. The gross receipts from bingo conducted under the limitations of this subdivision are exempt from taxation under chapter 297A.

(c) Raffles may be conducted by an organization without complying with sections 349.11 to 349.14 and 349.151 to 349.213 if the value of all raffle prizes awarded by the organization in a calendar year does not exceed $750.

Subd. 2. [EXEMPTIONS.] (a) Lawful gambling may be conducted by an organization as defined in section 349.12, subdivision 12, without complying with sections 349.151 to 349.16; 349.167; 349.168; 349.18; 349.19; and 349.212 if:

(1) the organization conducts lawful gambling on five or fewer days in a calendar year;

(2) the organization does not award more than $50,000 in prizes for lawful gambling in a calendar year;

(3) the organization pays a fee of $25 to the board, notifies the board in writing not less than 30 days before each lawful gambling occasion of the date and location of the occasion, or 60 days for an occasion held in the case of a city of the first class, the types of lawful gambling to be conducted, the prizes to be awarded, and receives an exemption identification number;

(4) the organization notifies the local government unit 30 days before the lawful gambling occasion, or 60 days for an occasion held in a city of the first class;

(5) the organization purchases all gambling equipment and supplies from a licensed distributor; and

(6) the organization reports to the board, on a single page form prescribed by the board, within 30 days of each gambling occasion, the gross receipts, prizes, expenses, expenditures of net profits from the occasion, and the identification of the licensed distributor from whom all gambling equipment was purchased.

(b) If the organization fails to file a timely report as required by paragraph (a), clause (3) or (6), a $250 penalty is imposed on the organization. Failure to file a timely report does not disqualify the organization as exempt under this paragraph if a report is subsequently filed and the penalty paid.

(c) Merchandise prizes must be valued at their fair market value.

(d) Unused pull-tab and tipboard deals must be returned to the distributor within seven working days after the end of the lawful gambling occasion. The distributor must accept and pay a refund for all returns of unopened and undamaged deals returned under this paragraph.

(e) An organization that is exempt from taxation on purchases of pull-tabs and tipboards under section 349.212, subdivision 4, paragraph (c), must return to the distributor any tipboard or pull-tab deal no part of which is used at the lawful gambling occasion for which it was purchased by the organization.

Subd. 3. [RAFFLES; CERTAIN ORGANIZATIONS.] The provisions of sections 349.21 and 349.211, subdivision 3, and the membership requirements of sections 349.14 and 349.20 do not apply to raffles conducted by an organization which directly or under contract to the state or a political subdivision delivers health or social services and which is a 501(c)(3) organization if the prizes awarded in the raffles are real or personal property donated by an individual, firm, or other organization. The person who accounts for the gross receipts, expenses, and profits of the raffles may be the same person who accounts for other funds of the organization.

Subd. 4. [TAXATION.] An organization's receipts from lawful gambling that is exempt from licensing under this section is not subject to the tax imposed by section 297A.02 or 349.212.

Sec. 31. [349.167] [GAMBLING MANAGERS.]

Subdivision 1. [GAMBLING MANAGER REQUIRED.] (a) All lawful gambling conducted by a licensed organization must be under the supervision of a gambling manager. A gambling manager designated by an organization to supervise lawful gambling is responsible for the gross receipts of the organization and for its conduct in compliance with all laws and rules. The organization must maintain, or require the person designated as a gambling manager to maintain, a fidelity bond in the sum or $25,000 in favor of the organization and the state, conditioned on (1) the faithful performance of the manager's duties; and (2) the payment of all taxes due under this chapter on lawful expenditures of gross profits from lawful gambling. The terms of the bond must provide that notice be given to the board in writing not less than 30 days before its cancellation. In the case of conflicting claims against a bond a claim by the state has preference over a claim by the organization.

(b) A person may not act as a gambling manager for more than one organization.

(c) An organization may not conduct lawful gambling without having a gambling manager. The board must be notified in writing of a change in gambling managers. Notification must be made within ten days of the date the gambling manager assumes the manager's duties.

(d) An organization may not have more than one gambling manager at any time.

Subd. 2. [GAMBLING MANAGERS; LICENSES.] No person may serve as a gambling manager for any organization unless the person possesses a valid gambling manager's license from the board. The board may issue a gambling manager's license to a person applying for the license who:

(1) has received training as required in subdivision 5;

(2) has not been convicted of a felony in a state or federal court;

(3) has not at any time within the five years prior to the license application committed any violation of law or board rule which resulted in the revocation of any license issued by the board;

(4) has never been convicted in a state or federal court of any criminal violation involving fraud, theft, tax evasion, misrepresentation, or gambling;

(5) has never been convicted of (i) assault, (ii) any criminal violation involving the use of a firearm, or (iii) making terroristic threats; and

(6) has not engaged in conduct the board determines is contrary to the public health, welfare, or safety or the integrity of lawful gambling.

A gambling manager's license is valid for one year unless suspended or revoked. The annual fee for a gambling manager's license is $100.

Subd. 4. [SUSPENSION; REVOCATION.] The board may suspend or revoke, as provided in board rules, a gambling manager's license for a violation of law or board rule. A suspension or revocation is a contested case under sections 14.57 to 14.69 of the administrative procedure act.

Subd. 5. [TRAINING OF GAMBLING MANAGERS.] (a) The board shall by rule require all persons licensed as gambling managers to receive periodic training in laws and rules governing lawful gambling. The rules must contain the following requirements:

(1) each gambling manager must have received such training before being issued a new license;

(2) each gambling manager applying for a renewal of a license must have received training within the three years prior to the date of application for the renewal; and

(3) the training required by this subdivision may be provided by a person, firm, association, or organization authorized by the board to provide the training. Before authorizing a person, firm, association, or organization to provide training, the board must determine that:

(i) the provider and all of the provider's personnel conducting the training are qualified to do so;

(ii) the curriculum to be used fully and accurately covers all elements of lawful gambling law and rules that the board determines are necessary for a gambling manager to know and understand;

(iii) the fee to be charged for participants in the training sessions is fair and reasonable; and

(iv) the training provider has an adequate system for documenting completion of training.

The rules may provide for differing training requirements for gambling managers based on the class of license held by the gambling manager's organization.

The board or the director may provide the training required by this subdivision using employees of the division.

Subd. 6. [CRIMINAL HISTORY.] The board may request the assistance of the division of gambling enforcement in investigating the background of an applicant for a gambling manager's license and may reimburse the division of gambling enforcement for the costs thereof. The board has access to all criminal history data compiled by the division of gambling enforcement on licensees and applicants.

Subd. 7. [RECRUITMENT OF GAMBLING MANAGERS.] No organization may seek or accept assistance from a manufacturer or distributor, or a representative, agent, affiliate, or employee of a manufacturer or distributor, in identifying or recruiting candidates to become a gambling manager for the organization.

Sec. 32. [349.168] [GAMBLING EMPLOYEES.]

Subdivision 1. [REGISTRATION OF EMPLOYEES.] No person may receive compensation for participating in the conduct of lawful gambling as an employee of a licensed organization unless the person has first registered with the board on a form the board prescribes. The form must require that each person registering must provide (1) the person's name, address, and social security number; (2) a current photograph; (3) the name, address, and license number of the employing organization; and (4) a listing of all employment in the conduct of lawful gambling within the previous three years, including the name and address of each employing organization and the circumstances under which the employment was terminated.

Subd. 2. [IDENTIFICATION OF EMPLOYEES.] The board shall issue to each person registering under subdivision 1 a registration number and identification card which must include the employee's photograph. Each person receiving compensation for the conduct of lawful gambling must wear the identification card provided by the board at all times while engaged in such employment.

Subd. 3. [COMPENSATION.] Compensation to persons who participate in the conduct of lawful gambling may be paid only to active members of the conducting organization or its auxiliary, or the spouse or surviving spouse of an active member, except that the following persons may receive compensation without being active members: (1) sellers of pull-tabs, tipboards, raffle tickets, paddle-wheel tickets, and bingo paper; and (2) accountants performing auditing or bookkeeping services for the organization; and (3) attorneys providing legal services to the organization.

Subd. 4. [AMOUNTS PAID.] The amounts of compensation which may be paid under this section may be provided for in a schedule of compensation adopted by the board by rule. In adopting a schedule, the board must consider the nature of the participation and the types of lawful gambling participated in.

Subd. 5. [COMPENSATION RECORDS.] An organization paying compensation to persons for the conduct of lawful gambling must maintain a compensation record. The record must be retained for at least two years after the month in which the compensation is paid. The record must be an itemization of each payment made to each recipient of compensation and must include the amount of compensation paid and the full name, address, and membership status of each recipient.

Subd. 6. [COMPENSATION PAID BY CHECK.] Compensation paid by an organization in connection with lawful gambling must be in the form of a check drawn on the organization's gambling account, as specified in section 349.19, and paid directly to the employee of the organization.

Subd. 7. [PENALTY.] (a) An organization that makes payment of compensation, or causes compensation to be made, which violates the provisions of subdivision 4 shall be assessed a civil penalty not to exceed $1,000 for each violation of subdivision 4. A second violation within 12 months of notification by the board to the organization of the first violation shall result in suspension of the organization's gambling license for a period of three months, in addition to any civil penalty assessed. A third violation within 12 months of the board's notification to the organization of the second violation shall result in revocation of the organization's gambling license in addition to any civil penalty assessed.

(b) Upon each violation, the director shall notify the organization in writing of its violation and of the penalties under this subdivision for future violations. Notification is effective upon mailing.

(c) For purposes of this subdivision, a violation consists of a payroll period or compensation date that includes payments made in violation of subdivision 4.

Subd. 8. [PERCENTAGE OF GROSS PROFIT PAID.] A licensed organization may pay a percentage of the gross profit from raffle ticket sales to a nonprofit organization which sells raffle tickets for the licensed organization.

Sec. 33. [349.169] [FILING OF PRICES.]

Subdivision 1. [FILING REQUIRED.] All manufacturers and distributors must file with the director, not later than the first day of each month, the prices at which the manufacturer or distributor will sell all gambling equipment in that month. The filing must be on a form the director prescribes. Prices filed must include all charges the manufacturer or distributor makes for each item of gambling equipment sold, including all volume discounts, exclusive of transportation costs. All filings are effective on the first day of the month for which they are filed, except that a manufacturer or distributor may amend a filed price within five days of filing it.

Subd. 2. [COPIES.] The director shall provide copies of price filings to any person requesting them, and may charge a reasonable fee for the copies. Any person may examine price filings in the division office at no cost, and the director shall make the filings available for that purpose.

Subd. 3. [SALES AT FILED PRICES.] No manufacturer may sell to a distributor, and no distributor may sell to an organization, any gambling equipment for any price other than a price the manufacturer or distributor has filed with the director under subdivision 1, exclusive of transportation costs.

Sec. 34. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 349.17, as amended by Laws 1989, chapter 334, article 2, section 26, is amended to read:

349.17 [CONDUCT OF BINGO.]

Subdivision 1. [BINGO OCCASIONS.] Not more than ~~six~~ seven bingo occasions each week may be conducted by an organization. At least 15 bingo games must be held at each occasion and a bingo occasion must continue for at least 1½ hours but not more than four consecutive hours.

Subd. 2. [BINGO ON LEASED PREMISES.] (a) A person or corporation, other than an organization, which leases any premises that it owns to two or more organizations for purposes including the conduct of bingo occasions, may not allow more than 18 bingo occasions to be conducted on the premises in any week.

(b) If an organization conducts bingo on premises it does not own, the organization must provide the board with the name of the owner and lessor of the premises, copies of all agreements between the organization and the owner or lessor, and the names of employees of the owner or lessor who will be responsible for the premises during the bingo occasion held by the organization.

(c) During any bingo occasion held conducted by an organization on premises it does not own, the organization shall be directly responsible for the:

- (1) staffing of the bingo occasion;

- (2) conducting of lawful gambling during the bingo occasion;
- (3) acquiring, storage, inventory control, and reporting of all gambling equipment used by the organization; and
- (4) receipt, accounting, and all expenditures of gross receipts from lawful gambling; and
- (5) preparation of the bingo packets.

Subd. 2a. [DISTRIBUTOR LICENSE EXEMPTION FOR LESSOR.] As part of a lease agreement on a leased bingo premises, the lessor may furnish bingo equipment without being a licensed distributor. For purposes of this section, "furnish" does not include the right to sell or offer for sale.

Subd. 3. Each bingo winner must be determined and every prize shall be awarded and delivered the same day on which the bingo occasion is conducted.

Subd. 4. [CHECKERS.] One or more checkers must be engaged for each bingo occasion. The checker or checkers must record, on a form the board provides, the number of cards played in each game and the prizes awarded to recorded cards. The form must provide for the inclusion of the registration number of each card and must include a checker's certification that the figures recorded are correct to the best of the checker's knowledge.

Subd. 5. [BINGO CARD NUMBERING.] The board shall by rule require that all licensed organizations (1) conduct bingo only using liquid daubers on cards that bear an individual number recorded by the distributor; (2) sell all bingo cards only in the order of the numbers appearing on the cards; and (3) use each bingo card for no more than one bingo occasion. In lieu of the requirements of clauses (2) and (3), a licensed organization may electronically record the sale of each bingo card at each bingo occasion, using an electronic recording system approved by the board. In lieu of the requirements of clauses (1), (2), and (3), a licensed organization may conduct bingo using electronic remote units which simulate bingo games and which are programmed for a certain number of plays by a central computer, provided that all such electronic equipment is approved by the board.

Sec. 35. [349.172] [PULL-TABS; INFORMATION REQUIRED TO BE POSTED.]

An organization selling pull-tabs, other than plays on a video pull-tab device at any location must post for each deal of pull-tabs all major prizes that have been awarded for pull-tabs purchased from that deal and the name of the winner of each major prize. The information must be posted prominently at the point of sale of the deal. An easily legible pull-tab flare which lists prizes in that deal, and on which prizes are marked or crossed off as they are awarded, satisfies the requirement of this section that major prizes be posted, provided that a separate flare is posted for each deal of pull-tabs. An organization must post or mark off each major prize and post the name of the prize winner immediately upon awarding the prize. A "major prize" in a deal of pull-tabs is any prize that is at least 50 times the face value of any pull-tab in the deal.

Sec. 36. [349.173] [VIDEO PULL-TAB DEVICES.]

Subdivision 1. [LICENSES.] (a) No organization may operate a video pull-tab device for which the board has not issued a license. An application for a video pull-tab device license must be on a form the board prescribes and must contain the following information:

(1) the name, address, and license number of the organization applying for the license;

(2) the name, address, and license number of the distributor that will be leasing the device to the applicant;

(3) the name and address of the premises on which the device is to be located;

(4) the serial number, the model number, and the name of the manufacturer or other identifying number of the device; and

(5) such other information as the board deems necessary to identify the device and insure its compliance with law and board rules.

(b) A license issued under this section is valid for one year. The board shall set and charge a fee for each license under this section in an amount sufficient to reimburse the board for its costs in administering and enforcing this section other than the costs recovered under subdivision 3.

(c) A license issued under this section must display all the information required in paragraph (a), clauses (1) to (5).

(d) The license must specify by name those persons whom the board has approved to have access to the device, and the extent of that access. The board may not approve any person to have such access who is not (1) an active member of the licensed organization applying for the license, or (2) a licensed distributor or an employee thereof. No person other than a licensed peace officer or an authorized employee of the board, the commissioner of revenue or the commissioner of public safety may obtain or attempt to obtain access to a device or to any of its parts or components unless that person is named and authorized on the license to have such access.

Subd. 2. [LICENSES; LIMITATIONS.] (a) The board may not have outstanding at any time more than 100 licenses issued under this section. The board shall, in issuing licenses under this section, insure as nearly as practicable that the locations of the licenses are equally divided between locations where paper pull-tabs will also be sold and locations where paper pull-tabs will not be sold.

(b) All licenses issued under this section expire July 1, 1993.

Subd. 3. [INSPECTION OF DEVICES.] (a) The board may issue a video pull-tab device license only for a device it has determined is in compliance with all applicable law and rules. The board shall examine and if necessary conduct tests on each video pull-tab device for which a license is applied, and may examine and if necessary conduct tests on any component of such a video pull-tab device. The board may request the assistance of the commissioner of public safety or contract for the services of a consultant or testing laboratory in making examinations or conducting tests. The board shall require that the manufacturer of a video pull-tab device pay all costs of examining and testing the device or any of its components.

(b) No manufacturer, distributor, or video pull-tab device wholesaler may sell or lease any video pull-tab device unless the board has determined that the device and all its components are in compliance with all applicable laws and rules.

Subd. 4. [DISPLAY OF LICENSE.] An organization operating a video pull-tab device must prominently display the license on the device at all times when the device is available for play by the public. An organization may display a license only on the device for which it was issued.

Subd. 5. [SPECIFICATIONS.] (a) A video pull-tab device approved by the board must be driven by a sealed read-only memory chip displaying or having attached such information as the board deems necessary, which must include (1) identification of the manufacturer; (2) the number of plays for which the chip has been programmed; (3) the serial number of the chip; and (4) the words "For Sale in Minnesota Only." A chip must be secured within the device by a strip of security tape of a type approved by the board, capable of evidencing the removal of a chip from its memory board.

(b) A chip must be programmed for a specific number of plays and be incapable of offering any plays in excess of that number. The number of plays programmed onto any chip must be the number on which tax has been paid under section 349.212, subdivision 4. The chip must be programmed to accept only the same price for all plays on the chip. A chip must also have programmed onto it the percentage of plays which are winning plays and the percentage of total receipts on all plays which are returned to players as prizes, and may not be capable of having these percentages altered. Winning plays must be randomly distributed on each chip, and a chip must be designed and programmed in such a way that the location of winning chances cannot be determined in advance. A chip on which all programmed plays have been exhausted must be replaced before the device may again be operated.

(c) A video pull-tab device must display, on the video screen or elsewhere, (1) the price of each chance, (2) the percentage of total chances on the chip that are winning chances, (3) the number of free games or credits awarded for each successful chance, (4) the words "For Sale in Minnesota Only," and (5) the serial number of the memory chip driving the device. If the information is displayed on the video screen it must be displayed at all times when the machine is operable but not being played.

(d) A video pull-tab device must contain a prize meter with a printer. The prize meter must be capable of dispensing to any player a voucher containing:

(1) the name of the establishment where the device is located;

(2) the organization operating the device;

(3) the license number of the device;

(4) a sequential number of the voucher and a separate encrypted validation number;

(5) the time and date of the play; and

(6) the value of any credits won.

The prize meter must print and retain inside the device a copy of each such voucher issued. The device must not be capable of returning anything to the player other than the voucher.

(e) A video pull-tab device must contain electronic accounting meters which must be maintained at all times, whether or not the game is being supplied with external power. The following information must be recorded and stored on a meter capable of maintaining totals of not less than eight digits:

(1) total coins and bills inserted by players and their value;

(2) total credits wagered;

(3) total credits won; and

- (4) total credits paid out by printed ticket voucher.

The following information must be recorded and stored on a meter capable of maintaining totals of not less than six digits:

- (1) number of times access was obtained to the compartment containing the memory chip;

- (2) number of chances played on the memory chip; and

- (3) number of cumulative credits representing credits won and money inserted by a player but not redeemed or played off.

Electronic accounting meters may be cleared only by an employee of the board, or by an authorized person in the presence of an employee of the board. The organization to which the device was leased must make a written record of the readings before and after clearing. The record must include the reason why the meter was cleared. A separate record must be made for each meter cleared. If the record is kept by an authorized person, a copy must be provided to the board.

- (f) A video pull-tab device may not offer any game or gambling form other than the simulation of the game of pull-tabs.

- (g) A video pull-tab device may not have any functions or parameters adjustable by or through any separate video display or input codes except for the adjustment of wholly cosmetic features.

- (h) A video pull-tab device must contain a meter and printer which issues, on activation of a switch, an accounting ticket containing the following information:

- (1) the name of the licensed organization;

- (2) the location of the device;

- (3) the license number and manufacturer's serial number of the device;

- (4) the time and date of the printout;

- (5) the registration number of the chip driving the device;

- (6) the readings from the meter required under paragraph (e); and

- (7) other information the board by rule requires.

No person may activate the switch required in this paragraph who is not authorized by the board to do so.

Subd. 6. [HARDWARE REQUIREMENTS.] (a) A video pull-tab device must have:

(1) a surge protector for all power fed to the device;

(2) a power switch located in an accessible place within the interior of the device, which controls the electrical current which powers the device;

(3) a separate secure compartment for holding coins or currency, with a key or combination different from that used for unlocking any other part of the device;

(4) a battery back-up or its equivalent, which allows the electronic meters of the device to maintain accurate readings for not less than 180 days after power is discontinued to the device, for all information regarding:

(i) current and total tallies for amount wagered and paid out;

(ii) records of access to the logic board compartment;

(iii) records of access to the cash and coin compartments; and

(iv) other information the board by rule requires.

(b) A video pull-tab device may not have:

(1) any hardware switch capable of altering the payment tables or payout percentages of the device; or

(2) a mechanism or program which will cause the electronic accounting meters to clear automatically.

(c) A video pull-tab device and all its components may not be capable of being adversely affected by static discharge, radio frequency interference, or other electromagnetic interference.

(d) All logic boards, memory chips, and other logic control components of a video pull-tab device must be located in a locked compartment which is separate from any other compartment. The key or combination of this compartment must be different from that used for unlocking any other part of the device.

(e) A video pull-tab device must not be capable of being activated by a credit card.

Subd. 7. [LOCATIONS.] (a) An organization may place a video pull-tab device for operation only in a location approved by the board, which location must be specified on the license. The board may approve locations that are authorized to sell alcoholic beverages at on-sale under chapter 340A. The board may not allow the placement of more than two video pull-tab devices in any location.

(b) All leases by which a licensed organization leases space in a location for the placement of a video pull-tab device are subject to the provisions of section 349.18.

(c) The board, the commissioner of revenue, and the commissioner of public safety may inspect at any time any location agreement made between a distributor and a licensed organization governing the terms of leasing a video pull-tab device.

(d) No video pull-tab device may stand at any place in a location where it cannot readily be observed by employees of the location or persons supervising the device on behalf of a licensed organization.

Subd. 8. [CONDUCT OF GAMBLING ON VIDEO PULL-TAB DEVICES.] No person receiving compensation for participating in the conduct of gambling on a video pull-tab device may gamble on such a device while so participating. No person receiving compensation for participating in the conduct of gambling on a video pull-tab device and no employee of the lessor of the premises on which the device is located may provide any information on the device that would give any player an unfair advantage in operating the device. No person under age 18 may wager on or receive a prize from a video pull-tab device.

Subd. 9. [PAYMENT OF PRIZES.] An organization may not pay any prize won on a video pull-tab device except on presentation by the winner of the ticket voucher printed by the device's prize meter. The provisions of law and board rules governing the retention of winning pull-tabs apply to ticket vouchers. An organization must upon presentation of a ticket voucher and making payment thereof immediately deface the voucher in a manner that prevents its reuse.

Subd. 10. [LIMITATION OF PRIZES.] A video pull-tab device may not:

- (1) charge any price for a single chance of more than $2; or
- (2) award any single prize of more than $250.

Subd. 11. [RULES.] The board may by rule provide additional requirements for video pull-tab devices as it deems necessary to ensure their integrity and the full accounting for all play thereon. The rules may include:

(1) authorization of persons who have access to any locked area of a video pull-tab device;

(2) additional device specifications;

(3) methods of determining randomness of distributing prizes in a memory chip; and

(4) testing procedures for video pull-tab devices.

Sec. 37. [349.174] [PULL-TAB DISPENSING MACHINES.]

Subdivision 1. [MACHINES AUTHORIZED.] The board may authorize a licensed organization to sell pull-tabs by means of a dispensing device which dispenses pull-tabs on insertion of a coin or currency. The board must indicate on the license of each organization whether the organization is authorized to sell pull-tabs by means of a dispensing device. Each dispensing device installed and maintained by a licensed organization must be of a type approved by the board. The board shall approve for installation only those pull-tab dispensing devices that it determines provide adequate security, integrity, and accountability. The board may not approve for installation any dispensing machine which cannot hold at least 2,500 pull-tabs at any time.

Subd. 2. [MACHINE REQUIREMENTS.] Each pull-tab dispensing machine must have a meter which records (i) the total amounts of coin and currency inserted into the machine, and (ii) the total number of pull-tabs dispensed. The meter must be in a compartment which is separate from the compartment which holds the coins and currency inserted into the machine.

Subd. 3. [ACCESS TO MACHINES.] The board shall specify each person authorized to have access to a pull-tab dispensing machine and shall identify each such person on the license of the organization authorized to install the machine, and the extent of that access. No person may obtain or attempt to obtain access to a pull-tab dispensing machine or any part or component of a machine without being authorized by the board to have such access.

Subd. 4. [DISPLAY OF INFORMATION.] Each pull-tab dispensing machine installed by a licensed organization must conspicuously display the following information:

(1) the name and license number of the installing organization;

(2) the number of pull-tabs originally placed in the machine at the beginning of the current game;

(3) the number and amount of all prizes in the game which are at least 50 times the price of each individual chance in the game; and

(4) the prize payout percentage for that game.

Pull-tab dispensing machines are subject to the requirements of section 349.172.

Subd. 5. [LEASE OF MACHINES.] A licensed organization may lease a pull-tab dispensing machine only from a distributor licensed under section 349.161.

Subd. 6. [PERMITTED LOCATIONS.] The license of an organization authorized to install a pull-tab dispensing machine must specify the locations where the machines will be installed. The organization must have a premises permit for each such location. Not more than two machines may be installed on any premises.

Subd. 7. [LIMITATIONS.] The board may not (1) authorize more than 100 organizations at any time to operate a pull-tab dispensing machine, or (2) authorize any organization to operate more than two machines.

Subd. 8. [REPEAL.] This section is repealed July 1, 1993.

Sec. 38. [349.175] [PULL-TABS; DEADLINE FOR USE.]

A deal of pull-tabs or tipboards received by an organization before September 1, 1989, must be put into play by that organization before September 1, 1990, unless the deal bears a serial number which allows the deal to be traced back to its manufacturer and to the distributor who sold it to the organization. An organization in possession on and after September 1, 1990, of a deal of pull-tabs or tipboards the organization received before September 1, 1989, may not put such a deal in play but must remove it from the organization's inventory and return it to the manufacturer.

Sec. 39. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 349.18, as amended by Laws 1989, chapter 334, article 2, sections 27 and 28, is amended to read:

349.18 [PREMISES USED FOR GAMBLING.]

Subdivision 1. [LEASE OR OWNERSHIP REQUIRED.] An organization may conduct lawful gambling only on premises it owns or leases. Leases must be for a period of one year and must be in writing on a form prescribed by the board. Copies of all leases must be made available to employees of the division and the division of gambling enforcement on request. A lease may not provide for payments determined directly or indirectly by the receipts or profits from lawful gambling. The board may prescribe by rule limits on the amount of rent which an organization may pay to a lessor for premises leased for lawful gambling. Any rule adopted by the board limiting the amount of rent to be paid may only be effective for leases entered into, or renewed, after the effective date of the rule.

No person, distributor, manufacturer, lessor, or organization other than the licensed organization leasing the space may conduct any activity ~~in a~~ on the leased space premises during times when lawful gambling is being conducted ~~in the space on the premises~~.

Subd. 1a. [STORAGE OF GAMBLING EQUIPMENT.] (a) Gambling equipment owned by or in the possession of ~~a licensed an~~ organization must be kept at a licensed gambling premises owned or operated by the organization, or at other storage sites within the state that the organization has notified the board are being used as gambling equipment storage sites. At each storage site or licensed premises, the organization must have the invoices or true and correct copies of the invoices for the purchase of all gambling equipment at the site or premises. No gambling equipment owned by an organization may be kept at a distributor's office, warehouse, storage unit, or other place of the distributor's business.

(b) Gambling equipment, other than devices for selecting bingo numbers, owned by a ~~licensed an~~ organization must be secured and kept separate from gambling equipment owned by other persons, organizations, distributors, or manufacturers consistent with the organization's internal controls filed with the board.

(c) Gambling equipment kept in violation of this subdivision is contraband under section 349.2125.

(d) A ~~licensed An~~ organization may transport gambling equipment it owns or possesses between approved gambling equipment storage sites and to and from licensed distributors.

Subd. 2. [EXCEPTIONS.] (a) A ~~licensed An~~ organization may conduct raffles on a premise it does not own or lease.

(b) A ~~licensed An~~ organization may with the permission of the board, conduct bingo on premises it does not own or lease for up to ~~six~~ 12 consecutive days in a calendar year, in connection with a county fair, the state fair, or civil a civic celebration.

(c) A licensed organization may, after compliance with section 349.213, conduct lawful gambling on premises other than the organization's licensed premise for one day per year for not more than 12 hours that day. A lease for that time period for the exempted premises must accompany the request to the board.

Subd. 3. [PROCEEDS FROM RENTAL.] Rental proceeds from premises owned by a licensed an organization and leased or sub-leased to one or more other licensed organizations for the purposes of conducting lawful gambling shall not be reported as gambling proceeds under this chapter.

Subd. 4. [PROHIBITION.] (a) An organization may not pay rent to itself or to any of its affiliates for use of space for conducting lawful gambling.

(b) An organization may not pay rent for space for conducting lawful gambling from any account or fund other than the organization's separate gambling account.

Sec. 40. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 349.19, as amended by Laws 1989, chapter 334, article 2, sections 29, 30, 32, and 33, and Laws 1989, First Special Session chapter 1, article 13, section 11, is amended to read:

349.19 [RECORDS AND REPORTS.]

Subdivision 1. [REQUIRED RECORD OF RECEIPTS.] A licensed organization must keep a record of each occasion on which it conducts gambling, including each bingo occasion and each day on which other forms of lawful gambling are conducted. The record must include gross receipts, quantities of free plays if any, expenses, prizes, and ~~profits~~ gross profit. The board may by rule provide for the methods by which expenses are documented. ~~Gross receipts for bingo include any amount received by the organization which has been paid by a person at the bingo occasion to play the game, without which the player could not play the game.~~ In the case of bingo, gross receipts must be compared to the checkers' records for the occasion by a person who did not sell cards for the occasion. Separate records must be kept for bingo and all other forms of lawful gambling.

Subd. 2. [ACCOUNTS.] Gross receipts from lawful gambling by each organization at each licensed permitted premises must be segregated from all other revenues of the conducting organization and placed in a separate account. All expenditures for expenses, taxes, and lawful purposes must be made from such a separate account except in the case of expenditures previously approved by the organization's membership for emergencies as defined by board rule. The name and address of the bank and the account number for that separate account for that licensed premises, and the names of organization members authorized as signatories on the separate account must be provided to the board when the application is submitted. Changes in the information must be submitted to the board at least ten days before the change is made. Gambling receipts must be deposited into the gambling bank account within one business day ~~three days~~ of completion of the bingo occasion, deal, or game from which they are received, and deposit records must be sufficient to allow determination of deposits made from each bingo occasion, deal, or game. The person who accounts for gambling gross receipts and profits may not be the same person who accounts for other revenues of the organization.

Subd. 3. [EXPENDITURES.] All expenditures of gross profits from lawful gambling must be itemized as to payee, purpose, amount, and date of payment, and must be in compliance with section 349.154. Authorization of the expenditures must be recorded in the regular monthly meeting minutes of the licensed organization. All checks for expenditures of gross profits must be signed by at least two persons authorized by board rules to sign the checks.

Subd. 4. [DISCREPANCIES.] If at a bingo occasion a discrepancy of more than $20 is found between the gross receipts as reported by the checkers and the gross receipts determined by adding the cash receipts, the discrepancy must be reported to the board within five days of the bingo occasion.

Subd. 5. [REPORTS.] A licensed organization must report to the board and to its membership monthly, or quarterly in the case of a licensed organization which does not report more than $1,000 in gross receipts from lawful gambling in any calendar quarter, on its gross receipts, expenses, profits, and expenditure of profits from lawful gambling. If the organization conducts both bingo and other forms of lawful gambling, the figures for both must be reported separately. In addition, a licensed organization must report to the board monthly on its purchases of gambling equipment and must include the type, quantity, and dollar amount from each supplier separately. The reports must be on a form the board prescribes. Submission of the report required by section 15 satisfies the requirement for reporting monthly to the board on expenditure of net profits.

Subd. 6. [PRESERVATION OF RECORDS.] Records required to be kept by this section must be preserved by a licensed organization for at least 3½ years and may be inspected by the commissioner of revenue, the commissioner of gaming, or the commissioner of public safety at any reasonable time without notice or a search warrant.

Subd. 7. [TAX RECORDS.] The board may by rule require each licensed organization to provide copies of forms it files with the United States department of the treasury which are required for organizations exempt from income tax.

Subd. 8. [TERMINATION PLAN.] Upon termination of a license for any reason, a licensed organization must notify the board in writing within 15 calendar days of the license termination date of its plan for disposal of registered gambling equipment and distribution of remaining gambling proceeds. Before implementation, a plan must be approved by the board. The board may accept or reject a plan and order submission of a new plan or amend a proposed plan. The board may specify a time for submission of new or amended plans or for completion of an accepted plan.

Subd. 9. [ANNUAL AUDIT; FILING REQUIREMENT.] An organization licensed under this chapter must have an annual financial audit of its lawful gambling activities and funds performed by an independent auditor licensed by the state of Minnesota or performed by an independent accountant who has had prior approval of the board. The board shall by rule prescribe standards for the audit, which must provide for the reconciliation of the organization's gambling account or accounts with the organization's reports filed under subdivision 5 and section 19. A complete, true, and correct copy of the audit report must be filed with the board upon completion of the audit.

Subd. 10. [PULL-TAB RECORDS.] The board shall by rule require a licensed organization to require each winner of a pull-tab prize of $50 or more to present identification in the form of a drivers license, Minnesota identification card, or other identification the board deems sufficient to allow the identification and tracing of the winner. The rule must require the organization to retain winning pull-tabs of $50 or more, and the identification of the winner of each such pull-tab, for 3½ years.

Subd. 11. [INFORMATION MADE PART OF ORGANIZATION MINUTES.] A licensed organization which receives a copy of a written audit under subdivision 9, or an audit or compliance report prepared by an agency of the state, must place the audit report or compliance report in the minutes of the next meeting of the organization following receipt of the report. Copies of such minutes must be made available to all members of the organization.

Sec. 41. Minnesota Statutes Second 1989 Supplement, section 349.212, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [IMPOSITION.] There is hereby imposed a tax on all lawful gambling, other than (1) pull-tabs purchased and placed into inventory after January 1, 1987, and (2) tipboards purchased and placed into inventory after June 30, 1988, and (3) operation of video pull-tab devices, at the rate of ten percent on the gross receipts as defined in section 349.12, subdivision 26, less prizes actually paid. The tax imposed by this subdivision is in lieu of the tax imposed by section 297A.02 and all local taxes and license fees except a fee authorized under section 349.16, subdivision 4 8, or a tax authorized under section 349.212, subdivision 5.

The tax imposed under this subdivision is payable by the organization or party conducting, directly or indirectly, the gambling.

Sec. 42. Minnesota Statutes Second 1989 Supplement, section 349.212, subdivision 4, is amended to read:

Subd. 4. [PULL-TAB AND TIPBOARD TAX.] (a) There is imposed a tax on the sale of each deal of pull-tabs and tipboards sold by a licensed distributor, and each read-only memory chip intended to drive a video pull-tab device. The rate of the tax is two percent of the ideal gross of the pull-tab or tipboard deal or the chip. The sales tax imposed by chapter 297A on the sale of the pull-tabs and tipboards by the licensed distributor and on the sale of a chip intended to drive a video pull-tab device is imposed on the retail sales price less the tax imposed by this subdivision. The retail sale of pull-tabs or tipboards by the organization is exempt from taxes imposed by chapter 297A if the tax imposed by this subdivision has been paid and is exempt from all local taxes and license fees except a fee authorized under section 349.16, subdivision 4 8.

(b) The liability for the tax imposed by this section is incurred when the pull-tabs and tipboards are delivered by the distributor to the customer, to a common or contract carrier for delivery to the customer, or when received by the customer's authorized representative at the distributor's place of business, regardless of the distributor's method of accounting or the terms of the sale.

The tax imposed by this subdivision is imposed on all sales of pull-tabs and tipboards, except the following:

(1) sales to the governing body of an Indian tribal organization for use on an Indian reservation;

(2) sales to distributors licensed under this chapter;

(3) sales to distributors licensed under the laws of another state or of a Province of Canada, as long as all statutory and regulatory requirements are met in the other state or province; and

(4) sales of promotional tickets as defined in section 349.12.

(c) In the case of a memory chip intended to drive a video pull-tab device, the liability for the tax imposed by this section is incurred when the chip has been delivered by the distributor to the organization, to a common carrier for delivery to the organization, or when received by the organization's representative at the distributor's place of business, regardless of the distributor's method of accounting.

(d) Pull-tabs and tipboards sold to an organization that sells pull-tabs and tipboards under the exemption from licensing in section ~~349.214~~ 27, subdivision 2, ~~paragraph (b),~~ are exempt from the tax imposed by this subdivision. A distributor must require an organization conducting exempt gambling to show proof of its exempt status before making a tax-exempt sale of pull-tabs or tipboards to such an organization. A distributor shall identify, on all reports submitted to the commissioner, all sales of pull-tabs and tipboards that are exempt from tax under this subdivision.

(e) A distributor reporting the sale of any deal of pull-tabs to the commissioner of revenue must include in the report a duplicate bar code for that deal.

Sec. 43. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 349.212, subdivision 5, is amended to read:

Subd. 5. [LOCAL GAMBLING TAX.] (a) A statutory or home rule charter city which has one or more licensed organizations ~~operating~~ conducting lawful gambling, and a county which has one or more licensed organizations outside incorporated areas ~~operating~~ conducting lawful gambling, may with the prior approval of the board impose a local gambling tax on each licensed organization within the city's or county's jurisdiction. ~~The tax may be imposed only if the amount to be received by the city or county is necessary to cover the costs incurred by the city or county to regulate lawful gambling. The board may approve a local gambling tax only if it determines that the revenue from the tax will be used exclusively for lawful gambling enforcement and regulation or other law enforcement purposes. The board may withdraw approval of a local gambling tax if it determines that the revenue from the tax is or will be used for any purpose other than lawful gambling enforcement and regulations or other law enforcement.~~

(b) The tax imposed by this subdivision may not exceed three percent of the gross receipts profit of a licensed organization from all lawful gambling less prizes actually paid out conducted by the organization. A city or county may not use money collected under this subdivision for any purpose other than for the purpose of regulating lawful gambling. A tax imposed under this subdivision is in lieu of all other local taxes and local investigation fees on lawful gambling.

(c) Any city or county that imposes a tax under this subdivision shall annually by March 15 file a report with the board in a form prescribed by the board showing (1) the amount of revenue produced by the tax during the preceding calendar year, and (2) the use of the proceeds of the tax.

Sec. 44. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 349.2121, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [APPLICATION AND ISSUANCE.] Every distributor licensed by the board who sells pull-tabs and tipboards to organizations authorized to sell pull-tabs and tipboards under this chapter, and every manufacturer who sells video pull-tab devices under this chapter, must file with the commissioner of revenue an application, on a form the commissioner prescribes, for a gambling tax identification number and gambling tax permit. The commissioner, when satisfied that the applicant has a valid license from the board, shall issue the applicant a permit and number. A permit is not assignable and is valid only for the distributor or video pull-tab device manufacturer in whose name it is issued.

Sec. 45. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 349.2121, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [RECORDS.] (a) A distributor shall keep at each licensed place of business complete and accurate records for that place of business, including itemized invoices of pull-tabs and tipboards held, purchased, manufactured, or brought in or caused to be brought in from without this state, and of all sales of pull-tabs and tipboards. The records must show the names and addresses of purchasers, the inventory at the close of each period for which a return is required of all pull-tab and tipboard deals on hand, and other pertinent papers and documents relating to the purchase, sale, or disposition of pull-tab and tipboard deals. Books, records, and other papers and documents required by this section must be kept for a period of at least 3½ years after the date of the documents, or the date of the entries appearing in the records, unless the commissioner of revenue authorizes in writing their destruction or disposal at an earlier date. At any time during usual business hours, the commissioner of revenue, director of gambling enforcement, or any of their duly authorized agents or employees, may enter a place of business of a distributor or organization, any site from which pull-tabs or tipboards or other gambling equipment are being sold, or any site at which lawful gambling is being conducted, and inspect the premises and the records required to be kept under this section to determine whether or not all the provisions of this section are being fully complied with. If the commissioner of revenue, director of gambling enforcement, or their duly authorized agents or employees are denied free access to or are hindered or interfered with in making an inspection of the distributor's place of business, the permit of the distributor may be revoked by the commissioner, and the license of the distributor may be revoked by the gambling control board.

(b) A distributor who replaces a memory chip used to drive a video pull-tab device after all chances on the chip have been played must retain the chip for 3½ years from the date of its removal from the device. All provisions of law relating to the availability of a distributor's books and records apply to such chips.

Sec. 46. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 349.2121, subdivision 4a, is amended to read:

Subd. 4a. [REFUND.] (a) If any deal of pull-tabs or tipboards registered with the board and upon which the tax imposed by section 349.212, subdivision 4, has been paid is returned unplayed to the distributor, or if any memory chip used to drive a video pull-tab device is returned to its manufacturer with unplayed chances, the commissioner of revenue shall allow a refund of the tax paid.

(b) In the case of a defective deal or defective memory chip registered with the board and upon which the taxes have been paid is returned to the manufacturer, the distributor shall submit to the commissioner of revenue certification from the manufacturer that the deal or chip was returned and in what respect it was defective. The certification must be in a form prescribed by the commissioner and must contain additional information the commissioner requires.

(c) The commissioner may require that no refund under this subdivision be made unless the returned pull-tabs or tipboards, or the returned memory chip, have been set aside for inspection by the commissioner's employee.

(d) Reductions in previously paid taxes authorized by this subdivision shall be made at the time and in the manner prescribed by the commissioner.

Sec. 47. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 349.2122, is amended to read:

349.2122 [MANUFACTURERS; REPORTS TO THE COMMISSIONER OF REVENUE; PENALTY.]

A manufacturer licensed ~~with~~ by the board who sells pull-tabs and tipboards to a licensed distributor ~~licensed by the board~~ must file with the commissioner of revenue, on a form prescribed by the commissioner, a report of pull-tabs and tipboards sold to ~~licensed distributors~~ any person in the state, including the established governing body of Indian tribes recognized by the United States Department of the Interior. The report must be filed monthly on or before the 25th day of the month succeeding the month in which the sale was made. The commissioner of revenue may inspect the books, records, and inventory of a licensed manufacturer without notice during the normal business hours of the manufacturer. Any person violating this section shall be guilty of a misdemeanor.

Sec. 48. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 349.2123, is amended to read:

349.2123 [CERTIFIED PHYSICAL INVENTORY.]

The board or commissioner of revenue may, upon request, require a ~~licensed~~ distributor to furnish a certified physical inventory of ~~the~~ ~~pull tabs and tipboards~~ all gambling equipment in stock. The inventory must contain the information required by the board or the commissioner.

Sec. 49. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 349.213, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [LOCAL REGULATION.] A statutory or home rule city or county has the authority to adopt more stringent regulation of any form of lawful gambling within its jurisdiction, including the prohibition of any form of lawful gambling, and may require a permit for the conduct of gambling exempt from licensing under section 349.214. The fee for a permit issued under this subdivision may not exceed $100. The authority granted by this subdivision does not include the authority to require a license or permit to conduct gambling by organizations or sales by distributors licensed by the board. The authority granted by this subdivision does not include the authority to require an organization to make specific expenditures of more than ten percent from its net profits derived from lawful gambling. For the purposes of this subdivision, net profits are profits less amounts expended for allowable expenses. A statutory or home rule charter city or a county may not require an organization conducting lawful gambling within its jurisdiction to make an expenditure to the city or county as a condition to operate within that city or county, except as authorized under section 349.16, subdivision 4 8, or 349.212; provided, however, that an ordinance requirement that such organizations must contribute ten percent of their net profits derived from lawful gambling to a fund administered and regulated by the responsible local unit of government without cost to such fund, for disbursement by the responsible local unit of government of the receipts for lawful purposes, is not considered an expenditure to the city or county nor a tax under section 349.212, and is valid and lawful.

A statutory or home rule city or county may by ordinance require that a licensed organization conducting lawful gambling within its jurisdiction expend all or a portion of its expenditures for lawful purposes on lawful purposes conducted or located within the city's or county's trade area. Such an ordinance must define the city's or county's trade area and must specify the percentage of lawful purpose expenditures which must be expended within the trade area. A trade area defined by a city under this subdivision must include each city contiguous to the defining city.

Sec. 50. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 349.213, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [LOCAL APPROVAL.] Before issuing or renewing ~~an organization license~~ a premises permit or bingo hall license, the board must notify the city council of the statutory or home rule city in which the organization's premises or the bingo hall is located or, if the premises or hall is located outside a city, the county board of the county and the town board of the town where the premises or hall is located. The board may require organizations or bingo halls to notify the appropriate local government at the time of application. This required notification is sufficient to constitute the notice required by this subdivision. If the city council or county board adopts a resolution disapproving the license and so informs the board within 60 days of receiving notice of the application, the license may not be issued or renewed. The board may not issue or renew a premises permit or bingo hall license unless the organization submits a resolution from the city council or county board approving the premises permit or bingo hall license. The resolution must have been adopted within 60 days of the date of application for the new or renewed permit or license.

Sec. 51. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 349.30, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. "Gambling devices" means slot machines, roulette wheels, punchboards, and pin ball machines which return coins or slugs, chips, or tokens of any kind, which are redeemable in merchandise or cash device" has the meaning given it in section 609.75, subdivision 4.

Sec. 52. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 349.31, is amended to read:

349.31 [GAMBLING DEVICE; POSSESSION OF.]

Subdivision 1. [INTENTIONAL POSSESSION; WILLFUL KEEPING.] The intentional possession or willful keeping of a gambling device on a licensed premises is cause for the suspension or revocation of any license under which the licensed business is carried on upon the premises where the gambling device is found, provided that possession of gambling equipment as defined in section 349.12, subdivision 17, which is used for lawful gambling authorized by this chapter, and the manufacture of gambling devices for use in jurisdictions where use of the gambling device is legal as provided for by section 349.40 shall not be cause for revocation of a license.

Subd. 2. [SUSPENSION AND REVOCATION OF LICENSES.] All licenses under which any licensed business is permitted to be carried on upon the licensed premises shall be suspended or revoked if the intentional possession or willful keeping of any such gambling devices upon the licensed premises is established, notwithstanding that it may not be made to appear that such devices have actually been used or operated for the purpose of gambling.

Sec. 53. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 349.32, is amended to read:

349.32 [ISSUING AUTHORITY TO REVOKE.]

The proceedings for suspension or revocation shall be had before the issuing authority, which shall have power to suspend or revoke the license or licenses involved, as hereinafter provided.

Sec. 54. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 349.34, is amended to read:

349.34 [PROCEEDINGS BEFORE ISSUING AUTHORITY; ORDER TO SHOW CAUSE.]

Upon the receipt of such information from any of the peace officers referred to in section 349.33, if any issuing authority is of the opinion that cause exists for the suspension or revocation of any such license, then that authority shall issue an order to show cause directed to the licensee of the premises, stating the ground upon which the proceeding is based and requiring the licensee to appear and show cause at a time and place, within the county in which the licensed premises are located, not less than ten days after the date of the order, why the license should not be suspended or revoked. That order to show cause shall be served upon the licensee in the manner prescribed by law for the service of summons in a civil action, or by certified mail, not less than eight days before the date fixed for the hearing thereof. A copy of the order shall forthwith be mailed to the owner of the premises, as shown by the records in the office of the county recorder, at the owner's last known post office address. A copy of the order shall at the same time be mailed to any other issuing authority, of which the authority issuing the order to show cause has knowledge, by which other license to that licensee may have been issued, and any such other authority may participate in the suspension or revocation proceedings after notifying the licensee and the officer or authority holding the hearing of its intention so to do on or before the date of hearing, and after the hearing take such action as it could have taken had it instituted the suspension or revocation proceedings in the first instance.

Sec. 55. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 349.35, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [REVOCATION; STAY; APPEAL.] If, upon the hearing of the order to show cause, it appears that the licensee intentionally possessed or willfully kept upon the licensed premises any gambling device, then the license or licenses under which the licensed business is operated on the licensed premises, shall be suspended or revoked. The order of suspension or revocation shall not be enforced during the period allowed by section 349.39 for taking an appeal.

Sec. 56. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 349.36, is amended to read:

349.36 [DUTIES OF COUNTY ATTORNEY.]

The county attorney of the county in which the hearing is held, or the city attorney if the issuing authority is the city, shall attend the hearing, interrogate the witnesses, and advise the issuing authority. The county attorney shall also, and appear for the issuing authority on any appeal taken pursuant to the provisions of section 349.39.

Sec. 57. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 349.38, is amended to read:

349.38 [PROPERTY OWNERS LIABILITY.]

When a license is suspended or revoked under the provisions of sections 349.30 to 349.39, the owner of the premises upon which any licensed business has been operated shall not be penalized by reason thereof unless it is established that the owner had knowledge of the existence of the gambling devices resulting in license suspension or revocation.

Sec. 58. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 349.39, is amended to read:

349.39 [APPEAL TO DISTRICT COURT; STAY; CONTINUANCE UNDER BOND; HEARING UPON ONE YEAR LIMITATION ON PREMISES.]

Any licensee, or any owner of licensed premises, aggrieved by an order of an issuing authority suspending or revoking any license may appeal from that order to the district court of the county in which the licensee resides by serving a notice of the appeal upon the issuing authority or the clerk thereof. The notice of appeal shall state that the person appealing takes an appeal to that district court from the order suspending or revoking the license or licenses, describing them and identifying the order appealed from. This notice shall be served within 15 days from the date of service of the order appealed from, and the same, with proof of service thereof, shall be filed with the court administrator of the district court of the proper county. The appeal shall stand for trial at the next term of the district court following the filing of the notice of appeal, without the service of any notice of trial, and shall be tried in the district court de novo. The trial shall be by jury if the appellant shall so demand. The licensee may continue to operate the licensed business or businesses until the final disposition of such appeal. If the district court upon the appeal shall determine that any license involved in the appeal should be suspended or revoked, it may, nevertheless, in its discretion permit the continuance of the licensed business under a bond in the amount and in the form and containing the conditions prescribed by the court. The district court on the appeal, or in a separate proceeding, may permit the issuance of a new license to a different licensee before the expiration of the period of one year specified in section 349.35, subdivision 2, upon such terms and conditions imposed by the court as will insure that no gambling device shall thereafter be maintained upon the licensed premises.

Sec. 59. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 349.50, subdivision 8, is amended to read:

Subd. 8. [VIDEO GAME OF CHANCE.] "Video game of chance" means games or devices that simulate games commonly referred to as poker, blackjack, craps, hi-lo, roulette or other common gambling forms, though not offering any type of pecuniary award or gain to players. The term also includes any video game having one or more of the following characteristics:

(1) it is primarily a game of chance, and has no substantial elements of skill involved;

(2) it awards game credits or replays and contains a meter or device which records unplayed credits or replays and contains a device that permits them to be canceled.

"Video game of chance" does not include a video pull-tab device as defined in section 5.

Sec. 60. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 349.55, is amended to read:

349.55 [GAME SPECIFICATIONS.]

No payment may be made directly from any game or in connection with the operation of any device. Each game must contain a random character generator, and any internal meter must be nonresetable. Any game canceling replays or credits must cancel them no more than one at a time. A video game of chance may not contain or have attached to it any switch, lever, button, or other device capable of canceling replays or credits in any way other than by playing the game offered by the machine. A video game of chance must be programmed and must operate in such a way that all credits accumulated on a game must automatically cancel within 60 seconds of the completion of a play. No person may cancel replays or credits on a video game of chance in any way other than by playing the game offered by the machine. A video game of chance may not be restarted after cancellation of all accumulated credits except on insertion of a coin.

Sec. 61. [349.61] [REPEAL; TERMINATION OF LICENSES.]

Section 1 and sections 349.50 to 349.60 are repealed January 1, 1992. All licenses issued under sections 349.51 and 349.52 in effect on that date expire on that date. The commissioner of finance shall on that date transfer all money in the video gaming license account to the general fund.

Sec. 62. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 349A.02, subdivision 5, is amended to read:

Subd. 5. [~~COMPENSATION INCENTIVE PLAN.~~] ~~The compensation of employees in the division is as provided in chapter 43A. Subject to the provisions of section 43A.18, subdivision 1, the commissioner of employee relations director may, at the request of the director, develop and implement a plan for making incentive payments to employees of the division whose primary responsibilities are in marketing.~~

Sec. 63. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 609.75, subdivision 4, is amended to read:

Subd. 4. [GAMBLING DEVICE.] A gambling device is a contrivance which for a consideration affords the player an opportunity to obtain something of value, other than free plays, automatically from the machine or otherwise, the award of which is determined principally by chance. "Gambling device" includes any video game of chance, as defined in section 349.50, subdivision 8, that is not in compliance with sections 349.50 to 349.60.

Sec. 64. Laws 1989, First Special Session chapter 1, article 13, section 27, is amended to read:

Sec. 27. [STATE TO BE SUPPLIER OF GAMBLING EQUIPMENT.]

~~Notwithstanding any other law to the contrary, After June 30, 1990 1993, the state of Minnesota will be the sole supplier of all gambling equipment under Minnesota Statutes, chapter 349. The commissioner of revenue shall no later than January 15, 1990 December 7, 1992, submit to the legislature a bill making all statutory changes required to implement this section including proposing the required staff and appropriation. The bill shall include provisions requiring the state to provide an adequate supply and variety of gambling equipment and to supply it efficiently. The commissioner of revenue shall provide copies of this bill to the chair of the house of representatives tax committee and to the chair of the senate committee on taxes and tax laws. Notwithstanding any contrary requirements of Minnesota Statutes, section 3C.035, subdivision 2, the revisor shall assess the commissioner of revenue for the actual cost of bill drafting services rendered to the department with respect to the bill required by this section.~~

Sec. 65. [REPORT.]

The gambling control board shall study and report to the legislature by January 15, 1993, on the use of video pull-tab devices in Minnesota. The study must include, among other subjects:

(1) the volume of gambling on video pull-tab devices compared with paper pull-tabs;

(2) the effectiveness of video pull-tabs in eliminating pull-tab cheating;

(3) the effectiveness of state licensing and regulation of video pull-tab devices;

(4) the effects of video pull-tab devices on the accountability of lawful gambling; and

(5) recommendations for future legislative action regarding video pull-tab devices.

Sec. 66. [STEARNS COUNTY; SPECIAL LEVY.]

For taxes levied in 1990, payable in 1991 only, Stearns county may levy a tax in an amount not to exceed $109,000 to cover the cost of the investigation of criminal activity connected with a kidnaping. The levy under this section is not subject to the limitations of Minnesota Statutes, sections 275.50 to 275.56.

Sec. 67. [MILLE LACS COUNTY; SPECIAL LEVY.]

For taxes levied in 1990, payable in 1991 only, Mille Lacs county may levy an amount equal to the expenditures from reserve funds used in 1990 to pay social service costs. The county must provide evidence to the commissioner of revenue that expenditures from reserve funds were made for this purpose. This levy may not exceed $694,000. This levy is not subject to the levy limitations in Minnesota Statutes, section 275.50 to 275.56.

Sec. 68. [REPEALER.]

(a) Minnesota Statutes 1988, sections 349.14 and 349.214, subdivisions 1, 1a, 3, and 4; Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 349.151, subdivision 4a; and Minnesota Statutes Second 1989 Supplement, section 349.214, subdivision 2, are repealed.

(b) Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, sections 349.20 and 349.21, are repealed.

Sec. 69. [EFFECTIVE DATE.]

Sections 5, 6, 9, 11, 15, 25, 36, 41, 42, 44, 45, 46, and 64 are effective the day following final enactment. Sections 29, 31, 32, 60, 63, and 68, paragraph (b), are effective January 1, 1991."

Delete the title and insert:

"A bill for an act relating to lawful gambling; providing primary enforcement for criminal violations in the division of gambling enforcement; defining lawful purposes for expenditures of gambling profits; establishing licensing qualifications for organizations and manufacturers; requiring organizations to report monthly on expenditures and contributions of gambling profits; authorizing the gambling control board to require recipients of contributions of gambling profits to register with the board; authorizing summary suspension of gambling licenses for failure to file tax returns; authorizing a limited number of video pull-tab devices and establishing standards and requirements for them; regulating pull-tab dispensing machines; requiring inspection and testing of gambling equipment; requiring permits for gambling premises; requiring gambling managers to be licensed; requiring that employees of organizations conducting lawful gambling be registered with the board; expanding allowable uses for revenue from local gambling taxes and requiring board approval of these taxes; specifying authority to establish incentive plans for state lottery employees; repealing games of chance regulating provisions on January 1, 1992; abolishing lawful gambling on July 1, 1993; amending Minnesota Statutes 1988, sections 297A.01, subdivision 16; 349.12, subdivisions 10, 18, and by adding subdivisions; 349.16, as amended; 349.17, as amended; 349.18, as amended; 349.19, as amended; 349.212, subdivision 5; 349.2121, subdivisions 1 and 4a; 349.2123; 349.30, subdivision 2; 349.31; 349.32; 349.34; 349.35, subdivision 1; 349.36; 349.38; 349.39; 349.50, subdivision 8; 349.55; and 609.75, subdivision 4; Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, sections 299L.03, by adding subdivisions; 349.12, subdivisions 12 and 15; 349.151, subdivision 4; 349.152, subdivision 2, and by adding subdivisions; 349.161, as amended; 349.162; 349.163, as amended; 349.164; 349.2121, subdivision 2; 349.2122; 349.213, subdivisions 1 and 2; and 349A.02, subdivision 5; Minnesota Statutes Second 1989 Supplement, sections 349.12, subdivisions 11 and 19; 349.15; and 349.212, subdivisions 1 and 4; Laws 1989, First Special Session chapter 1, article 13, section 27; proposing coding for new law in Minnesota Statutes, chapters 299L and 349; repealing Minnesota Statutes 1988, sections 349.14; 349.214, subdivisions 1, 1a, 3, and 4; Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, sections 349.151, subdivisions 1, 2, 4, 4a, and 5; 349.152; 349.20; and 349.21; Minnesota Statutes Second 1989 Supplement, section 349.214, subdivision 2."

"Sec. 13. [BONDS AUTHORIZED.]

Subdivision 1. The governing body of the city of Bemidji or Beltrami county may sell and issue general obligation bonds or revenue bonds of the city or the county, respectively, to finance the construction and betterment of an airport terminal and other air navigation facilities as defined in Minnesota Statutes, section 360.013, or of other related facilities, including hangars, repair shops and other buildings, and equipment needed for the storage, repair, reconstruction, and servicing of aircraft. The bonds may be issued by the city or the county on its own behalf with the consent of both parties, or with the consent of the other on behalf of both of them. The bonds must be issued, sold and secured in accordance with Minnesota Statutes, chapter 475, except as provided in subdivisions 2 and 3. The facilities to be financed by the bonds are a public convenience from which a revenue is derived, and are not indebtedness under chapter 475 or any city charter.

Subd. 2. The aggregate principal amount of all bonds issued by the city or the county under this section which are outstanding and undischarged at any time shall not exceed $400,000.

Subd. 3. If either the city or the county issues bonds on behalf of both of them, the entity not issuing the bonds may levy ad valorem taxes on all taxable property within its corporate limits to pay the principal of and interest on the bonds as agreed upon before their issuance, and may irrevocably appropriate the collections of the taxes to the sinking fund established by the issuing entity for the payment of the bonds. The entity issuing the bonds may levy ad valorem taxes on all taxable property within its corporate limits for the years and in the amounts that, together with any taxes levied and appropriated by the nonissuing entity, will meet the requirements of Minnesota Statutes, section 475.61. Neither the taxes nor any additional taxes levied to eliminate any deficiencies in the collection thereof are subject to any limitation established by general or special law or charter as to rate or amount. The taxes may not be considered in determining the amount of any other taxes which may be levied subject to any such limitation.

Subd. 4. (a) After approval of a bond issue under subdivision 1 or the first approval of a tax levy to pay bond obligations under subdivision 3, the governing body of the city for a city action or the county for a county action shall publish notice of the action in its official publication. The bonds may be issued and sold or the tax levied without submitting the question to the voters, unless within 30 days after the date of publication a petition signed by qualified voters equal to five percent of the voters who voted in the last general election in the governmental subdivision is filed with the city or the county.

(b) If a petition is filed that meets the requirements of paragraph (a), the bonds may be issued or the tax levied upon obtaining the approval of a majority of the voters voting on the question at a special or regular election.

Page 16, line 25, after the period insert "Section 13 is effective upon approval by a majority of all members of the Bemidji city council, and by a majority of all members of the Beltrami county board of commissioners, and compliance with Minnesota Statutes, section 645.021."

April 2, 1990

The Honorable Robert E. Vanasek
Speaker of the House of Representatives

The Honorable Jerome M. Hughes
President of the Senate

We, the undersigned conferees for H. F. No. 1981, report that we have agreed upon the items in dispute and recommend as follows:

That the Senate recede from its amendment and that H. F. No. 1981 be further amended as follows:

Delete everything after the enacting clause and insert:

“Section 1. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 168.09, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 7. [DISPLAY OF TEMPORARY PERMIT; SPECIAL PLATES.] A vehicle that displays a special plate issued under section 168.021; 168.12, subdivision 2, 2a, 2b, or 2c; 168.123; 168.124; 168.125; 168.126; or 168.128 may display a temporary permit in conjunction with expired registration if:

(1) the current registration tax and all other fees have been paid in full; and

(2) the plate requires replacement under section 168.12, subdivision 1, paragraph (3).

The permit is valid for a period of 60 days. The permit must be in a form prescribed by the commissioner of public safety and whenever practicable must be posted upon the driver's side of the rear window on the inside of the vehicle. The permit is valid only for the vehicle for which it was issued to allow a reasonable time for the new license plates to be manufactured and delivered to the applicant.

Sec. 2. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 168.10, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [APPLICATION.] Except as provided in subdivisions 1a, 1b, 1c, 1d, 1g, and 1h, every registered owner of any motor vehicle in this state, not exempted by section 168.012 or 168.26, shall as soon as registered ownership of a motor vehicle is acquired and annually thereafter during the period provided in section 168.31, file with the commissioner of public safety on a blank provided by the commissioner a listing for taxation and application for the registration of such vehicle, stating the first, middle and last names, the dates date of birth, and addresses the address of the primary residence of all each registered owners owner thereof who are is a natural persons person or mailing address if the address of the primary residence has been classified as private data under this chapter, the full names name and addresses address of all any other registered owners owner, the name and address of the person from whom purchased, make of motor vehicle, year and number of the model, manufacturer's identification number or serial number, type of body, the weight of the vehicle in pounds, for trailers only, its rated load carrying capacity and for buses only, its seating capacity, and such other information as the commissioner may require. Any false statement willfully and knowingly made in regard thereto shall be deemed perjury and punished accordingly. The listing and application for registration by dealers or manufacturers' agents within the state, of motor vehicles received for sale or use within the state shall be accepted as compliance with the requirements of this chapter, imposed upon the manufacturer.

Registration shall be refused a motor vehicle if the original identification or serial number has been destroyed, removed, altered, covered, or defaced. However, if the commissioner is satisfied on the sworn statements of the registered owner or registered owners or such other persons as the commissioner may deem advisable that the applicant is the legal owner, a special identification number in the form prescribed by the commissioner shall be assigned to the motor vehicle. When it has been determined that the number had been affixed to such vehicle in a manner prescribed by the commissioner, the vehicle may thereafter be registered in the same manner as other motor vehicles. In the case of a new or rebuilt motor vehicle manufactured or assembled without an identification or serial number, the commissioner may assign an identification number to the motor vehicle in the same manner as prescribed heretofore.

Sec. 3. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 168A.152, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [INSPECTION FEE.] A fee of $20 must be paid to the department before the department ~~conducts an inspection under~~ issues a certificate of title for a vehicle that has been inspected and for which a certificate of inspection has been issued pursuant to subdivision 1. The only additional fee that may be assessed for issuing the certificate of title is the filing fee imposed under section 168.33, subdivision 7.

Fees collected by the department under this subdivision, for conducting inspections under subdivision 1, must be deposited in the general fund.

Sec. 4. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 325E.0951, subdivision 3a, is amended to read:

Subd. 3a. [DISCLOSURE.] No person may transfer a motor vehicle that was required to be manufactured with an air pollution control system without certifying in writing to the transferee that to the best of the person's knowledge, the air pollution control systems, including the restricted gasoline fill pipe, have not been removed, altered, or rendered inoperative. The registrar of motor vehicles shall prescribe the manner and form in which this written disclosure must be made. No transferor may knowingly give a false statement to a transferee in making a disclosure required by this subdivision.

Sec. 5. [U.S. OPEN LICENSE PLATES.]

Subdivision 1. [DEFINITIONS.] (a) "Committee" means the 1991 U.S. Open Committee.

(b) "Registrar" means the registrar of motor vehicles.

Subd. 2. [ISSUANCE AND DESIGN.] Upon the request of the committee, the registrar shall issue to the committee special license plates for use in connection with the 1991 United States Golf Association Open Championship. The special plates must be of a design approved by the registrar after consultation with the committee. The plates may be displayed on a passenger vehicle the use of which has been donated for the open championship by the vehicle manufacturer. The plates are valid for a period of 14 days after issuance.

Subd. 3. [FEES.] The registrar shall collect a fee of $10 for each pair of special plates issued under this section. The minimum number of special plates the registrar may issue to the committee under this section is 50 pairs.

Subd. 4. [APPLICATION.] In requesting special plates under this section, the committee shall provide the following information to the registrar at least 120 days before the start of the period for which the plates are requested:

- (1) the dates of the period for which the plates are requested;
- (2) the name, address, and telephone number of an authorized representative of the committee;
- (3) the quantity of plates requested; and
- (4) a certification that the insurance required under Minnesota Statutes, section 65B.49, subdivision 3, will be provided for each vehicle for which special plates are provided under this section.

Subd. 5. [LIABILITY.] If a parking violation citation is issued for a violation committed by a driver of a vehicle displaying special plates issued under this section, the committee is liable for the amount of fine, penalty assessment, late payment penalty, or cost of warrants issued in connection with the violation unless, within 15 days after receiving knowledge of the violation, the committee provides to the issuing authority the following information to the extent available: the driver's full name, home address, local address, if any, license number, and employer's name and address. If the committee is relieved of liability under this subdivision, the person who committed the violation remains liable for the violation.

Sec. 6. [EFFECTIVE DATE.]

Sections 3 and 4 are effective the day following final enactment."

Delete the title and insert:

"A bill for an act relating to motor vehicles; providing for temporary permit while awaiting delivery of special vehicle license plates; requiring registered owner of motor vehicle to list address or mailing address of primary residence on application for registration; clarifying when inspection fee must be paid to receive certificate of inspection for salvage vehicle; clarifying disclosure requirements for motor vehicle pollution control system; providing for special U.S. Open license plates; amending Minnesota Statutes 1988, sections 168.09, by adding a subdivision; 168.10, subdivision 1; and 325E.0951, subdivision 3a; Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 168A.152, subdivision 2."

We request adoption of this report and repassage of the bill.

"Section 1: [120.161] [MISSING CHILD; FLAG STUDENT RECORDS.]

(a) The superintendent of a school district or a designee shall flag the record of a child who is currently or was previously enrolled in a school of that district if a law enforcement agency notifies the district of the child's disappearance. The flag must be made so that when a copy of or information regarding the record is requested, school personnel are alerted to the fact that the record is that of a missing child.

(b) Before providing a copy of the school record or other information concerning the child whose record is flagged, the superintendent or designee shall notify the agency that requested the record to be flagged of every inquiry concerning the record, and shall provide a copy to the agency of a written request for information concerning the record.

(c) When a child transfers from one school to another, the receiving school shall, within 30 days of the child's enrollment, obtain the child's record from the school from which the child is transferring. If the child's parent, custodian, or guardian provides a copy of the child's record from the school from which the child is transferring, the receiving school shall, within 30 days of the child's enrollment, request written verification of the school record by contacting the school named on the transferring child's record.

(d) Information received indicating that the transferring child is a missing child must be reported to the bureau of criminal apprehension in the department of public safety."

S. F. No. 1942 was reported to the House.

Winter moved to amend S. F. No. 1942, as follows:

Delete everything after the enacting clause and insert:

“Section 1. [65B.526] [NO-FAULT INSURANCE; CLAIM DENIAL.]

Subdivision 1. [ADVERSE MEDICAL EVALUATION.] No insurer shall deny a claim by an insured under no-fault coverage on the basis of a medical evaluation by the insurer's health care provider unless: (1) the insurer allows the insured the option of obtaining a medical evaluation by a neutral health care provider from the roster established pursuant to subdivision 2; and (2) this medical evaluation is consistent with the insurer's initial evaluation. The cost of this evaluation must be borne by the insurer.

Subd. 2. [NEUTRAL HEALTH CARE PROVIDER ROSTER.] The commissioner of commerce shall develop and maintain a roster of neutral health care providers. The commissioner shall, by rule, establish criteria for identifying neutral health care providers and establish standards to ensure that no provider on the roster is an insurance company health care provider and that no provider receives a disproportionately large number of requests for medical evaluation. The rules also shall require that the neutral provider is randomly assigned to examine the claimant. The state boards, or other officers whose duty it is to license or register a system or branch of healing, must provide the information the commissioner requires to develop and maintain the roster, and must provide any other assistance the commissioner requires.

Subd. 3. [NONAPPLICATION.] This section does not apply:

(1) to denials of workers' compensation claims; or

(2) if the insurer's initial medical evaluation is performed by a neutral health care provider from the roster established pursuant to subdivision 2.

Sec. 2. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 72A.201, subdivision 8, is amended to read:

Subd. 8. [STANDARDS FOR CLAIM DENIAL.] The following acts by an insurer, adjuster, or self-insured, or self-insurance administrator constitute unfair settlement practices:

(1) denying a claim or any element of a claim on the grounds of a specific policy provision, condition, or exclusion, without informing the insured of the policy provision, condition, or exclusion on which the denial is based;

(2) denying a claim without having made a reasonable investigation of the claim;

(3) denying a liability claim because the insured has requested that the claim be denied;

(4) denying a liability claim because the insured has failed or refused to report the claim, unless an independent evaluation of available information indicates there is no liability;

(5) denying a claim without including the following information:

(i) the basis for the denial;

(ii) the name, address, and telephone number of the insurer's claim service office or the claim representative of the insurer to whom the insured or claimant may take any questions or complaints about the denial; and

(iii) the claim number and the policy number of the insured;

(6) denying a claim because the insured or claimant failed to exhibit the damaged property unless:

(i) the insurer, within a reasonable time period, made a written demand upon the insured or claimant to exhibit the property; and

(ii) the demand was reasonable under the circumstances in which it was made;

(7) failing to comply with section 65B.526."

Delete the title and insert:

"A bill for an act relating to insurance; regulating no-fault insurance claim denials; amending Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 72A.201, subdivision 8; proposing coding for new law in Minnesota Statutes, chapter 65B."

The motion prevailed and the amendment was adopted.

Winter moved to amend S. F. No. 1942, as amended, as follows:

"Section 1. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 65B.525, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. Except as otherwise provided in section 72A.327, The supreme court and the several courts of general trial jurisdiction of this state shall by rules of court or other constitutionally allowable device, provide for the mandatory submission to binding arbitration of all cases at issue where the claim at the commencement of arbitration is in an amount of $5,000 or less against any insured's reparation obligor for no-fault benefits or comprehensive or collision damage coverage."

S. F. No. 1873 was reported to the House.

Seaberg moved to amend S. F. No. 1873, as follows:

Delete everything after the enacting clause and insert:

"Section 1. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 13.84, subdivision 5a, is amended to read:

Subd. 5a. [PUBLIC BENEFIT DATA.] (a) The responsible authority or its designee of a parole or probation authority or correctional agency may release private or confidential court services data related to: (1) criminal acts to any law enforcement agency, if necessary for law enforcement purposes; and (2) criminal acts or delinquent acts to the victims of criminal or delinquent acts to the extent that the data are necessary for the victim to assert the victim's legal right to restitution. In the case of delinquent acts, the data that may be released include only the juvenile's name, address, date of birth, and place of employment; the name and address of the juvenile's parents or guardians; and the factual part of police reports related to the investigation of the delinquent act.

(b) The responsible entity or its designee of a juvenile correctional agency may release private or confidential court services data to a victim of a delinquent act to the extent the data are necessary to enable the victim to assert the victim's right to request notice of release under section 611A.06. The data that may be released include only the name, home address, and placement site of a juvenile who has been placed in a juvenile correctional facility under a disposition order for a delinquent act.

Sec. 2. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 260.161, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. Except as provided in this subdivision and in subdivision 1, and except for legal records arising from proceedings that are public under section 260.155, subdivision 1, none of the records of the juvenile court and none of the records relating to an appeal from a nonpublic juvenile court proceeding, except the written appellate opinion, shall be open to public inspection or their contents disclosed except (a) by order of a court or (b) as required by sections 611A.03, 611A.04, and 611A.06, and 629.73. The records of juvenile probation officers and county home schools are records of the court for the purposes of this subdivision. Court services data relating to delinquent acts that are contained in records of the juvenile court may be released as allowed under section 13.84, subdivision 5a. This subdivision applies to all proceedings under this chapter, including appeals from orders of the juvenile court, except that this subdivision does not apply to proceedings under section 260.255, 260.261, or 260.315 when the proceeding involves an adult defendant. The court shall maintain the confidentiality of adoption files and records in accordance with the provisions of laws relating to adoptions. In juvenile court proceedings any report or social history furnished to the court shall be open to inspection by the attorneys of record and the guardian ad litem a reasonable time before it is used in connection with any proceeding before the court.

When a judge of a juvenile court, or duly authorized agent of the court, determines under a proceeding under this chapter that a child has violated a state or local law, ordinance, or regulation pertaining to the operation of a motor vehicle on streets and highways, except parking violations, the judge or agent shall immediately report the violation to the commissioner of public safety. The report must be made on a form provided by the department of public safety and must contain the information required under section 169.95.

Sec. 3. [611A.021] [RIGHT TO REQUEST WITHHOLDING OF CERTAIN PUBLIC DATA.]

A victim has a right under section 13.82, subdivision 10, clause (d), to request a law enforcement agency to withhold public access to data revealing the victim's identity.

Sec. 4. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 611A.04, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [PROCEDURES.] The offender shall make restitution payments to the court administrator of the county, municipal, or district court of the county in which the restitution is to be paid. The court administrator shall disburse restitution in incremental payments and may not keep a restitution payment for longer than 30 days; except that the court administrator is not required to disburse a restitution payment that is under $10 unless the payment would fulfill the offender's restitution obligation. The court administrator shall keep records of the amount of restitution ordered in each case, any change made to the restitution order, and the amount of restitution actually paid by the offender. The court administrator shall forward the data collected to the state court administrator who shall compile the data and make it available to the supreme court and the legislature upon request.

Sec. 5. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 611A.06, is amended to read:

611A.06 [RIGHT TO NOTICE OF RELEASE.]

The commissioner of corrections or other custodial authority shall make a good faith effort to notify the victim that the offender is to be released from imprisonment or incarceration, including release on extended furlough and for work release; released from a juvenile correctional facility if the offender was placed there under a disposition order; or released from a facility in which the offender was confined due to incompetency, mental illness, or mental deficiency, or commitment under section 253B.18, prior to the release if the victim has mailed to the commissioner of corrections or to the head of the facility in which the offender is confined a written request for this notice. The notice given to a victim of a crime against a person must include the conditions governing the offender's release, and either the identity of the corrections agent who will be supervising the offender's release or a means to identify the court services agency that will be supervising the offender's release. The commissioner or other custodial authority complies with this section upon mailing the notice of impending release to the victim at the address which the victim has most recently provided to the commissioner or authority in writing. All identifying information regarding the victim, including the victim's request and the notice provided by the commissioner or custodial authority, is classified as private data on individuals as defined in section 13.02, subdivision 12, and is accessible only to the victim.

As used in this section, "crime against the person" means a crime listed in section 611A.031.

Sec. 6. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 611A.52, subdivision 8, is amended to read:

Subd. 8. [ECONOMIC LOSS.] "Economic loss" means actual economic detriment incurred as a direct result of injury or death.

(a) In the case of injury the term is limited to:

(1) reasonable expenses incurred for necessary medical, chiropractic, hospital, rehabilitative, and dental products, services, or accommodations, including ambulance services, drugs, appliances, and prosthetic devices;

(2) reasonable expenses incurred for psychological or psychiatric products, services, or accommodations where the nature of the injury or the circumstances of the crime are such that the treatment is necessary to the rehabilitation of the victim, subject to the following limitations:

(i) if treatment is likely to continue longer than six months after the date the claim is filed and the cost of the additional treatment will exceed $1,500, or if the total cost of treatment in any case will exceed $4,000, the provider shall first submit to the board a plan which includes the measurable treatment goals, the estimated cost of the treatment, and the estimated date of completion of the treatment. Claims submitted for treatment that was provided more than 30 days after the estimated date of completion may be paid only after advance approval by the board of an extension of treatment; and

(ii) the board may, in its discretion, elect to pay claims under this clause on a quarterly basis;

(3) loss of income greater than $50 that the victim would have earned had the victim not been injured;

(4) reasonable expenses incurred for substitute child care or household services to replace those the victim would have performed had the victim not been injured. As used in this clause, "child care services" means services provided by facilities licensed under and in compliance with either Minnesota Rules, parts 9502.0315 to 9502.0445, or 9545.0510 to 9545.0670, or exempted from licensing requirements pursuant to section 245A.03. Licensed facilities must be paid at a rate not to exceed their standard rate of payment. Facilities exempted from licensing requirements must be paid at a rate not to exceed $3 an hour per child for daytime child care or $4 an hour per child for evening child care; and

(5) reasonable expenses actually incurred to return a child who was a victim of a crime under section 609.25 or 609.26 to the child's parents or lawful custodian. These expenses are limited to transportation costs, meals, and lodging from the time the child was located until the child was returned home.

(b) In the case of death the term is limited to:

(1) reasonable expenses actually incurred for funeral, burial, or cremation, not to exceed an amount to be determined by the board on the first day of each fiscal year;

(2) reasonable expenses for medical, chiropractic, hospital, rehabilitative, psychological and psychiatric services, products or accommodations which were incurred prior to the victim's death and for which the victim's survivors or estate are liable;

(3) loss of support, including contributions of money, products or goods, but excluding services which the victim would have supplied to dependents if the victim had lived; and

(4) reasonable expenses incurred for substitute child care and household services to replace those which the victim would have performed for the benefit of dependents if the victim had lived.

Claims for loss of support for minor children made under clause (3) must be paid for three years or until the child reaches 18 years old, whichever is the shorter period. After three years, if the child is less than 18 years old a claim for loss of support may be resubmitted to the board, and the board shall evaluate the claim giving consideration to the child's financial need and to the availability of funds to the board.

Claims for substitute child care services made under clause (4) must be limited to the actual care that the deceased victim would have provided to enable surviving family members to pursue economic, educational, and other activities other than recreational activities.

Sec. 7. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 611A.53, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. No reparations shall be awarded to a claimant otherwise eligible if:

(a) the crime was not reported to the police within five days of its occurrence or, if it could not reasonably have been reported within that period, within five days of the time when a report could reasonably have been made. A victim of criminal sexual conduct in the first, second, third, or fourth degree who does not report the crime within five days of its occurrence is deemed to have been unable to have reported it within that period;

(b) the victim or claimant failed or refused to cooperate fully with the police and other law enforcement officials;

(c) the victim or claimant was the offender or an accomplice of the offender or an award to the claimant would unjustly benefit the offender or an accomplice;

(d) the victim or claimant was in the act of committing a crime at the time the injury occurred;

(e) no claim was filed with the board within one year of victim's injury or death; except that (1) if the claimant was unable to file a claim within that period, then the claim can be made within one year of the time when a claim could have been filed; and (2) if the victim's injury or death was not reasonably discoverable within one year of the injury or death, then the claim can be made within one year of the time when the injury or death is reasonably discoverable. The following circumstances do not render a claimant unable to file a claim for the purposes of this clause: (1) lack of knowledge of the existence of the Minnesota crime victims reparations act, (2) the failure of a law enforcement agency to provide information or assistance to a potential claimant under section 611A.66, (3) the incompetency of the claimant if the claimant's affairs were being managed during that period by a guardian, guardian ad litem, conservator, authorized agent, or parent, or (4) the fact that the claimant is not of the age of majority; or

(f) the claim is less than ~~$100~~ $50.

The limitations contained in clauses (a) and (e) do not apply to victims of domestic child abuse as defined in section 260.015, subdivision 24. In those cases the one year limitation period commences running with the report of the crime to the police; provided that no claim as a result of loss due to domestic child abuse may be paid when the claimant is ~~19~~ 21 years of age or older at the time the claim is filed.

Sec. 8. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 611A.57, subdivision 6, is amended to read:

Subd. 6. Claims for reparations and supporting documents and reports are investigative data and subject to the provisions of section 13.39 until the claim is paid, denied, withdrawn, or abandoned. Following the payment, denial, withdrawal, or abandonment of a claim, the claim and supporting documents and reports are private data on individuals as defined in section 13.02, subdivision 12; provided that the board may forward any reparations claim forms, supporting documents, and reports to local law enforcement authorities for purposes of implementing section 611A.67.

Sec. 9. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 629.73, is amended to read:

629.73 [NOTICE TO SEXUAL ASSAULT VICTIM REGARDING RELEASE OF ARRESTED OR DETAINED PERSON.]

Subdivision 1. [ORAL NOTICE.] When a person arrested or a juvenile detained for criminal sexual conduct or attempted criminal sexual conduct is about to be released from pretrial detention, the agency having custody of the arrested or detained person or its designee shall make a reasonable and good faith effort before release to inform orally the victim or, if the victim is incapacitated, the same or next of kin, or if the victim is a minor, the victim's parent or guardian of the following matters:

(1) the conditions of release, if any;

(2) the time of release;

(3) the time, date, and place of the next scheduled court appearance of the arrested or detained person and, where applicable, the victim's right to be present at the court appearance; and

(4) the location and telephone number of the area sexual assault program as designated by the commissioner of corrections.

Subd. 2. [WRITTEN NOTICE.] As soon as practicable after the arrested or detained person is released, the agency having custody of the arrested or detained person or its designee must personally deliver or mail to the alleged victim written notice of the information contained in subdivision 1, clauses (2) and (3)."

Delete the title and insert:

"A bill for an act relating to crime victims; providing victims of delinquent acts the right to request notice of release of juvenile offenders from juvenile correctional facilities; providing notice to sexual assault victims when a juvenile offender is released from pretrial detention; clarifying the duty of court administrators to disburse restitution payments; making certain changes to the crime victims reparations act; amending Minnesota Statutes 1988, sections 611A.53, subdivision 2; 611A.57, subdivision 6; Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, sections 13.84, subdivision 5a; 260.161, subdivision 2; 611A.04, subdivision 2; 611A.06; 611A.52, subdivision 8; and 629.73; proposing coding for new law in Minnesota Statutes, chapter 611A."

“Section 1. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 72B.135, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 4. [PROHIBITED PRACTICES.] No public adjuster shall:

(1) pay money or give anything of value to a person in consideration of a direct or indirect referral of a client or potential client;

(2) pay money or give anything of value to a person as an inducement to refer business or clients;

(3) rebate to a client a part of a fee specified in an employment contract;

(4) initiate contact with a prospective client between the hours of 8 p.m. and 8 a.m.;

(5) split the fee received or pay money to a person for services rendered to a client unless the other person is also licensed as a public adjuster;

(6) have an interest directly or indirectly in a construction firm, salvage firm, or appraisal firm. "Firm" includes a corporation, partnership, association, or individual firm;

(7) solicit employment of a client in connection with a loss that is the subject of an employment contract with another public adjuster;

(8) represent both an insurer and insured simultaneously; or

(9) advance money to a client pending the settlement of a loss where the amount would be included in a final settlement.

Sec. 2. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 72B.135, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 5. [DISCLOSURES.] (a) A public adjuster shall disclose in writing to the client any interest the public adjuster has in loss proceeds other than those acquired by the public adjuster's employment contract.

(b) A public adjuster in soliciting a client for employment shall display a license and immediately inform the client that the adjuster does not represent an insurance company or insurance company adjusting firm. The adjuster shall inform the client that services are available for a fee to be paid by the client, and shall give the client a card identifying the public adjuster and specifying the fee charged by the public adjuster.

Sec. 3. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 72B.135, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 6. [RECORDS; CONTRACTS.] (a) A public adjuster shall maintain an office that contains the records of all documents pertaining to the settlement of the claim and files of all clients. The records must be available for inspection by an authorized examiner or employee of the commerce department. The records will be kept by the public adjuster for at least five years after the end of the contracted employment period.

(b) An employment contract used by a public adjuster is valid only if signed by an insured and the property owner of the property involved, or an authorized agent or representative."

The motion prevailed and the amendment was adopted.

"ARTICLE 1
FIRE PROTECTION

Section 1. [299M.01] [DEFINITIONS.]

Subdivision 1. [SCOPE.] For the purposes of this chapter the following terms have the meanings given them in this section.

Subd. 2. [APPRENTICE SPRINKLER FITTER.] "Apprentice sprinkler fitter" means a person, other than a fire protection contractor or journeyman sprinkler fitter, who is regularly engaged in learning the trade under the direct supervision of a licensed fire protection contractor or journeyman sprinkler fitter. Apprentices must be registered with the division of apprenticeship of the department of labor and industry in accordance with chapter 178.

Subd. 3. [COMMISSIONER.] "Commissioner" means the commissioner of public safety.

Subd. 4. [COUNCIL.] "Council" means the Minnesota advisory council on fire protection systems.

Subd. 5. [DEPARTMENT.] "Department" means the department of public safety.

Subd. 6. [FIRE PROTECTION CONTRACTOR.] "Fire protection contractor" means a person who contracts to sell, design, install, modify, alter, or inspect a fire protection system or its parts or related equipment.

Subd. 7. [FIRE PROTECTION SYSTEM.] "Fire protection system" means a sprinkler, standpipe, hose system, or other special hazard system for fire protection purposes only, that is composed of an integrated system of underground and overhead piping. "Fire protection system" does not include the water service piping to a city water main or piping used for potable water purposes or piping used for heating or cooling purposes. Openings from potable water piping for fire protection systems must be made by persons properly licensed under section 326.40. A person licensed under section 326.40 may also sell, design, install, modify, or inspect a standpipe or hose system.

Subd. 8. [JOURNEYMAN SPRINKLER FITTER.] "Journeyman sprinkler fitter" means a person who is certified as competent to engage in installing, connecting, altering, repairing, or adding to a fire protection system for and under the supervision of a fire protection contractor.

Subd. 9. [MUNICIPALITY.] "Municipality" means a town or statutory or home rule charter city.

Sec. 2. [299M.02] [ADVISORY COUNCIL.]

Subdivision 1. [CREATION; COMPENSATION, REMOVAL, EXPIRATION.] The Minnesota advisory council on fire protection systems is created. The compensation and removal of council members is governed by section 15.059. The council does not expire, section 15.059, subdivision 5, to the contrary notwithstanding.

Subd. 2. [MEMBERSHIP] The council consists of nine members, each appointed for a term of three years by the governor. Two members must be licensed fire protection contractors or full-time, managing employees actively engaged in a licensed fire protection contractor business. Two members must be journeyman sprinkler fitters certified as competent under this chapter. One member of the council must be an active member of the Minnesota State Fire Chiefs Association. One member must be an active member of the Fire Marshals Association of Minnesota. One member must be a member of the general public. The commissioner or designee is an ex officio, nonvoting member. The commissioner of labor and industry or designee is an ex officio nonvoting member.

Subd. 3. [DUTIES.] The council shall advise the commissioners of public safety and labor and industry on matters within the council's expertise or under the regulation of the commissioners.

Sec. 3. [299M.03] [LICENSE OR CERTIFICATE REQUIRED.]

Subdivision 1. [CONTRACTOR LICENSE.] A person may not sell, design, install, modify, or inspect a fire protection system, its parts, or related equipment or offer to do so, unless annually licensed to perform these duties as a fire protection contractor.

Subd. 2. [JOURNEYMAN CERTIFICATE.] A person may not install, connect, alter, repair, or add to a fire protection system, under the supervision of a fire protection contractor, unless annually certified to perform those duties as a journeyman sprinkler fitter or as a registered apprentice sprinkler fitter.

Sec. 4. [299M.04] [RULES; SETTING FEES.]

The commissioner shall adopt permanent rules for operation of the council; regulation by municipalities; permit, filing, inspection, certificate, and license fees; qualifications, examination, and licensing of fire protection contractors; certification of journeyman sprinkler fitters; registration of apprentices; and the administration and enforcement of this chapter. The commissioner may also adopt emergency rules. Fees must be set under section 16A.128. Permit fees must be a percentage of the total cost of the fire protection work.

Sec. 5. [299M.05] [EXEMPTION FROM EXAMINATION.]

A person who submits satisfactory proof to the commissioner of actively engaging in full-time fire protection systems installation either as a fire protection contractor or journeyman sprinkler fitter for a period of five years before the effective date of this section, and who applies for a license or certificate within 60 days after the effective date of this section, is exempt from examination. A person who is exempt from examination, fulfills all other requirements under this chapter and under rules adopted under section 4, and pays the required annual fee, must be granted the appropriate license or certificate.

Sec. 6. [299M.06] [REVOCAION, SUSPENSION, REFUSAL.]

The commissioner may revoke, suspend, or refuse to issue or renew a license or certificate issued under this chapter.

Sec. 7. [299M.07] [MUNICIPAL REGULATION.]

A municipality by ordinance may require payment of permit fees and competent inspection of fire protection system materials and construction.

A municipality enacting an ordinance after the effective date of this section shall notify the commissioner of public safety.

A municipality may not require licensing, bonding, certification, registration, or insurance that is in addition to the state requirements outlined under this chapter.

Sec. 8. [299M.08] [CRIMES.]

It is a misdemeanor to knowingly and willfully commit or order, instruct, or direct another to commit any of the following acts:

(1) to make a false statement in a license or certificate application, request for inspection, or other form or statement authorized or required under this chapter;

(2) to perform fire protection system work without a proper permit, when required, and without a license or certificate for that work;

(3) to fail to file a request for inspection as required;

(4) to interfere with, or refuse entry to, a fire or building inspector engaged in the performance of lawful duties; or

(5) to violate a statute, rule, or municipal ordinance that pertains to powers given to municipalities under section 7.

Sec. 9. [299M.09] [CONTRACT WITH LABOR AND INDUSTRY.]

The commissioner may contract for services with the commissioner of labor and industry.

Sec. 10. [299M.10] [FIRE PROTECTION SYSTEMS ACCOUNT.]

The fire protection systems account is established as a special account in the state treasury. The fees and penalties collected under this chapter must be deposited in the state treasury and credited to the account.

Sec. 11. [299M.11] [FEES.]

Subdivision 1. [LICENSING FEE.] A person required to be licensed under section 3, subdivision 1, shall, before receipt of the license and before causing fire protection related work to be performed, pay the commissioner an annual license fee.

Subd. 2. [CERTIFICATION FEE.] Employees required to be certified under section 3, subdivision 2, shall, before performing fire protection related work, pay the commissioner an annual certification fee.

Subd. 3. [REGISTRATION FEE.] Employees required to be registered under section 1, subdivision 2, shall, before performing fire protection related work, pay the commissioner an annual registration fee.

Subd. 4. [PERMIT FEE.] Before beginning fire protection related work, a fire protection contractor shall pay a project permit fee to the commissioner based on a percentage of the total costs of the fire protection related work.

Subd. 5. [DEPOSIT OF FEES.] Fees collected under this section shall be deposited in the fire protection systems account created by section 10.

Sec. 12. [299M.12] [CONFLICTS OF LAWS.]

This chapter is not intended to conflict with and does not supersede the Minnesota state building code, the Minnesota uniform fire code, or other state law.

Sec. 13. [APPROPRIATION; COMPLEMENT.]

$95,000 is appropriated for fiscal year ending June 30, 1991, from the general fund to the department of public safety for the purposes of sections 1 to 12.

The complement of the department of public safety is increased by two positions for the purposes of sections 1 to 11.

Sec. 14. [EFFECTIVE DATE.]

Sections 1 to 3, 6, and 8 are effective January 1, 1990. Section 4 is effective the day after final enactment.

ARTICLE 2

ACTUARIAL SERVICES

Section 1. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 3.85, subdivision 10, is amended to read:

Subd. 10. [STANDARDS FOR PENSION VALUATIONS AND COST ESTIMATES.] The commission shall adopt standards prescribing specific detailed methods to calculate, evaluate, and display current and proposed law liabilities, costs, and actuarial equivalents of all public employee pension retirement plans in Minnesota. These Standards shall be consistent with chapter 356 and must be developed and updated annually by the commission using an approved actuary as defined in section 356.215, subdivision 1, paragraph (2), retained by the commission. Standards must not be designed to limit the commission in its selection of an approved actuary, to any one actuary or actuarial consulting firm.

Sec. 2. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 3.85, subdivision 11, is amended to read:

Subd. 11. [VALUATIONS AND REPORTS TO LEGISLATURE.]
(a) The commission shall contract with an established actuarial consulting firm to ~~conduct~~ evaluate, audit, and verify the results of annual actuarial valuations and financial adequacy, biennial experience studies for, and cost analyses of benefit and funding proposals prepared by the actuaries retained by the governing boards of the retirement plans systems named in paragraph (b). The contract ~~shall include provisions for performing cost analyses of proposals for changes in benefit and funding policies.~~

The governing boards of the retirement systems, through their retained actuaries, must act jointly in developing cost analyses of benefit and funding proposals when these proposals would affect multiple systems. The commission's actuarial contract must require that the commission-retained actuary construct and maintain a data base using the same information contained in the data bases constructed and maintained by the retirement system actuaries. The contract must also provide for ongoing review of commission-approved actuarial standards and recommendations for changes in those standards. The commission-retained actuary may convene the retirement system actuaries when appropriate to discuss differences of opinion about study results, data, recommended changes in actuarial specifications, standards, assumptions, tables, or any other related actuarial matters.

(b) The contract for actuarial valuation and analysis shall include the following retirement plans systems referred to in paragraph (a) are:

- (1) the Statewide Teachers Retirement Association;
- (2) the General Plan, Minnesota State Retirement System;
- (3) the Correctional Plan, Minnesota State Public Employees Retirement System Association;
- (4) the State Patrol Plan, Minnesota State Retirement System;
- (5) the Judges Plan, Minnesota State Retirement System;
- (6) the Minneapolis Employees Retirement Fund;
- (7) the General Plan, Public Employees Retirement Association;
- (8) the Police and Fire Plan, Public Employees Retirement Association;
- (9) (5) the Duluth Teachers Retirement Fund Association;
- (10) (6) the Minneapolis Teachers Retirement Fund Association; and
- (11) (7) the St. Paul Teachers Retirement Association;
- (12) the Legislator's Retirement Plan, Minnesota State Retirement System; and
- (13) the Elective State Officers Retirement Plan, Minnesota State Retirement System.

(c) Every year the contract shall specify completion of standard actuarial valuations for the fiscal year with contents as described in section 356.215, subdivisions 4 to 4k, and cash flow forecasts through the amortization target date.

For every plan year the contract shall specify preparation of an exhibit on the experience of the fund for inclusion in the annual actuarial valuation and completion of a periodic experience study as provided for in the standards adopted by the commission. The experience study shall evaluate the appropriateness of continuing to use for future valuations the assumptions relating to: individual salary progression; rate of return on investments; payroll growth; mortality; withdrawal; disability; retirement; and any other experience related factor that could impact the future financial condition of the retirement funds.

(d) (c) The commission commission-retained actuary shall annually prepare a report to the legislature commission summarizing the results of the annual actuarial valuations and cash flow projections. It shall include with its report recommendations concerning the appropriateness of the support rates prepared by the retirement system actuaries. This report must also include the results of the commission-retained actuary's verification and audit and identify points of disagreement and recommendations for changes in contribution rates to achieve proper funding of the retirement funds objectives by the required funding dates. The commission-retained actuary shall, within two four months of the completion of the periodic biennial experience studies by the retirement system actuaries, prepare a report to the commission summarizing the results of the experience studies prepared by the retirement system actuaries and the results of the commission-retained actuary's audit and verification. This report must also identify recommendations for changes in assumptions or actuarial tables. After reviewing the results of the annual valuations or biennial experience studies, the commission shall issue its own report to the legislature on the appropriateness of the valuation assumptions required for evaluation in the periodic experience study.

(e) (d) The commission shall assess each retirement plan specified in paragraph (b), other than clauses (12) and (13), for the cost of its actuarial valuations and experience studies. The assessment shall be that part of the amount of contract compensation for the actuarial consulting firm retained by the commission for those functions that bears the same relationship that the total active, deferred, inactive, and benefit recipient membership of the retirement plan bears to the total active, deferred, inactive, and benefit recipient membership of all retirement plans specified in paragraph (b). The assessment shall be made upon the completion of the actuarial valuations and the experience studies. The amount of the assessment is appropriated from the retirement fund applicable to the retirement plan. Receipts from assessments shall be deposited in the state treasury and credited to the general fund pay for the services of its actuary from funds appropriated to it.

(e) The commission shall direct the commission-retained actuary with respect to discretionary tasks provided for under terms of the actuarial contract.

Sec. 3. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 3A.11, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [TRANSFER OF RESERVES.] The reserves necessary to fund the retirement allowance granted pursuant to section 3A.02 to a former legislator upon retirement shall be appropriated from the general fund to the director and shall be transferred by the director to the Minnesota postretirement investment fund as of the last business day of the month in which the retirement allowance begins to accrue in accord with section 11A.18. The amount of the transfer shall be determined by or determined ~~under a procedure specified by the actuary retained by the legislative commission on pensions and retirement,~~ in accord with the appropriate mortality table adopted by the board of directors of the Minnesota state retirement system based on the experience of the plan as recommended by the ~~commission-retained actuary~~ and the interest rate assumption specified in section 356.215, subdivision 4d.

Sec. 4. [3A.13] [APPROPRIATION.]

The amounts required to pay benefits authorized by this chapter and to pay any necessary and reasonable administrative expenses are appropriated annually to the director from the general fund.

Sec. 5. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 11A.18, subdivision 9, is amended to read:

Subd. 9. [CALCULATION OF POSTRETIREMENT ADJUSTMENT.] Annually, following June 30, the state board shall determine whether a postretirement adjustment is payable and shall determine the amount of any postretirement adjustment that is payable.

(1) The state board shall determine whether a postretirement adjustment is payable using the following procedure:

(a) The state board shall determine the amount of dividends, interest, accruals and realized capital gains or losses applicable to the most recent fiscal year ending June 30;

(b) The amount of reserves required for the annuity or benefit payable to an annuitant and benefit recipient of the participating public pension plans or funds shall be determined by the ~~commission-retained actuary~~ actuaries retained by the Minnesota state retirement system, the public employees retirement association, and the teachers retirement association as of the current June 30.

An annuitant or benefit recipient who has been receiving an annuity or benefit for at least 12 full months as of the current June 30 is eligible to receive a full postretirement adjustment. An annuitant or benefit recipient who has been receiving an annuity or benefit for at least one full month, but less than 12 full months as of the current June 30, is eligible to receive a partial postretirement adjustment. Each fund shall report separately the amount of the reserves for those annuitants and benefit recipients who are eligible to receive a full postretirement benefit adjustment. This amount is known as "eligible reserves." Each fund shall also report separately the amount of the reserves for those annuitants and benefit recipients who are not eligible to receive a postretirement adjustment. This amount is known as "noneligible reserves." For an annuitant or benefit recipient who is eligible to receive a partial postretirement adjustment, each fund shall report separately as additional "eligible reserves" an amount that bears the same ratio to the total reserves required for the annuitant or benefit recipient as the number of full months of annuity or benefit receipt as of the current June 30 bears to 12 full months. The remainder of the annuitant's or benefit recipient's reserves shall be separately reported as additional "noneligible reserves." The amount of "eligible" and "noneligible" required reserves shall be certified to the board by the ~~commission-retained~~ actuary actuaries retained by the Minnesota state retirement system, public employees retirement association, and teachers retirement association as soon as is practical following the current June 30;

(c) The state board shall determine the amount of investment income required to equal five percent of the total amount of the required reserves as of the preceding June 30 adjusted by five percent of each transfer in or transfer out multiplied by the fraction of a year from the date of transfer to the current June 30. This amount of required investment income shall be subtracted from the actual amount of investment income determined according to clause (1)(a), to determine the amount of excess investment income. If this amount is positive, then a postretirement adjustment may be paid.

(2) The state board shall determine the amount of any postretirement adjustment which is payable using the following procedure:

(a) The state board shall determine the amount of excess investment income by the method indicated in clause (1);

(b) The total "eligible" required reserves as of the first of January next following the end of the fiscal year for the annuitants and benefit recipients eligible to receive a full or partial postretirement adjustment as determined by clause (1)(b) shall be certified to the state board by the ~~commission-retained~~ actuary actuaries retained by the Minnesota state retirement system, the public employees retirement association, and the teachers retirement association. The total "eligible" required reserves shall be determined by the com~~mission-retained actuary~~ on the assumption that all annuitants and benefit recipients eligible to receive a full or partial postretirement adjustment will be alive on the January 1 in question;

(c) If the state board determines that the book value of the assets of the fund is less than an amount equal to the total amount of the current June 30 required reserves, with the book value and required reserves to be determined after the adjustments provided for in subdivision 11, then the state board shall allocate five percent of the excess investment income as an asset of the fund. The excess investment income allocated as an asset of the fund shall not exceed the difference between book value and required reserves. The remaining amount shall be termed available for distribution. The book value of assets on any given date shall be the net assets at cost less the excess investment income determined pursuant to clause (1)(c);

(d) The resulting total amount available for distribution shall be increased by 2½ percent, and the result shall be stated as a percentage of the total amount of the required reserves pursuant to clause (2)(b), and if the percentage is equal to or greater than one percent, the amount shall be certified to each participating public pension fund or plan as the full postretirement adjustment amount. If the percentage is less than one percent, no postretirement adjustment shall be payable in that year and the amount otherwise available for distribution shall be credited to a separate reserve established for this purpose. The reserve shall be invested in the same manner as all other assets of the fund and shall be credited with any investment income as specified in clause (1)(a). Amounts credited to the reserve shall be utilized in determining a postretirement adjustment in the subsequent year. The amount of any full postretirement adjustment certified by the state board as payable to the participating public pension plans or funds shall be carried to five decimal places and stated as a percentage.

(e) A retirement annuity payable in the event of retirement before becoming eligible for social security benefits as provided in section 352.116, subdivision 3; 353.29, subdivision 6; or 354.35 must be treated as the sum of a period certain retirement annuity and a life retirement annuity for the purposes of any postretirement adjustment. The period certain retirement annuity plus the life retirement annuity shall be the annuity amount payable until age 62 or 65, whichever applies. A postretirement adjustment granted on the period certain retirement annuity must terminate when the period certain retirement annuity terminates.

Sec. 6. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 11A.18, subdivision 11, is amended to read:

Subd. 11. [ADJUSTMENT FOR MORTALITY GAINS AND LOSSES.] Annually as of June 30 ~~annually~~, the ~~commission re-~~ retained actuary actuaries retained by the Minnesota state retirement system, public employees retirement association, and teachers retirement association shall calculate the amount of required reserves representing any mortality gains and any mortality losses incurred by each participating public pension fund or plan during the fiscal year and report the results of those calculations to the applicable participating public pension fund or plan. The actuary shall report separately the amount of the reserves for annuitants and benefit recipients who are eligible for a postretirement benefit adjustment and the amount of reserves for annuitants and benefit recipients who are not eligible for a postretirement benefit adjustment. If the net amount of required reserves represents a mortality gain, the participating public pension fund or plan shall certify that amount to the state board, which shall sell sufficient securities or transfer sufficient available cash to equal the amount of money certified. If the amount of required reserves represents a mortality loss, the participating public pension fund or plan shall transfer to the state board an amount equal to the amount of the net mortality loss. The amount of the transfers shall be determined before any postretirement benefit adjustments have been made. All transfers resulting from mortality adjustments shall be completed annually by December 31 for the preceding June 30. Interest shall be charged or credited on any transfers after December 31 based upon the average short-term rate earned by the postretirement investment fund. Book values of the assets of the fund for the purposes of subdivision 9 shall be determined only after all adjustments for mortality gains and losses for the fiscal year have been made.

Sec. 7. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 136.82, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [REDEMPTION OF SHARES AS AN ANNUITY.] A person who has shares to the credit of the employee's share account record, who is 55 years of age or older and who is no longer employed by the state university board or the state board for community colleges or who is totally and permanently disabled pursuant to subdivision 1, paragraph (c), or who has the status of a surviving spouse of a person who has shares to the credit of the employee's share account pursuant to subdivision 1, paragraph (d), may redeem all or part of the shares to purchase an annuity by depositing the cash realized upon redemption with the executive director of the teachers retirement fund and receive in exchange an annuity for life or an optional annuity as hereinafter provided. The election to purchase an annuity may be made only once by any individual. If an election is made before the date on which the person is entitled to request redemption, the redemption shall not be made prior to the date upon which the person would be entitled to make the request. The annuity purchase rates shall be based on the annuity table of mortality adopted by the board of trustees of the teachers retirement fund for the fund as provided in section 354.07, subdivision 1, using the interest assumption specified in section 356.215, subdivision 4d.

The amount of the annuity for life shall be that amount which has a present value equal to the cash realized on the redemption of the shares as of the first day of the month next following the date of the election to purchase an annuity. The board of trustees of the teachers retirement fund shall establish an optional joint and survivor annuity, an optional annuity payable for a period certain and for life thereafter, and an optional guaranteed refund annuity paying the annuitant a fixed amount for life with the guarantee that in the event of death the balance of the cash realized from the redemption of shares is payable to the designated beneficiary. The optional forms of annuity shall be actuarially equivalent to the single life annuity as defined in section 354.05, subdivision 7. ~~In establishing these optional forms, the board of trustees shall obtain the written recommendation of the actuary retained by the legislative commission on pensions and retirement, and these recommendations shall be a part of the permanent records of the board of trustees.~~

Sec. 8. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 352.01, subdivision 12, is amended to read:

Subd. 12. [ACTUARIAL EQUIVALENT.] "Actuarial equivalent" means the condition of one annuity or benefit having an equal actuarial present value as another annuity or benefit, determined as of a given date at a specified age with each actuarial present value based on the appropriate mortality table adopted by the board of directors based on the experience of the fund as ~~recommended by the actuary retained by the legislative commission on pensions and retirement~~ and using the applicable preretirement or postretirement interest rate assumption specified in section 356.215, subdivision 4d.

Sec. 9. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 352.03, subdivision 6, is amended to read:

Subd. 6. [DUTIES AND POWERS OF EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR.] The management of the system is vested in the director, who is the executive and administrative head of the system. The director shall be advisor to the board on matters pertaining to the system and shall also act as the secretary of the board. The director shall:

- (1) attend meetings of the board;
- (2) prepare and recommend to the board appropriate rules to carry out this chapter;
- (3) establish and maintain an adequate system of records and accounts following recognized accounting principles and controls;
- (4) designate an assistant director with the approval of the board;

(5) appoint any employees, both permanent and temporary, that are necessary to carry out the provisions of this chapter;

(6) organize the work of the system as the director deems necessary to fulfill the functions of the system, and define the duties of its employees and delegate to them any powers or duties, subject to the control of the director and under conditions the director may prescribe. Appointments to exercise delegated power must be by written order and shall be filed with the secretary of state;

(7) with the advice and consent of the board, contract for the services of an approved actuary, professional management services, and any other consulting services as necessary and fix the compensation for those services. The contracts are not subject to competitive bidding under chapter 16B. Any approved actuary retained by the executive director shall function as the actuarial advisor of the board and the executive director, and may perform actuarial valuations and experience studies to supplement those performed by the actuary retained by the legislative commission on pensions and retirement. ~~Any supplemental~~ Actuarial valuations or experience studies shall be filed with the executive director of the legislative commission on pensions and retirement. Professional management services may not be contracted for more often than once in six years. Copies of professional management survey reports must be transmitted to the secretary of the senate, the chief clerk of the house of representatives, and the legislative reference library as provided by section 3.195, to the executive director of the commission and to the legislative auditor at the time as reports are furnished to the board. Only management firms experienced in conducting management surveys of federal, state, or local public retirement systems are qualified to contract with the director;

(8) with the advice and consent of the board provide in-service training for the employees of the system;

(9) make refunds of accumulated contributions to former state employees and to the designated beneficiary, surviving spouse, legal representative, or next of kin of deceased state employees or deceased former state employees, as provided in this chapter;

(10) determine the amount of the annuities and disability benefits of employees covered by the system and authorize payment of the annuities and benefits beginning as of the dates on which the annuities and benefits begin to accrue, in accordance with the provisions of this chapter;

(11) pay annuities, refunds, survivor benefits, salaries, and necessary operating expenses of the system;

(12) certify funds available for investment to the state board of investment;

(13) with the advice and approval of the board request the state board of investment to sell securities when the director determines that funds are needed for the system;

(14) prepare and submit to the board and the legislature an annual financial report covering the operation of the system, as required by section 356.20;

(15) prepare and submit biennial and quarterly budgets to the board and with the approval of the board submit the budgets to the department of finance; and

(16) with the approval of the board, perform other duties required to administer the retirement and other provisions of this chapter and to do its business.

Sec. 10. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 352.119, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [VALUATION OF ASSETS; ADJUSTMENT OF BENEFITS.] (a) The required reserves for retirement annuities or disability benefits under this chapter as determined in accordance with the appropriate mortality table adopted by the board of directors based on experience of the fund as recommended by the ~~commission-retained actuary~~ and using the interest assumption specified in section 356.215, subdivision 4d must be transferred to the Minnesota postretirement investment fund as of the last business day of the month in which the retirement annuity or disability benefit begins.

(b) Annuity and benefit payments must be adjusted in accordance with section 11A.18.

Sec. 11. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 352.85, subdivision 6, is amended to read:

Subd. 6. [ACTUARIAL VALUATION EXHIBIT.] Each valuation of the system prepared by the ~~commission-retained actuary~~ under section 356.215 shall include an exhibit pertaining to this special retirement program which shall set forth the normal cost of the special program.

Sec. 12. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 352.86, subdivision 4, is amended to read:

Subd. 4. [ACTUARIAL VALUATION EXHIBIT.] Each valuation of the system prepared by the ~~commission-retained actuary~~ under section 356.215 shall include an exhibit pertaining to this special retirement program which shall set forth the normal cost of the special program.

Sec. 13. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 352B.02, subdivision 1e, is amended to read:

Subd. 1e. [AUDIT; ACTUARIAL VALUATION.] The legislative auditor shall audit the fund. ~~Any actuarial valuation of the fund required under section 356.215 shall be prepared by the actuary retained by the legislative commission on pensions and retirement. Any approved actuary retained by the executive director under section 352.03, subdivision 6, may perform actuarial valuations required under section 356.215 and experience studies to supplement those performed by the commission-retained actuary. Any supplemental actuarial valuation or experience studies shall be filed with the executive director of the legislative commission on pensions and retirement.~~

Sec. 14. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 352B.08, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [OPTIONAL ANNUITY FORMS.] In lieu of the single life annuity provided in subdivision 2, the member or former member with five years or more of service may elect an optional annuity form. The board of the Minnesota state retirement system shall establish a joint and survivor annuity, payable to a designated beneficiary for life, adjusted to the actuarial equivalent value of the single life annuity. The board shall also establish an additional optional annuity with an actuarial equivalent value of the single life annuity in the form of a joint and survivor annuity which provides that the elected annuity be reinstated to the single life annuity provided in subdivision 2, if after commencing the elected joint and survivor annuity, the designated beneficiary dies before the member, which reinstatement is not retroactive but takes effect for the first full month occurring after the death of the designated beneficiary. The board may also establish other actuarial equivalent value optional annuity forms. In establishing actuarial equivalent value optional annuity forms, each optional annuity form shall have the same present value as a regular single life annuity using the mortality table adopted by the board and the interest assumption specified in section 356.215, subdivision 4d; ~~and the board shall obtain the written recommendation of the commission-retained actuary. These recommendations shall be a part of the permanent records of the board.~~

Sec. 15. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 352B.26, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [VALUATION OF ASSETS; ADJUSTMENT OF BENEFITS.] (a) For former members beginning receipt of annuities and qualified recipients of joint and survivor annuities and surviving spouse benefits, the required reserves must be determined in accordance with the appropriate mortality table adopted by the board of directors of the Minnesota state retirement system based on the experience of the fund as recommended by the ~~commission-retained actuary~~ and using the interest assumption specified in section 356.215, subdivision 4d. Assets representing the required reserves for these annuities must be transferred to the Minnesota postretirement investment fund as of the last business day of the month in which the retirement annuity begins as specified in section 11A.18.

(b) Annuity payments must be adjusted in accordance with section 11A.18.

(c) Notwithstanding section 356.18, an increase in annuity payments under this section must be made automatically unless written notice is filed by the annuitant with the executive director of the Minnesota state retirement system requesting that the increase not be made.

Sec. 16. [352C.11] [APPROPRIATION.]

The amounts required to pay benefits authorized by this chapter and to pay any necessary and reasonable administrative expenses are appropriated annually to the director from the general fund.

Sec. 17. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 353.01, subdivision 14, is amended to read:

Subd. 14. [ACTUARIAL EQUIVALENT.] "Actuarial equivalent" means the condition of one annuity or benefit having an equal actuarial present value as another annuity or benefit, determined as of a given date with each actuarial present value based on the appropriate mortality table adopted by the board of trustees based on the experience of the fund as recommended by the ~~actuary retained by the legislative commission on pensions and retirement~~ and using the applicable preretirement or postretirement interest rate assumption specified in section 356.215, subdivision 4d.

Sec. 18. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 353.03, subdivision 3a, is amended to read:

Subd. 3a. [EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR.] (a) [APPOINTMENT.] The board shall appoint, with the advice and consent of the senate, an executive director on the basis of education, experience in the retirement field, and leadership ability. The executive director shall have had at least five years' experience in an executive level management position, which has included responsibility for pensions, deferred compensation, or employee benefits. The executive director serves at the pleasure of the board. The salary of the executive director is as provided by section 15A.081, subdivision 1.

(b) [DUTIES.] The management of the association is vested in the executive director who shall be the executive and administrative head of the association. The executive director shall act as adviser to the board on all matters pertaining to the association and shall also act as the secretary of the board. The executive director shall:

- (1) attend all meetings of the board;
- (2) prepare and recommend to the board appropriate rules to carry out the provisions of this chapter;
- (3) establish and maintain an adequate system of records and accounts following recognized accounting principles and controls;
- (4) designate an assistant director, with the approval of the board, who shall serve in the unclassified service and whose salary is set in accordance with section 43A.18, subdivision 3, appoint a confidential secretary in the unclassified service, and appoint employees to carry out this chapter, who are subject to chapters 43A and 179A in the same manner as are executive branch employees;
- (5) organize the work of the association as the director deems necessary to fulfill the functions of the association, and define the duties of its employees and delegate to them any powers or duties, subject to the control of, and under such conditions as, the executive director may prescribe;
- (6) with the approval of the board, contract for the services of an approved actuary, professional management services, and any other consulting services as necessary to fulfill the purposes of this chapter. All contracts are subject to chapter 16B. The commissioner of administration shall not approve, and the association shall not enter into, any contract to provide lobbying services or legislative advocacy of any kind. Any approved actuary retained by the executive director shall function as the actuarial advisor of the board and the executive director and may perform actuarial valuations under section 356.215 and experience studies to supplement those performed by the actuary retained by the legislative commission on pensions and retirement. Any supplemental actuarial valuations or experience studies shall be filed with the executive director of the legislative commission on pensions and retirement. Copies of professional management survey reports shall be transmitted to the secretary of the senate, the chief clerk of the house of representatives, and the legislative reference library as provided by section 3.195, to the executive director of the commission and to the legislative auditor at the same time as reports are furnished to the board. Only management firms experienced in conducting management surveys of federal, state, or local public retirement systems shall be qualified to contract with the director hereunder;
- (7) with the approval of the board provide in-service training for the employees of the association;

(8) make refunds of accumulated contributions to former members and to the designated beneficiary, surviving spouse, legal representative or next of kin of deceased members or deceased former members, as provided in this chapter;

(9) determine the amount of the annuities and disability benefits of members covered by the association and authorize payment of the annuities and benefits beginning as of the dates on which the annuities and benefits begin to accrue, in accordance with the provisions of this chapter;

(10) pay annuities, refunds, survivor benefits, salaries, and necessary operating expenses of the association;

(11) prepare and submit to the board and the legislature an annual financial report covering the operation of the association, as required by section 356.20;

(12) prepare and submit biennial and annual budgets to the board for its approval and submit the approved budgets to the department of finance for approval by the commissioner; and

(13) with the approval of the board, perform such other duties as may be required for the administration of the association and the other provisions of this chapter and for the transaction of its business.

Sec. 19. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 353.271, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [VALUATION OF ASSETS; ADJUSTMENT OF BENEFITS.] (1) The required reserves for retirement annuities payable as provided in this chapter other than those payable from the various local relief association consolidation accounts, as determined in accordance with the appropriate mortality table adopted by the board of trustees based on the experience of the fund as recommended by the actuary retained by the legislative commission on pensions and retirement, and using the postretirement interest assumption specified in section 356.215, subdivision 4d, shall be transferred to the Minnesota postretirement investment fund as of the last business day of the month in which the retirement annuity begins.

(2) Annuity payments other than those payable from the various local relief association consolidation accounts shall be adjusted in accordance with the provisions of section 11A.18.

(3) Notwithstanding section 356.18, increases in payments pursuant to this section or from the various local relief association consolidation accounts, if applicable, will be made automatically unless the intended recipient files written notice with the executive director of the public employees retirement association requesting that the increase shall not be made.

Sec. 20. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 353.29, subdivision 6, is amended to read:

Subd. 6. [RETIREMENT BEFORE ELIGIBILITY FOR SOCIAL SECURITY BENEFITS.] A member or former member who retires before becoming eligible for social security retirement benefits may elect to receive an optional retirement annuity from the association that provides for different annuity amounts over different periods of retirement. The election of this optional retirement annuity must be exercised by making application to the board of trustees. The optional annuity must take the form of an annuity payable for the period before the annuitant becomes eligible for social security old age retirement benefits in a greater amount than the amount of the annuity calculated under subdivisions 2 and 3 on the basis of the age of the annuitant at retirement. The optional annuity must be the actuarial equivalent of the normal retirement annuity computed on the basis of age at retirement. This greater amount must be paid until the annuitant reaches age 62, at which time the payment from the association must be reduced. The board of trustees shall establish the method of computing the optional retirement annuity under this subdivision. ~~In establishing the method of computing the optional retirement annuity, the board of trustees shall obtain the written approval of the commission-retained actuary. The recommendations must be a part of the permanent records of the board of trustees.~~

Sec. 21. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 353.30, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [OPTIONAL RETIREMENT ANNUITY FORMS.] The board of trustees shall establish optional annuities which shall take the form of a joint and survivor annuity. Except as provided in subdivision 3a, the optional annuity forms shall be actuarially equivalent to the forms provided in section 353.29 and subdivisions 1, 1a, 1b, 1c, and 5. ~~In establishing these optional forms, the board shall obtain the written recommendation of the commission-retained actuary. The recommendations shall be a part of the permanent records of board.~~ A member or former member may select an optional form of annuity in lieu of accepting any other form of annuity which might otherwise be available.

Sec. 22. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 354.05, subdivision 7, is amended to read:

Subd. 7. [ACTUARIAL EQUIVALENT.] "Actuarial equivalent" means the condition of one annuity or benefit having an equal actuarial present value as another annuity or benefit, determined as of a given date with each actuarial present value based on the appropriate mortality table adopted by the board of trustees based on the experience of the fund as recommended by the actuary retained by the legislative commission on pensions and retirement and using the applicable preretirement or postretirement interest rate assumption specified in section 356.215, subdivision 4d.

Sec. 23. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 354.06, subdivision 2a, is amended to read:

Subd. 2a. [DUTIES OF EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR.] The management of the association is vested in the executive director who shall be the executive and administrative head of the association. The executive director shall act as advisor to the board on all matters pertaining to the association and shall also act as the secretary of the board. The executive director shall:

- (1) attend all meetings of the board;
- (2) prepare and recommend to the board appropriate rules to carry out the provisions of this chapter;
- (3) establish and maintain an adequate system of records and accounts following recognized accounting principles and controls;
- (4) designate an assistant executive director in the unclassified service and two assistant executive directors in the classified service with the approval of the board, and appoint such employees, both permanent and temporary, as are necessary to carry out the provisions of said chapter;
- (5) organize the work of the association as the director deems necessary to fulfill the functions of the association, and define the duties of its employees and delegate to them any powers or duties, subject to the director's control and under such conditions as the director may prescribe;
- (6) with the approval of the board, contract for the services of an approved actuary, professional management services, and any other consulting services as may be necessary and fix the compensation therefor. Such contracts shall not be subject to the competitive bidding procedure prescribed by chapter 16B. Professional management services may not be contracted for more often than once in every six years. Any approved actuary retained by the executive director shall function as the actuarial advisor of the board and the executive director and may perform actuarial valuations under section 356.215 and experience studies to supplement those performed by the actuary retained by the legislative commission on pensions and retirement. Any supplemental actuarial valuations or experience studies shall be filed with the executive director of the legislative commission on pensions and retirement. Copies of professional management survey reports shall be transmitted to the secretary of the senate, the chief clerk of the house of representatives, and the legislative reference library as provided by section 3.195, to the executive director of the commission and to the legislative auditor at the same time as reports are furnished to the board. Only management firms experienced in conducting management surveys of federal, state, or local public retirement systems shall be qualified to contract with the director hereunder;

(7) with the approval of the board, provide in-service training for the employees of the association;

(8) make refunds of accumulated contributions to former members and to the designated beneficiary, surviving spouse, legal representative, or next of kin of deceased members or deceased former members, as provided in this chapter;

(9) determine the amount of the annuities and disability benefits of members covered by the association and authorize payment of the annuities and benefits beginning as of the dates on which the annuities and benefits begin to accrue, in accordance with the provisions of this chapter;

(10) pay annuities, refunds, survivor benefits, salaries, and necessary operating expenses of the association;

(11) prepare and submit to the board and the legislature an annual financial report covering the operation of the association, as required by section 356.20;

(12) certify funds available for investment to the state board of investment;

(13) with the advice and approval of the board, request the state board of investment to sell securities on determining that funds are needed for the purposes of the association;

(14) prepare and submit biennial and annual budgets to the board and with the approval of the board submit those budgets to the department of finance; and

(15) with the approval of the board, perform such other duties as may be required for the administration of the association and the other provisions of this chapter and for the transaction of its business.

Sec. 24. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 354.07, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [GENERAL POWERS OF THE BOARD.] The board has the power to frame bylaws for its own government and for the management of the fund not inconsistent with the laws of the state and to modify them at its pleasure; to adopt, alter, and enforce reasonable rules not inconsistent with the laws of the state for the administration and management of the fund, for the payment and collection of payments from members, and for the payment of withdrawals and benefits; to pass upon and allow or disallow applications for membership in the fund and for credit for teaching service; to pass upon and allow or disallow claims for withdrawals, pensions, or benefits payable from the fund; to adopt an appropriate mortality table based on experience of the fund as recommended by the commission-retained actuary and using the applicable post-retirement interest assumption specified in section 356.215, subdivision 4d; to provide for the payment out of the fund of necessary expenses for the administration of the fund and of claims for withdrawals, pensions, or benefits allowed.

Sec. 25. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 354.35, is amended to read:

354.35 [OPTIONAL ACCELERATED RETIREMENT ANNUITY BEFORE AGE 65.]

Any coordinated member who retires before age 65 may elect to receive an optional accelerated retirement annuity from the association which provides for different annuity amounts over different periods of retirement. The election of this optional accelerated retirement annuity shall be exercised by making an application to the board on a form provided by the board. The optional accelerated retirement annuity shall take the form of an annuity payable for the period before the member attains normal retirement age in a greater amount than the amount of the annuity calculated under section 354.44 on the basis of the age of the member at retirement, but the optional accelerated retirement annuity must be the actuarial equivalent of the member's annuity computed on the basis of the member's age at retirement. The greater amount must be paid until the retiree reaches normal retirement age and at that time the payment from the association must be reduced. For each year the retiree is under age 65, up to five percent of the total life annuity required reserves may be used to accelerate the optional retirement annuity under this section. The method of computing the optional accelerated retirement annuity provided in this section shall be established by the board of trustees. In establishing the method of computing the optional accelerated retirement annuity, the board of trustees must obtain the written approval of the commission-retained actuary. The written approval must be a part of the permanent records of the board of trustees.

Sec. 26. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 354.42, subdivision 5, is amended to read:

Subd. 5. [ADDITIONAL EMPLOYER CONTRIBUTION.] To amortize the unfunded actuarial accrued liability computed under the entry age actuarial cost method and disclosed under the annual actuarial valuations prepared by the commission-retained actuary under section 356.215, an additional employer contribution shall be made in the amount of 4.48 percent of the salary of each member. This contribution shall be made in the manner provided in section 354.43.

Sec. 27. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 354A.011, subdivision 3a, is amended to read:

Subd. 3a. [ACTUARIAL EQUIVALENT.] "Actuarial equivalent" means the condition of one annuity or benefit having an equal actuarial present value as another annuity or benefit, determined as of a given date with each actuarial present value based on the appropriate mortality table adopted by the appropriate board of trustees based on the experience of that retirement fund association as recommended by the actuary retained by the legislative commission on pensions and retirement and using the applicable preretirement or postretirement interest rate assumption specified in section 356.215, subdivision 4d.

Sec. 28. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 354A.021, subdivision 7, is amended to read:

Subd. 7. [ACTUARIAL CONSULTANT.] The board of trustees or directors of each teachers retirement fund association may contract for the services of an approved actuary and fix the reasonable compensation for those services. Any approved actuary retained by the board shall function as the actuarial advisor to the board and may perform actuarial valuations under section 356.215 and experience studies to supplement those performed by the actuary retained by the legislative commission on pensions and retirement. Any supplemental actuarial valuations or experience studies shall be filed with the executive director of the legislative commission on pensions and retirement.

Sec. 29. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 354A.32, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [OPTIONAL FORMS GENERALLY.] The boards of the Minneapolis and the St. Paul teachers retirement fund associations shall each establish for the coordinated program and the board of the Duluth teachers retirement fund association shall establish for the new law coordinated program an optional retirement annuity which shall take the form of a joint and survivor annuity. Each board may also in its discretion establish an optional annuity which shall take the form of an annuity payable for a period certain and for life thereafter. Except as provided in subdivision 1a, optional annuity forms shall be the actuarial equivalent of the normal forms provided in section 354A.31. In establishing these optional annuity forms, the board shall obtain the written recommendation of the commission-retained actuary. The recommendation shall be a part of the permanent records of the board.

Sec. 30. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 354A.33, is amended to read:

354A.33 [SOCIAL SECURITY LEVELING ADJUSTMENT OPTION.]

Any coordinated member who retires prior to the time the member becomes eligible for social security old age retirement benefits shall be entitled to elect to receive a social security leveling adjustment optional annuity from the teachers retirement fund association. The social security leveling adjustment optional annuity shall be established by the board of the teachers retirement fund association. It shall take the form of an annuity payable for the period prior to the member's becoming eligible for social security old age retirement benefits in an amount greater than the amount of the member's annuity calculated pursuant to section 354A.31 on the basis of the age of the member at retirement but equal insofar as possible to the social security old age retirement benefit and the adjusted retirement annuity amounts payable immediately subsequent to becoming eligible for social security old age retirement benefits in an amount less than the amount of the member's annuity calculated pursuant to section 354A.31 on the basis of the age of the member at retirement. The optional form shall be the actuarial equivalent to the normal forms provided in section 354A.31. In establishing the optional form, the board shall obtain the written recommendation of the commission-retained actuary and the recommendation shall be a part of the permanent records of the board.

Sec. 31. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 354A.41, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [ACTUARIAL VALUATIONS.] In any actuarial valuation of the Minneapolis teachers retirement fund association, the St. Paul teachers retirement fund association, or the Duluth teachers retirement fund association under section 356.215 prepared by the commission-retained actuary or supplemental actuarial valuation prepared by an approved actuary retained by the teachers retirement fund association, there shall be included a finding of the condition of the fund showing separately the basic and coordinated programs or the old law coordinated and new law coordinated programs, as appropriate. The finding shall include the level normal cost and the applicable employee and employer contribution rates for each program.

Sec. 32. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 356.20, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [FILING REQUIREMENT.] The financial report is a public record. A copy of the report or a synopsis of the report containing the information required by this section shall be distributed annually to each member of the fund and to the governing body of each governmental subdivision of the state which makes employers contributions thereto or in whose behalf taxes are levied for the employers' contribution. A signed copy of the report shall be delivered to the executive director of the legislative commission on pensions and retirement and to the legislative reference library not later than six months after the close of each fiscal year or one month following the completion and delivery to the retirement fund of the actuarial valuation report of the fund by the actuary retained by the legislative commission on pensions and retirement fund, if applicable, whichever is later.

Sec. 33. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 356.20, subdivision 4, is amended to read:

Subd. 4. [CONTENTS OF FINANCIAL REPORT.] The financial report required by this section shall include:

(1) An exhibit based on the actuarial valuation prepared by the ~~commission retained actuary~~ according to applicable actuarial requirements enumerated in section 356.215, and specified in standards adopted by the legislative commission on pensions and retirement. The exhibit shall show the accrued assets of the fund, the accrued liabilities, including accrued reserves, and the unfunded actuarial accrued liability of the fund. The exhibit shall contain the certificate of the actuary retained by the legislative commission on pensions and retirement fund specifying that the required reserves for any retirement, disability, or survivor benefits provided under a benefit formula are computed in accordance with the entry age actuarial cost method and any applicable standards adopted by the legislative commission on pensions and retirement.

(a) Assets shown in the exhibit shall include the following items of actual assets:

Cash in office

Deposits in banks

Accounts receivable:

Accrued members' contributions

Accrued employer contributions

Other

- Accrued interest on investments
- Dividends on stocks, declared but not yet received
- Investment in bonds at cost
- Investment in stocks at cost
- Investment in real estate
- Equipment at cost, less depreciation
- Other
- Total assets

(b) The exhibit shall include a statement of the actuarial value of current assets as specified in section 356.215, subdivision 4, including:

- Cash, cash equivalents, and short-term securities
- Fixed income investments
- Equity investments
- Real estate investments
- Equity in the Minnesota postretirement investment fund
- Other

(c) The exhibit shall include a statement of the unfunded actuarial accrued liability of the fund which shall include the following measures of unfunded actuarial accrued liability, using the actuarial value of current assets as specified in section 356.215, subdivision 1:

- (i) unfunded actuarial accrued liability, which shall be determined by subtracting the current assets and the present value of future normal costs from the total current and expected future benefit obligations; and
- (ii) current unfunded actuarial liability, which is the total current benefit obligations less the total current assets; and
- (iii) current and future unfunded actuarial liability, which is the total current and expected future benefit obligations less the total current and expected future assets.

If the assets of the fund exceed the actuarial liabilities, the excess shall be listed as a surplus and indicated in the exhibit following the itemization of benefit obligations.

(d) The exhibit shall include a footnote showing accumulated member contributions without interest.

(e) Current liabilities shown in the exhibit shall include the following items:

Current:

Accounts payable Retirement annuity payments

Disability benefit payments

Refund to members

Accrued expenses

Suspense items

Total current liabilities

(f) The exhibit shall include a schedule which shall be listed as the "current and expected future benefit obligations." The schedule shall contain the following information on the benefit obligations:

1. Current benefit obligations, which shall be the actuarial value of benefit obligations on account of service rendered to date, separately identified as follows

(a) For annuitants

Retirement annuities

Disability benefits

Surviving spouse and child benefits

(b) For former members without vested rights

(c) For deferred annuitants' benefits, including any augmentation

(d) For active employees

Retirement annuities

Disability benefits

Refund liability due to death or withdrawal

Survivors' benefits

Total current benefits obligations

2. Expected future benefit obligations, which shall be the actuarial value of benefit obligations on account of future service for active employees

3. Total current and expected future benefit obligations

4. In addition to the foregoing, if there are additional benefits not appropriately covered by the foregoing three items of benefit obligations, they shall be listed separately.

(2) An income statement prepared on an accrual basis showing all income and all deductions from income for the fiscal year. The statement shall show separate items for employee contributions, employer regular contributions, employer additional contributions if provided by law, investment income, profit on the sale of investments, and other income, if any.

(3) A statement of deductions from income, which shall include separate items for the payment of retirement annuities, disability benefits, surviving spouse benefits, surviving children's benefits, refunds to members terminating employment, refunds due to death of members and due to death of annuitants, the increase in total reserves required, general administrative expense incurred, loss on sale of investments, and any other deductions.

(4) A statement showing appropriate statistics concerning the membership and beneficiaries of the fund, with indications of changes in the statistical data which may result from the current year's operation.

(5) Any additional statements or exhibits which will enable the management of the fund to portray a true interpretation of the fund's financial condition, except that the term "surplus" or the term "excess of assets" shall not be used except as otherwise specifically provided for in this section, nor shall any representation of assets and liabilities other than as provided for in this section be included in the additional statements or exhibits.

(6) A more detailed or subdivided itemization of any of the items required by this section, if the management of the fund so desires.

Sec. 34. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 356.215, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [REQUIREMENTS.] It is the policy of the legislature that it is necessary and appropriate to determine annually the financial status of tax supported retirement and pension plans for public employees. To achieve this goal, the legislative commission on pensions and retirement governing boards of the retirement systems in section 3.85, subdivision 11, paragraph (b), shall have prepared annual actuarial valuations and periodic biennial experience studies of the public pension and retirement plans enumerated in section 3.85, subdivision 12, clause (b), and the governing that cover five-year periods prepared by the approved actuaries they retain. The approved actuary retained by the legislative commission on pensions and retirement shall audit and verify the valuation and experience study results and perform other duties specified in the contract described in section 3.85, subdivision 11. The governing or managing board or administrative officials of each public pension and retirement fund or plan enumerated in section 356.20, subdivision 2, clauses (9), (10), and (12) shall also have prepared annual actuarial valuations and periodic experience studies of their respective funds as provided in this section. This requirement shall also apply to any fund which may be a successor to any organization enumerated in section 356.20, subdivision 2, or to the governing or managing board or administrative officials of any newly formed retirement fund or association operating under the control or supervision of any public employee group, governmental unit, or institution receiving a portion of its support through legislative appropriations, and any local police or fire fund coming within the provisions of section 356.216.

Sec. 35. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 356.215, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [REPORTS.] The actuarial valuations required annually under subdivision 2 shall be made as of the beginning of each fiscal year by the retirement system actuaries. Two copies of the valuation shall be delivered to the executive director of the legislative commission on pensions and retirement, to the actuary retained by the commission, the commissioner of finance, and to the legislative reference library, not later than the first day of the sixth month occurring after the end of the previous fiscal year. Two copies of any the experience study prepared periodically as provided for in the standards adopted by the commission studies required under subdivision 2 shall also be filed with the executive director of the legislative commission on pensions and retirement, with the actuary retained by the commission, the commissioner of finance, and with the legislative reference library, not later than the first last day of the 11th ninth month occurring after the end of the last fiscal year of the five-year period which the experience study covers. For actuarial valuations and experience studies prepared at the direction of the legislative commission on pensions and retirement, two copies of the document shall be delivered to the governing or managing board or administrative officials of the applicable public pension and retirement fund or plan.

Sec. 36. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 356.215, subdivision 5, is amended to read:

Subd. 5. [EXPERIENCE STUDY; CONTENTS.] Each experience study required under subdivision 2 shall contain an actuarial analysis of the five-year experience of the fund or association and a comparison of the experience with the actuarial assumptions on which the most recent actuarial valuation of the retirement fund or relief association was based, and shall also contain a statement of the average ages at which service retirements have taken place.

Sec. 37. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 356.215, subdivision 6, is amended to read:

Subd. 6. [APPROVED ACTUARIES.] Each actuarial valuation or experience study shall be made and any actuarial consulting services for a retirement fund or plan shall be provided by an approved actuary. The actuarial valuation or valuations and experience study studies required under subdivision 2 shall include a certification that it has been prepared in accordance with the provisions of sections 356.20 to 356.23 and the standards for actuarial work adopted by the legislative commission on pensions and retirement.

Sec. 38. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 356.215, subdivision 7, is amended to read:

Subd. 7. [ESTABLISHMENT OF ACTUARIAL ASSUMPTIONS.] Actuarial assumptions used for actuarial valuations under this section that are other than those set forth in this section may be changed only with the approval of the legislative commission on pensions and retirement. A change in the applicable actuarial assumptions may be proposed by the governing board of the applicable pension fund or relief association, by the actuary retained by the legislative commission on pensions and retirement, by the actuarial advisor retained by a pension fund governed by chapter 352, 353, 354, or 354A, or by the actuary retained by a local police or firefighters relief association governed by sections 69.77 or 69.771 to 69.776.

Sec. 39. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 422A.01, subdivision 6, is amended to read:

Subd. 6. [PRESENT VALUE.] "Present worth" or "present value" means that the present amount of money if increased at the applicable postretirement or preretirement interest rate assumption specified in section 356.215, subdivision 4d, and based on the mortality table adopted by the board of trustees based on the experience of the fund as recommended by the actuary retained by the legislative commission on pensions and retirement will at retirement equal the actuarial accrued liability of the annuity already earned.

Sec. 40. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 422A.04, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [EXPERIENCE DATA AND MORTALITY TABLES.] The board shall prepare and keep any needful tables, records, and accounts required for carrying out the provisions of sections 422A.01 to 422A.25, including data showing the mortality and disability experience of the officers and employees of the service and the date of withdrawal from service, and any other information that may serve as a guide for future actuarial valuations and adjustments in the actuarial assumptions for the retirement fund. Mortality tables shall be adopted and may be modified from time to time by the board based on the experience of the fund as recommended by the actuary retained by the legislative commission on pensions and retirement as a basis of calculation for retirement allowances, with any recommendation by the actuary retained as a part of the permanent records of the board.

Sec. 41. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 422A.06, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [ACTUARIAL VALUATION REQUIRED.] As of July 1 of each year, an actuarial valuation of the retirement fund shall be prepared by the ~~commission retained~~ approved actuary retained by the board and filed in conformance with the provisions and requirements of sections 356.215 to 356.23. Experience studies shall be prepared at those times required by statute, required by the standards for actuarial work adopted by the legislative commission on pensions and retirement or ordered by the board.

The board may shall contract for the services of an approved actuary and fix the reasonable compensation for those services. Any The approved actuary retained by the board shall function as the actuarial advisor to the board and may shall perform actuarial valuations and experience studies to supplement those performed by the actuary retained by the legislative commission on pensions and retirement. Any supplemental actuarial valuations or experience studies shall be filed with the executive director of the legislative commission on pensions and retirement.

Sec. 42. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 422A.06, subdivision 5, is amended to read:

Subd. 5. [TRANSFER OF RESERVES TO RETIREMENT BENEFIT FUND; ADJUSTMENTS OF ANNUITIES AND BENEFITS.] (a) Assets equal to the required reserves for retirement annuities as determined in accordance with the appropriate mortality table adopted by the board of trustees based on the experience of the fund as recommended by the ~~commission retained~~ actuary and using the postretirement interest assumption specified in section 356.215, subdivision 4d, shall be transferred to the disability benefit fund as provided in subdivision 7, or the retirement benefit fund, except for any amounts payable from the survivor benefit fund, as of date of retirement.

(b) Annuity payments shall be adjusted in accordance with this chapter, except that no minimum retirement payments described in this chapter shall include any amounts payable from the survivors' benefit fund or disability benefit fund and supplemented benefits specifically financed by statute.

(c) Notwithstanding the provisions of section 356.18, increases in annuity payments pursuant to this section shall be made automatically unless written notice on a form prescribed by the board is filed with the retirement board requesting that the increase not be made.

(d) Any additional annuity which began to accrue on July 1, 1973, or which began to accrue on January 1, 1974, pursuant to Laws 1973, chapter 770, section 1, shall be considered as part of the base amount to be used in determining any postretirement adjustments payable pursuant to the provisions of subdivision 8.

Sec. 43. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 422A.06, subdivision 8, is amended to read:

Subd. 8. [RETIREMENT BENEFIT FUND.] The retirement benefit fund shall consist of amounts held for payment of retirement allowances for members retired pursuant to this chapter. Assets equal to the required reserves for retirement allowances pursuant to this chapter determined in accordance with the appropriate mortality table adopted by the board of trustees based on the experience of the fund as recommended by the ~~commission retained~~ actuary shall be transferred from the deposit accumulation fund to the retirement benefit fund as of the last business day of the month in which the retirement allowance begins. The income from investments of these assets shall be allocated to this fund. There shall be paid from this fund the retirement annuities authorized by law. A required reserve calculation for the retirement benefit fund must be made by the actuary retained by the ~~legislative commission on pensions and retirement and must be certified to the retirement board by the commission retained~~ actuary. The retirement benefit fund shall be governed by the applicable laws governing the accounting and audit procedures, investment, actuarial requirements, calculation and payment of postretirement benefit adjustments, discharge of any deficiency in the assets of the fund when compared to the actuarially determined required reserves, and other applicable operations and procedures regarding the Minnesota postretirement investment fund established pursuant to section 11A.18, and any legal or administrative interpretations of those laws of the state board of investment, the legal advisor to the board of investment and the executive director of the state board of investment. If a deferred yield adjustment account is established for the Minnesota postretirement investment fund under section 11A.18, subdivision 5, the retirement board shall also establish and maintain a deferred yield adjustment account within this fund.

Annually, following the calculation of any postretirement adjustment payable from the retirement benefit fund, the board of trustees shall submit a report to the executive director of the legislative commission on pensions and retirement and to the commissioner of finance indicating the amount of any postretirement adjustment and the underlying calculations on which that postretirement adjustment amount is based, including the amount of dividends, the amount of interest, and the amount of net realized capital gains or losses utilized in the calculations.

Sec. 44. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 422A.101, as amended by Laws 1989, chapter 329, article 9; section 28, is amended to read:

422A.101 [PREPARATION OF FINANCIAL REQUIREMENTS OF FUND; EMPLOYER CONTRIBUTIONS.]

Subdivision 1. [FINANCIAL REQUIREMENTS OF FUND.] Prior to August 31 annually, the retirement board, ~~in consultation with the commission-retained actuary,~~ shall prepare an itemized statement of the financial requirements of the fund for the succeeding fiscal year. A copy of the statement shall be submitted to the city council, the board of estimate and taxation of the city, the managing board or chief administrative officer of each city owned public utility, improvement project or municipal activity supported in whole or in part by revenues other than real estate taxes, public corporation, or unit of metropolitan government employing members of the fund, the board of special school district No. 1, and the state commissioner of finance prior to September 15 annually. The statement shall be itemized and shall include the following:

(1) an estimate of the administrative expenses of the fund for the following year, which shall be determined by multiplying the figure for administrative expenses as reported in the most recent actuarial valuation prepared by the ~~commission-retained~~ board's actuary by the factor of 1.035;

(2) an estimate of the normal cost of the fund expressed as a dollar amount, which shall be determined by applying the normal cost of the fund as reported in the most recent actuarial valuation prepared by the ~~commission-retained~~ board's actuary and expressed as a percentage of covered payroll ~~to the estimated total covered payroll~~ of all employees covered by the fund for the following year;

(3) an estimate of the contribution required to amortize on a level annual dollar basis the unfunded actuarial accrued liability of the fund by June 30, 2017, using an interest rate of five percent compounded annually as reported in the most recent actuarial valuation, prepared by the ~~commission-retained~~ board's actuary expressed as a dollar amount. In determining the amount of the unfunded actuarial accrued liability of the fund, all assets other than the assets of the retirement benefit fund shall be valued as current assets as defined under section 356.215, subdivision 1, clause (5), and the assets of the retirement benefit fund shall be valued equal to the actuarially determined required reserves for benefits payable from that fund;

(4) the amount of any deficiency in the actual amount of any employer contribution provided for in this section when compared to the required contribution amount certified for the previous year, plus interest on the amount at the rate of six percent per annum.

Subd. 1a. [CITY CONTRIBUTIONS.] Prior to August 31 of each year, the retirement board shall prepare an itemized statement of the financial requirements of the fund payable by the city for the succeeding fiscal year, and a copy of the statement shall be submitted to the board of estimate and taxation and to the city council by September 15. The financial requirements of the fund payable by the city shall be calculated as follows:

(a) a regular employer contribution of an amount equal to the percentage rounded to the nearest two decimal places of the salaries and wages of all employees covered by the retirement fund which equals the difference between the level normal cost plus administrative cost as reported in the annual actuarial valuation prepared by the ~~commission-retained~~ board's actuary and the employee contributions provided for in section 422A.10 less any amounts contributed toward the payment of the balance of the normal cost not paid by employee contributions by any city owned public utility, improvement project, other municipal activities supported in whole or in part by revenues other than real estate taxes, any public corporation, any employing unit of metropolitan government, or by special school district No. 1 pursuant to subdivision 2;

(b) an additional employer contribution of an amount equal to the percent specified in section 353.27, subdivision 3a, clause (a), multiplied by the salaries and wages of all employees covered by the retirement fund less any amounts contributed toward amortization of the unfunded actuarial accrued liability by June 30, 2017, attributable to their respective covered employees by any city owned public utility, improvement project, other municipal activities supported in whole or in part by revenues other than real estate taxes, any public corporation, any employing unit of metropolitan government, or by special school district No. 1 pursuant to subdivision 2; and accrued liability attributed to the city as disclosed in the annual actuarial valuation prepared by the ~~commission-retained~~ board's actuary.

The city council shall, in addition to other taxes levied by the city, annually levy a tax equal to the amount of the financial requirements of the fund which are payable by the city. The tax, when levied, shall be extended upon the county lists and shall be collected and enforced in the same manner as other taxes levied by the city. If the city does not levy a tax sufficient to meet the requirements of this subdivision, the retirement board shall submit the tax levy statement directly to the county auditor, who shall levy the tax. The tax, when levied, shall be extended upon the county lists and shall be collected and paid into the city treasury to the credit of the retirement fund. Any amount to the credit of the retirement fund shall constitute a special fund and shall be used only for the payment of obligations authorized pursuant to this chapter.

Subd. 2. [CONTRIBUTIONS BY OR FOR CITY-OWNED PUBLIC UTILITIES, IMPROVEMENTS, OR MUNICIPAL ACTIVITIES.] Contributions by or for any city-owned public utility, improvement project, and other municipal activities supported in whole or in part by revenues other than real estate taxes, any public corporation, any employing unit of metropolitan government, special school district No. 1, or Hennepin county, on account of any employee covered by the fund, shall be calculated as follows:

(a) a regular employer contribution of an amount equal to the percentage rounded to the nearest two decimal places of the salaries and wages of all employees of the employing unit covered by the retirement fund which equals the difference between the level normal cost plus administrative cost reported in the annual actuarial valuation prepared by the ~~commission-retained~~ board's actuary and the employee contributions provided for in section 422A.10;

(b) an additional employer contribution of an amount equal to the percent specified in section 353.27, subdivision 3a, clause (a), multiplied by the salaries and wages of all employees of the employing unit covered by the retirement fund;

(c) a proportional share of an additional employer amortization contribution of an amount equal to $3,900,000 annually until June 30, 2017, based upon the share of the fund's unfunded actuarial accrued liability attributed to the employer as disclosed in the annual actuarial valuation prepared by the ~~commission-retained~~ board's actuary.

The city council or any board or commission may, by proper action, provide for the inclusion of the cost of the retirement contributions for employees of any city-owned public utility or for persons employed in any improvement project or other municipal activity supported in whole or in part by revenues other than taxes who are covered by the retirement fund in the cost of operating the utility, improvement project, or municipal activity. The cost of retirement contributions for these employees shall be determined by the retirement board and the respective governing bodies having jurisdiction over the financing of these operating costs.

The cost of the employer contributions on behalf of employees of special school district No. 1 who are covered by the retirement fund shall be the obligation of the school district. Contributions by the school district to the retirement fund or any other public pension or retirement fund of which its employees are members must be remitted to the fund each month. An amount due and not transmitted begins to accrue interest at the rate of six percent compounded annually 15 days after the date due. The retirement board shall prepare an itemized statement of the financial requirements of the fund payable by the school district, which shall be submitted prior to September 15. Contributions by the school district shall be made at times designated by the retirement board. The school district may levy for its contribution to the retirement fund only to the extent permitted pursuant to section 275.125, subdivision 6a.

The cost of the employer contributions on behalf of elective officers or other employees of Hennepin county who are covered by the retirement fund pursuant to section 422A.09, subdivision 3, clause (2), 422A.22, subdivision 2, or 488A.115, or Laws 1973, chapter 380, section 3, Laws 1975, chapter 402, section 2, or any other applicable law shall be the obligation of Hennepin county. The retirement board shall prepare an itemized statement of the financial requirements of the fund payable by Hennepin county, which shall be submitted prior to September 15. Contributions by Hennepin county shall be made at times designated by the retirement board. Hennepin county may levy for its contribution to the retirement fund.

Subd. 2a. [CONTRIBUTIONS BY METROPOLITAN AIRPORT COMMISSION AND METROPOLITAN WASTE CONTROL COMMISSION.] The metropolitan airport commission and the waste control commission shall pay to the Minneapolis employees retirement fund annually in installments as specified in subdivision 3 the share of the additional support rate required for full amortization of the unfunded actuarial accrued liabilities by June 30, 2017, that is attributable to airport commission or waste control commission employees who are members of the fund. The amount of the payment shall be determined utilizing the most recent actuarial valuation prepared by the actuary retained by the ~~legislative commission on pensions and retirement board~~.

Subd. 3. [STATE CONTRIBUTIONS.] The state shall pay to the Minneapolis employees retirement fund annually an amount equal to the financial requirements of the Minneapolis employees retirement fund reported in the actuarial valuation of the fund prepared by the ~~commission retained~~ board's actuary pursuant to section 356.215 for the most recent year but based on a target date for full amortization of the unfunded actuarial accrued liabilities by June 30, 2017, less the amount of employee contributions required pursuant to section 422A.10, and the amount of employer contributions required pursuant to subdivisions 1a, 2, and 2a. Payments shall be made in four equal installments, occurring on March 15, July 15, September 15, and November 15 annually.

Sec. 45. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 422A.15, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [WITHDRAWAL OF VOLUNTARY CONTRIBUTIONS.] Voluntary additions to the employee's deposits made by the employee under section 422A.10 may be withdrawn by the retiring employee or, with the approval of the retirement board, applied to the purchase of an additional annuity computed and determined under a procedure specified by the actuary retained by the ~~legislative commission on pensions and retirement~~ board utilizing the appropriate mortality table established by the board of trustees based on the experience of the fund as ~~recommended by the commission-retained actuary~~ and using the applicable postretirement interest rate assumption specified in section 356.215, subdivision 4d.

Sec. 46. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 422A.15, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [OPTIONAL DEFINED CONTRIBUTION ANNUITY.] In lieu of the formula pension and annuity, a person who was a contributing member on April 28, 1973, who is eligible to retire and who ceases to be employed and who qualifies for retirement shall have the option of electing to receive a retirement allowance known as "the $2 bill and annuity."

If a member of the contributing class makes the election provided for in this section, the member shall receive a minimum pension of $2 per month for each year of service. The pension shall be the actuarial equivalent of the accumulated amounts of the annual installments as may be fixed and designated by law throughout the period of service of the retiring employee, not to exceed 25 years, accumulated to the date of retirement at six percent compound interest, and such extra credit to be provided by the city as will produce the minimum pension of $2 per month for each year of service. The pension shall be in addition to the annuity. The annuity shall be in the actuarial equivalent of the net accumulated contributions to the credit of the retiring employee, calculated at the date of retirement. For the purposes of this chapter, the "service allowance" for members of the contributing class shall consist of an "annuity" and a "pension."

The pension provided for herein shall be the actuarial equivalent of the accumulated annual installments of $2 per month for each year of service. The sum of $2 shall be computed as a single life annuity and subject to the option selections provided for in section 422A.17. The pension and annuity provided for in this subdivision shall be first paid from the contributing member's own contributions and normal earned credits, plus interest, until those credits are exhausted.

The retirement allowance provided under this subdivision or any optional annuity form of the retirement allowance shall be computed and determined under a procedure specified by the ~~commission-retained~~ actuary utilizing the appropriate mortality table established by the board of trustees based on the experience of the fund as recommended by the ~~actuary retained by the legislative commission on pensions and retirement~~ and using the applicable postretirement interest rate assumption specified in section 356.215, subdivision 4d.

Sec. 47. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 422A.16, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [DEFERRED DEFINED CONTRIBUTION ANNUITY.] A person who is a member of the contributing class on April 28, 1973, and who makes the election provided for in this subdivision and in subdivision 1, may, upon attaining the age of 55 years, but before attaining the age of 65 years, or someone acting in the member's behalf, may make application to receive the retirement allowance provided for in section 422A.15, subdivision 3, or an optional retirement allowance in the manner provided for by section 422A.17. The retirement allowance shall be the actuarial equivalent of the city's contribution and the member's deposit, as they were on the date the separation becomes permanent, plus interest, as provided for in section 422A.12.

The retirement allowance provided under this subdivision or any optional annuity form of the retirement allowance shall be computed and determined under a procedure specified by the ~~commission-retained~~ actuary utilizing the appropriate mortality table established by the board of trustees based on the experience of the fund as recommended by the ~~commission-retained~~ actuary and using the applicable postretirement interest rate assumption specified in section 356.215, subdivision 4d.

Sec. 48. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 422A.16, subdivision 3a, is amended to read:

Subd. 3a. [DEATH WHILE DEFERRED SURVIVOR BENEFIT.] If a person who has become permanently separated from the service of the city after 20 or more years of service as a contributing member, has at separation allowed the member's contributions to the fund to remain on deposit, and has filed a written request with the board on prescribed forms, dies before the effective date of retirement as determined by the board, the board shall pay a monthly allowance for life to the surviving spouse of the employee, in lieu of the city credit referred to in section 422A.23. The monthly allowance provided in this subdivision shall be the actuarial equivalent of a single life service allowance specified in section 422A.15, subdivision 1, which would have been payable to the person on the date of death, notwithstanding the age requirement stated in section 422A.15, subdivision 1. For purposes of this subdivision, the amount of any excess contributions or voluntary additions by the person shall not be included in determining the monthly allowance.

The surviving spouse allowance under this subdivision shall be computed and determined under a procedure specified by the ~~commission retained~~ actuary utilizing the appropriate mortality table established by the board of trustees based on the experience of the fund as recommended by the ~~commission retained~~ actuary and using the applicable postretirement interest rate assumption specified in section 356.215, subdivision 4d.

Sec. 49. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 422A.17, is amended to read:

422A.17 [RETIREMENT ALLOWANCE; OPTIONS.]

At retirement, any employee who is eligible to receive a service allowance may elect to receive benefits in a retirement allowance payable throughout life or may on retirement elect to receive the actuarial equivalent at that time of annuity, pension, or retirement allowance in a lesser annuity, or a lesser pension, or a lesser retirement allowance, payable throughout life, with the provisions that:

Option I. If the benefit recipient dies before receiving in payments an amount equal to the present value of the benefit recipient's annuity, pension, or retirement allowance, as of the date of the benefit recipient's retirement, the balance shall be paid to the benefit recipient's legal representatives or to such person, having an insurable interest in the benefit recipient's life, as the benefit recipient shall nominate by written designation duly acknowledged and filed with the retirement board as of the date of retirement, or

Option II. Upon the death of the benefit recipient, the benefit recipient's annuity, pension, or retirement allowance shall be continued throughout the life of and paid to the person, having an insurable interest in the benefit recipient's life, as the benefit recipient shall nominate by written designation duly acknowledged and filed with the retirement board as of the date of retirement, or Option III. Upon death of the benefit recipient, one-half of the benefit recipient's annuity, pension, or retirement allowance shall be continued throughout the life of and paid to the person, having an insurable interest in the benefit recipient's life, as the benefit recipient shall nominate by written designation duly acknowledged and filed with the retirement board as of the date of retirement, or Option IV. Other optional retirement allowance forms shall be paid to the benefit recipient or other person or persons the benefit recipient nominates, provided that the optional annuity is of equivalent actuarial value to the applicable single life annuity calculated under section 422A.15 and is approved by the retirement board.

Any optional retirement allowance shall be computed and determined under a procedure specified by the ~~commission-retained actuary~~ utilizing the appropriate mortality table established by the board of trustees based on the experience of the fund as recommended by the ~~commission-retained actuary~~ and using the applicable postretirement interest rate assumption specified in section 356.215, subdivision 4d.

~~In adopting optional annuity forms, the board of trustees shall obtain the written recommendation of the commission-retained actuary. The recommendations shall be a part of the permanent records of the board of trustees.~~

Sec. 50. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 422A.23, subdivision 6, is amended to read:

Subd. 6. [SURVIVOR BENEFIT EMPLOYEE CONTRIBUTION.] The retirement board shall create a reserve account for survivor's benefits from which shall be paid on an actuarial basis all survivor benefits due and payable. At the end of each fiscal year, as part of the annual actuarial valuation of the fund prepared by the ~~commission-retained board's~~ actuary, a determination of the normal cost of the benefits payable from the survivor's benefit account shall be made and the board shall reduce or increase the employee contribution rate of one-fourth of one percent if and when it is determined based on the annual actuarial valuation that the member contribution rate is in excess of or is less than the amount necessary to pay for 50 percent of the calculated normal cost of the survivor benefits provided in this section.

Sec. 51. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 422A.23, subdivision 7, is amended to read:

Subd. 7. [ACTIVE MEMBER SURVIVOR COVERAGE.] If the contributing member dies after having been in the service of the city 20 or more years, and before the effective date of retirement, as determined by the retirement board, the board shall pay a monthly allowance for life to the designated beneficiary of the employee. The monthly allowance herein provided for shall be the actuarial equivalent of a single life service allowance specified in section 422A.15, subdivision 1, which would have been payable to the employee on the date of death, notwithstanding the age requirement stated in section 422A.15, subdivision 1. For purposes of this section, the amount of any excess contributions or voluntary additions by the member shall not be included in the calculations in determining the monthly allowance.

The survivor allowance under this subdivision shall be computed and determined under a procedure specified by the ~~commission-retained actuary~~ utilizing the appropriate mortality table established by the board of trustees based on the experience of the fund as recommended by the ~~commission-retained actuary~~ and using the applicable postretirement interest rate assumption specified in section 356.215, subdivision 4d.

Sec. 52. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 490.121, subdivision 20, is amended to read:

Subd. 20. [ACTUARIAL EQUIVALENT.] "Actuarial equivalent" means the condition of one annuity or benefit having an equal actuarial present value as another annuity or benefit, determined as of a given date with each actuarial present value based on the appropriate mortality table adopted by the board of trustees based on the experience of the fund as recommended by the ~~commission-retained actuary~~ and using the applicable preretirement or postretirement interest rate assumption specified in section 356.215, subdivision 4d.

Sec. 53. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 490.124, subdivision 11, is amended to read:

Subd. 11. [OPTIONAL ANNUITIES.] No survivor or death benefits may be paid in connection with the death of a judge who retires after December 31, 1973, except as otherwise provided in sections 490.121 to 490.132. Within 30 days before retirement, except as provided in subdivision 10, a judge may elect to receive, instead of the normal retirement annuity, an optional retirement annuity in the form of an annuity payable for a period certain and for life after that period, a joint and survivor annuity without reinstatement in the event of the designated beneficiary predeceasing the retired judge, or a joint and survivor annuity with reinstatement in the event of the designated beneficiary predeceasing the retired judge. An optional retirement annuity must be actuarially equivalent to a single life annuity with no term certain and must be established by the board of directors of the Minnesota state retirement system. ~~In establishing these optional retirement annuity forms, the board shall obtain the written recommendation of the actuary retained by the legislative commission on pensions and retirement. The recommendations must be a part of the permanent records of the board.~~

Sec. 54. [REPEALER.]

Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 352.116, subdivision 4, is repealed.

H. F. No. 1887, A bill for an act relating to health; providing limited prescription privileges for physician assistants; amending Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 151.37, by adding a subdivision.

Reported the same back with the following amendments:

Delete everything after the enacting clause and insert:

"Section 1. [147.35] [PHYSICIAN ASSISTANTS; DELEGATED AUTHORITY TO PRESCRIBE AND ADMINISTER DRUGS AND MEDICAL DEVICES.]

Subdivision 1. [DELEGATION OF AUTHORITY TO PRESCRIBE AND ADMINISTER DRUGS AND MEDICAL DEVICES.] (a) A supervising physician may delegate to a physician assistant who is registered with the board of medical examiners and certified by the National Commission on Certification of Physician Assistants and who is under the supervising physician's supervision, the authority to prescribe and administer legend drugs and medical devices, subject to the requirements in this section and other requirements established by the commissioner of health in rules.

(b) The agreement between the physician assistant and supervising physician and any alternate supervising physicians must include a statement by the supervising physician regarding delegation or nondelegation of the functions of prescribing and administering of legend drugs and medical devices to the physician assistant. The statement must include a protocol indicating categories of drugs for which the supervising physician delegates prescriptive authority. The delegation must be appropriate to the physician assistant's practice and within the scope of the physician assistant's training. The commissioner of health shall identify categories of drugs, if any, for which delegated prescribing is inappropriate. Physician assistants who have been delegated the authority to prescribe and administer legend drugs and medical devices shall provide evidence of current certification by the National Commission on Certification of Physician Assistants when registering or reregistering as physician assistants. Supervising physicians shall retrospectively review, on a daily basis, the prescribing and administering of legend drugs and medical devices by physician assistants, when this authority has been delegated to the physician assistant as part of the delegation agreement between the physician and the physician assistant. During each on-site visit required under Minnesota Rules, the supervising physician shall document by signature and date that the prescriptive practice of the physician assistant has been reviewed.

(c) The commissioner of health shall establish by rule:

(1) a system of identifying physician assistants eligible to prescribe drugs and medical devices;

(2) a method of determining the categories of prescription drugs and medical devices that each physician assistant is allowed to prescribe; and

(3) a system of transmitting to pharmacies a listing of physician assistants eligible to prescribe prescription drugs and medical devices and the types of drugs and medical devices they are allowed to prescribe.

Subd. 2. [AUTHORITY TO ADOPT RULES.] The commissioner of health may adopt or amend rules to implement this section, including the amendment of rules previously adopted under section 214.13. The commissioner may delegate to the board of medical examiners the authority to implement and enforce the rules.

Sec. 2. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 151.37, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 2a. A supervising physician may delegate to a physician assistant who is registered with the board of medical examiners and certified by the National Commission on Certification of Physician Assistants and who is under the supervising physician's supervision, the authority to prescribe and administer legend drugs and medical devices, subject to the requirements in section 1 and other requirements established by the commissioner of health in rules.

Sec. 3. [PERMANENT REGISTRATION OF PHYSICIAN ASSISTANTS.]

The board of medical examiners shall register those physician assistants who were granted temporary registration under Minnesota Rules, part 5600.2640, subpart 1, but who have been unable to meet the requirements of Minnesota Rules, part 5600.2640, subpart 2, within the designated time due to a change in certification examination eligibility requirements made by the National Commission on Certification of Physician Assistants. These individuals shall be allowed to reregister under Minnesota Rules, part 5600.2645, without having to meet the requirements of Minnesota Rules, part 5600.2640, subpart 2.

Sec. 4. [APPROPRIATIONS.]

$5,300 is appropriated to the commissioner of health from the special revenue fund for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1991, to administer section 1.

Sec. 5. [EFFECTIVE DATE.]

Section 1, subdivision 1, paragraphs (b) and (c), are effective June 1, 1991. Section 1, subdivision 2, and section 3, are effective the day following final enactment.

“Section 1. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 168.012, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. (a) The following vehicles are exempt from the provisions of this chapter requiring payment of tax and registration fees, except as provided in subdivision 1c:

(1) vehicles owned and used solely in the transaction of official business by representatives of foreign powers, by the federal government, the state, or any political subdivision;

(2) vehicles owned and used exclusively by educational institutions and used solely in the transportation of pupils to and from such institutions;

(3) vehicles owned by nonprofit charities and used exclusively to transport handicapped persons for educational purposes;

(4) vehicles owned and used by honorary consul or consul general of foreign governments; and

(5) ambulances owned by ambulance services licensed under section 144.802, the general appearance of which is unmistakable.

(b) Vehicles owned by the federal government, municipal fire apparatus, police patrols and ambulances, the general appearance of which is unmistakable, shall not be required to register or display number plates.

(c) Unmarked vehicles used in general police work and arson investigations, and passenger automobiles, pickup trucks, and buses owned or operated by the department of corrections shall be registered and shall display appropriate license number plates which shall be furnished by the registrar at cost. Original and renewal applications for these license plates authorized for use in general police work and for use by the department of corrections must be accompanied by a certification signed by the appropriate chief of police if issued to a police vehicle, the appropriate sheriff if issued to a sheriff's vehicle, the commissioner of corrections if issued to a department of corrections vehicle, or the appropriate officer in charge if issued to a vehicle of any other law enforcement agency. The certification must be on a form prescribed by the commissioner and state that the vehicle will be used exclusively for a purpose authorized by this section.

(d) Unmarked vehicles used by the department of revenue in conducting seizures or criminal investigations must be registered and must display passenger vehicle classification license number plates which shall be furnished at cost by the registrar. Original and renewal applications for these passenger vehicle license plates must be accompanied by a certification signed by the commissioner of revenue. The certification must be on a form prescribed by the commissioner and state that the vehicles will be used exclusively for the purposes authorized by this section.

(e) All other motor vehicles shall be registered and display tax exempt number plates which shall be furnished by the registrar at cost, except as provided in subdivision 1c. All vehicles required to display tax exempt number plates shall have the name of the state department or public subdivision on the vehicle plainly displayed on both sides thereof in letters not less than 2½ inches high and one-half inch wide; except that each state hospital and institution for the mentally ill and mentally retarded may have one vehicle without the required identification on the sides of the vehicle. Such identification shall be in a color giving contrast with that of the part of the vehicle on which it is placed and shall endure throughout the term of the registration. The identification must not be on a removable plate or placard and shall be kept clean and visible at all times; except that a removable plate or placard may be utilized on vehicles leased or loaned to a political subdivision.

Sec. 2. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 168.013, subdivision 1a, is amended to read:

Subd. 1a. [PASSENGER AUTOMOBILES; AMBULANCES; HEARSEs.] (a) On passenger automobiles as defined in section 168.011, subdivision 7, ambulances, and hearses, except as otherwise provided, the tax shall be $10 plus an additional tax equal to 1.25 percent of the base value.

(b) Subject to the classification provisions herein, "base value" means the manufacturer's suggested retail price of the vehicle including destination charge as reflected on the price listing affixed to the vehicle in conformity with United States Code, title 15, sections 1231 to 1233 (Public Law Number 85-506) or otherwise suggested by the manufacturer or determined by the registrar if no suggested retail price exists, and shall not include the cost of each accessory or item of optional equipment separately added to the vehicle and the suggested retail price.

(c) If unable to determine the base value because the vehicle is specially constructed, or for any other reason, the registrar may establish such value upon the cost price to the purchaser or owner as evidenced by a certificate of cost but not including Minnesota sales or use tax or any local sales or other local tax.

(d) The registrar shall classify every vehicle in its proper base value class as follows:

FROM	TO
$ 0	$199.99
200	399.99

and thereafter a series of classes successively set in brackets having a spread of $200 consisting of such number of classes as will permit classification of all vehicles.

(e) The base value for purposes of this section shall be the middle point between the extremes of its class.

(f) The registrar shall establish the base value, when new, of every passenger automobile, ambulance and hearse registered prior to the effective date of Extra Session Laws 1971, chapter 31, using list price information published by the manufacturer or any nationally recognized firm or association compiling such data for the automotive industry. If unable to ascertain the base value of any registered vehicle in the foregoing manner, the registrar may use any other available source or method. The tax on all previously registered vehicles shall be computed upon the base value thus determined taking into account the depreciation provisions of Extra Session Laws 1971, chapter 31.

(g) Except as provided in paragraph (h), the annual additional tax computed upon the base value as provided herein, during the first and second years of vehicle life shall be computed upon 100 percent of the base value; for the third and fourth years, 90 percent of such value; for the fifth and sixth years, 75 percent of such value; for the seventh year, 60 percent of such value; for the eighth year, 40 percent of such value; for the ninth year, 30 percent of such value; for the tenth year, ten percent of such value; for the 11th and each succeeding year, the sum of $25.

In no event shall the annual additional tax be less than $25.

(h) The annual additional tax under paragraph (g) on a motor vehicle on which the first annual tax was paid before January 1, 1990, must not exceed the tax that was paid on that vehicle the year before.

Sec. 3. [168.129] [SPECIAL PLATES; NATIONAL EVENTS.]

Subdivision 1. [PLATES ISSUED FOR 14 DAYS.] The registrar shall issue upon request to the sponsor of a special event that is of national significance a distinguishing license plate. The plates will be valid for the duration of the event but in no case for a period longer than 14 days. The plates may be displayed on a passenger vehicle when the use of the vehicle has been donated for the event by the manufacturer.

Subd. 2. [FEE.] The registrar shall collect a fee of $10 for each pair of plates issued to the sponsor. The minimum quantity to be issued for any event will be 50 pairs.

Subd. 3. [APPLICATION.] The application for special event plates shall include the name of the event, the quantity of plates requested, a certification that insurance as required under section 65B.49, subdivision 3, will be provided, the dates of the event, and the name and address of the sponsor. The application must be filed at least 120 days prior to the event.

Subd. 4. [LIABILITY OF SPONSOR.] The sponsor shall assume liability for all unpaid traffic violations which occurred during the display period.

Sec. 4. [174.315] [APPROPRIATE USES OF SPECIAL TRANSPORTATION.]

Special transportation services shall not provide or offer transportation to persons who might reasonably require basic or advanced life support, as defined in section 144.804, while in the special transportation vehicle. The commissioner of health shall investigate all complaints alleging violations of this section and shall report the results of the investigation to the commissioner of transportation. The minimum penalty for a violation shall be revocation of the certificate issued under section 174.30, subdivision 4a.

Sec. 5. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 176.011, subdivision 9, is amended to read:

Subd. 9. [EMPLOYEE.] "Employee" means any person who performs services for another for hire including the following:

(1) an alien;

(2) a minor;

(3) a sheriff, deputy sheriff, constable, marshal, police officer, firefighter, county highway engineer, and peace officer while engaged in the enforcement of peace or in the pursuit or capture of a person charged with or suspected of crime;

(4) a person requested or commanded to aid an officer in arresting or retaking a person who has escaped from lawful custody, or in executing legal process, in which cases, for purposes of calculating compensation under this chapter, the daily wage of the person shall be the prevailing wage for similar services performed by paid employees;

(5) a county assessor;

(6) an elected or appointed official of the state, or of a county, city, town, school district, or governmental subdivision in the state. An officer of a political subdivision elected or appointed for a regular term of office, or to complete the unexpired portion of a regular term, shall be included only after the governing body of the political subdivision has adopted an ordinance or resolution to that effect;

(7) an executive officer of a corporation, except those executive officers excluded by section 176.041;

(8) a voluntary uncompensated worker, other than an inmate, rendering services in state institutions under the commissioners of human services and corrections similar to those of officers and employees of the institutions, and whose services have been accepted or contracted for by the commissioner of human services or corrections as authorized by law. In the event of injury or death of the worker, the daily wage of the worker, for the purpose of calculating compensation under this chapter, shall be the usual wage paid at the time of the injury or death for similar services in institutions where the services are performed by paid employees;

(9) a voluntary uncompensated worker engaged in peace time in the civil defense program when ordered to training or other duty by the state or any political subdivision of it. The daily wage of the worker, for the purpose of calculating compensation under this chapter; shall be the usual wage paid at the time of the injury or death for similar services performed by paid employees;

(10) a voluntary uncompensated worker participating in a program established by a county welfare board. In the event of injury or death of the worker, the wage of the worker, for the purpose of calculating compensation under this chapter, shall be the usual wage paid in the county at the time of the injury or death for similar services performed by paid employees working a normal day and week;

(11) a voluntary uncompensated worker accepted by the commissioner of natural resources who is rendering services as a volunteer pursuant to section 84.089. The daily wage of the worker for the purpose of calculating compensation under this chapter, shall be the usual wage paid at the time of injury or death for similar services performed by paid employees;

(12) a member of the military forces, as defined in section 190.05, while in state active service, as defined in section 190.05, subdivision 5a. The daily wage of the member for the purpose of calculating compensation under this chapter shall be based on the member's usual earnings in civil life. If there is no evidence of previous occupation or earning, the trier of fact shall consider the member's earnings as a member of the military forces;

(13) a voluntary uncompensated worker, accepted by the director of the Minnesota historical society, rendering services as a volunteer, pursuant to chapter 138. The daily wage of the worker, for the purposes of calculating compensation under this chapter, shall be the usual wage paid at the time of injury or death for similar services performed by paid employees;

(14) a voluntary uncompensated worker, other than a student, who renders services at the Minnesota state academy for the deaf or the Minnesota state academy for the blind, and whose services have been accepted or contracted for by the state board of education, as authorized by law. In the event of injury or death of the worker, the daily wage of the worker, for the purpose of calculating compensation under this chapter, shall be the usual wage paid at the time of the injury or death for similar services performed in institutions by paid employees;

(15) a voluntary uncompensated worker, other than a resident of the veterans home, who renders services at a Minnesota veterans home, and whose services have been accepted or contracted for by the commissioner of veterans affairs, as authorized by law. In the event of injury or death of the worker, the daily wage of the worker, for the purpose of calculating compensation under this chapter, shall be the usual wage paid at the time of the injury or death for similar services performed in institutions by paid employees;

(16) a worker who renders in-home attendant care services to a physically handicapped person, and who is paid directly by the commissioner of human services for these services, shall be an employee of the state within the meaning of this subdivision, but for no other purpose;

(17) students enrolled in and regularly attending the medical school of the University of Minnesota in the graduate school program or the postgraduate program. The students shall not be considered employees for any other purpose. In the event of the student's injury or death, the weekly wage of the student for the purpose of calculating compensation under this chapter, shall be the annualized educational stipend awarded to the student, divided by 52 weeks. The institution in which the student is enrolled shall be considered the "employer" for the limited purpose of determining responsibility for paying benefits under this chapter;

(18) a faculty member of the University of Minnesota employed for an academic year is also an employee for the period between that academic year and the succeeding academic year if:

(a) the member has a contract or reasonable assurance of a contract from the University of Minnesota for the succeeding academic year; and

(b) the personal injury for which compensation is sought arises out of and in the course of activities related to the faculty member's employment by the University of Minnesota;

(19) a worker who performs volunteer ambulance driver or attendant services is an employee of the political subdivision, nonprofit hospital, nonprofit corporation, or other entity for which the worker performs the services. The daily wage of the worker for the purpose of calculating compensation under this chapter shall be the usual wage paid at the time of injury or death for similar services performed by paid employees;

(20) a voluntary uncompensated worker, accepted by the commissioner of administration, rendering services as a volunteer at the department of administration. In the event of injury or death of the worker, the daily wage of the worker, for the purpose of calculating compensation under this chapter, shall be the usual wage paid at the time of the injury or death for similar services performed in institutions by paid employees; and

(21) a voluntary uncompensated worker rendering service directly to the pollution control agency. The daily wage of the worker for the purpose of calculating compensation payable under this chapter is the usual going wage paid at the time of injury or death for similar services if the services are performed by paid employees; and

(22) a voluntary uncompensated worker while volunteering services as a first responder or as a member of a law enforcement assistance organization while acting under the supervision and authority of a political subdivision. The daily wage of the worker for the purpose of calculating compensation payable under this chapter is the usual going wage paid at the time of injury or death for similar services if the services are performed by paid employees.

If it is difficult to determine the daily wage as provided in this subdivision, the trier of fact may determine the wage upon which the compensation is payable.

Sec. 6. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 297A.25, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 44. [AMBULANCES.] The lease of a motor vehicle for use as an ambulance by an ambulance service licensed under section 144.802 is exempt.

Sec. 7. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 297B.03, is amended to read:

297B.03 [EXEMPTIONS.]

There is specifically exempted from the provisions of this chapter and from computation of the amount of tax imposed by it the following:

(1) Purchase or use, including use under a lease purchase agreement or installment sales contract made pursuant to section 465.71, of any motor vehicle by the United States and its agencies and instrumentalities and by any person described in and subject to the conditions provided in section 297A.25, subdivision 18.

(2) Purchase or use of any motor vehicle by any person who was a resident of another state at the time of the purchase and who subsequently becomes a resident of Minnesota, provided the purchase occurred more than 60 days prior to the date such person began residing in the state of Minnesota.

(3) Purchase or use of any motor vehicle by any person making a valid election to be taxed under the provisions of section 297A.211.

(4) Purchase or use of any motor vehicle previously registered in the state of Minnesota by any corporation or partnership when such transfer constitutes a transfer within the meaning of section 351 or 721 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended through December 31, 1988.

(5) Purchase or use of any vehicle owned by a resident of another state and leased to a Minnesota based private or for hire carrier for regular use in the transportation of persons or property in interstate commerce provided the vehicle is titled in the state of the owner or secured party, and that state does not impose a sales or motor vehicle excise tax on motor vehicles used in interstate commerce.

(6) Purchase or use of a motor vehicle by a private nonprofit or public educational institution for use as an instructional aid in automotive training programs operated by the institution.

(7) Purchase of a motor vehicle for use as an ambulance by an ambulance service licensed under section 144.802.

Sec. 8. [353E.01] [AMBULANCE SERVICE PERSONNEL INCENTIVE PLAN.]

Subdivision 1. [ESTABLISHMENT.] The ambulance service personnel incentive plan is administered by the public employees retirement association under supervision of the association board of directors. To assist it in governing the operations of the plan, the board may appoint an advisory committee of not more than seven members who are representative of ambulance service operators and ambulance service personnel.

Subd. 2. [COVERAGE.] Coverage under the personnel incentive plan is open to ambulance attendants and drivers from participating ambulance services who earn less than $5,000 a year in hourly stipends or salary from service as an ambulance attendant or driver.

Sec. 9. [353E.02] [ELECTION OF COVERAGE.]

Each public ambulance service or privately operated ambulance service with its base of operation, as defined in section 144.801, subdivision 7, in Minnesota and with eligible personnel may elect to participate in the plan. If a service elects to participate, its eligible personnel may elect to participate or to decline to participate. An individual's initial election must be made within the latter of 30 days of the service's election to participate or 30 days of the date on which the individual was employed by the service or began to provide service for it. The board of trustees of the public employees retirement association shall designate an annual period during which: (1) individuals or ambulance services who initially declined participation may choose to participate; and (2) individuals or ambulance services participating in the retirement plan may choose to end their participation.

Sec. 10. [353E.021] [FUNDING OF PLAN.]

Subdivision 1. [CALCULATION OF CREDIT; 20-YEAR LIMIT.] The plan is funded by general fund appropriations to the public employees retirement association. Money received by the public employees retirement association shall be remitted to the state board of investment for investment, until allocated and credited to participants. Beginning January 1, 1992, all funds received by the public employees retirement association and investment earnings on the funds, shall be allocated and credited to participants in proportion to the service units credited during the prior year for their years of service as provided in this subdivision and subdivisions 2 and 3.

Participants shall receive credit for two service units for each year of service following January 1, 1992, plus one service unit for each year of service prior to this date. Years of service must be verified by the participant's ambulance service in the report to the public employees retirement association required by section 13. Participant accounts may receive credit for service units for a maximum of 20 years of service.

Subd. 2. [CREDITS FOR FIRST FIVE YEARS.] For the calendar year beginning January 1, 1992, and for each of the next four calendar years, every participant shall receive credit at the end of the calendar year for two service units for that year, plus one-fifth of the total number of service units accumulated according to subdivision 1 for years of service prior to January 1, 1992. The amount of money per service unit that is to be deposited into each participant's account for each year during the period January 1, 1992, to December 31, 1996, is determined by dividing the total appropriation to the public employees retirement association for each fiscal year, plus investment earnings on that amount, by the total number of service units credited to all participants for that calendar year, as calculated according to this subdivision. Money appropriated to the public employees retirement association for fiscal year 1991 shall be allocated and credited with any appropriation received for fiscal year 1992.

Subd. 3. [CREDITS FOR SIXTH AND FOLLOWING YEARS.] For the calendar year beginning January 1, 1997, and for each following calendar year, every participant shall receive credit for two service units at the end of that year. The amount of money per service unit that is to be deposited into each participant's account for each year after December 31, 1996, is determined by dividing the total appropriation to the public employees retirement association for that fiscal year, plus investment earnings on that amount, by the total number of service units credited to all participants for that calendar year, as calculated according to this subdivision.

Subd. 4. [PROHIBITION ON PARTICIPANT AND AMBULANCE SERVICE CONTRIBUTIONS.] Contributions by participants to their accounts, and contributions by ambulance services to their employees' accounts, are prohibited.

Subd. 5. [LIMITATION ON BENEFITS.] Benefits to participants under this plan are limited by and subject to the availability of funding.

Sec. 11. [353E.031] [VESTING.]

(a) Sixty months of service credit, accumulated after January 1, 1992, are required for vesting of retirement benefits. These 60 months must be accumulated within 120 months of the first month of service credit earned after January 1, 1992. No minimum period of service is required for vesting of death benefits, once the retirement plan has taken effect. Upon completion of 60 months of service under the plan with one or more participating ambulance services, a participant terminating active service is entitled to receive the value of the participant's individual account. An application by or on behalf of the participant must be filed before any payment of benefits is made.

(b) Funds credited to a person's account are forfeited at the end of the 120th month after the first month of service credit earned after January 1, 1992, if the person does not have 60 months of service credit at that time. Funds forfeited must be allocated as provided in section 10.

Sec. 12. [353E.05] [INVESTMENT OF FUNDS.]

Subdivision 1. [INVESTMENT.] Money allocated and credited to individual accounts, after the deduction of an amount for administrative expenses, must be remitted to the state board of investment for investment in the Minnesota supplemental investment fund established by section 11A.17. Investment options and procedures are governed by section 353D.05.

Subd. 2. [ADMINISTRATIVE EXPENSES.] The public employees retirement association may deduct a reasonable amount, set annually by the executive director of the association, but not to exceed two percent of the funding of the plan under section 10, to defray the actual and necessary expenses of the association in administering the plan.

Sec. 13. [353E.06] [REPORTING BY AMBULANCE SERVICES.]

The executive director of the public employees retirement association shall prescribe the form of annual and any other reports required from an ambulance service and the election forms required from ambulance service members. Member forms shall contain names, identification numbers, total number of years and dates of accumulated service, and such other data as is required to keep an accurate account of the account value of each participant.

In the event an ambulance service fails to provide required information within 60 days after the public employees retirement association sends the service a notice that the information is overdue, its members forfeit the service units credited and funding allocated for that year. Funds forfeited must be allocated as provided in section 10. Ambulance services that provide fraudulent information shall be suspended from the program for a period of time determined by the executive director and are subject to criminal prosecution.

Sec. 14. [353E.07] [BENEFITS.]

Subdivision 1. [TYPE OF PLAN.] The plan is a defined contribution plan when the benefits are payable upon termination of service, retirement, or death. The amount of benefits is determined by the value of accumulated contributions plus a proportionate share of investment income of the fund credited to each individual account.

Subd. 2. [PAYMENT OF BENEFITS.] Withdrawal of or a retirement benefit based on fund contributions plus accrued investment income is payable immediately upon the death or termination of an active member for a period that exceeds 30 days. An application by or on behalf of the participant must be filed before any payment of benefits may be made.

Subd. 3. [FORM OF BENEFIT.] A retirement benefit is payable in a lump sum equal to the value of a participant's account at the date of retirement and may be rolled over into another qualified plan at the option of the member. As an alternative to a lump sum distribution, the member may choose to have the association use the total account value to purchase an annuity payable at a designated age from an insurance company licensed to do business in the state.

Subd. 4. [DEATH OF A MEMBER.] In the event of the death of an active participant, the total value of the account must be paid in a lump sum to the designated beneficiary or, if none, the estate of the decedent.

Sec. 15. [353E.08] [PORTABILITY.]

Qualified ambulance service personnel who change employment or membership among participating ambulance services remain eligible for service unit credits under the plan.

Sec. 16. [353E.09] [RULES; TAX QUALIFICATION.]

The public employees retirement association may adopt rules required for administration of the plan. The proposed plan shall be formulated and adopted in accordance with applicable restrictions and standards of the Internal Revenue Code and rulings and regulations of the Internal Revenue Service in order to assure the tax exempt status of the plan as a qualified pension plan. If the public employees retirement association determines that its administration of the plan will jeopardize the tax exempt status of the plan as a qualified pension plan or the tax exempt status of any public pension plan listed in section 356.30, the public employees retirement association may contract with another organization for administration of the plan.

If the executive director of the public employees retirement association determines that the plan must comply with federal ERISA requirements, including any requirements necessary for tax-deferred treatment of contributions and interest earned thereon, participants shall not be credited with service units and the public employees retirement association shall not transfer money into participants' accounts until the director determines that the plan has met ERISA requirements. If the executive director determines that legislative changes are needed to comply with ERISA requirements, the director shall recommend the changes to the legislature at its next regular session.

Sec. 17. [NORTH PINE AREA HOSPITAL DISTRICT.]

Effective retroactive to October 1, 1989, the North Pine Area Hospital District shall not be considered to be a governmental subdivision and employees of the district shall not be considered to be public employees for purposes of membership or participation in the public employees retirement association."

"Subd. 4. [SEIZURE OF VEHICLES.] If a person doing business in this state does not have a business location in this state and is not licensed as required by this chapter, the commissioner may seize the person's vehicles or the vehicles of the person's agents or contractors pursuant to this subdivision.

The commissioner must hold the seized vehicle, subject to the order of the Ramsey county district court or other district courts. The property held is confiscated when the commissioner complies with this subdivision and the person from whom it was seized is convicted of not having a license or of violating any other provisions of this chapter.

The commissioner shall file with the court a separate complaint against the vehicle held. The complaint must identify the vehicle, describe its use in the violation, and specify the time and place of the violation. A copy of the complaint must be served upon the defendant or the owner of the vehicle.

At any time after seizure of a vehicle, it must be returned to the owner or person having the legal right to possession upon execution of a valid bond to the state with a corporate surety. The bond must be approved by the court conditioned to abide by an order and judgment of the court and to pay not more than twice the value of the vehicle seized.

If the person arrested is acquitted, the court shall dismiss the complaint against the vehicle and order it returned to the person legally entitled to it.

Upon conviction of the person, the court shall issue an order directed to any person that may have any right, title, or interest in, or lien upon, the seized vehicle. The order must describe the vehicle and state that it was seized and that a complaint against it has been filed. The order shall require a person claiming right, title, or interest in, or lien upon, the vehicle to file with the court administrator an answer to the complaint, stating the claim, within ten days after the service of the order. The order shall contain a notice that if the person fails to file an answer within the time limit, the vehicle may be ordered sold by the commissioner.

The court order must be served upon any person known or believed to have any right, title, interest, or lien in the same manner as provided for service of a summons in a civil action, and upon unknown persons by publication, in the same manner as provided for publication of a summons in a civil action.

If an answer is not filed within the time provided in this subdivision, the court administrator shall notify the court and the court shall order the commissioner to sell the vehicle. The net proceeds of the sale shall be deposited in the state treasury.

If an answer is filed within the time provided in this subdivision, the court shall schedule a hearing within ten to 30 days after the time expired for filing the answer. The court, without a jury, shall determine whether the vehicle was used in a violation specified in the complaint and whether the owner had knowledge or reason to believe that the vehicle was being used, or intended to be used, in the violation. The court shall order the commissioner to sell the vehicle that was unlawfully used with knowledge of the owner and to return to the owner a vehicle that was not unlawfully used with the knowledge of the owner. If the vehicle is to be sold, the court shall determine the priority of liens against the vehicle and whether the lienholders had knowledge that the vehicle was being used or was intended to be used. Lienholders that had knowledge of the vehicle use in the violation are not to be paid. The court order must state the priority of the liens to be paid.

After determining the expense of seizing, keeping, and selling the vehicle, the commissioner must pay the liens from the proceeds according to the court order. The remaining proceeds shall be deposited in the state treasury.

A sale under this subdivision cancels all liens on and security interests in the vehicle sold."

“MINNESOTA TOXIC POLLUTION PREVENTION ACT

Section 1. [115D.01] [CITATION.]

Sections 1 to 11 may be cited as the “Minnesota toxic pollution prevention act.”

Sec. 2. [115D.02] [POLICY.]

(a) To protect the public health, welfare, and the environment, the legislature declares that it is the policy of the state to encourage toxic pollution prevention. The preferred means of preventing toxic pollution are techniques and processes that are implemented at the source and that minimize the transfer of toxic pollutants from one environmental medium to another.

(b) The legislature intends that the programs developed under this act shall encourage and lead to a greater awareness of the need for and benefits of toxic pollution prevention, and to a greater degree of cooperation and coordination among all elements of government, industry, and the public in encouraging and carrying out pollution prevention activities.

Sec. 3. [115D.03] [DEFINITIONS.]

Subdivision 1. [APPLICABILITY.] The definitions in this section apply to this chapter.

Subd. 2. [COMMISSION.] “Commission” means the emergency response commission under section 299K.03.

Subd. 3. [COMMISSIONER.] “Commissioner” means the commissioner of the pollution control agency.

Subd. 4. [DIRECTOR.] “Director” means the director of the office of waste management.

Subd. 5. [ELIGIBLE RECIPIENTS.] “Eligible recipients” means persons who use, generate, or release toxic pollutants, hazardous substances, and hazardous wastes.

Subd. 6. [FACILITY.] “Facility” means all buildings, equipment, structures, and other stationary items that are located on a single site or on contiguous or adjacent sites and that are owned or operated by the same person, or by any person who controls, is controlled by, or is under common control with such person.

Subd. 7. [PERSON.] “Person” has the meaning given it in section 115B.02, subdivision 12.

Subd. 8. [POLLUTION PREVENTION OR PREVENT POLLUTION.] “Pollution prevention” or “prevent pollution” means eliminating or reducing at the source the use, generation, or release of toxic pollutants, hazardous substances, and hazardous wastes.

Subd. 9. [REDUCE, REDUCING, OR REDUCTION.] “Reduce,” “reducing,” or “reduction” means lessening the quantity or toxicity of toxic pollutants, hazardous substances, and hazardous wastes used, generated, or released at the source. Methods of reducing pollution include, but are not limited to, process modification, inventory control measures, feedstock substitutions, various house-keeping and management practices, and improved efficiency of machinery. Decreases in quantity or toxicity are not reductions where the decrease is solely the result of a decrease in the output of the facility.

Subd. 10. [RELEASE.] “Release” has the meaning given it in section 115B.02, subdivision 15.

Subd. 11. [TOXIC POLLUTANT.] “Toxic pollutant” means a chemical identified in United States Code, title 42, section 11023(c).

Sec. 4. [115D.04] [POLLUTION PREVENTION ASSISTANCE PROGRAM.]

Subdivision 1. [ESTABLISHMENT.] The director shall establish a pollution prevention assistance program to assist eligible recipients in preventing pollution. The program must emphasize techniques and processes that minimize the transfer of pollutants from one environmental medium to another and must focus primarily on toxic pollutants.

Subd. 2. [ASSISTANCE.] The pollution prevention assistance program must include at least the following:

(1) a program to assemble, catalog, and disseminate information on pollution prevention;

(2) a program to provide technical research and assistance, including on-site consultations to identify alternative methods that may be applied to prevent pollution and to provide assistance for planning under section 7, excluding design engineering services; and

(3) outreach programs including seminars, workshops, training programs, and other similar activities designed to provide pollution prevention information and assistance to eligible recipients.

Subd. 3. [ADMINISTRATION.] The pollution prevention assistance program must be coordinated with other public and private programs that provide management and technical assistance to eligible recipients. The director may make grants to public or private entities to operate elements of the program. Grantees shall provide periodic reports on their efforts to assist eligible recipients to reduce pollution.

Sec. 5. [115D.05] [POLLUTION PREVENTION GRANTS.]

Subdivision 1. [PURPOSE.] The director may make grants to study or demonstrate the feasibility of applying specific technologies and methods to prevent pollution.

Subd. 2. [ELIGIBILITY.] (a) Eligible recipients may receive grants under this section.

(b) Grants may be awarded up to a maximum of two-thirds of the total cost of the project. Grant money awarded under this section may not be spent for capital improvements or equipment.

Subd. 3. [PROCEDURE FOR AWARDED GRANTS.] (a) In determining whether to award a grant, the director shall consider at least the following:

(1) the potential of the project to prevent pollution;

(2) the likelihood that the project will develop techniques or processes that will minimize the transfer of pollution from one environmental medium to another;

(3) the extent to which information to be developed through the project will be applicable to other persons in the state;

(4) the willingness of the grant applicant to implement feasible methods and technologies developed under the grant;

(5) the willingness of the grant applicant to assist the director in disseminating information about the pollution prevention methods to be developed through the project; and

(6) the extent to which the project will conform to the pollution prevention policy established in section 2.

(b) The director shall adopt rules to administer the grant program. Prior to completion of any new rulemaking, the director may administer the program under the procedures established in rules promulgated under section 115A.154.

Sec. 6. [115D.06] [GOVERNOR'S AWARD FOR EXCELLENCE IN POLLUTION PREVENTION.]

The governor may issue annual awards in the form of a commendation for excellence in pollution prevention. Applications for these awards shall be administered by the director.

Sec. 7. [115D.07] [TOXIC POLLUTION PREVENTION PLANS.]

Subdivision 1. [REQUIREMENT TO PREPARE AND MAINTAIN A PLAN.] (a) Persons who operate a facility required by United States Code, title 42, section 11023, to submit a toxic chemical release form shall prepare a toxic pollution prevention plan for that facility. The plan must contain the information listed in subdivision 2.

(b) Except for facilities that release less than a total of 10,000 pounds of toxic pollutants annually, the plan must be completed as follows:

(1) on or before July 1, 1991, for facilities having a two-digit standard industrial classification of 35 to 39;

(2) by January 1, 1992, for facilities having a two-digit standard industrial classification of 28 to 34; and

(3) by July 1, 1992, for all other persons required to prepare a plan under this subdivision.

Facilities that release less than a total of 10,000 pounds of toxic pollutants annually must complete their plans by July 1, 1992.

(c) Each plan must be updated every two years and must be maintained at the facility to which it pertains.

Subd. 2. [CONTENTS OF PLAN.] Each toxic pollution prevention plan must establish a program identifying the specific technically and economically practicable steps that could be taken during at least the three years following the date the plan is due, to eliminate or reduce the generation or release of toxic pollutants reported by the facility. Toxic pollutants resulting solely from research and development activities need not be included in the plan. At a minimum, each plan must include:

(1) a policy statement articulating upper management support for eliminating or reducing the generation or release of toxic pollutants at the facility;

(2) a description of the current processes generating or releasing toxic pollutants that specifically describes the types, sources, and quantities of toxic pollutants currently being generated or released by the facility;

(3) a description of the current and past practices used to eliminate or reduce the generation or release of toxic pollutants at the facility and an evaluation of the effectiveness of these practices;

(4) an assessment of technically and economically practicable options available to eliminate or reduce the generation or release of toxic pollutants at the facility, including options such as changing the raw materials, operating techniques, equipment and technology, personnel training, and other practices used at the facility. The assessment may include a cost benefit analysis of the available options;

(5) a statement of objectives based on the assessment in clause (4) and a schedule for achieving those objectives. Wherever technically and economically practicable, the objectives for eliminating or reducing the generation or release of each toxic pollutant at the facility must be expressed in numeric terms. Otherwise, the objectives must include a clearly stated list of actions designed to lead to the establishment of numeric objectives as soon as practicable;

(6) an explanation of the rationale for each objective established for the facility;

(7) a listing of options that were considered not to be economically and technically practicable; and

(8) a certification, signed and dated by the facility manager and an officer of the company under penalty of section 609.63, attesting to the accuracy of the information in the plan.

Sec. 8. [115D.08] [PROGRESS REPORTS.]

Subdivision 1. [REQUIREMENT TO SUBMIT PROGRESS REPORT.] All persons required to prepare a toxic pollution prevention plan under section 7 shall submit an annual progress report to the commissioner that may be drafted in a manner that does not disclose proprietary information. Progress reports are due on October 1 of each year. The first progress reports are due in 1992. At a minimum, each progress report must include:

(1) a summary of each objective established in the plan including the schedule for meeting the objective;

(2) a summary of progress made during the past year, if any, toward meeting each objective established in the plan including the quantity of each toxic pollutant eliminated or reduced;

(3) a statement of the methods through which elimination or reduction has been achieved;

(4) if necessary, an explanation of the reasons objectives were not achieved during the previous year, including identification of any technological, economic, or other impediments the facility faced in its efforts to achieve its objectives; and

(5) a certification, signed and dated by the facility manager and an officer of the company under penalty of section 609.63, attesting that a plan meeting the requirements of section 7 has been prepared and also attesting to the accuracy of the information in the progress report.

Subd. 2. [REVIEW OF PROGRESS REPORTS.] (a) The commissioner shall review all progress reports to determine if they meet the requirements of subdivision 1. If the commissioner determines that a progress report does not meet the requirements, the commissioner shall notify the facility in writing and shall identify specific deficiencies and specify a reasonable time period of not less than 90 days for the facility to modify the progress report.

(b) The commissioner shall be given access to a facility plan required under section 7 if the commissioner determines that the progress report for that facility does not meet the requirements of subdivision 1. Twenty-five or more persons living within ten miles of the facility may submit a petition to the commissioner that identifies specific deficiencies in the progress report and requests the commissioner to review the facility plan. Within 30 days after receipt of the petition, the commissioner shall respond in writing. If the commissioner agrees that the progress report does not meet requirements of subdivision 1, the commissioner shall be given access to the facility plan.

(c) After reviewing the plan and the progress report with any modifications submitted, the commissioner shall state in writing whether the progress report meets the requirements of subdivision 1. If the commissioner determines that a modified progress report still does not meet the requirements of subdivision 1, the commissioner shall schedule a public meeting. The meeting shall be held in the county where the facility is located. The meeting is not subject to the requirements of chapter 14.

(d) The facility shall be given the opportunity to amend the progress report within a period of not less than 30 days after the public meeting.

(e) If the commissioner determines that a modified progress report still does not meet the requirements of subdivision 1, action may be taken under section 115.071 to obtain compliance with sections 1 to 11.

Sec. 9. [115D.09] [CONFIDENTIALITY.]

Information and techniques developed under section 4, the reduction information and techniques under section 5, and the progress reports required under section 8 are public data under chapter 13. The plans required under section 7 are nonpublic data under chapter 13.

Sec. 10. [115D.10] [TOXIC POLLUTION PREVENTION EVALUATION REPORT.]

The director, in cooperation with the commissioner and committees of the legislature annually on progress being made in achieving the objectives of sections 1 to 11. The report must be submitted by December 15 of each year, beginning in 1992.

Sec. 11. [115D.12] [POLLUTION PREVENTION ACCOUNT.]

Subdivision 1. [REVENUE SOURCES.] Revenue from the following sources must be deposited in the environmental fund:

- (1) the proceeds of the fees imposed by subdivision 2;
- (2) interest attributable to investment of money generated by the fees in subdivision 2; and
- (3) money received by the director in the form of gifts, grants other than federal grants, and reimbursements.

Subd. 2. [FEES.] The following pollution prevention fees are established:

(a) Persons required by United States Code, title 42, section 11023, to submit a toxic chemical release form to the commission shall pay a pollution prevention fee of $150 for each toxic pollutant reported released and a fee based on the total pounds of toxic pollutants reported released per facility. Facilities reporting less than 25,000 pounds annually of toxic pollutants released per facility shall be assessed a fee of $500. Facilities reporting annual releases of toxic pollutants in excess of 25,000 pounds shall be assessed a graduated fee at the rate of two cents per pound of toxic pollutants reported, not to exceed a total of $30,000 per facility.

(b) Persons who generate more than 1,000 kilograms of hazardous waste per month but who are not subject to the fee under paragraph (a) must pay a pollution prevention fee of $500 per facility. Hazardous waste as used in this paragraph has the meaning given it in section 116.06, subdivision 13, and Minnesota Rules, chapter 7045.

(c) Fees required under this subdivision must be paid to the director by January 1 of each year.

Sec. 12. [REPORTS TO THE LEGISLATURE.]

Subdivision 1. [REPORT ON BARRIERS TO POLLUTION PREVENTION.] By January 1, 1991, the director shall prepare and submit a report to the environment and natural resources committees of the legislature analyzing the barriers to pollution prevention. At a minimum, the director shall report on regulatory, economic, educational, and institutional barriers and shall recommend strategies to overcome these barriers. Further, the report shall describe ways in which government may serve as a role model in pollution prevention.

Subd. 2. [REPORT ON TOXIC POLLUTANTS USE REPORTING.] By January 1, 1993, the director shall prepare and submit a report to the environment and natural resources committees of the legislature evaluating the utility of requiring companies to prepare toxic pollutant use reports and reduction plans. The report shall discuss, among other information, the potential uses of the data and the potential impact of such requirements on pollution prevention efforts. The report also shall discuss the need for a chemical accident prevention program to promote safety initiatives by industry. The report shall contain a recommendation as to whether to require toxic pollutant use reports and reduction plans.

Sec. 13. [APPROPRIATIONS.]

Subdivision 1. [OFFICE OF WASTE MANAGEMENT.] $847,000 is appropriated as follows to the office of waste management for fiscal year 1991:

- (a) For pollution prevention assistance eligible recipients $560,000;
- (b) For pollution prevention grants 150,000; and
- (c) For reports to the legislature and administration of sections 1 to 11 137,000.

The approved complement of the office is increased by three positions.

Subd. 2. [POLLUTION CONTROL AGENCY.] $45,000 is appropriated from the environmental fund to the pollution control agency for fiscal year 1991, for the purposes specified in sections 1 to 11. The approved complement of the agency is increased by one position.

Subd. 3. [DEPARTMENT OF PUBLIC SAFETY.] $48,000 is appropriated to the department of public safety from the environmental fund for fiscal year 1991, to assure timely and accurate submittal of the toxic chemical release forms. The approved complement of the department of public safety is increased by one position.

Sec. 14. [EFFECTIVE DATE.]

Sections 1 to 12 are effective the day after final enactment."

With the recommendation that when so amended the bill pass.

The report was adopted.

Subdivision 1. Any person who is 18 or more years of age and who, except for a lack of instruction in operating a motor vehicle, would otherwise be qualified to obtain a Class C driver's license under this chapter, may apply for an instruction permit and the department shall issue such permit entitling the applicant, while having such permit in immediate possession, to drive a motor vehicle for which a Class C license is valid upon the highways for a period of one year, but such person must be accompanied by an adult licensed driver who is actually occupying a seat beside the driver. Any license of a lower class may be used as an instruction permit for a higher class for a period of six months after passage of the written test or tests required for the higher class and when the licensee is accompanied by and receiving instruction from a holder of the appropriate higher class license. A copy of the record of examination taken for the higher class license must be carried by the driver while using such lower class license as an instruction permit.

Sec. 7. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 171.05, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. Notwithstanding any provision in subdivision 1 to the contrary, the department, upon application therefor, may issue an instruction permit to an applicant who is 15, 16, or 17 years of age and who is enrolled in an approved driver education program including behind the wheel training. Such an instruction permit holder who has the permit in possession may operate a motor vehicle while receiving behind the wheel training in an approved driver education program, but only when accompanied by an authorized instructor who occupies the seat beside the permit holder, or. During and upon completion of the course, a 16 or 17 year old may operate a motor vehicle while accompanied by an adult licensed driver who is actually occupying a seat beside the driver. During and upon completion of the course, a 15 year old may operate a motor vehicle while accompanied by a licensed parent or guardian or licensed adult driver authorized by the parent or guardian who also must occupy the seat beside the instruction permit holder."

Reported the same back with the following amendments:

Delete everything after the enacting clause and insert:

"Section 1. [256.9691] [TECHNOLOGY ASSISTANCE REVIEW PANEL.]

Subdivision 1. [ESTABLISHMENT.] The commissioner of health shall establish a technology assistance review panel to resolve disputes over the provision of health care benefits for technology-assisted persons who receive benefits under a policy or plan of health, medical, hospitalization, or accident and sickness insurance regulated under chapter 62A, a subscriber contract of a nonprofit health service plan corporation regulated under chapter 62C, or a certificate of coverage of a health maintenance organization regulated under chapter 62D.

Subd. 2. [DEFINITION.] For purposes of this section, "technology-assisted person" means a person who:

- (1) has a chronic health condition;
- (2) requires the routine use of a medical device to compensate for the loss of a life-sustaining body function; and
- (3) requires ongoing care or monitoring by trained personnel on a daily basis.

Subd. 3. [STEERING COMMITTEE.] The commissioner shall appoint a seven-member steering committee to appoint the review panel members, develop policies and procedures for the review process, including the replacement of review panel members, serve as a liaison between the regulatory agencies and the review panel, and provide the review panel with technical assistance. The steering committee shall consist of representatives of the departments of health, human services, and commerce; a health maintenance organization regulated under chapter 62D; an insurer regulated under chapter 62A or a health service plan corporation regulated under chapter 62C; an advocacy organization representing persons who are technology assisted; and a tertiary care center that serves technology-assisted persons. The steering committee shall not be reimbursed for any expenses as defined under section 15.0575, subdivision 3. The steering committee shall dissolve no later than June 30, 1992.

Subd. 4. [COMPOSITION OF REVIEW PANEL.] (a) The review panel shall be appointed by the members of the steering committee that do not represent state agencies and must include:

- (1) a medical director from an insurer regulated under chapter 62A, a health service plan corporation regulated under chapter 62C, or a health maintenance organization regulated under chapter 62D;
- (2) a contract benefits analyst from an insurer regulated under chapter 62A, a health service plan corporation regulated under chapter 62C, or a health maintenance organization regulated under chapter 62D;

(3) a consumer board member of an insurer regulated under chapter 62A, a health service plan corporation regulated under chapter 62C, or a health maintenance organization regulated under chapter 62D;

(4) a physician with expertise in providing care for technology-assisted persons in a nonhospital setting;

(5) a registered nurse with expertise in providing care for technology-assisted persons in a nonhospital setting; and

(6) a consumer of health care benefits regulated under chapter 62A, 62C, or 62D who is a technology-assisted person or the parent or guardian of a technology-assisted person.

(b) The term of service for review panel members is three years except that, for the initial appointment, the steering committee shall establish procedures to assure that the terms of the members are staggered. Members are eligible to serve two consecutive terms.

Subd. 5. [AUTHORITY.] The review panel may review cases involving disputes over the provision of contract benefits regarding discharge planning, home health care benefits eligibility and coverage, or changes in the level of home health care services for technology-assisted persons. The review may be requested by a third-party payor, a health or social service professional, or a parent or guardian of a technology-assisted child or a technology-assisted adult. For the case to be eligible for review by the panel, the parent or guardian of a technology-assisted child or technology-assisted adult must consent to the review. The review panel may not review cases involving discharge to a long-term care facility or cases involving coverage by title 18 or 19 of the Social Security Act or other public funding sources. The review panel may seek advice from experts outside the membership of the panel as necessary. The internal grievance process within an insurer, health service plan corporation, or health maintenance organization, except binding arbitration, must be exhausted before requesting a review by the review panel. The recommendations of the review panel are not binding. If, following a review by the review panel, a complaint is filed with the appropriate state agency regarding the same subject matter, the findings of the review panel must be made available to the agency upon request and with the consent of the parent or guardian of a technology-assisted child or technology-assisted adult. The information must be maintained by the agency as nonpublic information under chapter 13. The steering committee may establish policies for reimbursement of expenses for review panel members consistent with the provisions of section 15.0575, subdivision 3.

Subd. 6. [CONFIDENTIALITY.] All proceedings of the review organization are nonpublic under chapter 13. All data, information, and findings acquired and developed by the review panel in the exercise of its duties or functions must be held in confidence, may not be disclosed to anyone except to the extent necessary to carry out one or more of the purposes of the review panel or as described in subdivision 5, and are not subject to subpoena or discovery. Members of the review panel may not disclose what transpired at a meeting of the review panel except to the extent necessary to carry out one or more of the purposes of the review panel. The proceedings and record of the review panel are not subject to discovery or introduction into evidence in any civil action against a health care professional or insurer, health service plan corporation, or health maintenance organization, arising out of the matter or matters that are the subject of consideration by the review panel.

Subd. 7. [LIMITATION ON LIABILITY FOR MEMBERS OF STEERING COMMITTEE AND REVIEW PANEL.] A person who is a member of, or who acts in an advisory capacity to or who gives counsel or services to, the steering committee or review panel is not liable for damages or other relief in any action brought by a person or persons whose case has been reviewed by the panel, by reason of the performance of any duty, function, or activity of the review panel, unless the performance of the duty, function, or activity was motivated by malice toward the person affected. A member is not liable for damages or other relief in any action by reason of the performance of the member of any duty, function, or activity as a member of the steering committee or review panel or by reason of any recommendation or action of the review committee when the member acts in the reasonable belief that the action or recommendation is warranted by the facts known to the member or review panel after reasonable efforts to ascertain the facts.

Sec. 2. [APPROPRIATION.]

$34,000 is appropriated from the general fund to the commissioner of health for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1991, for the purpose of operating the technology assistance review panel. Subdivision 1. [YEARLY REPORTS.] Each hospital and each outpatient surgical center, which has not filed the financial information required by this section with a voluntary, nonprofit reporting organization pursuant to section 144.702, shall file annually with the commissioner of health after the close of the fiscal year:

(1) a balance sheet detailing the assets, liabilities, and net worth of the hospital;

(2) a detailed statement of income and expenses;

(3) a copy of its most recent cost report, if any, filed pursuant to requirements of Title XVIII of the United States Social Security Act;

(4) a copy of all changes to articles of incorporation or bylaws;

(5) information on services provided to benefit the community, including services provided at no cost or for a reduced fee to patients unable to pay, teaching and research activities, or other community or charitable activities;

(6) information required on the revenue and expense report form set in effect on July 1, 1989 or as amended by the commissioner of health in rule; and

(7) other information required by the commissioner in rule.

Sec. 2. [153A.175] [COSTS.]

The costs for establishing the regulatory systems required by sections 153A.13 to 153A.18 shall be recovered by assessing hearing instrument sellers, in addition to the permit fee required in section 153A.17, an annual surcharge fee of $36 for a period of five years. The receipts from the annual surcharge fee must be credited to the general fund as nondedicated receipts.

Sec. 3. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 214.001, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. If the legislature finds after evaluation of the factors identified in subdivision 2 that it is necessary to regulate an occupation not heretofore credentialed or regulated, then regulation should be implemented consistent with the policy of this section, in modes in the following order:

(a) Creation or extension of common law or statutory causes of civil action, and the creation or extension of criminal prohibitions;

(b) Imposition of inspection requirements and the ability to enforce violations by injunctive relief in the courts;

(c) Implementation of a system of permits that requires all practitioners to file with the state, on a form provided by the state, their name, home and business address, telephone number, education, training and degrees held, if any, and any other relevant experience, and to comply with a code of ethical conduct, or with other requirements necessary to protect the public;

(d) Implementation of a system of registration whereby practitioners who will be the only persons permitted authorized to use a designated title are listed on an official roster after having met predetermined qualifications; or

(e) Implementation of a system of licensing whereby a practitioner must receive recognition by the state of having met predetermined qualifications, and persons not so licensed are prohibited from practicing.

Two or more of these modes may be simultaneously implemented if necessary and appropriate.

Sec. 4. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 214.06, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. Notwithstanding any law to the contrary, the commissioner of health as authorized by section 214.13, all health-related licensing boards and all non-health-related licensing boards shall by rule, with the approval of the commissioner of finance, adjust any fee which the commissioner of health or the board is empowered to assess a sufficient amount so that the total fees collected by each board will as closely as possible equal anticipated expenditures during the fiscal biennium, as provided in section 16A.128. For members of an occupation registered after July 1, 1984, by the commissioner of health under the provisions of section 214.13 or other law, the fee established must include an amount necessary to recover, over a five-year period, the commissioner's direct expenditures for adoption of the rules providing for registration of regulating members of the occupation. All fees received shall be deposited in the state treasury. Fees received by health-related licensing boards must be credited to the special revenue fund.

Sec. 5. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 214.11, is amended to read:

214.11 [ADDITIONAL REMEDY REMEDIES.]

Subdivision 1. [CEASE AND DESIST ORDER.] The commissioner of health may issue a cease and desist order to stop a person from engaging in an unauthorized practice or violating or threatening to violate a statute, rule, or order which the commissioner of health has issued or is empowered to enforce. The cease and desist order must state the reason for its issuance and give notice of the person's right to request a hearing under sections 14.57 to 14.62. If, within 15 days after service of the order, the subject of the order fails to request a hearing in writing, the commissioner of health may issue a final order.

A hearing must be initiated by the commissioner of health not later than 30 days after the date the commissioner receives a written hearing request. Within 30 days after receiving the administrative law judge's report, the commissioner of health shall issue a final order modifying, vacating, or making permanent the cease and desist order as the facts require. The final order remains in effect until modified or vacated by the commissioner of health.

When a request for a stay accompanies a timely hearing request, the commissioner of health may, by discretion, grant the stay. If the commissioner of health does not grant a requested stay, the commissioner shall refer the request to the office of administrative hearings within three working days after receiving the request. Within ten days after receiving the request from the commissioner of health, an administrative law judge shall issue a recommendation to grant or deny the stay. The commissioner of health shall grant or deny the stay within five days after receiving the administrative law judge's recommendation.

In the event of noncompliance with a cease and desist order, the commissioner of health may institute a proceeding in Ramsey county district court to obtain injunctive relief or other appropriate relief, including a civil penalty payable to the commissioner of health not exceeding $10,000 for each separate violation.

Subd. 2. [INJUNCTIVE RELIEF.] In addition to any other remedy provided by law, including the issuance of a cease and desist order under subdivision 1, the commissioner of health or a licensing board may in its own name may bring an action in Ramsey county district court for injunctive relief to restrain any unauthorized practice or violation or threatened violation of any statute or, rule, or order which the board or commissioner of health is empowered to regulate or, enforce, or issue. A temporary restraining order may be granted in the proceeding if continued activity by a person would create an imminent a serious risk of harm to others.

Subd. 3. [ADDITIONAL POWERS.] The issuance of a cease and desist order or injunctive relief granted pursuant to under this section shall does not relieve a person enjoined from criminal prosecution by any competent authority or from disciplinary action by the commissioner of health or board in respect to the person's license or application for license or renewal.

Sec. 6. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 626.5562, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [REPORT TO DEPARTMENT OF HEALTH.] Physicians shall report to the department of health the results of positive tests performed under subdivisions 1 and 2. REPORT FROM THE COMMITTEE ON RULES AND LEGISLATIVE ADMINISTRATION

Long, from the Committee on Rules and Legislative Administration, pursuant to House Rule No. 1.9, designated the following bills as Special Orders to be acted upon immediately preceding Special Orders pending for today, Thursday, April 5, 1990:

S. F. No. 2412 and H. F. No. 2005.

SPECIAL ORDERS

The Speaker called Rodosovich to the Chair.

S. F. No. 2412 was reported to the House.

Simoneau, Sviggum and Begich moved to amend S. F. No. 2412, as follows:

Page 1, after line 21, insert:

"Sec. 2. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 79A.12, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [ASSESSMENT.] The security fund may assess each of its members a pro rata share of the funding necessary to carry out its obligation and the purposes of this chapter. Total annual assessments in any calendar year shall not exceed four ten percent of the workers' compensation benefits paid under sections 176.101 and 176.111 during the previous calendar year. The annual assessment calculation shall not include supplementary benefits paid which will be reimbursed by the special compensation fund. Funds obtained by assessments pursuant to this subdivision may only be used for the purposes of this chapter. The trustees shall certify to the commissioner the collection and receipt of all money from assessments, noting any delinquencies. The trustees shall take any action deemed appropriate to collect any delinquent assessments."

S. F. No. 2489 was reported to the House.

Rukavina; Carlson, D.; Vellenga and Hasskamp moved to amend S. F. No. 2489, as follows:

"Section 1. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 92.46, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [PUBLIC CAMPGROUNDS.] (a) The director may designate suitable portions of the state lands withdrawn from sale and not reserved, as provided in section 92.45, as permanent state public campgrounds. The director may have the land surveyed and platted into lots of convenient size, and lease them for cottage and camp purposes under terms and conditions the director prescribes, subject to the provisions of this section.

(b) A lease may not be for a term more than 20 years. The lease may allow renewal, from time to time, for additional terms of no longer than 20 years each. The lease may be canceled by the commissioner 90 days after giving the person leasing the land written notice of violation of lease conditions. The lease rate shall be based on the appraised value of leased land as determined by the commissioner of natural resources and shall be adjusted by the commissioner at the fifth, tenth, and 15th anniversary of the lease, if the appraised value has increased or decreased. For leases that are renewed in 1991 and following years, the lease rate shall be five percent of the appraised value of the leased land. The appraised value shall be the value of the leased land without any private improvements and must be comparable to similar land without any improvements within the same county. The minimum appraised value that the commissioner assigns to the leased land must be substantially equal to the county assessor's estimated market value of similar land adjusted by the assessment/sales ratio as determined by the department of revenue.

(c) By July 1, 1986, the commissioner of natural resources shall adopt rules under chapter 14 to establish procedures for leasing land under this section. The rules shall be subject to review and approval by the commissioners of revenue and administration prior to the initial publication pursuant to chapter 14 and prior to their final adoption. The rules must address at least the following:

- (1) method of appraising the property; and
- (2) determination of lease rates; and
- (3) an appeal procedure for both the appraised values and lease rates.

(d) All money received from these leases must be credited to the fund to which the proceeds of the land belong.

Notwithstanding section 16A.125 or any other law to the contrary, 50 percent of the money received from the lease of permanent school fund lands leased pursuant to this subdivision shall be deposited into the permanent school trust fund. However, in fiscal years 1987, 1988, 1989, 1990, 1991, and 1992, the money received from the lease of permanent school fund lands that would otherwise be deposited into the permanent school fund is hereby appropriated to survey, appraise, and pay associated selling costs of lots as required in section 92.67, subdivision 3. The money appropriated may not be used to pay the cost of surveying lots not scheduled for sale. Any money designated for deposit in the permanent school fund that is not needed to survey, appraise, and pay associated selling costs of lots, as required in section 92.67, shall be deposited in the permanent school fund. The commissioner shall add to the appraised value of any lot offered for sale the costs of surveying, appraising, and selling the lot, and shall first deposit into the permanent school fund an amount equal to the costs of surveying, appraising, and selling any lot paid out of the permanent school fund. Any remaining money shall be deposited into any other contributing funds in proportion to the contribution from each fund. In no case may the commissioner add to the appraised value of any lot offered for sale an amount more than $700 for the costs of surveying and appraising the lot.

Sec. 2. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 92.67, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [SALE REQUIREMENT.] Notwithstanding section 92.45 or any other law, at the request of a lessee or as otherwise provided in this section, the commissioner of natural resources shall sell state property bordering public waters that is leased for the purpose of a private cabin under section 92.46. Requests for sale must be made prior to December 31, 1992, and the commissioner shall complete all requested sales and sales arising from those requests by December 31, 1993, subject to subdivision 3, clause (d). The sale shall be made in accordance with laws providing for the sale of trust fund land except as modified by the provisions of this section. In 1990 and 1991 a request for sale may be withdrawn by a lessee at any time more than ten days before the day set for a sale. Property withdrawn from sale by its lessee is not subject to sale under this section until the lessee makes another request. Property withdrawn from sale shall continue to be governed by other law.

Sec. 3. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 92.67, subdivision 4, is amended to read:

Subd. 4. [TIMING OF SALES.] (a) The commissioner shall offer lakeshore cabin site lots for sale pursuant to written request and in accordance with the following schedule:

(1) as to requests received before January 1, 1988, the sale shall be held not later than by October 31, 1988, if possible. However, if a lot is not offered for sale by that date, the lot shall be offered for sale at the next sale in the next year;

(2) as to requests received each calendar year after December 31, 1987, the sale shall be held in June, July, or August of the year after the request is received;

(3) notwithstanding clause (2), the commissioner may offer a lot for sale in the year the request is received if the commissioner will offer for sale in that year other lots platted with the late requested lot;

(4) notwithstanding clause (2), if more than 50 percent of the lessees in a platted area request by December 31 of a calendar year that their lots be offered for sale, the commissioner shall offer for sale at one time during June, July, or August of the following year all lots in a platted area. If a lessee, whose lot is located in a plat where more than 50 percent of the lessees request that their lots be offered for sale, requests in writing that the lessee's lot not be offered for sale, the commissioner may not offer the lot for sale until 1993; and

(5) lots that are unsold for any reason at the end of 1993 shall be offered for sale in increments over a period of five years beginning in 1994. Lots that are unsold for any reason at the end of 1998 shall be offered for sale in 1999 and each year thereafter until sold.

(b) Lots not sold the first year offered may be reoffered in a succeeding year, following reappraisal if it is determined necessary by the commissioner.

(c) If a person other than the lessee purchases the leased lakeshore cabin site, the purchaser must make payment in full to the lessee, in the manner provided in section 92.06, subdivision 4, for the appraised value of any improvements. Failure of a successful bidder to comply with this provision voids the sale and the property may be reoffered for sale as provided in section 92.06, subdivision 4."

"Sec. 11. [PRIVATE SALE OF TAX-FORFEITED LAND; BECKER COUNTY.]

(a) Notwithstanding Minnesota Statutes, sections 92.45 and 282.241, the public sale provisions of Minnesota Statutes, chapter 282, or other law to the contrary, Becker county, on behalf of the state, shall convey by private sale the tax-forfeited land described in paragraph (c).

(b) The land described in paragraph (c) must be sold by private sale to Gary E. and Margaret J. Hukee of Lake Elmo, Minnesota. The attorney general shall prepare appropriate instruments of conveyance with a precise description of all land subject to this section. The conveyance must be for a consideration of taxes due on the property, any special assessments reinstated under Minnesota Statutes, section 282.251, and any penalties, interest, and costs, under the terms provided for repurchase in Minnesota Statutes, section 282.261, subdivisions 1, 2, and 4.

(c) The land that may be conveyed is located in Becker county, is designated as tax parcel 33-0015-000, and is described as:

(1) the Northeast Quarter of the Southwest Quarter of Section 3, Township 139 North, Range 38 West;

(2) the Southeast Quarter of the Northeast Quarter of Section 3, Township 139 North, Range 38 West; and

(3) the West One-Half of the Northeast Quarter of Section 3, Township 139 North, Range 38 West;

(4) less that portion taken for highway purposes.

(d) Mr. and Mrs. Hukee, due to mistake and severe medical and employment difficulties, failed to pay the taxes. Becker county finds that the property would be put to better use if returned to private ownership."

SUSPENSION OF RULES

Quinn moved that the rules be so far suspended that the comparison report on S. F. No. 2018 and H. F. No. 2005 be reported at this time. The motion prevailed.

REPORTS OF CHIEF CLERK

S. F. No. 2018 and H. F. No. 2005, which had been referred to the Chief Clerk for comparison, were examined and found to be identical with certain exceptions.

SUSPENSION OF RULES

Quinn moved that the rules be so far suspended that S. F. No. 2018 be substituted for H. F. No. 2005 and that the House File be indefinitely postponed. The motion prevailed.

SUSPENSION OF RULES

Pursuant to Article IV, Section 19, of the Constitution of the state of Minnesota, Quinn moved that the rule therein be suspended and an urgency be declared so that S. F. No. 2018 be given its second and third readings and be placed upon its final passage. The motion prevailed.

Quinn moved that the Rules of the House be so far suspended that S. F. No. 2018 be given its second and third readings and be placed upon its final passage. The motion prevailed.

S. F. No. 2018 was read for the second time.

Quinn moved to amend S. F. No. 2018, as follows:

Delete everything after the enacting clause and insert:

“Section 1. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 297A.01, subdivision 16, is amended to read:

Subd. 16. [CAPITAL EQUIPMENT.] Capital equipment means machinery and equipment and the materials and supplies necessary to construct or install the machinery or equipment. To qualify under this definition the capital equipment must be used by the purchaser or lessee for manufacturing, fabricating, or refining a product to be sold at retail and must be used for the establishment of a new or the physical expansion of an existing manufacturing, fabricating, or refining facility in the state. Capital equipment does not include (1) machinery or equipment purchased or leased to replace machinery or equipment performing substantially the same function in an existing facility; or (2) repair or replacement parts; or (3) machinery or equipment used to extract, receive, or store raw materials.

Sec. 2. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 299L.03, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 9. [VIDEO GAMES OF CHANCE.] The commissioner shall exercise all powers and duties assigned to the commissioner relating to video games of chance under sections 349.50 to 349.60 through the division and director.

Sec. 3. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 299L.03, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 10. [FINGERPRINTING.] The director may require that any: (1) licensee under sections 349.11 to 349.23, (2) employee of such a licensee, or (3) shareholder or officer of such a licensee be fingerprinted by the director, or otherwise submit to fingerprinting in a form and manner acceptable to the director.

Sec. 4. [299L.06] [JURISDICTION.]

In any investigation or other enforcement activity where there is probable cause to believe that a criminal violation relating to gambling has occurred, the division shall be the primary investigation entity where enforcement rests.

Sec. 5. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 349.12, subdivision 10, is amended to read:

Subd. 10. "Pull-tab" means a single folded or banded ticket or a card with a face covered to conceal one or more numbers or symbols, where one or more of each set of tickets or cards has been designated in advance as a winner. "Pull-tab" also includes a ticket sold in a gambling device known as a ticket jar, and includes plays on a video pull-tab device and video pull-tab device memory chips.

Sec. 6. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 349.12, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 10a. [VIDEO PULL-TAB DEVICE.] "Video pull-tab device" means an electronic video device that on the insertion of cash or a token simulates the game of pull-tabs.

Sec. 7. Minnesota Statutes Second 1989 Supplement, section 349.12, subdivision 11, is amended to read:

Subd. 11. (a) "Lawful purpose" means one or more of the following:

(1) benefiting persons by enhancing their opportunity for religious or educational advancement, by relieving or protecting them from disease, suffering or distress, by contributing to their physical well-being, by assisting them in establishing themselves in life as worthy and useful citizens, or by increasing their comprehension of and devotion to the principles upon which this nation was founded;

(2) initiating, performing, or fostering worthy public works or enabling or furthering the erection or maintenance of public structures;

(3) lessening the burdens borne by government or voluntarily supporting, augmenting or supplementing services which government would normally render to the people;

(4) payment of local taxes authorized under this chapter, and taxes imposed by the United States on receipts from lawful gambling;

(5) any expenditure by, or any contribution to, a hospital or nursing home exempt from taxation under section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code;

(6) payment of reasonable costs incurred in complying with the performing of annual audits required under section 349.19, subdivision 9;

(7) payment of real estate taxes and assessments on licensed gambling premises wholly owned by the licensed organization; or

(8) if approved by the board, construction, improvement, expansion, maintenance, and repair of athletic fields and outdoor ice rinks and their appurtenances, owned by the organization or a public agency.

(b) "Lawful purpose" does not include the erection, acquisition, improvement, expansion, repair, or maintenance of any real property or capital assets owned or leased by an organization, other than a hospital or nursing home exempt from taxation under section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, unless the board has first specifically authorized the expenditures after finding: (1) that the property or capital assets will be used exclusively for one or more of the purposes specified in paragraph (a), clauses (1) to (3); or (2) with respect to expenditures for repair or maintenance only, that the property is or will be used extensively as a meeting place or event location by other nonprofit organizations or community or service groups and that no rental fee is charged for the use; or (3) with respect to expenditures for erection or acquisition only, that the erection or acquisition is necessary to replace with a comparable building a building owned by the organization and destroyed or made uninhabitable by fire or natural disaster, provided that the expenditure may be only for that part of the replacement cost not reimbursed by insurance. The board shall by rule adopt procedures and standards to administer this subdivision.

(1) any expenditure by or contribution to a 501(c)(3) organization, provided that the organization and expenditure or contribution are in conformity with standards prescribed by the board under section 19;

(2) a contribution to an organization designed to assist an individual or family suffering from poverty, homelessness, or physical or mental disability, which is used to relieve the effects of that poverty, homelessness, or disability;

(3) a contribution to an organization designed to assist an individual for treatment for delayed post-traumatic stress syndrome, or a contribution to a recognized program for the treatment of compulsive gambling on behalf of an individual who is a compulsive gambler;

(4) a contribution to or expenditure on a public or private nonprofit educational institution registered with or accredited by this state or any other state;

(5) a contribution to a scholarship fund for defraying the cost of education to individuals, where the funds are awarded through an open and fair selection process not controlled by the contributing organization;

(6) activities by a veterans organization or a government entity which recognize humanitarian or military service to the United States, the state of Minnesota, or a community;

(7) recreational and athletic facilities and activities intended primarily for persons under age 21, provided that such facilities and activities do not discriminate on the basis of gender, as evidenced by (i) provision of equipment and supplies, (ii) scheduling of activities, including games and practice times, (iii) supply and assignment of coaches or other adult supervisors, (iv) provision and availability of support facilities, and (v) whether the opportunity to participate reflects each gender's demonstrated interest in the activity;

(8) payment of local taxes authorized under this chapter, and taxes imposed by the United States on receipts from lawful gambling;

(9) a contribution to the United States, this state or any of its political subdivisions, or any agency or instrumentality thereof other than a direct contribution to a law enforcement or prosecutorial agency; or

(10) a contribution to or expenditure by a nonprofit organization, church or body of communicants, gathered in common membership for mutual support and edification in piety, worship, or religious observances.

(b) Notwithstanding paragraph (a), "lawful purpose" does not include:

(1) any expenditure made or incurred for the purpose of influencing the nomination or election of a candidate for public office or for the purpose of promoting or defeating a ballot question;

(2) any activity intended to influence an election or a governmental decision-making process;

(3) the erection, acquisition, improvement, expansion, repair, or maintenance of real property or capital assets owned or leased by an organization, unless the board has first specifically authorized the expenditures after finding that (i) the real property or capital assets will be used exclusively for one or more of the purposes in paragraph (a); (ii) with respect to expenditures for repair or maintenance only, that the property is or will be used extensively as a meeting place or event location by other nonprofit organizations or community or service groups and that no rental fee is charged for the use; (iii) with respect to expenditures, including a mortgage payment or other debt service payment, for erection or acquisition only, that the erection or acquisition is necessary to replace with a comparable building, a building owned by the organization and destroyed or made uninhabitable by fire or natural disaster, provided that the expenditure may be only for that part of the replacement cost not reimbursed by insurance; or (iv) with respect to expenditures, including a mortgage payment or other debt service payment, for erection or acquisition only, that the erection or acquisition is necessary to replace with a comparable building a building owned by the organization that was acquired from the organization by eminent domain or sold by the organization to a purchaser that the organization reasonably believed would otherwise have acquired the building by eminent domain, provided that the expenditure may be only for that part of the replacement cost that exceeds the compensation received by the organization for the building being replaced;

(4) an expenditure by an organization which is a contribution to a parent organization, foundation or affiliate of the contributing organization, if the parent organization, foundation, or affiliate has provided to the contributing organization within one year of the contribution any money, grants, property, or other thing of value; or

(5) a contribution by a licensed organization to another licensed organization unless the board has specifically authorized the contribution. The board must authorize such a contribution when requested to do so by the contributing organization unless it makes an affirmative finding that the contribution will not be used by the recipient organization for one or more of the purposes in paragraph (a).

Sec. 8. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 349.12, subdivision 12, is amended to read:

Subd. 12. [ORGANIZATION.] "Organization" means any fraternal, religious, veterans, or other nonprofit organization which has at least 15 active members, and either has been duly incorporated as a nonprofit organization for at least three years, or has been recognized by the Internal Revenue Service as exempt from income taxation for the most recent three years.

Sec. 9. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 349.12, subdivision 15, is amended to read:

Subd. 15. [GAMBLING EQUIPMENT.] "Gambling equipment" means: bingo cards or sheets, devices for selecting bingo numbers, pull-tabs, jar tickets, pull-tab and/or tipboard dispensing machines, video pull-tab devices, video pull-tab device memory chips, paddle-wheels, and tipboards.

Sec. 10. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 349.12, subdivision 18, is amended to read:

Subd. 18. [DEAL.] "Deal" means each separate package, or series of packages, consisting of one game of pull-tabs or tipboards with the same serial number. "Deal" also includes a video pull-tab device memory chip.

Sec. 11. Minnesota Statutes Second 1989 Supplement, section 349.12, subdivision 19, is amended to read:

Subd. 19. [IDEAL GROSS.] "Ideal gross" means the total amount of receipts that would be received if every individual ticket in the pull-tab or tipboard deal was sold at its face value. In the calculation of ideal gross and prizes, a free play ticket shall be valued at face value. In the case of video pull-tab devices "ideal gross" is the total amount of receipts that can be received by the read-only memory chip driving the device.

Sec. 12. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 349.12, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 30. [501(c)(3) ORGANIZATION.] "501(c)(3) organization" is an organization exempt from the payment of federal income taxes under section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code.

Sec. 13. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 349.12, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 31. [AFFILIATE.] "Affiliate" is any person or entity directly or indirectly controlling, controlled by, or under common control or ownership with a licensee of the board or any officer or director of a licensee of the board.

Sec. 14. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 349.12, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 32. [PERSON.] "Person" is an individual, firm, association, partnership, corporation, trustee, or legal representative.

Sec. 15. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 349.12, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 33. [VIDEO PULL-TAB DEVICE WHOLESALER.] "Video pull-tab device wholesaler" is a person who purchases video pull-tab devices from a manufacturer and sells them to a distributor.

Sec. 16. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 349.12, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 34. [FLARE.] "Flare" is the posted display, with registration stamp affixed, that sets forth the rules of a particular game of pull-tabs or tipboards, and that is associated with a specific deal of pull-tabs or grouping of tipboards.

Sec. 17. Minnesota Statutes Second 1989 Supplement, section 349.15, is amended to read:

349.15 [USE OF GROSS PROFITS.]

(a) Gross profits from lawful gambling may be expended only for lawful purposes or allowable expenses as authorized at a regular meeting of the conducting organization. Provided that no more than 55 percent of the gross profit less the tax imposed under section 349.212, subdivision 1, from bingo, no more than 50 percent of the gross profit from raffles, paddlewheels, and tipboards, and no more than 50 percent of the gross profit less the taxes imposed by section 349.212, subdivisions 1, 4, and 6, from other forms of lawful gambling pull-tabs, may be expended for allowable expenses related to lawful gambling.

(b) The board shall provide by rule for the administration of this section, including specifying allowable expenses. The rules must specify that no more than one-third of the annual premium on a policy of liability insurance procured by the organization may be taken as an allowable expense. This expense shall be allowed by the board only to the extent that it relates directly to the conduct of lawful gambling and is verified in the manner the board prescribes by rule. The rules may provide a maximum percentage of gross profits which may be expended for certain expenses.

(c) Allowable expenses also include reasonable costs of bank account service charges, and the reasonable costs of an audit required by the board, except an audit required under section 349.19, subdivision 9.

(d) Allowable expenses include reasonable legal fees and damages that relate to the conducting of lawful gambling, except for legal fees or damages incurred in defending the organization against the board, attorney general, United States attorney, commissioner of revenue, or a county or city attorney.

Sec. 18. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 349.151, subdivision 4, is amended to read:

Subd. 4. [POWERS AND DUTIES.] (a) The board has the following powers and duties:

(1) to regulate lawful gambling to ensure it is conducted in the public interest;

(2) to issue, revoke, and suspend licenses to organizations, distributors, bingo halls, and manufacturers under sections 349.16, 349.161, 349.163, and 349.164, and gambling managers;

(2) (3) to collect and deposit license, permit, and registration fees due under this chapter;

(3) (4) to receive reports required by this chapter and inspect the all premises, records, books, and other documents of organizations and suppliers, distributors, manufacturers, and bingo halls to insure compliance with all applicable laws and rules;

(4) (5) to make rules required authorized by this chapter;

(5) (6) to register gambling equipment and issue registration stamps under section 349.162;

(6) (7) to provide by rule for the mandatory posting by organizations conducting lawful gambling of rules of play and the odds and/or house percentage on each form of lawful gambling;

(7) (8) to report annually to the governor and legislature on its activities and on recommended changes in the laws governing gambling;

(8) (9) to impose civil penalties of not more than $500 per violation on organizations, distributors, and manufacturers, bingo halls, and gambling managers for failure to comply with any provision of sections 349.12 to 349.23 this chapter or any rule of the board;

(9) to notify city councils, county boards, and town boards before issuing or renewing licenses to organizations and bingo halls as specified under section 349.213; and

(10) to issue premises permits to organizations licensed to conduct lawful gambling;

(11) to delegate to the director the authority to issue licenses and premises permits under criteria established by the board;

(12) to suspend or revoke licenses and premises permits of organizations, distributors, manufacturers, bingo halls, or gambling managers for violations of law or board rule;

(13) to register recipients of net profits from lawful gambling and to revoke or suspend such registrations;

(14) to register employees of organizations licensed to conduct lawful gambling;

(15) to require fingerprints from those persons determined by board rule to be subject to fingerprinting; and

(16) to take all necessary steps to ensure the integrity of and public confidence in lawful gambling.

(b) Any organization, distributor, bingo hall operator, or manufacturer assessed a civil penalty may request a hearing before the board. Hearings conducted on appeals of imposition of penalties are not subject to the provisions of the administrative procedure act.

(c) All fees and penalties received by the board must be deposited in the general fund.

Sec. 19. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 349.152, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [DUTIES OF THE DIRECTOR.] The director has the following duties:

(1) to carry out gambling policy established by the board;

(2) to employ and supervise personnel of the board;

(3) to advise and make recommendations to the board on rules;

(4) to issue licenses and premises permits as authorized by the board;

(5) to issue cease and desist orders;

(6) to make recommendations to the board on license issuance, denial, suspension and revocation, and civil penalties the board imposes; and

(7) to ensure that board rules, policy, and decisions are adequately and accurately conveyed to the board's licensees.

Sec. 20. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 349.152, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 3. [CEASE AND DESIST ORDERS.] Whenever it appears to the director that any person has engaged or is about to engage in any act or practice constituting a violation of this chapter or any rule:

(a) The director has the power to issue and cause to be served upon the person an order requiring the person to cease and desist from violations of this chapter. The order must give reasonable notice of the rights of the person to request a hearing and must state the reason for the entry of the order. A hearing shall be held not later than seven days after the request for the hearing is received by the board after which and within 20 days of the date of the hearing the board shall issue an order vacating the cease and desist order or making it permanent as the facts require. All hearings shall be conducted in accordance with the provisions of chapter 14. If the person to whom a cease and desist order is issued fails to appear at the hearing after being duly notified, the person shall be deemed in default, and the proceeding may be determined against the person upon consideration of the cease and desist order, the allegations of which may be deemed to be true.

(b) The board may bring an action in the district court in the appropriate county to enjoin the acts or practices and to enforce compliance with this chapter or any rule and may refer the matter to the attorney general. Upon a proper showing, a permanent or temporary injunction, restraining order, or writ of mandamus shall be granted. The court may not require the board to post a bond.

Sec. 21. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 349.152, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 4. [EXECUTIVE ASSISTANT.] The director may appoint an executive assistant to the director, who is in the unclassified service.

Sec. 22. [349.154] [EXPENDITURE OF NET PROFITS FROM LAWFUL GAMBLING.]

Subdivision 1. [STANDARDS FOR CERTAIN ORGANIZATIONS.] The board shall by rule prescribe standards that must be met by any licensed organization that is a 501(c)(3) organization. The standards must provide:

(1) operating standards for the organization, including a maximum percentage or percentages of the organization's total expenditures that may be expended for the organization's administration and operation; and

(2) standards for any expenditure by the organization of net profits from lawful gambling, including a requirement that the expenditure be related to the primary purpose of the organization.

Subd. 2. [NET PROFIT REPORTS.] (a) Each licensed organization must report monthly to the board on a form prescribed by the board each expenditure and contribution of net profits from lawful gambling. The reports must provide for each expenditure or contribution:

(1) the name, address, and telephone number of the recipient of the expenditure or contribution;

(2) the date the contribution was approved by the organization;

(3) the date, amount, and check number of the expenditure or contribution; and

(4) a brief description of how the expenditure or contribution meets one or more of the purposes in section 349.12, subdivision 11, paragraph (a).

(b) Each report required under paragraph (a) must be accompanied by an acknowledgment, on a form the board prescribes, of each contribution of net profits from lawful gambling included in the report. The acknowledgment must be signed by the recipient of the contribution, or, if the recipient is not an individual, or other authorized representative of the recipient, by an officer. The acknowledgment must include the name and address of the contributing organization and each item in paragraph (a), clauses (1) to (3).

(c) The board shall provide the commissioners of revenue and public safety copies of each report received under this subdivision.

Subd. 3. [REGISTRATION OF LAWFUL GAMBLING NET PROFIT RECIPIENTS.] The board may by rule require that any individual, organization, or other entity must be registered with the board to receive a contribution of net profits from lawful gambling. The rules may designate and define specific categories of recipients which are subject to registration. The board may suspend or revoke the registration of any recipient the board determines has made an unlawful expenditure of net profits from lawful gambling.

Sec. 23. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 349.16, as amended by Laws 1989, chapter 334, article 2, sections 20 and 21, and Laws 1989, First Special Session chapter 1, article 13, section 8, is amended to read:

349.16 [ORGANIZATION LICENSES.]

Subdivision 1. [LICENSE REQUIRED.] An organization may conduct lawful gambling if it has a license to conduct lawful gambling and complies with this chapter.

Subd. 2. [ISSUANCE OF GAMBLING LICENSES.] Licenses authorizing organizations to conduct lawful gambling may be issued by the board to organizations meeting the following qualifications of ~~section 349.14~~, if the board determines that the license is consistent with the purpose of sections 349.11 to 349.22:

(a) The organization must have been in existence for the most recent three years preceding the license application as a registered Minnesota nonprofit corporation or as an organization designated as exempt from the payment of income taxes by the Internal Revenue Code.

(b) The organization at the time of licensing must have at least 15 active members.

(c) The organization must not be in existence solely for the purpose of conducting gambling.

(d) The organization must not have as an officer or member of the governing body any person who has within the five years prior to the issuance of the license been convicted in a federal or state court of a felony or gross misdemeanor or who has ever been convicted of a crime involving gambling or who has had a license issued by the board or director revoked for a violation of law or board rule.

(e) The organization has identified in its license application the lawful purposes on which it proposes to expend net profits from lawful gambling.

(f) The organization has identified on its license application a gambling manager and certifies that the manager is qualified under this section.

(g) The organization must not, in the opinion of the board after consultation with the commissioner of revenue, be seeking licensing primarily for the purpose of evading or reducing the tax imposed by section 349.212, subdivision 6.

Subd. 3. [TERM OF LICENSE: SUSPENSION AND REVOCATION] (a) Licenses issued under this section are valid for one year and may be suspended by the board for a violation of law or board rule or revoked for what the board determines to be a pattern of willful violations violation of law or board rule. A revocation or suspension is a contested case under sections 14.57 to 14.69 of the administrative procedure act.

(b) The board may summarily suspend the license of an organization that is more than three months late in filing a tax return required under this chapter, and may keep the suspension in effect until all required returns are filed. The board must notify an organization at least 14 days before suspending the organization's license under this paragraph. A contested case hearing must be held within 20 days of the summary suspension and the administrative law judge's report must be issued within 20 days after the close of the hearing record. In all cases involving summary suspension, the board must issue its final decision within 30 days after receipt of the report of the administrative law judge and subsequent exceptions and argument under section 14.61.

(c) When an organization's license is suspended or revoked under this subdivision, the board shall within three days notify all municipalities in which the organization's gambling premises are located, and all licensed distributors in the state.

Subd. 1a. [RESTRICTIONS ON LICENSE ISSUANCE.] On and after October 1, 1989, the board shall not issue an initial license to any organization if the board, in consultation with the department of revenue, determines that the organization is seeking licensing for the primary purpose of evading or reducing the tax imposed by section 349.212, subdivision 6.

Subd. 2 4. [APPLICATION.] All applications for a license under this section must be on a form prescribed by the board. The board may require the applying organization to submit a copy of its articles of incorporation and other documents it deems necessary.

Subd. 5. [RENEWALS.] The board shall not renew a license issued under this section unless it determines that the organization is (1) in compliance with all laws and rules governing lawful gambling; and (2) is not delinquent in filing tax returns or paying taxes required under this chapter. The board may delegate to the director the authority to make determinations required under this subdivision.

Subd. 3 6. [FEES.] The board may issue four classes of organization licenses: a class A license authorizing all forms of lawful gambling; a class B license authorizing all forms of lawful gambling except bingo; a class C license authorizing bingo only; and a class D license authorizing raffles only. The annual license fee for each class of license is:

- (1) $200 for a class A license;
- (2) $125 for a class B license;
- (3) $100 for a class C license; and

(4) $75 for a class D license. board shall not charge a fee for an organization license.

Subd. 7. [PURCHASE OF GAMBLING EQUIPMENT.] An organization may purchase gambling equipment only from a person licensed as a distributor.

Subd. 4 8. [LOCAL INVESTIGATION FEE.] A statutory or home rule charter city or county notified under section 349.213, subdivision 2, may assess an investigation fee on organizations or bingo halls applying for or renewing a license to conduct lawful gambling or operate a bingo hall. An investigation fee may not exceed the following limits:

- (1) for cities of the first class, $500;
- (2) for cities of the second class, $250;
- (3) for all other cities, $100; and
- (4) for counties, $375.

Sec. 24. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 349.161, as amended by Laws 1989, First Special Session chapter 1, article 13, section 9, is amended to read:

349.161 [DISTRIBUTOR LICENSES.]

Subdivision 1. [PROHIBITED ACTS; LICENSES REQUIRED.]
No person may:

(2) sell, offer for sale, or furnish gambling equipment to an ~~organization licensed~~ for lawful gambling without having obtained a distributor license under this section;

(3) sell, offer for sale, or furnish gambling equipment for use within the state that is not purchased or obtained from a manufacturer or distributor licensed under this chapter, or in the case of video pull-tab devices, purchased or obtained from a manufacturer or a video pull-tab device wholesaler; or

(4) sell, offer for sale, or furnish gambling equipment for use within the state that has the same serial number as another item of gambling equipment of the same type sold or offered for sale or furnished for use in the state by that distributor.

No licensed organization may purchase gambling equipment from any person not licensed as a distributor under this section.

Nothing in this subdivision prohibits the otherwise lawful sale of video pull-tab devices to a distributor by a licensed video pull-tab device wholesaler.

Subd. 2. [LICENSE APPLICATION.] The board may issue licenses for the sale of gambling equipment to persons who meet the qualifications of this section if the board determines that a license is consistent with the purpose of sections 349.11 to 349.22. Applications must be on a form the board prescribes.

Subd. 3. [QUALIFICATIONS.] A license may not be issued under this section to a person, or to a corporation, firm, or partnership which has as an officer, director, other person in a supervisory or management position, or employee eligible to make sales on behalf of the distributor a person, who:

(1) has been convicted of a felony ~~within the past five years;~~

(4) is or has ever been engaged in an illegal business;

(4) (5) owes $500 or more in delinquent taxes as defined in section 270.72;

(5) (6) has had a sales and use tax permit revoked by the commissioner of revenue within the last two years; or

(6) (7) after demand, has not filed tax returns required by the commissioner of revenue.

Subd. 4. [FEES.] The annual fee for a distributor's license is $2,500.

Subd. 5. [PROHIBITION.] (a) No distributor, or employee of a distributor, may also be a wholesale distributor of alcoholic beverages or an employee of a wholesale distributor of alcoholic beverages.

(b) No distributor, ~~distributor's~~ or any representative, agent, affiliate, or employee of a distributor, may be (1) involved directly in the operation conduct of lawful gambling ~~conducted~~ by an organization; (2) keep or assist in the keeping of an organization's financial records, accounts, and inventories; or (3) prepare or assist in the preparation of tax forms and other reporting forms required to be submitted to the state by an organization.

(c) No ~~manufacturer or distributor or person acting as a~~ any representative, agent, affiliate, or employee of a ~~manufacturer or distributor~~ may provide a lessor of gambling premises any compensation, gift, gratuity, premium, or other thing of value.

(d) No distributor, ~~distributor's~~ or any representative, agent, affiliate, or employee of a distributor may participate in any gambling activity at any gambling site or premises where gambling equipment purchased from that distributor is being used in the conduct of lawful gambling.

(e) No distributor, ~~distributor's~~ or any representative, agent, affiliate, or employee of a distributor may alter or modify any gambling equipment, except to add a "last ticket sold" prize sticker.

(f) No distributor or any representative, agent, affiliate, or employee of a distributor may: (1) recruit a person to become a gambling manager of an organization or identify to an organization a person as a candidate to become gambling manager for the organization; or (2) identify for an organization a potential gambling location.

(g) No distributor may purchase gambling equipment from any person not licensed as a manufacturer under section 349.163.

(h) No distributor may sell gambling equipment to any person in Minnesota other than (i) a licensed organization or organization exempt from licensing, or (ii) the governing body of an Indian tribe.

Subd. 6. [REVOCATION AND SUSPENSION.] A license under this section may be suspended by the board for a violation of law or board rule ~~or~~. A license under this section may be revoked for (1) failure to meet the qualifications in subdivision 3 at any time; or revoked (2) for what the board determines to be a pattern of a willful violations violation of law or board rule. A revocation or suspension is a contested case under sections 14.57 to 14.69 of the administrative procedure act.

Subd. 7. [CRIMINAL HISTORY.] The board may request the assistance of the division of gambling enforcement in investigating the background of an applicant for a distributor's license and may reimburse the division of gambling enforcement for the costs thereof. The board has access to all criminal history data compiled by the division of gambling enforcement on licensees and applicants.

Subd. 8. [EMPLOYEES OF DISTRIBUTORS.] Licensed distributors shall provide the board upon request with the names and home addresses of all employees. Each distributor, and employee of a distributor, or a person making sales of gambling equipment on behalf of a distributor must have in their possession a picture identification card approved by the board. No person other than an employee of a licensed distributor shall make any sales on behalf of a licensed distributor.

Subd. 9. [LEASES OF VIDEO PULL-TAB DEVICES.] For purposes of this section the terms "sell" and "sale" include the lease of a video pull-tab device or pull-tab dispensing machine by a distributor to a licensed organization.

Sec. 25. [349.1611] [VIDEO PULL-TAB DEVICE WHOLE-SALER.]

Subdivision 1. [LICENSE REQUIRED.] No person may engage in the business of purchasing video pull-tab devices from a manufacturer for sale to a distributor without having obtained a license from the board. The board may issue a license to persons who meet the qualifications of this section if the board determines that issuance of the license is consistent with the purposes of section 349.11 to 349.23. Applications must be on a form the board prescribes. Video pull-tab device wholesaler's licenses are valid for one year. The fee for a video pull-tab device wholesaler's license is $2,500.

Subd. 2. [QUALIFICATIONS.] A license may not be issued under this section to a person, or to a corporation, firm, or partnership which has as an officer, director, other person in a supervisory or management position, or employee eligible to make sales on behalf of the distributor, a person, who:

- (1) has been convicted of a felony;
- (2) has ever been convicted of a felony involving fraud or misrepresentation or a crime involving gambling;
- (3) has ever been convicted of (i) assault, (ii) any criminal violation involving the use of a firearm, or (iii) making terroristic threats;

(4) is or has ever been engaged in an illegal business;

(5) owes $500 or more in delinquent taxes as defined in section 270.72;

(6) has had a sales and use tax permit revoked by the commissioner of revenue within the last two years; or

(7) after demand, has not filed tax returns required by the commissioner of revenue.

A video pull-tab device wholesaler's license may not be issued to any person licensed as a distributor under section 349.161.

Subd. 3. [PROHIBITIONS.] All prohibitions applicable to distributors or manufacturers under section 349.161, subdivision 5, apply to video pull-tab device wholesalers.

Subd. 4. [REVOCATION; SUSPENSION.] A license under this section may be suspended by the board for a violation of law or board rule. A license under this section may be revoked for (1) failure to meet the qualifications in subdivision 2 at any time, or (2) for a willful violation of law or board rule. A revocation or suspension is a contested case under sections 14.57 to 14.69 of the administrative procedure act.

Sec. 26. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 349.162, is amended to read:

349.162 [EQUIPMENT REGISTERED.]

Subdivision 1. [STAMP REQUIRED.] (a) A distributor may not sell, transfer, furnish, or otherwise provide to a person, organization, or distributor, and no person, organization, or distributor may purchase, borrow, accept, or acquire from a distributor gambling equipment unless the equipment has been registered with the board and has a registration stamp affixed. The board shall charge a fee of five cents for each stamp. Each stamp must bear a registration number assigned by the board. A distributor is entitled to a refund for unused stamps and replacement for stamps which are defective or canceled by the distributor.

(b) From January 1, 1991, to June 30, 1992, no distributor, organization, or other person may sell a pull-tab which is not clearly marked "For Sale in Minnesota Only."

(c) On and after July 1, 1992, no distributor, organization, or other person may sell a pull-tab which is not clearly marked "Manufactured in Minnesota For Sale in Minnesota Only."

Subd. 2. [RECORDS REQUIRED.] A distributor must maintain a record of all gambling equipment which it sells to organizations. The record must include:

(1) the identity of the person or firm from whom the equipment was distributor purchased the equipment;

(2) the registration number of the equipment;

(3) the name and, address and license or exempt permit number of the organization to which the sale was made;

(4) the date of the sale;

(5) the name of the person who ordered the equipment; and

(6) the name of the person who received the equipment;

(7) the type of equipment;

(8) the serial number of the equipment;

(9) the name, form number, or other identifying information for each game; and

(10) in the case of bingo cards sold on and after January 1, 1991, the individual number of each card.

The invoice for each sale must be retained for at least two three and one-half years after the sale is completed and a copy of each invoice is to be delivered to the board in the manner and time prescribed by the board. For purposes of this section, a sale is completed when the gambling equipment is physically delivered to the purchaser.

Each distributor must report monthly to the board, in a form the board prescribes, its sales of each type of gambling equipment. Employees of the division and the division of gambling enforcement may inspect the business premises, books, records, and other documents of a distributor at any reasonable time without notice and without a search warrant.

Subd. 3. [EXEMPTION.] For purposes of this section, bingo cards or sheets need not be stamped.

Subd. 4. [PROHIBITION.] (a) No person other than a licensed distributor may possess unaffixed registration stamps issued by the board.

(b) Unless otherwise provided in this chapter, no person may possess gambling equipment that has not been stamped and registered with the board.

(c) On and after January 1, 1991, no distributor may:

(1) sell a bingo card that does not bear an individual number; or

(2) sell a package of bingo cards that does not contain bingo cards in numerical order.

Subd. 5. [SALES FROM FACILITIES.] (a) All gambling equipment purchased or possessed by a licensed distributor for resale in Minnesota must, prior to the equipment's resale, be unloaded into a sales or storage facility located in Minnesota which the distributor owns or leases; and which has been registered, in advance and in writing, with the division of gambling enforcement as a sales or storage facility of the distributor's. All unregistered gambling equipment and all unaffixed registration stamps owned by, or in the possession of, a licensed distributor in the state of Minnesota shall be stored at a sales or storage facility which has been registered with the division of gambling enforcement. No gambling equipment may be moved from the facility unless the gambling equipment has been first registered with the board.

(b) All sales and storage facilities owned, leased, used, or operated by a licensed distributor may be entered upon and inspected by the employees of the division of gambling enforcement or the director's authorized representatives during reasonable and regular business hours. Obstruction of, or failure to permit, entry and inspection is cause for revocation or suspension of a distributor's licenses and permits issued under this chapter.

(c) Unregistered gambling equipment and unaffixed registration stamps found at any location in Minnesota other than a registered sales or storage facility are contraband under section 349.2125. This paragraph does not apply to unregistered gambling equipment being transported in interstate commerce between locations outside Minnesota, if the interstate shipment is verified by a bill of lading or other valid shipping document.

Subd. 6. [VIDEO PULL-TAB DEVICE MEMORY CHIPS.] For purposes of this section only, "gambling equipment" includes any memory chip used or intended to be used to drive a video pull-tab device.

Subd. 7. [REMOVAL OF EQUIPMENT FROM INVENTORY.] Authorized employees of the division, the division of gambling enforcement of the department of public safety, and the commissioner of revenue may remove gambling equipment from the inventories of distributors and organizations and test that equipment to determine its compliance with all applicable laws and rules. A distributor or organization may return to the manufacturer thereof any gambling equipment which is determined to be in violation of law or rule. The cost to an organization of gambling equipment removed from inventory under this paragraph and found to be in compliance with all applicable law and rules is an allowable expense under section 349.15.

Sec. 27. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 349.163, as amended by Laws 1989, First Special Session chapter 1, article 13, section 10, is amended to read:

349.163 [LICENSING OF MANUFACTURERS.]

Subdivision 1. [LICENSE REQUIRED.] No manufacturer of gambling equipment may sell any gambling equipment to any person unless the manufacturer has been issued a current and valid license by the board under objective this section and other criteria prescribed by the board by rule.

A manufacturer licensed under this section may not also be directly or indirectly licensed as a distributor under section 349.161 or as a video pull-tab wholesaler under section 22.

Subd. 1a. [QUALIFICATIONS.] A license may not be issued under this section to a person, or to a corporation, firm, or partnership which has as an officer, director, other person in a supervisory or management position, or employee eligible to make sales on behalf of the distributor, a person, who:

- (1) has been convicted of a felony;
- (2) has ever been convicted of a felony involving fraud, misrepresentation, or a crime involving gambling;
- (3) has ever been convicted of (i) assault, (ii) any criminal violation involving the use of a firearm, or (iii) making terroristic threats;
- (4) is or has ever been engaged in an illegal business;
- (5) owes $500 or more in delinquent taxes as defined in section 270.72;

(6) has had a sales and use tax permit revoked by the commissioner of revenue within the last two years; or

(7) after demand, has not filed tax returns required by the commissioner of revenue.

Subd. 1b. [APPLICATIONS; INFORMATION.] An applicant for a manufacturer's license must list on the license application the names and addresses of all subsidiaries, affiliates, and branches in which the applicant has any form of ownership or control, in whole or in part, without regard to whether the subsidiary, affiliate, or branch does business in Minnesota.

Subd. 2. [LICENSE; FEE.] A license under this section is valid for one year. The annual fee for the license is $2,500.

Subd. 3. [PROHIBITED SALES.] (a) A manufacturer may not:

(1) sell gambling equipment to any person not licensed as a distributor unless the manufacturer is also a licensed distributor; or

(2) sell gambling equipment to a distributor in this state that has the same serial number as another item of gambling equipment of the same type that is sold by that manufacturer for use in this state;

(3) on and after January 1, 1991, sell to any person in Minnesota a pull-tab on which the manufacturer has not clearly printed the words "For Sale in Minnesota Only;" or

(4) on and after January 1, 1991, sell to any person inside or outside the state, including the governing body of any Indian tribe, other than a Minnesota licensed distributor, a pull-tab marked "For Sale in Minnesota Only."

(b) A manufacturer, affiliate of a manufacturer, or person acting as a representative, agent, or employee of a manufacturer may not provide a lessor of gambling premises any compensation, gift, gratuity, premium, or other thing of value.

(c) On and after July 1, 1992, all pull-tabs sold by a licensed manufacturer to a person in Minnesota must (1) be manufactured within Minnesota, and (2) be clearly marked with the words "Manufactured in Minnesota For Sale in Minnesota Only." A manufacturer may not place the words required in this paragraph on any pull-tab not manufactured in Minnesota.

Subd. 4. [INSPECTION OF MANUFACTURERS.] Employees of the division and the division of gambling enforcement may inspect the books, records, inventory, and manufacturing operations of a licensed manufacturer without notice during the normal business hours of the manufacturer.

Subd. 5. [PULL-TAB AND TIPBOARD FLARES.] (a) A manufacturer may not ship or cause to be shipped into this state any deal of pull-tabs or tipboards that does not have its own individual flare as required for that deal by rule of the board. No person other than a manufacturer may manufacture, alter, modify, or otherwise change a flare for a deal of pull-tabs or tipboards except as allowed by this chapter or board rules.

(b) The flare of each deal of pull-tabs and tipboards sold by a manufacturer in Minnesota must have the Minnesota gambling stamp affixed. The flare, with the stamp affixed, must be placed inside the wrapping of the deal which the flare describes.

(c) Each pull-tab and tipboard flare must bear the following statement, printed in letters large enough to be clearly legible:

"Pull-tab or tipboard purchasers—This pull-tab or tipboard game is not legal in Minnesota unless:

—a Minnesota gambling stamp is affixed to this sheet, and —the serial number handwritten on the gambling stamp is the same as the serial number printed on this sheet, and on the pull-tab ticket or tipboard you have purchased."

(d) The flare of each pull-tab and tipboard game must bear the serial number of the game, printed in numbers at least one-half inch high.

(e) The flare of each pull-tab and tipboard game must be imprinted at the bottom with a bar code which provides:

- (1) the name of the game;
- (2) the serial number of the game;
- (3) the name of the manufacturer;
- (4) the number of tickets or tipboards in the deal;
- (5) the odds of winning each prize in the deal; and
- (6) any other information the board by rule requires.

The serial number included in the bar code must be the same as the serial number of the tickets or tipboards included in the deal. A manufacturer who manufactures a deal of pull-tabs or tipboards must affix to the outside of the box containing that game the same bar code which is imprinted at the bottom of a flare for that deal.

(f) No person may alter the bar code which appears on the outside of a box containing a deal of pull-tabs or tipboards. Possession of a box containing a deal of pull-tabs or tipboards which has a bar code different from the bar code of the deal inside the box is prima facie evidence that the possessor has altered the bar code on the box.

Subd. 6. [SAMPLES OF GAMBLING EQUIPMENT.] The board shall require each licensed manufacturer to submit samples to the board of each item of gambling equipment the manufacturer manufactures for sale in this state. The board shall inspect and test all such equipment as it deems necessary to determine the equipment's compliance with law and board rules. The board may request the assistance of the commissioner of public safety and the director of the state lottery division in performing such tests.

Subd. 7. [RECYCLED PAPER REQUIRED.] All pull-tabs sold in Minnesota by a licensed manufacturer on and after January 1, 1991, must be manufactured on recycled paper.

Sec. 28. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 349.164, is amended to read:

349.164 [BINGO HALL LICENSES.]

Subdivision 1. [LICENSE REQUIRED.] No person may lease a facility to more than one individual, corporation, partnership, or organization to conduct bingo without having obtained a current and valid bingo hall license under this section; unless the lessor is a licensed organization.

Subd. 2. [LICENSE APPLICATION.] The board may issue a bingo hall license to persons who meet the qualifications of this section if the board determines that a license is consistent with the purpose of sections 349.11 to 349.22. Applications must be on a form the board prescribes. The board may not issue or renew a bingo hall license unless the conditions of section 349.213, subdivision 2, have been satisfied.

Subd. 3. [QUALIFICATIONS.] A license may not be issued under this section to a person, or to a organization, corporation, firm, or partnership which is not the legal owner of the facility, or to a person, organization, corporation, firm, or partnership which has as an officer, director, or other person in a supervisory or management position, who:

- (1) has been convicted of a felony within the past five years;

(2) has ever been convicted of a felony involving fraud or misrepresentation or a crime involving gambling; ~~or~~

(3) has every been convicted of (i) assault, (ii) any criminal violation involving the use of a firearm, or (iii) making terroristic threats;

(4) owes delinquent taxes in excess of $500 as defined in section 270.72; or

(5) after demand, has not filed tax returns required by the commissioner of revenue.

Subd. 4. [FEES.] The annual fee for a bingo hall license is $2,500.

Subd. 5. [CRIMINAL HISTORY.] The board may request the assistance of the division of gambling enforcement in investigating the background of an applicant for a bingo hall license and may reimburse the division of gambling enforcement for the costs. The board has access to all criminal history data compiled by the bureau of criminal apprehension and the division of gambling enforcement on licensees and applicants.

Subd. 6. [~~PROHIBITION~~ PROHIBITED ACTS.] No bingo hall licensee, person holding a financial or managerial interest in a bingo hall, or an affiliate thereof may also:

(1) be a licensed distributor or licensed manufacturer or affiliate of the distributor or manufacturer under section 349.161 or 349.163 or a wholesale distributor of alcoholic beverages;

Subd. 7. [RESTRICTIONS.] A bingo hall licensee or affiliate of the licensee may not:

~~(1)~~ (2) provide any staff to conduct or assist in the conduct of bingo or any other form of lawful gambling during the bingo occasion on the premises;

~~(2)~~ (3) acquire, provide storage or inventory control, or report the use of any gambling equipment used by an organization that conducts bingo lawful gambling on the premises;

~~(3)~~ (4) provide accounting services to an organization conducting bingo lawful gambling on the premises;

~~(4)~~ (5) solicit, suggest, encourage, or make any expenditures of gross receipts of an organization from lawful gambling; or

~~(5)~~ (6) charge any fee to a person at a bingo occasion; without which the person could not play a bingo game or participate in another form of lawful gambling on the premises;

(7) provide assistance or participate in the conduct of lawful gambling on the premises; or

(8) permit more than 21 bingo occasions to be conducted on the premises in any week.

Subd. 8 7. [LEASES.] All of the remuneration to be received from the organization for the conduct of lawful gambling must be stated in the lease. No amount may be paid by the organization or received by the operator of the bingo hall licensee based on the number of participants attending the bingo occasion or participating in lawful gambling on the premises, or based on the gross receipts or profit received by the organization. All provisions of section 349.18 apply to lawful gambling conducted in bingo halls.

Subd. 9 8. [REVOCATION AND SUSPENSION.] A license under this section may be suspended by the board for a violation of law or board rule or revoked for (1) failure to meet the qualifications in subdivision 3 at any time; or revoked for what the board determines to be (2) a pattern of willful violations violation of law or board rule. A revocation or suspension is a contested case under sections 14.57 to 14.69 of the administrative procedure act.

Sec. 29. [349.165] [PREMISES PERMITS.]

Subdivision 1. [PREMISES PERMIT REQUIRED; APPLICATION.] No licensed organization may conduct any lawful gambling at any site unless it has first obtained from the board a premises permit for the site. The board shall prescribe a form for permit applications, and each application for a permit must be submitted on a separate form. The board may by rule limit the number of premises permits that may be issued to an organization.

Subd. 2. [CONTENTS OF APPLICATION.] Each application for a premises permit must contain:

(1) the name and address of the applying organization and of the organization's gambling manager;

(2) a description of the site for which the permit is sought, including its address and, where applicable, its placement within another premises or establishment;

(3) if the site is leased, the name and address of the lessor and such information about the lease as the board requires, including all rents and other charges for the use of the site; and

(4) other information the board deems necessary to carry out its purposes.

An organization holding a premises permit must notify the board within ten days whenever any material change is made in the above information.

Subd. 3. [FEES.] The board may issue four classes of premises permits, corresponding to the classes of licenses authorized under section 349.16, subdivision 6. The annual fee for each class of permit is:

- (1) $200 for a class A permit;
- (2) $125 for a class B permit;
- (3) $100 for a class C permit; and
- (4) $75 for a class D permit.

Subd. 4. [IDENTIFICATION OF PREMISES.] No organization may seek or accept assistance from a manufacturer or distributor, or a representative, agent, affiliate, or employee of a manufacturer or distributor, in identifying potential locations for gambling conducted by the organization.

Sec. 30. [349.166] [EXEMPTIONS; EXCLUSIONS.]

Subdivision 1. [EXCLUSIONS.] (a) Bingo may be conducted without a license and without complying with sections 349.17, subdivision 1, and 349.18, if it is conducted:

(1) in connection with a county fair, the state fair, or a civic celebration if it is not conducted for more than 12 consecutive days in a calendar year; or

(2) by an organization that conducts four or fewer bingo occasions in a calendar year.

No organization that holds a license to conduct lawful gambling under this chapter may conduct bingo under this subdivision.

(b) Bingo may be conducted within a nursing home or a senior citizen housing project or by a senior citizen organization without compliance with sections 349.11 to 349.213 if the prizes for a single bingo game do not exceed $10, total prizes awarded at a single bingo occasion do not exceed $200, no more than two bingo occasions are held by the organization or at the facility each week, only members of the organization or residents of the nursing home or housing project are allowed to play in a bingo game, no compensation is paid for any persons who conduct the bingo, a manager is appointed to supervise the bingo, and the manager registers with the board. The gross receipts from bingo conducted under the limitations of this subdivision are exempt from taxation under chapter 297A.

(c) Raffles may be conducted by an organization without complying with sections 349.11 to 349.14 and 349.151 to 349.213 if the value of all raffle prizes awarded by the organization in a calendar year does not exceed $750.

Subd. 2. [EXEMPTIONS.] (a) Lawful gambling may be conducted by an organization as defined in section 349.12, subdivision 12, without complying with sections 349.151 to 349.16; 349.167; 349.168; 349.18; 349.19; and 349.212 if:

(1) the organization conducts lawful gambling on five or fewer days in a calendar year;

(2) the organization does not award more than $50,000 in prizes for lawful gambling in a calendar year;

(3) the organization pays a fee of $25 to the board, notifies the board in writing not less than 30 days before each lawful gambling occasion of the date and location of the occasion, or 60 days for an occasion held in the case of a city of the first class, the types of lawful gambling to be conducted, the prizes to be awarded, and receives an exemption identification number;

(4) the organization notifies the local government unit 30 days before the lawful gambling occasion, or 60 days for an occasion held in a city of the first class;

(5) the organization purchases all gambling equipment and supplies from a licensed distributor; and

(6) the organization reports to the board, on a single page form prescribed by the board, within 30 days of each gambling occasion, the gross receipts, prizes, expenses, expenditures of net profits from the occasion, and the identification of the licensed distributor from whom all gambling equipment was purchased.

(b) If the organization fails to file a timely report as required by paragraph (a), clause (3) or (6), a $250 penalty is imposed on the organization. Failure to file a timely report does not disqualify the organization as exempt under this paragraph if a report is subsequently filed and the penalty paid.

(c) Merchandise prizes must be valued at their fair market value.

(d) Unused pull-tab and tipboard deals must be returned to the distributor within seven working days after the end of the lawful gambling occasion. The distributor must accept and pay a refund for all returns of unopened and undamaged deals returned under this paragraph.

(e) An organization that is exempt from taxation on purchases of pull-tabs and tipboards under section 349.212, subdivision 4, paragraph (c), must return to the distributor any tipboard or pull-tab deal no part of which is used at the lawful gambling occasion for which it was purchased by the organization.

Subd. 3. [RAFFLES; CERTAIN ORGANIZATIONS.] The provisions of sections 349.21 and 349.211, subdivision 3, and the membership requirements of sections 349.14 and 349.20 do not apply to raffles conducted by an organization which directly or under contract to the state or a political subdivision delivers health or social services and which is a 501(c)(3) organization if the prizes awarded in the raffles are real or personal property donated by an individual, firm, or other organization. The person who accounts for the gross receipts, expenses, and profits of the raffles may be the same person who accounts for other funds of the organization.

Subd. 4. [TAXATION.] An organization's receipts from lawful gambling that is exempt from licensing under this section is not subject to the tax imposed by section 297A.02 or 349.212.

Sec. 31. [349.167] [GAMBLING MANAGERS.]

Subdivision 1. [GAMBLING MANAGER REQUIRED.] (a) All lawful gambling conducted by a licensed organization must be under the supervision of a gambling manager. A gambling manager designated by an organization to supervise lawful gambling is responsible for the gross receipts of the organization and for its conduct in compliance with all laws and rules. The organization must maintain, or require the person designated as a gambling manager to maintain, a fidelity bond in the sum or $25,000 in favor of the organization and the state, conditioned on (1) the faithful performance of the manager's duties; and (2) the payment of all taxes due under this chapter on lawful expenditures of gross profits from lawful gambling. The terms of the bond must provide that notice be given to the board in writing not less than 30 days before its cancellation. In the case of conflicting claims against a bond a claim by the state has preference over a claim by the organization.

(b) A person may not act as a gambling manager for more than one organization.

(c) An organization may not conduct lawful gambling without having a gambling manager. The board must be notified in writing of a change in gambling managers. Notification must be made within ten days of the date the gambling manager assumes the manager's duties.

(d) An organization may not have more than one gambling manager at any time.

Subd. 2. [GAMBLING MANAGERS; LICENSES.] No person may serve as a gambling manager for any organization unless the person possesses a valid gambling manager's license from the board. The board may issue a gambling manager's license to a person applying for the license who:

(1) has received training as required in subdivision 5;

(2) has not been convicted of a felony in a state or federal court;

(3) has not at any time within the five years prior to the license application committed any violation of law or board rule which resulted in the revocation of any license issued by the board;

(4) has never been convicted in a state or federal court of any criminal violation involving fraud, theft, tax evasion, misrepresentation, or gambling;

(5) has never been convicted of (i) assault, (ii) any criminal violation involving the use of a firearm, or (iii) making terroristic threats; and

(6) has not engaged in conduct the board determines is contrary to the public health, welfare, or safety or the integrity of lawful gambling.

A gambling manager's license is valid for one year unless suspended or revoked. The annual fee for a gambling manager's license is $100.

Subd. 4. [SUSPENSION; REVOCATION.] The board may suspend or revoke, as provided in board rules, a gambling manager's license for a violation of law or board rule. A suspension or revocation is a contested case under sections 14.57 to 14.69 of the administrative procedure act.

Subd. 5. [TRAINING OF GAMBLING MANAGERS.] (a) The board shall by rule require all persons licensed as gambling managers to receive periodic training in laws and rules governing lawful gambling. The rules must contain the following requirements:

(1) each gambling manager must have received such training before being issued a new license;

(2) each gambling manager applying for a renewal of a license must have received training within the three years prior to the date of application for the renewal; and

(3) the training required by this subdivision may be provided by a person, firm, association, or organization authorized by the board to provide the training. Before authorizing a person, firm, association, or organization to provide training, the board must determine that:

(i) the provider and all of the provider's personnel conducting the training are qualified to do so;

(ii) the curriculum to be used fully and accurately covers all elements of lawful gambling law and rules that the board determines are necessary for a gambling manager to know and understand;

(iii) the fee to be charged for participants in the training sessions is fair and reasonable; and

(iv) the training provider has an adequate system for documenting completion of training.

The rules may provide for differing training requirements for gambling managers based on the class of license held by the gambling manager's organization.

The board or the director may provide the training required by this subdivision using employees of the division.

Subd. 6. [CRIMINAL HISTORY.] The board may request the assistance of the division of gambling enforcement in investigating the background of an applicant for a gambling manager's license and may reimburse the division of gambling enforcement for the costs thereof. The board has access to all criminal history data compiled by the division of gambling enforcement on licensees and applicants.

Subd. 7. [RECRUITMENT OF GAMBLING MANAGERS.] No organization may seek or accept assistance from a manufacturer or distributor, or a representative, agent, affiliate, or employee of a manufacturer or distributor, in identifying or recruiting candidates to become a gambling manager for the organization.

Sec. 32. [349.168] [GAMBLING EMPLOYEES.]

Subdivision 1. [REGISTRATION OF EMPLOYEES.] No person may receive compensation for participating in the conduct of lawful gambling as an employee of a licensed organization unless the person has first registered with the board on a form the board prescribes. The form must require that each person registering must provide (1) the person's name, address, and social security number; (2) a current photograph; (3) the name, address, and license number of the employing organization; and (4) a listing of all employment in the conduct of lawful gambling within the previous three years, including the name and address of each employing organization and the circumstances under which the employment was terminated.

Subd. 2. [IDENTIFICATION OF EMPLOYEES.] The board shall issue to each person registering under subdivision 1 a registration number and identification card which must include the employee's photograph. Each person receiving compensation for the conduct of lawful gambling must wear the identification card provided by the board at all times while engaged in such employment.

Subd. 3. [COMPENSATION.] Compensation to persons who participate in the conduct of lawful gambling may be paid only to active members of the conducting organization or its auxiliary, or the spouse or surviving spouse of an active member, except that the following persons may receive compensation without being active members: (1) sellers of pull-tabs, tipboards, raffle tickets, paddle-wheel tickets, and bingo paper; and (2) accountants performing auditing or bookkeeping services for the organization; and (3) attorneys providing legal services to the organization.

Subd. 4. [AMOUNTS PAID.] The amounts of compensation which may be paid under this section may be provided for in a schedule of compensation adopted by the board by rule. In adopting a schedule, the board must consider the nature of the participation and the types of lawful gambling participated in.

Subd. 5. [COMPENSATION RECORDS.] An organization paying compensation to persons for the conduct of lawful gambling must maintain a compensation record. The record must be retained for at least two years after the month in which the compensation is paid. The record must be an itemization of each payment made to each recipient of compensation and must include the amount of compensation paid and the full name, address, and membership status of each recipient.

Subd. 6. [COMPENSATION PAID BY CHECK.] Compensation paid by an organization in connection with lawful gambling must be in the form of a check drawn on the organization's gambling account, as specified in section 349.19, and paid directly to the employee of the organization.

Subd. 7. [PENALTY.] (a) An organization that makes payment of compensation, or causes compensation to be made, which violates the provisions of subdivision 4 shall be assessed a civil penalty not to exceed $1,000 for each violation of subdivision 4. A second violation within 12 months of notification by the board to the organization of the first violation shall result in suspension of the organization's gambling license for a period of three months, in addition to any civil penalty assessed. A third violation within 12 months of the board's notification to the organization of the second violation shall result in revocation of the organization's gambling license in addition to any civil penalty assessed.

(b) Upon each violation, the director shall notify the organization in writing of its violation and of the penalties under this subdivision for future violations. Notification is effective upon mailing.

(c) For purposes of this subdivision, a violation consists of a payroll period or compensation date that includes payments made in violation of subdivision 4.

Subd. 8. [PERCENTAGE OF GROSS PROFIT PAID.] A licensed organization may pay a percentage of the gross profit from raffle ticket sales to a nonprofit organization which sells raffle tickets for the licensed organization.

Sec. 33. [349.169] [FILING OF PRICES.]

Subdivision 1. [FILING REQUIRED.] All manufacturers and distributors must file with the director, not later than the first day of each month, the prices at which the manufacturer or distributor will sell all gambling equipment in that month. The filing must be on a form the director prescribes. Prices filed must include all charges the manufacturer or distributor makes for each item of gambling equipment sold, including all volume discounts, exclusive of transportation costs. All filings are effective on the first day of the month for which they are filed, except that a manufacturer or distributor may amend a filed price within five days of filing it.

Subd. 2. [COPIES.] The director shall provide copies of price filings to any person requesting them, and may charge a reasonable fee for the copies. Any person may examine price filings in the division office at no cost, and the director shall make the filings available for that purpose.

Subd. 3. [SALES AT FILED PRICES.] No manufacturer may sell to a distributor, and no distributor may sell to an organization, any gambling equipment for any price other than a price the manufacturer or distributor has filed with the director under subdivision 1, exclusive of transportation costs.

Sec. 34. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 349.17, as amended by Laws 1989, chapter 334, article 2, section 26, is amended to read:

349.17 [CONDUCT OF BINGO.]

Subdivision 1. [BINGO OCCASIONS.] Not more than ~~six~~ seven bingo occasions each week may be conducted by an organization. At least 15 bingo games must be held at each occasion and a bingo occasion must continue for at least 1½ hours but not more than four consecutive hours.

Subd. 2. [BINGO ON LEASED PREMISES.] (a) A person or corporation, other than an organization, which leases any premises that it owns to two or more organizations for purposes including the conduct of bingo occasions, may not allow more than 18 bingo occasions to be conducted on the premises in any week.

(b) If an organization conducts bingo on premises it does not own, the organization must provide the board with the name of the owner and lessor of the premises, copies of all agreements between the organization and the owner or lessor, and the names of employees of the owner or lessor who will be responsible for the premises during the bingo occasion held by the organization.

(c) During any bingo occasion held conducted by an organization on premises it does not own, the organization shall be directly responsible for the:

- (1) staffing of the bingo occasion;
- (2) conducting of lawful gambling during the bingo occasion;
- (3) acquiring, storage, inventory control, and reporting of all gambling equipment used by the organization; and
- (4) receipt, accounting, and all expenditures of gross receipts from lawful gambling; and
- (5) preparation of the bingo packets.

Subd. 2a. [DISTRIBUTOR LICENSE EXEMPTION FOR LESSOR.] As part of a lease agreement on a leased bingo premises, the lessor may furnish bingo equipment without being a licensed distributor. For purposes of this section, "furnish" does not include the right to sell or offer for sale.

Subd. 3. Each bingo winner must be determined and every prize shall be awarded and delivered the same day on which the bingo occasion is conducted.

Subd. 4. [CHECKERS.] One or more checkers must be engaged for each bingo occasion. The checker or checkers must record, on a form the board provides, the number of cards played in each game and the prizes awarded to recorded cards. The form must provide for the inclusion of the registration number of each card and must include a checker's certification that the figures recorded are correct to the best of the checker's knowledge.

Subd. 5. [BINGO CARD NUMBERING.] The board shall by rule require that all licensed organizations (1) conduct bingo only using liquid daubers on cards that bear an individual number recorded by the distributor; (2) sell all bingo cards only in the order of the numbers appearing on the cards; and (3) use each bingo card for no more than one bingo occasion. In lieu of the requirements of clauses (2) and (3), a licensed organization may electronically record the sale of each bingo card at each bingo occasion, using an electronic recording system approved by the board. In lieu of the requirements of clauses (1), (2), and (3), a licensed organization may conduct bingo using electronic remote units which simulate bingo games and which are programmed for a certain number of plays by a central computer, provided that all such electronic equipment is approved by the board.

Sec. 35. [349.172] [PULL-TABS; INFORMATION REQUIRED TO BE POSTED.]

An organization selling pull-tabs, other than plays on a video pull-tab device at any location must post for each deal of pull-tabs all major prizes that have been awarded for pull-tabs purchased from that deal and the name of the winner of each major prize. The information must be posted prominently at the point of sale of the deal. An easily legible pull-tab flare which lists prizes in that deal, and on which prizes are marked or crossed off as they are awarded, satisfies the requirement of this section that major prizes be posted, provided that a separate flare is posted for each deal of pull-tabs. An organization must post or mark off each major prize and post the name of the prize winner immediately upon awarding the prize. A "major prize" in a deal of pull-tabs is any prize that is at least 50 times the face value of any pull-tab in the deal.

Sec. 36. [349.173] [VIDEO PULL-TAB DEVICES.]

Subdivision 1. [LICENSES.] (a) No organization may operate a video pull-tab device for which the board has not issued a license. An application for a video pull-tab device license must be on a form the board prescribes and must contain the following information:

(1) the name, address, and license number of the organization applying for the license;

(2) the name, address, and license number of the distributor that will be leasing the device to the applicant;

(3) the name and address of the premises on which the device is to be located;

(4) the serial number, the model number, and the name of the manufacturer or other identifying number of the device; and

(5) such other information as the board deems necessary to identify the device and insure its compliance with law and board rules.

(b) A license issued under this section is valid for one year. The board shall set and charge a fee for each license under this section in an amount sufficient to reimburse the board for its costs in administering and enforcing this section other than the costs recovered under subdivision 3.

(c) A license issued under this section must display all the information required in paragraph (a), clauses (1) to (5).

(d) The license must specify by name those persons whom the board has approved to have access to the device, and the extent of that access. The board may not approve any person to have such access who is not (1) an active member of the licensed organization applying for the license, or (2) a licensed distributor or an employee thereof. No person other than a licensed peace officer or an authorized employee of the board, the commissioner of revenue or the commissioner of public safety may obtain or attempt to obtain access to a device or to any of its parts or components unless that person is named and authorized on the license to have such access.

Subd. 2. [LICENSES; LIMITATIONS.] (a) The board may not have outstanding at any time more than 100 licenses issued under this section. The board shall, in issuing licenses under this section, insure as nearly as practicable that the locations of the licenses are equally divided between locations where paper pull-tabs will also be sold and locations where paper pull-tabs will not be sold.

(b) All licenses issued under this section expire July 1, 1993.

Subd. 3. [INSPECTION OF DEVICES.] (a) The board may issue a video pull-tab device license only for a device it has determined is in compliance with all applicable law and rules. The board shall examine and if necessary conduct tests on each video pull-tab device for which a license is applied, and may examine and if necessary conduct tests on any component of such a video pull-tab device. The board may request the assistance of the commissioner of public safety or contract for the services of a consultant or testing laboratory in making examinations or conducting tests. The board shall require that the manufacturer of a video pull-tab device pay all costs of examining and testing the device or any of its components.

(b) No manufacturer, distributor, or video pull-tab device wholesaler may sell or lease any video pull-tab device unless the board has determined that the device and all its components are in compliance with all applicable laws and rules.

Subd. 4. [DISPLAY OF LICENSE.] An organization operating a video pull-tab device must prominently display the license on the device at all times when the device is available for play by the public. An organization may display a license only on the device for which it was issued.

Subd. 5. [SPECIFICATIONS.] (a) A video pull-tab device approved by the board must be driven by a sealed read-only memory chip displaying or having attached such information as the board deems necessary, which must include (1) identification of the manufacturer; (2) the number of plays for which the chip has been programmed; (3) the serial number of the chip; and (4) the words "For Sale in Minnesota Only." A chip must be secured within the device by a strip of security tape of a type approved by the board, capable of evidencing the removal of a chip from its memory board.

(b) A chip must be programmed for a specific number of plays and be incapable of offering any plays in excess of that number. The number of plays programmed onto any chip must be the number on which tax has been paid under section 349.212, subdivision 4. The chip must be programmed to accept only the same price for all plays on the chip. A chip must also have programmed onto it the percentage of plays which are winning plays and the percentage of total receipts on all plays which are returned to players as prizes, and may not be capable of having these percentages altered. Winning plays must be randomly distributed on each chip, and a chip must be designed and programmed in such a way that the location of winning chances cannot be determined in advance. A chip on which all programmed plays have been exhausted must be replaced before the device may again be operated.

(c) A video pull-tab device must display, on the video screen or elsewhere, (1) the price of each chance, (2) the percentage of total chances on the chip that are winning chances, (3) the number of free games or credits awarded for each successful chance, (4) the words "For Sale in Minnesota Only," and (5) the serial number of the memory chip driving the device. If the information is displayed on the video screen it must be displayed at all times when the machine is operable but not being played.

(d) A video pull-tab device must contain a prize meter with a printer. The prize meter must be capable of dispensing to any player a voucher containing:

- (1) the name of the establishment where the device is located;
- (2) the organization operating the device;

(3) the license number of the device;

(4) a sequential number of the voucher and a separate encrypted validation number;

(5) the time and date of the play; and

(6) the value of any credits won.

The prize meter must print and retain inside the device a copy of each such voucher issued. The device must not be capable of returning anything to the player other than the voucher.

(e) A video pull-tab device must contain electronic accounting meters which must be maintained at all times, whether or not the game is being supplied with external power. The following information must be recorded and stored on a meter capable of maintaining totals of not less than eight digits:

(1) total coins and bills inserted by players and their value;

(2) total credits wagered;

(3) total credits won; and

(4) total credits paid out by printed ticket voucher.

The following information must be recorded and stored on a meter capable of maintaining totals of not less than six digits:

(1) number of times access was obtained to the compartment containing the memory chip;

(2) number of chances played on the memory chip; and

(3) number of cumulative credits representing credits won and money inserted by a player but not redeemed or played off.

Electronic accounting meters may be cleared only by an employee of the board, or by an authorized person in the presence of an employee of the board. The organization to which the device was leased must make a written record of the readings before and after clearing. The record must include the reason why the meter was cleared. A separate record must be made for each meter cleared. If the record is kept by an authorized person, a copy must be provided to the board.

(f) A video pull-tab device may not offer any game or gambling form other than the simulation of the game of pull-tabs.

(g) A video pull-tab device may not have any functions or parameters adjustable by or through any separate video display or input codes except for the adjustment of wholly cosmetic features.

(h) A video pull-tab device must contain a meter and printer which issues, on activation of a switch, an accounting ticket containing the following information:

- (1) the name of the licensed organization;
- (2) the location of the device;
- (3) the license number and manufacturer's serial number of the device;
- (4) the time and date of the printout;
- (5) the registration number of the chip driving the device;
- (6) the readings from the meter required under paragraph (e); and
- (7) other information the board by rule requires.

No person may activate the switch required in this paragraph who is not authorized by the board to do so.

Subd. 6. [HARDWARE REQUIREMENTS.] (a) A video pull-tab device must have:

- (1) a surge protector for all power fed to the device;
- (2) a power switch located in an accessible place within the interior of the device, which controls the electrical current which powers the device;
- (3) a separate secure compartment for holding coins or currency, with a key or combination different from that used for unlocking any other part of the device;
- (4) a battery back-up or its equivalent, which allows the electronic meters of the device to maintain accurate readings for not less than 180 days after power is discontinued to the device, for all information regarding:

- (i) current and total tallies for amount wagered and paid out;
- (ii) records of access to the logic board compartment;
- (iii) records of access to the cash and coin compartments; and

(iv) other information the board by rule requires.

(b) A video pull-tab device may not have:

(1) any hardware switch capable of altering the payment tables or payout percentages of the device; or

(2) a mechanism or program which will cause the electronic accounting meters to clear automatically.

(c) A video pull-tab device and all its components may not be capable of being adversely affected by static discharge, radio frequency interference, or other electromagnetic interference.

(d) All logic boards, memory chips, and other logic control components of a video pull-tab device must be located in a locked compartment which is separate from any other compartment. The key or combination of this compartment must be different from that used for unlocking any other part of the device.

(e) A video pull-tab device must not be capable of being activated by a credit card.

Subd. 7. [LOCATIONS.] (a) An organization may place a video pull-tab device for operation only in a location approved by the board, which location must be specified on the license. The board may approve locations that are authorized to sell alcoholic beverages at on-sale under chapter 340A. The board may not allow the placement of more than two video pull-tab devices in any location.

(b) All leases by which a licensed organization leases space in a location for the placement of a video pull-tab device are subject to the provisions of section 349.18.

(c) The board, the commissioner of revenue, and the commissioner of public safety may inspect at any time any location agreement made between a distributor and a licensed organization governing the terms of leasing a video pull-tab device.

(d) No video pull-tab device may stand at any place in a location where it cannot readily be observed by employees of the location or persons supervising the device on behalf of a licensed organization.

Subd. 8. [CONDUCT OF GAMBLING ON VIDEO PULL-TAB DEVICES.] No person receiving compensation for participating in the conduct of gambling on a video pull-tab device may gamble on such a device while so participating. No person receiving compensation for participating in the conduct of gambling on a video pull-tab device and no employee of the lessor of the premises on which the device is located may provide any information on the device that would give any player an unfair advantage in operating the device. No person under age 18 may wager on or receive a prize from a video pull-tab device.

Subd. 9. [PAYMENT OF PRIZES.] An organization may not pay any prize won on a video pull-tab device except on presentation by the winner of the ticket voucher printed by the device's prize meter. The provisions of law and board rules governing the retention of winning pull-tabs apply to ticket vouchers. An organization must upon presentation of a ticket voucher and making payment thereof immediately deface the voucher in a manner that prevents its reuse.

Subd. 10. [LIMITATION OF PRIZES.] A video pull-tab device may not:

- (1) charge any price for a single chance of more than $2; or
- (2) award any single prize of more than $250.

Subd. 11. [RULES.] The board may by rule provide additional requirements for video pull-tab devices as it deems necessary to ensure their integrity and the full accounting for all play thereon. The rules may include:

- (1) authorization of persons who have access to any locked area of a video pull-tab device;
- (2) additional device specifications;
- (3) methods of determining randomness of distributing prizes in a memory chip; and
- (4) testing procedures for video pull-tab devices.

Sec. 37. [349.174] [PULL-TAB DISPENSING MACHINES.]

Subdivision 1. [MACHINES AUTHORIZED.] The board may authorize a licensed organization to sell pull-tabs by means of a dispensing device which dispenses pull-tabs on insertion of a coin or currency. The board must indicate on the license of each organization whether the organization is authorized to sell pull-tabs by means of a dispensing device. Each dispensing device installed and maintained by a licensed organization must be of a type approved by the board. The board shall approve for installation only those pull-tab dispensing devices that it determines provide adequate security, integrity, and accountability. The board may not approve for installation any dispensing machine which cannot hold at least 2,500 pull-tabs at any time.

Subd. 2. [MACHINE REQUIREMENTS.] Each pull-tab dispensing machine must have a meter which records (i) the total amounts of coin and currency inserted into the machine, and (ii) the total number of pull-tabs dispensed. The meter must be in a compartment which is separate from the compartment which holds the coins and currency inserted into the machine.

Subd. 3. [ACCESS TO MACHINES.] The board shall specify each person authorized to have access to a pull-tab dispensing machine and shall identify each such person on the license of the organization authorized to install the machine, and the extent of that access. No person may obtain or attempt to obtain access to a pull-tab dispensing machine or any part or component of a machine without being authorized by the board to have such access.

Subd. 4. [DISPLAY OF INFORMATION.] Each pull-tab dispensing machine installed by a licensed organization must conspicuously display the following information:

- (1) the name and license number of the installing organization;
- (2) the number of pull-tabs originally placed in the machine at the beginning of the current game;
- (3) the number and amount of all prizes in the game which are at least 50 times the price of each individual chance in the game; and
- (4) the prize payout percentage for that game.

Pull-tab dispensing machines are subject to the requirements of section 349.172.

Subd. 5. [LEASE OF MACHINES.] A licensed organization may lease a pull-tab dispensing machine only from a distributor licensed under section 349.161.

Subd. 6. [PERMITTED LOCATIONS.] The license of an organization authorized to install a pull-tab dispensing machine must specify the locations where the machines will be installed. The organization must have a premises permit for each such location. Not more than two machines may be installed on any premises.

Subd. 7. [LIMITATIONS.] The board may not (1) authorize more than 100 organizations at any time to operate a pull-tab dispensing machine, or (2) authorize any organization to operate more than two machines.

Subd. 8. [REPEAL.] This section is repealed July 1, 1993.

Sec. 38. [349.175] [PULL-TABS; DEADLINE FOR USE.]

A deal of pull-tabs or tipboards received by an organization before September 1, 1989, must be put into play by that organization before September 1, 1990, unless the deal bears a serial number which allows the deal to be traced back to its manufacturer and to the distributor who sold it to the organization. An organization in possession on and after September 1, 1990, of a deal of pull-tabs or tipboards the organization received before September 1, 1989, may not put such a deal in play but must remove it from the organization's inventory and return it to the manufacturer.

Sec. 39. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 349.18, as amended by Laws 1989, chapter 334, article 2, sections 27 and 28, is amended to read:

349.18 [PREMISES USED FOR GAMBLING.]

Subdivision 1. [LEASE OR OWNERSHIP REQUIRED.] An organization may conduct lawful gambling only on premises it owns or leases. Leases must be for a period of one year and must be in writing on a form prescribed by the board. Copies of all leases must be made available to employees of the division and the division of gambling enforcement on request. A lease may not provide for payments determined directly or indirectly by the receipts or profits from lawful gambling. The board may prescribe by rule limits on the amount of rent which an organization may pay to a lessor for premises leased for lawful gambling. Any rule adopted by the board limiting the amount of rent to be paid may only be effective for leases entered into, or renewed, after the effective date of the rule.

No person, distributor, manufacturer, lessor, or organization other than the licensed organization leasing the space may conduct any activity in a on the leased space premises during times when lawful gambling is being conducted in the space on the premises.

Subd. 1a. [STORAGE OF GAMBLING EQUIPMENT.] (a) Gambling equipment owned by or in the possession of a licensed an organization must be kept at a licensed gambling premises owned or operated by the organization, or at other storage sites within the state that the organization has notified the board are being used as gambling equipment storage sites. At each storage site or licensed premises, the organization must have the invoices or true and correct copies of the invoices for the purchase of all gambling equipment at the site or premises. No gambling equipment owned by an organization may be kept at a distributor's office, warehouse, storage unit, or other place of the distributor's business.

(b) Gambling equipment, other than devices for selecting bingo numbers, owned by a licensed an organization must be secured and kept separate from gambling equipment owned by other persons, organizations, distributors, or manufacturers consistent with the organization's internal controls filed with the board.

(c) Gambling equipment kept in violation of this subdivision is contraband under section 349.2125.

(d) A licensed An organization may transport gambling equipment it owns or possesses between approved gambling equipment storage sites and to and from licensed distributors.

Subd. 2. [EXCEPTIONS.] (a) A ~~licensed~~ An organization may conduct raffles on a premise it does not own or lease.

(b) A ~~licensed~~ An organization may with the permission of the board, conduct bingo on premises it does not own or lease for up to ~~six~~ 12 consecutive days in a calendar year, in connection with a county fair, the state fair, or ~~even~~ a civic celebration.

(c) A licensed organization may, after compliance with section 349.213, conduct lawful gambling on premises other than the organization's licensed premise for one day per year for not more than 12 hours that day. A lease for that time period for the exempted premises must accompany the request to the board.

Subd. 3. [PROCEEDS FROM RENTAL.] Rental proceeds from premises owned by a ~~licensed an~~ organization and leased ~~or sub-~~ leased to one or more other ~~licensed~~ organizations for the purposes of conducting lawful gambling shall not be reported as gambling proceeds under this chapter.

Subd. 4. [PROHIBITION.] (a) An organization may not pay rent to itself or to any of its affiliates for use of space for conducting lawful gambling.

(b) An organization may not pay rent for space for conducting lawful gambling from any account or fund other than the organization's separate gambling account.

Sec. 40. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 349.19, as amended by Laws 1989, chapter 334, article 2, sections 29, 30, 32, and 33, and Laws 1989, First Special Session chapter 1, article 13, section 11, is amended to read:

349.19 [RECORDS AND REPORTS.]

Subdivision 1. [REQUIRED RECORD OF RECEIPTS.] A licensed organization must keep a record of each occasion on which it conducts gambling, including each bingo occasion and each day on which other forms of lawful gambling are conducted. The record must include gross receipts, quantities of free plays if any, expenses, prizes, and ~~profits~~ gross profit. The board may by rule provide for the methods by which expenses are documented. ~~Gross receipts for bingo include any amount received by the organization which has been~~ paid by a person at the bingo occasion to play the game, without which the player could not play the game. In the case of bingo, gross receipts must be compared to the checkers' records for the occasion by a person who did not sell cards for the occasion. Separate records must be kept for bingo and all other forms of lawful gambling.

Subd. 2. [ACCOUNTS.] Gross receipts from lawful gambling by each organization at each licensed permitted premises must be segregated from all other revenues of the conducting organization and placed in a separate account. All expenditures for expenses, taxes, and lawful purposes must be made from such a separate account except in the case of expenditures previously approved by the organization's membership for emergencies as defined by board rule. The name and address of the bank and the account number for that separate account for that licensed premises, and the names of organization members authorized as signatories on the separate account must be provided to the board when the application is submitted. Changes in the information must be submitted to the board at least ten days before the change is made. Gambling receipts must be deposited into the gambling bank account within ~~one business day~~ three days of completion of the bingo occasion, deal, or game from which they are received, and deposit records must be sufficient to allow determination of deposits made from each bingo occasion, deal, or game. The person who accounts for gambling gross receipts and profits may not be the same person who accounts for other revenues of the organization.

Subd. 3. [EXPENDITURES.] All expenditures of gross profits from lawful gambling must be itemized as to payee, purpose, amount, and date of payment, and must be in compliance with section 349.154. Authorization of the expenditures must be recorded in the regular monthly meeting minutes of the licensed organization. All checks for expenditures of gross profits must be signed by at least two persons authorized by board rules to sign the checks.

Subd. 4. [DISCREPANCIES.] If at a bingo occasion a discrepancy of more than $20 is found between the gross receipts as reported by the checkers and the gross receipts determined by adding the cash receipts, the discrepancy must be reported to the board within five days of the bingo occasion.

Subd. 5. [REPORTS.] A licensed organization must report to the board and to its membership monthly, or quarterly in the case of a licensed organization which does not report more than $1,000 in gross receipts from lawful gambling in any calendar quarter, on its gross receipts, expenses, profits, and expenditure of profits from lawful gambling. If the organization conducts both bingo and other forms of lawful gambling, the figures for both must be reported separately. In addition, a licensed organization must report to the board monthly on its purchases of gambling equipment and must include the type, quantity, and dollar amount from each supplier separately. The reports must be on a form the board prescribes. Submission of the report required by section 15 satisfies the requirement for reporting monthly to the board on expenditure of net profits.

Subd. 6. [PRESERVATION OF RECORDS.] Records required to be kept by this section must be preserved by a licensed organization for at least 3½ years and may be inspected by the commissioner of revenue, the commissioner of gaming, or the commissioner of public safety at any reasonable time without notice or a search warrant.

Subd. 7. [TAX RECORDS.] The board may by rule require each licensed organization to provide copies of forms it files with the United States department of the treasury which are required for organizations exempt from income tax.

Subd. 8. [TERMINATION PLAN.] Upon termination of a license for any reason, a licensed organization must notify the board in writing within 15 calendar days of the license termination date of its plan for disposal of registered gambling equipment and distribution of remaining gambling proceeds. Before implementation, a plan must be approved by the board. The board may accept or reject a plan and order submission of a new plan or amend a proposed plan. The board may specify a time for submission of new or amended plans or for completion of an accepted plan.

Subd. 9. [ANNUAL AUDIT; FILING REQUIREMENT.] An organization licensed under this chapter must have an annual financial audit of its lawful gambling activities and funds performed by an independent auditor licensed by the state of Minnesota or performed by an independent accountant who has had prior approval of the board. The board shall by rule prescribe standards for the audit, which must provide for the reconciliation of the organization's gambling account or accounts with the organization's reports filed under subdivision 5 and section 19. A complete, true, and correct copy of the audit report must be filed with the board upon completion of the audit.

Subd. 10. [PULL-TAB RECORDS.] The board shall by rule require a licensed organization to require each winner of a pull-tab prize of $50 or more to present identification in the form of a drivers license, Minnesota identification card, or other identification the board deems sufficient to allow the identification and tracing of the winner. The rule must require the organization to retain winning pull-tabs of $50 or more, and the identification of the winner of each such pull-tab, for 3½ years.

Subd. 11. [INFORMATION MADE PART OF ORGANIZATION MINUTES.] A licensed organization which receives a copy of a written audit under subdivision 9, or an audit or compliance report prepared by an agency of the state, must place the audit report or compliance report in the minutes of the next meeting of the organization following receipt of the report. Copies of such minutes must be made available to all members of the organization.

Sec. 41. Minnesota Statutes Second 1989 Supplement, section 349.212, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [IMPOSITION.] There is hereby imposed a tax on all lawful gambling, other than (1) pull-tabs purchased and placed into inventory after January 1, 1987, and (2) tipboards purchased and placed into inventory after June 30, 1988, and (3) operation of video pull-tab devices, at the rate of ten percent on the gross receipts as defined in section 349.12, subdivision 26, less prizes actually paid. The tax imposed by this subdivision is in lieu of the tax imposed by section 297A.02 and all local taxes and license fees except a fee authorized under section 349.16, subdivision 4 8, or a tax authorized under section 349.212, subdivision 5.

The tax imposed under this subdivision is payable by the organization or party conducting, directly or indirectly, the gambling.

Sec. 42. Minnesota Statutes Second 1989 Supplement, section 349.212, subdivision 4, is amended to read:

Subd. 4. [PULL-TAB AND TIPBOARD TAX.] (a) There is imposed a tax on the sale of each deal of pull-tabs and tipboards sold by a licensed distributor, and each read-only memory chip intended to drive a video pull-tab device. The rate of the tax is two percent of the ideal gross of the pull-tab or tipboard deal or the chip. The sales tax imposed by chapter 297A on the sale of the pull-tabs and tipboards by the licensed distributor and on the sale of a chip intended to drive a video pull-tab device is imposed on the retail sales price less the tax imposed by this subdivision. The retail sale of pull-tabs or tipboards by the organization is exempt from taxes imposed by chapter 297A if the tax imposed by this subdivision has been paid and is exempt from all local taxes and license fees except a fee authorized under section 349.16, subdivision 4 8.

(b) The liability for the tax imposed by this section is incurred when the pull-tabs and tipboards are delivered by the distributor to the customer, to a common or contract carrier for delivery to the customer, or when received by the customer's authorized representative at the distributor's place of business, regardless of the distributor's method of accounting or the terms of the sale.

The tax imposed by this subdivision is imposed on all sales of pull-tabs and tipboards, except the following:

(1) sales to the governing body of an Indian tribal organization for use on an Indian reservation;

(2) sales to distributors licensed under this chapter;

(3) sales to distributors licensed under the laws of another state or of a Province of Canada, as long as all statutory and regulatory requirements are met in the other state or province; and

(4) sales of promotional tickets as defined in section 349.12.

(c) In the case of a memory chip intended to drive a video pull-tab device, the liability for the tax imposed by this section is incurred when the chip has been delivered by the distributor to the organization, to a common carrier for delivery to the organization, or when received by the organization's representative at the distributor's place of business, regardless of the distributor's method of accounting.

(d) Pull-tabs and tipboards sold to an organization that sells pull-tabs and tipboards under the exemption from licensing in section 349.214 27, subdivision 2, paragraph (b), are exempt from the tax imposed by this subdivision. A distributor must require an organization conducting exempt gambling to show proof of its exempt status before making a tax-exempt sale of pull-tabs or tipboards to such an organization. A distributor shall identify, on all reports submitted to the commissioner, all sales of pull-tabs and tipboards that are exempt from tax under this subdivision.

(e) A distributor reporting the sale of any deal of pull-tabs to the commissioner of revenue must include in the report a duplicate bar code for that deal.

Sec. 43. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 349.212, subdivision 5, is amended to read:

Subd. 5. [LOCAL GAMBLING TAX.] (a) A statutory or home rule charter city which has one or more licensed organizations operating conducting lawful gambling, and a county which has one or more licensed organizations outside incorporated areas operating conducting lawful gambling, may with the prior approval of the board impose a local gambling tax on each licensed organization within the city's or county's jurisdiction. The tax may be imposed only if the amount to be received by the city or county is necessary to cover the costs incurred by the city or county to regulate lawful gambling. The board may approve a local gambling tax only if it determines that the revenue from the tax will be used exclusively for lawful gambling enforcement and regulation or other law enforcement purposes. The board may withdraw approval of a local gambling tax if it determines that the revenue from the tax is or will be used for any purpose other than lawful gambling enforcement and regulations or other law enforcement.

(b) The tax imposed by this subdivision may not exceed three percent of the gross ~~receipts~~ profit of a licensed organization from all lawful gambling less ~~prizes actually paid out~~ conducted by the organization. ~~A city or county may not use money collected under this subdivision for any purpose other than for the purpose of regulating lawful gambling.~~ A tax imposed under this subdivision is in lieu of all other local taxes and local investigation fees on lawful gambling.

(c) Any city or county that imposes a tax under this subdivision shall annually by March 15 file a report with the board in a form prescribed by the board showing (1) the amount of revenue produced by the tax during the preceding calendar year, and (2) the use of the proceeds of the tax.

Sec. 44. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 349.2121, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [APPLICATION AND ISSUANCE.] Every distributor licensed by the board who sells pull-tabs and tipboards to organizations authorized to sell pull-tabs and tipboards under this chapter, and every manufacturer who sells video pull-tab devices under this chapter, must file with the commissioner of revenue an application, on a form the commissioner prescribes, for a gambling tax identification number and gambling tax permit. The commissioner, when satisfied that the applicant has a valid license from the board, shall issue the applicant a permit and number. A permit is not assignable and is valid only for the distributor or video pull-tab device manufacturer in whose name it is issued.

Sec. 45. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 349.2121, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [RECORDS.] (a) A distributor shall keep at each licensed place of business complete and accurate records for that place of business, including itemized invoices of pull-tabs and tipboards held, purchased, manufactured, or brought in or caused to be brought in from without this state, and of all sales of pull-tabs and tipboards. The records must show the names and addresses of purchasers, the inventory at the close of each period for which a return is required of all pull-tab and tipboard deals on hand, and other pertinent papers and documents relating to the purchase, sale, or disposition of pull-tab and tipboard deals. Books, records, and other papers and documents required by this section must be kept for a period of at least 3½ years after the date of the documents, or the date of the entries appearing in the records, unless the commissioner of revenue authorizes in writing their destruction or disposal at an earlier date. At any time during usual business hours, the commissioner of revenue, director of gambling enforcement, or any of their duly authorized agents or employees, may enter a place of business of a distributor or organization, any site from which pull-tabs or tipboards or other gambling equipment are being sold, or any site at which lawful gambling is being conducted, and inspect the premises and the records required to be kept under this section to determine whether or not all the provisions of this section are being fully complied with. If the commissioner of revenue, director of gambling enforcement, or their duly authorized agents or employees are denied free access to or are hindered or interfered with in making an inspection of the distributor's place of business, the permit of the distributor may be revoked by the commissioner, and the license of the distributor may be revoked by the gambling control board.

(b) A distributor who replaces a memory chip used to drive a video pull-tab device after all chances on the chip have been played must retain the chip for 3½ years from the date of its removal from the device. All provisions of law relating to the availability of a distributor's books and records apply to such chips.

Sec. 46. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 349.2121, subdivision 4a, is amended to read:

Subd. 4a. [REFUND.] (a) If any deal of pull-tabs or tipboards registered with the board and upon which the tax imposed by section 349.212, subdivision 4, has been paid is returned unplayed to the distributor, or if any memory chip used to drive a video pull-tab device is returned to its manufacturer with unplayed chances, the commissioner of revenue shall allow a refund of the tax paid.

(b) In the case of a defective deal or defective memory chip registered with the board and upon which the taxes have been paid is returned to the manufacturer, the distributor shall submit to the commissioner of revenue certification from the manufacturer that the deal or chip was returned and in what respect it was defective. The certification must be in a form prescribed by the commissioner and must contain additional information the commissioner requires.

(c) The commissioner may require that no refund under this subdivision be made unless the returned pull-tabs or tipboards, or the returned memory chip, have been set aside for inspection by the commissioner's employee.

(d) Reductions in previously paid taxes authorized by this subdivision shall be made at the time and in the manner prescribed by the commissioner.

Sec. 47. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 349.2122, is amended to read:

349.2122 [MANUFACTURERS; REPORTS TO THE COMMISSIONER OF REVENUE; PENALTY.]

A manufacturer licensed ~~with~~ by the board who sells pull-tabs and tipboards to a licensed distributor ~~licensed by the board~~ must file with the commissioner of revenue, on a form prescribed by the commissioner, a report of pull-tabs and tipboards sold to ~~licensed distributors~~ any person in the state, including the established governing body of Indian tribes recognized by the United States Department of the Interior. The report must be filed monthly on or before the 25th day of the month succeeding the month in which the sale was made. The commissioner of revenue may inspect the books, records, and inventory of a licensed manufacturer without notice during the normal business hours of the manufacturer. Any person violating this section shall be guilty of a misdemeanor.

Sec. 48. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 349.2123, is amended to read:

349.2123 [CERTIFIED PHYSICAL INVENTORY.]

The board or commissioner of revenue may, upon request, require a ~~licensed distributor~~ to furnish a certified physical inventory of the ~~pull-tabs and tipboards~~ all gambling equipment in stock. The inventory must contain the information required by the ~~board or the commissioner~~.

Sec. 49. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 349.213, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [LOCAL REGULATION.] A statutory or home rule city or county has the authority to adopt more stringent regulation of any form of lawful gambling within its jurisdiction, including the prohibition of any form of lawful gambling, and may require a permit for the conduct of gambling exempt from licensing under section 349.214. The fee for a permit issued under this subdivision may not exceed $100. The authority granted by this subdivision does not include the authority to require a license or permit to conduct gambling by organizations or sales by distributors licensed by the board. The authority granted by this subdivision does not include the authority to require an organization to make specific expenditures of more than ten percent from its net profits derived from lawful gambling. For the purposes of this subdivision, net profits are profits less amounts expended for allowable expenses. A statutory or home rule charter city or a county may not require an organization conducting lawful gambling within its jurisdiction to make an expenditure to the city or county as a condition to operate within that city or county, except as authorized under section 349.16, subdivision 4 8, or 349.212; provided, however, that an ordinance requirement that such organizations must contribute ten percent of their net profits derived from lawful gambling to a fund administered and regulated by the responsible local unit of government without cost to such fund, for disbursement by the responsible local unit of government of the receipts for lawful purposes, is not considered an expenditure to the city or county nor a tax under section 349.212, and is valid and lawful.

A statutory or home rule city or county may by ordinance require that a licensed organization conducting lawful gambling within its jurisdiction expend all or a portion of its expenditures for lawful purposes on lawful purposes conducted or located within the city's or county's trade area. Such an ordinance must define the city's or county's trade area and must specify the percentage of lawful purpose expenditures which must be expended within the trade area. A trade area defined by a city under this subdivision must include each city contiguous to the defining city.

Sec. 50. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 349.213, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [LOCAL APPROVAL.] Before issuing or renewing an ~~organization license~~ a premises permit or bingo hall license, the board must notify the city council of the statutory or home rule city in which the organization's premises or the bingo hall is located or, if the premises or hall is located outside a city, the county board of the county and the town board of the town where the premises or hall is located. The board may require organizations or bingo halls to notify the appropriate local government at the time of application. This required notification is sufficient to constitute the notice required by this subdivision. ~~If the city council or county board adopts a resolution disapproving the license and so informs the board within 60 days of receiving notice of the application, the license may not be issued or renewed. The board may not issue or renew a premises permit or bingo hall license unless the organization submits a resolution from the city council or county board approving the premises permit or bingo hall license. The resolution must have been adopted within 60 days of the date of application for the new or renewed permit or license.~~

Sec. 51. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 349.30, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. "Gambling devices" means slot machines, roulette wheels, punchboards, and pin ball machines which return coins or slugs, chips, or tokens of any kind, which are redeemable in merchandise or cash device" has the meaning given it in section 609.75, subdivision 4.

Sec. 52. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 349.31, is amended to read:

349.31 [GAMBLING DEVICE; POSSESSION OF.]

Subdivision 1. [INTENTIONAL POSSESSION; WILLFUL KEEP-

ING.] The intentional possession or willful keeping of a gambling device on a licensed premises is cause for the suspension or revocation of any license under which the licensed business is carried on upon the premises where the gambling device is found, provided that possession of gambling equipment as defined in section 349.12, subdivision 17, which is used for lawful gambling authorized by this chapter, and the manufacture of gambling devices for use in jurisdictions where use of the gambling device is legal as provided for by section 349.40 shall not be cause for revocation of a license.

Subd. 2. [SUSPENSION AND REVOCATION OF LICENSES.] All licenses under which any licensed business is permitted to be carried on upon the licensed premises shall be suspended or revoked if the intentional possession or willful keeping of any such gambling devices upon the licensed premises is established, notwithstanding that it may not be made to appear that such devices have actually been used or operated for the purpose of gambling.

Sec. 53. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 349.32, is amended to read:

349.32 [ISSUING AUTHORITY TO REVOKE.]

The proceedings for suspension or revocation shall be had before the issuing authority, which shall have power to suspend or revoke the license or licenses involved, as hereinafter provided.

Sec. 54. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 349.34, is amended to read:

349.34 [PROCEEDINGS BEFORE ISSUING AUTHORITY; ORDER TO SHOW CAUSE.]

Upon the receipt of such information from any of the peace officers referred to in section 349.33, if any issuing authority is of the opinion that cause exists for the suspension or revocation of any such license, then that authority shall issue an order to show cause directed to the licensee of the premises, stating the ground upon which the proceeding is based and requiring the licensee to appear and show cause at a time and place, within the county in which the licensed premises are located, not less than ten days after the date of the order, why the license should not be suspended or revoked. That order to show cause shall be served upon the licensee in the manner prescribed by law for the service of summons in a civil action, or by certified mail, not less than eight days before the date fixed for the hearing thereof. A copy of the order shall forthwith be mailed to the owner of the premises, as shown by the records in the office of the county recorder, at the owner's last known post office address. A copy of the order shall at the same time be mailed to any other issuing authority, of which the authority issuing the order to show cause has knowledge, by which other license to that licensee may have been issued, and any such other authority may participate in the suspension or revocation proceedings after notifying the licensee and the officer or authority holding the hearing of its intention so to do on or before the date of hearing, and after the hearing take such action as it could have taken had it instituted the suspension or revocation proceedings in the first instance.

Sec. 55. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 349.35, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [REVOCAION; STAY; APPEAL.] If, upon the hearing of the order to show cause, it appears that the licensee intentionally possessed or willfully kept upon the licensed premises any gambling device, then the license or licenses under which the licensed business is operated on the licensed premises, shall be suspended or revoked. The order of suspension or revocation shall not be enforced during the period allowed by section 349.39 for taking an appeal.

Sec. 56. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 349.36, is amended to read:

349.36 [DUTIES OF COUNTY ATTORNEY.]

The county attorney of the county in which the hearing is held, or the city attorney if the issuing authority is the city, shall attend the hearing, interrogate the witnesses, and advise the issuing authority. The county attorney shall also, and appear for the issuing authority on any appeal taken pursuant to the provisions of section 349.39.

Sec. 57. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 349.38, is amended to read:

349.38 [PROPERTY OWNERS LIABILITY.]

When a license is suspended or revoked under the provisions of sections 349.30 to 349.39, the owner of the premises upon which any licensed business has been operated shall not be penalized by reason thereof unless it is established that the owner had knowledge of the existence of the gambling devices resulting in license suspension or revocation.

Sec. 58. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 349.39, is amended to read:

349.39 [APPEAL TO DISTRICT COURT; STAY; CONTINUANCE UNDER BOND; HEARING UPON ONE YEAR LIMITATION ON PREMISES.]

Any licensee, or any owner of licensed premises, aggrieved by an order of an issuing authority suspending or revoking any license may appeal from that order to the district court of the county in which the licensee resides by serving a notice of the appeal upon the issuing authority or the clerk thereof. The notice of appeal shall state that the person appealing takes an appeal to that district court from the order suspending or revoking the license or licenses, describing them and identifying the order appealed from. This notice shall be served within 15 days from the date of service of the order appealed from, and the same, with proof of service thereof, shall be filed with the court administrator of the district court of the proper county. The appeal shall stand for trial at the next term of the district court following the filing of the notice of appeal, without the service of any notice of trial, and shall be tried in the district court de novo. The trial shall be by jury if the appellant shall so demand. The licensee may continue to operate the licensed business or businesses until the final disposition of such appeal. If the district court upon the appeal shall determine that any license involved in the appeal should be suspended or revoked, it may, nevertheless, in its discretion permit the continuance of the licensed business under a bond in the amount and in the form and containing the conditions prescribed by the court. The district court on the appeal, or in a separate proceeding, may permit the issuance of a new license to a different licensee before the expiration of the period of one year specified in section 349.35, subdivision 2, upon such terms and conditions imposed by the court as will insure that no gambling device shall thereafter be maintained upon the licensed premises.

Sec. 59. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 349.50, subdivision 8, is amended to read:

Subd. 8. [VIDEO GAME OF CHANCE.] "Video game of chance" means games or devices that simulate games commonly referred to as poker, blackjack, craps, hi-lo, roulette or other common gambling forms, though not offering any type of pecuniary award or gain to players. The term also includes any video game having one or more of the following characteristics:

(1) it is primarily a game of chance, and has no substantial elements of skill involved;

(2) it awards game credits or replays and contains a meter or device which records unplayed credits or replays and contains a device that permits them to be canceled.

"Video game of chance" does not include a video pull-tab device as defined in section 5.

Sec. 60. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 349.55, is amended to read:

349.55 [GAME SPECIFICATIONS.]

No payment may be made directly from any game or in connection with the operation of any device. Each game must contain a random character generator, and any internal meter must be nonresetable. Any game canceling replays or credits must cancel them no more than one at a time. A video game of chance may not contain or have attached to it any switch, lever, button, or other device capable of canceling replays or credits in any way other than by playing the game offered by the machine. A video game of chance must be programmed and must operate in such a way that all credits accumulated on a game must automatically cancel within 60 seconds of the completion of a play. No person may cancel replays or credits on a video game of chance in any way other than by playing the game offered by the machine. A video game of chance may not be restarted after cancellation of all accumulated credits except on insertion of a coin.

Sec. 61. [349.61] [REPEAL; TERMINATION OF LICENSES.]

Section 1 and sections 349.50 to 349.60 are repealed January 1, 1992. All licenses issued under sections 349.51 and 349.52 in effect on that date expire on that date. The commissioner of finance shall on that date transfer all money in the video gaming license account to the general fund.

Sec. 62. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 349A.02, subdivision 5, is amended to read:

Subd. 5. [COMPENSATION INCENTIVE PLAN.] The compensation of employees in the division is as provided in chapter 43A. Subject to the provisions of section 43A.18, subdivision 1, the commissioner of employee relations director may, at the request of the director, develop and implement a plan for making incentive payments to employees of the division whose primary responsibilities are in marketing.

Sec. 63. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 609.75, subdivision 4, is amended to read:

Subd. 4. [GAMBLING DEVICE.] A gambling device is a contrivance which for a consideration affords the player an opportunity to obtain something of value, other than free plays, automatically from the machine or otherwise, the award of which is determined principally by chance. "Gambling device" includes any video game of chance, as defined in section 349.50, subdivision 8, that is not in compliance with sections 349.50 to 349.60.

Sec. 64. Laws 1989, First Special Session chapter 1, article 13, section 27, is amended to read:

Sec. 27. [STATE TO BE SUPPLIER OF GAMBLING EQUIPMENT.]

~~Notwithstanding any other law to the contrary,~~ After June 30, 1990 1993, the state of Minnesota will be the sole supplier of all gambling equipment under Minnesota Statutes, chapter 349. The commissioner of revenue shall no later than ~~January 15, 1990~~ December 7, 1992, submit to the legislature a bill making all statutory changes required to implement this section including proposing the required staff and appropriation. The bill shall include provisions requiring the state to provide an adequate supply and variety of gambling equipment and to supply it efficiently. The commissioner of revenue shall provide copies of this bill to the chair of the house of representatives tax committee and to the chair of the senate committee on taxes and tax laws. Notwithstanding any contrary requirements of Minnesota Statutes, section 3C.035, subdivision 2, the revisor shall assess the commissioner of revenue for the actual cost of bill drafting services rendered to the department with respect to the bill required by this section.

Sec. 65. [REPORT.]

The gambling control board shall study and report to the legislature by January 15, 1993, on the use of video pull-tab devices in Minnesota. The study must include, among other subjects:

- (1) the volume of gambling on video pull-tab devices compared with paper pull-tabs;
- (2) the effectiveness of video pull-tabs in eliminating pull-tab cheating;
- (3) the effectiveness of state licensing and regulation of video pull-tab devices;
- (4) the effects of video pull-tab devices on the accountability of lawful gambling; and
- (5) recommendations for future legislative action regarding video pull-tab devices.

Sec. 66. [STEARNS COUNTY; SPECIAL LEVY.]

For taxes levied in 1990, payable in 1991 only, Stearns county may levy a tax in an amount not to exceed $109,000 to cover the cost of the investigation of criminal activity connected with a kidnapping. The levy under this section is not subject to the limitations of Minnesota Statutes, sections 275.50 to 275.56.

Sec. 67. [MILLE LACS COUNTY; SPECIAL LEVY.]

For taxes levied in 1990, payable in 1991 only, Mille Lacs county may levy an amount equal to the expenditures from reserve funds used in 1990 to pay social service costs. The county must provide evidence to the commissioner of revenue that expenditures from reserve funds were made for this purpose. This levy may not exceed $694,000. This levy is not subject to the levy limitations in Minnesota Statutes, section 275.50 to 275.56.

Sec. 68. [REPEALER.]

(a) Minnesota Statutes 1988, sections 349.14 and 349.214, subdivisions 1, 1a, 3, and 4; Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 349.151, subdivision 4a; and Minnesota Statutes Second 1989 Supplement, section 349.214, subdivision 2, are repealed.

(b) Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, sections 349.20 and 349.21, are repealed.

Sec. 69. [EFFECTIVE DATE.]

Sections 5, 6, 9, 11, 15, 25, 36, 41, 42, 44, 45, 46, and 64 are effective the day following final enactment. Sections 29, 31, 32, 60, 63, and 68, paragraph (b), are effective January 1, 1991.

Delete the title and insert:

“A bill for an act relating to lawful gambling; providing primary enforcement for criminal violations in the division of gambling enforcement; defining lawful purposes for expenditures of gambling profits; establishing licensing qualifications for organizations and manufacturers; requiring organizations to report monthly on expenditures and contributions of gambling profits; authorizing the gambling control board to require recipients of contributions of gambling profits to register with the board; authorizing summary suspension of gambling licenses for failure to file tax returns; authorizing a limited number of video pull-tab devices and establishing standards and requirements for them; regulating pull-tab dispensing machines; requiring inspection and testing of gambling equipment; requiring permits for gambling premises; requiring gambling managers to be licensed; requiring that employees of organizations conducting lawful gambling be registered with the board; expanding allowable uses for revenue from local gambling taxes and requiring board approval of these taxes; specifying authority to establish incentive plans for state lottery employees; repealing video games of chance regulating provisions on January 1, 1992; abolishing lawful gambling on July 1, 1993; amending Minnesota Statutes 1988, sections 297A.01, subdivision 16; 349.12, subdivisions 10, 18, and by adding subdivisions; 349.16, as amended; 349.17, as amended; 349.18, as amended; 349.19, as amended; 349.212, subdivision 5; 349.2121, subdivisions 1 and 4a; 349.2123; 349.30, subdivision 2; 349.31; 349.32; 349.34; 349.35, subdivision 1; 349.36; 349.38; 349.39;

Subdivision 1. [IMPOSITION.] A tax is imposed on all retail sales of lawful gambling. The tax imposed by this section is in lieu of the tax imposed by sections 297A.02 and 297A.14 on retail sales of lawful gambling and all local taxes and license fees, except a fee authorized under section 349.16, subdivision 4, or a tax authorized under section 349.212, subdivision 5.

Subd. 2. [COMPUTATION.] The tax imposed under this subdivision equals the tax that would apply if the lawful gambling activity were subject to the provisions of chapter 297A, except (1) the retailer must state the tax separately from the sale price of the lawful gambling activity and (2) all records concerning administration of the tax are classified as public information.

Subd. 3. [PERMITS.] Each organization, licensed by the board to conduct lawful gambling, must file with the commissioner of revenue an application, on a form and in a manner as prescribed by the commissioner, for a gambling tax permit and identification number.

Subd. 4. [EXEMPTION.] Sales by an organization that qualifies for the exemption from licensing in section 349.214, subdivision 2, paragraph (b), are exempt from the tax imposed by this section. A distributor shall report to the commissioner the sales of pull-tabs and tipboards exempt from tax under this subdivision."

The commissioner shall impose civil penalties for violation of this section as provided in section 297A.39, and the additional tax and penalties are subject to interest at the rate provided in section 270.75.

(2) If any part of any additional assessment is due to negligence or intentional disregard of the provisions of this chapter or rules of the commissioner of revenue (but without intent to defraud), there shall be added to the tax an amount equal to ten percent of the additional assessment. The amount of the tax together with this amount shall bear interest at the rate stated in section 270.75 from the time the tax should have been paid until paid."

"Section 1. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 240.011, is amended to read:

240.011 [DIVISION DIRECTOR OF PARI-MUTUEL RACING.]

~~Subdivision 1. [DIVISION CREATED.] A division of pari-mutuel racing is created in the department of gaming. The division is under the supervision and control of the Minnesota racing commission.~~

~~Subd. 2. [DIRECTOR OF PARI-MUTUEL RACING.] The governor shall appoint the director of pari-mutuel racing, who serves in the unclassified service at the governor's pleasure. The director must be a person qualified by experience in the administration and regulation of pari-mutuel racing to discharge the duties of the director. The governor must select a director from a list of one or more names submitted by the commission.~~

Sec. 2. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 240.02, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [COMMISSION.] A Minnesota racing commission is established within the division of pari-mutuel racing with the powers and duties specified in this section. ~~Until the effective date of the first vacancy on the commission that occurs after the effective date of Laws 1989, chapter 334, including a vacancy caused by the expiration of a term,~~ The commission consists of nine members appointed by the governor with the advice and consent of the senate ~~and the commissioner of gaming as a nonvoting member. After the date of the first vacancy, the commission consists of eight members appointed by the governor with the advice and consent of the senate, plus the commissioner as a voting member.~~ Not more than five of the members may belong to the same political party. The governor shall designate the chair of the commission. Appointments by the governor are for terms of six years. An appointment to fill a vacancy in an unexpired term is for the remainder of the term and is with the advice and consent of the senate.

Sec. 3. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 240.02, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [QUALIFICATIONS.] A member of the commission, ~~other than the commissioner,~~ must have been a resident of Minnesota for at least five years before appointment, and must have a background and experience as would qualify for membership on the commission. A member must, before taking a place on the commission, file a bond in the principal sum of $100,000 payable to the state, conditioned upon the faithful performance of duties. No commissioner, nor any member of the commissioner's immediate family residing in the same household, may hold a license issued by the commission or have a direct or indirect financial interest in a corporation, partnership, or association which holds a license issued by the commission.

Sec. 4. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 240.06, subdivision 8, is amended to read:

Subd. 8. [WORK AREAS.] A class A licensee must provide at no cost to the ~~division~~ commission suitable work areas for commission members, officers, employees, and agents, including agents of the division of gambling enforcement, who are directed or requested by the commission to supervise and control racing at the licensed racetrack.

Sec. 5. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 240.28, is amended to read:

240.28 [CONFLICT OF INTEREST.]

Subdivision 1. [FINANCIAL INTEREST.] No person may serve on or be employed by the commission ~~or be employed by the division~~ who has an interest in any corporation, association, or partnership which holds a license from the commission or which holds a contract to supply goods or services to a licensee or at a licensed racetrack, including concessions contracts. No member or employee of the commission ~~or employee of the division~~ may own, wholly or in part, or have an interest in a horse which races at a licensed racetrack in Minnesota. No member or employee of the commission ~~or employee of the division~~ may have a financial interest in or be employed in a profession or business which conflicts with the performance of duties as a member or employee.

Subd. 2. [BETTING.] No member or employee of the commission ~~or employee of the division~~ may bet or cause a bet to be made on a race at a licensed racetrack while serving on or being employed by the commission ~~or being employed by the division~~. No person appointed or approved by the director as a steward may bet or cause a bet to be made at a licensed racetrack during a racing meeting at which the person is serving as a steward. The commission shall by rule prescribe such restrictions on betting by its licensees as it deems necessary to protect the integrity of racing.

Subd. 3. [VIOLATION.] A violation of subdivisions 1 and 2 is grounds for removal from the commission or termination of employment. A bet made directly or indirectly by a licensee in violation of a rule made by the commission under subdivision 2 is grounds for suspension or revocation of the license."

Sec. 77. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 349A.06, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [QUALIFICATIONS.] (a) The director may not contract with a retailer who:

- (1) is under the age of 18;

(2) is in business solely as a seller of lottery tickets;

(3) owes $500 or more in delinquent taxes as defined in section 270.72;

(4) has been convicted within the previous five years of a felony or gross misdemeanor, any crime involving fraud or misrepresentation, or a gambling-related offense;

(5) is a member of the immediate family, residing in the same household, as the director, board member, or any employee of the ~~division~~ lottery; or

(6) in the director's judgment does not have the financial stability or responsibility to act as a lottery retailer, or whose contracting as a lottery retailer would adversely affect the public health, welfare, and safety, or endanger the security and integrity of the lottery.

(b) An organization, firm, partnership, or corporation that has a stockholder who owns more than five percent of the business or the stock of the corporation, an officer, or director, that does not meet the requirements of paragraph (a), clause (4), is not eligible to be a lottery retailer under this section.

(c) The restrictions under paragraph (a), clause (4), do not apply to an organization, partnership, or corporation if the director determines that the organization, partnership, or firm has terminated its relationship with the individual whose actions directly contributed to the disqualification under this subdivision.

Sec. 78. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 349A.06, subdivision 5, is amended to read:

Subd. 5. [RESTRICTIONS ON LOTTERY RETAILERS.] (a) A lottery retailer may sell lottery tickets only on the premises described in the contract.

(b) A lottery retailer must prominently display a certificate issued by the director on the premises where lottery tickets will be sold.

(c) A lottery retailer must keep a complete set of books of account, correspondence, and all other records necessary to show fully the retailer's lottery transactions, and make them available for inspection by employees of the ~~division~~ lottery at all times during business hours. The director may require a lottery retailer to furnish information as the director deems necessary to carry out the purposes of this chapter, and may require an audit to be made of the books of account and records. The director may select an auditor to perform the audit and may require the retailer to pay the cost of the audit. The auditor has the same right of access to the books of account, correspondence, and other records as is given to employees of the ~~division~~ lottery.

(d) A contract issued under this section may not be transferred or assigned.

(e) The director shall require that lottery tickets may be sold by retailers only for cash.

Sec. 79. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 349A.08, subdivision 7, is amended to read:

Subd. 7. [PAYMENTS PROHIBITED.] (a) No prize may be paid to a member of the board, the director or an employee of the ~~division~~ lottery, or a member of their families residing in the same household of the member, director, or employee. No prize may be paid to an officer or employee of a vendor which at the time the game or drawing was being conducted was involved with providing goods or services to the lottery under a lottery procurement contract.

(b) No prize may be paid for a stolen, altered, or fraudulent ticket.

Sec. 80. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 349A.10, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [LOTTERY OPERATIONS.] (a) The director shall establish a lottery operations account in the lottery fund. The director shall pay all costs of operating the lottery, including payroll costs or amounts transferred to the state treasury for payroll costs, but not including lottery prizes, from the lottery operating account. The director shall credit to the lottery operations account amounts sufficient to pay the operating costs of the lottery.

(b) The director may not credit in any fiscal year amounts to the lottery operations account which when totaled exceed 15 percent of gross revenue to the lottery fund in that fiscal year. In computing total amounts credited to the lottery operations account under this paragraph the director shall disregard amounts transferred to or retained by lottery retailers as sales commissions or other compensation.

(c) The director of the lottery may not expend after July 1, 1992, more than $2\frac{3}{4}$ percent of gross revenues in a fiscal year for contracts for the preparation, publication, and placement of advertising.

(d) Except as the director determines, the ~~division~~ lottery is not subject to chapter 16A relating to budgeting, payroll, and the purchase of goods and services.

Sec. 81. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 349A.10, subdivision 4, is amended to read:

Subd. 4. [DEPOSIT OF RECEIPTS.] (a) The director may require lottery retailers to:

(1) deposit in a separate account to the credit of the lottery fund, in banks designated by the director, all money received by the lottery retailer from the sale of lottery tickets, less money retained as the lottery retailer's commission and for payment of prizes;

(2) file with the director reports of the lottery retailer's receipts and transactions in ticket sales in a form that the director prescribes; and

(3) allow money deposited by the lottery retailer from the sale of lottery tickets to be transferred to the ~~division~~ lottery through electronic fund transfer.

(b) The director may make arrangements for any person, including a financial institution, to perform functions, activities, or services in connection with the receipt and distribution of lottery revenues.

(c) A lottery retailer who fails to pay any money due to the director within the time prescribed by the director shall pay interest on the amount owed at the rate determined by rule.

Sec. 82. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 349A.11, is amended to read:

349A.11 [CONFLICT OF INTEREST.]

(a) The director, a board member, an employee of the ~~division~~ lottery, a member of the immediate family of the director, board member, or employee residing in the same household may not:

(1) purchase a lottery ticket;

(2) have any personal pecuniary interest in any vendor holding a lottery procurement contract, or in any lottery retailer; or

(3) receive any gift, gratuity, or other thing of value, excluding food or beverage, from any lottery vendor or lottery retailer, or person applying to be a retailer or vendor, in excess of $100 in any calendar year.

(b) A violation of paragraph (a), clause (1), is a misdemeanor. A violation of paragraph (a), clause (2), is a gross misdemeanor. A violation of paragraph (a), clause (3), is a misdemeanor unless the gift, gratuity, or other item of value received has a value in excess of $500, in which case a violation is a gross misdemeanor.

(c) The director or an unclassified employee of the ~~division~~ lottery may not, within one year of terminating employment with the ~~division~~ lottery, accept employment with, act as an agent or attorney for, or otherwise represent any person, corporation, or entity that had any lottery procurement contract or bid for a lottery procurement contract with the ~~division~~ lottery within a period of two years prior to the termination of their employment. A violation of this paragraph is a misdemeanor.

Sec. 83. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 349A.12, subdivision 4, is amended to read:

Subd. 4. [LOTTERY RETAILERS AND VENDORS.] A person who is a lottery retailer, or is applying to be a lottery retailer, a person applying for a contract with the director, or a person under contract with the director to supply goods or services to ~~division~~ lottery may not pay, give, or make any economic opportunity, gift, loan, gratuity, special discount, favor, hospitality, or service, excluding food or beverage, having an aggregate value of over $100 in any calendar year to the director, board member, employee of the lottery ~~division~~, or to a member of the immediate family residing in the same household as that person."

Independent school district No. 624 is eligible for reinstatement of the foundation levy lost through the fund balance reduction provisions of the foundation formula for the 1985-1986, 1986-1987, and 1987-1988 school years if the fund balance reduction was the result of either referendum revenues added to the net unappropriated general fund balance or a transfer of funds from the capital expenditure account to the general fund. The district may make a special levy in an amount not to exceed the amount of the levy reduction caused by the tier two foundation levy reductions for the 1985-1986, 1986-1987, and 1987-1988 school years, but not to exceed $1,289,418. The district may levy part of the amount:

(1) in 1990 and the remainder in 1991; or

(2) in 1990 and 1991 and the remainder in 1992.

The district may not receive foundation aid, general education aid, or any other aid as a result of levying under this section.

“Until January 1, 1991, this subdivision does not prohibit the otherwise lawful transfer of gambling equipment to a licensed facility located in Minnesota from a facility located in an adjoining state which is owned and operated by the licensed Minnesota distributor who makes the transfer.”

The motion prevailed and the amendment was adopted.

Ozment moved to amend S. F. No. 2018, as amended, as follows:

“Sec. 68. [ROSEMOUNT; ARMORY LEVY.]

Subdivision 1. [ARMORY LEVY.] The city of Rosemount may levy not more than $95,000 per year and otherwise incur debt under Minnesota Statutes, chapter 193 or 475 or both, to acquire and better an armory and to be serviced by the levy without regard to the limits on debt service and debt otherwise provided by chapter 193 or 475.

Subd. 2. [REVERSE REFERENDUM.] If the city council proposes to make a levy pursuant to subdivision 1, it shall pass a resolution stating that fact. Thereafter, the resolution shall be published for two successive weeks in the official newspaper of the city or, if there is no official newspaper, in a newspaper of general circulation in the city, together with a notice fixing a date for a public hearing on the matter. The hearing shall be held not less than two weeks nor more than four weeks after the first publication of the resolution. Following the public hearing, the city may determine to take no further action or adopt a resolution confirming its intention to exercise the authority. That resolution shall also be published in the official newspaper or, if there is no official newspaper, in a newspaper of general circulation in the city. If within 30 days thereafter a petition signed by voters equal in number to ten percent of the votes cast in the city in the last general election requesting a referendum on the proposed resolution is filed with the county auditor, the resolution shall not be effective until it has been submitted to the voters at a general or special election and a majority of votes cast on the question of approving the resolution are in the affirmative. The commissioner of revenue shall prepare a suggested form of question to be presented at the referendum. The referendum must be held at a special or general election prior to January 1, 1992.

Subd. 3. [LOCAL APPROVAL.] This section takes effect the day after the governing body of the city of Rosemount complies with Minnesota Statutes, section 645.021, subdivision 3."

“Subdivision 1. [BOARD MAY REQUIRE CERTAIN POSTING.]
The board may issue an order requiring any organization selling paper pull-tabs to post major pull-tab prizes and the names of major prize winners, if the board has reasonable grounds for believing that the organization, or a person receiving compensation from the organization for participating in the sale of pull-tabs, has been or is providing information to a player or players that provides an unfair advantage related to the potential winnings from pull-tabs. The board must notify the organization at least 14 days before the order becomes effective. The notice to the organization must describe the organization's right to a hearing under subdivision 3.

Subd. 2. [POSTING; REQUIREMENTS.] The information required to be posted under this section must be posted prominently at the point of sale of the pull-tabs. An easily legible pull-tab flare which lists prizes in the deal for that flare, and on which prizes are marked off as they are awarded, satisfies the requirements of this section that major prizes be posted, provided that a separate flare is posted for each deal of pull-tabs. An organization must post or mark off each major prize and post the name of the prize winner immediately on awarding the prize.

Subd. 3. [APPEAL.] An organization to which the board has issued an order under subdivision 1 may request a contested case hearing on the order. A contested case hearing must be held within 20 days of the effective date of the order, and the administrative law judge's report must be issued within 20 days after the close of the hearing record. In all cases involving an order under subdivision 1 where a hearing has been conducted, the board must issue its final decision within 30 days after the receipt of the report of the administrative law judge and subsequent exceptions and arguments under section 14.61.

Subd. 4. [MAJOR PRIZES.] For purposes of this section, a "major prize" in a deal of pull-tabs is any prize that is at least 50 times the face value of any pull-tab in the deal."

“Sec. 68. [BECKER COUNTY; SPECIAL LEVY.]

For taxes levied in 1990, payable in 1991 only, Becker county may levy an amount equal to expenditures it made from reserve funds in calendar years 1987 and 1988. For purposes of this section, the reserves used in calendar year 1987 shall include monies received under the federal revenue sharing program from previous years. The county must provide evidence to the commissioner of revenue that it was eligible for a levy limit base adjustment for taxes levied in 1988 for use of reserve funds under Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 275.51, subdivision 3j and did not receive the adjustment. This levy is not subject to the levy limitations in Minnesota Statutes, sections 275.50 to 275.56.”

Kelly moved to amend S. F. No. 2018, as amended, as follows:

Page 61, after line 1, insert:

"Sec. 49. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 349.2125, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [CONTRABAND DEFINED.] The following are contraband:

(1) all pull-tab or tipboard deals that do not have stamps affixed to them as provided in section 349.162;

(2) all pull-tab or tipboard deals in the possession of any unlicensed person, firm, or organization, whether stamped or unstamped;

(3) any container used for the storage and display of any contraband pull-tab or tipboard deals as defined in clauses (1) and (2);

(4) all currency, checks, and other things of value used for pull-tab or tipboard transactions not expressly permitted under this chapter, and any cash drawer, cash register, or any other container used for illegal pull-tab or tipboard transactions including its contents;

(5) any device including, but not limited to, motor vehicles, trailers, snowmobiles, airplanes, and boats used, with the knowledge of the owner or of a person operating with the consent of the owner, for the storage or transportation of more than five pull-tab or tipboard deals that are contraband under this subdivision. When pull-tabs and tipboards are being transported in the course of interstate commerce, or from one distributor to another, the pull-tab and tipboard deals are not contraband, notwithstanding the provisions of clause (1);

(6) any unaffixed registration stamps except as provided in section 349.162, subdivision 4;

(7) any prize used or offered in a game utilizing contraband as defined in this subdivision;

(8) any altered, modified, or counterfeit pull-tab or tipboard ticket;

(9) any unregistered gambling equipment except as permitted by this chapter; and

(10) any gambling equipment kept in violation of section 349.18; and

(11) any gambling equipment not in conformity with law or board rule.

Sec. 50. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 349.2125, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [INVENTORY; JUDICIAL DETERMINATION; APPEAL; DISPOSITION OF SEIZED PROPERTY.] Within ~~two~~ ten days after the seizure of any alleged contraband, the person making the seizure shall deliver an inventory of the property seized to the person from whom the property was seized, if known, and file a copy with the commissioner of revenue or the director of gambling enforcement. Within ten days after the date of service of the inventory, the person from whom the property was seized or any person claiming an interest in the property may file with the seizing authority a demand for judicial determination of whether the property was lawfully subject to seizure and forfeiture. Within 30 days after the date of filing of the demand, the seizing authority must bring an action in the district court of the county where seizure was made to determine the issue of forfeiture. The action must be brought in the name of the state and be prosecuted by the county attorney or by the attorney general. The court shall hear the action without a jury and determine the issues of fact and laws involved. When a judgment of forfeiture is entered, the seizing authority may, unless the judgment is stayed pending an appeal, either (1) cause the forfeited property to be destroyed; or (2) cause it to be sold at a public auction as provided by law.

If demand for judicial determination is made and no action is commenced as provided in this subdivision, the property must be released by the seizing authority and delivered to the person entitled to it. If no demand is made, the property seized is considered forfeited to the state seizing authority by operation of law and may be disposed of by the seizing authority as provided where there has been a judgment of forfeiture. When the seizing authority is satisfied that a person from whom property is seized was acting in good faith and without intent to evade the tax imposed by section 349.2121, subdivision 4, the seizing authority shall release the property seized without further legal proceedings.

Sec. 51. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 349.2125, subdivision 4, is amended to read:

Subd. 4. [DISPOSAL.] (a) The property described in subdivision 1, clauses (4) and (5), must be confiscated after conviction of the person from whom it was seized, upon compliance with the following procedure: the seizing authority shall file with the court a separate complaint against the property, describing it and charging its use in the specific violation, and specifying substantially the time and place of the unlawful use. A copy of the complaint must be served upon the defendant or person in charge of the property at the time of seizure, if any. If the person arrested is acquitted, the court shall dismiss the complaint against the property and order it returned to the persons legally entitled to it. Upon conviction of the person arrested, the court shall issue an order directed to any person known or believed to have any right, title or interest in, or lien upon, any of the property, and to persons unknown claiming any right, title, interest, or lien in it, describing the property and (1) stating that it was seized and that a complaint against it, charging the specified violation, has been filed with the court, (2) requiring the persons to file with the court administrator their answer to the complaint, setting forth any claim they may have to any right or title to, interest in, or lien upon the property, within 30 days after the service of the order, and (3) notifying them in substance that if they fail to file their answer within the time, the property will be ordered sold by the seizing authority. The court shall cause the order to be served upon any person known or believed to have any right, title, interest, or lien as in the case of a summons in a civil action, and upon unknown persons by publication, as provided for service of summons in a civil action. If no answer is filed within the time prescribed, the court shall, upon affidavit by the court administrator, setting forth the fact, order the property sold by the seizing authority. Seventy percent of the proceeds of the sale, after deducting the expense of keeping the property and fees and costs of sale, must be paid into the state treasury and credited to the general fund of forfeited property, after payment of seizure, storage, forfeiture, and sale expenses, must be forwarded to the seizing authority for deposit as a supplement to its operating fund or similar fund for official use, and 20 percent must be forwarded to the county attorney or other prosecuting agency that handled the forfeiture for deposit as a supplement to its operating fund or similar fund for prosecutorial purposes. The remaining ten percent of the proceeds must be forwarded within 60 days after resolution of the forfeiture to the department of human services to fund programs for the treatment of compulsive gamblers. If answer is filed within the time provided, the court shall fix a time for a hearing, which shall be not less than ten nor more than 30 days after the time for filing answer expires. At the time fixed for hearing, unless continued for cause, the matter shall be heard and determined by the court, without a jury, as in other civil actions.

(b) If the court finds that the property, or any part of it, was used in the violation specified in the complaint, it shall order the property unlawfully used, sold as provided by law, unless the owner shows to the satisfaction of the court that the owner had no notice or knowledge or reason to believe that the property was used or intended to be used in the violation. The officer making a sale, after deducting the expense of keeping the property, the fee for seizure, and the costs of the sale, shall pay all liens according to their priority, which are established at the hearing as being bona fide and as existing without the lienor having any notice or knowledge that the property was being used or was intended to be used for or in connection with the violation specified in the order of the court, and shall pay the balance of the proceeds ~~into the state treasury to be credited to the general fund to the seizing authority for official use and sharing in the manner provided in paragraph (a).~~ A sale under this section shall free the property sold from any and all liens on it. Appeal from the order of the district court will lie as in other civil cases. At any time after seizure of the articles specified in this subdivision, and before the hearing provided for, the property must be returned to the owner or person having a legal right to its possession, upon execution of a good and valid bond to the state, with corporate surety, in the sum of not less than $100 and not more than double the value of the property seized, to be approved by the court in which the case is triable, or a judge of it, conditioned to abide any order and the judgment of the court, and to pay the full value of the property at the time of the seizure. The seizing authority may dismiss the proceedings outlined in this subdivision when the seizing authority considers it to be in the best interests of the state public interest to do so.

Sec. 52. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 349.2127, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [PROHIBITION AGAINST POSSESSION.] (a) No person, other than a licensed distributor, shall sell, offer for sale, or have in possession ~~with intent to sell or offer for sale,~~ a pull-tab or tipboard deal not stamped in accordance with the provisions of this chapter.

(b) No person other than a licensed distributor or ~~licensed or exempt~~ an organization under section 349.214 licensed or exempt or excluded from licensing under section 349.166 may possess with the ~~intent to sell or, offer to sell, or possess~~ gambling equipment, ~~except (1) equipment exempt from taxation, or (2) equipment put into play by a licensed or exempt organization.~~

(c) No person, firm, or organization may alter, modify, or counterfeit pull-tabs, tipboards, or possess altered, modified, or counterfeit pull-tabs or, tipboard tickets with intent to sell, redeem, or exchange them.

Sec. 53. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 349.2127, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 6. [CHECKS FOR GAMBLING PURCHASES.] An organization may not accept checks in payment for the purchase of any gambling equipment or for the chance to participate in any form of lawful gambling.

"Sec. 56. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 349.22, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [GROSS MISDEMEANOR.] (a) A person who commits any violation of section 349.11 to 349.23 for which another penalty is not provided is guilty of a gross misdemeanor.

(b) A person who in any manner violates sections 349.11 to 349.23 to evade a tax imposed by a provision of this chapter, or who aids and abets in the evasion of a tax, or hinders or interferes with a seizing authority when a seizure is made as provided by section 349.2125, is guilty of a gross misdemeanor.

(c) A person who violates section 349.2127, subdivision 5, is guilty of a gross misdemeanor if the recipient of the information or anyone acting in concert with the recipient receives prizes valued at more than $200 but not more than $2,500. For purposes of this paragraph, the value of prizes received within any six-month period may be aggregated and the defendant charged accordingly.

Sec. 57. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 349.22, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 1a. [MISDEMEANOR.] Except as otherwise provided in subdivision 3, a person who violates section 349.2127, subdivision 5, is guilty of a misdemeanor.

Sec. 58. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 349.22, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [FELONY.] (a) A person violating who does any of the following is guilty of a felony:

(1) violates section 349.2127, subdivision 1 or 3; is guilty of a felony;

(b) A person violating (2) violates section 349.2127, subdivision 2 or 4, by possessing, receiving, or transporting more than ten pull-tab or tipboard deals, or a combination of more than ten deals of pull-tabs or tipboards; is guilty of a felony;

(3) violates section 349.2127, subdivision 5, if the recipient of the information or anyone acting in concert with the recipient receives prizes valued at more than $2,500. For purposes of this paragraph, the value of prizes received within any six-month period may be aggregated and the defendant charged accordingly;

(4) knowingly submits false information in any license application or other document or communication submitted to the board;

(5) knowingly submits false information in any report, document, or other communication submitted to the commissioner of revenue in connection with lawful gambling or with any provision of this chapter;

(6) knowing or with reason to know makes an unlawful expenditure of more than $2,500 of gross profits from lawful gambling; or

(7) violates section 349.2127, subdivision 2, clause (c), if the total face value for all such pull-tabs exceeds $200. For purposes of this clause, the value of pull-tabs received within any six-month period may be aggregated and the defendant charged accordingly.

Sec. 59. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 349.22, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 3a. [AGGREGATION.] When the value of prizes or pull-tabs received within a six-month period is aggregated under this section and two or more offenses were committed by the same person in two or more counties, the accused may be prosecuted in any county in which one of the offenses was committed for all of the offenses aggregated under this section."

Page 66, after line 26, insert:

"Sec. 69. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 349.501, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [TO THE PUBLIC.] An operator must prominently post in the owner's business premises a brief description of the legal consequences of awarding or receiving cash instead of game credits or replays on video games of chance in violation of ~~section~~ sections 349.502 and 609.76, subdivision 1.

The information is prominently posted if it can be readily seen by a player immediately before the player participates in the video game of chance.

Sec. 70. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 349.502, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [MISDEMEANOR.] A person who awards or receives cash instead of game credits or anything of value other than replays on a video game of chance is guilty of a misdemeanor. An owner who directs an employee to violate this section is also considered to have violated this section. For purposes of this subdivision "cash" includes checks.

Sec. 71. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 349.52, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 5. [LOCAL REGULATION.] A statutory or home rule charter city or county has the authority to adopt more stringent regulations concerning video games of chance, including the prohibition of video games of chance, within its jurisdiction.

Page 67, after line 34, insert:

"Sec. 75. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 609.76, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [GROSS MISDEMEANORS.] Whoever does any of the following may be sentenced to imprisonment for not more than one year or to payment of a fine of not more than $3,000, or both:

(1) maintains or operates a gambling place or operates a bucket shop;

(2) intentionally participates in the income of a gambling place or bucket shop;

(3) conducts a lottery, or, with intent to conduct a lottery, possesses facilities for doing so;

(4) sets up for use for the purpose of gambling, or collects the proceeds of, any gambling device or bucket shop;

(6) receives, records, or forwards bets or offers to bet or, with intent to receive, record, or forward bets or offers to bet, possesses facilities to do so; or

(7) pays any compensation for game credits earned on or otherwise rewards, with anything of value, other than free plays, players of video games of chance as defined under in section 349.50, subdivision 8, or who directs an employee to pay any such compensation or reward.

Sec. 76. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 609.762, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [FORFEITURE.] The following are subject to forfeiture:

(a) Devices used or intended for use, including those defined in section 349.30, subdivision 2, as a gambling device, except as authorized in sections 349.11 to 349.23 and 349.40;

(b) Gambling equipment as defined in section 349.12, subdivision 15, used or intended for use in violation of any provision of sections 349.11 to 349.22 or any rule authorized thereunder;

(c) All moneys, materials, and other property used or intended for use as payment to participate in gambling or a prize or receipt for gambling;

(d) Books, records, and research products and materials, including formulas, microfilm, tapes, and data used or intended for use in gambling; and

(e) Property used or intended to be used to illegally influence the outcome of a horse race.”

Page 69, line 26, after the period, insert “Sections 49 to 53, 56 to 59, 69 to 71, 75, and 76 are effective August 1, 1990. Sections 56, 58, 70, 75, and 76 apply to violations committed on or after that date.”

April 3, 1990

The Honorable Robert E. Vanasek
Speaker of the House of Representatives
The State of Minnesota

Dear Mr. Speaker:

I have vetoed Chapter 390, H. F. No. 2481/S. F. No. 2237, a bill that would permit a judge to sentence a criminal defendant to prison without first conducting a presentence investigation, if the sentence is in accord with the sentencing guidelines.

By eliminating presentence investigations for many defendants, this bill would remove the opportunity for the crime victim to address the court, request restitution, or express a sentencing preference. In the case of drug crimes, the bill removes the opportunity for an assessment of the impact of the crime on the community to be brought to the attention of the judge. The bill could also result in a shorter sentence for a criminal because a judge may not have complete information regarding the defendant's prior criminal history at the time of sentencing.

I understand that the purpose of this bill was to ease crowding in some county jails. However, this bill would eliminate significant rights of crime victims and weaken the sentencing process. Moreover, the bill is unnecessary because current law allows convicted felons to be moved from jail to prison while they await the results of the presentence investigation.

Sincerely,

RUDY PERPICH
Governor

The Honorable Robert E. Vanasek
Speaker of the House of Representatives
The State of Minnesota

Dear Sir:

I have the honor of informing you that I have received, approved, signed and deposited in the Office of the Secretary of State the following House Files:

H. F. No. 1067, relating to education; providing for students on HECB advisory groups if requested.

H. F. No. 2018, relating to newspapers; changing filing requirements for qualification as a legal newspaper.

H. F. No. 1785, relating to real property; providing for plat monuments; imposing a penalty.

H. F. No. 2084, relating to statutes; revising the text of certain laws to remove redundant and obsolete language, to simplify grammar and syntax, and to improve the style of language without causing changes in the meaning of the laws.

H. F. No. 2059, relating to education; designating the commissioner of transportation as agent for the Mid-American Aviation Resource Consortium; permitting special school district No. 1 to remodel the Aviation Training Center with federal funds.

Sincerely,

RUDY PERPICH
Governor

REPORTS OF STANDING COMMITTEES

Simoneau from the Committee on Appropriations to which was referred:

H. F. No. 1617, A bill for an act relating to the environment; providing for mitigation of the greenhouse effect by imposing a surcharge on motor vehicles and on facilities permitted by the pollution control agency; requiring the commissioner of natural resources to complete a tree planting plan for carbon dioxide absorption; proposing coding for new law in Minnesota Statutes, chapter 116.

Reported the same back with the following amendments:

Delete everything after the enacting clause and insert:

"Section 1. [116.86] [CARBON DIOXIDE; LEGISLATIVE INTENT.]

The legislature recognizes that waste carbon dioxide emissions, primarily from transportation and industrial sources, may be a primary component of the global greenhouse effect that warms the earth's atmosphere and may result in untold and irreparable damage to the agricultural, water, forest, and wildlife resources of the state. The legislature further recognizes that trees are a major factor in keeping the earth's carbon cycle balanced, and planting trees and perennial shrubs and vines recycles carbon downward from the atmosphere.

Sec. 2. [TREE AND PERENNIAL SHRUBS AND VINES PLANTING FOR CARBON DIOXIDE ABSORPTION.]

By January 1, 1991, the commissioner of natural resources and the commissioner of the pollution control agency, in consultation with representatives of industry that may be affected by a surcharge on carbon dioxide emissions, and representatives of the forestry and environmental communities, shall prepare a report on the use of a surcharge on carbon dioxide emissions. The report shall:

(1) suggest an appropriate fee on sources of carbon dioxide emissions, including motor vehicle and permitted facilities in the air emission inventory of the pollution control agency;

(2) recommend methods of encouraging tree and perennial shrubs and vines planting to be implemented in lieu of payment of part or all of a surcharge; and

(3) include a planting plan for carbon dioxide absorption that identifies the proper mix of species for adequate absorption, the proper placement of trees for energy efficiency and conservation, the areas of the state most effective for proper tree planting, the adequate production of state nursery stock, the available procurement of private nursery stock, a range of costs to plant adequate species that absorb carbon dioxide, and the current and prospective distribution system to allow adequate species to be planted.

The commissioners of the pollution control agency and the department of natural resources shall have authority to solicit and accept funds from nonstate sources to accomplish the responsibilities in this section."

Amend the title accordingly

With the recommendation that when so amended the bill pass.

The report was adopted.

Reported the same back with the following amendments:

Page 17, after line 29, insert:

"Sec. 28. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 105.37, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 19. [ONCE-THROUGH SYSTEM.] "Once-through system" means any space heating, ventilating, air conditioning (HVAC), or refrigeration system used for any type of temperature or humidity control application, utilizing groundwater, which circulates through the system and is then discharged without recirculating the majority of the water in the system components or reusing it for another purpose.

Sec. 29. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 105.41, subdivision 1c, is amended to read:

Subd. 1c. [~~CERTAIN COOLING SYSTEM PERMITS PROHIBITED PROHIBITION ON ONCE-THROUGH WATER USE PERMITS.~~] (a) The commissioner ~~may~~ shall not, after December 31, 1990, issue a water use permit to increase the volume of appropriation from a groundwater source for a once-through cooling system using in excess of five million gallons annually.

(b) ~~For purposes of this subdivision, a once-through cooling system means a cooling or heating system for human comfort that draws a continuous stream of water from a groundwater source to remove or add heat for cooling, heating, or refrigeration. The commissioner may issue no new water use permits for once-through systems after the date of enactment. Permits for once-through cooling systems shall terminate no later than December 31, 1999.~~

Sec. 30. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 105.41, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 1d. [MT. SIMON-HINCKLEY AQUIFER.] (a) The commissioner may not issue new water use permits that will appropriate water from the Mt. Simon-Hinckley aquifer within the seven-county metropolitan area unless the appropriation is for potable water use, there are no feasible or practical alternatives to using the aquifer, and a water conservation plan is incorporated with the permit.

(b) The commissioner must terminate all permits authorizing appropriation and use of water from the Mt. Simon-Hinckley aquifer for once-through systems in the seven-county metropolitan area by December 31, 1992.

Sec. 31. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 105.41, subdivision 4, is amended to read:

Subd. 4. [MEASURING AND RECORDING QUANTITIES USED.] It is unlawful for the state, a person, partnership, or association, private or public corporation, county, municipality, or other political subdivision of the state to appropriate or use waters of the state, surface or underground, without measuring and keeping a record of the quantity of water used or appropriated as provided in this section. Each installation for appropriating or using water must be equipped with a device or employ a method flow meter to measure the quantity of water appropriated with reasonable within the degree of accuracy required by rule. The commissioner's determination of the method commissioner can determine other methods to be used for measuring water quantity must be based on the quantity of water appropriated or used, the source of water, the method of appropriating or using water, and any other facts supplied to the commissioner.

Sec. 32. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 105.41, subdivision 5a, is amended to read:

Subd. 5a. [WATER USE PROCESSING FEE.] (a) Except as provided in paragraph (b), a water use processing fee not to exceed $2,000 must be prescribed by the commissioner in accordance with the following schedule of fees for each water use permit in force at any time during the year:

(1) 0.05 cent per 1,000 gallons for the first 50 million gallons per year; and

(2) 0.1 cents per 1,000 gallons for the amounts greater than 50 million gallons per year.

(b) For once-through cooling systems as defined in subdivision 1c, a water use processing fee must be prescribed by the commissioner in accordance with the following schedule of fees for each water use permit in force at any time during the year:

(1) 5.0 cents per 1,000 gallons until December 31, 1991;

(2) 10.0 cents for 1,000 gallons from January 1, 1992, until December 31, 1996; and

(3) 15.0 cents per 1,000 gallons after January 1, 1997.

(c) The fee is payable based on the amount of water permitted during the year and in no case may the fee be less than $25.

(d) Failure to pay the fee is sufficient cause for revoking a permit.

(e) A water use processing fee may not be imposed on any state agency as defined in section 16B.01, holding a water appropriation permit.

(f) For once-through systems fees payable after July 1, 1993, 50 percent of the fee deposited in the general fund may be used for grants as appropriated by the legislature to assist in financing retrofitting of permitted once-through systems. The commissioner shall promulgate rules for determining eligibility and criteria for the issuance of grants for retrofitting according to chapter 14, by July 1, 1993.

The commissioner shall notify all permittees of the fee changes authorized by this law by July 1, 1990. Permittees shall have until November 1, 1990, to amend permits to accurately reflect historic water use. The commissioner is authorized to refund 1989 water use report processing fees based on amendments under this subdivision.

Sec. 33. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 326.37, is amended to read:

326.37 [PLUMBERS; SUPERVISION BY STATE COMMISSIONER OF HEALTH; RULES; VIOLATION; PENALTY.]

Subdivision 1. The state commissioner of health may, by rule, prescribe minimum standards which shall be uniform, and which standards shall thereafter be effective for all new plumbing installations, including additions, extensions, alterations, and replacements connected with any water or sewage disposal system owned or operated by or for any municipality, institution, factory, office building, hotel, apartment building, or any other place of business regardless of location or the population of the city or town in which located. Violation of the rules shall be a misdemeanor.

The commissioner shall administer the provisions of sections 326.37 to 326.45 and for such purposes may employ plumbing inspectors and other assistants.

Subd. 2. [STANDARDS FOR CAPACITY.] By January 1, 1992, all new and replacement floor-mounted water closets may not have a flush volume of more than 1.6 gallons. The water closets must meet the standards of the commissioner and the American National Standards Institute.

Reported the same back with the following amendments:

Delete everything after the enacting clause and insert:

"Section 1. [471.471] [ACCESS REVIEW BOARD.]

Subdivision 1. [MEMBERSHIP.] The access review board consists of:

(1) a representative of the building code and standards division of the department of administration, appointed by the commissioner of administration;

(2) a representative of the state fire marshal's office, appointed by the commissioner of public safety;

(3) the commissioner of human rights or the commissioner's designee;

(4) the commissioner of labor and industry or the commissioner's designee; and

(5) the chair of the council on disability or the chair's designee.

The council shall elect a chair from among its members. Terms of members coincide with the terms of their appointing authorities or, in the case of ex officio members or their designees, with the terms of the offices by virtue of which they are members of the board. Compensation of members is governed by section 15.0575, subdivision 3.

Subd. 2. [STAFF; ADMINISTRATIVE SUPPORT.] The commissioner of administration shall furnish staff, office space, and administrative support to the board. Staff assigned to the board must be knowledgeable with respect to access codes, site surveys, plan design, and product use and eligibility.

Subd. 3. [DUTIES.] The board shall consider applications for waivers from the state building code to permit the installation of stairway chair lifts to provide limited accessibility for the physically disabled to buildings in which the provision of access by means permitted under the state building code is not architecturally or financially feasible. In considering applications, the board shall review other possible access options. The board may approve an application for installation of a stairway chair when the board determines that the installation would be appropriate and no other means of access is feasible. In determining whether to approve an application, the board shall consider:

(1) the need for limited accessibility when a higher degree of accessibility is not required by state or federal law or rule;

(2) the architectural feasibility of providing a greater degree of accessibility than would be provided by the proposed device or equipment;

(3) the applicant's demonstrated inability to afford a greater degree of accessibility;

(4) the total cost of the proposed device or equipment over its projected usable life, including installation, maintenance, and replacement costs;

(5) the reliability of the proposed device or equipment;

(6) the applicant's ability to comply with all recognized access and safety standards for installation and maintenance; and

(7) whether the proposed device or equipment can be operated and used without reducing or compromising minimum safety standards.

The board may not approve an application unless the applicant guarantees that the device or equipment will be installed and operated in accordance with nationally recognized standards for such devices or equipment and agrees to obtain any permits needed from the agency responsible for enforcing those standards.

Subd. 4. [APPLICATION PROCESS.] A person seeking a waiver shall apply to the building code and standards division of the department of administration on a form prescribed by the board and pay a $70 fee. The division shall review the application to determine whether it appears to be meritorious, using the standards set out in subdivision 3. The division shall forward applications it considers meritorious to the board, along with a list and summary of applications considered not to be meritorious. The board may require the division to forward to it an application the division has considered not to be meritorious. The board shall issue a decision on an application within 90 days of its receipt. A board decision to approve an application must be unanimous. An application that contains false or misleading information must be rejected.

Subd. 5. [LIABILITY.] Board members are immune from liability for personal injury or death resulting from the use or misuse of a device or equipment installed and operated under a waiver granted by the board."

"Section 1. [525.5501] [RIGHT TO COUNSEL.]

Subdivision 1. [GENERAL.] A proposed ward or conservatee has the right to be represented by counsel at any proceeding under this chapter. The court shall appoint counsel to represent the proposed ward or conservatee for the initial proceeding held pursuant to section 525.551 if neither the proposed ward or conservatee nor others provide counsel unless in a meeting with a visitor the proposed ward or conservatee specifically waives the right to counsel. Counsel must be appointed immediately after any petition under this chapter is served under section 525.55.

Counsel has the full right of subpoena. In all proceedings under this chapter, counsel shall:

(1) consult with the proposed ward or proposed conservatee before any hearing;

(2) be given adequate time to prepare for all hearings; and

(3) continue to represent the person throughout any proceedings under section 525.551 unless released as counsel by the court.

The court need not appoint counsel to represent the proposed ward or conservatee on a voluntary petition and the court may remove a court-appointed attorney at any time if the court finds that the proposed ward or conservatee has made a knowing and intelligent waiver of the right to counsel or has obtained private counsel.

Subd. 2. [FILING FEE SURCHARGE.] A petitioner who pays a filing fee for a petition under chapters 524 and 525 shall pay a surcharge of up to $20, set by the county board of the county in which the petition is filed, in addition to the filing fee and other surcharges imposed by law. The court administrator shall transmit the surcharge to the county treasurer for deposit in the county treasury. This subdivision does not apply in the counties that make up the Eighth Judicial District.

Subd. 3. [PAYMENT OF COUNSEL.] A proposed ward or conservatee shall pay the costs of counsel out of assets of, or available to, the ward or conservatee. If the proposed ward or conservatee is indigent, the costs of counsel shall be paid by the county from amounts deposited in the county treasury under subdivision 2."

With the recommendation that when so amended the bill pass.

CONFERENCE COMMITTEE REPORT ON H. F. NO. 1857

A bill for an act relating to transportation; providing greater restrictions on eligibility of debarred persons for certain public contracts; increasing scope of interstate motor carrier registration agreements; amending Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 161.315, subdivisions 2 and 3; Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 221.601, subdivision 1.

April 4, 1990

The Honorable Robert E. Vanasek
Speaker of the House of Representatives

The Honorable Jerome M. Hughes
President of the Senate

We, the undersigned conferees for H. F. No. 1857, report that we have agreed upon the items in dispute and recommend as follows:

That the Senate recede from its amendment and that H. F. No. 1857 be further amended as follows:

Delete everything after the enacting clause and insert:

"Section 1. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 161.315, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [DEFINITIONS.] The terms used in this section have the meanings given them in this subdivision.

(a) "Affiliate" means a predecessor or successor of a person under the same or substantially the same control by merger, reorganization, or otherwise, who is, or that has as an officer or director an individual who is, a relative of the person or an individual over whose actions the person exercises substantial influence or control, or a group of entities so connected or associated that one entity controls or has the power to control each of the other entities. "Affiliate" includes the affiliate's principals. One person's ownership of a controlling interest in another entity or a pooling of equipment or income among entities is prima facie evidence that one entity is an affiliate of another.

(b) "Contract crime" means a violation of state or federal antitrust law, fraud, theft, embezzlement, bribery, forgery, misrepresentation, making false statements, falsification or destruction of records, or other criminal offense in connection with obtaining, attempting to obtain, or performing a public or private contract or subcontract.

(c) "Conviction" has the meaning given it in section 609.02, subdivision 5.

(d) "Debar" means to disqualify from receiving a contract or from serving as a subcontractor or material supplier as provided by Laws 1984, chapter 654, article 2, section 8.

(e) "Person" means a natural person or a business, corporation, association, partnership, sole proprietorship, or other entity formed to do business as a contractor, subcontractor, or material supplier and includes an affiliate of a person.

(f) "Pooling" means a combination of persons engaged in the same business or combined for the purpose of engaging in a particular business or commercial venture and who all contribute to a common fund or place their holdings of a given stock or other security in the hand and control of a managing member or committee of the combination.

(g) "Suspend" means to temporarily disqualify from receiving a contract or from serving as a subcontractor or material supplier as provided by Laws 1984, chapter 654, article 2, section 8.

(h) "Relative" means an individual related by consanguinity within the second degree as determined by the common law, a spouse, or an individual related to a spouse within the second degree as determined by the common law, and includes an individual in an adoptive relationship within the second degree as determined by the common law.

Sec. 2. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 161.315, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [PROHIBITIONS.] Except as provided in subdivision 4:

(1) neither the commissioner nor a county, town, or home rule or statutory city may award or approve the award of a contract for goods or services to a person who is suspended or debarred;

(2) neither the commissioner nor a county, town, or home rule or statutory city may award or approve the award of a contract for goods or services under which a debarred or suspended person will serve as a subcontractor or material supplier; and

(3) a person to whom a contract for goods or services has been awarded may not subcontract with or purchase materials or services from a debarred or suspended person for performance of that contract; and

(4) when a debarred person sells or otherwise transfers to a relative or to any other party over whose actions the debarred person exercises substantial influence or control, a business, corporation, association, partnership, sole proprietorship, or other entity, or an affiliate of the entity, that is ineligible by virtue of the debarment to contract with a governmental entity, the sold or transferred entity remains ineligible for these contracts for the duration of the seller's or transferor's debarment.

Sec. 3. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 221.022, is amended to read:

221.022 [METROPOLITAN TRANSIT COMMISSION; EXCEPTION.]

The powers granted to the board under sections 221.011 to 221.296 do not include the power to regulate any service or vehicles operated by the metropolitan transit commission or to regulate passenger transportation service provided under contract to the department or the regional transit board. A provider of passenger transportation service under contract to the department or the regional transit board may not provide charter service without first having obtained a permit to operate as a charter carrier.

Sec. 4. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 221.025, is amended to read:

221.025 [EXEMPTIONS.]

Except as provided in sections 221.031 and 221.033, the provisions of this chapter do not apply to the intrastate transportation described below:

(a) the transportation of students to or from school or school activities in a school bus inspected and certified under section 169.451;

(b) the transportation of rubbish as defined in section 443.27;

(c) a commuter van as defined in section 221.011, subdivision 27;

(d) authorized emergency vehicles as defined in section 169.01, subdivision 5, including ambulances, and tow trucks when picking up and transporting disabled or wrecked motor vehicles and when carrying proper and legal warning devices;

(e) the transportation of grain samples under conditions prescribed by the board;

(f) the delivery of agricultural lime;

(g) the transportation of dirt and sod within an area having a 50-mile radius from the home post office of the person performing the transportation;

(h) a person while exclusively engaged in the transportation of sand, gravel, bituminous asphalt mix, concrete ready mix, concrete blocks or tile, or crushed rock to or from the point of loading or a place of gathering within an area having a 50-mile radius from that person's home post office or a 50-mile radius from the site of construction or maintenance of public roads and streets;

(i) the transportation of pulpwood, cordwood, mining timber, poles, posts, decorator evergreens, wood chips, sawdust, shavings, and bark from the place where the products are produced to the point where they are to be used or shipped;

(j) a person while engaged exclusively in transporting fresh vegetables from farms to canneries or viner stations, from viner stations to canneries, or from canneries to canneries during the harvesting, canning, or packing season, or transporting potatoes, sugar beets, wild rice, or rutabagas from the field of production to the first place of delivery or unloading, including a processing plant, warehouse, or railroad siding;

(k) a person engaged in transporting property or freight, other than household goods and petroleum products in bulk, entirely within the corporate limits of a city or between contiguous cities except as provided in section 221.296;

(l) the transportation of unprocessed dairy products in bulk within an area having a 100-mile radius from the home post office of the person providing the transportation;

(m) a person engaged in transporting agricultural, horticultural, dairy, livestock, or other farm products within an area having a 25-mile radius from the person's home post office and the carrier may transport other commodities within the 25-mile radius if the destination of each haul is a farm;

(n) a person providing limousine service that is not regular route service in a passenger automobile that is not a van, and that has a seating capacity, excluding the driver, of not more than 12 persons;

(o) passenger transportation service that is not charter service and that is under contract to and with operating assistance from the department or the regional transit board.

Sec. 5. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 221.031, subdivision 3a, is amended to read:

Subd. 3a. [CONTRACTORS OR RECIPIENTS OF TRANSPORTATION ASSISTANCE.] Notwithstanding subdivision 3, providers of passenger transportation service under contract to and with operating assistance from the department or the regional transit board must comply with rules of the commissioner for driver qualifications, safe operation of vehicles, equipment, parts and accessories, maximum hours of service of drivers, inspection, repair and maintenance, and accident reporting. This subdivision does not apply to a local transit commission, a transit authority created by the legislature, or special transportation service certified by the commissioner under section 174.30.

Sec. 6. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 221.601, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

221.601 [AGREEMENTS WITH OTHER STATES.]

Subdivision 1. [AUTHORITY.] The commissioner may enter into agreements with representatives of other states to allow the cooperative registration of motor carriers transporting property or passengers for hire in interstate commerce. The agreement may authorize representatives of other states to issue interstate registration stamps and trip permits; accept the filing of insurance certificates, insurance cancellation notices, and interstate commerce commission orders; issue suspension and reinstatement orders or notices; and collect and disburse fees prescribed by this chapter. The agreement may allow the exchange of information for audit, reporting, and enforcement purposes, and the collection and disbursement of fees provided under this chapter and the laws of other states that participate in the agreement. The agreement and all amendments must be in writing. The agreement may provide for the gradual adoption of a base state registration system. It may provide that a motor carrier based in another state participating in the agreement, that has filed evidence of financial responsibility in that state that meets the requirements of this chapter and of the agreement, need not file evidence of financial responsibility with the commissioner for its interstate operations in this state.

Sec. 7. [FIBER OPTIC CABLE ALONG I-94; I-494.]

Notwithstanding Minnesota Rules 1989, part 8810.3300, subpart 4, a utility, as defined in Minnesota Rules 1989, part 8810.3100, subpart 4, may lay a fiber optic cable or a conduit containing one or more fiber optic cables inside the control-of-access lines along the portion of the interstate highway designated as I-94 that runs between Maple Grove in Hennepin county and St. Cloud in Stearns county, and the portion of the interstate highway designated as I-494 that runs between Plymouth in Hennepin county and Maple Grove in Hennepin county. The commissioner of transportation may impose reasonable conditions on the time, place, and manner of the utility's installation and maintenance of the cable or conduit and may also charge reasonable fees therefor notwithstanding Minnesota Statutes, chapters 14 and 16A. If the cable or conduit must be relocated because of reconstruction or maintenance work on an interstate highway, the utility shall bear the entire cost of the relocation.

Sec. 8. [EFFECTIVE DATE.]

Sections 1 to 7 are effective the day following final enactment."

Delete the title and insert:

"A bill for an act relating to transportation; providing greater restrictions on eligibility of debarred persons for certain public contracts; exempting provision of passenger transportation service under contract with regional transportation board from some regulation; increasing scope of interstate motor carrier registration agreements; permitting fiber optic cable to be laid along portions of certain interstate highways; amending Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 161.315, subdivisions 2 and 3; Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, sections 221.022; 221.025; 221.031, subdivision 3a; and 221.601, subdivision 1."

We request adoption of this report and repassage of the bill.

House Conferees: BERNARD L. LIEDER, ANDY STEENSMA AND DOUG CARLSON.

CONFERENCE COMMITTEE REPORT ON H. F. NO. 1846

A bill for an act relating to prostitution; increasing penalties for certain patrons of prostitutes; providing that when a patron uses a motor vehicle during commission of an offense, that fact will be noted on the person's driving record; amending Minnesota Statutes 1988, sections 609.324, subdivisions 2, 3, and by adding subdivisions; and 609.3241.

April 2, 1990

The Honorable Robert E. Vanasek
Speaker of the House of Representatives

The Honorable Jerome M. Hughes
President of the Senate

We, the undersigned conferees for H. F. No. 1846, report that we have agreed upon the items in dispute and recommend as follows:

That the Senate recede from its amendments and that H. F. No. 1846 be further amended as follows:

Pages 1 and 2, delete sections 2 and 3 and insert:

"Sec. 2. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 609.324, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. Whoever intentionally does any of the following may be sentenced to imprisonment for not more than 90 days or to payment of a fine of not more than $700, or both:

(1) Engages in prostitution with an individual 18 years of age or above; or

(2) Hires or offers or agrees to hire an individual 18 years of age or above to engage in sexual penetration or sexual contact. Except as otherwise provided in subdivision 4, a person who is convicted of violating clause (1) or (2) while acting as a patron must, at a minimum, be sentenced to pay a fine of at least $500.

Whoever violates the provisions of this subdivision within two years of a previous conviction may be sentenced to imprisonment for not more than one year or to payment of a fine of not more than $3,000, or both. Except as otherwise provided in subdivision 4, a person who is convicted of a gross misdemeanor violation of this subdivision while acting as a patron, must, at a minimum, be sentenced as follows:

- (1) to pay a fine of at least $1,500; and
- (2) to serve 20 hours of community work service.

The court may waive the mandatory community work service if it makes specific, written findings that the community work service is not feasible or appropriate under the circumstances of the case.

Sec. 3. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 609.324, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 4. [COMMUNITY SERVICE IN LIEU OF MINIMUM FINE.] The court may order a person convicted of violating subdivision 2 or 3 to perform community work service in lieu of all or a portion of the minimum fine required under those subdivisions if the court makes specific, written findings that the convicted person is indigent or that payment of the fine would create undue hardship for the convicted person or that person's immediate family. Community work service ordered under this subdivision is in addition to any mandatory community work service ordered under subdivision 3."

CONFERENCE COMMITTEE REPORT ON H. F. NO. 1913

A bill for an act relating to commerce; regulating dividends on claims in liquidation proceedings; regulating the lending practices of regulated lenders; specifying the loan fees and charges that may be imposed by regulated lenders; amending Minnesota Statutes 1988, sections 49.24, subdivision 9; 56.131, subdivisions 1, and 2; 56.14; and 325G.22, by adding a subdivision.

April 3, 1990

The Honorable Robert E. Vanasek
Speaker of the House of Representatives

The Honorable Jerome M. Hughes
President of the Senate

We, the undersigned conferees for H. F. No. 1913, report that we have agreed upon the items in dispute and recommend as follows:

That the Senate recede from its amendment and that H. F. No. 1913 be further amended as follows:

Delete everything after the enacting clause and insert:

"Section 1. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 49.24, subdivision 9, is amended to read:

Subd. 9. [DIVIDENDS ON CLAIMS.] At any time after the expiration of the date fixed for the presentation of claims the commissioner may, out of the funds remaining on hand after the payment of expenses and amounts due to depositors, declare one or more dividends, and after the expiration of one year from the first publication of notice to creditors, may declare a final dividend, such dividends to be paid to such persons in such amounts as may be directed by the district court.

If any dividend on any claim shall be less than $1, the commissioner may hold that dividend until it with subsequent dividends amounts to the sum of $1 or more. The commissioner shall pay all dividends so withheld with the final dividend.

Sec. 2. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 56.131, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [INTEREST RATES AND CHARGES.] (a) On any loan in a principal amount not exceeding $35,000 or ten percent of a corporate licensee's contributed capital and appropriated reserves as defined in section 53.015, if greater, a licensee may contract for and receive interest, calculated according to the actuarial method, not exceeding the equivalent of the greater of any of the following:

(1) the total of: (i) 33 percent per year on that part of the unpaid balance of the principal amount not exceeding ~~$350~~ $750; and (ii) 19 percent per year on that part of the unpaid balance of the principal amount exceeding ~~$350~~ $750; or

(2) 21.75 percent per year on the unpaid balance of the principal amount.

(b) On any loan where interest has been calculated according to the method provided for in paragraph (a), clause (1), interest must be contracted for and earned as provided in that provision or at the single annual percentage rate computed to the nearest 1/100 of one percent that would earn the same total interest at maturity of the contract as would be earned by the application of the graduated rates provided in paragraph (a), clause (1), when the debt is paid according to the agreed terms and the calculations are made according to the actuarial method.

(c) Loans may be interest-bearing or precomputed.

(d) To compute time on interest-bearing and precomputed loans, including, but not limited to the calculation of interest, a day is considered 1/30 of a month when calculation is made for a fraction of a calendar month. A year is 12 calendar months. A calendar month is that period from a given date in one month to the same numbered date in the following month, and if there is no same numbered date, to the last day of the following month. When a period of time includes a whole month and a fraction of a month, the fraction of a month is considered to follow the whole month.

In the alternative, for interest-bearing loans, a licensee may charge interest at the rate of 1/365 of the agreed annual rate for each actual day elapsed.

(e) With respect to interest-bearing loans:

(1) Interest must be computed on unpaid principal balances outstanding from time to time, for the time outstanding. Each payment must be applied first to the accumulated interest and the remainder of the payment applied to the unpaid principal balance; provided however, that if the amount of the payment is insufficient to pay the accumulated interest, the unpaid interest continues to accumulate to be paid from the proceeds of subsequent payments and is not added to the principal balance.

(2) Interest must not be payable in advance or compounded. However, if part or all of the consideration for a new loan contract is the unpaid principal balance of a prior loan, then the principal amount payable under the new loan contract may include any unpaid interest which has accrued. The unpaid principal balance of a precomputed loan is the balance due after refund or credit of unearned interest as provided in paragraph (f), clause (3). The resulting loan contract is deemed a new and separate loan transaction for all purposes.

(f) With respect to precomputed loans:

(1) Loans must be repayable in substantially equal and consecutive monthly installments of principal and interest combined, except that the first installment period may be more or less than one month by not more than 15 days, and the first installment payment amount may be larger than the remaining payments by the amount of interest charged for the extra days and must be reduced by the amount of interest for the number of days less than one month to the first installment payment; and monthly installment payment dates may be omitted to accommodate borrowers with seasonal income.

(2) Payments may be applied to the combined total of principal and precomputed interest until the loan is fully paid. Payments must be applied in the order in which they become due.

(3) When any loan contract is paid in full by cash, renewal or refinancing, or a new loan, one month or more before the final installment due date, a licensee shall refund or credit the borrower with the total of the applicable charges for all fully unexpired installment periods, as originally scheduled or as deferred, which follow the day of prepayment; if the prepayment is made other than on a scheduled payment date, the nearest scheduled installment payment date must be used in the computation; provided further, if the prepayment occurs prior to the first installment due date, the licensee may retain 1/30 of the applicable charge for a first installment period of one month for each day from the date of the loan to the date of prepayment, and shall refund or credit the borrower with the balance of the total interest contracted for. If the maturity of the loan is accelerated for any reason and judgment is entered, the licensee shall credit the borrower with the same refund as if prepayment in full had been made on the date the judgment is entered.

(4) If an installment, other than the final installment, is not paid in full within ten days of its scheduled due date, a licensee may contract for and receive a default charge not exceeding five percent of the amount of the installment, but not less than $4.

A default charge under this subdivision may not be collected on an installment paid in full within ten days of its scheduled due date, or deferred installment due date with respect to deferred installments, even though a default or deferral charge on an earlier installment has not been paid in full. A default charge may be collected at the time it accrues or at any time thereafter.

(5) If the parties agree in writing, either in the loan contract or in a subsequent agreement, to a deferment of wholly unpaid installments, a licensee may grant a deferment and may collect a deferment charge as provided in this section. A deferment postpones the scheduled due date of the earliest unpaid installment and all subsequent installments as originally scheduled, or as previously deferred, for a period equal to the deferment period. The deferment period is that period during which no installment is scheduled to be paid by reason of the deferment. The deferment charge for a one-month period may not exceed the applicable charge for the installment period immediately following the due date of the last undeferred payment. A proportionate charge may be made for deferment for periods of more or less than one month. A deferment charge is earned pro rata during the deferment period and is fully earned on the last day of the deferment period. Should a loan be prepaid in full during a deferment period, the licensee shall make or credit to the borrower a refund of the unearned deferment charge in addition to any other refund or credit made for prepayment of the loan in full.

(6) If two or more installments are delinquent one full month or more on any due date, and if the contract so provides, the licensee may reduce the unpaid balance by the refund credit which would be required for prepayment in full on the due date of the most recent maturing installment in default. Thereafter, and in lieu of any other default or deferment charges, the single annual percentage rate permitted by this subdivision may be charged on the unpaid balance until fully paid.

(7) Following the final installment as originally scheduled or deferred, the licensee, for any loan contract which has not previously been converted to interest-bearing under paragraph (f), clause (6), may charge interest on any balance remaining unpaid, including unpaid default or deferment charges, at the single annual percentage rate permitted by this subdivision until fully paid.

(8) With respect to a loan secured by an interest in real estate, and having a maturity of more than 60 months, the original schedule of installment payments must fully amortize the principal and interest on the loan. The original schedule of installment payments for any other loan secured by an interest in real estate must provide for payment amounts that are sufficient to pay all interest scheduled to be due on the loan.

Sec. 3. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 56.131, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [ADDITIONAL CHARGES.] In addition to the charges provided for by this section and section 56.155, no further or other amount whatsoever, shall be directly or indirectly charged, contracted for, or received for the loan made, except actual out of pocket expenses of the licensee to realize on a security after default, and except for the following additional charges which may be included in the principal amount of the loan:

(a) lawful fees and taxes paid to any public officer to record, file, or release security;

(b) with respect to a loan secured by an interest in real estate, the following closing costs, if they are bona fide, reasonable in amount, and not for the purpose of circumvention or evasion of this section; provided the costs do not exceed one percent of the principal amount or $250, whichever is greater:

(1) fees or premiums for title examination, abstract of title, title insurance, surveys, or similar purposes;

(2) fees, if not paid to the licensee, an employee of the licensee, or a person related to the licensee, for preparation of a mortgage, settlement statement, or other documents, fees for notarizing mortgages and other documents, and appraisal fees;

(c) the premium for insurance in lieu of perfecting and releasing a security interest to the extent that the premium does not exceed the fees described in paragraph (a);

(d) discount points and appraisal fees may not be included in the principal amount of a loan secured by an interest in real estate when the loan is a refinancing for the purpose of bringing the refinanced loan current and is made within 24 months of the original date of the refinanced loan. For purposes of this paragraph, a refinancing is not considered to be for the purpose of bringing the refinanced loan current if new funds advanced to the customer, not including closing costs or delinquent installments, exceed $1,000.

Sec. 4. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 56.14, is amended to read:

56.14 [DUTIES OF LICENSEE.]

Every licensee shall:

(1) deliver to the borrower (or if there are two or more borrowers to one of them) at the time any loan is made a statement making the disclosures and furnishing the information required by the federal Truth-in-Lending Act, United States Code, title 15, sections 1601 to 1667e, as amended from time to time, with respect to the contract of loan. A copy of the loan contract may be delivered in lieu of a statement if it discloses the required information;

(2) deliver or mail to the borrower without request, a written receipt within 30 days following payment for each payment by coin or currency made on account of any loan wherein charges are computed and paid on unpaid principal balances for the time actually outstanding, specifying the amount applied to charges and the amount, if any, applied to principal, and stating the unpaid principal balance, if any, of the loan; and wherein precomputed charges have been added to the principal of the loan specifying the amount of the payment applied to principal and charges combined, the amount applied to default or extension charges, if any, and stating the unpaid balance, if any, of the precomputed loan contract. A periodic statement showing a payment received by mail complies with this clause;

(3) permit payment to be made in advance in any amount on any contract of loan at any time, but the licensee may apply the payment first to all charges in full at the agreed rate up to the date of the payment;

(4) upon repayment of the loan in full, mark indelibly every obligation and security, other than a mortgage or security agreement which secures a new loan to the licensee, signed by the borrower with the word "Paid" or "Canceled," and release any mortgage or security agreement which no longer secures a loan to the licensee, restore any pledge, and cancel and return any note, and any assignment given to the licensee which does not secure a new loan to the licensee within 20 days after the repayment;

(5) display prominently in each licensed place of business a full and accurate schedule, to be approved by the commissioner, of the charges to be made and the method of computing the same; furnish a copy of the contract of loan to any person obligated on it or who may become obligated on it at any time upon the request of that person;

(6) show in the loan contract or statement of loan the rate or rates of charge on which the charge in the contract is based, expressed in terms of rate or rates per annum. The rate expression shall be printed in at least 8-point type on the loan statement or copy of the loan contract given to the borrower.

Sec. 5. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 325G.22, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 1a. [ADJUSTMENT OF DOLLAR AMOUNTS.] The dollar amount in subdivision 1 shall change periodically as provided in section 550.37, subdivision 4a.

Sec. 6. [EFFECTIVE DATE.]

Sections 1 to 5 are effective the day following final enactment."

We request adoption of this report and repassage of the bill.

CONFERENCE COMMITTEE REPORT ON H. F. NO. 1952

A bill for an act relating to crimes; permitting individuals to request that the commissioner of public safety hold certain information on the individual as private; increasing penalties for certain acts of harassment; expanding the crime of terroristic threats to include threats made through an intermediary; authorizing courts to issue orders to restrain acts of harassment; amending Minnesota Statutes 1988, sections 171.12, by adding a subdivision; and 609.713, subdivision 1; proposing coding for new law in Minnesota Statutes, chapters 168 and 609.

April 3, 1990

The Honorable Robert E. Vanasek
Speaker of the House of Representatives

The Honorable Jerome M. Hughes
President of the Senate

We, the undersigned conferees for H. F. No. 1952, report that we have agreed upon the items in dispute and recommend as follows:

That the Senate recede from its amendments and that H. F. No. 1952 be further amended as follows:

Delete everything after the enacting clause and insert;

“Section 1. [168.346] [PRIVACY OF RESIDENCE ADDRESS.]

The registered owner of a motor vehicle may request in writing that the owner's residence address be classified as private data on individuals, as defined in section 13.02, subdivision 12. The commissioner shall grant the classification upon receipt of a signed statement by the owner that the classification is required for the safety of the owner or the owner's family, if the statement also provides a valid, existing address where the owner consents to receive service of process. The commissioner shall use the mailing address in place of the residence address in all documents and notices pertaining to the motor vehicle. The residence address and any information provided in the classification request, other than the mailing address, are private data on individuals and may be provided to requesting law enforcement agencies.

Sec. 2. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 171.12, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 7. [PRIVACY OF RESIDENCE ADDRESS.] An applicant for a driver's license or a Minnesota identification card may request that the applicant's residence address be classified as private data on individuals, as defined in section 13.02, subdivision 12. The commissioner shall grant the classification upon receipt of a signed statement by the individual that the classification is required for the safety of the applicant or the applicant's family, if the statement also provides a valid, existing address where the applicant consents to receive service of process. The commissioner shall use the mailing address in place of the residence address in all documents and notices pertaining to the driver's license or identification card. The residence address and any information provided in the classification request, other than the mailing address, are private data on individuals and may be provided to requesting law enforcement agencies.

Sec. 3. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 609.713, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. Whoever threatens, directly or indirectly, to commit any crime of violence with purpose to terrorize another or to cause evacuation of a building, place of assembly or facility of public transportation or otherwise to cause serious public inconvenience, or in a reckless disregard of the risk of causing such terror or inconvenience may be sentenced to imprisonment for not more than five years.

Sec. 4. [609.747] [HARASSMENT; ENHANCED PENALTIES.]

Subdivision 1. [MULTIPLE ACTS OF HARASSMENT.] It is a gross misdemeanor for a person to commit more than one act of harassment in violation of section 609.605, subdivision 1, paragraph (b), clause (7), against the same individual within six consecutive months. As used in this subdivision, "individual" means a natural person.

Subd. 2. [HARASSMENT FOLLOWING ASSAULT OR TERRORISTIC THREAT.] (a) It is a gross misdemeanor for a person who has been convicted of assault or terroristic threat to commit harassment:

(1) against the same victim, within five consecutive years after the conviction; or

(2) against any victim, within two consecutive years after the conviction.

(b) In this subdivision:

(1) "assault" means a violation of section 609.221, 609.222, 609.223, 609.2231, or 609.224;

(2) "harassment" means a violation of section 609.605, subdivision 1, paragraph (b), clause (7); 609.746, subdivision 2; 609.79, subdivision 1, clause (1)(b); or 609.795, subdivision 1, clause (3); and

(3) "terroristic threat" means a violation of section 609.713, subdivision 1 or 3.

Sec. 5. [609.748] [HARASSMENT; RESTRAINING ORDER.]

Subdivision 1. [DEFINITION.] As used in this section, "harassment" means repeated, intrusive, or unwanted acts, words, or gestures that are intended to adversely affect the safety, security, or privacy of another, regardless of the relationship between the actor and the intended target.

Subd. 2. [RESTRAINING ORDER; JURISDICTION.] A person who is a victim of harassment may seek a restraining order from the district court in the manner provided in this section. The parent or guardian of a minor who is a victim of harassment may seek a restraining order from the juvenile court on behalf of the minor.

Subd. 3. [CONTENTS OF PETITION.] A petition for relief must allege facts sufficient to show the following:

(1) the name of the alleged harassment victim;

(2) the name of the respondent; and

(3) that the respondent has engaged in harassment.

The petition shall be accompanied by an affidavit made under oath stating the specific facts and circumstances from which relief is sought. The court shall provide simplified forms and clerical assistance to help with the writing and filing of a petition under this section.

Subd. 4. [TEMPORARY RESTRAINING ORDER.] (a) The court may issue a temporary restraining order ordering the respondent to cease or avoid the harassment of another person or to have no contact with that person if the petitioner files a petition in compliance with subdivision 3 and if the court finds reasonable grounds to believe that the respondent has engaged in harassment.

(b) Notice need not be given to the respondent before the court issues a temporary restraining order under this subdivision. A temporary restraining order may be entered only against the respondent named in the petition.

(c) The temporary restraining order is in effect until a hearing is held on the issuance of a restraining order under subdivision 5. The court shall hold the hearing on the issuance of a restraining order within seven days after the temporary restraining order is issued unless (1) the time period is extended upon written consent of the parties; or (2) the time period is extended by the court for one additional seven-day period upon a showing that the respondent has not been served with a copy of the temporary restraining order despite the exercise of due diligence.

Subd. 5. [RESTRAINING ORDER.] (a) The court may grant a restraining order ordering the respondent to cease or avoid the harassment of another person or to have no contact with that person if all of the following occur:

(1) the petitioner has filed a petition under subdivision 3;

(2) the sheriff has served respondent with a copy of the temporary restraining order obtained under subdivision 4, and with notice of the time and place of the hearing, or service has been made by publication under paragraph (b); and

(3) the court finds at the hearing that there are reasonable grounds to believe that the respondent has engaged in harassment.

A restraining order may be issued only against the respondent named in the petition. Relief granted by the restraining order must be for a fixed period of not more than two years.

(b) The order may be served on the respondent by means of a one-week published notice under section 645.11, if:

(1) the petitioner files an affidavit with the court stating that an attempt at personal service made by a sheriff was unsuccessful because the respondent is avoiding service by concealment or otherwise; and

(2) a copy of the order is mailed to the respondent at the respondent's residence or the respondent is not known to the petitioner.

Service under this paragraph is complete seven days after publication.

Subd. 6. [VIOLATION OF RESTRAINING ORDER.] (a) When a temporary restraining order or a restraining order is granted under this section and the respondent knows of the order, violation of the order is a misdemeanor.

(b) A peace officer shall arrest without a warrant and take into custody a person whom the peace officer has probable cause to believe has violated an order issued under subdivision 4 or 5 if the existence of the order can be verified by the officer.

Subd. 7. [COPY TO LAW ENFORCEMENT AGENCY.] An order granted under this section shall be forwarded by the court administrator within 24 hours to the local law enforcement agency with jurisdiction over the residence of the applicant. Each appropriate law enforcement agency shall make available to other law enforcement officers through a system for verification, information as to the existence and status of any order issued under this section.

Subd. 8. [NOTICE.] An order granted under this section must contain a conspicuous notice to the respondent:

(1) of the specific conduct that will constitute a violation of the order;

(2) that violation of an order is a misdemeanor punishable by imprisonment for up to 90 days or a fine of up to $700 or both; and

(3) that a peace officer must arrest without warrant and take into custody a person if the peace officer has probable cause to believe the person has violated a restraining order.

Sec. 6. [EFFECTIVE DATE.]

Sections 3 to 5 are effective August 1, 1990, and apply to acts committed on or after that date."

Delete the title and insert:

"A bill for an act relating to crimes; permitting individuals to request that the commissioner of public safety hold certain information on the individual as private; increasing penalties for certain acts of harassment; clarifying that terroristic threats include those made indirectly; authorizing courts to issue orders to restrain acts of harassment; amending Minnesota Statutes 1988, sections 171.12, by adding a subdivision; and 609.713, subdivision 1; proposing coding for new law in Minnesota Statutes, chapters 168 and 609."

We request adoption of this report and repassage of the bill.

CONFERENCE COMMITTEE REPORT ON H. F. NO. 1730

A bill for an act relating to commerce; requiring seating furniture in public occupancies to meet flammability and labeling standards; proposing coding for new law in Minnesota Statutes, chapter 299F.

April 3, 1990

The Honorable Robert E. Vanasek
Speaker of the House of Representatives

The Honorable Jerome M. Hughes
President of the Senate

We, the undersigned conferees for H. F. No. 1730, report that we have agreed upon the items in dispute and recommend as follows:

That the Senate recede from its amendment and that H. F. No. 1730 be further amended as follows:

Delete everything after the enacting clause and insert:

“FLAMMABILITY STANDARDS FOR SEATING FURNITURE

Section 1. [299F.840] [CITATION.]

Sections 1 to 9 may be cited as the “furniture fire safety act.”

Sec. 2. [299F.841] [DEFINITIONS.]

Subdivision 1. [SCOPE.] The terms used in sections 1 to 9, have the meanings given them in this section.

Subd. 2. [SELL.] "Sell" includes sell, offer or expose for sale, barter, trade, deliver, give away, rent, consign, lease, or possess with an intent to sell or dispose of in any other commercial manner.

Subd. 3. [SEATING FURNITURE.] "Seating furniture" means movable or stationery furniture, manufactured on or after January 1, 1992, including children's furniture, that is made of or with loose or attached cushions or pillows or is itself stuffed or filled in whole or in part with filling material; is or can be stuffed or filled in whole or in part with any substance or material, hidden or concealed by fabric or other covering, including cushions or pillows belonging to or forming a part of the furniture; together with the structural units, the filling material, and its container and its covering that can be used as a support for the body of a human being or a person's limbs and feet when sitting or resting in an upright or reclining position.

Subd. 4. [FILLING MATERIAL.] "Filling material" includes cotton, wool, kapok, feathers, down, hair, liquid, or other natural or man-made material, substance, or prefabricated form, concealed or not concealed, to be used or that could be used in seating furniture.

Subd. 5. [MANUFACTURER.] "Manufacturer" means a person or the person's employee or agent who makes an article of seating furniture in whole or in part.

Subd. 6. [PUBLIC OCCUPANCIES.] "Public occupancies" means:

- (1) jails, prisons, and penal institutions;
- (2) hospitals, mental health facilities, and similar health care facilities;
- (3) nursing care and convalescent homes;
- (4) child day-care centers;
- (5) public auditoriums and stadiums; and
- (6) public assembly areas of hotels and motels containing more than ten articles of seating furniture.

Sec. 3. [299F.842] [EXEMPT ARTICLES.]

Articles of upholstered furniture, other than juvenile furniture and furniture used for and in facilities designed for the care or treatment of humans, that meet any of the following criteria are exempt from compliance with sections 1 to 9:

- (1) cushions and pads intended solely for outdoor use;

(2) articles that are smooth-surfaced and contain no more than one-half inch of filling material, provided that the article does not have a horizontal surface meeting a vertical surface; and

(3) articles manufactured solely for recreational use or physical fitness purposes, such as weightlifting benches, gymnasium mats or pads, sidehorses, and similar articles.

Sec. 4. [299F.843] [ENFORCEMENT.]

The state fire marshal shall enforce sections 1 to 9 in accordance with the laws of this state.

Sec. 5. [299F.844] [RULES.]

The state fire marshal shall adopt rules necessary for the enforcement of sections 1 to 9 within six months of the effective date of sections 1 to 9. The fire marshal, in adopting rules, shall consider the testing and labeling procedures and requirements set forth in Technical Bulletin 133 of the state of California, "Flammability Testing and Labeling Procedures for Use in Public Occupancies," published in April 1988 by the California Bureau of Home Furnishings and Thermal Insulation and periodically the deletions, revisions, and updates of California Technical Bulletin 133. An amendment to a rule does not apply to seating furniture manufactured before the effective date of the amendment. New seating furniture sold for use in a public occupancy that meets the test criteria under rules adopted by the fire marshal must conform to the labeling requirements specified under the adopted rules.

Sec. 6. [299F.845] [SCOPE.]

Sections 1 to 9 apply to seating furniture manufactured on or after the effective date of sections 1 to 9 that is sold or intended for use in public occupancies in this state regardless of its point of origin. New seating furniture sold or intended for use in public occupancies after the effective date of sections 1 to 9 that fails to conform to the applicable flammability standard and labeling requirement provided under sections 1 to 9, or rule of the state fire marshal adopted under section 5, is prohibited from being sold or used for public occupancies.

Sec. 7. [299F.846] [PERFORMANCE STANDARDS; TESTING.]

The applicable flammability requirements of sections 1 to 9 or rules adopted under section 5 are to be considered as performance standards. Testing under these standards is at the discretion of the manufacturer. However, new seating furniture offered for sale in this state on or after the effective date of sections 1 to 9 must meet applicable flammability requirements as set out by rule adopted under section 5.

Sec. 8. [299F.847] [TEST INSPECTIONS, AUDITS.]

The state fire marshal may inspect or audit the testing of seating furniture as may be considered necessary under rules adopted under section 5.

Sec. 9. [299F.848] [CIVIL ACTION.]

The state fire marshal may institute a civil action or proceeding to enjoin a person from selling seating furniture on or after the effective date of sections 1 to 9, that does not meet the requirements of sections 1 to 8, and that is sold or intended for use in public occupancies.

Sec. 10. [EFFECTIVE DATE.]

This act is effective January 1, 1992."

We request adoption of this report and repassage of the bill.

House Conferees: RICH O'CONNOR, LINDA SCHEID AND TONY L. BENNETT.

Senate Conferees: MARILYN M. LANTRY, SAM G. SOLON AND PHYLLIS W. MCQUAID.

Pugh and Kelly moved to amend S. F. No. 1150, as amended, as follows:

"Sec. 39. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 609.535, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 2b. [SENTENCING.] Upon conviction of the offense of issuing a dishonored check, if sentence is deferred or suspended, the court, as a condition of probation, shall require the defendant to make restitution on all checks issued by the defendant which are unpaid as of the date of conviction and any service charge paid by the payee or holder of the worthless checks in addition to other terms and conditions appropriate for the treatment or rehabilitation of the defendant, and shall require the defendant to pay processing fees pursuant to this section, class fees, or other handling charges.

If the defendant is accepted pursuant to a preprosecution diversion program after an allegation or charge, the program, as a condition of its supervision, shall require the defendant to make restitution on all checks issued by the defendant which are unpaid as of the date of the commencement of the supervision, or which the defendant writes during the period of supervision, and any service charge paid by the payee or holder of the worthless checks in addition to other terms and conditions appropriate for the treatment and rehabilitation of the defendant, and shall require the defendant to pay processing fees assessed under this subdivision and the costs, not exceeding $75, of attending the preprosecution diversion program.

A prosecuting attorney may assess a processing fee against any person who is convicted of violating this section and against any person who does not contest a charge under this section but for whom prosecution is waived by the prosecuting attorney. The processing fee assessed under this section shall not exceed $25 per check.

Sec. 40. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 609.535, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [PROOF OF INTENT.] Any of the following is evidence sufficient to sustain a finding that the person at the time the person issued the check intended it should not be paid:

(1) proof that, at the time of issuance, the issuer did not have an account with the drawee;

(2) proof that, at the time of issuance, the issuer did not have sufficient funds or credit with the drawee to pay in full the check as well as other checks outstanding at the time of issuance and that the issuer failed to pay the check together with reasonable costs within five business days after mailing of notice of nonpayment or dishonor as provided in this subdivision; or

(3) proof that, when presentment was made within a reasonable time, the issuer did not have sufficient funds or credit with the drawee to pay in full the check as well as other checks outstanding at the time of presentment and that the issuer failed to pay the check together with reasonable costs within five business days after mailing of notice of nonpayment or dishonor as provided in this subdivision.

Notice of nonpayment or dishonor that includes a citation to and a description of the penalties in this section shall be sent by the payee or holder of the check to the maker or drawer by certified mail, return receipt requested, or by regular mail, supported by an affidavit of service by mailing, to the address printed of the issuer as shown on the check. Refusal by the maker or drawer of the check to accept certified mail notice or failure to claim certified or regular mail notice is not a defense that notice was not received.

The notice may state that unless the check together with all reasonable costs is paid in full within five business days after mailing of the notice of nonpayment or dishonor, the payee or holder of the check will or may refer the matter to proper authorities for prosecution under this section. Notice may be given by the actual victim or by any agency directed to do so by either the victim or the state. The notice is not coercion under section 609.27.

An affidavit of service by mailing shall be retained by the payee or holder of the check.

Sec. 41. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 609.535, subdivision 5, is amended to read:

Subd. 5. [EXCEPTIONS.] This section does not apply ~~to a post-dated check or to a check given for a past consideration, except a payroll check or a check issued to a fund for employee benefits if an~~ insufficiency of funds results from an adjustment to the person's account by the institution without notice to the person.

Sec. 42. [609.536] [CHECK PROSECUTION DIVERSION.]

Subdivision 1. [DIVERSION PROGRAM.] A prosecuting attorney may create within the office a diversion program for persons who write worthless checks. For purposes of this section, "writing a worthless check" means making, drawing, uttering, or delivering any check or draft upon any bank or depository for the payment of money when there is probable cause to believe there is a violation of section 609.535. The program may be conducted by the prosecuting attorney or by a private entity under contract with the prosecuting attorney. If the program is conducted by a private entity, no prosecutorial discretion shall vest in that entity.

Subd. 2. [REFERRAL.] The prosecuting attorney may refer a worthless check case to the diversion program. Except as provided in subdivision 5, this section does not limit the power of the prosecuting attorney to prosecute worthless check complaints.

Subd. 3. [REFERRAL FACTORS.] The prosecuting attorney shall determine whether a bad check case is one that is appropriate to be referred to the worthless check diversion program. In determining whether to refer a case, the prosecuting attorney shall consider all of the following and any other appropriate matters:

- (1) the amount of the bad check;
- (2) if the person has a prior criminal record or has previously been diverted;
- (3) the number of worthless check complaints against the person previously received by the prosecuting attorney;
- (4) whether there are other worthless check complaints currently pending against the person; and
- (5) the strength of the evidence, if any, of intent to defraud the victim.

Subd. 4. [NOTIFICATION OF REFERRAL.] On referral of a case to the diversion program, a notice shall be forwarded by mail to the person alleged to have written the worthless check which contains all of the following:

- (1) the date and amount of the worthless check;
- (2) the name of the payee;
- (3) the date before which the person must contact the office of the prosecuting attorney or an entity designated by the prosecuting attorney concerning the check;
- (4) a statement of the penalty for issuing a dishonored check;
- (5) a statement advising the accused of the right to counsel, the right to a hearing, and to all the other rights of a defendant in a criminal trial; and
- (6) a statement of how the person can enter an agreement to forego prosecution.

Subd. 5. [AGREEMENT TO FOREGO PROSECUTION.] The prosecuting attorney may enter a written agreement with the person to forego prosecution on the worthless check for a period to be determined by the prosecuting attorney, not to exceed six months, pending notification that all of the following terms have been completed:

(1) a rehabilitation class or classes conducted by the prosecuting attorney or private entity under contract with the prosecuting attorney;

(2) restitution to the victim of the bad check; and

(3) payment of the collection fee specified in subdivision 6.

The written agreement shall be kept by the prosecuting attorney for no less than three years.

Subd. 6. [WORTHLESS CHECK FEE.] A prosecuting attorney may collect a fee if the prosecuting attorney's office collects and processes a worthless check. The amount of the fee shall not exceed $25 for each worthless check.

Fees collected under this section shall be deposited in the local government unit treasury in a special fund to be administered by the prosecuting attorney. The money in the fund shall be used only for expenditures associated with the performance of the prosecuting attorney's duties.

If a nonstate agency or entity is used by the prosecuting attorney to run the worthless check prosecution diversion program, the nonstate agency or entity may be funded by costs assessed to the check writers enrolled in the program. Program costs assessed to a check writer shall not exceed $75.

Subd. 7. [COERCION EXCEPTION.] Action under this section is not coercion under section 609.27."

"Sec. 4. [STUDY DIRECTED.]

The chairs of the committees on transportation of the senate and the house of representatives shall appoint a joint subcommittee on motor carrier regulation. The joint subcommittee must consist of an equal number of members of each committee. The joint subcommittee shall oversee those activities of the transportation regulation board which relate to a study by the board, or by a board task force or advisory committee, of current and proposed law and rules on regulated motor carriers. The chair and other members of the transportation regulation board, and the members of any task force or advisory committee of the board, shall cooperate and consult with the joint subcommittee throughout the study. The chair and any person selected by the chair as a facilitator for any of the board's task forces, must report to the joint subcommittee at least once every 60 days until February 1, 1991. The joint subcommittee must report to the chairs of each committee not later than January 1, 1991, on the results of its activities and any recommendations of the joint subcommittee for changes in motor carrier laws.

Sviggum moved to amend S. F. No. 488, the unofficial engrossment, as amended, as follows:

“Section 1. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 275.125, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 6j. [PAY EQUITY IMPLEMENTATION LEVY.] Each year a school district may levy an amount not to exceed two percent of the total annual salary of all school district employees necessary to increase compensation of female-dominated job classes in order to comply with sections 471.991 to 471.9981.

Sec. 2. Minnesota Statutes Second 1989 Supplement, section 275.50, subdivision 5, is amended to read:

Subd. 5. Notwithstanding any other law to the contrary for taxes levied in 1989 payable in 1990 and subsequent years, “special levies” means those portions of ad valorem taxes levied by governmental subdivisions to:

(a) for taxes levied in 1990, payable in 1991 and subsequent years, pay the costs not reimbursed by the state or federal government, of payments made to or on behalf of recipients of aid under any public assistance program authorized by law, and the costs of purchase or delivery of social services. The aggregate amounts levied under this clause for the costs of purchase or delivery of social services and income maintenance programs, other than those identified in section 273.1398, subdivision 1, paragraph (i), are subject to a maximum increase over the amount levied for the previous year of 12 percent for counties within the metropolitan area as defined in section 473.121, subdivision 2, or counties outside the metropolitan area but containing a city of the first class, and 15 percent for other counties. For purposes of this clause, "income maintenance programs" include income maintenance programs in section 273.1398, subdivision 1, paragraph (i), to the extent the county provides benefits under those programs over the statutory mandated standards. Effective with taxes levied in 1990, the portion of this special levy for human service programs identified in section 273.1398, subdivision 1, paragraph (i), is eliminated;

(b) pay the costs of principal and interest on bonded indebtedness except on bonded indebtedness issued under section 471.981, subdivisions 4 to 4c, or to reimburse for the amount of liquor store revenues used to pay the principal and interest due in the year preceding the year for which the levy limit is calculated on municipal liquor store bonds;

(c) pay the costs of principal and interest on certificates of indebtedness, except tax anticipation or aid anticipation certificates of indebtedness, issued for any corporate purpose except current expenses or funding an insufficiency in receipts from taxes or other sources or funding extraordinary expenditures resulting from a public emergency; and to pay the cost for certificates of indebtedness issued pursuant to sections 298.28 and 298.282;

(d) fund the payments made to the Minnesota state armory building commission pursuant to section 193.145, subdivision 2, to retire the principal and interest on armory construction bonds;

(e) provide for the bonded indebtedness portion of payments made to another political subdivision of the state of Minnesota;

(f) pay the amounts required, in accordance with section 275.075, to correct for a county auditor's error of omission but only to the extent that when added to the preceding year's levy it is not in excess of an applicable statutory, special law or charter limitation, or the limitation imposed on the governmental subdivision by sections 275.50 to 275.56 in the preceding levy year;

(g) pay amounts required to correct for an error of omission in the levy certified to the appropriate county auditor or auditors by the governing body of a city or town with statutory city powers in a levy year, but only to the extent that when added to the preceding year's levy it is not in excess of an applicable statutory, special law or charter limitation, or the limitation imposed on the governmental subdivision by sections 275.50 to 275.56 in the preceding levy year;

(h) pay amounts required by law to be paid to pay the interest on and to reduce the unfunded accrued liability of public pension funds in accordance with the actuarial standards and guidelines specified in sections 356.215 and 356.216 reduced by 106 percent of the amount levied for that purpose in 1976, payable in 1977. For the purpose of this special levy, the estimated receipts expected from the state of Minnesota pursuant to sections 69.011 to 69.031 or any other state aid expressly intended for the support of public pension funds shall be considered as a deduction in determining the required levy for the normal costs of the public pension funds. No amount of these aids shall be considered as a deduction in determining the governmental subdivision's required levy for the reduction of the unfunded accrued liability of public pension funds;

(i) to compensate the state for the cost of a reassessment ordered by the commissioner of revenue pursuant to section 270.16;

(j) pay the debt service on tax increment financing revenue bonds to the extent that revenue to pay the bonds or to maintain reserves for the bonds is insufficient as a result of the provisions of Laws 1988, chapter 719, article 5;

(k) pay the cost of hospital care under section 261.21;

(l) pay the unreimbursed costs incurred in the previous year to satisfy judgments rendered against the governmental subdivision by a court of competent jurisdiction in any tort action, or to pay the costs of settlements out of court against the governmental subdivision in a tort action when substantiated by a stipulation for the dismissal of the action filed with the court of competent jurisdiction and signed by both the plaintiff and the legal representative of the governmental subdivision, provided that an appeal for the unreimbursed costs under this clause was approved by the commissioner of revenue under section 275.51, subdivision 3;

(m) pay the expenses reasonably and necessarily incurred in preparing for or repairing the effects of natural disaster including the occurrence or threat of widespread or severe damage, injury, or loss of life or property resulting from natural causes such as earthquake, fire, flood, wind storm, wave action, oil spill, water contamination, air contamination, or drought in accordance with standards formulated by the emergency services division of the state department of public safety, provided that an appeal for the expenses incurred under this clause were approved by the commissioner of revenue under section 275.51, subdivision 3;

(n) pay a portion of the losses in tax receipts to a city due to tax abatements or court actions in the year preceding the current levy year, provided that an appeal for the tax losses was approved by the commissioner of revenue under section 275.51, subdivision 3. This special levy is limited to the amount of the losses times the ratio of the nonspecial levies to total levies for taxes payable in the year the abatements were granted. County governments are not authorized to claim this special levy;

(o) pay the operating cost of regional library services authorized under section 134.34, subject to a maximum increase over the previous year of the greater of (1) 103 percent multiplied by one plus the percentage increase determined for the governmental subdivision under section 275.51, subdivision 3h, clause (b), or (2) six percent. If a governmental subdivision elected to include some or all of its levy for libraries within its adjusted levy limit base in the prior year, but elects to claim the levy as a special levy in the current levy year, the allowable increase is determined by applying the greater percentage determined under clause (1) or (2) to the total amount levied for libraries in the prior levy year. After levy year 1989, the increase must not be determined using a base amount other than the amount that could have been levied as a special levy in the prior year. In no event shall the special levy be less than the minimum levy required under sections 134.33 and 134.34, subdivisions 1 and 2;

(p) pay the amount of the county building fund levy permitted under section 373.40, subdivision 6;

(q) pay the county's share of the costs levied in 1989, 1990, and 1991 for the Minnesota cooperative soil survey under Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 40.07, subdivision 15;

(r) for taxes levied in 1989, payable in 1990 only, pay the cost incurred for the minimum share required by counties levying for the first time under section 134.34 as required under section 134.341. For taxes levied in 1990, and thereafter, counties levying under this provision must levy under clause (o), and their allowable increase must be determined with reference to the amount levied in 1989 under this paragraph;

(s) for taxes levied in 1989, payable in 1990 only, provide an amount equal to 50 percent of the estimated amount of the reduction in aids to a county under sections 273.1398, subdivision 2, paragraph (d), and 477A.012, subdivision 3, for aids payable in 1990;

(t) for taxes levied in 1990 only by a county in the eighth judicial district, provide an amount equal to the amount of the levy, if any, that is required under Laws 1989, chapter 335, article 3, section 54, subdivision 8;

(u) for taxes levied in 1989, payable in 1990 only, pay the costs not reimbursed by the state or federal government:

(i) for the costs of purchase or delivery of social services. The aggregate amounts levied under this item are subject to a maximum increase over the amount levied in the previous year of 12 percent for counties within the metropolitan area as defined in section 473.121, subdivision 2, or counties outside the metropolitan area but containing a city of the first class, and 15 percent for other counties.

(ii) for payments made to or on behalf of recipients of aid under any public assistance program authorized by law. The aggregate amounts levied under this item are subject to a maximum increase over the amount levied in the previous year of 12 percent and must be used only for the public assistance programs; and

(v) pay an amount of up to 25 percent of the money sought for distribution and approved under section 115A.557, subdivision 3, paragraph (b), clause (3).

If the amount levied in 1989 is less than the actual expenditures needed for these programs for 1990, the difference between the actual expenditures and the amount levied may be levied in 1990 as a special levy. If the amount levied in 1989 is greater than the actual expenditures needed for these programs for 1990, the difference between the amount levied and the actual expenditures shall be deducted from the 1990 levy limit, payable in 1991.

(w) pay the costs incurred by political subdivisions on or after January 1, 1990, in an annual amount not to exceed two percent of the total annual salary of all employees of the political subdivision, in increasing compensation of female-dominated job classes, as defined in section 471.991, in order to comply with sections 471.991 to 471.999."

S. F. No. 2108 was reported to the House.

Jacobs moved to amend S. F. No. 2108, as follows:

Delete everything after the enacting clause and insert:

“Section 1. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 340A.101, subdivision 10, is amended to read:

Subd. 10. [EXCLUSIVE LIQUOR STORE.] “Exclusive liquor store” is an establishment used exclusively for the sale of intoxicating liquor except for the incidental sale of ice, tobacco, nonintoxicating malt liquor, beverages for mixing with intoxicating liquor, soft drinks, liqueur-filled candies, cork extraction devices, and books and videos on the use of alcoholic beverages in the preparation of food, and the establishment may offer recorded or live entertainment. “Exclusive liquor store” also includes an on-sale or combination on-sale and off-sale intoxicating liquor establishment which sells food for on-premise consumption when authorized by the municipality issuing the license.

Sec. 2. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 340A.308, is amended to read:

340A.308 [PROHIBITED TRANSACTIONS.]

(a) No brewer or malt liquor wholesaler may directly or indirectly, or through an affiliate or subsidiary company, or through an officer, director, stockholder, or partner:

- (1) give, or lend money, credit, or other thing of value to a retailer;
- (2) give, lend, lease, or sell furnishing or equipment to a retailer;
- (3) have an interest in a retail license; or
- (4) be bound for the repayment of a loan to a retailer.

(b) This section does not prohibit a manufacturer or wholesaler from:

- (1) furnishing, lending, or renting to a retailer outside signs, of a cost of up to $400 excluding installation and repair costs;
- (2) furnishing, lending, or renting to a retailer inside signs and other promotional material, of a cost of up to $300 in a year;
- (3) furnishing to or maintaining for a retailer equipment for dispensing malt liquor, including tap trailers, cold plates and other dispensing equipment, of a cost of up to $100 per tap in a year;
- (4) using or renting property owned continually since November 1,

1933, for the purpose of selling intoxicating or nonintoxicating malt liquor at retail; or

(5) extending customary commercial credit to a retailer in connection with a sale of nonalcoholic beverages only, or engaging in cooperative advertising agreements with a retailer in connection with the sale of nonalcoholic beverages only.

(c) The limitations on the cost of outside signs and inside signs and other promotional materials do not apply in the case of an indoor arena with a seating capacity of at least 14,000.

Sec. 3. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 340A.404, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [SPECIAL PROVISION; CITY OF MINNEAPOLIS.] (a) The city of Minneapolis may issue an on-sale intoxicating liquor license to the Guthrie Theatre, the Cricket Theatre, the Orpheum Theatre, and the State Theatre, notwithstanding the limitations of law, or local ordinance, or charter provision relating to zoning or school or church distances. The licenses authorize sales on all days of the week to holders of tickets for performances presented by the theatres and to members of the nonprofit corporations holding the licenses and to their guests.

(b) The city of Minneapolis may issue an intoxicating liquor license to 510 Groveland Associates, a Minnesota cooperative, for use by a restaurant on the premises owned by 510 Groveland Associates, notwithstanding limitations of law, or local ordinance, or charter provision.

(c) Notwithstanding any other law, local ordinance, or charter provision, the city of Minneapolis may issue one or more on-sale intoxicating liquor licenses to the owner of the sports arena located at 600 First Avenue North in the city of Minneapolis or an entity holding a concessions contract with the owner for use on the premises of that sports arena. The license authorizes sales on all days of the week to holders of tickets for sporting events or other events at the sports arena, and to the owner of the sports arena and the owner's guests. The licensee may not dispense intoxicating liquor to any person attending or participating in an amateur athletic event held on the premises.

Sec. 4. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 340A.404, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [NOTICE TO THE COMMISSIONER.] A city shall within ten days of the issuance of a license under subdivision 1 or 5, inform the commissioner of the licensee's name and address and trade name, and the effective date and expiration date of the license.

The city shall also inform the commissioner of a license transfer, cancellation, suspension, or revocation during the license period.

Sec. 5. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 340A.404, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 11. [REMOVAL OF WINE FROM RESTAURANT.] A restaurant licensed to sell intoxicating liquor or wine at on-sale under this section may permit a person purchasing a full bottle of wine in conjunction with the purchase of a meal to remove the bottle on leaving the licensed premises, provided that the bottle has been opened and the contents partially consumed. A removal of a bottle under the conditions described in this subdivision is not an off-sale of intoxicating liquor and may be permitted without additional license.

Sec. 6. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 340A.405, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [COUNTIES.] (a) A county may issue an off-sale intoxicating license with the approval of the commissioner to exclusive liquor stores located within unorganized territory of the county.

(b) A county board of any county except Ramsey county containing a town exercising powers under section 368.01, subdivision 1, may issue an off-sale license to an exclusive liquor store within that town with the approval of the commissioner. No license may be issued under this paragraph unless the town board adopts a resolution supporting the issuance of the license.

(c) A county board of any county except Ramsey county containing a town that may not exercise powers under section 368.01, subdivision 1, may issue a combination off-sale and on-sale license to restaurants within that town with the approval of the commissioner pursuant to section 340A.404, subdivision 6. No license may be issued under this paragraph unless the town board adopts a resolution supporting the issuance of the license.

(d) No license may be issued under this subdivision unless a public hearing is held on the issuance of the license. Notice must be given to all interested parties and to any city located within three miles of the premises proposed to be licensed. At the hearing the county board shall consider testimony and exhibits presented by interested parties and may base its decision to issue or deny a license upon the nature of the business to be conducted and its impact upon any municipality, the character and reputation of the applicant, and the propriety of the location. Any hearing held under this paragraph is not subject to chapter 14.

(e) A county board may not issue a license under this subdivision to a person for an establishment located less than three miles by the most direct route from the boundary of any statutory or home rule city except cities of the first class or within Pine, Carlton, Carver, or Red Lake county within three miles of a statutory or home rule city with a municipal liquor store.

(f) (e) The town board may impose an additional license fee in an amount not to exceed 20 percent of the county license fee.

(g) (f) Notwithstanding any provision of this subdivision or Laws 1973, chapter 566, as amended by Laws 1974, chapter 200, a county board may transfer or renew a license that was issued by a town board under Minnesota Statutes 1984, section 340.11, subdivision 10b, prior to January 1, 1985.

Sec. 7. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 340A.504, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [NONINTOXICATING MALT LIQUOR.] No sale of nonintoxicating malt liquor may be made between 1:00 a.m. and 8:00 a.m. on the days of Monday through Saturday, nor between 1:00 a.m. and 12:00 noon on Sunday, provided that an establishment located on land owned by the metropolitan sports commission, or the sports arena for which one or more licenses have been issued under section 340A.404, subdivision 2, paragraph (c), may sell nonintoxicating malt liquor between 10:00 a.m. and 12:00 noon on a Sunday on which a sports or other event is scheduled to begin at that location on or before 1:00 p.m. of that day.

Sec. 8. [CITY OF ST. PAUL; WINE AND BEER LICENSES.]

Subdivision 1. [LICENSE AUTHORIZED.] The city of St. Paul may issue on-sale nonintoxicating malt liquor licenses and on-sale wine licenses to the city's division of parks and recreation. The licenses authorize the sale of wine or nonintoxicating malt liquor on property owned by the city and under the jurisdiction of the division, by:

(1) employees of the city;

(2) persons holding a permit from the division to conduct an event and sell wine or nonintoxicating malt liquor to persons attending the event; or

(3) persons who have contracted with the city to sell wine or nonintoxicating malt liquor on such property.

Subd. 2. [PERMITS, CONTRACTS.] (a) Permits issued by the city under subdivision 1, clause (2), and contracts entered into by the city under subdivision 1, clause (3), must provide for:

(1) the duration of the permit or contract;

(2) the premises or area in which sales of wine or nonintoxicating malt liquor will be made;

(3) the persons to whom such sales will be made;

(4) the days and hours in which such sales will be made; and

(5) obtaining by the permit holder or contracted vendor of such liquor liability insurance or bond, or both, as the city considers necessary to protect the city's interest as the holder of the license.

(b) A permit may be issued or a contract entered into under this section with a person who does not hold a license issued under Minnesota Statutes, chapter 340A, for the retail sale of alcoholic beverages.

(c) The division may, without notice or hearing, refuse to issue a permit under subdivision 1, clause (2).

Subd. 3. [CITY COUNCIL APPROVAL.] The St. Paul city council must approve each:

(1) facility at which wine or nonintoxicating malt liquor will be sold by city employees;

(2) permit issued under subdivision 1, clause (2); and

(3) contract entered into under subdivision 1, clause (3).

Subd. 4. [APPLICABILITY OF GENERAL LAW.] All provisions of Minnesota Statutes, chapter 340A, not inconsistent with this section apply to licenses issued under this section. Licenses authorized by this section are in addition to any other licenses authorized by law.

Sec. 9. [EARLE BROWN HERITAGE CENTER LICENSE.]

In addition to any license authorized by law, the city of Brooklyn Center may issue one on-sale intoxicating liquor license for the Earle Brown Heritage Center convention center. The license shall authorize the sale and serving of liquor to persons attending events at the center, other than amateur athletic events. The license fee and hours of sale shall be set by the city council within the limits imposed by law. All provisions of Minnesota Statutes, chapter 340A, not inconsistent with this section apply to this license.

Sec. 10. [DULUTH LICENSE.]

Notwithstanding any law to the contrary, the city of Duluth may issue an on-sale intoxicating liquor license to a restaurant located at 109 North Second Avenue West in the city of Duluth. The license authorized by this section is in addition to any other licenses authorized by law. All provisions of Minnesota Statutes, chapter 340A, not inconsistent with this section apply to the license authorized by this section.

Sec. 11. [REPEALER.]

Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 340A.601, subdivision 2, is repealed.

Sec. 12. [EFFECTIVE DATE.]

Section 3 is effective on approval by the Minneapolis city council and compliance with Minnesota Statutes, section 645.021. Section 4 is effective the day following final enactment. Section 8 is effective on approval by the St. Paul city council and compliance with section 645.021. Section 9 is effective on approval by the Brooklyn Center city council and compliance with section 645.021. Section 10 is effective on approval by the Duluth city council and compliance with section 645.021."

Delete the title and insert:

"A bill for an act relating to liquor; authorizing liquor stores to sell candy liqueurs; exempting certain signs from cost limits; authorizing removal of partially consumed wine bottles from licensed premises; authorizing additional licenses in the cities of Minneapolis, Brooklyn Center, and Duluth; authorizing the issuance of wine and nonintoxicating malt liquor licenses by the city of St. Paul to its parks and recreation division; repealing prohibitions against county off-sale and combination licenses within three miles of incorporated areas; providing for the reporting of wine licenses to the commissioner of public safety; eliminating the requirement for a vote on municipal liquor store continuance upon population change; amending Minnesota Statutes 1988, sections 340A.101, subdivision 10; 340A.308; 340A.404, subdivision 3, and by adding a subdivision; 340A.405, subdivision 2; 340A.504, subdivision 1; Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 340A.404, subdivision 2; repealing Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 340A.601, subdivision 2."

The motion prevailed and the amendment was adopted.

Jacobs moved to amend S. F. No. 2108, as amended, as follows:

Page 1, after line 23, insert a section to read:

"Section 1. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 31.121, is amended to read:

31.121 [FOOD ADULTERATION.]

A food shall be deemed to be adulterated:

(a) If it bears or contains any poisonous or deleterious substance which may render it injurious to health; but in case the substance is not an added substance such food shall not be considered adulterated under this clause if the quantity of such substance in such food does not ordinarily render it injurious to health; or

(b) If it bears or contains any added poisonous or added deleterious substance, other than one which is a pesticide chemical in or on a raw agricultural commodity; a food additive; or a color additive, which is unsafe within the meaning of section 31.122; or

(c) If it is a raw agricultural commodity and it bears or contains a pesticide chemical which is unsafe within the meaning of section 31.122; or

(d) If it is or it bears or contains any food additive which is unsafe within the meaning of section 31.122; provided that where a pesticide chemical has been used in or on a raw agricultural commodity in conformity with an exemption granted or tolerance prescribed under section 31.122, and such raw agricultural commodity has been subjected to processing such as canning, cooking, freezing, dehydrating, or milling, the residue of such pesticide chemical remaining in or on such processed food shall, notwithstanding the provisions of section 31.122 and this clause, not be deemed unsafe if such residue in or on the raw agricultural commodity has been removed to the extent possible in good manufacturing practice, and the concentration of such residue in the processed food when ready to eat is not greater than the tolerance prescribed for the raw agricultural commodity; or

(e) If it consists in whole or in part of a diseased, contaminated, filthy, putrid, or decomposed substance, or if it is otherwise unfit for food; or

(f) If it has been produced, prepared, packed, or held under insanitary conditions whereby it may have become contaminated with filth, or whereby it may have been rendered diseased, unwholesome, or injurious to health; or

(g) If it is in whole or in part the product of a diseased animal or of an animal which has died otherwise than by slaughter, or of an animal that has been fed upon the uncooked offal from a slaughterhouse; or

(h) If its container is composed in whole or in part of any poisonous or deleterious substance which may render the contents injurious to health; or

(i) If it has been intentionally subjected to radiation, unless the use of the radiation was in conformity with a rule or exemption in effect pursuant to section 31.122 or section 409 of the federal act; or

(j) If any valuable constituent has been in whole or in part omitted or abstracted therefrom; or

(k) If any substance has been substituted wholly or in part therefor; or

(l) If damage or inferiority has been concealed in any manner; or

(m) If any substance has been added thereto or mixed or packed therewith so as to increase its bulk or weight, or reduce its quality or strength or make it appear better or of greater value than it is; or

(n) If it is confectionery, and (1) has partially or completely imbedded therein any nonnutritive object; provided, that this clause shall not apply in the case of any nonnutritive object if in the judgment of the commissioner, as provided by rules, such object is of practical functional value to the confectionery product and would not render the product injurious or hazardous to health; or (2) bears or contains any alcohol, other than alcohol not in excess of one half of one percent by volume derived solely from the use of flavoring extracts; or (3) bears or contains any nonnutritive substance; provided, that this clause shall not apply to a safe nonnutritive substance which is in or on confectionery by reason of its use for some practical functional purpose in the manufacture, packaging, or storing of such confectionery if the use of the substance does not promote deception of the consumer or otherwise result in adulteration or misbranding in violation of any provision of the Minnesota food law; and provided further, that the commissioner may, for the purpose of avoiding or resolving uncertainty as to the application of this clause, issue rules allowing or prohibiting the use of particular nonnutritive substances; or

(o) If it is or bears or contains any color additive which is unsafe within the meaning of section 31.122; or

(p) If it is oleomargarine or margarine or butter and any of the raw material used therein consisted in whole or in part of any filthy, putrid, or decomposed substance, or such oleomargarine or margarine or butter is otherwise unfit for food."

"Sec. 3. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 340A.301, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [LICENSES REQUIRED.] No person may directly or indirectly manufacture or sell at wholesale intoxicating liquor, or nonintoxicating malt liquor without obtaining an appropriate license from the commissioner, except where otherwise provided in this chapter. A manufacturer's license includes the right to import. A licensed brewer of malt liquor may sell products at wholesale without an additional license. A licensed brewer may sell the brewer's products at wholesale only if the brewer has been issued a wholesaler's license. The commissioner shall issue a wholesaler's license to a brewer only if the commissioner determines that the brewer was selling the brewer's own products at wholesale in Minnesota on January 1, 1991. A licensed wholesaler of intoxicating malt liquor may sell nonintoxicating malt liquor at wholesale without an additional license. The business of manufacturer and wholesaler may be combined and carried on under a single manufacturer's license.

Sec. 4. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 340A.301, subdivision 7, is amended to read:

Subd. 7. [INTEREST IN OTHER BUSINESS.] (a) Except as provided in this subdivision, a holder of a license as a manufacturer, brewer, or wholesaler may not have any ownership, in whole or in part, in a business holding a retail intoxicating liquor or nonintoxicating malt liquor license, but a manufacturer or wholesaler of intoxicating liquor may use or have property rented for retail intoxicating liquor sales if the manufacturer or wholesaler has owned the property continuously since November 1, 1933.

(b) A licensed brewer of malt liquor described in subdivision 6, clause (d) may be issued an on-sale intoxicating liquor or nonintoxicating malt liquor license by a municipality for a restaurant operated in or immediately adjacent to the place of manufacture.

(c) A licensed brewer may not have any ownership, in whole or in part, directly or indirectly, in a business holding a wholesale license for the sale of malt liquor.

(d) Notwithstanding paragraph (c), a licensed brewer which was selling the brewer's own products at wholesale in Minnesota on January 1, 1991, may continue to sell those products in the area of distribution existing on January 1, 1991."

O'Connor, Pappas, Dempsey, Knickerbocker, Omann, Begich, Vellenga, Hausman and Trimble moved to amend S. F. No. 2108, as amended, as follows:

"Sec. 14. [SALE OF MINNESOTA BEER AT PUBLIC FACILITIES.]

Subdivision 1. [MINNESOTA-PRODUCED BEER; REQUIRED AVAILABILITY.] At any permanent or temporary building or structure owned or operated by the state, a political subdivision, or an instrumentality thereof, where beer is sold for on-premise consumption, the entity owning or operating the building or structure must insure that a Minnesota-produced beer is available for purchase at each station where beer is sold. This section applies to all such permanent or temporary buildings or structures without regard to whether sales of beer are made by the owning or operating government entity or employees thereof or by a person holding a lease or concession contract with the government entity.

Subd. 2. [EXCEPTIONS.] This section does not apply to:

(1) municipal liquor stores; or

(2) persons holding an event on property owned by a government entity where (a) the event is conducted under a temporary permit from that government entity, and (b) alcoholic beverages are provided to persons attending the event, at no cost to those persons."

SECOND READING OF SENATE BILLS

S. F. Nos. 824, 1798, 2158, 2346, 2483, 2619 and 2173 were read for the second time.

SUSPENSION OF RULES

Pursuant to Article IV, Section 19, of the Constitution of the state of Minnesota, Munger moved that the rule therein be suspended and an urgency be declared so that S. F. No. 2173 be given its third reading and be placed upon its final passage. The motion prevailed.

Munger moved that the Rules of the House be so far suspended that S. F. No. 2173 be given its third reading and be placed upon its final passage. The motion prevailed.

Munger moved to amend S. F. No. 2173, as follows:

Delete everything after the enacting clause and insert:

"MINNESOTA TOXIC POLLUTION PREVENTION ACT

Section 1. [115D.01] [CITATION.]

Sections 1 to 11 may be cited as the "Minnesota toxic pollution prevention act."

Sec. 2. [115D.02] [POLICY.]

(a) To protect the public health, welfare, and the environment, the legislature declares that it is the policy of the state to encourage toxic pollution prevention. The preferred means of preventing toxic pollution are techniques and processes that are implemented at the source and that minimize the transfer of toxic pollutants from one environmental medium to another.

(b) The legislature intends that the programs developed under this act shall encourage and lead to a greater awareness of the need for and benefits of toxic pollution prevention, and to a greater degree of cooperation and coordination among all elements of government, industry, and the public in encouraging and carrying out pollution prevention activities.

Sec. 3. [115D.03] [DEFINITIONS.]

Subdivision 1. [APPLICABILITY.] The definitions in this section apply to this chapter.

Subd. 2. [COMMISSION.] "Commission" means the emergency response commission under section 299K.03.

Subd. 3. [COMMISSIONER.] "Commissioner" means the commissioner of the pollution control agency.

Subd. 4. [DIRECTOR.] "Director" means the director of the office of waste management.

Subd. 5. [ELIGIBLE RECIPIENTS.] "Eligible recipients" means persons who use, generate, or release toxic pollutants, hazardous substances, and hazardous wastes.

Subd. 6. [FACILITY.] "Facility" means all buildings, equipment, structures, and other stationary items that are located on a single site or on contiguous or adjacent sites and that are owned or operated by the same person, or by any person who controls, is controlled by, or is under common control with such person.

Subd. 7. [PERSON.] "Person" has the meaning given it in section 115B.02, subdivision 12.

Subd. 8. [POLLUTION PREVENTION OR PREVENT POLLUTION.] "Pollution prevention" or "prevent pollution" means eliminating or reducing at the source the use, generation, or release of toxic pollutants, hazardous substances, and hazardous wastes.

Subd. 9. [REDUCE, REDUCING, OR REDUCTION.] "Reduce," "reducing," or "reduction" means lessening the quantity or toxicity of toxic pollutants, hazardous substances, and hazardous wastes used, generated, or released at the source. Methods of reducing pollution include, but are not limited to, process modification, inventory control measures, feedstock substitutions, various house-keeping and management practices, and improved efficiency of machinery. Decreases in quantity or toxicity are not reductions where the decrease is solely the result of a decrease in the output of the facility.

Subd. 10. [RELEASE.] "Release" has the meaning given it in section 115B.02, subdivision 15.

Subd. 11. [TOXIC POLLUTANT.] "Toxic pollutant" means a chemical identified in United States Code, title 42, section 11023(c).

Sec. 4. [115D.04] [POLLUTION PREVENTION ASSISTANCE PROGRAM.]

Subdivision 1. [ESTABLISHMENT.] The director shall establish a pollution prevention assistance program to assist eligible recipients in preventing pollution. The program must emphasize techniques and processes that minimize the transfer of pollutants from one environmental medium to another and must focus primarily on toxic pollutants.

Subd. 2. [ASSISTANCE.] The pollution prevention assistance program must include at least the following:

(1) a program to assemble, catalog, and disseminate information on pollution prevention;

(2) a program to provide technical research and assistance, including on-site consultations to identify alternative methods that may be applied to prevent pollution and to provide assistance for planning under section 7, excluding design engineering services; and

(3) outreach programs including seminars, workshops, training programs, and other similar activities designed to provide pollution prevention information and assistance to eligible recipients.

Subd. 3. [ADMINISTRATION.] The pollution prevention assistance program must be coordinated with other public and private programs that provide management and technical assistance to eligible recipients. The director may make grants to public or private entities to operate elements of the program. Grantees shall provide periodic reports on their efforts to assist eligible recipients to reduce pollution.

Sec. 5. [115D.05] [POLLUTION PREVENTION GRANTS.]

Subdivision 1. [PURPOSE.] The director may make grants to study or demonstrate the feasibility of applying specific technologies and methods to prevent pollution.

Subd. 2. [ELIGIBILITY.] (a) Eligible recipients may receive grants under this section.

(b) Grants may be awarded up to a maximum of two-thirds of the total cost of the project. Grant money awarded under this section may not be spent for capital improvements or equipment.

Subd. 3. [PROCEDURE FOR AWARDING GRANTS.] (a) In determining whether to award a grant, the director shall consider at least the following:

(1) the potential of the project to prevent pollution;

(2) the likelihood that the project will develop techniques or processes that will minimize the transfer of pollution from one environmental medium to another;

(3) the extent to which information to be developed through the project will be applicable to other persons in the state;

(4) the willingness of the grant applicant to implement feasible methods and technologies developed under the grant;

(5) the willingness of the grant applicant to assist the director in disseminating information about the pollution prevention methods to be developed through the project; and

(6) the extent to which the project will conform to the pollution prevention policy established in section 2.

(b) The director shall adopt rules to administer the grant program. Prior to completion of any new rulemaking, the director may administer the program under the procedures established in rules promulgated under section 115A.154.

Sec. 6. [115D.06] [GOVERNOR'S AWARD FOR EXCELLENCE IN POLLUTION PREVENTION.]

The governor may issue annual awards in the form of a commendation for excellence in pollution prevention. Applications for these awards shall be administered by the director.

Sec. 7. [115D.07] [TOXIC POLLUTION PREVENTION PLANS.]

Subdivision 1. [REQUIREMENT TO PREPARE AND MAINTAIN A PLAN.] (a) Persons who operate a facility required by United States Code, title 42, section 11023, to submit a toxic chemical release form shall prepare a toxic pollution prevention plan for that facility. The plan must contain the information listed in subdivision 2.

(b) Except for facilities that release less than a total of 10,000 pounds of toxic pollutants annually, the plan must be completed as follows:

(1) on or before July 1, 1991, for facilities having a two-digit standard industrial classification of 35 to 39;

(2) by January 1, 1992, for facilities having a two-digit standard industrial classification of 28 to 34; and

(3) by July 1, 1992, for all other persons required to prepare a plan under this subdivision.

Facilities that release less than a total of 10,000 pounds of toxic pollutants annually must complete their plans by July 1, 1992.

(c) Each plan must be updated every two years and must be maintained at the facility to which it pertains.

Subd. 2. [CONTENTS OF PLAN.] Each toxic pollution prevention plan must establish a program identifying the specific technically and economically practicable steps that could be taken during at least the three years following the date the plan is due, to eliminate or reduce the generation or release of toxic pollutants reported by the facility. Toxic pollutants resulting solely from research and development activities need not be included in the plan. At a minimum, each plan must include:

(1) a policy statement articulating upper management support for eliminating or reducing the generation or release of toxic pollutants at the facility;

(2) a description of the current processes generating or releasing toxic pollutants that specifically describes the types, sources, and quantities of toxic pollutants currently being generated or released by the facility;

(3) a description of the current and past practices used to eliminate or reduce the generation or release of toxic pollutants at the facility and an evaluation of the effectiveness of these practices;

(4) an assessment of technically and economically practicable options available to eliminate or reduce the generation or release of toxic pollutants at the facility, including options such as changing the raw materials, operating techniques, equipment and technology, personnel training, and other practices used at the facility. The assessment may include a cost benefit analysis of the available options;

(5) a statement of objectives based on the assessment in clause (4) and a schedule for achieving those objectives. Wherever technically and economically practicable, the objectives for eliminating or reducing the generation or release of each toxic pollutant at the facility must be expressed in numeric terms. Otherwise, the objectives must include a clearly stated list of actions designed to lead to the establishment of numeric objectives as soon as practicable;

(6) an explanation of the rationale for each objective established for the facility;

(7) a listing of options that were considered not to be economically and technically practicable; and

(8) a certification, signed and dated by the facility manager and an officer of the company under penalty of section 609.63, attesting to the accuracy of the information in the plan.

Sec. 8. [115D.08] [PROGRESS REPORTS.]

Subdivision 1. [REQUIREMENT TO SUBMIT PROGRESS REPORT.] All persons required to prepare a toxic pollution prevention plan under section 7 shall submit an annual progress report to the commissioner that may be drafted in a manner that does not disclose proprietary information. Progress reports are due on October 1 of each year. The first progress reports are due in 1992. At a minimum, each progress report must include:

(1) a summary of each objective established in the plan including the schedule for meeting the objective;

(2) a summary of progress made during the past year, if any, toward meeting each objective established in the plan including the quantity of each toxic pollutant eliminated or reduced;

(3) a statement of the methods through which elimination or reduction has been achieved;

(4) if necessary, an explanation of the reasons objectives were not achieved during the previous year, including identification of any technological, economic, or other impediments the facility faced in its efforts to achieve its objectives; and

(5) a certification, signed and dated by the facility manager and an officer of the company under penalty of section 609.63, attesting that a plan meeting the requirements of section 7 has been prepared and also attesting to the accuracy of the information in the progress report.

Subd. 2. [REVIEW OF PROGRESS REPORTS.] (a) The commissioner shall review all progress reports to determine if they meet the requirements of subdivision 1. If the commissioner determines that a progress report does not meet the requirements, the commissioner shall notify the facility in writing and shall identify specific deficiencies and specify a reasonable time period of not less than 90 days for the facility to modify the progress report.

(b) The commissioner shall be given access to a facility plan required under section 7 if the commissioner determines that the progress report for that facility does not meet the requirements of subdivision 1. Twenty-five or more persons living within ten miles of the facility may submit a petition to the commissioner that identifies specific deficiencies in the progress report and requests the commissioner to review the facility plan. Within 30 days after receipt of the petition, the commissioner shall respond in writing. If the commissioner agrees that the progress report does not meet requirements of subdivision 1, the commissioner shall be given access to the facility plan.

(c) After reviewing the plan and the progress report with any modifications submitted, the commissioner shall state in writing whether the progress report meets the requirements of subdivision 1. If the commissioner determines that a modified progress report still does not meet the requirements of subdivision 1, the commissioner shall schedule a public meeting. The meeting shall be held in the county where the facility is located. The meeting is not subject to the requirements of chapter 14.

(d) The facility shall be given the opportunity to amend the progress report within a period of not less than 30 days after the public meeting.

(e) If the commissioner determines that a modified progress report still does not meet the requirements of subdivision 1, action may be taken under section 115.071 to obtain compliance with sections 1 to 11.

Sec. 9. [115D.09] [CONFIDENTIALITY.]

Information and techniques developed under section 4, the reduction information and techniques under section 5, and the progress reports required under section 8 are public data under chapter 13. The plans required under section 7 are nonpublic data under chapter 13.

Sec. 10. [115D.10] [TOXIC POLLUTION PREVENTION EVALUATION REPORT.]

The director, in cooperation with the commissioner and commission, shall report to the environment and natural resources committees of the legislature annually on progress being made in achieving the objectives of sections 1 to 11. The report must be submitted by December 15 of each year, beginning in 1992.

Sec. 11. [115D.12] [POLLUTION PREVENTION ACCOUNT.]

Subdivision 1. [REVENUE SOURCES.] Revenue from the following sources must be deposited in the environmental fund:

- (1) the proceeds of the fees imposed by subdivision 2;
- (2) interest attributable to investment of money generated by the fees in subdivision 2; and
- (3) money received by the director in the form of gifts, grants other than federal grants, and reimbursements.

Subd. 2. [FEES.] The following pollution prevention fees are established:

(a) Persons required by United States Code, title 42, section 11023, to submit a toxic chemical release form to the commission shall pay a pollution prevention fee of $150 for each toxic pollutant reported released and a fee based on the total pounds of toxic pollutants reported released per facility. Facilities reporting less than 25,000 pounds annually of toxic pollutants released per facility shall be assessed a fee of $500. Facilities reporting annual releases of toxic pollutants in excess of 25,000 pounds shall be assessed a graduated fee at the rate of two cents per pound of toxic pollutants reported, not to exceed a total of $30,000 per facility.

(b) Persons who generate more than 1,000 kilograms of hazardous waste per month but who are not subject to the fee under paragraph (a) must pay a pollution prevention fee of $500 per facility. Hazardous waste as used in this paragraph has the meaning given it in section 116.06, subdivision 13, and Minnesota Rules, chapter 7045.

(c) Fees required under this subdivision must be paid to the director by January 1 of each year.

Sec. 12. [REPORTS TO THE LEGISLATURE.]

Subdivision 1. [REPORT ON BARRIERS TO POLLUTION PREVENTION.] By January 1, 1991, the director shall prepare and submit a report to the environment and natural resources committees of the legislature analyzing the barriers to pollution prevention. At a minimum, the director shall report on regulatory, economic, educational, and institutional barriers and shall recommend strategies to overcome these barriers. Further, the report shall describe ways in which government may serve as a role model in pollution prevention.

Subd. 2. [REPORT ON TOXIC POLLUTANTS USE REPORTING.] By January 1, 1993, the director shall prepare and submit a report to the environment and natural resources committees of the legislature evaluating the utility of requiring companies to prepare toxic pollutant use reports and reduction plans. The report shall discuss, among other information, the potential uses of the data and the potential impact of such requirements on pollution prevention efforts. The report also shall discuss the need for a chemical accident prevention program to promote safety initiatives by industry. The report shall contain a recommendation as to whether to require toxic pollutant use reports and reduction plans.

Sec. 13. [APPROPRIATIONS.]

Subdivision 1. [OFFICE OF WASTE MANAGEMENT.] $847,000 is appropriated as follows to the office of waste management for fiscal year 1991:

(a) For pollution prevention assistance eligible recipients	$560,000;
(b) For pollution prevention grants	150,000; and
(c) For reports to the legislature and administration of sections 1 to 11	137,000.

The approved complement of the office is increased by three positions.

Subd. 2. [POLLUTION CONTROL AGENCY.] $45,000 is appropriated from the environmental fund to the pollution control agency for fiscal year 1991, for the purposes specified in sections 1 to 11. The approved complement of the agency is increased by one position.

Subd. 3. [DEPARTMENT OF PUBLIC SAFETY.] $48,000 is appropriated to the department of public safety from the environmental fund for fiscal year 1991, to assure timely and accurate submittal of the toxic chemical release forms. The approved complement of the department of public safety is increased by one position.

Sec. 14. [EFFECTIVE DATE.]

Sections 1 to 12 are effective the day after final enactment."

Pellow moved to amend S. F. No. 2173, as amended, as follows:

"Section 1. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 115B.03, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [OWNER OF REAL PROPERTY.] An owner of real property is not a person responsible for the release or threatened release of a hazardous substance from a facility in or on the property unless that person:

(a) was engaged in the business of generating, transporting, storing, treating, or disposing of a hazardous substance at the facility or disposing of waste at the facility, or knowingly permitted others to engage in such a business at the facility;

(b) knowingly permitted any person to make regular use of the facility for disposal of waste;

(c) knowingly permitted any person to use the facility for disposal of a hazardous substance;

(d) knew or reasonably should have known that a hazardous substance was located in or on the facility at the time right, title, or interest in the property was first acquired by the person and engaged in conduct associating that person with the release; or

(e) took action which significantly contributed to the release after that person knew or reasonably should have known that a hazardous substance was located in or on the facility.

For the purpose of clause (d), a written warranty, representation, or undertaking, which is set forth in an instrument conveying any right, title or interest in the real property and which is executed by the person conveying the right, title or interest, or which is set forth in any memorandum of any such instrument executed for the purpose of recording, is admissible as evidence of whether the person acquiring any right, title, or interest in the real property knew or reasonably should have known that a hazardous substance was located in or on the facility.

Any liability which accrues to an owner of real property under sections 115B.01 to 115B.15 does not accrue to any other person who is not an owner of the real property merely because the other person holds some right, title, or interest in the real property.

An owner of real property on which a public utility easement is located is not a responsible person with respect to any release caused by any act or omission of the public utility which holds the easement in carrying out the specific use for which the easement was granted.

A lender that becomes an owner of real property through mortgage foreclosure or contract for deed termination is not a responsible person with respect to any release occurring before, during, or after the lender's ownership of the real property unless the lender exercised significant control over the management of the property or unless the lender knew or should have known, at the time the lender became the owner of the property, of the presence of any hazardous substance on the property.

Sec. 2. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 115B.17, subdivision 14, is amended to read:

Subd. 14. [REQUESTS FOR REVIEW, INVESTIGATION, AND OVERSIGHT.] (a) The commissioner of the pollution control agency may, upon request, assist a person in determining whether real property has been the site of a release or threatened release of a hazardous substance, pollutant, or contaminant. The commissioner of the pollution control agency may also assist in, or supervise, the development and implementation of reasonable and necessary response actions. Assistance may include review of agency records and files, and review and approval of a requester's investigation plans and reports and response action plans and implementation.

(b) The person requesting assistance under this subdivision shall pay the agency for the agency's cost, as determined by the commissioner of the pollution control agency, of providing assistance. Money received by the agency for assistance under this section must be deposited in the environmental response, compensation, and compliance fund.

(c) A person who tests any real property in the state for the presence of a hazardous waste, hazardous substance, pollutant, or contaminant shall report the results of the test to the commissioner for inclusion in the commissioner's data base for the purpose of this subdivision. Reports may be made for each piece of property tested or may be made periodically for all the pieces of property tested over a period of time and must include a legal description of each property tested and the results of the test or tests. The commissioner may adopt rules to specify the form and content of the reports and the frequency with which reports must be made."

(a) Each facility subject to section 299K.08 shall submit to the commission an annual report for each toxic pollutant, as defined in section 3, subdivision 11, or hazardous substance manufactured, processed, or otherwise used at that facility. The report must include the quantities of the toxic pollutant or hazardous substance that are manufactured, processed, or otherwise used at the facility.

Reporting must be expressed in terms of the mass of each toxic pollutant or hazardous substance.

(b) Toxic use reports must be submitted on forms required by regulations adopted under the federal act or, to the extent that information required by this section is not included in those forms, on supplemental forms established by the commission not later than December 31, 1990.

(c) Facilities shall submit their initial forms as follows:

(1) by July 1, 1991, for facilities having a two digit standard industrial classification of 35 to 39;

(2) by January 1, 1992, for facilities having a two digit standard industrial classification of 28 to 34; and

INTRODUCTION AND FIRST READING OF HOUSE BILLS

The following House Files were introduced:

Milbert and Ozment introduced:

H. F. No. 2828, A bill for an act relating to education; allowing appointed board members of intermediate school district No. 917 to continue to serve for up to three years beyond June 30, 1992, if reappointed by a local board; amending Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 136D.82, subdivision 1.

The bill was read for the first time and referred to the Committee on Education.

Reding introduced:

H. F. No. 2829, A bill for an act relating to waste; placing waste stream diversion requirements on counties applying for new permits for facilities that incinerate mixed municipal solid wastes or that process or burn refuse-derived fuel; requiring a study of the environmental effects of existing facilities; placing a moratorium on new permits until completion of the study; appropriating money; amending Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 116.07, subdivision 4j.

The bill was read for the first time and referred to the Committee on Environment and Natural Resources.

Reding introduced:

H. F. No. 2830, A bill for an act relating to waste; placing a moratorium on new permits for facilities that incinerate mixed municipal solid wastes or that process or burn refuse-derived fuel.

The bill was read for the first time and referred to the Committee on Environment and Natural Resources.

HOUSE ADVISORIES

The following House Advisories were introduced:

McLaughlin, Krueger, Marsh, Sparby and Otis introduced:

H. A. No. 56, A proposal for a legislative working group on Minnesota's human resources strategies for the 1990's.

The advisory was referred to the Committee on Labor-Management Relations.

Gruenes; Johnson, V., and Bertram introduced:

H. A. No. 57, A proposal to examine the licensing of Retail Food Handlers in the Department of Agriculture.

The advisory was referred to the Committee on Commerce.

MESSAGES FROM THE SENATE

The following messages were received from the Senate:

Mr. Speaker:

I hereby announce that the Senate has concurred in and adopted the report of the Conference Committee on:

H. F. PATRICK E. FLAHAVEN, Secretary of the Senate

Mr. Speaker:

I hereby announce the adoption by the Senate of the following Senate Concurrent Resolution, herewith transmitted:

Senate Concurrent Resolution No. 10, A senate concurrent resolution supporting the efforts of the volunteers working to build a Minnesota Vietnam Veterans Memorial.

PATRICK E. FLAHAVEN, Secretary of the Senate

SUSPENSION OF RULES

Kostohryz moved that the rules be so far suspended that Senate Concurrent Resolution No. 10 be now considered and be placed upon its adoption. The motion prevailed.

SENATE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION NO. 10

A senate concurrent resolution supporting the efforts of the volunteers working to build a Minnesota Vietnam Veterans Memorial.

Whereas, over 68,000 men and women from Minnesota served in our nation in the Vietnam War; and

Whereas, 1,029 service personnel were killed in the defense of freedom and 43 are still missing in action; and

Whereas, we must never forget the price these service personnel paid with their lives and their families continue to pay with their hearts; and

Whereas, the Minnesota Vietnam Veterans Memorial will be dedicated in 1991 on the State Capitol grounds and will honor and thank those who served our country and state, will strengthen the common bond of all veterans, and will be visited by generations of grateful Minnesotans; Now, Therefore,

Be It Resolved by the Senate of the State of Minnesota, the House of Representatives concurring, that the Senate and House support the efforts of the volunteers working to build a Minnesota Vietnam Veterans Memorial.

Be It Further Resolved that the Secretary of the Senate is directed to prepare an enrolled copy of this resolution, to be authenticated by his signature and those of the Chair of the Senate Rules and Administration Committee and the Speaker of the House of Representatives, and present it to the Minnesota Vietnam Veterans Memorial, Inc.

Kostohryz moved that Senate Concurrent Resolution No. 10 be now adopted. The motion prevailed and Senate Concurrent Resolution No. 10 was adopted.

Mr. Speaker:

I hereby announce the passage by the Senate of the following House File, herewith returned, as amended by the Senate, in which amendment the concurrence of the House is respectfully requested:

H. F. CONFERENCE COMMITTEE REPORT ON H. F. NO. 1928

A bill for an act relating to occupations and professions; providing for training for armed employees of private detectives and protective agents; prohibiting certain acts by protective agents and security guards during a labor dispute; amending Minnesota Statutes 1988, sections 326.32, by adding a subdivision; and 326.3384, by adding a subdivision; and amending Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 326.3384, subdivision 2; proposing coding for new law in Minnesota Statutes, chapter 326.

April 5, 1990

The Honorable Robert E. Vanasek
Speaker of the House of Representatives

The Honorable Jerome M. Hughes
President of the Senate

We, the undersigned conferees for H. F. No. 1928, report that we have agreed upon the items in dispute and recommend as follows:

That the Senate recede from its amendment and that H. F. No. 1928 be further amended as follows:

Delete everything after the enacting clause and insert:

"Section 1. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 326.32, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 8a. [ARMED EMPLOYEE.] "Armed employee" means an employee of a private detective or protective agent who at any time in the performance of the employee's duties wears, carries, possesses, or has access to a firearm.

Sec. 2. [326.3361] [TRAINING.]

Subdivision 1. [RULES.] The board shall, by rule, prescribe the requirements, duration, contents, and standards for successful completion of training programs for employees, including:

(1) first aid and firearms training required for armed employees, including training in the legal limitations on the justifiable use of force and deadly force as specified in sections 609.06 and 609.065;

(2) training in the use of weapons other than firearms, including bludgeons, nightsticks, batons, chemical weapons, and electronic incapacitation devices, and in the use of restraint or immobilization techniques, including the carotid neck restraint;

(3) standards for weapons and equipment issued to or carried or used by employees;

(4) preassignment or on-the-job training, or its equivalent, required before applicants may be certified; and

(5) continuing training for employees and armed employees.

Subd. 2. [REQUIRED CONTENTS.] The rules adopted by the board must require:

(1) 12 hours of preassignment or on-the-job training within the first 21 days of employment, or evidence that the employee has successfully completed equivalent training before the start of employment;

(2) standards for certification of an employee, by the board, as qualified to carry or use a firearm, a weapon other than a firearm, or an immobilizing or restraint technique; and

(3) six hours a year of continuing training for all employees, and an additional six hours a year for armed employees, which must include annual certification of the armed employee.

An employee may not carry or use a weapon while undergoing on-the-job training under this subdivision.

Subd. 3. [USE OF WEAPONS; CERTIFICATION REQUIRED.] The rules must provide that no employee may carry or use a weapon or immobilizing or restraint technique without being certified by the board as qualified to do so. The board shall issue an identification card to a person certified under this subdivision. A certified employee shall have the card in the employee's possession while working as an armed employee.

Subd. 4. [FULL-TIME PEACE OFFICERS.] A person licensed as a peace officer by the board of peace officer standards and training meets the training requirements of this section.

Sec. 3. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 326.3384, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 1b. [ACTS PROHIBITED DURING LABOR DISPUTES, STRIKES, AND LOCKOUTS.] (a) This subdivision applies to (1) a license holder or an employee of a license holder who is primarily performing the duties of a protective agent; or (2) a security guard who is primarily performing the duties of a security guard.

(b) A person described in paragraph (a) is prohibited from doing any of the activities described in clauses (1) to (5) during a labor dispute, strike, or lockout as defined in section 179.01, subdivisions 7, 8, and 9:

(1) inciting, encouraging, or aiding in the incitement or encouragement of any participant to do unlawful acts against the person or property of anyone;

(2) photographing a participant when neither that person nor the photographer is on the premises being protected by the persons described in paragraph (a);

(3) stopping or detaining any vehicle unless the vehicle is on premises being protected by the persons described in paragraph (a);

(4) conducting surveillance of participants, when neither the participant nor the person conducting the surveillance is on the premises being protected by the person described in paragraph (a), or of their businesses, or homes; or

(5) any other activities that are outside of the scope of the duties described in sections 326.32, subdivision 13, and 326.338, subdivision 4, and have the purpose of intimidating or provoking a participant.

Sec. 4. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 326.3384, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [PENALTY.] (a) A license holder person violating subdivision 1 or 1a this section is guilty of a gross misdemeanor.

(b) The board shall suspend the license of a license holder for the periods described in paragraph (c) if the license holder or an employee of the license holder is convicted of a violation of subdivision 1b. The board shall prohibit an employee of a license holder from working for any license holder for the periods described in paragraph (c) if the employee is convicted of a violation of subdivision 1b.

(c) The periods described in paragraph (b) are as follows:

- (1) 60 days for the first violation;
- (2) six months for the second violation; and
- (3) one year for the third violation."

Amend the title as follows:

Page 1, line 8, delete "and amending"

We request adoption of this report and repassage of the bill.

House Conferees: JOSEPH BEGICH, JOHN J. SARNA AND DAVE BISHOP.

Senate Conferees: RONALD R. DICKLICH, JOHN J. MARTY AND PATRICK D. MCGOWAN.

Begich moved that the report of the Conference Committee on H. F. No. 1928 be adopted and that the bill be repassed as amended by the Conference Committee. The motion prevailed.

April 7, 1990

The Honorable Robert E. Vanasek
Speaker of the House of Representatives

The Honorable Jerome M. Hughes
President of the Senate

We, the undersigned conferees for H. F. No. 2480, report that we have agreed upon the items in dispute and recommend as follows:

That the Senate recede from its amendment and that H. F. No. 2480 be further amended as follows:

Delete everything after the enacting clause and insert:

"ARTICLE 1
PROCEDURES

Section 1. [289A.01] [APPLICATION OF CHAPTER.]

This chapter applies to taxes administered by or paid to the commissioner under chapters 290, 290A, 291, and 297A.

Sec. 2. [289A.02] [DEFINITIONS.]

Subdivision 1. [APPLICABILITY.] Unless the context clearly requires otherwise, the following terms used in this chapter have the following meanings.

Subd. 2. [COMMISSIONER.] "Commissioner" means the commissioner of revenue of the state of Minnesota or a person to whom the commissioner has delegated functions.

Subd. 3. [TAXPAYER.] "Taxpayer" means a person subject to, or liable for, a state tax; a person required to file a return with respect to, or to pay, or withhold or collect and remit, a state tax; or a person required to obtain a license or a permit or to keep records under a law imposing a state tax.

Subd. 4. [PERSON.] "Person" means an individual, partnership, corporation, association, governmental unit or agency, or public or private organization of any kind, under a duty to comply with state tax laws because of its character or position.

Subd. 5. [OTHER WORDS.] Unless specifically defined in this chapter, or unless the context clearly indicates otherwise, the words used in this chapter have the same meanings as they are defined in chapters 290, 290A, 291, and 297A.

Sec. 3. [289A.021] [FILING REQUIREMENTS FOR INDIVIDUAL INCOME, FIDUCIARY INCOME, CORPORATE FRANCHISE, AND ENTERTAINMENT TAXES.]

Subdivision 1. [GENERALLY; INDIVIDUALS.] (a) A taxpayer must file a return for each taxable year the taxpayer is required to file a return under section 6012 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended through December 31, 1989, except that an individual who is not a Minnesota resident for any part of the year is not required to file a Minnesota income tax return if the individual's gross income derived from Minnesota sources as determined under sections 290.081, paragraph (a), and 290.17, is less than the filing requirements for a single individual who is a full year resident of Minnesota.

(b) The decedent's final income tax return, and other income tax returns for prior years where the decedent had gross income in excess of the minimum amount at which an individual is required to file and did not file, must be filed by the decedent's personal representative, if any. If there is no personal representative, the return or returns must be filed by the transferees, as defined in section 289A.06, subdivision 13, who receive property of the decedent.

(c) The term "gross income," as it is used in this section, has the same meaning given it in section 290.01, subdivision 20.

Subd. 2. [RETURNS FILED BY FIDUCIARIES.] (a) The trustee or other fiduciary of property held in trust must file a return with respect to the taxable net income of the trust or estate if it exceeds an amount determined by the commissioner and if the trust belongs to the class of taxable persons.

(b) The receivers, trustees in bankruptcy, or assignees operating the business or property of a taxpayer must file a return with respect to the taxable net income of the taxpayer if a return is required.

Subd. 3. [CORPORATIONS.] A corporation that is subject to the state's jurisdiction to tax under section 290.014, subdivision 5, must file a return, except that a foreign operating corporation as defined in section 290.01, subdivision 6b, is not required to file a return. The return must be signed by a person designated by the corporation. The commissioner shall adopt rules for the filing of one return on behalf of the members of an affiliated group of corporations that are required to file a combined report. Members of an affiliated group that elect to file one return on behalf of the members of the group under rules adopted by the commissioner may change or rescind the election by filing the form required by the commissioner.

Subd. 4. [EXEMPT ORGANIZATIONS; UNRELATED BUSINESS INCOME.] An exempt organization that is subject to tax on unrelated business income under section 290.05, subdivision 3, must file a return for each taxable year in which the organization is required to file a return under section 6012 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended through December 31, 1989, because of the receipt of unrelated business income. If an organization is required to file a return under federal law but has no federal tax liability for the taxable year, the commissioner may provide that the filing requirement under this paragraph is satisfied by filing a copy of the taxpayer's federal return.

Subd. 5. [ANNUAL RETURN; EXCEPTIONS.] A return under this section must cover a 12-month period, except in the following cases:

(1) A return made by or for a taxpayer in existence for less than the whole of a taxable year must cover the part of the taxable year the taxpayer was in existence;

(2) A taxpayer who, in keeping books, regularly computes income on the basis of an annual period that varies from 52 to 53 weeks and ends always on the same day of the week, and ends always (i) on the date that day of the week last occurs in a calendar month or (ii) on the date that day of the week falls that is nearest to the last day of a calendar month, may compute the taxpayer's net income and taxable net income on the basis of that annual period in accordance with rules prescribed by the commissioner. If the effective date or the applicability of a provision of this chapter or chapter 290 is expressed in terms of taxable years beginning or ending with reference to a named date that is the first or last day of a month, a taxable year must be treated as beginning with the first day of the calendar month beginning nearest to the first day of that taxable year, or as ending with the last day of the calendar month ending nearest to the last day of that taxable year, as the case may be;

(3) A taxpayer who changes from one taxable year to another must make a return for the fractional parts of the year, under section 290.32.

Subd. 6. [RETURNS OF MARRIED PERSONS.] A husband and wife must file a joint Minnesota income tax return if they filed a joint federal income tax return. If the husband and wife have elected to file separate federal income tax returns, they must file separate Minnesota income tax returns. This election to file a joint or separate return must be changed if they change their election for federal purposes. In the event taxpayers desire to change their election, the change must be done in the manner and on the form prescribed by the commissioner.

The determination of whether an individual is married shall be made under the provisions of section 7703 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended through December 31, 1989.

Subd. 7. [COMPOSITE INCOME TAX RETURNS FOR NONRESIDENT PARTNERS, SHAREHOLDERS, AND BENEFICIARIES.]

(a) The commissioner may allow a partnership with five or more nonresident partners to file a composite return and to pay the tax on behalf of nonresident partners who have no other Minnesota source income. This composite return must include the names, addresses, social security numbers, income allocation, and tax liability for the nonresident partners electing to be covered by the composite return.

(b) The computation of a partner's tax liability must be determined by multiplying the income allocated to that partner by the highest rate used to determine the tax liability for individuals under section 290.06, subdivision 2c. Nonbusiness deductions, standard deductions, or personal exemptions are not allowed.

(c) The partnership must submit a request to use this composite return filing method for nonresident partners on or before the due date for filing the individual income tax returns. The request may be made a part of the return filed.

(d) The electing partner must not have any Minnesota source income other than the income from the partnership and other electing partnerships. If it is determined that the electing partner has other Minnesota source income, the inclusion of the income and tax liability for that partner under this provision will not constitute a return to satisfy the requirements of subdivision 1. The tax paid for the individual as part of the composite return is allowed as a payment of the tax by the individual on the date on which the composite return payment was made. If the electing nonresident partner has no other Minnesota source income, filing of the composite return is a return for purposes of subdivision 1.

(e) This subdivision does not negate the requirement that an individual pay estimated tax if the individual's liability would exceed the requirements set forth in section 289A.026. A composite estimate may, however, be filed in a manner similar to and containing the information required under paragraph (a).

(f) If an electing partner's share of the partnership's gross income from Minnesota sources is less than the filing requirements for a nonresident under this subdivision, the tax liability is zero. However, a statement showing the partner's share of gross income must be included as part of the composite return.

(g) The election provided in this subdivision is not available to any partner other than a full-year nonresident individual who has no other Minnesota source income.

(h) A corporation defined in section 290.9725 and its nonresident shareholders may make an election under this paragraph. The provisions covering the partnership apply to the corporation and the provisions applying to the partner apply to the shareholder.

(i) Estates and trusts distributing current income only and the nonresident individual beneficiaries of the estates or trusts may make an election under this paragraph. The provisions covering the partnership apply to the estate or trust. The provisions applying to the partner apply to the beneficiary.

Subd. 8. [RETURNS OF ENTERTAINMENT ENTITIES.] An entertainment entity subject to the tax imposed by section 290.9201 shall file an annual return for the calendar year with the commissioner.

Subd. 9. [VERIFICATION.] If a return is prepared for a taxpayer by an individual (or individuals) or a firm (including partnerships, corporations, etc.), the individual or firm responsible for the preparation must complete the statement of verification provided on the tax return forms in the following manner:

(1) If the individual (or individuals) responsible for the preparation of the return is an individual acting in a personal capacity, the statement of verification must be signed by the individual.

(2) If a firm is responsible for the preparation of the return, the statement of verification must be signed with the firm name. However, if the firm name is stamped or typed, it should be followed by the signature of an individual authorized to sign the verification on behalf of the firm. The firm may authorize an officer, member, or employee to sign the verification.

Verification is not required if the actual preparation of the return is a regular and usual incident of the employment of one regularly and continuously employed full time by the person for whom the return is made (such as a clerk, secretary, bookkeeper, etc.).

Subd. 10. [FILING OF PROPER RETURN.] The return must specifically set forth the items of gross income, deductions, credits against the tax, and any other data necessary for computing the amount of any item required for determining the amount of the net income tax liability. The return must be in the form the commissioner prescribes. The filing of a return required under this section is considered an assessment.

Subd. 11. [INFORMATION INCLUDED IN INCOME TAX RETURN.] The return must state the name of the taxpayer, or taxpayers, if the return is a joint return, and the address of the taxpayer in the same name or names and same address as the taxpayer has used in making the taxpayer's income tax return to the United States, and must state the social security number of the taxpayer, or taxpayers, if a social security number has been issued by the United States with respect to the taxpayers, and must state the amount of the taxable income of the taxpayer as it appears on the federal return for the taxable year to which the Minnesota state return applies. The taxpayer must attach to the taxpayer's Minnesota state income tax return a copy of the federal income tax return that the taxpayer has filed or is about to file for the period.

Subd. 12. [CONFESSION OF JUDGMENT.] The return must contain (1) a written declaration that it is correct and complete, and (2) language prescribed by the commissioner providing a confession of judgment for the amount of the tax shown due to the extent not timely paid.

Subd. 13. [LONG AND SHORT FORMS.] The commissioner shall provide a long form individual income tax return and may provide a short form individual income tax return. The returns shall be in a form that is consistent with the provisions of chapter 290, notwithstanding any other law to the contrary. The nongame wildlife checkoff provided in section 290.431 and the dependent care credit provided in section 290.067 must be included on the short form.

Subd. 14. [VOTER REGISTRATION FORM.] The commissioner shall insert securely in the individual income tax return form or instruction booklet a voter registration form, returnable to the secretary of state. The form shall be designed according to rules adopted by the secretary of state.

Sec. 4. [289A.0212] [FILING REQUIREMENTS FOR TAXES WITHHELD FROM WAGES FROM COMPENSATION OF ENTERTAINERS AND FROM PAYMENTS TO OUT-OF-STATE CONTRACTORS; AND TAXES WITHHELD BY PARTNERSHIPS AND SMALL BUSINESS CORPORATIONS.]

Subdivision 1. [RETURNS.] (a) An employer who is required to deduct and withhold tax under section 290.92, subdivision 2a or 3, and a person required to deduct and withhold tax under section 290.923, subdivision 2, must file a return with the commissioner for each quarterly period unless otherwise prescribed by the commissioner.

(b) A person or corporation required to make deposits under section 290.9201, subdivision 8, must file an entertainer withholding tax return with the commissioner.

(c) A person required to withhold an amount under section 290.9705, subdivision 1, must file a return.

(d) A partnership required to deduct and withhold tax under section 290.92, subdivision 4b, must file a return.

(e) An S corporation required to deduct and withhold tax under section 290.92, subdivision 4c, must also file a return.

(f) Returns must be filed in the form and contain the information prescribed by the commissioner. Every return must contain a written declaration that it is correct and complete, and a confession of judgment for the amount of tax shown due, to the extent not timely paid.

Subd. 2. [WITHHOLDING STATEMENT TO EMPLOYEE OR PAYEE AND TO COMMISSIONER.] (a) A person required to deduct and withhold from an employee a tax under section 290.92, subdivision 2a or 3, or section 290.923, subdivision 2, or who would have been required to deduct and withhold a tax under section 290.92, subdivision 2a or 3, or persons required to withhold tax under section 290.923, subdivision 2, determined without regard to section 290.92, subdivision 19, if the employee or payee had claimed no more than one withholding exemption, or who paid wages or made payments not subject to withholding under section 290.92, subdivision 2a or 3, or section 290.923, subdivision 2, to an employee or person receiving royalty payments in excess of $600, or who has entered into a voluntary withholding agreement with a payee under section 290.92, subdivision 20, must give every employee or person receiving royalty payments in respect to the remuneration paid by the person to the employee or person receiving royalty payments during the calendar year, on or before January 31 of the succeeding year, or, if employment is terminated before the close of the calendar year, within 30 days after the date of receipt of a written request from the employee if the 30-day period ends before January 31, a written statement showing the following:

(1) name of the person;

(2) the name of the employee or payee and the employee's or payee's social security account number;

(3) the total amount of wages as that term is defined in section

290.92, subdivision 1(1); the total amount of remuneration subject to withholding under section 290.92, subdivision 20; the amount of sick pay as required under section 6051(f) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended through December 31, 1989; and the amount of royalties subject to withholding under section 290.923, subdivision 2; and

(4) the total amount deducted and withheld as tax under section 290.92, subdivision 2a or 3, or 290.923, subdivision 2.

(b) The statement required to be furnished by this paragraph with respect to any remuneration must be furnished at those times, must contain the information required, and must be in the form the commissioner prescribes.

(c) The commissioner may prescribe rules providing for reasonable extensions of time, not in excess of 30 days, to employers or payers required to give the statements to their employees or payees under this subdivision.

(d) A duplicate of any statement made under this subdivision and in accordance with rules prescribed by the commissioner, along with a reconciliation in the form the commissioner prescribes of the statements for the calendar year, including a reconciliation of the quarterly returns required to be filed under subdivision 1, must be filed with the commissioner on or before February 28 of the year after the payments were made.

(e) The employer must submit the statements required to be sent to the commissioner on magnetic media, if the magnetic media was required to satisfy the federal reporting requirements of section 6011(e) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended through December 31, 1989, and the regulations issued under it.

Sec. 5. [289A.0214] [FILING REQUIREMENTS FOR ESTATE TAX RETURNS.]

Subdivision 1. [RETURN REQUIRED.] In the case of a decedent who has an interest in property with a situs in Minnesota, the personal representative must submit a Minnesota estate tax return to the commissioner, on a form prescribed by the commissioner, in instances in which a federal estate tax return is required to be filed.

The return must be accompanied by a federal estate tax return, a schedule of the assets in the estate at their date of death values, and must contain a computation of the Minnesota estate tax due. The return must be signed by the personal representative.

Subd. 2. [DOCUMENTS REQUIRED.] The commissioner may designate on the return the documents that are required to be filed together with the return to determine the computation of tax.

Subd. 3. [DEFINITIONS.] For purposes of this section, the definitions contained in section 291.005 apply.

Sec. 6. [289A.0216] [FILING REQUIREMENTS FOR SALES AND USE TAX RETURNS.]

Subdivision 1. [RETURN REQUIRED.] Except as provided in section 289A.023, subdivision 4, for the month in which taxes imposed by sections 297A.01 to 297A.44 are payable, or for which a return is due, a return for the preceding reporting period must be filed with the commissioner in the form the commissioner prescribes. The return must be verified by a written declaration that it is made under the criminal penalties for making a false return, and in addition must contain a confession of judgment for the amount of the tax shown due to the extent not timely paid. A person making sales at retail at two or more places of business may file a consolidated return subject to rules prescribed by the commissioner.

Subd. 2. [LIQUOR SALES.] A person required to collect the tax imposed by section 297A.02, subdivision 3, on sales of intoxicating liquor and nonintoxicating malt liquor, shall report the total sales tax liability, including the sales tax on items other than intoxicating liquor and nonintoxicating malt liquor, on a distinct sales tax return prescribed by the commissioner.

Subd. 3. [WHO MUST FILE RETURN.] For purposes of the sales tax, a return must be filed by a retailer who is required to hold a permit. For the purposes of the use tax, a return must be filed by a retailer required to collect the tax and by a person buying any items, the storage, use or other consumption of which is subject to the use tax, who has not paid the use tax to a retailer required to collect the tax. The returns must be signed by the person filing the return or by the person's agent duly authorized in writing.

Sec. 7. [289A.0218] [FILING REQUIREMENTS FOR INFORMATION RETURNS AND REPORTS.]

Subdivision 1. [REPORTS BY EXEMPT CORPORATIONS, ORGANIZATIONS, ESTATES, AND TRUSTS.] Corporations, estates, trusts, and organizations exempt from state income and franchise taxes under section 290.05, subdivision 2, must file with the commissioner of revenue an initial report that furnishes the information required under section 290.05, subdivision 4, paragraph (a), and later annual reports as required by section 290.05, subdivision 4.

Subd. 2. [RETURNS REQUIRED OF BANKS; COMMON TRUST

FUNDS.] A bank maintaining a common trust fund must make a return for a taxable year, stating specifically with respect to the fund, the items of gross income and deductions provided by section 290.281, subdivision 1. The return must include the names and addresses of the participants entitled to share the net income if distributed and the amount of the proportionate share of each participant.

Subd. 3. [RETURNS OR REPORTS BY PARTNERSHIPS, FIDUCIARIES, AND S CORPORATIONS.] (a) Partnerships must make a return for each taxable year. The return must conform to the requirements of section 290.31, and must include the names and addresses of the partners entitled to a distributive share in their taxable net income, gain, loss, or credit, and the amount of the distributive share to which each is entitled. The return must contain a written declaration that it is correct and complete. A partnership required to file a return for a partnership taxable year must furnish a copy of the information required to be shown on the return to a person who is a partner at any time during the taxable year, on or before the day on which the return for the taxable year was filed.

(b) The fiduciary of an estate or trust making the return required to be filed under section 289A.021, subdivision 2, for a taxable year must give a beneficiary who receives a distribution from the estate or trust with respect to the taxable year or to whom any item with respect to the taxable year is allocated, a statement containing the information required to be shown on the return, on or before the date on which the return was filed.

(c) An S corporation must make a return for a taxable year during which an election under section 290.9725 is in effect, stating specifically the names and addresses of the persons owning stock in the corporation at any time during the taxable year, the number of shares of stock owned by a shareholder at all times during the taxable year, the shareholder's pro rata share of each item of the corporation for the taxable year, and other information the commissioner requires. An S corporation required to file a return under this paragraph for any taxable year must furnish a copy of the information shown on the return to the person who is a shareholder at any time during the taxable year, on or before the day on which the return for the taxable year was filed.

Subd. 4. [RETURNS BY PERSONS, CORPORATIONS, COOPERATIVES, GOVERNMENTAL ENTITIES, OR SCHOOL DISTRICTS.] To the extent required by section 6041 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended through December 31, 1989, a person, corporation, or cooperative, the state of Minnesota and its political subdivisions, and a city, county, and school district in Minnesota, making payments in the regular course of a trade or business during the taxable year to any person or corporation of $600 or more on account of rents or royalties, or of $10 or more on account of interest, or $10 or more on account of dividends or patronage dividends, or $600 or more on account of either wages, salaries, commissions, fees, prizes, awards, pensions, annuities, or any other fixed or determinable gains, profits or income, not otherwise reportable under section 289A.0212, subdivision 2, or on account of earnings of $10 or more distributed to its members by savings, building and loan associations or credit unions chartered under the laws of this state or the United States, (1) must make a return (except in cases where a valid agreement to participate in the combined federal and state information reporting system has been entered into, and the return is filed only with the commissioner of internal revenue under the applicable filing and informational reporting requirements of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended through December 31, 1989) with respect to the payments in excess of the amounts named, giving the names and addresses of the persons to whom the payments were made, the amounts paid to each, and (2) must make a return with respect to the total number of payments and total amount of payments, for each category of income named, which were in excess of the amounts named. This subdivision does not apply to the payment of interest or dividends to a person who was a nonresident of Minnesota for the entire year.

A person, corporation, or cooperative required to file returns under this subdivision must file the returns on magnetic media if magnetic media was used to satisfy the federal reporting requirement under section 6011(e) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended through December 31, 1989, unless the person establishes to the satisfaction of the commissioner that compliance with this requirement would be an undue hardship.

Subd. 5. [RETURNS BY BROKERS.] The commissioner may, within 30 days after notice and demand, require a person doing business as a broker to give the commissioner the names and addresses of customers for whom they have transacted business, and the details regarding gross proceeds and other information concerning the transactions as will enable the commissioner to determine whether the income tax due on profits or gains of those customers has been paid. The provisions of section 6045 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended through December 31, 1989, which define terms and require that a statement be furnished to the customer apply.

Subd. 6. [RETURNS BY AGENTS.] The commissioner may, within 30 days after notice and demand, require a person acting as agent for another to make a return furnishing the information reasonably necessary to properly assess and collect the tax imposed by chapter 290 upon the person for whom the agent acts.

Subd. 7. [RETURNS FOR REAL PROPERTY HOLDINGS OF ALIENS.] A person or corporation required to make a return under section 6039C (relating to information return on a foreign person holding a United States real property interest) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended through December 31, 1989, must make a similar return for the commissioner for foreign persons holding a Minnesota real property interest.

Subd. 8. [RETURNS FOR UNEMPLOYMENT COMPENSATION.] A person who makes payments of unemployment compensation totaling $10 or more to any individual during a calendar year and who is required to make and file a return under section 6050B of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended through December 31, 1989, must file a copy of the return with the commissioner.

Subd. 9. [RETURNS FOR PAYMENTS OF REMUNERATION FOR SERVICES AND DIRECT SALES.] A person who is required to make a return under section 6041A (relating to information returns regarding payments of remuneration for services and direct sales) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended through December 31, 1989, must file a copy of the return containing the information required under that section with the commissioner. The provisions of that section govern the requirements of a statement that must be given to persons with respect to whom information is required to be given.

Subd. 10. [RETURNS RELATING TO SOCIAL SECURITY BENEFITS.] The appropriate federal official who is required to make a return under section 6050F (relating to social security benefits) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended through December 31, 1989, shall file a copy of the return containing the information required under that section with the commissioner.

Subd. 11. [RETURNS BY TRUSTEES.] The trustee of an individual retirement account and the issuer of an endowment contract or an individual retirement annuity who is required to make a report under section 408(i) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended through December 31, 1989, must file with the commissioner a copy of that report containing the information required under that subsection. The provisions of that subsection govern when the reports are to be filed and the requirements of a statement that must be given to persons with respect to whom information must be given.

Subd. 12. [STATEMENTS TO PAYEES.] A person making a return under subdivisions 4 to 10 must furnish to a person whose name is set forth in the return a written statement showing the name and address of the person making the return, and the aggregate amount of payments to the person shown on the return.

This written statement must be given to the person on or before January 31 of the year following the calendar year for which the return was made. A duplicate of this written statement, along with a reconciliation of all the statements for the calendar year in the form the commissioner prescribes, must be furnished to the commissioner on or before February 28 of the year following the calendar year for which the return was made.

Subd. 13. [SUPPLYING OF SOCIAL SECURITY NUMBER.] An individual with respect to whom a return, statement, or other document is required under this section to be made by another person must furnish to that person the individual's social security account number. A person required under this section to make a return, statement, or other document with respect to another person who is an individual must request from that individual and must include in the return, statement, or other document the individual's social security account number. A return of an estate or trust with respect to its liability for tax, and any statement or other document in its support, is considered a return, statement, or other document with respect to the individual beneficiary of the estate or trust; otherwise, a return of an individual with respect to the individual's liability for tax, or any statement or other document in its support, is not considered a return, statement, or other document with respect to another person.

Sec. 8. [289A.023] [DUE DATES FOR FILING OF RETURNS.]

Subdivision 1. [INDIVIDUAL INCOME, FIDUCIARY INCOME, CORPORATE FRANCHISE, AND ENTERTAINMENT TAXES; PARTNERSHIP AND S CORPORATION RETURNS; INFORMATION RETURNS.] The returns required to be made under sections 289A.021 and 289A.0218 must be filed at the following times:

(1) returns made on the basis of the calendar year must be filed on April 15 following the close of the calendar year, except that returns of corporations must be filed on March 15 following the close of the calendar year;

(2) returns made on the basis of the fiscal year must be filed on the 15th day of the fourth month following the close of the fiscal year, except that returns of corporations must be filed on the 15th day of the third month following the close of the fiscal year;

(3) returns for a fractional part of a year must be filed on the 15th day of the fourth month following the end of the month in which falls the last day of the period for which the return is made, except that the returns of corporations must be filed on the 15th day of the third month following the end of the month in which falls the last day of the period for which the return is made;

(4) in the case of a final return of a decedent for a fractional part of a year, the return must be filed on the 15th day of the fourth month following the close of the 12-month period that began with the first day of that fractional part of a year;

(5) in the case of the return of a cooperative association, returns must be filed on or before the 15th day of the ninth month following the close of the taxable year;

(6) if a corporation has been divested from a unitary group and files a return for a fractional part of a year in which it was a member of a unitary business that files a combined report under section 290.34, subdivision 2, the divested corporation's return must be filed on the 15th day of the third month following the close of the common accounting period that includes the fractional year; and

(7) returns of entertainment entities must be filed on April 15 following the close of the calendar year.

Subd. 2. [WITHHOLDING RETURNS, ENTERTAINER WITHHOLDING RETURNS, RETURNS FOR WITHHOLDING FROM PAYMENTS TO OUT-OF-STATE CONTRACTORS, AND WITHHOLDING RETURNS FROM PARTNERSHIPS AND SMALL BUSINESS CORPORATIONS.] Withholding returns are due on or before the last day of the month following the close of the quarterly period. However, if the return shows timely deposits in full payment of the taxes due for that period, the return may be filed on or before the tenth day of the second calendar month following the period. An employer, in preparing a quarterly return, may take credit for monthly deposits previously made for that quarter. Entertainer withholding tax returns are due within 30 days after each performance. Returns for withholding from payments to out-of-state contractors are due within 30 days after the payment to the contractor. Returns for withholding by partnerships are due on or before the due date specified for filing partnership returns. Returns for withholding by small business corporations are due on or before the due date specified for filing corporate franchise tax returns.

Subd. 3. [ESTATE TAX RETURNS.] An estate tax return must be filed with the commissioner within nine months after the decedent's death.

Subd. 4. [SALES AND USE TAX RETURNS.] Sales and use tax returns must be filed on or before the 20th day of the month following the close of the preceding reporting period. In addition, on or before June 20 of a year, a retailer who has a May liability of $1,500 or more must file a return with the commissioner for one-half of the estimated June liability, in addition to filing a return for the May liability. On or before August 20 of a year, the retailer must file a return showing the actual June liability.

Subd. 5. [PROPERTY TAX REFUND CLAIMS.] A claim for a refund based on property taxes payable must be filed with the commissioner on or before August 15 of the year in which the property taxes are due and payable. Any claim for refund based on rent paid must be filed on or before August 15 of the year following the year in which the rent was paid.

Sec. 9. [289A.024] [EXTENSIONS FOR FILING RETURNS.]

Subdivision 1. [INDIVIDUAL INCOME, FIDUCIARY INCOME, ENTERTAINMENT TAX, AND INFORMATION RETURNS.] When, in the commissioner's judgment, good cause exists, the commissioner may extend the time for filing individual and fiduciary income tax returns, entertainment tax returns, and information returns for not more than six months. If an extension to file the federal individual or fiduciary income tax return or information return has been granted under section 6081 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended through December 31, 1989, the time for filing the state return is extended for that period. The commissioner may require the taxpayer to file a tentative return when the regularly required return is due, and to pay a tax on the basis of the tentative return at the times required for the payment of taxes on the basis of the regularly required return from the taxpayer.

Subd. 2. [CORPORATE FRANCHISE TAXES.] The commissioner may grant an extension of up to seven months for filing the return of a corporation subject to tax under chapter 290 if:

(1) the corporation files a tentative return when the regularly required return is due;

(2) the corporation pays the tax on the basis of the tentative return and the amount of tax, determined without regard to any prepayment of tax, shown on the tentative return, or the amount of tax paid on or before the regular due date of the return, is at least 90 percent of the amount shown on the corporation's regularly required return;

(3) the balance due shown on the regularly required return is paid on or before the extended due date of the return; and

(4) interest on any balance due is paid at the rate specified in section 270.75 from the regular due date of the return until the tax is paid.

Subd. 3. [WITHHOLDING RETURNS.] Where good cause exists, the commissioner may grant an extension of time of not more than 60 days for filing a withholding return.

Subd. 4. [ESTATE TAX RETURNS.] Where good cause exists, the commissioner may extend the time for filing an estate tax return for not more than six months. When an extension to file the federal estate tax return has been granted under section 6081 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended through December 31, 1989, the time for filing the estate tax return is extended for that period.

Subd. 5. [SALES AND USE TAX RETURNS.] Where good cause exists, the commissioner may extend the time for filing sales and use tax returns for not more than 60 days.

Subd. 6. [PROPERTY TAX REFUND RETURNS.] Where good cause exists, the commissioner may extend the time for filing claims under chapter 290A for not more than six months. A claim filed after the original or extended due date shall be allowed if the initial claim is filed within one year after the original due date for filing the claim, subject to the provisions of section 289A.14, subdivision 12, paragraph (e).

Sec. 10. [289A.025] [DUE DATES FOR MAKING PAYMENTS OF TAX.]

Subdivision 1. [INDIVIDUAL INCOME, FIDUCIARY INCOME, CORPORATE FRANCHISE, AND ENTERTAINMENT TAXES.] (a) Individual income, fiduciary, and corporate franchise taxes must be paid to the commissioner on or before the date the return must be filed under section 289A.023, subdivision 1, or the extended due date as provided in section 289A.024, unless an earlier date for payment is provided.

Notwithstanding any other law, a taxpayer whose unpaid liability for income or corporate franchise taxes, as reflected upon the return, is $1 or less need not pay the tax.

(b) Entertainment taxes must be paid on or before the date the return must be filed under section 289A.023, subdivision 1.

Subd. 2. [WITHHOLDING FROM WAGES, ENTERTAINER WITHHOLDING, WITHHOLDING FROM PAYMENTS TO OUT-OF-STATE CONTRACTORS, AND WITHHOLDING BY PARTNERSHIPS AND SMALL BUSINESS CORPORATIONS.] (a) A tax required to be deducted and withheld during the quarterly period must be paid on or before the last day of the month following the close of the quarterly period, unless an earlier time for payment is provided. A tax required to be deducted and withheld from compensation of an entertainer and from a payment to an out-of-state contractor must be paid on or before the date the return for such tax must be filed under section 289A.023, subdivision 2. Taxes required to be deducted and withheld by partnerships and S corporations must be paid on or before the date the return must be filed under section 289A.023, subdivision 2.

(b)(1) Unless clause (2) applies, if during any calendar month, other than the last month of the calendar quarter, the aggregate amount of the tax withheld during that quarter under section 290.92, subdivision 2a or 3, or under section 290.923, subdivision 2, exceeds $500, the employer shall deposit the aggregate amount with the commissioner within 15 days after the close of the calendar month. (2) If at the close of any eighth-monthly period the aggregate amount of undeposited taxes is $3,000 or more, the employer, or person withholding tax under section 290.92, subdivision 2a or 3, or section 290.923, subdivision 2, shall deposit the undeposited taxes with the commissioner within three banking days after the close of the eighth-monthly period. For purposes of this clause, the term "eighth-monthly period" means the first three days of a calendar month, the fourth day through the seventh day of a calendar month, the eighth day through the 11th day of a calendar month, the 12th day through the 15th day of a calendar month, the 16th day through the 19th day of a calendar month, the 20th day through the 22nd day of a calendar month, the 23rd day through the 25th day of a calendar month, or the part of a calendar month following the 25th day of the month.

(c) The commissioner may prescribe by rule other return periods or deposit requirements. In prescribing the reporting period, the commissioner may classify payors according to the amount of their tax liability and may adopt an appropriate reporting period for the class that the commissioner judges to be consistent with efficient tax collection. In no event will the duration of the reporting period be more than one year.

(d) If less than the correct amount of tax is paid to the commissioner, proper adjustments with respect to both the tax and the amount to be deducted must be made, without interest, in the manner and at the times the commissioner prescribes. If the underpayment cannot be adjusted, the amount of the underpayment will be assessed and collected in the manner and at the times the commissioner prescribes.

Subd. 3. [ESTATE TAX.] Taxes imposed by chapter 291 take effect at and upon the death of the person whose estate is subject to taxation and are due and payable on or before the expiration of nine months from that death.

Subd. 4. [SALES AND USE TAX.] (a) The taxes imposed by chapter 297A are due and payable to the commissioner monthly on or before the 20th day of the month following the month in which the taxable event occurred or following another reporting period as the commissioner prescribes.

(b) A vendor having a liability of $1,500 or more in May of a year must remit the June liability in the following manner:

(1) On or before June 20 of the year, the vendor must remit the actual May liability and one-half of the estimated June liability to the commissioner.

(2) On or before August 20 of the year, the vendor must pay any additional amount of tax not remitted in June.

(c) When a retailer located outside of a city that imposes a local sales and use tax collects use tax to be remitted to that city, the retailer is not required to remit the tax until the amount collected reaches $10.

Sec. 11. [289A.026] [PAYMENT OF ESTIMATED TAX BY INDIVIDUALS.]

Subdivision 1. [REQUIREMENTS TO PAY.] An individual must, when prescribed in subdivision 3, paragraph (b), make payments of estimated tax. The term "estimated tax" means the amount the individual estimates is the sum of the taxes imposed by chapter 290 for the taxable year. If the individual is an infant or incompetent person, the payments must be made by the individual's guardian. If joint payments on estimated tax are made but a joint return is not made for the taxable year, the estimated tax for that year may be treated as the estimated tax of either the husband or the wife or may be divided between them.

Notwithstanding the provisions of this section, no payments of estimated tax are required if the estimated tax, as defined in this subdivision, less the credits allowed against the tax, is less than $500.

Subd. 2. [ADDITIONS TO TAX FOR UNDERPAYMENT.] (a) In the case of any underpayment of estimated tax by an individual, except as provided in subdivision 6 or 7, there must be added to and become a part of the taxes imposed by chapter 290, for the taxable year an amount determined at the rate specified in section 270.75 upon the amount of the underpayment for the period of the underpayment.

(b) For purposes of paragraph (a), the amount of underpayment shall be the excess of

(1) the amount of the installment required to be paid, over

(2) the amount, if any, of the installment paid on or before the last day prescribed for the payment.

Subd. 3. [PERIOD OF UNDERPAYMENT.] (a) The period of the underpayment shall run from the date the installment was required to be paid to the earlier of the following dates:

(1) The 15th day of the fourth month following the close of the taxable year.

(2) With respect to any part of the underpayment, the date on which that part is paid. For purposes of this clause, a payment of estimated tax on any installment date is considered a payment of any unpaid required installments in the order in which the installments are required to be paid.

(b) For purposes of this subdivision, there shall be four required installments for a taxable year. The times for payment of installments shall be:

For the following required installments:

1st
2nd
3rd
4th

The due date is:

April 15
June 15
September 15
January 15 of the following taxable year

Subd. 4. [NO ADDITION TO TAX WHERE TAX IS SMALL.] No addition to tax is imposed under subdivision 2 for a taxable year if the tax shown on the return for the taxable year (or, if no return is filed, the tax) reduced by the credits allowable is less than $500.

Subd. 5. [AMOUNT OF REQUIRED INSTALLMENT.] The amount of any installment required to be paid shall be 25 percent of the required annual payment except as provided in clause (3). The term "required annual payment" means the lesser of

(1) 90 percent of the tax shown on the return for the taxable year or 90 percent of the tax for the year if no return is filed, or

(2) the total tax liability shown on the return of the individual for the preceding taxable year, if a return showing a liability for the taxes was filed by the individual for the preceding taxable year of 12 months, or

(3) an amount equal to the applicable percentage of the tax for the taxable year computed by placing on an annualized basis the taxable income and alternative minimum taxable income for the months in the taxable year ending before the month in which the installment is required to be paid. The applicable percentage of the tax is 22.5 percent in the case of the first installment, 45 percent for the second installment, 67.5 percent for the third installment, and 90 percent for the fourth installment. For purposes of this clause, the taxable income and alternative minimum taxable income shall be placed on an annualized basis by

(i) multiplying by 12 (or in the case of a taxable year of less than 12 months, the number of months in the taxable year) the taxable income and alternative minimum taxable income computed for the months in the taxable year ending before the month in which the installment is required to be paid; and

(ii) dividing the resulting amount by the number of months in the taxable year ending before the month in which the installment date falls.

Subd. 6. [EXCEPTION TO ADDITION TO TAX.] No addition to the tax shall be imposed under this section for any taxable year if:

(1) the individual did not have liability for tax for the preceding taxable year,

(2) the preceding taxable year was a taxable year of 12 months, and

(3) the individual was a resident of Minnesota throughout the preceding taxable year.

Subd. 7. [WAIVER OF ADDITION TO TAX.] No addition to the tax is imposed under this section with respect to an underpayment to the extent the commissioner determines that the provisions of section 6654(e)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended through December 31, 1989, apply.

Subd. 8. [APPLICATION OF SECTION; TAX WITHHELD ON WAGES.] For purposes of this section, the estimated tax must be computed without reduction for the amount that the individual estimates as the individual's credit under section 290.92, subdivision 12 (relating to tax withheld at source on wages), and any other refundable credits allowed against income tax liability, and the amount of those credits for the taxable year is considered a payment of estimated tax, and an equal part of those amounts is considered paid on the installment date, determined under subdivision 3, paragraph (b), for that taxable year, unless the taxpayer establishes the dates on which the amounts were actually withheld, in which case the amounts so withheld are considered payments of estimated tax on the dates on which the amounts were actually withheld.

Subd. 9. [SPECIAL RULE FOR RETURN FILED ON OR BEFORE JANUARY 31.] If, on or before January 31 of the following taxable year, the taxpayer files a return for the taxable year and pays in full the amount computed on the return as payable, then no addition to tax is imposed under subdivision 2 with respect to any underpayment of the fourth required installment for the taxable year.

Subd. 10. [SPECIAL RULE FOR FARMERS AND FISHERMEN.]

For purposes of this section, if an individual is a farmer or fisherman as defined in section 6654(f)(2) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended through December 31, 1989, for a taxable year, only one installment is required for the taxable year, the due date of which is January 15 of the following taxable year, the amount of which is equal to the required annual payment determined under subdivision 5 by substituting "66 $\frac{2}{3}$ percent" for "90 percent," and subdivision 9 shall be applied by substituting "March 1" for "January 31," and by treating the required installment described as the fourth required installment.

Subd. 11. [FISCAL YEAR TAXPAYER.] The application of this section to taxable years beginning other than January 1 must be made by substituting, for the months named in this section, the months that correspond. This section must be applied to taxable years of less than 12 months, under rules issued by the commissioner.

Subd. 12. [TRUSTS AND ESTATES.] The provisions of this section do not apply to an estate or trust.

Subd. 13. [OVERPAYMENT OF ESTIMATED TAX INSTALLMENT.] If an installment payment of estimated tax exceeds the correct amount of the installment payment, the overpayment must be credited against the unpaid installments, if any.

Sec. 12. [289A.027] [PAYMENT OF ESTIMATED TAX BY CORPORATIONS.]

Subdivision 1. [MINIMUM LIABILITY.] A corporation subject to taxation under chapter 290 (excluding section 290.92) must make payment of estimated tax for the taxable year if its tax liability so computed can reasonably be expected to exceed $500, or in accordance with rules prescribed by the commissioner for an affiliated group of corporations electing to file one return as permitted under section 289A.021, subdivision 3.

Subd. 2. [AMOUNT AND TIME FOR PAYMENT OF INSTALLMENTS.] The estimated tax payment required under subdivision 1 must be paid in four equal installments on or before the 15th day of the third, sixth, ninth, and 12th month of the taxable year.

Subd. 3. [SHORT TAXABLE YEAR.] (a) A corporation with a short taxable year of less than 12 months, but at least four months, must pay estimated tax in equal installments on or before the 15th day of the third, sixth, ninth, and final month of the short taxable year, to the extent applicable based on the number of months in the short taxable year.

(b) A corporation is not required to make estimated tax payments for a short taxable year unless its tax liability before the first day of the last month of the taxable year can reasonably be expected to exceed $500.

(c) No payment is required for a short taxable year of less than four months.

Subd. 4. [UNDERPAYMENT OF ESTIMATED TAX.] If there is an underpayment of estimated tax by a corporation, there shall be added to the tax for the taxable year an amount determined at the rate in section 270.75 on the amount of the underpayment, determined under subdivision 5, for the period of the underpayment determined under subdivision 6. This subdivision does not apply in the first taxable year that a corporation is subject to the tax imposed under section 290.02.

Subd. 5. [AMOUNT OF UNDERPAYMENT.] For purposes of subdivision 4, the amount of the underpayment is the excess of

(1) the required installment, over

(2) the amount, if any, of the installment paid on or before the last date prescribed for payment.

Subd. 6. [PERIOD OF UNDERPAYMENT.] The period of the underpayment runs from the date the installment was required to be paid to the earlier of the following dates:

(1) the 15th day of the third month following the close of the taxable year; or

(2) with respect to any part of the underpayment, the date on which that part is paid. For purposes of this clause, a payment of estimated tax shall be credited against unpaid required installments in the order in which those installments are required to be paid.

Subd. 7. [REQUIRED INSTALLMENTS.] (a) Except as otherwise provided in this subdivision, the amount of a required installment is 25 percent of the required annual payment.

(b) Except as otherwise provided in this subdivision, the term "required annual payment" means the lesser of:

(1) 90 percent of the tax shown on the return for the taxable year, or if no return is filed, 90 percent of the tax for that year; or

(2) 100 percent of the tax shown on the return of the corporation for the preceding taxable year provided the return was for a full

12-month period, showed a liability, and was filed by the corporation.

(c) Except for determining the first required installment for any taxable year, paragraph (b), clause (2), does not apply in the case of a large corporation. The term "large corporation" means a corporation or any predecessor corporation that had taxable net income of $1,000,000 or more for any taxable year during the testing period. The term "testing period" means the three taxable years immediately preceding the taxable year involved. A reduction allowed to a large corporation for the first installment that is allowed by applying paragraph (b), clause (2), must be recaptured by increasing the next required installment by the amount of the reduction.

(d) In the case of a required installment, if the corporation establishes that the annualized income installment is less than the amount determined in paragraph (a), the amount of the required installment is the annualized income installment and the recapture of previous quarters' reductions allowed by this paragraph must be recovered by increasing later required installments to the extent the reductions have not previously been recovered.

(e) The "annualized income installment" is the excess, if any, of:

(1) an amount equal to the applicable percentage of the tax for the taxable year computed by placing on an annualized basis the taxable income:

(i) for the first two months of the taxable year, in the case of the first required installment;

(ii) for the first two months or for the first five months of the taxable year, in the case of the second required installment;

(iii) for the first six months or for the first eight months of the taxable year, in the case of the third required installment; and

(iv) for the first nine months or for the first 11 months of the taxable year, in the case of the fourth required installment, over

(2) the aggregate amount of any prior required installments for the taxable year.

(3) For the purpose of this paragraph, the annualized income shall be computed by placing on an annualized basis the taxable income for the year up to the end of the month preceding the due date for the quarterly payment multiplied by 12 and dividing the resulting amount by the number of months in the taxable year (2, 5, 6, 8, 9, or 11 as the case may be) referred to in clause (1).

(4) The “applicable percentage” used in clause (1) is:

For the following required installments:	The applicable percentage is:
1st	22.5
2nd	45
3rd	67.5
4th	90

(f)(1) If this paragraph applies, the amount determined for any installment must be determined in the following manner:

(i) take the taxable income for the months during the taxable year preceding the filing month;

(ii) divide that amount by the base period percentage for the months during the taxable year preceding the filing month;

(iii) determine the tax on the amount determined under item (ii); and

(iv) multiply the tax computed under item (iii) by the base period percentage for the filing month and the months during the taxable year preceding the filing month.

(2) For purposes of this paragraph:

(i) the “base period percentage” for a period of months is the average percent that the taxable income for the corresponding months in each of the three preceding taxable years bears to the taxable income for the three preceding taxable years;

(ii) the term “filing month” means the month in which the installment is required to be paid;

(iii) this paragraph only applies if the base period percentage for any six consecutive months of the taxable year equals or exceeds 70 percent; and

(iv) the commissioner may provide by rule for the determination of the base period percentage in the case of reorganizations, new corporations, and other similar circumstances.

(3) In the case of a required installment determined under this paragraph, if the corporation determines that the installment is less than the amount determined in paragraph (a), the amount of the required installment is the amount determined under this paragraph and the recapture of previous quarters' reductions allowed by this paragraph must be recovered by increasing later required installments to the extent the reductions have not previously been recovered.

Subd. 8. [DEFINITION OF TAX.] The term "tax" as used in this section means the tax imposed by chapter 290.

Subd. 9. [FAILURE TO FILE AN ESTIMATE.] In the case of a corporation that fails to file an estimated tax for a taxable year when one is required, the period of the underpayment runs from the four installment dates in subdivision 2 or 3, whichever applies, to the earlier of the periods in subdivision 6, clauses (1) and (2).

Subd. 10. [PAYMENT ON ACCOUNT.] Payment of the estimated tax or any installment of it shall be considered payment on account of the taxes imposed by chapter 290, for the taxable year.

Subd. 11. [OVERPAYMENT OF ESTIMATED TAX INSTALLMENT.] If the amount of an installment payment of estimated tax exceeds the amount determined to be the correct amount of the installment payment, the overpayment must be credited against the unpaid installments, if any.

Sec. 13. [289A.028] [EXTENSIONS FOR PAYING TAX.]

Subdivision 1. [INDIVIDUAL AND FIDUCIARY INCOME, CORPORATE FRANCHISE TAX.] Where good cause exists, the commissioner may extend the time for payment of the amount determined as an individual or fiduciary income tax or corporate franchise tax by the taxpayer, or an amount determined as a deficiency, for a period of not more than six months from the date prescribed for the payment of the tax.

Subd. 2. [ESTATE TAX.] Where good cause exists, the commissioner may extend the time for payment of estate tax for a period of not more than six months. If an extension to pay the federal estate tax has been granted under section 6161 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended through December 31, 1989, the time for payment of the estate tax without penalty is extended for that period. A taxpayer who owes at least $5,000 in taxes and who, under section 6161 or 6166 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended through December 31, 1989, has been granted an extension for payment of the tax shown on the return, may elect to pay the tax due to the commissioner in equal amounts at the same time as required for federal purposes. A taxpayer electing to pay the tax in installments must notify the commissioner in writing no later than nine months after the death of the person whose estate is subject to taxation. If the taxpayer fails to pay an installment on time, unless it is shown that the failure is due to reasonable cause, the election is revoked and the entire amount of unpaid tax plus accrued interest is due and payable 90 days after the date on which the installment was payable.

Sec. 14. [289A.029] [LIABILITY FOR PAYMENT OF TAX.]

Subdivision 1. [INDIVIDUAL INCOME, FIDUCIARY INCOME, CORPORATE FRANCHISE, AND ENTERTAINMENT TAXES.] (a) Individual income, fiduciary income, and corporate franchise taxes, and interest and penalties, must be paid by the taxpayer upon whom the tax is imposed, except in the following cases:

(1) The tax due from a decedent for that part of the taxable year in which the decedent died during which the decedent was alive and the taxes, interest, and penalty due for the prior years must be paid by the decedent's personal representative, if any. If there is no personal representative, the taxes, interest, and penalty must be paid by the transferees, as defined in section 289A.06, subdivision 13, to the extent they receive property from the decedent;

(2) The tax due from an infant or other incompetent person must be paid by the person's guardian or other person authorized or permitted by law to act for the person;

(3) The tax due from the estate of a decedent must be paid by the estate's personal representative;

(4) The tax due from a trust, including those within the definition of a corporation, as defined in section 290.01, subdivision 4, must be paid by a trustee; and

(5) The tax due from a taxpayer whose business or property is in charge of a receiver, trustee in bankruptcy, assignee, or other conservator, must be paid by the person in charge of the business or property so far as the tax is due to the income from the business or property.

(b) Entertainment taxes are the joint and several liability of the entertainer and the entertainment entity. The payor is liable to the state for the payment of the tax required to be deducted and withheld under section 290.9201, subdivision 7, and is not liable to the entertainer for the amount of the payment.

Subd. 2. [JOINT INCOME TAX RETURNS.] If a joint income tax return is made by a husband and wife, the liability for the tax is joint and several. A spouse who is relieved of a liability attributable to a substantial underpayment under section 6013(e) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended through December 31, 1989, is also relieved of the state income tax liability on the substantial underpayment.

In the case of individuals who were a husband and wife prior to the dissolution of their marriage, for tax liabilities reported on a joint or combined return, the liability of each person is limited to the proportion of the tax due on the return that equals that person's proportion of the total tax due if the husband and wife filed separate returns for the taxable year. This provision is effective only when the commissioner receives written notice of the marriage dissolution from the husband or wife. No refund may be claimed by an ex-spouse for any taxes paid before receipt by the commissioner of the written notice.

Subd. 3. [TRANSFEREES AND FIDUCIARIES.] The amounts of the following liabilities are, except as otherwise provided in section 289A.06, subdivision 13, assessed, collected, and paid in the same manner and subject to the same provisions and limitations as a deficiency in a tax imposed by chapter 290, including any provisions of law for the collection of taxes:

(1) the liability, at law or in equity, of a transferee of property of a taxpayer for tax, including interest, additional amounts, and additions to the tax provided by law, imposed upon the taxpayer by chapter 290; and

(2) the liability of a fiduciary under subdivision 4 for the payment of tax from the estate of the taxpayer. The liability may reflect the amount of tax shown on the return or any deficiency in tax.

Subd. 4. [TAX AS A PERSONAL DEBT OF A FIDUCIARY.] The tax imposed by chapter 290, and interest and penalties, is a personal debt of the taxpayer from the time the liability arises, regardless of when the time for discharging the liability by payment occurs. The debt is, in the case of the personal representative of the estate of a decedent and in the case of any fiduciary, that of the individual in the individual's official or fiduciary capacity only, unless the individual has voluntarily distributed the assets held in that capacity without reserving sufficient assets to pay the tax, interest, and penalties, in which event the individual is personally liable for the deficiency.

Subd. 5. [WITHHOLDING TAX, WITHHOLDING FROM PAYMENTS TO OUT-OF-STATE CONTRACTORS, AND WITHHOLDING BY PARTNERSHIPS AND SMALL BUSINESS CORPORATIONS.] (a) Except as provided in paragraph (b), an employer or person withholding tax under section 290.92 or 290.923, subdivision 2, who fails to pay to or deposit with the commissioner a sum or sums required by those sections to be deducted, withheld, and paid, is personally and individually liable to the state for the sum or sums, and added penalties and interest, and is not liable to another person for that payment or payments. The sum or sums deducted and withheld under section 290.92, subdivision 2a or 3, or 290.923, subdivision 2, must be held as a special fund in trust for the state of Minnesota.

(b) If the employer or person withholding tax under section 290.92 or 290.923, subdivision 2, fails to deduct and withhold the tax in violation of those sections, and later the taxes against which the tax may be credited are paid, the tax required to be deducted and withheld will not be collected from the employer. This does not, however, relieve the employer from liability for any penalties and interest otherwise applicable for failure to deduct and withhold.

(c) Liability for payment of withholding taxes includes a responsible person or entity described in the personal liability provisions of section 270.101.

(d) Liability for payment of withholding taxes includes a third party lender or surety described in section 290.92, subdivision 22.

(e) A partnership or S corporation required to withhold and remit tax under section 290.92, subdivisions 4b and 4c, is liable for payment of the tax to the commissioner, and a person having control of or responsibility for the withholding of the tax or the filing of returns due in connection with the tax is personally liable for the tax due.

(f) A payor of sums required to be withheld under section 290.9705, subdivision 1, is liable to the state for the amount required to be deducted, and is not liable to an out-of-state contractor for the amount of the payment.

Subd. 6. [ESTATE TAX.] The personal representative and person to whom property that is subject to taxation under this chapter is transferred, other than a bona fide purchaser, mortgagee, or lessee, is personally liable for that tax, until its payment, to the extent of the value of the property at the time of the transfer. The exemption from personal liability extends to subsequent transferees from bona fide purchasers, mortgagees, and lessees.

Subd. 7. [SALES AND USE TAX.] (a) The sales and use tax required to be collected by the retailer under chapter 297A constitutes a debt owed by the retailer to Minnesota, and the sums collected must be held as a special fund in trust for the state of Minnesota.

A retailer who does not maintain a place of business within this state as defined by section 297A.21, subdivision 1, shall not be indebted to Minnesota for amounts of tax that it was required to collect but did not collect unless the retailer knew or had been advised by the commissioner of its obligation to collect the tax.

(b) The use tax required to be paid by a purchaser is a debt owed by the purchaser to Minnesota.

(c) The tax imposed by sections 297A.01 to 297A.44, and interest and penalties, is a personal debt of the individual required to file a return from the time the liability arises, irrespective of when the time for payment of that liability occurs. The debt is, in the case of the executor or administrator of the estate of a decedent and in the case of a fiduciary, that of the individual in an official or fiduciary capacity unless the individual has voluntarily distributed the assets held in that capacity without reserving sufficient assets to pay the tax, interest, and penalties, in which case the individual is personally liable for the deficiency.

(d) Liability for payment of sales and use taxes includes any responsible person or entity described in the personal liability provisions of section 270.101.

Sec. 15. [289A.03] [ASSESSMENTS.]

The commissioner shall make determinations, corrections, and assessments with respect to state taxes, including interest, additions to taxes, and assessable penalties. The commissioner may audit and adjust the taxpayer's computation of federal taxable income to make it conform with the provisions of section 290.01, subdivisions 19 to 19g, or the items of federal tax preferences or federal credit amounts to make them conform with the provisions of chapter 290. If a taxpayer fails to file a required return, the commissioner, from information in the commissioner's possession or obtainable by the commissioner, may make a return for the taxpayer. The return will be prima facie correct and valid. If a return has been filed, the commissioner shall examine the return and make any audit or investigation that is considered necessary. The commissioner may use statistical or other sampling techniques consistent with generally accepted accounting principles in examining returns or records and making assessments.

Sec. 16. [289A.04] [EXAMINATIONS; AUDITS AND COLLECTIONS.]

Subdivision 1. [EXAMINATION OF TAXPAYER.] To determine the accuracy of a return or report, or in fixing liability under state tax law, or for the purpose of collection, the commissioner may make reasonable examinations or investigations of a taxpayer's place of business, tangible personal property, equipment, computer systems and facilities, pertinent books, records, papers, vouchers, computer printouts, accounts, and documents.

Subd. 2. [ACCESS TO RECORDS OF OTHER PERSONS IN CONNECTION WITH EXAMINATION OF TAXPAYER.] When conducting an investigation or an audit of a taxpayer, or for the purpose of collection, the commissioner may examine, except where privileged by law, the relevant records and files of any person, business, institution, financial institution, state agency, agency of the United States government, or agency of any other state where permitted by statute, agreement, or reciprocity. The commissioner may compel production of these records by subpoena. A subpoena may be served directly by the commissioner.

Subd. 3. [POWER TO COMPEL TESTIMONY.] In the administration of state tax law, the commissioner may:

(1) administer oaths or affirmations and compel by subpoena the attendance of witnesses, testimony, and the production of a person's pertinent books, records, papers, or other data;

(2) examine under oath or affirmation any person regarding the business of any taxpayer concerning any relevant matter incident to the administration of state tax law. The fees of witnesses required by the commissioner to attend a hearing are equal to those allowed to witnesses appearing before courts of this state. The fees must be paid in the manner provided for the payment of other expenses incident to the administration of state tax law; and

(3) in addition to other remedies that may be available, bring an action in equity by the state against a taxpayer for an injunction ordering the taxpayer to file a complete and proper return or amended return. The district courts of this state have jurisdiction over the action and disobedience of an injunction issued under this clause will be punished as a contempt of district court.

Subd. 4. [THIRD PARTY SUBPOENA WHERE TAXPAYER'S IDENTITY IS KNOWN.] An investigation may extend to a person that the commissioner determines has access to information that may be relevant to the examination or investigation. When a subpoena requiring the production of records as described in subdivision 2 is served on a third-party recordkeeper, written notice of the subpoena must be mailed to the taxpayer and to any other person who is identified in the subpoena. The notices must be given within three days of the day on which the subpoena is served. Notice to the taxpayer required by this section is sufficient if it is mailed to the last address on record with the commissioner.

The provisions of this subdivision relating to notice to the taxpayer or other parties identified in the subpoena do not apply if there is reasonable cause to believe that the giving of notice may lead to attempts to conceal, destroy, or alter records relevant to the examination, to prevent the communication of information from other persons through intimidation, bribery, or collusion, or to flee to avoid prosecution, testifying, or production of records.

Subd. 5. [THIRD PARTY SUBPOENA WHERE TAXPAYER'S IDENTITY IS NOT KNOWN.] A subpoena that does not identify the person or persons whose tax liability is being investigated may be served only if:

(1) the subpoena relates to the investigation of a particular person or ascertainable group or class of persons;

(2) there is a reasonable basis for believing that the person or group or class of persons may fail or may have failed to comply with tax laws administered by the commissioner;

(3) the information sought to be obtained from the examination of the records, and the identity of the person or persons with respect to whose liability the subpoena is issued, is not readily available from other sources;

(4) the subpoena is clear and specific concerning the information sought to be obtained; and

(5) the information sought to be obtained is limited solely to the scope of the investigation.

The party served with a subpoena that does not identify the person or persons with respect to whose tax liability the subpoena is issued may, within 20 days after service of the subpoena, petition the district court in the judicial district in which that party is located for a determination concerning whether the commissioner has complied with the requirements in clauses (1) to (5), and thus, whether the subpoena is enforceable. If no petition is made by the party served within the time prescribed, the subpoena has the effect of a court order.

Subd. 6. [REQUEST BY TAXPAYER FOR SUBPOENA.] When the commissioner has the power to issue a subpoena for investigative or auditing purposes, the commissioner shall honor a reasonable request by the taxpayer to issue a subpoena on the taxpayer's behalf, if in connection with the investigation or audit.

Subd. 7. [APPLICATION TO COURT FOR ENFORCEMENT OF SUBPOENA.] The commissioner or the taxpayer may apply to the district court of the county of the taxpayer's residence, place of business, or county where the subpoena can be served as with any other case at law, for an order compelling the appearance of the subpoenaed witness or the production of the subpoenaed records. If the subpoenaed party fails to comply with the order of the court, the party may be punished by the court as for contempt.

Subd. 8. [COST OF PRODUCTION OF RECORDS.] The cost of producing records of a third party required by a subpoena must be paid by the taxpayer, if the taxpayer requests the subpoena to be issued, or if the taxpayer has the records available but has refused to provide them to the commissioner. In other cases where the taxpayer cannot produce records and the commissioner then initiates a subpoena for third-party records, the commissioner shall pay the reasonable cost of producing the records. The commissioner may later assess the reasonable costs against the taxpayer if the records contribute to the determination of an assessment of tax against the taxpayer.

Sec. 17. [289A.05] [ORDER OF ASSESSMENT.]

Subdivision 1. [ORDER OF ASSESSMENT; NOTICE AND DEMAND TO TAXPAYER.] (a) When a return has been filed and the commissioner determines that the tax disclosed by the return is different than the tax determined by the examination, the commissioner shall send an order of assessment to the taxpayer. The order must explain the basis for the assessment and must explain the taxpayer's appeal rights. An order of assessment is final when made but may be reconsidered by the commissioner under section 289A.16.

(b) An amount of unpaid tax shown on the order must be paid to the commissioner: (1) within 60 days after notice of the amount and demand for its payment have been mailed to the taxpayer by the commissioner; or (2) if an administrative appeal is filed under section 289A.16, within 60 days following the determination of the appeal.

Subd. 2. [ERRONEOUS REFUNDS.] An erroneous refund is considered an underpayment of tax on the date made. An assessment of a deficiency arising out of an erroneous refund may be made at any time within two years from the making of the refund. If part of the refund was induced by fraud or misrepresentation of a material fact, the assessment may be made at any time.

Subd. 3. [ASSESSMENT PRESUMED VALID.] A return or assessment of tax made by the commissioner is prima facie correct and valid. The taxpayer has the burden of establishing its incorrectness or invalidity in any related action or proceeding.

Subd. 4. [AGGREGATE REFUND OR ASSESSMENT.] The commissioner, on examining returns of a taxpayer for more than one year or period, may issue one order covering the period under examination that reflects the aggregate refund or additional tax due.

Subd. 5. [SUFFICIENCY OF NOTICE.] An order of assessment, sent postage prepaid by United States mail to the taxpayer at the taxpayer's last known address, is sufficient even if the taxpayer is deceased or is under a legal disability, or, in the case of a corporation, has terminated its existence, unless the department has been provided with a new address by a party authorized to receive notices of assessment.

Subd. 6. [ORDER OF ASSESSMENT IF JOINT INCOME TAX RETURN.] If a joint income tax return is filed by a husband and wife, an order of assessment may be a single joint notice. If the commissioner has been notified by either spouse that that spouse's address has changed and if that spouse requests it, then, instead of the single joint notice mailed to the last known address of the husband and wife, a duplicate or original of the joint notice must be sent to the requesting spouse at the address designated by the requesting spouse. The other joint notice must be mailed to the other spouse at that spouse's last known address. An assessment is not invalid for failure to send it to a spouse if the spouse actually receives the notice in the same period as if it had been mailed to that spouse at the correct address or if the spouse has failed to provide an address to the commissioner other than the last known address.

Sec. 18. [289A.06] [LIMITATIONS ON TIME FOR ASSESSMENT OF TAX.]

Subdivision 1. [GENERAL RULE.] Except as otherwise provided in this section, the amount of taxes assessable must be assessed within 3½ years after the date the return is filed.

Subd. 2. [FILING DATE.] For purposes of this section, a tax return filed before the last day prescribed by law for filing is considered to be filed on the last day.

Subd. 3. [ESTATE TAXES.] Estate taxes must be assessed within 180 days after the return and the documents required under section 289A.0214, subdivision 2, have been filed.

Subd. 4. [PROPERTY TAX REFUND.] For purposes of computing the limitation under this section, the due date of the property tax refund return as provided for in chapter 290A is the due date for an income tax return covering the year in which the rent was paid or the year preceding the year in which the property taxes are payable.

Subd. 5. [FALSE OR FRAUDULENT RETURN; NO RETURN.] Notwithstanding the limitations under subdivisions 1 and 3, the tax may be assessed at any time if a false or fraudulent return is filed or when a taxpayer fails to file a return.

Subd. 6. [OMISSION IN EXCESS OF 25 PERCENT.] Additional taxes may be assessed within 6½ years after the due date of the return or the date the return was filed, whichever is later, if:

(1) the taxpayer omits from gross income an amount properly includable in it that is in excess of 25 percent of the amount of gross income stated in the return;

(2) the taxpayer omits from a sales or withholding tax return an amount in excess of 25 percent of the taxes reported in the return; or

(3) the taxpayer omits from the gross estate assets in excess of 25 percent of the gross estate reported in the return.

Subd. 7. [FEDERAL TAX CHANGES.] If the amount of income, items of tax preference, deductions, or credits for any year of a taxpayer as reported to the Internal Revenue Service is changed or corrected by the commissioner of Internal Revenue or other officer of the United States or other competent authority, or where a renegotiation of a contract or subcontract with the United States results in a change in income, items of tax preference, deductions, or credits, or, in the case of estate tax, where there are adjustments to the taxable estate resulting in a change to the credit for state death taxes, the taxpayer shall report the change or correction or renegotiation results in writing to the commissioner, in the form required by the commissioner. The report must be submitted within 90 days after the final determination and must concede the accuracy of the determination or state how it is wrong. A taxpayer filing an amended federal tax return must also file a copy of the amended return with the commissioner of revenue within 90 days after filing the amended return.

Subd. 8. [FAILURE TO REPORT CHANGE OR CORRECTION OF FEDERAL RETURN.] If a taxpayer fails to make a report as required by subdivision 7, the commissioner may recompute the tax, including a refund, based on information available to the commissioner. The tax may be recomputed within six years after the report should have been filed, notwithstanding any period of limitations to the contrary.

Subd. 9. [REPORT MADE OF CHANGE OR CORRECTION OF FEDERAL RETURN.] If a taxpayer is required to make a report under subdivision 7, and does report the change or files a copy of the amended return, the commissioner may recompute and reassess the tax due, including a refund (1) within one year after the report or amended return is filed with the commissioner, notwithstanding any period of limitations to the contrary, or (2) within any other applicable period stated in this section, whichever period is longer. The period provided for the carryback of any amount of loss or credit is also extended as provided in this subdivision, notwithstanding any law to the contrary.

Subd. 10. [INCORRECT DETERMINATION OF FEDERAL ADJUSTED GROSS INCOME.] Notwithstanding any other provision of this chapter, if a taxpayer whose gross income is determined under section 290.01, subdivisions 20 and 20e, omits from income an amount that will under the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended through December 31, 1989, extend the statute of limitations for the assessment of federal income taxes, or otherwise incorrectly determines the taxpayer's federal adjusted gross income resulting in adjustments by the Internal Revenue Service, then the period of assessment and determination of tax will be that under the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended through December 31, 1989. When a change is made to federal income during the extended time provided under this subdivision, the provisions under subdivisions 7 to 9 regarding additional extensions apply.

Subd. 11. [NET OPERATING LOSS CARRYBACK.] If a deficiency of tax is attributable to a net operating loss carryback that has been disallowed in whole or in part, the deficiency may be assessed at any time that a deficiency for the taxable year of the loss may be assessed.

Subd. 12. [REQUEST FOR EARLY AUDIT FOR INDIVIDUAL INCOME, FIDUCIARY INCOME, AND CORPORATE FRANCHISE TAXES.] (a) Tax must be assessed within 18 months after written request for an assessment has been made in the case of income received (1) during the lifetime of a decedent, (2) by the decedent's estate during the period of administration, (3) by a trustee of a terminating trust or other fiduciary who, because of custody of assets, would be liable for the payment of tax under section 289A.029, subdivision 4, or (4) by a corporation. A proceeding in court for the collection of the tax must begin within two years after written request for the assessment (filed after the return is made and in the form the commissioner prescribes) by the personal representative or other fiduciary representing the estate of the decedent, or by the trustee of a terminating trust or other fiduciary who, because of custody of assets, would be liable for the payment of tax under section 289A.029, subdivision 4, or by the corporation. Except as provided in section 289A.10, subdivision 1, an assessment must not be made after the expiration of 3½ years after the return was filed, and an action must not be brought after the expiration of four years after the return was filed.

(b) Paragraph (a) only applies in the case of a corporation if:

(1) the written request notifies the commissioner that the corporation contemplates dissolution at or before the expiration of the 18-month period;

(2) the dissolution is begun in good faith before the expiration of the 18-month period; and

(3) the dissolution is completed within the 18-month period.

Subd. 13. [TIME LIMIT FOR ASSESSMENT AND COLLECTION FOR TRANSFEREE OR FIDUCIARY.] The period of limitation for assessment and collection of any liability of a transferee or fiduciary is as follows:

(1) In the case of the liability of an initial transferee of the property of the taxpayer, the tax may be assessed within one year after the expiration of the period of limitation of assessment against the taxpayer. The tax may be collected by action brought within one year after the expiration of the period of limitation for the starting of an action against the taxpayer.

(2) In the case of the liability of the transferee of a transferee of the property of the taxpayer, the tax may be assessed within one year after the expiration of the period of limitation for assessment against the preceding transferee, but only if within 3½ years after the expiration of the period of limitation for assessment against the taxpayer. The tax may be collected by action brought within one year after the expiration of the period of limitation for the starting of an action against the preceding transferee, but only if within four years after the expiration of the period of limitation for bringing an action against the taxpayer; except that if before the expiration of the period of limitation for the assessment of the liability of the transferee a court proceeding for the collection of the tax or liability has been begun against the taxpayer or last preceding transferee, liability of the transferee expires one year after the return of execution in the court proceeding and the period of limitation for collection by action will expire one year after the liability is assessed.

(3) In the case of the liability of a fiduciary, the tax may be assessed up to one year after the liability arises or not later than the expiration of the period for collection of the tax for which the liability arises, whichever is later, and may be collected by action brought within one year after assessment.

(4) For the purposes of this subdivision, if the taxpayer is deceased, or in the case of a corporation, has ended its existence, the period of limitation for assessment against the taxpayer will be the period that would be in effect had death or termination of existence not occurred.

As used in this subdivision, the term "transferee" includes heir, legatee, devisee, and distributee.

Subd. 14. [FAILURE TO TIMELY FILE WITHHOLDING RECONCILIATION.] If an employer fails to timely file the reconciliation required by section 289A.0212, subdivision 2, paragraph (d), withholding taxes may be assessed within the period prescribed in subdivision 1, or within one year from the date the reconciliation is filed with the commissioner, whichever is later.

Sec. 19. [289A.07] [LIMITATIONS; ARMED SERVICES.]

Subdivision 1. [EXTENSIONS FOR SERVICE MEMBERS.] The limitations of time provided by this chapter and chapter 290 relating to income taxes and chapter 271 relating to the tax court for filing returns, paying taxes, claiming refunds, commencing action thereon, appealing to the tax court from orders relating to income taxes, and appealing to the Supreme Court from decisions of the tax court relating to income taxes are extended, with respect to an individual, for the period during which the individual serves in the armed forces of the United States, or serves in support of the armed forces and as provided in section 7508 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended through December 31, 1989, or serves in an area designated by the president as a combat zone or is hospitalized outside the United States as a result of injury received while serving in the combat during that time and for a further period of six months.

Subd. 2. [INTEREST AND PENALTIES.] Interest on income tax must not be assessed or collected from an individual, and interest must not be paid upon an income tax refund to any individual, with respect to whom, and for the period during which, the limitations or time are extended as provided in subdivision 1. A penalty will not be assessed or collected from an individual for failure during that period to perform an act required by the laws described in subdivision 1.

Subd. 3. [ASSESSMENTS; ACTIONS.] The time limitations provided for the assessment of a tax, penalty, or interest, are extended, with respect to those individuals and for the period provided in subdivision 1 and for a further period of six months; and the time limitations for the commencement of action to collect a tax, penalty, or interest from those individuals are extended for a period ending six months after the expiration of the time for assessment as provided in this section.

Subd. 4. [APPLICABILITY.] Nothing in this section reduces the time within which an act is required or permitted under this chapter.

Subd. 5. [EXTENSION LIMITATIONS.] This section does not extend the time for performing any of the acts set forth in this chapter beyond the expiration of three months after the appointment of a personal representative or guardian, in this state, for any individual described in this section, except as provided in subdivision 6.

Subd. 6. [DEATH WHILE SERVING IN ARMED FORCES.] If an individual dies while in active service as a member of the military or naval forces of the United States or of any of the United Nations, an income tax imposed under chapter 290 will not be imposed for the taxable year in which the individual dies. Income tax imposed for a prior taxable year that is unpaid at the date of death (including additions to the tax, penalties) must not be assessed, and if assessed, the assessment must be abated. In addition, upon the filing of a claim for refund within seven years from the date the return was filed, the tax paid or collected with respect to any taxable year beginning after December 31, 1949, during which the decedent was in active service must be refunded.

Subd. 7. [DEATH OF CIVILIAN WHILE OUTSIDE UNITED STATES.] If an individual dies while a civilian employee of the United States as a result of wounds or injuries incurred while the individual was a civilian employee of the United States, and which were incurred outside the United States in a terroristic or military action, a tax imposed by chapter 290 does not apply with respect to the taxable year in which the death falls and with respect to any prior taxable years in the period beginning with the last taxable year ending before the taxable year in which the wounds or injury were incurred. Terroristic or military action has the meaning given it in section 692(c)(2) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended through December 31, 1989.

Sec. 20. [289A.08] [LIMITATIONS ON CLAIMS FOR REFUND.]

Subdivision 1. [TIME LIMIT; GENERALLY.] Unless otherwise provided in this chapter, a claim for a refund of an overpayment of state tax must be filed within 3½ years from the date prescribed for filing the return, plus any extension of time granted for filing the return, but only if filed within the extended time, or two years from the time the tax is paid in full, whichever period expires later.

Subd. 2. [BAD DEBT LOSS.] If a claim relates to an overpayment because of a failure to deduct a loss due to a bad debt or to a security becoming worthless, the claim is considered timely if filed within seven years from the date prescribed for the filing of the return. The refund or credit is limited to the amount of overpayment attributable to the loss.

Subd. 3. [NET OPERATING LOSS; INDIVIDUALS.] A refund or credit must be allowed for a net operating loss carryback to any taxable year authorized by section 290.095, or section 172 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended through December 31, 1989, but the refund or credit is limited to the amount of overpayment arising from the carryback.

Sec. 21. [289A.09] [BANKRUPTCY; SUSPENSION OF TIME.]

The running of the period during which a tax must be assessed or collection proceedings commenced is suspended during the period from the date of a filing of a petition in bankruptcy until 30 days after either notice to the commissioner of revenue that the bankruptcy proceedings have been closed or dismissed, or the automatic stay has been terminated or has expired, whichever occurs first.

The suspension of the statute of limitations under this section applies to the person the petition in bankruptcy is filed against and other persons who may also be wholly or partially liable for the tax.

Sec. 22. [289A.10] [CONSENT TO EXTEND STATUTE.]

Subdivision 1. [EXTENSION AGREEMENT.] If before the expiration of time prescribed in sections 289A.06 and 289A.08 for the assessment of tax or the filing of a claim for refund, both the commissioner and the taxpayer have consented in writing to the assessment or filing of a claim for refund after that time, the tax may be assessed or the claim for refund filed at any time before the expiration of the agreed upon period. The period may be extended by later agreements in writing before the expiration of the period previously agreed upon.

Subd. 2. [FEDERAL EXTENSIONS.] A taxpayer who consents to an extension of time for the assessment of federal income taxes must notify the commissioner within 90 days of the execution of the consent. The period in which the commissioner may recompute the tax is also extended, notwithstanding any period of limitations to the contrary, as follows:

(1) for the periods provided in section 289A.06, subdivisions 8 and 9;

(2) for six months following the expiration of the extended federal period of limitations when no change is made by the federal authority.

Sec. 23. [289A.11] [CLAIMS FOR REFUNDS.]

Subdivision 1. [GENERAL RIGHT TO REFUND.] (a) Subject to the requirements of this section and section 289A.08, a taxpayer who has paid a tax in excess of the taxes lawfully due and who files a written claim for refund will be refunded or credited the overpayment of the tax determined by the commissioner to be erroneously paid.

(b) The claim must specify the name of the taxpayer, the date when and the period for which the tax was paid, the kind of tax paid, the amount of the tax that the taxpayer claims was erroneously paid, the grounds on which a refund is claimed, and other information relative to the payment and in the form required by the commissioner. An income tax, estate tax, or corporate franchise tax return, or amended return claiming an overpayment constitutes a claim for refund.

(c) When, in the course of an examination, and within the time for requesting a refund, the commissioner determines that there has been an overpayment of tax, the commissioner shall refund or credit the overpayment to the taxpayer and no demand is necessary. If the overpayment exceeds $1, the amount of the overpayment must be refunded to the taxpayer. If the amount of the overpayment is less than $1, the commissioner is not required to refund. In these situations, the commissioner does not have to make written findings or serve notice by mail to the taxpayer.

(d) If the amount allowable as a credit for withholding or estimated taxes exceeds the tax against which the credit is allowable, the amount of the excess is considered an overpayment.

(e) If the entertainment tax withheld at the source exceeds by $1 or more the taxes, penalties, and interest reported in the return of the entertainment entity or imposed by section 290.9201, the excess must be refunded to the entertainment entity. If the excess is less than $1, the commissioner need not refund that amount.

(f) If the surety deposit required for a construction contract exceeds the liability of the out-of-state contractor, the commissioner shall refund the difference to the contractor.

(g) An action of the commissioner in refunding the amount of the overpayment does not constitute a determination of the correctness of the return of the taxpayer.

(h) There is appropriated from the general fund to the commissioner of revenue the amount necessary to pay refunds allowed under this section.

Subd. 2. [REFUND OF SALES TAX TO VENDORS; LIMITATION.] If a vendor has collected from a purchaser and remitted to the state a tax on a transaction that is not subject to the tax imposed by chapter 297A, the tax is refundable to the vendor only if and to the extent that it is credited to amounts due to the vendor by the purchaser or returned to the purchaser by the vendor.

Subd. 3. [WITHHOLDING TAX AND ENTERTAINER WITHHOLDING TAX REFUNDS.] When there is an overpayment of withholding tax by an employer or a person making royalty payments, or an overpayment of entertainer withholding tax by the payor, a refund allowable under this section is limited to the amount of the overpayment that was not deducted and withheld from employee wages or from the royalty payments, or from the compensation of an entertainer.

Subd. 4. [NOTICE OF REFUND.] The commissioner shall determine the amount of refund, if any, that is due, and notify the taxpayer of the determination as soon as practicable after a claim has been filed.

Subd. 5. [WITHHOLDING OF REFUNDS FROM CHILD SUPPORT DEBTORS.] (a) If a court of this state finds that a person obligated to pay child support is delinquent in making payments, the amount of child support unpaid and owing, including attorney fees and costs incurred in ascertaining or collecting child support, must be withheld from a refund due the person under chapter 290. The public agency responsible for child support enforcement or the parent or guardian of a child for whom the support, attorney fees, and costs are owed may petition the district or county court for an order providing for the withholding of the amount of child support, attorney fees, and costs unpaid and owing as determined by court order. The person from whom the refund may be withheld must be notified of the petition under the rules of civil procedure before the issuance of an order under this subdivision. The order may be granted on a showing to the court that required support payments, attorney fees, and costs have not been paid when they were due.

(b) On order of the court and on payment of $3 to the commissioner, the commissioner shall withhold the money from the refund due to the person obligated to pay the child support. The amount withheld shall be remitted to the public agency responsible for child support enforcement or to the parent or guardian petitioning on behalf of the child, after any delinquent tax obligations of the taxpayer owed to the revenue department have been satisfied. An amount received by the responsible public agency or the petitioning parent or guardian in excess of the amount of public assistance spent for the benefit of the child to be supported, or the amount of any support, attorney fees, and costs that had been the subject of the claim under this subdivision that has been paid by the taxpayer before the diversion of the refund, must be paid to the person entitled to the money. If the refund is based on a joint return, the part of the refund that must be paid to the petitioner is the proportion of the total refund that equals the proportion of the total federal adjusted gross income of the spouses that is the federal adjusted gross income of the spouse who is delinquent in making the child support payments.

(c) A petition filed under this subdivision remains in effect with respect to any refunds due under this section until the support money, attorney fees, and costs have been paid in full or the court orders the commissioner to discontinue withholding the money from the refund due the person obligated to pay the support, attorney fees, and costs. If a petition is filed under this subdivision and a claim is made under chapter 270A with respect to the individual's refund and notices of both are received before the time when payment of the refund is made on either claim, the claim relating to the liability that accrued first in time must be paid first. The amount of the refund remaining must then be applied to the other claim.

Subd. 6. [OFFSETTING OF INCOME TAX REFUNDS.] Notwithstanding any other law to the contrary, in the case of an overpayment, the commissioner, within the applicable period of limitations, may credit the amount of the overpayment against a liability with respect to Minnesota income tax on the part of the person who made the overpayment or against a liability with respect to Minnesota income tax on the part of either spouse who filed a joint return for the taxable year in which the overpayment was made and must refund a balance of more than $1 to the person if the taxpayer so requests.

Subd. 7. [REMEDIES.] (a) If the taxpayer is notified by the commissioner that the refund claim is denied in whole or in part, the taxpayer may:

(1) file an administrative appeal as provided in section 289A.16, or an appeal with the tax court, within 60 days after issuance of the commissioner's notice of denial; or

(2) file an action in the district court to recover the refund.

(b) An action in the district court on a denied claim for refund must be brought within 18 months of the date of the denial of the claim by the commissioner.

(c) No action in the district court or the tax court shall be brought within six months of the filing of the refund claim unless the commissioner denies the claim within that period.

(d) If a taxpayer files a claim for refund and the commissioner has not issued a denial of the claim, the taxpayer may bring an action in the district court or the tax court at any time after the expiration of six months of the time the claim was filed, but within four years of the date that the claim was filed.

(e) The commissioner and the taxpayer may agree to extend the period for bringing an action in the district court.

(f) An action for refund of tax by the taxpayer must be brought in the district court of the district in which lies the county of the taxpayer's residence or principal place of business. In the case of an estate or trust, the action must be brought at the principal place of its administration. Any action may be brought in the district court for Ramsey county.

Subd. 8. [MISTAKE DISCOVERED BY COMMISSIONER.] If money has been erroneously collected from a taxpayer or other person, the commissioner shall, within the period named in section 289A.08 for filing a claim for refund, and, subject to the provisions of section 270.07, subdivision 5, chapter 270A, and this section, grant a refund to that taxpayer or other person.

Sec. 24. [289A.12] [INTEREST PAYABLE TO COMMISSIONER.]

Subdivision 1. [INTEREST RATE.] When interest is required under this section, interest is computed at the rate specified in section 270.75.

Subd. 2. [LATE PAYMENT.] If a tax is not paid within the time named by law for payment, the unpaid tax bears interest from the date the tax should have been paid until the date the tax is paid.

Subd. 3. [EXTENSIONS.] When an extension of time for payment has been granted, interest must be paid from the date the payment should have been made, if no extension had been granted, until the date the tax is paid.

Subd. 4. [ADDITIONAL ASSESSMENTS.] When a taxpayer is liable for additional taxes because of a redetermination by the commissioner, or for any other reason, the additional taxes bear interest from the time the tax should have been paid, without regard to an extension allowed, until the date the tax is paid.

Subd. 5. [EXCESSIVE CLAIMS FOR REFUNDS UNDER CHAPTER 290A.] When it is determined that a claim for a property tax refund was excessive, the amount that the taxpayer must repay bears interest from the date the claim was paid until the date of repayment.

Subd. 6. [ERRONEOUS REFUNDS.] In the case of an erroneous refund, interest begins to accrue from the date the refund was paid unless the erroneous refund results from a mistake of the department, in which case no interest or penalty will be imposed, unless the deficiency assessment is not satisfied within 60 days of the order.

Subd. 7. [INSTALLMENT PAYMENTS; ESTATE TAX.] Interest must be paid on unpaid installment payments of the tax authorized under section 289A.028, subdivision 2, beginning on the date the tax was due without regard to extensions allowed or extensions elected, at the rate of interest in effect under section 270.75, nine months following the date of death.

Subd. 8. [INTEREST ON JUDGMENTS.] Notwithstanding section 549.09, if judgment is entered in favor of the commissioner with regard to any tax, the judgment bears interest at the rate given in section 270.75 from the date the judgment is entered until the date of payment.

Subd. 9. [INTEREST ON PENALTIES.] (a) A penalty imposed under section 289A.14, subdivision 1, 2, 3, 4, 5, or 6, bears interest from the date the return or payment was required to be filed or paid, including any extensions, to the date of payment of the penalty.

(b) A penalty not included in paragraph (a) bears interest only if it is not paid within ten days from the date of notice. In that case interest is imposed from the date of notice to the date of payment.

Sec. 25. [289A.13] [INTEREST ON OVERPAYMENTS.]

Subdivision 1. [INTEREST RATE.] When interest is due on an overpayment under this section, it must be computed at the rate specified in section 270.76.

Subd. 2. [CORPORATE FRANCHISE, INDIVIDUAL AND FIDUCIARY INCOME, AND ENTERTAINER TAX OVERPAYMENTS.] Interest must be paid on an overpayment refunded or credited to the taxpayer from the date of payment of the tax until the date the refund is paid or credited. For purposes of this subdivision, the prepayment of tax made by withholding of tax at the source or payment of estimated tax before the due date is considered paid on the last day prescribed by law for the payment of the tax by the taxpayer. A return filed before the due date is considered as filed on the due date.

When the amount of tax withheld at the source or paid as estimated tax or allowable as other refundable credits, or withheld from compensation of entertainers, exceeds the tax shown on the original return by $10, the amount refunded bears interest from 90 days after (1) the due date of the return of the taxpayer, or (2) the date on which the original return is filed, whichever is later, until the date the refund is paid to the taxpayer. Where the amount to be refunded is less than $10, no interest is paid. However, to the extent that the basis for the refund is a net operating loss carryback, interest is computed only from the end of the taxable year in which the loss occurs.

Subd. 3. [WITHHOLDING TAX, ENTERTAINER WITHHOLDING TAX, WITHHOLDING FROM PAYMENTS TO OUT-OF-STATE CONTRACTORS, ESTATE TAX, AND SALES TAX OVERPAYMENTS.] When a refund is due for overpayments of withholding tax, entertainer withholding tax, withholding from payments to out-of-state contractors, estate tax, or sales tax, interest is computed from the date of payment to the date the refund is paid or credited. For purposes of this subdivision, the date of payment is the later of the date the tax was finally due or was paid.

Subd. 4. [CAPITAL EQUIPMENT REFUNDS.] Notwithstanding subdivision 3, for refunds payable under section 297A.15, subdivision 5, interest is computed from the date the refund claim is filed with the commissioner.

Subd. 5. [SALES OR MOTOR VEHICLE EXCISE TAX; RETAILERS.] In the case of a refund allowed under section 297A.211, subdivision 3, interest is allowed only from the date on which the person has both registered as a retailer and filed a claim for refund.

Subd. 6. [PROPERTY TAX REFUNDS UNDER CHAPTER 290A.] (a) When a renter is owed a property tax refund, an unpaid refund bears interest after August 14, or 60 days after the refund claim was made, whichever is later, until the date the refund is paid.

(b) When any other claimant is owed a property tax refund, the unpaid refund bears interest after September 29, or 60 days after the refund claim was made, whichever is later, until the date the refund is paid.

Sec. 26. [289A.14] [CIVIL PENALTIES.]

Subdivision 1. [PENALTY FOR FAILURE TO PAY TAX.] If a tax is not paid or amounts required to be withheld are not remitted within the time specified for payment, a penalty must be added to the amount required to be shown as tax. The penalty is three percent of the tax not paid on or before the date specified for payment of the tax if the failure is for not more than 30 days, with an additional penalty of three percent of the amount of tax remaining unpaid during each additional 30 days or fraction of 30 days during which the failure continues, not exceeding 24 percent in the aggregate.

Subd. 2. [PENALTY FOR FAILURE TO MAKE AND FILE RETURN.] If a taxpayer fails to make and file a return within the time prescribed or an extension, a penalty is added to the tax. The penalty is three percent of the amount of tax not paid on or before the date prescribed for payment of the tax including any extensions if the failure is for not more than 30 days, with an additional five percent of the amount of tax remaining unpaid during each additional 30 days or fraction of 30 days, during which the failure continues, not exceeding 23 percent in the aggregate.

If a taxpayer fails to file a return, other than an income tax return of an individual, within 60 days of the date prescribed for filing of the return (determined with regard to any extension of time for filing), the addition to tax under this subdivision must not be less than the lesser of: (1) $200; or (2) the greater of (a) 25 percent of the amount required to be shown as tax on the return without reduction for any payments made or refundable credits allowable against the tax, or (b) $50.

Subd. 3. [COMBINED PENALTIES.] When penalties are imposed under subdivisions 1 and 2, except for the minimum penalty under subdivision 2, the penalties imposed under both subdivisions combined must not exceed 38 percent.

Subd. 4. [SUBSTANTIAL UNDERSTATEMENT OF LIABILITY; PENALTY.] The commissioner of revenue shall impose a penalty for substantial understatement of any tax payable to the commissioner, except a tax imposed under chapter 297A.

There must be added to the tax an amount equal to 20 percent of the amount of any underpayment attributable to the understatement. There is a substantial understatement of tax for the period if the amount of the understatement for the period exceeds the greater of: (1) ten percent of the tax required to be shown on the return for the period; or (2)(a) $10,000 in the case of a corporation other than an S corporation as defined in section 290.9725 when the tax is imposed by chapter 290, or (b) $5,000 in the case of any other taxpayer, and in the case of a corporation any tax not imposed by chapter 290. The term "understatement" means the excess of the amount of the tax required to be shown on the return for the period, over the amount of the tax imposed that is shown on the return. The amount of the understatement shall be reduced by that part of the understatement that is attributable to the tax treatment of any item by the taxpayer if there is or was substantial authority for the treatment, or any item with respect to which the relevant facts affecting the item's tax treatment are adequately disclosed in the return or in a statement attached to the return. The special rules in cases involving tax shelters provided in section 6662(d)(2)(C) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended through December 31, 1989, shall apply and shall apply to a tax shelter the principal purpose of which is the avoidance or evasion of state taxes. The commissioner may abate all or any part of the addition to the tax provided by this section on a showing by the taxpayer that there was reasonable cause for the understatement, or part of it, and that the taxpayer acted in good faith. The additional tax and penalty shall bear interest at the rate specified in section 270.75 from the time the tax should have been paid until paid.

Subd. 5. [PENALTY FOR INTENTIONAL DISREGARD OF LAW OR RULES.] If part of an additional assessment is due to negligence or intentional disregard of the provisions of the applicable tax laws or rules of the commissioner, but without intent to defraud, there must be added to the tax an amount equal to ten percent of the additional assessment.

Subd. 6. [PENALTY FOR FALSE OR FRAUDULENT RETURN, EVASION.] If a person files a false or fraudulent return, or attempts in any manner to evade or defeat a tax or payment of tax, there is imposed on the person a penalty equal to 50 percent of the tax, less amounts paid by the person on the basis of the false or fraudulent return, due for the period to which the return related.

Subd. 7. [PENALTY FOR FRIVOLOUS RETURN.] If an individual files what purports to be a tax return required by chapter 290 but which does not contain information on which the substantial correctness of the assessment may be judged or contains information that on its face shows that the assessment is substantially incorrect and the conduct is due to a position that is frivolous or a desire that appears on the purported return to delay or impede the administration of Minnesota tax laws, then the individual shall pay a penalty of $500. In a proceeding involving the issue of whether or not a person is liable for this penalty, the burden of proof is on the commissioner.

Subd. 8. [PENALTY FOR FAILURE TO FILE INFORMATIONAL RETURN.] In the case of a failure to file an informational return required by section 289A.0218 with the commissioner on the date prescribed (determined with regard to any extension of time for filing), the person failing to file the return shall pay a penalty of $50 for each failure or in the case of a partnership, S corporation, or fiduciary return, $50 for each partner, shareholder, or beneficiary; but the total amount imposed on the delinquent person for all failures during any calendar year must not exceed $25,000. If a failure to file a return is due to intentional disregard of the filing requirement, then the penalty imposed under the preceding sentence must not be less than an amount equal to:

(1) in the case of a return not described in clause (2) or (3), ten percent of the aggregate amount of the items required to be reported;

(2) in the case of a return required to be filed under section 289A.0218, subdivision 5, five percent of the gross proceeds required to be reported; and

(3) in the case of a return required to be filed under section 289A.0218, subdivision 9, relating to direct sales, $100 for each failure; however, the total amount imposed on the delinquent person for intentional failures during a calendar year must not exceed $50,000. The penalty must be collected in the same manner as a delinquent income tax.

Subd. 9. [PENALTIES FOR FAILURE TO GIVE ANNUAL REPORT INFORMATION BY EXEMPT INDIVIDUALS, CORPORATIONS.] In the case of a failure to give annual report information as prescribed by section 290.05, subdivision 4, the exempt individual or corporation shall pay the commissioner a penalty of $100 for each failure.

Subd. 10. [PENALTY FOR FAILURE TO PROVIDE SOCIAL SECURITY NUMBER AS REQUIRED.] A person who is required by law to: (1) give the person's social security account number to another person; or (2) include in a return, statement, or other document made with respect to another person that individual's social security account number, who fails to comply with the requirement when prescribed, must pay a penalty of $50 for each failure. The total amount imposed on a person for failures during a calendar year must not exceed $25,000.

Subd. 11. [PENALTIES RELATING TO INFORMATION REPORTS, WITHHOLDING.] (a) When a person required under section 289A.0212, subdivision 2, to give a statement to an employee or payee and a duplicate statement to the commissioner, or to give a reconciliation of the statements and quarterly returns to the commissioner, gives a false or fraudulent statement to an employee or payee or a false or fraudulent duplicate statement or reconciliation of statements and quarterly returns to the commissioner, or fails to give a statement or the reconciliation in the manner, when due, and showing the information required by section 289A.0212, subdivision 2, or rules prescribed by the commissioner under that section, that person is liable for a penalty of $50 for an act or failure to act. The total amount imposed on the delinquent person for failures during a calendar year must not exceed $25,000.

(b) In addition to any other penalty provided by law, an employee who gives a withholding exemption certificate or a residency affidavit to an employer that the employee has reason to know contains a materially incorrect statement is liable to the commissioner of revenue for a penalty of $500 for each instance.

(c) In addition to any other penalty provided by law, an employer who fails to submit a copy of a withholding exemption certificate or a residency affidavit required by section 290.92, subdivision 5a, clause (1)(a), (1)(b), or (2) is liable to the commissioner of revenue for a penalty of $50 for each instance.

(d) An employer or payor who fails to file an application for a withholding account number, as required by section 290.92, subdivision 24, is liable to the commissioner for a penalty of $100.

Subd. 12. [PENALTIES RELATING TO PROPERTY TAX REFUNDS.] (a) If the commissioner determines that a property tax refund claim is or was excessive and was filed with fraudulent intent, the claim must be disallowed in full. If the claim has been paid, the amount disallowed may be recovered by assessment and collection.

(b) If it is determined that a property tax refund claim is excessive and was negligently prepared, ten percent of the corrected claim must be disallowed. If the claim has been paid, the amount disallowed must be recovered by assessment and collection.

(c) An owner or managing agent who knowingly fails to give a certificate of rent constituting property tax to a renter, as required by section 290A.19, paragraph (a), is liable to the commissioner for a penalty of $100 for each failure.

(d) If the owner or managing agent knowingly gives rent certificates that report total rent constituting property taxes in excess of the amount of actual property taxes paid on the rented part of a property, the owner or managing agent is liable for a penalty equal to the greater of (1) $100 or (2) 50 percent of the excess that is reported.

(e) A claim filed after the original or extended due date will be reduced by five percent of the amount otherwise allowable, plus an additional five percent for each month of delinquency, not exceeding a total reduction of 25 percent, which may be canceled or reduced by the commissioner if the delinquency is due to reasonable cause. In any event, no claim is allowed if the initial claim is filed more than one year after the original due date for filing the claim.

Subd. 13. [PENALTIES FOR TAX RETURN PREPARERS.] (a) If an understatement of liability with respect to a return or claim for refund is due to a willful attempt in any manner to understate the liability for a tax by a person who is a tax return preparer with respect to the return or claim, the person shall pay to the commissioner a penalty of $500. If a part of a property tax refund claim is excessive due to a willful attempt in any manner to overstate the claim for relief allowed under chapter 290A by a person who is a tax refund or return preparer, the person shall pay to the commissioner a penalty of $500 with respect to the claim. These penalties may not be assessed against the employer of a tax return preparer unless the employer was actively involved in the willful attempt to understate the liability for a tax or to overstate the claim for refund. These penalties are income tax liabilities and may be assessed at any time as provided in section 289A.06, subdivision 5.

(b) A civil action in the name of the state of Minnesota may be commenced to enjoin any person who is a tax return preparer doing business in this state from further engaging in any conduct described in paragraph (c). An action under this paragraph must be brought by the attorney general in the district court for the judicial district of the tax return preparer's residence or principal place of business, or in which the taxpayer with respect to whose tax return the action is brought resides. The court may exercise its jurisdiction over the action separate and apart from any other action brought by the state of Minnesota against the tax return preparer or any taxpayer.

(c) In an action under paragraph (b), if the court finds that a tax return preparer has:

(1) engaged in any conduct subject to a civil penalty under section 289A.14 or a criminal penalty under section 289A.15;

(2) misrepresented the preparer's eligibility to practice before the department of revenue, or otherwise misrepresented the preparer's experience or education as a tax return preparer;

(3) guaranteed the payment of any tax refund or the allowance of any tax credit; or

(4) engaged in any other fraudulent or deceptive conduct that substantially interferes with the proper administration of state tax law, and injunctive relief is appropriate to prevent the recurrence of that conduct, the court may enjoin the person from further engaging in that conduct.

(d) If the court finds that a tax return preparer has continually or repeatedly engaged in conduct described in paragraph (c), and that an injunction prohibiting that conduct would not be sufficient to prevent the person's interference with the proper administration of state tax laws, the court may enjoin the person from acting as a tax return preparer. The court may not enjoin the employer of a tax return preparer for conduct described in paragraph (c) engaged in by one or more of the employer's employees unless the employer was also actively involved in that conduct.

(e) For purposes of this subdivision, the term "understatement of liability" means an understatement of the net amount payable with respect to a tax imposed by state tax law, or an overstatement of the net amount creditable or refundable with respect to a tax. The determination of whether or not there is an understatement of liability must be made without regard to any administrative or judicial action involving the taxpayer. For purposes of this subdivision, the amount determined for underpayment of estimated tax under either section 289A.026 or 289A.027 is not considered an understatement of liability.

(f) For purposes of this subdivision, the term "overstatement of claim" means an overstatement of the net amount refundable with respect to a claim for property tax relief provided by chapter 290A. The determination of whether or not there is an overstatement of a claim must be made without regard to administrative or judicial action involving the claimant.

(g) For purposes of this section, the term "tax refund or return preparer" means an individual who prepares for compensation, or who employs one or more individuals to prepare for compensation, a return of tax, or a claim for refund of tax. The preparation of a substantial part of a return or claim for refund is treated as if it were the preparation of the entire return or claim for refund. An individual is not considered a tax return preparer merely because the individual:

- (1) gives typing, reproducing, or other mechanical assistance;
- (2) prepares a return or claim for refund of the employer, or an officer or employee of the employer, by whom the individual is regularly and continuously employed;
- (3) prepares a return or claim for refund of any person as a fiduciary for that person; or
- (4) prepares a claim for refund for a taxpayer in response to a tax order issued to the taxpayer.

Subd. 14. [PENALTY FOR USE OF SALES TAX EXEMPTION CERTIFICATES TO EVADE TAX.] A person who uses an exemption certificate to buy property that will be used for purposes other than the exemption claimed, with the intent to evade payment of sales tax to the seller, is subject to a penalty of $100 for each transaction where that use of an exemption certificate has occurred.

Subd. 15. [ACCELERATED PAYMENT OF JUNE SALES TAX LIABILITY; PENALTY FOR UNDERPAYMENT.] If a vendor is required by law to submit an estimation of June sales tax liabilities and one-half payment by a certain date, and the vendor fails to remit the balance due by the date required, the vendor shall pay a penalty equal to ten percent of the amount of actual June liability required to be paid in June less the amount remitted in June. The penalty must not be imposed, however, if the amount remitted in June equals the lesser of: (1) 45 percent of the actual June liability, or (2) 50 percent of the preceding May's liability.

Subd. 16. [PENALTY FOR SALES AFTER REVOCATION.] A person who engages in the business of making retail sales after revocation of a permit under section 297A.07 is liable for a penalty of $100 for each day the person continues to make taxable sales.

Subd. 17. [OPERATOR OF FLEA MARKETS; PENALTY.] A person who fails to comply with the provisions of section 297A.041 is subject to a penalty of $100 for each day of each selling event that the operator fails to obtain evidence that a seller is the holder of a valid seller's permit issued under section 297A.04.

Subd. 18. [PAYMENT OF PENALTIES.] The penalties imposed by this section are collected and paid in the same manner as taxes.

Subd. 19. [PENALTIES ARE ADDITIONAL.] The civil penalties imposed by this section are in addition to the criminal penalties imposed by this chapter.

Sec. 27. [289A.15] [CRIMINAL PENALTIES.]

Subdivision 1. [PENALTIES FOR KNOWING FAILURE TO FILE OR PAY; WILLFUL EVASION.] (a) A person required to file a return, report, or other document with the commissioner, who knowingly, rather than accidentally, inadvertently, or negligently, fails to file it when required, is guilty of a gross misdemeanor. A person required to file a return, report, or other document who willfully attempts in any manner to evade or defeat a tax by failing to file it when required, is guilty of a felony.

(b) A person required to pay or to collect and remit a tax, who knowingly, rather than accidentally, inadvertently, or negligently, fails to do so when required, is guilty of a gross misdemeanor. A person required to pay or to collect and remit a tax, who willfully attempts to evade or defeat a tax law by failing to do so when required, is guilty of a felony.

Subd. 2. [FALSE OR FRAUDULENT RETURNS; PENALTIES.] (a) A person who files with the commissioner a return, report, or other document, known by the person to be fraudulent or false concerning a material matter, is guilty of a felony.

(b) A person who knowingly aids or assists in, or advises in the preparation or presentation of a return, report, or other document that is fraudulent or false concerning a material matter, whether or not the falsity or fraud committed is with the knowledge or consent of the person authorized or required to present the return, report, or other document, is guilty of a felony.

Subd. 3. [SALES WITHOUT PERMIT; VIOLATIONS.] (a) A person who engages in the business of making retail sales in Minnesota without the permit or permits required under chapter 297A, or a responsible officer of a corporation who so engages in business, is guilty of a gross misdemeanor.

(b) A person who engages in the business of making retail sales in Minnesota after revocation of a permit under section 297A.07, when the commissioner has not issued a new permit, is guilty of a felony.

Subd. 4. [ADVERTISING NO SALES OR USE TAX; VIOLATION.] It is a misdemeanor for a person to broadcast or publish, or arrange to have broadcast or published, an advertisement in a publication or broadcast media, printed, distributed, broadcast, or intended to be received in this state, that states that no sales or use tax is due, when the person knows the advertisement is false.

Subd. 5. [EMPLOYEE GIVING EMPLOYER FALSE INFORMATION.] An employee required to supply information to an employer under section 290.92, subdivisions 4a and 5, who knowingly fails to supply information or who knowingly supplies false or fraudulent information to an employer, is guilty of a gross misdemeanor.

Subd. 6. [COLLECTION OF TAX; PENALTY.] An agent, canvasser, or employee of a retailer, who is not authorized by permit from the commissioner, may not collect the sales tax as imposed by chapter 297A, nor sell, solicit orders for, nor deliver, any tangible personal property in this state. An agent, canvasser, or employee violating the provisions of sections 297A.14 to 297A.25 is guilty of a misdemeanor.

Subd. 7. [UNAUTHORIZED DISCLOSURE.] Any person disclosing any particulars of any tax return, without the written consent of the taxpayer making such return, in violation of the provisions of section 290.611, is guilty of a gross misdemeanor.

Subd. 8. [CRIMINAL PENALTIES.] Criminal penalties imposed by this section are in addition to any civil penalties imposed by this chapter.

Subd. 9. [STATUTE OF LIMITATIONS.] Notwithstanding section 628.26, or any other provision of the criminal laws of this state, an indictment may be found and filed, or a complaint filed, upon a criminal offense named in this section, in the proper court within six years after the offense is committed.

Subd. 10. [PERSON DEFINED.] The term "person" as used in this section includes any officer or employee of a corporation or a member or employee of a partnership who as an officer, member, or employee is under a duty to perform the act in respect to which the violation occurs.

Sec. 28. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 290.05, subdivision 4, is amended to read:

Subd. 4. (a) Corporations, individuals, estates, trusts or organizations claiming exemption under the provisions of subdivision 2 shall furnish information as to concerning their exempt status under the Internal Revenue Code.

(b) Such Corporations, individuals, estates, trusts, and organizations shall file with the commissioner of revenue a copy of any an annual report that is required to be filed with the Internal Revenue Service, no later than ten days after filing the same it with the Internal Revenue Service. Any An annual report required of a pension plan under sections 6057 to 6059 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, does not need to be filed with the commissioner.

Any person required to file a copy of a federal return pursuant to the preceding paragraph who willfully fails to file such return shall be guilty of a misdemeanor.

(c) In the event that If the Internal Revenue Service revokes, cancels or suspends, in whole or part, the exempt status of any corporation, individual, estate, trust or organization referred to in clause paragraph (a), or if the amount of gross income, deductions, credits, items of tax preference or taxable income is changed or corrected by either the taxpayer or the Internal Revenue Service, or if the taxpayer consents to any extension of time for assessment of federal income taxes ~~such~~, the corporation, individual, estate, trust or organization shall notify the commissioner in writing of ~~such~~ the action within 90 days ~~thereafter~~ after that date.

(d) The periods of limitations contained in section 290.56 shall 289A.10, subdivision 2, apply ~~whenever~~ when there has been any action referred to in clause paragraph (c), notwithstanding any period of limitations to the contrary.

Sec. 29. Minnesota Statutes Second 1989 Supplement, section 290.92, subdivision 4b, is amended to read:

Subd. 4b. [WITHHOLDING BY PARTNERSHIPS.] (a) A partnership shall deduct and withhold a tax as provided in paragraph (b) when the partnership pays or credits amounts to any of its nonresident individual partners on account of their distributive shares of partnership income for a taxable year of the partnership.

(b) The amount of tax withheld is determined by multiplying the partner's distributive share allocable to Minnesota under section 290.17, paid or credited during the taxable year by the highest rate used to determine the income tax liability for an individual under section 290.06, subdivision 2c, except that the amount of tax withheld may be determined based on tables provided by the commissioner if the partner submits a withholding exemption certificate under subdivision 5.

(c) ~~A partnership required to deduct and withhold tax under this subdivision shall file a return with the commissioner. The tax required to be deducted and withheld during that year must be paid with the return. The return and payment is due on or before the due date specified for filing the partnership return under section 290.42.~~

(d) ~~A partnership required to withhold and remit tax under this subdivision is liable for payment of the tax to the commissioner, and a person having control of or responsibility for the withholding of the tax or the filing of returns due under this subdivision is personally liable for the tax due. The commissioner may reduce or abate the tax withheld under this subdivision if the partnership had reasonable cause to believe that no tax was due under this section.~~

(e) (d) Notwithstanding paragraph (a), a partnership is not required to deduct and withhold tax for a nonresident partner if:

(1) the partner elects to have the tax due paid as part of the partnership's composite return under section 290.39, subdivision 5;

(2) the partner has Minnesota assignable federal adjusted gross income from the partnership of less than $1,000; or

(3) the partnership is liquidated or terminated, the income was generated by a transaction related to the termination or liquidation, and no cash or other property was distributed in the current or prior taxable year; or

(4) the distributive shares of partnership income are attributable to:

(i) income required to be recognized because of discharge of indebtedness;

(ii) income recognized because of a sale, exchange, or other disposition of real estate, depreciable property, or property described in section 179 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended through December 31, 1988; or to the extent that the income does not include cash received or receivable or, if there is cash received or receivable, to the extent that the cash is required to be used to pay indebtedness by the partnership or a secured debt on partnership property.

(iii) income recognized on the sale, exchange, or other disposition of any property that has been the subject of a basis reduction pursuant to section 108, 734, 743, 754, or 1017 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended through December 31, 1988,

(f) (e) For purposes of subdivisions 6, paragraph (1)(e), subdivision 6a, 7, 11, and 15, and sections 289A.0212, subdivision 2, 289A.025, subdivision 2, paragraph (c), 289A.11, 289A.13, 289A.14, and 289A.15, a partnership is considered an employer.

(g) (f) To the extent that income is exempt from withholding under paragraph (e) (d), clause (4), the commissioner has a lien in an amount up to the amount that would be required to be withheld with respect to the income of the partner attributable to the partnership interest, but for the application of paragraph (e) (d), clause (4). The lien arises under section 270.69 from the date of assessment of the tax against the partner, and attaches to that partner's share of the profits and any other money due or to become due to that partner in respect of the partnership. Notice of the lien may be sent by mail to the partnership, without the necessity for recording the lien. The notice has the force and effect of a levy under section 270.70, and is enforceable against the partnership in the manner provided by that section. Upon payment in full of the liability subsequent to the notice of lien, the partnership must be notified that the lien has been satisfied.

Sec. 30. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 290.92, subdivision 4c, is amended to read:

Subd. 4c. [WITHHOLDING BY SMALL BUSINESS CORPORATIONS.] (a) A corporation having a valid election in effect under section 290.9725 shall deduct and withhold a tax as provided in paragraph (b) when it pays or credits amounts to any of its nonresident individual shareholders as dividends or as their share of the corporations's undistributed taxable income for the taxable year.

(b) The amount of tax withheld is determined by multiplying the amount of dividends or undistributed income allocable to Minnesota under section 290.17, paid or credited to a nonresident shareholder during the taxable year by the highest rate used to determine the income tax liability of an individual under section 290.06, subdivision 2c, except that the amount of tax withheld may be determined based on tables provided by the commissioner if the shareholder submits a withholding exemption certificate under subdivision 5.

(c) A corporation required to deduct and withhold tax under this subdivision shall file a return with the commissioner. The tax required to be deducted and withheld during that year must be paid with the return. The return and payment is due on or before the due date specified for filing the corporate income tax return under section 290.42.

(d) A corporation required to withhold and remit tax under this section is liable for payment of the tax to the commissioner, and a person having control of or responsibility for the withholding of the tax or the filing of returns due under this subdivision is personally liable for the tax due.

(e) Notwithstanding paragraph (a), a corporation is not required to deduct and withhold tax for a nonresident shareholder, if:

(1) the shareholder elects to have the tax due paid as part of the corporation's composite return under section 290.39, subdivision 5;

(2) the shareholder has Minnesota assignable federal adjusted gross income from the corporation of less than $1,000; or

(3) the corporation is liquidated or terminated, the income was generated by a transaction related to the termination or liquidation, and no cash or other property was distributed in the current or prior taxable year.

(f) (d) For purposes of subdivisions 6, paragraph (1)(c), subdivision

6a, 7, 11, and 15, and sections 289A.0212, subdivision 2, 289A.025, subdivision 2, paragraph (c), 289A.11, 289A.13, 289A.14, and 289A.15, a corporation is considered an employer.

Sec. 31. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 290.92, subdivision 6a, is amended to read:

Subd. 6a. [FAILURE TO COMPLY WITH WITHHOLDING PROVISIONS.] (a) ~~Whenever any~~ When a person who is required to deduct, withhold, pay over, or deposit any tax imposed by this chapter, at the time and in the manner prescribed by law or rules fails to deduct, withhold, or pay over ~~such~~ the tax, or fails to make deposits or payments of ~~such~~ the tax and is notified of ~~any such~~ the failure by notice served upon the person in the manner prescribed for service of a summons in civil actions, then ~~all~~ the requirements of paragraph (b) shall be ~~complied with~~ met. In the case of a corporation, partnership or trust, notice served upon an officer, partner or trustee shall, for purposes of this subdivision, be ~~deemed to be considered~~ notice served upon ~~such~~ the corporation, partnership, or trust and ~~all~~ their officers, partners, or trustees ~~thereof~~.

(b) ~~Any~~ A person who is required to deduct, withhold, pay over, or deposit ~~any~~ a tax imposed by this chapter, if notice has been served upon ~~such~~ that person in accordance with paragraph (a), shall ~~thereafter~~ after that date deduct, withhold, and collect ~~such~~ the taxes and shall (not later than the end of the second banking day after any amount of such taxes is deducted, withheld or collected) deposit ~~such~~ the taxes in a separate account in a bank, savings bank or savings and loan association and shall keep the amount of ~~such~~ the taxes in ~~such~~ that account until payment over paid to the state of Minnesota. ~~Any such~~ The account shall constitute ~~constitutes~~ and must be designated as a special fund in trust for the state of Minnesota payable to the state of Minnesota by ~~such~~ that person as trustee. ~~It shall be the duty of such~~ The person upon whom such notice is served ~~to~~ shall notify the commissioner of revenue in writing of the name and address of the bank, savings bank or savings and loan association wherein ~~such~~ the account is kept, together with ~~such~~ other information as the commissioner may require. In lieu of the trust fund account, the commissioner may, when necessary ~~in order~~ to secure the withholding of the tax imposed by this chapter, require an employer to file with the department of revenue a bond in an amount determined by the commissioner, or in lieu ~~thereof~~ of it, security in a form and in an amount as the commissioner determines, ~~not to exceed more than~~ twice the estimated average liability for future monthly withholding tax periods.

(c) The commissioner of revenue, on being satisfied with respect to any notification made under paragraph (a) ~~of this subdivision~~ that ~~all~~ the requirements of law and rules with respect to the taxes imposed by this chapter have been and will ~~henceforth~~ be complied with, may cancel such the notification. Such The cancellation shall take effect at such the time as is specified in the notice of such the cancellation. All notices authorized or required under this subdivision shall must be in such the form as the commissioner may determine determines.

(d) Any person who fails to comply with any provisions of this subdivision shall, in addition to any other penalties provided by law, be guilty of a gross misdemeanor, except that the provisions of this paragraph shall not apply

(1) to any person if such person shows that there was reasonable doubt as to (a) whether the law required deduction, withholding or payment of tax or (b) what person was required by law to deduct, withhold or pay; or

(2) to any person, if such person shows that the failure to comply with the provisions of paragraph (b) is due to circumstances beyond the person's control. A lack of funds existing immediately after the payment of wages (whether or not created by such payment) shall not be considered to be circumstances beyond the control of a person.

Sec. 32. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 290.92, subdivision 24, is amended to read:

Subd. 24. [APPLICATION FOR ACCOUNT NUMBER.] An employer, or person withholding tax under section 290.923, desiring to engage in business in Minnesota shall file with the commissioner an application for a withholding account number on or before the due date of the first payment required to be made under the provisions of subdivision 6. An application for an account number shall must be made upon a form prescribed by the commissioner and shall set forth. It must give the name of the employer or payor; the location of the place or places of business, the names, addresses and social security numbers of the owners or partners, or if the employer or payor is a corporation of the officers, or if the employer or payor is a trust of the trustees, and such other information as the commissioner may require. The application shall must be filed by the owner if the employer or payor is a natural person; by a member or partner if the employer or payor is an association or partnership; by a trustee if the employer or payor be a trust, or by a person authorized to sign the application if the employer or payor is a corporation.

No fee shall be charged for the application.

The account number is not assignable.

An employer or payor who fails to file an application for a withholding account number shall be liable to the commissioner for a penalty of $100. The penalty shall be collected in the same manner as delinquent withholding tax is collected. The commissioner may abate this penalty.

Sec. 33. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 290.9201, subdivision 7, is amended to read:

Subd. 7. [WITHHOLDING ON COMPENSATION OF ENTERTAINERS.] The tax on compensation of an entertainer must be withheld at a rate of two percent of all compensation paid to the entertainment entity by the person or corporation having legal control of the payment of the compensation. ~~The payor is liable to the state for the payment of the tax required to be deducted and withheld, and is not liable to a person for the amount of the payment.~~ The compensation subject to withholding under this section is not subject to the withholding provisions of section 290.92, subdivision 2a, 3, or 28, except the provisions of ~~section~~ sections 290.92, subdivisions 6a, 7, 14, 15, and 18, 270.06, paragraph (16), 289A.0212, subdivision 2, 289A.14, and 289A.15 shall apply to withholding under this section as if the withholding were upon wages.

Sec. 34. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 290.9201, subdivision 8, is amended to read:

Subd. 8. [DEPOSIT OF ENTERTAINER WITHHOLDING.] (a) The person or corporation having legal control of the payment of compensation taxable under this section shall deposit the earnings tax with the commissioner, and shall file an entertainer withholding tax return with the commissioner, within 30 days of each performance.

(b) The withholding tax return must be in the form prescribed by the commissioner.

Sec. 35. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 290.9705, subdivision 4, is amended to read:

Subd. 4. [DEPOSITS USED AS SURETY FOR COMPLIANCE WITH INCOME AND SALES TAX PROVISIONS.] The amounts deposited with the commissioner under subdivisions 2 and 3 subdivision 1 are considered a surety to guarantee payment of income, franchise, withholding, and sales and use taxes of the contractor. The commissioner shall retain the money deposited until the commissioner determines the contractor's liability for state income, franchise, sales and use taxes, and taxes withheld under section 290.92. If the deposit exceeds the liability, the commissioner shall refund the difference to the contractor with interest at the rate specified in section 270.76 computed from the dates the amounts were deposited with the commissioner.

Sec. 36. Minnesota Statutes Second 1989 Supplement, section 290A.07, subdivision 2a, is amended to read:

Subd. 2a. A claimant who is a renter or a homeowner who occupies a manufactured home, as defined in section 274.19, subdivision 8, paragraph (c), shall receive full payment after August 1 and prior to before August 15 or 60 days after receipt of the application, whichever is later. Interest shall be added at the rate specified in section 270.76 from August 15 or 60 days after receipt of the application whichever is later.

Sec. 37. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 290A.07, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. Any A claimant not included in subdivision 2a shall receive full payment after September 15 and prior to before September 30. Interest shall be added at the rate specified in section 270.76 from September 30 or 60 days after receipt of the application, whichever is later. Interest will be computed until the date the claim is paid.

Sec. 38. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 290A.19, is amended to read:

290A.19 [OWNER OR MANAGING AGENT TO FURNISH RENT CERTIFICATE; PENALTY.]

(a) The owner or managing agent of any property for which rent is paid for occupancy as a homestead shall must furnish a certificate of rent constituting property tax to each a person who is a renter on December 31, in the form prescribed by the commissioner. If the renter moves prior to before December 31, the owner or managing agent has the option to either provide may give the certificate to the renter at the time of moving, or mail the certificate to the forwarding address if an address has been provided by the renter. The certificate shall must be made available to the renter not later than January 31 before February 1 of the year following the year in which the rent was paid.

(b) Any owner or managing agent who willfully fails to furnish a certificate to the renter and the commissioner as required by this section is liable to the commissioner for a penalty of $100 for each act or failure to act. The penalty shall be assessed and collected in the manner provided in chapter 290 for the assessment and collection of income tax. If the owner or managing agent willfully furnishes certificates that report total rent constituting property taxes in excess of the amount of actual property taxes paid on the rented part of a property, as determined under this section, the owner or managing agent is liable for a penalty equal to the greater of (1) $100 or (2) 50 percent of the excess that is reported. If the owner or managing agent reports a total amount of rent constituting property taxes that exceeds by ten percent or more the actual property taxes, the report is deemed to be willful.

(e) If the owner or managing agent elects to provide provides the renter with the certificate at the time of moving, rather than after December 31, the amount of rent constituting property taxes shall must be computed as follows:

(i) The net tax shall must be reduced by 1/12 for each month remaining in the calendar year.

(ii) In calculating the denominator of the fraction pursuant to under section 290A.03, subdivision 11, the gross rent paid through the last month of claimant's occupancy shall must be substituted for "the gross rent paid for the calendar year for the property in which the unit is located."

(d) (c) The certificate of rent constituting property taxes shall must include the address of the property, including the county, and the property tax parcel identification number and any additional information which that the commissioner determines is appropriate.

(e) (d) If the owner or managing agent fails to provide the renter with a certificate of rent constituting property taxes, the commissioner shall allocate the net tax on the building to the unit on a square footage basis or other appropriate basis as the commissioner determines. The renter shall supply the commissioner with a statement from the county treasurer which that gives the amount of property tax on the parcel, the address and property tax parcel identification number of the property, and the number of units in the building.

(f) The owner or managing agent must file a copy of the certificate of rent paid with the commissioner before April 15 of the year following the year in which the rent was paid. The commissioner may require that each owner or managing agent report on a single form the total property taxes for a property and the allocation of the property taxes as rent constituting property taxes among the renters of the property.

Sec. 39. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 297A.03, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. It shall be unlawful for any retailer to advertise or hold out or state to the public or any customer, directly or indirectly, that the tax or any part thereof will be assumed or absorbed by the retailer, or that it will not be added to the sales price or that, if added, it or any part thereof will be refunded except that in computing the tax to be collected as the result of any transaction amounts of tax less than one-half of one cent may be disregarded and amounts of tax if of one-half cent or more may be considered an additional cent. If the sales price of any sale at retail is eight cents or less, no tax shall be collected. Any person violating this provision shall be guilty of a misdemeanor.

Sec. 40. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 297A.041, is amended to read:

297A.041 [OPERATOR OF FLEA MARKETS; SELLER'S PERMITS REQUIRED; PENALTY.]

The operator of a flea market, craft show, antique show, coin show, stamp show, comic book show, convention exhibit area, or similar selling event, as a prerequisite to renting or leasing space on the premises owned or controlled by the operator to a person desiring to engage in or conduct business as a seller, shall obtain evidence that the seller is the holder of a valid seller's permit issued pursuant to under section 297A.04, or a written statement from the seller that the seller is not offering for sale any item that is taxable under this chapter.

Flea market, craft show, antique show, coin show, stamp show, comic book show, convention exhibit area, or similar selling event, as used in this section, means an activity involving a series of sales sufficient in number, scope, and character to constitute a regular course of business, and which that would not qualify as an isolated or occasional sale pursuant to under section 297A.25, subdivision 12.

Any operator who fails or refuses to comply with the provisions of this section shall be subject to a penalty payable to the commissioner of revenue of $100 for each day of each selling event that the operator fails to obtain evidence that the seller is the holder of a valid seller's permit issued pursuant to section 297A.04.

This section does not apply to an operator of a flea market, craft show, antique show, coin show, stamp show, comic book show, convention exhibit area, or similar selling event which that is: (1) held in conjunction with a community sponsored festival which that has a duration of four or fewer consecutive days no more than once a year; or (2) conducted by a nonprofit organization annually or less frequently.

Sec. 41. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 297A.17, is amended to read:

297A.17 [TAX TO BE COLLECTED; STATUS AS DEBT.]

The use tax required to be collected by the retailer constitutes a debt owed by the retailer to Minnesota and shall be a debt from the purchaser to the retailer recoverable at law in the same manner as other debts. A retailer who does not maintain a place of business within this state, as defined in section 297A.21, subdivision 1, shall not be indebted to Minnesota for amounts of use tax which it was required to collect but did not collect unless the retailer knew or had been advised by the commissioner of its obligation to collect the use tax.

Sec. 42. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 297A.18, is amended to read:

297A.18 [ADVERTISING NO TAX; MINIMUM TAX.]

It shall be unlawful for any retailer to advertise or hold out or state to the public or to any customer, directly or indirectly, that the use tax or any part thereof will be assumed or absorbed by the retailer, or that it will not be added to the sales price or that, if added, it or any part thereof will be refunded except that in computing the tax to be collected as the result of any transaction amounts of tax less than one-half of one cent may be disregarded and amounts of tax of one-half cent or more may be considered an additional cent.

It is unlawful for a person to broadcast or publish, or arrange to have broadcast or published, an advertisement in a publication or broadcast media, printed, distributed, broadcast, or intended to be received in this state, that states that no sales or use tax is due under this chapter, when the person knows the advertisement is false.

Sec. 43. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 297A.211, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. Any A person who pays the tax to the seller as provided in under section 297A.03 or pays the tax to the motor vehicle registrar as required by section 297B.02 and who meets the requirements of section 297A.211 at the time of the sale, except that the person has not registered as a retailer pursuant to under this section at the time of the sale, may register as a retailer, make a return, and file for a refund of the difference between the tax calculated under section 297A.02, 297A.14, or 297B.02 and the tax calculated under subdivision 2. The person must file for a refund within the time limitations provided in section 297A.35. Notwithstanding the provisions of section 297A.35, subdivision 1, interest shall be allowed for any refund allowed under this subdivision only from the date on which the person has both registered as a retailer and filed a claim for refund.

Sec. 44. [PURPOSE.]

It is the intent of the legislature to simplify Minnesota's tax laws by consolidating and recodifying tax administration and compliance provisions now contained in several chapters of Minnesota Statutes. Due to the complexity of the recodification, prior provisions are repealed on the effective date of the new provisions. The repealed provisions, however, continue to remain in effect until superseded by the analogous provision in the new law.

Sec. 45. [REPEALER.]

Sec. 46. [INSTRUCTIONS TO REVISOR.]

(a) If a provision of a section of Minnesota Statutes repealed or amended by this article is amended by the 1990 regular session, the revisor shall codify the amendment consistent with the recodification of the affected section by this act, notwithstanding any law to the contrary.

(b) In the next edition of Minnesota Statutes, in the sections referred to in column A, the revisor of statutes shall delete the reference in column B and insert the reference in column C. The revisor may change the references in column C to the sections of Minnesota Statutes in which the bill sections are compiled.

ARTICLE 2
COLLECTIONS

Section 1. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 270.06, is amended to read:

270.06 [POWERS AND DUTIES.]

The commissioner of revenue shall:

(1) have and exercise general supervision over the administration of the assessment and taxation laws of the state, over assessors, town, county, and city boards of review and equalization, and all other assessing officers in the performance of their duties, to the end that all assessments of property be made relatively just and equal in compliance with the laws of the state;

(2) confer with, advise, and give the necessary instructions and directions to local assessors and local boards of review throughout the state as to their duties under the laws of the state;

(3) direct proceedings, actions, and prosecutions to be instituted to enforce the laws relating to the liability and punishment of public officers and officers and agents of corporations for failure or negligence to comply with the provisions of the laws of this state governing returns of assessment and taxation of property, and cause complaints to be made against local assessors, members of boards of equalization, members of boards of review, or any other assessing or taxing officer, to the proper authority, for their removal from office for misconduct or negligence of duty;

(4) require county attorneys to assist in the commencement of prosecutions in actions or proceedings for removal, forfeiture and punishment for violation of the laws of this state in respect to the assessment and taxation of property in their respective districts or counties;

(5) require town, city, county, and other public officers to report information as to the assessment of property, collection of taxes received from licenses and other sources, and such other information as may be needful in the work of the department of revenue, in such form and upon such blanks as the commissioner may prescribe;

(6) require individuals, copartnerships, companies, associations, and corporations to furnish information concerning their capital, funded or other debt, current assets and liabilities, earnings, operating expenses, taxes, as well as all other statements now required by law for taxation purposes;

(7) summon witnesses, at a time and place reasonable under the circumstances, to appear and give testimony, and to produce books, records, papers and documents relating to any tax matter which the commissioner may have authority to investigate or determine. Provided, that any summons which does not identify the person or persons with respect to whose tax liability the summons is issued may be served only if (a) the summons relates to the investigation of a particular person or ascertainable group or class of persons, (b) there is a reasonable basis for believing that such person or group or class of persons may fail or may have failed to comply with any tax law administered by the commissioner, (c) the information sought to be obtained from the examination of the records (and the identity of the person or persons with respect to whose liability the summons is issued) is not readily available from other sources, (d) the summons is clear and specific as to the information sought to be obtained, and (e) the information sought to be obtained is limited solely to the scope of the investigation. Provided further that the party served with a summons which does not identify the person or persons with respect to whose tax liability the summons is issued shall have the right, within 20 days after service of the summons, to petition the district court for the judicial district in which lies the county in which that party is located for a determination as to whether the commissioner of revenue has complied with all the requirements in (a) to (e), and thus, whether the summons is enforceable. If no such petition is made by the party served within the time prescribed, the summons shall have the force and effect of a court order;

(8) cause the deposition of witnesses residing within or without the state, or absent therefrom, to be taken, upon notice to the interested party, if any, in like manner that depositions of witnesses are taken in civil actions in the district court, in any matter which the commissioner may have authority to investigate or determine;

(9) investigate the tax laws of other states and countries and to formulate and submit to the legislature such legislation as the commissioner may deem expedient to prevent evasions of assessment and taxing laws, and secure just and equal taxation and improvement in the system of assessment and taxation in this state;

(10) consult and confer with the governor upon the subject of taxation, the administration of the laws in regard thereto, and the progress of the work of the department of revenue, and furnish the governor, from time to time, such assistance and information as the governor may require relating to tax matters;

(11) transmit to the governor, on or before the third Monday in December of each even-numbered year, and to each member of the legislature, on or before November 15 of each even numbered year, the report of the department of revenue for the preceding years, showing all the taxable property in the state and the value of the same, in tabulated form;

(12) inquire into the methods of assessment and taxation and ascertain whether the assessors faithfully discharge their duties, particularly as to their compliance with the laws requiring the assessment of all property not exempt from taxation;

(13) exercise and perform such further powers and duties as may be required or imposed upon the commissioner of revenue by law; administer and enforce the assessment and collection of state taxes and, from time to time, make, publish, and distribute rules for the administration and enforcement of state tax laws. The rules have the force of law;

(14) promulgate rules having the force and effect of law, for the administration and enforcement of the property tax; prepare blank forms for the returns required by state tax law and distribute them throughout the state, furnishing them subject to charge on application;

(15) execute and administer any agreement with the secretary of the treasury of the United States regarding the exchange of information and administration of the tax laws of both the United States and the state of Minnesota; prescribe rules governing the qualification and practice of agents, attorneys, or other persons representing taxpayers before the commissioner. The rules may require that those persons, agents, and attorneys show that they are of good character and in good repute, have the necessary qualifications to give taxpayers valuable services, and are otherwise competent to advise and assist taxpayers in the presentation of their case before being recognized as representatives of taxpayers. After due notice and opportunity for hearing, the commissioner may suspend and disbar from further practice before the commissioner any person, agent, or attorney who is shown to be incompetent or disreputable, who refuses to comply with the rules, or who with intent to defraud, willfully or knowingly deceives, misleads, or threatens a taxpayer or prospective taxpayer, by words, circular, letter, or by advertisement. This clause does not curtail the rights of individuals to appear in their own behalf or partners or corporations' officers to appear in behalf of their respective partnerships or corporations;

(16) appoint agents as the commissioner considers necessary to make examinations and determinations. The agents have the rights and powers conferred on the commissioner to examine books, records, papers, or memoranda, subpoena witnesses, administer oaths and affirmations, and take testimony. Upon demand of an agent, the clerk or court administrator of any court shall issue a subpoena for the attendance of a witness or the production of books, papers, records, or memoranda before the agent. The commissioner may also issue subpoenas. Disobedience of subpoenas issued under this chapter shall be punished by the district court of the district in which the subpoena is issued, or in the case of a subpoena issued by the commissioner, by the district court of the district in which the party served with the subpoena is located, in the same manner as contempt of the district court;

(17) appoint and employ additional help, purchase supplies or materials, or incur other expenditures in the enforcement of state tax laws as considered necessary. The salaries of all agents and employees provided for in this chapter shall be fixed by the appointing authority, subject to the approval of the commissioner of administration;

(18) execute and administer any agreement with the secretary of the treasury of the United States or a representative of another state regarding the exchange of information and administration of the tax laws;

(16) (19) administer and enforce the provisions of sections 325D.30 to 325D.42, the Minnesota unfair cigarette sales act; and

(17) (20) authorize the use of unmarked motor vehicles to conduct seizures or criminal investigations pursuant to the commissioner's authority; and

(21) exercise other powers and perform other duties required of or imposed upon the commissioner of revenue by law.

Sec. 2. [270.101] [PERSONAL LIABILITY.]

Subdivision 1. [LIABILITY IMPOSED.] A person who, either singly or jointly with others, has the control of, supervision of, or responsibility for filing returns or reports, paying taxes, or collecting or withholding and remitting taxes and who fails to do so, or a person who is liable under any other law, is liable for the payment of taxes, penalties, and interest arising under chapters 296, 297, 297A, and 297C, or sections 290.92, 349.212, and 349.2121.

Subd. 2. [PERSON DEFINED.] The term "person" includes, but is not limited to, a corporation, estate, trust, organization, or association, whether organized for profit or not, an officer or director of a corporation, a member of a partnership, an employee, a third party (including, but not limited to, a financial institution, lender, or surety), and any other individual or entity.

Subd. 3. [PROCEDURE FOR ASSESSMENT.] The commissioner may assess liability for the taxes described in subdivision 1 against a person liable under this section. The assessment may be based upon information available to the commissioner. It must be made within the prescribed period of limitations for assessing the underlying tax. An order assessing personal liability under this section is reviewable under section 289A.16 and is appealable to tax court.

Sec. 3. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 270.65, is amended to read:

270.65 [DATE OF ASSESSMENT; DEFINITION.]

For purposes of this chapter and chapters 290, 296, and 297A, taxes administered by the commissioner, the term "date of assessment" means the date a return was filed or the date a return should have been filed, whichever is later; or, in the case of taxes determined by the commissioner, "date of assessment" means the date of the order assessing taxes; or, in the case of an amended return filed by the taxpayer, the assessment date is the date the return was filed with the commissioner.

Sec. 4. [270.652] [ALLOCATION OF PAYMENT.]

In the discretion of the commissioner of revenue, payments received for taxes may be credited first to the oldest liability not secured by a judgment or lien. For liabilities to which payments are applied, the commissioner may credit payments first to penalties, next to interest, and then to the tax due.

Sec. 5. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 270.67, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [LIABILITY AGREEMENTS.] The commissioner of revenue, or any officer or employee of the department of revenue authorized in writing by the commissioner, is authorized to enter into an agreement in writing with any taxpayer, or duly authorized agent or representative of the taxpayer, relating to the liability of the taxpayer in respect of any state tax administered by the commissioner for any taxable period ending prior to the date of the agreement. If the agreement is approved by the commissioner within the time stated in the agreement, or later agreed to, The agreement shall be final and conclusive; and, except upon a showing of fraud or malfeasance, or misrepresentation of a material fact, the case shall not be reopened as to the matters agreed upon, or the agreement modified, by any officer, employee, or agent of the state; and, in any suit, action, or proceeding, the agreement, or any determination, assessment, collection, payment, abatement, refund, or credit made in accordance with the agreement, shall not be annulled, modified, set aside, or disregarded.

Sec. 6. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 270.67, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [EXTENSION AGREEMENTS.] When any portion of any tax payable to the commissioner of revenue together with interest and penalty thereon, if any, has not been paid six months from the date prescribed by law for its payment, the commissioner may extend the time for payment for a further period ~~not to exceed 36 months~~. When the authority of this section is invoked, the extension shall be evidenced by written agreement signed by the taxpayer and the commissioner, stating the amount of the tax with penalty and interest, if any, and providing for the payment of the amount in regular weekly, semimonthly or monthly installments. The agreement shall contain a confession of judgment for the amount and for any unpaid portion thereof and shall provide that the commissioner may forthwith enter judgment against the taxpayer in the district court of the county of residence as shown upon the taxpayer's tax return for the unpaid portion of the amount specified in the extension agreement. The commissioner may accept other collateral the commissioner considers appropriate to secure satisfaction of the tax liability. The principal sum specified in the agreement shall bear interest at the rate specified in section 270.75 on all unpaid portions thereof until the same has been fully paid or the unpaid portion thereof has been entered as a judgment. The judgment shall bear interest at the rate specified in section 270.75. If it appears to the commissioner that the tax reported by the taxpayer is in excess of the amount actually owing by the taxpayer, the extension agreement or the judgment entered pursuant thereto shall be corrected. If after making the extension agreement or entering judgment with respect thereto, the commissioner determines that the tax as reported by the taxpayer is less than the amount actually due, the commissioner shall assess a further tax in accordance with the provisions of law applicable to the tax. The authority granted to the commissioner by this section is in addition to any other authority granted to the commissioner by law to extend the time of payment or the time for filing a return and shall not be construed in limitation thereof.

Sec. 7. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 270.68, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [LEGAL ACTION.] In addition to all other methods authorized by law for the collection of tax, if any tax payable to the commissioner of revenue or to the department of revenue, including penalties and interest thereon, is not paid within 60 days after it is required by law to be paid, the commissioner of revenue may, proceed under this subdivision. Within five years after the date of assessment of the tax, or, if the action is to renew a judgment, at any time before the judgment's expiration, the commissioner may bring an action at law against the person liable for the payment or collection of the tax, in the name of the state, for the recovery of the tax and interest and penalties due in respect thereof. The action shall be brought in the district court of the judicial district in which lies the county of the residence or principal place of business within this state of the taxpayer, or, in the case of an estate or trust, of the place of its principal administration, and for this purpose the place named as such in the return, if any, made by the taxpayer shall be conclusive against the taxpayer in this matter. If no place is named in the return, the action may be commenced in Ramsey county. The action shall be commenced by filing with the court administrator a statement showing the name and address of the taxpayer, if known, an itemized summary of the taxable periods and the type of tax, the tax due and unpaid and the interest and penalties due with respect thereto under the provisions of law applicable to the tax, and shall contain a prayer that the court adjudge the taxpayer to be indebted on account of the taxes, interest, and penalties in the amount specified in the statement; a copy of the statement shall be furnished to the court administrator therewith. The court administrator shall mail a copy of the statement by certified mail to the taxpayer at the address given in the return, if any; and, if no address is given, then at to the taxpayer's last known address, within five days after the same is filed, except that, if the taxpayer's address is not known, notice shall be made by posting a copy of the statement for ten days in the place in the courthouse where public notices are regularly posted. To litigate the claim, or any part thereof of it, the taxpayer shall file a verified answer with the court administrator setting forth objections to the claim, or any part thereof; the answer shall be filed upon the commissioner on or before the 20th day after the date of mailing the statement; or, if notice has been given by posting, on or before the 20th day after the expiration of the period during which the notice was required to be posted. If no answer is filed served within the specified time, the court administrator, upon the filing of an affidavit of default, shall enter judgment for the state in the amount prayed for, plus costs of $10. If an answer is filed, the issues raised shall stand for trial as soon as possible after the filing of the answer, and the court shall determine the issues and direct judgment accordingly; and, if the taxes, interest, or penalties are sustained to any extent over the amount rendered by the taxpayer, shall assess $10 costs against the taxpayer. The court shall disregard all technicalities and matters of form not affecting the substantial merits. The commissioner may call upon the county attorney or the attorney general to conduct the proceedings on behalf of the state. Execution shall be issued upon the judgment at the request of the commissioner, and the execution shall, in all other respects, be governed by the laws applicable to executions issued on judgments. Only the homestead and household goods of the judgment debtor shall be exempt from seizure and sale upon the execution.

Sec. 8. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 270.68, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [TAX PRESUMED VALID.] The tax, as assessed by the commissioner, with any penalties included therein, shall be presumed to be valid and correctly determined and assessed, and the burden shall be upon the taxpayer to show its incorrectness or invalidity. The A statement filed by the commissioner with the court administrator, as provided in subdivision 1, or any other certificate by the commissioner of showing the amount of the tax and penalties as determined or assessed by the commissioner, shall be is admissible in evidence and shall establish prima facie the facts set forth therein.

Sec. 9. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 270.69, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [FILING OF LIENS NECESSARY FOR ENFORCEABILITY AGAINST CERTAIN PERSONS.] The lien imposed by subdivision 1 is not enforceable against any purchaser, mortgagee, pledgee, holder of a uniform commercial code security interest, mechanic's lienor, or judgment lien creditor whose interest has been duly perfected or is entitled to protection under applicable provisions of state law, until a notice of lien has been filed by the commissioner of revenue in the office of the county recorder of the county in which the real property is situated, or in the case of personal property belonging to an individual who is not a resident of this state, or which is to a corporation, partnership, or other organization, in the office of the secretary of state, or in the case of personal property belonging to a resident individual, in the office of the county recorder of the county of residence of the individual. Notwithstanding any other law to the contrary, the department of revenue is exempt from the payment of fees at the time the lien is offered for filing or recording. The fee for filing or recording the lien must be paid at the time the release of lien is offered for filing or recording. Notwithstanding any law to the contrary, the fee for filing or recording the lien or the release of lien is $15.

Sec. 10. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 270.69, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [EXEMPT PROPERTY.] The lien imposed on personal property by this section, even though properly filed, is not enforceable: (1) against a purchaser with respect to tangible personal property purchased at retail, in the ordinary course of the seller's trade or business, unless at the time of purchase the purchaser intends the purchase to or knows the purchase will hinder, evade, or defeat the collection of a tax; or (2) against the personal property listed as exempt in sections 550.37, 550.38, and 550.39.

Sec. 11. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 270.69, subdivision 7, is amended to read:

Subd. 7. [NOTICE OF MORTGAGE FORECLOSURE OR CONTRACT TERMINATION.] If a lien has been filed by the commissioner of revenue against real property pursuant to this section, and, subsequent to the recording of the lien, In the case of a mortgage foreclosure upon the real property is commenced under chapter 580, or a termination of contract of sale of the real property is commenced under section 559.21, if the commissioner has filed a lien under this section before the foreclosure sale or date of termination, notice of the mortgage foreclosure or termination of contract of sale shall be mailed to the commissioner not less than 25 days prior to the foreclosure sale or date of termination. Provided, notice need not be given pursuant to this subdivision if the lien of the commissioner has been filed within 30 days or less prior to the foreclosure sale or date of termination. The contents of the notice shall be as prescribed in section 7425(c)(1) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, as amended through December 31, 1982, must contain the following information: (1) the name and address of the taxpayer; (2) a copy of the notice of mortgage foreclosure or contract for deed cancellation; (3) a copy of the lien filed by the commissioner; (4) the total unpaid balance of the mortgage or contract for deed; (5) a legal description of the property; and (6) the fair market value of the property.

Sec. 12. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 270.69, subdivision 8, is amended to read:

Subd. 8. [FILING ENTITLEMENT.] Execution of notices of liens or of other notices affecting state tax liens by the original or facsimile signature of the commissioner of revenue or a delegate entitles them to be filed, and no other attestation, certification, or acknowledgment is necessary.

Sec. 13. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 270.69, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 12. [LIEN RELEASE FEE.] A fee of $25 must be paid to the commissioner of revenue for each duplicate of an original release of lien.

Sec. 14. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 270.70, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [AUTHORITY OF COMMISSIONER.] If any tax payable to the commissioner of revenue or to the department of revenue is not paid when due, such tax may be collected by the commissioner of revenue within five years after the date of assessment of the tax, or if a lien has been filed, during the period the lien is enforceable, or if the tax judgment has been filed, within the statutory period of enforcement of a valid tax judgment, by a levy upon all property and rights to property, including any property in the possession of law enforcement officials, of the person liable for the payment or collection of such tax (except that which is exempt from execution pursuant to section 550.37) or property on which there is a lien provided in section 270.69. For this purpose, the term "tax" shall include any penalty, interest and costs properly payable. The term "levy" includes the power of distraint and seizure by any means.

Sec. 15. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 270.73, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [POSTING, NOTICE.] Pursuant to section 270B.12, subdivision 4, the commissioner shall, by the 15th of each month, submit to the commissioner of public safety a list of all taxpayers who are required to withhold or collect the tax imposed by section 290.92 or 297A.02, or local sales and use tax payable to the commissioner of revenue, and who are 30 days or more delinquent in either filing a tax return or paying the tax. At least ten days before notifying the commissioner of public safety, the commissioner of revenue shall notify the taxpayer of the intended action.

The commissioner of public safety shall post the list in the same manner as provided in section 340A.318, subdivision 3. The list will prominently show the date of posting. If a taxpayer previously listed cures the delinquency by filing all returns and paying all taxes, the commissioner shall notify the commissioner of public safety within two business days that the delinquency was cured.

Sec. 16. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 290.92, subdivision 23, is amended to read:

Subd. 23. [WITHHOLDING BY EMPLOYER OF DELINQUENT TAXES.] (1) The commissioner may, within five years after the date of assessment of the tax, or if a lien has been filed under section 270.69, within the statutory period for enforcement of the lien, give notice to any employer deriving income which has a taxable situs in this state regardless of whether the income is exempt from taxation, that an employee of that employer is delinquent in a certain amount with respect to any state taxes, including penalties, interest and costs. The commissioner can proceed under this subdivision only if the tax is uncontested or if the time for appeal of the tax has expired. The commissioner shall not proceed under this subdivision until the expiration of 30 days after mailing to the taxpayer, at the taxpayer's last known address, a written notice of (a) the amount of taxes, interest, and penalties due from the taxpayer and demand for their payment, and (b) the commissioner's intention to require additional withholding by the taxpayer's employer pursuant to this subdivision. The effect of the notice shall expire 180 days after it has been mailed to the taxpayer provided that the notice may be renewed by mailing a new notice which is in accordance with this subdivision. The renewed notice shall have the effect of reinstating the priority of the original claim. The notice to the taxpayer shall be in substantially the same form as that provided in section 571.41. The notice shall further inform the taxpayer of the wage exemptions contained in section 550.37, subdivision 14. If no statement of exemption is received by the commissioner within 30 days from the mailing of the notice, the commissioner may proceed under this subdivision. The notice to the taxpayer's employer may be served by mail or by delivery by an employee of the department of revenue and shall be in substantially the same form as provided in section 571.495. Upon receipt of notice, the employer shall withhold from compensation due or to become due to the employee, the total amount shown by the notice, subject to the provisions of section 571.55. The employer shall continue to withhold each pay period until the total amount shown by the notice is paid in full released by the commissioner under section 270.709. Upon receipt of notice by the employer, the claim of the state of Minnesota shall have priority over any subsequent garnishments or wage assignments. The commissioner may arrange between the employer and the employee for withholding a portion of the total amount due the employee each pay period, until the total amount shown by the notice plus accrued interest has been withheld.

The "compensation due" any employee is defined in accordance with the provisions of section 571.55. The maximum withholding allowed under this subdivision for any one pay period shall be decreased by any amounts payable pursuant to a garnishment action with respect to which the employer was served prior to being served with the notice of delinquency and any amounts covered by any irrevocable and previously effective assignment of wages; the employer shall give notice to the department of the amounts and the facts relating to such assignments within ten days after the service of the notice of delinquency on the form provided by the department of revenue as noted in this subdivision. In crediting amounts withheld against delinquent taxes of an employee, the department shall apply amounts withheld in the following order: penalties, interest, tax and costs.

(2) If the employee ceases to be employed by the employer before the full amount set forth in a notice of delinquency plus accrued interest has been withheld, the employer shall immediately notify the commissioner in writing of the termination date of the employee and the total amount withheld. No employer may discharge any employee by reason of the fact that the commissioner has proceeded under this subdivision. If an employer discharges an employee in violation of this provision, the employee shall have the same remedy as provided in section 571.61, subdivision 2.

(3) Within ten days after the expiration of such pay period, the employer shall, by the date prescribed in subdivision 6, remit to the commissioner, on a form and in the manner prescribed by the commissioner, the amount withheld during the calendar quarter each pay period under this subdivision. Should any employer, after notice, willfully fail to withhold in accordance with the notice and this subdivision, or willfully fail to remit any amount withheld as required by this subdivision, the employer shall be liable for the total amount set forth in the notice together with accrued interest which may be collected by any means provided by law relating to taxation. No amount required to be paid by an employer by reason of the employer's failure to remit under this subdivision, may be deducted from the gross income of the employer, under sections 290.09, subdivision 4 or 290.01, subdivisions 20 to 20f. Any amount collected from the employer for failure to withhold or for failure to remit under this subdivision shall be credited to the employee's account in the following manner: penalties, interest, tax and costs.

(4) Clauses (1), (2) and (3), except provisions imposing a liability on the employer for failure to withhold or remit, shall apply to cases in which the employer is the United States or any instrumentality thereof or this state or any municipality or other subordinate unit thereof.

(5) The commissioner shall refund to the employee excess amounts withheld from the employee under this subdivision. If any excess results from payments by the employer because of willful failure to withhold or remit as prescribed in clause (3) above, the excess attributable to the employer's payment shall be refunded to the employer.

(6) Employers required to withhold delinquent taxes, penalties, interest and costs under this subdivision shall not be required to compute any additional interest, costs or other charges to be withheld.

(7) The collection remedy provided to the commissioner by this subdivision shall have the same legal effect as if it were a levy made pursuant to section 270.70.

Sec. 17. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 524.3-1001, is amended to read:

524.3-1001 [FORMAL PROCEEDINGS TERMINATING ADMINISTRATION; TESTATE OR INTESTATE; ORDER OF DISTRIBUTION, DECREE, AND GENERAL PROTECTION.]

(a) (1) A personal representative or any interested person may petition for an order of complete settlement of the estate. The personal representative may petition at any time, and any other interested person may petition after one year from the appointment of the original personal representative except that no petition under this section may be entertained until the time for presenting claims which arose prior to the death of the decedent has expired. The petition may request the court to determine testacy, if not previously determined, to consider the final account or compel or approve an accounting and distribution, to construe any will or determine heirs and adjudicate the final settlement and distribution of the estate. After notice to all interested persons and hearing the court may enter an order or orders, on appropriate conditions, determining the persons entitled to distribution of the estate, and, as circumstances require, approving settlement and directing or approving distribution of the estate and discharging the personal representative from further claim or demand of any interested person.

(2) In such petition for complete settlement of the estate, the petitioner may apply for a decree. Upon the hearing, if in the best interests of interested persons, the court may issue its decree which shall determine the persons entitled to the estate and assign the same to them in lieu of ordering the assignment by the personal representative. The decree shall name the heirs and distributees, state their relationship to the decedent, describe the property, and state the proportions or part thereof to which each is entitled. In the estate of a testate decedent, no heirs shall be named in the decree unless all heirs be ascertained.

(3) In solvent estates, the hearing may be waived by written consent to the proposed account and decree of distribution or order of distribution by all heirs or distributees, and the court may then enter its order allowing the account and issue its decree or order of distribution.

(4) Where a decree or order for distribution is issued, the personal representative shall not be discharged until all property is paid or transferred to the persons entitled thereto, and the personal representative has otherwise fully discharged the trust. If objections are an order assessing estate tax or request for documents is filed with the court by the commissioner of revenue, no discharge shall be issued until the objections are determined assessment is paid or the request is complied with. If no objection order assessing estate tax or request for documents is filed, the court shall have the power to settle and distribute the estate and discharge the personal representative without regard to tax obligations.

(b) If one or more heirs or devisees were omitted as parties in, or were not given notice of, a previous formal testacy proceeding, the court, on proper petition for an order of complete settlement of the estate under this section, and after notice to the omitted or unnotified persons and other interested parties determined to be interested on the assumption that the previous order concerning testacy is conclusive as to those given notice of the earlier proceeding, may determine testacy as it affects the omitted persons and confirm or alter the previous order of testacy as it affects all interested persons as appropriate in the light of the new proofs. In the absence of objection by an omitted or unnotified person, evidence received in the original testacy proceeding shall constitute prima facie proof of due execution of any will previously admitted to probate, or of the fact that the decedent left no valid will if the prior proceedings determined this fact.

Sec. 18. [REPEALER.]

(a) Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 270.10, subdivision 4, is repealed.

(b) Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 270.08 is repealed.

(c) Minnesota Statutes 1988, sections 290.53, subdivision 5 and 297A.39, subdivision 5, are repealed.

(d) Minnesota Statutes 1988, sections 290.52; 291.31, subdivision 2; 297A.29; and 297A.37, are repealed.

Sec. 19. [EFFECTIVE DATES.]

Sections 1, 3, 13, 15, 16, 17, and 18, paragraph (d), are effective August 1, 1990.

Sections 5, 6, 7, 8, 14, and 18, paragraph (b), are effective the day following final enactment.

Sections 9 and 10 are effective for liens imposed on or after August 1, 1990.

Section 11 is effective for mortgage foreclosures or terminations of contracts of sale of real property commenced after August 1, 1990.

Section 12 is effective for notices executed on or after August 1, 1990.

Sections 4 and 18, paragraph (c), are effective for payments received on or after August 1, 1990.

Sections 2 and 18, paragraph (a), are effective for taxes becoming due on or after August 1, 1990.

ARTICLE 3

GASOLINE AND SPECIAL FUEL TAXES

Section 1. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 296.18, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [FAILURE TO USE OR SELL GASOLINE OR SPECIAL FUEL FOR INTENDED PURPOSES; REPORTS REQUIRED.] (1) Any person who shall buy aviation gasoline or special fuel for aircraft use and who shall have paid the excise taxes due thereon directly or indirectly through the amount of the tax being included in the price thereof, or otherwise, and shall use said gasoline or special fuel in motor vehicles or shall knowingly sell it to any person for use in motor vehicles shall, on or before the twenty-third day of the month following that in which such gasoline or special fuel was so used or sold, report the fact of such use or sale to the commissioner in such form as the commissioner may prescribe.

(2) Any person who shall buy gasoline other than aviation gasoline and who shall have paid the motor vehicle gasoline excise tax directly or indirectly through the amount of the tax being included in the price of the gasoline, or otherwise, who shall knowingly sell such gasoline to any person to be used for the purpose of producing or generating power for propelling aircraft, or who shall receive, store, or withdraw from storage such gasoline to be used for that purpose, shall, on or before the 23rd day of the month following that in which such gasoline was so sold, stored, or withdrawn from storage, report the fact of such sale, storage, or withdrawal from storage to the commissioner in such form as the commissioner may prescribe.

(3) Any person who shall buy aviation gasoline or special fuel for aircraft use and who shall have paid the excise taxes directly or indirectly through the amount of the tax being included in the price thereof, or otherwise, who shall not use it in motor vehicles or receive, sell, store, or withdraw it from storage for the purpose of producing or generating power for propelling aircraft, shall be reimbursed and repaid the amount of the tax paid upon filing with the commissioner a signed claim in writing in such form and containing such information as the commissioner shall require and accompanied by the original invoice thereof. By signing any such claim which is false or fraudulent, the applicant shall be subject to the penalties provided in ~~this~~ section 296.25 for knowingly or willfully making a false claim. The claim shall set forth the total amount of the aviation gasoline or special fuel for aircraft use so purchased and used by the applicant, and shall state when and for what purpose it was used. When a claim contains an error in computation or preparation, the commissioner is authorized to adjust the claim in accordance with the evidence shown on the claim or other information available to the commissioner. The commissioner, on being satisfied that the claimant is entitled to payment, shall approve the claim and transmit it to the commissioner of finance. No repayment shall be made unless the claim and invoice shall be filed with the commissioner within one year from the date of the purchase. The postmark on the envelope in which the claim is mailed shall determine the date of filing.

Sec. 2. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 296.18, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [PENALTIES CIVIL PENALTY FOR FILING FALSE CLAIMS CLAIM.] Every person who shall make any false statement in any claim or invoice filed with the commissioner, or knowingly file with the commissioner any claim or invoice containing any false statement or collect or cause to be paid to the person or to another a refund without being entitled thereto, when acting pursuant to the provisions of subdivision 1 or 2, clause 3, shall forfeit the full amount of the claim and be guilty of a misdemeanor. Every A person who violates section 296.25, subdivision 1, paragraph (a) or (b), shall forfeit the full amount of the claim. In addition, a person who is convicted under the provisions of this subdivision shall section 296.25, subdivision 1, paragraph (a) or (b), for filing a false statement or claim shall, in addition to any criminal penalties imposed, be prohibited from filing with the commissioner any claim for refund upon gasoline purchased within six months after such conviction.

Sec. 3. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 296.25, is amended to read:

296.25 [VIOLATIONS, CRIMINAL PENALTIES.]

Subdivision 1. [PENALTIES IMPOSED.] Any person who fails to comply with any provisions of sections 296.01 to 296.421, or who makes any false statement in any report, record, or sales ticket required by sections 296.12, 296.14, 296.17, subdivision 5, 296.18, subdivision 2, or 296.21, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor. A minimum fine of $200 shall be imposed on a person who fails to obtain a license or trip permit required under section 296.17, subdivisions 10 and 17.

Prosecutions commenced under this section may be brought in the county in which the defendant resides or in Ramsey county.

The county attorney of any county in which the action is commenced, shall on request of the commissioner of revenue, prosecute violations of this chapter. Costs, fees, and expenses incurred by any county attorney in litigation in connection with the action may be paid from appropriations to the commissioner of revenue for the administration of this chapter. (a) A person who fails to comply with a provision of sections 296.01 to 296.421, or who knowingly provides false information, including, but not limited to, false odometer readings, or who knowingly makes a false statement in a report, record, claim, or sales ticket required by sections 296.12, 296.14, 296.17, subdivisions 5, or 7 to 22; 296.18, subdivision 2; or 296.21, is guilty of a gross misdemeanor.

(b) A person who willfully attempts in any manner to evade or defeat any tax imposed by sections 296.01 to 296.421, including, but not limited to, making and subscribing any false statement in any report, record, claim, or sales ticket required by sections 296.12; 296.14; 296.17, subdivisions 5, or 7 to 22; 296.18, subdivision 2; and 296.21; or making a false claim for a refund under section 296.18, subdivision 4, is guilty of a felony.

(c) It is a misdemeanor for a person to operate, or cause to be operated, a licensed motor vehicle on the public highways of this state on special fuel on which the excise tax provided by this chapter has not been paid or the liability therefore assumed by another person licensed under this chapter. A person who uses gasoline, delivered into an on-farm bulk storage tank and on which no tax has been collected, for propelling a motor vehicle on the public highways of this state is also guilty of a misdemeanor.

(d) An officer or employee of the state of Minnesota charged with the enforcement of a provision of sections 296.01 to 296.421 who is employed by or who engages in business as a distributor or dealer in petroleum products is guilty of a misdemeanor.

(e) The authorization in this chapter for the collection of the excise taxes by persons other than the commissioner for and in behalf of the state of Minnesota establishes a fiduciary relationship, for the violation of which, in failure to make payment when due and payable, the person so authorized to collect these excise taxes shall be deemed guilty of a violation of section 609.54, and punished accordingly.

(f) A minimum fine of $200 shall be imposed on a person who fails to obtain a license or trip permit required under section 296.17, subdivisions 10 and 17.

Subd. 2. [PROSECUTION OF VIOLATIONS.] It is a misdemeanor for any person to operate, or cause to be operated, a licensed motor vehicle on the public highways of this state on special fuel on which the excise tax provided by this chapter has not been paid or the liability therefor assumed by another person licensed under this chapter. Prosecutions under this section may be brought in the county in which the defendant resides or in Ramsey county. On request of the commissioner of revenue, the county attorney of a county in which the action is commenced shall prosecute violations of this chapter. Costs, fees, and expenses incurred by any county attorney in litigation in connection with the action may be paid from appropriations to the commissioner of revenue for the administration of this chapter.

Sec. 4. [REPEALER.]

Minnesota Statutes 1988, sections 296.027; 296.16, subdivision 3; 296.17, subdivision 13; 296.18, subdivisions 3a and 7; and 296.24, are repealed.

Sec. 5. [EFFECTIVE DATES.]

Section 1 is effective for sales occurring on or after August 1, 1990.

Section 2 is effective for statements or claims filed on or after August 1, 1990.

Section 3 is effective for acts or violations occurring on or after August 1, 1990.

Section 4 is effective August 1, 1990.

ARTICLE 4

SALES AND USE, MOTOR VEHICLE EXCISE, AND PETROLEUM PRODUCTS TAXES

Section 1. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 168A.10, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. If an owner transfers interest in a vehicle other than by the creation of a security interest, the owner shall at the time of the delivery of the vehicle execute an assignment and warranty of title to the transferee and shall state the actual selling price in the space provided therefor on the certificate. With respect to motor vehicles subject to the provisions of section 325E.15, the transferor shall also, in the space provided therefor on the certificate, state the true cumulative mileage registered on the odometer or that the actual mileage is unknown if the odometer reading is known by the transferor to be different from the true mileage. The transferor shall cause the certificate and assignment to be delivered to the transferee immediately.

Sec. 2. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 296.06, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [REQUIREMENTS FOR ISSUANCE.] A distributor's license shall be issued to any responsible person qualifying as a distributor who makes application therefor, and who shall pay to the commissioner at the time thereof and annually thereafter a license fee of $10, and who shall further comply with the following conditions:

(1) A written application shall be made in a manner approved by the commissioner, who shall require the applicant or licensee to deposit with the state treasurer securities of the United States government or the state of Minnesota or to execute and file a bond, with a corporate surety approved by the commissioner, to the state of Minnesota in an amount to be determined by the commissioner and in a form to be fixed by the commissioner and approved by the attorney general, and which shall be conditioned for the payment when due of all excise taxes, inspection fees, penalties, and accrued interest arising in the ordinary course of business or by reason of any delinquent money which may be due the state of Minnesota; the bond shall cover all places of business within the state where petroleum products are received by the licensee; and the applicant or licensee shall designate and maintain an agent in this state upon whom service may be had for all purposes of this section.

(2) An initial applicant for a distributor's license shall furnish a bond in a minimum sum of $3,000 for the first year;

(3) The commissioner, on reaching the opinion that the bond given by a licensee is inadequate in amount to fully protect the state, shall require an additional bond in such amount as the commissioner deems sufficient;

(4) A licensee who desires to be exempt from depositing securities or furnishing such bond, as hereinbefore provided shall furnish an itemized financial statement showing the assets and the liabilities of the applicant and if it shall appear to the commissioner, from the financial statement or otherwise, that the applicant is financially responsible, then the commissioner may exempt such applicant from depositing such securities or furnishing such bond until the commissioner otherwise orders.

(5) ~~The premium on any bond required under clauses (1) and (2), and on any additional bond required under clause (3), shall be paid by the commissioner out of a bond premium fund required to be set up from an appropriation by the legislature from whatever funds are available. All of said bonds required during each license period shall be purchased by the commissioner of administration from the lowest responsible bidder after advertising for competitive bids in the manner prescribed by Laws 1939, chapter 431, article II, as amended. The commissioner of administration shall call for bids within a reasonable period prior to the commencement of license period.~~

(6) Each license period shall be for one year ending each June 30.

(7) (6) Upon application to the commissioner and compliance by the applicant with the provisions of this subdivision, the commissioner also shall issue a distributor's license to (a) any person engaged in this state in the bulk storage of petroleum products and the distribution thereof by tank car or tank truck or both, and (b) any person holding an unrevoked license as a distributor since January 1, 1947, and (c) any person holding a license and performing a function under the motor fuel tax law of an adjoining state equivalent to that of a distributor under this act, who desires to ship or deliver petroleum products from that state to persons in this state not licensed as distributors in this state and who agrees to assume with respect to all petroleum products so shipped or delivered the liabilities of a distributor receiving petroleum products in this state, provided, however, that any such license shall be issued only for the purpose of permitting such person to receive in this state the petroleum products so shipped or delivered. Except as herein provided, all persons licensed as distributors under this clause shall have the same rights and privileges and be subject to the same duties, requirements and penalties as other licensed distributors.

Sec. 3. Minnesota Statutes Second 1989 Supplement, section 297A.01, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. A "sale" and a "purchase" includes, but is not limited to, each of the following transactions:

(a) Any transfer of title or possession, or both, of tangible personal property, whether absolutely or conditionally, and the leasing of or the granting of a license to use or consume tangible personal property other than manufactured homes used for residential purposes for a continuous period of 30 days or more, for a consideration in money or by exchange or barter;

(b) The production, fabrication, printing or processing of tangible personal property for a consideration for consumers who furnish either directly or indirectly the materials used in the production, fabrication, printing, or processing;

(c) The furnishing, preparing, or serving for a consideration of food, meals or drinks; ~~not including.~~ "Sale" does not include:

(1) meals or drinks served to patients, inmates, or persons residing at hospitals, sanitariums, nursing homes, senior citizens homes, and correctional, detention, and detoxification facilities,

(2) meals or drinks purchased for and served exclusively to individuals who are 60 years of age or over and their spouses or to the handicapped and their spouses by governmental agencies, non-profit organizations, agencies, or churches or pursuant to any program funded in whole or part through 42 USCA sections 3001 through 3045, wherever delivered, prepared or served, or

(3) meals and lunches served at public and private schools, universities or colleges. ~~"Sales" also includes meals furnished by employers to employees at less than fair market value, except meals furnished to employees of restaurants, resorts, and hotels, and except meals furnished at no charge to employees of hospitals, nursing homes, boarding care homes, sanitariums, group homes, and correctional, detention, and detoxification facilities, who are required to eat with the patients, residents, or inmates residing in them.~~ Notwithstanding section 297A.25, subdivision 2, taxable food or meals include, but are not limited to, the following:

(i) heated food or drinks;

(ii) sandwiches prepared by the retailer;

(iii) single sales of prepackaged ice cream or ice milk novelties prepared by the retailer;

(iv) hand-prepared or dispensed ice cream or ice milk products including cones, sundaes, and snow cones;

(v) soft drinks and other beverages prepared or served by the retailer;

(vi) gum;

(vii) ice;

(viii) all food sold in vending machines;

(ix) party trays prepared by the retailers; and

(x) all meals and single servings of packaged snack food, single cans or bottles of pop, sold in restaurants and bars;

(d) The granting of the privilege of admission to places of amusement, recreational areas, or athletic events, except a world championship football game sponsored by the national football league, and the privilege of having access to and the use of amusement devices, tanning facilities, reducing salons, steam baths, turkish baths, massage parlors, health clubs, and spas or athletic facilities;

(e) The furnishing for a consideration of lodging and related services by a hotel, rooming house, tourist court, motel or trailer camp and of the granting of any similar license to use real property other than the renting or leasing thereof for a continuous period of 30 days or more;

(f) The furnishing for a consideration of electricity, gas, water, or steam for use or consumption within this state, or local exchange telephone service, intrastate toll service, and interstate toll service, if that service originates from and is charged to a telephone located in this state; the tax imposed on amounts paid for telephone services is the liability of and shall be paid by the person paying for the services. The furnishing for a consideration of access to telephone services by a hotel to its guests is a sale under this clause. Sales by municipal corporations in a proprietary capacity are included in the provisions of this clause. The furnishing of water and sewer services for residential use shall not be considered a sale;

(g) The furnishing for a consideration of cable television services, including charges for basic monthly service, charges for monthly premium service, and charges for any other similar television services;

(h) Notwithstanding subdivision 4, and section 297A.25, subdivision 9, the sales of horses including claiming sales and fees paid for breeding a stallion to a mare. This clause applies to sales and fees with respect to a horse to be used for racing whose birth has been recorded by the Jockey Club or the United States Trotting Association or the American Quarter Horse Association;

(i) The furnishing for a consideration of parking services, whether on a contractual, hourly, or other periodic basis, except for parking at a meter;

(j) The furnishing for a consideration of services listed in this paragraph:

(i) laundry and dry cleaning services including cleaning, pressing, repairing, altering, and storing clothes, linen services and supply, cleaning and blocking hats, and carpet, drapery, upholstery, and industrial cleaning. Laundry and dry cleaning services do not include services provided by coin operated facilities operated by the customer;

(ii) motor vehicle washing, waxing, and cleaning services, including services provided by coin-operated facilities operated by the customer; and rustproofing, undercoating, and towing of motor vehicles;

(iii) building and residential cleaning, maintenance, and disinfecting and exterminating services;

(iv) services provided by detective agencies, security services, burglar, fire alarm, and armored car services not including services performed within the jurisdiction they serve by off-duty licensed peace officers as defined in section 626.84, subdivision 1;

(v) pet grooming services;

(vi) lawn care, fertilizing, mowing, spraying and sprigging services; garden planting and maintenance; arborist services; tree, bush, and shrub planting, pruning, bracing, spraying, and surgery; and tree trimming for public utility lines.

The services listed in this paragraph are taxable under section 297A.02 if the service is performed wholly within Minnesota or if the service is performed partly within and partly without Minnesota and the greater proportion of the service is performed in Minnesota, based on the cost of performance. In applying the provisions of this chapter, the terms "tangible personal property" and "sales at retail" include taxable services and the provision of taxable services, unless specifically provided otherwise. Services performed by an employee for an employer are not taxable under this paragraph. Services performed by a partnership or association for another partnership or association are not taxable under this paragraph if one of the entities owns or controls more than 80 percent of the voting power of the equity interest in the other entity. Services performed between members of an affiliated group of corporations are not taxable. For purposes of this section, "affiliated group of corporations" includes those entities that would be classified as a member of an affiliated group under United States Code, title 26, section 1504, and who are eligible to file a consolidated tax return for federal income tax purposes; and

(vii) solid waste collection and disposal services as described in section 297A.45;

(k) A "sale" and a "purchase" includes the transfer of computer software, meaning information and directions that dictate the function performed by data processing equipment. A "sale" and a "purchase" does not include the design, development, writing, translation, fabrication, lease, or transfer for a consideration of title or possession of a custom computer program; and

(l) The granting of membership in a club, association, or other organization if:

(1) the club, association, or other organization makes available for the use of its members sports and athletic facilities (without regard to whether a separate charge is assessed for use of the facilities); and

(2) use of the sports and athletic facilities is not made available to the general public on the same basis as it is made available to members.

Granting of membership includes both one-time initiation fees and periodic membership dues. Sports and athletic facilities include golf courses, tennis, racquetball, handball and squash courts, basketball and volleyball facilities, running tracks, exercise equipment, swimming pools, and other similar athletic or sports facilities. The provisions of this paragraph do not apply to camps or other recreation facilities owned and operated by an exempt organization under section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended through December 31, 1986, for educational and social activities for young people primarily age 18 and under.

Sec. 4. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 297A.01, subdivision 8, is amended to read:

Subd. 8. "Sales price" means the total consideration valued in money, for a retail sale whether paid in money or otherwise, excluding therefrom any amount allowed as credit for tangible personal property taken in trade for resale, without deduction for the cost of the property sold, cost of materials used, labor or service cost, interest, or discount allowed after the sale is consummated, the cost of transportation incurred prior to the time of sale, any amount for which credit is given to the purchaser by the seller, or any other expense whatsoever. A deduction may be made for charges for services that are part of the sale, including charges up to 15 percent in lieu of tips, if the consideration for such charges is separately stated, but no deduction shall be allowed for charges for services that are part of a sale as defined in subdivision 3, clauses (b) to (f) (1). A deduction may also be made for interest, financing, or carrying charges, charges for labor or services used in installing or applying the property sold or transportation charges if the transportation occurs after the retail sale of the property only if the consideration for such charges is separately stated. There shall not be included in "sales price" cash discounts allowed and taken on sales or the amount refunded either in cash or in credit for property returned by purchasers.

Sec. 5. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 297A.14, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [IMPOSITION.] For the privilege of using, storing or consuming in Minnesota tangible personal property, tickets or admissions to places of amusement and athletic events, electricity, gas, and local exchange telephone service or taxable services purchased for use, storage or consumption in this state, a use tax is imposed on every person in this state at the rate of tax imposed under section 297A.02 on the sales price of sales at retail of the items, unless the tax imposed by section 297A.02 was paid on the sales price.

Sec. 6. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 297A.25, subdivision 31, is amended to read:

Subd. 31. [SALES BY GOVERNMENT TAXABLE.] This section shall not be construed to exempt the gross receipts from sales of tangible personal property or taxable services purchased from the United States or any of its agencies or instrumentalities, or the state of Minnesota, its agencies, instrumentalities or political subdivisions by ultimate consumers, and such purchases are hereby declared to be subject to tax, except as they may be otherwise exempted.

Sec. 7. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 297A.255, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 5. There is specifically exempted from the provisions of this chapter the purchase or use of aircraft registered in the state of Minnesota by a corporation or partnership when the transfer constitutes a transfer within the meaning of section 351 or 721 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended through December 31, 1989.

Sec. 8. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 297B.035, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. Except as provided in this section, motor vehicles purchased for resale in the ordinary course of business or used by any motor vehicle dealer, as defined in section 168.011, subdivision 21, who is licensed under section 168.27, subdivision 2 or 3, which bear dealer plates as authorized by section 168.27, subdivision 16, shall be exempt from the provisions of this chapter.

Sec. 9. [EFFECTIVE DATE.]

Sections 1 to 8 are effective July 1, 1990.

ARTICLE 5

INCOME AND FRANCHISE TAXES AND PROPERTY TAX REFUNDS

Section 1. Minnesota Statutes Second 1989 Supplement, section 10A.31, subdivision 5, is amended to read:

Subd. 5. In each calendar year the money in the general account shall be allocated to candidates as follows:

- (1) 21 percent for the offices of governor and lieutenant governor together;
- (2) 3.6 percent for the office of attorney general;
- (3) 1.8 percent each for the offices of secretary of state, state auditor, and state treasurer;
- (4) In each calendar year during the period in which state senators serve a four-year term, 23 $\frac{1}{3}$ percent for the office of state senator and 46 $\frac{2}{3}$ percent for the office of state representative;
- (5) In each calendar year during the period in which state senators serve a two-year term, 35 percent each for the offices of state senator and state representative.

In each calendar year the money in each party account shall be allocated as follows:

- (1) 14 percent for the offices of governor and lieutenant governor together;
- (2) 2.4 percent for the office of attorney general;

(3) 1.2 percent each for the offices of secretary of state, state auditor, and state treasurer;

(4) In each calendar year during the period in which state senators serve a four-year term, 23 $\frac{1}{3}$ percent for the office of state senator and 46 $\frac{2}{3}$ percent for the office of state representative;

(5) In each calendar year during the period in which state senators serve a two-year term, 35 percent each for the offices of state senator and state representative;

(6) ten percent for the state committee of a political party; money allocated to each state committee under this clause must be deposited in a separate account and must be spent for only those items enumerated in section 10A.275; money allocated to a state committee under this clause must be paid to the committee by the state treasurer as notified by the state ethical practices board as it is received in the account on a monthly basis, with payment on the 15th day of the calendar month following the month in which the tax returns were received processed by the department of revenue, provided that these distributions would be equal to 90 percent of the amount of money indicated in the department of revenue's weekly unedited reports of income tax returns for that and property tax refund returns processed in the month, as notified by the department of revenue to the state ethical practices board. The amounts paid to each state committee are subject to final annual biennial adjustment and settlement as indicated according to the at the time of each certification by required of the commissioner of revenue under subdivision 6 subdivisions 7 and 10. If the total amount of total payments received before September 15 by a state committee for the period reflected on a certification by the department of revenue is greater than different from the amount certified by the commissioner of revenue on September 15, the total amount of payments distributed between September 1 and December 31 that should have been received during the period according to the certification, each subsequent monthly payment must be reduced by increased or decreased to the fullest extent possible until the amount of the overpayment is recovered or the underpayment is distributed.

To assure that moneys will be returned to the counties from which they were collected, and to assure that the distribution of those moneys rationally relates to the support for particular parties or for particular candidates within legislative districts, money from the party accounts for legislative candidates shall be distributed as follows:

Each candidate for the state senate and state house of representatives whose name is to appear on the ballot in the general election shall receive money from the candidate's party account set aside for candidates of the state senate or state house of representatives, whichever applies, according to the following formula:

For each county within the candidate's district the candidate's share of the dollars allocated in that county to the candidate's party account and set aside for that office shall be:

(a) The sum of the votes cast in the last general election in that part of the county in the candidate's district for all candidates of that candidate's party (i) whose names appeared on the ballot in each voting precinct of the state and (ii) for the state senate and state house of representatives, divided by

(b) The sum of the votes cast in that county in the last general election for all candidates of that candidate's party (i) whose names appeared on the ballot in each voting precinct in the state and (ii) for the state senate and state house of representatives, multiplied by

(c) The amount in the candidate's party account allocated in that county and set aside for the candidates for the office for which the candidate is running.

The sum of all the county shares calculated in the formula above is the candidate's share of the candidate's party account.

In a year in which an election for the state senate occurs, with respect to votes for candidates for the state senate only, "last general election" means the last general election in which an election for the state senate occurred.

For any party under whose name no candidate's name appeared on the ballot in each voting precinct in the state in the last general election, amounts in the party's account shall be allocated based on (a) the number of people voting in the last general election in that part of the county in the candidate's district, divided by (b) the number of the people voting in that county in the last general election, multiplied by (c) the amount in the candidate's party account allocated in that county and set aside for the candidates for the office for which the candidate is running.

In a year in which the first election after a legislative reapportionment is held, "the candidate's district" means the newly drawn district, and voting data from the last general election will be applied to the area encompassing the newly drawn district notwithstanding that the area was in a different district in the last general election.

If in a district there was no candidate of a party for the state senate or state house of representatives in the last general election, or if a candidate for the state senate or state house of representatives was unopposed, the vote for that office for that party shall be the average vote of all the remaining candidates of that party in each county of that district whose votes are included in the sums in clauses (a) and (b). The average vote shall be added to the sums in clauses (a) and (b) before the calculation is made for all districts in the county.

Money from a party account not distributed to candidates for state senator and representative in any election year shall be returned to the general fund of the state. Money from a party account not distributed to candidates for other offices in an election year shall be returned to the party account for reallocation to candidates as provided in clauses (1) to (6) in the following year. Money from the general account refused by any candidate shall be distributed to all other qualifying candidates in proportion to their shares as provided in this subdivision.

Sec. 2. Minnesota Statutes Second 1989 Supplement, section 290.17, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [INCOME NOT DERIVED FROM CONDUCT OF A TRADE OR BUSINESS.] The income of a taxpayer subject to the allocation rules that is not derived from the conduct of a trade or business must be assigned in accordance with paragraphs (a) to (f):

(a)(1) Subject to paragraphs (a)(2) and (a)(3), income from labor or personal or professional services is assigned to this state if, and to the extent that, the labor or services are performed within it; all other income from such sources is treated as income from sources without this state.

Severance pay shall be considered income from labor or personal or professional services.

(2) In the case of an individual who is a nonresident of Minnesota and who is an athlete or entertainer, income from compensation for labor or personal services performed within this state shall be determined in the following manner:

(i) The amount of income to be assigned to Minnesota for an individual who is a nonresident salaried athletic team employee shall be determined by using a fraction in which the denominator contains the total number of days in which the individual is under a duty to perform for the employer, and the numerator is the total number of those days spent in Minnesota; and

(ii) The amount of income to be assigned to Minnesota for an individual who is a nonresident, and who is an athlete or entertainer not listed in clause (i), for that person's athletic or entertainment performance in Minnesota shall be determined by assigning to this state all income from performances or athletic contests in this state.

(3) For purposes of this section, amounts received by a nonresident from the United States, its agencies or instrumentalities, the Federal Reserve Bank, the state of Minnesota or any of its political or governmental subdivisions, or a Minnesota volunteer firefighters' relief association, by way of payment as a pension, public employee retirement benefit, or any combination of these, or as a retirement or survivor's benefit made from a plan qualifying under section 401, 403, 408, or 409, or as defined in section 403(b) or 457 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended through December 31, 1987, are not considered income derived from carrying on a trade or business or from performing personal or professional services in Minnesota, and are not taxable under this chapter.

(b) Income or gains from tangible property located in this state that is not employed in the business of the recipient of the income or gains must be assigned to this state.

(c) Except upon the sale of a partnership interest or the sale of stock of an S corporation, income or gains from intangible personal property not employed in the business of the recipient of the income or gains must be assigned to this state if the recipient of the income or gains is a resident of this state or is a resident trust or estate.

Gain on the sale of a partnership interest is allocable to this state in the ratio of the original cost of partnership tangible property in this state to the original cost of partnership tangible property everywhere, determined at the time of the sale. If more than 50 percent of the value of the partnership's assets consists of intangibles, gain or loss from the sale of the partnership interest is allocated to this state in accordance with the sales factor of the partnership for its first full tax period immediately preceding the tax period of the partnership during which the partnership interest was sold.

Gain on the sale of stock held in an S corporation is allocable to this state in the ratio of the original cost of tangible property of the S corporation within this state to the original cost of tangible property of the S corporation everywhere an amount equal to the gain on the sale of the stock multiplied by the ratio that was used to compute the amount of S corporation income assignable to Minnesota in the tax year preceding the year of sale.

Gain on the sale of goodwill or income from a covenant not to compete that is connected with a business operating all or partially in Minnesota is allocated to this state to the extent that the income from the business in the year preceding the year of sale was assignable to Minnesota under subdivision 3.

(d) Income from the operation of a farm shall be assigned to this state if the farm is located within this state and to other states only if the farm is not located in this state.

(e) Income from winnings on Minnesota pari-mutuel betting tickets, the Minnesota state lottery, and lawful gambling as defined in section 349.12, subdivision 2, conducted within the boundaries of the state of Minnesota shall be assigned to this state.

(f) All items of gross income not covered in paragraphs (a) to (e) and not part of the taxpayer's income from a trade or business shall be assigned to the taxpayer's domicile.

Sec. 3. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 290.17, subdivision 5, is amended to read:

Subd. 5. [SPECIAL RULES.] Notwithstanding subdivisions 3 and 4, all income from the operation of the following types of businesses must be allocated as follows:

(a) All income from the operation of a farm is assigned to this state if the farm is located within this state and no such income is assigned to this state if the farm is located without this state.

(b) ~~Income from a trade or business consisting principally of the performance of personal or professional services is assigned to this state if, and to the extent that, the services are performed within this state.~~

(c) For athletic teams when the visiting team does not share in the gate receipts, all of the team's income is assigned to the state in which the team's operation is based.

Sec. 4. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 290.39, subdivision 4, is amended to read:

Subd. 4. [VOTER REGISTRATION FORM.] The commissioner shall insert securely in each individual income tax return form or instruction booklet distributed ~~in an even-numbered for an odd-numbered year~~ a voter registration form, returnable to the secretary of state, designed according to rules adopted by the secretary of state. This requirement applies to forms and booklets supplied to post offices, banks, and other outlets, as well as to those mailed directly to taxpayers.

Sec. 5. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 290.39, subdivision 5, is amended to read:

Subd. 5. [PARTNERSHIPS; NONRESIDENT PARTNERS.] (a) The commissioner may allow a partnership with five or more nonresident partners to file a composite return on behalf of nonresident partners who have no other Minnesota source income. This composite return must include the names, addresses, social security numbers, income allocation, and tax liability for all nonresident partners electing to be covered by the composite return.

(b) The computation of each partner's tax liability will be determined by multiplying the income allocated to that partner by the highest rate used to determine the tax liability for individuals under section 290.06, subdivision 2c. Nonbusiness deductions, standard deductions, or personal exemptions are not allowed.

(c) The partnership must submit a request to use this composite return filing method for nonresident partners ~~on or before the due date for filing the individual income tax return. The request may be made a part of the return filed. The requesting partnership must file a composite return in the form prescribed by the commissioner of revenue. The filing of a composite return is considered a request to use the composite return filing method.~~

(d) The electing partner must not have any Minnesota source income other than the income from the partnership and other electing partnerships. If it is determined that the electing partner has other Minnesota source income, the inclusion of the income and tax liability for that partner under this provision will not constitute a return to satisfy the requirements of subdivision 1. The penalty for failure to file a return as provided in section 290.53, subdivision 2, is assessed from the due date for filing a return until a noncomposite return is filed. The tax paid for such an individual as part of the composite return is allowed as a payment of the tax by the individual on the date on which the composite return payment was made. If the electing nonresident partner has no other Minnesota source income, filing of the composite return constitutes a return for purposes of subdivision 1.

(e) This subdivision does not preclude the requirement that an individual pay estimated tax if the individual's liability would exceed the requirements set forth in section 290.93. However, a composite estimate may be filed in a manner similar to and containing the same information required under paragraph (a).

(f) If an electing partner's share of the partnership's gross income from Minnesota sources is less than the filing requirements for a nonresident under section 290.37, subdivision 1, the tax liability is zero. However, a statement showing the partner's share of gross income must be included as part of the composite return.

(g) The election provided in this subdivision is not available to any partner other than a full-year nonresident individual who has no other Minnesota source income.

(h) A corporation defined in section 290.9725 and its nonresident shareholders may make an election under this subdivision. The provisions covering the partnership apply to the corporation and the provisions applying to the partner apply to each shareholder.

(i) Estates and trusts distributing current income only and the nonresident individual beneficiaries of such estates or trusts may make an election under this subdivision. The provisions covering the partnership apply to the estate or trust. The provisions applying to the partner apply to each beneficiary.

Sec. 6. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 290.49, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [OMISSION IN EXCESS OF 25 PERCENT.] If the taxpayer omits from gross income an amount properly includable therein which is in excess of 25 percent of the amount of gross income stated in the return, the tax may be assessed, or a proceeding in court for the collection of such tax may be begun at any time within 6½ years after the return was filed.

For purposes of this subdivision, the term "gross income" shall mean gross income as defined in section 290.37, subdivision 1, clause (e) 290.01, subdivision 20.

Sec. 7. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 290.92, subdivision 12, is amended to read:

Subd. 12. [WITHHELD AMOUNT, CREDIT AGAINST TAX.] The amount deducted and withheld as tax under subdivision 2a or, 3, 4b, or 4c or section 290.923, subdivision 2, during any calendar year upon the wages, partnership income, or "S" corporation income of any individual or person receiving royalty payments shall be allowed as a credit to the recipient of the income against the taxes imposed by this chapter or by chapter 298, for a taxable year beginning in such calendar year. If more than one taxable year begins in such calendar year, such amount shall be allowed as a credit against the taxes for the last taxable year so beginning.

Sec. 8. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 290.92, subdivision 23, is amended to read:

Subd. 23. [WITHHOLDING BY EMPLOYER OF DELINQUENT TAXES.] (1) The commissioner may, within five years after the date of assessment of the tax, give notice to any employer deriving income which has a taxable situs in this state regardless of whether the income is exempt from taxation, that an employee of that employer is delinquent in a certain amount with respect to any state taxes, including penalties, interest and costs. The commissioner can proceed under this subdivision only if the tax is uncontested or if the time for appeal of the tax has expired. The commissioner shall not proceed under this subdivision until the expiration of 30 days after mailing to the taxpayer, at the taxpayer's last known address, a written notice of (a) the amount of taxes, interest, and penalties due from the taxpayer and demand for their payment, and (b) the commissioner's intention to require additional withholding by the taxpayer's employer pursuant to this subdivision. The effect of the notice shall expire 180 days after it has been mailed to the taxpayer provided that the notice may be renewed by mailing a new notice which is in accordance with this subdivision. The renewed notice shall have the effect of reinstating the priority of the original claim. The notice to the taxpayer shall be in substantially the same form as that provided in section 571.41. The notice shall further inform the taxpayer of the wage exemptions contained in section 550.37, subdivision 14. If no statement of exemption is received by the commissioner within 30 days from the mailing of the notice, the commissioner may proceed under this subdivision. The notice to the taxpayer's employer may be served by mail or by delivery by an employee of the department of revenue and shall be in substantially the same form as provided in section 571.495. Upon receipt of notice, the employer shall withhold from compensation due or to become due to the employee, the total amount shown by the notice, subject to the provisions of section 571.55. The employer shall continue to withhold each pay period until the total amount shown by the notice is paid in full. Upon receipt of notice by the employer, the claim of the state of Minnesota shall have priority over any subsequent garnishments or wage assignments. The commissioner may arrange between the employer and the employee for withholding a portion of the total amount due the employee each pay period, until the total amount shown by the notice plus accrued interest has been withheld.

The "compensation due" any employee is defined in accordance with the provisions of section 571.55. The maximum withholding allowed under this subdivision for any one pay period shall be decreased by any amounts payable pursuant to a garnishment action with respect to which the employer was served prior to being served with the notice of delinquency and any amounts covered by any irrevocable and previously effective assignment of wages; the employer shall give notice to the department of the amounts and the facts relating to such assignments within ten days after the service of the notice of delinquency on the form provided by the department of revenue as noted in this subdivision. In crediting amounts withheld against delinquent taxes of an employee, the department shall apply amounts withheld in the following order: penalties, interest, tax, and costs.

(2) If the employee ceases to be employed by the employer before the full amount set forth in a notice of delinquency plus accrued interest has been withheld, the employer shall immediately notify the commissioner in writing of the termination date of the employee and the total amount withheld. No employer may discharge any employee by reason of the fact that the commissioner has proceeded under this subdivision. If an employer discharges an employee in violation of this provision, the employee shall have the same remedy as provided in section 571.61, subdivision 2.

(3) The employer shall, by the date prescribed in subdivision 6, remit to the commissioner, on a form and in the manner prescribed by the commissioner, the amount withheld during the calendar quarter under this subdivision. Should any employer, after notice, willfully fail to withhold in accordance with the notice and this subdivision, or willfully fail to remit any amount withheld as required by this subdivision, the employer shall be liable for the total amount set forth in the notice together with accrued interest which may be collected by any means provided by law relating to taxation. ~~No amount required to be paid by an employer by reason of the employer's failure to remit under this subdivision, may be deducted from the gross income of the employer, under sections 290.00, subdivision 4 or 290.01, subdivisions 20 to 20f.~~ Any amount collected from the employer for failure to withhold or for failure to remit under this subdivision shall be credited to the employee's account in the following manner: penalties, interest, tax, and costs.

(4) Clauses (1), (2) and (3), except provisions imposing a liability on the employer for failure to withhold or remit, shall apply to cases in which the employer is the United States or any instrumentality thereof or this state or any municipality or other subordinate unit thereof.

(5) The commissioner shall refund to the employee excess amounts withheld from the employee under this subdivision. If any excess results from payments by the employer because of willful failure to withhold or remit as prescribed in clause (3) above, the excess attributable to the employer's payment shall be refunded to the employer.

(6) Employers required to withhold delinquent taxes, penalties, interest, and costs under this subdivision shall not be required to compute any additional interest, costs or other charges to be withheld.

(7) The collection remedy provided to the commissioner by this subdivision shall have the same legal effect as if it were a levy made pursuant to section 270.70.

Sec. 9. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 290.93, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [REQUIREMENT OF DECLARATION.] (1) Every individual shall, at the time prescribed in subdivision 5, make and file with the commissioner a declaration of estimated tax for the taxable year if the gross income (for purposes of this subdivision and subdivision 5 as defined in section 290.37, ~~subdivision 1, clause (e) 290.01, subdivision 20~~) for the taxable year can reasonably be expected to exceed the gross income amounts set forth in section 290.37, subdivision 1 pertaining to the requirements for making a return.

(2) If the individual is an infant or incompetent person, the declaration shall be made by the individual's guardian.

(3) Notwithstanding the provisions of this section, no declaration is required if the estimated tax (as defined in subdivision 3) is less than $500.

Sec. 10. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 290A.03, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [INCOME.] (1) "Income" means the sum of the following:

(a) ~~the greater of federal adjusted gross income as defined in the Internal Revenue Code or zero; and~~

(b) the sum of the following amounts to the extent not included in clause (a):

(i) all nontaxable income;

(ii) the amount of a passive activity loss that is not disallowed as a result of section 469, paragraph (i) or (1) of the Internal Revenue Code and the amount of passive activity loss carryover allowed under section 469(b) of the Internal Revenue Code;

(iii) an amount equal to the total of any discharge of qualified farm indebtedness of a solvent individual excluded from gross income under section 108(g) of the Internal Revenue Code;

(iv) cash public assistance and relief;

(v) any pension or annuity (including railroad retirement benefits, all payments received under the federal Social Security Act, supplemental security income, and veterans benefits), which was not exclusively funded by the claimant or spouse, or which was funded exclusively by the claimant or spouse and which funding payments were excluded from federal adjusted gross income in the years when the payments were made;

(vi) interest received from the federal or a state government or any instrumentality or political subdivision thereof;

(vii) workers' compensation;

(viii) nontaxable strike benefits;

(ix) the gross amounts of payments received in the nature of disability income or sick pay as a result of accident, sickness, or other disability, whether funded through insurance or otherwise;

(x) a lump sum distribution under section 402(e)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code;

(xi) contributions made by the claimant to an individual retirement account, including a qualified voluntary employee contribution; simplified employee pension plan; self-employed retirement plan; cash or deferred arrangement plan under section 401(k) of the Internal Revenue Code; or deferred compensation plan under section 457 of the Internal Revenue Code; and

(xii) nontaxable scholarship or fellowship grants.

In the case of an individual who files an income tax return on a fiscal year basis, the term "federal adjusted gross income" shall mean federal adjusted gross income reflected in the fiscal year ending in the calendar year. Federal adjusted gross income shall not be reduced by the amount of a net operating loss carryback or carryforward or a capital loss carryback or carryforward allowed for the year.

(2) "Income" does not include

(a) amounts excluded pursuant to the Internal Revenue Code, sections 101(a), 102, and 121;

(b) amounts of any pension or annuity which was exclusively funded by the claimant or spouse and which funding payments were not excluded from federal adjusted gross income in the years when the payments were made;

(c) surplus food or other relief in kind supplied by a governmental agency;

(d) relief granted under this chapter; or

(e) child support payments received under a temporary or final decree of dissolution or legal separation.

(3) The sum of the following amounts shall may be subtracted from income:

- (a) for the claimant's first dependent, the exemption amount multiplied by 1.4;
- (b) for the claimant's second dependent, the exemption amount multiplied by 1.3;
- (c) for the claimant's third dependent, the exemption amount multiplied by 1.2;
- (d) for the claimant's fourth dependent, the exemption amount multiplied by 1.1;
- (e) for the claimant's fifth dependent, the exemption amount; and
- (f) if the claimant or claimant's spouse was disabled or attained the age of 65 prior to June 1 of the year for which the taxes were levied or rent paid, the exemption amount.

For purposes of this subdivision, the "exemption amount" means the exemption amount under section 151(d) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended through December 31, 1987, for the taxable year for which the income is reported.

Sec. 11. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 290A.04, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. A refund shall be allowed each claimant in the amount that property taxes payable or rent constituting property taxes exceed the percentage of the household income of the claimant specified in subdivision 2 in the year for which the taxes were levied or in the year in which the rent was paid as specified in subdivision 2. If the amount of property taxes payable or rent constituting property taxes is equal to or less than the percentage of the household income of the claimant specified in subdivision 2 in the year for which the taxes were levied or in the year in which the rent was paid, the claimant shall not be eligible for a state refund pursuant to this section. ~~For purposes of claiming this refund, a claimant who owns a homestead part of the year and rents part of the year may add the rent constituting property taxes to the qualifying tax on the homestead.~~

Sec. 12. Minnesota Statutes Second 1989 Supplement, section 290A.04, subdivision 2h, is amended to read:

Subd. 2h. (a) If the gross property taxes payable on a homestead increase more than ten percent over the net property taxes payable in the prior year on the same property that is owned by the same owner in both years, and the amount of that increase is $40 or more for taxes payable in 1990 and 1991, $60 or more for taxes payable in 1992, $80 or more for taxes payable in 1993, and $100 or more for taxes payable in 1994, a claimant who is a homeowner shall be allowed an additional refund equal to the sum of (1) 75 percent of the first $250 of the amount of the increase over ten percent for taxes payable in 1990 and 1991, 75 percent of the first $275 of the amount of the increase over ten percent for taxes payable in 1992, 75 percent of the first $300 of the amount of the increase over ten percent for taxes payable in 1993, and 75 percent of the first $325 of the amount of the increase over ten percent for taxes payable in 1994, and (2) 90 percent of the amount of the increase over ten percent plus $250 for taxes payable in 1990 and 1991, 90 percent of the amount of the increase over ten percent plus $275 for taxes payable in 1992, 90 percent of the amount of the increase over ten percent plus $300 for taxes payable in 1993, and 90 percent of the amount of the increase over ten percent plus $325 for taxes payable in 1994. This subdivision shall not apply to any increase in the net gross property taxes payable attributable to improvements made to the homestead after the assessment date for the prior year's taxes.

(b) For purposes of this subdivision, the following terms have the meanings given:

(1) "Net property taxes payable" means property taxes payable after reductions made under sections 273.13, subdivisions 22 and 23; 273.132; 273.135; 273.1391; and 273.42, subdivision 2, and any other state paid property tax credits and after the deduction of tax refund amounts for which the claimant qualifies pursuant to subdivision 2 and this subdivision.

(2) "Gross property taxes" means net property taxes payable determined without regard to the refund allowed under this subdivision.

(c) In addition to the other proofs required by this chapter, each claimant under this subdivision shall file with the property tax refund return a copy of the property tax statement for taxes payable in the preceding year or other documents required by the commissioner.

On or before December 1, 1990, and December 1 of each of the following three years, the commissioner shall estimate the cost of making the payments provided by this subdivision for taxes payable in the following year. Notwithstanding the open appropriation provision of section 290A.23, if the estimated total refund claims exceed the following amounts for the taxes payable year designated, the commissioner shall decrease the percentages of the excess taxes the state will pay and increase the dollar amount of tax increase which must occur before a taxpayer qualifies for a refund.

Taxes payable in:	Appropriation limit
1991	$7,000,000
1992	$6,500,000
1993	$6,000,000
1994	$5,500,000

The commissioner shall make the adjustments so that half of the estimated savings come from decreasing the percentages of the excess taxes the state will pay and half of the estimated savings come from increasing the dollar amount of the tax increase which must occur before a taxpayer qualifies for a refund. The determinations of the revised percentages and thresholds by the commissioner are not rules subject to chapter 14.

Sec. 13. Minnesota Statutes Second 1989 Supplement, section 290A.04, subdivision 2i, is amended to read:

Subd. 2i. If the net property taxes payable in 1990 on a seasonal residential and recreational property, not devoted to commercial use, increase more than ten percent over the net property taxes payable in 1989 and if the amount is $40 or more, one claimant individual who is an owner of the property in both years is allowed a refund equal to 75 percent of the first $250 of the excess of the increase over ten percent. This subdivision does not apply to the portion of an increase in taxes payable that are attributable to improvements to the property.

The individual claiming the refund can use only one contiguous seasonal residential and recreational property in computing the refund and is allowed only one refund. For the purposes of this subdivision, a husband and wife are treated as one individual.

In addition to the other proofs required by this chapter, each claimant individual claiming a refund under this subdivision shall file with the application a copy of the property tax statement for property taxes payable in 1989 and 1990 and any other documents required by the commissioner.

Sec. 14. Laws 1989, chapter 28, section 24, is amended to read:

Sec. 24. [FEDERAL CHANGES.]

The changes made by sections 1002, 1004, 1006, 1008, 1009, 1011, 1014, 1018, 3041, 6002, 6026, and 6286 6282 of the Technical and Miscellaneous Revenue Act of 1988, Public Law Number 100-647, which affect the computation of Minnesota gross income as defined in Minnesota Statutes, section 290.01, subdivision 20; lump sum distributions as allowed by Minnesota Statutes, section 290.032; accounting provision applied under Minnesota Statutes, section 290.07; contribution deduction allowed by Minnesota Statutes, sections 290.089 and 290.21; depreciation, amortization, and expensing provisions allowed under Minnesota Statutes, section 290.09; the recognition rules for distributions and reorganization rules provided by Minnesota Statutes, sections 290.13 to 290.139; and the grantor trust and reversionary interest rule exceptions and limitations under Minnesota Statutes, sections 290.23 and 290.25, for years beginning before January 1, 1987, shall be in effect at the same time they become effective for federal income tax purposes.

The additional statute of limitations to file amended returns allowing contributions to institutions of higher education and allowing an election to claim losses on deposits in certain insolvent financial institutions under provisions of sections 6001 and 1009 of the Technical and Miscellaneous Revenue Act of 1988, shall apply to Minnesota for the same period as the federal period applies plus an additional six months.

The waiver of the estimated tax penalties provided by section 1019 of the Technical and Miscellaneous Revenue Act of 1988, shall also apply to Minnesota to the extent the underpayment was created or increased by any provisions of the changes due to applying the federal law changes.

Sec. 15. [REPEALER.]

Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 290.23, subdivision 15, is repealed.

Sec. 16. [EFFECTIVE DATE.]

Section 1 is effective on the day following final enactment. Sections 3, 5, and 15 are effective for taxable years beginning after December 31, 1989. Sections 2 and 7 are effective for taxable years beginning after December 31, 1988. Section 10 is effective for claims based on rent paid in 1989 and subsequent years and claims based on property taxes payable in 1990 and subsequent years. Sections 11 and 12 are effective beginning for property taxes payable in 1990. Section 13 is effective beginning for property taxes paid in 1990.

ARTICLE 6

INSURANCE TAXES

Section 1. Minnesota Statutes Second 1989 Supplement, section 60A.15, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [DOMESTIC AND FOREIGN COMPANIES.] (a) On or before April 15, June 15, and December 15 of each year, every domestic and foreign company, including town and farmers' mutual insurance companies and domestic mutual insurance companies, shall pay to the commissioner of revenue installments equal to one-third of the insurer's total estimated tax for the current year. Except as provided in paragraph (b), installments must be based on a sum equal to two percent of the premiums described in paragraph (c).

(b) For town and farmers' mutual insurance companies and mutual property and casualty insurance companies other than those (i) writing life insurance, or (ii) whose total assets at the end of the preceding calendar year exceed $1,600,000,000, the installments must be based on an amount equal to the following percentages of the premiums described in paragraph (c):

(1) for premiums paid after December 31, 1988, and before January 1, 1992, one percent; and

(2) for premiums paid after December 31, 1991, one-half of one percent.

(c) Installments under paragraph (a) or (b) are percentages of gross premiums less return premiums on all direct business received by the insurer in this state, or by its agents for it, in cash or otherwise, during such year, excepting premiums written for marine insurance as specified in subdivision 6.

(d) Failure of a company to make payments of at least one-third of either (1) the total tax paid during the previous calendar year or (2) 80 percent of the actual tax for the current calendar year shall subject the company to the penalty and interest provided in this section, unless the total tax for the current tax year is $500 or less.

Sec. 2. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 60A.198, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 6. [ALLOCATION OF PREMIUMS ACCORDING TO LOCATION OF SUBJECT MATTER.] If the insurance described in subdivision 4 also covers a subject of insurance residing, located, or to be performed outside this state, for the purposes of this section, a proper pro rata portion of the entire premium payable for all of that insurance must be allocated according to the subjects of insurance residing, located, or to be performed in this state.

Sec. 3. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 69.021, subdivision 6, is amended to read:

Subd. 6. [CALCULATION OF APPORTIONMENT OF AID TO COUNTIES.] With respect to firefighters, one-half of the state aid available shall be distributed to the counties in proportion to their population as shown by the last official statewide federal census. The remaining one-half of the state aid available shall be distributed to the counties in proportion to their net tax capacity, excluding mineral values.

In the case of incorporated or municipal fire departments furnishing fire protection to cities, towns or townships in other counties as evidenced by valid fire service contracts filed with the commissioner of commerce and county auditor the distribution to the respective counties shall be adjusted proportionately to take into consideration the crossover fire protection service. Necessary adjustments shall be made to subsequent apportionments.

The state aid available in respect to peace officers shall not exceed the amount of tax collected and shall be distributed to the counties in proportion to the total number of active peace officers, as defined in section 69.011, subdivision 1, clause (g), in each county who are employed either by municipalities maintaining police departments or by the county. Any necessary adjustments shall be made to subsequent apportionments.

Sec. 4. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 69.771, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [REMEDY FOR NONCOMPLIANCE; DETERMINATION.] Any municipality in which there exists a firefighters' relief association as specified in subdivision 1 which does not comply with the applicable provisions of sections 69.771 to 69.776 or the provisions of any applicable special law relating to the funding or financing of the association shall not qualify initially to receive, or be entitled subsequently to retain, fire state aid pursuant to sections 69.011 to 69.051 until the reason for disqualification is remedied, whereupon the municipality or relief association, if otherwise qualified, shall be entitled to again receive fire state aid for the year occurring immediately subsequent to the year in which the disqualification is remedied. The commissioner of commerce state auditor shall determine if a municipality to which a firefighters' relief association is directly associated or a firefighters' relief association fails to comply with the provisions of sections 69.771 to 69.776 or the funding or financing provisions of any applicable special law based upon the information contained in the annual financial report of the firefighters' relief association required pursuant to section 69.051.

Sec. 5. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 69.772, subdivision 2a, is amended to read:

Subd. 2a. [DETERMINATION OF ACCRUED LIABILITY FOR RECIPIENTS OF INSTALLMENT PAYMENTS.] Each firefighters' relief association which pays a lump sum service pension in installment payments to a retired firefighter pursuant to section 424A.02, subdivision 8, shall determine the accrued liability of the special fund of the firefighters' relief association relative to each retired member receiving a lump sum service pension in installment payments calculated individually as the sum of each future installment payment discounted at an interest rate of five percent, compounded annually, from the date the installment payment is scheduled to be paid to December 31. If the bylaws of the relief association provide for the payment of interest on unpaid installments, the amount of interest, projected to December 31, shall be added to the accrued liability attributable to each retired member. The sum of the accrued liability attributable to each retired member of the relief association receiving a lump sum service pension in installment payments shall be the total additional accrued liability of the special fund of the relief association as of December 31, and shall be added to the accrued liability of the special fund of the relief association calculated pursuant to subdivision 2 for purposes of calculating the financial requirements of the relief association and the minimum obligation of the municipality pursuant to subdivision 3.

To the extent that the ~~commissioner of commerce~~ state auditor deems it to be necessary or practical, the ~~commissioner~~ state auditor may specify and issue procedures, forms or mathematical tables for use in performing the calculations required pursuant to this subdivision.

Sec. 6. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 69.774, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [AUTHORIZED INCLUSION IN FIRE STATE AID PROGRAM; COVERED NONPROFIT CORPORATIONS.] This section shall apply to any independent nonprofit firefighting corporation incorporated or organized pursuant to chapter 317 which operates exclusively for firefighting purposes, which is composed of volunteer firefighters, which has a duly established separate subsidiary incorporated firefighters' relief association which provides retirement coverage for or pays a service pension to a retired firefighter or a retirement benefit to a surviving dependent of either an active or a retired firefighter, and which operates subject to the service pension minimum requirements for entitlement to and maximums for a service pension contained in section 424A.02, or a special law modifying those requirements or maximums. Notwithstanding any law to the contrary, a municipality contracting with an independent nonprofit firefighting corporation shall be included in the distribution of fire state aid to the appropriate county auditor by the ~~commissioner of commerce~~ state auditor only if the independent nonprofit firefighting corporation complies with the provisions of this section.

Sec. 7. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 299F.21, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [ESTIMATED INSTALLMENT PAYMENTS.] On or before April 15, June 15, and December 15 of each year, every licensed insurance company, including reciprocals or interinsurance exchanges, doing business in the state, excepting farmers' mutual fire insurance companies and township mutual fire insurance companies, shall pay to the commissioner of revenue installments equal to one-third of, a tax upon its fire premiums or assessments or both, based on a sum equal to one-half of one percent of the estimated fire premiums and assessments, less return premiums and dividends, on all direct business received by it in this state, or by its agents for it, in cash or otherwise, during the year, including premiums on policies covering fire risks only on automobiles, whether written under floater form or otherwise. In the case of a mutual company or reciprocal exchange the dividends or savings paid or credited to members in this state shall be construed to be return premiums. The money so received into the state treasury shall be credited to the general fund. A company that fails to make payments of at least one-third of either (1) the total tax paid during the previous calendar year or (2) 80 percent of the actual tax for the current calendar year is subject to the penalty and interest provided in this chapter, unless the total tax for the current tax year is $500 or less.

Sec. 8. [EFFECTIVE DATE.]

Sections 1, 2, and 7 are effective for tax years beginning after December 31, 1990. Sections 3, 4, 5, and 6 are effective the day after final enactment.

ARTICLE 7

TECHNICAL AND ADMINISTRATIVE CHANGES

Section 1. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 116K.04, subdivision 4, is amended to read:

Subd. 4. The commissioner shall:

(1) Appoint the state demographer, who shall be compensated in accordance with section 43A.18, subdivision 3. The state demographer shall be professionally competent in the field of demography and shall possess demonstrated ability, based upon past performance;

(2) Continuously gather and develop demographic data within the state;

(3) Design and test methods of research and data collection;

(4) Periodically prepare population projections for designated regions and for the state and may periodically prepare projections for each county, or other political or geographic division as necessary to carry out the purposes of this section;

(5) Review, comment, and prepare analysis of population estimates and projections made by state agencies, political subdivisions, other states, federal agencies or nongovernmental persons, institutions or commissions;

(6) Serve as the state liaison with the federal bureau of census, and coordinate the activities of the state planning agency with federal demographic activities to the fullest extent possible, and shall aid the legislature in preparing a census data plan and form for each decennial census;

(7) Compile an annual study of population estimates on the basis of county, regional or other political or geographic divisions as necessary to carry out the purposes of this subdivision and section 116K.05;

(8) On or before January 1 of each year, issue a report to the legislature containing an analysis of the demographic implications of the annual population study and population projections;

(9) Cause to be prepared maps of all counties in the state, all municipalities with a population of 10,000 or more, and any other municipalities as deemed necessary for census purposes, according to scale and detail recommended by the federal bureau of the census, with the maps of cities showing boundaries of precincts; and

(10) Prepare an estimate of population and of the number of households for each governmental subdivision for which the metropolitan council does not prepare an annual estimate, and shall communicate the estimates to the governing body of each governmental subdivision by May 1 of each year; and

(11) Prepare an estimate of population and number of households for an area annexed by a governmental subdivision subject to levy limits under sections 275.50 to 275.56 if a municipal board order under section 414.01, subdivision 14, exists for the annexation and if the population in the annexed area is equal to either (i) at least 50 people or (ii) at least ten percent of the population of a governmental subdivision or unorganized territory that is losing area by the annexation. The estimate shall be of the population as of the date, within the 12-month period after the annexation occurs, for which a population estimate for the governmental subdivision is made by either the state demographer under clause (10) or by the metropolitan council.

Sec. 2. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 168.013, subdivision 5, is amended to read:

Subd. 5. [CERTAIN VEHICLES SUBJECT TO PERSONAL PROPERTY TAX.] Motor vehicles not subject to taxation as provided in section 168.012, but subject to taxation as personal property within the state under section 273.36 or 273.37, subdivision 1, shall be assessed and valued at 33- $\frac{1}{3}$ percent of the market value thereof, have a tax capacity as provided in section 273.13, subdivision 24, provided, that if the person against whom any tax has been levied on the ad valorem basis because of any motor vehicle shall, during the calendar year for which such tax is levied, be also taxed under the provisions of this chapter, then and in that event, upon proper showing, the commissioner of revenue shall grant to the person against whom said ad valorem tax was levied, such reduction or abatement of net tax capacity or taxes as was occasioned by the so-called ad valorem tax imposed, and provided further that, if said ad valorem tax upon any motor vehicle has been assessed against a dealer in new and unused motor vehicles, and the tax imposed by this chapter for the required period is thereafter paid by the owner, then and in that event, upon proper showing, the commissioner of revenue, upon the application of said dealer, shall grant to such dealer against whom said ad valorem tax was levied such reduction or abatement of net tax capacity or taxes as was occasioned by the so-called ad valorem tax imposed. If such motor vehicle be registered and taxed under this chapter for a fractional part of the calendar year only, then such ad valorem tax shall be reduced in the percentage which such fractional part of the years bears to a full year.

Sec. 3. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 272.16, is amended to read:

272.16 [TRANSFER OF SPECIFIC PART.]

Subdivision 1. [TRANSFER OF SPECIFIC PART.] When any part less than the whole of any parcel of land, as charged in the tax lists, is conveyed, the county auditor shall transfer the same whenever the seller and purchaser agree, in a writing signed by them, or personally appear before the county auditor and agree, upon the amount of the net tax capacity to be transferred therewith; but, If the seller and purchaser do not so agree, the county auditor shall make such a division of the net tax capacity as may appear that appears just to the auditor just. If the county auditor is satisfied that the proportion of the net tax capacity so agreed to be transferred is greater than the proportional value of the land to be transferred therewith, and that such the agreement was made by collusion of the parties, and with a view fraudulently to evade payment of taxes assessed on the entire parcel, the auditor may refuse to make such the transfer; and, When any such transfer has already been procured by fraudulent agreement, the auditor shall cancel the same it, and the land so transferred shall be charged with taxes in the same manner as though the transfer had not been made.

Subd. 2. [SPECIFIC PART CONVEYED AFTER EXECUTION OF A LENDER'S LIEN.] Notwithstanding the provisions of sections 272.12, 272.121, and 272.162, a lender that acquires, through execution of a lien, any part less than the whole of any parcel of land, as charged in the tax lists, may convey that part upon payment of the proper proportion of taxes due and owing on that part. The county auditor shall determine the proper proportion of taxes to be paid. The lender shall be required to provide the county auditor with instruments that document the lender's lien and the acquisition of the part.

Sec. 4. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 273.01, is amended to read:

273.01 [LISTING AND ASSESSMENT, TIME.]

All real property subject to taxation shall be listed and at least one-fourth of the parcels listed shall be appraised each year with reference to their value on January 2 preceding the assessment so that each parcel shall be reappraised at maximum intervals of four years. All real property becoming taxable in any year shall be listed with reference to its value on January 2 of that year. Except as provided in this section and section 274.01, subdivision 1, all real property assessments shall be completed two weeks prior to the date scheduled for the local board of review or equalization. No changes in valuation or classification which are intended to correct errors in judgment by the county assessor may be made by the county assessor after the board of review or the county board of equalization has adjourned; however, corrections of errors that are merely clerical in nature or changes that extend homestead treatment to property are permitted after adjournment until the tax extension date for that assessment year. Any changes made by the assessor after ~~this time~~ adjournment must be fully documented and maintained in a file in the assessor's office and shall be available for review by any person. A copy of any changes made during this period shall be sent to the county board no later than December 31 of the assessment year. In the event a valuation and classification is not placed on any real property by the dates scheduled for the local board of review or equalization the valuation and classification determined in the preceding assessment shall be continued in effect and the provisions of section 273.13 shall, in such case, not be applicable, except with respect to real estate which has been constructed since the previous assessment. Real property containing iron ore, the fee to which is owned by the state of Minnesota, shall, if leased by the state after January 2 in any year, be subject to assessment for that year on the value of any iron ore removed under said lease prior to January 2 of the following year. Personal property subject to taxation shall be listed and assessed annually with reference to its value on January 2, and, if acquired on that day, shall be listed by or for the person acquiring it.

Sec. 5. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 273.11, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [GENERALLY.] Except as provided in subdivisions

6, 8, and 9 or section 273.17, subdivision 1, all property shall be valued at its market value. The market value as determined pursuant to this section shall be stated such that any amount under $100 is rounded up to $100 and any amount exceeding $100 shall be rounded to the nearest $100. In estimating and determining such value, the assessor shall not adopt a lower or different standard of value because the same is to serve as a basis of taxation, nor shall the assessor adopt as a criterion of value the price for which such property would sell at a forced sale, or in the aggregate with all the property in the town or district; but the assessor shall value each article or description of property by itself, and at such sum or price as the assessor believes the same to be fairly worth in money. In assessing any tract or lot of real property, the value of the land, exclusive of structures and improvements, shall be determined, and also the value of all structures and improvements thereon, and the aggregate value of the property, including all structures and improvements, excluding the value of crops growing upon cultivated land. In valuing real property upon which there is a mine or quarry, it shall be valued at such price as such property, including the mine or quarry, would sell for a fair, voluntary sale, for cash. In valuing real property which is vacant, the fact that such property is platted shall not be taken into account. An individual lot of such platted property shall not be assessed in excess of the assessment valuation of the land as if it were unplatted until the lot is improved with a permanent improvement all or a portion of which is located upon the lot, or for a period of three years after final approval of said plat whichever is shorter. When a lot is sold or construction begun, the net tax capacity of that lot or any single contiguous lot fronting on the same street shall be eligible for reassessment revaluation. All property, or the use thereof, which is taxable under section 272.01, subdivision 2, or 273.19, shall be valued at the market value of such property and not at the value of a leasehold estate in such property, or at some lesser value than its market value.

Sec. 6. Minnesota Statutes Second, 1989 Supplement, section 273.124, subdivision 6, is amended to read:

Subd. 6. [LEASEHOLD COOPERATIVES.] When one or more dwellings or one or more buildings which each contain several dwelling units is owned by a nonprofit corporation subject to the provisions of chapter 317 and qualifying under section 501(c)(3) or 501(c)(4) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended through December 31, 1988, or a limited partnership which corporation or partnership operates the property in conjunction with a cooperative association, homestead treatment may be claimed by the cooperative association on behalf of the members of the cooperative for each dwelling unit occupied by a member of the cooperative. The cooperative association must provide the assessor with the social security numbers of those members. To qualify for the treatment provided by this subdivision, the following conditions must be met:

(a) the cooperative association must be organized under chapter 308A and all voting members of the board of directors must be resident tenants of the cooperative and must be elected by the resident tenants of the cooperative;

(b) the cooperative association must have a lease for occupancy of the property for a term of at least 20 years, which permits the cooperative association, while not in default on the lease, to participate materially in the management of the property, including material participation in establishing budgets, setting rent levels, and hiring and supervising a management agent;

(c) to the extent permitted under state or federal law, the cooperative association must have a right under a written agreement with the owner to purchase the property if the owner proposes to sell it; if the cooperative association does not purchase the property it is offered for sale, the owner may not subsequently sell the property to another purchaser at a price lower than the price at which it was offered for sale to the cooperative association unless the cooperative association approves the sale;

(d) the cooperative must meet one of the following criteria with respect to the income of its members: (1) a minimum of 75 percent of members must have incomes at or less than 80 percent of area median income, (2) a minimum of 40 percent of members must have incomes at or less than 60 percent of area median income, or (3) a minimum of 20 percent of members must have incomes at or less than 50 percent of area median income. For purposes of this clause, "member income" means the income of a member existing at the time the member acquires his or her cooperative membership, and "median income" means the St. Paul-Minneapolis metropolitan area median income as determined by the United States Department of Housing and Urban Development;

(e) if a limited partnership owns the property, it must include as the managing general partner a nonprofit organization operating under the provisions of chapter 317 and qualifying under section 501(c)(3) or 501(c)(4) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended through December 31, 1988, and the limited partnership agreement must provide that the managing general partner have sufficient powers so that it materially participates in the management and control of the limited partnership;

(f) prior to becoming a member of a leasehold cooperative described in this subdivision, a person must have received notice that (1) describes leasehold cooperative property in plain language, including but not limited to the effects of classification under this subdivision on rents, property taxes and tax credits or refunds, and operating expenses, and (2) states that copies of the articles of incorporation and bylaws of the cooperative association, the lease between the owner and the cooperative association, a sample sub-lease between the cooperative association and a tenant, and, if the owner is a partnership, a copy of the limited partnership agreement, can be obtained upon written request at no charge from the owner, and the owner must send or deliver the materials within seven days after receiving any request;

(g) if a dwelling unit of a building was occupied on the 60th day prior to the date on which the unit became leasehold cooperative property described in this subdivision, ~~then (1) the notice described in paragraph (f) must have been sent by first class mail to the occupant of the unit at least 60 days prior to the date on which the unit became leasehold cooperative property, and (2) prior to the mailing of the notice.~~ For purposes of the notice under this paragraph, the copies of the documents referred to in paragraph (f) may be in proposed version, provided that any subsequent material alteration of those documents made after the occupant has requested a copy shall be disclosed to any occupant who has requested a copy of the document. Copies of the documents identified in the notice must have been articles of incorporation and certificate of limited partnership shall be filed with the secretary of state after the expiration of the 60-day period unless the change to leasehold cooperative status does not proceed; and

(h) the county attorney of the county in which the property is located must certify to the assessor that the property meets the requirements of this subdivision.

Homestead treatment must be afforded to units occupied by members of the cooperative association and the units must be assessed as provided in subdivision 3, provided that any unit not so occupied shall be classified and assessed pursuant to the appropriate class. No more than three acres of land may, for assessment purposes, be included with each dwelling unit that qualifies for homestead treatment under this subdivision.

Sec. 7. Minnesota Statutes Second 1989 Supplement, section 273.13, subdivision 25, is amended to read:

Subd. 25. [CLASS 4.] (a) Class 4a is residential real estate containing four or more units and used or held for use by the owner or by the tenants or lessees of the owner as a residence for rental periods of 30 days or more. Class 4a also includes hospitals licensed under sections 144.50 to 144.56, other than hospitals exempt under section 272.02, and contiguous property used for hospital purposes, without regard to whether the property has been platted or subdivided. Class 4a property has a class rate of 3.6 percent of market value.

(b) Class 4b includes:

(1) residential real estate containing less than four units, other than seasonal residential, and recreational;

(2) post-secondary student housing not to exceed one acre of land which is owned by a nonprofit corporation organized under chapter 317 and is used exclusively by a sorority or fraternity organization for housing;

(3) manufactured homes not classified under any other provision;

(4) a dwelling, garage, and surrounding one acre of property on a nonhomestead farm classified under subdivision 23, paragraph (b).

Class 4b property has a class rate of 3.0 percent of market value.

(c) Class 4c property includes:

(1) a structure that is situated on real property that is used for housing for the elderly or for low and moderate income families as defined by Title II of the National Housing Act or the Minnesota housing finance agency law of 1971 or rules promulgated by the agency pursuant thereto and financed by a direct federal loan or federally insured loan or a loan made by the Minnesota housing finance agency pursuant to the provisions of either of those acts and acts amendatory thereof. This clause applies only to property of a nonprofit or limited dividend entity. Property is classified as class 4c under this clause for 15 years from the date of the completion of the original construction or substantial rehabilitation, or for the original term of the loan;

(2) a structure that is:

(i) situated upon real property that is used for housing lower income families or elderly or handicapped persons, as defined in section 8 of the United States Housing Act of 1937, as amended; and

(ii) owned by an entity which has entered into a housing assistance payments contract under section 8 which provides assistance for 100 percent of the dwelling units in the structure, other than dwelling units intended for management or maintenance personnel. Property is classified as class 4c under this clause for the term of the housing assistance payments contract, including all renewals, or for the term of its permanent financing, whichever is shorter; and

(3) a qualified low-income building that (i) receives a low-income housing credit under section 42 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended through December 31, 1988; or (ii) meets the requirements of that section. Classification pursuant to this clause is limited to buildings the construction or rehabilitation of which began after May 1, 1988, and to a term of 15 years.

For all properties described in clauses (1), (2), and (3) and in paragraph (d), the market value determined by the assessor must be based on the normal approach to value using normal unrestricted rents. The land on which these structures are situated has the class rate given in paragraph (b) if the structure contains fewer than four units, and the class rate given in paragraph (a) if the structure contains four or more units.

(4) a parcel of land, not to exceed one acre, and its improvements or a parcel of unimproved land, not to exceed one acre, if it is owned by a neighborhood real estate trust and at least 60 percent of the dwelling units, if any, on all land owned by the trust are leased to or occupied by lower income families or individuals. This clause does not apply to any portion of the land or improvements used for nonresidential purposes. For purposes of this clause, a lower income family is a family with an income that does not exceed 65 percent of the median family income for the area, and a lower income individual is an individual whose income does not exceed 65 percent of the median individual income for the area, as determined by the United States Secretary of Housing and Urban Development. For purposes of this clause, "neighborhood real estate trust" means an entity which is certified by the governing body of the municipality in which it is located to have the following characteristics: (a) it is a nonprofit corporation organized under chapter 317; (b) it has as its principal purpose providing housing for lower income families in a specific geographic community designated in its articles or bylaws; (c) it limits membership with voting rights to residents of the designated community; and (d) it has a board of directors consisting of at least seven directors, 60 percent of whom are members with voting rights and, to the extent feasible, 25 percent of whom are elected by resident members of buildings owned by the trust; and

(5) except as provided in subdivision 22, paragraph (c), real property devoted to temporary and seasonal residential occupancy for recreation purposes, including real property devoted to temporary and seasonal residential occupancy for recreation purposes and not devoted to commercial purposes for more than 225 days in the year preceding the year of assessment. For this purpose, property is devoted to commercial use on a specific day if it is used, or offered for use, and a fee is charged for the use. Class 4c also includes commercial use real property used exclusively for recreational purposes in conjunction with class 4c property devoted to temporary and seasonal residential occupancy for recreational purposes, up to a total of two acres, provided the property is not devoted to commercial recreational use for more than 225 days in the year preceding the year of assessment and is located within two miles of the class 4c property with which it is used. Class 4c property classified in this clause and clause (6) also includes the remainder of class 1c resorts; and

(6) real property up to a maximum of one acre of land owned by a nonprofit community service oriented organization; provided that the property is not used for a revenue-producing activity for more than six days in the calendar year preceding the year of assessment and the property is not used for residential purposes on either a temporary or permanent basis. For purposes of this clause, a "nonprofit community service oriented organization" means any corporation, society, association, foundation, or institution organized and operated exclusively for charitable, religious, fraternal, civic, or educational purposes, and which is exempt from federal income taxation pursuant to section 501(c)(3), (10), or (19) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended through December 31, 1988. For purposes of this clause, "revenue-producing activities" shall include but not be limited to property or that portion of the property that is used as an on-sale intoxicating liquor or nonintoxicating malt liquor establishment licensed under chapter 340A, a restaurant open to the public, bowling alley, a retail store, gambling conducted by organizations licensed under chapter 349, an insurance business, or office or other space leased or rented to a lessee who conducts a for-profit enterprise on the premises. Any portion of the property which is used for revenue-producing activities for more than six days in the calendar year preceding the year of assessment shall be assessed as class 3a. The use of the property for social events open exclusively to members and their guests for periods of less than 24 hours, when an admission is not charged nor any revenues are received by the organization shall not be considered a revenue-producing activity; and Class 4c property has a class rate of 2.4 percent of market value.

(d) Class 4d property includes any structure:

(i) situated on real property that is used for housing for the elderly or for low and moderate income families as defined by the farmers home administration;

(ii) located in a municipality of less than 10,000 population; and

(iii) financed by a direct loan or insured loan from the farmers home administration. Property is classified under this clause for 15 years from the date of the completion of the original construction or for the original term of the loan.

The class rates in paragraph (c), clauses (1), (2), and (3) and this clause apply to the properties described in them, only in proportion to occupancy of the structure by elderly or handicapped persons or low and moderate income families as defined in the applicable laws unless construction of the structure had been commenced prior to January 1, 1984; or the project had been approved by the governing body of the municipality in which it is located prior to June 30, 1983; or financing of the project had been approved by a federal or state agency prior to June 30, 1983. Classification under this clause is only available to property of a nonprofit or limited dividend entity.

Class 4d property has a class rate of 1.7 percent of market value for taxes payable in 1990, and two percent of market value for taxes payable thereafter.

(e) Residential rental property that would otherwise be assessed as class 4 property under paragraph (a); paragraph (b), clauses (1) and (2); or paragraph (c), clause (1), (2), (3), or (4); or paragraph (d), is assessed at the class rate applicable to it under Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 273.13, if it is found to be a substandard building under section 273.1316. Residential rental property that would otherwise be assessed as class 4 property under paragraph (d) is assessed at 2.4 percent of market value if it is found to be a substandard building under section 273.1316.

Sec. 8. Minnesota Statutes Second 1989 Supplement, section 273.1391, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. For taxes payable in 1990 and subsequent years, the amount of the reduction authorized by subdivision 1 shall be:

(a) In the case of property located within a school district which does not meet the qualifications of section 273.134 as a tax relief area, but which is located in a county with a population of less than 100,000 in which taconite is mined or quarried and wherein a school district is located which does meet the qualifications of a tax relief area, and provided that at least 90 percent of the area of the school district which does not meet the qualifications of section 273.134 lies within such county, 57 percent of the tax on qualified property located in the school district that does not meet the qualifications of section 273.134, provided that the amount of said reduction shall not exceed the maximum amounts specified in clause (c), and shall not exceed an amount sufficient to reduce the effective tax rate on each parcel of property to the product of 95 percent of the base year effective tax rate multiplied by the ratio of the current year's tax rate to the payable 1989 tax rate. In no case will the reduction for each homestead resulting from this credit be less than $10. The reduction provided by this clause shall only be applicable to property located within the boundaries of the county described therein.

(b) In the case of property located within a school district which does not meet the qualifications of section 273.134 as a tax relief area, but which is located in a school district in a county containing a city of the first class and a qualifying municipality, but not in a school district containing a city of the first class or adjacent to a school district containing a city of the first class unless the school district so adjacent contains a qualifying municipality, 57 percent of the tax, but not to exceed the maximums specified in clause (c), and shall not exceed an amount sufficient to reduce the effective tax rate on each parcel of property to the product of 95 percent of the base year effective tax rate multiplied by the ratio of the current year's tax rate to the payable 1989 tax rate. In no case will the reduction for each homestead resulting from this credit be less than $10.

(c) The maximum reduction of the tax up to the taxonite breakpoint is $200.10 for taxes payable in 1985. This maximum amount shall increase by $15 multiplied by the quantity one minus the homestead credit equivalency percentage per year for taxes payable in 1986 and subsequent years.

For the purposes of this subdivision, "homestead credit equivalency percentage" means one minus the ratio of the net tax capacity percentage to the gross tax capacity percentage applicable to the first $68,000 of the market value of residential homesteads, and "effective tax rate" means tax divided by the market value of a property, and the "base year effective tax rate" means the payable 1988 tax on a property with an identical market value to that of the property receiving the credit in the current year after application of the credits payable under Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 273.13, subdivisions 22 and 23, and this section, divided by the market value of the property.

Sec. 9. Minnesota Statutes Second 1989 Supplement, section 273.1398, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [DEFINITIONS.] (a) In this section, the terms defined in this subdivision have the meanings given them.

(b) "Unique taxing jurisdiction" means the geographic area subject to the same set of tax capacity rates.

(c) "Gross tax capacity" means the product of the gross class rates and estimated market values. "Total gross tax capacity" means the gross tax capacities for all property within the unique taxing jurisdiction. The total gross tax capacity used shall be reduced by the sum of (1) the unique taxing jurisdiction's gross tax capacity of commercial industrial property as defined in section 473F.02, subdivision 3, multiplied by the ratio determined pursuant to section 473F.08, subdivision 6, for the municipality, as defined in section 473F.02, subdivision 8, in which the unique taxing jurisdiction is located, (2) the gross tax capacity of the captured value of tax increment financing districts as defined in section 469.177, subdivision 2, and (3) the gross tax capacity of transmission lines deducted from a local government's total gross tax capacity under section 273.425. Gross tax capacity cannot be less than zero.

(d) "Net tax capacity" means the product of the appropriate net class rates for the year in which the aid is payable, except that for class 3 utility real and personal property the class rate applied shall be 5.38 percent, and estimated market values for the assessment two years prior to that in which aid is payable. "Total net tax capacity" means the net tax capacities for all property within the unique taxing jurisdiction. The total net tax capacity used shall be reduced by the sum of (1) the unique taxing jurisdiction's net tax capacity of commercial industrial property as defined in section 473F.02, subdivision 3, multiplied by the ratio determined pursuant to section 473F.08, subdivision 6, for the municipality, as defined in section 473F.02, subdivision 8, in which the unique taxing jurisdiction is located, (2) the net tax capacity of the captured value of tax increment financing districts as defined in section 469.177, subdivision 2, and (3) the net tax capacity of transmission lines deducted from a local government's total net tax capacity under section 273.425. For purposes of determining the net tax capacity of property referred to in clauses (1) and (2), the net tax capacity shall be multiplied by the ratio of the highest class rate for class 3a property for taxes payable in the year in which the aid is payable to the highest class rate for class 3a property in the prior year. Net tax capacity cannot be less than zero.

(e) "Equalized market values" are market values that have been equalized by dividing the assessor's estimated market value for the second year prior to that in which the aid is payable by the assessment sales ratios determined by class in the assessment sales ratio study conducted by the department of revenue pursuant to section 124.2131 in the second year prior to that in which the aid is payable. The equalized market values shall equal the unequalized market values divided by the assessment sales ratio.

(f) "Local tax rate" means the quotient derived by dividing the gross taxes levied within a unique taxing jurisdiction for taxes payable in 1989 by the gross tax capacity of the unique taxing jurisdiction for taxes payable in 1989. For computation of the local tax rate for aid payable in 1991 and subsequent years, gross taxes for taxes payable in 1989 exclude equalized levies as defined in subdivision 2a. For purposes of computation of the local tax rate only, gross taxes shall not be adjusted by inflation or household growth.

(g) For purposes of calculating the homestead and agricultural credit aid authorized pursuant to subdivision 2, the "subtraction factor" is the product of (i) a unique taxing jurisdiction's local tax rate; (ii) its total net tax capacity; and (iii) 0.9767.

(h) For purposes of calculating and allocating homestead and agricultural credit aid authorized pursuant to subdivision 2 and the disparity reduction aid authorized in subdivision 3, "gross taxes levied on all properties" or "gross taxes" means the total gross taxes levied on all properties except that levied on the captured value of tax increment districts as defined in section 469.177, subdivision 2, and that levied on the portion of commercial industrial properties' assessed value or gross tax capacity, as defined in section 473F.02, subdivision 3, subject to the areawide tax as provided in section

473F.08, subdivision 6, in a unique taxing jurisdiction before reduction by any credits for taxes payable in 1989. Gross taxes are before any reduction for disparity reduction aid. Gross taxes levied cannot be less than zero.

For homestead and agricultural credit aid payable in 1991 and subsequent years, "gross taxes" or "gross taxes levied on all properties" shall mean gross taxes payable in 1989, excluding taxes defined as "equalized levies" actual amounts levied for the purposes listed in subdivision 2a, multiplied by the cost-of-living adjustment factor and the household adjustment factor.

(i) "Human services aids" means:

(1) aid to families with dependent children under sections 256.82, subdivision 1, and 256.935, subdivision 1;

(2) medical assistance under sections 256B.041, subdivision 5, and 256B.19, subdivision 1;

(3) general assistance medical care under section 256D.03, subdivision 6;

(4) general assistance under section 256D.03, subdivision 2;

(5) work readiness under section 256D.03, subdivision 2;

(6) emergency assistance under section 256.871, subdivision 6;

(7) Minnesota supplemental aid under section 256D.36, subdivision 1;

(8) preadmission screening and alternative care grants under section 256B.091;

(9) work readiness services under section 256D.051;

(10) case management services under section 256.736, subdivision 13;

(11) general assistance claims processing, medical transportation and related costs; and

(12) medical assistance, medical transportation and related costs.

(j) "Adjustment factor" means one plus the percentage change in (1) the ratio of estimated market value of residential homesteads property to the estimated market value of all taxable property within the city or township containing the unique taxing jurisdiction based on the assessment one year prior to the year in which the aid is payable when compared to the same ratio based on the assessment two years prior to the year in which the aid is payable. If the market value of farm homesteads exceeds the market value of residential homesteads in the city or township containing the unique taxing jurisdiction for the assessment two years prior to the year in which the aid is payable, "adjusted adjustment factor" means one plus the percentage change in the ratio of the estimated market value of farm homesteads property to the estimated market value of all taxable property within the city or township containing the unique taxing jurisdiction based on the assessment one year prior to the year in which the aid is payable when compared to the same ratio based on the assessment two years prior to the year in which the aid is payable. The adjustment factor cannot be less than one. Estimates of market value for the assessment one year prior to the year in which the aid is paid will be made on the basis of the abstract submitted pursuant to section 270.11. Discrepancies between the estimate and actual market values will not result in increased or decreased aid in the year in which the estimates are used to compute aid.

(k) "Cost-of-living adjustment factor" means one plus the percentage, if any, by which:

(1) the consumer price index for the calendar year preceding that in which aid is payable, exceeds

(2) the consumer price index for calendar year 1989.

(l) "Consumer price index for any calendar year" means the average of the consumer price index as of the close of the 12-month period ending on May 31 of such calendar year.

(m) "Consumer price index" means the last consumer price index for all-urban consumers published by the department of labor. For purposes of the preceding sentence, the revision of the consumer price index which is most consistent with the consumer price index for calendar year 1989 shall be used.

(n) "Household adjustment factor" means the number of households for the most recent year preceding that in which the aids are payable divided by the 1988 number of households. The household adjustment factor cannot be less than one.

Sec. 10. Minnesota Statutes Second 1989 Supplement, section 273.1398, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [HOMESTEAD AND AGRICULTURAL CREDIT AID.]

(a) Initial homestead and agricultural credit aid for each unique taxing jurisdiction equals the total gross taxes levied on all properties, minus the unique taxing jurisdiction's subtraction factor. The commissioner of revenue may, in computing the amount of the homestead and agricultural credit aid paid in 1990, adjust the gross tax capacity, net tax capacity, and gross taxes of a taxing jurisdiction for taxes payable in 1989 to reflect auditor's errors in computing taxes payable for 1989 in unique taxing jurisdictions within independent school district Nos. 720 and 792. Homestead and agricultural credit aid cannot be less than zero.

(b)(1) The homestead and agricultural credit aid is allocated to each local government levying taxes in the unique taxing jurisdiction in the proportion that the local government's gross taxes bears to the total gross taxes levied within the unique taxing jurisdiction.

(2) The 1990 homestead and agricultural credit aid so determined for school districts for purposes of general education levies pursuant to section 124A.23, subdivisions 2 and 2a, and transportation levies pursuant to section 275.125, subdivisions 5 and 5c, shall be multiplied by the ratio of the adjusted gross tax capacity based upon the 1988 adjusted gross tax capacity to the estimated 1987 adjusted gross tax capacity based upon the 1987 adjusted assessed value.

(3) ~~If a local government's total tax capacity rate for all funds for taxes payable in 1989 varies within the area in which it exercises taxing authority, the local government's allocated homestead and agricultural credit aid must be further allocated between the part of its levy in respect to which the tax capacity rate is constant throughout the area in which it exercises taxing authority and the part of its levy in respect to which the tax capacity rate varies throughout the area in which it exercises taxing authority.~~

(c) The calendar year 1990 homestead and agricultural credit aid shall be adjusted by the adjustment factor.

(d) Payments under this subdivision to counties in 1990 and subsequent years shall be reduced by the amount provided in section 477A.012, subdivisions 3, paragraph (d), and 4, paragraph (d).

(e) Payments under this subdivision to cities and towns shall be annually reduced by the amount of the homestead and agricultural credit aid adjustment, if any, determined for 1990 under section 477A.013, subdivision 6.

Sec. 11. Minnesota Statutes Second 1989 Supplement, section 273.1398, subdivision 5, is amended to read:

Subd. 5. [ADDITIONAL HOMESTEAD AND AGRICULTURAL CREDIT GUARANTEE.] Beginning with taxes payable in 1990, each unique taxing jurisdiction may receive additional homestead and agricultural credit guarantee payments.

(1) Each year, the commissioner shall determine the total educational aids paid under chapters 124 and 124A, homestead and agricultural credit aid and disparity reduction aid paid under section 273.1398, local government aid to cities, counties, and towns paid under chapter 477A, and ~~income maintenance aid~~ human services aids, including for aids paid in 1991 and thereafter, the amount paid under subdivision 5b, paid to counties for each taxing jurisdiction. The commissioner shall apportion each local government's aids to the unique taxing jurisdiction based upon the proportion that the unique taxing jurisdiction's tax capacity bears to the total tax capacity of the local government.

(2) Each year, the commissioner will compute a gross tax capacity rate for each taxing jurisdiction equal to its total levy divided by its gross tax capacity under Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 273.13. For each unique taxing jurisdiction, a total gross tax capacity rate will be determined. This total gross tax capacity rate will be applied against the gross tax capacity of property that would have been eligible for the homestead credit or the agricultural credit for taxes payable in 1989. An estimated credit amount will be determined for all qualifying parcels based upon the credit rate structure in effect for taxes payable in 1989. The resulting credit amounts will be summed for all parcels in the unique taxing jurisdiction.

If the amount determined in clause (2) is greater than the amount determined in clause (1), the difference will be additional homestead and agricultural credit guarantee payments for the unique taxing jurisdiction. The additional credit amount shall proportionately reduce the tax capacity rates of all local governments levying taxes within the unique taxing jurisdiction in the following year. The commissioner shall certify the amounts of additional credits determined under this subdivision to the county auditor at the time provided in subdivision 6.

Sec. 12. Minnesota Statutes Second 1989 Supplement, section 273.1398, subdivision 5a, is amended to read:

Subd. 5a. [AID ADJUSTMENT FOR COUNTY HUMAN SERVICES AID.] (a) There shall be transferred to the human services aid account from the payment to a county under subdivision 2 an amount representing a county's human services aid increase as calculated in subdivision 5b, paragraphs (a) to (c). The amount calculated for each county shall be deducted ~~from the first payment to the~~ equally from the July and December payments to the county under this section in 1991 and subsequent years. If the deduction exceeds the amount of the first payment, the balance shall be subtracted from the second payment. The amount of the payments under subdivision 2 shall not be less than zero as a result of this adjustment.

Sec. 13. Minnesota Statutes Second 1989 Supplement, section 273.1398, subdivision 6, is amended to read:

Subd. 6. [PAYMENT.] The commissioner shall certify the aids provided in subdivisions 2, 2b, 3, and 5 before December 1, 1989, and October 1 thereafter of the year preceding the distribution year to the county auditor of the affected local government and pay them and the credit reimbursements to local governments other than school districts at the times provided in section 477A.015 for payment of local government aid to taxing jurisdictions. Aids and credit reimbursements to school districts must be certified to the commissioner of education and paid under section 273.1392. Except for education districts and secondary cooperatives that receive revenue according to section 124.2721 or 124.575, payment shall not be made to any taxing jurisdiction that has ceased to levy a property tax nor shall homestead and agricultural credit aid be payable on the part of a levy to which homestead and agricultural credit aid was separately allocated under subdivision 2, paragraph (b), clause (2), which is no longer levied.

Sec. 14. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 274.01, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [ORDINARY BOARD; MEETINGS, DEADLINES, GRIEVANCES.] (a) The town board of a town, or the council or other governing body of a city, is the board of review except in cities whose charters provide for a board of equalization. The county assessor shall fix a day and time when the board or the board of equalization shall meet in the assessment districts of the county. On or before February 15 of each year the assessor shall give written notice of the time to the city or town clerk. Notwithstanding the provisions of any charter to the contrary, the meetings must be held between April 1 and May 31 each year. The clerk shall give published and posted notice of the meeting at least ten days before the date of the meeting. The board shall meet at the office of the clerk to review the assessment and classification of property in the town or city. No changes in valuation or classification which are intended to correct errors in judgment by the county assessor may be made by the county assessor after the board of review or the county board of equalization has adjourned; however, corrections of errors that are merely clerical in nature or changes that extend homestead treatment to property are permitted after the board of review or the county board of equalization has adjourned. This restriction does not apply to corrections of errors that are merely clerical or administrative in nature adjournment until the tax extension date for that assessment year. The changes must be fully documented and maintained in the assessor's office and must be available for review by any person. A copy of the changes made during this period must be sent to the county board no later than December 31 of the assessment year.

(b) The board shall determine whether the taxable property in the town or city has been properly placed on the list and properly valued by the assessor. If real or personal property has been omitted, the board shall place it on the list with its market value, and correct the assessment so that each tract or lot of real property, and each article, parcel, or class of personal property, is entered on the assessment list at its market value. No assessment of the property of any person may be raised unless the person has been duly notified of the intent of the board to do so. On application of any person feeling aggrieved, the board shall review the assessment or classification, or both, and correct it as appears just.

(c) A local board of review may reduce assessments upon petition of the taxpayer but the total reductions must not reduce the aggregate assessment made by the county assessor by more than one percent. If the total reductions would lower the aggregate assessments made by the county assessor by more than one percent, none of the adjustments may be made. The assessor shall correct any clerical errors or double assessments discovered by the board of review without regard to the one percent limitation.

(d) A majority of the members may act at the meeting, and adjourn from day to day until they finish hearing the cases presented. The assessor shall attend, with the assessment books and papers, and take part in the proceedings, but must not vote. The county assessor, or an assistant delegated by the county assessor shall attend the meetings. The board shall list separately, on a form appended to the assessment book, all omitted property added to the list by the board and all items of property increased or decreased, with the market value of each item of property, added or changed by the board, placed opposite the item. The county assessor shall enter all changes made by the board in the assessment book.

(e) If a person fails to appear in person, by counsel, or by written communication before the board after being duly notified of the board's intent to raise the assessment of the property, or if a person feeling aggrieved by an assessment or classification fails to apply for a review of the assessment or classification, the person may not appear before the county board of equalization for a review of the assessment or classification. This paragraph does not apply if an assessment was made after the board meeting, as provided in section 273.01, or if the person can establish not having received notice of market value at least five days before the local board of review meeting.

(f) The board of review or the board of equalization must complete its work and adjourn within 20 days from the time of convening stated in the notice of the clerk, unless a longer period is approved by the commissioner of revenue. No action taken after that date is valid. All complaints about an assessment or classification made after the meeting of the board must be heard and determined by the county board of equalization. A nonresident may, at any time, before the meeting of the board of review file written objections to an assessment or classification with the county assessor. The objections must be presented to the board of review at its meeting by the county assessor for its consideration.

Sec. 15. Minnesota Statutes Second 1989 Supplement, section 274.14, is amended to read:

274.14 [LENGTH OF SESSION; RECORD.]

The county board of equalization or the special board of equalization appointed by it shall meet during the last two weeks in June that contain ten meeting days, excluding Saturday and Sunday. No action taken by the county board of review after June 30 is valid, except for corrections permitted in sections 273.01 and 274.01. The county auditor shall keep an accurate record of the proceedings and orders of the board. The record must be published like other proceedings of county commissioners. A copy of the published record must be sent to the commissioner of revenue, with the abstract of assessment required by section 274.16.

Sec. 16. Minnesota Statutes Second 1989 Supplement, section 274.175, is amended to read:

274.175 [VALUES FINALIZED.]

The assessments recorded by the county assessor and the county auditor under sections 273.124, subdivision 9; 274.16; 274.17; or other law for real and personal property are final on July 1 of the assessment year, except for property added to the assessment rolls under section 272.02, subdivision 4, or deleted because of tax forfeiture pursuant to chapter 281. No changes in value may be made after July 1 of the assessment year, except for corrections permitted in sections 273.01 and 274.01.

Sec. 17. Minnesota Statutes Second 1989 Supplement, section 275.07, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. The county auditor shall adjust each local government's levy certified under subdivision 1 by the amount of homestead and agricultural credit aid certified by section 273.1398, subdivision 2, reduced by the amount under section 273.1398, subdivision 5a, and equalization aid certified by section 477A.013, subdivision 5. If a local government's homestead and agricultural credit aid was further allocated between portions of its levy pursuant to section 273.1398, subdivision 2, paragraph (b)(2), the levy or fund to which the homestead and agricultural credit aid was allocated is the levy or fund which must be adjusted.

Sec. 18. Minnesota Statutes Second 1989 Supplement, section 275.50, subdivision 5, is amended to read:

Subd. 5. Notwithstanding any other law to the contrary for taxes levied in 1989 payable in 1990 and subsequent years, "special levies" means those portions of ad valorem taxes levied by governmental subdivisions to:

(a) for taxes levied in 1990, payable in 1991 and subsequent years, pay the costs not reimbursed by the state or federal government, of payments made to or on behalf of recipients of aid under any public assistance program authorized by law, and the costs of purchase or delivery of social services. The aggregate amounts levied under this clause for the costs of purchase or delivery of social services and income maintenance programs, other than those identified in section 273.1398, subdivision 1, paragraph (i), are subject to a maximum increase over the amount levied for the previous year of 12 percent for counties within the metropolitan area as defined in section 473.121, subdivision 2, or counties outside the metropolitan area but containing a city of the first class, and 15 percent for other counties. For purposes of this clause, "income maintenance programs" include income maintenance programs in section 273.1398, subdivision 1, paragraph (i), to the extent the county provides benefits under those programs over the statutory mandated standards. Effective with taxes levied in 1990, the portion of this special levy for human service programs identified in section 273.1398, subdivision 1, paragraph (i), is eliminated;

(b) pay the costs of principal and interest on bonded indebtedness except on bonded indebtedness issued under section 471.981, subdivisions 4 to 4c, or to reimburse for the amount of liquor store revenues used to pay the principal and interest due in the year preceding the year for which the levy limit is calculated on municipal liquor store bonds;

(c) pay the costs of principal and interest on certificates of indebtedness, except tax anticipation or aid anticipation certificates of indebtedness, issued for any corporate purpose except current expenses or funding an insufficiency in receipts from taxes or other sources or funding extraordinary expenditures resulting from a public emergency; and to pay the cost for certificates of indebtedness issued pursuant to sections 298.28 and 298.282;

(d) fund the payments made to the Minnesota state armory building commission pursuant to section 193.145, subdivision 2, to retire the principal and interest on armory construction bonds;

(e) provide for the bonded indebtedness portion of payments made to another political subdivision of the state of Minnesota;

(f) pay the amounts required, in accordance with section 275.075, to correct for a county auditor's error of omission but only to the extent that when added to the preceding year's levy it is not in excess of an applicable statutory, special law or charter limitation, or the limitation imposed on the governmental subdivision by sections 275.50 to 275.56 in the preceding levy year;

(g) pay amounts required to correct for an error of omission in the levy certified to the appropriate county auditor or auditors by the governing body of a city or town with statutory city powers in a levy year, but only to the extent that when added to the preceding year's levy it is not in excess of an applicable statutory, special law or charter limitation, or the limitation imposed on the governmental subdivision by sections 275.50 to 275.56 in the preceding levy year;

(h) pay amounts required by law to be paid to pay the interest on and to reduce the unfunded accrued liability of public pension funds in accordance with the actuarial standards and guidelines specified in sections 356.215 and 356.216 reduced by 106 percent of the amount levied for that purpose in 1976, payable in 1977. For the purpose of this special levy, the estimated receipts expected from the state of Minnesota pursuant to sections 69.011 to 69.031 or any other state aid expressly intended for the support of public pension funds shall be considered as a deduction in determining the required levy for the normal costs of the public pension funds. No amount of these aids shall be considered as a deduction in determining the governmental subdivision's required levy for the reduction of the unfunded accrued liability of public pension funds;

(i) to compensate the state for the cost of a reassessment ordered by the commissioner of revenue pursuant to section 270.16;

(j) pay the debt service on tax increment financing revenue bonds to the extent that revenue to pay the bonds or to maintain reserves for the bonds is insufficient as a result of the provisions of Laws 1988, chapter 719, article 5;

(k) pay the cost of hospital care under section 261.21;

(l) pay the unreimbursed costs incurred in the previous year to satisfy judgments rendered against the governmental subdivision by a court of competent jurisdiction in any tort action, or to pay the costs of settlements out of court against the governmental subdivision in a tort action when substantiated by a stipulation for the dismissal of the action filed with the court of competent jurisdiction and signed by both the plaintiff and the legal representative of the governmental subdivision, provided that an appeal for the unreimbursed costs under this clause was approved by the commissioner of revenue under section 275.51, subdivision 3;

(m) pay the expenses reasonably and necessarily incurred in preparing for or repairing the effects of natural disaster including the occurrence or threat of widespread or severe damage, injury, or loss of life or property resulting from natural causes such as earthquake, fire, flood, wind storm, wave action, oil spill, water contamination, air contamination, or drought in accordance with standards formulated by the emergency services division of the state department of public safety, provided that an appeal for the expenses incurred under this clause were approved by the commissioner of revenue under section 275.51, subdivision 3;

(n) pay a portion of the losses in tax receipts to a city due to tax abatements or court actions in the year preceding the current levy year, provided that an appeal for the tax losses was approved by the commissioner of revenue under section 275.51, subdivision 3. This special levy is limited to the amount of the losses times the ratio of the nonspecial levies to total levies for taxes payable in the year the abatements were granted. County governments are not authorized to claim this special levy;

(o) pay the operating cost of regional library services authorized under section 134.34, subject to a maximum increase over the previous year of the greater of (1) 103 percent multiplied by one plus the percentage increase determined for the governmental subdivision under section 275.51, subdivision 3h, clause (b), or (2) six percent. If a governmental subdivision elected to include some or all of its levy for libraries within its adjusted levy limit base in the prior year, but elects to claim the levy as a special levy in the current levy year, the allowable increase is determined by applying the greater percentage determined under clause (1) or (2) to the total amount levied for libraries in the prior levy year. After levy year 1989, the increase must not be determined using a base amount other than the amount that could have been levied as a special levy in the prior year. In no event shall the special levy be less than the minimum levy required under sections 134.33 and 134.34, subdivisions 1 and 2;

(p) pay the amount of the county building fund levy permitted under section 373.40, subdivision 6;

(q) pay the county's share of the costs levied in 1989, 1990, and 1991 for the Minnesota cooperative soil survey under Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 40.07, subdivision 15;

(r) for taxes levied in 1989, payable in 1990 only, pay the cost incurred for the minimum share required by counties levying for the first time under section 134.34 as required under section 134.341. For taxes levied in 1990, and thereafter, counties levying under this provision must levy under clause (o), and their allowable increase must be determined with reference to the amount levied in 1989 under this paragraph;

(s) for taxes levied in 1989, payable in 1990 only, provide an amount equal to 50 percent of the estimated amount of the reduction in aids to a county under sections 273.1398, subdivision 2, paragraph (d), and 477A.012, subdivision 3, for aids payable in 1990;

(t) for taxes levied in 1990 only by a county in the eighth judicial district, provide an amount equal to the amount of the levy, if any, that is required under Laws 1989, chapter 335, article 3, section 54, subdivision 8;

(u) for taxes levied in 1989, payable in 1990 only, pay the costs not reimbursed by the state or federal government:

(i) for the costs of purchase or delivery of social services. The aggregate amounts levied under this item are subject to a maximum increase over the amount levied in the previous year of 12 percent for counties within the metropolitan area as defined in section 473.121, subdivision 2, or counties outside the metropolitan area but containing a city of the first class, and 15 percent for other counties.

(ii) for payments made to or on behalf of recipients of aid under any public assistance program authorized by law. The aggregate amounts levied under this item are subject to a maximum increase over the amount levied in the previous year of 12 percent and must be used only for the public assistance programs; and.

If the amount levied under this paragraph (u) in 1989 is less than the actual expenditures needed for these programs for 1990, the difference between the actual expenditures and the amount levied may be levied in 1990 as a special levy. If the amount levied in 1989 is greater than the actual expenditures needed for these programs for 1990, the difference between the amount levied and the actual expenditures shall be deducted from the 1990 levy limit, payable in 1991; and

(v) pay an amount of up to 25 percent of the money sought for distribution and approved under section 115A.557, subdivision 3, paragraph (b), clause (3).

If the amount levied in 1989 is less than the actual expenditures needed for these programs for 1990, the difference between the actual expenditures and the amount levied may be levied in 1990 as a special levy. If the amount levied in 1989 is greater than the actual expenditures needed for these programs for 1990, the difference between the amount levied and the actual expenditures shall be deducted from the 1990 levy limit, payable in 1991.

Sec. 19. Minnesota Statutes Second 1989 Supplement, section 275.51, subdivision 3f, is amended to read:

Subd. 3f. [LEVY LIMIT BASE.] (a) The property tax levy limit base for governmental subdivisions for taxes levied in 1988 shall be equal to the total actual levy for taxes payable in 1988 with additions and subtractions as specified in paragraphs (b) and (c).

(b) The amounts to be added to the actual 1988 levy are (1) the amount of local government aid the governmental subdivision was certified to receive in 1988 under sections 477A.011 to 477A.014, (2) its 1988 taconite aids under sections 298.28 and 298.282, and (3) its 1988 wetlands and native prairie reimbursements under Minnesota Statutes 1986, sections 273.115, subdivision 3, and 273.116, subdivision 3.

(c) The amounts to be subtracted from the actual 1988 levy are (1) any special levies claimed for taxes payable in 1988 pursuant to Laws 1987, chapter 268, article 5, section 12, subdivision 4, clauses (1), (2), (3), and (4); and (2) for a governmental subdivision participating in a regional library system receiving grants from the department of education under section 134.34, the amount levied for taxes payable in 1988 for the operating costs of a public library service.

(d) For taxes levied in 1989 and subsequent years, a governmental subdivision's levy limit base is equal to its adjusted levy limit base for the preceding year, provided that for taxes levied in 1989, the amount of the administrative reimbursement aid received in 1988 shall be added to the base.

(e) For taxes levied by a county in 1989, the levy limit base determined under paragraph (d) shall be reduced by an amount equal to 90 percent of the cost of public defender services for felonies and gross misdemeanors and the costs of law clerks in the county that are assumed by the state during calendar year 1990, less 103 percent of one-half the amount of fees collected by the courts in the county during calendar year 1988. For taxes levied in 1990, the levy limit base determined under paragraph (d) shall first be increased by the product of (1) the amount deducted under this paragraph for taxes levied in 1989 and (2) the adjustments under subdivision 3h, paragraphs (a) and (b) for taxes levied in 1989, and then shall be reduced by an amount equal to the cost of public defender services for felonies and gross misdemeanors and the cost of law clerks in the county that are assumed by the state during calendar year 1991, less the amount of fees collected by the courts in the county during calendar year 1989, computed at the rate of $30 for civil and probate filings and $20 for marriage dissolutions.

(f) For taxes levied in 1989 only, by a county that is located in the eighth judicial district, the levy limit base determined under paragraphs (d) and (e) shall be further reduced by an amount equal to 90 percent of the cost of operation of the trial courts in the county during calendar year 1990 that are assumed by the state and for which an appropriation is provided, less 103 percent of the sum of (1)

the remaining one-half of the amount of fees and (2) 100 percent of the amount of fines collected by the courts in the county during calendar year 1988. For taxes levied in 1990 only by those counties, the levy limit base determined under paragraphs (d) and (e) shall first be increased by the product of (1) the amount deducted under this paragraph for taxes levied in 1989 and (2) the adjustments under subdivision 3h, paragraphs (a) and (b) for taxes levied in 1989, and then shall be further reduced by an amount equal to the cost of operation of the trial courts in the county during the first six months of calendar year 1991 that are assumed by the state less 50 percent of the amount of fines collected by the courts during calendar year 1989.

(g) By October 15, 1989, the board of public defense shall determine and certify to the commissioner of revenue the pro rata share for each county of the state-financed public defense services described in paragraph (e) during the six-month period beginning July 1, 1990. By October 15, 1989, the supreme court shall determine and certify to the department of revenue for each county the pro rata share for each county of the cost of providing law clerks during the three-month period beginning October 1, 1990, plus, for each county located in the eighth judicial district, the cost of operation of the trial courts during calendar year 1990.

By July 15, 1990, the board of public defense shall determine and certify to the department of revenue the pro rata share for each county of the state-financed public defense services described in paragraph (e) during calendar year 1991. By July 15, 1990, the supreme court shall determine and certify to the department of revenue for each county the pro rata share for each county of the cost of providing law clerks during calendar year 1991 plus, for each county located in the eighth judicial district, the cost of operation of the trial courts during the first six months of 1991.

(h) For taxes levied in a county in 1991, the levy limit base shall be reduced by an amount equal to the cost in the county of court reporters, judicial officers, and district court referees and the expenses of law clerks and court reporters as authorized in sections 484.545, subdivision 3, and 486.05, subdivisions 1 and 1a, as certified by the supreme court pursuant to section 477A.012, subdivision 4.

(i) If a governmental subdivision received an adjustment to its levy limit base for taxes levied in 1988 under section 275.51, subdivision 3j, its levy limit base for taxes levied in 1989 must be reduced by the lesser of (1) the adjustment under section 275.51, subdivision 3j, or (2) the difference between its (i) levy limit for taxes levied in 1988 and its (ii) total actual levy for taxes levied in 1988 minus any special levies claimed for taxes levied in 1988 under section 275.50, subdivision 5.

Sec. 20. Minnesota Statutes Second 1989 Supplement, section 275.51, subdivision 3h, is amended to read:

Subd. 3h. [ADJUSTED LEVY LIMIT BASE.] For taxes levied in 1989 and thereafter, the adjusted levy limit base is equal to the levy limit base computed pursuant to subdivision 3f, increased by:

(a) three percent for taxes levied in 1989 and subsequent years;

(b) a percentage equal to (1) one-half of the greater of the percentage increases in population or in number of households, if any, for cities and towns and (2) the lesser of the percentage increase in population or the number of households, if any, for counties, using figures derived pursuant to subdivision 6;

(c) the amount of a permanent increase in the levy limit base approved at a general or special election held during the 12-month period ending ~~September 30~~ four working days after December 20 of the levy year under section 275.58, subdivisions 1 and 2;

(d) for levy year 1989, for a county which incurred costs since October 1978, for the litigation of federal land claims under United States Code, title 18, section 1162; United States Code, title 25, section 331; and United States Code, title 28, section 1360; an amount of up to the actual costs incurred by the county for this purpose. This adjustment shall not exceed $250,000;

(e) for levy year 1989, an amount of $1,724,000 for Ramsey county for implementing the local government pay equity act under sections 471.991 to 471.999. Furthermore, in levy years 1990 and 1991, an additional amount of $862,000 shall be added to Ramsey county's adjusted levy limit base under this clause for each of the two years; and

(f) for levy year 1989, an amount equal to the decrease in a county's 50 percent share of the powerline taxes extended between taxes payable years 1988 and 1989 under section 273.42, subdivision 1. The adjustment shall be determined by the department of revenue.

For taxes levied in 1989, the adjusted levy limit base is reduced by an amount equal to the estimated amount of the reduction in aids to a county under sections 273.1398, subdivision 2, paragraph (d), and 477A.012, subdivision 3, for aids payable in 1990.

Sec. 21. Minnesota Statutes Second 1989 Supplement, section 275.51, subdivision 6, is amended to read:

Subd. 6. [POPULATION AND HOUSEHOLD ESTIMATES.] For the purpose of determining the amount of tax that a governmental subdivision may levy in accordance with limitation established by this chapter, the population or the number of households of the governmental subdivision shall be that established by the last federal census, by a census taken pursuant to section 275.14, or by an estimate made by the metropolitan council, or by the state demographer made pursuant to section 116K.04, subdivision 4, whichever is the most recent as to the stated date of count or estimate, for the calendar year preceding the current levy year. If the area included in a governmental subdivision has increased due to annexation in the 12 months prior to the most recent population estimate for the calendar year preceding the current levy year and the adjusted levy limit base is modified under section 275.54, subdivision 3, the percentage increases in population and households determined in subdivision 3h are to be based on the change in population and number of households in the area included in the governmental subdivision before the annexation.

Sec. 22. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 275.54, is amended to read:

275.54 [CONSOLIDATION AND ANNEXATION OF GOVERNMENTAL SUBDIVISIONS.]

Subdivision 1. If all or part of the area included within two or more governmental subdivisions is consolidated, merged, or otherwise combined to constitute a single governmental subdivision, and differing limitations upon the amount of tax levy per capita apply to the governmental subdivisions from which the consolidated, merged, or otherwise combined governmental subdivision was formed, the limitation applicable to the surviving entity for purposes of sections 275.50 to 275.56 shall be equal to the highest limitation applicable to any one of the constituent subdivisions prior to the consolidation, merger or other combination.

Subd. 2. If a function or service of one governmental subdivision is transferred to another governmental subdivision, the levy limitations established by Extra Session Laws 1971, chapter 31, shall be adjusted by the commissioner of revenue in such manner so as to fairly and equitably reflect the reduced or increased property tax burdens of such subdivisions resulting from such transfer. The aggregate of the adjusted limitations shall not exceed the aggregate of such limitations prior to adjustment.

Subd. 3. [ADJUSTMENTS AFTER ANNEXATION.] If the area included within the governmental subdivision is increased due to annexation in the 12 months prior to the most recent population estimate for the calendar year preceding the current levy year and the state demographer prepares a population estimate for the annexed area under section 116K.04, subdivision 4, paragraph (11), the governmental subdivision's adjusted levy limit base under section 275.51, subdivision 3h, must be adjusted in the following manner:

(a) A percentage will be calculated equal to the percentage increase in population in the governmental subdivision due to annexation determined by dividing the population of the annexed area by the population of the governmental subdivision excluding the annexed area, using population estimates for the calendar year preceding the current levy year.

(b) The governmental subdivision's adjusted levy limit base under section 275.51, subdivision 3h, after giving effect to paragraphs (a) and (b) of subdivision 3h, but before any other paragraphs in section 275.51, subdivision 3h, shall be increased by the percentage calculated in paragraph (a) of this subdivision.

For purposes of section 275.51, subdivision 3f, the term "adjusted levy limit base" includes the adjustment made under this subdivision for the preceding year.

Sec. 23. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 287.21, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. The proceeds of the taxes levied and collected under sections 287.21 to 287.36 on or after July 1, 1985, shall be credited apportioned, 97 percent to the county revenue general fund of the state, and three percent to the county revenue fund.

Sec. 24. Minnesota Statutes Second 1989 Supplement, section 287.29, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. On or before the tenth day of each month, the county treasurer shall determine and pay to the commissioner of revenue for deposit in the state treasury and credit to the general fund the state's portion of the receipts from the sale of documentary stamps during the preceding month. The county treasurer shall provide any related reports requested by the commissioner of revenue.

Sec. 25. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 298.28, subdivision 4, is amended to read:

Subd. 4. [SCHOOL DISTRICTS.] (a) 27.5 cents per taxable ton plus the increase provided in paragraph (d) must be allocated to qualifying school districts to be distributed, based upon the certification of the commissioner of revenue, under paragraphs (b) and (c).

(b) 5.5 cents per taxable ton must be distributed to the school districts in which the lands from which taconite was mined or quarried were located or within which the concentrate was produced. The distribution must be based on the apportionment formula prescribed in subdivision 2.

(c)(i) 22 cents per taxable ton, less any amount distributed under paragraph (e), shall be distributed to a group of school districts comprised of those school districts in which the taconite was mined or quarried or the concentrate produced or in which there is a qualifying municipality as defined by section 273.134 in direct proportion to school district indexes as follows: for each school district, its pupil units determined under section 124.17 for the prior school year shall be multiplied by the ratio of the average adjusted net tax capacity per pupil unit for school districts receiving aid under this clause as calculated pursuant to chapter 124A for the school year ending prior to distribution to the adjusted net tax capacity per pupil unit of the district. Each district shall receive that portion of the distribution which its index bears to the sum of the indices for all school districts that receive the distributions.

(ii) Notwithstanding clause (i), each school district that receives a distribution under sections 298.018; 298.23 to 298.28, exclusive of any amount received under this clause; 298.34 to 298.39; 298.391 to 298.396; 298.405; or any law imposing a tax on severed mineral values that is less than the amount of its levy reduction under section 275.125, subdivision 9, for the second year prior to the year of the distribution shall receive a distribution equal to the difference; the amount necessary to make this payment shall be derived from proportionate reductions in the initial distribution to other school districts under clause (i).

(d) On July 15, in years prior to 1988, an amount equal to the increase derived by increasing the amount determined by paragraph (c) in the same proportion as the increase in the steel mill products index over the base year of 1977 as provided in section 298.24, subdivision 1, clause (a), shall be distributed to any school district described in paragraph (c) where a levy increase pursuant to section 124A.03, subdivision 2, is authorized by referendum, according to the following formula. On July 15, 1988, the increase over the amount established for 1987 shall be determined as if there had been an increase in the tax rate under section 298.24, subdivision 1, paragraph (b), according to the increase in the implicit price deflator. On July 15, 1989, and subsequent years, the increase over the amount established for the prior year shall be determined according to the increase in the implicit price deflator as provided in section 298.24, subdivision 1, paragraph (a). Each district shall receive the product of:

(i) $150 times the pupil units identified in section 124.17, subdivision 1, enrolled in the second previous year or the 1983-1984 school year, whichever is greater, less the product of ~~0.04234~~ 1.8 percent times the district's taxable ~~market value~~ net tax capacity in the second previous year; times

(ii) the lesser of:

(A) one, or

(B) the ratio of the amount certified pursuant to section 124A.03, subdivision 2, in the previous year, to the product of ~~0.04231~~ 1.8 percent times the district's taxable ~~market value~~ net tax capacity in the second previous year.

If the total amount provided by paragraph (d) is insufficient to make the payments herein required then the entitlement of $150 per pupil unit shall be reduced uniformly so as not to exceed the funds available. Any amounts received by a qualifying school district in any fiscal year pursuant to paragraph (d) shall not be applied to reduce general education aid which the district receives pursuant to section 124A.23 or the permissible levies of the district. Any amount remaining after the payments provided in this paragraph shall be paid to the commissioner of iron range resources and rehabilitation who shall deposit the same in the taconite environmental protection fund and the northeast Minnesota economic protection trust fund as provided in subdivision 11.

(e) There shall be distributed to any school district the amount which the school district was entitled to receive under section 298.32 in 1975.

Sec. 26. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 469.177, subdivision 1a, is amended to read:

Subd. 1a. [ORIGINAL TAX CAPACITY RATE.] At the time of the initial certification of the original net tax capacity for a tax increment financing district, the county auditor shall certify the original tax capacity rate that applies to the district. The original tax capacity rate is the sum of all the tax capacity rates that apply to a property in the district ~~for the taxes payable in the calendar year in which the initial certification of.~~ The tax capacity rate to be certified is the rate in effect for the same taxes payable year applicable to the tax capacity values certified as the district's original net tax capacity is requested under subdivision 1. If the total tax capacity rate applicable to properties in the tax increment financing district varies, the tax capacity rate must be computed by determining the average total tax capacity rate in the district, weighted on the basis of net tax capacity. The resulting tax capacity rate is the original tax capacity rate for the life of the district.

Sec. 27. Minnesota Statutes Second 1989 Supplement, section 473F.08, subdivision 8a, is amended to read:

Subd. 8a. [FISCAL DISPARITIES ADJUSTMENT.] In any year in which the highest class rate for class 3a property changes from the rate in the previous year, the following adjustments shall be made to the procedures described in sections 473F.06 to 473F.08.

(1) An initial contribution tax capacity shall be determined for each municipality based on the previous year's class rates.

(2) Each jurisdiction's distribution tax capacity shall be determined based upon the areawide tax base determined by summing the tax capacities computed under clause (1) for all municipalities and apportioning the resulting sum pursuant to section 473F.07, subdivision 5.

(3) Each jurisdiction's distribution levy shall be determined by applying the procedures described in subdivision 3, clause (a), to the distribution tax capacity determined pursuant to clause (2).

(4) Each municipality's final contribution tax capacity shall be determined equal to its initial contribution tax capacity multiplied by the ratio of the new highest class rate for class 3a property to the previous year's highest class rate for class 3a property.

(5) For the purposes of computing education aids and any other state aids requiring the addition of the fiscal disparities distribution tax capacity to the local tax capacity, each municipality's final distribution tax capacity shall be determined equal to its initial distribution tax capacity multiplied by the ratio of the new highest class rate for class 3a property to the previous year's highest class rate for class 3a property.

(6) The areawide tax capacity rate shall be determined by dividing the sum of the amounts determined in clause (3) by the sum of the values determined in clause (4).

~~(6)~~ (7) The final contribution tax capacity determined in clause (4) shall also be used to determine the portion of each commercial/industrial property's tax capacity subject to the areawide tax capacity rate pursuant to subdivision 6.

Sec. 28. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 477A.011, subdivision 15, is amended to read:

Subd. 15. [CITY REVENUE.] "City revenue" equals the sum of (i) the city's aid payable under section 477A.013, except for aid payable under section 477A.013, subdivision 5, in the year prior to that for which aids are being calculated, and (ii) its levy for taxes payable in the year prior to that for which aids are being calculated.

Sec. 29. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 477A.011, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 26. [LEVY.] "Levy" means the levy as defined in section 275.07, subdivision 1, including the fiscal disparities distribution levy.

Sec. 30. Minnesota Statutes Second 1989 Supplement, section 477A.012, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [AID OFFSET FOR COURT COSTS.] (a) There shall be deducted from the payment to a county under this section an amount representing the cost to the state for assumption of the cost of district court administration and operation of the trial court information system in the county and, in the case of Hennepin and Ramsey counties, of public defense services in juvenile and misdemeanor cases in the county. The amount of the deduction shall be computed as provided in this subdivision.

(b) By October 15, 1989, the board of public defense shall determine and certify to the department of revenue the cost of the state-financed public defense services in juvenile and misdemeanor cases for Hennepin and Ramsey counties during the fiscal year beginning the following July 1. By October 15, 1989, the supreme court shall determine and certify to the department of revenue for each county, except counties located in the eighth judicial district, the pro rata estimated share for each county of district court administration and trial court information system costs during the fiscal year beginning on the following July 1.

(c) One-half of the amount computed under paragraph (b) for each county shall be deducted from each payment to the county under section 477A.015 in 1990 and each subsequent year.

(d) If the amount computed under paragraph (b) plus, if applicable, the amount deducted under paragraph (e), exceeds the amount payable to a county under subdivision 1, the excess shall be deducted from the aid payable to the county under section 273.1398, subdivision 2.

(e) By July 15, 1990, the board of public defense and the supreme court shall determine and certify to the department of revenue the final actual budgeted amounts for the activities described in paragraph (b). If the amount certified under paragraph (b) is greater than the amount certified under this paragraph, the excess shall be ~~deducted from~~ added to the aid payable to the county in 1991 and each subsequent year under this section. If the amount certified under paragraph (b) is less than the amount certified under this paragraph, the difference shall be ~~added to~~ subtracted from the aid payable to the county in 1991 and each subsequent year under this section.

Sec. 31. Minnesota Statutes Second 1989 Supplement, section 477A.013, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [CITY AID DISTRIBUTION.] In 1989, a city whose initial aid is greater than $0 will receive the following aid increases in addition to an amount equal to the local government aid it received in 1988 under Minnesota Statutes 1987 Supplement, section 477A.013:

(1) for a city whose expenditure/unlimited aid ratio is at least 1.5, two percent of city revenue;

(2) for a city whose expenditure/unlimited aid ratio is at least 1.4 but less than 1.5, 2.5 percent of city revenue;

(3) for a city whose expenditure/unlimited aid ratio is at least 1.3 but less than 1.4, three percent of city revenue;

(4) for a city whose expenditure/unlimited aid ratio is at least 1.2 but less than 1.3, four percent of city revenue;

(5) for a city whose expenditure/unlimited aid ratio is at least 1.1 but less than 1.2, five percent of city revenue;

(6) for a city whose expenditure/unlimited aid ratio is at least 1.05 but less than 1.1, six percent of city revenue;

(7) for a city whose expenditure/unlimited aid ratio is at least 1.0 but less than 1.05, seven percent of city revenue;

(8) for a city whose expenditure/unlimited aid ratio is at least .95 but less than 1.0, 7.5 percent of city revenue;

(9) for a city whose expenditure/unlimited aid ratio is at least .75 but less than .95, 8.5 percent of city revenue; and

(10) for a city whose expenditure/unlimited aid ratio is less than .75, nine percent of city revenue.

In 1990, a city whose initial aid is greater than $0 will receive an amount equal to the aid it received under this section in the year prior to that for which aids are being calculated plus an aid increase equal to 50 percent of the rates listed in clauses (1) to (10) multiplied by city revenue.

In 1991 and subsequent years, a city whose initial aid is greater than $0 will receive an amount equal to the aid it received under this section in the year prior to that for which aids are being calculated plus an aid increase equal to 25 percent of the rates listed in clauses (1) to (10) multiplied by city revenue.

A city's aid increase under this subdivision is limited to the lesser of (1) 20 percent of its levy for taxes payable in the year prior to that for which aids are being calculated after the adjustments provided in section 273.1398, subdivision 2, or (2) its initial aid amount, or (3) 15 percent of the total amount received under this section in the previous year, provided that no city will receive an increase that is less than two percent of its 1989 local government aid for aids payable in 1990.

A city whose initial aid is $0 will receive in 1990 an amount equal to 102 percent of the local government aid it received in 1989 under Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 477A.013. A city whose initial aid is $0 will receive in 1991 and subsequent years an amount equal to the aid it received in the previous year under this section. For purposes of this subdivision, the term "local government aid" includes equalization aid for aids payable in 1991 and thereafter.

ARTICLE 8

PROPERTY TAX PAYMENTS, INTEREST RATES, AND SETTLEMENTS

Section 1. Minnesota Statutes Second 1989 Supplement, section 276.09, is amended to read:

276.09 [SETTLEMENT BETWEEN AUDITOR AND TREASURER.]

On the later of May 20 of each year or 26 calendar days after the postmark date on the envelopes containing real or personal property tax statements, the county treasurer shall make full settlement with the county auditor of all receipts collected for all purposes, from the date of the last settlement up to and including each day mentioned. The county auditor shall, within 30 days after the settlement, send an abstract of it to the state auditor in the form prescribed by the state auditor. At the settlement the treasurer shall make complete returns of the receipts on the current tax list, showing the amount collected on account of the several funds included in the list.

Settlement of receipts from the later of May 20 or the actual settlement date to December 31 of each year must be made as provided in section 276.111.

For purposes of this section, "receipts" includes all tax payments received by the county treasurer on or before the settlement date.

Sec. 2. Minnesota Statutes Second 1989 Supplement, section 276.10, is amended to read:

276.10 [APPORTIONMENT AND DISTRIBUTION OF FUNDS.]

On the settlement day in May of determined in section 276.09 for each year, the county auditor and county treasurer shall distribute all undistributed funds in the treasury. The funds must be apportioned as provided by law, and credited to the state, town, city, school district, special district and each county fund. Within 20 days after the distribution is completed, the county auditor shall report to the state auditor in the form prescribed by the state auditor. The county auditor shall issue a warrant for the payment of money in the county treasury to the credit of the state, town, city, school district, or special districts on application of the persons entitled to receive the payment. The county auditor may apply the tax capacity rate from the year before the year of distribution when apportioning and distributing delinquent tax proceeds, if the composition of the previous year's tax capacity rate between taxing districts is not significantly different than from the tax capacity rate that existed for the year of the delinquency.

Sec. 3. Minnesota Statutes Second 1989 Supplement, section 276.11, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [GENERALLY.] As soon as practical after the May settlement day determined in section 276.09, the county treasurer shall pay to the state treasurer or the treasurer of a town, city, school district, or special district, on the warrant of the county auditor, all receipts of taxes levied by the taxing district and deliver up all orders and other evidences of indebtedness of the taxing district, taking triplicate receipts for them. The treasurer shall file one of the receipts with the county auditor, and shall return one by mail on the day of its receipt to the clerk of the town, city, school district, or special district to which payment was made. The clerk shall keep the receipt in the clerk's office. Upon written request of the taxing district, to the extent practicable, the county treasurer shall make partial payments of amounts collected periodically in advance of the next settlement and distribution. A statement prepared by the county treasurer must accompany each payment. It must state the years for which taxes included in the payment were collected and, for each year, the amount of the taxes and any penalties on the tax. Upon written request of a taxing district, except school districts, the county treasurer shall pay at least 70 percent of the estimated collection within 30 days after the May settlement date determined in section 276.09. Within seven business days after the due date, or 28 calendar days after the postmark date on the envelopes containing real or personal property tax statements, whichever is latest, the county treasurer shall pay to the treasurer of the school districts 50 percent of the estimated collections arising from taxes levied by and belonging to the school district, unless the school district elects to receive 50 percent of the estimated collections arising from taxes levied by and belonging to the school district after making a proportionate reduction to reflect any loss in collections as the result of any delay in mailing tax statements. In that case, 50 percent of those adjusted, estimated collections shall be paid by the county treasurer to the treasurer of the school district within seven business days of the due date. The remaining 50 percent of the estimated collections must be paid to the treasurer of the school district within the next seven business days of the later of the dates in the preceding sentence, unless the school district elects to receive the remainder of its estimated collections after a proportionate reduction has been made to reflect any loss in collections as the result of any delay in mailing tax statements. In that case, the remaining 50 percent of those adjusted, estimated collections shall be paid by the county treasurer to the treasurer of the school district within 14 days of the due date. The treasurer shall pay the balance of the amounts collected to the state or to a municipal corporation or other body within 60 days after the May settlement date determined in section 276.09. After 45 days interest at an annual rate of eight percent accrues and must be paid to the taxing district. Interest must be paid upon appropriation from the general revenue fund of the county. If not paid, it may be recovered by the taxing district, in a civil action.

Sec. 4. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 276.111, is amended to read:

276.111 [DISTRIBUTIONS AND FINAL YEAR-END SETTLEMENT.]

Within seven business days after October 15, the county treasurer shall pay to the school districts 50 percent of the estimated collections arising from taxes levied by and belonging to the school district from May 20 the settlement day determined in section 276.09 to October 20. The remaining 50 percent of the estimated tax collections must be paid to the school district within the next seven business days. Within ten business days after November 15, the county treasurer shall pay to the school district 100 percent of the estimated collections arising from taxes levied by and belonging to the school districts from October 20 to November 20.

Within ten business days after November 15, the county treasurer shall pay to each taxing district, except any school district, 100 percent of the estimated collections arising from taxes levied by and belonging to each taxing district from May 20 the settlement day determined in section 276.09 to November 20.

On or before January 5, the county treasurer shall make full settlement with the county auditor of all receipts collected from May 20 the settlement day determined in section 276.09 to December 31. After subtracting any tax distributions that have been made to the taxing districts in October and November, the treasurer shall pay to each of the taxing districts on or before January 25, the balance of the tax amounts collected on behalf of each taxing district. Interest accrues at an annual rate of eight percent and must be paid to the taxing district if this final settlement amount is not paid by January 25. Interest must be paid upon appropriation from the general revenue fund of the county. If not paid, it may be recovered by the taxing district in a civil action.

Sec. 5. Minnesota Statutes Second 1989 Supplement, section 277.01, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. Except as provided in this subdivision, all unpaid personal property taxes shall be deemed delinquent on May 16 next after they become due or 21 days after the postmark date on the envelope containing the property tax statement, whichever is later, and thereupon a penalty of eight percent shall attach and be charged upon all such taxes. In the case of unpaid personal property taxes due and owing under section 272.01, subdivision 2, or section 273.19, the first half shall become delinquent if not paid before May 16 or 21 days after the postmark date on the envelope containing the property tax statement, whichever is later, and thereupon a penalty of eight percent shall attach on the unpaid first half; and the second half shall become delinquent if not paid before October 16, and thereupon a penalty of eight percent shall attach on the unpaid second half. This section shall not apply to Class 2a property.

A county may provide by resolution that in the case of a property owner that has multiple personal property tax statements with the aggregate taxes exceeding $50, payments may be made in installments as provided in this subdivision.

The county treasurer may accept payments of more or less than the exact amount of a tax installment due. If the accepted payment is less than the amount due, payments must be applied first to the penalty accrued for the year the payment is made. Acceptance of partial payment of tax does not constitute a waiver of the minimum payment required as a condition for filing an appeal under section 277.011 or any other law, nor does it affect the order of payment of delinquent taxes under section 280.39.

Sec. 6. Minnesota Statutes Second 1989 Supplement, section 277.02, is amended to read:

277.02 [DELINQUENT LIST FILED IN COURT.]

By June 15 Within 30 days of the due date under section 277.01, subdivision 1, of each year, the county treasurer shall make a list of all personal property taxes remaining delinquent May 16, and by November 15 of each year the county treasurer shall make a list of all personal property taxable under section 272.01, subdivision 2, or section 273.19 remaining delinquent October 16. The county treasurer shall immediately certify to and file the same each list with the court administrator of the district court of the county, and. Upon such filing, the list shall be prima facie evidence that all of the provisions of law in relation to the assessment and levy of such taxes have been complied with.

Sec. 7. Minnesota Statutes Second 1989 Supplement, section 277.05, is amended to read:

277.05 [SHERIFF TO FILE LIST OF UNCOLLECTED TAXES.]

If the sheriff is unable, for want of goods and chattels whereon to levy, to collect by a distress, or otherwise, the taxes, or any part thereof, assessed upon the personal property of any persons, the sheriff shall file with the court administrator of the district court, ~~on~~ July 15 following, a list of such the taxes, 30 days after the date in section 277.02. The list shall be filed with an affidavit of the sheriff, or of the deputy sheriff entrusted with the collection thereof, stating that the affiant has made diligent search and inquiry for goods and chattels from which to collect such taxes, and is unable to collect the same. The list of such taxes as they apply to manufactured homes shall be filed on December 1 and the list of such taxes as they apply to property taxable under section 272.01, subdivision 2, or section 273.19 shall be filed on December 15. The sheriff shall note on the margin of such list the place to which any delinquent taxpayer may have removed, with the date of removal, if known. At the time of filing the list the sheriff shall also return all the warrants with endorsements thereon showing the doings of the sheriff or deputy in the premises, and the court administrator shall file and preserve the same. On or before September tenth thereafter Within ten days after the list has been filed by the sheriff, the court administrator shall deliver such the list and affidavit to the county treasurer, who shall, by comparison of such list with the tax duplicates in the treasurer's office, ascertain whether or not all personal property taxes reported by the treasurer to the court administrator as delinquent, except those included in such list, have been paid into the treasurer's office, and shall attach to the list a certificate stating whether or not all taxes reported by the treasurer to the court administrator as delinquent and not included in the list have been received, and stating the items of such taxes, if any, as have been received. The court administrator shall deliver such list and affidavit as they apply to manufactured homes on or before December 10 and as they apply to property taxable under section 272.01, subdivision 2, or section 273.19 on or before December 24. The treasurer shall deliver such list and affidavit, with the certificate attached, to the county board at its first session thereafter, which shall cancel such taxes as it is satisfied cannot be collected. A copy of the tax list so revised, and also a separate list of the taxes so canceled, shall be included in the records of the proceedings of the board, and published in full, as a part of the proceedings.

Sec. 8. Minnesota Statutes Second 1989 Supplement, section 277.06, is amended to read:

277.06 [CITATION TO DELINQUENTS; DEFAULT JUDGMENT.]

On September 5, or within ten days after the adjournment of the county board, whichever occurs first, the county auditor shall file a copy of such revised list with the court administrator of the district court. The county auditor shall file a copy of the revised list as it applies to manufactured homes on January 20 and a copy of the revised list as it applies to property taxable under section 272.01, subdivision 2, or section 273.19 on February 15. Within ten days after the list has been filed, the court administrator shall issue a citation to each delinquent named in the list, stating the amount of tax and penalty, and requiring such delinquent to appear on a day to be set by the district court in the county, appointed to be held at a time not less than 30 days after the issuance of such citation, and show cause, if any there be, why the delinquent should not pay the tax and penalty. The citation shall be delivered for service to the sheriff of the county where such person may at the time reside or be. If such person, after service of the citation, fails to pay such tax, penalty, and costs to the sheriff before the first day of the term, or on such day to show cause as aforesaid, the court shall direct judgment against the person for the amount of such tax, penalty, and costs. When unable to serve the citation, the sheriff shall return the same to the court administrator, with a return thereto to that effect, and thereupon, or if the court decides that the service of such citation made or attempted to be made, or the issuance thereof by the court administrator, was illegal, the court administrator shall issue another like citation, requiring such delinquent to appear on the first day of the next general term to be held in the county, and show cause as aforesaid, and if the delinquent fails to pay or to show cause, the court shall direct judgment as aforesaid. Whenever the sheriff has been unable to serve any such citation theretofore issued in any year or years, or whenever the court decides that the service of any such citation theretofore made or attempted to be made, or the issuance thereof by the court administrator, was illegal, the court administrator shall issue another like citation requiring such delinquent to appear, as in the case last provided, and with like effect; provided, that all citations other than the first shall be issued only on the request of the county attorney.

Sec. 9. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 277.15, is amended to read:

277.15 [INTEREST.]

When a judgment has heretofore been entered and docketed, or shall hereafter be entered and docketed, for the recovery of taxes, except in the case of real estate tax judgments provided for in section 279.19, the same shall bear interest until paid at the rate of six percent per annum until January 1, 1981, and at the rate determined under section 549.09 ~~thereafter until January 1, 1991.~~ Thereafter interest will be payable at the rate provided in section 279.03, subdivision 1a.

Sec. 10. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 279.01, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. Except as provided in subdivision 3, on May 16, of each year, with respect to property actually occupied and used as a homestead by the owner of the property, or 21 days after the postmark date on the envelope containing the property tax statement, whichever is later, a penalty of ~~three percent~~ shall accrue and thereafter be charged upon all unpaid taxes on real estate on the current lists in the hands of the county treasurer, ~~and a penalty of.~~ The penalty shall be at a rate of three percent on homestead property and seven percent on nonhomestead property, except that. This penalty shall not accrue until June 1 of each year, or 21 days after the postmark date on the envelope containing the property tax statements, whichever is later, on commercial use real property used for seasonal residential recreational purposes and classified as class 1c or 4c, and on other commercial use real property classified as class 3a, provided that over 60 percent of the gross income earned by the enterprise on the class 3a property is earned during the months of May, June, July, and August. Any property owner of such class 3a property who pays the first half of the tax due on the property after May 15 and before June 1, or 21 days after the postmark date on the envelope containing the property tax statement, whichever is later, shall attach an affidavit to the payment attesting to compliance with the income provision of this subdivision. Thereafter, for both homestead and nonhomestead property, on the first day of each month, up to and including October 1 following, an additional penalty of one percent for each month shall accrue and be charged on all such unpaid taxes provided that if the due date was extended beyond May 15 as the result of any delay in mailing property tax statements no additional penalty shall accrue if the tax is paid by the extended due date. If the tax is not paid by the extended due date, then all penalties that would have accrued if the due date had been May 15 shall be charged. When the taxes against any tract or lot exceed $50, one-half thereof may be paid prior to May 16 or 21 days after the postmark date on the envelope containing the property tax statement, whichever is later; and, if so paid, no penalty shall attach; the remaining one-half shall be paid at any time prior to October 16 following, without penalty; but, if not so paid, then a penalty of four percent shall accrue thereon for homestead property and a penalty of four percent on nonhomestead property. Thereafter, for homestead property, on the first day of November and December following, an additional penalty of two percent for each month shall accrue and be charged on all such unpaid taxes. Thereafter, for nonhomestead property, on the first day of November and December following, an additional penalty of four percent for each month shall accrue and be charged on all such unpaid taxes. If one-half of such taxes shall not be paid prior to May 16 or 21 days after the postmark date on the envelope containing the property tax statement, whichever is later, the same may be paid at any time prior to October 16, with accrued penalties to the date of payment added, and thereupon no penalty shall attach to the remaining one-half until October 16 following.

A county may provide by resolution that in the case of a property owner that has multiple tracts or parcels with aggregate taxes exceeding $50, payments may be made in installments as provided in this subdivision.

The county treasurer may accept payments of more or less than the exact amount of a tax installment due. If the accepted payment is less than the amount due, payments must be applied first to the penalty accrued for the year the payment is made. Acceptance of partial payment of tax does not constitute a waiver of the minimum payment required as a condition for filing an appeal under section 278.03 or any other law, nor does it affect the order of payment of delinquent taxes under section 280.39.

Sec. 11. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 279.03, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 1a. [RATE AFTER DECEMBER 31, 1990.] Interest on delinquent property taxes, penalties, and costs unpaid on or after January 1, 1991, shall be payable at the per annum rate determined in section 270.75, subdivision 5. If the rate so determined is less than ten percent, the rate of interest shall be ten percent. The maximum per annum rate shall be 14 percent if the rate specified under section 270.75, subdivision 5, exceeds 14 percent. The rate shall be subject to change on January 1 of each year.

Sec. 12. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 279.03, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [COMPOSITE JUDGMENT.] Amounts included in composite judgment, as judgments authorized by section 279.37, subdivision 1, and confessed on or after July 1, 1982, are subject to interest at the rate determined pursuant to section 549.09. Amounts confessed under this authority after December 31, 1990, are subject to interest at the rate calculated under subdivision 1a. During each calendar year, interest shall accrue on the unpaid balance of the composite judgment from the time it is confessed until it is paid. The rate of interest is subject to change each year in the same manner that section 549.09 provides or subdivision 1a, whichever is applicable, for rate changes on judgments. Interest on the unpaid contract balance on judgments confessed before July 1, 1982, is payable at the rate applicable to the judgment at the time that it was confessed.

Sec. 13. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 279.37, subdivision 1a, is amended to read:

Subd. 1a. The delinquent taxes upon a parcel of property which was classified class 4c pursuant to section 273.13, subdivision 9, or for taxes assessed in 1986 and thereafter, classified class 3a, for the previous year's assessment and had a total market value of less than $100,000 for that same assessment shall be eligible to be composed into a confession of judgment. Property qualifying under this subdivision shall be subject to the same provisions as provided in this section except as herein provided.

(a) The down payment shall include all special assessments due in the current tax year, all delinquent special assessments, and 20 percent of the ad valorem tax, penalties, and interest accrued against the parcel. The balance remaining shall be payable in four equal annual installments; and

(b) The amounts entered in judgment shall bear interest at the rate provided in section ~~270.75, subdivision 5~~ 279.03, subdivision 1a, commencing with the date the judgment is entered. The interest rate is subject to change each year on the unpaid balance in the manner provided in section ~~270.75, subdivision 5~~, except that the interest change will be implemented on January 1 of each year 279.03, subdivision 1a.

Sec. 14. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 282.01, subdivision 4, is amended to read:

Subd. 4. [CONDUCT OF SALE.] The sale shall be conducted by the county auditor at the county seat of the county in which the parcels lie, provided that, in St. Louis and Koochiching counties, the sale may be conducted in any county facility within the county, and the parcels shall be sold for cash only and at not less than the appraised value, unless the county board of the county shall have adopted a resolution providing for their sale on terms, in which event the resolution shall control with respect thereto. When the sale is made on terms other than for cash only a payment of at least ten percent of the purchase price must be made at the time of purchase, thereupon the balance shall be paid in no more than ten equal annual installments. No standing timber or timber products shall be removed from these lands until an amount equal to the appraised value of all standing timber or timber products on the lands at the time of purchase has been paid by the purchaser; provided, that in case any parcel of land bearing standing timber or timber products is sold at public auction for more than the appraised value, the amount bid in excess of the appraised value shall be allocated between the land and the timber in proportion to the respective appraised values thereof, and no standing timber or timber products shall be removed from the land until the amount of the excess bid allocated to timber or timber products has been paid in addition to the appraised value thereof. The purchaser is entitled to immediate possession, subject to the provisions of any existing valid lease made in behalf of the state.

For sales occurring on or after July 1, 1982, the unpaid balance of the purchase price is subject to interest at the rate determined pursuant to section 549.09. The unpaid balance of the purchase price for sales occurring after December 31, 1990, is subject to interest at the rate determined in section 279.03, subdivision 1a. The interest rate is subject to change each year on the unpaid balance in the manner provided for rate changes in section 549.09 for rate changes on judgments or section 279.03, subdivision 1a, whichever is applicable. Interest on the unpaid contract balance on sales occurring before July 1, 1982, is payable at the rate applicable to the sale at the time that the sale occurred.

Sec. 15. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 282.09, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [MONEYS PLACED IN FUND.] The county auditor and county treasurer shall place all moneys received through the operation of sections 282.01 to 282.13 in a fund to be known as the forfeited tax sale fund and all disbursements and costs shall be charged against that fund, when allowed by the county board. Members of the county board may be paid a per diem pursuant to section 375.055, subdivision 1, and reimbursed for their necessary expenses, and may receive mileage as now or hereafter fixed by law. Compensation of a land commissioner and assistants, if a land commissioner is appointed, shall be in such the amount as shall be determined by the county board. The county auditor shall receive 50 cents for each certificate of sale, each contract for deed and each lease executed by the auditor, and, in counties where no land commissioner is appointed such, additional annual compensation, not exceeding $300, as shall be fixed by the county board. Compensation of any other clerical help that may be needed by the county auditor or land commissioner shall be in such the amount as shall be determined by the county board. All compensation provided for herein shall be in addition to other compensation allowed by law. Fees so charged in addition to the fee imposed in section 282.014 shall be included in the annual settlement by the county auditor as hereinafter provided. On or before February 1 ~~in~~ each year, the commissioner of revenue shall certify to the commissioner of finance, by counties, the total number of state deeds issued and reissued during the preceding calendar year for which such fees are charged and the total amount thereof. When disbursements are made from the fund for repairs, refundments, expenses of actions to quiet title, or any other purpose which particularly affects specific parcels of forfeited lands, the amount of such disbursements shall be charged to the account of the taxing districts interested in such parcels. The county auditor shall make an annual settlement of the net proceeds received from sales and rentals by the operation of sections 282.01 to 282.13, ~~at on the regular March settlement day determined in section 276.09~~, for the preceding calendar year.

Sec. 16. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 282.261, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [INTEREST RATE.] The unpaid balance on any repurchase contract approved by the county board on or after July 1, 1982, is subject to interest at the rate determined pursuant to section 549.09. Repurchase contracts approved after December 31, 1990, are subject to interest at the rate determined in section 279.03, subdivision 1a. The interest rate is subject to change each year on the unpaid balance in the manner provided for rate changes in section 549.09 for rate changes on judgments or section 279.03, subdivision 1a, whichever is applicable. Interest on the unpaid contract balance on repurchases approved before July 1, 1982, is payable at the rate applicable to the repurchase contract at the time that it was approved.

Sec. 17. [1990 TAX PAYMENTS.]

The amendment of Minnesota Statutes Second 1989 Supplement, section 277.01, subdivision 1, in section 5 does not require sending of revised tax statements for taxes payable in 1990 by the county auditor, but payments of taxes by the dates provided in that section shall be accepted as timely paid.

Sec. 18. [EFFECTIVE DATE.]

Sections 1 to 8, 10, and 14 are effective for taxes levied in 1989, payable in 1990, and thereafter.

Sections 9, 11 to 13, 15, and 16 are effective January 1, 1991.

Section 17 is effective the day following final enactment.

ARTICLE 9

PROPERTY TAX SYSTEM CONVERSIONS

Section 1. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 38.18, is amended to read:

38.18 [COUNTY FAIRGROUNDS, IMPROVEMENT AIDED.]

Any town, statutory city, or school district in this state, now or hereafter having a net tax capacity market value of all its taxable property, exclusive of money and credits, of more than $25,000,000 $105,000,000, and having a county fair located within its corporate limits, is hereby authorized to aid in defraying part of the expense of improving any such fairground, by appropriating and paying over to the treasurer of the county owning the fairground such sum of money, not exceeding $10,000, for each of the political subdivisions, as the governing body of the town, statutory city, or school district may, by resolution, determine to be for the best interest of the political subdivision, the sums so appropriated to be used solely for the purpose of aiding in the improvement of the fairground in such manner as the county board of the county shall determine to be for the best interest of the county.

Sec. 2. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 50.14, subdivision 4, is amended to read:

Subd. 4. Class three shall be:

(a) The bonds, certificates of indebtedness, or other interest bearing obligations, payable out of a levy of ad valorem taxes, of any county, city, town, or any school district, drainage district, or other district, or of any board of any municipality, or of any public authority, created pursuant to law for public purposes in Minnesota, without regard to any debt limits other than those in section 475.53;

(b) The bonds, certificates of indebtedness or other interest bearing obligations, payable out of a levy of ad valorem taxes, of any county, city, town, or school, drainage or other district, or public authority, created pursuant to law for public purposes in any state of the United States other than Minnesota, provided that the total bonded indebtedness of the county, municipality, district or authority, after deducting the amount of all sinking funds and of all revenue bonds or certificates (including among revenue bonds and certificates those which pledge the full faith and credit of the issuer, if the net revenues applicable to the payment of the bonds or certificates during the three fiscal years immediately preceding the date of purchase exceeded by at least five percent the amount required to pay principal and interest on those bonds or certificates during that period), shall not exceed ten percent of its net tax capacity assessed value; and provided further that if the county, municipality, district or authority is of any state other than Iowa, Wisconsin, North Dakota, or South Dakota, it contains at least 3,500 inhabitants;

(c) The bonds, certificates or other interest bearing obligations, payable out of special revenues, of any county, city, town, or school, drainage, or other district, or public authority, created pursuant to law for public purposes in any state of the United States, provided that:

(aa) If the county, municipality, district or authority is of any state other than Minnesota, it contains at least 3,500 inhabitants;

(bb) The obligations were issued to finance the purpose of construction of or addition to a public enterprise furnishing water, sewer, lighting, power, gas, or road facilities, from which revenue is to be derived;

(cc) The governing body or other legally constituted authority has covenanted or is required by law to establish and maintain rates to yield sufficient revenue for the payment of operating expenses, maintenance expenses, and principal and interest on the revenue obligations and to pledge that revenue irrevocably for those purposes;

(dd) At the date of investment the public enterprise has been in operation for at least three years; and

(ee) During the preceding three fiscal years its annual net earnings, after payment of operating expenses and maintenance expenses, have been on the average at least $1\frac{1}{4}$ times the average annual interest, principal and sinking fund requirements on the revenue obligations during the period from the end of its most recent fiscal year to the final maturity of the obligations; and

(d) The bonds or other interest bearing obligations, payable from revenues other than ad valorem taxes as contemplated in clause (a), validly issued by any state or insular possession of the United States, or by any agency, instrumentality, municipality, or governmental or public subdivision, district, corporation, commission, board, council, or authority of whatsoever kind, created for public purposes by or pursuant to the laws of any state, provided that the bonds or other interest bearing obligations are at the time of purchase rated among the highest three quality categories, not applicable to bonds or other interest bearing obligations in default as to principal, used by a nationally recognized rating agency for rating the quality of similar bonds or other interest bearing obligations, and are not rated lower by any other such agency.

Sec. 3. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 110.70, is amended to read:

110.70 [APPLICATION.]

Nothing in sections 110.55 to 110.69 shall amend, alter, supersede, or otherwise change the provisions set forth in section 110.13. The provisions of sections 110.55 to 110.69 shall in no manner apply to public waters of an area of more than 10,000 acres, situated wholly or partially within counties now or hereafter having a population of more than 450,000 and a net tax capacity market value of more than ~~$450,000,000~~ $1,860,000,000, including money and credits, and in which is situated a city of the first class within a distance of 20 miles from the body of public water; and, as to such public waters, nothing contained in sections 110.55 to 110.69 shall be construed to authorize the diversion of any water from any stream, river, or lake located in any county adjoining or abutting in part upon the county wherein a major portion of such public waters is located.

Sec. 4. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 118.12, is amended to read:

118.12 [INVESTMENT OF TOWN FUNDS.]

When the town board of any town in this state, by a unanimous resolution, deem it advisable, such town board may invest such amount of funds in such town treasury as will not, in the opinion of such board, be needed by such town during the fiscal year, in any of the bonds of any county, city, town, school district, drainage or other district created pursuant to law for public purposes in Minnesota, Iowa, Wisconsin, and North and South Dakota, or in bonds of the United States of America, or in the bonds of any city, county, town, school district, drainage or other district created pursuant to law for public purposes in the United States, containing at least 3,500 inhabitants, provided that the total bonded indebtedness of any such municipality or district shall not exceed ten percent of its net tax capacity assessed value, if not located in Minnesota, or 2.5 percent of its taxable market value, if located in Minnesota.

Sec. 5. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 163.04, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [EXPENDITURES ON BRIDGES WITHIN CERTAIN CITIES.] When the council of any statutory city or city of the third or fourth class may determine that it is necessary to build or improve any bridge or bridges, including approaches thereto, and any dam or retaining works connected therewith, upon or forming a part of streets or highways either wholly or partly within its limits, the county board shall appropriate one-half of the money as may be necessary therefor from the county road and bridge fund, not exceeding during any year one-half the amount of taxes paid into the county road and bridge fund during the preceding year, on property within the corporate limits of the city. The appropriation shall be made upon the petition of the council, which petition shall be filed by the council with the county board prior to the fixing by the board of the annual county tax levy. The county board shall determine the plans and specifications, shall let all necessary contracts, shall have charge of construction, and upon its request, warrants in payment thereof shall be issued by the county auditor, from time to time, as the construction work proceeds. Any unpaid balance may be paid or advanced by the city. On petition of the council, the appropriations of the county board, during not to exceed three successive years, may be made to apply on the construction of the same items and to repay any money advanced by the city in the construction thereof. None of the provisions of this section shall be construed to be mandatory as applied to any city whose ~~net tax capacity~~ market value exceeds ~~$500~~ $2,100 per capita of its population.

Sec. 6. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 163.06, subdivision 6, is amended to read:

Subd. 6. [EXPENDITURE IN CERTAIN COUNTIES.] In any county having not less than 95 nor more than 105 full and fractional townships, and having a ~~net tax capacity~~ market value of not less than ~~$3,000,000~~ $12,000,000 nor more than ~~$5,000,000~~ $21,000,000, exclusive of money and credits, the county board, by resolution, may expend the funds provided in subdivision 4 in any organized or unorganized township or portion thereof in such county.

Sec. 7. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 165.10, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [CERTAIN COUNTIES MAY ISSUE AND SELL.] The county board of any county having no outstanding road and bridge bonds may issue and sell county road bonds in an amount not exceeding ~~one-half~~ of ~~one~~ 0.12089 percent of the ~~net tax capacity~~ market value of the taxable property within the county exclusive of money and credits, for the purpose of constructing, reconstructing, improving, or maintaining any bridge or bridges on any highway under its jurisdiction, without submitting the matter to a vote of the electors of the county.

Sec. 8. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 365.025, subdivision 4, is amended to read:

Subd. 4. [BIG BUYS MAJOR PURCHASES: NOTICE, PETITION, ELECTION.] Before buying anything under subdivision 2 that costs more than ~~one~~ 0.24177 percent of the ~~net tax capacity~~ market value of the town, the town must follow this subdivision.

The town must publish in its official newspaper the board's resolution to pay for the property over time. Then a petition for an election on the contract may be filed with the clerk. The petition must be filed within ten days after the resolution is published. To require the election the petition must be signed by a number of voters equal to ten percent of the voters at the last regular town election. The contract then must be approved by a majority of those voting on the question. The question may be voted on at a regular or special election.

Sec. 9. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 368.01, subdivision 23, is amended to read:

Subd. 23. [FINANCING PURCHASE OF CERTAIN EQUIPMENT.] The town board of supervisors may issue certificates of indebtedness within existing debt limits for the purpose of purchasing fire or police equipment or ambulance equipment or street construction or maintenance equipment. Such certificates shall be payable in not more than five years and shall be issued on such terms and in such manner as the board may determine. If the amount of the certificates to be issued to finance any such purchase exceeds one 0.24177 percent of the net tax capacity market value of the town, excluding money and credits, they shall not be issued for at least ten days after publication in the official newspaper of a town board resolution determining to issue them; and if before the end of that time, a petition asking for an election on the proposition signed by voters equal to ten percent of the number of voters at the last regular town election is filed with the clerk, such certificates shall not be issued until the proposition of their issuance has been approved by a majority of the votes cast on the question at a regular or special election. A tax levy shall be made for the payment of the principal and interest on such certificates as in the case of bonds.

Sec. 10. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 368.44, is amended to read:

368.44 [DISSOLUTION OF CERTAIN TOWNS; GROUNDS.]

When the voters residing within a duly organized town in any county in this state having more than 85 congressional townships of land and having a net tax capacity market value of not less than $5,000,000 $21,000,000 nor more than $12,000,000 $50,000,000 have failed to elect any town officials for more than three years continuously, or the town has failed and omitted to exercise any of the powers and functions of a town, as provided by law, which facts, or any of them, may be found and determined by the resolution of the county board of the county in which the town is located, according to the official records in the office of the auditor of the county, the county board by resolution duly adopted may declare any such town, naming it, duly dissolved and no longer entitled to exercise any of the powers or functions of a town.

Sec. 11. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 368.47, is amended to read:

368.47 [TOWNS MAY BE DISSOLVED.]

When the voters residing within a town in this state have failed to elect any town officials for more than ten years continuously, or the town has failed and omitted for a period of ten years to exercise any of the powers and functions of a town, as provided by law, or when the net tax capacity market value of any town drops to less than $40,000 $165,000, or when the tax delinquency of any such town, exclusive of taxes that are delinquent or unpaid by reason of taxes being contested in proceedings for the enforcement of taxes, amounts to 50 12 percent of its net tax capacity market value, or where the state or federal government has acquired title to 50 percent of the real estate of such town, which facts, or any of them, may be found and determined by the resolution of the county board of the county in which the town is located, according to the official records in the office of the county auditor, the county board by resolution may declare any such town, naming it, duly dissolved and no longer entitled to exercise any of the powers or functions of a town. In counties having a population according to the 1930 federal census of not more than 16,000 nor less than 15,000 and having not more than 77 nor less than 75 full or fractional congressional townships, and in counties having a population according to the 1930 federal census of not more than 28,000 nor less than 27,000 and having not more than 91 nor less than 90 full or fractional congressional townships, and in counties having a population according to the 1930 federal census of not more than 210,000 nor less than 200,000 and having not more than 202 nor less than 200 full or fractional congressional townships, before any such dissolution shall become effective the voters of the town shall express their approval or disapproval of such dissolution. The clerk of the town shall, upon a petition signed by a majority of the registered voters of the town, filed with the clerk at least 60 days before any regular or special town election thereof, give notice at the same time and in the same manner of such election that the question of dissolution of such town will be submitted for determination at such election. At such election when so petitioned for the question shall be voted upon by a separate ballot, the terms of which shall be either "for dissolution" or "against dissolution," which ballot shall be deposited in a separate ballot box to be provided and the result of such voting shall be duly canvassed, certified, and returned in the same manner and at the same time as other facts and returns of the election. If a majority of the votes cast at the election shall be for dissolution, such town shall be dissolved; and, if a majority of the votes cast at the election shall be against dissolution, the town shall not be dissolved.

When a town is dissolved under the provisions of sections 368.47 to 368.49 the county shall acquire title to any telephone company or any other business being conducted by such town and such business shall be operated by the board of county commissioners until such time as a sale thereof can be made; provided that the subscribers or patrons of such businesses shall have the first opportunity of purchase. If such dissolved town has any outstanding indebtedness chargeable to such business, the auditor of the county wherein such dissolved town is located shall levy a tax against the property situated in the dissolved town for the purpose of paying the indebtedness as it becomes due.

Sec. 12. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 370.01, is amended to read:

370.01 [CHANGE OF BOUNDARIES; CREATION OF NEW COUNTIES.]

The boundaries of counties may be changed by taking territory from a county and attaching it to an adjoining county, and new counties may be established out of territory of one or more existing counties. A new county shall contain at least 400 square miles, have at least 2,000 inhabitants, and have a net tax capacity market value of at least ~~$4,000,000~~ $17,000,000. An existing county shall not be reduced in area below 400 square miles, have less than 2,000 inhabitants, or have a net tax capacity market value of less than ~~$4,000,000~~ $17,000,000.

In existing counties having an area of more than 3,500 and less than 6,000 square miles, boundaries may be changed and new counties established having a net tax capacity market value of at least ~~$2,500,000~~ $10,000,000.

No change in the boundaries of any county having an area of more than 2,500 square miles, whether by the creation of a new county, or otherwise, shall detach from the existing county any territory within 12 miles of the county seat.

Sec. 13. Minnesota Statutes Second 1989 Supplement, section 373.40, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [DEFINITIONS.] For purposes of this section, the following terms have the meanings given.

(a) "Bonds" means an obligation as defined under section 475.51.

(b) "Capital improvement" means acquisition or betterment of public lands, buildings, or other improvements within the county for the purpose of a county courthouse, administrative building, health or social service facility, correctional facility, jail, law enforcement center, hospital, morgue, library, park, and roads and bridges. An improvement must have an expected useful life of five years or more to qualify. "Capital improvement" does not include light rail transit or any activity related to it or a recreation or sports facility building (such as, but not limited to, a gymnasium, ice arena, racquet sports facility, swimming pool, exercise room or health spa), unless the building is part of an outdoor park facility and is incidental to the primary purpose of outdoor recreation.

(c) "Commissioner" means the commissioner of trade and economic development.

(d) "Metropolitan county" means a county located in the seven-county metropolitan area as defined in section 473.121 or a county with a population of 90,000 or more.

(e) "Population" means the population established by the most recent of the following (determined as of the date the resolution authorizing the bonds was adopted):

(1) the federal decennial census,

(2) a special census conducted under contract by the United States Bureau of the Census, or

(3) a population estimate made either by the metropolitan council or by the state demographer under section 116K.04, subdivision 4, clause (10).

(f) "Tax capacity" means total taxable tax capacity market value, but does not include captured tax capacity market value.

Sec. 14. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 385.31, is amended to read:

385.31 [PAYMENT OF COUNTY ORDERS OR WARRANTS.]

When any order or warrant drawn on the treasurer is presented for payment, if there is money in the treasury for that purpose, the county treasurer shall redeem the same, and write across the entire face thereof the word "redeemed," the date of the redemption, and the treasurer's official signature. If there is not sufficient funds in the proper accounts to pay such orders they shall be numbered and registered in their order of presentation, and proper endorsement thereof shall be made on such orders and they shall be entitled to payment in like order. Such orders shall bear interest at not to exceed the rate of six percent per annum from such date of presentation. The treasurer, as soon as there is sufficient money in the treasury, shall appropriate and set apart a sum sufficient for the payment of the orders so presented and registered, and, if entitled to interest, issue to the original holder a notice that interest will cease in 30 days from the date of such notice; and, if orders thus entitled to priority of payment are not then presented, the next in order of registry may be paid until such orders are presented. No interest shall be paid on any order, except upon a warrant drawn by the county auditor for that purpose, giving the number and the date of the order on account of which the interest warrant is drawn. In any county in this state now or hereafter having a net tax capacity market value of all taxable property, exclusive of money and credits, of not less than ~~$250,000,000~~ $1,033,000,000, the county treasurer, in order to save payment of interest on county warrants drawn upon a fund in which there shall be temporarily insufficient money in the treasury to redeem the same, may borrow temporarily from any other fund in the county treasury in which there is a sufficient balance to care for the needs of such fund and allow a temporary loan or transfer to any other fund, and may pay such warrants out of such funds. Any such money so transferred and used in redeeming such county warrants shall be returned to the fund from which drawn as soon as money shall come in to the credit of such fund on which any such warrant was drawn and paid as aforesaid. Any county operating on a cash basis may use a combined form of warrant or order and check, which, when signed by the chair of the county board and by the auditor, is an order or warrant for the payment of the claim, and, when countersigned by the county treasurer, is a check for the payment of the amount thereof.

Sec. 15. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 386.34, is amended to read:

386.34 [DEPUTIES, SALARIES.]

The county board of each county having a population of less than 75,000, may by written order to be filed in the office of the county auditor allow one deputy county recorder in such county compensation for services as such deputy, to be fixed by the board and specified in said order. In each county containing less than 15 full and fractional congressional townships, and having more than 16,000 and less than 19,000 inhabitants according to the 1940 federal census, and having a net tax capacity market value of less than ~~$7,000,000~~ $29,000,000, exclusive of moneys and credits, the county board may by written order to be filed in the office of the county auditor allow one deputy county recorder in such county compensation for services as such deputy not exceeding $1,800 per year.

Sec. 16. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 412.081, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [ELECTION, ASSESSMENT DISTRICTS.] Any statutory city hereafter organized shall be constituted an election and assessment district separate from the town in which it lies immediately upon incorporation, except that if the incorporation occurs between March 15 and July 1 the town assessor shall assess the property in the city that year and the city assessor shall not assume duties until the following year. Where the town assessor makes the assessment, the city shall pay such proportion of the cost of the assessment as its net tax capacity bears to the assessed valuation net tax capacity of the town, including the city.

Sec. 17. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 412.221, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [CONTRACTS.] The council shall have power to make such contracts as may be deemed necessary or desirable to make effective any power possessed by the council. The city may purchase personal property through a conditional sales contract and real property through a contract for deed under which contracts the seller is confined to the remedy of recovery of the property in case of nonpayment of all or part of the purchase price, which shall be payable over a period of not to exceed five years. When the contract price of property to be purchased by contract for deed or conditional sales contract exceeds one 0.24177 percent of the net tax capacity market value of the city, the city may not enter into such a contract for at least ten days after publication in the official newspaper of a council resolution determining to purchase property by such a contract; and, if before the end of that time a petition asking for an election on the proposition signed by voters equal to ten percent of the number of voters at the last regular city election is filed with the clerk, the city may not enter into such a contract until the proposition has been approved by a majority of the votes cast on the question at a regular or special election.

Sec. 18. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 430.102, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [COUNCIL APPROVAL; SPECIAL TAX LEVY LIMITATION.] The council shall receive and consider the estimate required in subdivision 1 and the items of cost after notice and hearing before it or its appropriate committee as it considers necessary or expedient, and shall approve the estimate, with necessary amendments. The amounts of each item of cost estimated are then appropriated to operate, maintain, and improve the pedestrian mall during the next fiscal year. The amount of the special tax to be charged under subdivision 1, clause (3), must not, however, exceed 50 cents per $100 0.12089 percent of net tax capacity market value of taxable property in the district. The council shall make any necessary adjustment in costs of operating and maintaining the district to keep the amount of the tax within this limitation.

Sec. 19. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 465.04, is amended to read:

465.04 [ACCEPTANCE OF GIFTS.]

Cities of the second, third, or fourth class, having at any time a net tax capacity market value of not more than $10,000,000

$41,000,000, exclusive of money and credits, as officially equalized by the commissioner of revenue, either under home rule charter or under the laws of this state, in addition to all other powers possessed by them, hereby are authorized and empowered to receive and accept gifts and donations for the use and benefit of such cities and the inhabitants thereof upon terms and conditions to be approved by the governing bodies of such cities; and such cities are authorized to comply with and perform such terms and conditions, which may include payment to the donor or donors of interest on the value of the gift at not exceeding five percent per annum payable annually or semiannually, during the remainder of the natural life or lives of such donor or donors.

Sec. 20. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 471.24, is amended to read:

471.24 [STATUTORY CITIES AND TOWNS MAY JOIN IN MAINTAINING CEMETERIES.]

Where a statutory city or town owns and maintains an established cemetery or burial ground, either within or without the municipal limits, the statutory city or town may, by mutual agreement with contiguous statutory cities and towns, each having a net tax capacity market value of not less than ~~$500,000~~ $2,000,000, join together in the maintenance of such public cemetery or burial ground for the use of the inhabitants of each of such municipalities; and each such municipality is hereby authorized, by action of its council or governing body, to levy a tax or make an appropriation for the support and maintenance of such cemetery or burial ground; provided, the amount thus levied or appropriated by each municipality shall not exceed a total of $10,000 in any one year.

Sec. 21. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 471.73, is amended to read:

471.73 [ACCEPTANCE OF PROVISIONS.]

In the case of any city within the class specified in 471.72 having a net tax capacity market value, as defined in section 471.72, in excess of ~~$9,000,000~~ $37,000,000; and in the case of any statutory city within such class having a net tax capacity market value, as defined in section 471.72, of less than ~~$1,100,000~~ $5,000,000; and in the case of any statutory city within such class which is governed by Laws 1933, chapter 211, or Laws 1937, chapter 356; and in the case of any statutory city within such class which is governed by Laws 1929, chapter 208, and has a net tax capacity market value of less than ~~$20,000,000~~ $83,000,000; and in the case of any school district within such class having a net tax capacity market value, as defined in section 471.72, of more than ~~$13,000,000~~ $54,000,000; and in the case of all towns within said class; sections 471.71 to 471.83 apply only if the governing body of the city or statutory city, the board of the school district, or the town board of the town shall have adopted a resolution determining to issue bonds under the provisions of sections 471.71 to 471.83 or to go upon a cash basis in accordance with the provisions thereof.

Sec. 22. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 475.58, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [FUNDING, REFUNDING.] Any city, town or school district whose outstanding gross debt, including all items referred to in section 475.51, subdivision 4, exceed in amount $6\frac{2}{3}\%$ 1.62 percent of its ~~net tax capacity~~ market value may issue bonds under this subdivision for the purpose of funding or refunding such indebtedness or any part thereof. A list of the items of indebtedness to be funded or refunded shall be made by the recording officer and treasurer and filed in the office of the recording officer. The initial resolution of the governing body shall refer to this subdivision as authority for the issue, state the amount of bonds to be issued and refer to the list of indebtedness to be funded or refunded. This resolution shall be published once each week for two successive weeks in a legal newspaper published in the municipality or if there be no such newspaper, in a legal newspaper published in the county seat. Such bonds may be issued without the submission of the question of their issue to the electors unless within ten days after the second publication of the resolution a petition requesting such election signed by ten or more voters who are taxpayers of the municipality, shall be filed with the recording officer. In event such petition is filed, no bonds shall be issued hereunder unless authorized by a majority of the electors voting on the question.

Sec. 23. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 475.73, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. Obligations sold under the provisions of section 475.60 may be purchased by the state board of investment if the obligations meet the requirements of section 11A.24, subdivision 2, upon the approval of the attorney general as to form and execution of the application therefor, and under rules as the board may specify, and the state board shall have authority to purchase the same to an amount not exceeding ~~15~~ 3.63 percent of the ~~net tax capacity~~ market value of the taxable property of the municipality, according to the last preceding assessment. The obligations shall not run for a shorter period than one year, nor for a longer period than 30 years and shall bear interest at a rate to be fixed by the state board but not less than two percent per annum. Forthwith upon the delivery to the state of Minnesota of any obligations issued by virtue thereof, the commissioner of finance shall certify to the respective auditors of the various counties wherein are situated the municipalities issuing the same, the number, denomination, amount, rate of interest and date of maturity of each obligation.

Sec. 24. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 505.173, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [CERTAIN DEFECTS.] In all cases where the plats, or what purports to be plats, of any portion of the lands contained within any additions to or subdivisions of any town or city, situated in any county having less than 15 full and fractional congressional townships, having less than 15,000 inhabitants according to the 1940 federal census, and having an net tax capacity assessed value of more than $7,500,000 and less than $8,500,000, exclusive of money and credits which have been executed and filed in an office of any county recorder previous to January 1, 1915, (1) fail to identify or correctly describe the land to be so platted or to show correctly upon their face the tract of land intended or purported to be platted thereby, or (2) are defective by reason of the plat and the description of the land purported to be so platted thereby being inconsistent or incorrect, or (3) there exists a defect in the execution of said plats on the part of the grantors thereof, the governing board or council of the municipality containing land so platted or purported to be so platted may authorize, within two years from April 21, 1951, referring by the record book and page of such plat or plats in the office of the county recorder to the plat or plats to be corrected, the making of one or more plats which shall correctly show on the face thereof and by description of the land intended to be platted, which plat or plats may vary from the original plats in description as to lots and blocks to suit the best purpose and secure the best results. Such plat or plats, in a declaration thereon, shall recite such resolution and shall identify each separate tract of land described therein with such tract of land in the purported plat or plats intended to be corrected thereby, and shall be certified by the proper officers of the municipality as to authorization and by an engineer or surveyor as to correctness, and the signatures of such persons shall be acknowledged in like manner as a deed.

Sec. 25. [EFFECTIVE DATE.]

Section 22 is effective for bonds issued after the date of enactment of this act. The remainder of this article is effective the day following final enactment of this act.

ARTICLE 10 MISCELLANEOUS

Section 1. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 270.73, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [POSTING, NOTICE.] Pursuant to the authority to disclose under section 270B.12, subdivision 4, the commissioner shall, by the 15th of each month, submit to the commissioner of public safety a list of all taxpayers who are required to withhold or collect the tax imposed by section 290.92 or 297A.02 or a local option tax administered and collected by the commissioner of revenue and who are 30 days or more delinquent in either filing a tax return or paying the tax.

The commissioner of revenue is under no obligation to list a taxpayer whose business is inactive. At least ten days before notifying the commissioner of public safety, the commissioner of revenue shall notify the taxpayer of the intended action.

The commissioner of public safety shall post the list in the same manner as provided in section 340A.318, subdivision 3. The list will prominently show the date of posting. If a taxpayer previously listed cures the delinquency by filing all returns and paying all taxes, the commissioner shall notify the commissioner of public safety within two business days that the delinquency was cured.

Sec. 2. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 270A.03, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. "Claimant agency" means any state agency, as defined by section 14.02, subdivision 2, the regents of the University of Minnesota, any district court of the state, any county, any statutory or home rule charter city presenting a claim for a municipal hospital, a hospital district, any public agency responsible for child support enforcement, and any public agency responsible for the collection of court-ordered restitution.

Sec. 3. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 270A.03, subdivision 5, is amended to read:

Subd. 5. "Debt" means a legal obligation of a natural person to pay a fixed and certain amount of money, which equals or exceeds $25 and which is due and payable to a claimant agency. The term includes criminal fines imposed under section 609.10 and restitution. A debt may arise under a contractual or statutory obligation, a court order, or other legal obligation, but need not have been reduced to judgment.

A debt does not include (1) any legal obligation of a current recipient of assistance which is based on overpayment of an assistance grant; or (2).

A debt does not include any legal obligation to pay a claimant agency for medical care, including hospitalization if the income of the debtor would have qualified for a low income credit equal to tax liability pursuant to Minnesota Statutes 1984, section 290.06, subdivision 3d, clause (1), at the time when the medical care was rendered; provided that, for purposes of this subdivision, does not exceed the following amount:

- (1) for an unmarried debtor, an income of $6,400 or less;
- (2) for a debtor with one dependent, an income of $8,200 or less;
- (3) for a debtor with two dependents, an income of $9,700 or less;
- (4) for a debtor with three dependents, an income of $11,000 or less;
- (5) for a debtor with four dependents, an income of $11,600 or less; and
- (6) for a debtor with five or more dependents, an income of $12,100 or less.

The income amounts in ~~that section~~ this subdivision shall be adjusted for inflation for debts incurred in calendar years ~~1987~~ 1991 and thereafter. The dollar amount of each income level that applied to debts incurred in the prior year shall be increased in the same manner as provided in section 290.06, subdivision 2d, for the expansion of the tax rate brackets.

Sec. 4. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 270A.03, subdivision 7, is amended to read:

Subd. 7. "Refund" means an individual income tax refund, pursuant to chapter 290, or a property tax credit or refund, pursuant to chapter 290A.

For purposes of this chapter, lottery prizes, as set forth in section 349A.08, subdivision 8, shall be treated as refunds.

Sec. 5. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 270A.04, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. Any debt owed to a claimant agency shall be submitted by the agency for collection under the procedure established by sections 270A.01 to 270A.12 unless (a) an alternative means of collection is pending and believed to be adequate the debtor is complying with the terms of alternative means of collection, (b) the collection attempt would result in a loss of federal funds, or (c) the agency is unable to supply the department with the necessary identifying information required by subdivision 3 or rules promulgated by the commissioner, or (d) the debt is barred by section 541.05.

Sec. 6. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 270A.08, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. (a) This written notice shall clearly and with specificity set forth the basis for the claim to the refund including the name of the benefit program involved if the debt arises from a public assistance grant and the dates on which the debt was incurred and, further, shall advise the debtor of the claimant agency's intention to request setoff of the refund against the debt.

(b) The notice will also advise the debtor that any debt incurred more than six years from the date of the notice to the commissioner under section 270A.07 must not be setoff against a refund and will advise the debtor of the right to contest the validity of the claim at a hearing. The debtor must assert this right by written request to the claimant agency, which request the agency must receive within 45 days of the mailing date of the original notice or of the corrected notice, as required by subdivision 1. If the debtor has not received the notice, the 45 days shall not commence until the debtor has received actual notice. The debtor shall have the burden of showing no notice and shall be entitled to a hearing on the issue of notice as well as on the merits.

Sec. 7. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 270B.07, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 5. [INQUIRIES RELATED TO APPLICATIONS FOR LIQUOR LICENSES.] The commissioner may disclose and certify to a requesting county or municipality whether or not an applicant for a license to be issued under section 340A.403 or sections 340A.404 to 340A.406 is liable for state or local taxes or assessments that were not paid when they became due. The commissioner shall not disclose or certify that the license applicant is liable for unpaid state or local taxes or assessments if an administrative or court action which questions the amount or validity of the unpaid taxes or assessments has been commenced, or if the appeal period to contest the taxes or assessments has not yet expired.

Sec. 8. Minnesota Statutes Second 1989 Supplement, section 349.212, subdivision 4, is amended to read:

Subd. 4. [PULL-TAB AND TIPBOARD TAX.] (a) There is imposed a tax on the sale of each deal of pull-tabs and tipboards sold by a licensed distributor. The rate of the tax is two percent of the ideal gross of the pull-tab or tipboard deal. The sales tax imposed by chapter 297A on the sale of the pull-tabs and tipboards by the licensed distributor is imposed on the retail sales price less the tax imposed by this subdivision. The retail sale of pull-tabs or tipboards by the organization is exempt from taxes imposed by chapter 297A if the tax imposed by this subdivision has been paid and is exempt from all local taxes and license fees except a fee authorized under section 349.16, subdivision 4.

(b) The liability for the tax imposed by this section is incurred when the pull-tabs and tipboards are delivered by the distributor to the customer, to a common or contract carrier for delivery to the customer, or when received by the customer's authorized representative at the distributor's place of business, regardless of the distributor's method of accounting or the terms of the sale.

The tax imposed by this subdivision is imposed on all sales of pull-tabs and tipboards, except the following:

(1) sales to the governing body of an Indian tribal organization for use on an Indian reservation;

(2) sales to distributors licensed under this chapter;

(3) sales to distributors licensed under the laws of another state or of a Province of Canada, as long as all statutory and regulatory requirements are met in the other state or province; and

(4) sales of promotional tickets as defined in section 349.12.

(c) Pull-tabs and tipboards sold to an organization that sells pull-tabs and tipboards under the exemption from licensing in section 349.214, subdivision 2, paragraph (b), are exempt from the tax imposed by this subdivision. A distributor must require an organization conducting exempt gambling to show proof of its exempt status before making a tax-exempt sale of pull-tabs or tipboards to such an organization. A distributor shall identify, on all reports submitted to the commissioner, all sales of pull-tabs and tipboards that are exempt from tax under this subdivision.

Sec. 9. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 349.212, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 7. [UNTADED PULL-TABS AND TIPBOARDS.] In addition to penalties or criminal sanctions imposed by this chapter, any person, organization, or business entity possessing a pull-tab or tipboard upon which the tax imposed by subdivision 4 has not been paid is liable for a tax of six percent of the ideal gross of each pull-tab or tipboard. The tax on a partial deal shall be assessed as if it were a full deal.

The tax shall be assessed by the commissioner. An assessment shall be considered a jeopardy assessment or jeopardy collection as provided in section 270.70. The commissioner shall assess the tax based on personal knowledge or information available to the commissioner. The commissioner shall mail to the taxpayer at the taxpayer's last known address, or serve in person, a written notice of the amount of tax, demand its immediate payment, and, if payment is not immediately made, collect the tax by any method described in chapter 270, except that the commissioner need not await the expiration of the times specified in chapter 270. The tax assessed by the commissioner is presumed to be valid and correctly determined and assessed. The burden is upon the taxpayer to show its incorrectness or invalidity.

Sec. 10. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 383.06, is amended to read:

383.06 [PAYMENT OF WARRANTS; ACCOUNTS; HOW KEPT; CERTIFICATES OF INDEBTEDNESS TO RETIRE OUTSTANDING WARRANTS.]

The county treasurer shall pay warrants only from the fund from which they are legally payable. Payments under any special contract shall be kept separate under the name of such contract, and under the general title of the fund from which such payment may be legally made. The treasurer need not keep a specific appropriations account separately, but shall keep a general appropriations account.

In any county having a net tax capacity of not less than $150,000,000, exclusive of money and credits, The county board may, by resolution, issue and sell as many certificates of indebtedness as may be needed in anticipation of the collection of taxes levied for any fund named in the tax levy for the purpose of raising money for such fund, but the certificates outstanding for any such separate funds shall not at any time exceed 50 percent of the amount of taxes previously levied for such fund remaining uncollected, and no certificate shall be issued to become due and payable later than December 31 of the year succeeding the year in which the tax levy was made, and the certificates shall not be sold for less than par and accrued interest and shall not bear a greater rate of interest than six percent per annum. No such certificates shall be issued prior to the beginning of the fiscal year for which the taxes so anticipated were intended, except that when taxes shall have been levied for the purpose of paying a deficit in any such fund carried over from any previous year or years certificates of indebtedness in anticipation of collection of the taxes levied for such deficit may be issued at any time after such levy shall have been finally made and certified to the county auditor. Each certificate shall state upon its face for which fund the proceeds thereof shall be used, the total amount of certificates so issued, and the whole amount embraced in the levy for that particular purpose. They shall be numbered consecutively, be in denominations of $100 or a multiple thereof, may have interest coupons attached, shall be otherwise of such form and terms, and may be made payable at such place, as will best aid in their negotiation, and the proceeds of the tax assessed and collected on account of the fund and the full faith and credit of the county shall be irrevocably pledged for the redemption and payment of the certificates so issued. Such certificates shall be payable primarily from the moneys derived from the levy for the years against which such certificates were issued, but shall constitute unlimited general obligations of the county. Moneys derived from the sale of such certificates shall be credited to the fund or funds the taxes for which are so anticipated.

Sec. 11. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 524.3-301, is amended to read:

524.3-301 [INFORMAL PROBATE OR APPOINTMENT PROCEEDINGS; APPLICATION; CONTENTS.]

An informal probate proceeding is an informal proceeding for the probate of decedent's will with or without an application for informal appointment. An informal appointment proceeding is an informal proceeding for appointment of a personal representative in testate or intestate estates. These proceedings may be combined in a single proceeding. Applications for informal probate or informal appointment shall be directed to the registrar, and verified by the applicant, in accordance with section 524.1-310, to be accurate and complete to the best of applicant's knowledge and belief as to the following information:

(1) Every application for informal probate of a will or for informal appointment of a personal representative, other than a special or successor representative, shall contain the following:

(i) a statement of the interest of the applicant;

(ii) the name, social security number, birthdate, and date of death of the decedent, and the county and state of the decedent's domicile at the time of death, and the names and addresses of the spouse, children, heirs, and devisees and the ages of any who are minors so far as known or ascertainable with reasonable diligence by the applicant;

(iii) if the decedent was not domiciled in the state at the time of death, a statement showing venue;

(iv) a statement identifying and indicating the address of any personal representative of the decedent appointed in this state or elsewhere whose appointment has not been terminated;

(v) a statement indicating whether the applicant has received a demand for notice, or is aware of any demand for notice of any probate or appointment proceeding concerning the decedent that may have been filed in this state or elsewhere.

(2) An application for informal probate of a will shall state the following in addition to the statements required by (1):

(i) that the original of the decedent's last will is in the possession of the court, or accompanies the application, or that an authenticated copy of a will probated in another jurisdiction accompanies the application;

(ii) that the applicant, to the best of the applicant's knowledge, believes the will to have been validly executed;

(iii) that after the exercise of reasonable diligence, the applicant is unaware of any instrument revoking the will, and that the applicant believes that the instrument which is the subject of the application is the decedent's last will;

(iv) that the time limit for informal probate as provided in this article has not expired either because three years or less have passed since the decedent's death, or, if more than three years from death have passed, that circumstances as described by section 524.3-108 authorizing tardy probate have occurred.

(3) An application for informal appointment of a personal representative to administer an estate under a will shall describe the will by date of execution and state the time and place of probate or the pending application or petition for probate. The application for appointment shall adopt the statements in the application or petition for probate and state the name, address and priority for appointment of the person whose appointment is sought.

(4) An application for informal appointment of an administrator in intestacy shall state in addition to the statements required by (1):

(i) that after the exercise of reasonable diligence, the applicant is unaware of any unrevoked testamentary instrument relating to property having a situs in this state under section 524.1-301, or, a statement why any such instrument of which the applicant may be aware is not being probated;

(ii) the priority of the person whose appointment is sought and the names of any other persons having a prior or equal right to the appointment under section 524.3-203.

(5) An application for appointment of a personal representative to succeed a personal representative appointed under a different testacy status shall refer to the order in the most recent testacy proceeding, state the name and address of the person whose appointment is sought and of the person whose appointment will be terminated if the application is granted, and describe the priority of the applicant.

(6) An application for appointment of a personal representative to succeed a personal representative who has tendered a resignation as provided in section 524.3-610(c), or whose appointment has been terminated by death or removal, shall adopt the statements in the application or petition which led to the appointment of the person being succeeded except as specifically changed or corrected, state the name and address of the person who seeks appointment as successor, and describe the priority of the applicant.

Sec. 12. [REPEALER.]

Minnesota Statutes 1988, sections 290.612; and 297A.431, are repealed.

Sec. 13. [EFFECTIVE DATE.]

Sections 1 to 12 are effective the day following final enactment."

The bill was passed and its title agreed to.

S. F. No. 1807 was reported to the House.

Schreiber moved to amend S. F. No. 1807, as follows:

Delete everything after the enacting clause and insert:

“Section 1. [HENNEPIN COUNTY; PUBLIC SAFETY BUILDING BONDS.]

Hennepin county may issue and sell general obligation bonds of the county in an amount not exceeding $110,000,000 to finance the acquisition and construction of a public safety building and related facilities. The obligations shall be issued in accordance with Minnesota Statutes, chapter 475, except that their issuance is not subject to approval by the electors under section 475.58. The obligations issued under this section and the property taxes levied to pay the obligations shall not be included in the calculation of Hennepin county's bond and building fund levy limitation under Minnesota Statutes, section 373.40.

Sec. 2. [EFFECTIVE DATE.]

Section 1 is effective the day after compliance by the board of county commissioners of Hennepin county with Minnesota Statutes, section 645.021, subdivision 3.”

Delete the title and insert:

“A bill for an act relating to Hennepin county; permitting the issuance of obligations by the county board for a public safety building.”

The motion prevailed and the amendment was adopted.

The Speaker called Quinn to the Chair.

Ozment moved to amend S. F. No. 1807, as amended, as follows:

“Sec. 2. [ROSEMOUNT; ARMORY LEVY.]

Subdivision 1. [ARMORY LEVY.] The city of Rosemount in Dakota county may levy not more than $95,000 per year and otherwise incur debt under Minnesota Statutes, chapter 193 or 475 or both, to acquire and better an armory and to be serviced by the levy without regard to the limits on debt service and debt otherwise provided by chapter 193 or 475. This levy amount is not subject to the limitations under Minnesota Statutes, sections 275.50 to 275.56.

Subd. 2. [REVERSE REFERENDUM.] If the city council proposes to incur a debt under subdivision 1, it shall pass a resolution stating that fact. Thereafter, the resolution shall be published for two successive weeks in the official newspaper of the city or, if there is no official newspaper, in a newspaper of general circulation in the city, together with a notice fixing a date for a public hearing on the matter. The hearing shall be held not less than two weeks nor more than four weeks after the first publication of the resolution. Following the public hearing, the city may determine to take no further action or adopt a resolution confirming its intention to exercise the authority. That resolution shall also be published in the official newspaper or, if there is no official newspaper, in a newspaper of general circulation in the city. If within 30 days thereafter a petition signed by voters equal in number to ten percent of the votes cast in the city in the last general election requesting a referendum on the proposed resolution is filed with the county auditor, the resolution shall not be effective until it has been submitted to the voters at a general or special election and a majority of votes cast on the question of approving the resolution are in the affirmative. The commissioner of revenue shall prepare a suggested form of question to be presented at the referendum. The referendum must be held at a special or general election prior to January 1, 1992.

Subd. 3. [LOCAL APPROVAL.] This section takes effect the day after the governing body of the city of Rosemount complies with Minnesota Statutes, section 645.021, subdivision 3.”

McLaughlin, Rest and Schreiber moved to amend S. F. No. 1807, as amended, as follows:

Page 1, line 8, before “Hennepin” insert “Subdivision 1. [AUTHORIZATION.]”

“Subd. 2. [PLANNING PROCESS.] Hennepin county may not issue and sell the obligations authorized under this section until the board of county commissioners of Hennepin county has entered into a planning process which must include:

(1) comparative analysis of alternative sites, including but not limited to: site preparation factors, proximity to the county courthouse, potential construction or legal delays for each site, and integration into the long range physical plan for the city of Minneapolis;

(2) programmatic plans relating to physical structure, construction, and operational costs; and

(3) continued use of the current jail facilities for correctional purposes for a period of at least ten years.

The planning process must include at least one public hearing. The board of county commissioners and the city council must cooperate in the analysis and planning process described in clause (1). The planning process must be completed by September 1, 1990. If the city refuses to cooperate by engaging in a good faith effort to analyze the public costs and benefits of alternative sites for both the county and city, the county may proceed to issue and sell the bonds notwithstanding this subdivision.”

The motion prevailed and the amendment was adopted.

Ostrom moved to amend S. F. No. 1807, as amended, as follows:

Page 1, after line 18, insert:

“Sec. 3. [DEBT SERVICE LEVY FOR CERTAIN CERTIFICATES OF INDEBTEDNESS.]

Subdivision 1. [LEVY.] Notwithstanding Minnesota Statutes, section 475.754, if a city has issued certificates of indebtedness under that section during calendar year 1989 in an amount not exceeding $150,000 for the purpose of meeting the unanticipated cost of repairing a major structural defect in a building that was undergoing renovation for which other obligations had been issued previously, any levy to pay the debt service on those certificates shall be a special levy under Minnesota Statutes, section 275.50, subdivision 5, paragraph (c).

Subd. 2. [REVERSE REFERENDUM.] If the city intends to exercise the authority provided by subdivision 1 in subsequent years, it shall pass a resolution stating the fact before January 1, 1991. The resolution must be published for two successive weeks in the official newspaper of the city or, if there is no official newspaper, in a newspaper of general circulation in the city, together with a notice fixing a date for a public hearing on the matter. The hearing must be held at least two weeks but not more than four weeks after the first publication of the resolution. Following the public hearing, the city may determine to take no further action or adopt a resolution confirming its intention to exercise the authority. That resolution must also be published in the official newspaper of the city or, if there is no official newspaper, in a newspaper of general circulation in the city. If within 30 days after publication of the resolution a petition signed by voters equal in number to five percent of the votes cast in the city in the last general election requesting a vote on the proposed resolution is filed with the county auditor, the resolution is not effective until it has been submitted to the voters at a general or special election and a majority of votes cast on the question of approving the resolution are in the affirmative. The commissioner of revenue shall prepare a suggested form of question to be presented at the election. The referendum must be held at a special or general election before December 1, 1991."

Amend the title as follows:

“Sec. 4. [177.45] [SEVERANCE PAY LIMIT.]

(a) If financial assistance from a state agency is provided to a person directly or to a local unit of government or nonprofit organization on behalf of a person who is engaged in the manufacture or sale of goods and services, the person may not make a payment that is compensation for termination of employment from a project funded in whole or in part by the financial assistance in an amount exceeding one year of salary of the person receiving the payment. This limit includes payment for accrued vacation time. This limit does not apply to:

(1) payment for accrued wages, payments under a retirement plan or early retirement policy, or other payments made for a reason other than compensation for termination of employment;

(2) payment, in the form of periodic contributions by the employer toward premiums for group insurance coverage for a former employee, if the payments are made under a collective bargaining agreement or personnel plan; or

(3) payment required as a result of a settlement or decision in a proceeding before a court or administrative agency or in an internal grievance proceeding.

(b) "State agency" means any agency defined under section 16B.01, subdivision 2, the Greater Minnesota Corporation and the iron range resources and rehabilitation board.

(c) Project has the same meaning as given it in section 177.42, subdivision 2."

Delete everything after the enacting clause and insert:

“Section 1. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 31.94, is amended to read:

31.94 [DEPARTMENTAL DUTIES.]

The department shall enforce sections 31.92 to ~~31.94~~ 31.95. The department shall withhold from sale or trade any product sold, labeled, or advertised in violation of sections 31.92 to ~~31.94~~ 31.95.

The department shall investigate the offering for sale, labeling, or advertising of an article or substance as organically grown, organically processed, or produced in an organic environment if there is reason to believe that action is in violation of sections 31.92 to ~~31.94~~ 31.95.

The department may adopt rules, including emergency rules, that further clarify organic food standards and marketing practices.

Sec. 2. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 31.95, is amended to read:

31.95 [ORGANIC CERTIFICATION.]

Subdivision 1. [DESIGNATION.] The commissioner shall designate one or more organizations located in this state, made up of organic food growers, manufacturers, or sellers, to certify organically grown seeds, products, and food.

Subd. 2. [~~FEES.~~] The commissioner shall prescribe fees to be charged to persons for certification of organically grown seeds, production, and food under section 16A.128. By 1991, fees collected must reflect the total annual cost of certification.

Subd. 3. [CERTIFICATION REQUIREMENT.] An organic certification agency may not refuse services or certification to a person:

- (1) whose seeds, production products, and food meet certification requirements; and
- (2) who has paid membership dues and certification fees.

Subd. 4. [RULES.] The organic certification organization may draft rules for submission to the commissioner to adopt for implementation of the organically grown certification program.

Subd. 5. [CERTIFICATION ORGANIZATIONS.] (a) An organic product that is grown or processed in Minnesota and that is labeled "certified" must be certified by a certification organization that is designated pursuant to section 31.95, subdivision 1.

(b) A certified organic product sold in this state must be certified by a designated certification organization or by a certification organization approved by the commissioner after consultation with members of the organic industry.

S. F. No. 1854 was reported to the House.

Pugh moved to amend S. F. No. 1854, as follows:

Delete everything after the enacting clause and insert:

“Section 1. [13B.01] [DEFINITIONS.]

Subdivision 1. [GENERAL.] For purposes of this chapter, the following terms have the meanings given them.

Subd. 2. [BENEFIT PROGRAM.] “Benefit program” means a program administered by a public entity or agent of a public entity that provides cash or in-kind assistance in the form of payments, grants, subsidies, loans, loan guarantees, or any other form of financial assistance to individuals.

Subd. 3. [FRONT END VERIFICATION.] “Front end verification” means a computerized procedure operated by a public entity that checks the accuracy and truthfulness of data provided by an individual as part of an application with the public entity.

Subd. 4. [GOVERNMENT DATA.] “Government data” has the meaning given the term in section 13.02, subdivision 7.

Subd. 5. [INDIVIDUAL.] “Individual” has the meaning given the term in section 13.02, subdivision 8.

Subd. 6. [LAW ENFORCEMENT AGENCY.] “Law enforcement agency” means an agency of the state, a political subdivision, or the University of Minnesota with the power to conduct criminal investigations or make arrests or an attorney authorized by law to prosecute or participate in the prosecution of criminal offenses.

Subd. 7. [MATCHING PROGRAM.] “Matching program” means a computerized comparison of government data to government or nongovernment data for use by a public entity for purposes of determining the eligibility of individuals for a license, privilege, benefit program, or employment. Matching program does not include a comparison performed:

(1) by a public entity if all data used in the comparison are government data of one responsible authority within the public entity, other than personnel or payroll data;

(2) by a law enforcement agency after initiation of a law enforcement investigation for gathering evidence for a law enforcement proceeding against an identified individual;

(3) to produce aggregate statistical data without data that identify individuals in the final product; or

(4) to support a research or statistical project, the specific data of which may not be used to make decisions concerning the rights, benefits, or privileges of specific individuals.

Subd. 8. [PUBLIC ENTITY.] "Public entity" means a state agency or statewide system as those terms are defined in section 13.02.

Subd. 9. [RESPONSIBLE AUTHORITY.] "Responsible authority" has the meaning given in section 13.02, subdivision 16.

Sec. 2. [13B.02] [MATCHING AGREEMENTS.]

Before participating in a matching program, the responsible authority in each public entity that participates in the matching program shall enter into a written agreement with the other public entity specifying:

(1) the rationale, purpose, and legal authority for conducting the program;

(2) a description of the data that will be matched, including each data element that will be used, the approximate number of records that will be matched, and the projected starting and completion dates of the matching program;

(3) procedures for retention and destruction of data created by the matching program consistent with section 138.17;

(4) procedures for ensuring the security of the data;

(5) prohibitions on duplication and redisclosure of data by the public entity who receives the data, unless authorized by the public entity that releases the data;

(6) procedures governing the use of the data provided by the public entity for the matching program, including procedures governing return to the public entity or destruction of the data consistent with section 138.17; and

(7) information on assessments that have been made on the accuracy of the data that will be used in the matching program.

Sec. 3. [13B.03] [FRONT END VERIFICATION AND MATCHING PROGRAMS; RIGHTS OF SUBJECTS.]

A public entity may not suspend, terminate, reduce, or make a final denial of employment or a license or other privilege or of assistance under a benefit program, or take other adverse action against an individual as a result of data produced by a matching program or front end verification, until the entity has independently verified the data. If independent verification shows that the data are correct, the entity shall give the individual written notice of its findings and an opportunity to contest the findings. The requirements of this section may be satisfied by verification, notice, hearing, and appeal rights governing the particular benefit program or employment or licensing procedure. This section shall not apply to actions taken by the commissioner of revenue pursuant to section 270.72.

Sec. 4. [REPEALER.]

Section 2 is repealed July 31, 1992."

Kelly moved to amend S. F. No. 1854, as amended, as follows:

Page 3, after line 28, insert:

"Sec. 4. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 90.301, subdivision 6, is amended to read:

Subd. 6. [TICKET FOR THEFT VIOLATIONS.] The commissioner may design and issue a ticket in the form, and having the effect, of a summons and complaint, for use in cases of theft of state timber or other state property, where the value of the property is within the limits established by section 609.52, subdivision 3, clause (7) (5). The ticket shall provide for the name and address of the person charged with the violation, the offense charged, the time and place the person is to appear before a court, and any other necessary information.

Sec. 5. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 256.98, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [WRONGFULLY OBTAINING ASSISTANCE.] A person who obtains, or attempts to obtain, or aids or abets any person to obtain by means of a willfully false statement or representation, by intentional concealment of a material fact, or by impersonation or other fraudulent device, assistance to which the person is not entitled or assistance greater than that to which the person is entitled, or who knowingly aids or abets in buying or in any way disposing of the property of a recipient or applicant of assistance without the consent of the local agency with intent to defeat the purposes of sections 256.12, 256.72 to 256.871, and chapter 256B, or all of these sections is guilty of theft and shall be sentenced pursuant to section 609.52, subdivision 3, clauses (2), ~~(3), (6), and (7)~~ (3)(a) and (c), (4), and (5).

Sec. 6. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 256B.35, subdivision 5, is amended to read:

Subd. 5. The nursing home may transfer the personal allowance to someone other than the recipient only when the recipient or the recipient's guardian or conservator designates that person in writing to receive or expend funds on behalf of the recipient and that person certifies in writing that the allowance is spent for the well-being of the recipient. Persons, other than the recipient, in possession of the personal allowance, may use the allowance only for the well-being of the recipient. Any person, other than the recipient, who, with intent to defraud, uses the personal needs allowance for purposes other than the well-being of the recipient shall be guilty of theft and shall be sentenced pursuant to section 609.52, subdivision 3, clauses (2), ~~(3), and (7)~~ (3)(a) and (c), and (5). To prosecute under this subdivision, the attorney general or the appropriate county attorney, acting independently or at the direction of the attorney general, may institute a criminal action. A nursing home that transfers personal needs allowance funds to a person other than the recipient in good faith and in compliance with this section shall not be held liable under this subdivision.

Sec. 7. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 268.18, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [FALSE REPRESENTATIONS; CONCEALMENT OF FACTS; PENALTY.] (a) Whoever obtains, or attempts to obtain, or aids or abets any person to obtain by means of a willfully false statement or representation, by intentional concealment of a material fact, or by impersonation or other fraudulent device, benefits to which the person is not entitled or benefits greater than that to which the person is entitled under this chapter, or under the employment security law of any state or of the federal government or of a foreign government, either personally or for any other person, shall be guilty of theft and shall be sentenced pursuant to section 609.52, subdivision 3, clauses (2), ~~(3)~~, (6), and ~~(7)~~ (3)(a) and (c), (4), and (5). The amount of the benefits incorrectly paid shall be the difference between the amount of benefits actually received and the amount which the person would have been entitled under state and federal law had the department been informed of all material facts.

(b) Any employing unit or any officer or agent of an employing unit or any other person who makes a false statement or representation knowing it to be false, or who knowingly fails to disclose a material fact, to prevent or reduce the payment of benefits to any individual entitled thereto, or to avoid becoming or remaining a subject employer or to avoid or reduce any contribution or other payment required from an employing unit under this chapter or under the employment security law of any state or of the federal government, or who willfully fails or refuses to make any such contributions or other payment at the time required shall be guilty of a gross misdemeanor unless the benefit underpayment, contribution, or other payment involved exceeds $250, in which event the person is guilty of a felony.

(c) Any person who willfully fails to produce or permit the inspection or copying of books, papers, records, or memoranda as required or when requested under section 268.12, subdivision 8, or to furnish any required reports other than contribution reports shall be guilty of a gross misdemeanor."

The bill was passed, as amended, and its title agreed to.

S. F. No. 1703 was reported to the House.

Trimble moved to amend S. F. No. 1703, as follows:

Delete everything after the enacting clause and insert:

“Section 1. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 97A.205, is amended to read:

97A.205 [ENFORCEMENT OFFICER POWERS.]

An enforcement officer is authorized to:

(1) execute and serve court issued warrants and processes relating to wild animals, wild rice, public waters, water pollution, conservation, and use of water, in the same manner as a constable or sheriff;

(2) enter any land to carry out the duties and functions of the division;

(3) make investigations of violations of the game and fish laws;

(4) take an affidavit, if it aids an investigation;

(5) arrest, without a warrant, a person who is detected in the actual violation of the game and fish laws, a provision of chapters 84, 84A, 85, 86A, 88 to 106A, 361, sections 89.51 to 89.61; or 609.66, subdivision 1, clauses (1), (2), (5), and (7); and 609.68; and

(6) take an arrested person before a court in the county where the offense was committed and make a complaint.

Sec. 2. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 97A.315, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [CRIMINAL PENALTIES.] (a) A person that violates a provision of section 97B.001, relating to trespass is guilty of a misdemeanor except as provided in paragraph (b).

(b) A person is guilty of a gross misdemeanor if the person:

(1) knowingly disregards signs prohibiting trespass;

(2) destroys or removes lawfully placed signs prohibiting trespass;

(3) trespasses after personally being notified by the landowner or lessee not to trespass; or

~~(3)~~ (4) is convicted of violating this section more than once in a three-year period.

Sec. 3. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 97B.055, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [RESTRICTIONS RELATED TO HIGHWAYS.] (a) A person may not discharge a firearm or an arrow from a bow on, over, or across an improved public highway at a big game animal. A person may not discharge a firearm or bow and arrow within the right-of-way of an improved public highway at a big game animal. The commissioner may by order extend the application of this subdivision to the taking of migratory waterfowl in designated locations.

(b) A person may not discharge a firearm or an arrow from a bow on, over, across, or within the right-of-way of an improved public highway at a decoy of a big game animal that has been set out by a licensed peace officer.

Sec. 4. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 97B.325, is amended to read:

97B.325 [DEER STAND RESTRICTIONS.]

A person may not take deer from a constructed platform or other structure that is located within the right-of-way of an improved public highway or is higher than 16 feet above the ground. The height restriction does not apply to a portable stand that is chained, belted, clamped, or tied with rope.

Sec. 5. [EFFECTIVE DATE.]

Section 1 is effective the day following final enactment."

Delete the title and insert:

"A bill for an act relating to natural resources; authorizing the enforcement of certain natural resource laws by conservation officers; increasing the penalty for wrongful destruction or removal of no trespassing signs; prohibiting shooting at decoys under certain circumstances; prohibiting deer stands on highway right-of-way; amending Minnesota Statutes 1988, sections 97A.205; 97A.315, subdivision 1; 97B.055, subdivision 1; and 97B.325."

The motion prevailed and the amendment was adopted.

Krueger moved to amend S. F. No. 1703, as amended, as follows:

"Sec. 5. [OSAKIS MILL.]

The department of natural resources shall not allow the demolition of the Osakis Milling Company mill at Osakis, in Douglas county, until: (1) proper historical documentation of the site has been made that is adequate for a Historic American Engineering Record description and history of the mill; and (2) all items have been salvaged that are considered historically significant by the state historical society."

Delete everything after the enacting clause and insert:

"Section 1. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 500.24, subdivision 4, is amended to read:

Subd. 4. [REPORTS.] (a) The chief executive officer of every pension or investment fund, corporation, or limited partnership, except a family farm corporation or a family farm limited partnership, that holds any interest in agricultural land or land used for the breeding, feeding, pasturing, growing, or raising of livestock, dairy or poultry, or products thereof, or land used for the production of agricultural crops or fruit or other horticultural products, other than a bona fide encumbrance taken for purposes of security, or which is engaged in farming or proposing to commence farming in this state after May 20, 1973, shall file with the commissioner of agriculture a report containing the following information and documents:

(1) The name of the pension or investment fund, corporation, or limited partnership and its place of incorporation, certification, or registration;

(2) The address of the pension or investment plan headquarters or of the registered office of the corporation in this state, the name and address of its registered agent in this state and, in the case of a foreign corporation or limited partnership, the address of its principal office in its place of incorporation, certification, or registration;

(3) The acreage and location listed by quarter-quarter section, township and county of each lot or parcel of land in this state owned or leased by the pension or investment fund, limited partnership, or corporation and used for the growing of crops or the keeping or feeding of poultry or livestock;

(4) The names and addresses of the officers, administrators, directors or trustees of the pension or investment fund, or of the officers, shareholders owning more than ten percent of the stock, including the percent of stock owned by each such shareholder, and the members of the board of directors of the corporation, and the general and limited partners and the percentage of interest in the partnership by each partner;

(5) The farm products which the pension or investment fund, limited partnership, or corporation produces or intends to produce on its agricultural land;

(6) With the first report, a copy of the title to the property where the farming operations are or will occur indicating the particular exception claimed under subdivision 3, clauses (a) to (r); and

(7) With the first or second report, a copy of the conservation plan proposed by the soil and water conservation district, and with subsequent reports a statement of whether the conservation plan was implemented.

The report of a corporation seeking to qualify hereunder as a family farm corporation, an authorized farm corporation, a family farm partnership, or authorized farm partnership shall contain the following additional information: The number of shares or the partnership interests owned by persons residing on the farm or actively engaged in farming, or their relatives within the third degree of kindred according to the rules of the civil law or their spouses; the name, address and number of shares owned by each shareholder or partnership interests owned by each partner; and a statement as to percentage of gross receipts of the corporation derived from rent, royalties, dividends, interest and annuities. No pension or investment fund, limited partnership, or corporation shall commence farming in this state until the commissioner of agriculture has inspected the report and certified that its proposed operations comply with the provisions of this section.

(b) Every pension or investment fund, limited partnership, or corporation as described in clause (a) shall, prior to April 15 of each year, file with the commissioner of agriculture a report containing the information required in clause (a), based on its operations in the preceding calendar year and its status at the end of the year. A pension or investment fund, limited partnership, or corporation that does not file the report by April 15 must pay a $500 civil penalty. The penalty is a lien on the land being farmed under subdivision 3 until the penalty is paid.

(c) The commissioner or the commissioner's authorized representative may enter into a written agreement with a person required to file a report under this subdivision who, for good cause shown, has failed to make a timely filing. An agreement must be construed as a "no contest" pleading and may encompass a reduction or waiver of the civil penalty for late filing. The agreement is final and conclusive with respect to the civil penalty, except upon a showing of fraud or malfeasance or misrepresentation of a material fact. The matter agreed upon in the agreement may not be reopened or modified by an officer, employee, or agent of the state.

(d) Failure to file a required report, or the willful filing of false information, shall constitute a gross misdemeanor.

Sec. 2. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 582.30, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [MORTGAGE ON AGRICULTURAL PROPERTY ENTERED AFTER MARCH 22, 1986.] (a) If a mortgage entered after March 22, 1986 on property used in agricultural production is foreclosed and sold, a deficiency judgment may only be obtained by filing a separate an action for a deficiency judgment and a determination of the fair market value of the property within 90 days after the foreclosure sale. A court may allow a deficiency judgment only if it determines that the sale of the property was conducted in a commercially reasonable manner.

(b) The amount of the deficiency judgment is limited to the difference of the fair market value of the property, and the amount remaining unpaid on the mortgage if the foreclosure is under chapter 580 or the amount of the judgment if the foreclosure is under chapter 581. ~~A separate jury proceeding must be brought to determine the fair market value of the property.~~ The property may not be presumed to be sold for its fair market value. A party adversely affected by a deficiency judgment may submit evidence relevant to establishing the fair market value of the property. Notice of the time and place where the action for the deficiency judgment and the determination of fair market value of the property is to be determined heard must be given to all parties adversely affected by the judgment.

Sec. 3. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 582.30, subdivision 4, is amended to read:

Subd. 4. [JUDGMENT ON MORTGAGE NOTE.] A personal judgment may not be executed against a mortgagor liable on a mortgage note entered after March 22, 1986 secured by real property used in agricultural production, unless the fair market value of the property is determined by a jury in a separate proceeding as provided in subdivision 3, ~~paragraph (b)~~. The personal judgment on the mortgage note may not be for more than the difference of the amount due on the note and the fair market value of the property.

Sec. 4. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 582.30, subdivision 5, is amended to read:

Subd. 5. [MORTGAGE ON AGRICULTURAL PROPERTY ENTERED ON OR BEFORE MARCH 22, 1986.] (a) If a mortgage entered on or before March 22, 1986 on property used in agricultural production is foreclosed and sold, a deficiency judgment may only be obtained by filing a separate an action for a deficiency judgment and a determination of the fair market value of the property within 90 days after the foreclosure sale. A court may allow a deficiency judgment only if it determines that the sale of the property was conducted in a commercially reasonable manner.

(b) The amount of the deficiency judgment is limited to the difference of the fair market value of the property, and the amount remaining unpaid on the mortgage if the foreclosure is under chapter 580 or the amount of the judgment if the foreclosure is under chapter 581. ~~A separate jury proceeding must be brought to determine the fair market value of the property.~~ The property may not be presumed to be sold for its fair market value. A party adversely affected by a deficiency judgment may submit evidence relevant to establishing the fair market value of the property. Notice of the time and place where the action for the deficiency judgment and the determination of fair market value of the property is to be determined heard must be given to all parties adversely affected by the judgment.

Sec. 5. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 582.30, subdivision 6, is amended to read:

Subd. 6. [JUDGMENT ON MORTGAGE NOTE.] A personal judgment may not be executed against a mortgagor liable on a mortgage note entered on or before March 22, 1986 secured by real property used in agricultural production, unless the fair market value of the property is determined by a jury in a separate proceeding as provided in subdivision 5, paragraph (b). The personal judgment on the mortgage note may not be for more than the difference of the amount due on the note and the fair market value of the property.

Sec. 6. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 582.30, subdivision 7, is amended to read:

Subd. 7. [STATUTE OF LIMITATIONS ON EXECUTING JUDGMENT.] A deficiency judgment or personal judgment obtained to enforce a mortgage debt on property used in agricultural production may be enforced by execution, but the judgment may not be executed after ~~three~~ ten years from the date judgment was entered.

Sec. 7. [EFFECTIVE DATE.]

Section 1 is effective the day following final enactment but the provision allowing for an agreement concerning reduction or waiver of a civil penalty for late filing applies to a filing due April 15, 1989, or thereafter."

"Section 1. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 169.48, is amended to read:

169.48 [VEHICLE LIGHTING.]

Subdivision 1. [LIGHTS TO BE DISPLAYED.] Every vehicle upon a highway within this state:

(1) at any time from sunset to sunrise;

(2) at any time when it is raining, snowing, sleeting, or hailing; and

(3) at any other time when visibility is impaired by weather, smoke, fog or other conditions or there is not sufficient light to render clearly discernible persons and vehicles on the highway at a distance of 500 feet ahead, shall display lighted lamps and illuminating devices, as hereinafter, respectively, required for different classes of vehicles, subject to exceptions with respect to parked vehicles, as hereinafter stated. In addition to the other requirements of this paragraph, every school bus transporting children upon a highway within this state, at any time from a half hour before sunrise to a half hour after sunset, shall display lighted lamps and illuminating devices as required by this paragraph, except that the operator shall use the lower most distribution of light specified in section 169.60 unless conditions warrant otherwise.

When requirement is hereinafter declared as to the distance from which certain lamps and devices shall render objects visible or within which such lamps or devices shall be visible, these provisions shall apply during the time stated in this section upon a straight level unlighted highway under normal atmospheric conditions unless a different time or condition is expressly stated and unless otherwise specified the location of lamps and devices shall refer to the center of such lamps or devices. Parking lamps shall not be used in lieu of head lamps to satisfy the requirements of this section.

Delete everything after the enacting clause and insert:

“Section 1. [REPORT ON TRAINING OF POST-SECONDARY ADMINISTRATION AND FACULTY.]

Subdivision 1. [LEGISLATIVE INTENT.] The Minnesota legislature recommends that (1) post-secondary administrators have training in administrative skills relevant to their position in areas such as management, affirmative action, human relations, and contract negotiations; and (2) faculty have training in educational psychology, teaching methods, and advising students. Similar training is recommended for students preparing for post-secondary teaching or administrative careers.

Subd. 2. [REPORT.] Each post-secondary governing board shall examine its current programs that provide initial training and continuing education for its administrators and faculty to improve their administrative, teaching, and advising skills. The boards shall report to the education committees on their existing programs and their future plans by January 15, 1991.”

Delete the title and insert:

“A bill for an act relating to education; recommending post-secondary education administrators and faculty members take certain coursework.”
